Robert J. St. Clair, C. of C. manager, said new officers would take office Jan. 21 at the annual C. of C. banquet.

Clark Quits U. of D. Post

Will Remain Athletic Director Until Another One Is Named

DETROIT (UP)—Earl (Dutch) Clark resigned today as head football coach of the University of Detroit, but will remain at the school as athletic director until a new one is appointed. Wally Fromhart will take Clark's coaching job.

Detroit won 31 games and lost 17 during Clark's three-year tenure as head coach. He was voted Missouri Valley Conference "coach of the year" in 1952, although the Titans won only three games while losing six.

The past season, Detroit won six and lost four while tying Oklahoma A&M for the Missouri Valley Conference championship.

Fromhart, a quarterback at Notre Dame during the middle 1930's where he was coached by Hunk Anderson and Elmer Layden, came to Detroit from Loras College of Dubuque, Ia., in 1951 when Clark was appointed head coach.

Claims Nation Is Sound; Dems Approve Policy in Last Night's Talk

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower gave the American people his assurance Monday night that the government will use "every legitimate means" to sustain the nation's prosperity against any threat of recession or depression.

He voiced a "persistent and reasoned faith" in the basic soundness of the economy and sternly rebuked the "self-appointed peddlers of gloom and doom."

Eisenhower launched his sharp counterattack against "boom-and-bust" fears in a nationwide radio-television report on his administration's accomplishments and plans on the eve of the second session of the 83rd Congress.

Democrats generally applauded his pledge to act promptly in case of a recession. They asserted, however, that his plan of action is borrowed from the Democrats.

Some suggested that he should start moving now since a recession has already started.

"It is very good to know," said Senate Democratic leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas, "that the administration has adopted what has always been a basic feature of Democratic policy—the belief that our people need not suffer from a boom and bust America."

Republicans warmly praised the address and predicted that the principles the President outlined would be followed by specific recommendations which Americans would approve.

Eisenhower acknowledged that "changing circumstances"—including the end of the Korean War—require economic adjustments.

But he said adjustments can be made "without encouraging disaster or without bringing about the economic chaos for which the Communists hope."

He did not spell out the "legitimate means" he would employ to meet a recession threat. But he did say the administration would (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3)

Burping or Choking—How's a Guy to Know?

PAWTUCKET, R. I. (AP)—A baby sitter's frantic report that a baby was choking to death brought a fire truck, two police cars and a utility company emergency car to a home last night.

First in was Fire Capt. Eugene J. Monahan, a father. He took one look at the gasping infant, picked him up and burped him.

The baby-sitter—a bachelor uncle—apologized profusely.

Gouzenko Gives Senators Names, Data at Hearing

NEW YORK (AP)—Two senators said today Igor Gouzenko, who helped smash a Russian spy ring in Canada, had given them names and information usable for the internal security of the United States.

Sens. William E. Jenner (R-Ind) and Pat McCarran (D-Nev) told newsmen on returning from a trip to Canada that they questioned Gouzenko for more than five hours yesterday.

Gouzenko formerly was a code clerk for the Russians in Canada.

The senators declined to reveal where they had seen Gouzenko at what they described as a hearing. They said their mission "was accomplished and it was satisfactory."

Jenner and McCarran arrived at Pennsylvania station here at 9:30 a. m. from Montreal.

They said the hearing was presided over by J. C. McRuer, chief justice of the Supreme Court of Ottawa.

Jenner, chairman of the Senate subcommittee on Internal Security, said he would study the transcript of the hearing and probably make a formal request to the Canadian government to release the information.

Asked if Gouzenko had mentioned names, Jenner said: "Yes, names were mentioned, but under our agreement we cannot discuss it."

"To a question as to whether he had 'learned anything' from the interview, Jenner said: "Yes, we did."

The Redford department also responded but left after the extent of the fire was seen, Desnoyers said.

According to Desnoyers, a time clock in the plant was stopped at 3:10 a.m., "which indicates the fire started even before that."

Although it is assumed the fire started at the rear of the building and spread toward the front, its origin is still unknown. Exploding cans of lacquer fed the flames, Desnoyers said.

Army, Air Force to Identify 498 Officially Dead

1st Release Due Tonight on 3,856 Once Listed Missing in Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department today will identify 498 of 3,856 American soldiers declared dead at the end of 1953 after they had been listed as missing in Korea for at least one year.

The Army and Air Force started notifying next of kin last week and by Saturday all of the presumed dead will be identified publicly.

The first list of 10 Army officers and 398 enlisted men has been distributed for publication tonight.

The Army has prepared five more lists. The Air Force and the Marine Corps have one each. The last of these will be made public Friday.

The Army has changed the official status of 3,572 missing men, the Air Force of 256 and the Marine Corps of 228.

The Navy plans no such mass action, but has been acting in individual cases after the lapse of a year without information that the servicemen might still be alive.

Since the fighting ended last summer the Navy has listed as dead 34 of the 103 men who had been reported missing.

The Army and Air Force action at year's end raised to at least 30,330 the battle death toll in Korea.

At the same time, the roster of missing has been reduced to 3,856. Eventually these, too, will be declared legally dead unless information turns up to indicate otherwise.

Pay and allowances of missing servicemen end as soon as they are listed as dead, but their beneficiaries are entitled to any pay that has accumulated.

Beneficiaries also will receive lump-sum payments equivalent to six months base pay.

Families of men now declared dead will receive from the appropriate service a booklet setting forth their rights and benefits. The largest of these could be a $10,000 government life insurance policy.

The Veterans Administration yesterday began sending out notices telling relatives of the 3,856 men of benefits that may be awaiting them.

VA said all forms needed to apply for death compensation, servicemen's indemnity or insurance benefits are being mailed to beneficiaries as rapidly as advice is received from the armed forces.

'Dummy' Bills for $160,000

LEFT IN ENGRAVING VAULT—U. E. Baughman, left, Chief of Secret Service and Henry J. Holtzclaw, Associate Director of the Bureau of Engraving, display a packet of "dummy" bills, discovered in the Bureau's vault in Washington. Two such packages were found in place of $160,000 in $20 bills. Holtzclaw said the $160,000 was stolen during the holidays. This is the largest amount ever taken from the Bureau.

Bundle of Bills Vanished From Federal Vaults

Money Is Recovered on Farm in Virginia; No Arrests Announced

WASHINGTON (AP)—Virginia State Police today reported they have recovered "the bulk" of the $160,000 stolen from the government's Bureau of Engraving in Washington. They said it was located in a metal tool box on a farm near Centerville, Va.

State troopers there said they did not know exactly how much of the money was recovered or whether any arrests had been made. They said the Secret Service in Washington would report further developments.

Secret Service headquarters here declined for the moment to discuss the case. It was learned, however, that several agents were in Centerville.

Virginia officers said a treasury employee was suspected of the unprecedented theft from the tightly guarded engraving building.

They said this employee had spent several thousand dollars of the money.

The bureau is under the jurisdiction of the Treasury Department.

The officers said an associate of the suspect, who knew of the theft, gave information to an officer which led to recovery of most of the sum.

The huge sum, in stacks of $20 bills, was found on a farm in Loudoun County and was whisked by Secret Service agents to Washington early today, they said.

Among other things, Virginia police reported, the suspects had bought a new auto with the missing money.

The Virginia troopers said the first tip on the whereabouts of the money came to the state police.

The police promptly notified the Secret Service in Washington, which is about 25 miles from Centerville, and agents in collaboration with police went to the farm and found the money.

Since the Secret Service took charge of the money and the case, the Virginia troopers were without (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

8th Army All Set to Quell Trouble as PWs Go Free

SEOUL (AP)—The 8th Army is getting set for "any eventuality" at midnight Jan. 22 when more than 20,000 anti-Communist prisoners are scheduled to be freed from neutral custody, it was learned tonight.

These eventualities reportedly include even an attack by South Korean army forces if anti-Red Chinese and North Korean prisoners are not freed according to the Korean armistice timetable.

Even as the 8th Army prepared for the prisoner release, South Korea and the Communists—bitter foes—joined in bitter criticism of a head count of anti-Communist war prisoners by Indian troops. The U. N. Command has warmly endorsed the count.

American troops waiting south of the demilitarized zone were reported ready to handle a disorganized rush southward of thousands of prisoners if they should break out or become unruly after being released from the 55 compounds in which they are held.

It also was learned that present plans call for the anti-Red prisoners to start moving southward out of the neutral zone just after midnight Jan. 22. The POWs will not be asked to wait until dawn. Measures are being taken for special isolation of pro-Communist prisoners or agents moving southward with the prisoners. Loudspeakers along the roadways leading southward will tell them to "weed out the hostile among you."

North Koreans will be held temporarily in compounds north of Munsan, it was learned, while Chinese will be moved to Inchon to board ships for Formosa.

U. S., Reds Discuss New Peace Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department said today it has started "informal discussions" with the Chinese Communists to determine whether a formula for resuming Korean peace talks can be found.

These talks are being carried forward "through intermediaries" at Panmunjom, it said. The intermediaries were not identified.

Press Officer Henry Syudam, who disclosed this, said Special Ambassador Arthur Dean is ready to return to Korea on short notice if a renewal of talks on a peace conference can be arranged.

Syudam said representatives of the United States and its Korean war allies discussed "various formulas" for resuming talks at a meeting at the State Department yesterday.

Greek Skipper, 6 of Crew Cling to Battered Tanker

CUXHAVEN, Germany (UP)—A Greek sea captain and six of his crew stubbornly fought to save their cracked and grounded tanker in the gale-churned North Sea today despite urgent warnings from five rescue vessels standing by that the tanker was going to sink.

Shortly after noon, Capt. Nicos Papageorgio and six crewmen were still aboard the 5,576-ton Greek tanker "Leros" which ran aground on a doughnut-shaped mud bar eight miles north of Cuxhaven in a full gale yesterday morning.

The remaining 24 crew members were removed safely and brought to Cuxhaven. But the skipper and his handful of men stayed behind in an almost-hopeless fight to save the vessel.

Rescue craft reported the Leros, carrying an 8,500-ton cargo of oil from a Russian Black Sea port, was listing to port at an angle of 30 degrees. It was reported taking water through a midship gale faster than it could be pumped out.

The views of the captains of the five hovering rescue ships was that the Leros would split apart "at any moment" and go down.

The Leros was in the center of the doughnut-shaped mud bar. Three German tugs and two crash boats circled outside the mud bar's rim.

The tugs succeeded in getting several lines aboard the Greek tanker in an attempt to pull it over the bank and tow it to port. The lines were released each time when tug captains became fearful the Leros would split in two.

Captain Papageorgio and his men were advised repeatedly to abandon ship, but they refused.

Who's got the jitters! Not the fellows who sell cars.

Despite warnings by some that 1954 will see a drop in sales, the Pontiac Automotive Trade Assn. in its annual meeting last night in the Hotel Waldron, hailed the new year with optimism and predictions that car sales will continue high.

Dealers, who had made appraisals of last month's sales reported a greater volume of business than in December of 1953.

They considered this a good omen for 1954.

Henry E. Gotham of Pontiac Retail Store said during the meeting that "last month was the most successful service and sales month we ever had." Ben Jerome Jr., chairman of last night's affair, also stated that December was a record month for sales.

The least optimistic were still of the opinion that while 1954 may not be a spectacular year, it undoubtedly will be good from the standpoint of sales and employment.

New officers were elected at the annual meeting. Jack Habel was named president and John Braid, vice president. Fred N. Walker was elected secretary-treasurer.

For outstanding work in traffic safety during the past two years, the group awarded Pontiac Police

Chief Herbert W. Straley with a certificate of commendation. Gotham, the immediate past president, said the certificate was especially prepared by McManus, John & Adams advertising agency in Bloomfield Hills.

The group cited Straley for conducting the most successful traffic safety campaigns in the history of Pontiac and voiced "100 per cent support of Straley's programs" to solve the city's traffic problems.

The certificate was signed by the following members of the association:

Braid, Habel, Walker, R. B. Oliver, Cy Owens, Jerome C. L. Jacobson, Paul Riemenschneider, R. H. Ladd, Fred Foster, A. J. Kinball and Gotham.

Birmingham Starts Friendly Suit in Fire Station Move

Would Change Zone Principle

$225,000 Bond Issue on April Ballot to List Two Structures

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM—Additional fire protection facilities for the city came closer last night when the City Commission took action on the proposed fire station at Maple and Chesterfield.

The commission authorized the city attorney to initiate a friendly suit to condemn zoning restrictions on five lots in the Quanton Lake subdivision to allow construction of a $25,000 fire station there.

The subdivision restrictions which bind the land to residential use expire Jan. 1, 1956.

The city purchased the west side site in 1947 and this station is being pushed because of plans to widen West Maple, the principal fire route to that area, in 1955.

City Manager Donald C. Egbert exhibited a sketch of the proposed one-story contemporary structure, which will make up part of a $225,000 bond issue, question to be placed on the April ballot. Included on the issue is a larger station slated for Adams and Bowers on the east side of the city.

Egbert answered residents' questions on entrances, alternate sites, equipment, traffic control and property values.

He and Mayor Ralph Main explained to the present fire station in the Municipal Building would eventually be done away with when the two stations were constructed.

Four cab licenses were authorized by the Birmingham Cab Co. for new cabs, and the owner told the commission two more vehicles had been ordered.

A petition to change the zoning of six lots at the corner of Fourteen Mile and Southfield from single-family residence to Business A was denied, a contract for $18,229 in aeration equipment for the sewage treatment was approved.

And by a narrow 4 to 3 vote, lawmakers approved contracting for garbage and rubbish disposal in 1954.

Commissioners Renfrew, Watkins and Allen protested that the city eventually will be in this business and Renfrew said "it is dangerous to depend on outside contractors for so vital a job." He favored the DPW handling the work.

Venture Club members will gather at the Community House at 7 tonight, to discuss their latest venture.

They will sponsor the Dearborn Players in a presentation of "Aladdin and His Lamp," to be given sometime in March. Mrs. Carl Tufts, member of the Players, will address the group.

Beginning with last Sunday's service, Father Lucian A. Hebert, pastor of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church, has added a 1 p.m. Mass. In addition, parishioners may attend Sunday Masses at 7, 8:30, 10 a.m. or 12 noon.

The 1954 Telephone Almanac has arrived, and is being distributed from the local Michigan Bell Telephone Co. office, according to local Bell manager Albert Warner. The popular publication provides a calendar and lists notable days in history.

Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church will meet at 8 tonight with Mrs. Melvin Kates and Mrs. Vernon Isenhardt on Oakland. Mrs. Dewey B. Waterman, chairman of the committee on stewardship has arranged the program.

Assisting her in a discussion of stewardship and its different facets will be: Mrs. Harry Houck Sr., Mrs. Harry Houck Jr., Mrs. Jack Marshall, Mrs. Arthur Z. Mitchell and Mrs. Milton J. Taup.

Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Douglas V. Doane, Mrs. James K. Flack.

Attorney Scoffs at Hoffa's Claim

Says Not Even 25 Pct. of Teamsters Will Sign Petitions Willingly

An attorney representing an insurgent faction of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614 scoffed today at James Hoffa's claim that 100 per cent of the members would voluntarily sign petitions seeking to retain the present trusteeship.

The attorney, Louis Snyder of Pontiac, said "they won't get 25 per cent signed up without using intimidation."

He charged that members "are being forced" into signing the petitions and said he has filed a complaint with the National Labor Relations Board against a firm involved in the petition dispute.

Hoffa, international vice president, said yesterday he would send a petition soon to Dave Beck, Teamsters international president, urging him to disregard any prior petitions.

Earlier, the insurgent members sent a petition bearing 1,200 petitions to Beck. It asked him to end the local's present trusteeship and approve a new election.

The local was placed under trusteeship recently after two of its officers, Daniel J. Keating, president, and Louis C. Lintea, secretary-treasurer, were indicted in a Detroit labor racket grand jury inquiry. Hoffa was made trustee.

Snyder charged the present petitioners with "putting pressure" on members to sign them up.

8th Army to Insure Peaceful Release

Gen. Lee Sang Cho used almost the same language in condemning the head count.

"But as Pyun told a news conference today, his motives and those of the Communists 'are as far apart as two stars.'"

The Indian command made what it called a routine head count of 4,384 Chinese prisoners Thursday. While the count was under way, 135 asked to be returned to Communist China.

The Communists promptly branded the head count illegal—a word used today by Pyun.

"It is illegal and arbitrary—it is a criminal action," he said.

"Our government has come to the stage where we cannot be quiet."

He called the Indian guards "armed Communist explainers" who are forcing the prisoners to return to the Communists.

He said "it is outside my province" when asked what action South Korea might take if the head count were continued.

One high South Korean official said earlier the government was prepared to use force if necessary to halt a further count. However, most U. N. officials called "the threat merely another move in South Korea's war of nerves against the Indian command."

not be indifferent to those in adversity "through no fault of their own."

And it is known that the government is prepared, if necessary, to alter its monetary policies, ease credit, place more orders for goods, and to take similar measures to pump new life into the economy if it shows signs of sagging.

Eisenhower did not give the public a detailed preview of his Jan. 7 State of the Union Message in which he will make his legislative recommendations.

Describing the administration plans for 1954, the President said: "It is a program that does not deal in pie-in-the-sky promises to all, nor in bribes to a few, nor in threats to any. It is a program inspired by zeal for the common good, dedicated to the welfare of every American family—whatever its means of livelihood may be, or its social position, or its ancestral strain, or its religious affiliation."

