Adams, manager of the chamber, is wearing one of the advertisements which will be seen downtown and in shopping centers this week. The event is designed to show how an active chamber aids community progress.

The Gifts of Christmas

(The spirit of giving is particularly present in the Christmas season, and the 12-installment series, "The Gifts of Christmas," is an interpretation of 12 classic and eternal gifts of Biblical history. Written by a lay author and university professor, the stories are nondenominational and have been approved by clergy of all faiths.)

1. The Gift of God

By JOHN J. STEWART

With heavy heart old Father Abraham plodded his way up Mount Moriah, his little son Isaac by his side; Isaac, dearer to him than life itself. And now God had commanded him to offer Isaac as a sacrifice.

As they walked along together, carrying a knife, a stick of fire, and a cord of wood, the puzzled boy asked his father, "Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

The trusting lad's question pierced deep into Abraham's tortured soul. Tears flooded the old man's eyes. "My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering."

Quickly the anguished father built the sacrificial altar, laid his son upon it and raised the knife high to slay him. But at that moment, having proved his faithfulness and obedience even in so great a test, Abraham was released by God from the command to sacrifice his son. GOD SUFFERED

Yet God Himself suffered that which He spared Abraham. To satisfy the demand of eternal justice, to redeem a world fallen into sin, God offered as a sacrifice His firstborn and beloved Son, Jesus, His only begotten in the flesh. "Behold the Lamb of God."

Into a world of sin and sorrow did He have Him come, born in lovely circumstance, to descend below all things: Jesus the Christ, the one

Proposed Pontiac Budget Set at $6.9 Million for '64

City Manager Robert A. Carter has submitted a proposed $6,948,234 city budget for 1964 to the City Commission.

The budget proposal includes operating expenses, capital improvement and debt retirement funds.

It is $179,348 above the 1963 budget total.

The proposal went to commissioners by mail this weekend, just beating the Dec. 1 deadline for submitting the budget proposal.

Preparation of the proposed budget, under way for the past two months, was supervised by Assistant City Manager John F. Reinck.

Commissioners will now have until Jan. 31 to study and revise the proposed allocations. The City Charter requires the budget be adopted before Feb. 1 each year.

Reinck proposes that the budget be financed by a $4,514,043 tax levy with $2,434,191 estimated as income from other sources.

The proposed tax levy is $36,839 above the 1963 tax levy.

The city's operating budget, which accounts for most of the total budget figure, is proposed at $6,261,834, or $175,731 higher than this year's operating budget.

IMPROVEMENT FUND

Reinck proposed a $518,400 capital improvement fund, about $3,949 above the 1963 capital improvement fund.

The debt retirement fund remains at $168,000 in the proposed total budget.

Major increases in the proposed budget stem from the need to staff a new north side fire station and a community recreation center scheduled for completion next year.

Other increases are due to increased life insurance for city employees and hikes in street lighting and election costs.

The budget, according to Reinck, is based on the city's present $280,480,500 total assessed valuation.

LOWER COST

The sanitation and waste collection appropriations have been reduced $51,377 due to the lower cost of Pontiac's new combined curb-side pickup program.

Other departments and their recommended budget cuts include street and highway maintenance ($140,000), parks and recreation ($54,000), library ($32,000), judicial ($11,000), and public service facilities ($158,000).

Johnson Talks With 3 Aides

Conference Covers Economy, Defense

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson called two Cabinet officers and his budget director to the White House today for conferences on economic and defense matters.

The sessions with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges and Budget Director Kermit Gordon follow hard on the heels of a busy Sunday at the White House for the new President.

At his desk yesterday, Johnson drafted a letter to defense contractors asking their cooperation in cutting defense costs, and the White House announced the dates when West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, Italian President Antonio Segni and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home will visit him.

Johnson started his work day today with an early morning visit from Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League.

Johnson, his wife and two daughters attended services yesterday at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Then the Johnson family drove to Arlington National Cemetery where he placed a bouquet of red roses on the grave of his assassinated predecessor, John F. Kennedy.

TALKED TO STAFF
From the cemetery, the Johnsons drove to the White House. The President conferred with some members of his staff and talked by telephone to McNamara, Gordon and Comptroller General Joseph Campbell in connection with his appeal to defense contractors to help in carrying out his pledge to "get a dollar's value for a dollar spent."

The visits of Erhard, Segni and Douglas-Home are in line with Johnson's vow to carry out Kennedy's objective of strengthening ties within the Atlantic alliance.

Erhard will confer with Johnson Dec. 27-28 at the Johnson ranch near Johnson City, Tex. Segni will pay a state visit to Washington Jan. 14-15, and Douglas-Home will come to Washington for talks with Johnson Feb. 12-13.

President Charles de Gaulle of France also is expected to visit the United States next year, but no date has been set.

State to Send Gunsell Home

JACKSON (AP) — Alonzo Gunsell is going to be freed on parole to return to Colorado, where he became a respected citizen after escaping from Camp Pontiac in White Lake Township 10 years ago.

Francis Buchko and John J. Spencer, members of the Michigan State Parole Board, voted today to free Gunsell and said there was a good possibility he would be released from Southern Michigan Prison this week.

U.S. Okays $500,000 for Project

A $500,000 federal grant for Waterford Township's $7.35-million central water system was approved today by the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The grant of accelerated public works money actually will go to the Oakland County Department of Public Works, which acted as agent for the township on the application for funds.

Work on the water system was scheduled to begin next spring whether or not the federal grant had been approved by then.

The central water system project will involve interconnecting the existing 11 water systems in the township. It also includes construction of two overhead storage tanks and installation of an underground tank.

65 PCT. SERVED

Johnson started his work day today with an early morning visit from Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League.

Existing township water systems serve about 4,000 residences and business establishments, or about 25 per cent of the population.

The water system is expected to be self sustaining. It will be financed by revenue from connecting fees and from the sale of water, Sesterlin said.

Connecting to the water system upon its completion will be optional to residents, according to Sesterlin.

Construction bids on the water project probably will be let by late January.

Betancourt Casts His Ballot

Large Turnout Backing Leoni for President

Betancourt's Party Candidate Has Edge of 90,000 Ballots

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Raul Leoni, candidate of Venezuela's anti-Castro government, surged into a strong lead today in the tabulations for the presidential election.

With unofficial tabulations one-third completed, Leoni held a margin of nearly 90,000 votes over his closest rival.

The mounting vote for Leoni appeared to indicate resounding popular support for the strong stand outgoing President Romulo Betancourt has taken against Prime Minister Fidel Castro's Cuban regime.

In recent days, Betancourt's government called for strong measures against Castro, including armed action if necessary, by the United States and the nations of Latin America on the ground that Cuba was trying to export its revolution to the hemisphere.

A big victory by Leoni, candidate of Betancourt's Democratic Action party, would hand the Castroite terrorist underground in Venezuela its second major setback since yesterday, when voters turned out in record numbers despite threats of attacks by snipers.

UNOFFICIAL TAB

The unofficial result of the tabulation of 33 per cent of more than 3 million votes: Leoni, 293,332; Jovito Villalba of the Republican Democratic Union, 205,281; Arturo Usler Pietri, an independent, 189,812; Rafael Caldera of the Social Democrats, 176,178; Wolfgang Larrazabal of the Democratic Popular Force, 83,651.

Voiled ballots were running about 4 per cent of the unofficial tabulation. The Castroite terrorists had called for voters to cast blank ballots. There was no word of telling at this stage how many of the voided votes were blanks.

INTERIOR VOTE

Leoni, who has compared his worker-peasant party to Britain's Labor party, looked to voters from the interior and out-rich Zulia State, where his party is strong, to pile up his margin of victory.

Usler Pietri was running far ahead in Caracas where the Democratic Action party ran last in the 1958 election.

The pro-Castro Armed Forces for National Liberation threatened death to those who voted and kept up the bombing, sniper fire and sabotage with which it sought during the campaign to provoke a military overthrow of Betancourt.

The voters were not intimidated. Officials estimated that a record 3.4 million persons,

KARYN KUPCINET

Police Quiz Friends of Slain Starlet

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Home-die officers worked in teams today to question Karyn Kupcinet's host of friends, hopeful of finding some lead to the stranger of the vicious actress.

Miss Kupcinet, 22, a petite brunette who had appeared in a number of top television shows, was found Saturday night in her modest apartment near the famed Sunset Strip. The body was nude and lay face down on a couch.

The actress was the only daughter of Irv Kupcinet, a Chicago newspaper columnist and television moderator.

Among those questioned was Andrew Prince, 27, a television actor identified as Miss Kupcinet's steady boyfriend until a recent disagreement caused them to break up.

Prince, a costar of the "Wide Country" series, told investigators he knew nothing of the slaying but had telephoned Karyn twice on Wednesday evening to discuss their differences.

Investigators said he may have been the last person to hear her voice when he placed his second call about midnight. Officers believe the slaying took place in the early hours Thursday.

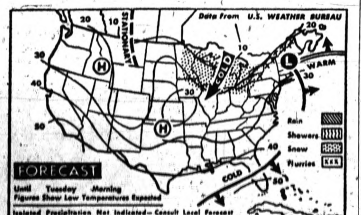

Also questioned were two friends of Prince—Edward S. Rubin, 22, a free lance writer, and actor Robert F. Hathaway, 26.

NATIONAL WEATHER—Light snow and snow flurries are forecast for tonight for the northern tier of states from the upper Mississippi Valley eastward with generally fair weather elsewhere. It will be on the cold side except in the extreme Southeast with temperatures below the freezing point from the north and central Rockies to the north and central Atlantic states.

WILL VISIT JOHNSON — Leaders of Europe plan visits to the new U.S. President in the coming months. From left, West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, Italian President Antonio Segni and British Prime Minister Alec Douglas-Home. The men will visit separately for conferences.

Ex-Educator Will Run in District 2

A retired educator, Norman L. Wittkop, 66, has announced he will be a candidate for District 2 City Commission seat in next spring's municipal election.

Wittkop of 1025 Argyle is the first to fill a nomination petition for the 1964 election. Normally, nominating petitions don't begin coming in until late in January.

Wittkop said he was filing early because he plans to leave shortly for an extended vacation in Florida.

Although a political newcomer locally, Wittkop has been active in community affairs and is currently president of the Washington Park Civic Association.

FROM MILWAUKEE
He moved to Pontiac from Milwaukee, Wis., in 1957. He was a vice principal in the Milwaukee school system from 1934-1951 and again from 1955-57.

Wittkop was superintendent of schools in Custer, Mich., from 1951-53. Though his background is mainly in the field of education, he has also served in supervisory positions for several department stores.

He holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Wisconsin, a Masters Degree from Marquette University and received his Doctorate in Education from the University of California.

Wittkop is a 32nd Degree Scottish Rite Mason and member of the Moslem Temple in Detroit. He is married and has two sons.

He would oppose Charles H. Harmon, the present commissioner from District 2, if Harmon files for reelection.

3 GIs Killed, 10 Hurt in Helicopter Crack-Up

CUSSETA, Ga. (AP) — Three soldiers were killed and 10 injured today in the crash of a helicopter on a mission from Ft. Benning, Ga.

Army spokesmen withheld the names of the dead pending notification of the next of kin.

Junta Denies Shake-Up in Viet Nam Command

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP) — Increases his effectiveness or diminishes it.

American authorities say they can detect a power struggle in ruling junta over control of field forces.

The coup d'etat gave Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh a good power position. He has proven reluctant to give up command of the 3rd Corps region, which surrounds Saigon.

Viet Nam Archbishop Says Mass for Brothers

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Archbishop Ngo Dinh Thuc said the Mass at the Vatican Ecumenical Council today and dedicated it to his slain brothers, President Ngo Dinh Diem and Ngo Dinh Nhu.

A council spokesman said the Mass marked the first anniversary of their deaths in the Vietnamese revolt. The spokesman said Archbishop Thuc offered the Mass "for the repose of his brothers' souls."

OF the original $5-million budget, there is less than $6,000 left in the till.

Of the cost of buying land in the R20 project is one reason why the project is behind a financial eight ball.

HIGHER THAN ESTIMATED.
It was $230,000 above the estimated cost, according to James L. Bates, director of planning and urban renewal.

"Remember, we didn't have previous experience to base our R20 budget on," Bates said. "We had to guess. Some of our guesses were good and some weren't."

The long condemnation case, which resulted in higher land cost, also helped boost expenditures for legal services, appraisers' fees and other acquisition costs some $25,000 above the original budget estimate.

At present, the R20 budget is all but spent. There's a $454,000 balance showing. The catch is that about all of it is already committed and can't be touched.

On top of all this, urban renewal land values have dropped from the resale prices estimated when the project began.

Present appraisals indicate that urban renewal will receive some $220,000 less for land than originally estimated.

Findings Aid Ruby's Case

Lawyer Confident as Murder Trial Looms

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A defense lawyer predicts the findings of federal investigators will bolster the case of Jack Ruby, who shot down the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

There are increasing signs, meanwhile, of probable delay in the murder trial of Ruby, tentatively set to start next Monday.

Ruby, 32, owner of a downtown strip tease joint, remained under close guard today in the county jail. He has been held without bond since the televised shooting Nov. 24 of Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with firing the shots which killed Kennedy and a Dallas policeman two days earlier.

"When the government's report of the Oswald case comes out," defense lawyer Tom Howard said Sunday night, "I believe then that public opinion will favor Ruby will be stronger than ever because it will prove conclusively there was absolutely no connection between Ruby and Oswald."

Marguerite Oswald, mother of the slain suspect, asserted she was sure her son did not kill President Kennedy. In angry tones she blamed authorities on guard and asked in a Fort Worth interview why Oswald, who sought to renounce U.S. citizenship when he went to the Soviet Union in 1959, was not under surveillance.

Mrs. Oswald was also reported to have insisted that on the night of Nov. 23, about 17 hours before Ruby shot her son, an agent from the FBI showed her Ruby's photograph.

Mrs. Oswald contends that the episode as she describes it, indicates that the authorities had advance knowledge that Ruby might try to kill her son.

Snow Isolates Resort

LUCHON, France (AP) — A snow storm isolated this Pyrenees ski resort today. Snow plows were dispatched to free 150 guests in a hotel and about 40 cars caught in drifts. No one was reported missing or injured.

Citizen Unit Sets Report on School Curriculum

BIRMINGHAM—What Johnny is reading in school, as well as why, will be evaluated tonight in the final report of the Citizens' Elementary Curriculum Study Committee.

Chairman William Lyman and the heads of the 12 sub-committees will present the findings of their year-long study during an 8 p.m. meeting with the Birmingham PTA Council.

Also attending the session at Beverly Elementary School will be the elementary principals, who will implement adopted recommendations with their staff members.

The chairmen are planning to report to the board of education sometime next week, pointing out strengths and weaknesses in the present curriculum structure.

WORK DIVISIONS
Their work was divided into the following categories: art, language arts, mathematics, physical education, social studies, music, kindergarten, science, foreign languages, library, special education and fact finding.

Students at Wing Lake Elementary School in Bloomfield Hills have planted not one tree but a whole forest in memory of the late President John F. Kennedy.

The memorial forest at Wing Lake State Recreation Area was planted by 56 students and their teachers.

Each child placed 10 pine seedlings. A four-foot blue spruce also was planted near the outdoor education center in honor of the late President.

A bronze plaque commemorating the event is being purchased by the students and will be placed on a marker at the center, according to Manager Alfred Masini.

Masini and other Michigan Department of Conservation park rangers directed the planting.

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Prime Minister Ismet Inonu, 80, resigned today.

He had returned only Saturday from Washington, where he attended the funeral of President Kennedy.

In his absence, two members of his governing coalition — the New Turkey party and the Peasants National party — decided to pull out. This left the 80-year-old political veteran in the position either of forming a new government or calling parliamentary elections.

Reports that Inonu was to assume the presidency in Turkey Saturday and a heavy security guard was thrown around him as he arrived from the United States.

Inonu, head of the Republican party, has been in office almost all the time since the corrupt regime of Adnan Menderes was toppled by an army coup in 1960.

Couple Overcome by Gas; Man Dies

A Pontiac man died and his wife was hospitalized early this morning after coal gas from a small fire filled their home.

The death of Willie Johnson, 65, of 44 Murray, was attributed to asphyxiation and exposure by the coroner, Dr. Isaac Freyreite.

Johnson's wife, Louella, 48, was hospitalized to Pontiac General Hospital for smoke inhalation. She is in fair condition.

Pontiac police said that the couple had built a fire in a small bucket in the house and that it was the only heat in the building.

POLICE ARRIVE
When police arrived at 4:40 a.m. to investigate reports of a fire, they found Mr. Johnson hanging upon a second story window.

The Pontiac Fire Department used a rescuator on Johnson but to no avail. He was dead at the scene.

EVERLASTING LIFE
"For God so loved the world, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Even would the Father see Him hang upon the cross.
"Behold my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

This supreme gift did a loving Father give to His children, that they—ye—might each have the privilege of eternal life. This was the first great gift of Christmas.

Debarred Firm Is Taken Over

NEW YORK (AP)—J. R. Williston & Beane, Inc., financially troubled firm, suspended two days from the New York Stock Exchange, has been absorbed by Walston & Co.

The firms said Sunday night that Williston & Beane's 16 offices would open today, with Walston clearing and confirming orders.

Walston was one of two firms which provided loans totaling $500,000 to help Williston & Beane win reinstatement on the stock exchange. It was suspended Nov. 20.

WERE SUSPENDED

Williston & Beane and Ira Haupt & Co., were suspended for failing to meet minimum capital requirements after a customer applied for bankruptcy. The stock exchange took over liquidation of Haupt.

Williston & Beane has about 9,000 account holders. Most of its stockholders also will become stockholders in Walston & Co., the announcement said.

Junior Editors Quiz on SPHINX

QUESTION: What is a sphinx and what is its riddle?

ANSWER: In the past people knew only a small part of the existing world, but they allowed imagination to fill in the gaps.

They visualized people and animals which they had not seen but which they thought might exist somewhere, and made these into legends, paintings and sculpture.

Among other such imaginings was the sphinx, a creature which often combined a human head; the body of a lion and the wings of a bird.

Different countries had different versions. The Egyptian sphinx had a man's head with a lion's body.

The famous sphinx shown in our main picture can still be seen in Egypt after more than 4,800 years.

The Greek Sphinx is told about in Greek literature. It had a woman's head and a lion's body and lived, according to legend, on a high rock.

When travelers passed by, the sphinx asked them this riddle: "What is it that has one voice but becomes four-footed, two-footed - and three-footed?" When the travelers failed to answer correctly, the sphinx ate them.

