3 Missing Men Are Found Safe in Fierce U.P. Blizzard

MARQUETTE (AP) — Search parties today found three men alive and well after the trio took shelter in a hunting camp from a fierce blizzard that raged through upper Michigan.

The men were missing since yesterday afternoon after taking two snowmobiles out for a ride. They are Roy Anderson, 40; William Anderson, 31, and Lee Westphal, 29, of Marquette.

State Police said the three were trudging through snow from the hunting camp when a member of a search party spotted them about six miles southwest of Marquette near K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

The men said their snowmobile broke down after the blizzard sprung up yesterday, with winds gusting to 50 miles an hour.

They walked to the hunting camp and started a fire, protecting themselves from temperatures of 11 below zero through the night.

The blizzard closed scores of roads and highways throughout upper Michigan, with winds gusting to 55 miles an hour in some places.

Highway crews at Newberry retreated with their equipment in the face of the storm, one of the worst this season.

The Houghton County Road Commission abandoned efforts to keep secondary roads open to traffic in the Keweenaw Peninsula jutting into Lake Superior.

State Police said most roads were choked with snow from Menominee in extreme western Upper Michigan to Sault Ste. Marie in the eastern section.

At the same time, a cold wave gripped all of Lower Michigan.

* * *

The Weather Bureau issued travelers warnings in all of western Lower Michigan. High winds and snow showers were combining to clog major highways and secondary roads.

12 Are Killed in Missouri as Man Sets Bar on Fire

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP) — Witnesses say a man entered a crowded tavern yesterday, sloshed gasoline around, threw a lighted match and ran out. Twelve persons were killed in a frantic attempt to escape the blast of flame.

* * *

Clifford Ralzone, Randolph County prosecutor, said a murder charge would be lodged against William Edward Coleman, 36, ex-convict who police said gave himself up at headquarters after the fire.

Police said the 12 victims piled up at the back door, which they couldn't open. Four persons — two men, a woman and her baby — got out the front door.

"I simply don't understand it," moaned the bewildered proprietor, Ray Curtis, who opened the small tavern just a week ago. "I thought Coleman was my friend."

In fact, Curtis said, Coleman helped clean up the place for the opening.

EX-CONVICTS LISTED

On the back bar was a list of 10 names of persons who could not be served in the tavern as patrons under Missouri law, Curtis said.

All 10 are ex-convicts, and the law does not permit them to loiter in places serving liquor or beer.

Coleman's name was on the list, Curtis said, but Coleman knew it and understood why he couldn't be a patron.

* * *

'MAN CARRYING BUCKET'

Mrs. Vivian McSparren, who was sitting near the front of the bar, told fire Chief LeRoy Willis that a man walked in carrying a five-gallon bucket of liquid.

"He walked to the middle of the tavern and started sloshing it around," Mrs. McSparren said. "He made a swinging arc, throwing the liquid all over the tavern. Then he threw a match into it and ran out."

Virgil Hill, 46, said he was on a stool next to Mrs. McSparren and his friend, Charles Buckler, 70, He said the blast caused the front door to stick.

* * *

Firemen said the back door opened inward and the victims apparently jammed up against it before it could be pulled open.

CRIMINAL RECORD

The fire chief said it took only five minutes to get the blaze under control and it was out in 45 minutes.

Prosecutor Falzone said Coleman had a long criminal record starting when he was 14 years old.

He served terms in the state training school for boys, the state reformatory and the state prison for delinquency, car theft, felonious assault, burglary and forgery.

* * *

The police chief said Coleman had been working steadily as a laborer the last two years.

Detective Named Policeman of Year

A detective credited with uncovering an interstate stolen car ring was named Pontiac's Police Officer of the year yesterday.

* * *

Honored at an Exchange Club luncheon at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake, was William G. Davis. His award was presented by Mayor William H. Taylor Jr.

City Police Chief William K. Hanger cited as the deciding factor in Davis' nomination the detective's investigative work last spring in the case of a former Pontiac used car dealer who police say headed a theft ring involving up to $50,000 worth of cars.

The dealer, Oscar M. Stabley, 50, of 34 Collingwood, was arrested May 4 and recently convicted on a count of auto theft.

* * *

He is currently in Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson awaiting trial on 10 federal indictments stemming from the alleged operation.

Davis, 45, joined the department in 1951 and was promoted to detective in 1961. He has been awarded three meritorious service citations for investigative work in auto theft cases.

Davis, his wife and five children live in Waterford Township.

Galbraith Calls for Bomb Halt

Economist John Kenneth Galbraith, a severe critic of the Vietnam war, said yesterday the U. S. never will find out how serious Hanoi is about negotiating a truce until there is a halt in the bombing.

Galbraith, chairman of Americans for Democratic Action and a professor at Harvard University, outlined his views on the war, among other things, during a news conference and speaking engagement on foreign policy at Oakland University.

University officials credited Galbraith's liberal views and his appearance on the cover of Time magazine this week for the turnout of an estimated 2,500 students who jammed the Sports and Recreation Building to hear him speak.

He blamed State Department officials' inability to revise their thinking, particularly in Southeast Asia, for this country's situation in Vietnam.

* * *

Some progress is being made in Europe, and more can be expected, but the "frozen policy" affecting the U. S. in Vietnam still is based on a preoccupation with an outdated belief that communism is a monolithic conspiracy, according to Gailbraith, a former ambassador to India.

'OBSESSION WITH CONSPIRACY'

While this hasn't held true, said Galbraith, noting internal squabbles among communist nations, and particularly the "traumatic split" between Red China and Russia, there are still those that are "obsessed with the Communist conspiracy."

It has only been recently that old policies have been questioned, but even then there have been no substantial inroads into the Vietnam conflict, he added.

Educators Rap Draft Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — Educators at several large universities say abolition of draft deferments for most graduate students could threaten research, reduce the supply of future teachers and cripple graduate school enrollments.

* * *

Some administrators denounced the new policy as shortsighted, and several said other systems of drafting from the affected group could have cushioned the impact.

They spoke out yesterday after the Johnson administration abolished graduate draft deferments except for medical and dental students, students in related fields and those who will have completed two or more years of their studies by June.

At the same time the National Security Council suspended indefinitely the official list of essential activities and critical occupations that Selective Service draft boards have used as a guideline in making occupational deferments.

Administration officials estimated 150,000 or more men would be drafted as the result of changes in graduate deferments.

Burns Take Keego Boy's Life

The struggle to save the life of a badly burned 3-year-old boy from Keego Harbor proved to be in vain yesterday. The child died at the University of Michigan Burn Center at 5 p.m.

Dead is Michael Sievers, son of Mrs. Judith Sievers of 2846 Beland. The child suffered burns over 60 per cent of his body in a blaze that erupted at his home Thursday morning.

MICHAEL

At the scene of the fire, a desperate attempt was started to save the boy's life. A West Bloomfield Township fireman, Roscoe Hunt, 38, of 2643 Depew, Sylvan Lake, is credited with entering the burning building and bringing the boy out alive.

An explosion at the scene injured two firemen, Mel Joritz and Bernard Fante. Both required hospitalization.

* * *

The injured child was rushed to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. It was decided to send him to the University of Michigan Burn Center in Ann Arbor, and a helicopter was dispatched from Superior Ambulance Service of Wyandotte. Fleet Ambulance of Pontiac made the arrangements.

PLASMA EN ROUTE

The child was given emergency treatment including plasma on the way. At the U. of M. Burn Center, the struggle to save the boy continued for over 24 hours.

* * *

The hospital reported today the boy died as a result of complications from his burns.

Her Sick Son Is Returned to War

By ED BLUNDEN

A Holly mother was shocked and horrified yesterday after she learned her son, a veteran of a solid year of fighting in Vietnam, is being sent back to war.

Mrs. Kenneth Phelps of 1124 Lambert said her son, Mike, 21, has never recovered from the debilitating diseases he contracted during his arduous combat experiences which ended last May.

"They are going to kill him this time," said Mrs. Phelps.

Mike apparently is part of the 10,000 extra troops ordered to Vietnam recently after the series of attacks by Communist troops on the main cities. He is a member of Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 508th Infantry, 82nd Airborne, which had been based at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

A spokesman for the Department of the Army in Washington refused to verify the outfit had been sent. He said "We don't discuss troop deployments until after they have arrived."

Mrs. Phelps said she learned of the shipment by chance and that the troops were being sent without being able to tell their relatives. She said many of the men in Mike's outfit were also veterans of the conflict.

She is angry at the secrecy involved. "I'm sure a lot of mothers are unaware their boys are going back into the fighting," she said.

Mrs. Phelps was able to talk to her son by phone Wednesday. She had learned he was going to be shipped over when the Red Cross contacted her about an application for deferment from combat duty for her son.

(Some confusion must exist on the application, which was on the basis of a service ruling regarding combatless duty for "an only surviving son" — where others had been killed in combat. Mike is an only child, but not a sole surviving son of a family).

LBJ Backs Viet CO, Sees No Early Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson wants it loud and clear: Gen. William C. Westmoreland will stay on in Vietnam and peace negotiations with Hanoi are no nearer than they were three years ago.

Johnson told reporters Friday there is a campaign on "to get over the word that we have doubts in Gen. Westmoreland."

* * *

But he said he never had known a military man in whom he had more confidence than in the U.S. commander in Vietnam.

"I want to emphasize," the President said, "that I don't want to leave the impression with any soldier in that command, with any parent of any man out there, that there is any justification whatever for all this rumor, gossip, talk about Gen. Westmoreland's competence or about his standing with this President."

NO ILLUSIONS

As for any progress toward peace talks, Johnson said he would like to be able to say "yes" to a question whether he sees any new, hopeful prospects for negotiating with Hanoi. But he said he didn't want to leave the American people under any illusions.

"I don't think Hanoi is any more ready to negotiate today than it was a year ago, two years ago, or three years ago," he said.

* * *

This view, he said, was based on a review of more than 20 overtures and took into consideration discussions Secretary General U Thant of the United Nations has just concluded with chiefs of state in Russia, India, England and France.

The news conference provided the first opportunity for the press to ask Johnson directly about the growing speculation over possible use of tactical nuclear weapons in Vietnam.

HIS DECISION

The decision to use such weapons, he said, would be his alone and "one of the most awesome and grave decisions any President could be called on to make."

But he said there has never, in the seven years that he has been in the executive branch, been a recommendation from the Joint Chiefs of Staff or the secretary of defense that nuclear weapons be used.

* * *

"No recommendation has been made to me," he said. "Beyond that I think we ought to put an end to that discussion."

Other facets of the news conference:

Appointments—Ailing Alexander B. Trowbridge has resigned as secretary of commerce and C. R. Smith, chairman of the board of American Airlines, has been tapped to replace him as of March 1.

Charles Murphy, onetime political lieutenant and counsel to President Harry Truman, is leaving the Civil Aeronautics Board as chairman and will become a part-time counsel to Johnson. The President says he has no political assignments whatever in mind for Murphy.

Johnson picked fellow Texan John H. Crooker Jr., who represents a Houston law firm in Washington, to be a new CAB chairman.

Troops—Johnson said thought is given "every day" to increasing the level of U.S. forces in Vietnam because the need for them changes constantly.

He referred to the present authorized strength of 525,000 as a tentative goal which will be constantly reviewed when it is reached.

"We will do whatever we think needs to be done to insure that our men have adequate forces to carry out their mission," he said.

Pen Syringe May Let Hemophiliacs Treat Themselves in Crisis

WASHINGTON (AP) — Development of an emergency self-treatment technique for hemophilia victims—utilizing a fountain pen-sized syringe containing a potent blood-clotting substance—is forecast by the American Red Cross.

Sufferers from the "bleeders' disease" could carry a needle-tipped vial with them at all time—ready for use by themselves, or possibly by rescue personnel or even some passerby, in the event of an accident leading to severe bleeding.

The prospect stems, Red Cross scientists said Friday, from recent breakthrough advances in the purification of a blood-plasma fraction known as the "Antiemophilic Factor" (AHF).

* * *

AHF is congenitally deficient in victims of hemophilia—an hereditary malady that occurs almost exclusively in males but is transmitted through females.

'DISEASE OF KINGS'

It has been classically known as "the disease of kings" because a number of European monarchs were sufferers in centuries past.

* * *

Researchers told about this and other new developments in blood-fractionation research as they prepared to dedicate a new national research laboratory in nearby Bethesda, Md.

* * *

AHF is one of many blood-fractions derivable from blood donated by the public to the Red Cross, the scientists said.

"An intermediate purity preparation will soon be licensed," they said, "and a high-purity AHF is now being used experimentally in the treatment of severe bleeding conditions in patients with hemophilia who would otherwise require large quantities of fresh blood and plasma."

BETTER THAN BEFORE

They said both preparations are far superior in yield, purity and stability to any AHF preparation previously produced by their own or other blood-processing laboratories, and they added:

* * *

"In fact, it seems technically possible that a hemophiliac will be able to carry with him a vial the size of a fountain pen containing a full therapeutic dose of the high-potency AHF. If cost can be sufficiently reduced, treatment would be similar to the use of insulin by diabetics."

She was killed at 10:55 near 6 Mile and James Couzens in a two-car accident. She was riding as a passenger in a car driven by her husband, 67, Detroit police said.

Galbraith Calls for Bomb Halt

"Time is running out in finding a solution," Galbraith said.

* * *

"We may wake up some morning and find ourselves holding on to a vacuum."

DEFECTION POSSIBLE

He predicted this would come about with defection of important units of the South Vietnamese Army, linked with the "further collapse" of the South Vietnamese government.

"It's been an open secret for a long while that important units of the South Vietnamese forces up in the 1st Corps area or 25th Division south of Saigon have a close working relationship with the Vietcong and will either disappear into the woods or join the Vietcong," said Galbraith.

Recent Vietcong offensives have forced the U.S. to abandon pacification work in small towns, he said.

* * *

"The government has no control of the countryside now, and has shown that it cannot control the cities," said Galbraith, whose ambassadorship in India was during the Kennedy administration.

Eventually, he said, the U.S. may end up with the choice of a colonial government or a pullout.

"Thre's only one bargain we can possibly negotiate there—that we can provide protection for the people who have joined up with us; the South Vietnamese and the North Vietnamese who came down during partition."

Mrs. Kenneth Phelps of Holly: A Worried Mother

Her Son, 'Used Up,' Is Sent Back to War

"He told me not to worry and that he would be all right, but it's not true," Mrs. Phelps said.

She pointed out he has been hospitalized twice since his return from Asia with malaria. His eyes were badly damaged in "some sort of explosion" on the base about a month ago, his mother said. In a letter she received 10 days ago, Mike told her he can only see clearly for 10 feet.

"The guy's all used up," his mother said. Mike also has never recovered from the persistent disease called jungle rot and still had bleeding sores when he last came home on furlough on Christmas, his mother said.

* * *

"What more can his country ask him to do for it?" she asked.

AN EARLIER STORY

Her son was the subject of a story that appeared in The Pontiac Press on May 24 last year. In the story, he related his rugged experiences in jungle warfare. He counted himself lucky to be alive and said very few men lived through a solid year of combat without being killed or seriously maimed.

At that time the air assault trooper, a slender young man, 5 feet 10, was badly underweight. His body was covered with minor wounds, scratches and sores. He shrugged these off, saying they were mostly from sharp elephant grass.

Since then, in December, he was awarded the Bronze Star for meritorious duty in Vietnam, which included over 100 attacks in which he was brought to the combat scene by helicopter. He went on three assaults his last day, he reported.

* * *

He also has the Air Assault Medal and Purple Heart.

DANGER OF FATIGUE

Mike said fatigue was the most dangerous enemy and said at times he was so tired he didn't care if he lived.

This is what Mrs. Phelps fears. "He told me once that if he had to go back, he couldn't make it," she said.

Another matter Mrs. Phelps objects to is that her son has just seven months to serve on his three-year enlistment.

* * *

Both the Department of the Army and the Department of Defense were contacted by The Press yesterday in regard to service policy on combat duty. Spokesmen, both colonels in public information departments, said there never has been a rule stating that a soldier had only to serve in combat for a year or any other length of time.

NO SET PRACTICE

They also said there is no rule as to when a soldier can be shipped overseas, but that in general it is not a practice to send a man with only a few months left because of the expense of shipping him back again.

The Army colonel said, "It is as the needs of the service dictate."

Mrs. Phelps said she is writing her representatives in Congress and the President in hopes of saving her boy's life. "It's unfair," she said. Mrs. Phelps doubts the letters will do her son any good. "Maybe we can save someone's son who has already done his part," she said.

"Our country must be in worse shape than we realize if we have to send sick boys like my own over to Vietnam," she said.

U.S. Planes Blast Reds at Khe Sanh

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. planes aimed one of the heaviest bombardments of the war—nearly 1.5 million pounds of explosives—at Communist troops threatening the northwest frontier outpost of Khe Sanh, the U.S. Command reported today.

Along the eastern portion of South Vietnam's northern frontier, two ground clashes were reported and three enemy tanks were sighted.

* * *

These developments boosted speculation that the expected giant Red assault on Khe Sanh might be accompanied by simultaneous attacks on other allied outposts all along the frontier. Such a coordinated push likely would hamper quick reinforcement of the 5,000 U.S. Marines at Khe Sanh.

About 50 miles below the frontier, Communist troops clinging to part of Hue's Citadel for the 18th day tried today to drive back attacking U.S. Marines with a new barrage of grenades and small arms fire and hit an American tank with a rocket.

'STRENGTH CUT'

The heavy enemy return fire came after Marine officers said they believed enemy strength in the old walled Citadel had been cut down to about 500 men and that they hoped to drive them out within 48 hours.

Police Probe Theft at Office

Police are investigating the theft of an estimated $1,350 worth of office machinery taken from Body Crafters Federal Credit Union, 846 Baldwin.

An office worker reported the theft yesterday morning. Police said a side window had been broken and a grille over the window forced open.

Taken were a check signer, a check protector, a typewriter and a photocopying machine.

Also being investigated is the theft of a $50 adding machine and $5 in change from Grappin's Delivery Service, Inc., 1416 N. Perry.

* * *

The office was broken into Thursday night or Friday morning, officer said. Change was taken from a soft drink machine.

News in Brief

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army will have more than 15,000 men ready for quick use in controlling city riots this summer. The troops are divided into "seven task forces, each of brigade size, specifically earmarked and available for civil disturbance duty," Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff, told the Senate Armed Services Committee.

The Right to Die?

DETROIT (AP) — Michigan Supreme Court Justice Theodore Souris said yesterday that consideration should be given to letting the aged decide when they want to die. Souris spoke at a symposium at Wayne State University. "We hear much of today of the right of married couples to decide when and if they want to bring a life into the world," Souris said. "Perhaps we should ask whether the aged should be accorded an analogous right to decide they want to leave this world."

Bridge Lanes to Close

LANSING (UPI) — The southbound lanes of the Zilwaukee Bridge on I-75 near Saginaw will be closed 11 days, beginning Monday, while major repairs are being made. The bridge was damaged four months ago when it was rammed by a freighter. The State Highway Commission said one lane of traffic will be maintained in each direction of the two northbound lanes.

21 Die in Jet Crash

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — At least 41 persons scrambled to safety by jumping from a Boeing 727 jet that burst into flames after a crash landing yesterday. Twenty-one of the 63 persons aboard were reported killed. The fate of one person aboard was not known. Nine Americans were on the passenger list for the flight inbound from Hong Kong, and five were known to have survived.

Dirksen to Run Again

CHICAGO (UPI) — Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen, R-Ill., today announced he would run for reelection to a fourth term because "to retreat from an unfinished war or from the unsolved challenges and baffling problems would be alien to every conviction which I cherish."

Reagan Chances Eyed

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI) —Reports circulated today that a key figure in Barry M. Goldwater's 1964 presidential campaign had been hired to sound out the presidential prospects of Gov. Ronald Reagan of California. The reports, confirmed by informed political sources, were that F. Clinton White, who headed the Citizens for Goldwater in 1963-64, was hired by a key Reagan backer, industrialist Henry Salvatore of Los Angeles.

March, Boycott Planned

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Striking sanitation workers, backed by other unions and civil rights groups, plan a protest march and an economic boycott to back up their demands for a wage increase. Meanwhile, city officials continued efforts to hire replacements, and piles of garbage mounted on Memphis streets at the rate of 2,700 tons a day.

6,300 Strike GM Plant

DETROIT (AP) — About 6,300 United Auto Workers walked out at General Motors Corp.'s Chevrolet plant in Parma, Ohio, last night, but extended another strike deadline in local contract bargaining until late today at a Chevrolet factory in Detroit.

Youth Injured in Hit-and-Run

A Farmington Township youth was in serious condition at Botsford Hospital this morning after being injured in a hit-run accident of I-96 in Wixom yesterday.

Wixom police said Felix G. Dorz, 17, 28474 Alycekay was struck by a car at 3 p.m. as he was standing on the side of the expressway hitchhiking.

Police said a car going up the exit ramp to Wixom struck the youth, then left the scene. A suspect whose car was parked at the Lincoln plant was being questioned today, police said.

Trowbridge Quits as Head of Commerce

WASHINGTON (AP) — The surprise resignation of Alexander B. Trowbridge as secretary of commerce after eight months in the job raises to three the number of Cabinet posts facing a reshuffle over the next several weeks.

