TRAPPED, THEN RESCUED—George Estepp, of Washington County, Tenn., sheared off a utility pole with his car and was immediately pinned in the car by the broken pole. A wrecker was needed to hold off the pole and permit it to be sawed through for his release. He suffered only minor injuries.

Senate Nears Showdown on Civil Rights Bill Scope

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate moved toward a possible showdown today on the issue of confining the administration's civil rights bill to the protection of voting privileges.

A coalition of Republicans and Democrats, headed by Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.), fought stubbornly against a growing wave of support for a proposal by Senators Anderson (D-NM) and Aiken (R-Vt.) to strip from the bill powers to enforce other civil rights.

The accident took place in Southfield Twp. at Twelve Mile and Southfield roads.

Also injured were his father, brother, David, 6; Patrick Peel; and his wife, Elsie, Churches and Mrs. Peel are in fair condition.

Holah, retired manager of the Birmingham Theater, was involved in a collision at Hunter Blvd. and Bowers St., in Birmingham, with a car driven by Julius DiGrazia, 31, of 4714 Woodland St., Royal Oak.

Taken to Beaumont Hospital, Holah died four hours after the accident. DiGrazia was treated for minor injuries and released.

Say Bulganan Suggests More Talks to U. S.

LONDON (INS)—Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganan was reported today to have suggested to British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan that the disarmament talks currently being held in London be transferred to the U. S.

The Times of London said it had been told that the suggestion was contained in a letter received by Macmillan yesterday. Bulganan reportedly argued that no progress was being made during the five-nation London talks and that a change of scene might get them moving again.

Dulles Renews Arms Plea

'Clinton Trial' Placed in Hands of Jury Today

First Major Instance of Southern Legal Action on School Integration

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—The "Clinton trial" goes to the jury today.

Only the final instructions from U. S. Dist. Judge Robert Love Taylor remained to be given before the 10 men and two women started their deliberations.

This is the first major instance where a Southern jury has been called to decide a legal case involving an integrated school since the Supreme Court ruled that segregation is unconstitutional. All the jurors are white.

"You have history in your hands today," a Southern defense attorney told the jury in his summation.

Another, in a voice vibrant with feeling, urged the jurors to "consider the effect on your grandchildren and their children's children as you decide the fate of these defendants."

There are 11 people on trial, 10 Tennesseans, including a woman, and John Kasper, Northern segregationist who came to Clinton two days before Negroes were admitted to the high school there last autumn.

TO KEEP SCHOOLS SEPARATE

The U. S. government has charged them with criminal contempt of court. They are accused of conspiring with Kasper to keep Negro students out of the high school, in defiance of Taylor's desegregation order, and his later injunction banning interference with the order.

The maximum penalty is six months in jail or $1,000 fine, or both.

In essence, the case pivots on these opposing arguments: The defense claims there was no conspiracy. "John Kasper is as clean as a hilly," said his lawyer, J. Benjamin Simmons of Washington.

Simmons said Kasper never advocated violence.

The government contends that Kasper, having failed to achieve his purpose of getting the Negroes out of the high school by peaceful means, then turned to violence.

Over-all, the defense argued, the government presented "a dog-eared case, flimsy, sketchy, without proof."

High 76 to 80 Tomorrow

Heat Siege Finally Lifted

Cooler temperatures have been ushered into the Pontiac area, bringing welcome relief from our recent siege of 90 plus temperatures.

Yesterday the mercury only rose to 78, a daily high far more tolerable than the sizzling 95 recorded on Sunday. The weather was muggy until a mid-morning rain fell, cooling temperatures for the remainder of the day.

The U. S. Weather Bureau's forecast for this area tonight is cooler with a low of 56 to 54 degrees.

Tomorrow will be a little warmer with a high of 76 to 80. Fair and somewhat warmer with a low near 60 is the evening outlook.

The U. S. Weather Bureau has predicted that temperatures will average three to five degrees below the normal 84 high and normal 63 low for the next few days.

In downtown Pontiac the lowest temperature recorded preceding 8 a.m. was 58. At 1 p.m. the Press thermometer read 73.

Irked by Lie Test Refusal

Mystery Writer Stopping Aid to Sheppard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An irritated Erle Stanley Gardner, whose hopes of getting a lie detector test for Dr. Samuel Sheppard were shattered by Ohio's governor, says he is going to drop all further efforts to aid the convicted wife-slayer and "get the hell out of here."

Visibly irked by the decision of Gov. C. William O'Neill to cancel a proposed lie test for Sheppard, the mystery story writer declared on his arrival here yesterday:

"We are just going to pick up the pieces and go back to making a living. We are just going to get the hell out of here and we are not coming back unless pressure from readers of the Court of Last Resort is so great that we must."

Gardner and other members of the "court" received permission from O'Neill Friday to administer the lie test to the 35-year-old osteopath, convicted of the July 4,

Final Link of Steel Spans Famous Straits

MAKING READY — The Mackinac Bridge is framed in the distance by steel members of this pre-assembled section, called a stiffening truss unit, being towed to the construction site. Floating

130-Ton Steel Truss Joins Straits Bridge

ST. IGNACE (AP)—A giant triangle of steel was locked into place above the Straits of Mackinac last night, linking the two main towers of the bridge between the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan.

The 130-ton truss was the final section needed to fill the gap over the deepest portion of the straits, never before bridged.

When 240-foot gaps between each of the two towers and shore are completed in two weeks, the five-mile link of the two sections of Michigan will touch both sides.

