Hospital Bed Plan Still Uncertain

Looks Fit as a Fiddle

AP Wirephoto

IKE ALL SMILES — A happy President Eisenhower steps from the limousine that brought him from Fitzsimons Army Hospital to Lowry Air Force Base today on his trip to Washington.

'Filled With Gratefulness,' President Leaves Denver

DENVER (INS) — President Eisenhower, grinning broadly and looking like a man in shape to play 18 holes of golf, walked out of the hospital today and flew home to Washington.

The plane is expected in Washington between 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. (EST).

In a brief farewell speech before taking off from Denver, the Chief Executive said his heart was "filled with gratefulness" to all the people who have helped play a part in his recovery from a heart attack.

Except for a slight thinness about the neck, Eisenhower looked much as he did when he arrived in Colorado 13 weeks ago for a "work and play" vacation.

He paused part way up the 19-step ramp to his personal plane, the Columbine III, to address a crowd of some 1,500 persons gathered on the airstrip.

It was the first time the President had spoken publicly since his heart attack Sept. 24, and his remarks were beamed into every corner of the nation by radio and television.

He began by noting with a faint smile that the time had come once again for him and the First Lady to take the annual leave from Denver.

DIFFERENT LEAVE-TAKING

Then, noting that the situation was somewhat different this year since he had been in the hospital, he declared:

"This time is not completely lost—misfortune, particularly the misfortune of illness, brings to

Club Withdraws Track Request

Racing Commissioner Is Told Organization Will Drop Township Plans

In a letter sent to the Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis yesterday, the Michigan Thoroughbred Turf Club withdrew its application to construct and operate a race track in Troy Township.

Inglis said hearings on the application set for Monday will be held as scheduled "to complete the record in case they should file a future application."

The commissioner added that the turf club will have to make the withdrawal on the record at Monday's session.

The withdrawal letter, signed by club attorneys Joseph J. Marshall and Henry C. Murray, said, in part:

"The directors and subscribers have painfully come to the conclusion that it would be futile to continue . . . Accordingly we . . . withdraw the application to construct and operate a race track."

They listed lack of a site as the reason.

Approval of the Troy Township Board had been granted the club when plans for construction of a track at 14-Mile Rd. and John R were announced last May.

It was revealed last month, however, that two Troy officials were in line to share a profit upwards of $150,000 by obtaining options on the land and then selling them to the club.

Township sanction was withdrawn and one of the officials, Attorney Malcolm M. Heber was fired. The other official, Treasurer Fred W. Hildebrandt, refused to resign.

Big 4 Decide on Wednesday for Last Day

Confabs Notable Only in Showing Red Shift to Hard Tactics

GENEVA (AP) — The Big Four foreign ministers decided in secret session today to adjourn their current Geneva conference with a final meeting next Wednesday.

The American delegation issued this formal statement:

"The ministers at their private meeting this afternoon, bearing in mind their agreement at New York that the conference would last three weeks, agreed to organize their work here so that the conference could finish its work on Wednesday."

This will conclude the conference one day short of the three-week target.

The conference so far has been notable mainly for the evidence it has provided that Soviet foreign policy tactics have taken the most radical shift since the death of Joseph Stalin more than two years ago.

Unless evidence of Russian behavior at the current Big Four conference is completely deceptive, the softer line of Soviet strategy has been replaced by a return to much harder tactics.

For the first time since the Kremlin started its more conciliatory approach toward the West in early 1953, a Soviet spokesman has been speaking out in blunt, uncompromising terms on great issues. Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov has made it unmistakably clear that the major aims of Soviet world policy remain unchanged.

The July smiles at the summit conference here have almost vanished in Molotov's November presentation of Russia's position and aims.

The latest piece of evidence in this emerging pattern came yesterday when the Soviet foreign minister spoke on disarmament.

There had been speculation here that Molotov might make some gesture toward agreement with the West, perhaps on President Eisenhower's proposal for immediate U.S.-Soviet exchange of military blueprints and reciprocal aerial inspection.

Instead Molotov delivered the hardest blow yet struck by a Soviet spokesman at the Eisenhower plan.

Terming Russia's attitude toward the plan "negative," Molotov rejected it and assailed every American argument advanced in its favor.

President Gets Red Carpet Treatment

WASHINGTON WELCOMES IKE — (AP) — The nation's capital rolled out a "welcome home" red carpet for President and Mrs. Eisenhower today.

Troops were posted to line the streets in a ceremonial honor guard. Veterans day bunting draped the lamp posts. Bands in colorful uniforms were ready to serenade the convalescent chief executive and his lady.

Vice President Nixon and the President's son, Maj. John S. Eisenhower, were designated to greet the chief executive and his wife when they step from the presidential plane, Columbine III.

After a few words into microphones at the foot of the ramp — to be carried by radio and television, and relayed by loudspeaker to crowds at the White House and elsewhere — the Eisenhowers were to enter a plastic "bubble top" convertible and drive away to the executive mansion.

A huge "Welcome home, Ike!" banner stretched over an archway of fire ladders and red, white and blue bunting at the Washington end of Memorial Bridge.

"We will be disappointed if we don't have 200,000 people along the route," said Edgar Morris, chairman of the citizens' group in charge of arrangements.

Auto License Plates Go on Sale Monday

LANSING (AP)—Michigan vehicle license plates for 1956 will go on sale Nov. 14, Secy. of State James M. Hare said today.

Hare said the sale starting date had been advanced as much as possible.

Normally, the plates go on sale Dec. 1, Hare said. Last year, sales began Nov. 8, however.

Plates will be on hand Monday in all county branches except those in Ottawa, Berrien, St. Clair, Tuscola and Barry Counties.

Commercial plates will be available next Monday at the St. Joseph, Niles, Port Huron and Hastings branches. All branches will have car plates by Nov. 18.

Pay Boost Won by Bus Drivers

Company-Union Reach Agreement on Contract at All-Day Meeting

A new two-year contract was agreed upon today by Pontiac City Lines, Inc. and its drivers and mechanics.

It is retroactive to last April 1 and will run through March 31, 1957. Provided is an 8-cent per hour wage hike for the first year with an additional 2 cents the second year for a total of 10 cents.

The contract, hammered out at an al-day session at the Hotel Waldron yesterday, was ratified early this morning by the 54 members of Division 1097, Amalgamated Assn. of Street, Electrical Railway and Motorcoach Employes of America.

Top drivers' wages will be hiked from the present $1.55 per hour to $1.63 the first year and $1.65 the second. The mechanics' scale will rise from a peak of $1.78 an hour to $1.86, then $1.88, said Earl W. Dreasher, transportation superintendent.

Although the old contract expired last April 1, buses have been kept rolling on a day-to-day agreement by the company and employes.

Negotiations on a new pact were conducted for more than 10 months and when they broke down in August, a special fact-finding panel was appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams.

Yesterday's session was conducted under the auspices of the State Labor Mediation Board, which also had a hand in earlier parleys.

Christmas Parade Plans Include 34 Local Floats

Civic plans to touch off Pontiac's holiday season with one of the biggest Christmas Parades in area history gathered momentum among members of 34 religious and school groups this week.

The colorful spectacle will take place December 3 under the co-ordination of the Retail Merchants' Association. An estimated crowd of over 70,000 lined the route of march last year to view the annual event.

John Hirlinger, executive director, said yesterday that each of the 34 organizations have indicated that they will enter mobile floats, although he expects a total of 37 by parade time.

The director, who is also assistant manager of the Chamber of Commerce, stated that each of the float-planners will strive to present a part of the "true story of Christmas."

The parade will also feature the appearance of seven school bands and a special float carrying Santa Claus. Hirlinger states that although the latter unit will not be drawn by real reindeer, as last year, children will be again given the opportunity to meet Santa Claus.

The director will be assisted in coordinating the event by John A. Riley who will again act as parade marshal.

The line of march, Hirlinger said, will follow last year's: north on Saginaw from Turk (where the parade will be assembled) to Oakland, and along Oakland to Sanderson.

Some 500 student musicians will march in bands from Pontiac, Lake Orion, Waterford, Oxford, Walled Lake and Avondale high schools, while area junior high schools will combine their bands into one unit.

Most area churches will participate in the event.

Brazilian Army Ousts President

Carlos da Luz Gets Boot by Troops of General in Bloodless Rio Coup

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—The Brazilian army under Gen. Henrique Teixeira Lott ousted temporary President Carlos Coimbra da Luz today and seized the government.

The bloodless coup was carried out so quietly most residents of Rio De Janeiro did not even know it was happening.

A special session of Congress was called to decide who would assume the presidency. Constitutionally the post would go to Nereu Ramos, vice president of the Senate.

Luz, former president of the House of Deputies, took over as temporary president only last Tuesday.

The capital went about its early morning business normally under a driving rain. A few extra military police and troops were on the streets.

Cabinet ministers, including Minister of Justice Prado Kelly, were reported under arrest.

Veterans Day Honors Our War Dead

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

America pauses today to pay tribute to the men who died, and to the men who offered their lives and survived, in all of her wars.

Veterans Day has not yet settled into its own peculiar niche among the nation's memorial occasion.

Memorial Day is for the dead. It too, now covers all the wars, although it was long connected primarily with the Civil War, and only later with the Spanish-American War, World Wars I and II, and Korea.

Armistice Day, long celebrated in memory of World War I victory, gradually assumed the proportions of a tribute to both the living and the dead of that war, and persisted even through two more wars to present that aspect.

V-E Day and V-J Day never caught on as widely observed anniversaries. There may have been a reason.

Americans joined up for World War I to popular patriotic tunes as well as the national hymns. They marched under shining new banners, and their wives and sweethearts cheered their departures from village greens, railroad stations and the very docks.

They marched off in what had become, so everyone felt at the time, a crusade for peace and democracy.

World War II and the Korean War were just dirty businesses. America fought in response to attack in one, and to stop aggression in another. Men embarked in secrecy in blacked out ships, and displays of patriotism at home consisted largely of marching bannerless down to the assembly lines, and conforming with rationing rules. The spiritual lift had been taken out of war, and many preferred just to forget.

But Congress acted to establish one day for all the wars, and last year Armistice Day became Veterans Day.

Veterans could be bitter, but they need not be. For some day there will be peace, and they will be remembered not in just one day, but in the pages of history, as it pioneers, the men who marched under the banners of a peace-loving nation, dedicated to the future of man.

This was described as the largest amount ever collected by any community in a charity drive. The Detroit area exceeded its Torch Drive goal for the third year in a row.

Pontiac Physician Praises Press Eisenhower Story

A Pontiac physician, who has treated many persons suffering from heart conditions similar to President Eisenhower's, today commended Press columnist Joe Haas for writing "the most brief, comprehensive and intelligent piece on Ike's situation I've seen yet."

Dr. L. A. Farnham referred to the lead story in Monday's Man About Town column.

Haas said he learned from close friends of the chief executive that the President's weeks in the hospital "have made him restless. He now has definitely concluded that he never would be content in a life of retirement.

"He never has loafed. He is sure that a quiet existence on his farm . . . would only hasten a condition of general poor health. He likewise feels that he has an obligation to his country to finish the job the voters asked him to start."

The President feels, said Haas, that Vice President Richard M. Nixon is fully capable of taking over in any emergency. Haas concluded by saying, "Yes, Ike will run."

"I've found that nine out of ten persons with cases similar to Ike's come back to work, if they are of working age," said Dr. Farnham, "and have important and necessary work to do.

"If a man can't sit down and work at the job he wants to finish, he'll be very unhappy.

"No hard and fast rule should be set up that a man shouldn't return to work. Any unreasonable strain should be avoided.

"Ike alone will know best whether or not his job would create such a strain. I don't think anyone but Ike himself can decide the question."

Senate May Buy Two Institutions, Broomfield Says

House-Senate Wrangle Continuing in Lansing; Suggestions Fly

The state's attempts to provide more beds for mentally retarded children were cloaked in more fog today by conflicting statements and fancy legislative maneuvering.

State Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) said he thought the Senate would act "favorably" in appropriating money for buying two institutions in Oakland County if the properties were "fairly evaluated."

Gov. G. Mennen Williams said an appraisal of the county's tuberculosis sanatorium and Farmington Children's Hospital already has been made.

Speaking at the Oakland County Board of Supervisors meeting yesterday State Rep. Theodore F. Hughes (R-Berkley) said he has introduced a bill which would authorize purchase of the county sanatorium and have TB patients at the Howell Sanatorium transferred to the Oakland institution.

The Supervisors held up incorporating an authority to issue revenue bonds to finance a new courthouse pending outcome of the proposed sanatorium sale.

Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), chairman of the powerful Senate Appropriations Committee, said the state could put 525 mentally retarded children in vacant beds at the Northville State Hospital in Wayne County.

Porter said his plan would permit immediate relief for the waiting list of 1,221 children committed to state hospitals.

He stated this would not interfere with Northville's present use. Added to the bill already passed by the Senate, the plan would provide 2,295 beds, Porter asserted, 845 more than Williams asked for.

Rep. Ed Carey of Detroit, the Democratic floor leader in the House, was expected to have the bulk of his followers back at Lansing, plus the five "Young Turk" Republicans who have stood with him in a fight against the Senate's refusal to buy the two hospitals.

No one expects the Senate to appear, however, although it, too, technically is in recess until today. Both chambers recessed at midnight Wednesday until today in a deadlock over the program.

The House refused to accept the Senate's bill for 1,750 beds unless the Senate also agreed to buy the Oakland sanatorium and the Farmington hospital.

Williams made public an appraisal of the two hospitals which was obtained in 24 hours by the State Tax Commission. The Senate has been refusing to buy the hospitals until it obtains an "outside and independent" appraisal.

Williams said the tax commission reported the Oakland sanatorium was worth $2,244,000 and the Farmington hospital $768,000. The governor has proposed buying them for $2,000,000 and $750,000, respectively.

Broomfield, who had said he would not support sale of the Oakland sanatorium until an appraisal was made, today said on the basis of the governor's statement he would introduce a bill calling for purchase of the institution at the appraised price.

"The Senate will not agree to purchasing both Oakland buildings," he stated, "but I will push for the state's securing the TB sanatorium.

"Before the appraisal was made, it was inconceivable any legislator would pay out money for a place when the price had not even been evaluated."

The Senate has fixed its rules so that its secretary may again

George Williams Named to New County Position

GEORGE WILLIAMS

The Oakland Board of Supervisors yesterday named George H. Williams to a newly created administrative post.

Williams, who now serves as tuberculosis sanatorium business manager, will begin duties Jan. 1 as "clerk of committees."

The post is patterned after one previously set up by the Wayne County Supervisors.

Williams will attend and coordinate all meetings of supervisors' committees, according to County Corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt.

He will schedule meetings to avoid time conflicts and unnecessary duplication of work plus keeping individual committees informed of action taken by other committees.

The administrator's office will be in the county building at 1 Lafayette St. Salary for the position is not set, said Auditor John C. Austin.

recess the session today until Monday without any members being present.

But in the House, the Democrat-Young Turk coalition has the votes to open the session and order the remaining Republican absentees to appear.

No one would guess how many Republicans would show up without being called.

Williams, accusing the Republicans of a "silent filibuster," said they "obviously are going to use the same maneuver they used to stall any action Wednesday night. One member simply disappears and his vote is demanded. All action can then be blocked until he is found and returned to the chamber."

Actually, the same tactics were used for a while by Carey Wednesday night. But he apparently realized he was playing into Republican hands and abandoned the move. Then the Republicans took it up.

No one knew what the Carey forces could do if they did get the session under way.

The Senate's bill has not yet been sent to the House Ways and Means Committee, controlled by the Republicans. And no one expects that committee to release the bill until it is certain the Young Turks have given up.

Senate leaders said they were willing to return the moment the House is ready to do business.

The Supervisors yesterday endorsed the proposal by Hughes which would have the TB sanatorium purchased and Howell TB patients transferred to it.

The Howell facilities could then be used for mentally retarded care, said Hughes. There is vacant space at both institutions, he pointed out, and just about enough patients at Howell to fill the Oakland building.

Supervisors passed a resolution favoring the plan. Copies will be sent to all state legislators and Gov. Williams.

The board made official its informal action Monday when it offered to sell the TB sanatorium, at 7350 Cooley Lake Rd., to the state for $2,000,000.

The resolution stipulated that economic conditions make it impossible for the county to consider leasing any part of the sanatorium buildings to the state.

Hughes reported on the Legislature's attempts this week to agree on a mentally retarded program which ended Wednesday in a deadlock over opposed House and Senate bills.

Referring to the TB sanatorium purchase, he said, "It's my honest conviction Oakland County doesn't deserve the abuse some have heaped upon it by claiming we are trying to peddle a white elephant."

The sanatorium is worth $2,000,000 to the state, he said, "a new building wouldn't be available for 2 to 3 years."

The uncertain outcome of the proposed sale caused supervisors to postpone for the second time incorporation of an authority to issue revenue bonds and construct a new courthouse.

Special Building Committee Chairman Harold K. Schone, of Oak Park, said his group felt the move should not be made until the sanatorium's status is decided.

The Ways and Means plus Building and Grounds Committees were asked to resurvey county building facilities to determine what use the sanatorium could be put to if the sale falls through.

The committees also will study what part money from the sale, if consummated, might play in financing a new courthouse.

Pontiac's Junior High School marching bands, 200 members strong, will go through mass formations at halftime of tonight's season-ending football game at Wisner Stadium between Pontiac and Flint Northern.

The young musicians will open the show by spelling out "Vikings" and playing Northern's school song in honor of the visiting squad. Their next formation will be the word "America" in observance of Veterans Day at which time the audience will be asked to join in the singing of "America the Beautiful."

Junior High bands will complete their performance by forming a huge PHS. The three letters will cover the entire field surrounded by a frame. The school song, "Fight, Fight for Pontiac," will end the program.

Tonight's halftime show is under the direction of Dale C. Harris, assisted by Lewis Crew, Eldon Rosegart, Ray Fixel, and Fred Wiest, Junior High band directors. Purpose of the program is to give Pontiac fans an opportunity to watch Junior High marchers display their talents.

One-year-old Lloyd Phillips, who sheriff's deputies say suffered head injuries in an accident last night on Falk road near M87, was reported in critical condition this morning in Flint's Hurley Hospital.

His mother, Ruby Phillips, 21, of Holly, was in "fair" condition. Deputies said she suffered head injuries and possible fractured ribs.

Modern Cooking Methods Cause Some Diseases

DETROIT (AP) — A sharp rise in arthritis and heart disease may be explained by malfunction of the pancreas, a group of Michigan physicians was told yesterday.

Dr. William R. Bond, chairman of the physiology department at the medical college of Virginia, said this malfunction results from modern cooking methods that destroy vital enzymes and vitamins.

Addressing the Michigan Academy of General Practice, Dr. Bond said people in the Orient live on a comparatively poor diet but they seldom suffer from heart disease. He said this could be explained by cooking methods.

Dr. Bond recommended a diet containing less fat, an "adequate but minimal" of protein and more of the "nucleo-protein" foods such as whole wheat, fish, liver, green vegetables and fresh fruit.

us the understanding of how good people are."

He added:

"I am especially grateful for the knowledge that over this country and over the world friends have sent up prayers for a sick friend."

The 65-year-old President stood bareheaded under chill, overcast skies to deliver his brief farewell.

The temperature was 31 degrees and the ceiling 200 feet when the huge, silver Columbine taxied out to the runway.

Before disappearing into the plane, Eisenhower waved his hat to the crowd and called:

"Goodbye, goodbye 'Aks'—Goodbye and good luck."

"Aks" is the President's close friend and fishing crony, Denver banker Aksel Nielsen.

SHARES SAME CLUB

Eisenhower paused to shake hands at the airfield with Democratic Gov. Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado who returned to work recently after a heart attack similar to that suffered by Eisenhower.

Grinning at the governor, Eisenhower quipped:

"You and I are members of the same club now."

Eisenhower's limousine drove the six miles between the hospital and Lowry Air Force Base at about 20 miles per hour. Crowds of people were clustered at various intersections.

The President grinned and waved when he passed Colorado Women's College where some 300 students cheered.

The crowds along the route were estimated at some 3,000 people, the number held down by chilly weather.

The President arrived at the Air Force base 16 minutes after leaving the hospital. As the limousine drove up, the President waved and smiled.

He immediately went up the Columbine ramp after stepping from the car.

There was no honor guard—a decision made well in advance—but there were troops in formation as well as the band in recognition of the President's farewell.

News Fraternity Fighting Secrecy

CHICAGO (AP)—The men who play a big role in bringing you the news you're reading now, asked today if you realize the danger that lies in official secrecy.

In doing so, they tried to rip apart what they called a "paper curtain" behind which they said the U. S. government hides its affairs.

The slam against official secrecy was taken by the Sigma Delta Chi, a national journalism fraternity, which Tuesday adopted a resolution prepared by its advancement of Freedom of Information Committee.

Second Lecture in Series Brings Dr. Banks to Town

BIRMINGHAM — "Do something for me when you leave," young Dr. Murray Banks, psychiatrist, asked his audience attending yesterday's second lecture in the Birmingham Town Hall series.

* * *

"Walk by a school yard and count 25 children. You may then say to yourself, 'Of these 25, two will one day be in hospital institutions, four more will be profoundly neurotic, four deeply and four mildly neurotic. Eight to ten of them will be fairly normal."

"But this normalcy depends on what kind of adjustment you, yourself, are able to make when life hands you a dirty blow," he said.

He cited the "how-to-go-insane" case of Mary, who for 19 years has been hospitalized, neither laughing, crying, speaking or eating—she is fed intravenously—and who stands always in a bent-over position, eyes toward the ground.

Banks described her unfortunate adjustment, which started with a broken love affair and built up in her mind to a point where she decided to run away, 'where no one can ever hurt me.' "And there, Mary commits emotional suicide," he said, an adjustment, but one which led to psychosis, "a word better known as insanity."

KNOWN FOR HUMOR

But the imprint left by this story was his statement that, "There are more Mary's than there are graduates in all the colleges and universities of America."

These were some of the more profound remarks made by the psychologist who is known for flavoring his lectures with humor as well as knowledge.

Sadly, he said, such cases are avoidable through mental hygiene, or learning "How to Live With Yourself," the title of his talk and his best-selling book.

* * *

"The difference normal and abnormal is not what you do, but how much you do. You're not crazy if you talk to yourself—only if you listen," he said in his usual light manner.

A graduate of Columbia and New York Universities, Banks' clinical psychopathology study was done in the psychiatric division of New York's Bellevue Hospital.

He has been a marriage counselor, visiting professor and lecturer at several colleges and universities and is also noted for his humorous books, including "Things My Mother Never Told Me" and "What to do Until the Psychiatrist Comes."

Recreation Board members meeting Wednesday night, readied plans for this week's distribution of about 7,000 letters to be distributed in the schools, seeking parental cooperation in ending the use of Quarton Lake for ice skating.

"Quarton is an artificial lake created by the damming of the Rouge River," the letter reads. "Depths vary from two to six to eight feet, consequently, water currents prevent some portions from freezing to sufficient thickness for safety." The lake has been declared unsafe by both the board and City Commission for some time, with other appeals made to no avail.

Quarton School and Pembroke and St. James Parks will be flooded for skating at least until the Eton Park artificial rink is opened.

There will be no regular Recreation Board meeting next week.

Laurie Anders, of the Ken Murray television show and "The Eight Jills," Bloomfield Hills High School singing group, will be guests at tonight's teenage "Platter Party" from 6 to 7 at the Birmingham Theater.

Charles Goudie and Jack Cataldo, who operate the weekly party, said auditioning will begin tonight for "good, non-professional singing talent, desirous of professional contacts." They have arranged for audition contracts for the best single, duet, trio and quartet acts. Anyone interested is asked to contact them.

'No Basis' Reported in Poisoning Charge

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—The district attorney's office found "no basis whatsoever" for charging Mrs. Mary Moss Falcon with murder in the poisoning of two small boys.

* * *

The 30-year-old redhaired woman walked out of jail last night after posting a $2,500 bond in an unrelated aggravated battery case.

Seh denied she had anything to do with the deaths of the two Baughman boys, William, 7, and Lawrence, 6.

Police arrested Mrs. Falcon Monday night when she returned to the tenement house where the Baughman boys lived with their parents and five sisters in a single room.

* * *

The boys died Oct. 31 in Charity Hospital a few hours after they were taken from the tenement on complaint of neighbors, who said the children rooted for food in garbage cans and begged meals door to door.

Russian Workers Put in Longer Hours While Wages Trail Behind Living Costs

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russians are working longer hours and their wages are rising slower than the cost of living. All workers belong to unions but they can't strike. The government sets wages and hours.

This picture of the laborer's lot in Soviet Russia, which Communist dogma says is a "proletarian" or worker-ruled state, was portrayed by the U.S. Labor Department in a collection of data just published.

It contrasts with the "capitalistic" United States, where the trend has been toward shorter working hours and pay outstripping prices. Workers can and do strike.

The department's sources were official Soviet publications and other bits of information that have leaked out from behind the Iron Curtain.