But when a king's son, Oedipus, went by, he answered the riddle. The sphinx was so furious she leaped from the cliff and was killed.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try to guess the answer to the sphinx's riddle. In case you can't, here it is: it is a man, because he crawls on four feet when a baby, walks on two when he grows up and uses a cane when old. Try this riddle on your friends.

Tasmania JFK Bridge

HOBERT, Tasmania (AP)—A $15-million bridge across the Derwent River in Hobart would be named for President John F. Kennedy if officials adopt a suggestion from the Tasmanian Tourist Promotion Council. The bridge is due for completion next year.

Asian Ruler Dead; N. Y. Deb Is Queen

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — The Maharaja of Sikkim, ruler of the small Himalayan border state, died today. His son became the new king and his daughter-in-law, former New York debutante Hope Cooke, Sikkim's first foreign-born queen.

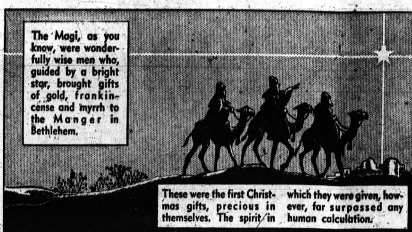

The maharaja, who was 71, died in a nursing home here. The former Miss Cooke, 23, and her husband, Palden Thondup Namgyal, were at his bedside.

Mahogany has been used since about 1500 when European cabinetmakers discovered its suitability as a fine furniture material.

The Magi, as you know, were wonderfully wise men who, guided by a bright star, brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to the Manger in Bethlehem.

These were the first Christmas gifts, precious in themselves. The spirit in which they were given, however, far surpassed any human calculation.

One of our best loved Christmas stories is "Gifts of the Magi." It might never have been written if a New York newspaper editor had not picked up a magazine in a train in November, 1902.

Return Mail Unopened, if Not Ordered

Unordered merchandise sent by mail this holiday season should be returned unopened to postal authorities, warns State Attorney General Frank J. Kelley.

Kelley said addressees can return such letters or packages to the mailman as "refused." Once mail has been opened, however, the receiver cannot take this action.

An additional safeguard, Kelley explained, are postal regulations which prohibit the sending of any unordered merchandise C.O.D. Violations should be reported to the Post Office Department.

"My advice to anyone who gets unordered merchandise is to return unopened at once to the mailman or local post office."

To do otherwise may well result in becoming legally responsible for payment of merchandise you did not order and do not want."

It Seems to Me . . .

Help Yourself, Community by Shopping at Local Stores

Our junk mail now becomes the heaviest of the year. It swamps everyone with offers to buy Christmas presents from far distant cities and outside firms.

Say "NO."
Protect yourself.

Throughout the year, your regular sources of supply carry wide lines of goods for your personal perusal and selection. These firms render year-round assistance and are geared to care for all the needs of yourself and your community. Be as loyal to them now as they have been to you. Buy from them. It's more economical and demonstrates the support they have a reasonable right to expect. Remember, you are contributing directly to the prosperity of your own area — which in turn means more business for you.

The 'out-of-town' attempts to swoop down on you at Christmas with a multicolored folder that is especially designed for the occasion — and to ensnare you. The goods are the same they have been selling all year, but the booklet seeks to excite you with a souped-up holiday approach.

Stick with our regular merchants. They deserve those extra purchases that you plan to make at this time of the year. They have earned your business. They are the dependable, reliable, year-round, friends that serve you loyally and render extra help when you need it.

And here's another important point. When you buy out of town, any correction or error entails an immense amount of work. You have to repackage the article, and often that's difficult, for you lack the facilities. Then you have to get it to the post office and write a letter of explanation. The distant people try to correct the mistake, and again they send back something you've never really seen. All you have is a picture. When you buy at home, you view the purchases and know exactly what you're getting. And corrections are simple, when they're necessary.

Your own living and the bulk of your own income originates right here. Being a good neighbor means returning the same privilege to those who are supporting you.

Buy at home. This helps local employment, local taxes and local prosperity. All of these directly affect you and your own financial position. It's smart to buy here.

It's the better part of loyalty and community decency, too. People in this area can't do business with you unless you help provide them with the money to do it. It's a two-way street. What goes out comes back. If all of us show others the courtesy and friendliness we like ourselves.

Favorite Quotes . . .

When a New York newspaper interviewed a cross section of the city's citizens on our nation's most patriotic utterances, the answers were interesting:

Here they are:

"Our country, may she always be in the right, but our country, right or wrong."

Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

"I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country."

"Nuts."

"Give me liberty or give me death."

What He-Can Expect Among the Bouquets!

David Lawrence Says:

Mrs. Kennedy Is an Inspiration

WASHINGTON — The untold story of Jacqueline Kennedy may inspire the poets of tomorrow to write the epic of a tragedy almost unparalleled in history. . . . As Jacqueline Kennedy went to the hospital in a speeding car, as she waited for the final word of the physicians, as she traveled by plane to Washington and emerged there in the same blood-spattered dress that she had worn at the moment that changed history, there was no outward sign of the grief which she felt within. . . . She could have collapsed in tears. She might have sought the solace of solitude. But she exhibited instead the courage of a person who felt an overwhelming sense of duty.

LAWRENCE

Jacqueline Kennedy, her eyes straight ahead, walked the half-mile from the White House to St. Matthew's Cathedral as she led the members of the government of the United States and many dignitaries from foreign governments — all of them, emotion masked.

Her face, as she stood at the grave at Arlington Cemetery was impassive, unshaken, undisturbed. The whole world saw this mastery of self — an example to everybody that she was thinking of the great sacrifice her husband had made to public service.

On the hillside where her husband is buried, she lit a flame which is to burn by day and by night — a symbolic testimonial this time not to an unknown but to a known soldier who also gave his life for his country.

She came in the evening a few hours after the funeral and knelt beside the grave, where she wept in the darkness — unobserved by the multitude. . . . Still in her thirties, Mrs. Kennedy has been in the public eye as a gracious hostess to heads of state, to artists, to poets, to distinguished authors.

DEDICATED TO ARTS She has dedicated herself to the arts and to the encouragement of cultural as well as charitable endeavors. She is fond of horseback riding and water skiing.

Yet, despite her many activities, she has never failed as the mother of two little children, ever anxious about their schooling and the over-emphasis that could come to them from their conspicuous position in life.

Jacqueline Kennedy's intimate thoughts these last few days may never be known, but there might have passed through her mind sentiments like those expressed just two hundred years ago by George Withers, an English poet, who penned "A Widow's Hymn."

It reads in part as follows: "How near me came the hand of death. . . . When at my side he struck my dear."

"And took away the precious breath. . . . Which quicken'd my beloved peer! . . . Lord! Keep me faithful to the trust. . . . Which my dear spouse reposed in me: . . . To him now dead preserve me just."

Bob Considine Says:

Mention of Joe Jr.'s Name Caused Father to Weep

NEW YORK — John Fitzgerald Kennedy wanted to make writing his life's work. Preferably — journalism — style writing.

"I probably would have gone with you people on International News Service," he told me over a drink after the 36th convention. . . . CONSIDINE had done some work for us at the birth of the U.N. at San Francisco, as well as several special articles for the Hearst newspapers on conditions as he found them on a postwar European trip.

"But I never had a chance after Joe was killed," he said. "Joe was always ticketed to be the politician of the family. When he went, my father turned to me. If I had been killed in the war, Bobby would've been the one."

"It was like being drafted. My father wanted his eldest son in politics. 'Wanted' isn't the right word. He demanded it. You know my father."

Yes, I did. . . . LUNCHEON WITH KENNEDYS

What had happened was that my wife and I were invited by the elder Kennedy to have lunch with them at their Palm Beach place.

Everything was going along fine there on the sun-splashed patio. I had asked Mr. Kennedy to give me his estimate of his children. He was off and running in his positive style, beginning with a thumb-nail sketch of Jack.

"Fine boy, Jack," he said. "A real brain. A fellow who'll stick with a job until it's done. He wrote most of Profiles in Courage, right out there on that lawn when he could hardly move. His back was killing him but, by God, he wouldn't give up."

Bobby, in his father's eyes, turned out to be "as tough as I am." There were other proud estimates of the man who was to become the attorney general of the United States. "He's so much like me. Never stops fighting. Never forgives an enemy. A great boy, Bobby."

FORGOT JOE JR.

He mentioned everybody except Joe Jr.

I waited for a time, then asked him.

At the sound of the name of

"In all that should performed be!"

"For though our being man and wife"

"Extendeth only to this life. . . . Yet neither life nor death should end"

(Copyright, 1962, New York Herald Tribune Syndicate, Inc.)

Very quietly Mrs. Kennedy ran down a list of her eldest son's attributes, and the somewhat disastrous luncheon party ended.

Now he was coming around to making words. "Ask her that one," he said, pointing at the mother — who had sat impassively through the whole performance. "She can talk about him. I can't."

'Automobile Horsepower Needed for Efficiency'

With less horsepower the automobile would lack necessary efficiency. Try passing a trailer truck without it. Our highways demand horsepower and good drivers enjoy it.

If drivers would obey traffic regulations they would use needed speed only when necessary. Drivers should slow down as they approach a curve and slowly accelerate. It is when a car enters a curve at high speed and the driver has to brake that he loses control. Handling a car on curves should be stressed in driver education.

Drivers who fiddle with radios, lighters, cigarettes and ash trays while driving cause head-on collisions. A safe driver keeps his eyes on the road, his hands on the wheel and uses horsepower for efficiency.

'No One Should Act as Judge, Jury, God'

It becomes a terrible world when we can decide to become judge, jury and God. I'm talking about the morbid way in which Lee Oswald was nearly buried without the aid of a clergyman to pray for him.

No penalty on earth could be more severe than the penalty he may receive.

Unforgettable

'World Should Protect Lowell Thomas'

We couldn't protect our President, but how about protecting Lowell Thomas? Is there anyone in the United States who is loved any more than he?

Please don't wait until he is gone to give him credit for the wonderful things he has done for the people of this world.

Group Working to Combat Atheism

Our group has been searching for ways to combat atheism in our country.

An editorial Nov. 2 warned of the possibility of future moves to remove God's name from court procedures and perhaps money. We were encouraged by the warning against complacency by all men and women of spiritual integrity and good will.

We have decided that a great emphasis on enlarging our Sunday schools and making them more effective would be a step forward. We have the children one hour a week; the public schools have them more than 25 hours.

We are writing to our government representatives and the Supreme Court and hope everyone will do likewise.

Aside from the religious viewpoint, now that America has become a great nation "under God," wouldn't it be pure ungratefulness to start erasing His name?

Old Calendar?

The State Journal (Lansing)

For centuries historians and archaeologists have been puzzled by the odd formation of rocks known as Stonehenge, near Salisbury, England. Huge rocks, foreign to the area, were placed in a circular design whose meaning has been lost with the ages.

No mean architectural feat for early man is involved as many of the boulders weigh 40 tons. All are aligned, in concert with a ring of deep pits, in concentric circles with a grass aisle in the center.

The builders are still unknown, but a megalith has been suggested for the stones. They form an ancient calendar, says Dr. Gerald Hawkins, after spending last summer measuring locations of each stone to another, and correlating the results with known data on the rising and setting of the moon and the sun around 1500 B.C., the estimated construction date of the formation.

Down through the ages, scientists must have attempted many times to measure the placement of Stonehenge against data collected from ancient astronomy tables, but the herculean task would have kept an army of researchers busy for a lifetime.

Dr. Hawkins fed his data into a Harvard University computer and had his answer in approximately one minute.

Computerized historical research might become the glamour profession of the future, not to mention the possibility of archaeological expeditions conducted from the control panel of advanced electronic wizard.

Costly Carving

The Adrian Daily Telegram

Counterpart funds — the money in foreign currencies our government gets for surplus foods and some other forms of foreign aid — are figuring again in the Washington news. The money has to be spent inside the foreign countries where it accumulates. And Congress not only is willing to spend it; some recent items show it has gone out of its way in its hurry to do so.

A Chicago congressman has done some digging into such spending. He discovered, among other things, that a former army cook had toured the world for two months, at $1,600 a month, plus expenses of course, to show how to carve a turkey.

Some 25 private agricultural associations had tapped the government till for more than $1 million in foreign travel allowances in a last four years.

In another incident a bevy of lovelies went abroad for several weeks, at government expense, wearing cotton dresses produced by Paris designers. It is desirable to promote the sale of American cotton and other farm products abroad.

But this reckless spending is closer to raiding the treasury than an honest effort to sell American products.

There is no excuse for the attitude that counterpart money is to be tossed around with wild abandon. It is money that came in the first place out of the pocketbooks of American taxpayers.

It merely has a different label now, but it is real enough. It will be used up soon enough without the help of junketing congressmen or turkey carvers.

Nigerian Officers to Aid Congolese

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Authoritative sources said Sunday night that when the U.N. force withdraws from the Congo next June 30, 400 Nigerian policemen will stay on indefinitely to train Congolese police.

The Nigerian police have already started this training under a Congolese-Nigerian bilateral agreement reached months ago.

Nigeria also has a 600-man battalion in the U.N. force which currently numbers about 6,000 men from about a dozen countries.

Scientist to Get Award of AEC

Oppenheimer Was Called Security Risk

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, the controversial scientist who 10 years ago was declared a security risk by the Atomic Energy Commission, receives the AEC's highest award today from President Johnson.

The Chief Executive, acting to carry out the intentions of President Kennedy, was scheduled to present the $50,000 Enrico Fermi award to the 38-year-old nuclear physicist at brief White House ceremonies.

The award to Oppenheimer, first announced in April, seemed likely to stir new controversy. Sen. Burke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, a member of the joint Senate-House Atomic Energy Committee, said he could not "in good conscience" attend the ceremonies.

"He's an able scientist, but I don't think he measures up to the Fermi award," Hickenlooper said. "I don't know of any specific accomplishments he contributed to atomic energy that put him in the top flight of those who already received the award."

TAX-FREE

"This Fermi award includes $50,000 tax-free dollars — tax-free," he added.

Hickenlooper said he had written to the AEC declining an invitation to attend the ceremony. He refused to make his letter public, and when told of published reports on it he said angrily:

"It was not a letter I had intended to make public. We may hear more about this — if they want to hold a reenactment of this Oppenheimer episode, they might get it."

Earlier this year, Hickenlooper backed a proposal for a law giving Congress a measure of authority over the selection of Fermi award winners.

GIVEN ANNUALLY

The Fermi prize, given annually in memory of the Italian-born nuclear pioneer, was awarded Oppenheimer for his outstanding contribution to theoretical physics and scientific and administrative leadership in development of the atomic bomb.

Staebley Sees Nixon as GOP Candidate in '64

JACKSON (AP) — Rep. Neil Staebley, D-Mich., predicts former vice president Richard M. Nixon will be the Republican nominee for president in 1964.

Staebley made the prediction Saturday at a meeting of Jackson Democrats. He said the assassination of President John F. Kennedy put the "extremists" out of business, and that New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller's divorce will hurt his chances for the nomination.

Staebley declined comment on his plans as a possible candidate for the Democratic nomination for Michigan governor next year.

GREETED BY GUS — Princess Grace of Monaco is greeted at New York's Idlewild Airport yesterday on her arrival from Paris by Gus, a poodle belonging to the princess' family in Philadelphia. The princess arrived to take care of "some family business," and said she hoped to go to Washington to extend condolences to Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy.

Extension of County Terms Faces Legislative Action

LANSING (AP) — One of the most sensitive issues facing Michigan lawmakers this week will be a bill which would permit elected county officials an extra two years in office.

Gov. George Romney is expected to ask the legislature not to approve the measure because it would be unfair to voters.

The Governor will speak on this and other recommendations Tuesday evening at a special session on implementation of the new Constitution.

The bill, which in effect, grants present county officials a two-year extension of their terms until 1966, is the work of a legislative committee on implementation. It is based on the Constitutional Convention's intent that county officials run on the same ballot with the governor, in even-numbered years between presidential elections.

Romney and Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, who also opposes the bill, feel the officials should run for reelection in 1964.

UNWIELDY BALLOT

The committee fears this may create an unwieldy "bedsheet ballot." Their findings had the guidance of one of Kelley's staff, but the attorney general later ruled that the new constitution gives the legislature no authority to extend the terms of officials beyond the duration for which they were elected.

Although executive office sources indicate Romney will support this position, Rep. Russell Strange, R-Clare, chairman of the five-member elections subcommittee of the implementation committee, said he did not expect Romney to take formal position on the matter.

Strange opposes Kelley's opinion and said he may seek a Supreme Court advisory opinion regardless of how the legislature acts.

"I think we ought to have that, just to clear the air," he said. "If we are wrong, we ought to know it as soon as possible. Our whole objective is

Offer Fund to Convict JFK Killer

DETROIT (AP) — A businessman and his attorney Sunday offered a reward for information leading to the conviction of any person involved in the slaying of President Kennedy.

"We feel that it is possible that other people were involved" in the death of Kennedy, businessman John G. Muthless, and attorney Gregory M. Pilon said in a voluminous newspaper ad.

Police in Dallas, Tex., had charged Lee Harvey Oswald with the killing, but Oswald was slain by nightclub owner Jack Ruby before he could be brought to trial.

PLEDGED $1,500

Muthless and Pilon pledged $1,500 toward "an ever-growing amount of reward money" they said would be pledged by other individuals and firms.

"We feel if there is a group involved in the assassination, an appeal to greed is the only way to bring it to the surface," Muthless said. Muthless is president of, and Pilon is attorney for, 20th Century Sales, Inc., an American Automobile, Inc.

The advertisement invited pledges, and listed a post office box and a telephone number.

Muthless said he plans to run the ad in newspapers throughout the nation "for at least one year, if necessary."

Ecumenical Council Starts Last Work Day of Session

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council today began the final working day of its second session. Two more days of ceremony remain before the 2,300 prelates return home for another nine-month recess.

In the nine weeks since Pope Paul VI resumed the council, which Pope John XXIII called, the Roman Catholic prelates took decisive action in four areas. They also debated three of the 16 schemata, or topics, on their program for renewal of Catholicism and advancement of the cause of Christian unity.

They approved two schemata: one permitting major changes in the forms of Catholicism's worship and the other a statement on mass communications media.

WERE DEBATED

Both topics were debated at the first council session in 1962 and revised during the recess.

In one major vote the prelates decided that theology on the Virgin Mary should be treated within the framework of a schema on the nature of the Church rather than in a separate schema devoted entirely to her. Opponents of the latter procedure argued that it would put undue emphasis on the place of the Virgin in Catholicism, one area of Catholic-Protestant disagreement.

