Steel Contract Awaits Ratification

Schweitzer in Coma, Reported Near Death

LAMBARENE, Gabon (AP)—Dr. Albert Schweitzer lapsed into a coma at his jungle hospital today and his daughter said there was no hope of saving him.

"There is no more hope of human effort that can save him," said his daughter, Rhena Schweitzer Eckert.

A telegram sent by the hospital to members of the family and close friends of the 89-year-old jungle physician said tersely:

"He is dying (stop) inevitable and soon (stop) everything that can be done has been done (stop) he goes quietly and in peace and dignity."

Mrs. Eckert, her face showing signs of fatigue and sleepless nights, said, "Another man would have given up long ago. But my father was stronger than most men."

Dr. Walter Muns, medical director of the hospital, said Schweitzer was "resting peacefully. He is not suffering."

Tragedy Stalks Holiday's Start

64 Highway Deaths Reported Across U.S.

By the Associated Press

The count of traffic deaths on the nation's streets and highways picked up speed today.

A report sent the total up to 64.

Rain in parts of the Midwest and South gave a slow-down signal to thousands of Americans on Labor Day weekend trips.

The National Safety Council estimated that between 500 and 600 persons may be killed in motor vehicle accidents in the period that began at 6 p.m. Friday and will end at midnight Monday.

The council also figured that most of the 87 million vehicles in the nation will be rolling at one time or another and will run up a total of 8.9 billion miles, a record for a Labor Day weekend.

Last year's Labor Day weekend cost 181 highway deaths. In addition, there were 18 deaths in boating accidents and 59 drownings unrelated to boating — 600 accident deaths peculiar to holiday activity.

Dr. Richard Friedmann, a long-time associate of Schweitzer, said the old doctor's kidney ailment had stopped functioning.

Schweitzer rallied briefly yesterday afternoon, then lapsed into a coma.

"Late last night we knew that all was lost," said Friedmann.

Dr. David Miller, an American heart specialist summoned to Schweitzer's bedside, said he was planning to fly back to the United States Tuesday "barring a miracle."

JUNGLE HOSPITAL

Work went on as usual in the world famous jungle hospital set in a clearing on the banks of the muddy Ogooue River.

Hospital attendants moved quietly in the morning mist. Medicines were distributed to the sick. Doctors performed their chores, conversing in whispers.

"We don't want to spread malaria among the Africans," one hospital staff member said.

Outside Schweitzer's wooden hut a group of tawny white-clad women assistants stood in a tense knot.

SICK ROOM

Occasionally the door of Schweitzer's sick room would open and a man or woman in tears would emerge.

"God gave him a full life," said Dr. Miller. "No man could have done better."

Intermittent rain wet the scattered huts that make up Schweitzer's hospital. Flocks of black tropical birds flew low over the brown river.

Commissioner John A. Dugan said "I'm sorry they turned it down. I thought we'd gone just as far as we could. We can't go any further on the wages."

'TOP PACKAGE'

Commissioner T. Warren Fowler said "I feel these fellows are getting the top package, because that's all we could afford."

Commissioner Leslie H. Hoffman remarked "I feel we've been extremely generous and I'm surprised anyone would be unhappy with what we've given them."

Commissioners James H. Marshall and Robert C. Irwin offered no comments. Mayor William H. Taylor could not be reached.

GMC Truck Sets 8-Month Sales Mark

A sales mark was chalked up by GMC Truck & Coach Division in the first eight months of 1965 when 82,800 trucks and buses were delivered to the domestic market.

Calvin J. Werner, a vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division, said the record January-through-August figure topped by 15.3 per cent the 71,899 units delivered during the similar period last year.

Werner said sales during the past month totaled 10,392 trucks and buses, making it the best August in the history of the division.

Believe Accord Ends Threat of Industry Strike

Settlement Is Called Fair One by Johnson; Terms Not Revealed

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Steel industry negotiators return from Washington, today a new contract ready for ratification and the threat of an industry shutdown apparently ended.

President Johnson announced their agreement at the White House last night, saying: "The settlement is a fair one. It is designed to prevent inflation which would damage our prosperity."

The President also said: "We can now say with confidence that the grim threat of thousands of men out of work — of idle plants — of declining production for our economy and declining prosperity for all our people — that threat has been met and overcome."

Officials didn't reveal the terms pending ratification, but sources said the wage-benefit package was between 46 cents and 48 cents an hour over three years, depending on whether union or management figures were used.

The 450,000-member United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, had sought a package it estimated at $3.5 cents. The company management team pegged the package at 55 cents.

PENSIONS INCREASED

Sources said the settlement would increase pensions about $5 a month per year of service, a 50-cent increase over the company's offer of $4.50. Under the old contract, the maximum pension was about $7.60 a month per year of service.

It couldn't be learned how much of an increase in hourly wages the Steelworkers would receive. The average Steelworker now has earnings of about $4.40 an hour including wages and benefits.

Government sources would say only that the agreement is within the White House guidelines of a 3.2 per cent annual increase.

The agreement marked the eighth time since World War II that the industry had agreed on a new pact without a shutdown.

6 STRIKES

Fourteen contracts have been negotiated since 1946. There have been six strikes, the shortest an eight-hour closure in 1955 and the longest a 116-day walkout in 1959.

Only in 1953 was a contract agreed to without either side serving termination notice.

Johnson said the negotiators, in reaching agreement, put the national interest, including the Viet Nam war, above their own interests.

Pakistanis Advance, Escalate Border War

United Press International

Pakistani troops spearheaded by U.S.-built tanks and jet warplanes stabbed across southwestern Kashmir 50 miles into Indian-controlled territory today in a sudden escalation of the four-day undeclared border war.

Indian air force jet fighters also stepped up the pace of the fighting, invading Pakistani airspace for the first time, the Pakistani spokesman said in Rawalpindi.

An Indian spokesman said two Pakistani planes were shot down during the first three days of the border war.

Pakistani Vice Marshal Nur Khan, commander-in-chief of the air force, said the stepped-up activity was "a new turn in the air war" and claimed Pakistani planes turned back the "intruders" but refrained from chasing them into India.

Aerial dogfights were reported over Jhelum, 10 miles inside the Pakistan border, and at Gujranwala, 50 miles south of Jhelum.

GROUND ACTION

In the ground action, Pakistan said its new offensive led by tanks and F86 and F104 jets slashed five miles past the Tawi River which runs through the strategic city of Jammu.

A spokesman said reports from the battlefield indicated the Pakistani troops swung southeast from the posts of Chamb and Dewa, reported captured on Wednesday, and sprinted 15 miles to the river.

Hurricane Howls Past Cape Kennedy

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Betsy howled past the Cape Kennedy missile complex today, 360 miles at sea, and continued on a course endangering the Carolinas.

The Miami Weather Bureau prepared to order a hurricane watch for portions of the North and South Carolina coasts and warned residents of the two states to keep in continuous touch with advisories on the 125 mile per hour storm.

Along a 500-mile stretch of the Eastern seaboard from Cape Kennedy to Cape Hatteras, N.C., small craft were chased into port as winds rose and seas grew angry.

Betsy had swung from the northwest to a north-northwest course, an encouraging development for Carolinians, but forecasters said the threat to that area still remained.

At 11 a.m. the storm was centered near latitude 28.7 north, longitude 75.5 west. This was 360 miles east of Cape Kennedy and 465 miles due south of Cape Hatteras. It was moving forward at nine miles an hour.

MAY GROW

Gales whipped out 150 miles to the southwest of the eye and 200 miles in all other directions, and the Weather Bureau said the area of gales may grow larger.

The hurricane watch being considered for the Carolinas is an alert preliminary to actual hurricane warnings.

A hurricane hunter pilot who rode a bucking plane through the storm during the night reported that Betsy's highest winds of 125 miles an hour were whipping around a well-defined eye 35 miles in diameter.

The Bahama islands escaped damage as the hurricane whirled up the Atlantic Ocean east of the chain.

EYE OF DESTRUCTION—No, this is not the morning after a Labor Day celebration. It's the eye of a vicious named Betsy—Hurricane Betsy, that is—as photographed yesterday by an Air Force plane flying 11 miles above the storm.

Slain Student's Mate in Detroit Misses Arraignment of Accused Strangler

DETROIT (AP)—A wealthy nuclear chemist from Hong Kong who for four years wished his estranged wife would "grow up and we'd start a family" missed the court arraignment of her accused strangler by scant hours.

"I've just come here to attend the funeral. That's all," slightly-built Jung K. Lee, told the Associated Press after flying to Detroit from New York yesterday.

His wife, blonde pretty Mrs. Edna Lee, 35, was a Wayne State University student studying a doctorate in English. She was found strangled with a nylon stocking in her apartment building Wednesday. She had been beaten on her face, police said.

Victor Lewis Fassero, 36-year-old utility company clerk who police said had dated Mrs. Lee for some time, was charged with first degree murder. He stood mute at his arraignment in Recorder's (Criminal) Court shortly before Lee arrived.

A plea of innocent was entered and Fassero, a divorced man, was held without bond for examination Sept. 21.

'DON'T KNOW'

"I don't know any of her friends here," Lee said at his hotel when asked if he knew Fassero.

"I wanted her to live her own life the way she wanted it," he said.

He and Mrs. Lee were separated in 1961, three years after their marriage. A question of whether to have children, "among other reasons," caused the separation, he said.

Officials Hope to Clear Up Bad Water at Area School

Waterford Township school officials are hopeful they have an answer to the water impurity problem which will keep 1,140 pupils out of the new Mason Junior High until Sept. 13.

The rest of Waterford's 16,000 pupils will return to classes Thursday and Friday.

In an emergency meeting yesterday afternoon, the plumbing contractor for the $2.5 million building was given permission to tap into another section of the township's water main.

Reaction Is Mild on Pay Issue

City Commissioners who could be reached prior to the holiday weekend reacted mildly to the rejection of a pending salary boost by Pontiac police and firemen.

Most of Pontiac's 750 municipal workers were granted pay hikes in a Michigan Municipal League salary and job reclassification study adopted Tuesday by the City Commission.

Some 175 members of the Pontiac Firefighters Association and the Pontiac Police Officers Association met and unanimously agreed to reject the survey recommended pay schedules.

Instead, the two employee groups complained they had not been consulted as to the findings of the survey and asked for a meeting with city officials.

Commissioner John A. Dugan said "I'm sorry they turned it down. I thought we'd gone just as far as we could. We can't go any further on the wages."

'TOP PACKAGE'

Commissioner T. Warren Fowler said "I feel these fellows are getting the top package, because that's all we could afford."

Commissioner Leslie H. Hoffman remarked "I feel we've been extremely generous and I'm surprised anyone would be unhappy with what we've given them."

Commissioners James H. Marshall and Robert C. Irwin offered no comments. Mayor William H. Taylor could not be reached.

ORDERED SURVEY

Commissioner Wesley J. Wood said "We got what we asked for." He indicated the commission had ordered the survey from the League and could not see how the commission would change anything.

Meanwhile, spokesmen for the police and firemen indicated that it was not the pay package that bothered them. Rather, the issue was that they (the two associations) had not been consulted.

Pushes Jeff Davis for U.S. Hall of Fame

NEW YORK (AP) — A campaign is to elect Jefferson Davis, but it has nothing to do with a rebirth of the Confederacy.

The campaign is led by Desiree Lucille Franklin, born many years ago in Augusta, Ga., and now living in an Upper Manhattan apartment. She is a spirited battler.

Right now her battle is for Davis, president of the Confederacy, to be elected to the Hall of Fame for great Americans at New York University.

An election is held every five years, with a select list of 124 persons choosing candidates. Since 1900, 88 men and women have had their bronze busts placed in the Hall of Fame.

HONORARY PRESIDENT

Miss Franklin is honorary president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. She has been sending letters to editors endorsing Davis' candidacy and she is backing her arguments with views of generals and historians.

"My heart is so filled with this," she said Friday. "I have been getting very beautiful letters from great generals, Omar Bradley, Albert Wedemeyer, Mark Clark and many others."

Miss Franklin believes that few Americans served the United States "more selflessly, more dedicatedly, or more gloriously, or enriched it with a greater wealth of achievements" than did Davis.

She cites his roles as "hero-soldier, architect-engineer, congressman, senator and secretary of war," the latter in the administration of President Franklin Pierce.

GOOD RECORD

Miss Franklin has a good campaign record. She worked for the successful election to the Hall of Fame of Confederate Gen. Thomas Jonathan (Stonewall) Jackson in 1955. Others chosen that year were inventor George Westinghouse and aviation pioneer Wilbur Wright.

Davis got one vote in 1950 and one in 1955. With Miss Franklin running, the campaign, he picked up 44 votes in 1960. She hopes to see him make it this year.

A successful candidate needs 63 votes, a simple majority.

In 1950, the winners were inventor Thomas A. Edison, composer Edward A. MacDowell and author Henry David Thoreau.

Others being pushed for election this year are Sylvanus Thayer, known as the "Father of West Point," and Lillian Wald, social worker and nursing pioneer.

2 Boys Kill 2-Foot Rattler in Avon Twp.

Two boys yesterday killed a two-foot Massasauga rattlesnake only 150 feet away from an Avon Township home.

This was the fourth rattler killed in the area recently.

Detroit Zoo officials theorize that the Massasauga rattlesnake, the only poisonous snake native to Michigan, are probably moving into the Christian Hills residential area because of drought conditions.

Township Supervisor Cyril Miller said he asked the township attorney to draw up an ordinance requiring owners of vacant lots to trim all weeds so that snakes will be visible to playing children.

Two snakes were killed recently by a well-drilling crew, and a third was killed by a resident who found it in his garage.

OCC to Seek $1-Million Aid

Money to Be Asked for Campus Buildings

Oakland Community College will seek a $1-million federal grant to aid in financing the first phase of construction of the Orchard Ridge Campus in Farmington.

James Hobson, vice president for business affairs at the college, will deliver final drawings and specifications Tuesday to the Chicago office of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Bids on initial construction at the new campus are slated for opening Oct. 12, with work to begin late next month.

