Dies in $100,000 Royal Oak Fire

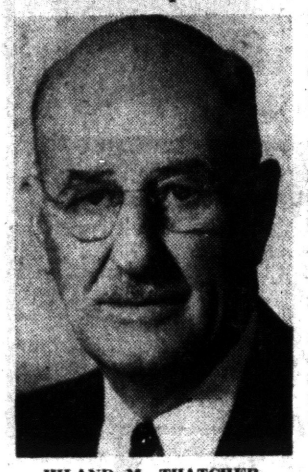

Thatcher Named to Highway Post

A former Oakland County supervisor put another feather in his cap of governmental service with today's easy triumph for the $7,500-a-year post as county road commissioner.

Hiland M. Thatcher, 68, of West Bloomfield Township, received 51 votes from his fellow supervisors to 26 for his only competitor, Clayton G. Lilly, 40, former Ferndale supervisor.

Soon after Thatcher's election by secret ballot, supervisors were surprised when a study was asked for to make the three-member Board of Road Commissioners strictly a policy making board.

HILAND M. THATCHER

Fred L. Yockey, Huntington Woods supervisor, who made the proposal, said he opposed commissioners making the policies and then carrying them out as they wish.

★ ★ ★

Possibly, Yockey suggested, Paul Van Roekel, county highway commissioner, should be given the administrative reins of the road commission. Yockey's request was referred to two committees of the Board for study.

"I couldn't think of another man I'd rather lose to," Lilly said somewhat unhappily after this morning's vote.

Lilly said he believed his letters to city supervisors soliciting their votes — Thatcher had been endorsed by an association of township supervisors — helped "a great deal." He said he believed his 26 votes probably all came from city supervisors.

Apparently seeking to prove the race was friendly, Thatcher, who for three years was vice chairman of the Board, and Lilly sat together on the sidelines.

It was a strange sight for supervisors not to see Thatcher in his usual seat on the rostrum as vice chairman. He resigned Dec. 10 as township supervisor.

Thatcher succeeds Lee O. Brooks, who resigned officially today because of ill health. Although Brooks' letter of resignation was received by Board Chairman Delos Hamlin at the Oct. 26 meeting, his official resignation came today and was accepted with regret.

Before today's vote, witnessed by some 125 Milford High School government class seniors, Marshall E. Taylor, Walled Lake supervisor, withdrew from the race saying, "Some of my dear friends advised me that the time was not right."

Carl F. Ingraham, Birmingham supervisor, nominated Thatcher in an attempt to disprove rivalry on the Board between township and city representation.

His nomination was seconded by Maurice J. Croteau, Pontiac supervisor.

Detroit Officer Saved by Paper

Fired Point-Blank, .38 Bullet Lodges in Packet Near His Heart

DETROIT (UPI)—Detroit patrolman Thomas C. Rusch escaped possible death early today when a young gunman fired a .38 caliber shot at him from point-blank range.

The bullet, fired by John Barbat, 23, Dearborn, struck Rusch six inches below the badge on the left side of his chest.

It went through the patrolman's coat and upward through his shirt pocket, lodging in a packet of papers he was carrying. He escaped without even a flesh wound.

"I wasn't nervous until I got back to the station," Rusch said. "Then I started to shake."

Rusch and his partner stopped a speeding car in the southwest section of the city minutes after a lone gunman had held up a bar in the area.

They were questioning the driver, John Collins of Belleville, when Rusch recognized a second man in the car as Barbat, who escaped from the Camp Waterloo prison farm near Chelsea last May.

He ordered Barbat out of the car and was walking behind him to the scout car when the escapee turned and started to scuffle.

"I felt the explosion but that was all," Rusch said. "Then I saw he had a gun."

Rusch said he knocked Barbat down and kicked the gun from his hand.

Tuesday to Be 44; Snow Stays Away

If you've been hoping for snow to add to the Christmas atmosphere, you'll just have to wait a little longer, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

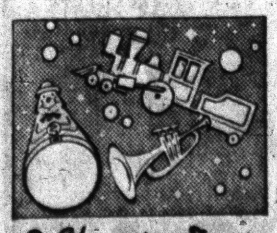

Pontiac and vicinity will have temperatures about six degrees above normal with rain totaling about three-quarters of an inch Tuesday night and Wednesday. There will be little change until Friday and Saturday, when the mercury will drop.

Winds were 2 miles per hour southwesterly at 10:15 a.m. today.

Tonight's low is expected to be 36 degrees, with a high Tuesday of 44. Downtown temperature at 2 p.m. today was 40 degrees.

Greeks Gather, Give President Huge Welcome

Past Halfway Point in Tour; to Be Guest at Royal Palace

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — President Eisenhower arrived in Athens today for another mammoth welcome expressing thanks for more than 12 years of American aid to this tough little ally alongside the Iron Curtain.

The President's big orange and silver jet landed at a seaside airport after a six-hour stop in Iran that marked the halfway point in his 22,000-mile goodwill tour.

Thousands of Greeks turned out to make the welcome another memorable occasion for the President. School children got a holiday and many workers were given time off.

Prime Minister Constantine Karamanlis urged his people to greet Eisenhower "with the enthusiasm imposed by the personality of our visitor and the significance of his mission."

REPAY 'OBLIGATION'

The Greek Premier said Eisenhower's one-day visit would give the Greek people an opportunity to repay "a great moral obligation — to express our feelings of friendship and gratitude to the American people who for over 12 years have extended not only their political and moral support but also material assistance for its rehabilitation.

Eisenhower will spend the night at the royal palace, along with his son and daughter-in-law, Maj. John and Barbara Eisenhower. King Paul and Queen Frederika came in from their country home at Tatoi to be hosts to the visitors.

The highlight of his brief stay will be an address to the Greek Parliament Tuesday.

The President will get his best look at the city Tuesday when a helicopter takes him to the U.S. cruiser Des Moines, anchored in Phaleron Bay. The Des Moines will carry Eisenhower to Tunis, the next stop on his tour.

In Tehran, Eisenhower was cheered by an estimated 750,000

BUSINESS CORNER HIT — All that remains of the second-story apartment in which a 70-year-old Royal Oak man suffocated this morning is a jagged piece of wall. The upstairs portion of the building collapsed at the height of the blaze and the body of Patrick Seward was found two hours later in the ruins downstairs.

Oldster Trapped in Apartment; Woman Flees

Building Destroyed at 13-Mile and Rochester Early Today

An elderly man died in a $100,000 three-alarm fire that swept a Royal Oak business corner this morning.

Another apartment dweller, Mrs. Carrie Finn, 59, fled in her pajamas across a rooftop to safety and a nearby family of five was forced to abandon their home.

The drugstore, Sternberg's Bakery next door at 357 E. 13-Mile, two upstairs apartments and several recently remodeled upstairs offices were gutted before firemen brought the flames under control.

Several nearby establishments, including a toy shop and a milk depot, suffered extensive damage from smoke and water.

Pitted against 100-feet high flames, firemen concentrated their efforts on preventing the fire from spreading to other stores and to an apartment house at 3309 Rochester Rd.

At first it was believed that both Seward and Mrs. Finn had escaped the fire. They were the only dwellers there.

FIND BODY

But at 10 a.m., when the flames had been quelled sufficiently to explore the ruins, firemen found the body. Relatives made the identification later at William Beaumont Hospital.

Mrs. Finn said she was roused this morning by a lucky accident. She had mistakenly set her alarm clock for 7 a.m.—her workday rising hour—although she does not work on Mondays.

"The bedroom was full of smoke. I knew there was a bad fire."

The woman first attempted to flee down the stairs, but was blocked by flames at the bottom.

She returned to her apartment, climbed out a window, and escaped over the roof of a one-story structure between her apartment and the apartment house at 3309 Rochester Rd.

There she rapped on the bedroom window of Mrs. Irving D. Freeman. Aroused from sleep, Mrs. Freeman let the victim in, roused her children — age 6, 7, 12, 16 and 20 — and all fled into the street.

Area Family of 3 Dies in Collision

Victims of Crash With Truck in Indiana Are From Farmington Twp.

MARTINSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Three members of a Farmington Twp. family were killed today when their car smashed head-on into a light truck 11 miles southwest of here.

The victims were Elden E. Adams, 30, 30900 Orchard Lake Rd.; his wife Carmela June, 27, and their son Gary, about 7.

State Police said the car driven by Mrs. Adams collided head-on with a ton and half truck driven by Glen D. Nottingham, 20, Griffin, Ind. The accident was on Indiana 67 a mile southwest of Whitaker.

Nottingham suffered leg and face injuries. He said the Michigan car swerved over into his lane. However, police said the point of impact was in the lane that should have been occupied by the Adams car.

All three members of the Adams family died instantly.

Detroit Listed With 27 Cities Being Investigated for Payola

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House investigators said today they are checking complaints of "payola" and other alleged deceptive radio and television broadcasting practices in 27 cities, including Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The cities were listed in a staff memo made public by the House subcommittee which is expected to launch hearings on broadcasting practices early next year.

The memo, sent to subcommittee members Dec. 4 by Chief Counsel Robert W. Lishman, gave some indications of the leads which the staff investigators have been tracking down.

Lishman said the staff had received allegations about payola "and other deceptive practices in radio and TV broadcasting" by telephone, telegrams, letters and personal interviews from cities from coast to coast.

'IMPORTANT LEADS'

Lishman's memo then listed more than a score of alleged abuses which, he said, an analysis of the material received indicated were "the most important leads thus far."

One of these was "payola," the practice of side payments to radio or TV employes for plugging records.

—Some popularity ratings of records are rigged. Retail record sellers are paid to report falsely that certain records are their best sellers.

PROMOTE INTERESTS

—So called "record hops" are used to promote outside interests of station personnel and pay due to performers on these hops "finds its way into the pockets of licensee personnel."

—Station personnel have a financial interest in performers on programs.

—Stations receive a large volume of free records, known as "freebies," which personnel sell at a discount through retail stores. They pocket most or all of the receipts.

'CRIMINAL RECORDS'

—Key station personnel in some cases "have had long serious criminal records."

★ ★ ★

—Network officials have interests in programs, record companies, publishing firms and other commercial ventures which get "favored use" of the network's facilities.

In Poor Health, Takes Life

Man Burns, Dies in Car

A young Pontiac factory worker turned his car into a virtual oven last night and died in heat so intense that it melted interior plastic fixtures.

Police said that Billy T. Peterson, 27 of 21 Allison St., apparently took his own life.

An autopsy determined that Peterson, a General Motors Truck and Coach Division welder, was killed by carbon monoxide gas which filtered into the vehicle through a flexible tube he had attached to the tailpipe.

Peterson's death was a mystery to authorities for several hours after his body was found with "weird" burns over it. A resident of the rooming house in which Peterson lived, John Westmoreland, pulled the dead man's body from the car at 7:45 p.m.

He had noticed smoke streaming from the back seat of the car parked in front of the home.

The body was covered with severe second and third degree burns. Discovery of the burns and the fact that his clothing bore no scorch marks puzzled Pontiac General Hospital physicians until police found the tubing leading from the tailpipe.

ON SICK LEAVE

Peterson had left the home of a cousin, Arlin H. Thornberry, 13 Stowell St., 45 minutes before he was found slumped over the wheel of the car. He was on sick leave from his job.

Police began an investigation into possible foul play after physicians said the burns could have been caused by acid or electricity. His hair was not singed.

Police said Peterson apparently

Third Brother Saved

Two Small Boys Drown in Pond

A once longed-for dream became a tragic memory for a Royal Oak couple Saturday afternoon.

Two young sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Watson drowned in a pond about 400 yards behind their future home in Oakland Township. A third son barely escaped the icy waters and is resting comfortably today at Avon Center Hospital.

Dead are Russell Watson, 6, and his brother, Michael, 4. Raymond, 8, was dragged to safety in the nick of time by his terrified father.

The exhausted 32-year-old Watson and his wife, Leona, 30, returned with tears welling in their eyes to their house at 3121 N. Altadena St., Royal Oak, late Saturday.

Watson looked at the pictures of his four sons on a living room wall. He slowly shook his head and softly whispered, "they were so little and so young.

"We were moving to the country so the children would have more room to play," his wife said in broken tones.

Saturday the Watsons drove to their new ranch home now under construction next to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bunner, 3208 Weygant Rd.

WENT TO PLAY

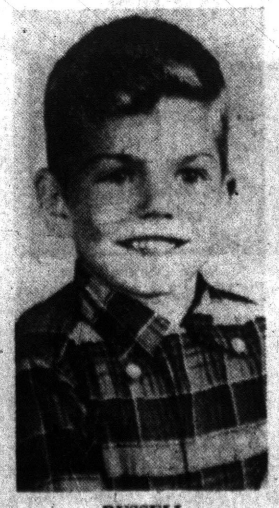

Michael, Russell and Raymond went out to play with their six-year-old friend, Chris Bunner, while the boys' parents had a cup of coffee at the Bunner home. A fourth brother, Timothy, 2, remained with his parents.

The boys ventured out onto the thin ice covering a pond in a ravine near the house. The ice gave way.

"Go get my dad," Raymond cried to Chris as the former struggled in the water only about 4½ feet deep. Watson and Bunner raced to the scene. Watson splashed wildly into the icy water and dragged his older sons to shore.

'Fire Chief' Goes Ahead

MIAMI (UPI)—A new $14-million causeway between Miami and Miami Beach opened Saturday. But despite detailed planning, the governor's car wasn't the first to cross the ribbon barrier. That honor went to four-year-old David Costa, who pedaled a toy fire chief's car around the concrete bridge and back under the ribbon.

Thornberry told police Peterson spent Sunday afternoon working on the car at his home. Police theorized Peterson hooked up the pipe while Thornberry and Peterson's mother, Mrs. Lula Fowler, 5 Fairgrove St., were attending church services.

Road Commission Post to Thatcher

O'Donoghue, present Ferndale supervisor.

Supervisors made Thatcher's election to the Board of County Road Commissioners unanimous on O'Donoghue's motion. Lilly extended his hand to Thatcher upon hearing the vote.

Arno L. Hulet, Bloomfield Township supervisor, was unanimously elected to succeed Thatcher as the Board's vice chairman.

Although he said he agreed with the praise Ingraham heaped upon Thatcher in his nominating speech, O'Donoghue said he believed a younger man was more suited for the job.

Lilly, the victim of a "purely political" ouster from the Board, according to O'Donoghue, campaigned for the job on his claim that cities have not received proper representation on the Board, occupied in the past and still by three former township supervisors.

There were no nominations other than Thatcher's and Lilly's. There are 83 members on the Board.

"I'll try to do as great a job as commissioner as Lee did," Thatcher said.

His election is for Brooks' unexpired term which comes to an end Dec. 31, 1962.

During this, one of their busiest and 13th session of the year, supervisors decided, without discussion, to place on the November, 1960, ballot the question whether the county needs a second probate judge. This was a recommendation of the legislative committee.

Decided on a voice vote, there was a spattering of dissenting votes.

On the subject of cutting the pay of the county's five circuit court judges, the supervisors chose to seek the repeal of a 1954 law which sets a ceiling of $22,500-a-year for judges. Oakland judges receive $23,500.

However, on a motion by Ingraham, an attorney, supervisors voted 54-23 to take $5,000 from the county's contingent fund in order that the judges won't have to take a recommended $1,000 pay cut beginning next year.

One of the 23 dissenting voters was Frazer W. Staman, Novi Township supervisor and chairman of the Board's salaries committee. His committee listened to personal pleas from the judges a month ago not to reduce their pay. His committee made the slice a part of the 1960 budget.

In answe to some criticism from Taylor, Ingraham, in making his motion, assured fellow supervisors that he was not a candidate for judge.

In other action, supervisors approved Hamlin's naming of a seven-member special aviation committee to carry out the $30,000 long-range airport needs report released to the Supervisors Inter-County Committee last week. Hamlin said he'd name seven supervisors within a week or 10 days.

"My boys, my boys — over the hill," their mother screamed to the officers. As they reached Watson, the father saw Michael's jacket in the water about 18 feet from shore.

BOGGED DOWN

He again splashed wildly out and grabbed the boy but bogged down in the mud. Rahn behind him grabbed Michael's body and handed it to Robinson. Then he went back to help Watson to shore.

Other deputies Donald Kratt and Mel Pierce arrived and began mouth-to-mouth respiration on the youngsters in a frantic rescue effort.

Michael was pronounced dead at the scene. Russell and Raymond were breathing when an ambulance whisked them off to the hospital.

Russell was taken to emergency surgery. Dr. E. E. Ludwig attempted to revive the boy by massaging his heart and administering electric shock treatment.

PLEDGE FRIENDSHIP

His big airliner arrived at 4:35 p.m.

The airport — sandwiched between the bright blue Aegean waters of Phaleron Bay and Hymetos ridge—where bees feed on thyme to produce a unique kind of honey—was ablaze with color.

In many ways—playing of national anthems, a 21-gun salute, a military honor guard, handshaking with local dignitaries and diplomats—the welcoming ceremony was similar to those Eisenhower has received in the six other countries he has visited on his 22,000-mile tour.

Fourteen hours had gone by since he awakened in New Delhi, and the 69-year-old President still had an Athens reception and a dinner party ahead of him.

The Day in Birmingham

Petition Seeks to Halt Land Clearing for Parking

BIRMINGHAM — A petition asking that no additional land be cleared adjacent to the Reid Medical Clinic because it will "harm the natural beauty of the area" will be submitted to the City Commission at tonight's meeting.

The petition signed by 49 Birmingham residents states that it is their desire to preserve the area "to maintain the beauty of the city and the health of the citizens."

They said that such areas have a "stabilizing effect on the values of residential property adjacent to the property."

It is noted in a letter attached to the petition that the majority of the signers are not property owners but interested residents in the North Woodward area who have expressed a desire to maintain as much of the natural areas in the city as possible.

The petition reads:

"It is the firm belief that the present and projected parking needs of the area adjacent to the Reid Building, 628 N. Woodward Ave., will be adequately met by the area presently cleared for a parking lot."

A petition was filed last week in Circuit Court asking that properties adjacent to the building be abandoned or vacated.

A hearing has been set for Jan. 11.

"To further increase the size of the proposed parking area is not justified and would accordingly, unnecessarily increase the assessment to be shared by the parties in the assessment district," the petition states.

The petition asked that the person charged with the supervision of the construction of the proposed parking lot be instructed to take such steps as may be necessary to preserve and prevent the destruction of the natural area.

CHICAGO (UPI) — The American Farm Bureau Federation (AFBF) opened its annual convention today with its top issue expected to be the growing demands for Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's resignation.

Proposed Craft Runs in Most Unusual Way

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department is studying a proposed new airship which could be inflated like a balloon and operated as either a plane or a missile.

The publication "Washington Science Trends" said yesterday that some Pentagon officials believe the unusual craft could have profound effects on military planning and strategy.

According to the newsletter, the weapon system, dubbed "project Wagmight," could be piloted or guided as a missile to carry a hydrogen bomb to a target 1,500 miles from its launching point.

It would be an inflatable "missile-aircraft" capable of low-altitude, long-range tactical and strategic mission, flying at about 500 miles per hour.

The vehicle could be packaged in a cylinder about four feet in diameter and 23 feet long. It would take about 30 minutes to inflate it with compressed air and prepare it for flight. Its power would be supplied by two standard jet engines mounted atop the wing.

The publication said it is reported the vehicle could take off from any ship or submarine or even from some big army trucks, using a catapult or a rocket-assisted launcher.

Lightning Bolt Hits Airliner's Aerial

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — A lightning bolt nipped the aerial on an American Airlines DC6 carrying 50 persons Sunday and the plane was swapped for another at Phoenix.

Only radio communications were damaged said District Manager Milt Atkinson, and passengers were unaware th eplane had been hit.

From 1800 to 1900 the population of the United States increased from 5,308,383 to 75,944,575, a gain of 1,334.1 per cent, probably the greatest in the nation's history.

Where Your Pennies Count

SUGAR PLUM fairies may dance to music from a hi-fi stereo set up in your home this Christmas. Stereophonic sound relies on new type of groove which sends impulses in two directions. Needed are (1) the player, (2) needle and playing arm, (3) amplifiers and (4) speakers. Much hi-fidelity equipment can be converted to stereo-hi fi by adding basic stereophonic components, but this depends upon the age and quality of the original equipment.

Fill Home With Heart-Warming Sound

Your Christmas in Hi Fi?

This Christmas we can have "Adeste Fideles" in "maxima fidelitas" with a high fidelity component system.

In keeping with the season's spirit, fill your home with heart-warming sounds of choirs and choraleers.

Besides dozens of carols, the Institute of High Fidelity Manufacturers points out that there are hundreds of Yuletide high fidelity recordings of oratorios, cantatas, hymns, cathedral chimes, madrigals, sacred songs.

There are even readings of Dickens' "A Christmas Carol;" Dylan Thomas' "A Child's Christmas in Wales;" "Highlights from Quo Vadis," and inspirational talks by famous Protestant and Catholic clergymen.

Certainly Christmas is the most musical of holidays, but a component high fidelity system means fun and cultural entertainment the whole year 'round.

There are recordings of fairy tales and other children's records for children's birthday parties, dance disks for Sis' socials, educational records to help Junior brush up on his foreign languages and the wonderful world of classical and semi-classical music for Mom and Dad.

★ ★ ★

Even if your family now has a high fidelity component system, conversion for stereo sound or the addition of a tape recorder or tape deck utilizing your amplifier controls can multiply the enjoyment you are now getting.

Because each component has a distinct and special function, addition of new components enhances it. Thus conversion of your monophonic system for stereo this Christmas can be as simple as adding a new stereo cartridge, a second amplifier and another loudspeaker.

You will find that a collection of monophonic long playing records sound better when played on a stereo high fidelity system.

Jaycee Unit Against Constitutional Plan

SAGINAW (AP)—A drive by the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce and the League of Women Voters to bring about a constitutional convention has run into opposition from the Saginaw Jaycees.

The Saginaw group doesn't like the way delegates are being allocated by the two groups sponsoring the campaign to force a rewrite of the state Constitution.

The present Constitution was written in 1908. It allocates three delegates to each of Michigan's 34 senatorial districts.

Under the state Junior Chamber of Commerce and League of Women Voters plan there would be one delegate for each senator and for each House member.

Blame Strike for Sales Drop

Six Per Cent Slide Due to Steel Walkout, Says Government

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government has blamed the steel strike for part of a six per cent drop in manufacturing sales during the third quarter of 1959.

A joint report by the Federal Trade Commission and the Securities & Exchange Commission put third quarter sales by manufacturing firms at $83,100,000,000, a drop of $5,200,000,000 from the record second quarter figure.

Earnings after taxes declined 21 per cent to $3,800,000,000 in the third quarter, the report said. This amounted to a $1,000,000,000 drop from the record set in the previous period.

The declines were attributed to the steel strike and a seasonal drop in the auto industry as it changed over to production of new models.

The iron and steel group reported a loss of $89,000,000 for the third quarter, compared with record quarterly profits after taxes of $552,000,000 in the second quarter.

'Taxes?' 'I Am Not So Lucky'

Indian Considers Russia, U. S. Both Good Friends

By BOB CONSIDINE

WITH EISENHOWER — Meet a couple of Indians. They are car drivers, both Hindus. Their names would not matter but their words do.

One said in answer to my questions:

"I myself was in a crowd that saw your great President. I took my place on Kitchener road and in a few hours he came along. It was a great sight.

"From almost the same place I had seen the great Russians, Bulganin and Khrushchev. The crowd was nearly as big and there was great excitement then, too.

" 'Can I feel just as friendly to the Soviet leaders as to the Americans?' Surely. Why not? Both are great friends of India and India needs friends.

" We see at last that China is our enemy. China has been exploiting us for three or four years, but only since the Chinese have captured our soldiers on the border and treated them so badly have most of us known China as our enemy.

"Even our Communists here have now said this. At first they said they would be neutral in this matter. But since China took our soldiers they too see that China is our enemy.

"Would we fight if we had to? Surely. There would be no hitch there. We would first fight and then we would ask for aid. We would ask for help from our two great friends and from the great man of Germany — Adenauer. And let me think . . . and Tito."

The other driver told us something about his life.

"Once I was a sweeper," he said, "but now I drive this car and sometimes I drive a truck. I make just enough rupees to keep my family. Just enough. I have four children, and that will be all. It is not possible to keep more.

"I have named my big boy—he is five and already with his A-B-Cs — Washington. Isn't that a nice name, Washington? My brother—he is 32—his name is Roosevelt. Another good name.

"I am paid by my owner 125 rupees (less than $25) a month. For my rent I must pay 50 rupees. Each baby costs 10 rupees a month for little things. The rest is for food and two rupees (a dime) a month is for my sweeper.

" 'A union?' I do not understand . . . Oh, I see. No, my owner would not approve.

"Because I can now help my owner teach others to drive, I am given a better house. We have a sleeping room—a room just for sleep—and a flusher. Not many have flushers.

" 'Taxes?' Oh, no, I am not taxed. I am not so lucky. To be taxed in India a man must make 300 rupees a month."

Warden Quells Escape Attempt

Shoots Three Prisoners Trying to Break Out With Injured Guard

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (UPI)—Warden Bob Rhay of the Washington State Penitentiary here today was credited with saving the life of a wounded prison guard when he personally quelled an escape attempt yesterday by shooting and critically wounding two of the three would-be escapers.

Rhay, who said he "didn't have time to think, but just acted," shot and wounded the two prisoners who made their bid for freedom as they were on their way from the maximum security portion of the prison into the visitors section of the administration building.

The warden took the decisive action after a security booth guard failed to open fire on the convicts when he was ordered to do so. The guard was suspended pending a hearing before the prison personnel board. His identity was withheld.

"I only had half a head to shoot at," said Rhay, as he described how he fired the shot which creased the head of Gordon O. Miller, 20, as Miller held a knife at the throat and threatened to kill guard Garmen Barnett, who already had been stabbed in the back.

Miller regained consciousness a short time later and made another rush toward freedom and Rhay shot him in the back, critically wounding the inmate.

Rhay also used the .38 caliber pistol to shoot Richard D. Petersen, 21, who charged the warden during the breakout attempt.

Elizabeth Taylor Tops Pneumonia, Leaves Hospital

The actress was able to walk to a car with her husband, singer Eddie Fisher. The couple went directly to their suite at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Coffee Prices Decline

WASHINGTON (UPI)—World retail coffee prices have dropped 10 to 20 per cent since last year because of higher production and an 11 per cent increase in trade, the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization reported yesterday.

Ask Mandatory Life Preservers

Michigan Water Safety Group Makes Several Recommendations

EAST LANSING (UPI) — The Michigan Water Safety Study Commission has recommended that life preservers be required for every person in a motorboat and that all new boats be tagged with maximum weight and horsepower capacities.

The commission also recommends that:

The commission also favored passage of a bill which would require that all drownings be reported to state police.

