U. S. Panel Urges Massive Effort to End Race Turmoil

ONE COLOR

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission demands compassionate, massive and sustained efforts — perhaps costing more money than the Vietnam war — to end the destruction and bitterness wrought by racial disorder in America's cities.

★ ★ ★

"Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white — separate and unequal," declared the President's Commission on Civil Disorders. It condemned white racism as a central cause.

Unless immediate action is taken, the commission said, "large-scale and continuing violence could result, followed by white retaliation, and, ultimately, the separation of the two communities into a garrison state."

New taxes must be imposed if necessary, the panel told President Johnson, but "there can be no higher priority for national action and no higher claim on the nation's conscience."

The White House had no immediate reaction to the report. Comment in Congress was sparse — probably because the document was released two days earlier than planned and most congressmen hadn't received a copy.

MAJOR QUESTION

But even before its release, one major question was being raised.

"Where," asked Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., "are we going to get the money?" He heads the House Appropriations Committee.

The commission spent seven months investigating riots in Newark, Detroit and 21 other cities. It concluded: "The urban disorders of the summer of 1967 were not caused by, nor were they the consequence of, any organized plan or conspiracy."

But militant organizations and individual agitators, it added, "helped to create an atmosphere that contributed to the outbreak of disorder."

Among the commission's proposed remedies:

- Immediate action to create 2 million new jobs in the next three years — 1 million by private industry and 1 million by local, state and federal governments.
- Tax incentives and other subsidies for industries that locate in poverty areas, both urban and rural, and which give on-the-job training to hard-core unemployed.
- Vigorous moves to flatten artificial barriers to employment, "including not only racial discrimination but, in certain cases, arrest records or lack of a high school diploma."
- Sharply increased efforts to eliminate de facto segregation and racial discrimination in all schools, North and South, by sternly applying civil rights laws.
- Early childhood education for "every disadvantaged child in the country," increased aid for older students who want to attend college and greater federal support for adult basic education.
- Enactment of a federal open-housing law covering sale or rental of all housing — including single-family homes — and the placement of more low-income housing outside slum areas.

Romney Delaying His GOP Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan Gov. George Romney said today he is not endorsing New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller or anyone else for the Republican presidential nomination at this time.

Romney, who quit the race for the nomination Wednesday, said he hopes to work with Republican governors and others in the party to get behind a candidate all can support.

Romney said he would join in supporting whatever candidate the governors and others agree upon. He said the others would include Republicans in Congress and party leaders across the country.

"I have not endorsed any individual candidate," the Michigan governor told a news conference. And Romney said he would not attempt to deliver his admittedly sparse support in the New Hampshire presidential primary campaign to Rockefeller.

'COULD BACK NIXON'

"I will not urge my supporters in New Hampshire to support any individual candidate in New Hampshire," he said. "I think they ought to make their own decisions."

Romney said in response to a question he is not ruling out the possibility that eventually he could support Richard M. Nixon, former vice president, for the nomination.

The Michigan governor, who has criticized Johnson administration policies in Vietnam, said he thinks Rockefeller or any other potential candidate will have to make a declaration on Vietnam policies.

★ ★ ★

He said Nixon seemed to him in the New Hampshire campaign to be searching for a new position on the war. Nixon has been supporting Johnson's basic policies in Southeast asia.

SWITCHES SITE

Romney's news conference was to have been held in Manchester, N. H., but a snowstorm kept the governor from flying there. So he held it at the Washington Hilton hotel's Tennis and Swim Club.

Romney began by telling the news conference and the people listening over amplified telephone in New Hampshire:

"Lenore (Mrs. Romney) and I have never felt happier in our lives and more relieved. We're looking forward to living a normal life."

★ ★ ★

But Romney said he still feels strongly about issues such as Vietnam, inflation and crime, and will do what he can to arouse the nation to an awareness of their seriousness.

"We're not going to let up on that one iota," he said.

House Okays Court Bill by 1-Vote Margin

LANSING (AP) — A bill which would replace Michigan's judicial grab bag of municipal, police and justice courts with a uniform statewide lower court system was approved by the House today with one vote to spare.

The complex 54-page measure passed 75-27, achieving the required two-thirds majority.

A reversal of the vote was possible next Monday.

If not, the issue of court reorganization would go to the Senate, which has been working on a substantially different version of the bill.

★ ★ ★

Rep. William Copeland, D-Wyandotte, bitter because the chamber rejected an amendment he offered to the bill, served notice he would ask on Monday for a reconsideration of the vote by which the measure passed.

HOURS OF DEBATE

The parliamentary move holds the bill in the House until Monday.

The big court bill has been the subject of many hours of debate both this year and in last winter's special legislative session.

The House version abolishes not only the offices of circuit court commissioner and justice of the peace, which are doomed anyway at the end of 1968 by the State Constitution, but also the state's municipal and police courts outside Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Replacing the abolished courts would be a statewide network of 181 district judges, each required to be an attorney, forbidden to practice law on the side, and paid $20,000 a year by the state.

The House bill is a rewritten version of a measure which last December fell 17 votes short of passage.

An attempt by several Negro legislators from Detroit to extend the district court system into their city, doing away with the traffic and ordinance division of Recorder's Court, was defeated yesterday.

Afterward, five Negro members vowed to vote against the bill.

★ ★ ★

Rep. David Holmes, D-Detroit, led the fight to include Detroit, seeking to divide the city into four districts in order to make likely the election of more Negro judges.

ROBERT McNAMARA

CLARK CLIFFORD

New Secretary of Defense Takes Oath of Office Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clark M. Clifford, reputedly a hardliner on the Vietnam war, takes the oath today as the nation's ninth secretary of defense. President Johnson planned to look on as Chief Justice Earl Warren administered the oath to the 61-year-old Washington lawyer at a White House ceremony.

Clifford was overlooked by many of the spectators who stood in the rain yesterday outside the Pentagon to applaud outgoing Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

But today Clifford becomes the Pentagon's kingpin, boss of 3.4 million military men, more than one million civilian employes and a spending budget of about $76 billion.

There has been speculation that Clifford, who left one of Washington's most prosperous law practices, may serve as kind of a caretaker Pentagon chief until after the November election.

CRITICAL POST

By this reasoning, Johnson would have a trusted long-time associate in the critical post during the election year and then — if reelected — could search for a longer-term Cabinet officer if Clifford preferred to return to law.

At his late-January confirmation hearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Clifford testified that in accepting Johnson's call he had not placed any limitation on the period he was willing to serve.

"I am ready and prepared to serve for whatever length of time he chooses me to do so," Clifford said.

★ ★ ★

The new defense chief has had a long association with defense matters, dating back to Truman administration days when he helped write the law which unified the military services.

IN ON DECISIONS

As an adviser to Johnson, he has been in on many of the critical White House conferences at which major decisions on the course of the Vietnam war have been made.

★ ★ ★

Sources in position to know picture Clifford as something more of a hardliner on Vietnam than McNamara has been; although the degree of difference is said to have been less than a gulf.

Bachelors Throw Matchmaker Fete

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) "It's the nicest collection I've ever seen," cooed a platinum blonde model as she scanned 29 wealthy bachelors who threw a posh party in a ballroom by the sea to find "the right girl."

★ ★ ★

Twenty-nine girls, chosen from 10,000 applicants, were wined, dined and presented with solid gold pins by the wife-hunting men-about-town on the traditional day for the girls to chase, Feb. 29, Leap Year Day.

The bachelors, all of whom must earn over $25,000 a year to be a "29-er," include a British millionaire who docked his yacht in Fort Lauderdale several years ago and just hasn't decided to move on yet, a state legislator, doctors, dentists and corporation executives for the asking.

An architect's consultant, a doctor of psychology, a model, an airline stewardess and a handful of school teachers were among those selected.

Weathermen Picket

NEW YORK (AP)—Off-duty weathermen and meteorologists decided to picket the U.S. Weather Bureau today over working conditions — and, you guessed it, it snowed.

70 North Viet Infantrymen Killed in Khe Sanh Attack

KHE SANH, Vietnam (AP) — More than 500 North Vietnamese soldiers attacked the Khe Sanh combat base through the fog before dawn today.

★ ★ ★

They got to the barbed wire ring around the base before they were driven back with at least 70 of their men killed.

The Red infantrymen charged behind three sapper platoons in the attack on the base's eastern perimeter, which is held by a battalion of 500 crack South Vietnamese Rangers.

A flight of the U.S. Air Force's huge B52 bombers, flying in direct support of ground troops for the first time in the war, dropped tons of explosives only 750 yards in front of the Rangers' lines.

★ ★ ★

The besieged U.S. Marine base in the northwest corner of South Vietnam was on a Red alert — meaning an attack was believed imminent — when the enemy soldiers came lunging through the darkness and mist.

PLACED TORPEDOES

Some of the Communist sappers succeeded in placing Bangalore torpedoes under the coils of barbed wire that circle the two-square-mile base, but they were killed before they could trigger the charges.

★ ★ ★

U.S. and South Vietnamese naval forces meanwhile reported their biggest single bag of the war — the destruction of three 100-ton Communist trawlers loaded with Soviet AK47 assault rifles and ammunition along the coast. Another of the 100-foot vessels fled out to sea and escaped.

7 Children Perish in Blaze

From Our News Wires

LAKE CITY—Seven children in two families perished today in a fire which destroyed a farm home on M-55 about 10 miles southeast of this Missaukee County community.

The mothers and two other children escaped.

Police said Mrs. Vicki Hall and Mrs. Dawn Snyder, both 34, were sleeping in an upstairs bedroom with Mrs. Hall's infant daughter Patricia, 4 months, when the fire broke out sometime before 2 a.m.

The smoke and flames quickly spread through the house, waking the two women, who frantically tried to reach the other children, police said.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hall, with the infant in her arms, grabbed her son, Mike, 2, and ran downstairs through the flames.

DOORWAY SEALED

But Mike broke from her grasp and ran into the kitchen. The fire sealed off the doorway, forcing Mrs. Hall away from the kitchen to a nearby window, which she leaped through.

Mrs. Snyder and her eldest son, Louis, 13, escaped through upstairs windows.

Killed in the fire were Danny, Susan and Rex Snyder, aged 5 to 7, and three of Mrs. Hall's children, Debra, 6, Tammy, 4, and Mike. The children were cousins.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hall and the infant were reported in fair condition at Cadillac Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Snyder and Louis were treated and released.

EN ROUTE TO OHIO

Mrs. Snyder's husband, Norman, was driving a furniture van to Ohio when the tragedy occurred. State Police located him in Detroit.

Mrs. Hall was separated from her husband, police said. She was Snyder's niece, troopers said.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

★ ★ ★

Intense heat and smoke prevented the firefighters from entering the house. Police said firemen also were hampered by pumps that continually froze.

Weather Lamblike as March Arrives

March came prancing into Pontiac last night perky as a lamb with skies becoming sunny at dawn.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau forecast for the weekend.

TODAY—Mostly sunny. High 34 to 40. Cloudy with little chance of rain or snow tonight. Low tonight 25 to 30.

Winds westerly 10 to 18 miles per hour shifting to northwesterly 15 to 25 miles tonight.

TOMORROW—Chance of snow flurries and turning colder.

SUNDAY — Partly cloudy and rather cold.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 10, tonight 40 and tomorrow 20.

A brisk 12 above was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury registered 20 at 2 pm.

Legislators Act on Antiriot, Court Bills

LANSING (AP) — Shaking off the shock of Gov. George Romney's surprise withdrawal from the race for the Republican presidential nomination, lawmakers moved Thursday on controversial antiriot and court measures.

The Senate easily passed its first antiriot bill—aimed at squelching riots by making it a crime to incite to riot—despite lengthy argument over whether it will help prevent repeats of last summer's Detroit upheaval.

Meanwhile, the House spent its Thursday session attempting to wrap up debate on a complex lower court reorganization bill in preparation for a final vote.

Republican legislators and staff members, some still numb from the news of Romney's Wednesday withdrawal, managed only weak smiles at Democratic jokes inspired by the governor's action.

TO CHARTER BUSES

The governor's staff made plans to charter buses for a trip to Detroit to greet Romney on his arrival there late today from New Hampshire, where he had been campaigning in recent weeks.

It was not immediately known when Romney would return to his Lansing office, but the flurry of legislative action seemed almost in anticipation of a return to normalcy in the Capitol.

The Senate antiriot bill was approved 32-2 and sent to the House after it was amended to omit a provision calling for a sentence of up to life imprisonment.

Sponsored by Sen. James Fleming, R-Jackson, the bill forbids inciting, inducing or exhorting to murder, kill, wound, assault or commit any other felony which might endanger life.

Fleming amended the bill to provide that a person found guilty of incitement would be liable to the penalty for the crime to which he incited another person.

Critics of the life imprisonment provision argued that a person could go to jail for life for inciting another person to commit a relatively minor crime.

The bill, one of a flood of antiriot and anticrime measures before the Legislature, was opposed only by Democratic Sens. Coleman Young and Arthur Cartwright, both Detroit Negroes.

Fleming described the bill as one which would allow law enforcement officers to prevent riot situations "by acting before the damage is done."

Stern Police Action Facing Future Rioters

DETROIT (AP) — Any rioters in Michigan next summer will find themselves facing a stern phalanx of police.

Control measures aimed at a quick "snuff out" are being or have been adopted in practically all cities and in many smaller communities, as well.

"Be prepared" are watchwords.

The State Police and National Guard are coordinating their programs with planning of local authorities. Many neighboring communities have adopted mutual assistance pacts. Prosecutors are being brought into planning.

* * *

Manpower of most police departments has been increased since last summers Michigan riots, which saw 43 die and millions of dollars damage done in Detroit.

INTENSIVE TRAINING

Two more died of gunshot wounds in Pontiac and several persons were wounded in Grand Rapids. Some 40 people were arrested in Flint.

Intensive stints in riot control training have been conducted. New weapons, including disabling chemical sprays, have been added. Monroe and Oakland counties are purchasing armored cars for their sheriffs.

The Michigan House of Representatives passed 80-8 last week a bill which would make it a felony to possess a "Molotov cocktail" and inserted an amendment which would make it effective May 1 instead of 90 days after adjournment of the Legislature.

Also pending in the House is a bill that would make inciting to riot punishable by life imprisonment. The Senate has yet to act on either bill.

Many communities now have citizen-volunteer police reserves.

While authorities everywhere conceded they already have or are drafting control plans, none wanted to spell out the specifics in a survey conducted by The Associated Press and its member newspapers.

One police administrator put it this way: "Macy doesn't tell Gimble. It would be inappropriate to tell people who want to take over your city what you are going to do to prevent it."

PROCRASTINATORS' DAY — The Secretary of State's office at 95 E. Huron was crowded yesterday, the deadline for acquiring 1968 auto license plates. Approximately 1,500 applications were handled the last day. A similar scene was reported at the Waterford Township office, 4520 Pontiac Lake, which handled 1,550. However, at both places, officials reported applicants were not required to wait long and the rush wasn't as bad as in other years.

Weather in February Full of Surprises

Like an efficient court jester, February kept a bag of tricks that may not have always left Oakland County residents laughing—but it certainly emphasized the element of surprise.

From a record-high of 52 on Feb. 1 (the month's high), temperatures plummeted to a frigid 3 degrees below zero on Feb. 21. This compared to a high of 47 and a low of minus 8 in February 1966.

The mercury chalked up a mean of 22.2, 1.8 degrees warmer than the previous February.

A 2-inch rainfall plagued the area following the Feb. 1-2 preview of spring, washing out roads and flooding basements. The next day, as temperatures slid into the freezing zone and winds began to bluster, the water accumulation iced streets and freeways.

* * *

Total precipitation accumulation for the month was two inches of rainfall and six inches of snow. Last February, only one-tenth of an inch of rain fell and 12¼ inches of snow.

21 SUNNY DAYS

There were 21 days of sunshine during this leap-year month as compared to 14 in 1966.

Raw winds out of the arctic at 15 to 25 miles on Feb. 8 caused fathers to put golf clubs back into closets all over the county as mothers swaddled their children with scarves and extra clothing to beat frostbite.

Nixon Stresses Johnson as Foe

Anti-LBJ Vote Urged in New Hampshire

LEBANON, N.H. (AP) — With Gov. George Romney out of the New Hampshire presidential primary, Richard M. Nixon is endeavoring to depict the election as a contest between himself and President Johnson.

Nixon closed a speech to a large audience in Lebanon by saying:

* * *

"Go forth from this room and show that New Hampshire says that it's time for Lyndon Johnson to go back to Texas and that as New Hampshire goes, so goes the nation."

The audience exploded with applause.

Earlier, Nixon referred indirectly to Romneys' withdrawal by saying, "Your votes still matter." He told the crowd, "The voters of the nation will be looking to New Hampshire, and the size of the vote on the Republican side will be measured against the size of the vote on the Democratic side."

* * *

Nixon told a reporter after the speech, "To a certain extent, considering the registration, the New Hampshire primary can be considered an approval or disapproval of the Johnson administration."

Official 1966 New Hampshire registration figures showed 145,694 Republicans; 122,422 Independents, and 87,490 Democrats.

FDA Head Opposes Control of Antibiotic

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the Food and Drug Administration has told Senate investigators he sees no sure way of stopping doctors from misusing the antibiotic drug Chloromycetin short of government control over medical practice.

And, testified Dr. James L. Goddard Thursday, he would not want to see the government acquire such power.

Goddard told the Senate prescription drug subcommittee that taking the drug off the market "would do more harm than good." He expressed agreement with a survey which concluded about 1 in 24,000 patients die after taking it.

* * *

Goddard announced tougher labeling requirements for the drug. He also said there would be a direct appeal to doctors to heed hazard warnings about the antibiotic which he said is needlessly given to millions of patients.

CALLED BIASED

An official of Parke-Davis, manufacturer of the drug, issued a statement from company headquarters in Detroit calling the Senate hearings "one-sided and biased because they have not reviewed Chloromycetin in proper perspective."

Dr. Joseph F. Sadusk, Parke-Davis vice president for medical and scientific affairs, said the implication has been that Chloromycetin is the only dangerous antibiotic.

"This is far from the truth because all antibiotics are dangerous to give," Sadusk said. "They all have their toxic potential."

He also said Parke-Davis has made strong efforts to warn doctors about the toxic potential of the drug, whose generic name is chlorophenicol.

Senate Nixes Rights Cloture for 3rd Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rocked supporters of a compromise civil rights protection and open housing bill today by refusing to cut off debate on it.