Completion is scheduled for December, 1966 and occupancy in time for the second semester of 1966-67 school year.

Hobson told members of the college board of trustees that he felt optimistic about receiving the grant.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business the board was given a slide film presentation of the design development of the second phase of the Farmington campus.

Formal approval of this design development is expected at the board's Sept. 16 meeting.

The board also approved contracts for two new faculty members which brings the total to 146.

This gives the college a total of 247 employees including administrative, instructional, clerical, maintenance and technical.

CIVIL SERVICE

A contract for clinical services between the college and Pontiac General Hospital also was approved.

This will permit the college to use facilities at the hospital for its nursing program.

53 Guerrillas Killed in Battle

B52s Pound Suspected Viet Cong Site

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Another flight of B52 Strategic Air Command bombers pounded a suspected Viet Cong stronghold in South Viet Nam today, a U.S. military spokesman announced.

The raid by the Guam-based eight-engine jets — the 18th reported in the Vietnamese war — was made in Quang Tin Province, 320 miles northeast of the capital.

A U.S. Air Force pilot was presumed killed in the crash of an F4C Phantom in North Viet Nam, 35 miles north of Vinh. The aircraft failed to pull out a dive in a strike with three other Phantoms at a highway bridge. Heavy anti-aircraft fire was reported in the area.

A U.S. pilot downed over North Viet Nam three days ago was also officially listed as missing after a futile search and rescue operation.

GROUND FIGHTING

In the ground war, a government force was reported to have killed 53 Viet Cong in a bloody battle in the swampy Mekong River delta but Vietnamese troops took heavy losses in a Communist attack against an outpost.

Twenty-four Communist guerrillas were reported captured Friday in the Mekong battle, 78 miles southeast of Saigon in Vinh Binh Province. Vietnamese and American casualties were termed light.

The multibattalion government operation was launched Thursday in the canals and swamps at the mouth of the Saseac River, 25 miles west of the provincial capital of Phu Vinh.

Government troops made contact with the Viet Cong five times Friday, the spokesman said. In the heaviest clash, the Communists reportedly suffered 22 casualties.

ATTACK OUTPOST

In the other action, a Viet Cong force estimated at three companies attacked a government outpost early today 135 miles south of the capital. The attack was beaten off by regional forces, but the defenders suffered heavy losses, authorities said.

Two Viet Cong were killed and left behind in the assault in Bac Lieu Province, 25 miles west of Vinh Loi. A company of troops defended the outpost.

Communist gunners brought down the U.S. Air Force pilot Thursday while he was on a bombing mission 100 miles west of Hanoi.

The plane was one of four F105 Thunderchiefs in the strike against a bridge.

RAIDS IN NORTH

U.S. warplanes continued raids in the north with bombing assaults on warehouse areas, bridges and trucks. Two U.S. Air Force B57s struck a ferry complex with five tons of bombs 65 miles southeast of Vinh.

In South Viet Nam, U.S. Air Force and Navy and Vietnamese pilots teamed up to fly 275 combat sorties as pressure was kept on suspected Viet Cong concentrations. The planes pounded troop positions, rest and supply areas and base camps.

The spokesman said about 370 structures were destroyed or damaged in the 24-hour period ending Sunday.

A government operation in Quang Ngai Province, about 300 miles north of Saigon. Spotters said the ship's fire destroyed or damaged 66 structures.

A government operation in Quang Ngai Province ended Saturday with two Viet Cong dead and two others captured. No Vietnamese losses were reported.

Reach Steel Accord

dently expecting a final settlement before the Monday holiday.

The union's 170-man wage policy committee meets in Pittsburgh at 9 a.m. tomorrow to consider the White House proposed agreement.

"I hope and expect they will swiftly reach this agreement," Johnson said.

A union source said no difficulty was expected. Ratification by the 10 major steel firms which produce 80 per cent of the nation's steel was expected to be routine.

LAB DESCRIPTION

Johnson described the agreement this way:

"To the steelworkers it means continued uninterrupted flow of the goods essential to life for their families."

"To the steel companies it means continued production and growth."

"To the American people it means a continued rise in the production which is the foundation of the greatest period of abundance in our history."

SOLDIERS FIGHTING

"To the soldier in the jungles of Viet Nam, it means a continued flow of the goods essential to freedom and to his life."

And, even more, the assurance that those at home will not forget his sacrifice in the pursuit of narrow and selfish ends."

It was the second national labor crisis Johnson had helped solve and he closely followed the script that helped him avert a nationwide railroad strike 16 months ago.

The President called the steelmen from Pittsburgh to Washington on Monday, talked to them and that evening announced they had extended the shutdown deadline eight days from the original Tuesday mid-night deadline.

Then the President kept the negotiators isolated in the Executive Office Building next door to the White House, sending them lunch and dinner, and prodding them at strategic moments.

Johnson took a prolonged stroll around the White House yesterday, lingering for about half an hour where the negotiators could see him form their negotiating rooms and remember that he was championing the bit to go to his Texas ranch as soon as they reached agreement.

He made it clear he wouldn't leave without it.

The agreement was reached within two hours. Johnson instructed Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor to lay the administration's compromise suggestions on the bargaining table at 3:15 p.m.

The two sides were reported at a stalemate with four cents separating their positions when Johnson moved for the first time with specific suggestions for an agreement.

Johnson's suggestions, said the sources, acted as "a key to a locked room."

Pakistanis Advance in War Escalation

eral Thant informed the United Nations Security Council that Pakistan had refused to give him assurances that it will stop fighting in Kashmir. He said India promised to stop if Pakistan did.

Thant said the current trouble in Kashmir started on Aug. 5 with incursions from the Pakistani side of the 1949 ceasefire line. These crossings were followed by artillery fire from the Pakistani side, he said.

THIRD DAY

The report was delivered as the Security Council deliberated for the third day in a row whether to call an emergency meeting to deal with the deteriorating situation in Kashmir. No decision had been reached by mid-morning.

Thant based his report on information given him a week ago by Australian Lt. Gen. Robert H. Nimmo, chief U.N. military observer, who had rushed to New York for four days of talks with the secretary general.

School Bells Will Ring for Adult Students, Too

BIRMINGHAM — Just as soon as they bustle their children off to the first day of school next week, Birmingham parents can begin to think about their own education.

They soon will be receiving information on the fall term of classes designed for adults.

During the 1964-65 school year, a total of more than 3,500 Birmingham area residents enrolled in the classes offered through the Department of Added Education at the Birmingham Public Schools.

Some 222 classes were available to the community during the fall, winter and spring terms.

Registration for this fall will begin Sept. 13. Applications will be accepted at the Department of Added Education office in the Hill Building, Chester and Martin Streets.

REGISTRATION HOURS

Hours for registering are 8 a.m. - 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Most of the classes will begin during the week of Sept. 27.

A complete list of the fall offerings will be sent to each resident of the Birmingham district on or before Tuesday.

All courses are offered on the basis of inquiries and requests from residents. Attempts will be made to plan classes in any subject area for which facilities and instructors are available.

Requests for classes not presently offered should be made directly to Howard Matlwa, Added Education coordinator.

Flooded River Bridge Falls; Fear 2 Dead

KLAGENFURT, Austria (AP)

A bridge over the rain-swollen Drau River south of here collapsed today, and 50 to 100 persons toppled into the flood, but only two were reported missing after a swift rescue operation.

Soldiers and firemen were working to shore up the Hollenbrunn Bridge, about 9 miles from here, and a crowd of curious onlookers was watching them.

Gendarmier headquarters in Klagenfurt identified the missing men as a fireman and a city councilman from nearby Ferlach. They were feared dead. This would raise Austria's flood death toll for the week to 14.

Most of those toppled into the river managed to swim to shore. Others were quickly pulled out by soldiers in rubber boats.

The 328-foot bridge was sagging due to the push of ramming water. For this reason, part of the bridge was closed, and people limited to its southern part, which was believed safe.

But suddenly the southern part of the bridge caved in. Throwing off high fountains of water, it splashed into the river with the crowd on it.

Quake Shakes Alaskan Town

KODIAK, Alaska (U) — A sharp, rolling earthquake shook this south-central Alaska fishing town early today, but apparently caused little if any damage.

"This really shook us," said Mrs. S. Wayne Kotula of the Kodiak Mirror, "but it wasn't nearly as bad or as frightening as the big one on March 27, 1964."

The earth tremor was felt over a wide area of south-central Alaska including Anchorage, badly damaged in the quake last year.

Heavily damaged by seismic waves a year ago, Kodiak watched its waterfront closely but no waves developed.

RECORD TREMOR

Stations in Sitka, Alaska, Berkeley, Calif., and Philadelphia recorded the tremor about 3:35 a.m.

In Sitka, the Coast and Geodetic Survey said the quake was moderately severe and apparently centered in the Kodiak island area, about 250 miles southwest of Anchorage.

The University of California recorded the tremor and gave it a Richter rating of 6.75 on a scale which measures earthquakes by the energy released. The March 27, 1964 quake had a magnitude of 8.3.

Slain Baroness Life Is Probed

Body Found Pinned to Floor With Dagger

PARIS (UPI) — Police delved today into the secret life of a pious, poetic baroness found Thursday bound and pinned to her bedroom floor with an ornate Japanese dagger.

Inspector Maurice Bouvier, France's No. 1 crime investigator, told reporters the murder was "one of the most mysterious affairs I have ever tackled."

The question police are seeking to answer is: What was the secret night life of the Baroness de Coutry, who taught kindergartens and wrote religious poems by day?

The 34-year-old brunette spinster, whose last project was a children's book on the life of Christ, was found dead in a pool of blood, the seven Japanese dagger from her living room wall between her shoulder blades.

Investigators said the blade had been thrust with such force that the baroness' body literally was nailed to the floor.

STAB WOUNDS

When police worked the blade free and turned her body over they found stab wounds in her chest and abdomen. Her skirt and underwear had been ripped to shreds.

Detectives found fingerprints on the dagger handle.

Police physicians said she probably died between Sunday afternoon and Tuesday evening. Bouvier said the secretive young woman led such a discreet life that no one knows where she went to the little French sedan she drove away in each morning during her school's summer vacation.

2 WEEKS

For the past two weeks she had been returning home late in the evening, sometimes very late, the detective said.

OCC Student Bus Service to Start Thursday

Bus transportation for Oakland Community College students will begin Thursday, college officials announced today.

Time schedules are being worked out and will be announced later. Tentative routine plans are as follows:

Two of the college's four buses will transport students east and west from Pontiac, to the Auburn Hills and Highland Lakes campuses.

Another will pick up passengers in Royal Oak at Fourth and Washington and transport them to the Auburn Hills Campus.

The fourth bus will take students from Nine Mile and Woodward in Ferndale to the Highland Lakes Campus.

Illegal Parking for Safety Ceremony

Maryland Gov. J. Millard Tawes and Delaware Gov. Charles L. Terry were on hand in Baltimore yesterday for the issuance of a stamp promoting traffic safety.

Maryland's commissioner of motor vehicles, John R. Jewell, also was present during the ceremonies.

Where did the trio park their limousines? Jewell and Terry parked next to a fire hydrant. Tawes, unable to find a curb spot, double-parked next to them.

Stockade OK'd at Resort Riot Scene

Missouri Gov. Warren E. Hearnes authorized construction of a barbed wire stockade at the resort area of Rockaway Beach, near Jefferson City, Mo., scene of rioting by youths during the July 4 weekend.

Authorities have received a number of threats that young people would return over the Labor Day weekend to get revenge for arrests during the last outing.

Remount Your Old Diamonds

...Good Reasons Why...

1. Diamonds are meant to be seen and not hidden away in your vault or jewel box because they are mounted in an unfashionable manner.
2. Diamonds in old settings can become loose and easily lost.
3. Diamonds look wonderful on every woman but not in old, out-dated settings.

May we have the pleasure of showing you how your heirloom diamonds can be remounted into modern, safe settings that will allow your diamonds to display all their natural beauty. Sketches and estimates submitted without obligation.

1966 Auto Models Are Expected to Feature More Safety Items

By CHARLES C. KAIN
AP Business News Writer
DETROIT — It's a pretty safe bet you will be hearing a lot about automobile safety in the next year or so.

Recent congressional hearings focused a lot of attention on the subject and the four major U.S. auto firms, always sensitive to public opinion, want to show their concern over the motorists' well-being.

With 1966 model introduction time just around the corner, indications are that much of the advertising messages of the various companies will be based on proving to the would-be customer that the car is as safe as possible.

It was not just coincidence that in mid-July the presidents of General Motors, Ford and American Motors made it to Washington to tell Congress of the auto makers' desire to make cars as safe as possible. Chrysler was represented by an executive vice president.

SOLID FRONT

That solid front was presented to show Congress, and in particular Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., that the auto makers really cared about the well-being of motorists.

D.C. Self-Rule Wins Victory

Still Has High Hurdles Before Becoming Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — In spite of the petition victory in the House by backers of self-government for the District of Columbia, the measure still has some high hurdles to get over before it becomes law.

Hurdle 1: A home rule bill hastily produced by the House District Committee, long the graveyard for such bills, will come up first in the House on Sept. 13. It would give back 85 per cent of the District of Columbia to the state of Maryland. Opponents call it "a farce concocted at the 11th hour solely to block home rule."

Hurdle 2: If home rule backers can dispose of this and pass their own measure when it comes up on Sept. 27, it must — under rules of the discharge petition — go back to the Senate for approval. Southern senators could stage a filibuster.

Hurdle 3: Unless the Senate accepts the exact wording of the House-passed bill, it must go to a Senate-House conference to have the differences adjusted. In charge of the House conferees would be an enemy of home rule, Rep. John L. McMillan, D-S.C., chairman of the House District Committee. He could be expected to drag his feet.

Why are so many Congress members — Southerners particularly — generally opposed to self-government for the District, which has not elected its own officials since 1874?

The reason generally credited on Capitol Hill is that a majority of Washington's residents are Negroes and some members fear Negroes would dominate any elected city government.