"On the whole," the Department said, its reports "confirm the arbitrary, restrictive and punitive character of Soviet labor practices, so strikingly different from the American."

The department said the 48-hour, six-day work week is now apparently common in Russia. In the United States, where longer hours used to be common, the standard work week is now 40 hours for five days. CIO President Walter Reuther says it will shrink to 32 hours and four days by 1965.

The Soviets experimented with a five-day production week in 1929 in which workers worked four days and rested one. Workers' shifts were staggered to keep plants running without interruption. Then the Soviets switched to the 48-hour week in 1940.

Under their 48-hour week Russian workers put in 307 days of work a year, getting Sundays and six holidays off. The American's five-day week requires him to work about 255 days a year.

As for Soviet workers' earnings rising more slowly than consumer prices, the Department said the evidence is that "the average worker has to work about 43 per cent longer in 1954 than he did in 1928 in order to buy the weekly supply of seven foods most important to him." The foods were bread, potatoes, beef, butter, eggs, milk and sugar.

While all Russian workers must belong and pay dues to unions they aren't even allowed to negotiate on wages and hours, much less strike.

The worker is forbidden to quit his job without management permission. If he's late for work more than 20 minutes, or tardy less than 20 minutes three times a month, he's guilty of a crime punishable by a 25 per cent pay cut for the next six months.

The worker is required to "invest" about three or four weeks pay per year in non-interest bearing, 20-year government bonds.

All African Airlines Aim to Boost Travel

ELIZABETHVILLE — In an effort to make air travel in Africa more attractive, all airlines serving that continent have agreed to cooperate. Meeting here in the Belgian Congo, their representatives named a committee which has agreed on a program.

It includes improvement of runways (generally too short at present); better arrangements for night flights; measures to offer passengers more comfort and facilities at all airports, and reduction to a minimum of the formalities imposed on passengers by the various countries.

It also urges that first class cars be made available to foreign travelers for side-trips.

White Begins U.S. Heart Poll

Ike's Physician Aiming to Tabulate Number, All Causes of Disease

CHICAGO (INS)—Dr. Paul Dudley White, President Eisenhower's heart specialist, has launched a nation-wide survey of all new coronary thrombosis victims.

* * *

His aim is to learn how many other Americans have suffered heart attacks similar to President Eisenhower's.

In a letter published in the current journal of the American Medical Association, Dr. White asked the nation's doctors to send him detailed information on all patients who were struck down with "unquestionable acute coronary thrombosis" in the month following the President's attack.

The President suffered his coronary (a clot in a heart blood vessel) Saturday, Sept. 24.

Dr. White asked cooperating doctors to answer two general categories of questions. The first question sought the total number of cases with breakdowns for age, sex, occupation, national origin and mortality rate.

* * *

The second question asked the number of their patients who survived acute coronary attacks in the past. He took June 25, 1955, or exactly three months before the President's attack, as the control date for this part of the survey.

Dr. White explained his project in these words:

"Since the current illness of President Eisenhower has brought acute coronary thrombosis still more into the limelight than it ever has been before and since it is important to have more information on the prevalence of this disease in the United States today, it occurred to me that the medical profession might afford at least a partial answer."

* * *

Dr. White asked that all answers be mailed to him at:
264 Beacon Street
Boston, Mass.

Orchids Yield Vanilla

MEXICO CITY—Vanilla comes from the fruit of an orchid native to Mexico but now grown in other parts of the world. At present the island of Madagascar is the largest supplier of this flavoring. The fruit, or vanilla bean, is long and slender and looks something like a snap bean although it is dark brown when cured.

Report Sounds Warning of U.S. Teacher Shortage

A report warning of future teacher shortage is especially timely because it has been released for Education Week, November 6-12.

Coming from the Fund for the Advancement of Education established by the Ford Foundation, it emphasized that traditional methods of getting enough teachers won't suffice. As a result, the report says, the quality of American education will decline unless schools and colleges make better use of the good teachers they now have.

Children born since World War II will tax our educational system severely for 20 years to come. But the biggest problem of all, says the report, will be getting enough good teachers.

On the basis of present student-teacher ratios, public and private schools are warned they will have to expand their teaching forces more in the next 10 years than in the past 35. In the next 15 years colleges and universities will have to add more teachers than in all their previous history.

Contrary to popular belief, salary increases alone won't solve the teacher shortage. In the Fund's opinion there are four main weaknesses in present day teaching salary structures. These are: Starting and general salaries too low, advancement not based on performance and top salaries much too low.

One approach to the problem is action enabling teachers to handle more students by relieving them of nonprofessional duties. Others are use of older students to help instruct younger ones, employment of carefully selected teacher aides and television.

★ ★ ★

While the report offers no definite conclusion, it is well worth the study of everyone interested in this subject. Certainly it is difficult to dispute its contention that American education will deteriorate unless schools and colleges make better use of the good teachers they now have.

Monkey Business

An article in a French newspaper deals with a book written by the British Nobel prize winning atomic scientist, Sir George Thompson.

In his discussion of automation, Sir George wrote:

"Just think how complicated must be a machine capable of picking oranges without damaging the orange trees! But a monkey can accomplish that task perfectly and after only a relatively short period of training."

★ ★ ★

The scientist added that the cost of a simian farm worker would be much less than a mechanical device. He therefore made the arresting proposal that the climbing animal be employed everywhere possible.

Thought provoking though this idea is, it would be likely to stir opposition from farm workers as the experience of a British horticulturist proved.

★ ★ ★

Having hired a group of farm hands to pick his fruit, the horticulturist added his pet monkey to the crew. At first this was very amusing to the workers. But when they saw that the animal was doing the work as well as they and much faster, they threatened to strike in protest against the monkey which literally worked for peanuts.

People Rejoice as Ike Returns to Washington

Today is one of rejoicing for Americans.

This Veterans Day is especially memorable because it was marked by our President's long step toward resumption of his full duties as the Nation's First Citizen.

True, his discharge from Fitzsimons Army Hospital and his flight to Washington don't mean that he can resume his heavy burdens immediately. But the mere fact that he was able to address the Nation briefly before leaving Lowry Field in Denver and after his arrival at International Airport in Washington in itself was cheering news.

★ ★ ★

It meant that he had traveled a long and hazardous way back from September 24, the day he was stricken. Also implicit in his return to the Capital is the belief of Mr. Eisenhower's doctors that his recovery has progressed far enough so that he can safely complete it at his Gettysburg farm. The President is expected to spend at least six weeks there.

★ ★ ★

Starting in December his doctors plan to allow him to make 25 mile trips to his Catoctin Mountain retreat at Thurmont, Md. to attend Cabinet and possibly National Security meetings. Doctors say, however, it will be late January or early February before the President can decide, on the basis of his own physical condition, whether to seek a second term.

★ ★ ★

We feel confident we speak for all Americans and everybody of good will in congratulating you, Mr. President, on your fine recovery. On their behalf we also voice the hope that you won't overtax your strength by attempting too much too soon.

A Great New Era...in the Air

David Lawrence Says:

Recent State Elections Showing GOP Importance of Unity and Organization

WASHINGTON—Republican professionals, like their Democratic brethren with experience in matters political, are privately talking about the lessons of this week's elections.

For the Republican party, the outstanding fact is that organization and unity were never demonstrated to be more necessary than today.

For the Democratic party the most conspicuous revelation is that the CIO is a more powerful influence in local politics and in local organization work than the leaders of the party have hitherto believed.

When the mayor of an Indiana city dared to call for the National Guard a few weeks ago to preserve law and order it created resentment among the labor bosses. They had their revenge at the polls.

Indiana, like Michigan, now is in the grip of the CIO political organization and, while this doesn't bode well for the Republicans, it may make a lot of Democrats wonder what's going to happen if the union labor organization takes over the party nationally.

The disclosure a few days ago that the labor union political organizations spent more than $2,000,000 in the 1954 Congressional elections is startling. This is more than a major party itself used to spend and it means that if this sum was recorded on a national basis, as provided by federal law, there must have been even a larger sum expended when one adds up the contributions to the state committees by local unions.

HOW TO COUNTERACT?

How are the Republicans going to counteract this precinct-by-precinct activity by the political organizations of the national labor unions and, particularly, the large sums collected either from dues or so-called voluntary contributions of labor union members of both parties?

Indiana wasn't the only place where union activity was evident. It emerged in many other states where industrial workers had moved into smaller towns following a shift of plants to the country areas. This is bound to be a continuous movement because of the desire of industry to decentralize in order to meet the threat of atomic warfare against the big cities.

There are worries, on the other hand, in this week's elections for the Democrats, too. Thus, their leaders in Congress have been supporting a plan for more highway construction based on higher gasoline taxes. But in New York state the people voted down a $750,000,000 bond issue plan because of organized protests that the higher taxes wouldn't be spent only for highways. The Republican plan in Congress for financing new roads seems, therefore, to be be preferred by voters.

Looking over the national scene, the professionals see a Polish ward in a big city going Republican for the first time and this tells the Democrats that the controversy over Yalta and the sell-out of Poland isn't an insignificant issue after all. The foreign-born vote in several big cities is at stake.

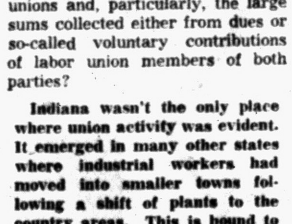

MINORITIES POWERFUL

What the xperienced politicans of both parties will note, moreover, is that organized minorities can swing elections, especially when the unorganized minorities don't go to the polls. Thus in Ohio a well organized drive beat the amendment that would have permitted the state compensation laws to be changed to aid the CIO's guaranteed annual wage plan. Ohio, in other words, voted against the union side, just as Indiana, by a mobilization of the votes, especially in all the industrial cities, sided with the unions.

The tales of organization warfare in the Republican ranks are more numerous than among the Democrats. In Connecticut, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey the scars of the last three years of battling between Republican factions were plainly visible in the results.

In Philadelphia, for example, the Republican nominee turned his back on his own organization. His indiscretion was condemned by a leading Republican newspaper. So in the end the Republican precinct workers didn't do the job that an organization is supposed to do. Victory without organization is difficult, especially in local elections.

Brady Recalls Two Cases of So-Called Indigestion

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

The very concept of "indigestion" is shifty, vague and devious. Heaven only knows what may be the matter with the patient who purports to have indigestion, acute, intestinal, nervous, acid. You pay your money and take your choice.

* * *

If "indigestion" means that food, all food or just a particular item, is not digestible or is difficult to digest or just lies there undigested—a silly notion, if you have an elementary knowledge of physiology—the discomfort, distress or pain attributed to "indigestion" is still unexplained.

I recall vividly two cases of "indigestion" in my early years of practice. First, that of a businessman about 45 with "nervous indigestion." That's what a number of physicians at home and far from home had called it, and I could find no good explanation for his complaint, so, being only 23 years old, I had to agree with them.

Fortunately for the patient, he did not remain with me long. Later he was admitted to a sanitarium where the poor fellow received all kinds of "therapy" for his "nerves." Finally he came home to die. The autopsy—which I was not invited to attend—revealed that the man's sole trouble had been an egg-size gallstone in his thickened gall-bladder.

BLAMES COCONUT

The other case might have been "acute indigestion" but the doctor was skeptical of such a diagnosis. The patient, about 38, as healthy as all get out, was suddenly seized with — not really a bellyache but hypogastric discomfort. He had eaten some coconut an hour before, but coconut had never previously given him any trouble. The discomfort steadily increased, became positive distress, and the patient became chilled through, on a pleasant autumn day.

* * *

He went to bed and a doctor was called, four hours after the discomfort started. The patient said it wasn't pain but a sense of extreme tension or pressure . . . the doctor diagnosed acute appendicitis and removed a gangrenous appendix next morning. I'm sure nobody can enjoy being operated upon more than I did.

The pain, distress, sense of constriction or other discomfort produced by coronary occlusion, coronary thrombosis, angina pectoris or other heart or heart-artery trouble is referred to the epigastium (pit of the stomach) or the hypogastrium (the belly at belt level) in many cases. To ascribe the condition to "acute indigestion" because of this is inexcusable today.

Indeed I'll go further and say that "indigestion" is just a bad guess, period.

Whatever your trouble may be, if you are fooling with the idea that it is due to poor digestion, please believe me, you are fooling yourself. Anyway, please squander 25 cents for Little Lesson No. 3—the booklet So You Have Indigestion?, which I will send upon reciept of 25 cents free from messy stickum and a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Do not expect a reply to a clipping. Ask for the booklet in writing and sign your request. If we have to stop to try to determine who wants what we'd never manage to take care of two to three thousand letters a day.

gned letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Article About Vice Squad Gets Mother's Approval

Letters will be condensed when necessary, name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

The article in Tuesday's paper of a reporter's night ride with the Vice Squad should certainly be enlightening, and they certainly deserve the praise of the public in doing their best to break this.

If the people who sold intoxicating beverages to minors in this particular part of town had to bear some of the grief and heartaches of mothers whose children have been punished for the effects of such a thing, I'm sure they wouldn't do it for the small profit that must be involved.

There are lots or mothers who have to raise children without their fathers and who want them to be respectable citizens and able to live in society without having a finger pointed at them all the time, but when something of this sort is at their disposal, they are not strong enough to resist the temptation before them, therefore must pay the penalty the hard way.

I sincerely advocate the strongest kind of punishment for such people.

Mother of One Being Punished

Mr. Twietmeyer Favors Abolishing Turnpike Plans

Everyone agrees we desperately need good roads, but we don't all agree on how to get them. There is a tendency for some to grasp at anything offered, especially when it appears in a sugar-coated package like the toll road the Michigan Turnpike Authority is trying so hard to force on us.

The M. T. A. is trying by every means it can to "sell" this turnpike to the public. Why? If this enterprise really benefits the public, why must it hire a publicity agent at $10,000 a year plus a good will ambassador like Van Wagoner at $1,000 a month to plug the toll road?

The answer is simple. The "take" on this project is so fabulous in the way of bond financing and discounting, interest rates, newly created administrative jobs, political patronage, etc., that the backers stand to profit handsomely on our desperate need for highways.

The creation of the Turnpike Authority duplicates the function of our existing State Highway Commission and can only result in bickering, inefficiency, pirating of personnel and hodgepodge highway planning if this condition is allowed to remain.

In fairness to Commissioner Ziegler, you must remember that up until last spring Governor Williams and the leislature has consistently failed to produce any real highway plan or funds.

George N. Higgins speaking about the turnpike recently said, "The public must decide soon whether to go ahead or forget the whole thing." Well, there should be no doubt in anybody's mind after thinking over the above facts that the best possible course of action is to abolish turnpikes forever from the State.

Depreciation Is Real Cost and Not Just a Tax Dodge

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The roofer was in today to advise me that a valley needn't be restored and that a large square patch had to be replaced.

As a byproduct, this served to remind me that depreciation, contrary to the assumption of some superficial business operators, is not a mere tax dodge, but an actual cost.

In the world in which we live, depreciation reserves record the inexorable fact that materials wear out and become outdated (obsolete).

Similarly in the wastage of natural resource assets, the depletion allowance is a bookkeeping representation of the fact that such property actually is consumed.

The late Orlando F. Weber, builder of the Allied Chemical & Dye Corp., who had a creative grasp of accounting as a business management tool, often remarked that failure to understand that depreciation is a real cost is one of the commonest errors in business.

RAPID DEPRECIATION

In recent years, in order to encourage development of defense industries, the principle of rapid depreciation has been permitted by law. This allows companies to depreciate properties in five years, instead of 15 or 20.

The original motivation during the war was to stimulate investors to put savings into war industries, which might have a shorter profitable life than civilian industries. Later this principle has been extended to others.

The effect of the rapid depreciation is to increase the allowable deductions from net taxable income. Thus in effect improvements are paid for, in substantial measure, out of tax savings.

But in reality only the timing of tax liabilities of durable enterprises is affected. For, if assets are written off in five years instead of—let's say—15, then, while the deductions arising from the transaction are heavy for the first five years, they are nil during the next 10.

FORD TAX ANGLE

There is a Ford family tax angle which has not been discussed in the announcement of the forthcoming public sale of shares in the Ford Motor Co. for the benefit of the Ford Foundation. This tax matter is deferred and potential.

* * *

In order to make the non-voting stock in the foundation attractive to outside investors, the Ford family, with exclusive voting control, agreed to a modification which ultimately would transfer 60 per cent of the voting stock to others.

At times, they may find it desirable taxwise to take advantage of this new marketability. A decision on the part of the family to lighten up would not necessarily reflect an adverse view of the company's prospects.

Desire to Help Others Can Be Fulfilled by Joining 'League of the Golden Pen'

Morton's problem is common among generous men, as well as women. For our churches have seldom analyzed the needs in their areas so that new members can harness their missionary zeal locally and now. So join the "League of the Golden Pen" and become a member of the "Compliment Club," too.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-383: Morton P., aged 22, recently joined a church for the first time.

"Dr. Crane, I feel so happy and contented," he began. "It is the only time I can remember when I have been free from tension and fully at peace.

"But I am eager to do something for others. I asked my minister if I couldn't teach a Sunday school class, but he says they now have plenty of teachers for all their classes, so I must wait awhile.

"Since I am bubbling over with desire to be of service to others, I don't want to stay on the shelf for a year or so.

"What can I do now, this very minute, to help make the world better?"

HARNESS GOOD RESOLVES

Morton's problem is widespread. Dozens of men and women have come to me at the height of their religious zeal, for similar suggestions.

* * *

Alas, many of our churches have no specific projects to offer their new members.

For it is often really true that there are enough teachers already recruited for all the Bible classes. And a clergyman can't very tactfully ask a previously loyal teacher to step aside and let an inexperienced newcomer take over.

So I'll offer a few projects that every unselfish person can quickly launch upon.

First, join the "League of the Golden Pen." This was originated about 40 years ago at Beloit College by Dr. Karl T. Waugh, one of our great American psychologists.

* * *

You simply must write one encouraging or sympathetic letter per week to somebody who merits

it. You can write even to a stranger such as somebody about whom you have read in this newspaper today.

Few people receive letters of praise and commendation, though we all get plenty of sharp, critical barbs sent us via the mail.

So send a cheery, helpful letter of commendation to somebody to whom you would not normally write.

And the words flowing from your pen will thus be golden in their constructive influence, as Dr. Waugh told his Beloit classes many years ago.

* * *

COMPLIMENT CLUB

Second, become a member of my "Compliment Club." It requires that you offer a sincere compliment to each of three people per day for 30 consecutive days without a break.

Compliments simply put the Golden Rule into effective daily use. They brighten the day for discouraged souls. They lift the chin and buoy up the spirit of disheartened people.

Few people offer compliments and so few receive them that most folks don't even know what to say when they do get one.

"They seemed stunned," my studets at Northwestern University would inform me.

"Or they'd blush happily and just gurgle something inarticulate."

* * *

Others would quickly try to pay you a compliment in return. Some people would laugh and say, "Oh, you're just fishing for a quarter."

But spread joy and verbal appreciation around you by honest praise. Then you'll be fulfilling the Golden Rule in beautiful fashion. And you can do so NOW.

You don't need a seminary education or any special equipment. Just smile at your companions—even the strangers—and pay them a sincere bit of praise.

You can also organize a group as an official "Compliment Club" and have fun reporting your experiences. It's good sales training, too.

So send for my "Compliment Club" booklet, enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (nonprofit.)

It's an ideal project for church Girls and 4-H Clubbers, but you can enjoy it solo, too. So start now.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane, in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

TV Spectacular Will Pay Tribute to Press

NEW YORK (INS)—Some of the nicest and most talented Joes and Janes in show business will collect their wits and know-how next Monday at 8 p.m. (EST) and present "Dateline II" over NBC-TV's Producers Showcase.

* * *

It's a tribute to freedom of the press in general and in particular to Overseas Press Club of America members who have been killed in pursuit of rough-knuckled news.

* *

John Steinbeck has written an especially penetrating bit about Robert Capa, the Life cameraman who weathered a series of big league wars only to step on a mine and be blown up in Indochina.

Robert Frost will make one of his rare appearances on TV to speak Maine-fashioned words about the right of the people to know what is happening to them at home and abroad.

* * *

John Wayne will be along, and so will Gary Cooper, Greer Garson, Bill Holden (who will emcee), Janet Blair, Peggy Lee, Cahrlton Heston, the great Scots Buards, and three of the world's most amusing souls—Milton Berle and Bob and Ray.

MUSIC BY BERLIN

Irving Berlin has presented two new songs to "Dateline II"—one entitled "Free" and the other "I Love the Funnies."

The 18 great news events since the bombing of Pearl Harbor will be dealt with and illuminated by the presence on the set of the correspondents who were there. Donald Davis is the producer of the show: Alan Handley will direct.

"Dateline I" set a new pattern for TV variety shows with a theme. It brought together the likes of Bob Hope, Perry Como, Marion Anderson, Carl Sandberg, Richard Rodgers, Henry Ford, Martha Raye, Elsa Maxwell, Sid Caesar and many others, including the President of the United States.

Yet it all held together and pointed to the target of freedom of the press and the sacrifices that freedom sometimes demands. Eisenhower said it well:

"In the unending sturggle to maintain our freedom, the American reporter is ever in the front lines, for as long as faith and knowledge endure, freedom is certain to survive . . . In peace, he is still a valuable soldier for the truth that makes men free."

Before leaving Japan, where hw was a tremendous hit, Andre Kostelanetz told INS's Marvin Stone:

"We need to sponsor more and more cultural programs in Asia. The Symphony of the Air was a tremendous success last spring. Now Martha Graham will be a sure hit. But we need more.

"The Soviets dish it out free. We seem to be making our people hard to get. The USIS completely passed up the possibilities of sponsoring, for example, a concert for Japanese students while I was here."

JUST ASK MARTY

Don't look to last Tuesday's election returns to see how the wind is blowing. Don't wait to see what Maine does. Look to Marty Snyder.

Marty was Ike's cook suring World War II. At Philadelphia in '48 he bombarded the streets and delegates at both conventions with the loudest campaign song I ever heard, "We Want Eisenhower for President."

A band of music lovers among the political writers finally had the doughty cook hauled away from in front of the Bellevue-Stratford.

Well, Marty's man made it, flanly. Now Marty is embarked on the 1956 campaign, even to the point of distributing buttons.

* * *

He's whipped up a purty red, white and blue job which has "Eisenhower" written across the middle. Above this is "For President—Ike." Below it is "For Vice President—Milt."

Inmates Quit Sitdown Strike

1,000 Other Prisoners Join in Sympathizing With Hunger Walkout

LONDON, Ohio (AP)—All eyes were turned toward Dormitory 7 at London Prison Farm today. There, 233 convicts who touched off a near prisonwide sitdown strike have agreed to return to work this morning.

Meanwhile, armed National Guard troops continued their vigil outside prison fences.

* * *

The 1,000 inmates who struck yesterday "out of sympathy," as one official termed it, wont know about the back-to-work movement until they see the men from Dormitory 7 go to breakfast. The Dormitory 7 prisoners have been denied food since the strike began Wednesday.

* * *

The 1,000 "sympathy" strikers in four other dormitories have not been fed since yesterday morning. Associate Supt. George E. Miller said there's a good chance they will "go along" with Dormitory 7 convicts.

Only disturbance reported so far was a raid on the prison commissary last night by food-starved convicts. Miller said guards fired a tear gas shell into a ventilator shaft, by which the convicts gained access, to drive off any stragglers.

The convicts broke into a store room beneath Dormitory 5, Miller said.

* * *

Mainly cigarettes and canned goods were taken, he said.

Three hungry convicts from rebellious Dormitory 7 met last night with Supt. R. B. Eckle. The superintendent said the trio handed him a petition saying the dormitory had agreed to go back to work.

Lawrence Kaz, a New York City vaporizer manufacturer, has just conducted a nationwide survey of sneezing and claims today he can tell where a man comes from by the way he sneezes.

Here is how Kaz describes sneezing habits and traits in various American cities:

St. Louis: The most pretentious sneezers in the country live here.

Cleveland: The most sneaky sneezers in the country can be found in the Ohio city. Kaz claims Clevelanders hide their sneezes "behind newspapers, handkerchiefs or whatever else is handy."

Washington, D. C.: A city of hypochondraiac sneezers who run to the drug store at the first slight sneeze.

Los Angeles: Angelenos are the loudest sneezers. Kaz says when a resident of Los Angeles lets loose he can be heard in the suburbs.

Dallas: The Texas city inhabitants go in for sequence sneezing. Apparently a single sneeze is never enough.

Detroit: Sneezers in this city believe in giving adequate warning. Kaz reported that in Detroit, "you can see a sneeze coming long before it happens because of the facial contortions of the sneezer."

Chicago: The quietest sneezers prevail here. The Kaz report declared that in Chicago, "You often never know there has been a sneeze because they're so quiet."

* * *

Kaz declared his own home town of New York is unclassifiable.

City Schools Ending Week of Activities

With Michigan Education Week drawing toward its close, topic for discussion in many schools and civic groups today was "Schools—Your Investment in a Strong Nation."