* * *

President Johnson announced at a late afternoon news conference Friday the resignation of Trowbridge, 38, the youngest man ever to serve as secretary of commerce. To replace him he named C. R. Smith, 68, board chairman of American Airlines.

* * *

Smith has been in commercial aviation since he took over at age 29 a little line that hopscotched around East Texas to deliver the mail. He is known as a first-class administrator, a lover of high-stakes poker games and a man who speaks his mind.

And he is a Texan, born there and educated there like his new boss, the President.

LEAVES MARCH 1

Trowbridge, who was sworn in as secretary only last June 14 and resigned because of a heart condition, plans to leave the department on March 1, the same day Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara is scheduled to turn over command of the Pentagon to Clark Clifford.

* * *

John Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, also has resigned but no successor has been named. He is expected to remain in his post for several more weeks.

* * *

Asked if he were concerned by the number of top level departures, Johnson replied: "We always hate to see anyone depart, particularly men like Mr. Trowbridge."

Candidate Out in District 5

The list of candidates for a City Commission post from District 5 dropped to three today with the announcement that Raul Sanchez of 725 Emerson had withdrawn from the race.

Sanchez said he was withdrawing in order to support another candidate in District 5, Robert F. Jackson, a real estate appraiser.

Sanchez said he recognizes Jackson's "talent and experiences in civic affairs" and believes he can provide "fresh representative leadership."

Candidates now in the race are Jackson; Arnold R. Jones of 762 Linda Vista, a public relations specialist; and Rollie L. Jones of 49 Victory, a teacher at Jefferson Junior High School.

* * *

Two of the three candidates will be chosen by District 5 voters in the March 4 primary to face each other in the city's general election in April.

Commissioner John A. Dugan, a six-term city commissioner, is not running for reelection.

Romney Has Difficult Day

N.H. Voters Take Aim at GOP Candidate

PETERBOROUGH N.H. (AP) — Gov. George Romney, who says he is aiming his New Hampshire presidential primary campaign at the people, has found some of the people aiming back.

That's the way it was during what, for Romney, was something of a troublesome Friday.

Today, the Michigan governor scheduled a round of small-town campaigning, hunting GOP voters in southwestern New Hampshire.

He went to them at a basketball game in Peterborough last night, but nobody paid much attention except at halftime when children lined up for autographs. The crowd was too busy watching Conant High School whip Peterborough, 52-44.

* * *

It was a day of incidents in the Romney campaign.

CONFRONTATAION

There was a confrontation in a Concord sporting goods shop with a holster-buying man who complained about the governor's failure to endorse Republican nominee Barry Goldwater for the presidency four years ago.

That debate went on for 15 minutes, Romney refusing to quit, the voter unshaken.

Romney also encountered a telephone challenge from a woman who said he has not been a good governor, a shoe worker who charged him with illegal parking and called him a crook, and a man on the street who accused him of drinking.

* * *

Romney denied all counts.

"I never had a drink in my life," he said in amazement after hearing the latter charge.

SOCKS COMPLAINT

And then there was the man in the Manchester factory who complained that his Marine son in Vietnam is not getting enough socks and wanted to know what the governor thought should be done about it.

"First I ever heard of this," Romney said.

"What do you think a Marine does with a pair of socks after he's worn them for a week?" Ray Zarotny asked Romey.

* * *

"You bury them. Then you have to write home to your parents for another pair."

"If you're saying to me that we're not running the war intelligently, I agree with you," Romney said, "on things that are a hell of a lot more important than socks."

35,000 Florida Teachers May Resign

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Florida Education Association officials say they will submit the resignations of 35,000 teachers in an attempt to close the state's 1,800 schools to 1.5 million pupils Monday.

The undated resignations were gathered during a year-long dispute over funds for schools.

Gov. Claude Kirk flew back to Florida from California to meet with officials of the association which represents 60,000 teachers. He had been on a speaking tour.

The FEA scheduled a news conference after the meeting today.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS

Association officials announced plans for submitting the resignations after a special session of the legislature adjourned Friday.

The legislature passed a $254.5-million school-spending bill which includes $58.5 million for pay raises asked by the teachers. Also approved was a $350-million tax increase to pay for school spending and permit reduction of some property taxes.

However, teachers say that only $116 million will go for schools, an amount they feel is insufficient for items other than salaries. They also complain that huge tax increases have been made in the name of education without the benefits going to education.

"This is a sad day for Florida," said State School Supt. Floyd Christian. "We had anticipated this. We tried to do everything to avoid it, to talk them out of it."

CHANGE PREDICTED

Christian predicted many of the 35,000 teachers who had given undated resignations to the FEA would change their minds and stay on the job.

In most counties, teachers were told to attend mass meetings Monday morning instead of going to class. Miami's Dade County Classroom Teachers Association, the state's largest, called the county's 9,000 teachers to a rally Monday morning.

★ ★ ★

An attempt by the Dade County School Board to get a federal court injunction against the walkout failed Friday when a three-judge panel ruled it did not yet have jurisdiction in the case.

Teacher organizations in Broward County (Fort Lauderdale) and Bay County (Panama City) were under court order not to call teachers off the job. Both counties had short strikes earlier in the school year.

STUDY HITS SUPPORT

After several years of studies into the condition of Florida's schools, the Florida Education Association and its parent group, the National Education Association, early last year said Florida was not giving sufficient financial support to education.

Sanctions, which included nationwide efforts to discourage teachers, tourists or industry from coming to Florida, followed. Then came the resignation threat.

★ ★ ★

The association said its members would quit last fall but delayed the deadline when Kirk named a committee to propose changes in the schools. The governor then called the special session of the legislature which ended Friday to carry out the committee's recommendations.

Kirk may veto the bill or allow it to die without his signature because it did not carry the provision for a statewide vote on the new taxes, a provision he has said would be mandatory.

★ ★ ★

The bill provides tax increases of $1.23 a gallon on liquor, $24 a barrel on liquor, six cents a pack on cigarettes and one per cent on the sales tax, to four per cent.

Public School Systems Cry for Help

One needn't be a Phi Beta Kappa to realize that Michigan's public school system is fast sinking into a quagmire of financial distress.

An educational authority estimates that two-thirds of the State's 738 school districts "are in serious financial difficulty at the moment." The State Department of Education lists 62 districts now operating in the red—a practice technically illegal—and gloomily predicts that for the first time more than 100 school districts will wind up the year with deficits.

Underscoring the grim reality of the situation are the troubles of the Inkster school district. Short $900,000 to finish out the year, school authorities were prepared to close the schools if the State did not provide emergency funds.

Some last-ditch tax anticipation funds and State aid kept the schools open, but the measures were expedients at best and offered no permanent solution.

What is the cause of Michigan's educational malaise of which Inkster is a virulent symptom? The cause is threefold:

- Soaring costs of operation, of which teachers' salaries account for the major share.
- The involved system of supporting public education that combines local tax revenue with a complicated State aid formula that works to the disadvantage of the less prosperous school districts.
- General unwillingness of property owners to vote additional millage to bridge the income-outgo gap of their school districts.

Although various bills are under consideration in the State Legislature for the alleviation of hard-pressed school districts, such relief would but shift the burden from the local to the State level. Obviously, if the State substantially increased aid to public education (total education now takes 53 per cent of the new State budget spending proposals) higher State taxes would be inevitable.

The $27-million surplus foreseen for fiscal 1969 would soon be exhausted were the State to increase its present public school commitment.

Moreover, it would unquestionably involve the State in the administration of local school districts—an involvement for which local educators have little stomach.

★ ★ ★

What are solutions to the problem?

Regrettably, competent schoolmen have no precise answers. Two remedial approaches, however, have been discussed:

- Establishment of some form of State Civil Service for teachers to equalize and stabilize their salaries, thus eliminating the costly competition among school districts for teacher personnel.
- Legalization of district school taxing authorities empowered to raise the funds necessary to keep school systems solvent.

There are, of course, drawbacks to both proposals. But if society is to continue to develop the potential of its most priceless asset—its children—the time is now for the citizenry to face not negatively, but positively the realistic facts of public education life.

Juries Tightfisted in Sports-Accident Claims

If you have a choice between being hit by a golf ball and being hit by an automobile, pick the automobile (all other things being equal, if that's possible).

A study of verdicts in personal injury suits by Jury Verdict Research, Inc., of Cleveland, Ohio, indicates that juries apparently feel that anyone indulging in a sport does so at his own risk.

★ ★ ★

They are more inclined to favor the defendant (the one who caused the injury) in such cases, since less than half the injured parties recover a money award.

Least favored are golfers and baseball players. Only about one out of five of these win their suits. Water skiers, swimmers, bowlers and horseback riders have a somewhat better chance.

But in any kind of sport accident, the research group found, awards are generally less than for a similar injury suffered in a traffic accident.

Congress Seeks Four-Year House

By EVERETT McKINLEY DIRKSEN

Ask almost any Congressman and he will tell you that he has painfully discovered how short the time is between elections. And if there is a primary election in between, the time is even shorter.

DIRKSEN

You can well understand, then, why there has been action in Congress to amend the Constitution so that a member of the House of Representatives will serve four years, instead of two.

But this is the all-important question: Will a four-year House be good for the country?

There are Congressmen, some of the many who undergo the considerable physical and financial hardships always present as a result of the limitations of a two-year term, who unselfishly ask the same question.

It is a fact that some senators and representatives have ridden into office in a presidential election year on the coattails of the winner of the Big Contest, and it could be said that the enthusiasm for the Number One candidate sometimes helps to carry the entire ticket in some congressional districts.

When the Constitution was drafted in 1787, it was decided that the 13 United States would have two branches of the national legislature. Then came the question of how long would be the terms for the members of the House.

Senators were given a six-year term with the idea that it would help to preserve a certain continuity in the legislative branch, since one-third of all the senators were to be selected every two years.

★ ★ ★

James Madison, who did so much in fashioning the Constitution, thought that short terms for members of the House would be disastrous. The Federalist party, however, favored short terms as a means of preserving a certain intimacy and sense of diligence in Congressmen.

Then, as now, the men interested in establishing a strong republic had in mind the question of taxes, a lesson they had learned in observing the continuing feuds over taxes between the King of England and the British Parliament.

The drafters of the Constitution reasoned that Congressmen, whom they had given the exclusive power to originate legislation for taxes, could possibly become too enthusiastic over the matter of levying those taxes. They thought correctly that should a two-year Congress place an undue burden of taxes on the country, then the people could rise up in wrath and soon remove those men from office.

But men who governed the affairs of 3 million Americans in 1787 could not foresee the cruel problems that would concern the nation of 200 million in 1968. The First Congress passed 108 bills out of 142 introduced for their consideration.

How many bills and resolutions do you think this Congress will consider before it adjourns? At least 30,000! Under such a legislative workload no Congressman has sufficient time to spend in visiting his district and getting elected.

★ ★ ★

We can understand why a Congressman would like to have four years of freedom from concentrated campaigning and the biennial burden of tremendous expense in running for office. Much can be said in favor of the four-year term.

Then we think back to 1946, when the people were fed up with the wartime controls that were still in force a year after the end of World War II. Housewives had to stand in line for meat. Car owners scrounged for tires. The war was over and the people saw no more reason for wartime controls.

The off-year election makes Americans, with their great capacity for election enthusiasm, think about government every two years instead of once every four years.

There is a key thought to the problem: If Congressmen were given four-year terms the growth of executive power would not be strongly challenged, except during the presidential election year.

That would not be good for the country. A good Congress depends on a balance between the two parties. To create the conditions for an imbalance resulting from election of a coattail Congress is not wise.

The POWER of FAITH

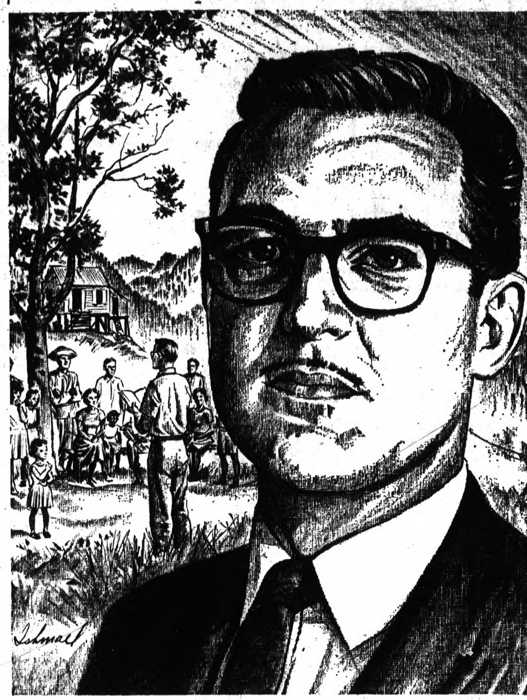
By WOODI ISHMAEL



When Howard E. Cecil was 15 years old he wanted to be a missionary. While at Marion College in Marion, Ind., he was a lay minister. After his ordination as a Wesleyan Methodist minister he still wanted to work in the mission field and applied to the mission in South America, but there were no openings. Determined to follow his course he became an "occupational missionary," working at another job to pay his own way and earn his living. For four and a half years he served in Puerto Rico, first as a pastor at an English-speaking church then working with the Spanish-speaking natives in the outlying areas of the island. He held services wherever he could, even with small groups under the trees. All the while, he supported himself and his family with other work.

Having been back in America for five years now, he has a small church in Roanoke, Va., but still works during the week as a customer services representative at the Washington, D.C. National Airport. Each weekend he flies to Roanoke for Sunday Services. His friends call him the "flying parson".

The Rev. Cecil finds his two jobs complement each other. He says, "I don't just see my fellowman from the pulpit but see him five days each week during the trials and tribulations of his work day world. It gives me greater understanding."

Confident Living:

Gateway to a Creative Life

By NORMAN V. PEALE

Someone gave me a charming little book called "Children's Letters to God," compiled by Eric Marshall and Stuart Hample. They are true letters by real children.

DR. PEALE

One reads: "Dear God: I am eight years old. My name is Sharon. I am in the third grade. I live in Seattle. One thing I would like to know. Do you like what you do? Sharon."

Another goes this way: "Dear God: Church is alright, but you could sure use better music. I hope this does not hurt your feelings. Can you write some new songs? Your friend, Barry."

Maybe the wisest letter in the book is by a boy who has the priceless knack of brevity and really knows the score. He writes: "Dear God: Count me in. Your friend, Herbie."

"Count me in." This would be a good prayer for everyone to offer to God. It means you are ready for something more than living exclusively for your own happiness. It indicates you are ready to work with others for better conditions and for the benefit of fellow human beings.

You are pledging your personal support and activity. This is what builds vitality and well-being into community and nation — people saying, "Count me in."

Moreover, the individual making such an outgoing commitment opens himself to more creative living, to becoming a happy person.

★ ★ ★

There is a human tendency to be mainly preoccupied with getting; but getting presently thins out if you do not also develop the giving habit.

Mrs Bing Crosby recalls how her mother used to tell her, "Living is giving." The truth of this was impressed upon Kathy Crosby through an unforgettable experience.

In Hollywood, fresh from the University of Texas where she had won a series of beauty contests, she was off to a promising start in the movies. The Korean War was on. She was asked to join a group of personalities entertaining wounded servicemen.

★ ★ ★

At a Seoul Evacuation Hospital she stood by the bedside of a badly injured American soldier. She was horror-struck. The boy was in shock, staring unseeingly at the ceiling. Where his left arm had been there was just a stump, with blood dripping from it into a surgical apparatus. His face was ashen white.

With great effort Kathy managed to speak. Cheerily she said, "We came all the way from California to say hello to you. What is your name?".

Slowly the soldier's eyes turned toward her. His face was partially paralyzed. Laboriously his lips formed the name "Hugh."

★ ★ ★

She had no further heart for chatter. She asked, "Hugh, do you want me to stay or go away?"

He moved his hand — the one he still had — and grasped her hand and held it tight. She stood there for 10 minutes, while they just looked at each other.

He could not say anything; neither could she. All she could do was give him the touch of her hand, the comfort of a caring presence.

The major came and told her it was time to leave. Then the beautiful girl from Texas bent down and kissed Hugh on the cheek. His eyes followed her to the door. That was the last she saw of him.

★ ★ ★

Outside the hospital she realized that she too was in a kind of shock. "As I went on through the day," she says, "and saw more of those men and watched those hospital nurses with deep circles of fatigue under their eyes. . .I was in a rage against pain and suffering. . .I came face to face that day with how important it is to be useful to others."

Across the years she heard her mother's voice saying, "Living is giving."

The head nurse of a Los Angeles hospital was startled when a big car drove up and a lovely young lady alighted to announce she wanted to go into training as a nurse. "Are you sure, Mrs. Crosby," the head nurse asked. But the look in Kathy Crosby's eyes was all the answer she needed.

After months of study and service in the hospital at all hours, she became a graduate nurse. What she had seen of the world's pain and trouble had made her want to get involved. Herbie's prayer became hers. "Dear God: Count me in."

'Let's Take Our Stand to Keep America Free'

The recent headline "Evangelists Oppose Civil Disobedience" inspired me to urge citizens to think this problem through and take a stand by mailing as many letters as you can to religious leaders, editors, judges, representatives and senators.

If you review the events of the past ten years you will see that sit-ins and march-ins have transposed freedom to free-for-all and liberty to license. We have witnessed unchecked rioting with looting, burning and shooting. How long before this Nation will rise up and declare with the Greater Pontiac Evangelical Ministers' Fellowship that "lawlessness condoned ultimately leads to anarchy."

Urge Affirmative Vote for Millage Proposal

In the interest of our children, a quality education program and the future growth of this community, citizens of Troy should act now with a positive and affirmative vote for the millage proposal on February 19. It is time voters assume the responsibility of their citizenship in our free society and provide the vote to pass the necessary millage required to eliminate a $600,000 deficit, restore the cuts, and make it possible to operate the schools adequately.

Citizen Gives Views on War and Protesters

Protesters are prolonging the war. If they had to work for a living I don't believe they'd have the time or energy to participate in marches. I hate war as much as the next person but I also hate dictatorship. I believe we have to expect one or the other, and what good is life without freedom? I hope the hippies, draft card burners, draft dodgers and misinformed clergymen are proud of themselves because I've never heard of anyone in Vietnam thanking them or praising them for their raw courage and heroism.

If the City officials had not been for that almighty dollar from metered parking in downtown a few years ago when stores were occupied and shopping was good, downtown would not be in this shape today. Now with one-way traffic on Oakland we have only a roundabout way to get downtown.

Is the voting for school money coming up soon to be put on the ballot so that if you vote no it means yes, like it did a few years ago? We voted against it and that passed it.

Discusses Program in Elementary Schools

I would be interested in hearing opinions on the sex education program being taught in the Waterford Township elementary schools. This program begins in kindergarten. Very few parents attended a meeting on this program held at my children's school.

★ ★ ★

I was surprised and shocked to see some of the films being shown to our children. This program is far too advanced for these young children. I do not want my children taught complete sex education at the age of five. Parents should have the right to accept or reject such a program, but we are told we have no choice.

'Our State Government Needs a New Start'

While Governor Romney is running around the country telling people what a good fellow he is, and railing on Nixon and LBJ, he should be on the defensive trying to show Michigan why he should not be recalled. It is time to start anew with a new governor who likes people, a new legislature that respects its constituents, and an amended constitution that puts the people back in government.

Recent Pueblo Incident Raises Questions

If a little nation like North Korea can seize one of our ships, isn't that an act of aggression on their part? If it is, why haven't we the right to make North Korea give it back by force if we can't get it back by diplomatic means? I wonder if the U.S. would take military action to get the Pueblo back and its 83-man crew. I would like the opinion of others.

Questions Office of Economic Opportunity

Open letter to the commissioners of the Office of Economic Opportunity: The people of Highland and White Lake would like to know why our advisory council was changed to the South Advisory Council. When will the people from rural areas be recognized? The O. E. O. funds have been allotted to cities. No funds are for the rural areas. After administration and politics, no money is left for funding programs.

MRS. ROBERT FOLSTER, CHAIRMAN
HIGHLAND AND WHITE LAKE
ADV. COUNCIL

Question and Answer

When will the City of Pontiac begin to repair our roads? They're in the worst shape of any time in the 15 years I've lived here.

ROBERT BROWN

REPLY

Mr. Christian of Public Works tells us the program for repairs has not been set up yet, but the contract will probably be let in April or May. However, don't expect all repairs to be made, because Mr. Christian says a heavy spring breakup is expected, judging from what's happened already, and money available for repairs this year is considerably less than the amount budgeted last year.

LEAVING FOR NEW GUINEA — Packing towels, aprons, coffee pot, and some bedding in the large copper can are the Gary K. Parkers (center) who are leaving about March 1 for New Guinea. Here they are shown with Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Parker of 4576 Meigs, Waterford Township. Gary's mother looks a little wistful as she polishes the large copper container which at one time probably used to boil clothing. The young people will teach natives and children of missionaries in a Lutheran School in New Guinea. Several large oil drums filled with needed articles have already been shipped.

Underground Pastor Speaks

Refugee Lutheran Leader in Southfield

The Rev. Richard Wurmbrand, a refugee Romanian Lutheran pastor, who served 14 years in a Communist prison for organizing an underground church in defiance of Communist orders, will speak at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 30755 Southfield, Southfield at 2 p.m. tomorrow.

* * *

Admission is $1.00.

The Rev. Mr. Wurmbrand, author and education in Romania, taught Old Testament history in the Baptist Seminary in Bucharest.