A two-thirds majority was required, and for the third time since the debate began six weeks ago a move to apply cloture, or limitation of debate, failed.

* * *

The vote was 59 to cut off debate and 35 against, or four short of the needed two-thirds.

Majority Leader Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., told newsmen in advance of the vote he had not decided whether, if it failed, to move to put the legislation aside. He indicated this was likely to depend on the closeness of the vote.

The vote came amid a new controversy as Senate liberals accused Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of proposing a modified open housing section after agreeing with them on broader legislation.

Walkout Issues Unclear

Clarkston Pupils Protest

About 40 Clarkston High School students — mostly freshmen and sophomores — walked out of class shortly after 11 a.m. today.

* * *

What the issue was remained unclear to administrators, according to Milford Mason, principal.

He admitted hearing talk yesterday of girl students wishing to wear culottes — a sports-type split skirt — to classes and said that a half hour before the walkout he had heard some protest against the school's hot lunch program.

"No group sought to discuss the matter with me," said Mason.

He said he told the milling students to either leave school property or return to classes. He said absences would be unexcused.

'BACK TO NORMAL'

"We're back to normal with the exception of the absentees," Mason reported at noon.

"There has been some fall-off in the lunch program, but not much," he added.

Mason said culottes had been discouraged a year or so ago, "when the fashion was considerably less acceptable than it is today."

Man Is Accused of Plotting to Kill Chicago Mayor

CHICAGO (AP) — A suspended Chicago policeman has been accused of plotting to assassinate Mayor Richard J. Daley and two high police officials.

* * *

The accusation was made in testimony Thursday against Policeman Donald Heath, 30, who was suspended Jan. 6 when his association with the Ku Klux Klan was revealed. Heath later admitted he headed the Klan in Illinois.

* * *

Policeman James Tobin, who first reported on Heath's Klan activities, testified at a police board hearing into whether Heath should be fired.

UAW Is Eying Labor Confab

Seen as Alternative if AFL-CIO Rejects Bid

DETROIT (AP)— The United Auto Workers may ask for convening of a special rank-and-file convention of the AFL-CIO to hear UAW President Walter P. Reuther's demands for reform and what he terms "revitalization" of the federation.

Otherwise, the UAW may insist on a meeting of the presidents of all AFL-CIO affiliated unions if Reuther fails to get what he wants from the federation's executive council. That was the report from UAW sources today.

* * *

Unless demands are met, Reuther has threatened to lead his union out of the AFL—CIO.

One UAW executive said today that Reuther's laying his case before the 29-member AFL-CIO Executive Council as now constituted would be "an exercise in futility."

"So we might just wind up asking a full-fledged special convention and take our case to the rank and file," this source continued.

Another suggested, "There has been discussion of calling all the presidents of the various (AFL-CIO) affiliated unions into a meeting, instead of taking up anything further with the executive council."

The next regular AFL-CIO convention is not scheduled until December, 1969.

Reuther's 26-member UAW Executive Board meets today and Saturday in Detroit for what amounts to a war mapping strategy session.

* * *

Many within top UAW ranks don't believe any break will come before the November presidential election, in which labor would like to present a united front for President Johnson's reelection.

Pointing to the red-haired Reuther's unpredictability, however, some concede an earlier walkout is a possibility.

The 60-year-old Reuther has charged the AFL-CIO, into which he led his Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) in 1955, has become "undemocratic" and is "vegetating" under the presidency of 73-year-old George Meany.

MUST BE RESHAPED

As a price for continuing in the 14 million member federation, the UAW has insisted the AFL-CIO heirarchy must be reshaped and a massive organizing drive inaugurated to expand labor's membership.

Meany generally has maintained silence on Reuther's criticisms over the last year, saying he didn't intend to debate internal affairs in the public press.

Fair-Housing Unit Sets Meeting on Campaign

BIRMINGHAM — To discuss plans for its campaign to secure a "yes" vote in this city's April 1 referendum, Birmingham Residents for Fair Housing has scheduled a general meeting at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the auditorium of Holy Name School, 680 Harmon.

A representative from the Greater Flint Council of Churches, which conducted a successful campaign for that city's fair-housing ordinance, will speak at the meeting, according to Dr. John M. Dorsey Jr., chairman of the temporary citizens' group.

Dorsey said the group's object was to encourage as much "open, public discussion" of Birmingham's ordinance as possible prior to the municipal election.

Central Rome Paralyzed by Student Riots

ROME (AP) — Central Rome was paralyzed today by rioting university students who clashed with thousands of helmeted police swinging clubs and firing tear gas.

Hundreds of persons were injured, including at least 60 police. More than 100 rioters were taken into custody.

* * *

Downtown bus and taxi service halted. Shopkeepers shuttered their stores. Passers-by and lower grade school children fled to shelter in terror as the disorders spread.

* * *

Students screaming, "Revolution! Revolution!" bombarded police with paving stones ripped up from the streets. They overturned and set fire to police cars and buses. Ambulances with sirens screaming raced through the streets.

* * *

It was the most violent clash in the city since students began occupying university buildings three weeks ago in a campaign for more say in school administration and more modern teaching methods.

* * *

A parade of 3,000 students formed in Piazza di Spagna and marched to the Schools of Architecture where they fought with police guarding the building.

Two more chairmen for this city's 1968 Michigan Week celebration have been named.

Richard J. Thomas Jr., chairman of the committee for the annual observance, which will take place from May 18-25 this year, has announced appointment for Community Pride Day and Our Government Day chairmen.

They are, respectively, Mrs. William A. McNamee, 1271 Lakeside, and John F. Saefke, 1235 Villa.

* * *

A city commissioner, Mrs. McNamee guided last year's Community Pride Day activities. She has been a member of the Michigan Week committee for the past three years.

* * *

She also serves as commission member of the Birmingham Youth Assistance Committee, chairman of the Beautify Birmingham Committee, and member of Gov. Romney's Commission on the Status of Women.

Saefke, assistant city manager, has chaired the Our Government Day program for the past three years.

Sweden has only three cities with more than 100,000 inhabitants, against 51 in Britain, which is little more than half the size.

House OKs Bill to Extend Excise Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has cleared a $3 billion segment of President Johnson's tax program amid indications its key committee may be softening its opposition to the proposed income tax hike.

But a move already is under way in the Senate that could further endanger the administration's over-all tax program.

The House passed Thursday, without even calling the roll, legislation to continue beyond their April 1 drop-off dates the present excise taxes on automobiles and telephone service. The bill also provides for a speed-up in corporation income tax collections.

The proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge remains bottled up in the House Ways and Means Committee. Chairman Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., said he is looking for more budget cutting before considering the tax increase.

CONCESSION

But Mills conceded—for perhaps the first time since Johnson offered the tax boost plan last year—that certain circumstances could force Congress' hand on the tax hike.

Among these potential factors he included "substantial acceleration in war expenditures" and "substantial inflationary pressures."

★ ★ ★

Plans already are under way in the Senate to try to tie the income tax increase to the excise tax bill. It would be part of a package also including mandatory spending cuts up to $7 billion and perhaps quotas on imported goods.

Unless Mills and his colleagues change their course, there is little likelihood the House would accept such additions—even if the Senate were to vote them.

SCHEDULED DROP

The bill the House passed would continue the 7 per cent automobile excise tax through 1969 and then phase it out by Jan. 1, 1973. Unless Congress acts, the tax will drop to 2 per cent April 1 and 1 per cent Jan. 1.

The telephone tax, the bill provides, would continue at 10 per cent through 1969 and then phase out by Jan. 1, 1973. Without action, it would drop to 3 per cent April 1.

★ ★ ★

For corporations, the bill eliminates in stages an exemption of $100,000 from the tax that has to be paid currently and provides for closer estimation of tax due.

★ ★ ★

These changes are estimated to be worth $1.106 billion in extra revenue during the rest of this fiscal year, and $3.060 billion for the year beginning July 1.

The Senate Finance Committee will open hearings on the legislation Tuesday.

What Type of Person Lives in Apartment?

By TOM GRAY

TROY — What sort of people rent apartments?

This question is assuming increasing importance in suburbia today, as builders race to construct massive multiple and town house complexes in previously rural areas.

In this community, for example, a conflict has arisen over the Biltmore Development Co.'s proposed Somerset North, a planned 320-acre extension of the company's present Somerset Park apartment complex, which is located east of Coolidge between Maple and Big Beaver.

Attempting to block Somerset North is the Troy Council of Homeowners' Associations, which opposes further expansion of apartments in the city.

A survey yesterday of residents of Somerset Park, Biltmore's two-year-old $40-million "planned community," revealed some common attributes of apartment dwellers.

CONVENIENCE A FACTOR

They are attracted by the convenience of rented quarters. Whether they rent because the head of the house is in a sales occupation and subject to transfer, or because he is retired, or for any other reason, the convenience of living near recreational and shopping facilities is nearly always a factor.

The quiet residential subdivision so much in evidence in modern suburbia is bypassed by the apartment dweller, who enjoys community activities — lots of them.

Mrs. Gilbert Way, 2371 Dorchester, a Somerset resident since June 1966, said the prospect of retirement for her husband in the near future (April 1) served as impetus for settling on an apartment.

★ ★ ★

"We lived in a house in California before we came here," Mrs. Way explained, "but my husband was transferred here and we thought we'd better live in an apartment till he retired."

LISTS ADVANTAGES

After two years of Somerset, however, the Ways are not sure whether they will return to California or stay, she added. Questioned as to advantages of apartment living, she listed "good location — all the tenants near us are very good" and the lack of maintenance problems.

Burt Gurry, 2883 Somerset, also liked the attitudes of fellow residents — "People mind their own business" — and gave the multiple complex another plus on its landscaping and physical features: "It has more of the country than you usually find in the city."

Single, he noted the wide appeal of planned community activities.

Other attractions? Convenience of shopping and maintenance. "I think single people as a rule are not too interested in maintenance and housekeeping," Gurry observed. "The normal way of dealing with it is to let someone else do it — and I think the people here have done an unusually good job."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Robert Dalton, 2516 Somerset, mother of five, said her family has lived in the complex since its inception and added, "I don't think we'll ever move again."

Three of her children are "on their own now," she continued, and the two who are not in college are planning to move into Somerset too.

She cited the recreational facilities for younger children as another advantage: "They can have golf, tennis, swimming, and there is plenty of park equipment available."

Mrs. William Kendall, 2509 Somerset, echoed similar comments on recreation and opportunities for activity. "We find it convenient for our needs — we're always on the go," she said, confiding, "It's very good for my purposes — passing out political leaflets and such."

★ ★ ★

She pointed out nearby tennis courts, though presently under snow, as a principal factor in the decision to move in — "When I saw those courts right behind our apartment, that was it."

ACTIVITIES PRAISED

Activities designed specifically for adults drew the praise of Mrs. Fred Boyer, 2366 Coolidge. "They offer all kinds of lessons here — bridge, dancing, and such things as ballet for adults — which I think is very unusual."

Her husband, too, is often transferred, making a permanent residence inconvenient, she said.

"One thing about apartments, though," Mrs. Boyer added, "They're certainly the best way to meet people and make friends. We lived in Pennsylvania and then moved to Cleveland, and had no trouble making friends, and when we came here it was the same way. You have to meet people here if you're the least bit of an extrovert — as soon as you're out of the door they're on you."

★ ★ ★

Rosemary Rauh, 1979 Somerset, pegged "Social involvement" as an exceptional facet of apartment dwelling.

Single, and a teacher at Warren's Cousino High School, she detailed some of the opportunities available: "There's Single Set — they have meetings on a regular basis — and the ski club and a theater group. And they sponsor trips. There's one to Grand Bahama Island over Easter, and another to Europe in the summer."

Mrs. James B. Pierson, 2934 Somerset, called herself an "old original resident — we've been here just about since the complex was started — about 2½ years."

Lake Orion Will Take Bids on Six Classrooms

LAKE ORION — A decision to take bids on the purchase of six relocatable classrooms for the district has been made here by the board of education.

★ ★ ★

The rooms — expected to accommodate some 200 elementary students — will be installed at the Blanche Sims site.

Designed to accommodate an expected 6 per cent increase in enrollment next year, the rooms will also be used by some third graders now transported to the Intermediate School.

The need for immediate space was viewed as necessary by board members despite their recent decision to seek a $4.5-million bond issue later this spring.

★ ★ ★

The board will seek preliminary qualification of the bonds from the Michigan Department of Education next week after a meeting with bonding attorneys, according to Schools Supt. Lewis Mundy.

Also on the ballot will be a $600,000 issue for a pool at the senior high school.

The main issue is for the purpose of constructing a new elementary school, placing additions on Webber Elementary, the junior and senior high schools, and for future site purchase.

State Decides on Boundaries

The State Board of Education has upheld one decision of Oakland Schools on the change of a boundary line between Waterford and Walled Lake School Districts but reversed another.

Waterford Schools Supt. Dr. Don O. Tatroe said today a residential section containing 74 pupils will remain in the Waterford district.

The area is located at the southwest corner of Elizabeth Lake and Williams Lake roads and includes the Westwind Manor subdivision, all in White Lake Township.

Walled Lake district had appealed the decision of Oakland Schools Board of Education to take this area out of the Walled Lake district.

But Oakland Schools decision to transfer about 20 acres of vacant land on Williams Lake Road south of the Westwind Manor subdivision from Walled Lake to Waterford district was reversed by the state board, according to Tatroe.

High School Walkout Staged Today

Avondale Students Protest Cutbacks

By JEAN SAILE

A small group of Avondale Senior High School students reportedly walked out this morning in protest of recent school cutbacks.

An administration spokesman said about a dozen students were involved. Students claimed the walkouts represented up to half of the junior and senior class with a total enrollment of 430 students.

Upset over the Board of Education's Monday night decision to eliminate spring sports and cut back busing service, the absentees were told their absence from classes would be unexcused, according to Lowell Ruggles, principal.

A fire alarm, set off by a student, reportedly triggered this morning's walkout, another walkout of freshmen and sophomores was slated for later today.

★ ★ ★

The school is on an extended day program with the two upper grades attending in the morning and the other grades in the afternoon.

MILLAGE DEFEAT

The cutbacks most protested — the elimination of spring sports at both junior and senior high schools and the curtailment of bus service to students living within 1.5 miles of their respective schools — were part of a program adopted as a result of the district's emphatic denial Feb. 19 of a 12.7-mill increase and the need to wipe out a projected $115,000 budget deficit for the current year.

Unrest today was also reported at the junior high school where some students were reportedly instigating a third walkout.

Schools Supt. John W. Dickey said, "Both principals — Ruggles at the senior high and Joseph Coe at the junior high — have been talking to students.

★ ★ ★

"It is our hope that cooler heads will prevail and that the students of both schools will realize these economies are necessary," he said.

ANOTHER VOTE

Dickey referred to the announced decision of the board of education to seek another millage election June 10.

"With a successful millage election, the program cuts can be reinstated," he said.

Reports that parents were also planning some form of demonstration in protest of the economies also circulated this morning.

Because the board of education does not meet again in formal session until March 18, it was not known whether any actual protest would be made before that time.

$75,000 CUT

The board chopped nearly $75,000 from its anticipated year-end deficit by curtailing elementary physical education, vocal music, art and library services as well as the spring sports and the busing program.

Also suspended was the $30,000 capital outlay program for all but emergency repairs.

Communication Topic

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — "Communication Between Home and Community" will be the topic for the 7:30 p.m. meeting Monday of Pine Knob PTA.

Mrs. Rosetta LaMagna, social worker for Clarkston Community Schools, will moderate a panel discussion.

School Bus Driver From Area Crowned State Queen of Road

DETROIT (UPI) — You'd think the driver of a school bus would welcome a summer vacation away from the steering wheel.

★ ★ ★

But not Mrs. Marjorie Schulkins.

The suburban Farmington Township widow of 29533 Medbury connected a travel trailer to her car last summer and traveled 4,000 miles in 80 days with her two children to earn the title of Michigan Queen of the Road.

She was crowned Wednesday at the first annual Detroit Camper and Travel Show, which runs through Sunday in the Detroit Artillery Armory.

★ ★ ★

Featured are 450 recreational vehicles, including tent campers, pickup campers, travel trailers and motor homes, accessories and other exhibits.

Cranbrook Events

Following is a list of special events taking place at the facilities at Cranbrook on Lone Pine Road in Bloomfield Hills:

PLANETARIUM — Regular public demonstrations, Wednesday at 4 p.m. and weekends at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m. The topic for the month is "The Stars of Spring."

ATOMARIUM — Public demonstration Sunday at 3:30 p.m. or by appointment. Admission 25 cents.

CHILDREN'S SERIES—"Exploring Science," a new series of Institute of Science programs designed for children in grades 4-7, will open Saturday.

"Animal Habits and Behavior" is the first subject to be considered in the series, which will take place Saturday mornings through March 23.

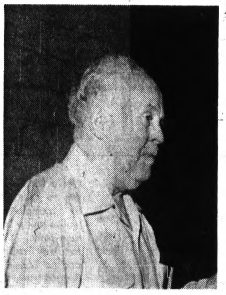
★ ★ ★

On March 9 the topic will be "Preserving Our Natural Resources," with "Snakes and Their Relatives" March 16 and "Exploring Low Temperatures With Liquid Air" March 23.

Instructor Martha Schaefer will use color films and museum specimens to illustrate the topics.

★ ★ ★

Student members will be admitted free. The charge for nonmembers is 50 cents. Further information may be obtained from the Institute.



BEN EAST
WHAR Chairman

'Why Have Awful Roads' Formed in Highland Twp.

HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP — Some 35 people, unhappy with the maintenance of rural roads, last night formed the Highland Area unit of WHAR (Why Have Awful Roads).

Present at the meeting at Highland Township Hall were township residents plus representatives from White Lake Township.

John Naimish, 1400 Wilhelm, was elected chairman; Harry Nelson, vice chairman; Mrs. Richard King, secretary; and Mrs. Jerold Oaks, treasurer.

Plans were made for a second meeting March 28 to draw up plans for presentation at the township's annual meeting March 30.

★ ★ ★

Ben East of Holly, countywide chairman of WHAR, discussed the aims of his recently organized group.

LONG-RANGE GOAL

Dissatisfied with the condition of rural roads, the group seeks over the long range to have the three-man county road commission elected rather than appointed.

Members immediately seek "to upgrade the maintenance of rural roads by more efficient and regular schedules maintenance work and by the prompt repair of trouble spots."