Special conferences, assemblies and PTA meetings have marked the period set aside by President Eisenhower to emphasize the importance of education.

This marks the final day in a week-long open house at six Pontiac schools — Emerson, Central, Linda Vista, McCarroll, Malkim and Webster.

Because of conflicts in schedules, some schools deferred their special Education Week programs until later this month. Wever Junior High will hold its program at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Thursday, open house will be held at 7 p.m. at Washington Junior High, and at 7:30 p.m. ot Owen, Longfellow and Malkim schools. Pontiac High School will have its parents night on Nov. 29.

Dies in Fall Off Cliff

CAMPTON, Ky. (AP)—The body of Willie Sparks was found yesterday where it had tumbled down a 100-foot mountain cliff. It was wedged between two boulders at the edge of another precipice about 500 to 600 feet high. Officers said they believed Sparks stepped over the cliff while hunting in the dark Monday night.

Judge Blocks Board's Action

Check Land Purchase With Public Funds by Kalkaska Supervisors

KALKASKA (AP) — Circuit Judge Howard L. Campbell temporarily has enjoined the Kalkaska County Board of Supervisors from using $11,000 in public funds to purchase land it had planned to donate toward a 17 million dollar Air Force base.

Five property owners got an injunction against the board yesterday, contending the county legally could not use public funds to buy the land and the supervisors then impose a three-mill tax increase to replace the funds.

Judge Campbell did not set a date for a hearing on the question of making the injunction permanent.

Spokesmen for the supervisors said they did not anticipate the court action would delay construction of the base by the Air Force.

The State Conservation Commission yesterday approved the lease of 8,000 acres in the proposed site, 14 miles east of Traverse City, to the Air Force for $1 a year.

Judge Campbell's temporary injunction restrains the supervisors from levying taxes to help establish the base, using county funds to help build the field, or purchasing land for the site.

Black was once the standard color for automobiles. Now only a very small percentage of passenger cars are black.

Compensation, Layoff Pay in Ohio Supported by Ford

DETROIT (AP) — The Ford Motor Co. has joined the CIO United Auto Workers union in expressing hope Ohio law will be interpreted to permit simultaneous receipt of unemployment compensation and layoff pay.

Layoff pay, in addition to unemployment compensation, is provided for up to 26 weeks in newly negotiated contracts between the union and the auto industry.

Ohio voters Tuesday turned down a proposal which would have specifically approved an idle worker collecting both unemployment compensation and layoff pay. It also would have raised unemployment benefits.

Attorney General Grover C. Richman Jr., of New Jersey, yesterday interrupted his state's laws as permitting laid off workers to collect both unemployment compensation and supplemental layoff pay from their companies. Michigan, Connecticut, Delaware, New York, and Massachusetts previously have ruled similarly.

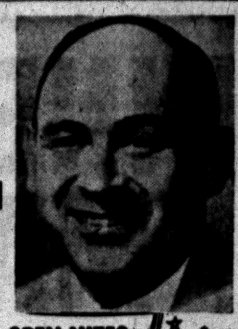

Speaking for Ford, Vice President John Bugas said yesterday refusal of Ohio voters to spell out integration of layoff pay and unemployment compensation "should not be taken as a test of voter reaction to Ford's supplemental unemployment benefit plan."

Hospital Parley Slated

U.S. Tourists Spend

NEW YORK — More than 90,000 Americans traveled to foreign countries farther away than Mexico and Canada last year. American tourists' total expenditure in foreign countries is estimated at $1,260,000,000—about $80,000,000 more than in 1953.

Hal Boyle Says:

Here's a Toast to Veterans of World War I

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—If on this Veteran's Day some aging gaffer starts reminiscing about St. Mihiel or Chateau Thierry, don't offend him by asking:

"What in the world are you talking about?".

* * *

Those words are carved deep in his heart—as are other words like "Belleau Wood" and the "Argonne Forest"—and he finds it saddening that a younger generation remembers so little of names that once stirred all America.

For it was in places like these he lost part of his youth. The Aisne-Marne looms larger in his memory than the Mason-Dixon Line, and in his mind the poppies are still blowing in Flanders fields.

* * *

He is a survivor of the 20th Century's first great conflict, and he feels that in his own lifetime his own sacrifices are now largely overlooked. And he is not without considerable justification for this viewpoint.

In every war many soldiers feel they are fighting on a forgotten front. The troops in the Pacific islands felt that way in World War II. So did the troops in Italy.

* * *

"Do people back home think the whole war is being fought in Normandy?" was the popular complaint. "Don't they know there's a war going on here, too?"

Time has a way of dimming most wars, but the rarely are forgotten while the men who fought them are still alive. Many veterans of World War I, however, are gloomily convinced that their war has been forgotten pretty much by everyone except themselves.

* * *

The "retreads"—World War I veterans who also served in World War II—took a heavy verbal beating from their younger comrades, who often told them mockingly:

"Pop, never mind telling us about your little war. If you'd done the right kind of a job in your war to end all wars, we wouldn't be here fighting this one. That's why we're over here—to finish the job you started."

* * *

And poor middleaged Pop had to take it and laugh. The kids had him outnumbered. They still do.

As of a year ago, America's veterans numbered 20 million. Of these some 80 per cent, or 15,424,000, were veterans of World War II, and 3,033,000 had served since the start of the Korean campaign in June 1950.

Pop is slowly being swallowed amid the masses of newer and younger veterans.

* * *

Yet it was in no bush league war that Pop won both his scars and his medals.

It was a titanic conflict involving 27 nations and 65,038,810 troops. The total casualties were 37,508,686, of whom 8,538,315 were killed in combat or died.

The American nation put 4,335,000 men under arms. It suffered 364,800 casualties, including 126,000 deaths. Some 17 nations still owe the United States more than 17 billion dollars from that war.

* * *

It was a war in which the submarine, airplane and tank — three decisive weapons of the World War II — first saw widespread battle use. Three weapons it lacked: "K" rations, the Jeep, the atom bomb.

Time is steadily whittling down Pop and his doughboy buddies of the past. A man drafted at 25 in 1917 today is 63 years old — only 2 years short of pension age. An American Legion friend of mine estimated several years ago that World War I veterans were dying at the rate of 84 a day. They are reaching age levels now where death calls more often.

* * *

Pop can be forgiven if now and then he grumbles, "The only guy in our crowd that hasn't been forgotten is the Unknown Soldier."

So now on Veteran's Day, let's lift a glass to some real vintage soldiers of the years 1917-18:

"Thanks, Pop, thanks! Keep living!"

Adlai Ready to Blast GOP on Two Counts

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Associates said today Adlai E. Stevenson plans to accuse Republicans of befuddling foreign policy and giving big business too much voice in government.

* * *

Stevenson is expected to announce next Tuesday in Chicago he is available again for the Democratic presidential nomination he won in 1952. He will air some of his foreign policy views in a speech tonight at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville. The speech will be carried by the ABC radio network.

* * *

The 1952 nominee conferred with former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, former Secretary of Interior Oscar Chapman and Democratic national committee officials in an overnight stopover here.

From these and other conferences came word that Stevenson, who was reluctant to take the nomination in 1952, now is a determined candidate ready for a battle.

Friends said he plans to call on the "old pros" of politics to run his campaign while volunteers are organized for him on a national basis.

* * *

Once he is officially in the race, James Finnigan, former president of the Philadelphia City Council, is expected to be called in to take charge of his campaign. Volunteers will be organized under the general direction of Barry Bingham, editor of the Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal and president of the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times Co.

* * *

Friends said Stevenson can be expected to contend that the Eisenhower administration's handling of international affairs has shown too much bluster and talk and not enough accomplishment.

On domestic issues, he is represented as feeling that big business has had too great a share in shaping the administration's policies.

Stevenson already has come out for restoration of high, rigid farm price supports, as opposed to the administration's flexible support program. He apparently agrees with the party national committee that what it calls "tax favoritism for the rich" and "public power giveaways" will be big issues next year.

* * *

Stevenson's aides apparently regard Gov. Averell Harriman of New York as one of the greatest threats to their man. Harriman has said he is not going into any primaries but he is expected to seek a "favorite son" designation from New York.

* * *

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee is likely to be a primary contender and he and Stevenson might clash head on in some of these tests. The Stevenson camp seems confident of disposing of Kefauver on some battlefield yet to be selected.

In the South, Stevenson's associates believe they are much better off than they were in 1952, when their candidate lost four states to President Eisenhower.

They were reassured by the recent statement by Sen. Russell (D-Ga) that he doesn't see how Stevenson can possibly lose the nomination. Russell was the South's candidate in 1952 but has said he won't run again.

Ypsilanti Woman Killed in Car Mishap at Ecorse

DETROIT (AP)—Mrs. Louis Moore, 25, Ypsilanti, was killed Wednesday night when her car went out of control in suburban Ecorse and struck another automobile. Police said her car "ran wild" for 250 feet, hitting a tree and the other car.

He's in Double Trouble

GEORGETOWN, Ky. (AP)—A 13-year-old Sidney, Ohio, boy admitted yesterday the car he was driving was stolen in Pineville, Ky. But he said he had no idea who the owner was. Police called Pineville and learned that information for him—the car belonged to a city policeman.

Squads Digging for Lost Miner

One Worker Crushed, Another Taken to Safety in Wyoming Cave-In

STANSBURY, Wyo. (AP)—Rescuers searched today for a miner trapped by a rock and coal cave-in and presumed dead. Another man was found crushed to death, and a third brought to safety.

* * *

George Chenchar, 54, was unaccounted for in the Union Pacific Coal Co.'s No. 7 mine.

The three men were trapped and two others injured yesterday afternoon. No hope was held for finding Chenchar alive.

"There was no noise and nothing going on. Just then — like a cyclone — rocks started to fall," said Claude Nichols, one of the injured men. "I was covered to the waist."

Company officials could give no cause for the cave-in.

Louis Julius, 38, was freed after he huddled seven hours under his coal loading machine. Doctors said he apparently escaped serious injury.

* * *

The body of John Nesbitt, 43-year-old mine foreman, was found a few yards from the spot where Julius was rescued. Rescuers dug through about 20 feet of debris to reach Julius. Nichols was freed by other miners.

Gustavos Lopez, the other injured miner, was not pinned and managed to crawl to safety.

Reuther's Brother Slams GOP for Farm 'Wringer'

MINOT, N. D. (AP) — Victor Reuther, assistant to the CIO president, told the North Dakota farmers Union yesterday the Eisenhower administration has had a "deliberate and stubborn policy of putting the farm people of this nation through an economic wringer."

Reuther accused Secretary of Agriculture Benson of trying "to get farmers and labor at each other's throat."

"One of the statements, I came here to make on behalf of the members of the UAW-CIO and the CIO," said Reuther, "is that we who lose our jobs when farmers lack money to buy the things we make, do not propose to let Mr. Benson make us the villains responsible for a drop in net farm income from $14,100,000,000 to $10,300,000,000 since January 1953 when he took office."

3 Old Geldings Rest Peacefully in Horse Heaven

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Green pastures, warm stalls and a life of ease is likely what a horse heaven is made of, if there is such a thing as a heaven for horses.

* * *

Heaven is no dream for three old geldings, veterans of the show ring and hunting trail, who live in retirement at a farm near Battle Creek. Their owner, Glenn A. Cross, has provided them with all the creature comforts, and then some.

These old-timers have earned their "beer and skittles." Nigel is 37, Pat 28 and Night Life 22. Their combined age by human standards, measured on a 3-for-1 basis, is more than 250 years.

The Cross family treats the three animals practically like members of the family. They have their own playpen and private stalls equipped with running water.

Because Nigel's teeth are going bad, his rations of clover hay, corn, oats and bran are specially ground. All three horses receive a delicacy of cooked carrots once a day.

* * *

Both Nigel and Pat for years took part in fox hunts with the local saddle and hunt club on the Ft. Custer Reservation. And both became competent jumpers and draghunters. Night Life, Mrs. Cross' horse, won a number of trophies and ribbons in the show ring.

Businessman Elected Mayor of Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Edmund Orgill, a wealthy businessman making his first bid for public office, was elected mayor yesterday. He defeated a veteran politician, S. Watkins Overton.

Orgill, 56, led from the beginning in the first election here in nearly 30 years that wasn't dominated by the late E. H. "Boss" Crump.

Final unofficial returns gave Orgill 51,789 votes, Overton 33,154. Both candidates are Democrats.

Overton, 61, was twice mayor under Crump. He had the support of most of the old Crump organization's top brass.

There were no firm issues in the campaign.

Grab $300 in Change

HASTINGS (AP)—Sheriff Clarence Donovan reports burglars made off Thursday with about $300 in dimes and quarters from coin machines at a tavern near Prairieville in Barry County.

16 Hunger Rebelling Inmates Now Eating

BOSTON (AP) — Sixteen hunger-striking state prison convicts were eating again today after quitting their two-day fast on the word of a prison official that "they could starve for all anybody cared."

The prisoners quit eating Wednesday with the announcement they wanted the State Correction Commission to go to the prison to hear their complaints.

Commissioner Russell G. Oswald, who came here from Wisconsin to take over the job less than two weeks ago, refused to heed the request.

Oswald declared he would not go near the prisoners until they showed some "responsibility." He added he would not permit the prisoners to "intimidate me" and called their hunger strike a move for "publicity."

Washing Machine Bomb

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A package gave out a whirring squad as it slid down the chute at the post office last night. "I think we've got a bomb here," Supt. Sam Weingarten telephoned police. Sgt. Erwin Yhde, demolition expert, arrived with two other officers, carried the package to th eparking lot and slit it open. Inside, whirring away merrily under battery power, was a child's toy washing machine.

Ex-GM Dealers Seek to Testify

Company Indicates It's All Prepared to Meet Complaints

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Antitrust subcommittee is still receiving requests from former General Motors car dealers who want to testify in the current GM hearings, an aide said today.

Some of them only recently had their connection with the big auto corporation severed, he said.

* * *

The hearings, started this week, are in recess until Tuesday.

Dealers' complaints are one topic which Acting Chairman O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) of the subcommittee has promised to explore thoroughly, but no time has been set for testimony on these.

* * *

One top GM official indicated clearly at yesterday's session the corporation was ready to meet charges by dealers. When O'Mahoney remarked that a number of dealers had told him of "the tough situation" they faced, Henry M. Hogan, vice president and general counsel of General Motors, replied: "Why don't you ask them how much they've made in the last five years to see if they're crying wolf? That's poverty with a ham under your arm."

Harold L. Hamilton, retired GM vice president, commented that "I think they (the dealers) ought to be able to live off their fat for a while."

* * *

Hamilton, first GM witness to appear in the hearings, entered a vigorous rebuttal to testimony from competing firms that the corporation got an unfair advantage in its Diesel locomotive sales out of a World War II government order.

The order allocated production of Diesel over-the-road locomotives to GM in the war, but gave most of the output of Diesel switchers and steam engines to other companies.

Since the war, U. S. railroads have converted almost entirely to Diesels. The subcommittee has produced figures to show GM currently is producing 76 per cent of these.

Hamilton, former head of the division which made the Diesels, said "I take exception" to any argument that GM gained its position through "artificial conditions."

* * *

He and Hogan produced figures that GM sold 67 per cent of all Diesel locomotives in the country in 1940, 57 per cent in 1941, 53 per cent in 1942, 40 per cent in 1943, 50 per cent in 1944, 51 per cent in 1945, and 65 per cent in 1946.

"They (other firms) had a sheltered position in switchers, just as we had in road locomotives," Hamilton said.

"The success of General Motors (in the Diesel field)," Hamilton declared, "has resulted from advanced engineering and planning, planning that sometimes ran six to seven years ahead of sales, and to high efficiency in production."

EXAMINE RECOVERED LOOT — Sheriff Frank Irons (left) and Michigan State Troopers Henry DeLooff look over articles recovered after the arrests Tuesday night of Detroiters Blaine Roberts, 21, and John E. Montgomery, 24. State troopers said the two were caught attempting a breakin at a Telegraph Road hardware store. The articles shown were recovered from the pair's stolen auto, their Detroit hotel room, and several pawnshops. Troopers said the loot implicates Roberts and Montgomery in "eight or ten" county robberies. Detroit State Police detectives Jack Wooley and Calvin LePein are in charge of the case.

UAW Wants Ford Stock at Half Price

DETROIT (AP)—Local 600 of the CIO United Auto Workers Union now wants the Ford Motor Co. to give its 60,000 members a chance to buy Ford stock at half-price—an offer the UAW turned down in favor of a layoff pay plan in new three-year wage agreements.

Local 600 is made up of employes in Ford's gigantic Rouge plant in suburban Dearborn. The Ford Foundation, a charitable trust which owns 88 per cent of Ford's non-voting stock, announced this week Ford planned to convert all stock to common, voting shares and sell it publicly.

Carl Stellato, President of 600, wrote company president Henry Ford II yesterday, suggesting that the firm now put into effect the stock participation plan offered last summer as a contract proposal.

Board Okays Early Plans on Eight Activity Centers

Further steps were taken by the Pontiac Board of Education last night toward completion of activity-center buildings at eight elementary schools by next fall.

Preliminary plans were approved for three of the structures to be built at Crofoot, LeBaron and McCarroll Schools. The architects were authorized to proceed with detailed drawings.

Rough plans were previously approved for centers planned at Central, Emerson, Hawthorne and Malkim Schools. Preliminary drawings of the center slated for Willis School are yet to be presented.

The Board unanimously passed a resolution introduced by the Rev. J. Allen Parker and supported by Mrs. Harry E. King.

It read: "Resolved that the Board . . . declare, restate and reaffirm its policy to employ, upgrade and assign all applicants for administrative, teaching, secretarial, clerical, maintenance and all other position classifications within the table of organization on merit without regard to race, color, nationality, religion or marital status."

Before making the motion, Rev. Parker said, "The Board . . . now has an obligation to continue a program of integration in harmony with the Fair Employment Practices law of the state signed July 16, 1955, with the city's FEPC law adopted Nov. 18, 1952 and the policy of non-discrimination of the Pontiac Board of Education adopted June 19, 1948 . . ."

He called on "the electors of this school district to discharge their responsibilities and as good citizens lend active support to this policy to the end that together, we shall build a stronger, more united community."

Board President Louis H. Schimmel said he had considered such a policy was in force since he has been on the board and felt the resolution last night simply spelled it out in more detail.

In other action, a $200 boost in pay was approved for vocational teachers "who have a master's degree, four years of apprentice training, or the equivalent, and a journeyman's rating . . ."

It was decided to give the contractor who will build the activity center at Central School the option of tearing down or otherwise disposing of a house at 47 Union St. on the school site. The land occupied by the house is needed for the school's expansion, said Dr. Otto C. Hufziger, building program coordinator.

A request was denied from Prophet Jones, of Detroit, to use the high school auditorium during eight days in January from 8 p.m. until 6 a.m.

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Dana P. Whitmer said school activities might make it difficult to clear the auditorium by 8 p.m. some nights. All-night use would create heating and maintenance problems, he added.

Rev. M. K. Burton Lauded for Opposing Merger Plan

DETROIT (AP) — A Congregational group fighting for continued autonomy in its churches today had set up a permanent organization to oppose a merger between the Congregational Christian Church and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Such a merger is scheduled for June 1957 with the combined churches to be known as the United Church of Christ.

The foes, in a two-day meeting which ended here yesterday, established the National Assn. of Congregational Christian Churches of the United States.

The new association said it felt the merger would result in division, rather than unity. It added that it was "apprehensive that such division will cause irreparable harm to the traditional aims, purposes and objectives of our great fellowship."

A long list of resolutions, directed to the General Council of Congregational Churches at its next meet in Omaha, Neb., in June 1956, asked full reconsideration of the merger and assurances that present Congregational churches and boards would not lose their current autonomy.

Delegates passed a resolution expressing their gratitude to the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton of Pontiac for leading the opposition to the merger and for his role in planning the Detroit conference.

Autonomy is a strong point in Congregatinal Christian churches. Individual congregations exercise complete control over local operations including the selection of ministers.

B. Z. Kastler of Salt Lake City was selected as moderator of the new association. The Rev. Arthur Rouner of Brooklyn was elected associate moderator. Paul R. Biggs of Oregon City, Ore., was named treasurer and the Rev. Dor Belcher of Cummington, Mass., scribe.

No further meetings were scheduled for the association, which said it was now adopting a wait and see policy, pending the general council meeting.

However, it added, should assurances not be given by the General Council, the new association will urge Congregational Christian churches to take "whatever action as may be necessary to protect and save their property and interest in all Congregational Christian boards, agencies and instrumentalities independent of the proposed United Church of Christ."

Widow Agrees to Take Lie Test

74-Year-Old Woman Queried in Husband's Mysterious Death

DETROIT (AP)—A 74-year-old suburban Dearborn widow agreed to take a lie detector test today in the mysterious death of her husband.

Charles Babel, 66, was found dead in the kitchen of his home Wednesday. He had been critically ill of mushroom poisoning and first was believed to have died of natural causes.

Embalmers, however, found a gunshot wound in Babel's head. A post-mortem disclosed a .25 caliber bullet lodged in the skull. Police have been unable to find any trace of a gun.

Detective Inspector Joseph Dougher said Babel's wife, Mary, told him she went to the house of a neighbor early Wednesday to call a doctor for her husband. She left him in bed wearing night clothing.

Unable to contact her physician she called police for an ambulance and returned home. She found her husband fully clothed, dead in the kitchen.

Neither police nor an examining physician saw any immediate evidence of violent death.

Mrs. Babel said she had been out of the house about 15 minutes.

Babel was a retired auto worker. The couple had been married 19 years. Their income amounted to a $190 monthly social security and pension check, Dougher said.

Solons Will Be Feted

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit office of the American Committee for the Independence of Armenia will give a testimonial dinner Saturday night for Reps. Bentley (R-Owosso) and Machrowicz (D-Detroit). The two congressmen were members of the House Select Committee on Communist Aggression which issued a report condemning Soviet Russian seizure of Armenia in 1920.

Held for Manslaughter

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Robert L. Andersen, 23-year-old Coast Guardsman of the Muskegon station, was held to Superior Court Wednesday under $3,000 bond on a traffic fatality charge. Anderson waived examination on a charge of manslaughter in the Tuesday death of Raymond Foote, 66, who was killed when struck by Andersen's auto.

Three Tourist Attractions Found in Oakland County

By JOE HAAS

DEARBORN — Of the ten top tourist attractions in the nine counties in Southeastern Michigan, at least three are in Oakland County.

That's the finding of the Southeastern Michigan Tourist and Publicity Association, which met for its 30th annual meeting at Dearborn Inn recently.

Those credited to our county include internationally known Cranbrook, the recreational facilities of our lakes and public parks, and the Detroit Zoo.

Boosting Michigan to the nation's top place as a tourist state is the principal aim of this association, assisted by the three other allied organizations which cover the rest of the state.

Michigan is now in third place, behind only Florida and California, and it is pointed out that the state has the attractions to jump over both of them, if we can get that fact across to the nation.

Increased publicity appropriations are making possible a program to acquaint the residents of every state and every Canadian province of what Michigan has to offer.

In Michigan, the resort business has grown in recent years so it now is in third place in volume of business done, being led only by manufacturing and farming.

When the 1955 figures all are compiled, it now is assured that they will be the biggest in our resort history, and will crowd farming for second place, and without doubt will take over that position next year.

The spirit of the Dearborn meeting sums up to a better understanding and general spirit of pull together between the hotels and motels of the area. Previously they had not been in full accord.

But in swapping their experiences and laying all cards on the table, it has been proven that both have their place. The great growth of the resort business is a distinct advantage to both.

The coming of limited access freeways and turnpikes furnished a topic for much discussion at the meeting. Speakers from other states, with hotels or motels along such roads already in operation, gave varied results.

However, in a majority of cases such roads have been found to increase the overnight business, even with such places that formerly were located on the main road, but now are at a distance from the new right-of-way.

It has been found that the increased travel on the thruway more than compensates for the fewer points of access to it, and most travelers prefer to get away from its noise and confusion during the night.

Oakland County people chosen on the association's board of directors for the coming year are: Lloyd L. Anderson, John Anhut Jr., Murray Cotter, Louis Dorman, John W. Fitzgerald, R. M. Gregg, Ray Harrington, Howard Heldenbrand, W. A. Laking, E. M. Shafter, Robert St. Clair, Judd Taylor and Laura Turner.

Have Enough Dough

WASHINGTON (INS)—The U.S. Chamber of Commerce says there will be enough money available next year to finance the expected record construction spending predicted by the Labor and Commerce Departments.

Warrens' Daughter Dorothy Will Marry

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chief Justice and Mrs. Earl Warren toda announced the engagement of their daughter Dorothy to Dr. Carmine D. Clemente of Los Angeles.

Another daughter of the Warrens, Nina (Honey Bear), was married to Dr. Stuart Brein of Beverly Hills, Calif., Nov. 1.