In 1945 following the Communist seizure of his country, he began a secret underground ministry both to captive Romanians and to Russian soldiers in the invasion force.

Arrested in 1948, he was committed to prison where he served three years in solitary confinement and five additional years in mass cells where he was subjected to medieval tortures according to his testimony before the Senate subcommittee in 1967.

His testimony before the House Committee on Un-American Activities of Aug. 10, 1967 may be purchased from the Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

The Rev. Mr. Wurmbrand says underground church activities are being continued behind the Iron Curtain.

Supported by contributions of American Christians, the underground church is being helped by smuggling in Bibles, Christian literature, films and tapes through secret couriers.

* * *

The meeting is sponsored by Oakland County Conservative Club, Bloomfield Hills.

Human Relations Service Scheduled

Speakers include Clarence Barnes, executive director of Pontiac Area Urban League, and Robert Price of the Pontiac Organization of Black Youth. Everyone is welcome.

This is a world of compensations, and he who would be no slave must consent to have no slave. Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves, and under a just God, they cannot long retain it. —Abraham Lincoln.

Lewis participated in the organization of Christ Baptist Church, Detroit and served for seven years as the first chairman of the Board of Trustees.

Totie Fields Campaigns for 'Roomy' Dress

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If you haven't heard of the elegant amples . . . or somesuch . . . you soon will. Comedienne Totie Fields is determined the buxom ladies should have a line of dresses designed especially for them.

★ ★ ★

"Instead of sizes 40, 42, and so on, I'm going to design a line of dresses and call them Big 7, Roomy 9 or even 007 or 009. It will have a great psychological effect on plump women," she says.

★ ★ ★

Nowadays, women go shopping for dresses only to find that every interesting dress is size 3,5,7. They are too embarrassed to even mention size 20. This dilemma forces many women to squeeze into a dress that is too small.

★ ★ ★

Totie, an under-5-foot, buxom type herself, doesn't own a single dress without a gussett (an underarm insertion that provides a little extra fabric for the arms.)

★ ★ ★

There are many women in the United States who need the lift that a good dress line would provide, she explains. She gets about 3,000 fan letters a week, the majority is from plump women after she's been on a Mike Douglas, Ed Sullivan or Merv Griffin show. Night club appearances are likely to bring in three or four hundred.

IDENTIFY

"They identify with me. They write — 'You make me feel so good . . . I had such a complex about my weight . . . I really don't mind being fat when I watch you,' and so on."

★ ★ ★

Real tears are in Totie's eyes when she describes her loyal fans.

★ ★ ★

". . . You wouldn't believe the gifts . . . look I'm getting goose pimples talking about it . . . they send me handkerchiefs with hand tatting, medals, colognes . . . notes that say 'we hope that your stay in our town will be pleasant, and so on . . .'

★ ★ ★

"I don't know whom I'll approach about doing the dress line, but I'm serious. It will be a designer who is willing to design interesting clothes for overweights, and the fashions will not be black.

BLACK

I don't know where they got the idea that big women look thinner in black. I look just as fat in black as I do in orange and red," she says.

But older plump women often go beserk in choosing dress styles that are available, she points out.

HEMLINES

"There is nothing more horrible than an over-age woman in a dress with a hemline at the middle of her thigh. The mini-skirt is the greatest thing that ever happened to kids. Let's leave it there. The greatest thing that ever happened to lump women is the 'no waistline look' — nobody knows where it went."

★ ★ ★

Totie was born Sophie Feldman in Hartford, Conn. She met her husband, George Johnston in Boston. After her marriage, and birth of two daughters, her husband encouraged her to try the big time in New York. Ed Sullivan spotted her at the Copacabana, invited her to be on his show and that was the beginning. She is now in the $10,000-a-week bracket, she says.

Church Mouse Not Really in Love; Feeling Combines Admiration, Trust

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

ABBY

DEAR ABBY: I am an unmarried woman with a problem I can't confide to anyone. I think I am in love with my pastor. I go to church every chance I get, just to look at him and listen to him. He is married and has a fine family so I know there is no hope for me, but I can't help the way I feel about him.

I don't want to give up going to church, but I'm afraid if I keep going there I shall not be able to hide my feelings much longer. What should I do?
CHURCH MOUSE

DEAR CHURCH: (You are ONE reader I am not going to send to your clergyman.) What you feel is not "love." It's a combination of respect, gratitude, admiration, and devotion, with a penchant for fantasizing. Look for a nice single man whom you can develop an interest, and regard your pastor as a spiritual leader and a good friend.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Every year my husband gives a "birthday party" for Ruby, his first wife who has been dead for 12 years now. All their old friends are invited and they have a regular party for "Ruby"—food, drinks, birthday cake, and everything.

Then they all go out to the cemetery to "talk" to Ruby and leave her a piece of birthday cake.

I have no objections to my husband visiting Ruby's grave on her birthday, or any other day, but this "birthday party" really gets me. I've gone to two. Do I have to go to any more? And what do you think of such parties? WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: I think your husband is digging pretty deep to find an excuse to give a party. You don't have to go to these parties unless you want to. And neither does anyone else.

DEAR ABBY: I have a six-year-old son and I think there is something wrong with him. Mentally, I mean. He does terrible things, just to provoke me, and when I give him a good spanking he seems to enjoy it. It's almost as though he can't get enough of a beating. The harder I hit him the better he likes it.

Abby, I am at the end of my rope with this kid and I have had some pretty terrifying impulses. Please, please tell me what to do. My husband doesn't believe in head doctors, but I'm afraid our boy needs one. He just isn't normal.
NO NAME, PLS.

DEAR NO NAME: Ask your pediatrician what he thinks of your son's behavior, then follow his recommendation. People who don't "believe" in head doctors usually need them most.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What happens to parents when they become grandparents? Mine are too young to be getting senile, but they certainly don't show the good judgment in handling MY children as they did when they raised me.

My parents ruled their children with an iron hand. No backtalk, we did as we were told, and if we forgot our manners we heard about it. We weren't permitted to eat between meals and we had to be in bed with lights out at a certain time, and no nonsense.

But you should see the way they handle our children! All rules and regulations laid down at home are out of the window at the grandparents' house. The kids whine and beg until they get their own way.

They talk back, and are fed soft drinks, candy, and cookies—all they want at all hours. And they don't have to nap or do anything they don't want to do.

I love my parents, Abby, but I wish they realized how tough they are making it for me when they do this. It's difficult for children of any age to tell their parents anything, so you would do me (and millions of others) a great service if you printed this. Thank you.
FRUSTRATED PARENTS

Sweet Sixteen Shows Love and Appreciation

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently my parents gave me a "Sweet Sixteen" party and they did so much for me that I'd like to repay them in a special way. Have you any suggestions? If it is a gift, what kind? Thank you. — "Sweet Sixteen"

Dear "Sweet Sixteen": What a nice letter! Yes, I do have an idea for a special way in which you might say thank you to your parents. Why not prepare a surprise dinner for them one evening followed by a gift of two tickets to the local movie house or any other entertainment that might be available and which they would enjoy.

★ ★ ★

Your present could also include sitting without charge that evening for any younger brothers or sisters. Enlist the help of one of your mother's friends to keep her out of the house while you are preparing the dinner.

Keep to something simple or easy to cook. Good luck to you and I know you will have as much fun preparing this surprise as your parents will enjoying it.

Artist Versus Critic Match Slated

"Prepare to defend thyself may well be the battle cry at the Bloomfield Art Association's Friday program, "Artist Meets the Critic."

Mrs. Louis Dean, chairman, has coordinated the program which will present a panel of critics from local papers and distinguished people from the art world in a discussion of criticism, jurying in competitive shows and tastes and trends in the art world.

★ ★ ★

Carolyn Vosburg Hall, art critic for the Birmingham Eccentric and Robert Broner of the Detroit Free Press will present the critics' point of view. Adding spice to opinion is the fact that both Mr. Broner and Mrs. Hall are professional artists as well as critics.

Mrs. Hall, who earned her masters degree in fine arts at Cranbrook, has taught art in colleges and has exhibited widely in many media.

PRINTMAKER

Broner, president and founder of the Michigan Print Club, is nationally known for his intaglio etchings and is the originator of many techniques in printmaking. He is on the faculty of Wayne State University where he teaches humanities.

★ ★ ★

Architect Glen Paulsen, president of the Cranbrook Academy of Fine Art, and Dr. Frederick Cummings, assistant director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will be in the position of questioning the critics.

Paulsen, who is both artist and architect, has won many awards for design both here and in Europe. He studied at the Royal Academy of Arts in Sweden as well as the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Illinois.

★ ★ ★

Cummings, formerly curator of European art at the Detroit Institute, produced the present "Romantic Art in Britain" exhibition. He has taught art and is widely acclaimed for his writings on the subject.

TO MODERATE

Clifford B. West, known most recently for his movies on art, will moderate the panel. The winner of many international awards for his movies, West is both artist and teacher. His latest movies are "Edward Munch" and "The Art of the Vikings."

★ ★ ★

"The Artist Meets The Critic" will be presented at 8:00 p.m. at 1516 South Cranbrook Road. It is open to the public for a nominal charge.

Comparison Set on Child Rearing

A comparison between child rearing and family life practices in America and tribal New Guinea will be presented Tuesday by Dr. Paul Jordan, Grand Blanc child psychiatrist, at the meeting of the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries in Davison.

Dr. Jordan, who serves as a consultant to the Michigan Department of Mental Health, found the New Guinea tribe produced "remarkably friendly and trusting children" and he will give his audience suggestions for adapting this training to our culture.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Jordan has written a paper on this topic, which he calls "The Lonely American."

Temply Beth Jacob Nursery, Inc. is a participating member of the Council.

T. E. Brennan to Speak

The "Reorganization of the Lower Courts in Michigan" will be the topic of Hon. Thomas E. Brennan, Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, at the Tuesday meeting of the Bloomfield Republican Women's Club.

Justice Brennan is a former judge of the Common Pleas Court and the Circuit Court.

★ ★ ★

The group is scheduled to meet at 1 p.m. in the Adams Castle Drive home of Mrs. Harry Stevens. Members may bring guests.

Alter Consistency

If cookie dough seems too soft to roll, chill until firm. This solidifies the shortening. If dough seems slightly dry, work more shortening thoroughly into the dough by buttering the hands.

Accident Precaution

To prevent that can of cleanser from slipping out of your wet hands, place two tight rubber bands around the can an inch or so apart. This makes it much easier to hold onto.

Searchers Fail to Locate Flier Downed by Chinese

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon says a large-scale sea search has produced no sign of a pilot downed by Communist Chinese MIGs and has been abandoned.

The search — involving U.S. carriers, destroyers and airplanes—was for Lt. (j.g.) Joseph P. Dunn whose Navy Al Skyraider was shot down when it strayed near Communist China's Hainan Island Tuesday, a Defense Department statement said.

* * *

Spokesmen would not say how close search operations were to Hainan. The Communist Chinese claim Dunn's plane and another Skyraider violated its airspace and accused the United States of "war provocations."

The Defense Department statement on the search was issued Friday after the Copley News Service published a story that the Pentagon had refused permission to the U.S. 7th Fleet to search near the Communist Red Chinese island.

SAW PARACHUTE

The statement did not challenge the story but said the 7th Fleet "responded with a large-scale search."

It said the second pilot saw Dunn parachute from the plane, and said a beeper signal from a rescue device pilots carry was heard eight hours after Dunn went down.

"No ships had reached the scene at this time," the statement said, "and the carriers were still 10 hours from helicopter-launching position."

School Problems Will Be Discussed

Supt. of Schools Dr. Don O. Tatroe and other administrators of Waterford Township Schools will lead a discussion on school problems at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday at Pierce Junior High School.

Everyone in the school district is invited to attend the function and ask questions.

The discussion will pertain to the financial condition of the school district, taxes and proposed reductions for the 1968-69 school year.

Bulldogs Gain Win Before Large Crowd

By JERE CRAIG

Round one of the state High School Class B basketball tournament and Romeo coach Larry Randall's bid to guide the Bulldogs to the Class B title is still more than two weeks hence.

The ambitious small town quintet and its followers from Macomb County received an early example in miniature of what the hazardous road to Lansing offers Friday night at Lake Orion.

A screaming throng of more than 1400 fans crammed the Orion gymnasium to provide a feverish atmosphere as the visiting Bulldogs gained a 51-47 Oakland A League showdown victory.

The crowd had filled all the seats by the time the 6:30 p.m. reserve contest started and the noise only abated long enough in the next three and a half hours for the playing of the National Anthem.

The hard-earned triumph by the Bulldogs enabled them to sink their teeth into a share of the top spot with the Dragons. Both teams are 10-2 in the league and the Romeo quintet (12-2 overall) has high hopes of cracking the top 10 in the weekly state Class B poll.

STREAK ENDS

Lake Orion (11-2) had a nine-game winning streak snapped and is likely to lose its No. 10 Class A ranking. But the Dragons still can clinch a share of their first O-A crown in several seasons by winning their remaining two games.

Rochester became the coleaders' closest pursuer by dropping Troy's Colts, 63-46, to break a third-place tie with the losers. The Falcons, though, are two games behind the pacesetters and have an extremely remote chance of gaining a share of the laurels.

The other O-A games last night found Utica posting a unique 45-30 victory over Avondale, and Madison outlasting Clawson, 56-50. The Eagles thus stayed one game ahead of Utica in the duel for fifth place.

The Orion-Romeo showdown featured some outstanding individual efforts by the Dragons' 6-7 Gary Mize and the visitors' flashy guard Clyde Cushingberry.

In a game marred by turnovers — the winners committed 18 and Orion had 23 — and the home team's poor shooting (14 of 45 for 28 per cent from the floor) the trend was generally toward inconsistent play by both teams.

But Cushingberry made 10 of 25 shots and frequently controlled the winners' play with his steals and dribbling, plus topped all the scorers with 22 points.

Mize, meanwhile, led the Dragons' attack with 21 points, making 7 of 12 shots. In addition, he easily paced the rebounding with 14 to keep the Orion quintet in the game.

The game's closing quarter was a good example of the inconsistent performances of both teams under the intense pressure generated by the clamoring crowd.

Leading 37-34 entering the last period, the Bulldogs saw their margin cut to one point. They reopened the gap to six points with a five-point spree, making it 42-36 with five minutes to go.

DRAGONS' SURGE

But a Mize rebound and basket off a missed shot sparked the home team on an eight-point surge. Mize tied the score with two free throws at the 3:42 point, then Paul Bailey sent the Dragons in front, 44-42, with two more charity tosses 28 seconds later.

Mike Semp's field goal knotted the score and ended a 2½-minute dry spell for Romeo, and a hard-charging Dan Burzynski layup put in the final go-ahead basket with two minutes remaining.

After a Bill Foss free throw, Burnzynski hit Roger Ross with a crisp pass for the insurance basket, 48-45.

When the final horn sounded as Burzynski laid in a bucket to cap the scoring, the many Romeo followers mobbed their team on the court as if rehearsing a state championship celebration.

Chiefs Register Annual Output Against Handy

Special to The Press

BAY CITY—Pontiac Central's improving Chiefs found some additional scoring help on their bench Friday night and produced their annual scoring romp against Bay City Handy.

With substitutes Monte Herring and Ardell Sheldon contributing 29 points between them, the Chiefs handed the clawless Wildcats their seventh straight loss, 92-56.

It is the Chief's highest point production of their 7-7 campaign, and marks the third year in a row they have hit their season high of 92 against Handy.

They also had a 92-point high in 1964-65 against Waterford, and scored 93 against Handy in 1963-64.

Herring, a sophomore forward, hit his varsity high of 17 points and senior guard Sheldon had 12 (his season peak). Leading the winners was Frank Russell who tallied 25, including 11 of 13 charity tosses.

The foul-plagued game—there were 54 personals assessed—saw PCH jump into a 20-0 lead in the first 4¼ minutes and BC Handy go without a field goal until the 34-second mark.

Russell scored nine points and Alton Wilson eight of his 14 in the first period. Herring notched nine and Russell six more in the next session as Central took a 45-23 lead at the half.

Leonard Cole produced all 10 of his points in the third quarter when the Chiefs added 11 points to their lead. After the opening spree by them in the game, the visitors' smallest lead was at 33-22.

The win boosted PCH to 4-6 in the Saginaw Valley Conference, but it failed to gain ground on fifth-place Arthur Hill's Lumberjacks who manhandled runner-up Midland almost out of contention, 73-57.

The loss, coupled with Saginaw's 73-45 romp over Flint Southwestern, left the Chemics needing a win in their final two SVC starts just to tie for the title.

Flint Northern continued its surge with a 76-55 conquest of Bay City Central; while Flint Central posted an 88-70 decision over Flint Northwestern in a nonleague venture.

DRAGON ON THE FLY—Lake Orion's 6-7 center Gary Mize leaps to uncork a push shot at the basket during the first half of last night's big Oakland A first place battle at the Dragons' packed gym. Fred Castle makes an unsuccessful bid to stop the shot. His teammates Dan Burzynski (53) and Mike Semp (behind Castle) are also visible. Mize led the Dragons with 21 points and 14 rebounds.

Streaking SEMA 5s Nearing Title Share

Ferndale, Royal Oak Kimball and Southfield all took major steps toward a share of the Southeast Michigan Association basketball crown Friday night with wins against the weaker quintets.

Streaking Ferndale and Kimball extended their winning streaks 11 and 6, respectively, by downing Berkley, 65-45, and Hazel Park, 58-49, with ease.

Southfield, struggling to regain its momentum after successive losses following six straight SEMA conquests, didn't have it quite as comfortable but survived a scare to top Seaholm, 58-54.

All three leaders have 7-2 marks with one game remaining against a noncontender.

Kimball built a 29-18 lead in the first half, then fell behind, 40-39, in the third quarter as Herb Lukey's nine points paced a rally by the Vikings.

BALANCE

Jim Merchel and Al Petracich, the Hazel Park guards, added 32 points to the attack; but Kimball's balanced offense proved too much to overcome. Four of the Knights were in double figures with Jay Brown's 14 being tops.

★ ★ ★

Seaholm led much of the way at Southfield, but Bob Scheuer put the Blue Jays ahead, 51-50 with 3¼ to play and the Maples never led again. He finished with 27 points, including 9 in the decisive fourth quarter.

★ ★ ★

Jim Hagen's fast start (14 points in opening quarter) enabled Seaholm to build a 23-11 advantage. Southfield won the game from the floor.

Brother Rice '5' Outguns U. of D. in Grabbing Win

Birmingham Brother Rice shot at a 52 per cent clip from the field Friday night and pulled away from University of Detroit High School for a 67-51 triumph.

★ ★ ★

Down 27-24 earlier in the second half, the Warriors counted consecutive field goals by Lee Hart, John Maloney and Dave Kreuz to take the lead for good.

★ ★ ★

Brother Rice registered a 27-19 edge in baskets and a 39-18 superiority on the backboards in gaining its fifth victory in 13 starts.

★ ★ ★

Hart finished with 18 points and 11 rebounds. Maloney scored 15 and Kreuz 11. John McIntee's 17 paced U. of D. Brother Rice's reserve unit downed U. of D.'s junior varsity, 70-47 to clinch the Central Division's reserve championship.

Speedster Works Out

JOHANNESBURG (UPI) — Humphrey Khosi, a non-white runner who has clocked one minute 48.6 seconds for the half mile and 47.5 for 440 yards, began training at 4 a.m. today for the 1968 Olympics. "I'm going to make the Olympics for sure," said Khosi, who has better times than South Africa's white athletes. "Now I know what I'm training for."

Huskies Whip Skippers 96-58; Kettering Rolls

By DON VOGEL

"It's like having a tiger by the tail," said Waterford Township basketball coach Bob Taylor. "You can hold on only for so long."

★ ★ ★

The Skippers managed to hold on for a half last night, but Pontiac Northern pulled free in the third quarter and romped to a 96-58 victory and its second straight Inter-Lakes Conference championship.

★ ★ ★

The win was the ninth straight for the Huskies in a 12-2 season and their seventh in league play without a loss.

Farmington (5-2) locked up second place as Mark Lynott made two free throws with one second remaining for a 59-57 victory over Livonia Stevenson (2-4).

Bob Lines continued his hot scoring for Kettering—netting 27—to pace the Captains past Walled Lake, 80-63, in a nonleague contest. It was Kettering's 10th win against two setbacks. Walled Lake dropped its sixth straight and is 2-10.

★ ★ ★

Waterford suffered its eighth loss against five wins. The Skippers are 2-4 in I-L play. But they drew praise from PNH coach Dick Hall for their first half home court effort.

★ ★ ★

"I was more impressed with the way they (Skippers) played in the first half than with our own boys," said the veteran mentor who has directed the Huskies to seven league titles in nine seasons.

STAYED EVEN

Waterford stayed even for most of the first period before PNH pulled to a 23-18 lead at the buzzer. The Huskies opened a 36-22 lead, but Waterford—fired by the shooting and rebounding of Bill Foley—cut the margin to 45-36 at the half.

The third quarter was a nightmare for the Skippers. Hall put together a combination of Bob Taylor, Don Hayward, Craig Deaton, Eddie Williams and Bob Moncrief. They outscored Waterford, 31-12.

