Vote on Civil Service Repeal Ordered by City

County Supervisors to Vote Again Feb. 9 on Home-Rule Plan

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

LANSING — Oakland County supervisors will take another vote Feb. 9 on whether they favor home-rule type of government for the county.

This time a resolution proposing such a milestone change will be slightly altered from the first one which was temporarily turned back — the alteration coming on the insistence of a group of South Oakland County mayors.

Spokesman for the group, Carl F. Ingraham, Birmingham mayor and supervisor, yesterday suggested as a member of the Board of Supervisors' Legislative Committee these two new "safeguards":

1—Assurance that should such home-rule government get voter approval that there will be no infringement upon home-rule charters presently in use by cities.

2—That there be widespread representation on any charter commission which would have the job of drafting Oakland's recommended home-rule charter.

The legislative committee met here this morning for the second time in two days to draft an amended resolution containing these two provisions. Committee Chairman John G. Semann (Berkley) said the new resolution would be offered at the supervisors' February meeting.

The question of county home-rule, which since 1932 has been defeated four times by Michigan voters, was the key topic yesterday as Semann's committee met to discuss suggested state legislation which would favor Oakland County.

Sen. Frank Andrews (R-Hillman) last week introduced a bill calling for an April 6 statewide vote on a constitutional amendment to allow counties to set up home-rule charters if they feel such a change is beneficial.

It appeared Oakland wouldn't get on Andrews' bandwagon in time to push for the vote. A Feb. 6 deadline has been set as the time his

Protest 8-Mile Drain in Capital

Southfield Residents Motor to Lansing to Fight Assessment

LANSING — They came, they listened, and left — but still hotly opposed to the $4,760,000 Eight-Mile road storm drain.

"They" represents a group of nearly 300 Southfield residents who chartered six buses and rode in cars to carry their protest fight against the proposed drain before the Municipal Finance Commission here yesterday afternoon.

After two hours of listening to the pros and cons of the sewer project, the group, which calls itself the Eight-Mile Road Drain Taxpayers Assn., had but one assurance in its favor. This came from Frank S. Szymanski, state auditor general and a member of the commission.

"I am aware of the fact that if we want to stop it we could,' Szymanski told the group meeting in the Lansing Civic Center. This brought a loud round of applause.

It will be the commission that must decide whether Oakland County can issue more than four million dollars in drain bonds to finance the sewer, slated to serve Southfield and Oak Park.

Paul L. Adams, state attorney general and commission chairman, said it would be "a minimum of two weeks" before a decision is arrived at.

Should it be no, Oakland County would be forced to abandon plans for the sewer, said Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry. "I don't see how we could finance it," he said.

Barry was met with some quiet boos when he stepped to the microphone to explain that Southfield homeowners were being assessed more than residents of Oak Park because their area makes up most of the drainage district.

1-Cent Boost in Sales Tax Urged by GOP

Williams Calls Meeting of Board to Discuss Universities' Plight

LANSING (AP) — A Republican move to add a penny to the state sales tax was picking up steam in the legislature today as the state's cash emergency tightened another notch.

But there still was doubt whether the fourth cent would be formally proposed. It was certain to be held up until after Gov. Williams shows his hand on new taxes Friday night.

The let-the-Governor-speak-first attitude of Republicans was shaken for a time when word spread that banks had cut off further credit to Michigan State University and the University of Michigan.

Williams' proposed 424 million dollar state budget for 1959-60 had an impact, too. It was not laughed off in the style of former years despite its record high spending level.

Unless cash help comes from somewhere, the two big universities may face payless paydays by late February or March.

Williams today called a special meeting of the State Administrative Board to review the financial plight of the University of Michigan and Michigan State University.

"We'll review the situation and see what relief if any we can give them, but probably we won't be able to give any," the governor told a news conference.

The Administrative Board consists of the eight full-time major elected state officials.

As to the question of the borrowing power of the universities, the governor said he was told "general confusion" exists.

Main topic of discussion in huddles among GOP leaders was a resolution that would:

1. Put to a statewide vote April 6 a constitutional proposition for fixing the sales tax rate at four cents, instead of the present three, and thereby raise an additional 100 million dollars a year.

2. Split the proceeds this way: 50 millions to the state, 25 millions to schools and 25 millions to cities.

Latest Atlas Firing Said Successful

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile launched Tuesday night from Cape Canaveral, Fla., flew the intended range over the Atlantic and produced most of the results desired, the Defense Department said today.

"On the basis of early telemetry the test achieved most of the Air Force objectives," a spokesman said.

"The Atlas flew the programmed range.

"The Atlas was not programmed for full ICBM range."

It was understood the big missile traveled slightly more than 4,000 nautical miles.

The Defense Department did not explain immediately its reference to the Atlas achieving most of the objectives. However, there were reports the instruments recording the flight did not function completely.

The missile was reported to have been seen re-entering the atmosphere near the intended impact area.

Ike and Dulles Hint OK of New Summit Talks

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles both signalled U. S. willingness today to enter into high-level negotiations with the Soviet Union—perhaps even a summit conference—provided there is some prospect for agreement on critical issues.

Dulles warned anew that recent proposals from Moscow on such issues as Berlin and German unity are actually designed to undermine the position of the Western powers in the world.

He reflected a determination on the part of the United States and its Allies to explore intensively in the next few months the possibilities of agreement with the Soviet Union but to keep a wary lookout for trickery.

Dulles testified before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Eisenhower said today he favors talks with Russia if they hold promise of leading toward solution of differences.

He told his news conference that any talks that deal fruitfully with Soviet-American differences would be useful.

Eisenhower told reporters the United States wants broad, basic agreements with the Russians on ending East-West differences, agreements that would serve as the framework of more detailed and technical pacts later.

On other matters Eisenhower branded as irresponsible a report of a rift with Chief Justice Earl Warren. He said he felt that if Warren had some criticism of his conduct of the presidency he was capable of telling the President himself.

The question about his relationship with Warren was prompted by a story by Robert J. Donovan, chief of the New York Herald Tribune's Washington bureau. Donovan wrote that their relationship today "is cold and distant and marred by disapproval on both sides."

Eisenhower said the United States is making very remarkable progress in the ballistic missile field and has no cause for hang-dog humiliation.

The President made the statement in commenting on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's announcement Tuesday that the Soviet Union has intercontinental ballistic missiles in production.

Commenting on criticism of him at a Republican conference in Des Moines last week, Eisenhower expressed belief that most Republicans understand and support what he called his middle of the road program.

He said he has been attacked from both sides so far as his moderate program is concerned. He called that natural and proper and remarked that you have to take it.

On Mexico, Eisenhower said he would like to meet with Mexico's new president, Adolfo Lopez

Ike Charts Plan to Drive Racketeers Out of Labor

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower sent Congress today a broad 20-point legislative program designed to drive racketeers out of labor and protect union treasuries from corrupt officials.

In a special message, Eisenhower also called for major revisions in the Taft-Hartley Act to place tighter curbs on secondary boycotts and outlaw coercive picketing.

He said enactment of the program would eliminate abuses disclosed by the Senate Rackets Committee and "protect the public interest and insure the rights and economic freedom of millions of American workers."

He also declared it is "essential to assure the American public that true, responsible collective bargaining can be carried on with full protection to the rights and freedoms of workers and with adequate guarantees of the public interest."

"These recommendations, when adopted, should do much to eliminate those abuses and improper practices, which, I am firmly convinced, the American

GOP Waits for Word on New Taxes

LANSING (AP) — Republican legislators waited impatiently for Gov. Williams' tax proposals today after giving his record high 1959-60 budget a comparatively mild reception.

Republican reaction to the Democratic governor's budget outline varied from contempt to outright endorsement. But some GOP legislative leaders who usually jump on the governor's spending ideas offered only mild criticism.

Williams' budget message to lawmakers yesterday called for 140 million dollars in new taxes to support a 324-million-dollar general purpose spending program and cut the state deficit.

He held off outlining his tax ideas until a statewide telecast Friday night. GOP leaders generally said they couldn't appraise the budget without first hearing the tax plan.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom (R-Traverse City), chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, called it a "pretty good budget," and "rather tight."

The only place he lets out very much is in education," he said. "The rest of it is pretty much in line."

Rep. Allison Green (R-Kingston), GOP floor leader in the House, agreed that "most of the things he has asked for are worthy."

Both men, however, questioned the governor's installment plan for retiring debts expected to reach 110 million dollars by June 30.

Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), who earlier vowed that new taxes would be adopted "over my dead body," depicted Williams as "quite a gambler."

First he has gone for broke, he said. "Now he's going for bankruptcy."

Rep. George W. Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) offered a blanket endorsement of the budget "provided the tax program is reasonable and acceptable."

"I don't think we should cut it a bit," said Sallade, a leader of the so-called Young Turk GOP delegation in the House which occasionally has bolted party lines to vote with Democrats.

Police Status to Be April 6 Ballot Issue

Move Comes as Safety Director Maps Charges Against Chief Straley

After two hectic years, Pontiac city commissioners have placed the question of civil service for police back in the hands of the voters.

They ordered a proposition placed on the April 6 ballot which would repeal civil service if a majority of those voting want to put police back under the old trial board.

This action, unanimously appoved by the City Commission last night, climaxes 22 months of tension during which internal strife within the Police Department burst into the open with civil service as a sounding board.

It came as charges against Police Chief Herbert W. Straley were being prepared by George D. Eastman, public safety director, for filing by City Manager Walter K. Willman with the Civil Service Commission.

The charges would remove Straley from office on grounds of incompetence.

Opposed to civil service at the time Pontiac voters moved by referendum to place police under the State Civil Service Act April 1, 1957, and angered by recent publicity concerning Straley, commissioners unleashed a torrent of criticism last night.

"Bitter experience has shown that civil service hasn't done the job it was expected to," said Commissioner William W. Donaldson.

"Civil service has been the source of dissension and controversy in Pontiac.

"The police department should be kept out of politics. But under civil service, there has been more politicking in the department than ever before.

"The administration has no say at all over the Police Department under civil service. It would be an improvement to put the department back where it was before civil service."

Supporting Donaldson's motion to put civil service to a vote was Commissioner Robert A. Landry. He said:

"It is unquestionable that morale in the department has reached a new low under civil service and will continue to decline.

"Real discipline is now unattainable."

Commissioner John A. Dugan said he had always opposed civil service.

"It handcuffs the city manager and ties our hands, too."

Mayor Philip E. Rowston and Commissioners Floyd P. Miles and Wesley J. Wood remained silent on the question. Commissioner Milton R. Henry was absent from the meeting.

Rank and file members of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn. (PPOA) indicated they would

Says Insurance Man Deposits Premiums

Charges Use of Welfare Fund

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate investigator testified today that Allen Dorfman, Chicago insurance man, deposited in his own bank account $51,461.66 of union welfare fund insurance premiums.

John Findlay, the investigator, told the Senate Labor-Management Committee that not until after it started an investigation did Dorfman forward the money to the insurance company for which the premiums were intended.

He said that instead of making the payments to the Mount Vernon Insurance Co., Dorfman used the money to meet expenses of his business enterprises.

Findlay continued that on March 11, 1957, Dorfman wrote a check to the insurance company for $39,155.35 of the premiums.

He said another check for $12,135.31 was drawn to the company by Dorfman on June 12, 1957, but that Dorfman endorsed it with a rubber stamp, then signed his own name and deposited it in his insurance agency account.

In other words, this money had been "misappropriated from the insurance company?" Chairman John McClellan (D-Ark) asked. Findley agreed.

The money involved, Findlay said, was paid by members of Local 1031 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers for welfare and pension insurance they elected to keep in effect during periods of layoff of temporary leave from their jobs. Under that action by the workers, he said, they paid the portion of the premiums that would have been paid by employers.

Investigators were told Tuesday the business agent of Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa's own local drummed up $19,711 in trucking business as a sideline.

The agent, Rollan McMasters of

WILLIAM RUMMINGER

Detroit Local 299, refused, on grounds of possible self-incrimination to answer questions.

The story of McMasters' sideline was told by William Rumminger of 1990 Humphrey Ave., Birmingham, Mich., a salesman for the Douglas Trucking Lines in Detroit.

In response to questions by committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy, Rumminger said he had, since 1953, operated a sales firm called the Aero Cartage Co. to line up business for trucking firms on a commission basis.

"Business was bad," Rumminger said, until McMasters approached him.

Findlay, an Army accountant on loan to the committee as a staff investigator, said he uncovered the story of Dorfman's use of the premium money in records of the insurance company; the Ex-

Man May Be Landing on Mars in 10 Years

Tests Under Way to Select Pilot of 1st Space Ship

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Top space experts said today that within 10 years men could be landing on Mars, reaching out for Jupiter, living in space stations and telecasting to all the world.

Morover, one expert—Dr. Eugene Sanger of the Technical University of Stuttgart—said men within 40 years may be flashing to the stars and galaxies at the speed of light—186,000 miles a second. He also said men may be destroying their enemies with death rays.

The dazzling futuristic forecasts—compiled in a report by the House Space Committee—were written by 56 space experts in the United States, Great Britain, Germany, Italy and the Far East.

They followed disclosure by Dr. T. Keith Glennan head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, that the United States already has started selecting the pilot for its first manned space satellite.

Glennan startled a staid dinner meeting of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences with this disclosure Tuesday night in New York.

The new federal space agency, he said, has picked 110 rugged young Americans as candidates for the first manned satellite to orbit the earth.

They will assemble in Washington for further tests, Glennan said, and be asked to volunteer for space flight. Within three months, their ranks will be reduced to about a dozen.

"I suspect that the one who will make the flight will not know he is to do so until count-down day," he added.

He said he does not know whether this country will get a man into orbit before the Soviet Union.

The house committee's report predicted these space developments by 1969:

— Designs for rockets capable of boring through the earth, construction of underwater cargo ships and operation of manned orbital bombers.

—Space probes to the planet Mercury.

— Accurate weather forecasting.

— Various stages of progress on such forms of rocket propulsion as ionic and photonic power, plasma jets, solar boilers, magnetic braking and even solar sails—a sail propelled by light from the sun.

One expert—George L. Haller, a General Electric Co. vice president—summed up the tone of the report in his statement:

"Man's venture into space is the great enterprise of this century. Tremendous progress has already been made. Yet in the light of what remains to be done all that has been accomplished so far is no more than a tennis ball as viewed in relation to the earth."

All of the experts based their predictions on the assumption that men are willing to make the necessary effort—and pay the price. They made clear the price would be staggering. But so would be the gains.

Dr. Herbert York, chief Pentagon space scientist, put the cost at an average of about one billion dollars a year for the next 10 years. Another Pentagon expert put the cost at two billion a year.

public expects and believes will be corrected through legislative action," he said.

"Equally important, they will do so without imposing arbitrary restrictions or punitive measures on the legitimate activities of honest labor and management officials."

Some of the changes Eisenhower proposed were asked by labor unions, others by employers.

Eisenhower's recommendations signaled the start of a congressional battle with sharp political overtones.

A bill already introduced by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) was termed a half measure by the President Tuesday.

In his message, Eisenhower proposed tightening Taft-Hartley bans against certain forms of picketing and secondary boycotts—matters not included in Kennedy's bill.

Getting in ahead of the President, an AFL-CIO spokesman told Congress today that such picketing and boycott proposals would endanger passage of any labor bill this session. The AFL-CIO made it clear it would fight any new picketing and boycott bans.

Andrew J. Biemiller, AFL-CIO legislative director, told a Senate subcommittee that legislation to limit picketing and boycots has no place in a measure meant to eliminate labor racketeering.

The President's recommendations generally, however, were along the lines believed acceptable to labor. In fact, he offered one surprise—a Taft-Hartley law change designed to speed up union representation elections. This would make it somewhat easier for unions to obtain bargaining rights from employers.

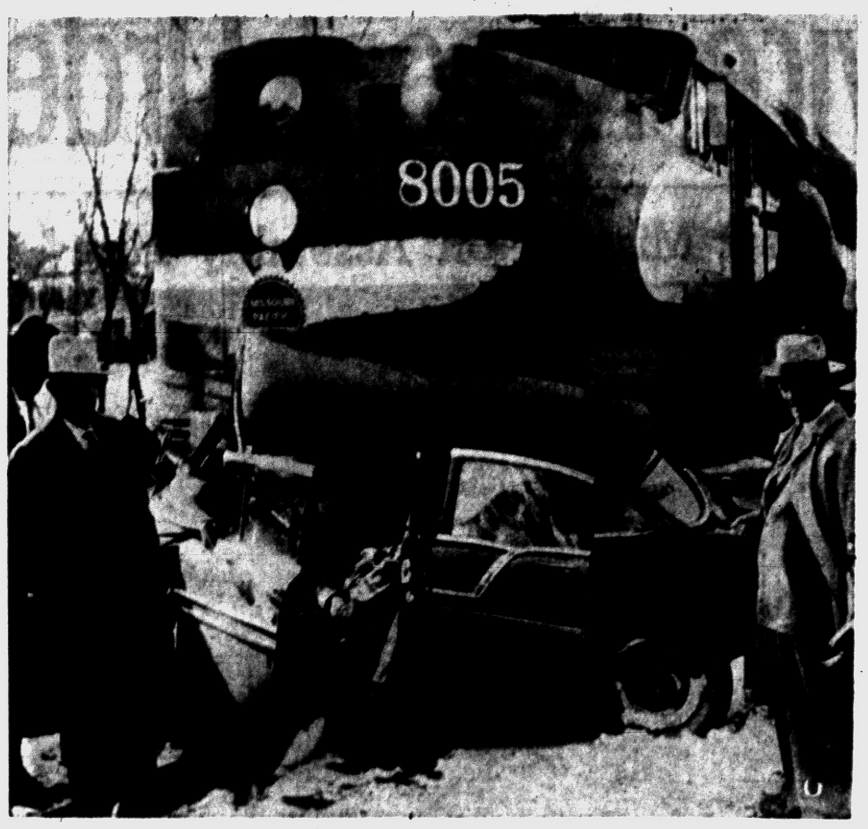

Like the administration's bill last year—and like the Kennedy measure this year, the President's new proposals call for detailed accounting to the government of union fund spending, with heavy penalties for fraud.

Approval Seen for Hawaiian Statehood Bill

Statehood backers rested their case today at the House committee's hearings. No opposition witnesses were in sight.

O'Brien, presiding at the hearings, predicted that only three opposing votes would be cast when the bill comes up for its final test in the 31-member committee.

Move to Hike Sales Tax Gathers Steam

air the matter was tentatively set for today.

A big question was whether Gov. Williams would block a referendum by withholding needed Democratic votes in the almost evenly divided House. Some Republicans thought he would.

To gain ballot listing, a constitutional amendment requires a two-thirds favorable vote in both Senate and House. The Governor has no say-so. The deadline for such action is Feb. 15.

It was obvious that apprehension has grown among Republicans, both as to the state's cash emergency and the prospect of being confronted with the sales tax proposal they think the Governor is likely to make.

"It's surprising the amount of correspondence I've had favoring an increase in the state sales tax as the answer," said Rep. Charles A. Boyer (R-Manistee).

"People are fed up with income tax forms and the gestapo methods used by the Internal Revenue Service which hovers over them like a vulture," he said.

A constitutional amendment to establish the legality of a proposed graduated state income tax was proposed today by Rep. Louis C. Cramton (R-Lapeer).

The amendment would authorize the legislature "to impose specific taxes on incomes from whatever source derived at such rates and with such exemptions as it determines.

Cramton's resolution would require a two-thirds favorable vote in both the House and Senate to go before the people for a vote.

The graduated income tax plan came from a citizens committee named by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee, to draw up a plan for revising Michigan's tax structure.

Its constitutionality is a matter of dispute among attorneys.

Set to Introduce Bill to End Tax Penalty

State Rep. Lloyd L. Anderson (R-Waterford Township) said he will sponsor a bill to allow townships to waive a four per cent penalty for late payment of taxes if they so desire.

Mrs. Dorothy Olson, Waterford Township treasurer, had urged such a measure.

Anderson, who said his bill would be permissive and not mandatory legislation for townships, said he believed there was no longer a need for the penalty, income from which in the past paid the salaries of some township treasurers.

"Now most of the townships of the larger counties have salaried treasurers on the payrolls, thus eliminating the need for the funds from the penalty," said Anderson.

A state law now requires municipalities, townships and cities, to levy the four per cent on all unpaid county tax bills after Jan. 20.

Anderson's proposed bill, which he thought might be ready for introduction today, would also give taxpayers until Feb. 28 to pay their taxes without the penalty being levied. This too was part of Mrs. Olson's recommendations.

His measure would give to township boards the right to waive the penalty after Jan. 20 and also extend the payment of taxes to the last day of February, Anderson said.

Unaware that the penalty applied to cities as well as townships, Anderson said he planned to amend his bill so that cities too would come under the recommended changes.

In the past, some municipalities have waived the four per cent penalty because so many taxpayers have complained it was difficult to pay taxes by Jan. 20.

But this practice is strictly against the present law, County Treasurer Charles A. Sparks points out. His office has sent regular bulletins to city and township treasurers listing four opinions of the attorney general saying the unpaid collection fee must be assessed.

Anderson also said he would urge the appointment of a House committee to look into the revamping of the state's entire dog law.

"There's been so many amendments added that it has become pure confusion," declared Anderson. "Primary purpose of the study would be to see if the committee couldn't come up with a more uniform law."

Disputes have arisen lately, he said, over the handling of stray dogs in townships and cities.

"I hope the committee can come up with something to keep the farmer, sportsman, and dog owners happy," the Waterford Township lawmaker remarked.

A revision of the dog law is a part of the county's 1959 proposed legislation program.

change National Bank of Chicago, where Dorfman maintained his agency account; and in documents the committee has subpoenaed.

The committee heard testimony Tuesday that Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa worked with Dorfman and Leo Perlman, a New York insurance executive to set up deals for handling union welfare and pension fund insurance.

Witnesses testified that between them, Perlman and Dorfman overcharged three different labor union welfare-pension funds at least $1,650,000 and perhaps as much as $2,250,000 for their insurance.

Neither Hoffa nor Perlman is on the announced witness list. But Dorfman invoked the Fifth Amendment in refusing to give any testimony about his insurance business. He said answers might incriminate him.

The testimony about the alleged overcharges came from Seymour Goodman, supervising examiner of the New York State Insurance Department, and Martin Uhlmann, a staff investigator for the committee.

Supervisors to Vote Again on Home-Rule Proposal

REFERRED BACK

Oakland supervisors last month referred a home-rule proposal, put forth by the special County Government Study Committee, to Semann's committee. General consensus was that it needed more study.

Since that time the group of mayors has insisted upon the guarantee that city charters won't be tampered with.

"Don't think we would swallow it any other way," declared William C. Hudson, veteran Royal Oak supervisor and a member of the legislative committee.

Another hurdle was reported in the way of Andrews' measure when several Oakland supervisors said they had learned that Wayne County legislators would oppose it, this despite the fact that Wayne supervisors two months ago unanimously voted for a home-rule constitutional amendment.

Home-rule would give counties that so desire the right to frame and adopt their own charters to reflect the needs of their communities. Today, counties come under governing provisions of the 1908 Michigan Constitution.

Yesterday's suggested safeguards will also protect current governmental setups of townships and villages. This was proposed by Arno L. Hulet, Bloomfield Township supervisor who is also a member of the legislative committee.

"It seems obvious that everybody wants to know if this change is going to hurt them," Ingraham remarked.

John L. Carey, Springfield Township supervisor who heads the government study group, said he felt insertion of the safeguards in his original resolution "were like putting the cart before the horse."

"What is there to safeguard?" he queried. "Why not get the thing approved and then stick these provisions in the charter."

Joining the list of proponents of county home-rule was Oakland's state Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Drayton Plains). Lodge was vice chairman of Sen. Andrews' committee.

Lodge said the bill is scheduled for a hearing before the Senate's judiciary committee next Tuesday. "I think it will make it," declared Lodge.

OKs Push Hospital Repairs

City commissioners last night gave City Manager Walter K. Willman an okay to hire Fred W. Moote Electrical, Inc., to make electrical repairs in the east wing of Pontiac General Hospital.

Commissioners also approved retaining Heenan and Pullar Associates to do necessary designing involved in the repairs.

Willman said he would have agreements prepared with the two firms similar to those approved last week for plumbing and heating repairs and general construction.

The city manager intends to have the local firms make the repairs and complete remodeling of the east wing on a time-and-material basis. He indicated last night that he wants Heenan and Pullar, successor to the firm that drew up the hospital expansion plans, to act as clerk of the works over the remaining construction.

The local contractors, he said, have all agreed to do the work for 5 per cent profit and 10 per cent for overhead. They also have agreed, he added, not to bill the city for the work for at least one year after the job is completed.

Willman has estimated it will cost an extra $300,000 to $350,000 to repair defective heating, plumbing and wiring installations, which were not uncovered until contractors broke into the east wing walls last fall to begin remodeling.

Because of the extra costs, the city voted to cancel existing contracts and proceed on a time-and-material basis with local contractors in an effort to save money.

Willman has yet to come up with a definite plan to present to the commission for financing the repairs. If all else fails, however, the money will probably come out of capital improvement funds, he has said.

Southfield Residents Protest in Lansing sands because our people won't be able to pay their assessments."

It is the association's suggestion that all Oakland County residents be assessed for the sewer.

Also, Detroit should be assessed a portion as that city stands to benefit from not having to continue to treat sewage from Oakland County after the eight-mile sewer is constructed, it contends.

Some protestors said they didn't feel their area even needed the sewer, while Clarence Foonder, Detroit civil engineer who has prepared charts on the project, said: "We're not opposed to the drain, only to the apportionment."

Attorney for the association, Daniel Hodgman, told the commission his group was prepared to go as high as the supreme court to block the sewer based on present assessments.

"If you engage in these delaying tactics I assure you costs of the drain must shoot up another million dollars," Barry Said.

Supporting Barry was Claude H. Stevens, the county's bonding attorney. He said the county had complied with the statute in notifying residents of a Oct. 14 public hearing on assessments at which but five property owners turned out.

Hodgman charged the county had "hidden" the date in notices on when bids were to be taken on the project. One lady from the audience shouted, "who even got these notices in the mail?"

Stevens denied association claims the sewer would be both for storm rains and sanitary sewage, and reminded the commission that its sole purpose was to rule on whether the state's credit would be hindered should the county issue the bonds.

However, Stevens did admit that some sewage from the proposed Evergreen and Farmington sanitary sewers would flow through the eight-mile drain.

He insisted to the group that this would reduce and not increase their costs, and that users of the other two projects would be charged for these flowage rights.

This Raise Is Personal

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — When the city administration refused to grant a raise for claims investigator Frank Workman, City Law Director John Duncan cut his own salary by $200 and added it to Workman's.

Refund on Assessment Calls for Special Form

BIRMINGHAM — Local businessmen seeking a refund of money paid to the city on parking lot assessments will have to make special application on Form 843 to the U.S. Treasury Department Internal Revenue Service, according to R. I. Nixon, district director with the Detroit office.

In a letter to James Howlett, city attorney, Nixon said individual taxpayers must make their own application for refunds and must meet certain requirements before they will be granted.

The Chamber of Commerce, in its January bulletin, says corporations which made the 1955 payments for the Pierce lot have until Mar. 15 to file their claims.

Non-incorporated businesses have an additional month for filing.

