Merchants Get 20-Day Stay of Closing Law

Court Grants Reprieve in 11 Counties Seeking High Court Injunction

Stores in Oakland and 10 other counties can remain open Sundays unhindered by the weekend closing law for at least another three weeks.

After ruling the state law was constitutional today, Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph Rashid granted a 20-day stay of enforcement of the law.

The stay was granted, he said, to give the plaintiffs an opportunity to apply for an injunction from the State Supreme Court.

Attorneys for merchants who challenged the law said they will seek the injunction pending an appeal of the Circuit Court decision.

The plaintiffs include 16 department stores and 59 independent merchants in 11 counties, including Wayne, Oakland, Bay, Calhoun, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Kent, Macomb, Muskegon, Saginaw and Washtenaw counties.

In deciding against the plaintiffs, Judge Rashid said, "One basic reason the law was upheld was the need of the family to have one day together.

"Three United States Supreme Court opinions and several Michigan Supreme Court decisions have recognized the need for 'day of rest' laws," he added.

The judge declared the law "does not violate any constitutional requisites as ascertained by the plaintiffs in their cause."

PLAINTIFFS' REQUEST

He granted the stay of enforcement at the request of the plaintiffs.

Judge Rashid issued an order on March 22 preventing the law from taking effect in the 11 counties until after April 21, pending the outcome of the legal challenge.

Supporters of the law in the 1926 Legislature said they hoped the law would prevent seven-day-a-week retail operations, thus allowing storeworkers at least one day off each week.

From Our News Wires

JACKSON — Four desperate, long-term convicts cut their way to freedom today in a daring predawn escape from Southern Michigan Prison — the world's largest walled penal institution.

Their escapes touched off one of the most concentrated manhunts in Michigan history.

Warden George Kropp described the four as desperate and capable of breaking into nearby farm houses for hostages in their bid for freedom. It was not known whether they were armed.

The convicts, including two men serving life terms for murder, cut through two sets of heavy steel bars and a cyclone fence in making the first successful escape from the prison since 1953 when 13 inmates tunneled their way to freedom.

Heavy rain and ground mists aided the fugitives in carrying out an escape plot which prison officials said was in the planning stage for a month.

ESCAPES

Kropp said the prison guard force, bolstered by an army of state police and sheriff's deputies combed nearby farmlands for James J. Hall, 40, serving life for murder; Robert L. Gipson, 30, serving a 13-25 year term for murder; Richard Mauch, 40, serving life for kidnaping and assault with intent to kill, and Elmer Crachy, 24, serving a long term as a habitual criminal.

State police at East Lansing, said police agencies in towns where the prisoners have lived in the past have been notified. However, a spokesman said there was no information to indicate the convicts had left the state.

Guard Elmer McLain discovered Hall missing shortly after 2 a.m. today. McLain also found a set of tools including a heavy pipe wrench used by the prisoners.

The absence of Mauch, Crachy and Gipson wasn't discovered until an emergency cell count at 6 a.m.

Prison officials said dummies

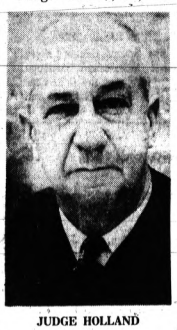
Ex-Judge Holland Dies Suddenly at 65

H. Russel Holland, an Oakland County Circuit judge for 27 years before his retirement Feb. 15, died suddenly this morning.

Judge Holland, 65, was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital at 8:30 a.m.



JUDGE HOLLAND

Cause of death apparently was a cerebral hemorrhage, according to Judge Holland's physician, Dr. Arthur R. Young of Pontiac.

Dr. Young said the judge felt dizzy and nauseated this morning and returned to bed.

Dr. Young said he left Judge Holland's home at 117 E. Iroquois Road about 7:15 a.m. to arrange for the judge's admission to the hospital.

A phoned report from the judge's wife, Nell, that the judge was not talking resulted in his being taken to the hospital where he was pronounced dead, according to Dr. Young.

ASKED TO STAY

Death came for Judge Holland a little more than two months after his retirement, which he had announced in January despite efforts by the county's other judges to persuade him to remain on the bench.

Judge Holland left a son, H. Russel II, 26, of Anchorage, Alaska, and a daughter, Sharon L., 23, a novice at St. Mary's Convent in Monroe, besides his wife.

His body is at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

The judge said he was retiring because "the tempo of the times is getting too fast for me."

Although his health had not been good since an operation about two years ago, Judge Holland said that was only "a minor factor" in his decision to retire.

He had been expected for several months to announce his retirement.

U.S. 7th Fleet Nearing Laos

Communist Forces Threatening Takeover

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department called today for the withdrawal of pro-Communist forces in Laos from the territory which they have "overrun" in recent attacks against neutralist forces.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The mighty U.S. 7th Fleet once again is moving into position as a warning to the Communists threatening a takeover of Laos.

Stationing of the ships in the area near the Gulf of Thailand is also aimed at providing reassurance to the vulnerable non-Communist country of Southeast Asia.

Defense authorities said the ships had not been ordered into the gulf but were moving into the area to be in position if they should later get orders for a military mission.

They called it a purely precautionary move.

Aboard the vessels are 60,000 Navy men and Marines.

Normally, the fleet is spread out from the North Pacific to the South China Sea, strategically positioned within range of Siberia and Red China population and industrial centers, to shield Formosa from Red attack and to move where needed in sensitive Southeast Asia.

With heavier fighting threatened in Laos, neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma asked the International Control Commission to send a truce team to try to keep peace on the Plaine des Jarres.

He told newsmen he expected the team of Indian, Canadian and Polish members to reach the trouble spot Wednesday or Thursday.

The area was reported free of fighting for the second day.

Dispatch of the team was announced after rightist Gen. Phoumi Nosavan threatened to send his troops into action as allies of

Dedication Lacking, Conference Is Told

"We as a people don't have the degree of dedication we once had," declared Gov. George Romney as he spoke yesterday to some 520 high school students and faculty advisers who converged on Oakland University for the first Governor's Conference on Student Leadership.

As keynote speaker, Romney warned students that "your greatest challenge would be to deny yourselves enough of a degree of material goods to build character" and cautioned them to "seek not for riches, but for wisdom."

A standing-room-only crowd heard Chancellor D. B. Varner introduce Romney as "an outstanding product of Oakland County."

Mrs. Walter Jackson, assistant director of continuing education in charge of conferences at Oakland University introduced representatives of some five universities, three businesses and three other organizations who would direct discussions.

GROUP SESSIONS

Discussion groups covered group psychology and human interrelationships, practical organization structure and special problems.

Special problems included publicity, parliamentary procedure, discussion leadership and a rumor clinic.

Dr. Lowell R. Eklund, associate dean of the university and director of continuing education emphasized the leadership function of students in society as a whole.

LANSING — A new congressional reapportionment plan that House Republicans admit would divide Oakland, Macomb and Genesee counties in a "crazy quilt" pattern was headed for approval by the House today.

Rep. Henry M. Morgan Jr., R-Bloomfield Township, said the new plan was only a vehicle to give Republicans more time to resolve their dispute over alignment of the Thumb area.

House approval of the plan was certain to send the reapportionment question to a joint House-Senate conference committee, which may not report back on the matter until June 7, according to Hogan.

Hogan indicated that the plan was so radical that the Senate would never accept it as a substitute for its congressional redistricting bill sponsored by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County.

CAN EXTEND DEADLINE

Roberts agreed that the matter would be worked out in a conference committee. Although Friday is the deadline for conference committee reports, the deadline can be extended until the June 7 adjournment date.

The new plan, adopted by a House Republican caucus last night, would put Oakland County into three districts.

Twisters Turn to Eastern U.S.

Warnings Posted for Virginia, N. Carolina

From Our News Wires

A storm line which chewed a 150-mile path of tornado devastation through two Midwest states pushed into the East today, bringing warnings of more possible twisters in parts of North Carolina and Virginia.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said tornadoes might develop along a line from Danville, Va., to Oceana, Va., including a portion of northern North Carolina.

Behind the storm front, temperatures dipped sharply and snow flurries were forecast for parts of Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana.

The Grand Rapids, Mich., Weather Bureau reported that both Cadillac and Lake City were pelted by five inches of snow.

Traverse City was hit by three inches and Lake Leelanau two.

Tornado damage at Indianapolis, estimated in excess of $1 million, was said to be the worst in more than 25 years. Nearly 200 homes were damaged.

Rain brought limited relief to the drought - stricken East, which has been plagued for weeks by forest and brush fires.

The fall, largely in the form of showers, extended from the New England states south to the District of Columbia. More rain was expected later in the day.

Although the precipitation was not heavy enough to give major relief, it did lessen the danger of new fires.

Frost Warning Out for the Area Tonight

Frost or hard freeze warning is out for the Pontiac area tonight. The weatherman said there will be a gradual clearing of skies with colder temperatures.

The low will dip to 26 to 32 tonight and climb to 48 to 57 tomorrow with skies mostly sunny. The outlook for Thursday is fair and slightly warmer.

Showers during the night measured .6 of an inch in rain mixed with snow. Northerly winds will continue tonight at 10 to 14 miles per hour.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 34. The recording at 1 p.m. was 40.

Prisoner Swap Ends

From Our News Wires

HOMESTEAD AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro emptied his dungeons of all American prisoners except one longtime enemy yesterday in exchange for four Cubans held in U.S. jails.

The remaining American prisoner is Cuban-born Miamian Rafael del Pino.

The bearded Cuban dictator also promised to allow 800 to 1,000 Cubans to leave his Communist island later this week as part of the deal.

New York attorney James B. Donovan, who arranged the swap, arrived here yesterday aboard an airliner with 21 of the pale and skinny Americans.

He said three others decided to go to a Latin America country instead of returning to their homeland and three chose to remain in Cuba with their families.

In exchange for the Americans' release, the Justice Department announced in Washington that it was releasing three Cubans arrested recently and charged with conspiring to blow up defense establishments in this country.

OTHERS RELEASED

The others released were Robert Santiesteban Casanova, 27, a member of the Cuban mission to the United Nations; and Antonio Suerio, 28, and Jose Garcia Orellana, 43, both Cubans living in New York. They were arrested a few months ago and charged with conspiracy to sabotage defense installations.

The four Cubans left Boca Chica Naval Air Station at Key West, Fla., aboard a Cubana Air Lines plane that was escorted over American waters by four U.S. jet fighters.

The plane carrying the Cubans from New York had landed at Boca Chica at 6:55 a.m., (Pontiac time) and the Cubana airliner was airborne 30 minutes later.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said last night that the four were being sent back to Cuba in the swap for the Americans.

Kennedy told newsmen at a New York reception by the Cuban Prisoners Committee the decision to free the alleged Cuban saboteurs was part of a trade for the American prisoners in Cuba.

Rockefeller said that the other part of the deal was the release of the convicted Cuban slaper, Francisco Molina del Rio, 31.

The governor said the federal government had informed him that the commutation of Molina's sentence was "necessary in the national interest."

U.S. MILITARISTS CONFER

The United States' two top military commanders in Asia are holding consultations in Bangkok, Thailand, amid a crisis atmosphere generated by the military situation in Laos.

They are Adm. Harry D. Felt, U.S. Pacific commander, and Gen. Paul D. Harkins, chief of American military assistance to South Viet Nam and Thailand.

Harkins flew in from Saigon; Felt from Honolulu.

U.S. embassy authorities labeled Felt's rush trip as "not surprising" in view of tension in Laos, which shares a long and vulnerable frontier with Thailand.

U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman arrived in London for urgent consultations with the British on the situation in Laos.

He told newsmen Washington has "no plan under consideration at the moment" for American military intervention in the troubled Southeast Asian country.

1, 1936 after winning election in 1935.

For 20 years, he, Judge George B. Hartrick and Judge Frank L. Doty comprised the county's circuit bench, winning for it a reputation as one of the finest in the state.

Judge Hartrick died Aug. 12, 1958. Judge Doty retired in 1959 after 32 years on the bench and died Jan. 11, 1962.

Before joining the circuit bench, Judge Holland was a Pontiac municipal judge for four years and had served as the city's part-time associate municipal judge from 1929 to 1930.

Born Jan. 17, 1898, near rural Wilmington, Va., Judge Holland attended the University of Richmond, was graduated in 1929 and became a history teacher.

After taking a summer course in constitutional law at the University of Michigan in 1922, Judge Holland turned to law for a career.

After graduation from the U. of M. law school in 1926, he spent a year in a Detroit law firm. He opened a Pontiac office in 1927 at 22½ N. Saginaw St.

Judge Holland Mourned by Area Jurists

"Judge Holland was a great judge, a great man, and a great friend of both bench and bar," said presiding Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

"His death was a shock to the entire community," said Judge Frederick C. Ziem. "We've lost a great judge and a fine gentleman."

"We feel a great personal loss," said Judge Stanton G. Dondero. "He was a close friend."

Judge Holland had been a frequent visitor to the courthouse since his retirement and was helping the judges on some matters, said Judge Dondero.

"The court will be appropriately recessed to allow the entire bench and bar to attend Judge Holland's funeral," Judge Beer said.

son Heights, Oak Park and Royal Oak Township would go into a seventh district with that part of Macomb County south of 14-Mile Road.

The rest of Oakland County south of 14-Mile Road plus the townships of West Bloomfield, Commerce, Milford, Waterford, White Lake and Highland would go into an 18th district. The 18th currently takes in the entire county.

Pontiac would join Mount Clemens and the rest of Oakland and Macomb counties in the new 19th district received by Michigan as a result of the 1960 census.

WOULD SPLIT FLINT

The plan also would split Genesee County and the City of Flint into two separate districts.

However, the plan expected to come out of the conference committee when all the problems have been worked out would put the areas of Troy, Royal Oak, Bloomfield and Southfield in the 18th and the rest of Oakland County with Livingston County in the 19th.

Roberts' present plan is similar, except that it also would put Farmington Township in the 18th, and attach Lapeer and St. Clair counties to the 19th instead of Livingston County.

Lapeer and St. Clair counties are expected to go into a Thumb area district. A plan by Thumb area representatives to accomplish that was also considered along with Roberts' plan by the House GOP caucus.

City Eyes Demolition Contract

Commissioners are expected to award the fourth contract for demolition in Pontiac's R20 urban renewal program at tonight's City Commission meeting.

The contract calls for demolition of some 53 structures, mostly residential, Elkins Excavating Co., of Waterford Township, submitted a low bid of $15,153.25 for the contract several weeks ago.

Also up for approval will be a construction contract for a combined station and storage building at Perry Park.

Low bidder for that contract was Melvin Eller, a Pontiac building contractor.

In other business, action is slated on resolutions which would allow General Motors Corporation to build electrical transmission lines across Highwood Boulevard and authorize City Manager Robert A. Stierer to obtain bids on concessions at city parks for the summer season.

Five reports and recommendations from the city planning commission will also be up for approval tonight.

Three of the reports involve requests to rezone properties on Telegraph Road at Glendale Avenue, on Telegraph between Hazel and Edna streets and at 431-435 E. South Blvd.

Another involves a request to divide part of Lot 17 and all of Lot 18, Assessor's Plat No. 102, into four lots.

The fifth recommends approval of a new plat in the R20 urban renewal project area.

Commissioners will also get cost estimates for proposed blacktopping projects on portions and Third avenues and Howard Street.

Furs, Cameras Lost in Pontiac Burglary

Two mink fur pieces and three cameras with a total value of $5,400 were stolen from the home of Harold A. Fitzgerald, publisher of The Pontiac Press.

The burglary was reported yesterday afternoon by the Fitzgeralds' son Richard. He discovered the break-in when he went to the home to check it while his parents were out of the city.

Stolen were a brown mink stole, a silver grey mink jacket, two 35MM cameras and a Polaroid camera.

Police said the house at 148 Ottawa Drive was entered by breaking a window on the sun porch.

Succumbs to Cancer

Israeli President, 78, Dies

From Our News Wires

JERUSALEM, Israel — President Itzhak Ben-Zvi, a scholarly Zionist who helped found the state of Israel, died today at the age of 78.

The pioneer, labor leader and statesman succumbed to lung cancer in his home here at 7:05 a.m. (12:05 a.m. Pontiac time). The nation went into mourning for its second chief of state.

Ben-Zvi was elected president of Israel on Dec. 8, 1952, culminating a lifetime dedicated to the Zionist cause and to the revival of Israeli national life.

He succeeded Israel's first chief of state, Dr. Chaim Weizman, who had died.

A state funeral will be held tomorrow.

The cabient announced the funeral plans after a special mourning session. Premier David Ben-Gurion and cabient members lighted candles around the flag-draped bier while prayers were said.

The celebration on April 28-29 of the 15th anniversary of Israel's independence was canceled.

The annual military parade will be held in Haifa, but the units will march to drums only and behind black-draped flags.

But it was not until last weekend that it became known generally he was suffering from cancer.

Tentative Okay Given Maple Road Widening

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners last night gave tentative approval to an agreement with the Oakland County Road Commission for widening East Maple Road.

The agreement, as presented, did not go into construction details, but Killeen said the preliminary agreement was satisfactory providing several sections were revised.

Some discussion centered on the removal and replacement of trees in the project area. The city requested tree replacement costs to be included in the program.

The road commission will go along with replacing four, but if the city wants the remaining trees replaced it will be at their own expense, said Killeen. There are approximately 12 trees in the affected area.

SHARE IN COST

The city will pay its respective share of the total cost of the project with the city of Troy. Final copies of the agreement will be drawn up after the road commission receives tentative approval from both municipalities.

Commissioners tabled a request for sidewalk construction by the Pembroke Manor Association, Inc., in the Derby Junior High School area.

Petitions bearing 750 signatures, representing some 500 homes, urged the construction on Pembroke and Derby streets from the west side of Eton Road to protect approximately 125 school children who must walk to school in the street.

The commission tabled the request to give the city time to inform residents of its plans for the project.

Mrs. Geraldine E. Baldwin

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Geraldine E. Baldwin, 52, of 786 Colonial Court, will be 9:30 a.m. tomorrow at Holy Name Catholic Church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre Catholic Cemetery, Southfield.

Mrs. Baldwin died unexpectedly yesterday.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 tonight at Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Donald F. Baldwin and Frances, both of Birmingham; three sons, Timothy L. of Royal Oak and Patrick K. and Kirk W., both of Birmingham; and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Austin H. Poinsett

Service for Mrs. Austin H. (Emma L.) Poinsett, 75, of 1081 Norwich Road, will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Swayse Funeral Home, Trenton, N.J. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery there.