"We started all juniors (Foley, Rodger Reed, Bruce Saffron, Bob Pullins and Mike Sheldon)," Taylor pointed out, "and I was very pleased with the way they played in the first half. But Northern started to run in the third period and just kept pulling away."

★ ★ ★

Except for brief periods when Foley was able to get position under the backboards, Northern completely dominated the rebounding. Hayward, Traylor and Coin were very effective on the offensive boards.

Hayward, who scored 10 points in the second period, led all scorers with 22 points. Traylor chipped in with 20. Moncrief was the big gun in the third quarter when he netted 10 of his 12.

Foley was high for Waterford with 17.

Lines has been shooting at a torrid pace for Kettering. In his last three outings, the senior forward has connected for 16, 28 and 27 markers.

GOOD SUPPORT

He had strong support from Bill Penoza against Walled Lake. Penoza stuffed in 23 markers. Greg Fogle poured in 26 for the Vikings.

The Captains hit on 33 of 58 shots for a good 57 per cent on the Walled Lake floor. They also dominated the backboards, gaining a 69-50 edge. Most impressive were 34 offensive rebounds.

Stevenson raced to a 32-16 halftime lead over Farmington. The Falcons cut the gap to 12 points in the third period and then blasted the Spartans 23-8 in the last quarter.

★ ★ ★

Lynott led the surge by scoring 17 of his 19 points in the second half. He totaled 13 in the fourth quarter. Randy Cleveland tallied 16 for Farmington.

West Bloomfield Nears Cage Championship

Lakers End Slump; Wolves Stop Milford

By FLETCHER SPEARS

The Lakers of West Bloomfield have shaken that mid-season slump and they're now on the verge of staking claim to the Wayne-Oakland League basketball championship.

* * *

Using a hot hand on offense and holding a tight rein on defense, the Lakers turned back a visiting Northville squad before an overflow crowd, 58-53.

The verdict reversed an earlier 60-48 setback the Lakers suffered at Northville, and it enabled them to grab a one-game lead in the W-O race with just two games left.

The Lakers are now 10-2. Northville is 9-3.

* * *

Elsewhere in the league, Clarkston hiked its record to 8-4 with a 69-58 decision over Milford, Clarenceville upended Holly, 50-45, and Brighton upset Bloomfield Hills Andover, 61-52.

STAY IN CHARGE

Except for a brief moment in the first period, the Lakers led all the way in running their over-all record to 11-4.

* * *

The Lakers jumped off to a 5-0 lead and ran it to 10-5 before Northville settled down. The Mustangs moved in front 14-12 on a pair of free throws by Jim Peterson, but Curtis Britton's field goal in the waning seconds of the period deadlocked the game at 14.

After gaining a 27-21 lead at intermission, the Lakers moved onto the floor at the start of the third and hit on six straight field goals to open up a 39-29 lead.

Northville sliced away at the deficit and pulled within three points with 3:14 left in the game, 54-51, but a bucket by Steve Westjohn and a pair of free throws by Gary Hahnefeld with 1:49 left sewed it up.

* * *

The Lakers finished with 22 of 46 shots for a hot 47 per cent. Northville, gaining an edge in rebounding, 43-37, hit on only 19 of 51 attempts.

SPARK LAKERS

Dave Karlson, Britton and Westjohn were sharp in the rebounding department and the trio combined to check the visitors' two aces — Peterson and Randy Pohlman.

* * *

Karlson, who fouled out with 1:22 left in the game, finished with 15 points, while Hahnefeld and Westjohn pitched in 12 apiece. Britton, who picked up four fouls early in the game, was whistled out at 3:14 of the fourth frame but he managed to score eight markers.

Pohlman led Northville with 19 points and Peterson tossed in 11. Both turned in strong rebounding jobs.

Brighton used a 20-point fourth quarter in handing Andover its ninth loss of the season.

* * *

Tim Bowditch, who scored only nine points, triggered that hot fourth period with seven points as Brighton snapped a three-game losing streak.

Rick Wellman scored 25 points and Randy Needham 12 to pace the Brighton attack.

Andover, holding a brief 43-42 lead early in the fourth, was paced by Steve Jones (18) and Tim Weddle (10).

Clarkston is another team that has shaken an early-season slump.

A 45-point second half helped the Wolves halt Milford and run their winning streak to six.

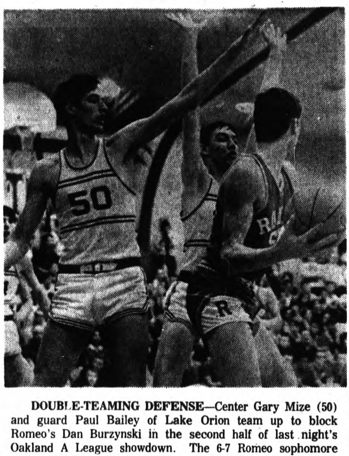
Clarkston was down at halftime, 29-24, but moved in front with a 22-13 edge in the third stanza and sewed it up with a 23-point outburst in the final frame.

Eric Hood led the Wolves with 22 points and 22 rebounds. Mark Erickson tossed in 20 markers. Dave Baker came through with 15, while Mark Geigler and Doug Powers added 14 apiece for Milford.



DOUBLE-TEAMING DEFENSE—Center Gary Mize (50) and guard Paul Bailey of Lake Orion team up to block Romeo's Dan Burzynski in the second half of last night's Oakland A League showdown. The 6-7 Romeo sophomore replaced Donnell Craft when he fouled out and made several key plays for the Bulldogs.

DRAWS ALL EYES—All eyes appear to be on Lake Orion's Bill Foss (with basketball) as he prepares to unleash a jump shot during the first half Friday night. The big crowd naturally is watching the shooter and so are Romeo's Mike Semp (23), Donnell Craft (55), Fred Castle (in front of Foss) and Dan Burzynski, as well as Orion's Gary Mize. Foss scored 13 points for the losers.

Lahser '5' Surprises Cranbrook

The young Knights of Bloomfield Hills Lahser turned in a surprise last night by pinning a 74-72 setback on Cranbrook's Cranes.

The clincher came with just three seconds remaining when John Ulrich hit on a 15-foot jumper, enabling the Knights to pick up their 12th win in 15 outings.

* * *

The game was a seesaw affair with Cranbrook holding a 35-34 lead at intermission.

Lahser looked like an easy winner late in the fourth after bolting to a 70-63 lead, but Cranbrook (7-6) stormed back to knot the score at 70-all.

Scott Whiting's two free throws boosted Lahser into a 72-70 lead, but Scott Babcock came back with a basket to knot it again at 72-all and set the stage for Ulrich' shot.

Bruce Gangnath paced the Knights with 20 points, while Whiting came through with 16 and Ulrich 15.

Ron Fallon topped Cranbrook with 22. Babcock finished with 17.

Redskins Also Stay in Chase

Oak Park Pulls Out Thriller Over Groves

North Farmington and Oak Park kept the pressure on Northwest Suburban AA League leader Detroit Thurston last night with contrasting victories.

The Raiders had an easy time disposing of Livonia Franklin, 82-53, outscoring the visitors in every quarter.

Oak Park, meanwhile, had a real scare from defending champion Birmingham Groves before pulling out a 63-60 verdict on a three-point play by Dave Weiner with 12 seconds left to go.

The Redskins ended Groves' 23-game league winning skein with a 45-43 victory last month at Birmingham and they had their hands full again.

Larry Edwards' 17 points for Oak Park matched the Falcons' Ron Douglass for game honors. Weiner's crucial three-pointer gave him 14 points for the contest.

North Farmington's potent pair — Ron Flutur and Mike McCoy — again led the way by combining for 34 points. Flutur posted 18 before leaving with an injured toe.

The Raiders took a 41-28 lead at the half and coach Dick Wilson was able to use the reserves much of the last half. Junior Joel Comstock matched his varsity high with 13 points.

Scoring Duos Pace Imlay, Millington

Terry Schoenberg flipped in 27 points and Jim Simons checked in with 16 last night to lead Imlay City to a 74-64 victory over Birch Run in a South Central League contest.

In another league outing, Millington rolled past Brown City, 68-40, behind the scoring of Vern Sergeant (17) and Larry Hourtienne (13).

Imlay's win hiked the team's record to 9-5. Birch Run, now 11-4, was paced by Ken Klein (17) and Tim Gajewski (12).

Jerry Sauder tossed in 17 markers and Phil Doherty added 11 for Brown City (3-13).

Canadian Wins

RIGA, Russia (AP) — Dave Bailey of Canada won the 3,000 meters in 8:37.4 at an international track meet here Thursday. Another Canadian, Bill Crothers, won the 1,000 meters in 2:23.2.

Almont Title Hopes Given Boost

Defending champion Armada gave Almont's Raiders' one last gasp in the Southern Thumb League basketball race Friday night.

The Tigers upset pace-setting Anchor Baq, 63-54, to drop the Tars into a tie with Capac for the league lead at 11-2.

Almont climbed to within a game of the lead at 10-3 by overpowering Richmond, 88-79. The Raiders will clash head-on with Anchor Bay at New Baltimore next Friday.

But Capac, a 64-52 conqueror of New Haven, will meet last-place Memphis in its final game and the Chiefs will be heavy favorites with so much at stake.

GAINS GROUND

Last night's fourth contest found Dryden trimming Memphis, 60-47, to move within a game of sixth-place Richmond. The Cardinals and Blue Devils will clash in their finales.

Dan Yohe's 22 points and strong rebounding enabled Armada to offset a 23-point, 25-rebound performance by 6-6 Jerry Martin of Anchor Bay.

The score was tied at the intermission, but the Tigers had the upper hand in both the third and final quarters.

Almont kept it slim hopes for a tie alive behind the 31 points of sharpshooting Al Currey. The Raiders led all the way despite 25 points by Richmond's Scot Scholfield. Almont won the game with a 32-17 free throw advantage.

* * *

Dryden jumped into a 13-3 lead and built its cushion up to 52-29 before Memphis was able to trim it down. The losers' Dennis Zuehlke led the pointmaking with 17.

* * *

However, Dryden's duo of Gary White and Greg Howard teamed for 30 points and their five teammates managed to match the other six scorers for Memphis.

Novi's Juniors Top Grass Lake

John Van Wagner scored 24 points last night to lead Novi to its second basketball victory of the season.

The all-junior Novi quintet turned back Grass Lake, 57-52, to gain revenge for an earlier loss. Making the win more impressive was the fact that the game was played at Grass Lake.

Lee Snow tossed in 11 points for Novi which has lost 11. John Schroen's 15 sparked Grass Lake.

Wood Places 2nd at Winter Olympics

By WILL GRIMSLEY

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — Timothy Lyle Wood of Bloomfield Hills attributes his quick rise from figure skating's second division to world rank to two things:

1. Harder work.
2. Maturity.

"I suppose I just grew up," the slender, 19-year-old John Caroll University sophomore said Friday after capturing a surprise silver medal in the 10th Winter Olympic Games at the Stade de Glace.

MORE RELAXED

"It's psychological maturity. I used to get very tense before a performance. Now I am more relaxed and sure of myself."

He was almost sure that he had won. He had a 17-minute wait before discovering that Wolfgang Schwarz of Austria had taken the gold medal, just edging Wood.

Patrick Pera of France was third. Gary Visconti of Detroit was fifth and John Petkevich, Great Falls, Mont., sixth.

Kees Verkerk of The Netherlands broke his own world record for the men's 1,500-meter speed-skating event in 2:03.4 and Norway won the women's cross country ski race, the only other final events.

★ ★ ★

Richie Wurster, Ballston Spa, N.Y., was the top American in speed skating, 19th in 2:08.4.

PLANE DISASTER

Wood is one of the figure skating babies brought up after a tragic airplane crash in Brussels in 1961 wiped out the cream of American talent. U.S. men had dominated the specialty since 1948 with two Olympic golds by Dick Button and successive victories by brothers Hayes Alan and Dave Jenkins.

In 1964, the men's title went to Manfred Schnelldorfer of Germany. Emmerich Danzer of Austria has been world champion the last two years.

★ ★ ★

"Peggy Fleming already has closed the gap in ladies skating," Wood said. "I think our men are on the verge of taking over again."

Wood's teammates here are Visconti of Detroit, whose two-year reign as U.S. champion was broken by Tim at Philadelphia just before the Olympics, and Petkevich of Great Falls, Mont., a brilliant free-skater.

★ ★ ★

Wood is the son—youngest of four brothers—of a prominent surgeon, Dr. Kenneth Wood, who specialized in operating on lung cancer victims. His coach is Ronnie Baker, formerly of Liverpool, England.

Baker has been Tim's coach since the boy started at the Detroit Skating Club at the age of seven.

LONG GRIND

"It's been a long, hard push," Wood said. "My plans are to skate at least another year with the hopes of winning a world title. I am in pre-law. I intend to become an attorney."

Wood, a reed-thin youngster with coal-black, slicked-down hair, was national junior champion in 1964, 13th in the world in 1965 and ninth in 1967.

His progress in the last year has been remarkable.

★ ★ ★

"Besides getting older, I've really intensified my work program. For a month before the nationals, I trained 7½ hours a day. I spend at least four hours a day on my school figures.

"When not in school, I am up at 6 a.m. and skate until 12:30 p.m. Then I work again from 1:30 to 3. It's not the amount of work as much as it is the application. I have really started concentrating."

CAMPUS HERO

Wood is a hero to the students at John Carroll, an all-male school. They had a special banner saying "Go, Tim, Go," flown to him. The university president sent him an honorary letter — the first ever given a non-varsity sports man.

★ ★ ★

"Figure skating is like show business," Tim said. "You must play to the audience, smile and keep your head up. I try to shut out everything. I forget my nerves and listen to the music.

"Then I wait for audience reaction. The French crowds are great—very responsive, very emotional. You'd be surprised how they can inspire a guy."

Card-Cutting Helped in Meeting Pressure

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — George Knudson, second round leader in the $100,000 Phoenix Open golf tournament, recalls that during his early golfing days he would cut cards for $100 a throw to build up endurance under pressure.

"It was just one of those stupid things all of us do at times," said Knudson, who carried an 11 under par 67-64—131 and a two stroke lead into today's third round.

★ ★ ★

"I figured it would help me control putting shakes," said Knudson. "When you have only $300 in your pocket, cutting cards for $100 is pressure."

He might think the card idea stupid now, but Knudson's putting during Friday's second round was nearly flawless as he one-putted nine holes and needed only 27 putts for 18 holes.

★ ★ ★

Knudson, who had no bogeys Friday over the 6,765-yard, par-71, Phoenix Country Club course, rolled in seven birdie putts, including a 45-footer, another from 25 feet and one for 15 feet.

BEST TOTAL

His total of 131 was the best for 36 holes so far during the winter tour, and his round of 34 equaled the low for 18 holes.

"I've made an adjustment but I don't know what it is" said Knudson, 31, a 155-pound tour regular from Toronto, Canada.

Tommy Shaw, club pro from Golf, Ill., fired a 66 Friday and with an opening round of 67 was only two strokes behind Knudson going into today's play.

★ ★ ★

Jack Nicklaus, who will rest for almost three weeks before resuming action in the Doral Open in Florida, failed to make the 36-hole cutoff of 143 by three strokes.

MSD Halts Losing Streak

By the Associated Press

It was a day to remember for prep basketball players at Ewen-Trout Creek and the Michigan School for the Deaf at Flint.

Scoring at a rate of almost five points a minute, Ewen-Trout Creek bombarded Mercer, Wis. 155-42. It was the 17th victory in 18 games for the top Class D team in the weekly Associated Press basketball poll. Dick Pole had 54 points for Trout Creek on 24 field goals and six of seven at the foul line.

The School for the Deaf belted Flint Ashley 68-47 as C. J. Thomas, a 5-foot-11 sophomore starting his third varsity game, led the way with 13 points and 27 rebounds. The victory snapped a 60-game losing streak for School for the Deaf.

Ashley had beaten the School for the Deaf by 20 points earlier this season. The last victory for the Flint school was Dec. 4, 1964.

BIG UPSET

In a stirring upset, Benton Harbor walloped Holland 83-58 on the onset of the third quarter to put the Tigers ahead 50-41 after they trailed 41-40 at the half.

Ishpeming boosted its record to 13-2 with a 69-61 victory over Ironwood as Ed Stimac netted 38 points and Powers nipped Hermansville 77-76 by scoring eight straight points in the waning seconds of play. The winning basket was scored by Tommy Betters with eight seconds left in the game.

Holland Christian beat Muskegon Christian 67-55 as Bob Vanlangeveld scored 24 points, including six clutch free throws.

Leslie, now 15-0, beat Williamston 65-61 on Rod McMichael's 27 points and Terris Wilson notched 36 as Albion trounced Battle Creek Harper Creek 103-52.

SHARPSHOOTER

Gary Ganakas, East Lansing's 5-foot-2½ guard, notched 18 points in a 74-64 victory over Adrian, and Highland Park boosted its record to 14-3 with a 59-58 victory over Dearborn Fordson on some fine outside shooting by guards Ed Dixon and Carl Lemmons.

Milan nipped Ypsilanti Lincoln 78-71 in triple overtime. Lincoln, now 10-5, has lost four overtime games this year.

Losers Grab Spotlights in Pro Cage Contests

By the Associated Press

It was a big night for losers in the National Basketball Association.

The San Diego Rockets lost for a record-tying 17th straight time Friday night, 124-108 to Philadelphia.

★ ★ ★

Coach Al Bianchi of Seattle lost his restraint and was thrown out of the game, and then his SuperSonics went on to lose 147-118 to Baltimore.

Rumors that Chicago coach John Kerr would be replaced lost out—at least for the time being—to a vote of confidence given Kerr by club president Dick Klein. The Bulls then went out and lost to Boston 124-108.

In other NBA games, San Francisco edged Los Angeles 118-116 and Cincinnati trounced New York 125-101.

San Diego's losing string tied the mark set by the 1964-65 San Francisco Warriors. The Rockets could break the record when they play Philadelphia again in San Diego Sunday.

PULLED AWAY

The Rockets trailed by just two points, 59-57, early in the third period, but then the 76ers outscored them 31-13 to clinch their 47th victory. San Diego has won only 14.

Bill Cunningham led Philadelphia with 26 points and Don Kojis got 25 for San Diego.

Bianchi was thrown out of the game when he got his second technical with 8:50 remaining in the third period. He then charged referee Richie Powers and had to be restrained by his players.

Catholic Cagers Hand 13th Loss to Emmanuel

Anchor Bay Catholic handed Pontiac Emmanuel Christian loss No. 14 in 15 tries Friday night, 80-37, as 11 players entered the winners' scoring column.

After an 11-9 first quarter duel, the Anchor Bay unit held Emmanuel's Lancers to only four points in the second quarter and jumped into a 33-13 advantage.

The undermanned Emmanuel lineup had 15 points by Tom Molyneaux and 10 by Tom Vanaman. Dave Rivard's 19 and Bart Kay's 18 paced the Anchor Bay attack. It produced a 32-10 edge from the floor.

Fouls Costly for H. Lakes

Highlanders Downed by Henry Ford, 86-60

Highland Lakes' Highlanders ran into foul trouble early in the game and the handicap proved too much as they dropped an 86-60 decision to Dearborn Henry Ford.

Highland Lakes, now 4-16 for the season, stayed with the winners for much of the first half.

But two of the team's top rebounders went to the bench in foul trouble at the midway mark and Henry Ford took advantage of their absence to open up a 39-22 lead at intermission.

Tim Moller, who picked up four fouls in that first half, collected 16 points to lead the way for the Highlanders. Jerry Wright tossed in 14.

N.Y. Track Spotlight Dimmed by Boycott

NEW YORK (AP) — "I must not have been important," said sprinter Lennox Miller in talking about his presence at the New York Athletic Club indoor track meet despite a boycott by Negroes. "I didn't receive any letters or phone calls."

Miller of Southern California was one of nine Negroes who competed in the meet, first to be held in the new Madison Square Garden, Friday night and, unlike some of the athletes who withdrew at the last moment, he received no threats about his participation.

"I had two reasons for competing," said Miller, who won the 60-yard dash in 6.1 seconds, his fastest time of the year. "I was invited, and I wanted to come to New York because my family lives here."

Miller insisted, "I haven't damaged the Negro cause. It's been misrepresented. I don't like the idea of being told not to compete by somebody who doesn't know what track is all about or what athletics is all about."

ONE MISS

From almost every standpoint except the financial one, the boycott, called as a protest against the NYAC's membership policies, has to be counted a success.

The 15,972 track fans who braved some 500 pickets scuffling with police outside saw a meet decimated of most of its top talent and competition.

Not only did most of the Negroes stay away—Miller and American indoor long jump champion Bob Beamon were the only really top ones in the meet—but so did many whites, who withdrew either individually or as part of their college or club teams.

★ ★ ★

In addition, the withdrawal of seven Russians further downgraded the meet, which, because of the NYAC's ability to pay the freight and a national television contract from ABC, figured to be one of the best of the season.

Beamon, who won the long jump with his initial jump of 26-3½, was joined by four Negro University of Texas-El Paso teammates: hurdler Kelly Myrick, and mile relay runners Dave Morgan, Leslie Miller and Chuck McPherson. Miller was also fifth in the long jump.

SEVENTH WIN

The top race was the two-mile in which George Young, getting stronger by the week in his bid for a third Olympic, won his seventh race of the season against a strong field with a time of 8:30.8. Young of Casa Grande, Ariz., was named athlete of the meet.

