GM Smashes All Records for First Quarter

General Motors Corp. today announced it has smashed all records for any quarterly period in its history in sales and payrolls—and taxes, too, no doubt—during the first quarter of 1960.

Net income of 324 million dollars was the highest for any first quarter, according to a statement issued by Board Chairman Frederick G. Donner and President John F. Gordon.

More than 380 million dollars went for United States and foreign income taxes.

Net sales were $3,658,000,000, compared with $3,206,000,000 for the first quarter in 1959.

Earnings on the common stock were equivalent to $1.14 per share in the first quarter of 1960, after deducting dividends on the preferred stocks, compared with $1.03 per share in the same period last year.

There are more than 808,000 shareholders.

The number of people employed by GM throughout the world in the first quarter of 1960 averaged 621,583, compared with 584,611 in the corresponding period of 1959.

Payrolls for the first quarter this year totaled 934 million dollars. Payrolls totaled 795 million dollars for the first three months last year.

The employes accounted for a total sales output of 1,400,011 cars and trucks throughout the world for this initial period of 1960, compared with 1,131,480 last year—a 24 per cent increase.

Trucks and coaches manufactured in U.S. plants totaled 163,897, compared with 121,002 last year.

The average number of wage-earners employed by GM in the United States in the first quarter of 1960 was 365,003, compared with 342,899 in the same period of 1959.

WAGES AVERAGE $127.17

Weekly earnings of these employes and the number of hours they worked per week averaged $127.18 and 41.7 hours, respectively, compared with $113.72 and 39.4 hours in the first quarter of last year.

"These average weekly earnings in 1960, as well as U. S. hourly-rate and worldwide payrolls, were at record levels for any quarter," Gordon said.

"This reflected an increased demand for cars and trucks in all markets," said Donner, "and in the first part of the quarter, a replenishment of dealer stocks which had been depleted in the latter part of last year as a result of the steel strike."

Sales of 1,129,000 vehicles produced in U.S. plants showed an approximately 24 per cent increase over the 915,000 units sold in the first quarter of 1959.

GM plants abroad sold 203,000 foreign-produced cars and trucks, representing a 31 per cent increase over 1959 and a record for any quarter.

General Motors was the second auto manufacturer to report record first quarter earnings. Ford was the first.

Come On, Let's Kiss and Make Up

SHE LOVES ME, SHE LOVES ME NOT — Eighteen-month-old Rickey Hudson of Seattle may well be thinking such thoughts as his 2½-year-old sister Vicky gives him a big kiss after she had just pushed him out a third-story window. By a stroke of luck two passers-by saw the youngster hanging on the window ledge. They ran toward him and one of them arrived just in time to catch him as he fell. Rickey's mother Mrs. Irvin Sullivan said Vicky is "always throwing things out the window."

Atonement Pact of Lee Family Shocks Korea

Crowds Salute Former President and Rioters Call Him 'Patriot'

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Syngman Rhee rode off into retirement today, cheered by the young Korean rebels whose violence drove him from the presidency, but saddened by the suicide of his protege Lee Ki-poong.

Tragedy was etched on every line of 85-year-old Rhee's craggy countenance as he rode through weeping, cheering thousands, from the presidential mansion to his own home.

His protege, close friend and vice president-elect, Lee Ki-Poong, was dead along with his family in a suicide pact of Oriental-style atonement for uprisings which cost at least 150 lives.

It was Lee's landslide election March 15 as vice president, in balloting marked by police coercion, which contributed the spark for the two weeks of rioting.

Three army jeeps, sirens screaming, preceded Rhee's limousine through the gate of the presidential mansion. His Austrian-born wife sat by his side.

CROWD APPLAUDS

A wave of applause swept through the waiting crowd for the man who founded the republic and, only a decade ago, showed lion-hearted courage in rallying the nation to defense against Communist invasion.

Rhee peered sternly ahead of him, raising his right hand in acknowledgement of the cheers. The motorcade rolled into the plaza in front of the capitol, and 2,000 Koreans surged into the street.

Women wept. Men cheered and clapped.

"He's a patriot now," said a student who had rioted against him. And in the crowd were placards wishing Rhee long life.

The new men taking over the reins of government provisionally in advance of new elections went forward with their cleanup plans.

Acting President Huh Chung named six independent political figures to the Cabinet, bringing its strength to nine members. The appointees included a noted surgeon, an educator and two bankers. Still to be filled were the Defense, Agriculture and Communications Ministries.

County to Fight Expected Try by State for Valuation Hike

Oakland County equalization officials today were preparing data to protect the county's 1960 equalized valuation of $1,893,302,301 from an expected 13 per cent hike by state officials.

Although they said they expected some adjustment — maybe about a 7 per cent boost — officials added they would pull out all stops to protest any 13 per cent climb which the State Tax Commission says it will recommend around the state.

Copies of the 1960 assessed and equalized valuations of the county's 25 townships and 22 cities were mailed to supervisors yesterday. They'll pass on them Monday.

No opposition is expected, said William B. Grabendike, director of the equalization department.

The new county equalized valuation is $70,386,973 more than the 1959 valuation of $1,822,915,328 Grabendike said the increase is all in new construction.

With the release of the new totals, speculation moved slightly past the guessing stage as to what the county's new tax rate will be. It will remain indefinite, however, until the State Board of Equalization makes adjustments in county equalized valuations.

With a specially delivered copy of the report in his hands, David Levinson, chairman of the Board of Supervisors' ways and means committee, said the county total—"somewhat higher than we expected"—points to a possible lowering of the 1959 rate of 5.62 for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation.

How much lower, he could not say, Levinson said. "It depends solely on what the state does with our figure," the Birmingham supervisor added.

He figured the county's valuation would not be hiked as high as 13 per cent, which state officials indicate is necessary to bring valuations to a level of about 50 per cent of actual cash value under present economic conditions.

Grabendike said close compliance with the state's 1955 equalization manual has kept Oakland County close to this figure all along.

"There will be some units (counties) that will need the boost, but not Oakland County," Grabendike insisted. "That's what I have to prove."

TO CONSULT BUILDERS

He said before he goes to Lansing to argue any such increase he planned to consult with local builders to show that construction costs have not climbed any 13 per cent. He said it was closer to 5 per cent.

Levinson was still figuring on a 7 per cent increase in the county total by state officials. This, he said, probably would permit holding the tax rate at the present level, while anything above the 7 per cent might mean "a slight increase" in the rate.

A public hearing will be held in Lansing May 23 to hear any protests from county Boards of Supervisors on action of the State Board of Equalization.

The 13 per cent figure was not definite, but is being studied by the Tax Commission, Edward W. Kane, commission secretary, said.

The commission is expected to make its final recommendation May 9.

What taxpayers will pay this December depends directly on the final state equalized valuation, Grabendike pointed out. Should the state alter his department valuations, corresponding changes would have to be made in the townships and cities.

Taylor Looks Into Tool Show

Probes Graft Charges

A first-hand look was taken this morning by Prosecutor George F. Taylor into possible graft and extortion charges at the huge machine tool show closing today in Oak Park.

His chief investigator, Anthony F. Stiel, got nowhere yesterday. Taylor visited the site of the show, the Detroit Artillery Armory on Eight Mile road to talk with executive director Harry E. Conrad. Stiel went along. Members of the Oak Park police also were invited.

Taylor yesterday suddenly found his office plunged into an investigation when some exhibitors told of alleged payoffs to union officials before their booths were made ready. Stiel was immediately dispatched to the scene. He found the 18 exhibitors he quizzed "reluctant to talk."

Taylor said Stiel found the exhibitors "frightened to death" to reveal anything.

He said some of them told Stiel the unions might not move their machinery out of the show if they talked.

The show is sponsored by the American Society of Tool & Manufacturing Engineers. Workers at the show are members of carpenters', electricians' and plumbers' locals.

Taylor said he may call for a grand jury if he finds his own investigation is being hampered by intimidation of the 560 exhibitors at the show.

Conrad, who disclosed the reported payoffs, said the troubles could put a damper on other scheduled shows in Detroit.

Union jurisdictional disputes, picketing, walkouts and slowdowns have hampered the show since the exhibitors started setting up displays two weeks ago.

Parking Free for 3-Day Sale

Free parking in the municipal lots is a special feature of the annual Dowtown Spring Value Days sale, which began today and will continue through Saturday.

★ ★ ★

For the second time in a month, the Downtown Merchants Assn. has prepaid the city for use of the lots, assuring free parking facilities all day long for all shoppers who need them.

★ ★ ★

The outstanding success merchants had with the free parking during Downtown Dollar Days in March convinced merchants of its popularity with shoppers, said George Richman, association president.

During the sale, retailers will be featuring unusually favorable values, he said.

As an extra attraction, Oakland County farmers have been invited to exhibit spring plants and flowers in sidewalk and curbstone displays, plays two weeks ago.

Riots in Turkey Copying Korea

Four Die, Forty Hurt as Thousands Demand That Menderes Quit

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Four persons were reported killed today as thousands of rioting students in Korean-type demonstrations demanded the resignation of Premier Adnan Menderes.

The students broke through police lines around the University of Istanbul and surged through the city shouting for Menderes' resignation.

The demonstrations were sparked when the Mendres government ordered a three-month ban on all political activities.

About 5,000 students rushed through police cordons around the university and headed for the center of the city. Forty students and police were injured in fierce fights.

Witnesses said they had seen three students and one policeman killed in the crush in front of the university. Police said they could not confirm these reports.

In view of the developing situation, Menderes earlier had called off a flight to Iran to attend a meeting of the Central Treaty Organization.

LAUD KOREA

About 800 refused to go to classes at the university. They marched down the streets singing the nation's independence anthem and shouting slogans praising Korean youth who brought down the government of Syngman Rhee this week.

Police reinforcements fired shots into the air. Several policemen were injured by stones. Police herded the students into the university grounds, where they continued singing.

The head of the university, Sidik Sami Omar, attempted to bar police from the grounds. He was hurt slightly, then taken to police headquarters.

Indict 3 in Alleged Shield-Hoffa Plan

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON—A federal grand jury today indicted three persons for an alleged conspiracy to shield James R. Hoffa and other union leaders from a Senate investigation.

★ ★ ★

The indictment named Sally T. Hucks, former chief telephone operator at the Woodner Apartment Hotel in Washington where Hoffa maintains his headquarters; Joseph M. Williamson, an attorney of Urbane, Ill.; and Moss Herman a New York member of Hoffa's Teamsters Union.

Mrs. Hucks and an assistant, Violet A. Davis, were previously indicted in December on charges of altering and destroying records of telephone calls in and out of the Woodner suites occupied by Hoffa, James Cross, president of the Bakers Union, and their associates.

In another courtroom in Washington today Teamsters President Hoffa asked a federal court to cancel his civil trial for alleged misuse of Union funds.

His lawyer today accused court-appointed monitors of trying to frame Hoffa to get him tossed out of the Teamsters presidency and take over control of the Union themselves.

"This is a big prize," attorney Jacob Kossman told U. S. Dist. Judge Joseph R. Jackson. "This union has assets of over 600 million dollars and 1,600,000 members. A fabulous fortune awaits anyone who can take over."

Kossman opened argument on a motion to block trial of a civil case aimed at Hoffa's ouster from the Teamsters' helm. The case is based on charges that Hoffa misused union funds for private business ventures.

Hoffa suffered a setback yesterday when Jackson denied a request to postpone the hearing until other issues in the tangled case are decided by Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts.

Letts has disqualified himself from conducting the Hoffa trial but intends to continue supervising the court-appointed monitors' efforts to reform the Union.

The monitors are seeking to remove Hoffa on the ground that he mishandled $500,000 of funds belonging to Detroit Teamsters Local 299 to help launch a Florida real estate project.

★ ★ ★

Hoffa has denied doing anything improper. No criminal charges are involved.

'Shoebox Camera' Idea Gives Navy Sun Picture

WASHINGTON (AP)—Using schoolboy "shoebox camera" techniques in a space rocket, the Navy has obtained the first picture of the sun by its own invisible X-ray light.

Dr. Herbert Friedman of the Naval Research Laboratory reported the development today in a paper prepared for the annual meeting of the Academy of Sciences.

X-rays from the sun help at times to bedevil radio and other communications on the earth. And the new experiment conceivably will help in the effort to combat them, the report indicated.

Friedman said the unique photo of the sun was taken last week from a rocket soaring 130 miles above New Mexico. The experiment used a camera based on the pinhole method familiar to a lot of do-it-yourself amateur photographers.

This is a method in which a pinhole is poked into one end of a shoebox to admit light, while a tiny square patch is cut in the other end of the box and covered with tissue paper to serve as a viewing piece. The image on the tissue paper appears inverted and its size is proportional to the length of the box. The finer the pinhole, the sharper the image.

In the Navy's rocket camera, Friedman said, the pinhole was only five thousandths of an inch in diameter and the camera was only six inches long. Thus, visible light was blocked but X-rays from the sun got through.

The photo shows the sun circled by a bright X-ray "halo" — and several intense spots of bright X-ray emission are distributed over the sun's disk.

Actually, the X-rays come directly from the great crown-shaped corona which constitutes the thin atmosphere of the sun and extends millions of miles into space from the sun itself.

Probers Told of 'Advice' Fee

3 Sure Clark Got Payola

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three House members said today they have little or no doubt that Dick Clark is involved in payola.

★ ★ ★

Clark, a network TV disc jockey says he has not taken undercover payments or favors for promoting records.

A witness testified Wednesday that Clark had received $31,575 for advising a record firm on what tunes would sell well.

He also said Clark was allowed to buy a one-fourth interest in a Philadelphia record firm for $125—an interest he said Clark sold last year for about $15,000.

'METHODS DIFFERENT'

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Fla), a member of the House subcommittee which is looking into broadcasting practices, said today "it appears Clark took a very profitable form of payola.

"His methods were different but he appears to have explored every possible avenue for cashing in.

"He has meticulously put together a vehicle for avoiding the appearance of payola without losing any of the benefits."

The hearing continues today with closed-door testimony from two witnesses.

Clark, a favorite of many teenagers, is due to appear Friday before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee.

But his name has come up often during two days of reopened hearings on undercover influences that may control the kind of music heard on the nation's airwaves.

Reps. John B. Bennett (R-Mich) and Peter F. Mack (D-Ill) agreed largely with Moss' comment to a newsman.

"I think it is pretty convincing that Clark was involved in payola the same as all the other disc jockeys but on a much larger scale," Bennett said.

"The only question now is determining the degree," Mack said.

The two witnesses to be heard in private today were all the subcommittee had on its agenda. Each had asked for a chance to appear behind closed doors, contending their testimony conceivably could be incriminating or defamatory.

The two were Harry Chipetz of Chips, a record-distributing company in which Clark once held an interest, and Bernie Loewe, a song writer, publisher and record manufacturer.

McComb Freed of Killing Charge

Texan Now Must Face Extradition to Illinois in Kidnaping

With a second-degree murder charge against him suddenly dismissed, Lowell E. McComb today faced extradition back to Illinois to face a charge of kidnaping two police officers.

McComb, 34, of Fort Worth, Tex., was to be arraigned this afternoon on an Illinois fugitive warrant before Oakland County Circuit Judge Stanton G. Dondero. He could waive extradition or resist it.

McComb was charged with the 1957 murder of Texas racketeer George Kean, 32. He returned from Fort Worth today to face examination on the murder charge before West Bloomfield Township Justice Elmer C. Dieterle.

The examination never came about, however, as Jerome K. Barry Jr., senior assistant prosecutor, moved to dismiss the charge for insufficient evidence and lack of necessary witnesses.

Dieterle accepted Barry's recommendation and McComb was turned over to State Police Detective Charles Leaf pending this afternoon's arraignment on the fugitive warrant.

McComb, who voluntarily surrendered to Oakland County authorities in March to "get the case out of the way," is wanted in Illinois for the December 1957 kidnaping of two Collinsville, Ill., policemen.

They were kidnaped by McComb Kean and their two companions on their way to Michigan to stage a holdup, and nearly shot, the officers allege. Their lives were spared, the two officers said later, when one of the four, Demitrios "Jimmy" Tsermengas, talked Kean out of the shooting.

Kean was murdered in a Commerce Township cottage that same month. His body, however, wasn't discovered until September 1958.

Tsermengas was sentenced to 20 to 40 years in Jackson Prison. The fourth man is serving a prison term in Texas.

Con-Con Boosters to Ring Doorbells

Dissatisfied with the reception they've received on petitions calling for a constitutional convention referendum, local members of the League of Women Voters and Junior Chamber of Commerce will join in a statewide "blitz" next week to get more signatures.

A two - hour door-to-door campaign will be staged in the Pontiac area next Wednesday night between 7 and 9 p.m.

So far not many petitions have been circulated in the area. The tempo will pick up next week as many chapters of the two state organizations go after the needed 300,000 signatures to put the question on the November ballots.

"We definitely aren't getting the petition signatures we need," said Mrs. Floyd Smith, one of four general chairmen from the League who will head the local "blitz."

Before they start their doorbell ringing campaign, Jaycee and League volunteers will gather at the Pontiac Central High School to organize and hear a pep talk by Jack Rackleyth, public relations director for the Michigan Jaycees.

"This will not be a one-shot affair," Mrs. Smith emphasized. The May 4 drive will be only a kickoff, she said, to an intensified push to get the signatures before a June deadline.

She could give no estimate how many signatures the local chapters have received to date.

Signatures around the state would call for an amendment on the fall ballots placing the call for a convention on the April 1961 ballots. It will also change the majority needed to call a convention and change the basis of selecting delegates to the so-called compromise plan of one each for every House seat and one for each Senate seat.

Ewart Defends Municipal Lots

Calls Parking Facilities Legal, for Public Good, Despite Suit by Firm

"I have no doubt the city has plenty of legal authority behind its parking lot plans," said City Attorney William A. Ewart in response to a suit aimed at blocking further expansion of the municipal lot system.

"Parking lots are of a public interest and the city has been acting for the benefit of the public in promoting them."

The suit, filed in Circuit Court yesterday on behalf of officials of the Pontiac Outdoor Parking Co., charged the city with illegally using general fund money and public assets to expand the system.

Dean G. Beier, attorney in the suit, said he probably would ask the court to schedule a hearing on his request for a temporary injunction a week from Monday.

WOULD BLOCK METERS

The initial effect of any injunction would be to prevent the city from installing meters on the site of the old Perry street police headquarters. There are plans to use the cleared site temporarily as a parking lot.

Beier said he would not ask for a hearing until Willman and Ewart have had some time to study the suit.

Because of the complex history of the parking lot system, intensive legal preparation and research will be necessary, said Ewart.

In the cities, there were 16 with increases and six with decreases. Pontiac's valuations, for example, climbed from $319,580,931 to $332,340,476.

The cities make up $1,286,833,590 of the county total. Townships represent $606,466,711.

This means, in effect, that cities will pay 68 per cent of the county's taxes.

The announcement said the 84-year-old vice president-elect, his wife, Maria Park Lee, 52; and their sons, 2nd Lt. Lee Kang-suk, 22, and Lee Kang-uk, 19, committed suicide at the home of a member of the president's secretarial staff, a friend of Mrs. Lee.

The announcement gave no details, but it was understood that the elder son — whom Rhee and his childless wife had adopted— shot his parents and his brother and then turned the gun on himself.

The bodies were moved to the Metropolitan Army Hospital, where barbed wire barricades were put up, apparently in fear that the crowds which sacked Lee's home Tuesday would try to wreak vengeance on the bodies. But no such attempt was made.

Lee and his family had been in hiding since the rioting resumed in Seoul Monday night.

The American-educated Lee had lived his political life in the shadow of Rhee, the man he idolized. He served as the aged leader's closest aide, friend, hatchet man, and was his choice to succeed him in the presidency.

Junior League's $5,000 Boosts Baldwin Library

BIRMINGHAM—The fund for furnishing the remodeled Baldwin Public Library received a substantial boost this week with a gift of a $5,000 check from the Birmingham Junior League.

The check was presented to Charles Kass, Library Board vice president, by Mrs. Robert Sellers, second vice president of the League.

"This generous check will mean a great deal to us in our attempt to bring the original building into line with the new addition, both from the standpoint of equipment and beauty," Kass said in accepting the check.

Pointing out that some of the present furniture had been repaired countless times, Kass said part of the gift would be used to replace furniture no longer useable.

RAISED AT RESALE SHOP

The Junior League raised the funds to donate to the library by means of the organization's Bargain Box Resale Shop, 465 S. Woodward Ave.

Bus pick-up service will be made available on Adams, Midvale, Pembroke and Quarton roads and Bloomfield Village.

Dr. Alfred Grey will be the guest speaker at the monthly dinner of the Supper Club of the Congregational Church of Birmingham May 6 at 6:45 p.m. in the social hall of the church.

His topic will be "Preachers and Churches I Have Known."

Will Push Medical Aid for Aged

Labor's support of the Forand bill, designed to provide medical aid for the aged, will be felt in Pontiac Friday and Saturday when local union members, including some retirees, conduct a leaflet distribution campaign in the city's shopping centers.

★ ★ ★

Retirees will display placards saying, "Cast Me Not Off."

Otis Lawrence, UAW Region 1 representative assigned to head the Pontiac UAW Retired Workers Committee said there are 8,000 persons over 65 in this area.

"What do they do when they get sick?" Lawrence asked. "Do they go on charity, sponge off their children or just die of neglect?"

He explained that the Forand bill would change the Social Security Act to include hospital-surgical-nursing home care for those already on social security.

It would provide payment for 60 days of hospital care, for another 60 days of nursing home care and for medical service and surgery for those who have to exist on social security, according to Lawrence.

The cost, he said, would be only one quarter of one per cent more in social security taxes to both the employe and the employer.

"This wouldn't be supporting 'political' medicine," said Lawrence. "The doctor would get paid and the hospital would get paid by the money put into the social security fund. It is like a private insurance policy.

"The doctor wouldn't have to lower his fees or give up fees to help the aged. Hospitals wouldn't lose money treating the aged. Public welfare agencies wouldn't have to spend the $300 million a year they now spend on taking care of the old and sick.

"Money that would come in if the Forand bill were passed would take care of most of it. We'll be out Friday and Saturday to help it along."

Straley's Fate in Court Again

Judge Ziem Will Hear Arguments Against City Amendment Injunction

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley's position again hung in the balance in Circuit Court today as city officials fought off a suit by two pro-Straley city commissioners.

Judge Frederick C. Ziem this afternoon was to hear arguments on why an injunction shouldn't be issued to stop the city from certifying two city charter amendments voted by the electorate.

The amendments, one in particular, could lead directly to Straley's ouster.

Commissioners Milton R. Henry and Robert A. Landry claim in their lawsuit that voters could not make a clearcut decision when they voted on the amendments April 18 because there was more than one change involved.

This, the two plaintiffs allege, was illegal under a 1939 provision in the state's Home Rule Act.

City Attorney William A. Ewart will rely on the fact that the two amendments were approved as written before the vote by the state attorney general.

He also is expected to allege in today's hearing that Henry and Landry had "capricious and political" aims behind their suit.

Ewart said this morning that if Judge Ziem issues the permanent restraining order blocking certification of the vote to the county clerk and secretary of state the amendments would be "pretty much dead."

The city has 30 days after the vote to certify their passage to Lansing. Ewart wouldn't speculate on what legal recourse might be left should the injunction be issued.

Signing Starts Monday

Register for Frog Hollow

Registration begins Monday for boys and girls 7 to 13 who plan to attend one of the seven, five-day recreational periods at the Department of Parks & Recreation's Frog Hollow Day Camp at the Pontiac Lake Recreation Center this summer.

Registration at City Hall will be on a "first come, first serve" basis, with a $3 fee to cover transportation, lunches and a camp T-shirt.

Children will participate in fishing, hiking, swimming, camp craft, wood craft, cooking, orienteering and other out-of-doors activities, all supervised by DPR staff personnel.

Registration is limited to 24 girls and 48 boys during each period. The first runs June 27 to July 8.

* * *

Succeeding periods are scheduled July 5-8, July 11-15, July 18-22, July 25-29, Aug. 1-5, and Aug. 8-12.

The first African elephant was tamed in the Belgian Congo in 1899.

Stu Assails Bias, Ends Michigan Tour

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo), who is seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, wound up Wednesday night with a strong argument against all kinds of discrimination.

"A first-class nation should have no second-class citizens," he said, adding that progress in guaranteeing civil rights is not enough.

"America is the last real power capable of standing between the Communists and world domination," he told about 400 persons at a Democratic dinner.

"It is becoming increasingly clear that unless we decide to guarantee opportunity for all people, we may well lose it for all people," he said.

New Lar Quake Kills 5

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A new heavy earthquake today struck the ruined city of Lar, adding five more deaths to the 360 persons known to have perished in Sunday's quakes, the Iranian Red Cross said.

Beethoven Subs for Wagner Who Nags Adenauer

KARLSRUHE, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's long-standing dislike of the music of Richard Wagner forced a change Wednesday in the opening program of the Christian Democratic Party convention.

After the 84-year-old chancellor heard of the choice, it was changed to Ludwig van Beethoven's Leonore Overture No. 3.

Detroit to Get Bright Air Traffic Radar Setup

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Detroit is one of 22 air traffic control centers involved in a $7,695,000 contract awarded by the Federal Aviation Agency for installation of a new radar system at the centers.

The contract, awarded to the General Instrument Corp. of Newark, N.J., calls for modification in the radar receiving sets which will make the "pips" on a radar screen representing a plane brighter and longer lasting.

In addition to Detroit, the Air Route Traffic Control centers tentatively selected to be equipped with the new bright display systems include Indianapolis, Chicago, Kansas City, Mo.; Fort Worth, Minneapolis, Salt Lake City and 15 others.

Residents in Toronto believe Yonge street may be the longest street in the world. It continues as Ontario highway No. 11 as it leaves the city and runs an additional 885 miles.

Delta's the Name of New State College

SAGINAW (AP)—Trustees of the new tricounty college being built to serve the Saginaw, Bay City, Midland area have named the institution Delta College.

The multi-million-dollar school is under construction and completion is expected by the fall of 1961.

It is between the three cities, about 12 miles north of Saginaw.

Sec. Herter Castigates South Korean Regime

Secretary of State HERTER's long delayed rebuke to the South Korean government climaxed a series of undemocratic acts by Pres. SYNGMAN RHEE and emphasizes the seriousness of the situation.

By his brutal suppression of political opposition and other strong arm methods and his more recent ban on trade with Japan, he has brought his country to the brink of political and economic disaster. Charges of police brutality, intimidation and ballot box stuffing are widespread. Protests brought more ruthless methods and martial law.

Dr. RHEE has resigned. Foreign Minister HUH CHUNG will now run the government until a new election can be held.

Created under United Nations auspices, South Korea has cost the U.S. dearly. More than 33,000 American lives were lost in that war and $2.5 billion in aid has poured into the country to support RHEE's dictatorship.

President Eisenhower's plans to visit Korea on June 22 are now in question. The U.S. can not afford to affirm its confidence in the undemocratic rule of Dr. Rhee. More than Korea is involved. Other Asian nations will be watching to see how we support democratic ideals in Korea.

China's Red Premier Out to Settle Borders

Seeking to repair Red China's public relations, Communist Prime Minister CHOU EN-LAI is touring Burma, India and Nepal. He obviously is worried over the disillusionment of non-Communist Asians to his ruthless invasion of Tibet and occupation of areas in India, Burma and Nepal.

Aware of the harm done the Communist cause by Red China, Russia's Khrushchev a few months ago made a good will tour through Asia. He conferred with Chou at Peiping and no doubt urged him to make overtures to his victims.

In Burma CHOU seems to have agreed to a border settlement acceptable to the Rangoon government. But while doing so he injected an ominous note. By 1965, he said, Red China would be building nuclear submarines.

CHOU's reception in India was described as "correct but cool" with an underlying note of hostility. It could scarcely be otherwise while Communist Chinese troops still occupy the territory of Ladakh which the Indian people claim as their own. Prime Minister NEHRU justified the visit by explaining that conversations "were necessary to end Chinese occupation of territory claimed by India."

★ ★ ★

Nepal is next on the itinerary. Here expansionist China claims Mount Everest. Perhaps CHOU will settle for complete control of the lower slopes.

It would be of great propaganda value to the Communist world if India and Red China settled their differences before the summit meeting in Paris next month.

Congress Works Hard Pending Adjournment

Congress has passed only one major piece of legislation this session—a moderate civil-rights bill. Less than 11 weeks remain within which Congress faces an enormous volume of work before adjournment.

★ ★ ★

More than a month is likely to be required to complete action on appropriations bills alone. That leaves little time for such important matters as the education bill, foreign aid and health insurance for the aged. Other measures for which there is a strong demand include bills to relieve the wheat surplus, to raise minimum wages, increase postal rates, defense reorganization and to set up a Youth Conservation Corps.

Much preliminary work has been done on these and other proposals but many will fall by the wayside because the civil rights debate took most of the session.

Lawmakers will have to work overtime to avoid the risk of being labeled a "do nothing Congress." As a further handicap Democratic leaders may push a number of controversial measures which they know would be vetoed by President Eisenhower. This would give them a political advantage and embarrass Vice President Nixon.

The Man About Town

Best in the State

Record Is Established by Oakland TB Sanatorium

Fill it up: What's said at liquor joints, gas stations—cemeteries.

Much of the credit of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, according to its Medical Director, are its average period for effecting a cure and its second admissions, both the lowest of any TB sanatorium in the state.

Dr. James Cheng,

The local sanatorium, largest county TB sanatorium in Michigan, is now running close to its capacity. Case finding projects now under way will undoubtedly bring in many new patients.

Detroit papers are claiming that, according to District Census Supervisor

Jack H. McDonald,

Wayne County's Redford Township now has the largest population of any township in the United States. The 1960 census gives it 71,046. We're waiting for the figures on our Waterford Township.

Back from a few weeks' sojourn in Arizona,

Elmer Lawford

phones me: "They put out some beautiful pictures on that state's flowers and scenery, but they don't tell you that it's mostly desert, or that nearly everything is equipped with thorns, even the toads."

"You may call this a late spring," phones

Almond Brearley

of Lake Orion, "But our cat commenced running out nights late in February—and delivered her spring batch of kittens this week."

"An incurable disease, but fortunately never fatal," is what

Jasper Huntley

Basing our ideas on present day events and the workings of political conventions, this column is now inclined to think that it will be

Rockefeller and Nixon on the Republican ticket, and

Stevenson and Kennedy

as the Democratic standard bearers.

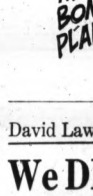
David Lawrence Says:

We DID Interfere in Korean Affairs

WASHINGTON—When is a problem "internal" and when is it "external"?

Governments, including our own, have long reserved the right to determine the answer to that question for themselves when their own affairs are concerned, and they have resented any outside interference or dictation.



LAWRENCE

What has happened in Korea presents a paradox in the history of international affairs.

President Eisenhower told his press conference Wednesday that the United States had not intervened in Korean governmental matters. He said:

"To charge America with interference in the internal affairs of Korea is not correct. . . .

"No interference of any kind was ever undertaken by the United States and we had no part in inciting or know anything about the inciting of this difficulty."

But the President also said that he had previously expressed through the State Department directly to the Korean government the hope that the irregularities in connection with the recent election in Korea "could be stopped."

This, as Eisenhower himself remarked, was published. All the Korean newspapers, to be sure, printed it with large headlines.

Whether the State Department considers that its advice given at a critical moment in the history of the Korean Republic was or was not "intervention," the fact remains that the Korean people were publicly advised through the press that the Washington government and the Rhee government were, in effect, parting company and that a "reprimand," as some of the newspapers called it, had been administered to the Korean government by the American government.

GOES STEP FURTHER

Dissident factions, of course, needed no further stimulus. They knew the American government had spoken. Even in the last 24 hours, the Department of State went a step further.

It summoned the diplomatic representatives here of the 13 countries allied with the United States under U.N. auspices in the Korean War and told them about the situation.

The State Department didn't keep this in the confidential realm of diplomacy.

Instead, a formal communique was issued to the press after the meeting, which said:

"Those present joined in expressing the hope that there would be an early resolution of the situation in a manner which would permit the orderly functioning of democratic government in the Republic of Korea."

Coincident with this, newspaper dispatches from Seoul related that the American ambassador there was putting heavy pressure on President Rhee to resign.

The Korean public needed no further word of encouragement to carry on bigger and bigger street demonstrations, some of which got out of hand and spread from Seoul to other cities of South Korea.

Whatever the eventual outcome of the disorders, the fact remains that America exerted pressure to secure a change of regime. It helped force President Rhee out of office.

The purpose, it is argued, was, of course, benevolent—that the end justified the means.

This, however, is precisely the argument that has been used again and again in other acts of intervention.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Take Tranquilizer Pills Only on Prescription

"I do not agree with you about tranquilizers for daytime and sleeping pills at night for older people. My husband never took them until he was 74 and I do not think he could get along without them now. Some days he doesn't take any and every little thing upsets him.

DR. BRADY

"I think a young person should not use such drugs but I can see no use in withholding them from a person of his age.

When he reads an article such as you wrote about using tranquilizers and barbiturates he worries about being a dopester, and that upsets him. He is not a drinker—just nervous and a poor sleeper. (Mrs. E. W. ————)"

There have been numerous similar protests against my teachings regarding the use of tranquilizers, barbiturates and narcotics by elderly persons, especially the use of the most readily available narcotic, alcohol.

Please bear in mind that my teaching or advice applies to persons who begin the use of such drugs without benefit of medical supervision. I do not mean to question the propriety or wisdom of a physician who prescribes tranquilizer, barbiturate or narcotic for his patient.

Mrs. E. W. ————does not say whether her husband is under the care of a physician; but from the fact that some days he doesn't take any, I gather he is not.

At what age does a man become elderly, senile, decrepit, infirm, superannuated, doting or effete? Only the armed services retire men at 64. Only the federal government pays social security at 65. Beyond this arbitrary age a man is presumed to lack judgment—that's the reason he is no longer fit to command an army or a fleet, although he may still be permitted to have minor responsibilities, such as managing the affairs of state or nation.

Use of tranquilizer, barbiturate, alcohol or other narcotic unquestionably impairs judgment and responsibility, whether use of the drug is just occasional or habitual. A person under the influence of any such drug may not be competent to make a will, for instance.

Regardless of chronological age a person whose judgment or responsibility is of any concern to others should use these drugs only under continuing supervision of a physician.

A great deal of muddy thinking about the use of alcohol emanates from the common notion that alcohol is a stimulant. In 19th century novels the brandy flask quickly revived the wounded or dying. In old movies whiskey gave hero and villain strength to carry on against all odds.

"I can do with a lift" is a familiar excuse for indulging. The truth is, of course, that from first to last alcohol in any dose under any circumstance is a depressant.

It dulls or benumbs conscience, sense of responsibility and judgment—a state the drugged individual attributes to a "lift."

The Country Parson

"The weakness of our behavior may be traced to the fact that it's never as good as our intentions — which are themselves as good as we'd like them to be."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Plan for Child's Question on Sex

"Mommie, where did I come from?" asks Donna. This is a common query at that age, so be sure you know exactly what to say in reply or you may indirectly send a child on the road to sexual exploration and later delinquency. The truth does NOT cause salaciousness or delinquency, so get hep:

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE E - 446: Donna B., aged 3, is a bright youngster.

★ ★ ★

"Mommie, where did I come from?" she suddenly asked her mother while the latter was entertaining her sorority group.

DR. CRANE

But Mommie sidetracked Donna and later asked me about the matter.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "at what age should a parent tell a child such things?

"And how much can one safely explain to a child. Isn't there danger of promoting a salacious interest in sex by starting too early or telling a child too much?

"I'm at a loss to know what to do, and I am sure thousands of other mothers like me would appreciate getting the proper advice."