Canadian Pastor Dies

FORT WILLIAM, Ont. (AP) — The Rev. Dan McIvor, 94, Presbyterian minister who became a member of the Canadian House of Commons, died Thursday in his home. He founded the First Church United in Fort William and served as a Liberal member in Commons from Fort William for 23 years.

being of motorists. Ribicoff is the leading exponent of the need for a national, highway traffic center in the Department of Commerce.

Auto makers would much prefer to be allowed to move towards solution of auto safety problems without government officials checking their every move.

That is why the industry reacted so quickly to a suggestion by the General Service Administration that 17 safety features be mandatory items on all 1967 cars purchased by the government.

In less time than it took to say Ford, General Motors and Chrysler, the auto makers decided that 13 of the 17 were of such importance that they would be made standard equipment on every 1966 car built.

13 ITEMS

The 13 ranged from side view mirrors to dual speed windshield wipers and washers, from standard bumper heights to safety tires and rims.

Three other items are shoulder harness anchorages, dual brake systems and exhaust control devices.

Chrysler will offer optional shoulder harnesses for 1966. Rambler and Cadillac have had dual brakes for some time.

Cars built for sale in California beginning with 1966 models must have exhaust control devices designed to cut down the flood of noxious fumes from auto engines. The auto companies complied with the California law requiring such devices, but still insist that the need for them in other parts of the country has not been proved.

SAFETY WINDSHIELD

In addition to the GSA inspired safety items, the industry will unveil a few more of its own when the 1966 models are shown to the public in the fall. One item, for example, is a new type of safety windshield with a double thickness of plastic laminant to prevent shattering.

Some fingers probably will be pointed at the auto makers when the 1966's in some cases show up with more powerful engines than before. Some may ask how the industry reconciles the newer, bigger engines with its current safety kick.

One company official, who declined use of his name, answered that at the recent Chrysler press preview in Boston when he said, "If the engines have more power, it is because drivers occasionally need it on super highways in today's rapid driving when a split-second can mean the difference between an accident and getting out of a tight spot."

Amelia Earhart, "Did What She Wanted"

Her Life Was Memorial

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — We boast now and rightly so of man's eight-day endurance in space.

But other pioneers whose names are a vague history to the current generation were testing endurance, too, and laying the base for man's days' stay, his steps toward landing on the moon.

Amelia Earhart was one of these. And in an interview, her only sister recalled the qualities that spurred Miss Earhart into becoming a flying heroine of the 1920's and 1930's and the first woman to solo the Atlantic (in 1928).

EARHART-NOONAN

"When she made her first record," said Mrs. Albert Morrissey, "the plane was about this long." "This" was the sofa on which Mrs. Morrissey, 65, was sitting. The year was 1922, as she recalled, and Miss Earhart set an altitude record of 22,000 feet.

The aviatrix was "always the type of person who did the things she wanted," Eleanor Earhart Morrissey recalled. "I remember mother would take cakes and we'd take them to the field to eat while we shelled wings. There were a lot of lean and hungry pilots always around."

SPACE INTEREST

Mrs. Morrissey said that if Amelia were alive she "would be vitally interested in our space program. I remember that John Glenn spoke of being inspired by her."

"In her day, too, she was testing physical endurance, mental adjustment to flight. She used to say that one day we casually would catch rockets to the moon."

Mrs. Morrissey, who lives in Medford, Mass., was in New York in connection with the opening of the Women's Hall of Fame at the World's Fair.

Twenty women, 10 of them deceased, were named to the hall in a vote, sponsored by the Purex Corp., among women's editors of newspapers and magazines around the nation.

Miss Earhart ("Meely" to her family) was one of the WP, and the only woman pilot. The aviatrix, who flew in the open cockpit-helmet days, was lost July 2, 1937, on an around-the-world flight with her co-pilot, Fred Noonan.

They disappeared on the 2,556-mile leg of the flight between Lae, New Guinea, and Howland Island in the Pacific.

A naval search that lasted 33 days and cost $100,000 crossed the area failed to turn up any trace, not even one bit of debris, as Mrs. Morrissey recalled.

Mrs. Morrissey, the wife of a manufacturer and grandmother of four, teaches English at Belmont High School in Medford. She has recently written a book about her sister, who was two and one-half years her senior.

"Courage Is the Price" is the title of Amelia today, Mrs. Morrissey said. "She did what she wanted. Her life was her greatest memorial."

There are several theories of the Earhart fate. One was that she and Noonan were captured by the Japanese and killed. Another: the plane ran out of gas and crashed.

"I don't see how anyone can believe she was captured by the Japanese," said Mrs. Morrissey. "Her radio at best could carry no further than 500 miles."

OVERSHOT LANDING AT

"Jacqueline Cochran (a pioneer aviatrix also and a friend of Miss Earhart) thinks Amelia's plane was hit by lightning. I personally feel she must have overshot Howland."

"We may never know," said Mrs. Morrissey.

"I still get letters from people. A spiritualist from California wrote me the other day that Amelia 'hasn't' crossed the divide. She is on an island, worn, unkempt, but teaching the natives..."

Gold Star Mothers, Chapter 34, opened the season at a meeting Friday in Bemis-Olsen Amets Post 113. Ready the group's flag is Mrs. Eva Welch, Lafayette Street, with Mrs. Irma Rutherford, Michigan Avenue (left), president, and Mrs. Olive Burgess, Hamilton Street, treasurer. Fall plans include an October fund-raising sale, Thanksgiving treats and Christmas financial aid to veterans and a dinner party for Mrs. Luisa Mayotte, a member from Glendora, Calif.

Buy This Prize a Tie
Then Lead Up to the Knot

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am going with a very fine 36-year-old bachelor. He has high moral and no bad habits. He is nice-looking, honest, good-natured, hard-working, and neat and clean. His only fault is that he never wears a necktie.

He has nice clothes, but he always wears a sport shirt and leaves the top button unbuttoned. I have been wanting to ask him to wear a tie, but I can't bring myself to do it.

I am 34 and have other gentlemen friends, but none with so many fine qualities. He has hinted about marriage, and would make an ideal husband. I'd like to invite him to our church supper, but I'm afraid he would show up without a tie and I'd be embarrassed. What would YOU do?

RURAL ROUTE NO. 1

DEAR RURAL: I'd invite this nice-looking, honest, unselfish, good-natured, hard-working, neat and clean gentleman to the church supper. Then I'd buy him a necktie and ask him please to wear it. Once you get the tie around his neck, go to work on getting him to tie the knot. And I don't mean in the tie, either.

DEAR ABBY: I would like your advice on something that has me betwixt and between.

I am going with a wonderful girl and I want to marry her. But she has a few relatives who are a little off.

SHERMAN OAKS

DEAR OAKS: Who hasn't? Go ahead and marry her.

DEAR ABBY: My mother has always taught me that it isn't "nice" for a girl to call boys on the phone, or to go to a boy's house unless you have been invited to a planned party there.

Well, I have a girlfriend who does just that. I know because I have been with her when she's called boys and gone to their houses when we happen to be in the neighborhood.

Is my mother living in the past? Would you call that running after a boy? My mother doesn't know I've done this. But I only do this when I'm with this girlfriend because she doesn't have nerve enough to do it alone.

If it's wrong, why is it wrong, Abby? Most girls would never see a boy outside of school if they didn't.

MAKE UP A NAME

DEAR MAKE: No, honey, your mother is not "living in the past." It's "wrong" to call boys and to go to their homes, uninvited, because it is too forward.

Some boys might enjoy having girls run after them, but when a boy wants a girl to be "his girl," he chooses one who waits to be called and called on.

Problems? Write to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Youth Serve Church, Community

Laymen Visit Hospitals, Speak, Sing

Christian Temple, like many other churches in the Pontiac area consists of groups of men, women and young people bent on worshipping God and serving Him by ministering to the needs of others.

The Rev. Mrs. Lola P. Marion who worked with her husband, the late Rev. Leland Marion, pastor of the church prior to his death, serves as minister.

Bloomfield Hospital provides space for a service for patients every Sunday afternoon under the leadership of Rev. John W. McKinney and Rev. James R. Maddox, assistant pastors. The program is now in its eighth year.

There is a time to study, a time to testify, a time to sing and a time to pray. Communion is observed once a month.

SKY PILOTS

Christian Temple has two youth groups known as Sky Pilots and co-pilots.

Sky Pilots is an international organization aimed directly at the boys of the world with the objective to build them into the pillars of the church.

General Elmer B. Sechs, founding director of Sky Pilots and a former police detective of Evanston, Ill., believes that a strong Christian character built into our youth is the greatest defense against Communism as well as the only sure method of breaking down juvenile delinquency. A boy is believed by the Sky Pilots to be the most valuable asset we possess in our country.

He is the future professor of the colleges; the future Christian business man; the future politician to govern our cities, state and nation tomorrow; the leader of our churches; husband of our daughters and father of our children's children.

Sky Pilots use this Bible verse as a theme, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

TRAIN BOYS

Besides the Christian training, a program is set up to train the Junior Division of boys in all phases of aeronautics, photography and radio, especially for missionary training.

Boys of the Senior Division are taught real flying.

In Sky Pilots, the men of the church work with the boys. Two men are designated to assist every five boys, both spiritually and in the missionary program.

The group at Christian Temple is known as Squadron No. 1653. James Dunlap is the current group leader.

CO-PILOTS

Mrs. Roman Dunlap and Mrs. James Lovelace head the Co-Pilots, a girls' missionary group.

The women instruct girls in qualities of how to be a good wife, mother and friend according to Bible teaching. The girls also do hand craft and make cancer pads.

They are also taught to be missionaries in the home, school and playground.

The girls advance in rank by learning Bible verses and using what they learn in everyday life. They bring fruit and make up baskets for the shut-ins of the church.

Girls from 9 through 16 years of age are urged to join, Mrs. Dunlap said.

GIRL BOY OF YEAR

The Boy and Girl of the Year are chosen at the Sky Pilot and Co-Pilot Banquet held annually.

Older young people under the leadership of Arthur Van Zandt call at hospitals every Sunday. James Marshall is a leader of the men of Christian Temple known as the King's Men.

Unlike most Protestant churches Communion with a time of quiet worship is observed before every Sunday morning service. Two elders of the church always offer a prayer in behalf of the congregation.

Young people's Christian Endeavor meets every Sunday at 6:15 p.m. for singing, round table discussions, special speakers and prayer.

A party is scheduled once a month. Sponsor of the group is Mrs. Ralph Johnson.

Bible study is held every Wednesday evening. Very strong emphasis is placed on the Friday evening prayer meetings when members kneel in the church's "Upper Room for Prayer."

Women of Christian Temple meet with Rev. Mrs. Marion ev-

Educator Concludes Program

Final guest preacher of the summer at Kirk in the Hills Sunday will be the Rev. Dr. Roy Pearson of Andover Newton Centre, Mass.

Dr. Pearson who also closed the Kirk's summer series last year, will address both the 9:30 and 11:30 a.m. services. The full Chancel Choir will sing.

During the same hours two sessions of Kirk School will be held.

Following his graduation from Harvard and Andover Newton Theological School, Dr. Pearson served as pastor at several Massachusetts and New Hampshire Congregational churches.

In 1954, he was named Dean of Andover Newton Theological School and President of Andover Theological Seminary. He was awarded an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree by Amherst College in 1957.

By JACOB Y & SON

The hands in Edgar Kaplan's fine book, "Winning Contract Bridge Complete," are likely to illustrate several points in bidding and play.

Thus Edgar does not prove at all of South's bid of four hearts. He points out that North's three no-trump bid guarantees stoppers in all suits and that South should let his partner play the hand where he is sure to make at least one overtrick.

West decides on a desperate queen of spades opening and right away South wishes he had passed all three no-trump. Wishes are worthless and he has to play the hand out. He sees no reason not to rise with dummy's king, whereupon East takes his ace and leads a second spade.

Everyone follows and now East can actually defeat the contract. He must start by cashing his ace of clubs and continue by leading a third spade. This will give South a choice of losing plays. If South ruffs high, West will eventually collect a trick with the jack of trumps. If South ruffs with the 10, West will make his jack of trumps right away.

Why must East take his ace of clubs before leading out the third spade? The reason is that

Crowding Said Perilous

CAMBRIDGE, England (AP)

A British biologist says men and animals tend to violent behavior in crowded conditions, even when there is plenty of food for all.

Dr. W. M. S. Russell said the world population explosion will thus make human aggression a desperate problem even before a serious food shortage develops.

Addressing the 127th annual meeting of the British Association for the Advancement of Science, Dr. Russell declared reaction against crowding is if he doesn't take it he won't get it. South has a seven of clubs that he is going to have to lose some time or other. "Eventually, why not now?" South discards his losing club on East's good spade. East can play a third spade or anything else that strikes his fancy but he is not going to beat the hand because dummy now is also able to ruff spades and there will be no way for West to make his jack.

a probable explanation for rising postwar crime rates in countries which have ample food and employment.

"Monkey societies," Dr. Russell said, "are found to be brutal dictatorships with constant outbreaks of violence when in crowded conditions in zoos. But when in the wild, tenuous and fighting are rarely observed."

"It turns out that all kinds of monkeys and apes are peaceful in the wild and aggressive in crowded conditions. Even when they have plenty of food, monkeys in crowded conditions become aggressive."

"Crowded monkeys, muskrats, voles (meadow mice) and wild rats attack and even kill their young."

Dr. Russell said human beings appear to behave in much the same way. He noted that in Britain, where immigration and an excess of births over deaths have caused an extensive postwar housing shortage, the crime rate is up sharply.

There also has been a big increase in the number of infants and small children badly beaten by their parents.

Iron Gates Separate Dining Room From Japanese-Influenced 'Tokonoma'

Home Reflects Japanese Influence

By Jody Headlee
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press
Evidence of Japanese culture is found throughout the Lawson McKenzie home on Wingerd Court, Bloomfield Township.

Mrs. McKenzie, president and founder of the Detroit Branch of the Ikebana International, was introduced to the Ikebana movement by her friend and founder of the organization, Mrs. Frank A. Allen of Washington, D. C.

Not only do the club members study Ikebana, the art of Japanese floral arrangement, but they also study the country's history and traditions.