Sam Bair of Kent State won one section of the mile in 4:05.6 and Bob Day of the Army won the other in 4:08.5. Bob Seagren of Southern California won the pole vault at 16-6.

★ ★ ★

Other winners were Richmond Flowers of Tennessee in the 60-yard high hurdles, 7.1; Hardee McAlhaney, Tennessee, in the 500, 57.7; Bill Ennis, Catholic University in the 600, 1:11.2; Preston Davis of the Army in the 880, 1:54.8.

And, Dick Fosbury of Oregon State in the high jump at 7-0 after winning a jump off with Ed Hanks of Brigham Young; Southern California in the feature two-mile relay at 7:34.8 and Tennessee in the top mile relay at 3:22.3.

Controversy Mars Killy's 3rd Win

GRENOBLE, France (AP) — France's Jean-Claude Killy, Le Superman of the ski slopes, appeared to be the winner of the Olympic special slalom today in a weird and wild finish to his attempt to sweep all three Alpine races at the Winter Games.

★ ★ ★

Although the entire race was to be reviewed, with heated argument a certainty, by the ski jury, Killy appeared to have withstood faster times by Karl Schranz of Austria and Haak Mjoen of Norway who reportedly missed gates, which would mean automatic disqualification.

★ ★ ★

The controversial turn of events came after Italy's Eugenio Monti, the reckless Red Devil of the bobsledders, won his second gold medal on the next-to-last day of the Winter Games.

Killy, who already had won the downhill and the giant slalom, took the lead after the first slalom run at nearby Chamrousse with a time of 49.37 seconds, then went down the second run in 50.36, giving him a total of one minute, 39.73 seconds.

But along came Mjoen and whipped down the second run in 49.27 for a total time of 1:39.18.

Then it was Schranz' turn.

ANOTHER CHANCE

Schranz, whose fellow Austrian Toni Sailer had been the only man ever to win all three Olympic Alpine races, fell on his second run.

But after Austrian officials protested that a sepctator standing too close to the course had hindered him, he was allowed to start the run over.

The 29-year-old Schranz did, and this time he swept down unhindered in 49.53 seconds for a total of 1:39.22.

By this time race officials, who had walkie-talkie connections along the track, said Mjoen missed several gates, so that meant Schranz was the leader.

Shortly afterward, however, Schranz was said to have been told that he was disqualified for missing a gate on his first try at the second run—before he was hindered by the spectator. That means his second try at the second run was meaningless, and it also meant Killy remained in the lead subject to jury review.

EMU Favored

BIG RAPIDS (AP)—Eastern Michigan University is favored to win the NAIA State Indoor Track Championships Tuesday at Ferris State College. Meet manager Norm Bennett said Friday entries have been received from Eastern, Ferris and Aquinas.

Romeo Gains Tie in O-A Race

The winners had a slight rebound edge in the statistics, pulling down 37 to 34 for the home team. Romeo also shot at a 41 per cent tempo from the floor in remaining unbeaten in its traveling uniforms.

UNIQUE

The Utica conquest over visiting Avondale was unusual in that the winners made 80 per cent of the field goal attempts — including making all five of their third period tries and not taking any shots in the fourth quarter.

The host Chieftains jumped into a 4-0 lead and used their ball-control tactics to maintain the score for much of the opening period, before moving out to an 8-3 edge at the buzzer.

Aided by an 11 of 15 shooting effort, Utica took a 24-18 lead into the locker-room at the half. It added to the margin in the last two periods.

In addition, Randy Petrarca of the winners limited Avondale's high-scoring Bob Burt to seven points—his first game under 10 in two seasons.

★ ★ ★

Rochester had an 18-6 opening quarter spree and padded its lead with a 13-7 third-quarter advantage. Gary Campbell had 15 and Mike Scally 14 as four Falcons hit in twin figures.

Lynn Qualmann's 16 for Troy took game honors. The losers, though, could only make 10 of 23 from the foul line and had a 25-18 field goal deficit.

Madison, paced by John Havrelko's 19 tallies, led all the way against once-victorious Clawson.

Ex-Prep QB Takes Adrian Football Post

ADRIAN (AP) — William C. Davis, 29-year-old assistant coach at Westminister College in Pennsylvania, today was named head football coach at Adrian College.

Davis succeeds Charles Chappy" Marvin who resigned at the end of last season.

The new coach was a quarterback at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio. He coached high school teams for seven years, compiling a 25-8-1 record.

Under Marvin, who is expected to stay on as baseball and swimming coach, the Adrian Bulldogs had a 13-34 record.

South Lyon 5 Needs Rally

Scott Bennett's 13 second half points sparked South Lyon to a come-from-behind 67-64 victory over Chelsea Friday night.

The Lions' fifth win in 14 outings saw them trailing, 31-24, at the half. But Bennett, who led all scorers with 23 points, provided the impetus in the final half.

Dave Brandon's 18 points and Bruce Taylor's 12 complemented Bennett's efforts.

BALANCING ACT—Bill Hewitt of Southern California appears to be balancing the ball on his nose during this action under the backboard against Oregon State in Los Angeles last night. Hewitt and his teammates won, 71-63. Keeping an eye on Hewitt are Oregon State's Gary Freeman (21) and Vic Bartolome (22) along with Southern Cal's Ron Taylor (54).

Lew, UCLA Mates Shine on Home Court

By The Associated Press

UCLA's 47-game winning streak was shattered by Houston in January, but the national collegiate basketball champions still have a couple of other streaks going.

Led by Lew Alcindor's 29 points the nationally second-ranked Bruins crushed Oregon 119-78 Friday night. It was their 37th straight on their Pauley Pavilion home court and their 26th in a row in the Pacific-8 Conference. It was also the Bruins' sixth straight since losing to Houston and made their over-all record 19-1.

* * *

North Carolina, New Mexico and Columbia, the other teams in the Associated Press Top Ten to play Friday, also won.

North Carolina, No. 3, made it 17 in a row and 19-1 over-all by crushing Clemson 96-74 at Charlotte behind Larry Miller's 29 points.

Once beaten New Mexico, fifth-ranked, moved a step closer to the Western Athletic Conference title with a 76-67 victory over Brigham Young at Provo, Utah. Greg Howard's 25 points paced the Lobos, now 20-1.

ANOTHER WIN

Columbia's sixth-ranked Lions made it 12 straight and 16-3 over-all by routing Dartmouth at home 82-56. Jim McMillian and Dave Newmark split 40 points as the Lions overwhelmed the team they needed two extra periods to beat last week at Hanover, N.H.

The victory also kept Columbia, now 16-3 over-all, in a first place tie in the Ivy League with Princeton. The Nassau Tigers broke loose in the second half for a 54-50 road triumph over Brown. Penn beat Yale 71-68 in overtime at New Haven and Cornell downed Harvard 77-68 at Ithaca in other Ivy League games.

* * *

The North Carolina-Clemson game was the opener of a doubleheader. North Carolina State beat South Carolina 72-59 in the second game.

Utah defeted Wyoming 97-89 and, in other home court victories, Southern California went overtime to beat Oregon State 71-63, Weber State crushed Idaho 81-62 and Idaho State took Gonzaga 97-88.

On the road West Texas vanquished Centenary 89-79 and Westminister, Pa., downed Bucknell 84-69.

George Mira, 49ers Reach Agreement

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — George Mira yelled to be traded, and John Brodie quietly expected to be dealt off but it appeared today that both quarterbacks will be in uniform again next season with the San Francisco Forty Niners.

The National Football League club, under the new coaching regime of Dick Nolan, signed Mira Friday to what a team spokesman described as a "long term contract."

And Brodie said that he planned to be back with the squad "although I really thought I was going to be traded."

Mira frequently had asked during the 1967 season to be used more by coach Jack Christiansen or be traded. Late in the campaign he took over the starting quarterback role from the slump-ridden Brodie who frequently was a target of home-town jeers.

Troubles Pile Up for Red Wings

Dean Prentice Out of Action for Two Weeks

Detroiters 11 Points Back of New York in Bid for Playoff Spot

DETROIT (AP) — With only 19 games left to make up an 11-point deficit on the fourth and final East Division playoff spot, manager-coach Sid Abel of the Detroit Red Wings is scrambling through player rosters in search of help to combat a late-season slump.

The Wings lost left wing Dean Prentice for at least two weeks when he chipped a clavicle in his right shoulder after slamming into the boards during a 2-0 loss to the Montreal Canadiens Thursday night.

* * *

This lends a sense of urgency to Abel's search.

The Wings, in last place in the east, trail the fourth-place New York Rangers by 11 points with 19 games to play.

Abel's latest move was to call up center Pete Mahovlich Friday from the Wings' farm club at Fort Worth, Tex., in the Central League.

PLAY HAWKS

Abel said the 21-year-old younger brother of Toronto left wing Frank Mahovlich will join the team for tonight's game against the Chicago Black Hawks at Olympia.

Mahovlich, with 19 goals in 41 games, is the leading scorer for Fort Worth. He saw action with the Wings in three games in January.

* * *

"What has hurt us most," Abel said, "is not being able to win."

In an effort to shake the slump, Abel sent forward Doug Roberts and defensemen Howie Young and Irv Spencer to Fort Worth, replacing them with rookie defenseman Bob Falkenberg and left wing Nick Libett.

* * *

"We've played well since the changes," Abel said. "But all we've been able to show for it is two ties in three games.

"I don't know what we'll do about Prentice. Our farm club at Fort Worth is shorthanded. Toronto asked us about a deal for Jim Pappin last week. Maybe we can work something out."

BRIEF SLUMP

Detroit moved quickly into the East Division lead early in the season and held on to first place until a brief slump in early November so unnerved former All-Star goalie Roger Crozier that he went into a retirement.

Crozier said he no longer could take the pressure of playing goal after giving up 18 goals in three games.

* * *

"I don't think the loss of Crozier hurt us too much," Abel said. "Roy Edwards came up from Fort Worth and did a real good job. Our defense hurt us most of all."

The Detroit defense has been a trouble spot ever since Doug Barkley lost an eye in a game accident which ended his playing career two years ago.

The Wings have only two dependable back liners, Gary Bergman and Kent Douglas, who was acquired in a deal with Oakland about a month ago.

THREE ROOKIES

The other defensemen, Falkenberg, Bart Crashley and Jim Watson, all are rookies.

With 182 goals, the Wings have one of the strongest offenses in the league, second only to Boston with 193 goals. But the Detroit defense has given up a National Hockey League high of 179 goals.

The Wings must play nine of their last 19 games against the top three clubs in the east, Montreal, Chicago and Boston.

"If we hope to make the playoffs, we'll have to beat them," says Abel. "It's as simple as that."

St. Louis Blues Sing Happy Tune

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Blues weren't blue by any means against the Pittsburgh Penguins.

They whipped the Penguins 3-1 in the National Hockey League Friday night, snapping Pittsburgh's four-game unbeaten streak on home ice. In addition the victory moved the Blues into the fourth and last playoff spot in the West Division.

Los Angeles routed Philadelphia 7-1 in the other NHL game and tied Minnesota for second place in the West. Los Angeles and Minnesota each have 53 points, five behind first place Philadelphia. St. Louis is close behind with 50 points, one ahead of Pittsburgh.

LONG SHOT

Perry Crisp and Jerry Melynk gave St. Louis a 2-0 lead over Pittsburgh before a 50-footer by Andy Bathgate in the second period gave the Pengueins their lone tally. Bill McCreary batted the last St. Louis goal into an empty Pittsburgh net with 19 seconds left to play.

Duncan McCallum, Pittsburgh defenseman, suffered a back injury in a collision with Barclay Plager and was hospitalized. The extent of the injury was not announced.

Tech Blanks Michigan Six; Spartans Win

By The Associated Press

Michigan Tech maintained pace with Denver in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association Friday night, blanking Michigan 3-0.

Denver shutout North Dakota 7-0 to maintain its half game lead over the Huskies. In other games, Michigan State blitzed Colorado College 7-3 and Minnesota whitewashed Minnesota-Duluth 4-0.

* * *

Tech goalie Gordon McRae kicked out 29 shots in blanking Michigan as teammates Al Karlander, with two goals, and George Bell, with one, supplied the scoring punch.

Netminder Garry Powers of Denver made 20 saves in blanking North Dakota. It was his fourth shutout.

Bob Fallat and Pat Russo each scored twice in MSU's victory over Colorado College.

The All Saints 76's moved into a tie with the B.P.'s in the Pontiac YMCA Men's Basketball League by downing their coleader last night, 47-43.

OSU Cagers Under Pressure

CHICAGO (AP) — The pressure is on pacesetting Ohio State in the precarious Big Ten basketball race today.

Although the Buckeyes 6-2 play at last-place Minnesota (2-7) tonight, they tackle the Gophers at a time when the conference scoring champion, Tom Kondla, is back on the beam and their own star, Bill Hosket, has an ailing knee.

* * *

If Ohio State stumbles, Iowa's persistent Hawkeyes could move into first place with a home victory over dangerous Wisconsin tonight.

Wisconsin and Northwestern, host to Michigan State in a regional TV matinee, are tied for third in the hot conference race, each with a 5-3 mark.

Purdue and Illinois, still in contention with identical 4-3 marks, meet at Champaign, Ill., in another afternoon contest. Michigan (2-6) invades Indiana (2-5) tonight.

SECOND DIVISION

Co-champions Indiana and Michigan State (3-4) now are battling just to climb out of the second division.

With the likelihood of a multiple tie for the title, the Big Ten office Friday explained the playoff rules for a conference berth in the NCAA tournament.

The playoff will be a single game between only two teams. If more than two tie, the team or teams which last went to the NCAA tourney will be eliminated.

* * *

A neutral playoff site would be selected by Commissioner Bill Reed.

* * *

While Buckeye star Hosket has knee trouble, Minnesota's Kondla returned to last season's form in his last four games, averaging 30 points. Hosket now has a 20.4 scoring average, compared with 18.7 for the resurging Kondla.

Indicative of the growing pitfalls in the conference chase, last Monday Wisconsin tripped Ohio State 86-78 for the first Badger triumph over the Bucks in nine meetings, and Tuesday, Minnesota stunned Northwestern 85-80.

'M' Delaying Job Decision

ANN ARBOR (AP)— University of Michigan Regents Friday postponed a decision to name a successor to retiring Athletic Director H.O. "Fritz" Crisler.

Dr. Robben W. Fleming, U-M president, declined to comment on when a successor would be named.

Crisler, 69, plans to retire in June. A committee of faculty, alumni and administrative personnel interviewed eight candidates for the job.

Oxford Falls After Strong First Period

Winless Oxford was no match for high-flying Lutheran East in the middle quarters last night and suffered its 22nd consecutive loss, 87-54.

In posting their 13th victory in a row after an opening loss, the Eagles from Harper Woods dominated the second and third quarters by a 39-11 count.

Oxford stayed with them in the opening period, 22-20, but the winners' depth and balance were too much to overcome.

All 11 Lutheran East players scored and 10 of them had at least one field goal. Dan Danielczyk led the scoring parade with 17 and Dave Sheldon posted 16 as five of the winners were in twin figures.

* * *

Greg Davidson and Dennis Wait hit 13 each for Oxford, who had 10 players enter the scoring column although being outshot from the floor, 33-21.

Garner Shoots From the Lip at 'Bonnie and Clyde' Movie

By EARL WILSON

HOLLYWOOD — If you think "Bonnie and Clyde" is violent, you should hear James Garner get violent about the possibility that "Bonnie and Clyde" might get an Oscar because it's violent.

WILSON

The trend in the Oscar-guessing game is to acknowledge that the Warren Beatty-Faye Dunaway film is one favorite, but Garner gets angry about it. "Everybody knows it's Keystone Cops with some music, but my argument against the picture is that it's amoral," he exploded on the set of "How Sweet It Is" here the other day.

"They have made Bonnie and Clyde, and the John Dillingers and Pretty Boy Floyds some kind of heroes. They were not heroes. They were public enemies. They were space-fillers in the papers when the news was dull.

"When people seeing that picture watch them get killed on the screen and say 'Oh, that's too bad,' somethings gone wrong.

"It's not a true story of our time. They were not just hippies or protesters. They were outlaws, bank robbers and killers, and that's different."

A press agent hearing Garner's comments looked nervous and said, "You're pretty outspoken."

"I'm saying what I feel," Garner nodded. "As bad as Warren Beatty is disliked in this town, the tendency is for people to slap him on the back and say, 'Well, he went out and did it,' and give him a lot of credit."

★ ★ ★

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

It was news to me about Warren being unpopular. I know for a fact that he isn't unpopular with girls.

Anthony Quinn's salary for "Guns of San Sebastian" was $500,000. "I think," he says, "they gave me a dollar for each time I fell off the horse" . . . Yogi Berra, counting his calories at Umberto's, passed up appetizer and dessert — and had two orders of lasagna.

★ ★ ★

Reporters in Rome crowded around Sir Laurence Olivier, at a party for "Shoes of the Fisherman." "You'd think," he said modestly, "I was soon to go out of style" . . . Dancer Johnny Brascia's acting career is spurting—he has a major role in "Bullitt" . . . Playwright Israel Horovitz's "The Indian Wants the Bronx" may attract a film deal; he's writing another, "Brownstone" . . . Mike Patrick, bartender at Jilly's, wedded Ann Smith aboard Jilly's boat in Miami Beach.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "I bet on a horse named 'Schubert's Symphony,'" writes Fran Dibacco, "—and sure enough, he didn't finish."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A superhighway is a road that can make bad manners fatal.

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "The girl who lays all her cards on the table may wind up playing solitaire."

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: "People like Noel Coward, Richard Burton and Peter Ustinov are so charming," says Taffy Tuttle, "—I can't understand why George Washington couldn't get along with the British."

Bob Orben reports there was a badman on "Bonanza" recently who was so ornery that marshals had to be called in from two other networks to handle him . . . That's earl, brother.

Teen Road Safety Aired

Teen-agers' preferences for material for a teen-age traffic safety program were discussed during yesterday's Traffic Safety Committee monthly meeting.

The preferences were called by various members of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce committee at Waterford. Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern high schools.

The Teen-age Traffic Safety Program annually sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce is April 6.

Topics of interest to the students include speed, judging distances, performance of speed governors and braking. Questions about federal standards for safety features, the air pillow, vision and seating also arose.

★ ★ ★

Other topics included vision, with specific questions about driving in fog, bad lighting and standards for obtaining licenses.

An explanation of the implied consent law and its advantages was also requested.

Questions about driver education such as the need for on-the-road experience, state law requirements, and the need for experience in driving on ice or snow also were asked.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

There are 11 Americans in Mollo's list of immortals. We write about American players all the time, so we are only going to mention one of the 11 now.

JACOBY

Norman Kay, who works full time as a stock broker, plays bridge only on weekends and vacations. He has found time to teach his wife enough bridge so that she has become a life master and recently won the Masters Mixed Pair championship with Edgar Kaplan, while Norman looked on proudly and happily.

Norman is a master of correct technique and does his winning by playing straight down the line.

Today's hand is what most experts (particularly those who see the hand later) describe as a laydown for four spades once the nine of clubs is opened. It is, but it takes a real expert to make it at the table. Here is how Norman played it.

East and West were playing intermediate jump overcalls, and Norman decided that East would hold the ace of hearts. This left him with four losers unless he could find some way to bring in the diamond suit without giving West a chance to gain the lead.

Norman started proceedings by rising with dummy's king of clubs. East took his ace and continued the suit whereupon Norman discarded a diamond from his hand.

Then he ruffed the third club with a high trump and played out his ace and king of trumps. When both opponents followed, he played the ace and a king of diamonds and ruffed a third diamond. Since diamonds had been kind enough to break 3-2, he was able to enter dummy with the ten of trumps and discard two of his hearts on the last two diamonds.

What do you do now?

A—Just bid six spades. Your partner may still go to seven and will surely do so if one of his kings is in spades and he holds the queen of clubs.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of responding one diamond, your partner responds one spade to your one club opening. What do you do now?

Rights Bill Backers See Close Cloture Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of embattled civil rights legislation hope to make an impressive showing in a crucial Senate vote Tuesday on whether to impose cloture and cut off debate.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., floor manager of the legislation, and other supporters do not, however, contend they can get the necessary two-thirds majority to cut off debate.

★ ★ ★

Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has taken a stand against cloture, and without his help the move appears to have no chance.

But Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said "We expect to do very well."

He told newsmen that if more than half of the 100 senators vote for cloture, "It wil be decisive evidence that the Senate wants this bill."

The last time the Senate applied the seldom-used rule was in 1965 when, by a vote of 70-30, it cut off debate on a bill to protect Negro voting rights.

★ ★ ★

The bill now before the Senate is designed to provide Negroes and civil rights workers with federal protection against racial violence.

An amendment offered last week would prohibit discrimination in the sale or rental of housing.

SENATORS FILE PETITION

Twenty-nine senators—20 Democrats and 9 Republicans—filed a petition Friday to put an end to the debate that has been going on in desultory fashion since Jan. 18.

Under the rules, the cloture petition will automatically be voted on one hour after the Senate meets on Tuesday. It will take 67 votes to shut off debate if all 100 senators vote.

Hart, expressing hope that supporters of the bill will make a good showing, said that around 60 votes for cloture might convince the leadership not to give up on the legislation.

But he said if there are only about 45 votes for cloture, the civil rights measure no doubt will be shunted aside without another attempt to cut off the debate.