★ ★ ★

The recommendations will be given to Gov. G. Mennen Williams who is expected to pass them on to the Legislature.

The daily newspaper is the favorite advertising medium of the people. Every year, U. S. newspapers publish more than 300,000,000 classified ads—roughly two for every man, woman and child in the nation.

New Cigarette in Ad Trouble

Life Brand Accused of Making Untrue Claims by FTC

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Federal Trade Commission has accused the manufacturer of "Life" cigarettes of making false advertising claims. The cigarette is one of the new brands born by the cancer scare.

The FTC charged Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corp., of Louisville, Ky., and its advertising agency, Ted Bates & Co., Inc., New York City, of violating the FTC Act. The manufacturer promply denied the allegations.

The commission branded untrue the claim that Life cigarettes are "proved to give you the least tar or nicotine of all cigarettes." It also called untrue "representations" that the government endorses the cigarettes and has found them to be "lowest in tar, nicotine."

★ ★ ★

Brown & Williamson defended its ads in a statement that termed them "a proper and acceptable advertising technique." The firm denied that its advertising "implies government sanction."

President's India Visit Creates New Rapport

The extraordinary welcome President EISENHOWER has received in New Delhi marks a great change in the relations between the world's strongest and the world's largest democracies.

The reaction to Ike's speeches would indicate that sympathy has replaced suspicion. It is a tremendous gain for democracy and peace.

The world peace mission is without a doubt one of the greatest achievements of our President's career. It is the start of a new kind of leadership for the U.S. As a result we are emerging as a far bigger nation in the eyes of the countries Ike has visited.

President EISENHOWER'S personal interest in India has helped, and American financial aid has not gone unnoticed. The main driving force, however, behind the new feeling of friendship is the threat of China and the determination of Washington to seek peace through disarmament as expressed in the President's speech to the Indian Parliament.

The British paper, The Guardian, had this to say concerning IKE'S visit to India:

"The U.S. President's talk is all the more likely to be effective because, as Indians have woken up to the Chinese danger, America has given up lecturing them on the immorality of neutralism, and has instead taken up an attitude of cautious sympathy. President Eisenhower's call for a five-year or fifty-year plan against mistrust and misgiving, and fixation on the wrongs of the past may be vague, but it is what the Indians want to hear, and it will help to alter decisively the image of America which they carry in their minds."

If the President's messages have put across this friendly feeling in India, that in itself would be well worth the trip.

Refugee Camps Serve Propaganda Purposes

After visiting Arab refugee camps Sen. GORE, Tenn., and Sen. MCGEE, Wyo. charge that the United Nations Relief and Works Agency program is "immoral, dishonest and unfair."

The number on relief rolls in Jordan has expanded to one million partly because no names are ever removed. Thousands of cards entitling holders to draw rations are being fraudulently used to divert supplies into commercial markets.

Since the refugees fled Palestine over 10 years ago, many adults have died but their cards have not been turned in. Their families keep drawing the extra rations which they can either use or sell. At the same time thousands of babies get no personal rations except for supplemental milk.

Why not a new census? The Arab governments, particularly Jordan, refuse to allow it. They want nothing to upset their propaganda against Israel and are not concerned with the miseries and injustices of the camps themselves. In 1949 Israel's offer to take 100,000 Arab refugees was refused. By 1952, however, Israel had accepted responsibility for 27,674 already in the country and had permitted return of some to reunite families. There are 200,000 Arabs living peacefully and prospering in Israel.

★ ★ ★

In a recent television interview Israeli Judge Kteilly, an Arab, appointed by the Knesset on recommendation of the bar association, and who presides over both Arab and Jewish cases, emphasized that Arabs have the same freedom as Jews in Israel. As for a solution to the problem, he could only suggest "time and patience."

★ ★ ★

Sec. Gen. HAMMARSKJOLD has submitted a report showing how the income from oil and other investments could develop the Jordan area and absorb the refugees. Neither Saudi Arabia nor Iraq, both oil rich states, has any refugees. Arab leaders insist that the refugees must be settled in Israel. Many could not be "repatriated" because they never lived in what is now the state of Israel.

No progress can be made until the Arabs accept Israel's repeated offers to negotiate.

EVEN at the long odds of 700 to 1 against the possibility of catching a capsule released from a satellite, that's a much better chance than the pursuer of happiness has of overtaking it.

Is That the Way to Fix a Bad Tube?

David Lawrence Says:

Loyalty-Oath Colleges Face Critics

WASHINGTON — Some of the eastern colleges which have refused to allow their students to sign "loyalty oaths" so as to conform to federal law governing loans to students are now facing strong criticism for their own inconsistencies.

LAWRENCE

They themselves impose a species of "loyalty oath" which goes further in impinging on the rights of the individual than anything required by Congress.

The so-called "Ivy Group Agreement," which is a treaty between Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Pennsylvania, Brown, Cornell, Columbia and Dartmouth, consists of two closely printed pages containing 10 restrictive provisions and requiring the most detailed information, together with a series of pledges.

These include a complete disclosure of how much money the student is to receive from his family, from relatives and from any occupation throughout each year, and an itemized statement as to what sources, including savings, are to be used in financing his education. The "loyalty oath" reads as follows:

"I certify that the information here provided is accurate and complete and that I believe I am eligible to compete as an amateur in the college I am now attending.

"I have read and agree to abide by the policies and spirit of the Ivy Group Agreement."

★ ★ ★

This must be signed once a year during each of the four years of attendance. But it goes beyond the four sport seasons themselves. The athlete must swear that he will not participate in any "post-season" games even if he receives no compensation. Two seniors at the University of Pennsylvania, which won the football championship of the Ivy League last month, were recently invited to play in a north-south postseason game of the colleges. While they had already completed their football careers as undergraduates, their own university was threatened with a forfeiture of the championship if they played. They obeyed the edict.

YALE MAN TALKS

Mike Pyle, who played center on the Yale football team this year, had this to say about the Ivy Group Agreement in a recent issue of "Sports Illustrated":

"Ivy League athletes should have the same opportunity as anyone else to play in a post-season game. Every time I sign the Ivy League code I have an evil taste in my mouth. It's just a silly two-page document and I don't believe in it, but I have to sign it in order to play. I don't think the Ivy League has been fair to the athlete."

This particular athlete, an honor student, happens to have a father who is able to pay his way through college, but seemingly there is a tendency to suspect all those who may be working their way. The college authorities scrutinize every dollar of income a student receives to see if it comes from some outside source interested in helping an athlete.

Indeed, the Ivy Group Agreement goes so far as to prohibit any athlete from "engaging for money or other substantial consideration in any occupation, business transaction or advertising promotion wherein his usefulness or value arises chiefly from the publicity value of his name as an athlete or his ability as an athlete, etc."

Is it fair to inquire into the personal finances and occupations of every student just because he is an athlete? Can't he be trusted by taking a simple oath of allegiance to his college and the cause of amateur athletics? Why must the students who happen to be athletes undergo such a minute inspection of their personal affairs?

When Congress asks a student who applies for a government loan to take an oath of allegiance to his own government and to sign also only a simple paragraph which says he is not a member of any organization seeking to overthrow the government of the United States by force or violence, some of the spokesmen for Ivy League colleges condemn this as an "affront" and "coercion" and an insult to the students.

The American Council on Education calls it "superfluous" and "interference." The theory is that it pries into the private affairs of the student and makes him swear to something he doesn't intend to do anyway.

Loyalty to the government, it is argued, should be taken for granted. Then why shouldn't amateur standing and professional behavior be taken for granted, too?

The answer is that some form of pledge is felt to be necessary by the college authorities to conform to what is referred to as "the policies and the spirit of the Ivy Group Agreement."

Dr. William Brady Says:

My Temperance Fight Frustrated, Lonely One

At this time of the year we usually plead with people to make that "one for the road" coffee, or to give their car keys to the bartender early in the evening so they won't try to drive home when the party is over.

DR. BRADY

I wonder whether all this please-be-careful propaganda has any appreciable influence on the conduct of holiday drinkers. I can't imagine a man or woman about to join a drinking party Christmas or New Year's eve handing his or her car keys to any one for safe keeping before he or she has become obviously intoxicated.

In all my years of teaching and preaching temperance and total abstinence I have never felt so frustrated and pessimistic as I do now. And lonesome.

Several times I have appealed to parents, teachers, pastors, grandparents, uncles, aunts, big brothers or sisters and others who have any influence upon young persons (not by intention but quite understandably I omitted physicians from the list) to give me some encouragement.

The response to these appeals has been frightfullly weak, or perhaps I should say timid, for it is so evident that most readers who pat me on the back and urge me to continue the fight do so only under the assurance of anonymity.

It seems that everybody, from the eminent clergyman down to the greenest clerk, has to think first of his livelihood.

Physiologists, psychologists, pharmacologists and medical authorities agree that even one or two drinks of liquor impair judgment. Unfortunately there is no agreement on just what constitutes intoxication or how much a drinker's judgment is impaired by the usual "one or two drinks."

This is like deciding how much more sugar a man may have in his blood than the normal 0.12 per cent fasting or 0.16 per cent following a meal without being diabetic.

Probably the liquor industry prefers to keep it this way.

Signed letters not more then one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Editorial on Student Oath Brings Opposing Answer

In regards to your recent editorial on the student loyalty oath, I feel I must come to the defense of those who will not take it. I'm a Pontiac resident and attend Wilmington College, an institution sponsored by the Society of Friends.

★ ★ ★

This is one of the schools where the loyalty oath program was refused and the reason is that many of us feel that requiring an oath is putting the state on the level of God. Very few people will question the loyalty of Quakers and our college has not been labeled subversive. From this minority group of Quakers have come many outstanding leaders, Herbert Hoover for one, and there have never been any indications of Communist affiliations.

★ ★ ★

I feel it's the editor's duty to find all the facts before condemning an issue and I demand an apology to those students, such as myself, that he would label Communist.

Two More Knock Clarkston Setup

I'm a student from Clarkston High and think the bad publicity given our kids is unjustified. A few fellows got in trouble, but most of them are really nice.

★ ★ ★

I'm not excusing them, but all our students shouldn't be punished for the mistake of a few. But one thing's for sure—there's very little recreation in our town. It's not quite as bad in winter as summer, when there's no recreation at all. If we want to find any, we must go out of town.

★ ★ ★

If older people here would spend half the time trying to get to know us as they do running us down, everyone would benefit. If we're to be good citizens of tomorrow, we need a little help and understanding today.

Wishful Teen-ager

Obviously the person signed Early Twenties never lived in Clarkston and tried to have a little clean fun without having a car. There's nothing but a bowling alley within miles. The high school has a few things, but not every week. There's a good movie once in a while at one of the churches.

★ ★ ★

Streets are rolled up early and there's nothing doing after eight or nine in the evening. I'm in my late, late twenties and went to high school here and it hasn't changed a bit when it comes to recreation for young people.

★ ★ ★

As another writer said, the old stuffed shirts want everything their own way and nothing can change their ways. We need a teen club for all teens up to 20 or 21, for the age of the boys who got into trouble is the hardest age of all to find something to do. We hope more of the people in our town will get busy and find something for the young people to do.

'Do Those Women Cause Divorces?'

Perhaps it's women like Fed Up who think all men are bums that cause a lot of trouble and divorce. I'm getting tired of that kind of letters in VOP. I have four sisters and six sisters-in-law who have been happily married to the same men for many years.

Mrs. Brotherly Love

'Can You Dispute Bible's Teaching?'

I hear where some man said he could prove the Bible was wrong. Now the Bible says God is love. If everybody loved everybody else, there would be no wars. On the other hand if everybody tried to get the best of the other fellow, what turmoil there'd be.

'Better Think Twice Before Leaping In'

All those girls that want to be married at 16 or 17 better finish high school so if that knight in white turns out to be a flop and you're back on your own at the age of 20 or 21, why just remember the employers don't take girls who haven't finished high school and you're really behind the eight ball. Today more and more firms are showing a great desire for college graduates and where will you stand then?

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Try This Experiment on Children

Stan Dale has one of the most popular disc jockey programs in America. And he uses clever experiments to whet further interest, as in the case of the "Little Sandy Sleighfoot" test described below. Try the same musical experiment with your own youngsters and see if you don't agree with Stan Dale.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

★ ★ ★

DR. CRANE

He experimented with the new Christmas song hit entitled "Little Sandy Sleighfoot," as sung by Jimmy Dean and directed by Mitch Miller.

First, he would play the record at 45 r.p.m., which is its normal speed.

Then he would use a 78 r.p.m. needle but employ the same record.

Stan Dale then let the children express their preference. And how do you readers think they voted? Well, Stan Dale says the kids much preferred the faster tempo with the higher pitched voices.

Perhaps this resulted from their linking the higher voices with themselves, for youngsters have higher pitched tones than oldsters.

But children also prefer faster tempo in their music. In fact, that is true of teen-agers and college youth, too.

The Rock 'n' Roll craze thus meets a fundamental need of young people, for it permits them to dissipate energy much faster than waltz music.

TEEN MUSIC FADS

To understand a young person better, visualize the old fashioned steam locomotive with a hot fire in the fire box and the steam gauges registering almost the explosive point.

Children feel very uncomfortable as their inner "steam" pressure rises, so they welcome any activity that will drain off their tension fast.

Older folks have little excess energy. So we prefer slower tempo and waltz dance tunes.

★ ★ ★

But young folks need twice as fast an expenditure of energy per minute as their parents, just to feel comfortable.

For such music dissipates energy faster both because of the speedier tempo and also the greater amount of athletics involved.

MUSICAL CALISTHENICS

Teen-agers want music that is about 75 per cent calisthenics and 25 per cent melody.

★ ★ ★

Oldsters try to hoard their waning vitality, so they can't stand that high degree of athletics involved in teen-age music.

This is not an American trait of teen-agers, for it pertains to all young people. And it has been true since the beginning of time.

In fact, this energy difference is true of other species. Just watch an old ewe in Spring with her twin lambs!

They frolic and run races and jump high in the air to kick their heels before they land on the sod, while mamma leisurely munches grass.

If you wish to lead children into an appreciation of the so-called great music of classical design, you must first understand their "steam boiler" situation.

Then gradually mix two or three fast tempo pieces with each more serious number. And weave dramatic narration, plus emotional idealism, around your classical (or church) music to make it a permanent favorite.

Meanwhile, test your own youngsters with the "Little Sandy Sleighfoot" record, playing it first at 45 r.p.m. and then using the 78 r.p.m. needle thereon.

Let them vote and see if they don't agree with Stan Dale's clever experiment on Station WAIT at Chicago.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Medics Need Better Public Rlations

BINGHAMTON, N. Y. (UPI)—The president of the New York State Medical Society says doctors should pay more attention to public relations.

Dr. Harry I. Fineberg told a medical meeting that if doctors are to "re-establish our traditional prestige and high standing in the community, we must . . . be available when needed . . . be willing to talk to our patients in language they will understand . . . and charge equitable and fair fees."

Draft Dodger Given Two-Year Sentence

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Walter R. Crum, 24, of Detroit, has been sentenced to a two-year prison term for failing to report for induction into the Army.

Crum pleaded guilty to the charge Friday and was sentenced by Federal Judge Carl A. Weinman, who said Crum's sentence was to be the length of a hitch in the Army — with no parole.

GAMES FOR the whole family increase each year. However, old favorites retain their popularity. Numbered cards bring the youngest mathematician into combat with the head of the household.

Many Holiday Games Math, Brain Busters

Board games based on familiar TV formats are proving to be a magnet for all ages. A new favorite in this category is Concentration which, like its TV counterpart, bases play on matching hidden items with numbers to work out picture word puzzles.

There's a new edition for naming tunes. This has excerpts from rock and roll and other hits of the day as a companion to the first edition which features nostalgic tunes.

Captain Kangaroo, another TV inspired game group, also plays without need for reading and counting skills.

There's also a major boom in Western style games.

Still another significant trend in the game world of 1959 is the popularity of games that help children with their school work, such as Game of the States and Go to the Head of the Class.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Maze games are another type with appeal to both school-age children and grownups. Try-It, a plastic maze, provides a series of traps. The missile age inspires a new Wipe Off Target game which bases play on tracking space ships and missiles.

Sports lovers will find a wide choice of basketball, football and hockey games keyed to expert strategy. Some are electrically operated.

Jesse D. Medlen Will Head County Engineer Group

The Oakland County Engineering Society has announced the election of Jesse D. Medlen as its president for the coming year.

The county group will be host to the 1062 convention of the Michigan Engineering Society it also was announced.

★ ★ ★

And today, lured into the backyard by the charcoal grill, most men are outdoor men.

Family men will be happy with something in the outdoor cooking line: A small, portable grill to take along on an outing, cooking utensils, an apron and chef's hat if he cooks often for guests.

Popular gifts also are available in the cooler line: an ice chest — one new one has a sandwich tray that doubles as a charcoal grill when removed — is good for the man who takes the family on frequent auto trips.

The boatsman, hunter or fisherman will appreciate one of the new insulated plastic bags that come equipped with sandwich boxes and two thermos bottles.

Gifts in the fishing line are almost endless. For the new fisherman, one firm is putting out a spin-fishing kit that includes rod, reel, lures, several spools of line and a spinfishing manual. The veteran is always happy with a new lure or reel, or a tackle box. There's a plastic box now that has the advantage of being rust proof.

Fisherman or hunter might like some item of camping equipment —a sleeping bag, camp chair, outdoor stove, or portable, battery operated refrigerator. The hunter will also appreciate a gun cover, a gun-cleaning set, or new hunting jacket.

★ ★ ★

If he's a target shooter, you can surprise him Christmas morning with one of the new .22 rifles made of structural nylon; they weigh only four pounds.

Head mits for his clubs are sure to please the golfer. Or if he could use a new golf bag, surprise him with a new departure, the one-pound Sunday Caddi. It is simply an aluminum shaft with a shepherd's crook handle on which are mounted two discs of plastic. It will hold eight clubs and three balls without rattling. Other ideas: A long-playing record in which one of the top pros explains the finer points of golf, a device for practicing putts on the living room rug, or an automatic stroke counter.

★ ★ ★

Extend Payola Deadline

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Communications Commission has given broadcasters an additional month to file reports on whether "payola" figured in their operations during the past year.

Tree Tradition Spells Money

100,000 Private Acres Now Planted Solely to Yule Production

Beginning with Revolutionary War days growth of the Christmas tree tradition has produced a multi-million dollar industry.

Christmas trees distributed in the United States total 30 million annually. Estimated retail sales value recently was placed at 50 million dollars with trees bought for eight of every 10 homes.

By far the greatest percentage of Christmas trees come from privately owned land. There are an estimated 100,000 acres now planted solely for their production.

Although it is a big business, cutting of evergreens creates an annual headache for the growers. Many tree lovers think the cutting is wasteful and detrimental to conservation interests. Actually, authorities claim properly supervised harvesting thins out the numbers and allows the trees to develop.

To enjoy your tree more during the holidays select a healthy tree and take care of it, Martin L. Davey Jr., head of the Davey tree experts, says to choose a tree that will hold its needles well if you plan to keep it more than a week.

Best bet, if you live in northern climes, is the balsam fir, Douglas fir, Scotch or Austrian pine. The Norway spruce is always popular because of its fine symmetrical form, but doesn't like heated rooms and sheds its needles rather quickly.

In the South among the good selections are the Fraser balsam fir, any variety of false cypress, the long leaf and slash pines and eastern red cedar.

The Rocky Mountain states have the Englemann spruce, Douglas fir and lodgepole pine, among others. The West Coast likes the white and silver fir and California incense cedar.

FREE PARKING IN REAR OF BUILDING

Finds It Works in Tough East Harlem

Policeman Tries Loving People

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

This is a common scene at offices of the man who supervises law enforcement today in one of the city's toughest neighborhoods.

Deputy Inspector Conrad S. Jensen does the job — not just with a strong arm — but with spiritual stimulation. The Bible is his handbook.

"It's the only real answer for any situation," he says.

Big, muscular, 48-year-old Jensen for 3½ years has commanded the 23rd precinct, embracing Manhattan's discordant, racially variegated, gang-ridden East Harlem.

"What most of these people need," he commented in an interview, "is a little love and attention."

On the force 23 years, Jensen this month was promoted from precinct captain to divisional deputy inspector, with jurisdiction over a wider sector, but still including the troublous area with which he's familiar.

FIRST A CHRISTIAN

"It try to discharge my duties first as a Christian, then as a policeman," he said.

"When a person comes to the place that he realizes the word of God does have the anwers to the problems of society, it is amazing what happens."

In motley, jumbled East Harlem, with its Italian - Negro - Irish - German - Puerto Rican population and the biggest concentration of youth gangs in town, the high crime rate has declined during Jensen's tenure.

He urges his force to make friends with residents, to help them with their troubles. Officers are sent into schools to make talks.

"We try to latch on to every opportunity to do good," he said.

It may be attending an orphan girl's graduation, or arranging a funeral for some lonely dweller or a cop bringing a batch of young ones to the stationhouse while their mother is whisked to a hospital.

Jensen's office door is always open to any kid that wants to see him. They know he's there whenever his gray station wagon, with its sign saying "Time is short, Eternity sure," is parked out front.

Jensen keeps a Bible on his desk. In discussions with upset families or worried teen-agers, he often reads pertinent verses, sometimes kneels with them in prayer.

"It's the only influence in this cockeyed world that can change a person," he said. "It's the only lasting item in a person's life."

Jensen would rather use consideration than constraint. However, the 230-pound, 6-foot-1 man, one of the police department's ace pistol shots, comments:

★ ★ ★

"The only time to use force is to overcome resistance. In that case, a policeman has a legitimate right and a duty to use any method to protect himself. If a hand is laid on me, I'll fracture as many skulls as I can reach."

Even so, he says, neither the nightstick nor jail is the real solution. As a Baptist lay evangelist, he spends his spare time and days off speaking at about a dozen meetings in settlement projects and elsewhere each month.

He has written numerous tracts about juvenile delinquency and moral regeneration, including one titled "What the Bible Says About Policemen," stressing John the Baptist's ethical instructions to the Roman Legionaires.

"The world is dying for a little love. Everyone is so busy running around trying to keep up with an economy that's already over our heads. We have more gadgets and less goodness than we've ever had.

"I don't believe the answer is in new houses and new playgrounds, but in new people. They can be changed, and only the Gospel can change them. The Gospel of Christ can change anybody."

Flameproofing an Aid to Safety

Use Boric Acid With Borax on Ballet Skirt to Prevent Worry

Christmas candles and holiday lights spell fire hazard as well as Yuletide greetings. Play safe, especially with children's costumes.

This year when making a costume for the school play or ballet, use cotton leotards and tights as a base. The absorbency of the natural mercerized cotton yarn makes it possible to flame-proof them with simple drug store ingredients.

★ ★ ★

If, for example, you are making ballet costumes for that favorite, "The Nutcracker Suite," plan to flameproof the cotton leotards and ballet skirt a day or so before readying the decorative touches.

★ ★ ★

To make the fire-retarding mixture, dissolve three ounces of boric acid and seven ounces of borax in two quarts of hot water.

Dip clean, dry leotards, tights and ballet skirt into the mixture, then damp dry. You can count on the mercerized cotton leotards to hold their shape and the ballet skirt can be pressed with the iron at low heat.

After this solution is applied materials may char but will not burst into flash flames. This method works only with natural fibers which are absorbent. The flameproofing must be renewed after each washing.

Cut two wing shapes from lightweight cardboard and two from silver paper. Bend a wire coat hanger into a V-shape and snip off the hook.

Tape one cardboard wing shape to each side of wire with long strips of masking tape. Then cover this with the silver paper wings.

Salk Vaccine Piles Up

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Foundation says public interest in polio immunization has so waned that more than 12 million doses of Salk vaccine are stockpiled in warehouses.

NATIVE OF BETHLEHEM: The Rev. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, one of the world's foremost Protestant leaders, is president of the United States Conference for the World Council of Churches. He policy-making central committee of the World Council of Churches, chairman of its executive committee and vice chairman of the United States Conferene for the World Council of Churches. He was born Aug. 30, 1900, in Bethlehem, Pa.

Christmas Is a Birthday, Not Just Tinsel and Gifts

Everyone knows there is more to Christmas than tinsel, mistletoe, and gifts. Shame on us for often allowing the heart of it to be blurred.

The new-born Christ is the soul of Christmas.

When you think of what we will be celebrating on the Holy Night, what do you see? My eyes are on a manger and a baby. It is a birthday that we commemorate, a birthday with endless fascination and inexhaustible charm.

The magnet that draws us to the cattle stall in Bethlehem is the fact that there, as nowhere else on earth, God and man meet. God the all-good, who usually seems to be far above our heads, and man who at his best reaches only feebly toward the light, are united here in a crib for a bed.

How wonderfully this child binds together the extremes in life. He, to quote Shakespeare, who "issued from progeny of kings, virtuous and holy, chosen from above" is born of a peasant girl; He joins the toilers of the earth.

The One who heard the morning stars sing together at creation became poor for my sake that I by His goodness should be rich.

He who was in the form of God, emptied Himself and took the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of man.

God is in this spotless child's purity. He shines with a clean light from heaven above. How the Babe of Bethlehem sparkled in contrast to the soiled world around Him. That is still true as we had all better recognize.

★ ★ ★

The pure Saviour will not come and live for long in any human heart that will not repent and be cleansed.

★ ★ ★

See humility here, too. The all-powerful son of God was so humble that He became a helpless child. In Him God stoops to earth. He enters humanity's low door and He does it without being stifled or ruffled or in any way less the God He is.

That quality ought to be in us, too. But instead of being lowly in spirit of our own volition, how often our pride has to be humiliated.

Happy is the man or woman who is wise and clear-eyed enough to be lowly. It means he sees himself in a true light; it helps him to see God.

Joy is the mood. Glory to God, the skies re-echo. Joy to the world, our hearts reply. Good tidings are here for all people.

The new-born Christ is an artist at breaking down and breaking through every barrier of every kind. He is the nemesis of prejudice. He is color blind as He looks at humanity.

★ ★ ★

No nation is more exalted or honorable in His sight than another. Not our own or any other. A chorus of thanksgiving rises on Christmas from every continent; His praises are sung in a thousand tongues.

★ ★ ★

Tyrants have always feared this holy infant. Bloody King Herod went into a panic when he heard of His birth. To this day evil oppressors tear down His altars. The reason is clear. They instinctively know that this Jesus will be the death of them.

On Christmas Eve this year let the enemies of mankind tremble again. The carols of the everlasting Christmas cannot be quenched in men's hearts.

The pull of this babe is more powerful than bayonets. Generations pass and centuries are soon gone, but He reigns forever with a cattle-crib for His throne.

Long live Jesus, the new-born king.

Ike Visiting There Today

Iran (Persia) Likes U.S.

By TOM MASTERSON

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — President Eisenhower's visit today to Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi reflected a century of unbroken and friendly diplomatic relations between Iran and the United States.

★ ★ ★

Iran, or Persia, was among America's first friends in this area and has remained firmly so.

