Heavy Flak Greets U.S. Jets

3 N. Viet Missile Units Hit

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Battling their way through heavy missile and conventional antiaircraft fire, U.S. Navy and Air Force planes hit three surface-to-air missile launching sites yesterday about 35 miles northeast of Hanoi, a U.S. military spokesman said.

One Navy plane was shot down and the pilot was listed as missing.

Pilots reported they counted 17 missiles fired at them during the attack.

They said they left one site in ruins and knocked the other two out of action.

CENTER OF AREA

The attacks on the missile sites were ordered after missiles were fired at planes from the carriers Oriskany and Independence during an attack on the key highway bridge. It was in the center of the missile installations.

A flight of Navy planes led by Cmdr. Harry T. Jenkins, 38, of Washington, D. C., dumped four tons of 500-pound bombs on one missile site, the spokesman said.

No missiles were launched from the site after the final run on the target, pilots reported.

★ ★ ★

At almost the same time, Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs led by a Navy A4 Skyhawk were bombing the two other installations nearby.

NAVY PLANE HIT

The Navy plane flying with the Air Force craft was hit during the raid by conventional ground fire.

Capt. Robert L. Harris, 34, of Longview, Tex., leader of one of the Air Force flights, reported sighting a parachute from the Navy plane. The pilot was listed as missing.

The action over the missile area was the heaviest so far disclosed in the air war against North Viet Nam.

The Air Force planes dropped 19 tons of 500- and 750-pound bombs and fired thousands of rounds of 20mm cannon fire on the two installations they hit, the spokesman said.

COMPLETE RUNS

While the missile installations still were under attack, pilots from the Oriskany completed their bombing runs on the bridge. Then a second flight of Navy planes also hit the bridge.

In all, 21 tons of bombs were dropped on the bridge, "leaving it in a cloud of smoke and dust," the spokesman said.

Later photo reconnaissance and low-level flight made by the Navy flight leader, Cmdr. Joe D. Adkins, 40, of Marlow, Okla., showed that all spans of the bridge were knocked into the water, the spokesman said.

Six U.S. planes have been reported shot down by the antiaircraft missiles which the Soviets have installed in North Viet Nam. The sixth was a Navy jet fighter last Wednesday.

PERMANENT SITES

Permanent missile launching sites have been installed at several points around Hanoi and Haiphong, North Viet Nam's chief port.

A number of mobile launchers are also operating. They can be set up and dismantled within 24 hours.

U.S. officials decline to estimate the number of missile launchers in North Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Unofficial reports have indicated that there has been a steady buildup of missile defenses in a circle around Hanoi.

Klan Boss Kills Self After Story

Jewish Origin Made Public by NY Times

READING, Pa. (AP) — Daniel Burros, New York Ku Klux Klan leader, shot himself to death minutes after learning his Jewish origin had been made public, a fellow Klansman told police.

"This will destroy me," one witness to the shooting yesterday quoted the 28-year-old Burros as saying after Burros read a New York Times story detailing his long-hidden background.

The shooting occurred in the apartment of Roy E. Frankhouser Jr., 25, who has been named by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as grand dragon of the Pennsylvania Ku Klux Klan. Burros died of two bullet wounds.

Detective Leon Zerowski said there "was no doubt" Burros shot himself. He said autopsy tests still were being awaited, however, for an official ruling.

Frankhouser said he tried to calm Burros after Burros saw the newspaper story but Burros started kicking things in the room and shouted: "I'll have to kill myself."

Frankhouser told police that Burros had told him earlier that he had threatened the Times Reporter who had disclosed his secret and Burros said he also would "get" a New York plain-clothesman who had heard the threat.

Frankhouser told police that Burros, after reading the Times story, said he had to go to New York to "wipe out" the Times reporter who had disclosed his secret and said he also would "wipe out" the newspaper staff.

LBJ Prodding

Aluminum Surplus Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Officials met at the White House today on orders of President Johnson to consider how to dispose of surplus stockpiled aluminum shortly after producers announced a plan to raise basic prices.

There was no official linking of the two actions. But Johnson got on the phone yesterday to set up the meeting of cabinet officers and agency heads on the heels of the producers' price announcement.

Some sources here say that Johnson, recuperating at his Texas ranch from a gallbladder operation, was angered by the proposed price increase of half a cent a pound while the government is holding some 1.4 million tons as surplus.

Presidential aides at Johnson City, Texas, denied knowledge of any connection between the meeting and the price announcement.

Some $250 million worth of aluminum ingots could be released immediately by presidential order. Another $450 million could be released by congressional action.

★ ★ ★

The group of high government officials met in the office of special White House assistant Joseph S. Califano Jr. Those participating included Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Franklin B. Dryden, deputy director of the Office of Emergency Planning.

Johnson and wife Lady Bird were alone again at the LBJ Ranch — as alone as they ever can be — following the Sunday departures of both daughters to return to college classes.

★ ★ ★

The Texas White House still was keeping mum about reports that the younger daughter, 18-year-old Luci, had made a roundtrip weekend flight from Washington with 22-year-old boyfriend Pat Nugent to seek Johnson's blessing for marriage.

★ ★ ★

Nugent of Waukegan, Ill., refused today to confirm or deny that he and the President's daughter have sought the Johnson's permission to marry.

The tall blond, 22-year-old Nugent said "My private life is my own and so is Luci's."

California Fog Causes Huge Car Smashups

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A fog bank drifted across a freeway. A stream of cars raced in. Nope came out.

The fog muffled the screeching brakes and the crash of grille on bumper. By the time the last headlight tinkled broken to the Santa Ana Freeway, 100 cars had smashed together.

An hour later, as tow trucks disentangled the wrecks, another fog bank settled on another freeway 20 miles away — and 50 more cars piled up in two more cases of chain reaction, freeway style.

It took 41 police cars — two of which also were in accidents — to get the freeways flowing again after yesterday's multiple collisions.

★ ★ ★

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

"It isn't one big accident," said Robert Mills, highway patrol operations officer. "It's a whole series of accidents. Maybe several cars in one pile-up, then, a few yards away, several cars in another. It stretches all the way up the freeway."

The first accident occurred at dawn yesterday near where the San Gabriel River, 15 miles southeast of downtown Los Angeles. It was a misty morning, but traffic was humming along near the 65 miles per hour speed limit when

School-Operated Restaurant Starts Big Week

A big week is in store for those connected with the Skyroom Restaurant at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Tomorrow, the school - operated restaurant will begin functioning on a full three - meal schedule, and Thursday at 6 p.m. the grand opening will be held.

Leased by Waterford Township Schools from the city-owned airport, the restaurant is assigned to Waterford-Kettering High School.

Next semester, food service students from township high schools will begin training at the restaurant in preparation for related occupations.

The "experienced hand" behind the operation is Mrs. Charlotte Korte, who has had 30 years experience in the restaurant field.

RANGE OF EXPERIENCE

She has worked on Great Lakes excursion boats and at the Women's City Club of Detroit and has taught food service students at Detroit's Chadsey High School.

On her staff are an assistant manager, two cooks, two waitresses, a dishwasher and a part-time porter.

Mrs. Korte informs that the restaurant will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and from 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday.

The restaurant will be closed on Monday.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served each day the restaurant is open. The cost of meals will range up to $1.25 for lunches and between $1.25 and $3 for dinner.

The seating capacity of the restaurant is more than 60, according to Mrs. Korte. In addition, there is a banquet room in the basement.

According to Mrs. Korte, the restaurant will specialize in "home-cooked" meals. All dressings and soups will be homemade, she noted.

Although the restaurant will serve soups and sandwiches, it will not specialize in short orders.

★ ★ ★

"Our menu will change every day," said Mrs. Korte. "It's more on a tearoom basis."

GETTING COMPLIMENTS

Already, compliments are pouring in on the quality of the food and patronage is increasing gradually.

Ham, steak, chicken, roast beef, fish and casseroles will be featured at dinner.

Mrs. Korte observed that other local restaurateurs look on the restaurant favorably.

"Most of them are favorable because eventually they will draw their help from here."

U.S. Red Party in Court Again for Not Registering

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Communist party goes on trial again today on charges of failing to register with the government as a Soviet agent.

Conviction on similar charges three years ago brought a $120,000 fine but was overturned by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

★ ★ ★

This time, the Justice Department hopes to avert the legal loophole that spelled defeat after apparent victory in its 15-year battle with the party.

The 12-count indictment returned by a grand jury last February charges the party not only with failure to register but with doing so in the full knowledge that a volunteer was available and willing to register on behalf of the party.

SHOW VOLUNTEER

The U.S. Court of Appeals, in striking down the 1962 conviction one year later, ruled that the government had had the burden of proving such a volunteer — unconcerned about possible self-incrimination — was available to sign the registration form and statement for the party.

Thus, the highlight of the trial scheduled to open today in U.S. District Court is expected to be the testimony of the witness — or witnesses — the government claims the party could have called on.

★ ★ ★

His — or their — identity is a closely held secret between Asst. U.S. Atty. Joseph Lowther, who will prosecute the case, and the Justice Department's Internal Security Division.

"We don't want to tell you the name or names because we don't want the party to know in advance who our witnesses will be," Asst. Atty. Gen. J. Walter Yeagley told a reporter.

PARTY ATTORNEYS

John J. Abt of New York and Joseph Forer of Washington, are the party's attorneys in this trial.

The last trial went to the jury of eight men and four women on the fourth day. They returned the guilty verdict in 35 minutes.

★ ★ ★

The present indictment specifically charges the party with wilfully failing to register, as required by the Internal Security Act of 1950, on each of 11 days from Feb. 13 to Feb. 23 of this year. Each day constitutes a separate offense that carries a maximum penalty of $10,000.

★ ★ ★

The 12th count of the indictment — like that in the 1962 case — asserts that the party failed to file the required statement of members' names, aliases and addresses, along with a list of printing presses and reproduction equipment controlled by the party, as well as a detailed financial accounting.

★ ★ ★

The old indictment, incidentally, is still alive. The court may decide to try it concurrently with the new one. It remains to be seen whether the government will try to prove its "volunteer registrant" was available for the 11 days covered in the 1962 indictment.

Boy Trapped in Marshland Seven Hours

MONROE (AP) — A 16-year-old duck hunter, trapped chest-deep in a marsh, waited seven hours for rescue while rising water crept toward his face Sunday, authorities said.

Edward LaFountain of Newport narrowly escaped drowning in Point Mouille March, 12 miles northeast of Monroe, said Monroe County sheriff's deputy Thomas Hoffman.

The boy's ordeal began when his small boat ran aground approximately 75 yards from shore.

He told authorities he abandoned the boat after trying futilely to drag it ashore about 2:30 p.m.

He began sinking in muck and struggled to free himself until he was chest - deep in the mire, he told sheriff's men.

EASES BACK

Then, high winds which had pushed the water offshore, began to let up and the water began easing back in, authorities said.

At 7:30 p.m., a search was begun by LaFountain's father, Albert, and the boy's two hunting companions who he had let out of the boat early in the afternoon.

They found LaFountain.

It took two hours to free the youth, sheriff's men said.

LaFountain was treated at a hospital for exposure and was released, officers said.

Klan Chief Kills Self

cide, had been identified at hearings of the House committee as New York State grand dragon of the Klan.

Detective Capt. Joseph Confora of the Reading police said Burros shot himself "as an aftermath" of the article published in the New York Times.

The article reported that Burros, who had been chosen king kleagle to lead an anti-Jewish, anti-Negro crusade by the United Klans of America in New York, had a secret that he desperately did not want known.

PARENTS JEWISH

The secret was that his parents are Jewish and were married in a Jewish ceremony, and that he had received a bar mitzvah, or confirmation, in a small synagogue in the Queens section of New York City when he was 13.

PARENTS TO ARRIVE

Reading police said that Burros' parents were expected to arrive here today to claim the body.

The article was written by McCandlish Phillips.

The Times said Burros, when confronted with the facts of his Jewish background last week, told the Times reporter:

★ ★ ★

"I'll have to retaliate, do you understand? If you publish that I'll come and get you and I'll kill you. I don't care what happens. I'll be ruined. This is all I've got to live for."

Phillips wrote that before Burros was confronted with his Jewish background, he had been "civil, almost pleasant" as the reporter spoke with him informally in a Queens barber shop.

★ ★ ★

A 32-caliber revolver was lying six inches from Burros when police found him on the floor of the apartment of Frankhouser, self-styled right-wing segregationist and supporter of the American Nazi party.

Burros, stocky and bespectacled, had been shot twice with a 32-caliber gun, a doctor said. In his pockets were cards with Ku Klux Klan identifications and photographs of him in Klan regalia.

Burros was pronounced dead by Dr. Martin Austin, a Reading physician and deputy coroner, who ordered what he called a "thorough autopsy" at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Georgia Pair Mum to Quiz by Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — House investigators of the Ku Klux Klan turned attention to Georgia today and the first two witnesses called refused to answer any questions.

George Sligh, 63, called to the witness stand first, was identified by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, as the man who appeared on a Columbia Broadcasting System television program about the Klan.

In the program, he was identified as an exalted cyclops, or Klavern leader, and gave the oath to new members of the Klan.

But, Philip Manuel, committee investigator, testified that Sligh in fact was not the exalted cyclops of the Lithonia, Ga., Klavern as he was depicted on the television program.

★ ★ ★

Manuel also said that the oath Sligh read was not the true Klan oath and that persons appearing as new inductees were already Klan members.

REFUSED TO ANSWER

Rep. Charles L. Weltner, D-Ga., asked Sligh how it was that he was willing to appear reading a Klan ritual on a national television program, but was not willing to testify before the committee.

Sligh refused to answer, citing the Fifth Amendment and other constitutional grounds.

China Backers in U.N. Split

Differ on Proposals to Gain Membership

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The leading boosters of Red China for U.N. membership are reported split over what to propose to the General Assembly.

Diplomatic sources said the division had developed among the 11 delegations that got the 117-nation assembly to agree to debate an item calling for "restoration of the lawful right of the People's Republic of China in the United Nations."

★ ★ ★

They said Cambodia suggested a resolution proposing to seat Communist China on all U.N. bodies without expelling Nationalist China.

Albania, Red China's chief ally in its feud with the Soviet Union, urged that the resolution call for expulsion of the Chinese Nationalists in favor of the Communists and meet some of Communist China's other conditions for joining the United Nations.

RED'S CONDITIONS

Among the conditions stated by Chinese Communist Foreign Minister Chen Yi Sept. 29 were:

—Withdrawal of the 1951 U.N. resolution condemning Communist China as an aggressor in Korea.

—U.N. condemnation of the United States on that score.

—Expulsion from the United Nations of "imperialist-puppet" countries.

★ ★ ★

The informants said Cambodia's proposal met with reserve and Albania's with opposition from those of the other nine nations to whom they were presented.

The others are Algeria, Burundi, the Congo (Brazzaville), Cuba, Ghana, Guinea, Mali, Romania and Syria.

GET MORE VOTES

A resolution to seat the Chinese Communists while letting the Nationalists remain would probably get more votes than one that would throw the Nationalists out.

A resolution to accept the Chinese Communists' conditions would be likely to get less votes than one to invite the Reds in or to substitute them for the Nationalists.

A few diplomats forecast a slight margin in favor of the Chinese Communists but far less than the two-thirds necessary to seat them.

Hiring of Prelaw Student for Court Bureau Backed

BIRMINGHAM — A recommendation to hire a prelaw student for full-time duty in the Municipal Court Violations Bureau will be presented tonight to the City Commission.

City Manager R. S. Kenning, who recommended the new employe, suggested a salary range of from $4,400 to $4,800 based on a 40-hour work week.

Presently the bureau is staffed by two full-time clerical workers and one half-time, or 20-hour-per-week, employe.

Kenning, in recommending a full-time person with an interest in law, said that a change was needed to relieve scheduling and coordinating problems that have arisen in this office.

★ ★ ★

The city's municipal judges believe the hiring of a prelaw student could benefit the court as well as relieving the clerical function of the violations bureau, Kenning said.

JANITORIAL SERVICE

Also tonight, the City Commission will be advised that the present contract for janitorial service in the municipal building will be terminated Nov. 30 and that advertisements for bids to furnish service have been published.

★ ★ ★

Another item of information for commissioners will be that the engineering department soon will start a citywide sidewalk inspection program.

A child psychiatry specialist will speak tonight to the Hickory Grove PTO on "Developmental Ages, Stages and Difficulties."

Speaking at the 8 p.m. meeting will be Dr. James M. McHugh, a consultant in child psychiatry at Children's Hospital as well as for the Royal Oak school system.

MSU Will Ask $50.6 Million

$4.9 Million Sought for OU Operations

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University said today it will ask the state for $50.6 million to run its 1966-67 operations.

In addition to the $50.6 million it will seek a state appropriation of $4.9 million for Oakland University operational expenses.

OU received a $2.6-million appropriation this year.

MSU will also request $3.2 million for the Agricultural Cooperative Extension Service and $4.4 million for the agricultural Experiment Station.

★ ★ ★

These two units received $2.5 million and $3.5 million respectively this year.

HIGHER AMOUNT

The initial proposal is more than 30 per cent above the $38.6 million the state granted MSU for the current year.

★ ★ ★

Almost half, or $5.9 million, of the proposed increase is for new staff, including 342 faculty positions.

The proposal says Michigan State accepted 4,000 new students at its main East Lansing campus this year and expects 2,150 more next fall.

The budget also proposes these increases:

- $1.1 million for supplies and equipment.
- $632,388 for academic equipment.
- $823,900 for libraries.
- $1.2 million for nonacademic areas.
- $860,343 for physical plant.

Michigan State also asked starts in 1966-67 on these building projects: a new administration building, library addition, pesticide research center, social science building, communication arts building, life sciences and nursing buildings, physics and astronomy building and general classroom-office building.

TOTAL COST

These buildings would cost more than $43 million when completed.

The requested appropriation for general operations plus the school's other sources of revenue — income, fees, federal funds—would provide a $65.2 million operating budget for year compared with $52 million available for the current year.

Highway patrolman William Davis plunged his patrol car into the fog, collided with an auto spinning out of control ahead of him, and came to a stop unhurt, held in by his safety harness. Many of the victims suffered neck whiplash injuries from rear-end collisions.

★ ★ ★

By that time more fog settled on the Harbor Freeway south of downtown Los Angeles, and the chain reaction began again: 30 cars crashed at Manchester Avenue, another 20 at 76th Street. This time the freeway was closed for an hour.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Occasional rain will fall along the northern and central Pacific Coast and in portions of the northern Rockies tonight. Snow flurries are expected in the lower Lakes region and in portions of northern New England. Cooler temperatures will be felt over most of the area east of the Mississippi Valley and over the southern Plains.

22 Injured in Mishap

TOKYO (UPI) — An express train carrying 700 passengers rammed a cement-mixing truck today at an unguarded crossing in Niigata, injuring 22 persons. Nine of the train's 12 cars jumped the track, and three tumbled 15 feet down an embankment, Niigata police said.

Strolls In, Breezes Out

October Acts Like March in Reverse

Acting like March in reverse, October came in under blue skies and then departed in a huff.

★ ★ ★

But again, the blustery attitude was nothing more than can be expected of the transitional child of fall and winter.

Only once did it forget itself and allow the temperature to reach a summerlike 80 degrees on the 18th of the month.

It was keeping in character since 80 was the high reached in October 1964.

★ ★ ★

The high last month fell 10 degrees short of the warmest day in September when the thermometer reached 90.

OCTOBER LOW

October's low of 24 was eight degrees below the 36 low recorded a month earlier and, as might be expected, was similar to the 28 low marked in October last year.

The amount of rainfall was about the only difference in last October and the same month a year ago.

Last month there was 1.49 inches of rain while in October 1964 there was less than half an inch.

The recorded rainfall last month, however, was nearly consistent with the previous month's 1.40 inches.

SNOW FLURRIES

As a preview of what can be expected in coming months, October scattered a few snow flurries in the area, but not really enough to whet the appetite of winter sportsmen.

The snow came down the same day the low temperature for the month was recorded, the 28th.

On the 20th, the heaviest rain for the month was recorded in the Pontiac area, three-quarters of an inch.

★ ★ ★

On two occasions, the seventh and eighth, one-quarter of an inch of rain was recorded.

SUNNY SKIES

Sunny skies shone on 21 of the 31 days.

On the last day of the month, winds of 50 miles an hour with gusts up to 60 miles were recorded locally.

Ex-Agent Tells of Wiretaps

Says Army Checked on Mrs. Roosevelt

NEW YORK (UPI) — A former Army Intelligence agent said last night his agency eavesdropped on the private conversations of many prominent people who came through Chicago during 1943, including Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and scientists working on the atom bomb project.

The agent, identified as Willis Adams, disclosed during a television news special on wiretapping that Army intelligence crews "did a tremendous amount of wiretapping" during "the latter part of 1943."

He indicated that his team of agents was part of a nationwide network using wiretaps for national security reasons.

Adams, who is now a private investigator in the Washington, D.C., area, said his team was responsible for Illinois and Michigan and parts of Indiana and Wisconsin.

★ ★ ★

"We had the Chicago hotels—practically all of them—wired. There was kind of an exchange (of information gleaned from wiretaps) between the military authorities and the civil authorities."

PROMINENT PERSONS

Adams said his group monitored the conversations of many prominent people, the most prominent of which was Mrs. Roosevelt.

He said listening devices were "in various and sundry hotel rooms and so on — in suites — that involved the wife of the president, Mrs. Roosevelt . . . as she would pass through our territory."

One of the most important assignments of Adams' group was to monitor the private conversations of atomic scientists doing preliminary work on the Manhattan Project, he said.

"We were ordered to secure this area around the old stadium of the University of Chicago at which this Argonne laboratory with these scientists was situated," Adams said.

The agents also planted listening devices in the hotel rooms of such prominent scientists on the A-bomb project as Enrico Fermi and Robert Oppenheimer, according to Adams.

Stock Market to Be Explained at Adult Class

An adult education program, explaining business finance and how stock markets operate, will be held from 8 to 10 p.m. tomorrow at Waterford Township High School.

A representative of the New York Stock Exchange will speak and two films will be shown, according to Donald Arsen, adult education coordinator.

★ ★ ★

A question-answer session will follow.

Those attending can register for a free booklet, entitled "What Everybody Ought to Know About This Stock and Bond Business."

U.S. to Start Plan to Educate Convicts

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Labor Department is developing a comprehensive program of vocational education and training for federal and state prison inmates so they will not have to turn to crime again when they are freed.

In announcing the programs during the weekend, Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz noted that more than one out of three of the 100,000 prisoners released from jail each year eventually return.

"Lack of job skills and subsequent unemployment and underemployment undoubtedly lead ex-prisoners back into trouble and prison," a department report said.

Chest Ailment Fatal

GLASGOW (AP) — Sir Peter Meldrum, 55, lord provost of Glasgow, died Sunday shortly after having been hospitalized with a chest ailment. He formerly was a Labor member of parliament and was knighted earlier this year by Queen Elizabeth II.

Army Would Keep Divisions

Last 6 Reserve Units Saved?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The last six Army Reserve divisions — tabbed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara for elimination — may be saved after all.

It was learned today that Army planners are leaning toward a proposal that would preserve division structures and identities, although the outfits would be smaller than they are now and their members would drill without pay.

★ ★ ★

Such a solution might satisfy congressional critics of McNamara's plans to streamline the Army's National Guard and Reserve forces, although reservist groups still might object.

On Oct. 22, the Senate Armed Services Committee adopted a resolution formally calling on McNamara to postpone the elimination of 751 Army Reserve units until Congress can take a long look at the plan next year.

CONSIDERATION

Asked what the Pentagon has done in response to this Senate action, the Defense Department said the resolution "is presently under consideration." Sources said orders to set in motion the elimination of the affected units have not gone out.

The six divisions account for about 500 of the 751 units which McNamara said on Sept. 30 are not required and would be "phased out as soon as possible."

★ ★ ★

Of the 55,000 reservists affected by McNamara's action at that time, about 42,000 are enrolled in the six divisions and their component elements.

The six are:

The 63rd Infantry Division of California, the 77th Infantry Division of New York, the 90th Infantry Division of Texas, the 33rd Infantry Division of Ohio and West Virginia, the 102nd Infantry Division of Missouri and Illinois, and the 81st Infantry Division of Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee.

AVERAGE COUNT

Army officials said these divisions average about 7,000 men each.

Under McNamara's plan, they would be obliterated, officials said.

However, under the proposal now being studied, they would be converted into what are called "reinforcement training units."

As such, they would serve as a base for any general mobilization — although McNamara and his top aides doubt the world will ever again see a war of the magnitude of World War II requiring such a massive mobilization.

'SELECT FORCE'

According to present Army staff thinking, all men with obligated reserve service remaining would be transferred out of these divisions and placed in some of the 976 National Guard and Reserve units which are being formed into a first-line "select force" of 150,000 men.

Further, Army officials say, other reservists in the six divisions will be encouraged to transfer over to the "select force" where they would train intensively, continue to be paid for these drills, and be subject to crisis mobilization.

★ ★ ★

With what is left, the Army is thinking of retaining what amounts to skeletons of these divisions, manned by men interested enough in remaining as reservists to drill without pay, take military correspondence courses and otherwise keep active in Reserve affairs.

Such reservists might be paid for summer training and they definitely would continue to pile up credits toward retirement pay which they would collect after they turn 60.

6 Persons Die in Atlanta Fire

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Six persons, including five children, were killed and three others injured today when fire destroyed a wooden frame tenement house in Atlanta's southeastern Kirkwood section.

Fifteen persons were left homeless by the blaze, the cause of which was unknown.

The victims were listed as Mrs. Mary Jo Tiller, 27, her four children, Darrell, 2; Tony, 3; Marvin, 11 months, and Martha, 7, and Sandra Ann Peepers, 8.

Asst. Fire Chief Steve Campbell said there was no chance to save any of the victoms.

"It was one of those two-story wooden buildings which just goes 'poof' when it burns," he said. "We found the bodies on the second floor. The lower floor wasn't damaged as bad, but the second floor was gone."

Campbell said three fire companies were called to the scene in the predawn hours. "They had it out in about ten minutes," he said: "There wasn't much to do but just shoot some water on it.

Nation's Halloween: Happiness for Some; Tragedy for Others

By the Associated Press

There was the usual boisterous fun as Halloween was observed across the nation over the weekend, but the trick-or-treat season had some overtones of tragedy.

With Halloween falling on the Sabbath, communities observed the occasion on either Saturday or Sunday night — or both.

★ ★ ★

In Memphis, Tenn., Sunday, a group of Memphis State University students canvassed residential areas looking for leftover goodies. These were distributed to children in the city's hospitals who were unable to go out.