2ND PETITION POSSIBLE

Majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., has said that a second cloture petition probably will be filed if the vote Tuesday is reasonably close.

★ ★ ★

Roy Wilkins, chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, urged senators to resist any attempt to set the bill aside if the cloture move does not succeed Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

"It would only feed the spreading doubt that rights can be won through the democratic process," he said in his statement in behalf of the 115 organizations in the conference.

In September 1966, the Senate twice refused to cut off debate on a House-passed civil rights bill containing provisions similar to those in the present measure.

TWO VOTE SPREADS

The first vote was 54 for and 42 against cloture. The second vote, five days later, was 52 for and 41 against.

Mansfield filed the cloture petition on the pending bill Friday only after his request to vote next Monday or Tuesday on the open housing amendment was blocked by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., spokesman for Southern opponents.

Buttressing the position of the Dixie forces is the anticloture position taken by Dirksen. There is no assurance cloture would succeed even if he threw his weight behind it.

The system would be connected to Pontiac sewer lines. The sewage would be processed in the city's sewer treatment plant.

In other business, the board is expected to appoint a member to the township canvassing board.

★ ★ ★

State Senate OKs Store Tax Repeal

LANSING (AP)—Bills repealing Michigan's chain store tax supplementing state spending by $1.9 million and regulating BB guns and underwater spear guns were on their way to the House today.

The bills were among eight approved by the Senate Friday after lengthy partisan debate on the tax repealer—described by several Democrats as a tax giveaway to big business.

* * *

The tax was described as inequitable and regressive by the bill's supporters, who repealed it 26-7 despite opposition from six Democrats and one Republican.

The appropriations bill, approved 28-3, provides extra money to supplement spending by several state agencies during the current fiscal year.

The measure provides $600,053 for higher education, including $402,822 for construction of a maintenance and storage building at Saginaw Valley College.

Two bills, approved unanimously, apply to the use of BB guns, underwater spear guns and other weapons.

* * *

One forbids any person under 21 from using or possessing any handgun which fires BBs exceeding .177 caliber, regardless of the means of propulsion.

The law now applies only to guns that use spring, gas or air as a means of propulsion.

WOULD EXPAND LAW

Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, said the revision would expand the law to cover newly developed guns propelled by spring steel bands and plastic caps.

The second bill expands the definition of firearms to include any weapon from which a dangerous projectile may be propelled by using explosives, gas, air or other means.

* * *

Richardson said the measure would bring such weapons as underwater spearguns and homemade zip guns under regulation.

Such weapons would not require registration, he said, but would be included in regulations applying to use of a weapon by an intoxicated person, accidental discharge of a weapon and carrying of a firearm with unlawful intent.

MEANT TO DISCOURAGE

Supporters of repeal of the chain store tax said it was enacted in 1933 as a means of discouraging establishment of such stores in Michigan.

Chain stores owners presently are required to buy licenses—the cost of which is determined by the number of stores operated—and also are required to license individual counters in their stores.

* * *

Sen. Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, said the consumer currently is charged more because of the tax, adding that he believed the saving would be passed on to the consumer if the tax is repealed.

DeMaso, chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee, said repeal of the tax could be followed by the repeal of other "inequitable" taxes on the law books.

OPPOSED BY LEVIN

The bill was opposed by Sen. Sander Levin, D-Berkley, who argued that the action would give $456,000 in tax relief to 39 companies.

That is not a boon for small stores," Levin said, "it is a tax break for large businesses."

"Let's be frank and blunt," he added. "Only 21 per cent of the break being given to commerce would go to small businesses. Close to 80 per cent would go to large concerns."

"I agree it (the tax) is not equitable," said Sen. Roger Craig, D-Dearborn, "but it seems to me we ought to meet the greatest needs first."

He accused the taxation committee of "abusing its authority" and the majority Republican party of "abusing its position," and described the repealer as "an indication of Republican priorities."

Other bills approved included measures which would:

- Authorize townships to spend money for tourist and products advertisement.
- Transfer fence-viewing duties from justice of the peace to two township trustees.
- Provide for examination of cash on hand in the state treasurer's office every 30 days by the state auditor general.
- Provide for the annual fixing of drain commissioners' salaries.

Home Reminiscent of an Era Long Past

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

If the mid-18th-century two-story belonging to the George Foxes of Birmingham could talk, it would tell a tale beginning with ground-sweeping gowns and tree-shaded lanes advancing to miniskirts and traffic problems. Reminiscent of the era long past are the cutwork accents on the home's gleaming white exterior.

Typical of the time, three porches welcome visitors to the home.

Setting the background theme in the television room are sand-beige walls and a blending high twist carpeting. The flocked white sheers hanging from the high windows resemble the curtains used in the period.

"Most of the furniture in our home," said Mrs. Fox, "has been handed down through the family. I've done some antique shopping but comparatively little."

* * *

An antique velvet sofa with an intricately carved rosewood base dominates the television room. A fruit arrangement in a hurricane glass container adds a bright touch of color on the coffee table serving the sofa.

Continuing the Victorian approach is the formal living room or parlor. The window sheers and the walls match that of the adjoining television room with the wide-planked floors reflecting the well-waxed patina of age and careful care.

On either side of a cherry one-drawered table are an oval-back armchair covered in pale blue antique velvet and a serpentine-back enclosed arm sofa in a diminutive rose print on pale blue.

Another oval-back arm chair, upholstered to match the sofa, is found before the niche at the opposite end of the room. An electrified brass and milk glass lamp lights the area from its position on adjacent nested tables.

Wedding pictures of the Foxes' two daughters share places of honor on the niche with heirloom china pieces. Mounted on black velvet on either side of the display are pictures of the Foxes' grandchildren.

Shutters in the nearby dining room allow light to enter but give the feeling of privacy. Louvered doors open off the dining room into a conveniently arranged den.

An electrified brass and crystal prism lantern centers the ceiling and lights the formal drop-leaf dining table adorned by a silver candelebrum.

Try Amaryllis for Fast Color

Amaryllis are just about the easiest house plants to grow. Anybody can get them to flower in a few weeks about this time of year. First you buy a good, fat bulb, especially one with a fat neck or a fat flower bud already peeking out, from your local garden store.

Then you take a pot only an inch or two wider across than the bulb at its widest point. The pot can be plastic, clay or ceramic — it doesn't matter which.

Next fill the pot to within one inch of the top with any good, prepared house plant mixture. Into this place the bulb, round end down and leaving at least two-thirds of the bulb sticking up out of the soil.

Now water the soil moderately well and set the pot in a cool, dark place for the roots to grow and then for the flower bud to come out of the bulb. If the place is too warm the flower comes out too soon, before the roots are well established, which cheats the flower out of its needed nourishment.

When the stem is 6 or more inches long set the plant in a sunny window continuing to water whenever it appears necessary. The plants may come into flower in as little as 3 weeks from planting and certainly not too much later. Four bloom are normal. If you are lucky another stem may then appear with more flowers.

After the flowers are gone cut off the flower stem but leave the leaves. Continue to water and feed the plant like any other house plant.

When danger of frost is past take shovel or fork and prepare a spot in your garden, enriching the soil well. Then take the plant out of its pot and set it into the soil — at the same height.

By fall it should have stored up enough food to flower again.

After the first frost nips the leaves, dig the bulb up, take it in, dry it off, and store it in a warm place for 8 to 12 weeks or more. Then it should be ready to force into bloom again.

SMALL ROOM — Compact, but with comfort in the grand manner, this tiny bedroom uses wall-to-wall carpeting — a handsome green shag gives the illusion of spaciousness. Although the small open area leading to a patio is bound to get more than its share of traffic, the sturdy Du Pont nylon resists signs of wearing, and is easily spot-cleaned.

Humidifier Eases Dry Air Woes

Knives are not for opening jars nor are large screw drivers safe to use on small screw heads.

When the air in a house or room is heated, its moisture-retaining capacity is increased. Therefore, the warm air tends to draw moisture from furniture, walls and you and your complexion.

Many authorities believe that by raising the humidity in a room and thereby keeping your nasal passages moist, the humidifier may help to prevent conditions that can bring on colds.

During the winter heating season, the dry air we breathe breaks down the process through which mucus passes down into the throat, carrying with it bacteria, dust and other foreign matter, eventually to pass out of the body. The normal, moist linings dry out, and the mucus doesn't travel out of the body. Bacteria stay in the nose to incubate and perhaps infect the nasal passages.

★ ★ ★

But the possible benefits of the portable, room humidifier in preventing colds are perhaps outweighed by its many other advantages.

Above all, the room humidifier relieves discomfort — the discomfort of dry, heated rooms — by adding moisture to the air in the form of cool droplets. It prevents that awful, stuffy feeling many persons wake up with, the result of drying up of the nasal passages.

It keeps both the complexion and furniture, plants and precious objects from "drying up."

Finally, humidification will save home heating costs by providing a proper level of moisture in the air. Less heat will be required because your skin will not feel as dry and you won't feel as cold.

Some physicians, incidentally, recommend the "cool steam" portable room humidifier for treatment of certain respiratory conditions.

There's a simple test for determining if your baby's room needs a humidifier. Drop three ice cubes into a clean water glass and then add water. Stir If, after three minutes, there is no moisture on the outside of the glass, the room needs humidification.

Clara B. Ford Garden Forum

Something new has been added to this year's Clara B. Ford Garden Forum coming up April 24, 25 and 26 in the Henry Ford Museum at Greenfield Village. It's a preview of new flower varieties, including many of the 1968 All-America winners Greenhouse growers across the country are now forcing annuals into bloom for this special display.

In addition there is a new roster of outstanding horticulturists who will speak on a wide variety of garden subjects. Altogether there will be weight lectures — six are scheduled for morning, two for evening.

Speakers include Dr. P. P. Pirone, plant pathologist from the New York Botanical Garden, who will discuss plant diseases and how to control them; Barbara Emerson, of Ambler, Pa., who will show the backyard gardener what one can do in a small space with little time and money; Robert Wintz, executive director, of the Chicago Horticultural Society, whose enthusiasm and subject is annuals; James Fowler, naturalist and director of education for Greenfield Village, who will illustrate, "Our Heritage of National Beauty."

Tea discussions are scheduled for afternoons, and here those who attend the forum will have a chance to quiz and converse with the experts.

★ ★ ★

There will be special tours of Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum, a nature walk through the Village wildlife area, a dried flower arranging demonstration, reception and banquet.

WINTER BREAK

Garden clubs throughout the five-state area are now scheduling a three-day garden party for the late April forum to see daffodils, hyacinths and tulips announce the arrival of Spring at Greenfield Village. Nearby Dearborn Inn is serving as headquarters for many of these groups.

Forum registration for a group is $18.25 per person and includes eight lectures, tea discussions, early morning nature walk, special afternoon tours of the Museum and Village, dried flower arranging demonstration, reception and banquet.

For the first time there is a special group rate available for garden club members (or just a group of interested greenthumbers who wish to attend together).

There are also now in effect special husband-and-wife forum registration rates, $35.00.

Arrangements to attend may be made through your local travel agent or by contacting the Travel and Convention department, office of public relations, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, Dearborn, Michigan, 48124.

At the same time, sanding the top edges of the drawers with fine sandpaper and applying furniture wax will prevent roughness of wood from snagging delicate fabrics.

Do-It-Yourself to Save Money

Adding a new bedroom and bath to a home can cost as much as $5,000 or as little as a few hundred dollars.

★ ★ ★

The latter is possible if you install a vinyl asbestos tile floor in an attached garage or attic, put paint on the walls, and add new fixtures yourself.

Tile Patterns

The manufacturers of vinyl asbestos tile are now producing patterns with clearer, truer colors than was possible when the product was introduced in the early 50's.

Will Home Building Get a Shot in Arm?

By JAMES L. SRODES
UPI Feature Writer

President Johnson's pledge to build 6 million units of housing for low and middle-income families in the next 10 years—with 300,000 next year alone—could be the biggest thing in the home building industry's history.

If the promise is fulfilled.

The presidential call for better housing asserted: "We must make it possible for thousands of families to become homeowners, not rent payers."

But in order to match this goal, the push for more housing units must take in all phases of homebuilding: private homes, public projects and the question of interest rates.

The problem is a formidable one. If solved, it could take the homebuilder out of the role of first to be hurt and last to heal whenever the domestic economy gets into trouble.

A look at the past may provide the best insights into the future as viewed by the president. According to Johnson's State of the Union message, only 535,000 units of public housing have been built in this country in the last 10 years.

By the end of fiscal 1968 next June 30 only 900,000 units of public housing will have been built from the first public housing law in 1937 to date.

To go from that to 6 million units in 10 years is going to take some doing. The administration's housing program, which will be going to Congress this month, will be scrutinized closely by everyone connected with home building.

Administration officials say they forsee no drastic changes in policy or in how the housing units will be financed and built. They predict business as usual, just faster and more of it. The question is whether it can be accelerated that fast.

At present there are four basic types of federally-assisted housing — traditionally low-rent housing;; the new rent supplement programs; below-market interest rate programs and housing projects for the elderly. Actually, these four categories only utilize two forms of assistance, however.

One is where by lowering the cost to the builder — through construction grants and low interest mortgage payments—the rent is lowered. The other allocates funds to the individual rent payer to supplement his own ability to meet the charges.

★ ★ ★

The key to any drastic increase in housing unit production, therefore, will have to include a drastic increase in the congressional authorization for housing programs.

$500 MILLION

This authorization for the past four years has allowed the administration to spend up to $500 million a year.

Administration officials will not even hazard a guess at the moment on how much this increase might be.

They point out that the federal government does not come close to providing all the $15,000 the average housing unit costs in today's market.

Defective Land Titles Cause Woe

Lincoln's Father Not a Shrewd Businessman

As every schoolboy knows, Abraham Lincoln, whose 159th birthday we celebrate this week, had a childhood of dire poverty. And the history books often repeat the false story that Abraham Lincoln's father, Thomas, was a shiftless never-do-well, who according to Author William V. Thayer, writing in 1863, sold the family farm for "ten barrels of whiskey and $20 in money."

Alvin R. Robin, president of the American Land Title Association points out that new research on Lincoln's boyhood, conducted by historian Lewis A. Warren, flatly disproves this slur on Lincoln's father, written by a hostile author, and uncritically reprinted in many history books.

Have the history books been unfair to Lincoln's father? Warren believes they have. Here is the evidence of a fascinating and little-known chapter in Lincoln's life:

Except for defective land titles, Abraham Lincoln, born in Kentucky, might have remained a Kentuckian all his life — and American history might have been drastically changed.

Three times, Abraham Lincoln's father, Thomas Lincoln, bought farms in Kentucky — and each time he had legal difficulties with the title to the farm he thought he owned.

In the famous biography which Abraham Lincoln prepared on his life while a candidate for President in 1860, the 16th President wrote:

"From this place (Knob Creek Farm) he (Thomas Lincoln) removed to what is now Spencer County, Indiana, in the autumn of 1816, Abraham then being in his eighth year. This removal was partly on account of slavery, but chiefly on account of the difficulty in land titles."

Historian Warren, defending the reputation of Lincoln's father, wrote:

"Thomas Lincoln secured titles to three farms which he purchased in good faith. The first one, when he came to sell it, had lost 39 acres and represented a loss to him of 18 pounds. The second farm he bought for cash and a small obligation.

"He later learned that the obligation was larger than had been represented and the holder of the title demanded money instead of merchandise such as the agreement called for . . . The third tract he purchased . . . he lost through a suit of ejectment . . . These land transactions were enough to make a man seek a country where he could be sure of a good title, and Thomas Lincoln had come to the conclusion that Indiana offered such an opportunity."

Historian Warren's conclusion: "Thomas Lincoln of Hardin County in 34 years in Kentucky has not one black mark against his name."

Robin, who is also president of the Guaranty Title Company, Tampa, Florida, in pointing to this important but almost unknown bit of Lincoln history, notes that it was from experiences such as Lincoln's father suffered that the important American industry of insuring land titles has grown.

There is an important moral, even for readers today. Hidden hazards may attach to real estate. Forgeries, faulty surveys, hidden liens, conveyances by a minor or mentally-incompetent person, the false representation of ownership or of a married person as being single — these and many more may cloud the title to land. And not even a complete search of all the land records may reveal them.

Kentucky's "Lincoln Country" is today one of the most fascinating and enjoyable of tourist attractions. The Sinking Spring Farm, near Hodgenville, where Abraham Lincoln was born, and where Thomas Lincoln paid $200 for a faulty title to 300 acres of land, is now a National Park.

At the Visitors' Center operated by the National Park Service, the fascinating saga of the Lincoln family's wanderings in Kentucky — because of defective land titles — is told in a free color slide film. It is an interesting lesson in history.

* * *

Many other intimate reminders of the Lincoln family remain in Kentucky. Lincoln spoke affectionately of the Bluegrass State all his life. But his family left for Indiana, where, at that time, deeds to land were more reliable because of a federal land survey.

The American Land Title Association has prepared a small leaflet discussing the land troubles of Lincoln's family . . . and the lesson it carries for home owners today. It is available, free, upon request, by writing to the association at 1725 Eye St. N.W., Washington, D.C., 20006.

Modern Mining Town Built in New Mexico

Just about everything is unfinished at Tyrone. But give it time; after all, it is a town being built all at once.

Tyrone is to be a company town for Phelps Dodge Copper Corp. in the hills of southern New Mexico not far from Silver City.

When the company goes into full-scale mining operations nearby in 1969, the approximately $5 million town will be humming.

Its homes, 183 of them in three and four-bedroom styles, are laid out in gently curving streets in a kidney-shaped development faced by a cluster of offices and stores.

It all covers a 60-acre plot of land.

* * *

At the site of a new mining operation a few miles away there is another story of a town grown up overnight.

* * *

The original Tyrone was also a mining town for Phelps Dodge, in the years 1917-1921. When the mine closed, the town did, too.

. . . In Rochester Country!

University Hills

. . . two "Common Areas"

The successful design of Thompson-Brown's nationally-praised Canterbury Commons was the inspiration for its new home community, University Hills. And here, also, you'll find two lovely green common areas established for the enjoyment of residents and their children. There's a half-mile pathway for walking, bicycle riding and roller skating. Two child play modules with equipment for younger children and a large picnic shelter with built-in bar-b-q are additional features. University Hills with its Commons is something extra-special. Come see . . . this weekend, for sure!

SIMPLE HARMONY: Although of contemporary design, this house is not "far out." It combines wood and stone in a pleasing blend of materials and color, giving it an air of quiet distinction and making it a welcome addition to any neighborhood.

Modern Two-Story With Railed Balcony

Contemporary form and detail have been utilized to produce a simple but effective exterior for this four-bedroom, two-story house.

An immediate, eye-catching feature is a railed balcony across the front and accessible from the master bedroom on the second floor.

(See Page C-6, for Z-28 Floor Plans.)

Next to it is a projecting front bay, accented by vertical boards to bring over-all balance to the design.

★ ★ ★

Moving inside we find a conventional floor plan which, however, includes many of the features that the architect, Herman H. York, tells us he finds in demand throughout the country. A few of these are:

- A well-designed front door with covered entry.
- A spacious foyer with open handrail stair.
- An immediate long view of the living room with a fireplace centered on the far wall.
- A kitchen with a U-shaped counter and a broom closet.
- An eating area for breakfast and afternoon coffee and snacks, with a view of the rear yard or terrace.
- A family room, designated on the floor plans as a rumpus room, with a fireplace and raised hearth visible from the kitchen and coffee area.
- Sliding glass doors from the rumpus room to the rear terrace, easily accessible from the kitchen for outdoor dining.
- A service complex between the kitchen and garage, including a laundry room for a clothes washer and dryer, plus a built-in ironing board. In the same area, a washup toilet, mud closet and storage for games and outdoor toys.
- An oversized two-car garage that includes about 90 square feet of storage space for garden tools and other equipment.

And, on the second floor:

- A large sitting room adjacent to the master bedroom and including another fireplace and raised hearth.
- A big walk-in closet, plus a smaller closet.
- A split bath, enabling dual use of facilities. This bath and features 1 and 2 combine for a huge master suite for the owners.
- A balcony accessible from the master suite through two doors.
- A giant walk-in linen closet in the bedroom hall.
- A second split hall bathroom.
- Three additional bedrooms.

Returning to the first floor, we note an extra room just to the left of the front foyer. Designated as a study, this room, with its own closet, can be used for any one of a number of things.

It could be a den for the husband, a sewing room for the wife, a homework area for the children or perhaps a combination of all three.

It might also be utilized as a guest room or, if the family's needs dictate, as a regular fifth bedroom.

A good solid home best describes this latest House of the Week.

Z-28 STATISTICS

Design Z-28 has a living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, rumpus or family room, study and foyer on the first floor, totaling 1207 square feet. On the same floor is a laundry area, lavatory and two-car garage with a giant storage area. There are four bedrooms, a fireplaced sitting room and two bathrooms on the second floor, totaling 1248 square feet. The over-all dimensions are 65' by 31' 2". The plans call for a full basement below the main portion of the house.

Floor Coverings Swing to Color

Floor coverings are going to be bolder from now on. Decorators have switched their affections from beiges and neutral shades to warm, bright colors.

The new patterns available in vinyl asbestos tile are created to fit right in with the designers bolder decorating schemes.

How to Build, Buy or Sell Your Home

Full study plan information on this architect-designed House of the Week is included in a 50-cent baby blueprint. With it in hand you can obtain a contractor's estimate.