Another key vote was held to guide the commission that will write amendments for the schema on the nature of the Church. Despite considerable dissent in debate, the council fathers showed in the vote that they overwhelmingly favored the collegial concept that all bishops as a body share with the Pope in authority over the Church.

The council also debated schemata on the nature of the church on bishops' powers and diocesan government, and on Christian unity of ecumenism.

NOT YET ASKED

The ecumenism schema was before the council today. The members still had not been asked to decide whether two controversial chapters of that schema — on Jews and on religious freedom — were acceptable for detailed debate.

Many bishops were eager for clear council action, even if only a vote of general acceptability, on the two chapters. American Catholic bishops were especially eager for some kind of action on tolerance to further the Christian unity movement in the United States.

Tuesday the council, with Pope Paul present, will commemorate the 400th anniversary of the closing of the Council of Trent.

On Wednesday the full body of prelates, together with the Pope, will give another formal approval and promulgation of the worship and communications schemata as solemn decrees.

Crucial Period of Probing

Allies Watch for Policy Change

EDITOR'S NOTE: In the aftermath of the death of President Kennedy, European allies of the United States are asking themselves, "Where do we go from here?" The following dispatch by UPI's chief diplomatic reporter in Europe sums up the international outlook from various capitals.

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI) — America's European allies, reassured by President Lyndon B. Johnson's pledge of a "no change" policy, now hope that his preoccupation with massive domestic problems will not impure U.S. initiatives abroad.

The President's firm promise of continuity in America's major policies has given new confidence to the uneasy alliance and perhaps averted some dangerous "probing" on the part of the Kremlin.

But while the Europeans now know where the new President of the United States intends to lead them, they are still anxious for a pointer as to the means his administration will use.

They have tacitly set a period of about two months in which to find out. Some Western diplomats term it "a crucial period of interlarded probing."

FIRST PITCH
Allied foreign ministers will make their first pitch for such aid and indication when they meet with U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk at the NATO ministerial council in Paris Dec. 16.

The meeting, which had been planned a long time before Kennedy's assassination, now assumes special importance.

Against the background of these first high-level interlarded exchanges, top allied leaders plan to seek first hand clarification from the President himself when they meet in a series of conferences in Washington early weeks of the new year.

Britain's Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home, French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard all have scheduled personal consultations with Johnson within the first few weeks of the new year.

DIFFERENT WAY
The question which has been voiced and is still being asked in European capitals is whether Johnson, while committed to continue the Kennedy course, will do it in a different way and in his own time.

A United Press survey of major European capitals reflected these reactions to the change in Washington:

● London — The prime minister has expressed himself very confident of future Anglo-American co-operation under Johnson's leadership and voiced hopes Britain will be able "to take a positive role" in Cold War peace moves. British pressure for an early resumption of talks with Russia was thus expected to build up before long.

● Bonn — Government quarters expect a "down to earth" approach by Johnson to international problems. But they fear the President has only a few months left to get through the big jobs awaiting him, including the forthcoming round of American-proposed tariff cut negotiations with the allies, resumed disarmament talks with the Russians, both scheduled for early next year in Geneva.

● West Berlin — Mayor Willy Brandt expresses full confidence that U.S. policy towards the divided city will not change. Berlin leaders do not rule out altogether that Premier Nikita Khrushchev may probe Johnson's firmness, but probably not immediately.

● Paris — De Gaulle's government proceeds from the assumption that Johnson has not enough time before the next American election to initiate spectacular changes. Consequently, French policy also is likely to remain unchanged. With continued emphasis on the go-it-alone strategy.

De Gaulle is likely to pursue his demand for a revision of NATO and to oppose East-West negotiations. France, it appears will at any rate remain cautious until Johnson's moves become clearer.

● Geneva — No change of American policy is expected in the two major international issues: East-West disarmament and the global tariff cut negotiations in May.

● Brussels — Allied leaders feel Johnson may develop a "different approach and a different style" from Kennedy, but this would be considered natural, it is held. His recent travels in Europe could be helpful to him in forming a clearer appreciation of feelings and needs among the Western allies.

Diplomats also point to Johnson's part in the security treaty with Japan in 1960 and his advocacy of firm use of presidential powers in withholding aid from countries which obstructed free navigation of international waterways.

The Alamo, famous Texas and American shrine, was originally built as a chapel, for the mission San Antonio de Valera of the Franciscans.

Soviet Moves in Berlin Not Likely Before January

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

If the Soviets are to test the new U. S. administration's determination over Berlin, the guessing in West Berlin is that it will not come before January. The German winter usually restricts large scale troop movements.

However, some time in January, a battalion of about 1,100 men stationed in Berlin is expected to exchange duties with another battalion now in West Germany.

This will mean a week-long series of convoys in both directions over the autobahn, with possibilities of a Russian challenge on control procedures.

CHANGES:

London gossip columnists are claiming that U. S. Ambassador to London David Bruce may retire and be replaced by McGeorge Bundy.

There is no official confirmation in either American or British quarters of this suggestion. The reports claim Bruce, who has been ambassador to Britain since 1961, feels he wants to return to private life.

Bundy is well known in London and, while officialdom keeps diplomatic silence, little doubt is left that he would be welcome.

A major earthquake may be building up for Italian labor unions. This could come about as result of a walkout of the strong pro-Communist wing from Socialist party ranks as result of the party decision to join the center-left government of Premier-Designate Aldo Moro.

Communists now hold about 70 per cent of all key positions in the CGIL, which in turn controls about half of Italian labor.

A Socialist split would reduce the socialist moderates-of party leader Pietro Nenni to a small minority in CGIL ranks and might force them into quitting. It would pose dramatic problems of allegiance for many members.

NEW PEKING LOOK:

President Charles de Gaulle is reported to have decided to send a full-time French economic mission to Peking — possibly as an opening wedge toward full recognition of Red China later.

French officials say he believes France could guarantee herself long-term economic prosperity by establishing outlets for French industrial exports in China.

A main stumbling block: de Gaulle is not ready to sever relations with Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist China on Formosa, regarded as an inevitability in event of French diplomatic recognition of the Reds.

JAPANESE OVERHAUL:

Japanese Premier Hayato Ikeda's 1960 program to double the Japanese people's real income in 10 years already has seen a 38 per cent jump in such income in less than three years.

But it has shown weak spots in small farming, coal mining and in "infrastructure" such as roads, railroads, bridges and harbors. As result, the program probably will be overhauled.

10 Killed, 60 Hurt in Senegal's Elections

DAKAR, Senegal (AP)—More than 10 persons were killed and about 60 were injured during national elections in Senegal Sunday.

President Leopold Senghor, an unopposed candidate for reelection, received 90 per cent of the registered vote. Senghor's Senegal Progressive Union also won overwhelmingly in contests for 80 legislative seats, nearly complete official returns reported.

Violence erupted in the old quarter of Dakar when several thousand government opponents started to march toward the troops tried to hold them in center of the city. Police and check and fighting broke out.

The demonstrators apparently were organized by extremists of the African Regroupment party, which received only about 4 per cent of the vote.

KOHIMA, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru's government created India's 16th state Sunday to counter fiery Naga tribesmen demanding their own nation.

President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan presided at ceremonies inaugurating Nagaland just below the eastern border of the Northeast Frontier Agency, which was invaded by Communist Chinese troops in October 1962.

Kills Pastor, Wife, Then Shoots Self

SHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — A convict walked into an Asheville church Sunday night and killed his divorced wife, the minister and himself with blasts from a shotgun.

Police said Walter H. Bailey, 57, entered the West Asheville Assembly of God church just before the Rev. Lester Cobb, 44, started the sermon and demanded to see his ex-wife, Ruby Bailey, 50.

As Mrs. Bailey huddled on the floor between pews, hidden under the coats of other members, the Rev. Mr. Cobb pleaded with Bailey to leave.

J. D. Taylor, a member of the church board, said Bailey warned the 50 persons in the congregation not to leave, and told Cobb: "You aren't going to let her (Mrs. Bailey) come out. I know she's here. I've looked everywhere for her. I'm not going to leave until I see Ruby."

Police said Bailey shot Cobb with a sawed-off shotgun from a range of about five feet.

Bailey then found his former wife, shot her in the head with one blast and killed himself with another shot from the double-barreled gun.

Dr. John C. Young, Buncombe county coroner, ruled the shootings a double murder and suicide.

Senate Rights Bill Foes

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says it expects to issue next month a purge list of congressmen who oppose civil rights bills backed by the NAACP.

An NAACP spokesman said Sunday night that the list won't be prepared until after Congress votes on the administration's civil rights bill.

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP)—A West German industrialist says Communist China is eager to increase trade with non-Communist nations to offset losses resulting from the Soviet-Chinese rift.

Alfred E. Schulz, director of West Germany's huge machine-making firm Demag, urged German businessmen to follow the example of other non-Communist nations and begin trading with Peking.

Schulz returned Sunday after a three-week visit to Red China, where he discussed possibilities of increasing West German-Chinese trade.

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Foreign Minister Auguste Mabika-Kalanda, who has been at odds with Premier Cyrille Adoula, is under arrest and has been dismissed. The government says Adoula is taking personal charge of foreign policy.

PASSPORT ISSUE

Government sources said Mabika-Kalanda was dismissed Sunday because he gave former President Moise Tshombe of Katanga a Congolese passport without consulting other government officials.

Mabika-Kalanda, 30, a teacher, was brought into Adoula's Cabinet last April as part of a nonpolitical element in the government.

Jacqueline Kennedy's Courage Shone Throughout Tragedy

(EDITOR'S NOTE — In the following story, Frances Lewine, AP reporter who covered the activities of Mrs. John F. Kennedy during her White House years, recreates in step-by-step detail the former first lady's ordeal, from the start of the day on which the 35th President was assassinated in Dallas, through the funeral services in Washington.)

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — She chose a gay pink suit that day and was late getting started. Her husband explained her absence to several thousand cheering Texans.

"Mrs. Kennedy is busy organizing herself," he confided in an 8:45 a.m. politicking appearance. "It takes a little longer, you know; but then she looks so much better than we do."

There was the inevitable bouquet of red roses as President and Mrs. Kennedy arrived in Dallas, Tex., that fair Friday of Nov. 22. The red clashed with the pink of her wool suit and pillbox hat.

They stepped into the big dark blue convertible they had shared on so many state occasions and the winding 11-mile motorcade began.

CHEERING CROWDS
The crowds stood 10 to 12 deep on sidewalks and cheered them. They sat, there smiling, President Kennedy, Gov. John Connally of Texas and their wives—saying what a fine well come the Kennedys had been given after all.

Mrs. Kennedy, just resuming official activities after the death of her infant son three months ago, had not been on a speech-making tour since 1960. It was her first visit to Texas. She shook hands freely, won cheers with a 73-word speech in Spanish, and admitted she was enjoying campaigning.

They had expected trouble in Dallas, a center of political conservatism, but their reception was being described as "mag-nificent."

"Mr. President, they can't make you believe now that there are not some in Dallas who love and appreciate you," said Gov. Connally's wife, Nellie.

HEADING TO LUNCHEON
"You should know, you sure can't," said the President as the big car, taking them to luncheon at the Trade Mart, approached the six-story Texas School Depository Building at 12:30 p.m.

Suddenly, there were those three sharp cracks that sounded more like firework.

Mrs. Kennedy cried out, "Oh, no!" as her husband fell back, face down on the back seat, blood spurting from wounds in his head and neck.

She tried to lift him and cradle his head in her lap.

"Oh, my God! They've killed my husband," she cried.

"JACK, JACK"

"Jack, Jack," she called to the handsome, 46-year-old man who had been smiling beside her moments before. But John F. Kennedy, the man she had married 10 years ago, never regained consciousness.

A Secret Service man came leaping over the back of the car to throw himself spread-eagled over them. Mrs. Kennedy reached a hand to help him. The four in the car feared they might all be shot. As a bullet slammed into his back, Connally shouted, "My God, they're going to kill us all!" "Get this car out of here," snapped an agent. The limousine made a breakneck dash for Parkland Hospital.

CRADLES HEAD

Mrs. Kennedy cradled her husband's head and wept. When she walked with his stretcher to the hospital emergency room, the blood stained her pink suit and soaked one stocking. The red roses lay crushed on the floor of the car.

As she waited outside the emergency room, while doctors made their futile efforts, Mrs. Kennedy seemed to know her husband was dying. She was dazed and shocked. A priest administered last rites. Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, friends and associates hovered about.

FEAR IN EYES

A medical student later described Mrs. Kennedy. "The look in her eyes was like an animal that had been trapped, like a little rabbit—brave, but fear was in her eyes."

In her grief, Mrs. Kennedy remembered others. She thanked the priest who administered last rites. "Pray for him," she begged.

Her voice was clear and audible as she said responses to prayers with others. There were no hysterics.

Kennedy was declared dead at 1 p.m. The chief neurosurgeon, Dr. Kemp Clark, gently told Mrs. Kennedy the news she had guessed.

PARALYZED LOOK

She like everyone else around there had a paralyzed look. We just believe this could be the priest said.

The events of that day and the ordeal that followed for Mrs. Kennedy were like a Greek tragedy.

There was hardly time to think. There was to be no privacy for this widow. She had lost an infant son three months ago and now her husband, just at a time when the family was preparing to observe the birthdays of their two children, Caroline, now 6, and John Jr., 3, and to spend a happy Thanksgiving with the Kennedy family at Cape Cod.

SPARED LITTLE

In the 75 hours from Kennedy's death until his coffin was lowered into a grave at Arlington National Cemetery Monday, Nov. 25, Mrs. Kennedy was spared little.

The death and funeral of John Fitzgerald Kennedy and his widow's grief were a public display.

The world knew of the private and touching moment at the hospital when Mrs. Kennedy had tearfully kissed her husband's lifeless lips and put her wedding ring on his finger.

Then the bronze coffin was closed, never to be opened again in public.

WALKED BESIDE COFFIN
A little over an hour and a half after Kennedy had been taken to Parkland Hospital, his body was carried out a rear entrance. Mrs. Kennedy walked beside it and entered a tremor-embalmed ambulance for a police-escorted dash to the airport where the presidential jet plane waited to take the slain President home.

Inside, 27 persons crowded into the gold-carpeted presidential compartment. Together, the Johnsons moved to clasp Mrs. Kennedy's hands in deep emotion as she arrived.

Her first public appearance as the grieving widow was to stand there, blood stains still on her clothing, as Lyndon B. Johnson took the oath of office as president. It was mercifully brief—just two minutes.

Mrs. Kennedy had started to show the determination to carry on in her husband's tradition of personal courage. When a Texas police officer said, "You ought to go back and lie down," Mrs. Kennedy replied, "Thanks, I'm fine." She went to sit by Kennedy's casket on the 1,500-mile, 24-hour journey.

EERIE HOMECOMING
In contrast to the many happy homecomings, it was an eerie sight at Andrews Air Force Base, in Maryland, where a great outpouring of reporters, cameramen and officials had gathered.

A great, ungainly yellow cargo lift lowered Kennedy's casket, with Mrs. Kennedy standing beside it, holding tightly to the hand of her brother-in-law, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. Her face showed her anguish, but she retained composure.

A gray Navy ambulance waited. With so many there to help her, Mrs. Kennedy somehow reached out to open the ambulance door herself.

They went to Bethesda Naval Hospital. For almost 10 hours Mrs. Kennedy waited there while doctors performed an autopsy and the President's body was prepared for burial.

STAYED WITH BODY

Mrs. Kennedy stayed there because she did not want to leave the body, aides said. She took no sedatives.

With courage rarely seen, she began almost at once to plan the funeral. She wanted it to be "as distinguished a tribute as possible," the White House said.

She approved the burial in a site among Arlington National Cemetery's 126,000 dead, she requested an eternal flame in his memory, she started discussing plans for a monument.

Mrs. Kennedy chose to pattern Kennedy's funeral after that of Abraham Lincoln, similarly martyred almost 100 years ago.

It was announced there would be a marching procession to the funeral mass and said she would walk behind the horse-drawn caisson bearing the body. It was believed to be the first time a president's widow had done this.

BLOODSTAINED BADGE

At 4:25 a.m.—16 hours after he was shot—Mrs. Kennedy brought her husband home. She would not change her clothes and the bloodstained badge was there as she followed the casket into the White House.

Already signs of public mourning were in evidence. The front door was draped in black. The East Room was set to receive Kennedy's body. An honor guard was there, candles burned, priests prayed and the three great crystal chandeliers were draped in black.

Once home, Mrs. Kennedy had to face her children, and make plans for a future home she quickly decided would be in Washington.

TAKES CHILDREN

The next day, Mrs. Kennedy took her children to pray at the casket in the East Room. Then more than 4,000 friends, officials, congressmen, diplomats, staff members and newsmen came to pay respects in a day-long downpour of rain.

Mrs. Kennedy stayed in seclusion and the new President left the White House to the grieving Kennedys.

In the next two days, Jacqueline Kennedy, 34, a former debutante and product of elegant schools, became a dramatic figure.

While the greats of the world looked on, and nationwide television focused on her every heart-rending moment, Mrs. Kennedy spared herself nothing.

IN PROCESSION

She took her children to ride in the Sunday procession to deliver Kennedy's body to lie in state in the Capitol rotunda.

In the rotunda, Mrs. Kennedy, with deep circles under her eyes, her face anguished but determined, took Caroline's hand and went to kneel and kiss the casket.

She left the body there for a quarter-million people to file by in less than 24 hours.

Mrs. Kennedy was back at 9 p.m. to kneel and kiss the casket while the line of mourners watched.

When she left, Mrs. Kennedy gave evidence of the emotion that gripped her.

'LET ME WALK'

"Let me walk, let me walk," she urged the attorney general as they set off through the Capitol crowd.

The funeral of John F. Kennedy came on Monday, Nov. 25—three endless days after his assassination and on the third birthday of John Jr. The rites lasted five hours and Mrs. Kennedy stood unflinching through most of the long pageantry. But twice tears filled her eyes.

Twelve hundred had been invited to St. Matthews Cathedral, including Kennedy's distant Irish cousin, Mary Ann Ryan, who had entertained the President at his ancestral home in County Wexford last June.

With a long black veil shielding her face, Mrs. Kennedy led the eight-block march from the White House to the church with world leaders following her and the caisson.

HAND IN HAND

She met her children at the church door and, hand-in-hand again, took them to watch. Richard Cardinal Cushing, who had married the Kennedys, baptized their children and said the funeral mass for infant Patrick, officiated at Kennedy's funeral.

Luigi Vena, the tenor who sang at their fashionable Newport, R.I., wedding in 1953, again sang Schubert's "Ave Maria" at the funeral.