At Las Cruces, N.M., a woman called police and said bombs were being planted on her front lawn. Authorities found big glass globes in nets — ornaments used by Chinese restaurants or in Hawaiian settings.

60,000 PERSONS

At Independence, Kan., more than 60,000 persons turned out Saturday night for the annual Neewollah celebration featuring 40 bands led by majorettes and several dancing go-go girls.

Independence started Neewollah in 1919 in an effort to reduce vandalism.

At Saranac Lake, N.Y., motorists had free weekend parking as a result of pranks last year, when many meters were sprayed with shaving cream and had to be repaired. This year, police removed the meters.

Robert Sweeney of Dannemora, N.Y., left his brown auto parked in a lot while he played bingo in the community of Cadyville. When he returned, his car had been painted a bright red.

DECLINES CANDY

In Wheaton, Md., a total of 59 trick-or-treaters called at one home. One small lad declined a candy bar.

"No, thank you," he said. "I've been here before. I just brought them" — pointing to two equally small companions.

★ ★ ★

In Nashville, Tenn., a group of Boy Scouts set up a "goblin shop" in the living room of a home. One lad lay down in a homemade crypt with a blanket around his body and head, with only his face showing.

Three other boys stationed themselves around the dimly lit room.

RISING BODY

Trick or treaters stumbled over a body or two, saw the youth rise slowly from the crypt, and frantically fled from the home.

At Ohio Stadium, Columbus, Ohio, on the morning of the Ohio State-Minnesota football game, Saturday, a groundskeeper noticed sun glints above one goal post. He found several lengths of almost invisible wire strung above the crossbar. It would have stopped kicks from clearing.

★ ★ ★

The dark side:

Near Washington Court House, Ohio, vandals burned down a 200-foot wooden covered bridge — one of the few such bridges left in the state.

At Bloomfield, Conn., a pumpkin thrown from a car shattered the windshield of Patricia Haley's car as she was driving along a street. She was hospitalized for removal of glass fragments from her face.

SEVERAL FIRES

At Pearsall, Tex., vandals set fires destroying a vacant house, a warehouse of baled hay, and show buildings belonging to the 4-H club and Future Farmers of America.

At Acushnet, Mass., a 14-year-old boy lost one finger and suffered burns in the explosion of what was termed a "Halloween bomb."

Philadelphia police sent loudspeaker cars cruising through North Philadelphia warning residents of potentially dangerous medicinal capsules which were given trick or treating children.

Authorities said they had recovered all the capsules.

TRIO OVERCOME

At Willingboro, N.J., a straw man went up in flames on the porch of Donald Brewer. The blaze damaged a garage and hallway, and three firemen were overcome by smoke while fighting it.

In Chicago, a 10-year-old girl was abducted by motorists who put her trick-or-treat bag over her head, took her to an apartment, and raped her.

Also in Chicago, five teen-agers wearing Halloween masks and face paints beat a young wife and took her wedding and engagement rings.

Two Chicago girls went out Sunday night to seek "Halloween thrills."

The girls decided to stand on elevated railroad tracks. A speeding passenger train came along. One girl jumped to safety but Patricia Gillam, 15, was struck and killed.

MILITIAMEN TAKE BREAK — Two armed Cuban militiamen lounge at a dock area in Varadero, Cuba, where boats are docked waiting to take refugees to the United States. A U.S. newsman at the scene estimated that there were 300 boats waiting to pick up refugees.

Exodus Resumes After Storm

100 Cuba Refugees Nearing Key West

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Refugee boat traffic from Cuba, interrupted by a storm, resumes today. The Coast Guard said more than 100 persons in three boats were nearing Key West.

They would be the first to cross the wave-lashed Florida Straits since Saturday morning.

★ ★ ★

Awaited from Camarioca, the refugee departure point, were 77 Cubans aboard the Little Mike, 27 on the Spray and an undetermined number on the Lemondrop, the Coast Guard said.

Seas that have put scores of boats in distress during the 25-day-old refugee shuttle were reported still treacherous for small craft. The Coast Guard has rescued many.

KNOWN TOLL

There was a known toll of five persons missing and one drowned.

Announcement was awaited of a U.S.-Cuba agreement for an airlift to supplant the hazardous do-it-yourself shuttle.

Most of the new refugees are taken to Miami and transported to other U.S. cities.

The Cuban Refugee Center in Miami reported this breakdown of the 1,308 arrivals to register for aid:

Clerical and sales personnel, 22 per cent; semiskilled workers, 19; skilled, 15.3; professional and semiprofessional, 8.5; service trades, 7; agriculture and fishing, 4; students, housewives and children, 25.

127,638 RELATIVES

The center said exiles in the United States have completed questionnaires asking for the exit from Cuba of 127,638 relatives. Of these, 44,583 were claimed by exiles in Miami and the others by exiles elsewhere in the United States.

A plump, 12-year-old girl Sunday asked not to be forced to leave Camarioca with her mother who had gone to Cuba to rescue her from communism.

"I ask Fidel (Castro) not let them take me away from Cuba," the girl said firmly.

Officials said the girl, Maida Fernandez, undoubtedly would be allowed to stay in Cuba.

'PARENTS SECOND'

"That is the way our children are being taught nowadays," an elderly woman said with a sigh. "They are told that communism and their country comes first and their parents second."

The girl's mother, former Havana nightclub and television entertainer Miriam Balmori, fled Cuba several years ago. She came back aboard the refugee craft Bimini Express to get her daughter, who had who stayed behind with an aunt.

★ ★ ★

In St. Petersburg, Fla., a newspaperman said bountiful meals and carnival atmosphere couldn't hide the tension pervading Camarioca's refugee compound.

George Sweers, director of photography for the St. Petersburg Times, related after a three-day stay there:

"It was a sad scene. The refugees carried bags, boxes and suitcases containing the few clothes and possessions they were allowed to take. They did not smile or laugh. They huddled in little groups talking softly to each other."

Sweers said the Castro regime obviously went to great lengths to provide a festive setting for the Camarioca operation. The compound — complete with walkways and shrubbery — was built in seven days. A large thatched roof was built over a circular arena where refugees could sit and watch television. Food served in the compound's dining room was tasty and ample, he said.

"The refugees seemed amazed to see food so freely served," Sweers said. "They were used to searching stores for strictly rationed goods."

"One night six shots rang out some 150 yards from the boats (gathered to ferry refugees to Florida). I could make out the form of a man being taken from the water. The official word the next day was that the man was a prisoner trying to escape and had been shot in the leg trying to swim to the waiting boats."

Won't Quit, Says Official in Insurance Fraud Case

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Minnesota Insurance Commissioner Cyrus Magnusson says he doesn't plan to resign, as requested by Gov. Karl Rolvaag, despite federal charges he was involved in a huge insurance fraud.

Magnusson was asked to resign by Rolvaag after the commissioner and 16 other persons were indicted by a federal grand jury Friday on charges of a $4-million fraud involving the American Allied Insurance Co. of St. Paul.

After reviewing the indictment, Rolvaag requested Magnusson to resign "immediately."

Ralvaag's letter said the governor wanted the resignation so that public confidence in insurance matters could be restored.

★ ★ ★

"The criminal matter now pending in the federal court will, of course, be determined in that proceeding, and I make no prejudgment in that regard," Rolvaag wrote.

'NO INTENTION'

Magnusson said to reporters afterward, "I can tell you without equivocation, I have no intention or resigning. I have done nothing wrong. A man is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

Magnusson called the charges in the indictment against him "extremely weak and innocuous," and added, "They form no basis for a demand such as the governor has sent."

Both Magnusson and Rolvaag are members of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) party.

Princess Margaret, Husband Start U.S. Tour Thursday, in California

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Princess Margaret realizes a girlhood dream this week — visiting the United States — and hundreds of Americans are practicing their protocol and learning her private preferences.

★ ★ ★

Confidential memos about the princess and her husband, the Earl of Snowdon, are quietly circulating in hotels they'll stay in along the way:

★ ★ ★

"NO CHAMPAGNE — the Royal Couple do not drink it. She likes gin and tonic; he drinks scotch."

Rent a safe for the royal jewels, interior measurements at least 16 inches by 16 inches, the memos add.

INITIAL TRIP

The lively, 35-year-old princess and her husband — 5½ months older — begin their tour Thursday in San Francisco. It is her first American trip.

"I'm quite excited about it," she has told an acquaintance. "I've always wanted to see America, and I've never had the opportunity before."

★ ★ ★

Lord Snowdon, a professional photographer known formerly as Antony Armstrong-Jones, visited New York in 1958 to promote his photographic book about London.

★ ★ ★

Since this tour is official, the British government has included such royal chores as visiting universities — the University of California at Berkeley and the California Institute of Technology — museums, the United Nations and department stores, to promote overseas sale of British goods.

The visitors have kept close tabs on arrangements through Sharman Douglas, Princess Margaret's girlhood friend, who will accompany them on their tour.

You are not going to get peace with millions of armed men. The chariot of peace cannot advance over a road littered with cannon. — David Lloyd George, World War I British Prime Minister.

The most important single ingredient in the formula of success is knowing how to get along with people. — President Theodore Roosevelt.

It Seems to Me....

Increased Disrespect for Law Brings National Regression

If you want to reflect on something that's deeply disturbing, cogitate on this:

"By this same hour tomorrow, 7,000 major crimes will have been committed in the United States."

★ ★ ★

The most disturbing feature lies in the fact that crime is increasing faster than the population. This is tremendously indicative of a definite moral decline. Antisocial behavior can't be viewed with equanimity—or even tolerated—unless we concede national degradation and defeat. The 22nd District American Legion convention in San Diego said:

"There has been increased disrespect for the law caused by judicial decisions that render conviction of a criminal almost impossible."

★ ★ ★

The Legion backed all law enforcing officers to the hilt. It roundly censored collegiate faculty members for accepting student misdeeds with indifference; and it is opposed to review boards.

The Legion is on firm ground. It's on solid rock.

★ ★ ★

Whether the main fault lies with the current generation or the parents for a dismal failure to inculcate the proper standards cannot be settled easily. Beginning with the Supreme Court itself, general judicial procedures came in for round castigation and a failure to "face up" to the enormity of the situation.

★ ★ ★

The Legion is aghast.

Members seek corrective measures.

In some ways, this is the biggest problem confronting the world today. Unfortunately for all concerned, Great Britain is suffering from the same affliction. Hence we have a sorry spectacle. The world looks to these two giants for general leadership and top moral standards but finds a series of dismaying circumstances.

What a comedown for the mighty.

Un-American....

The American Enterprise Institute issues a manifesto declaring unequivocally that Congress is surrendering almost completely to the President.

It sounds a clear-cut alarm. Others have spoken similarly.

★ ★ ★

Certainly no Chief Executive has ever wielded the big stick to the extent that we have witnessed since Johnson's inauguration. The Texan stands supreme and his party practically falls on its collective face and grovels in the dirt before him. The political party of the man in the White House has held control of Congress frequently. But in the past, it has asserted its rights as the Constitution intended.

★ ★ ★

Mistake....

A letter bobs in and says:

"You have been supporting Congressman BILLIE FARNUM warmly. He voted the opposite way from The PRESS editorial on the repeal of 14-B. Did you cheer for that"?

The answer is "no."

★ ★ ★

Congressman FARNUM made a mistake in my book. I agree with WARREN S. STONE, former Grand Chief Engineer, Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers who said:

"I do not believe in forcing a man to join a union. If he wants to join, all right; but it is contrary to the principles of free government and the Constitution of the United States to try to make him join."

★ ★ ★

If Brother FARNUM will just read Brother STONE'S analytical and penetrating comments he should see the manifold errors in this unfortunate vote.

Simple Outcome....

The Communists aren't stirring up all the troubles in the United States. Many originate with our own citizens, but the Red agitators flock to these scenes rapidly and pour gasoline on the smoldering fires.

★ ★ ★

What would happen in that "happy and perfect paradise" — Russia — if a citizen openly rebelled against his government in this same fashion?

The answer is simple.

He would disappear — permanently.

That's the Red code.

And in Conclusion....

Jottings from the well-thumbed notebook of your peripatetic reporter:

FRANCIS KEPPEL is rumored as the next head of the Ford Foundation ..... "Hogan's Heroes" is edging upward in TV ratings, STEVE LAWRENCE is declining and "Peyton Place" takes a dive .... Overheard: "Now we know why JOHNSON was so anxious for medicare." ..... Auto dealers report record-breaking sales everywhere. Three loud, stentorian cheers ..... We add one to our population every 12 seconds and the U.S. will hit 200 million next May.

★ ★ ★

SANDRA

Trusted scouts advise me Sandra Anderson rates as one of the area's attractive girls. ..... Rep. Otto Passman (D-La.): "Never in America has it been proposed to take so much from so many to do so little for so few," ..... Johnson to the Pope: "And the next time over, come and see me at the ranch and stay a few days. Bring your wife, too." ..... Pan Am says in a page ad in New York: "Catch a few off-Broadway shows. Fly to London. $300 round trip."

GALE SAYERS of the Bears is the standout rookie back of pro football and DICK BUTKUS, same club, can easily be the first year-lineman of '65 ..... The University of Chicago tops the collegiate world with its three-year campaign for $160 million. And in the decade ahead they want $360 million ..... I noted VEEP HUMPHREY used a Micropoint Flexy pen for his autographs here. I bought a dozen a month ago for use in The PRESS. They're only 49 cents ..... Dept. of Cheers and Jeers: the C's: Michigan (State, University, Lions), the J's: the fluoride opponents in Detroit who worded the amendment backward so a "yes" vote means "no."

Finding Out What Makes America Tick!

David Lawrence Says:

LBJ Beame Support Is Politics

WASHINGTON — "Politics comes first, the public interest second."

LAWRENCE

President Johnson didn't forget this slogan when the announcement was made in his behalf that he "strongly and enthusiastically" supported Abraham D. Beame, the Democratic candidate, in this week's election for mayor of New York City.

The people of the metropolis, however, after having witnessed in recent years one of the most flagrant examples of "boss rule" by any political party, should be permitted to have their own mayor chosen without dictation from the national administration in Washington.

Mr. Johnson's declaration, issued through his press secretary, disavowed, of course, any intent to "dictate to others how to vote," but went on nevertheless to warn the people of New York City by implication that they couldn't expect special favors in the disbursement of federal funds unless they elect the Democratic nominee for mayor.

The President broadcast a pledge that, if Mr. Beame became the winner, the "people of New York would have the utmost cooperation and attention on the challenges they face as residents of the nation's largest city."

LESS COOPERATION?

But couldn't this be construed to mean that, if the Republican nominee, John Lindsay, were elected, the people of New York would be given scant attention and much less than the "utmost cooperation" to which they are entitled?

The apologists for the President's action are saying that he couldn't have done otherwise than to endorse the Democratic nominee for mayor.

If he had not done so, it is contended, he would have created a rift between himself and the biggest political organization in a state with the largest electoral vote in the country — something apparently essential to the President, who wants to be reelected in 1968.

It is argued also that candidates for mayor in other large cities dominated by Democratic bosses and by closely controlled organizations might have been alienated.

A president, therefore, may find hereafter that, for selfish reasons, the techniques of political chicanery will become more and more important inasmuch as the "one man, one vote" reapportionment decision of the Supreme Court of the United States now gives the big-city machines unprecedented powers in affecting the outcome of elections on the city, county and state level, as well as in national contests.

This will be a factor of increasing influence in the future because citizens no longer need to be able to read and write English or any other language as a qualification for voting.

It certainly is not in the public interest for a president of the United States to line himself up with corrupt institutions even if they are in his own political party. Party loyalty does not require anybody to condone misdeeds and scandals.

Bob Considine Says:

Hughes Exec Ridicules 'Space Encore' Question

EL SEGUNDO, Calif. — "I wish I had a nickel for every stupid baboon who asked that question," said Lawrence A. "Pat" Hyland, the vice president and general manager of the Hughes Aircraft Co.

I had made the gaff of asking him what we are going to do for an encore after we go to the moon.

CONSIDINE

"Well, there already are so many benefits from being able to get to the moon that we'll never stop counting them," one of the founding fathers of radar said. "Take just one field: communication satellites.

★ ★ ★

"Satellites will completely revolutionize communications on earth. They represent as much of a breakthrough as the airplane was in the field of travel.

"We'll live to see the day when the great educators of the world will be able to speak to and instruct the most isolated peoples of the world, through satellites in 'fixed' orbits."

GOOD CHANCE

Pretty good chance that Hughes will build most of them. The company bet millions that it could build Syncom, failed with the first one, then bet more millions that it was right in the first place.

Now it has two of the magic hatboxes in place, 22,300 miles out, synchronized to circle the earth at the same speed the earth is turning. The U.S. military, which uses them for instant intercontinental communications, couldn't be happier.

Hughes' third operating communications satellite is Early Bird, "fixed" up there over the South Atlantic one-tenth of the way to the moon.

★ ★ ★

It can simultaneously handle 240 phone calls between North America and Western Europe.

It has performed spectacularly in the transmission of televised news events, such as the visit of Pope Paul VI.

Its success has encouraged its parent company, Comsat, to step up its schedule and prepare to put up the two additional Early Birds which will make the system global.

One day you'll pick up a phone, call Saigon and, when connected, throw your voice there from New York in half a second.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has urged Comsat to get along with its global plans.

NASA wants it ready and working before it starts testing its Apolo moon rockets, and will lease it until it can get something like it.

★ ★ ★

Leonard Goldenson, enterprising head of the American Broadcasting Co., has applied to the Federal Communications Commission to launch a Hughes-built communication satellite which would "hang" over the U.S. and be used for all of ABC's network shows — instead of AT&T land lines, which cost the company millions of dollars each year.

★ ★ ★

As any stupid baboon can tell you, there's no end to the engineering "fallout" from the moon project.

'Another Township Road in Need of Repair'

Some of the people complaining about their roads should drive down Jones Road. We are ashamed of our street when out-of-town guests have to drive through mud holes and risk breaking the springs on their cars in order to visit us. Since this water pipe business started my lawn and flowers have been ruined. I have called the road commission and the water department, with no results.

Agrees Slowpoke Drivers Are Public Menace

I agree with the Voice of the People letter that condemned the slowpoke who ventures into heavy traffic that is traveling 60 legal miles an hour and then insists on doing a journeyman 32. I saw one on Telegraph that had an opening 300 yards long ahead of him in very heavy traffic as he chugged along at his 32 mph. And he blocked the whole lane going south. The northbound travel was so heavy you couldn't dodge around him. He was a public menace. A stiff fine wouldn't be enough for these traffic turtles.

Warns Drivers to Be Careful at Crossroads

Traffic letters in the Voice of the People have been very much to the point. I have a word of warning. When you're stopped for a red light, don't start across when it changes to green without a careful look. Twice last week I saw tag-end yellow light speeders whizz through after the change. An honest driver could have been delivered to kingdom come.

'Complaints About Drag Strips Are Ignored'

I think all White Lake Township roads must be drag strips. Certainly the circle around Porter-Hitchcock-Haley is, and they have even painted strips across Porter to mark out their quarter-mile drag strip. The road is burned with tire marks. Complaints are ignored. Is our township management too busy planning for unneeded sewer and water to listen to complaints about this racing?

Fluoridated Water Issue Raises Questions

What is perhaps more interesting than the wording of the resolution concerning fluoridating the water in Detroit is the fact that several years ago the citizens of Pontiac voted against fluoride. In the event Detroit fluorides the water, will Pontiac be supplied with water that is not fluoridated, or will it be necessary to cancel the Detroit water contract? How does the Commission intend to see that the will of the people will be carried out in this instance?

Promised Budgets

Jackson Citizen Patriot

The creation of a new Michigan Department of State with the duty of conducting a "cost analysis" of state government is intriguing.

If, as promised, the department will produce budgets for each department that show how much money is collected, detail how it is spent, and analyze the results, this could be the greatest thing that has happened to the state since civil service.

Under the present system budget requests are ponderous and complex. Few members of the legislature have the will, the time or the talent to analyze them and ask intelligent questions of the department heads.

The practice, unfortunately, has been for the departments to inflate their budgets and defend them stoutly in the hopes that the legislature will make only modest cuts.

Knowing that the budget requests carry a certain amount of "fat," the legislature normally makes reductions in the requests. The extent of the cuts sometimes depends on the skill of the departments' lobbyists and the amount of public support they can whip up for their own causes.

The result is that the legislature appropriates money for various functions but exercises very little control over how it is spent.

State government today is really big business. The people are demanding, and in many cases getting, services they didn't even dream of half a century ago. They also are paying more taxes than ever before. In too many cases, however, they don't know, and neither do their legislators, exactly what the tax money buys.

★ ★ ★

If the new system provides budgets and cost accounting which shows both the legislator and the taxpayer exactly where the money goes and what it provides in the way of results, the people will get more for their dollars and will find their wishes being more accurately followed.

Enemy Supply

The Buffalo (N.Y.) Courier-Express

While there may be those who disagree with some of the policies and activities of the country's maritime unions, there are few who will take issue with the latest stand of this labor organization.

The Maritime Trades Department of the AFL-CIO adopted at its executive meeting a resolution which calls for the blacklisting of any free world vessel trading with North Viet Nam.

The organization which represents 32 affiliated national unions and a total of 5 million maritime workers, stated flatly that there is "no justification for failure to take economic action designed to prevent the flow of materials to the Viet Cong."

The resolution certainly makes sense to the millions of Americans who want to see the quickest possible termination of military action in South Viet Nam and the Viet Cong shoved back where they belong so they can no longer prey on their neighbors.

★ ★ ★

Vessel owners who find it profitable to supply our enemies and at the same time pick up cargoes in American ports are carrying water on both shoulders. They want to remain our friends but at the same time pick up the profit that comes from carrying needed supplies to our enemies.

The proposed blacklisting, if it could be effected, would soon cause such shipping interests to make up their minds which friends they wanted to deal with. If they prefer North Viet Nam, that's their business. They just won't be able to load cargoes in American ports. Certainly that's a fair choice.

Junior Editors Quiz on SNOW

QUESTION: Why is snow white and rain not?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: If you live in an area where snow will appear this winter, see if you can find a bit of jet black cloth (black velvet, if possible) and catch a few snowflakes.

★ ★ ★

If you can examine them with a magnifying glass before they melt, you may be able to see the beautiful patterns these snowflakes make, such as shown in our picture.

They always have six sides. It is said that no two are alike. The flakes are composed of arrangements of many small ice crystals, each of which reflect a tiny bit of light, the total of billions of such reflections looking pure white.

Think of a diamond. Seen close, you will see flashes of color, but further off it appears almost white. Because the snow crystals are so small, the effect is as if you saw them far away. In contrast, look at the round raindrop in the drawing.

There are no sharp crystals there to reflect light. The raindrop is water and has a grayish color as you look through it. Also, on a rainy day, the water-filled clouds have blocked out the sunlight, giving a generally dull or gray effect.

But little Janet is right—many parts of our country need rain badly—let's enjoy it when it comes!

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: The next time it rains, notice the shape of raindrops as they suddenly appear on some surface. On a slanting surface, they run down, pulled by the force of gravity. As raindrops fall, they are round; but as they run down, the upper part sticks to the surface, while the lower is pulled by gravity—so they become pear-shaped.

Apes' Role in Scientific Tests Noted

By Science Service

ATLANTA, Ga. — The wink of a gorilla's eye or the flick of an Orangutan's little finger may help speed man's flight through space.

* * *

Research on the primate or monkey family is becoming essential to today's science and future mankind, it was pointed out at the dedication of the largest captive orangutan colony in the world in the new Yerkes Regional Primate Research Center, on the Emory University campus here.

The new center has what is considered the most valuable collection of nonhuman primates anywhere in the world as well as the largest gorilla collection.

Carefully tended in meticulously clean and well equipped laboratories, nursery rooms and play rooms are 15 gorillas, 27 orangutans, 66 chimpanzees and some 200 monkeys of more than 15 different varieties.

CLOSE TO HUMAN

Since the monkeys are so close to human beings in their physical structure and behavior, they are immensely valuable in experiments approximating human reactions.

One experiment, for instance, is now under way to determine how different parts of the brain function and how they can be controlled.

Results of this research might lead to methods of inducing hibernation or deep sleep that eventually could help astronauts sleep during their long voyages into space.

* * *

Other experiments are concerned with heart and blood vessel diseases, muscular dystrophy and other disorders that afflict mankind.

The new quarters of the Yerkes Center cost nearly $2 million and will operate on an annual budget of about $1 million a year, on funds from the animal resources branch of the National Institutes of Health and from individual research grants.

A staff of 100 persons tend the animals, which are used strictly for medical and psychological research.

Since primates are susceptible to infectious diseases that infect man and because the big apes are aggressiye toward strangers, the center is not open to the public except under special conditions.

A Target for Darts

BERNALILLO, N.M. (AP) — A Marine from Bernalillo serving in Viet Nam said in a letter home recently that a picture of a youth burning his draft card was nailed to a dart board in Viet Nam and "the Marines had fun throwing darts at it."

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Tattooing Can Result in a Health Threat

Tattooing was practiced as long ago as 4000 B.C. and was very popular in ancient Greece and Rome.

BRANDSTADT

It was forbidden by the early Christians but, in the late 1700s, it was taken up by the aristocracy.

Kings and princes were tattooed up till the end of World War I.

Although widely practiced in many primitive societies, its popularity has fallen off in the United States.

Persons often get themselves tattooed as a lasting souvenir of some foreign port and more likely than not under pressure from their tattooed buddies or under the influence of alcohol.

The adolescent often has himself tattooed or even tattoos himself to show that he is tough and "can take it."

Thousands of these youngsters live to regret it and later seek to have their tattoos removed.

LOCAL INFECTION

Since the process of tattooing involves inserting needles into the deep layers of the skin and since the operators, especially self-tattooers, usually do not understand the requirements of surgical asepsis, local infection or even blood poisoning can result.

Some of the dyes set up a chronic allergic reaction that may persist for years.

Another disadvantage, not appreciated until it is too late, is that after the name "Maisie" has been carefully inscribed in the skin, a young man may find himself in love with Dora.

Furthermore, it is much more difficult and expensive to have a tattoo removed than to have it put on.

The tattooed skin can be removed entirely and replaced with a skin graft or it can be retattooed using flesh colored pigment.

But the preferred method now is surgical planing.

In this process the skin is chilled and a small wire brush revolving at high speed removes the skin down to the germinating layer which then produces normal skin.