For the average American, however, it has also remained one of the least known countries.

At Tabriz, in Iran's far northwest corner, Iranians are building a monument to an American teacher named Howard Baskerville. He fought for the establishment of the Iranian constitutional monarchy in a civil war half a century ago. The monument marks the spot where Baskerville died — in a conflict which few Americans ever heard of.

Iranians have been interested in America for decades. Americans tended to ignore or forget Iran except in times of sudden crisis.

The President's visit may serve to remind Iranians that this attitude has changed.

Americans came into Iran in a big way during World War II when the Persian Gulf Command helped funnel arms to the Soviet Union over a tortuous 1,800 mile railroad route.

Today thousands of Americans are working in Iran on various development projects, helping train the army or here in private business.

★ ★ ★

For years British influence was dominant. Now Americans are stronger although they have refrained from political pressures on Iranian governments. In fact some Iranians criticize the United States for this, saying "you're too democratic."

American help was the key factor in getting Iran's vast petroleum fields back into operation after Mohammed Mossadegh nationalized British-owned properties in the early 50s, bringing the Abadan refinery to a shutdown.

This agreement guaranteed the Iranian government half the oil earnings. Iran's share now stands at roughly 240 million dollars annually with production and income increasing.

Confederate Flag to Be Reconditioned

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A Confederate flag, believed to be the first captured during the Civil War, will be laboriously reconditioned by the West Virginia Historical Society.

Kyle McCormick, director of the State Department of Archives and History, said the flag was captured at the Battle of Philippi June 3, 1861, and will be used in re-enactment of the battle.

McCormick said the job, undertaken on recommendation of the Smithsonian Institution, will require about 200 hours of stitching.

Little Mothers Worry

Doll Surgeon Works Miracles on 'Babies'

NEW YORK (AP) — Tears filled the eyes of a dark haired little girl as she handed her precious doll, Susie, to the doll doctor.

"My Susie is blind," she said.

Twenty minutes later the child smiled broadly, then jumped happily.

"Susie can see again," she laughed.

The "doctor" who performed this non-medical miracle is one of the nation's small group of experts in the art of repairing broken dolls, Irving Chase.

"Doctor Irving" has been repairing dolls for as long as he can remember. He learned the art from his father and from his grandfather, who repaired dolls in Germany.

NICE LITTLE MOTHERS

Chase addresses his assistants as nurses, the broken dolls as patients, and the young doll owners as little mothers.

"The children always want to watch me operate," Chase says. "They caution me to be careful, so that I won't hurt their Joans or Marys." The dolls always are spoken of by name.

★ ★ ★

A typical operating day for the doll doctor includes some head surgery — new heads on dolls, repairing a few broken noses, replacing some cracked eyes, and some plastic surgery — putting a new finish on an old doll.

★ ★ ★

Not all customers are children. Chase recalls an 80-year-old woman who came into the store one day.

She had a doll that was given to her by her grandmother and she in turn had passed it on to her children. She had outlived her children and now wanted the doll cleaned.

The peak season for doll hospitals is from December to February. In December adults bring in broken dolls to be repaired as Christmas gifts, and children often insist that their dolls get new holiday outfits.

★ ★ ★

A doll doctor not only has to repair broken dolls but create new ones. Chase recalls a woman brought her daughter in and asked him to make a doll that looked like the young girl.

★ ★ ★

Like a real doctor who talks about his tough operations, Chase spoke about an incident that occurred several years ago.

On behalf of 700 Michigan Bell employees in the Pontiac District, may we wish you a very, very Merry Christmas.

There are still ten shopping days until Christmas. This is plenty of time to order a gift extension telephone in your choice of colors for friends or relatives. To make it convenient for you, we will gift wrap the instrument. Just call FE 3-9911 or come in to our downtown office. Its an easy way to solve a gift problem and gives cheer all year.

CHRISTMAS GIFT TIP

Would you like to give a present that brings pleasure, convenience and security . . . for only about 25¢ a week? In addition, you can take your choice of nine attractive colors. Interested? Well, the gift is an extension telephone, and it's one Christmas present that will bring happiness for years to come—wherever it's used. To give a phone to someone special, call our Business Office today.

DID YOU EVER WISH THAT YOU WERE TWINS during the month of December? One person to stay home and write Christmas cards, cook and decorate; while the other takes charge of the shopping and visiting. It would make everything a lot easier, wouldn't it? Now a telephone won't do quite as much work as an extra person, but it certainly can speed up some of those last-minute chores such as shopping, visiting, or making appointments. If you kept a record of all the telephone calls you make during a week, you'd see the time and money you save by telephoning!

ALL OF US AT THE TELEPHONE COMPANY send you our best Christmas wishes. We'll be trying to give you even better service in the year to come.

U.S. Capitol Once Contained a Bakery

By JOHN H. AVERILL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Is there a snuff box under the desk used by the speaker of the House of Representatives? No. But the desk houses one of the world's smallest elevators.

And did you know the U.S. Capitol Building got its first air conditioning system exactly 100 years ago? It worked, too.

Or that a bakery, equipped to provide bread for up to 3,000 soldiers, once flourished in the maze of tunnels that honeycomb the Capitol basement?

These are samples of a mass of information capitol employes are eager to pass along. Here's what one of them had to say about the early air conditioning:

"There were some great engineers back in those days. Well, they built some stone stacks. You can still see them on the Capital grounds. They ran pipes from the stacks down under the building where steam-powered blowers sucked air in from outside and across a chamber filled with ice.

"From there, another blower forced the cold air into other pipes that led to various rooms in the Capitol and it came out through registers. Some still are in use."

According to this historian, that early day air conditioning system could keep the Capitol temperature at even 70 degrees, even during the most blistering July day.

ANOTHER TALE

Another gave this account of the early bread ovens:

"Did you know Union troops were quartered in the Capitol rotunda during the Civil War? At one time as many as 2,500 took their meals there. Sometime during the war, from six to eight big bread ovens were built down in the basement.

What about that desk elevator? Very simple.

When the House chamber was remodeled in 1950, House officials decided that since speakers often have to read from heavy documents, some provision be made for both tall and short speakers.

So, a 22 by 36 inch section of the speaker's desk was put on an elevator mechanism. By a touch of a button he can raise that section as high as 18 inches above the rest of the desk. Another flick returns it flush with the desk.

★ ★ ★

However, since both Democrat Sam Rayburn of Texas and Republican Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts—the only men to serve as speaker since 1950 —are both short, as far as is known the elevator has never been used.

Radio Moscow to Teach Russian in Small Doses

LONDON (UPI)—Moscow Radio announced over the weekend that it will begin a Russian-language course for its North American listeners Feb. 14.

The course will consist of three 15 minute sessions a week lasting until June and will be resumed again in the fall, the Radio said.

"When you have finished our course, you will know how to speak a little Russian, read Russion newspapers and listen to the Soviet radio in Russian," the announcement said.

Give Something Ultra Different

How About Trip to the Caribbean, or a Chest of Chicago Beef?

Choosing the Christmas gift that will stand out above all others and won't be duplicated calls for imagination and lots of personal thought.

A trip to Aruba, newest vacation isle in the Caribbean, would rank high as an extra-lavish gift for the winter-weary who like to be first to discover new places.

This lovely island boasts one of the finest beaches in the area and its first luxury hotel, the glamorous Aruba Caribbean.

For those who prefer to entertain at home, a pleasure chest of beef shipped from a packing company in Chicago, is sure to satisfy the most demanding taste. This includes steaks, chops, roasts and even chopped beef of quality and flavor previously only available in expensive restaurants.

An electric tray that keeps hot foods hot custom-made to fit any buffet or serving table is the perfect hostess gift.

The special gift need not be limitd to luxuries. There are those designed to make working hours easier.

For example, for farmers or truck drivers there are special seats with suspension systems that make tractors or trucks ride like passenger cars.

Unusual gifts are not confined to human members of the family. For dogs, there is a doggy dryer to help avoid winter colds in this important member of the family.

Can't Scale Language Barrier

Iraqis Contemptuous of Russian Engineers

Until early this year when Iraq began signing a flock of trade and cultural agreements with the Soviet Union and other eastern bloc countries, few Iraqis had ever seen a Russian. When the first ones arrived they were greeted as a welcome change from American and British "imperialists"—the "bad guys" who backed up the old regime led by King Faisal II and Premier Nuri Es-Said.

REDS REBUFFED

There are now some 250 "experts" and specialists in Iraq from Communist countries—about 80 per cent from the Soviet Union. The remainder are from Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and East Germany.

For all the attacks against U. S. and British foreign policy by Iraq's revolutionary leaders and press, individual Americans and Britons have continued to receive friendly treatment in most quarters.

The Soviets appear to be in the reverse position. The Soviet government is daily hailed by public figures and newspapers, but individual Russians are finding their reception increasingly cold.

Language is a major problem. Many Iraqis speak passable to excellent English. Almost none speak Russian, Polish or Czech. Few Russians in Iraq speak either Arabic or English.

★ ★ ★

Nearly one-third of the Eastern bloc technicians and staff personnel now in Iraq are translators hired at Iraqi expense to turn various languages into English.

In many cases another translator is needed on the same job to turn English into Arabic.

The Russians and their Communist neighbors have run into other problems. When a Soviet technician turned up as replacement for an American at the government-owned oil refinery east of Baghdad he looked over a piece of complicated American equipment and shook his head. How did this thing work? He wanted to know. The Iraqis explained it.

As one American put it, "You might say the American equipment was 'over engineered.' The Russians may have a machine that does the same job, but it's simpler.

★ ★ ★

Fund for Republic Chief Hits Criticism of Society

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dr. Robert M. Hutchins, president of the Fund for the Republic, criticized last night universities, communications media an professional associations for reflecting rather than criticizing society.

"The universities have become folk institutions," charged Hutchins in a speech at the Southern California branch of the American Civil Liberties Union commemorating the 168th anniversary of the Bill of Rights. Rep. William H. Meyer (D-Vt) also spoke.

Hutchins said, "The professional associations, even in what used to be called the learned professions, have tended to look like the propaganda divisions of pressure groups.

Hearts Go Out to 3-Year-Old

Home for Last Christmas

IRON RIVER (UPI) — Three-year-old Dane Spencer, happily playing with a big teddy bear and a full Santa's pack of toys, was home today for what will probably be his last Christmas.

The slight, sparkling-eyed boy, who doctors believe will die of leukemia before next Christmas, was flown home from Detroit yesterday by a Civil Air Patrol plane.

Three big bundles of toys from well-wishers were loaded into the plane for the trip and there was another pile of Christmas gifts waiting when the craft landed at the Irion Mountain airport.

Hotel owner Bev Fritch of Detroit, the pilot, and Roger Burgess, CAP information officer, acting as navigator, made the flight when doctors at Children's Hospital warned the 13-hour automobile ride would be too much for Dane.

Dane and his mother, Mrs. Donna Spencer, 28, were to have flown home Saturday, but the flight was postponed because of bad weather.

When they stepped out of the twin-engine Apache plane about four hours after leaving Detroit Metropolitan Airport at 2:30 p.m. yesterday, the father, Russell, was waiting with an ambulance to take his wife and son home.

The CAP volunteered to fly the boy and his mother home because the family could not afford to charter a private plane. Spencer had been unemployed because of the steel strike.

★ ★ ★

Dane was thrilled by his first visit home in several months and by all his presents. He did not know why so many people had opened their hearts to him.

They're Off!—200 Yards

BARNSLEY, England (UPI) — Three intrepid English girls set out from Barnsley yesterday on a 5,000-mile expedition to the Sahara desert in an old Army truck. The truck broke down 200 yards from starting point.

Banker Suffers Violent Death

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Violent death in a ragged part of town early Sunday ended a night of revelry for banker George F. Rock, 52, Colorado Democratic national committeeman for seven years.

His body, the clothes blood-stained and pockets turned inside out, was found in a tiny park—littered with wine bottles and beer cans. An autopsy showed he died of a skull fracture.

Detective Sgt. Keith Morris said Darlene Gresham, 29, a Negro, told him Rock, who was white, fell down the stairway of her apartment.

★ ★ ★

Morris said the woman related she called a Negro cab driver and with the aid of another Negro woman placed Rock's unconscious body in the cab and drove to the park eight blocks away where they dumped Rock's body.

★ ★ ★

The detective said William Franklin Tribmel, 28, a cab driver, admitted he made the trip. Police are holding the Gresham woman, Tribmel and another Negro, Clarence McGroom, 32. No charges have been filed.

Paraguay Last Dictatorship Outpost in South America

By The Associated Press

Paraguay is the last stronghold of dictatorship in South America. The California-sized country of 1,600,000 in the central part of South America never has known real democracy since its beginning as an independent nation in 1811.

These include the often voiced antipathy of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro; criticism from Buenos Aires newspapers—led by La Prensa—in neighboring Argentina; the silent threat of 25,000 Paraguayan exiles living just across the border in Argentina; and the growing dissatisfaction of the Roman Catholic Church.

ONE MAN RULE

Paraguay has all the trappings of one-man rule. Public places and buildings in the capital city of Asuncion are named after Stroessner. There is no freedom of the press. A rubber stamp Congress approves anything Stroessner proposes. The military reigns supreme, and only one political party—the Colorado party—is allowed to operate freely. A modified form of martial law has been in on-and-off effect for 15 years. The country is landlocked, surrounded by Argentina, Brazil, and Bolivia.

★ ★ ★

However, Stroessner has made Paraguay's currency one of South America's most stable and has reluctantly begun economic improvements.

LOOKED OUT FOR MILITARY

Stroessner, a veteran artillery officer who worked his way up to general, spearheaded a coup in 1954 and took over as president. The army, together with the government police, a total of 12,000 men, has kept him in the driver's seat.

Stroessner took care of his own by appropriating 35 per cent of the national budget to the military while needed hospitals and education centers went unbuilt.

U.S. Ambassador Walter Ploeser, a St. Louis insurance executive, says the 23½ million dollars in U.S. aid to Paraguay "is for the Paraguayan people—it is not for any political group." But opposition leaders contend — and convincingly—that U.S. aid has bolstered Stroessner's position.

★ ★ ★

Some of the Colorados are demanding more funds for themselves and less for the military. A faction, headed by Epifanio Mendez Fleitas, shouts its demands from exile in Montevideo, Uruguay. Some of the exiles barely escaped arrest after Stroessner had dissolved his Congress when it displeased him several months ago.

CATHOLICS ASK FREEDOM

A group of young Catholic priests, headed by the Rev. Ramon Talavera—also in exile in Montevideo—has demanded greater church and political freedom. They, in addition to the other Paraguayan exiles, are suspected of accepting financial support from Castro.

★ ★ ★

In an attempt to hamper the activities of the exiles, Stroessner closed Paraguay's border with Argentina last September.

★ ★ ★

Vice President Richard M. Nixon visited Paraguay for 18 hours in May, 1958. He received a resounding welcome which was marred only by the arrest of several students shouting "long live liberty." Stroessner told newsmen it was a Communist slogan.

Dad Drowns 2 Babies in River; Seven Left

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — Alfred Scarberry, 42, is being held on two charges of first-degree murder after he admitted to police that he threw the two youngest of his nine children into the Little Scioto River.

Scarberry told police he waded into the river near his home here late Saturday night with 2-year-old Kenneth and 2-month-old David Lee and let them go. The bodies have not been recovered.

Police said Scarberry had been drinking, and had threatened earlier to set fire to his three-room home.

Grim Reaper Takes 27 From Texas Highways

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Death stalked weekend travelers in Texas, underscoring a grim official warning that the Christmas holidays will take an even bloodier toll.

Twenty-seven persons died — five in one crash—in 19 auto accidents between 6 p.m. Friday and last midnight.

People in the U. S. and Canada now spend $3,715,000 a day, $30,076,000 a week, and $1,563,942,000 a year for daily and Sunday newspapers.

New Cigarette Shown Lowest in Tar, Nicotine

Washington, D. C.: The United States Government has just received a special report which shows that a new filter cigarette—today's new Life—has achieved the least tar and nicotine ever attained. This report, filed with the government in the public interest, supersedes all previous ratings.

Achieves Least Tar, Nicotine

Following accepted research practice, the table shown at left omits all brand names except the one lowest in tar and nicotine—new Life. One of the scientists who developed new Life, Mr. Thomas Wade, said in an interview:

"This new advance was largely due to one factor—the super-absorbent Millecel Filter developed for Life Cigarettes. With this new filter, Life has been able to achieve the least tar and nicotine of any cigarette made, as shown by the filter ratings on file with the U.S. Government."

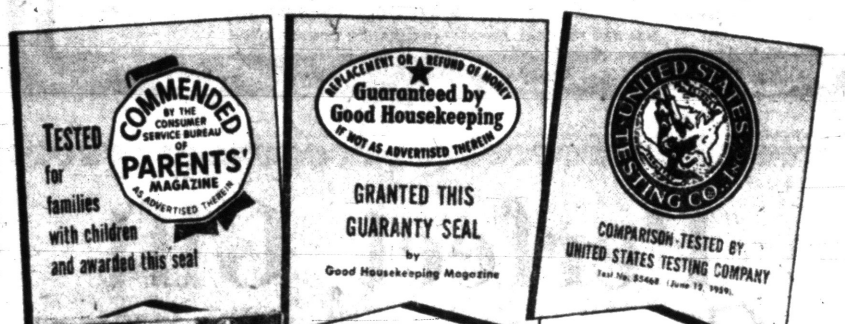

Report to Government Welcomed

Life has set a new standard of tar and nicotine reduction. Life scientists have also developed new taste enrichment which delivers full flavor never before possible in a filter cigarette.

Smokers, acting on the new ratings filed with the U.S. Government, are changing to new Life . . . for the least tar and nicotine in history.

Bright Future for Sun Power?

(Editor's note — Man has long dreamed of harnessing the sun's power for his own use. And gradually he learns new ways of trapping this boundless source of energy. Here are some of his achievements so far, with a look into the future of what many scientists call a solar bonanza.)

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

In France a giant eye gathers the power of the sun and pinpoints it into heat strong enough to melt steel.

Every day the sun showers upon the earth 30,000 times as much energy as man needs for all his power purposes.

And every day most of this free power is wasted because man doesn't know how to gather it up and store it for use at his will.

GRASS HIGHLY EFFICIENT

The common blade of grass is a wonder man can't reproduce. Yet it contains millions of tiny sunlight engines more efficient than anything man has yet been able to build with his reflecting mirrors and his special chemicals. Still there has been some progress.

Overhead the Vanguard I satellite broadcast a radio signal from some 2,400 miles in space. It got its power from sunlight trapped in small flat windows on its surface and converted into electricity.

The Russians have a highly polished mirror device that gathers the sun's light and focuses it upon a package of special material that converts the heat into 40 watts of electricity.

The U.S. Army has developed a helmet with small solar cells on the crown. These solar cells gather sunlight and convert it into enough electricity to power a tiny radio receiver and transmitter in the helmet.

Some firms producing solar cells of the sort that powered Vanguard I claim these cells are 10 per cent efficient. That means they convert to electricity 10 per cent of all the sun's energy that strikes them.

★ ★ ★

In the future, your home may be powered by a roof panel of these solar cells. One firm says a 40-by-20-foot roof section shingled with solar energy cells could deliver six times as much electricity a month as the average home needs.

★ ★ ★

Most Chickens Deemed Safe

Agriculture Dept. Says 99 Per Cent Untainted by Cancer Producer

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department has assured housewives that 99 per cent of the nation's chickens are untainted by a cancer-producing sex hormone.

The chemical was used only on caponettes, officials said. Regular broiler and fryer chickens, roasting birds and capons are free of contamination.

The statement was issued after an announcement yesterday by Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, that the poultry industry voluntarily was removing from the market immediately any chickens tainted with the hormone.

The hormone is stilbestrol, which has been used by poultry farmers to produce bigger caponettes with more white meat. Flemming said the synthetic female sex hormone had caused cancer in experimental animals.

The Agriculture Department said yesterday it would buy the tainted chickens. It said the birds could be made safe and then possibly used in school lunchrooms and welfare institutions.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

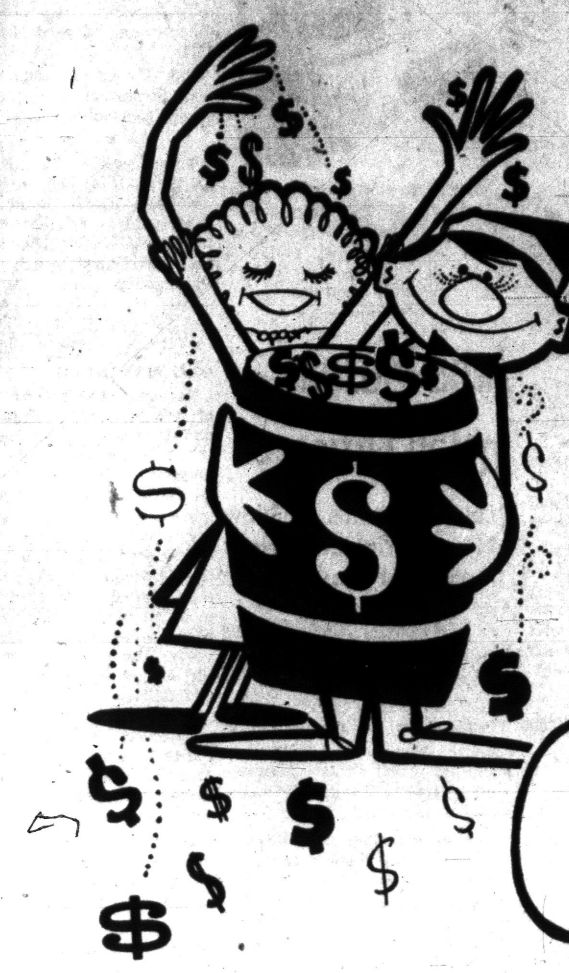

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

New Year's Height of Informality

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am planning on having open house New Year's Day and would like you to answer several questions in connection with this. How are the invitations worded for such a party and what refreshments are usually served. Also, is it necessary to serve eggnog or could a punch be served instead?

Answer: Nothing could be more informal or less exacting of rule than the sending out of invitations for a New Year's Day at home. The invitations could be written on your Mr. and Mrs. visiting cards:

"At home New Year's Day
5 to 7 o'ck."

"Mr. and Mrs. John Jones
At Home New Year's Day
5 to 7 o'ck."

Eggnog is the traditional New Year's Day beverage, but a punch would be entirely proper. With it fruit cake is often served and small thin sandwiches in addition.

Dear Mrs. Post: I have a sister who has a habit of slipping out of her shoes as soon as she is seated, and sits with her feet partially out of them. She not only does this when she is at home with the family but also when company is present. I told her that this was very bad manners and a sign of ill-breeding, but she won't listen to me. Perhaps you can convince her.

Answer: You are absolutely right, and when you show her my answer I hope it will help correct her of this bad habit.

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me how to word the invitations to an engagement party which I am giving for my daughter and her fiance?

Answer: You invite your guests exactly as you would to any other party, or dinner, with no mention of your daughter's engagement or of her fiance. At the party you announce the news and present the young man to anyone he does not know.

Columbus Boychoir Thrills Its Audience

By MARY LOUISE LINDQUIST

Members and guests of the Waterford Township Civic Music Assn. heard a well balanced program when the Columbus Boychoir sang Saturday evening at the new John D. Pierce Junior High School.

Highlight of the evening was the performance of Menotti's one-act Christmas opera, "Amahl and the Night Visitors." Also on the program were Christmas carols, 16th and 17th century music and folk songs.

The clear tones of the young voices were lovely in the program's opening number "Trahe Me Post Te," a masterpiece of harmony written in the 16th century by Jacob Handel.

The light quality of the voices gave a holiday mood to the carols. Some of the five numbers were done without accompaniment. The rest were accompanied by director Donald J. Bryant at a piano in the middle of the choir.

The boys sang "Adeste Fideles," first in Latin, then in English. Different solo voices were used for verses of "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming," and Adam's "O Holy Night." For an encore to this group, the boys sang the French carol, "Pat a Pan" in a delicate manner.

Mr. Bryant is a fine pianist, as well as director. He showed a real talent as he played "Three Songs Without Words" by Mendelssohn. He played with clean definition and a sensitive feeling. Holder of a masters degree from the Julliard School of Music, he majored in piano.

The climax of the evening was the well portrayed opera. Several boys of the choir have been groomed to play the role of Amahl in order that a different one may sing at each concert.

Mary Evelyn Bruce sang the role of the mother very well. Bits of comedy injected by the slightly deaf King Kaspar, brought a light tone to the plot.

The parts of the Three Kings were sung by Donald Morgan, Gaspar; Clyde Tipton, Melchior; and Donald Caruso, Balthazar. Their brightly colored costumes were beautiful amid the drabness of the widow's house. The setting was simple, but well done.

Concluding the concert was a group of folk songs and Negro spirituals. The audience especially enjoyed "The Deaf Old Woman," with one of the smaller boys costumed in a bonnet and eyeglasses.

Listeners always seem to enjoy spirituals, and this audience was no exception. The lovely chordal patterns of "Were You There?" gave it a religious mood. Another soprano soloist sang "Water Boy" beautifully, with the chorus humming in the background.

The audience showed its great appreciation of the boys' singing by applauding them back for three encores.

Star Attraction on Tour

Barbara's a Sort of First Lady

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Attractive Barbara Eisenhower has turned out to be a star attraction in each of the five nations visited thus far on President Eisenhower's good will tour.

In the absence of Mamie Eisenhower, the President's wife, Barbara has been treated as the unofficial First Lady even though she is not making the trip in that role.

Unaccustomed to so much limelight, Eisenhower's daughter-in-law has developed into an effective goodwill ambassador with her wide-eyed approach and enthusiasm for the people and things around her.

The crowds that have turned out in Italy, Turkey, Pakistan, Afghanistan and India frequently craned their necks to see what Barbara looks like after catching a glimpse of the President himself.

TALL AND TRIM

Nearly always they are amazed at her height—she's 5 foot 8. They also are impressed by the trim figure of this 33-year-old mother of four.

Barbara usually attends official dinners in simply styled evening gowns. She wore a royal blue outfit with a baby blue stole at a glittering New Delhi dinner Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Barbara has yet to appear twice in the same daytime outfit. She favors two-piece suits which she tops off with a mink stole.

The effect of all the attention showered on Barbara has been to push her husband, Maj. John Eisenhower, into the background.

★ ★ ★

But he has been busy serving as an aide to his father and doesn't seem to mind as long as his wife is having a good time.

Here's a New Way to Discourage Necking

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

"This term," the letter says, "a new bunch of kids at my high school have made friends with me. I like them a lot. But most of them go steady. One of the boys who doesn't brought me home from a party last night.

He got mad because I wouldn't smooch as much as he wanted to. I can't tell my mother about this because she'd say not to see him again. But I want to keep in with this crowd . . . "

But there's another way—and if we want to become happy women, the sooner we discover it the better.