"See the Norens," said Mrs. McKenzie, smiling as she pointed to the colorful panels hanging from the doorway to the lake balcony.

"You find them in all Japanese shops. They are to brush the demons off as you go in and out of the house."

Gold walls and carpeting complemented by white giraperies, valances and beamed ceiling set the background for the living room.

Dominant in a lakeside window grouping is an ayecade-green velvet loveseat. Armchairs, imported from Belgium, add to the seating arrangement. Framed in fruitwood, the chairs are covered in a muted-green needlepoint.

In the hall leading to the formal dining room, Mrs. McKenzie has created a setting prompted by the Japanese "tokonoma."

The tokonoma is a three feet by six feet alcove or niche, raised about five inches from the floor.

Originally used for familial worship, its principal function in today's Japanese home is as a frame for an art object or floral arrangement.

Mrs. McKenzie made the shoji screen. Centering the orange brocade square on the low black-lacquer table is a tea bowl.

Unusual Entrance Enhances Splitlevel

It takes a second look to recognize this house as a split level.

But a split-level it is — and with all the economic advantages of a three-level residential structure.

However, it's a split level with a special look of elegance, thanks to an atrium entry, approach through garden gates hung in a curved brick wall.

The double front doors are designed with diamond panes in the upper glazed panels.

A pair of huge carriage lamps flanks this entrance approach. A sweep of brick 80' long in one place gives added length to the facade.

UNUSUAL AND DISTINCTIVE Truly an unusual and distinctive exterior!

Upon entering this house, one finds himself in a huge foyer called a gallery by architect Herman H. York.

A general interest in art inspired him to design a foyer area with ample wall space to hang paintings or exhibit sculpture or display souvenirs gathered during travel holidays.

To the left is the formal living room with a fireplace on the outside long wall.

This room is easy to furnish well for it has a minimum of space lost to traffic. The separate dining room overlooks the rear garden.

The kitchen (17' by 13' 4") is as large as living rooms in many houses. Here, sliding glass doors in the dinette space give ready access to outside dining and play areas.

One such area is a dining deck, raised above the ground with redwood slat flooring and a stairway down to a terrace at grade level.

DOUBLE SINK An interesting corner double sink in the kitchen makes use of the corner counter, giving added space on each side.

Next to the kitchen is a laundry complete with space for clothes washer, dryer, laundry tray, clothes chute from the upper level, and mud and broom closets.

From this area a door leads directly to the exterior, which incidentally creates a passage to the laundry near the garage.

In addition, we find a huge closet for "family" coats.

This is the kind of small but welcome extra one appreciates after having lived in a house.

It enables one to come home through the garage and deposit raincoats, overcoats, etc., in a back hall closet.

Tradesmen learn to place cleaned clothes in such an area without disturbing the household.

FAMILY ROOM The family room has the warmth associated with a fireplace, which in this case occupies the focal point of interest.

Added to this is a large wood box in a brick wall, flanked on each side by built-in bookcases.

Another useful item is the closet marked "game storage" for such things as folding chairs and bridge tables.

Sliding glass doors lead from the family room to the terrace.

Upstairs are four bedrooms, grouped about a wood-paneled hall with a double laundry bath serving three of the bedrooms.

The laundry chute is reached through the lower part of the bathroom vanity.

In the owners' room, a dressing alcove, walk-in closet, an extra sliding-door closet and a private bath with shower stall make for a comfortable master suite.

OWNERS' BEDROOM Note that the owners' bedroom is approached through a double door.

Also, the fourth bedroom has been located with an optional feature: doors connecting it to the master bedroom.

Should this bedroom become available, it can be used as a den for study or lounging.

It could also serve as a nursery, with the connecting door for surveillance over a young child.

Bench Unites Yard Shapes

A paved patio and a lawn make awkward partners unless they're joined gracefully.

What's needed is a change of pace at the edge of the paving so that masonry and grass don't meet head-on.

Simple but effective is to build an L-shaped bench in one corner of the patio.

The bench will provide a change of elevation, giving a bit of height in one spot.

The bench seat can be built of Douglas fir or white fir 2x3-inch lumber on edge, leaving an eighth-inch spacing between.

SUPPORTS For legs and cross supports, cut fence posts to the desired height and length.

Then, to finish the project, work a mounded planting bed along another edge of the patio.

Perhaps you could use a pair of garden screens in the bed as a backdrop for plantings.

The screens will also serve as a means of introducing vertical lines to break the flat junction of lawn and paving.

Grained Panels Make Woman's Work Easier

Recreation areas, dens and other rooms in the home can be given the luxurious appearance of woodgrain paneling much easier and more economically now than ever before.

The low-cost, good-looking renovation is accomplished by installing panels, available at lumber and building supply dealers in colors and patterns, plus three of perforated.

The panels, in handy sizes of 4'x7' and 4'x8', go up quickly and easily over open framing, solid backing or furring strips with nails or adhesives.

Because they are smooth and uniform in color and shading, problems in matching the panels are eliminated.

All panels are prefinished, so that the homemaker's maintenance chores are confined to occasional wiping with a damp cloth. Common household stains yield readily to a mild detergent and water.

Advantages of Tile

Ceramic tile offers four advantages as a material for surfacing the floor and walls of the home laundry: it is unaffected by moisture; it is easy to clean; it requires no waxing or other protective coating; and it is manufactured in the United States in such a wide variety of colors, sizes, shapes and textures that it can blend or contrast with any design scheme.

Bright Colors Are Best

Paint Can Be Your Safety Guardian

Everywhere around you, you see the colorful miracles worked by paint. Your homes and offices, and the appliances and furniture in them, are made brighter with this almost-magical product.

At the same time, paint protects the surfaces of these things. But, paint does more than that.

It is also a safety guardian for you. You see it used for safety measures on your streets, in your factories, and in public places.

Why not make your home safer by applying some of these same techniques.

First of all, take a look at your safety equipment such as fire extinguishers and first aid kits. Paint them in eye-catching colors.

RED FOR FIRE
Red is the common color for fire extinguishing equipment.

First aid supply kits are usually painted a bright green. After you've painted them, put them in locations that are easily accessible and be sure that everyone in your family knows exactly where they are.

What about your stepladder? It's commonly thought of as a safety measure in itself. But, have you checked it lately for cracks?

You should do this periodically. If it needs repairs or if it needs to be replaced, do so immediately.

Once you're sure you have safe, sturdy support, paint the bottom and top steps a bright color.

This will call attention to them and will greatly reduce the chance of a mis-step and unfortunate fall.

Basement steps are another hazard. Frequently, a hurried rush down the stairs means a tumble to the bottom. Again, a bright color on the top and bottom steps is an ideal safety precaution. Yellow and red are good choices.

But, if your basement is finished in other colors, choose the brightest one as your caution signal.

Slips and falls often occur in dark hallways. It's an excellent idea to paint these areas in light colors and to keep them well illuminated.

Not only will this make them safer, but it will enhance the beauty of your home as well.

Avoid possible falls and bumps while groping for a light switch in the darkened room by painting the plates with luminous paint.

You'll always be able to locate the switch quickly and easily this way. Incidentally, these paints are available in colors that match or harmonize with your wall colors.

The importance of checking potentially hazardous areas in your home periodically cannot be stressed enough. But, it is equally as important, if not more so, to make any necessary repairs or replacements immediately.

While you are making your safety check, remember the value of paint in making your home a safer place in which to live. The cost will be minimal in terms of your protection and safety.

Collage Hobby Fun for Young Child, Mother

Nearly everyone has made a collage at one time or another, although probably not recognizing it as such.

Collage is merely a fancy name for an art form that consists of pasting different kinds and colors of paper together to form a composition.

Collage design is introduced in kindergarten, and many parents find it fun to work with their children at home.

Add a bowl of hot popcorn and a collage will sustain interest for many hours.

In the hands of an expert, collage work can achieve a high degree of artistry, but everyone enjoys working on the designs.

SURFACE CONTRAST

Both texture and color contrast can be obtained by using smooth surfaced papers next to rough surfaced ones, or shiny metallics beside dull surfaced scraps.

Begin a collage by first working out a complete drawing and then cutting or tearing the paper to fit.

Each piece of paper is mounted carefully and pasted in place with wallpaper paste or contact cement.

Colorful oriental and medieval scenes lend themselves especially well to collage work.

As a base for the collage, experts recommend using a pressed wood panel. The hardboard may be painted to highlight the colors in the collage.

Homely Post Can Be Asset

Got an unsightly pillar or post in your home? In Eastern homes such eyesores usually are found in the cellar.

Wherever it is, you may be able to transform that pole into an asset.

Here's how: Have a lumber yard cut two identical-size panels that can be fitted together around the pillar to form a table. Then surface the top with a durable material such as ceramic tile.

You'll find that ceramic tile is ideal for a table top because it cannot be burned or scratched.

It's easy to clean, too, requiring little care other than an occasional quick wipe with a damp cloth.

Tile now comes in so many shapes that it will fit snugly on any table you build, whether the table be square, rectangular or circular.

And the more than 250 colors and shades in which ceramic tile is now available mean that there's a tile to harmonize with any decor.

Bengals' Dressen Eying Younger Talent

Dodger Youngster Again Keys Victory

By The Associated Press
Vive Lefebvre!

That could well be the rallying cry of the Los Angeles Dodgers as they claw and scratch their way toward the National League pennant.

They aren't there yet, but Jim Lefebvre, their second baseman, is making sure they have a good chance of making it. The rookie powered the Dodgers for the second consecutive game Friday night, driving in two runs and scoring the third in a 3-0 victory over Houston.

The triumph kept Los Angeles in first place, one game ahead of Cincinnati and two in front of San Francisco and Milwaukee.

Just the night before, Lefebvre lashed two singles and a double and drove in four runs as the Dodgers whipped Pittsburgh 7-1.

RUN PRODUCES

The 22-year-old infielder, a top contender for Rookie of the Year honors, is batting only .241, but he has knocked in 56 runs. Only Philadelphia's Dick Stuart, who has driven in 70 runs, has more RBI than Lefebvre of all NL players batting less than .250.

Lefebvre got the Dodgers started against the Astros in the second inning, singling across Ron Fairly, who walked and was sacrificed to second.

That was the only run of the game until the ninth. Then, with Lou Johnson aboard on a force play, Lefebvre drilled a triple to right-center field for one run and scored another on Wes Parker's squeeze bunt.

Eisenhower in the NL, Cincinnati crushed Philadelphia 16-7, Chicago edged San Francisco 5-4, Milwaukee nipped Pittsburgh 4-3 and New York beat St. Louis 5-3.

While Lefebvre was beating Houston with his hitting and fielding, Dick Whitte, Howie Reed and Ron Perranoski blanked the Astros on eight hits. Whitte was forced to leave in the sixth when his arm stiffened.

Cincinnati and Philadelphia battled to a 6-4 tie through six innings, but the Reds put the game away with three runs in the seventh and seven more in the eighth.

BASES LOADED

Jack Baldschun's bases-loaded walk to John Edwards broke the deadlock, and Tommy Helms followed with a two-run single. Edwards doubled across two runs in the eighth while Pete Rose knocked in a pair with his fourth hit, a triple.

Billy Williams powered the Cubs past San Francisco, hitting his 26th homer in the fourth inning and lashing a bases-loaded triple in the fifth. Pitcher Bob Solari hit a two-run homer for the Giants, but Bill Paul hung on for his fifth triumph against three defeats.

Throwing errors by right fielder Roberto Clemente, after Mack Jones' line drive, and first baseman Donn Clendenon, on Ed Mathews' grounder, gave Milwaukee two eighth-inning runs and a victory over the Pirates.

Game time is 8 p.m.

The Arrows, coached by Lyle Wells, are starting their first season in Pontiac after spending three in Mount Clemens. The team won the league championship in 1962 and 1963 and yielded the title to Lansing last year.

Quarterbacking the Arrows will be Karl Swenson, a 6-1, 196-pounder who spent the exhibition season with the Detroit Lions.

Among local players in the lineup will be Steve Sabo, a 205-pound linebacker, who played at the University of Illinois and now coaches wrestling at Pontiac Central.

STOLE PASS

Another PCH player is Jim Gardner, a 5-6, 166-pound defensive halfback, who intercepted one pass and knocked down a few others when the Arrows downed Flint, 26-20, in an exhibition game early in August at Windsor.

Pontiac is expected to be in top shape for the game.

A couple of players injured in practice in July are expected to be on hand for the game tonight. The two are fullback Ken

Jim Braddock Expected Off Canvas in 10 Days

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (UPI)—Former world heavyweight champion James J. Braddock today after undergoing surgery for a glaucoma condition.

Doctors at Christ Hospital said the retired, 60-year-old fighter came through Friday's operation in good shape. He was expected to remain in the hospital for five to 10 days.

Kicking Practice Prepares U-M 11 for Scrimmage

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Michigan Wolverines prepared Friday for today's football scrimmage by concentrating on kicking techniques.

Camp Elliott planned to send his Blue Team—first offensive and defensive units—against the rest of the squad in scrimmages under game conditions behind locked gates in Michigan Stadium.

Junior end Clayton Whitte of Bay City, who occasionally subbed on kickoffs for all-American Bob Timberlake last season, handled most of the kickoff duties.

Defensive back Rick Sygar saw some action on booting extra points last season and is handling the chore at present. Sophomore center Paul D'Eramo also was place-kicking.

He underwent surgery and the Lions decided to wait and see if he was fully recovered before offering him a contract.

Lane has been used sparingly in the Lions' first three exhibition games in which Gilmer used Dick LeBeau and Bobby Thompson.

Mill Plum, who said he feels more confident than at any other time in his career, will try to snap the Lions' losing streak. He threw for more than 200 yards and two touchdowns in each of his first two games.

It won't take the Lions long to find out how Morrill is doing with his new team.

Morrill, traded to the Lions last Monday in the deal which sent two linemen to the Lions, has had a week in which to work with the Giants' Slot T formation.

He's expected to get the starting quarterback assignment as the Giants seek to even their exhibition record at 2-2.