Mrs. Poinsett died yesterday after a lengthy illness. Her body was to be at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home until 4 p.m. today.

She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church in Trenton, N.J.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Philip Drew of Birmingham, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Edward J. Rodgers

Service for Mrs. Edward J. (Margaret C.) Rodgers, 33, of 286 Puritan Road, was held this morning at Holy Name Church with burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mrs. Rodgers died unexpectedly Thursday of a heart attack in Pompano Beach, Fla.

She was a member of Women's Club of Birmingham and Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Surviving besides her husband are three sons, Edward, Mark and Michael, all at home; her father, Dr. Arthur Connell of Rockford, Ill.; and a brother, Dr. John Connell, U.S. Navy.

Pick Directors for AP Board

Honor Press Publisher at His Retirement

NEW YORK (AP)—Members of The Associated Press have elected William F. Knowland, vice president and general manager of the Oakland (Calif.) Tribune and former Senate Republican majority leader, as a member of the AP board of directors.

Gene Robb, publisher of the Albany (N.Y.) Knickerbocker News and Times-Union also was elected a new member of the 18-man board during The Associated Press annual meeting Monday.

Robb and A. H. Kirchhofer of the Buffalo (N.Y.) Evening News contested for a post as director from New York State, a position required by AP bylaws. Robb received 7,072 votes to 3,209 for Kirchhofer.

At the AP business meeting, the members adopted a resolution expressing thanks for the services of retiring directors Harold A. Fitzgerald of the Pontiac (Mich.) Press, and Bernard H. Ridder Jr. of the Duluth (Minn.) News-Tribune, who were ineligible for re-election under AP bylaws because they had served three consecutive terms.

Directors re-elected were AP President Paul Miller of Rochester, N.Y., president of the Gannett Newspapers, with 9,481 votes; George W. Healy Jr., of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, with 8,113 votes; and W. D. Maxwell of the Chicago Tribune, 7,636.

Knowland received 4,786 votes.

Max E. Nussbaum, of the Moultrie (Ga.) Observer, was re-elected a director from cities of less than 50,000 population with 6,992 votes to 3,269 for Clyde M. Reed, of the Parsons (Kan) Daily and Sunday Sun.

Prison officials said the four broke out of cellblock 8—part of the south wall of the prison. The cellblock is used to house long-term convicts and is described as a maximum-security section.

BASE FOR ESCAPE

Hall's cell was the base for the escape. Located on the ground floor of the cellblock it afforded quick access to the ground.

Gipson, Mauch and Crachy gained access to windows above Hall's cell by cutting their way through cell bars to a catwalk which connects the cell tiers.

The four cut the window bars, dropped to the ground near Hall's cell and dashed 90 yards to the cyclone fence. A dagger, apparently made by hand from spring steel inside the prison, was dropped on the way, Kropp said.

Highly controversial in Oakland County, the law was upheld here by a 39 to 38 vote of the Board of supervisors last Thursday.

Waterford Township Votes for Public Library Status

A Waterford Township public library came closer to reality last night.

By a 6-1 vote the Township Board asked the township attorney, Paul Mandel, to prepare the necessary documents to have the present library, located in the CAI Building, transferred to a public status.

Trustee John S. Coleman called this action "the logical first step to take — one that was long overdue."

The only dissenting vote came from the sole Republican on the board, Loren D. Anderson, who, while citing the necessity of a public library service, said he could not favor "a project and then determine how we're going to finance it at a later date."

The board heard a request for amendment of the controversial township food establishment ordinance which now outlaws the operation of open roadside stands.

Kevin Ritter, owner of two stands in the township, requested that this type of operation be exempted from the ordinance's provisions governing storage display.

Oakland County Health Inspector LeRoy Stone upheld the provision in question, which requires that "all food and drink shall be so stored, displayed and served as to be protected from dust, insects and other forms of contamination.

Ritter's request was tabled pending further reports.

REQUEST REVIVAL

The board requested that the township attorney revive a disorderly persons ordinance previously rejected.

Robert Whittbold, Pontiac Mall manager, requesting the ordinance, told the board that the juvenile delinquency problem at the Mall "is certainly not compatible with a good operation."

The big problem, he said, concerns what he termed "professional juvenile delinquents" — those 17 to 21.

"They know more about the law than we do," he said.

While he noted that the problem "is not out of hand," Whittbold requested that the board enact a disorderly persons ordinance that would "enforce good behavior."

In other action, the board awarded a paving contract to the Oakland Paving Co. of Berkley for a blacktopping project at Benson's Old Orchard subdivision. The company submitted the low bid of $39,086.

Grapples With Boneless Liver

Here's More Adventures of 'Silent Dan'

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House committee hearings on the defense budget are published in installments, something like a magazine serial or, if you prefer, a soap opera.

I eagerly look forward to each new chapter so that I can follow the latest adventures of Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., who is my personal hero of the hearings.

In the last chapter, WEST you may recall, "Silent Dan" unveiled an ingenuous plan for the conquest of Red China.

All we need to do, he suggested, is persuade the Chinese army to turn against its leaders and then persuade Russia to cooperate with an invasion by the Chinese Nationalist.

Nothing to it, really.

In today's chapter, the master strategist demonstrates his versatility by coming to grips with military problems of a radically different sort:

...As we look in on the hearing, "Silent Dan" is interrogating an Air Force officer about "boneless liver."

His questions are being directed at Lt. Col. D. J. Perkins, who carries the title of "general support and services division, directorate of supply and services, deputy chief of staff, systems and logistics."

How Perkins gets all of that in his brief case is a mystery to me.

IT'S ALL IN THE TYPE

At any rate, Flood wants to know why a "food packet, abandon aircraft, individual" costs $4.59 whereas a "food packet, in-flight, individual" costs only $1.

Perkins replies that some types of prefabricated meat are more expensive than other types of prefabricated meat.

Perkins: "Prefabricated meat is boneless . . ."

Flood: "Before you go any further, I had a type in here from the Army who read off a list of meats he wwas buying using boneless liver. I said 'boneless . what?' "Boneless liver.' Is there any other kind of liver?"

Perkins: "No sir. I believe what they meant, sir, is frozen and portion-cut liver. All these meats we refer to as prefabricated, they are boneless, excluding liver, boneless, frozen and portion-cut."

"Silent Dan" parted company with prefabricated liver at this point to explore the question of why the Air Force finds it easier to recruit nurses than the Army does.

"Do you pick them with blue eyes and they look better in a blue uniform?" he asked.

"What do you have—keep this decent—that the Army does not have?"

The answer (flight pay) was rather prosaic and Flood moved on to servicewomen's underwear.

He told Col. Elizabeth Ray, head of the WAFS, that he was responsible for eliminating knaki lingerie.

"I wore them, sir," said Col. Ray. "I am glad you did."

'Moonshot Will Need Reliability'

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A leading U.S. space planner said today that aerospace firms must improve the quality of rocket and spacecraft parts to insure success of this nation's effort to land men of the moon.

"Developing reliability of thousands of components so they all work together without error is the one main area where we need a big jump in the state of the art in the Apollo lunar landing program," reported Joseph F. Shea, deputy director of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Office of Manned Space Flight.

Shea made the plea for better quality work at the factory level to more than 500 space scientists and engineers from government and industry who are attending a manned space flight conference. He promised more stringent NASA checks to develop reliability.

Shea said this should apply also to the thousands of persons involved in development of rocket or spacecraft equipment.

"We have a long way to go," he commented, "before all the many tiers of people who work on our programs—any one of whom may handle a part which may later fail in flight—meet these demands fully."

Shea said that with the Gemini two-man and Apollo moon programs, his office is insisting on check and recheck of every item before it leaves the factory.

Troy Will Buy Center Site

TROY — The City Commission approved the purchase of a 77-acre civic center site last night and set May 13 as a public hearing date on rezoning of land for a proposed 128-acre shopping center.

Located on the north side of 16-Mile Road between Livernois and Crooks roads, the civic center property is owned by Mrs. Phyllis Huber, mother of Mayor Robert J. Huber.

Although the parcel was appraised as worth $2,200 per acre, or $193,000 total, the $132,165 cost of the land breaks down into $1,700 for each of 77.7 acres.

The city will receive an additional 10 acres without cost, for a park to be named in honor of Mrs. Huber's husband.

City Manager David E. Firestone said that ultimately all city buildings would be centralized in the civic center.

The commission also voted to apply for a federal noninterest loan to finance preliminary planning of the center and a federal grant for aid in paying for the complete project.

TOTAL COST

Total cost of a proposed city hall and the property is expected to run about $544,000, Firestone said today.

Although the commission agreed on the request of a loan for preliminary planning, Commissioners James F. Carey and Robert J. Bargert voted against seeking federal aid for the complete project.

Bargert asked Firestone whether the city could handle the project without federal aid. He received the answer "absolutely." Recently elected trustee Glen H. Houghten argued that he thought the city should get what it could from the federal government.

Before the commission decided on a May 13 hearing date for the proposed rezoning of the shopping center site, a lengthy discussion ensued over whether Sears, Roebuck & Co. had definite plans of building there.

"This is not a request for rezoning so that we can speculate," said developer Jay M. Kogan of Detroit.

Kogan is owner of the property, located on the northwest corner of John R and 14-Mile roads.

"This request is made because there will be a Sears and Roebuck store," he added.

Bargert asked the Planning Commission Member Alphonse Bajgier why three of the nine commission members voted against recommendation of rezoning the shopping site from industrial to general business.

INSUFFICIENT INFORMATION

Bajgier answered that the information presented to the commission was at present insufficient. He said there was no written commitment yet from Sears about proposed use of the property and no site plan evalutaion was available.

Court Rejects Damage Suits

Couple Made Claims Against Southfield

SOUTHFIELD —Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer yesterday dismissed two suits against the city by a Detroit woman who was handcuffed to a tree last July by a Southfield policeman. The officer today seeks reinstatement to the police force.

Judge Beer ruled that Mrs. Bertha Gold, 31, and her husband, Sidney, failed to back up their claim that the city should have known the policeman "was mentally incompetent" and "a danger and menace on the streets when clothed in the authority of a police officer."

Allegations by the Golds were "entirely lacking in sufficiency of any facts and dates or items which would have put the city of Southfield on notice that it was employing a person in police work who was inherently dangerous," Judge Beer said.

The Golds were seeking $70,000 damages from the city and ex-patrolman Richard Wort, 31, of 28050 Fairfax St. Judge Beer dismissed the suits only as against the city.

Wort is scheduled to appear at a hearing today on his request for reinstatement.

He was suspended from the force after the incident and spent three months in Pontiac State Hospital as mentally ill. He was released from the hospital in November.

Wort stopped Mrs. Gold as she was driving in Southfield, handcuffed her to a tree and, she said, threatened to kill her.

Agree to Finish Restoring of Long Lake for $38,450

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP—Already more than $129,000 in the red on a "first time ever" project, the Waterways Control and Development Co. has agreed to complete restoration of Long Lake for $38,450.

Contractors believe the dredging could be finished this summer.

Walter K. Price, new president of the reorganized Lansing firm, has outlined some of the losses incurred by the company since it entered into a contract with the Long Lake General Council in May 1961.

The council represents some 400 property owners on the lake.

Contractural price for the job was nine cents a cubic yard. Price said, however, that actual cost to the company was 22 cents a cubic yard.

Thus the $74,000 paid by Long Lake residents accounted for only a little better than half the project.

LEARNS FROM EXPERIENCE

The first firm ever to undertake cleaning an entire inland lake, Waterways has learned from its experience, Price noted.

He said 15 cents a cubic yard for the remaining 167,000 cubic yards would be a "break even" cost.

Price recommended that the unfinished beaches be bulldozed at a cost of $4,000. This method would be far superior to the original one, he said.

Robert Lachner, a director of the Long Lake General Council, outlined financial requirements for completion of the restoration. He said the $38,450 is needed by May 6 to insure resumption of dredging operations.

The fund is to be held in escrow until final inspection and approval of the project by John R. Snell, Inc., engineers for the council.

If the project is not completed, the money will be returned to the property owners, according to John L. Hyland, council president.

* * *

Hyland pointed out that the escrow fund would be, in effect, a 100 per cent performance guarantee.

At Presbyterian Church

Nuptials Are Held in Holly

HOLLY TOWNSHIP — In a candlelight ceremony at the United Presbyterian Church of Holly Saturday evening, Marilyn Carol Andrews became the bride of Jimmie D. Long.

Rev. William Lankton was assisted by Rev. Philip Nofsinger of the First Baptist Church for the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Andrews, 6398 M87. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow W. Long, 301 N. Saginaw St., Holly.

The full-length gown which the bride chose for her wedding was of silk organza and Chantilly lace, styled with a bouffant skirt ending in a chapel train.

A bouquet of white Shasta daisies and yellow rosebuds topped the white Bible which the bride carried.

JoAnn Andrews served as her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Lynn Muma of Birmingham, cousin of the bride; Pamela Long of Holly, sister of the groom; and Mrs. John Vrbensky of Fenton.

Virgil Long, brother of the groom, was best man. Two other brothers, Steve and David, were ushers with Philip Hollis of Cleveland, Ohio.

Ring bearer was Gregory Long, nephew of the groom.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately after the 8 p.m. ceremony.

Following their honeymoon in South Carolina, the newlyweds will make their home in Holly.

Slate Deadline to File for Area School Election

Deadline for filing nominating petitions for three vacancies on the Avondale Board of Education is 4 p.m. May 11 in the board office.

The four-year term of Board Secretary George Granger is expiring.

Two other positions also will be filled in the regular school election June 10. They are the unexpired terms of Raymond N. Baker, who died earlier this year, and Earl Wilson who moved out of town.

Two years remain on Baker's term, which is currently being filled by Russell Williams, and three on Wilson's, filled by James Laughlin. Both Williams and Laughlin were appointed to serve until the next regular election.

Village Votes Cut in Softball

Rochester Moves to Reduce Budget

ROCHESTER — Faced with a record budget of $449,100, the Village Council last night voted to reduce its share of the $1,300 softball program this year and eliminate its sponsorship completely in the 1964-65 fiscal year.

The council is presently considering a budget $23,700 higher than last year's.

Village Manager Paul York recommended dropping the program and establishing a similar football league which involved only village residents.

After considerable discussion, the council agreed to continue this year's program because it was too short notice for those planning on participating.

HIKES FEES

However, the team entrance fee will be increased from $30 to $50 for those living in the village and from $50 to $75 for outside teams.

The council also voted, with councilmen Roy Rewold, John Lowes and Dr. John Terry dissenting, to have teams pay for their own officials.

The proposed dropping of the softball league was the most controversial item on the budget.

Most of the other tentative expenditures for 1963-64 were very similar to last year's. The present 18.5 mill tax levy is retained in the proposed budget.

The over-all increase includes the cost of additional equipment, such as $4,000 for the fire department.

Also included is the salary of an additional police officer and the purchase of an emergency stand-by generator for the municipal building.

Under terms of the tentative budget, the village would increase its share of hospital-medical insurance for employes from 50 to 75 per cent.

HAZEL R. MANDILK

An Aug. 3 wedding at the Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village, is being planned by Hazel Ruth (Penny) Mandilk and Richard Knobloch. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mandilk, 46401 West Road, Walled Lake. Her fiance's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Knobloch of Detroit.

Rites in Oxford

Janet Klauka Weds

LAKE ORION — Wearing a gown of silk organza and lace Janet Marie Klauka became the bride of Harold Frederick Butler Friday evening in the Free Methodist Church, Oxford.

With it she wore a crown of crystals and pearls, which held an elbow-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a white orchid surrounded by Stephanotis and ivy atop a white Bible.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Heloise Klauka, 1540 Lapeer Road, and Leonard Klauka, 2240 Oak Grove Road, North Branch. Parents of the bridegroom are—Byron Butler of Summertown, Tenn., and Mrs. Glenn Empso, 2714 Knollwood St., Pontiac Township.

The candlelight rites were performed by Rev. Harlow Hoyt.

Mrs. Philip Smith of Adrian, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Another sister, Mrs. John Nellenbach of Utica, was bridesmaid.

Attending as flower girl and ring bearer, respectively, were Barbara Jean and Robert Adamic of Silverwood, niece and nephew of the bride.

On the esquire side Robert Bloecker of Oxford was best man and Max Dunn, groomsman. Ushers were Philip Smith of Adrian, brother-in-law of the bride, and Kenneth Huff of Oxford, uncle of the bridegroom.

The church's educational building was the setting for the reception that followed the nuptials. Upon their return from a honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds will live in Oxford.

MRS. HAROLD F. BUTLER

Budget Sum Lower for Milford

MILFORD—The $250,000 budget proposed by Village Manager Donald G. Weidner for fiscal 1963-64 is about $52,000 below the current year's expenditures.

A new water main and storm sewer completed this year at a cost of $50,000 account for most of the difference, Weidner said.

The Village Council is now holding a series of meetings in preparation for the public budget hearing which must be held before the second Tuesday of May.

The council last night let a $22,564 contract for resurfacing of major roads this summer.

Lowest of five bidders for the black topping was McInnis Brothers Paving of Detroit.

Total cost of the project is expected to be about $40,000. Contracts are yet to be accepted for excavation and base work needed on some of the roads before they can be resurfaced.

Approximately six residents of the Kensington Hills Subdivision, at the south end of Main Street, last night complained to the council that deterioration of Main Street has made it "unfit to drive on."

They sought improvement and resurfacing for the sealcoated street, but were told the project would cost about $36,000 and would therefore take almost all of the village's proposed road fund for next year.

Man Is Bound Over in Shooting Case

TROY — Howard W. Mordue was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday on a charge of attempted murder in the Feb. 21 shooting of his wife and her male companion.

Mordue, 32, of 4016 Chestnut Hill Drive, appeared before Justice Charles H. Losey. He waived examination and was released on a bond increased from $5,000 to $25,000 pending arraignment May 6.

He is accused of wounding his 33-year-old wife Barbara and Nelton Hartman, 26, of 105 Cutting Blvd., in the Thunderbird bowling alley parking lot.

Church to Serve Dinner

OXFORD — A cafeteria-style dinner, featuring roast beef and chicken, will be served from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Holy Cross Lutheran Church.