Mrs. Kennedy picked her husband's favorite passages from the Scriptures and excerpts from his inaugural address to be read at the funeral instead of eulogies.

TEARS COME

Tears came when Mrs. Kennedy had to wait halfway-down the cathedral aisle while the body was placed on the caisson for the last ride to Arlington. Caroline wept, too. John Jr., hardly able to grasp the significance of it all, saluted as the coffin left the cathedral.

At Arlington, after Taps sounded and she had lit the eternal flame, Mrs. Kennedy suddenly turned to Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, embraced him and pressed her veiled cheek against his, her eyes filling.

But, she walked firmly out of the cemetery, clutching the flag which had covered the coffin.

RETURNS 5 TIMES

Five times, Mrs. Kennedy returned to the grave in the next three days, once late at night. She took Caroline once.

She urged President Johnson to rename Cape Canaveral to Cape Kennedy in memory of her late husband's interest in space exploration—and it was done.

Then, she left for seclusion and a Thanksgiving reunion with the Kennedy family at Cape Cod.

Many memorials have been suggested the world over for Kennedy. But what could match the one his wife gave him?

For Mrs. Kennedy, though, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's condolence message seemed to tell her story: "His death kills something within me."

ATTENDS KENNEDY SERVICE—Queen Elizabeth II is greeted by The Very Rev. The Queen heard Woods, the Dean of Windsor, describe the death of Kennedy as "in a way, similar to Moses."

Vote, Stronghold No Longer Secure

Barry's Chances Hurt by Assassination

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

The bad political news for Sen. Barry Goldwater is that there seems now to be a solid chance that the moderate or Eisenhower Republicans will retain control of the party and of its 1964 nominating convention.

The ballots that struck President Kennedy also hit the Goldwater - for - President movement. Goldwater - for - President strategy had been to concede the big eastern industrial states to JFK in 1964. These concessions were to be offset by Republican gains in the South.

Some Republicans argued that party gains in the South reflected fiscal conservatism; a desire for reduced federal spending, a balanced budget and, thereafter, tax reduction.

Other Republicans conceded that Republican developments in Southern states reflected Democratic dislike of the Kennedy administration more precisely. Southerners were voting Republican in protest against the Kennedy brothers' all out efforts in behalf of civil rights.

NO DIXIE PLAY

Republican officeholders elected in the big industrial states resisted any party play for Southern votes. The realistic political reason for their resistance was that Republican identification in the South with segregationist Democrats would invite racial minorities to penalize Republicans in the North.

These Northern Republican officeholders probably could expect to fare better on election day with a Republican presidential candidate who went all out for Civil Rights and lost than with a candidate who had played for white Southern votes and was elected.

The weakness of the Northern Republican officeholders has been that they could not offer any assurance that JFK could be licked next year in the big industrial states.

How President Johnson will stand with the Negroes and other racial minorities next autumn cannot be known now. But at this moment he does not command the political support of such states as New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania as John F. Kennedy was presumed to command it.

MIDDLE PATH

Therefore, the Republican moderates are invited by circumstances to adopt in 1964 the strategy that won party control for them at every Republican National Convention after 1928. That strategy is to take a middle path down the political road-way. Habit is a force of consequence collectively as well as individually.

The Republican habit of surrendering to the stern voice of the moderates at nominating time is well established. What the stern voice said of the late Robert A. Taft was that he could not be elected because he could not carry big industrial states, notably New York.

That frightened the fat conservative cats of the Republican party who apparently would rather win than be right.

Among the forces giving the Goldwater bandwagon astonishing momentum this year was the fact of rebellion in the South against the Democratic party.

UNIMPRESSED

Goldwater strategists listened unmoved to warnings that their man could not carry New York, or for example, Pennsylvania.

For answer, they replied: "Okay, Buster, we don't need 'em."

And, away they went, whistling Dixie.

Off the figures of the Goldwater strategists, the only Republican then who COULD be elected was Goldwater. Times have changed.

Motorist Okay After Crash Dies in Rescue Try

AARHUS, Denmark (AP)—A motorist escaped unhurt from an auto crash on a lonely road outside Horsens, Jutland, Sunday night, then drowned when he tried to get help for his wife and four other passengers.

Knud Poulsen, 34, staggered out of his car after crashing into a tree and set out into the darkness.

A passerby found the wrecked car soon after, and an ambulance took the five injured persons to a hospital. All were reported out of danger.

Shortly before midnight Poulsen's body was found in a stream beside the road. Police said he apparently had fallen into the water as he ran toward a nearby farmhouse.

Kennedy's Grave Visited by 45,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The grave of President John F. Kennedy was visited Sunday by an estimated 45,000 persons, among them President Johnson and his family. Johnson placed a bouquet of red roses on the grave.

The line of visitors formed before the gates of Arlington National Cemetery were opened at 8 a.m. Those within the cemetery were permitted to remain in line when the gates were closed at 5 p.m.

Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt Says:

Latest Drugs Ease Hodgkin's Disease

Q — My sister is 25 and has Hodgkin's disease. Will irradiation with cobalt help her? Is this disease hereditary?

A — Hodgkin's disease is a malignant disease characterized by enlargement of the lymph nodes. It is not hereditary.

Surgical removal of the tumors is helpful if the disease is localized in only one or two areas, but more often than not the disease is widespread by the time it is recognized.

Irradiation is beneficial in some cases. Nitrogen mustard, a war gas, has been used but more recently a related substance, cyclophosphamide, has replaced it because it is better tolerated.

Another drug, vincuboloblastine, is said to be better than any other drug tried so far. These drugs bring about a marked improvement for a time, even in persons with far advanced disease.

Their effects vary greatly in different persons and the dosage is hard to adjust without unpleasant side effects. No claim can be made that any drug will give a permanent cure.

Q — My doctor has me taking four Equanilate pills a day. Is that too much?

A — Equanilate is a combination of mephobarbital (a tranquilizer) and pentamethylthiopyran (to dilate the coronary arteries). It is used to prevent angina pectoris and is said to work better than either drug alone.

It comes in a large and small size. Since four a day is the usual dose for the large size, you probably are not taking too much, but your family doctor is the best judge.

Q — What is nephrosclerosis? Is it the same as arteriosclerosis? Can it be cured?

A — Nephrosclerosis is the disease that results when the changes of arteriosclerosis are seen chiefly in the kidneys. It usually occurs in persons who have had a high blood pressure for many years. The victims have albumin in the urine.

If the condition is recognized early in its course, measures to reduce the blood pressure will check the progress of the disease, but treatment of the high blood pressure before any kidney damage has occurred is even better.

Q — For a recurrent external ear condition, my doctor has for the last 10 years had me use Neo-Cortef ear drops. Is its continued use likely to cause cortisone side effects?

A — Neo-Cortef ear drops contain not only hydrocortisone but also the antibiotic, neomycin. These drops rarely cause side effects, but if they increase the local irritation, they should be stopped.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Five persons identified as East Germans jumped a Communist cruise ship in the Bosphorus Sunday and asked for political asylum, police reported.

Fifth Column in India Was False Report

NEW DELHI (AP)—Newspaper reports of a Communist fifth-column army in Calcutta until September arose out of a comedy of errors, parliament was told today.

Home Minister R. M. Hajarnavis said the Chinese 5th Army had an office in downtown Calcutta during World War II from October 1942 to January 1946.

The office changed hands many times after that but electricity bills continued to be paid until last September in the name of the Chinese 5th Army.

This led to the false impression that Peking's fifth column had been operating a headquarters in Calcutta until two months ago, Hajarnavis said.

Five Killed in Crash of Private Plane

INDIO, Calif. (UPI) — Five persons, four believed to be teenagers, were killed late yesterday in the crash of a small private plane 30 miles east of this Southern California desert community.

Sheriff's deputies said the pilot was identified as Andrew D. Robertson, 48, Palm Springs, Calif. One of the other victims was the pilot's son, Andrew Jr., 16.

Deputies said the pilot's wife told them her husband was flying the plane and three of his friends back from a holiday visit to their home.

She said the four boys all attended Justin Boarding School in Scottsdale, Ariz., and were returning for classes today.

It is believed that the other three boys, as yet unidentified, were from New York, Hawaii and Mexico.

Operatic Tenor Dead

TOULOUSE, France (AP) — Louis Tharaud, 85, operatic tenor, died Sunday. He made his debut in 1907, later sang in the Paris Opera and toured the opera houses of Europe. He was born in Toulouse.

Terrorists Plot New Raids on Malaysia

BRUNEI (AP) — A British military officer says terrorists based in Indonesian Borneo undoubtedly are planning more and heavier raids on East Malaysia.

"The officer, stationed at the Brunei headquarters of Britain's North Borneo command, said he expects terrorist activity to spread along the 800-mile jungle border between Indonesia and the Malaysian states of Sarawak and Sabah, which surround Brunei.

"Undoubtedly things will get worse," the officer said. "There will be more incidents as the terrorists try to bully the border people into shifting their allegiance from the Malaysian government."

In the past seven months, terrorist attacks have been confined to Sarawak. Some sources predict North Borneo soon may be a trouble spot. Indonesian commandos are reported in place on Sibak Island, just off the east coast and shared by Malaysia and Indonesia.

Authoritative sources report some Indonesians working in North Borneo have set up jungle training camps for guerrillas.

The British officer said there is conclusive proof that Indonesia is behind the border incursions. He said some of the attacks were led by Indonesian regular officers and that one Indonesian commando officer was killed on Sibak while on a reconnaissance patrol.

Indonesia's present aim, the Briton said, is to weaken the will of the border tribes in Sarawak and North Borneo and to encourage dissidents in the states in the hope they will revolt.

A government source in Sarawak said a third Indonesian aim is to create the impression that the peoples are in revolt against the formation of Malaysia.

The Indonesian government claims the attacks have been made by "freedom fighters" and that Indonesian forces are not involved.

The British have adopted a strategy of systematic destruction of terrorist bands in an effort to destroy the morale of the Indonesian-based guerrillas.

A military source in Kuching said 58 terrorists have been killed since the first border attack in April. British and Malaysian losses are known to be at least 10 dead.

The source said there have been 70 recorded incursions by groups from Indonesian Borneo.

What Good Steak? What Went in It?

FARGO, N.D. (UPI) — When you sit down to eat a steak, stop and think of what went into it — about 17 pounds of corn, 4 pounds of hay and 2 pounds of protein supplements.

According to North Dakota State University, livestock people figure it out this way: a 10-ounce cooked steak represents 1.3 pounds of carcass beef, or about 2.2 pounds of live steer.

Since a feeder steer gains about two pounds a day, one steak is equal to about a day's red meat production of the steer.

The feed figures are the approximate daily diet of the average steer.

Wintry Cold Covers Most of Nation

By The Associated Press
Cold air, with snow in some northern areas, spread across broad sections from the Rockies into northern Florida today.

The mercury dropped to 30 degrees in Gainesville, Fla., early today as the cold air slipped deep into the southland.

Wintry weather, with heavy snow and temperatures near zero, hit upstate New York and parts of New England. Nearly a foot of snow covered areas east of Lake Ontario.

Snow and cold also was reported in other parts of the Great Lakes and in Midwest areas. Temperatures edged to near zero in northern Wisconsin. Readings in the teens were reported in most of north central region. The 20s and 30s covered most other areas in the cold belt.

Mild Gulf air kept temperatures near 60 in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

United States farmers paid about $300 million in sales taxes in 1962.

One Yank Killed, One Hurt in Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI) — One U.S. soldier was killed and another seriously wounded in a Communist guerrilla ambush last night near the Cambodian border, a U.S. military spokesman said today.

Nine South Vietnamese troops also were wounded in the clash, the second serious encounter between government and Viet Cong forces within a few hours yesterday.

In the first battle, also near the Cambodian border, the Communists killed, wounded, or captured the entire garrison of a government outpost before being driven off.

The guerrillas lost an estimated 50 men in the six hours of fighting, but 42 of the 60 troops defending the outpost were killed, and 15 to 20 of their wives and children also died.

BROUGHT TO 1

The American casualties brought to 114 the number of U.S. combat deaths since large-scale assistance to South Viet Nam began in January 1961. The death toll from all causes now is 142.

Names of the two U.S. servicemen were withheld pending notification of relatives, and there were few details available on the attack.

The Americans were accompanying a Vietnamese troop convoy in the border area about 115 miles west of Saigon.

The Communist assault on the outpost was almost a carbon copy of an attack a week ago on a government training camp 30 miles west of Saigon. In that fight, 37 Vietnamese soldiers were killed and four U.S. enlisted men captured. A U.S. officer was critically wounded.

Yesterday, the Viet Cong opened fire with mortars and other big guns about midnight. They knocked out two of three blockhouses on the corners of the triangular stockade, cut through barbed wire, waded a moat, and scaled the walls.

The third blockhouse poured heavy fire on the invaders but the guerrillas kept up their assault. They finally withdrew about 6 a.m., taking their dead and wounded with them, and some captives.

The outpost is on the edge of an area heavily infested by Communists. It is just north of Black Virgin Mountain, which is considered sacred by the Cao Dai sect.

In another development yesterday, reliable sources said Viet Nam's 7th Division commander, Col. Pahn Van Dong, has been replaced at the insistence of security minister Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh, although he is highly respected by U.S. military advisers here.

The division guards the area immediately south of Saigon. It is part of the corps Dinh commanded before the Nov. 4 coup, and U.S. officials said Dong pursued the war against the Communists in the Mekong Delta area effectively. His replacement is Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat.

Floridians Really Bask in Holiday Spirit

MIAMI (AP) — Shoppers in shorts making the rounds of air-conditioned stores, displaced northerners dressing their lawns in white sand to remind them of snow, and palm trees which produce red berries only tell the tale of Christmas in Miami.

The holiday season is the time when the long-time "native" and the recent "native" go to war over merits of a semitropical Christmas.

"How can you get into the Christmas spirit when there's no snow on the ground, when stores feature swimming suits and sun tan lotions, and when ice-cream sounds better than hot chocolate?" complains the more recent native.

"This is the true Christmas," replies the native whose blood has thinned through the years. "There was no snow in Bethlehem or icicles hanging from the manger. And think of the money you're saving in heating bills and anti-freeze."

SPRAY FROST

Nonetheless, many who long for a northern "white Christmas" find some consolation in making "frost" patterns on their windows with spray can decorating material.

Others smile smugly as they remember long-gone days of snow shovels, tire chains, dead batteries, galoshes, gloves and frost-bitten tents.

They find Christmas in the many huge poinsettia bushes, the graceful Adonis palm which produces a crop of acorn-sized, bright red berries just in time for Christmas and the Florida holly tree which is covered with thousands of small red berries each December.

Opening of the Christmas season signals a rebirth of commerce along southeast Florida's Gold Coast.

RACE SEASON

The winter racing season opens with the horses at Tropical Park, and there is also pari-mutuel betting at the dog tracks and jai-alai frontons.

Sumptuous mansions scattered along Miami Beach and on islands in Key Biscayne are given a little extra shine by maintenance staffs in preparation for the annual winter visits by their owners.

High society springs to life, with black-tie banquet, charity balls, country club golf tournaments and ocean yacht racing.

The Florida sun also attracts Hollywood and New York entertainers and soon the list of names featured by Miami Beach hotels compares with the line of billboards along the Las Vegas strip on a summer night.

SHOPPERS AFROOT

Sidewalks fill with shoppers — the couple who arrived on one of today's jet flights, uncomfortable in their heavy wool suits, and the casual Miami in capri pants or Bermuda shorts, thong sandals and bright-colored shirts.

Mothers deposit their children at one of the many carnivals which take up winter residence in suburban shopping center parking lots.

One carnival lights up the downtown sky with sparkling ferris wheel and other rides are set up on the roof of a large department store.

Gift counters feature outdoor barbecue sets, golf clubs, swimming pool accessories, skin-diving equipment; and for the children, bicycles, with trainer wheels, roller skates, tennis racquets.

DOESN'T NOTICE

The Miami youngster doesn't seem to notice the absence of skis, sleds, toboggans and ice skates.

Little rainfall occurs during the Christmas season, so home owners decorate their yards with papier-maché Christmas figures with little fear of having them ruined.

Some residents paint Christmas scenes on one side of their heavy plywood sheets which serve otherwise as hurricane shutters.

Many residents string lights through the fronds of their palm trees. Others buy traditional Christmas trees and erect them in sheltered corners of their patios, where colored lights reflect in swimming pools.

TREE ON RAFT

One Miamiian erects a Christmas tree on a raft floating in the lake bordering his home.

He strings underwater power and sound cables for lights on the tree and speakers on the raft, then fills the area with recorded Christmas music.

Northern youngsters hold their Christmas caroling forays in horse-drawn sleighs, but what does the Miami youngster do?

One group of Girl Scouts paddles through canals in the Coral Gables area in a flotilla of seven canoes, singing Yule songs.

2 Listed Fair After Collision

Two persons, injured last night when the car in which they were riding collided with another in Waterford Township, are in fair condition at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Marcel Crabtree, 46, of 3300 Elizabeth Lake Road, Waterford Township, suffered possible internal injuries, while Loren Burk, 34, of 731 Summit, Milford, suffered multiple abrasions and a possible broken ankle.

Robert Osborne, 21, of Traverse City, driver of the car bearing the two injured persons, told police he was driving east on W. Huron at 8:45 p.m. when his car struck another east-bound car driven by Harry Collins, 29, of 62 Rutgers.

Collins, who was uninjured, told police he was stopped to turn left at Preston when his car was hit in the rear. Osborne said he didn't see the stopped car.

Elder Kennedys Leave for Palm Beach Home

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Former Ambassador and Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy took off today for Palm Beach, Fla., aboard the family plane, Caroline.

The parents of the late President were accompanied by their niece, Ann Gargan. The plane will stop at New York en route south to the Kennedy winter home.

Examination Demanded in Traffic Death

Preliminary examination in Justice Court for a Pontiac man charged with manslaughter in a traffic death is scheduled for Friday.

Thomas Rapson, 27, of 41 S. Merrimack demanded the hearing Saturday at his arraignment before Avon Township Justice Luther C. Green. Rapson was released on $1,500 bond.

A passenger in Rapson's car, Gerald D. Cartier, 25, of 8477 Clinton River Drive, Utica, was fatally injured Thanksgiving Day when Rapson rammed the rear of another car.

The driver of the other car, Dennis Arnett, 52, of 2448 Auburn, Pontiac Township, suffered only minor injuries.

Sheriff's deputies said Rapson refused to make a statement at the scene of the accident.