The Straits of Mackinac is located between Lake Michigan and Lake Huron.

The delicate job of fitting the last truss into place 155 feet above the water was completed about dusk. Plans to do the job earlier in the day went by the wayside because of rough water.

The center unit, pre-assembled by American Bridge Division of U. S. Steel Corp., near St. Ignace, was floated into position on three barges, then hoisted up.

Split-second timing and tight teamwork were vital in lifting each of the 86 sections, known as stiffening truss units, to final position firmly locked to the steel suspender ropes hanging down from the main cables of the bridge.

Because four lifting strut rigs were separately powered, care was taken to insure that the huge section was raised evenly. This was done by fastening ten-foot levels on the top of the struts unit where they could be easily seen by a telephone talker on the structure above.

The 100-million-dollar steel pathway will reach 4.2 miles across the straits when it opens for traffic about Nov. 1.

State's Five Top Reds Seek Bail Reduction

DETROIT (INS)—Michigan's five top communists, convicted under the Smith Act, sought a reduction in bail today.

Their pleas followed an order for a rehearing of their cases in the Federal Court in Detroit. The Reds are Nate Gennis, Saul Wellman, Thomas Dennis Jr., Philip Schatz and William Allen.

Whether or not Miss Mielke claims the $100 bond will remain a mystery for eight more days.

Even though you're sent in your entry for this month, don't forget that the Press is conducting another contest for August with the prize double the amount offered in June and July.

Referring to an investigation of Wedler in Florida to be conducted by Samuel R. Gerber, Cuyahoga County (Cleveland) coroner, Gardner declared: "I doubt if Wedler can be judged accurately by a prejudiced mind. This (investigation) will be like the trial of 'Alice in Wonderland' where the jury gave the verdict and then heard the evidence."

Gardner also asserted that unless a lie test is given Sheppard, he will not under any circumstances seek an interview with the prisoner.

"I wouldn't see Sheppard even if I were invited," the celebrated crime writer said. "I have no interest in him."

Gardner said O'Neill's action placed Ohio's justice "on trial before the bar of public opinion in every state in the Union."

"By the time Ohio wakes up to how the people feel about this case, they will be darned glad to have someone help them out of the mess they are in," he said.

At Daytona Beach, Fla., meanwhile, Gerber, on his way to DeLand, expressed surprise at the Court of Last Resort's withdrawal in the case.

Gerber and his aides are investigating Wedler's statements, the coroner told newsmen, "because we feel Gardner and the Court of Last Resort are responsible for so much publicity, we want the city of Cleveland to be on record as being anxious to know whether this fellow (Wedler) has anything to do with it."

American Radio Beams Message Across World

GOING UP—The final section of steel forming the roadbed of the Straits of Mackinac bridge is lifted into place early last night after bridge workers waited nine hours for weather conditions to become exactly right for the operation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Voice of America beamed throughout the world today Secretary of State Dulles' plea for steps toward disarmament before the problems of curbing hydrogen and atomic weapons becomes "totally unmanageable."

"As matters are going," Dulles said last night, "the time will come when the pettiest and most irresponsible dictator could get hold of weapons with which to bring immense harm."

His radio-television address was both a report to the American people on this country's efforts at the London disarmament conference and an appeal to Russia for new concessions there to make some agreement possible.

Full summaries of Dulles' address were aimed particularly at Iron Curtain areas from Voice transmitters in Okinawa, Munich and even the Coast Guard vessel Courier in the Mediterranean.

The all-out treatment in the overseas broadcasts pointed up how much the Eisenhower administration was relying on Dulles' sober words to spur the East-West disarmament talks in London.

He stressed the dangers to mankind of continued delay in developing a first-step plan for curbing the girl threat of atomic-hydrogen warfare.

And in words aimed at Russia's rulers, he also cautioned that the cost of building and maintaining modern nuclear-equipped forces was soaring so high "no nation can sustain that cost without grievously burdening its economy."

Dulles carefully avoided harsh language and the usual denunciations of Soviet policy in what seemed a clear move to demonstrate America's sincerity in wanting a limited disarmament agreement.

Responsible officials said the timing of the Dulles speech was keyed to a belief that Russia must soon come up with such concessions, particularly an agreement to end atomic-hydrogen bomb production.

Dulles employed grim words to warn Russian leaders of what the future would hold if diplomats continued talking without "actually doing something."

The alternative, he said, is that mankind "must learn to live as (Continued on Page 2, Col. 2)"

Weather Contest Has New Leader After Hot Sunday

Sunday's scorching temperatures gave us a new leader in the current Hottest Moment of the Month contest.

Betty Mielke, of 351 S. Williams Lake Rd., Waterford Township predicted July's hottest moment would be at 4:21 p.m., July 21, and at 4:52 p.m. Sunday, the mercury soared to a muggy 95 degrees.

Although a temperature of 95 prevailed throughout most of the stifling afternoon, the mercury reached its very highest peak at 4:52 p.m., when it very nearly pierced the 96 degree line.

Ike Not Satisfied With School Bill

Outlook for Measure in Congress Not Bright, Martin Reports

WASHINGTON (U)—House Republican leader Joseph Martin said today President Eisenhower is "not entirely satisfied" with the 1½-billion-dollar school aid bill but probably would accept it if Congress passes the measure.

Martin said, however, "the outlook is not too good" for passage by Congress of the compromise measure. House debate begins today.

The Massachusetts Republican spoke with newsmen at the White House after he and other GOP congressional leaders had held their weekly conference with Eisenhower.