Saves Seven Children in Avon Twp. House Fire

AVON TOWNSHIP — A mother of six saved her children and a niece from death by asphyxiation last night when she awoke them and led them from her smoke-filled house.

Mrs. Forest Baker, 31, noticed a "smell of heat" about 10 p.m. in her home at 1091 Grace St.

"I ran upstairs and found it filled with smoke, started calling the kids and handed the little ones to the big ones," she said today.

Mrs. Baker then herded them outside. "I had an awful time getting the little ones awake," she said. The little ones included David, 4, Donna, 7, Joyce Ann, 9, and Mrs. Baker's 6-year-old niece Mary Croteau.

Also rescued were Robert, 11, Barbara, 12, and Nancy, 13.

'SAVED LIVES'

"She saved their lives, there's no question about it," said Avondale Fire Chief Victor B. Camp. "If we'd arrived three minutes later we would have lost the house."

Mrs. Baker's husband, Forest Jr., was at work at the time of the fire.

The flames started over the basement furnace, and caused about $2,500 damage to the home; most of which was inside the walls, floors and roof, Camp said. Cause of the fire is not determined.

Mackinaw Massacre Needs Players

MACKINAW CITY (UP) — A bloodless re-enactment of the massacre, at historic Fort Michilimackinac, will be staged over Memorial Day weekend on its 200th anniversary.

But the bicentennial committee which is arranging the four-day observance May 30 - June 2 at the Straits of Mackinac has a problem.

The committee has been trying to line up descendants of either victims or victors of the massacre.

It has failed so far and reports that descendants of people who were involved in Indian chief Pontiac's wars are apparently as scarce as Mayflower descendants are plentiful.

A public appeal has been made for clues as to the possible whereabouts of descendants of participants in the June 2, 1763, massacre.

"Some of the known and recorded names in that historic bloodbath," the committee said, "were William Leslie, George Etherington and John Jemet, who were British soldiers; Alexander Henry, Ezekial Solomon, Henry Bostwick and someone named Tracy, all British traders; Laurent Ducharme and Charles Langlade, who were French residents at Fort Michilimackinac; and Wenniway, Minavavana and Wawatam who were among the victors."

The committee has requested that anyone having knowledge of any descendants write "The Bicentennial Committee, Box 565, Mackinaw City, Mich."

The event will be commemorated with Indian ceremonials, muzzle loaders' shoots, canoe races, square dances, exhibits, and pageants.

The committee's historian, Harden De View, said the program will include "games which will be the present day counterparts of Lacrosse, the game which proved to be the tricky Trojan horse that caught the British with their scalps exposed."

The Indians got inside the fort by pretending they were playing a friendly game of Lacrosse on the approach outside.

The Indians, numbering some 400, overwhelmed the garrison. Some 6 British subjects were killed and 20 men were captured by the Chippewas.

"HE GREW HAIR"

Warren Feathers, Claysburg, Penna. (near Altoona), shows he regrew hair by the Lesley Home Treatment Method. He did not have male pattern baldness.

Men and Women Learn if Your Hair Loss Can Be Stopped and Baldness Prevented

Just go to the Waldron Hotel in Pontiac, Michigan, Wednesday, April 24, 1963 only, between 1 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Ask the Hotel Desk Clerk for F. I. BRODIE.

Come in and talk with the Lesley Consultant regarding your hair and scalp problems. Learn how you can treat yourself right in the privacy of your own home. Regular checkups in your city by a Lesley Consultant assures success in the minimum period of time.

If your scalp is still creating hair and you have dandruff, or excessive hair fall, excessive oiliness, dryness, or itchy scalp, you should take positive action at once.

If you are accepted for treatment, you will be given a written guarantee for the length of time treatment is required, on a prorated basis.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of a great majority of cases of baldness and excessive hair loss, for which neither the Lesley treatment nor any other treatment is effective. Lesley offers you a free examination to determine whether you are one of those who can be helped.

Romney Nixes Dems on Fiscal Reform Notice

LANSING (UPI) — A Democratic request for advance notice of Gov. George Romney's intentions for the fall special session on fiscal reform was turned down yesterday by the chief executive.

State Democratic party Chairman Zolton A. Ferency asked for early notice of specific subject areas to be included in the governor's call.

Romney told newsmen Ferency would be notified of the governor's plans for the session when the call is issued.

Sgt. York Responds; Lung Clot Persists

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sgt. Alvin York's kidney infection is responding to treatment, but a hospital spokesman says an X ray has shown that the blood clot in the World War I hero's left lung has not dissolved.

The Medal of Honor winner remains on the critical list, the spokesman said. He was hospitalized 10 days ago.

Dies of Crash Injuries

GARDEN CITY (UP) — Meredith J. Kane, 26, of Garden City, died in Wayne County General Hospital yesterday of injuries suffered earlier in the day in a two-car collision in this Detroit suburb.

Easy remedy for closet space problems is to fasten kitchen towel racks to the inside of the closet door. They will hold several pairs of boy's slacks or girls' scarves, kerchiefs or lingerie.

1963 Auto Industry Foresees Record-Breaking Production

In spite of the great mark set in 1962, it appears probable that 1963 will definitely exceed it and may even become the top productive period of all time. This means it would have to exceed 1955 which set the all-time record.

Ward's Automotive Report, the Nation's authority on automobile production, suggests that the 1963 model run may well fall close to 8.5 million. The 1955 figure which shattered all previous marks and which has never been equaled, showed 8,423,000.

Interestingly enough, Ward's believes that the passenger division may fall a little short of the 1955 attainment, but the truck division will leap forward appreciably with a gain from 557,000 to the million mark. Pontiac has more than an academic interest in this significant revelation.

Currently, production for all manufacturers is averaging about three weeks ahead of the record-breaking 1955 pace.

Happily for our area, Pontiac Motor Division has been a red hot leader in the mad sprint forward. Pontiac had a tremendous year in 1962 and ran second to its banner production of 1955, missing a new record by a scant few thousand cars.

Pontiac and Tempest dealers all over America are clamoring for more of these marvelous 1963 products. They're pounding lustily on the local portals and the demand doesn't abate. The plant is responding gallantly and is producing cars at a record pace.

What a wonderful sensation!

Only last week, Pontiac produced an unbelievable 2,768 cars in ONE day. This surpassed the all-time record of 2,638 which was set back in 1954. The local plant has averaged over 50,000 each month since the 1963 models were introduced. This is at an annual rate of 600,000 which provides a sterling background for hopes of exceeding 555,000.

In all previous history when the automotive business as a whole has enjoyed a fine year, it was invariably followed by a period of considerably less strenuous activity. But that rule hasn't held in 1963. Right after the first of the year, General Manager E. M. ESTES told a PRESS editor that he believed 1963 might "be as good as 1962 and possibly even better"; but it was too early to issue a general statement.

One top-ranking GM official actually predicted that in a few years the production of automobiles would exceed eight million every year.

This is sweet music in Pontiac.

Eyes Hiccup Cup

MAT Claims Championship for His Breathless Feat

By HOWARD HELDENBRAND

The MAT modestly claims title to the area's amateur hiccup championship — with a record of seven nonstop days. (Recently, the public prints heralded a contestant who had racked up 20 days, but he bore a strong taint of professionalism.)

My exploit sounds like a lot of burping —and it is. At an average, say, of 10 per minute, you have an output of 600 for each and every hiccup hour.

Technically, there are three basic hiccups that come up. First is the short, staccato, no-nonsense type; second on the Hic Parade we find the rather long but wavering emanation, ending on a high-note quiver; while the piece de resistance is the double-action job that seems to be headed both out and in simultaneously.

There are as many remedies for stopping hiccups as recipes for a super martini — and your scrivener wore out all the known ones plus himself.

They start and end, someone snappily said, just like that (business of snapping fingers). But, by way of snappy rebuttal, it's no snap between snaps.

The column extends hearty welcome to our new neighbor, the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce. The able manager of 9241 Steephollow Drive, and his popular assistant

of Sylvan Lake, have done a slick job of adapting the Riker Building premises for the organization's use.

To show off their handiwork, an open house is planned for tomorrow, beginning at 4:00 p.m.

Should U.S. Change Measurement System?

In a matter that really counts, the United States seems to be lagging behind.

We are one of the few nations in the world that are not using the metric system of measurement.

Oh, we do have it in some areas. Film, for instance. And the Army plans to convert its weapon measurements to meters by 1966.

But for the most part we are still clinging to inches, feet, yards, some 85 different weights and measures, in all.

Changing over to the metric system would not be easy, it's true. Britain changed to the centigrade temperature a couple of years ago, and for a while it was a topic of heated debate.

Already the metric system is being used here in research science and pharmacy. But the step to converting the entire nation to this system will probably come in the future, as more and more of the nations we deal with use this form of measurement.

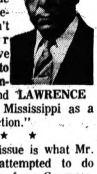
David Lawrence Asks:

Kennedy Outreaching Authority?

WASHINGTON — President Kennedy has raised a significant question in the last few days. He has asked, in effect, for a definition of just what are the limits of presidential power.

The President argues that in the matter of steel prices a year ago he acted "in the public interest." He contends, moreover, that it isn't necessary for Congress to give him the power to cut off government money and contracts from Mississippi as a "disciplinary action."



LAWRENCE

But the real issue is what Mr. Kennedy has attempted to do without authority from Congress. The President, in talking to the American Society of Newspaper Editors last Friday, said:

"I don't have the power to cut off the aid in a general way as was proposed by the Civil Rights Commission, and I would think it would probably be unwise to give the President of the United States that kind of power because it could start in one state and for one reason or another it might be moved to another state which was not measuring up as the President would like to see it measure up in one way or another."

Yet, without the grant of any such authority by Congress, this is exactly what the President proclaimed last autumn as an administration power when he addressed the voters of certain states and urged them to vote for Democratic candidates.

Why is any law on the subject necessary if the President feels he already has the discretionary authority anyway?

In this connection, Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, Republican, in a speech to the Senate a few weeks ago reviewing the award of various contracts, said:

"I have been deeply concerned by statements during the 1962 political campaign, as well as recurring press reports, which tend to confirm this feeling that politics, influence and other extraneous considerations are involved in the selection of contractors. Unfortunately, the President himself in several statements he made in the heat of last fall's campaign has done nothing to dispel this concern.

CAN HANDLE PROBLEM

As for a specific grant of authority to punish Mississippi, the President made it clear last Friday that he doesn't want from Congress the authority to make "a general wholesale cutoff of federal expenditures, regardless of the purpose for which they were being spent, as a disciplinary action on the State of Mississippi."

This probably is because he feels he can handle the problem by the use of the "discretionary powers" his administration has already exercised without any law by Congress.

The administration probably could exercise more leverage without a law containing specific directives.

Certainly when the steel price hike was made a year ago, the secretary of defense immediately began examining defense contracts with certain steel companies, and, amid hints of cancellation, this was given wide publicity as a threat in the event that the price raise wasn't withdrawn.

The President in his speech last Friday reiterated that wage and price stability — even without a wage-and-price-control law — are "the President's business." He enumerated the effects of economic changes on the "public interest."

Mr. Kennedy was right in saying that all such problems are necessarily the President's concern, and he has every justification for speaking out publicly on this or any other subject.

Bob Considine Says:

City of London's Mayor Is Typically Courteous

LONDON — Come along and visit an unswervingly courteous couple, Sir Ralph and Lady Perring. Sir Ralph is the 635th elected Lord Mayor of the City of London, certainly one of the oldest, smallest, richest cities in Christendom.

CONSIDINE

Mansion House lies deep in the crowded City of London, the old city whose Roman-built wall discouraged William the Conqueror and persuaded him in 1068 A.D., if memory serves, to give its 10,000 brave inhabitants the status of free men.

London's "city" covers hardly 800 acres in which are planted hosts of the world's most prominent and bustling banks, insurance companies, brokerages, shipping offices and the like.

But once a person steps inside the time-stained mansion he is in a quiet, gracious home that has sheltered lord mayors since 1752.

Being Lord Mayor of the City of London is a bit different than being mayor of an American city, Sir Ralph explained.

He receives no pay; merely an allowance which covers the expenses of running the household and participating in the endless rounds of public functions. His term is limited to a year.

As an alderman he must carry on with his magistrate's duties, and for this role he is provided with a courtroom built right in the mansion — and a built-in prison that can hold six felons.

His sentences, like those of other aldermen-magistrates, have a six-month maximum, though he can impose a two-count sentence that would involve a year in prison for the guilty.

Sir Ralph, who looks a bit like a British Harry Truman, said, "There is an appeals court which meets four times a year, but we don't hear of many over-rulings on legal grounds.

"I have no legal training as such, but 80 per cent of our law is pretty much a matter of common sense."

One of Sir Ralph's more colorful duties consists of granting Queen Elizabeth II "permission" to enter the city, a ceremony dating back to the ancient days when the city was in effect a sovereign state into which a reigning British monarch might enter at his risk.

Sir Ralph dons his ornate and medieval chain of office, picks up the magnificent "pearl sword" which Elizabeth I presented to the city in 1571, and advances to meet the monarch whose business or pleasure it is to have come to the city from Buckingham or Windsor.

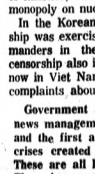
Sir Ralph holds out the sword, the Queen touches it, and she then passes on.

In Washington:

Seek Formula for Censorship

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON (NEA)— Chairman John E. Moss, D-Calif., will take his Government Information subcommittee into executive session April 26 for closed door hearings on what the White House Office of Emergency Planning and the Department of Defense plan to do about censorship.



EDSON

The general impression is that such planning as has been done is now pretty well out-of-date. It is believed to be based on World War II experience when there was no enemy attack on the U.S. mainland, when there were no rockets or missiles, when America had a monopoly on nuclear weapons.

In the Korean war all censorship was exercised by field commanders in the Pacific. Field censorship also is being exercised now in Viet Nam, and there are complaints about that.

Government attempts at news management over the U2 and the first and second Cuba crises created only confusion. These are all local affairs. There is no established policy for dealing with them, either.

If one of these limited wars should lead to another world war, it is recognized that the United States would become an active theater of operations.

That would mean military field censorship right here at home, all over.

There would have to be news management such as this country has never dreamed of. And a lot of people wouldn't like it.

The office of emergency planning has been working on a new censorship code since the mid-1950s. Its Government Readiness Office, now under Robert Y. Phillips, has drafted a plan for setting up a stand-by, voluntary censorship code for imposition whenever the President declares a national emergency or state of war. Byron Price, Office of Censorship director in World War II, has been consultant to OEP in this work.

The draft has been revised from time to time, the last revision being dated February 1963. It is a seven-page typewritten document.

The main headings covered are war plans, attacks on the U.S., location or movement of U.S. armed forces, ships, aircraft, missiles and satellites, fortifications, defense production, military intelligence, and so on.

The general principles set forth would govern all civil news media.

Department of Defense planning for military censorship is much more comprehensive. The Pentagon had a censorship planning committee at work from 1955 through April 1961. The committee was then abolished after it had made final revisions on "Department of Defense Directive 5200.1, Safeguarding Official Information in the Interests of Defense of the U.S., May 29, 1959." This has been declassified.

Further planning then was turned over to the Office of Plans and Programs for Public Affairs, now under Col. F. M. O'Neil and the Assistant General Counsel for Manpower, now Frank A. Bartimo.

This planning now calls for the military to exercise censorship until such time as a civilian agency could be set up, staffed and organized to issue its own regulations.

It is recognized that this might take as long as a year, but the hope is that it would be done in much less time. Having a reserve staff ready for this job is an OEP responsibility.

Until this reserve could take over, the military would exercise full control.

The Pentagon would continue to run field censorship, postal and travel movements and all telecommunications, including radio and television broadcasting channels. This is the same set-up as in World War II.

None of this planning, however, covers censorship for emergencies arising from the cold war. That is another of the great gaps Moss and his committee are interested in closing.

When President Kennedy first addressed the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington two years ago, he suggested a voluntary plan for restraints in publishing news involving national security under cold war conditions. He got nothing.

Last month the Moss committee made a second effort to get a panel of newspapermen and broadcasters to come up with some constructive answers for this problem, without success.

Voice of the People:

Oklahoma Resident Writes About Press Editorial

Your editorial, "Michigan Dems Taking It Hard," has been reprinted in The Daily Oklahoman. You may be on firm ground in accusing "the current crop of Michigan Democrats" of "poor sportsmanship" for not accepting the new Michigan constitution in a graceful manner, but the editorial might have had more impact if you had stopped short of trying to make a pro-Republican federal case out of it.

You say "a lot of people think that Nixon was beaten by crooked counting. And yet the Republicans accepted the verdict, bowed before our new leader and graciously recognized defeat." Gee whiz — how do Republicans act when they get ungracious? After his defeat by President Kennedy, Nixon got recounts which failed to turn up any skullduggery. And your editorial will make many recall Nixon's very "unsportsmanlike" tirade to the press after he acknowledged defeat in California.

As long as Goldwater-type Republican spokesmen, Kennedy-hating right-wing editors, and John Birchers (both in and out of political office) keep referring to alleged "crooked" vote counting, people are going to go on thinking that poor sportsmanship is strictly nonpartisan.

"The more corrupt a man becomes, the more he expects to find corruption in others."

'Man Should Follow Only God's Laws'

God has economic laws as well as spiritual laws. God's laws will never be changed. God's laws are perfect, irrevocable and constructive. Man-made laws are deceitful, degrading, destructive, and have brought the world to the very brink of disaster. It's time for all mankind to stop and go in the opposite direction before it's too late.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Tuesday, April 23, the 113th day of 1963 with 252 more to follow.

The moon is new.

The morning stars are Venus and Saturn.

The evening stars are Mercury and Mars.

Those born today include James Buchanan, the 15th president of the United States, in 1791.

On this day in history:

In 1860, The Democratic National Convention opened in Charleston, S.C., but no candidates were nominated because of an interparty dispute.

In 1898, the United States asked for 125,000 volunteers to fight Spain.

In 1941, famed U.S. Aviator Charles Lindbergh, who opposed entry into World War II, told an American First Committee in New York City—"it is obvious that Britain is losing the war."

Teen Girls Drown in Israel Whirlpool

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP)—Eight teen-age girls were drowned in a whirlpool while swimming off Tel Aviv beach Monday, eyewitnesses reported. Ten other girls were taken to a hospital.