At least one quarter of the President's 15-minute address was devoted to listing the accomplishments of his administration in the past year.

The 12-point list had been issued previously by the White House in almost the same words used by the President.

However, Eisenhower added the statement that his administration has laid the foundation for quick remedial action in event of an economic slump.

"It is groundwork that has been laid by this administration in the strong belief that the federal government should be prepared at all times—ready, at a moment's notice—to use every proper means to sustain the basic prosperity of our people," he said.

Presbyterian Pastor Faces Red Charge

Detroit—Proceedings to "unroof" the Rev. Claude Williams were under way here today before a judicial commission of the Presbytery of Detroit.

The Rev. Mr. Williams has been accused of having Communist leanings by the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith, author Elizabeth Dilling and Rep. Harold H. Velde, (Rep. Ill.).

Williams technically has been a member of the Detroit Presbytery since 1943, when he came here as a war-time industrial chaplain.

Since then he has been conducting an evangelistic campaign in the south from headquarters at Helena, Ala.

The proceedings got under way with a preliminary hearing yesterday.

Under Presbyterian procedure, all connected with the Williams trial, including the defendant, are committed not to talk about the charges or case until the trial is concluded.

The Rev. Henry J. Walsh of Plymouth heads the special judicial commission hearing the case.

John Jackson, 23, of 3640 Hendricks, Detroit, stood mute before Hazel Park Judge Robert C. Baldwin yesterday on car theft charges and was held under $5,000 bond. He will appear for examination on the charge Jan. 9.

Nine minutes after a teletype broadcast was made on Dec. 31 reporting the theft of a car owned by Charles B. Johnson of Grosse Pointe, Jackson was arrested and the car recovered by Ferndale Patrolmen David Burt and Thomas Cattel.

Investigation of the theft, which was made in Hazel Park, is being conducted by Hazel Park Police Lt. Harold J. Hill and Patrolman Timothy Scannell.

Pope Asks More Pay for Good Teachers

VATICAN CITY (INS)—Pope Pius XII appealed for "world-wide recognition and better pay for teachers" today in an address to the National Congress of Catholic Teachers.

The pontiff said that teachers bore grave social responsibilities in an increasingly mechanized and technical civilization.

"A society," he said, "which cares about intellectual and moral values, a society which does not want to slip toward materialism must show the esteem in which it holds the teaching profession by providing salaries commensurate with its social status."

Catholics to Canonize Pope Pius X in May

VATICAN CITY (INS)—The Vatican announced today that Pope Pius X, who rose from humble birth to become the "Pope of peace," will be canonized May 29 in an open air ceremony in St. Peter's Square.

Born in 1835 in Riese, Italy, as Giuseppe Sarto, he was known for his humility, piety and charm but above all for his abhorrence of war.

The outbreak of World War I in 1914 was said to have hastened his death, which followed within days.

One of his last acts was to refuse a blessing to the armies of Austria-Hungary, telling Emperor Franz Joseph: "I do not bless war: I bless peace."

Board to Begin Boys' Classes in Basketball

BIRMINGHAM—Saturday morning classes, for all fifth and sixth grade boys, will be sponsored by the Recreation Board beginning this Saturday, City Recreation Director Frank Whitney has announced.

Activities will run for ten consecutive Saturdays at Adams, Pierce and Baldwin Schools, and Quanton when the gym is available. All periods will be conducted under a trained adult who will devote the two-hour period at 9 a.m. to basketball fundamentals and team play.

Whitney said boys participating will be given equal opportunity, regardless of their ability, and added that there will be no charge. Further information may be obtained by calling the recreation office in Hill School, MI 4-9300.

Dutch Clark Quits as U. of D. Coach said he was withdrawing at the expiration of his present contract as head coach "because a business opportunity in Detroit had jelled."

He said "rumors of the school dropping football" had no bearing on his resignation.

Father C. J. Steiner, school president, said plans for development of athletics at the school are too great for a head coach to bear along with the athletic director's job in asking Clark to remain as athletic director until a suitable successor can be found.

Admits Recklessness in Appeal of 1951 Case

Delphin Thomas of 469 W. Hudson St., Royal Oak Township, pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge today before Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick. He was released on $200 bond and sentence was set for Jan. 11.

Thomas appeared in court on an appeal of a drunk driving charge brought against him by township police in 1951, and was allowed to plead to the lesser charge because few witnesses were available.

Hillsdale Man Tires of Dodging in Support Case

DENVER—A Michigan man who "just got tired of dodging" surrendered to the district attorney's office yesterday.

Chief investigator Ray Humphreys said Seth William Kelley, 50, is wanted at Hillsdale, Mich., on a non-support charge. Humphreys gave these details:

Kelley and his wife quarreled seven years ago and he walked out on his wife and four children. He roamed the country, doing various construction jobs whenever he could find them.

"I just got tired of dodging," Kelley said. "Every time I saw a cop, I'd get jumpy again and figure I'd better move on. Finally, I came to the conclusion I didn't want to be a fugitive all my life."

Humphreys said Kelley probably will be returned to the Michigan city.

Fails to Give Police Traffic Right of Way

Otis R. Book, 30, of 3311 Orchard Lake Rd., Kego Harbor, was cited yesterday for yielding the right of way to an emergency vehicle yesterday after his car was struck by a Pontiac Police car en route to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Patrolman William Davis, 31, of 43 Omar St., driver of the police squad car, said both the siren and blinker were working when he drove through a red light at S. Saginaw St. and South Blvd. and hit Book's car.

Patrolman Wayne E. Long, 24, of 4315 Telegraph Rd., a passenger in the police car, was treated for hand, leg and wrist bruises at Pontiac General Hospital.

Hazel Park Man Mute in Arraignment Here

Leonard J. Piasecki, 39, of 1133 E. Milton St., Hazel Park, stood mute when arraigned before Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick today on an indecent liberties charge.

His bond was reduced from $20,000 to $1,000 by Judge Hartrick, but Piasecki was returned to Oakland County Jail when unable to post the lesser amount. The original bond was set by Hazel Park Justice Robert C. Baldwin in December because Piasecki had been accused by his wife of making threats against her.

Pakistan to Free 45

KARACHI, Pakistan—Pakistan announced today the release of 45 political prisoners in the northwest Frontier province, including Khan Abdul Ghaffar Khan, known as the Moslem "Frontier Gandhi."

About $50 in cigarettes and auto accessories were taken last night from a service station at 6117 Highland Rd., Waterford Township.

The owner, Farrell LaClair, said he suspected teenagers who wanted decorations for their old cars.

The thieves entered through a back door which was broken open a cigarette machine.

2 Demand Hearings in Unarmed Robbery
Two Pontiac men demanded examination on unarmed robbery charges yesterday before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan and were returned to Oakland County Jail on $1,000 bond each. Bond was not furnished.

Everett Eby, 41, of 136 Oakland Ave., and Godfrey Campbell, 37, of 25 Collingwood Ave., are accused of taking $15 and a wristwatch from Joseph Hoffmeister, 38, of 1392 Bird St., in a Pontiac tavern by force.

The accused were arrested by Pontiac Patrolman James LaPonsie and Lawrence LaBair in another tavern about half an hour after the hold-up.

Countess Dies Aboard Train

Dorothy di Frasso Found Clothed in Mink, Jewels En Route to Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Countess Dorothy di Frasso, internationally prominent movie and night club society figure whose realm of acquaintance embraced both the nobility and the underworld, is dead at 66.

Her body was found by film actor Clifton Webb yesterday in her roomette aboard a train en route here from Las Vegas, Nev. Apparently she died of heart disease.

Webb said he went to arouse her as the train neared Los Angeles. He found her lying on the berth, attired in a black sequined evening gown, a full-length mink coat, and a $100,000 diamond necklace.

On her fingers and in her luggage were other jewels worth $150,000, including a 15-carat diamond ring.

The countess, famed for her parties and party goers, was returning from a round of holiday social events in the Nevada city. Although she made her home in a New York hotel, she spent much of her time in Hollywood and Europe. Her friendships ranged from Gary Cooper to Benjamin (Bugsy) Siegel, the late gang leader.

In Las Vegas, she attended a number of parties, including one Sunday night with Marlene Dietrich and her daughter, Maria Riva, Webb, the Van Johnsons and others.

Friends said she became momentarily ill Sunday, and when Tom Douglas, Beverly Hills interior decorator, invited her to be his house guest upon their return here, she told him:

"I feel it's an awful imposition to stay at your house. I think I'm going to die."

Texas County Has No Work for Any Jury

TILDEN, Tex. (AP)—At 10 a. m. yesterday Dist. Judge W. G. Gayle empaneled the grand jury, charged it, and sent it to the grand jury room. Then he swore in the petit jury for the week.

He called for the civil docket, but no cases were listed.

The grand jury foreman reported: "We know of no violation of criminal laws in McMullen County in the past six months. We therefore ask the grand jury be dismissed."

Judge Gayle dismissed the grand jury, the petit jury, complimented the county on its law-abiding citizenship and went home to Beeville.

In the U. S. there is one motor vehicle for every three persons. Through out the world the ratio goes to one vehicle for every 30 persons.

Two Sentenced for Embezzling

Banker and Ex-Official of Credit Union Receive Terms in 2 Cases

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Federal Judge Raymond W. Starr has sentenced two Upper Peninsula men to jail terms on two separate indictments for embezzlement.

Sentenced yesterday were Laurence E. Chabot, 54, long-time resident of Ontonagon, to two years and William J. Peltar, 34, former treasurer of the Menominee City and County Employees Federal Credit Union, to one year.

Chabot, Ontonagon First National Bank president until his resignation several months ago, was accused by a federal grand jury of embezzling 10 shares of bank stock worth more than $1,000.

He was also accused of falsely reporting to the Veterans Administration that a loan applicant's property was free and clear. He pleaded guilty to both counts and Judge Starr dismissed the other six counts of the indictment.

Peltar was ordered to serve one year for embezzlement of $450 that he was given for deposit by a credit union member. Two other counts of Peltar's indictment received no action by Judge Starr.

Peltar had pleaded guilty to the count on which he was sentenced. Both men were arrested Dec. 1.

Stops 2 Bad Cases of Bleeding Piles In just a Few Days

(Advertisement)

I suffered for several years with bleeding piles," writes a Mr. Clements, contractor, "and tried almost all kinds of pills, ointments, suppositories, etc. With little or no relief. Then my druggist told me of the amazing results his customers had gotten with the new miracle drug called RECTORAL. So I tried a bottle and to my utter surprise the bleeding and accompanying soreness and irritation began to disappear in a few days and in a few days more all trouble was gone. Then my mother-in-law who had also suffered with 'bleeding' for years tried a bottle and in less than a week all her trouble disappeared. It is now nearly two years since we took this wonderful medicine and neither one of us have had a bit of trouble since."

The same experience could be told by thousands of other former sufferers. And it is all so simple and easy. Throw away your messy, disagreeable-to-see ointments, suppositories, etc. "Put" take a tablespoonful of pleasant, harmless RECTORAL after meals and at bedtime. Usually in a few days bleeding with its soreness and irritation begins to disappear and in a few days more be entirely gone. If directions are followed, no way suffer any longer! 'Stop the Music!' Chorus Is AGVA

BOSTON (AP)—The pretty chorus line swung onto the night club floor last night and the band stopped playing abruptly.

Who stopped the music? President James C. Petrillo of the AFL American Federation of Musicians.

Why? Because the girls in the line belong to the American Guild of Vaudeville Artists, also AFL. Petrillo was quoted as saying AGVA broke a union agreement by working with nonunion members. He ordered his members not to play for AGVA acts.

Union spokesmen said the hassle may spread from Boston's night clubs throughout the country.

8-Cent Felony Case Thrown Out by Judge

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The 8-cent bar of soap that has been casting a prison shadow over Henry R. de Leon has been removed by court order.

De Leon was arrested outside a grocery last Oct. 29 and charged with petty theft when officers found the bar of soap in his pocket. Since he had a prior grand theft conviction against him, the charge against the 29-year-old laborer became a felony.

Yesterday De Leon told the court he and his sister had bought about $15 worth of groceries during their rounds of the market and that she slipped the soap into his pocket.

"When we checked out, I forgot I had it," De Leon said. Superior Judge Thomas L. Ambrose believed his story and found him innocent.

Race Relations Milestone

Extremely encouraging proof of improved racial relations in the United States is contained in an announcement by the famed Negro school, Tuskegee Institute.

With 1953 ending as did 1952 without a lynching, Dr. L. H. Foster, Tuskegee's new president, says mob violence has ceased to be a valid index of race relations.

Henceforth the announcement said, racial progress will be measured with a new formula by which comparative statistics will be kept in four categories. These are income relationship, voter participation, education and employment.

Our first two successive lynch free years don't mean all racial problems have been solved. But that double record and many news dispatches through the years indicate steady progress toward greater racial tolerance and understanding.

Holland's Dikes Restored

One night last month 1,500 Dutchmen won a notable victory over their ancient and ruthless enemy, the North Sea.

After working 14 hours a day and seven days a week for many months, they closed the 200 yard wide Ouwerkerk gap in the dike of the man-made island of Schouwen Duiveland.

The significance of that feat is that it completed the major repairs of all damage done to Holland's seawalls by the terrific storm of last February 1. On that day hurricane winds drive record high tides over 700 miles of dikes.

All told 400,000 of the nation's 8.7 million acres of land area were inundated, 130 villages destroyed, 1,783 persons killed and 50,000 head of livestock lost. Much remains to be done in erasing the marks of the storm which caused damage of $300,000,000 — one-fifth of Holland's annual income.

On the island of Schouwen Duiveland alone 40,000 acres are still under water. With the gap closed a water ministry official said "all we have to do is pump about 80 billion gallons of North Sea and we have our land back again."

The story of what these indomitable people have accomplished in the last 10 months indeed is inspiring. Their work is far from done, but already they have proved that not even the sea can beat the Dutch.

Parking Ban Is Upheld

A Supreme Court decision affirming the Highway Department's right to regulate parking on trunk lines inside Michigan municipalities is especially important to Pontiac.

The case grew out of the attempt by a group of East Lansing merchants to end a State Highway Department parking ban on U. S. 16 opposite the MSC campus.

In its unanimous opinion the court held that the State is responsible for seeing that the trunklines are maintained and controlled so as to be "reasonably available" for the smooth flow of traffic.

This question has been the subject of considerable discussion here in connection with Saginaw Street parking and off street parking lots.

The court's decision means that as traffic gets heavier parking probably will be regulated more strictly and that eventually it will be eliminated.

This is one more compelling reason for pushing the development of municipal off street parking lots. The situation is critical now. It would be desperate if the department decided to ban Saginaw Street parking.

Wise Educational Policy

The personnel committee of Detroit's Board of Education has approved what we believe is a wise policy toward teachers who invoke the protection of the Fifth Amendment.

The effect of this policy will be to suspend without pay any employee who refuses to testify before legislative committees regarding subversive activities. Formal adoption of the policy by the full board is expected at its next meeting.

Under Michigan law all teachers must take a loyalty oath. Anyone hiding behind the Fifth Amendment to avoid answering questions about Communism automatically is suspect.

In our view such a person is unfit to teach our children and the Detroit board is right in adopting this regulation.

"A man should yield to his wife's judgment in matters pertaining to the home," asserts a woman columnist. Uh, huh. And he should also yield the right of way to a freight train.

"Why does the human race continue to have wars?" asks a columnist. Undoubtedly because the human race is comprised to a considerable extent of a conglomeration of terribly stupid creatures.

"Time is running out," declares Secretary Dulles. Don't worry about this pronouncement — it is always true that exactly as much time runs in as out.

Duffyn
 Ike: A great gift to headline writers.

The current issue of the Pontiac Warrior, the always interesting house organ of Pontiac Motor Division, is a brilliant example of the publishing art. In it, the greeting of General Manager Robert M. Critchfield is a wholesome and warm message to the Pontiac family on its completion of a very busy and productive year.

Scion of a well known Pontiac family, Schuyler Kudaer has one of the world's largest advertising agencies in New York City. One of his key men,

J. H. S. Ellis, has just been appointed to the national advisory board of the Post Office Department.

A belated Santa Claus letter comes from "Joelyn Alice," who adds a postscript: "I forgot to mail this in time, but got what I wanted anyway."

A phone call from Arthur Ambrose of Waterford says he is feeding a large flock of quail, also has a double barrel, loaded shotgun for the reception of any pot hunter who tries to molest them.

One of the first acts of the council of Oakland County's newest city, Lathrup, was to appoint a city attorney, and the job went to William A. Ewart of Pontiac, who holds a similar position with his home city.

A Pontiac professional man (name deleted for obvious reasons) tells his luncheon partners that it surely is a happy new 1954 at his home. He has finally convinced his wife that her continual yelling at him was making a nervous wreck out of their dog.

With the 1953 membership gain the largest in many years, there's a joyous spirit around the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club, and the future promises no letup in the growth, according to Howard Shelly, moving spirit in the organization which is one of the largest in the United States. The new 4-H Club agent for Isabella County is Harry Densmore, formerly with the Michigan Milk Producers' Assn., and well known throughout Oakland County.