FACTS OF LIFE

Donna's mother is quite normal in wondering when and how she should tell Donna the facts of life.

We psychologists weren't sure on those points till recent years.

Now we realize that a child's limited mental age will accept only as much information as it can comprehend, so if you offer it too much, you don't do it any harm.

Literally, the excess information just goes in one ear and out the other.

"You come out of Mommie's tummy," is thus the simplest answer to such a question as Donna and other 3-year-olds may ask.

Obviously, "tummy" isn't correct anatomy, but the child regards everything in the abdomen as "tummy" so you need not confuse it by discussing "uterus" or "womb."

"Yes, Dr. Crane," Donna's mother added, "but suppose Donna then asks me how she got out of my tummy? What then?"

Then tell her, for there is nothing that surpasses truth. But you can adapt the telling to a child's level of thinking.

"Sometimes the doctor takes Mommie to the hospital," you mothers can begin, as you outline the more graphic Caesarian method, "and then he puts Mommie to sleep.

"After that, he cuts a little doorway in Momie's tummy and lifts out the baby.

"Then he sews up Mommie's tummy, just as the Little Red Hen sewed up the sack after she escaped from the fox. Don't you remember?"

Note that "reversible why" technique in the final query. And you better tell your toddlers about the Little Red Hen story, for it is a classic and of great value at this point.

★ ★ ★

"But suppose the child wants to know how she got into my tummy?" Donna's mother protests, "Won't she ask that question, too?"

SEX QUERIES

The usual child at about 3 or 4 years will ask "Where did I come from?" but doesn't go on to the next query till several years later.

Then, out of a clear sky, it may bluntly inquire "How did I get out?"

Another 2 or 3 years will usually pass before it shoots that 3rd question at its mother, namely, "How did I get in?"

Even if you thus give the child all 3 answers at the age of 3, it will be disinterested in the latter two, for its mental age is too limited to generate such curiosity.

Tomorrow I'll show you exactly why children wait a few years before asking the latter two questions.

'Why Can't All Localities Have the Same Dog Laws?'

Why can't every town and village have the same dog laws? Two strays, evidently dropped here, have been running loose in our neighborhood. One stayed nights in our garage all winter. I also read rabies are on the increase. Why let a child get mangled by a dog that someone just didn't take care of?

School Tax Issue Stirs More Letters

It's difficult for me to understand The Press at times. You take the hide off the City Commission but have nothing but praise for our School Board. You went after the City hammer and tong over the hospital bond issue, but you ask us to give the School Board another 2.8 mills and you can't substantiate why they need it. You ask us to give almost another million a year in taxes after they put on an extra 1.55 mills this year called unlimited debt. This brought them at least another $500,000 this year. They will also get the 1.4 variable millage, as I'm told the ballot will just say 2.8 mills and nothing else.

David E. Lugg

711 Melrose.

What about all the primary money the school district collects from the State of Michigan? I understand you collect on over 4,000 children who go to private schools. I'm told it's $26 a child. These parents pay the same taxes.

The School Board argument doesn't hold water. It's the individual home owner you're asking to raise their taxes, as well as industry, and industry has been leaving Michigan for better tax climates. Industry wants less taxes, not more.

William J. Kircher
St. Frederick Graduate

2181 Kircher Ct.

Why has the School Board canceled the debate before Women's Voters League? Are they afraid to let taxpayers know the true facts?

Mr. Downes used their own figures at the Will Rogers School and they wouldn't deny they had ample funds for this year and next. They also didn't deny our school taxes, in dollars and cents, had almost doubled in five years and they ended each year with a large surplus. In their talks they also implied the 8.75 we voted is used for operation, but that wasn't the purpose we voted it for. They said at the time, and The Press quoted the same, it was to be 6.25 for buildings and 2.5 for operation. This was emphatically stated and it was to raise $9,250,000 to build new schools. We all agreed and voted for it. It was never intended for operation only. Are they trying to pull the wool over our eyes?

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

A wise man is mightier than a strong man, and a man of knowledge than he who has strength. —Proverbs 24:5.

Great is wisdom; infinite is the value of wisdom. It cannot be exaggerated; it is the highest achievement of man. — Thomas Carlyle.

Reader Has Faith Freedom Will Win

It's unfortunate the change had to come about only after riots and bloodshed, but the recent triumph of democracy in Korea should give hope to those who sometimes doubt that freedom will ultimately win out. All people the world over have the same desire for freedom, and no matter how harshly it's beaten down, eventually the people will rise against dictatorships and tyrants. Just look at history.

Strangers' Kindness Gratifying to Parents

Recently while shopping we had the terrifying experience of having our four-year-old wander off. It was wonderfully gratifying to see how many, many people were concerned and helped in the search.

Kierdorf Eyed for Parole

Herman Kierdorf, who has recorded a "real fine" prison record, will be considered a second time for parole next month.

* * *

The elderly cigar-smoking former aide to Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa had no action taken on his "early" parole when he went before the parole board Jan. 18, Gerald L. Hansen, administrative assistant to the Jackson Prison warden, said.

Hansen said the parole board gave no reason for not taking action then, but in a February executive session ordered a supplementary report on Kierdorf. This, Hansen said, probably would be brought up in May.

Because of a large prison population, Hansen explained, Kierdorf's parole was heard three months early, a new system undertaken by the board. His "good time" record actually wasn't up until April 16.

* * *

The former Madison Heights resident went to prison for 1 to 5 years last July after waiting out legal maneuvers which failed to reverse his conviction for possession of a homemade pistol silencer. Kierdorf, 69, insisted the silencer was actually for a lawn mower.

* * *

He was the uncle of human torch victim Frank Kierdorf. The elder Kierdorf's latest scrape with the law came after he visited his dying nephew in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

* * *

Hansen said Kierdorf has been "no trouble at all" since being an inmate.

He has been assigned to the prison kitchen as a trusty.

Kierdorf went to the prison hospital in February when he complained of a shortness of breath. He was sentenced to Jackson with a past record of heart trouble.

"His heart has slowed him down considerably," Hansen said.

He once said he'd never live out his sentence.

Await Winner for Mushroom Gathering

BOYNE CITY (AP)—Now they're going to crown a world mushroom hunting champion in Michigan.

The Boyne City Chamber of Commerce has set May 7-8 as dates of the first annual national mushroom hunting championship. Chamber spokesman Don Sheets says the contest is patterned after the rules of field dog trials.

* * *

Candidates will receive numbered bags, be escorted to a section of woods known to abound in Morrell mushrooms and start one hour of hunting at a gun signal. Judges will take filled bags to be weighed and sealed.

* * *

The finals May 8 will have narrowed the field to 10 contestants. The winner will be awarded merchandise prizes plus a trophy cup denoting the world's mushroom hunting championship.

Wage Floor for Farm?

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said last night a study indicates extension of minimum wage laws to cover agricultural workers is desirable. He indicated such an extension would help relieve the current wage problems caused by importation of laborers from Mexico.

Hint Big Fund for Air Alert

Plan to Keep Bomber Force Poised Aloft in for House Boost

WASHINGTON (AP)—An airborne alert of bombers poised to strike back instantly at an aggressor may be backed by House spending chiefs with far more funds than President Eisenhower recommended.

★ ★ ★

Chairman George H. Mahon (D-Tex) of the House defense appropriations subcommittee, dropped the hint during questioning of Gen. Thomas S. Power, head of the Strategic Air Command.

The SAC commander testified March 21 and a transcript was made public today in censored form.

Power told the subcommittee the Air Force wanted to push ahead with stocking of spare parts and building up crews so an airborne alert could be set up instantly if needed.

But he indicated money requests for this were pared down by higher authority in the administration.

The Air Force did get 100 million dollars last December to begin buying parts and the budget for the year starting July 1 has 90 million more earmarked for the purpose.

Eisenhower administration spokesmen have declared these amounts enough to get ready for a possible airborne alert, which they contend is not needed now.

Power's testimony indicated he had asked for 571 million dollars.

HE'S FOR ANY GOOD DEM—Former President Harry S. Truman poses with Robert F. Wagner, mayor of New York City, during HST's call at City Hall Wednesday. They reportedly discussed politics. Later, Truman was asked by newsmen if he thought Wagner would make a good vice president. "Of course," he said, adding that Wagner has plenty of experience and "I am for any good Democrat." He said he couldn't think about anyone running for that job because they are all after the presidency.

Reuther Still Hunts Presidential Choice

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, said Wednesday he has no personal choice for a presidential candidate.

He urged American voters to make a decision against what he called complacency in government.

"The decision we make at the polls will shape our policy of tomorrow and for the rest of the world," Reuther told the 12th biennial convention of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes.

Reuther criticized the Eisenhower administration for what he said was its failure to endorse medical care for 15 million persons over 65 and for denying support for the minimum hourly wage of $1.25.

Perle Mesta Predicts Johnson Next President

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Former ambassador and noted hostess Perle Mesta Wednesday predicted Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) would be the next president of the United States.

She said that in 1956 she called the senator her favorite candidate. "I guess I was too early," she said.

Toyko Gives Sister City Hundred Cherry Trees

NEW YORK (AP)—New York's "Sister City" Tokyo has given it 100 Japanese cherry trees.

The trees were presented Wednesday night as Dr. Ryotaro Azuma, governor (mayor) of Tokyo, and Mayor Robert F. Wagner appeared in ceremonies linking their big towns in the "Sister Cities" relationship.

Festival Time in Michigan

Beauty of Tree Blossoms, Floats, Girls to Glitter

(Editor's note: This is the first in a series of dispatches that will continue through the summer vacation season detailing special festivals and points of interest for Michigan vacationists.)

By United Press International

The color of thousands of fruit trees in blossom, gaily decorated floats and pretty girls will be combined at the annual blossom festival in the twin cities of St. Joseph-Benton Harbor.

★ ★ ★

The festival starts Sunday when members of all churches in the area unite for the blessing of the blossoms ceremony and prayers for a good harvest.

The festival's climaxing event next Saturday is a two-hour floral parade, featuring dozens of blossom covered floats, marching bands and costumed paraders.

The 2½-mile parade rout stretches from the center of Benton Harbor's business district to St. Joseph on the south banks of the St. Joseph River.

LARGEST NONCITRUS MART

The colorful, seven-day pageant is staged each year as a tribute to the $30,000,000 fruit and horticultural industry in southwest Michigan.

Benton Harbor's wholesale fruit market is the world's largest noncitrus, cash-to-grower market.

Throughout the festival, visitors will find several routes marked for scenic motor tours of the area which bursts into bloom with varicolored blossoms in early spring.

Blossoms to be seen include those of thousands of peach, apple, pear, plum and cherry trees.

Opening of Michigan's annual trout fishing season will be celebrated at Kalkaska Friday and Saturday in the northwest Michigan community's 24th annual national trout festival.

The two-day program will include coronation ceremonies for both a king and queen, colorful parades, series of fishing contests, a banquet and one of Michigan's largest horse pulling contests.

Trout waters favored by fishermen in the area include the Manistee, Rapid and Boardman rivers and Log, Bear, Manistee and Starvation lakes.

'Ford for VP' Group Set Up

Establish Headquarters in Chicago to Back 6-Term House Vet

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — A "Ford for vice president committee," aimed at winning the Republican vice presidential nomination for Rep. Gerald R. Ford Jr. (R-Mich), was in operation today.

Former Grand Rapids Mayor Paul Goebel is chairman of the committee.

Goebel said the committee plans to set up a campaign headquarters for Ford in Chicago where the national GOP convention will be held in July.

Goebel said Ford has support in the Alaskan delegation to the convention and "it might be possible to get Jerry nominated early at the national convention with some help from the Alaskan delegation."

A committee was appointed by Goebel to boom Ford at the state GOP convention in Grand Rapids next month, where the lawmaker is expected to be endorsed for the vice presidency.

Goebel said he also expected Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield, a Michigan native, to back Ford.

Ford is serving his sixth term in the House and is a personal friend of Vice President Richard Nixon, who is expected to get the presidential nomination.

'Paneful' Meeting to Put Pheasant Under Glass

As the adage goes, "Pheasant who go through glass wind up under glass," and Mrs. Andrew Carter, 86 Omar St., will see to that.

Something good has to come from the rude intrusion in her bedroom.

"I was getting dressed this morning when I heard an awful crash," said Mrs. Carter. "It scared the daylights out of me. Then I heard a thud and this pheasant was on the floor, stunned. It had smashed right through both the storm window and the regular window.

"He came to and started walking around, I screamed.

"My dog Scooter (a 12-year-old dachshund) came running in and took right after him, grabbed him by the head and started shaking.

"It was a wild place for a while . . . feathers flying all around."

* * *

Mrs. Carter was late for work.

"I'm mad now," she said. "I'll put that pheasant under glass tonight."

Mark Ferree New President

Publishers Hear Talk on Future, End Meeting

NEW YORK (AP) — The four-day annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. comes to a close today with election of officers.

Mark Ferree, an executive of the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, New York, was slated to succeed D. Tennant Bryan, of the Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch and News Leader, as ANPA president.

* * *

An optimistic report on the future of newspapers was given the final session by Joyce A. Swan, executive vice president of the Minneapolis, Minn., Star and Tribune.

Swan conceded that growth of newspaper circulation had not kept pace with total population growth, but stressed that it exceeded that of adult population growth.

He said "daily circulation has climbed 43 per cent since 1940 while adult population (18 years and over) has gone up 24 per cent in the same period."

* * *

Swan also granted that there were fewer newspapers in 1959 than in 1949 but emphasized that circulation was at an all-time high of more than 58 million daily.

He said newspapers don't get the same percentage of total advertising they once did, but that investment in daily and Sunday from $1,916,000,000 in 1949 to $3,517,000,000 in 1959.

"The newspaper business, on the whole, is sound and vigorous and the future is promising," he said.

* * *

Swan said only 164 daily newspapers had been sold in the last six years, compared with 2330 sales of controlling interests of radio or television stations."

* * *

He said he was neither criticizing the broadcasting business nor specially praising the newspaper business, but that "few newspaper owners are interested in selling at any price."

According to preliminary estimates, more than $3,500,000,000 — or 31.7 per cent of all advertising dollars invested in 1959, went to newspapers. This made daily newspapers again the number one advertising medium.

Exposition Building Is Planned by MSU

EAST LANSING (AP)—Plans for a two-million-dollar exposition and conference building have been revealed by Michigan State University.

The school's agricultural engineering department said the building will be financed through revenue bonds to be repaid by lease or rental agreements. The MSU Board of Trustees gave the project tentative approval last year.

Plans call for year-round exhibits of the newest types of farm, food processing and household equipment.

"This will be the only facility of its kind in the country," said Arthur W. Farrall, head of the agricultural engineering department.

The "Big Three Conference" between Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin took place at Yalta in Russia in February, 1945.

Would Bolster Claim in Dispute

Red China Busy Building Key Highway Into India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Communist Chinese are building a new strategic highway deep into Indian territory in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir, usually reliable sources report.

★ ★ ★

The sources said the project was part of a Red Chinese plan to strengthen their claims to 15,000 square miles of disputed territory in Kashmir's northeastern sector.

The report came only a day after Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and Prime Minister Nehru ended a week of talks aimed at settling their bitter border dispute.

Chou offered to abandon Peiping's claim to the northeast Indian frontier lands in exchange for title to 15,000 square miles in Ladakh.

PROBABLY AWARE

The sources behind the highway report said Nehru's government probably is aware of the project, but is unable to do anything about it for two reasons:

1. The area in question is almost inaccessible from the Indian side because of snow and extremely high altitudes.

2. Any move by India to halt the project might set off a major clash since the road is being constructed behind positions guarded by Chinese troops.

The highway reportedly branches off westward from the present Tibet-Sinkiang highway. The informants said that, in the south, it crosses the 18,000-foot-high Lanak La Pass into Tibet.

The road reportedly cuts 200 miles into Indian-claimed territory and slices off about 10,000 square miles over and above the 5,000 square miles pinched off by the old Aksai Chin road.

Free Stock? 'Not for Me,' Snorts Oldster

NEW YORK (AP) — The first 30 customers at the opening of the 30th unit in a restaurant chain Wednesday each were given a share of stock in the company worth $43.35.

★ ★ ★

One elderly man turned it down.

"When you get as old as I," he snorted, "you'll learn you don't get something for nothing."

The company, Chock Full O'Nuts, tendered the stock as a promotional gimmick in connection with the opening of its 30th restaurant and its first on Park avenue.

He will fulfill the canceled dates later.

More than half of the 1.3 million new homes that will be built during 1960 will have dry-wall interior construction, compared to 20 years ago when nine out of 10 new homes were finished with several coats of wet plaster, according to Allied Chemical Corp.

De Gaulle Links France and U.S.

Says in San Francisco That Both Lands Want All Peoples to Be Free

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—France and the United States stand together in wanting all peoples to determine their own destiny, Gen. Charles de Gaulle declared Wednesday night.

★ ★ ★

This goal of the common ideals of the two nations amounts to political realism in the modern world, said the visiting president of France in his address to a glittering banquet audience of 4,000 in civic auditorium.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle winds up his first journey to California today with a tour of a major electronics laboratory, the new Palo Alto Hospital and Stanford Medical Center in Palo Alto, then departs by jet transport for New Orleans.

SHOWS EMOTION

De Gaulle, tall and austere leader of France in crisis, showed frank emotion. He stood two hours in the parade's slow progress through crowds that surged closely around his open car in the Montgomery St. financial district.

★ ★ ★

Police Chief Tom Cahill estimated the sidewalk throngs along the route at 250,000. He said it was the greatest crowd he had seen in San Francisco in his 30-year career.

U.S. Clothiers Hate Hong Kong

Cheap Labor Used to Flood Markets With Low-Price Garments

NEW YORK (UPI)—Hong Kong, a name that once suggested romance and glamor, today is a dirty word to American garment manufacturers.

The reason is that the huge British crown colony on China's south coast has become the center of a huge textile and garment industry that is flooding U.S. markets with cheap garments and wreaking havoc in our clothing industry.

The colony still is ruled by the British but its commerce and light industry are run by Chinese and commercial adventurers from all over the world.

The latter take advantage of the fact that the huge city is filled with millions of starving refugees from Communist China who will work long hours for almost nothing.

The Hong Kong garment industry has grown enormously since the United States negotiated agreements with Japan whereby the Japanese voluntarily limited their exports of cheap garments and textiles to U.S. markets.

Cheap garments which are giving American manufacturers so much trouble also come from Formosa, Korea and the Philippines who have taken advantage of the Japanese export limitation to get a bigger share of the U.S. market.

But, according to Howard Simon of Simon & Mogilnor, Birmingham, Ala., the country's largest maker of children's wear, Hong Kong garments are feared most by U.S. manufacturers.

Simon said the Hong Kong industry thrives partly by buying subsidized U.S. surplus cotton for eight cents a pound less than U.S. manufacturers must pay for it, making it into garments and shipping it back to the United States.

Garment imports from Hong Kong and Japan last year, Simon said, had a total wholesale value of 285 million dollars. This represented the total output of 34,000 workers in about 97 average-sized U.S. plants.

"This is bad enough, but the thing is growing. The textile and garment people realize that underdeveloped countries can create textile and garment industries more easily than heavier industries and they are bound to invade our markets to some extent," Simon said.

"But Hong Kong is not an underdeveloped country. It is an artificial, special situation, a sort of cancer on the world's textile and garment industry. So we think Washington should take drastic measures against it."

Buying interest in the compact American cars is now running at a high rate. Estimates for 1960 compact car sales are over 2 million units. Newspapers play a dominant role in informing customers about them. In a recent survey, more people mentioned newspaper ads and-or newspaper stories than mentioned any other single information source.

Ike Troubled on Medical Aid

Opposes Insurance Tie to Social Security and Studies Other Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower Wednesday expressed strong opposition to financing any form of medical insurance through more social security taxes.

★ ★ ★

The Chief Executive said the White House was having some difficulty combining dozens of health insurance plans into one workable unit which his administration would submit to Congress.

Pending a decision, however, he said he was utterly opposed to any form of compulsory insurance and this applied equally to financing any insurance plan by connecting it with payments by individuals or employers to the old age survivors program of the federal government.

SPEAKS FOR DEMOCRATS — Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas told newsmen Wednesday that the Democratic-controlled Congress will write its own legislative record without being swayed by threats of vetoes or pressures from the White House and the Republicans. Johnson's comments followed an announcement by Republican leaders, after a White House conference, that President Eisenhower was preparing a special message to prod Congress on needed legislation.

Snowplows Back in Midwest

By The Associated Press

Snowplows were back in operation in some Midwest areas today clearing roads of snow and hailstones as chilly weather spread across northern border states and the Great Lakes region.

Snow fell in the Rocky Mountain region and northern Plains while hail pelted sections in western Kansas and Texas. Snow amounts measured more than five inches in Chadron and Valentine, Neb., and three inches in Austin, Nev.

Fairly heavy snow also was in prospect in South Dakota, with lighter falls in parts of Minnesota and Iowa.

The hailstones were so heavy on a state highway east of Tribune, Kan., near the Colorado line, it was closed to all but one-way traffic Wednesday night. Snowplows cleared the highway. Hailstones piled up one foot deep in the Waco, Tex., area.

Skies were mostly clear in areas east of the Mississippi River but there were wide patches of rain in the western sections.

Van Johnson Is Facing Divorce Suit on Cruelty

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor Van Johnson's wife has sued for divorce.

Eve Johnson charged extreme mental cruelty in the complaint filed Wednesday. Married 13 years they have a daughter, Schuyler, 12.

Mrs. Johnson, 42, formerly was married to actor Keenan Wynn.

Johnson, 44, reported to be in Europe, faces a temporary alimony and child support hearing May 5.

The wife asks me to set the table, dry dishes and bathe the baby. I think husbands should do men's work and wives should do women's work. How do other husband and wife combinations solve this problem?

ALL MAN

DEAR ALL MAN: In homes where the husband's help is needed, a "real" man pitches in and does whatever is necessary to lighten his wife's load.

(There are plenty of women who chop wood, haul trash and put up storm windows, and THEY don't whine about the injury done to their feminine pride.) It takes a REAL man, who has no doubts about his masculinity, to don a ruffled apron and bathe the baby.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is unusual. I am interested in a boy who will not ask me out because his parents disapprove of his dating a girl of a different religion. We are both mature college students. I feel that this boy's parents are exercising too much authority over him by trying to choose his friends.

How can I make him realize that the difference in our religions doesn't matter to me? I think a person's character is what is important — not his religion. His parents have no right to stand between us. Or am I wrong?

SERIOUS COED

DEAR COED: You are wrong. Even though the religious difference doesn't matter to you, it obviously matters a great deal to him. Yes, "character" is important — but if he defied his parents' wishes, he would not have the "character" you admire. Find a young man of your own faith with character and don't encourage this one to go against the wishes of his parents.

DEAR ABBY: We have a son who is six years old. He is at the age where he likes to play cowboys, but his father will not permit it. He says it is wrong for a boy to point a gun at people, and he will not allow toy guns in our house.

When we get together with people who have children near the age of our son, they all play cops and robbers and our little boy has to sit in the corner. My husband's mother says that when my husband was little, that's all he played. Is my husband right or wrong?

MRS. S.

DEAR MRS. S.: Your husband's theory is not practical. (I wish it were, but let's face it, it isn't.) Causing a child to feel "different" or "left out" often does more damage to his emotional growth than playing with toy guns.

DEAR ABBY: I disagree with your decision that a fellow should carry a girl's bowling ball. If a female is strong enough to play golf, tennis, ski and bowl, she is strong enough to carry her own bowling ball. Besides, if the gentleman bowler carried HIS ball and shoes (16 pounds) and HERS (15 pounds), how is he supposed to open the door? With his foot?

Pays Tribute to Jane Addams

ROCKFORD, Ill. (UPI) — Rockford College celebrates its centennial this weekend by paying tribute to its most famous daughter, Jane Addams, "one of the nation's first and most feminine of the lady mavericks."

The college's Jane Addams centennial observance also will feature the inauguration of the school's new president, John A. Howard, former president of Palos Verdes College of Rolling Hills, Calif.

The late Jane Addams, however, was to be the "heart of the centennial's spirit," said Russell Ward Ballard, director of the famed shelter for the poor, Hull House, which she founded.

Jane was one of the few females of her day to receive college training and was graduated with the 1881 class of the Rockford Female Seminary, better known then as the "femsems."

★ ★ ★

Jane delivered her graduation speech in Greek "but proceeded to go out into the world a little lost, even a little bitter because girls couldn't get 'degrees' but young men could," Ballard said.

She wandered the world for nine years, making three trips to Europe, and becoming so impressed, "after her confusion," with the pauper's shelter in London, Toynbee Hall, that she decided she would start one in Chicago.

FOR IMMIGRANTS

Jane founded Hull House in 1889, Ballard said, "when the city was full of immigrants and more were coming and nobody was too friendly with them, either, except Jane."

Hull House continued to international fame and was honored as soon as 1910 by Yale and Wisconsin universities, who called Jane "one of the great pioneers of 'applied sociology.'"

Jane's father was a Quaker, banker, farmer and friend of Abraham Lincoln's. The Addams family lived in Cedarville, Ill., about 30 miles northwest of here, where Jane was born.

"What chance Jane would have in today's world with her high spirit of social conscience and non-conformity will be one of the things I speak on at the centennial," Ballard said. "She was one of the nation's first and most feminine of the lady mavericks, hard in her way for causes, but very feminine."

Other speakers at the centennial's start Friday afternoon will be Rockford College president emeritus, Dr. Mary Ash; Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill), and Dr. Eveline M. Burns, professor of sociology, New York School of Social Work.

At Saturday's sessions will be Mrs. Paul H. Douglas (Emily Taft), daughter of sculptor Lorado Taft, who will chairman a panel of Miss Addams' acquaintances in a program called "as I remember."

Beside Mr. Howard's formal inauguration, Saturday's ceremonies will also feature "A Journey to Jane Addams' Homestead" and "Ceremony at Grave of Jane Addams," the Illinois farm girl who fought for playgrounds in Chicago and won a Nobel Peace Prize in 1931.

Club Plans Style Show Tuesday

Gloria Buck, assistant chief operator from Michigan Bell Telephone Co., showed the film "Plan for Pleasant Living" for Fashionette Club members Tuesday at Adah Shelly Library.

The film was an imaginary tour of a national magazine's model home. The speaker showed slides of various rooms in the house, discussing color schemes and decorating devices. Members then were asked to fill out quiz forms on the subjects covered.

Three members tying for the greatest weight loss trophy for the week were Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mrs. Willard Harroun and Mrs. John Kraus. Last week's winner was Mrs. Galen Dawson.

New members received into the group were Mrs. Jack Munro, Mrs. Harroun and Mrs. Dawson.

The group has completed plans for its annual spring style show Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. at St. Thomas Hall.

Mrs. John Neaves is chairman, assisted by Mrs. David Cowan, Mrs. Peter Hernandez, Mrs. Bert Hillock, Mrs. Martinus Hanson, Mrs. Matthew Fotheringham, Mrs. Edward Cook and Mrs. Wava Forker.

Summer dresses and play clothes from Federal Department store will be shown. Modeling will be Mrs. Frank Reichert, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Harold Hopper. Teen-age fashions will be modeled by Sharon Brooks, Janet Reichert, Barbara Hillock and Pauline Noell. Children's attire will be worn by Robert Bordeaux and Merrie Lynn Cook.

★ ★ ★

As an added feature old fashioned frocks will be displayed.

Entertainment, refreshments and prizes will be featured.

TV Concert Theme

When the vocal department of Eastern Junior High School presents its annual spring concert Wednesday and Thursday, a television theme will prevail.

Keying its numbers to popular television shows, the department calls its concert "An Evening With Television."

Musical directors for the 8 p.m. affair which will be in Eastern's auditorium are Margaret Snyder, Leonard Griffin and William Coffing.

Acts include "The Buccaneers" and "Gunsmoke" by the Boys Glee Club and "The Garry Moore Show" by the Junior Girls Glee Club.

Senior Girls Glee Club will present "Adventures in Paradise" and "The Big Top."

Even weather forecasts will be covered when the Ninth Grade Ensemble presents "Miss Fairweather."

Background settings have been conceived and executed by the Eastern Art department under the supervision of Mrs. Maurice Levine. Tickets for the affair which is open to the public are available at the door.

Spring in Pink Theme Prevails

Business Gals Fete Bosses at 7th 'Night'

Pontiac Press Photos

Members of Tipacon Chapter of the American Business Women's Assn. sponsored their annual Boss Night dinner Wednesday at Sylvan Glen Inn. Photographed at the punch bowl were four "bosses" who have attended all seven of the chapter's dinners, from left, D. B. McNeil, Dr. W. O. Roeser, Dr. Edith Roach Snyder and Maynard Van Eck of Royal Oak. Mrs. Clifford Marsh poured.

A "Springtime in Pink" theme prevailed Wednesday evening when Tipacon Chapter of the American Business Women's Assn. presented its seventh annual Boss Night.

Scene of festivities was Sylvan Glen Inn. Members and their boss guests overflowed the long west terrace dining room where a buffet dinner and social hour preceded the program.

Cochairmen were Lillian Laska and Dorothy Adair. Frances Phillips, the "lady in pink," directed dining room arrangements.

RECEIVES TOPHY

Receiving the Elbert Hubbard Trophy Award from Mary Veazey as honorary boss for 1960 was W. Dean Thompson Jr., divisional auditor for General Motors Truck and Coach Division.

He was guest of Joanne Callahan.

Sandy McAbee of Waterford Township High School rendered vocal solos.

She was followed by an original dramatic skit by a group of students from her school under the direction of Patty Looman.

Guest speaker William J. Dean delivered humorous observations on television commercials.

Committees included Elsa Leece and Shirley Lunsford, reservations; Margaret Gibbs, tickets; Asenath Borst and Mrs. Adair, program; and Dortha Reynolds and Selma Atkinson, invitations.

Others assisting were Hester Welch, hostesses; Mary Veazey, programs; Julie O'Brien, publicity; Mrs. Adair and Ruth Cramer, decorations; Phila Brown, conversation table; Joyce Marsh and Kathleryn Sumpter, favors; Miss Phillips, punch bowl; and Dorothy Virtues and Ruth Woodworth, photographic arrangements.

Historian-photographer was Margaret Scott.

Seating the "bosses" was a pleasurable duty for ABWA members Mrs. Charles Irish, left, and Mrs. Albert Adair. W. D. Hanby was assisted by Mrs. Irish and Howard B. Heldenbrand, by Mrs. Adair.

William J. Dean, above, gave a humorous address entitled "I Like Commercials" at Tipacon Chapter's annual Boss Night dinner. Frances Phillips, left, was in charge of dining arrangements and Lillian Laska, right, was general chairman. "Spring Time in Pink" was the theme for festivities.

Want to Lose 5-10 Pounds?

Swim Suit Season Soon

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Where you disappointed with yourself at Easter? Did you look less lovely than you wished because of five to 10 pounds you had meant to lose before then?

★ ★ ★

Don't let it happen again! Soon summer clothes and swim suits will be part of our wardrobes. At this time each year I bring you my Nine-Day Reducing diet to help you lose quickly for the swim and play clothes season.

Rather than taking sulphur and molasses for a spring tonic women today take fruit and vegetable juices and concentrate on exercise and weight control. As part of your spring tonic increase your intake of these juices.

You can buy them in cans or prepare them at home. Of course a needed weight loss is also a wonderful tonic. It is as essential to your health as it is to your figure.

Here are the menus for tomorrow.

BREAKFAST
One egg
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast
Black coffee

LUNCHEON
Fresh fruit salad
Two tablespoons cottage cheese
One glass skimmed milk
One thin dry slice of whole wheat toast

DINNER
Baked fish, medium portion
One-half cup cabbage, lightly cooked
One-half cup spinach or greens
One glass skimmed milk
One orange

If you have missed some of the menus and would like to have my Nine-Day Reducing Diet booklet send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it. You can lose five to 10 pounds on the diet. Address Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Allemanders Hold Election

Allemanders Square Dance Club elected the following officers at a dance Saturday evening: James McCollum, president; Mrs. Roy MacAfee, vice president; Mrs. Charles March, secretary; and Mrs. Roy Haskins, treasurer.

Donald Shaw and Edward Baker were elected to the board of governors.

Signing the guest book were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Ravis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zelinski, the R. G. Millers, Richard Wiltons, Allen Irvins and the Ralph Sheltons.

Gardens, Park at Cranbrook Church to Open

May 1 will mark the opening of the gardens and park of Cranbrook House and the annual spring carillon concerts at Christ Church Cranbrook. Concerts will be given each Sunday in May at 4 p.m.

★ ★ ★

The gardens and park will be open daily except Mondays and major holidays, from 2 to 5 p.m. until the end of October.

Gardens tickets may be purchased at the art galleries desk on weekdays and on Sundays at the main gate on Lone Pine road. Proceeds benefit the scholarship funds of Cranbrook schools.

Students from the University of Michigan school of music will present concerts May 1 and 22. Others who will play are Fred Fahrner of Detroit, May 8; Frederick Merriott of Detroit, May 15, Cranbrook Founders' Day; and Mrs. Richard Buchanan of Birmingham, May 29.

The concerts are free.

To Discuss Tax

Galloway Lake Citizens Committee is sponsoring an open discussion on the school tax millage increase issue at 7:30 p.m. May 4 in Pontiac Township Hall on Opdyke road. The public is invited.

Call It What You Will, a Debt Is Still a Debt

By RUTH MILLETT

"The families grandmother used to call 'bad managers' are now labelled 'overextended,'" says Marceiene Cox.

Yeah, and "putting on the dog" is now called "status seeking."

"Going into debt" for something is now dignified by the term, "financing."

"Trying to make ends meet" is called "family budgeting."

"Putting something aside for a rainy day" is referred to as "planning for future security."

"Pin money" or "egg money" has become the housewife's "personal allowance."

"Heading for the poor farm" is now referred to as "living beyond one's means."

"Borrowing from Peter to pay Paul" is today called "refinancing."

"Asking for a loan" now is "establishing credit."

But no matter how we change the terms—the situations remain pretty much the same.

The only difference is that the old-fashioned terms were a little more colorful and usually a lot more to the point than today's more dignified but less definite ones.

★ ★ ★

Saying that a family was as "poor as Job's turkey" was certainly more descriptive than calling them by today's label — "underprivileged."

MRS. DAVID S. YOH

Mary Lee Bell Marries Rev. David Yoh in Flint

Honeymooning at Montego Bay, Jamaica, are newlyweds Rev. and Mrs. David S. Yoh following their wedding in Court Street Methodist Church, Flint.

The bride is the former Mary Lee Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bell of Durand. The bridegroom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Harry B. Yoh of Clarkston, formerly of Pontiac.

For her wedding the bride chose a street-length, ice blue sheath dress of lace with a silk organza tunic and overskirt. She wore a matching lace pillbox hat securing a shoulder-length veil and carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Her sister, Nancy of Durand served as maid-of-honor. Kathryn Stinger of Durand was the bride's other attendant.

Duties as best man were performed by Thomas C. Morgan Jr. of Birmingham. Ushers were the bridegroom's brother William of Ortonville, their brother-in-law Frank T. Russell of Ortonville, Robert C. Mulligan and C. Bruce Campbell, both of Highland Park.

Also seating the guests were C. Eugene Cook of Grand Rapids, the Rev. Alden Burns of Muskegon Heights, Prosser M. Watts of Adrian, David M. Saxman of Evanston, Ill., and Russell B. Nankervis of Farmington.

The newlyweds will live on Main St. in Vernon where Rev. Yoh is minister of the Vernon Methodist Church.

Committees for Omega Mu Sigma Sorority's annual breakfast June 12 were announced when members met Tuesday with Mrs. Louis Livingston of Woodbine drive. Mrs. Harold Clifford was cohostess to the 20 members present.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ray Peterson, general chairman for the breakfast, announced the chairmen as Mrs. Patrick Cullen, place; Mrs. Carl Coster, flowers; Mrs. Louis Livingston, entertainment; and Mrs. Leo Halfpenny, hospitality.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Raymond Koskela of Clarkston will be hostess for the next meeting, assisted by Mrs. Peterson.