The House bill would provide federal funds to the states for school construction over the next five years. It differs in several respects from an administration bill which would provide $1,200,000,000 in grants to the states over a four-year period.

There was no indication after today's meeting that Eisenhower would wage a personal campaign in favor of the school bill. Some members of Congress have been saying he would have to do so to get the bill passed.

Martin said he didn't know whether Eisenhower would play an "active role" in trying to get the bill enacted.

"While he is not entirely satisfied with the legislation as it comes out of the (Education) committee, he regards it as a start," Martin said.

As for the bill's chances of passing, Martin said:

"The outlook is not too good at the moment."

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

If caught at sea with a hurricane in the area, and without a functioning radio, how can one steer away from the path of the storm?

There are many ways for the untrained observer to get out of the course of a tropical storm or hurricane. First, one should follow the swell, which invariably radiates outward from a hurricane.

Second, remembering that hurricanes move north or northeast, one should watch the winds. In a hurricane they circulate counterclockwise. Therefore, if they are from south, one should steer east, or southeast. If they are from the north, one should move to the west.

If they are from the east, that may mean you are directly in the path of the storm, unless it moves northeasterly, and no time should be lost in making for the west. It is possible, of course, for a hurricane, to move temporarily, northwest, but the eventual path will take it eastward as it moves northward.

These same general rules apply to land as well as to sea, although—since hurricanes dissipate when they move inland—precautions on land are not as mandatory as on sea.

"Mankind cannot long live under the shadow of such destruction as is now possible without great changes in existing physical, social, political and moral values," Dulles said.

"Time is not unlimited, each year that passes without agreement adds to the practical difficulty of achieving adequate limitation and control."

Dulles coupled this with a firm restatement of American disarmament proposals including willingness to agree to a 10-month ban on tests, provided Russia agrees first to a date when all nuclear bomb production would end.

Locate Wreckage of Lost Navy Plane

MILAN, Italy (U)—The burned-out wreckage of a U.S. Navy plane which vanished over the rugged north Italian mountains with 11 men aboard was spotted today piled into the side of San Martino Mountain near Trento. There was no sign of survivors.

Alpine guides and army rescue teams with walkie-talkie radios and first aid kits set out to reach the wreckage. First reports said it may be hours before they can scale the rugged 9,000-foot peak.

The plane vanished Friday afternoon after establishing radio contact with Treviso Airport at the end of a 1,400-mile flight from Casablanca, Morocco.

During the subsequent search, a sister plane crashed in the mountains near Turin, killing 9 of the 10 men aboard.

New Aga Khan to Study Arabic in Lebanon

DAMASCUS, SYRIA, (INS)—Prince Ali Khan said today his son, the new Aga Khan IV, will study Arabic this fall at the American University in Beirut, Lebanon.

Ali, who arrived in Damascus today, said he had stopped in Beirut to register the new Ismaili Moslem leader for the next academic year. He said he wants his 24-year-old son, formerly known as Prince Karim, to learn Arabic thoroughly. Karim is currently a junior at Harvard University but is not expected to resume his studies this year.

'Devil Is Angry at Rising Spiritual Tide,' Billy Says

NEW YORK (U)—Billy Graham says, "The Devil is angry at the rising spiritual tide in New York."

"He most likely will strike in unexpected places and at unexpected times," he says.

With the "Devil putting up a diabolical resistance, the evangelist said yesterday he is tightening up his strategy for the last three weeks of his New York crusade.

Graham will be back at Madison Square Garden tonight after two days of rest. His schedule today included a round of golf. Yesterday he got in a game of golf, the first since the crusade started May 15.

Graham will modify his schedule as the crusade goes on. During the past nine weeks, he has been appearing at several gatherings each day before the Madison Square Garden meetings. He now plans to cut out the extra meetings in order to conserve his strength. He will speak only at the night meetings at the Garden, and will use the days for study and rest.

Attendance at the crusade meetings now totals nearly a million and a quarter.

The crusade originally was scheduled to end June 30. It was extended to July 20, and now has been extended to Aug. 10.

British Soldiers Sent to Aid Sultan

LONDON (INS)—A hundred fully-equipped British soldiers were airlifted from Kenya to the Persian Gulf area today as Britain's Royal Air Force prepared leaflets, bullets and bombs to aid the embattled Sultan of Muscat and Oman.

A dispatch from Nairobi, Kenya, said only that the Tommies were taken to "join their formation." But informants said the soldiers were headed for the British base at Sharjah, about 200 miles from Oman.

The foreign minister of the Sultan's government said "fairly rapid developments" were expected now that Britain had pledged to aid the Sultan in his fight against rebels led by the Imam of Oman.

Nikita Gone Soft? Eats Ice Cream as Bulganin Talks

LONDON (INS)—Is Nikita Khrushchev getting soft? The Soviet communist party chief who has proven more than once at diplomatic soirees that vodka leaves you legless was seen last night eating ice cream and drinking champagne.

The occasion was a Polish embassy reception in Moscow commemorating Poland's National Day.

And for a change Khrushchev let Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin do most of the talking.

Even so, Bulganin delivered only a brief speech in which he said Soviet-Polish relations had developed favorably since last October when Wladyslaw Gomulka became head of the Polish party.

Kolofolias said he has been a merchant seaman for 13 years. He said he was picked up at Bay Village by a young driver who seemed agitated.

"He was shaking so he could hardly light his cigarette," Kolofolias said. "He told me he had just had a fight with a woman and then her husband came in and he had a fight with him, too."