East announced that the countywide group would meet again at 8 p.m. March 13 at the Holly High School student center with representatives of the road commission.

Said East, "Any question, from any rural resident of the county will be in order so long as it is not presented in an abusive manner."

PETITIONS CIRCULATED

Citizens of Farmington Township organized as the Farmington Township Volunteer Road Committee have started the circulation of petitions in protest of road maintenance. They have affiliated with WHAR.

★ ★ ★

WHAR was organized in January in the Holly, Rose, Groveland and Springfield areas.

Taxpayers Group Plans Review of Assessments

HIGHLND TOWNSHIP — The Highland Taxpayers Association has called a meeting for 8 p.m. Tuesday for the purpose of reviewing 1968 tax assessments.

Attorney William Travis will be present to help members with presentations to the Township Board of Review which meets this month.

Residents who plan to appear before the Board of Review with complaints were advised to be present at the meeting.

Contest to Design Keego Seal Ends

KEEGO HARBOR — The contest to design a seal for this city ended yesterday with 140 entries.

City councilmen begin judging next week. They are expected to have a winner within two weeks, said Richard Ulasich, who has run the contest.

★ ★ ★

Ulasich, assistant principal of Warren W. Abbott Junior High School, is a member of the West Bloomfield Jaycees which is sponsoring the contest.

The prize is a $25 U.S. savings bond. The contest has been on since Dec. 8 and was open to 11- to 15-year-olds in the area.

2 Zoning Requests Opposed

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — About a dozen objections each were voiced against two rezonings requests for multiple dwellings and businesses at recent public hearings.

The result was that the planning commission is recommending denial of the requests to the Township Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Couzens sought rezoning for apartments for about four acres on the northwest corner of Orchard Lake and Seminary roads.

Several residents, however, did express approval of this request in letters and at the meeting, reported commission secretary Mrs. William J. Evans.

The other request for business and apartment rezoning was for about eight acres on the southwest corner of Willow and Hiller. The petitioner is John P. McInnis.

PRESENT ZONING

Both requests are contrary to the single-family zoning given for the parcels on the township's master plan, explained Mrs. Evans.

Preliminary plat approval was given the 34-lot Lone Pine Valley subdivision north of Lone Pine between Middle Belt and Inkster. Coleman and Moss are the developers.

No date was set but the commission decided to hold a public hearing on a rezoning request for businesses and apartments for about 40 acres north of 14 Mile and west of Drake. Louis Savage, Inc. is making the request.

★ ★ ★

A public hearing on rezoning 7365 Orchard Lake from residential to office will be March 26 at 8 p.m. The Mayfair Insurance building has been located on the parcel as a nonconforming use, explained Mrs. Evans.

The request was initiated by the planning commission as an amendment to the township zoning map.

Retiring Defense Secretary Lauded

ROBERT S. McNAMARA, eighth to fill the office of Secretary of Defense since the office was created in 1947, relinquished the post yesterday after seven arduous years as the boss of America's military might.

McNAMARA

Tapped by President JOHN F. KENNEDY for the Cabinet post, McNAMARA gave up the presidency of Ford Motor Co. at great financial sacrifice to enter government service.

That he has admirably fulfilled his assignment few will question, despite the fact that his relations with military brass were not always marked by complete accord.

During McNAMARA's record reign, the sprawling U.S. military establishment was streamlined, computerized and, in many areas, reorganized.

The secretary's penchant for efficiency was reflected in the saving of millions of taxpayers' dollars by deactivation of outmoded and superfluous military installations and elimination of waste resulting from consolidation and standardization of interservice procurement.

McNamara, succeeded by Clark Clifford, Washington lawyer and political figure, will enjoy a well-earned vacation from his bone-crushing work routine before assuming the presidency of the World Bank April 1.

In an emotion-charged ceremony, the retiring 51-year-old secretary was lauded by President JOHNSON and presented with the Medal of Freedom — one of the Nation's most prestigious accolades.

We warmly commend ROBERT McNAMARA on his selfless service to his countrymen, and to the 19-gun salute fired in his honor by the military we add our own salute to an outstanding personality and administrator.

Cancer Treatment Charts Gains and Losses

A two-day symposium on cancer research held at the University of Chicago's Billings Hospital over the last weekend brought together 26 of the world's leading experts on this most dreaded of diseases.

Their discussions on the growth of normal and of cancerous cells no doubt will prove useful, but it would be idle to expect any news of dramatic progress in finding a "cure" for cancer. The fact is that cancer is not one but many diseases, with a bewildering variety of causes.

★ ★ ★

Despite expenditure of $2 billion on cancer research in the past 30 years, the cancer death rate continues to mount. The National Advisory Cancer Council recently announced that 305,000 Americans died of cancer in 1967, and that 900,000 were undergoing cancer treatment. The cancer death rate was 153 per 100,000 people. All of these melancholy figures were records.

At least part of the increase in cancer death was due, the council said, to the rise in smoking, air pollution and occupational hazards. The most hazardous occupation of all may well be uranium mining. It was revealed last spring that around 100 uranium miners have died of lung cancer and that perhaps 1,000 more will die because they, too, have breathed excessive amounts of radioactive dust in poorly ventilated mines.

★ ★ ★

Progress in the fight against cancer is slow and piecemeal. The most success has been achieved in treatment of leukemia, uterine cancer, and Hodgkin's disease, a cancer of the body's infection-fighting lymph system.

Cancer of the uterus was the leading cause of cancer deaths among women 30 years ago. Since then, the death rate from that particular form of cancer has been cut in half.

Errant Taxpayers 'Soothed' by Friendly IRS

Income tax officials assert that while that little old groan-maker, the computer, first spots any—er—mistakes in our returns, "humans" in the Internal Revenue Service actually make the final decisions on hauling us in for questioning.

The IRS boys, no doubt, mean this announcement to be reassuring to the timid taxpayer. But as we recall it, careless chums who entered the wrong figures on their tax returns in the precomputer era brought back word that the "humans" who grilled them weren't any soft touch.

These "humans," the shook-up suspects reported, expressed keen interest in the taxpayers' gigantic generosity to his church, and in the distressingly low mileage his car seemed to be getting per gallon, as indicated by the gas tax deduction.

IRS insists, however, that "humans" do disregard the hard-hearted computer's suspicions occasionally and spare a taxpayer a visit to the IRS office for a friendly chat.

And with that comforting thought, let us return to making out our returns. Let's see, now: Subtract total on line . . .

Constitution 'Nixes' Private School Aid

By DICK SAUNDERS

The latest hang-up in Lansing is this question of whether or not we should aid parents of nonpublic school pupils with public funds.

SAUNDERS

It's easy to understand how some legislators approach this question with considerable fear and trepidation.

For example, I've always operated on a principle that it is wise to avoid arguments with our church editor because she has too many of the good guys on her side.

★ ★ ★

However the problem here is more than a mere difference of opinion.

There's a constitutional question involved.

According to Article 1, Sec. 4 of the State Constitution, no person can be compelled "to pay tithes, taxes or other rates for the support of any . . . teacher of religion," and "no money shall be appropriated or drawn from the treasury for the benefit of any religious sect or society."

★ ★ ★

The question of whether indirect aid to nonpublic schools is a violation of the State Constitution has been referred to the State Attorney General's office for legal opinion.

Since the vast majority of nonpublic schools are administered by churches, it would seem to the layman that this legislation proposes that we appropriate money from the treasury for the benefit of a religious sect or society.

★ ★ ★

Maybe the loophole here is a portion of the proposed house bill which claims it serves the general welfare of the people to appropriate grants to parents of nonpublic school pupils "to defray part of the cost of providing a secular education for such children."

The key word is "secular." It's also somewhat confusing.

I think it's pretty well accepted fact that most church-operated schools include some religious instruction as part of the daily curriculum.

★ ★ ★

Thus, the wording of the proposed bill would seem to suggest that by some superhuman procedure, we will have to separate the religious from the secular instruction and make sure those grants all go only to the secular portion of nonpublic school education.

This, naturally, could create a monstrous bookkeeping problem.

But, I become more and more convinced every day, one of the major roles of lawmakers in this world is to legislate impossible exercises in bookkeeping.

With tongue in cheek, I propose that, at least, you can't call this one a case of robbing Peter to pay Paul.

I'm not an attorney, but it seems incomprehensible that anyone could rule the proposed legislation is not in violation of the State Constitution.

'Must Be A Rabbit In There Somewhere!'

David Lawrence Says:

GOP Leaders Are in Quandary

WASHINGTON—Gov. Romney's withdrawal from the race for the Republican presidential nomination has produced a state of uncertainty and a kind of bewilderment inside the party. For Republican politicians throughout the country suddenly find themselves wondering if they should now make alignments such as normally would not materialize until just before a national convention is held.

LAWRENCE

Most of the delegates, of course, have not yet been chosen, but the party leaders are in a quandary because many of them would prefer not to commit themselves so early.

★ ★ ★

When there are only two leading contenders, however, the pressure starts to be exerted long before convention time.

Actually, Gov. Rockefeller's public statement that he would accept a "draft" is regarded as virtually an announcement of his candidacy. Many of Romney's active workers now will start to mobilize "draft" sentiment for the New York governor.

While former Vice President Nixon has substantial support in several states, his nomination depends upon how many of the delegations, which will naturally vote for their own "favorite son" on the first few ballots, are going to be willing eventually to wind up on his side.

★ ★ ★

Already the self-elimination by Gov. Romney has caused some of the Republicans to say that the division now will be between a "liberal" or "moderate" — by which they mean Gov. Rockefeller — and a "conservative," as Nixon is sometimes described.

NOT AGREED

There are, to be sure, some public issues on which he has not agreed with the so-called "conservative" point of view in national affairs.

In the next five months the local delegations in the Republican party will have to make up their minds which candidate — Nixon or Rockefeller — would be likely to retain the existing Republican vote and gain a sizable number also from the Democratic side as well as from "independents."

The effect, therefore, of the Romney withdrawal is to start within the Republican party the making of commitments earlier than usual for one or the other of the leading presidential aspirants.

★ ★ ★

It really means a series of preconvention skirmishes that will not end until the convention actually assembles in August at Miami.

Bob Considine Says:

Explanation of Baseball Can't Get to First Base

NEW YORK — Bumped into a British friend at a bar the other day and found him upset. We've never been introduced formally, so I waited for him to speak.

CONSIDINE

"I say, old boy," Chumly said finally. "I was looking through the sporting pages of the Times today, to see how Arsenal had done at Wembley, and I noted that your baseball chaps are in your tropics going through something called spring training. What are you now adding to your barbarian prostitution of our rounders?"

Spring training is an old and established ritual in our national pastime, I assured him.

"Nonsense!" he said. "I have attended a match or two of this game you call baseball, but I have yet to see any of your chaps spring. Run and walk, yes, but never spring.

★ ★ ★

"Why are you training to spring? And don't give me that helpless look. Explain this dreadful game.

"We were playing games while you chaps were still swinging from trees. I dare say you've made a bit of progress. But not one of you has ever been able to answer any of my simple questions about this monstrous sport."

I asked him what he wanted to know, after I explained (unsuccessfully) that spring training had nothing to do with springing, springing at an opponent's jugular, that is.

"Take that unsettling matter of balls and strikes," he said. "You'll recall you tried to make it very simple for me the last time we took in a match.

"You said, I'll remember it as long as I live, it's all so simple: Now here's a new hitter coming to the plate. He'll endeavor to hit the pitcher's throw between those two white-chalk lines reaching out to the fences.

"He'll try to hit the ball so that it won't be caught by the fielders while still in the air, or hit it artfully enough to avoid the fielders — so that he can reach the first sack in safety, before the arrival of the ball itself. Right?

"You see we have another little rule covering a third foul that isn't caught in the air. Right?

"Matter of fact, you look a bit bad right now, old boy. What can I order you. . .a martini?"

I shook my head. "No," I said, "I'll take a pistol."

"Now, you got into the messy matter of strikes. You said three strikes meant 'out,' but, however, did not mean expulsion from the playing field.

"And that if a batsman did not strike the ball in the area between the white lines it was a 'foul' — fowl? — and therefore a strike.

"And when that particular batsman hit two balls wide of the mark, and then a third wide of the mark, and I shouted 'Hurrah! He's retired!' You looked sick and said some ridiculous thing like 'well, no, he's not.

'Mental Health Articles Are a Valuable Service'

Your newspaper renders the public a valuable service with the intermittent articles on the mental health services. With knowledge of mental health clinics, hospital facilities and increasing availability of supervised drugs, people who are fighting mental and emotional illnesses are encouraged to go for help.

If helped in time, these people can lead a rewarding life and contribute to society. How much more pleasant a prospect than the results of a violent crime or the broken hearts and homes of their loved ones.

More Letters Discuss Aid to Private Schools

Payment to parents for children attending private or parochial schools is not the answer to our financial problems in education. Our problems could better be solved by a new financial structure for education. If private or parochial schools receive public aid, they become public schools. Then they will have to abide by the public laws, such as no prayer in school. We should have a free choice but we should also be willing to support our choice. Keep private and parochial schools for those people who are willing to make the financial sacrifice for the kind of education they want for their children.

RUTH KADELLA

Three cheers to many of our State Legislators for announced support of the Children's Aid to Education Bill. C.E.F. is the biggest tax break the people of Michigan have ever had in their reach. A savings of millions of dollars is possible. Why doesn't The Pontiac Press publish the bill? Instead of opposing a chance to keep our fine educational system, let's read some real honest facts in our papers.

'Miseducation Responsible for Prejudice'

Ignorance and greed and a skillfully designed program of miseducation in the American system of exploitation and oppression is responsible for race prejudice in America. If the American population were given a true picture of the history and contributions of the black man, many whites would be less racist in their feelings. They would have more respect for the black man as a human being.

'Urge Americans to Straighten Differences'

When we—colored or white—have learned our rightful way through work, sacrifice, by thought and deed, then we will have the right to demonstrate or demand. I believe in equal rights for all races but I do not believe that anyone has the right to destroy property or life such as happened in riots of the past years. Let's sit down like civilized Americans and straighten out these so-called differences. Stop crying "I want" and say "I'll do this to help."

Question and Answer

This church-school bill doesn't specify Catholic schools exclusively. Therefore, won't all the parents of boys and girls in Brookside, Kingswood and Cranbrook receive exactly the same aid? These three private schools are not church schools anyway, so they should really come ahead of Catholic schools, shouldn't they?

PARENT OF THREE

REPLY

As we understand it, as the bill now stands parents with children in all private schools would receive the same aid.

Set of Rules

Chicago's American

The American Bar Association's house of delegates has approved, by a wide margin, a set of rules for lawyers, judges, and law enforcement officials designed to keep information from the public about pending criminal trials. The A. B. A. set an example that we hope none of its members will ever follow in a courtroom. They handed down a prefabricated verdict for which evidence was and is lacking, evidently on the theory that it isn't worthwhile to wait for evidence when your mind is made up.

★ ★ ★

The whole procedure was about as fair-minded and objective as a campus sit-in, and the delegates have no reason to be proud of it. Several delegates and spokesmen for the news media argued, in vain, that the A. B. A. should defer action until they had some facts on which to base an opinion.

These spokesmen pointed out that the American Newspaper Publishers Association is now conducting a study of trial judges to determine what effect, if any, pre-trial publicity may have on juries and on a defendant's chances for a fair trial. The move was exactly comparable to a defense lawyer's motion for a continuance on grounds that his case is not ready for trial.

The house of delegates, though, evidently does not want any new evidence interfering with its opinions. It voted down the move for delay 176 to 88, then shouted through the restrictive rules by voice vote.

★ ★ ★

Monday's vote accomplishes these things: It amends the bar association's canon of ethics to declare it unethical for any defense lawyer or prosecutor to tell the press anything about a pending case, other than basic identifying facts about the defendant and the circumstances surrounding the arrest; it calls on police departments to impose similar curbs on their members and urges judges to use their contempt powers to enforce them; it urges courts to adopt judicial standards which would, among other things, bar the press and the public from pre-trial hearings; and it gives judges power to punish newsmen for contempt if they publish stories during a trial that are "willfully designed" to influence the outcome.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all local news printed in this newspaper as well as all AP news dispatches.

The Pontiac Press is delivered by carrier for 50 cents a week; where mailed in Oakland, Genesee, Livingston, Macomb, Lapeer and Washtenaw Counties it is $16.00 a year; elsewhere in Michigan and all other places in the United States $26.00 a year. All mail subscriptions payable in advance. Postage has been paid at the 2nd class rate at Pontiac, Michigan. Member of ABC.

These curbs are mostly theoretical, since they'd be extremely hard to enforce and most newspapers are careful in any case not to prejudice trials. But the whole tendency is to hide, to cover up, to keep the public in ignorance as far as possible; and though their justification is to protect the defendant's rights, they could as easily be used to abuse them out of sight of the public.

★ ★ ★

For all its eagerness to control the press, the A. B. A. shows slight enthusiasm for controlling its own members. That task either seems harder, or just less appealing.

Basically, the government will allow the U.S. Traveler a tax-free sum of $7 a day on which to live abroad. Mr. Fowler assured the congressmen that he thought he personally could exist on this daily stipend abroad by "watching things a little."

★ ★ ★

We suspect that he must envisage sleeping in parks, dining in youth hostels and traveling by bicycle to stay within this limit.

★ ★ ★

Of course, the proposal specifically exempts all official government travel from its taxes.

Nation's Cities Arm for Summer of Riots

WASHINGTON (AP) — In city after city across America, police are stockpiling weapons of war-armored vehicles, helicopters, high-powered rifles.

They are recruiting civilians as ready reserves.

They are training squads of sharp-shooters.

They are sending undercover agents into the slums.

Quietly but ominously, an Associated Press survey shows, they are preparing for summer and the riots they hope won't occur.

RIOT WEAPONS

Even riot veterans are awed by some weapons developed in the aftermath of Watts, Newark and Detroit.

In Los Angeles, policemen watched the demonstration model of a 20-ton armored personnel carrier crush a barricade of abandoned cars.

Five armored vehicles cruised Detroit's streets last summer during the riot that left 43 dead. Since then, Detroit police have stocked up on 100 pairs of binoculars, 2,000 tear-gas grenades and 1,200 gas masks and have asked for 25 special antisniper rifles, 500 carbines, 000 shotguns and 150,000 rounds of ammunition.

In neighboring Monroe County, the sheriff is spending his $50,000 riot-control fund on a $13,500 armored truck, 15 talkie-talkies, 100 rifles, 15,000 rounds of ammunition, 500 tear-gas cannisters and flak vests.