JOAN MARIE HAUSKER

A September wedding is planned by Joan Marie Hausker and Jerry A. Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers of Spring Arbor. The bride-elect, daughter of the Kenneth Anthony Hauskers of Scott Lake road, Waterford Township, attends Cleary College, Ypsilanti. Her fiance attended Spring Arbor College.

Invitation to All Not in Error

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I live next door to my in-laws. This past weekend my brother-in-law (single and living at home with his parents) had guests (his girl friend and two other friends). Having met them previously, my husband and I went over to say "hello." Upon leaving, we asked them if they would like to come over to our house for a cocktail. They accepted.

They stayed about two hours and seemed to be enjoying themselves. I have heard since that my brother-in-law resented our doing this and thinks that we had no right to take his guests away. Will you please tell me if we were wrong?

Answer: It would have been inconceivably rude of you to have invited your brother-in-laws' guests without inviting him too, so I assume that you did. And if you did invite him, and all four came to your house, you were not taking his guests away from him and there was no reason for his resenting your action.

Dear Mrs. Post: When meeting those in great sorrow, what should be said, or done? I always feel so awkward and never know what to say.

Answer: To those in great sorrow you press their hands warmly — perhaps if you know them well, kiss them tenderly and say, "I'm so sorry!"

But you do not ply them with questions. If they want to talk to you, you listen and answer sympathetically; otherwise you move away without forcing them to talk. Your sympathy is shown in the expression of your face, the tone of your voice and the warmth of your handclasp.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is a champagne glass held by the stem or by the bowl? It seems rather large to be held by the stem but I am told this is the correct way.

Answer: It is held with the thumb and index finger partially around the under side of the bowl and the other fingers against the stem (not jutting out into the air).

Dear Mrs. Post: When a hostess gives a party and one of her guests seems to be drinking too much, can she refuse to serve him any more liquor?

We live in the suburbs and many of our friends have to drive back to the city after a party and I feel it my responsibility that they get home safely. Is there a tactful way to handle this situation?

Answer: She certainly may. In this instance being a little rude to one who is going to drive his, or her, own car home is infinitely better than being overhospitable and very possibly contributing to a horrible accident.

Hard Lines; Firm Faces

(NEA) — Girls who set their mouths in firm, hard lines are the women who will approach middle-age with firm, hard faces. A good many of the lines one acquires with the years are put there by poor facial habits.

Habitual frowning creases the forehead and can help to deepen lines from nose to mouth since the whole face tightens up when you frown. Try it. Nervous grimaces can produce a whole network of lines.

Have Picture Look 'at Home' on Your Wall

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)— Home furnishing specialists at the University of Nebraska report that a picture can "lend character" to a room as well as convey to guests an idea of the family's interests.

The picture can also play the lead part around which a room's furnishings are planned, the specialists said.

★ ★ ★

Extension housing expert Mrs. Jerre Withrow said, "In this day and age good pictures are within reach of everyone. Anyone can order prints of world-recognized paintings from many art galleries at a very low cost."

★ ★ ★

"Select a picture because you like it," she advised. "To look 'at home' in its surroundings, it must match in feeling and color note the room in which it is to be placed. A well-selected picture can tie colors in the room together."

To Mark Mental Health Week With Five Special Days May 2-6

LAPEER — The Lapeer State Home and Training School will mark Mental Health Week, May 2 through May 6, with daily open houses to acquaint public officials, doctors and school personnel with its work.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan Society for Mental Health program to be conducted in all state hospitals during the week is called "Operation Friendship."

It is authorized by the Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health.

Legislators, county and municipal officers and newspaper reporters will visit the facilities on "Public Officials and Press Day," Monday.

On "Special Educators Day," Tuesday, teachers and supervisors of special education will tour the buildings and grounds.

Wednesday is set aside as "Professional Workers Day" with doctors, psychologists and social workers to be guests.

The institution will be open to the public Thursday and Friday. The staff is particularly anxious to have adults look and get acquainted on these days.

★ ★ ★

The tours will start at 1 p.m. at the Employes Building and continue to 3 p.m., according to Dr. Ellen Smith, acting superintendent.

To Begin Cleanup in Keego

Mayor Samuel L. Whitmore said "In asking the cooperation of all citizens, I remind them that this is the time to take stock of our community appearance."

In his proclamation, he continued, "If everyone, homemaker, retailer, industrialist and government, puts forth an all-out effort our community will retain and increase its reputation as a progressive city."

Deputy Fire Marshal John Sellman said that fire prevention is a vital part of the week.

'NOT MERE SLOGAN'

"Clean-Up is not just a slogan. It's a vital way to prevent fire from threatening your home and loved ones."

He said the Fire Prevention Bureau urges all residents to check their homes for fire hazards.

Included in the inspection should be a check of the furnace, and heating and wiring systems.

Sellman also said: that old clothes, furniture and newspapers should be removed from the attic, basement and garage.

That periodic home fire drills should be held with instructions on what to do should fire start from an uncontrollable cause.

SS. Cyril, Methodius Diamond Jubilee Event

Seminary Sets Musical Pageant

By JIM LONG

ORCHARD LAKE — A musical pageant depicting the 75-year history of SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, St. Mary's College, and St. Mary's High School will be presented Sunday to the public at 7:30 p.m. in the campus auditorium.

More than 100 students from the Catholic institution will appear in the free two-hour production.

The pageant is one of the last events to be given at the institution this year in celebrating its 75th anniversary. The Jubilee year ends July 19.

Founded in 1885, the Orchard Lake school has prepared more than 2,000 priests to serve in Polish-speaking parishes throughout the country.

The Diamond Jubilee pageant begins with a tribute to the Rev. Joseph Dabrowski, founder and first rector of the seminary.

In words and music it tells of his decision to establish a seminary to provide immigrants with Polish-speaking priests in America. As the scene unfolds, the extent of the seminary alumni is revealed.

Scene two reveals the move by the Rev. Witold Buhaczkowski to transfer the seminary from Detroit to Orchard Lake in 1909.

A requiem scene pays tribute to the six rectors who have guided the institution.

The final scene takes place on the campus with a synopsis of a student's life and activities, from the time he enrolls until he departs for duties in the priesthood.

The pageant ends with the chorus singing "Serdeczna Matko" ("Mother Most Dear"). It is a tribute the school's many friends and benefactors.

Coordinator and playwright of the pageant is the Rev. Zdzislaus Peszkowski. Production manager and music director is the Rev. Henry Waraksa.

The Rev. John Gabalski, director of the dramatic portions of the play, will be assisted by the Rev. Walter Sebrowski and the Rev. Casimir Skowronski, who will serve as English and Polish commentators, respectively.

The musical background will be provided by the school's three choral organizations. Based on traditional hymns, the music has been arranged especially for the pageant by Fr. Waraksa.

On Saturday the pageant will be staged for the benefit of Detroit Polish Parochial Schools.

Banished Signs Still Line Right of Way

WALLED LAKE — With the deadline to remove business signs from the county right of way only two days off, more than half the signs in violation still are standing, according to Richard Kincaid of the County Road Commission.

"The county still feels the signs must be removed or moved back," Kincadi said. "However we expect to get the cooperation of the merchants by then."

He said six small signs have been taken down or removed from the county right-of-way along Maple road, but there are many larger signs still remaining.

In February, 17 merchants who were in violation received notices to remove the signs in a week.

However, the businessmen protested the short notice and the date was set for April 29 by the county.

Farm Work Out for Children in School Hours

Farmers who are hiring workers for spring planting and harvesting were reminded today by the U.S. Department of Labor that federal law prohibits children under 16 from working on farms during school hours.

"The place for children is in the classroom and not in the fields," said Regional Director William S. Singley of the Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the agency which enforces the federal child-labor law.

Singley added that children of any age may do farm work before or after school hours, on weekends, or on holidays. He stated, too, that farm children working exclusively for their parents or guardians are exempt from the federal child-labor law.

"I also want to point out that the child-labor provisions apply equally to local children and to migrants," Singley said. "However, migrant children under 16 may be employed in the spring if the school they last attended is closed for the summer, even though schools may still be open in the area where they now work."

Hope to Prevent Selling

Prod PTA Congress Into Battle on Smut

Prompted by the Walled Lake and Berkley PTA councils, the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers has resolved to try to stop the sale of "obscene" literature before it arrives on corner store racks.

Mrs. Barbara Scully, president of the Walled Lake PTA, has proposed that PTA groups throughout the state encourage public officials in efforts to prevent the distribution of obscene literature as well as to back their efforts in prosecuting offenders.

Mrs. Margaret M. Shea, president of the Berkley PTA, has recommended that the PTA cooperate with other civic groups in an educational campaign to "raise standards" of books and magazines sold in their community.

The Michigan PTA Congress has also adopted resolutions favoring a constitutional convention and seeking state reforms designed to improve school finance.

The group is demanding that the Legislature restore state aid to adult recreation programs in public schools on a year-to-year basis.

In another resolution, the Congress has opposed action by county tax allocation boards which would reduce the school's share of county taxes after voters have approved tax rate increases for school financing.

It also is urging that school districts be organized on a more equitable basis, that they accept federal aid "with no strings attached," that periodic fire and safety inspections be conducted in schools, the establishment and maintenance of a strong system of community colleges, additional courses in home and family living, and renewed efforts to uphold the American way of life.

Young Democrats to Convene Friday

DETROIT (AP)—The Young Democrats will hold their state convention here with Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-NJ) the main speaker Friday night.

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, Secretary of State James M. Hare and Edward Connor, Detroit city councilman, will appear at a Saturday luncheon.

CLIFFORD — A chicken supper will be served to the public at the Odd Fellows Hall here Saturday starting at 5:30 p.m.

Slate Puppet Show at Church Saturday

ROCHESTER — A puppet show will be presented at 3 p.m. Saturday at St. Paul's Methodist Church by the Rochester Cooperative Nursery School to raise funds for outdoor play equipment.

Two stories will be told by the puppets guided by Miss Marilyn Mazzucchi, auditorium teacher at Burt Elementary School, Detroit.

"The Hunting" is the story of witches and a beautiful princess. The tale of "The Bucket" revolves around two children, a greedy girl favored by her mother and a good daughter. The story ends happily when the mother learns she is wrong in favoring the greedy child.

Miss Mazzucchi studied puppetry with Lettie Connell of California, whose shows are famous throughout the country, and with Gil Oden of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Lawrence Shepard, 229 Rochdale Dr., or any of the Nursery School mothers.

Area Paper Co. Is Expanding

Begin Construction of $100,000 Addition in Rochester

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Paper Co. has begun construction of a $100,000 addition to its present plant on Mill street to meet the needs of increased business, Paul H. Travis, company president, announced today.

The two-story addition will be 60 by 200 feet in size and of cement block construction. It is being built on the south side of the existing building.

According to Travis, the expansion is needed to provide more space for company operations because of the growing volume of business in recent years.

The addition will be used for converting paper and paper board, and when it is completed more employes will be added to the company's present 100-man payroll, the company president said.

J. A. Fredman Inc., Pontiac, is the contractor. Plans also are being made to add new machinery when the addition is finished about Aug. 1.

The Rochester company is the oldest paper mill in Michigan. It was built as a flour mill in 1823 then converted into a paper mill in 1867.

Hausers Honeymooning Along Lake Michigan

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Donald N. Hauser will reside at Plymouth following their honeymoon trip along Lake Michigan.

The bride is the former Bonnie Gale Wooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Wooley of 716 Commercial St. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Hauser of Edon, Ohio.

For her wedding in St. William Catholic Church at Walled Lake the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of net over satin with lace inserts and a valencia lace top.

The sweetheart neckline was trimmed with pearls and sequins to match her tiara securing a shoulder-length veil. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis on her prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Tusan of South Hadley, Mass., formerly of Commerce, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lorene Payton of Ferndale, formerly of Walled Lake, and the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Wooley of Walled Lake.

Duties as best man were performed by Leon Radabaugh of Blakeslee, Ohio. The bride's brother, Donald, and Richard Siebenalee of Edon, Ohio, seated the guests.

A reception was held in the Dublin Community Center.

Pile Biting Statistics

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Bexar County officials are about ready to give up on the old theory that a dog's bark is worse than his bite. They report that 2,754 San Antonians were bitten by dogs in 1959, and that 21,404 persons were bitten in the last 10 years.

Alabama was settled by the French in 1702.

Avon Chloriding to Go on Ballot

Township Board Waits for Recommendations of Supervisors in County

By LEE WINBORN

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Avon Township Board is considering putting the question of abolishing annual township meetings on the Aug. 2 ballot.

Board members last night took action, however, on another question to be voted on in the primary election — that of levying one-half mill for chloriding township roads.

Like them, Avon Township officers are concerned with the constitutionality of the annual session.

Avon officials agree that the small groups who attend the annual meetings are not truly representative of the whole population and that the meetings temporarily take away the powers of the vested township officials.

As an example of verification required of action taken by persons who attended the annual meeting in Avon April 2, township attorney Rex Bebout recommended that the one-half mill tax levy approved by the group for chloriding township roads be put on the Aug. 2 ballot.

The only other means of legally handling the proposed tax levy is to get 65 per cent of the property owners to sign petitions and then hold a public hearing.

PRESENT PETITIONS

Petitions to that affect were presented last night, but township officials decided nevertheless to put the question on the ballot.

The resolution, as adopted, favors putting the question of levying a one-half mill tax on assessed valuation as equalized for chloriding township gravel roads, outside the village of Rochester, for a period of five years on the primary election ballot.

In anticipation of voter approval of the proposition, the Township Board voted to instruct the Oakland County Road Commission to chloride all gravel roads in Avon, outside the village, this year at the expense of the township.

Another request to be sent to the road commission is that the commissioners include in their 1961 budget funds to build a new bridge over the Clinton River at Avon and Livernois roads.

A number of residents of Brooklands subdivision were present to urge action on road improvement and alleviation of their drainage problems.

Supervisor Cyril E. Miller said, "We're going to work toward blacktopping roads with matching funds with the county." He made no promises as to dates the work could begin or how long the total project would take, but he reaffirmed the Board's desire to see that steps are taken in that direction as soon as possible.

On the matter of drainage in Brooklands subdivision, the Board authorized the establishment of a special drainage district and a drainage commission to work with the county drain commision on the problem.

A survey of drainage operations will be conducted in the next 30 to 45 days. The Township action stems from petitions presented by Brooklands residents seeking relief from flooding situations during spring thaws and rainy seasons.

The Board will advertise for bids on washing then painting the township hall to be opened at the next regular meeting May 11.

In other action, Clifford Holforty, of 2783 Hillendale Rd., was named to fill the vacancy on the Planning Advisory Commiesion created by the recent resignation of Dick Albyn.

Rev. Gerken Accepts Post in Fort Wayne

ROCHESTER — The Rev. Walter C. Gerken, pastor of St. John Lutheran Church, has accepted a call to Fort Wayne, Ind., to be assistant executive director of the Lutheran Deaconess Assn.

The Rev. Gerken will preach his farewell sermon in Rochester June 12. He has been pastor of St. John's for nearly 14 years.

Rev. Gerken has seen his church membership grow from 139 to 954 persons. Under his guidance the church, first school building and the recent school addition have been built.

The pastor is married and has five children, including four sons who are studying for the ministry, and a daughter, who married a Detroit minister recently.

The Gerkens live at 1003 W. University Dr.

You Can Smile, Gals, but Don't Get Active

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — It is all right to smile, the Sweetheart Election Commission at the University of Texas said, but active campaigning is taboo.

The commission warned candidates that no campaigning "other than speaking to personal friends will be allowed regardless of the distance from the polls."

Kefauver Asks Unit on Crime

Says It Should Probe Syndicates Financed by Crooked Gambling

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) called Wednesday for the creation of a national crime commission to investigate the steady growth of syndicated crime bankrolled by billions made in illegal gambling enterprises.

Kefauver, who investigated underworld activities for the Senate in 1949-51, told the New York State Crime Commission in a prepared statement read by a former aide that a national crime commission would help local authorities keep on top of an increasingly difficult situation.

He urged the commission, which is holding hearings on illegal gambling to call local officials as witnesses to ask them about any "pattern of criminal operations" within their jurisdiction.

Kefauver said his investigation a decade ago showed that 20 billion dollars changed hands annually in illegal betting in the early 1950s, and that millions of dollars were paid annually in bribes to protect these operations.

The senator said crime conditions today are as bad as they were then, and probably worse. He charged that not enough investigations of organized crime are taking place in the nation and hinted that public officials have been corrupted.

Rep. Sallade Collapses on Campaign Trail

THREE RIVERS (AP) — State Rep. George Sallade collapsed here yesterday while campaigning for the Republican nomination for lieutenant governor.

Sallade, 37, of Ann Arbor, was hospitalized at Three Rivers Hospital. A doctor there said his condition was good.

The legislator is a diabetic and his doctor indicated he collapsed from an insulin reaction.

Sallade, 37, is finishing his third term in the Legislature. Before his election in 1954 he was president of the Ann Arbor City Council. He is a native of Ann Arbor and has four children.

Dems in Jersey County Will Support Kennedy

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (UPI) — New Jersey's Hudson County Democrats will support Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for the presidential nomination at the national Democratic convention, it was reported today.

Sheriff William V. Flanagan, chief political aide of Hudson Democratic leader John V. Kenny, said Hudson was wary of any attempt to give Adlai E. Stevenson the nomination for the third time.

Since 1951 the total use of newspapers by advertisers has increased 40 per cent. During the same period, color in newspaper ads has increased more than 100 per cent.

That's a Fowl Hot Dog

ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI) — The traditional hot dog, generally made with pork, veal and beef, has a competitor. The College of Agriculture at Cornell University developed a hot dog made from chicken. A spokesman says it tastes like "a real hot dog." The new product has no name.

'Politics,' Cry 55 Dems at Summit Bid for VP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fifty-five Democratic congressmen Wednesday accused President Eisenhower of trying to further Richard M. Nixon's "political ambitions" by tapping the vice president as his possible substitute at the May 16 summit conference.

The House members were joined by several Democratic senators in denouncing the President's announcement that Nixon may have to replace him for several days at the conference table. A few Democrats joined Republicans in defending the President.

The 55 congressmen called on Eisenhower to "explain why during this election year he has suddenly decided to relinquish his job as President to the candidate he has endorsed as his successor."

"By this obvious and transparent move, the Republican administration has subordinated the hopes of Americans and free men everywhere for peace in the world to the political ambitions of Vice President Nixon," the House members said in a statement.

READY FOR VETOES

The statement was issued after the President told his news conference that he might have to return home from Paris to veto what he considers unwise legislation passed by the Democratic - controlled Congress.

He had been asked about a White House announcement yesterday that "domestic requirements" might force the President's return. Eisenhower also plans to visit Portugal May 23-24 even though the summit conference may not have ended by then.

The President's choice of Nixon as his possible substitute was approved by some Democrats, notably former President Harry S. Truman and Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (D-Mont).

Truman, in the capital on a five-day visit, said the President had "a perfect right" to let the vice president replace him. He also said the nation should rally behind the President on foreign affairs.

Mansfield called the President's move "logical and natural." He said he thought Nixon would do a good job if called on to represent the United States.

But the 55 congressmen said the move "is to be deplored by every person whose hopes for peace transcend political barriers and the presidential aspirations of one man and one party."

YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS... UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

There's no secret about it—Chevrolet can give you more basic comforts and conveniences because it makes more cars and builds them more efficiently. As a matter of fact, if other low-priced cars gave you what Chevy does, they couldn't afford to be low priced. But check these Chevy advantages and see for yourself what we mean.

You've got 24 engine-transmission combinations to choose from—more than any other car. And Chevy's the only car in its field with an automatic transmission that eliminates even a hint of a shift—satin-smooth Turboglide.* You also get oil-hushed hydraulic valve lifters in all popular engines—another Chevy exclusive that prolongs valve life. Fuel economy? The new Economy V8 gets up to 10% more miles on every gallon and Chevy's Hi-Thrift 6 is famous for the way it skimps on gas. Only Chevy among the leading low-priced three has the friction-free cushioning of coil springs in the rear. And while we're telling you why you should get into a Chevy, let's not forget the higher entrance height that makes getting in so much easier. Try it!

Burglar Alarm Jingles in Empty Bank Building

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—A burglar alarm at the First National Bank building in downtown Lincoln brought police on the run.

But there were no burglars. There wasn't even a bank.

The First National Bank had vacated the quarters several days earlier in connection with its merger with another Lincoln bank.

Police blamed defective wiring for the alarm.

MATCH IT IF YOU CAN

Put Valiant up against the other two new compacts, Corvair and Falcon, by name. Compare 'em any way you like. For looks, economy, performance, room. Anyway! Compare your head off. Valiant's got 'em both beat, but good. Here's what we mean:

CHECK ECONOMY
Valiant beat the carburetors off both Falcon and Corvair in the Mobilgas Economy Run.
VALIANT.....27.29 MPG
CORVAIR.....27.03 MPG
FALCON.....25.64 MPG

CHECK SKEDADDLE
Valiant walked off with the first seven places in the Daytona Trials. Corvair and Falcon? Still mumbling.
VALIANT....101 HP inclined six
CORVAIR.....80 HP pancake six
FALCON.....90 HP standard six

CHECK ROOM
Valiant's got room for a wall-fed family of six. Plenty of room for legs, hips, heads and hats. And look how the trunks stack up:
VALIANT.....24.9 cu. ft.
CORVAIR.....11.3 cu. ft.
FALCON.....23.7 cu. ft.

CHECK LOOKS
The New York Couture Group gave Valiant their Design Supremacy Award, said it was the best looking car in America.
VALIANT....nobody's kid brother
CORVAIR...imitation foreign bug
FALCON...everybody's kid sister

CHECK PRICE
Below is the manufacturer's suggested retail price of the lowest cost 4-door sedan of each make.
CORVAIR.....$2038
FALCON.....$1974

Valiant sedans and wagons look like they'd cost a bundle. But they just look expensive. For a fact, the way we're trading these days you can own a Valiant for not a penny more than Corvair or Falcon. And here's good news! Immediate delivery on all models (sedans & wagons), all colors (eight snappy ones). In addition, you'll get low bank rates with no payments 'til June. And remember we need good used cars, like the one you're driving. How about a visit from you, and you're family.

School Board Fires Paddlin' Teacher

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bohdan J. Pashkowsky, 30-year-old Langley High School teacher, has been fired for paddling more than 40 students because they didn't know their lessons.

The Pittsburgh Board of Public Education's decision came Wednesday night after a lengthy hearing.

A resolution passed unanimously by the board said, in part: "Mr. Pashkowsky did on March 8 willfully and grossly violate the rules of the board by the mass use of corporal punishment as a teaching technique."

Montana's Sen. Murray Decides to Quit at 83

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont) 83-year-old chairman of the Senate Interior Committee, announced today he will not seek renomination for a sixth term.

Murray's decision, which he said was made at the request of his family, eased what had turned into a bitter Montana primary battle in which the state's two House members were challenging him.

Vice President Nixon to Be Speaker at Annual Chamber Session

A talk by Vice President Richard M. Nixon will highlight a trip to Washington, D.C., next week by a 13-man delegation from the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

The vice president is scheduled as the main speaker Monday night at the annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce, which the Pontiac group will be attending.

Pontiac delegates are scheduled to breakfast with U.S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) Tuesday and meet with Sen. Philip A. Hart Wednesday.

Another highlight of the meeting will be the annual Michigan Congressional Dinner for all Michigan delegates Tuesday night.

The annual meeting runs from Sunday through Wednesday. The Pontiac group will fly to Washington in three shifts Saturday, Sunday and Monday and return Wednesday, said John W. Hirlinger, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Signed up to attend are:

Harry J. Woodman, chamber president; Albert W. Holcomb, first vice president; Stuart E. Whitfield, Glenn H. Griffin, Bruce J. Annett, J. L. Van Wagoner, Thomas Whitfield, Glenn Miller, John A. Riley, William Hart, Edward Wilson and Dr. F. Milton Hathaway.

Hirlinger will also attend.

Petal Garnish Pretties Dish

Too often homemakers are guilty of making meals for their families which although hearty and nutritious lack eye-appeal. There's the feeling that prettily arranged dishes are time consuming and to be made only when guests come for dinner.

This recipe has the distinctive touch of a simple meal elegantly prepared. Yet it is so quick and easy to make. Potato chip petals surround the tasty flower centers of tomato halves topped with Canadian Bacon and eggs and covered with a rich cheese sauce.

Served with a cool green salad this tempting dinner will make any family meal a special event.

Cheese Chip Mounds

2 tomatoes, halved
4 slices Canadian bacon
4 eggs
2 cups cheese sauce
Potato chips

Broil tomato halves. Place broiled slice Canadian bacon on top of each tomato half. Poach eggs and place on top of bacon. Cover with sauce and sprinkle generously with crushed potato chips. Surround tomato with whole potato chips in petal pattern.

CHEESE SAUCE: Make cream sauce by gradually blending 2 tablespoons flour with 2 tablespoons melted butter over low flame and slowly adding 1 cup evaporated milk. Put aside.

In double boiler melt 12 ounces grated Cheddar cheese with 4 ounces sherry wine, dash of tabasco, dash of Worcestershire sauce, and pinch of English mustard. Add cream sauce to this cheese mixture, stir well and pour. (Use ½ cup sauce per portion.)

Everyone Likes It

Yogurt is an international favorite. The cafeteria at the United Nations sells 120 dozen containers a week. Members from the Balkan countries stir it with a spoon and drink it; Frenchmen sprinkle it with sugar and eat it for dessert; Americans usually choose the fruit flavored varieties as a mid-afternoon snack.

Coconut on Fish

For that South Seas' touch, cube two pounds halibut fillet, season with salt and pepper. Pour on about 1-3 cup lime juice mixed with three tablespoons water. Dot with butter and sprinkle with a cup of flaked coconut. Bake, covered at 325 degrees about ½ hour.

New Foods Can Save You Time

A favorite vegetable in Europe is a broad, flat bean, dark green in color, with a definite crisp texture. This Italian variety bean now is being grown on our West Coast and quick-frozen so that American families can enjoy this European favorite. Look in the frozen food cabinets of your local markets for Italian Green Beans — they'll make a welcome change from more familiar vegetables.

Good when cooked but briefly in a little water to preserve their crispness, the beans are also excellent in casserole-type recipes. Combined with cut-up frankfurters, a creamy sauce and grated cheese they make an excellent supper dish. Hot rolls and a tossed salad round out the menu pictured today.

Frankalaya

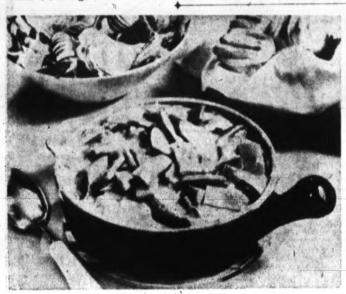
1 package (9 ounces) quick-frozen Italian green beans
1½ tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ cup chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped green pepper
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 cup milk
1 pound frankfurters, cut in thirds
¾ cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese

Cook green beans as directed on package; drain.

Meanwhile, melt butter in saucepan; add onion and green pepper and cook until tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour, salt, and pepper. Gradually add liquid, stirring constantly until thickened.

Arrange layers of green beans, frankfurters, and cream sauce, beginning and ending with green beans. Sprinkle with cheese.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 20 minutes or until mixture is bubbling hot. Makes 4 servings.



FRANKALAYA — Long a favorite in Europe, Italian Green Beans are now available in quick-frozen form in our local markets. Combined with frankfurters, cream sauce and grated cheese they make an excellent supper dish.

Prunes Add to Stuffing Also Garnish Pork Chops

For folks with hearty appetites you can't beat pork chops . . . especially when said chops bulge deliciously with this Prune Fruited Filling.

The filling offers the rich, winey tang of prunes, the tart sweetness of canned apple slices, the nut-like flavor of whole bran cereal, blended with celery, onion and seasonings. Slash deep pockets in the chops, tuck in the filling. Then after a pan browning, into the oven the chops go to bake. Now they're ready for the table . . . brown, savory, fork tender . . . and so thick and sturdy that it's one to a serving.

In serving, call on flavorful prunes again, this time the whole plumped ones as a garnish-relish. And to complete this hearty course of the meal we suggest baked sweet potatoes and lettuce hearts.

You get so much honest flavor in these fruit stuffed pork chops that they're well worth the few minutes extra it takes to prepare them. Here's how to do it:

Prune Fruited Pork Chops Deluxe

¼ cup minced onion
¼ cup butter
1 cup soft bread crumbs
½ cup whole bran cereal
1½ teaspoons poultry seasoning
½ cup chopped plumped prunes
½ cup diced canned apple slices
1 cup diced celery
6 pork chops, cut 1¼" thick
Salt and pepper
2 tablespoons flour
¼ teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup apple juice
Rosemary
Whole plumped prunes for garnish

Saute onion in butter until golden brown. Add bread crumbs, bran cereal, poultry seasoning, prunes, apples and celery. Mix well.

Split pork chops through middle to form pocket; sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Put an equal amount of stuffing into each pocket; fasten opening with skewers or sew together.

Mix together flour and paprika, roll chops in this mixture. Brown both sides in heated shortening. Place chops in covered baking pan; add apple juice and a sprinkle of rosemary. Cover.

Bake in hot oven, 400-degrees, 1½ hours, or until chops are tender. Garnish platter with whole plumped prunes. Makes 6 servings.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Beef Flank Steak.

Q. Where does it come from and how is it identified?

A. It comes from the flank section of the animal which is directly below the short loin and sirloin. This meat cut is an oval-shaped boneless steak weighing ¾ to 1½ pounds with muscles running lengthwise.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. By braising, a moist heat method of meat cookery. The meat is cooked slowly and requires between 1 and 2 hours cooking time. For variety, the steak may be rolled and cut into individual steak fillets.

Devilish Note Sounds in Divan

Try adding spicy deviled ham to a chicken or turkey divan next time you make one. It's a variation of a recipe that made a New York restaurant famous, you know, and gives a different, delicious taste to this easy, but interesting lunch or supped dish. It's so easily "put together," too, with just three main ingredients and a luscious cheese sauce topping it.

Just start with lively-flavored deviled ham covering the bottom of a shallow casserole, then a layer of chicken or turkey, and then bright-colored broccoli or fresh asparagus—right from the market.

You'll find this Deviled Divan dish so convenient, especially if you're having a party because there's so little to do with the ingredients all ready—way ahead of time just waiting to be put together and topped with a sparkling cheese sauce—baked—then swished under the broiler until sauce is golden-brown and bubbly. Serve it with fluffy, hot rice, if you like.

Deviled Turkey or Chicken Divan

2 4½ ounce cans deviled ham
Sliced cooked chicken or turkey
Cooked asparagus or broccoli
1 cup cheese sauce

Spread deviled ham on bottom of shallow casserole, then add layer of chicken or turkey slices, and next vegetable. Top with your favorite cheese sauce. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes, then cook under broiler until cheese bubbles and browns lightly.

Romantic Rosemary Is Subtle Flavoring Herb

Seasonings not only help transform ordinary dishes into poetry, they have a romantic past, as well. For example, Rosemary, which resembles a tiny pine needle, was a leading lady in Shakespeare's day. Ophelia says of her, "There's rosemary, that's for remembrance," for this herb was often placed on the graves of English heroes. After the Roman conquerors brought it to England, Saxon brides tucked Rosemary into their bouquets as a symbol of fidelity.

Now, American homemakers know it as a symbol of fine flavor. For example, when ¼ teaspoon rosemary is blended with 2 tablespoons butter and allowed to stand in a warm place for half an hour, it imparts an exciting newness to mashed potatoes, asparagus and zucchini.

Marinades made with rosemary do wonders for meats. Combine 1 teaspoon rosemary, 6 peppercorns, ½ teaspoon thyme, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1 teaspoon garlic powder, 1 tablespoon celery salt, with ½ cup olive oil and 2 tablespoons lemon juice and you'll be adding flavor of both the Indies and the Mediterranean to your meal.

Pour marinade over lamb; then refrigerate several hours, turning frequently. Use remaining marinade for basting during baking or broiling.

Rosemary does all sorts of gastronomic wonders when just ¼ teaspoon is added to chicken or pea soup, or when ½ teaspoon is added to a cornbread or muffin mixture before baking.

It gives appetizing relish and eye appealing garnish to fruit cups, fruit salads, jams, sauces and crabmeat.

What a Mess!

NEW YORK (UPI) — Old timers often refer to a "mess" of beans or other dish when talking of cooking. With good reason, according to early cookbooks displayed at a recent antiques fair in New York. The term means "to serve." Many recipes used the term "mess it forth" — meaning serve it.

Cottonseed oil and soybean oil are chiefly used in hydrogenated all-vegetable shortenings; sometimes corn oil and peanut oil are also used.

Friday's Soup

Hearty and appealing is this salmon chowder. Cook ½ cup chopped onion in butter. Blend in a can each of condensed cream of celery and mushroom soups, ¾ soup can evaporated milk, ¾ soup can water, 2 cups of flaked cooked salmon and a dash of pepper. Garnish with chopped parsley after ladling into 6 large soup bowls.

WHEAT GERM FRUIT CAKE — The addition of chopped fruit and wheat germ can convert a packaged spice-cake mix into a three-layer, second-helping delight. It is sure to win you pastry-chef acclaim.

Wheat Germ an Addition to Different Fruit Cake

One of the boons of modern baking is the many foolproof packaged-cake mixes on the market, which give pastry chef skills to even brand new brides. However, most homemakers, while relying on the basic package mix, like to add distinctive touches of their own.

If you make it soon, you'll make it often.

All you do is prepare the spice cake mix as directed on the package, then add the wheat germ and finely chopped prunes or mincemeat. The prunes, like the mincemeat, are available in packaged form on your grocer's shelves.

The fruit, regardless of which you choose, glorifies the flavor of the cake, and, with the wheat germ, mixed in the batter and sprinkled around the top edge of the cake, adds a lot of nutrition in the form of the B vitamins, protein, iron and other dietary essentials.

Top the cake with a fluffy white frosting and spread lemon filling between the layers. The frosting and the filling can be your own favorite recipes. Or, again, you can buy each in a package mix.

Grandmother may have had it just as good, but never so easy.

Wheat Germ Fruit Cake

1 package (1 lb. 2 oz. or 1 lb. 3 oz.) spice cake mix
1 cup wheat germ
1 cup finely chopped cooked prunes or canned mincemeat

Prepare spice cake mix as directed on package. Stir in wheat germ and prunes or mincemeat. Pour into 3 greased and floured 8-inch cake pans. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cool in pans 5 minutes remove from pans and cool on rack.

When cool, spread lemon filling between layers and frost top and sides of cake with fluffy white frosting. Edge top of cake with sprinkling of wheat germ. Yield: One 8-inch cake.

Lemon Filling:

Fluffy White Frosting

Prepare your own favorite 7-minute frosting or 1 package of fluffy white frosting mix prepared as directed on package. Flavor with lemon extract or vanilla as desired. Spread on top and sides of cake.

They'll Devour Hot Heroes

Thanks to the new "brown 'n' serve" French bread, you can make some of the most delicious hero sandwiches you ever tasted. You simply prepare a tangy filling, bake the whole sandwich in the oven and serve it while it's still piping hot. Our recipe suggests sardines for the filling, but you could use ham or bologna or any of a number of other meats.

With a crispy salad and plenty of steaming coffee, Hot Heroes are substantial fare for a ravenous family. They'll love 'em!