Choosing as its chairman, William R. Lebold of Birmingham, the Oakland County Foresters' Assn. is seeking funds to fight the Dutch elm disease which killed 150 trees in the county last year, mostly in its southern part.

Fred Zegelen Warns of Deadly Danger to Motorists Who Ignore Train Warning

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

I am writing in regard to railroad crossings and their warning systems.

I work at the crossing at Saginaw St. and Wilson Ave., and the warning system at this crossing consists of seven overhead traffic lights and double flash light and bell at each corner of the intersection.

With all this warning system a few car drivers are willing to stake their lives against a few minutes time and try to beat the train across.

Fred Zegelen

A big hand to Benjamin Gates for his effort in regulating Grand Trunk Railroad. I wonder how long the railroad will be able to avoid furnishing adequate protective facilities.

I was nearly hit by their engine on that unprotected crossing but I know how they operate and was watching for such a calamity. There was no one at the crossing to warn of the engine's approach and the car behind me barely stopped in time.

This is extremely dangerous as their view is blocked from a train entering the intersection from the opposite direction. I hope some driver who is willing to stake his life against a few minutes time will read this and think it over.

David Lawrence Says:

President's 'Chat' Ponderously Worded but Perhaps Listeners Caught Meaning

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower is such a sincere and conscientious man that it is too bad his speech on television failed to gain for him the maximum effect which he deserved to get.

This is because his speechwriters evidently haven't learned the difference between words written for the eye and those prepared for the ear.

Franklin D. Roosevelt and his successor, Harry Truman, both had the benefit of experts in short-sentence technique, who used simple, striking words that the average man could readily grasp over the radio.

But Mr. Eisenhower's address of last night was one of his poorest — a lost opportunity, especially since television time is so precious and so many millions are reached by it.

The total impression, of course, will be on the favorable side. The listener or observer probably caught, at least, the spirit of the President's promise to use governmental power to help the average man.

That's a big pledge, of course, but is not unusual nowadays and politically it has become the customary thing to promise in this social-welfare age.

Many of the sentences of the address, however, were ponderous and clumsy. The President could have made a big hit with the same theme — if he had dealt with it in simple words.

Not long ago Professor Rudolf Fiesch of New York University wrote some textbooks in which he rated spoken words on the basis of their appeal to persons of different educational levels.

He showed how, without talking down to people, words can be used that can be understood by lots more persons. Here are some examples. The President said:

"The fantastic paradox of farm prices, on a toboggan slide, while living costs soared skyward, has ceased."

That's a bit difficult to grasp by ear. It would have been better to have said: "Farm prices have stopped falling. The cost of living is no longer going up."

Another point made by the President was worded this way:

"Tax reductions which go into effect this month have been made financially feasible by substantial reductions in expenditures."

It could have been phrased better for the ear this way:

"We are cutting down your taxes beginning this month. We couldn't have done this if we hadn't cut down government expenses."

The average man doesn't like to try to guess what "financially feasible" means. He wants to know if taxes are coming down and he understands that, if you first cut expenses, you can then cut taxes.

Another sentence in the speech claimed this point as an accomplishment:

"Strangling controls on our economy have been promptly removed."

This is a lot of big words. The President might have said: "We've gotten rid of wage controls and price controls and those controls over the supply of goods which were needed for the Korean War."

There were other points mentioned which also were abstract and vague. Thus, the average man will get little out of this sentence:

"The proper working relationship between the executive and legislative branches of the federal government has been made effective."

Maybe the political-science professors will understand it.

Even more confusing to listen to was this sentence in the President's address: "The cheapening by inflation of every dollar you earn, every savings account and every pension payment you receive has been halted."

It would have sounded better thus: "We've stopped the inflation which has been cheapening every dollar you earn, every savings account, every insurance policy you own, and every pension payment you receive has been halted."

Teen-agers Who Refuse Liquor Are Very Wise

A vociferous minority can usually stampede the intelligent but phlegmatic majority. That's how advertisers are getting the clergy to lead teen-agers into liquor parties and other immoral behavior.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case J-386: Judy, aged 19, is our only daughter and quite resistant to social pressures regarding liquor and cigarettes.

When she was working for the Taft organization at the political convention in Chicago in 1952, John Wayne and Ward Bond took her out for a bite to eat at a night club, which would make any teenage girl elated.

And even in such an unusual situation, she ordered a cola drink instead of liquor, so John Wayne and Ward Bond gallantly followed her example and praised her for being so sensible.

So Judy can stand alone against 1,000 sheeplike teen-agers who may meekly follow the example of a vociferous minority who ridicule non-drinkers as they try to make it appear that they are "big shots" because they drink or smoke.

"Yeah, Dad, but Judy is the exception to the rule," her older brothers will say.

"She is good looking and attracts boys. She never needs worry about dates.

"But these shy, timid coeds from Podunk, who haven't much beauty and who lack Judy's social poise, meekly do whatever the crowd does in an effort to rate a boy friend, or hold on to him if they once have a first date."

And I'll admit that there is much truth in that argument. The majority of Americans neither want to drink or smoke.

But a vociferous, loud-mouthed minority tend to run things in this country, both socially, as well as politically.

For the great majority of conservative thinking people don't want to make a fuss. They tactfully wish to avoid a "scene." So they meekly follow the leadership of the vociferous minority.

"Daddy, let me tell you what happened on our Milwaukee trip, last summer," Judy began.

"It was an annual fraternity week-end party. We left Evanston in chartered busses. And most of the frat boys immediately pulled out whiskey flasks and waved them around."

"They boasted that they were going on a binge. They seemed to think that would impress us girls as evidence that they were mature, he-men!"

"And a lot of the girls also joined them. But my boy friend and I didn't. And a few other couples likewise refrained."

"So when we reached Milwaukee, most of the crowd were sick and vomiting. They stayed at the country club, nursing headaches or sleeping. The few sober couples played tennis or swam all Saturday afternoon and had a jolly time."

"Daddy, I have noticed another curious thing. The sensible ones who don't drink or smoke, are then coaxed by the others to indulge. The drinkers try to ridicule us and browbeat us into acting as stupidly as they do."

"So I have come to the conclusion that we teetotalers simply show them up. They are actually unhappy till they can then pull us down to their level. For we symbolize their conscience. Does that make sense?"

Yes, that is a truism of human nature. You will observe it even when you try to diet. The other fatties will then exclaim:

"Oh, you look bad! It isn't good for you're supposed to diet so fast."

Actually, the dieter shows up the other fatties and likewise serves as an incarnate conscience which visibly reminds them of their own faults.

There is not one valid medical or psychological or moral argument in defense of the use of either tobacco or alcohol.

Yet a small minority which makes a financial profit out of such things, stampedes many of our youth, as well as adults, into thinking they aren't "keeping up with the Joneses" unless they indulge.

Like Judas Iscariot, this minority makes a cash profit out of betraying youth.

Baering Down

We'll miss the patter of Grover Whalen's little speech on New York city hall steps this year.

Grover was official reception committee for 35 years at the rate of one gardenia a day. Figuring on 75 cents a bud he spent a total of $8,190.00 keeping the wolf at the door. That's tops for lapel farming.

Grover was look-out for seven mayors and had mastered the knack of using the rim of a Homburg for one eyebrow.

Grover was glassy with fashion and moulty with form. His spats, cane and striped strides were the envy of the Beau Brummels of diplomatic curb service.

He welcomed royalty, heroes and champions with a lavish hospitality that didn't quite take you indoors.

Grover pulled channel swimmers ashore, distributed the accolade of municipal turnoff to exhausted fliers, outlasted decathlon champions, slowed down speed kings, stole bows from professional con-tritionists and out-smiled the laughing joss.

They'll put the Brooklyn boulevardier out to pasture where the gardenias bloom, where there are always distinguished foreigners and where the trousers never bag at the knees.

Hail, and farewell, thou faithful greeter, and if forever, we'll see you're supplied with invasion money.

Your spot in the flashlights will be taken by Dick Patterson, the former ambassador to Switzerland. But we wouldn't trade him two of his mountains for one of your steps.

Bad Side Effects of New Wonder Drugs Make Brady Shake Head in Doubt

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

A recent article told of the report by two London general practitioners that intravenous injections of iodine combined with a protein derivative, three or four times a week for a month, in 35 cases of chronic rheumatism of the type or stage called "rheumatoid arthritis" give effects similar to the effects of cortisone and ACTH.

Thirty of the sufferers so treated have remained symptom-free, two are much improved, two failed to respond to the treatment and one relapsed.

The London practitioners published their report in Medical World.

The London doctors observed that the effects of this iodine treatment are not only "similar to those obtained with cortisone and ACTH, but have proved more lasting and have been attended by fewer side effects."

Side effects? Having seen some "side effects" I'd say that's like describing highway robbery, murder and arson as misbehavior.

Some readers may have noticed that references to the "wonder" drugs have been few and far apart in this column.

May I explain why? I have been studying the current medical literature, watching and waiting, hoping that some one or even more than one such drug might prove to be more than a seven day wonder.

For month after month and year after year now this hope has been fading. I hate to seem pessimistic but this is my opinion.

Should new evidence revive hope I'll tell the world I was wrong about this — and some readers know that I do not hesitate to tell the world when I learn I have been wrong.

Remember how wrong I was about the paint on infants' and children's toys, furniture, etc. Ignorant of the fact that the paint, varnish and lacquer industry has replaced lead paints with non-poisonous dye paints for such purpose?

Here about a year ago I did let my enthusiasm overwhelm my judgment in a reference to a "wonder" drug which purports to relieve if not to cure rheumatism of one kind or another. I observed the astonished restoration of mobility to the knee of a patient who had been unable to walk.

The patient took only four or five tablets in two or three days, and then got up and danced about the room to everybody's astonishment.

Under the spell of this impressive demonstration I lost my head and mentioned in this column the name of the "wonder" drug — but I shall not make the same mistake twice.

Shortly after the minor miracle the patient's physician withdrew the prescription, explaining candidly that some extremely grave side effects had occurred and he could not permit the patient to take any further risk with it.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be forwarded by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Oilman Due in Bolivia to Supervise Wildcat

HOUSTON, Tex. (U)—Texas oilman Glenn McCarthy was due today in Bolivia, where he expects to start his comeback with an oil discovery on a 970,000-acre concession granted by the South American country.

McCarthy left here yesterday morning by plane with George Underwood, geologist for Glenn McCarthy, Inc., to supervise drilling of his first Bolivian wildcat.

Aiken and Capehart Assured of Posts

WASHINGTON (U)—Senators Aiken and Capehart today appeared certain to go to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to handle the administration foreign policy requests.

If they do, there is likely to be little change in the composite attitude of the committee, key group in the handling of administration foreign policy requests.

The assignments are made strictly by seniority. Aiken is fifth in seniority on the Republican side and Capehart 11th. These rankings apparently are high enough to assure them the foreign relations spots. Aiken said he has applied for one of the two vacancies which resulted from the deaths last summer of Senators Tobey (R-NH) and Taft (R-Ohio). Capehart is understood to have asked for the other.

Tobey in general supported most of the foreign aid programs and foreign policy moves such as the North Atlantic Pact of the last eight years. Aiken has followed much the same path.

Taft, on the other hand, opposed many of the overseas programs of the Truman administration. In Senate voting, Capehart usually sided with the Ohioan.

New Mid-Aged Pleasure Worth Inventor's Thought

NEW YORK (U)—How would you like to start the year off with a free million-dollar idea?

Well, a fellow gave me one the other day, and after examining it from all angles, I am now passing it on to you—and you are welcome to it.

"Why doesn't somebody invent a new middle-aged pleasure?" this man demanded. "It would be worth a million dollars to him."

When I asked him what he meant he continued:

"A great amount of effort and energy is spent thinking up gadgets to keep the young happy or soften the woes of the elderly. But nobody pays any attention to the middle-aged."

"Yet there are more middle-aged people than any other kind. Why should we have to shift for ourselves so much? Why doesn't somebody exert a little brain power to provide us with some new form of pleasure?"

"Take me, for example. I'll admit I'm middle-aged, and I am bored. I am in that critical period when a man is too old to enjoy playing postoffice and too young to enjoy rheumatism. Why doesn't somebody dream up a new kind of pleasure that will enable us middle-aged people to forget ourselves and our problems?"

"Have you never tried bird watching?" I inquired. "The sight of our little feathered friends at work and play is often soothing to the spirit."

"Look," he said, "let's be practical. When you've seen one sparrow, you've seen 'em all. Let the birds watch each other."

He made the same complaint about baseball, television viewing, canasta, and stamp collecting. He was weary of sports and hobbies.

"No," he said, "what I want is an absolutely new pleasure for a middle-aged guy like myself—something that doesn't come in a bottle or wrapped in cellophane, something that doesn't come with a guarantee to help me or hurt me, but something I can get some real fun out of."

"Any other qualifications?" I asked.

"Well, yes," he said. "A new pleasure for a middle-aged man ought to be simple and inexpensive. It ought to be something the children can't steal from you as soon as they reach their teens. It ought to be something a man can enjoy without having to share it with a woman. Naturally, also it ought to be respectable, so that it won't be denounced by the clergy or make a man subject to arrest and imprisonment."

I thought and I thought. But it isn't easy to think up a fresh middle-aged pleasure that meets these restrictions. Finally I told him lamely:

"Have you thought of taking up the study of ventriloquism? That would fit the rules you laid down."

"If I do," he bristled, "I'll know where to find my first dummy."

As I say, it's a million-dollar idea—if you can come up with a real answer. But it's like most other million-dollar ideas. They're two bits a dozen unless you know what to do with them.

Even if I could discover a new middle-aged pleasure I doubt if I'd tell anybody. It might be better just to enjoy it in silence.

Land Mine Kills 2 Children in Italy

EROSINONE, Italy (AP)—The explosion of a World War II mine yesterday killed two young sons of an Italian farmer now working in Venezuela.

The blast near this central Italian city also critically injured another of the farmer's sons and two cousins of the boys.

The dead were Franco Maroccia, 10, and his brother Enzo, 8. Their father, Loreto Maroccia, emigrated to South America to find work.

"No," he said, "what I want is an absolutely new pleasure for a middle-aged guy like myself—something that doesn't come in a bottle or wrapped in cellophane, something that doesn't come with a guarantee to help me or hurt me, but something I can get some real fun out of."

"Any other qualifications?" I asked.

"Well, yes," he said. "A new pleasure for a middle-aged man ought to be simple and inexpensive. It ought to be something the children can't steal from you as soon as they reach their teens. It ought to be something a man can enjoy without having to share it with a woman. Naturally, also it ought to be respectable, so that it won't be denounced by the clergy or make a man subject to arrest and imprisonment."

I thought and I thought. But it isn't easy to think up a fresh middle-aged pleasure that meets these restrictions. Finally I told him lamely:

"Have you thought of taking up the study of ventriloquism? That would fit the rules you laid down."

"If I do," he bristled, "I'll know where to find my first dummy."

As I say, it's a million-dollar idea—if you can come up with a real answer. But it's like most other million-dollar ideas. They're two bits a dozen unless you know what to do with them.

Even if I could discover a new middle-aged pleasure I doubt if I'd tell anybody. It might be better just to enjoy it in silence.

Pleads Innocent of Car Damage

One Man Faces Trial in Smashing of Police Vehicles at Dance

Lewis Williams, 22, of 409 Bloomfield Ave., accused of damaging two Pontiac Police cars while officers were investigating a shooting at a New Year's dance, pleaded innocent yesterday when he appeared before Pontiac Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Williams, who police say smashed windows and broke a radio antenna, posted a $200 bond pending trial Jan. 14. Edward Cox, 23, of 13 Iowa, Detroit, held for investigation of a similar charge of malicious destruction of property, was released by police because of lack of evidence.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of detectives, said the police cars were parked in front of the Pontiac Armory, 37 Water St., while police were making an investigation inside.

Manuel Crumb, 22, of 283 Branch St., who was originally booked for investigation of felonious assault, was later charged with possession of an unregistered gun. He pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Finnegan yesterday and paid $25 cost.

Wheaton quoted Crumb as saying in a statement he handed George E. Wright, 24, of 107 Harrison Ave., a revolver which accidentally went off. Wright, who was wounded in the left side, is recovering at Pontiac General Hospital.

ANGOLA, Ind. (AP)—Mrs. Emily Dygert, mother-in-law of Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, national director of the Selective Service system, died in an Angola hospital Monday. She would have been 89 Tuesday.

Gen. and Mrs. Hershey had spent most of the last 10 days at Mrs. Dygert's bedside.

Wake Up To More Comfort

Without Napping Backache

Napping backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up at night or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

Lawyers Leave Ouster Hearing

Hubbard's Men Refuse to Attend Proceedings Till Later in Month

DETROIT (AP)—Lawyers for suburban Dearborn's Mayor Orville A. Hubbard walked out of court yesterday when their plea for a delay in ouster proceedings against Hubbard was denied.

Probate Judge Wallace Waalkes Jr. of Grand Rapids refused to grant the delay. The lawyers said that the were representing several persons in a Recorder's Court gambling conspiracy case and needed the delay.

Hubbard himself was not in court. Judge Waalkes was appointed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams to hear the ouster proceedings, brought by charges of Circuit Judge Miles N. Culehan's one-man grand jury.

Lawrence A. Burns and Frank N. MacLean, Hubbard's lawyers, after their plea for adjournment until Jan. 25 was denied, said they would not be back until their Recorder's Court case was completed in 12-15 days.