A certain number of youths will always have to gain their knowledge the hard way but those who refuse to let themselves be tattooed in the first place will never regret it.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Detroit Police Quell Crowd

Teens' Arrest Leads to Melee; Officer Hurt

DETROIT (AP) — A policeman was injured in a melee with 300 Negroes early Sunday during the arrest of four Omaha, Neb., Negro juveniles following a car chase.

★ ★ ★

More than 50 police officers, including the riot-trained Tactical Mobile Unit, quieted an unruly crowd. Officers said taunts of "get out of here, coppers" and "leave the kids alone" came from the crowd.

★ ★ ★

Policeman Edward Dinda, 28, was cut on his neck, police said.

A man and a woman from the crowd were arrested for investigation of felonious assault. Another man was arrested for attempted theft from a car damaged when struck by the youth's car.

POUR FROM BARS

Police said the crowd poured from bars on the east side when a car carrying the four Nebraska youths caromed off three cars and plowed into a utility pole while in flight.

★ ★ ★

Two of the boys, all under 17, were treated for minor injuries. All four were turned over to juvenile authorities.

★ ★ ★

Police said the driver of the teen-agers car, a 16-year-old, told them he had stolen the auto in Omaha last week.

A 38-caliber revolver, nine rounds of ammunition, a pistol used in starting races, an 18-inch blackjack, burglary tools, four sets of keys from Detroit hotels, three women's purses, a radio and an 18-inch bolo knife were found in the auto.

★ ★ ★

Officers Harold Maloney and Charles Hammons said they spotted the teens in the car at the rear of a hotel in downtown Detroit. The boys were ordered to follow the officers to headquarters but sped away instead.

The chase involved 20 police cars before it ended.

WOMEN'S SECTION

Mrs. Romney Enchanted With Island of Japan

TOKYO (AP) — "Japanese women are study to be beautiful and graceful for their men," said Mrs. George Romney.

"Many of us (in the United States) seem to take it for granted. "But it's still our first function to be lovely in the house."

★ ★ ★

The wife of Michigan's governor said she has been having "an exciting, interesting visit that I wouldn't have missed for anything" since she arrived in Japan Oct. 20 with her husband.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Romney and nine other American governors came to Japan for the annual U.S.-Japan Governors' Conference and a tour of the country.

INSISTED SHE COME

"Wives weren't invited in the official party," Mrs. Romney said in an interview, "but my husband insisted I come along because otherwise I wouldn't understand what he was talking about after he returned."

She hasn't been sorry.

For the first four days, Mrs. Romney followed the schedule of the governors, then the governors took off for a tour of southern Japan, and Mrs. Romney made her own plans with the assistance of friends.

TEAHOUSE

Some of her most memorable moments were spent at the teahouse and traditional Japanese garden of the Urasenke School of Tea Ceremony in Kyoto, the ancient capital 300 miles west of Tokyo.

"Japan," said Mrs. Romney, "is a land of contrasts. The subways, the fish markets and activity indicate a forward moving, highly industrialized society. But you only have to go into the country to find the old traditions still exist."

In Tokyo, Mrs. Romney was taken by the Japanese wife of U.S. Ambassador Edwin O. Reischauer to a class she attends in Bonsai on the Japanese art of growing and arranging dwarf trees.

TOUR

Mrs. Romney also visited Johnson AFB outside Tokyo, and some of the American wives took her on a tour of nearby Japanese villages, schools and the famous pottery town of Mashiko.

★ ★ ★

"I was surprised at the interest young Americans here take in things Japanese," she commented.

NEW GRANDSON

Last Thursday she was called to the hotel's front desk to pick up a cable. It informed her that her eldest daughter, Mrs. Loren Grover Keenan of Bloomfield Township, had given birth to a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Grover Keenan of Brady Drive announce the birth of Thomas Albert Keenan Oct. 21 in William Beaumont Hospital.

Gov. and Mrs. George Romney and the Albert Keenans of Detroit are the child's grandparents.

"I burst into tears," Mrs. Romney said.

"Bad news, madam?" the clerk asked.

When the governors' visit to Japan ends Wednesday, Mrs. Romney will fly to Hong Kong for a week, returning home via Hawaii. Her husband will go to Viet Nam with the other governors.

Dr. Leroy G. Augenstein, professor and chairman of the Department of Biophysics at Michigan State University, will speak.

★ ★ ★

He will discuss the implications of new scientific findings on how the mind of man functions. Confronting the questions "What Is Man" and "What Is His Purpose."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Augenstein holds degrees from the Universities of Chicago and Illinois and has been with MSU since 1962.

He was formerly associated with Brookhaven National Laboratory, has been a member of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, and also an adjunct professor at San Francisco Theological Seminary.

It's a Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Rex L. Harris (Judith Hamilton) of Kohler Drive announce the birth of a daughter, Katherine Leslie, Oct. 17.

Grandparents are the Duane G. Hamiltons of Illinois Avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Lee C. Harris of Cameron Avenue.

Members of the program planning committee check final arrangements for the conference for parents and teachers of pre-school children to be held at Oakland University Saturday. Left to right: Mrs. Mary Hardy, Oakland County Home Economics Extension Agent; Mrs. Helena Guernsey, Cobb Creek Road, Oakland Township, president, Parent Cooperative Preschools International; Mrs. Donald Frew, consultant, State Department of Social Welfare; and Dr. June Gabler, Assistant Professor of Teacher Education at Oakland University.

UF Women Are Near Goal

Women volunteers for the Pontiac Area United Fund reported Friday that $32,158 of the $35,078 has been raised.

Optimistic that the remaining $2,920 will be met today, volunteers who participated in the drive plan to celebrate at a Victory Luncheon Tuesday in the Elks Temple.

The luncheon, previously scheduled for last Thursday, was delayed to allow additional time for house-to-house calls not completed due to rain.

★ ★ ★

The luncheon theme: "A Salute to Dolly" follows the "Hello Dolly" theme of an earlier solicitor rally.

Final reports from chairmen of Pontiac, Waterford, Independence, Orion and Lake Angelus will be presented to Mrs. William G. Wright, women's campaign chairman, and to an expected audience of 600 workers.

OSCARS

Mrs. Wright will award Indian "Oscars" to area and district chairmen meeting their quotas.

Calvin J. Werner, 1965 campaign chairman will salute campaign "dolls" who helped raise funds for 55 agencies through residential drive efforts.

Special guests will include campaign division chairmen: Bruce J. Annett, Thomas Wiethorn, James Dickerson and assistant chairman, George Stephens.

William Belaney will be master of ceremonies. Belaney has also served as U.F. Speaker's Bureau chairman during the drive.

A special musical feature will be provided by Gunvor "Dolly" Ryden. Luncheon music is scheduled through the courtesy of Pontiac Federation of Musicians, Local No. 784.

The luncheon is sponsored by Austin-Norvell Agency, Consumers Power Company, Detroit Edison, Michigan Bell Telephone and Lawyer's Title Insurance Corp.

Pontiac Press Photo

Mrs. LaVon Ryden, "Hello, Dolly" girl for Pontiac Area United Fund, will sing at the Victory Luncheon Tuesday. Volunteer workers will be honored at this annual event.

Abby Butts In and Loses

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Awhile back, someone wrote in asking you which was worse, a married woman going with a single man, or a single woman going with a married man. You replied, "One goat doesn't care if another goat smells," or words to that effect.

ABBY

Abby, that might have been a good answer, but the belief that goats smell bad has done an awful lot of damage to us folks in the goats' milk business.

I admit, the buck does smell pretty bad, but the doe is as odorless and clean as any other farm animal. Other rumors about goats, such as goats will eat anything, including tin cans, garbage, etc., have given goats a bad name.

★ ★ ★

Goats' milk is recommended by many doctors for ulcer patients, but some people refuse to touch it because they think goats are dirty animals. I hope you print this in defense of goats.

"IN THE GOAT BUSINESS"

★ ★ ★

DEAR "IN": I never thought I'd be defending old goats, or young ones, but here I am! I, too, was guilty of harboring all the prejudices you mentioned about goats. Forgive me. I didn't realize I was butting into your business.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What should a girl do when she is nice-looking, has a good education but she lives in a small town and nobody lets her forget that she lives on the wrong side of the tracks?

THE GIRL

★ ★ ★

DEAR GIRL: When the train comes through, she should get on it!

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO BRUCE: Cast the first "stone." And make it a diamond. If you are indeed her first love, YOU are lucky. If SHE is your last romance, SHE'S lucky.

Will Host Federation

The Troy Women's Club will host the fall meeting of the Oakland County Federation of Women's Clubs, Friday, in the Clawson Center.

Mrs. George Minser will preside and Mrs. James Dorsey, Troy Women's Club will welcome the assembly.

Highlight of the day will be a talk titled "A Future for the Visually Handicapped" and demonstration of braille equipment by Mrs. Mary Jo Alden. She teaches the blind in Royal Oak.

Mrs. Douglas Trueman will give highlights of the recent southeastern district convention in Howell.

Double Signatures Are Now Out of Style

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: A friend tells me I did a foolish thing when I started a savings account several years ago and put my sister's name on it along with mine. There's now $8,000 in this joint account, all of it money which I alone have put in.

Is it true that if my sister died, the account would be tied up for months because both our signatures would be required if I needed to withdraw any of this money?—O. H., Bridgeport, Conn.

★ ★ ★

Dear O. H.: The "double signature" arrangement on joint savings accounts has pretty much gone out of practice. The American Bankers Association points out that it proved too cumbersome from everybody's point of view. Either signer or co-depositer of a joint account can usually put in and take out.

You should, of course, talk to your bank manager about this. But I believe you'll find that your own signature alone is sufficient to make any withdrawals from this joint account.

Since the $8,000 is actually your own money, and your original idea was to provide some security for your sister, why don't you just make her the beneficiary of this account? In other words, set it up as a "Totten Trust", which is the term applied to such an arrangement. You should also name your sister as beneficiary in your will. This is just taking the double precaution of making sure she will receive this money in the event of your death.

Of course, under this arrangement you alone will be responsible for declaring any taxable earnings. But I assume you've been paying this tax anyway, so that won't add any extra burden to your budget.

★ ★ ★

Dear Miss Feeley: My husband and I are in our early 30's. We have $6,000 in our savings account and an $8,000 mortgage on our home — at five per cent to run another nine years.

Within the next year I hope to apply another $5,000 either to our savings or to the mortgage. Which would you suggest? Also after 12 months, I expect to have from $100 to $200 a month for savings. Should I split this money between savings and mortgage? Mrs. J. L., Chicago

Dear Mrs. L.: A mortgage of only $8,000 on your home, at your ages, and with money in the bank, is good going.

Of course you can always reason that you're paying five per cent on the mortgage, whereas your savings account is earning a bit less. So why pay out more in interest than you're taking in? However, a stable financial pattern calls for from three to six months' salary in savings, for emergencies.

Let's say the $6,000 in the bank represents that or more. So you could consider using the $5,000 surplus you expect to have next year for investment in stocks or mutual funds, or additional life insurance. You don't mention how much insurance your husband has, or how much you have. This should be a major consideration before you put any additional money in any other form of investment.

★ ★ ★

While it's a wonderful feeling to own your own home, I would be inclined to let the mortgage continue as is. It seems to be a comfortable arrangement financially. Then let your surplus funds earn as much as they possibly can.

★ ★ ★

Incidentally, are you sure you could pay off that mortgage ahead of time if you decided to do so? Better check your contract again. You may find there's a penalty for pre-payment.

★ ★ ★

(You can write to Mary Feeley in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions of general interest will be answered in her column.)

Fashionable and fascinated by the gargantuan shaggy dog, these three youngsters will model the finery they're wearing at Washington Irving School PTA's style show and card party Wednesday evening. From left are West Bloomfield Township children Mark Hardy, West Square Lake Road, in a 12-way Hi-Line suit with gray and red flannel plaid reversible jacket and vest; Mary Boettcher, Uplong Drive, in an R-Gee navy and red plaid jumper; and Gretchen Guest, Oakway Drive, an R-Gee green velveteen embroidered jumper dress with white slip blouse.

Pair Takes Vows in Windsor

MRS. C. R. MORGAN

At Torch Lake for their honeymoon are the Clarence Robert Morgans (Catherine Yolande Toth) who were wed Saturday in the University of Windsor chapel.

★ ★ ★

Their parents are the George Toths of Windsor, Ont. and Mrs. Thomas Reeves of Glenrose Street.

SHEATH GOWN

The bride's sheath gown of white silk and her floor-length mantilla-type veil of silk illusion were appliqued with Alencon lace. She carried white gardenias.

★ ★ ★

With Mrs. John Pataky of Windsor, her sister's honor matron, were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Clifford Taylor of Pontiac as bridesmaid and Rosemarie, Eleanor and Helen Pataky, junior maids.

★ ★ ★

Otto W. Morgan was his brother's best man. James Whittaker and Larry Taylor ushered.

The evening reception was in St. Mary's Parish Hall, Windsor.

The bride attended Assumption College and the University of London.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Morgan is a graduate student at Wayne State University. The couple will live in Detroit.

Dior Lavishes Fashion in Fur

The Fur Information and Fashion Council reports furs stole the show in the Paris Collections.

Dior lavishly collared and cuffed suits with great bands of fur; untrimmed coats and suits invariably were filled in at the neckline with little boas of mink, sable and ermine. Evening chiffons were rimmed with fur. One sample: Chanel's floating white chiffon, the hem rippling with white mink.

Touch Up Job

If you accidentally take out a small patch of color of a dark bedspread by spilling bleach on it, use the appropriate shade food coloring for a touch up job each time you launder it to make the spot less noticeable.

They Lift Voices; He Lifts Wallets

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—After the 15 women members of the First Methodist church had locked their purses containing their wallets in a cabinet in a dressing room, they lifted their voices in song during a church service.

★ ★ ★

During the service, a thief lifted their wallets after forcing the cabinet door open.

To Each His Own

MT. PULASKI, Ill. (AP)—The painted "His" on one door and "Hers" on another door of the toolshed at the Joe Doud home is perhaps misleading. It designates one workshop area for Doud and one for his wife, Laurie.

Check List for Travel in Europe

Many people tend to forget the little extras which are taken for granted at home. Here is a checklist of small items for a trip abroad:

- If you wear glasses, take along an extra pair and/or your prescription.
- Stock your medical kit with the basics like aspirin, antacid pills and kaopectate just in case. If you require any special medication, have your doctor give you the generic rather than the trade name of the drug.
- Take a pack of cleansing pads, soap and a washcloth for tidying up on the road.
- If you smoke, take lighter, flints and your allotment of cigarettes.
- Take a stick spot remover for fast dry cleaning.
- If you prefer a sturdier lock on your luggage, small padlocks can be fitted to the cases. Be sure to get an extra set of keys.
- A small travel alarm clock will come in handy for heavy sleepers. The light sleeper might consider a sleeping mask and ear plugs.
- A few extra buttons, needle and thread are always useful. So is a roll of scotch tape for quick mending of a ripped hem or tear.
- Men who prefer an electric razor will need a current converter and special plug for European sockets.
- You might also want to tuck in a pocket flashlight, several rolls of film and a few ball point pens.

★ ★ ★

Do not pack your travel documents in your suitcase. Carry them in a passport case which fits into suit pocket or purse. There are compartments for passports, visitor's cards, vaccination certificate, tickets, photos and currency.

RESERVE BILLS

You might slip in a reserve of one dollar bills and a Pan Am currency converter to translate francs and lire and pounds at a glance.

★ ★ ★

Grade Schoolers to Model Fashions

Washington Irving School's multi-purpose room will bustle with activity Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. when the Parent-Teacher Organization stages a children's style show and card party.

First order of the evening will be the fashion review, featuring Irving students as models. Apparel will be by the Tel-Huron Children's Shop.

★ ★ ★

The card party and prizes will follow under general chairmanship of Mrs. Jim Hedges.

★ ★ ★

Others planning the affair are: Mrs. John Miller, fashion show coordinator; Mrs. Michael Reese, sale cookbook; Mrs. Samuel Hamilton, door prizes and favors; Mrs. Dennis Steiner, posters; and Mrs. M. A. Isaacson, equipment and refreshments.

★ ★ ★

Tickets for the event, open to the public, may be purchased from any PTO parent or at the door.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Many psychologists feel men are more romantic than women. This should make many a woman stop and ponder!

Every woman loves the small courtesies and thoughtfulnesses of the man she loves. In fact the knowledge that she is adored is probably the most potent fountain of youth a woman can possibly possess. It gives her a special bloom, turns drab individuals into beauties and delays aging.

If your husband or boyfriend has stopped doing many considerate things he once did, if he seems to take you for granted, it would be well worthwhile to take an honest look at your own behavior. Think back.

Did he stop telling you how pretty you are after you became careless about your appearance? Did he stop opening doors for you after you began barging through them? Did he stop talking with you after you were so busy and hectic that you only half listened?

Did he stop inviting you out for dinner or the theater only after you refused because of fatigue a number of times? Did he lose his enthusiasm for bringing you gifts because you always exchanged them and even said a couple of times that you would rather have a check next time? Did he stop treating you like a sweetheart only after you began treating him like a meal ticket?

Woman's greatest opportunity for enduring love is found in marriage. She had habit and convention as her allies and this relationship should be the beginning rather than the end of romance. Yet the relationship between husband and wife is so subtle that unless real thought is given to its cultivation, even the most ardent alliances find that romance rubs raw sometimes with the strain of daily life and neglect.

I would like very much to have the opinion of my readers, both the women and the men who read this column. Who is the more romantic, man or woman? I will print some of your letters later on. Let me hear, O.K.? Address your letters to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

The engagement is announced of Mary Jo DeRoseau, daughter of Mrs. Leonard DeRoseau, North Shore Drive, Orion Township, and the late Mr. DeRoseau, to John Patrick Lennon, son of the William Lennons of Cambria Heights, Long Island, N.Y. The May bride-elect attended Michigan State University.

Bring Own Bottle Not Acceptable

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My husband and I received an invitation to a party by a couple with whom we are slightly acquainted. At the bottom of the invitation it states, "Please bring your own bottle."

My husband and I have been invited to many parties over the years but never once did we receive anything like this.

I can hardly believe that asking guests to bring their own bottles to a party is socially acceptable even in this present day.

May I please have your opinion?

A: It most certainly is not acceptable and I don't wonder that you were shocked.

Q: I thought I was going to have a baby and the club to which I belong gave me a stork shower. I now find that I am not going to have a baby after all.

Will you please tell me the proper thing to do with my lovely gifts?

A: The only thing to do is to return them to the donors telling them of your disappointment and how sorry you are not to be able to use the lovely things they gave you.

COCKTAIL PARTY FOR A BRIDE

Q: I have been invited to a cocktail party in honor of a bride-to-be. Am I expected to bring a gift for the bride?

A: Unless you have been told that the party is to be a shower, no gift is expected.

Gals Replace Chalk Boys On the Stock Exchange

MONTREAL (AP) — Women have invaded the trading floor of the Montreal Stock Exchange for the first time.

★ ★ ★

Oddly enough, automation is responsible for the fall of one of the last of the male bastions.

When the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges moved into Montreal's new skyscraper, Place Victoria, 16 women replaced the "chalk boys" — the men who write the bids of the traders on chalk boards.

★ ★ ★

But instead of chalk boards, the women use the newlydesigned machines that handle the details of trading, transfer them immediately to a board and at the same time show them on television in broker's offices.

As console operators, the women have to learn to be speedy on computer buttons, and to operate coolly amid the din. Like the chalk boys, they learn to identify the voices of the various traders without looking up.

★ ★ ★

Nancy Horne, methods analyst, has trained six women for the job. The course included classroom work on stock exchange methods and terminology as well as practical experience on the floor.

The console operators work from 9:30 to 3:45 P.M. daily, and in hiring Miss Horne says she looks for "older, mature women who appreciate these hours."

"We don't want a big turnover in staff because the training is too long to allow it," she says.

Livestock Show Starts Tuesday

The 36th annual Detroit Junior Livestock Show will open at the State Fairgrounds tomorrow with a record number of entries.

Nearly 300 4-H club members from throughout the state have entered steers for judging, in addition to nearly 70 with sheep entries and 40 who will show top-quality hogs.

Eight Oakland County 4-H'ers have entered the show, which is sponsored by the 4-H Club Department of the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service and the Detroit Junior Livestock Society.

Included in the steer entries will be animals raised by Donald and Tom Wentz of the Seymour Lake Club, Mark and Lewis Whims of the East Orion Club, Sue Patnode of the Ro-Hi Club and Lyle Barger of the Northwest Oakland Club.

Showing pens of lambs will be Karen Rose of East Orion and Jane Marsh of the Hi-Lo Club.

ADDED ATTRACTION

An added attraction at this year's show will be presentation by the Tractor Division of Ford Motor Co. of a registered bred gilt to an outstanding 4-H'er from each county.

Carol Ann Wright of the Seymour Lake Club has been chosen as the Oakland County winner.

The more than 400 youngsters and their animals will be arriving at the fairgrounds all day tomorrow. Judging will get under way tomorrow evening with on-the-hoof judging of lambs and steers.

* * *

Live evaluations of pork carcass entries will be made Wednesday morning and judging of other steers, lambs and hogs will begin at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday.

STARTING TIME

Sale of all but the champion steers is scheduled for 1 p.m. Thursday.

The champion steer will be named Thursday evening before a predicted crowd of 5,000 at the Detroit International Championship Rodeo. Sale of the champions will follow immediately.

The 4-H Club showmen will receive free tickets to the Thursday rodeo.

* * *

The Junior Livestock Show has traditionally received great support from the state's livestock industry. This is the first time the event has ever been held in conjunction with a rodeo.

POINTS IMPORTANT

The rodeo is sanctioned by the International Rodeo Association and is one of the last to be held before the national championships. Important championship points will be awarded.

Each year many awards and prizes are given to the winners in the fat stock show, and this year is no exception. A special awards banquet is scheduled for Thursday noon.

Awards will include scholarships up to $500, breeders' awards, trophies, and showmanship citations. All exhibitors will be guests for the event.

* * *

The carcass contest is gaining in popularity, and this year's entries are higher than ever before. This event enables young showmen to judge animals on the hoof and then compare the results with the finished carcass.

Cong Are Pests to Viet Malaria Fight

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The malaria program in Viet Nam has been less than successful because of the danger from Viet Cong to teams going into the field to spray mosquito-breeding places.

NEWSOM

Under consideration at the moment, is the possibility of bug spraying teams going into the field in the wake of American and Vietnamese operations and spreading bug-killing chemicals while troops are still in the area.

VISIT TO MOSCOW: Probably the most important thing to come out of French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville's visit to the Soviet Union will be arrangements for a visit to Moscow by President Charles de Gaulle.

Otherwise, Couve de Murville and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will reaffirm French-Soviet friendship and exchange promises of new forms of political, economic and cultural cooperation.

The Russians this week are busily preparing for their Nov. 7 celebration of the 48th anniversary of their revolution.

The Red Chinese are expected to boycott it, while other Communist nations will send second-string delegations. Nothing like a summit or a new statement on Sino-Soviet relations is expected.

WITHOUT DE GAULLE: President Charles de Gaulle continues apparently determined to break up hard-won allied integration both in NATO and the European Common Market.

Accordingly there have been hints that the five remaining members of the Common Market are considering how to go ahead without France, possibly replacing her with Great Britain.

In NATO, contingency plans are being worked out for a western defense alliance, also without France, if de Gaulle goes beyond the point of no return.

CHRISTMAS CHEER: East German and West Berlin negotiators still are expected to sign an agreement permitting West Berliners to make one-day Christmas visits to relatives through the Communist wall.

* * *

However, the Communists probably will drag out the talks as long as possible in hopes that pressure of West Berlin public opinion will force the city government to make political concessions to the east.

INFLUENCING PEOPLE: Algerian Premier Houari Boumedienne will pay his first official visit abroad to Moscow, probably toward the end of November.

The invitation appeared to mark a new drive by the Soviets to recover influence they had Africa.

* * *

Boumedienne's acceptance was in line with Algeria's desire to take a neutral stance between the Soviet and Communist Chinese camps.

Engineer Educators Suggest 5-Year Degree

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — The American Society for Engineering Education has recommended that the first professional degree in engineering should be a master's degree awarded after five years of college study.

If the recommendation is generally adopted, the master's degree will replace the four-year bachelor's degree as the prerequisite for entering the engineering profession.

How come 2,000,000 people in Michigan are insured by Metropolitan Life?

More and more of your neighbors are training a sharp eye on the future. In the process, they're discovering how useful Metropolitan's modern, diversified lineup of plans and policies can be.

For instance, Metropolitan has a plan that guarantees you an income as long as you live. Even if you live to be 110!

New—life income of 9% for men 65

If you're a man about to retire at 65, our new rate of payments on straight-life annuities can guarantee you an annual income for life—derived from principal and interest—of 9% of the purchase price.

And, although women outlive men, we can provide almost as good a return for them. We also have annuities for couples, providing income for as long as either one lives.

Note especially the word guarantee. For the amount you pay in, only an annuity gives you so large and so dependable a retirement income—guaranteed for life.

And remember, too, you now get the advantage of Metropolitan's best annuity rates in a quarter century.

Exceptional value for younger men and women

The younger you are when you invest in an annuity, the more it builds up for you over the years. Now's the time to get started.

Annuities are just part of the up-to-the-minute selection of life and health insurance plans you'd expect from America's leading life insurance company. Get the facts from your Metropolitan adviser.

More choose Metropolitan Life millions more than any other company

There are many reasons why Metropolitan Life insures 45,000,000 people—more than any other company. One good reason is local, personal service from the Metropolitan advisers at your nearest office:

Fredericks' 'Torso' Sculpture Found After Nine Years

GROSSE POINTE WOODS AP — Police are trying to unravel a nine-year-old mystery surrounding Royal Oak sculptor Marshall Fredericks' "Torso of a Dancer."

The life - sized sculpture, which disappeared in 1956 from a Detroit apartment building, was found Saturday night in the basement recreation room of a Grosse Pointe Woods businessman.

Police said an anonymous tipster told them the work of art's whereabouts.

Det. Sgt. Jack W. Mast said the businessman, Carl M. Piltz, expressed surprise at the statue's origin, cooperated fully in an investigation, and explained a friend had given it to him years ago.

★ ★ ★

Fredericks, best known for his "Spirit of Detroit" that adorns the City County Building in downtown Detroit, created the dancer's torso in 1938 and insured it for $10,000.

Fraternity Is Welcome to Hotel's Doormat

DENVER (UPI) — Several years ago thieves took the doormat from the Gotham Hotel and manager Tony Cook offered a reward for its return.

Recently, Cook saw a picture of the local Lambda Chi Alphi fraternity house with the hotel doormat at the doorway of the fraternity. Cook told the fraternity to keep the mat, and the reward is going to medical research.