New Sink Is Hostess Aid

A "waterless" sink may be just the answer to your living room or family room entertainment problems. "Waterless" because no plumbing connections are involved, it's a compartment sunk into a buffet counter and lined with ceramic tile to make it suitable for icing beverages or food.

A stoppered drain empties into a removable container underneath.

Association President Voices Optimism on Home Industry

Gilbert B. Silverman, president of the 800-member Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, voiced cautious optimism for the home construction industry shortly before the opening of the year's biggest housing spectacular — the 1968 Home, Furniture and Flower Show at Cobo Hall. The show runs from today through Feb. 25.

"Our sources of information in Washington (the National Association of Home Builders) are predicting a dip in the outlook for a larger housing output in 1968. Their predictions are based upon a survey of 100 major cities since the first of the year."

"On the basis of the findings in this survey, and from reports by local builders, I believe the home-building year will fall short of the 1.4 million mark nationally. Production of homes and apartments in 1967 was approximately 1.3 million units.

"The average builder who responded to a recent questionnaire reported that he had expected to build 51 single-family houses and 28 apartment units last year. By contrast, the outlook for 1968 is for expansion to 61 houses and 49 apartment units per builder."

The association which Silverman heads is one of the nation's largest among NAHB's 444 local affiliates.

GOOD YEAR

"If we can control some of the things that are involved, like manpower and the availability of mortgage money for home and apartment construction, with interest rates allowed to fluctuate so that big investors will be encouraged to participate in home and apartment financing, I believe 1968 will be one of the better years in the home construction business in the Detroit metropolitan area," continued Silverman.

As for the Cobo Hall Home, Furniture and Flower Show, Silverman added that the BAMD and other sponsors expected the ten-day exhibition to generate some $30 millions in new business for home and apartment builders and suppliers of the hundreds of products that go into the construction of homes — everything from keys to kilowatts.

"Next to the automotive industry," said Silverman, "ours is the biggest employer of skilled labor and the best source of paychecks for workers in all the trades and skills in the entire metropolitan area.

We anticipate upward of a half million people to visit our Cobo Hall show and be encouraged to beautify and improve their homes and to begin the exciting experience of owning a home or an apartment."

Tile Full Wall in Bathroom

If you're planning to remodel or add a bathroom, consider tiling all of each wall.

★ ★ ★

The cost will not be very much, if anything, more than installing a wainscot which involves expensive pieces of trim tile as well as extra fitting and cutting labor.

★ ★ ★

And a full ceramic tile wall will bring a lifetime reward in easy maintenance.

Before Painting Roughen Enamel

If you're adding a new coat of paint to a surface that still gleams with a former coat of enamel, sand the glossy areas to roughen slightly.

This will provide better anchorage for your coating. Dust off any loose particles of sand and enamel that remain.

Bible Boosts Man's Years

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — The Bible came in handy to prove the age of David W. Stillman Sr., who was born into slavery in Mississippi.

Stillman has been living with relatives who were planning his 97th birthday celebration.

When news of the birthday party got to Leland, Miss., word came back fast to St. Louis that the family Bible showed it was Stillman's 102nd birthday—not 97th.

OU Sets Up Scholarship to Honor 1st Negro Grad

Oakland University yesterday established a scholarship fund in honor of its first Negro graduate, Isaac Jones, killed two weeks ago at a Pontiac gas station with a blast from a shotgun.

The scholarship will be awarded annually to a promising Negro student in the community, beginning in the fall of 1969, according to University Chancellor Durward B. Varner.

Varner announced the creation of the memorial scholarship at an assembly of students attending an address by economist and educator John Kenneth Galbraith.

Jones' wife, parents, brothers and sisters, were among the guests.

Jones, 26, of 476 Thors was fatally shot Feb. 3 during a reported argument with Robert Jones, an attendant employed at the Clark Service Station, 157 Auburn.

EXAM TUESDAY

Charged with first-degree murder, Jones, 41, of 390 S. East Blvd., is scheduled to appear for his preliminary examination in Pontiac Municipal Court Tuesday. He is in the Oakland County Jail.

"It may be that his tragic death has served to turn a harsh and brilliant spotlight on the overriding social problem in the history of our nation," said Varner.

"To be sure, the problem was known and talked about," he said, "No one could be unaware of its existence. But now there is no turning away from it."

★ ★ ★

Varner said the event may be the stimulus that will bring together the leaders of thought and action in the area "and inspire them — all of them — black and white alike — to put aside hostility and prejudice, and move in an orderly process toward a just and equitable solution to the persistent evils basic to our malaise."

After receiving his degree in psychology in April 1965, Jones joined the staff of the Oakland County Department of Social Welfare, where he was employed at the time of his death.

Woman Is Robbed of $11 at Gunpoint

A Pontiac woman reported to police she was robbed of $11 at gunpoint near her home yesterday evening.

Dorothy Rabaja of 244 Victory said she was stopped about 7:55 p.m. near an alley at 667 Victory by a man wielding a pistol.

★ ★ ★

She said she attempted to run away, but the bandit told her to stop or he would shoot. He took a purse containing $11 and fled to a nearby car, she said.

Man Charged With Assault on City Barber

Pontiac police arrested Julius E. Alexander, 32, of 449 Linda Vista last night, minutes after he allegedly hit a barber in the face with a revolver.

Freddie B. Harrison, 22, said the man entered his barber shop at Sanford and W. Wilson about 6:48 p.m. with a German Shepherd dog.

★ ★ ★

Harrison said he told him to take the dog out of the shop. The man left with the dog, put it in his car, then came back into the shop with a loaded revolver, Harrison said.

He said the man hit him with the vevolver.

★ ★ ★

Police arrested Alexander about 7:15 p.m., acting on a description of his car. He is being charged with assault.

Man, 31, Charged in S.C. Strangling

GAFFNEY, S.C. (AP) — A 31-year-old textile worker was held at the State Department of Corrections in Columbia today, charged with the slaying of a teen-age girl. Police said he also would be charged in the strangling of another teen-age girl and a young woman.

★ ★ ★

Lee Roy Martin of Gaffney was arrested Friday at the mill where he works. He was charged with the murder of Opal Dianne Buckson, 15, whose nude body was found covered with brush in a wooded rural area earlier Friday.

The girl was abducted at a school bus stop Tuesday morning.

★ ★ ★

Lt. C. L McKinnon of the State Law Enforcement Division said Martin also will be charged with the slaying of Mrs. Nancy Carol Parris, 20, and Nancy Christine Rinehart, 14, both of Gaffney. Their nude, strangled bodies were found Feb. 8.

'SAME MAN'

"I am satisfied he is the same man who killed the other two women," McKinnon said.

Managing Editor Bill Gibbons of the Gaffney Ledger was directed to the two bodies by an anonymous caller. The caller phoned a second time, saying he was a "psycho and might kill again." Residents lived in a state of fear after the calls.

★ ★ ★

The morning after the second call Miss Buckson, a Negro, was abducted. Martin is white, as were the two other victims.

Miss Buckson was stabbed twice in addition to being strangled. Officers said she apparently was killed shortly after the abduction.

★ ★ ★

The anonymous caller also mentioned the strangulation death last May of Mrs. Annie Lucille Dedmond, 34, of Forest City, N.C. Her husband, Roger Z. Dedmond, 27, was convicted of manslaughter and is serving an 18-year term.

Wicked Bottles Left in Break-In

Police investigating a break-in of the Franklin Elementary School this morning found two pop bottles full of fuel oil with cotton wicks sticking out.

Officers said the bottles were left at the school, but no attempt was made to light them.

★ ★ ★

The break-in was discovered about 1:30 a.m.

A window was broken to enter the main office area, where drawers were rifled, police said.

Youths to Play

INTERLOCHEN (AP) —The National Music Camp's World Youth Symphony Orchestra is scheduled to perform July 27-28 at the Ravinia Festival near Chicago. The 100 members of the touring orchestra represent the top high school players enrolled at the music camp, including some from foreign lands.

Almost 16.5 million trucks and buses are registered in the United States.

Gang Terrorizes Pontiac Woman, Takes Her Purse

A gang of youths terrorized a Pontiac woman and stole her purse last night as she was waiting to pick up her children from an extracurricular activity at Robert Frost school, she told police.

Mrs. Jeane Stickney of 33 S. Francis said she was parked in front of the entrance to the school about 9 p.m. when a large gang of youths came out of the school.

★ ★ ★

The youths, judged to be about junior high school age, surrounded her car, hitting and kicking it and breaking off two mirrors and an aerial, she said.

One of the youths opened the door of her car and snatched her purse, contained $25 cash, she said.

—Junior Editors Quiz on— NITROGEN

QUESTION: Why is nitrogen so important?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Air seems so light and free that at times it is hard to believe it is a definite thing. Yet this seemingly light, invisible thing is of absolute importance to us. Without air, a person could not live for more than 10 minutes.

The block at lower right shows the main elements of the air and their proportions. As you see, nitrogen is the largest component of the air. So, if air is so important, nitrogen is vitally important too.

We all have nitrogen in the protoplasm or living material which is in our bodies. This substance is also extremely important to plants; farmers often enrich their fields by adding fertilizers rich in nitrogen.

Oxygen is the gas found in the next largest proportion in air. Oxygen unites with other chemical substances to create oxidation, or burning. It is the oxygen we take in from the air which unites with the food we eat, creating heat inside our bodies, without which we could not live.

Various other gases make up the rest of the air, which also carries minute particles of water vapor and dust.

OFFICIAL NOTICE OF SALE
$1,000,000.00
BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS,
OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN,
MOTOR VEHICLE HIGHWAY FUND REVENUE NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of Motor Vehicle Highway Fund Revenue Notes, to be issued by the County of Oakland, State of Michigan, of the par value of $1,000,000, will be received by the undersigned at the office of the Oakland County Board of County Road Commissioners, 2420 Pontiac Lake Road, Pontiac, Michigan until 11:00 o'clock A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on Tuesday, the 27th day of February 1968, at which time said bids will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated as of February 1, 1968; will be numbered consecutively in the direct order of their maturity from 1 upwards; will be in such denomination or denominations (in multiples of $5,000) as shall be specified by the original purchaser; will bear interest from their date at a rate or rates not exceeding 5% per annum, expressed in multiples of ⅛ or 1/20 of 1% or any combination thereof, payable on August 1, 1968, and semi-annually thereafter on February 1 and August 1 of each year; will be due and payable in five (5) equal annual installments of principal, in the amount of $200,000 each, on August 1 in each of the years 1969 through 1973 (without option of prior redemption); and will be payable as to both principal and interest at such bank or trust company, qualified under the statutes of the United States of America or the State of Michigan to serve as paying agent, as shall be designated by the original purchaser (subject to approval by the Board of County Road Commissioners). Interest due semiannually on the notes shall, if so requested by the original purchaser, be evidenced by coupons attached to the notes. The interest on any one note shall be at one rate only and, if coupons are employed, shall be represented by only one coupon for each coupon period, and all notes maturing in the same year shall carry the same rate of interest. Accrued interest to the date of delivery of the notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

The notes are to be issued under the provisions of Act No. 143, Michigan Public Acts of 1943, as amended, for the purpose of financing the construction, improvement, maintenance and repair of highways, and will not be general obligations of Oakland County or its Board of County Road Commissioners but will be payable, as to both principal and interest, solely from future revenues derived from state-collected taxes (i.e., from the Motor Vehicle Highway Funds) returned to the County of Oakland for County road purposes. For the prompt payment of such principal and interest when due, the said future revenues have been pledged in amounts sufficient for such purposes, which pledge is nevertheless—

(a) Subject to the priority of pledges of such future revenues made by the County of Oakland under contracts with the Michigan State Highway Commissioner, pursuant to Act No. 205, Michigan Public Acts of 1941, as amended, for payment of contributions to the state for the purpose of financing the County's portion of the cost of constructing the Farmington-Brighton Expressway and the Northwestern Expressway, the highest total amount of such contributions which is payable in any of the years 1968 through 1973 being $105,000.

(b) On a parity with the pledge of such future revenues made by the County of Oakland for the payment of the principal of and the interest on its Motor Vehicle Highway Fund Bonds, dated January 1, 1962, which are presently outstanding in the principal sum of $4,915,000, the highest total amount of such principal and interest which is payable in any of the calendar years 1968 through 1973 being $409,962.50.

(c) On a parity with any pledges of such future revenues which may be made by the County of Oakland for the payment of the principal of and the interest on any bonds or notes which may hereafter be issued or any contractual obligations which may hereafter be incurred by the County within statutory authorizations and limitations.

For the purpose of awarding the notes, the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from March 1, 1968 to their respective maturities and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the Board of County Road Commissioners. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes, or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $20,000 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the County Treasurer of the County of Oakland must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the notes. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of the unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Dickinson, Wright, McKean & Cudlip, attorneys, Detroit, Michigan, approving the legality of the notes. The cost of said legal opinion will be paid by the Board of County Road Commissioners. There will also be furnished the usual closing papers, including a nonlitigation certificate, dated as of the date of delivery of the notes. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. The notes will be delivered at Detroit, Michigan, or at such other place as may be agreed upon between the said Board and the purchaser.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids. Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes."

Searchers Hunt Trio Missing in Fierce U.P. Blizzard

By The Associated Press

Search parties hunted today for three men missing since yesterday as a fierce blizzard raged through Upper Michigan, closing roads and highways.

Rescue teams searched near Marquette for Roy Anderson, 40; William Anderson, 31; and Lee Westphal, 29, of Marquette.

The trio was reported missing yesterday afternoon after taking two snowmobiles out for a ride. The blizzard sprang up while they were out, with winds up to 50 miles an hour.

The temperature dropped to 11 below zero overnight. The men's car was found at an intersection of two county roads, six miles southwest of Marquette near K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base.

★ ★ ★

Two tractor-like snowmobiles from the Air Force base joined in the search.

STRONG WINDS

Winds gusted up to 55 miles an hour in other sections of Upper Michigan.

Highway crews at Newberry retreated with their equipment in the face of the storm, one of the worst this season.

The Houghton County Road Commission abandoned efforts to keep secondary roads open to traffic in the Keweenaw Peninsula jutting into Lake Superior.

State Police said most roads were choked with snow from Menominee in extreme western Upper Michigan to Sault Ste. Marie in the eastern section.

COLD WAVE

At the same time, a cold wave gripped all of Lower Michigan.

The Weather Bureau issued travelers warnings in all of western Lower Michigan. High winds and snow showers were combining to clog major highways and secondary roads.

★ ★ ★

The mercury is expected to drop tonight to lows of 10 below to 15 below in northwest Lower Michigan and zero to 10 below in the rest of the Lower Peninsula.

12 Are Killed in Missouri as Man Sets Bar on Fire

MOBERLY, Mo. (AP) — Witnesses say a man entered a crowded tavern yesterday, sloshed gasoline around, threw a lighted match and ran out. Twelve persons were killed in a frantic attempt to escape the blast of flame.

★ ★ ★

Clifford Ralzone, Randolph County prosecutor, said a murder charge would be lodged against William Edward Coleman, 36, ex-convict who police said gave himself up at headquarters after the fire.

Police said the 12 victims piled up at the back door, which they couldn't open. Four persons — two men, a woman and her baby — got out the front door.

"I simply don't understand it," moaned the bewildered proprietor, Ray Curtis, who opened the small tavern just a week ago. "I thought Coleman was my friend."

In fact, Curtis said, Coleman helped clean up the place for the opening.

EX-CONVICTS LISTED

On the back bar was a list of 10 names of persons who could not be served in the tavern as patrons under Missouri law, Curtis said.

All 10 are ex-convicts, and the law does not permit them to loiter in places serving liquor or beer.

Coleman's name was on the list, Curtis said, but Coleman knew it and understood why he couldn't be a patron.

★ ★ ★

'MAN CARRYING BUCKET'

Mrs. Vivian McSparren, who was sitting near the front of the bar, told fire Chief LeRoy Willis that a man walked in carrying a five-gallon bucket of liquid.

"He walked to the middle of the tavern and started sloshing it around," Mrs. McSparren said. "He made a swinging arc, throwing the liquid all over the tavern. Then he threw a match into it and ran out."

Virgil Hill, 46, said he was on a stool next to Mrs. McSparren and his friend, Charles Buckler, 70, He said the blast caused the front door to stick.

★ ★ ★

Firemen said the back door opened inward and the victims apparently jammed up against it before it could be pulled open.

CRIMINAL RECORD

The fire chief said it took only five minutes to get the blaze under control and it was out in 45 minutes.

Prosecutor Falzone said Coleman had a long criminal record starting when he was 14 years old.

He served terms in the state training school for boys, the state reformatory and the state prison for delinquency, car theft, felonious assault, burglary and forgery.

★ ★ ★

The police chief said Coleman had been working steadily as a laborer the last two years.

Detective Named Policeman of Year

A detective credited with uncovering an interstate stolen car ring was named Pontiac's Police Officer of the year yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Honored at an Exchange Club luncheon at the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake, was William G. Davis. His award was presented by Mayor William H. Taylor Jr.

City Police Chief William K. Hanger cited as the deciding factor in Davis' nomination the detective's investigative work last spring in the case of a former Pontiac used car dealer who police say headed a theft ring involving up to $50,000 worth of cars.

The dealer, Oscar M. Stabley, 50, of 34 Collingwood, was arrested May 4 and recently convicted on a count of auto theft.

★ ★ ★

He is currently in Southern Michigan Prison in Jackson awaiting trial on 10 federal indictments stemming from the alleged operation.

Davis, 45, joined the department in 1951 and was promoted to detective in 1961. He has been awarded three meritorious service citations for investigative work in auto theft cases.

Davis, his wife and five children live in Waterford Township.

Galbraith Calls for Bomb Halt

Economist John Kenneth Galbraith, a severe critic of the Vietnam war, said yesterday the U. S. never will find out how serious Hanoi is about negotiating a truce until there is a halt in the bombing.

Galbraith, chairman of Americans for Democratic Action and a professor at Harvard University, outlined his views on the war, among other things, during a news conference and speaking engagement on foreign policy at Oakland University.

University officials credited Galbraith's liberal views, and his appearance on the cover of Time magazine this week for the turnout of an estimated 2,500 students who jammed the Sports and Recreation building to hear him speak.

He blamed State Department officials' inability to revise their thinking, particularly in Southeast Asia, for the situation this country is in, in Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

Some progress is being made in Europe, and more can be expected, but the "frozen policy" affecting the U. S. in Vietnam still is based on a preoccupation with an outdated belief that the Communist power is a monolithic conspiracy, according to Galbraith, a former ambassador to India.

'OBSESSION WITH CONSPIRACY'

While this hasn't held true, said Galbraith, noting internal squabbles among communist nations, and particularly the "tramatic split" between Red China and Russia, there are still those that are "obsessed with the communist conspiracy."

It has only been recently that old policies have been questioned, but even then there have been no substantial inroads into the Vietnam conflict, he added.

Educators Rap Draft Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — Educators at several large universities say abolition of draft deferments for most graduate students could threaten research, reduce the supply of future teachers and cripple graduate school enrollments.

Some administrators denounced the new policy as shortsighted, and several said other systems of drafting from the affected group could have cushioned the impact.

They spoke out yesterday after the Johnson administration abolished graduate draft deferments except for medical and dental students, students in related fields and those who will have completed two or more years of their studies by June.

At the same time the National Security Council suspended indefinitely the official list of essential activities and critical occupations that Selective Service draft boards have used as a guideline in making occupational deferments.

Administration officials estimated 150,000 or more men would be drafted as the result of changes in graduate deferments.

Burns Take Keego Boy's Life

The struggle to save the life of a badly burned 3-year-old boy from Keego Harbor proved to be in vain yesterday. The child died at the Univeristy of Michigan Burn Center at 5 p.m.

MICHAEL

Dead is Michael Sievers, son of Mrs. Judith Sievers of 2846 Beland. The child suffered burns over 60 per cent of his body in a blaze that erupted at his home Thursday morning.

At the scene of the fire, a desperate attempt was started to save the boy's life. A Bloomfield Township fireman, Roscoe Hunt, 38, of 2643 Depew, Sylvan Lake, is credited with entering the burning building and bringing the boy out alive.

An explosion at the scene injured two firemen, Mel Joritz and Bernard Fante. Both required hospitalization.

★ ★ ★

The injured child was rushed to Pontiac Oseteopathic Hosipal. It was decided to send him to the University of Michigan Burn Center in Ann Arbor, and a helicopter was dispatched from Superior Ambulance Service of Wyandotte. Fleet Ambulance of Pontiac made the arrangements.

PLASMA EN ROUTE

The child was given emergency treatment including plasma on the way. At the U. of M. Burn Center, the struggle to save the boy continued for over 24 hours.

★ ★ ★

The hospital reprted today the boy died as a result of complications from his burns.

Her Son, 'Used Up,' Returned to War

By ED BLUNDEN

A Holly mother was shocked and horrified yesterday after she learned her son, a veteran of a solid year of fighting in Vietnam, is being sent back to war.

Mrs. Kenneth Phelps of 1124 Lambert said her son, Mike, 21, has never recovered from the debilitating diseases he contracted during his arduous combat experiences which ended last May.

"They are going to kill him this time," said Mrs. Phelps.