The girls were part of a group of 43 student teachers from a seminary at Beer Yaakov, south of Tel Aviv, who had taken the afternoon off from their studies to go swimming.

UAW Local President Won't Seek New Term

FLINT (AP) — M. Otis Bishop, president of Buick Local 599 of the United Auto Workers, said yesterday he will not seek a fifth two-year term because of poor health.

Bishop, a Buick employe since 1926, was absent from office for extended periods recently because of several heart attacks. He has held office longer than any of his predecessors.

Hussein Vows Never to Quit

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Vowing to defend his throne with his life, Jordan's young King Hussein says he will never step aside to ease the way for his country's entry into a new United Arab Republic.

"I will carry on my heritage as long as I live," the 27-year-old monarch said in a broadcast Monday night. "I am afraid of no one in this world except God. I will continue my way as a soldier."

Although he made no direct reference to the pro-Nasser riots Saturday which resulted in strict curfews and a reshuffling of his cabinet, the king warned his people against "agents, troublemakers and false patriots."

JORDAN COULD JOIN

Hussein said he would not stand in the way of Arab unity. But he suggested that Jordan's monarchy need not step aside for Jordan to join a union of Arab states.

About 2,000 students rioted in Jerusalem Saturday demanding Hussein's ouster and union of the kingdom with Syria, Iraq and Egypt in President Gamal Abdel Nasser's projected United Arab Republic. Four persons were reported killed and about 30 wounded. An estimated 80 to 90 persons were arrested for rioting or breaking the curfew.

With his Parliament dissolved, his great-uncle installed as premier and curfews imposed in Jerusalem and other trouble spots, Hussein appeared to have beaten off the latest pro-Nasser attempt on his throne.

Amman, the capital, was under military surveillance, but it remained open with business as usual.

In the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem, by contrast, shops were closed. The great gates of the city walls were shut. Government buildings and the radio broadcasting station were heavily guarded by Bedouin troops brought in from desert camps.

Military roadblocks closed off the Holy City and other communities west of the Jordan River from the desert highlands. Only foreigners and officials were let through. The holy places were almost empty.

Military units patrolled Jerusalem, Nablus, Jenin and Tulkarem to prevent new riots.

In Damascus, a Syrian spokesman said Syria, Iraq and Egypt are conferring about a joint stand against Israeli troops he said were massing along Jordan's frontier. He said the three nations would not stand by if Israel attempted to intervene in Jordan.

Israeli had denied charges that it was massing troops to take advantage of Jordan's internal troubles.

Reuther to Ask Chrysler, AMC for Early Talks

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther will meet with Chrysler Corp. officials Thursday and American Motors Corp. representatives Friday to discuss establishing a joint committee to study possible issues of the 1964 contract negotiations.

Reuther previously had met with General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Company and won their approval of his proposal for joint study committees to pave the way for 1964 negotiations.

The committees, which would have no bargaining power, would begin work July 1.

The world's commonest language, Northern Chinese, is spoken by about 460 million persons.

Burroughs' New File Faster Than a Wink

DETROIT (AP)—Burroughs Corp. said yesterday it has developed a new electronic disk file that is five times faster than any disk memory system currently available.

The file, which has a total capacity of 960 million characters, is designed for initial use with Burroughs B5000 and B200 series computers for the full range of data processing operations.

The company said any item of information stored in the file can be located in one-fiftieth of a second.

Junior Editors Quiz on CATS

QUESTION: How can a cat move her claws in and out?

ANSWER: Different groups of animals have developed different ways of getting food for themselves. Domestic cats may depend on their attractive personalities to get their human friends to feed them, but they still have the same equipment of teeth and claws which their wild relatives use in catching prey.

It is said that a lion, when he wants to kill an animal, first strikes it with the fifth or dew claw, which you can see in our pictures. This stuns it so the lion can easily kill it by biting.

In the first picture, the claws lie inside the paw between two pads of skin, where their keen edges can not be blunted. Puss can then walk on the pads of her feet without the claws touching anything.

In the upper middle picture we see how a tendon, pulling on the base of the claw, makes it stick right out from the foot. This is also seen in the Siamese cat tangled in a ball of yarn. Sitting quieting at the upper right, puss is keeping her precious claws well hidden and, in the lower left, is washing them carefully.

Cats like to scratch furniture to keep their claws sharp and clean. A "scratching post" of soft wood is good for them to use instead of valuable chair and table legs.

FOR YOU TO DO: Look at the fascinating mechanism of the cat's foot. If you will very gently press down on top of a cats foot while she's sitting on your lap the claws will spring out. Don't be rough about this or puss may be angry with you.

Neither Wind Nor Rain...

CHICAGO (AP) — Mrs. Carl J. Olson went to a neighbor's home in suburban Lincolnwood yesterday to thank him for his postcard mailed while vacationing in Colorado Springs, Colo.

"He looked at me kind of funny," said Mrs. Olson. "He said he hadn't been there in nine years."

Mrs. Olson and the neighbor, Elton Charleson, looked at the card again. The card, which arrived Monday, was postmarked July 4, 1954.

Castro Executes 12 for Attack on Mine

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—An exile group said Monday that 12 Cubans who participated in an attack on nickel mines near Mayare, Oriente, were shot by Fidel Castro's firing squads.

The Cuban Teachers Director-ate said that secret sources in Cuba reported a Soviet colonel participated in a tribunal that sentenced the 12 men March 28.

The prisoners had participated in a sabotage attempt on March 26 in which two Soviet guards and four Castro militiamen were killed, the directorate said.

State Seeking New Witness

Says Suspect Spotted With Murdered Boy

MUSKEGON (AP) — The prosecution sought to bring in a new witness today in the Circuit Court trial of Herman Barmore.

Prosecutor Harry J. Knudsen late yesterday moved to endorse Ralph Hardenburgh of Lakewood, who reportedly saw Barmore in company with 12-year-old Peter Gorham on July 5, 1955.

Barmore, 49, is charged with murder in the gunshot death of the Evanston, Ill., boy who vanished from a Duck Lake scout camp on the date in question.

Barmore was to have interviewed Hardenburgh after the court session yesterday before objecting or giving consent to the prosecutor's motion.

Knudsen said he learned of the witness last Wednesday for the first time. He informed Barmore after talking with Hardenburg last Saturday.

The new witness purports to have seen Barmore and the boy near the Hardenburgh home which is north and east of Duck Lake.

Knudsen said the man reportedly "talked with some detective" about the sighting soon after the boy was reported missing.

"I have a duty as prosecutor to present to the court all witnesses whether good or bad," he said in his motion before visiting Judge John H. VanderWal with the jury excused.

The judge said he would reserve an opinion until such time as Barmore has an opportunity to interview the witess.

The victim's father, Frederick A. Gorham of Evanston, Ill., testified yesterday as the prosecution near completion of its proof.

He described his slain son as "a very good boy."

Master Monster Scares Again

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—Lon Chaney is back in the scare business after a six-year lapse.

He is playing assistant warlock male witch to headman Vincent Price in another unearthing of Edgar Allen Poe's, "The Haunted Palace." The sponsor is American International, the company that brought you "House of Usher," "Pit and the Pendulum," "Premature Burial," "Tales of Terror" and "The Raven."

THOMAS

It always is a pleasure to have uninhibited Lon back at work, especially at the business he knows better than anyone else.

"I've played 'em all," said the craggy-faced actor. "Most of 'em were the second time around — Frankenstein, the Mummy, Dracula. But the Wolf Man was mine, all alone. I played him six times.

"They're all on television now, and you know something? I get more mail now than I got when those pictures were first made. Most of the letters ask when am I going to make some new ones."

WILLING BUT PARTICULAR

Lon is willing, but he has his own ideas about how such pictures should be made.

"All the best of the monsters played for sympathy," he explained. "That goes for my father, Karloff, myself and all the others. They all won the audience's sympathy. Why, the Wolf Man didn't want to do all those bad things; he was forced into them.

"The trouble with most of the monster pictures today is that they go after horror for horror's sake. There's no motivation for how the monsters behave. There's too much of that science fiction baloney."

Lon recalls with a touch of his own horror the 6½-hour makeup sessions for some of his monsters. He was known as a demon for punishment and on two occasions performed double duty.

"The first time was on 'Frankenstein Meets the Wolf Man,'" he was playing Frankenstein's monster, and it was evident after the first day or two that he didn't have the physical strength to handle the role.

PLAYED THEM BOTH

"So I played them both. I'd do a scene one day as Frankenstein talking to the Wolf Man, using the back of another actor's head. The next day I'd do the same scene as the Wolf Man."

"I did the same thing in 'Abbott and Costello meet Frankenstein.' Glenn Strange, who was playing the monster, broke his ankle on the second day of the picture, and I did both roles. Nobody ever knew about it, either time."

Nowadays, Lon is content to spend most of his time at his ranch at Warner Hot Springs in San Diego County, coming in Hollywood for an occasional film or television show.

"I've been acting for 57½ years; my father took me onstage at 6 months," said Lon. "I think I deserve a little rest. But I wouldn't mind just one more cycle to my career."

TV Series Producer Dies in Car Crash

OXNARD, Calif. (AP) — Thomas Harlan McKnight, producer of television's "McKeever and the Colonel," was killed last night in a head-on auto collision.

Amies Alumnae Set First General Meeting

Alumnae and Junior Auxiliary members of Amies Alumnae, Inc., will attend a tea Sunday from 2-4 p.m. at the James K. Boulevard home of Mrs. William Donnelly.

This will be the first general meeting of the alumnae since the group became a chartered organization.

Alumnae officers are: Mrs. James Gilmer, president; Mrs. Noyce Strait Jr., vice president; Mrs. William Dean, secretary; and Mrs. William Archambeau, treasurer.

Amies was founded in 1923 by the late Mrs. Henry Zimmerman with eight members. Their main objective was sewing.

Later, the women branched out into other activities and added new members. At the present time, the work is both philanthropic and social.

Mrs. Arthur Scott and Mrs. William Brace are sponsors of the auxiliary.

Personal News Notes

Pontiac guests attended the dinner and horse show co-sponsored by the Culver Club of Greater Detroit and the Bloomfield Open Hunt Club Saturday night.

They included Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Oliver, West Iroquois Road, and the Robert B. Olivers Jr., Menominee Road. Mrs. Frederick Holmes, Oneida Road was also a guest.

Mrs. Merrill D. Petrie, Cherokee Road, has returned to her home after a trip to the Orient and Hawaii. She was accompanied by her daughter, Marcia Petrie of San Francisco.

★ ★ ★ ★

Mrs. Harry Stowell of Elizabeth Lake Road has returned from a five-month vacation in Bradenton, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Gilmour Winn of South Pemberton Road have returned from a two-week stay at the Sun Castle Club, Pompano Beach, Fla. Mrs. Winn's sister, Mrs. Philip Hoops of Chicago, is expected Wednesday for a visit.

Hubby's Food-Sniffing Habit Irritates His Good-Cook Wife

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband has a habit that is slowly driving me crazy. He always smells his food before tasting it.

No matter where we are he gets his nose down in the plate and starts to sniff. We can be eating at home, dining out or be guests in someone's home.

It makes no difference. Our children have started to pick up the habit. I'm a very good cook and when I ask him why he does this, he just laughs. Any suggestions?

AGGRAVATED

DEAR AGGRAVATED: The habit probably originated years before your husband ever met you, and is no reflection on your cooking.

It must not be a very pretty sight, but the only way you'll ever put a stop to it is to ask him please to cut it out, because it irritates you.

DEAR ABBY: The girl signed "Fed Up" could have been me two years ago. I, too, was 16, and fed up with my home, so I quit school, ran away and got married.

My marriage has lasted two years and I have a baby boy. I will make this marriage last forever because I won't hurt this man on account of my foolish mistake.

What is two more years of staying home and finishing school compared to 60 years of marriage with someone you don't love?

I've hurt no one but myself. I hope my experience will help someone else who considers marrying just to get out of the house.

Others include Mrs. W. Edwin Mosher Jr., Birmingham, Mrs. Arthur W. Chewning, Royal Oak, and Mrs. Kenneth Roose, Rochester.

Golden Agers Entertained by 'The Swingers'

The combined groups of Golden Agers of the Pontiac YWCA were entertained by "The Swingers" at their monthly dessert luncheon this afternoon.

Hostess chairman Mrs. Marcus Scott worked with Mrs. Merle McManus, Mrs. Howard Reeves, Mrs. Arthur Hoban, Agnes Hilton, Mrs. Everett Russell and Mrs. Emma Kirby.

Announce Twins

Mr. and Mrs. David M. Zamek, Sutherland Street, announce the birth of twin sons April 14. The boys have been named Scott Harvey and Mark Jeffrey.

Black Hills Honeymoon Follows Wedding Vows

The Gary Fay Lessels left for a honeymoon in the Black Hills of South Dakota following their marriage Saturday in All Saints Episcopal Church.

The former Patricia Ann Rahja, daughter of the Edward M. Rahjas, Voorheis Road, chose white bouquet taffeta and Alencon lace, styled with chapel train.

Martha Arlene Rahja, her sister's maid of honor, appeared in azure blue taffeta. In identical ensembles were bridesmaids Betty Boone, Nadine Morris, Sherry Drinkwater and Pamela Tibbetts.

They carried nosegays of sweetheart roses.

Ervin V. Jones, Ferndale, was best man for the bridegroom, son of the Fay R. Lessels of Ledgestone Drive.

Ushers included the bride's brother Martin and John and James Baldwin, as well as Gary Bramble, Terre Haute, Ind.

The couple will reside in Royal Oak.

Pair Exchanges Vows

Donna Palazini exchanged vows Saturday with Dennis Fremont Alden before Rev. Richard A. Schoenherr. The wedding was held in St. Benedict's Church.

A breakfast in Rotunda Inn and a reception in the Orchard Lake Road home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson J. Palazini, followed the ceremony.

Patricia Loria of Detroit attended her former Central Michigan University roommate and Joseph Sharpe was best man.

The bridegroom's brother Douglas seated guests at the informal ceremony.

The couple will live on South Marshall Street.

Don't Open Presents in Restaurant

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: A friend of mine invited ten couples to dinner in a restaurant to celebrate her 21st birthday. All those invited brought gifts and after dinner she proceeded to open them at the table.

Was this correct? I think not, but another friend said that you have always advised that gifts be opened in the presence of the givers.

But does this hold true in a public place?

A: Opening gifts in the presence of the givers is the polite and proper thing to do. However, at a party in a public restaurant, this could cause a considerable amount of conspicuous confusion and in this case it is better to put them aside and open them later.

Q: Several weeks ago I telephoned a friend and asked if she was going to be home Saturday evening as we were thinking of going to see them.

She said she was very sorry but they had another engagement. She did not set another time and we haven't heard from her since.

My husband suggested going to see them this coming Sunday. I refuse to go as I feel that if she really wanted us to visit them she would have called and set a definite date. Am I right?

A: In the situation you describe, I think you are perfectly right in waiting for her to telephone and invite you and your husband to visit them.

Who pays for what at the wedding? The new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Wedding Expenses," answers this question in detail. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Emily Post Institute, in care of The Pontiac Press.

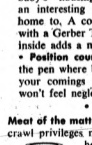
Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5



When your baby begins to creep he may rebel a bit at the playpen but there will still be times when you'll want baby to stay put. How to keep your scoot-about happy after he's had a taste of freedom? These tips may be helpful:

• Time element. If you reserve pen times for baby's most contented times, he probably won't resent it.

• Toy trickery. A few different toys for each session help keep baby's "housing development" an interesting place to come home to. A covered saucepan with a Gerber Teething Biscuit inside adds a nice surprise.

• Position counts. By placing the pen where baby can watch your comings and goings, he won't feel neglected.

Meat of the matter. A baby with crawl privileges needs protein to help develop those muscles he's using more and more. Gerber Strained Meats provide protein galore in the smoothest form that ever summoned up a baby's smile. Made from special cuts selected by Armour, these quality meats are low in fat for easy digestibility . . . great on true-meat flavors for ready acceptability. 9 varieties . . . 5 junior meats for tots with teeth.

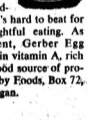
Safety measures for fourwalkers. Creepers make a beeline for bright objects so be sure to scan the floor for pins, buttons, etc. Iron and toaster cords should not be left a-dangle. Floor fans or heaters are a hazard.



Sunny-side up for creepers, lap-sitters or high-chair heroes and heroines. Gerber Strained Egg Yolks are bright as a splash of sunshine . . . have a delicate, fresh-egg flavor and creamy, custard-like texture that's hard to beat for downright delightful eating. As for nourishment, Gerber Egg Yolks are high in vitamin A, rich in iron and a good source of protein. Gerber Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

Get What You Want in New Refrigerator

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

MARY FEELEY

We don't have to chose between model A and model B — we have our pick of models X, Y and Z also.

But sometimes, this very abundance leads to our undoing. For we just can't make up our minds!

Of course, some hardy characters know what they want from the day they're born.

But most of us have to worry around a while with the pros and cons.

I'm constantly being reminded just how much careful thought should be given, for instance, to the purchase of a major household appliance.

People complain that they spent too much, or that they chose the wrong kind, or that they haven't the money to buy "the best."

So today let's consider, specifically, your new refrigerator — the one you haven't bought yet. There are several general types, even though there may be endless styles and sizes.

There's the conventional refrigerator that does not include a true freezer compartment. There's the combination refrigerator - freezer, in which the refrigerator portion defrosts automatically.

Then there's the combination where both refrigerator and freezer sections defrost automatically. Each type has various bonuses to offer.

Instead of relying on Eenie, Meenie, Minie, Moe, to make your decision, just recall what makes you maddest about the old box you have!

Not enough room to store frozen foods as you'd like to? No place to put all the bottled products?

Do you run out of ice cubes in the middle of a party? No room for the left - over roast? Too many left-overs spoiled because you can't see way back in there on the lower shelves?

No time to defrost because you're busy in the office all day — and company drops in on weekends?

Your irritation may lead you to the right choice quicker than all the brochures you can collect! At any rate, that's a starting point for further consideration.

You'll know whether pull-out revolving shelves are more important than large ice cube capacity. Or whether a shelf-door is more necessary to your happiness than more freezer space.

When you come to the model that combines the most of what you want, hang on to it! If you can possibly afford it, that's the best buy for you.

