

Wednesday, September 29, 2004

FNL series continues with comedian Mitch Fatel

By Kalee Iacoangeli, OU Student Writer

It's the second time he's appeared on the OU stage, and it's the second time he has left the audience rolling with laughter.

Comedian Mitch Fatel returned to Oakland Sept. 17 with an arsenal of jokes that kept the Friday Night Live crowd on the edge of their seats. His witty comments and spontaneous audience involvement create an act that is unlike any other.

"He was very entertaining," said junior Jessica Deisenroth, who was pulled up on stage during Fatel's set to show the tattoo on her foot. "It was fun being up on stage. I like being the center of attention and also showing off my tattoo, but I was not expecting the licking of the feet at all. I didn't think he'd actually do it."

His unique combination of a seemingly innocent demeanor and yet highly mischievous dialogue has earned him national attention as he has appeared several times on "The Late Show with David Letterman" and "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno." Fatel also is one of the few comedians to have performed on "Dr. Katz, Professional Therapist" twice and most recently received an invitation to perform at the Montreal Comedy Festival.

"I thought he was hilarious," said senior Laura Mooring-Taylor. "He had a very charming stage presence too."

Friday Night Live will continue on Oct. 1 with returning comedian J. Chris Newberg, along with special guest Melvin Bender. The event begins at 7 p.m. in Vandenberg Dining Center and is free to all OU students and guests.

SUMMARY

It's the second time he's appeared on the OU stage, and it's the second time he has left the audience rolling with laughter. Comedian Mitch Fatel returned to Oakland Sept. 17 with an arsenal of jokes that kept the Friday Night Live crowd on the edge of their seats. His witty comments and spontaneous audience involvement create an act that is unlike any other.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Wednesday, September 29, 2004
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Wednesday, September 29, 2004
Article Start Date: Wednesday, September 29, 2004