Oakland County also is obtaining an Army half-track.

A thousand miles to the south, Police Chief James G. Littleton of Tampa, Fla., put it another way: "We have taken off the kid gloves with those elements who cause riots."

The Tampa arsenal, he said, includes 162 shotguns, 150 bayonets, 5 sniper rifles, 25 carbines and M1 rifles, 300 gas masks. And State Atty. Paul Antinori has recommended that Tampa policemen "shoot to kill" persons observed committing or about to commit, felonies during a riot.

Chicago already has acquired helicopters and is training four pilots. The department's highly mobile 600-man task force has been instructing the city's 11,500 other policemen in crowd control and use of heavy weapons.

★ ★ ★

In the District of Columbia, the City Council is expected to get a proposal that would authorize the arming of a 100-man civilian contigent to patrol quieter beats when policemen are needed in an emergency.

GUARD, ARMY

Johnson administration officials are participating in the drafting of plans to employ city police national guardsmen and regular Army troops to quickly quell any disturbance in the capital.

As if to underscore this determination, a gray telephone with a red light instead of a dialing mechanism — a "hot line" to the Pentagon — has been installed at City Hall.

Mobility is basic in police riot-control plans.

★ ★ ★

Philadelphia Police Chief Frank L. Rizzo keeps busloads of policemen scattered throughout the city, poised to speed to any area if trouble breaks out. He also has specially trained teams equipped with shotguns and machine guns ready to take over rooftops in riot zones.

MOBILE POST

The Los Angeles police department also has bought a $45,000 mobile command post to house its field commander.

★ ★ ★

Newark police are testing a closed circuit television system. Cameras scanning riot scenes can relay pictures to the safety of command posts where officers will make tactical decisions.

HUD Awards Loans for Lansing Housing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Housing and Urban Development Department said Thursday it had awarded a pair of long-term loans totaling $3.6 million to the Lansing (Mich.) Housing Commission.

The money is for the purchase of 200 low-rent homes in Lansing, with the loans to be repaid from proceeds of sale of longterm bonds the commission will issue.

The first loan is for $1,807,700 maximum. The second is for $1,814,500.

Prohibitionists Make Ballot

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)— The Prohibition party has joined six other political organizations in qualifying for a place on Alabama's November general election ballot, Secretary of State Mabel Amos said Thursday.

Mrs. Amos said the prohibition group submitted a list of 18 persons who intend to run as electors for the party's presidential and vice presidential candidates.

The list was submitted by Earl F. Dodge of Kalamazoo, Mich., the party's executive secretary. Dodge said the party's 10 electors will be chosen at a May 7 statewide convention but he did not say where it will be held.

Lenten Guideposts—3

Pro Grid Star Tackles Religious Problem

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the third in a series of 40 articles to be published by The Pontiac Press during Lent telling personal stories of faith in action in the lives of sincere people. Some contributors are famous, others relatively unknown.)

By BILL GLASS
Star Defensive End of the Cleveland Browns

It is easy for any of us to let our lives slip into a rut, into a path of least resistance. Sometimes we don't even realize it has happened.

That was the case with me, my senior year in college. I was attending Baylor University in Waco, Texas, completely absorbed in campus life — and most of all football. My brother, Vernon, had been a standout player at Rice and much was expected of me.

GLASS

Now, I was on the starting team, playing just well enough to stay there. I guess I was in a self-satisfied frame of mind.

One more thing: I had come from a home with strong religious convictions but since coming to school my spiritual life had flagged too.

★ ★ ★ ★

All of this was conveniently swept under the rug. I didn't want to think too much; I was too busy enjoying myself.

Then, one day I was forced to face these things — and myself. All because of a little guy who barely came up to my shoulders. I might interject that I weighed about 230 pounds and stood 6-foot-5.

But Larry Walker was a college buddy at Baylor, and he was close enough to me so that he didn't pull any punches. It's good to have friends like that.

"Bill, you're a second-rate football player," he told me, point-blank. At first, I thought he was trying to kid me, but there was no trace of a smile on his face.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Furthermore," he went on, "you haven't been putting out. You've been playing at about half of your potential. With your physical equipment you could be an All-America, but you'll never make it the way you are going."

NO COMEBACK

I had no comeback because I knew, down deep I knew, that what Larry said was true.

He said something else that day, though, that hit me ever harder. Larry and I shared similar religious convictions, and he had something to say about that area of my life too.

"You talk about wanting to live a Christian life, Bill. Well, if you would play the football you're capable of, your influence for the Lord could be magnified many times over."

★ ★ ★ ★

I had never thought about it that way. "What would you suggest I do?" I asked Larry, a little red-faced.

"I think you need to ask yourself what your goals are. What do you want to accomplish this year on the football field? What kind of life do you want to live for Christ? If you see yourself as a mediocre football player or a mediocre Christian that is just what you'll be."

I didn't answer. Larry had set me to thinking about this whole question of achieving excellence in one's field. Then he picked up the conversation again:

"Let's pray together about this, Bill. And let's make it a specific prayer that you become an All-America. And that as an All-America you use whatever glory this honor brings, to the glory of God."

Ordinarily this kind of prayer would have seemed selfish and self-centered to me. But not the way Larry explained it.

And so we prayed. And when we finished I realized that something important had happened. I felt different inside.

Three days later we played the University of California in our first game of the year. I had my whole heart in it, and the result was amazing. I played far better than I ever thought I could. All told, to my surprise, I made 17 unassisted tackles. It set the stage for the rest of my senior year — on the field and off.

Larry Walker was right: I did make All-America. When I heard the news, I knew that many people shared the honor — but it was to God that I owed the biggest debt. And it is to Him that I owe everything that has happened to me since.

This was a turning point that has become a strength. When I sensed myself wanting to let down, I only need remind myself that through Christ I can do everything with my whole heart.

In this way, I think I best witness to others that there is nothing second-class about a life dedicated to Christ.

Saginaw Fair-Housing Vote Petitioned

SAGINAW (UPI) — Opponents of this city's new open housing law have collected enough signatures on petitions to force a referendum on the issue, the city clerk announced yesterday. The law was passed by the city council Jan. 22 on a 7-1 vote after Mayor Henry Marsh, a Negro, proposed it.

An organization called the "Committee for the Repeal of Forced Housing Legislation" began a petition drive and yesterday turned in 3,522 names to City Clerk Frank Niederstat.

Niederstat said 3,027 of the names were valid, 37 more than needed to force a vote on the issue in the city of nearly 100,000.

Mrs. Lyndon Johnson who staged the show for wives of the nation's governors, said it was the first of its kind ever held in the White House. Long Distance Can Be Charged to Home Phone

By ELIZABETH L. POST

The following letter has been chosen as the prize-winning one for this week. A copy of Emily Post's Etiquette has been sent to Mrs. Howard Burch of Menlo Park, California.

Dear Mrs. Post: Long distance calls can be placed from one number and charged to another. The phone company then verifies the call with you later at the number to which the call was charged.

Credit cards are available for this purpose, but they aren't necessary.

As a guest I would prefer to use this method, and I really appreciate my guests doing the same. If a guest is unaware of this possibility, I simply tell them about it and they have been as happy as I have about not having to find the right change or writing a check.

Your column would be a good place to spread the news, making it more comfortable to use a host's telephone for these calls.—Mary Lou Burch

Thank you, Mrs. Burch, for reminding me of this method. It is by far the easiest for every one, provided, of course, that the person making the call has a telephone of his own.

It is not always practical for youngsters who might find themselves in trouble when the charges show up on their parent's bill. They are, perhaps, better off if they pay their charges as I suggested in cash and at once.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Dear Mrs. Post: When home alone with my husband, watching television, I know that it is not obligatory to stand when the "Star Spangled Banner" is played. What should be done when two or three couples come over to watch our new TV set, and the National Anthem is played? Do we stand? We are patriotic Americans and wish to show our respect.—Evelyn H.

Dear Mr. H.: It is not necessary to stand for the National Anthem in the privacy of your own home, even though a few friends are present.

"RETURNING" A BRIDAL SHOWER

Dear Mrs. Post: If a girl gives a bridal shower or baby shower for a close friend, is the friend expected to give one for the hostess in return?—Ellen

Dear Ellen: When a girl has given a shower for a friend there is an unspoken feeling that, circumstances permitting, the compliment should be returned. If many others have planned showers first, however, it would be foolish to add another just to play "tit-for-tat."

Dear Mrs. Post: At the dinner table when someone asks you for a dish from the opposite end of the table, is it correct to help yourself as you pass it or should it go directly to the person who asked for it to be passed?—Mrs. White

Dear Mrs. White: Rather than cause the diners to have to pass the serving dish back and forth, you may say as it comes to you, "Do you mind if I help myself, so that it need not come all the way back?"

Nautical Style Set at Mall Boat Show

The feminine touch will highlight the annual Boat Show sponsored by The Pontiac Mall next week with the presentation of "Fashions With a Nautical Air."

The program, narrated by Jackie Crampton, fashion coordinator from WJBK TV, will be presented Thursday and Friday beginning at 7 p.m. and at 4 and 7 p.m. on Saturday.

Various merchants from The Mall are furnishing the attire.

Bonneville Will Meet

The Bonneville Duplicate Bridge Club will meet at 8 p.m. Saturday in the Community Room of The Pontiac Mall. All bridge players may attend.

Splendor of White House Is Backdrop for Fashions

WASHINGTON (AP) — History's first White House fashion show had it all — fancy clothes, beautiful models and a gilded setting — and the President of the United States.

President Johnson popped in briefly to greet wives of the nation's governors, guests, at Mrs. Johnson's fashion first, and to joke:

"With so many governors in town, I didn't want to leave the White House too long."

FEMININE LOOK

The governors' spouses oohed and aahed at the half-hour array of finery, but were noticeably cool to those miniskirts displayed. They saved their biggest applause for long evening dresses emphasizing the feminine look.

A white-carpeted, 600-foot runway in the elegant State Dining Room was the showcase for the offerings of 25 American designers during the First Family's salute to the nation's garment industry and the "discover America" program.

Excited models changed clothes in the sacrosanct Lincoln Bedroom.

Narrating the show with its red, white and blue theme, Nancy White, editor of Harper's Bazaar, said everyone in the garment industry—the nation's fourth largest—was grateful for "the very first time that fashion has come to the White House as an invited guest."

Mrs. Johnson, who wears her skirts about mid-knee, confided in a welcoming speech that she's discovered in the White House how fast a costume is outdated.

★ ★ ★

"I must say you ladies and gentlemen of the fashion industry keep the present occupant busy with the hemline," she commented.

She coyly refused to say who designed the white wool dress she selected for the occasion.

Despite the show's all-American theme, some guests — even the designers — wore French creations.

Designer Rudi Gernreich, noted for creating the topless bathing suit, said his long navy jacket, camel-colored slim trousers and white silk turtle neck shirt were by Pierre Cardin—a Paris rival.

Are You Bride-to-Be?

Are you planning a wedding?

We are interested in having your engagement and wedding news. But we need your cooperation.

The Pontiac Press has printed forms for both engagement and wedding announcements. But you may send in the details, giving full names and addresses (husband's names for a married woman) and other pertinent details.

Please include a telephone number so that we may check if necessary.

TIME LAPSE

There must be four months between engagement and wedding stories, if there is to be a picture with both.

No engagements are announced less than a month before the wedding date.

We prefer to receive wedding stories and pictures before the ceremony.

If pictures are taken at the wedding, we must have them no later than two days after the ceremony (that is, by noon Tuesday for Saturday weddings.)

If the wedding takes place out of town, this deadline is extended.

BEST PICTURES

Pictures should be black and white, preferably glossy prints. Snapshots cannot be used. Color and tinted prints are not acceptable.

While The Pontiac Press makes no promise to use every picture submitted, some printed mention of the event will be made.

There is no charge for editorial space, but it cannot be reserved nor can we promise the size of picture or its position.

Engagement and wedding pictures are kept for two months, then discarded. They may be called for any time after publication.

Mother-to-Be Is Troubled

Method Used Is Individual Choice

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am going to have my first baby in six months, and both my husband and I are excited about it. A friend told me that if I let my doctor give me something to knock me out during the labor and delivery I will miss the greatest thrill a woman can know — hearing her baby's first cry. She said when she had her baby, she knew what was going on every minute and she wouldn't have missed it for the world.

ABBY

I talked to my doctor about this, and he said he gives his patients something to keep them as comfortable as possible, and for a doctor to deliver babies any other way is brutal and unnecessary.

Now I don't know what to do. I hate to change doctors, but I don't want to cheat myself out of a woman's greatest thrill. My husband says it's up to me. Have you (or any of your readers) any experience in this line?

HAVING A BABY

DEAR HAVING: I have had two experiences. For Number One (a daughter), I was "knocked out." For Number Two (a son), I was wide awake. If I had it to do all over again, I'd elect to be knocked out, thank you.

Enjoy the "thrill" of hearing your baby's ninth or tenth cry. It's the same as the first, and it won't take long before the crying loses its charm, and the novelty wears off.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Not long ago a mother wrote to you complaining because a girl who looked to be "not much older" than her 17-year-old son was sent in by the doctor to stand by the table while her son had a lamp treatment for a skin ailment. The mother said the boy was embarrassed and refused to go back for another treatment because of this girl.

Then a REGISTERED NURSE wrote in saying the girl HAD to be at least 21 to be a nurse.

Who said she was a NURSE? I have worked in doctors' offices, have worn a nurse's uniform and a nurse's cap, and have been called "nurse," but I am not a nurse. And I think if you will inquire, you will find that this is true in many doctors' offices today. And dentists', also. Sincerely, GIRL IN WHITE

DEAR ABBY: When a person is under the influence of liquor does it make him tell the truth? Or does it just help him to lie better. Please hurry up your answer as I have to know before Saturday night. PEGGY

DEAR PEGGY: The effects vary with the individual. But if you remember this rule you can't go wrong: "If you can't believe a man when he's sober, don't believe him when he's drunk."

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "A-B-E-R" IN NEW LONDON, CONN.: Your son had 15 years in which to change the beneficiary. Inasmuch as he left his wife and family well-cared for and you were a widow when he married, you may safely assume that he intended that policy for your security. Keep it, and don't apologize.

Approach of Spring Welcomed With Dinner Dance for Friends

By SIGNE KARLSTROM

Mr. and Mrs. Ben D. Mills will entertain their many friends at a formal dinner dance on Saturday at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mrs. Mills says it's just for friends to start the spring, now that February is over.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lang saw Mrs. Lang's sister, Mrs. Charles Kennedy, off to her home in Toronto on Tuesday. Mrs. Kennedy has been the Lang's house guest for six weeks and numerous parties have been given in her honor.

Among those who have entertained are Mesdames: James Beresford, John Cannon and Arthur Moore.

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Armisted Maupin returned on Monday to their home in Raleigh, N.C., after a visit with Mr. Maupin's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neely.

Mrs. John Ylvisaker and daughters Nancy and Susan, and Mrs. Ylvisaker's sister, Elsa Strom, are back home after a visit in Miami Beach.

After spending two weeks in Tucson, Ariz., Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Aronsson have returned to their home on Juniper Lane.

AUTO SHOW

The automobile show in Chicago was visited by many people from this area. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Warner, the Edward N. Coles and Roger Kyes. Mr. Kyes was one of the principal speakers at a luncheon meeting.

Invitations are in the mail for a benefit performance on Friday, April 26 at Detroit Light Guard Armory. The concert features the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will have ever-popular Arthur Fielder as conductor in "A Night at the Pops."

It is sponsored by the Birmingham Musicale to raise money for their scholarships to Meadow Brook and Interlochen.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. M. G. Tammen is chairman and assisting her are Mesdames: Duncan C. Augustine, George R. Averill, Ralph Fox, and Brent K. Hogshead.

Others are Mesdames: H. S. McFarland, Richard O. Ruppel, Wilson P. Richards and Teruko Yamasaki.

Benefit Sponsored by MSU Alumnae

Members of the Michigan State University Alumni Club of Oakland County are planning their 12th annual spring scholarship fashion benefit.

The date is March 27 in the new Raleigh House on Telegraph Road in Southfield. Chudiks of Birmingham will provide the spring showings for the noon luncheon event.

★ ★ ★

Cochairmen are Mrs. George Cumming and Mrs. Larry Gutowsky. On committees are Mrs. Durwood Allen, Mrs. Kyle Otterbein, Mrs. Richard Forbush and Mrs. Thomas Kennedy.

Others include Mesdames: Richard LaDue, William Stevenson, Walker Mayhew, Ray Lane and Peter Krempel.

Dust Off Your College Diplomas, Gals

If you're a college graduate with a "dusty" diploma and would like to go back to work, now is the time to apply for a career training program that starts soon in Detroit.

April 1 is the opening date for a 10-week, non-credit job preparation course to be sponsored jointly by Camp Fire Girls, Inc., and Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Its aim is to train women in this locale for salaried administrative positions with community service agencies.

★ ★ ★

The course will be limited to what she calls "25 very special women" who will receive classroom instruction at the University Center for Adult Education in Detroit, and practical field experience supervised by the local councils of the sponsoring organizations.

Dr. Charles L. Lacy, a faculty member of the University of Detroit, will serve as training coordinator.

★ ★ ★

"The undertaking is designed to help relieve the shortage of community agency personnel by utilizing previously untapped sources of womanpower," the Director explained. "That's why we are placing recruitment emphasis on mature college graduates who want to resume or start new careers now that their family responsibilities have eased.

"During the course, they will 'get their feet wet' again and polish their skills, so they will be able to make a smooth transition from a home to a business setting."

★ ★ ★

Although the "old grads" of 35-plus are main targets of the talent hunt now in progress, the class also will include some non-degree women in the same age range who will comprise one fourth of the group.

The latter category, according to Mrs. Miller, has been "enthusiastically oversubscribed" and no additional applications from the non-degree women can be considered.

The project is strictly a pioneering effort to determine whether or not an accelerated training course such as this can produce "instant administrators" who will be able to succeed in the Community agency field.

★ ★ ★

"Currently, a bachelor's degree is the minimum educational requirement for professional service workers, and many hold advanced degrees," she continued. "One of the goals of the program is to determine the acceptability of apparently highly capable non-degree women and their ability to function as successfully in an agency setting as those with a more formal academic background."

Not all job openings are in this vicinity, so women who are willing to relocate will have the best opportunities for employment. There are no tuition fees for the course, as it is funded by the U.S. Department of Labor's Manpower Development and Training Act.