The European, midwife told lays her eggs in a strange like mass and abandons it. The male entwines the string around his hind legs and carries it for several weeks. When the eggs are ready to hatch, he finds a pool where there are no other tadpoles.

Officer Shoots Way Into West

ESCWEGE, Germany (AP) — An East German army officer shot his way to West Germany early today, police reported.

The uniformed officer said he was detected by an East German border patrol while trying to flee. The patrol opened fire on him, the officer told Western police, and he returned the fire with his pistol. He lost the weapon later, he added.

The name of the 22-year-old second lieutenant was not disclosed. Police said he told them he fled because he disapproved of communism and reported that morale among East troops guarding the border was low.

A 17-year-old youth from the East German province of Thuringia also reached West Germany during the weekend, police said. In northern Germany, near Brunswick, four East German workers fled to West Germany over the weekend without incident. Three, aged 17 and 18, came in a group; another, 40, came alone.

Best Students Smoke Less

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — There's less smoking among better students than others, a survey of Selah, Wash., schools shows.

The study was presented Sunday by Dr. Albert R. Allen of Selah at the 17th clinical meeting of the American Medical Association.

In the survey of some 800 youngsters in the 6th through the 12th grade, Dr. Allen found that generally "smokers in school do not compete successfully scholastically, athletically and do not even participate in service clubs."

Wedding Gift Blamed In Death of Couple

HASLAND, England (AP) — A wedding present was blamed today for the electrocution of a young couple.

Anthony Bayliss, 20, and his bride of three weeks, Rosemary, 18, were found dead in bed Sunday. They were lying on top of a gift electric blanket which police said was faulty.

AP Photofax

KILLED—Mrs. Iona Stafford, 41, and her children, Wayne, 11, and Donna, 7, were found dead in their Rosell, N.J., home Saturday. Police believe the woman's husband went berserk and killed them, smothering the wife and shooting the children in the head, then killing himself.

Man's Life Probed; Family of Four Dead

ROSELLE, N.J. (UPI) — Police today continued investigating the background of a man they said apparently smothered his wife, shot his two children and then committed suicide.

The bodies of Donald Stafford, 42, Mrs. Stafford, 41, and their children, Wayne, 9, and Donna, 6, were found in their home Saturday night.

At first, police thought Mrs. Stafford had died of natural causes. However, an autopsy showed she had suffocated.

Deputy Police Chief Charles F. Radecki said he believed her husband smothered her with a pillow.

The bodies of the children, each shot in the head with a .22 caliber rifle, were found in their bedroom in separate beds. Stafford was found dead, also shot through the head, on a bed alongside his wife.

Relatives said Stafford had appeared to be under a severe mental strain in recent weeks. They said he had undergone psychiatric treatment about 10 years ago, just before he moved to Roselle.

He was originally from Bushkill, Pa., and attended a high school in the Stroudsburg area. His wife was from Caldwell, N.J. They had been married about 13 years.

Police found two notes which Stafford had written. One, found on a kitchen table, said in part:

LOVED FAMILY

"I love my little family, now we'll always be together..."

Stafford was employed as a mechanic by an Elizabeth, N.J., auto dealer, and was known to neighbors as a steady worker and a good family man.

Police said the autopsy showed that Mrs. Stafford was killed on Thursday night. They said Stafford was apparently grief-stricken and killed the children and himself the next day.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another — very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months. Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Girl Wrong to Linger Over Candy

By The Emily Post Institute
Q: Yesterday afternoon while my teen-aged daughter and I were visiting in the house of a friend, the hostess passed around a box of candy. When it was passed to my daughter she looked at each piece before selecting one that she liked. I told her later that while it was all right to do this at home, when offered candy in someone else's house she should just take a piece and not look the candies over before taking one.

Of course she thinks I am just picking on her. Don't you agree that this is not good manners?

A: If she fingered the candy on took a long time in selecting a piece, then you are right. But if she merely looked at them quickly before choosing one that she liked, it was not wrong.

Q: The other day while lunching with a friend another woman friend whom I had not seen for a long time came into this same restaurant and as she passed our table, stopped and spoke to me for a few minutes.

I did not introduce her to the woman with whom I was lunching, and have since wondered whether I was wrong not to have done so. I never know what to do in a situation of this kind. Will you please advise me?

A: If the person with whom you were lunching was busy-looking at the menu or otherwise occupied, it was not necessary to introduce her. But if she sat there doing nothing and the other person lingered at your table, then you should have introduced her.

Bloomfield Hills CC Site of Reception

A reception in the Bloomfield Hills Country Club followed the marriage of Madeline McMath to Charles Herman Sloan of Ann Arbor, Saturday, in Christ Church Cranbrook.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Robert R. McMath of Bloomfield Hills and the late Dr. McMath, was given in marriage by her brother Robert T. Garrison.

For the single-ring afternoon ceremony performed by Rev. John H. Albrecht, she chose a gown of candlelight satin styled with Sabrina neckline, pearl beaded diagonal sash and side panel.

A cathedral veil of French illusion with overlay of heirloom Alencon lace; fell to the end of the chapel train. The bride carried phalaenopsis orchids and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert A. Adams of Elkhart, Ind., as matron of honor, appeared in rose silk and held sweetheart roses to match her floor-length gown.

Best man was Helmut F. Stern of New York City. Guests were seated by the bride's brother Kearny R. Garrison of Birmingham; Robert A. Adams; Donald H. Lentz of Milan and Lawrence Czup of Ypsilanti.

FLORIDA TRIP

After a two-week honeymoon in Florida the couple will be at home in Ann Arbor. Both are University of Michigan graduates and Mr. Sloan is also an alumnus of the Technical College, Hanover, Germany.

Clothes for Dances

Refresh Your Memory

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: Why do adults make fun of teenagers? They laugh at our clothes, our hair styles, our music and our dances.

If they would just sit back and remember what they were like when they were teenagers, maybe they would stop criticizing us. Please print this letter, Abby. It means an awful lot to us kids.

DISAPPOINTED IN ADULTS
DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Adults who make fun of today's teenagers must have amnesia.

Ask them to refresh their memories with their old school yearbooks. The clothes and hair styles between 1935 and 1945 were as kooky as anything seen today.

As for the music, can you top "I'm Dancing with a Dolly with a Hole in her stocking"? And the "Big Apple" should have been left in the Garden of Eden.

DEAR ABBY: How does a host and hostess get rid of a guest who has been invited to a cocktail party from five until seven but hangs around as long as drinks are being served and a few others remain?

This can be very embarrassing when one has invited, say, 30 for cocktails and only 8 for dinner, immediately following the cocktail party.

PARTY GIVER
DEAR PARTY GIVER: There is NO way "gracefully" to inform a guest that his welcome has expired.

You will never out-drink him, so either hand him his hat, or invite him to stay for dinner. (And remember him the second time around.)

DEAR ABBY: We have just had a death in our family. Is it proper to send out Christmas cards as usual? I have heard it was considered bad taste.

NEEDS TO KNOW
DEAR NEEDS: A death in the family is no reason to withhold holiday greetings to your friends. Send them as usual.

CONFIDENTIAL TO
"BEATING MY BRAINS OUT AT V.M.I.": Perhaps this old Chinese proverb will help: "He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not is a fool. Shun him. He who knows not, and knows that he knows not is a child. Teach him. He who knows, and knows not that he knows is asleep. Wake him. He who knows and knows that he knows is a genius. Follow him."

Presiding at the tea table were Iama C. Hook, honorary sponsor; Carol Jo Goshian, Kelo Auxiliary president; Mrs. Donald Bronson, Mrs. Donald Bailey, Mrs. Max Evans and Mrs. David Tucker, past presidents of Kelo.

Mrs. Gerald Flessland was tea chairman.

Women's

Wed in Drayton Plains

Rev. Walter J. Teeuwissen Jr. officiated at the nuptials of Ann Lee Lowrie and Robert Lewis Gillis, Saturday, in the Drayton Plains United Presbyterian Church.

A supper reception in the Coral Reef room of Airway Lanes followed the candlelight ceremony.

Daughter of the Keith Lowries of Andersonville Road, the bride appeared in a gown of white peau satin. Alencon lace applique edged the Sabrina neckline and accented a Dior bow on her chapel train.

BLUSH VEIL

A lace-covered pillbox held her blush veil of French illusion and her bouquet included white roses, carnations and Stephanotis.

Wearing identical gowns of tango to peau satin were bridesmaids Mrs. Richard Ederer of Saginaw, Mrs. Harold Knight of Tawas City and Mrs. Fred Metz of Clawson.

They carried tangerine-carnation and yellow pompons. Talisman roses accented bouquet for Ellison Murton of Detroit, her cousin's maid of honor.

William Gillis assisted his brother as best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Gillis of Clarkston. Danne Sullivan of Flint, Earl Lewis of Lachine and James Johnson comprised the usher list.

The bride is an alumna of Central Michigan University and member of Delta Zeta sorority. The couple will live in Rochester while he is attending the University of Michigan, Flint division.

Our Lady of Refuge Site for Exchange of Vows

Patricia Diane Eckman exchanged nuptial vows with Thomas Hugh Ritter before Msgr. Thomas A. Jobs, Saturday in Our Lady of Refuge Church, Orchard Lake.

Daughter of the Walter T. Eckmans of Keego Harbor, the bride appeared in white silk faille with Guipure lace accenting the fitted bodice and full chapel-length skirt. A petal headpiece held her bouffant veil of pure silk illusion. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Katherine Ewald of Brown City was honor maid. Carol Eckman of Minneapolis, Minn., Cecilia Ritter and Mary Backus were bridesmaids.

Satin trains highlighted their floor-length gowns of autumn rose velvet worn with pillbox hats. Their nosegays were white and cinnamon carnations.

Catherine Ritter was flower girl and Gregory Ritter of Lansing carried the rings. The bridegroom, son of the Kevin J. Ritters of Edgely Drive, had James Kennedy for best man. His brother, Dennis Ritter ushered with Robert Burns and Norbert Hofman.

After the evening reception in the VFW Hall, Keego Harbor, the couple left for a New England honeymoon. Mr. Ritter attended Detroit Engineering Institute.

Leather Suits Hit the Beach

Leather swim-suits are just around the corner for one well-known maker.

Years ago a bathing beauty would have done more sinking than swimming in such a suit. However, recent technological improvements have produced a lightweight, malleable leather which kisses off water and retains its (and the wearer's) shape.

Husband Worth More Than Bank Fund

By MARY FEELEY
 Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: My husband and I recently sold some property and will have about $10,000 coming to us. Now the question is, we have about $700 worth of small debts which we intend to clear up. This I am in favor of, but on the next question my husband and I are divided.

We bought a new car a year ago and still owe about $2,200 on it. My husband says we should pay this off and bank the rest. But I would rather keep on with the car payments and bank the whole amount.

My reasoning is that "a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush." My husband says "We could put the amount we pay back in the bank, little by little."

I think this might be a little harder to do because a person always needs things and when you have the money in your hand it is hard to put it away.

Mrs. A. A. H. Amboy, Wash.

Dear Mrs. H.: Looking at the situation strictly from a money point of view, you're paying out five and one-half to eight per cent interest on the car. If you bank the entire $10,000, your money will earn, say, 4 per cent. So you're putting out more than you will be taking in.

I grant you the human instinct is to spend rather than save. And very likely you wouldn't put an amount equal to the car payments into your savings account regularly. But even if you pay off the $2,200 in one swoop, plus the $700 in small debts, you'll still have better than $7,000 to stash away. That's not a bad emergency fund.

Of course, if you could make that $10,000 earn more interest than you're paying on the car, the answer would be simple—invest the $10,000 and keep on with your car payments. But you can hardly expect that kind of guaranty on any investment.

Since you aren't going to be too bad off financially either way you decide, my observation is: marital harmony is your most important consideration. If this matter has become a real bone of contention, one of you should give in. And which one? Well, you know which of you has the greatest capacity for stubbornness! For thousands of years it has proved a pretty good rule to let the man be the head of the house.

Dear Miss Feeley: I am 12-years-old and in the eighth grade. I have a good voice, and I like to listen to the radio, because I love to sing along with the records.

I'd like to be a singer and a recording star when I get older. But I would very much like to get started now. Could you please give me some advice on how I can get started now?

Pat, Rossford, Ohio
 Dear Pat: I'm all for knowing what you want to do and going after it. Talked your situation over with one of the finest music schools in the country and their advice is this: Don't rush into training. There's such a thing as injuring your voice by putting too much strain on it too early.

Junior Musicale Program

The senior league of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale gathered for a Christmas program, Sunday, in the home of Mrs. Glenn H. Griffin of Ogemaw Road.

Kay Sirling and Tom McCulloch; Jill Anderson and Jane Belanger; and Cheryl Smith and Michael Weldon performed duets. The group sang carols with instrumental accompaniment.

New members Patty Machiel and Jane Belanger were welcomed.

Fluff Dry Towels

Shake out wet towels before drying on a rack or line. Fluff dry in an automatic dryer or request laundry to do same. Smooth just-dried towels with your hands before folding and putting away. This removes wrinkles before they "set."

The first time Christmas cards went on sale to the American public was in 1875.

Prove Male Is Weaker Sex

As any female could have told you, boys are the weaker sex! A team of Pittsburgh researchers has found that male infants, from birth on, are hit twice as often with "staph" infections that cause boils and similar ills as female infants. To make matters worse: many scientists believe the male of all species — human as well as other mammals — is unable to deal with his environment as successfully as the female.

An Evening Ceremony for Local Couple

Dr. Milton H. Bank officiated at the marriage of Joan Colette Lehman and Daniel Lee Johnston Saturday in the Central Methodist Church. A reception in the Knights of Pythias hall followed the evening ceremony.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Walter H. Johnstons of North Tilden Avenue and the Clarence M. Johnstons of Scott Lake road.

Medallions of Chantilly lace accented the princess bodice, skirt front and chapel train of the bride's bouffant gown of white nylon taffeta. She wore a veil of French illusion with lace and pearl tiara, and carried gardenias with Stephanotis.

Groomed in royal blue satin with matching nylon bodices were Sharon Giesler, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Duane Spurlock, Mrs. Warren Webber, Linda Rouse and Jackie Gottschalk.

CARRIED MUMS

Their bouquets were white Fuji chrysanthemums with blue-tipped Stephanotis — designating the honor attendant. Brothers of the bride couple, Max, George and Richard Johnston with Richard Lehman, seated the wedding guests. Warren Webber was best man.

After a brief northern honeymoon, the couple will live on Liberty Street.

Lady-In-Waiting Loves Blouson

Big beach favorite for the lady-in-waiting is the drawstring blouson over boy leg shorts. The silhouette is deceptively flattering.

A-line tunics are better for sun bathing than submerging.

Check Trunk Load

The Chicago Motor Club advises motorists not to overload the car trunk. Too much weight in the rear of the automobile affects the balance of the car and tends to point the headlights off the road.

Some nine million motor vehicles are licensed in West Germany.

MRS. L.W. FETTER

Shower Honors Bride-Elect Jennifer Clark

A linen and bathroom shower honored bride elect Jennifer Clark of Dill Road on Saturday.

Ann Hodges, who will be maid of honor for Miss Clark, Dec. 7, opened her Ottawa Drive home for the affair.

Some 25 guests attended the luncheon affair. Among those present were Mrs. James Scott of Memphis, Tenn., who will be bridesmaid for her sister, and Lynn Veriech of New Orleans, La., who will also be a bridesmaid.

Also present were the honoree's mother, Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Charles A. Stark, of Carlos Drive, mother of the future bridegroom Fred Louis Stark.

Soda Stops Fire

If fat catches fire in a skillet or broiler, throw baking soda on the blaze. Soda smothers the fire by forming carbon dioxide gas which shuts out the oxygen.

Attendants Wear Red

Wed at St. Michael

Diane June Hope chose gowns of ruby red French tulle for her attendants as she married Fire Control Technician J.C. Lawrence. Wayne Fetter USN, Saturday in St. Michael Church.

Parents of the couple are the Leo J. Hopes of Gingsell Court and the Mark J. Fetter of Home Street.

White silk bouquet taffeta and Chantilly lace for the bride was styled with elegant bodice and full gathered coachman-style skirt.

Her bouffant silk illusion veil fell from a sequined headpiece and white orchids accented her bouquet of white carnations.

With honor maid Shirley Hobak, were bridesmaids Sharon Rodden, Nancy Fetter and Patricia Brown.

Cindy Smith as flower girl and Thomas Hope carried the rings for the ceremony performed by Rev. Daniel Briz.

James Zugras performed the duties of best man. Pat Robert Hope of Fort Knox, Ky. ushered with Gerald Oakland of Alexandria, Va. and Bruce Brown.

After the reception in the American Legion Hall, Auburn Heights, the couple left for Niagara Falls en route to Newport News, Va., where he is on nuclear submarine duty.

Peking Raps Aggression

TOKYO (AP) — The Peking People's Daily, official Red Chinese organ, called today for efforts to stop what it termed intensified U.S. aggression in South Viet Nam.

An article by the paper's so-called commentator again charged the United States with the Nov. 1 military coup in Saigon and said "U.S. imperialism is going all out to step up its aggressive war in South Viet Nam."

The article, broadcast by the New China News Agency and monitored here, asserted that "only by waging a resolute struggle to smash all U.S. imperialist maneuvers, military and political, can U.S. imperialism be made to end its aggression and honor the Geneva agreements."

Tulsa Bank Opens With New Policy

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The Southern Hills National Bank of Tulsa reopens today, but the name is the only thing similar to the operation that was shut down Nov. 8.

Southern Hills was ordered closed by Comptroller of Currency James Saxon when a no-service-charge offer to initial depositors caused more business than could be handled.

The bank opened Aug. 5. It had 31,000 depositors when it was closed.

Saxon ordered the bank's assets sold after naming William H. Greenfield of Dallas conservator.

REQUIRED CHARGE

The new directors are headed by Lynn R. Helm, president of the National Bank of Commerce in Tulsa.

Saxon also required the new bank to have a service charge on checking accounts.

All accounts of the defunct Southern Hills National Bank will be transferred to the new model bearing the same name with an "of Tulsa" added.

Many Tulsans who took advantage of the no-service-charge offer found themselves without funds when the bank closed. Unless they had other funds, they had to depend on merchants to hold their checks until the bank opened.

TOO MUCH TIED UP

As the days stretched into weeks, many businessmen found themselves with too much money tied up. Signs became common in Tulsa stores reading, "Southern Hills checks not accepted."

The new directors ran full-page newspaper advertisements telling depositors, "You may start enjoying the normal and rightful convenience of your account Monday morning."

Man Facing Charge of Threat on LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert A. Weatherington, 40, was to be arraigned today in General Sessions Court on a charge of having made an oral threat against the life of President Johnson.