Manager Likes Stanley's Work in 10-2 Win

4 Homers by Tigers
Defeat—Washington
Northrup Has 3 Hits

DETROIT (AP)—Tiger Manager Charlie Dressen hasn't conceded the pennant to anyone, but he plans to take a close look at a few of the younger players in the last month of the season.

Dressen liked what he saw Friday night when the Tigers clobbered the Washington Senators 10-2 to move into third place.

Mickey Stanley, the youngster from Grand Rapids, made two fine defensive plays and contributed his first major league homer as Hank Aguirre posted his 12th triumph.

Norm Cash, Willie Horton and Bill Freehan also hit homers as the Tigers snapped out of a hitting slump with a 13-run barrage off three Washington pitchers.

"The home run doesn't impress me," Dressen said. "Anyone can hit them these days."

DIVING CATCH

"But not everyone can make diving catches like he did on (Ken) Hamlin," Dressen added. Stanley raced in to snap Hamlin's sinking liner off his shoe tops, then raced to the fence in left-center to snag Woodie Held's long drive in the fifth inning.

"The way he's playing and with Jim Northrup getting a few more hits, I'd say we are in pretty good position to trade a few fellows and help ourselves," Dressen said.

"Of course, I don't know who the other teams want or who they are willing to give up," he added.

Northrup had a run-scoring double and a pair of singles but will probably be on the bench for the next few days as Al Kaline returns to the lineup.

"Stanley told me before the game that he plays center a little shallower than most guys," Aguirre said. "When I asked if he could go back to get the ball hit over his head, he told me not to worry."

WANTS 17

Aguirre had not won in more than two weeks and is now three games away from matching the best winning season of his career.

"I sure would like to win 17 but I really don't know if I can do it," he said. "I've always had trouble with Washington, so winning tonight has to make me feel good."

Cash, who had only one hit in 26 previous appearances against Washington pitching, snapped a scoreless deadlock with a two-run homer in the third.

Freehan's homer triggered another two-run inning in the fourth and Horton's two-run shot came in the sixth.

Don Wert singled home two runs and Horton's single scored another in the sixth before Stanley added his home run in the seventh to close out the scoring for the Tigers.

Horton regained the league lead in home runs with 27 and his 91 runs batted in is just one behind Cleveland's Rocky Colavito.

Aguirre lost his shutout in the eighth inning when he gave up solo home to Ken McMillen and Woodie Held.

The Senators put two runners on in each of the first three innings for their best scoring opportunities. Aguirre struck out the last batter in each of the first four innings and finished with eight strikeouts.

KATHY KUSNER FINISHES 1-3 IN EUROPEAN JUMP

ROTTERDAM (UPI)—Kathy Kusner of Arlington, Va., took both first and third place in the Grand Prix des Amazones jumping contest Friday.

She won atop Untouchable, clearing the 13 obstacles in 82.4 seconds and came in third on That's Right in 83.3 seconds.

Oilier Runner Sidelined

HOUSTON (UPI)—Slippery Sid Banks, Houston Oilers fullback, will have an operation next week to repair torn knee cartilage and is expected to be out at least six weeks.

Chisox Won't Concede First Place

But Defeat Makes Job Very Hard

MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP)—Al Lopez isn't conceding the American League pennant to Minnesota, but he admits his Chicago White Sox face a steep uphill battle in overtaking the Twins.

"We've just got to win all we can," Lopez said Friday night after the Twins had held off the charging White Sox 6-4 and extended their lead to 7½ games with a month to go.

"The Twins have a good position, no one can doubt that," Lopez said. "But it's going down to the wire."

"We're not figuring on any help from any other clubs. We can't depend on what they do."

WOULD HELP

Lopez contended that the White Sox do not have to sweep their four remaining games with the Twins to catch the Minnesota team, but conceded, "It sure would help."

The two top American League teams meet here today and Sunday, then play their final two games against each other at Chicago next Wednesday and Thursday.

HAVE TO WIN

Twins Manager Sam Mele figures a split with the Sox in the four upcoming games "will put us in pretty good shape."

That's about as close as Mele has come to talking pennant clinching. "When everybody else is eliminated, we'll talk about how we won it, not before," he said.

When someone suggested that dropping a game to Minnesota actually makes a difference of two games behind in the standings, Lopez replied:

"We have to win whether you figure they count one or two." Tony Oliva and Don Mincher beat the White Sox Friday night, Oliva slashing three hits to drive in four runs and Mincher whacking a two-run homer.

"That Oliva really hurt us," Lopez said. "We get him to hit the pitch we want him to hit in the sixth inning and he pokes one through the middle for a two-run single."

Oliva, who raised his average to .330, playing within four points of league batting leader Carl Yastrzemski of Boston, credits a four-game rest when he had a jammed right hand and a golf glove he was wearing on the hand for his outburst at the plate.

Vikings' QB Shows Best Form in Romp

By The Associated Press

Don't try to tell Minnesota Coach Norm Van Brocklin there's a better quarterback in professional football than the Vikings' rambling scrambler, Frank Tarkenton.

He's liable to show you the film of Friday night's 57-17 romp against Dallas.

Van Brocklin, who was quite a signal caller himself, before retiring to coach the Vikings, is Tarkenton's number one booster and the scrambler gave him plenty to rave about against the Cowboys.

Tarkenton threw two touchdown passes and piloted a Minnesota attack that gained 210 yards through the air and 198 on the ground. The Vikings' defense pitched in with six interceptions.

The impromptu Tarkenton scrambles sometimes keep Van Brocklin on the edge of the Vikings' bench but the coach admits, "when it works, it's great. When it comes up third and -40, I let Francis call the next play."

FOUR THEFTS

St. Louis intercepted four Rudy Bukich passes and whipped Chicago 25-3 in Friday night's other National Football League exhibition game.

Jim Bakken booted three field goals as the Cardinals won their first pre-season game after two losses and a tie. Chicago lost its second in four starts.

New York's new quarterback, Earl Morrill, starts against his former teammates, the Detroit Lions, in the first game of tonight's NFL doubleheader at Cleveland. The defending champion Browns face Western Division contender Green Bay in the second game, with 80,000 fans expected.

Baltimore plays Washington at Norfolk, Va., and Pittsburgh meets San Francisco at Providence, R. I. in other NFL tests today. Philadelphia is at Los Angeles Sunday.

In the American League, Denver meets Oakland at Sacramento, Calif. Boston is at Kansas City and San Diego plays Houston at Little Rock, in night games.

The Steelers had planned on starting Bill Nelsen at quarterback against the 49ers but an injury may force Coach Buddy Parker to go with veteran Ed Brown. George Mira will start for San Francisco.

Wins Two in LA; Boston Falls

Champagne Flows After Kaycee Escapes Cellar

By The Associated Press
The Kansas City Athletics have beaten the Minnesota Twins to the punch.

The Twins took another step toward a champagne celebration Friday night by whipping Chicago 4-4 and increasing their American League lead over the White Sox to 7½ games but the A's got there first when owner Charles Finley uncorked his long-awaited "cellar-bratery."

The occasion was a 4-1, 1-0 doubleheader swept at Los Angeles that lifted the A's past Boston and out of the American League cellar for the first time since April.

"It was a surprise—the party. As the players trotted into the dressing room after the game, the champagne began to flow and Finley toasted his players: "Congratulations, on making this our happiest night of the year."

DINNER BELL
Then he handed out something more substantial, giving each player $25 for a steak dinner and letting the carver.

There was only one flaw in the proceedings, Charley O. the Mule, couldn't be there to cellar-bray.

The New York Yankees knocked Boston to the bottom of the league by walking the Red Sox 9-0, Baltimore defeated

Huron-Airway Facing Ouster

SPECIAL TO THE PRESS
BATTLE CREEK — Huron-Airway, Pontiac city champion, has its back to the wall in a bid to be the first local team since 1947 to win a Class A state of higher baseball championship.

Beaten 8-0 by host Battle Creek Thursday night in the opener of the double elimination state "A" playoffs, Huron-Airway, a 3-0 loser to Wyandotte Friday night, at 2 p.m. today.

Other Friday night results saw Saginaw surprise defeating champion Detroit Peppercorn, 6-5 in 18 innings; and Dearborn with error - prone Kalamazoo, 7-3.

Saginaw's Ron Spica and Lionel Ackerman each homered twice in his win; Lem Trusewicz's three-hit hurling stopped Jackson; eight errors produced the downfall of Kalamazoo.

Manager Paul Parks probably will start Don Sackett or Doy Pimmann against Jackson today. Battle Creek also plays Wyandotte, Detroit meets Kalamazoo and Dearborn battles Saginaw in their second-round contest at Bailey Stadium.

Football Under Way

MANISTIQUE (AP) — Michigan's high school football season began here Friday night as Ishpeming beat Manistique 32-6 in a regularly scheduled game.

home and a run-producing punt single.

MONBO ROUTED
At Downing shacked the Red Sox on five hits — four of the infield variety — while the Yankees tagged Bill Monbouquette with his 17th loss against eight victories. Horacio Clarke, just up from Toledo, spiced a seventh-run New York explosion in the sixth inning with a pair of singles.

Gene Autry Denies Rehiring of Rigney

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Los Angeles Angel owner Gene Autry denied Friday a published report that Manager Bill Rigney had been rehired for the 1966 season.

Autry, at Chavez Ravine for the Los Angeles-Kansas City game, said:

"In San Francisco today I talked about the policy of Gene Autry Enterprises retaining its executive staff. I think Rigney has done a good job. I said it wouldn't be long until we made a decision about next year, but I didn't say he would be retained."

Winger Holds Top Spot

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Big game hunter Bo Winger turned killer on the golf course Friday, fighting off challenges by PGA champion Dave Marr and former PGA champion Bobby Nichols to cling to the one-hole lead in the $65,000 Oklahoma City Open.

Winger, 42, is an infrequent participant on the tour, but he coolly turned back all charges with a 139 total, five under par at the midway mark.

On an African safari last year, the handsome, graying Winger, killed, among other things, an elephant and a rhinoceros.

The game Friday was less final — no one was killed — but Marr, who shot a 69 for a 140 total, and Nichols, who went from contender to also-ran on one hole, must have felt shell-shocked.

PULLED EVEN
Marr, playing in the threesome just behind Winger and Nichols, applied the pressure throughout the second round and pulled abreast of the Las Vegas, Nev., pro briefly when he birdied the 12th hole.

But Marr three-putted the next hole, taking a double bogey, and never got closer than one stroke after that.

Nichols, who won the 1964 PGA crown, was in strong contention, just two shots back, when he took an awful eight on the tricky No. 17, a 469-yard par-four hole, and finished at 74 to lead six strokes back.

Bo Winger Holds Top Spot

Nichols, who won the 1964 PGA crown, was in strong contention, just two shots back, when he took an awful eight on the tricky No. 17, a 469-yard par-four hole, and finished at 74 to lead six strokes back.

Penalties totaling three shots put Nichols in deep trouble and he three-putted for the eighth.

Defending champion Arnold Palmer, recovering from an opening 75, shot a two-under-par 70 to match Nichols' 145 total.

Only eight of the 139 golfers owned sub-par scores at the 36-hole mark.

Jets to Start Illini at QB

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Jets will have $600,000 worth of quarterback talent slitting on the bench Sunday, Sept. 12 at Houston's Rice Stadium when they open their American Football League season.

Jets Coach Weeb Ewbank Friday named second-year pro Mike Taliaferro, star of Illinois' 1964 Rose Bowl victory, to start at quarterback for the jets, bypassing high-priced rookies Joe Namath ($400,000) of Alabama and All-Star game hero John Huarte ($200,000) of Notre Dame.

California Wants Welsh Boxer Here

LONDON (UPI) — California promoter George Parnassus today invited world lightweight title challenger Howard Winstone of Wales to make his next appearance in the United States, whether he wins or loses his championship scrap against bolder Vicente Saldivar of Mexico Tuesday.

Parnassus said he would like to match Winstone with Richard (Sweet) Sue, the Portland, Ore., slugger who is ranked eighth by The Ring magazine and ninth by the World Boxing Association in the junior lightweight division in Los Angeles or Seattle.

Both Saldivar, 22, and Winstone started to take things easy today after winding up drills for the championship scrap.

Report on School Bids Postponed a Week

An architect's report on submitted bids for three major Waterford Township school construction projects has been pushed one week by the township school board, to give him more time to formulate an opinion on the bids.

A special board meeting has been called for next Thursday night to close bids on the proposed elementary school structures on Bird and VanZandt streets and the Riverside Elementary School addition.

The apparent low bids for the three buildings submitted last week totaled $902,885.

The architect also is considering a total of $51,000 in alternate costs.

Original estimate for the three projects was $930,000.

FUNDS AVAILABLE
Dr. Don O. Tatroe, superintendent of schools, indicated that sufficient funds are available to complete the three projects as bid and for the purchase of sites currently under consideration.

The board nevertheless approved names for the two proposed elementary schools. The Bird Street school was officially designated Cherokee Hills Elementary School, while the VanZandt Street building was named Frank J. Manley Elementary School.

Foreign Affairs Council

Checks Projects Abroad

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has announced the formation of a Foreign Affairs Research Council that will oversee government-sponsored research projects abroad and have veto powers over undesirable projects.

Announcement of the council follows criticism of Pentagon-directed studies of social conditions in Chile. That study, Project Camelot, and another planned for Brazil were canceled.

Manley is the father of Flint's nationally-renowned community school program in which schools are open nights, weekends and summers for recreation purposes.

GRANTED RAISE

In other business, electrician-plumbers, carpenters, painters and mechanics have been given a $30 per month pay raise and 13 new teachers have been hired, leaving only three vacancies to fill in the system.

Also, a $16,000 grant for the dropout student development program has been renewed by the state, according to Tatroe.

This program provides assistance to unemployed school dropouts.

Among purchases approved by the board this week was $14,016 in instructional equipment for the Data Processing Center.

Also, it was decided to reschedule the board's regular September meeting from the 16th to the 23rd.