Hot Heroes

2 loaves "brown 'n' serve" French bread
½ lb. packaged sliced American cheese
Prepared mustard
2 cans sardines
Garlic butter

Before browning in oven, cut loaves in half lengthwise. On cut surfaces of bottom halves, arrange a layer of sardines. Top with sliced cheese cut to fit. Spread generously with prepared mustard. Replace top halves. Brush with garlic butter. Bake as directed. Cut each loaf in thirds to serve. Makes 6 servings.

Herb Butter

Half an hour before dinner, blend ¼ teaspoon of rosemary with 2 tablespoons of butter and let stand in a warm place. Just before serving, add this herbed butter to mashed potatoes, asparagus or zucchini.

Candy Topped Pies

Since yellow is a popular color in spring . . . because of its freshness . . . it also adds a gay note as a dessert garnish. Bake some frozen individual (5 ounce) apple or peach pies. Cool. Top with vanilla ice cream and a sprinkling of crushed yellow lemon candy.

If you remove the membrane from the edges of sliced liver, the chances are the slices won't curl during cooking.

Cheese in Cheese

Red-wrapped Edam filled with a tangy cheese spread adds color and good taste to your hors d'oeuvre tray. Cut the top from a small Edam, scoop out center of cheese and mash thoroughly. Add 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon mixed herbs, 2 tablespoons sour cream and a few grains cayenne pepper. Refill cheese shell and serve as a spread with assorted crackers.

Combine Canned Soups for Fisherman's Lunch

The man who fancies a rod and reel is quite often a man who loves to eat and it's a wise wife who packs a lunch to please his healthy appetite. A vacuum bottle of hot soup is a pre-requisite for the angler's lunch box. A favorite is a beverage soup combining condensed pea and tomato soups in a reproduction of a famous French recipe of wondrous flavor—Puree Mongole.

Midnight Interview—With Chef

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

By dragging out the French we studied so long ago we were able to decipher the menu Tuesday evening at the "April in Paris" party at the Kingsley Inn. However, one item had us completely stymied. It was "Pommes Noisette."

Late in the evening—close to midnight—we had a chat with chef Jaime Guerbe and asked him to translate the term. As usual, the explanation was simple.

Pommes Noisette looked like french fried potato cubes. That's what they were. Guerbe said that actually the potatoes should be about the size of a hazel nut which accounts for the "noisette."

Chef Guerbe is an interesting young man. In France he grew up in a family that owned a restaurant. His father is a chef. So when young Jaime came to America, it was natural for him to seek employment as a chef. He is devoted to his work despite the long hours—70-80 each week.

We asked him about differences in French and American restaurant kitchens. The number of human helpers seems to be the chief difference. Where he has seven assistants here, he might have 25 in France.

"Don't they get in each other's way?" we asked.

"No, each one has his own corner and sticks in it."

"Wasn't it difficult to plan a menu like the French party one for so many people?"

"Not particularly. The secret is in not trying to do too much."

And that, my fellow homemakers, is the secret of all good party planning. Don't try to do too much. Plan a meal that can be prepared in large part the day before or early in the morning on the day of the party. Keep your dishes simple and strive for quality.

Incidentally, Guerbe believes that Americans are not interested in quality cooking; they won't wait half an hour to have a special souffle or omelet made. They want immediate service.

Lunch hours too short?

* * *

As you know, French cooking makes use of many sauces. There was a creamy sauce served with the sole. For garnish each plate had a shrimp and a scallop.

We chose beef rather than chicken. Cooked to a rareness that was perfect, this beef had Bearnaise Sauce on it.

According to our reference cookbook, this sauce is similar to mayonnaise in consistency. It is served with broiled fish and dark meats. Never hot, never cold, but slightly warmed are the instructions for heating it. Here's the recipe if you would like to try it.

Bearnaise Sauce

1 cup white wine
1 tablespoon tarragon vinegar
1 tablespoon shallots, finely minced
Small sprig parsley, coarsely chopped
Small sprig tarragon, coarsely chopped
Small sprig chervil, coarsely chopped
4 peppercorns, bruised
2 egg yolks
¼ cup melted butter (about)
Cayenne pepper
½ teaspoon mixed tarragon and chervil, minced

Place wine, vinegar, shallots, parsley, chopped tarragon, chervil and peppercorns in upper art of double boiler. Cook over direct heat until reduced to ⅔ original volume. Strain through a fine sieve and return to double boiler. Cool slightly.

Set over hot water, not boiling, and beat in egg yolks, using wire whisk. Adding melted butter alternately until sauce is consistency of mayonnaise. Season with cayenne and minced herbs.

The secret of this sauce is the slow cooking of the egg yolks over hot water which should never reach the boiling point and the constant and rhythmic beating during the addition of the melted butter.

THE CROWING TOUCH — James Guerbe, chef at the Kingsley Inn, puts the finishing touches on a tray of assorted Petit Fours. This was in preparation for a gala April in Paris party held Tuesday evening during the time of President de Gaulle's visit to America.

Peanuts Enrich Macaroni Dish

If your budget is in sad shape, you're probably in the mood for a good, low-cost food to practice a bit of economy. You'll find that peanuts and peanut butter certainly fit the requirements, and their use is limited only by your imagination. Not only do they rank high in taste appeal, but they're well worth a place in your menus because of their food value, whatever the state of your budget.

* * *

You may boast your own special recipe for using peanuts or peanut butter in a salad, casserole, stuffing for fowl or in breads, cookies and pastries. Here's a recipe for macaroni and cheese with peanuts which is a mighty tasty nutritious dish, and a mighty economical one too:

Take an 8-ounce package of macaroni in small pieces and boil the macaroni in salted water. Cook until tender, then drain.

Melt 3 tablespoons of butter or margarine and blend in 2 tablespoons of flour, cayenne pepper if desired, and 1 teaspoon salt. Add 1½ cups of milk and cook slowly until thickened stirring constantly.

Arrange alternate layers of cooked macaroni, ⅔ cup grated cheese, and ¾ cup chopped salted peanuts in a greased baking dish, saving some peanuts and cheese for the top. Cover with white sauce and sprinkle with ¼ cup of crumbs mixed with 1 tablespoon of melted butter or margarine, and the remaining peanuts and cheese.

Brown in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for about 20 minutes. You'll have enough for four servings.

'Rainbow' on Cut Ham Absolutely Harmless

Homemakers have inquired about the "rainbow" colored film they've seen on the cut surface of cooked ham, says Josephine Lawyer, Consumer Marketing Information Agent for Oakland County.

* * *

The U. S. Department of Agriculture says the coloring is caused by the film of fat on the cut surfaces. Rays of light striking against it are bent, or "reflected," as they are in the forming of a rainbow against storm clouds.

* * *

Cheese Biscuits Marvelous for Creamed Tuna

Quick to make and bake and completely delicious.

* * *

Big Drop Cheese Biscuits

2 cups self-rising flour
½ teaspoon celery salt
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
½ cup grated (medium-fine) cheddar cheese (lightly packed)
⅔ cup milk, paprika

* * *

Stir together the flour and celery salt; cut in butter until particles are fine. Mix in grated cheese, working in with fingers if necessary; don't worry if cheese does not work in evenly. Add milk and stir with fork just until dry mixture is evenly moistened.

* * *

Spoon into buttered muffin pan (with 1/3-cup size wells); pat tops down smoothly; sprinkle with paprika. Bake in very hot (450 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve at once. Makes 9 biscuits.

* * *

NOTE: 2 cups flour sifted with 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder and ½ teaspoon salt may be used instead of the self-rising flour. Muffin-pan wells should be filled at least ⅔ full.

Colonial Dish Is Still Popular

Despite the many cooking shortcuts and ready-prepared foods on the market, American women seem to be taking a new interest in gourmet cookery, as witness the vast sale of cookbooks. Early American recipes are enjoying current vogue.

* * *

Following is a favorite from "The Williamsburg Art of Cookery," a book of 500 old Virginia recipes compiled by Mrs. Helen Duprey Bullock:

Steak and Kidney Pie

Remove fat and membrane from four small veal kidneys, place in bowl and sprinkle with salt. Add 1 cup claret or other dry red wine, several bay leaves, slices of raw onion and a few peppercorns. Let it stand while you prepare 1½ pounds beef steak cut thin and pounded well with flour and cut into pieces.

Separate kidneys with a sharp knife, discarding gristly portion and the fat. Using a heavy iron frying pan or dutch oven, brown some suet in it and remove. Then add a small diced onion and cook until lightly brown. Next, brown the steak and then add the kidneys which have been well dredged with flour, stir carefully, add a small quantity of hot water, season with a bay leaf, chopped parsley and chopped celery top and marjoram.

Cover and simmer very slowly, stirring occasionally. It should be tender in about one hour. Add one cup sliced fresh mushrooms when available. Strain into it the wine. If gravy needs thickening, rectify it with flour and water.

* * *

Spicy Cookies Studded With Light Raisins

Raisin-Nut Cookies

1¼ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cloves
1 egg
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup milk
½ cup butter or margarine (melted)
½ cup chopped walnuts
½ cup light raisins

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves. Beat egg until thick and lemon colored; beat in sugar gradually; stir in milk and sifted dry ingredients. Beat in melted butter. Fold in walnuts and raisins.

* * *

Drop by heaping teaspoonfuls, several inches apart, onto buttered cookie sheet. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 12 minutes or until edges are lightly browned. Remove with spatula to wire rack to cool.

* * *

Broccoli Stars in Recipe

Need something new, different — and delightful —as a suppertime dish?

* * *

Why not try Chesapeake Broccoli Casserole?

* * *

Here's a combination you'd hardly think of putting together — broccoli, crab meat and cottage cheese. But the test is in the taste, and it's yummy.

* * *

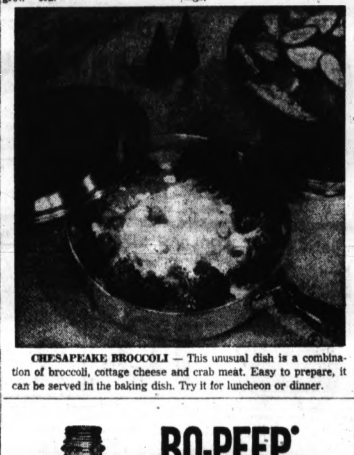
Chesapeake Broccoli

1 (10 ounce) package frozen cut broccoli, cooked and drained
1 (6½ ounce) can crab meat
1 (4 ounce) can mushrooms, drained
2 tablespoons butter
1½ cups medium cream sauce
1 tablespoon Worchestershire sauce
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
1 cup cottage cheese
⅛ cup grated Parmesan cheese
Paprika

Arrange broccoli and crab meat in shallow 8"x8"x2" buttered baking dish. Saute mushrooms in butter; add. Season cream sauce with Worcestershire, salt and pepper and pour over all. Spoon on cottage cheese; sprinkle with Parmesan cheese and paprika. Bake 20 minutes at 375 degrees. Makes 6 servings.



CHESAPEAKE BROCCOLI — This unusual dish is a combination of broccoli, cottage cheese and crab meat. Easy to prepare, it can be served in the baking dish. Try it for luncheon or dinner.

AVOCADO ICE CREAM—A fully ripe avocado has the richness of heavy cream, delicious when teamed with tart-sweet citrus juices to make a smooth and delectable ice cream.

Avocado Ice Cream Has Citrus Tang

"It is like butter and is of marvelous flavor, so good and pleasing to the palate that it is a marvelous thing." These words of praise for the avocado were written in 1519 from Colombia, South America, by Fernandez de Enciso, a soldier of Cortez, after he had tasted his first "ahuacatl." If he used the word "marvelous" twice in one sentence, it is just because that is what avocados are.

If you have not as yet learned the delights of the delicate and nutlike avocado, now is a good time to try a new taste adventure. March and April are peak months for avocados and this year there's a record crop, maturing earlier than normal and of fine quality.

Most of our avocado crop comes from California, which provides fruit in all months, and 100 per cent of the fruit in April and May. Cuba sends us choice avocados during the summer months and Florida caters to our avocado appetite during the fall.

Avocados, when at their best, should be just on the verge of becoming soft to the touch. They are ready to eat when they yield to gentle pressure if squeezed between the palms of the hands. Like certain other fruits they can never attain this texture while still on the tree.

Naturally they ship much better while still firm, so it's best to anticipate your avocado needs, buying now what you'll want to use four or five days from now. Once avocados have softened at room temperature, store them in the refrigerator.

To prepare the avocado, cut in half without peeling. Twist slightly to separate. Lift out pit, then pare or lift off skin. If the cut avocado must wait a bit, be sure to sprinkle with fresh lemon juice to prevent discoloration.

Avocado Ice Cream

1 cup mashed ripe avocado
⅓ cup fresh lemon juice
⅓ cup fresh orange juice
1 cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups heavy cream, whipped

Combine avocado, lemon juice, orange juice, sugar and salt. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into ice cube trays. Freeze until firm. Yield: 1 tray, 3½ cups.

AMBROSIA PIE — Ambrosia was the food eaten by the gods in ancient days. You can eat food that is just as heavenly. This delicate dessert is served in a coconut crust. Although there is a fresh pineapple in the picture, don't try using that in your gelatin. You must use canned pineapple.

Heavenly Pie in Coconut Crust

There are times when a special dessert is called for — something elegant in appearance and preferably easy to make.

★ ★ ★

Ambrosia Pie is such a dessert—glamorous enough for a special occasion meal, yet not at all difficult to make. A tender coconut crust holds an ambrosial mixture of crushed pineapple combined with orange juice in a creamy filling.

The crust features coconut as the basic ingredient. You simply assemble the coconut and butter or margarine and shape the crust right in the pan. No rolling!

Ambrosia Pie

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
¼ cup orange juice
2 eggs, separated
⅓ cup sugar
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 can (9-oz.) crushed pineapple, drained

Soften gelatin in ¼ cup orange juice. Beat egg yolks in top of double boiler; stir in remaining juice and ¼ cup sugar. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add orange rind, salt and gelatin; stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool until syrupy.

★

Beat egg whites stiff; beat in remaining ¼ cup sugar. Fold egg whites and pineapple into gelatin mixture. Pile into coconut crust. Chill to set.

Coconut Crust

1½ cups shredded coconut
2 tablespoons soft butter or margarine

Thoroughly mix together coconut and butter or margarine; pat evenly into a 9-inch pie plate. Bake in a slow oven (300 degrees F.) 15 to 20 minutes or until golden. Cool.

Several species of birds in Yellowstone National Park steam in the drift of warm vapor from geyser basins, according to the National Geographic Society.

The Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroad, a predecessor of the Burlington Route, inaugurated the first rail service between the Mississippi and Missouri Rivers in February 1859.

DEVILED CRABMEAT — Here is a delicate dish that spells glamor with a capital "G." Deviled crabmeat reminds one of the days of Diamond Jim Brady. Yet it is easily within reach of the average hostess. Serve it with a tossed salad and a glass of wine.

Shrimp Rarebit Good on Toast

The well-known Welsh Rarebit, or Welsh Rabbit as it is often called, has been adapted to include an extremely popular protein food—succulent shrimp—in this new recipe from the Shrimp Association of the Americas. Shrimp Rarebit combines the rosy little shellfish with cheddar cheese sauce, flavored with sherry.

* * *

In making the sauce, you use some of the shrimp cooking liquid, so that none of the goodness of the shrimp is lost, and the flavors of cheese, shellfish and sherry are well blended.

Shrimp Rarebit

1½ lbs. shrimp in shell, fresh or frozen, or 12 oz. frozen peeled and deveined shrimp
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ lb. processed cheddar cheese, diced
½ teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
¾ cup liquid reserved from cooking shrimp
2 eggs beaten
1 tablespoon sherry

If shrimp are in shell, clean and devein them. Frozen peeled and deveined shrimp will be ready to boil. Cook shrimp in 1½ quarts water 3 to 5 minutes, timing after water comes to boil after shrimp are added. Drain, reserving ¾ cup liquid.

* * *

In a double boiler, cook and stir butter, cheese, salt and pepper until smooth. Stir in reserved shrimp liquid. Stir a little hot mixture into eggs; return to rest of mixture in double boiler. Cook and stir until mixture thickens. Stir in sherry and shrimp. Serve on toast. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Most Meat Is Inspected

All meat shipped into Michigan must be federally inspected in an authorized slaughter house according to Marjorie Gibbs, the Detroit Consumer Marketing Information Agent. Although this inspection is strict and requires high standards of equipment, about 80 per cent of the meat slaughtered in the United States is federally inspected. However, only three packing plants in Michigan are federally inspected.

About 90 per cent of the packing plants in Michigan hire their own inspectors. These men are trained veterinarians who check the animals both before and during the packing operation. The plants must hire these men to enable them to sell in many of the cities in the state which have ordinances requiring inspection. It appears that all meat packed by the plants is inspected and not just that sold in the cities with meat inspection ordinances.

The remaining 10 per cent of the packing plants in the state are under no continuous inspection. They are periodically checked, however, by the Division of Foods and Standards in the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

Diseased animals must, according to law, be sent to packing plants which have veterinarian inspectors. The animals will not pass inspection if they have a disease that might prove harmful to consumers. Where only part of the animal is diseased, the uninfected part may be salvaged in some cases. No part would be saved where the disease is extremely serious — as in Anthrax.

This past year two bills were proposed to the state legislature to require all plants to be inspected to eliminate the possibility of slaughter of diseased animals by non-inspected houses. Unfortunately neither bill passed for the financing of the program has been one of the big stumbling blocks.

The suggestion is being made that consumers urge their local state representative to vote for some sort of compulsory inspection law in the coming year. Local areas might be better protected if there were a city ordinance requiring inspection.

Deviled Crabmeat Calls for Touch of Rhine Wine

Store 3 cans of crabmeat on the shelf and you'll be half way toward serving a newly-tested main dish that friends and family will savor with delight.

True flavormates are Rhine wine and crabmeat. In Deviled Crabmeat they are joined by a touch of prepared mustard and nutmeg, with egg yolks and cream for good measure. Canned crabmeat does have its price, yet this appealing dish tallies up less than many a meat specialty.

Wonderful choice for buffet supper or luncheon. Individual ramekins expedite service . . . keep the crabmeat piping hot. Ideal accompaniments are crisp greens and the same Rhine wine which is a recipe ingredient.

Deviled Crabmeat

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
½ teaspoon Worcestershire
Few drops Tabasco
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ cup milk
½ cup heavy cream
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
¼ cup Rhine wine
3 cans (about 3 cups) crabmeat
Buttered bread crumbs

Melt butter or margarine; blend in flour, mustard, Worcestershire, Tabasco and nutmeg. Combine milk and cream; add. Stir over low heat until smooth and thickened. Add a little of this sauce to egg yolks; blend and return egg mixture to remaining sauce; blend. Stir in wine.

Flake crabmeat, removing any cartilege. Save red claw meat for garnish. Add crabmeat to sauce. Fill 4 to 6 ramekins, depending on size, with crabmeat mixture. Top each with strip of red claw meat. Surround with buttered crumbs.

Bake in hot oven, 400 degrees, about 10 minutes or until crumbs are browned. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Western Version

Tired of serving egg sandwiches the same way? Then, try a zesty Western on a bun: beat protein-rich milk with eggs, season to taste and fry or bake with ham and green pepper cubes in plenty of flavorful butter.

Layer New Asparagus With Spaghetti, Sauce

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI)—Scalloped asparagus and spaghetti make a two-in-one vegetable course. Cook 2 ounces of spaghetti according to package directions. Drain. Place alternate layers of spaghetti and cooked asparagus, using 1 cup of latter altogether in a greased baking dish.

* * *

Top with white sauce, made from 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon each of butter and flour and ¼ teaspoon of salt. Sprinkle lightly with buttered bread crumbs and bake in a 350-degree oven about 20 minutes, or until golden brown. Serve 4.

This Pudding Makes Its Own Sauce

Buttermilk Lemon Cake Pudding

⅔ cup sugar
1 tablespoon flour
Grated rind of 1 lemon
2 tablespoon lemon juice
2 eggs (separated)
1 tablespoon butter or margarine (melted)
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup buttermilk

Mix together well the sugar and flour in a mixing bowl. Add grated lemon rind and juice. Beat eggs whites until they form soft peaks; without washing beater, beat yolks until thick and pale colored.

Add beaten yolks, melted butter, salt and buttermilk to sugar-flour; stir well. Fold in beaten whites. Pour into custard cups.

Set in pan of very hot water (have water about height of dessert mixture) and bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 45 minutes. Cool and chill; invert; there will be a cakelike base and custard-sauce top. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Little Hibachi's Ideal for Broiling Shrimp

Hibachis — the little charcoal stoves used by the Japanese for centuries — have become extremely popular in this country. These gadgets are ideal for broiling shrimp.

Marinate the shrimp in a flavorful sauce for several hours; then broil them 5 to 8 minutes, depending on the size. The shrimp will be pink and firm when broiled to perfection. During the broiling process baste the shrimp once or twice with the marinade sauce.

Pontiac Vocational Education Found Good; in Need of Funds

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

Local educators long have felt that the industrial nature of Pontiac justifies an extensive program to help boys prepare for a skilled trade.

Vernell F. Duffy, coordinator of the department of vocational education in the Pontiac school system, conducted a study to determine to what extent this program is actually fulfilling its purpose.

The results show, in the tangibles of security and dollars and cents, that the curriculum has kept abreast in the vocations represented.

Duffy said the program must be continually enriched, however, in order to qualify students for job market demands.

There will be an "erosion" in curriculum, school officials say, if residents don't approve the additional millage needed to maintain its quality.

MILLAGE TO BE ASKED

Approval of the Board of Education's 2.8 mill increase proposal will be asked on the May 9 ballot.

Duffy's research study comprised some 200 former vocational department students from the years 1951 to 1955.

"Encouraging results" show that 56.1 per cent of those polled were employed in the trade for which they were trained; 13.2 per cent in a related occupation and 11.5 per cent in college, for a total of 80.8 per cent.

"Only 11.5 per cent were working outside their trade," said Duffy. "These figures alone should support the need for the existing program in Pontiac and its continued development.

"It was particularly interesting that 11.5 per cent of the graduates were in college. While this does not seem like a very high percentage, you've got to remember that by merely electing the vocational curriculum the boys indicated little intention of going to college.

"This indicates that the Vocational Department has stimulated in the boys, through counseling services or classroom guidance, a desire to attain a higher education."

Duffy's study showed, also, that the boys working in the trade for which they were trained in high school were earning an average of $2.29 per hour in comparison to a $2.08 average wage for those working in related occupations and $1.94 for those who changed to a different field entirely.

MOST SUCCEEDED

Only eight per cent of the boys who changed their occupation did so because they were unable to get a job in the trade for which they were trained.

"In general," said Duffy, "the Vocational Education Department in the Pontiac school system is providing the boys with the kind of background that makes employers seek their services for existing openings in the trades of their choice.

"But, course content, equipment and facilities must always be scrutinized for future improvement."

Duffy said high schools used to feel their association with the student ceased when the diploma was awarded.

"The schools now need the facilities to assume more responsibility for job placement," he said. "It is not enough to send the student out to conquer the world with an inspiring farewell address and best wishes."

SEES PLACEMENT NEED

The study disclosed that 31.6 per cent of the graduates obtained their first jobs through their vocational counselor or coordinator.

"This is encouraging," said Duffy, "but far short of the number that should be serviced in job placement."

A boy enrolled in the vocational education department follows a predetermined sequence of subjects for satisfactory completion in the curriculum of his choice.

* * *

The curriculum includes machine shop, drafting, electricity, patternmaking, automotives, printing and metal fabrication.

In addition to the required academic courses in high school, the boy takes one-hour shop courses in all the major areas, a year of applied mathematics in the 10th grade and a year of applied physics in the 11th grade.

During his 11th and 12th years of school, he takes two semesters of a three-hour shop in his major field and two semesters of a three-hour shop complementary to his trade.

Strikes, Inventories to Cut Car Output

DETROIT (UPI) — Automotive News said today strikes among suppliers and inventory adjustments by Buick-Oldsmobile-Pontiac will cut automobile production this week to its second lowest level so far this year.

The trade paper estimated output for this week at 137,186 cars, compared with 145,054 last week. Compacts will account for 36,966 of the total.

Production for April was estimated at 583,032 units, compared with 653,402 in March.

WSU Center to Get Working Cornerstone

DETROIT (UP)—Wayne State University's new Life Sciences Research Center will have a "working cornerstone." It will contain a laboratory experiment that should be helpful to researchers in the 21st century.

★ ★ ★

Instead of the conventional cornerstone, a large bronze plaque of the university seal will be placed this afternoon on a concrete foundation at an entrance of the $1,500,000 center.

★ ★ ★

A box will be placed under the plaque. It will contain long-lived isotopes and some highly resistant bacterial forms. Some bacteria will be shielded by lead to provide a control factor.

About 100 years hence—whenever the building is torn down—the experiment should provide researchers information on long-range effects of low level radiation.

Williams Takes Helm of Platform Group

NEW YORK (UP) — Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan was to wield the chairman's gavel today at a platform hearing set up by the National Democratic Committee.

The hearing is the first in a series leading up to the National Convention in Los Angeles in July.

Williams said yesterday a Catholic could carry Michigan in the presidential race. But, he said, he isn't sure whether Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) could.

Metro Region Study Can Roll

$25,000 Federal Grant OK'd for a Probe Into Industry, Sewage

A priority study of sewage and drainage facilities, and an inventory of industrial sites in the Detroit metropolitan area was ready to proceed after approval yesterday of a $25,000 federal grant.

The two-fold study will be conducted by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission. It is expected to be completed in 18 months.

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced the grant, third of its kind for the metropolitan region, which encompasses 2,600 square miles.

The first part of the study will be to develop a service area priority for sewage and drainage facilities for the region's five counties, according to Paul M. Reid, commission executive director.

These are Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Monroe, and the four eastern townships in Washtenaw County.

Second phase of the study — which will get $50,000 from commission matching funds —will involve development of an off-rail land use plan for industrial sites, including expressways, Reid said.

He emphasized that the first section would show which of the areas are most hard-pressed for sewer and drainage facilities.

Put Credit Squeeze on British Economy

LONDON (UP) — The government imposed a long - expected credit squeeze on Britain's booming economy today. It restricted bank loans and the terms for installment purchases.

A minimum down payment of 20 per cent was imposed on the purchase of goods such as cars, radios, television sets and kitchen equipment.

Cites War, Senate Records

Former Episcopal Bishop Endorses Sen. Kennedy

CHARLES TOWN, W.Va. (AP)—The former Episcopal bishop of West Virginia says he would have no hesitancy in voting for Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) a Roman Catholic, in the coming presidential campaign.

"I am grateful to the bishop," Kennedy said later. "I think his statement will make it easier for us now to move to a discussion of the real issues facing West Virginia and the nation."

The endorsement by Dr. Robert E. Strider of nearby Leetown was released early today by his son-in-law, Ray Niblack. Dr. Strider was bishop of West Virginia for 32 years. He retired in 1955 and is now 72.

Niblack, acting as spokesman for Dr. Strider, said the bishop told Kennedy he was "profoundly impressed with the forthright manner in which you have handled this (religious) issue. You have left no doubt in my mind concerning your loyalty to the Constitution of the United States which would prohibit any church influence in the discharge of your duties as president."

He said the bishop added this statement:

"I believe the senator (Kennedy) is a man of exceptional high character, and his war record and his record in the U.S. Senate certainly are testimony to that.

"On the major religious questions of birth control, the possibility of an ambassador to the Vatican and aid to parochial schools, the senator has given answers which I feel should allay any fears concerning church influence on him as president."

Niblack said it was the first time Dr. Strider ever had endorsed a candidate for president.

The brief unscheduled meeting between Kennedy and Dr. Strider was arranged by William C. Battle, who served in PT boats with Kennedy during World War II and is a son of former Virginia governor John S. Battle.

Herter Talks With CENTO Ministers

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter today sat down with the foreign ministers of the Central Treaty Organization (CENTO) to examine the free world's Middle East frontier before next month's East-West summit conference.

The three day discussions with allies strung across the gap between West European NATO and the Far Eastern SEATO alliance were regarded as an important step for the United States and Britain before confronting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Paris.

Although not a formal member of CENTO, the United States is aligned both militarily and economically with the alliance made up of Iran, Turkey, Pakistan and Britain. CENTO is an offshoot of the Baghdad Pact. The name was changed after Iraq withdrew.

Quiz Probers in Ransacking

2 House Investigators Deny Breaking Into Desk of FPC Member

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two congressional investigators looking into the activities of the Federal Power Commission have bxeen questioned officially about the reported ransacking of an FPC member's office desk.

Both men have denied under oath that they had anything to do with breaking into the desk of FPC Commissioner Arthur Kline last weekend. Apparently nothing was taken, but papers were disarranged.

Although official sources maintained silence, it was learned that the story was told, and the two staff investigators questioned, at two secret meetings of the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee Tuesday night and Wednesday. An investigation was asked, but no direct charge was made that the staff members were involved.

The subcommittee is the same group which discharged Baron I. Shacklette, then its chief investigator, two years ago after Shacklette and another man had been found with a hidden microphone and a recording device in a hotel room adjoining that of Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine.

Ex-Tiger Ray Herbert Stops 'Murderer's Row'

From the Press Box

BY BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Pontiac Central's ace basketball player George Fed can thank his scrapbook of Pontiac Press clippings for gaining two friends in the Milwaukee police department.

★ ★ ★

Upon arrival in Milwaukee recently, to visit relatives, George stood waiting on a street corner for transportation which was to pick him up and deliver him to his destination.

★ ★ ★

The watchful eye of a police car, suspicious of as to why a young man would be standing under a lamp post so late at night, soon offered him a seat and presented him with a few questions.

To prove his identity George proceeded to show them his scrapbook of basketball clippings. When his transportation finally arrived 10 minutes later, he parted company with two Milwaukee policemen well-informed of his prowess and added two more to the list of well-wishers for his basketball future.

Billy Goodman, recent guest at Oxford High School banquet, says the Tigers could go as high as second place if pitching holds out. He lists pitching as big concern of White Sox.

Indiana Slapped With Stiff Penalty

ATLANTA (AP) — Indiana University today began serving one of the stiffest penalties ever handed out by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.—four years probation for six recruiting violations.

"It's a terrible blow," said University President Herman Wells at Bloomington, Ind.

Indiana football coach Phil Dickens called it "a dad-burned shame. We thought we had done everything possible to avert anything like this.'

The punishment means Indiana is ineligible for NCAA championship competition, cannot make post-season appearances such as bowl games and cannot appear on televised sports programs of the NCAA.

It won't stop Indiana U. athletes for trying out for the U. S. Olympic team but they will have to qualify through Amateur Athletic Union events rather than NCAA competition, Walt Bellamy of the university's basketball team has already been chosen for the Olympic squad. Mike Troy and Alan Somers have qualified for the Olympic swimming trials.

The suspension also will not stop the Indiana basketball team from competing in a tournament in Los Angeles next winter because the invitation was accepted before the probation was announced.

The council, NCAA policy-making body, charged that an $800 bonus and monthly payments of $50 to $75 were offered a Virginia football player by an Indiana alumnus working with an assistant coach.

Another athlete was recruited by a telephone caller using a fictitious name who offered up to $100 as a bonus and free transportation, it was charged.

NCAA rules permit a maximum of $15 a month for incidental expenses plus tuition, room, board and books to be offered a prospective athlete.

Free vacations, clothing and cash were offered in other cases, all involving football players, the council said, and an assistant coach was charged with using an alias in at least two recruiting efforts. He was later dismissed the council said. Five of the violations occurred in 1958 when Indiana was already on NCAA probation in another case.

No names were mentioned in the list of charges.

Bengals Muster Only Six Hits in Second Loss

Ex-Detroit Fastballer Chalks Up 2nd Straight Win, 3-1

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Ray Herbert, Kansas City's blazing fastballer, murdered Detroit's murderer's row last night.

The Tigers' who used the long ball en route to five straight victories, mustered only six hits off Herbert, an ex-Tiger, and not a single home run, The Athletics won 3-1.

Detroit's big batsmen failed. Rocky Colavito banged a single in four trips and scored the only Tiger run. Al Kaline went hitless in three trips and Steve Bilko failed in four tries.

★ ★ ★

Chico Fernandez, normally considered a good field, no hit added to his .250 batting average with two hits in four trips. Lou Berberet blasted two hits in three official trips and drove in Colavito.

Harry Chiti of Kansas City drove in the winning runs with a single in the fourth inning off lefty Hank Aguirre. Bob Cerv started the rally with a single and Dick Williams' double sent Cerv to third. Then Chiti drove both men home.

Cerv banged a home run in the eighth, his second of the season, for the final Athletic run. He hit it off Bob Bruce, who relieved after Aguirre departed for pinch-hitter Norm Cash in the seventh.

Detroit got its run in the second inning. Colavito singled with one out. Bilko's grounder hit second baseman Jerry Lumpe in the face and shortstop Ken Hamlin grabbed the ball. His throw retired Bilko, but Colavito was safe at second. Fernandez sent Colavito to third with a single and Berberet drove him home.

Herbert, who won his second game against no losses, faced trouble in the third when Eddie Yost led off with Detroit's only extra-base blow, a triple. However, Herbert struck out Casey Wise and Maxwell and walked Kaline, then got Colavito on a fly to left field.

Aguirre, seeking the No. 5 spot in the Detroit starting rotation, allowed seven hits and two earned runs in six innings. He struck out two and talked two.

The loss was the second in a row for Detroit. The Tigers face a long road trip of 14 more games. New York also lost, however, and the Tigers still lead the American League by half a game. Detroit is 5-2 and New York 5-3. They are the only clubs above the .500 mark.

The Tigers play Kansas City here again tonight with Don Mossi facing Dick Hall of the A's.

Lemon's 3-Run Homer Keeps Yankees in 2nd

(From Our Wire Services)

The New York Yankees muffed a chance to grab first place Wednesday in the infant American League pennant race.

Kansas City handed front-running Detroit its second straight defeat last night, but the Yanks were unable to capitalize on the situation.

They can blame it all on big Jim Lemon of the Washington Senators. His three-run homer brought the Nats an uphill 5-4 victory over the Yanks yesterday in Yankee Stadium.

Lemon's blast kept the Bronx Bombers in 2nd place, half a game behind the Tigers.

After a miserable start, the Baltimore Orioles continued to show signs of life by walloping the Boston Red Sox, 8-3, in Baltimore's Municipal Stadium for their 3rd straight win.

Lemon's homer climaxed a four-run 8th-inning rally against southpaw Whitey Ford and wiped out a 4-1 Yankee lead.

The big outfielder's circuit clout gave rookie lefthander Jim Kaat, his first major league victory, although he was not around at the finish. Pete Ramos hurled the last two innings to preserve Kaat's triumph.

Don Mincher homered for Washington in the 3rd inning and Bill Skowron slammed a home run for New York. Ryne Duren relieved Ford on the mound for the Yanks in the Nats' prosperous 8th inning.

★ ★ ★

There were no home runs at Baltimore, but the Orioles collected 10 hits off Frank Sullivan, Al Worthington, Nelson Chittum and Mike Fornieles. Sullivan was the starter and loser.

Big Arnie Portocarrero limited the Red Sox to six safeties and had a shutout until the 8th inning. He allowed only two safe blows through the first seven innings.

Jim Gentile and Ron Hanson paced the Oriole attack. Hanson made three hits and drove in two runs while Gentile had three RBI to his credit. Marv Breeding added two hits to the Oriole offense.

NBA Approves Switch of Lakers to California

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Basketball Assn., threatened with being beaten to the lucrative west coast by the newly formed American League, has approved the transfer of the Minneapolis Lakers to Los Angeles.

There was only one "if" in NBA President Maurice Podoloff's announcement Wednesday. It was "providing a satisfactory schedule can be drawn." League schedule meetings will be held in New York May 9 and 16.