Secret Service agents arrested Weatherington at his home Saturday night.

Police said Weatherington has a record of erratic behavior. He was identified as a former federal construction engineer.

WAS DISCHARGED

The agents said Weatherington complained that he had been discharged by the Army Corps of Engineers because of a nervous condition. He alleged that the President and heads of three local banks were involved in a news blackout of files which would clear his record.

The agents said Weatherington told them that unless the blackout was ended by the President, Johnson would have to die.

More than 250,000 tourists visited St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands during the 1961-62 season and an estimated 300,000 are expected by local officials for 1963-64.

Stylish Leather Boots Prove Welcome Gifts

Fashion-favored leather boots make most welcome gifts. With the wide selection available, and with the great popularity of boots in all styles, lengths, textures and colors, Santa's only problem is likely to be the question of size.

Easy way out is to ask her for a list of her sizes, and the subtle way is to copy the numbers from the inside of her shoes and let the shoe clerk act as decoder. Surest way of all: give a shoe gift certificate!

The Sahara was not always a wasteland. Pictures chiseled and painted on rocks thousands of years ago suggest an area teeming with people. Archaeologists have found 6,000-year-old mummies in the Libyan Desert.

U2 Crash in Gulf Is Fatal to Pilot

LA GRANGE, Ga. (AP) — A U2 plane which went down in the Gulf of Mexico Nov. 28 carried the pilot to his death, the Air Force says.

Members of the family of Capt. Joe G. Hyde Jr., said

Sunday that the Air Force had notified them Saturday that Hyde had gone down with the plane after a mission over Cuba.

A Coast Guard cutter found the wreckage of the high-level reconnaissance plane about 40 miles northwest of Key West, Fla., the day after the crash.

Ask Raise for King

KUALA LUMPUR (AP) — Malaysia's Parliament will be asked to raise the king of Malaysia's living allowance from $72,000 a year to $88,000 a year, the newspaper Straits Times reports.

The state of California produced almost $400 million worth of gold between 1949, when the gold rush started, and 1959.

Policeman Is Held in Wife's Shooting

DETROIT (AP) — An 18-year veteran of the Detroit Police force was held today for investigation of felonious assault in the shooting and wounding of his wife Saturday night. Police officials suspended Patrolman Jack Daugherty, 43, a father of three, after his arrest. His wife, Jacqueline, 38, was reported in fair condition at a Detroit hospital.

Police said Mrs. Daugherty told them her husband shot her twice in the stomach when she threatened to leave him. Daugherty attempted to kill himself with a third shot from his service revolver but failed police said.

Russian Report on Oil Spurs Brazil to Pursue Development

By EDGAR MILLER

RIO DE JANEIRO (U-P) — Brazil's state oil monopoly Petrobras has ended its first decade of existence with a staggering debt to foreign oil companies and a glowing promise of better things to come.

Armed with a Soviet report that Brazil may be rich in oil, Petrobras President Albino Silva has assured Congress that within the next decade Petrobras will be producing all Brazil's oil needs.

The implication in the Soviet report is clear: The oil is here and specialized Soviet drilling equipment can find it.

Meantime, Silva's biggest headache is finding the money to pay for crude oil the state company has bought from foreign companies. Brazil owes about $100 million.

BIG VICTORY

Petrobras was created by the late President Getulio Vargas. Its creation was the first big victory of the growing nationalist government.

Petrobras has since been the darling of ultranationalists and Socialists. Its presidency, designated by the Brazilian president, usually goes to a nationalist leader.

The campaign slogan in battling for a state oil company was "The Petroleum Is Ours." The state company was created to explore for and refine petroleum rather than let foreign companies enter Brazil to drill for oil.

The company hired Walter Link, former chief geologist for Standard Oil, and commissioned him to chart Brazil's potential oil fields.

NOT PROMISING

After six years of work, Link reported that Brazil's petroleum possibilities were small.

He found promising areas in Bahia and other northeast states but said, in general, Brazil's geological makeup was not promising.

Wells in Bahia turn out most of Brazil's annual production of 34 million barrels.

Two Soviet scientists — one a petroleum engineer, the other a specialist in Soviet-manufactured drilling equipment — spent nearly six months here this year and studied previous reports, including Link's.

"The opinion that there doesn't exist petroleum in grand scale in Brazil is not exact," Petrobras said in summary of their conclusions.

Silva quoted scientists E. A. Bakirov and E. I. Tagiev as saying they found Link's "pessimistic and negative evaluation" quite strange.

High on the Soviets' list of musts for increasing production were "priority in purchasing equipment, accelerating installation of injection systems (perfected by the Soviet Union) in existing fields and previewing the same step for other fields of magnitude."

At another point the scientists advocated "introduction of the use of turbines for drilling." The turbo-drill is another method pushed by the Soviets.

Silva in presenting the report dwelled on Soviet advances in petroleum technology.

"The U.S.S.R. is one of the most advanced countries in the world in petroleum technology," he said, adding that Soviet-made equipment "challenges the English and American-made products for first place in the world market."

Brazil produces about 100,000 barrels of crude oil daily. It imports 200,000 barrels.

Venezuela sends 55 per cent of the imports. Saudi Arabia supplies 42.6 per cent. The Soviet Union 2 per cent and Algeria 4 per cent.

Petrobras has ordered 12 new sounding drills from Romania and has announced plans to buy other exploration equipment from Poland, Russia and possibly the United States. Enemies of the state corporation claim it is top-heavy with Communists. Silva, a left-winger, has said he is unable to confirm or deny that there are Communists in Petrobras.

Americans Getting Younger and Older at the Same Time

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

As more of us are born and more of us live longer, Americans seem to be getting both older and younger. By 1970, it is estimated, half the population will be under 20 or over 65.

In the last 15 years the percentage of the average consumer dollar spent on clothing has fallen from 13.7 to 10.1, but we're spending more on such things as housing, foreign travel, education and medical care.

It has been found that kissing speeds up the ordinary man's pulse only five beats a minute. The greeting card industry reports that more 50-cent "To My Wife" Christmas cards are sold than 50-cent "To My Husband" cards. Most wives prefer to stay in the 35-cent or under range.

Our quotable notables: "Sorrows is the mere rust of the soul. Activity will cleanse and brighten it"—Samuel Johnson.

FIVE PER ROOM

In Singapore 29 per cent of the dwelling units contain more than five persons for each room. One in every five American nonfarm families has an income of $10,000 or more a year.

New England folklore: If it snows the day you marry, you will wind up rich. If a young girl likes cats better than dogs she will become an old maid. If you've lost all your teeth, you're suffering from agomphiasis, or toothlessness.

Turkeys are polygamous. The baby who doesn't fall down stairs before he is a year old will turn out a fool.

Experts say that about 75 per cent of the reading areas in American homes are seriously underlighted.

There are more than 28,000 deaths from home accidents each year — and about 40 per cent were those of people over 65 who fall.

LONGEST SERMON

The longest sermon, delivered by Clinton Locy of West Richmond, Wash., in 1955, lasted 48 hours and 18 minutes. When he finished, eight members of the congregation still were on hand.

There are 15,000 different kinds of wine in the world. Chess is the most ancient game of pure skill. Portugal has foreign possessions 23 times its own size. If you can't read 230 words a minute, you're slower than the average.

It was Benjamin Disraeli who observed, "Every man has a right to be conceited until he is successful."

EAGLE SCOUTS — Charles H. Fell (left) and Roger W. Putnam now have one more thing in common. Both have attained the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest in scouting. Both also are 16 years old, juniors at Pontiac Central high school, members of scout troop No. 7, and residents of W. Iroquois Road. Charles lives at 327 W. Iroquois, Roger at 369.

4-H's to Hold Livestock Show

Lower Peninsula Members Will Close 1963 Projects

Nearly 400 4-H Club members from throughout the Lower Peninsula will be closing out 1963 livestock projects during the Detroit Junior Livestock Show in the Motor City Dec. 9-12.

Sponsors of the 34th annual show at the Michigan State Fairgrounds are the Michigan State University 4-H Club department, and industrial, business and livestock firms who are members of the Detroit Junior Livestock Society.

AREA NEWS

2 Area Girls Are Contest Winners

Two Oakland County girls were among the seven winners in the district finals of the Make-It-Yourself-With-Wool Contest Saturday.

Both Donna M. Horning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Horning, 420 W. Maple, West Bloomfield Township, and Kathy Groener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Groener, 1078 Crooks, Avon Township, carried home trophies.

Donna's royal blue dress was designated the garment best coordinated with the girl. The 16-year-old seamstress chose American loomed wool for her entry.

The red wool dress which Kathy wore in the contest was named the best garment by a 14-year-old.

CONTEST ENTRANTS
The contest, sponsored by the American Wool Council, drew 37 entrants this year.

Mrs. John E. Rose, 670 N. Adams, Avon Township, was contest director for the district composed of Oakland, Lapeer, Macomb, Wayne and St. Clair counties.

This is the second year the competition has been held in Michigan and the 17th in the nation.

These youths learn more about producing the steaks and chops being demanded by consumers through participation in this show.

Ralph Morrow, MSU 4-H livestock specialist, expects a record number of entries and keen competition in the lamb, steer and pork carcass classes this year.

Exhibitors will judge their own animals "on-the-spot" and in meat coolers of Detroit meat packing firms following slaughter to see the kind of steaks and chops they are producing.

VIE FOR GLORY

Youths not exhibiting carcass animals will arrive on Dec. 10. Judging will take place on Wednesday when youngsters vie for the glory and glamour that goes with owning one of the grand champions.

The 4-H's will stay at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in downtown Detroit during the week and will be special guests of the society at the annual banquet Wednesday evening.

Special awards will include recognition of the grand champion exhibitors and showmanship winners together with the presentation of a four year MSU scholarship by the Independent Slaughters of Detroit.

Livestock buyers will be on hand for the annual livestock sale on Dec. 12 which closes out the week's activities. The buyers, always active supporters of the show, paid more than $101,000 for some 700 lambs, steers and hogs last year.

Eight-year-old Jeff Chapman and Linda Conner were picked from 44 local children vying for the royal positions. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Chapman, 106 Spezia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Conner, 16 East.

If Reports Warrant Change Agriculture at MSU Faces Revise

EAST LANSING — Agriculture education at Michigan State University may be revised in 1964.

Courses and major fields now are being studied by committees that are scheduled to report their findings early next year.

Changes — if found necessary or desirable — are slated to go into effect by next fall.

MSU's agriculture school last went through a revision in 1958. New majors were instituted, such as agriculture science and agriculture business, while eight survey courses were dropped and the degree of specialization required of the student was reduced.

TWO PRINCIPLES
Two basic underlying principles in the reorganization were to increase the science content in the curriculum and to give students better preparation for graduate studies.

Of the students enrolled in undergraduate four-year programs, reports Richard Swenson, assistant dean and director of resident instruction, about five per cent now actually go to work on farms after graduation.

A long-term survey of graduates showed that an average of about 11 per cent went into farming, Swenson said.

A much higher percentage of so-called "short course" students at MSU go into actual farming.

YOUNG FARMERS
About half the short course students are enrolled in the young farmer program and most of these go into farm work, he said.

The other half are enrolled in industry courses training them in grain and elevator work, or landscape management.

Scholarships Won by 18

CHICAGO (AP) — Eighteen rural youths and girls were named winners today of $500 college scholarships for their 4-H Club work in dairying, bread and field crops production.

The national awards were announced in connection with the 42nd National 4-H Club Congress opening tomorrow in Chicago for a five-mile run.

The winners included Glen Sparks, 16, Cassopolis, Mich. in field crops.

ment, or floriculture, or in farm equipment sales and servicing.

Among the four-year students, the most popular specializations are forestry, fisheries and wildlife, packaging, and agriculture education, Swenson said.

While enrollment at the East Lansing campus jumped from 24,014 in fall 1962 to 27,600 this fall, agriculture school enrollment showed comparatively slight changes.

CHANGES SLIGHT
Enrollment in the undergraduate four-year course went from 155 to 1,176; graduate school figures went from 467 to 498; while short course enrollment dipped from 392 to 378.

Agriculture school dean Thomas Cowden commented recently on agriculture education at a Chicago convention.

Gypsy King Stabbed by 5 Robbers

DETROIT — "Gypsy King" Thomas, Stanley was abducted and stabbed by four men and a woman who, he said, invaded his home last night and stole a bracelet made of gold coins.

Stanley, 51, who styles himself "King of the Gypsies," was in fair condition at Wayne County General Hospital today. He underwent surgery for a stab wound in the left side of his abdomen.

The bracelet, containing fourteen $20 gold coins, was taken from Mrs. Rose Stanley, 28, his daughter-in-law, Stanley said. Stanley told police the five invaders forced him at gunpoint to leave his home and accompany them in a car. He said they freed him in Dearborn after stabbing him. A passing motorist saw Stanley lying at a curb and called police.

Stanley said he could identify all of the group. He said they were gypsies from New York, Boston and Washington, D. C. One of them threatened his life, he said.

Before leaving the house the group tied up Stanley's wife, Anna, and the younger Mrs. Stanley and her husband, George, 27.

In another theft, Dr. Joseph Curhan, 55, chief of obstetrics at New Grace Hospital, reported theft of $13,500 in jewelry from his home on the weekend. Dr. Curhan said the jewels were taken from his wife's jewelry box. He said $15 in cash also was taken. Police said a rear second floor window had been forced while the Curhans were away.

Classes on Income Taxes Prove Popular in Michigan

BY BEN BURNS
LANSING (UPI) — The thought of income tax returns or a summons to the local internal revenue office brings a twinge of conscience to the minds of most adult Americans.

After an instinctive tightening of the stomach muscles on receiving a notice, John Q. Taxpayer, responds with a feeling of worry over making a mistake or irritation over being bothered.

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) like most modern organizations from funeral directors to the smoked fish industry, is concerned about its public image.

So for the past nine years the IRS has run a "teaching taxes program" with free workbooks to students and kits to teachers who asked for them throughout the United States.

SUCCESS STORY

And the story of the program is one of success. More than 3.2 million students and 80,000 teachers participated in the program during the past academic year.

In Michigan, more than 3,000 teachers are using IRS kits and student participation exceeds 150,000 according to John H. Grant, chief of the administration division of the Detroit division.

"The teaching taxes program is designed to stimulate voluntary compliance with federal income tax laws by furnishing, cost free, teachers' kits and student guides to schools whose teachers desire them," Grant said.

"These materials have a nine-year success record with approximately 85 per cent overall participation in the state of Michigan," he said.

STUDENTS DOUBLE

The number of students learning how to fill out federal income tax forms has doubled in the past decade, according to school officials.

Each kit contains a teacher's manual, student work book, instructions for preparing forms 1040 and 1040A and blowups of returns for classroom use.

For teachers in farm areas, the kit also contains workbooks which are designed by the government to apply specifically to farm problems and a farmers' tax guide.

Nearly 50,000 applications for materials were mailed to superintendents of schools, directors of education, deans of colleges and universities as well as junior and senior high schools on the IRS mailing list in September.

MAIL MATERIAL

Materials will be mailed in February coinciding with the next filing season.

"The purpose of the program is to enable teachers to:

- Increase student understanding of civic responsibilities.
- Enhance the student's understanding of internal revenue service functions.
- Encourage good habits of preparing and filing tax returns.

Which is all a fancy way of saying that income taxes are a headache to both Mr. Taxpayer and the Internal Revenue Service officials who must deal with the returns from a large number of very different individuals.

It would make the IRS officials' job easier if everyone would file honest returns while understanding their civic responsibilities.

And it confirms the suspicion that it takes a teacher or a tax lawyer to explain an income tax return.

Woman Killed in Crash

FRANKLIN, Ind. (AP)—Mrs. Eva M. Sneyry, 73, of Traverse City, Mich., was killed Sunday in a collision of two automobiles on U. S. 31 just north of here. Sheriff's officers reported Mrs. Sneyry's husband, Leroy, 73, turned his car into the path of another auto.

Lunch Program Hurt—Senator

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. William Proxmire complained today that "phony economy" in Congress has forced a reduction in milk for the national school lunch program.

The Wisconsin Democrat said in a statement that the taxpayer will get no saving from the 2 per cent cut in reimbursements for school milk purchases. The federal government will have to buy the additional surplus, Proxmire said.

The order means, he said, that "all children who are benefitting from this program will have to pay more for milk or will obtain less milk, or both."

"The taxpayer gets no benefit. The school children are deprived of this milk. But the milk is still produced and jammed into storage where it continues to burden the taxpayer with storage costs," Proxmire said.

Weaker Sex Really Is

KINGSTON, England (UPI)—Men, take heart! Women are the weaker sex after all.

Dr. Frey Ellis and Dr. Michael Cox announced today that they made a survey of 102 patients who complained of fatigue, and discovered that 78 of them were women.

The old saw about "women's work is never done" had nothing to do with it, the doctors said. In the first place, women bring on most of their fatigue by worrying too much, they said. Secondly, they claimed, sitting at a desk all day is more tiring than scrubbing clothes.

The doctors noted that women got their reputation for being the harder sex because they live longer. This, they said, may actually be due to fatigue.

They explained that the fatigue induces women to rest, which relieves the strain that eventually kills their husbands.

The Kuril Islands lying between Alaska and Siberia derived their name from Russia's "kuril" which is the word for smoking. Active volcanoes are reported on the islands.

Euromart, Britain Eye State of Cold War

PARIS (UPI)—The Western European Union (WEU), a seven-nation organization of the Common Market nations and Britain, today understood its first assessment of the state of the cold war since President Kennedy's death.

The four-day talks will range over disarmament, the strength of North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) forces, relations with Russia since the test ban, and prospects for renewed understanding between Britain and the Common Market.

The defense discussions will serve as a preliminary for the NATO council meeting here in two weeks' time. Britain and the market nations — France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Holland, and Luxembourg — all belong to both WEU and NATO.

As the WEU delegates gathered for their meeting here, two conferences in Luxembourg and Brussels were taking up Common Market trade problems.

PROPOSED HIKE

crease in steel tariffs in the Luxembourg meeting.

Germany, Italy and France favor increasing steel tariffs to 9 per cent from their present 5 to 6 per cent. Belgium and the Netherlands oppose the rise.

President Johnson made known U.S. disapproval of the move last month while touring Europe as vice president. He said the increase would contaminate the atmosphere at next year's world-wide tariff talks in Geneva.

Increased tariffs on poultry already have shut the United States out of the frozen chicken market in Europe. This is the key to the celebrated "chicken war."