* * * *

Remember, you're going to have to live with it. The fewer compromises you have to make, the more satisfied you'll be.

If you're a bride, choosing your first refrigerator, don't be swayed by price alone, or by sleek styling. A box may fit into your kitchen and into your budget — but not into your way of life.

Take into consideration your food shopping habits, how much you expect to entertain, how many mouths you may reasonably expect to feed during the next 8 or 10 years.

Whatever you buy, buy from a reliable store. Also, give a thought to possible future repairs.

Is there someone in your area who can service the refrigerator you choose? That one factor has influenced the final decision in many a sale.

You can obtain Mary Feely's budget saver leaflet by writing her in care of The Pontiac Press, enclosing self-addressed, stamped long envelope.

Say Vows in Rochester

St. Paul's Methodist Church in Rochester was the setting for the Saturday marriage of Mrs. Sandra Brown Stasiak to Roy Joseph Dabbs. Rev. J. Douglas Parker officiated.

Francine Gidcumb was her sister's maid of honor and Jane Legg was bridesmaid. Frank Reschke was best man.

Ushering for their brother were Ted and William Dabbs. They are the sons of Mrs. Blanche Dabbs of Washington Street and the late William Dabbs.

Following a Canadian wedding trip, the couple will be at home on Lynsue Lane.

The new Mrs. Dabbs is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University.

St. Vincent Is Setting for Nuptial

Rev. Thompson L. Marcero officiated at the morning nuptials of Virginia Grimaldi and David LaFay, Saturday, in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

The bride is the daughter of the Antonio Grimaldis of Lexington Place. The Louis LaFays of Tubbs Road are the bridegroom's parents.

Pink carnations complemented turquoise taffeta dresses for Emma Grimaldi, her sister's honor maid, also bridesmaids Mrs. Antonio Grimaldi Jr. and Candy Scarpelli, Detroit.

The Italian-American Club was the setting for the wedding breakfast and evening reception. After a Canadian honeymoon, the newlyweds will live in Pontiac.

MRS. DAVID LaFAY

Flower Care Is Covered

A program on the care and feeding of roses was presented to members of Pine Lake Branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Mrs. John Mager of St. Joseph Road and Mrs. Frank Grosse were cohostesses at Thursday's meeting.

Before His Acting Date

'Maverick' Star Long Meandered Around the World

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Some men go to school to become actors. Others read books, cultivate agents, paint scenery in summer stock, dream and struggle for a break.

James Garner did none of these.

PHYLLIS BATTELLE

He got to be an actor by not wanting to be an actor and saying so. At age 18, he was offered a movie lead and turned it down ("I didn't want to have anything to do with actors — they were a bunch of nuts.")

Instead, he traveled the world as an able-bodied seaman, became the first Korean soldier from his home state of Oklahoma, worked as a carpet-layer, a telephone linesman, a gas station attendant.

Finally, when Garner was 25, he realized he had no future.

"All I had was what I was: A quarter-century of age, a face, and whatever brains I had."

So when old Oklahoma buddy Paul Gregory suggested he take an acting job, he gave up carpet-laying and joined the bunch of nuts.

"One of the best things ever happened to me was waiting till I was 25 to become an actor," Garner says.

"It gave me a chance to see the world, and to study the reactions of people. I guess that's always been my hobby—watching how someone of a certain age and locale would react to a given situation, as compared with someone else of different temperament and different locale.

"It gives you common sense, and I'm a firm believer in common sense. If I had my choice of common sense and book-learning, I'd take common sense—for an actor or anybody else."

Today Garner is about to be the greatest movie idol since — well, the movie industry says, Cary Grant.

To be released this summer are two romantic comedies with Doris Day and Lee Remick, "Boys' Night Out" and "The Wheeler Dealers," and a spectacular drama, "The Great Escape."

Garner laughs at the Cary Grant comparison ("I wish they'd tell me about these things; I haven't even been combing my hair like him.")

But he doesn't care for it ("I don't want to be anybody's image; suppose I gave my image to somebody—who'd take it?")

The image he cannot escape, and isn't really trying to, is that of "Maverick," the television role he made famous and then fought Warner Brothers legally to get out of.

"Let's face it, 'Maverick' did an awful lot for me," he said.

"For two years I was pleased with the show. It was nothing to be ashamed of, but the last year I did it, the third year, it was very bad and I could see it dying.

"I had to get out because the average viewer, when a series is dying says, 'I've had it with 'Maverick' — which also means, 'I've had it with Jim Garner.' I didn't want that to happen."

But the glib, slightly larcenous personality of "Maverick" remains in the minds of movie producers to the point where most of the roles he's offered now have similar personalities.

He doesn't mind. It's a highly saleable personality.

As this interview ended, I wished Jim Garner good luck.

"Thanks," he grinned. "And don't think that isn't what makes an actor. I've been so lucky in this business.

"The first luck I had was not getting in it until I was 25. Then I just made lucky decisions.

"Good trip?"

"Not a speck of trouble!"

Four hundred miles is a long way for a lady to drive . . . alone. That's why she put her trust in Filtered AMERICAN® Brand Gasolines. For the American FINAL/FILTER is the final step to assure you that both AMERICAN Gasolines are free of contaminants that seldom used to be a problem—but could stop your car cold today. Filtered Gasolines with M_2P G—available only at Standard or American Oil Dealers—one more reason why millions can say "not a speck of trouble!"

The American FINAL/FILTER

A Gasoline Improvement You Can Actually See!

CHICAGO—(Special) When American Oil Company developed the American FINAL/FILTER for the gasoline pump nozzles at Standard Oil Stations, it unleashed a hurricane of public curiosity. For instance, "How can we be sure we're actually getting filtered gasoline?" To answer this question, Dr. Philip White, General Manager, Research and Development of American Oil Co., now reveals the "inside" details on this gasoline improvement you can actually see. "When you hear the gasoline flow into your tank, you can count on it being filtered gasoline. Here's why: The filter unit inside the bright red American FINAL/FILTER is designed to stop the flow of gasoline if the filter element is not in place. In other words, no filter—no gasoline," Dr. White said.

Automatic Shut-off

is in its proper position. "Furthermore," stated White, "the unit has been thoroughly tested and meets the rigid Underwriters' Laboratories approved requirements."

Element is Disposable

Another interesting feature of the American FINAL/FILTER is the fact that the specially-treated micronic filter element is disposable. Standard Oil Dealers change the element every 90 days or sooner if needed. Dr. White said, "As carburetors and fuel-line systems grow more complex, the problem of tiny contaminants which clog up fuel-line filters becomes most important. American Oil was the first company in the United States to recognize the need for filtered gasoline, and we did something about it."

Customer Benefits

Reports from all over the country indicate enthusiastic customer reaction to the benefits that go with filtered gasoline. One service station dealer said, "My customers go out of their way to tell me how much better their cars run on filtered gasoline." One man, who operates a fleet of limousines, has not had to replace a single fuel-line filter in over a year—ever since he started using filtered AMERICAN® Gasolines.

Tigers on Pogo Stick, Drop to 2nd Division

Bengals Lose 5-0 Lead in Kansas City Setback

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

KANSAS CITY—Yawn. The Tigers are on that pogo stick again. They were defeated by the A's last night, 6-5, just when they seemed ready to be on their way to becoming pennant contenders again.

The club that everyone picked to finish second—is second all right—second division.

What can you do about a club that dropped three out of four to Boston (shame) and whipped the Yankees in two out of two games (no other team can make that statement!)?

Maybe the Tigers were dazzled by the new green and gold uniforms of the Kansas City club.

The Bengals are 1½ games back of Baltimore, the junior circuit's league leader.

The loss was a shocker for Manager Bob Scheffing who thought his worries about declining batting averages were over when the Tigers jumped on Kansas City starter Norm Bass for five runs in the first inning.

The Tigers, however, failed to score after that and the A's roared back to tie the game in the eighth and won it on Ed Charles' two-out single in the last of the ninth.

With a fat lead, Mossi held the A's to two runs and appeared headed to his third victory against no losses until Kansas City struck again for two more runs in the seventh.

Scheffing pulled Mossi in favor of Terry Fox, but the reliever lasted only 1⅔ innings by that time the A's had tied it up.

Dick Egan, the third Tiger hurler, retired the first two A's in the ninth, but then Wayne Causey and Gino Cimoli singled and Charles drove in the winning run.

FOUR HITS

Causey's hit, which started the game-winning rally, was his fourth in five times at bat. He tripled in two runs in the seventh.

The A's first run came in the fourth inning when Cimoli tripled and scored on a force out by Norm Siebern. The tying run off Fox came in the eighth when Jerry Lumpe singled Siebern home.

The Tigers scored their runs on three hits, four walks, two stolen bases and a sacrifice fly. Egan took the loss—his first against no victories — and Fischer picked up the win—his second straight of the season.

Scheffing will send Phil Regan to the mound today for the second game of the Tigers' series with Kansas City.

Heavy Match Slated Again

Title Fight Is Reset for Vegas, June 27th

NEW YORK (AP) — The off-and-on rematch between Sonny Liston and Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight title is on again today, in Las Vegas June 27.

Liston's advisor, Jack Nilon, has agreed to the date and site "with reluctance," he said at his home in Chester, Pa.

"That's right, the title fight is going to be in Las Vegas June 27," a Liston sparring partner, Fondea Cox, said in Denver.

Liston, also in Denver, was not available for comment.

Nilon didn't spell out the reluctance, but the chances were that he wanted the fight held in Baltimore, where he is the leading concessions man.

However, under the contract for the first fight in which Liston took the title on a one-round knockout, Patterson has the right to pick the date and site of the rematch.

KNEE INJURY

Patterson first selected Miami Beach April 4, but after a three-week postponement that site was finally abandoned, officially because Liston claimed he had hurt his left knee while swinging a golf coub for a photographer.

Officials of Championship Sports Inc., were reported in Las Vegas today, looking over Convention Center as a possible site.

No Golf Victories for Local Teams

St. Fred and Orchard Lake St. Mary golfers battled nip and tuck in their first Suburban Catholic League match yesterday and nothing was settled in match or medal play.

When match play ended among four players, they split two matches each. Totalling up medal score resulted 184-184.

Pontiac Northern and Pontiac Central weren't fortunate enough to even get a tie. Both were defeated. PNH to Southfield, 209-228 and PCH lost in a triangular at Flint to Flint Central and Midland, Flint Central won 9-6 over PCH and Midland defeated the Chiefs, 12½ to 2½. Midland then won over Flint, 9-6.

Medalist in the parochial match was Chuck Dean with 43. Against PNH, Dick Meuthal and Rick Marshall had 39 for Southfield and Dennis Smith 43 for Northern. Chuck Hawes was best for PCH with 95.

4 State Golfers Enter 2nd Round

From Our Wire Services

PINEHURST, N.C. — Four Michigan golfers advanced into the second round of the North-South Amateur golf tournament today as two other state linksters fell by the wayside in the opening round.

Dick Whiting of Southfield and Pete Green of Birmingham were easy victors, while Glenn Johnson of Grosse Ile and Ben Smith of Birmingham were winners by closer margins.

Whiting walloped John Jennings of Milwaukee, 7 and 6 and today he will face Ed Mauro of Cranston, R.I. Green was a 6 and 5 victor over Robert Hogg of Philadelphia and today he is paired against Ray Terry of Jacksonville, Fla., a former major league baseball player.

Johnson won over Jimmy Raines of Augusta, 2 and 1 and Smith was a 2-up winner of Dr. Wendell Aldrich of Angola, Ind.

Losing yesterday were Dr. Fritz Adams of Birmingham to William Hamilton of Anniston, Ala., 6 and 4 and Dave Macharg of Dearborn to Denny Lyons of Jamestown, N.Y., 6 and 5.

Johnson meets Bob Johnson of Charleston, W. Va., and Smith faces Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., today.

Former champion Frank Stracci of Miami, the last man to win consecutive titles in 1938-39, was defeated by Terry who unloaded six birdies in a 5 and 4 victory.

HOME STATE WINNERS

Among the list of victors were such notable home-state names as Charlie Smith of Bastonia; Billy Joe Patton, defending champion; Daley Morey, the 1953 U.S. Amateur runnerup to Patton and Bill Aldridge, three-handicap entry from Raleigh.

Longest match of the day went 24 holes with A. D. Dorsett of Salisbury, N.C. winning from Bob Wallace of Virginia Beach, Va.

Patton started the tournament on an explosive upset note before he pulled out the throttle on the back nine to defeat Joe King of Anniston, Ala., 2-up.

MICHIGAN RESULTS

Peter Green, Birmingham, defeated Robert Hogg, Philadelphia, 6 and 5.

R. W. Corley, Jackson, defeated Dr. William Alexander, Hopewell, Va., 5 and 4.

Waterford Nine Defeats PCH; Kettering Loses

In weather that even football coaches would frown upon, Waterford defeated Pontiac Central's baseball team and Kettering took one on the chin from Romeo yesterday afternoon.

The Central-Skippers clash was a top pitching duel for five and a half inning before Stan Grant broke up a scoreless tie with a two-run triple to deep right-centerfield in the home team's sixth time at bat.

Grant and Paul Moran scored also in the inning to enable Waterford's sophomore pitcher Larry McGuffey to coast in with a 4-0 victory, his first on the Skippers' varsity.

McGuffey, a big right-hander, hurled three-hit ball, and walked no one to best PCH lefty Bob Farms who had a no-hitter until the fifth. Waterford is 3-1 for the season.

Romeo erupted for six runs in each of the first two innings at Kettering to win its Tri-County League opener, 13-6.

Sparking the Bulldogs' attack was Bernie McCoy with a three-run first inning home run. Ed Weber and Ron Mignot also had three rbi's in the game to help Mark Johnson square his season's record at 1-1.

Ron Carlson's triple featured the three-run fourth inning of the Captains who lost their fourth straight this season.

Capac's Petz Hurls No-Hitter at Marysville

Dan Petz' strikeout average nosedived yesterday, but the Capac lefthander more than made up for it by hurling a no-hitter at Marysville.

He also drove in the initial run in the first inning as Capac upped its record to 3-1 with a 7-0 victory.

Petz, who had a strikeout average of 12 a game, fanned six. He walked two and his teammates made two errors.

Ken Adamski doubled in the first inning and Petz singled him home with what proved to be the winning run. Three Marysville errors helped Capac score four times in the third and the Chieftains scored two more in the fourth when they stole four bases.

Milford, Clarkston Defeated

Three-Way Tie in W-O League

The league leaders took it on the chin and there was an abbreviated no-hitter in Wayne-Oakland baseball action yesterday.

Milford and Clarkston started the day tied for first with 3-0 records. Before nightfall, Northville had made it a three-way jam by whipping Clarkston 8-1 while Bloomfield Hills was disposing of Milford, 4-1.

Holly's Galyle Reyerson stopped Clarence without a hit as the Broncos won 6-0. The game was called after six and two-third innings because of rain. Don Dixon fired a two-hitter and Bill Eliason supplied the muscle as West Bloomfield jolted Brighton 2-0.

Joe Hay led Northville (3-1) with three hits, including a homer.

John Augustin hurled a strong four-hitter for Bloomfield Hills (2-2). He fanned 12 and hit one batter while walking one.

His opponent, Ed Sparkman, yielded 12 hits, but fanned 14 Barons, several in tight situations.

The Barons scored once in the second on Bruce Perkins' double and a single by Dick Janz. A throwing error let in the second BHHS run in the third. Marshall Sherba singled home a tally in the fourth and Mike Miller's single drove in Augustin, who had tripled in the sixth.

LONE RUN

Milford's lone run was scored in the fifth on an error, hit batter and Bill Clinard's double.

Ryerson walked two and struckout two.

Mike Howard doubled home two runs in the third and Dick Krause and Ron Roeder each had RBI singles in the fifth for Holly (2-2). Clarenceville (0-4) errors produced the last two runs in the sixth.

A first inning Brighton error was followed by Elison's line drive homer over the 320-foot mark to give West Bloomfield (2-2) all the runs it needed. Dixon fanned six and walked two. Joe Kearns of Brighton (1-3) gave up three hits and wiffed 10.

Dual Meet Skein Ends for Dragons

Lake Orion's track domination of the Oakland A League came to an end yesterday when the Dragons were edged by Madison, 58 1-6 to 50 5-6.

Lake Orion had won 19 straight dual meets, all but one in the league, going into yesterday's meet. The Dragons won six firsts on the wet track.

Bill Dunn in the pole vault, Martin Townsend, mile; Frank Ochoa, 100; Rick Fields, 440; Ron Case, high hurdles; and the 880 relay team won for Orion. Dale Zabawa ran a 2:06 half mile for Madison.

Milford won in a downpour with John Jackson taking the high hurdles, Harold Faught, 880; Steve Skinner, 440; Jim McFarland, low hurdles, mile; Harry Jones, shot (47-6); and Dennis Flynn, high jump.

American Swimmers Set Records

Teens Aid U.S. Prestige in Pan-Am Games

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP)—If it weren't for the teen-agers, Uncle Sam's Pan American Games contingent might be just a little bit shame-faced.

For the second straight day the U.S. got a rude shock, this time when tennis ace Frank Froehling, a doddering 21, was upset in men's singles. And for the second straight day the kids bailed out the team's prestige.

Three American teen-agers—Carl Robie, Don Schollander and Terri Lee Stickles — swept to games records in swimming qualifications Monday and put the U.S. team in a dominating position for tonight's finals.

The young U.S. swimming team now has broken five records in the prelims and is odds-on to gain a flock of gold medals in tonight's finals, highlight of the fourth day of activity in the 16-day carnival.

Though humbled by Cuba's 13-1 baseball rout two days ago and surprised by Froehling's upset, the U.S. still holds a good lead in the gold medal race with four, two each in judo and weightlifting.

Anthony Garcy, York, Pa., was the only U.S. gold medal winner Monday, hoisting a record 837.9 pounds in the lightweight weightlifting.

DEADEYE SHOOTER

Other new gold medal winners were Argentina fencer Guillermo Saucedo in men's individual foils and Venezuelan Enrice Forecrila in carbine prone shooting.

The U.S. women's basketball team, topped by Joan Crawford's 14 points, won its opener over Chile, 72-44.

In an administrative move, the Pan American Sports Organization approved Winnipeg, Canada, as the site of the fifth Pan-Am Games in 1967, the first time the games have been held in Canada.