The second way of dealing with a boy's premature wish to neck is to become certain of our right not to share his wish.

It's when we feel obliged to share it that we become nervous and uncomfortable with him. Unsure of our right to different, reserved feelings, we may either indulge his resentfully or plead for his patience and understanding of ours.

We'll make speeches about our wish to know him better or tell him our views on sex.

In all this talk, the boy, of course, recognizes our uncertainty about our right to feelings of our own—and may press his more aggressively upon us or get disgusted with us. That's when everything gets terribly grim.

But when we are sure of our right to our more reserved, feminine feelings, we can be gay instead of grim toward boys' masculine ones.

We can be as relaxed with a boy's wish to neck as we are with our own wish not to. Indeed, when we finally get used to the idea that we don't have to do whatever the boy wants us to, we not only stop fearing his different feelings but can begin to appreciate whatever admiration of us they contain. Our firmness with him undergoes a change.

★ ★ ★

It becomes happy and simple instead of tense and apologetic. Having accepted our feminine feelings without anxiety, we find we can accept the boy's masculine ones without it, too.

It has nothing to do with indulging them. Indeed, any nice boy soon loses interest in a girl who indulges his feelings in fear and resentment. He knows she has no respect for her own.

Fashion Keynote

It Must Be 'You'

Fashion may feature large handbags, bright scarfs or multistrand necklaces. Whatever the fashion, it should take a second place to you as an clothing or accessories. You should be the most important factor in the total picture, say home economists.

AIMLESS COLLECTING

Each season brings new fashion accessories to local counters, and some folks collect them aimlessly. Spur-of-the-moment purchases may be fun, but they can be very expensive.

★ ★ ★

For success with accessories, the home economists suggest you plan what you can use and then select pieces that blend with each other and with your wardrobe.

Concentrate on a few good accessories rather than buying many inexpensive ones. Planning may enable you to splurge on a fundamental accessory, such as a handbag or a pair of shoes. If this is in your basic color, it can be worn with everything.

Special accents can be added with scarfs, flowes, jewelry or hats and gloves. Some contrasts in color and texture add interest. But too many contrasts create a spotty effect.

There are Madonnas by Albrecht Dürer, noted German painter of the 15th and 16th centuries, and Pietro Almanno, a 15th century Italian artist.

Works by masters of the recent past include designs by the two celebrated French artists, Maurice Utrillo and Maurice Vlaminck, both prize winners in the international Hallmark Art Award competitions.

Several of Sir Winston Churchill's paintings have been reproduced as yuletide greetings.

Americans whose talents have been applied to Christmas cards include Norman Rockwell, illustrator; Saul Steinberg, cartoonist; and Peter Hurd and Andrew Wyeth, both contemporary artists. Ted DeGrazia, of Arizona, is represented by a collection of paintings in the southwest tradition.

Yule Cards Big Demand in Britain

Prosperity Is Explanation for Rapid Increase

The traditionalists fight the trend, but there is a bigger demand for Christmas cards in Britain this year than ever before.

Many British of the old school have denounced Christmas cards with cries of "too commercial" and "We're becoming Americanized."

But the spirit of Christmas card sending is catching on rapidly.

The American influence on greeting cards is becoming more noticeable. There is an agreement between British and American firms to use U.S. designs in Britain.

It is estimated that 557-million cards will be sent this year, compared with 250-million in 1938. The average Britisher sends about 14 cards to his American cousin's 26.

Last year, 72 per cent were sent by married couples. Single girls out-bought bachelors 11 to 9.

The trade believes the explanation for the rapid increase is prosperity. As people become more prosperous, they become more sociable.

He-Man Cards Sold This Year

There are pictures of geese, mallard drakes, quail and pintail ducks taken from paintings by wildlife artists. The dog lover will find a variety of hunting hounds on other Yuletide greetings.

BUBBLE HAIR STYLE

by Rowena Wilson

The bubble hair style is still floating around in coiffure circles. However, this season it seems to have bounced back in a different form. The same round lines and general feeling of airiness are there. One version is done in cascade tiers resembling a waterfall. The sleek sides and back are puffed, then smoothly tapered into the head lines. The top-knot is cut in different lengths. It fits neatly under the latest trends in millinery.

Fit into this season's fashions with one of the newer "dos." Let us arrange it to suit you alone. Make an appointment at Rowena's Beauty Salons, 4831 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains. OR 3-3541. 12 S. Main, Clarkston. MA 5-1000. 1216 Baldwin, Pontiac. FE 5-3735.

Dear Abby Gets the Answer

Grandpa Doesn't Like Term; Cites 'Ike' as Good Example

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are the proud grandparents of three adorable little grandchildren. I don't mind being called "Grandma"—but my husband says he is only 55 years old and he is too young to be called "Grandpa." He asks the grandchildren to call him "Earl."

ABBY

My husband says that if it is all right for President Eisenhower's grandchildren to call him Ike — our grandchildren can call him Earl. I'd like to know if President Eisenhower's grandchildren really call him Ike?

EARL'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I wired the White House and received the following message:

DEAR MISS VAN BUREN: IN REPLY TO YOUR TELEGRAPHIC INQUIRY, THESE ARE THE FACTS: THE PRESIDENT'S GRANDCHILDREN CALL HIM "IKE" AND ALSO "GRANDDADDY IKE."

WITH BEST WISHES,
Associate Press Secretary to the President.

DEAR ABBY: From my kitchen window I can see a certain laundry man go into a lady's back door. He keeps the engine running in his truck, but he stays in there for about 45 minutes. It can't be business because he goes in with nothing and comes out with nothing and I happen to know that this lady does her own laundry because I see it on her line.

This woman is married and has children in school. There has been some talk about her, too. I am sure the lady and the laundry man are not just holding hands. What do you think?

STEADY READER

DEAR STEADY: Hold your tongue. Whether he is there for "business" is not MY business—nor is it yours. I think you ought to send your mind to the laundry.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a girl who married young, had a baby, divorced her husband and has now turned her baby over to her mother to raise?

"Daughter" lives at home. She won't even make her own bed or rinse out her own stockings. She dresses for dates every night, whoops it up, comes home late and sleeps till noon.

Her parents are disgusted with her but are afraid to say anything to her because they love the baby and fear that if they don't let "Daughter" live the way she wants to, she'll move out and take the baby with her. What can be done?

FRIEND OF THE FAMILY

DEAR FRIEND: Question: Should an innocent child who is loved by its grandparents be raised by them or by a selfish, irresponsible mother? The law is on the side of the mother. But the law is not immutable. I would advise the grandparents to ask for legal adoption of the child and then hope that the mother will some day earn back the rights of motherhood.

Save Her Old Coat

If a small child has outgrown a good winter coat in length, buy some contrasting cloth of equal quality and put a band around the bottom of the coat and cuffs on the sleeves. You could make her a hat or cap of the new material, also a draw string bag. Brown and white checked material makes a nice contrast to a solid brown coat, for instance.

Make a Jumper From Old Sweater

(AP) — If a child has a pretty woolen sweater that is too short, remodel it into a jumper. Material from the sleeves may be used to make a yoke and this will lengthen the garment. Little girls love jumpers.

Make attractive mittens, caps and bags from old woolen garments. A matching set of these may be secured from an old skirt.

Keep on Brushing

Women with oily scalps may feel that brushing will only stir up trouble for them. However, they should continue to brush their hair to keep the blood circulating freely.

Santa's Knee Out, So Women Hint

By RUTH MILLETT

For Men Only: This is just by way of a friendly tip. Christmas-hinting time is here, and from now until Christmas morning you can know that whatever your wife admires extravagantly is something she would welcome for a Christmas gift.

★ ★ ★

Throughout the year you don't need to pay much attention when your wife stops you in front of a store to say, "Isn't that pretty" or reads you an advertisement in the newspaper, or says of some other woman's possession, "I'd love to have that."

Their most seemingly aimless chatter about what they like and don't like is meant to instruct.

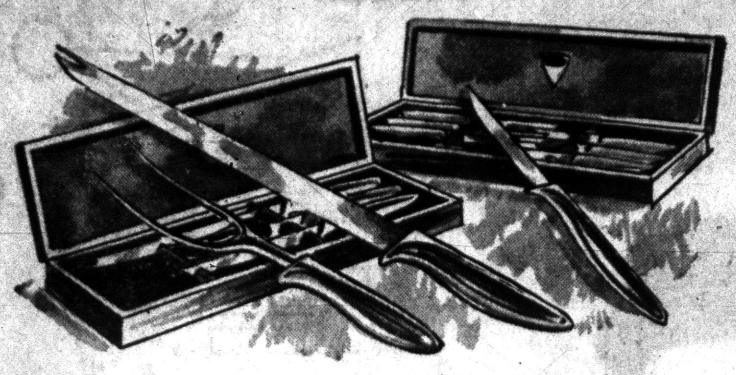

Why don't they just come right out and say what they want? Well, women like to be surprised when it comes to gifts, yet they are afraid to take a chance on too big a surprise for fear it will be a disappointment.

So they hit on the perfect compromise, which is hinting. Nearly all wives go in for hinting. But not all husbands recognize a nice, pointed hint when they hear it.

If they did, the wife who has been hinting for weeks that she would like nothing better for Christmas than an alligator handbag wouldn't end up with a black silk negligee.

So if you want to make your wife happy on Christmas morning and hear her say with genuine pleasure, "How did you know this is what I wanted more than anything?" you had better heed her hinting.

Reducing Tips for Lunches

Watch Sandwich Extras

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Whenever I plan a reducing diet I try to make it easy for the men and women who eat away from home at lunch time. However, lots of folks take their lunch with them for various reasons. Perhaps the budget will not allow a restaurant, or there is not one nearby, or those nearby have very limited menus.

Then, too, lots of people find it more restful to take a little walk and then eat at their desk or in a park which is close than to cope with the crowds and rush at mealtime downtown.

SUGGESTIONS

If you are trying to lose weight and take your lunch to work, let me give you a few suggestions. While sandwiches could not be classified as reducing foods, still the trimmings are the things which zoom their calorie count. One tablespoon of mayonaise is about 100 calories. The same for one tablespoon of butter.

However, today there are salad dressings which are very low in calorie count and which were planned especially for the reducer.

Tomato catsup and chili sauce are much lower in count. Three rounded teaspoons of each counts to only 30 calories. Mustard is only about five calories for a rounded teaspoon. Several very thin slices of pickle add flavor, at practically no calorie cost.

Fresh fruit is a good item to have in your lunch box

So if you are going to take a sandwich to work stay away from the salad sandwiches and also from fat meat or cream cheese. Stick to lean beef or ham with the fat removed, or one of the non-creamy cheeses, and only moderate slices.

FILLING ADDITIONS

Tomatoes, fresh fruit and carrot or celery sticks are all low calo-ried, healthful and filling additions to the lunch box. Fruit juice, skim milk or buttermilk belong also.

Hard boiled eggs are also a splendid item for the noonday meal. For variety you can scoop out a large green pepper and fill it with cottage cheese.

You can have a reasonable (along the lines I have suggested) sandwich, a small orange or apple or pear and skim milk, and carrot or celery sticks for around 350 to 400 calories. If you are holding your daily intake to 1200, that is about right.

Fragrant Holiday Bread Baked in Wreath Form

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

"It wouldn't seem like Christmas to the Formans if we didn't smell this fragrant, spicy fruit-filled 'Christmas Wreath Bread' baking on the afternoon of Christmas Eve."

Mrs. James Forman not only shared her recipe with us — she made up a sample which was delicious. Mrs. Forman is active in musical affairs in Pontiac.

Many homemakers will be interested to see that this yeast bread is made with a mix.

CHRISTMAS WREATH BREAD

By Mrs. James Forman

1 package coffee cake or hot roll mix.
¼ cup sugar.
1 egg.
4 tablespoons melted butter or margarine.
1 cup chopped mixed candied fruit.
Confectioners sugar.

Blend sugar and cinnamon and reserve half of mixture for filling. Beat egg in large size mixing bowl until foamy. Blend in remaining half of sugar-cinnamon mixture.

Dissolve yeast (from package of mix) in warm water. Add to egg mixture and mix well. Stir in package mix, blend thoroughly and let dough rise according to directions.

Turn dough out on lightly floured board. Knead and divide in 2 equal parts. Roll each in 12 by 16 rectangle. Spread with melted butter or margarine. Sprinkle each evenly with half of reserved cinnamon mixture, candied fruit and nuts.

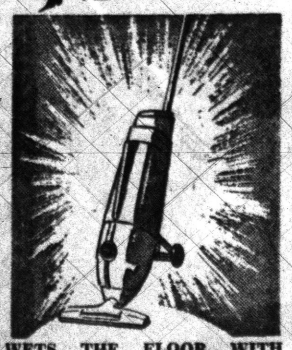

Roll up jelly roll fashion, starting at one long edge. Place seam side down on well greased pan. Shape to form ring, pinching ends together. Cut through almost to center in 12 even sections. Twist cut sections so that part rests on cookie sheet and part overlaps piece twisted before. Repeat with second piece of dough.

Let rise one hour or until almost double. Bake in 350-degree oven 25 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from oven, brush tops lightly with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle with confectioners sugar. Serve warm or cool.

China Wants More Russ Aid

Look for Nikita to Visit Africa in 1960

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

From the foreign editor's notebook:

Expect Russia's Khrushchev to pay a visit to Africa next year, perhaps even before an East-West summit meeting. President Eisenhower's tour of uncommitted Asian nations is making a real impact on the Communist world.

Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is going to Africa in January.

Khrushchev is likely to try to counter these Allied moves. He already has been invited to Guinea and may stop over in Liberia for the presidential inauguration there.

THE REDS ARE GREEN

Western diplomats believe Red China is jealous of Russia's stepped up aid to needy countries outside the Communist bloc. The Soviet Union has contributed substantially to the Peiping economy over the past few years but the hungry giant wants more.

According to the reports, Red China is particularly upset at the money Russia is pouring into the United Arab Republic to help build the Aswam High Dam.

To all appearances, the Russians are ignoring Peiping's gripes.

SUMMIT AILMENTS

The Western summit meeting in Paris next week may be somewhat of a flop. Because of inability to agree on joint policy at lower levels, Allied preparations have broken down.

All that's now expected to be decided is a date, place and tentative agenda for the eventual summit meeting with the Russians.

There definitely will have to be a subsequent western get-together at the top level to iron out a united policy before the meeting with Khrushchev.

TURNABOUT ON NEWSMEN

At least one high official in the Nationalist Chinese government is in favor of American newsmen going to Red China.

This marks a drastic switch since the Formosa regime has been strongly opposed to such a move on the grounds it might be the first step toward diplomatic recognition.

But this high official feels that American newsmen in Peiping might make Americans in general more aware of the oppressive nature of the Peiping regime and thus more sympathetic to Chiang Kai-shek.

IKE TO JAPAN?

American diplomats in Tokyo privately discount speculation that President Eisenhower will visit Japan before he leaves office. Although admitting they would like to see such a trip they believe there just is not enough time since the President probably would have to stop at a dozen other Asian nations to avoid injured feelings.

PROTECTING PRESLEY

They're going to increase the gate guard at the headquarters of the U. S. Army's 3rd Armored Division near Frankfurt, Germany, soon. The reason—Elvis Presley.

The singer-corporal is scheduled to get out of the Army early next year. Army officials want to make sure no German teen-agers try to slip into the camp for a last look. When he arrived in Germany, hundreds of teen-agers staged a near riot to get a peek at him.

Elvis, incidentally, has proved himself a good soldier.

Ann Insists She Sells Michigan

WYANDOTTE (AP) — Ann Marston says she is doing a good job as Miss Michigan of 1960.

Commenting on reports that she has been shirking her duties as the state's beauty queen, the 21-year-old blonde national champion archer told newsmen:

"I admit that I have made only four appearances solely as Miss Michigan. But there isn't a week that goes buy that I am not somewhere performing (as a professional archer).

"I have been all over the state, the country and even to London. And I have been seen from coast to coast on television. If that's not selling Michigan, I don't know what it is."

★ ★ ★

Miss Marston was accused of making a "commercial thing out of her title" by Leonard Van Bogelen, general chairman of the Miss Michigan pageant at Muskegon. He said, "Our committee is very unhappy and resolved that this sort of thing will not happen again."

Body Supports Bunche Discrimination Charge

NEW YORK (UPI)—New York's Commission on Intergroup Relations reported yesterday on its investigation of charges by U.N. Undersecretary and Nobel Prize winner Ralph J. Bunche that he and his son were refused membership in the West Side Tennis Club because they are Negroes.

The commission said it was "strongly impressed by the fact that no Negroes are members" of the club which has hosted national amateur tournaments and Davis Cup matches.

It said that while the club claimed to have Jewish members, officials "could not name a single one."

May Decide in Advance

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-NY) said yesterday there is a "real possibility" the Republican Party will unite behind Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller prior to its convention next year and that the one selected will be nominated the GOP's presidential candidate.

Language Study Increases Fast at U. of M.

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Enrollment in foreign language courses at the University of Michigan has skyrocketed nearly 80 per cent in the past five years.

Farmington Supervisor Denies Reprisal in Justice's Arrest

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Township Supervisor Curtis H. Hall denied today he was being vindictive when he signed a complaint that had justice of the peace Robert H. Nelson arrested Friday.

Nelson, who is charged with occupying his new offices at 31547 13-Mile Rd. without a building occupancy permit, accused Hall Saturday at a press conference of being vindictive because he had cited Hall's 18-year-old son, Michael, with contempt of court over a traffic ticket.

Nelson, who refers to himself as "the manhandled judge" was arrested Friday afternoon and taken before another township justice, James P. Lawson. Nelson stood mute and asked for a jury trial. Lawson set the trial for Dec. 16.

"The putrid story began Dec. 5," Nelson said, "when young Hall was ticketed on U.S. 16 on two counts, one for not having an operator's license on his person and one for creating excessive noise with his muffler."

"Usually the general practice is to dismiss the ticket for no operator's license on the person if they can prove they have one.

"However, when Michael came into my office to see what could be done about the ticket I told him explicitely to come back to my office with the license and ticket and we would talk it over.

"Instead he went to the Redford State police post to have it dismissed," said Nelson.

★ ★ ★

"Since I had clearly told him to return here with the license I felt that he had gone against my word and I cited him for contempt of court."

DENIES ORDER

The senior Hall said his son informed him that Nelson did not tell him to return to his office.

Michael Hall told his father that a friend who was with him in the office can testify that Nelson did not tell him to return.

Supervisor Hall in denying the accusation that "he was really burned" because his son was cited for contempt said that he felt that he had two obligations.

"First, I have an obligation to my son. Secondly, I have an obligation to the township.

★ ★ ★

"As to my son I feel that the judicial action taken against my son was extremely severe, and I have been advised by the township attorney that it appears that the justice had exceeded his judicial authority.

STARTED DEC. 7

"As to my responsibility as a township official an investigation of this matter concerning the occupancy permit was started Monday, Dec. 7 which was before I was aware there was to be any proceedings in Nelson's justice court concerning my son.

"There are five building inspectors and two clerks in the Building Department that will varify that action on the building permit was taken Monday.

"This matter took its normal course which ended with a meeting with the township attorney at which time he recommended prosecution of Nelson for occupying the office without a permit.

"The timing of these two mattere was coincidental."

Hall said it was not necessary for Nelson to be brought into court by the arresting officer.

WANTED ARREST?

"Nelson could have gotten into his own car and driven to the court if he wanted to. It just seems that he wanted to be arrested," Hall said.

Nelson said what really "embarrassed" him was when Justice Lawson set a bond of $50.

He claims that he did not even see the warrant for his arrest.

Nelson said because of his action against Hall's son, Hall had posted on the police bulletin board a directive notifying the police not to send any more tickets to his court.

Hall said that he did not have a bulletin put on the board to that effect.

"However, I have issued verbal orders as police commissioner to have tickets sent to Justice Lawson.

"I won't explain my reasons for this action at the moment," Hall said. "I expect this to become public information at a later date."

Haven Hill Talks Conclude:

Need Federal Aid for Education

By The Associated Press

A group of prominent educators attending Gov. Williams' Conference on Education agreed that "Federal tax resources must be made available to help support our educational system."

A statement urging federal action was issued yesterday at the end of a three-day conference sponsored by the governor at Haven Hill Lodge in Highland Township. It declared the nation faces a crisis "as a result of the failure to deal adequately with rising enrollments and inadequate facilities in schools and colleges."

Dr. Howard Jones, professor of education administration at the University of Michigan, said the nation must double its expenditures for education by 1970 to keep pace with the birth rate and school enrollment.

Dr. Jones estimated the nation spends 15 billion dollars on elementary and high school education and five billion dollars more at the college level. He said this should be doubled.

SEEK FEDERAL AID

Voicing agreement on the need of "substantial federal funds" to supplement state and local school financing were 10 other educators.

They included Homer Carmichael, superintendent of schools, Louisville, Ky.; Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, Michigan superintendent of public instruction; Dr. William G. Carr, president of the National Education Assn.; Dr. Albert W. Dent, president of Dillard University, New Orleans, La., and Dr. Edgar Fuller, secretary of the National Council of State Education Officers.

Others were Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University; Dr. Howard Mc Cluskey, professor of education psychology, University of Michigan; Carl J. Mgel, president of the American Federation of Teachers; Miss Sarah Robinson, a Detroit public school principal, and Dr. Howard E. Wilson, dean of the school of education, University of California.

The educators were guests of Gov. Williams at the second of a series of conferences he says are "designed to explore the problems in current public questions."

Williams, a potential candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1960, conferred with nationally known economists at Mackinac Island last July. He is considering future conferences on peace and disarmament, health needs and agriculture.

Also taking part in the Conference on Education were Sen. Patrick V. McNamara (D-Mich); Dr. Frederick D. Patterson of the Phelps-Stokes Fund, New York, and Gov. Williams' wife, Nancy.

"If we lose out in education, we lose out in everything," Williams said.

MANY ILLITERATES

Dr. McCluskey emphasized the importance of adult education. He said there are almost as many people in the United States with less than a fourth-grade education as there are people who have had some college training. He said the nation had 8½ million "functional illiterates" in 1957. He said they are people who haven't gone beyond the fourth grade.

A statement issued by the governor was described as representing a consensus on each of the topics discussed but not necessarily reflecting the views "of every participant in each case."

But it said "The individual participants are in firm agreement that the federal tax resources must be made available to help support our educational system."

★ ★ ★

The statement said "the participants agreed that the ideal of nonsegregation must be pursued at all levels of education . . . They are also convinced that the closing of public schools in any locality in order to avoid desegregation is in the highest degree unwise and dangerous to the welfare of the nation."

The educators urged "the fullest possible encouragement and cooperation" for community colleges.

Discussing federal action in education, the educators said it "should be both immediate, in terms of legislation now before the Congress, and long-range, in terms of fundamental planning."

Mayor Huber Echoes 'No Hard Feelings'

Commission Might Fill Post Tonight

TROY — The Troy City Commission will act tonight on Commissioner Louis Yanich's resignation, mailed Saturday, and possibly name his successor, Mayor Robert J. Huber said today.

Commenting on Yanich's resignation, Huber said he had "mixed emotions" about it. He added that he echoed Yanich's remarks made at the Commission meeting Friday night that there would be no hard feelings.

The veteran commissioner announced his resignation at Friday night's closed session called to discuss a pay plan for city employes and possible personnel changes.

Saying he is "tired of doing nothing and wasting the taxpayers' money," Yanich stated he would continue his interest in city affairs.

He said he had been thinking about resigning for a week, and that no special issue had brought it to a head Friday night.

In fact, Yanich said, "Everything was nice and friendly," but he had made up his mind.

"I'm tired of everything being tabled and never doing anything," Yanich complained. "I don't mind the many meetings if only something were being accomplished."

★ ★ ★

There were three meetings last week.

GIVES EXAMPLE

Yanich gave as an example the awarding three licenses to sell liquor by the package which has been hanging fire ever since Troy became a city exactly four years ago today.

A special meeting was called last Wednesday by the City Commission to review applications for SDD licenses with the local liquor committee. Yanich said that despite several motions to bring action one way or the other, the issue was tabled again.

The veteran commissioner, who took office in April 1958, blamed "other" commissioners who were "too concerned" about politics as another reason for his resignation.

★ ★ ★

He said they are "too worried" about their constituents and about who is going to sit beside them at the commission table.

HIT POLITICS

"They took an oath to do a job — not to let politics enter into their deliberations," said Yanich.

He has voiced his objections to closed sessions on several occasions, had asked serious consideration of the pending sewer financing proposal and had sought rerouting of the Chrysler expressway.

On the subject of the expressway, Yanich said the state has influenced the commission's thinking; so he was not blaming one side or the other.

Yanich added that he was tired of being the voice in the wilderness — that after a time people don't respect his ideas "just because they come from me."

The Commission has 30 days to name a successor for Yanich. No special election will be necessary because the appointee will be named within 90 days of the regular spring election. His term expires in April 1961.

Free Venezuelan After Arrest for Gun Threat

★ ★ ★

The officer, identified as Col. Estaban Rodriguez, was taken to a police station and then released. Police said no charge would be placed against him. He claimed diplomatic immunity.

"I have enemies," was his only explanation for the incident, police said.

West German Scientist Claims Attempt Failed Two Years Ago

NUERNBERG, Germany (UPI) —West Germany's top rocket scientist, Hermann Oberth, said today the Russians have definitely attempted to put a man into space.

"I have known for months from American intelligence reports that Russia tried to launch a manned-space satellite near the end of 1957 or the beginning of 1958," Oberth said.

He said a Russian astronaut named Alexej Ledowsky was fired into space in a rocket during this period but that the rocket failed to orbit.

The astronaut was allegedly killed in the experiment.

Oberth said he knew nothing of any other Russian attempts to put a man into space.

In Moscow, the reports from Italy were ridiculed by informed sources.

Sources there said the reports were erroneous and that Russia plans many more experiments with animals before contemplating sending a man into space.

Supervisors Name Joe Haas Area Historian

Joe Haas, editorial staff writer for The Pontiac Press, today became official historian for Oakland County in special action taken by the Board of Supervisors.

The popular Haas, at today's board meeting to read a testimonial to resigning county road commissioner Lee O. Brooks, was surprisingly called into action after supervisors elected Bloomfield Township Supervisor Arno L. Hulet new vice chairman of the Board. Haas was asked to escort Hulet to the rostrum.

Afterwards, Pontiac supervisor and city attorney, William A. Ewart, moved that Haas officially become county historian. The motion was accepted unanimously.

Earlier, after Haas paid high tribute to Brooks, it was moved by Ray W. Lahti, Wixom supervisor, that a special 84th seat be created on the Board of Supervisors especially for Haas. No action, however, was taken on Lahti's motion.

Jordan's Manager Stunned by Upset

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — "That was the shock of my life when Don went down," world welterweight champion Don Jordan's manager, Jack McCoy, said today. "Why I only put him in because they told me the guy couldn't hit hard enough to break an egg."