Dorothy Warren, 24, was graduated from the University of California at Los Angeles in 1954. Since that time she has been working in the library of the university's Medical Center.

* * *

The announcement said the wedding will take place in California during the Christmas holidays when the Chief Justice and his wife can be present. The specific date was not given.

Dr. Clemente, 27, is an assistant professor of anatomy at the medical school of the University of California at Los Angeles. He has been at the university for the last two years.

He was educated at the University of Pennsylvania. He later studied for a year at the University of London.

Rome Doesn't Live Up to Movie's Promise

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

ROME (INS)—There is a flock of sweet young American things who are now living (or trying to) in Rome as the result of seeing the film called "Three Coins in a Fountain."

To a girl, they are cynical about the cinema.

* * *

Rome has got ruins, like Hollywood said, and there's the fountain to throw money in, if one can afford to toss money around. But secretaries do not lounge around piazzas in Orry - Kelly gowns, as indicated. And eligible, handsome, amorous, English - speaking boy friends are hard to come by.

"It's duck soup to find an amorous one," points out Miss Peggy Nelson, late of the States, "but the universal language will never replace good old English."

The first words she made it a point to learn in Rome, she says, were "vada via," which means "go away!"

Peggy, a ship-shape blonde who was born in Cambridge, Mass., and took a turn ("sort of an about-face, actually") on the Broadway stage, says she is one of a large set of U.S. lassies who became dewy-eyed at seeing "Three Coins in the Fountain," and immediately set off for beautiful, bountiful Rome.

* * *

What they can't understand now is why. "You'd think with that wide angle screen, they could have given us just a hint of the plumbing problems!"

PLANNING FOR BATH

"For instance," says Peggy, "most of the water systems here are operated on a hot water heater basis, so that you have to plan five hours in advance of the time you want to take a bath." On the other hand, the local Lotharios plan a date about 10 minutes in advance of their arrival time.

* * *

"This is very inconsistent and I'm getting tired of going out to dinner looking grimy."

If anyone should respond, "Well, why go out then, if the men and bathing are so difficult?" Peggy has the answer.

* * *

"Jobs are pretty tough. In the movie, Dorothy McGuire had a swell position — secretary to a writer, living with gardens and terraces and all that. The girls I know are lucky to be clerks in airlines offices. As for me, I catch jobs where I can get them."

Thus far, in the eight months Peggy's been living in a three-room walk-up here, she has had less than a handful of temporary jobs. An actress by trade, she is not the Italian version of glamor—too tall and spindly and blonde—so she has succeeded only in being "a dubber."

LENDS HER VOICE

That is, she lends her voice to local movie companies to be used for the conversion of Italian-speaking films into English - speaking films, for distribution abroad. Always a dub-maid, never a star, is Peggy's fate.

This sort of job does not pay well.

* * *

"You can make enough money to survive in Rome, expecially if enough gentlemen will take you to dinner. But you cannot build a career."

Peggy says her mother had no objection to her taking off for Rome last winter. "She saw the picture too and, if she'd been 24 too, we'd have gone together."

But last summer Mother Nelson visited Peggy in her cold-water hideaway with the windowsill refrigerating system, and since then she is not so pleased.

* * *

As a matter of fact, she visited the famous fountain into which you throw coins. If the coins sink into the foam, it is a symbol you will someday return to Rome. Mrs. Nelson's coin arched high, caught a fateful wind, and tinkled to the pavement, missing the goal.

Nodding her head sagely, Peggy's mother remarked, "It's just as well"—and departed.

City Needs Junior College, Say 24 Student Letters

"I would like to ask Pontiac a big favor. The favor is for Pontiac to have a junior college."

These were the words of Kay Swenson, 1236 Desiax, a student at Washington Junior High School.

Here was one of 24 letters submitted to the Pontiac Press on the merits of having a two-year junior college in the city.

The students' action followed a discussion of the idea in a Latin class at which the Rev. Soterios Gouvellis, of St. George's Greek Orthodox Church, presided as guest instructor.

* * *

The Washington pupils have decided to get similar reactions from students at the city's other junior high schools and report results to Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools.

Main point stressed in the letters was possible money savings. Junior college students could live at home, thus saving board and room expense, the students said.

Funds could be accumulated during the two years here to complete a college degree at another school, they stated.

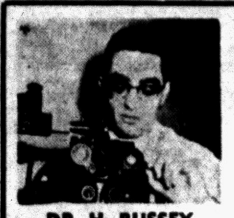

"Education is about the most important thing in the world and if it is possible for some people to get two years of college for a small amount of money . . . I think it should be," said Susan Steinbaugh, of 779 Owego Dr.

Several said if a junior college is set up here they would attend it.

Girl Fears the Watchful Eyes of Neighbors

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: The boy I like comes to my school, waits until I get out and then walks me home. I don't mind—and neither does my mother.

"But I'm afraid if he walks me home every day the neighbors will start talking, and I don't want that to happen.

"You see, I'm 14 and in the eighth grade, and he's 17 and a junior in high school. How can I explain to him tactfully about the neighbors without hurting his feelings.

Answer: You might think the neighbors were hanging out the windows waiting to see what you're up to every afternoon. They really have other things to do besides keeping track of your arrival at home after school. And if they happen to notice that you usually have the same company on your walk, it's really none of their business.

* * *

You're being overly self-conscious in thinking that they care enough about what you do to talk about you. It's more important that you should remember you have your mother's permission. She approves, so what have the neighbors to say about it?

But if you yourself think it's getting to be too much of a good thing, you can taper it off. But don't say anything to him about neighbors. Just tell him one afternoon that you won't be going straight home the next afternoon so he shouldn't bother to stop by school.

Tell him you're going over to Mary Jane's for a while to help her with something, but you'll see him the day after. Two days later nonchalantly mention that several of the girls are coming to your house after school the next day.

If he turns up to walk you home he'll have a covey of beauties to handle. It might dissuade him from escorting the batch of you the next time you bring the girls home with you.

Or cook up some excuse for staying after school, and send word out to him by one of your pals that he shouldn't wait for you, you're going to be some time. The next day apologize for getting stuck.

You don't want to discourage him entirely, you know. You just want to vary the routine, and keep it from being a regular thing.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My boy friend has invited me to his brother's wedding and reception so I can be with him.

"I've met the brother and the bride just once. Do you think it proper for me to go?"

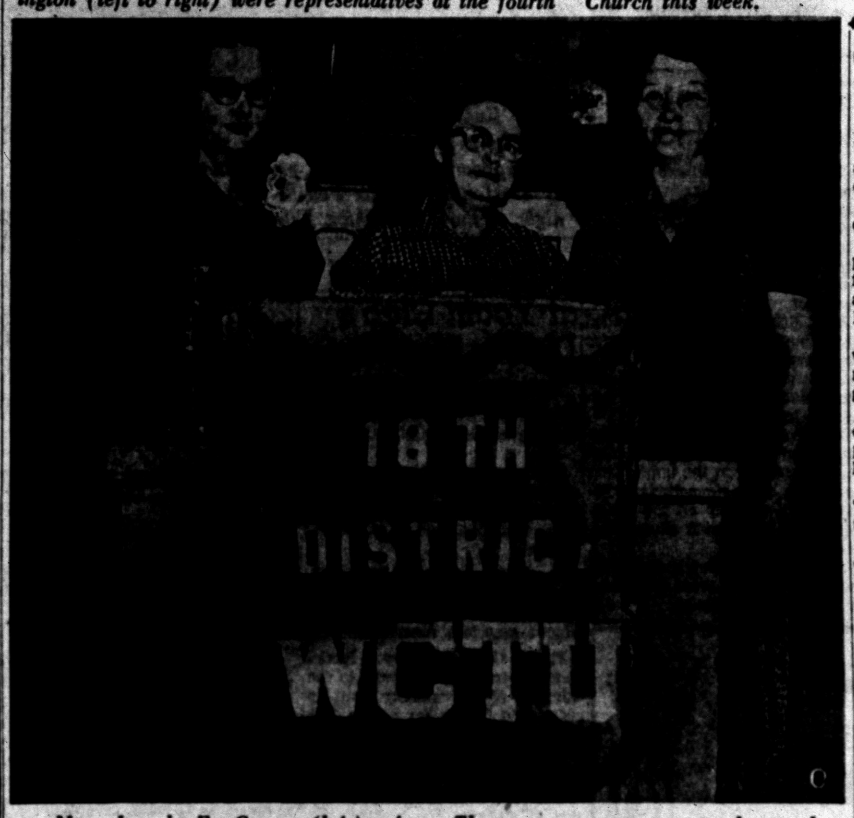

Answer: Yes, if you can manage to get an invitation from the bride and her parents. Tell your boy friend you can't very well go without a real invitation, and suggest that he see to it that you get one. He could ask his brother to ask his bride to write you or phone you.

In the business sessions reports were received from representative of standing committees in the WCTU.

"Lest We Forget," a memorial service, was given by the Mary Morton Group. Members presented sacred songs of memorial, and a short talk was given by Mrs. Mary Wood.

Mrs. Julia Hutton, state corresponding secretary, gave the general address Monday afternoon. She stressed the importance of an active interest in community life by the Christian woman and said that strength in membership is the foundation of WCTU work.

Community singing sponsored by the YTC was under the direction of Joseph Lopez and a duet was sung by Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins of Royal Oak at the evening meeting.

Color Unity Aids Home Decoration

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (INS) — Unity in the home is very important—even when dealing with home decor.

That's the word from interior designer Mel Bogart.

"First step in any decorating program is to select a unifying factor—a color, a theme, a design and plan your decor around it," Bogart declared.

In dealing with color, Bogart, who did interiors for the new Hallmark building, offered these suggestions:

1. Don't be afraid of neutral colors, or shades which might appear to be drab, especially for large areas.
2. Select a limited number of "accent" colors—probably no more than two or three.
3. Repeat the accent colors in different shades and intensities, keeping in mind that the smallest areas should be done in the brightest colors and the largest areas in subdued colors.

Menu Poses a Problem for Hostess

She Fears Guests Permit Prices to Influence Selection

By EMILY POST

"Quite often my husband and I take friends to dinner in a restaurant where the prices appear on the menu and menus are given to everyone at table.

"Invariably our guests choose something very inexpensive and I always have the feeling that they might have preferred something else, but as I can't order first I don't know how to make them feel perfectly free to order whatever they would like in spite of the amounts which appear after each item. Have you any suggestions?"

Answer: The best thing, if you happen to be a rather enthusiastic person, is to look and say, "Oh! Brook trout, that is what I'm going to have," and then, as if you were apologizing for having spoken first, you say, "What will you have?"

But if you are a rather reserved person and not given to exclamations, you could say to the waiter, "Is your filet mignon good?" or "Is the brook trout fresh?" This would give your friends some idea of what you intended to order.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My telephone is on a party line. There are three others on this same line. When I am chatting with a friend on a local call I usually try to limit it to five minutes requested by the telephone company.

"Some of my friends, however, talk on and on about nothing in particular, which seems very unfair to the other users. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully end these conversations without hurting anyone's feelings?"

Answer: It is very simple to say, "This is a very busy party line and our five minutes are up! Someone is probably waiting for a chance to use it!"

White Shrine Plans Bazaar and Dinner

Mrs. Arthur Augustine was installed as worthy guide of Pontiac White Shrine 22 at Roosevelt Temple Tuesday evening.

Committee reports were received from members working on the bazaar which will be held Nov. 16. Dinner will be served that day from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

The group is planning a Dec. 14 Christmas party featuring a cooperative dinner and gift exchange.

Handmade Items Stage Comeback

Modern homemakers sing the praises of mechanical gadgets that lighten the labor of housekeeping.

But when it comes to decorating their homes, they have the same personal pride in handmade cottons that their grandmothers had.

You see the proof in the return of hand-made bedspreads and crocheted rugs, ball-fringed muslin curtains, and "chair sets" that used to be called antimacassars.

The return of hand-mades is largely due to the fact that cotton fabrics and yarns today are so washable, color-fast and so easy to keep fresh and lovely.

When buying boneless meat, allow one-fourth pound per person; one-half pound of meat with bone.

Reports Are Heard by Altar Society

Mrs. Jacob Cobb, NCCW representative, gave a report of the Day of Recollection held recently in Detroit to members of St. Michael Altar Society Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Gayle Coulson and committee members of the bazaar booths gave final reports on the success of their bazaar held Saturday and Sunday.

The group discussed plans for a cooperative dinner and Christmas party Dec. 17 in the parish hall.

Discipline Self to Discipline Child

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

If Claire's mother wants her school books moved from the kitchen table, she'll use one of two alternatives. She may move the books herself. Or she may tell Claire to move them—and engage herself in a battle with Claire's "stubbornness" that may or may not end in sullen obedience.

* * * *

Neither alternative is good. For no matter which one Claire's mother chooses, it increases resentment at her child.

If she moves the books herself, she thinks angrily, "Oh, how sick I am of picking up after this girl!" If she makes a frontal attack on Claire's "stubbornness," she's so bruised by the resistance she meets that she can't bear to speak to her for hours.

I commend a third alternative to her.

* * *

It's a very old one—the alternative to which the wisest among us always turn. It is to say to herself, "Let me now search myself for the fault I hate in this child. Why does she give me this resisting will power? Have I given her maybe a pushing will power? To shove me away as hard as she does, I must have pushed at her with equal pressure . . ."

RELIEVING DECISION

The decision to substitute self-correction for correction of a child's annoying trait is a most relieving one. For in this thoughtless world that tells us continually how "responsible" we are for Claire, frustration at our failure to transform her from a stubborn child to a pliable one is inevitable.

* * *

For of course we can't transform her, no matter who tells us we should be able to. But we can always make changes in ourselves.

We can, when discouraged by our failure to conquer Claire's resisting will, quietly detach ourselves from all pushing will in us, knowing it for the same "stubbornness" we hate in her.

This is discipline of Claire by example. And the only reliable one in the whole wide world.

If we decide to trust it, resentment of Claire leaves us at once. If she ignores our request to move her books, we accept her decision without comment. Because we're involved in self-correction, not correction of Claire, her disregard of our request can't touch us.

We're moving now with the happiness and authority of the person in control of himself.

So that when Claire comes into the kitchen, we can say kindly, without a trace of reproach or hidden complaint, "I put your books away for you on the piano where I wouldn't get any of this flour on them."

Oh, how Claire needs to see us conquer the pushing will! How she needs to witness our happy victory over the need to press her! And, unless she sees it, can she want to be rid of the feeling she has to resist us?

WEATHER—5

Under the Rainbow

When the sun comes out after the rain we often see a rainbow curving across the sky.

An old saying declares that there is a pot of gold at the end of it. The Norsemen called the rainbow "Bridge of the Gods."

A rainbow is the series of colored rings formed by the sunlight acting on the moisture in the air. It shows all the colors of the spectrum — red on the outside and violet on the inside. The colors in between are indigo, blue, green, yellow and orange.

The rainbow is considered a weather sign. One of the best known old sayings about it is:

"Rainbow at night, sailors' delight.

"Rainbow in the morning, sailors take warning."

Here is a Junior Editor prepared to steer his model ship to shore if signs are unfavorable. Paste this down on cardboard and color with crayons or paints. See if you can make all the colors of the rainbow, too.

Junior Editors pays $10 for any reader's idea that is used. Write your suggestion to "Junior Editors" in care of this newspaper; it cannot be acknowledged or returned.

Tomorrow: A Game About the Weather

Burglars Are Faked Out of Real Treasure

NEW YORK (INS)—Three burglars who ransacked a Queens residence are probably kicking themselves today, despite their haul of a $1,200 mink stole and $100 in cash.

The maid at William Soling's home in Richmond Hill revealed the robbers missed out on a small fortune because of a skeptical approach to their work.

She said they discarded $10,000 worth of jewels as "fakes" and disregarded a small safe containing $5,000 in cash because they apparently thought it a toy.

Whip Makes Transfers

NEW YORK (INS)—Police Commissioner Stephen P. Kennedy cracked the whip of discipline on 14 commanding officers Wednesday. Three of the transfers affected squad commanders who were found missing from their posts Tuesday morning when Kennedy made the rounds.

Thieves Disgruntled; Brink's Truck Empty

BOSTON (AP)—A Brink's money-carrying truck was stolen from the theatrical district last night—but all the robbers got was a short ride.

The guards had emptied the truck of several thousand dollars to pay off the cast of the stage show "Pipe Dream."

The truck was found abandoned two hours later some two miles away.

In January, 1950, several bandits entered the Brink's Boston headquarters and escaped with $1,219,000. They were never caught.

Mess Hall Burns

SEOUL (AP) — A U. S. Army mess hall serving 500 men and an officers club in Seoul burned down last night. An Army spokesman estimated damage at $60,000. No injuries were reported.

TOKYO (AP) — Emperor Hirohito today sent congratulations to King Gustaf Adolf VI of Sweden on the latter's 73rd birthday.

Australia has won the Davis tennis cup a total of 11 times to date.

2 Local Radio Stations Honored for Recruiting

The Navy commended two Pontiac radio stations yesterday in the Naval Reserve Training Center.

Scrolls were presented to representatives of WCAR and WPON by Cdr. C. R. Tellefsen, head of the Detroit Recruiting District.

Chief Petty Officer Alan D. Simonson, who is in charge of the Pontiac Recruiting station, said that announcements carried on the two stations had helped recruiting in this area.

Pontiac Press Photos

PHS Dance After Game Tonight

By VICKY MICU

"Invitation to the Dance" is the theme at Pontiac High School this week, as students prepare for what they hoped will be a victory dance tonight after the PHS-Flint Northern football game, last home game of the season.

Informal clothes will be garb for the 10-12 p.m. affair, and students will dance to the music of Sam Cosmos and his band. Because of the enthusiasm shown, tickets, which went on sale this week, had to be limited to "first come, first served."

This afternoon, also in connection with the big game tonight when Pontiac will be playing hard for a long sought-after win, an all school pep rally was held. Featured in the doings were skits by the Booster Club and cheerleaders.

Boosters dramatized that long bus ride out to Wisner Stadium and set the student body into a peppy mood as the cheerleaders took over and led in cheers old and new.

INSURANCE PLAN EYED

Students this week pondered the benefits of an accident insurance plan and discussed the same with parents, returning envelopes for insurance early this week.

With the holiday season but a few short weeks away, many groups are preparing holiday fun and work.

Latin students met and discussed the Christmas issue of the biannual Latin paper "Epistolae Scholae." With selection of editors and staff was the main order of business. Money earned from the sale of the paper will go to charity organizations.

YULE ITEMS ON SALE

The Office and Retailing Club, as one of its money making projects, is selling Christmas cards, candles that turn different colors when they burn, and candy.

PHS is observing American Education Week along with the whole school system. The most active participant is the Future Teachers Club, advised by Mrs. Ann Morrow, which has been broadcasting an address on education and its application to teenagers each morning over the public address system.

Radio workshoppers next week will present stories of a little green pond, the billy goat family, and a story of George Washington. Titles of the shows are: On Monday "Green Pond Becomes a Colony"; Wednesday, "Three Billy Goats Gruff"; and Friday, "The Path of Praise."

Parochial Assemblies Held

Topping the agenda of week's activities at St. Michael and St. Frederick Catholic High Schools this week were two all-student assemblies, according to reports by Pontiac Press correspondents Janet English from St. Michael's and Ann Schachern from St. Fred's.

Although the Honor Assembly held Wednesday night in St. Michael's hall was the big news, students were still talking about the effective decorations the CYO had for its Fall Fiesta—a flower-bedecked shrine to the Virgin Mary centered the decorations for the dance.

Both students and parents attended the assembly, which featured a panel discussion on "The Sacrifice of the Mass." Panel speakers were Jim Fitzgerald, Elaine Neussendorfer, Colleen McEnery, Jack Erb, Mary Heitjan, John Keller, and Janet English with Larry Maison as chairman of the group.

All students who earned 44 or more honor points last year were awarded honor certificates. On the list were 4 seniors, 10 juniors and 29 sophomores.

REPORT CARDS DUE

Many Michaelites burned the "midnight oil" this week preparing for exams. The reason—report cards on Monday.

Sister Chrysostom's sophomore religion classes received a more thorough understanding of Catholic Youth Week through the efforts of Kathleen Heitjan, Helen Franzel, Tom Chapdelaine, George Budwit, Bill Fitzgerald and Ron Andrews—members of a panel discussing this topic.

REPORT AT ST FRED'S

At a general assembly Monday afternoon, students at St. Frederick were informed of the Student Council's progress with the yearbook. All necessary permissions have been obtained and editors Ann Schachern and Michael Kopcsik are "just itchin' " to get things started.

Jim Duren and Tom Lufkin were made photographers in chief. Other committeemen are to be appointed soon.

The council told the students that chewing gum has been banned, due to carelessness of students in disposing it. A fine will be imposed on anyone disobeying this ultimatum. Student controlled studies are being considered and will be tried out in the near future.

INVITED TO MARYGROVE

Sister Mary Fidelis invited the Senior girls to a "Career Day" at Marygrove College Dec. 11 to hear a panel on college education, prepared by the girls at Marygrove.

The Varsity Club announced it will hold its annual Varsity Club Ball Nov. 25.

All St. Fred's salutes our "Little Rams" and Coach Bob Chapdelaine for winning the Suburban CYO championship by beating St. Mike's last Saturday, 13-0.

STUDENTS FASHION SHRINE — Students who attended the Fall Fiesta of the Catholic Youth Organization at St. Michael High Friday were quick to acclaim the shrine to the Virgin Mary which served as a focal point for decorations. Above, rearranging the fall flowers that banked the shrine are junior students Beverly Elmy, who thought up the idea for the decoration to stress the spiritual nature of the club, and Jim Barnowsky, fiesta chairman. The initials at the foot of the statue stand for Catholic Youth Week.

DECORATING FOR DANCE — Bloomfield Hills High School's seventh and eighth graders will have their "Snowball Jamboree" from 7 to 10 o'clock tonight in the gym. Preparing decorations for the record hop are seventh graders (l-r) Harry Latta, Mike Hanna and Bob Matthews. The affair is sponsored by the seventh grade class.

Rush of Activities Keep Area High Students Busy

It's a rush time for students of high schools in communities adjacent to Pontiac. Several dances, football games and a play are only a few of the activities on the fire.

AT BLOOMFIELD HILLS

The lower grades at Bloomfield Hills High will hold their Snow Ball Jamboree from 7-10 tonight. The record hop, for seventh and eighth graders, is expected to draw a big crowd.

AT ROCHESTER

Final rehearsals are on for Rochester High's senior play, "Time Out for Ginger," to be given Thursday and Friday. The comedy concerns a 14-year-old banker's daughter who goes out for high school football and surprisingly becomes the star halfback on the team—with resulting chaos in the family and the entire town.

Cast as this vivacious character is Mary Rewold. Her parents are Jedd Miller and Myrna Maass; sisters are Nancy Day and July Watts; and Barbara Soule is the maid. Other parts are played by Jim Frink, Jack Matthews, Steven Sieffert and Roy Koski.

Climax of the week will be tonight's game with Avondale, on the Avondale field.

AT WALLED LAKE

Walled Lake High junior prom, "Les Follies Bergeres," tomorrow night will play up a Parisian theme, with mood music by Art Ross. A queen and her court will be chosen by the orchestra and reign over the dance.

Biggest Student Council project of the year will be the student-faculty basketball game, set for 7:30 p.m. next Friday, and the dance which will follow it.

AT AVONDALE

Largest crowd in the history of Avondale High football is expected for the Rochester game tonight. Coach Frank Crowell says, "A crowd of 2,000 is expected for this natural rivalry."

The annual Sadie Hawkins' Dance will be held after the game. The junior class is working hard on the "girl catch your boy" affair.

AT BIRMINGHAM

Birmingham High's Torch Fund is richer by $450, the amount realized last Tuesday at the Auction Assembly. Teachers got high bids on such items as 10 extra credit points, a completed term paper, etc.

Live teaching demonstrations in store windows have drawn attention to Education Week. Demonstrators were Harold Newcomb, biology; Monzelle Clark, radio worshop, and Mr. Pomnichowski, office machines.

Students are hoping for a win at the grid match with Berkley today.

AT WEST BLOOMFIELD

Students and parents from five other schools flocked to West Bloomfield High Tuesday for the College Night program. A dinner for the college representatives, educators from neighboring schools and students' committee preceded the program.

Pat Knapp reigned as queen of the Homecoming Saturday, Brighton High School's band played for the dance, which drew a record crowd.

WTHS Seniors Plan Christmas Dance

Waterford Township High seniors have begun work on the annual Christmas dance, set for Dec. 23. Renna Goschke and Tom Hepler are the co-chairmen for this dress affair.

Heading the various committees are Nancy Johnson, publicity; Eleanor Harms, entertainment; Nancy Schack, decorations; Pat Kline, alumni invitations; Bette Morris, tickets; and Roger Bennett, programs.

Day Off for Students

Walled Lake High students had a free day Wednesday, to allow teachers time to attend an instructors workshop. Purpose of the meeting was to find ways to improve reading ability in high school students.