Interested Detroit-area women holding degrees may obtain a brochure that describes the course, enumerates qualifications, and includes an interview request form by writing to: Experimental Project for Administrative Trainees, 65 Worth St., New York, N.Y. 10013.

'Project Encounter' Benefit

A benefit fashion show and tea by Gamble-Alden Stores, plus a special travelogue on Mexico, will be presented Thursday from 2-4 p.m., at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Detroit.

Proceeds will go to Project Encounter, a chapter of the Conference on International American Student Projects, which is in the process of raising $20,000 for their summer work in the slums and villages of Chiapas, Mexico.

Students from seven colleges and universities in the area are involved in Project Encounter. They are effecting greater intercultural communication by volunteering their summer to aid in community development.

TICKITS

Tickets may be obtained at the door, or by writing to Project Encounter, Marygrove College, Box 101, Detroit, Michigan. 48121.

School Lunch Is Century-Old European Idea

CHICAGO (UPI) — The school lunch program idea is a century-old one.

France, England, and Germany pioneered in establishing lunch programs to deal with the problems of malnutrition 100 years ago, reports the Wheat Flour Institute.

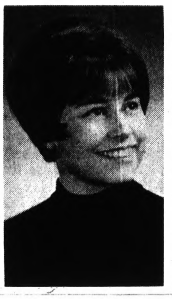
★ ★ ★

The U.S. school lunch program was developed originally during the Great Depression of the 1930s, when many parents were unemployed and children could not be fed properly. After World War II, the program was speeded up because of a food surplus.

Autumn Nuptials Set by Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Alger S. Miller of North Marshall Street announce the betrothal of their daughter, Susan Lynne, to Spec. 4 Fred Marten Scholts, USA.

Miss Miller and her finance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scholts of Ferndale, are planning a September wedding.



Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Penney Jr. of Orchard Lake announce the betrothal of their daughter, Susan Lee, to Cpl. Michael T. Hargreaves, USMC. Cpl. Hargreaves, who is stationed at Parris Island, N.C., is the son of Mrs. James C. Hargreaves of Detroit and the late Mr. Hargreaves. Miss Penney, a junior at Alma College, and her fiance are planning a late summer wedding.

The engagement of their daughter, Christine, to Spec. 4 Julian Jaracz, USA, who is presently stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash., is announced by the Otto Janciks of Shortridge Street, Avon Township. The bride elect, a junior at Oakland University, and her fiance, son of the Edward Jaraczs of Posen, will wed in June.

Alpha Xi Delta to Offer New Fellowship Grant

Alpha Xi Delta, national social fraternity for women, is again offering a graduate fellowship of $1,500 for advanced study in the field of Social Service.

Alpha Xi Delta is continuing to offer this Fellowship because it concurs with most civic authorities and juvenile court officials that there is an increasing need for trained personnel to work with youngsters.

Supporting this belief, preventing juvenile deliquency was chosen as the national philanthrophy in 1958.

SPECIAL CLASSES

Locally, Birmingham Alumnae supports the Royal Oak Youth Assistance Committee.

Through this committee, money is provided to furnish an educational program of trained speakers to counsel and advise parents of juvenile deliquents, at special evening classes.

Robert E. Tuttle, currently serving as executive director of the Detroit Baptist Children's Home, was the recipient of the eighth annual fellowship in 1968.

To be eligible for this award, an applicant must be a graduate of an accredited college or university, have an outstanding scholastic record and be interested in pursuing a career of working with children or youth to prevent deliquency in the United States.

★ ★ ★

Interested persons may obtain an application from Mrs. Guenther C. Lantzsch Willoway Estates Drive.

Completed applications must be in the hands of the national philanthrophy chairman no later than March 31, 1968.

Bride elect Linda Lea Coleman and her fiance Ronald Jon Rizk will wed in June. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. William F. Coleman of Sylvan Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Rizk of Detroit.

Air Pollution Affects Hair

CHICAGO — Good scalp and hair hygiene dictates that hair should be shampooed as often as needed. Although once a week is recommended, our polluted air might make more frequent shampooing necessary for hair health.

★ ★ ★

That's the good grooming advice from the A.M.A.'s Today's Health which points out that daily brushing supplements the shampoo. It helps to keep the hair and scalp clean by loosening and removing dust, grime, hair spray residue, and dead cells.

Moist Raisin Cake Is Good Lunchbox Traveler

Looking for a new dessert to put in lunchboxes? Mrs. Joseph Gurski suggests a Boiled Raisin Cake. Her three teen-agers gobble it up almost before it is cool unless she restrains them.

Mrs. Gurski says this is a good cake to send to servicemen. At Christmas time, she added nuts to it and sent it to her son in Korea.

BOILED RAISIN CAKE
By Mrs. Joseph Gurski

3 cups raisins	2 teaspoons cinnamon
3 cups water	1 teaspoon nutmeg
2 cups flour	½ cup margarine
1 teaspoon soda	1½ cups sugar
½ teaspoon salt	2 eggs

Cover raisins with water and bring to boil. Simmer 20 minutes. Drain raisins, reserving one cup of the liquid. Cool thoroughly.

Cream sugar and margarine until fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Fold in raisins.

Blend in dry ingredients alternately with the liquid. Beat well. Pour into greased bread pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 60 to 70 minutes, or until cake tests done.

This needs no frosting.

Polly's Pointers

Can Combine Colors

DEAR POLLY — During many years of sewing I have accumulated many half-used spools of thread. They take up space waiting to be used for basting or small jobs. With the use of the new, wild, crazy prints I have found I can use one color on the bobbin and another on the spool.

Yesterday, while making a dress of blue, green and yellow Paisley print where any of the colors could have been used, I chose blue leftover thread for the bobbin and green leftover thread for the spool on the machine.

No one would ever guess which color would be right and, in the meantime I am finally using up some of that extra thread. — MRS. R. J.H.

POLLY'S PROBLEM

DEAR POLLY — I am a 14-year-old who enjoys painting very much but have one problem with which I need help. While my paintings are drying, dust collects on them. Is there a way to prevent this or to remove the dust? — JUDY

DEAR POLLY — Most baby boy's suits come with plastic linings so I want to tell the reader who has trouble ironing them about the way I have the best luck. I first place a thick terry cloth washcloth inside the pants between the layers of plastic.

I use a steam iron, but that is not necessary, and turn it to the cotton setting and quickly press them on the outside. A good-quality spray starch also helps press them neatly and quickly without danger of melting the plastic.

The Pointer given for using measuring spoons to give medicine to a small child does sound like a good idea. Another method I have found to be successful is to use a large plastic medicine dropper.

I saved several from liquid vitamins given to the children when they were babies. I measure the correct dosage into a small glass or draw it up into the dropper from a spoon. This eliminates spills and, if the medicine is distasteful, it can be placed back and to the side of the child's mouth where it is swallowed without much taste or spitting. — BONNIE

DEAR POLLY I have curtains that tie back but would not stay together at the center top so I sewed a regular hook and eye on them — the hook on one curtain top and the eye on the other. For heavier draperies one could use a heavy-duty hook and eye. — NITA

The engagement is announced of Marilyn Bernadette Thompson and John Edward Carry Jr. The bride elect is the daughter of Mrs. Charles H. Thompson of Caroline Street in Pontiac Township and the late Mr. Thompson. Her fiance is the son of the senior John E. Carry of East Pike Street.

Women's Art Society Sets Show

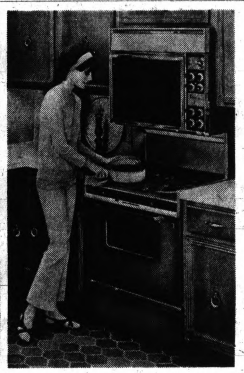
The oldest art society in Michigan, "The Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors" is presenting its 63rd annual exhibition at the Scarab Club in Detroit.

Kenneth Saltmarche, director of the Willistead Art Gallery of Windsor, is juror for this show which opens with a reception from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. It will run through March 14.

Gallery hours are 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Sugar Dispenser

Designed for calorie counters is a new cup-shaped "sugar saver" which automatically measures and dispenses just one level teaspoon of sugar in beverage or on cereal. The gadget is dishwasher safe.



One of the early Hotpoint electric ranges featured a special high bake oven which was particularly popular with homemakes across the nation. Progress in electric ranges has come a long way since then, and is typified by the sleek, modern Hallmark Hi/Lo range which features decorative black glass oven doors and other styling features. The Hi/Lo range also is equipped with a self-cleaning master oven. And panels in the high oven can be easily removed for electronic cleaning in the lower oven.

Are Joint Savings Accounts Good Idea?

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley:

My husband and I have $10,000 in savings. We have just heard that if he should pass away first, I could not get all the money. We are close to 60 years old and want to fix our savings so they are safe.

Will you also tell me, which is safest, passbook savings or certificates of deposit?

Mrs. W.W., Bessemer, Ala.

MARY FEELEY

Dear Mrs. W.: It's true that when one partner in joint ownership dies, all the money becomes the property of the deceased for tax purposes, and goes into his estate.

However, whether you would have to pay a tax on this $10,000, depends on the amount of the total estate. What other assets would be involved, such as property, insurance, stocks, bonds, etc? Thes are all included in the total estate. Estates are subject to federal and state inheritance taxes or state estate taxes.

* * *

The federal government provides for a $60,000 exemption on the first $60,000 of an estate, just as the first $600 of income each year is exempt under the income tax laws. In addition to this exemption, there is a marital deduction, which makes it possible to have an adjusted gross estate of $120,000 and still pay no federal tax. State inheritance taxes vary from state to state, but if your estate is modest these taxes will usually pose no serious problems.

The surviving partner in joint ownership can obtain a tax waiver, in order to have access to a portion of such savings as you mention before the estate is settled.

With all the complicated tax provisions we have to contend with today, I think you'd do well to talk to your lawyer about setting up your savings in two separate accounts, naming each other as beneficiary, even though you may feel that the estate wouldn't be large enough to be in the taxable category.

Whatever you and your husband own jointly may well be increasing in value, so a review of your whole financial situation is a good idea at this point.

To answer your last question: both passbook savings and certificates of deposit are equally insured, so are equally safe. Of course, there's a time period that must be observed if your money is in certificates, in order to benefit by the higher interest rate.

Dear Mary Feeley: My wife and I have joint bank accounts. We'd like to know if we put this money in trust for our three children, would they get it when we're gone without red tape or taxes? Or is it better for us to make a will?

G.A.B., New York City

Dear G.A.B.: It's always best to make a will, so there'll be no question as to how you want your estate distributed. If there's not a great deal of money involved, you can simply name your children as beneficiaries of these accounts. However, they may still have to pay taxes, if the amount of your estate warrants it.

Keep in mind that in setting up a trust, where substantial funds are to be handled, the fee required may well be an item to consider.

Give-Away All Patterns

All the stores have spring clearance sales and The Pontiac Press women's department is not to be outdone by them.

For the next two weeks, all needlework patterns remaining from the ones we have offered during the past year will be given out free on a first-come, first-served basis.

You must come in; no patterns will be sent by mail. After March 15, none of the old patterns will be available any longer. Come in and make your selection.

Women Sponsor Luncheon, Show

A number of local churchwomen will be attending the Wolverine Baptist State Convention Women's Auxiliary luncheon and fashion show on March 9. The noon event at the Latin Quarter in Detroit is open to the public.

Skin Ills Idle Europeans

By Science Service

GENEVA, Switzerland — More than half of all European occupational illness cases and lost work time have been found to be due to skin diseases.

Surveys in Italy, Sweden and England reveal the extent of the problem, reports the World Health Organization.

Occupational dermatoses have been found responsible for up to 85 per cent of Italy's insurance payments. In Sweden, eczema alone accounted for 49.4 per cent of all occupational illnesses annually, and in England one million to two million sick days are lost each year to specific skin conditions.

Drug and cosmetic workers suffer from contact with such materials. Persons working with solvents, radiation, plastics, rubber, metals, textiles and foods also may be affected.

Doctor Does the Unusual in Midst of Battle

HUE, Vietnam (AP) — There wasn't anything in the dispensary to perform an amputation with, so a medic ran out and borrowed a hacksaw from the Seabees.

It was hardly the type of thing taught in medical school but Dr. Stephen Bernie from Dayton, Ohio, was getting used to the unusual.

He had been blown out of bed a few nights before by an exploding rocket. Later standing in front of his dispensary, he was sprayed by shrapnel from a mortar which exploded on the tile roof of the one-story building.

The easy going 28-year-old Army captain, recently a student at Ohio State, had been plunged into the heart of Vietnam's nastiest battle.

'ACCIDENT WARD'

"It was suddenly the accident ward at a big city hospital," Bernie said. "Until now we could always get serious cases to the regular hospital at Phu Bai. It's only seven miles away and the ambulance could get there in minutes. We never really dreamed of this."

His three-room dispensary, equipped mainly for GI colds and stomachaches, became the sole clearing station in the raging battle for Hue.

★ ★ ★

The Communists cut the road to Phu Bai and isolated the city by Land. They raked the perfume River with shellfire and made evacuation by sea hazardous and long. A cold misty rain settled over the city, making evacuation helicopters irregular and chancy.

In a small room with two stretchers placed on metal stands, Bernie and a small team of medics treated a tragic stream of wounded for almost a week.

Then a helicopter dropped a small Navy medical team headed by Lt. James Back, a lean, 29-year-old doctor from Lexington, Ky., whose enthusiasm matched Bernie's.

The two doctors and their Army medics and Navy corpsmen treated hundreds of American soldiers and Marines. Only two died later.

Uncounted patients were Vietnamese civilians.

"We had to do major operations on some of them," Back said. "We knew that if we didn't do it, it wouldn't get done and they would die."

Group in Georgia Asks Reparations

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — The Phi Kappa literary society of the University of Georgia is demanding an apology from the Army chief of staff for federal troops taking over their building during the Civil War.

In a resolution adopted unanimously, the society also demanded the Army pay $100 plus interest, for rent and damages by the Yankee troops. The tongue-in-cheek resolutions came about after a perusal of old records.

Romanian Legation Walks Out on Communist Parley

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — A new rebellion has developed in the Soviet bloc, with Romania accusing the Kremlin of Stalinist tactics and walking out of the meeting of 66 Communist parties being held in Budapest.

A communique issued today after an all-night huddle of conference officials expressed regret over the Romanian action.

★ ★ ★

The Romanian delegation walked out Thursday night after failing to win acceptance for two demands: repudiation of a Syrian attack on Romania's position on the Arab-Israeli question, and a promise that there would be no more attacks on Red China or any other Communist party during the remainder of the session.

There was speculation that the split might prove as important as the break between Russia and Yugoslavia in 1948, when Tito rebelled against Stalin's dictatorial rule. Nikita Khrushchev made peace with Tito, but an even more serious split in the Communist world developed with the break between Peking and Moscow.

Romania has sought to steer a neutral course in the conflict between the Soviet Union and Red China. Since Nicolae Ceausescu became Romanian Communist party secretary general in 1965, Bucharest has also challenged the Kremlin's domination of the Soviet bloc and asserted Romanian independence from Soviet economic, military and political control.

Romania has objected all along to Soviet pressure for a world Communist conference. The Romanians argued that since Red China did not want such a conference, to hold one would solidify the break. However, the Romanian party finally agreed to come to Budapest for the meeting to discuss the proposed world conference.

When Poland and then the Soviet Union broke a preconference agreement to refrain from attacks on any Communist party and criticized the Chinese, Romania sat silent. Attacks also came from East Germany and France.

I'd Welcome More Negroes---Guard Chief

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's National Guard chief says he would welcome more Negroes in the Guard, but adds that authorization for more men must come from Washington first.

Maj. Gen. Clarence Schnipke, state adjutant general, said he approves of a presidential riot commission recommendation that an intensive recruiting campaign be initiated to bring more Negroes into the National Guard.

★ ★ ★

The national advisory commission estimated there were only about 5,000 Negroes among the country's 500,000 Guardsmen.

"The trouble is that we haven't had the authority to enlist anyone but prior servicemen for nearly six months," Schnipke said Thursday.

ENLISTMENTS FROZEN

"Enlistments were frozen last October for all but the ex-servicemen."

Michigan's authorized Guard strength is 10,283 but the actual strength now is about 9,700, Schnipke said.

"We have a drive going right now to enlist Negroes with prior service—especially those from Vietnam," the adjutant general said. "We want veterans of any color."

Schnipke said he would have to wait for authorization from Washington before starting any recruiting campaign.

MOST IN DETROIT

"We don't want to go out and get the fellows all enthused and then have to tell them we can't take them in," he said.

Schnipke estimated the Michigan Guard now has about 180 Negro soldiers. Most are in Detroit, he said, although there are a sprinkling from throughout the state.

★ ★ ★

"The Negro soldiers, he asserted, were as effective as anyone else during the Guard riot duty last summer in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Schnipke said the bulk of the soldiers in Detroit are assigned to missile battalions and so ordinarily wouldn't be called out for street duty.

If the thought of buying a new furnace bothers you, read this new Three-Step Protection Plan.

First, call Edison. We'll give you the names of electric heat contractors near you. Each has been approved by Edison as qualified—and each is a reputable businessman.

Next, the contractor will check your home, review your needs, and recommend the type of heat best for you. He'll recommend electric heat only if it meets your needs. Electric heat is clean, quiet, comfortable and more economical than you'd imagine. In fact, electric heat rates have been reduced again—this time, by 10%. That's 30.5% in eight years. The contractor will estimate both installation and operating costs and give them to you in writing. All without obligation. We'll check the quotation if you like.

Then, after your new electric heat system is installed, Edison and your contractor, working together, will make any adjustments necessary to the system if operating cost exceeds the original estimate during the first three years of use. At the end of this time, if operating cost still exceeds the estimate, and you aren't satisfied, Edison will remove the system and refund your original price.

That's our new Three-Step Protection Plan. What better way to protect your investment during every step of conversion to electric heat? Remember the First Step. Call Edison for names of the approved contractors nearest you.

Musical Awards Presented

Song Captures Six Grammies

NEW YORK (AP) — The lilting song, "Up, Up and Away," carried off six Grammy awards on Thursday night as the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences chose the best recordings of 1967.

★ ★ ★

"Gentle on My Mind" won four, in folk and country categories, depending on who sang it, "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" won four, proving that the Beatles of Liverpool haven't lost their magic.