Marine Asks Pistol for Viet

DENVER, Colo. (UPI)—A Marine in Viet Nam doesn't think his rifle is a suitable weapon for guerrilla warfare. He has written to his parents in Denver to send him a pistol.

Pfc. Dennis L. Ross's letter said many of his buddies, stationed at Chu Lai were also requesting and receiving pistols from their families at home for the same reasons.

★ ★ ★

Saturday, the 19-year-old Marine's father, Arden Ross, bought a 45-caliber pistol and mailed it to Viet Nam.

"God knows we'll do anything to protect our son," Mrs. Ross said yesterday. Dennis is their only son.

★ ★ ★

Ross, an inspector in the Denver Water Department, said he knows what it means to fight for your life. He spent four years in the South Pacific as a Marine.

Reverses Suffered by Motorist

BOLTON, England (AP) — David Stirrup is to appear in court soon to answer charges of causing a motor vehicle to travel backwards for a greater distance than necessary.

He told reporters today his troubles started like this:

★ ★ ★

Five miles from his home his gear box stuck in reverse.

Rain and a cold wind swept the streets. Stirrup, 22, faced a dilemma: he could walk back home and get soaked, or, he could drive home in reverse.

LITTLE TRAFFIC

There was very little traffic, so he decided to drive. Backing up at a speed of four miles an hour, all went well for the first two miles. Then out of the rain loomed constable John Rossen on his bicycle.

"Are you aware," began the constable heavily, "that you are driving in reverse?"

★ ★ ★

"Aware?" cried Stirrup, "I've been aware for it for the last two miles.

"The constable didn't like it a bit. He told me that I was committing an offense by driving my car backwards for a greater distance than was necessary.

ONLY WAY

"And he didn't like it when I told him that it was necessary, that it was the only way I could get my car home."

The constable unsaddled Stirrup, made him park his car in a field, and walk home.

"It was a terrible experience," said Stirrup. "The whole distance — in the right gear, in reverse and on foot, took 75 minutes."

Develop Device to Aid Blind

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A Mexican team has invented an electronic device that bypasses the eye and sends light signals directly to the brain. The team hopes it may eventually be developed to help the hopelessly blind.

Dr. Armando del Campo, a professor at the National University, says the device now is in the experimental stage and is too large and bulky.

★ ★ ★

In time, he said, it may be possible to refine the machine down to a portable size to be used much as the deaf use hearing aids.

He and four aides developed the device recently after years of work.

AMAUROSCOPE

The machine is called an amauroscope, from the Greek "amaurosis," meaning blindness, and "skopec" — to see.

Del Campo says the system is basically a series of photo receiving elements that catch light and send it directly to the brain through five intermediate circuits without passing through the eyes. Wires are attached to the skull of the patient.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Enrique Wudka, an eye specialist, says the impulses sent through the wires enable a blind person to distinguish between light and shadow. In experiments, blind persons have had a sense of seeing flashes of light going on and off.

★ ★ ★

Del Campo says the experiments lead him to hope that hopelessly blind can count on some help in the future. But he agrees with Wudka that much remains to be done.

EXPERIMENTS

The studies and experiments with blind people were carried out at the Faculty of Sciences of National University and in the laboratories of Mexico's largest television system, Telesistema Mexicana, S.A. A government grant for further experiments is expected.

Collaborating with Del Campo are Jorge Arias Pandal and Juan Guerreroy Coiffier, students at the university; Alejandro Guerreroy Coiffier of the Institute of Monterrey; and Abelardo Medinay Diaz Infante of the National Polytechnic Institute.

25th Gangster Slain in Boston

BOSTON (AP) — James J. (Buddy) McLean, 35, gangland foe of Boston's McLaughlin brothers, has died of shotgun wounds received from ambush Saturday 10 days after Edward J. (Punchy) McLaughlin, 47, was shot down at a Boston bus stop.

McLean's death was the 25th attributed to a gangland feud that has been raging in the Boston area for 19 months.

★ ★

McLean died Sunday at Massachusetts General Hospital where he had been taken with head and chest wounds.

McLaughlin was killed as he was on his way to the murder trial of his brother, George P. McLaughlin, 37, who was convicted of first-degree murder in the 1964 shooting of a Boston bank clerk.

★ ★ ★

McLean injured George McLaughlin during a fight in 1960 at Salisbury Beach. George was in a hospital for two weeks. A month later, McLean found five sticks of dynamite wired to the ignition of his car.

Jordan Claim of Israeli Kill Denied

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) —Israel has denied a Jordanian claim that five Israeli soldiers were killed and six injured yesterday in the second border clash in two days.

An Israeli military spokesman also said no equipment was destroyed in the fighting at Latroun, a no-man's-land 18 miles south of Tel Aviv.

A Jordanian military spokesman claimed one Israeli 106mm gun, two antitank guns, one three-ton truck and three tractors were destroyed. There were no Jordanian losses, he added.

The clash ended when U.N. observers ordered a cease-fire, the Jordanian spokesman said. Both sides claim plowing rights to the land.

★ ★ ★

Forces of Israel and Jordan exchanged fire Saturday for 90 minutes after tractors from both sides raced to stake claims at Latroun, an Israeli official said.

The clash ended with a U.N. cease-fire but yesterday new fighting broke out when seven Israeli tractors with infantry cover moved into the area, the Jordanian spokesman said.

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's national railways began operating the world's fastest train service today, a 322-mile run from Tokyo to Osaka at an average of 103 miles an hour.

Clipping 50 minutes off the previous schedule, the day's first train made the run in 3 hours and 10 minutes. With about 800 passengers, the No. 1 Hikari at times hit more than 120 m.p.h.

A spokesman said subsequent trains kept to the same schedule.

According to data available here, France's Mistral had been the world's fastest service, averaging 82.5 m.p.h. over the 195.2 miles between Paris and Dijon.

Service on the new Tokyo-Osaka line began 13 months ago.

ROME (AP) — A Rome university professor has deduced that the ancient Etruscans discovered America almost 20 centuries before either Christopher Columbus or Leif Ericson was born.

Dr. Mario Gattoni Celli reported to the Etruscan Institute in Florence that he found similarities in language and religious symbols between the mysterious Etruscans and primitive tribes in the Guianas of northern South America.

He said symbols used by tribal priests in the Guianas were identical with some of those inscribed on Etruscan tombs at Tarquinia, north of Rome.

★ ★ ★

"It cannot be excluded," Dr. Gattoni Celli said, "that there was an Etruscan migration to South America, because the panding Rome swallowed them up.

The Etruscans inhabited the Italian peninsula long before Rome was founded and plied the Mediterranean in the 7th and 8th centuries before Christ. Ex-gators and their ships were not much inferior to those in which Columbus made his voyage.".

Word Power to Success—19

Pull in Your Dangling Participles

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the 19th in a 30-part series entitled "The Word Power Way to Success." The series is designed to help bring improvement in spelling, grammar and vocabulary.)

By the Reading Laboratory, Inc.
Written for NEA Special Services

★ ★ ★

Be careful attaching
All the words that need matching,
Since words you leave hanging
Set purists haranguing.

"Walking over here in the cool weather, the time goes faster than in the hot summer." If you've heard about the famous dangling, or hanging, participle and always wanted to meet one, there it is.

"Walking over here" in the opening sentence is dangling, meaning it is unattached to anything in the rest of the sentence.

The way the sentence is constructed, "walking" belongs to —modifies—"the time."

To point up the error, we'll turn the sentence around, and it would then read this way: "The time, walking over here in the cool weather, goes faster than in the hot summer." "The time" does not walk, and whoever does walk is not even mentioned in that sentence.

That sentence should read something like this: "For me, walking over here in the cool weather, the time goes faster, etc." Now walking has a word (me) to which it is attached, and it is not left hanging in midair.

"Looking forward to seeing you at the beach, this card is rushed off to you." According to the way this sentence is put together, the card is "looking forward to seeing you," and that is nonsense.

Looking is hanging, dangling, all alone — and this will "set purists haranguing." So, how should that sentence read? What word in that sentence tells who is "looking forward?" It is not there? Right, so put the word there.

Now you have: "Looking forward to seeing you at the beach, I rush off this card to you." This makes sense because I, the writer of the card, not the card itself is "looking forward."

The words about which you should be most careful are those which end in ing (loving, bringing, hoping), in ed (loved, hoped), and words that are introduced by being and having (being loved, being kept, having loved, having been loved, having been brought).

The points to keep in mind are these: Are the worlds properly attached? Are they tied to the word to which they belong? Common sense is your very best guide, and every sentence should be constructed to give the fullest sense. If construction causes nonsense, it is also poor grammar.

Try this sentence: "In making the decision to enlarge the league to 10 teams, the schedule was enlarged." The main thought here is "the schedule was enlarged."

To which word in that main thought does the first part of the sentence belong? Surely we cannot mean, "The schedule, in deciding to enlarge the league to 10 teams, was enlarged." That construction makes nonsense and, therefore, bad grammar.

Who did the deciding? The team owners or the commissioner of baseball. So, we must supply the missing link.

Now we have: "In deciding to enlarge the league, the owners enlarged the schedule." That makes good sense — and, therefore, good grammar.

To avoid paying income tax, all sorts of tricks are tried." Now that sentence doesn't sound too horrible, does it, and you've certainly heard worse. But is every word attached?

Is there some poor orphan member of the sentence? Look again and you'll notice that this sentence has "all sorts of tricks" trying "to avoid paying income tax."

The sentence should obviously be revised to read: "To avoid paying income tax, people try all sorts of tricks."

Whether you call them dangling participles, dangling infinitives or dangling gerunds does not matter. What matters is the rhyme above.

SUPPORT FOR TROOPS—Mrs. Jack Parker, who wrote an open letter of support for U.S. fighting men in Viet Nam and had it signed by more than 7,000 persons, sits in her Covina, Calif., home surrounded by mail supporting her action. She said less than one per cent of the mail is critical.

Quiet Americans Sound Off

COVINA, Calif. (AP) — The quiet Americans, as Mrs. Jack Parker calls those who seldom sound off, are no longer quiet.

So far they have sent 10,500 signatures endorsing her open letter of support for U.S. troops fighting the Viet Cong, she estimated Sunday.

The list is 265 feet in length.

Since an Associated Press article described her "Operation Support" two weeks ago, she said, she has received more than 2,000 approving letters. Adverse letters are "well under 1 per cent."

SUPPORT CALL

Her letter to the troops included this call to the home folk:

"We believe that the quiet American must let himself be heard above the guns of the Viet Cong and the haranguing and harassment of the 20th century Benedict Arnolds."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Parker, a car salesman's wife and mother of three, spent Sunday reading some of the response.

"Here's a high school girl, Karen Smith of South Eugene High, in Eugene, Ore., who sent 108 signatures of 10th and 12th-graders on notebook paper," she said.

IOWAN REPLIES

"William J. Buggeman, Larchwood, Iowa, quotes excerpts from my letter in the AP story — a number have done that — and sends 104 signatures.

"Dick Bailey says he took a poll of citizens in Hillsboro, Tex., and sends 53 signatures.

"Here are 48 signatures from Harold L. Smallie of Local 1022 — it doesn't say what union — in Granite City, Ill."

One correspondent endorsed Mrs. Parker's open letter with just two words: "In spades!" A GI on the Cambodian-Laotian border write simply "Thanks."

High School Youths Need Motivation

By LESLIE J. NASON, ED.D.

The average American high school youth is faced with greater-than-average problems.

In many cases, when he reaches the middle of his high school years, grades tend to go downhill rather than improve. His instructors say he has greater capabilities and that his low marks are the result of lack of effort. They say he is lazy and needs motivation.

DR. NASON

His parents are concerned that his grades are not up to college admission requirements. They say he is morally good and that his procrastinating tendencies leave them in doubt as to whether he will get into college. But there usually is no doubt in his own mind in this regard. At some future time, he expects to pull the whole thing out of the fire.

His parents put special pressure on him when he approaches the failing point in a subject. And what success he does attain is partially due to their constant urging.

The boy's major interest is centered on games of competition: football, baseball, basketball, golfing, swimming and so on. It is not that he has been overdoing sports but that he has been underdoing learning.

This all-American boy has had excellent coaching in athletics. He knows how to condition himself and plan his play. However, instruction in learning techniques has often been neglected.

He has had no coaching on proper approaches to his studies and he has been allowed to drift into inefficient learning habits.

EXPERT COACH

If he is to expend the same effort in planning his studies, he must have coaching as expert as that provided him in athletics. Motivation follows a feeling of competence. Show him how and he will do it!

For example, it takes only short applications of the principle that minutes of study before class will increase learning during the class period and thus save hours of work and study after class.

A few such demonstrations will convince him that how he studies is more important than how long he studies.

★ ★ ★

Having specific plans as to how he is to study will aid him in overcoming the habit of procrastinating.

SIDE EFFECT

When a boy becomes as familiar with the procedures of learning as he is with the rules of football, learning takes on enough interest to obviate the need for undue parental pressure. Often it has the additional effect of preserving friendship between the boy and his parents.

Rhodesia Settlement Possible, Says Wilson

LONDON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Wilson says he believes a Rhodesian settlement is possible. But the colony's two leading Africans have rejected plans for a royal commission to work out a settlement.

Wilson returned Sunday night from talks in Rhodesia to report to Parliament on the agreement he reached with Rhodesian Prime Minister Ian Smith to set up a three-man royal commission that will seek a formula for conditions under which the central African colony could be granted independence.

★ ★ ★

The British leader said the agreement has provided time for careful thought.

"We can, given the time, get a settlement," he added.

BOUGHT TIME

British newspaper commentators agreed that Wilson's mission had bought time for more negotiations. But they generally did not consider as bright the prospects for an acceptable settlement.

Wilson went to Rhodesia after the colony's ruling white minority threatened to declare independence without yielding to British demands for guarantees promising eventual rule to the colony's 4 million Africans. The white population numbers about 255,000.

The leader of one of Rhodesia's two African nationalist parties, Joshua Nkomo, said in a statement that Britain was evading its responsibilities in proposing the royal commission. He termed it "a time-wasting device."

★ ★ ★

The leader of the other nationalist party, the Rev. Ndabaningi Sithole, issued a statement "unreservedly rejecting the idea of a commission."

REFERENDUM BACKED

Both the rival nationalist leaders agreed to Wilson's proposal that the Rhodesian people as a whole should be asked if they want independence based on the existing 1961 constitution. In separate statements they insisted this be done by a one-man one-vote referendum.

Wilson and Smith have not yet agreed on the ground rules for the commission nor on ways to change the 1961 constitution to make it acceptable to both sides.

★ ★ ★

En route home Wilson stopped in Ghana and Nigeria to discuss the Rhodesian situation.

President Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana told him he considered the royal commission proposal "a betrayal of the 4 million unrepresented African inhabitants" of Rhodesia."

'NO BETRAYAL'

"I understand their feelings," said Wilson later, "but there is no betrayal here. We have stood firmly by our principles."

Nigerian Prime Minister Sir Abubakar Tafawa Balewa told Wilson he considered the royal commission a possible solution to the crisis.

Commonwealth Secretary Arthur Bottomley, who had gone to Rhodesia with Wilson, went to Dar-es-Salaam, in Tanzania, to tell President Julius Nyerere about the talks, then went on to Kenya to confer with President Jomo Kenyatta.

★ ★ ★

In Britain the archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Michael Ramsey, repeated his controversial statement that Christians could approve the use of force if that is necessary to keep order in Rhodesia.

Wilson has said the dispute with Rhodesia could not be solved by military force.

2 Charged in Fire Deaths

TROY, N.Y. (AP) — Two brothers accused of murder and arson in a fire that took the lives of nine children awaited a psychiatric examination today.

John M. Kilduff, 24, a machine operator, and his brother, George K. Kilduff, 22, a truck driver, both of Troy, were charged with first-degree murder and first-degree arson yesterday and ordered held in Rensselaer County Jail.

They were charged in the Feb. 22, 1964, fire in which 8 children and a granddaughter of Napoleon B. Sousie died while trapped in their second-floor bedrooms. The children ranged in age from 2 to 13.

Police said the two admitted setting at least 14 fires in this Hudon River city.

Police Court Justice Joseph F. Daly ordered them held for examination.

The Kilduff brothers were arrested Saturday night. Further court action was set for Nov. 9.

Police said the Kilduffs were known to area firemen and police for their frequent assistance at fires.

Police said the brothers had helped carry the bodies of some of the Sousie children from the scene of that fire. Sousie, his wife, and six other children escaped.

Lions Rebound Over Error-Plagued LA

2 Fast Scores Spark Detroit to 31-7 Rout

Joe Don Looney Hits Paydirt Twice, but Terry Barr Injured

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — A popular tune nowadays in Los Angeles is "Smog Gets in Your Eyes," but strangely it wasn't the visiting Detroit Lions but the home team Rams who appeared more affected by the week-long haze that cleared just before game time.

The Rams were even more generous Sunday than the Lions of recent weeks as they fumbled seven times and three interceptions to enable the Lions to gain a 31-7 victory.

★ ★ ★

The problem may have been that the Rams were blinded by the bright sun which covered the Coliseum after the smog lifted; every time their deep men looked up on punts, passes and kicks they lost the ball and fumbled.

ONLY TWO PLAYS

In only two plays to start their offensive game, the Lions had two touchdowns. Then after playing their usual game of missing four straight scoring chances, they started to hit pay-dirt with regularity.

Bobby Smith, the kick return specialist did most of the fumbling for the Rams.

On the opening kickoff he fumbled Wayne Walker's boot on the LA 16 and after Ernie Clark recovered, Joe Don Looney scooted his left side for a 16-yard touchdown.

LA's Ben Wilson fumbled the ensuing kickoff but recovered on the 20. Three plays netted five yards and a punt followed.

★ ★ ★

The Lions took over on their own 39 and on the first play George Izo, in his first starting role, found Terry Barr all alone near the Ram 20. He passed perfectly and Barr easily outran Ed Meader for a 61-yard touchdown, after only 2:45 of the game gone.

Two field goal attempts from the 37 and 34 were missed by Wayne Walker and after pass interceptions by Dick LeBeau and Joe Schmidt, the Lions continued to force their way into LA territory.

One drive ended when Amos Marsh fumbled on the Ram 18-yard line and the half ended 14-0.

The third quarter was costly for the Lions. After another drive was stalled on the LA 36 when Looney fumbled, Larry Hand regained the ball when Smith fumbled Pat Studstill's punt.

From his own 46, Izo threw long toward Barr on the Ram 10. Defender Clancy Williams got his legs tangled with Barr and to stop the catch he pulled Barr by the jersey.

Interference was called but Barr went down with his leg twisted behind him and had to be carried from the field. Looney covered the remaining nine yards for the touchdown to make it 21-0 with Walker's point.

Bears Rip Packers, Colts, Vikings Roll

CHICAGO (AP) — Green Bay Packer Coach Vince Lombardi heaped praise upon the Chicago Bears Sunday and then warned the Bears they have two games to play against Baltimore.

The crushing 31-10 triumph, the fourth straight for Chicago since the Bears last loss — a 23-14 defeat to the Packers, convinced Lombardi the Bears have arrived again.

★ ★ ★

"This club is greatly improved since we last met 'em," said Lombardi. "In fact, they're a lot better team than the 1963 Bears who won the championship."

Lombardi was quick to point out his Packers are still in first place in the National Football League's Western Conference despite their first loss of the season.

Lombardi had high praise for Bear rookie Gale Sayers, who scored one touchdown and set up another with a 62-yard punt return which turned the tide toward the Bears.

Lombardi said quarterback Bart Starr suffered rib and shoulder injuries but would be able to play again next week. Starr had one of his poorer days, completing 10 of 20 for 102 yards, but three of his passes were intercepted. In six previous games Starr had a total of only two interceptions.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Baltimore's Johnny Unitas fired four touchdown passes carrying the Colts to a 34-28 comeback victory over the San Francisco 49ers Sunday and into a tie for the Western Conference lead in the National Football League.

Three of Unitas' payoff tosses came after the 49ers had jumped off to a 21-10 lead before their largest home crowd of the season — 45,827 in Kezar Stadium.

The 49ers had scored their touchdowns on two John Brodie passes — eight yards to Bernie Casey and 29 to Ken Willard — and a one-yard plunge by rookie fullback Willard.

A 10-yard field goal by Lou Michaels and Unitas' five-yard touchdown throw to Ray Berry was the extent of the Baltimore scoring until the final minute of the first half.

By then, the Colts had learned of Green Bay's 31-10 loss to Chicago and knew a victory over San Francisco would bring them into a deadlock with the Packers, both at 6-1.

STARTED FAST

With 46 seconds left before intermission, Unitas hit Tony Lorick with a short pass, and the fullback ran the rest of the way on a 31-yard scoring play.

Baltimore started fast in the second half. Michaels kicked an 18-yard field goal. Then Jimmy Orr gathered in a pair of Unitas passes from 12 and five yards out.

CLEVELAND (AP) — Frank Tarkenton passed for two touchdowns, one a 72-yarder to halfback Tommy Mason, as the Minnesota Vikings upset the Cleveland Browns 27-17 Sunday in a National Football League game.

Bill Brown, the Vikings' slashing fullback, carried 26 times for 138 yards and scored two touchdowns, one on a one-yard run and the other on a two-yard pass from Tarkenton.

His performance overshadowed that of Browns' fullback Jim Brown, who was held to 39 yards on 18 carries.

Tiger-Cats Wallop Toronto Argos, 35-31

HAMILTON, Ont. (AP) — Don Sutherin scored 14 points Sunday, pacing the Hamilton Tiger-Cats to a 35-31 victory over Toronto and clinching the individual scoring title of the Canadian Football League's Eastern Division.

Sutherin ended the regular season with 81 points. In winning the crown last year he scored 94.

Detroit Rallies to Tie Montreal

Late Henderson Goal Brings 2-2 Deadlock

DETROIT (AP) — A couple of youngsters are keeping the Detroit Red Wings going, while the usually reliable veterans are trying to find the range, and Manager-Coach Sid Abel couldn't be happier.

Paul Henderson scored his third goal of the young season with less than 2½ minutes remaining to give the Red Wings a 2-2 tie with Montreal in the only National Hockey League game played Sunday.

HAWKS FIRST

The deadlock enabled the defending champion Red Wings to climb into fourth place but left the Canadiens a point shy of Chicago, which grabbed sole possession of first place with a 6-4 victory over Montreal Saturday.

Detroit bowed to Toronto, 4-3 and New York clobbered Boston 8-2 for its first victory in the other games Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Bobby Hull continued to score at a two-goals-per-game pace in sparking the Chicago victory.

"A few goals early in the season for a player like Henderson can mean a lot to us as well as him personally," Abel said of the 22-year-old youngster who scored but eight times in 70 games last year.

"Half of our 10 goals so far have been scored by our younger players," Abel observed.

Bryan Watson, also 22, has one and Bruce MacGregor, at 24 the senior member of the team's young breed, has another.

Gordie Howe has yet to score while Norm Ullman, the league's top goal-getter last season, and Alex Delvecchio each has managed a goal. Howe has chipped in with five assists.

"Younger players sometimes get discouraged when they work hard for a goal, only to see it kicked away at the last minute or slide by the net," Abel said. "There's nothing — and this goes for the older players — like seeing that red light go on."

Henderson's marker climaxed a heart-thumping third period which saw all of the scoring come in the final eight minutes and 13 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Jim Roberts put Montreal ahead when he scored while the Canadiens were a man short.

Andy Bathgate scored a power play goal for Detroit less than three minutes later, but Bobby Rousseau put the Canadiens ahead for the second time 30 seconds after Bathgate's goal.

"It was the kind of game that adds a few grey hairs," Abel said. "We had the tie, then gave the lead away and were lucky enough to tie it again."

All teams are idle until Wednesday.

Vet Giant Defender Sparks Upset Victory

NEW YORK (AP) — When Dick Lynch came out of the New York Giants' shower room after Sunday's 14-10 upset of St. Louis, Coach Allie Aherman was waiting at his locker.

"I'm very happy for you," said Allie, shaking the hand of his veteran right corner back. "And you know what I mean."

Lynch knew what he meant, all right because he was surrounded by reporters who had hinted a week ago that he might be over the hill. In the Cleveland defeat, Lynch had been beaten twice for touchdown passes by little Wally Roberts. He had finished that game on the bench.

KEY PLAY

Lynch blocked a 44-yard field goal attempt by the Cardinals' Jim Bakken that set the stage for the Giants' winning touchdown drive in the last quarter.

Dick also knocked down several passes, including one in the final period when the Cards appeared on their way for a score. Pitted against Sonny Randle, one of the toughest split ends in the National Football League, Lynch held his man to three catches for 50 yards.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bill Nelsen, who had passed for just one touchdown this season, tossed three scoring passes against Dallas to pace the rejuvenated Pittsburgh Steelers to a 22-13 victory in a National Football League game Sunday.

Nelsen connected on the three TD passes in the second quarter, giving the Steelers a 19-6 halftime lead.

WBA Heavyweights Stage Bout Tonight

TORONTO (AP) — When towering Ernie Terrell and rugged George Chuvalo meet tonight in 15 rounds or less they undoubtedly will be thinking of more than Terrell's World Boxing Association heavyweight title, which will be at stake.

They will be thinking of being not just WBA champion but of being champion of all the world.

There is an excellent possibility that the winner of tonight's fight will meet the victor of the Cassius Clay-Floyd Patterson bout Nov. 22 at Las Vegas, Nev.

Clay is recognized by almost everyone as champion except the WBA, which stripped him of his crown for signing a return bout clause with Sonny Liston before their first meeting last year.

★ ★ ★

This will be Terrell's first defense of the championship he won in his hometown of Chicago with a decision over Eddie Machen earlier this year.

AGGRESSIVE

In Chuvalo, Terrell, a 6-foot-6 counter-puncher, will be meeting an aggressive fighter who can absorb a lot of punishment. This was seen in his losing effort against Patterson in New York last winter. The Toronto battler's game effort in that fight put him into the heavyweight picture.

★ ★ ★

Despite Terrell's five-inch advantage in height and reach, Chuvalo has said he doesn't plan to alter in slam-bang, boring-in style.

Terrell also holds an edge in age—at 26 he is two years younger than the challenger — but will have a slight weight disadvantage. He probably will weigh 202 while Chuvalo is expected to scale 206.

★ ★ ★

The champion's record is 37-4, Chuvalo has won 33 of 42 fights.

A gate of more than $148,000— the previous record for a fight in Canada — is foreseen. The record was set in 1956 when Archie Moore knocked out James J. Parker in nine rounds here.