Justice Elmer Dieterle of West Bloomfield Township yesterday sentenced Robert J. Squires, 18, of 26421 Normandy Rd., Franklin, to 10 days in the Oakland County Jail for assault and battery.

Squires was charged with striking Patrolman Martin McLaughlin of the Bloomfield Township Police as the officer tried to arrest him and two companions on Jan. 21.

Michael Hogan, 18, of 1538 Pierce St. was charged with drunk and disorderly conduct. Justice Dieterle postponed sentencing until Feb. 10 when Hogan said he was interested in joining the Navy. Dieterle released the youth pending his possible enlistment. The justice did, however, order Hogan to attend church each Sunday and present written confirmation to the court from his pastor.

At its regular meeting Friday the Senior Men's Club will see films on the construction of the Mackinac Bridge. C. H. Sander of 867 Pilgrim Rd., a member of the American Bridge Co., who worked on the project, will show the films he took.

The Discussion Group has chosen for its topic "What Is Happening to Our Great Cities?" The group meets at the Community House beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Paul C. Grassey

Service for Mrs. Paul C. Grassey, 37, of 172 Pleasant Ave., will be at 1 p.m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church here. The body will be taken to Easton Pa., for service Saturday and burial at Easton Cemetery.

She died yesterday at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak after a brief illness.

Mrs. Grassey was a member of the First Methodist Church, the American Assn. of University Women, the Alumnae Club of Simmons College in Boston, and was on the board of the Midvale PTA.

The body will be at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home until the time of service.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Terry and Bobby, both at home; her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Granville E. Kiefer of Easton, Pa.; a sister and a brother.

Mrs. Jennie C. Leland

Service for Mrs. Jennie C. Leland, 84, of 916 Southfield Rd. will be at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Burial will be at 2:30 p.m. at Manchester.

She died Monday in a rest home in Detroit.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. William A. Brown and Robert C. Leland, both of Birmingham.

Straley Backed by Rema Club

Urges City Commission to Put Chief of Police Back in Power

"Put Herbert W. Straley back in power as chief of police in fact as well as in name," the Rema Club of Pontiac urged the City Commission last night.

The club, an organization of Negro business and professional men, made the recommendation in a statement read by its president, Everett C. Spurlock.

Five other recommendations were put forth as a result of the mammoth Dec. 5 raids which centered in District 1.

The club called the raids "shameful," in view of the fact that 54 persons arrested in them were subsequently cleared of charges in Municipal Court.

"Their release underscores the injustice of the acts," read Spurlock. "It has left scars upon a whole community of people."

The club chided the City Commission for not making a public apology for the raids.

"We are going to investigate the entire raid as soon as the court cases are disposed of," promised Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

"The Commission will take steps to correct any ills it discovers," he said, promising that the club's recommendations would be taken under consideration.

Spurlock said after the Commission meeting that he believed the raids would have been handled better by Straley than by Public Safety Director George D. Eastman, who was in charge of them.

The club also recommended that a committee on human relations be set up by the city and that a citizens committee be appointed to study a replacement for civil service for police.

Repeal of the State Civil Service Act for police was urged, and the club declared that all public statements about the Police Department be cleared through the city manager from now on.

It urged the city not to provide legal assistance to any police officer named in a damage suit as a result of the raids.

Lone Gunman Flees After Bank Robbery

DETROIT (UPI)—A lone gunman held up a branch of the City Bank shortly after noon today and escaped with between $3,000 and $4,000.

The gunman entered the bank at 4900 E. McNichols at 12:08 p.m.

He took the money from a teller and fled on foot.

Police said they didn't know in which direction he fled or if he had a getaway car waiting nearby.

Civil Service Repeal to Be Ballot Issue

wage a get-out-the-vote campaign to fight repeal of the act.

Civil service would work well in Pontiac, if the city were willing to work with it," declared Hugh T. Stimson, PPOA president, in calling an emergency meeting of the organization next Wednesday.

"I believe the membership will vote then to campaign against civil service's appeal."

It was the PPOA which organized the petition movement that put civil service on the spring ballot two years ago over the objections of the Commission. It has been the PPOA that has voiced strongest criticism of Straley.

Theodore Carlson, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, also indicated he would personally fight the repeal movement.

"The city administration has always opposed civil service because it doesn't want to abide by any rules," Carlson angrily asserted.

The Pontiac Fire Fighters Assn. will remain neutral at present, said Elmer Fangboner, president. Protected by the same State Civil Service Act for 17 years, firemen helped police petition for civil service two years ago.

Straley, protected by civil service against the newest movement to oust him from his job, nevertheless hailed the Commission action.

"I've always been opposed to civil service," he said. "I'm glad the City Commission is taking this action, even if civil service applies to me, too.

"I consider it a dubious honor to be protected by civil service."

Landry, who had threatened two weeks ago to call for action against civil service, claimed that a minority group within the Police Department was using the act to gain influence.

Without mentioning any names, he asserted that the group was anti-Straley and was holding the chief up "to public ridicule through insinuation and innuendo."

He said that a group of "disgruntled and disillusioned individuals" controlled the department to such a degree that the average policeman "has to agree with the minority or else."

Some officers, Landry contended, have adopted the attitude of "if you don't like it, file charges and be damned!"

"It has gotten to the point where the city manager can't exercise his full prerogatives because of the bad publicity."

Landry called the $9,000 spent for the Public Administration Service (PAS) study of the Police Department and the $24,000 tied up in Eastman's two-year contract "a waste of money."

"The need for these expenditures was not felt before civil service," said Landry, who voted for both of them.

"And with all that money spent, the problems of the department have not been solved."

The PAS report on its study recommended that the Civil Service Act either be repealed in Pontiac or amended in Lansing. It said the act contained provisions that were unworkable.

Sunny Skies at Last!

Warmer Air Creeps In

By The Associated Press

Skies were mostly clear in the major part of the country today and a little warmer weather moved across snow-covered regions from the Rockies into the Midwest.

There was rain along the central Pacific Coast and snow along the western slopes of the northern Rockies. East of the Continental Divide, a few snow flurries fell in the Lake Superior district and drizzle sprayed scattered sections of Missouri and along the Gulf Coast.

Fair weather prevailed in other areas except for some cloudiness in a belt from eastern Texas and Oklahoma eastward south of the Ohio River to the middle and south Atlantic coastal areas.

The warmer air moving into the Midwest was expected to spread across the Ohio Valley and into New England during the day. A little colder weather was indicated in the Carolinas and Georgia.

Fairly heavy snow fell Tuesday from New England through New Jersey and Virginia. Falls in central New Jersey measured five inches.

Temperatures were in the 70s in the Southeast Tuesday and reached 81 in Miami, Fla., before a thunderstorm dumped an inch of rain and lowered readings.

Nixon Says Actions of Reds Belie Words

NEW YORK (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon says the latest Soviet call for a reduction of East-West tensions is contradicted by Moscow's actions.

While the Soviets are calling for a thaw in the cold war, Nixon said Tuesday night, the only proposals they have made on major international issues "have been designed not to end the cold war but to give them an advantage in prosecuting it."

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev told a Communist party congress in Moscow Tuesday that the Soviet Union hopes for an easing of tension between East and West. This echoed the sentiments of his Monday statement that Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan's recent visit to the United States had given Soviet leaders "the idea that the possibility of a thaw in our relations is not excluded."

Nixon told a Fordham College Alumni Assn. dinner: "We agree with Mr. Khrushchev that there is a great opportunity at this time for making a breakthrough in reducing world tensions.

"But this is true only if he sees the wisdom of thawing out the frozen Soviet position of the past."

Nixon said the United States also wants a thaw in the cold war "because we realize that if there is none, we will all eventually be frozen in the ice so hard that only a nuclear bomb will break it.

"But there is very little chance for a thaw in a world climate which is constantly subjected to the icy blasts of Soviet propaganda against all those who stand in the way of international communism's drive to dominate the world."

Nixon said that if Mikoyan came here expecting to find widespread economic and political discontent, "I can state categorically, based on my conversations with him, that he returned to the Soviet Union with completely different views."

Mikoyan also found "no significant support whatever" within this country for a softer line against communism, Nixon added.

Earlier in the day, Nixon received an honorary doctor of laws degree from Fordham. He was cited for his "tireless and patient search for the truth, which won for him many implacable enemies but also earned for him the admiration of millions. . . ."

Schools Are Battlefields in Cold War, Official Says

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The classroom is the chief battlefield between the Soviet Union's communism and American democracy Oliver J. Caldwell of the U.S. Office of Education said today.

"The prize is world power. If we lose this battle we may lose the future," Caldwell said in an address prepared for the National School Boards Assn. convention.

"Americans everywhere must give education a much higher priority," he added. "Increased investment in education is cheap insurance against possible eclipse by communism."

Caldwell said "an educational revolution is going on in the heartland of Europe and Asia."

More than 243 million men, women and children are studying in Communist schools and colleges in Communist China and the U.S.S.R., he reported. Relatively few are Communists, but all are dominated by communism, he said.

More than a quarter of the 850 million people living in the largely undeveloped 12 million square miles in Communist China and the Soviet Union are going to school and more go every year, Caldwell said.

"Through education, communism aims to create a new kind of man for a new kind of world," Caldwell said.

To meet Communist competition in education, Caldwell declared, Americans must:

Concentrate on building quality, since they will be outnumbered.

Not waste children's intelligence the nation's greatest national asset.

Fiery Issue: Senate Vote Clears Air

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—The issue was a burning one but throats stayed cool in the clear chambers of the Washington State Senate.

When the arguments were over, the air was still clear.

Smoking senators had won on a voice vote to retain a regulation against smoking. That right — to prohibit smoking.

An opponent said of the rule: "Its only purpose is to provide a modicum of horseplay."

"We are entitled to a little relaxation," said a backer of the regulation. "And besides, it provides cigars when someone is forgetful."

That cleared away the smoke around the seemingly strange position taken by smoking senators.

Smokers wait patiently until a fellow senator or a member of the press lights up. Then one of them points out the rule-breaker.

The guilty party has to buy a box of cigars to be passed around the chamber.

Human eyes can see a candle light 14 miles away on a clear night.

Russians Hailed by Chou-En-Lai

Premier of Red China Says Friendship of 2 Nations Eternal

LONDON (AP) — Chou En-Lai told the 21st congress of the Soviet Communist party today that friendship between the Soviet Union and Communist China is eternal and unbreakable.

Red China's premier hailed the Soviets as the leaders of world communism.

"The practice of the Soviet people is showing the whole world the way of transition to communism and is inspiring the workers by its example", Chou said. "In the U.S.S.R. of today, the peoples of the entire world see their tomorrow.

Chou's words echoed Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, who in opening the congress Tuesday scoffed at reports of differences between Red China and her powerful Communist neighbor and partner."

Moscow radio said the Red Chinese premier had linked "imperialists of the United States" and the "modern Yugoslav revisionists" and accused them of trying to hinder the unity of Red China and the Soviet Union.

"But all their attempts are in vain," he asserted. "The U.S.S.R., China, and the countries of the peoples democracies are one and will unwaveringly advance with firm step along the highway of communism.

"The U.S.S.R. and China are fraternal countries, closely united by Marxism-Leninism. The Soviet Union and China share a common fate and joint interests. Their friendship is eternal and unbreakable."

Flakes of Snow Bounce Around in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. (AP)—Did you ever see a snowflake bounce?

If you had been up between 2:10 and 2:30 a.m. Tuesday in Philadelphia you would have seen lots of bouncing snowflakes. And you wouldn't have had to be inebriated for the occasion. You have the U.S. Weather Bureau's assurance.

The phenomenon occurred in a period during which regular snow was changing to freezing rain. The Weather Bureau called the bouncing flakes, "modified snow."

It explained that snow crystals, falling through warmer air, partially melted and then froze again on their downward course. They turned into icy pellets which still had the flaky texture of snow—something between snow and sleet.

100 Hurt in Strike at Florence, Italy

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—Calm was restored to Florence today after a brief but stormy general strike in which 100 persons were injured.

Union leaders called off the brief stoppage at midnight after a series of street skirmishes between authorities and about 500 demonstrators.

At the height of the rioting, demonstrators overturned a police jeep and set it afire. The police called out armored cars. Firemen turned hoses on the mob.

Labor chiefs called the general strike after police, backed by a court order, had evicted 400 strikers staging a sitdown in the Galileo Optical Works to protest a cut in the plant force.

Happy, Pep Pills Given Boost by Psychiatrist

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Wider use of happy pills and pep pills to combat mental diseases was advocated Tuesday by a Columbia University research psychiatrist.

Tranquilizers and energizers may give mentally unbalanced persons a chance to use their own recuperative powers, he said.

Results obtained by many researchers were cited by Dr. Nathan S. Kline while addressing a seminar on the treatment of disease with chemicals. The meet was sponsored by the University of California Medical School.

Dr. Kline also is director in research for Rockland State Hospital at Orangeburg, N. Y.

Energizers include chemicals called amine oxidase inhibitors. Against the mental illness known as depression, they are as good as electric shock and a lot more easily administered, Dr. Kline said.

Hundreds of people can be treated where only a few are treated now by electroshock or other methods, he said.

The amine oxidase inhibitors help the patient to get a grip on himself, reduce his need for sleep, help him to concentrate and boost his energy level.

Western States Was Once Luxury Ship

Scrap Last of the Great Lakes D. & C. Fleet

TAWAS CITY (AP)—The last of the once-famous D. & C. fleet of swift, luxurious Great Lakes passenger ships soon will be no more.

She is the Western State, a 350-foot side-wheeler with 263 staterooms in tiered decks.

Acetylene torches and a derrick are tearing her to pieces now at the Tawas City municipal dock. The steel hull, with its innards of engines and boilers, will be towed to Bay City in April and cut into scrap.

Then the six-ship fleet of the Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Co. will be dead, and with it an era that stretched back to the gaslights. D. & C. began operating on the Great Lakes 108 years ago.

The only passenger ships left that cruise the lakes extensively are the Georgian Bay Line's North American and South American, and they fall far short of the criss-crossing wakes which the D. & C. queens once cut through America's inland seas.

The Western States evaded the wrecker's ax longer than her five sisters, but ended up ignobly and alone, tied up and frozen stiff in Saginaw Bay ice.

The Detroit & Cleveland Navigation Co., ceased to operate ships in 1950 and became a financial holding company.

With the others gone or going to the scrap heap, a bid was made in 1955 to keep the Western States afloat in all her by-gone elegance.

More than $150,000 was poured into her in a refurbishing job and she was towed here from Detroit to become what may have been the world's first "flotel."

But the idea of making her a floating hotel and tourist attraction didn't pan out.

Robert L. Rosen, president of Lake Shore Steel, Inc., of Detroit, poured in most of the refurbing money. Shops and a public sun deck were added, so were restaurants.

Rosen thought sentimentalists who mourned the lines' passing would rejoice—and flock to the Western States. They did and didn't. He recalled later:

"The letters I've had. I think everyone who ever spent a honeymoon on a D. & C. boat has written."

But when his operating losses had mounted to an estimated $100,000-plus by September, 1957, Rosen closed down the flotel.

Even as late as last April, however, he thought the ship still might have a future. He offered to sell it for $75,000, a mere fraction of its replacement cost and far below the estimated two million dollars it cost to build at Wyandotte shipyards in 1902.

"I'll take my loss and get out," Rosen said. "I had a heart attack last November and I don't have the health to run the boat. Besides, I have my own business to think about."

Marine Salvage Corp., of Detroit, finally acquired the Western States, then sold it to Abraham Mono's Bay City Scrap Co.

What was the final price?

"Just say over $30,000," was Mono's answer as he signaled a derrick to reach for some more of the 1,000 tons of superstructure he plans to haul down by April.

Below him, standing on ice, men with acetylene torches cut at the vessel's two giant paddle wheels, one of which figured in a sensational 1944 event.

Off St. Clair, a 24-foot cruiser with four persons aboard pulled in close to the steamer to escape wind-whipped waves. It put its nose virtually in the paddle wheel box and it was sucked in and ground to bits before the eyes of scores standing at the ship's rail. But none of the four cruiser passengers was killed.

They were the last paddle wheels left on a Great Lakes passenger boat.

But that is Great Lakes history now, and so will the Western States be soon.

Too soon for those who also hated to see the Greater Buffalo, converted to a train carrier in World War II, the City of Cleveland III, never repaired after a collision on Lake Huron; City of Detroit III, the Greater Detroit, and the Eastern States go the same way.

Kentucky, Suh, Doesn't Want Corn

Grass Roots Fight Is On

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kentucky bankers are protesting to Congress against any notion of making the corn tassel the national flower. They say: Make grass —any grass—the U. S. floral emblem.

The bankers, noting that Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill) and some other corn state senators are backing the corn tassel, say the tassel isn't even a perfect flower—only the male portion of the corn plant.

As William C. Johnstone, agriculture representative of the Kentucky Bankers Assn., expressed it in a letter to Sen. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky):

"For only a few days, it (the tassel) is virile. Then, in its last wild rampage, it scatters its pollen to the wide ranges of the compass — then fades and dies and is gone forever."

Ralph Fontaine, executive secretary of the Kentucky Bankers Assn., puts the group's choice this way:

"There is nothing more beautiful and satisfying than lush, green pastures with occasional seed heads of bluegrass, orchard grass and fescue waving in the breeze."

Circus Fat Man Wore Shoe Size—You Guess

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP)—Probably the biggest shoe that ever strode around these parts belonged to Col. Ruth Goshen, the "Middlebush Giant."

Col. Goshen was a side-show attraction at the turn of the century and retired to Franklin Township nearby. The shoe is size 18. The "giant," more than eight feet tall, weighed 400 pounds, and a New Jersey historian says he was buried in the largest grave ever dug in the state.

Durward B. Varner Excellent Choice as Director of MSUO

With this great Michigan State University Oakland project approaching the opening date, one of the biggest forward steps of all took place in the announcement of the "big boss."

DURWARD B. VARNER was selected as everyone in this area had devoutly hoped. Currently Vice President of MSU, VARNER is an outstanding administrative educator. One of the Big Ten's greatest universities sought him recently and a commanding southwestern center offered him one of the highest educational salaries on record.

But fortunately for this area, Varner's faith and hope are completely wrapped up in the great project now under way east of Pontiac. Building will be a continuing process at MSUO. That means a dynamic leader and a tremendously capable executive stands as the first order of business. Had the MSUO Foundation been empowered to search America and name the man, the selection would have gone overwhelmingly to Mr. Varner.

Primarily, this area is interested in a "quality product." We want a university with great ideals and scholastic standards that are recognized from coast to coast, and eventually throughout the educational world.

Nor is this too lofty an ambition.

Many of the MSUO Foundation members ultimately envision the greatest engineering college there is—right here in Oakland County. This may be years away, but it will come. MSUO is located in the heart of the automotive industry and among some of the greatest technical centers in existence. Close and sympathetic cooperation with these entities can stand as the basis of a very unusual opportunity.

Mr. VARNER is the man to guarantee these high ideals. Years and years of work will be required and it will demand an individual in whom everyone has implicit confidence. Happily, we have the star to play the title role.

Announcements stated no student entries would be received until February 1st, but already more than 70 young men and women have applied. Some 90 per cent were in the top half of their high school classes scholastically and 50 per cent were actually in the top quarter.

"This will help guarantee the type and character of the institution we intend to establish," Varner told The Press. "Eventually, some of the most brilliant students in the land will be heading towards MSUO to take advantage of the unusual teaching facilities we will be able to offer because of our strategic location."

Many residents of this area have become acquainted with Mr. VARNER in the past six months as he has been here frequently. In fact, he is already a member of the Pontiac City Club. "Mrs. VARNER and I just completed a new home in East Lansing," he said with a smile, "and now we have the job to do all over again."

Oakland and Macomb Counties are very fortunate to have this post offered to—and accepted by—the individual at hand.

ANOTHER reason that winter, the toughest season, seems to be by far the longest one is that it lasts through parts of two years.

IF THE Army discharges all its misfits, as it is reportedly in the process of doing, it should be possible to trim the defense budget by upwards of a billion dollars.

The Man About Town

Oldest in County

Mother of Pontiac's John Hirlinger Owns a Business

Happiness: What you can keep by giving it away.

Nominated for the oldest active business woman in Oakland County, directly in charge of her own business, is of Holly, today celebrating her 87th birthday.

Mrs. C. B. Hirlinger

For the past 20 years she has conducted her own health food business, in which she personally does all of the clerical work and looks after the shipping. Now recovering from an illness which she reluctantly admits was caused by overwork, she has her sights set on the century mark and then some.

She is the mother of

John Hirlinger,

Managing Director and Executive Secretary of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, which is the first thing she tells any new acquaintances.

Chief of the Pontiac Fire Department, warns residents against covering hydrants in piling snow, also against allowing too much to accumulate on flat roofs, lest the weight causes them to collapse.

John Schroeder,

Bad weather evidently also brings a halt in the sale of auto tags, as of the local branch says the purchases are running behind those of former years. Feb. 28 is the deadline.

Taking their exhibit to the big forestry convention at Columbus,

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph I. Hughes, who conduct Pontiac's "House of Evergreens," had a narrow escape from getting caught in those Ohio floods. A knowledge of detours was all that saved them.

"No birds are suffering more in this snow and ice than the pheasants," writes that live wire sportsman, of Lake Orion. He points out that when they appear so docile and come to your premises these days, they're starving. Better mix a little sand or gravel with what you feed them.

Gene Fellows

I suggest that Davisburg people write cards of appreciation to at his home at 210 South Maple St. in Durand. He leaned long and hard on the whistle cord of his Grand Trunk engine, and awakened the community to the fact that a disastrous fire was threatening that beautiful Pontiac suburb the other morning.

A teasing post card drifts in from now in Buenos Aires. It says, "Better hop down. It's a great summer."

Harry Arundsen,

Verbal Orchids to—

Mrs. C. B. Hirlinger

of Holly; 87th birthday.

Horace Grimley

of Waterford; 81st birthday.

Mrs. Eliza Hansford

of Rochester; 80th birthday.

Herbert W. Smithson

of Lapeer; 83rd birthday.

Didn't He Know You Pay the Fiddler?

David Lawrence Says:

'Dictatorship Amendment' a Peril

WASHINGTON — The "dictatorship amendment"—as the proposal to remove all limits from the tenure of a president is now being called—hasn't much chance as yet to be passed by Congress. But it illustrates a significant and dangerous tendency—the desire of a political group to perpetuate itself in office through the use of governmental machinery.

LAWRENCE

On the surface, the proposed amendment — which would repeal the present constitutional provision limiting a president to two terms—appears to remove a discrimination because, as President Eisenhower said in an offhand remark at a press conference, any citizen should be eligible at any time to the presidency.

But the reasons for the present limitation had little to do with the right of some individual citizen to be a candidate.

Rather, the purpose was to prevent any political group or clique from getting a permanent or at least indefinite hold on the White House and the executive branch of the government.

Thus, the patronage and favors which an incumbent administration can bestow are so far-reaching in an electorate, where tens of billions of dollars a year are being spent by the federal government, that it would be easier now than ever before to get a stranglehold on local political organizations and to align pressure groups behind a continuing administration.

It seems odd, of course, to read that a Democratic Party congressman who sponsors the amendment is terribly sorry that Eisenhower is what is called a "lame duck" president.

The lament is that Eisenhower cannot wield White House power effectively because he is not permitted to be a candidate to succeed himself.

Just why any Democrat should be worried over the fact that Eisenhower is supposedly losing influence in his second term isn't too clear. For logically the present constitutional amendment should be working in favor of the Democratic Party, since Eisenhower, it is claimed, can't be politically as strong as he might have been without the third-term prohibition. Theoretically, therefore, the present provision is actually helping to elect a Democrat president in 1960.

Digging a bit deeper into the mystery, it would seem that the Democratic Party, which has become the majority party, has much to gain by lifting the ban on presidential tenure and giving the chief executive an indefinite lease on the White House, subject only to one election every four years.

If a dictatorship were to arise in America, it could come out of the tremendous power derived by a president from the right to continuous office.

This correspondent has always been opposed to any limitation of presidential tenure but only when it is also provided that the people may at any time remove a president or the Congress which would elect him.

This is what is known as the parliamentary system, which affords the people a chance to keep a good president but to turn one out of office at any time if he isn't satisfactory.

The fixing of a definite date for a presidential election means that political power can be concentrated over a four-year period and the electorate can be confused by a multiplicity of issues at the end of four years. Under a system, however, whereby an election can be held at any time, the people can focus on a single issue and decide for themselves whether they want a given policy continued or discontinued.

Dr. William Brady Says:

Why Are Pastors Silent on Pledge Against Liquor?

Here's a letter which I wish I could toss into the chucker and forget. I can't.

"Dr. Brady: My husband drinks to extreme. Members of the AA have talked to him and he has promised to attend their meetings, but he never does. He drinks so much it is affecting his mind. His boss has tried to persuade him to do something, but he won't. I'm afraid he will injure someone when driving. He has gotten so he can't face the neighbors. Is there anyone I may get to help me? (Signed) Mrs. ....."

DR. BRADY

My reply was as follows:

Dear Mrs. .... : If the man does not go IMMEDIATELY to Alcoholics Anonymous or to a psychiatrist in your community, whom your physician or any physician will recommend, you or any next of kin should apply without delay to a court to commit the man to a suitable hospital or sanitarium for treatment.

This is for the man's own good and the good of his family and community. Yes, you can get a minister, rabbi or priest to help you.

A letter like that brings up again all the misery, heartache, poverty, disgrace, crime, suicide that indulgence in alcohol brings to the family or dependents of the addict. All the revolting tragedies due to alcoholism—tragedies I have seen and every doctor sees in the course of his or her own practice.

MINISTERS SILENT

Then I get to thinking about the downright fearful silence, the "dignified" silence, of the ministers, rabbis and priests on the proposal that youngsters under their influence be asked to take a pledge not to use alcohol or tobacco before the age of 21.

I'd be happy to hear from any reader who knows of a pastor who persuades young people to take and keep a pledge against the use of alcohol and/or tobacco before the age of 21.

Incidentally, the members of AA who talked to this addict were exceptionally kind. As a rule, and experience has shown it is a good rule, Alcoholics Anonymous consider it is for the drinker to go to them, attend one of their meetings, if he or she wants help.

So it is not enough for the alcoholic casualty to promise to go to an AA meeting. He must actually go—and if he does, he and his friends may well bless the day he took that step.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

The Country Parson

"I read that an average of about 5 per cent of family income goes for medical care—I guess we're willing to spend more to keep our bodies alive than our souls."

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Here's New Approach to College

Girls, you may think I am giving you a fairy-tale account of college when you read this case, but it is really true. Imagine a college dormitory in the Pent House of a great metropolitan hotel! And with courses on practical subjects like how to develop charm, an attractive telephone voice, and the culture techniques of airplane hostessing.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE A - 439: Earlier this week I mentioned President J. R. McCartan, talented head of the Robert Morris School in Pittsburgh.

CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he began as we had dinner together prior to the Commencement Exercises, "you may wonder at our being located in this big Penn-Sheraton Hotel.

"But it is an excellent site, right down here in the heart of Pittsburgh. And we have also negotiated with the hotel to use the Pent House as one of our girls' dormitories.

"We are putting 50 girls there with a very competent house mother in charge.

"It wasn't quite ready for us at the beginning of the last term, so the hotel graciously agreed to set off one wing on a top floor and let our girls occupy the regular hotel rooms till the Pent House was redecorated.