Duke Ellington won with "Far East Suite" in the large group jazz category. He and the late Billy Strayhorn also won for "Far East Suite" when the academy's trustees gave a "special merit" Grammy.

Going to the stage from his seat beside conductor Leopold Stokowski for the second time, Ellington said, "I told Maestro Stokowski that people are nice to me when I'm with him."

Classical album of the year was a tie between Berg's "Wozzeck," by the Paris National Opera conducted by Pierre Boulez, and Mahler's "Pighth Symphony," the London Symphony Orchestra and Chorus conducted by Leonard Bernstein.

"Gentle on My Mind," composed by John Hartford, was judged best country and western song. Sung by Hartford, it received the folk music Grammy. For Glen Campbell it won best country recording and best country male vocal performance.

Campbell also won both the best contemporary vocal performance, male, and general best male performance awards, singing "By the Time I Get to Phoenix."

Bobbie Gentry won as best female soloist, best contemporary female vocalist and best new artist, with "Ode to Billie Joe." Tammy Wynette won the country female singing category for "I Don't Wanna Play House."

Igor Stravinsky conducting the Columbia Symphony in his own "Firebird" and "Petrouchka" suites gained best orchestra honors. "Prima Donna, Volume 2," by Leontyne Price is best classical vocal album.

"Up, Up and Away," composed by Jim Webb, won as pop song of the year. As sung by the 5th Dimension, it won as record of the year, best performance by a vocal group, best contemporary single and best contemporary group performance. As sung by the Johnny Mann Singers, it won "best performance by a chorus."

DOUBLE WINNER—Duke Ellington holds two Grammies, statuettes shaped like small Gramophones, which were awarded to him and the late Billy Strayhorn for "Far East Suite" at the 10th annual award banquet.

Guides Issued for Deferments

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's Selective Service headquarters has issued additional guidelines for granting student and occupational deferments but emphasizes that local boards must continue to use their own discretion.

"Each local board will continue to consider occupational deferment requests in individual cases based on strong evidence of essentiality," the draft headquarters said.

★ ★ ★

"New requests for occupational deferments will be critically reviewed in the light of current military manpower requirements."

Local boards were advised they will not be able to defer students who enrolled for graduate study after last October in fields other than medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, osteopathy and optometry.

MAY FINISH YEAR

Graduate students now in their first year of graduate study may be allowed to complete that year. Graduate students completing their second year or graduate study may be allowed to complete doctoral training programs.

Apprentices in approved training programs may continue to be deferred.

6 From State Are Arrested in Wisconsin

CHILTON, Wis. (UPI) — Six Michigan residents were arraigned in Calumet County Court yesterday after being taken into custody at gunpoint Wednesday at a house trailer parked near here.

Authorities said the six, three men and three women, were charged with lewd and lascivious conduct. They were being held under $100 bond each.

Local authorities said they had been informed some of the six were wanted in Flint, Mich. on car theft and burglary charges.

Arrested were Diane M. Knox, 20, and Christine Weston, 19, both Flint, Mich.; Lois Somerfeld, 18, and Ronald Wisnewski, 23, both Warren, Mich.; and Raymond Blake, 21, Mount Morris, Mich., and Ronald Wiltse, 21, Saginaw, Mich.

Leap Year Rite Is Deal for Groom

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bridegroom Philip L. Metzen, 26, says he really got a bargain when he married Diana Zipkin, 20, in a Leap Year Day wedding Thursday. Technically it means he will have to buy an anniversary present only once every four years. Also, the bride paid the $6 for the marriage license. "I didn't propose actually, but I would have if he hadn't," commented the bride.

Tide of Opposition Mounts Against Parochial School Aid

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's church-state controversy boiled more furiously today as a tide of angry opposition mounted against pending legislation that would grant state funds to parents of nonpublic school pupils.

The Michigan Association of School Boards Thursday denounced the proposal and said it would ask its members to join the thousands of people telling legislators what they think of the bill.

★ ★ ★

The proposal, now under consideration in both House and Senate education committees, would cost the state an estimated $21 million for fiscal 1968-69.

It would authorize grants of $50 to $150, depending on the year in school and location of the school, as partial reimbursement to parents for the cost of their children's private school education.

NEWS CONFERENCE

Meanwhile, the Michigan Association of School Administrators called a news conference today and was expected to add its voice to those opposing the bill.

The school board group, which said it represents 98 per cent of all Michigan's public school boards, hit at both religious and financial aspects of the bill, questioning statistics offered by proponents.

★ ★ ★

"We believe it true that if one religious group or more for that matter, is to receive public money to operate their schools, each church not only would have the same right but by way of self preservation be forced to establish a system of their own," said an association statement.

"The result would be the end of public education as we know it today in America."

'WAITING TO SEE'

Speaking for the association, Executive Director Julius Barbour told a news conference he knew of some churches already contemplating new parochial schools.

"We have some board members in Protestant churches who are only waiting to see what happens to the bill before setting up schools of their own," he said.

★ ★ ★

"We believe in the division of church and state," Barbour said. "Let educators teach our children and let the church teach religion. We object to giving public money to school systems set up by dissidents."

Citing the U. S. Supreme Court ruling against prayer in public schools, Barbour said all private schools "should be, and would have to be, if public monies are given them, subjected to the same standards and directives as public schools are today.

'CAN'T BE JUSTIFIED'

"How can you justify a public school on one side of the street that cannot have prayer and get public money and a parochial school on the other side of the street that can have prayer and still get public money'" he asked.

"We do not believe that those requesting these funds would be willing to give up the teaching of religion. . ." he said.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Thomas Brown, R-Lansing and chief sponsor of the House bill, said parochial schools would have to do no such thing.

The grants are for secular subjects, not religious ones, and the schools are private, not public, he said.

OPPOSES STATEMENTS

The association took issue with statements by bill's proponents that the state saved some $200 million this year in money not spent on public schools because some 330,000 youngsters attended nonpublic schools.

Proponents said some $97 million would have been spent in state aid and another $108 million in local taxes for public education.

★ ★ ★

"A complete survey of the facts indicates that if every nonpublic school child were to be enrolled in public schools, it would cost the state only $67 million," the association said.

"No public school door in Michigan has ever been closed to a child."

Proponents have said an increasing number of nonpublic school youngsters transfer to public schools each year, severely taxing the public education facilities.

"We stand ready to accept children from nonpublic schools because the law says we must," Barbour said. "In some particular communities we might have temporary problems but in three or four years, they'd be all right."

Barbour added that Association board members "sincerely do not believe all these parochial and private schools will close at the same time.

"The threat is there," he said, "but we don't believe the reality of it."

Strikes by Militant Teachers Disrupting Classes in 3 States

By The Associated Press

Strikes by militant teachers' unions disrupted classes and forced school closings today which affected thousands of pupils in three states.

The midwinter discontent recalled the wave of similar strikes which swept a score of the nation's school systems last fall forcing almost a million pupils to stay at home.

Latest city to be hit was San Francisco where the 1,400-member American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, voted Thursday to strike the public school system to back its demands for improvements.

Pittsburgh school officials ordered high schools closed today in the face of the crippling teacher's strike which began Thursday but said they would try to keep elementary schools operating.

Florida teacher representatives and the state's top education official agreed Thursday on a compromise proposal to end the nine-day strike by a third of the state's 60,000 teachers. One county board rejected the plan, placing its success in jeopardy.

San Francisco school administrators pledged every effort to keep the schools open in the face of a walkout by the union whose membership comprises roughly one-third of the city's 4,000 teachers.

The rival San Francisco Classroom Teachers Association has about 2,600 members, most of them elementary school teachers. Association President Victor B. Graff said, "The vast majority of San Francisco teachers will honor their contracts."

Graff declared, "Our major concern is that the people of this city will interpret this irresponsible strike as an expression of the attitude of all of the teachers."

The AFT local voted 552-295 in favor of a strike despite pleas by Mayor Joseph Alioto to defer the vote. The federation seeks smaller classes and other improvements in teaching conditions.

In Pittsburgh one school official said he was shocked that the strike by a third of the city's 3,000 teachers was so effective at the secondary schools.

After an emergency session Thursday night the board of education told the 30,000 high school pupils to stay home until Tuesday. Officials said they will regroup forces and draw plans for an orderly reopening then.

The union walked out in a demand for collective bargaining. Its rival, the 1,900 member Pittsburgh Teacher Education Association, did not support the strike.

Although 50,000 elementary pupils were told to report to school, officials admitted classes would be difficult because strike-sympathetic maintenance workers are not heating the buildings above 50 degrees.

★ ★ ★

Florida State School Supt. Floyd Christian disclosed his compromise agreement with the teachers late Thursday and summoned the state board of education to act on the seven-point program today.

Florida Education Association officials indicated the compromise plan would be offered before regional teacher meetings for ratification later today. They said its acceptance would be contingent upon every county school board reinstating all teachers.

Pay Hike for Sanitationmen Stirs New NY Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — An arbitrator has given the city's 10,000 sanitationmen a pay increase of $425 a year in a 15-month contract, and Mayor John V. Lindsay and the head of the sanitationmen's union are in dispute over the actual value of the award.

★ ★ ★

The conflicting interpretations involve comparisons on the basis of 12 months or 15 months. Lindsay spoke of "an over-all average increase of $415 over the 15-month period of the contract."

★ ★ ★

John J. DeLury, president of the Uniformed Sanitationmen's Association, said the award, according to union calculations, amounted to an increase on an annual basis of $429.90.

★ ★ ★

The arbitration award was announced late Thursday by the State Mediation Board. The city and the union agreed the decision would be binding.

Concession Bids

LANSING (AP) — The State Conservation Department is taking sealed bids for the bath house and boat concession at South Higgins Lake State Park. The concession grossed slightly more than $24,000 last year.

Hart Sorry for Romney

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., sympathized yesterday with his governor, George Romney.

"It's never fun to have a goal and fail to reach it," he said at a news conference of Romney's withdrawal from the race for the Republican presidential nomination.

'Iron Mike' on Mound for Detroit

Chilly Florida Weather Sends Tigers Running for Cover

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LAKELAND, Fla. — Persistent rains and cold winds ended one day of warmth and sunshine and brought "Iron Mike" into action at the training camp of the Detroit Tigers.

★ ★ ★

Fortunately, the Tigers are blessed with a facility which allows them to hold some form of drills regardless of weather.

It is an old airplane hangar next to the parking lot at Tigertown, and while batterymen are able to warm up, the batters take turns in the netted batting cage to face "Iron Mike," the mechanical pitcher who never misses the plate.

The featured subject of discussion during the shortened indoor drills was the versatility and value of Mickey Stanley, whom manager Mayo Smith regards as the jack of all trades.

★ ★ ★

"Every team should have a Mickey Stanley, and he's the one guy we're grooming to fit into every position," said Smith.

SHORTSTOP WORK

Eyebrows raised when the popular Grand Rapids native was seen doing more work at shortstop during the first week of camp than in one of his more usual outfield positions.

★ ★ ★

When the Tigers get back to their normal outdoor workouts, Smith has it planned to let Stanley do some catching.

"I like centerfield the best, but I'm learning a lot about all positions and I'll play wherever I'm told," said Stanley.

Last year, as the key defensive reserve player on the team, he was in the outfield in 128 games but was in 28 games without getting a time at bat.

He also had eight games at first base, handling 52 chances without an error. In the 145 games he appeared he hit only .210 which was far below his .289 in 1966 when he was considered the regular centerfielder.

The thought of catching doesn't appeal to Stanley.

"I like the outfield. I don't mind the infield, but catching doesn't sound too good for me," he laughed.

Since he came up to the Tigers in 1965, he has been considered one of the best defensive men in the league, being charged with a total of five errors in 267 games.

Most of the errors are of the bobbled grounder type. The most embarrassing error, one which stunned everyone was the first fly ball he ever dropped last year with two out and the bases loaded allowing all three runs to score.

Stanley has often been asked to explain the error since then and it is just as stunning for him to talk about it. "I'm only thankful it didn't cost us a game," is all he prefers to say.

With the help of batting coach Wally Moses, Stanley has been working on his batting stride. Moses has been trying to get Stanley into a batting stride at the plate faster.

"He isn't ready fast enough when the pitcher releases the ball," according to Moses.

The weatherman in Lakeland forecasts the wet and chilly weather may carry into the weekend and thus any hope for an intra-squad game may be delayed until early next week.

The Tigers will open the exhibition season one week from today at Bradenton against the newly franchised Oakland Athletcs. On Saturday March 9, they will have their Lakeland opener against the strong Minnesota Twins, preseason favorites in the American League race.

FALLING EFFORT — Detroit Red Wings' goalie Roger Crozier (30) falls backward from the net but manages to sweep the puck away from the goal in stopping the New York Rangers on this first-period rush last night in Detroit. New York's Vic Hadfield (11) (foreground) tried to push the shot past Crozier as Jean Ratelle (19) moved in from the other side looking for a rebound. The puck did bounce Ratelle's way and he scored seconds later. New York won, 4-2.

Playoff Hopes for Detroiters Grow Dimmer

DETROIT (UPI) — In October, beating out the Stanley Cup champions looked pretty good. Like a playoff spot. In March, should the Detroit Red Wings overtake the Toronto Maple Leafs, it looks awfully bad. Like fifth place.

But the skidding Red Wings are going to have to show an abrupt reversal on the ice if they hope to close the current five-point gap between them and Maple Leafs in their 14 remaining National Hockey League games.

★ ★ ★

Detroit didn't make any headway Thursday night, dropping a 4-2 contest to the New York Rangers, who remained a point ahead of fourth-place Boston in the Easter Division.

Boston downed Toronto, 4-1, putting the Maple Leafs 13 points off the pace of the Bruins and Los Angeles knocked off Philadelphia 3-1 in the only other NHL games played.

"You aren't going to win many games the way we played," said Sid Abel, Detroit's general manager-coach.

POOR START

The Red Wings were outshot, 36-27, including a horrendous 18-7 margin in the first period when the Rangers jumped off to a 2-0 lead.

Jean Ratelle, who has been as hot as a boiling coffeepot lately, scored the first of his two goals with only 43 seconds to go in the first period. Don Marshall had tallied a couple minutes earlier.

Detroit goalie Roger Crozier, who made his usual number of unbelievable stops to hold down the score, seemed to slip to one side trying to push the puck out of the way on Ratelle's goal. The New York center just skated over and slammed it the necessary inches into the cage.

Ratelle scored his 27th goal of the season in the last period, swooping across the net and tipping in a perfect pass from Jim Neilson.

★ ★ ★

Ratelle has 10 goals and 11 assists in the last 11 Rangers' games to hold down fourth in the NHL scoring race with 68 points. Teammate Rod Gilbert, who assisted on Ratelle's first goal, has 70 points to rank third among NHL scorers.

Norm Ullman poked in a loose puck in font of New York goalie Ed Giacomin for Detroit's first score, just one minute after the Rangers' Bob Nevin had opened the third peiod scoring.

Dean Prentice shrugged off a sore shoulder which has kept him out of action recently to score the other Red Wings' goal.

CAN'T SCORE

Hard-luck Paul Henderson, who hasn't been able to sneak the puck in the net recently, was thwarted by Giacomin on one breakaway attempt and had another shot that went off the post.

Los Angeles' 3-1 win over Western Division leading Philadelphia was the Kings' sixth, plus one tie, in their last nine games. It flipped them into second, only three points behind the flyers.

Rookie Derek Sanderson scored a pair of third-period goals to pace the Bruins to their 4-1 win over the Maple Leafs. Sanderson's scores came after John Bucyk put the puck in the net with 32 seconds left in the second period.

It was Bucyk's 26th goal while Sanderson now has 21 and seems virtually assured of the NHL Rookie-of-the-Year honor.

Hockey Confab Set

ST. PAUL-MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Wren Blair, coach and general manager of the Minnesota North Stars, met with his unhappy goalie, Gary Bauman, Thursday night and told him to take a few days off and join the National Hockey League team next week.

★ ★ ★

Bauman, who was sent to Rochester of the American League two weeks ago, left the minor league team without permission earlier this week. Bauman, 28, indicated he may retire.

Tim Wood on Spot; Miss Fleming Stars

GENEVA (AP) — Peggy Fleming, having all but won her third straight World Figure Skating Championship, completes the compulsory figures today and then Tim Wood faces an uphill struggle for the men's title.

Miss Fleming, the 19-year-old whiz from Colorado Springs, Colo., overwhelmed the competition Thursday, taking a lead of more than 50 points over second-place Gaby Seifert of East Germany, the European champion.

Miss Seifert all but conceded the competition, although today's two figures and the free skating on Saturday remain to be skated.

"I've no hope of catching Peggy," the 19-year-old German girl said.

Miss Fleming had a total of 723.7 points after Thursday's competition to 671 points for Miss Seifert. Beatrix Schuba of Austria is in third place with 665.5 points and Hana Maskova of Czechoslovakia is fourth with 643.9.

FIFTH PLACE

Albertina Noyes of Boston is fifth with 614.9 and Janet Lynn of Rockford, Ill., is 13th with 581.5 points.

Even Peggy cautiously admitted that things looked good for her.

"I'm quite satisfied," she said. "The ice felt pretty good and the future looks safe for me."

The free-skating part of the men's competition takes place tonight. Emmerich Danzer of Austria, the defending champion, is slightly behind Wood of Bloomfield Hills, Mich., but is figured hard to beat in the free skating.

BRITISH SWEEP

In the one title decided Thursday defending champions Diane Towler and Bernard Ford of England led a British sweep of the first three places in the ice dancing competition.

It was their third straight title. Judy Schwomeyer and James Sladky of Indianapolis, Ind., held off a Russian challenge to take fourth place.

"I'm not too happy," said Sladky. "I thought that we did better than the judges made out."

"I am sad," added Miss Schwomeyer. "Now I'm going to bed to nurse my cold."

Suspension Lifted, Pistons' Strawder Back in Action

DETROIT (AP) — When the Detroit Pistons meet the St. Louis Hawks in a National basketball Association game in Cobo Arena tonight, Joe Strawder again will be available for duty.

★ ★ ★

Strawder, Pistons starting center for the last three seasons, was suspended Feb. 21 after missing scheduled trips with the team and some practice sessions.

He missed five games while under the suspension, which was lifted Thursday after a conference between Strawder, Pistons coach Dennis Butcher and Pistons General Manager Edwin Coil.

Strawder has been in 61 games this season, averaging 7.6 points and 9.5 rebounds per game.