Merv McKenzie, Ontario boxing commissioner and a former WBA president, will announce the ring officials 90 minutes before the fight.

N. Michigan Stuns Findlay

By United Press International

Northern Michigan, making a bid to gain back some of the prestige it lost three weeks ago, upset No. 1 ranked small college power, Findlay (Ohio), 21-19, Saturday.

Dave Fleet provided most of the fireworks for Northern by blasting 70 yards for one touchdown and then returning a Findlay punt 85 yards for the deciding tally.

★ ★ ★

In the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association, the Albion Britons put the wraps on their second straight title by winning their fourth game in a row, 28-12, over Olivet on the passing of senior quarterback Dave Neilson.

Freshman Ray Sliwinski threw two touchdown passes for Wayne State as the Tartars pushed over visiting Case Tech, 23-7, in a President's Athletic Conference game.

Western Michigan pushed to a 17-14 win in its Mid-American Conference game with Marshall. Dale Livingston booted three field goals, including a 14-yarder late in the game, to provide the winning margin.

Eastern Michigan, led by the passing of Ed Mass, battled to a 14-14 tie with Western Reserve at Cleveland Saturday. Mass tossed to Karl Malone and Jim Zoltowski for the Hurons' only scores of the day.

Hillsdale, powered by a pair of touchdown runs from Fred Wicht moved to their fourth win in seven games by dumping Kentucky State, 26-18.

PNH Runners Eye State Title

Huskies First, PCH 3rd in Regional

Pontiac Northern's cross country team has its sights set on the state Class A championship this Saturday at Ypsilanti.

The Huskies won the regional at Cass-Benton Park Saturday with 87 points. Brother Rice (110) was second and Pontiac Central (115) third. The top three teams qualified for the state meet.

★ ★ ★

Birmingham Seaholm finished fourth and missed the state finals for the first time in 12 years.

Nick Ochoa paced PNH runners by placing fifth. Dave Johnson was eighth, Dave Kay 16th, Dave Pruett 21st and Dave Truesdale 37th for the Huskies.

Only a complete collapse at the hands of the doormats of the Big Ten, Iowa and Indiana would deprive Michigan State of one of its greatest football seasons in history.

After routing Northwestern 49-7 Saturday with waves of manpower, the Spartans enhanced their chances of walking off with the three most sought honors which could be accorded to any team. The victory was the team's seventh in a row and left them 5-0 atop the Big Ten.

★ ★ ★

They can win their first undisputed Big Ten title since joining the powerful conference in 1953; they can continue as the No. 1 team in the country and subsequently take the mythical national championship; and they can assure themselves of a New Year's Day trip to the Rose Bowl.

A homecoming crowd of 74,215 was stunned in the opening minutes when Northwestern won the toss, elected to kick off with the wind and then put on an opening defensive display which caused the Spartans to punt.

The punt was down on the MSU 44 and eight plays later quarterback Dennis Boothe fumbled on the four. The ball rolled into the end zone and halfback Larry Gates fell on it for the TD. Dean Dickie converted.

★ ★ ★

"They shocked us with that early touchdown," said MSU quarterback Steve Juday, a former All-County player and winner of the Outstanding Player award of Oakland County while at Northville in 1961.

"After that score we probably played our best offensive game of the season," he added.

THREE SCORES

Sophomore fullback Bob Apisa of Hawaii smashed for three touchdowns, while Clint Jones had two with a run and one on a pass from Juday.

Former All-Stater Dwight Lee from New Haven got into the scoring act also for his first collegiate touchdown, and the other was by sophomore quarterback Jimmy Raye from Fayetteville, N.C.

★ ★ ★

Raye, who showed dazzling speed on rollouts, went 45 yards for his touchdown and had 99 yards rushing in nine plays.

WILDCAT CORNERED — Northwestern Wildcats' Michael Bradburn (31) had a lot of interference up front on a kickoff return against Michigan State Saturday, but the Spartans' Sterling Armstrong slipped in behind to bring Bradburn down. MSU rolled up 461 yards on offense in an easy 49-7 triumph.

Arkansas, Nebraska Win

Gophers Suffer 1st Loop Loss

From Our News Wires

Ohio State handed Minnesota it's first Big Ten defeat and Illinois ruined Purdue's title hopes in Saturday football games.

An 18-yard field goal by Bob Funk with 1:17 to play gave OSU an 11-10 victory over Minnesota. Jim Grabowski smashed for 163 yards and one touchdown to lead Illinois to a 21-0 upset of the Boilermakers. It was Purdue's second loss.

★ ★ ★

In other Big Ten action, Indiana turned two interceptions into touchdowns as the Hoosiers posted their first conference win, 21-17, at the expense of hapless Iowa.

Arkansas kept the nation's longest winning string alive by overpowering Texas A&M 21-0 for its 19th straight victory.

Tailback Bobby Burnett ran for 111 yards and two touchdowns as the Razorbacks rolled to their fourth SWC triumph.

Nebraska, moving toward a possible Cotton Bowl rematch against Arkansas, nipped Missouri 16-14 on Larry Wachholtz' fourth-quarter field goal after coming from 14 points down on the passing and running of Fred Duda. The victory kept the Cornhuskers on top in the Big Eight Conference.

FIFTH VICTORY

Notre Dame ripped Navy 29-3 for its fifth victory in six starts as Nick Eddy galloped 55 yards with a screen pass for one touchdown and safety Nick Rassas returned a punt 66 yards for another.

Alabama edged Mississippi State 10-7 and remained in the thick of a wide open Southeastern Conference race.

Mississippi dashed Louisiana State's title hopes by belting the fifth-ranked Tigers 23-0 and Auburn, beaten by three nonconference foes, moved into the SE lead by stunning seventh-ranked Florida 28-17.

Washington State continued to give USC and UCLA an argument for the other Rose Bowl bid with a 10-8 victory over Pacific Athletic Conference rival Oregon State. The Cougars are 1-0 in the PAC and 6-1 over-all.

★ ★ ★

California, trounced by UCLA 55-3 the previous week, pulled a major upset by edging Penn State 21-17. In another big surprise, Colgate came from two touchdowns behind to shade Army 29-28.

Princeton stretched its victory string to 15 — second best in the land — by outscoring Brown 45-27 and unbeaten Dartmouth kept pace in the Ivy League race with a 20-17 decision over Yale.

Clemson remained unbeaten in Atlantic Coast Conference play with a victory over Wake Forest and West Virginia stayed on top in the Southern Conference, despite a 26-8 non-league loss to Kentucky.

Tulsa buried Southern Illinois 55-12 as the Bill Anderson-Howard Twilley passing combination shattered three more NCAA records. The high-scoring Hurricanes meet Louisville, 30-10 victor over Wichita, Saturday for the Missouri Valley Conference title.

U-W Routed by Wolverines in 50-14 Game

Elliott Brothers Face Each Other Saturday; Gabler Keys 'M'

From Our News Wires

ANN ARBOR — Illinois coach Pete Elliott, happy over the Illini's conquest of Purdue, received some sobering news from his scouts who attended Michigan's 50-14 rout of Wisconsin here Saturday.

The Wolverines of Bump Elliott, Pete's brother, finally jelled on offense.

★ ★ ★

Michigan travels to Illinois this Saturday.

The Wolverines struck on their first play from scrimmage when quarterback Wally Gabler hit end Jack Clancy with a 52-yard aerial bomb to take a 7-0 lead.

The Wolverines messed up a couple of more drives during the opening period and then everything started falling in place. Wisconsin's Badgers fell apart in the face of the touchdown deluge.

Michigan's second TD came on a short plunge by Gabler with 28 seconds left in the first quarter. The rout was on.

Rick Sygar cracked over from the two, Dave Fisher ran 12 yards and Gabler scored again from the five as the Wolverines piled up a 35-0 halftime margin.

RESERVES CALLED

After Michigan chalked up two points on a Wisconsin safety when the Badgers fumbled in their own end zone, Sygar fired a 26-yard pass to Clancy and Michigan was ahead 44-0 in the opening minutes of the second half.

Bump Elliott started clearing his bench and the reserves kept the scoreboard lights flashing on Michigan's side, much to the delight of the U-M partisans in the crowd of 66,907.

"Our boys finally managed to put everything into one package," said Bump. "They went like we always knew they could."

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak and gave the Wolverines a 3-4 over-all record. They are 1-3 in the Big Ten.

Bloomfield Girl Sweeps Riding Events

18-Year-Old Miss Jones Is Major Winner

(Special to the Pontiac Press)

NEW YORK — When Crystine Jones of Bloomfield Hills was selected for further training with the U.S. Equestrian team last summer, part of her ambition—but not all, by any means — was realized.

"That was the first step," said the 18-year-old Crystine today. "But my real ambition, the only big one I have now is to make the team and perhaps ride in international competition."

When U.S.E.T. Coach Bert De Nemethy invited Crystine for further work, she took two actions:

1. She canceled her reservation for college.

2. She packed and headed for Gladstone, N.J., sit of the U.S.E.T. Training Center.

Sunday, Cyrstine became one of the few young riders in the history of the National to win both National Hunter Seat Championships — the American Horse Shows Association Medal Class and the Maclay Trophy. She won the AHSA crown Saturday and followed with the Maclay 24 hours later.

In both events, the competitors must score in shows around the country during the year in order to qualify.

Crystine said her parents — her father is president of McManus, John and Adams national advertising agency — are behind her all the way.

"But," she said, "neither one of them know much about horses and I don't think they are very interested."

Crystine is no newcomer to the National. She was in the equitation finals the past four years but each time drew a blank.

"But," she said, "I started working with Gabor Foltenyi in Pontiac, and he taught me a lot.

"Then when I got to Gladstone, Mr. De Nemethy really started me on the right track. By the way, they were in the Hungarian Army together years ago."

The United States ran its record in the international competition to nine victories in 10 classes when Kathy Kusner won the Black and White Trophy.

★ ★ ★

Miss Kusner rode Unusual around the 11 jumps without a fault in :38.4 seconds, beating out her teammate Bill Steinkraus, who was caught in :41.2 on Sinjon. Both horses are owned by Walter B. Devereux the National's president. He has loaned both to the team for as long as they need them.

FLINT — The race for top honors in the Midwestern Football League isn't over.

Flint's Blue Devils muddled the title picture here yesterday with a surprising 19-14 triumph over the heavily-favored Pontiac Arrows.

The loss by the Arrows, coupled with Dayton's 27-15 win over Milan Saturday night, left Pontiac and Dayton atop the league with 5-2 records with one game to play.

Pontiac will play host to Lansing next Saturday night at Wisner Stadium in the finale while Dayton has a noon date next Sunday at Flint.

If both Dayton and Pontiac win next week, a playoff game has been tentatively scheduled for Nov. 13 at a site not yet determined.

A speedy, 190-pound fullback scored three times for the Blue Devils who turned in their finest showing of the season before 400 fans at Atwood Stadium.

★ ★ ★

Jim Long, the team's leading rusher, tallied on a 53-yard draw play in the first period and hit on runs of 74 and 10 yards in the second period as the Blue Devils grabbed a 19-14 lead.

After Long's three sprints, the Blue Devils turned to defense and halted a strong aerial attack by the Arrows in the closing moments of the game.

The defeat dimmed a sharp passing performance by the Arrows quarterback Karl Sweetan who completed 19 of 33 passes for 246 yards and two touchdowns.

★ ★ ★

Sweetan hit halfback Bob Hill with a 17-yard scoring toss to give the Arrows a brief 7-0 lead in the first quarter, and with Pontiac down 19-14 in the fourth period, Sweetan kept the ball in the air.

SECOND TD

Hill caught another Sweetan pass for 14 yards and a touchdown with 10 minutes left in the game to cut the deficit to 19-14.

The Arrows had the ball again moments later following a punt, and Sweetan moved the club from its own 29-yard line to the Blue Devils 28 before defensive halfback Cal Wheeler picked off a Pontiac pass to halt the drive.

Pontiac had the ball again with two minutes left at their own 22, and Sweetan hit Bill Leonard with tosses of 23 and 16 yards and an 11-yarder to Frank Goldberg to move the ball to Flint's 28.

Two passes went incomplete and Sweetan was dropped for a loss on a third play, but on fourth down, he hit fullback Willie Jones with a 23-yarder for a first down at the 13-yard line.

With only 20 seconds left, Hill picked off a Sweetan pass and went out of bounds at the Flint one-yard line, but a penalty set the ball back to the 18 and time ran out when Jones was stopped at the Flint 10 after taking a pass from Sweetan.

Fraser Driver Wins Hot Rod Event

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Maynard Rupp of Fraser, Mich., pushed his Class AA fuel dragster to 200 miles per hour Sunday to top the dragsters in the National Hot Rod Association world championship finals here.

Rupp, with an elapsed time of 7.82 seconds over the quarter mile drag strip, defeated Danny Ongais of Carlsbad, Calif., in the semifinals.

Red Lang's dragster didn't start on the final run, giving Rupp the victory. Rupp went 189.06 m.p.h. on his championship run. He failed Sunday to come up to the 205.47 m.p.h. he registered Saturday.

Joe Smith of Lubbock, Tex., swept the top/stock crown, beating Bill Lawton of East Providence, R.I., when Lawton fouled at the starting line. The junior stock award went to Doug Kahl of Lansing, Mich., who turned in 99.88 m.p.h.

Gary Player, Golf Kin Capture Tourney Titles

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — South Africa's Bob Verwey joined his brother-in-law Gary Player in a golf victory circle half a world apart over the weekend with the pros' next stop coming at Hawaii, located in between.

While Player, the U.S. Open champion, captured the Australian Open at Adelaide, brother-in-law Verwey came in first at the $46,000 San Jose-Almaden tournament.

Player posted a 72-hole total of 284 and won $2,632. Verwey, 24, shot a final round 71 for 273 and took away a check for $6,800.

FAMILY CIRCLE

To keep the family circle straight, Player is married to Verwey's sister and they all hail from Johannesburg.

★ ★ ★

Jack Nicklaus and Frank Phillips were 6 strokes behind Player in the Aussie open.

Verwey's title was his first on the U.S. Professional Golfers' Association tour and automatically qualified him for all the PGA tournaments next year, a position Player long has enjoyed.

Physically they aren't much alike. Just about everyone knows Gary stands 5-foot-7 and weighs about 150. Bob stands 6 foot and even after losing about 20 pounds in recent months still weighs 197.

Verwey's four-round total equalled the tournament record over the 7,035-yard Almaden Country Club course established by Al Geiberger in 1962. He was 15 under par with scores of 69-66-67-71 over the par 36-36 layout.

World Champ Fails in Bid

Texan Gains Grand Prix Victory

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — A young Texan, Hap Sharp, set a scorching pace Sunday to hold off a determined bid by world driving champion Jimmy Clark of Scotland and win the 200-mile Los Angeles Times Grand Prix for Sports Cars in record time.

Sharp, driving a Chevrolet-powered Chapparral — the only car in the race with an automatic transmission — took the checkered flag after leading most of the second half of the 77-lap race.

His average speed was 102.989 miles per hour. The previous mark set last year by Parnelli Jones, was 99.182 m.p.h.

Most of the favorites — Graham Hill of England, Jones of Torrance, Calif., Ritchie Ginther of Granada Hills, Calif., and Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., dropped out of the race with mechanical failures.

ONE MISHAP

The only serious mishap of the race came in the first turn of the first lap when four cars piled up on the track. There were no injuries.

Leading through most of the first part of the race was Bob Bondurant of Los Angeles, who struck the wall in turn six of the 37th lap, damaging a wheel. He did not finish.

★ ★ ★

Sharp, driving companion of Jim Hall, both of Midland, Tex., held off assaults by Clark and New Zealand's Bruce McLaren.

Clark looked as if he could take the lead in the final laps, having followed Sharp closely for most of the race. McLaren, once more than a lap behind the leaders, forged ahead steadily but failed to overtake Clark and Sharp.

Celts Start Slow, Rally to Nip Bullets, 105-100

By the Associated Press

For awhile it looked like Boston was going to lose its fourth straight National Basketball Association game, then the Celtics started playing like the defending champions they are.

Trailing 53-43 at halftime after scoring only 13 points in the second quarter, the Celtics roared back with 62 points after the intermission for a 105-100 victory over Baltimore Sunday night.

In the only other games, the Cincinnati Royals beat the Detroit Pistons 113-107 and the New York Knicks snapped San Francisco's four-game winning streak, 104-103.

Bill Russell blocked seven shots, grabbed 29 rebounds and scored 17 points, including the basket which put the Celtics in front to stay. Sam Jones scored 30 points and Willie Naulls 24 for Boston. Don Ohl led the Bullets with 33.

The Big O-less Royals had eight players score in double figures against Detroit. The Big O — Oscar Robertson — did not play because of an eye injury suffered Saturday night against Philadelphia. Eddie Miles led the Pistons with 29.

Willis Reed made a basket and a free throw to put the Knicks ahead of the Warriors 102-101 with 58 seconds left, then Howie Komives clinched it with a pair of foul shots. Dick Barnett led the Knicks with 30 points. Rookie Rick Barry netted 33 for the Warriors.

Saturday, Philadelphia trounced Cincinnati 134-114, San Francisco nipped Los Angeles 124-122 and St. Louis walloped Detroit 122-95.

Northern, Kettering Going Opposite Ways

Huskies Win, Captains Lose

2 Teams Square Off Friday Night

By JERE CRAIG

The annual Pontiac Northern-Waterford Kettering clash Friday night will find the two teams approach it from opposite directions.

★ ★ ★

Northern's Huskies gathered momentum with a 19-12 triumph Saturday night over Port Huron; while the Captains slumped at Mount Clemens with a 27-26 loss to L'Anse Creuse that afternoon.

The latter contest was a showdown for the Tri-County League title and the Kettering squad lost in the final period when Steve Skelton tallied twice in less than two minutes.

Northern, meanwhile, never trailed but had to stop a Port Huron bid for a tie that carried to the PNH six-yard-line in the final minute before a small Wisner Stadium crowd.

★ ★ ★

Defensive lineman Nick Loukakis hit Howard Colby for a two-yard loss on a fourth-and-three run. The clock ran out before the Huskies had to run a play.

Kettering led, 6-0, and 20-14; but L'Anse won its first football title by withstanding the passing artistry of Dick Micceli.

The junior quarterback tossed touchdown passes to Lyle Cooper (two), Bob Van Bargen and Vince Griffith, hitting 10 of 27 attempts for 236 yards.

The last one covered 35 yards midway into the final period. Cooper caught it, capping a 55-yard drive in two plays after Skelton's eight-yard run had staked L'Anse to a seven-point lead.

But Micceli's pass for the tying conversion point was dropped, and the Captains never threatened again.

The Mikemen will play Morenci in Wisner Stadium Friday night in their finale.

St. Frederick finished its campaign with its third straight win and second romp, 48-20, over Richmond St. Augustine yesterday afternoon at Wisner Stadium.

The Rams are 4-2 for the season and St. Mike 5-1, the records for both since they tied (6-1) for the Macomb title in 1958.

★ ★ ★

Other parochial action, Orchard Lake St. Mary finished with a 5-1 log by whipping Highland Park St. Benedict, 25-6; Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows surprised Royal Oak St. Mary, 20-13; Royal Oak Shrine nudged Redford St. Mary, 14-7; and Detroit Nativity took Utica St. Lawrence, 46-6.

EASY WIN

WOLL ripped into New Baltimore St. Mary for 33 first half points and an easy win. Don Guibord started the scoring with a 36-yard run and lineman Jerry Methner went 15 yards with a recovered fumble to score. The winners ran up 409 yards.

They showed a rugged defense, blocking three punts and recovering five fumbles by the losers.

Bob French went over three times for St. Michael and Guard Frank Launger took a pass interception 15 yards to paydirt. St. Rose led at halftime, 7-6, but the Shamrocks closed strong. They gained 256 yards on the ground.

French ran 14 yards, three yards and five yards to score.

St. Fred's John Carey scored two touchdowns and four extra points as the Rams surprised the 40-point mark for the second straight week. He went 62 yards in 8 plays for the first score.

The Rams then scored on the next play as John Guillean passed to Joe Murphy. Guillean hit five of seven aerials for 133 yards and St. Fred rushed for 369 more. It was 27-7 at halftime.

★ ★ ★

Dave Taylor tallied twice for Shrine, the last one covering nine yards in the fourth quarter and deciding the outcome.

Other results Saturday found Cranbrook losing to Cleveland University School, 35-12, and Grosse Pointe University School whipping Country Day of Birmingham, 33-7.

badly bruised shoulder and suffering a big gash over his right eye, chased Munson continuously in his own backfield forcing him to throw wildly.

The win snapped a three-game losing streak for Detroit and gave the Lions new hope in the Western Division race.

Barr's injury would not be known until today, but feared by the star pass receiver would be out possibly three weeks and more.

It was the right knee which was damaged.

The Rams finally hit paydirt when Marlin McKeever took a short pass over midfield and scampered 47 yards for the score. Bruce Gossett converted.

In the final minutes of the third quarter, Milt Plum entered the game in place of Izo, and in the 4th period, aided by another great interception by LeBeau and three more Rams' fumbles, the Lions added 10 points.

Plum went one yard on a quarterback sneak and Walker booted a 34-yard field goal.

MARCH STOPPED

The Rams had one long march scuttled after starting on their own 20. Bill Munson, on short passes moved to the Detroit 17. At this point flanker Terry Baker took a handoff, passed to Tommy McDonald at the two, but he fumbled and Dick Lane recovered and advanced 14 yards to stop the threat.

★ ★ ★

The home crowd of 35,187 became hostile toward the Rams, cheered sarcastically when kick receivers caught the ball, and even cheered the Lions on long gainers including a 43-yard pass play to Studstill.

Viet Letters Found in Shreds

CLOVIS, N.M. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Viasana have notified postal authorities the letters they are getting from their son stationed in Viet Nam are coming through in shreds.

★ ★ ★

They reported they found one yesterday by a fence in their yard when they returned from a hunting trip. The letter was practically unreadable, they said. A neighbor said he had seen the letter in their mailbox Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Viasana said several letters they have received from their son, Max E. Viasana, 23, have come torn up in small pieces inside the envelope.

★ ★ ★

Postal authorities said someone in Clovis apparently was tampering with the letters.

NY Mayor Race Long, Costly

NEW YORK (AP) — Democrat Abraham D. Beame and Republican-Liberal John V. Lindsay end one of the city's longest, costliest and closest campaigns for mayor today.

But Tuesday's election may hinge on the size of the vote for William F. Buckley Jr., 39, the Conservative party candidate.

★ ★ ★

Beame, 59, city comptroller under outgoing Democratic Mayor Robert F. Wagner, and Lindsay, 43, a Republican congressman, reportedly have spent $1.5 million each. Lindsay has been on the hustings since May 14, Beame since June 29.

Lindsay says Beame bears much responsibility for what Lindsay calls the failures of the 12-year Wagner administration.

OUT OF RACE

Wagner is not seeking reelection.

Moreover, Lindsay says Beame is allied with Democratic bosses whom Wagner failed to purge, and will open City Hall to "a parade of party hacks."

★ ★ ★

Beame, trying to capitalize on a 7-to-2 Democratic voter registration advantage, appeals to party loyalty, and says he can work better with the administration of President Johnson, whose outright endorsement he got only last Friday.

Buckley says he is surprised at the response to his candidacy. He renounced further political ambitions, saying he will return to his job as editor of the magazine, National Review.

BUCKLEY'S VOTE

Polls show Buckley with as much as 18 per cent of the vote, while Beame and Lindsay have around 40 per cent each, give or take a few points. That would be three or four times as many votes as any Conservative candidate has received in the party's three-year history.

The New York Daily News today gave these percentages in the final report on its straw poll of 15,000 ballots: Lindsay, 42.0; Beame, 40.0; Buckley, 18.0.

The News said the poll was the basis of a forecast that Lindsay will be elected in a "photo-finish that conceivably could wind up in a recount."

The final report on the New York Herald Tribune straw poll today gave these percentages: Beame, 42.3; Lindsay, 41.5; Buckley, 16.2 The newspapers conducted three succesive polls throughout the city.

King Aide Hits Rights Barriers

DETROIT (AP) — The Rev. Ralph D. Abernathy said Sunday that obstacles to the civil rights movement represent a "clot in the nation's bloodstream."

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Dr. Abernathy, secretary-treasurer of Dr. Martin Luther King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the civil rights movement faces three important challenges—political reform in the South, economic reform in the North and establishment of a "community of peace and freedom around the world.

★ ★ ★

"We are meeting the first two head-on," he added, "but the third is not exactly our primary responsibility.

"We are told to stick to civil rights in this country and keep our noses out of international politics. But we must see to it that our foreign policies, such as in Viet Nam and Santo Domingo, are not made in the Pentagon."

He argued for admission of Red China to the United Nations.

★ ★ ★

"I've always found," he said, "that when a child is naughty it is better to get him into the house where you can talk to him than to shut the door in his face and keep him outside."

Soviets and Satellites Hold Huddles—Why?

By HENRY SHAPIRO

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Moscow guessing game today concerns the mysterious travels this fall of Communist party leaders and whether they have been secretly discussing the Sino-Soviet rift with their Eastern European satellite partners.

★ ★ ★

The latest in a series of Soviet bloc party conferences, details of which were not disclosed, was announced yesterday.

The Kremlin said party chairman Leonid Brezhnev, Presidium member Kirill Mazurov and "other leaders" conferred during the weekend with Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and aides.

The session took place in Byelorussia near the Polish border.

★ ★ ★

It was the second Brezhnev-Gomulka meeting in as many months. The two conferred in Warsaw in mid-September.

SPIRIT OF ACCORD

A statement from the Soviet News Agency Tass said Brezhnev, Gomulka and their deputies discussed "in the spirit of complete accord . . . questions of the further development of economic and political relations between the Soviet Union and Poland, and exchanged opinions on the most important problems concerning the present situation in Europe and other parts of the world and the international Communist movement."

Soviet party leaders have met with top officials of all ruling Communist parties in Europe in September and October with the exception of Albania, with whom the Russians have icy relations.

Last Monday, Todor Zhivkhov, the party chief of Bulgaria, flew to Moscow at the head of a delegation for three days of meetings with Brezhnev and other Russians.

★ ★ ★

Brezhnev flew to Prague Oct. 15 for a meeting with Czech officials which was kept secret until he returned to Moscow.

PARTY CHIEF

Hungarian party chief Janos Kadar came here Oct. 4 to confer with Brezhnev.

Antonio Novotny of Czechoslovakia, Walter Ulbricht of East Germany and Romania's Nicolai Ceausescu were guests of the Kremlin in September.