"The hotel also has marked off a section in the dining room where our girl students may eat and at a modest cost.

"When we first debated locating our school here in the hotel, we wondered at the possible reaction of parents.

"But it has proved so successful that we have also moved our downtown center here to the hotel to be under one roof.

"And our student body now approaches 2,500, so we are larger than the usual university in America.

"What do you think of our hotel location and Pent House dormitory?"

STREAMLINED COLLEGE

Well, I think if Hollywood producers ever wish to get a very unique backdrop for a new college movie, they should head for Pittsburgh.

Can't you imagine the coed heroine being dropped off at her Pent House dormitory by her college sweetheart?

Can't you see the modernity indicated by jammed corridors full of attractive students, milling around a battery of hotel elevators?

On an earlier trip to the Robert Morris School, I had been unable to get into Dean John T. Zebroski's office because the corridors were jammed with pretty coeds, waiting to get the autograph of Rock Hudson, who was then stopping at the Penn-Sheraton.

NEW EDUCATIONAL ERA

The Robert Morris School especially pleases me because of its practical grasp of the new trends in education.

For example, it has recently taken into its curriculum a successful school for airplane hostesses.

In addition, it has included a Charm School where girls are taught specific techniques, a la Hollywood, regarding how to dress appropriately and how to walk and talk, develop a melodious telephone voice, etc.

Robert Morris School thus typifies the future of higher education.

The trend in college sites is somewhat similar to that of domestic dwellings. Instead of having large, unwieldy homes, difficult to heat and requiring several maids to keep in order, the modern compact home stresses a few rooms, efficiently located to save extra steps.

Many of our college campuses even now waste 10 to 20 minutes forcing students to walk through winter blizzards from one building to another, half a mile away.

And the vast campuses require many men to keep them mowed and landscaped.

With our zooming population, colleges are growing more efficient so a central hotel location like that of the Robert Morris School is superb.

Voice of the People

Readers Respond to Letter Calling Children 'Softies'

In answer to Eighty Four, blaming school officials for young softies, I agree our children are softies, as far as walking is concerned, but blame parents, not school officials.

As long as they go to school by bus, you can't blame school officials for not being foolhardy enough to put a bus load of children on treacherous roads in zero weather.

They have a great responsibility and I for one appreciate that fact.

Mrs. R.

Lake Orion

Amen to Eighty-Four.

Twenty-Nine

I agree with the Voice of the People letter signed "Eighty Four." Apparently the school authorities that fold up and quit aren't as hardy and healthy as their children.

On one of the worst days, the bus couldn't drive its regular route and my six-year-old daughter, along with half a dozen others, trooped cheerfully three-quarters of a mile on the ice and then did the same when they came home.

When my youngster reported she was back, she immediately went out and played until dark with other little boys and girls her age and they had a wonderful time for an hour and a half. They hated to come in and the mercury was five above zero.

We aren't raising spoon-fed, hothouse children in our neighborhood. They're real American boys and girls and the fuddy-duddy school authorities better start learning from the children.

'Doesn't He Want Them to Improve?'

Recently someone came out in your paper with a ridiculous idea, that every welfare victim should be deprived of his car if he has one. I bet that person considers himself a Christian and at the same time wants to see these unfortunate people flat on their backs, never to be able to look for work and extricate themselves from the predicament they're in, from no fault of their own.

Never Been on Welfare

'Too Few Want to Be of Help'

Detroit has enough police department problems to worry about without dragging Pontiac into its papers. Everyone is too critical of the top job man, instead of trying to realize what a responsibility he gives to the public. If he doesn't have the help and cooperation of his men, he cannot follow through.

So many of the underranking officers want the chief's job, instead of assisting him efficiently. We all know each and every man on the entire force cannot get printed due credit for his work, but if all would accept this fact, there would be a higher morale among the men.

Too few want to assist. Most want to be boss. How many of us civilians realize Chief Straley has a superior department to work under?

Seconds Praise of Summerfield

Thank you sincerely for your editorial about Mr. A. E. Summerfield. I read his speech and it was fine. I agree with you that C. E. Wilson, A. E. Summerfield and Wilber Brucker are men to be proud of and reflect honor on us.

Readers Disagree on Other Letter

My friend, Freeman Clark, I agree with you. I had a little instance happen to me a couple of years ago when an attorney sent the deputy to get me because I couldn't pay. Another guy was with him in case I got tough and they had a silent partner in the car. Brother, I wonder how many there would have been if I had had a water pistol in my hand. There's one thing for sure. We have too many Batistas in Pontiac. What we need is a Fidel Castro.

Marvin Beyer

517 N. Saginaw St.

Is Mr. Clark kidding? Does he think men who are supposed to support children they fathered and walked out on are being abused?

The amount of child support is set by the court according to the man's earnings. If he doesn't pay, he's brought to court, given a hearing. The court gives him every opportunity to catch up and then in extreme cases he's put in jail. As for that judge, I'd like to shake his hand. It's about time something's done about these delinquent fathers.

The statement that there aren't enough jails to hold all the men behind in their child support payments proves my point. It's the most important obligation of all and the first they let slide.

'Greedy Rich Men Cause Inflation'

The union doesn't cause high prices and inflation. It's the millionaire's greed for money. I've been working one place 31½ years and the car I helped produce is one that sells for four or five thousand dollars. The labor cost three or four hundred dollars.

Take beef, for instance. You pay 79 cents to $1.09 a pound and the labor is 3.4 cents. Take milk: The farmer gets four to six cents a quart and where I work you pay 18 cents a pint. This will show the union doesn't cause high prices.

Wake up, you greedy rich men, before it's too late.

Bad Driver Commutes by Plane

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—With his auto driver's license suspended, William G. Hopp is commuting by plane to the Minneapolis workhouse to serve a 30-day sentence which permits him daytime freedom.

Hopp works near his home in suburban Robbinsdale. He takes a cab to a nearby airport each evening. There he climbs into his 65-horsepower plane and, in four minutes, lands on the ice of Parkers Lake, where the workhouse is located. Mornings, he reverses the procedure.

"It's okay with us," said Rolf Stageberg, workhouse superintendent. "It appears to be perfectly legal."

Hopp drew the term Jan. 13 for driving after his license was suspended.

Pope's Aim Is Unity With East

Other Church Leaders Concluded After Study of Vatican Call

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Pope John's call for an ecumenical council is aimed primarily at achieving a reunion of the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox churches which parted ways in the "Great Schism" of 1054.

That is the one firm conclusion reached by church leaders of all major denominations after 48 hours' intensive study and consultation on the Pope's surprise move.

Major protestant bodies are awaiting clarification from the Vatican to find out (1) whether they will be invited to participate in the council; and (2) whether the invitation will be on a basis that they would regard as acceptable.

In the past, the Vatican has insisted that the christian family can be re-united only by non-Roman churches "returning to the fold" and accepting the authority of the Pope.

Neither the Eastern Orthodox nor any Protestant church has been willing to negotiate on these terms.

Ever since Pope John announced Sunday his intention of summoning a universal council to consider church unity, leaders of other churches have been studying his statement closely.

Promote your present Circuit Court Commissioner as ONE OF YOUR FIVE CIRCUIT COURT JUDGES

Having served Oakland County for 22 years, and having heard thousands of cases as Commissioner, Mr. Hampton is well qualified to now serve as your Circuit Judge. As past president of Oakland County Bar Association, he is personally acquainted with all members of the profession and recognizes their many problems. His judicial temperament, sincerity and courtesy in office makes him an outstanding candidate for this important position.

Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls held its annual meeting Tuesday evening at the Community Services Building. Theodore Wiersema, newly elected president, looks over plans for the coming year with Mrs. Donald Beck, director.

Camp Fire Girls Council Here Elects Officers, Reviews Year

Theodore Wiersema was elected president of the Pontiac Council of Camp Fire Girls at the organization's annual meeting Tuesday evening in the Community Services Building.

Assisting officers will be Richard Jarvis, first vice president; Mrs. L. Raymond Sampson, second vice president; Mrs. Leslie Seay, secretary; and Edward Ladd, treasurer.

Re-elected to the board of directors, the governing body of the council, were Mrs. George Carpenter, Edward Ladd, William McLean, Mr. Jarvis, and John Wilson, past president.

Newly elected to the board were Mrs. Otis Allen, Lynn D. Allen Jr., William Brace, Carroll Braid, the Rev. Joseph Chapman, Clifford Grovogel, Mrs. Paul Kern and Dr. Maurice Thome.

Also serving on the board are Dr. Daniel McGeen, Eldon Gardner, Mrs. J. A. Hubbard, Mrs. Charles Uligian, Mrs. Melvin Boersma, Mrs. I. J. Davis, Mrs. Monroe Osmun and Mrs. Lloyd Smith.

DONATIONS MADE

The Civitan Club of Pontiac and the Camp Fire Council each presented checks for $1,000 to the council's permanent camp site trust fund. The fund, which now totals $13,500 will be used to construct permanent buildings at Camp Oweki, the Camp Fire camp site near Clarkston.

Civitan President Joseph Davis presented the check to Thomas Temple, fund trustee. Camp Fire's check was presented by Diane Godfrey, a Blue Bird.

In reviewing the council's accomplishments in 1958, Mr. Wilson pointed to the strengthening of board and committees, improvements in program for girls and training for leaders, and the opening of a winterized cabin at Camp Oweki.

DRAMATIZATIONS GIVEN

A typical group meeting was demonstrated by the I Yo PTA group of McConnell School, while a tea party was dramatized by the Jolly Birds of Wever School. Hawthorne's Ei Ha Wee group portrayed an overnight stay at camp.

Chairman of the annual meeting was Mrs. Monroe Osmun. Assisting were Doris Beck, executive director, and Jane Strom, field director.

Camp Fire Girls is a national organization serving the leisure-time needs of all interested girls, 7 to 18. The local council is supported by the Pontiac Area United Fund.

Thomas Temple, center, trustee of the trust fund for the council's permanent camp site accepts $1,000 checks for the fund from Joseph Davis, president of the Civitan Club, and Diane Godfrey, a Blue Bird member who presented the Camp Fire Council's check.

Keep Menus Simple as the Others

Never Embarrass Former Hostesses With Splurging

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: Recently four couples formed an evening bridge club, meeting every other week. At the first two meetings the refreshments served were very simple. The bridge club is to meet at our house next week and I was planning to serve more elaborate refreshments.

"When I mentioned this to my husband he said that it would be wrong to do this and that it would not only make the others feel that I was trying to outdo them but also make them feel that in the future they had to follow suit. Is it necessary that I follow what the others do or may I serve something different without belittling them?"

Answer: I agree with your husband that if you serve elaborate refreshments you will make the other hostesses of your bridge club uncomfortable. You should serve the same simple menus the others do.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I am very confused as to which shoulder flowers should be worn. I always thought that they should be worn on the left shoulder, but recently I have noticed many women wearing them on the right shoulder. Will you please tell me which is correct?"

Answer: Generally they are worn on the left shoulder, especially if she expects to dance and also perhaps because it is easier for a right-handed person to pin the flowers on her left shoulder. It is, however, more important to try the flowers on before a mirror and then pin them on wherever they seem most becoming and look best with the dress.

"Dear Mrs. Post: At an informal dinner is it proper to put celery and olives on the bread-and-butter plate, or should they be put on the dinner plate? And what about jellies and other accompanying relishes?"

Answer: Pickles, jellies or condiments intended to be eaten on or with the meat are always put on the meat plate. Olives, radishes or celery are put on the bread-and-butter plate.

If You Don't Love Him, Lose Him—Abby

Pity Is Hopeless Foundation on Which to Build Marriage

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: They say 'History repeats itself' and I know it is true because my mother says she married my father because she felt sorry for him and now the same thing is happening to me.

ABBY

"I accepted an engagement ring from a boy because I felt sorry for him. The only reason I started going with him in the first place was because I felt sorry for him and never had the nerve to break off with him. I am 21 and he is 22 and I wish I knew how to tell him I really don't love him without hurting his feelings. Please help me."

SORRY FOR HIM

DEAR SORRY: If you marry a man because you "feel sorry for him"—you will be feeling sorrier for yourself in a few years. The kindest thing you can do for him is to return his ring NOW and let him find a girl who will give him love not pity.

"DEAR ABBY: My daughter is engaged to marry a brilliant young man who is studying political law. He was president of his fraternity, president of his class and has been awarded a Student Senate Key for outstanding service to his college. He was recently honored by the Masonic Order for potential future leadership, and now he has made Law Review.

"With all these accomplishments he has the most disgusting table manners I have ever seen. He simply eats like a pig! My daughter is aware of this, but gets angry when I mention it. How she can marry him knowing she must sit across the table from him for three meals a day for life is beyond me. Should I buy him a book on table manners, or is there a more tactful way?"

FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: As his future mother-in-law, you'd be wise to reserve your criticism. Quit needling your daughter about it and let her correct him in her own way in her own time.

"DEAR ABBY: My sister-in-law and I are expecting about the same time. The problem is I told her if I had a boy I was naming him JEFFREY and if I had a girl I'd call her JILL. She says those are the names she likes, and I know that she never would have thought of them if I hadn't mentioned them.

"I named my first born SANDRA and when she had a little girl two months later she named hers SANDRA, too. We both have the same last names as we are married to brothers and our children will be confused forever after. If she has her baby first I know she will use MY favorite name. How can I stop her?"

ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: You can't stop her. Suggest a few other names, and perhaps one might appeal to her. But if she uses your favorite name first, you'd better be ready with an alternate.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend comes to see me right after he's had hamburger and raw onions. I don't have to tell you how he smells. Then he gets affectionate and expects me to kiss him. What should I do?"

FLOORED

DEAR FLOORED: Eat onions in self-defense or give him a kiss that will "take his breath away."

Blue Star Unit Fetes Member on Anniversary

Past president Mrs. George Leinenger was honored for her 49th wedding anniversary at the meeting of Blue Star Mothers Chapter 4, held at the YMCA Tuesday evening.

Letters from the national president were read telling about the national convention held in Miami. Mrs. Emma Dando is the recording secretary for the coming year.

Thank-you cards from veterans, expressing appreciation for aid given by members of the group, were read.

Tip to Teeners

Teenagers should know that their shoe sizes change about every six months. Therefore, when buying new shoes, they should ask a salesman to measure their feet for a proper fit.

Children Feel Need for Protective Coloration

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

This morning, Terry, a bright-eyed, pig-tailed neighbor of ours, returned our worn copy of "Winnie the Pooh."

"Oh, I liked Roo best," she said. "I understaald him. Kanga is always fussing over him like Mommy does with me and he never listens."

Then, unbuttoning her coat, Terry skipped over to me. "See, I've got a bulky sweater," she said. "I hid the one Mommy bought me under my mattress so she had to buy me this one. I'd told her I wanted a bulky sweater instead of that old button-down-the-front kind. But she didn't listen.

"I was the only girl in my class with a button-down-the-front sweater. You have to have a bulky one like this. It's got a rolled-over collar, too, see?"

Once I'd have asked Terry why she had to be sweatered like everyone else in the third grade. This morning I didn't. I just said, "Have you told your mother how you'd hid your old sweater to make her get this one?"

At eight years of age and for some time thereafter, conformity seems to mean safety to children.

A nonconformist myself, I've found youthful conformity easier to take since I've begun to think of it as a by-product of fear of attack.

If you're an elephant or a lion, you are so strong and powerful that you don't mind other animals recognizing your difference. Indeed you advertise it by trumpeting and roaring.

But if you're an antelope or zebra, neither strong nor powerful, you efface yourself either by the speed with which you can run or by the protective coloration. You disappear from view so that the enemy can't find you and eat you up.

Terry, at eight, has little social strength and power. So she loves the conforming bulky sweater that enables her to disappear from view by looking like all the other girls in her class and protects her against their critical attention.

Understanding this, we may be able to provide the newest fads in bulky sweaters and red tights in good spirit instead of saying impatiently, "Goodness, why do you always want to look like everyone else?"

Return to Nature Seen in Jewelry

Borrowing the shape and coloring of flowers—and the birds, the bees and the butterflies—is one of the most beautiful high-fashion jewelry trends of the season.

These lovely facsimiles of nature's flowers are done in many ways—in enamel, in tiny, multi-colored beads, in real or fake stones, in gold, in ivory in crystal—and appear in necklaces and earrings and, most especially, pins.

We're All Human

Discouraged About Backsliding?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

One day each week during the eight weeks of my 8-Week Self-Improvement Marathon I give you more suggestions to help you reach your goal.

Are you sticking to your calorie counting? Are you making a daily and determined effort to correct or improve any defect in good looks which you may have? OR, have you done some backsliding? Is your determination firm or do you need a little pep talk from someone?

Here I am to give it to you! We are all human and we must keep the goal ahead bright in our mind's eye in order to succeed. If you have any tendency to weaken, stand in front of a full length mirror and take an honest look at your figure.

Then imagine how you want to look and CAN look just a few short weeks from now! How would you like to be inches smaller in the waist, to lose those pads of fat over the abdomen and hips and those bulges on the thighs? How would you like to have better posture? Just a few small changes can make a great difference in your appearance.

Do not plan two sets of menus—one for your family and one for you. This is not necessary. If you eat as you should when reducing, the menus you plan for yourself will act as a skeleton for your family menus. Lean meat, fresh vegetables and fruits, fruit juice, eggs, some whole grain product and baked potatoes, all have a place on your menus.

You can add calories to meals with desserts, larger helpings or second helpings, more salad oils, dressings, gravy, sauces and whole milk instead of skim or powdered fat free milk.

You can remove your portions of vegetables from the pot before seasoning the family's and then use a much smaller portion of butter or margarine on yours, or on some vegetables, such as greens, you may use vinegar. You can put a reducers' dressing on your salad and the usual one on theirs.

Just as a little example to show you what a difference the preparation of food can make: You can give them baked apples with butter and sugar and a marshmallow on top while you can eat yours raw. This can make a difference of more than 200 calories.

Keep the picture of the future YOU alive in your mind!

If you failed to join Marathon and would like to have my 8-Week Self-Improvement Marathon booklet, send 10 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Josephine Lowman in care of this newspaper.

The surest way to lose friends is to tell them something for their own good.

Walter Lorell of New York creates the "Mystery Woman" look with this high dome-shaped hat of cuffed white Bali straw covered with voluminous mesh veiling trimmed with a satin ribbon.

CONVERSATION BUILDERS

We have all experienced at sometime or other the "sunk" feeling that comes over us in a strange place and we can't think of a blessed thing to say.

Do these three things and you can use them as a conversation crutch anytime:

1. See a Play. A live stage play if possible, a good play on TV will do if it is a well known story.
2. Read magazine articles and absorb the facts enough to quote.
3. Select a Field of Interest (a sport, hobby or craft) and become an amateur authority on it. Share your knowledge.

One word of advice . . . do not rely entirely on any one, but all three of these aids.

Mrs. Sid Simpson Won House Seat Without Making a Single Speech

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

(This is the third of four articles by a noted Washington correspondent introducing you to the distaff side of Congress and describing what awaits a woman entering the House or Senate.)

WASHINGTON — A gentle, sweet faced newcomer to Congress inadvertently stirred up a tempest in a teacup on opening day. Like most crises on Capitol Hill, it was resolved by a compromise.

Mrs. Sid Simpson, overwhelmingly elected to her husband's seat in the House only 10 days after his sudden death last fall, mildly announced that she wanted to list her name exactly that way on her office door, and for the envelope franking mark.

The resultant uproar could have foreshadowed a bombing attack. "It's never been done," shouted her shocked colleagues.

Silver-haired, brown-eyed Mrs. Simpson of Illinois tried to stand her ground, explaining that she had made no speeches, answered no telephones and written no letters to capture the election.

"I wasn't the least bit interested in winning this seat," she said softly. "Every ballot cast for me was really a vote for Sid, and I want to keep his name alive."

THEY COMPROMISED

Stunned by such unique modesty, her male colleagues finally agreed to let her list her name as "Edna (Mrs. Sid) Simpson," since as a matter of fact her designation on the ballots that elected her had read "Mrs. Sid Simpson."

A congressional wife for 16 years, until her husband died of a heart attack only minutes after he had completed a speech dedicating a new hospital wing in his district, Mrs. Simpson is fortunate to inherit his all-feminine staff of trained workers.

Otherwise, she would feel as lost as she did on the day of the funeral when her husband's supporters urged her to run for his seat. The ballots had all been printed, they pointed out, and no time remained to build up another Republican candidate. She owed it to the party to try.

After her reluctant acquiescence, the ballots were recalled merely to insert the word "Mrs." before her late husband's name. She then won by 11,000 votes.

SOLD BUSINESS

The attractive, slim matron who looks a decade younger than her 67 years promptly sold the two automobile agencies which her husband had owned. She has no intention, however, of parting with the house in Carrollton, Ill., where she and Sid set up housekeeping together 38 years ago.

"Our two daughters were born there," she mused, "and I have never wanted any other house but that one."

Sid and Edna, high school sweethearts, married shortly after the young Marine returned from World War I. A married daughter now lives in Wisconsin, but Janet, 28, who had worked three years as a secretary in her father's House office, will continue at her mother's elbow.

Janet will be of inestimable value, particularly since she also did a year's stint as a secretary to former White House "assistant president", Sherman Adams and knows the inner workings of both branches.

Mrs. Simpson knows less about politics than most congressional wives, because except for her husband's first campaign, she invariably remained behind to keep the home fires burning.

"Sid was so loved that he didn't need me on the stump," she explains, "but he did need a hot dinner at night."

ASSIGNMENTS HEAVY

Devoted to her husband's memory, Mrs. Simpson filed a fervent request to serve on the Agriculture Committee which was his prime interest. Her district of Illinois is a farming area, but the GOP high command instead assigned her to the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee, and also to House Administration.

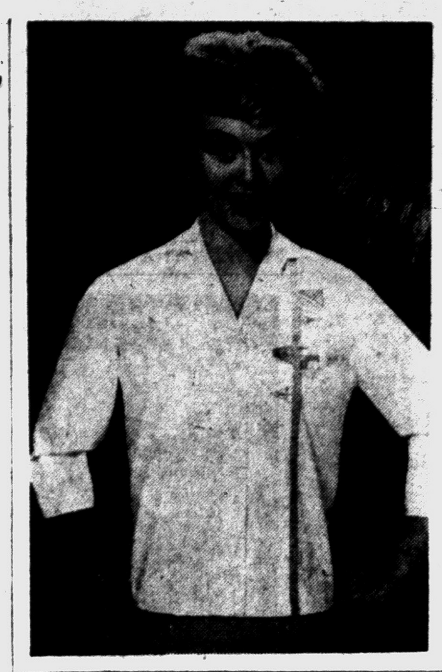

Already a member of the River and Harbors Committee which her husband served, Mrs. Simpson now finds herself with more assignments than any of the other new congresswomen.

The soft-spoken widow is not yet permitting herself to think beyond the next two years. Asked whether she intends to seek re-election, she replied frankly:

"I just don't know, but I do know that I am going to work hard and do the best job I can in the 86th Congress."

Then, with a far-away look in her luminous eyes, she smilingly added: "But all I really want to do is sit in a rocking chair and rock."

This straight-cut broadcloth overblouse embroidered with nautical motifs is just the thing to wear over skirts or shorts while on a winter vacation to warm places. And, of course, it can be worn tucked in, too.

Know a Good Candidate for '59 'Mother of Year'?

The Michigan Mothers Committee has launched the search for the 1959 "Mother of the Year."

Candidates for the national honor as America's most outstanding mother are being sought in 49 states, District of Columbia, Hawaii and Puerto Rico.

Seeking this state's representative, the Committee is sending out nominating blanks to clubs, churches, school districts and business organizations. The Michigan project is headed by Mrs. Charles Kuhn of Lake Angelus.

Nominating blanks may be obtained by writing: Michigan Mothers Committee, P. O. Box 203, Pontiac.

Completed blanks must be filled out exactly as required and must be submitted to the above address not later than March 1, in order to be eligible for consideration in the judging.

If you wear high heels all day, shift to flat-heeled slippers when you get home at night. It's a rest for your feet and legs.

But New Silhouette Has Softness, Charm

Paris Styles Reflect De Gaulle Austerity

PARIS (UPI)—Paris fashion designers are reflecting the austerity of Gen. Charles de Gaulle's fifth French republic.

Just as De Gaulle has sternly set the new France against the financial and political excesses of the past, the Paris collections for the spring season have thrown the extravagances of the sack, the trapeze and the empire line into the ragbag.

One fashion writer suggested the new fashions be dubbed the "Republican line" in De Gaulle's honor.

Not that there's anything severe about the new styles.

ECONOMICAL?

They may be economical in outline, padding bust, waist and hips where nature did, but they have all the usual Paris charm—and, of course, at no reduction in price.

Young Guy Laroche and Jacques Griffe, who designs for Maggy Rouff, were showing their spring collections today and it was doubted they would buck the no-nonsense trend back to simplicity and reality.

The return to normality of busts, waists and hips remains the fashion news. Skirts are worn decorously at the top of the calf and most dinner dresses hit the ankle.

Exaggeration is absent. Balmain and Ricci, who showed yesterday, could go into the belt business with all the waist cinchers they use. But their dresses don't look tightly corseted.

BELTS ARE NEWS

Young Michel Goma, who also showed his spring clothes yesterday, played belts even more loosely than the others.

Even the decolletes that appeared only in Nina Ricci's collection seemed appropriate as part of the silhouette that has brought back to life the female figure.

Admittedly, if you're too well endowed above the waist, you'd do better to pass up some of her ravishing necklines. But they're still in graceful line with the princess silhouette.

"Lingerie" touches in the form of organdy and chiffon blouses, and scarfs and collars appeared in all yesterday's collections.

Rounded shoulders are emphasized throughout—to give balance to the otherwise slim silhouette. The exception in shoulder lines was one shown young Goma.

Goma, a 26-year-old newcomer, is considered one of the bright young lights on the Paris fashion scene. He simply had to do something different. It took the form of a series of square-cut coats he said was inspired by a man's shirt hanging loose.

Every collection showed black, often accented by white, although before the models went on the runways designers said that spring tone would be light. There are, of course, the traditional pastels and vivid splashes of aqua, orange and every hue of pink.

NEW COLOR TONES

Several designers have introduced new shades of green, a color that is considered bad luck by French designers. Goma's was a brilliant line that startled the eye.

Fabrics are textured as demanded by the simple, straight line of the silhouette. There are lots of mohairs, loosely woven wools and shaggy looking fabrics for day. Embroidery and embossed prints give body to materials used for night. Fabric-covered buttons and fringes also accented smooth materials.

Polka dots appeared occasionally and checks practically took over Ricci's suit collection.

Old favorites like the shirtwaist dress and button-down-the-back overblouse won frequent applause from the press.

There is a definite emphasis throughout the collections on the two-pieced dress look.

JOHN H. WARGELIN

John H. Wargelin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wargelin of Voorheis road, has been granted a B.S. Degree in design from the University of Michigan's School of Architecture and Design. Vice president of the 1959 class in the architecture and design school, he has been elected to Tau Sigma Delta and Phi Kappa Phi, scholastic honor societies. This summer Mr. Wargelin will travel to Europe with the U. of M. Glee Club for the group's 1959 concert tour.