Mike apparently is part of the 10,000 extra troops ordered to Vietnam recently after the series of attacks by Communist troops on the main cities. He is a member of Headquarters Company, 1st Battalion, 508th Infantry, 82nd Airborne, which had been based at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

A spokesman for the Department of the Army in Washington refused to verify the outfit had been sent. He said "We don't discuss troop deployments until after they have arrived."

Mrs. Phelps said she learned of the shipment by chance and that the troops were being sent without being able to tell their relatives. She said many of the men in Mike's outfit were also veterans of the conflict.

She is angry at the secrecy involved. "I'm sure a lot of mothers are unaware their boys are going back into the fighting," she said.

Mrs. Phelps was able to talk to her son by phone Wednesday. She had learned he was going to be shipped over when the Red Cross contacted her about an application for deferment from combat duty for her son.

(Some confusion must exist on the application, which was on the basis of a service ruling regarding combatless duty for "an only surviving son" — where others had been killed in combat. Mike is an only child, but not a sole surviving son of a family).

The group, to be gone a total of 21 days, will visit eight countries including Italy, Egypt, Jordan, Israel, Lebanon, Greece, Germany and England.

Dr. and Mrs. Malone have made the trip several times. Mrs. Malone has made the trip on four occosions and Dr. Malone, three.

The trip will include a week in the City of Jerusalem where the party will stay one block from the Garden Tomb and the Hill of Calvary.

The historic Damascus Gate leading to the Old City is also just one block away.

* * *

A highlight of the trip will be a two-day stay in West Berlin, near the wall dividing East and West Germany.

In England the travelers will spend a full day at Stratford on the Avon, made famous by William Shakespeare.

LEAVING FOR NEW GUINEA — Packing towels, aprons, coffee pot, and some bedding in the large copper can are the Gary K. Parkers (center) who are leaving about March 1 for New Guinea. Here they are shown with Gary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Parker of 4576 Meigs, Waterford Township. Gary's mother looks a little wistful as she polishes the large copper container which at one time probably used to boil clothing. The young people will teach natives and children of missionaries in a Lutheran School in New Guinea. Several large oil drums filled with needed articles have already been shipped.

TRIP PLANS—Mrs. Luther Clyburn of Oxford (seated) does much of the book work for her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Tom Malone in planning the pilgrimage on March 11 to Bible lands. The Malones will direct the group of 25 persons as they leave New York City until the return on April 1. The trip will include a visit to eight countries with one week in the city of Jerusalem.

Parkers Set to Leave for New Guinea

"When I was about 9 years old I decided someday I would go to New Guinea to teach or to serve as a missionary worker, and now my dream is about to come true," said the Rev. Gary K. Parker.

* * *

Currently he is spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Parker of 4576 Meigs, Waterford Township before leaving for New Guinea with his wife in March.

* * *

Already the parkers have sent large oil drums with some of their belongings. They expect to be located in New Guinea with headquarters in Wabag.

TO TEACH

The Rev. Mr. Parker will teach native children as well as children of missionaries. The first high school in the area is being completed this month.

A member of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Waterford Township, Parker is a graduate of Concordia Teacher's College in Seward, Neb.

Mrs. Parker, the former Darlene Smith of Minneapolis, Minn., was gruaduated from Betheny Lutheran Coollege with a degree in Home Economics.

* * *

The Parkers like to hike and hunt. The Rev. Mr. Parker is quite musical, he plays the piano, organ, violin, and most band instruments.

* * *

The Parkers tell us they will keep The Pontiac Press informed as to their work and daily living in New Guinea.

Church Mouse Not Really in Love; Feeling Combines Admiration, Trust

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am an unmarried woman with a problem I can't confide to anyone. I think I am in love with my pastor. I go to church every chance I get, just to look at him and listen to him. He is married and has a fine family so I know there is no hope for me, but I can't help the way I feel about him.

ABBY

I don't want to give up going to church, but I'm afraid if I keep going there I shall not be able to hide my feelings much longer. What should I do?

CHURCH MOUSE

DEAR CHURCH: (You are ONE reader I am not going to send to your clergyman.) What you feel is not "love." It's a combination of respect, gratitude, admiration, and devotion, with a penchant for fantasizing. Look for a nice single man whom you can develop an interest, and regard your pastor as a spiritual leader and a good friend.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Every year my husband gives a "birthday party" for Ruby, his first wife who has been dead for 12 years now. All their old friends are invited and they have a regular party for "Ruby"—food, drinks, birthday cake, and everything.

Then they all go out to the cemetery to "talk" to Ruby and leave her a piece of birthday cake.

I have no objections to my husband visiting Ruby's grave on her birthday, or any other day, but this "birthday party" really gets me. I've gone to two. Do I have to go to any more? And what do you think of such parties? WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: I think your husband is digging pretty deep to find an excuse to give a party. You don't have to go to these parties unless you want to. And neither does anyone else.

DEAR ABBY: I have a six-year-old son and I think there is something wrong with him. Mentally, I mean. He does terrible things, just to provoke me, and when I give him a good spanking he seems to enjoy it. It's almost as though he can't get enough of a beating. The harder I hit him the better he likes it.

Abby, I am at the end of my rope with this kid and I have had some pretty terrifying impulses. Please, please tell me what to do. My husband doesn't believe in head doctors, but I'm afraid our boy needs one. He just isn't normal.

NO NAME, PLS.

DEAR NO NAME: Ask your pediatrician what he thinks of your son's behavior, then follow his recommendation. People who don't "believe" in head doctors usually need them most.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: What happens to parents when they become grandparents? Mine are too young to be getting senile, but they certainly don't show the good judgment in handling MY children as they did when they raised me.

My parents ruled their children with an iron hand. No backtalk, we did as we were told, and if we forgot our manners we heard about it. We weren't permitted to eat between meals and we had to be in bed with lights out at a certain time, and no nonsense.

But you should see the way they handle our children! All rules and regulations laid down at home are out of the window at the grandparents' house. The kids whine and beg until they get their own way.

They talk back, and are fed soft drinks, candy, and cookies—all they want at all hours. And they don't have to nap or do anything they don't want to do.

I love my parents, Abby, but I wish they realized how tough they are making it for me when they do this. It's difficult for children of any age to tell their parents anything, so you would do me (and millions of others) a great service if you printed this. Thank you.

Patriots Honored by Citizens' Group

"External Liberance is the Price of Liberty," was the topic of an address given Friday by Judge Philip Pratt at the Lincoln-Washington birthday celebration held by Janice Antona's New Citizens' Group.

Members of the League, who are also celebrating the group's 30th birthday, met in the cafeteria of Central High School.

* * *

Among guests attending the affair was Commissioner John Dugan with official greetings from the city.

Others were Mrs. Robert Meikle, Mrs. Lee Hill, Mrs. Joseph Phillips and Mrs. Lynn Allen Senior.

* * *

Mrs. Fred Konigsdorfer, representing the present citizenship class, presented corsages to members Mrs. Nicholas Gianopoulos, Mrs. John Bank and John Davies. The three had been present at the first program 30 years ago.

* * *

Music was provided by the Northern High School Madrigal Singers.

Refreshments were served by the House Committee under the chairmanship of Mrs. Herbert Langton. Mrs. Frank Walker and Mrs. George Durr assisted.

Sweet Sixteen Shows Love and Appreciation

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently my parents gave me a "Sweet Sixteen" party and they did so much for me that I'd like to repay them in a special way. Have you any suggestions? If it is a gift, what kind? Thank you. — "Sweet Sixteen"

Dear "Sweet Sixteen": What a nice letter! Yes, I do have an idea for a special way in which you might say thank you to your parents. Why not prepare a surprise dinner for them one evening followed by a gift of two tickets to the local movie house or any other entertainment that might be available and which they would enjoy.

* * *

Your present could also include sitting without charge that evening for any younger brothers or sisters. Enlist the help of one of your mother's friends to keep her out of the house while you are preparing the dinner.

Keep to something simple or easy to cook. Good luck to you and I know you will have as much fun preparing this surprise as your parents will enjoying it.

Totie Fields Campaigns for 'Roomy' Dress

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

If you haven't heard of the elegant amples . . . or somesuch . . . you soon will. Comedienne Totie Fields is determined the buxom ladies should have a line of dresses designed especially for them.

* * *

"Instead of sizes 40, 42, and so on, I'm going to design a line of dresses and call them Big 7, Roomy 9 or even 007 or 009. It will have a great psychological effect on plump women," she says.

* * *

Nowadays, women go shopping for dresses only to find that every interesting dress is size 3,5,7. They are too embarrassed to even mention size 20. This dilemma forces many women to squeeze into a dress that is too small.

* * *

Totie, an under-5-foot, buxom type herself, doesn't own a single dress without a gussett (an underarm insertion that provides a little extra fabric for the arms.)

* * *

There are many women in the United States who need the lift that a good dress line would provide, she explains. She gets about 3,000 fan letters a week, the majority is from plump women after she's been on a Mike Douglas, Ed Sullivan or Merv Griffin show. Night club appearances are likely to bring in three or four hundred.

IDENTIFY

"They identify with me. They write — 'You make me feel so good . . . I had such a complex about my weight . . . I really don't mind being fat when I watch you,' and so on."

* * *

Real tears are in Totie's eyes when she describes her loyal fans.

* * *

". . . You wouldn't believe the gifts . . . look I'm getting goose pimples talking about it . . . they send me handkerchiefs with hand tatting, medals, colognes . . . notes that say 'we hope that your stay in our town will be pleasant, and so on . . .'

* * *

"I don't know whom I'll approach about doing the dress line, but I'm serious. It will be a designer who is willing to design interesting clothes for overweights, and the fashions will not be black.

BLACK

I don't know where they got the idea that big women look thinner in black. I look just as fat in black as I do in orange and red," she says.

But older plump women often go beserk in choosing dress styles that are available, she points out.

HEMLINES

"There is nothing more horrible than an over-age woman in a dress with a hemline at the middle of her thigh. The mini-skirt is the greatest thing that ever happened to kids. Let's leave it there. The greatest thing that ever happened to lump women is the 'no waistline look' — nobody knows where it went."

* * *

Totie was born Sophie Feldman in Hartford, Conn. She met her husband, George Johnston in Boston. After her marriage, and birth of two daughters, her husband encouraged her to try the big time in New York. Ed Sullivan spotted her at the Copacabana, invited her to be on his show and that was the beginning. She is now in the $10,000-a-week bracket, she says.

NARRATOR

Bub Guest, son of poet-philosopher Edgar A. Guest, and well known to radio audiences through his "Sunny Side of the Street" show, will narrate "Carnival of the Animals" by Saint-Saens.

* * *

The program will also include "Chit-Chat Polka" by Strauss; "Chicken Reel" by Leroy Anderson; "Le Chat Botte et la Chatte Blanche" by Tchaikovski; "Waltzing Cat" by Anderson; and "Grand March" from "Peter and the Wolf" by Prokofiev.

Artist Versus Critic Match Slated

"Prepare to defend thyself may well be the battle cry at the Bloomfield Art Association's Friday program, "Artist Meets the Critic."

Mrs. Louis Dean, chairman, has coordinated the program which will present a panel of critics from local papers and distinguished people from the art world in a discussion of criticism, jurying in competitive shows and tastes and trends in the art world.

* * *

Carolyn Vosburg Hall, art critic for the Birmingham Eccentric and Robert Broner of the Detroit Free Press will present the critics' point of view. Adding spice to opinion is the fact that both Mr. Broner and Mrs. Hall are professional artists as well as critics.

Mrs. Hall, who earned her masters degree in fine arts at Cranbrook, has taught art in colleges and has exhibited widely in many media.

PRINTMAKER

Broner, president and founder of the Michigan Print Club, is nationally known for his intaglio etchings and is the originator of many techniques in printmaking. He is on the faculty of Wayne State University where he teaches humanities.

* * *

Architect Glen Paulsen, president of the Cranbrook Academy of Fine Art, and Dr. Frederick Cummings, assistant director of the Detroit Institute of Arts, will be in the position of questioning the critics.

Paulsen, who is both artist and architect, has won many awards for design both here and in Europe. He studied at the Royal Academy of Arts in Sweden as well as the University of Pennsylvania and the University of Illinois.

* * *

Cummings, formerly curator of European art at the Detroit Institute, produced the present "Romantic Art in Britain" exhibition. He has taught art and is widely acclaimed for his writings on the subject.

TO MODERATE

Clifford B. West, known most recently for his movies on art, will moderate the panel. The winner of many international awards for his movies, West is both artist and teacher. His latest movies are "Edward Munch" and "The Art of the Vikings."

* * *

"The Artist Meets The Critic" will be presented at 8:00 p.m. at 1516 South Cranbrook Road. It is open to the public for a nominal charge.

Comparison Set on Child Rearing

A comparison between child rearing and family life practices in America and tribal New Guinea will be presented Tuesday by Dr. Paul Jordan, Grand Blanc child psychiatrist, at the meeting of the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nurseries in Davison.

Dr. Jordan, who serves as a consultant to the Michigan Department of Mental Health, found the New Guinea tribe produced "remarkably friendly and trusting children" and he will give his audience suggestions for adapting this training to our culture.

* * *

Dr. Jordan has written a paper on this topic, which he calls "The Lonely American."

Temply Beth Jacob Nursery, Inc. is a participating member of the Council.

T. E. Brennan to Speak

The "Reorganization of the Lower Courts in Michigan" will be the topic of Hon. Thomas E. Brennan, Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, at the Tuesday meeting of the Bloomfield Republican Women's Club.

Justice Brennan is a former judge of the Common Pleas Court and the Circuit Court.

* * *

The group is scheduled to meet at 1 p.m. in the Adams Castle Drive home of Mrs. Harry Stevens. Members may bring guests.

Rights Bill Backers See Close Cloture Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Backers of embattled civil rights legislation hope to make an impressive showing in a crucial Senate vote Tuesday on whether to impose cloture and cut off debate.

Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., floor manager of the legislation, and other supporters do not, however, contend they can get the necessary two-thirds majority to cut off debate.

★ ★ ★

Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen has taken a stand against cloture, and without his help the move appears to have no chance.

But Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., said "We expect to do very well."

He told newsmen that if more than half of the 100 senators vote for cloture, "It wil be decisive evidence that the Senate wants this bill."

The last time the Senate applied the seldom-used rule was in 1965 when, by a vote of 70-30, it cut off debate on a bill to protect Negro voting rights.

★ ★ ★

The bill now before the Senate is designed to provide Negroes and civil rights workers with federal protection against racial violence.

An amendment offered last week would prohibit discrimination in the sale or rental of housing.

SENATORS FILE PETITION

Twenty-nine senators—20 Democrats and 9 Republicans—filed a petition Friday to put an end to the debate that has been going on in desultory fashion since Jan. 18.

Under the rules, the cloture petition will automatically be voted on one hour after the Senate meets on Tuesday. It will take 67 votes to shut off debate if all 100 senators vote.

Hart, expressing hope that supporters of the bill will make a good showing, said that around 60 votes for cloture might convince the leadership not to give up on the legislation.

But he said if there are only about 45 votes for cloture, the civil rights measure no doubt will be shunted aside without another attempt to cut off the debate.

2ND PETITION POSSIBLE

Majority leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., has said that a second cloture petition probably will be filed if the vote Tuesday is reasonably close.

★ ★ ★

Roy Wilkins, chairman of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights, urged senators to resist any attempt to set the bill aside if the cloture move does not succeed Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

"It would only feed the spreading doubt that rights can be won through the democratic process," he said in his statement in behalf of the 115 organizations in the conference.

In September 1966, the Senate twice refused to cut off debate on a House-passed civil rights bill containing provisions similar to those in the present measure.

TWO VOTE SPREADS

The first vote was 54 for and 42 against cloture. The second vote, five days later, was 52 for and 41 against.

Mansfield filed the cloture petition on the pending bill Friday only after his request to vote next Monday or Tuesday on the open housing amendment was blocked by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., spokesman for Southern opponents.

Buttressing the position of the Dixie forces is the anticloture position taken by Dirksen. There is no assurance cloture would succeed even if he threw his weight behind it.

State Senate OKs Store Tax Repeal

LANSING (AP)—Bills repealing Michigan's chain store tax supplementing state spending by $1.9 million and regulating BB guns and underwater spear guns were on their way to the House today.

The bills were among eight approved by the Senate Friday after lengthy partisan debate on the tax repealer—described by several Democrats as a tax giveaway to big business.

* * *

The tax was described as inequitable and regressive by the bill's supporters, who repealed it 26-7 despite opposition from six Democrats and one Republican.

The appropriations bill, approved 28-3, provides extra money to supplement spending by several state agencies during the current fiscal year.

The measure provides $600,053 for higher education, including $402,822 for construction of a maintenance and storage building at Saginaw Valley College.

Two bills, approved unanimously, apply to the use of BB guns, underwater spear guns and other weapons.

* * *

One forbids any person under 21 from using or possessing any handgun which fires BBs exceeding .177 caliber, regardless of the means of propulsion.

The law now applies only to guns that use spring, gas or air as a means of propulsion.

WOULD EXPAND LAW

Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, said the revision would expand the law to cover newly developed guns propelled by spring steel bands and plastic caps.

The second bill expands the definition of firearms to include any weapon from which a dangerous projectile may be propelled by using explosives, gas, air or other means.

* * *

Richardson said the measure would bring such weapons as underwater spearguns and homemade zip guns under regulation.

Such weapons would not require registration, he said, but would be included in regulations applying to use of a weapon by an intoxicated person, accidental discharge of a weapon and carrying of a firearm with unlawful intent.

MEANT TO DISCOURAGE

Supporters of repeal of the chain store tax said it was enacted in 1933 as a means of discouraging establishment of such stores in Michigan.

Chain stores owners presently are required to buy licenses—the cost of which is determined by the number of stores operated—and also are required to license individual counters in their stores.

* * *

Sen. Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, said the consumer currently is charged more because of the tax, adding that he believed the saving would be passed on to the consumer if the tax is repealed.

DeMaso, chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee, said repeal of the tax could be followed by the repeal of other "inequitable" taxes on the law books.

OPPOSED BY LEVIN

The bill was opposed by Sen. Sander Levin, D-Berkley, who argued that the action would give $456,000 in tax relief to 39 companies.

That is not a boon for small stores," Levin said, "it is a tax break for large businesses."

"Let's be frank and blunt," he added. "Only 21 per cent of the break being given to commerce would go to small businesses. Close to 80 per cent would go to large concerns."

"I agree it (the tax) is not equitable," said Sen. Roger Craig, D-Dearborn, "but it seems to me we ought to meet the greatest needs first."

He accused the taxation committee of "abusing its authority" and the majority Republican party of "abusing its position," and described the repealer as "an indication of Republican priorities."

Other bills approved included measures which would:

- Authorize townships to spend money for tourist and products advertisement.
- Transfer fence-viewing duties from justice of the peace to two township trustees.
- Provide for examination of cash on hand in the state treasurer's office every 30 days by the state auditor general.
- Provide for the annual fixing of drain commissioners' salaries.

Association President Voices Optimism on Home Industry

Gilbert B. Silverman, president of the 800-member Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, voiced cautious optimism for the home construction industry shortly before the opening of the year's biggest housing spectacular — the 1968 Home, Furniture and Flower Show at Cobo Hall. The show runs from today through Feb. 25.

"Our sources of information in Washington (the National Association of Home Builders) are predicting a dip in the outlook for a larger housing output in 1968. Their predictions are based upon a survey of 100 major cities since the first of the year."

"On the basis of the findings in this survey, and from reports by local builders, I believe the home-building year will fall short of the 1.4 million mark nationally. Production of homes and apartments in 1967 was approximately 1.3 million units.

"The average builder who responded to a recent questionnaire reported that he had expected to build 51 single-family houses and 28 apartment units last year. By contrast, the outlook for 1968 is for expansion to 61 houses and 49 apartment units per builder."

The association which Silverman heads is one of the nation's largest among NAHB's 444 local affiliates.

GOOD YEAR

"If we can control some of the things that are involved, like manpower and the availability of mortgage money for home and apartment construction, with interest rates allowed to fluctuate so that big investors will be encouraged to participate in home and apartment financing, I believe 1968 will be one of the better years in the home construction business in the Detroit metropolitan area," continued Silverman.

As for the Cobo Hall Home, Furniture and Flower Show, Silverman added that the BAMD and other sponsors expected the ten-day exhibition to generate some $30 millions in new business for home and apartment builders and suppliers of the hundreds of products that go into the construction of homes — everything from keys to kilowatts.

"Next to the automotive industry," said Silverman, "ours is the biggest employer of skilled labor and the best source of paychecks for workers in all the trades and skills in the entire metropolitan area.

We anticipate upward of a half million people to visit our Cobo Hall show and be encouraged to beautify and improve their homes and to begin the exciting experience of owning a home or an apartment."

Tile Full Wall in Bathroom

If you're planning to remodel or add a bathroom, consider tiling all of each wall.

★ ★ ★

The cost will not be very much, if anything, more than installing a wainscot which involves expensive pieces of trim tile as well as extra fitting and cutting labor.

And a full ceramic tile wall will bring a lifetime reward in easy maintenance.

Before Painting Roughen Enamel

If you're adding a new coat of paint to a surface that still gleams with a former coat of enamel, sand the glossy areas to roughen slightly.

This will provide better anchorage for your coating. Dust off any loose particles of sand and enamel that remain.

The balsam fir (Abies balsamea) has flat needles with two white lines on the back of each needle.