Kolofolias said the back seat of the car held several newspapers which appeared to be possibly covered with blood. Kolofolias got out in Cleveland.

"I didn't connect the incident with the Sheppard case until I was reading a newspaper story of the trial while in Hong Kong," Kolofolias said.

Seek Double Killer in Dramatic Search

MANHATTAN BEACH (INS)—A dramatic house-by-house search took place today in Manhattan Beach, Calif., with 150 officers armed with shotguns seeking the killer of two policemen.

Object of the manhunt was a husky, blond man who yesterday shot to death officers Milton G. Curtis, 25, and Richard A. Phillips, 29.

Shortly before the double slaying, the killer accosted two teenage couples in a lovers lane, stripped them and ravished a 15-year-old girl.

Policemen conducted an inch-by-inch search through Manhattan Beach. During the night, police cars moved ahead of officers on foot. Loudspeaker units blared: "Go into your houses. Turn on all lights. Stay inside until the officers reach your homes."

Cathedral in Salt Mine

BOGOTA—A cathedral as large as Notre Dame in Paris has been carved in the huge vaulted tunnels in the heart of a salt mountain near Bogota. The Colombian mountain, one of the world's largest sources of salt, was first mined by Indians more than 1,000 years ago.

Diamond-Coast Myth Just Won't Be Downed

JOHANNESBURG—A myth has always hovered over South Africa's fabulous "Diamond Coast": that a person walking along the dunes may scuff up uncut diamonds lying near the surface.

Actually, though a carat of diamonds weighs only 1/140th of an ounce, it takes, on the average, the shifting of 20 tons of sand and gravel to recover a carat. The ratio is 80,000,000 to one.

Textile Attorney Called in Probe

Senate Committee Acts on Meany's Charge of Union 'Whitewash'

WASHINGTON (U)—George Meany's charge that the United Textile Workers "whitewashed" fund-juggling charges against its two top officials set Senate racksets probers searching today for the inside story.

The special Senate committee conducting the inquiry called union attorney Joseph Jacobs of Atlanta, Ga., for questioning.

Committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy identified Jacobs as a member of a five-man UTV group which reported in 1953 that "none of the (union) money has been misused."

This document had absolved the union's President Anthony Valente and Secretary-Treasurer Lloyd Klenert of various charges, including use of union money in 1952 to buy themselves swank new Washington suburban homes.

The report was prepared after Meany, then secretary-treasurer of the AFL, and now president of the combined AFL-CIO, had questioned some of the union's transactions in 1952. Meany described the report yesterday as a "complete whitewash."

Klenert testified Friday that he and Valente did use $57,000 of union money in part payment for the houses, but paid it back. He contended the whole deal was legitimate. Both have denied any wrongdoing.

Meany swore to the committee that both Klenert and Valente had denied the house-buying story when he tazed them with it in 1952. He announced he now will file fresh charges against both of them for a union "trial."

In addition to Jacobs, Kennedy said, the committee will call perhaps "a half dozen" other witnesses. He said they will be asked about reports that Valente and Klenert "borrowed from management"—employees of labor—in both direct loans and through notes signed by employers, in the period in which the two officials paid back the $57,000.

The Day in Birmingham

Gare Again Holds Reins as Acting City Manager

BIRMINGHAM—L. R. Gare once again finds himself holding the title of acting city manager. Gare was named by commissioners last night to temporarily succeed Harold K. Schone, whose resignation was accepted effective Friday.

Gare, an employee of the city for many years, also filled the period between the resignation of Donald C. Egbert and the appointment of Schone about a year ago. He has been city engineer and has worked in several other city departments including the DPW and water division.

In accepting Schone's resignation, Carl Ingraham, mayor pro tem, said Gare's appointment was to be effective at least until commissioners have returned from vacationing and a full board can convene on a permanent successor to Schone.

Ingraham added that in the short time Schone had been in Birmingham, much had been accomplished. He thanked him for his excellent job here and extended congratulations and best wishes from city officials and residents to his new post with the county DPW.

Ingraham was named to succeed Schone as Birmingham's representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors. Two more appointments, one to the water authority, the other to the garbage and rubbish authority are made necessary through Schone's resignation.

Commissioners have granted permission for the annual outdoor exhibit to be held Saturday, Sept. 7 in Shain Park. The exhibit is the work of the Birmingham Society of Women Painters.

Asphalt concrete paving bids for 1957 have been awarded to Detroit Concrete Products Co. for a figure of $51,722.65. In recommending the acceptance, it was pointed out that the bid is approximately $13,000 below the city's engineering department estimate.

He is survived by his wife, Frances, one brother and one sister. Service will be at 1 p.m. tomorrow from the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in his native city, Cleveland, Ohio.

Army Privates Admit Breakins

Arrested Near Nike Base in Commerce Township

Two army privates stationed at the Nike Base, in Commerce Township, have confessed to a string of breakins in the county.

Pfc. Donald R. Davidson, 26, from Illinois, and Pfc. Thomas E. Williams, 21, an Oklahoma man, were apprehended in a wooded area near the base.

Detectives Leo Hazen and Harry Murr were checking the area for clues concerning the breaking and entering of the Lakeside Market, 155 Ladd Rd., Walled Lake, early Monday.

They said they found a car parked in the wooded area with the back seat and trunk full of merchandise stolen from the market. More was hidden under nearby trees, Hazen said.

The men were booked at the Oakland County Jail. They have confessed to committing other breakins, Hazen said.