Sorority Sees Film on Cancer

Mrs. Russell Wainscott of the American Cancer Society showed the slides, "Time and Two Women," and Dr. Donald Niederluecke answered questions concerning the film when Alpha Sigma Nu Sorority members met at Elks Temple Monday evening. Husbands of members were guests for the evening.

Members were asked to bring boxed cards to the March meeting to be distributed to Pontiac State Hospital patients.

Mrs. Niederluecke also was a guest of the sorority. Chairman for the evening was Mrs. Lamar Pepple, assisted by Mrs. Olive Huntley and Mrs. Edwin N. Amidon.

Fashionette Club Sees Mexico Film

Mrs. John Neaves, a member of the Fashionette Club, showed movies of a recent visit to Mexico when the club met Tuesday at Adah Shelly Library.

The speaker told of attending a bullfight. She brought many souvenirs, including a number of handmade articles, to the meeting.

The club trophy was awarded to Mrs. Merle Crooks who lost the most weight during the week. New member Mrs. Frederick Root won last week's trophy.

A committee was appointed to study bylaws and make recommendations for revisions. Chairman is Mrs. Virgil Lewis, assisted by Mrs. John Reichert and Mrs. William Woodruff.

President Mrs. James Newbigging appointed Mrs. Matthew Fotheringham custodian of the awards. Mrs. Leslie Cooper was named chairman for a style show the club will sponsor.

Next week's program will feature a discussion of skin care, with Mrs. Evelyn Palmer as guest.

Workshop Held by Musicale

The Tuesday Musicale workshop was held at the Illinois avenue home of Mrs. Ferdinand Gaensbauer.

Mrs. Paul Kern was coordinator for the continuing study of polyphonic music for the 14th Century. Participating were Mrs. Duane Nicolls, Mrs. Clyde Marshbanks, Mrs. Gordon Woolcock, Mrs. O. L. Smith, Mrs. S. T. Angott, and Mrs. Geraline Snapp.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. T. A. Panaretos and Mrs. Snapp.

Soap Handy Here

When making furniture from plywood, lubricate the joints with soap. This will make the separate pieces fit together more easily.

Your Income Tax No. 2

File Proper Class of Return to Avoid Overpayment

(Yesterday's article explained which form to use. This one discusses the various classes of returns. Other topics to be explained are exemptions and taxable income, job-connected expenses, deductions and methods of checking your return. Clip and save all for help when you're ready to make out your return.

By FRANK CORMIER
AP Staff Writer

A lot of Americans pay Uncle Sam more taxes than they have to because they don't understand the four basic classes of income tax returns.

Two of the classes—the joint and the separate return—are more familiar than the others. The ones which remain an expensive mystery to many taxpayers are:

1. The special joint return for certain recent widows and widowers. This gives the same tax advantage as a regular joint return.

2. The special "head of household" return for certain single people or those legally separated from their husbands or wives. This gives about half the advantage provided by a joint return.

THE SEPARATE RETURN

The separate return is for single taxpayers or those married taxpayes who prefer to file individual returns. While married couples almost always pay a lower tax if they file jointly, they must file separate returns if:

1. Either the husband or wife was a nonresident alien at any time during 1958.

2. Husband and wife use different tax years, as when the wife pays taxes on a calendar year basis and the husband uses a fiscal year—July 1 to June 30, for example.

3. The husband and wife became divorced or legally separated during the year.

If separate returns are filed, each individual must report his own income and list his own exemptions and deductions. If one itemizes, the other must also itemize.

Many states have community property laws which credit the wife with half the family income even though she earns nothing herself. Taxpayers in these states may split the family income if they file separate federal tax returns. In all other states, however, the wife may report on her separate return only her own separate income.

In community property states, decductions paid out of community funds may be split equally if husband and wife file separately.

A CHOICE OF FORMS

Separate returns may be filed either on form 1040 or 1040A, depending on which best fits your situation and, of course, provided you qualify to use form 1040A.

The joint return can be used by any couple married as of last Dec. 31. It doesn't matter whether the wife actually had any income. However, the return must list all income of both husband and wife and both must sign it.

If your husband or wife died during 1958, even on the first day of the year, you can still file a joint return and claim an exemption for your deceased spouse.

A joint filing saves money for most couples because it usually puts them in a lower tax bracket. In effect, the tax is calculated on only half of the family income, then is doubled. This is quite different, and cheaper, than calculating the tax on the full income to start with.

If in doubt about what you should do, figure your tax on both a joint and separate basis. Choose the method that gives you the lowest tax. Normally there are only two situations in which a married couple can lower their tax bill by filing separately:

1. If both have capital losses of $1,000 or more. Since not more than $1,000 of capital losses can be deducted on any one return, separate filings permit deduction of $2,000.

2. If both husband and wife have income but only one has substantial medical expenses. Separate returns sometimes pay because, if you're under 65, you can deduct only those medical and dental costs which exceed 3 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

The third class of tax return can be used if your husband or wife died during 1956 or 1957 and you meet certain qualifications.

This return must be filed on form 1040. You claim only your own exemption and deductions. However, in figuring out your tax you use schedule two on page 15 of the instructions. This is the same schedule used in filing a regular joint return.

Here are the qualifications you must meet to get this tax break:

1. You must not have remarried through the end of 1958. If you have, you can file a joint return anyway.

2. You must have been entitled to file jointly with your deceased spouse at the time of death (he or she was not a nonresident alien, etc.).

3. Since then you must have furnished over half the maintenance of your home which is the principal living place of your child or stepchild for whom you're entitled to claim a dependency exemption.

If your husband or wife died before 1956, you still may qualify as a "head of household."

This return, which can be made only on form 1040, is for single, widowed, divorced or legally separated persons who maintain a household. It also applies to anyone married during 1958 to a nonresident alien.

The special tax rates which you use are given in schedule three on page 15 of the instruction booklet. These are the requirements you must meet:

1. You must furnish over half the cost of maintaining a home which is the principal residence of both you and your unmarried child, stepchild or grandchild, even though not a dependent of yours, or any other relative whom you can claim as a dependent.

2. Or you must pay more than half the cost of maintaining a separate household for your father or mother, if either qualifies as your dependent. The test here is whether you pay more than half the cost of keeping the home, including such things as mortgage interest, rent, taxes, insurance on the home, etc.

Tomorrow: Your exemptions and your income.

Says He Paved Way for Economic Growth of Soviet

Khrushchev Switches Party Line on Stalin Again

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The Soviet Communist party's 20th congress two years ago heard Joseph Stalin blasted as tyrant and murderer. The current 21st congress has heard him praised as the man who paved the way for enormous economic growth in the Soviet Union.

The same man, Nikita S. Khrushchev, made the two statements. Why?

The answer apparently is closely connected with Khrushchev's battle with his opposition inside the Communist party Central Committee. His backtracking indicates he is confident he has won that battle and can safely restore Stalin to a respectable niche in the gallery of Bolshevik heroes.

Khrushchev's denunciation of Stalin in the same forum two years ago was so emotional and so violent that one felt there must have been some element of genuineness in it. Stalin, indeed, might have wiped out his whole Politburo family had he retained his health.

But the dethroning of Stalin at the same time linked with Stalin those who had been closest to the old dictator—Georgi M. Malenkov, Stalin's successor as premier; V. M. Molotov, the old war horse, and Lazar Kaganovich, the old one-time iron dictator of the Ukraine where he had been Khrushchev's boss for a time.

By allying himself with the second generation Communists — those who knew nothing of the violent revolution except from books and who hardly could be classed as Bolsheviks — Khrushchev marshalled enough strength to drive his rivals out of the party leadership.

But de-Stalinization always had in it an element of political danger to a dictatorship. It seemed clear in the two years since the denunciation that it had led to what the hierarchy considered harmful results, relaxations and arguments. It seemed clear, also, that Khrushchev wanted the party ranks gradually to forget about his denunciation, and to place Stalin in a historical niche several cuts below that of Bolshevik demigod, a role Stalin assumed in his later years.

Khrushchev now can afford to begin that process. The angry denunciations of the so-called anti-party group of Malenkov, Molotov and former Premier N. A. Bulganin which preceded this congress hinted that Khrushchev was about ready to put the finishing touches on his political victory. Apparently he can, if he chooses to do so at this moment, use the congress to have the whole antiparty group denounced, disgraced and finally read out of the Communist party itself.

This power is a potent threat over any opposition in the Central Committee or the ruling party Presidium to Khrushchev's economic and foreign policies.

It is late in life for Khrushchev to attempt to build a cult about himself such as Stalin built. A shrewd man, Khrushchev may be aware he cannot quite make that come off. But his marathon address to the congress' opening session was so lyrical and so lavish in superlatives about the successes of the U.S.S.R. economy as to suggest that Khrushchev was singing a hymn to his own leadership.

Praise for Stalin at this point shows not only that Khrushchev is confident of his own position and prospects, but demonstrates a contempt for the mental processes of Communist party faithful throughout the world. They may be required once again to do one of their humiliating intellectual flip-flops.

Recently the satellite Communist press and officials of the satellite countries openly have been praising Stalin as a fountain of Marxist dogma. Partly responsible for this has been the Soviet party's quarrel with Tito of Yugoslavia, whose deviation is regarded as dangerous to the monolithic structure of the Communist world movement. Tito is accused of revisionism in refusing to recognize Moscow's ascendancy in all things respecting the development of the Communist movement.

Stalin made similar accusations against Tito for similar reasons. He, too, found relaxations of any sort in the Communist-ruled world to be dangerous to the Kremlin's authority over the empire it seized after World War II.

Waterford Report on Recreation Activities Out

Many questions regarding Waterford Township recreation activities at the Community Center have been answered in a Newsletter distributed to area residents.

Operating on a yearly budget of $25,000 the Recreation Department provided activities for more than 9,000 perons in 1958, according to director Thomas Belton.

The program included junior and senior basketball leagues, with 500 playing on 40 teams throughout the winter season.

Also included in the eight year-old Recreation Department's activities were ladies exercise gym classes, cake decorating, dog obedience training and square and ballroom lessons. An archery league also was a successful project last year.

A fund for tennis courts has been established, and as soon as there is enough money to construct courts this sport will be added to the long list of available year-round sports activities, Belton said.

Officers Get Praise for Low-Down Duty

BALTIMORE (AP) — The police commissioner got a letter which commended three officers — for good work below the line of duty, you might say.

Attorney James A. Ostendorf explained how he accidentally dropped his watch into the water drain by a downtown curb.

The three officers combined to help Ostendorf retrieve the timepiece.

One furnished a bent paper clip, another tied it to a piece of string and a third manipulated the string to pull the watch out from under the grate.

Campaign Raises $682.50 for Tot's Leukemia Fight

AVON TOWNSHIP — A check for $682.50 was presented yesterday afternoon to Mrs. Louis Castor, mother of five-year-old leukemia victim Johnny Castor. The money was raised Monday night in a porchlight campaign conducted by leaders, co-leaders and mothers of the Elmwood School Girl Scouts.

Johnny was a student at Elmwood School when he was stricken with the dread disease — cancer of the blood.

At least 70 area women—and three men—participated in the house-to-house campaign for Johnny which covered Auburn Heights, Avon Township and a large section of Rochester.

The three men who joined the women knocking on doors were Lawrence Edingfield, Bobby Farris and Ellsworth Morris.

The group which conducted the drive has also placed appropriately-marked canisters in area stores to augment the Johnny Castor Leukemia Fund. The canisters will be picked up Saturday or Monday and the money turned over to Johnny's family to help pay mounting medical expenses. The courageous youngster goes back to the hospital every other day for treatment.

Mrs. Edingfield said Mrs. Castor was "so excited she didn't know what to say" when she received the check yesterday at her home at 2965 Hartline Rd.

Johnny was there, too, lying on the couch, and Mrs. Edingfield said, "He's a darling with his red hair and large, saucer brown eyes."

Visitor Drops In and Entertains Herman, Gladys

A Commerce Township housewife properly described the descent of an unexpected visitor through her fireplace chimney yesterday when she told an Oakland County sheriff's deputy: "Suddenly to my ears there arose such a clatter, I ran to the living room to see what was the matter."

Sounds like Mrs. John G. Paget was expecting Santa Claus out-of-season. But instead she found a furious chase in progress between Herman, Gladys, and the unnamed and uninvited visitor.

Herman and Gladys are the Padgets' pet cat. The visitor was a squirrel.

"The three were going around in circles," he said. After cornering the squirrel in the bathroom, Mrs. Padget called for deputies.

Deputy Donald W. Fauser came to the rescue. He and the distraught housewife opened the living room windows, ushered Herman and Gladys to a safe distance, and then succeeded in "flushing" the squirrel out of the bathroom.

Another wild chase ensued for several minutes from one end of the Paget residence, at 8309 Dickert St., to another, only this time she and deputy Fauser took up where Herman and Gladys left off.

The squirrel, becoming quite panicky, left through a window as his assailants became quite winded, and the story ended happily—except for Herman and Gladys who were a little sore about missing all the fun.

B'nai B'rith Sponsors Six-Week Workshop

OAK PARK — The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith is sponsoring a six-week workshop in conjunction with the Department of Public Safety here, it was announced today by Mrs. Samuel S. Aaron, chairman of the Michigan Regional Advisory Board of the ADL.

The project, entitled "Community Relations and the Police," is being presented at the request of Public Safety Director Glenford Leonard.

Classes are being held Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m. and again from 4 to 6 p.m. in the Police Administration Building. The workshop will terminate Feb. 19.

The course is centered around the role of the peace officer in dealing with intergroup relations tensions and problems. It includes sessions on "Prejudice and Discrimination," "Civil Rights and the Law," "Organized Hate Movement," "Prevention of Violence," and utilizes audio-visual and audience participation techniques.

Participants also include public safety officers from Huntington Woods, Hazel Park and other neighboring communities.

Schools Cleared for Borrowing

State Finance Board Okays Request of 3 Systems in Area

The State Municipal Finance Commission has approved for borrowing a total of $580,000 for three area school systems.

Yesterday, Lamphere Public Schools in Madison Heights received permission for general obligation bonds of $375,000 for the construction of an elementary school on an undeveloped site near Dequindre and 12 Mile Roads, according to John Simonds, superintendent.

Construction of this school, which will make a total of six in the system, is expected to begin by March 1 and this money will pay for the site development, construction, furnishings and equipment, according to Simonds.

The commission approved the state aid application of $50,000 for the Holly Area School, according to Charles Coggins, superintendent.

He said today the money, which must be used by March 10, has been applied for to "meet current expenses, especially of salaries."

He explained that the system pays approximately $45,000 in salaries per month and it requested permission to borrow the money in anticipation of future needs.

C. K. Schickler, superintendent of Lapeer Public Schools, said today the $50,000 his district would be able to borrow against state aid would be for general operation of the schools.

SHADES OF PAUL BUNYON'S "BABE" — There's more to this huge replica of a Hereford steer than meets the eye. Named "The Champ," the 19-foot-long plastic steer has been featured in several national cattle shows and exhibitions. Inside, displays illustrate how the vital organs of the real animal convert feed into beef and how a cow makes milk. So lifelike is the exhibit that the steer's body gives off the sound of his heart beat. On loan to the Agriculture Dept., "The Champ" is being sent to Europe for display at trade fairs to promote the sales of U. S. farm products abroad.

Secret Missile Plant in Area Unveiled by Chrysler Today

STERLING TOWNSHIP—Chrysler Corp. today is taking the wraps off its previously top secret missile plant at 16-Mile and Van Dyke roads here. This is the plant where short-range Redstone missiles and intermediate range Jupiter rockets move down parallel assembly lines.

Also ready for showing on a newsmen's tour was so-called ground support equipment, roughly estimated to cost 50 per cent as much as the missile it fires. This includes special hauling vehicles, electrical power trucks, cranes and fuel wagons.

On its parallel lines, Chrysler starts missiles as raw sheets of aluminum and steel. At the end of the line they emerge ready to fire.

As many as 300,000 parts are assembled on the parallel lines to form a single missile. And elaborate test installations are maintained to put the missiles through simulated launchings and flights.

Chrysler describes its ground support equipment as "miniature Cape Canaverals on wheels," used by both Army and Air Force units to transport, set up, fuel, test and fire Redstones and Jupiters in the field.

The plant has 2,100,000 square feet of floor space, all on one level.

The 500-mile range Redstone has become an operational weapon assigned to U.S. Army units deployed in Europe.

The Air Force reportedly plans to equip three squadrons, 15 missiles to a squadron, with Jupiters which will reach out to 1,500 miles.

Chrysler released figures today to show there have been 35 successful Redstone launchings, including three tactical firings by troops, against three unsuccessful ones.

It said there have been eight successful Jupiter-C firings, against one which was only partially successful, and eight successful Jupiter launchings, four partially successful ones and one failure.

In the Jupiter and Jupiter-C firings three nose cones were recovered, indicating, Chrysler said, a successful solution of the atmosphere re-entry problem.

Chrysler listed as successful the army's one firing of a Juno II rocket, a modification of the Jupiter, as a space probe.

Voters to Decide Sewage Bond Issue

City commissioners last night decided to put the sewage treatment plant bond issue proposition before voters again April 6.

An ordinance effecting the decision was given a first reading and will be up for adoption next Tuesday.

It will ask property owners to approve a $3,300,000 general obligation bond issue to finance a new plant and make improvements to the old.

The proposition has to be approved by a three-fifths majority of those voting in order to pass.

Wording of the proposition is the same as last Nov. 4, when a bond issue in a similar amount was voted down by a narrow nine per cent margin.

A similar bond issue, but in a lesser amount, was defeated by a larger majority in 1957.

Encouraged by last fall's better showing, the city hopes that the bond issue will meet with success this spring.

Because existing facilities are inadequate, city officials point out, Pontiac is polluting the Clinton River and the Water Resources Commission may order a new plant built.

Proponents of the bond issue have emphasized it would be cheaper for the average property owner to vote to build the plant, rather than be ordered to.

At the moment, Willman said, the water commission is not indicating if or when it will step into the Pontiac situation with orders backed up by the State Supreme Court.

He said that state officials have been pleased over the fact that efficiency at the existing plant has been brought up from 75 per cent in 1957 to 83 per cent last year.

But the plant is still operating at 12 points below the state's standards, Willman pointed out.

NOT A BOYCOTT — You can tell from the snow that this isn't Los Angeles, and they haven't boycotted cars to beat the smog problem. Farmington Youth, Another 'Confess'

Student Jailed in Arson

FARMINGTON—A Farmington student at Olivet College in Charlotte was jailed today to await Circuit Court trial on a charge of arson.

Phillip R. Hammial, 22, of 25897 Ridgewood Rd. waived examination and was bound over for trial after his arraignment yesterday in Charlotte Municipal Court.

He is being held at the Eaton County jail in lieu of $1,500 bond.

Sheriffs officers say Hammial and a fellow student, Bradley A. Richardson, 22, of Vandalia, have admitted setting fire to two vacant Eaton County Houses "for excitement." They were arrested Thursday.

Authorities report that the two students have given written statements in which they admit burning down one house last Wednesday and setting another one afire the previous Sunday.

Richardson is awaiting examination in county jail on the arson charge.

Protest House Absentee Votes

Want 13 Committees to Require in Person Ballot Casting

U. S. Rep. William R. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) and two other Republican congressmen today called for an end to proxy voting in 13 House committees which permit the practice.

"To encourage absenteeism," they said, "is to encourage the incomplete—hence the inefficient—use of congressional brainpower."

Reps. Fred Schwengel (Iowa), Broomfield and William Cramer (Fla) issued the statement after two motions to outlaw the practice were defeated at the first meeting of the House Public Works Committee yesterday.

They said of the 19 House Committees, 13 allow proxy voting of some type.

"In other wards," they said, "less than one-third of our committees have seen fit to withhold this dubious, unwarranted privilege from its membership."

The trio said only the committees on agriculture, banking and currency, house administration, interstate and foreign commerce, rules and veterans affairs ban such voting.

Rules of the House, the Republicans said, forbid voting by proxy and therefore committees shouldn't permit it either.

"This permissive attitude," they said, "violates both the rules of this chamber and the spirit of representative government."

The three said they are aware that short cuts must be found to enable congressmen to cope with all the demands made upon them, but added:

"When one of those short cuts amounts to virtually legalizing the failure to perform one of the most significant responsibilities a legislator faces, we have gone too far in our search for efficiency."

It is rather ironic, they said, that literally thousands of congressional man hours have been spent attempting to protect the right to vote "when in our own standing committees we continue to allow an indulgence which protects and enhances its abuse."

Jury Debating Alyea Murder Trial Verdict

The fate of Raymond L. Alyea, accused of killing a Southfield nursery caretaker, was being deliberated today by a Circuit Court jury.

In his instructions to the jury, Judge William J. Beer said the jurors could reach one of two possible verdicts—guilty of first-degree murder or not guilty.

The jury has been listening to testimony in the first-degree murder trial since Jan. 8.

Twenty-five witnesses were called by Assistant Prosecutor William E. Lang who sought to prove the 35-year-old ex-convict from Detroit killed Anthony Jasinski July 31 after robbing him.

Alyea's court-appointed attorney, William R. Beasley, attempted to show that Alyea walked in on a robbery of Jasinski and fled, afraid he might be implicated and returned to prison as a parole violator.

Blast at Steel Plant Kills One, Hurts One

DETROIT (AP)—One worker was killed and another critically injured today in a fiery explosion at the McLouth Steel Co. plant in Trenton.

The dead man was Joseph K. Cotey, 33. Glenn Mullin, 32, was admitted to Wyandotte General Hospital, where his condition was listed as critical.

Company officials said the men were running new steel through an acid bath when an eight-ton ingot broke loose and cut an oil hose. The oil spurted on a small floor heater and caused the explosion.

Damage to the plant was described as slight.

Southfield OES to Hold Good Neighbor Night

SOUTHFIELD — Good Neighbor Night will be featured during the special meeting of local Chapter 519, Order of the Eastern Star at 8 tonight in the Birmingham Masonic Temple.

The opening address is to be given by Rose Mahoney, worshipful matron of the Farmington chapter.

Local Company Gets Go-Ahead

To Construct $50,000 Edifice in Shop Center, Announces Broomfield

WALLED LAKE — The go ahead on construction of a new post office for Walled Lake has been given to the Robell Real Estate and Building Co., 1102 W. Maple Rd. here, it was announced today by Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland) in Washington.

The Robell firm will construct the proposed building for approximately $50,000 according to Forrest Hubbel, company spokesman. It will be leased to the U.S. Post Office Department for 15 years at an annual cost of $5,390, as is being done frequently nowadays.

The new post office will be located in the Walled Lake Shopping Center, adjacent to Butler's Bakery. It will have all of the features of the modern new Post Office in Pontiac plus air conditioning, according to J. Jehowski, who is U.S. Post Office Department real estate officer for the metropolitan area.

Government policy only recently has been changed to allow air conditioning of post offices in Michigan.

Broomfield said the size of Walled Lake's new post office will be 4,236 square feet with a second level of 288 square feet. It will feature 12,488 square feet for parking and maneuvering vehicles, and will be of brick and masonry construction with all new postal equipment of the latest design.

The building will be completed by July at the latest, Hubbel said, and construction will start in the early spring, weather permitting.

Argentina Chief Ends Detroit Tour

DETROIT (AP)—Argentine President Arturo Frondizi and his official party left Detroit at 10:50 a.m. today by special Air Force plane for New York City.

The president spent just short of 24 hours in the Motor City on a whirlwind tour of auto plants.

Frondizi said he hoped to make an aerial sightseeing trip around New York before landing at LaGuardia Field and his arrival there was adjusted to 2 p.m.

Asked yesterday in Detroit what his one great impression of America was, Frondizi replied: "The great friendliness of the American public."

Thief Changes His Mind, Wanted Later Model

CLANTON, Ala. (UPI)—A thief apparently did not like the 1954 Oldsmobile he stole from a local dealer.

Police said he abandoned it two blocks from the used car lot, returned and took a 1956 Oldsmobile, which is still missing.

Nearing Goal of 200 Sleepless Hours

Disc Jockey Amazes Doctors

NEW YORK (AP) — A young and comparatively unknown disc jockey stands today on the threshold of an unmatched medical achievement—200 sleepless hours under constant scientific watch.

Doctors and psychiatrists who have been watching him, and helping him fight off collapse, think Peter Tripp, 32, is a medical rarity. They also admire him for his driving determination. Without it, they say, nothing could have kept his eyes open so long.

Tripp's personality has changed what seemed like another publicity stunt into an interesting scientific experiment.

"There has never been such a study made before," says Dr. Louis Jolyon West, director of psychiatry for the University of Oklahoma Medical School. "This man has been under 24-hour psychiatric observation for over a week. Every utterance, every attitude during this great stress has been noted down. There is nothing we haven't measured. We know him through and through. And I'll tell you something, he's a man."

Tripp, who plays records nightly for three hours over radio station WMGM, started it all by saying he would stay awake 200 hours to draw attention to the March of Dimes campaign for funds. Furthermore, he would spend his time in a glass-enclosed recruiting booth in the heart of garish Times Square.

Pontiac City Affairs

Commission OKs $27,500 for Airport

An extra $27,500 for the Pontiac Municipal Airport terminal project wa okayed by the City Commission last night.

Commissioners voted to increase the city share in the federal-aid project from $70,000 to $97,500, after City Manager Walter K. Willman announced the project would cost more than was anticipated when estimates were originally prepared.

The preliminary plans approved by state and federal agencies reflect the fact that the terminal will be used by more people than anticipated, Willman said.

"But the state and federal governments have promised to up their shares in the cost if we will," he told commissioners.

Under the federal-aid formula, the federal government will pay half the cost, the state one-quarter and the city one-quarter.

That puts the new federal share at $195,000 and the state's and city's at $97,500 each, or a total of $390,000, which will be split into $240,000 for construction of the terminal and $150,000 for development of the surrounding area, said Homer D. Hoskins, airport manager.

The former total cost had been estimated at only $280,000.

Commissioners, in other business, set Feb. 17 as the date for two public hearing.

One is on a proposal to amend the zoning ordinance to add photographic studios to the personal service classification.

The other would give the Board of Appeals the right to allow non-profit parking on empty lots in areas where on-street parking is limited.

This proposal came up after Perry street business complained because parking is no longer allowed on their street.

Referred to the city manager for study was a request from the Pontiac Fire Fighters Assn., Local 376, asking that firemen be given their additional 24-hours off duty period once every six days instead of once every eight days at at present.

Charles Evans, an association member, said that this change had been made in numerous southeastern Michigan fire departments.

It was estimated that the city would have to employ 18 more firemen if the change was adopted.

Audubon Club Sponsors Nature Film at PNH

The Pontiac Audubon Club will make its first attempt at public entertainment Wednesday night in the theater auditorium at Pontiac Northern High School with the appearance of Walter P. Nickell, head of the science department at Cranbbrook.

Nickell, an authority on wildlife, will present his color film "Wild Friends At Home," a movie depicting life in the great outdoors. Nickell will narrate the film.

The show is free of charge.

Doors will open at 7 p.m. and the show is scheduled to begin at 7:30.

Bob Considine Says:

Castro Got Tanks in Roundabout Fashion

HAVANA—The victorious Castro forces got their tanks in a roundabout way. When 50 of them whirred and rattled into Havana it marked the end of what surely must be a record for distance covered by such hardware.

At the end of World War II the British gave the Egyptian army these light Staghounds, as they were called. They were hopelessly obsolete in armor and firepower, but they looked formidable enough to the army of King Farouk. Well, what with one thing and another, Farouk blew and now the tanks belonged to Gen. Naguib. Soon after that, they were Nasser's.