Jim's Knee on Mend

Pitcher Lonborg Star of Red Sox 'Cast'

By The Associated Press

The cast is complete for the Boston Red Sox. Unfortunately, it's wrapped around Jim Lonborg's valuable left knee.

Lonborg, the tall right-hander who won 22 games and a Cy Young Award in Boston's dramatic surge to the 1967 American League pennant, was a surprise visitor Thursday at the Red Sox' first full-squad drill.

★ ★ ★

"I just want to be on the scene with the rest of the guys," said Lonborg, who injured his knee while skiing just before Christmas and underwent surgery.

He said he plans to return to Boston to have the cast removed next Tuesday and then drive back to Winter Haven, Fla., to begin getting the knee back in shape. He is not expected to pitch until mid-May.

Rain disrupted workouts for most of the Florida-based teams. But not before Minnesota Twins' Manager Cal Ermer and infielder Sandy Alomar of the Chicago White Sox were forced to the sidelines.

MINOR INJURIES

Ermer tore a leg muscle while reaching for a thrown ball while Alomar was struck in the face by a ball and suffered a minor nosebleed.

The holdout ranks were thinned somewhat when pitcher Jim Merritt, who had a 13-7 record, signed with the Twins and shortstop Ruben Amaro became the last of the New York Yankees to come to terms. Both received an estimated $24,000.

However, outfielder Tony Oliva of the Twins, third baseman Clete Boyer of the Atlanta Braves, eight Cincinnati Reds and three key Houston Astros still were unsigned.

Oliva, who received $40,000 last season and is asking $60,000, is scheduled to arrive in the Twins' camp today to talk with owner Cal Griffith.

Boyer became a holdout after a 30-minute session with Braves officials. The ex-Yankee, who had his best season in 1967 with 26 homers and 96 runs batted in, reportedly is asking a boost from $35,000 to $50,000. The Braves are said to have offered $45,000.

Assistant General Manager Phil Seghi of Cincinnati talked by phone with outfielders Pete Rose and Vada Pinson, pitchers Mel Queen and Jay Ritchie and rookie infielder Hal McRae. He couldn't convince any of them to sign. Other Red holdouts are pitcher Jim Maloney and infielders Tommy Helms and Chico Ruiz.

The Cleveland Indians lost two men when outfielder Don Demeter decided to retire and rookie pitcher Gary Boyd was called into the Army for six months.

Windy Heavyweights Trade Verbal Blows in Fight Prelude

RHINEBECK, N.Y. (AP) — If their combat in the ring is as good as their verbal war from the training camps, there should be plenty of fireworks when feuding Joe Frazier and Buster Mathis meet face to face in Madison Square Garden Monday night.

Meanwhile, spokesmen for Black Power groups announced Thursday they would picket the fight because they say the title belongs to Cassius Clay, also known as Muhammad Ali.

Frazier, a fiery puncher in his workouts as well regular fights, has been popping off from Kiamesha Lake on how he expects to "take out Buster in six or seven rounds or maybe earlier."

The brawny, 5-foot-11½, 205-pound Philadelphian undoubtedly has been trying to get Buster mad. He has needled his giant foe with remarks that "he runs like a thief;" "He's chicken-hearted," and "he can't punch."

When these words were passed on to the 6-3, 245-pounder from Grand Rapids, he replied quickly with a few caustic cracks of his own.

THAT'S ALL

"He's a buffoon," said Mathis, "a nitwit for saying those things. He's talking about ending it in five, six or seven rounds because that's all he'll be able to go."

"I've never been knocked down or knocked out and it won't happen against him, you can be sure. He knows only one way to fight. He comes at you. He makes plenty of mistakes, and believe me I'm going to take advantage of them. His tongue may be hanging out after the seventh round, if he's around by then, although I'm prepared to go 15."

Mathis was scheduled to wind up his unusually strenuous boxing campaign today. He has boxed nearly 150 rounds, two of them 15-round sessions, in eight weeks at his camp here.

Despite the optimistic talk from the Mathis camp, Frazier held as the 2-1 favorite in the 15-rounder for the world heavyweight title, New York, Massachusetts and Illinois versions. Illinois awarded recognition Thursday.

WAITING WILLIE — Detroit Tigers' Willie Horton rests his foot on the batting cage as he awaits his turn at bat at the Tigers' training camp in Lakeland, Fla. That left leg of Willie's kept him out of 43 games last season. He underwent operations during the winter and the leg is now on the mend.

Titans Even Mark in Home Finale

DETROIT (AP) — The University of Detroit evened its record at 12-12 in its last home game of the season, an easy 90-65 pasting of John Carroll University of Cleveland, Ohio, Thursday night in nonconference basketball.

The Titans went ahead, 15-13, on a jump shot by Tommy Richardson with 12:57 left in the first half, and breezed into a big lead they maintained to the end.

John Carroll is 5-12 on the season.

Tom Mullally led John Carroll with 17 points, while Detroit's Larry Salci got 17. All five Detroit starters scored in double figures.

Indiana Tanker Beats Record

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Indiana speedster Charlie Hickcox cracked the conference record in the 20-yard individual medley event of the Big Ten swimming championships Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

Battling against defending champion Marty Knight of Minnesota and Juan Bello, a sparkling newcomer from Michigan, Hickcox churned to victory in one minute, 57 and 47-100 seconds.

He broke a record that he set in Thursday's preliminaries of 1:57.7, passing the old Big Ten record of 1:58.77 set by Knight in 1967.

Bello, a sophomore and triple gold medal winner in the recent South American Games, came in second. Knight was third.

FREE STYLE WIN

Bello, of Lima, Peru, sparked a flurry of excitement in anchoring the winning Michigan team in the 800-yard freestyle relay.

He swam the last leg of 200 yards in 1:42.0, the fastest time so far this year in the United States. In doing it, he caught and passed Olympic champion Bob Windle who was anchoring the Indiana team which took second place. The Michigan foursome of Bello, Gary Kinkead, Mike O'Connor and John Salassa captured the event in 7:02.94.

In a fluke, Fred Southward of Indiana was judged first in the 500-yard freestyle but Kinkead was timed the fastest by the electronic timer.

500-yard Freestyle—1, Fred Southward, Indiana; 2, Gary Kinkead, Michigan; 3, Mike O'Connor, Michigan; 4, Bob Windle, Indiana; 5, Bill Swano, Wisconsin; 6, Rolf Groseth, Michigan State. Time: 4:46.60 by Kinkead. (Breaks old Michigan pool record by Carl Robie, Michigan, 4:48.6 in 1967.) (Southward judged first, but timed at 4:46.61)

200-yard Individual Medley—1, Charlie Hickcox, Indiana; 2, Juan Bello; Michigan; 3, Marty Knight, Minnesota; 4, Bill Utley, Indiana; 5, Bruce Richards, Michigan State; 6, Art Stark, Illinois. Time: 1:57.47. (Breaks Big Ten record of 1:57.7 set by Hickcox in afternoon preliminaries. Old Big Ten record was 1:58.77 by Knight, 1967.)

50-yard Freestyle—1, Dan Milne, Purdue; 2, Fred Hogan, Wisconsin; 3, Rick Day, Northwestern; 4, Jeff Jackman, Ohio State; 5, Don Rauch, Michigan State; 6, Ken Wilebeck, Michigan. Time: :21.44. (Breaks old pool record of :21.5 in preliminary events by Milne and Bill Groff, Michigan.)

1-Meter Diving—1, Jim Henry, Indiana; 2, Chuck Knorr, Ohio State; 3, Win Young, Indiana; 4, Julian Krug, Wisconsin; 5, Fred Brown, Michigan; 6, Don Dunfield, Wisconsin. Points: 514.65.

800-Yard Freestyle Relay—1, Michigan (Juan Bello, Gary Kinkead, Mike O'Connor, John Salassa); 2, Indiana; 3, Michigan State; 4, Wisconsin; 5, Minnesota; 6, Ohio State. Time: 7:02.94.

Maravich on First Team

Leads All-American

NEW YORK (AP) — Elvin Hayes, the Big E of the top-ranked University of Houston cougars dominated the 1968 college basketball All-American announced today by The Associated Press.

Lew Alcindor of UCLA, Westley Unseld of Louisville, Pete Maravich of Louisiana State and Larry Miller of North Carolina rounded out the first team picked by the votes of 322 sports writers and broadcasters.

★ ★ ★

The 6-foot-8 Hayes, the 7-1½ Alcindor and the 6-8 Unseld are repeaters from the 1967 A-A. Maravich, a 6-5 sophomore, is the nation's leading collegiate scorer. Miller, a 6-3 senior, led North Carolina to 20 straight victories. Hayes and Unseld also are seniors while Alcindor is a junior.

Calvin Murphy, a 5-10 soph of Niagara, headed the second team which included Neal Walk of Florida, Bob Lanier of St. Bonaventure, Lucius Allen of UCLA and Don May of Dayton.

THIRD TEAM

Mike Warren of UCLA, Rick Mount of Purdue, Jo Jo White of Kansas, Mike Lewis of Duke and Sam Williams of Iowa were selected as a third team.

Members of each of these teams will receive certificates from The Associated Press.

Bill Hosket of Ohio State, Don Smith of Iowa State, Jim McMillian of Columbia, Joe Allen of Bradley, Mike Casey of Kentucky, Ron Williams of West Virginia, Ron Nelson of New Mexico, Rich Travis of Oklahoma City and Merv Jackson of Utah were foremost of the honorable mentions.

Hayes, who scored 39 points as Houston snapped UCLA's 47-game winning streak in January and on Feb. 24 got 62 against Valparaiso as Houston set a single game record of 158 points, almost had a perfect score in the balloting.

The Big E, the second highest career scorer in college records, was picked on the first team by 320 voters. The other two put him on the second team. He missed a perfect total of 1,610 points by only six with his 1,604 aggregate. Five points were given for a first team nod, two points for a second team vote.

★ ★ ★

The towering Alcindor, who led in the voting a year ago, polled 311 firsts and 10 seconds for 1,575 points. Maravich, known as Pistol Pete and the first soph to crack the 1,000-point scoring barrier in a single season, finished a surprise third in the voting.

Memorial Game Slated Saturday

A benefit basketball twin bill has been scheduled Saturday night for the Jefferson JHS gymnasium.

Planned by the Pontiac Varsity Club for the benefit of the Issac Jones Memorial Scholarship, the double-header has P.O.O.B.Y. meeting Lee's Questionables at 7 p.m. and Club I Spot tackling Conn's Clothes at 9 p.m.

★ ★ ★

Physical education classes at Jefferson will give a halftime exhibition of their training techniques. Admission is a $1 donation to the scholarship fund.

Club president David Simmons said the program is planned as an annual fund raising project.

Inter-Loop Play in Waterford

Helps Decide City Rec Cage Title

Struggling P.O.O.B.Y. came up with its best performance of the season Thursday night and resolved the regular-season battle for the top spot in the city men's Class A recreation basketball race.

P.O.O.B.Y. outgunned Conn's Clothes, 79-72, to keep the men's store from tying Club 1 Spot for the lead. It was the third loss for Conn's and only the fifth win for P.O.O.B.Y.

A 47-35 spread in the middle two quarters, plus 35-31 edge from the field keyed the victory. Emmett Elliott of the winners edged Les Hardiman of Conn's, 29-26 to take the scoring laurels.

In the other American League encounter, Booth Homes needed only five players to down Perry Drugs, 65-49, in a duel for third place. Chuck Phillips' 27 and Roy Allen's 18 led the win.

In a National League meeting, leader Sam Allen & Son sped to a 25-12 lead and coasted to an 81-72 triumph as five players hit twin figures against Local 594. Bob Carter of the losers took game point honors with his 22.

Waterford Township's men's basketball action featured the National League tailenders taking two of three tilts from the American League bottom teams.

The Huntoon Cougars of the NL ended an 11-game loss skid by routing once - victorious Mattingly Realty, 60-33. Jerry Moore of Huntoon's tallied 23 and Jim Jones 20 for the losers.

The L.L.B.'s of the NL held off Struble Realty for a 59-53 win after leading, 49-28. Sam Gibbons topped the marksmen with 26 for Struble's.

Prep Scorers Return

The leading point producers in this year's Oakland County basketball scoring race will have an opportunity to continue their duel next year.

Two of the top three are juniors and the other is a sophomore.

Claiming the 1967-68 scoring championship is 5-11 guard Tim Megge of Orchard Lake St. Mary, who guided the Eaglets to the Northwest Parochial League crown and to an over-all record of 13-3.

In 16 contests, Megge tallied 426 points for an average of 26.6.

Close on his heels was Jack Zwemer of Detroit Country Day, who had some trouble at the start of the campaign but came on to mark up a 25.7 average through 14 games.

SHARP SOPH

Sophomore Tom Carter of Roeper School finished with 414 points through a 17-game schedule for a mark of 24.3.

Trailing those three were Tim Blach of Madison, Jim Merchel of Hazel Park, Scott Bennett of South Lyon and Bob Burt of Avondale.

Dave MacDonald reigned as the kingpin in the Saginaw Valley Conference with an average of 25.5. Pontiac Central's Frank Russell held the No. 2 spot with an average of 20.5 going into tonight's finale against Saginaw Arthur Hill.

Waterford Crowns Rec Point Leaders

The scoring races are over in the three recreation basketball leagues in Waterford Township.

Dave Dodd of Powell's Trucking checked in with an average of 23.6 through 10 games to claim the Continental League crown, while Jerry Hill of Day's Sanitary posted a 21.0 mark to take the runner-up spot.

Winning the title in the American League was Haskin's Bob Adsit with a mark of 20.5. Struble's Sam Gibbons placed second at 20.1.

Mike Miley of Drayton Drug sported a 25.8 average in claiming the National League championship. O'Neil's Denny Brosseau was well back in second place at 20.2.

DH Free Methodist Remains Undefeated

Drayton Heights Free Methodist clinched the Pontiac Church League basketball championship last night with a 72-56 victory over Stone Baptist.

The unbeaten Drayton Heights squad (9-0) was paced by Les Dietzman with 27 points and Mike Peterson with 17. Gerland Spangler tallied 25 for Stone (6-3).

In other games, Northeast Community (4-5), down 54-38 after three quarters, erupted for 31 points to trim United Missionary (0-9), 69-63, while Pontiac First Free Methodist (4-5) turned back Auburn Heights Free Methodist (4-5), 75-50.

Phil Walters scored 24 points to lead the Northeast victory. Dick Williams tallied 24 for United Missionary.

Tom Charlton took game-scoring honors in a losing effort for Auburn Heights with 36 markers. Jack Niedrick (25) and Dave Houston (23) led the Pontiac quintet.

Lists Pairings

BROOKVILLE, N. Y., (UPI) — Top-ranked Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., will meet Rosemary Casals of San Francisco in the opening round of the second annual Long Island indoor tournament on Saturday.

Manuel Santana of Spain drew Eugene Scott of St. James, N. Y., as his first opponent in the two-day round robin tournament.

Young Bob Chamberlain of Union Lake learned the facts of tournament classic bowling this year in a hurry and he showed the intestinal fortitude that marks a potential champion.

The 19-year-old Walled Lake High School graduate, who is making a living as a draftsman with the X-Cell-O Company, reached a high point in his brief bowling career Monday at his first American Bowling Congress Tournament.

After adjusting his line to the head pin, Chamberlain roared through his singles (647) and doubles (652) action to jump into second place in All Events with an 1890 total. This was a 210 average for his initial nine games of ABC competition.

* * *

Last month the bright young kegler also posted a 210 tempo in the Detroit Masters qualifying and didn't make the final cut down. In fact, he wasn't very close to the top 32 since it took a 217.

This undoubtedly stunned the promising Chamberlain at least a little bit. After all, he finished third in the Pontiac Actuals Invitational last December with a 673 total.

Then when he debuted Sunday in the ABC Tournament in the team event, Chamberlain admitted he couldn't find a satisfactory line to the head pin. In fact it wasn't until the middle of his first game Monday that he zeroed in.

Teaming with Jerry Owczarski, a Waterford Township HS senior, he was part of a tournament high 512 doubles game that helped them then into seventh place in that event with a 1230 total.

The 17-year-old Owczarski is another outstanding young prospect in local bowling, already having a Dublin Doubles Tournament title to his credit (teaming with a brother) three years ago.

Both Bob and Jerry bowl in the Wednesday night Cooley Lanes Senior House League on opposing teams, and they're up Monday night in the Wonderland Masters circuit.

SPARE PINS

A team captained by Pontiac's Millie Anderson, Happyland Shows captured the State Elks Women's Bowling Tournament top prize at Battle Creek by bowling a 1981 handicap total.

Other squad members were Eve Miller, Glenda Sheffer, Reggie Reid and Ollie Bogard.

North Hill Lanes will have its third annual Twosomes Tourney March 23-24 and 30-31. Any combination of an adult and a junior bowler is eligible to enter.

GETTING IN SHAPE — Richie Allen of Philadelphia works on a special exercise to strengthen his right hand, the one he injured while pushing a stalled car last summer. In the mishap, Allen suffered a cut hand and wrist that put him out of action for the last 40 games. He poled 23 homers and batted .307 before bowing out.

BOWLING

A rousing 3215 team series — including 1090-1009-1116 games — by Pontiac Janitor Supply was the highlight last week in the Huron Bowl Classic.

Bill Kirkland paced the outburst, rolling a 223-257—694 effort; and he had well balanced help from Dick Beamer (636), Ed Austreng (630), Jack Mason (629), and Joe Foster (626) as the quintet posted the third highest team series reported locally this season.

Two Jim's Standard Service keglers vied for high game honors. Bill Pittman registered a 265 in a 669 and Merv Weber hit a 257 during a 654. Gary Greene recorded a 236-247—679 effort.

A big 268 game in a 647 series by Lou VanDruska and a solid 231 - 238 — 651 performance by Ray Conley featured last Friday's Howe's Lanes Senior Classic.

There was also a 211-247—640 by Denny Leake and Bill Pfahlert hit 225-225—634. Other good games included 239s by Phil Christos and Art Latimer, plus a 232 by Ben Anderson.

The 300 Bowl Classic last week also divided the laurels. Brooks Robertson's 231-221—653 led the totals but Al Pietz had high game with his 255 (631). Walt Honchell and Ed Austreng each had 232s.

Dave Eby rolled 226-234—629 and Ray Bishop posted a 227. Wohlfeil Dee swept eight points to gain one point on league-leading Deni's Market.

Add Millie Anderson's name to the women's local high score list. Her 256 game (618 series) in the 300 Bowl Saturday night Ins & Outers Bird League put her in a three-way tie for the fifth highest game this season.