Bob Short, owner of the financially-troubled Lakers, presented a list of 70 playing dates to the NBA board of directors. They were submitted to him in a meeting with the Los Angeles Coliseum Commission. The club would play most of its home games at the new Los Angeles Sports Arena and the others at Los Angeles State College.

The recently organized American League Tuesday had asked the Coliseum Commission to hold off on a contract with Short, but the organization refused. The ABL, formed by Abe Saperstein of Chicago, has announced it will operate in 1960-61 in Los Angeles, San Francisco, Cleveland, Kansas City, Washington and Chicago.

The NBA also plans to operate in Chicago in 1961-62, when the league will be increased to nine clubs. Chicago dropped out of the NBA after the 1950 season.

The Lakers' transfer would be the fourth since the NBA settled into two four-team divisions in 1954. Since then the Milwaukee Hawks have shifted to St. Louis, the Fort Wayne Pistons to Detroit and Rochester Royals to Cincinnati.

Minneapolis won titles the first two years in the NBA, missed in 1951 and then came back to take three straight. That was when George Mikan was the backbone of the club.

Since Mikan's retirement in 1954 the Lakers have had tough sledding at the gate. They were the Western division champions in 1959 after finishing second in the regular season, but lost four straight to Boston in the final playoff.

The Lakers finished third last season, beat Detroit in the first round and then lost to St. Louis in the Western finals.

Michigan State Among 650 Schools in 66th Annual Event

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The 66th annual two-day Penn Relay track and field carnival opens at Franklin Field Friday with the nation's top collegiate stars competing and a special series of 14 events for postcollege athletes training for the Olympic tryouts.

More than 4,400 track and field athletes representing about 650 colleges, high schools, junior high and elementary schools are expected to compete.

San Jose State, Villanova and Michigan State are among the top teams entered.

Among the better-known individual performers will be John Thomas, Boston University's indoor high jump record breaker.

Heading perhaps the finest sprint field in the history of the relays will be Ray Norton, National AAU sprint champ in the 100 and 220.

Giardello Has Title Claim Turned Down

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. has turned down Joey Giardello's claim for the NBA middleweight championship but favors a return bout between Giardello and Gene Fullmer.

Anthony Macaroni, NBA president, said Wednesday night that Giardello's manager Tony Ferrante had filed a claim for the title after the controversial draw between Giardello and Fullmer a week ago in Bozeman, Mont.

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: "I always come up short."
DIAGNOSIS: Mock heroics.

TREATMENT: Golfers by the thousands seem to think there is some virtue in hitting the green with the most lofted club possible. Why, I don't know. I do know that this odd form of vanity doesn't crop up among the playing pros.

The idea in choosing a club for a shot is to take one with which you can comfortably reach the hole—not one with which you can POSSIBLY reach the hole if you hit the ball perfectly flush.

Say you are looking over a shot and you think an eight-iron might be enough. But you aren't sure. Take a seven-iron, and don't strain.

And if you are playing into the wind, as indicated by the illustration, take a club two numbers lower than the distance seems to call for. Underclubbers always add to their own troubles. On shots into the wind they are particularly futile. Remember, you're playing for score, not for show.

Law Wins No. 3; Dodgers Down Cubs

Pirates Make It 6 Straight

By The Associated Press

They're a year late, but the Pittsburgh Pirates, a bunch of battling Bucs who have made their slim pitching pay off, are riding a six-game winning streak atop the National League.

Last year was supposed to be the Pirates' year, after finishing second in 1958. But they lost their first five, never got higher than third and finished fourth. And that's where they were figured this year.

Now with Bob Skinner driving in two runs and Vern Law winning his third without defeat in a 3-2 victory at Philadelphia Wednesday night, the Pirates have the longest streak of the young season in the majors and a full-game lead over idle San Francisco.

The Los Angeles Dodgers stayed within two games of first by beating the Chicago Cubs 9-4. Milwaukee held fourth, defeating Cincinnati 8-5 in the only other game scheduled in the NL.

Skinner, one of five Bucs batting over .350, was 2-for-2 for a .390 average and upped his major league leading RBI total to 13. His sacrifice fly gave the Pirates a run in the third against loser Jack Meyer (0-1) and then he brought the clincher home in the fifth with a single after Dick Groat (.354) had doubled. Their other run scored in the fourth on singles by Bob Clemente (.388) and Smoky Burgess (.407) and Bill Virdon's sacrifice fly. Hal Smith, platooning with Burgess behind the plate, is batting .429.

The Phils scored on home runs by Bobby Del Greco and John Callison. Their other five hits were harmless singles off Law, who walked two and struck out six. It was Law's third straight complete game. He and Bob Friend, with two, are the only Bucs who have gone all the way.

The Dodgers, who won Tuesday at Chicago with a four-hit job by Don Drysdale, swept the two-game series behind the four-hit pitching of Roger Craig. It was the first start and first decision for the big right-hander who now has won six straight after putting away his last five while pitching the Dodgers to the '59 pennant.

Craig had a perfect game until the sixth, when Del Rice doubled with one out and scored on Tony Taylor's single. Wally Moon was 3-for-4 and Gil Hodges drove in three runs with a homer and sacrifice fly for the Dodgers against right-hander Dick Drott (0-3), winless in five decisions since last June. It was the Cubs' seventh defeat in their last eight games.

Lew Burdette, 1-1 as a starting pitcher, added his second save in relief for the Braves, blanking the Reds on one hit for three innings after taking over for winner Carl Willey (2-0) and reliever Don McMahon. Hank Aaron, 4-for-6, homered and Johnny Logan added an RBI double in a two-run fifth for Milwaukee that beat southpaw Jay Hook (1-2). Willey, who shut out the Reds on four hits for his other victory, left in a four-run sixth touched off by Frank Robinson's homer.

★ ★ ★

Logan, Billy Bruton and Del Crandall each drove in two runs for the Braves, who stole three bases (by Bruton, Aaron and Lee Maye) in a four-run fourth in handing the Reds their sixth defeat in the last seven games.

Tompion Heads Blue Grass Entries Today

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—C. V. Whitney, making his 14th try for a Kentucky Derby victory with no success so far, sends Tompion saddled under Derby weight today in the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland.

Tompion, the 2-1 favorite in the Derby winter book, will carry 126 pounds, including jockey Willie Shoemaker in the mile and an eighth test against three other 3-year-olds.

Victoria Park, owned by the Windfields Farms, also will tote 126 and will be piloted by Bill Hartack, the nation's leading rider.

Also in the field for the $25,000-added race are T. A. Grissom's Lurullah and Mrs. L. P. Tate's Come About. If all four go, the race will gross $30,900 with $19,535 to the winner.

Archers Shoot Sunday

Pontiac Archers will conduct a field shoot Sunday at the Pontiac Lake Recreation area. Registrations will take place between 10 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. and the public is invited. There will be 28 targets.

Lions' Rookie Sidelined

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions have received the bad news that Pete Tunney, a 9.7 sprinter from Occidental College, will not be able to make his pro football debut in 1960.

Tunney was the Lions' 17th draft choice. Although he had not signed a contract because of spring eligibility, Tunney told the Lions he would sign with them, said assistant general manager Bud Erickson.

But the fleet rookie suffered a severe leg injury when a tractor he was riding overturned. The leg still is in a cast and doctors say Tunney will have to sit out this fall.

Scout Bob Nussbaummer said Tunney has quickness and ability to match any back in the National Football League.

The Lions received good news on another injury. Toledo's Gene Cook, whose leg was fractured in a basketball game this winter, reports satisfactory healing. Cook, who played only the Lions' final game of the 1959 campaign, should be back in top shape by the time summer training camp begins.

Meanwhile, the Lions announced that end Sam Williams, a 230-pound former Michigan State player, has signed his 1960 contract. Williams was obtained in a trade that sent halfback Jim David to Los Angeles, where he was signed as an assistant coach.

Live PGA Telecasts Scheduled in 1961

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A Chicago firm Wednesday obtained television rights for a 1961 weekly series presenting live telecasts of PGA-sponsored golf tournaments.

★ ★ ★

Representatives of the International Golf Sponsors Assn. and the PGA Tournament committee agreed to assign rights for the new show, "Live TV Golf of the Week."

The series is to begin with the Los Angeles Open next January 4-7. It is expected to present about 39 tournaments in 1961.

★ ★ ★

Cannon Contract Dispute Flares Up at Houston

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League, said today Billy Cannon signed a business contract with him personally Dec. 29, 1959.

"This contract had nothing to do with the Oilers," Adams declared. "It was merely a contract to sell our petroleum products in the Louisiana area."

The Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, who are claiming the Louisiana State All-America halfback charged that this was a contract to play professional football. Adams said he signed Cannon to the personal services contract because of his tremendous following in the Louisiana area "and if there's anyone who could sell gasoline it would be the Billy Cannon service stations."

★ ★ ★

Answering the Rams' charges, Adams declared that "Cannon signed a second contract, one with the Houston Oilers, on Jan. 1, after the Sugar Bowl game.

Johnson Wants Crack at Heavyweight Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The manager of No. 1 ranked light heavyweight Harold Johnson says he will petition the National Boxing Assn. to recognize Johnson as a challenger for the winner of the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson rematch in June.

"I know everybody considers Harold a light-heavy," Pat Oliveri said Wednesday, "but so is Archie Moore and there has been plenty of talk about Archie taking on either Johansson or Patterson for big money.

Skins, Orion Track Victors; Barons Win 2

Wednesday was a happy and memorable day for Milford High track coach Bill Golden.

His wife gave birth to their third child, the first boy, around noon at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital here and he later directed his thinclads to a lopsided triangular victory over two Wayne-Oakland foes.

The Redskins, who have not lost a league meet since 1953, piled up 76 points to 30½ apiece for West Bloomfield and Clarenceville.

Lake Orion, Troy and Madison won Oakland B track duals. Bloomfield Hills was successful in both baseball and golf while Cranbrook was bowing in tennis.

* * *

Slams in the mile and half mile paced Milford to its 2nd win in three starts. Tim Kurnick won the broad jump with a leap of 20 feet, 1 inch and also took pole vault honors. Ted Nelson covered the mile distance in 4:50.4. Bill Hackett ran the 440 in 54 seconds.

Jack Newton took two dashes as the lone Keego standout. A 22.1 time in the low hurdles by Mert Roberts and Tony Giacobazzi's throw of 43 feet, 10¾ inches in the shotput topped CHS.

Bucky Craven accumulated 10¼ points followed by Doug Gawne with firsts in the pole vault and low hurdles to lead Orion past Clawson, 64-45. Shawn McCaffery took the broad jump and 220 for the Trojans.

* * *

Troy dumped Avondale 68 to 41 with Rocky Bronson, Dick Kilmer and Bob Baker double victors. Bronson and Kilmer also ran on winning relay team. Sid Blomberg remained unbeaten in the 880, Bob Palmateer took the mile, Walt Cooley won the shotput and medley relay boys were first for the losers. Lee Hill took both hurdle races and both jumping crowns in a 66-43 Madison win over Oak Park.

Bloomfield Hills upset favored Milford in baseball, 5-3. The Barons came from behind aided by walks and errors as Tom Maron posted his second victory. Art Tregenza got two hits. Both teams are 2-1 in the Wayne-Oakland. Ernie Miller lost in relief. The Bloomfield golfers stayed unbeaten beating Clarkston 155 to 174. Fred Ewald fired a 36 and Bruce Billings had 37 while the Wolves had no one below 40.

Failure to win any matches in singles cost Cranbrook a 3-2 defeat to University High of Ann Arbor in tennis. Whit Dobson bowed in the final after copping the opening set. The Cranes, who swept the doubles, are now 3-3.

Flint Southwestern defeated Pontiac Central and Bay City Central in a triangular golf meet at Pontiac Municipal Golf Course.

The Colts had a 14½-½ victory margin over the Chiefs and a 14-1 superiority over Bay City. The Chiefs were 9-6 victors over Bay City.

Southwestern's Ron Hartman was medalist over the 18-hole route with an 80. Pontiac's best effort was an 86 by Ted Gaensbauer. The Chiefs go to Bay City Handy next Monday for a dual meet.

Orion Cinderman Wins but Hillsdale Is Loser

ALBION (AP)—Albion won its first track meet yesterday, overwhelming Hillsdale 83-48 in an MIAA affair.

Albion is now 1-2 and Hillsdale 0-1.

Marbles Finals Slated Saturday

The championship finals of the 13th annual City Marbles tournament, co-sponsored by The Pontiac Press and the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department, will be conducted Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at Oakland Park.

Trophies will be presented to the winner and runnerup by The Pontiac Press.

Boys from 21 elementary schools in Pontiac have been participating in local playoffs to determine each school's representative in the city-wide finals this Saturday.

City elementary schools participating in the marbles tourney include:

Alcott, Bagley, Baldwin, Bethune, Central, Crofoot, Emerson, Franklin, Hawthorne, Herrington, LeBaron, Longfellow, Malkim, Mark Twain, McCarroll, McConnell, Owen, Webster, Wever, Whittier and Wilson.

Green in Quarterfinals of North-South Tourney

From Our Wire Services

PINEHURST, N.C.—Pete Green, former Birmingham High School golfer, who was one of the outstanding prep players in the county for several years, moved into the quarterfinals of the North-South Amateur Tournament today.

Green, 21, sophomore at North Carolina, stole the show in last year's qualifying round by taking medal honors. In the first round of match play however he was eliminated.

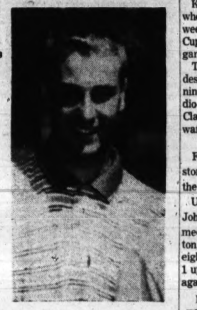
Yesterday he defeated Pat Brady of Reidsville, N.C. 3 and 2 just after Brady had eliminated Walker Cupper and William Campbell in the second round. In the second round Green ousted Alfred Sams of Macon, Ga., 8 and 7.

Green's match was only one of three completed yesterday because of the heavy downpours which stopped play.

* * *

In other second round play involving Michigan golfers, Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile defeated Donald Hoenig of Thompson, Conn., 6 and 5; John Guenther of Reading, Pa., ousted Tom Draper of Birmingham, 5 and 4.

In the third round the match between Ed Kirkland of Orlando, Fla., and Glenn Johnson was interrupted after four holes and they will resume play on the fifth hole today. Johnson is leading 2-up.



ADVANCES — Pete Green, former top prep star from Birmingham moved into the quarterfinals of the North-South Golf Tournament yesterday by winning second and third round matches. He will play this afternoon. Green is a sophomore at North Carolina University.

Kirkland, a 37-year-old attorney, who describes himself as only a weekend golfer, eliminated Walker Cupper Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C. in the second round.

Three men in the quarterfinals despite the storm are Green, Jennings Randolph, Jr., 220 pound radio and TV sportscaster from Clarksburg, W.Va., and Dr. Edward Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz.

* * *

Five contests, halted by the storm, must be completed before the quarterfinals start.

Unfinished business starts with John Ward of Fayetteville, N.Y., meeting Dale Morey of Morganton, N.C. They resume at the eighth hole with Morey nursing a 1 up advantage. The winner moves against Green in the afternoon.

Randolph and Updegraff each won twice yesterday before the storm broke and they meet this afternoon.

In the lower half of the draw four matches must be completed in the third round before quarterfinal business is undertaken.

Guenther and Dick Chapman of Palm Beach, Fla., meet in the first. Chapman was 1 up after 11 holes and three under par.

The winner moves against the survivor of a family fracas between the Gastonia, N.C., Smith brothers, Dave and Charles. Charles takes a 4 up lead to the seventh tee.

Bob Batdorff of West Lawn, Pa., and Bob Sweeny of Palm Beach, Fla., even after four holes, resume at the fifth.

* * *

706 Bowled at ABC

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Thanks to a 706 by Louis Newman, the Frosch Bros., Inc., of Indianapolis was the best scoring team in the open division of the American Bowling Congress tournament Wednesday night.

* * *

Newman, 39, boosted his team to a 2993 series almost single-handed with games of 205-237-264. He had only one open Frame, a 7-10 split in the second game. His total was the second highest in team events in 54 days.

* * *

Frank Lucido of St. Louis shot the high trio last Saturday, 714.

The Town and Village Insurance team of Findlay, Ohio, gave the booster division its first major standings change since April 22, taking 10th place with 869-978-879—2726.

* * *

The Brannan Boosters No. 2 of McKees Rocks, Pa., continued to dominate the lower-average contingent with the 2822 total rolled a month ago.

* * *

Top performance in the minor events Wednesday was John Mucha's 691 singles series. The Flint, Mich., bowler was two points short of tying for 10th place.

John Forrest of Cleveland led all-events with 1676 and paired with Laird La Bolteaux for the day's best doubles, 1243.

4-Way Battle for Huron Title

With but two weeks remaining in the Huron Bowl Classic, four teams still have their eyes on a first place finish. West Side Mobil still leads Pasquale's by a four point margin, with Sno-Boi one step back, and Stroh's three more behind in fourth. No others can win even by sweeping their remaining matches.

Stroh's lost all but a mathematical chance by dropping four points to West Side Mobil 27-16-2565. Monroe Moore and Clark Balch had 604 and 603 for the Mobilmen.

Pasquale's Pizzeria kept its hopes alive as it picked up an easy four points when Felice's Market forfeited its match.

Sno-Boi continued its late season drive by dumping Roth Lumber for four points, 2810-2466, to move into third place.

Kasper Manufacturing moved into the first division with a shut-out of Spartan Air Conditioning, and Oakland Mill Supply upset Furtney Drugs for another four.

West Side Lanes took three from Montcalm Centre and C. Fancher nipped a sliding Calbi Music five for three points.

Cub Pitcher Suffers Unusual Nose Fracture

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago Cub pitcher Glen Hobbie suffered a fractured nose Wednesday in a freak accident during pre-game batting practice.

* * *

Hobbie was standing behind Cal Neeman and was hit in the face by Neeman's hand as the Cub catcher drew back to throw the ball. Manager Charlie Grimm said the injury would not prevent Hobbie from taking his regular turn.

Pistons Seek Trade

NEW YORK (AP)—General Manager W. Nick Kerbawy said the Detroit Pistons hope to make another player deal before the end of the week.

Kerbawy is attending the National Basketball Assn. meeting here. He said he has held serious trade discussions with several clubs.

Report Heavy Smelt Runs

CHEBOYGAN (UPI) — Smelt were reported coming out of Lake Huron and Lake Michigan for spawning runs in Cheboygan County streams.

County spokesmen said the runs were expected to become heavier with a little more warm weather. Catches by the buckets full have been reported in the past few days.

Teeing Off

By BILL CORNWELL

It's always nice to begin a new golfing season on a happy note so the first "Teeing Off" column of the year is pleased to report that three former Oakland County prep stars are doing OK this spring at Michigan State University.

Jack Reynolds of Waterford and Birmingham's Tim Baldwin, both seniors, and sophomore Bud Badger, of Bloomfield Hills all scored victories over their University of Detroit foes the other day in a dual meet at MSU's Forest Akers golf course.

The Spartans won six of seven matches from U-D for a 16½-4½ triumph with county golfers accounting for half of their team's success as Baldwin shot 75, Reynolds 76 and Badger 77.

Victory probably was extra sweet for Baldwin since his victim happened to be Mike Conroy, another Oakland product and Tim's high school teammate at Birmingham.

Conroy, a U. of D. sophomore, and the son of North Hills pro Leo Conroy, fired 76 for the Titans. Also winning for MSU was Plymouth's Ty Caplin, a senior who kayoed three-time champion Mike Andonian of Pontiac in the 1959 State Publinx tournament.

HE'S PREXY AGAIN

Pontiac's Roy Iceberg can't shake off that president's job in the Michigan Publinx Golf Assn. He's been elected head man of the organization for the 4th straight year.

Other MPGA officers for the 1960 season include:

Harold Rutledge, 1st vice president; George Greenhalgh, 2nd vice president and handicap chairman; Sal Pomante, secretary; Clyde Bates, treasurer; Joe Peak, tournament director.

The public links players start the season this Sunday with a handicap fourney at Maple Lane.

PCC RANGE REOPENS

After a three-year shutdown, pro-owner Frank Syron has decided to reopen his lighted driving and practice range at Pontiac Country Club.

Business gets under way Friday evening and the range will operate every night from 6:30 to 11 for the rest of the season. Syron, his son Lloyd, and head pro Frank Wilson will be on hand to give pointers.

SHORT PUTTS

G. H. (Jerry) Rideout, Buick public relations director, has been named general chairman of the 3rd annual $32,000 Buick Open tournament, which is scheduled July 1-4 at Warwick Hills near Grand Blanc. Lew James is tourney director and Pontiac's Gene Bone will be host pro.

★ ★ ★

Big John Barnum of Grand Rapids has been voted president of the West Michigan PGA Chapter. He succeeds Bob Lavracek, who left for a job as pro at Dubuque (Iowa) Country Club.

Dick Zimmerman, former pro at Fairgreens in Jackson, Ohio, has joined Bill Brown's professional staff at Detroit's plush Western Golf and Country Club, site of the Western Open July 14-17.

The third of five golf instruction clinics sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department is slated next Wednesday night from 7:30 to 9:30 at the Pontiac Central boys' gymnasium. The annual program concludes May 18.

WEDNESDAY'S FIGHTS

By The Associated Press

TOKYO — Mitsunori Seki, 111½, Japan, knocked out Kunoi Vithichai, 111, Thailand, 2.

UNWINDING — Emil Zatopek jogs across the Olympic Stadium in Rome in mufti. No longer an active competitor, the holder of five world distance records is there as trainer of a Czech gymnastic team.

Jones Withdraws From Drake Meet

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Hayes Jones, Pontiac's Olympic hopeful, has been withdrawn from this weekend's Drake relays because of a question of his eligibility.

A double winner here last year, Jones is entering his fourth year of varsity competition and relays competitors are limited to three years. Jones won the 100-yard dash and 120-yard high hurdles in last year's Drake Relays.

The oldest record on the books is the least likely to be broken in the 51st running of relays Friday and Saturday.

Jesse Owens leaped 26 feet 1¾ inches in 1935 to set a broad jump mark that hasn't been beaten.

Jim Baird of East Texas State is favored in that event this year, but he isn't expected to better his own jump of 25 feet 3¼ inches by enough to threaten Owens' mark.

The next oldest record is the 7:31.6 two-mile relay mark set by Illinois in 1952.

It and other records will be assaulted by a field that includes three of the world's top shot putters, the nations leading pole vaulter and many of the country's fleetest runners.

★ ★ ★

Parry O'Brien, Bill Nieder and Dave Davis have entered the AAU shot put in a match that climaxes a verbal duel between O'Brien and Nieder.

They have accused each other of dodging previous head-to-head scraps.

Nieder, ex-Kansas athlete now in the Air Force, has thrown the shot 65 feet 7 inches. O'Brien holds the accepted world record of 63-4. Davis of San Fernando State, defeated O'Brien last week and has pitched the shot 64-10½.

Another headliner is J. D. Martin of Oklahoma, who soared 15 feet 9¾ inches in the pole vault earlier this spring. In recent meets he hasn't approached that level, but Relays officials are hoping a fast runway will give him the impetus needed to soar far above the Drake record of 15 feet ¼ inch.

However, the 824 college and university athletes entered include plenty of others capable of cracking drake relays records.

★ ★ ★

Among the best are quartermilers Glenn Davis, formerly of Ohio State, Eddie Southern, former Texas ace, and Dave Mills, Purdue Sophomore; shot putters Mike Lindsay of Oklahoma and Ed Nutting of Georgia Tech; sprinters Charlie Tidwell of Kansas and Sid Garton of East Texas state; milers Barrie Almond of Houston and Jim Bowers of Illinois; 2-miler Al Lawrence of Houston, middle-distance ace George Kerr of Illinois; High jumper Dub Thornton of Texas Tech and discus thrower Dick Cochran of Missouri.

Houston Open Starts Today

HOUSTON (AP)—Arnold Palmer was a heavy favorite for today's start of the $35,000 Houston golf classic despite a final practice round 65 by Jay Hebert.

Palmer, with the Masters and four other 1960 titles already recorded, was a 4-1 favorite to win the second tournament here within three years.

Quoted at 6-1 were Ken Venturi, winner of the Bing Crosby invitational, and powerful Mike Souchak the 1955 Houston winner who likes the long fairways at the 7,122-yard, par 72 Memorial Park course.

Jack Burke Jr., the defending champion and gallery favorite, and Billy Casper, National Open champion, drew 8-1 odds.

Until Tuesday, Palmer had not played a round of golf since winning the Masters nearly three weeks ago. He warmed up Tuesday with a 70 and followed Wednesday with a 72.

Hebert had a 32-33—65 Wednesday for the 36-36 layout.

Three Doubles Teams Crash WIBC Lead

DENVER (AP)—Three doubles teams crashed the top 10 for the first time Wednesday as the early leaders continued to top the standings in the Women's International Bowling Congress.

The newcomers in the doubles competition at the month-long congress were Betty Wilson and Lorraine Kalins of Chicago with a 1,073 score; Elma Henry of Nampa, Idaho, and Margaret Lueke of Fremont, Neb., with an identical 1,073; and Grace Sguardo and Jo Jericho of Chicago, 1,058.

★ ★ ★

Rematch at Armory

In a rematch of what matchmaker Bert Ruby calls "the scrappiest match ever seen in Pontiac," Leaping Larry Chene will meet Jim "Brute" Bernard at the Pontiac Armory Friday night.

The match between Bernard and Chene two weeks ago reached such heights of drama and excitement that literally hundreds of spectators went wild.

During the third fall of the bout, Bernard, kicking, punching, and hammering away illegally at every opportunity, managed to so weaken and stun Chene that Larry was out on his feet.

MOOSE BAGGED—Sliding Yankee first baseman Bill "Moose" Skowron is tagged out at third by Washington's Reno Bertoia in the 4th inning of their game at Yankee Stadium yesterday. Left fielder Jim Lemon made the throw as Skowron tried to advance on a single. Washington beat the Yankees, 5-4, and the Yanks are still half game out of first place behind the Detroit Tigers.

Has Sounds and Fireworks

New Veeck Scoreboard Makes Debut Tonight

CHICAGO (AP)—Bill Veeck's newest plaything — a huge electronic scoreboard that has everything but a mutuel window — will explode into action for the first time tonight when the Chicago White Sox face the Cleveland Indians.

The glorified pinball machine can emit about any noise the Sox' president chooses from a remote control board.

★ ★ ★

He can sound the thundering hooves of a cavalry charge when Ted Kluszewski lumbers around the bases, or play "Flight of the Bumblebee" when Luis Aparicio steals.

★ ★ ★

How about a siren when a relief pitcher comes in? Or the sound of a creaking door when Early Wynn walks by?

Sox homers will start fireworks and electrical displays erupting from small towers atop the scoreboard, which looms behind Comiskey Park's centerfield bullpen.

It won't take much imagination to figure what Veeck will play when Cleveland pitcher Gary Bell (1-0) takes the mound. Sortie piercing sound undoubtedly will greet Sox hurler Bill Pierce (0-1).

When he gets tired of making noises, he can flash messages on a "Soxogram" or time pitches on a "pitchometer."

Oh yes, the scoreboard also flashes the usual balls, strikes, errors, etc.

A triumphal march probably will signal the return home of the American League champions, who are delighted with a one-game winning streak. They ended a hectic road trip by blanking the A's at Kansas City Tuesday night 3-0 as Bob Shaw became the first pitcher to go the route.

Although the sox have won only 3 of their 7 starts, Veeck insists he isn't ready to press the panic button. His electronic apparatus probably has one.

Hoosiers Draw Sympathy From Michigan State

EAST LANSING (UPI)—Dr. John Fuzak, faculty representative to the Big Ten Athletic Conference from Michigan State University, said yesterday he sympathized with Indiana University on its four-year NCAA probation.

"That's a pretty stiff penalty," Fuzak said. "I'm surprised at the severity."

He said he knew the NCAA had been investigating Indiana, but had no idea of the nature of the offense for which it was penalized. He said many things connected with recruiting could go wrong without the school even knowing about it.

"If a kid is a musician nobody says anything about it," Fuzak said. "But the school is responsible for the actions of the alumni under NCAA rules."

He speculated that the NCAA might be getting a little tougher in its penalties for violations.

Daugherty's Not Happy

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan State football squad practiced last night but the coach wasn't pleased with the ragged performance.

"The only thing good was that nobody got hurt," said Duffy Daugherty, who has had two prospects ruled out by injuries so far.

College Baseball May Be Solution

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—College baseball, not miracle cures for the stricken minor leagues, may solve the dilemma of keeping the majors supplied with talent without causing bankruptcy.

"Unless they shut off all those major league telecasts into minor league territory the minors are going to die," said coach Dick Siebert of the University of Minnesota. "And college baseball could be the only alternative in developing new talent.'

Siebert is one of the leading advocates of summertime baseball in the Big Ten and eventually conferences throughout the country. Under a plan now under study by athletic directors, Big Ten teams would play a 36-game schedule during the summer vacation.

"There are some bugs that would have to be worked out," Siebert said, "but I think the idea is a good one. Certainly it would be good for organized baseball, if they were willing to assure the colleges they would not try to come in and recruit while the boys still have eligibility.'

Siebert is the former Philadelphia A's first baseman who has transformed Minnesota, once chronically anemic in baseball, into one of the nation's college powers. The Gophers have won three conference titles in the last four seasons.

Siebert's theory that the country's colleges eventually will take the place of the minor leagues as baseball cradles is supported in private by a number of baseball people.

Scouts are enthusiastic about the possibilities. College baseball has made huge strides in the post-war era, partly under the impetus of hefty bonuses given to some of its more celebrated practitioners, such as Harvey Kuenn, Robin Roberts, Paul Glel, Dean Look and many others.

"I think the day isn't too remote when college baseball will have the same relationship to the pro sport as college football does today," Siebert said. "And I think it would be wonderful so long as the pros maintain the same hands-off attitude while a boy has eligibility left."

Heavy Big 10 Card

Gopher 9 Meets 'M'-MSU

By The Associated Press

Minnesota, perking with a 14-4 pre-season record and a 12-game winning streak, opens its quest for a third straight Big Ten baseball championship in a full round of conference games this weekend.

★ ★ ★

The Gophers open Friday in a single home game against Michigan State and play host to Michigan in a doubleheader Saturday.

The games with Michigan will have a strong bearing on the title race since the Wolverines have a fine 13-4 overall record and two ace righthanders, Denny McGinn and Al Koch, ready to try to stretch 4-0 records.

Minnesota's Howard Nathe and Larry Bertelsen have eased pitching slack caused by the loss of Fred Bruckbauer and Dick Seibert Jr., and last year's batting champion, outfielder Ron Causton, is back in action.

In other single games Friday Michigan is at Iowa, Northwestern at Wisconsin, Ohio State and Illinois and Indiana at Purdue. Saturday's other doubleheaders have Northwestern at Wisconsin, Indiana at Illinois, Ohio State at Purdue and Michigan State at Iowa.

Four teams opened conference competition last weekend. Illinois and Michigan each won two of three games to share the lead. Purdue and Michigan State each has 1-2 marks.

Alma Splits Twinbill

ALMA (AP)—Alma split an MIAA doubleheader with Hillsdale yesterday, losing the opening game 1-0, then coming back to win 4-1.

Alma is now 3-1 in the league and Hillsdale 1-1.

California's Top Back Quits for Pro Ball

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Wayne Crow, considered the top man in the University of California backfield, gave up college football Wednesday and signed with the Oakland Raiders of the American Football League.

The 22-year-old senior, quarterback on last year's squad, said he asked for a contract because he needed the money.

Don't be confused by tire claims, grades and prices. Don't spend too much or take a risk on a "bargain." Basically, there are 3 kinds of tires for 3 kinds of drivers (heavy driving, light and normal)... and buying the right tire is as easy as B-F-G

THE PREMIUM-QUALITY
B.F.GOODRICH "HT"
Turnpike drivers who pile up the mileage at superhighway speeds need a premium-quality tire that can take it. The new premium-quality B.F.Goodrich "HT" has an extra-wide, extra-deep tread on top of 4 plies of extra-strong, nylon cord. Gives 22% more mileage than a regular, first-quality tire for only about $3 more!

THE ECONOMY-TYPE
BFG "SAFETY-S"
If your driving is just around town, you can save real money with an economy tire like the BFG "Safety-S". It has a wide, ground-gripping, 7-rib tread for safe, quick stops in city traffic and school zones, on wet, slick streets. We believe there's no better value in economy-type tires than the B.F.Goodrich "Safety-S."

THE FIRST-QUALITY
BFG "SILVERTOWN"
Most drivers make hundreds of short trips around town and a few long ones each year. They need a first-quality tire like the BFG "Silvertown"—the tire automakers tested and chose for their 1960 cars. Its new "Quiet Rubber" takes the hum out of highways, the squeal out of corners . . . gives a really smooth ride!

PNH Chosen Site for State Water Safety Clinic

Northern Pool Hosts Program Set May 19th

Conservation Office Sponsors Projects for Fostering Safety

Pontiac Northern is one of two sites selected by Michigan Department of Conservation for the sponsorship of pilot water safety clinics in May.

The first clinic will be staged May 7th from 9:00 a.m. to noon at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

Northern will host recreational instructors from Oakland County and other youth service agencies, Thursday night May 19 from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Personnel from the Michigan State police, American Red Cross and Shakespeare Company of Kalamazoo will demonstrate rowboat and canoe safety, skin and scuba diving and methods of resuscitation and technique of fishing during both clinics.

★ ★ ★

If the projects are successful, the conservation department hopes to expand them next year.

Purpose of the clinics is to foster water safety and to broaden the scope of physical education in water sports.

★ ★ ★

Boating

Booming Boat Business Jamming Up Waterways

NEW YORK (UPI) — The country's booming boat business is going to run out of water on which to cruise unless something is done soon.

Ironically, a skipper in Ohio or Iowa may have less trouble finding waterways for his craft than the coastal resident of California or New Jersey, according to Harvey Conover Jr., publisher of Boating industry, a leading trade magazine.

Besides a lack of coastal inlets, most inland bay and river moorings are 20 miles from the ocean. The bays and rivers already are overcrowded for pleasure boating. For a novice skipper, a return trip on a summer weekend through a channel that is only 100 to 300 feet wide is worse than trying to navigate a car through Sunday traffic.

Conover said the waterway shortage and the lack of marinas will choke the boat building industry unless something is done soon on a large scale.

He likened steps taken so far to trying to bail out the queen Mary with a tea cup.

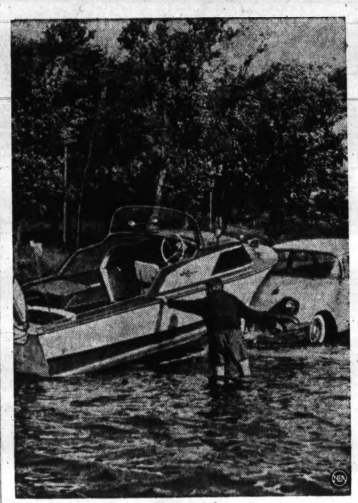
There is growing agitation for digging new inlets and canal with access to the sea, but the expense is tremendous.

The federal government taxes ocean fishing gear to raise money to improve launching facilities and access to fishing waters for the commercial fishing industry. It has been suggested that pleasure boaters, who also benefit from these improvements, should contribute to the fund.

"A number of states now are diverting a small percentage of their gasoline tax revenues from highways to improving public boating waterways," Conover said. The outboard boating club of America is campaigning for use for boating of gas taxes paid by boat owners in all states.

For a long time banks and mortgage companies wouldn't touch marinas because they were seasonal and because many promoters didn't have enough money to invest themselves.

However, questionnaires sent recently to financial institutions by the national association of engine and boat manufacturers recently showed that 14.2 per cent of the banks now consider marinas sound customers for ordinary loans and 23.8 per cent think them good mortgage risks



BACK IN WATER — Boatmen keep their craft out of winter hibernation by trailering them south. Install an extra hitch on the front bumper for launching visibility upon arrival.