Sao Paulo's cool fall evenings first were regarded by officials as too cold for the four scheduled nights of swimming competition.

But Monday the Americans warmed the cool pool waters with three meet records. The day before, Uncle Sam's youngsters had set two meet marks in trials.

Now, there is little talk of pressing for a change to afternoon sessions.

The latest trio of new Pan-Am records was set by two 17-year-old lads and a 16-year-old girl.

Robie, Philadelphia schoolboy, fluttered to a record smashing 2:14.5 heat victory in the 200 meter men's butterfly. Schollander, also 17, from Santa Clara, Calif., whipped through his 400 meter free style heat in a record 4:29.4.

NATIONAL CHAMP

Large Turnout Watches

HOLLY — More than 3,000 persons turned out Sunday to watch 27 teams take part in the third annual Holly to Fenton canoe race.

Nine teams were entered in the junior division; seven in the novice division and 11 in the senior division.

Best time for the race was turned in by the team of Stan Hall, 25, Oscoda, and Jerry Lauwers, 24, Tawas. They won the senior division with a time of one hour, 27 minutes and 10 seconds over the Shiawassee river.

Runner-up in the senior division was the team of Albert Widing, 35, Holly, and Pat Widing, 28, Holly.

The junior division was won by Doug Funk, 14, Ossinek, and Rod Gillings, 13, Prescott. Mike Miles, 15, Oscoda, and Doug McDougall, 15, Glenne, were second.

In the novice division, first place was won by Arthur Hill, 17, St. Clair Shores, and Jim St. John, 17, also of St. Clair Shores. Runnersup were Chuck Hennigar, 15, Oscoda, and Art MacNee, 16, Oscoda.

The race was sponsored by the Holly and Fenton chambers of commerce.

The land distance between Holly and Fenton is about five miles. But the canoists had to make several portages around obstacles to complete the race.

Giants Belted by Pinch Home Run

By The Associated Press

Jerry Lynch, who sits on it most of the time, can tell you all about good wood.

And today he can tell about the good wood he applied to a Jack Sanford pitch Monday night, belting the 12th pinch-hit homer of his career and triggering a five-run eighth-inning rally that gave Cincinnati a 7-4 victory over San Francisco.

A 32-year-old left-handed swinger whose amazing ability to connect as a pinch hitter often has kept him from playing regularly, Lynch is only two pinch-hit homers away from the record 14 hit by George Crowe with the Braves, Reds and Cardinals.

Lynch's key hit against Sanford, the Giants' 24-game winner, was his 72nd in 245 at-bats as an emergency swinger for the Reds, and hiked his pinch-hit average to .294. Besides the homers, he has collected nine doubles and two triples, while driving in 60 runs.

TIED SCORE

Lynch's homer against the Giants tied the score 3-3. One out later Frank Robinson hit a two-run homer that put the Reds ahead to stay on a night when the big bats put the rap on the National League's mightiest arms.

Hank Aaron collected the 1,000th run batted in of his career with a third inning single and joined Eddie Mathews and Dennis Menke as homer hitters in Milwaukee's 10-2 walloping of the Los Angeles Dodgers and 25-game winner Don Drysdale.

Meanwhile, Pittsburgh's 2-0 victory over the Chicago Cubs, coupled with the Giants loss, left the Pirates in first place by percentage points. San Francisco and St. Louis, which defeated Houston 5-2, are tied for the runner-up spot. In the other game, Philadelphia ended the New York Mets winning streak at four games 8-6.

The Giants led 3-1 going into the eighth and Sanford, winner of his first three games, was working on a four-hitter when Eddie Kasko walked. Lynch, hitting for Don Blasingame, took a ball, over the right field fence.

Gordy Coleman followed with a single and Robinson hit one into the left field stands to give Jim O'Toole his third victory against one defeat. Marty Keough also homered for Cincinnati while Tom Haller and Orlando Cepeda connected for the Giants.

Bob Hendley held the Dodgers to six hits as the Braves broke a four-game losing streak. Mathews' homer, a three-run shot in the third inning, was the first off Drysdale in 102 1-3 innings dating back to last Aug. 24.

1,000th RBI

Aaron drove in the first Braves run with a single for his 1,000th RBI and hit his fourth homer of the season in the fifth. Menke connected in the eighth.

Earl Francis, Bob Veale and ElRoy Face combined for a five-hitter as the Pirates used two unearned runs to beat the Cubs and Glen Hobbie. In the sixth, Billy Williams dropped Bill Mazeroski's two-out line drive, enabling Willie Stargell and Donn Clendenon to score with the game's only runs. Francis left in the eighth inning when his arm tightened.

Ray Washburn went the distance for the third time and his third victory without a loss for the Cardinals, allowing the Colts only seven hits. Rusty Staub singled in the Houston runs in the third inning. Carl Sawatski and Bill White homered for the Cardinals and Charlie James drove in two runs with a pair of singles off loser Ken Johnson.

The Mets streak came to an end with the tying and leading runs on base in the ninth as Phillies' relief ace, Jack Baldschun, got pinch hitter Rod Kanehl to take a called third strike for the final out. The Mets had scored three runs in the inning—two on Frank Thomas' homer. The Phillies put together five runs in the fifth inning with the aid of three balks, and held on behind winner Ray Culp and Baldschun.

Anywhere performance gets an open test...

RIVERSIDE, CALIF. A '63 Super Torque Ford crossed the finish line first in a field of 40 cars. And this 500-mile event is run over a 2.7-mile sports-car track.

DAYTONA, FLA. In the toughest 500-mile event of the season, Fords came in 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th. Half the starters in a field of 50 never even finished.

ATLANTA, GA. Score another big win for Ford in open competition—the Atlanta "500." Every part of a car is tested to the limit in about three hours at Atlanta.

BRISTOL, TENN. This 250-mile event on a half-mile track is one long, left turn. Fords finished 1st and 2nd—another victory for total performance.

FORD'S THE TOTAL PERFORMANCE CHAMP!

Ford's the one to watch this year! The record proves today's great Super Torque Ford is certain to be a better car for the kind of driving you do every day!

Any weakness in a car shows up fast in today's open, competitive road and track events. For instance, more than half the 50 cars starting at Daytona never finished. Mechanical failure forced them to quit. This is typical. But Ford proved it takes more than speed and acceleration to win at Daytona—or anywhere else. It takes durability, too. It takes a steering system that can stand the gaff of one long, continuous 250-mile left turn like Bristol, Tenn. It takes cornering ability to swing through the turns on Riverside's tortuous track. Straight-line, sure braking. Road-holding ability. A dependable ignition system. A suspension system that stands up. It takes everything a car can deliver . . . and when a car does deliver everything, you're getting total performance. Drive a Ford and sample total performance for yourself. See your Ford Dealer.

'Bruiser' Brawls Before Schedule

Police said the incident at the Lindell Bar involved the Bruiser, Karras, James Butsicaris and five bar patrons. Butsicaris is Karras' associate in the tavern business.

Karras has a wrestling exhibition scheduled with the Bruiser Saturday night at Cobo Hall Arena. He was suspended indefinitely by the National Football League last week for betting on the league's games.

Afflis, 34, was taken to a hospital where five stitches were used to close a cut under his left eye. He also was treated for facial bruises.

The aggravated assault complaint was made by Butsicaris.

Police gave this account of the brawl:

Afflis entered the bar, which is frequented by sports figures, about 1 a.m. and spoke abusively to Butsicaris and Karras. Then Butsicaris refused to serve Afflis and warned him to temper his remarks, the Bruiser grabbed Butsicaris by the shirt front and swung at him.

Patrons jumped into the melee and Butsicaris broke loose and called police.

POOL CUTE

Afflis said he believed the cut below his eye was inflicted by a pool cue wielded by a patron.

Afflis, who played guard for the Green Bay Packers during the 95I-54 seasons, indicated he was miffed at Karras for reportedly calling him a third-rate football player. Karras denied he had ever disparaged the Bruiser's football prowess.

Afflis denied that the incident might have been intended to stimulate interest in the upcoming wrestling match.

"Let anyone who says this is a publicity stunt get all beat up like this and be taken by the police to the hospital," Afflis said. "Then let's see them call it a publicity stunt."

As to the upcoming bout, Afflis said, "If I'm out of jail, I'll murder the bum."

Police commissioner George Edwards said the incident would not change his recommendation that Karras be allowed to become a partner in the Lindell Bar.

Lions' Coach Removes 'Gag'

DETROIT (AP) — Coach George Wilson has his Detroit Lion bosses' permission to take off his gag, and suspended Alex Karras has police permission to become a bar owner.

The Lions let Wilson break his five-day silence Monday and comment about commissioner Pete Rozelle's decision suspending Karras and fining five Detroit teammates in the national football league's gambling investigation.

Karras, preparing for his pro wrestling comback Saturday, was given a green light by Detroit police commissioner George Edwards to become one-third owner of the Lindell AC, a downtown sports rendezvous.

Wilson had been ordered not to discuss Rozelle's decision last Wednesday. In his first public statement, Wilson promised the punished players his fullest support.

"As coach I want to assure them that we support them 100 per cent both on and off the field and hope this unfortuate situation will soon be forgotten in the light of the many valued contributions made by these players in the past," Wilson said in a mimeographed statement.

Rails Pace Stock Comeback

NEW YORK (AP)—A rally by rails paced a stock market recovery early this afternoon. Trading was heavy.

At the start, steels and motors paced a definite downtrend. Then the rails caught fire, many of them making new highs for the year.

Gains of fractions to a point or better were made by leading carriers. Steels cut their losses. Big Three motors canceled early declines and moved narrowly higher.

Rubbers, retail stores, electrical equipments, utilities, and drugs were among the advancing groups.

Brokers said the latest Supreme Court decision regarding the carriers—coming on the heels of a string of bullish developments for railroads over the past few weeks —probably was related to the quick spurt in rail stocks.

The high court overruled the Interstate Commerce Commission which canceled new low rates for rail piggyback service between Eastern cities and Dallas and Fort Worth.

U.S. Steel halved a 1-point loss. Jones & Laughlin virtually eliminated a similar loss. Other steels were unchanged or showed fractional losses.

Chrysler wiped out a 1-point loss and nudged to the plus side along with General Motors, Ford and Studebaker.

Bonds Mixed, Some High

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate bonds were narrowly mixed, and government bonds were somewhat higher at the opening today.

Some longer governments gained about 2/32, said a leading over-the-counter dealer.

Intermediates were mostly steady. Trading was moderate.

Among the corporate bonds to post gains were Pacific Gas and Electric 3s of 1977, up 1 at 86, and Douglas Aircraft 5s of 1978, up ¼ at 94½.

Conversation Spray Brings On Infection

By DR. WILLIAM BRADY

An unmasked person gives off a spray of mucus or moisture droplets from mouth, nose and throat when coughing, sneezing or talking — a spray composed of millions of droplets, mostly of microscopic size and therefore invisible and impalpable but capable nevertheless of carrying germs.

This cough, sneeze or conversation spray is the usual mode of infection with common respiratory infections (CRI). Some young people have learned of the danger of being caught in the spray of open-face cough or sneeze, but the health authorities who so diffidently warn about uncovered cough or sneeze have nothing to say about conversation spray.

Sometimes I think what a boon it would be to personal and public health if the moisture or mucus secreted by nose, throat and bronchial linings were stained indigo.

If it were, the poor geeks who ascribe their respiratory infections to cold, draft, dampness, wet feet, insufficient clothing or change of weather would be in the same position as a person with a black eye — it would be hard to explain how their face and clothing got spattered with indigo.

The only difference between the spray of open-face coughing or sneezing and the spray of open-face speaking is that cough or sneeze spray carries 10 or 12 feet and talk spray carries not more than 5 feet.

I know it is not a pleasant thought that the blankety-blank who assures you his CRI is just a cold may be peppering you with his germ-laden spray as he gives you the old hokum. Especially when you realize that the other person may have anything from infantile paralysis to smallpox coming on — and that's the stage when the respiratory infections are most likely to spread.

But it would be impudent to show that you are squeamish about it, especially if the person feels his status is a cut above yours. And besides, the recognized health authorities are ignorant, or pretend to be ignorant, of the hazard of conversation spray.

MOST PREVENTABLE

The CRI accounts for most of the everyday work of doctors. It is almost entirely preventable, well, nine-tenths of it anyway.

Covering coughs and sneezes probably prevents a good deal of infection, but intelligent people try to cover coughs and sneezes for politeness.

I'd say anyone who has what he or she regards as a "cold" is a menace if he or she goes to work, to school, to store or office, to church, theater or a party unmasked.

A mask, to be efficient, must be made of not less than 10 layers of gauze (cheesecloth) with a mesh of 32 threads to the inch. Anything less than this is just make-believe, in the home, in school, at business, in the sickroom, in the operating-room.

Still better than the gauze mask, even if not so impressive in men-in-white scenes, is the mask designed by Dr. Lewis J. Silvers of New York primarily for physicians to wear when treating nose and throat cases, but ideal also for dentists, manicurists, barbers, beauty shop workers, ticket office attendants, bank clerks and others giving personal service. It is to protect themselves as well as their clients.

The Silvers mask is more comfortable than a gauze mask; less hideous or alarming to the uninitiated; easily washable with soap and water and hence it can be worn over and over. Instructions for making the mask are given in Little Lesson No. 5, Call It CRI, for which send me 35 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

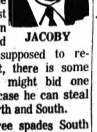
By OSWALD JACOBY

Probably the toughest hand in the intercollegiates is one in which North and South must stop below game in spades and then play the hand to make nine tricks. The bidding will not be difficult if East and West stay out of the bidding, but West is going to open the bidding and while East is supposed to respond one heart, there is some chance that he might bid one spade in which case he can steal the suit from North and South.



JACOBY

Playing at three spades South watches West cash the ace and king of diamonds and continue with the jack. South's correct play is to discard a heart from dummy.

This ensures South an entry to dummy for a trump finesse. Assuming that West shifts to a heart, South will take his ace and king and ruff a heart low. Then he should lead dummy's queen of spades. If East covers South's worries are over. If East plays low, South must drop his nine of spades in order to lead the eight from dummy and leave the lead there for a third space play if East still refuses to cover.

If he has bid correctly and makes all these plays South will have acquired a well deserved par.

The CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

South	West	North	East
1 ♣	1 ♦	1 ♠	Pass
4 ♠	Pass	5 ♦	Pass

You, South, hold:
♠ A Q 6 5 ♥ K J 3 ♦ Q 9 8 ♣ A K 6

What do you do?

A—Bid six spades. This is a slight overbid, but five spades is inadequate.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding one spade your partner bids two clubs over the diamond overcall. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Wednesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Don't be tempted by promises, added possessions. Be scrutinizing. Avoid the gaudy. Stress quality. Some kind of deception appears obvious. Make sure it isn't the self kind.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Highlight personality today. Turn on charm to win your way. Forcing methods fail. Check details. Go slowly but surely. There are routine matters you must attend to personally.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Reach back into past. Learn from your previous experience. Look ahead. But move with knowledge. Lend helping hand. Be generous. You could obtain invaluable help as result.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Stress on comfort, love, assurance of being needed. Important that you "come to terms." Means grow, mature. Realize that finest does not always glitter. Human qualities mean the most.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Key is perception. Look beyond the immediate. Seek the best long range potential. Utilize Leo sense of knowing. Show others you care and can do something about it.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): Today, emphasize greater responsibility, authority. Speak up where finances are concerned. Talk with those close to you. Find out where you stand . . . and why. Fine night for shopping.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Some minor irritations could be turned into major trouble unless you take humorous view. Start remembering not to take yourself too seriously. Taurus person could set good example.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Guard against impulsive actions, especially in dealings with family. Think! Others may misunderstand. Choose new paths. Avoid going back, or throwing good money after bad.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Focus on important details. Means leave no loose ends. Check with library or newspaper. Find out facts. Then, act with confidence based on knowledge. Moderation key tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Have heart! Cheerful attitude makes minor obstacles soon vanish. Stress versatile approach today. Plan creative activity, including vacation. Make "special person" happy.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Be sure individual who "tells you story" is serious. Day when some jokes can go too far. Try to be aware, perceptive, ready to be skeptical. Valuable knowledge available. Seek it!

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): Prized possessions can be shown off to advantage. Visit, receive visitors. Communicate needs, desires, wishes. Keep mind and heart open. Wonderful day possible. Make it so!

IF WEDNESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you are loyal, have tendency to dramatize events. You feel close to the creative arts and to creative people.

'Schools Need Federal Help'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stepped-up federal aid to education would "make the difference between mediocrity and excellence, Dr. Lynn Bartlett, Michigan's superintendent of public instruction, told a House Education subcommittee yesterday.

Testifying in favor of a bill offering federal aid for construction and equipping of vocational schools on an area basis, Bartlett said "Local communities have had to bear the brunt of increased costs in all areas of education, and I believe that in a great many of our local communities we have reached a point of saturation and can go no further."

Bartlett said the proposed bill would provide $2.78 million new yearly revenue to Michigan schools and would alleviate the plight of many Michigan communities which are finding that property taxes levied for education have "reached the confiscatory level."

JFK to See World's Fair

His call started a contraption which will count off the seconds until the opening of the New York World's Fair and he told a crowd gathered at the fair site in Flushing Meadow Park:

"Three hundred sixty-six days from today I plan to attend your opening."

ADC-U Court Fight Indicated by Romney

LANSING (AP) Gov. George Romney indicated yesterday he is preparing to go to court in an effort to prove the validity of Michigan's disputed ADC-U law.

The governor said he has received a "preliminary" answer from privately appointed legal counsel to the ruling by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley that the law, as passed by the legislature, is unconstitutional.

Romney declined to go into details of the answer, but he told newsmen:

SOME BASIS?

Romney's comment seemed to mean his attorneys, who he has not identified, have advised him there is basis for a challenge to Kelley's ruling.

Kelley, in an opinion last week, declared the Michigan law signed by Romney violates the "equal protection" clause of the constitution because it restricts federal ADC-U payments to those families whose breadwinners have been eligible for state unemployment benefits since 1958.

The opinion has the effect of invalidating the law.

In addition, the department of health, education and welfare has formally advised Romney the law does not comply with standards of the federal program because it excludes some persons.

Romney termed the formal notice, "what we expected, in view of unfolding circumstances," but added:

"This does not change our view that the program Michigan has adopted is a sound one . . . and conforms to all federal requirements and congressional intentions, as we understand them and as they were originally indicated by federal officials."