When the Israeli army invaded the Sinai Peninsula, there they stood—these armed jalopies—but they hardly raised their 20 millimeter voices. Their crews surrendered or fled. Now the tanks belonged to Israel, and back to Israel they rumbled when the U.S. called off that war by a democratic vote of one.

Israel took a second look at the venerable junk and began seeking a buyer. When the U.S. cut off military aid to Batista, the customer was instantly apparent. But the deal wasn't as simple as one might expect. The tanks were first sold to Dictator Somosa of Nicaragua. He prepared to sell them to Batista at a nice profit in which a New York middleman shared.

But wait. The Castro forces in the hills got wind of the deal and reacted with the only weapon then at their command.

Several of their undercover men in Havana made a sudden and furtive call on Count Miguel D'Escota, Nicaraguan ambassador to the Court of St. Fulgencio. They had a simple message for him. It said, "If your country sells those tanks to Batista, we'll kill you. Understand?"

The count understood with sharp clarity. He fervently relayed the information to his foreign office and was able to assure the rebel group, the next time they called on him, that Nicaragua would never, never, never dream of selling the tanks to the scourge of the Castro movement.

That same day, while motoring past an El Mariel pier, Count D'Escota noticed a freighter flying his country's flag. He paused to see what his beloved country was importing into Cuba. The rusty scow was unloading the 50 tanks, of course.

"Home, Jaime!" Count D'Escota ordered. He stopped scarcely long enough to pack a shirt and then flew off to Miami and put up at that obscure little hideaway named the Fontainbleu Hotel. All was serene for a few days. His chauffeur arrived from Havana with the new Cadillac. Life went on.

Then, a phone call. "Wherever you are, we'll get you," a voice said, and hung up. The voice wore a beard.

"To hell with this job!" cried the distressed victim of the international arms business. Diplomacy had lost a jewel.

The tanks were sent to Santa Clara for the decisive battle of the Cuban revolution. There, intact, they were captured by Castro's 1st Army, commanded by the Argentine doctor, soldier of war, and well-known leftist, "Che" Guevara. And Castro rode on into town.

Members of the American Bar Association who were invited by Dr. Castro to sit in on the trial of Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco at the Sports Palace last week are still somewhat unnerved. There were, let us say, a few opportunities for the defense to ask a mistrial.

For example, the president of the tribunal, the judge, led things off impartially by calling the prisoner a murderer, thief and assassin. One witness's testimony was interrupted by a prosecutor who bawled, "I call for the death penalty to be imposed immediately. There is no need for further witnesses."

On another occasion, Sosa Blanco's court-assigned lawyer inquired earnestly, "But how do we actually know these bodies were found and that this man killed the people?" The answer came from the judge himself. He said, "When the tribunal says there were bodies found and he killed them, there were bodies found and he killed them. Now proceed."

But Walk 26 Flights to Get to It

Firemen Put Out Blaze

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—It was only a small fire in some sawdust, but it took lung power to get it out.

The fire was at the very top of the new Prudential Insurance Building. Elevators haven't been installed, so firemen had to walk up 26 flights to get to the fire.

Hal Boyle Says:

Quit Rocking Cradle---Light a Stogy, Ma'am

NEW YORK (AP)—Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato:

How can life be made better for all in this woman's world we now dwell in?

Well, here's an idea for a starter: Why not encourage the ladies to take up cigar smoking?

In an era in which more and more value is placed on togetherness, the cigar remains one of the few symbols of apartness.

Women today talk like men, work like men, dress like men and drink like men. But very few—in this country anyway—have learned to smoke like men.

So far, in their invasion of former masculine prerogatives, the cigar has defeated them. Stick a cigar in the average woman's kisser, and she doesn't know what to do with it. She looks a bit like an anteater trying to blow up a football.

But it is doubtful if fair womanhood will ever make a real success of the equal rights movement until the ladies master the art of striking a kitchen match on the bottom of their slacks and lighting up a cigar in confident ease.

Why don't more women take up cigar smoking? Well, not for the reasons they give. They say cigars are dirty and nasty, and smell up the draperies. They say cigars taste bad—a slander if ever there was one. There are few aromas in nature more delicate and pleasurable than a puff of smoke from a fine clear Havana.

Many women with a connoisseur's palate for the finer joys of life have discovered this. They range from "Poker Alice," the lady gambler of the Western frontier, to poetess Amy Lowell, who was the very spirit of New England. The Italian actress, Anna Magnani, is among the noted feminine cigar smokers of today.

But you will note one pertinent thing about these three ladies—they are all talented, strong-minded decisive women. Herein may lie the real key to the mystery of why so many women avoid cigars, or openly attack them.

At the risk of alienating the unenlightened addicts of other forms of nicotine, I'd like to point out the basic superiority of the cigar smoker over both the cigarette and the pipe smoker.

Your typical cigarette smoker is often nervous and indecisive. Your typical pipe man is a life-beaten philosopher sending up smoke signals of futility.

But your typical cigar smoker is an expansive, aggressive, forceful optimist—a man of action, forthright and decisive. I give you, for examples, U. S. Grant, Gen. George S. Patton and Winston Churchill.

The man who smokes cigars is a man who can make up his mind. This, I submit, is why so few women today smoke cigars. They aren't the kind of people who really like to make up their mind.

For all their vaunted present power and influence, women still prefer to get by through their age-old arts of charm and evasion. As a cat hates to get its feet wet, a woman still hates to make up her mind and take direct action. When it comes to real power, woman is still a fence-sittter at heart.

Her heroine is still Cleopatra, who ruled Mark Anthony by romantic wiles. But she overlooks the fact that if Cleopatra had been a really virile cigar-smoking type she would have ruled not only Anthony but Rome itself.

And mark my word now—the day American women stop kidding around and really shoulder the responsibility of running the country will be the day after they all bite the end off a stogie, clamp it in their jaws and order the nearest male, "Light me, little man!"

Texas Researchers Work on Many Scientific Problems

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
AP Science Writer

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Here you are 150 miles from the sea.

But here part of tomorrow's new deep-diving submarines is being born.

Here there is rarely any snow. But this is the birthplace of electronic detectors warning of hidden crevasses lurking in snow and ice.

Here there are no rocket-launching pads. But scientists are learning how to prevent liquid fuels from sloshing around in rocket engines and wobbling them off course.

Here is the Southwest Research Institute, one of the nation's half dozen not-for-profit foundations doing research for government and industry, solving problems, seeking new products or techniques. It's an 11-year-old, close-knit organization of chemists, physicists, mathematicians biologists, geologists, engineers, and scientists of other disciplines. They tackle a dizzying variety of projects.

Submarines can dive about 600 feet before water pressure threatens to crash their hulls. Because submariners want to go deeper, SRI scientists are designing hulls which could go thousands of feet farther. Scale models are tested in a pressurized water tank system.

Crevasses bridged over and hidden by snow have long been a deadly trap for explorers, and for military men and machines in the arctic and antarctic.

SRI scientists developed an idea, tested it in Greenland. Their crevasse detector has probes or hands which reach out far ahead of a tractor or sled, and send back electrical signals to warn of a cavity beneath the snow surface. The detector is credited with preventing accidents to scientists who explored Antarctica during the International Geophysical Year.

In rocketry, SRI teams are designing internal structures in rocket engines to prevent liquid fuels from slamming and sloshing about, creating flutter in the rocket's course. They are also making tests to learn how long solid fuels in rockets stand up before they perhaps age or deteriorate so they don't fire properly. Another project is developing improved fire-fighting and fire-prevention methods at missile launching sites.

In a furnace which can produce temperatures of 10,000 degrees—about as hot as the sun's surface—engineers test materials suitable for rocket-missile nose cones, seeking the best materials to take the withering heat when a rocket streaks back down through the earth's atmosphere.

About half of all contract work is for the government, the other for industry, explains Martin Goland, SRI director.

Institute scientists helped develop an air conditioner using gas as fuel, improving the efficiency of gas-air conditioners by 30 per cent. This promises reduced fuel bills for home and industrial installations.

Atomic airplanes are coming soon. But first it must be learned whether oils and materials subjected to atomic radiation will stand up.

Henry Korp displays a turbine oil which stood up fine for awhile under exposure to gamma or X-rays coming from the institute's powerful chunk of radioactive cobalt. But suddenly it had congealed into a brownish tar-like material. Plywood exposed to X-rays crumpled as though affected by dry rot. Some rubbers can turn suddenly to powder from effects of radiation breaking their chemical bonds.

Geologist William Mather helps Texas industries develop native clays and minerals for building materials and ceramics. He's also interested in microscopic studies of dusts sucked into jet plane intakes, or auto engines, or dusts and soils abrading the treads of army tanks.

SRI scientists are experimenting with chemical films designed to coat ponds and prevent costly evaporation of precious water; methods of recovering oil drills stuck deep in the ground; promising possibilities that radiation can be pumped up from them. The radiation can reduce the viscosity of athabasca tar sands in Canada so that oil can be pumped up from them. The radiation might be radioactive isotopes produced in atomic power plants. Finding uses or safe disposal of them is one of the serious headaches facing the atomic age.

No one on the staff of 450—including 150 scientists — is sure what tomorrow's assignments might be.

Currently, one product is an all-in-one fuel. That is, a fuel which can be used equally well by diesel or piston engines in trucks, tanks and airplanes.

That would mean that some distant military outpost need be supplied with only one type of fuel which would operate all equipment and provide light and heat for the camp, too.

Spellman Asked to Be Witness

Invited to Testify About Housing Before Federal Civil Rights Group

NEW YORK (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman has been invited to testify at a federal Civil Rights Commission hearing on discrimination in housing.

The commission will hold a hearing here next Monday and Tuesday as part of its efforts to get a general picture of housing discrimination around the country.

Plans for the hearing were announced by a commission spokesman in Washington Tuesday night.

A score of witnesses will be heard.

Among them is Jackie Robinson, the Negro former Brooklyn Dodgers baseball star who is now a business executive.

Mayor Robert F. Wagner also will be a witness. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller is expected to attend the hearing or send a message.

New York was chosen for the commission's first public hearing on housing "not because it is the largest city in the country but also because, with state and city legislation, it has the most far-reaching laws concerning discrimination in housing of any city in the country," a commission memorandum says.

The hearing here will be the commission's first activity in the North and its first major step in the field of housing. The commission was set up by the Civil Rights Act of 1957.

Dude Cowboys Shore Flop

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y. (AP) — New York City's neighboring Westchester County could sure use a few honest-to-gosh cowhands.

Five Black Angus steers have been on the loose since Dec. 20, and folks are beginning to get kind of put out because nobody can catch 'em.

They've been roaming over what seems like half the county giving people quite a fright, messing up lawns and chewing up prize shrubbery.

Great posses of police and citizens have been after the critters day after day with cars, airplanes, helicopters, horses, walkie-talkies and tranquilized alfalfa hay.

But the steers are just as far from the corral as they ever were. Every time anybody gets near, they just go high-tailing off for somewhere else. Then frantic phone calls begin coming from people there.

Several times the local cowpokes have gotten pretty close. That's all they got, though, except for frustration and bramble scratches in scrambling away from the stampede.

One police officer had to take to a tree when a roundup was tried a few days ago. Another time a fellow didn't take off in time and wound up with a dislocated shoulder.

Six of the steers got away from the Norda Experimental Farm at the start. One was killed not long afterward. Officers brought out their heavy artillery when he went on a rampage during a corraling attempt.

That's what a lot of folks would like to see done with the rest of them.

Still, they're pretty fancy and expensive animals, so that's why it was decided to try to make them peaceful—and catchable—by putting out alfalfa hay loaded with tranquilizing ingredients.

One resident whose acreage and shrubbery has been much favored by the steers says "I promise Norda Experimental Farms here and now that if its experimental steers come around once more to eat its experimental hay, the law of the frontier will rise up.

"There will be the crack of a rifle and the smell of gunsmoke, and whatever falls can be processed into experimental hamburger."

Man Gets Windfall of $4,628

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Robert Wallace, 67, a machinist, has picked up $4,628 which Circuit Court at Kalamazoo, Mich., had held for him since 1947.

Wallace told the Kansas City Times that Court Clerk Philip Hassing wrote out the check for the money which was left in a court trust fund after Wallace moved to Kansas City and his Kalamazoo home was sold under a mortgage foreclosure. The sale price was $4,628 greater than the mortgage.

Wallace didn't know he had the money coming until last Saturday when he was told by Roger D. Kullenberg, a Kalamazoo Gazette reporter.

"I've got another $50 coming," said Wallace. "My wife bet me $50 that the report about the court having some money waiting for use was not true."

New Library Plans Head '58 Achievements Here

Planning for the new library and getting the North Oakland Library Project (NOLP) under way were the big accomplishments at Pontiac City Library last year.

Advance planning is important, said Phyllis Pope, city librarian.

"Library use in Pontiac will increase when the libraries are able to buy more books and to hire more qualified people to present library services to the public.

"An attractive, centrally-located new Main Library will greatly help towards bringing our library system up to standard."

The city wants to have the new library open in the civic center for use by 1961, Pontiac's centennial year. Construction should begin this fall.

The NOLP project, sponsored jointly by the Michigan State Library and Pontiac City Libraries, got under way in May with the Adah Shelly Branch Library as headquarters and Miss Pope as assistant director.

A one-year program, it aims to increase library usage in the township areas north of Pontiac.

"The success of the project so far makes us hopeful that library cooperation in some form will become a permanent thing in the north Oakland area," Miss Pope said.

During 1958, the library sponsored three book fairs in the public schools, reinstituted the story hour for children on Saturday mornings and held a book-week coffee-klatsh with school libraries.

Circulation figures were up to 221,562, about 11,000 more than last year. There were 3,414 books purchased, putting the city's collection at 64,410.

The library reached a record 36,032 persons registered with library cards, meaning that there is at least one person in nearly every Pontiac family with a card, Miss Pope said.

During the year, the reference department answered 19,849 questions. The number of bookmobile stops was increased from 22 to 32.

Ski Pants Still Out on Limb in Alaska

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — It's "nay" for the knees of some Alaskan stewardesses who let it be known last month they were pretty frosted about not being allowed to wear ski pants on intra-Alaskan flights.

No action will be taken before the end of this winter's runs. The federal mediator brought into the case is in Florida, far removed from icy tundra and frigid fibula.

The request to switch from nylon to woolens came to light Dec. 12 when the stewardesses and Pacific Northern Airlines held talks concerning a new contract.

There was much heated discussion concerning the relative merits of the materials when stacked up against the below-zero temperatures encountered on PNA's northern landing fields.

Taking note of the publicity given the case of the cold calves, John A. Cunningham, vice president in charge of PNA operations, pointed out Tuesday that all company planes are heated.

He added the company is making a study of temperatures at the cities where it calls. The coldest city, the company says, is King Salmon where the January average is a balmy three above zero.

2 Families Ask $1½ Million

File Bradley Damage Suits

DETROIT (AP)—Damage suits demanding 1½ million dollars are on file in behalf of families of two crewmen lost in the Carl D. Bradley sinking.

The suits, each for $750,000, were brought in U.S. District Court yesterday.

The Bradley, a big Great Lakes freighter, broke in half and sank in a Lake Michigan storm Nov. 18 with loss of 33 of her crew of 35. It was one of the worst disasters in Great Lakes shipping history.

Charging negligence to the Bradley's owners, the suits were brought for the survivors of crewmen Gary Strzelecki, 21, father of one child, and Raymond J. Kowalski, 31, father of four.

Both Strzelecki, who clung to a raft for hours in a vain effort to survive, and Kowalski were residents of the Lake Huron port town of Rogers City.

Benjamin Strzelecki, father of Gary and father-in-law of Kowalski, filed the suits as formal plaintiff. He acted for Mrs. Ann Shirley Strzelecki, 19, and her son David, 11 months, and Mrs. Mavis Kowalski, 24, and her four children, Brenda Sue, 8; Michael, 4; Richard, 2 and Mary Jane, 8 months.

The suits say the Bradley Steamship Co. of Rogers City, a division of U. S. Steel Corp., failed to inspect the Bradley's hull plates and rivets and used weak bolts in the plates.

A U. S. Coast Guard investigation of the sinking has yet to be completed.

Take 'Westerner's' Gun to Keep Down Bloodshed

BURBANK, Calif. (AP) — Tom Harper's fast draw career is over. Police confiscated his .22-caliber frontier pistol to hold down the bloodshed.

Harper, 21, shot himself in the leg last Sunday while practicing fast draws. Monday he resumed practice in his trailer home and accidentally shot his wife Ella, 20. She is in a hospital recovering from an abdominal wound.

Nurse's Torch Death Declared a Suicide

The jury reached its decision after Lt. William Duff of the Alameda County sheriff's office testified Lt. Mitchell, who was unmarried, was four or five months pregnant.

Duff found her thumb print on a gasoline can at the scene. He found a book of matches from Treasure Island, where she had registered, although she did not smoke and normally did not carry matches. The gasoline in the can was not the same as that in her car.

The jury concluded she poured the gasoline over herself and set herself on fire.

Here are four easy ways to lose money!

1. When you go out at night, don't bother to check your windows and doors.

2. Don't leave a light burning when the house is temporarily empty.

3. Don't stop milk and newspaper deliveries while you're on vacation.

4. Above all, don't carry Burglary Insurance!

But if you want to save money, take every precaution — and above all make sure you're protected with low-cost Hartford Residence Theft and Burglary Insurance. (Actually, there are more burglaries than fires!)

Detroit Receives New Archbishop

Most Rev. Dearden Takes Over Catholic Archdiocese Thursday

DETROIT (UPI)—The son of a Cleveland glass works foreman takes over Thursday as chief shepherd of the 1,500,000 Roman Catholics in the Detroit Archdiocese.

The Most Rev. John F. Dearden has been Bishop of Pittsburgh for the past eight years and a member of the Catholic hierarchy since 1948. He will succeed Edward Cardinal Mooney who died Oct. 25 in Rome, 70 minutes before he was to enter a secret conclave to elect a new pope.

At 51, Dearden will be the youngest Catholic Archbishop in the United States.

Bishop Dearden will be the seventh Catholic leader in the 125-year history of the Detroit diocese and its second Archbishop. The eight-county Detroit Archdiocese is the seventh largest in the United States by Catholic population.

The appointment last Dec. 17 by Pope John XXIII also carried the parallel office of Metropolitan, or presiding prelate, of Michigan. This comprises the dioceses of Grand Rapids, Marquette, Saginaw and Lansing, in addition to the Detroit Archdiocese.

Pope Pius XII appointed Dearden coadjutor to the Bishop of Pittsburgh with the right of succession March 15, 1948. He was consecrated May 18, 1948.

When Bishop Hugh C. Boyle, 78, of Pittsburgh, died on Dec. 22, 1950, Bishop Dearden succeeded him immediately.

He will be following in the footsteps of a former teacher Thursday when he accepts the shepherd's staff — symbol of pastoral authority. He once studied under Cardinal Mooney.

Jack Teagarden Rests After Double Operation

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—Jack Teagarden, note jazz trombonist, was recuperating today from a double operation at Glendale Hospital.

Surgeons operated to correct a bladder malfunction and a hernia. The musician will be in the hospital at least 10 days, perhaps longer, doctors said.

Teagarden returned Friday from a 39,000-mile tour of the Far East under auspices of the State Department.

Sterling Hayden Runs Out on 'A Summer Place'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD — Before Sterling Hayden sailed for the South Seas with his four children and 20-odd people in the crew, he had agreed to play a top role in "A Summer Place," the Sloan Wilson story.

He left a message for Director Delmer Daves saying that he was sorry to run out on him this way, but he felt morally obligated to the men and women who had given up other jobs and changed their plans to sail with him to make pictures.

Two of the nicest young people in our town are John Gavin and his attractive wife, Cecily. They were both very depressed over the loss of their baby a few weeks ago.

Now things look brighter for John who has been given the role of the young Julius Caesar in "Spartacus," by his studio, Universal-International.

He is described to me as a handsome, forceful character who is important to the story. John will be on his mettle in this, playing with such actors as Kirk Douglas, Laurence Olivier and Tony Curtis.

Jeanne Carmen gave up her movie career last year in favor of professional golf because, said she, "golf is more fun." Well, she has decided that movies can be fun, too, because she's back for a featured role in "The Naked Goddess" with Linda Christian and Robert Alda.

In fact, Jeanne may combine movies and golf later on. She's been mentioned many times as the logical choice to play the immortal "Babe" Didriksen Zaharias when the Babe's life story is screened.

A letter from Maureen O'Sullivan Farrow tells me they have moved into a house in London where Oscar Wilde once lived. They plan to come back to Hollywood after Johnny directs one picture.

Williams Calls Special Election

To Regain 55-55 House Deadlock Lost to Dems With Dingman's Death

LANSING (AP)—A special election that could again give Democrats an even count in the House of Representatives has been scheduled for April 6.

Gov. Williams called for the special election to fill the seat left vacant by the death last week of Rep. Fred R. Dingman (D-Detroit). His death gave Republicans, already in control of House machinery, a 55-54 advantage.

Previously, the absence because of illness of Rep. Josephine D. Hunsinger (D-Detroit) enabled the GOP to take over the House and elect a speaker.

The April 6 date is the same as the regular, statewide election. Williams set a deadline of 4 p.m. Friday, Jan. 30, for candidates to file. If a primary is necessary, it would be held Feb. 16.

Dingman was buried yesterday with many legislators attending.

One of their first moves afterward was to introduce a bill to appropriate $7,833 to his widow. This represents the remaining portion of the $8,000 salary he would have received during his two-year term.

His widow also will collect a pension under a plan set up by House members.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Pat McNamara (D-Mich) has been named chairman of a Senate public works subcommittee on public roads. He fills a place vacated by Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn), who left the committee for a place on the foreign relations committee.

14-Year-Old Goes to Washington

Chicago Boy to Become Only Negro Page in House

The youth, James A. Johnson Jr., 14, was appointed a page under the sponsorship of Rep. Barratt O'Hara, a Chicago Democrat.

O'Hara, who said there was a slight mixup over approval of the boy's appointment by the House Patronage Committee, said he had been assured by Southern congressmen they would not oppose it.

"I inquired more than a year ago, when the boy's name first was mentioned to me, if there ever had been Negro pages before in the house," O'Hara said. "I did not want to push the boy into an integration battle which might prove embarrassing.

"I was assured that there had been Negro pages before. Now they contend the House never had one, but my grandson, Barratt III, told me that when he was a page there were Negro pages."

O'Hara, in Chicago to address his grandson's high school commencement exercises, said confusion arose when members of the House Patronage Committee thought O'Hara and Rep. Thomas J. O'Brien, also a Chicago Democrat, were appointing the same boy, Martin J. Oberman.

O'Hara, 76 and serving his fifth term in the House, said the committee apparently was not aware he had submitted a separate nomination, which was approved.

In Washington, Rep. Harry R. Sheppard (D-Calif), a member of the committee, said he knew nothing about whether a Negro page had been appointed.

"The committee doesn't concern itself about race," he said. "There are hundreds of Negroes holding patronage jobs around the Capitol."

Veteran Capitol employes said they did not recall any Negro ever having served there as a page. There is one Negro page at the Supreme Court.

PIN-WORMS MAY BE A FAMILY AFFAIR
Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.
To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it:
First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.
Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Widow Omitted for Reason

DeMille's Will Filed

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Because she has independent means, the widow of Cecil B. DeMille received nothing in his will. But her name was prominently mentioned.

The famed producer-director expressed in the document his love and admiration for Mrs. De Mille. Meantime, he left more than half of his multimillion dollar estate to their daughter, Cecilia De Mille Harper.

The will filed for probate Tuesday names Mrs. Harper and her husband, Joseph, executors.

De Mille's widow, 85, is an invalid. She was left nothing, the will explained, because she has means of her own and needs nothing from De Mille's estate.

A fourth of De Mille's securities was left in trust for another daughter, Katherine De Mille Quinn, wife of actor Anthony Quinn; and sons Richard and John.

State Called Bootlegging Paradise

LANSING (AP)—Michigan is "a bootlegger's paradise" thanks to its four per cent excise tax on liquor, a group of retail liquor licensees contends.

The Michigan Allied Beverage Licensees Council yesterday pleader with the legislature to kill the tax, enacted in 1957 to help public schools.

Higher prices "have turned honest men and women into dishonest patrons of the bootlegger," the council said.

U.S. Revenue agents, it said, seized 78 stills in 1956 and 170 last year.

"It is safe to assume that these illicit operations deprive the state of hundreds of thousands of dollars in revenue," it said.

The council contended the tax also failed to live up to expectations.

It was designed to raise eight million dollars annually, but produced $6,693,000 in its first year of operation, the liquor sellers said. Many persons, they said, now buy their liquor in neighboring states where prices are cheaper.

As a substitute cure for school money problems, the council recommended "a broad-based tax that will draw support from every segment of the economy."

Sticky Evening for the Hostess Ends With Bang

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Somebody dropped the sorghum and thus began the wildest evening in Mrs. Raymond Fisher's life. That was the night she was having a dinner party.

A friend dropped by with a quart of sorghum and fumbled it as it was being put in the refrigerator. The result: Wall-to-wall sorghum.

Then somebody else brushed too close to the kitchen stove—and over went a big roaster pan almost brimful of giblet gravy.

Somehow or other, Mrs. Fisher got her 10 guests fed, then stumbled wearily off to bed. Four hours later she wakened with a touch of dyspepsia and reached in the dark for a piece of indigestion-cure chewing gum.

She got something, put it in her mouth and bit down. Boom!

It wasn't gum at all, but a tiny torpedo firecracker, the kind kids fling on the sidewalk.

Williams Will Attend His Aunt's Funeral

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams will fly to Montclair, N.J., Thursday to attend funeral service for his aunt, Mrs. William G. Mennen. She was the wife of the head of the Mennen Co.

The Governor has cancelled a meeting with mayors of principal Michigan cities scheduled for Thursday.

Williams plans to return to Detroit in time for a Friday evening television talk on taxes and a civil rights conference with several governors.

Blame Lacquer in Tuller Fire

Accounts for Rapid Spread of Flames That Took Four Lives

DETROIT (AP)—Lacquer on wood paneling has been blamed by a fire marshal's preliminary report for rapid spread of the fire at the Hotel Tuller Jan. 17 that took four lives. Scores of guests and employes fled to safety.

"We have established through laboratory tests that the wall panels were finished with a high-combustible lacquer," said Fire Marshal Matthew H. McNally yesterday.

The wood paneling was installed in 1949 and was shipped to the Tuller from Wisconsin with the lacquer already on it, McNally said.

The use of lacquer is not in violation of city fire codes, said Charles E. Allen, deputy commissioner of buildings and safety fire codes. However, Allen said new fire-resistant paints and finishes now on the market will be investigated for possible future required use.

Says High Court Prestige Fallen

Law Professor Blasts Judicial Backbiting and Individual Opinions

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Dr. Bernard Schwartz says the Supreme Court's public prestige has fallen because of its sharp differences in judicial philosophy and public backbiting among its members.

Dr. Schwartz, New York University law professor who was a controversial figure in investigation of the house committee on legislative oversight in 1958, criticized the court in an article in the University of Michigan law review.

The NYU expert said frequent rendering of individual opinions by the justices has tended to lower the authority of the court's position. Dr. Schwartz was fired as chief counsel of the house committee in a policy dispute.