They said that Mayor Hubbard would not attend either without legal counsel. Judge Waalkes said that the hearing would proceed and ordered witnesses to be called, Hubbard or no Hubbard.

In his opening statement Judge Waalkes said the hearing would not be turned into "a circus."

MacLean and Burns also said the hearing should not begin until Culehan's grand jury expires Jan. 23. Culehan's grand jury, investigating Dearborn municipal affairs, filed the petition for Hubbard's removal.

Driver Going in Circles Despite Will to Go Ahead

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—The woman driver wondered why she was going around in circles. She told one cop that twice a traffic policeman had waved her to the left when she didn't want to turn.

The cop pointed to her turn signal—blinking left. A short circuit made it go on—left—every time she put her foot on the brakes.

U. S. motor vehicles traveled more than half a trillion miles in 1953, or a distance equal to 31 trips to each of the eight other planets in our solar system.

Smuggler Ordered to Make Restitution

An Oak Park man who admitted being a member of a ring which smuggled cigarettes into Michigan without paying tax on them was placed on two years probation Monday by Recorder's Judge George Murphy in Detroit.

The sentence was passed on Julius Droz, 36, a partner in the Crown Tobacco & Grocery Co. of Wyandotte. He was ordered to make restitution to the state.

Originally the State Revenue Department claimed $40,000 as due from Droz, but a final determination is yet to be made.

Droz pleaded guilty Nov. 23. Six other alleged members of the ring were convicted, six acquitted and charges dropped against one in a trial last month.

Wardens Study Prison Security

Will Submit Plans to Prevent Escapes, Riots to Commission

LANSING (UP)—The wardens of Michigan's three state prisons met with the acting director of the State Corrections Department Monday to discuss security measures at their institutions.

Acting director Gus Harrison asked the wardens to submit by Jan. 25 plans to prevent mass escapes similar to one at Southern Michigan Prison Dec. 19.

Harrison asked the wardens to submit escape, riot and arson plans and to list any weak spots at their prisons. He said he would present the reports to the Corrections Commission at its February meeting.

Harrison said the wardens also "ironed out wrinkles" in methods of transferring inmates from one prison to another.

He said two of the wardens, William H. Bannan of Southern Michigan Prison and Emory Jacques of Marquette Prison, expressed dissatisfaction with some of the inmates sent to them by other prisons.

In the future, Harrison said, the wardens will be asked for comment on the transfer of men who have previously been in their prison and that he would make final decisions on any transfers objectionable to a warden.

Warden Garrett Heyes of the Michigan Reformatory at Ionia also attended the conference.

Playmate, 7, Rescues Girl in Icy Water

DETROIT (AP)—A 7-year-old boy's heroic action Monday averted possible tragedy as he rescued an 8-year-old playmate who had plunged through thin ice on a skating party at Edison Lake.

"I was afraid she was going to drown," was Russell Langlet's explanation.

He and playmate Ruth Coffee were skating several hundred feet from their mothers when the little girl broke through the thin ice into 10 feet of water.

Russell, on hands and knees, crawled to the edge of the hole, dug his skates into thicker ice and hauled Ruth to safety. Her mother, Mrs. Doris Coffee, said her daughter was blue from exposure but otherwise unharmed.

"It was amazing the way the children acted," she added.

Mrs. Coffee said she saw Ruth go under but fell twice in her desperate efforts to skate to the child's aid. Russell, meanwhile, pulled Ruth to safety.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Langlet of suburban Allen Park.

Detroit Police Hunt Attacker of Girl, 7

DETROIT (AP)—Police intensified their hunt today for a young man who represented himself as a police officer yesterday as he molested a 7-year-old girl on her way home from school.

The little girl, a third grader, allowed the man to lead her to a shed used by workmen on the Lodge Expressway near downtown Detroit.

She told police the man removed her clothing and threatened her if she told anyone what had happened.

The child said she dressed herself after the man left and hurried home where she related the incident to her mother. The mother reported to police and the girl was taken to Receiving Hospital but required no treatment.

The child described her molester as 18 to 21 years old, slim and blond haired. He was wearing a black chauffeur's cap, a red and black checked mackinaw jacket and blue jeans.

"He was driving an old, dirty Ford," the little girl said.

Survey of Traffic to Start in Area

Expect Turnpike Study of Conditions to Begin Here This Week

Engineers studying traffic conditions between Detroit and Bay City for the Michigan Turnpike Authority (MTA) expect to start their Pontiac area survey this week.

William E. Slaughter, MTA chairman, said the traffic origin and destination interviews in this area probably would take two weeks.

The traffic study is part of a general survey to explore the feasibility of building a turnpike between Detroit and Bay City. Other engineers are eyeing possible routes.

Slaughter said engineers for Coverdale & Colpitts, New York traffic engineering firm, would set up check points at unannounced spots on major highways.

Motorists will be questioned on where their trip started and their destinations, continued the MTA chairman. This information later will be correlated to determine traffic patterns.

He said the engineering firm has already studied traffic flow from Pontiac north to Bay City. That phase was completed Dec. 21, when the survey was interrupted by the holidays.

Slaughter pointed out that the firm expects to interview between 400,000 and 700,000 motorists during study. Individual interviews last only a few seconds.

Most checkpoints will be set up between Pontiac and Detroit, Slaughter added.

New Fire Horn Getting Real Thorough Tryout

NEWBURY, Mass. (AP)—Newbury firemen are bound they'll get their money's worth. They bought a new horn to call members of the department.

They tested it from atop the town hall and it proved pretty good. But before they fork over the cash they're going to test it from atop a barn at another end of town.

If it rouses the deepest sleepers of the department the sale will be completed.

ARTHRITIS PAINING YOU? THEN READ THIS

"For rheumatism and arthritis, I'm convinced that O-JIB-WA BITTERS can't be beat," says Mrs. Lewis Eden, 464 S. Main St., Adrian.

"People don't realize what awful pains arthritis can cause until they actually suffer themselves. You people who have painful arthritis will know how I felt for several years; two years of which I was right down with it. I had arthritis terribly—in my neck, feet and knees, and my fingers were all puffed up and knotty. My knees hurt bad too, and it was all I could do to get around. I had to pull myself out of a chair and most of the time, could hardly turn over in bed. I tried O-JIB-WA BITTERS after learning of it through my newspaper and although I have tried lots of things, nothing ever helped me like O-JIB-WA. In three weeks I could see some improvement and in a couple of months, I was all better. I can truthfully say that I feel fine now. Because it has helped me so wonderfully, I tell all I meet who suffer from rheumatism and arthritis to get a bottle of O-JIB-WA BITTERS from their druggist and give it a fair trial. Many of my friends say it has helped them, and my mother who is 83 years old is taking it with equally good success. Besides helping my arthritis, O-JIB-WA has proven to be an excellent tonic, as it has helped my nerves and I sleep much better. I'll always have some O-JIB-WA in the house as I'm convinced that O-JIB-WA BITTERS can't be beat."

'54 FORD the "worth more" car declares a dividend

Here Tomorrow!

STYLE DIVIDEND

3 distinctive lines—14 brilliant body styles

You just ought to try the '54 Ford... the car that brings a whole new set of value features to the low-price field. You'll find that each new feature is an extra dividend in driving enjoyment. And each new dividend establishes Ford, even more in '54, as the "Worth More" car.

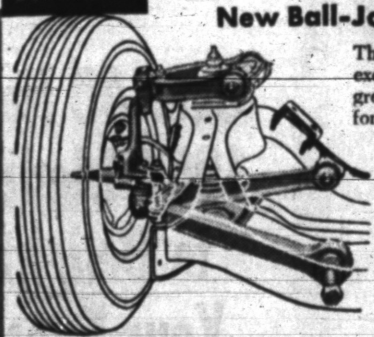

You get a special dividend in styling, for example, with Ford's distinctive new appearance... smooth, clean lines. You get sparkling new interiors, too, that are a dividend in themselves. New custom-selected upholstery and trim are color-harmonized with your choice of glamorous new body colors. And Ford's new Astra-Dial Control Panel is not only the most beautiful you've ever seen... it's designed for safety, too, with the speedometer located high on the control panel.

And each of the new Fords gives you special dividends in ride and performance... with new Ball-Joint Front Suspension, the greatest advance in chassis design in 20 years... with your choice of Ford's new low-friction Y-block V-8 or I-block Six, the most modern engines in any car today! And, as an additional dividend, Ford makes available all the power assists you might expect to find only in the costliest cars.

With 28 brilliant new models to choose from, you'll find the exact car to suit your tastes and requirements. Come in and see the '54 Ford. Test Drive it. Once you try it, you'll want to drive it home.

RIDE DIVIDEND

New Ball-Joint Front Suspension

This revolutionary new suspension is exclusive to Ford in its field. It allows greater up and down wheel travel for a smoother ride. And it helps keep wheels in true alignment for consistently easy handling. Movement of the wheels is on ball joints, whether in up and down motion as wheels travel over rough spots, or in steering motion as wheels turn right or left. Lubrication points are cut from sixteen to four.

The greatest engine advances since the original FORD V-8

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO Ford introduced to the low-price field a fine-quality precision-engineered V-8 engine. This basic design—soon to become famous throughout the world—quickly established a new standard of performance for low-priced cars. And now, with its 22 years' experience in building over 13,000,000 V-8's, it is only logical that Ford is first in its field to introduce a brand new type of V-8—the Y-block V-8... together with the most modern Six in the industry—the new and advanced I-block Six.

Both new 1954 Ford engines have overhead valves for most efficient high-compression operation on today's fuels. Valves are free-breathing to give you the most GO... free-turning to seat tightly and maintain high compression. Both engines have a deep-cast block with skirt that extends well below the crankshaft for greater strength and rigidity... smoother, quieter performance and extra-long engine life. Their modern short-stroke, low-friction design cuts friction losses... gives you more usable horsepower, more miles per gallon of gasoline. And new high-turbulence combustion chambers assure a more thorough mixing of fuel and air for faster, more efficient firing of fuel.

Plan to Test Drive a '54 Ford. You'll find these new Ford power plants stand out as the greatest engine advances since the original Ford V-8.

Plus five optional power assists* you might find only in America's costliest cars

DIVIDEND IN DRIVING EASE

Master-Guide Power Steering
It does up to 75% of your steering work for you, when you need it... makes parking a pleasure. Yet it leaves you with the normal feel of steering on the straight-away. And, in addition, it cushions out steering wheel "shock" on rough roads.

Swift Sure Power Brakes
Power does up to one-third of the work of stopping for you! You are more relaxed in the stop and go driving of congested traffic. And should the system ever lose its power, no more effort is required to make a stop than with conventional brakes.

Power-Lift Windows
Smooth, silent electric power opens or closes windows at the touch of a button. There's a master control beside driver plus an individual control under each window. You may operate any of the Power-Lift Windows safely while driving.

4-Way Power Seat
You push one of two controls and the front seat goes up or down... push the other and it goes front or back. It's a real convenience when different people have to drive—or when you want to change position to relieve fatigue or avoid sun glare.

Fordomatic Drive
It combines the best in "automatic" engineering to give you the most versatile automatic shifting ever. You get the smoothness of a fluid torque converter, the "go" of an automatic intermediate gear. Ford also offers gas-saving Overdrive.

Wife Sentenced for Shooting Z

Area Mother Wounded Husband, Girl Friend; Gets Fine, Probation

A 22-year-old Royal Oak Township mother of three children was placed on probation and fined $100 yesterday by Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartwick for shooting her husband and his woman companion Dec. 12.

Mrs. Wanda Williams of 624 E. Lincoln St. pleaded guilty to a charge of felonious assault Dec. 28.

She admitted shooting her husband, R. B. Williams, 21, and Mrs. Bertha Cunningham, 31, of 3321 Harrison, Detroit, after suspecting them of having an affair. Neither was wounded seriously.

Mrs. Williams said she brought Mrs. Cunningham to her home at gunpoint and waited almost two hours for Williams to appear.

She said she shot the pair with a .22 caliber pistol after being taunted by her husband.

SNAKE, DRIVER PLAY PEAK

DOVER, N. H. (U) — Police were dubious when a motorist told them he had seen two eyes peering at him from inside a parking meter. Investigating, they found an eight inch snake.

'St. Louis or Bust'

34-year-old steelworker, will start a "St. Louis or bust" journey by horseback Jan. 12 to rejoin his wife and son.

"I've been waiting since I was in the Navy during World War II to do something like this," he said. Hume plans to make the 1,000-mile ride in less than a month, riding a frisky 7-year-old Arabian mare.

The rugged steelworker came to Denver two years ago with his wife and son, now 12. A few months ago he decided to return to St. Louis. His family drove back in the family auto.

2 Toronto Students Mistaken for Reds

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (U) — Red-faced immigration authorities have released two University of Toronto students after detaining them for nearly 48 hours for investigation of Communist activities.

"It was a case of mistaken identity," said a district immigration official at Miami yesterday following release of Edward Rogers and William Boulton. "It is one of those things that sometimes happens when two names are very similar."

The students were taken off a Mackey Airlines plane here Saturday upon arrival from Nassau, where they had spent the holidays.

Texans Are Defeated in Court Appeals Against Social Security

MARSHALL, Tex. (U) — Downed but not downhearted, the Marshall housewives are going to take their tax fight to Congress.

They never did want to collect social security taxes on the wages of their household servants—and they never did.

Now the U. S. Supreme Court, in a decision yesterday, said they had to do it. Two lower courts had said they had to do it, and the Supreme Court refused to hear their appeal.

The women said the tax wasn't constitutional. And through all the rebellion that started almost three years ago they have waited in their homes while internal revenue agents went into downtown banks to take the taxes due from their bank accounts.

"Where else can we go now?" asked Mrs. Carolyn M. Abney, spokesman for the group of 14 housewives and in whose name the suit was filed.

"We have no further recourse in the courts."

"But the American people have a recourse by protesting to Congress who wrote these things. After all, we elected those congressmen."

"We haven't done anything selfish," Mrs. Abney said. "We don't want jobs; we're housewives. We feel the home is the bulwark of our system. When socialism came marching into our kitchen, it was time for us to do something."

"It's not that $12.57—it's a matter of principle involved, not property. And that principle is personal liberty and individual freedom."

Mrs. Abney filed suit to recover $12.57 taken from her bank account one quarter for the social security payments on her servant. She said the government had taken forty-odd dollars from her in all.

Federal officials said that in mid-1951 a total of 511,288 American housewives had filed the special tax returns and that by February, 1952, the total had jumped to more than 700,000.

Nine-Year-Old Tippy; Admits Liquor Theft

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (U) — He was tipsy and he was supported on either side by two friends.

The lady of the house called the police.

They confirmed her suspicions: he'd been drinking—and he was 9 years old.

The boy and his companions admitted they had taken two pint bottles of whisky from a drug store. Questioning disclosed four watches had been stolen from another store.

Police gave the boys a stiff lecture and released them to their parents.

A-Pool Expected to Be Top Topic

Ike Proposal Probably Will Get Main Billing of Big 4 Parley

WASHINGTON (U.S.) — President Eisenhower's peacetime atomic pool proposal is expected today to get top billing at the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting in Berlin on Jan. 25.

The State Department reported yesterday that the groundwork is being laid by Ambassador to Moscow Charles E. Bohlen and Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov for full-scale negotiations.

Molotov also agreed to confer with the representatives of the U. S., Great Britain and France in Berlin Jan. 25 on world tensions. The actual site, however, will be determined by the Big Four high commissioners in Berlin.

With the "Bohlen-Molotov" talks under way since last Thursday, diplomatic observers anticipate that Eisenhower's plan for an international atomic pool will overshadow some thorny—and perhaps insoluble—issues at the parley.

State Department spokesman Henry Sydam said yesterday that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will discuss the details of the proposal with Molotov at Berlin.

Bohlen and Molotov are expected to continue their informal overtures until the conference gets under way in an effort to set the stage for actual U. S.-Russian negotiations.

Man Who Falls on Steps Finds Trip Unnecessary

HARTFORD, Conn. (U) — Ted Matusewic, who has been flying planes since 1919 without injury, fell on a flight of stairs in his home and broke his right arm. "The thing that burns me up is I can't remember what I went downstairs for," Matusewic said.

U. S. Eases Curbs on Trade With Reds

WASHINGTON (U) — Harold Stassen, the government's foreign aid chief, has disclosed an administration decision to permit wider trade with Communist countries in non-strategic items.

But he said yesterday that the government has put an even tighter clamp on trade in strategic materials and goods.

He said such products as cotton, rubber, drugs and pharmaceuticals no longer are banned for shipment to Communist customers. Red China is still out of bounds for all trade.

Justice of Peace Quells Infants' Disturbances

TAMPA, Fla. (U) — W. Marion Hendry, justice of the peace, seeking judicial calm in his courtroom ordered a wailing baby removed. "Then another tuned up." The persistent jurist finally obtained silence after having seven strong-lunged infants removed.

Citizens Score 'Hot-Rodders'

Lawmakers to Consult With Attorney Before Taking Final Action

OXFORD—Action may be taken tomorrow night by the Oxford Township Board on Oakland County's first law controlling horsepower of motorboats used on public lakes.

The Board has been studying a petition filed at its December meeting requesting a five horsepower limit on motors used on township lakes.

Filing the petition was the Lakeland Association, comprised of some 200 lake property owners along the so-called "Stringy Lakes"—Clear, Long, Squaw, Round, Tan, Davis and Weedy.