Foreign observers have speculated that the reason for the round of visits has been the far-reaching economic changes that are overhauling the Soviet economy.

★ ★ ★

Some of these changes already have been tried out in Eastern Europe.

DISCUSS SPLIT?

Another guess was that the leaders were discussing the Sino-Soviet split.

One year after the downfall of Nikita S. Khrushchev from Kremlin rule, Red China has made it clear by continuing bitter attacks that there is no chance in the near future of reconciliation.

The communique yesterday said the Polish and Russian Communists "expressed confidence that regular comradely meetings of leaders of fraternal countries and parties would help strengthen the unity and cohesion of the Socialist countries and the Communist working class movement. . ."

★ ★ ★

This indicated such bloc leader meetings may be frequent.

Race Is Issue in Detroit Vote

400,000 Expected at Polls on Tuesday

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit voters choose a mayor and nine city councilmen Tuesday in an election which could have a long-range impact on the city's race relations.

About half of Detroit's 800,000 registered voters are expected to cast ballots in the nonpartisan judgeships and municipal offices.

Incumbent Mayor Jerome Cavanagh, seeking his second four-year term, is heavily favored by most observers over challenger Walter Shamie, a political newcomer.

Eighteen candidates, including four Negroes, are seeking seats on the at-large council which currently is all white.

CRIME ISSUE

Sharing top billing with racial questions in campaign debate has been the issue of crime in the streets.

Commenting on race relations, Shamie said Detroit is "a city divided against itself, ready to explode—a city filled with hate, suspicion and fear."

★ ★ ★

But Cavanagh contended:

"We are making truly significant strides in race relations. Detroit is the fifth largest city in the United States and the only one of those cities not to have racial violence this year."

Shamie said new leadership must be developed in the Negro community "because it is now confused with too many alleged leaders—too many who have sold out the Negro for personal favors."

Cavanagh said Detroit never would have made anywhere near the progress it has without the diligent work of many prominent citizens who have devoted themselves to creating equal opportunity.

"Such men have worked to employ the decency of men in solving racial conflict and have not appealed to hatred as some candidates have in referring to problems in our community as a thin covering to racial implications," he declared.

In a city where an estimated 30 per cent of the population is Negro, the racial question loomed large in the council race as well. Even a department store got into the act.

For a while, the all-Negro Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance threatened to boycott white candidates and mount a "Vote for Four and No More" campaign in behalf of the four Negro nominees.

Will Go to U.S., Says Shastri

CALCUTTA, India (AP)—Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri said today he will go to the United States in response to a new invitation from President Johnson but "it is difficult to say when."

He noted that Johnson is still recuperating from his gallbladder operation.

"I have received a letter from President Johnson in which he had made a special plea to me to visit Washington as soon as convenient," Shastri told newsmen.

"I have not said I shall not go to the United States," he added, apparently referring to the earlier invitation which the White House canceled in June, saying Johnson was too busy with congressional matters.

That action caused a furor in India, because Indian officials and newspapers believed Johnson was showing his anger at Indian criticism of U.S. policy in Viet Nam. An invitation to Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan was canceled at the same time.

Washington officials have indicated Johnson would like to talk to both men about resuming U.S. assistance programs, cut off because of the India-Pakistan fighting.

Award Dutch 'Oscar'

AMSTERDAM (AP) — An Edison, the Oscar of the record industry, has been awarded to a recording of speeches by Sir Winston Churchill in the 1918-45 period. His daughter, Mary Soames, received the statuette in the Concertgebouw Hall from Dutch Culture Minister Maarten Vjorlijk.

Ex-Grid Hero on Trial Today

Seek Death Penalty in Bloody Holdup

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — With his life at stake, Duane Earl Pope goes on trial today for a $1,500 bank robbery in which three persons were slain and a fourth wounded.

The government contends the former college football hero should be hanged for what has been called the bloodiest bank robbery in modern times.

The defense says Pope's "mental condition at the time" makes him blameless.

Shy, handsome and rangy, Pope, 22, Roxbury, Kan., was graduated last May from McPherson (Kan.) College where he starred at end on the football team.

* * *

Twelve days later, on June 4, the Farmers State Bank at Big Springs, Neb., had a visitor whose primary business was not the farm loan about which he asked.

PULLED REVOLVER

The holdup man pulled a revolver rigged with a silencer on bank President Andy Kjeldgaard, 77, and ordered him and three employes, to lie on the floor.

The four were shot twice each — one shot aimed at the neck, the second at the heart.

The only one to survive was the nephew of the bank president, Frank Kjeldgaard, 25, who made no sound as the bullets entered his body. He probably will be the prosecution's key witness.

As the bandit left the bank, a wheat farmer, Otto Mauser, opened the bank door. The bandit nodded. "Good morning," he told Mauser.

ALARM SOUNDED

The alarm was sounded in seconds. Several hours later, traced through the rented car allegedly used in the robbery, Pope became the No. 1 suspect and a nationwide manhunt was launched. It ended several days later when Pope's college president made an appeal, asking him to surrender.

Tired of running, Pope surrendered in Kansas City, Mo. The government says Pope confessed the bank robbery and slayings.

Should the alleged confession be admitted as evidence, it would be the prosecution's strongest point.

* * *

It is expected that the selection of a jury may take most of this week. The jurors then will hear about 150 witnesses the prosecution will present. Judge Robert Van Pelt will hold Saturday sessions and the trial is expected to last a month.

FAMILIAR WITH TOWN

The prosecution hopes to establish Pope became familiar with Big Springs while working with a grain combine crew near the southwestern Nebraska cowtown.

A few days after graduating, the government charged, he borrowed $50, rented a car and drove there. A Duane Pope was registered June 3 at a motel in Ogallala, Neb., a few miles east of Big Springs.

The prosecution, led by U. S. Atty. Theodore F. Richling of Omaha, made it clear it will seek a death sentence.

Pope's attorneys, including former Nebraska Gov. Robert B. Crosby, say psychiatrists will show Pope "did not have the capacity to control his behavior and to choose between alternate courses of action."

Senator Due Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., will undergo routine surgery for a double hernia in Lankenau Hospital. He is expected to remain in the hospital until Nov. 10, after which he plans to continue recuperating at home prior to leaving on a Nassau vacation with his wife.

Supervisor Service Set

DETROIT (AP) — Service for Arthur M. Hinkley, a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, will be held Tuesday in Detroit. Hinkley died Saturday at a Detroit hospital at the age of 58.

Prices Weak After Reports

Pressure Bends Aluminums

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums were weak in an irregular stock market early this afternoon. They reacted to published reports that President Johnson was opposed to the aluminum price increase and was in favor of releasing aluminum from the government stockpile.

Trading was fairly active but not as brisk as on Friday. Major stock exchanges will be closed tomorrow for election day.

Considerable selling pressure built up in the aluminum shares and some were opened late due to pile-ups of orders. Losses ranged to well over 2 points for some of the leaders.

Wall Street had a weather eye cocked toward General Motors up .1 and utilities up .2.

Because of insistent speculation about a fatter dividend and possible stock split which might be recommended when directors meet today, GM was up a fraction at the start but faded, showing a net loss of nearly a point as caution overtook optimism.

MANY MIXED

Steels and chemicals were a little ahead on balance. Many groups were mixed or showed little change.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .1 at 355.1 with industrials off .2, rails off .1 and utilities up .2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 3.25 at 967.57.

HIGHER PRICES

Prices were generally higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange. Gains of a point or so were made by Conductron, General Super Markets, Hoerner Boxes, International Products, Liberty Fabrics and Lockwood, Kessler & Bartlett "A".

Corporate bonds were unchanged. U.S. Treasury bonds declined.

Opening lead—♥6

By JACOBY & SON

This week's series will discuss limit raises and specifically the use of the jump raise to three of partner's opening suit bid to show a good hand that is not quite strong enough for a game force. In other words a hand with 11 or 12 points in support of partner's opening bid.

JACOBY

The bidding in the box shows this limit raise at its best. North has 11 points in support of spades. Not enough for a game force but enough to invite game strongly. South has a trifle more than a minimum opening and goes on to game.

There is no trouble bringing it home. South wins the opening heart lead with his ace and draws trumps. Then he discards one of his four losing red cards on dummy's fourth club and makes his contract.

Strangely enough this is the way the hand would have been bid back in the very early days of contract. Somewhere along the way we all changed and decided that the hand that was almost worth a game raise should be bid indirectly. Thus North would respond two clubs rather than three spades and game would eventually be reached.

There is one difference which is one reason why the Jacobys have decided to use limit raises again.

If North responds two clubs East is quite likely to get into the bidding with two diamonds. After all he is not painted on his chair.

West might try a diamond raise and East might wind up sacrificing at five diamonds. He wouldn't make the contract, but he would be down only two tricks and would save game and rubber.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

North	East	South	West
2♠	Pass	3♠	Pass
4♠	Pass	?

You, South, hold:

What do you do?

A—Bid five hearts. Your partner has signed off, but he does not know how good your hand is.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding four spades your partner bids four clubs over your three spade call. What do you do now?

W. Germany to Sell Survival Ration Kit

BONN (AP) — The West German government announced a 14-day survival ration kit costing $5 per person will be marketed to help householders comply with a law effective Jan. 1 requiring storage of a fortnight's food supplies for use in case of war and disaster. The ration has been tested on men and women living in separate shelters — starting with about half the normal German calorie intake and tapering off from there.

Where Would Viet Be if Diem Lived?

By EDWIN Q. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The second anniversary of Ngo Dinh Diem's overthrow will raise again a question for which there can be no answer: What would Viet Nam be like today if Diem and his brother-adviser Nhu had survived?

With the death of Diem and Nhu, Nov. 2, 1963, Viet Nam tried a series of military governments, a period of civilian government; and then, since last June, another military regime.

* * *

The present government is headed by a young air force officer, Gen. Nguyen Cao Ky. In a report to the nation this month he had this to say about the revolution of two years ago:

"The collapse of the Ngo Dinh Diem regime was the inevitable consequence of the long treason of a regime deeply engaged in the path of dictatorship, corruption and brutality. The whole people rose up to start the revolution in order to oust a reactionary regime, in the hope of building a new regime capable of preserving and developing the innate rights of human beings — The rights to live to be free and to enjoy happiness."

LITTLE ACTION

Ky has been accused by some of his critics of making fine speeches but taking little action. There are those who recall that Ngo Dinh Diem also talked about the rights and the happiness of the people, and they say they have heard all the words before.

There is grumbling against the government over the issues of soaring prices, inflation and shortages.

* * *

How history will judge the downfall of Diem may be overshadowed and perhaps confused by the military and international political developments of the past few months.

In the final months of Diem's rule the number of American military personnel in South Viet Nam numbered in the hundreds. Today there are almost 150,000 American military men in the country, and the buildup continues.

NEVER WOULD HAPPEN

"It wouldn't have happened under Diem," says an American businessman who has lived here for years. "First, if he had stayed on, there probably wouldn't have been any South Viet Nam to bring these Americans to. Second, he probably wouldn't have permitted it anyway. He wanted American help to a point, but he had his own ideas about where that point was."

Some others disagree. They assert Diem would have taken any steps to keep the Communists from taking over.

* * *

Opponents of this argument cite brother Nhu, his influence with Diem, his lack of love for Americans and the recurring rumors that even months before his death he had put out feelers into North Viet Nam.

In the period of political turmoil that followed the events in November 1963, it was widely believed that the fall of Diem would long exert an influence over developments in a chaotic Viet Nam. It was felt the arguments would go over whether his downfall was good or bad.

MILITARY CHANGES

Then came the military changes and international maneuvers that loomed far over internal politics or remembrances of dead presidents.

KINDLE MEMORIES — Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. (center), helps burn the 13-year-old mortgage on the Bemis-Olson Amvets Post 113 home, 570 Oakland. Holding the mortgage is Faustin Dobski, first commander of the post. Looking on is the present commander Norman Schram. The mortgage-burning ceremony was Saturday night.

Firing Renews Over Kashmir

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — Fresh shooting on the cease-fire line was reported today in an official Pakistani statement, which said 17 Indian troops were killed.

"Indian troops were again active yesterday in Kashmir and committed numerous cease-fire violations in almost all sectors and in Kel, Chinari, Poonch, Mondhar, and Rajauri in particular," the statement said.

"As a result of Pakistani retaliatory action, 15 Indian soldiers were killed in the Rajauri sector."

The Indians also opened fire in the Bedian, Khem, Karan and Sulemanki sectors more than 200 miles east of Rawalpindi, it added, and in an exchange of fire they suffered two dead and three wounded.

* * *

In New Delhi, an Indian defense ministry communique claimed today 10 Pakistani soldiers were killed in clashes with Indian forces at two places in Mendhar area of Kashmir Saturday.

Two others were killed in Tithwal sector the same day, the communique added.

Indian losses were not given.

Two Turkish Cypriots Shot by Guardsmen

NICOSIA, Cyprus (UPI) — Two Turkish Cypriots were shot and wounded by Greek Cypriot National Guardsmen in separate incidents in the northern part of the city yesterday.

Turkish Cypriot sources said the two men were out hunting and were carrying rifles when they were shot.

'Hairbreadth' Rescue

MARGATE, England (UPI) — The Coast Guard rushed to the rescue yesterday of a "little old lady" a helicopter had reported adrift in a small boat off this sea resort. It turned out to be a male with shoulder - length hair calmly fishing.

Liner Returns Home; Electrical Problems

GENOA, Italy (AP) — The Italian liner Raffaello, en route to New York, was forced today to turn back off Gibraltar and make for home port here because of electrical trouble aboard.

The Italian Line announced that "malfunction in electrical apparatus near the forward engine, unable to be repaired aboard" caused the ship to turn rudder for Genoa rather than continue across heavy seas in the western Atlantic.

Dew in Florida Hard on Paint

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Dew from heaven is not so gentle in Florida. The dew, as much as the sun, is credited with automobile paint destruction.

When General Motors first established a paint-proving ground in Miami in the 1920's, the accepted theory was that ultraviolet rays faded the paints on cars.

* * *

Then it was discovered that paint panels exposed both day and night faded faster than those exposed only to daytime sunlight.

Dew, which is heavy in Florida, is a vapor — and a vapor is a gas. This penetrates the tiny pores on car finishes and condenses to water.

Causes Lost in Paradise?

PARADISE, Calif. (UPI) — The sheriff's office received a pamphlet the other day from a group calling itself "Demonstrators, Inc.," offering hope for the little town with that left-out feeling.

The pamphlet advertises, "Now your town can have a professional riot. Name your cause. We will demonstrate."

But it cautions, "Ninety days advance notice needed to guarantee spontaniety."

The price of copper last year averaged 31.9 cents a pound. Highest average price recorded by the Arizona State Dept. of Mineral Resources was 41.8 cents a pound in 1956 and the low was 5.5 cents in 1932.

Soccer Pool Winner

Bad Luck Follows Good

LEEDS, England (UPI)—When Keith Nicholson won $426,493 in a football pool four years ago, he and his wife, Virginia, looked forward to the easy life.

He was 28, a struggling coal miner. Virginia was 25, an attractive silver blonde.

But the money brought the couple a string of bad luck.

Mrs. Nicholson was a widow today, almost inconsolable with grief.

* * *

Keith was killed during the weekend when his high-priced sports car ran off a rain-slick highway in Yorkshire and plunged into a ravine.

UNCLE KILLED

Killed with Nicholson was his uncle, Frank Nicholson, 73. The two men were returning to Leeds from a racetrack in Wales.

"I'm going to spend, spend, spend," Mrs. Nicholson had said on that happy day in 1961 when Keith brought home a check that represented more money that he could ever hope to earn in several lifetimes.

Spend they did. They bought a new home and cars, invested a large part of their winnings and set up a trust fund for their three young children.

* * *

A few months later, the Nicholsons found themselves deserted by old friends and unaccepted by new neighbors. Time hung heavily on their hands.

AUTO CRASH

They were involved in an auto accident in 1964 that wrecked one of their new purchases — a shiny American car. The couple escaped injury.

The sports car was another recent purchase, made only two months ago.

Virus, Anyone?

Play Who's Flu Have You

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI)—November traditionally marks the official opening of the "virus tennis" season, America's most widely played sport.

WEST

During the next several months, millions of people will be batting cold germs back and forth in schoolroom, home and office tournaments.

Since President Johnson is in Texas and may not return in time to throw out the first flu bug, we will need to devise some other form of opening ceremony. Fortunately, I happen to have some appropriate material at hand.

A leading aspirin company recently conducted a nationwide survey to collect folk medicine remedies handed down through the years by survivors of virus tennis matches.

Listed below are a few of the more interesting palliatives turned up by the survey:

* * *

"Take garlic capsules and vinegar pickles" — Virginia, Minn.

"Drink buttermilk and soda water" — Carthage, Tex.

SMELLY MIXTURE

"Sniff a teaspoon full of a mixture of glycerine, rose water and myrrh" — Tucson, Ariz.

"Heat beer in a small pan, drop in it a piece of camphor and drink it hot" — Bay City, Mich.

"Place a poultice of hot mashed onions on your chest"— New Ross, Ind.

* * *

There is no guarantee that any of these will improve your game, but if you care to try some at your own risk, be my guest.

CONTENT AT HOME

In many areas, November also marks the end of the running-away-from-home season for disgruntled small boys. There is something about the onset of chilly weather that causes a lad to decide that his parents aren't so bad after all.

I know of no better way to commemorate the passing of that season than to relate a story told to me by a friend who works in the Pentagon.

He has a young son whom I shall call Ignatz.

Little Ignatz recently decided that he could no longer coexist with his mother and notified her that he was leaving home.

* * *

"Okay," she said, using the psychological ploy that most parents apply to such situations, "I'll help you pack."

SHORT STAY

Somewhat crestfallen, the kid shuffled down to the end of the block, tarried there about 15 minutes and then headed back. His mother, who had been watching him from a window, began washing the dishes as though nothing had happened.

* * *

Ignatz came in and, after waiting for a welcome that didn't materialize, finally broke the silence.

"Well," he said, "I see you've still got the same old cat."

2 Elderly Women Leap From Window

NEW YORK (AP) — Two 83-year-old women fell or jumped to their deaths within a 10-hour period from a third-floor window of a Coney Island nursing home.

Police said Clara Shapiro was talking with her friends about 10:20 p.m. Saturday when she suddenly strode to the window and jumped out.

At 6:30 a.m. yesterday, police said the woman's roommate, Anna Hausknecht, plunged through the same window to the boardwalk below. Police termed the deaths apparent suicides.

Approximately one million new houses were built in this country last year, providing about three million jobs.

Writer Set His Terms for Hollywood Work

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Once upon a Hollywood time, playrights came west with high hopes and salaries to match, eager to adapt their plays into screen classics.

THOMAS

The same playrights inevitably slunk back to Broadway, disheartened by factory work conditions and unfeeling producers, and ended up writing satiric plays about Hollywood.

Times change, as evidenced by the example of Neal Simon.

★ ★ ★

This moon-face balding young man has produced the most successful string of comedy plays since Kaufman met Hart. Having enjoyed a two-year run with "Come Blow Your Horn," Simon turned out a bigger hit with "Barefoot in the Park" and then a bigger one with "The Odd Couple." In between came a well-received musical, "Little Me."

ON OWN TERMS

Simon came to Hollywood on his own terms.

He was here briefly for conferences with Hal Wallis, who will produce "Barefoot in the Park" for Paramount. "The talks were highly satisfactory," said Simon. "We discussed how the story would be treated and who might be cast.

★ ★ ★

"We agreed on Robert Redford, who played the husband on Broadway. The girl may be Geraldine Chaplin; I saw a test of her and I must say she is enormously appealing. Mildred Natwick, who played the mother in the original, may repeat her role in the film."

Simon will not be adhering to the rigid office hours long demanded of writers by studios. In fact, he will write the "Barefoot" script 3,000 miles away.

'MY HOME TOWN'

"New York is my home, always has been, always will be," he reasoned. "I work better there, and besides, the story is about New York. I'm only a phone call away from the studio. Why should I have to work on the lot?"

Oddly, it was Hollywood that provided the impetus for Simon to become a playwright.

★ ★ ★

He had been a comedy writer for such television stars as Phil Silvers and Sid Caesar. Six years ago, Simon was summoned to Hollywood to devise a sketch for Jerry Lewis. It was a six-week assignment, but Simon wrote the material in a week.

"Jerry looked at the script and said, 'Fine'," the writer recalled. "That left me with five free weeks, for which I was being paid. Being somewhat of a compulsive writer, I decided to use the time in writing 'Come Blow Your Horn,' which I had been thinking about."

★ ★ ★

The job stretched to six months, during which he took television jobs as well. After a tryout in Bucks County, Pa., Simon rewrote 60 per cent of the play and kept rewriting until the Broadway premiere.

Story of No. 5815

His Life of Hope Begins at 40

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Little more than a month ago, Jasper McGowan was No. 5815 at the Maryland Penitentiary, serving 15 years for the $19 holdup of a cleaning establishment.

Today, McGowan, 40, a singer, is a free man and vice president of Hope Enterprises, Inc.

"I walked out into something I don't understand. I've been trying to orient myself after seven years — seven whole years in the penitentiary.

"I came out and found I had no links between past and present. Everybody I knew is gone. The girls I knew are married, have kids.

LANDMARKS GONE

"Places where I used to hang out are torn down. Landmarks are gone. Today, I was walking in a neighborhood I knew well and I was lost," the slender man said as he stood beside a tape recorder in the apartment of Betty Feldman, the realtor who was instrumental in getting his release. She also is president of Hope Enterprises, a small, independent record firm recently established.

McGowan's friendship with Mrs. Feldman began in 1962 when he sent her a hand-painted Christmas card after reading in a newspaper that she had been seriously injured in an automobile accident.

The card sparked a correspondence that grew to more than 1,000 letters and frequent visits.

McGowan was freed Sept. 21 after his attorney filed a habeas corpus proceeding citing a recent Supreme Court decision. Judge John E. Raine Jr. ordered a new trial, then released McGowan when the state's attorney's office decided to drop further prosecution.

"When the judge cut me free, I was a little stunned," McGowan recalled. "He did it so casually I didn't realize I was free."

A school dropout in the seventh grade, McGowan completed his high school education while in the penitentiary, became interested in woodworking and, at the time of his release, was foreman of the prison's woodworking shop.

He also was lead tenor of the Wayward Sons, a prison singing group.

"I could function as a single," McGowan said of his singing career, "and I could do it well. But I'd like to work with the Sons."

STILL IN PRISON

The Sons, however, are still in prison.

Russell Navarro Quarles, McGowan's former cellmate and lyricist on 450 songs to which McGowan wrote the music, has served seven years of a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

★ ★ ★

John (Jelly) Madison has served 13 years of a 23-year sentence for robbery, assault and attempted murder, and Archie (Artie) Shaw has served seven years of a 20-year sentence for burglary and larceny.

The songs they wrote include ballads, populars, rhythm and blues, spirituals and some rock 'n roll numbers — all considered very acceptable commercially, says Mrs. Feldman. She is on the board of directors of the Robert Lindner Foundation, which makes awards in art, literature, and music to creative prison inmates.

WAYWARD SONS

The first disc to be published under the Hope label will feature vocals by the Wayward Sons, including McGowan.

McGowan still visits the prison so he can practice with the group, which already has cut one record professionally. He's also trying to secure their release on parole.

"It feels good to go in knowing you can walk out whenever you're ready. It's quite a feeling. Indescribable.

"But it's a hurting feeling, too, when you walk out and you know your friends are still there.

"All the sons are dropouts," he said. "We're living examples of what happens to guys that drop out of school. But we can also show that just because you're down, you don't have to stay down," he said.

Storms Hit Britain; 5 Lost at Sea

LONDON (AP) — Biting gales and rainstorms lashed Britain today, causing heavy damage over a wide area.

Five seamen were washed overboard from a Norwegian frigate in the Irish sea and a number of persons were injured elsewhere.

The five seamen were lost between the Mull of Kintyre and Malin Head, northernmost point of Ireland, in the North Channel during the night. A sea-air search operation began at dawn.

Gusts of wind up to 85 miles per hour sent two massive 350-feet high cool towers crashing to the ground at a new electricity power station in Ferrybridge, northern England.

★ ★ ★

On the River Tees, a giant oil rig was cut adrift by the winds and rammed an oil jetty.

RACE FOR PORT

Ships raced for port around most parts of Britain's coastline as the gales whipped up huge waves.

On the bleak Pennine Hills, driving rainstorms prevented police from continuing their search for more moorland murder victims.

In London nine persons were injured when high winds sent sheets of corrugated iron crashing down on a bus queue.

★ ★ ★

Weathermen forecast the winds would continue throughout the day but die down tonight.

72 Motion Pictures Previewed at Confab

LOS ANGELES, (AP) — The nation's theater owners saw one of the year's most unusual previews last weekend — 72 motion pictures in three hours. The preview of segments of $250 million in feature films was shown by nine major distributors at the Theater Owners of America convention here. The films will be released in the next few months.

Sea Research Schools Sought

By Science Service

NEWPORT, R. I. — Sea-research colleges should be started in order to strengthen the lagging U.S. fishing industry and to dredge valuable minerals from the ocean floor.

★ ★ ★

These "sea-grant" colleges could be set up in existing universities to develop the resources of the sea much as land-grant colleges have greatly increased benefits from the land, Sen. Clairborne Pell, D-R. I., told a conference here.

Within the next 10 to 15 years, oceanographic research could bring benefits of food, minerals and chemicals worth $5.7 billion, Sen. Pell said.

He has introduced a bill in the Senate to establish and operate sea-grant programs supporting research in the marine sciences.

★ ★ ★

Within the sea-grant universities could be colleges of aquaculture, marine experiment stations, fishery extension services and seagoing fishing port agents, he said.

Chris Reveals Bare Facts of Model Life in the Nude

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Brace yourself for a little Broadway sermon. Blonde, beautiful, bouncy little Chris Noel had come to New York from West Palm Beach to model . . . it was a bitter cold winter . . . she needed a heavy coat . . . but the rent was overdue . . . and while nobody could say she was flat, she was broke.

WILSON

"I can get you $5,000 if you'll pose nude," said a photographer who'd noticed her non-flatness.

"No," she said. "I couldn't do that."

"Oh, don't be so square," the photographer said. "You think about it."

"I don't need to think about it," she said, bravely for 18.

"But I did think about it . . . for three days, in my apartment that needed furniture, about what I could do with $5,000.

"I kept remembering a story I'd read when I was a little girl. There was a little schoolboy whose mother had posed nude. The other little boys told him about it, but he wouldn't believe that about his mother. They brought him the paper with the proof and it broke his heart.