★ ★ ★

"I'll tell you this," McCoy continued. "We're going back to Los Angeles tomorrow and we'll get Don in a medical clinic right away to find out what's wrong. He won't fight again until I'm positive he's well."

McCoy made the statements as he and Jordan prepared to return to California still shocked over the champion's fourth round knockout loss to an obscure 32-year-old fighter, Argentine champion Federico Thompson, in a nontitle bout at Luna Park Saturday night.

Union at Wilson Meat Co. in New Violent Outburst

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa (UPI)— New violence broke out in the Wilson and Company meat packing strike here today. About 50 cars were damaged in a rock-throwing barrage.

The rock-throwing began when nonunion workers went through the lines of United Packinghouse Workers pickets on their way to jobs inside the plant. At least one car was smeared with brown paint.

Johansson Says Title Bout Must Be in New York

GOTEBORG, Sweden (AP) — Heavyweight champion Ingemar Johansson said Sunday night he still wants to meet Floyd Patterson "first of any contender, but it simply has to be in New York."

★ ★ ★

Jim Farley Jr. of the New York State Athletic Commission, met with Johansson on a brief stop over here and said he agrees on every point with the champion.

★ ★ ★

Farley also said Ingemar's purse from last summer's fight, in which he lifted the crown from Patterson, now totals about $171,000 "and there is still more coming in from movie revenues."

Petitions Influence Him

Oak Park Mayor to Stay

OAK PARK—Mayor R. J. Alexander announced today that he has decided to withhold his intended resignation for the time being because of a petition campaign by fellow citizens to keep him in office.

★ ★ ★

Recently appointed director to the Oakland County Department of Public Works, Alexander had told the City Council that he thought he "should resign to avoid any conflict of interest or duty" between his two positions.

Petitions bearing more than 5,000 signatures, asking Alexander to reconsider his resignation, will be presented this evening to Delos Hamlin, chairman of the county DPW.

Alexander has served as assistant DPW director for two years while also serving as mayor of Oak Park. He was appointed as director upon the resignation of Harold K. Schone early last month.

Autopsy Sought in Fire Death

HAZEL PARK — An autopsy was being sought today in the death of Dr. Matthew A. Musial, chief surgeon at Palmer Osteopathic Hospital in Detroit. His body was found Saturday night in his smoke-filled apartment here.

Hazel Park firemen said the doctor, father of two boys, was overcome by smoke from a fire that began in a wastebasket while he was asleep.

★ ★ ★

Police theorized that the doctor may have wrapped himself in the sheet to protect himself from the flames. But they were puzzled because he did not escape through a large window about six feet from where his body was found.

★ ★ ★

Edith Conn, 32, another resident of the building, called firemen when she arrived home and found her apartment also filled by the smoke.

The autopsy must be approved by the doctor's wife who lives in Grand Rapids. Today she was undecided what to do. They were separated.

Dr. Musial attended Wayne State University and the Chicago College of Osteopathy, from which he was graduated in 1954.

Will Meet in January

The Avondale Band Boosters have canceled their meeting originally scheduled for tomorrow night because of the busy Christmas season. The meetings will resume in January.

2 Shiploads Sail for North Korea

Rhee's South Boiling Over Mass Departure for Red Territory

NIIGATA, Japan (AP)—Two shiploads of cheering, singing Koreans sailed for Communist North Korea today, launching mass migration from the pro-Western world.

South Korea, which had threatened to block the movement with force, put all its army, navy and air force personnel on emergency alert.

A semiofficial Korean newspaper which reflects President Syngman Rhee's views said in an editorial: "The ways of peace having failed, other means obviously will have to be tried."

The U. N. Command, which has operational control over the South Korean forces, would not comment, but it ordered U.N. and U.S. military personnel in Korea to stay at their posts to avoid becoming involved in possible civil disturbances.

Antibiotics in Probe's Spotlight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators may look into the pricing of antibiotics when they resume their drugs hearing next month.

The first phase of the hearing by the Senate antimonopoly subcommittee ended Saturday with Chairman Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) charging that antiarthritic drug prices are "clearly too high."

Rand Dixon, the subcommittee's chief counsel, said the Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich., uses only 14 cents worth of raw materials to make a product it sells for $15.

"We figure this difference is about 10,000 per cent," Dixon said in referring to a female sex hormone known as progesterone.

The firm's president, E. Gifford Upjohn, said a comparison should not be drawn between the raw material cost and the sale price of the finished product to retail outlets. He stressed several times that the raw material is but a fraction of the cost and that several other expenses should be included as part of the "cost of doing business."

Upjohn said his firm's profits for 1958 were 13.7 per cent on sales and 18 per cent on invested capitol.

Youth Hired to Kill Detroit Woman?

Tells Weird Tale of Murder Plot

DETROIT (AP)—The line was dead when Mrs. Theresa Fuller went down to her basement to answer the telephone yesterday. Then she heard a voice behind her:

"Your husband hired me to kill you." Mrs. Fuller screamed.

Later, the 45-year-old nurse's aide told police a strange tale related to her, she said, by a 16-year-old boy who stood in the basement's shadows with a pistol.

But first he said, "I can't take a life." Then he handed the woman the gun.

The youth, Larry L. Kennebrew, told the woman, and later police, that Mrs. Fuller's husband Clarence, 44, hired him three weeks ago to murder his wife for $400.

Lt. William Sheedy of the Detroit Police Department said the youth told him Fuller gave him a revolver yesterday, handed him the keys to his wife's car and some canvas gloves and took him to his home.

★ ★ ★

There, said the youth, Fuller showed him how to dial the phone in the basement so it would ring when he hung up. He was to shoot Mrs. Fuller when she came downstairs to answer it and hide her body in a closet.

★ ★ ★

The boy said Fuller then took his two sons, one 16 and the other 13, to the home of relatives, instructing him before he left to drive his wife's car past when the crime was done.

Fuller denied knowing the youth or anything about the alleged plans. He was held for investigation of conspiracy to assault with intent to commit murder. The youth was held as a material witness.

Police quoted the boy as saying he never intended to go through with the shooting but said he went along with the plan because Fuller would have hired someone else.

Sheedy said he thought the boy simply had lost his nerve at the last moment.

Mrs. Fuller said her husband is an unemployed truck driver. The couple has three children, Mrs. Fuller two by a previous marriage. Sheedy said the couple had a long history of domestic trouble.

When told by police that the boy said Fuller had promised to pay him $200 last night and another $200 today, Mrs. Fuller commented:

THINKING OF EARNING SOME EXTRA MONEY?

A good way to earn some extra money for any occasion is by selling something you don't need. . . . How about that old zither you don't play anymore? (She married you in spite of it and not because of it). And how about that spinning wheel you bought when wool was hard to get and you were going to show them? Then there's that antique something-or-other that just never seems to fit in anywhere but you've been thinking it might some day. There, in the corner, that big steamer trunk that you're storing dust in. SELL 'EM! . . . Turn these "treasures" into real cash and buy something you really want.

Morrall's Work Only Salvation for Lions at Finish

Shines in 2nd Half of 25-14 Loss to Bears

He Quarterbacks Both Scores as Frustrating NFL Season Ends

CHICAGO (AP) — The quarterbacking of Earl Morrall was the only bright spot in the last game of the season for the Detroit Lions.

The former Michigan State star took over in the second half of the Lions' game with the Chicago Bears yesterday and made a bold effort to overcome a 15-0 first half deficit.

The final score of 25-14 wrote an epitaph on a season of frustration for the Lions. They finished in next-to-last place with only three victories against eight losses and one tie.

The victory assured the Bears of second place in the Western Division of the National Football League. It was the second successive year the Bears found themselves one game short of first place.

Morrall rallied the Lions early in the second half. They took the kickoff and scored in six plays. Terry Barr returned the kickoff to the 32. After a five yard loss, Morrall hit Jim Gibbons with a 20-yard pass.

Morrall was tossed for a short loss before John Henry Johnson ripped off 25 yards up the middle. Hopalong Cassady picked up 14 and Johnson tore up the middle for 13 more and Detroit's first touchdown.

A few minutes later Johnson took a pass from Morrall and fumbled on his own 32. Fullback Rick Casares picked up four yards before the Bears' quarterback Ed Brown whipped a 28-yard touchdown pass to Jim Dooley.

Shortly before the third quarter ended, the Lions recovered a Bear fumble on the Chicago 20. Morrall tossed an eight-yard pass to Barr and a few plays later Morrall rifled an eight-yard scoring pass to Jim Doran.

It was the seventh straight triumph for the Bears and the longest winning streak of the league season and the longest for the Bears since 1943. It gave the Bears an 8-4 record.

The Bears started the game by taking the opening kickoff and moving 80 yards in nine plays. The first touchdown was a screen pass from Brown to Casares for 43 yards.

Three plays later the Bears made it 9-0 when Detroit quarterback Tobin Rote was tackled in the end zone by Earl Leggett.

The Lions couldn't dent the Bear defense in their scoreless first half and Chicago went into a 15-0 halftime lead on 10 and 12-yard field goals by John Aveni.

Aveni polished off the game with a third field goal from 10 yards in the final quarter.

Coach George Wilson now is turning his attention to rebuilding the Lions for the 1960 season. But he already is encountering misfortune.

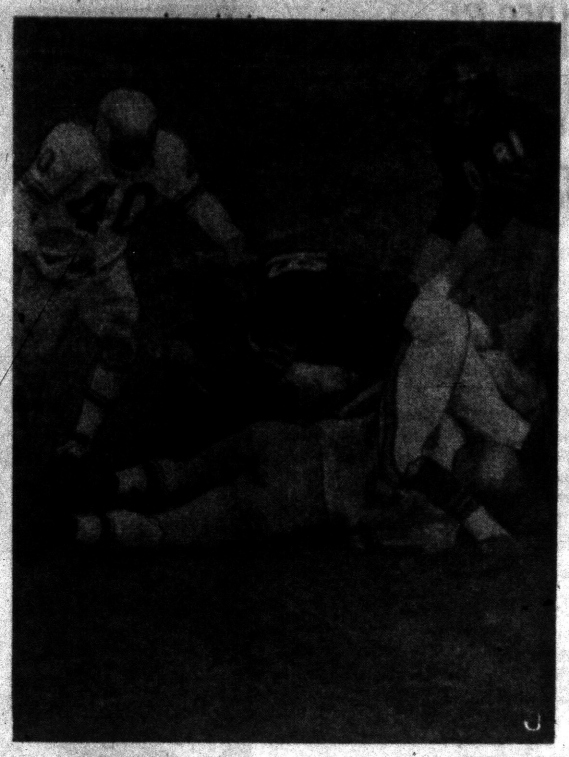

Two of the Lions' draft choices have gone to other leagues.

Jim Andreotti, Northwestern center, who was a fourth round selection of the Lions, has signed with the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League.

Darrell Harper, University of Michigan halfback, who went to the Lions in the 15th round of the recent NFL draft, has signed with Buffalo of the new American Football League.

HOPPY RIDES — Howard (Hopalong) Cassady of the Detroit Lions finds a hole in the Chicago Bear defense but the gap closed quickly as Bill George (61) and Doug Atkins (81) close in on him. The Bears won the game, 25-14, in Chicago yesterday to close a dismal season for the Lions.

Speed No Factor in Grand Prix

Winner Runs Out of Gas

SEBRING, Fla. (AP)—Record shattering speed played no part in the strategy that won the world's road racing championship for Jack Brabham, the good-looking daredevil auto driver from Down Under.

"We decided to let Stirling Moss set the pace and see if he would break his car down," the 33-year-old Australian said after wrapping up the world title with a fourth place finish back of winner Bruce McLaren of New Zealand in the Grand Prix of the United States.

Moss, victim of a long breakdown jinx, did just that. The Briton's Copper-Climax transmission gave out only 30 miles after the start Saturday.

As it turned out Brabham's R. R. C. Walker Cooper-Climax didn't finish under its own power. As the cars rounded the 1st turn, Brabham, with a leaking fuel line, ran out of gas. McLaren, lightly regarded in the field of 18 starters came on to win as the Australian got out and pushed his car a half-mile to reach the finish line in time for fourth place.

★ ★ ★

After Moss went out, only Tony Brooks of England had an outside chance to overtake Brabham for the world title. He needed to win the race and gain an extra point for the fastest lap.

But the R. R. C. Walker Cooper-Climax racing team handled Brooks, a Ferrari driver, in a methodical manner. Beside Moss and Brabham the team was composed of McLaren and Maurice Trintignant of France.

When Moss dropped out, Brabham took command but slowed down the pace a bit. McLaren, the Aussie's 23-year-old understudy, stayed close to the champ. Trintignant lay back only seconds away.

As it turned out, if Brooks had won the race, Trintignant still would have denied him the coveted title, for he turned the fastest lap to take that point away from the Englishman.

Brooks crossed the line third. Count Wolfgang Von Trips of Germany also had to push his Ferrari across to take fifth after a last-minute breakdown. Then came Innes Ireland of Scotland in a Lotus and Harry Blanchard of Greenwich, Conn., in a Porsche. Only seven finished.

McLaren covered the 218.4 miles of the race in two hours, 12 minutes, 35.7 seconds for an average of 98.83 miles an hour.

Brabham finished the 1959 Grand Prix campaign with 31 points. Brooks was runner-up with 29. Moss was third with 25½. Phil Hill of Santa Monica, Calif., scored 20, Trintignant 19 and McLaren 16½.

Going into the final event of the annual Cereal Bowl invitational prep swimming relays, Saturday, Birmingham Seaholm's squad needed just two points for a victory.

Giants' Coach Believes Title Game a Tossup

WASHINGTON (AP) — "It's a tossup."

That's the way Coach Jim Lee Howell sees the game his New York Giants will play with the Baltimore Colts for the National Football League championship Dec. 27.

Howell, who saw his Giants wind up the regular pro football season with a 10-2 record, made his prediction Sunday after New York defeated the Washington Redskins 24-10.

"That Baltimore team has no weaknesses," he said, "and we're going to have a real fight on our hands to beat them."

He said that he has a good line on the Colts' ability from scouting reports.

"Their defensive secondary is much better than last year," Howell noted, "that's the biggest thing that we'll have to overcome."

Abel Enjoys a 'Satisfying' Weekend

His Red Wings Whip Toronto and Montreal

Detroiters Handle Leafs Sunday, 4-2; Canadiens Beaten Saturday, 3-2

DETROIT (AP)—Sid Abel called it the most rugged, but most satisfying weekend of hockey since he became coach of the Red Wings in January of 1958.

The Detroit coach has his club sitting in second place after a pair of weekend victories. The Wings beat Montreal 3-2 Saturday night on Canadien ice, then turned back the Maple Leafs of Toronto last night 4-2 at Olympia Stadium.

"Considering that we were playing the two Canadian teams, first and third place teams in the league, and considering everything else that we had to contend with, I'd call it my finest weekend of hockey since I came back to the Wings," said Abel.

Beating the Canadiens in Montreal is quite a feat in itself. On top of that, the Wings' plane was grounded because of bad weather in Detroit, so they had to catch a train there.

A severe storm hit Montreal Saturday evening, delaying the trip back by three and one-half hours.

So the Wings spent 34 of the last 48 hours on trains — and most of the rest inside a hockey arena. They arrived back in Detroit last night an hour before game time.

They trailed 1-0 and 2-1 before catching fire in the second period. Bob Pulford and Johnny Wilson scored for the Maple Leafs in the early going.

Marcel Pronovost canned an 80-footer for the Wings and John McKenzie got the tying goal at 5:13 of the second period. The 15-foot backhand on Alex Delvecchio's rebound was McKenzie's first goal in 11 games.

Defenseman Red Kelly sent the Wings ahead two minutes later when his backhand shot caromed off goalie Johnny Bower's leg. Rookie Murray Oliver provided the insurance goal at 11:42 of the finale, taking Gordie Howe's pass-out and slamming the puck past Bower from close range.

The Wings haven't been beaten in five games — since goalie Terry Sawchuk got over a case of neuritis and returned to the nets — and they have rolled up four wins and a tie in that span, gaining on every team in the league.

"I don't know how long we can stay up," said Abel, "but it's wonderful just being there."

All-Star Pin Points

By BILLY WELU
STRIKE POCKET

For big scores you have to be in the 1-3 pocket.

High scores are made with strikes. Spares are necessary, of course. If you mark in every frame you get a highly respectable score. But without strikes, you can never hope to be a real top-average roller.

Get strikes hitting the 1-3 or the 1-2 pocket, which should be the exclusive property of the left-handed bowler, but isn't. Hitting the 1-2 pocket by a right-hander is known fondly as a crossover, a Brooklyn or a Jersey hit.

It is not as good as hitting the preferable 1-3, but I have yet to learn of anybody refusing credit.

The strike hit is a chain reaction that begins with the follow through. It includes everything you should have learned. Comfort, relaxation, balance, timing and coordination are factors.

The lift with your fingers in a properly-fitted ball is part of this production. The ball hits the 1-3 pocket. It carries into the most important 5-pin — the king pin — and deflects to hit the 9. The number 1 or head pin takes care of the 2-4-7 line.

The 3 eliminates the 6-10, with the 5 being responsible for the lonely 8.

Marines' 90-0 Count May Be Bowl Record

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — The Quantico Marines slaughtered McClellan Air Force Base 90-0 in the Shrimp Bowl yesterday and it was hailed as a record score for any bowl game in history.

That would be about all the sponsors got out of it since a crowd of only 3,500 showed up and those who attended enjoyed mostly the humor of the occasion—not the football.

At Armory Wednesday

Happy Humphrey Back

A double main-event will highlight the next big professional wrestling card at the Pontiac Armory Wednesday night. In one of the features, Happy Farmer Humphrey, 750 pound giant, will team up with sensational newcomer Bertrand "Frenchy" Villard to meet the team of Bulldog Brower and Jim "Brute" Bernard in what should be one of the most unusual and exciting tag-team bouts ever seen in Pontiac.

Humphrey, the biggest man in the world, is well-known to wrestling fans the world over, both for his great size and his equally big heart.

He remains one of the most popular figures in the world of sports without seeking either publicity or fame, which proves once again that a celebrity's popularity cannot be accurately judged by the number of official awards or kudos he gets.

Says Humphrey: "The greatest honor I get is when some fan asks me to sign an autograph. That means more to me than any other kind of award there is." If the amount of autographs signed by a wrestler is any indication of popularity, then Humphrey is far and away the best-liked man in wrestling.

His partner, Villard, is a sensational young Frenchman who already has received large amounts of acclaim, despite the relatively short time he has been wrestling.

Champ's Victory Booed

NOGALES, Mex. (AP) — Fast-punching world bantamweight champion Jose Becerra of Guadalajara, Mex., Sunday won a roundly booed 10 - round decision over Frank Duran of Austin, Tex.

A crowd estimated at 6,500 jeered the unanimous decision for several minutes after the fight because Duran, at times, made the champion look awkward.

Set Several Records in 147-129 Rout of NY

Sizzling Pistons End Slump

DETROIT (AP)—The jubilant Detroit Pistons were still trying to figure out today how many records were broken in their 147-129 victory over the New York Knickerbockers.

The Pistons exploded yesterday in their televised National Basketball Assn. game and scored the most points since they came to Detroit three years ago. It also was more points than they ever scored when they played out of Fort Wayne, Ind.

The game shattered about 20 records for pro basketball at Olympia Stadium. The Pistons clipped the Olympia team mark of 146 set by St. Louis against Syracuse here two years ago.

Detroit's seven-foot center Walter Dukes figured in the record-making. He turned in the greatest game of his pro career. He tossed in 38 points — a personal high — and set an Olympia record for rebounds with 32.

A crowd of 5,136 saw the Pistons end a four-game losing streak as they came home to open a three-game stand at Olympia this week. They are now 2½ games behind first place St. Louis in the league's Western Division. St. Louis will be here Wednesday night.

The Pistons took a 32-18 lead at the end of the first quarter but the Knickerbockers rallied in the second quarter and reduced Detroit's lead to 65-62 at halftime.

★ ★ ★

Detroit broke loose again in the third period with Bailey Howell and Gene Shue pacing the attack. Early in this period the game was enlivened by the expulsion of the Knickerbockers' Charles Tyra who took a swing at Dukes.

Stilt's 36 Matched by Nats' Kerr

Warriors Losers in 2

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Philadelphia Warriors are finding that it is not all beer and skittles in the National Basketball Assn. even with Wilt Chamberlain scoring at a record pace.

Losing two games over the weekend, the Warriors slipped 5½ games back of the pace setting Boston Celtics in the Eastern division and held to second by a mere one-game margin over the Syracuse Nats.

Chamberlain was held to 22 points, some 14 below his average, as the Warriors dropped a 126-117 decision to the Celtics Saturday. The victory was the Celtics' ninth straight. But last night, the 7-1 rookie came back with 36 against Syracuse. Still the Warriors lost 150-121 with Johnny Kerr matching Chamberlain point-for-point.

The Nats set club records for total points, half and three quarters as they took a 38-24 first period lead, increased it to 71-52 at the half and 111-78 at the three-quarter mark. They also hung up a club mark in hitting 63 field goals on 111 shots for a percentage of .568.

Cincinnati broke even in two games, beating Minneapolis 107-97 Saturday and losing to St. Louis 118-98 Sunday.

Brown Keeps Rushing Title

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Jimmy Brown of Cleveland has won his third straight national football league ground-gaining title and set a league record for rushing attempts. He has been in the league only three years.

The 228-pound fullback carried the ball 33 times against Philadelphia making his total for the season 290. Ed Price of the New York Giants set the old season record of 271 in 1951.

Brown scored twice and gained 152 yards in Cleveland's 28-21 victory. This gave him a season ground-gaining total of 1,329 yards. He did better last year when he rushed 1,527 yards on 257 carries.

Nears NFL Record

Layne Must Wait Till Next Season for Mark

PITTSBURGH (AP)— Quarterback Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers will have to wait until next season to break Sammy Baugh's all-time National Football League passing record of 22,085 yards.

Layne needed only 224 yards Sunday to surpass Baugh. The former Detroit Lion got 201 in three quarters, then sat out the final period after passing for four touchdowns and scoring one himself.

Why did Layne sit out the final quarter?

"Hell, I didn't know Bobby was on the verge of breaking Baugh's record," said coach Buddy Parker after the Steelers thumped the Chicago Cardinals 35-20 in the season's final.

"Anyway I had to give Len Dawson a chance to play. He's sat on the bench virtually all season. We were ahead and I just wanted to give Dawson a chance."

Baugh in 16 seasons with the Washington Redskins gained 22,085 yards passing. Layne now has passed for 22,063 yards in 12 years in the NFL.

"Records don't mean a thing to me," said the Steelers' 32-year-old signal caller. "But winning a ball game does. Records are made to be broken."

The Cards jumped off to a 6-0 lead in the first quarter on a pair of field goals by Joe Conrad of 37 and 18 yards, respectively.

Then the Steelers exploded with four touchdowns in the second quarter. Layne ran 13 yards for the first score and then passed for three more. He hit Buddy Dial twice for 35 and 9 yards and Tom Tracy for 16 yards. His final td came in the third quarter on a 16 yard heave to Jimmy Orr. He also kicked five extra points.

PCH-PNH Renew Rivalry in Pool Today

The two schools have already met each other in basketball this year and PCH was victorious. Today's meet will be worth 50 points toward The Press All-Sports Trophy which was instituted recently in athletic competition between the schools.

Each sport is worth 100 points and where the schools meet twice in one sport the points are split 50 for each meeting.

Northern has a 1-1 record in dual competition thus far, having beaten Madison Heights and losing to Southfield.

Central is also 1-1 with a win over Ypsilanti and a loss last Friday night to Saginaw Arthur Hill, the perennial power in the Saginaw Valley Conference.

Bruce Norvell set a new pool record at Arthur Hill doing the orthodox breast stroke in 1:08. The other winner was in the diving event with Bruce Lewis.

★ ★ ★

The Chiefs should score easy wins in the butterfly, breast stroke and the sprints. Northern's best chances lie in the backstroke with Wally Johnson and the diving event, with Bill Ratliff.

Norvell, a junior, and Gaensbauer, a senior, are two of the best individual performers in the county and the Saginaw Valley. Norvell is a top candidate for state honors.

The little pool at Pontiac Central has been considered to be worth a great advantage for the Chiefs especially in close meets. Opposing swimmers unaccustomed to the pool's dimensions have difficulty in their turns and divers often have problems with the low ceiling.

The pool will undergo a $180,000 remodeling starting in February, however no improvements will be made in changing the pool's dimensions.

The second meeting between the schools will take place Feb. 9th in the PNH pool.

Tomorrow night, Birmingham's powerful swimming team will play host to Utica. Wednesday night, Southfield and Fitzgerald engage in a big North Suburban League meet.

Top U.S. Skier Breaks Leg

Werner to Miss Olympics

INNSBRUCK, Austria (AP) — Ski-minded Austrians were stunned Sunday by the news that Buddy Werner, the No. 1 U.S. hope in the Alpine events, had suffered a broken leg and will miss the 1960 Winter Olympics.

A spokesman for the Austrian Ski Federation termed it "a real disaster, not only for Werner and the United States, but for all of us who for many years have had nothing but the highest esteem for Buddy as one of the world's best skiers."

Ever since he lost the coveted world championship downhill race at Badgastein in 1958 by falling about 50 yards before the finish after a heroic fight, the blond ace from Steamboat Springs, Colo., was as popular with Austrian ski fans as their own aces.

"Buddy sure deserved a better fate," said a prominent Vienna sports commentator. "He has all our respect as a skier who almost single-handedly carried his country's colors against overwhelming Austrian strength in Alpine skiing."

Austrian aces Anderl Molterer and Karl Schranz said they most feared Werner's skill, "although he is a lone wolf defending a great reputation with no other American supporting him."

But they also gave a hint of Buddy's fate when they prophesied: "The trouble with Buddy is that he risks too much.

"If we were to take all the risks Buddy takes, we'd probably be five seconds faster. But, taking all the risks is not the best way to ski in a race."

Ex-Spartans in Olympics

BOSTON (UPI) — Two former Michigan State hockey stars have been named to the team which will represent the United States in the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

1958 Champions Whip Stubborn Rams in Final

By The Associated Press

The cunning 26-year-old quarterback rallied the trailing Colts for a 21-point blitz in the final period Saturday that carried Baltimore to a 45-26 victory over Los Angeles and into the NFL championship game against the New York Giants, Dec. 27, at Baltimore.

The situation was anything but bright for the Colts when Unitas decided to personally toss the league's youngest entry another crown.

Losers of seven straight and playing their last game under Coach Sid Gillman, the Rams led 26-24 in the fourth quarter with 65,528 partisan fans in Los Angeles Coliseum cheering their every move. And, with fullback Alan Ameche, bulwark of the Baltimore running attack, sidelined with injuries the Ram defenders were anticipating an aerial probe.