The governor says the welfare rolls of the state are to be used as guidelines for purposes of administering the law.

Under the law as written, some 10,000 families would be eligible for ADC-U payments, the responsibility for their welfare transferring from the general welfare load now handled by counties.

Those families on welfare but not eligible for ADC-U under the Michigan standards would continue to receive general welfare assistance.

New Hotel Has Everything, Even a Room With a View

By EARL WILSON

LONDON — Conrad Hilton was ten minutes late for a TV broadcast the morning of his London Hilton opening because a valet, dutifully clearing his suite while Hilton was in his bedroom, took away his shoes to give them a shine.

WILSON

Hilton, dressed for the opening ceremony — except that he lacked his shoes—was debating whether to go out in his socks, when a committee arrived for him.

Everything else was in apple pie order at this greatest of Hilton openings. From our 25th floor suit overlooking Hyde Park we have a view of London which nobody but God has had before. We can see Buckingham Palace down there to the left.

Everything was in impeccable taste at the opening of this 30-story $22 million Y-shaped hotel with a 30-mile view of Park Lane.

At the big opening luncheon we all found cards on our tables which said: "A reminder that tradition requires that you do not smoke until after the toast to Her Majesty the Queen." British financier Charles Clore and Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald Maulding made it official.

It was such a wondrous opening that the waiters and bellboys said, when you tried to tip them, "Oh no, please you can't tip us this week."

Next week it'll be different.

American, British Envoys Hope to Revive Test Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American and British ambassadors plan to see Premier Khrushchev Wednesday in an effort to revive the Soviet Union's flagging interest in a nuclear test ban.

There was speculation today that this could eventually lead to a higher level meeting—at the summit or at foreign ministers level — which might deal with other East-West issues, too.

U.S. sources said it was premature to predict that such a meeting will take place. Washington advisers feel the time is not ripe. It was understood, however, that President Kennedy has not closed the door on the possibility.

BRITISH ENTHUSIASTIC

The British reportedly are more enthusiastic than the Americans about a possible high-level meeting. Prime Minister Macmillan has been under attack at home by ban-the-bomb groups, and is also facing national elections.

Washington and London agree on the need for getting the Soviet Union to join in a treaty to outlaw nuclear testing—the sooner the better, they say, in order to prevent a spread of atomic weapons to nations which don't have them now.

The U.S. ambassador to Moscow, Foy Kohler, and British ambassador, Humphrey Ttevelyan were reported to have seen Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko last Thursday on the test ban question and to have arranged to see Khrushchev.

The nuclear issue was discussed Monday at a State Department foreign policy briefing for newsmen and broadcasters.

KENNEDY TO TALK

Kennedy was scheduled to address the group on a background basis this afternoon, under rules forbidding quoting the President by name.

High ranking U.S. authorities told the newsmen Soviet that the attitude in the deadlocked Geneva test ban talks has been discouraging.

House Kills Disputed School Bill

LANSING (AP) — The House killed one controversial bill, headed off an effort to recall another from Gov. George Romney's desk, and passed nine minor measures in an active session yesterday.

Defeated on a 38-46 vote was the so-called K12 bill which would have revamped state school districts to provide that none would offer less than kindergarten - through - 12th grade curriculum.

An oft-introduced measure which always has been rejected in the past, the K12 bill this year passed the Senate.

But it ran into stiff opposition from rural-area lawmakers in the House.

Led by Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Delton, opponents argued against the bill on grounds the state should not attempt to force reorganization of school districts.

Democrats, who supported the measure, said they might try to revive it by attaching it as an amendment to another bill on the House calendar.

Rep. James Farnsworth, R-Allegan, said the state should "let well enough alone" because the number of primary school districts offering only elementary and intermediate schooling has been steadily dropping in recent years.

Introduced on behalf of the department of public instruction, the bill proposed setting up a seven-member reorganization committee to lay guidelines and policy for county committees to work out new districts.

U.S. Fleet Near Laos

WASHINGTON (AP) — The mighty U.S. 7th Fleet once again is moving into position as a warning to the Communists threatening a takeover of Laos.

Stationing of the ships in the area near the Gulf of Thailand is also aimed at providing reassurance to the vulnerable non-Communist countries of Southeast Asia.

Defense authorities said the ships had not been ordered into the gulf but were moving into the area to be in position if they should later get orders for a military mission.

They called it a purely precautionary move.

Aboard the vessels are 60,000 Navy men and Marines.

Normally, the fleet is spread out from the North Pacific to the South China Sea, strategically positioned within range of Siberia and Red China population and industrial centers, to shield Formosa from Red attack and to move where needed in sensitive Southeast Asia.

With heavier fighting threatened in Laos, neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma asked the International Control Commission to send a trace team to try to keep peace on the Plane des Jarres.

He told newsmen he expected the team of Indian, Canadian and Polish members to reach

Judge Rules Closing Law Constitutional

Ban on Enforcement of Disputed Measure Is Ended in County

Shortly before noon today Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph Rashid issued a stay of proceedings that will permit stores in Oakland and 10 other counties to ignore the controversial weekend closing law for the next 20 days or until an appeal is filed within that period.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Joseph Rashid today ruled that Michigan's Saturday-or-Sunday store closing law is constitutional and therefore must be upheld.

Thus ended his order banning enforcement of the law in 11 counties including Oakland County.

The order suspended the law in these counties since March 28 when it was supposed to have gone into effect.

The law had been challenged in the 11 counties by 61 department stores and 59 independent merchants on grounds that it was unconstitutional inasmuch as it limited free enterprise.

Judge Rashid's written decision ran 69 pages.

DECLARES RECESS

He declared a court recess immediately after reaching his verdict at 10 a.m. to enable lawyers an opportunity to digest the contents in detail.

In summation the judge declared that the law "does not violate any constitutional requisites as asserted by the plaintiffs in their cause."

He said he expects his decision to be reviewed by the State Supreme Court.

His ruling dismissed his ban of the law in Wayne, Oakland, Bay, Calhoun, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Kent, Macomb, Muskegon, Saginaw and Washtenaw counties.

Supporters of the law in the 1926 Legislature said they hoped the law would prevent seven-day-a-week retail operations, thus allowing storeworkers at least one day off each week.

The lawmakers left an alternative, however, when they provided that a two-thirds majority of a county board of supervisors could exempt the county from the provisions of the law.

Highly controversial in Oakland County, the law was upheld here by a 39 to 38 vote of the board of supervisors last Thursday.

The law doesn't apply to the small, independent grocer. It exempts food stores of no more than 4,000 square feet and those operated by a single family with no more than one other employe at a time.

DISCOVERS DUMMY — A Southern Michigan Prison guard discovers a dummy in the bed of escaped convict Richard Mauch. Similar forms were used to cover the escape of three other prisoners early today. Two of the escapees are convicted killers.

Dummies Used to Dupe Guards During Escape

Crack Security Cell; Two Convicts Listed as Convicted Killers

JACKSON — Four convicts, two of them convicted killers, sawed their way to freedom from the nation's largest walled prison early today.

Their escapes touched off one of the most concentrated manhunts in Michigan history.

The four were described by Southern Michigan Prison authorities as "dangerous and desperate."

Roadblocks were set up through out most of southern Michigan. Authorities speculated that the escapees [illegible] on foot.

The convicts cut through cell bars in a maximum security section of the prison.

Concealing their absence with dummies placed in their cell beds, the convicts broke from cellblock 8 and then cut their way through bars fronting on a mainwall catwalk before cutting through a cyclone fence — the last obstacle to freedom.

It was the first successful break in more than a decade from the prison — scene of two bloody convict riots in April and June of 1952.

An army of police and sheriff's deputies combed desolate farm lands near the prison for the four convicts, James J. Hall, 40, serving life for murder; Robert L. Gipson, 30, serving a 13-25 year term for murder; Richard Mauch, 40, serving life for kidnaping and assault with intent to kill; and Elmer Crachy, 24, serving a long term as a habitual criminal.

WEAPON FOUND

Warden George Kropp said a spring-steel dagger, apparently handmade within the prison, was found near the fence, apparently dropped by accident. It was not known whether the four escaped with any weapons.

Cellblock 8 is used to house life-term and long-term inmates in a prison effort to separate hardened criminals from youthful inmates and relatively short-term prisoners.

Southern Michigan's toughest cellblock, cellblock No. 15, stands in the main yard of the prison. Had the four fugitives been in 15 they would not have had access to the main walls.

Kropp said the fugitives fashioned dummies from pillows and blankets rolled up to look like bodies.

The first convict was discovered missing about 3 a.m. and about four hours later prison authorities announced the other three had escaped.

Dedication Lacking, Conference Is Told

"We as a people don't have the degree of dedication we once had," declared Gov. George Romney as he spoke yesterday to some 520 high school students and faculty advisors who converged on Oakland University for the first Governor's Conference on Student Leadership.

As keynote speaker, Romney warned students that "your greatest challenge would be to deny yourselves enough of a degree of material goods to build character" and cautioned them to "seek not for riches, but for wisdom."

Romney urged the students to carry on the American Revolution to even greater heights and to build a new and greater age.

A standing-room-only - crowd heard Chancellor D. B. Varner introduce Romney as "an outstanding product of Oakland County."

In an interview, Romney declared, "I think the kind of expert guidance and counseling they (the students) will receive here today will be invaluable."

Mrs. Walter Jackson, assistant director of continuing education in charge of conferences at Oakland University introduced representatives of some five universities, three businesses and three other organizations who would direct discussions.

GROUP SESSIONS

Discussion groups covered group psychology and human interrelationships, practical organization structure and special problems.

Special problems included publicity, parliamentary procedure, discussion leadership and a rumor clinic.

Lowell R. Eklund, associate dean of the university and director of continuing education emphasized the leadership function of students in society as a whole.

Eklund urged students to examine their organizations and justify their existance by the worthwhile things they were accomplishing.

LANSING — A new congressional reapportionment plan that House Republicans admit would divide Oakland, Macomb and Genesee counties in a "crazy quilt" pattern was headed for approval by the House today.

Rep. Henry M. Morgan Jr., R-Bloomfield Township, said the new plan was only a vehicle to give Republicans more time to resolve their dispute over alignment of the Thumb area.

House approval of the plan was certain to send the reapportionment question to a joint House-Senate conference committee, may not report back on the matter until June 7, according to Hogan.

Hogan indicated that the plan was so radical that the Senate would never accept it as a substitute for its congressional redistricting bill sponsored by Sen. Farrell E. Roberts, R-Oakland County.

CAN EXTEND DEADLINE

Roberts agreed that the matter would be worked out in a conference committee. Although Friday is the deadline for conference committee reports, the deadline can be extended until the June 17 adjournment date.

Indianapolis Hit Hard

Tornadoes Tear Into Midwest

From Our News Wires

A terrific tornadic onslaught carved a 150-mile swath of destruction through Illinois to the Hoosier capital at Indianapolis last night and the storm system slammed into the East today.

At least 44 persons were injured, although no deaths were reported. A man swept up and carried 350 yards near Illiopolis, Ill., was in critical condition.

The tornadoes struck after sundown along a northeast path from north of Decatur, Ill., to a new subdivision of Indianapolis.

Another syndrome of twisters, lightning and hail slammed the southwest.

A tornado bowled over a dozen 20-foot grain storage tanks at Frisco, north of Dallas, and all the grain was lost.

Several houses were unroofed, power and phone lines were downed, and damage was estimated at $200,000 at the tiny community.

Hail pounded the downtown and eastern residential areas of Dallas.

WORST BLAST

By far the cruelest punishment was meter out to Indiana and Illinois, where only last week more than 50 persons were hurt in a storm system the focused on the college town of Kankakee, Ill.

The tornadoes' biggest target was Indianapolis, a city of 476,000. It swooped in upon the city's northeast edge where a new subdivision stood.

At least 14 persons were injured in the Indianapolis blast. Four homes were demolished and 50 more heavily damaged.

Another Indiana twister racked up farm buildings west of Lafayette.

Rain brought limited relief to the drought - stricken East, which has been plagued for weeks for forest and brush fires.

The fall, largely in the form of showers, extended from the New England states south to the District of Columbia. More rain was expected later in the day.

Although the precipitation was not heavy enough to give major relief, it did lessen the danger of new fires.

Retired Circuit Judge Dies

H. Russel Holland, an Oakland County circuit judge of 27 years, died suddenly this morning.

Death came for Judge Holland a little more than two months after his Feb. 15 retirement from the Circuit Court bench. He was 65 years old.

JUDGE HOLLAND

Judge Holland was dead on arrival at Pontiac General Hospital at 8:30 a.m. Cause of death was not immediately known.

Judge Holland, of 117 E. Iroquois Road, announced his retirement in January despite efforts by the county's other judges to persuade him not to do so.

The judge said he was retiring because "the tempo of the times is getting too fast for me."

Although his health had not been good since an operation about two years ago, Judge Holland said that was only "a minor factor" in his decision to retire.

He had been expected for sev-

Chamber Plans Open House at New Office Site

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce is going to show off its new home tomorrow afternoon.

An open house at the chamber's new offices, 33 W. Huron St., is slated for 4-7 p.m.

The chamber moved to offices on the main floor of the Riker Building this month. It also makes use of office space in the basement for heavy office machines and a board meeting room.

Prior to the move, the chamber had been located in the Waldron Hotel Building for 23 years.

Prisoner Swap Ends

From Our News Wires

HOMESTEAD AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. — Cuban Premier Fidel Castro emptied his dungeons of all American prisoners except one longtime enemy yesterday in exchange for four Cubans held in U.S. jails.

The remaining American prisoner is Cuban-born Miamian Rafael del Pino.

The bearded Cuban dictator also promised to allow 800 to 1,000 Cubans to leave his Communist island later this week as part of the deal.

New York attorney James B. Donovan, who arranged the swap, arrived here yesterday aboard an airliner with 21 of the pale and skinny Americans.

He said three others decided to go to a Latin America country instead of returning to their homeland and three chose to remain in Cuba with their families.

In exchange for the Americans' release, the Justice Department announced in Washington that it was releasing three Cubans arrested recently and charged with conspiring to blow up defense establishments in this country.

OTHERS RELEASED

The others released were Robert Santiesteban Casanova, 27, a member of the Cuban mission to the United Nations; and Antonio Suerio, 28, and Jose Garcia Orellana, 43, both Cubans living in New York. They were arrested a few months ago and charged with conspiracy to sabotage defense installations.

The four Cubans left Boca Chica Naval Air Station at Key West, Fla., aboard a Cubana Air Lines plane that was escorted over American waters by four U.S. jet fighters.

The plane carrying the Cubans from New York had landed at Boca Chica at 6:55 a.m., (Pontiac time) and the Cubana airliner was airborne 30 minutes later.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said last night that the four were being sent back to Cuba in the swap for the Americans.

Kennedy told newsmen at a New York reception by the Cuban Prisoners Committee the decision to free the alleged Cuban saboteurs was part of a trade for the American prisoners in Cuba.

Rockefeller said that the other part of the deal was the release of the convicted Cuban slaper, Francisco Molina del Rio, 31.

The governor said the federal government had informed him that the commutation of Molina's sentence was "necessary in the national interest."

son area in hopes the men might be found.

Charles Egeler administrative assistant to the warden, said a complete check had been made of the prison population to determine if anyone else was missing.

He said all the prisoners were accounted for and the prison routine was going on as usual.

However, he added, an investigation was started to determine how the men crossed the lighted yard without being spotted by guards, armed with rifles and machine guns, in the towers.

Kropp said the convicts had to cut through two sets of bars about three-fourths of an inch thick.

"They had to do a lot of cutting over a period of time, and very cleverly concealed any signs that the bars had been cut," he said.

Kropp said the hole in the fence was below a "blind spot" for the tower guards and they had to lean over the parapet to see the spot.

A state police dog was put on the trail of the prisoners, but lost the scent at a railroad track about a fourth of a mile from the prison. Authorities said they did not think a train has passed.

Judge Holland Dies at 65

eral months to announce his retirement.

SEATED IN 1936

Judge Holland first took a seat on the county's circuit bench Jan. 1, 1936 after winning election in 1935.

For 20 years, he, Judge George B. Hartrick and Judge Frank L. Doty comprised the county's circuit bench, winning for it a reputation as one of the finest in the state.

Judge Hartrick died Aug. 12, 1958. Judge Doty retired in 1959 after 32 years on the bench and died Jan. 11, 1962.

Before joining the circuit bench, Judge Holland was a Pontiac municipal judge for four years and had served as the city's parttime associate municipal judge from 1929 to 1930.

Born Jan. 17, 1898, near rural Wilmington, Va., Judge Holland attended the University of Richmond, was graduated in 1920 and became a history teacher.

After taking a summer course in constitutional law at the University of Michigan in 1922, Judge Holland turned to law for a career.

After graduation from the U. of M. law school in 1926, he spent a year in a Detroit law firm. He opened a Pontiac office in 1927 at 22½ N. Saginaw St.

PRAISED BY PEERS

Warmly regarded by his colleague and lawyers as "a true Southern gentleman," Judge Holland was praised for the blend of firmness, integrity and compassion which he exhibited from the bench.

"He was recognized as one of the best," said the other judges, when Judge Holland announced his retirement. "He'll be greatly missed."

He has been a frequent visitor at the courthouse since he retired.

night, would put Oakland County into three districts.

Hazel Park, Ferndale, Madison Heights, Oak Park and Royal Oak Township would go into a seventh district with that part of Macomb County south of 14-Mile Road.

The rest of Oakland County south of 14-Mile Road plus the townships of West Bloomfield, Commerce, Milford, Waterford, White Lake and Highland would go into an 18th district. The 8th currently takes in the entire county.

Pontiac would join Mount Clemens and the rest of Oakland and Macomb counties in the new 19th district received by Michigan as a result of the 1960 census.

WOULD SPLIT FLINT

The plan also would split Genesee County and the City of Flint into two separate districts.

However, the plan expected to come out of the conference committee when all the problems have been worked out would put the areas of Troy, Royal Oak, Bloomfield and Southfield in the 18th and the rest of Oakland County with Livingston County in the 19th.

Roberts' present plan is similar, except that it also would put Farmington Township in the 18th, and attach Lapeer and St. Clair counties to the 19th instead of Livingston County.