"We're not trying to stop people's fun," said an association spokesman. "We are just trying to cut the horsepower for reasons of safety."

"There have been several minor accidents involving 'marine hot-rodgers' that could have been serious," the spokesman said.

"A souped-up motorboat driven by an irresponsible teenager rammed a boat which was hugging the shore last summer. The boat tipped over and a father and two children were thrown into the lake."

"Teenagers aren't the only offenders, either," the spokesman went on, "some grownups are just as bad."

According to Sgt. Donald Francis of Oakland County Sheriff's Department, no other township in the county has an ordinance regulating horsepower of motors.

Meanwhile, Oxford Township Supervisor Lee H. Clark today commented, "It might be better to have an ordinance requiring less recklessness on the lakes, rather than limiting the horsepower."

Clark said the Township Board wanted to get an attorney's opinion on the matter before acting, but that it might get to the petition at tomorrow night's session.

DOUBLE-CHECK—Checking figures on the number of McCarroll School students immune to diphtheria, smallpox, tetanus and whooping cough are Mrs. William Killen, left, of 94 Glenwood, McCarroll PTA's health chairman; Mrs. R. Health Department to Conduct Survey of Disease Immunity in County Schools

Oakland County Health Department hopes to know in about two weeks how many of the county's school children in kindergarten through fifth grade are immune to diphtheria and other diseases.

Dr. John D. Monroe, department director, says "preliminary" data sheets on youngsters in each school are being turned over to department nurses to compile into county-wide statistics.

The health department sent out thousands of questionnaires this fall to parents of all students in kindergarten through fifth grade in the county's schools. Parents were asked to list whether—and when—their children had been immunized against diphtheria, smallpox, whooping cough and tetanus.

An outbreak of diphtheria some two years ago helped trigger the survey, Dr. Monroe said.

Health officials believe that if six of every 10 youngsters in a community are immunized against the diseases, the community is "fairly safe" against sudden sweeping epidemics.

Each school's job of taking filled-out questionnaires and turning them into room-by-room statistics was done by parent volunteers and teachers, helped by health department nurses.

Josephine Seeley, health coordinator for Pontiac Public Schools, supervised work here.

Birmingham's School Health Council handled tabulation in its public schools, with Mrs. Lawrence Schmidt, Mrs. Fred Steinle and Mrs. Dwane Tibbets working in Holy Name School.

Argues Legality of Bridge Bonds

Senator Terms Issue 'Attempt to Circumvent Constitution'

LANSING (U-P)—Arguing before the State Supreme Court, Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) said today that the Mackinac Bridge bond issue is "an attempt to circumvent the Constitution."

He admitted that the $99,800,000 bond issue did not pledge the full faith and credit of the state, but he said that the 1953 Legislature's approving an annual appropriation of $47,000 from highway revenues for maintenance of the bridge implied that the state stood back of the bond issue.

"The maintenance appropriation act," he said, "appropriates funds not in existence and tries to bind future legislatures."

Appearing in behalf of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, Solicitor General Edmund C. Shepherd told the court that the legislative act authorizing the selling of the revenue bonds specifically requires that the bonds be paid off by bridge revenue and provides that nothing in the act will infer that the bonds are a general obligation of the state.

Further, he said, that the 1953 act setting up the maintenance appropriation also specifies that this action of the Legislature should not be construed as attaching the faith and credit of the state to the bridge.

Reds Fill Cultural Vacuum in Orient With Soviet Books

By JOHN CALDWELL

TOKYO—Old folks are slow to alter their ways in this part of the world. It is among the young that one sees startling change, almost a "Be merry today for tomorrow we die" attitude.

The reason for this is that for many there seems no out, no peace in sight, no future worth waiting or preparing for.

The Communists are quick to sense the cultural vacuum, quick to capitalize on the moral and spiritual breakdown. Their approach is double-barreled. They appeal to the old people by pointing out Imperial America as the cause for the moral breakdown of the young. For the youth, there is a flood of propaganda, offering hope for the hopeless, a future for those now lost in uncertainty.

Nowhere, than among Japan's book stores, can one see better how the Communists are attracted by the vacuum. The Communists have opened their first lending library in Tokyo; Communist books, both hard-backed and inexpensive editions, are available throughout Japan.

Prices are tailored to fit the pocketbook; in a student district handsomely bound books from Russia can be bought for a quarter. The same book may sell for two or three times as much in a well-to-do neighborhood. U. S. News magazine reports that two big books, "The Works of J. V. Stalin" and "Problems of Leninism" have sold 50,000 and 60,000 copies respectively at 55c per copy.

It has become fashionable for American reporters to blame this interest in Russia and our own propaganda failures either on Senator Joe McCarthy or on the fact that funds for State Department

'Coons Foxier Than Foxes, Says Naturalist

Naturalist Walter P. Nickell of the Cranbrook Institute of Science believes the lowly raccoon, not the fox, deserves title of being the smartest of woodland animals.

Raccoons not only are as crafty as foxes in evading hunters and dogs, but they're also better at exploiting mankind for food, Nickell says.

Nickell claims the 'coon means deception when fleeing a pack of hounds is to lead them into a lake or stream. Being as much at home in water as on land, the coon soon maneuvers himself on top of the lead dog and jumps from back to back until he reaches shore.

A natural inhabitant of the woods, the 'coon can become adept at foraging for garbage cans if suburban areas invade his native forest. Nickell says this adaptability to change is another measure of the raccoon's mental prowess.

$75,000 Taken by Shop-Lifter

Amarillo Bank Reports Sack of Bills Missing From Teller's Cage

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—The case of shop-lifted $75,000 had police and bank officials in a quandary here today.

The money disappeared from a teller's cage yesterday. First National Bank officials said. Police said they didn't have any good clues and weren't holding anybody.

The missing money—in $5 and $10 bills—was one of three sacks making up a shipment to the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas. Its disappearance was discovered about 1:30 p.m. while the bank was crowded with customers.

A bank employee said he noticed a man he hadn't seen before in the bank about the time the money was missing from a cage near the rear door of the bank lobby.

Police officials alerted local officers with a description of the man, said to be of medium height and about 30 or 32 years old.

Investigating officers assumed somebody entered the rear door of the cage, picked up the sack and walked out the rear door, into the main building lobby, and on into the street. Officers believed anybody reaching over top of the low cage would have been noticed.

Batchelor Tells of Red Orders

Says Pro-Communist POWs Were Instructed to Boycott Interviews

By SAM SUMMERLIN

TOKYO (AP)—An American soldier who returned to his countrymen after once rejecting them for communism said today the Red high command ordered him and 21 other Americans to break up Allied efforts to win them back.

Cpl. Claude J. Batchelor of Kermit, Tex., said the Reds slipped instructions through a Communist-staffed hospital near the neutral zone camp where the 22 pro-Red American POWs were held.

He said the Reds ordered the Americans not to come out for Allied explanations. The Americans never did show for the interviews.

Batchelor spoke at a crowded news conference in Tokyo Army Hospital.

The 22-year-old corporal, who left the North Camp early New Year's Day, said "I made a mistake" in once believing America was the aggressor in Korea.

However, he denied he had ever been an informer on fellow prisoners. He said he hoped he had not influenced anyone and said said that if he had, "I am very sorry for it."

"To prove myself," he said, "I'd like to get some of the other prisoners back." He said that several weeks before he left "I wanted to try to get some other men out" but would not say why he failed.

He said he had been a progressive before the truce was signed. He said he had begun to believe the United States was the aggressor after reading Red propaganda.

Meanwhile, his Japanese wife Kyoko worked on letters to three Americans still in the stockade near Panmunjom.

"Claude says my letters decided him to come back," Kyoko said, "and maybe would help him to get his friends to come back too."

Batchelor asked her not to reveal the names.

The Army said Batchelor probably would remain at the hospital as a patient about 15 days, but would be allowed to leave on pass. He and Kyoko are planning a second honeymoon.

While in Camp 5 at Pyoktong, Batchelor said, he was vice president of a "daily life club set up to better our life there." He said not all of the men in the club were progressives and that he got "no special privileges."

"I had no power. I didn't exercise any leadership," he said.

Batchelor said the pro-Red Americans elected him as their leader and, until the day he left, "I still held the job as chief representative."

It was when he reached the neutral zone stockade, he said, that he began to realize his mistake—he got more mail than he had ever received at any time in captivity. He saw the newspaper put out by the neutral custodians and noticed "worsening conditions in the camp" but declined to give details.

Asked if he felt he had embarrassed the American people, he replied: "Now I do."

Both Brothers Know Perils of High Tension

HOLLAND (UP)—In September 1952, James Roe, 30, of Grand Rapids touched a high voltage wire while working on a project near Coopersville.

Fellow workmen saved his life by shutting off the power and giving him first aid. He recovered recently and went back to work.

Roe, who was working on a Consumers Power Co. transformer installation involving 4,800 volts, looked down Monday and saw another member of the crew glued to a high tension wire. He threw the switch and called for help.

The victim, who escaped with burns on his hands, is Roe's brother, Harry, 23, also of Grand Rapids. He was given first aid and released after treatment at Holland Hospital.

Trotsky's Killer in Parole Class

Jacques Mornard Due to Petition for Release, Was Jailed in 1943

MEXICO CITY (AP)—It looks as if Leon Trotsky's killer, Jacques Mornard, may want to get out of jail after all.

Mornard, serving a 20-year sentence for killing Joseph Stalin's onetime chief rival, became eligible for parole Dec. 20. When no word was announced of a petition for his release, observers figured he preferred the safety of Mexico City's huge stone penitentiary. There a heavy guard protects him from possible avengers, or anyone who might want to shut his mouth forever.

Yesterday, however, Judge Ignacio Calderon Alvarez said he had met Mornard in a prison corridor and the man told him he had applied for a parole and been refused. The judge said Mornard asked his help.

Mexico City's Social Welfare Department, which acts as a parole board, said no petition for release had been filed with it yet. Prison officials said they believed Mornard plans to apply soon, and took advantage of a chance meeting with the judge to ask his help.

The late Judge Manuel Rivera sentenced Mornard in 1943 to serve 19½ years for homicide and six months for carrying a concealed weapon.

Mornard bludgeoned Trotsky to death with a mountain climber's axe on Aug. 20, 1940, in the revolutionary exile's heavily guarded home here. He was arrested at once. He has never told his story publicly who he is, why he killed Trotsky and if anyone hired or ordered him.

Local Cemeteries Inter 293 in '53, Improve Grounds

Some 293 interments were made in 1953 at Oak Hill and Ottawa Park Cemeteries compared with 274 in 1952, according to Kenneth P. Anthony, city superintendent of cemeteries.

The 11 cemetery employees built foundations for 192 memorials constructed with 158 such projects the previous year, said Anthony.

Redecorating of the chapel at Oak Hill was completed, except for minor finishing work scheduled for next summer.

Other improvements included trimming 200 trees; installing 240 feet of waterline, 350 feet of surface drains and painting 400 feet of fence.

Raised Bill Is 1st Passed Here Since '42

A rickett last reported here in 1942 was discovered by Pontiac Police yesterday when a raised bill was passed on a newsstand employee at Huron and Saginaw Sts.

Capt. Clark M. Wheaton, chief of detectives, said the bill, with a $10 face and a $1 back, was turned over to police by Robert Mason, 23, of 89 Moreland Ave.

The original $1 and $10 bills had been split, explained Wheaton, and one side of each pasted together. When passed, only the $10 face was shown.

Mason said the bill was given to him by a man, who was accompanied by a woman, in purchase of $1.25 in reading material. He said he didn't discover the raised bill until he was making an inventory of the day's sales.

Wheaton, who notified the U. S. Secret Service office in Detroit, said the man was described as being about 25 years old, 5 feet, 9 inches tall, about 160 pounds and was wearing a light checkered topcoat.

According to Wheaton, Police had not been bothered with raised bills since 1942 when 15 cases were reported at that time.

Set Table Carefully for Charm

Neatness, Balance Are Essential for Best Results

Setting a table is an exciting adventure when the results bring on deserved compliments. There's an art in it which comes from observing a few simple principles.

Even if you use your best crystal, china and silverware, all will be lost if your table is carelessly set. So, neatness is the first essential.

Place your patterned dinnerware at each place setting with its design in correct position. Then set your water goblets above the tips of your dinner knives.

Be sure your silverware is placed in perfect alignment, with all its handles even at the bottom.

After neatness comes balance. Don't have all the heavy pieces on one end of the table and the little things on the other end.

Try to keep away from using too many shapes of a similar nature. If your dinner plates are round, use an oval or rectangular centerpiece and odd-shaped ashtrays to avoid having too many "rounds."

Good planning by the home-maker and careful choice of the most harmonious pieces to fit room interiors are of equal importance.

When you want table settings to be especially gay and casually informal, have bright shades in glassware or use the earth colors so popular now.

Bachelor Author Devoted to "Lady of Arlington," General Lee's Wife

Best Seller Tells About Mary Custis

Historical Figure Wins Admiration of Southern Writer

By FLORENCE V. HARTEN
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK (NEA)—As a bachelor, Harnett T. Kane certainly has a way with women. And the woman who is currently his chief concern indeed has a way with him. In 12 years, Mr. Kane has written 13 books, all of them about the South, most of them best sellers and five of them about women. His latest, a novel based on the life of Mrs. Robert E. Lee, "The Lady of Arlington," is his most outstanding success.

On a recent visit from New Orleans, the author interrupted a busy schedule to discuss his admiration for Mary Custis Lee.

Facing a schedule tight enough to send the average New Yorker into a frenzy, Mr. Kane evidenced not the slightest pressure. He was ready to discuss everything from his work to the celebrities passing us in the lobby of a midtown hotel.

"Look, isn't that Ethel Waters? I saw her show the other night. I wonder if it would be all right for me to go over and tell her how much I admire her? No, better not — she's probably in a hurry."

(Mr. Kane's book, which jumped into 15th place on one best seller list just four days after publication, is currently in eighth place on two lists.)

Mr. Kane revealed that he has a great many loves and no hates worth mentioning. He loves Europe, where he spent the summer; airplane travel, research and just plain living.

"I can't understand people who don't like their work. I love mine. But it takes discipline, you know. I believe in the heavy application of the seat of the pants to the seat of the chair. Or, as we say in the South," he said with an infectious chuckle, "I try to work from kin do to kain't do."

It was his newspaperman's curiosity and his author's discipline that led the genial Scotch-Irishman from Louisiana to acquaint himself with the lady, from Arlington.

"When I was working on the book about Mrs. Jefferson Davis, I read that Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Lee did not get along. Well, that stayed in my mind until I decided to investigate. That's how I discovered the wonderful woman, Mary Custis."

"In this book I try to show that it was Mrs. Lee who, in a most becoming fashion, kept her self-effacing young husband on the road to destiny."

Mr. Kane believes his books represent a balanced view of the South: "Somewhere between the moonlight-and-magnolia school and the Faulkner brand of realism."

It is just coincidence that more than one third of his books have been about women. He says he is seeking to represent the South as it really was and really is. It just so happens that women have had a big part in the story.

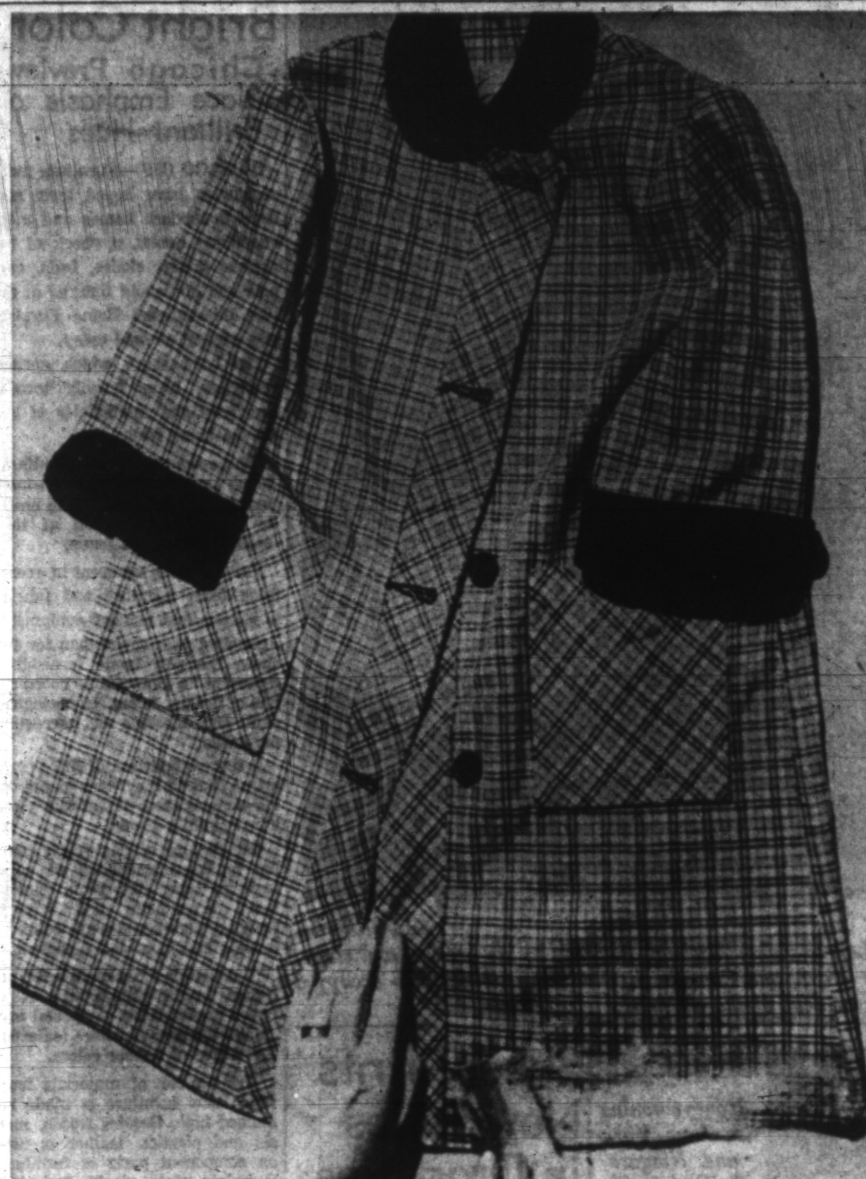

"There's no denying the adage that behind most successful men there is a wonderful woman," he said.