Leaps 90 Feet From Bridge to Satisfy Ambition

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A youth jumped 90 feet from a bridge and swam from the murky waters of the Cumberland River Friday to win a $3 bet and satisfy a 10-year ambition.

Tommy Hollis, 16, of Nashville said he made the spectacular jump because he wanted to see what it felt like to high dive, and his school mates had bet he wouldn't do it.

"I said I would do it when I was 6 years old," Hollis said. The youth's jump prompted another one, by his mother.

"She jumped all over me when she heard that I had jumped from the bridge, and I had to promise her I wouldn't do it again this summer," he said.

REBEL CHIEF BOWS OUT — Rebel President Col. Francisco Caamaño Denuvo to a throng of more than 20,000 jammed in the inner court of Ozama fortress in Santo Domingo yesterday during a flamboyant resignation ceremony. It coincided with the coming to power of a provisional government headed by President Hector Garcia Godoy.

A band in the street outside the shell-pocked Dominican "white house" played the rebels' "Revolutionary Anthem" so loudly that the first part of Garcia's inaugural speech could not be heard in the hall where he was installed.

Garcia took no notice of the gunfire which cracked outside the presidential residence while he was speaking.

The gunfire came from the rebel-held area, but so far as could be learned no one was hit.

A spokesman at rebel headquarters said drunken militiamen were firing into the air to celebrate. He said three or four of the offenders had been arrested.

FORMS CABINET

Although Garcia had said earlier that he had formed a cabinet, he said last night the lineup of his government is not complete.

The provisional president said he believes the Dominican armed forces should be "gradually reorganized," but he refused to say what will happen to leading military figures on both sides of the revolt.

There were no diplomats present at the installation because no country has recognized any of the Dominican regimes installed since the outbreak of the revolt in April.

A number of U.S. and Latin American officers of the Inter-American peace force which has been policing Santo Domingo were present in civilian clothes, and the U.N. and the Organization of American States also were represented.

The outer walls of the Dominican executive mansion bore the scars of battle — it was shelled by the navy, strafed by the air force and shot up by the rebels during the revolt — but the interior showed few signs of damage.

The U.S. soldier killed yesterday was identified only as a member of Company B of the 307th Engineer Battalion. His name was withheld until his family has been notified.

Provisional Leader Heads Strife-Torn Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — Hector Garcia Godoy was installed as provisional president of the revolt-torn Dominican Republic late yesterday while gunfire echoed through the streets outside.

In the predawn darkness, less than 18 hours before Garcia's inauguration, a U.S. soldier was killed by a hand grenade thrown into an American command post.

He was the 28th U.S. serviceman killed since American troops moved in four months ago to prevent a Cuba-style Communist take-over here.

The leftist rebels who held a square mile of downtown Santo Domingo throughout the revolt played a prominent part in Garcia's installation.

The provisional president was introduced to the radio-television audience which heard his inaugural speech by rebel press agent Ivan Garcia, and Franklyn Caamaño Denu, helped to organize the news conference which followed.

Congressmen Reunite With Families

Ether Van Wagoner Tuffy WASHINGTON — Labor Day weekend means the reuniting in Washington of families for members of Congress with school-age children, who have been vacationing back in the home state where the votes are.

Typically, Congressman Charles E. Chamberlain, R-East Lansing, who has been one of the many congressional "summer bachelors" will have his family back in their nearby Virginia home.

Daughter Ellen attended summer school at Michigan State University and will soon be a freshman at Newton College, in Newton, Mass.

Younger daughter "Chris" and son "Chip" enjoyed camp life on beautiful Torch Lake, while their mother often substituted for her husband in the Chamberlain campaign trailer, which put in an appearance at the three County Fairs in Shiawassee, Jackson and Ingham.

Margaret Mackie, the daughter of Congressman John C. Mackie, D-Pitt., had an unusual summer as an assistant to veterinarian Dr. Frank Mayo. (Margaret even did a little surgery on the family cat, "Jesse.")

The congressman said he thought perhaps her summer experience would end her desire to spend seven years in Cornell University to become a veterinarian herself. It didn't.

The Mackies live on a farm some 40 miles from Washington down in the famous horse country of Virginia, where Margaret and her sisters, Anne and Laura, enjoy horseback riding.

Somewhat one of the top-ranking women in Washington, Marie C. McGuire, commissioner of public housing, gets little publicity.

Officially, her job is to provide shelter for as many low income families as possible. "But just shelter," she says, "but the elements of home" and one way she has found to accomplish this is to set new standards for the buildings, so they "don't look like warehouses."

She knows it's important that the occupants take pride in the place where they live, so she gives architects and engineers a freer hand and greater incentive.

She doesn't stay behind her Washington desk and push buttons, but takes field trips to see for herself how she can improve the human needs of those who live in public housing. Often this involves visits to local authorities to awake them to the desirability of including the public housing residents in community programs, social, recreational and educational.

Only a woman like Marie McGuire could add this human extension to public housing.

Disappearing Bulgarian Girl Gone Again

DETROIT (UPI) — The 19-year-old Bulgarian girl who disappeared a month ago just before she was scheduled to return home, has dropped out of sight again.

Nevanka Tobanova was scheduled to have appeared before immigration authorities at Toledo, Ohio, yesterday, but she failed to show up.

She had met briefly last Saturday with A. B. Caster, an investigator for the Immigration and Naturalization Service, who said he sent her a letter to see him again yesterday.

Nevanka had been staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Martinez in Oregon, Ohio, but she slipped away from there.

It was reported she returned to Detroit, where she had stayed with a family during her month of hiding.

The girl has said she does not want to return to Communist-run Bulgaria.

A Detroit immigration attorney has volunteered his services in trying to help Nevanka in her efforts to stay in this country. But immigration authorities say she is only hurting her cause by hiding out. They said she would receive a hearing to present her reasons for wanting to stay.

Ohio Psychiatrist Added to State Hospital Staff

Dr. C. O. Ranger, superintendent at Rollman Psychiatric Institute in Cincinnati for the past 10 years, has joined the staff of Pontiac State Hospital.

He will serve as assistant medical superintendent.

Dr. Ranger, 63, who has had extensive experience in psychiatric training and hospital administration, is a licensed physician in five states.

He received a B.A. degree from the University of Ottawa in 1920 and an M.D. in 1925 from the University of Montreal.

State tax collections exceeded taxes by localities in fiscal 1964. The amounts were $24.1 billion for states and $23.7 billion in local levies.

The First Lady of Nationalist China at 47 is still a propagandist and this time she wears against Communist China's buildup of atomic weapons.

On other visits she made gossip news. President Roosevelt was enchanted with her. Not so Mrs. Roosevelt, who admitted wryly in her news conference with women reporters that Madame Chiang Kai-shek was the most difficult guest ever to be entertained at the White House.

Not only did she bring along a large retinue of servants, but she had to have silk sheets changed frequently because of her delicate skin.

Racket Squad Car Hit; Four Injured

DETROIT (AP) — The Wayne County Sheriff's Department racket squad was put out of action temporarily Friday night by a two-car crash which injured four of the squad's seven members.

Officers said unmarked car containing the four was turning left when it was hit by another vehicle.

Sgt. Harry Sparks, head of the squad, was nearby. He arrested the other driver.

California Pilot Lands Plane on Busy Highway

LONG BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Ernest Dunbar landed his small plane on a busy thoroughfare here yesterday after its engine failed.

Dunbar avoided moving traffic by landing beyond an intersection where vehicles stopped for a light. But the plane then bounced into two parked cars. No one was hurt.

Klan to Picket Dixie Schools

Protest integration of Alabama Classrooms

By The Associated Press
A Ku Klux Klan leader vowed to picket desegregated schools in Alabama until the protest is heard in Washington, D.C.

Robert Creel, grand dragon of the Alabama Klan, pledged Friday to extend the protest movement while he was leading about a dozen white segregationists picketing a high school in Bessemer, a Birmingham suburb.

Bessemer High admitted nine Negroes this week. Creel said the picketing would continue "as long as they have a black child in classrooms there."

"We're going to protest until we're heard in Washington," the Klan leader said. "That's the only way we know we can get an audience with the great white father, LBJ."

Negro pupils were turned away from white schools at two other Alabama towns. But at Selma, once the focal point of the civil rights struggle, 10 Negroes registered without incident at three white schools.

Greensboro's white high school admitted six Negro girls whose transfers had been approved. But when about 75 other Negroes sought to enroll they were turned away by the principal. At the nearby town of Akron, about 35 Negroes tried to enter the white school. No transfers had been approved and the group was met by police and left without incident.

Two other widely separated Southern cities — Natchez, Miss., and Plymouth, N.C., remained quiet after recent violence.

Natchez, with a population of about 25,000, appeared calm as National Guardsmen patrolled the streets under orders to prevent crowds from forming. At 10 p.m. to 1 a.m., curfew remained in effect as did a ban on the sale of liquor.

Civil rights demonstrations came to a temporary halt in Plymouth after a biracial council reported progress toward a peaceful settlement. Negro leaders said there were no plans for any march or demonstration over the weekend.

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) — Louis B. Pate, 69, a shipping executive, died Thursday in his home after a long illness. He was a vice president of Seas Shipping Co., former president of the Propeller Club of the United States, and one-time U.S. vice-consul in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Junior Editors Quiz on MERMAIDS

QUESTION: Are there such things as mermaids?

ANSWER: The sweet little mermaids in our picture are so attractive that it seems a shame to report that they do not exist. The idea that there are mermaids, half human and half fish, is one of the legends dreamed up by sailors who constantly travel the mysterious sea.

At sea, things are often so far away, or so shrouded by atmosphere, that it is difficult to see them clearly. Many sea creatures are thought to have suggested the mermaid idea to sailors.

The seal, with its large expressive eyes, has an almost human look when swimming along with only its head showing. At the upper left we illustrate the seal, or manatee, a sea-going animal with a trick of rearing out of the water.

At a distance, such a creature may have looked like a person waving its arms. The dugong, a somewhat similar animal, may have also played a part in the mermaid legend. Both these creatures have fliplike tails.

Having imagined mermaids, it was natural for superstitious seamen to go further.

Each mermaid had a cap, they thought, which she could slip on the head of a man she liked. Then the man could live under the sea.

FOR YOU TO DO: Color this picture, making the mermaid's hair golden yellow and her scales emerald green. Better yet, draw your own version of a mermaid combing her long hair.

Sun Blankets Flooded Italy

100 Dead, Missing as Threat Continues

ROME (AP) — A bright sun broke through storm clouds today, bringing relief to much of Italy after three days of storms that took a toll of over 100 dead and missing.

But swollen rivers continued to cause concern and floods still disrupted the country's life.

Rome, though surrounded by water, couldn't get a drop from its fountains.

Guards mounted watches on the banks of major rivers, although late reports indicated such giants as the Po in the north and the Tiber at Rome were beginning to drop.

The sun burned off gray clouds in the hard-hit Rome area and in the flooded Orvieto region to the north.

ALPINE AREA
It also was sunny in the landslide-plagued Alpine and sub-Alpine areas of northeast Italy.

Nevertheless, effects of the disaster remained.

One of two main Rome-Milan railway lines was restored, but other lines remained broken.

The most serious break was in the Alto Adige, where the Brenner Pass line was cut in two places.

In Rome churches, masses were said for an end to the bad weather.

MUD-SPLASHED
Pope Paul VI, his white robes and red slippers splashed with mud, toured flood-stricken suburbs of Rome today and promised help to embittered victims, some openly hostile to him.

"We don't need your blessing," a few shouted. "We need money."

The Pope, solemn and obviously moved by the muddy desolation left by the floods, toured the area — where Italy's Communist party is strong — for almost 2½ hours. Much of the time he rode standing in a small open Italian army vehicle.

The national toll of dead rose to 55, with 46 missing.

MASS POLLUTION
Mud had pushed through a main aqueduct supplying Rome and polluted most of the city's water supply.

Engineers cut it off until the break could be fixed. Repairs won't be through until Monday or Tuesday.

As most Romans entered the third day with no tap water, they were turning to the city's famed fountains for help.

Resourceful Romans have made daily treks to the Trevi fountain and other landmarks to scoop up the precious fluid in jars, plastic pails and old wine bottles.

WILLARD J. RITMANICH
BIRMINGHAM — Requiem Mass for Willard J. Ritmanich, 45, of 1574 Chapin was to be this morning at St. Columban's Catholic Church with burial following in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Ritmanich died Thursday after a brief illness.

A tool maker with All State Tool Co., Royal Oak, he was a member of St. Columban's Holy Name Society.

Surviving are his wife, Gertrude; two daughters, Sharon and Rochelle, both at home; and a brother.

SAFE LANDING — A storklike Paraglider carries a Gemini-style spacecraft to a successful landing on the desert at Edwards Air Force Base in California. The device is designed to bring space capsules in to earth

At U.S. Conference

To Display Magna Carta

WASHINGTON (AP) — Under pressure from the barons of his realm 750 years ago, King John of England signed a document, the Magna Carta, limiting what he could demand of the barons and what they could expect from their men.

A rare original copy of its last major revision, issued 10 years later, was flown here from Britain Friday for display later this month. The occasion is a World Conference on Peace through Law, starting Sept. 12.

The original and its later revisions laid the foundation of the Anglo-Saxon system of individual rights and liberties, from which both the British and American systems have developed.

South Bend, Ind. (UPI) — Edward Scott Banish, 18, who was reported drowned but subsequently was found alive and questioned in the baffling death of his soldier-father, has been released from custody, Sheriff William J. Locks reports.

A boat, clothing and fishing gear found at New Buffalo, Mich., led authorities to believe Banish was drowned June 3.

Monday, he tried to enlist in the Army at Fort Wayne, Ind., and was taken into custody.

Banish contended he was working on a tuna fishing boat off the Oregon coast when his father, Staff Sgt. Edward Banish, 49, was stabbed to death in the family's home in suburban South Bend Aug. 22.

However, the skipper of the tuna boat told the sheriff that young Banish, under the name of "McFarland," had been on the boat in the Pacific Ocean on Aug. 22.

Locks said Banish had been in protective custody until the alibi came through but that Banish had been free to leave before the alibi was confirmed, contending he would not leave until exonerated.