Assembly Spurs Waterlog Sales

Skit Starts Waterford Yearbook Drive; Play, Dance Planned

By JEAN LIMATTA

Waterford Township High School's traditional "Waterlog (yearbook) Week" began with a comedy campaign assembly Monday.

George Tramontin, English instructor, was the star of the assembly. Journalists ficticiously reviewed his life and presented yearbook commercials to encourage sales.

Rehearsals began Monday for the unusual dramatic production, "The Night of June 16." This court trial presentation is set for Dec. 8 and 10.

Players are preparing two different third acts, for the jury will be selected from unbriefed adults and students in the audience. Leading the cast are Dixie Greenfield, James Wager and Julie Hickman.

Juniors are busy preparing their "Moonlight in November" dance to be held next Friday night. Marlene Lazenby is general chairman with Diana Craig in charge of decorations. Jim O'Grady's band will provide music.

* * *

Tuesday seniors and their parents attended College Night at West Bloomfield High School.

GAA basketball schedules are being worked on by Connie Sabat, basketball chairman, as the teams were set up this week.

Junior Highs Deep in Magazine Drives but Still Find Time to Plan Assemblies

Student interest at Pontiac's junior high schools continued to center on magazine drives, with some time taken out to hold open house programs and plan future assemblies.

AT LINCOLN

At Lincoln Junior High, sales were well past the $3,000 mark and heading toward $4,000 at the last reporting. Top salesman is awarded a Paper-Mate pen each day, and competition is keen to see who can come up with the most subscriptions.

Library Club members will present two assemblies in observance of National Book Week, next Thursday and Friday. This morning Lincoln students heard a talk by Glenn Cunningham, one of America's great track stars.

There's still plenty of jubilation around school at the 34-0 win over Wever in the final game of the season last Tuesday.

AT WEVER

Despite the losing season, however, the spirit of Wever Junior High football team remains high.

The magazine drive closed this week with a total of $1,918.27 in subscriptions. Mrs. Jan Heyse's room 208 won with a slippery margin of 42 cents over Roberta McCandless' room 302, which had $226 in subscriptions. Patricia Stites' room 202 was third with $153.75.

Top salesman was Rosalie Lake, with $78.42. She will win a watch for her efforts. Rita Stanley came in second with $52, and third place winner was Ted Ricamore with $51.

Special prizes for each homeroom and to the top salesmen will be awarded at an assembly next week, and other prizes will be awarded to students scoring high sales points.

Students, teachers and parents are working to prepare for an Open House at 7 p.m. Wednesday. Parents will follow the same schedule as students in a mormal day of class.

AT EASTERN

Big success at Eastern Junior High was the open house and PTSA program Wednesday, in observance of American Education Week. An American Flag was presented to the school by the U.S. Marine Corps in honor of former school track star Roland Dennis who died last April. Presentation was made by Mrs. Dennis.

Cornet, piano and vocal solos were given by Charles Parmenter, David Brien and Wilma Moore, and the 9A Girls Senior Ensemble sang selections from Walt Disney.

With Monday as the closing date, students are planning a final push on the magazine drive as homerooms vie for top honors.

AT WASHINGTON

"Pioneer Players," the Washington Junior High dramatic club, is working hard on choral readings during its club periods. Members plan to give an assembly for the school, possibly in the form of a play at Christmas time or before the end of the semester. The club has about 40 members. Faculty directors are Kay Justin and Idella Webb.

St. Michael Lists Honor Roll Students

St. Michael High School seniors who this week received honor roll certificates for outstanding work during their junior year were Pat Sears, Janice Sears, Mary Heitjan, and Janet English.

Yvonne Koprince, Alex Kroeplin, Loretta Lauinger, Pat Martin, Sharon Moore, Dick Pifer, Mary Raymond, Natalie Rofe, Gary Sabourin, and Pearl Neussendorfer make up the list of juniors who were "brains" in their sophomore year.

Contest Is Open

The Southeastern Michigan Writing Awards program will be held again this year. Deadline for entries is Jan 23, 1956.

The program is open to 9th through 12th grade students at public, private or parochial schools.

Weed Ruling Success Hailed

Ewalt Lauds Response of Property Owners to New Law

Pontiac's first summer under a weed-control ordinance was hailed a success today by David R. Ewalt, Parks and Recreation Dept. director and weed "czar" under the new law.

"Property owners are to be commended for the fine response to the weed ordinance," he said. "Only a small percentage failed to comply.

Department figures show but 10 per cent of the 101 property owners contacted have failed to have their lots cut or paid the city for chopping the weeds.

"This is, of course, just a good start," Ewalt said. "We anticipate a third more work next year because we will start earlier and may possibly have more men.

"And next year there won't be any city property that isn't cut. We did 75 per cent (55 acres) this year."

Property owners whose land was trimmed by the department or a private contractor hired by the city and who have failed to pay their bills will be taxed for the amount via a special assessment roll.

Under the weed ordinance, adopted this summer, the city can order noxious or poisonous weeds cut. If the lot owner fails to comply, the city can do the work, then charge him.

Mayor Names 'Safe Driving' Day, Appeals for Accident-Free Dec. 1

Efforts to make Pontiac free of traffic accidents for at least one day out of the year were backed by Mayor William A. Donaldson yesterday.

Signing a proclamation which names Dec. 1 as Safe-Driving Day, the Mayor said:

"It is only through full support of all citizens, both as drivers and as pedestrians, that the tragically increasing rate of deaths, injuries and damage resulting from automobile accidents can be reduced."

The Mayor urged that everyone help make S-D Day accident-free and pledge, moreover, that they will drive and walk safely every day of the year.

Nationally designated by President Eisenhower, S-D Day is observed to show that it is possible to cut down on traffic accidents.

The Mayor pointed to the results of S-D Day in Pontiac last year. The number of accidents was "impressively" reduced, he said.

Clyle R. Haskill, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Safety Committee, said that the reduction of accidents during the 1954 S-D Day campaign shows that with care accidents can be prevented.

This year Haskill is again chairman of the campaign.

He said that plans call for all residents of Pontiac to be provided with pledge cards.

"These cards will indicate support of the President's safe-driving program," Haskill said. "It is hoped that everyone in the community who is either a driver or a pedestrian will sign," he added.

The signed pledge cards will be sent to the President, Haskill said.

Folks Willing to Pay for Lean Pork Chops

CHAMPAIGN-URBANA, Ill. — The University of Illinois has found in a survey that American porkchop eaters like them lean and are willing to pay extra for them.

In a test, fat and lean chops were packaged alike and displayed side by side in self-service meat departments.

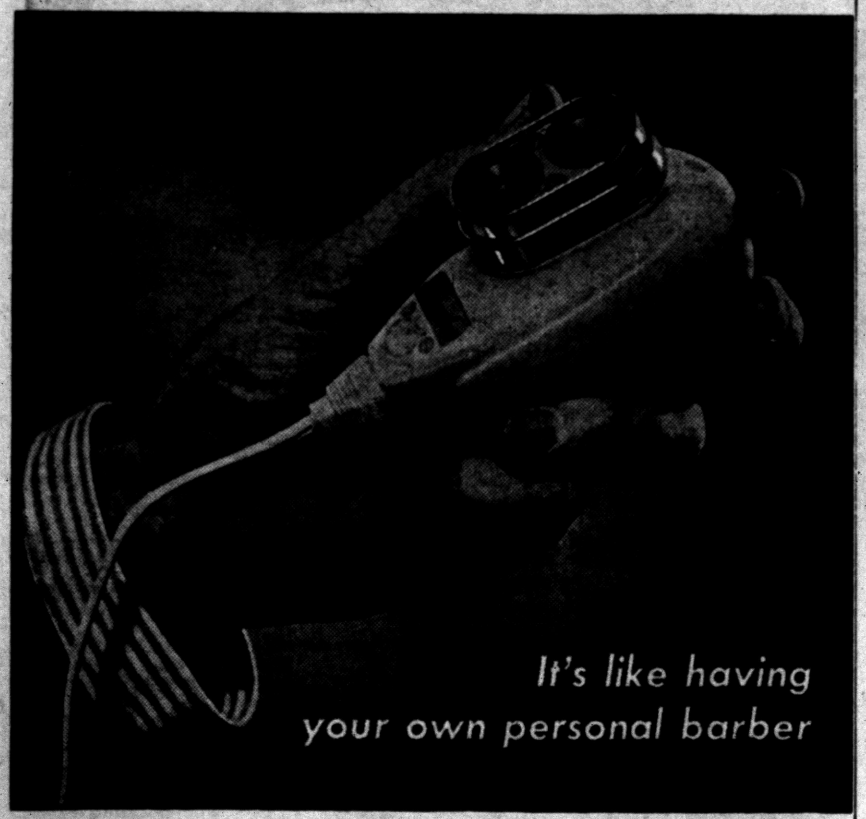

Lean chops, although carrying price tags 10 cents a pound higher, outsold fat chops 2 to 1. Sales volume of the two types didn't even up until the difference in prices reached 18 cents.

Egypt Aids Investors

Margaret Truman Quits Concert Stage—Temporarily

NEW YORK (INS) — Margaret Truman, just launched on a new radio and television career, has given up the concert stage—temporarily at least.

* * *

"What concert performances need nowadays is a little show," Miss Truman said. "For the audiences today who are used to the action of television and the theater, most concerts are too static. They lack movement and a story line."

Miss Truman does not intend to let her vocal work lapse, however. She still plans to continue with her singing, practicing, and the preparation of new material.

About her new daytime radio program, "Weekday," for NBC, Miss Truman said:

"It's wonderful fun. If only you didn't have to get up so early. I'll never get used to it. Even during the 16 years at school and college I always hated to get up in the morning.

"It's a far cry from my concert days when I could be a prima donna."

STARS ENCOURAGE

Miss Truman during an interview took a telegram from the pile of congratulations and good wishes that had been pouring in all day to the studio where "Weekday" was going on the air.

"Here's someone who knows what I mean," she said.

"Margaret darling," the telegram read, "You are joining the ranks of non-sleepers. Hope all your waking hours are successful." It was signed by Arlene Francis.

Describing the opening day of the five-day-a-week radio show as "organized chaos," Miss Truman added:

"But it's exciting. It keeps you on your toes . . . there is a certain element of danger when you are on the air all day. There is so much that could go wrong technically, to say nothing of the constant possibility of making some awful slip when you're ad-libbing all the time."

THANKS HELPERS

Radio is by no means a new field for Miss Truman. She participated in radio classes during her school years. Her best training, however, came at the hands of the old masters of the art of repartee, quick-wit, and the devastating ad-lib.

* * *

"The shows that I used to do with Tallulah Bankhead gave me a lot of radio experience," Miss Truman said, "especially in the handling of unrehearsed conversation. And of course I got a lot of help in this line from my old friends, Fred Allen, Jimmy Durante and Goodman Ace."

In addition to the full week of radio work, Miss Truman is scheduled to appear on 10 to 12 television programs for NBC.

Air Force Keeps Mum

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Air Force is ducking the question of whether France has denied the U.S. permission to man a 25 million dollar air base at Boulhaut, French Morocco. The service said the air station was always intended to be a stand-by base and there is no present intention to make it a fully operational station.

Auction Flynn's Estate to Satisfy Court Judgment

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Errol Flynn's seven-acre estate and 30-room mansion were auctioned for $1,988.62 yesterday to satisfy a court judgment against the actor.

But Flynn, now in Spain, has a year in which to pay the $1,988.62 and recover the Hollywood Hills property estimated to be worth $350,000.

Deputy County Marshal Dan Johnson said only one bid was received. The property was acquired, temporarily at least, by J. N. Benson, La Jolla, Calif., on a telegraphed bid.

The judgment was obtained by Robert, George H. and Thomas McElwaine Jr. on their claim Flynn owed them $1,500 for publicity work on a film he made in France five years ago. The $1,988.62 represents the judgment plus interest and costs.

$352,000 Tax Lien Dropped Against Fall

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service has discharged a $352,605 tax lien against the late Albert Bacon Fall, secretary of the Interior under the Harding Administration.

S. P. Vidal, IRS director here, said the lien was filed in 1936 for alleged unpaid income tax for the years 1921, 1922 and 1923.

"We found the old lien while cleaning house," Vidal said. "It should have been discharged years ago, as the statute of limitations on the case ran out a long time ago."

Fall was convicted of accepting a bribe in the notorious Teapot Dome oil scandal. He once owned a ranch at Three Rivers, N. M.

New Hampshire was one of the early colonies that derived wealth from its natural resources rather than only from the use of the soil.

Find Clergyman Guilty of Heresy

United Lutheran Trial Board Convicts Pastor in Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The third heresy trial in the history of the northwest synod of the United Lutheran Church last night found the Rev. Victor K. Wrigley guilty on five of six counts of doctrinal deviation and recommended he be suspended from his pulpit.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Wrigley, pastor of Gethsemene Church in the nearby small community of Brookfield in Waukesha County, was not present when the trial board returned its findings.

The 33-year-old minister did not attend any portion of the trial or previous investigational hearings on the advice of his church council which demanded certain procedural concessions from the synod before it would permit him to be present.

* * *

The recommendations of the seven-member trial board were presented to Dr. Paul E. Bishop, synod president from Minneapolis. He said he would "without a doubt follow" the recommendation.

Pastor Wrigley could not be reached for comment on the verdict.

The Rev. Mr. Wrigley accused the synod earlier of "changing the rules during the game" and served notice he could not be forced out as pastor of his church.

New York 'Cowboys' Lost Heading Westward

NEW YORK (INS)—Three horseless 7-year-old cowboys who decided to rough their way west yesterday, got lassoed in the wilds of Major Deegan expressway where they became lost and found out they actually were heading north.

The trio made their exit from a Bronx school after luncheon recess to join a cowboy camp for boys but were picked up by police. The would-be cowpokes ended up in bed without their supper.

Oil Violates Da Rules of Cafe Sousiety Life

By EARL WILSON

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Gossips talk to you about others, bores talk to you about themselves, and good conversationalists talk to you about yourself."—Tid-Bits, London.

MIAMI—I violated the rules of Cafe Sousiety down here. I stayed at an $8-a-night hotel.

★ ★ ★ ★

First of all, I was surprised they had any, being under the impression that all Florida hotel rooms were $35 up. But this was at the Airways Hotel right alongside the Miami Airport . . . and I guess will be considered pretty unchic for stopping there.

HILDA

Joan Crawford and her bridegroom Al Steele are here for the Carbonated Beverage Convention and are of course at the Fountainebleau. Joan's traveling light . . . only 37 pieces of luggage.

I streaked over from Jamaica, on the way to Havana to interview Ernest Hemingway and so I figured I'd stay right at the airport. But I checked up on the coming Florida season . . . and you'll be interested to know that this is going to be the biggest year yet.

There'll be three new hotels, at least . . . the Eden Roc, Seville and Lucerne — and work's already under way on "next year's hotel," the Americana, which will perhaps be rather lush, as its construction hut cost $30,000.

Just to show you how esthetic it all is, a model named Hilda Esteves recently flew down from New York to drive the 5,000,000th nail in the steel superstructure of the hotel, using a Stud gun.

★ ★ ★ ★

Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds are due here next week for the Carbonated Beverage Convention, and I understand Debbie'll be Miss Coca-Cola as opposed to Joan Crawford being Miss Pepsi-Cola.

SARA

MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. . . .

The Monte Prosers had their 5th son at Doylestown, Pa., General Hospital. He was named Timothy Milton . . . Frank Sinatra's entertaining his parents at Palm Springs . . . Henry Dunn gave up California to head up entertainment at the Village Barn . . .

Shelley Winters is reportedly a "sleeper" in "Hatful of Rain" . . . A TV star working on the coast is starting regular trips back here between shows because Hollywood is so indifferent . . . The new Trendex: Gleason's Honeymooners 28.4, Como 21.6, Stage Show 15.5, Como 24.7.

Martin and Lewis arrive Nov. 15 to see "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" and maybe buy it for a movie . . . Rita Hayworth said she won't settle her suit with Columbia—she'll make movies abroad instead . . . "Plain and Fancy" has moved to the Mark Hellinger Theater, along with Sara Aman.

Rocky Marciano's in Oklahoma, looking over his oil properties . . . Mike di Salle was asked to manage the Kefauver campaign . . . Ted Williams did the Miami spots with North American Airlines hostess Terry Kirch.

EARL'S PEARLS: You have to hand it to the American housewife—which may be why so many men remain bachelors.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A low-budget TV producer told Sammy Kaye his idea for a cheap quiz show—the contestant answers 64,000 questions for $1.

One new car has a built-in phonograph, and Jack Harris recalls the old Model T supposedly had a music box connected to the speedometer. When you reached 60, it played "Nearer My God to Thee." That's earl, brother.

Prosecutor Fined

YPSILANTI (AP)—Martin Paulsmo, 64, Wayne County assistant prosecutor, was fined $50 plus $25 costs Wednesday after pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge before Municipal Judge Edward Deake of Ypsilanti. Paulsmo was charged with drunk driving when he was arrested Oct. 18 but City Attorney Jerome Lamb moved for a reduction in the charge.

Cab Driver Refuses to Run Over Man

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A pedestrian bent on suicide had downtown motorists in a dither last night.

The man, who explained later he was "anxious to get it over with," became angry when a cab driver refused to run over him. He jumped up from the pavement and tried to dash into a passing automobile. The startled driver swerved out of his way. Undaunt, ed, he finally succeeded in bumping into the side of a moving car, but was unhurt.

At that point a private detective handcuffed the persistent pedestrian to a street light and summoned the police.

Bus Contract Signed

Hollywood Headlines:

Widower of Suzan Ball Lands Good Musical Job

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — I am happy to tell you that Dick Long, who was so wonderful to his wife, Suzan Ball, all through her tragic illness, has himself a good job. He's been signed by Jonie Taps for Frankie Laine's Musical, "The Last Laugh."

Interesting, too, that this will be Lucy Marlowe's first picture since her marriage to the popular Yankee third baseman Andy Carey. Lucy is still honeymooning in Japan, but she will be home next Wednesday to start the picture.

JANE'S EXCITED

In all the years I've known Jane Wyman, I've never seen her as excited as she is about "Bamboo Cross," the story of the Maryknoll nun originally called "Nun in Red China."

Sister Maria Del Ray, who spent a good deal of time in Red China as well as in a Japanese concentration camp in World War II, has been flown to Hollywood from New York to act as technical adviser.

To director John Ford this television show is a labor of love. He is donating his salary to the wonderful Maryknoll nuns. Lawrence Stallings has adapted the story, which is a powerful one. You'll see it Dec. 6 on Jane's TV Fireside Theater.

Snaps: Bogey gets in town tomorrow and wins a medal for good conduct. He never had a single battle while he and Lauren Bacall were in the East.

Adela Rogers St. John's son, McCullough St. John, has been made editor of the Hollywood Reporter. He's been trained on the Hearst newspapers.

ANOTHER JUNKET

Here they go again, the same old traveling group. Millie Considine, Earl Blackwell, Ann Miller, who are on the Caribbean junket. Wish I might have accepted the invitation. With them are Linda Darnell and Hermes Pan.

Leigh Snowden, who will marry Dick Contino if certain religious troubles can be ironed out, will go to Tennessee to bring her two children here for Christmas.

Bette Davis' first husband, Harmon O. Nelson, is still giving out cigars to the boys. His wife presented him with a set of twins, a boy and a girl.

Bobby Van, former MGM dancer, will become a father next spring. His wife is one-time starlet Diane Garrett.

Former President Harry Truman arrives here from Seattle in Ed Pauley's private plane the last of the month to attend a dinner at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Gary Crosby is slated for five Jack Benny TV shows, which will be producer Ralph Levy's way of building Gary for his own half-hour air series. He was so good on "Shower of Stars" with Benny.

Seek Kefauver's Okay

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The president of the Kefauver for President Clubs of California, Tom Carrell, says he hopes to obtain permission of the Tennessee Democrat to enter his name in the California primary next June. Carrell, an automobile dealer, said yesterday he had been advised by Kefauver that he would be in California early next month "and I hope that he can give us some good news at that time to go ahead and nominate him in California."

Former Mayor Dies

LUDINGTON (AP)—Funeral service will be held Saturday at Community Church for Harold Frank King, 61, former Ludington mayor who died Wednesday in Blodgett Memorial Hospital at Grand Rapids. King was appointed Ludington mayor in 1950 to fill an unexpired term and was elected mayor in 1952.

Newsman Named

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Albert S. Kauwell, Grand Rapids Herald police reporter, Thursday was appointed deputy clerk and bailiff of Police Court by Judge Edward G. Burleson. Kauwell, on the Herald staff since 1950, formerly was a staff member of the Saginaw News.

Since the open pit iron mine in Northern Minnesota was opened in 1895, it has yielded more material than was originally excavated for the building of the Panama canal.

Auction Flynn's Estate to Satisfy Court Judgment

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Errol Flynn's seven-acre estate and 30-room mansion were auctioned for $1,988.62 yesterday to satisfy a court judgment against the actor.

But Flynn, now in Spain, has a year in which to pay the $1,988.62 and recover the Hollywood Hills property estimated to be worth $350,000.

Deputy County Marshal Dan Johnson said only one bid was received. The property was acquired, temporarily at least, by J. N. Benson, La Jolla, Calif., on a telegraphed bid.

The judgment was obtained by Robert, George H. and Thomas McElwaine Jr. on their claim Flynn owed them $1,500 for publicity work on a film he made in France five years ago. The $1,988.62 represents the judgment plus interest and costs.

$352,000 Tax Lien Dropped Against Fall

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service has discharged a $352,605 tax lien against the late Albert Bacon Fall, secretary of the Interior under the Harding Administration.

S. P. Vidal, IRS director here, said the lien was filed in 1936 for alleged unpaid income tax for the years 1921, 1922 and 1923.

"We found the old lien while cleaning house," Vidal said. "It should have been discharged years ago, as the statute of limitations on the case ran out a long time ago."

Fall was convicted of accepting a bribe in the notorious Teapot Dome oil scandal. He once owned a ranch at Three Rivers, N. M.

New Hampshire was one of the early colonies that derived wealth from its natural resources rather than only from the use of the soil.

Find Clergyman Guilty of Heresy

United Lutheran Trial Board Convicts Pastor in Wisconsin

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The third heresy trial in the history of the northwest synod of the United Lutheran Church last night found the Rev. Victor K. Wrigley guilty on five of six counts of doctrinal deviation and recommended he be suspended from his pulpit.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Wrigley, pastor of Gethsemene Church in the nearby small community of Brookfield in Waukesha County, was not present when the trial board returned its findings.

The 33-year-old minister did not attend any portion of the trial or previous investigational hearings on the advice of his church council which demanded certain procedural concessions from the synod before it would permit him to be present.

* * *

The recommendations of the seven-member trial board were presented to Dr. Paul E. Bishop, synod president from Minneapolis. He said he would "without a doubt follow" the recommendation.

Pastor Wrigley could not be reached for comment on the verdict.

The Rev. Mr. Wrigley accused the synod earlier of "changing the rules during the game" and served notice he could not be forced out as pastor of his church.

New York 'Cowboys' Lost Heading Westward

NEW YORK (INS)—Three horseless 7-year-old cowboys who decided to rough their way west yesterday, got lassoed in the wilds of Major Deegan expressway where they became lost and found out they actually were heading north.

The trio made their exit from a Bronx school after luncheon recess to join a cowboy camp for boys but were picked up by police. The would-be cowpokes ended up in bed without their supper.

Oil Violates Da Rules of Cafe Sousiety Life

By EARL WILSON

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Gossips talk to you about others, bores talk to you about themselves, and good conversationalists talk to you about yourself."—Tid-Bits, London.

MIAMI—I violated the rules of Cafe Sousiety down here. I stayed at an $8-a-night hotel.

★ ★ ★ ★

First of all, I was surprised they had any, being under the impression that all Florida hotel rooms were $35 up. But this was at the Airways Hotel right alongside the Miami Airport . . . and I guess will be considered pretty unchic for stopping there.

HILDA

Joan Crawford and her bridegroom Al Steele are here for the Carbonated Beverage Convention and are of course at the Fountainebleau. Joan's traveling light . . . only 37 pieces of luggage.

I streaked over from Jamaica, on the way to Havana to interview Ernest Hemingway and so I figured I'd stay right at the airport. But I checked up on the coming Florida season . . . and you'll be interested to know that this is going to be the biggest year yet.

There'll be three new hotels, at least . . . the Eden Roc, Seville and Lucerne — and work's already under way on "next year's hotel," the Americana, which will perhaps be rather lush, as its construction hut cost $30,000.

Just to show you how esthetic it all is, a model named Hilda Esteves recently flew down from New York to drive the 5,000,000th nail in the steel superstructure of the hotel, using a Stud gun.

★ ★ ★ ★

Eddie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds are due here next week for the Carbonated Beverage Convention, and I understand Debbie'll be Miss Coca-Cola as opposed to Joan Crawford being Miss Pepsi-Cola.