IN A HURRY—Hu Entrop flashes by at 114 miles an hour. He is using a standard family 75-horsepower outboard motor fitted with a high-speed lower unit making the record run.

14 Foot Outboard Owns World Mark

The world speed record for outboard boats has been broken by a quiet, modest man from Seattle, whose hair is thinning and who wears glasses when he drives.

You might not pick Hubert Entrop out of a crowd as the world's top outboard driver, but he earned that rating at 114.650 miles an hour on the smooth water of Lake Havasu on the California-Arizona border.

That is seven miles an hour faster than any outboard boat had ever traveled before, and the old record was his own.

"I could have gone faster," Entrop reports. "I didn't have the throttle all the way open, but I felt she was kiting."

A speedboat kites when she ceases to be a boat at speeds that would have an aircraft flying.

High speeds over the water are accomplished on that precarious edge where the craft skims along keeping enough propeller wet to give maximum power, maintain steering control, and offer maximum drag.

The driver must be sensitive to every ripple in the water, every impulse of the boat. At these high speeds, any swerve can mean a loss of control, a flip, a shattered boat or worse.

To work toward this record, Entrop went to his friend, Doc Jones. Together they designed a hydroplane that rides on only three points—the tips of the sponsons on each side of the hull and the propeller. They took a standard family type 75-horsepower Evinrude outboard motor and attached a high speed lower unit and a propeller that could "prop-walk" the water.

Standard fuel, the same gas-oil mixture that runs the family outboard for water skiing, was used. During the speed run the motor never exceeded 4,900 revolutions per minute.

Fishing on Puget Sound 10 years ago, Entrop got tired of rowing and decided to buy an old outboard. He went to Doc Jones for parts and advice. Jones got him interested in racing.

Entrop works for an aircraft manufacturing company as a model builder. He is a meticulous craftsman.

More than a year ago he created a craft that broke the 100-mile mark and brought the outboard record to the United States.

After a series of preliminary tests, Entrop and Jones decided they were ready for a try at a new record. They trailered south to Lake Havasu on the Colorado River.

Hunched forward, kneeling in the tiny cockpit placed far forward in the hull for perfect balance, Entrop drove out over the water, pushing to the point where he could feel his boat trying to fly on her own.

He's planning an even faster boat.

Kensington Park Ready for Summer

Kenneth L. Hallenbeck, director of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, announced today that several facilities are now open at its parks.

Authority parks now open for public use include Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford, Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville, Dexter-Huron Metropolitan Park and Delhi Metropolitan Park, both located along the Huron River near Ann Arbor.

Kensington Metropolitan park near Milford has tables and stoves available for picnickers. Other facilities now in operation at the park include playground equipment such as swings, slides and the softball diamonds, restrooms, two boat launching sites, slip rental space, nature trails and the Nature Center.

The Nature Center, which features exhibits on natural science, is open daily from 2 to 4 p.m. and on Saturday, Sunday and holidays from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Yacht and Motorboat

INSURANCE

Even though a yacht or motorboat is as safe as it is humanly possible to make it, there are times when the unexpected happens. Boating hazards involve the possibility of loss or damage to the owners boat or his legal liability for property damage, bodily injury and loss of life. These and other risks are covered when the owner of a pleasure craft purchases complete YACHT AND MOTORBOAT INSURANCE.

H. W. HUTTENLOCHER AGENCY

306-320 Riker Bldg. FE 4-1551

RIGHT AND WRONG — Common sense tells one how to properly board a boat. Step as nearly as possible into the center of the boat with gear piled close at hand on the pier. Then while seated lift gear into the boat. The man at the bottom is in trouble. He steps on the gunwale of the boat at the pier with his arms loaded with gear as the boat slides away.

Trailers Help Stretch Season

By WM. T. McKEOWN
Editor, Popular Boating

Hauling out time no longer means hibernation for many boats through the winter.

Trailers are two-wheeled magic carpets that add an extra seagoing season in the sun for the pleasure boating family.

Many boatmen take long weekends afloat during the summer and save vacation weeks for a winter tour, boat in tow, to the sunny south.

Distance trekking requires a rugged trailer. Rough roads, higher speeds and many miles all require a rig that can contend with abuse without breakdown or danger to the boat. Even large outboard cruisers can be easily towed.

★ ★ ★

Here are check points. How is the boat supported? Be sure that bolsters cradle the craft's weight over a large area. A hull can be dimpled or damaged if it rides only a few small rollers or projections.

★ ★ ★

How often does the trailer go under water? Wheel bearings should be repacked with grease after submersion. Salt water especially is corrosive and can attract trouble. You certainly do not want trailer wheel bearings to become too hot to go on in the middle of the open road.

How much weight can your rig safely carry? Often a trailer is bought to match the weight of your boat—before motor, luggage, spare gas and camping equipment.

You have a spare tire for your car, but do you have one for your trailer?

How well is the boat's weight placed? Balance should be slightly forward so that the trailer tongue rests firmly on your car's rear bumper hitch.

Do you carry your outboard mounted on the transom? Note if the stern of the boat is properly supported, in this case, so that leverage strain is not added.

Make a touring practice of periodic checks of all tiedowns holding the boat in place. Keep watch in your rear view mirror to make certain you are not being followed by a sea-going jackrabbit of a boat that seems to leap into the air on every bump.

And to be certain you will not also be followed by the police, write ahead to states you will be passing through, or check with the Automobile Club, to find out about trailer regulations and roads where they are allowed.

Install an extra hitch on the front bumper for launching visibility upon arrival.

Have Water Aboard When Out Boating

One of the most common mistakes of the novice boatman is the failure to take along a supply of fresh water when going boating, be it for an afternoon or an extended trip.

Despite the fact that you are surrounded by water when you're boating, the Evinrude Boating Foundation reminds you that this water is almost never fit to drink.

A thermos jug of fresh water will be one of the most welcome additions to your boating fun on a warm day, and this is especially true if you have youngsters aboard.

Play It Safe, Boaters

Three Different Aquatic Classes to Be Held at Y

Three aquatic classes will begin in May at the Pontiac YMCA, 131 Mt. Clemens St.

Two classes in beginning skin and scuba diving will start May 2. One will be from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Mondays, the other from 7 to 9:30 p.m. the same day.

Both courses will run through June 13. Each class will be limited to 16 persons.

Basic fundamentals of skin and scuba diving will be covered, including proper techniques in using mask, fins, snorkels, tanks, along with the necessary basic information in physics and physiology.

Instructor for the two courses will be William Jackson, national YMCA certified scuba instructor.

The only requirement for enrolling is being able to swim.

The 'Y' will furnish masks, fins, tanks, and other equipment.

Cost of the course is $15 for members and $20 for non-members.

Swimming classes for boys will also begin May 2. Classes, limited to 15 boys each, will be held from 4-4:45 Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays, will consist of eight sessions, and cost $10 per pupil.

Registrations should be submitted to the 'Y' office by Saturday.

Because of the tight program schedule, classes for girls will not be immediately offered, said John J. Moreau, director, Dept. of Aquatics. He urged parents desiring a girls' class to notify the 'Y' office. A class will be set up as soon as possible, he said.

The first annual lifesaving and water safety renewal course will be offered beginning on Wednesday, May 4.

The course is for any person wishing to renew a lifesaving certificate, and the course is open only to those who have taken lifesaving courses earlier, Moreau said.

30 Young GOPs Off to Jackson

County Delegation to Be Largest at Annual State Gathering

Oakland County will send 30 representatives to the annual convention of the Michigan Federation of Young Republicans which opens in Jackson tomorrow.

Among them will be Mrs. Betty Ellis, Royal Oak High School teacher and presently secretary of the state group. A Birmingham resident, she will vie for the position of national committee woman for the coming years.

The three-day convention will be highlighted by an address by Leo A. Hoegh, former governor of Iowa and now chairman of the Civil Defense Mobilization Board and a member of the National Security Commission.

State Young Republicans will attempt to draft suggestions which they hope will be incorporated in the national party platform. They gave no advance indications what these might be.

Joseph P. Bianco Jr., Oakland delegation chairman and past chairman of the Oakland YRs, said his delegation—the largest single voting bloc with 56 votes—have no particular planks to offer, with the exception that an over-all aim will be for "a more dynamic and effective Republican Party."

★ ★

Another highlight of the convention will take place Friday night when some YRs will go to Lansing to attend Paul Bagwell's announcement and fund-raising dinner.

Senate Fights to Cut Foreign Aid Money

WASHINGTON (AP)—A fight to cut 200 million dollars in military assistance funds from President Eisenhower's foreign aid program raised the last major hurdle to its approval by the Senate today.

Most of the stronger opponents of overseas spending plan to wait until the appropriations bill, which provides the actual money, is taken up later. The pending aid bill simply sets ceilings for the money bill.

But Sen. Frank Church (D-Idaho) said he will call up an amendment to put a ceiling of $1,800,000,000 on the amount the President can request for military asked two billion dollars.

Lily Pons Likes Dallas —so It's Her New Home

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Lily Pons, the opera singer, has moved into a swank Dallas apartment and announced that from now on this will be her home.

★ ★ ★

"But of course I will keep my Palm Springs home. I expect to spend the winter there," she said Wednesday.

Her furniture was trucked from New York, where Miss Pons lived for 15 years.

Solon Pensions Liberalized

Williams Signs Bill Dropping Age to 55 for 8 Years of Service

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams has put his signature on a bill liberalizing the pension system covering state legislators.

The new law permits lawmakers to start collecting a pension at age 55, instead of 60, if they have served at least eight years. It also allows widowers of women lawmakers to come in for pension benefits.

The eight-year requirement was also relaxed to allow a lawmaker elected to three two-year terms and part of a fourth to collect benefits.

Top benefit currently is $2,000 — or 50 per cent of the $4,000 salary.

If the Legislature approves a salary increase for its members, the maximum pension will go up automatically to half of the new salary.

U. S. families spend an average of $246 a year in clothing stores. To tell American consumers about what to wear, national advertisers invested an estimated $7,600,000 for wearing apparel in newspapers last year.

White Cane Sale Clears $850, Lions Report

The Pontiac Lions Club has announced it cleared about $850 in the White Cane Sale last weekend.

"The total should be about $850 in money collected during the entire week," said Wayne McCandless, club president.

"We want to thank everyone who contributed. We are very happy with the total even though we fell short of our goal of $1,100," McCandless said.

The money will be used for sight conservation aid to both the blind and those with impaired sight, for Leader Dogs For the Blind in Rochester, and the club's other community projects.

The $850 topped last year's total of $500.

There are about 12 different species of walnuts, eight or nine of which can be cultivated commercially.

LOVE'S SWAN SONG — Meatcutter Donald F. Tagmeyer, 21, and Danish singer Birthe Wilke, 23, had eyes only for each other last Jan. 4 at Mishawaka, Ind., when they announced they'd marry. They were wed in a secret ceremony five days later. Wednesday Tagmeyer filed suit for divorce. His wife said it was a complete surprise. So was the original romance, actually. Berthe had come to America to marry a friend of Tagmeyer, in Mishawaka, but fell in love with Tagmeyer and wed him instead. Apparently the lives of a famous singer and of a meatcutter are incompatible.

Son of New Korea Chief Is Boston Statistician

BOSTON (AP) — A son of the acting president of Korea works in Boston as a statistician. In Korea he was Huh Choo; in Boston, he's Hubert C. Huh.

He said he changed his name because American people found it difficult.

"When people pronounce it they notice the sound and begin calling me 'Mr. Sneeze,'" he said.

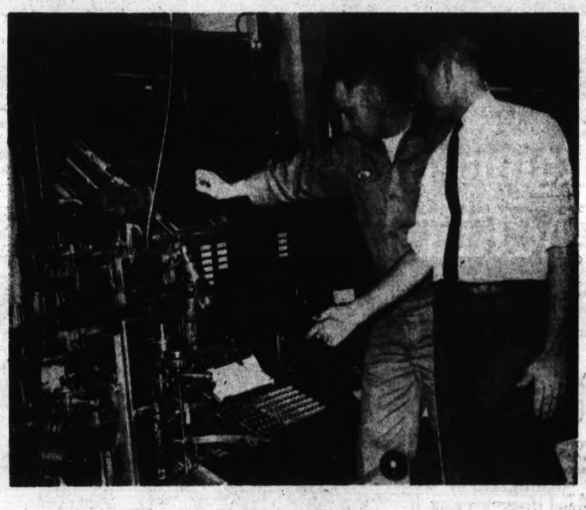
Here are some of the people who daily, help publish your favorite paper . . .

THE PONTIAC PRESS

(ABOVE) The Pressroom where the giant presses swallow paper at an amazing speed to produce your Pontiac Press in a few short hours. It takes men who are masters of their machine.

(BELOW) The Composing Room makes words into metal letters and assembles them into pages. This linotype machine makes the letters and men provide the skill.



(ABOVE) Here is the Stereotype Department were the pages of metal letters and engravings are pressed into fiber mats and then cast into curved metal plates which are attached to the presses. It is a precise job which requires real craftsmen.

(BELOW) The complex operation of a newspaper calls for constant care by a multi-talented group of people who make up our Maintenance Department. They are the mechanical physicians of our many and varied machinery.

These are the highly skilled men who do the actual printing of your daily newspaper. The men who operate and maintain our complex machinery. Men of the composing room, the stereotype department, the pressroom and the maintenance department.

After the editorial department has assembled the news and the advertising department has sold the ads the mechanical departments take these words and ideas and put them into pages, cast them into curved metal plates, put the plates on the mammoth presses and turn out over 60,800 copies of The Pontiac Press six days every week.

These men live in a state of immediacy. The news and the advertising are perishable goods and they must be rushed to you, the consumer. It is up to our mechanical departments to see that our many readers have their favorite newspaper every evening and they do an outstanding job.

Oil Companies Growing Optimistic in Climbing From Financial Depths

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The oil industry is beginning to see its way out of some of the troubles that led its shares to becoming a favorite target of the stock market bears.

Some oil officials are quite cheerful today about the outlook for the rest of the year. Their reports on first quarter profits are better than many bears had expected.

★ ★ ★

But many of the trouble spots still remain. The cheerfulness comes from a new look at them. The troubles aren't catching them unawares any more. And some companies are learning how to deal with them.

MANY TROUBLES

The troubles are capacity to produce far beyond present demands, heavy and rising refinery costs that bump up against price resistance, and imports that are too big to please most domestic producers but too small to please coastal refiners that depend upon them.

The brighter spots are moves that brought surplus supplies under better control; rising demand, especially abroad; North African oil discoveries that makes some companies independent of potential or actual controls over the once all important Suez Canal; and rising profits for half of the oil companies in spite of all the troubles.

The three largest of the companies to report earnings for the first three months of the year show them ahead of the 1959 first quarter. This helped pull ahead the industry as a whole, although of the 24 companies reporting so far, exactly half show trailing profits.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS

Combined, the 24 companies made $325,091,000 after taxes, a gain of 8.2 per cent over the $300,327,000 the same two dozen made in the first three months of 1959.

Predictions for the rest of the year are even brighter.

Texaco's chairman, August C. Long, notes that high gasoline stocks have had a depressing effect on prices. But he feels that rising demand will help solve the problem.

He sees consumption in the United States running three per cent ahead of last year, now that cars are out on the road again after the rough winter months.

The industry should do even better abroad, he feels. He sees demand in the rest of the non-Communist world topping last year's by 8 per cent.

New State Law Extends Power to Ax Coroner

LANSING (AP)—A bill authorizing boards of supervisors in at least 10Michigan counties to abolish the elective office of coroner has been signed into law by Gov. Williams.

The measure, scheduled to take effect in mid-August, permits supervisors in counties with more than 100,000 residents to replace the coroner's job with an appointed medical examiner.

Formerly, only supervisors in counties of more than 250,000 population were permitted to do this. Voter approval is needed in those of less than 100,000.

Kennedy Says Primaries Show Hubert Too Weak

By The Associated Press

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) says the Democratic primaries in Massachusetts and Pennsylvania prove Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) can't win the Democratic presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

But, he said at Martinsburg, W. Va., Wednesday, they also show that Vice President Richard M. Nixon would be "a formidable opponent" in the November election.

In Pennsylvania, where all but Nixon were write-in candidates, Kennedy outdistanced his closest rival, Adlai Stevenson, by more than 6 to 1. His margin in his home state of Massachusetts was even more lopsided. Humphrey's totals were minuscule in comparison.

Nixon got a big vote of confidence in both states. His Pennsylvania total, with returns still incomplete, may top the 951,932-vote showing President Eisenhower made there in 1956.

But Humphrey doggedly kept on with his man-killing campaign schedule in West Virginia. The state's May 10 primary will be a crucial test for him against Kennedy.

Both candidates returned to Washington Wednesday, but Humphrey headed back to West Virginia today for another three-day grind. Kennedy plans to return this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Nixon made no direct comment on the Massachusetts and Pennsylvania results, but GOP National Chairman Thruston B. Morton said his showing was impressive, especially since he did no campaigning.

AF Space Glider Given Green Light

WASHINGTON (UPI) —The Air Force ordered a go-ahead Wednesday on a winged space glider that eventually may carry a man around the world in 90 minutes and set him down gracefully on the California desert.

The space ship, dubbed Dyna Soar, will be boosted into orbit by a Titan intercontinental ballistic missile. Unlike the Project Mercury Astronaut program, Dyna Soar's pilot will land at a conventional air base. Mercury pilots will return to earth in capsules dangling from parachutes.

The Air Force announced it was making available $29,700,000 to the Boeing Airplane Co. for the design and ground testing necessary to build a "boost-glide aerospace test vehicle." An additional $58,000,000 is provided in the new Air Force budget.

Publishers See Nonsmudge Ink at Convention

NEW YORK (UPI)—Daily newspaper publishers in annual convention here Wednesday inspected copies of a newspaper with the page printed in a water-based ink that would not rub off on hands or clothing.

The papers were distributed as part of a report of the research institute of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn.

Charles H. Tingley, managing director of the institute, told the publishers that finding a nonsmudge ink had become a major undertaking of the institute.

He emphasized, however, that it still is in the experimental stage. One of the obstacles to its development is costs.

Motors, Others Climb Slightly

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices were mixed early this afternoon as gains by motors, aircrafts and selected issues pulled the list out of a slight decline.

Key stocks showed gains and losses of fractions to about a point.

The market was generally lower at the start with the ticker tape late briefly.

Prices remained uneven for a spell in very quiet trading then activity picked up with the revival of buying interest which improved the general level.

Some stocks ignored reports of much better earnings but a few responded. Aircrafts were helped by release of some funds by the Air Force.

Steels, rails, airlines, electrical equipments and some of the leading nonferrous metals were lower.

General Motors was only steady at the start despite its report of record quarterly earnings. Later it gained fractionally. American Tobacco had record first quarter earnings and advanced a point. United Air Lines, which reported a loss from operations, dipped more than a point.

Martin rose about a point and Boeing more than that as the Air Force instructed the two firms to begin actual design of the much-delayed Dyna Soar space glider at the same time releasing funds for the project.

★ ★ ★

Lockheed and General Dynamics gained fractionally on word that the Pentagon plans to request additional Polaris-firing submarines if tests prove out the weapon. Douglas Aircraft was about a point higher.

★ ★ ★

ITE circuit breaker recovered about a point of yesterday's dive of 5¾. NAFI, yesterday's most active gainer, nudged ahead slightly.

Grain Futures Tilt Toward Weakness

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market tilted generally toward weakness today during the first several minutes of dealings on the Board of Trade.

★ ★ ★

May wheat, however, was slightly firm again and posted another high for the season by a small fraction. It appeared to have further support from export buyers after a sale of 3,373,000 bushels of hard wheat to Uruguay for May shipment.

★ ★ ★

Will 12-Year Struggle End Monday?

Chessman Has Days to Live

By MOE RAISER

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)— How is Caryl Chessman spending his final days awaiting his ninth scheduled execution May 2?

The convict-author is a calm but busy man—with mixed emotions.

One moment he is hopeful. The next he believes his 12-year fight for survival will end in the green gas chamber next Monday.

Many of Chessman's daytime hours are occupied by newsmen and photographers from many parts of the world.

They visit him in a small room and one question invariably asked is, "How do you feel about your coming execution?"

When I saw Chessman this week he comented:

"If you ask me how I feel about my approaching execution, let me say I do not believe I can project my feelings to anyone.

"I have been through this so many times that I just can't say how I feel.

"If I should live, I would like to drop back into complete anonymity. This life in a goldfish bowl is not pleasant."

Chessman was convicted in 1948 as the Los Angeles "Red Light Bandit" who forced sexual abuses on two women victims.

He has steadfastly denied the charges. He has refused to "finger" or identify a man he says was the bandit. Although all of his judicial appeals are exhausted.

Chessman's eighth scheduled execution was last Feb. 19. A 60-day reprieve by Gov. Edmund G. Brown saved him then.

Chessman described his nearness to death as terrifying.

"It's almost as though you're walled off from the living. There is an awareness, hard to describe, that pours in on you like waves pounding against a beach."

★ ★ ★

He will face the same ordeal again soon. He sits in small cell at night and waits, and reads until late in the morning. He sleeps only five hours, eats sparingly.

His typewriter is stilled. From it flowed countless court appeals, short stories and four books, including "Cell 2455, Death Row," a best seller.

Chessman still has things to do before May 2. He must arrange for disposal of his estate, which he said is small. And for his own funeral.

Ike Quotes Constitution Against Religious Issue

WASHINGTON (UP) — President Eisenhower read two provisions from the U. S. Constitution Wednesday in a personal effort to rule out the religious issue as a factor in the 1960 political campaign.

He pulled copies of the provisions from his pocket after a news conference question about his view on the issue, which has become prominent because Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), one of the major contenders for the presidency, is a Catholic.

The first provision read by the President was part of Article VI. It says that members of Congress and state Legislatures and all executive and judicial officers of the federal and state governments must swear to support the U.S. Constitution, "But no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States."

Eisenhower also read from the First Amendment, part of the Bill of Rights, which says that Congress "shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof."

After reading these sections, the President said that the Constitution provided a better answer to the question than any words of his.

Drop Charges Against Dean

Action Follows on Heels of Resignation in Death of Woman Teacher

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Former Louisiana State University dean George H. Mickey was a free man today, but he was a teacher without a school.

Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot Wednesday withdrew a murder warrant that charged the 50-year-old scientist with the bludgeon slaying of Dr. Margaret Rosamond McMillan, a woman faculty member.

The district attorney's action came shortly after it was disclosed Mickey had voluntarily resigned from the faculty.

University President Troy Middleton had relieved Mickey of his duties as dean after he was jailed. Later, the geneticist was demoted to a professorship but kept on the payroll.

Mickey, reached at his home where he has lived practically in seclusion since his release on $10,000 bond, declined to comment on his plans.

A grand jury took no action after hearing evidence in the case leaving the murder charge hanging.

Mickey's attorney, Robert Kleinpeter, said he thought the withdrawal of the warrant was the fair thing for Favrot to do. He said the action, in effect, closes the case.

Seamless Tube Pays

SOUTH LYON (AP) — Michigan Seamless Tube Co. declared a 25-cents-a-share quarterly dividend Wednesday. The dividend for the first quarter of 1959 was also 25 cents, but since then the stock has been split two for one.

BANK ANNEX RISING — Steel framework for the Community National Bank annex on E. Lawrence street rises against the sky, putting the new, four-story building well on its way toward an Oct. 1 completion date. When finished, the annex will be connected with the bank proper (left) by an enclosed overpass. The new $500,000 facility will house the bank's loan operations and will be distinguished by an unusual glass and brick facing in front.

State Steps Into Carriage Trade

Mackinac Park Body Takes Over on Island; Order Polio Shots

LANSING (UP) — The Mackinac Island State Park Commission now is boss of the carriages for hire on state park property.

The measure was among a welter of minor bills signed into law by Gov. Williams before he left on a week-long, speechmaking tour of the nation.

The issue has been hotly contested on the island. Court squabbles resulted from the commission's fight to limit the number of horse-drawn vehicles carrying tourists around the Straits of Mackinac summer resort.

The new law gives the commission specific authority over all island roads.

Also signed was a bill to add polio to the list of immunizers which physicians and local health departments are required to offer children.

MUST PROVE SHOTS

The new law supplements a measure signed earlier setting up an inoculation "check-point" program.

Under the program, each child has to give proof of inoculation against polio upon enrollment in school — or present a parent's statement either opposing immunization or requesting polio protection.

The program also applies to shots for tetanus, smallpox, diphtheria and whooping cough.

Other bills of general interest signed included those to:

Raise the salaries of county agents.

Permit the Department of Corrections to retain a newly committed inmate in a reception-diagnostic center for 60 instead of 30 days.

Extend the benefits of veterans trust fund education money to dependents of veterans and children of deceased veterans.

Increase the pay of probate judges in counties of less than 395,000 population from $500 to size of the county.

$2,500 a year, depending on the

Exempt summer camps from the hotel-motel use tax.

Extend for an additional year a guarantee that county school districts will receive as much state aid as in 1955-56 plus 10-per cent.

S-P 1st Quarter Lags That of '59

Earnings Still Called Respectable; 'Lark Can Meet Competition'

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UP) — Studebaker - Packard Corp. today reported first quarter net earnings of $2,801,639, equal to 42 cents a share, compared with a net of $7,754,991 in the first quarter of 1959.

Consolidated sales for the quarter amounted to $90,944,652 compared with $115,455,806 in the January-March period a year ago.

President Harold Churchill told the annual stockholders' meeting domestic car deliveries for the 1960 model year are in excess of 71,000 units of which 30,715 were sold in the first quarter of the calendar year. He predicted increased sales for the second quarter.

Churchill called his first quarter earnings respectable. "The most significant fact," he said, "is that the Lark is demonstrating its ability to meet the intense competition now existing in the compact car field and produce profits for the corporation."

Sentence 5 to Death for Paralyzing 10,000

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Death sentences were handed out Wednesday night to five Moroccan merchants for selling adulterated cooking oil that paralyzed 10,832 persons.

★ ★ ★

They used jet flushing oil bought at a U.S. Air Force surplus sale and mixed it with peanut and olive cooking oil to gain bigger profits.

The Air Force said the oil it sold was clearly marked engine oil on all cans.

Three other defendants were sentenced to life imprisonment as accomplices of the five condemned. Eleven others were acquitted.

Hawaiian Beauty Reigns in East Apple Country

Allied Paper Buys Up 3 Separate Companies

KALAMAZOO (UP) — Allied Paper Corp. of Kalamazoo has purchased the Egry Register Co. of Dayton, Ohio, the Stephen Greene Co. of Philadelphia and the American Register Co. of Boston.

The three units have a total annual sales volume of more than 10 million dollars. Allied sales in 1959 were about $38,700,000.

Lawrence Ruah, president of the Egry firm, said Allied paid about two million dollars for the 12,000 shares of Egry common stock outstanding.

5 Area Students Win Scholarships to Michigan State

Five students from Pontiac and Waterford Township yesterday were named winners of Michigan State University Honors Scholarships.

★ ★ ★

They are, from Pontiac Central High School, William R. Rotsel, 71 Franklin Blvd.; Sheila A. Goldberg, 166 Oneida St.; Ronald C. Joyner, 2105 Garland St.; and from Waterford Township High School, Julia Dovre, 3660 Brookdale St., and Catherine E. Kantarian, 7733 Locklin St.

★ ★ ★

Paul D. Bagwell, MSU director of scholarships, said winners were selected from students who recently competed for Alumni Distinguished scholarships and General Motors scholarships and whose scores were high enough to recommend them for the honors awards.

The Honors Scholarships cover the tuition fees for four years, or 12 terms, at MSU.

'Glue Swindle' Case Dropped

Alleged $100,000 Ruse of Oak Park Man Is Doubted by Justice

Charges resulting from an alleged $100,000 glue swindle against Sol C. Brodsky were dismissed yesterday by Oak Park Justice Burton C. Shifman.

Brodsky, 41, of 10000 Woodland Rd., Oak Park, was charged specifically with fraudulently obtaining $980 from Albert J. DeBusschere of Detroit.

Judge Shifman expressed "reasonable doubt in my mind as to Brodsky's guilt," and refused to bind the accused over for trial in Circuit Court.

Oak Park police said DeBusschere was one of 50 persons who paid Brodsky $2,400 to $10,000 for "exclusive" subdistributorships in Michigan for Liquid Iron, a glue product made by Chrysler Corp.'s Cycleweld Division at Trenton.

CLAIMED CONTRACT

Complainants said Brodsky told them he had an exclusive contract with Chrysler Corp. for Michigan and had posted a $150,000 performance bond.

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said Brodsky's contract was not exclusive and he had failed to post any bond.

The prosecutor's office has not yet decided whether to proceed with any other action against Brodsky.

Notice is hereby given of a scheduled public hearing to be held by the Pontiac Township Zoning Board at the Township Hall, 2060 Opdyke Road, Tuesday night, May 17th, 1960, at 7:30 p.m. to study the following amendments to the Zoning Ordinance:

1. That Section 6.5 of Article VI of Ordinance No. 27 (Zoning Ordinance) be amended to read 300 square feet minimum floor space for motels and 400 square feet minimum floor space for efficiency apartments.

2. That Section 11.5, 12.5, 13.5, 14.5 and 15.5 for all residential and accessory buildings read as follows: in case of corner lots the interior lot line set back shall be a minimum of five (5) feet, front lot lines shall have a set back of a minimum of forty (40) feet, the side street lot line shall have a set back of a minimum of thirty (30) feet. Provided a hardship be incurred the set back may be changed by application to the Board of Appeals.

3. That Section 11.3 of Article XI be amended to read as follows: Lot area—a one-family dwelling in R-1 and R-2 Districts together with accessory buildings, hereafter erected shall be located on a lot having not less than nine thousand six hundred (9,600) square feet of area with a width of not less than eighty (80) feet at the building line and that all front lot lines shall be a minimum of sixty (60) feet in width.

4. The Article VIII of the Zoning Ordinance be amended to read as follows:

Commercial District C-4.

Section 8—Trailer Parks.

Section 8.1—Uses. The use permitted in this district shall be limited to trailer parks which are licensed under and operated in compliance with the Michigan Trailer Park Law and the requirements as set forth hereinafter.

Section 8.2—Signs. One sign shall be permitted, not to exceed twenty-four (24) square feet.

Section 8.3—Trailer Parks and Associated Enterprises or the extension of existing enterprises when permitted shall conform to the following minimum requirements as hereinafter set forth:

(a) That said enterprises shall have proper roadways for vehicular travel throughout said trailer parks which shall be no less than forty-six (46) feet wide with an eight (8) inch gravel bed and a twenty (20) foot wide bituminous surface two (2) inches thick in the center of said roadways.

(b) That no trailer shall be located on any site situated in said trailer Park which is less than thirty-five (35) feet wide to permit a mandatory side yard of five (5) feet on one side of a trailer and twenty (20) feet on the other side for off street parking which will be the only parking permitted in said trailer parks or the occupants and their guests.

(c) That no trailer shall occupy any site unless it is of sufficient depth to allow a fifteen (15) foot set-back from the edge of the roadway and at least ten (10) feet from the road lot line.

(d) That there shall be provided throughout the trailer park a three (3) foot concrete service walk for the occupants and their guests for pedestrian travel between trailers, trailer park services and the recreation area, located at the discretion of the governing board.

(e) That there shall be provided an area equal to four hundred-thirty-five (435) square feet for each trailer site to be designated as a recreational and park area for the occupants and their guests.

(f) That there shall be provided for each trailer site a sewage disposal system and water system which shall conform to the minimum specification required by State Law at the time said trailer park or associated enterprises shall be authorized to operate.

(g) That all storm drains as provided in such trailer parks and associated enterprises must comply with specifications and pass inspection by the Township engineer.

(h) That there shall be a ten (10) foot screen which shall obscure said trailer parks from the neighboring land owners and said screening may consist of wood, concrete or equal to shield the view of said trailer park but permit light and air to pass freely.

(i) That said trailer parks shall be illuminated by street lighting with a minimum average lighting of 5 foot candles.

80 Joints Raided; T-Men Arrest 65

WASHINGTON (AP) — With stopwatch precision, U.S. Treasury agents invaded backroom bookie joints and numbers rooms in nearly 50 cities across the country Wednesday.

Mopping up today, they counted at least 65 arrests, and the figure may swell to 100.

The T-Men, after weeks and months of careful investigation, sprang their traps at more than 80 separate locations—backrooms of candy stores, taverns, private suburban homes, hotel rooms. In a few cases their quarry temporarily escaped the net.

★ ★ ★

The basis for the raids was this: Under federal law, any gambler must purchase a $50 tax stamp from the government, even if gambling is illegal in his state. If he doesn't have the stamp, he faces a maximum five year prison sentence and $10,000 fine.

Cooperating with the T-Men were state and local police, U.S. marshals and agents of the Internal Revenue Service's alcohol tax division.

Though they found some evidence of connections between widely separated gambling operations, officials said, there was no immediate proof that any were tied together in a nationwide crime syndicate.

Unveil Grand Rapids Redevelopment Plan

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — An ambitious program for redevelopment of the entire downtown Grand Rapids area over the next 15 to 20 years was outlined today for city officials, but there yet is no plan for financing.

The plan was unveiled after a year-long study on needs of the central business core by J. Paul Jones, senior consultant with a New York planning services firm.

He told city commissioners and civic leaders the program's first step should be development of the civic administrative buildings at the business district's northwest end as approved last year by the City Commission.

An urban renewal program for a 28-acre portion of the business district already has been approved and has been granted $90,175 in financing by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR Mother & Grandmother, Mrs. Hazel Haaland Bentley, who passed away April 28, 1959.
In our home she is fondly remembered,
Sweet memories cling to her name,
Those who loved her in life sincerely,
Still love her in death just the same.
Sadly missed by her family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF NELLIE Willoughby who passed away April 28, 1959.
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own;
And day by day I miss her more,
As I walk through life alone.
Sadly missed by husband Kenton Willoughby & son John, & daughter Donna.

'Offered $5,000 to Kill Suitor'

Mrs. Aadland Allegedly Plotted Injury or Death for Beverly's Boy Friend

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — A Hollywood actor testified Wednesday that Mrs. Florence Aadland tried to persuade him to beat up a suitor of her daughter Beverly, and offered him a $5,000 "bonus" if he killed the man.

The witness, Bob Profeta, 28, testified at a preliminary hearing on charges of contributing to the delinquency of her daughter, last playmate of the late actor Errol Flynn.

Under questioning by Mrs. Aadland's attorney Marvin Mitchelson, Profeta, who took photographs of a wine-drinking party at the Aadland apartment March 19, said he and his friend Lee Dinson, 26, went to the district attorney's office to talk about the Aadlands.

"We went there," he said, "because Mrs. Aadland had solicited me to beat up Jack Dulin and she offered me a bonus if he was killed."

BRINGS 2 NEW PHOTOS

Profeta brought two new photographs to court to add to the 13 the state's contention that Mrs. Aadland allowed her daughter to drink intoxicating liquors and go to bed with adult males.

Kahanowicz stated that one of the new photographs was "offered as proof that Beverly Aadland was in bed with a male."

Park Will Open This Sunday at Walled Lake

Something new at Walled Lake Amusement Park. "The Junior Turnpike," will put youngsters in the drivers' seats of small hot-rods and allow them to steer their own course on the track this year.

The amusement park announced today its preview opening Sunday.

Another new adventure for the youngsters is the park's "Mother Goose Land," complete with miniature castle surrounded by a moat, the "little red school house" and "kiddie zoo," featuring live lambs, geese, ducks, rabbits and other farm animals in a nursery rhyme theme.

All of the rides at the park will reopen Sunday including the roller-coaster, merry-go-round, whirly planes and speedboat rides on the lake.