Egyptians Display Military Prowess

CAIRO (INS)—Soviet-built rocket-launchers, antiaircraft guns, jet fighters and other deadly weapons were shown in Cairo today in an impressive three-hour display of Egypt's military prowess.

American and Russian observers sat side-by-side in reviewing stands as 12,000 Egyptian soldiers, sailors and airmen paraded before Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser on the fifth anniversary of the revolution which ousted King Farouk.

The demonstration served notice to the world, and particularly to Israel, that Egypt is a formidable power in the Middle East. Tens of thousands of Egyptians cheered as each unit passed by.

This was the first public showing of the truck-mounted soviet rocket-launchers, each capable of hurling 32 three-and-one-half inch rockets. Also unveiled were four-barrel 20 millimeter antiaircraft guns drawn by Russian-made jeeps. Ninety per cent of the modern weapons on display were obtained from the Soviet bloc.

British Groups Cry 'Barbarian' At Fox Hunters

LONDON — In their renewed drive against blood sports, Britain's anti-hunting groups are missing no chance to swoop.

At the funeral of a master of foxhounds, a huntsman followed the old custom of throwing a fox brush into the grave.

The National Society for the Abolition of Cruel Sports came out with a stiff condemnation of this "pagan rite." But this outcry was nothing to the furore over the blood of two babies who, from their "prams," watched the Belvoir Hunt kill a fox on the front lawn of the next house.

The huntsman, amused at their excitement, followed the custom of wiping the bloody paws of the newly-killed fox across their cheeks. "Barbaric — more in keeping with Mau Mau ritual than the standards of a Christian nation," thundered the N.S.A.C.S.

Report Optimistic Trend in Business Forecasts

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Businessmen have some pleasant news today to take their minds off the heat.

Strong points in the economy keep popping up to reassure the wary who say they still can't be sure which way business is heading.

Polls show most businessmen expressing hope for a good fall upturn in manufacturing and a continuation of high over-all spending by consumers.

The National Assn. of Purchasing Agents reports most of its members "hopeful" of upturn in the fall, although not as sure of that as they were in May.

Steelmen report an unexpected but mild gain in new orders in July, with most of the ordering for the new auto models yet to come.

Machine tool makers also note a cheerful reversal in the trend of new orders. These started slipping in March and continued to drag until June, but that month saw new orders topping the May number by 20 per cent.

The bulls still outnumber the bears in the stock market, despite the wariness last week that kept the averages from reaching last year's record high point.

Helping market sentiment have been many of the corporate earnings statements. While lots of companies are falling victim to the rising trend of operating costs and some to declining sales, an impressive number are reporting gains in net profits after taxes over the year-ago figures, and some are crowing over record sales and profits.

The cost of living, which has been climbing monotonously for months, may level off next month, the experts think, if the harvests reverse the upward trend of food prices.

Gives Up Air Post

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Air Vice Marshal A. W. B. MacDonald, last British commander to head one of Pakistan's armed services, gave up his post today as air force chief. Air Commodore Mohammed Asghar Khan took over the post, thus placing all three services under the command of Pakistani nationals.

False Bomb Threat Holds Plane Over

NEW YORK (AP)—A bomb scare delayed departure of an Eastern Airlines plane from LaGuardia Field for nearly three hours early today.

Search of the Constellation and the baggage of 35 passengers failed to uncover a bomb, police said, and the plane left for Atlanta at 3:10 a.m.

The scare was touched off shortly before 12:30 a.m. when a Port of New York Authority patrolman received a telephone call from a man who said: "Listen to this carefully. Eastern Airlines leaving to Atlanta 12:37. There is a bomb on board."

Flooded Chinese Rivers Recede, Take 557 Lives

HONG KONG (AP)—Peiping radio said today the rampaging rivers Yi and Shu have dropped below the danger mark after claiming 557 lives in south Shantung.

The broadcast said rescue operations are still isolated. River boats are transporting victims to higher ground and planes are dropping food supplies.

Robber Spends $215 to Escape With Under $150

OLEAN, N.Y. (AP)—A thief who robbed a jewel store Sunday has since spent more to make his getaway than he took in the robbery.

Police totaled up the expenses of the fleeing robbery and found he'd spent more than $215 to escape with less than $150.

They said the man fled when the manager found him in the store.

An Olean taxicab driver later told police a man who fitted the robber's description gave her $100 to drive him about three miles to the town of Allegany.

Yesterday, a motorist reported that he gave a man of the same description a ride from Allegany to Jamestown, about 45 miles away, for $40.

Jamestown police said the man bought an automobile from a local dealer for $75 yesterday.

Spring and early summer are the most likely times for tornadoes to occur because of the collisions of cold polar air and air streams from the gulf's warmer weather.

Too many trinkets spoil any otherwise tailored costume. Simplicity is always in good taste.

BY JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

For a few days I am writing about the five important C's: Courage, Calisthenics, Color, Clothes and Cooking. These are just about as essential to us as the three R's—Reading, Writing and 'rithmetic.

Let's think of the importance of clothes. Historians believe that clothes were first worn for ornamentation rather than for reasons of modesty and that ornaments were worn before clothes were. Therefore, our wish to bedeck ourselves is as natural as our desire to marry and have children.

The desire for becoming attire is universal. It is only when a woman gives up all hope of being attractive physically or has lost the incentive to be so because of grief or discouragement, that she loses interest in the garments and ornaments she wears.

Yet everywhere, every day, we see women who evidently have made an effort to enhance themselves becomingly and yet who have made many mistakes.