Banish told deputies he staged his disappearance in the hope of being able to enlist in the armed forces in some other area under another name.

He said he couldn't enlist in South Bend since he had been classified 4-F because he was afflicted with Hodgkin's disease.

Burning Fur Turns Fire Into a Cat-astrophe

AUSTIN, Minn. (UPI) — The fur of a cat caught fire yesterday when it strayed too close to a burning garbage pile.

The frightened animal dashed into a barn. The fire spread.

The final toll: the barn, a nearby shed, 800 bales of hay and straw, a wagon, 15 rabbits, a lamb and the cat.

Building Bids Are Rejected

Bids for construction of additions to two county-owned buildings were rejected yesterday by the building and grounds committee of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

The bids, which were opened Aug. 24, were termed too high by county engineers and architects who reviewed them.

Estimated cost of additions to the laundry building and garage in the county service center was $52,000.

Bids on the two-job project ranged from $72,126 to $101,127.

Reflections

TOO MANY COOKS

Divided authority creates confusion, and failure, whether it is two artists dabbling colors indiscriminately on a canvas or two cooks adding or forgetting to omit ingredients to a cake. Ten billion neurons in our brain quickly respond to commands from one source — that brain and we perform prodigious feats. To arrive at any goal one follows one plan; progress is orderly.

A high school student listens to an English teacher for one period, a mathematics teacher for another period, understands and progresses; suppose both teachers were in one room and both talking at once? Chaos would result. A mother with a family is a manager of the biggest business on earth; she can't divide her time with extraneous activities and not be like the clown who tries to keep five balls in the air, play basketball and repair a watch simultaneously.

Too many cooks spoil the soup, to get somewhere, fast, accept undivided responsibility, follow your plan, reach your goal, over, under, around or through obstacles and you'll be a cook for an epicure. That's the recipe for a successful person. Try it.

Police Hunt 2 Men in Store Robbery

Pontiac police today are searching for two men who last night robbed the Calabrese Market, 238 S. Telegraph, of an undetermined amount of cash and then fled in a car.

Employee Beverly McDaniel, 24, of 141 Draper told police the two men came into the store about 8:40.

She said one of the pair pulled a revolver and told her to open the cash register. After looting the cash register the pair fled out the front door and left in a car.

Ginger Skirts Questions on Dress Knee-Clearance

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Ginger Rogers is likely to become the last word on everything on Broadway since going into "Hello, Dolly!" — her dress of autumn color was so high above her knees the other day at the Bennett Cerf's apartment that she said, "You like those above-the-knees fashions evidently?"

"Yes, I find they're quite attractive . . . I think they're fun." Ginger didn't pull her dress down as girls have been known to do.

"Freedom in clothes is necessary nowadays . . . with the ability to get in and out of those cars that are built as they are . . . You really need clothes that will work in getting in and out of different kinds of transportation," Ginger said.

Again she didn't pull down her skirt. In fact, I think it was inching up. And I didn't have the nerve to mention to Ginger that she wasn't getting out of a compact cab now . . . she was just sitting on a divan . . . showing her knees . . . which were and are beautiful.

"How high above the dress do you wear your knees?" I said, as her knees had me flustered.

Laughing, she said, "Three inches above the knees when I'm sitting down . . . I wrote in my notebook.

"More like five," I wrote in my notebook.

"When I'm standing, at the center of the kneecap."

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . . Richard Burton hasn't seen "Sandpiper" — and won't: he doesn't like viewing himself on the screen. He walked out on "Look Back in Anger," muttering "I couldn't stand watching him!" . . . Barbara Streisand and her husband Elliot Gould formed their second production company, called Belbar. (Their first is called Elbar.)

The Blue Fox Restaurant in San Francisco installed a guest book, to be signed by male guests conducted on a tour of the ultra-elegant ladies' room. . . . Jack Entratter's Sands in Las Vegas will celebrate its 13th year Dec. 15 with shows starring Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Danny Thomas and Red Skelton.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Justice" is what we get when the decision is in our favor." — John W. Raper.

EARL'S PEARLS: Shelby Friedman complained about his new apartment: "It's so small that they used it to train astronauts for life in a capsule."

Jackie Vernon, who's excellent at the Persian Rm., reports on his weight problem: "I gained so much I had to have my shower curtain let out." . . . That's earl, brother.

House Dems View Possible Fall Agenda Items

LANSING (U) — House Democrats will be asked next Friday whether or not they want to consider fiscal reform in the fall session of the legislature, starting Sept. 14, says a Democratic source.

Democratic caucus officers met with Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, Friday to discuss the agenda for the fall session.

Kowalski said after the meeting the group had agreed to submit possible fall subjects to the caucus Sept. 10, "and there will be no further statement until after the caucus."

"We don't want it to appear that we are dictating to the Senate what is to be taken up at the fall session — since any subjects will have to be mutually agreed upon by both chambers," one of the Democrats said after the two-hour closed-door meeting.

Kowalski, he said, was to meet with Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dandaneau, D-Detroit, on possible agenda items, "and to see what they can sell to their respective caucuses."

ITEMS DISCUSSED

Another Democratic source said the items discussed included fiscal reform, senior citizens property tax exemptions, veterans' property tax exemptions, county home rule, merger of city and county welfare departments with the State Welfare Department, the presidential succession amendment to the U.S. Constitution, and the milk-pricing bill.

He declined to say whether the leaders will recommend or talk down fiscal reform when they meet with the full caucus.

Gov. George Romney announced an estimated $135.5-million state treasury surplus earlier this week. This further cooled whatever sentiment existed for fiscal reform, which has generally come to mean a statewide income tax.

The caucus follows by two days a meeting between Romney and a bipartisan group of legislative action this fall.

LEGAL SNAGS

The senior citizen bill, passed earlier this year and signed by the governor, could run into legal snags if the legislature adjourned too late to allow it to become law soon enough to apply to 1966 tax rolls.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley has urged lawmakers to amend the bill to make it apply to 1966 rolls.

Rep. H. James Starr, D-Lansing, meanwhile took steps to assure that the bill would become law soon enough to benefit senior citizens in 1966.

He submitted a bill Friday which would put a $10,000-top or state equalized valuation of exempted homesteads. This bill, he said, could be passed and given immediate effect — superseding the one passed earlier.

Also discussed was the extending of what amounts to a property tax rebate to renters, a provision that was stricken from the senior citizens bill before it passed.

"I think we'll push the veterans' and the merger bills," the Democratic source said, "but there didn't seem to be too much sentiment to revive the milk bill."

The veterans' property tax bill would have restored exemptions to the level of a few years ago, but failed to pass the House.

The milk bill to regulate retail practices and prohibit below-invoice selling passed the House. It was left in Senate after the Kroger Co. sponsored a series of newspaper advertisements to stir up public opposition.

The presidential succession amendment passed the Senate but was held in the House for committee study.

Present at the meeting were Kowalski and his staff. Reps. William Ryan of Detroit, William Thorne of Dearborn Heights, F. Charles Raap of Muskegon and George Montgomery of Detroit, chairman of the general taxation committee.

Absent were Rep. Albert Horigan of Flint, speaker pro tem; J. Bob Traxler of Bay City, majority floor leader, and Dominic Jacobetti of Negaunee.

Steel Contract Awaits Ratification

Schweitzer in Coma, Reported Near Death

LAMBARENE, Gabon (AP)—Dr. Albert Schweitzer lapsed into a coma at his jungle hospital today and his daughter said there was no hope of saving him.

"There is no more hope of human effort that can save him," said his daughter, Rhena Schweitzer Eckert.

A telegram sent by the hospital to members of the family and close friends of the 90-year-old jungle physician said tersely:

"He is dying (stop) inevitable and soon (stop) everything that can be done has been done (stop) he goes quietly and in peace and dignity."

Mrs. Eckert, her face showing signs of fatigue and sleepless nights, said, "Another man would have given up long ago. But my father was stronger than most men."

Dr. Walter Muns, medical director of the hospital, said Schweitzer was "resting peacefully. He is not suffering."

KIDNEY ACTION

Dr. Richard Friedmann, a long-time associate of Schweitzer, said the old doctor's kidney action had stopped functioning.

Schweitzer rallied briefly yesterday afternoon, then lapsed into a coma.

"Late last night we knew that all was lost," said Friedmann.

Dr. David Miller, an American heart specialist summoned to Schweitzer's bedside, said he was planning to fly back to the United States Tuesday "barring a miracle."

JUNGLE HOSPITAL

Work went on as usual in the world famous jungle hospital set in a clearing on the banks of the muddy Ogouve River.

Hospital attendants moved quietly in the morning mist. Schweitzer's sick room was open and a man or woman in tears would emerge.

"God gave him a full life," said Dr. Miller. "No man could have done better."

Intermittent rain wet the scattered but that make up Schweitzer's hospital. Flocks of black tropical birds flew low over the brown river.

SICK ROOM

Occasionally the door of Schweitzer's sick room would open and a man or woman in tears would emerge.

"God gave him a full life," said Dr. Miller. "No man could have done better."

Intermittent rain wet the scattered but that make up Schweitzer's hospital. Flocks of black tropical birds flew low over the brown river.

GMC Truck Sets 8-Month Sales Mark

A sales mark was chalked up by GMC Truck & Coach Division in the first eight months of 1965 when 82,000 trucks and buses were delivered to the domestic market.

Calvin J. Werner, a vice president of General Motors and general manager of the division, said the record January-through August figure topped by 15.2 per cent the 71,899 units delivered during the similar period last year.

Werner said sales during the past month totaled 10,592 trucks and buses, making it the best August in the history of the division.

Tragedy Stalks Holiday's Start

54 Highway Deaths Reported Across U.S.

By The Associated Press

Mass highway travel marked the outset of the Labor Day weekend holiday under the shadow of an estimate by safety experts that 500 to 600 persons could be killed in traffic accidents during the three-day period.

Accidents took 54 lives during the early hours of the highway travel.

The deaths occurred in accidents inevitable in operation of most of the nation's 87 million motor vehicles.

The National Safety Council, which made the death toll estimate, said total highway travel mileage probably will total 8.9 billion during the 72 hours between 5 p.m. (local time) yesterday and midnight Monday.

Last year's Labor Day weekend cost 531 highway deaths. In addition, there were 18 deaths in boating accidents and 59 drownings unrelated to boating — 608 accident deaths peculiar to holiday activity.

RECORD TOLL

The 1963 holiday brought a record traffic toll to 537 for a Labor Day period. This contrasted with a low mark of 246 for a post World War II Labor Day — in 1946.

The Labor Day weekend death tolls of recent years ran considerably higher than on similar length.

During the 72-hour weekend from 6 p.m., Friday, Aug. 20, to midnight Monday, Aug. 23, the traffic deaths numbered 451, a survey by the Associated Press showed.

SETTLEMENT AND SMILES—President Johnson talks to someone on the sidelines as he gets in a three-way handshake with I. W. Abel (left), president of the United Steelworkers, and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for 10 major steel companies. The President announced a steel settlement yesterday at the White House.

Believe Accord Ends Threat of Industry Strike

Settlement Is Called Fair One by Johnson; Terms Not Revealed

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Steel industry negotiators return from Washington, today a new contract ready for ratification and the threat of an industry shutdown apparently ended.

President Johnson announced their agreement at the White House last night, saying: "The settlement is a fair one. It is designed to prevent inflation which would damage our prosperity."

The President also said: "We can now say with confidence that the grim threat of thousands of men out of work — of idle plants — of declining production for our economy and declining prosperity for all our people — that threat has been met and overcome."

Officials didn't reveal the terms pending ratification, but sources said the wage-benefit package was between 46 cents and 48 cents an hour over three years, depending on whether union or management figures were used.

The 450,000-member United Steelworkers of America, AFL-CIO, had sought a package it estimated at 48.9 cents. The 10-company management team pegged the package at 55 cents.

PENSIONS INCREASED

Sources said the settlement would increase pensions about $5 a month a year of service, a 58-cent increase over the company's offer of $4.50. Under the old contract, the maximum pension was about $7.60 a month per year of service.

It couldn't be learned how much of an increase in hourly wages the Steelworkers would receive. The average Steelworker now has earnings of about $4.49 an hour including wages and benefits.

Government sources would say only that the agreement is within the White House guidelines of a 3.2 per cent annual increase.

The agreement marked the eighth time since World War II that the industry had agreed on a new pact without a shutdown.

STRIKES

Forty-one contracts have been negotiated since 1946. There have been six strikes, the shortest an eight-hour closure in 1955 and the longest a 116-day walk-out in 1959.

Only in 1963 was a contract agreed to without either side serving termination notice.

Johnson said the negotiators, in reaching agreement, put the national interest, including the Viet Nam war, above their own interests.

Pakistanis Advance, Slain Student's Mate in Detroit

Pakistani troops spearheaded by U.S.-built tanks and jet warplanes stabbed across southwestern Kashmir 50 miles into Indian-controlled territory today in a sudden escalation of the four-day undeclared border war, a Pakistani military spokesman reported.

Indian air force jet fighters also stepped up the pace of the fighting, invading Pakistani air space for the first time, the Pakistani spokesman said in Rawalpindi.

An Indian spokesman said seven Indian planes were shot down during the first three days of the border war.

Pakistani Vice Marshal Nur Khan, commander-in-chief of the air force, said the stepped-up activity was "a new turn in the air war" and claimed scrambling Pakistani planes turned back the "intruders" but refrained from chasing them into India.

Aerial dogfights were reported over Jhelum, 10 miles inside the Pakistani border, and at Gujranwala, 50 miles south of Jhelum.

GROUND ACTION

In the ground action, Pakistan said its new offensive led by tanks and F86 and F104 jets slashed five miles past the Tawi River which runs through the strategic city of Jammu.

A spokesman said reports from the battlefield indicated the Pakistani troops swung southeast from the posts of Chumb and Dewa, reported captured on Wednesday, and sprinted 15 miles to the river.

Misses Arraignment of Accused Strangler

DETROIT (AP)—A wealthy nuclear chemist from Hong Kong who for four years wished his estranged wife would "grow up and we'd start a family" missed the court arraignment of her accused strangler by scant hours.