"A pantheon that speaks with nine separate voices can hardly inspire the listener with any feeling of divine certainty," Schwartz said.

He said backbiting in public has characterized several sessions of the high court during the past term.

This bickering between justices, Schwartz said, "threatens to destroy what had been hoped to be (Justice) Earl Warren's main contribution" to the Court, he said.

He said the bickering reflects in part basic differences in the proper role of the Supreme Court in the American judicial system.

Army Sentry Shoots 2 Fleeing Koreans

SEOUL (UPI)—An American army sentry shot and seriously wounded two Korean civilians today when they ignored his orders to halt.

The U.S. Army said Pvt. Carl B. Mick, 19, of Clendenin, W. Va., challenged the two men when he saw them trying to leave the compound of an artillery unit attached to the first cavalry division.

Mick ordered the men to halt in both Korean and English, the army said, and fired a round into the air when that didn't stop them.

Mick then fired two rounds at the men, hitting 18-year-old Kim Tak Nae in the stomach and an unidentified Korean in the head.

Social Season Ends at White House

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House social season ended on a nostalgic note Tuesday night with the President and Mrs. Eisenhower hearing songs of their courting days.

Their guest of honor, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, 77, a Texas Democrat, came in for his share of his music too, with songs of his home state.

Both the Marine Corps band and entertainers at an after-dinner musicale made sure the President heard "The Yellow Rose of Texas." They played it twice to make up for an unfamiliar version by Lawrence Welk's orchestra Monday night when the President requested it at a state dinner for Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The Eisenhowers ended their 1958-59 social season—an abbreviated version of only five state dinners—with a doubleheader on two successive nights.

But there was nothing similar about the affairs for Nixon and Rayburn. Everything was changed from the menu to what Mrs. Eisenhower wore.

Instead of the champagne music of Lawrence Welk, the 76 dinner guests and about 150 other invited to the musicale got a variety "Memories in Music" program provided by talent culled from night clubs and local groups.

The numbers included such oldtimers as "Roses of Picardy," "Smiles," and "Always Chasing Rainbows."

Turkey was on the menu in place of beef. Mrs. Eisenhower shifted from a white brocade to a pale blue brocade with matching gloves and jewelry.

A bipartisan group of 16 senators and 22 representatives, half Democrats and half Republicans, were among the guests. Speaker Rayburn would have swung the balance over to the Democrats but illness of the wife of Sen. Dennis Chavez (D-NM) and his last minute cancellation left things absolutely even.

Bachelor Rayburn came early with his sister Mrs. Edward Bartley of Bonham, Tex., and spent 10 minutes before the dinner visiting the President and first lady in the family living quarters.

Rayburn got his musical salute at the start when he and his sister walked down the red carpeted hall with the Eisenhowers to meet the other guests. The Marine band struck up "The Eyes of Texas" and swung into "The Yellow Rose of Texas" and "Texas Fantasy."

Charge Woman in Kidnaping

Puerto Rican Who Took Tavarez Baby Goes to Hospital Afterward

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mrs. Asuncion Ortiz, 24, was formally charged today with kidnaping infant Johnny Tavarez, apparently because she hoped to hold her common-law husband by giving him a son.

The moaning Puerto Rican woman was taken by ambulance to the Roosevelt Hospital prison ward for a physical examination immediately after the early morning booking. She complained of being ill and was spitting blood.

If convicted of kidnaping, Mrs. Ortiz can receive a sentence of 20 years to life in prison.

The 29-day-old baby's parents, Jose and Doralisa Tavarez, said they hoped Mrs. Ortiz would receive "a lot of assistance."

"But I can never forgive her for this deed she did," the 31-year-old, Dominican-born mother said.

Johnny was reported getting along well at Roosevelt Hospital where he is being treated for an upper respiratory infection and a mild infection of the intestinal tract. He was expected to be well enough to be taken home next week.

Mrs. Ortiz, who confessed the abduction after her arrest early yesterday, told authorities she decided to steal a baby to replace the stillborn child she gave birth to last Tuesday.

"It was because I lost my own baby," she said. "I had to make it up to my husband."

Mrs. Ortiz has two sons and a daughter by two previous common-law husbands. Police said they believe she wanted to bind her present husband, Angel Ortiz, to her having his child.

370 on Welfare Ordered to Get Rid of Jalopies

DETROIT (UPI)— The Detroit Welfare Commission has ordered 370 welfare recipients to get rid of their jalopies.

The commission acted after an investigation showed some families on welfare were using their relief checks to pay traffic fines. A spokesman said that 1,130 of 12,000 surveyed were driving cars.

Many of them will be allowed to keep the cars because they have not been on welfare for 90 days or because of a pressing need for transportation. The jalopies the commission wants to get rid of are worth $50 or less.

Beatnik Coffee Houses Slapped With Curfew

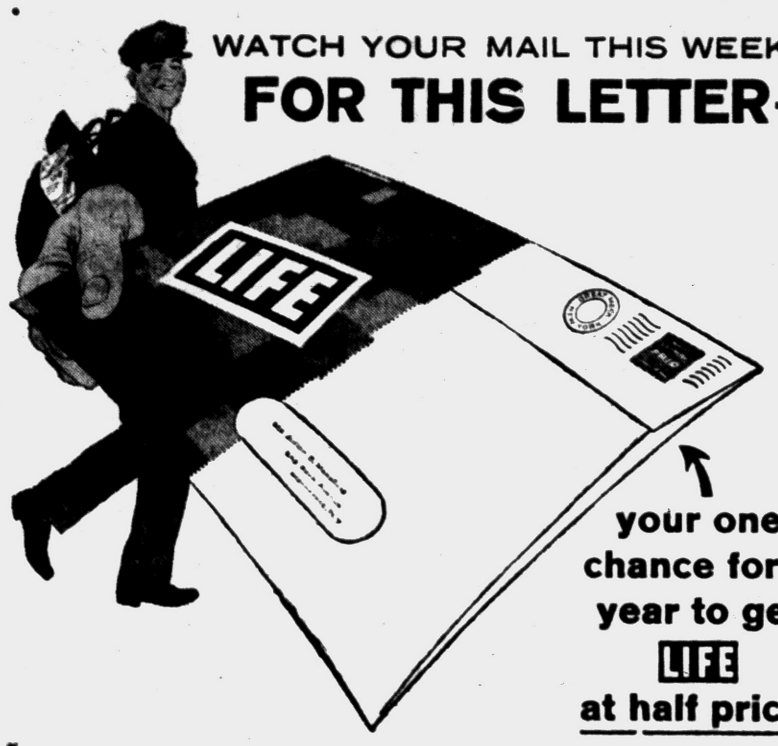

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Beatnik coffee houses have been told to close at 2 a.m. and procure entertainment licenses, despite the entertainment being provided by the customers.

County suervisors said the 2 a.m. closing hour will eliminate a potential law enforcement problem and keep teenagers from sitting in the houses all night.

DID SOMEBODY MENTION GASOLINE MILEAGE?

Although we deliberately engineered improved gas mileage into the '59 Buicks, we have not made much point of it in previous advertising for THE Car. People's driving habits can get very different results even from the same car. So we are now happy to report that our plans for greater economy of operation have been very successful indeed . . . in everyday owner experience.

Owners report excellent records

Most owners are naturally proud of their new cars, and may sometimes overstate a little. But even allowing for that, listen to these reports from owners! A Detroit man drove his Electra 9,000 miles around the country, and reports a little over 19 miles a gallon. A Louisiana LeSabre, with Twin Turbine Transmission, after 4,000 miles is giving its owner 17.6 miles per gallon. A St. Paul man reports 18.1. From Atlanta comes 17.5. From Pittsfield, Mass., 20. Some are even higher. Some lower. But these are typical.

Tests confirm new economy

Recently a very thorough set of tests was run, putting Buick LeSabre and another car of comparable size which is known for good economy, through identical tests under all sorts of driving conditions. The Buick came out best in every single test.

How Buick mileage was improved

It took a combination of several steps. New, more efficient Wildcat engines was one . . . compression up to 10.5, better carburetion. In the case of LeSabre there is also a new, twin-barrel economy carburetor as standard equipment. All this to get more power out of the fuel. In addition, new combinations of transmissions and rear axles put this power to work more efficiently.

Owners also report QUALITY outstanding

"Best-performing Buick ever!" . . . "My sixth Buick and the best I ever owned" . . . "Best operating car I've driven in thirty years" . . . "Much the best Buick yet!" . . . Learn for yourself why this year's Buick owners are so enthusiastic. Go to your Quality Buick Dealer and see why The Car is The Buy.

McHale Makes Debut in Milwaukee

Ex-Tiger Boss Says New Job Is 'Promotion'

Braves 'Much Bigger' Organization, Members of Press Told

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—John McHale made his Milwaukee debut at a press luncheon yesterday and admitted a bigger salary wasn't the big reason for his switch from the fifth-place Tigers to the first-place Milwaukee Braves.

McHale said reports that he was getting a sizable salary increase with the Braves was exaggerated.

There was little doubt that if the Tigers didn't produce this season, McHale, who operated on a verbal contract at Detroit, would be on thinner ice.

McHale left no doubt he felt he was getting a "promotion" by taking a job in what he called the "successful" Braves organization.

"It's an opportunity for expanded duties that I couldn't turn down. It's a much bigger job in a much bigger organization," he said.

"I'll work at it seven days a week, 24 hours a day," McHale said.

Braves president Joe Cairnes said the loss of former general manager John Quinn to the Philadelphia Phillies "left a big void, but we feel we have been hurt as little as possible with the addition of John McHale. We're very lucky to have a man of his executive ability."

Cairnes emphasized McHale's duties would be the same as those handled by Quinn, with the exception of signing players this season. Executive vice president Birdie Tebbetts will continue to do that but McHale will take over the task in 1960.

McHale steered clear of any comment on the Milwaukee varsity, saying only that he was familiar with some of the players and that "Quinn left me with a pretty good team."

McHale finally has found the long ball hitters he so ardently desired while with the Tigers. Now he has such men as Hank Aaron, Joe Adcock and Eddie Mathews.

For McHale, who hated to lose even exhibition games, the chance to jump to the National League champions just couldn't be refused.

If there were any doubts as to his abilities, the Braves settled that by going all out to sign him.

McHale said he would move his family to Milwaukee as soon as possible.

Syracuse Hits at 56.3 Clip for 121-107 Win

Pistons Lose 8th Straight

DETROIT (AP)—Two days off will be a blessing to the Detroit Pistons, who seem enveloped in a whirlwind.

Last night they completed two strenuous weeks of National Basketball Assn. play with eight straight defeats. Coach Red Rocha finally will have time today and tomorrow to probe into the Pistons' difficulties.

The 121-107 defeat administered last night by the Syracuse Nationals was typical of Piston losses of late. The Nats, with seven of their nine players scoring in double figures, connected on a fantastic 56.3 per cent of their floor shots. Shooting like that is practically unbeatable—even in pro basketball.

In the last four games the Pistons have been defeated twice in overtime, a third time by four points and finally by red-hot shooting they couldn't match.

Their losing streak, which equals the NBA's longest of the season, has cut their once-sizable second-place lead over Minneapolis to a single game in the Western Division.

The Lakers would deadlock Detroit by beating Syracuse tonight and tomorrow before they come face-to-face in a second-place showdown battle with the Pistons Friday at St. Louis.

But at least Rocha will have his weary club rested by Friday.

Last night, before a kid's night crowd of 10,101 at Olympia, the Pistons were able to cope with the Nats for only one half. Detroit, playing minus the injured George Yardley, took a 57-54 lead at halftime, although Syracuse hit on half its field goal attempts.

But the Nats connected on 65 per cent of their third period shots and gradually pulled away.

Dolph Schayes played brilliantly for Syracuse, notching 28 points. Phil Jordon scored 23 for Detroit and Gene Shue had 22.

Cincinnati beat Philadelphia 100-92 behind Jack Twyman's 37 points and St. Louis edged New York 112-111 before 13,000 in last night's other NBA games.

Philadelphia trailed 60-47 at the intermission. Led by Woody Sauldsberry and Guy Rodgers, the Warriors outscored Cincinnati 22-4 in the first seven minutes of the third period and streaked to a 69-64 lead. Twyman and Wayne Embry combined to deadlock the count three minutes later.

Tom Gola was high man for Philadelphia with 19 points, one more than Joe Graboski.

The Royals connected on 42 of 96 field goal attempts while Philadelphia had only 35 of 101.

TRADED — Former Pontiac basketball ace, Guy Sparrow, was traded last night by the New York Knicks to the Philadelphia Warriors for Jack George. Sparrow is in his second year in the NBA.

Goes to Warriors

Guy Sparrow Is Traded

Guy Sparrow, former Central and University of Detroit basketball star, was traded last night by the New York Knickerbockers to the Philadelphia Warriors.

The Knicks acquired veteran Jack George in the transaction between the two Eastern division clubs of the NBA.

Sparrow, an NBA sophomore, was carrying a 5.8 average with the Knicks this season. George in his 6th pro year, has a 10.1 average.

Last year the ex-Chief was runnerup to Woodie Sauldsberry of Philadelphia in "rookie of the year" voting. He had a 12 point per game average.

Sparrow, who stands 6-6, was drafted by the Knicks after playing at U. of D. where he set all scoring and rebounding records. He joined the Knicks last season after two years in the Army.

Yaoita 'Fighter of Month'

Flyweight Gets Top Honor

NEW YORK (AP)—Sadao Yaoita, the Japanese flyweight who ended champion Pascual Perez' 48-fight streak in a non-title bout, has been named "Fighter of the Month" by Ring Magazine.

Yaoita was moved up from fifth to first among the challengers to the champion from Argentina. It was the first defeat in Perez' long career.

Ingemar Johansson of Sweden, the European heavyweight champ remained the No. 1 contender to world champion Floyd Patterson, with whom he is to sign for a title match in June. Johansson was idle throughout the month, as was the champ.

In the heavy ranks, Nino Valdes of Cuba hopped up a peg to No. 2 while Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., dropped to third. Henry Cooper of London, a winner over Brian London for the British crown, advanced from seventh to fourth.

Entire Indian Squad Signed

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians finished first in the major leagues Tuesday—in signing players to 1959 baseball contracts.

The Indians announced all 39 players on their roster have come to terms. The latest to return signed contracts were pitchers Bill Dailey and Hal Woodeshick, and infielders Woody Held and Billy Harrell.

It is the earliest any Cleveland squad has been signed.

Arthur Hill Next Foe for Barge-less Chiefs

Pontiac Central Goes Into 2nd Half of Season

First Game Against Lumberjacks Toughest for PCH

Saginaw Arthur Hill, the team which gave Pontiac Central its toughest game of the season, will be the first foe for the barge-less Chiefs Friday night on the PCH court.

Barge ended his prep career last Friday night with 27 points against Saginaw, and the Arthur Hill quintet will give Central its initial test without the classy guard.

The Lumberjacks pushed the Chiefs right to the last few seconds in the first game in December between the two teams before falling 43-42. It was Barge who sunk the winning basket with eight seconds to play.

Arthur Hill led at halftime 27-21 and held a 35-33 margin after three quarters before Pontiac finally tied it 37-37 and squeeked out a victory.

The game will start the second half of the Saginaw Valley Conference schedule for the Chiefs, who lead the league with a 5-0 mark.

Pontiac Central will need a victory Friday night to cushion that lead before going on the road to play three of the last four games.

Coach Art Van Ryzin hasn't decided what changes he will make on the team to fill Barge's position.

He may move Henry Robertson, 5-11 junior into the spot, or alter his lineup by moving John Bandy to guard and starting George Fed at center with Harrison Munson going to the forward post.

Munson played forward as a junior when Hudson Ray was at pivot, and Fed has started the last two games at center. Van Ryzin also has sophomores Jim Patterson and Dick McCauley and junior Fred Staley available for guard duty.

Without the high scoring Barge, guard Phil Rabaja and forward Bill Hayward are expected to pick up some of the slack in pointmaking.

Arthur Hill has improved in the past few games. The Lumberjacks pushed Flint Central to the limit before bowing 68-60 last Friday night.

Last night Arthur Hill spilled Midland, 72-70.

Lombardi Going to Green Bay?

Report Has New York Mentor New Head Man of Packers

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Vince Lombardi, backfield coach of the New York Giants, will be the next coach and general manager of the National Football League Green Bay Packers, a report said Tuesday night.

The 45-year-old Lombardi's name was tossed into the speculation by the Milwaukee Sentinel.

The Packers, who finished last in the Western conference last season with a 1-10-1 record, are expected to make some sort of announcement Wednesday. At the close of the last season, the poorest in their 40 year history—the Packers said they were seeking a new coach and general manager—or possibly one man to fill both posts.

Other names mentioned earlier included Iowa's Forest Evashevski and Jim Trimble, coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in the Canadian League. Both professed no interest in the job.

Ock Willoweit Leads Seniors Tourney

Watrous Putts Badly, Slips to 77

DUNEDIN, Fla. — Al Watrous of Birmingham, three times a winner and rated a major threat for another crown, got off to a poor start Tuesday in the 20th renewal of the PGA Seniors golf tournament.

Watrous, the 59-year-old Oakland Hills professional, had putting troubles on the PGA National Golf Club layout and ended the 1st day of action far down the list with a 39-38—77, five strokes above par.

Defending champion Gene Sarazen played steady golf from tee to green but also ran into putting difficulties and finished the opening 18-hole round with a 73.

This left Sarazen three strokes behind the 1st round leader, Ock Willoweit from Dayton, O. Willoweit, a 55-year-old golf equipment salesman, fired a two-under-par 70 to lead the pack.

The title chase resumed today and continues through Sunday in this famous tourney which is limited to pro golfers who are 60 years of age and up. A record field is entered.

The "youngsters" take over the spotlight today.

The youngsters are the entrants in the 50-54 age group, and include such tournament-seasoned newcomers as Dick Metz and little Paul Runyan, both of whom have been playing fine golf lately. These upstarts will have to break 70 to take the lead.

Willoweit, who was runnerup to Pete Burke in 1956, had a steady 35-35 for his round. The only other player to break par was Pete Goldbeck of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., with 71. Two players equalled par figures. They were Ed McElligott of Luthersville, Md., and Bill Jelliffe of Denver, Colo.

Jelliffe, a picturesque individual with flowing white hair and whiskers, needed a hole-in-one on the sixth hole to get his par score.

Some of the players used electric carts, permissible in this tournament for the greybeards.

The 55-and-over players return for their second round Thursday, the 50-54 field plays its second round Friday, and the low 100 and ties of the two classes play rounds Saturday and Sunday to round out the 72 holes determining the champion.

Ely's Goal Nets 'B' Honors

Bulman Wins Hockey Title

It took Bulman's Hardware seven minutes to win the Class B City Junior hockey championship last night and Ned Ely played the hero's role. The final score was 3-2.

Bulman's and Pontiac Northern B battled for the "B" crown yesterday at the Northside softball field in their extended showdown game with Ely breaking up the party in a sudden death playoff.

The two teams began their title playoff last Saturday on the Northside diamond ice and were all square at 2-2 after three regulation periods and one 15-minute overtime session.

Play was halted following the 1st overtime period because falling snow was making the puck almost impossible for the skaters to see. The two clubs resumed action yesterday exactly where they left off Saturday.

Ely beat Northern goalie Wendell Oak in the 7th minute of sudden death to win the "B" title. Don MacLean, subbing for regular goalie Dennis Hoyes in the Bulman net, turned back everything Northern had to offer.

Ely's game-winning goal qualified Bulman's to meet the Fisher Hill Merchants, city Class A champs, in an exhibition game this Saturday afternoon as part of the annual winter ice carnival.

Te Merchants and Bulman's will clash at 2:30 on the Northside Community ice rink.

Two players selected in the 1958 NFL draft, guard Phil Blazer of North Carolina and end John Scheldrup of Iowa State, returned their signed contracts to the Detroit Lions for 1959.

A total of 425 entries in a 22-event program will take part in the annual Michigan AAU track and field meet at Yost Fieldhouse at the University of Michigan Saturday afternoon and evening.

Milbrey Benedict of Detroit, ex-Wolverine shortstop and captain, has been named assistant to Don Lund, new baseball coach at the University of Michigan. He will handle the freshmen.

Fred L. Riggin Sr., Port Huron industrialist, has been elected to his 8th term as president of the National Golf Fund.

Farmington High School will be host to the regional prep wrestling tournament March 6-7. Twenty-two schools, including Pontiac Central, Pontiac Northern and all of the active Inter-Lakes Conference members, will be among the entries.

U.S., Russian Cagers Collide

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The United States and Russia square off in a "shooting war" tonight—at two basketball hoops, not each other—when they meet to decide the probable champion of the World Amateur Basketball tournament.

Even if the Russians win on the basketball court, they could lose the battle of politics and thus forfeit a title. A victory over the U.S. would give them a 5-0 mark. They are scheduled to meet Nationalist China Friday night, but steadfastly have claimed they will not play the Chinese for they represent "country which doesn't exist."

The U.S., also undefeated in round-robin play with a 3-0 mark, still has to face Chile, a 75-49 loser to the Russians last night, and Brazil. The Americans have been idle since Monday night when they defeated the Chinese, 85-69.

MSU Games Sold Out

Michigan State today announced a sellout for its basketball games with Northwestern Saturday and games with Michigan Feb. 14th, and Purdue Feb. 21st.

TAKES STAND — New York Yankee manager Casey Stengel takes the stand on the side of the ball club in salary squabble with some of the team's star players including Whitey Ford and Mickey Mantle. He told newsmen some of the players better improve their playing habits or be traded this season.

Ol' Case Lays Down the Law

Yanks Told to Better Training Habits or Else

NEW YORK (AP)—High above the swank shops of Fifth Avenue, the New York Yankees maintain a tidy office. You get dizzy when you look down from the 29th floor. When Casey Stengel is there you get dizzy without looking out the window.

Casey was there yesterday and long after the cheese cake was gone old Case was going on and on and on.

He lined up with the front office in its salary squabble with the players and warned some of his men to improve their training habits—or else.

"I think some of them don't like it here," he said. "One of these days a big moving van will back up. One or two will get hit right on the butt. But some individuals better not think they are bigger than the ball club."

Case touched on these matters:

Running to first base: "If you get tired running 90 feet you are gonna get fined. Some will get their first plaster."

Letting ball players sleep in the morning after a night game: "You don't lose games resting."

Curfew: "There has to be a certain time. The night isn't all yours. It belongs to the team."

Gil McDougald: "Was he as good last year as he was two years ago? Go ahead, raise your hands. There was nothing wrong with him. But there was a time he dropped to .198."

Yankee farm system: "It's wonderful how we still get players without being connected with any alumnus association."

Time of day: "If the players can't tell the difference between midnight and 1 o'clock in the afternoon, they'd better get new watches."

Salaries: "I'm for more money for all. They think I'm too easy on the players. There's a couple of men on this club—I said two—who could make $75,000 to $100,000. They kept themselves from it. They keep doing something so you can't pay them. They defy you. Still, I like them personally very much." (no names).

Bonus players: "You can't give individuals $100,000 to start playing ball. There is no reason to give away that much to somebody who can't do anything and half of them can't do anything."

Bill Skowron: "There's nothing wrong with him if we could get him so he wouldn't turn his head, he could lead the league."

Ryne Duren: "Last spring I've got to feel sorry for him. Twenty-nine years and he never gave up. Then he makes it big with us. His confidence is amazing."

Chicago White Sox pitching: "With a team that don't hit, you can't have many pitchers throwing home run balls, even if you do steal bases."

The Yankee slump in August: "All of us must have let down a half step, figuring we had it."

Yogi Berra: "He gets careless sometimes. He likes to watch the man catch the ball, and forgets to run them out sometimes. If we play him on first base, he can talk to everybody."

PCH Drops 33-13 Dual to Parkers, RO Kimball Tops Northern, 34-16

Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern wrestling teams encountered more trouble than they could handle yesterday and both schools went down to defeat.

Hazel Park slammed the Central matmen, 33-13, while the Northern grapplers bowed to Royal Oak Kimball, 34-16.

PCH, wrestling at home, managed to win three matches. Sam Wescombe took a decision in the 154 pound class, 165 pound Gerald Reid pinned his opponent in the 2nd period and Duke Relyea needed only 54 seconds to pin his foe in the 175-pound division.

Ruford Black, Hazel Park's 112-pound ace, won his 33rd straight dual match as the Parkers extended their team winning streak to 12, eight this season.

Northern won four bouts at Royal Oak, all in the heavier weights, including a pin by 138-pound Winfrid Miracle. The loss squared Northern's dual meet record for the season at 3-3. Northern beat Kimball in the junior varsity meet 19-8.

Northern Kimball Summary

95 pound—Short (RO) pin Scott (PNH)
101 pound—Jordano (ROK) pin Richard (PNH)

Troy Quintet Bows to Lakeview, 72-62

Troy High School, undefeated in Oakland B play and well on its way to another league basketball crown, ran into powerful non-conference Lakeview last night and absorbed a 72-62 setback.

It was Troy's 3rd loss of the season, all outside the conference, compared to eight wins. Unbeaten Lakeview leads the Tri-County League race.

John Switchulis, Lakeview's 6-foot-4 center, paced the attack against the Colts with 21 points. Don Harned collected 20 points and Rick McKinnon 15 for Troy.

Picks Foyt as Driver

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A. J. Foyt of Houston, Tex., will drive the Dean Van Lines racing car in the 1959 Indianapolis Speedway race. It is a new racer with a vertical engine that is a duplicate of Jimmy Bryant's 1958 winner. Al Dean said today the teammate car will be piloted by Elmer George and son-in-law of Anton Hullman Jr., owner of the Indianapolis Speedway.

Golden Gloves Start Activity

Regional Sites in State Start Tourney Bouts

Pontiac Boxers Begin Eliminations Saturday in PCH Gym

Golden Glove activity perked up various centers around Michigan this week with champions from regional sites aiming for the state tournament in Grand Rapids, Feb. 13-14.

Flint fighters started action last night in the IMA, with Lansing, Muskegon, Bay City, Grand Rapids Pontiac and Detroit all geared for action this week.

Approximately 800 Golden Glovers around the state will be fighting for state championship berths in the open, novice and subnovice divisions.

Largest cards take place annually in Grand Rapids and Bay City. Pontiac, the newest regional site this year, will have about 25 or 30 bouts Saturday night at Pontiac Central gym.

Bay City has 120 boxers working out, Flint nearly 100 and Grand Rapids over 150.

The Pontiac fights will start at 8:00 p.m. Saturday. Port Huron will have 28 boxers on the card, the remainder will come from the Pontiac area.

Local fighters have been working out daily in the Jaycee gym in the Pontiac Recreation building on North Perry.

Largest contingent locally will come from the Pontiac Boys Club, with other groups from Clarkston, Auburn Heights and Rochester.

Last year Pontiac was the site for a portion of the Detroit tourney, but this year the Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the local regionals.

After Saturday's preliminaries, the winners will go into the finals at PCH gym, Saturday night Feb. 7th. A week later the state finals take place at Grand Rapids, after which winners will head for Chicago.

Tickets for Golden Gloves are available at several locations in Pontiac including Griffs Grill, Triple X, Club 99, and will be sold at the PCH ticket windows.

Prices start at 99 cents for general admission seats.