"A corny story, but I kept thinking about how I would disappoint my mother.

"I went to my agents, told them I just couldn't pose nude—and asked them to lend me $200. They did—and I've been working ever since!"

★ ★ ★

Chris, now 23, and a Hollywoodian, is the star of two films, "Beach Ball55 and "Wild, Wild Winter." And she's the special girlfriend of increasingly popular Jack Jones—and next spring when he gets his divorce, there might be some news about that.

Jilly's is hanging up a flag inscribed "See Frank Sinatra in 'A Man and His Music' on NBC TV Nov. 24" . . . Richard Burton got a flock of offers to write for class magazines after his Dylan Thomas piece . . . An Analyst told a TV chap not to marry that beautiful babe (also famous) till spring, because he isn't emotionally ready . . . Carol Burnett's moving to Hollywood.

Lena Horne said at the Spindletop her autobiography, "Lena," is in a third printing, "Even though Sammy Davis beat me to it" . . . Mickey Rooney got $25,000 for his magazine article about his five marriages. (That's 5Gs per wife.) . . . Red Buttons, visiting from L.A., dined at Danny's—spaghetti and vitamin pills.

Spike Jones Jr.

Ruins a Tune Like Dad

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The musical mayhem of Spike Jones and his City Slickers soon will blast forth again, under the two-gun baton of Spike Jones Jr., 16.

Young Spike, who teethed on his father's cowbells, will make his national television debut Nov. 8 on a Danny Thomas NBC-TV special called "What Makes People Laugh?"

"If there's one thing I learned from my father," says Spike Jr., a Beverly Hills High School junior, "it was how to depreciate music."

Spike, like his late father, is a drummer.

★ ★ ★

"But the last five months since dad died, I have been mostly studying cowbells and pistols," he said, smiling.

FINISHED ACT

Despite his youth, Spike is no novice. When his father lapsed into his fatal illness last May, young Spike took over the City Slickers and finished his father's engagement at Harrah's Club, Lake Tahoe, Nev.

Since then he has been playing around town for dances with his band. Unlike most musicians, he has to get up early the next day for school.

He shares the views held by his father that the future isn't too bright for musical satire.

★ ★ ★

As Spike Sr., once said: "The kids nowadays think my music, no matter how zany I make it, is all legit. My cowbells aren't too far removed from those clanging rock 'n' roll guitars."

LOOKS AT FUTURE

Young Spike sees about two years at the most for his father's type of music.

"I'm looking at the future so I also have a rock 'n' roll combo on the side," he said.

But he will do three of his father's biggest hits on the television show—"Cocktails for Two" (crashing glassware and hiccups); "Chloe" (punctuated with sirens and clacking clains —the only known arrangement in which Chloe ever answered back); and "Holiday for Strings" (the roof falls in).

★ ★ ★

Will his mother, Helen Grayco, be vocalist as she was with dad?

SAD MEMORIES

"No," says the son. "She feels there would be too many sad memories for her. She's going to resume her career as a single."

What does she think about school and show business?

★ ★ ★

"I guess she will be satisfied if I get out of high school. Even now she throws a victory party when my report card gets lost in the mail."

Answer to Previous Puzzle

Wife Is Caught in the Act, but All Ends Well

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — As 2,000 spectators gasped, trapeze performer Greta Frisk plunged 40 feet — straight into the arms of her husband who raced to the scene.

"I caught you," Fritz Frisk told his wife, who sprang from a trapeze in a flip-around motion but failed to grasp the bar after she had turned.

Bandsmen stopped playing, and the crowd gave the couple an ovation. Circus manager John Pugh said the couple probably would have medical check-ups today. Neither appeared seriously hurt from the fall, which happened Sunday night at the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus.

Frisk has a bicycle act with the circus.

TV News Swap Boon to Reds?

East Takes Advantage of Program Exchange

GENEVA (AP) — A new East-West agreement for the regular exchange of television news programs may prove a boon to Communist propagandists.

★ ★ ★

The agreement was signed here last month between representatives of West Europe's Eurovision exchange network and Intervision, its East European counterpart.

★ ★ ★

Under the pact, news items are exchanged most days of the week on a regular basis.

No news items are withheld by the Western side, which offers worldwide items as well as West European events. The Soviet Union and its East European allies have eagerly snapped up such offerings as U.S. civil rights incidents and American student protests against the Viet Nam war.

RED COOPERATION

In return the West is supplied with a stream of news briefs on Communist cooperation in Eastern Europe, tours of state-run farms and factories, Communist party congresses and visits from leftwing Western politicians.

★ ★ ★

In September, 12 out of a total 96 East European offerings were accepted by West European networks. The West sends fewer total items but East Europe accepts a far larger percentage.

★ ★ ★

The European Broadcasting Union, controlling body of Eurovision has its headquarters here. An official said: "The main point of the agreement is that for the first time we are receiving a daily flow of news items from Eastern Europe.

★ ★ ★

"While we are not too happy about the range and quality of offerings from the East, it is still a great step forward."

★ ★ ★

As a nonpolitical organization, the broadcasting union merely channels the exchange system. It has no control over the content of the news items from either side. It is up to each individual country whether it accepts an item for its newscast.

★ ★ ★

East European offerings are recorded by Austrian television in Vienna, closest Eurovision point to East Europe. Each West European network receives a list of items in time for the main evening news program. Eastern networks get a similar list from the West.

The world is a looking glass, and gives back to every man the reflection of his own face. Frown at it, and it in turn will look sourly at you; laugh at it, and with it, and it is a jolly, kind companion. — William Makepeace Thackeray, English novelist.

Singapore Official to U.S.: Leave Our Affairs to British

SINGAPORE (AP) — Americans are ignorant of problems in Malaysia and Singapore, says Singapore's prime minister, and should leave them to Britain and its Commonwealth associates.

Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew was referring to reports that the United States may offer assistance, possibly of a military nature, to Singapore's neighbor Malaysia. Britain also is discussing possible changes in its military responsibility in the vast area east of Suez, raising the possibility the United States may feel it necessary to assume a more active role in the area.

* * *

The 53-year-old prime minister, who took this island state out of Malaysia last August under pressure from Malaysian Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman, told an Associated Press reporter:

"You (Americans) don't know Malaysia. You don't know Singapore. You don't know the history and the habits and the attitudes of these people here.

"The British do know. They governed this place for 180 years. So leave them and leave the Australians and the New Zealanders, and the Tunku will have to deal with them to sort out these problems. They cannot be sorted out by the gun alone.

"The gun, yes, is very necessary when your enemy begins to use guns. Injudicious and indiscriminate use of the gun leads to its complete ineffectiveness."

BRITISH BASE

Singapore is the site of a huge British military base. Singapore and Malaysia are still partners in an undeclared war with Indonesia, which opposed formation of the Malaysian federation.

The prime minister said if the United States should become involved in Malaysian affairs, "I would have to radically reassess my position."

* * *

Referring to Malaysia, Lee said, "supposing I get a neighbor with involvement of the nature that the South Vietnamese have with the Americans. I can imagine a very unhappy situation arising."

Lee spoke of Asian countries and politicians as having benefited under American aid programs, and noted that some people say, "well, why not?"

SUREST WAY

"I'll tell you why not," Lee said, his voice rising. "Because that is the surest way to perdition. Because you then embark on a policy which does not take into account the feelings and aspirations and hopes of your population.

"You live this dream life on top and one day you wake up from that dream and you find what an awful mess you are in."

* * *

Lee referred to aid the United States is giving South Viet Nam and South Korea, and said: "I don't want to offend people or even the present governments in South Viet Nam and South Korea. That's their problem. I wish them well. I hope they will solve it. Then my life becomes easier."

Lee said the bitterness between the United States and Communist China is "pretty mutual," and he saw little chance of their patching up differences.

Winds Fan Flames in Massachusetts

DEDHAM, Mass. (AP) — A brush and woods fire, swept by chill, gusty winds, drove more than 300 persons from their homes early today, burning five houses and scorching at least ten others.

A second fire broke out in the Quincy House student dormitory at Harvard University in Cambridge, Mass., driving 400 students into the street. Authorities said two corner suites in the six-story building were aflame.

Authorities said the Dedham fire was brought under control shortly before 6 a.m. but was still burning. "We have to watch it because of the wind," a police spokesman said.

Birthday Greetings

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — President Johnson was among foreign chiefs of state who sent birthday greetings to President Chiang Kai-shek who was 78 Friday.

Florida Area Told to Expect More Rain

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) — Florida's Gold Coast already awash in rainwater, was told by weathermen to expect three to five more inches today.

Fort Lauderdale measured nearly 14 inches during the 24 hours ending last night to give it a total October rainfall of 42.17 inches, the greatest amount of any month on record in that city.

More than 76 inches of rain fell on Fort Lauderdale so far this year, something that hasn't happened since 1954 when 78.87 inches were measured for the year.

Pompano Beach, north of Fort Lauderdale, recorded 10 inches during the 24 hours and North Miami registered 8.10 inches in an 18-hour period. Coral Gables had 6.18 inches of rain.

Boca Raton civil defense officials said yesterday the unofficial rainfall in 24 hours was about 20 inches. The Boca Raton High School was flooded with about a foot of water and classes were canceled today.

The heaviest rains fell from Boca Raton to south of Fort Lauderdale where parts of U.S. 1 were closed temporarily because of high water and several low-lying homes had to be evacuated.

LBJ Wants Tightening

Move Due on Electoral Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has passed the word he wants Congress to act next session on a proposed constitutional amendment aimed at tightening up the Electoral College system.

Despite the failure of more than 100 previous attempts on Capitol Hill to change the method by which presidents and vice presidents are elected, Johnson was said to feel that the Congress now may be in the mood to act.

* * *

Johnson proposed last January that the Constitution be amended to abolish the Electoral College as such and to permit state officials to transmit to Congress the number of electoral votes cast for the presidential and vice presidential candidates receiving the highest popular vote in their state.

This would close a loophole under which electors have the legal right to vote for some individual other than the winner of the popular vote majority in his state.

ALABAMA ELECTOR

In 1956, an Alabama elector refused to vote for Adlai E. Stevenson and cast his ballot for Walter S. Jones. In 1960, Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., got the electoral vote of an Oklahoma Republican, plus eight unpledged Mississippi and six unpledged Alabama Democrats.

Johnson has made it clear he is opposed to splitting a state's electoral vote between major candidates in proportion to their popular vote. He said in a message earlier this year that the present arrangement giving all of the electoral votes of a state to the popular vote winner "supports the two-party system which has served our nation well."

* * *

The administration-supported amendment also would change the method of electing a president and vice president if no candidate got a majority of the electoral votes. As the Constitution stands, the House elects the president in such cases, with each state casting one vote. The Senate elects the vice president, with senators voting individually.

Under the new proposal, if no candidate gets a majority of the electoral votes, the Senate and House would meet in joint session to elect a president and vice president by individual vote of members, from among the three with the highest electoral votes.

* * *

The amendment also would provide that if the president-elect died between Election Day and inaugural, the vice president-elect would be entitled to be elected president.

Red Strife in Java Said Growing in Seriousness

JAKRTA, Indonesia (AP) — The military commander in central Java said today that terrorism by young Communists is becoming "increasingly serious" around Surakarta. He called on his troops to destroy them.

The official news agency Antara said Brig. Gen. Surjo Sumpeno was addressing two battalions of infantry who apparently had been pulled back from Malaysian border areas to join other troops chasing Communist rebels in tense central Java.

* * *

It was the second indication within 24 hours that the army was encountering difficulties in its crackdown on the Communists since the abortive Oct. 1 coup. The army blames the Communists for the short-lived revolt.

Sumpeno said Pemuda Rakjat — the youth wing of the Indonesian Communist party (PKI) — is still carrying out terrorism in the Surakarta area, including kidnapings and killings. He said the victims are mostly members of religious and nationalist groups.

Martial law was proclaimed last Tuesday in central Java.

A spokesman for the central Java administrator's office, Maj. Suroso, said the situation in the Bojolali region is precarious. He said the Djatinon and Manisrenggo regions, in the general area of Jagjakarta and Surakarta, were still under Communist control.

In east Java, where the Communists also were reported active, security forces and the army intensified their mop-up operations. Antara said several leaders of the PKI, Pemuda Rakjat and Sobsi — the Communist trade union organization — have been captured.

Magna Carta Significance Noted by Ike

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says the understanding of the concepts embodied in the Magna Carta and their use could allow peace to prevail in the world.

Speaking at the opening of an exhibition of the Magna Carta, Eisenhower said, "What we are saluting is the great concept the (English) barons had when they said to King John, 'You too are subject to his law.'

* * *

"When all would understand this and practice it then indeed will peace prevail throughout the world," Eisenhower said Sunday.

The Magna Carta displayed here is not the 1215 version signed by King John but a 1225 document signed by King Henry III.

* * *

Eisenhower is chairman of the board of the United States branch of the English Speaking Union which is sponsoring the exhibition in conjunction with its 45th annual meeting.

It is not what he has or even what he does, which expresses the worth of a man, but what he is. — Henri-Frederic Amiel, Swiss philosopher.

California Fog Causes Huge Car Smashups

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A fog bank drifted across a freeway. A stream of cars raced in. None came out.

The fog muffled the screeching brakes and the crash of grille on bumper. By the time the last headlight tinkled broken to the Santa Ana Freeway, 100 cars had smashed together.

An hour later, as tow trucks disentangled the wrecks, another fog bank settled on another freeway 20 miles away — and 50 more cars piled up in two more cases of chain reaction, freeway style.

It took 41 police cars — two of which also were in accidents — to get the freeways flowing again after yesterday's multiple collisions.

★ ★ ★

SERIES OF ACCIDENTS

"It isn't one big accident," said Robert Mills, highway patrol operations officer. "It's a whole series of accidents. Maybe several cars in one pileup, then, a few yards away, several cars in another. It stretches all the way up the freeway."

The first accident occurred at dawn yesterday near where the San Gabriel River, 15 miles southeast of downtown Los Angeles. It was a misty morning, but traffic was humming along near the 65 miles per hour speed limit when

LBJ Pushing Surplus Sale of Aluminum

Also Wants Moves to Encourage Cuts in Upcoming Budget

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson eases into a new workweek today emphasizing efforts to both earn and save money for the federal government.

Johnson ordered a Washington conference today to explore the possibility of selling off 1.4 million short tons of surplus stockpiled aluminum — a deal that could enrich the Treasury by several hundred million dollars.

The President was said to be prodding special assistant Joseph A. Califano Jr., back at the White House, to encourage trimming of budget and legislative requests that will go to Congress next year.

Johnson and wife Lady Bird were alone again at the LBJ Ranch — as alone as they ever can be — following the Sunday departures of both daughters to return to college classes.

★ ★ ★

The Texas White House still was keeping mum about reports that the younger daughter, 18-year-old Luci, had made a roundtrip weekend flight from Washington with 22-year-old boyfriend Pat Nugent to seek Johnson's blessing for marriage.

James H. Moyers, filling in for his brother Bill as press secretary, told reporters he understood Luci and Pat left the ranch for Washington before Sunday lunch — and apparently before a lay minister of the Christian Church arrived to conduct family services.

After Moyers announced the departure of Luci and Pat, he was asked if the chief executive's daughter had left in a huff.

"Oh, no," he said.

Moyers said Johnson had a telephone conference with Califano about the possibility of disposing of the stockpiled aluminum and ordered that his aide meet today on this subject with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Administrator Lawson Knott of the General Services Administration and Director Buford Ellington of the Office of Emergency Planning.

N.Y. Klan Chief Kills Himself

READING, Pa. (AP)—Daniel Burros, New York Ku Klux Klan leader, shot himself to death minutes after learning his Jewish origin had been made public, a fellow Klansman told police.

"This will destroy me," one witness to the shooting yesterday quoted the 28-year-old Burros as saying after Burros read a New York Times story detailing his long-hidden background.

DANIEL BURROS

The shooting occurred in the apartment of Roy E. Frankhouser Jr., 25, who has been named by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as grand dragon of the Pennsylvania Ku Klux Klan. Burros died of two bullet wounds.

Detective Leon Zerowski said there "was no doubt" Burros shot himself. He said autopsy tests still were being awaited, however, for an official ruling.

Frankhouser said he tried to calm Burros after Burros saw the newspaper story but Burros started kicking things in the room and shouted: "I'll have to kill myself.' "

★ ★ ★

Frankhouser told police that Burros had told him earlier that he had threatened the Times Reporter who had disclosed his secret and Burros said he also would "get" a New York plainclothesman who had heard the threat.

Frankhouser told police that Burros, after reading the Times story, said he had to go to New York to "wipe out" the Times reporter who had disclosed his secret and said he also would "wipe out" the newspaper staff.

Burros, whose death was listed by police as apparently suicide, had been identified at hearings of the House committee as New York State grand dragon of the Klan.

Detective Capt. Joseph Confora of the Reading police said Burros shot himself "as an aftermath" of the article published in the New York Times.

The article reported that Burros, who had been chosen king kleagle to lead an anti-Jewish, anti-Negro crusade by the United Klans of America in New York, had a secret that he desperately did not want known.

PARENTS JEWISH

The secret was that his parents are Jewish and were married in a Jewish ceremony, and that he had received a bar mitz-

Flak Is Heavy Over 3 N. Viet Launch Sites

One Navy Aircraft Shot Down; Pilot Listed as Missing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Battling their way through heavy missile and conventional antiaircraft fire, U. S. Navy and Air Force planes hit three surface-to-air missile launching sites yesterday about 35 miles northeast of Hanoi, a U.S. military spokesman said.

One Navy plane was shot down and the pilot was listed as missing.

Pilots reported they counted 17 missiles fired at them during the attack.

They said they left one site in ruins and knocked the other two out of action.

CENTER OF AREA

The attacks on the missile sites were ordered after missiles were fired at planes from the carriers Oriskany and Independence during an attack on the key highway bridge. It was in the center of the missile installations.

A flight of Navy planes led by Cmdr. Harry T. Jenkins, 38, of Washington, D. C., dumped four tons of 500-pound-bombs on one missile site, the spokesman said.

No missiles were launched from the site after the final run on the target, pilots reported.

★ ★ ★

At almost the same time, Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs led by a Navy A4 Skyhawk were bombing the two other installations nearby.

NAVY PLANE HIT

The Navy plane flying with the Air Force craft was hit during the raid by conventional ground fire.

Capt. Robert L. Harris, 34, of Longview, Tex., leader of one of the Air Force flights, reported sighting a parachute from the Navy plane. The pilot was listed as missing.

The action over the missile area was the heaviest so far disclosed in the air war against North Viet Nam.

The Air Force planes dropped 19 tons of 500- and 750-pound bombs and fired thousands of rounds of 20mm cannon fire on the two installations they hit, the spokesman said.

COMPLETE RUNS

While the missile installations still were under attack, pilots from the Oriskany completed their bombing runs on the bridge. Then a second flight of Navy planes also hit the bridge.

In all, 21 tons of bombs were dropped on the bridge,

School-Operated Restaurant Starts Big Week

A big week is in store for those connected with the Skyroom Restaurant at Pontiac Municipal Airport.

Tomorrow, the school - operated restaurant will begin functioning on a full three - meal schedule, and Thursday at 6 p.m. the grand opening will be held.

Leased by Waterford Township Schools from the city-owned airport, the restaurant is assigned to Waterford-Kettering High School.

Next semester, food service students from township high schools will begin training at the restaurant in preparation for related occupations.

The "experienced hand" behind the operation is Mrs. Charlotte Korte, who has had 30 years experience in the restaurant field.

RANGE OF EXPERIENCE

She has worked on Great Lakes excursion boats and at the Women's City Club of Detroit and has taught food service students at Detroit's Chadsey High School.

On her staff are an assistant manager, two cooks, two waitresses, a dishwasher and a part-time porter.

Mrs. Korte informs that the restaurant will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and Sunday and from 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday.

The restaurant will be closed on Monday.

Breakfast, lunch and dinner will be served each day the restaurant is open. The cost of meals will range up to $1.25 for lunches and between $1.25 and $3 for dinner.

The seating capacity of the restaurant is more than 60, according to Mrs. Korte. In addition, there is a banquet room in the basement.

According to Mrs. Korte, the restaurant will specialize in "home-cooked" meals. All dressings and soups will be homemade, she noted.

Although the restaurant will serve soups and sandwiches, it will not specialize in short orders.

★ ★ ★

"Our menu will change every day," said Mrs. Korte. "It's more on a tearoom basis."

GETTING COMPLIMENTS

Already, compliments are pouring in on the quality of the food and patronage is increasing gradually.

Ham, steak, chicken, roast beef, fish and caseroles, will be featured at dinner.

Mrs. Korte observed that other local restaurateurs look on the restaurant favorably.

"Most of them are favorable because eventually they will draw their help from here."

U.S. Red Party in Court Again for Not Registering

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Communist party goes on trial again today on charges of failing to register with the government as a Soviet agent.

Conviction on similar charges three years ago brought a $120,000 fine but was overturned by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

* * *

This time, the Justice Department hopes to avert the legal loophole that spelled defeat after apparent victory in its 15-year battle with the party.

The 12-count indictment returned by a grand jury last February charges the party not only with failure to register but with doing so in the full knowledge that a volunteer was available and willing to register on behalf of the party.

SHOW VOLUNTEER

The U.S. Court of Appeals, in striking down the 1962 conviction one year later, ruled that the government had had the burden of proving such a volunteer — unconcerned about possible self-incrimination — was available to sign the registration form and statement for the party.

Thus, the highlight of the trial scheduled to open today in U.S. District Court is expected to be the testimony of the witness — or witnesses — the government claims the party could have called on.

* * *

His — or their — identity is a closely held secret between Asst. U.S. Atty. Joseph Lowther, who will prosecute the case, and the Justice Department's Internal Security Division.

"We don't want to tell you the name or names because we don't want the party to know in advance who our witnesses will be," Asst. Atty. Gen. J. Walter Yeagley told a reporter.

PARTY ATTORNEYS

John J. Abt of New York and Joseph Forer of Washington, are the party's attorneys in this trial.

The last trial went to the jury of eight men and four women on the fourth day. They returned the guilty verdict in 35 minutes.

* * *

The present indictment specifically charges the party with wilfully failing to register, as required by the Internal Security Act of 1950, on each of 11 days from Feb. 13 to Feb. 23 of this year. Each day constitutes a separate offense that carries a maximum penalty of $10,000.

* * *

The 12th count of the indictment — like that in the 1962 case — asserts that the party failed to file the required statement of members' names, aliases and addresses, along with a list of printing presses and reproduction equipment controlled by the party, as well as a detailed financial accounting.

China Backers in U.N. Split

Differ on Proposals to Gain Membership

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The leading boosters of Red China for U.N. membership are reported split over what to propose to the General Assembly.

Diplomatic sources said the division had developed among the 11 delegations that got the 117-nation assembly to agree to debate an item calling for "restoration of the lawful rights of the People's Republic of China in the United Nations."

* * *

They said Cambodia suggested a resolution proposing to seat Communist China on all U.N. bodies without expelling Nationalist China.

Albania, Red China's chief ally in its feud with the Soviet Union, urged that the resolution call for expulsion of the Chinese Nationalists in favor of the Communists and meet some of Communist China's other conditions for joining the United Nations.

RED'S CONDITIONS

Among the conditions stated by Chinese Communist Foreign Minister Chen Yi Sept. 29 were:

—Withdrawal of the 1951 U.N. resolution condemning Communist China as an aggressor in Korea.

—U.N. condemnation of the United States on that score.

—Expulsion from the United Nations of "imperialist-puppet" countries.

* * *

The informants said Cambodia's proposal met with reserve and Albania's with opposition from those of the other nine nations to whom they were presented.

The others are Algeria, Burundi, the Congo (Brazzaville), Cuba, Ghana, Guinea, Mali, Romania and Syria.

GET MORE VOTES

A resolution to seat the Chinese Communists while letting the Nationalists remain would probably get more votes than one that would throw the Nationalists out.

A resolution to accept the Chinese Communists' conditions would be likely to get less votes than one to invite the Reds in or to substitute them for the Nationalists.

A few diplomats forecast a slight margin in favor of the Chinese Communists but far less than the two-thirds necessary to seat them.

Silverless Quarters Now in Circulation

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — The first silverless quarters go into circulation today.

Their use originally hadn't been expected until next month, but President Johnson said mint production had been faster than anticipated.

Silverless quarters and dimes were authorized by Congress this year because of a diminishing supply of the metal and the resulting increase in its price.

Silverless dimes will be issued in January.

The new quarters have heads and tails coatings of 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel, bonded to a pure copper core.

Vote Tuesday in Sylvan Lake

Residents to Choose Councilmen and JP

Sylvan Lake voters will go to the polls tomorrow to elect two city councilmen and a justice of the peace.

* * *

Three candidates are vying for the council posts, including the two incumbents, E. V. Geizer and John M. Hanson.

Challenging them for a three-year term on the council is Fred Crossman, an unsuccessful candidate in the November 1964 election.

Unopposed in his bid for the justice of the peace post is present officeholder Roy L. Williams, 40, of 2174 Avondale, who was appointed to the position by the city council following the death of Anthony Kreps last March.

GEIZER

* * *

Geizer, a businessman with offices in Royal Oak, has been Sylvan Lake mayor since last November when he was named to the position by fellow councilmen at their organizational meeting. He had been appointed to the council four months earlier.

Geizer, 48, of 2714 Island Court, is president of Tech-Matic Specialties, Inc., an industrial sales organization. He and his wife, LuVerne, have a 10-year-old daughter.

HANSON

Hanson, 45, of 2440 Garland, is seeking re-election to his second three-year term.

President of the Michigan Credit Counselors, Pontiac, Hanson has been engaged in the personal-finance field and family financial counseling for 20 years.

He is an Army Air Force veteran and saw service in the Pacific Theater during World War II. He and his wife Marge have three children.

'Klan Robes Maker' Refuses to Answer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A South Carolina man said to be the manufacturer of the robes of the Ku Klux Klan refused to answer any questions about his activities today.

He was identified by the House Committee on Un-American Activities as Young M. Newton. He was said to be a partner with G. E. Blizzard in the Heritage Garment Works, 522 Howard, Columbia, S.C.

* * *

The committee directed Newton to produce all orders and contracts of the Heritage Garment Works for robes for Klansmen and their officers, and also orders for "blood drop insignia."

Chief Investigator Donald T. Appell said Newton was 50 years old and worked for the International Pipe and Ceramic Co. of Columbia.

OPENS 3RD WEEK

Newton's appearance opened the third week of the committee's investigation of the Klan with attention expected to be concentrated on Georgia and the spotlight to shift from bank records to violence.