One new car has a built-in phonograph, and Jack Harris recalls the old Model T supposedly had a music box connected to the speedometer. When you reached 60, it played "Nearer My God to Thee." That's earl, brother.

Prosecutor Fined

YPSILANTI (AP)—Martin Paulsmo, 64, Wayne County assistant prosecutor, was fined $50 plus $25 costs Wednesday after pleading guilty to a reckless driving charge before Municipal Judge Edward Deake of Ypsilanti. Paulsmo was charged with drunk driving when he was arrested Oct. 18 but City Attorney Jerome Lamb moved for a reduction in the charge.

Cab Driver Refuses to Run Over Man

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A pedestrian bent on suicide had downtown motorists in a dither last night.

The man, who explained later he was "anxious to get it over with," became angry when a cab driver refused to run over him. He jumped up from the pavement and tried to dash into a passing automobile. The startled driver swerved out of his way. Undaunted, he finally succeeded in bumping into the side of a moving car, but was unhurt.

At that point a private detective handcuffed the persistent pedestrian to a street light and summoned the police.

Widower of Suzan Ball Lands Good Musical Job

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — I am happy to tell you that Dick Long, who was so wonderful to his wife, Suzan Ball, all through her tragic illness, has himself a good job. He's been signed by Jonie Taps for Frankie Laine's Musical, "The Last Laugh."

Interesting, too, that this will be Lucy Marlowe's first picture since her marriage to the popular Yankee third baseman Andy Carey. Lucy is still honeymooning in Japan, but she will be home next Wednesday to start the picture.

JANE'S EXCITED

In all the years I've known Jane Wyman, I've never seen her as excited as she is about "Bamboo Cross," the story of the Maryknoll nun originally called "Nun in Red China."

Sister Maria Del Ray, who spent a good deal of time in Red China as well as in a Japanese concentration camp in World War II, has been flown to Hollywood from New York to act as technical adviser.

To director John Ford this television show is a labor of love. He is donating his salary to the wonderful Maryknoll nuns. Lawrence Stallings has adapted the story, which is a powerful one. You'll see it Dec. 6 on Jane's TV Fireside Theater.

Snaps: Bogey gets in town tomorrow and wins a medal for good conduct. He never had a single battle while he and Lauren Bacall were in the East.

Adela Rogers St. John's son, McCullough St. John, has been made editor of the Hollywood Reporter. He's been trained on the Hearst newspapers.

ANOTHER JUNKET

Here they go again, the same old traveling group. Millie Considine, Earl Blackwell, Ann Miller, who are on the Caribbean junket. Wish I might have accepted the invitation. With them are Linda Darnell and Hermes Pan.

Leigh Snowden, who will marry Dick Contino if certain religious troubles can be ironed out, will go to Tennessee to bring her two children here for Christmas.

Bette Davis' first husband, Harmon O. Nelson, is still giving out cigars to the boys. His wife presented him with a set of twins, a boy and a girl.

Bobby Van, former MGM dancer, will become a father next spring. His wife is one-time starlet Diane Garrett.

Former President Harry Truman arrives here from Seattle in Ed Pauley's private plane the last of the month to attend a dinner at the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

Gary Crosby is slated for five Jack Benny TV shows, which will be producer Ralph Levy's way of building Gary for his own half-hour air series. He was so good on "Shower of Stars" with Benny.

Seek Kefauver's Okay

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The president of the Kefauver for President Clubs of California, Tom Carrell, says he hopes to obtain permission of the Tennessee Democrat to enter his name in the California primary next June. Carrell, an automobile dealer, said yesterday he had been advised by Kefauver that he would be in California early next month "and I hope that he can give us some good news at that time to go ahead and nominate him in California."

Former Mayor Dies

LUDINGTON (AP)—Funeral service will be held Saturday at Community Church for Harold Frank King, 61, former Ludington mayor who died Wednesday in Blodgett Memorial Hospital at Grand Rapids. King was appointed Ludington mayor in 1950 to fill an unexpired term and was elected mayor in 1952.

Newsman Named

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Albert S. Kauwell, Grand Rapids Herald police reporter, Thursday was appointed deputy clerk and bailiff of Police Court by Judge Edward G. Burleson. Kauwell, on the Herald staff since 1950, formerly was a staff member of the Saginaw News.

Aerial Circus for 'M'; MSU Rated Over Gophers

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Indiana brings the Big Ten's leading passer and a powerful line into Michigan stadium tomorrow in an effort to sabotage Michigan's Rose Bowl hopes for the 2nd straight year.

With quarterback Eugene (Chick) Cichowski tossing, Michigan can expect the same sort of aerial circus staged by Hoosier Florian Helinski last season.

It was then that Indiana upset titlebound Michigan 13-9.

Cichowski played only one minute behind Helinski whose passes tore Michigan apart. The next week the Wolverines lost all championship hopes by losing to Ohio State.

Now Helinski has graduated. Cichowski is the iron man quarterback. His performance last week as the Hoosiers lost to Ohio State 20-13 was enough to make him the Big Ten's leading passer.

Cichowski has the amazing completion average of .608—that's three completions for every five passes. His passing has made him the 4th leading offensive artist in the Big Ten behind such big names as Purdue's Len Dawson, Iowa's Jerry Reichow and Michigan State's Earl Morrall.

Cichowski's favorite target is probably end Brad Bomba, the big Ten's 4th leading pass receiver. But Cichowski also throws to speedy halfback Milt Campbell, the Indiana decathlon star who caught the winning touchdown against Michigan last year.

Another rushing danger is Hoosier fullback John Bartkiewicz, a fast, hard-driving 188-pounder.

With Campbell and Bartkiewicz running, Cichowski passes more than a 4th of the time. His generalship has kept Indiana in possession of the football more than its opponents.

His passing, on the average, has produced more yards than the running of his mates. And his handoffs in the T formation and split T are clean. The Indiana team has lost fewer fumbles than any other Big Ten team while recovering more opponents' fumbles than any other team in the conference.

For Michigan it will be the 1st real test of its pass defense. No team has passed very long against the Wolverines this season. Big Ten teams have thrown an average of 10 times for about 55 yards a game.

* * *

Michigan's long and steady injury list is beginning to show improvement. Coach Bennie Oosterbaan says that both left halfbacks, Terry Barr and Jim Pace, are coming around more quickly and should be in better shape when Michigan was upset by Illinois 25-6.

The expected attendance for this 6th home game is 57,000.

Next week's season-ending tilt with Ohio State is sold out to some 97,000 fans.

Duffy Warns Minnesota Is No Pushover

'Just as Tough as Any Opponent This Year,' Coach Says

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State is a three touchdown favorite over Minnesota according to the odds-makers but not according to Spartan coach Duffy Daugherty.

* * *

"We don't underestimate anybody," Daugherty said, "we couldn't afford to any week this year. Minnesota looks just as tough to us as any other opponent we've had this season."

Coaches were putting the final polishing today on the multiple offense that Michigan State, now rated 3rd in the nation, will throw against Minnesota on Saturday.

MSU had just an hour long workout yesterday and the squad will go thorugh it's customary brief final signal drill today.

The drill is important, though, because that's when the 1st two plays of the game are doped out and handed to the quarterback All-America candidate Earl Morrall.

* * *

Minnesota was due in by plane late this afternoon but will not work out in Macklin Stadium. Gophers will stage their final practice session on home grounds and will just take a quick look at the field.

* * *

Meanwhile, the ticket office was reminding fans that the kickoff this Saturday will be at 1:30 (EST) instead of the previous 2 p.m. because of the early darkness.

* * *

As every football fan knows by now, this game and a couple played at Ann Arbor will decide the Big Ten candidate for the Rose Bowl.

Here are the ifs again:

If Michigan State beats Minnesota and if Michigan loses to or ties with either Indiana this Saturday or Ohio State the next, MSU could make Rose Bowl history by going to Pasadena twice in three years.

Ohio state made the trip last year and can't repeat until 1956.

* * *

This will be the 1st time in three weeks that Michigan State has strong bench power. The last two games were away, at Wisconsin and Purdue, and the Spartans were limited to the 38-man travelling squad.

Picks 'M' Over Hoosier but Sees MSU a Loser

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
(Associate of Immortals)

Har-rumph! This week, and next—my memory travels back to my Old Blue days at Yale when I was associated with Stagg, Heffiefinger, Coy and other immortals of the cleated foot!

Traditional games in the Ivy League bring together Yale and Princeton this weekend, and Yale against Harvard the next week. I parlay Yale to win both struggles.

It was in 1873 when Yale, Princeton, Columbia and dear old Rutgers, framed rules for football—and my uncle Cromwell Hoople was one of the framers.

Those old rivalries produced gargantuan feats. Such as the 53-yard dropkick by Otto (or was it Oscar) Guernsey, for Yale against the Tiger 40 years ago. Or the one of 40 yards, a few years later in the same contest, by H. Pumpelley.

Here's the juicy one for this week—Gophers to stop the MSU Spartans (20-13). And Michigan will rebound to beat Indiana (20-16).

Purely local—it's Flint Northern over PHS Chiefs (19-14).

Big Ten—Illini 14, Badgers 13; Iowa 14, Ohio State 7; Purdue 13, Northwestern 7.

Army 48, Penn 0; Navy 45, Columbia 0; Yale 14, Princeton 7; Brown 14, Harvard 7; Syracuse 20, Colgate 15; Pitt 20, W. Va. 14; Oklahoma 27, Iowa St. 7; Missouri 20; Kan. Lewis Defends Team Schedule on Eve of Pitt

West Virginia Mentor Says Slate No Weaker Than Terps, Sooners

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP)—West Virginia's Coach Art (Pappy) Lewis, answering critics of his schedule on the eve of the big game with Pittsburgh, said today he felt that a conference of strong Eastern independents was inevitable.

* * *

"I can't see that West Virginia's schedule is any weaker than that of Maryland and Oklahoma," the outspoken Mountaineer coach said. "Oklahoma played only two tough games—with Pitt and Texas—and then loafed through an easy conference card. UCLA and Baylor, and the latter isn't strong this year, are the only two tough teams played by Maryland.

* * *

"Like Oklahoma, we are committed to a (Southern) conference schedule and it is unfortunate that all of these teams cannot be put in the big time class. But I feel that over-all our boys are facing just as tough tests as many of the better teams in the country."

* * *

West Virginia, ranked sixth nationally, is one of the three unbeaten and untied major elevens remaining. The other two are Oklahoma and Maryland, No. 1 and No. 2 in the national list.

However, the big, tough Mountaineers have been criticized for fattening themselves on easy meat and there has been talk that they may be passed up by the major bowls because of their schedule.

Reports here today were that the Sugar Bowl was keenly interested in West Virginia and probably would offer a bid early next week if the Mountaineers are able to take the measure of thrice-beaten Pittsburgh, a traditional rival. West Virginia ruled a 5-point favorite.

* * *

Discussing schedules, Lewis said, "I feel that we could hold our own with both Maryland and Oklahoma. We have seen both teams in game movies and are not overly impressed.

* * *

"But we still have a problem ourselves with our schedule. I feel that some day—and maybe soon—we may have a strong conference made up of West Virginia, Pittsburgh, Penn State, Syracuse, Colgate and perhaps others. This would be an extremely strong conference, and would be a money maker for all.

Laurel Race to Be Test of Two Continents

Seven U.S. Horses Plus Six European Entries Vie for $65,000

LAUREL, Md. (AP)—The fourth International horse race at Laurel today (4:15 p.m. EST) could also be broken down into a $65,000 intercontinental match with seven on the American side against six for Europe on a muddy field.

Leading the American team are Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Social Outcast and Clifford Mooers' Traffic Judge of the United States.

* * *

Rated best from across the Atlantic are Ireland's Panaslipper together with Sir Percy Loraine's Darius and Miss Dorothy Paget's Nucleus of England.

* * *

On the team with Social Outcast and Traffic Judge are Douglas Small's Aeschylus and Llangollen Farm's Mister Gus of America, Carlos Rincones' El Chama and Jose Federico Siccardi's Prendase of Venezuela, and Alberta Ranches' Prefect of Canada.

Supporting the "opposition" are Germany's Ataturk, Ralph B. Strassburger's Mahan and Comte Roland de Chambure's Picounda from France.

* * *

Rooting by a cosmopolitan crowd expected to number between 30,000 and 35,000 therefore will be mixed. In addition to the usual picking of an individual winner there will be setimental cheering for country and continent.

* * *

The European side is ahead so far in the tilting. Wilwyn won the first International for England in 1952 and his time of 2:30 4-5 has never been lowered for the mile and a half at Laurel. Worden, also owned by Strassburger, won for France in 1952 and C. V. Whitney's Fisherman broke through for the United States last year.

* * *

Doping such an international field always is difficult without any common yardsticks and the closest the bettors came was last year. Fisherman was second choice and the favorite Banassa from France was runner-up. Before that, the favored Greek Ship of the United States finished next to last in 1952 and the 1953 favorite Crafty Admiral, another homelander, was last.

* * *

The heavy betting is expected to swing back to the United States on Social Outcast and Traffic Judge Panaslipper or one of the two English colts probably will get the biggest play among those from across the sea.

Omaha Star on Top

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If you've ever wondered what became of the old fashioned triple threat player in college football, you'll find him at Omaha, Neb., today trying to pin down the small college total offense championship for the second straight year.

He's Bill Englehardt of Omaha University, who runs, passes and punts with equal facility and who has charged into the lead with a remarkable exhibition of all three in the last four games. He needs a lot of yards in his season's final game against undefeated Idaho State to defend his position from the threat of Bill Hamilton of Florence (Ala.) State.

* * *

In the last four games, Englehardt has passed and run for 676 yards—350 on the ground and 356 by passing—to move from nowhere to the top spot he held at the end of the 1954 season. NCAA Service Bureau statistics credit him with 1,155 yards in eight games.

If he can gain enough today to stand off Hamilton and two others who have gained more than 1,000 yards, Englehardt will become the second repeat winner of the small college total offense title. Bob Heimerdinger of Northern Illinois State won it in 1950 and 1951.

* * *

Hamilton, only 21 yards behind, has a tough assignment this week against unbeaten Jacksonville State, but he'll have another game after that one. Hiram's Dick Zahn (1,073 yards) and College of Emporia's Joe Ortiz (1,002) have one more game each.

* * *

Passing leader Jerry Foley missed his second straight game at Hamline concluded its season so he wound up with a net 994 yards although he passed for 1,034. Foley still is far ahead of the field with 87 completions on 167 passes—both figures highs. Nearest to him are Mike Karas of Geneva with 55 completions on 97 attempts and Jim Stehlin, Brandeis, Chuck Kessler, Capital, and Bob Webb, St. Ambrose with 51 each. Kessler is No. 2 on yardage with 822.

* * *

The fourth player to hold the individual rushing lead this year is Gene Scott of Centre, the team that tops all small colleges in rushing. Scott, who hit an all-season high of 296 two weeks ago against Hanover, added 231 more against Sewanee last week for a season total of 991. Close behind are Bill Rhodes, Colorado Western, 916, Marv Raab, Alma, 850, and Bernie Raterink, Central Michigan, 831.

* * *

Nate Clark of undefeated Hillsdale ran for five touchdowns as his team racked Adrian, 62-7, and became the season's first college player to pass the 100 point mark in scoring. He has 126 points on 21 of Hillsdale's 41 touchdowns. Walt Livingston of Heidelberg has 96 points and Raterink 90.

Halas Wishes Rams Weren't So Noisy

Chicago Bears' Coach Concedes Possibility Coast 11 Might Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Owner-Coach George Halas figures the Los Angeles Rams have a good chance of beating his Chicago Bears Sunday but wishes they wouldn't "be so noisy about it."

Halas, whose Bears must win to move into a tie for the Western Conference lead with the Rams, said the Rams are "apparently at the top of their game and they indicate they intend to come out here and trounce the Bears."

"They may be able to do it," said Halas, "But they need not be so noisy about it." Halas was referring to stories from the West Coast lauding the league-leading Rams.

Halas called it a "toss-up game since they have most of their injured players back." The bookmakers, however, have installed the Bears 7-10 point favorites.

As to his announcement that he'll retire at the end of the present season, Halas said "definitely" but "I honestly don't know who will succeed me. Whomever it is, he'll have to devote all of his time to football."

Michigan Turf Club Gives Up

DETROIT (AP) — The Michigan Thoroughbred Turf Club has given up in its attempt to build another Detroit-area race track.

In a letter to state racing commissioner James H. Inglis yesterday the club withdrew its application for a license. The action followed the club's 4th failure to get a site approved in its two years of existence.

Suburban Troy Township revoked approval of a site last month following disclosure that the township treasurer and attorney headed a corporation set up to sell the club a 200-acre tract at a sizable profit.

The club said in its letter "there is not available at this time a desirable site within the metropolitan area that would lend itself profitably to use as a race track."

The group had failed in previous attempts to locate in Warren and Clinton Townships. A Flat Rock site was dropped because of its distance from Detroit.

Manager Denies 'Scope Charges

Says Indians Did Use System in '48 to Steal Catcher's Signals

CHICAGO (AP)—Kansas City Athletics' Manager Lou Boudreau denied published reports that his team used a telescope to steal signals during the baseball season but said the Cleveland Indians did.

Boudreau, at his home in suburban Harvey, said the reports "are not true" that the A's had a surveyor's telescope in the bullpen and Kansas City bullpen pitchers would steal signals from rival catchers and tip off their batsmen.

* * *

"I'll admit when I was at Cleveland (in 1948) we tried that a few times but so far as I am concerned the gimmick is passe now," Boudreau said.

* * *

Boudreau, however, added that Cleveland tried using a telescope against Kasas City in the A's first series there this year.

* * *

"We protested after we discovered some of the Cleveland pitchers in the bullpen were using a telescope borrowed from an Army unit," he said.

Rangers Suffer Double Loss—Creighton and Skein

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The New York Rangers today surveyed a double setback in their stepped-up National Hockey League campaign. They faced the indefinite loss of center Dave Creighton due to a concussion and the end of a promising unbeaten string.

* * *

Creighton's injury and the end of a four-game defeatless skein occurred in last night's 5-1 defeat at the hands of Boston's crippled Bruins who are proving a jinx for the Rangers.

* * *

Boston holds three of the five decisions over second-place New York. Meanwhile Chicago rallied to tie Detroit 2-2.

* * *

Creighton suffered a "mildly serious concussion" in the first period at Boston Garden when he collided with Bruins' defenseman Fernie Flaman. The former Boston player, now in the uniform of the rejuvenated broadway Blues, is in Carney Hospital under observation.

* * *

Preliminary brain X-rays were negative with spinal tests to be completed. Indications were that Creighton luckily had escaped more than a concussion. A pair of neuro-surgeons, Dr. Milton Broughram and Dr. James Walker, are attending Creighton.

* * *

New York's defeat, coupled with its tie with Montreal Wednesday, knocked them off the schedule by which Coach Phil Watson said his Rangers would be on top the NHL today. New York not only did not gain on idle Montreal (which leads 19 points to 16), but watched the Bruins pull to within 2 points of second place.

Yankees Blast Jap Pro Champs, 11-0

TOKYO (AP)—The New York Yankees blanked the Yomiuri Giants, Japan's professional champions, 11-0 before 25,000 disappointed fans today.

* * *

Fans had looked to Yomiuri as the team that might stop the Yanks, who now have 13 victories and 1 tie in 14 games in Japan.

First baseman Eddie Robinson hit a bases-empty homer as the Yanks bombarded 6 pitchers for 14 hits.

State-Gopher Game to Honor Heppinstall

Veteran MSU Trainer Getting Recognition in Halftime Show

EAST LANSING (AP)—Jack Heppinstall, veteran Michigan State trainer, will trot out on the football field again Saturday with his little black satchel.

But this time, Jack will be the center of attraction in a special recognition ceremony.

Heppinstall has been Michigan State trainer for 42 years. His career dates back to 1914, when the now university was an agricultural college. He started under coach John F. Macklin, for whom the stadium is named.

The band will spell out his name between halves of the game with Minnesota and Jack will trot out from the tunnel mouth carrying his black satchel to receive an ovation for long and faithful service.

"Jack is 'Mr. Michigan State'," said athletic director Biggie Munn.

Ringey Named AA's Manager of Year

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — William (Bill) Rigney, now manager of the New York Giants, has been named American Assn. manager of the year. He managed the Minneapolis Millers before succeeding Leo Durocher as Giant manager a month ago.

The award, announced by association headquarters here, was accorded by Association Baseball Writers.

Rigney's 1955 leadership took the Millers to both a pennant and the club's first junior world championship.

The Millers finished eight games ahead of second-place Omaha.

Seals' Talk Ended, PCL Brass Argue Umps, Cards

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—A fruitless hassle over the fate of the San Francisco Seals out of the way, Pacific Coast League directors turned today to possible shortening of the baseball circuits playing schedule and some discussion about umpires.

* * *

Rebuffed in their efforts to sell the Seals franchise to the Milwaukee Braves of the National League for $200,000 and with no other prospective purchasers in town, the league decided last night to retain the franchise.

* * *

It took two and a half hours for Joe Cairnes, executive vice president of the Braves to say "No," last night to the franchise offered him by the hopeful league officials. He took no time at all explaining why he said "No" but it generally was believed the price was too high.

* * *

Claire Goodwin, league prexy, then annouced the PCL will continue to offer the franchise. Failing that, he said, "the league will operate the club in 1956."

* * *

The shortened schedule would meet objections of Vancouver promoters who cite their local weather as hazards before May 1 and after September 10. Fourteen games would be lopped off the schedule, reducing it to 154 to be played between those two dates.

Former Wings Help in Tie for Chicago Black Hawks

DETROIT (AP) — A pair of former Red Wings rifled in goals in the 1st and final period last night to give the Chicago Black Hawks a 2-2 tie with the Detroit National Hockey League club.

Johnny Wilson blasted in a 10-footer midway in the final period to bring Chicago from behind and hand the Wings their 6th deadlock in their last 10 games.

Tony Leswick put the Hawks ahead at 1:39 of the 2nd period on a nifty net play, lifting in Nick Mickoski's long shot over goalie Glenn Hall's shoulder.

Ted Lindsay and Metro Prystal clicked for a pair of goals in a space of 94 seconds in the 2nd period as Detroit pulled even and went ahead.

Lindsay's goal was his 10th of the season and made him the 1st NHL player to hit double figures this season. It came on a 15-foot blazer off Bob Goldham's pass at 17:06 of the period.

Prystal followed with a screened 65-footer that bounced off a skate past goalie Al Rollins. It was Prystal's 1st goal with Detroit this season. He got one earlier in the season for Chicago before being traded.

Wings earned a share of 5th place with Toronto by virtue of the deadlock. They carried a 36-25 shooting edge.

Wilson's goal came at 11:29 of the final stanza. It was his 7th of the season. He made only 12 goals last year with the Wings.

Leswick's was his 3rd. He put 10 for Detroit last season.

Sorority Team Coach Joins Effigy Plague

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Hanging football coaches in effigy is becoming epidemic on the University of Southern California campus.

Coach Jess Hill was hanged in effigy after Stanford defeated the Trojans last week. Yesterday Jim Decker, former Southern California fullback, took over the coaching of eight girls from the north side of sorority row as they played touch football. Sam Tsagalakis, former Trojan place kicker, coached the south side. Tsagalakis' girls won, 12-0.

Result: Decker was hanged in effigy on a telephone wire at a street intersection.

Campbell Bids for Mark Today

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—England's world speedboat record holder, Donald Campbell, will try again today, on Lake Mead, to better his mark of 202.32 m.p.h.

* * *

Yesterday he piloted his jet-powered Bluebird 192.176 m.p.h. on a one-kilometer straightaway. He had made three unsuccessful tries to get his craft up on her planing surfaces for a timed run.

* * *

On his fourth try, late in the day, the Bluebird entered the traps at 145 m.p.h. her speed indicator showed, and at the end of her run she was turning better than 230 m.p.h.

Today's runs were tentatively set for between 6 and 7 a.m., PST. If these do not materialize, Campbell will try between 10 and 11 a.m., but if he can't get his boat poised properly then the runs will be postponed until next Tuesday.

Eddie First to Sign
Yost Signs Contract With Senators, Speaks Out Against Fence Swinging

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eddie Yost, who sometimes hits that long ball himself, figures "you very seldom hit the long ball when you're trying."

"Maybe some of them can, players like (Washington's) Roy Sievers or (Boston's) Ted Williams, but most of the time when you start swinging for the fences, you don't make it," Eddie said.

Yost was holding forth late yesterday at contract signing ceremonies. He became the first player for the Washington Senators to sign up for 1956, a surprise development since Eddie has been one of baseball's most persistent holdouts in the past.

* * *

He took a cut this year, he said, from the $22,000 he reportedly was paid last year, but he told newsmen he was satisfied or "I wouldn't be signing."

Someone asked Yost if he thought the Senators' action to move in the left and center field fences some 20 feet would increase his home run output.

"Oh, sure," Eddie said, "8 or 10 a year. But I hope I won't be swinging for the fences."