Patterson-Johansson Bout Up for Contract

Problems Stir for Heavyweight Match

NEW YORK (UPI) — Promoter Bill Rosensohn declared stoutly today, "I expect Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson to sign contracts tomorrow for a June title fight," despite the following developments:

—Promoter Harry Levene unexpectedly popped off in London and announced that Patterson will defend his world heavyweight title against ex-British Empire champion Brian London of England somewhere in the United States, probably in April.

—Cus D'Amata, Patterson's manager, refused to confirm or deny Levene's London announcement, saying merely, "I'm surprised that Levene would make public any communications between him and myself."

—Contender Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., has filed suit in a New York federal court to restrain top contender Johansson of Sweden from fighting Patterson or anyone else before Johansson has a return bout with Machen.

—Ten cities are now bidding for the Patterson-Johansson fight, including Minneapolis, Philadelphia (two groups), Indianapolis, Los Angeles, New York, Colorado Springs, Colo., and four others whose names Rosensohn will reveal "when they put their invitations in writing."

All parties directly concerned with the Patterson-Johansson classic, and their attorneys, went into a huddle today for what they hoped would be a final review of the contracts. They expected to be in conference from 11:30 a.m. until nightfall.

Slender young Rosensohn did not appear perturbed by the London announcement in which Levene had stated that he and Rosensohn would copromote the Patterson-Brian London fight "somewhere in the United States."

"I have no comment on Levene's announcement," said Rosensohn. "I'm too busy right now to give that or other reports any thought. I am not a juggler. I want to get this Patterson-Johansson match signed."

After the signing, he added, he would make a flying tour of the cities that are bidding for the June fight so that he could announce the site and the date within 30 days.

At London, Levene said that after telephone conversations with D'Amato about the Patterson-Brian London bout, he had received a cablegram reading: "Trying for date and site Brian London. Will inform you. Have patience."

London of Hardborn, Eng., lost his British Isles and empire titles to Henry Cooper of London in a bloody fight on Jan. 12. Cooper had been offered a Patterson fight but he demanded a guarantee of $180,000, Levene said.

Meanwhile, D'Amato called Machen's suit against Johansson "another attempt by the International Boxing Club to block our independent operation."

Plays 'Willy-Nilly'

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Asheville will play in the Class A South Atlantic Baseball League this year, with or without a major league working agreement.

Sam Wolfson, league president, said last night it should be known by Saturday whether the Kansas City Athletics will work with Asheville.

Postponed Avondale Banquet Thursday

The Avondale High School all-sports banquet, postponed last week because of cold weather and hazardous driving conditions, will be held Thursday at 6:30 p.m. in the school gymnasium.

Bill Yeoman, assistant football coach at Michigan State, and Paul Smarks, president of the Michigan High School Coaches Association, will be the guest speakers.

Films of Michigan State and Avondale grid games of last fall will be shown as an added feature. Football letters will be presented and awards will go to the Avon team's most valuable and most improved players. The 1959 captain or captains will also be announced.

Tickets are still available, according to athletic director and football coach Frank Crowell. They may be obtained at the athletic office, from any athlete or at the banquet.

Milwaukee Top Rink

CHICAGO (AP)—The Hugh Sinclair Rink of Milwaukee, defending first event champion, heads 32 rinks entered in the 10th annual International Invitational Mens Bonspiel starting tomorrow. The big curling competition will run through Sunday on the Chicago Curling Club ice in suburban Northbrook.

Ex-Baylor Stars Join Bridgers

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Baylor football coach John Bridgers named two famous Baylor alumni to his coaching staff yesterday—Francis "Cotton" Davidson and Hayden Fry.

The appointments leave only the freshman coaching job to be filled.

Davidson, quarterback of Baylor's "fearsome foursome" backfield of 1953, will be end coach. Fry, who has been head coach at Odessa High School, will be defensive backfield coach.

Strikes and Spares

BY JOE WILMAN

I think bowling courtesy can be summed up in the words "common sense." If a person would just use his common sense in bowling, he will always practice fine bowling courtesy.

Common sense tells you not to damage the alley property. Don't loft your ball. Don't mar the benches or settees. Don't scratch the approaches or alleys.

Common sense tells you not to annoy other bowlers. Don't be too loud or distracting. Don't be a poor sport by always griping about your bad luck or boasting about good scores. Don't give advice unless someone asks for it, and control your temper at all times.

Common sense tells you to bowl within a reasonable length of time. Don't stand out on the approach posing for a minute or two . . . or waiting until bowlers on all sides have finished, as our demonstrator is doing in the sketch today. Be ready to bowl when it's your turn. Don't make teammates hunt for you.

Common sense is the basis for bowling courtesy.

OL St. Mary, Holly, Romeo Score Wins

Orchard Lake St. Mary had to go right down to the wire to pull out a close one while Holly turned its contest into a romp in the last half in the featured games on last night's prep hoop schedule.

Police Gain on 'C' Leader

The Pontiac Police moved within half a game of pace-setting Towne & Country Tuesday night in the Class C City League basketball race with a 44-40 conquest of the Vikings at Jefferson Junior High.

Bill Newman scored 17 points and John Bridgewater added 11 to spark the Policemen, who overcame a 19-16 halftime deficit to win their 5th game in eight starts.

Jack Johnson tallied 17 points to lead Oliver Buick to a 41-33 victory over slumping Winglemire's of Holly in another "C" contest. Jim Jenson bagged 15 in a losing cause.

Lee's Sales & Service defeated Central Christian, 44-40, in a Class D National League game at Lincoln Junior High. Ray Smith of Christian was a star in defeat with 21 points. Larry Bland netted 14 and Mike Montgomery 12 to pace Lee's quintet.

In "D" American League action, the front-running Lakeside Royals gained their 6th decision in seven games with an 80-34 massacre of Jefferson. Clifton McCoy swished 20 points for the Royals and four other Lakeside cagers hit double figures.

Elbert Humphrey and Ron Watkins each fired 11 points for the outclassed Jefferson outfit.

TUESDAY'S FIGHTS

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—Jesse Bowdry, 175½, St. Louis, stopped Clarence Hinnant, 175½, Washington, 10.

CHARLOTTE, N.C.—Randy Sandy, 160, New York, outpointed Walter Irby, 160, Columbia, S.C. 10.

BUFFALO, N.Y.—Jackie Donnelly, Buffalo, 135, outpointed Mickey Driscoll, 137½, Toronto, 8.

OAKLAND, Calif.—Dave Johnson, 148, Oakland, outpointed Joe Miceli, 146½, New York, 10.

The Eaglets, locked in a heated battle for Suburban Catholic League honors with St. Frederick and St. Benedict, broke up a tie in the final seconds to edge Royal Oak St. Mary 44-40 at Royal Oak. Holly walloped previously unbeaten Holy Redeemer 75-59.

Chet Wlodkowski's field goal with 35 seconds left and a pair of fouls shortly after by Don Duszynski wrapped up Orchard Lake's 7th victory in eight loop starts. The pair combined for 28 of the winner's points with Wlodkowski swishing 18.

The Eaglets trailed 11-9 at the 1st period and 23-17 at halftime but caught fire in the 3rd quarter to go ahead. Royal Oak fought back to deadlock the issue with one minute to play. Bill Crawford tallied 13 and Joe Dupree 12 for the losers, who converted 16 of 18 free throws overshadowing an impressive 14-for-20 OLSM record.

Ron Morlan paced the Bronco attack with 23, followed by George McDaniel's 17. It was the 5th time Holly had topped 70 points. George Coggins, who scored 12, and Gary Moody alternated to hold Redeemer scoring whiz Don Hoag to six field goals.

Romeo manhandled Roseville 68-43, Imlay City toyed with Kingston 65-43 in a meeting of unbeaten state powers, South Lyon continued its winning ways by edging Howell 64-60 in overtime, Lapeer downed Flint Mandeville 54-49, North Branch made a good showing but bowed 73-70 at Mayville, Utica belted Lake Shore 62-44 and Millington bowed to old rival Vasser again 60-52 in other area games.

Ray Ritter toppeed seven Romeo scorers with 21 as the Bulldogs had a breeze in a tuneup for Lapeer. Imlay City gained more prestige by extending its string to eight straight with little trouble. Pete Brabb edged Jim Ward for scoring honors 15 to 14.

South Lyon, now 8-1, went into a full court press in the final quarter to overcome a 13-point deficit. Milan Obrenovich's goal from 20 feet out forced an overtime. The Lions dominated the extra period following a quick twin-pointer by Jim Sprague. Doug Kinne led the way with 19. Utica posted its 2nd Bi-County triumph easily.

Lapeer had a 21-point lead at halftime but a combination of a Flint rally and coach Gene Heppinstall's free use of reserves cut the difference down. Butch McKillen sparked the Panthers with 19. Mike Patrick netted 22 and Mike Ribner 21 in the North Branch loss.

Bill Sawyer accounted for 22 of Millington's points. Farmington Our Lady of Sorrow dropped a 42-41 overtime duel to St. Francis Xavier of Ecorse despite Ron Disher's 16 digits.

New Haven tripped Brown City 55-48 and Almont broke up a close game to bomb Dryden 50-29 as the annual Southern Thumb tourney opened at Brown City. Bill Kjerraumgaard sparked New Haven with 17. Jim Ostrander hooped 18 for Almont. Two more games are on tap tonight at Anchor Bay.

LUNKER TROPHY — Derris Nichols, 77 Euclid, was a happy, and lucky, ice fisherman last weekend, one of not too many successful hardy anglers who ventured out during the near-blizzard. Nichols' big northern weighed 14 pounds, was 42 inches long and was taken from Wormer

Weather or Not, Hardy Anglers Enjoy Sport

Ice Okay, Fish Aren't Cooperating

There's plenty of good, solid ice on Oakland county's myriad lakes, and there are lots of good, big panfish and pike to be had. That is, if the sportsman is willing to endure bitter cold and whistling winds and snow.

That there are many avid fishermen who go for this rough-and-tough winter activity is fully evident after a quick swing around the area's favorite ice-fishing waters.

Hundreds of shanties, probably not quite so many as during the 1957-58 winter, dot the frozen surfaces. But the majority of anglers, seeking tasty piscatorial fillets and steaks, use the old standby tip-up rig. Some of the shanties, by the way, are marvels of construction and efficiency.

They range from mere canvas walled frames, to plywood-paneled jobs, and even some of canvas and aluminum make. Most are equipped with stools, spears, lines, and many are heated.

One unusual shanty, that does not require a heater to keep its occupants warm is that owned by John Cavallaro, 3766 Mariner, Drayton Plains. Its an aluminum job, easy to handle, and comfortable, without a heater. The Drayton man, a draftsman at Chrysler Missile Plant, fishes whenever he gets the opportunity, mostly on Big Silver, near his home.

John's neighbor, Dick Lynd, who operates his own business at Drayton, says he really likes this winter fishing. He made use of Cavallaro's shanty last weekend but never landed a fish.

Still another Drayton area fisherman, who likes Big Silver Lake, is Howard Helsel, who had pretty good luck, last weekend, despite the blizzardy conditions. He landed several fat bluegills, using a tip-up.

One of the biggest pike of the winter, for the area was the 14-pounder speared through the ice of Wormer Lake, north of Pontiac. Derris Nichols, a mid-year Pontiac Central High graduate, was the lucky fisherman. The 42-inch-long lunker was the biggest fish Nichols, 18, had ever taken. He, and his father, Albert, who live at 77 Euclid, have fished together several times, this winter, but Derris has had the only luck.

"Now that I am out of school," says Derris, "I'll probably get in a lot of ice fishing. We've been getting some nice panfish, too."

Checks made of thickness of ice reveal that it runs from eight inches up to 18 inches on some waters. Average, however, was about 12 inches.

Little Stories About Outdoors

Michigan Bow Hunters Assn., dedicated to the exciting sport of hunting afield and in forest for game, has completed preparations for the "archers only" rabbit hunt at Perry this Saturday. Many bowmen from this section will take part, it is expected.

The hunt will be held on the William Evanoff farm, five miles northeast of Perry. There is a $1 registration fee that will go to the Perry Lions Club to aid in its program for furnishing eyeglasses for underprivileged children.

Hunters over 16 years of age must be members of the association, but memberships may be secured at hunt headquarters.

The association also has set the date for its first "archers only" bobcat hunt at Cedarville, in the UP, Feb. 28.

Mrs. John Thompson of Farmington, widely known handler of Brittany spaniel field dogs, did all right at the recent Pinehurst, N.C., meet. She brought Peggy of Hunterhaven (Howard Crippen, Dearborn) home a winner of the open puppy stake, and also handled Tanti's Maitresse Dickory to a 3rd in the same event. Her husband handled Belloak's O'Don to a 2nd in the stake.

There's a new .22 caliber semi-automatic rifle on the market that operates without lubrication, except on outside steel parts. It uses a new product called zytel, which lends its name to the weapon, called by Remington Arms Co. the "Nylon 66." All moving parts bear against nylon. It is the first major change in firearm-making in more than 50 years, the manufacturers say.

State game management officials, biologists and conservation workers have provided the material for a long-ahead looksee into the future of Michigan as an outdoor state. Prof. Warren Chase of the U. of M. says from a study of the survey that "there is no reason" to expect that the state will not continue to be an "outdoor paradise" with abundant wildlife for hunters 25 years hence.

Beginning in April this year, daily camping fees for state parks, which include a number in Oakland County, will be boosted 25 cents. Rising costs and a desire to make Michigan fees conform to those in Wisconsin and Minnesota dictated the increase.

GOT ONE! — The nice bluegill Howard Heisel, Kennett road, pulled out of the icy waters of Big Silver Lake, as The Press camera passed that way was his third. Two others are on the ice at bottom left of photo. Howard was really bundled up for the chilly business, last weekend.

The tapir is the biggest game animal in South America and is much sought after by native hunters.

Except Where It Hits Food Sources

Wildlife Indifferent to Cold Weather

By JACK PATTERSON

Wildlife enjoys an indifference to extremes of temperature that humans might well envy. The prolonged cold spell that has more or less patiently endured probably hasn't registered one way or another on most wild creatures. The Detroit River swans that have been in the limelight lately are a case in point. Now reunited there is nothing to stop them from heading for warmer waters but chances are they'll fool around in the frigid waves of Lake Erie until March, then head north.

PATTERSON

Other cold weather lovers are great horned owls which occasionally nest in these latitudes in January. It would seem to us to be enough of a problem to keep one's feet warm, perched in a tree these days, let alone trying to keep a clutch of eggs from freezing.

And then along the roadsides flocks of snow buntings seem to delight in snowy, windy, generally foul weather, and the colder, and snowier and windier it is, the better they like it.

Cold in and of itself, doesn't seem to cause any hardships in the woods and on the waters but certain weather conditions, those that interfere with availability of food, can cause an immense loss of wildlife.

For example, a sharp freeze on the Gulf Coast can make it impossible for species such as woodcock and jacksnipe to get their daily weight in earthworms. And, while they can shrug off the temperature they can't shrug off starvation. So food, not thermometer readings, governs the well being and comfort of wild species, except where the one may depend on the other.

On the eve of his departure for Chile, Mort Neff addressed the Pontiac Rotary Club and inevitably got onto the subject of winter deer feeding. Hay, the most common supplementary feed doesn't have the necessary elements to keep deer from starving according to research findings of the game division.

It is not uncommon to find starved deer with stomachs full of hay. This should give exponents of artificial winter feeding something to think about.

Grain feeding of pheasants, quail and other wild birds is something else again. Although well able to stand very cold temperatures, these birds may suffer from inability to get at natural foods because of heavy snow, or more particularly, ice. Corn, sunflower seeds and other "wild bird" mixtures are very welcome additions to such birds' diets.

Bear Invading Lapeer County, Grocer Reports

Either the competition for forage is getting too tough, or a certain black bear has figured it's much easier to get along in southern Michigan's milder winters. A Lapeer county grocer, Ralph Warup, is reported to have seen a cub near his store on M21.

Marty Heim, Lapeer newspaperman, says Warup followed the cub, discovered another set of footprints — but much bigger — in the snow. He didn't see the adult bear, presumably the cub's parent, nor did another Lapeer man, who found tracks of two bears near his farm. John Sinclair, the farmer, lives about a mile from where the cub was seen.

As far as Oakland county sportsmen know, no bear have actually been seen in this section for many years.

Provides Rides for Thousands

Childhood dreams come true at John F. Ivory's 140-acre estate, 9960 Cooley Lake Road in Milford, about eight miles west of Pontiac.

For that is where children can enjoy free rides through six miles of woodland roads behind teams of handsome, high-stepping ponies. In a little more than two years Mr. Ivory has provided free pony rides for approximately 225,000 children —and grown-ups, too.

This diversion has become so popular that Mr. Ivory can no longer invite everybody to drop in whenever they feel like it, as he did in his early days on Cooley Lake Road. Now he suggests advance reservations, because the demand for the gratis pony rides is often far greater than his six hitches can accommodate.

"We have never turned down a bona fide request for rides yet, but sometimes we have to ask folks to wait a bit," he says. "We feel that any boy or girl who comes here should have a good, long ride. That takes time. We have accommodated as many as 9,000 guests in a single day—but we have had requests for as many as 23,000 rides in one day."

Mr. Ivory now has 56 ponies on hand for the rides. He usually has six hitches available, including three rare pure-bred Palomino hitches, perhaps the only hitches of their kind in the U. S.

Warm-Up Trial for Shorthairs

A "warmup" field trial for all pointing breeds, plus an exhibition bench show, is on the program, Sunday, Feb. 1, for the German Shorthaired Pointer club of Michigan. Secretary Floyd L. Breaugh of Burmingham announced today the events will take place at Dixon's Kennels, 29691 27 Mile Rd. New Haven. Trial starts at 9 a.m.

Russ Dixon, widely known trainer, will instruct participants.

The bench show is designed to acquaint inexperienced handlers with bench show procedure.

The club also announced its two-day spring field trial at Highland Recreation area, on April 11-12.

New officers, named recently, include Carl Johnston, president; William Kinnunen, vice president, and Floyd Breaugh, secretary treasurer.

Calling All Winners

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — John J. Madala, director of security at Hialeah race track, can contact key personnel at almost any spot around the course via the track's own radio station and pocket-size receivers. The sets measure only a few inches and are worn under a jacket or carried in a pocket. A wire runs from the receiver to an ear plug speaker which resembles a hearing aid.

COME ON, FISH, BITE! — John Cavvallero of Drayton Plains doesn't bother too much about the weather, when there's some fishing to be done. Above he pulled off a glove to light a cigarette while waiting for a fat bluegill to take his bait. He didn't have too much luck last Sunday on Big Silver. His seat is a crate. His bait can is in the background.

Winter Surveys Begin

LANSING (UPI) — Conservation department survey crews have begun annual winter reconnaissance on lakes in Allegan, Barry, Kalamazoo, Van Buren and Montcalm counties, director Gerald E. Eddy said.

Many of the lakes have fish management programs in progress or planned, he said.

A Persistent Bear

STAUNTON, Va. (AP) — Virginia has trapped, tagged and released 26 bears in the mountains near here. One had been trapped twice —the first time weighing 175 pounds and the second time 400. He was caught at the same site on both occasions—the garbage dump at the Big Levels Refuge.

CHAPTER XXXVIII

"I didn't know whether it would hold us up or not," said Miss Seton, "but I was desperate to try anything — anything. When I found the door locked, and started to come back to my room, I was beginning to realize that I'd acted stupidly. The only thing was—"

"The only thing was that Tarrant had seen her," said Mr. Holt. "He'd heard you both go down to the phone. He heard Miss Seton go down again — and he followed her. He saw her trying to get into the garage, and naturally he asked her what it was all about. And most unfortunately, she —"

"I didn't tell him," said Miss Seton. "But he got it out of me, bit by bit. When I sit here and say this to you, I can't believe that I could have been so crazy — but try to put your mind back and imagine how I was feeling.

"If I'd been myself, I would have realized that the only thing was to get away from Maurice at once and let him surmise anything he could. But I thought I could keep my head and tell him some kind of story that would satisfy him. I couldn't. When I got back to my room, I was thinking clearly, but it was too late."

"And from then on," said Mr. Holt, "Tarrant has been taking the initiative. He wasn't interested in the actors, but the situation seemed to offer an opportunity for some fun — and so he took it. His first attempt at delaying tactics wasn't a success, all he got was a crack on the wrist."

'I TOLD HER'

"When did Miss Seton tell you" asked Angus.

"She didn't tell me. I told her. I saw her with Yule's dispatch case."

"When the case disappeared," said Miss Seton, "I knew that it must be another attempt on Maurice's part to cause a delay. He thought — I suppose we all thought — that the papers in it were important. But they weren't."

"So when you offered to help me look for the case," Angus asked her, "you knew he'd taken it?"

"I was pretty sure. I knew he must have put it into one of the lockers — his own, probably. And and hid it under his coat — and raining when we got out of the coach? He put his coat on his arm, and as he went past Lionel Yule's seat, he picked up the case and hit it under his coat — and then it was easy to stoop down and put it into his locker. I opened it and saw the case — and Mr. Holt saw it, too. When I said nothing, he knew that something was going on between Maurice and myself."

"And so, I went first to Tarrant," said Mr. Holt. "He sent me to Miss Seton. And she told me the story, and that's why I was looking out for signs of trouble yesterday. I knew that Tarrant would try something, in spite of having been told by Miss Seton — and by me, more forcibly — to lay off.

"It didn't take long to find the branches all hooked up. He was with Lord Lorrimer, walking with him up to the spot where the accident was to take place. I was unhooking the branches when I saw the Admiral on his way over — at speed. He'd given the old Cub call and was a-coming. He grabbed my shirt and he got two green-and-red checks and a button — and then he lost his balance and went down.

"I could have said something to you then, but I hadn't been able to persuade Miss Seton to let me talk. I wanted her to tell you, or to let me tell you what was going on, before there was real trouble.

"There's no real harm in Tarrant, but you know how it is, these juvenile types start something for fun, and then they go on with it for more fun, and next thing you know, they've taken it up in earnest. You watch two little boys playing, the same thing happens, they start out dealing each other playful taps, and suddenly they're rolling in the mud trying to batter one another to pulp. Tarrant's trouble is just that he doesn't know when to stop."

JUST A SILLY MAN

"How," asked Angus, "did you know where he'd hidden his luggage?"

"That wasn't difficult. We're not dealing with a clever man, just a silly one. Everything he did, he did crudely. He didn't stop to think out anything. His plans were as childish as the way he put them into effect.

I knew he must have put his grips into the first place he could find that they'd fit into — and it had to be the cupboard outside his room, where the servants wouldn't think of looking for a passenger's baggage.

I was pretty sure you'd know I'd written the note telling you where the stuff was — but at that time, Miss Seton was still holding out against talking."

"I didn't want to tell you," Miss Seton told Angus, "for several reasons. My first instinct had been to tell you what Rosamund was going to do — but I didn't tell you that night, and after that it was too late, because it became clear that you were going to be closely connected with Lord Lorrimer. And once the delaying attempts began, I couldn't say anything to you because you were on the side of the company."

"And she also knew," said Mr. Holt, "that Angela Clunes was going to be hurt badly when she learned the truth about her father, and she thought that if she told you, it would put you in a difficult position. And now she's told you, and you're in it. But we're all in it, Lord Lorrimer, and Miss Seton, and Tarrant and you and I. The Admiral and his sister got mixed up in it, and so did the Zollers."

Grain Dealings Generally Slow

CHICAGO (AP)—Fairly broad general weakness hit the grain futures market again today in slow early dealings on the Board of Trade.

Nearly all grains were off as much as a half cent a bushel within the first several minutes against only a scattered, moderate demand.

There were reports of a good volume of export business overnight but it appeared purchases on the accounts already had been made. Yugoslavia bought 350,000 bushels of wheat, West Germany 1,120,000 bushels, and Formosa 400,000 bushels of soybeans. Japan also took about 700,000 bushels of Pacific Coast white wheat.

Wheat was ⅜ to 1 cent a bushel lower near the end of the first hour, March $1.97¼; corn ¼ to ½ lower, March old type contract $1.14⅛, oats unchanged, March 67; rye ⅛ to ⅝ lower, March $1.35⅛, soybeans ¼ to ⅝ lower, March $2.19⅛.

Rejects Virginia Integration Stay

Order for Admission of 4 Negroes to White School Still Holds

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge Albert V. Bryan today rejected a plea of the Arlington County School Board to delay the admission of four Negroes to a white school until next September.

The judge's order for the admission of the four to Startford Junior High School next Monday remains in effect.

In denying the school board's petition, the judge said he did not feel there had been any showing of changed circumstances or conditions to justify him in delaying admissions.

The school board has made arrangements to enroll the Negroes if last-ditch legal maneuvers fail to win a delay. It has told pupils not to protest integrated classes and warned that any violence would bring expulsion.

The board contended today that it would be detrimental to the Negroes to shift to the white junior high school during the school year.

Attorneys for the Negroes contended the school board had not raised this contention previously and insisted it came too late.

Mandel Resigns Post on Ziem's Staff

The resignation of Paul Mandel as an assistant prosecutor was announced today by Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

Mandel, with the prosecutor's office three years, resigned to enter private practice in Pontiac. Attorney for Waterford Township, Mandel lives at 3549 Baybrook Dr., Waterford Township.

Replacing Mandel, Ziem said, will be James E. Nichols, who served as an assistant on Ziem's staff in 1956 and 1957. Nichols, a Southfield Township resident, has been privately practicing in Royal Oak.

Royal Oak Area Police Lose Appeal Case Here

The Royal Oak Township Police Department, already suffering legal headaches in its dispute with the Oakland County Sheriff's Department, suffered further limitations of authority Tuesday following a ruling by Oakland County Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Judge Beer dismissed a disorderly charge against a Detroit man, ruling the township ordinance governing disorderly conduct as invalid.

The defendant, identified by the court as Owen Rucker of 577 E. Canfield Ave., previously had been arrested by the township police and convicted on a disorderly conduct charge in the township justice court.

He appealed the case to the Circuit Court. Judge Beer dismissed charges overruling the justice court conviction.

The judge explained that "laws are made by the State Legislature or are embodied in township ordinances in accordance with power delegated by the State Legislature.

"The Legislature had not delegated the power to pass this ordinance to the township government in question. Therefore, the township was out of its field in making such a law."

The township also is struggling to remedy a situation brought about when Sheriff Frank W. Irons failed to renew the deputy status of its police officers, which expired Dec. 31.

Two Area Brothers Sentenced for Theft

Two Pontiac area brothers, Howard R. and Robert C. Wardell, who pleaded guilty to burglarizing a Henrietta bar following their arrest by Cadillac State Police were sentenced Tuesday by Circuit Judge Howard L. Campbell at Cadillac.

Both Howard, 39, of 111 Gladstone Place, and Robert, 30, of Milford, received sentences of 7½ to 15 years in prison.

After being arrested by troopers the pair was questioned by local police and sheriff's deputies and admitted to being responsible for over a half-dozen unsolved Oakland County break-ins.

Authorities said the two, under intensive questioning, admitted a total of 24 burglaries in the Pontiac area and northern Michigan over the past 18 months. The estimated value of their loot was set at more than $10,000.

News in Brief

Denver Cooper, of 170 N. Opdyke Rd., Pontiac Township, a resident of the Auburn Heights Trailer Camp, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies Tuesday that someone stole two propane gas tanks valued at $31 from alongside his trailer.