"But when people ask me why I don't take a leaf from the history books, why, I tell them," the author paused to grin broadly, "I sell them I'm just looking for another Mary Custis."

It looks as though the modern-day Mary Custis will have to do most of the looking, however. The gentleman from New Orleans is awfully busy having a whale of a time working.

A cotton raincoat like this can go right into the suds. But it's a good idea to pre-scrub especially soiled areas, such as hemlines, with a brush and lots of thick, soapy lather. Then squish the coat through the soapsuds, rinse thoroughly, and hang it up to dry.

Owner of Secretarial Agency Informs Employers That All Her Girls Are 35

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There is an organization in New York called Secretaries-at-Large, and it is run by a charming woman who says, blandly, "All my girls are 35."

She has excellent secretaries and typists on her payroll, and supplies them by the hour or by the day or by the week for companies which have a rush job, or some work which requires the services of a temporary worker.

"Age has nothing to do with it," she told me. "These companies need good, fast workers who can get the job out. In the beginning, employers used to come and ask me the age of the girl I was going to send."

"That's when I decided, arbitrarily, that all my girls are 35." She told me of one woman who went to a company for a "temporary secretarial stint. It worked out very well, and the employer was delighted with her work."

"But she was 50 years old and could not go on the company payroll on a permanent basis because of a company regulation on age. So they still hire her through Secretaries-at-Large, and she has been there now for a year and a half."

The owner of Secretaries-at-Large asked me not to mention her name, just the name of her company, so I will call her Miss X.

"This is a wonderful break for the older worker," I marveled, and Miss X smiled.

"For the housewife, too," she told me. "I mean, the girl who really is 35. We have lots of them, too. They need pin money, or their children in school need clothes, or they want little extras for the house."

"And the best part is, we get a good many jobs that call for a girl just from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. Many times the husband would be hurt if his wife had to work, but the wife really wants to — sometimes for the money, sometimes because she loves to have a job."

"So these women fix breakfast, see the kids off to school, then go to the job, and get back in plenty of time to fix dinner, get into a housecoat, and look as if they've never left home."

"I know that some day the age barrier will be lifted and most companies will hire older workers. And I know that some day, most husbands will agree with a wife who wants to work."

"But you can't wait forever for thinking to change. Meantime, you have to realize that there is more than one way to skin a cat."

I knew better than to ask Miss X her age, and was figuring it to be about 50, when she read my mind.

"Just had my 60th birthday," she announced cheerily. "As long as you're not giving my name, you can give my age!"

Flush Door Can Serve as Furniture

By HUBBARD COBE

Time was when a door wasn't much use for anything except something that you shut or chopped up for kindling wood, but times have changed since then and so have doors.

We've noticed that modern flush doors are used almost as often for other purposes as they are for doors.

The average flush door will run you somewhere around $12 or so and as it's an average size door it will measure about 6 feet, 8 inches by 2 feet, 10 inches or thereabouts.

If you take it and fasten metal or wood legs to one side it can become a pretty fair table for the average family. If you set it down with a small filing cabinet at each end you'll get a desk or worktable that would ordinarily cost you a couple of weeks' pay.

If you take the same door and install a couple of pieces of plywood panels at the ends it becomes quite an attractive living room desk.

If you have the time and energy you can take about three or four narrow flush doors and hinge them together to make a screen.

Second Wife Should Not Upset First

Better Not Go With Husband to Son's Funeral

By EMILY POST

A difficult question to answer is this one: "Is it out of order for a second wife to go with her husband to the funeral of her husband's son? This would necessitate seeing his first wife and also her relatives, who naturally must resent the second wife even though she had nothing whatever to do with the rift."

"But unless her presence is an impropriety, she is willing to risk any coolness they may show her, to go with her husband on this very sad mission."

Answer. If she has reason to believe that her presence will be upsetting to the boy's mother, it would be better if another member of his family, or an intimate friend, went with the father.

Dear Mrs. Post: When speaking of one's parents to strangers, is it correct to refer to them as "Mother" and "Dad" without the "my" in front of it?

I think it is much too intimate when speaking to people who do not know them. This has always been a pet peeve of mine and I would like your opinion.

Answer: I think I agree with you. To strangers I would say "my mother" and "my father." (I wouldn't like "my" before "dad" or "mom" because surely it is unnecessary when talking with one to whom you refer to your parents so affectionally.)

Dear Mrs. Post: As a plebe at the United States Naval Academy, I am asked many things. I have recently been asked the proper way of buttering a slice of bread. This includes breaking as well as buttering. I would appreciate it if you would send me the proper explanation.

Answer. You break a slice of bread in half and then in half again, hold it on the rim of your plate with the thumb and first two fingers of your left hand and butter it with knife held in your right hand.

Doughnut Recipe Goes to School

Marlaime Williams Uses It as Cooking Class Experiment

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor When her daughter's cooking class was experimenting with the deep fat fryer, Mrs. Williams sent her favorite doughnut recipe to school with Marlaime for the girls to use.

With five active youngsters to care for, Mrs. Williams devotes her time to her home and family. She sews for herself and the children and encourages her teen-age daughter to sew with her. She participates in the work of the Union Lake School PTA.

DOUGHNUTS

By Mrs. William W. Williams

1 tablespoon shortening
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 eggs
1 cup milk
4 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
3/4 teaspoon baking powder

Cream shortening and sugar, add eggs and blend thoroughly. Sift the dry ingredients together and add alternately with the milk to make a dough of about the consistency of biscuit dough.

Roll out about half an inch thick on a floured board, using only enough flour on the board to prevent sticking, and cut with a doughnut cutter.

Fry, a few at a time, in deep hot fat (360 to 375 degrees), turning just as soon as the doughnuts rise to the top of the fat and turning again, once or more, during the frying. Drain on soft crumpled paper and when cool dust with powdered sugar.

Mary Margaret McBride Says: Rackets Shouldn't Reflect on Honest Charity Groups

The stingiest man I know is patting himself on the back these days because, as he puts it, he was "right all along about what happens to that money poured out to charity organizations."

This is apropos, of course, of the New York State Legislature's investigation of charity racketeering which has certainly brought to light some lamentable facts about money-raising habits.

Just the same, it will be outrageously unfair if good groups, innocent of dishonest tactics, lose support, and men like my stinging acquaintance get stung and smugger. It is easy to feel bitter when you think you have been done, but the fair-minded person in these circumstances will try hard not to generalize.

Like everybody else, I'm a particularly easy and indiscriminating touch when the cause deals, or MISs McBride purports to deal, with some matter that I feel strongly about.

For instance, I've always been quick to respond to anybody who is old, broke and alone in the world. The result is that I've been fooled and have had periods of suspecting the worst of any hard luck story.

I remember one distraught man who identified himself as having worked in Bassett's dry goods store in my home town. He told me he was stranded in New York City and had been forced to pawn his only means of support, his carpenter's tools.

He mentioned a sum which sounded logical to me—$29.43—and assured me that if I'd just loan him the money to redeem his kit, he could get a job next day.

I gave him the money, but a suspicious-minded friend who happened to overhear the conversation planted himself outside my apartment and followed the stranded carpenter and my $29.43 around the corner into the nearest bar.

Another time a woman telephoned me hysterically and sobbed out a story of being old, penniless and on the verge of suicide. I promised help if the woman would just hold on a little longer.

She said that she'd come around and pick up my check but I insisted that she give her address. One of the staff went there to check. There was no such number and the place where it would have been was a cemetery in Brooklyn.

After that, I took my name out of the telephone book. And now, somebody more canny than I checks every appeal before I open my pocketbook.

Sadder than giving help to the undeserving, though, is not giving it to the deserving. My heart still yearns over one little old lady who came to a broadcast of mine years ago, thrust a note into my hands and then disappeared. The note, which bore no address and only a first name, told a story of despair that haunts me to this day.

Try It Cover Shade With Rope

Have you or Mother tried to find a new lampshade for your room? It is very hard to find a shade which is not dressy or frilly. No doubt the shade you have on your lamp is a good shape for the lamp base but is soiled. Here is a way you can dress up that old shade, and it will be better than a new one. This shade will look just right for a boy's room.

You will need to buy some clothesline at the store. The more inexpensive line will be the best for this, as the more costly line is too stiff to work with.

Start at the top of your shade and spread either fast-drying glue or cement on your shade, covering about 2 inches down from the top. Go around the shade with the rope, keeping close to the top edge. Tuck the start of the rope under the first round.

Keep winding and spread the cement 2 inches down again, after you have covered the first 2-inch area. When you reach the bottom of the shade, tuck the end of the rope under the next to last round.

To trim a new shade, put the rope at the top and bottom, then paint on a picture of your hobby.

Jehovah's Child Wrong in Bible Interpretation

WALLACE, Idaho (AP)—A woman who calls herself "Jehovah's child" was found guilty yesterday of contributing to the delinquency of minors by refusing to send her four children to school. She claimed the Bible said they should be taught at home.

Dist. Judge A. J. Graf scheduled sentencing for the woman, Mrs. Harry Brandt of Kingston, next Monday.

Mrs. Brandt said she is the only member of her religious sect.

Sen. Ellender to Ask That McCarthy Budget Be Trimmed Down

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today he will appeal to the Senate to "cut down to size" the spending budget of Sen. McCarthy's permanent investigations subcommittee.

Simultaneously, four newspapers reported that the Eisenhower administration has been urging McCarthy (R-Wis.) to concentrate on investigating waste and corruption, leaving searches for subversives primarily to others, and that McCarthy is said to have agreed. Accounts to that effect were carried by the New York Times and Herald Tribune, the Washington Post and the Baltimore Sun.

The Post quoted administration leaders it did not name as saying McCarthy had been urged to give "greater attention to legislative needs, directing his investigations more at waste, inefficiency and corruption—and leaving most of the red hunting to the group created to do that—the Senate internal security subcommittee."

The post continued: "McCarthy reportedly has indicated he will follow this line, but how far he will follow it is unknown."

"At the beginning of the last session of Congress, it should be recalled, there was also a series of moves aimed at curbing McCarthy's activities. None of them materialized."

McCarthy, out of the city, was not immediately available for comment. He said last week "digging out communism" was not the "primary purpose" of his subcommittee, and that it has been careful to check with the Senate internal security subcommittee to avoid duplication.

"If in our investigations we find subversive elements in government which would prevent the government from operating properly, and no other congressional group is investigating, then we go ahead," he said.

The Wisconsin senator has said he will ask the Senate to increase, by an unspecified amount, his committee's $200,000 budget for 1953. He said he wanted to expand the investigative staff. Recently he announced he was broadening his activities to take up the handling of some federal tax cases.

"As far as I'm concerned," Ellender said in an interview, "he should not even get anything like last year's spending authorization. I'm going to make another effort to have it cut down to size."

Ellender for years has contended that most congressional committees spend too much money. But he has had little success in cutting their budgets. He said he will have a lot to say "about this shameful waste of tax money, spending unnecessary sums for unconscionably large staffs."

Court Says Little Theater Can Be Denied First-Runs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court yesterday upheld the right of motion picture distributors to deny first-run films to neighborhood theaters with limited drawing power.

The decision rejected contentions of the Crest theater in Baltimore, which had sought anti-trust damages from eight major distributors.

Crest charged conspiratorial action by the eight in refusing to license first-run pictures to it. The distributors denied any conspiracy and said their refusal was the result of independent judgment in solving a common business problem.

Justice Clark delivered the 7-1 decision. Justice Black dissented and Justice Douglas took no part. A jury in federal court in Baltimore ruled in favor of the distributors and its decision later was upheld by the U. S. Circuit Court in Richmond.

In other actions yesterday the court:

1. Decided 5-4 that a New York state prisoner serving a 7-10 year sentence because of a prior conviction is entitled to a federal court hearing on his efforts to set aside the first sentence, which he finished serving ten years ago.
2. Refused to step into the unsuccessful efforts of a group of Marshall, Tex., housewives to strike down the federal law requiring the payment of Social Security taxes on domestic servants.
3. Refused to review the dismissal of a $300,000 damage suit filed by S. L. Kilgore against former Gov. Fuller Warren and other Florida state officials.

Kilgore, once sales manager of the Florida Crushed Stone Co., contended his 1939 conviction should be overturned because he was not told then of his right to the assistance of a lawyer.

charged in the suit he was wrongfully discharged because he opposed the payment of "kickbacks" for political purposes. Lower federal courts dismissed Kilgore's complaint.

4. Declined to review a Federal Power Commission order granting Northern Natural Gas Co. rate increases approximating $5,000,000. The company had asked boosts totaling about $8,400,000. Northern operates a pipeline system originating in the gas fields of Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Dog Too Smart; Starts a Fire to Remove Chill

LANSING (AP)—There's such a thing as a dog being too smart. George Terman of Lansing thinks he has one, a Boston terrier which doesn't like drafts.

Terman returned home yesterday to find smoke pouring out the door and the walls covered with soot.

Firemen, reconstructing the blaze, decided that the pup got chilly all alone in his cardboard box, despite the presence of a rug, some pillows and plastic cups for his entertainment.

Apparently, the dog dragged the box over a hot air register. Hot air must have ignited the plastic cups and set fire to the pup's bedding.

It was either that or the dog was smoking in bed.

Jane Wyman Reports Reconciliation Has Failed

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Jane Wyman announced yesterday that she and composer Frederick M. Karper, her third husband, have failed to effect a permanent reconciliation. They separated a few weeks ago, got together again and now the actress has instructed her attorney to file a complaint in divorce court alleging mental cruelty.

Marilyn Absent; Rumors Started

But Agent Denies Any Wedding or Holdout for More Money

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Marilyn Monroe's studio says she has been suspended because she failed to show up for the start of her new picture. Coincident with this announcement was a report that the shapely blonde and Joe DiMaggio, the former New York Yankee Clipper, were en route from San Francisco to Las Vegas or Reno to be married.

A studio spokesman said Miss Monroe's home telephone here doesn't answer and he could "only assume that she's still in San Francisco."

The next bit of rumor is Hollywood was that perhaps she was holding out, inasmuch as her present contract is about to expire and she hasn't signed a new one at 20th Century-Fox. The rumble was that La Monroe wants more money.

But finally, her agent, Jack Gordon, blasted some of the rumors. Why no, he said, there aren't any wedding plans. He would dismiss that altogether, he said. Miss Monroe wasn't at her studio, he explained, because she didn't like the script for the picture "Pink Tights," and she won't show up for rehearsals until she can approve a new script.

The picture will have Dan Dailey and Frank Sinatra in the cast. At last report, DiMaggio and Miss Monroe were still in the San Francisco bay area.

The studio said she would remain under suspension until she gets back.

Doctor Injects Sluggish Hippo With Vitamins

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Cleo hasn't been eating well and her doctor decided she needed a vitamin shot. She got it, but it was quite a production.

Cleo is a hippopotamus. Swope Park Zoo Director William T. A. Cully says he isn't sure, but she may be a hippopotamama-to-be with appetite-curbing kidney trouble.

Yesterday, while Cully and two helpers distracted her, veterinarian Dr. Howard Ashley took a running start and attacked her from the flank with a hippo-sized needle holding 25 c.c.s of vitamin B complex.

Cleo wasn't appreciative and tried to bite the doctor. Her usual meal is:

Six loaves of bread, 12 carrots, 12 potatoes, 12 apples, 4 heads of lettuce, 15 pounds of grain and to top it off—one third bale of hay.

French Stylist Pushes Simple Black Dress

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here's some happy new year's news for American husbands: A French style expert thinks the women here could get by with fewer clothes.

My source is Jeanette Spanier, dressmaker of the exclusive Pierre Balmain salon in Paris. A handsome English woman, she married a French doctor and became the head of business matters for Balmain.

This is her first trip to America and she is full of enthusiasm for such things as escalators, Santa Anita race track, the courtesy of sales people and bourbon old-fashioned.

"I am impressed by the way American women dress," she commented, speaking with a Gallic flourish of the hands. "Americans far excel the French in casual clothes: you wear stunning things here. You are also superb in dinner dresses. But for ball gowns—ah, that is where the French are superb."

"Another thing the French do best—the simple black dress. A French woman can wear it to lunch with only simple gold jewelry. In the afternoon, she can wear it with more ornate jewelry. Then she could wear it to dinner at the most exclusive restaurants by adding a few accessories."