MAIN TOPIC
In Brussels, that was the main topic in a two-day meeting of Common Market foreign ministers. It was learned they will be advised by the market high commission to accept the chicken war settlement recommended last month by an international board.

United States lost $26 million in trade. New some means must be found to compensate the United States, either through increased U.S. tariffs on European goods or lower European tariffs on United States goods.

Eighteen states require time off with pay when needed for workers leaving to vote.

Bowl Bid Hinges on Academy Game

Navy clash was pushed back one week and a 30-day period of mourning was declared for the armed services.

—Army-Navy.
When that one is decided, the Cotton Bowl visitors' spot will be filled—either by Navy or Pitt. And when the Cotton Bowl is decided the others are expected to fall in line just like knocking over the first of a row of dominoes.

The Middies definitely won't go if they fail in their bid for their fifth straight victory over Army. If they win, the whole delicate situation will land in the lap of the Pentagon and may even end up on the desk of President Johnson.

If Navy doesn't go, the honor almost certainly will go to Pitt, which has lost only to Navy and marked up its eighth victory with a 31-20 decision over Miami, Fla. Saturday night.

Washington won its way into the Rose Bowl on the running of fullback Junior Coffey in a 16-0 triumph over Washington State that sealed the Big Six title Saturday. The Huskies take only a 6-4 mark into the game against Big Ten champ, Illinois.

ANN ARBOR (UPI) — The heralded Michigan basketball team, with Bill Buntin back in the good graces and Cazzie Russell fresh from a sensational collegiate debut, tonight kicks off its long-awaited 1963-64 home season.

The Wolverines, who opened the season with a 90-76 triumph over Ball State Saturday night, host Tulane tonight. Coach Dave Strack got 52 points from two sophomores — Russell and Jim Myers — in the opener.

The Wolverines, long a basketball doormat, are expected to jump into the national cage limelight this season. They'll do that, too, if the opener was any indication.

Russell scored 30 points and Myers 22 as Michigan won easily although Buntin was suspended for disciplinary reasons and didn't even make the trip to Muncie, Ind., where the Wolverines helped dedicate a new fieldhouse.

Buntin, who was the Big Ten's leading rebounder and scored 22.3 points a game last season while leading the club to a 16-8 regular season mark and an 8-6 Big Ten record, was reinstated yesterday and will play against Tulane.

Teen Admits Fenton Slaying

2nd Youth Nabbed,
Said to Be Lookout

FLINT (AP) — A juvenile boy has admitted the stabbing and shotgun slaying of a Fenton Township man Saturday while another youth acted as a lookout, Genesee County sheriff's men said Sunday.

Detective Raymond Dudley identified the boys as Gary Holland, 15, and Danny Mungall, 14, both neighbors of the victim, Gordon Bowen, 44, a factory worker.

Dudley said the Holland boy admitted he stabbed and then shot Bowen after Bowen struck him. Holland was scheduled to appear before Judge George D. Stevens in a probate court hearing today. Both boys were held in the juvenile section of Genesee County jail.

The Mungall boy acted as a lookout during the slaying, Dudley said.

LYING FACE DOWN

Bowen's body was found lying face down in his home in the Potomac Lake area between Linden and Fenton, about 12 miles south of Flint. A telephone was still clutched in his hand. Police said he had used it to call for aid before he died.

Holland told Dudley he had gone to Bowen's house Sunday to borrow bread. He said Bowen accused him of stealing $235 last summer and had struck the boy with his fist. Dudley quoted Holland as saying he stabbed Bowen with a kitchen knife and then ran home, got a 12-gauge shotgun, returned and fired at Bowen through a window. Deputies said Holland's boots fitted footprints under a broken window at Bowen's house.

Dudley said the boy told him he returned later and fired a second shot into Bowen's back as he lay on the floor.

Dudley said Holland admitted taking the $235 from Bowen last August and giving $110 of it to Mungall.

Robert F. Leonard, Genesee County Prosecutor, said Bowen, a Fisher Body employee, often kept an eye on neighborhood children when their parents were out.

An autopsy indicated death came from either the first or second shotgun wound. The knife was not found.

Skipper Sails on to Hawaii After Mishap

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Feliz Noble had had nothing but trouble with his homemade boats, but he is once again sailing toward Hawaii, the first leg of his planned world cruise.

Noble, 61, and his crewman, Andrew N. Paldan, 18, of Detroit, Mich., were rescued Saturday by a Japanese fishing boat 600 miles off San Diego. They had been adrift for four days with a broken rudder.

Paldan decided he had enough. He got a ride back to shore on a U.S. Navy radar picket ship. Noble stayed with his boat, fixed the rudder, and reset his course for Hawaii.

"He won't give up 'til he's dead," said Noble's wife, Mary-lee, in San Diego. "I'm real happy that he's been found—but I don't think he's coming home."

Noble's other boats smashed against rocks.

Hit, Killed by Car

WACO, TEX. (AP)—A Battle Creek serviceman and three other persons were killed Sunday when they were struck by a car at the scene of an auto fire, a mile south of the central Texas town of Bruceville.

Johnny Ray Barrone, 22, of Battle Creek, and two fellow soldiers, all stationed at Ft. Hood, Tex., had stopped to help a civilian whose car had caught fire.

Investigators said another car, occupied by two other Ft. Hood soldiers, struck and killed all four on Interstate 35.

More Persons Visited

the U. S. This Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States played host to 71,400 visitors from overseas during October, 43 per cent more than during October 1962, the Commerce Department said today.

629,600 the total number of foreigners visiting the United States for business or pleasure during the first 10 months of 1963, an increase of 21 per cent over the comparable period of 1962.

A survey reveals there are some 4,000 photographic clubs within the West German school system.

Chinese Likes England

LONDON — Ho Sung Leung is Chinese. But he is so proud to be living in England that he has given his eight children English names. And yesterday he took six of them to be baptized at All Saints Church in suburban Ealing.

"My wife and I thought 11 years ago that it would be easier to have all our children baptized at the same time. But we didn't know then how big the family was going to be," said Ho.

The two oldest children, Tommy, 14, and David, 13, were baptized when they were babies.

Baptized in yesterday's ceremony were Lucy, 11; Peter, 10; Paul, 8; Margaret, 7; Steven, 5; and baby Geoffrey, 6 weeks.

WHY THE NAMES?

Ho Sun, 41, who runs a chain of Chinese restaurants, was asked why he gave his children English names. He said:

"I like England so much and I am very proud to live here. I had the children baptized in the Church of England because I intend them to stay in this country."

The vicar of All Saints, the Rev. Max Humphrey, said: "I've never before baptized six children at once."

There were 18 godparents at the ceremony for the six children. Fourteen of them were British.

Pravda Says U.S. Asking About Oswald Trip Money

MOSCOW — Pravda's New York correspondent said today U.S. authorities investigating President Kennedy's assassination are asking where Lee Harvey Oswald got money for a trip to Mexico last summer.

Boris Strelnikov, correspondent of the Communist party newspaper, said Oswald was jobless for long periods of time but managed to get money for the trip. He said newspapers learned that the FBI was trying to find who gave him the money.

Strelnikov said American newspapers told him thousands of letters were pouring into the White House and the Justice Department "with a unanimous demand that the killer of the President be found and punished."

Pravda quoted newspapers in New Delhi and Vienna as accusing right-wing "ultras" of being responsible for Kennedy's assassination.

OFF THE DEFENSIVE

None of the Soviet newspapers in recent days has made any serious attempt to defend Oswald, a sharp contrast to the cry put up by the newspapers immediately after Kennedy's assassination when Dallas police began associating Oswald with Communists.

The communist newspapers are now taking on Western reports that Oswald really was anti-Soviet and under the influence of right-wing extremists.

Strelnikov said the FBI was conducting their investigation with less publicity than was in the case with the Dallas police.

He quoted the New York Times as saying Americans were fearful and distrustful because so many questions about the assassination are unanswered.

He cited a newspaper report quoting the chief superintendent of the jail where Jack Ruby is being held for the murder of Oswald, as saying that he was fearful Ruby might be poisoned before his trial.

'QUOTE SUPERINTENDENT'

He said American papers also were quoting the superintendent as saying Ruby was claiming his friends would not let him down.

The Pravda reporter added that the chief superintendent, whose name was not given, "probably suspects Ruby's relatives will attempt on the President's life."

Pravda yesterday published a report from Harry Freeman,

Tass reporter in New York, citing a Fort Worth report that a stenographer told a newsman once typed notes for a book Oswald wanted to write. She said the notes criticized the Soviet Union.

The Communist party newspaper quoted French papers as saying that "Oswald felt an obvious antipathy toward the Soviet Union and on his return to the United States (after a stay in the Soviet Union) made slanderous statements against the Soviet system. That apparently throws light on the probable reason for Oswald's trip to the U.S.S.R."

Soviet newspapers have avoided printing anything about Oswald's three-year stay in the Soviet Union beyond a mention that he once worked in Minsk and later returned to the United States with a Russian wife and their baby.

Russian Jets to Get Missiles

NEW DELHI — Soviet MIG21 fighters to be built in India will be equipped with air-to-air guided missiles, a defense ministry spokesman said today.

This was the first official confirmation that the Soviet Union has agreed to let India arm its delta-wing supersonic jets with missiles.

The disclosure came after the defense production minister, K. Raghu Ramiah, told parliament a new electronics factory to be constructed at Hyderabad will make guided missiles and other equipment including radar for Migs. Indian officials estimate the first planes will be ready in 1965.

The Indian Air Force has six MIG21s and will get six more from the Soviet Union under an agreement signed about 18 months ago.

BEARS OUT STATEMENTS

Manufacture of radar for the MIGs bears out U.S. official statements that American ground control radar supplied to India will not be used in the MIGs for obvious security reasons.

Raghu Ramiah also told parliament India had asked the Soviet Union to make some improvements in MIGs to be manufactured in India based on experience gained since the Chinese Communist attack on India in the autumn of 1962.

The Indian Air Force saw no combat against the Chinese because neither side used air power in the short Himalayan war.

The MIGs are roughly in the same class with the American F104, of which Pakistan has one squadron. American military aid to India has included no fighter planes.

Youth Listed Good After Truck Mishap

A Troy youth is in good condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital after the pickup truck he was driving overturned yesterday on Auburn near Avon Manor in Avon Township.

Ronald W. Keszelsky, 17, of 828 John R. suffered scalp cuts in the 11 a.m. accident.

He told sheriff's deputies he was forced off the road when a car he was passing pulled out in front of him.

The other driver, Ernest C. Sova, 18, of Cheboygan, said he did not see Keszelsky until it was too late.

Passengers in both vehicles were not hospitalized.

Sports Cars to Microscopes

Toyland, 1963, will continue the trend toward the reality of the adult world.

From space orbiting down to automatic can openers, this year's toys will provide children with the widest scope ever for imitative play.

Santa's pack may include a "cub set" of heavy gauge steel that permits a boy to custom design a station wagon, sports car or a utility pickup truck, by using interchangeable roofs and doors.

A playroom housekeeper may be thrilled with what she can do with a miniature washing machine.

WATCH CLOTHES

It has a door that opens to receive a load of laundry, and an automatic timer she can set to whirl and tumble the clothes in a simulated buildup of suds as she watches through a window in the door.

That classic, musical chairs, has been reduced to table-top proportions suitable for modern apartments and houses that lack room for the usual hub-bub.

A merry-go-round of plastic has a music box in the center to play gay tunes as the wheel is whirled.

When the music stops, teddy bear pieces in an outside ring are moved to an inner ring where one space is removed on

TALKING DOLLS

Talking dolls still abound. And a new twist is one in a stroller that a little girl can make talk without ever touching the doll. She activates the doll's speech by pulling a cord attached to the stroller handle.

A child's yearning to participate in the space age can be catered to with a new construction set with which a space wheel, two feet, four inches tall, can be built.

When assembled, the space wheel with its eight satellites can be turned on through a battery-operated control.

Another realm of science is opened up by new microprojector Slides or specimens can be enlarged many times and projected on a viewing screen or on a piece of paper for tracing, and the fact of the instrument can be used for accurately tracing the viewed objects too.

The mystery of flying still lures children. And a new plane comes complete with a mechanism that ejects a pilot from the cockpit and parachutes him to earth.

Novelities among toys this year include a dog that catches a ball when it is rolled into its mouth, gives it back when his ear is tweaked and then walks away.

Latest voice command toy is a cannon which shoots only when the child says "fire!" The toy is keyed to bucanier style warfare and includes pirate figures for targets.

Fun for all ages is a new version of the marble maze principle. The object is to shake marbles enclosed in a plastic lollipop into the stick handle of the toy.

Playboy in Vegas for Divorce

By The Associated Press
 International playboy Francisco (Baby) Fighetti has set into a five-room suite at a luxury hotel at Las Vegas and says he is establishing residence to get a divorce.

His wife is the former Virginia Ira von Furstenberg, ex-wife of Prince Alfonso Hohenlohe of Austria. She married Fighetti at Reno, Nev., in 1960.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's son-in-law says U.S.-Soviet relations "were constantly improving" under John F. Kennedy, and adds: "I want to hope that President Johnson will continue the line of the late President Kennedy."

Asked if he had any doubts, Alexei Adzhubei, editor of the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia, told a newsmen: "I have no telephone line now to the Kremlin."

Adzhubei was in Bangkok to attend an international conference of journalists sponsored by the United Nations.

President-elect Chung Hse Park of South Korea says his political opponents "should assume a constructive posture to bring about political stability and try to alleviate the economic hardships of the people."

The statement was Park's first formal comment on last week's election, in which his party won 110 of the 175 seats in the South Korean House.

Several opposition candidates have accused the military government headed by Park of election irregularities.

Outside his curtained living room windows, a line of children is in constant formation. For his off-duty hours, there is a mailbox, and the quantities of letters that pile up are faithfully answered by staff members of the local chamber of commerce who neatly straddle the question of gift requests by saying, "When I get to your house on Christmas Eve, I will undoubtedly have SOME of the things you asked for."

TOO YOUNG?
 "Sometimes, you know, little boys and girls ask me for presents that they are not old enough to have, or maybe shouldn't have, for some reason. I always have to keep this in mind when I am filling my pack and loading my sleigh."

The town Christmas celebration originated back in 1940 with Santa and a few cutout figures ornamenting the green.

After a hiatus during World War II, the green decorations became an artistic project headed by the chamber of commerce with the help of the town of Morristown, the churches, business firms, and fraternal, patriotic and civic organizations.

The green itself is governed by a self-perpetuating committee.

This year there'll be 50-15 foot trees, strung with thousands of lights, as well as a large community tree and a permanent gold star tree.

ON GUARD
 Ten toy soldiers will stand at stiff attention. Two rocking chairs and a rocking reindeer will stand ready to give thousands of children an exhilarating ride.

And in one corner of the green, stately camels will approach the Nativity scene.

In the late fall there will be a Jingle Bell breakfast where merchants volunteer to donate funds for refurbishing Santa Land.

Says Ken Kostenbader, executive director of the chamber of commerce, "It costs about $5,500 a year to keep the decorations up to date."

By the first week of December, Santa Land will be ready. When Santa's arrival date is announced, there'll be about 45,000 people at the green to see him.

Arriving (supposedly by helicopter) on the top of a department store, Santa comes down the fire department ladder, rides triumphantly around the green on a fire truck, and then steps down to push the switch that sets Santa Land aglow.

A murmur goes up from the crowd. Children ride high on their fathers' shoulders for a better view.

And the magic of Christmas has come again.

They Keep It 1-Santa Town

MORRISTOWN, N. J. (AP)—This pre-Revolutionary town, which has succeeded through the years in preserving the spirit of '76, has also managed to withstand the commercialism of the holiday season and preserve the spirit of Christmas.

There is only one Santa Claus in town at Yuletide, probably the only town in the country that does not produce Santa in triplicate.

He reigns supreme in his comfortable cottage in Santa Land, which is the holiday name given to the two-acre green at the town's center.

Outside his curtained living room windows, a line of children is in constant formation. For his off-duty hours, there is a mailbox, and the quantities of letters that pile up are faithfully answered by staff members of the local chamber of commerce who neatly straddle the question of gift requests by saying, "When I get to your house on Christmas Eve, I will undoubtedly have SOME of the things you asked for."

Ticket Scalping To Be Probed

NEW YORK (AP)—The state attorney general's office will conduct hearings next week on reports of collusion between the state to scalp tickets to the Broadway shows for as much as $75 apiece.

The Dec. 10-11 hearings, announced Sunday by Atty. Gen. Louis F. Lefkowitz, also will investigate alleged bribes to theater employees to supply blocks of choice seats, alleged kickbacks to producers from theatrical supply houses, and practices "which may have victimized some investors."

Lefkowitz said some investors in Broadway productions "never received an adequate accounting of their money or any report of how the money was spent."

Producers, directors and performers are expected to testify. Lefkowitz said his office began the probe more than eight months ago after investors in productions both on and off Broadway complained of loose bookkeeping practices by some producers.

CASH SUPPLY
 Her cash supply had dwindled from $21 to 30 cents, and her meals consisted of a candy bar Friday and a hamburger Saturday.

She told police she headed for Detroit to look for her mother, Theresa, who, her father said, left home last month, leaving only a note that she would send money home.

April left her father, Carl, who is employed as a mechanic, a note Monday in which she said:

"I really don't want to do this, but I can't stand to see you grieve for Momma as if she was dead. She isn't and I'll find her and prove it."

CHECKED RESTAURANTS
 She told Whitehall Police Chief Robert Vanderhaar that she had checked every restaurant she passed. Her mother once had worked as a waitress.

She never made it to Detroit, but turned around and headed for home Thanksgiving day after she reached Lansing.

April said she had slept outdoors covered only by the clothes, she wore, which included a quilted jacket with a hood.

"I just zipped up my coat and went to sleep curled up," she said.

Police said there still was no word of April's mother.

New Parents Find Lot to Be Thankful For

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thanksgiving 1963 was especially meaningful to four Michigan couples who left Los Angeles this weekend for home with their newly adopted Korean War orphans.

They had arrived on a chartered plane from St. Ilan, Korea, the site of an orphanage near Seoul, as part of a group of 50 American couples who adopted 76 orphans. The children ranged in age from six months to 13 years.

The Michigan couples were Mr. and Mrs. David Lubben of Holland, the Rev. and Mrs. Morris Bauman of Elkton, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Katz of Battle Creek and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Brower of Spring Lake.

The flight was sponsored by American Mothers of Adopted Korean Children, an organization started by an Oregon farmer, Henry Holt, to find homes for the youngsters.

Assassination Cost Networks $32 Million

WASHINGTON (UPI)—It cost the nation's radio and television networks an estimated $32 million to broadcast the events surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy.