Four kitchen cupboard doors valued at $30 were stolen from a home under construction at 2822 Tienken Rd., Pontiac Township, Tuesday, according to Oakland County sheriff's reports.

About one-quarter of soft coal mined in the U.S. is from open pits.

Stocks Active and Irregular

NEW YORK (AP) — Lower-priced issues were briskly traded as the stock market milled irregularly early this afternoon in active dealings.

Coppers and rubbers forged gains among the higher quality stocks which otherwise showed a scramble of gains and losses kept mostly within a 1-point range.

Zenith was a glittering exception, jumping about 13 points on its proposed 3-for-1 stock split.

Coppers were helped by news of gains for the red metal in the commodity market and a boost at the custom smelter level. A published report of a comeback in tire sales spurred the rubbers.

Steels and rails were mostly lower while utilities held firm on balance. Chemicals, oils, aircrafts and building materials were mixed.

The ticker tape was late for a 10-minute period at the opening and once again very briefly in the morning.

Cuba Postpones Showcase Trial

Taking Time Out to Celebrate Birthday of National Hero

HAVANA (AP)—The third showcase war crimes trial of Batista army officers was postponed today for celebrations of the 106th birthday of Jose Marti, Cuba's George Washington.

A military tribunal considering an appeal from the first Batistan sentenced to death in the capital, ex-Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, also suspended its deliberations, apparently to await new defense evidence.

The second defendant, ex-Capt. Pedro Morejon, also was expected to appeal the death sentence given him early Tuesday.

Officials of Fidel Castro's revolutionary army meanwhile announced arrests at five different places on charges of plotting to overthrow the new regime. Large supplies of weapons and ammunition also were seized, the officials reported.

Details of the alleged plot were not made public, but authorities said reunions of subversive elements had been held in various places. The plotters presumably were followers of ex-president Fulgencio Batista, the ousted dictator.

Drive to Rebuild Steel Stockpiles Now a Stampede

NEW YORK (AP) — The drive to rebuild steel inventories is turning into a stampede according to Iron Age, national metalworking weekly.

The publication said steel users are ordering steel for second quarter delivery and at the same time placing orders for the first quarter. Order books are filling up for both quarters.

"Many companies are fighting an uphill battle in their attempts to rebuild inventories," Iron Age said. "While they are taking in more steel, they are also using more because their own business has improved."

Students Build Car That Doesn't Need Any Gas

WESTFIELD, N. J. (AP)—High school students here have built the last word in economy cars, a model with a $50 price tag that doesn't require any gas at all.

The car, modeled after a 1903 Delton, was built by 50 students under the supervision of two industrial arts teachers. It has wire wheels, black upholstery and a glistening maroon finish.

It has no engine of course. That's where the economy comes in. The students may get around to that detail next term.

Steel Output Remains Level in Detroit Area

DETROIT (AP) — Iron Age said Tuesday steel production this week in the Detroit area will hold close to last week's level with plants operating at 95.2 per cent of capacity.

Production this week was estimated by the trade publication at about 141,000 tons. The figure compares to last week's production of 144,600 tons.

Ironrite Recalls 60

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP)—Ironrite who have been idle for 18 to 24 months to meet a production increase. The company's new production schedule calls for 170 ironers a day, almost double recent production. Ironrite now employs 275 workers.

Scare Off Some Buyers

Price Stickers on Autos Confusing to Customers

By DAVID J. WILKIE
AP Automotive Writer

DETROIT (AP)—The average American motorist is eager to buy a new car but he continues extremely price conscious.

In some instances, the new price sticker with suggested list price for the car and equipment scares would-be buyers out of the salesrooms.

Field reports indicate this happens despite the fact that few cars are sold at the full list price. The price at which a car is sold is determined by the dealer. With a markup ranging up to 25 per cent for the car and even more on accessories, he has some area for price discounting.

But many prospective buyers believe the stickers carry the price at which the cars must be sold. A major objective of the price-labeling law was disclosure to the buyers of exactly what kind of a bargain the dealer was offering when he quoted a reduced figure.

Enactment of the labeling law followed what were called unrealistic discount offers by some dealers throughout the country.

Some surveys indicate many retailers are giving showroom prominence to their lower priced models in an effort to offset the initial impact of higher list prices.

Suggested list prices have been moving upward steadily, with few exceptions, over the last decade. Ten years ago, after introducing 1949 models with higher price tags, the industry almost generally announced reductions, ranging from $10 to $30 in the lower price bracket, to as much as $100 on medium and higher priced cars.

The price reductions stimulated sales. The postwar shortages had been wiped out. Sales in 1949 increased to 4,838,000 units compared with 3,500,000 in 1948.

Another reflection of price consciousness is seen in increasing interest in six-cylinder cars with price tags about $120 lower than eights.

There are reports, too, of growing inquiries in some sections about availability of cars in the lower price field without options like power steering, braking and other power-actuated accessories and minus white sidewall tires, radios and other extra cost items.

But car buyers have been unhappy about prices ever since automobile production and merchandising reached the volume stage. And, as often as not, after haggling interminably about quoted prices, they complete the transaction by purchasing several hundred dollars worth of optional comfort and appearance options.

The business of making and selling cars has changed little since 1949. That was the first year in which the industry built more than five million cars. Exports and inventory carryover accounted for the difference between the 5,119,000 assemblies and the 4,838,000 retail deliveries.

The factory output at that time had a wholesale value of $6,650,857,000. By contrast, the 4,247,000 passenger cars built in U. S. plants last year had an estimated wholesale value of eight billion dollars.

Gas Rate Case Is Winding Up

Consumers Power Asks $15 Million a Year Hike in 61-County Area

LANSING (AP) — Only oral arguments remained today to wind up Consumers Power Co.'s case for an electric rate increase of $15,300,000 a year.

These will be heard by the State Public Service Commission Feb. 3.

Consumers filed its final written brief yesterday, contending the requested rate hike is necessary if the utility is to maintain the high standards of service which subscribers demand.

The company serves a 61-county area including Pontiac, Battle Creek, Bay City, Alma, Flint, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Muskegon, Traverse City and Saginaw.

"The record clearly demonstrates that the company's electric earnings are inadequate," the brief said.

Bay City and the Michigan Utility Rate Payers Assn. have opposed the higher rates. The increase petition was filed nearly a year ago.

600 Mothers Get Ready for March on Polio

More than 600 mothers will join in the annual porchlight campaign tomorrow evening to raise funds for the National Foundation, according to Mrs. Raymond Rapaport, campaign chairman.

Mothers are organized in every Pontiac school district, and will knock on every door where there is a porch light on between 7 and 8 p.m., she said.

Funds collected will go to both the national and local offices of the foundation, formerly known as the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON ACQUIRing certain private property by condemnation on Southfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan, for use and benefit of the Evergreen Sewage Disposal System.

L 45976

To whom it may concern, particularly Ralph S. Shroder and Emaline A. Shroder, his wife, and all owners of property described herein, pursuant to the provisions of Act 185 of the Public Acts of 1957, as amended.

You are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statute, the Department of Public Works on behalf of the County of Oakland, has caused to be filed in this Court a petition praying for the acquisition by condemnation of easements across certain private property herein described, to-wit:

"An easement sixty (60) feet wide over and across Lot 12 of Supervisors Plat No. 13, Southfield Township, being part of the West ½ of Section 2 and part of the East ½ of Section 3, T 1 N, R 10 E, Southfield Township, Oakland County, Michigan, according to the Plat thereof recorded June 7, 1934, in Liber 54 of Plats, pages 44 and 44A Oakland County Records, with the center line of said easement described as follows:

One Way Wrong Way Then Right Way Is Wrong

CHICAGO (UPI) — Edward Meier, president of the 45th ward Democratic organization, said a constituent came to him with this complaint:

He got a ticket yesterday for driving the wrong way on a one-way street.

About an hour and a half later he got a ticket for driving the opposite direction on the same street—for the same violation.

Meier investigated and found that in the interval, street crews had discovered they put the one-way signs up wrong and turned them around. The unidentified driver will probably have to pay both fines anyway, Meier said.

What! No Foam? Punch Two Holes

CHICAGO (UPI) — One hole in the can will give you a foamy glass of beer, according to researchers for a can company, while punching two holes and pouring gently down the side of the glass will result in a sudsless brew.

The researchers also found that foamy beer has a soft, mellow character, while the other kind has a somewhat sharper flavor. Beer at temperatures of between 50 and 55 degrees was found to have the most flavor.

Baghdad Group Sets Up Center

Votes to Establish New Nuclear Research Post in Tehran

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—The Baghdad Pact Ministerial Council today decided to open a new nuclear training center in Tehran to replace the one it set up in Baghdad in 1957.

A communique ending the three-day meeting said work on the half-million-dollar project would begin at once.

Creation of a new center for isotope research was the biggest decision announced by the council, which concentrated mainly on considering the effects of Iraq's defection from the organization.

The council decided against any move to oust Iraq although Iraqi Premier Abdel Karim Kassem has boycotted the alliance since seizing power since last July. The ministers also decided against changing the name of the organization from that of the Iraqi capital, where the alliance first met four years ago.

The communique said the threat of both direct and indirect aggression is undiminished. It said continuing efforts by international communism to dominate the pact area make the necessity for strengthening collective security as great as ever.

Your Grades Are Slipping

Buckle Down, Professor

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Buckle down, professor. Your grades are slipping.

College instructors are in for a rude shock. Times are changing.

That meek lad in the front row who never gets his homework done is likely to become a real pill.

Instead of telling just his roommate or his date what he thinks of Prof. Jones and his English course, he'll soon be telling it to the college authorities.

That's the plan in the works on one of the biggest campuses in the country, the 17,000-student University of Southern California.

Students will size up a course and the way the teacher handles it. They won't rate professors or courses against each other. Nor will actual grades be used. They'll simply say what they think of things and what should be done, if anything.

Student opinions will be pooled into reports for the teacher and, alas, his superiors.

"We don't want to make our education easier—we just want to make it better," says Scott Fitz-Randolph, president of the student body.

Dr. Colin Lovell, associate professor of history, thinks the idea is nonsense.

"The only people who are qualified to evaluate anything are those who are qualified in that particular field," says Lovell.

Student backers of the plan disagree.

"Anybody is qualified to do it who is sincere in his evalation," FitzRandolph declares. "We'll give more weight to the proven scholar but the fact that a person is getting a bad grade may indicate something wrong with the course or the way it' taught."

Only volunteers among the faculty will be used to start with.

"We're going slow and sure," FitzRandolph says. "We want this to be well thought out on the highest objective level."

Red Peasants Stage Rallies Backing Plan

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russian peasants pledged themselves at rallies throughout the land today to carry out Premier Nikita Khrushchev's program to outproduce the West and win the world for communism.

Mass meetings at factories and collective farms hailed the seven-year economic development plan which Khrushchev laid before the 21st special Communist Party congress yesterday, the state radio reported. They pledged to over-fulfill their quotas.

Khrushchev told the congress that war can be eliminated by peaceful economic competition. But he warned that the enormous forces of the Communist world "can rebuff the imperialist aggressor and crush them if they unleash a new war." He added that Russian intercontinental missiles are now in mass production.

The congress' 1,269 voting delegates met today inside the Kremlin to voice agreement with Khrushchev's boast that:

1. The seven-year plan plus production increases in other Soviet camp nations would bring their output to more than half the world's total.

2. Other countries will see the superiority of communism and adopt it as the quickest way to industrialization. Then the peaceful triumph of communism over capitalism will be assured.

The delegates, which included Khrushchev's Deputy Anastas Mikoyan, fresh from his sortie behind the American lines, were meeting in secret after yesterday's precedent-breaking action in admitting western correspondents.

Turkey to Boast in '62 of Largest Campus

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI)—The Middle East Technical University, now being built outside Ankara, will boast the largest campus in the world.

Just under 11,000 acres, the university will be as large as Oxford and Cambridge combined. Six schools, with a total enrollment of about 15,000 students, will offer courses in architecture, engineering, administrative science, agriculture, nuclear technology and education.

The propect is being financed almost entirely by Turkey, which will spend 11 million dollars on the university by 1962. The United Nations will provide teachers and equipment and Britain is contributing 70 million dollars towards physics and electrical engineering departments.

Alleged Embezzler Free on Bond Today

DETROIT (UPI)—A retired credit union manager accused of embezzling nearly $125,000 was free on bond today and said he planned to return to Florida until his examination in recorder's court.

Allan S. Fowler, 69, stood mute on the specific charge of embezzling $2,382 during a two month period last year. Recorder's Judge W. McKay Skillman entered a plea of innocent.

Fowler, wearing summer clothing and showing a deep tan, posted $5,000 bond after Judge Skillman set examination for Feb. 19.

Showdown Looms on Segregation

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Virginia's legislature meets in emergency session today with pro-segregation leaders apparently set to go to almost any lengths to prevent integration of public schools.

As the Legislature gathered to hear Gov. J. Lindsay Almond's proposals for continued segregation, plans moved forward that could lead to the integration of schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville and Arlington.

The last barrier to the operation of desegregated schools in Norfolk apparently was removed late Tuesday when Federal Judge Walter E. Hoffman restrained the city council of the state's largest city from cutting off funds for all grades above the sixth as it had proposed to do Feb. 1.

A few hours earlier, Charlottesville's City Council endorsed the stand of its school board—which proposes to operate integrated schools—if necessary—and said it is "unthinkable that we should abandon our public school system."

School officials in Arlington planned to seek a stay of a Federal Court order admitting four Negroes to Stratford Junior High School on Monday. At the same time, the school board moved ahead with plans to operate the school on an integrated basis if required.

Nine schools have been closed since September—six in Norfolk, two in Charlottesville and one at Front Royal. The law under which they were shut down has been thrown out by both a special three-judge Federal Court and the Virginia Supreme Court.

There were advance indications the Almond administration would make two proposals—repeal of the state's compulsory school attendance law and enactment of new laws to provide state tuition grants for private schooling of children without any reference to the racial situation.

Jobs for Tiny Tots Urged by Professor

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Dean Athelstan Spilhaus, University of Minnesota professor and critic of modern education has suggested starting homework at the kindergarten level to prepare the children for higher education.

Spilhaus said the kindergarten pupil could be given some simple task such as bringing some item to school the next day. The tasks would become more complex as the child moved from grade to grade and would prepare him for the work load of higher education.

Chicago is headquarters for 49 of the nation's 500 largest companies, placing it second to New York in this respect.

TV's 'Hit Maker' Has Own Ideas

This Young Star Wants No Short Term Killing; Hopes for Long Career

By DICK KLEINER

NEW YORK—The most widespread rumors around town are that Marilyn Monroe is a girl—and that Dick Clark is "on the take."

There's a lot of truth to the first one but the second, according to Clark, is absolutely untrue.

"It would be ridiculous for me to take money from performers," he says, with great vehemence. "Much too risky. Just suppose I was to get $1,000 from every act that went on my show. Last year we used around 200 acts. That's $200,000.

"Now that isn't peanuts. But it isn't much compared to a 20-year career, which I hope to have. And I do better than that as it is."

But the stories continue to circulate. You'll hear that Clark has an interest in record companies (untrue, he says) and music publishing firms (ditto) and that every act that goes on his show has to kick back part of its fee (see denial above).

Clark's youthful face becomes tired and distressed as he shakes his head over these stories.

"They bother me," he says. "Not so much any more. You get used to it, I guess. I used to worry about it, lie awake nights worrying about it—but it's so futile.. I keep denying the stories, and they keep going anyhow."

Clark, an intelligent, quiet-spoken and ordinarily calm young man (he's only 29), realizes that scurrilous talk of some kind almost always crops up about any star. So he's grown philosophical about the rumors, but they still rankle.

His meteoric career—from disc jockey to the admitted "hit-maker" of the record business in a bit over a year and a half—has not affected him, if you can judge by outward appearances. He still seems to be as level-headed and modest as he was in December, 1957.

It was then, just after his "American Bandstand" went on the network and months before the advent of "The Dick Clark Show," that he told this writer—"My ambition?—what more can a 27-year-old want than a 90-minute live network show?"

Now, of course, he has a 90-minute live network show AND a 30-minute live network show, but he still says he has no greater ambition. He still feels that he's the luckiest man there is.

This is not to say that he doesn't have dreams—"but I don't like to talk about them—too often something goes wrong"—and one of these seems likely to come to pass this summer. He'll make his first movie, under a deal whereby he'll produce four pictures and star in two of them.

Then he may do some other shows, perhaps another half-hour nighttime program (the present plans involve a talent panel) and perhaps some spectaculars in the spring.

For Clark, the long future seems to be beckoning with nothing but promise. Of all the young personalities on the entertainment scene today, he appears to have the greatest chance for big-time success. His assets for his job are enormous—good looks, nice voice, ability to project a likeable personality and common sense.

And it's just because of the fine career that seems assured, he says, that he'd be foolish to risk it all for a few fast bucks by being "on the take" today.

"Ask anybody in the music business," he says. "The top men, they respect me. These stories come from the slime at the bottom of the business."

The chances are that Dick Clark will still be rolling along when the people who are telling stories about him are long gone.

This Fellow Due for Rough Day at Court Hearing

GREENSBORO, N. C. (UPI) — Earl Holland, 22, of Greensboro, will have a busy day in court here next week.

Holland is charged with conspiring to rob Shirley Newell, Rt. 2, Elon College, of $200 in a cafe here the night of Jan. 2; assaulting Jimmy C. Hagan with a deadly weapon with intent to kill last Oct. 18; careless and reckless driving involving an accident; operating a motor vehicle after revocation of license; displaying a ficticious operator's permit; hit-and-run driving; having no valid operator's permit; and speeding.

Holland is scheduled to be tried in Guilford Superior Court in a new two-week criminal term starting next Monday.

Loftiest oil field in the world is in Colorado and is at elevations that range from 7,800 to 8,500 feet.

Town's Fanciest Pets Join the Social Whirl

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I trotted over to the dressy Animal Kingdom Ball which Joan Crawford chairwomaned for the ASPCA and found Our Town's leading ladies discussing their animals —their dogs, cats, monkeys, hamsters . . . and husbands.

WILSON

While I was bragging about our monkey Scratchy, who drinks coffee, Mrs. Durward Kirby said:

"Come over here and meet my girl friend, Brandy. She has a monkey that drinks martinis."

Martha Raye noticed a couple of wolfhounds on leashes at the ball and insisted on getting them some water. (This was about the only water drunk at the ball.)

Martha — who owns four basset hounds and a boxer—told me that Grace Kelly just sent a toy poodle to her daughter Melody, a grown-up girl now in high school. It was in return for Martha's playing a benefit in Monaco last summer.

"We call it 'Monac,'" Martha said.

Then Martha asked if I'd mention her husband Bob O'Shea's detective agency which he calls "Personal Security." He has 18 ex-paratroopers and ex-detectives sleuthing under him.

"What do they specialize in—divorce evidence?" I asked.

"Oh, no!" Martha replied proudly. "Sure, they tail. But they also repossess cars, they recover stolen pearls and all that jazz. They can tail cheatin' wives and husbands, but they won't bust in a door for adultery evidence — that's too messy!"

Relief Bill Due Self-Employed

Would Allow Them to Defer Tax Payments on Up to $2,500

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congressional tax writers soon will begin a drive to give major tax relief to self-employed persons, it was disclosed today.

The drive will start so early in the 86th Congress that backers figure the legislation has a good chance of reaching the White House this year.

The tax relief proposal—which would cost the treasury an estimated 365 million dollars in revenue—is designed to help doctors, farmers, business proprietors and other self-employed persons build up retirement funds.

It would allow self-employed persons to defer payment of taxes until age 65 on 10 per cent of their earnings which they voluntarily place in retirement funds. The maximum amount on which tax deferral would be granted would be set at $2,500 a year.

Members said the bill would be called up for a vote within the next week or two in the House Ways & Means Committee, which initiates all tax legislation. It was regarded as a foregone conclusion that the legislation would be approved.

Bandit Takes $80, Name, Address; Says He'll Repay

DETROIT (AP)—Leo J. Groneck stopped for a traffic signal on his way home ast night when a man pulled open the car door and got in. The stranger flashed a gun and said, "I've got to have $90."

Groneck turned over $80, explaining that was all he had.

The bandit then pulled out pencil and pad and wrote down Groneck's name and address. He promised to return the cash when he could.

No Brave British Hound?

LONDON (UPI) —The Association of Dog Biscuit Manufacturers announced that it will not award its silver trophy and a six-months supply of dog biscuits to the bravest British dog this year because no British dog has been sufficiently brave.

William Tell Leaps Over the Wall for Serial Film

LONDON (UPI)—William Tell won't complain if TV camermen cut off his feet.

In fact, the cameramen have orders to do just that because actor Conrad Phillips' foot is in a plaster cast as a result of a four-foot leap he executed yesterday while playing the role of Tell in a serial.

Burlesque in Its Dotage Describes Skelton Show

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — Television has digested most of its funnymen, but Red Skelton manages to remain unchewed.

Last night CBS-TV offered Skelton twice — once on a painfully limp Arthur Godfrey show and again on his own show. Skelton obviously is not only a study in survival, he is an etude in semi-ubiquity.

There is a lesson in Skelton's durability and I think it is a fairly melancholy one. It is this: There is a section of the TV audience that does not want freshness or wit in its comedy, as it does not want freshness or wit in its westerns, family series or dramas, I suspect that most of these are children of varying ages, unweaned and seeking security in the familiar.

Skelton's show is burlesque in its dotage. Much of the comedy is physical — the sort of thing that amuses retarded schoolboys.

Last night, for example, Lon Chaney hit Skelton for one laugh and then kicked him in the shins for two more laughs.

Chaney also did such things as eating a chair, a plate, a spoon and Skelton's hand. Skelton replied by making faces.

SHORT SHOTS: Sheila MacRae's imitation of Dinah Shore on the CBS-TV Garry Moore show last night was wonderful, wonderful . . . Moore happily broke an unofficial TV taboo on the show — Moore, who has Winston cigarettes for a sponsor, presented the dancing group, the Dunhills, which is the name of a rival tobacconist . . . Dragnet opened its eighth year on NBC-TV last night with a ho-hum effort . . . Tony Randall and NBC-TV's George Gobel spoofed TV chat shows in an amusing skit that would have benefited from some cutting.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Jeanne Crain, Jane Powell, Tab Hunter, Ed Wynn, Myrna Loy and Walter Pidgeon are shaping up as the cast for the two hour April 26 CBS-TV special, "Meet Me in St. Louis" . . . CBS-TV's Sunday afternoon show, Behind the News, is preparing a script on the TV ratings systems . . . Dennis the Menace looks like a definite starter on the CBS-TV fall schedule — it stars Jay North.

CBS-TV's Yancy Derringer got a renewal through September . . . Betsy Palmer will substitute for vacationing Bess Myerson on CBS-TV's Big Payoff for two weeks starting Feb. 16 . . . NBC-TV is pitching a spectacular at Louis Prima and Keely Smith . . . CBS-TV will yank off Invisible man for six weeks starting Feb. 10 and fill in with reruns of Schlitz Playhouse.

Wayde Preston of ABC-TV's Colt .45, who'll guest in ABC-TV's Sugarfoot next Tuesday, also has been signed to appear in another ABC-TV western — the Feb. 15 Maverick, "Saga of Waco Williams."

Water Supplies Study Ordered

Committee Headed by Hutchinson Cites Need of $100,000 Survey

LANSING (AP) — A comprehensive $100,000 study of Michigan's water supplies, rights and uses has been called for by a special legislative committee.

The committee, headed by Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville), says the study is needed "in the light of greatly increased industrial, agricultural, municipal, recreational and domestic needs."

As an immediate step, the committee urges legislative consideration of the creation of farm ponds formed by diverting streams and lakes at high water periods in the year. The ponds would aid crop and livestock farmers in dry seasons.

The committee also calls upon the state to hold to the so-called riparian doctrine of water which is based on the idea of reasonable use.

The study group noted that large segments of the Michigan economy are deeply concerned about future water supplies. It pointed out that the water table is declining—particularly in southern Michigan—and that there are some areas where adequate water can not be found.

New York Bewitched by Callas

NEW YORK (AP)—Maria Meneghini Callas, robed in glittering white and maneuvering a wide scarlet scarf, Tuesday night gave New Yorkers their first chance in more than a century to hear Bellini's "Il Pirata."

It was a concert version presented by the American Opera Society in Carnegie Hall before a capacity audience.

The opera, quaint, mannered, full of artificialities, a sort of candy-box work with pretty phrases and sweet florid passages, could have been a bore.

It provided, instead, one of the really bewitching nights of this music season.

Premiered in 1827, the melodramatic "Il Pirata" was frankly a tear-jerker. Now it is a museum piece, but one with unsuspected charm. Miss Callas was clearly the most important personage on stage—she knew it, and let you know it every chance she got. Just the same, the audience was touched, not by her alone, but by the over-all performance of an earnest, sympathetic and able cast, orchestra, chorus and conductor.

Detroit Board Maps Spending for Schools

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Board of Education spelled out yesterday how a proposed tax increase and 60 million dollar bond issue will be spent if it passes the voters in the April election.

The board committed itself to spending all of the bond issue and 30 million dollars of the tax increase for school building and remodeling.

This was in line with the proposed 90 million dollar building program outlined by School Superintendent Samuel M. Brownell.

This Ill Wind Blew Some Good at MSU

EAST LANSING (AP) — The big blow of snow blew some good to students at Michigan State University.

Students and other motorists are being permitted to park for free on the lots this week. It was explained the lots are not fully cleared as yet and the snow has upset the automatic counting gates that normally collect a dime per parker.

Pontiac DPW Spends $350,000 on Construction

Pontiac's neighborhood improvement program moved ahead last year with more than $350,000 worth of construction reported by the Department of Public Works.

Department crews installed curbs, gutters, and drains along 13 streets at a total cost of $157,122, said Joseph B. Jewell, DPW superintendent.

Sewer construction amounted to $139,816 and sidewalks, $20,203.

Four streets were graded and graveled by the department at a cost of $20,476, and sidewalk repairs last year amounted to $17,072.

Not all the city's improvements were handled by the DPW and financing of most projects was accomplished through special assessment.

In addition, the DPW spent $11,118 constructing the new city parking lot at the corner of E. Pike and Mill streets.

During the year, the department spent 10,856 maintenance hours on paved streets; 7,685 on unpaved streets; 3,351 on parking lots; 1,384 on catchbasins; and 691 on street signs.

There were 75,914 square feet of sidewalk installed and 30,564 lineal feet of curbs and gutters.

The DPW laid 4,337 feet of six-inch pipe, 8,830 feet of eight-inch and 4,304 feet of twelve-inch.

There were 9,364 man-hours spent on cleaning streets by hand and 7,592 by machine.

Ultimatum Issued to Flint Bus Firm

FLINT (UPI) — The City Coach Lines has been give nan ultimatum to solve its union-contract problems by Feb. 10 or the city will begin casting about for other means of public transportation.

A special city committee studying the strike also went on record against purchasing the bus company and said it did not favor a subsidy to the firm.

The bus company said it cannot afford to meet the demands of the Transport Workers Union, Local 170, whose 123 members went on strike Dec. 12. The union originally sought a 10 cent hourly wage boost.

The total number of ships of all sizes to use the Panama Canal between July 1, 1957, and June 30, 1958, was 10,553.

Pay Boosts Scheduled for Faculty at Aquinas