For instance: The fat woman wearing a large flowered print or stripes which go round and round; the flat-chested woman with tightly fitted blouses rather than fullness or draping; short women with big hats which seem to crush them toward the earth; tall women with small handbags; little women with large bulky jewelry; plump women with wide belts; long-necked women with short round-faced women with their hair; women wearing tailored woolsens and lots of rhinestones; hair flat on top and fluffed at the sides; thin-faced women with their hair worn high on top and close at the sides; women wearing powder several shades too light or lipstick and nail polish which clash; women in oxfords with afternoon dresses and spikes with tailored clothes; women with too much ornamentation—bracelets, earrings, beads, pins and veils. On and on it goes!

Clothes and accessories can make a tremendous difference in your appearance at any age. It behooves us to learn the tricks in dress.

If you would like to have my booklet "Clothes to Fit Your Personality and Figure" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 54 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "Three of the Five Important C's Are Discussed Today."

MR. and MRS. JOHN BEAUCHAMP

Joan Combs Is Married at Our Lady of the Lake

Our Lady of the Lake Church was the setting for the Saturday morning wedding of Joan Inez Combs and John Beauchamp. The Rev. F. J. Delaney performed the 11 o'clock service in the presence of 250 guests.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Combs of Hillcliff drive, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Beals of Horseshoe drive are John's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, Joan wore a gown of embroidered lace with a fitted bodice accented by a modified Queen Anne collar. The bouffant skirt featured a front panel of pleated tulle with tiers of lace extending from the sides into a chapel sweep.

Her beaded headpiece secured a fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade arrangement of carnations centered with an orchid. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Joyce Combs served her sister as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Bonnie Meyers, Gail Arthur, and Mary Lou Carr. The honor attendant wore a gown of mint green nylon sheer with matching colored picture hat. Gowns of yellow nylon sheer with matching colored picture hats were worn by the bridesmaids.

A floor-length gown of white embroidered organza accented by a mint green sash was worn by Deb-

Chapelaine, niece of the bridegroom, who served as flower girl. She carried a basket of white baby chrysanthemums and yellow roses.

Serving the bridegroom was Francis LaBarge, Ronnie Combs, Bonnie LaBarge and Larry Combs served as groomsmen. Seating the guests were Douglas Combs and Ronald LaBarge. Roger Chapelaine, nephew of the bridegroom performed the duties of ringbearer.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Combs chose a sea green lace dress with white accessories and a orchid corsage.

Mrs. Beals chose an aqua lace sheath dress with chiffon trim. Her accessories were white and she wore an orchid corsage.

A reception was held at the Community Activities Building in Waterford following the ceremony.

Fashions Pose Problem for Middle-Aged Woman

She Should Appraise Self and Others Before Choosing New Wardrobe

By RUTH MILLETT

One of my women readers admits to a problem that probably troubles a good many women her age.

She writes: "I know I don't know how to dress, and I'd like to know. I am well past middle-age and for the first time in my life I can afford a few good clothes and now I don't know what to buy. I am a little overweight, which makes my problem more difficult."

"I don't want to try to dress like a young woman but I know I don't look well in the kind of clothes I have been wearing. Where can I find how to dress becomingly and appropriately for my age?"

Not from fashion magazines, I'm afraid. In them you'll see a lot of extreme styles on a lot of undernourished models—all young and glamorous.

What you could do is study your face and figure in a mirror as carefully as you did way back when you were in your teens.

APPRAISE YOURSELF
Make a fair appraisal of your good points and your bad points so you can learn how to play up the former and play down the latter.

Figure out how your hair would be most becoming. Then go to a good beauty salon and have it styled the way you want it.

Then start paying careful attention to every woman you see who is about your age. When you

Short Time on Stove Cooks Veal

Mrs. Moore Toasts and Rolls Crusts to Coat Steak

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Does everyone know how to prepare breaded meats? We doubt it and were glad to get Mrs. George Moore's recipe for Breaded Veal Steak.

Mrs. Moore is a homemaker who enjoys having her grandchildren visit her. She likes to work in her flower garden and does all the yard work.

BREADED VEAL STEAK

By Mrs. George Moore

1 pound round bone veal steak
Fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg
2 tablespoons milk
Salt and pepper
Fat for frying

Beat egg with milk until well mixed. If, like Mrs. Moore, you make your own breadcrumbs, roll dry bread fine. Cut meat into three servings.

Dip first in crumbs, then in egg and again in crumbs. Brown in hot fat. Turn heat very low and cook about 20 minutes or until meat is tender.

Remove meat from pan. Add milk to drippings and bits of crumbs left in pan. Cook and stir to make gravy. Serve with mashed potatoes. Serves three.

Your dream of owning a dryer can come true... and, for only 19c

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Out in Oakland, California, this week, more than 1,000 roller skaters from all over the country, including 28 from the Pontiac area, are competing for championships in 51 events.

For many years during its tremendous growth, skaters have been fighting an uphill battle with those who have scoffed at their claims to get positions on the sports pages of the country's newspapers.

The attitude that roller skating was strictly in the realm of social and recreational activity was the barrier which for a long time kept skating in the obscure places of various publications.

The first big move in the fight for recognition came in 1937 when the Roller Skating Rink Operators' Association organized in Detroit for the purpose of leading the fight for its product—the skater.

Today, the RSROA represents 20 million roller skaters in the United States. It provides competition on the state, regional and national levels which is as competitive as championships and tournaments found in any American sport.