Boats for fishing and picnic facilities also are available with a beach for swimming. The park offers free admission and parking.

PIRATE'S WIFE—This is Barbara Table, 18, whose husband of one month was arrested with another man by Cuban authorities after the murder of a ship captain. The skipper had rescued the men from a lonely Bahama island, but refused to go ashore and save Mrs. Table because of dangerous waters. After slaying the skipper, the men fled with his boat.

Jeff Hunter to Play Jesus in Defiance of a Legend

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Filmland legends die hard, and the one about H. B. Warner is returning to heckle Jeffrey Hunter.

The 33-year-old actor has signed to play Jesus in "The King of Kings," a new treatment of the Christ story to be filmed by Samuel Bronston in Spain, Italy and the Holy Land for six million dollars. Jesus has often been portrayed fleetingly in films, but this is the first important biography since Cecil B. DeMille made his silent "King of Kings" in 1927. The De Mille estate is suing Bronston over use of the title.

Lean, fragile-looking Warner played the title role for De Mille, and his acting career was blighted for years thereafter. During one of his comebacks, the actor told me producers could see him in nothing but religious roles.

Athletic Hunter realizes the danger.

"I know there are certain risks involved. But I'm willing to take them because the part is so great," Hunter said.

"I'm not worried about getting typed. Gee, I've played so many kinds of roles in my career that I don't think this one could stop me."

QUITE A DIFFERENCE

Hunter was playing a widely divergent role when we talked. He stars in "Hell to Eternity" as Guy Gabaldon, Los Angeles Marine who captured 2,000 Japanese on Okinawa.

"When I got back from the Okinawa locations, they sent me the scripts," he said, "I thought it was great and asked what role they had in mind for me, 'Like maybe Jesus Christ,' they said. I answered 'sure!'"

The actor isn't certain how he was chosen. He has done no Biblical roles, didn't even test for the film. He hasn't even talked with the film makers: Bronston, director Nick Ray and writer Phil Yordan, who are getting ready to shoot in Spain.

★ ★ ★

The only hint he has is that Ray and Yordan both worked on "The True Story of Jesse James," in which, Hunter played the bandit's brother Frank. "I remember when we were testing mustaches and hair pieces, they said to be careful that I didn't look too Christ-like."

Nothing Very Modest About the Stage Actors

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Our New York stage actors can be pretty blasted biased.

About their own acting talents . . .

WILSON

They had their noses held quite high after putting on the "Tony Awards" here the other night, convinced that their show was better and slicker than Hollywood's Oscar spectacle.

Yet the Tony TV show here wasn't sponsored.

(Whichever one had the Tony last year, didn't pick up the option this year) And it went out only to local TV (even though Helen Hayes mentioned at one point, in error, that it was going "coast to coast").

It probably wasn't right for Jackie Gleason, Melvyn Douglas, Mary Martin, Anne Bancroft and others to have known two or three days ahead that they were going to win. But it's understandable.

Otherwise they might have had something better to do with their precious Sunday night off.

Jackie Gleason said in accepting his award, "This is a sneaky way to get back on television." Tom Beasley, the La Guardia of "Fiorello!", in thanking Director George Abbott, declared: "If it weren't for him, I'd just be another chubby little actor."

Eddie Albert, Ray Bolger, Elliott Nugent, James Thurber and Russell Crouse were also brilliant. New York's got a potentially tremendous TV extravaganza here — it's a wonder that some Madison Avenue genius doesn't grab it and help make New York famous. New York's too shy, that's why!

The French papers asked the Waldorf if it would have to order a special President-size bed for lanky Pres. de Gaulle — and Mary McCloud, the p.r. gal, said, "No indeed, we already have beds big enough. We even have beds big enough for Texans." Asked what other notables had commandeered the bed that'll be supplied de Gaulle, Miss M. said, "Just say it wasn't Mickey Rooney."

Anita Bryant's rapidly becoming the new singing sensation. The Oklahoma beauty queen's new song and deal to become the Coca-Cola girl will rocket her to the top.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Liz Taylor made Eddie douse his cigar at Aqueduct before a camera man snapped them . . . Nancy Sinatra Jr. and Tommy Sands'll be married by Perry Como's friend, Father "Bob" . . . Walter Slezak must slice off 30 lbs. for his summer TV series.

EARL'S PEARLS: Tony Pettito's telling of the best mechanic in his town. He can fix your car even when there's nothing wrong with it.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Too many men say they're gonna quit smoking cigarets never get beyond the first stop—they quit buying them . . . That's earl, brother.

Hearing Next Week for Gas Rate Hike

LANSING (AP) — Hearings on Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.'s petition for an annual rate hike of at least $5,400,000 will get underway here Monday.

The Public Service Commission has set aside the entire week to allow the utility to present its case.

Michigan Consolidated's basic request is for a $5,400,000 increase to offset the higher cost of buying bulk gas from American-Louisiana Pipe Line Co.

A Federal Power Commission order authorizing another supplier — Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. — to stop selling bulk gas to Michigan Consolidated went into effect last fall.

More than ½ of the 850,000 customers served by Michigan Consolidated are in the Detroit area.

TV News and Reviews

Paris, London Ventures Good Ideas, but Actually . . .

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television served up the tale of two cities last night.

★ ★ ★

"Invitation to Paris" on ABC-TV curtsied to the lovely French capital and NBC-TV's "Perry Como Show" rattled around the city of London.

The French offering, with Maurice Chevalier and Fernandel in biz roles, comparatively speaking, probably looked better on paper than it did on videotape.

While many charming local ornaments — architectural and feminine — were recorded, too many outdoor numbers just didn't come off well.

The biggest flop was a jazz number in Montmartre, which was confused.

The fact that some of the high-powered performers appeared cold and lackadaisical didn't help matters.

I guess the weather can't be helped but we certainly didn't see much of the bright, sunny April-in-Paris weather we hear about.

★ ★ ★

My favorite parts of this many-fragment show had an all-girl chorus singing a lovely song at Place des Vosges, a singer named Dalida performing in a cafe and the combination of Les Compagnons de la Chanson singing "The Three Bells" before Notre Dame.

Having survived the wartime blitz, it was no problem for old London town to subdue our Perry Como.

And it was a subdued Perry who appeared last night in a show that originated in the British capital. Perhaps the trip tired him.

At any rate, the videotaped hour proceeded at a pace that was more tuckered-out than is customary even for standard stateside Como. One exception: some lively singing in a pub.

The show opened with time-wasting airport foolishness that seems to attract all our talent when they land overseas. After that, Perry took us to see a number of landmarks.

The production crew succeeded in squeezing as much out of each historic site as local rules allowed, I'm sure.

One off-beat feature that wasn't fully exploited had Como, ever informal, roaming about the splendor of Woburn Abbey, a showplace estate run by the Duke of Bedford.

The final quarter-hour was salvaged by a choral group's rendition of "Greensleeves" after Como delivered his solo numbers in an untidy manner.

One consolation for Perry might be that he did a better job in London — conversationally and pictorially — than did NBC's last emigrant to Britain, Jack Paar.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: "The Iron Horseman," a half-hour filmed adventure series about early railroading in the Southwest, is in preparation for a possible run in NBC-TV's 1960-61 season.

"Tales of Wells Fargo," starring Dale Robertson as Jim Hardie, continues in its Monday night time slot on NBC-TV next fall . . . Ed Sullivan starts running off his first-run summer tapes with his July 3 program.

Zachary Scott has signed as narrator of ABC-TV's "Music for a Spring Night" production next Wednesday. The theme will be "Sounds of a City."

Completed casting for Rod Serling's "Playhouse 90" drama, "In the Presence of Mine Enemies," has Arthur Kennedy, Susan Kohner, Oscar Homolka, George Macready and Sam Jaffe in support of Charles Laughton. Air time is May 18.

Born to Dead Mom, Baby Lives 23 Hours

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP) — A baby lived 23 hours after being born to his slain mother by Caesarean section.

The infant died Wednesday in Harbor General Hospital, where he had been removed from the body of Mrs. Carole Tylor, 24. Her husband Marvin, 26, is in jail on suspicion of murdering her.

Doctors removed the baby a half hour after Mrs. Tylor died, then kept him alive for 45 minutes by mouth-to-mouth resuscitation before placing him in an incubator.

Police said Tylor admitted shooting his wife in the head at their home after a violent quarrel over his drinking.

Finds War Two Bomb Still Good, Say Experts

* * *

Peterson notified the nearby Navajo Supply Depot. Demolition experts said the fuse was still active and could have caused quite a blast if given a hard blow.

Mr. Armstrong-Jones, You Prove Our Point!

STORM LAKE, Iowa (AP)—A photographic studio in Storm Lake ran a quarter page ad in the Storm Lake newspaper saying:

"Congratulations, Mr. Antony upon your engagement to beautiful, vivacious Princess Margaret. We have long maintained that men practicing the noble art of professional photography should have the right to walk with royalty. Thanks to you for proving it."

Pipelines Get Business, Rails and Trucks Also

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—Oil pipelines transported 17.21 per cent of all intercity freight traffic in 1959 — the last year of complete Interstate Commerce Commission statistics.

Railroads carred by far the largest portion of all intercity traffic — 46.13 per cent, but pipelines were only a little behind trucks, which had 19.29 per cent of the total, the ICC said.

Freshmen Volunteer to 'Sit' for Faculty

MIDDLEBURY, Vt. (UPI) — The Middlebury College freshman class volunteered to baby-sit for all faculty members so the professors and their wives could have an evening out.

Freshman Council Vice President May Jean Robson of Akron, Ohio, said, "This way we can get to know more of the faculty well and perform constructive activity."

GM Smashes All Records for First Quarter

MAKE OVER PAGES

General Motors Corp. today announced it has smashed all records for any quarterly period in its history in sales and payrolls—and taxes, too, no doubt—during the first quarter of 1960.

★ ★ ★

Net income of 324 million dollars was the highest for any first quarter, according to a statement issued by Board Chairman Frederick G. Donner and President John F. Gordon.

More than 380 million dollars went for United States and foreign income taxes.

Net sales were $3,658,000,000, compared with $3,206,000,000 for the first quarter in 1959.

Earnings on the common stock were equivalent to $1.14 per share in the first quarter of 1960, after deducting dividends on the preferred stocks, compared with $1.03 per share in the same period last year.

There are more than 808,000 shareholders.

The number of people employed by GM throughout the world in the first quarter of 1960 averaged 621,583, compared with 584,611 in the corresponding period of 1959.

Payrolls for the first quarter this year totaled 934 million dollars. Payrolls totaled 785 million dollars for the first three months last year.

The employes accounted for a total sales output of 1,406,011 cars and trucks throughout the world for this initial period of 1960, compared with 1,131,480 last year—a 24 per cent increase.

Trucks and coaches manufactured in U.S. plants totaled 163,897, compared with 121,002 last year.

The average number of wage earners employed by GM in the United States in the first quarter of 1960 was 365,003, compared with 342,899 in the same period of 1959.

WAGES AVERAGE $127.17

Weekly earnings of these employes and the number of hours they worked per week averaged $127.18 and 41.7 hours, respectively, compared with $113.72 and 39.4 hours in the first quarter of last year.

"These average weekly earnings in 1960, as well as U. S. hourly-rate and worldwide payrolls, were at record levels for any quarter," Gordon said.

★ ★ ★

"This reflected an increased demand for cars and trucks in all markets," said Donner, "and in the first part of the quarter, a replenishment of dealer stocks which had been depleted in the latter part of last year as a result of the steel strike."

Sales of 1,129,000 vehicles produced in U.S. plants showed an approximately 24 per cent increase over the 915,000 units sold in the first quarter of 1959.

GM plants abroad sold 203,000 foreign-produced cars and trucks, representing a 31 per cent increase over 1959 and a record for any quarter.

General Motors was the second auto manufacturer to report record first quarter earnings. Ford was the first.

★ ★ ★

Chrysler and Studebaker-Packard will announce their earnings today, but neither approached record proportions, according to Ben Phlegar, Associated Press automotive writer.

American Motors will report Friday or Monday.

County to Protest Expected Hike in Equalized Value

Oakland County equalization officials today were preparing data to protect the county's 1960 equalized valuation of $1,893,302,301 from an expected 13 per cent hike by state officials.

Although they said they expected some adjustment—maybe about a 7 per cent boost—officials added they would pull out all stops to protest any 13 per cent climb which the State Tax Commission says it will recommend around the state.

Copies of the 1960 assessed and equalized valuations of the county's 25 townships and 22 cities were mailed to supervisors yesterday. They'll pass on them Monday.

No opposition is expected, said William B. Grabendike, director of the equalization department.

The new county equalized valuation is $79,386,973 more than the 1959 valuation of $1,822,915,328 Grabendike said the increase is all in new construction.

With the release of the new totals, speculation moved slightly past the guessing stage as to what the county's new tax rate will be. It will remain indefinite, however, until the State Board of Equalization makes adjustments in county equalized valuations.

With a specially delivered copy of the report in his hands, David Levinson, chairman of the Board of Supervisors' ways and means committee, said the county total—"somewhat higher than we expected"—points to a possible lowering of the 1959 rate of 5.03 for each $1,000 of state equalized valuation.

How much lower, he could not say, Levinson said. "It depends solely on what the state does with our figure," the Birmingham supervisor added.

He figured the county's valuation would not be hiked as high as 13 per cent, which state officials indicate is necessary to bring valuations to a level of about 50 per cent of actual cash value under present economic conditions.

Grabendike said close compliance with the state's 1955 equalization manual has kept Oakland County close to this figure all along.

"There will be some units (counties) that will need the boost, but not Oakland County," Grabendike insisted. "That's what I have to prove."

TO CONSULT BUILDERS

He said before he goes to Lansing to argue any such increase he planned to consult with local builders to show that construction costs have not climbed any 13 per cent. He said it was closer to 5 per cent.

Levinson was still figuring on a 7 per cent increase in the county total by state officials. This, he said, probably would permit holding the tax rate at the present level, while anything above the 7-per cent might mean "a slight increase" in the rate.

A public hearing will be held in

Thousands Cheer Sad Rhee

Come On, Let's Kiss and Make Up

SHE LOVES ME, SHE LOVES ME NOT — Eighteen-month-old Rickey Hudson of Seattle may well be thinking such thoughts as his 2½-year-old sister Vicky gives him a big kiss after she had just pushed him out a third-story window. Rickey's mother Mrs. Irvin Sullivan said Vicky is "always throwing things out the window."

Taylor Probing Graft at Exhibit

Looks Over Oak Park Tool Show Site Where Unions Are Accused

A first-hand look was taken this morning by Prosecutor George F. Taylor into possible graft and extortion charges at the huge machine tool show closing today in Oak Park.

His chief investigator, Anthony F. Stiel, got nowhere yesterday. Taylor today visited the site of the show, the Detroit Artillery Armory on Eight Mile road, to talk with executive director Harry E. Conrad. Stiel went along. Members of the Oak Park police also were invited.

Taylor yesterday suddenly found his office plunged into an investigation when some exhibitors told of alleged payoffs to union officials before their booths were made ready. Stiel was immediately dispatched to the scene. He found the 18 exhibitors he quizzed "reluctant to talk."

Taylor said Stiel found the exhibitors "frightened to death" to reveal anything.

'FEARED REPRISALS'

He said some of them told Stiel the unions might not move their machinery out of the show if they talked.

The show is sponsored by the American Society of Tool & Manufacturing Engineers. Workers at the show are members of carpenters', electricians' and plumbers' locals.

Taylor said he may call for a grand jury if he finds his own investigation is being hampered by intimidation of the 500 exhibitors at the show.

Conrad, who disclosed the reported payoffs, said the troubles could put a damper on other scheduled shows in Detroit.

Union jurisdictional disputes, picketing, walkouts and slowdowns have hampered the show since the exhibitors started setting up displays two weeks ago.

After he was criticized for not attending the opening, Detroit Mayor Louis Miriani suggested that the trouble—which he blamed on the "terrible incompetence" of the show officials—could be avoided in the future with one general contractor setting up exhibits. He would win the job on a bid basis.

Parking Free for 3-Day Sale

Free parking in the municipal lots is a special feature of the annual Dowtown Spring Value Days sale, which began today and will continue through Saturday.

★ ★ ★

For the second time in a month, the Downtown Merchants Assn. has prepaid the city for use of the lots, assuring free parking facilities all day long for all shoppers who need them.

★ ★ ★

The outstanding success merchants had with the free parking during Downtown Dollar Days in March convinced merchants of its popularity with shoppers, said George Richman, association president.

During the sale, retailers will be featuring unusually favorable values, he said.

★ ★ ★

As an extra attraction, Oakland County farmers have been invited to exhibit spring plants and flowers in sidewalk and curbstone displays.

'Shoebox Camera' Idea Gives Navy Sun Picture

WASHINGTON (AP)—Using schoolboy "shoebox camera" techniques in a space rocket, the Navy has obtained the first picture of the sun by its own invisible X-ray light.

Dr. Herbert Friedman of the Naval Research Laboratory reported the development today in a paper prepared for the annual meeting of the Academy of Sciences.

X-rays from the sun help at times to bedevil radio and other communications on the earth. And the new experiment conceivably will help in the effort to combat them, the report indicated.

Friedman said the unique photo of the sun was taken last week from a rocket soaring 130 miles above New Mexico. The experiment used a camera based on the pinhole method familiar to a lot of do-it-yourself amateur photographers.

This is a method in which a pinhole is poked into one end of a shoebox to admit light, while a tiny square patch is cut in the other end of the box and covered with tissue paper to serve as a viewing piece. The image on the tissue paper appears inverted and its size is proportional to the length of the box. The finer the pinhole, the sharper the image.

In the Navy's rocket camera, Friedman said, the pinhole was only five thousandths of an inch in diameter and the camera was only six inches long. Thus, visible light was blocked but X-rays from the sun got through.

The photo shows the sun circled by a bright X-ray "halo" — and several intense spots of bright X-ray emission are distributed over the sun's disk.

Actually, the X-rays come directly from the great crown-shaped corona which constitutes the thin atmosphere of the sun and extends millions of miles into space from the sun itself.

Three Indicted in Alleged Plot to Shield Hoffa

Teamster Boss Asks Federal Court to Drop Fund Misuse Trial

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — A federal grand jury today indicted three persons for an alleged conspiracy to shield James R. Hoffa and other union leaders from a Senate investigation.

The indictment named Sally T. Hucks, former chief telephone operator at the Woodner Apartment Hotel in Washington where Hoffa maintains his headquarters; Joseph M. Williamson, an attorney of Urbane, Ill.; and Moss Herman a New York member of Hoffa's Teamsters Union.

Mrs. Hucks and an assistant, Violet A. Davis, were previously indicted in December on charges of altering and destroying records of telephone calls in and out of the Woodner suites occupied by Hoffa, James Cross, president of the Bakers Union, and their associates.

In another courtroom in Washington today Teamsters President Hoffa asked a federal court to cancel his civil trial for alleged misuse of Union funds.

Judge Joseph R. Jackson heard arguments on Hoffa's bid to avoid the proceeding which could lead to his ouster from office.

Hoffa suffered a setback yesterday when Jackson denied a request to postpone the hearing until other issues in the tangled case are decided by Federal Judge F. Dickinson Letts.

Letts has disqualified himself from conducting the Hoffa trial but intends to continue supervising the court-appointed monitors' efforts to reform the Union.

The monitors are seeking to remove Hoffa on the ground that he mishandled $500,000 of funds belonging to Detroit Teamsters' Local 299 to help launch a Florida real estate project.

Hoffa has denied doing anything improper. No criminal charges are involved.

Letts bowed out of that phase of the case yesterday after Hoffa filed an affidavit accusing him of bias. The judge said the law required him to step aside without passing on the allegation.'

The telephone records were alleged to have been tampered with while both the Hoffa and Cross unions were being investigated by the Senate Labor - Management Committee headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark).

Sentence 5 to Death for Paralyzing 10,000

RABAT, Morocco (AP)—Death sentences were handed out Wednesday night to five Moroccan merchants for selling adulterated cooking oil that paralyzed 10,832 persons.

They used jet flushing oil bought at a U.S. Air Force surplus sale and mixed it with peanut and olive cooking oil to gain bigger profits.

The Air Force said the oil it sold was clearly marked engine oil on all cans.

Three other defendants were sentenced to life imprisonment as accomplices of the five condemned. Eleven others were acquitted.

Suicide of Aide's Family Shocks Ex-Chief, Nation

Syngman Rides Away as Early Rioters Call Him 'Patriot'

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Syngman Rhee rode off into retirement today, cheered by the young Korean rebels whose violence drove him from the presidency, but saddened by the suicide of his protege Lee Ki-poong.

Tragedy was etched on every line of 85-year-old Rhee's craggy countenance as he rode through weeping, cheering thousands, from the presidential mansion to his own home.

His protege, close friend and vice president-elect, Lee Ki-Poong, was dead along with his family in a suicide pact of Oriental-style atonement for uprisings which cost at least 150 lives.

★ ★ ★

It was Lee's landslide election March 15 as vice president, in balloting marked by police coercion, which contributed the spark for the two weeks of rioting.

Three army jeeps, sirens screaming, preceded Rhee's limousine through the gate of the presidential mansion. His Austrian-born wife sat by his side.

CROWD APPLAUDS

A wave of applause swept through the waiting crowd for the man who founded the republic and, only a decade ago, showed lion-hearted courage in rallying the nation to defense against Communist invasion.

Rhee peered sternly ahead of him, raising his right hand in acknowledgement of the cheers. The motorcade rolled into the plaza in front of the capitol, and 2,000 Koreans surged into the street.

Women wept. Men cheered and clapped.

"He's a patriot now," said a student who had rioted against him. And in the crowd were placards wishing Rhee long life.

The new men taking over the reins of government provisionally in advance of new elections went forward with their cleanup plans. Acting President Huh Chung

Korean-Style Riots Spill Blood, Kill 4 in Turkey

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—Four persons were reported killed today as thousands of rioting students in Korean-type demonstrations demanded the resignation of Premier Adnan Menderes.

The students broke through police lines around the University of Istanbul and surged through the city shouting for Menderes' resignation.

The demonstrations were sparked when the Menders government ordered a three-month ban on all political activities.

About 5,000 students rushed through police cordons around the university and headed for the center of the city. Forty students and police were injured in fierce fights.

Witnesses said they had seen three students and one policeman killed in the crush in front of the university. Police said they could not confirm these reports.

In view of the developing situation, Menderes earlier had called off a flight to Iran to attend a meeting of the Central Treaty Organization.

LAUD KOREA

About 800 refused to go to classes at the university. They marched down the streets singing the nation's independence anthem and shouting slogans praising Korean youth who brought down the government of Syngman Rhee this week.

Police reinforcements fired shots into the air. Several policemen were injured by stones. Police herded the students into the university grounds, where they continued singing.

The head of the university, Sidik Sami Omar, attempted to bar police from the grounds. He was hurt slightly, then taken to police headquarters.

Recent political developments in Turkey and South Korea display some parallels. Both lie on the edge of the Communist world, and both have developed fierce anti-Communist policies under pressure from the Reds. The governments in both countries also have become increasingly authoritarian in recent years. The Turkish opposition charges it is being hindered in election campaigning here.

Probers Told of 'Advice' Fee

3 Sure Clark Got Payola

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three House members said today they have little or no doubt that Dick Clark is involved in payola.

★ ★ ★

Clark, a network TV disc jockey says he has not taken undercover payments or favors for promoting records.

A witness testified Wednesday that Clark had received $31,575 for advising a record firm on what tunes would sell well.

He also said Clark was allowed to buy a one-fourth interest in a Philadelphia record firm for $125 —an interest he said Clark sold last year for about $15,000.

'METHODS DIFFERENT'

Rep. John E. Moss (D-Fla), a member of the House subcommittee which is looking into broadcasting practices, said today "it appears Clark took a very profitable form of payola.

"His methods were different but he appears to have explored every possible avenue for cashing in.

"He has meticulously put together a vehicle for avoiding the appearance of payola without losing any of the benefits."

The hearing continues today with closed-door testimony from two witnesses.

Clark, a favorite of many teenagers, is due to appear Friday before the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee.

But his name has come up often during two days of reopened hearings on undercover influences that may control the kind of music heard on the nation's airwaves.

Reps. John B. Bennett (R-Mich) and Peter F. Mack (D-Ill) agreed largely with Moss' comment to a newsman.

"I think it is pretty convincing that Clark was involved in payola the same as all the other disc jockeys but on a much larger scale," Bennett said.

"The only question now is determining the degree," Mack said.

The two witnesses to be heard in private today were all the subcommittee had on its agenda. Each had asked for a chance to appear behind closed doors, contending their testimony conceivably could be incriminating or defamatory.

★ ★ ★

The two were Harry Chipetz of Chips, a record-distributing company in which Clark once held an interest, and Bernie Loewe, a song writer, publisher and record manufacturer.

Hon. Young Daughter of Hirohito a DJ!

TOKYO (AP) — Emperor Hirohito's youngest daughter has gotten herself a job as a disc jockey.

"Unthinkable! Preposterous!" gasped die-hard traditionalists.

"Splendid! Wonderful!" exclaimed members of the younger set to whom fun-loving ex-Princess Suga, 21, is a heroine and symbol of the new Japan.

Never in the long, proud history of the Chrysanthemum Throne has a member of the immediate imperial family been known to take a salaried job among the masses.

The vivacious girl, who last month became Mrs. Takako Shimazu, will appear daily except Sunday on a 10-minute program of recordings called "Princess Time" put on by a local outlet of the Nippon Broadcasting Co.

Dedicated today, the two-story structure houses 10 classrooms, 3 seminar rooms, 10 faculty offices, an auditorium, a reading lounge and a conference room.

Transportation Commission?

Mayor's Group Will Recommend City Set Up Such a Unit

A public transportation commission with legal powers to bolster a new Pontiac bus company will be recommended next week to the City Commission, it was disclosed yesterday by Floyd P. Miles, chairman of the mayor's transportation committee.

The big step is part of a four-phase program which the committee has insisted on as "fundamental" if any new company is to succeed in Pontiac, said Miles.

The commission envisioned by the committee would have legal authority and powers delegated to it through ordinance, said Miles.

"The extent of the powers is something that the city will have to decide on.

"But the city must take more interest — active interest — in its transportation problems than it has in the past.

"We must be persuaded that the city is now vitally concerned with transportation. This would be especially so if a lease-agreement were necessary to get some new company to operate in Pontiac."

Miles went on to list the three other fundamentals as follows:

1. Any new bus company must be operated with initiative, aggressiveness and vision, by operators who believe in public transportation and will devote themselves to promoting bus rides.

2. The drivers themselves must be salesmen, even as store clerks must be salesminded in order to keep steady trade.

3. Businessmen, to whom bus-riding shoppers are of big importance, plus the public in general must also take an interest in promoting the buses.

"The businessmen's interest in buses is obvious," commented Miles. "But in the long run, buses are everybody's business. They are an important public service and affect everyone in some way, directly or indirectly."

Miles said the recommendation, approved by the 14-member citizen's committee, will be introduced to the commission at its meeting Monday night.

"Our committee is just a temporary one. The city needs a permanent commission actively overseeing public transportation in Pontiac," he said.

To Explain Tax Hike

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools, will attend the Central Elementary School PTA Fair, "Family Funorama," tomorrow night to speak to parents about the Board of Education's proposal for a 2.8 mill increase in the voted tax rate.

Con-Con Boosters to Ring Doorbells

Dissatisfied with the reception they've received on petitions calling for a constitutional convention referendum, local members of the League of Women Voters and Junior Chamber of Commerce will join in a statewide "blitz" next week to get more signatures.

A two - hour door-to-door campaign will be staged in the Pontiac area next Wednesday night between 7 and 9 p.m.

So far not many petitions have been circulated in the area. The tempo will pick up next week as many chapters of the two state organizations go after the needed 300,000 signatures to put the question on the November ballots.

"We definitely aren't getting the petition signatures we need," said Mrs. Floyd Smith, one of four general chairmen from the League who will head the local "blitz."

Before they start their doorbell ringing campaign, Jaycee and League volunteers will gather at the Pontiac Central High School to organize and hear a pep talk by Jack Rackleyeft, public relations director for the Michigan Jaycees.

"This will not be a one-shot affair," Mrs. Smith emphasized. The May 4 drive will be only a kickoff, she said, to an intensified push to get the signatures before a June deadline.

She could give no estimate how many signatures the local chapters have received to date.

Signatures around the state would call for an amendment on the fall ballots placing the call for a convention on the April 1961 ballots. It will also change the majority needed to call a convention and change the basis of selecting delegates to the so-called compromise plan of one each for every House seat and one for each Senate seat.

Ewart Defends Municipal Lots

Calls Parking Facilities Legal, for Public Good, Despite Suit by Firm

"I have no doubt the city has plenty of legal authority behind its parking lot plans," said City Attorney William A. Ewart in response to a suit aimed at blocking further expansion of the municipal lot system.

"Parking lots are of a public interest and the city has been acting for the benefit of the public in promoting them."

The suit, filed in Circuit Court yesterday on behalf of officials of the Pontiac Outdoor Parking Co., charged the city with illegally using general fund money and public assets to expand the system.

Dean G. Beier, attorney in the suit, said he probably would ask the court to schedule a hearing on his request for a temporary injunction a week from Monday.

WOULD BLOCK METERS

The initial effect of any injunction would be to prevent the city from installing meters on the site of the old Perry street police headquarters. There are plans to use the cleared site temporarily as a parking lot.

★ ★ ★

Beier said he would not ask for a hearing until Willman and Ewart have had some time to study the suit.

Because of the complex history of the parking lot system, intensive legal preparation and research will be necessary, said Ewart.

County to Protest Equalization Hike

Lansing May 23 to hear any protests from county Boards of Supervisors on action of the State Board of Equalization.

The 13 per cent figure was not definite, but is being studied by the Tax Commission, Edward W. Kane, commission secretary, said.

The commission is expected to make its final recommendation May 9.

What taxpayers will pay this December depends directly on the final state equalized valuation, Grabendike pointed out. Should the state alter his department valuations, corresponding changes would have to be made in the townships and cities.

Twenty-two of the townships showed increases in equalized valuations over last year's, while three (Brandon, Southfield and Springfield) showed decreases.

In the cities, there were 16 with increases and six with decreases. Pontiac's valuations, for example, climbed from $319,580,931 to $332,340,476.

The cities make up $1,286,835,590 of the county total. Townships represent $806,466,711.

This means, in effect, that cities will pay 68 per cent of the county's taxes.

DEATHS ANNOUNCED

The death of Lee and his family was announced by the army command, which still is in charge of maintaining order in Seoul and other major cities under martial law.

The announcement said the 64-year-old vice president-elect, his wife, Maria Park Lee, 52; and their sons, 2nd Lt. Lee Kang-suk, 22, and Lee Kang-uk, 19, committed suicide at the home of a member of the president's secretarial staff, a friend of Mrs. Lee.

The announcement gave no details, but it was understood that the elder son — whom Rhee and his childless wife had adopted — shot his parents and his brother and then turned the gun on himself.

The bodies were moved to the Metropolitan Army Hospital, where barbed wire barricades were put up, apparently in fear that the crowds which sacked Lee's home Tuesday would try to wreak vengeance on the bodies. But no such attempt was made.

Lee and his family had been in hiding since the rioting resumed in Seoul Monday night.

The American-educated Lee had lived his political life in the shadow of Rhee, the man he idolized. He served as the aged leader's closest aide, friend, hatchet man, and was his choice to succeed him in the presidency.

Junior League's $5,000 Boosts Baldwin Library

BIRMINGHAM—The fund for furnishing the remodeled Baldwin Public Library received a substantial boost this week with a gift of a $5,000 check from the Birmingham Junior League.

The check was presented to Charles Kass, Library Board vice president, by Mrs. Robert Sellers, second vice president of the League.

"This generous check will mean a great deal to us in our attempt to bring the original building into line with the new addition, both from the standpoint of equipment and beauty," Kass said in accepting the check.

Pointing out that some of the present furniture had been repaired countless times, Kass said part of the gift would be used to replace furniture no longer useable.

RAISED AT RESALE SHOP

The Junior League raised the funds to donate to the library by means of the organization's Bargain Box Resale Shop, 465 S. Woodward Ave.

The $5,000 check was the second major gift received by the library in the last two weeks.

The YMCA, 400 E. Lincoln Rd., has begun enrolling children 6 and 7 years of age for its Little Giants summer day camp program.

Children who are enrolled in Group A will attend outdoor sessions on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for a two-week period.

Group B children will attend on Tuesdays and Thursdays for three weeks.

The children will be taken to Saltwater Park, Bloomer State Park and Kensington Park. The season begins June 20 and will continue through Aug. 19.

College student counselors will supervise the children's activities, which include handicrafts, boating, swimming, group games and singing.

Will Push Medical Aid for Aged

Labor's support of the Forand bill, designed to provide medical aid for the aged, will be felt in Pontiac Friday and Saturday when local union members, including some retirees, conduct a leaflet distribution campaign in the city's shopping centers.

Retirees will display placards saying "Cast Me Not Off."

Otis Lawrence, UAW Region 1 representative assigned to head the Pontiac UAW Retired Workers Committee said there are 8,000 persons over 65 in this area.

"What do they do when they get sick?" Lawrence asked. "Do they go on charity, sponge off their children or just die of neglect?"

He explained that the Forand bill would change the Social Security Act to include hospital-surgical-nursing home care for those already on social security.

It would provide payment for 60 days of hospital care, for another 60 days of nursing home care and for medical service and surgery for those who have to exist on social security, according to Lawrence.

The cost, he said, would be only one quarter of one per cent more in social security taxes to both the employe and the employer.

"This wouldn't be supporting 'political' medicine," said Lawrence. "The doctor would get paid and the hospital would get paid by the money put into the social security fund. It is like a private insurance policy.

"The doctor wouldn't have to lower his fees or give up fees to help the aged. Hospitals wouldn't lose money treating the aged. Public welfare agencies wouldn't have to spend the $300 million a year they now spend on taking care of the old and sick.

"Money that would come in if the Forand bill were passed would take care of most of it. We'll be out Friday and Saturday to help it along."

Straley's Fate in Court Again

Judge Ziem Will Hear Arguments Against City Amendment Injunction

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley's position again hung in the balance in Circuit Court today as city officials fought off a suit by two pro-Straley city commissioners.

Judge Frederick C. Ziem this afternoon was to hear arguments on why an injunction shouldn't be issued to stop the city from certifying two city charter amendments voted by the electorate.

The amendments, one in particular, could lead directly to Straley's ouster.

Commissioners Milton R. Henry and Robert A. Landry claim in their lawsuit that voters could not make a clearcut decision when they voted on the amendments April 18 because there was more than one change involved.

This, the two plaintiffs allege, was illegal under a 1939 provision in the state's Home Rule Act.

City Attorney William A. Ewart will rely on the fact that the two amendments were approved as written before the vote by the state attorney general.

He also is expected to allege in today's hearing that Henry and Landry had "capricious and political" aims behind their suit.

Ewart said this morning that if Judge Ziem issues the permanent restraining order blocking certification of the vote to the county clerk and secretary of state the amendments would be "pretty much dead."

The city has 30 days after the vote to certify their passage to Lansing. Ewart wouldn't speculate on what legal recourse might be left should the injunction be issued.

Race Issue May Alienate North, South Methodists

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A racially partitioned church structure, which enabled Northern and Southern Methodists to unite 2 years ago, today loomed as a possible wedge that could drive them apart again.

This was the crucial issue faced by the nation's largest Protestant denomination, as the quadrennial Methodist General Conference went into its first session on the matter.

GREAT EFFECT

On the eve of the test, bishops of the church said Wednesday night that the outcome will have a greater effect than any other conference decision on the present and future strength of Methodism "in America and beyond."

Up for consideration was a complex, explosive report on racial policy, drawn up by a 70-member commission in a four-year, $200,000 study that involved public hearings in 24 cities across the country.