"I do not see that in America. The women seem to worry that they will be seen in the same dress twice. French women do not feel that way. They might wear the same dress three nights in a row and not be concerned."

This may seem like heresy in her business, but Mme. Spanier added that French women don't vacillate with the style.

"All this talk about hems going up and down!" she exclaimed. "It's just for publicity—to give the fashion reporters something to write about. French women never change the length of their hems."

Mme. Spanier recently helped supervise the outfits for Lana Turner in "Betrayed," which was filmed in Europe. She said that Balmain had designed some rather subdued dresses for Lana, since she plays a schoolteacher in the film. I asked what she thought of Hollywood designs.

"My, they do have a lot of sequins, don't they?" she replied pointedly. But she added that many of the stars' costumes are well done, even if they have to be overdressed for dramatic purposes.

What about the best dressers among the stars?

"Betty Bacall Bogart wears clothes beautifully, and so does Mary Livingstone. Mrs. William Goetz is perhaps the best dresser in Hollywood; everything she wears is perfectly chosen. Off-stage, Marlene Dietrich is very chic. Of course, she has to wear more theatrical clothes on stage. I'm anxious to see that gown she is wearing in Las Vegas."

Contest Will Climax Feast of Epiphany

TARPON SPRINGS, Fla. (AP)—A score of hardy youngsters will plunge into the chilly waters of Spring Bayou tomorrow to see which one can come up with a gilded-wooden cross.

Whoever gets it will receive the blessing of Archbishop Michael, head of the Greek Orthodox Church in North and South America, the admiration of his fellow townspeople, and, according to tradition, good luck throughout the year.

The contest will climax the observance by members of the Greek Orthodox Church of the Feast of Epiphany, commemorating the baptism of Christ. The celebration is popularly known as Greek Cross Day.

Dukes Close In, but Wildcats Hold Cage Lead

FISTIC MIXUP—Walter Cartier, left, and Randy Sandy mix it in the 9th round of bout in Cartier, at 161 to Sandy's 158½ pounds, gained the Eastern Parkway Arena, Brooklyn, last night, unanimous decision in 10 rounds.

Cartier Beats Sandy Easily

Bobo Olson, Other Top Middleweights Offered Lucrative Matches

NEW YORK (UP) — Promoter Emil Lence offered four prominent middleweights big purses today for February or March fight with veteran Walter Cartier of New York, who was impressive in outpointing young Randy Sandy at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway arena Monday night.

Lence, of the Parkway, said he was offering $10,000 a champion Bobo Olson to meet Cartier in an over-the-weight fight. And he was offering $5,000 to Joey Glambra, Paddy Young and Ernie Durando.

Cartier, 161, won the unanimous 10-round decision over New Yorker Sandy, 158½, in their television fight before 2,100 fans.

Cartier staggered Sandy six times with solid left hooks to the head as he tagged the lanky youngster with the 3rd defeat in his career of 17 bouts. His only previous defeats were two losses to Willie Troy of Washington, D. C.

There were no knockdowns but Cartier wrestled Sandy to the floor in the 2nd round. Cartier suffered cuts on both brows. Sandy bled from a slight gash on his right brow and from his nose.

Nebraska Plans More Stress Upon Sports

LINCOLN, Neb. (UP) — John Sellick, acting chancellor of the University of Nebraska, tonight indicated approval of a plan to more than double the amount of financial aid expended on Cornhusker athletes.

Sellick said he had in mind a program that would expand the number of athletic scholarships at the school from about 70 or 80 to between 125 and 150.

School for Referees

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—A national school for college basketball officials was proposed today by Van Sweet, young cage coach at College of Pacific.

Sweet made the proposal after taking his team on a tour of the Midwest and the Southwest—with very little success.

"I have no complaints with the fairness of the officiating," he said, "it was just that it was different every place we went."

Writers Honor Jones for Feats on Links

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Bobby Jones was named by the Philadelphia Sports Writers' Association today to receive a half-century citation at its golden anniversary banquet late this month as one of the greatest golfers of the last 50 years.

The grand slam king said he would accept the award to be given Jan. 25. He pointed out that it was at the suburban Merion Club that he played in his first National amateur championship in 1916 as a boy of 14.

8-Foot Leap in Sight

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP) — Illinois may produce the track sensation of the century—a high jumper who can clear eight feet and goes over the bar backwards.

He's Dickie Browning, Illinois junior from Dallas, Tex., for two years national AAU tumbling champion.

Browning's gymnastic specialty is a running forward hand spring, a roundoff, a flip-flop and, finally with terrific momentum built up, a backward double somersault.

To reach the somersault climax, Browning shoots high into the air. He practices the trick as a matter of routine dozens of times a day. His timing is perfect.

Charley Pond, Illinois gymnastic coach, says:

"Dickie has reached eight feet a number of times at the top of this double backward somersault. He could go over the high jump bar while doing it."

World's high jump record is 6-11½, set last June by Walt Davis, 6-8 Texas A & M basketball star, in the national AAU meet.

Illini track coach Leo Johnson was a bit dubious about Browning's high jumping aspiration but now has fallen in with the idea and is ready to combine with Coach Pond in grooming the champion tumbler.

One technical point to overcome is to have the 5-9 Browning take off on his double somersault on one foot. "A fair jump is one in which the competitor jumps from one foot."

An old rule, rescinded several years ago, would have killed off Browning's chances. It prohibited "diving" over the bar, requiring that a jumper's foot must always precede his head and body over the bar.

"I think with training, Dickie can clearly enough to satisfy the judges—take off on one foot in accordance with the current high jumping rules," said Pond. "It will be easy for him to get his timing down, like regular high jumpers, to hit his peak height at the right place, above the bar."

Ray George Resigns Texas A & M Post

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UP) — The resignation of Ray George as head football coach at Texas A & M means an almost entirely new gridiron regime for the Aggie school.

George, whose team lost its last five Southwest Conference games, quit yesterday with the announced intention of entering private business. He told reporters he is out of the coaching business.

Two assistant coaches at A & M have resigned in the past month. Dalton Faircloth became coach of Greenville (Tex.) High School and Gil Steinkamp became head coach at Texas A & I, Kingsville.

George came to A & M as line coach in 1950 from the University of Southern California.

Pin Hopes on Rookies

Cubs' 3 Young Negroes May Solve Big Problem

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (UP)—Three Negro rookies may solve the Chicago Cubs' biggest problem next season.

Purchase of infielders Ernie Banks and Gene Baker last September and the drafting of outfielder Luis Marquez from Toledo two months later could give the Cubs a strong 2nd base combination and a stout centerfielder for the 1st time in many years.

Manager Phil Cavarretta is counting on Banks to be his regular shortstop. He thinks Baker, who played shortstop at Los Angeles last year, can make the successful switch to second. Marquez batted .292 in the American Association but rapped 13 homers, drove in 81 runs and stole 37 bases. He is a ball hawk in the outfield.

Banks, who will be 23 at the end of this month, hit .314 in 10 games for the Cubs and smashed two homers following his purchase from the Kansas City Monarchs. The 23-year-old Baker didn't hit quite as well in a Chicago uniform last fall but he walloped 20 homers and drove in 99 runs on a .284 batting average on the coast.

Hawkeyes Hand Spartans Loss

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UP) — Iowa's speedy Hawkeyes drove through Michigan State's defenses to hand the Spartans their 1st Big Ten basketball loss in their 1st start 73-63 last night.

It was Iowa's 1st win and its 1st start too as the Hawks counted on a pair of high scoring forwards, McKinley (Deacon) Davis and Carl Cain, for 17 points apiece.

Spartans rallied briefly in the 3rd period, but the Hawkeyes, ahead 52-37, stood off the spurge.

Spartans tried to speed up their control ball offense and were able to cut the Hawkeye margin to eight points 65-57 with five minutes to play. But they couldn't shake the youthful Hawkeye team.

Davis and Cain came through with a couple of last minute baskets to insure the lead.

Spartan forward Al Ferrari, leading MSC scorer with a near 20-point a game average, was held in close check by the Hawkeyes. He scored 14 points.

Spartan Julius McCoy ran wild for scoring honors with 25 points.

MSC has lost three straight after winning four non-conference games at the opening of the season. Iowa has won 6, lost 2.

Duquesne Stock Soars After 12 Straight Wins

Kentucky Also Victor Monday; Hoosiers Given Third Place

By BEN PHILGAR

NEW YORK (UP) — Duquesne's towering Dukes crept up on Kentucky in this week's Associated Press basketball poll but the all-winning Wildcats held on to first place by a narrow margin of 81 points.

They led by 150 points a week ago but Duquesne's sweep through 11 straight games and the Garden Holiday Festival in New York sent the Dukes' stock soaring. Duquesne and Kentucky both won again last night after the polls closed. The Wildcats have won 8, Duquesne 12.

Indiana stayed in third place and Minnesota in sixth but the rest of the positions underwent a thorough shakeup, mainly as a result of holiday tournaments.

Oklahoma A & M, winner of the All-College Tourney at Oklahoma City, moved up from fifth to fourth, and Western Kentucky, seventh a week ago, jumped to fifth after winning the Louisville Invitational. Western has taken 12 straight this season.

Holy Cross broke into the top 10 in seventh place as it ran its record to 8-0 in winning the Sugar Bowl Tournament at New Orleans. The biggest advance, however, was by Duke, winner of Raleigh's Dixie Classic. The Blue Devils were unranked a week ago. This week they finished eighth in the voting by 99 sports writers and broadcasters. Ten points were awarded for a first-place vote, nine for second, etc.

Oklahoma City moved up from 11th to ninth and Oregon State, beaten twice in three games in the Dixie Classic, dropped from fourth to 10th.

Illinois, North Carolina State and Fordham, 8, 9 and 10 a week ago, dropped out of the top 10.

East Entries Swamp WIBC's Secretary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UP) — Eastern women bowlers are going to take a bigger hand this year in the Women's International Bowling Congress tournament starting in Syracuse, N. Y., April 8.

Mrs. Emma Phaler of Columbus, congress secretary, says eastern women are "swamping" her office here with mail, all entries for the April 8 tournament.

Doris Knechtges of Detroit is expected to be one of the main attractions at the Syracuse tournament as she sets about trying to defend three championships she won last year.

Honor Dorais Memory

DETROIT (UP)—Former associates in sports, business and government today paid their final respects to Charles E. (Gus) Dorais, 62, who died Sunday after a notable career as a football player, a coach and a Detroit councilman.

Officials will carry the resolution to funeral services Wednesday.

Mickey Walker Recalls His Refusal to Fight His Friend, Harry Greb; Jim Jeffries Lauded

By GRANTLAND RICE

BEVERLY HILLS—At a friendly luncheon a few days ago my host, Harry Brand, planted me between two fairly good fighters. They were Jack Dempsey and Mickey Walker—the Old Manassa Mauler and the Toy Bulldog.

Jack and Mickey took charge of the occasion with Henry McElmore cutting in.

Mickey was a hot Harry Greb rooster. He recalled an incident that occurred after his 15-round battle with Greb, including a 4 a. m. private fight the night after Greb's victory. Mickey called them to his office and offered to sign them for $20,000 for each return battle.

"Tex," Greb said, "there are enough fighters around for Mickey and I to beat up without picking on each other. Mickey's my pal and I don't want to hit him. Also I don't want him to hit me. You can make it a good deal more than $100,000, but I still won't fight him."

"That goes for me," Mickey said. "I won't fight Greb. He's my friend and you don't meet many friends in this game. There are a lot of other fellows

Wichita Sub's Late Goal Trips Titans in Overtime

DETROIT (UP)—Wichita, riding a 12-1 season record, counted on a last-minute hook shot by a reserve center last night to win its first Missouri Valley Conference basketball start over the University of Detroit 77-75 in overtime.

Fans at the U of D fieldhouse got an extra treat. The windup of a doubleheader also went into overtime. St. Francis of Pennsylvania showed Wayne U how to use its own control ball style to win 47-44.

Wichita had moments of brilliance like Bob Hodgson's winning score, and moments of near disaster as in the 4th period when, faced by Detroit's control ball, Shockers scored only six points.

It took a 30-point 3rd period to give Wichita a chance against the Titans who led at the half 35-31 and ruled most of the 2nd period. It was all Detroit could do, with two free throws by forward Guy Sparrow, to tie the score 67-67 in the 4th period.

Score was tied three times in the overtime period with Hodgson's tally coming with barely three seconds left.

Shocker forward Cleo Littleton took scoring honors with 29 points. Detroit's Sparrow and guard Dan Halling shared 2nd place with 25 points apiece. It was Detroit's 23 straight conference loss against no wins.

Indiana stayed in third place and Minnesota in sixth but the rest of the positions underwent a thorough shakeup, mainly as a result of holiday tournaments.

Owen Whipping South's Squad Into Condition

MOBILE, Ala. (UP)—Steve Owen, recently dropped coach of the professional New York Giants football team, said today he'd like to remain in the professional coaching field but said his coaching plans were "just for one week."

He is whipping the South squad into a smooth operating machine for next Saturday's Senior Bowl game here.

The veteran coach was given the gale by the Giants and his job was turned over to one of his assistants, Jim Lee Howell. The removal apparently gave him extra incentive for victory here in his rivalry with Paul Brown, Cleveland Browns boss and coach of the North squad.

His professional record against Brown is even at 4-4, but since Brown began coaching in the game here he has beaten Owen in both their meetings.

"My job at present," Owen said, "is to do a good job with the boys down here."

And he has some prime material to do a good job with—such standouts as Georgia's passing ace, Zeke Bratkowski; Texas Tech's most valuable Gator Bowl performer, Bobby Cavazos; Alabama's impulsive off-the-bench tackler, Tommy Lewis; and All-America lineman Crawford Mims of Mississippi; and J. D. Roberts of Oklahoma.

To achieve victory over Brown's squad, however, Owen will have to come up with a defense ready to stop some of the nation's top offensive players, including speed merchant Billy Wells and All-America end Don Dohoney of Michigan State; big Harland Carl of Wisconsin; Tom Altman of West Virginia; Ralph Felton of Maryland; and Bill Stits of UCLA.

U. S., Canadian Curling Teams Meet in Match

DETROIT (UP) — American and Canadian teams will enter into "friendly match championship" competition in a friendly sport this week. The sport is curling.

The occasion is the 68th annual International Bontspiel, the curling classic, which will crown a new international champion at the end of the four-day meet next Sunday.

One of the few "friendly" sports on ice, curling is sort of frozen shuffleboard with a little bowling thrown in for good measure.

I never saw Jeffries fight but I saw Big Jim work out in 1930 when he was at his peak. He was by all odds the greatest physical specimen I ever saw.

Around six feet one or two, he weighed then just 216 pounds. He could high-jump six feet and run 100 yards in 10 seconds flat.

Gene Fowler told how Jeff came back from a heavy stroke. He was unconscious on the floor for many hours. "His left side and left arm were useless. But he got a rubber ball and began building up his left hand and left arm by exercising."

He had a fighter's body and, above all, a fighter's heart. No one could stop him with an axe.

NCAA's Annual Session Starts in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (UP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn., after a day of dilly-dallying in Executive Committee sessions, gets down to business today at its 48th annual convention.

The American Football Coaches Assn. and the NCAA Television Committee are slated for executive sessions, but no drastic recommendations for changes are expected from either.

The coaches, with 1954 rules topping their agenda, are tipped to string along with the one-platoon system, with proposals to liberalize substitutions to some extent. Some also want to do away with the four-minute rule at the end of the second and fourth periods, forcing an "all-the-way" game under the same set of rules.

In the television sector the only fight against the current restricted program appears to be coming from the Big Ten conference. It would like to have one of its games televised on a regional basis each Saturday, and the powerful circuit may lead the way toward some loosening of the restricted plan in vogue in 1953.

The Television Committee meets today and tomorrow, and will submit its recommendations to the NCAA business session Friday. The coaches will offer any rule change suggestions to the NCAA Rules Committee, which meets Jan. 11 in Sarasota, Fla.

Stout Steve to Rival Brown in Annual Tilt in Senior Bowl

MOBILE, Ala. (UP)—Steve Owen, recently dropped coach of the professional New York Giants football team, said today he'd like to remain in the professional coaching field but said his coaching plans were "just for one week."

He is whipping the South squad into a smooth operating machine for next Saturday's Senior Bowl game here.

The veteran coach was given the gale by the Giants and his job was turned over to one of his assistants, Jim Lee Howell. The removal apparently gave him extra incentive for victory here in his rivalry with Paul Brown, Cleveland Browns boss and coach of the North squad.

His professional record against Brown is even at 4-4, but since Brown began coaching in the game here he has beaten Owen in both their meetings.

"My job at present," Owen said, "is to do a good job with the boys down here."

And he has some prime material to do a good job with—such standouts as Georgia's passing ace, Zeke Bratkowski; Texas Tech's most valuable Gator Bowl performer, Bobby Cavazos; Alabama's impulsive off-the-bench tackler, Tommy Lewis; and All-America lineman Crawford Mims of Mississippi; and J. D. Roberts of Oklahoma.

To achieve victory over Brown's squad, however, Owen will have to come up with a defense ready to stop some of the nation's top offensive players, including speed merchant Billy Wells and All-America end Don Dohoney of Michigan State; big Harland Carl of Wisconsin; Tom Altman of West Virginia; Ralph Felton of Maryland; and Bill Stits of UCLA.