IT HAS COMPETITIVE THRILLS

It offers the thrills of ice, but on wheels. It has grown internationally and now wants a rightful spot alongside the other competitive sports.

In roller and ice skating there are divisions for speed and art. The artistic end of each features precision and intricate patterns with as many skillful techniques as there are necessary for a person developing his skill in golf, tennis, bowling and other sports.

Roller skating has its pro and its amateur. The pro is often the teacher. The competitor in championship meets is always the amateur, who can be in the "diaper" division under the age of 6 or in any of the four other classes up to the seniors.

When the elimination championships begin on the state level, a field of over 25,000 across the country vies for the titles and positions at stake. The east narrows in regional competition and from there the skater bids for national recognition.

Very few people know that right here in the Pontiac area a great number of roller skaters have done themselves proud on all levels of competition.

One of the outstanding names in the record book of the RSROA is Laurene Anselmy, who today at 19 is a retired amateur now a teaching pro in Pontiac.

Ask Laurene how she feels about roller skating as a sport. She would affirm that the pileups and spills and the great competitive spirit of the contestants could hardly be called a social tea.

RODGERS OKAYS PONTIAC BOUT

Sammy Rodgers, the scrappy lightweight from Benton Harbor, who had a fabulous record as an amateur of 140 victories in 144 bouts, including 112 knockouts, has signed definitely to be Mickey Crawford's opponent at Wlner Stadium, August 13th.

Two of his losses since turning pro have been to Kenny Lane, the Muskegon contender and to Pat Kenny Lane, the Muskegon title contender, and to Pat Lowry in an unfavorable decision. He has won 21.

Both fighters will move into Pontiac, Friday Aug. 9th and hold workouts in a training ring to be set up at Crofoot playground.

Hoeft Opens at Baltimore

Tigers Defend 5th Place

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Detroit Tigers arrived here today to open a three-game series with the Baltimore Orioles that will determine whether the sagging Tigers cling to fifth place or fall to sixth.

They are in fifth place today, one game ahead of the sixth-place Orioles.

Billy Hoeft (3-5) is expected to pitch for Detroit in the opener of the series tonight. Baltimore was expected to start with Bill O'Dell (1-4).

Veteran Steve Gromek, a victim of sore arm troubles since late June, was the whole show in the Tigers' 5-3 victory over their Charleston Farm Club in the American Association, in an exhibition game at Charleston last night.

Gromek gave the Class AAA Senators just four hits in five innings and socked a three-run double that provided the winning difference.

Al Aber finished for the Tigers, yielding five hits and two runs in the final four innings.

Gromek gave up one run in the first inning on a hit batsman and a double by Larry Osborne, who the Tigers just sent back to Charleston.

Gromek's blow in the second inning put the Tigers in front to stay. They added two more in the sixth on Bill Tuttle's triple, Ben Samford's double and an error.

After their three-game stand at Baltimore, Tigers will play three-game series at New York, Boston and Washington before returning home against the Cleveland Indians Aug. 6.

Resume NL Race; Chisox Battle NY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Will the Braves be able to hold the lead despite injuries? Can the Cardinals win at home? Will the Dodgers, loaded with walking wounded, be able to hold their own in the West? Can the Redlegs avoid another long slump? Will the Phillies hang on?

Even Helen Trent never had it as rough as the five clubs in on that soap opera the National League is staging as a pennant race. And after the St. Louis Cardinals were rapped 13-4 by the Chicago White Sox in yesterday's Hall-of-Fame game, adding to NL indignities suffered in the All-Star Game defeat by the American League, the pennant pursuers get back to business today with the Western teams at home to the East.

In the AL, where the only real question is "If the Yankees are so great, why aren't they playing 700 ball?" (that's a joke, son), first place New York gets another chance to wrap it up early, returning home with a 4½-game lead for a three-game set with the second place White Sox.

In the other AL games, it's Kansas City at Boston, Cleveland at Washington and Detroit at Baltimore. All are night games.

The Yankees, who have lost only eight games since June 13, go with Don Larsen (5-2) against the White Sox and Bob Keegan (6-3), who has won six in a row.

Boston, shut out by Chicago in the last two games of the Western trip, is third, 12½ games back, going into the game with Kansas City. It's Frank Sullivan (8-6) for the Red Sox against Virgil Trucks

(7-3). At Washington, the Indians, fourth and 13½ games behind, send Stan Pitala (2-2) against Chuck Stobbs 3-13.

Bone Helps Lick Forest Lake Par

Forest Lake Country Club's re-modeled golf course had its first tournament since the overhauling Monday and three area pros handed par 71 a beating.

Pontiac's Gene Bone, host pro Bob Gajda and Roy Beattie each fired a torrid 68 for the low individual scores in a PGA-sponsored pro-amateur tourney. Forty-one professional golfers were part of the field of 109 teams.

Bone teamed up with Al Posen of Tam I'Shanter CC to win the best ball division. Their card was 30-33. Bone's victory netted him $170. Gajda earned $135 by joining Phil Smith for a 64 and 2nd place.

Rex De Sota Wins Opener at Jackson

JACKSON—Ole' Man Weather's best efforts could not ruin Jackson Harness Raceway's opening Monday night as 4,632 fans ignored a constant threat of rain to usher in the 24-night mid-summer season at the half-mile track west of Detroit.

Rex De Sota, owned by George Whiting of Traverse City, scored an upset in the Class B inaugural pace in the featured 8th race. Driver Spotty McLeod took the six-year-old gelding over a mile in 2:21.35 on a track that was no better than muddy.