"I've just come here to attend the funeral. That's all," slightly-built Jung K. Lee, told the Associated Press after flying to Detroit from New York yesterday.

His wife, blonde pretty Mrs. Edna Lee, 32, was a Wayne State University student studying for a doctorate in English. She was found strangled with a nylon stocking in her apartment bathroom Wednesday. She had been beaten on her face, police said.

Victor Limes Fassero, 36-year-old utility company clerk who police said had dated Mrs. Lee for some time, was charged with first degree murder. He stood mute at his arraignment in Recorder's (Criminal) Court shortly before Lee arrived.

A plea of innocent was entered and Fassero, a divorced man, was held without bond for examination Sept. 21.

"DON'T KNOW"

"I don't know any of her friends here," Lee said at his hotel when asked if he knew Fassero.

"I wanted her to live her own life the way she wanted it," he said.

He and Mrs. Lee were separated in 1961, three years after their marriage. A question of whether to have children, "among other reasons," caused the separation, he said.

Officials Hope to Clear Up Bad Water at Area School

Waterford Township school officials are hopeful they have an answer to the water impurity problem which will keep 1,140 pupils out of the new Mason Junior High until Sept. 13.

The rest of Waterford's 16,000 pupils will return to classes Thursday and Friday.

In an emergency meeting yesterday afternoon, the plumbing contractor for the $2.5 million building was given permission to tap into another section of the township's water main.

The section of the pipeline which contains impurities as proven in several water tests — including one yesterday morning — was sealed off.

The contractor assured school officials he will make every effort to have men on the job over the Labor Day weekend to expedite the operation. The township also will furnish a man.

A sample of the water then will be taken to the Oakland County Health Department for testing. A 72-hour waiting period is required.

ANOTHER TEST

The water again must be tested when it is turned on inside the building at 3835 W. Walton according to school officials. Several tests had indicated impurities in recent weeks. However, a test performed Thursday failed to show any.

Commissioner John A. Dugan said "I'm sorry they turned it down. I thought we'd gone just as far as we could. We can't go any further on the wages."

"TOP PACKAGE"

Commissioner T. Warren Fowler said "I feel these fellows are getting the top package, because that's all we could afford."

Commissioner Leslie E. Hudson remarked "I feel we've been extremely generous and I'm surprised anyone would be unhappy with what we've given them."

Commissioners James H. Marshall and Robert C. Irwin offered no comments. Mayor William H. Taylor could not be reached.

ORDERED SURVEY

Commissioner Wesley J. Wood said "We got what we asked for." He indicated the commission had ordered the survey from the League and could not see how the commission would change anything.

Meanwhile, spokesmen for the police and firemen indicated that it was not the pay package that bothered them. Rather, the issue was that they (the two associations) had not been consulted.

Press Will Publish Early Edition Monday

The Press will publish a single, early edition Monday so that its employees may spend as much as possible of the Labor Day holiday with their families.

Normal editions will be resumed Tuesday.

Betsy Heading for Carolina Coasts

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Hurricane Betsy raged on toward the coasts of the Carolinas today and chased small craft into port over a 500-mile Eastern seaboard stretch from Cape Kennedy to Cape Hatteras.

In a bulletin at 8 a.m., the Miami Weather Bureau said it was preparing to post a hurricane watch along portions of the North and South Carolina coasts. A "watch" is an alert preliminary to actual hurricane warnings.

A hurricane hunter pilot who rode a bucking plane through the storm during the night reported that Betsy's highest winds of 125 miles an hour were whipping around a well-defined eye 35 miles in diameter.

The Bahamas islands escaped damage as the hurricane whirled up the Atlantic Ocean east of the chain. Winds peaked at 35 miles an hour on Abaco, one of the larger islands.

At 8 a.m., Betsy was centered near Latitude 25.2 north, Longitude 75.3 west. This is about 325 miles east of Melbourne, Fla., and 500 miles south of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

CHURNED UP

The storm churned up 120,000 square miles of the Atlantic. Tides were expected to rise during the day from Cape Kennedy northward as Betsy moved toward the northwest at eight miles an hour.

Forecasters warned that the tightly organized storm, with peak winds of 125 miles an hour, posed a threat to the coastline south of Cape Hatteras, N.C.

"It's going to get rough up there over the weekend," said forecaster Raymond Kent.

"We still won't know till Sunday whether it will go ashore," he said, "but we don't want a lot of people out in small boats or swimming around in the ocean even if it doesn't."

1966 Auto Models Are Expected to Feature More Safety Items

By CHARLES C. GAIN
AP Business News Writer
DETROIT — It's a pretty safe bet you will be hearing a lot about automobile safety in the next year or so.

Recent congressional hearings focused a lot of attention on the subject and the four major U.S. auto firms, always sensitive to public opinion, want to show their concern over the motorists' well-being.

With 1966 model introduction time just around the corner, indications are that much of the advertising messages of the various companies will be based on proving to the would-be customer that the car is as safe as possible.

It was not just coincidence that in mid-July the presidents of General Motors, Ford and American Motors made it to Washington to tell Congress of the auto makers' desire to make cars as safe as possible. Chrysler was represented by an executive vice president.

SOLID FRONT

That solid front was presented to show Congress, and in particular Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., that the auto makers really cared about the well-being of motorists. Ribicoff is the leading exponent of the need for a national highway traffic center in the Department of Commerce.

Auto makers would much prefer to be allowed to move towards solution of auto safety problems without government officials checking their every move.

That is why the industry reacted so quickly to a suggestion by the General Service Administration that 17 safety features be mandatory items on all 1967 cars purchased by the government.

In less time than it took to say Ford, General Motors and Chrysler, the auto makers decided that 13 of the 17 were of such importance that they would be made standard equipment on every 1966 car built.

13 ITEMS

The 13 ranged from side view mirrors to dual speed windshield wipers and washers, from standard bumper heights to safety tires and rims.

Three other items are shoulder harness anchorages, dual brake systems and exhaust control devices.

Chrysler will offer optional shoulder harnesses for 1966 Rambler and Cadillac have had dual brakes for some time.

Cars built for sale in California beginning with 1966 models must have exhaust control devices designed to cut down the flood of noxious fumes from auto engines. The auto companies complied with the California law requiring such devices, but still insist that the need for them in other parts of the country has not been proved.

SAFETY WINDSHIELD

In addition to the GSA inspired safety items, the industry will unveil a few more of its own when the 1966 models are shown to the public in the fall. One item, for example, is a new type of safety windshield with a double thickness of plastic laminant to prevent shattering.

Some fingers probably will be pointed at the auto makers when the 1966's in some cases show up with more powerful engines than before. Some may ask how the industry reconciles the newer, bigger engines with its current safety kick.

"One company official, who declined use of his name, answered that at the recent Chrysler press preview in Boston when he said, "If the engines have more power, it is because drivers occasionally need it on super highways in today's rapid driving when a split-second can mean the difference between an accident and getting out of a tight spot."

D.C. Self-Rule Wins Victory

Still Has High Hurdles Before Becoming Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — In spite of the petition victory in the House by backers of self-government for the District of Columbia, the measure still has some high hurdles to get over before it becomes law.

Hurdle 1: A home rule bill hastily produced by the House District Committee, long the graveyard for such bills, will come up first in the House on Sept. 13. It would give back 65 per cent of the District of Columbia to the state of Maryland. Opponents call it "a farce concocted at the 11th hour solely to block home rule."

Hurdle 2: If home rule backers can dispose of this and pass their own measure when it comes up on Sept. 27, it must — under rules of the discharge petition — go back to the Senate for approval. Southern senators could stage a filibuster.

Hurdle 3: Unless the Senate accepts the exact wording of the House-passed bill, it must go to a Senate-House conference to have the differences adjusted. In charge of the House conferees will be an enemy of home rule, Rep. John L. McMillan, D-S.C., chairman of the House District Committee. He could be expected to drag his feet.

Why are so many Congress members — Southerners particularly — generally opposed to self-government for the District, which has not elected its own officials since 1874?

The reason generally credited on Capitol Hill is that a majority of Washington's residents are Negroes and some members fear Negroes would dominate any elected city government.

Ford Pacifists Cause Foes to Misjudge U.S.

MACKINAC ISLAND (AP)—Rep. Gerald Ford, R-Mich., said Friday that "pacifist beatniks at home" who oppose the war in Viet Nam are causing America's enemies to misjudge her strength and determination.

The House Republican minority leader told some 1,000 youths assembled for a Moral Re-Armament conference on the island that "lack of purpose" is the one big weakness in American foreign policy.

He said antiwar protests in the United States are more worry to soldiers in Vietnamese foxholes than Viet Cong attacks.

China Warns Britain on Hong Kong

TOKYO (AP)—Communist China warned the British government today to halt the movement through Hong Kong of American military planes and ships bound for Viet Nam.

An article in the official Peking "People's Daily" told the British: "You must immediately stop all the activities of the U.S. aggressor forces in Hong Kong and stop turning Hong Kong into a base of operation for the U.S. aggressor forces." The article continued: "We have every reason to blame the British government and ask: What is your intention? Are you preparing to collaborate with the United States and take the chance of staging provocations against China? Are you preparing to take a direct part in the U.S. military adventures in Southeast Asia?"

Doolittle Assigned

SAULT STE. MARIE (U)—Lt. Col. John P. Doolittle, son of Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle who led the World War II bombing raids on Tokyo, has arrived at Kincheloe Air Force Base for assignment with a bombardment unit.

Eight U.S. servicemen were killed. The article scoffed at claims that the troops were in Hong Kong for recreational purposes and said "this again shows that Hong Kong is being used by U.S. troops as a base of operation in the aggression against Viet Nam." The article said that linking Hong Kong to the Viet Nam war menaces the peaceful life and property of the residents of Hong Kong.

"It is entirely proper for the people and public opinion of Hong Kong to demand that the British authorities immediately stop this criminal activity," the article said.

Report on School Bids Postponed a Week

An architect's report on submitted bids for three major Waterford Township school construction projects has been pushed one week by the township school board, to give him more time to formulate an opinion on the bids.

A special board meeting has been called for next Thursday night to close bids on the proposed elementary school structures on Bird and VanZandt streets and the Riverside Elementary School addition.

The apparent low bids for the three buildings submitted last week totaled $903,585.

The architect also is considering a total of $51,000 in alternate costs.

Original estimate for the three projects was $830,000.

FUNDS AVAILABLE

Dr. Don O. Tatroe, superintendent of schools, indicated that sufficient funds are available to complete the three projects as bid and for the purchase of sites currently under consideration.

The board nevertheless approved names for the two proposed elementary schools.

The Bird Street school was officially designated Cherokee Hills Elementary School, while the VanZandt Street building was named Frank J. Manley Elementary School.

Manley is the father of Flint's nationally renowned community school program in which schools are open nights, weekends and summers for recreation purposes.

GRANTED RAISE

In other business, electrician-plumbers, carpenters, painters and mechanics have been given a $20 per month pay raise and 13 new teachers have been hired, leaving only three vacancies to fill in the system.

Also, a $10,000 grant for the dropout student development program has been renewed by the state, according to Tatroe.

This program provides assistance to unemployed school dropouts.

Among purchases approved by the board this week was $14,016 in instructional equipment for the Data Processing Center.

Also, it was decided to reschedule the board's regular September meeting from the 16th to the 23rd.

Leaps 90 Feet

From Bridge to Satisfy Ambition

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A youth jumped 90 feet from a bridge and swam from the murky waters of the Cumberland River Friday to win a $3 bet and satisfy a 10-year ambition.

Tommy Hollis, 16, of Nashville said he made the spectacular jump because he wanted to see what it felt like to dive high, and his school mates had bet he wouldn't do it.

"I said I would do it when I was 6 years old," Hollis said. The youth's jump prompted another one, by his mother.

"She jumped all over me when she heard that I had jumped from the bridge, and I had to promise her I wouldn't do it again this summer," he said.

REBEL CHIEF BOWS OUT — Rebel President Col. Provisional Leader Heads Strife-Torn Santo Domingo

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — Hector Garcia Godoy was installed as provisional president of the revolt-torn Dominican Republic late yesterday while gunfire echoed through the streets outside.

In the predawn darkness, less than 18 hours before Garcia's inauguration, a U.S. soldier was killed by a hand grenade thrown into an American command post.

He was the 28th U.S. serviceman killed since American troops moved in four months ago to prevent a Cuba-style Communist take-over here.

The leftist rebels who held a square mile of downtown Santo Domingo throughout the revolt played a prominent part in Garcia's installation.

The provisional president was introduced to the radio-television audience which heard his inaugural speech by rebel press agent Ivan Garcia, and Franklyn Caamano Deno, helped to organize the news conference which followed.

A band in the street outside the shell-pocked Dominican "white house" played the rebels' "Revolutionary Anthem" so loudly that the first part of Garcia's inaugural speech could not be heard in the hall where he was installed.

Garcia took no notice of the gunfire which crackled outside the presidential residence while he was speaking.

The gunfire came from the rebel-held area, but so far as could be learned no one was hit.

A spokesman at rebel headquarters said drunken militiamen were firing into the air to celebrate. He said three or four of the offenders had been arrested.

FORMS CABINET

Although Garcia had said earlier that he had formed a cabinet, he said last night the lineup of his government is not complete.

The provisional president said he believes the Dominican armed forces should be "gradually reorganized," but he refused to say what will happen to leading military figures on both sides of the revolt.

There were no diplomats present at the installation because no country has recognized any of the Dominican regimes installed since the outbreak of the revolt in April.

A number of U.S. and Latin American officers of the inter-American peace force which has been policing Santo Domingo were present in civilian clothes, and the U.N. and the Organization of American States also were represented.

The outer walls of the Dominican executive mansion bore the scars of battle — it was shelled by the navy, strafed by the air force and shot up by the rebels during the revolt — but the interior showed few signs of damage.

The U.S. soldier killed yesterday was identified only as a member of Company B of the 307th Engineer Battalion. His name was withheld until his family has been notified.