It was then that he offered his observation about the futility of distance swinging.

* * *

Sievers, last year an outfielder but ticketed for first base duty next season, has broken Washington's home run record in each of the past two seasons. He hit 24 in 1954 and 25 last year. President Calvin Griffith believes that moving in the fences will enable Sievers to hit the 40-plus bracket in home runs.

* * *

Yost was asked whether he thought it would make any difference in his style of playing third base to have Sievers at first instead of Mickey Vernon, traded off earlier in the week to Boston.

"No, I don't think so," Yost replied. "Vernon is without a doubt the best fielding first baseman I ever saw and he stopped throws that some players might have let get by for errors. I guess maybe I'll make more errors next year, but I don't know.

"I haven't seen Sievers play much first base, but they say he has good hands and he could develop into a real good one."

Payseur Ousted as Sports Head at Northwestern

Shakeup Is Announced After Criticism of Football Team

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Northwestern University took the first step yesterday in what promises to be a complete athletic shakeup by dropping Ted Payseur as athletic director.

* * *

No immediate successor was named but President J. Roscoe Miller said Payseur will remain as director of athletics until a successor has been named.

* * *

Payseur, athletic director since 1945, will take over as an assistant business manager in charge of promotion of athletic events.

The annoucement was made by Dr. Miller after consultation with the faculty athletic committee and with university administrative officers.

The shakeup was expected after the Daily Northwestern, a campus publication, last week suggested in an editorial that Northwestern drop out of the Big 10 or overhaul its athletic program.

* * *

The editorial, referring to Northwestern's one Big 10 football victory in three years, said Northwestern obviously was unable to compete with other Big 10 teams.

Miller yesterday reiterated that Northwestern will not withdraw from the Big 10.

"Northwestern has no intention of withdrawing from the Big 10 in any sport in which we now compete," Miller announced. "The reorganization requires a new director of athletics who will be free to evolve a program consistent with membership in the Western conference. Responsibility as to all personnel in the athletic department will be in the hands of the new director."

* * *

There was no indication as to who the new director will be. Miller said the faculty athletic committee will make recomendations for a new director.

* * *

Northwestern has lost seven straight football games this year after Bob Voigts resigned as head coach last year. He was succeeded by Lou Saban who is serving out a one-year contract.

Texas College Proves Utopia for Grid Boss

Attendance Goes Up, Hangings Are Absent at Lutheran School

SEGUIN, Tex. (AP)—Texas Lutheran College hasn't won a football game thisseason but you wouldn't know it by visiting the campus.

* * *

The coach hasn't been hung in effigy, the crowds at the games have increased rather than decreased and bonfires and pep rallies are regular weekly affairs.

* * *

Tomorrow night the Bulldogs close out thei eight-game schedule by battling the University of Corpus Christi at Corpus Christi. The latter hasn't won a game either so Lutheran is at least starting out even.

* * *

There's a big pep rally planned toight to send the footballers off in the right frame of mind. Two bus loads of students will follow the team to Corpus Christi.

Hot Shooting Night

The hottest shooting night in Wayne cage history saw the Tartars hit on 68 per cent of their shots on February 10, 1955 as they beat Omaha 78 to 67.

Villanova's 1954 football season of one win, nine losses, was its most disastrous.

Iowa Blocks OSU's March

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State, moving in for a 2nd straight Big Ten football championship runs into Iowa tomorrow while Illinois and Wisconsin battle before a regional television audience.

Ohio State and Wisconsin are slated one-touchdown favorites but should Iowa or Illinois pile into the victory column it would not be a surprise.

In three other Big Ten games, Michigan, Michigan State and Purdue are expected to win easily.

Michigan, still stinging from its 25-6 upset at the hands of Illinois, runs into Indiana. Michigan State battles Minnesota at East lansing and Northwestern's winless Wildcats journey to Purdue.

Ohio State is two victories away from another undefeated big ten season but Iowa will prive a stubborn foe. The Hawkeyes might finally have found themselves in drubbing Minnesota, 26-0, last week.

Illinois, heading for another dismal season, pulled the upset of the week in whipping Michigan but the Illini might find Wisconsin's passing attack too much to cope with.

Michigan State concludes its Big Ten season against Minnesota and the Spartans — if they beat the Gophers — will sit back hoping either Indiana or Ohio State next week can beat Michigan.

Another Michigan loss and a Michigan State victory over Minnesota would assure the Spartans of a trip to the Rose Bowl.

Ohio State could win the title but will not be eligible for the Rose Bowlbecause the Buckeyes went to Pasadena last New Year's Day.

In other games tomorrow for Midwest teams Notre Dame figures to bear North Carolina easily and Holy Cross is a one touchdown favorite over Marquette.

Vets Outshine Rookies in NBA Record Twin Bill

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Some of the brightest young stars in the National Basketball Assn. were on display in Madison Square Garden last night but in the end it was the veterans that sent the New York Knickerbockers and the Philadelphia Warriors off the floor as winners of a doubleheader. A record NBA turnout of 18,245 saw the twin bill.

* * *

The Knicks defeated the Minneapolis Lakers 112-105 after the Warriors downed the Rochester Royals 89-84. The Knicks' victory moved them to the top of the Eastern Division with two wins in as many starts.

The first half sharp-shooting of Jimmy Baechtold sent the New Yorkers into a 62-48 halftime lead and they never were in serious trouble. Baechtold dropped in 16 of his 18 points in the first half but yielded scoring honors to another veteran, Harry Gallatin, who had 21 for the evening. Clyde Lovellette paced the Lakers with 22.

* * *

An 8-point scoring splurge by Paul Arizin, second only to teammate Neil Johnston in league scoring last year, in the closing minutes of the final period gave the Warriors their triumph. Arizin ended up with 33 points, 6 more than Johnston.

Rochester's Maurice Stokes was the only rookie who lived up to his reputation. The lanky former star of St. Francis of Pennsylvania continued his hot scoring spree with 26 points.

Banquet Honors OLCC Caddies

More than 100 caddies were in attendance last night at the annual caddy banquet held at the Orchard Lake Country Club at which Jack Brown of Walled Lake and Jack Reynolds of Waterford were honored.

Brown was honored for caddying the most rounds during the past year and Reynolds for his contributions to caddying at the club since 1950. It was Reynolds' last year in caddying ranks last season.

James B. Fisher, banquet chairman, announced that there were 259 former caddies now enrolled at colleges around the nation with 39 at UM and 13 at MSU studying under James Standish scholarships.

More Seats for Phil's Stadium

Up Seating Capacity to 33,346; Deluxe Boxes Cost $1,500 Each

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies will start work Monday on 30 additional boxes, each containing six deluxe seats, in Connie Mack Stadium.

The project will mean taking off between 8 and 10 inches of the playing field. The job, which will cost $50,000, will increase the stadium capacity to 33,346.

The club said yesterday two-thirds of the boxes already have been purchased at a season rate of $1,500 each. They are being bought by industrial and business concerns who plan to use the seats for entertaining customers and salesmen.

End of the gridiron road for 1956 was at hand today, for Pontiac High School Chiefs.

The hard-pressed, injury-riddled battlers faced not too much hope of success in this final game of the season on Wisner's wet turf, against another Saginaw Valley "have not". Flint Northern's Vikings have not won a Valley contest this year. Chiefs are in the same boat. But PHS has won two "outside" games, while Northern has but one victory against three losses and three ties.

However, whenever Northern and Chiefs collide there's always a red-hot, highly interesting scrap. And tonight's (8 p.m.) setto will be no exception PHS coaches believe.

On other Valley fronts, Arthur Hill, Saginaw tangle on the 'Jacks field and Flint Central tests the front running Bay City Wolves.

The Valley title is the big award in the Indian-Wolfpack argument in Atwood Stadium, FLlint. Wolves and Saginaw tangle on the 'Jacks lost one game. A victory for Indians will give them a share of the crown, but a loss will give the bauble outright to Bay City, unbeaten all along the line this fall.

Tonight's Pontiac starters will probably be:

Ends—Kennedy and Cagle; tackles, Kors and Kelly, Massingale; guards, Baker and Neaves; center, Hardy.

Backs — (qb) Casteel or Dick Whitmer; Spann and Larson, (fb) Robinson, Fusilier or Shorter, halfbacks.

The defensive lineup will include Neaves and Wiersema at tackles, Holloway at center, Roland Smith and Cagle at ends. Bruce Baker at linebacker, Larson and Bob McDonald at halfbacks and Jim Shorter the safety spot are definite choices, Coach Ed Graybiel said today.

Towelnapers Apprehended, Gets Two Raps

LANSING — Double trouble descended on four Chicago hunters while visiting Michigan's Paw Paw area recently.

* * *

The four made off with towels from a motel. The motel operator called state police, who stopped the quartet en route to Chicago.

While checking the towelnappers, the officers found not only the stolen property but also that the four had been hunting illegally on resident licenses.

* * *

For the miscues, a Paw Paw justice sent one of the four to jail for 15 days and collected $37.80 from each of the others.

Emmett Zelenka, Tulane junior tackle from New Orleans, handles most of the extra-point kicking for the Greenies this fall.

HUNTING HOME — A perambulating hunting home, built from a standard highway bus, will house a half dozen area nimrods during the coming Michigan deer season. This is the 5th year for Walter Sluiter, John Vettraino (owners) of Bloomfield Hills; Jay Sluiter of Waterford, Robert Stadler of the Hills and Bill Zielesch and Homer Murphy of Bloomfield Hills. The party left at 3 a. m., today for Two-Hearted River section of the Upper Peninsula. The bus has complete living facilities.

5 Coaches OK Present System

Majority Ivy League Mentors Don't Desire Return to 2-Platoon

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Five of the seven Ivy League football coaches are against free grid substitution and return to two-platoon football.

The coaches registered their opposition to the change in a survey taken by Newark News Sports Editor Len Elliott. The answers were published yesterday.

* * *

The coaches of Yale, Harvard, Columbia, Penn, Brown and Cornell said they were against the plan.

* * *

Princeton's Coach Charlie Caldwell, however, said he was in favor of the return to the two-platoon and free substitution rules and predicted that the ban on spring football practice will be lifted by next year.

* * *

Dartmouth Coach Bob Blackman newest coach in the league, failed to reply.

Tigers Call 40 Players to Pre-Spring Training

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Tigers will call 40 major and minor league players to spring training two weeks early for "individual instruction" which "should enable some of them to advance faster."

Mnager Bucky Harris will direct the camp, opening Feb. 14 at Lakeland, Fla. helping Harris will be John J. McHale, Detroit minor league director, coaches Billy Hitchcock, Jack Tighe and Joe Gordon and two managers of Tiger farm clubs.

* * *

"Our main idea," said president Walter O. (Spike) Briggs, "is to give some of our top prospects individual instruction that might help them make the Tiger club next spring. It's a great chance for the players to pick up important pointers that will help their development."

Briggs said the list of players to be called early would not be ready until after the draft and winter baseball meetings.

* * *

Harris said te program calls for daily instruction in hitting, fielding and pitching, and a series of games to help him and his coaches evaluate player progress. Coaches will have definite assignments with individuals to work on their weaknesses.

Briggs said minor leaguers showing promise will be taken to the major league training camp at Lakeland's Henley Field and will play in early exhibition games.

Regular spring training grinds opens March 1 at both Henley Field and the Detroit minor league camp at nearby Tigertown.

WRECKER—Sandor Iharos set two world records in Budapest. The Hungarian bettered the three-mile mark by clocking 13 minutes, 14.2 seconds on the way to 13 minutes, 40.6 seconds for 5,000 meters.

Scoring Star Married

Sophomore basketball guard Clarence Straughn who led Wayne University with 350 points last year is one of two married men on the 1955-56 basketball squad. The other is forward Tom Keller.

Duke's 1955 football squad includes 29 players who claim North Carolina as their home state.

Little Chiefs Lose Last Game, Still Share Crown

Pontiac High School's Junior Varsity football team saw its chances for a perfect season go out the window Thursday afternoon, but Ed Heikkinen and Tony Pizza's club still managed to share the Saginaw Valley Conference title for the 2nd straight year.

Flint Northern's JV Vikings routed the Little Chiefs yesterday, 27-0, to hand them their 1st setback in the 1955 season windup. Meanwhile the Bay City JV's trounced Flint Central, 33-19, to become co-titlists with Pontiac. Last year the Little Chiefs divided the crown with Northern.

Little Chiefs were never in the game yesterday. Northern's JV's scored twice in the 1st quarter, marching 80 yards for the 1st touchdown and dashing 65 yards with their own fumble for the 2nd.

* * *

They tallied again in the 2nd period to gain a 20-0 halftime advantage on a 35-yard pass. After a scoreless 3rd quarter the Vikings chalked up their final TD in the last period with a 60-yard aerial strike followed by a short plunge.

* * *

Pontiac JV's wound up the season with a 7-1 record.

Seek World's Sprint Record for Golliday

Wildcat Ace's Mark Set in Big 10 Test; Mixup Over Time

NEW YORK (AP) — Jim Golliday, 24-year-old Northwestern senior, may be the world's newest fastest human at 100 yards but before it is official there's likely to be quite a rhubarb in the ranks of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Nearly six months after it was announced that the 160-pound Negro sprinter had matched the world record with a 9.3 seconds clocking in the Big Ten relays at Evanston, Ill., the records committee of the AAU said today it would consider his time of 109.2 for a new standard.

* * *

If the :09.2 is approved at the annual convention of the AAU in Louisville Dec. 1-4 it will be forwarded to the International Federation for certification as a world standard. The listed world mark of :09.3 was established by Southern California's Mel Patton in 1948. The time was equalled by Australia's Hector Hogan in 1954 but the Aussie's performance has not yet come before the international body.

* * *

Complications developed when the records committee of the national organization discovered that the cards of two of the three timers caught Golliday in :09.2, the other in :09.3. The Central Assn. had aplied for :09.3 for the Northwestern runner.

"We have asked the Central Assn. for an explanation," said Dan Ferris, secretary of the AAU. "But meantime we are going ahead on the basis of :09.2 since two of the three timers caught him in that time."

* * *

At the time of the race, last May 14, Northwestern Coach Russell Walter said five watches were on Golliday.

"Two caught him at :09.2, two more at :09.3 and the other at :09.4," he said.

At the time Golliday credited his start from blocks as the big thing in his career.

Hardiman Cureton played 239 minutes at guard for UCLA in 1954 and is being groomed for All-America honors.

Mikes, Rams End Season Away

Tonight the curtain falls on the 1955 football season for St. Michael and St. Frederick. Both schools hit the road for 8 o'clock games.

Bob Mineweaser's Shamrocks invade Oxford to battle the Wildcats, who list one win and a tie in eight games. St. Mike will carry a 5-3 record into the fray, guaranteeing a better finish than its 1954 mark of 4-5.

Mikes will again miss the services of Chuck Brown, sidelined the past four games with a chipped ankle bone. It was hoped that the fleet junior halfback would be available for tonight's tilt, but the injury has not healed rapidly enough.

Oxford, last season's only unbeaten Oakland County team, has slumped badly this fall. The Wildcats downed the Shamrocks a year ago, 27-6. Tonight's scrap is rated a tossup.

St. Frederick's Rams face another losing session at Clarkston against Ed Hintz' Wolves, who finished 2nd in the Wayne-Oakland circuit.

Clarkston, featuring a well-balanced squad and a dangerous backfield, shows six victories in eight starts. Gene Wright's gridders have an unimpressive record of six setbacks and two ties.

The Rams, winless in their last 24 contests, will be striving to salvage some consolation from a disastrous year. But tonight's odds say "no" to their attempt.

With the Suburban Catholic League championship safely packaged, Rev. John Rakoczy's powerful Orchard Lake St. Mary aggregation will concentrate on ending a perfect season Sunday against St. Florian at Hamtramck. The Eaglets' annual finale, played at Keyworth Stadium, begins at 2:30

'Home Game Edge' Threats to Terps, W. Virginia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There's supposed to be something about playing at home that makes so-so teams come up with superhuman efforts.

If that's the case, then several of the nation's leading college football powers, including Maryland and West Virginia, had better be on their toes tomorrow.

Not that Clemson, which will face the Terps, and Pittsburgh, which takes on WVU, are fair-to-middlin' clubs. They're a lot better than that.

It's just that there's a lot at stake in both games and maybe a little of the whoop and holler will spur the underdogs.

* * *

Maryland, the nation's second-ranked team, is heavily favored to move further along the Orange Bowl road.

* * *

Word from the South Carolina school, however, is that it is ready to spring a surprise and knock Maryland from the ranks of the unbeaten. Each team is 3-0 in Atlantic Coast Conference play.

Pittsburgh stands smack in the way of a possible Sugar Bowl bid for West Virginia, which is No. 6 in the country and already has won the Southern Conference title. Should West Virginia win this one, an invitation to New Orleans may be in the mail next week.

* * *

Besides Maryland and West Virginia, other teams playing important games on the road are Yale, Duke, Texas Christian, Notre Dame, Auburn and Oregon State.

Texas Christian meets Texas in a game which will go a long ways in deciding the Southwest Conference winner. Texas A&M leads the league, but it's ineligible for post-season action. The Aggies play Rice tomorrow.

With three straight victories since being upset by Michigan State, Notre Dame is rated about a four-touchdown favorite over North Carolina. The Tarheels, however, showed improved form in thumping South Carolina last week.

In the Southeastern Conference, first-place Mississippi goes outside the conference to take on Houston. But Auburn, in second place, must beat Georgia Tech to remain in contention. Ole Miss is 4-1 in loop action while Auburn is 3-1-1.

* * *

On the West Coast, UCLA, playing at home, figures to stay on top of the PCC by beating Washington. Oregon State, the runnerup, meets California. The league records here are UCLA 4-0 and State 4-1.

* * *

Oklahoma, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press pol, looks like a cinch against Iowa State.

* * *

Ohio State, Michigan and Michigan State, the Big Ten powers, all will be at home, the Buckeyes against Iowa, Michigan against Indiana and the Spartans, the country's No. 3 team, against Minnesota.

Here's the way some of the other games look:

EAST: Army to rebound over Penn; Navy should have it easy against Columbia; Harvard and Brown in a close one; ditto Cornell-Dartmouth.

SOUTH: Florida and Tennessee a tossup; same for Tulane-Vanderbilt; Wake Forest seems too strong for Virginia.

MIDWEST: Wisconsin-Illinois in a tight game; Purdue too good for Northwestern; Marquette may surprise Holy Cross.

SOUTHWEST-FAR WEST: Southern Methodist-Arkansas close and Stanford a shade better than Oregon.

Sharp Contrast Between Maple, Berkley Teams

Unbeaten Birmingham Plays 'No-Win' Club in Tonight's Tilt

Football teams with sharply contrasting records will be featured at Birmingham High School Stadium tonight when undefeated Birmingham takes on winless Berkley. Kickoff time is 8 p.m.

Carl Lemle's powerful Maples, Eastern Michigan League champions returning to action after a week's rest, seek to preserve a flawless 7-0 mark. Berkley's record reads just the opposite and then some — no wins, eight losses.

This year's Berkley squad is a far cry from the one which captured the Inter-Lakes crown in 1954. Howard Bailey's Bears nosed out Birmingham a year ago, 14-13. Tonight they will probably be content to hold down the score.

Berkley closes its season with this one, but the Maples will still have one left—the Thanksgiving Day struggle at Royal Oak. Co-captains Bill Swaney and Jim Traa and speedy halfback John Appleford, to name a few, are expected to lead Birmingham to victory in a breeze over the Bears.

Port Huron visits Hazel Park and East Detroit journeys to Ferndale in Eastern Michigan League windups tonight, while over Royal Oak way the Acorns meet Border Cities League foe Highland Park. Cranbrook ends its season today at Cranbrook in an afternoon game against Fitzgerald of Van Dyke.

Things Look Up as Lions Enter NFL Statistics

DETROIT (INS) — Things are looking up for the previously downtrodden Detroit Lions as they prepare for Sunday's game with the Pittsburgh Steelers in the Pensylvania City.

They have gained their 1st victory of the season and are beginning to move up in the individual National Football League statistics.

Doak Walker, Lions' great halfback, has taken over the 2nd spot in NFL scoring behind Washington's Vic Janowicz.

The Doaker scored 18 of Detroit's 24 points in the win over Baltimore last week and now has tallied 56 points, three behind the former Ohio State star.

* * *

Bobby Layne, Detroit's brilliant clutch quarterback, became the 2nd passer in NFL history to reach the 2000 mark in pass attempts. Only Sammy Baugh, former Washington Redskin star, has thrown more passes than Layne (3016 in 16 seasons) but Bobby is only in his 8th year of pro ball.

AVOID FOOT TURN — In line with our emphasis on finishing the stride with a slide, the sketch shows a serious foot fault. It's called a "broadside," and, if repeated often enough, is certain to have effect in the leg muscles.

The stop is that abrupt.

The source of the broadside, or foot turn, is either a rushing first step, or angling to the right instead of moving forward in an absolutely straight line. Appreciating that with the broadside finish the rubber heel, turned, forces an abrupt stop, I start pupils by putting them through an extensive footwork drill, preferably without a ball. I find they are more relaxed, and that they hold the line of their stride easier than with a ball.

Should you feel the slightest "pull" of the body to the right as you go into your slide-stop, you've got practicing to do. You've got to work on finishing with the left foot pointed straight ahead. And may I suggest you do it without a ball. I know the flaw will be corrected in only a few slides.

Spartans' Morrall Bids for All-American Berth

By TED SMITS

NEW YORK (AP)—Backfield stars with such fascinating names as Jim Swink, Hopalong Cassady, and Joe Childress are making strong bids for 1955 All-America football recognition.

Swink is from Texas Christian; Cassady, of Ohio State, made the 1954 All-America and may very well repeat; and Childress is the spark of a surprising Auburn team.

Others equally talented but with more conventional monickers as recommended by The Associated Press All-America regional boards include Frank Tamburello, Maryland; Jimmy Brown, Syracuse; George Welsh, Navy; Dick James, Oregon; Freddy Wyant, West Virginia; Earl Morrall, Michigan State; Paul Hornung, Notre Dame; Tommy McDonald, Oklahoma; and Jon Arnett, Southern California.

The Associated Press All-America, based on findings of the regional boards, will be announced Dec. 2 after reports from all regular season games have been thoroughly sifted.

Here is a national rundown by regions or conferences, moving from West to East:

PACIFIC COAST—Arnett leads the conference with a total offense of 722 yards in 136 plays in 8 games, and is the top scorer with 12 touchdowns and 12 conversions. Close behind him is William Tarr, Stanford, who has made 548 yards in 141 rushing attempts.

BORDER CONFERENCE — Listed are Art Luppino, Arizona; James Sides, Texas Tech; and Jesse Whittenton, Texas Western.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN—Gary Glick of Colorado A&M gets top rating, followed by Herb Nakken and Lou Mele, Utah; Norman Kampschror, Montana; Jack Hill and Kent Harris, Utah State; and Jimmy Bowen Denver.

SOUTHWEST—Swink leads his conference with 851 yards on 103 runs, and leads in scoring with 81 points, and has returned 6 kickoffs for 138 yards.

MIDLAND—McDonald is tops on an offense-minded, No. 1-ranked Oklahoma team, followed by Rex Fischer, Nebraska.

SOUTHEASERN—Childress has made 433 yards on 100 carries, making much of his gains after being hit.

MIDWEST — Cassady, a first team All-America last year, has made 396 yards in 64 tries in the tough Big 10 and leads his conference in scoring with 42 points. Earl Morrall, the nation's top punter and a fine passer, gets credit as the quarterback who brought Michigan State to high ranking. Other good backs are Don Schaefer, and Paul Hornung, Notre Dame; Len Dawson, Purdue; and Walt Kowalczyk, Michigan State.

ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE—Tamburello is a defensive standout as well as the imaginative quarterback of unbeaten Maryland. Nick Consoles of Wake Forest is the leading conference passer with 64 completion in 120 tries for 711 yards and 5 touchdowns.

* * *

SOUTHERN—Wyant, who quarterbacks unbeaten West Virginia, is tops in this section followed by Bobby Moss, West Virginia; Mike Sommer, George Washington; and Frank Pajaczkowski, Richmond.

EASTERN—Welsh, Navy's mastermind, looks strongest here, with Don Holleder beginning to show real strength for Army, and Jimmy Brown of Syracuse attracting attention for his size and speed.

Cassady Makes Home Farewell

Buckeye All-America Bows Out at Columbus in Game With Iowa

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Hopalong Casady gallops for the last time tomorrow in Ohio Stadium.

The third largest crowd in Buckeye football history will be on hand to give him an ovation as he rides into the sunset of his fabulous college career.

More than 82,700 will cheer the freckled, red-haired All-America in his final home appearance, with Iowa's resurgent Hawkeyes as the foe.

Although Cassady has stuck his blazing cleats into the end zone 33 times in four years—more than any other Ohio State player—he has yet to score against Iowa. This is his final shot at the guys who have foiled him in two previous games.

Cincinnati beat Brooklyn 10 in 22 in the 1955 season.