★ ★ ★

Despite this, Unitas calmly reared back, spotted rookie Jerry Richardson and fired a nine-yard touchdown pass to put the Colts out front to stay. It was Unitas' third scoring heave of the game, giving him 32 for the season and extended to 37 straight his TD-a-Game streak. Both are NFL records.

The Eastern Division champion Giants, who'll be seeking to avenge a 23-17 sudden death loss to Baltimore in the championship game last year, warmed up Sunday by defeating Washington 24-10.

Cleveland wound up tied for second place in the Eastern Division with Philadelphia by whipping the Eagles 28-21, the runner-up spot in the West went to Chicago's Bears who ran their winning streak to seven games—longest in the league this season—by beating Detroit 24-14.

Green Bay won its fourth straight, thumping San Francisco 36-14 and tied the 49ers for third place in the West. Pittsburgh whacked Chicago's Cardinals 35-20 in the other game on the windup program.

After Unitas' clinching TD, the Colts defense took over offensively to wreck any thought of a Ram comeback. Dick Szymanski went 15 yards with an interception for one score and Carl Teseff tied an NFL mark by running back a missed field goal try 99 yards for another.

The Rams (2-10) had built their lead on four field goals by Lou Michaels and TD runs of four and 27 yards by Joe Marconi and Jon Arnett, respectively. Touchdown passes of two and seven yards from Unitas to Ray Berry and a 53-yard run by Mike Sommer kept the Colts (9-3) within striking distance.

Charlie Conerly fired two touchdown tosses against the Redskins (3-9) and Frank Gifford set a club rushing record as the Giants became the first Eastern team to win 10 games since Cleveland in 1953. Gifford gained 84 yards for a career mark of 3,347. New York's Pat Summerall kicked one field goal and three conversions to clinch the league's scoring title with 90 points.

Jimmy Brown, used mostly as a decoy in the early stages, plunged short yardage for two touchdowns in the final period as the Browns came from behind to overtake the Eagles. Both finished with 7-5 records. Norm Van Brocklin kept Philadelphia close, connecting with 15 of 22 passes for 246 yards and one touchdown. Brown again won the league's rushing crown with 1,329 yards in 290 carries.

Paul Hornung scored 22 points on three short scoring bursts and four conversions and Bart Starr passed for two touchdowns in the Packers (7-5) triumph over the 49ers (7-5). Green Bay thus capped a successful capaign under new Coach Vince Lombardi, compiling its first winning record since 1947.

3 Wildcats Join North

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The North team picked up three Northwestern players Sunday for its battle with the South in the college all-star game here Dec. 26.

Tigers Schedule 33 Exhibition Contests

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers will play 33 exhibition games, including 19 in Lakeland, Fla.

The squad is scheduled to report Monday, Feb. 29, for the start of spring training. Regular workouts will begin March 1.

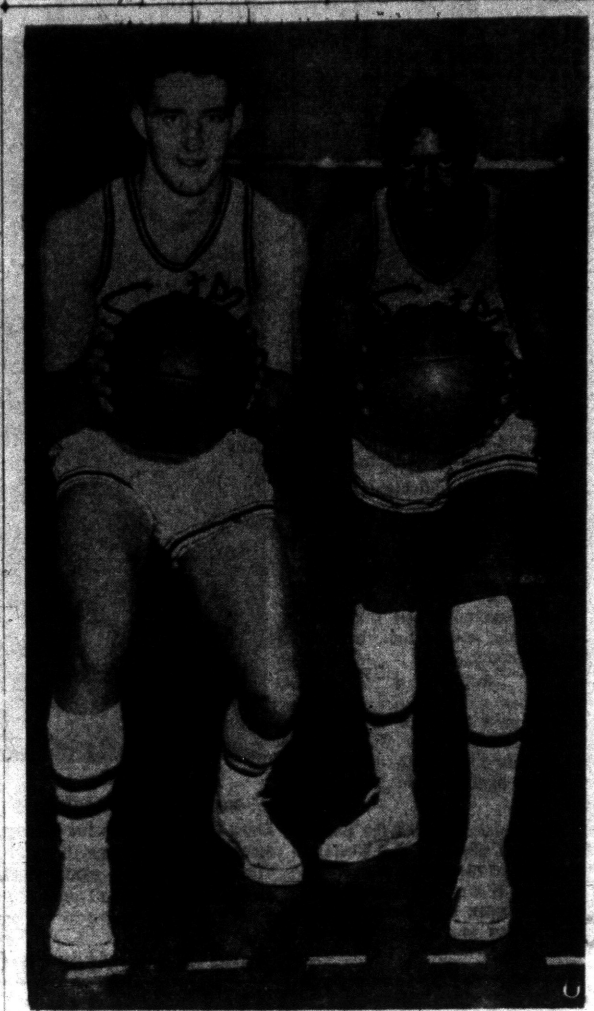

The Tigers will play 13 of the 15 other major league clubs in spring training games and then will go to Cleveland April 18 and open the season there April 19.

"This is the best balanced exhibition schedule the Tigers have ever had," president Bill DeWitt said. "We play every team in Florida at home and have a minimum of long road trips."

Opening day at Lakeland will be Saturday, March 12, against Washington.

The Tigers will play the champions of both leagues, Los Angeles at Lakeland March 15 and Chicago White Sox April 8.

West Bloomfield Next Opponent for Huskies

Northern Plays Host to Lakers Tuesday Night

Fordson at Waterford in Light, Attractive Prep Schedule

Only 14 games are slated in this neck of the woods tomorrow night, but nine of them fall into the "distinctly interesting" category.

Leading the short parade is Pontiac Northern's battle with West Bloomfield at the PNH gymnasium.

Not far behind is Waterford's duel with rangy Dearborn Fordson on the Waterford court, Southfield's visit to Birmingham Seaholm, Romeo's trip to Utica, Imlay City's tussle with Almont on the Imlay floor and Berkley's journey to Ferndale.

Avondale, crushed by Troy last Friday, returns to its friendly home surroundings for a meeting with weak Madison and Lake Orion shoots for its 3rd straight win against visiting Fitzgerald in the Oakland B circuit.

All other games on tomorrow evening's card are of the non-conference variety.

Northern, which broke into the winning column last Friday with an Inter-Lakes decision over Southfield after dropping verdicts to Pontiac Central and Hazel Park, meets a rebounding Keego quintet Tuesday.

The Lakers, who have broken even in two Wayne-Oakland League contests, will be slight underdogs against the Huskies, who showed marked improvement while beating Southfield.

West Bloomfield and Northern met once last season and PNH posted the 1st basketball triumph in the school's history by downing the Lakers at Keego. The main event will start at 8 p.m.

Waterford also will be an underdog against a Fordson quintet which bowed to PCH in the state quarter-finals last March and has a good nucleus returning, headed by 6-foot-6 center Dave Scott.

Birmingham, thumped by Royal Oak Dondero in its only start, tries to locate the victory trail against the Southfield Jays and will be favored to do so, despite a feeble showing in the Dondero outing.

NC, W.Va., Seek National Title Claims at Lexington

Cage Invitational in 'Spot'

By The Associated Press

This December madness called the holiday basketball tournament gets going in earnest this week and, as usual, two perennial Santa's helpers named North Carolina and West Virginia are heading to Kentucky-land in hopes of staking a claim to national leadership.

Two years ago, West Virginia used the Kentucky Invitational at Lexington to snap defending national champ North Carolina's winning streak at 39 and start its ride toward a No. 1 national ranking.

Last year, North Carolina started on the way back to the top in Louisville's Blue Grass holiday tourney while West Virginia, subsequently the NCAA tournament runner-up, was having it out with the University of Kentucky.

Now it's the Kentucky Invitational grabbing the spotlight again with the North Carolina Tar Heels and West Virginia's Mountaineers in line for sky-high ranking if one can manage a pair of victories.

The big 4-team Lexington tournament, opening Friday night with West Virginia (5-0) against St. Louis (4-1) and Kentucky (2-2) against North Carolina (3-0), is one of seven holiday affairs helping Santa liven up the weekend before Christmas.

★ ★ ★

If the Mountaineers, led again by All-America Jerry West, can nail the Kentucky title, it'll make the Los Angeles tourney the biggest in the land. For in the LA line-up are the California Bears, holders of the nation's longest major winning streak at 19 and the club that beat West Virginia by one point (71-70) in the NCAA title game last March.

★ ★ ★

To further build up the Coast tourney, there are also such powers as Illinois, UCLA, Northwestern, Southern California, and Stanford along with Michigan.

California has won three straight this year and rates along with Cincinnati (4-0), Ohio State (5-0), North Carolina and West Virginia as the nation's Big Five in early estimates.

In addition to the Kentucky Invitational, the Friday and Saturday tournament fare also has Alabama, Duke Auburn and Navy in the Birmingham (Ala.) Classic, Manhattan, Gonzaga, San Diego State and Portland U. in the City of Roses tournament at Portland, Ore.; Baylor, Mississippi State, Murray (Ky) and Memphis State in the Murray Invitational, and VMI, Kentucky Wesleyan, Middle Tennessee and Southern Illinois in the All-American at Owensboro, Ky.

There's also small college competition in the St. Michael's (Vt.) Invitational Friday and Saturday, and the Quantico Marines against seven small schools in the Quantico Invitational Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The touraments got started last weekend, with Pitt winning the Steel Bowl at Pittsburgh by defeating Duquesne 75-44 in the title game, and Oklahoma City coming from 17 points back to topple Montana State College 74-67 for the championship of the Treasure State Classic at Bozeman, Mont.

Warming up for the big weekend, there's a solid major schedule tonight including some of the major unbeatens. West Virginia tries for No. 6 in a Southern Conference game against VMI, and Mississippi (5-0) goes against Arkansas State.

Three of the Midwest's unbeatens, Illinois (2-0), Nebraska (3-0) and Bradley (3-0), have good tests—Illinois against Marquette, once-beaten Notre Dame at Nebraska, and Providence (3-0) at Bradley. Maryland tries for its third straight against Georgetown (DC) and Texas for No. 4 against LSU.

Mask Bothers Simmons

Rangers Nip Bruins, 4-3

By United Press International

Jacques Plante of the Montreal Canadiens introduced the protective device last month, Don Simmons of the Boston Bruins used a similar mask for the first time in a regulation game Sunday night, and the New York Rangers have ordered one for goalie Marcel Paille.

★ ★ ★

Simmons' mask appeared to hamper him twice as the Rangers downed the bruins 4-3 at Madison Square Garden. He lost sight of the puck momentarily after stopping a long shot by New York defenseman Bill Gadsby in the first period and Dean Prentice swooped in to rap in the rebound for his second goal of the game.

★ ★ ★

In the second period, Andy Bathgate whipped in a back-hander while standing with his back to the cage at the left side of the crease. Simmons admitted he didn't see Bathgate's shot but General Manager Lynn Patrick absolved his goalie on this one, pointing out "it was a clever shot that no goalie could have stopped."

Simmons revealed he had worn the mask only twice previously in practice sessions, "so maybe I'm not used to it yet." He also was a little rusty last night, inasmuch as it was his first game in the Boston cage since Nov. 12.

Bathgate's goal gave the Rangers a 3-1 lead but Boston tied the score on shots by Charlie Burns and Doug Mohns before rookie Ken Schinkel rapped in the winner for New York late in the second period.

It was the Rangers' fourth victory in their last five games and left them only five points back of the fourth-place Bruins, who now have won only two of their last 15 outings.

'Sugar' Ends Long Layoff

BOSTON (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson, the dapper dancing master from the sidewalks of New York, tonight is scheduled to put his fistic wares on display for the first time in 20 months.

Since then most of his action has been before the National Boxing Assn. The powerful group stripped Ray of his title for inactivity, but he is still regarded as the world champion in New York and Massachusetts.

Tonight, he will take on Bob Young, the New England light-heavyweight champion from Providence, R. I., in an overweight, non-title 10-round bout.

★ ★ ★

That one is considered a tuneup for the aging Robinson before he defends his version of the championship against Paul Pender, a fireman from Brookline, Mass., in Boston Jan. 22.

Hornung Takes Scoring Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Former Notre Dame star Paul Hornung, converted into an all-purpose halfback this season, won the National Football League scoring title when he scored 22 points in Green Bay's 36-14 victory over the San Francisco 49ers yesterday.

Hornung scored three touchdowns and kicked four extra points in his big day to overhaul the New York Giants' ace kicker, Pat Summerall. Summerall kicked a field goal and three conversions today to wind up with 90 points.

★ ★ ★

LA's '59 Year Worst and Best

Rams Fail Retiring Coach Gillman, 45-26, Before 65,528

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams have finished their worst season on the field and their best at the ticket office by severing relations with the man who coached them longest.

It seemed at times Saturday as though Los Angeles might hand Sid Gillman a going-away present—an upset win over the Baltimore Colts. But Gillman's last day in the saddle was as bumpy as many of his earlier ones this year.

Gillman, with the local entry in the National Football League since 1955, told the Ram players in a pre-game session that he would not be around next year.

A crowd of 65,528 watched the battle. It swelled the Rams' total attendance for 1959 to 1,061,625, an NFL record. The old mark of 1,053,798 was set last year by the Rams during a season considerably brighter than the 1959 totals of 2 wins and 10 losses.

Gillman told reporters after the finale that he had been asked to quit.

Ex-Ram great Bob Waterfield heads the list of possible successors to Gilman. Other possibilities include Tom Landry, Giant defensive boss; Notre Dame's Joe Kuharich; Joe Trimble and Wayne Robinson, Canada coaches; Forest Evashevski, Iowa; Ben Martin, Air Force Academy, and Blanton Collier, Kentucky.

MAPLE — Birmingham cagers open the home season Tuesday night against Southfield and one of the returning veterans in the Maple lineup will be Phil Isbell, who had a bright season with the football team. Isbell is a 6-1 senior forward.

Ex-MSU Aide New Head Coach at Kansas State

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) — Doug Weaver, just seven years ago a linebacker at Michigan State, has been named head football coach at Kansas State University.

He is 29, youngest coach in the Big Eight Conference.

Weaver, who succeeds Bus Mertes, was given a four-year contract and a free choice of assistants. Mertes, head coach five years, resigned.

TEQUESTA, Fla. (AP) — Perry Como, the television singer, and three mates won the Metropolitan Amateur Golf Assn.'s pro-amateur best-ball division with a two-day score of 116.

Jacobs Wins With 67

MONTEBELLO, Calif. (AP) — Tommy Jacobs, who literally grew up on the home course, won the $5,000 Montebello open golf tournament Sunday with a final-round 67 and a 54-hole total of 202.

TITAN ACE — University of Detroit's unbeaten basketball team rolled over Purdue Saturday night and faces perennial NIT power Xavier, also unbeaten, tonight in the U-D fieldhouse. One reason for the Titan success is sophomore Charley North who has teamed up with soph Dave DeBusschere as a high scoring and rebounding pair. North had 26 against Purdue Saturday.

U-D Routs Purdue, 'M' Falls to Butler

Xavier Tonight for Unbeaten Titans

By The Associated Press

The University of Detroit, eyeing national honors in basketball after whipping Purdue 84-63 Saturday, takes on unbeaten Xavier (3-0), a perennial NIT team in a game at the U. of D. Memorial Building tonight.

The Titans posted their fourth straight victory of the season without a defeat in beating Purdue for the first time in six contests since 1938. It was Purdue's first loss this season.

A partisan crowd of 9,256 saw the Titans overpower Purdue. It was the largest crowd ever to see a college game in the Memorial Building.

Michigan didn't fare any better than Purdue in its non-conference game. Butler's Bulldogs at Indianapolis trounced the Wolverines 86-63 after holding only a one-point halftime lead. It was Butler's third victory against two losses and Michigan's third straight loss.

Purdue never knew what hit it. The Titans went ahead 47-17 at halftime on the key first half scoring of Larry Hughes of Walled Lake. Charley North and Dave DeBusschere controlled the boards and finished with 26 and 17 points respectively for U. of D.

Hillsdale College lost an 86-83 overtime game to Assumption University at Windsor, Ont. The game was close all the way with the score tied 41-41 at the half and 72-72 at the end of regulation play. Hillsdale's Don Bohannan scored 40 points.

A last-second field goal by Len Wozniak gave Alma a 76-74 victory over Adrian. Both Alma and Adrian now have 1-1 records in the MIAA.

In an MIAA game at Holland, Hope overwhelmed Kalamazoo 81-66. Hope is 2-0 in conference play and Kalamazoo is 1-2.

Rail Men Hope for No Strike

Labor Unions Checking Ahead With Arbitrators Over Attitudes

WASHINGTON (AP) — There's a 50-50 chance a railroad contract settlement can be reached without a strike, the nation's top rail labor official says.

★ ★ ★

"We are not looking for a strike," said George E. Leighty Friday. "We're trying to settle this thing. If there is a strike it will be forced on us by the railroads." Leighty is chairman of the Railway Labor Executives Assn.

He said any railway work stoppage would not be likely to come before May 1.

Leighty said rail unions are sending questionnaires to all recognized labor arbitrators who might be called on to serve on an emergency board named by the White House in the contract dispute.

The questionnaires, he said, are designed to find out if potential arbitrators have been "brainwashed" by what he called a multimillion dollar propaganda campaign by railroads on the "featherbedding" issue.

The current dispute is mainly over wage rates and rules changes.

Consumers to Service 8,500 More Gas Users

JACKSON (AP) — Consumers Power Co. said Friday it will service an additional 8,500 customers with gas for space heating.

A. H. Aymond Jr., executive vice president, said the action is possible because Trunkline Gas Co. will begin delivering additional gas to Consumers Jan. 1. The gas will travel from Texas and Louisiana to Tuscola, Ill. via the Trunkline system and from Tuscola to Michigan via the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Co. system.

Aymond said, however, Trunkline and Consumers plan to link Tuscola and Michigan with their own pipe lines.

MSU Bidding for Major Chicago Seaway Library

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State University has offered to absorb the Library of International Relations, a privately supported institution at Chicago which is plagued by money troubles.

The library has 100,000 books, periodicals and resource pamphlets, and is a depsitory for the United Nations and the international courts at the Hague, Netherlands.

MSU officials said the facility could be integrated with the campus library as a major information center on international politics, economics, commerce and social conditions.

The MSU offer was made when the Chicago library reported its annual income of $45,000 was less than half the amount needed to purchase books and maintain a staff. A decision on the bid is expected within two weeks.

REPORT UNPUBLISHED

Lack of funds led the library to cancel publication of its annual quarterly index and report called "World in Focus."

Richard E. Chapin, MSU director of libraries, said the Chicago collection could be absorbed at East Lansing without significant expense.

The library is used by some 6,000 businesses and researchers each year and its value has increased with the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Chapin said its location on the MSU campus would be highly useful to Michigan business and industry as the Seaway's potential is developed.

He also said it would be an important campus agency in view of the university's expansion in international education.

Last month the board of trustees of the Chicago library said it must accept the MSU offer unless it is assured by Dec. 23 of adequate and sustained support in Chicago.

Chicago newspapers have been crusading to keep the institution in their city. The University of Illinois has expressed some interest in making it part of its Chicago campus which will be opened in 1963.

Some 5½ million American homes now have some form of air-conditioning—an increase of ¾ of a million during the past year. To sell this growing market, manufacturers invested nearly $2 million in newspaper advertising in 1958.

Your Boss Will Be Bitten, Too

You'll Pay More Social Security

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Don't look now. But in less than three weeks from today the boss will start holding back more of your pay check. It'll hurt him just as it does you, because he's got to match the bigger amount himself.

On January 1 the Social Security tax rate goes up again.

Back in 1940 the most the boss withheld from any employe (and matched himself) was $30 a year. But in 1960 the maximum collection from a worker will be $144.

PENSIONS ON RISE

This year the maximum was $120 and the year before $94.50.

The reason the tax keeps going up is that the amount of pension payments keeps going up. Part of this is due to a little more generous payments to the retired. But most of it is because of the steady increase in the number of retired persons eligible for payments.

This year the tax rate was 5 per cent. The boss withheld 2½ per cent of an employe's pay up to $4,800, and also turned in 2½ per cent of the pay rate to Uncle Sam up to the point that he had paid an employe $4,800. Then the withholding and payments ended. In all Uncle Sam got a maximum of $240 per worker.

Next year the rate goes to 6 per cent—divided equally among employe and employer. By 1969 the payments into Social Security will reach 9 per cent, also equally divided.

From 1969 on the maximum that can be taken out of your annual pay will be $216, with another $216 paid by the employer.

★ ★ ★

The rate schedule was stepped up in 1958 by Congress after Social Security benefit payments began to outrun collections for the first time. The new rates, plus an expected increase in the total of the employed, are supposed to keep the system i funds.

PAPERWORK PLENTIFUL

Painful as it may be to see your take-home pay drop after New Year's Day, the boss has other expenses beyond the 3 per cent he, too, must contribute.

Paper work connected with all the deductions that companies now make in preparing payrolls runs into countless man hours.

Bookkeepers not only have to figure out how much to withhold for Social Security, they have to withhold large sums for the U.S. Treasury to meet individual income taxes, each withholding tailored to the number of dependents and so on of the worker.

In a number of states they also have to collect for the state tax man, also.

Win in Compromise Election

Poles May Cut U. S. Lead on U.N. Security Council

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The effective United States majority of 10-1 on the U.N. Security Council probably will dwindle to 8-3 on most votes in the new year.

This will be the result of elections held in the General Assembly for terms on the 11-nation council starting Jan. 1. The Assembly wound up its 14th session early Sunday by electing Communist Poland to a council seat.

★ ★ ★

The election was the last of three East-West compromises that were among the session's high points. Poland and Turkey had been deadlocked in a three-month race that ended when the United States and the Soviet Union agreed to let them split the two-year term. Poland will resign at the end of 1960, and Turkey will finish out the term.

★ ★ ★

In addition to Poland, Ceylon and Ecuador were elected to succeed Canada and Panama. Poland takes the seat held by Japan.

The outgoing three voted with the United States in the last test Sept. 7, when the council overrode Soviet opposition and voted 10-1 to send a subcommittee to investigate charges of Communist intervention in Laos.

Of the incoming three, only Ecuador can be counted on to support the United States on cold war issues. Poland will vote with the Soviet Union, and neutralist Ceylon most likely will abstain.

An 8-3 majority is just one vote over the margin of safety, for seven votes are needed to pass any proposal.

Remaining on the council will be Britain, Nationalist China, France, the Soviet Union and the United States, in permanent seats, and Argentina, Italy and Tunisia, whose two-year terms have a year to run.

In another 11th hour action, the Assembly endorsed a Soviet-American compromise setting up a 24-nation permanent committee to study ways to keep outer space peaceful. Membership is split equally between Western Allies (12) and Communists (7) and neutrals (5). The Communists and some of the neutrals boycotted a temporary committee set up last year because the Western Allies outnumbered them 12-6.

★ ★ ★

A third result of private Soviet-American negotiations was the Assembly's referral of all disarmament proposals to a 10-nation East-West committee meeting in Geneva in February. But the resolution contained four references to "general and complete disarmanent"—a phrase used by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev when he addressed the Assembly Sept. 18.

Charrier Sent Home From Army

PARIS (AP)—Jacquest Charrier—husband of actress Brigitte Bardot—has been given a temporary medical discharge from the Army.

★ ★ ★

His case will be taken up again in a year and he may be called back to service then. The decision was taken by an Army reviewing board made up of officers and physicians.

The board gave no reason for its decision, but reasons never are made public in such cases.

★ ★ ★

Charrier has been under treatment at the Val de Grace Military Hospital in Paris for a nervous breakdown. Questions were asked in the National Assembly and the Paris Municipal Council about his case and assurances asked from the government that Charrier was getting no preferential treatment.

★ ★ ★

Brigitte, who is expecting a baby early next year, wrote a letter to a Paris newspaper saying she only wanted her husband to be treated like any other soldier.

LITTLE GABE AND THE GOLDEN STARS — A Christmas Story — By Walt Scott

'Could Stop Britain and U.S.' Reds' Subs Powerful

LONDON (UPI)—Russia apparently believes its unmatched submarine force could cut the Atlantic lifeline between Britain and the United States in any new war, it was reported today.

The 1960 edition of Jane's Fighting Ships, the standard world naval reference, says the Russians seem to be confident they can prevent the Anglo-American navies from gaining control of the vital waters near Europe and Asia.

Their fleet of 500 submarines — including guided missile and atomic-powered underwater craft — could, in the Russian view, "wreak great havoc" on the 25 million tons of American and 20 million tons of British shipping, Jane's said.

The authoritative naval reference book noted there had been a considerable increase in Russian naval activity on the high seas in the past year.

"Russian leaders have stated," wrote editor Raymond V. B. Blackman, "that in a future war the struggle at sea will be of immeasurably greater consequence than it was in the last war.

"They well realize the vital importance of the positive control of the seas in the grand strategy of Great Britain and the United States and their clear intention is to isolate North America from Western Europe in the event of war."

Blackman said Russia's navy has now reached a stable size and its leaders are experimenting with "considerable technological and scientific advances" with the object of providing "a well-balanced fleet which can operate in any part of the world."

Los Angeles Fires Finally Controlled

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A series of troublesome, wind - whipped brush fires broke out in remote but exclusive residential districts Sunday.

Three of them were along the ridge of the Santa Monica Mountains, causing firemen to move from canyon to canyon until all were controlled.

The top story on one expensive, two-level home was burned and flames endangered numerous others—including the unfinished mansion of actor Charlton Heston.

An estimated 75 cents of every consumer dollar spent for pork goes for cuts that make up somewhat less than one-half the hog's live weight.

$2,750,000 Sought by Adrian College

ADRIAN (AP) — Adrian College's Council on Financial Development has announced a three-year program designed to add $2,750,000 to the endowment fund.

Enrollment over the last five years has shot up from 192 to 724 and President John H. Dawson estimates it will have grown to 1,200 by 1962. Operation costs over the last five years have jumped from $240,000 to $800,000 a year.

Of the goal, Adrian trustees plan to devote $600,000 to remodeling and other campus improvements.

An unnamed donor has pledged the college three million dollars, but trustees say additional endowment will be necessary to meet the mushrooming growth.

Reuther Sees Steel Walkout

Says Industry Offers Unreasonable, Predicts Strike Will Continue

DETROIT (AP) — Walter Reuther predicts that the United Steelworkers Union will resume its strike when the current federal injunction expires next month.