It recommends continuance of a separate administrative jurisdiction for Negroes, arguing that this gives them the strongest voice in top echelons of the church. But the system is keenly opposed by some Northerners as a "symbol of segregation."

SOUTH ALSO ANGRY

On the other hand, the report also proposed linking jurisdictional affairs, both white and Negro, more closely with the overall church government. This feature is strongly protested by some Southerners as an invasion of regional autonomy.

The 74 bishops, in their keynote episcopal address, commended the "general method and spirit" of the report, and said no course "will be acceptable that disregards the rights of any major segment of the church."

But they also reminded the 800 voting delegates of the church's official stand against any "racial discrimination or enforced segregation."

"Our problem is not a new pronouncement but to bring our actions into line with our professions," they told the church's supreme governing body.

General Motors Wins Industrial Health Award

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — The Industrial Medical Assn. last night gave General Motors its health achievement in industry award for 1960 — the highest management award given by the association.

The health achievement award is given annually to the management of industrial concerns for the development of outstanding occupational health programs.

The award was presented to Louis G. Seaton, vice president of General Motors in charge of personnel staff, at the annual banquet of the Industrial Medical Assn., in session here.

In making the presentation to General Motors, Dr. Richard A. Sutter, St. Louis, chairman of the award committee, cited GM top management "for its enlightened attitude toward occupational health" and for its stated policy of "dealing with employes as individuals, thinking of them as individuals, and being concerned with their dignity as individuals."

De Gaulle Links France and U.S.

Says in San Francisco That Both Lands Want All Peoples to Be Free

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—France and the United States stand together in wanting all peoples to determine their own destiny, Gen. Charles de Gaulle declared Wednesday night.

This goal of the common ideals of the two nations amounts to political realism in the 'modern world, said the visiting president of France in his address to a glittering banquet audience of 4,000 in civic auditorium.

De Gaulle winds up his first journey to California today with a tour of a major electronics laboratory, the new Palo Alto Hospital and Stanford Medical Center in Palo Alto, then departs by jet transport for New Orleans.

SHOWS EMOTION

De Gaulle, tall and austere leader of France in crisis, showed frank emotion. He stood two hours in the parade's slow progress through crowds that surged closely around his open car in the Montgomery St. financial district.

★ ★ ★

Police Chief Tom Cahill estimated the sidewalk throngs along the route at 250,000. He said it was the greatest crowd he had seen in San Francisco in his 30-year career.

Fate of Annual Meeting May Be Up to Voters

Open House Set at Lapeer Home

To Mark Mental Health Week With Five Special Days May 2-6

LAPEER — The Lapeer State Home and Training School will mark Mental Health Week, May 2 through May 6, with daily open houses to acquaint public officials, doctors and school personnel with its work.

★ ★ ★

The Michigan Society for Mental Health program to be conducted in all state hospitals during the week is called "Operation Friendship."

It is authorized by the Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health.

Legislators, county and municipal officers and newspaper reporters will visit the facilities on "Public Officials and Press Day," Monday.

On "Special Educators Day," Tuesday, teachers and supervisors of special education will tour the buildings and grounds.

Wednesday is set aside as "Professional Workers Day" with doctors, psychologists and social workers to be guests.

The institution will be open to the public Thursday and Friday. The staff is particularly anxious to have adults look and get acquainted on these days.

★ ★ ★

The tours will start at 1 p.m. at the Employes Building and continue to 3 p.m., according to Dr. Ellen Smith, acting superintendent.

To Begin Cleanup in Keego

★ ★ ★

Mayor Samuel L. Whitmore said "In asking the cooperation of all citizens, I remind them that this is the time to take stock of our community appearance."

In his proclamation, he continued, "If everyone, homemaker, retailer, industrialist and government, puts forth an all-out effort our community will retain and increase its reputation as a progressive city."

Deputy Fire Marshal John Sellman said that fire prevention is a vital part of the week.

'NOT MERE' SLOGAN'

"Clean-Up is not just a slogan. It's a vital way to prevent fire from threatening your home and loved ones."

He said the Fire Prevention Bureau urges all residents to check their homes for fire hazards.

Included in the inspection should be a check of the furnace, and heating and wiring systems.

Sellman also said: that old clothes, furniture and newspapers should be removed from the attic, basement and garage.

That periodic home fire drills should be held with instructions on what to do should fire start from an uncontrollable cause.

"The one sure way to successfully fight a fire is before it starts," Sellman said.

ORTONVILLE — The Brandon Grange will hold a rummage sale at 10 a.m. Friday and Saturday in the grange hall.

MRS. GILBERT T. BENTLEY

Having recently graduated from the McCauley School of Nursing at St. Joseph's Hospital, Pontiac, Mrs. Gilbert T. (Margery) Bentley is now working at William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak. Her late husband had been employed at the Ferry-Morse Seed Farm in Avon Township for 35 years and was superintendent of the farm in 1957-58. Mrs. Bentley is now residing in Royal Oak.

Banished Signs Still Line Right of Way

WALLED LAKE — With the deadline to remove business signs from the county right of way only two days off, more than half the signs in violation still are standing, according to Richard Kincaid of the County Road Commission.

"The county still feels the signs must be removed or moved back," Kincaid said. "However we expect to get the cooperation of the merchants by then."

He said six small signs have been taken down or removed from the county right-of-way along Maple road, but there are many larger signs still remaining.

In February, 17 merchants who were in violation received notices to remove the signs in a week.

However, the businessmen protested the short notice and the date was set for April 29 by the county.

Farm Work Out for Children in School Hours

Farmers who are hiring workers for spring planting and harvesting were reminded today by the U.S. Department of Labor that federal law prohibits children under 16 from working on farms during school hours.

"The place for children is in the classroom and not in the fields," said Regional Director William S. Singley of the Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions, the agency which enforces the federal child-labor law.

Singley added that children of any age may do farm work before or after school hours, on weekends, or on holidays. He stated, too, that farm children working exclusively for their parents or guardians are exempt from the federal child-labor law.

"I also want to point out that the child-labor provisions apply equally to local children and to migrants," Singley said. "However, migrant children under 16 may be employed in the spring if the school they last attended is closed for the summer, even though schools may still be open in the area where they now work."

SS. Cyril, Methodius Diamond Jubilee Event

Seminary Sets Musical Pagent

By JIM LONG

ORCHARD LAKE — A musical pageant depicting the 75-year history of SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, St. Mary's College, and St. Mary's High School will be presented Sunday to the public at 7:30 p.m. in the campus auditorium.

More than 100 students from the Catholic institution will appear in the free two-hour production.

The pagent is one of the last events to be given at the institution this year in celebrating its 75th anniversary. The Jubilee year ends July 15.

Founded in 1885, the Orchard Lake school has prepared more than 2,000 priests to serve in Polish-speaking parishes throughout the country.

The Diamond Jubilee pageant begins with a tribute to the Rev. Joseph Dabrowski, founder and first rector of the seminary.

In words and music it tells of his decision to establish a seminary to provide immigrants with Polish speaking priests in America. As the scene unfolds, the extent of the seminary alumni is revealed.

Scene two reveals the move by the Rev. Witold Buhaczkowski to transfer the seminary from Detroit to Orchard Lake in 1909.

A requiem scene pays tribute to the six rectors who have guided the institution.

The final scene takes place on the campus with a synopsis of a student's life and activities, from the time he enrolls until he departs for duties in the priesthood.

The pageant ends with the chorus singing "Serdeczna Matko" ("Mother Most Dear"). It is a tribute the school's many friends and benefactors.

Coordinator and playwright of the pageant is the Rev. Zdzislaus Peszkowski. Production manager and music director is the Rev. Henry Waraksa.

The Rev. John Gabalski, director of the dramatic portions of the play, will be assisted by the Rev. Walter Sebrowski and the Rev. Casimir Skowronski, who will serve as English and Polish commentators, respectively.

The musical background will be provided by the school's three choral organizations. Based on traditional hymns, the music has been arranged especially for the pageant by Fr. Waraksa.

On Saturday the pageant will be staged for the benefit of Detroit Polish Parochial Schools.

REHEARSE REQUIEM SCENE — The Rev. Zdzislaus Peszkowski, background, gives direction to three members of the cast performing Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in a pageant depicting the 75 year history of SS. Cyril and Methodius Seminary, St. Mary's College and St. Mary's High School in Orchard Lake. The play will be held in the campus auditorium. Admission is free. Fr. Zdzislaus authored the Diamond jubilee production. The requiem scene pays tribute to six late rectors at the institution. Others in the picture, from left to right, are seminarians Thomas Skotek, Norbert Kendzierski and E. Bruno Waryck.

Hope to Prevent Selling

Prod PTA Congress Into Battle on Smut

Prompted by the Walled Lake and Berkley PTA councils, the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers has resolved to try to stop the sale of "obscene" literature before it arrives on corner store racks.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Barbara Scully, president of the Walled Lake PTA, has proposed that PTA groups throughout the state encourage public officials in efforts to prevent the distribution of obscene literature as well as to back their efforts in prosecuting offenders.

Mrs. Margaret M. Shea, president of the Berkley PTA, has recommended that the PTA cooperate with other civic groups in an educational campaign to "raise standards" of books and magazines sold in their community.

The Michigan PTA Congress has also adopted resolutions favoring a constitutional convention and seeking state reforms designed to improve school finance.

The group is demanding that the Legislature restore state aid to adult recreation programs in public schools on a year-to-year basis.

In another resolution, the Congress has opposed action by county tax allocation boards which would reduce the school's share of county taxes after voters have approved tax rate increases for school financing.

It also is urging that school districts be organized on a more equitable basis, that they accept federal aid "with no strings attached," that periodic fire and safety inspections be conducted in schools, the establishment and maintenance of a strong system of community colleges, additional courses in home and family living, and renewed efforts to uphold the American way of life.

Young Democrats to Convene Friday

DETROIT (AP)—The Young Democrats will hold their state convention here with Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-NJ) the main speaker Friday night.

Thompson will share the platform with Sens. Pat McNamara and Philip Hart (D-Mich.).

Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson, Secretary of State James M. Hare and Edward Connor, Detroit city councilman, will appear at a Saturday luncheon.

CLIFFORD — A chicken supper will be served to the public at the Odd Fellows Hall here Saturday starting at 5:30 p.m.

Slate Puppet Show at Church Saturday

ROCHESTER — A puppet show will be presented at 3 p.m. Saturday at St. Paul's Methodist Church by the Rochester Cooperative Nursery School to raise funds for outdoor play equipment.

Two stories will be told by the puppets guided by Miss Marilyn Mazzucchi, auditorium teacher at Burt Elementary School, Detroit.

"The Hunting" is the story of witches and a beautiful princess. The tale of "The Bucket" revolves around two children, a greedy girl favored by her mother and a good daughter. The story ends happily when the mother learns she is wrong in favoring the greedy child.

Miss Mazzucchi studied puppetry with Lettie Connell of California, whose shows are famous throughout the country, and with Gil Oden of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Lawrence Shepard, 229 Rochdale Dr., or any of the Nursery School mothers.

Area Paper Co. Is Expanding

Begin Construction of $100,000 Addition in Rochester

ROCHESTER — The Rochester Paper Co. has begun construction of a $100,000 addition to its present plant on Mill street to meet the needs of increased business, Paul H. Travis, company president, announced today.

The two-story addition will be 60 by 200 feet in size and of cement block construction. It is being built on the south side of the existing building.

According to Travis, the expansion is needed to provide more space for company operations because of the growing volume of business in recent years.

The addition will be used for converting paper and paper board, and when it is completed more employes will be added to the company's present 100-man payroll, the company president said.

J. A. Fredman Inc., Pontiac, is the contractor. Plans also are being made to add new machinery when the addition is finished about Aug. 1.

The Rochester company is the oldest paper mill in Michigan. It was built as a flour mill in 1825, then converted into a paper mill in 1867.

Hausers Honeymooning Along Lake Michigan

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Donald N. Hauser will reside at Plymouth following their honeymoon trip along Lake Michigan.

The bride is the former Bonnie Gale Wooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. Wooley of 716 Commercial St. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Hauser of Edon, Ohio.

For her wedding in St. William Catholic Church at Walled Lake the bride chose a ballerina-length gown of net over satin with lace inserts and a valencia lace top.

The sweetheart neckline was trimmed with pearls and sequins to match her tiara securing a shoulder-length veil. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis on her prayer book.

Mrs. Thomas Tusan of South Hadley, Mass., formerly of Commerce, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lorene Payton of Ferndale, formerly of Walled Lake, and the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald Wooley of Walled Lake.

★ ★ ★

Duties as best man were performed by Leon Radabaugh of Blakeslee, Ohio. The bride's brother, Donald, and Richard Siebenalee of Edon, Ohio, seated the guests.

A reception was held in the Dublin Community Center.

Pile Biting Statistics

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI)—Bexar County officials are about ready to give up on the old theory that a dog's bark is worse than his bite. They report that 2,754 San Antonians were bitten by dogs in 1959, and that 21,404 persons were bitten in the last 10 years.

Alabama was settled by the French in 1702.

Avon Chloriding to Go on Ballot

Township Board Waits for Recommendations of Supervisors in County

By LEE WINBORN

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Avon Township Board is considering putting the question of abolishing annual township meetings on the Aug. 2 ballot.

Board members last night took action, however, on another question to be voted on in the primary election — that of levying one-half mill for chloriding township roads.

Before slating a vote on the abolishment of the annual meeting, township officials decided to review the recommendations of other Oakland County township supervisors.

Like them, Avon Township officers are concerned with the constitutionality of the annual session.

Avon officials agree that the small groups who attend the annual meetings are not truly representative of the whole population and that the meetings temporarily take away the powers of the vested township officials.

As an example of verification required of action taken by persons who attended the annual meeting in Avon, April 2, township attorney Rex Bebout recommended that the one-half mill tax levy approved by the group for chloriding township roads be put on the Aug. 2 ballot.

The only other means of legally handling the proposed tax levy is to get 65 per cent of the property owners to sign petitions and then hold a public hearing.

PRESENT PETITIONS

Petitions to that affect were presented last night, but township officials decided nevertheless to put the question on the ballot.

The resolution, as adopted, favors putting the question of levying a one-half mill tax on assessed valuation as equalized for chloriding township gravel roads, outside the village of Rochester, for a period of five years on the primary election ballot.

In anticipation of voter approval of the proposition, the Township Board voted to instruct the Oakland County Road Commission to chloride all gravel roads in Avon, outside the village, this year at the expense of the township.

Another request to be sent to the road commission is that the commissioners include in their 1961 budget funds to build a new bridge over the Clinton River at Avon and Livernois roads.

A number of residents of Brooklands subdivision were present to urge action on road improvement and alleviation of their drainage problems.

Supervisor Cyril E. Miller said, "We're going to work toward blacktopping roads with matching funds with the county." He made no promises as to dates the work could begin or how long the total project would take, but he reaffirmed the Board's desire to see that steps are taken in that direction as soon as possible.

On the matter of drainage in Brooklands subdivision, the Board authorized the establishment of a special drainage district and a drainage commission to work with the county drain commision on the problem.

A survey of drainage operations will be conducted in the next 30 to 45 days. The Township action stems from petitions presented by Brooklands residents seeking relief from flooding situations during spring thaws and rainy seasons.

The Board will advertise for bids on washing then painting the township hall to be opened at the next regular meeting May 11.

In other action, Clifford Holforty, of 2783 Hillendale Rd., was named to fill the vacancy on the Planning Advisory Commission created by the recent resignation of Dick Albyn.

Rev. Gerken Accepts Post in Fort Wayne

ROCHESTER — The Rev. Walter C. Gerken, pastor of St. John Lutheran Church, has accepted a call to Fort Wayne, Ind., to be assistant executive director of the Lutheran Deaconess Assn.

The Rev. Gerken will preach his farewell sermon in Rochester June 12. He has been pastor of St. John's for nearly 14 years.

Rev. Gerken has seen his church membership grow from 120 to 954 persons. Under his guidance the church, first school building and the recent school addition have been built.

The pastor is married and has five children, including four sons who are studying for the ministry, and a daughter, who married a Detroit minister recently.

The Gerkens live at 1003 W. University Dr.

You Can Smile, Gals, but Don't Get Active

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — It is all right to smile, the Sweetheart Election Commission at the University of Texas said, but active campaigning is taboo.

The commission warned candidates that no campaigning "other than speaking to personal friends will be allowed regardless of the distance from the polls."

But De Gaulle Gets Farm Tour

Ike Waits to 'Show' His Prize Cattle

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Probably no foreign visitor to President Eisenhower's farm ever got such an extensive tour of the establishment as the Chief Executive gave French President Charles de Gaulle last Sunday.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle was particularly interested in the display of show ribbons for prize cattle hung in two special cases at the entrance of one of Eisenhower's barns.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower tried to explain the various awards — blue for first prize, etc. — but it was impossible in the short time to explain the fairly complicated nature of the President's farming operation.

None of the ribbons displayed in the barn were won by Eisenhower's Black Angus cattle, a fact which must have escaped the French President because he wished Eisenhower "many more victories."

The President, however, does not permit his fine cattle to be shown competitively because he feels it might work a disadvantage to other cattle raisers.

In other words, the President feels it might produce some unfair pressure on cattle show judges to know they were looking at the entry of the President of the United States.

In general terms, here is the way the farm is run:

HAS LEASE PLAN

There are 175 head of Angus cattle on the acreage owned by the President or held for him under land-lease and option arrangements. Of the total herd, the President owns about 60 animals. The rest are owned by George E. Allen, the President's golf playing friend, and Billy Byers, a well-known Texas cattleman.

The three men are not partners. The President provides the land and Allen and Byers, in return for use of the land, take care of the over-all management of the herd.

Arthur Nevins, a retired Army general, is supervisor of the farm for the President, and Robert Hartley, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Agriculture school, is in direct charge of the herd. Nevins handles the finances.

Allen and Byers show their cattle in competition at a number of county and state fairs in the Pennsylvania and Maryland area. Sometimes they enter the major cattle shows in Chicago and Kansas City.

60 Pct. of Merit Scholars Pick Science, Engineering

Notes 'Alarming' College Trend

NEW YORK (UPI)—An apparent 60 per cent of this year's brightest high school graduates are planning college majors in science, mathematics or engineering.

The high percentage, disclosed with the announcement of National Merit Scholarship Awards Wednesday, is already alarming some educators.

"I think the trend is seriously dangerous," said Dr. Alvin C. Eurich, executive director of the education division of the Ford Foundation and vice president of its fund for the advancement of education.

Eurich believes an affirmative national policy is necessary to right the scientific overbalance of the post-Sputnik era and assure that bright young Americans will be trained to run the store, further the arts and make the human decisions of government as well as to take off into space.

* * *

"Science is very important, but it certainly has to be balanced by other human values," Eurich said. "And very few personal or governmental problems are solved by scientific method."

No educator disputes the trend toward scientific specialization, but others view it as a less immediate danger.

Dr. John A. Krout, vice president and provost of Columbia University, himself an historian, said he was encouraged by "a very considerable interest in the humanities" increasingly displayed by students in scientific fields.

Krout said they apparently are aware that their work has larger implications for mankind and concerned with learning something of the social and political forces to which it relates.

* * *

Frederick H. Jackson, executive associate of the Carnegie Corp., which with the Ford Foundation provided initial funds for the National Merit Scholarship Corp., said he believed the overbalance toward science is partly a necessary catching-up after years of underemphasis.

He said he did not personally believe it has gone too far "but we must watch for danger signs and guard against being too oriented in that direction."

Eurich said one essential scientific field, medicine, is already suffering from the scientific boom. Medical schools are receiving fewer applications and from something less than the cream of the academic crop, he said, because might-have-been doctors are finding that other fields offer greater financial reward at an earlier age after shorter training.

* * *

He expressed concern, also, that the scientific overbalance might so weaken the teaching force in humanities and social studies as to become self-perpetuating.

The 60 per cent figure is taken from the expressed intentions of the about 1,000 National Merit scholars whose names were announced recently. Educators here believe they are representative of the nation's bright students generally.

Hawaiian Beauty Reigns in East Apple Country

WINCHESTER, Va. (AP) — A Hawaiian beauty today officially becomes the mythical monarch of this apple country in a ceremony that's a highlight of the 33rd Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival.

Here are some of the people who daily, help publish your favorite paper . . .

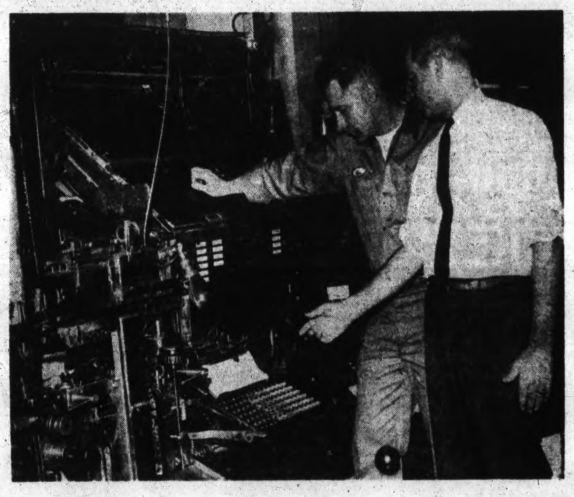
THE PONTIAC PRESS

(ABOVE) The Pressroom where the giant presses swallow paper at an amazing speed to produce your Pontiac Press in a few short hours. It takes men who are masters of their machine.

(BELOW) The Composing Room makes words into metal letters and assembles them into pages. This linotype machine makes the letters and men proved the skill.

(ABOVE) Here is the Stereotype Department were the pages of metal letters and engravings are pressed into fiber mats and then cast into curved metal plates which are attached to the presses. It is a precise job which requires real craftsmen.

(BELOW) The complex operation of a newspaper calls for constant care by a multi-talented group of people who make up our Maintenance Department. They are the mechanical physicians of our many and varied machinery.



These are the highly skilled men who do the actual printing of your daily newspaper. The men who operate and maintain our complex machinery. Men of the composing room, the stereotype department, the pressroom and the maintenance department.

After the editorial department has assembled the news and the advertising department has sold the ads the mechanical departments take these words and ideas and put them into pages, cast them into curved metal plates, put the plates on the mammoth presses and turn out over 60,800 copies of The Pontiac Press six days every week.

These men live in a state of immediacy. The news and the advertising are perishable goods and they must be rushed to you, the consumer. It is up to our mechanical departments to see that our many readers have their favorite newspaper every evening and they do an outstanding job.

Small Losses Drop Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market was generally lower in moderate trading early today.

Losses of most key stocks were small. There were a few gainers.

Despite record earnings for the first quarter, General Electric dropped about a point. Eastman Kodak slipped more than a point.

Bethlehem, which reports on first quarter results after the close, dropped a fraction along with most other leading steels.

Aircrafts were unchanged to higher as the Air Force released some funds for contracts. Boeing and United Aircraft were each ahead fractionally.

ITE Circuit Breaker retrieved a fraction of yesterday's 5¾-point loss. NAFI, yesterday's most active gainer, slipped a fraction on profit taking at the opening, then erased the loss.

Allied Paper Buys Up 3 Separate Companies

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Allied Paper Corp. of Kalamazoo has purchased the Egry Register Co. of Dayton, Ohio, the Stephen Greene Co. of Philadelphia and the American Register Co. of Boston.

The three units have a total annual sales volume of more than 10 million dollars. Allied sales in 1959 were about $38,700,000.

Grain Futures Tilt Toward Weakness

CHICAGO (AP) — The grain futures market tilted generally toward weakness today during the first several minutes of dealings on the Board of Trade.

* * *

May wheat, however, was slightly firm again and posted another high for the season by a small fraction. It appeared to have further support from export buyers after a sale of 3,373,000 bushels of hard wheat to Uruguay for May shipment.

The Department of Agriculture also cleared 2,413,000 bushels of corn for export on subsidy bids for four cents a bushel.

'Glue Swindle' Case Dropped

Alleged $100,000 Ruse of Oak Park Man Is Doubted by Justice

Charges resulting from an alleged $100,000 glue swindle against Sol C. Brodsky were dismissed yesterday by Oak Park Justice Burton C. Shifman.

* * *

Brodsky, 41, of 10000 Woodland Rd., Oak Park, was charged specifically with fraudulently obtaining $880 from Albert J. DeBusschere of Detroit.

Judge Shifman expressed "reasonable doubt in my mind as to Brodsky's guilt," and refused to bind the accused over for trial in Circuit Court.

Oak Park police said DeBusschere was one of 50 persons who paid Brodsky $2,400 to $10,000 for "exclusive" subdistributorships in Michigan for Liquid Iron, a glue product made by Chrysler Corp.'s Cycleweld Division at Trenton.

CLAIMED CONTRACT

Complainants said Brodsky told them he had an exclusive contract with Chrysler Corp. for Michigan and had posted a $150,000 performance bond.

Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor said Brodsky's contract was not exclusive and he had failed to post any bond.

The prosecutor's office has not yet decided whether to proceed with any other action against Brodsky.

Seamless Tube Pays

SOUTH LYON (AP) — Michigan Seamless Tube Co. declared a 25-cents-a-share quarterly dividend Wednesday. The dividend for the first quarter of 1959 was also 25 cents, but since then the stock has been split two for one.

Ohio was separated from Northwest territory in 1800.

And Nothing Much More

To Say 'Hi' at Summit

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American people are being prepared not to expect much more from the Paris summit meeting May 16 than a pleasant get-together between the West and the Soviet Union.

Is anything going to be solved there? Probably not.

President Eisenhower Wednesday and French President Charles de Gaulle last week played down the idea of solutions and played up the hope the summit would produce better relations with the Soviets.

A great deal of time, a number of meetings, and a lot of visiting back and forth by heads of state and their foreign ministers have gone into the preparations of the Western Allies for the Paris conference.

What they seem to lack is new ideas. What they seem to have is rigidity. If all that the statesmen and diplomats have said — in speeches, statements and communiques—could be wrapped into one tight bundle this would be it.

They are determined to stand solidly together in resisting Soviet demands; they haven't talked of making demands of their own.

* * *

At his news conference Wednesday Eisenhower was asked about his hopes for the summit session with De Gaulle, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

"I think the most we can hope for, at this time," he said, "is ease of tensions, some evidence that we are coming closer together — sufficiently so, that people have a right to feel a little bit more confident in the world in which they are living and its stability.

"Now, how this might come about I don't know, there is, of course, the subject of ceasing of tests, and with a controlled system for that, for developing some step in disarmament, and for greater contacts, particularly cultural contacts. I think that there are a number of ways in which this might begin. And that's about all you can say."

Drop Charges Against Dean

Action Follows on Heels of Resignation in Death of Woman Teacher

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Former Louisiana State University dean George H. Mickey was a free man today, but he was a teacher without a school.

Dist. Atty. J. St. Clair Favrot Wednesday withdrew a murder warrant that charged the 50-year-old scientist with the bludgeon slaying of Dr. Margaret Rosamond McMillan, a woman faculty member.

The district attorney's action came shortly after it was disclosed Mickey had voluntarily resigned from the LSU faculty.

University President Troy Middleton had relieved Mickey of his duties as dean after he was jailed. Later, the geneticist was demoted to a professorship but kept on the payroll.

Mickey, reached at his home where he has lived practically in seclusion since his release on $10,000 bond, declined to comment on his plans.

Mickey's attorney, Robert Kleinpeter, said he thought the withdrawal of the warrant was the fair thing for Favrot to do. He said the action, in effect, closes the case.

5 Area Students Win Scholarships to Michigan State

They are, from Pontiac Central High School, William R. Rotsel, 71 Franklin Blvd.; Sheila A. Goldberg, 166 Oneida St.; Ronald C. Joyner, 2105 Garland St.; and from Waterford Township High School, Julia Dowry, 3660 Brookdale St., and Catherine E. Kantarian, 7733 Locklin St.

Paul D. Bagwell, MSU director of scholarships, said winners were selected from students who recently competed for Alumni Distinguished scholarships and General Motors scholarships and whose scores were high enough to recommend them for the honors awards.

The Honors Scholarships cover the tuition fees for four years, or 12 terms, at MSU.

BANK ANNEX RISING — Steel framework for the Community National Bank annex on E. Lawrence street rises against the sky, putting the new, four-story building well on its way toward an Oct. 1 completion date. When finished, the annex will be connected with the bank proper (left) by an enclosed overpass. The new $500,000 facility will house the bank's loan operations and will be distinguished by an unusual glass and brick facing in front.

Kierdorf Eyed for Parole

Herman Kierdorf, who has recorded a "real fine" prison record, will be considered a second time for parole next month.

The elderly cigar-smoking former aide to Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa had no action taken on his "early" parole when he went before the parole board Jan. 18, Gerald L. Hansen, administrative assistant to the Jackson, Prison warden, said.

Hansen said the parole board gave no reason for not taking action then, but in a February executive session ordered a supplementary report on Kierdorf. This, Hansen said, probably would be brought up in May.

Because of a large prison population, Hansen explained, Kierdorf's parole was heard three months early, a new system undertaken by the board. His "good time" record actually wasn't up until April 16.

* * *

The former Madison Heights resident went to prison for 1 to 5 years last July after waiting out legal maneuvers which failed to reverse his conviction for possession of a homemade pistol silencer. Kierdorf, 69, insisted the silencer was actually for a lawn mower.

He was the uncle of human torch victim Frank Kierdorf. The elder Kierdorf's latest scrape with the law came after he visited his dying nephew in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Hansen said Kierdorf has been "no trouble at all" since being an inmate.

He has been assigned to the prison kitchen as a trusty.

Kierdorf went to the prison hospital in February when he complained of a shortness of breath. He was sentenced to Jackson, with a past record of heart trouble.

"His heart has slowed him down considerably," Hansen said.

He once said he'd never live out his sentence.

Metro Region Study Can Roll

$25,000 Federal Grant OK'd for a Probe Into Industry, Sewage

A priority study of sewage and drainage facilities, and an inventory of industrial sites in the Detroit metropolitan area was ready to proceed after approval yesterday of a $25,000 federal grant.

The two-fold study will be conducted by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission. It is expected to be completed in 18 months.

Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced the grant, third of its kind for the metropolitan region, which encompasses 2,600 square miles.

The first part of the study will be to develop a service area priority for sewage and drainage facilities for the region's five counties, according to Paul M. Reid, commission executive director.

These are Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Monroe, and the four eastern townships in Washtenaw County.

Second phase of the study — which will get $50,000 from commission matching funds —will involve development of an off-rail land use plan for industrial sites, including expressways, Reid said.

He emphasized that the first section would show which of the areas are most hard-pressed for sewer and drainage facilities.

Put Credit Squeeze on British Economy

LONDON (AP) — The government imposed a long - expected credit squeeze on Britain's booming economy today. It restricted bank loans and the terms for installment purchases.

A minimum down payment of 20 per cent was imposed on the purchase of goods such as cars, radios, television sets and kitchen equipment.

Will 12-Year Struggle End Monday?

Chessman Has Days to Live

By MOE RAISER

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP)—How is Caryl Chessman spending his final days awaiting his ninth scheduled execution May 2?

The convict-author is a calm but busy man—with mixed emotions.

One moment he is hopeful. The next he believes his 12-year fight for survival will end in the green gas chamber next Monday.

Many of Chessman's daytime hours are occupied by newsmen and photographers from many parts of the world.

* * *

They visit him in a small room and one question invariably asked is, "How do you feel about your coming execution?"

When I saw Chessman this week he comented:

"If you ask me how I feel about my approaching execution, let me say I do not believe I can project my feelings to anyone.

"I have been through this so many times that I just can't say how I feel.

"If I should live, I would like to drop back into complete anonymity. This life in a goldfish bowl is not pleasant."

* * *

Chessman was convicted in 1948 as the Los Angeles "Red Light Bandit" who forced sexual abuses on two women victims.

He has steadfastly denied the charges. He has refused to "finger" or identify a man he says was the bandit. Although all of his judicial appeals are exhausted, Chessman's eighth scheduled execution was last Feb. 19. A 60-day reprieve by Gov. Edmund G. Brown saved him then.

Chessman described his nearness to death as terrifying.

"It's almost as though you're walled off from the living. There is an awareness, hard to describe, that pours in on you, like waves pounding against a beach."

* * *

He will face the same ordeal again soon. He sits in small cell at night and waits, and reads until late in the morning. He sleeps only five hours, eats sparingly.

His typewriter is stilled. From it flowed countless court appeals, short stories and four books, including "Cell 2455, Death Row," a best seller.

Chessman still has things to do before May 2. He must arrange for disposal of his estate, which he said is small. And for his own funeral.

C. of C. Plans Washington Trip

Vice President Nixon to Be Speaker at Annual Chamber Session

A talk by Vice President Richard M. Nixon will highlight a trip to Washington, D.C., next week by a 13-man delegation from the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

* * *

The vice president is scheduled as the main speaker Monday night at the annual meeting of the United States Chamber of Commerce, which the Pontiac group will be attending.

Pontiac delegates are scheduled to breakfast with U.S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) Tuesday and meet with Sen. Philip A. Hart Wednesday.

Another highlight of the meeting will be the annual Michigan Congressional Dinner for all Michigan delegates Tuesday night.

The annual meeting runs from Sunday through Wednesday. The Pontiac group will fly to Washington in three shifts Saturday, Sunday and Monday and return Wednesday, said John W. Hirlinger, Chamber of Commerce manager.

Signed up to attend are:

Harry J. Woodman, chamber president; Albert W. Holcomb, first vice president; Stuart E. Whitfield, Glenn H. Griffin, Bruce J. Annett, J. L. Van Wagoner, Thomas Whitfield, Glenn Miller, John A. Riley, William Hart, Edward Wilson and Dr. F. Milton Hathaway.

Hirlinger will also attend.

Await Winner for Mushroom Gathering

BOYNE CITY (AP)—Now they're going to crown a world mushroom hunting champion in Michigan.

The Boyne City Chamber of Commerce has set May 7-8 as dates of the first annual national mushroom hunting championship. Chamber spokesman Don Sheets says the contest is patterned after the rules of field dog trials.

Candidates will receive numbered bags, be escorted to a section of woods known to abound in Morrell mushrooms and start one hour of hunting at a gun signal. Judges will take filled bags to be weighed and sealed.

The finals May 8 will have narrowed the field to 10 contestants. The winner will be awarded merchandise prizes plus a trophy cup denoting the world's mushroom hunting championship.

80 Joints Raided; T-Men Arrest 65

WASHINGTON (AP) — With 80 separate locations—backrooms of candy stores, taverns, private suburban homes, hotel rooms. In a few cases their quarry temporarily escaped the net.

The basis for the raids was this: Under federal law, any gambler must purchase a $50 tax stamp from the government, even if gambling is illegal in his state. If he doesn't have the stamp, he faces a maximum five year prison sentence and $10,000 fine.

Cooperating with the T-Men were state and local police, U.S. marshals and agents of the Internal Revenue Service's alcohol tax division.

Though they found some evidence of connections between widely separated gambling operations, officials said, there was no immediate proof that any were tied together in a nationwide crime syndicate.

stopwatch precision, U.S. Treasury agents invaded backroom bookie joints and numbers rooms in nearly 50 cities across the country Wednesday.

Mopping up today, they counted at least 65 arrests, and the figure may swell to 100.

Unveil Grand Rapids Redevelopment Plan

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — An ambitious program for redevelopment of the entire downtown Grand Rapids area over the next 15 to 20 years was outlined today for city officials, but there yet is no plan for financing.

The plan was unveiled after a year-long study on needs of the central business core by J. Paul Jones, senior consultant with a New York planning services firm.

He told city commissioners and civic leaders the program's first step should be development of the civic administrative buildings at the business district's northwest end as approved last year by the City Commission.

An urban renewal program for a 26-acre portion of the business district already has been approved and has been granted $30.175 in financing by the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.