TOP HAND—Clarence Peaks is the best all-round player in the fine Michigan State backfield.

Tigers Sign Son of Detroit Scout

DETROIT—Detroit Tigers have signed infielder-pitcher Bobby Williams of Buffalo, N.Y., to a minor league contract for 1956. He was considered the outstanding prospect in the Buffalo area in 1955.

Williams, son of Tiger Scout Cy Williams, was a star shortstop and pitcher for St. Francis High in Buffalo. He batted .375 in 1955, and won 13 and lost only two games. Young Williams hit .350 with a Buffalo sandlot team appearing in 75 games. The team was champion of the All American Amateur Baseball Assn.

Williams is 18, 6 feet 1 tall, weighs 175 pounds, and is a right handed hitter.

Five Tartars Graduate

Wayne University's football squad loses five men next June through graduation. Halfback Don Halverson of Stambaugh, guards Bill Yee of Detroit and Don Gorence of Chicago, center Bill Walker of Detroit and tackle Clarence Shelley of Detroit will all receive degrees next June.

Coach Mason Busy Man

A busy man these days is Coach Joel Mason of Wayne University in Detroit. After holding freshman football practice from 4 to 6 p.m., Mason hurries over to the gym to put his basketball squad through a 7 to 9 p.m. workout.

West Virginia football players this year wore their numbers on their helmets as well as on their jerseys.

What a car to save on!

This is the time to save on a '56 Ford. You'll find our reasons below. But the main thing is the car. For, even without our special deals it is the fine car at half the fine-car price.

With a Thunderbird Y-8 engine,* the new Ford plays second fiddle to none in out-and-out "Go!" Rigid Y-block design damps out vibration at all speeds, for smoother performance and longer engine life.

With Thunderbird styling in every one of 18 brilliant new models, Ford's got a long, low look that can only be envied—not equaled. You have your pick of colors, harmonies and upholstery materials that would make a millionaire whistle. And don't forget, this is the fine car at half the fine-car price.

With Lifeguard Design Ford's first again, this time in the field of driver-passenger safety in event of accidents. There's the new Lifeguard steering wheel with a deep-center structure which acts as a cushion . . . Lifeguard door locks are designed to give extra protection from doors springing open under shock. There's optional Lifeguard cushioning for instrument panel and sun visors, to lessen injuries from impact, and optional seat belts that keep driver and passengers securely in their place for added safety. And these are just the main family of safety features. Your Ford Dealer can show you still more safety factors that are built into the '56 Ford.

*Available in all Fairlane and Station Wagon models.

Romeo Educators Survey Needs in New Program

Firm Engaged by School Board

Architects to Work on Proposed Building in District

ROMEO — Jensen and Keough, architectural firm of Detroit, were retained by the Romeo Board of Education last night to work on the proposed building program within the district.

The firm had designed and executed the recently completed facilities in a $450,000 expansion program which added 18 class rooms, a bus garage and a vocational-agriculture building to district facilities.

F. M. Thrun of Lansing was hired by the board as its bonding attorney.

The educators agreed to invite Dr. Gerald Boicourt of Wayne University to meet with them next Thursday evening to bring student population figures up to date, discuss specific needs of the district and explore the sites under consideration.

Dr. Boicourt had drafted a survey of the district in December, 1953.

A preliminary move decided upon by school officials was to attend next Monday night's village council meeting principally to discuss the problem of sewage disposal on tentative sites, both close to the village limits and further away.

The board, realizing members of the Romeo High School Band and Student Council had expended a great deal of effort in raising $1500 toward the purchase of new band uniforms, voted to assist them with the project.

The difference in cost between the amount raised and the total needed for trousers and coats to outfit the 70-member-musical aggregation was allocated by the school governing body.

The present uniforms were purchased 21 years ago according to Band Director E. C. Ojala.

The high school will be on a special milk program next Monday, Supt. T. C. Filppula stated, adding, "Students may purchase milk for four cents per ten-ounce carton." The authorization for the purchase of three milk-vending machines was voted by the board.

Market Makes Quiet Advance

NEW YORK (AP)—The Stock Market made a quiet and moderate advance today in early dealings.

It was a semi-holiday in Wall street in observance of Veterans Day.

Prices moved fractions either way for the most part. There were few large blocks on the tape.

General Motors, at the top of the most active list for the past two sessions with a total gain of 2⅞, opened today on a block of 20,000 shares unchanged at 49⅜.

The Motor group had small gains as did the steels, rubbers, aircrafts, and oils. The coppers had a lower look. The rails and chemicals were mixed.

Among higher stocks were Nickel Plate Railroad, Standard Oil (NJ), Phelps Dodge, DuPont, International Paper, Texas Gulf Producing, Republic Steel, Chrysler, Hercules Motors, Douglas Aircraft and RCA.

Crop Report Bolsters Beans

CHICAGO (AP) — A government crop report provided a stimulating shot in the arm for soybeans on the Board of Trade today. They advanced a couple of cents in fairly active dealings.

The rest of the grain market couldn't go along with soybeans. Wheat started out quite weak but managed to recover a good part of its loss in later trade. Feed grains were mixed despite a forecast for a cold wave in much of the Midwest.

Ford Executives to Reap Huge Gains on Stock Sale

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Times said today that top officials of the Ford Motor Co. stand to make as much as three and a half to four million dollars each from the split of Ford stock for sale to the public.

They are among 108 key Ford employes who, collectively, will clear somewhere between $83,700,000 and $98,000,000 in profit on Ford stock, the Times said.

The Ford Foundation disclosed existence of the 108 stockholders Sunday when it announced it would offer Ford Motor Co. stock for sale to the public early in January.

The Foundation said the 108 already own 42,140 shares of Ford Motor Co. A Stock as a result of employe stock option and that they have options to buy in installments during the next three years an additional 101,000 shares.

Both the Foundation and the Company declined to identify the 108 or tell how they acquired their shares, or at what price.

However, the Times said it learned the 108 contracted two years ago to pay $315 a share for the Class A stock, paying for it at the rate of 30 per cent in 1955, 25 per cent in 1956, 25 per cent in 1957 and the balance in 1958.

Under the marketing plan, Class A stock will be reclassified into common stock and split 15 to 1.

The common stock will be offered for public sale at an estimated $60 to $66.66 a share.

At this price, each share bought by the 108 at $315 becomes worth about $900—a profit of between $585 and $685 a share.

In addition, they have options to buy an additional 101,000 shares at the $315 price.

"The plan is intended as an incentive to encourage stock ownership by certain key officers and other bona fide permanent employes," the Foundation said, "in order to provide them with a proprietary interest in the (company's) success and to encourage them to remain in the employ of the company."

Weekly Car Output May Pass 176,000

DETROIT (INS) — Automotive News said yesterday the industry this week will have its highest seven-day car output since May 21.

The trade paper estimated 176,416 cars would roll from assembly lines this week, a 5.4 per cent increase over last week.

Manufacturers, the publication said, will assemble approximately 1,175,000 cars during the remainder of the year if they continue at their present rate of better than 29,000 autos a day. This would bring the year's total output to just over eight million assemblies.

The combined total of the car estimate and the truck makers' goal of 1,260,000 would set U. S. auto industry production near 9.25 million units, compared to 8,002,433 cars and trucks built during the record year of 1950.

State Asks Site for Prison Camp

Board of Supervisors Gets Request During Morning Session

Permission to locate a second prison camp on one of two state-owned sites in Brandon Township was asked of the Board of Supervisors yesterday by the Michigan Department of Correction.

A 120-man camp is now operating at Pontiac Lake.

S. J. Gilman, assistant director of corrections, said "more such camps are an absolute necessity. Our convict population went up 17 per cent during 1940-50 and we just don't have enough space in state prisons.

"Unless we can set up more camps, men will be sleeping on the floor at Jackson."

He said the department has the money and the sites: One on the south side of Saw Mill Lake road east of Hadley road and the other on west side of Hornet road between Oakwood road and Saw Mill Lake road.

The prisoners would be utilized "to give valuable service to the state" by expanding facilities at state parks in the county, he said, and helping in the Conservation Department's game preservation program.

"We now have 850 men in 10 camps. With another 500 men in new camps we could save the state about $1,000,000 in labor each year," Gilman added.

Supervisors could remember no reports of trouble stemming from the present county camp.

The request was referred to the Miscellaneous Committee for a report and recommendation.

Conductors, orchestras, choirs and soloists of international repute have cooperated in the production, it is claimed.

The larger works are provided with extensive explanatory notes in English, French and German and, where necessary, with librettos in various languages.

Irish Men Outspend Women for Clothing

DUBLIN—Men in the Republic of Ireland spend considerably more on clothes than do women, a household budget inquiry shows.

* * *

The relative difference decreased with increasing income, according to J. F. Knaags of the Central Statistics Office. The overall standard of living revealed by the study was fairly high, he said, and it gave valuable information as to how Irish town families spend their money.

* * *

In the case of alcoholic beverages, however, the expenditure was understated by most people, Knaags decided. Making allowance for this he found that the overall weekly expenditure in town households is $31.70.

State's River Aided Progress

Michigan's Development in Settlement, Industry Helped by Waterways

Michigan can boast over 36,350 miles of fast-running rivers and streams. The importance of these waterways in the early development of the State is reviewed by Dr. Bert Hudgins, chairman of the Geography department at Wayne University, in his study, Michigan—Geographic Backgrounds in the Development of the Commonwealth.

With the opening of the Erie Canal in 1825, many home seekers found their way by water route from the East to Michigan where they penetrated the interior of the Lower Peninsula by way of the Raisin, Huron, and Clinton rivers.

The smaller streams of the State also were important factors in local history. It was by way of these water courses that trappers and traders pushed inland. Besides directing the travel of the settler, these streams provided the power for his mills, floated his logs in the lumbering era, drained his land, provided abundant fishing and recreation areas, and supplied his other water needs.

Michigan's rivers are unique in that they are extended rivers at their exits. Extended rivers, Dr. Hudgins explains, are those which formed on the exposed land areas and flowed to the glacial lakes. As these lakes became lower, the rivers were extended to flow at the lower lake outlet. The river courses were established in many cases by flow from melting ice ends in the glacial recession period.

The rivers that exit into Lake Michigan nearly all have outlets partially dammed by sand dunes, hence, the rivers broaden to make a lake before exit into the larger body of water. Examples are Kalamazoo Lake, Black Lake, Muskegon Lake, White Lake, and Manistee grew from small villages on such outlets.

Longest of Michigan's rivers is the 225-mile Grand River. The Menominee River is approximately 200 miles, the Escanaba is 90, and the Manistique, 60 miles long.

Today, as in the past, Michigan's interior waters provide a vast source of water supply, recreation, and water power.

". . . considering the advance in technical skills, it might be contended that man is more closely related to the inland waterways in the modern day than ever before . . .," Dr. Hudgins states.

Unlicensed Driver Hurt in Parked Car Mishap

Learning how to drive, Wendell Waldroop, 23, of 44 Fairgrove St., hit two parked cars when he made a left-hand turn from Fairgrove Ave. into Edison St. last night.

He was treated for lacerations on his forehead and released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Possessing a beginners permit, Waldroop had no licensed driver with him in the car. He was ticketed for driving without a license and for excessive speed while making a turn.

One recent investigator studied the case of an eight-room house (due for early demolition) which housed 28 to 30 adults and eight children, two dogs and several fowls tied by the legs to veranda posts.

The human inhabitants were mostly Indians. Not included in the list of tenants was the ghost. People claim to have seen the specter—a young woman with only half a face—roaming about.

The investigator was puzzled, however, to know how she could find room to move at night.

Average Citizen Can Get $10,000 Home by 1965

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A New York magazine editor predicts that the average American family will be able to afford a $10,000 home by 1965 and a $20,000 home by 1980.

* * *

The editor, Perry Prentice of House and Home magazine, said the average family which now has $4,400 to spend annually will have more than $8,000 in 1980.

He told the convention of the United States Savings and Loan League that mortgage men will be called on soon to finance at least two million new homes a year. The nation is now building a little more than a million homes annually.

* * *

Francis E. Lamb, general manager of the Bradford Building Society of Bradford, England, told the convention of a "tripartite guarantee scheme" by which British building societies are able to lend up to 95 per cent of the value of a home.

* * *

"The extra risk taken by the society," he said, "is shared in equal parts by the government, the local authority for the area, and the society itself."

Six Students Killed Near Grade Crossing

GLENCOE, Minn. (AP)—Six Minnesota high school students — four boys and two girls — were killed last night in a grade crossing accident in nearby Plato.

Sheriff Leon Odegaard said the car was smashed "so badly I don't think a junk yard would want it."

Bits of metal and the broken bodies were scattered 200 yards along the Milwaukee railroad tracks, he said.

He identified five of the dead as: Milton Brelje, and Maurice Olson, both about 18, from Plato; Robert Luedtke, 18, and Roger Frauendiest, 17, both of nearby New Auburn, and Margaret Fuller about 18, of Plato.

The sheriff said the body of the sixth victim, a girl, was so badly mutilated identification could not be made immediately.

Granite Shaft Will Mark Attack on Pearl Harbor

WASHINGTON (AP) — A memorial to the Americans who died in Japan's 1941 attack will be dedicated at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, on Dec. 7.

* * *

Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas has approved the memorial which was sponsored and donated by the Navy Club of the United States.

Charles R. Topp is the national commander of the Navy Club.

The memorial is of natural granite. A female figure, representing the spirit of peace, stands about 10 feet high and rests on a base eight feet in diameter.

The memorial is on a strip of land, set aside for the purpose by the Navy, near the battered hulk of the battleship Arizona which the Navy left in its position after World War II as a memorial to those who perished in the big attack.

The Arizona was one of 19 vessels sunk by the surprise Japanese attack of Dec. 7, 1941. Most of the other major ships were eventually raised and repaired and fought against the Japanese.

The statue will be unveiled by the Pacific War Memorial Commission on Dec. 7 at ceremonies which will be attended by senior military commanders and public figures in Hawaii.

3-Year-Old Opens Bowling Career

CHICAGO (INS) — While some boys his age still are being pinned up, three-year-old Rickey Padgorny of Chicago is knocking pins over with ease.

* * *

The tot received a toy bowling set from his mother, Irene, a few months ago. He quickly became proficient at knocking the pins for a loop.

Richard Padgorny, his father, proudly calls the lad a chip off the old block. The elder Padgorny, who would rather bowl than eat, says he now plans to get his son a set of duck pins and a special ball larger than the toy outfit.

To give young Rickey early contact with the adult form of bowling and start him on the championship road early in life, Padgorny also plans to take his son with him on bowling nights.

Roads Require No New Taxes

Expert Makes Report on Financing Michigan Highway System

By JACK I. GREEN

LANSING (AP)—Michigan can have a modern 5.7 billion dollar highway system in 10 to 15 years with no increase in taxes, an economist-fiscal expert says.

* * *

Richard M. Zittel, research economist with the University of California Institute of Transportation and Traffic Engineering, reported to a legislative highway study committee which hired him to study the fiscal possibilities of an expanded road system.

His was the job of saying how to finance the 5.7 billion dollars worth of new construction over the next 20 years which the Automotive Safety Foundation recommended yesterday.

Zettel said Michigan now is raising enough highway taxes to finance the program and its maintenance and administration if an anticipated federal aid program is approved by the next Congress.

* * *

In fact, he said, Michigan probably will raise about 180 million dollars more than it needs in the 20 years.

But he said the big bulk of the money will come in the second 10 years of the period, while the need for new highways and streets is now.

So he proposed that the money be "drawn forward" by issuing 500 million dollars worth of bonds to do the trunkline job in 10 years. Present taxes will finance the bond issue, he said.

If the federal aid increase does not materialize, Zettel said, Michigan would need to increase its present 6-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax by slightly more than one cent to achieve the same result.

* * *

Even if there is no increase in taxes, Zettel said, there should be an "adjustment" in the ratio of taxes paid by the different classes of highway users, such as trucks and private autos. He said he would make specific recommendations when he completes his study in December.

Zettel recommended that the Legislature repeal the 1933 Dykstra Act which requires cities to bear part of the cost of building trunklines within their borders. The state should pay the full cost of these, he said.

Zettel said a 500 million dollar bond issue would make it possible to change the formula for allocating highway revenues between the state and local governments.

* * *

The existing allocation formula gives the state 44 per cent, the counties 37 per cent and the cities and villages 19 per cent.

However, the 1½-cent gas tax increase passed last spring provided a different formula for that money. Zettel said the average of the two formulae now gives the state 50 per cent, the counties 33 per cent and the municipalities 17 per cent of the total.

Schools May Adopt Science Study Plan

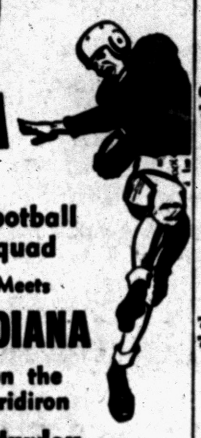

The Pontiac Board of Education last night heard a report on a new course of study in science worked out for the elementary grades.

Coordinator of Elementary Education Gerald E. White introduced Frank Kay, an instructor at Le-Baron School, who outlined the program.

It was worked out by local teachers attending a science education class given by Wayne University, said Kay.

"We hope by starting this comprehensive study in the elementary grades, pupils will become aware of potentialities in the field and make contributions to sceince in later years," he stated.

Video Restores Her Confidence

Filmdom Attempted to Turn Comedienne Into Glamor Girl

By BOB THOMAS

NEW YORK (AP)—Return to the movies? Martha Raye says, "I'll never go back!"

There was a touch of bitterness a she said it. Now one of the queens of TV, she knew how it felt to be washed up in Hollywood.

* * *

Martha soared to fame with Bing Crosby and Bob Burns in "Rhythm on the Range." For a couple of years, she played in one comedy after another. Her cavernous mouth, her "Oh Boyyy" became national trade marks.

"Then they tried to make a glamor girl out of me," she recalled between preparations of her NBC TV show. "They tried to emphasize my legs (which are plenty all right—Ed.).

* * *

"That was ridicuous. I was no glamor girl; I was a comedian."

Miscast as romantic star, she watched her career slide downhill.

"Then one day they put a yellow slip under my dressing room door," she said. "I was fired. That was how they did it—no speeches, no goodbyes. I packed my things and left.

* * *

"For a year I hung around Hollywood, trying to find work. I couldn't find any.

"I'd invite people to a party. They didn't even have the courtesy to call and say they weren't coming."

* * *

That was 1938. In the years following, she did "Navy Blues," "Hellzapoppin," an Abbott and Costello picture and two wartime films, "Pin-up Girl" and "Four Jills in a Jeep." Her last picture was "Monsieur Verdoux" with Charlie Chaplin. It was not a success.

Martha played night clubs through the years, then dipped into TV when it came along. She was a hit from the start.

* * *

"You can't imagine what it did for me," she remarked. "After the Hollywood experience, I had lost my confidence. I thought I was finished."

Far from finished, Martha now possesses one of the relatively few long-term contracts in TV. NBC signed her up for 15 years. She only has to work for the next five years. After that she can quit and collect the money, if she wants to.

"That contract means a lot to me," she said. "I'm 39 now—I mean really 39, not the Jack Benny kind. The next 15 years are important ones in my life. It's so great to be able to know I'll have security for the next 15 years."

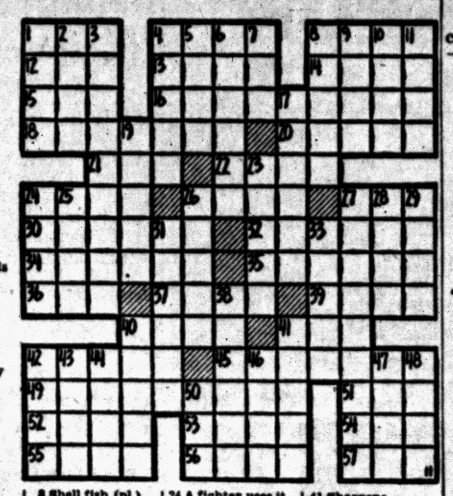

City Cab Driver Hurt in Two-Car Collision

Cab-driver Edward A. Bissell, 230 Elm St., suffered minor injuries in a collision Thursday at Dwight Ave. and Liberty St.

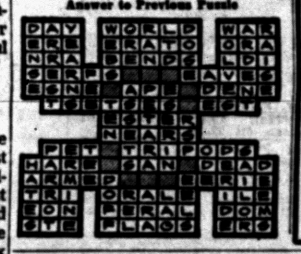

He was released after treatment at Pontiac General Hospital. The other driven, Frank Kay, 68 Newberry, was uninjured.

Total Prohibition May Cover India by April 1958

NEW DELHI (AP) — Many Indians are convinced their country can accomplish successful prohibition. Politicians and newspapers, with important exceptions, are backing a prohibition inquiry committee, which has recommended that India achieve total prohibition in stages by April 1958. Its recommendation probably will be approved with little modification.

* * *

The committee says prohibition can work in India for these reasons:

"The relatively small magnitude of the problem of drink; the general law-abiding nature of the people; the assured support of womenfolk; the resistance of the average family to drinks being served at home; and inhibitory teachings against drink which have prevailed for centuries."

* * *

Anticipating comparisons with foreign experiments, the committee analyzes reasons for the failure of previous attempts at curtailing drink. Its findings on the United States said:

"The law was defective; enforcement was . . . without proper coordination and from the very inception prohibition came under persistent attacks from powerful and organized vested interests."

Will Use Farm Issue

WASHINGTON (INS) — The "Democratic Digest" says most Democratic officials believe falling farm prices will be their best vote-catcher in 1956. Second and third favorite issues shown by the poll of party leaders were "Tax Favoritism for the Rich," and "Public Power Giveaways."

3 Persons Injured in Four-Car Collision

Three persons were injured in a four-car accident on Franklin Rd. Thursday afternoon when one driver passed on a hill.

Treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital were Waddell Payne, 542 Harvey St.; his passenger, J. I. Spears, 70 Jackson St., and William P. Shanfield, Detroit.

Pontiac Police said that Waddel, 30, passing a car driven by Leo Seeback, 28010 Tyler St., Birmingham, struck Shanfield's car head-on.

A car following Shanfield, driven by Clarence H. Foust Jr., 162 Perkins St., and Seeback's car were also involved in the accident.

Gets $3,000 for Injury

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A pretty housewife will get $3,000 because, she says, she was impaled on a mattress spring. A jury awarded Mrs. Virginia Maecherlein, 29, that sum in damages after she testified yesterday the spring cut her back, necessitating surgery. She had sued the mattress company for $10,000.

$152,000,000 Toll Road to Be Financed With Private Capital

LONDON, Ont. (AP)—Plans for a $152,000,000 privately financed toll highway from Windsor to Niagara Falls, announced in London, would provide Southwestern Ontario with an entirely new four lane artery according to suggested routes that already have been surveyed.

* * *

Word that private capital, spearheaded by a group of prominent Londoners, is prepared to finance the 220-mile expressway, was confirmed late yesterday by Joseph Jeffery, president of London Life Insurance Company.

It was also confirmed that backers of the scheme already have placed their proposal informally before the Ontario government and plans to make an official submission to the Legislature's toll roads committee hearings in London.

Jeffery said the recommended route would skirt the cities of Chatham, London, Brantford and Hamilton. It would parallel the Queen Elizabeth Way from Hamilton to Niagara Falls.

* * *

A second alternate route also has been mapped. It would follow a line closer to Lake Ontario further south and more direct. A leading United States firm which drafted plans for a number of big thruways and turnpikes in the United States, has completed preliminary engineering surveys on both suggested routes.

Burst Water Pipe Indirectly Saves Lives of Three

CUSHING, Okla. (AP)—A broken water main is credited wi hitnd-i rectly saving the lives of a Cushing couple and their 7-year-old daughter.

* * *

Bill Vannostran, city water department employe, was notifying residents to draw water because the main was to be shut-off for repairsm He knocked at the door of the Lee F. Harris home and found the family hard to arouse. Harris finally struggled to the door.

* * *

Vannostran called a doctor and the family had been breathing fumes from a faulty gas floor furnace. The physician sai dit Vannostran had arrived 30 minutes later it might have been too late to save the family.

Worn Out Shoes Cost Salesman $50,000

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Taking a pair of shoes to a repair shop cost jewelry salesman William H. Henderson between $50,000 and $60,000, he told police.

Henderson, of Larkspur, Calif., said he left his car for less than 10 minutes yesterday to take the shoes to the shop. He returned to find the trunk lock punched and his sample bag of watches, diamond rings and pins stolen.

Det. Sgt. Arthur O. Boyd quoted Henderson: "In this business, you make one mistake and you're through."

Young Motorist Killed in Accident on U.S. 16

LANSING (AP)—Donald Smith, 19, of nearby Lyons, was killed Wednesday when his car collided head-on with another car on U. S. 16, four miles north of Lansing.

Police said Smith pulled out to pass on the three-lane highway and was forced into the lane of oncoming traffic when a car in front of him also pulled out to pass.