Lapeer and St. Clair counties are expected to go into a Thumb area district. A plan by Thumb area representatives to accomplish that was also considered along with Roberts' plan by the House GOP caucus.

Man Arraigned in Gun Slaying of City Resident

A 46-year-old Pontiac man was arraigned in Municipal Court yesterday on a charge of first-degree murder in the fatal shooting Sunday of Leon Hendricks.

Charley Herron, 226 Prospect St., was returned to the County jail without bond. Judge Maurice Finnegan scheduled a preliminary examination for May 1.

The 1 p.m. shooting took place in front of Conley's Restaurant, 153 Wesson St.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Light snow is forecast for tonight in the eastern Lakes region and scattered showers are indicated for sections of the Pacific Northwest. Clear to partly cloudy skies should prevail elsewhere.

City Eyes Demolition Contract

Commissioners are expected to award the fourth contract for demolition in Pontiac's R20 urban renewal program at tonight's City Commission meeting.

The contract calls for demolition of some 53 structures, mostly residential, Elkins Excavating Co., of Waterford Township, submitted a low bid of $15,153.25 for the contract several weeks ago.

Also up for approval will be a construction contract for a combined station and storage building at Perry Park.

Low bidder for that contract was Melvin Eller, a Pontiac building contractor.

In other business, action is slated on resolutions which would allow General Motors Corporation to build electrical transmission lines across Highwood Boulevard and authorize City Manager Robert A. Stierer to obtain bids on concessions at city parks for the summer season.

Five reports and recommendations from the city planning commission will also be up for approval tonight.

Three of the reports involve requests to rezone properties on Telegraph Road at Glendale Avenue, on Telegraph between Hazel and Edna streets and at 431-435 E. South Blvd.

Another involves a request to divide part of Lot 17 and all of Lot 18, Assessor's Plat No. 102, into four lots.

The fifth recommends approval of a new plat in the R20 urban renewal project area.

Commissioners will also get cost estimates for proposed blacktopping projects on portions and Third avenues and Howard Street.

Burglary at Home of Press Publisher

Two mink fur pieces and three cameras with a total value of $5,400 were stolen from the home of Harold A. Fitzgerald, publisher of The Pontiac Press.

The burglary was reported yesterday afternoon by the Fitzgeralds' son Richard. He discovered the break-in when he went to the home to check it while his parents were out of the city.

Stolen were a brown mink stole, a silver grey mink jacket, two 35MM cameras and a Polaroid camera.

Police said the house at 148 Ottawa Drive was entered by breaking a window on the sun porch. The bedrooms had been ransacked.

Succumbs to Cancer

Israeli President, 78, Dies

From Our News Wires

The pioneer, labor leader and statesman succumbed to lung cancer in his home here at 7:05 a.m. (12:05 a.m. Pontiac time). The nation went into mourning for its second chief of state.

Ben-Zvi was elected president of Israel on Dec. 8, 1952, culminating a lifetime dedicated to the Zionist cause and to the revival of Israeli national life.

He succeeded Israel's first chief of state, Dr. Chaim Weizman, who had died.

A state funeral will be held tomorrow.

MOURNING SESSION

The cabinet announced the funeral plans after a special mourning session. Premier David Ben-Gurion and cabinet members lighted candles around the flag-draped bier while prayers were said.

The celebration on April 28-29 of the 15th anniversary of Israel's independence was canceled.

The annual military parade will be held in Haifa, but the units will march to drums only and behind black-draped flags.

But it was not until last weekend that it became known generally he was suffering from cancer.

Also present were the President's son, Amram, his brother, Aharon Feuveni, and his sister, Hanna.

Waterford Township Votes for Public Library Status

A Waterford Township public library came closer to reality last night.

By a 6-1 vote the Township Board asked the township attorney, Paul Mandel, to prepare the necessary documents to have the present library, located in the CAI Building, transferred to a public status.

Trustee John S. Coleman called this action "the logical first step to take — one that was long overdue."

The only dissenting vote came from the sole Republican on the board, Loren D. Anderson, who, while citing the necessity of a public library service, said he could not favor "a project and then determine how we're going to finance it at a later date."

The board heard a request for amendment of the controversial township food establishment ordinance which now outlaws the operation of open roadside stands.

Kevin Ritter, owner of two stands in the township, requested that this type of operation be exempted from the ordinance's provisions governing storage display.

Oakland County Health Inspector LeRoy Stone upheld the provision in question, which requires that "all food and drink shall be so stored, displayed and served as to be protected from dust, insects and other forms of contamination.

Ritter's request was tabled pending further reports.

REQUEST REVIVAL

The board requested that the township attorney revive a disorderly persons ordinance previously rejected.

Robert Whittbold, Pontiac Mall manager, requesting the ordinance, told the board that the juvenile delinquency problem at the Mall "is certainly not compatible with a good operation."

The big problem, he said, concerns what he termed "professional juvenile delinquents" — those 17 to 21.

"They know more about the law than we do," he said.

While he noted that the problem "is not out of hand," Whittbold requested that the board enact a disorderly persons ordinance that would "enforce good behavior."

In other action, the board awarded a paving contract to the Oakland Paving Co. of Berkley for a blacktopping project at Benson's Old Orchard subdivision. The company submitted the low bid of $39,086.

Birmingham Area News

Tentative Okay Given Maple Road Widening

BIRMINGHAM — City commissioners last night gave tentative approval to an agreement with the Oakland County Road Commission for widening East Maple Road.

The agreement, as presented, did not go into construction details, but Killeen said the preliminary agreement was satisfactory providing several sections were revised.

Some discussion centered on the removal and replacement of trees in the project area. The city requested tree replacement costs to be included in the program.

The road commission will go along with replacing four, but if the city wants the remaining trees replaced it will be at their own expense, said Killeen. There are approximately 12 trees in the affected area.

SHARE IN COST

The city will pay its respective share of the total cost of the project with the city of Troy. Final copies of the agreement will be drawn up after the road commission receives tentative approval from both municipalities.

Commissioners tabled a request for sidewalk construction by the Pembroke Manor Association, Inc., in the Derby Junior High School area.

Petitions bearing 750 signatures, representing some 500 homes, urged the construction on Pembroke and Derby streets from the west side of Eton Road to protect approximately 125 school children who must walk to school in the street.

The commission tabled the request to give the city time to inform residents of its plans for the project.

Mrs. Geraldine E. Baldwin

Mrs. Austin H. Poinsett

Service for Mrs. Austin H. (Emma L.) Poinsett, 75, of 1081 Norwich Road, will be 11 a.m. Thursday at the Swayse Funeral Home, Trenton, N.J. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery there.

Mrs. Poinsett died yesterday after a lengthy illness. Her body was to be at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home until 4 p.m. today.

She was a member of the Trinity Methodist Church in Trenton, N.J.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Philip Drew of Birmingham, and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Edward J. Rodgers

Service for Mrs. Edward J. (Margaret C.) Rodgers, 33, of 286 Puritan Road, was held this morning at Holy Name Church with burial in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, Southfield.

Mrs. Rodgers died unexpectedly Thursday of a heart attack in Pompano Beach, Fla.

She was a member of Women's Club of Birmingham and Birmingham branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association.

Surviving besides her husband are three sons, Edward, Mark and Michael, all at home; her father, Dr. Arthur Connell of Rockford, Ill.; and a brother, Dr. John Connell, U.S. Navy.

Pick Directors for AP Board

Honor Press Publisher at His Retirement

Gene Robb, publisher of the Albany (N.Y.) Knickerbocker News and Times-Union also was elected a new member of the 18-man board during The Associated Press annual meeting Monday.

Robb and A. H. Kirchhofer of the Buffalo (N.Y.) Evening News contested for a post as director from New York State, a position required by AP bylaws. Robb received 7,072 votes to 3,209 for Kirchhofer.

At the AP business meeting, the members adopted a resolution expressing thanks for the services of retiring directors Harold A. Fitzgerald of the Pontiac (Mich.) Press, and Bernard H. Ridder Jr. of the Duluth (Minn.) News-Tribune, who were ineligible for re-election under AP bylaws because they had served three consecutive terms.

Directors re-elected were AP President Paul Miller of Rochester, N.Y., president of the Gannett Newspapers, with 9,481 votes; George W. Healy Jr., of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, with 8,113 votes; and W. D. Maxwell of the Chicago Tribune, 7,636.

Knowland received 4,786 votes.

Max E. Nussbaum, of the Moultrie (Ga.) Observer, was re-elected a director from cities of less than 50,000 population with 6,992 votes to 3,269 for Clyde M. Reed, of the Parsons (Kan) Daily and Sunday Sun.

Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. was the feature speaker at the annual AP luncheon.

Hussein Vows Never to Quit

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Vowing to defend his throne with his life, Jordan's young King Hussein says he will never step aside to ease the way for his country's entry into a new United Arab Republic.

"I will carry on my heritage as long as I live," the 27-year-old monarch said in a broadcast Monday night. "I am afraid of no one in this world except God. I will continue my way as a soldier."

Although he made no direct reference to the pro-Nasser riots Saturday which resulted in strict curfews and a reshuffling of his cabinet, the king warned his people against "agents, troublemakers and false patriots."

JORDAN COULD JOIN

Hussein said he would not stand in the way of Arab unity. But he suggested that Jordan's monarchy need not step aside for Jordan to join a union of Arab states.

About 2,000 students rioted in Jerusalem Saturday demanding Hussein's ouster and union of the kingdom with Syria, Iraq and Egypt in President Gamal Abdel Nasser's projected United Arab Republic. Four persons were reported killed and about 30 wounded. An estimated 80 to 90 persons were arrested for rioting or breaking the curfew.

With his Parliament dissolved, his great-uncle installed as premier and curfews imposed in Jerusalem and other trouble spots, Hussein appeared to have beaten off the latest pro-Nasser attempt on his throne.

Amman, the capital, was under military surveillance, but it remained open with business as usual.

In the Jordanian sector of Jerusalem, by contrast, shops were closed. The great gates of the city walls were shut. Government buildings and the radio broadcasting station were heavily guarded by Bedouin troops brought in from desert camps.

Military roadblocks closed off the Holy City and other communities west of the Jordan River from the desert highlands. Only foreigners and officials were let through. The holy places were almost empty.

Military units patrolled Jerusalem, Nablus, Jenin and Tulkarem to prevent new riots.

In Damascus, a Syrian spokesman said Syria, Iraq and Egypt are conferring about a joint stand against Israeli troops he said were massing along Jordan's frontier. He said the three nations would not stand by if Israel attempted to intervene in Jordan.

Israeli had denied charges that it was massing troops to take advantage of Jordan's internal troubles.

Reuther to Ask Chrysler, AMC for Early Talks

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther will meet with Chrysler Corp. officials Thursday and American Motors Corp. representatives Friday to discuss establishing a joint committee to study possible issues of the 1964 contract negotiations.

Reuther previously had met with General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Company and won their approval of his proposal for joint study committees to pave the way for 1964 negotiations.

The committees, which would have no bargaining power, would begin work July 1.

SERVICE and COST

Although our facilities are unsurpassed in this area, our charges are comparable with the most reasonable. We are frequently surprised regarding the comments we receive about the "extra" services rendered by our staff. We regard these "extra" services as part of our standard service.

Steels, Motors Decline

Stock Mart Generally Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels continued to fall and motors declined in a generally lower stock market early today. Trading was heavy.

Losses of key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

With steels abandoning their recent leadership of the market, no other group had come to the fore and traders were losing profits on the sustained rise which spurred the list to its recent 1963 highs.

Increases in dividend helped Continental Can to a gain of a point and Consolidated Edison to a fractional rise.

American & Foreign Power rose fractionally following news the Brazilian government has agreed to pay $135 million for the company's utility properties in Brazil.

Losses of about a point were taken by U.S. Steel and Jones & Laughlin while other leading steelmakers dropped fractions.

Liggett & Myers was off about a point while American Tobacco was up slightly in a generally lower tobacco group. Aerospace issues were fairly steady on balance. Rails and utilities were mixed.

* * *

Prices were narrowly mixed on the American Stock Exchange. Gainers included O'okiep Copper, Brazilian Traction, and Paddington "A." Among losers were Creole Petroleum, Reliance Insurance, and Hollinger.

'Schools Need Federal Help'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Stepped-up federal aid to education would "make the difference between mediocrity and excellence, Dr. Lynn Bartlett, Michigan's superintendent of public instruction, told a House Education subcommittee yesterday.

Testifying in favor of a bill offering federal aid for construction and equipping of vocational schools on an area basis, Bartlett said "Local communities have had to bear the brunt of increased costs in all areas of education, and I believe that in a great many of our local communities we have reached a point of saturation and can go no further."

Bartlett said the proposed bill would provide $2.78 million new yearly revenue to Michigan schools and would alleviate the plight of many Michigan communities which are finding that property taxes levied for education have "reached the confiscatory level."

JFK to See World's Fair

His call started a contraption which will count off the seconds until the opening of the New York World's Fair and he told a crowd gathered at the fair site in Flushing Meadow Park:

"Three hundred sixty-six days from today I plan to attend your opening."

INTERESTING READING — The 17th annual open house will be conducted next week at Pontiac State Hospital, 140 Elizabeth Lake Road. Mrs. John Bailey of 137 W. Princeton Ave., secretary in the community relations department, and Dr. Harry Arnkoff, chairman of the open house committee, read some of the literature that will be passed out to visitors next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

ADC-U Court Fight Indicated by Romney

LANSING (AP) Gov. George Romney indicated yesterday he is preparing to go to court in an effort to prove the validity of Michigan's disputed ADC-U law.

The governor said he has received a "preliminary" answer from privately appointed legal counsel to the ruling by Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley that the law, as passed by the legislature, is unconstitutional.

Romney declined to go into details of the answer, but he told newsmen:

SOME BASIS?

Romney's comment seemed to mean his attorneys, who he has not identified, have advised him there is basis for a challenge to Kelley's ruling.

Kelley, in an opinion last week, declared the Michigan law signed by Romney violates the "equal protection" clause of the constitution because it restricts federal ADC-U payments to those families whose breadwinners have been eligible for state unemployment benefits since 1958.

The opinion has the effect of invalidating the law.

In addition, the department of health, education and welfare has formally advised Romney the law does not comply with standards of the federal program because it excludes some persons.

Romney termed the formal notice, "what we expected, in view of unfolding circumstances," but added:

"This does not change our view that the program Michigan has adopted is a sound one . . . and conforms to all federal requirements and congressional intentions, as we understand them and as they were originally indicated by federal officials."

The governor says the welfare rolls of the state are to be used as guidelines for purposes of administering the law.

Under the law as written, some 10,000 families would be eligible for ADC-U payments, the responsibility for their welfare transferring from the general welfare load now handled by counties.

Those families on welfare but not eligible for ADC-U under the Michigan standards would continue to receive general welfare assistance.

New Hotel Has Everything, Even a Room With a View

By EARL WILSON

LONDON—Conrad Hilton was ten minutes late for a TV broadcast the morning of his London Hilton opening because a valet, dutifully clearing his suite while Hilton was in his bedroom, took away his shoes to give them a shine.

WILSON

Hilton, dressed for the opening ceremony — except that he lacked his shoes—was debating whether to go out in his socks, when a committee arrived for him.

Everything else was in apple pie order at this greatest of Hilton openings. From our 25th floor suit overlooking Hyde Park we have a view of London which nobody but God has had before. We can see Buckingham Palace down there to the left.

Everything was in impeccable taste at the opening of this 30-story $22 million Y-shaped hotel with a 30-mile view of Park Lane.

At the big opening luncheon we all found cards on our tables which said: "A reminder that tradition requires that you do not smoke until after the toast to Her Majesty the Queen." British financier Charles Clore and Chancellor of the Exchequer Reginald Maudling made it official.

It was such a wondrous opening that the waiters and bellboys said, when you tried to tip them, "Oh no, please you can't tip us this week."

Next week it'll be different.

American, British Envoys Hope to Revive Test Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American and British ambassadors plan to see Premier Khrushchev Wednesday in an effort to revive the Soviet Union's flagging interest in a nuclear test ban.

There was speculation today that this could eventually lead to a higher level meeting—at the summit or at foreign ministers level — which might deal with other East-West issues, too.

U.S. sources said it was premature to predict that such a meeting will take place. Washington advisers feel the time is not ripe. It was understood, however, that President Kennedy has not closed the door on the possibility.

BRITISH ENTHUSIASTIC

The British reportedly are more enthusiastic than the Americans about a possible high-level meeting. Prime Minister Macmillan has been under attack at home by ban-the-bomb groups, and is also facing national elections.

Washington and London agree on the need for getting the Soviet Union to join in a treaty to outlaw nuclear testing—the sooner the better, they say, in order to prevent a spread of atomic weapons to nations which don't have them now.

The U.S. ambassador to Moscow, Foy Kohler, and British ambassador, Humphrey Trevelyan were reported to have seen Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko last Thursday on the test ban question and to have arranged to see Khrushchev.

The nuclear issue was discussed Monday at a State Department foreign policy briefing for newsmen and broadcasters.

KENNEDY TO TALK

Kennedy was scheduled to address the group on a background basis this afternoon, under rules forbidding quoting the President by name.

High ranking U.S. authorities told the newsmen Soviet that the attitude in the deadlocked Geneva test ban talks has been discouraging.

House Kills Disputed School Bill

LANSING (AP) — The House killed one controversial bill, headed off an effort to recall another from Gov. George Romney's desk, and passed nine minor measures in an active session yesterday.

Defeated on a 58-46 vote was the so-called K12 bill which would have revamped state school districts to provide that none would offer less than kindergarten - through - 12th grade curriculum.

An oft-introduced measure which always has been rejected in the past, the K12 bill this year passed the Senate.

But it ran into stiff opposition from rural-area lawmakers in the House.

Led by Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Delton, opponents argued against the bill on grounds the state should not attempt to force reorganization of school districts.

Democrats, who supported the measure, said they might try to revive it by attaching it as an amendment to another bill on the House calendar.

Rep. James Farnsworth, R-Allegan, said the state should "let well enough alone" because the number of primary school districts offering only elementary and intermediate schooling has been steadily dropping in recent years.

Some 1,100 of Michigan's 1,700 school districts offer elementary and intermediate schooling only. The rest have high schools.

Introduced on behalf of the department of public instruction, the bill proposed setting up a seven-member reorganization committee to lay guidelines and policy for county committees to work out new districts.