To probe the United Klans of America's activities in the Peach State, the House Committee on Un-American Activities has lined up 33 witnesses, according to Rep. Charles L. Weltner, D-Ga.

* * *

Some of the witnesses are described as friendly, willing to try to link the Klan to acts of violence in Georgia.

Weltner noted the committee had not been very successful in trying to connect Klan members to violence in North and South Carolina.

IN GEORGIA

"There were the New Bern (N.C.) bombings and some cross burnings," said Weltner. "But in Georgia, that's where the action is."

The accent on alleged Klan terror will continue as the inquiry moves deeper in the South, through Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, and Florida, Weltner said.

Faced with the almost solid ranks of Fifth Amendment pleadings from the imperial wizard, grand dragons and cyclopes of the United Klans of America, the committee is trying out a new technique of cross-examination.

Boy Trapped in Marshland Seven Hours

MONROE (AP) — A 16-year-old duck hunter, trapped chest-deep in a marsh, waited seven hours for rescue while rising water crept toward his face Sunday, authorities said.

Edward LaFountain of Newport narrowly escaped drowning in Point Mouille March, 12 miles northeast of Monroe, said Monroe County sheriff's deputy Thomas Hoffman.

The boy's ordeal began when his small boat ran aground approximately 75 yards from shore.

He told authorities he abandoned the boat after trying futilely to drag it ashore about 2:30 p.m.

He began sinking in muck and struggled to free himself until he was chest - deep in the mire, he told sheriff's men.

EASES BACK

Then, high winds which had pushed the water offshore, began to let up and the water began easing back in, authorities said.

At 7:30 p.m., a search was begun by LaFountain's father, Albert, and the boy's two hunting companions who he had let out of the boat early in the afternoon.

They found LaFountain.

It took two hours to free the youth, sheriff's men said.

LaFountain was treated at a hospital for exposure and was released, officers said.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Occasional rain will fall along the northern and central Pacific Coast and in portions of the northern Rockies tonight. Snow flurries are expected in the lower Lakes region and in portions of northern New England. Cooler temperatures will be felt over most of the area east of the Mississippi Valley and over the southern Plains.

Strolls In, Breezes Out

October Acts Like March in Reverse

Acting like March in reverse, October came in under blue skies and then departed in a huff.

* * *

But again, the blustery attitude was nothing more than can be expected of the transitional child of fall and winter.

Only once did it forget itself and allow the temperature to reach a summerlike 80 degrees on the 18th of the month.

It was keeping in character since 80 was the high reached in October 1964.

* * *

The high last month fell 10 degrees short of the warmest day in September when the thermometer reached 90.

OCTOBER LOW

October's low of 24 was eight degrees below the 36 low recorded a month earlier and, as might be expected, was similar to the 28 low marked in October last year.

The amount of rainfall was about the only difference in last October and the same month a year ago.

Last month there was 1.49 inches of rains while in October 1964 there was less than half an inch.

The recorded rainfall last month, however, was nearly consistent with the previous month's 1.40 inches.

SNOW FLURRIES

As a peview of what can be expected in coming months, October scattered a few snow flurries in the area, but not really enough to wet the appetite of winter sportsmen.

The snow came down the same day the low temperature for the month was recorded, the 28th.

Two days later on the 20th, the heaviest rain for the month was recorded in the Pontiac area, three-quarters of an inch.

* * *

On two occasions, the seventh and eighth, one-quarter of an inch of rain was recorded.

SUNNY SKIES

Sunny skies shone on 21 of the 31 days.

* * *

On the last day of the month, winds of 50 miles an hour with gusts up to 60 miles were recorded locally.

Hiring of Prelaw Student for Court Bureau Backed

BIRMINGHAM — A recommendation to hire a prelaw student for full-time duty in the Municipal Court Violations Bureau will be presented tonight to the City Commission.

* * *

City Manager R. S. Kenning, who recommended the new employe, suggested a salary range of from $4,400 to $4,800 based on a 40-hour work week.

Presently the bureau is staffed by two full-time clerical workers and one half-time, or 20-hour-per-week, employe.

Kenning, in recommending a full-time person with an interest in law, said that a change was needed to relieve scheduling and coordinating problems that have arisen in this office.

* * *

The city's municipal judges believe the hiring of a prelaw student could benefit the court as well as relieving the clerical function of the violations bureau, Kenning said.

JANITORIAL SERVICE

Also tonight, the City Commission will be advised that the present contract for janitorial service in the municipal building will be terminated Nov. 30 and that advertisements for bids to furnish service have been published.

* * *

Another item of information for commissioners will be that the engineering department soon will start a citywide sidewalk inspection program.

A child psychiatry specialist will speak tonight to the Hickory Grove PTO on "Developmental Ages, Stages and Difficulties."

Speaking at the 8 p.m. meeting will be Dr. James M. McHugh, a consultant in child psychiatry at Children's Hospital as well as for the Royal Oak school system.

Dr. McHugh is on the staff of both Children's and Beaumont hospitals.

3 Missile Units Hit in N. Viet

"leaving it in a cloud of smoke and dust," the spokesman said.

Later photo reconnaissance and low-level flight made by the Navy flight leader, Cmdr. Joe D. Adkins, 40, of Marlow, Okla., showed that all spans of the bridge were knocked into the water, the spokesman said.

* * *

Six U.S. planes have been reported shot down by the antiaircraft missiles which the Soviets have installed in North Viet Nam. The sixth was a Navy jet fighter last Wednesday.

PERMANENT SITES

Permanent missile launching sites have been installed at several points around Hanoi and Haiphong, North Viet Nam's chief port.

A number of mobile launchers are also operating. They can be set up and dismantled within 24 hours.

U.S. officials decline to estimate the number of missile launchers in North Viet Nam.

* * *

Unofficial reports have indicated that there has been a steady buildup of missile defenses in a circle around Hanoi.

PREVIOUS ATTACKS

U.S. forces have reported three previous attacks on mobile missile units.

Navy pilots said they left a missile, launchers and trucks in flames 52 miles northeast of Hanoi on Oct. 17.

On July 27, U.S. pilots reported they knocked out one mobile launching site and damaged another 40 miles northwest of Hanoi.

* * *

One sharp ground action was reported today in South Viet Nam, with troops of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division claiming a confirmed kill of 50 Communist fighters in the area of the Plei Me special forces camp.

NO U.S. CASUALTIES

The spokesman said there were no American casualties.

The spokesman said some of those killed were dressed in khaki uniforms, as indication that they were North Vietnamese troops, while others wore the black pajamas customarily worn by the Viet Cong.

North Vietnamese reportedly formed the bulk of the force that besieged Plei Me for a week.

river-bottom fog suddenly blotted visibility.

No one knows yet who triggered the first crash, but highway patrolmen suspect it was a motorist, panicked by the fog, who slammed on his brakes.

* * *

The car behind hit his, and the one behind hit that. The freeway turned to a mass of screeching, careening cars as traffic crashed and slammed to a halt.

PATROL CAR COLLIDES

Highway patrolman William Davis plunged his patrol car into the fog, collided with an auto spinning out of control ahead of him, and came to a stop unhurt, held in by his safety harness. Many of the victims suffered neck whiplash injuries from rear-end collisions.

* * *

By that time more fog settled on the Harbor Freeway south of downtown Los Angeles, and the chain reaction began again: 30 cars crashed at Manchester Avenue, another 20 at 76th Street. This time the freeway was closed for an hour.

GAME OF WATER BALL—Water was knee deep on the basketball court at a playground in Miami, Fla., yesterday after heavy rainfall pelted the area. The heaviest rains fell in Broward County north of Miami which recorded 13 inches in 24 hours ending at noon yesterday. (See story, Page D-10.)

Nation's Halloween: Happiness for Some; Tragedy for Others

By the Associated Press

There was the usual boisterous fun as Halloween was observed across the nation over the weekend, but the trick-or-treat season had some overtones of tragedy.

With Halloween falling on the Sabbath, communities observed the occasion on either Saturday or Sunday night — or both.

★ ★ ★

In Memphis, Tenn., Sunday, a group of Memphis State University students canvassed residential areas looking for leftover goodies. These were distributed to children in the city's hospitals who were unable to go out.

At Las Cruces, N.M., a woman called police and said bombs were being planted on her front lawn. Authorities found big glass globes in nets — ornaments used by Chinese restaurants or in Hawaiian settings.

60,000 PERSONS

At Independence, Kan., more than 60,000 persons turned out Saturday night for the annual Neewollah celebration featuring 40 bands led by majorettes and several dancing go-go girls.

Independence started Neewollah in 1919 in an effort to reduce vandalism.

At Saranac Lake, N.Y., motorists had free weekend parking as a result of pranks last year, when many meters were sprayed with shaving cream and had to be repaired. This year, police removed the meters.

Robert Sweeney of Dannemora, N.Y., left his brown auto parked in a lot while he played bingo in the community of Cadyville. When he returned, his car had been painted a bright red.

DECLINES CANDY

In Wheaton, Md., a total of 59 trick-or-treaters called at one home. One small lad declined a candy bar.

"No, thank you," he said. "I've been here before. I just brought them" — pointing to two equally small companions.

★ ★ ★

In Nashville, Tenn., a group of Boy Scouts set up a "goblin shop" in the living room of a home. One lad lay down in a homemade crypt with a blanket around his body and head, with only his face showing.

Three other boys stationed themselves around the dimly lit room.

RISING BODY

Trick or treaters stumbled over a body or two, saw the youth rise slowly from the crypt, and frantically fled from the home.

At Ohio Stadium, Columbus, Ohio, on the morning of the Ohio State-Minnesota football game, Saturday, a groundskeeper noticed sun glints above one goal post. He found several lengths of almost invisible wire strung above the crossbar. It would have stopped kicks from clearing.

★ ★ ★

The dark side:

Near Washington Court House, Ohio, vandals burned down a 200-foot wooden covered bridge — one of the few such bridges left in the state.

At Bloomfield, Conn., a pumpkin thrown from a car shattered the windshield of Patricia Haley's car as she was driving along a street. She was hospitalized for removal of glass fragments from her face.

SEVERAL FIRES

At Pearsall, Tex., vandals set fires destroying a vacant house, a warehouse of baled hay, and show buildings belonging to the 4-H club and Future Farmers of America.

At Acushnet, Mass., a 14-year-old boy lost one finger and suffered burns in the explosion of what was termed a "Halloween bomb."

Philadelphia police sent loudspeaker cars cruising through North Philadelphia warning residents of potentially dangerous medicinal capsules which were given trick or treating children.

Authorities said they had recovered all the capsules.

TRIO OVERCOME

At Willingboro, N.J., a straw man went up in flames on the porch of Donald Brewer. The blaze damaged a garage and hallway, and three firemen were overcome by smoke while fighting it.

In Chicago, a 10-year-old girl was abducted by motorists who put her trick-or-treat bag over her head, took her to an apartment, and raped her.

Also in Chicago, five teen-agers wearing Halloween masks and face paints beat a young wife and took her wedding and engagement rings.

Two Chicago girls went out Sunday night to seek "Halloween thrills."

The girls decided to stand on elevated railroad tracks. A speeding passenger train came along. One girl jumped to safety but Patricia Gillam, 15, was struck and killed.

MILITIAMEN TAKE BREAK — Two armed Cuban militiamen lounge at a dock area in Varadero, Cuba, where boats are docked waiting to take refugees to the United States. A U.S. newsman at the scene estimated that there were 300 boats waiting to pick up refugees.

Exodus Resumes After Storm

100 Cuba Refugees Nearing Key West

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Refugee boat traffic from Cuba, interrupted by a storm, resumes today. The Coast Guard said more than 100 persons in three boats were nearing Key West.

They would be the first to cross the wave-lashed Florida Straits since Saturday morning.

★ ★ ★

Awaited from Camarioca, the refugee departure point, were 77 Cubans aboard the Little Mike, 27 on the Spray and an undetermined number on the Lemondrop, the Coast Guard said.

Seas that have put scores of boats in distress during the 25-day-old refugee shuttle were reported still treacherous for small craft. The Coast Guard has rescued many.

KNOWN TOLL

There was a known toll of five persons missing and one drowned.

Announcement was awaited of a U.S.-Cuba agreement for an airlift to supplant the hazardous do-it-yourself shuttle.

Most of the new refugees are taken to Miami and transported to other U.S. cities.

The Cuban Refugee Center in Miami reported this breakdown of the 1,308 arrivals to register for aid:

Clerical and sales personnel, 22 per cent; semiskilled workers, 19; skilled, 15.3; professional and semiprofessional, 8.5; service trades, 7; agriculture and fishing, 4; students, housewives and children, 25.

127,638 RELATIVES

The center said exiles in the United States have completed questionnaires asking for the exit from Cuba of 127,638 relatives. Of these, 44,583 were claimed by exiles in Miami and the others by exiles elsewhere in the United States.

A plump, 12-year-old girl Sunday asked not to be forced to leave Camarioca with her mother who had gone to Cuba to rescue her from communism.

"I ask Fidel (Castro) not let them take me away from Cuba," the girl said firmly.

Officials said the girl, Maida Fernandez, undoubtedly would be allowed to stay in Cuba.

'PARENTS SECOND'

"That is the way our children are being taught nowadays," an elderly woman said with a sigh. "They are told that communism and their country comes first and their parents second."

The girl's mother, former Havana nightclub and television entertainer Miriam Balmori, fled Cuba several years ago. She came back aboard the refugee craft Bimini Express to get her daughter, who had who stayed behind with an aunt.

★ ★ ★

In St. Petersburg, Fla., a newspaperman said bountiful meals and carnival atmosphere couldn't hide the tension pervading Camarioca's refugee compound.

George Sweers, director of photography for the St. Petersburg Times, related after a three-day stay there:

"It was a sad scene. The refugees carried bags, boxes and suitcases containing the few clothes and possessions they were allowed to take. They did not smile or laugh. They huddled in little groups talking softly to each other."

Sweers said the Castro regime obviously went to great lengths to provide a festive setting for the Camarioca operation. The compound — complete with walkways and shrubbery — was built in seven days. A large thatched roof was built over a circular arena where refugees could sit and watch television. Food served in the compound's dining room was tasty and ample, he said.

"The refugees seemed amazed to see food so freely served," Sweers said. "They were used to searching stores for strictly rationed goods.

"One night six shots rang out some 150 yards from the boats (gathered to ferry refugees to Florida). I could make out the form of a man being taken from the water. The official word the next day was that the man was a prisoner trying to escape and had been shot in the leg trying to swim to the waiting boats."

Won't Quit, Says Official in Insurance Fraud Case

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Minnesota Insurance Commissioner Cyrus Magnusson says he doesn't plan to resign, as requested by Gov. Karl Rolvaag, despite federal charges he was involved in a huge insurance fraud.

Magnusson was asked to resign by Rolvaag after the commissioner and 16 other persons were indicted by a federal grand jury Friday on charges of a $4-million fraud involving the American Allied Insurance Co. of St. Paul.

After reviewing the indictment, Rolvaag requested Magnusson to resign "immediately."

Raivaag's letter said the governor wanted the resignation so that public confidence in insurance matters could be restored.

★ ★ ★

"The criminal matter now pending in the federal court will, of course, be determined in that proceeding, and I make no prejudgment in that regard," Rolvaag wrote.

'NO INTENTION'

Magnusson said to reporters afterward, "I can tell you without equivocation, I have no intention or resigning. I have done nothing wrong. A man is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

Magnusson called the charges in the indictment against him "extremely weak and innocuous," and added, "They form no basis for a demand such as the governor has sent."

Both Magnusson and Rolvaag are members of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor (DFL) party.

Double Signatures Are Now Out of Style

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: A friend tells me I did a foolish thing when I started a savings account several years ago and put my sister's name on it along with mine. There's now $8,000 in this joint account, all of it money which I alone have put in.

Is it true that if my sister died, the account would be tied up for months because both our signatures would be required if I needed to withdraw any of this money? O. H., Bridgeport, Conn.

* * *

Dear O. H.: The "double signature" arrangement on joint savings accounts has pretty much gone out of practice. The American Bankers Association points out that it proved too cumbersome from everybody's point of view. Either signer or co-depositer of a joint account can usually put in and take out.

You should, of course, talk to your bank manager about this. But I believe you'll find that your own signature alone is sufficient to make any withdrawals from this joint account.

Since the $8,000 is actually your own money, and your original idea was to provide some security for your sister, why don't you just make her the beneficiary of this account? In other words, set it up as a "Totten Trust", which is the term applied to such an arrangement. You should also name your sister as beneficiary in your will. This is just taking the double precaution of making sure she will receive this money in the event of your death.

Of course, under this arrangement you alone will be responsible for declaring any taxable earnings. But I assume you've been paying this tax anyway, so that won't add any extra burden to your budget.

* * *

Dear Miss Feeley: My husband and I are in our early 30's. We have $6,000 in our savings account and an $8,000 mortgage on our home — at five per cent to run another nine years.

Within the next year I hope to apply another $5,000 either to our savings or to the mortgage. Which would you suggest? Also after 12 months, I expect to have from $100 to $200 a month for savings. Should I split this money between savings and mortgage? Mrs. J. L., Chicago

Dear Mrs. L.: A mortgage of only $8,000 on your home, at your ages, and with money in the bank, is good going.

Of course you can always reason that you're paying five per cent on the mortgage, whereas your savings account is earning a bit less. So why pay out more in interest than you're taking in? However, a stable financial pattern calls for from three to six months' salary in savings, for emergencies.

Let's say the $6,000 in the bank represents that or more. So you could consider using the $5,000 surplus you expect to have next year for investment in stocks or mutual funds, or additional life insurance. You don't mention how much insurance your husband has, or how much you have. This should be a major consideration before you put any additional money in any other form of investment.

* * *

While it's a wonderful feeling to own your own home, I would be inclined to let the mortgage continue as is. It seems to be a comfortable arrangement financially. Then let your surplus funds earn as much as they possibly can.

* * *

Incidentally, are you sure you could pay off that mortgage ahead of time if you decided to do so? Better check your contract again. You may find there's a penalty for pre-payment.

Pair Takes Vows in Windsor

MRS. C. R. MORGAN

At Torch Lake for their honeymoon are the Clarence Robert Morgans (Catherine Yolande Toth) who were wed Saturday in the University of Windsor chapel.

Their parents are the George Toths of Windsor, Ont. and Mrs. Thomas Reeves of Glenrose Street.

SHEATH GOWN

The bride's sheath gown of white silk and her floor-length mantilla-type veil of silk illusion were appliqued with Alencon lace. She carried white gardenias.

With Mrs. John Pataky of Windsor, her sister's honor matron, were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Clifford Taylor of Pontiac as bridesmaid and Rosemarie, Eleanor and Helen Pataky, junior maids.

* * *

Otto W. Morgan was his brother's best man. James Whittaker and Larry Taylor ushered.

The evening reception was in St. Mary's Parish Hall, Windsor.

They Lift Voices; He Lifts Wallets

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—After the 15 women members of the First Methodist church had locked their purses containing their wallets in a cabinet in a dressing room, they lifted their voices in song during a church service.

During the service, a thief lifted their wallets after forcing the cabinet door open.

Dior Lavishes Fashion in Fur

The Fur Information and Fashion Council reports furs stole the show in the Paris Collections.

Dior lavishly collared and cuffed suits with great bands of fur; untrimmed coats and suits invariably were filled in at the neckline with little boas of mink, sable and ermine. Evening chiffons were rimmed with fur. One sample: Channel's floating white chiffon, the hem rippling with white mink.

Touch Up Job

If you accidentally take out a small patch of color of a dark bedspread by spilling bleach on it, use the appropriate shade food coloring for a touch up job each time you launder it to make the spot less noticeable.

To Each His Own

MT. PULASKI, Ill. (AP)—The painted "His" on one door and "Hers" on another door of the toolshed at the Joe Doud home is perhaps misleading. It designates one workshop area for Doud and one for his wife, Laurie.

Check List for Travel in Europe

Many people tend to forget the little extras which are taken for granted at home. Here is a checklist of small items for a trip abroad:

- If you wear glasses, take along an extra pair and/or your prescription.
- Stock your medical kit with the basics like aspirin, antacid pills and kaopectate just in case. If you require any special medication, have your doctor give you the generic rather than the trade name of the drug.
- Take a pack of cleansing pads, soap and a washcloth for tidying up on the road.
- If you smoke, take lighter, flints and your allotment of cigarettes.
- Take a stick spot remover for fast dry cleaning.
- If you prefer a sturdier lock on your luggage, small padlocks can be fitted to the cases. Be sure to get an extra set of keys.
- A small travel alarm clock will come in handy for heavy sleepers. The light sleeper might consider a sleeping mask and ear plugs.
- A few extra buttons, needle and thread are always useful. So is a roll of scotch tape for quick mending of a ripped hem or tear.
- Men who prefer an electric razor will need a current converter and special plug for European sockets.
- You might also want to tuck in a pocket flashlight, several rolls of film and a few ball point pens.

* * *

Do not pack your travel documents in your suitcase. Carry them in a passport case which fits into suit pocket or purse. There are compartments for passports, visitor's cards, vaccination certificate, tickets, photos and currency.

RESERVE BILLS

You might slip in a reserve of one dollar bills and a Pan Am currency converter to translate francs and lire and pounds at a glance.

* * *

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Many psychologists feel men are more romantic than women. This should make many a woman stop and ponder!

Every woman loves the small courtesies and thoughtfulnesses of the man she loves. In fact the knowledge that she is adored is probably the most potent fountain of youth a woman can possibly possess. It gives her a special bloom, turns drab individuals into beauties and delays aging.

If your husband or boyfriend has stopped doing many considerate things he once did, if he seems to take you for granted, it would be well worthwhile to take an honest look at your own behavior. Think back.

Did he stop telling you how pretty you are after you became careless about your appearance? Did he stop opening doors for you after you began barging through them? Did he stop talking with you after you were so busy and hectic that you only half listened?

Did he stop inviting you out for dinner or the theater only after you refused because of fatigue a number of times? Did he lose his enthusiasm for bringing you gifts because you always exchanged them and even said a couple of times that you would rather have a check next time? Did he stop treating you like a sweetheart only after you began treating him like a meal ticket?

Woman's greatest opportunity for enduring love is found in marriage. She had habit and convention as her allies and this relationship should be the beginning rather than the end of romance. Yet the relationship between husband and wife is so subtle that unless real thought is given to its cultivation, even the most ardent alliances find that romance rubs raw sometimes with the strain of daily life and neglect.

I would like very much to have the opinion of my readers, both the women and the men who read this column. Who is the more romantic, man or woman? I will print some of your letters later on. Let me hear, O.K.? Address your letters to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

The engagement is announced by Mary Jo DeRoseau, daughter of Mrs. Leonard DeRoseau, North Shore Drive, Orion Township, and the late Mr. ... to John Pa... son of the ... Lennons of ... Heights, Long Island, N.Y. The May bride-elect attended Michigan State University.

Ex-Grid Hero on Trial Today

Seek Death Penalty in Bloody Holdup

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI) — With his life at stake, Duane Earl Pope goes on trial today for a $1,500 bank robbery in which three persons were slain and a fourth wounded.

The government contends the former college football hero should be hanged for what has been called the bloodiest bank robbery in modern times.

The defense says Pope's "mental condition at the time" makes him blameless.

Shy, handsome and rangy, Pope, 22, Roxbury, Kan., was graduated last May from McPherson (Kan.) College where he starred at end on the football team.

★ ★ ★

Twelve days later, on June 4, the Farmers State Bank at Big Springs, Neb., had a visitor whose primary business was not the farm loan about which he asked.

PULLED REVOLVER

The holdup man pulled a revolver rigged with a silencer on bank President Andy Kjeldgaard, 77, and ordered him and three employes, to lie on the floor.

The four were shot twice each — one shot aimed at the neck, the second at the heart.

The only one to survive was the nephew of the bank president, Frank Kjeldgaard, 25, who made no sound as the bullets entered his body. He probably will be the prosecution's key witness.

As the bandit left the bank, a wheat farmer, Otto Mauser, opened the bank door. The bandit nodded. "Good morning," he told Mauser.

ALARM SOUNDED

The alarm was sounded in seconds. Several hours later, traced through the rented car allegedly used in the robbery, Pope became the No. 1 suspect and a nationwide manhunt was launched. It ended several days later when Pope's college president made an appeal, asking him to surrender.

Tired of running, Pope surrendered in Kansas City, Mo. The government says Pope confessed the bank robbery and slayings.

Should the alleged confession be admitted as evidence, it would be the prosecution's strongest point.

★ ★ ★

It is expected that the selection of a jury may take most of this week. The jurors then will hear about 150 witnesses the prosecution will present. Judge Robert Van Pelt will hold Saturday sessions and the trial is expected to last a month.

FAMILIAR WITH TOWN

The prosecution hopes to establish Pope became familiar with Big Springs while working with a grain combine crew near the southwestern Nebraska cowtown.

A few days after graduating, the government charged, he borrowed $50, rented a car and drove there. A Duane Pope was registered June 3 at a motel in Ogallala, Neb., a few miles east of Big Springs.

The prosecution, led by U. S. Atty. Theodore F. Richling of Omaha, made it clear it will seek a death sentence.

Pope's attorneys, including former Nebraska Gov. Robert B. Crosby, say psychiatrists will show Pope "did not have the capacity to control his behavior and to choose between alternate courses of action."

Senator Due Surgery

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., will undergo routine surgery for a double hernia in Lankenau Hospital. He is expected to remain in the hospital until Nov. 10, after which he plans to continue recuperating at home prior to leaving on a Nassau vacation with his wife.

Supervisor Service Set

DETROIT (AP) — Service for Arthur M. Hinkley, a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, will be held Tuesday in Detroit. Hinkley died Saturday at a Detroit hospital at the age of 58.

Sell Orders Build

Aluminums Weak on Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Aluminums were weak in a mixed stock market early today. Trading was active.

Sell orders built up on published reports that President Johnson is considering the possibility of releasing aluminum from the government stockpile following an aluminum price increase by three producers.

Kaiser Aluminum, one of the price-raising firms, slumped more than a point. Aluminium Ltd. and Lin - Mathieson took similar losses.

General Motors, whose directors late today are expected to announce dividend action—and possibly a stock split — rose ⅝ to 112¾ on an opening block of 9,600 shares.

Changes were minor among most key stocks. A few opened on larger-than-usual blocks.

Autos, with Ford down a fraction and Chrysler up slightly, were mixed. Airlines and chemicals were ahead.

★

On Friday, The Associated Press Average of 60 stocks rose .2 to 355.0, a new high.