Broadcasting Magazine said that during the four days of broadcasting more than 2,100 network employees in this country and abroad were involved at one time or another in working on the story.

The magazine said that, based on the best available estimates, the costs included the $18.8 million lost through elimination of television commercials; $8.8 million lost in radio commercials; $3.3 million in commissions to advertising agencies and salesmen, and $3.1 million for television and radio coverage of the story.

Cost of farm-grown foods since 1947-1949 has risen only 14 percent, but processing and marketing costs have risen 40 percent.

Teen Ends 5-Day Hunt for Mother

WHITEHALL (AP)—A pretty, 16-year-old high school junior, who left home last Monday to search for her missing mother, returned—cold, broke, hungry and alone—Saturday.

April Jill Cooper went to Grand Rapids police for help after sleeping outdoors three nights and waking up Saturday "covered with snow."

"I was frozen," she told police. "I decided I'd better do something."

'Findings Aid Ruby's Case'

Lawyer Confident as Murder Trial Looms

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A defense lawyer predicts the findings of federal investigators will bolster the case of Jack Ruby, who shot down the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy.

There are increasing signs, meanwhile, of probable delay in the murder trial of Ruby, tentatively set to start next Monday.

Ruby, 32, owner of a downtown strip tease joint, remained under close guard today in the county jail. He has been held without bond since the televised shooting Nov. 24 of Lee Harvey Oswald, charged with firing the shots which killed Kennedy and a Dallas policeman two days earlier.

"When the government's report of the Oswald case comes out," defense lawyer Tom Howard said Sunday night, "I believe that public opinion in favor of Ruby will be stronger than ever because it will prove conclusively there was absolutely no connection between Ruby and Oswald."

Marguerite Oswald, mother of the slain suspect, asserted she was sure her son did not kill President Kennedy. In angry tones she blamed authorities on guard and asked in a Fort Worth interview why Oswald, who sought to renounce U.S. citizenship when he went to the Soviet Union in 1959, was not under surveillance.

H. Hodges and Budget Director Kermit Gordon follow hard on the heels of a busy Sunday at the White House for the new President.

At his desk yesterday, Johnson drafted a letter to defense contractors asking their cooperation in cutting defense costs, and the White House announced the dates when West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard, Italian President Antonio Segni and British Prime Minister Sir Alec Douglas-Home will visit him.

Johnson begins his work day today with an early morning visit from Whitney Young, ex-

Johnson, his wife and two daughters attended services yesterday at St. Mark's Episcopal church. Then the Johnson family drove to Arlington National Cemetery where he placed a bouquet of red roses on the grave of his assassinated predecessor, John F. Kennedy.

TALKED TO STAFF

From the cemetery, the Johnsons drove to the White House. The President conferred with some members of his staff and talked by telephone to McNamara, Gordon and Comptroller General Joseph Campbell in connection with his appeal defense contractors to help in carrying out his pledge to "get a dollar's value for a dollar spent."

The visits of Erhard, Segni and Douglas-Home are in line with Johnson's vow to carry out Kennedy's objective of strengthening ties within the Atlantic alliance.

Erhard will confer with Johnson Dec. 27-28 at the Johnson ranch near Johnson City, Tex. Segni will pay a state visit to Washington Jan. 14-15, and Douglas-Home will come to Washington for talks with Johnson Dec. 12-13.

President Charles de Gaulle of France also is expected to visit the United States next year, but no date has been set.

LBJ Welds Political Coalition

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is losing no time welding the labor-Negro-liberal political coalition he will need behind him for any successful bid for election next year.

The new Chief Executive already has enlisted organized labor in his cause by numerous calls to union leaders asking for their help in bearing the burden thrown on him by the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

Negro leaders like Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, have been brought into consultation.

Wilkins' reaction after a White House visit was that he had "very great faith" in Johnson's stand on civil rights. Whitney Young, executive director of the National Urban League, is a White House caller today.

LIBERALS RALLY

Democratic liberals like Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota have rallied to Johnson's side. The President has asked Kennedy's liberal advisers, notably Arthur M. Schlesinger Jr., to stay on.

Most observers believe Johnson will adopt the Kennedy administration's strategy for the 1964 campaign of concentrating on the populous industrial states while trying to hold on to at least part of the South.

There will be differences, of course, because Kennedy was much more popular in the industrial states than Johnson, who in turn was more popular in the South.

But no one close to him believes that Johnson is going to soften the vigorous stand he has taken for civil rights legislation and he may be considerably less popular in the South next November than he is today.

INDICATED IN SPEECH

Johnson indicated in a speech to the Liberal party of New York in mid-October how the Kennedy-Johnson team expected to meet what he predicted would be "incessant criticisms of national policy" from the opposition.

Critics would be asked, he said, if they were "really opposed to a tax cut that will stimulate the growth of the American economy, provide more jobs for Americans aid, in the end, produce more tax revenue from higher earnings."

Court Upholds School Closing

RICHMOND, Va. — The Virginia Supreme Court said today Prince Edward County had the right to close its public schools to avoid racial integration.

In a 6-1 split decision, the majority said the Virginia Constitution gives its localities the option of operating or not operating public schools.

The dissenting judge was Chief Justice John Eggleston, who held that the state legislature was obliged to provide public education in the county which abandoned it four years ago.

The final adjudication in the long-fought school case hinged in part on the action of the Virginia high court. The case is already before the U.S. Supreme court on its latest trip.

FUNDS REFUSED

Prince Edward abandoned its public school system in 1959 in the face of court-ordered integration. It took the move by refusing to appropriate local matching school funds.

Venezuelans Back Leoni for President

Heavy Turnout Gives Betancourt Support Despite Terrorists

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Raul Leoni, portly candidate of President Romulo Betancourt's Democratic Action party, maintained his lead today in unofficial returns from Venezuela's presidential election.

An overwhelming turnout of voters in yesterday's balloting handed a crushing defeat to Castroite terrorists who sought to scuttle the election.

Unofficial returns from 17 per cent of the votes gave Leoni a lead of nearly 14,000 over an independent rival, Arturo Usiar Pietri, a former assistant professor of Spanish-American literature at New York's Columbia University.

Official returns from 3 per cent of the votes gave Leoni the lead but put Usiar Pietri in fourth place.

After a night of gun fights in Caracas between police and the pro-Communist terrorists, vote tabulations appeared to be slower than usual. There was no explanation.

The unofficial returns gave Leoni 134,291 votes; Usiar Pietri, 120,733; Jovito Villalba of the Republican Democratic Union, 112,654; Rafael Caldera of the Social Democrats, 68,404; Wolfgang Larrazabal of the Democratic Popular Force, 52,855.

The remainder of the votes were scattered among the lesser candidates, Raul Ramos Gimenez, dissident Democratic Action; and German Borrales of the Rightist Authentic National Movement.

Official returns gave Leoni 27,291; Villalba, 17,766; Caldera, 17,748; and Usiar Pietri, 16,419.

Returns from the congressional race were lagging.

$6.9-Million Budget Proposed for City

City Manager Robert A. Carter has submitted a proposed $6,948,234 city budget for 1964 to the City Commission.

The budget proposal includes operating expenses, capital improvement and debt retirement funds.

It is $179,348 above the 1963 budget total.

The proposal went to commissioners by mail this weekend, just beating the Dec. 1 deadline for submitting the budget proposal.

Preparation of the proposed budget, under way for the past two months, was supervised by Assistant City Manager John F. Reincke.

Commissioners will now have until Jan. 31 to study and revise the proposed allocations. The City Charter requires the budget be adopted before Feb. 1 each year.

Reincke proposes that the budget be financed by a $4,514,043 tax levy with $2,434,191 estimated as income from other sources.

The proposed tax levy is $36.89 above the 1963 tax levy.

The city's operating budget, which accounts for most of the total budget figure, is proposed at $6,261,834, or $175,731 higher than this year's operating budget.

IMPROVEMENT FUND

Reincke proposed a $158,400 capital improvement fund, about $3,949 above the 1963 capital improvement fund.

The debt retirement fund remains at $168,000 in the proposed total budget.

Major increases in the proposed budget stem from the need to staff a new north side fire station and a community recreation center scheduled for completion next year.

Other increases are due to increased life insurance for city employees and hikes in street lighting and election costs.

The budget, according to Reincke, is based on the city's present $280,480,500 total assessed valuation.

LOWER COST

The sanitation and waste collection appropriations have been reduced $51,377 due to the lower cost of Pontiac's new combined curb-side pickup program.

Other departments and their recommended budget cuts include street and highway maintenance ($140,000), parks and recreation ($54,000), library ($32,000), judicial ($11,000), and public service facilities ($158,000).

At present, the 1963 budget is all but spent. There's a $454,000 balance showing. The catch is that about all of it is already committed and can't be touched.

On top of all this, urban renewal land values have dropped from the resale prices estimated when the project began.

Land Purchase Cost Seen as One Reason

(This is the third in a series on urban renewal.)

By DIK SAUNDERS
Upon his taking over as city manager, one of Robert A. Carter's first impressions of Pontiac was from its urban renewal program.

He told the City Commission, "You have reached a point where you might as well get used to your urban renewal office coming up with a problem every day, and a crisis twice a week."

One of those crises is money. The R20 project is broke.

Of the original $5-million budget, there is less than $5,000 left in the till.

The cost of buying land in the R20 project is one reason why the project is behind a financial eight ball.

HIGHER THAN ESTIMATED

It was $230,000 above the estimated cost, according to James L. Bates, director of planning and urban renewal.

"Remember, we didn't have previous experience to base our R20 budget on," Bates said. "We had to guess. Some of our guesses were good and some weren't."

The long condemnation case which resulted in higher land costs, also helped boost expenditures for legal services, appraisers' fees and other acquisition costs some $22,000 above the original budget estimate.

The Gifts of Christmas

knife, a stick of fire, and a cord of wood, the puzzled boy asked his father, "Where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

The trusting lad's question pierced deep into Abraham's tortured soul. Tears flooded the old man's eyes. "My son, God will provide Himself a lamb for a burnt offering."

Quickly the anguished father built the sacrificial altar, laid his son upon it and raised the knife high to slay him. But at that moment, having proved his faithfulness and obedience even in so great a test, Abraham was released by God from the command to sacrifice his son.

GOD SUFFERED
Yet God Himself suffered that which He spared Abraham. To satisfy the demand of eternal justice, to redeem a world fallen into sin, God offered as a sacrifice His firstborn and beloved Son, Jesus. His only begotten in the flesh.

"Behold the Lamb of God."

Into a world of sin and sorrow did He have Him come, born in lowly circumstance, to descend below all things: Jesus the Christ, the one perfect Being, who alone could atone for the sins of man.

EVERLASTING LIFE
"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Even would the Father see Him hang upon the cross.

"Behold my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

This supreme gift did a loving father give to His children, that they—ye—might each have the privilege of eternal life. This was the first great gift of Christmas.

Asian Ruler Dead; N. Y. Deb Is Queen

CALCUTTA, India (UPI) — The Maharaja of Sikkim, ruler of the small Himalayan border state, died today. His son became the new king and his daughter-in-law, former New York debutante Hope Cooke, Sikkim's first foreign-born queen.

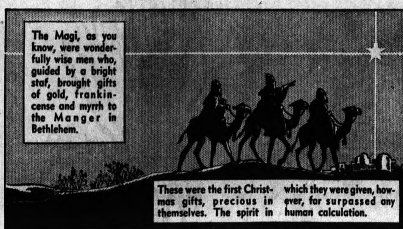

The maharaja, who was 71, died in a nursing home here. The former Miss Cooke, 22, and her husband, Palden Thondup Namgyal, were at his bedside.

The maharaja was treated last week by Dr. William T. Foley, a well-known diagnostician and chief of the cardiovascular clinic at the New York Hospital Cornell Medical Center.

The Magi, as you know, were wonderfully wise men who, guided by a bright star, brought gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh to the Manger in Bethlehem.

These were the first Christmas gifts, precious in themselves. The spirit in which they were given, however, far surpassed any human calculation.

One of our best loved Christmas stories is "The Gift of the Magi." It might never have been written if a New York newspaper editor had not picked up a magazine in a train in November, 1902.

Return Mail
Not Ordered

Unordered merchandise sent by mail this holiday season should be returned unopened to postal authorities, warns State Attorney General Frank J. Kelley.

Kelley said addressees can return such letters or packages to the mailman as "refused." Once mail has been opened, however, it cannot take this action. An additional safeguard, Kelley explained, are postal regulations which prohibit the sending of any unordered merchandise C.O.D. Violations should be reported to the Post Office Department.

"My advice to anyone who gets unordered merchandise is to return unopened at once to the mailman or local post office."

"To do otherwise may well result in becoming legally responsible for payment of merchandise you did not order and do not want."

One Yank Killed, One Hurt in Viet Nam Red Ambush

BRUNEI (AP)—A British military officer says terrorists based in Indonesian Borneo undoubtedly are planning more and heavier raids on East Malaysia.

The officer, stationed at the Brunei headquarters of Britain's North Borneo command, said he expects terrorist activity to spread along the 800-mile jungle border between Indonesia and the Malaysian states of Sabah and Sarawak, which surround Brunei.

"Undoubtedly things will get worse," the officer said. "There will be more incidents as the terrorists try to bully the border people into shifting their allegiance from the Malaysian government."

In the past seven months, terrorist attacks have been confined to Sarawak. Some sources predict North Borneo soon may be a trouble spot. Indonesian commandos are reported in place on Sibatik Island, just off the east coast and shared by Malaysia and Indonesia.

Authoritative sources report some Indonesians working in North Borneo have set up jungle training camps for guerrillas.

The British officer said there is conclusive proof that Indonesia is behind the border incursions. He said some of the attacks were led by Indonesian regular officers and that one Indonesian commando officer was killed on Sibatik while on a reconnaissance patrol.

Indonesia's present aim, the Briton said, is to weaken the will of the border tribes in Sarawak and North Borneo and to encourage dissidents in the states in the hope they will revolt.

A government source in Sarawak said a third Indonesian aim is to create the impression that the peoples are in revolt against the formation of Malaysia.

The Indonesian government claims the attacks have been made by "freedom fighters" and that Indonesian forces are not involved.

The British have adopted a strategy of systematic destruction of terrorist bands in an effort to destroy the morale of the Indonesian-based guerrillas.

A military source in Kuching said 58 terrorists have been killed since the first border attack in April. British and Malaysian losses are known to be at least 10 dead.

The source said there have been 70 recorded incursions by groups from Indonesian Borneo.

Five Killed in Crash of Private Plane

INDIO, Calif. (UPI)—Five persons, four believed to be teen-agers, were killed late yesterday in the crash of a small private plane 30 miles east of this Southern California desert community.

Sheriff's deputies said the pilot was identified as Andrew D. Robertson, 48, Palm Springs, Calif. One of the other victims was the pilot's son, Andrew Jr., 16.

Deputies said the pilot's wife told them her husband was flying their son and three of his friends back from a holiday visit to their home.

She said the four boys all attended Justin Boarding School in Scottsdale, Ariz., and were returning for classes today.

It is believed that the other three boys, as yet unidentified, were from New York, Hawaii and Mexico.

What Good Steak! What Went in It?

FARGO, N.D. (UPI)—When you sit down to eat a steak, stop and think of what went into it—about 17 pounds of corn, 4 pounds of hay and 2 pounds of protein supplements.

According to North Dakota State University, livestock people figure it out this way: a 10-ounce cooked steak represents 1.3 pounds of carcass beef, or about 2.2 pounds of live steer.

Since a feeder steer gains about two pounds a day, one steak is equal to about a day's red meat production of the steer.

The feed figures are the approximate daily diet of the average steer.

Wintry Cold Covers Most of Nation

By The Associated Press
Cold air, with snow in some northern areas, spread across broad sections from the Rockies into northern Florida today.

The mercury dropped to 30 degrees in Gainesville, Fla., early today as the cold air snipped deep into the southland.

Wintry weather, with heavy snow and temperatures near zero, hit upstate New York and parts of New England. Nearly a foot of snow covered areas east of Lake Ontario.

Snow and cold also was reported in other parts of the Great Lakes and in Midwest areas. Temperatures edged to near zero in northern Wisconsin. Readings in the teens were reported in most of north central region. The 20s and 30s covered most other areas in the cold belt.

Mild Gulf air kept temperatures near 60 in the lower Rio Grande Valley of Texas.

United States farmers paid about $300 million in sales taxes in 1962.

Terrorists Plot to Make Over Pages

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (UPI)—One U.S. soldier was killed and another seriously wounded in a Communist guerrilla ambush last night near the Cambodian border, a U.S. military spokesman said today.

Nine South Vietnamese troops also were wounded in the clash, the second serious encounter between government and Viet Cong forces within a few hours yesterday.

In the first battle, also near the Cambodian border, the Communists killed, wounded, or captured the entire garrison of a government outpost before being driven off.

The guerrillas lost an estimated 50 men in the six hours of fighting, but 42 of the 60 troops defending the outpost were killed, and 15 to 20 of their wives and children also died.

BROUGHT TO 1
The American casualties brought to 114 the number of U.S. combat deaths since large-scale assistance to South Viet Nam began in January 1961. The death toll from all causes now is 142.

Names of the two U.S. servicemen were withheld pending notification of relatives, and there were few details available on the attack.

The Americans were accompanying a Vietnamese troop convoy in the border area about 115 miles west of Saigon.

The Communist assault on the outpost was almost a carbon copy of an attack a week ago on a government training camp 30 miles west of Saigon. In that fight, 37 Vietnamese soldiers were killed and four U.S. enlisted men captured. A U.S. officer was critically wounded.

Yesterday, the Viet Cong opened fire with mortars and other big guns about midnight. They knocked out two of three blockhouses on the corners of the triangular stockade, cut through barbed wire, waded a moat, and scaled the walls.

The three blockhouses poured heavy fire on the invaders but the guerrillas kept up their assault. They finally withdrew about 6 a.m. taking their dead and wounded with them, and some captives.

The outpost is on the edge of an area heavily infested by Communists. It is just north of Black Virgin Mountain, which is considered sacred by the Cao Dai sect.

In another development yesterday, reliable sources said Viet Nam's 7th Division commander, Col. Pham Van Dong, has been replaced at the insistence of security minister Maj. Gen. Ton That Dinh, although he is highly respected by U.S. military advisers here.

The division guards the area immediately south of Saigon. It is part of the corps Dinh commanded before the Nov. 1 coup, and U.S. officials said Dong pursued the war against the Communists in the Mekong Delta area effectively. His replacement is Brig. Gen. Lam Van Phat.