Winter's First Wrestling Show Set Wednesday

Professional wrestling moves in to the Pontiac sports scene Wednesday night, with a 3-bout opening card scheduled at the city armory.

Maurice Vachon of Montreal and Johnnie Gates of Windsor will meet in the main bout. Vachon, one of the sport's youngest participants at 20, was a finalist in the 1948 Olympic Games. Gates is noted for his viciousness in the ring.

Semi-final match will feature midgeit grapplers Prince Hallie Salasie of Ethiopia and Major Tom Thumb of Brantford, Ont. Detroit's Lou Klein and Ted Perva of Pittsburgh, Pa., will meet in the opening bout.

Tickets are on sale for the show at Griff's Grill, Dobski's Bar, Al Thomas' Health Club and at the armory. First bout is set for 8:30 p. m. Pontiac's Al Thomas will referee.

Yanks Top Team for Fourth Straight Year

By JOHN CHANDLER
NEW YORK (AP)—New York Yankees who won an unprecedented 5th straight American League pennant and followed up with their 5th consecutive World Series championship were voted the outstanding team of 1953 today in the 23rd annual Associated Press year-end poll.

As they have monopolized baseball, so have the Bronx Bombers swept top honors in the AP poll for this is the 4th consecutive year that Casey Stengel's men have been voted "best team of the year."

It was a runaway for the Yankees, who received 79 1st place votes from a total of 125 ballots cast by the nation's sports writers and sportscasters.

Yankees, who defeated the Brooklyn Dodgers in the World Series 4 games to 2, rolled up 289 points on a 3-2-1 basis.

University of Maryland, unbeaten in 19 regular season football games and named 1953's no. 1 college team in the AP poll last month, edged the Cleveland Browns for 2nd place. Maryland had 10 1st place votes, while the Browns got 13, but the Terrapins had sufficient 2nd and 3rd place support to run up 109 points to 106 for Cleveland.

Kentucky, Duquesne Face Clear Sailing This Week

By RIF WATSON
NEW YORK (AP)—It looks like pretty clear sailing now for Kentucky and Duquesne, two members of the basketball big three, but Indiana, third member of the trio, has a rough road to travel.

Kentucky's Wildcats, rolling along at the head of the Associated Press poll, defeated a stubborn Xavier of Ohio team 77-71 last night while Duquesne was beating Dayton 70-52. Indiana, meanwhile, had its second successive close shave in Big Ten competition before downing Wisconsin 70-67.

When 93,751 fans watched the Detroit Lions and the Los Angeles Rams play in the Los Angeles Coliseum this year, it was the largest crowd ever to see a regularly scheduled National Football League game.

Kentucky, with eight straight victories in a triumphal return to the college cage scene after an enforced year's absence, now has only De Paul and Vanderbilt to worry about.

Duquesne, ranked just behind Kentucky, is threatened by a return game with Dayton and another match with Niagara, a five-point victim of the Dukes in the Madison Square Garden Festival Tournament.

Conference competition got going with a bang last night. Kansas, which bowed to Indiana in the NCAA final last year, began defense of the Big Seven title by squeezing past Oklahoma 76-72; Duke, No. 8 team in the country, rolled along in the Atlantic Coast Conference, by flattening South Carolina 89-69; and Wichita won its Missouri Valley opened with a 77-75 overtime victory over Detroit.

It's Time Out!

"Six times in 10 minutes that guy sinks a shot that he couldn't make once in five years!"

This year's poll was similar to 1952 in one respect—a college football team was 2nd to the Yankees. However last year, with 45 1st place votes, Michigan State came much closer to the Yanks, who had 65.

Unbeaten but once-tied Notre Dame football team, 6th in the 1952 poll, was 4th this time, followed by the Indiana basketball team, Big Ten and NCAA champion; Milwaukee Braves, who shifted from Boston and were in the National League pennant race, finishing 2nd; Detroit Lions, National Football League champions for a 2nd straight year; Minneapolis Lakers, National Basketball Association; and Brooklyn's National League champions.

Detroit was 8th in last year's poll, and might have finished higher this time had the title game in which the Lions swept the Cleveland Browns Dec. 27 been played earlier.

Leading teams (first place votes in parentheses):

1. New York Yankees, Baseball (79)
2. Maryland, Football (10)
3. Cleveland Browns, Football (13)
4. Notre Dame, Football (7)
5. Indiana, Basketball (1)
6. Milwaukee Braves, Baseball (4)
7. Detroit Lions, Football (2)
8. Minneapolis Lakers, Basketball (2)
9. U. S. Naval Academy, Rowing (1)
10. Brooklyn Dodgers, Baseball (1)

Other teams receiving 1st place votes were the Harlem Globetrotters, basketball; Illinois, football; St. Olaf, (Minn.), football.

Indiana, Illini Narrowly Miss Upset Defeats

Hoosiers Blow Lead Over Wisconsin, Stall Out Final Minutes

CHICAGO (AP)—Indiana and Illinois, two of the Big Ten's top rated basketball clubs, narrowly escaped defeat last night as underdogs Wisconsin and Northwestern bid strongly for upsets.

Indiana's Hoosiers had a 15-point lead over Wisconsin on their home court at one point but in the game's closing minutes had to resort to stalling tactics to stave off a belated Badger bid and win, 70-67.

Dependable Don Schlund, who scored 30 points in Indiana's 62-60 victory opening the Big Ten campaign Saturday, hit for 29 against the Badgers, who were topped by Tony Stracka's 18.

Sophomore guard Bill Ridley, a substitute, scored a field goal and free throw in the waning seconds to give Illinois the points it needed for a 66-65 victory over Northwestern. Hal Gant of Northwestern missed a vital free throw as the game ended.

Illini were paced by John Kerr, who scored 27 points.

In other games, Iowa won its Big Ten opener, beating Michigan State, also in its debut, 73-63, and Michigan surprised Ohio State, another 1st time out team, 85-76.

Iowa took a 15-point lead over Michigan State late in the 3rd quarter and held a comfortable margin thereafter.

Sophomore Harvey Williams was the big gun in Michigan's victory over Ohio State, scoring 24 points, but another sophomore, Jim Barron, contributed vital points in the final quarter.

Next intraconference activity takes place Saturday with Illinois at Michigan State, Indiana at Minnesota, Wisconsin at Iowa, Michigan at Northwestern and Purdue at Ohio State.

Ohio State plays Pittsburgh in a nonconference game Wednesday.

Fun and Food Will Highlight Hunters Roundup

Preparations have been completed for the annual Elks lodge hunters' roundup, Jan. 7 in the clubrooms.

Representatives are expected from practically all deer hunting groups in the area. The food will be "wild" and the program, an impromptu "fun feast" according to Dr. H. A. Miller, chairman, will follow the trend set by the dinner.

"We expect about 500 to attend," Miller reports, adding that the advance sale of tickets has been unusually good. Ray Kingsbury will prepare the dinner. Serving starts at 5:30. Program begins at 9:30 p. m.

Red Wing Star Well in Front

Howe Picks Up Three Points in Week for Art Ross Trophy

MONTREAL (AP)—Detroit's Gordie Howe, National Hockey League's leading scorer the past three seasons, again is well out in front in the running for the Art Ross trophy—and the $1,000 that goes with it.

Howe, 25-year-old right winger, held his ground last week, picking up three points, all on assists to bring his total points to 44. Teammate Ted Lindsay, his closest competitor, also gained three points and now has 37.

Howe has 16 goals and 28 assists and Lindsay 14 tallies and 23 assists.

Harry Lumley of the Maple Leafs is the leading netminder.

Coast Pros Sign Carey

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Los Angeles Rams professional football team announced Monday that end Bob Carey, recently released from the army signed a contract to play in the 1954 season.

Carey, Rams' outstanding rookie of 1952, captained the unbeaten, untied Michigan State team of 1951.

Red Liked Cub Pitching

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Al (Red) Schoendienst of the Cardinals did his best hitting of the 1953 season at Chicago's Wrigley Field. In 11 games at the Cub park, Red smacked 28 hits in 51 times at bat for a .539 mark. Schoendienst made a valiant try for the National League hitting crown but lost to Brooklyn's Carl Furillo by two percentage points. Red hit .342.

Ed Hinz and Don Maull, with 19 and 17 points respectively, paced the Merchants to their 3rd straight triumph.

Al Cuthrell contributed 25 points

Phalanx Edges Police Quintet in 'D' Thriller

Collision Between Two Undeclared Fives Tops City League Card

City Basketball Leagues resumed play Monday night after an 11-day holiday layoff. Feature contest on the night's 8-game card was a collision between two undefeated Class D teams, Phalanx and Police Department, at Lincoln Junior High.

After trailing through most of the 1st three quarters, Phalanx staged a final period rally to overcome a 3-point deficit and win, 24-22. Zack Athanas paced the winners with 10 points.

In other "D" games, Elks 723 pulled away from a 13-12 halftime lead to down Senior Hi-Y, 32-23, and Bogie Lake forfeited to Hi-Knights. Garry Douglas led the Elks with 11 points, while Jim Oates had 10 for the losers.

Chuck's Shack, lagging 49-45 at the end of the 3rd quarter, scored 17 points in the finale to edge General Motors 62-59 in a Class A exhibition at Pontiac High.

Bill York led the winners with 15 points, but GMC's Don Quaye, a copped game honors with 22.

Stadium Inn handed Walled Lake Merchants their 3rd straight setback, 44-26, in Class B. Jim Lee's 15 points were high for Stadium Inn.

Missie Dribbles took over undisputed 1st place in the Junior Girls' League by winning their 2nd straight victory, 21-4, over Skid Kids. In other girls' games, Unknowns scraped past Baskettes 24-20 and Dick & West beat Rackettes 16-12.

No games are scheduled for tonight in any class.

Forced Rules Change

Cotton Bowl's Twelfth-Man Episode Recalls Austin's 'Strategy' in 1920's

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—The Tommy Lewis, or 12th man, episode in the Cotton Bowl game only serves to point up the dismal fact that there is very little opportunity or reward for free enterprise in the game of football since the busy-bodies on the Rules Committee kept pecking away at the regulations with their whereases and wherefores.

There was a time not too many years ago when the Alabama full-back, far from being an object of derision for his impulsive tackle of Rice's Dickie Moegle, would have returned home to torchlight parades in his honor.

That would have been back before my fine Texas friend, Pete Cawthon, then coach of the Austin College Kangaroos, honed up on the fine print in the rule book and discovered that the only penalty accruing to a team which "accidentally" had an extra man on the field while a play was in progress was to get fined half the distance to its own goal line. That was in the mid-20's when the Kangaroos were a minor power in Texas football circles.

Well, as the story came to me at the time, it seemed that almost every time an opposing back broke loose for what looked like a touchdown run against Cawthon's team there would come tearing out from the sideline an eager Austin College substitute to haul him down well short of the goal. All the officials could do in such instances was grapple step off the penalty yards while the opposing coach quietly threw a fit.

It wouldn't have been quite so bad, one coach who had been thus victimized said later, if Pete had at least kept all the members of his small squad on the bench with him. But, no, he complained, there always was one Kangaroo lying wrapped in his blanket down on about the 20-yard line. He suspected this was something more than a coincidence.

Jack Kramer Offers Plan to Recapture Cup for U.S.

By ED CORRIGAN
NEW YORK (AP)—All sorts of schemes have been advanced for almost a week on how the United States can win back the Davis Cup from Australia, but Jack Kramer, one of America's greatest stars, today came up with a new one. And it might work.

He wants to give his time and money to developing new talent. The former amateur ace who only a few years ago ruled the game offered to contribute $7,500 and two months of his time in an effort to develop young players.

Kramer figures he will visit about 85 cities on his professional tour the first five months of this year. At each stop he would like to have the local professional or school coach bring a group of the most talented youngsters to him.

After he has looked over all the lads—he wants them all under 18 because they can be developed more easily—he would take the eight top prospects to camp for an entire summer of coaching.

Pancho Gonzales won the $4,000 top prize of the opening "tournament" of Kramer's 1954 professional tour by whipping Pancho Segura 7-9, 6-4, 6-4 in Madison Square Garden last night.

Frank Sedgman won the consolation round with a 6-4, 6-2 victory over ancient Don Budge.

Orioles Still Torn by Dispute Over Building

Prexy Miles Asks for Someone to Iron Out Construction Delay

BALTIMORE (UP)—Clarence Miles, president of the Baltimore Orioles, has asked the city fathers to appoint someone who could straighten out construction delays at Memorial Stadium.

Miles clashed with contractor Joseph J. Hughes Monday at a meeting called to discuss renovation work at the stadium, which will serve as the new home of the American League team.

"We're behind the eight ball at the present time because we're selling seats that don't exist," Miles said.

Hughes, jumping to the defense, remarked that he didn't see "why the taxpayers should pay more money so the Orioles can make more box seats."

"What we're building now over the first deck looks like peanut heaven," the contractor barked.

Thumb Regulates Turn—All top bowlers finish the swing with an arm lift at ball release, some with more lift than others. In the previous article the extreme lift applied by Junie McMahon was shown.

Today's sketch pictures the delivery of three-stepping Ad (Swede) Carlson, former match king. Essentially his finish is the same as McMahon's, with these slight differences that are important: His right elbow points straight down to keep the arm in a more direct line, and the thumb, which regulates hook turn, is straight up. The arm lift is about half as high as McMahon's.

That means simply that, with a quicker ball release, the fingers apply about half the amount of spin McMahon does. The hook is shorter, easier to control, but powerful. This may be what you need.

- A HOME OF YOUR OWN

Consider these facts:

- Rents and living costs may rise but mortgage payments on your home do not increase.
 - 55 out of every 100 Americans have attained the goal of home-ownership — by looking at the benefits of owning a home, not by postponing a decision because they were unwilling to make relatively minor compromises with an "ideal."
 - Buying a home is a sound investment. Your cash equity grows with each mortgage payment. Each improvement you make which contributes to your enjoyment of your home also adds to its value.
 - The home owner has a safe harbor against inflationary storms. His money is at work — profitably. During inflationary times cash in the bank loses purchasing power, while real estate rises in worth.
 - As a home owner, you will enjoy income tax savings. Your mortgage interest payments and real estate taxes are deductible from Federal — and some state — income tax returns.
- "A home of your own cannot be lost or stolen, nor can it be carried away — it is about the safest investment in the world."

YOU CAN CHECK OFF the big milestones of life on the fingers of one hand — the first date, your wedding, the first baby, the raise that really mattered — and the day you bought your home. What a wonderful feeling to say, "It's ours . . . for keeps!" Half of that thrill is the knowledge that you've done the right thing — and made the most important investment of your life.

It's wonderful to have your own home, your own garden, your own patio, perhaps a few fruit trees out back. That's living! But it's also wonderful to know you have a sound investment, a place where your children can grow up in healthy, happy surroundings, and a firm start towards financial independence.

There are many opportunities for home buyers in this area at this very moment. You'll find them listed in the Classified and Real Estate sections of this newspaper — genuine achievements in all price ranges, in all areas.

As West Grows Stronger 1954 Looms as Good Year

By PHIL NEWSON
United Press Foreign News Editor

Fortunately for mankind, it is his nature to find hope in each passing milestone.

So as 1953 passed and the world entered 1954, the Cold War capitalists assessed the months behind, and, on the basis of experience, sought to look into the months ahead. In general, the outlook was optimistic.

There were solid reasons.

For the first time in three years the guns were silent in Korea.

World tension was at least temporarily on the decline and the chances for any worldwide explosion in 1954 seemed remote.

Militarily and economically the West was stronger than at any time since the end of World War II.

In 1953, Britain emerged from austerity and the pound sterling regained respect on world markets. Britain was prepared to pay her annual $119,000,000 to the United States on her U. S. loan.

Prosperity surged through West Germany and the lowland countries.

France and Italy remained weak sisters in the Western family who would continue to need help. But there, too, there was hope. The United States had taken over the great bulk of the annual $1,000,000,000 cost of the Indochina War, giving the French economy a needed shot in the arm.

As for Italy, there was hope that 1954 finally would see a settlement of her quarrel with Yugoslavia over Trieste.

Militarily, the North Atlantic

Treaty forces still were inferior to the Russians, but, equally, they would be no push-over for a sudden attack. Mediterranean defenses were strengthened by the pact between Spain and the United States.

Some of the reasons for hope in 1954 were on the negative side.

Russia was believed too involved at home to risk any general outbreak.

The death of Josef Stalin started a new struggle for power inside the Kremlin and the June 17 revolt in East Germany proved to the Russians they could expect no loyalty from captive peoples.

There were indications the Kremlin hierarchy believed it now was necessary to increase the output of consumer and luxury goods to reduce grumbling at home, even if it meant some reduction in their war-making potential.

Another of the negative reasons for the hope of peace was, strangely, the hydrogen bomb.

Western leaders worried because they knew the Russians had at least the know-how to make the hydrogen bomb, even if they did not already have the bomb. But the Russians were equally worried, as evidenced by their steady clamor to have the bomb outlawed.

The United States would not give up this fearful weapon because its mere possession was a powerful deterrent to war — the Reds might wreak terrible havoc on American cities with a surprise blow but to escape retaliation, victory would have to be swift and total. It seemed unlikely the Reds would risk it.

Homicide Inspector Frank Ahern said Arthur E. Hansen told him he killed Paul Pederson, 40, because "I didn't like the way he was treating his wife."