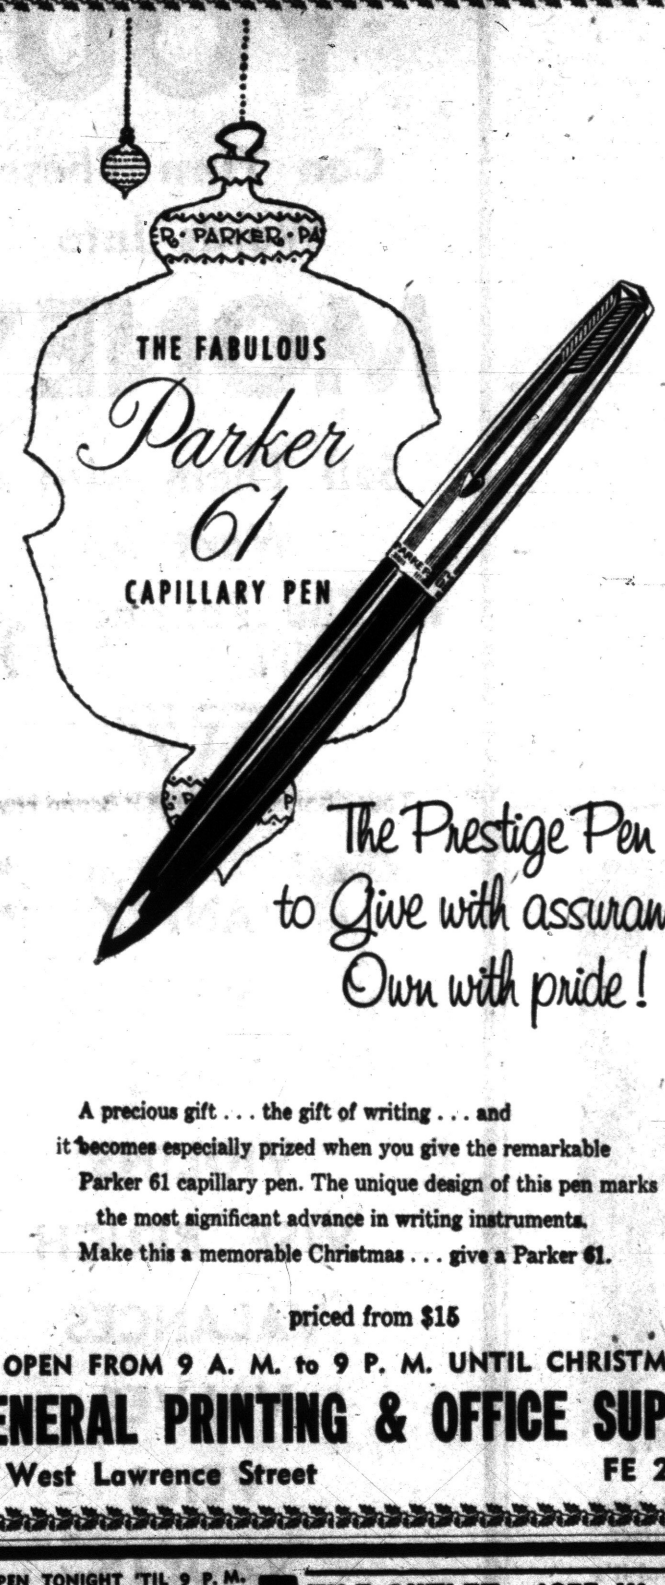

Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, stepped off a plane after a trip through Europe yesterday and immediately put himself on record regarding the steel dispute.

He told newsmen the steel industry is "completely unreasonable and unrealistic" in its stand on USW demands. He said the Steelworkers will "vote overwhelmingly against" an industry contract offer when the injunction against the strike runs out.

Reuther has been at Brussels as a delegate to the 6th world congress of the International Conference of Free Trade Unions.

The labor leader said the chief action of the conference was to discuss ways of strengthening organized labor in Asia, Africa and South America.

AF Men Seek Clues to Spare Jet Wheel

SOUTH HAVEN (UPI)—Air Force officials from Selfridge Air Base were due here today to investigate a jet aircraft wheel found on the Lake Michigan shore.

Officials said the wheel was in good condition and apparently had not been on the beach long. It was still inflated.

The Selfridge officials planned to comb the shoreline for clues to the source of the wheel. No planes of any description were reported down in the area recently, officials said.

India Is Hailing Ike as Herald of New U.S. Ideals

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP News Analyst

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Indians today professed to see in President Eisenhower's visit a reappearance of American idealism of the sort that appeals to educated Asians seeking directions for their struggling countries.

Many hailed the visit as a landmark of U.S. relations with India and all of Asia.

Eisenhower's triumphant stay in the Indian capital was interpreted as a sign of a new direction in U.S. policy, a trend strongly emphasizing the futures of the restless, underdeveloped overpopulated Asian continent.

★ ★ ★

Indians will be a long time assessing the results of the visit. Actually, in terms of tangibles, there is little they can put their fingers on. There were no decisions, no broad sweeping conclusions. But such things had not been the purpose of the Eisenhower visit. What the President showed the Indians was a glimpse of America and what it purports to stand for.

★ ★ ★

The term "new American approach" is being used here to describe the principal result of Eisenhower's visit—an American approach toward Asia based upon an attempt to understand how Asian attitudes came about and why Asians think as they do.

★ ★ ★

Asians, particularly Indians, like to think that the hectic four days in which Eisenhower was the object of vast admiration of India's masses had a close relationship with what will happen in Paris when the Western heads of government examine their positions in preparation for the summit meeting on world tensions with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

They like to think also that the visit means the United States is ready to apply its great strength, enormous wealth and respected moral force to the goal of world betterment.

He also spoke of the need for vastly increasing the exchange of students.

He indiated the United States is ready to give sympathetic help where needed. His approach was soft, implying the United States has no intention of meddling in Asia. His voice was nonbelligerent, although he implied the United States is ready to come to the aid of any friend against the threat of aggression.

★ ★ ★

But above all his message dwelt on the over-all goal of freedom for all men. This came from a man Prime Minister Nehru hailed in advance as a "messenger of peace."

It was an important message at what Nehru repeatedly referred to as "this special hour." It is an hour when India is menaced by the truculent Chinese Communists.

Nonunionists to Operate Plant

Briefly, for Processing Wilson Stock on Hand to Prevent Spoilage

ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP)—A force of 300 nonunion workers begins temporary operations in the strikebound Wilson and Co. packing plant today under reinforced National Guard protection. The workers will complete processing of meat in varying stages of production.

★ ★ ★

While the militia banked on union promises of no further violence in Albert Lea, Wilson attorneys went ahead with plans to seek a federal injunction in Minneapolis to force full reopening of the plant.

The Guard brought in a third company of troops to reinforce the two units activated Friday following two days of rock-throwing demonstrations.

Also easing the tensions in this southern Minnesota city was an announcement by Minnesota Gov. Orville Freeman that the groundwork had been laid for reopening contract talks between Wilson and the United Packinghouse Workers of America.

★ ★ ★

The union's Local 6 Sunday voiced approval of a plan by Maj. Gen. Richard Cook, the Guard commander, to allow non-union workers into the plant on a temporary basis to complete meat processing.

Cook ruled the company could bring in 300 nonunion men a day for seven days to prevent spoilage of perishable products.

Seek Murder Trial in Gridder's Death

DEARBORN (UPI) — Police planned to seek a warrant today charging Daniel Palka, 19, with murder in the stabbing death of Frank Molinari, 17.

Points Out Difference; He's Telling the Truth

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — House speaker Sam Rayburn was reminded yesterday that Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) had said the same thing about presidential candidacy possibilities after Rayburn declared, "I'm not a candidate for anything but re-election in the old fourth (district) down in Texas."

★ ★ ★

"Yes, but I'm telling the truth," said Rayburn.

POSADAS, Argentina (AP) — Rebel Paraguayan sources claim their forces have infiltrated their neighboring homeland and are still waging successful guerrilla warfare against the regime of President Alfredo Stroessner.

Stroessner's government claims the weekend revolt has been crushed.

Government officials in Asuncion characterized the self-styled liberation army as a group of "political delinquents." They censored news dispatches and insisted mopping up operations continued successfully.

Grand Rapids Works to Prevent Bus Strike

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — A last-ditch bargaining session was scheduled today to prevent a strike by driver and mechanics for the Grand Rapids City Coach Lines.

About 170 drivers and mechanics, members of Division 836 of the Amalgamated Assn. of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America, have authorized a strike for early tomorrow morning if agreement is not reached on a new contract.

Test Penny Scales

BIRMINGHAM, England (UPI) —City officials ordered the 1,000 penny-in-a-slot weight machines in Birmingham tested for accuracy because, as one put it, "a lot of women attach great significance to their weight and an inaccurate reading could cause unnecessary alarm and despondency."

Dems Will Need Strongest Man

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's peace crusade may influence Democrats to pick as a 1960 presidential nominee the man the party believes best qualified to deal with Nikita Khrushchev, two Democratic senators said today.

★ ★ ★

Mansfield, the assistant Senate Democratic leader, said that Eisenhower in his appearances in Asiatic and European nations is making a tremendous impact on the neutral areas of the globe in behalf of the free world's objectives.

Mansfield said Eisenhower is achieving triumphs "as President of the United States and not as head of the Republican party." But he added that the success of the tour is bound to be reflected in political thinking at the time of the party nominating conventions in July.

"We have five candidates for president, any one of whom is qualified to deal with Khrushchev," Mansfield said. "It will be up to the convention to decide which one it wants." While he did not name them, he obviously referred to Adlai E. Stevenson and Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Stuart Symington of Missouri, Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

Monroney said in a separate interview he thinks the convention will choose as its nominee the candidate most delegates think can compete best for the "peace vote" with the man the Republicans nominate.

★ ★ ★

Both Democrats said their party will have difficulty in defeating either Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. They agreed that Democratic strength has declined since the party's sweep in the 1958 congressional elections. They attributed this to Eisenhower's activities.

Mandarin Chinese is the most widely used language in the world. It is spoken by about 444 million people.

New Scout Handbook Sort of a Boy's Bible

By DOC QUIGG

NEW YORK (UPI)—The speaker at the lunch was a big, rugged heavy-browed man of 50 who has done more living time in the barren bitterness of the Antarctic continent than any other person.

He held up a 480-page book with a bright Norman Rockwell cover showing a boy hiking across the country.

"This publication," said Paul Siple, "will influence the lives of more people in this country in the next few years than probably any other piece of literature, except the Bible. It's an introduction to life for boys—the kind of boys we like to feel will be the backbone of America.

"It's a publication which is, probably an insurance policy on the part of the United States to the youth of America. It's an effort by an organization 50 years old. In effect, it is a sort of boy's Bible. It has one advantage over the Bible: It can be revised."

The book he held was the all-new sixth edition of the "Boy Scout Handbook," reorganized, redesigned and rewritten. Its publication date is tomorrow, and the first printing will be 1,050,000 copies. That is one of the largest book orders in printing history. The Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their 50th anniversary in February. Since 1910, there have been 17,600,000 handbooks printed.

FIRST BOY SCOUT

Siple, who is scientific adviser to the U. S. Army research office, was the first Boy Scout to set foot on the Antarctic continent. He was selected to represent the Scouts on the first Byrd expedition, 1928-30. Since then, during six exhibitions, he has lived on the continent a total of six years.

Siple has a doctorate of philosophy in geography. He spent a year as scientific leader of the IGY base directly on the South Pole, and he tells about that adventure in his own just-published book "Ninety Degrees South."

"We needed, but didn't have, a Boy Scout handbook at the South Pole," he said. "It was embarrassing that, although there were 18 of us there, when a question arose of hanging the flag we weren't certain. We got it up backwards. We knew that that information was in the handbook. We had hundreds of Navy manuals but none with the flag information."

The new handbook contains the latest techniques of first aid, camping, emergency procedures, signaling, and other aspects of scouting, and it roams familiarly through nature and woodlore.

Its index starts off with accident prevention, adhesive bandage, and advancement, and wanders through a bewildering number of categories, including good turns, fire by friction, narcotics, duty to God, shish kebab, ticks, whifflepoof, wounds and Wyoming.

After many years of selling at 65 cents, the new handbook jumps to a dollar a copy. It has been edited to be readable to 11-year-olds, the youngest age for Scout admission. And its aim, Siple said, is "to help provide a nucleus of people who can wisely guard our nation and guide it."

Think of Gift Accessories for His Boat

If someone in the family enjoys boating, nothing will add more to his Christmas than a gift to improve the convenience, safety or comfort of his boat.

★ ★ ★

Consider accessories as a gift, such as:

An inexpensive ($5.95) speedometer that shows how fast a boat is going by measuring relative speeds from 0 to 50 miles per hour. It can be mounted on the deck ahead of the windshield and requires no tubes or complicated connections.

★ ★ ★

A boater's windbreaker jacket of lightweight cotton or nylon personalized with an insignia—either club or owner's pennant with the boat name below or boat name and home port on a white ring buoy.

★ ★ ★

Bumpers or fenders to protect the boat from contact with docks or other craft. A new cylindrical type is made of soft rubber and slides on a short line, permitting them to be hung virtically or horizontially, singly or in pairs.

Portable warning horn, powered by replacable container of freon gas. Gives a warning signal that can be heard from one to two miles away.

Portable electric spotlight for locating docks or navigation markers after dark. New models attach to the top of a heavy duty lantern battery, are equipped with sealed-beam light units and throw a beam about 800 feet.

A small transistorized radio that, besides providing entertainment, will pick up weather broadcasts and when used with boat and aircraft beacon charts, enables the boatmen to take radio bearings for simple navigation.

Twenty-Six Are Dead in German Flat Fire

DORTMUND, Germany (AP) Hundreds of rescue workers searched for bodies today in a smoking heap of rubble of two apartment houses.

Twenty-six people may have died. Police believe 34 people were in the two houses when they were wrecked by a blast and ensuing fire Sunday.

Khrushchev Back Home

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev returned to Moscow yesterday after stopping to visit Kiev and other Ukrainian cities on his way home from the Communist Party Congress in Budapest.

CRACKS WORLD AIR SPEED RECORD — Brig. Gen. Joseph H. Moore of the U. S. Air Force stands in front of his needle-nosed F105 Thunderchief after breaking the world speed record for the 100-kilometer closed course. The Air Force said he made several record breaking runs near Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., in the last few days. His speed reached 1,216 m.p.h. Friday. The former record of 1,100.426 m.p.h. was set by a French Air Force pilot.

Rockefeller Wins Acclaim From Throngs in Midwest

By RELMAN MORIN

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, touring the wintry Middle West today, is running into unexpectedly warm political weather.

In some places it turned almost tropical toward him.

He drew overflow crowds in South Bend, Ind., and St. Louis, Mo. The majority of Republican chiefs in both states are reported favoring Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the nominee for president.

But as one of them put it, after seeing Rockefeller, "You have to take a good, long look at this guy. I was pleasantly surprised."

Again and again, rank-and-file Republicans in St. Louis said to him, "I hope you make the race." A woman said, "Governor, you've got to run now after so many of us stood in line this long."

Most significant, a number of people who shook Rockefeller's hand told him they are Democrats.

★ ★ ★

GOP strategists are painfully aware that, being outnumbered in registration by the Democrats, their presidential candidate must pull votes from the opposition party, along with independent votes, to win.

Last month, Rockefeller went to the West Coast.

The present trip across the Great Plains will be his last, he says, before he announces whether to try for the Republican nomination. He says he would like to be able to make it before Jan. 6, when the New York Legislature convenes.

On both trips, he invaded states where Nixon's strength is supposed to be overwhelming.

In both cases, there were clear indications that Republican leaders began having second thoughts after talking with him and seeing him in action.

★ ★ ★

An Indiana judge said, "People around here have seen Nixon several times. They had never seen Rockfeller. I think he has changed some minds."

Killed Sitting on Highway After Auto Collision

GORMAN, Calif. (UPI) — A Brazil, Ind., nurse was killed last night in a spectacular six-car accident that injured seven persons, including a Los Angeles couple and their five children.

★ ★ ★

The nurse, Martha Gentry, 22, and her companion were thrown from their car when it was rammed by another auto, California highway patrolmen said.

★ ★ ★

As the couple sat dazed and holding hands on the darkened highway, a car driven by Elnora Anderson, 52, of Ukiah, Calif., struck and killed Miss Gentry, according to the highway patrol.

Fun to Be Exotic This Yuletime

Don't Be Too Sensible; Splurge With Jeweled Gold-Colored Hose

Every woman wants to look her best all year round. But during the holidays, when everything has a festive glow, most women try to brighten their appearance.

Gold is synonymous with glitter, and glitter you will with gold eyeshadow. You can get silver tones, too, and you can match up the shades with mascara.

You'll have music wherever you go with the addition of a pair of tiny gold or silver bells worn in your hair, or on an apron you wear around the house.

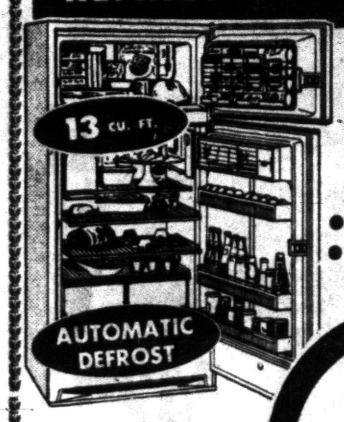

Beauty marks are back but they're not limited to the face. Paste a dot on your cheek or wear a tiny heart on your knee.

Want to be blonde for a day? You can add streaks, tips or cover your head in gold with new color sprays that wash right out. Wigs are another way to change your hair personality for a day. Some just about the same price as a hat.

A simple pine cone corsage or a scrap of mistletoe with a pretty red or silver bow can make you feel festive even while you're knee-deep in household chores.

Finally, treat yourself to a luxury bath, complete with all the trimmings. You'll want plenty of hot water, bath salts or oil, and fragrant bath powder for the after bath part.

France Shows Indignation Over Lagging Charges

PARIS (AP)—France called "excessive and dramatic" today critical remarks made about this country last week by Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Twining deplored delay by most West European members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in accepting U.S. atomic weapons and stockpiles and in integrating air forces into one air defense structure.

French sources said Couve de Murville "expressed his extreme surprise at the revelations by the American press of remarks made in the military committee, whose debates are, in principle, secret."

Couve de Murville also said Twining's remarks were of an "excessive and dramatic character," that the manner in which the problems were presented was out of proportion to the importance of the problems themselves.

He told Herter it was "difficult to understand" why the United States abstained Saturday when the United Nations Assembly rejected a resolution on the Algerian rebellion.

The resolution called for political negotiations with the rebels—something France has long opposed.

Couve de Murville noted that the United States has supported President Charles de Gaulle's policy to end the rebellion through self-determination.

Thus, Couve de Murville said, it was hard to understand why the United States did not vote against the resolution.

Informants indicated Herter told Couve de Murville the United States felt it had gone very far in supporting the French in Algeria at the United Nations.

But Herter was said to have taken the position that the United States could not afford to antagonize the emerging nations of Africa and Asia by voting against what was regarded in Washington as a relatively inocuous U.N. resolution.

★ ★ ★

Clerk to Report on Loan Request

Waterford's Seeterlin Will Tell Board About Sewer Project

Waterford Township clerk James Seeterlin will present a report and make recommendations on the township's application for a $100,000 loan from the federal government, at tonight's township board meeting.

In order to expediate plans for a proposed water-sewer project Seeterlin and township engineer Felix Anderson flew to Chicago last week and presented the application to the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Officials of the HHFA suggested several revisions for the application and assured the clerk and Anderson that the project could be processed in about 30 days after it has been received.

A representative of a program for child protection and youth assistance, will lead a discussion on the possibility of setting up this type of operation, in conjunction with Waterford Township police department.

A preliminary plat for the Beverly Island subdivision on Cass Lake road near Elizabeth Lake road, will be considered along with a request to rezone from residential to commercial, a lot on Williams Lake near Cooley Lake roads, for a new motel.

Three Die in Crash

Instead of a Life Gained . . .

SLATON, Tex. (AP) — Jo Ann Hogue woke her husband early today. The pains were regular now. While he hurriedly dressed she made last-minute preparations for the 16-mile ride to the hospital where her second child was to be born.

★ ★ ★

Killed in the crash were Mrs. Hogue, 24; her husband, James Arthur Hogue, 23, and the driver of the other car, Juan Veia Frusta, a farm worker from nearby Abernathy, Tex.

"Maybe we should stop and see if it could be them," Mrs. Halliburton suggested as they slowed down to pass the scene. One car—the Hogue's—was upside down in the center of the four-lane highway. Frusta's car, burning, was almost disintegrated.

★ ★ ★

The Halliburtons were waiting in the delivery room at Methodist Hospital in Lubbock when their daughter was brought in, dead on arrival. The unborn child was not saved.

Hogue was an auto parts salesman in Slaton. He and the brown-eyed Jo Ann were married about a year ago. Survivors of Mrs. Hogue include a son, Lamar, 4, born to a previous marriage.

Highway patrolmen said Frusta evidently drove through a stop sign.

Mom Begs for Return of Her Baby

DETROIT (AP)— The prosecutor's office had the problem today of deciding what to do about a young mother who abandoned her infant son in a motel and then asked police to return him.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Costanza showed up at the police station yesterday.

"I just couldn't give up my baby," she told a policewoman. "Please, could I have him back?"

Mrs. Costanza said she had a change of heart after reading in the newspapers of the baby being found.

★ ★ ★

"I guess I panicked," she told Sgt. Elaine Gardner of the police Women's Division. "I know I should have talked to a priest first, but I didn't."

Weekend Toll 5 on State Roads

3 Are From Detroit; Deaths Reduced From Last Weekend's 13

By The Associated Press

Five persons died in Michigan traffic this weekend as a drive by state officials to cut such deaths during the holiday season moved into high gear.

Other accidents claimed four lives during the Associated Press weekend death count which began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.

Anton Gentile, 19, and David DuRoss, 22, both of Detroit, were killed Sunday night when their car hit a curb on the southbound John Lodge Expressway and careened into an overpass abutment.

The two were musicians homebound after working in the evening. A third, Joseph E. duFoe, 19, was hospitalized in serious condition. The accident happened near the Edsel Ford Expressway interchange.

Andrew Ward, 55, of Detroit, was killed Saturday when he was struck by a car while crossing a Detroit street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Farkus, 77, of Fruitport, was killed Saturday when she was struck by a car in a street in front of her home.

Hollywood Headlines

Likely Crosby Brothers Will Go Separate Ways

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Are the Crosby Brothers finished as a team?

Gary, Philip, Dennis and Lindsay may have done their last performing together when they walked out on a $12,500 10-day contract at a Montreal night club. That's how it looks now, though the situation may alter with the changeable Crosbys.

THOMAS

They canceled out of a Palm Springs date this month. They are slated to open in Miami Jan. 28, do some one-nighters in March and play Reno and Las Vegas in April and May. But these engagements largely depend on the presence of Gary. And he just might not be available.

★ ★ ★

For one thing, his throat is bad; he started off their successful tour with a cold and was ailing much of the time.

Gary was the acknowledged leader of the quartet. He took precedence not only by age, but by show biz savvy. He was the only brother with the name and experience to carry the act.

Their show started out as a musical. As the boys toured across the country, Gary began injecting more patter between the numbers. Sometimes the jokes went over; often they did not.

One feature was a medley of Bing's songs. In the early weeks, the number drew spontaneous applause. Gary began including more and more talk between the numbers. His brothers felt he was destroying the impact.

The blowup came in Montreal. Everyone denies that there were any fisticuffs.

"I don't know how that story got started," says Philip. "I suppose some waiters overheard us yelling in the dressing room and thought we were throwing punches. There was nothing like a fist fight."

The younger lads would like to continue the act. But Gary has his career as a single to consider. He has a contract with 20th Century-Fox and may do "The Alaskans" with John Wayne after the first of the year. His film career may be the tangible excuse for not resuming the brother act.

★ ★ ★

NEW YORK (AP)—The Communist party of the United States elected Gus Hall, 49, its new leader today.

Hall was chosen general secretary early today in the windup of the party's 17th national convention. The week-long session was held at a hotel in the heart of Harlem.

Bonneville Series Popularity Gains, Knudsen Says

Pontiac Motor Division's Bonneville, first introduced as a regular production series with the 1958 models, has shown a steady growth in popularity.

"More and more customers are choosing Pontiac's top-of-the-line Bonneville as it continues to account for a larger share of total sales," states S. E. Knudsen, G. M. vice president and Pontiac general manager.

Knudsen revealed that Bonnevilles accounted for six per cent of Pontiac's retail sales during the 1958 model year and then jumped to 21 per cent during the 1959 model year.

The 1960 Bonneville continues to grow in popularity with current sales accounting for 26 per cent of all Pontiac retail deliveries, he said.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — James Garner, star of the television series Maverick, has been appointed a member of the board of directors of the Screen Actors Guild, it was announced today.

3 Publishing Houses Plan Merger Vote

NEW YORK (AP) — Plans have been announced for the merger of three leading publishing houses.

The firms involved are Henry Holt Co., Inc., and Rinehart & Co., Inc., both of Manhattan; and John C. Winston Co. of Philadelphia.

Edgar T. Riggs, president of Henry Holt, said the merger agreement was "subject to stockholders' approval of the three companies at meetings to be called shortly."

The planned merger reportedly will be in the form of an exchange of stock.

City Butcher Slashes at Holdup Man

A 71-year-old Pontiac grocer foiled a holdup by an armed bandit in his store last night as he ignored the hoodlum's demand for money and, instead, swung at him with a butcher knife. The bandit fled empty-handed.

★ ★ ★

The grocer, John Mekras, was working in George's Market 510 S. Paddock St., last night when the gunman entered the store at 7:45 p.m.

The bandit walked behind the meat counter where Mekas was working. He produced a revolver and said:

"This is a stickup. Give me money!"

★ ★ ★

Mekras was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital where he was treated for head cuts and released.

GM Plants Return to Full Production

DETROIT (UPI) — General Motors returned to full production of all its 1960 model cars today for the first time since steel shortages cut off production early in November.

★ ★ ★

At the same time, Chrysler Corp., last of the auto companies to snap back from shutdowns caused by steel shortages, recalled 10,000 employes in three Detroit plants to resume Plymouth and Dodge production.

★ ★ ★

The recall of 31,000 by GM to resume full production of Chevrolets and the return to work at Plymouth and Dodge production plants left only 17,500 Chrysler Corp. employes idled by steel shortages.

Ex-Met Conductor Dies

Churches Differ on Birth Curbs

(Editor's Note: This is the first of three dispatches on the birth control controversy. The first outlines the conflicting moral teachings of major U.S. religious bodies. The second reports on the actual practices of American families. The final dispatch deals with research efforts to find new birth control techniques suitable for use in underdeveloped countries.)

By LOUIS CASSELS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Religious differences over birth control are primarily concerned with the methods. Nearly all major churches agree that a married couple may decide for medical or economic reasons to limit its number of children.

The Catholic Church differs from most Protestants and Jews, however, in drawing a sharp distinction between "natural" and "artificial" means.

Creation of children is the primary function of marital sex relations. The expression of mutual love and satisfaction of sex drives are secondary purposes which are legitimate only when they are not accomplished at the expense of deliberately frustrating the primary function.

In circumstances where there are "serious reasons" for family limitation, it is lawful for a couple to avoid pregnancy by abstaining from sexual relations during the portion of the woman's cycle when conception is most likely to occur.