McNabb, owned by Harzay and Harold Kisher of Adrian, finished 2nd. Gold Storm was 3rd. Rex De Sota paid $16.40, $5.80 and $3.60.

McCarthy, 'Wahoo' Reach Goal

Join Baseball's All-Time Stars in Hall of Fame

COOPERSTOWN, N. Y. (AP)—Looking back over 43 years of baseball stretching from Wilmington, Del. to a niche in the Hall of Fame, Joe McCarthy summed up his thoughts in a few brief words.

"Gee, I wish I could do it all over again."

Sentiment brought tears to the eyes of Samuel "Wahoo Sam" Crawford, as the 77-year-old former outfielder also was formally inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame, yesterday in this historic village.

"I've come a long way to this day," he started. "I want to thank all my friends. I had a speech to make but I don't believe I can go through with it."

The two new members were received officially by Commissioner Ford Frick on a wooden platform that had been built under the shade trees in front of the Hall of Fame and baseball museum. The shirt-sleeved crowd jammed Main Street from curb to curb and overflowed onto the steps of the post office.

In a few hours these people would be among the 9,000 at Doubleday Field, baseball's birthplace to watch the St. Louis Cardinals get drubbed, 13-4, by the Chicago White Sox in the annual Hall of Fame Trophy Game. But now all eyes were trained on the platform where McCarthy and Crawford were being honored.

Marse Joe, who won eight pennants with the New York Yankees and one with the Chicago Cubs and never finished worse than fourth in 24 years as a manager, thanked the owners, coaches, trainers, writers, umpires and players for his success.

"Most responsible of all for my being here are the great players," said McCarthy. "And God knows, I had my share of the good ones. I won't try to list them all because I would not want to forget and leave somebody out."

Glancing toward Mrs. Lou Gehrig, widow of his former first baseman, McCarthy said, "Seeing you brings back many a sad memory but also a lot of happy ones."

McCarthy turned to Cal Hubbard, American League Umpire Supervisor, and thanked his profession. When the crowd laughed, Marse Joe flashed a bit of his Irish wit and said "that they ever give you the best of it."

The 70-year-old "gentleman farmer" from East Amherst, N.Y., also pointed out the newsmen who first suggested he might be a manager.

"In 1912 at Wilkes-Barre, Tom Brislin wrote a story saying I might make a manager," said McCarthy. "Bill Clymer gave me the job after he read the story."

McCarthy listed Bill Veck, Sr. and Phil Wrigley of Chicago, Col. Jake Ruppert, Ed Barrow and George Weiss of the Yanks and Tom Yawkey, Eddie Collins and Tom Cronin of the Red Sox as front office men who made his job easier.

McCarthy broke into baseball with Wilmington in 1907 and retired because of poor health as Boston manager in 1950.

Crawford, a power hitter in the dead ball days, had a lifetime batting average of .309 in 19 years with 2,964 hits. He still holds the record for most triples with 312 in his career.

Six-year-old Don Neubauer of San Antonio, Tex., raced to victory in a two-lap diaper division championship event. Pat Bergin, Fort Worth, Tex., and Dick Cook, Bakersfield, Calif., placed second and third in the event.

Change Orange Bowl

Any Team Eligible in 1959

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Any topnotch college team can be invited to play in the 1959 Orange Bowl football game and everyone seems happy about it—even the Atlantic Coast Conference, which was cut loose to make room.

The Orange Bowl Committee voted yesterday not to renew its contract with the ACC. Atlantic Coast Conference teams have met Big Eight Conference champions in Orange Bowl New Year's Day games since 1954 under agreements that expire with the 1958 clash.

The Bowl will continue to book Big Eight championship teams, but will be free to pick the opponent posing eleven from any section of the nation.

Major radio and television networks, which have paid the Bowl increasing sums for broadcast rights, had urged the committee to widen its field of choices. Negotiations currently are under way with National Broadcasting Co. and Columbia Broadcasting System.

Joe H. Adams, President of the Bowl Committee, said the Big Eight conference had agreed to waive for 1959—the Bowl's 25th anniversary—its rule that no Big Eight team can play in two successive bowl games. Under foreseeable conditions, that probably would bring the Big Eight's powerhouse, Oklahoma, to the Orange Bowl both in 1958 and 1959. The latter year, the committee could pick the Big Eight team's foe from the cream of college football regardless of section.

"We are happy about this," Adams said.

Van C. Kussow headed a committee panel that studied means of improving the Orange Bowl holiday game and recommended yesterday's action by the full committee.

"With a Big Eight champion as the host team," said Kussow, "we have a wide choice from schools in the state, the Southeastern and Atlantic Coast Conferences, Army, Navy or an outstanding Eastern team."

NEW YORK (AP)—Who is major league baseball's best clutch hitter?

As near as can be determined, he's Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves.

The 23-year-old Braves' slugger is the leader in game-winning blows—a system of rating the clutch hitters devised by the Associated Press. Aaron has produced the pivotal hit in seven games this season.

Credit for a game-winning blow is given to each batter who puts his team ahead to stay in the sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth or an extra inning.

Don Hoak of the Cincinnati Redlegs is second to Aaron in the National League with six game-winning blows while Bill Skowron, hard-hitting New York Yankee first baseman, paces the American League with five.

Other players who also have consistently delivered important hits in the late innings are Gino Cimoli of Brooklyn, Del Ennis of the St. Louis Cardinals and Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs. Each has five game-winning blows.

Trailing Skowron in the American League with four are Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra of the Yankees. Each has five game-winning blows.