But in the Catholic view it is a violation of "natural law," and therefore immoral, to "mutiliate" the sex act in any way. This rules out any use of contraceptives (which are regarded as "artificial" barriers to meeting of sperm and ovum) as well as such ancient birth birth control techniques as douches.

CALLS IT BASIC LAW

It is important to the present controversy to note that the Catholic does not regard this teaching as a moral precept binding only on its own members, but as a part of the basic natural law of the universe, applicable to all people regardless of their religion.

★ ★ ★

That is why the U.S. Catholic bishops recently opposed any help to "artificial birth prevention" programs in other countries, even non-Catholic countries.

Sex in marriage is a good, healthy thing, ordained by God, and its use to express mutual love is just as legitimate as its creative function.

It is no violation of natural law to separate the love-making from the creative aspects of sex, since nature itself permits the former when the latter is impossible (as in cases of sterility, or women after menopause.)

HAS AN OBLIGATION

According to this view, the use of medically approved contraceptives is no more a case of tampering with nature than having a diseased appendix removed, or a false tooth installed.

★ ★ ★

These religious bodies hold that a couple has not merely a right, but a positive moral obligation, to use the most effective means available to avoid an unplanned conception that might endanger the health of the mother or enlarge the family to the detriment of existing children.

★ ★ ★

Since standard contraceptive devices have been found considerably more reliable than "rhythm," most Protestants and Jews sanction their use.

While the vast majority of American church members adhere to one or the other of the two views outlined above, some special religious positions must be mentioned.

The Mtzon Church teaches that large families, the bigger the better, are desirable; it disapproves of any form of birth control.

Some Orthodox Jews hold that birth control is permissible only when the wife's health would be jeopardized by pregnancy. And even then, the birth control measures must be taken by the woman — never by the man.

The traditional teaching of the Greek Orthodox Church is that a married couple may seek to avoid births only by giving up sexual relations altogether.

However, many orthodox clergymen in America do not regard this teaching as authoritative since it has never been officialy endorsed by a church council. Orthodox couples who consult their priests may be advised that birth control by any medically approved means is permissable if the couple already has as many children as it can adequately support.

Duchess Hospitalized

LONDON (UP) — The Duchess of Windsor went to a hospital today for a minor operation on a finger which became infected after she pricked it on a rose thorn recently. She and her husband arrived in London last week from Paris for Christmas shopping.

The mountain lion has been the athletic symbol of Pennsylvania State University since 1907.

Dull Folks Go to Job Classes

Course Tries to Teach Unemployables Some Possible Task

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — There is a unique "factory" in downtown Philadelphia where there is a foreman for every five workers and each supervisor is a psychologist with a master's or doctor's degree.

The raw materials of this "factory" are the woman who is too nervous to do a simple task, the man who explodes at a routine order, the youth not bright enough to follow simple instructions.

The operation is a pilot project based on the assumption that vocational therapy, which has worked so well for the physically handicapped, should prove equally effective for those ailing emotionally.

The non-sectarian Philadelphia Jewish Employment and Vocational Service, using $26,158 of its own money and a Federal grant of $39,115, began the experiment six months ago under the directon of Dr. Saul S. Leshner.

Dr. Leshner said the goal is to develop a work "personality" rather than work skills.

"We consider ourselves successful if the worker does what the boss tells him without rebelling, gets along with fellow workers, comes to work on time and sits at the worktable for long periods."

He said all of his "clients" have been diagnosed as unemployable. Well over half have severe emotional disturbances, others are mentally retarded or victims of epilepsy. One-third have never been employed.

Dr. Leshner said each client is given a series of tests so that a program can be set up which is geared to the individual—how the foreman should handle him or her and the type of tasks to be assigned.

These tasks, all relatively simple, are performed in a simulated factory which is like one of many "loft-type" shops, and clients are paid wages as soon as they enter the work adjustment phase.

Dr. Leshner said the first six months of the project have been successful. He said that of the 15 clients already placed in competitive jobs, only three have failed.

Clear in East but Chilly Air Follows Rain

By The Associated Press

Skies cleared in the eastern quarters of the country today after a weekend of wet weather but cooler air spread into the region.

Chilly air covered most areas from the Mississippi River eastward to the Atlantic Coast. It also was cooler in most the plateau region, the north and central parts of the Rockies and the central and south Pacific Coast.

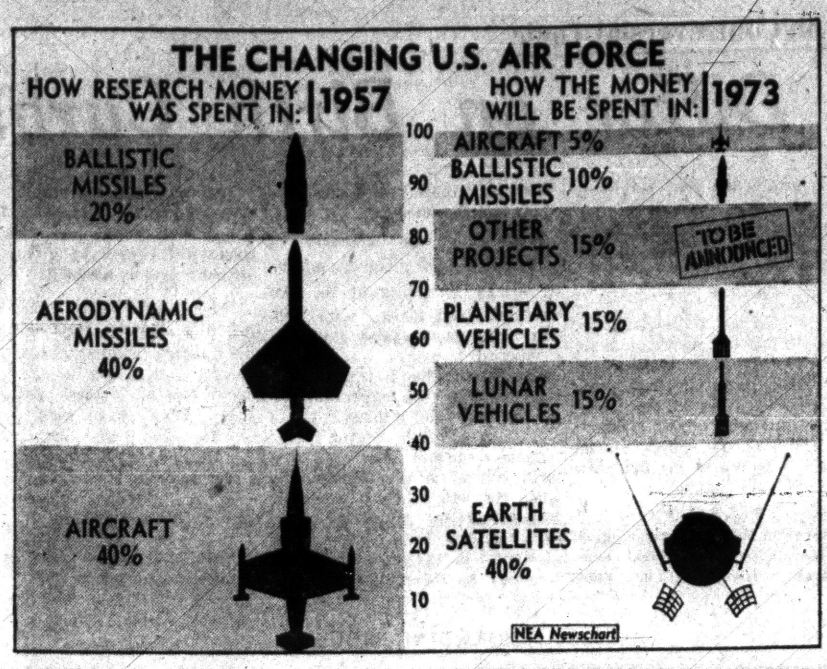

Biggest drops in temperatures were in New England where readings were more than 25 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier. Boston's 30 mark was 28 degrees lower than Sunday.

Precipitation was comparatively light during the night, with most of the wet weather in western areas. Rain or snow fell in western Washington and Arizona northward through Utah into Wyoming.

Dart Will Offer Model With List Price $2,046

Dodge said the Dart will offer a two-door six-cylinder sedan at a factory list price of $2,046. Similar fleet models of Ford and Chevrolet both list at $2,026. The least expensive Plymouth lists for $2,059.

SPACE — THE WILD BLACK YONDER — Fourteen years ago, a 500-m.p.h. fighter plane was the most advanced weapon in the U. S. Air Force. As recently as two years ago, manned airplanes and winged, air-breathing missiles accounted for 80 per cent of the service's research and development budget. Little more than a decade from now aircraft will receive only 5 per cent of these funds as the Air Force changes over almost entirely into space exploration. As chart above shows, provision is even being made to finance projects that are now only in the imagination. Data from the Aerospace Industries Assn.

Nuisance Tax Still Kicking

Senate to Tackle 6 Pct. Tax on Firms Wednesday

LANSING (UP)—This week may decide whether Michigan citizens get season's greetings from the Legislature in the form of new taxes.

The Senate will meet Wednesday to decide what to do with a 6 per cent corporation profits tax which Democrats and a pair of maverick Republicans shoved through the House Friday.

If six of the 22 Republican senators join with the 12 Democrats to approve it, or a reasonable facsimile, Michigan's historic 11-months tax war would be over.

Majority Republicans, who have blocked every attempt to levy a tax on corporate profits since Gov. Williams proposed it 11 years ago, appear in no mood to surrender.

If the deadlock doesn't break by Friday, lawmakers probably will call a Christmas holiday which will carry until Jan. 4. Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville) wrote a resolution calling for sessions until two days before Christmas, but many legislators indicated last week they won't be in any mood to return until 1960 if this week's tax struggles don't bring them to the verge of settlement.

If Senate Republicans follow form, they will turn down the corporation profits bid cold. But as an area of compromise, Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), Senate majority leader, said Republicans might go along with a one mill boost in the corporation franchise fee, worth 13 million dollars.

House Republicans tried last week to tack the franchise fee increase to the Senate-approved 34 million dollar nuisance tax package, which would tap smokers, drinkers and telephone and telegraph users.

Democrats, branding the GOP proposals "miserable, inadequate and unfair," countered with the 90 million dollar corporation profits plan. It would raise 132 million dollars but cut the yield from the franchise from 50 to 10 or 12 million dollars a year.

★ ★ ★

As a safety valve, Democrats joined Republicans to keep the nuisance tax bills alive in the House.

Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), top GOP tax strategist, introduced a nearly identical set of nuisance tax levies in the Senate last week.

"If those in the House run into any trouble, we'll be ready to shoot these at them just as fast as we can," he said.

Break-In Ring Cracked by Charlotte Police

CHARLOTTE (UP) — Charlotte police said today a series of 20 area break-ins in recent months has been solved with the arrest of four youths, two of them juveniles.

Three were arrested yesterday while attempting to rob a coin box at a 24-hour self-service laundry, police said. They implicated the fourth.

Police said they arrested Frederick L. Garrett, 17, of rural Charlotte; Jack Curtis, 19, of Charlotte, and a 16-year-old boy and a 15-year-old, both of the Charlotte area.

Formally Adds Eight Cardinals

Pope Warns Against Communism and Blasts Artificial Birth Control

VATICAN CITY (AP) — In formally naming eight new cardinals today, Pope John XXIII warned against communism and declared artificial birth control is not the answer to the problem of hunger in the world.

★ ★ ★

The new cardinals include two American archbishops, Albert Gregory Meyer of Chicago and Alois Muench of Fargo, N.D.

This give the United States a record six cardinals, reflecting the growth of American catholicism in the past century.

TOTAL NOW 79

The Pope delivered his allocution—or solemn address—to 33 old members of the college closeted with him in the Vatican Consistory Hall.

★ ★ ★

But Not to His Car

Hangs On to His Appetite

★ ★ ★

Duval County Patrolmen C. M. Hopkins and D. A. McLeod said Foreman lost control of his car, plunged across the highway, hit a utility pole, smashed through a sign and bounced off a speeding train.

The patrolmen rushed to the battered car and pulled open a door.

Will Aid in Counseling, Choosing Vocation

High School Students' Tests Set

Pontiac's high school students this week will take a battery of comprehensive tests which will provide a background for better counseling and guidance and help point up student interests and capabilities as an aid in choosing a vocation.

★ ★ ★

While a standardized testing program has been employed systemwide in Pontiac schools for five years, this year marks the inauguration of the comprehensive tests in the senior high schools, according to Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools.

Whitmer explained that most standardized tests are limited to one area. The comprehensive battery of tests covers the whole area of the normal instructional program.

"This is something we've wanted to do for a long time," Whitmer said. He cited three major aims of the tests and their value to the school system.

1. One is to obtain information about the individual student and so to counsel him more accurately.

2. Another is that the comprehensive test gives teachers more information about a student which enables her to give him an individual instructional program, or for an individual class, as the case may be.

3. Thirdly, the tests provide information about interests, abilities and the maturity of the student so that more effective counseling and guidance can help the student plan his present course in preparation for the future.

Tenth graders will take a differential aptitude test providing information about their native abilities. It is similar to a test of intelligence or mental maturity.

FOR COUNSELING

"Information concerning 10th grade pupils gained from this test will be used in counseling by homeroom teachers and guidance personnel in the areas of personal adjustment, educational planning and vocational selection," Whitmer said.

★ ★ ★

The 11th graders will take a Kuder Vocational Preference Record test.

Said Whitmer: "This is an interest inventory which is designed to help students discover the basic areas of interest which are related to their vocational selection.

"Student profiles of interest scores will be developed and made available to the students and their parents. The information assists counselors, homeroom teachers, pupils and parents in vocational selection and preparation."

The Iowa Tests of Educational Development will be given to the 12th grade students.

The nine individual tests include understanding of basic social concepts, background in the natural sciences, correctness and appropriateness of expression, ability to do quantitative thinking, ability to interpret reading materials in the social studies, natural sciences and literary materials, general vocabulary and use of sources of information.

TEST ACHIEVEMENT

"The test reveals the degree to which students have achieved in these nine areas throughout their school life," said Whitmer. "A profile is made for each student which assists in knowing his achievement strengths and weaknesses.

"This has value in counseling for college, further vocational preparation and selection. Also, a summary of scores from all students has value in giving information about the effectiveness of the total educational program."

"It may identify areas where achievement up-grading is desirable and should point up areas in which student achievement is satisfactory."

★ ★ ★

The secondary school testing program budget originally was set at $4,165 for the year. The battery of comprehensive tests to be administered shortly will cost $2,200.

McDonald In Aluminum Talks

He's Expected to Push His Wage Demands; 30,000 Men Affected

CHICAGO (UPI)—United Steelworker President David J. McDonald, fresh from a biting attack on the steel industry, today entered contract negotiations with five aluminum companies.

★ ★ ★

McDonald was expected to push wage demands to the forefront in seeking settlements with the nation's major aluminum producers in an effort to force the steel industry to resume bargaining on union terms.

USW representatives have met separately with aluminum company negotiators for the past few days, but the talks so far have centered mostly on non-economic issues.

The talks cover more than 30,000 workers represented by the USW. Industry-union contracts expired July 31, but an Aug. 1 strike threat was erased by extensions, subject to cancellation by either side on 10 days' notice.

The firms are Aluminum Company of America, (ALCOA); with about 16,000 USW employes; Ormet Corp., 1,400; Olin-Mathieson Aluminum Division, 800; Reynolds Metal Co., 8,000; and Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corp., 7,500.

Pre-Yule Hair Care's a Must

Pretty Up by Tucking In Small Holly Leaves or Tiny Bells or Clips

Hairstylist Enrico Caruso, who launched the "poodle cut" and "Italian boy cut" several years ago, has a few hints for the holidays to ease grooming problems of the busy woman.

"Before the holiday rush begins," says Enrico, "a woman should get a good basic haircut—short, medium or long, depending upon her hairstyle. Also a visit to her local salon for a permanent will hold the setting longer.

"For short or medium hair," a woman should set her hair damp, not dry or wet, beginning with two rollers on top. Make two pin curls on the sides going forward and four pin curls back of each ear going towards the ear. Then spray with a light lacquer."

★ ★ ★

For long hair, place a rubber band around the hair from the crown, then put the hair in a large pin curl. The front can either be in a soft bang or a fluff.

★ ★ ★

Then spray and add a decorative touch. Also, a woman can invest $15 or more in a hairpiece the color of her hair to attain an interesting variation.

President of WMU Quits—'Poor Health'

KALAMAZOO (AP)—Dr. Paul V. Sangren resigned yesterday as president of Western Michigan University, a post he has held since 1936.

The resignation is effective June 30, 1960.

Sangren said he was resigning because "my physical health is such that I no longer can, with full efficiency, continue to carry the heavy load of administration which this rapidly expanding university demands."

Sangren joined the Western Michigan faculty in 1923. He was the second president in the university's 56-year history.

Dick Nixon Out Ahead for This Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon appears far ahead in the race for the Republican presidential nomination but a lot could happen before the convention next July, the GOP national chairman says.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Morton also said that Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has made a good impression on Republican committeemen in his recent trips around the country.

★ ★ ★

"But I don't know how many delegates he has picked up," Morton said.

Asked if he would regard the combination of Nixon for president and Rockefeller for vice president as a dream ticket, Morton replied: "It would be a mighty good ticket."

Won't Eat the Product

MIDDLETON, England (UPI) — Joe Shorrocks, supervisor of fruitcake production in a jam factory for 25 years, said he didn't eat any fruitcake at Christmas last year and has no intention of eating any this year.

There are about 1,200 species and sub-species of birds in the United States.

REHEARSE FOR CONCERT — A Waterford Township High School quartet, Donald Wennsten, Connie Barron, Beverly Wells and Lee Zeglien, rehearse with director Richard Meier for the school's annual Christmas concert at 8 p. m. Wednesday. The band, under the direction of Donald Perrin, will also participate in the variety program.

Waterford High Students Will Present Yule Concert

More than 200 Waterford Township High School students will present the annual Christmas concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the high school.

The high school band, under the direction of Donald Perrin, will feature "La Fiesta Mexicana" among several Mexican numbers. "The Fantastic Toy Shop" and Chorals by Bach are also included in the band's portion of the program.

The singing groups include the A Cappella Choir, the Boys Glee Club, the Girls Glee Club, the A Cappella Boys Quartet and numbers by the mixed ensembles.

The program in the choral departments has been built around the Alfred Burt Christmas Carols, according to choral musical director Richard Meier. Burt, now deceased, is a former Pontiac resident.

★ ★ ★

Beverly Wells, a senior, will accompany the choral at the organ, and special solos will be sung by Janet Barnard and Betty Vernan. Adult guest soloists Mrs. Carl Leonard and Mrs. John Keinert will present arias from the Messiah.

Ike Awed by India's Taj Mahal

AGRA (UPI)—President Eisenhower saw the Taj Mahal yesterday and declared it "more wonderful than I ever thought."

The American chief executive, taking time out from the worries of state to become just another tourist, found himself awed by the extravagant beauty of the three centuries old palace as had untold numbers of travelers before him.

"I have wanted to see this place since I read about it as a little boy," Eisenhower confided to Prime Minister Nehru, who accompanied him on the 25 minute jet flight from New Delhi, 125 miles to the south.

★ ★ ★

The President said he always had thought of the monument as a "Palace of Love"—a reference to the fact that it was built by mogul Emperor Shah Jehan in memory of his wife.

In Real Life, Actor No John Dillinger

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Trouble-plagued actor Lawrence Tierney, best known for his film role as gangster John Dillinger, received a one-day suspended jail sentence yesterday on a plain drunk charge.

Tierney, 40, involved in a number of scrapes with police in recent years, was already facing trial on a drunk battery and disturbing the peace charges when arrested Saturday following a fight with two friends.

★ ★ ★

Allan Wem, 23, of nearby Moorpark, said he, Tierney and another man exchanged punches during an argument while heading for a bar. Tierney had to be treated at Central Receiving Hospital for a cut in his mouth before he was jailed for the night.

Cuban Rejects Red Debate

Raul Castro Issues Challenge to Matos, on Trial for Treason

HAVANA (AP) — Maj. Hubert Matos, on trial for treason, Sunday rejected a challenge from Raul Castro to debate the issue of communism in Cuba's revolutionary regime.

★ ★ ★

"I would be at a disadvantage since I am not in an equal position," Matos told the military tribunal hearing his case. Matos charged that "instead of bringing evidence against me, he (Raul) has brought insults."

★ ★ ★

Raul, Fidel Castro's younger brother and his minister of armed forces, testified on the third day of Matos' trial. He charged that Matos, Castro's former military commander in Camaguey province, had raised "the phantom of communism" to divide the Cuban people.

★ ★ ★

Matos, 41, was arrested last October after he resigned his Camaguey post, saying he was concerned about Communist infiltration in the government and could not go along with Raul's "radical ideology."

Military intelligence headquarters disclosed that James Buchanan, a Miami Herald reporter, has been charged with concealing information about the escape last Tuesday of Frank Austin Young.

Sammy's Best Man to Be Frank Sinatra

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The society notes should be reading very soon that Sammy Davis Jr. officially announces that Frank Sinatra will be best man at his wedding.

Well, he should—after Sammy flew all the way from Australia—36 hours in the air via Baghdad, Karachi, Beirut, Zurich and London—to sub for him at a ball for Sen. Kennedy's pet charity.

"I was in Honolulu on the way to Sidney," Sammy explained later while all the social millionaires were milling around, "when Frank phoned and asked me if I would mind coming back by way of Asia and Europe to play this date for him. Naturally, I was very glad." (It was only a matter of 14,000 miles.)

Sammy got into a tight-fitting wild west outfit (prescribed costume for the Retarded Children benefit) and came to the ballroom — to be seized by Sen. Kennedy who demanded he sit down and have a drink before going on.

He must have kept the hotel's famous old lady tenants tossing in their beds. He was doing impersonations and called for a glass. "Dean Martin," he said. He then showed how fast he is on the draw—and he is. "Let Harry Belafonte do THAT!" he said.

It was his 34th birthday. (He was born in Harlem Hospital.) He entertained in his suite afterward. He'll be married to Joan Stewart around Valentine's Day in Las Vegas and Sinatra will really and truly be his best man, he said. His uncle, Will Mastin, said, "I hope so. Frank was supposed to be best man at Sammy's last wedding, too."

Singer Don Anthony, who still has police protection at his Bronx home, also had it at the club where he appeared recently. Tin Pan Alley wags say: "Don Anthony is singing backed up by a police choir."

Frank Sinatra's Show in Good Taste, Exciting

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — If it is true, as gossips tell us, that Frank Sinatra really runs the world, then why did it come up rain when he tried to do a TV show in the California desert?

I guess he's only human, after all.

The rains that fell mainly on the Palm Springs plains drove Sinatra's ABC-TV Sunday Night Special back into a Hollywood studio, upsetting production plans.

Still, the hour was entertaining. The tasteful songs were batted out in exciting style and the brief interludes of low-pressure, nonsense chit-chat came out well.

The vast studio stage was decorated with chairs and umbrellas by producer-director Bill Colleran, but I found this theme becoming a bit monotonous after a while.

Joining Sinatra were Ella Fitzgerald, Peter Lawford, Hermione Gingold, the Hi-Los, Nelson Riddle's arrangements and Juliet Prowse, a dancer. Miss Prowse's finest moment came as she looked demure in closeup as Sinatra crooned a gracefully slowed-down version of, "It's All Right With Me" into her lovely ear.

I also enjoyed the Sinatra-Fitzgerald duets (all too few), Frank's solos with Red Norvo's jazz group, his "I'll Never Smile Again" with the Hi-Los and Ella's exciting, "Just You, Just Me." (However, I'm distressed to see that Ella, too, has succumbed to pre-recording singing. Let's leave that stuff to Julie London, Ella.)

The one number that was taped in the desert, before the rain, featured Miss Prowse dancing. The distracting hills in the background and the poor lighting spoiled the number, so I'm inclined to think that the rains that came were plainly Frankie's gain.

DIALING AND FILING: I saw only the first half of NBC-TV's Sunday Showcase teleplay, "The Indestructible Mr. Gore," by Gore Vidal. If the last half matched the first in acting, direction and writing, I'd call this the best hour in the Showcase series. Incidentally, the opening was remarkable. It seemed to be designed solely as a lure for TV's Western fans, a bold attempt to trick people into watching a "Non-Violent" drama. I hope it worked.

Bob Hope's Friday Night Special was more successful than the last one he did, but his highly-publicized payola skit seemed to be made up of old Steve Allen gags. The best segment, an unpublicized one, was a beatnik spoof. The jokes in it showed ingenuity and freshness.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: It's official: CBS-TV's new assault against NBC-TV's high-rated Wagon Train, beginning Wednesday, Jan. 27, will be a music-comedy-interview show, Be Our Guest, with George De Witt as host; the Ray McKinley-Glenn Miller orchestra and singer Mary Ann Mobley, who was Miss America in 1959.

The 340-voice choir of the Mormon Tabernacle in Salt Lake City will be featured in a half-hour special on NBC-TV Christmas night . . . "The Year Gone By," a two-part CBS-TV forum dealing with the arts and sciences, will have Garry Moore as the host. The shows will be seen Sundays, Dec. 20, and 27.

School Teaches Yuletide Skills

Denver Woman Started Training Courses for Holiday Clerks

DENVER (AP) — Denver's famous Opportunity School, which teaches everything all year long from shoemaking to practical nursing, has its own Christmas rush.

Founded in 1916 by slight, dynamic Emily Griffith, the school is now the tax-supported adult and vocational branch of the Denver public schools. It has 23,000 students.

★ ★ ★

Fifteen years ago Denver merchants asked the school to train temporary or part-time clerks for the November-December buying spree.

★ ★ ★

Now from 250 to 400 people take the pre-Christmas classes. Most of them are hired before the courses are completed. Several of Denver's largest department stores furnish instructors.

But the clerk-training courses are not the only extra Yule-tide service at Opportunity.

Special holiday food courses run for five weeks before Christmas. Students learn to cook tested recipes for holiday delicacies, to decorate cakes and cookies, and to do holiday table decorating.

"Some are grandmothers who want to give a new touch to the family Christmas dinner. Some bring in recipes which have been in a family for generations and for which a modern touch is desired."

★ ★ ★

Other classes are conducted in gift wrapping. The school's regular art courses take on the holiday spirit. Various ceramic items are turned out as gifts. Lamp shades, jewelry and Christmas cards come out of other classes.

13-Year-Old Dead of Shotgun Wound

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Le Roy Matthews, 13, died early today of gunshot wounds suffered, police said, in an accident involving his 14-year-old brother, William.

★ ★ ★

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Matthews, were entertaining guests downstairs at the time.

Hope Will Take 8th Yule Show to Servicemen

★ ★ ★

Hope has appeared in Greenland, Iceland, Europe and Africa during holiday tours, as well as stints to the Pacific Theater during World War II.

This year's tour will take him, at one point, to a place only 48 miles from Russian Siberia. While in Alaska he will film his Jan. 13 television show for the National Broadcasting Co.

Police Use of Dogs Called Fad at MSU

EAST LANSING (UP) — The use of dogs for police work appears to be mostly a fad, a Michigan State University specialist in the field reported today.

Samuel G. Chapman, assistant professor of police administration, said one city may be using dogs just because they have been used in another city.

"Dogs may be a big help to police but a dog program must be carefully planned," Chapman said. "The most important consideration is whether a city has a high enough incidence of crime in an area in which dogs can be of value."

Chapman said it costs as much to train and use two dogs as it does to add a new policeman to the force.

Four Lutheran Bodies Enter Tentative Merger

CHICAGO (UP) — Four Lutheran denominations, representing three million members, have announced a tentative merger to become the largest Lutheran church body in the United States.

★ ★ ★

A joint commission on Lutheran unity Friday selected the name Lutheran Evangelical Church in America for the new body.

★ ★ ★

Under negotiation since 1956, the merger involves the American Evangelical Lutheran Church, the Augustana Evangelical Lutheran church, the United Lutheran Church in America and the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

Savings Bonds Sales Rise in November

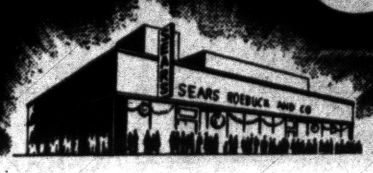

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sales of series E and H savings bonds in November were higher than a year ago for the first time in 1959.

The treasury announced that sales totaled 322 million dollars while redemptions dropped to a 12-month low of 390 million dollars. The improvements were attributed to the new three and three-fourths per cent interest rate on the bonds.