Lady Bowlers in City Action

Tournament Slated for Sylvan Lanes

Approximately 670 Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association members are scheduled to appear in their 35th annual City Tournament that will begin tomorrow evening at Sylvan Lanes.

The opening ceremonies are slated for 8:30 p.m. with a team event to follow. In all, 166 teams will compete during the five weekends of action.

Singles and doubles action are scheduled for Sundays with more than 285 twosomes and 570 singles entered.

The prize money totals $4,449 plus trophies. The competition is Woman's International Bowling Congress-sanctioned.

Defending champions this year are Sport Center Trophies, Mable Wilson-Carol Carter, and Shirley Grusnick. Pat Donner and Mrs. Carter were the all events leaders in 1967.

William Howard Taft was the first president to pitch a ball to open baseball season. He threw the first pitch April 14, 1910.

Battle for Third Highlights Play of Brigade Fives

The hot battle for third place in the Christian Service Brigade boys' basketball program grew warmer this week as two of the three teams sharing the berth almost upset the loop's top two quintets.

Marimont Baptist scared pacesetter Sunnyvale Chapel by forcing the once-beaten squad into overtime before losing a 46-40 decision Tuesday.

The Baptists bounced back for a 38-21 conquest of Waterford Community last night.

Another third-place squad, First Social Brethren battled runner-up First Baptist of Lake Orion for four quarters but dropped a 48-44 verdict. Larry Heltsley hit 21 points for the winners.

Sunnyvale continued its winning ways by topping Stone Baptist, 46-31.

Tankers Sharp in Finale

The Barons of Bloomfield Hills Andover set five records last night as they closed the swimming campaign with a 74-36 victory over Bloomfield Hills Lahser.

Chick Adams led the Barons with a pair of wins. He took the 50-yard freestyle in 24.2 seconds and the 100 freestyle in 54.8.

Dave Groth opened Andover's assault on the records with a 2:03.1 clocking in the 200 freestyle.

Jeff Klann of Andover and Kevin Trimmer of Lahser shared first in a record time of 2:22.4 in the 200 individual medley; Rich Matheny piled up 221.30 points to set a diving mark; Andy Eller of Andover and Trimmer were clocked at 4:36.9 in beating the 400-yard freestyle mark; and the Andover team of Dave Vanker, Tom Gwillim, Russ Slade and Groth turned in a record 3:44.2 in the 400 freestyle relay.

Rich Amann of Lahser turned in a pool record of 59.5 seconds in the 100 butterfly.

Andover finished with a 12-5 dual record.

Federal Antipoverty Guidelines Blasted

WASHINGTON (AP) — A council of state antipoverty officials has sharply attacked federal guidelines on administration of local antipoverty programs and called on the nation's governors to act now to get the guidelines recast.

Members of the council charged that the guidelines drafted by the Office of Economic Opportunity had cut off states from any meaningful participation in local community action programs.

★ ★ ★

"Gee, we weren't told anything about any meeting like that," said an official at OEO headquarters. "This is the first I've heard anything about it."

He had no further comment.

At a private, unannounced meeting here Thursday, the state officials wrote a strong position paper charging that the OEO, in laying down the guidelines early in February, had misinterpreted amendments to the Economic Opportunity Act passed last year by Congress.

PROGRAM CONTROL

One provision of the new law—the Green Amendment—gave control of community action programs to elected state, county or local officials or nonprofit groups designated by them.

But the guidelines said states would have a role in providing assistance and coordination only "in exceptional cases" and that "OEO will give preference to recognition of community action agencies which have been designated by local political subdivisions rather than by states."

★ ★ ★

They completed their paper Thursday and immediately submitted it to the influential Health and Welfare Committee of the National Governors Conference, also meeting here.

The committee is headed by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

A council member, Glen Jermstad of Arkansas, told The Associated Press that the OEO guidelines "in effect cut out the states as community action agencies."

STATE PLANNING

The council paper contended that because the governors had responsibility for state planning, they should also have some control over disbursement of federal funds allocated to community action programs in their states.

"We feel that (the law) has been improperly interpreted by OEO," Jermstad said. "We think it was the intent of Congress to give us a larger role.

★ ★ ★

"We've asked the governors to take a positive role—positive action—on the interpretation by OEO. We hope the full body will take a stand that the OEO interpretation is incorrect and get something done about it."

Several governors have done something about it.

Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller of Arkansas, with Jermstad, personally delievered a statewide community action plan to federal OEO director Sargent Shriver early this year.

Jermstad characterized their reception as "something short of enthusiastic."

Gov. Jack Williams of Arizona declared on Feb. 13 that his office would be the community action agency for his state.

★ ★ ★

A congressional source described his action as "throwing down the gauntlet right at OEO's feet."

Mississippi, Texas and Oregon reportedly were considering similar action.

Rep. Edith Green, D-Ore., author of the Green Amendment, also has taken sharp exception with the OEO guidelines.

★ ★ ★

She has asked Chairman Carl Perkins, D-Ky., of the House Education and Labor Committee to call Shriver to Capitol Hill in an attempt to resolve the issues.

Perkins expressed some reluctance to interfere more than necessary with the administration of OEO but it is believed he will talk to Shriver soon.

Part of State Facing Beetle Quarantine

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Southwest Lower Michigan faces a federal quarantine unless the Japanese beetle infestation in Berrien County is brought under control, a State Agriculture Department official said.

★ ★ ★

"Either we get the beetle or we go under quarantine," Dean Levitt, chief of the Michigan Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Plant Industry said. Southwest Lower Michigan is a heavy fruit and vegetable growing area.

★ ★ ★

Levitt addressed a meeting of nurserymen and landscapers in Grand Rapids Wednesday.

People in the News

By The Associated Press

A woman born 104 years ago celebrated her 25th birthday yesterday in Chicago.

"I don't look too bad for 25," said Mrs. Juliana Boudinot, who was born in Springfield, Ill., Feb. 29, 1864.

Because of Leap Year, she misses out on three birthdays every four years.

But, she doesn't mind having a Leap Year birth date. "Birthdays were wonderful when I was a kid," she said. "I got four times as many gifts as anyone else. It was a big celebration—like having a wedding."

Mrs. Boudinot, who drinks a can of beer a day, even though "it's not like it used to be," advises: "Live right, live longer," and "drink beer."

Princess Vacations in Barbados

Princess Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, left London airport today for a two-week vacation in Barbados. The couple will visit New York after their stay in Barbados.

Miniskirt Dresses Up Barbershop

The high price of haircuts has its compensations in the barbershop of a Columbus, Ohio, hotel.

It's the shapely form of Susie Harris, 21, a miniskirted, clipper-wielding barber.

Miss Harris says she prefers casual minidresses that won't pick up hair," and is "tired of plain old smocks."

Miss Harris is licensed as a barber and a beautician.

"I just decided I wanted to work with men instead of women," she said of her barberchair assignment. "They're easier to talk to and get along with."

Security Council Presidency Rotates

Ambassador Ousmane Soce Diop of Senegal started a month's term as president of the U.N. Security Council today, succeeding Ambassador Miguel Solano Lopez of Paraguay. The presidency rotates each month among the 15 countries on the council in alphabetical order.

OUT IN THE RAIN—An umbrella shields the main participants in yesterday's rainy retirement ceremonies for Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara at the Pentagon. President Johnson, flanked by McNamara and Deputy Defense Secretary Paul Nitze (right), was the main speaker. He and McNamara arrived late for the ceremony because they were stuck in a jammed elevator for 12 minutes. The public address system failed during the ceremony, and the rain washed out a planned aerial salute.

Year-Round School OK'd

DURAND (AP) — The Durand Board of Education has decided to lengthen its school year to a full year effective in 1969. It would be the first year-round operation of any school in Michigan in recent years.

Pupils, however, would be required to attend only to the 180 days of school required under the current system, Durand school officials said.

★ ★ ★

Vacations would be staggered to allow smooth operation of the plan, they said.

A number of school districts in Michigan have been studying plans for year-round classes, but Durand is the first to adopt definite plans for the system.

ENROLLMENT

The Durand district has an enrollment of 3,057, drawn from the town of Durand and neighboring villages of Bancroft and Lennon in Shiawasee County 15 miles west of Flint. The area's economy primarily is agricultural and light industrial.

Durand's 38-year-old school superintendent, John Koczman, says the 12-month plan is "a coming trend."

★ ★ ★

"This is not new at all. It operates in New York. They're operating it in Florida," he added, noting that studies are under way currsently in some other Michigan districts.

The last time a 12-month school system operated in Michigan was about 1934, he said, but Koczman did not recall details of that system.

NO PLAN YET

He said the Durand school board so far has decided only to put the full-year operation in effect.

"We do not have an adopted plan," he said.

★ ★ ★

But, Koczman said, in about two weeks school officials will name a committee of educators, civic leaders and parents to choose from among a number of systems for their district.

She's a Mother at 9 Years of Age

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Mrs. Ronald Jacobs of Tulsa had a baby on her ninth birthday yesterday.

The new mother, 36-year-old, was born on Feb. 29. Now her new daughter will have a birthday only every four years, too.

McNamara Farewell Monumental Snafu

WASHINGTON (AP) — The huge, ornate desk from which Robert S. McNamara guided the Defense Department for 7 years and 39 days was dinner-plate clean at quitting time Thursday for the first time in 7 years and 39 days.

The President of the United States put in a telephone call to McNamara at 5:25 p.m., only to find McNamara had departed. It was the first time in anyone's memory that McNamara had left early.

In short, Robert Strange McNamara acted like any other man leaving a job and heading for a month-long vacation. He cut out at 5:10.

By 11:30 this morning, scheduled swearing-in time for successor Clark M. Clifford, the 51-year-old McNamara expected to be skiing near Aspen, Colo.

ALL FOULED UP

His official departure from the Pentagon turned into a monumental snafu—the GI's word for "situation's normal—all fouled up."

• To begin with, it rained for the first time in 27 days—driest February on record—throughout the 25-minute outdoor ceremony.

• The elevator taking McNamara, President Johnson and 11 others to the second-floor river-entrance level of the Pentagon became stuck. Elevator No. 13, someone noted, just wasn't used to carrying 13 passengers.

"This is what's wrong with there being 29 days in February," joked McNamara. He and the President had to be boosted to a pried-open door, with Johnson quipping: "I never knew it took so long to get to the top in the Pentagon." They were 15 minutes late to the ceremony.

• The public address system, intended to carry words of praise for McNamara to several thousand huddling miserably in 30-degree cold, became rain-soaked along with the participants. The spectators heard none of Gen. Earle G. Wheeler's remarks and only snatches of President Johnson's.

• For 10 minutes, the President and the outgoing secretary of defense stood, with remarkable dignity, under one umbrella, until an Army officer commandereed a second one.

• A flyover of 20 military planes was canceled because of the weather, but 14 noisy commercial airliners managed to take off from nearby National Airport and drown out the few words that squeaked through the water-logged loudspeakers. The roar of one almost eclipsed the 19-gun salute.

President Johnson had on a topcoat, but McNamara was coatless. By the time the secretary went back inside, his blue suit was wet and creaseless, his shoes were covered with grass and his famed rimless glasses smeared with rain.

Woman, 5, Gives Birth to Baby Boy

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Connie Utley celebrated her fifth birthday Thursday by giving birth to an 8-pound 2½-ounce boy.

Mrs. Utley, wife of Salt Lake City Postal Clerk Russell D. Utley, was born Leap Year Day 1948. Like his mother, young Russell won't celebrate his fifth birthday until he is 20 years old, in 1988.

14 Make Commission Bid

City Polls Open Monday

By BOB WISLER

Registered voters in four Pontiac districts will go to the polls Monday to nominate eight city commission candidates.

Fourteen candidates — including two incumbent commissioners — in Districts 1, 4, 5 and 7 are vying for nominations.

Voters in each district will select two men to face each other in the city's general election April 15.

There will be no primary voting in Districts 2, 3 and 6. In each of these districts only two persons per district filed nominating petitions as candidates.

★ ★ ★

The primary election is held to narrow the list of candidates to two per district.

CANDIDATES LISTED

Seeking nomination in each of the districts where a primary will be held Monday are:

District 1 — Incumbent T. Warren Fowler Sr., Charles M. Tucker Jr. and Robert J. Bowens Jr.

District 4 — F. Jack Douglas, Richard I. Moore, George Grba and Robert E. Grimmett.

District 5 — Arnold R. Jones, Rollie L. Jones and Robert F. Jackson.

District 7 — Incumbent James H. Marshall, Robert A. Landry, James B. Davis and Albert C.Shaw.

★ ★ ★

Candidates for election or reelection who do not face primary battles and who will be automatically nominated to face each other in the general election are:

★ ★ ★

District 2 — Commissioner Robert C. Irwin and Louis E. Fairbrother.

District 3 — Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. and Earl D. Spring Sr.

District 6 — Commissioner Wesley J. Wood and John F. Leonard.

Registered voters in the four districts where primary elections will be held total 20,293 out of a total 29,805 in the city, City Clerk Olga Barkeley said.

A breakdown of registered voters by districts (in districts where a primary election will be held): District 1—3,963; District 4—5,714; District 5—7,093; and District 7—3,523.

While the primary voting will narrow the candidates to 14 in the seven districts, there is no guarantee that there will not be write-in candidates in the general election.

★ ★ ★

Write-in candidates have frequently been a feature of Pontiac elections. In 1964, a write-in candidate, Emmett Wellbaum was elected to the City Commission over the two men who had been nominated in the primary.

The present City Commission has been together for the past two commission terms. Six of the seven commissioners were elected or reelected in 1964 with Marshall being appointed in November 1964.

All seven of the commissioners were reelected in 1966.

With Commissioners Leslie H. Hudson and John A. Dugan dropping out of contention this year the commission is bound to have at least two new faces in District 4 and 5.

★ ★ ★

Voters have been cautioned to vote for only one candidate.

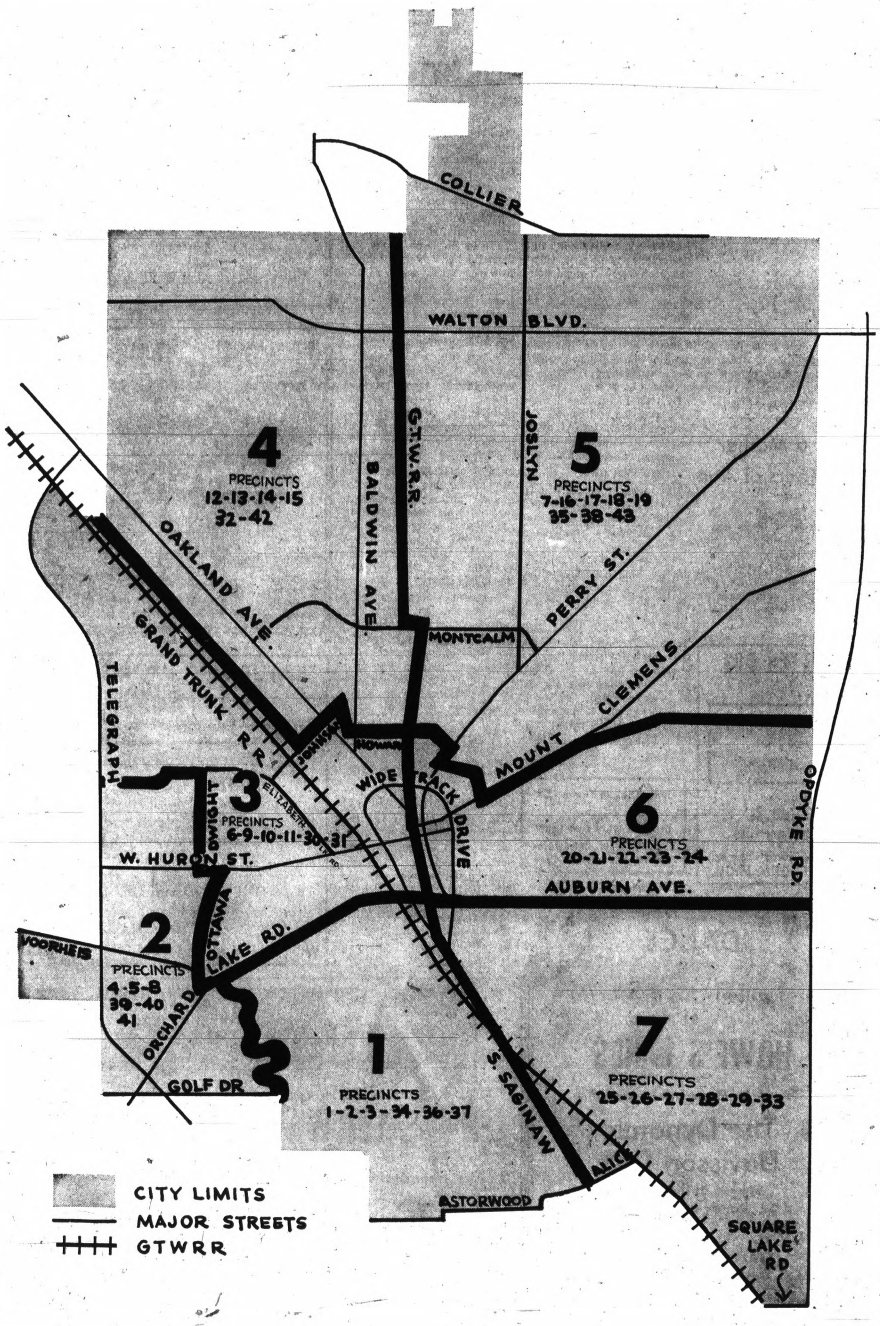
Absentee ballots can be picked up at City Hall until 2 p.m. tomorrow, Mrs. Barkeley said. They must be returned in time to be counted Monday, she said.

Pontiac Polling Places Listed

The following is the list of 26 polling places for Monday's City Commission primary election.

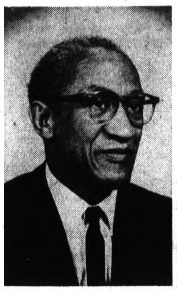
The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. No Primaries in Districts 2, 3 and 6.

District 1	District 4	District 5	District 7
Precinct	Precinct	Precinct	Precinct
1 Jefferson Junior High	12 Wisner School	7 Herrington School	25 McConnell School
2 Fire Station No. 2	13 Lincoln Junior High	16 LeBaron School	26 McConnell School
3 Bagley School	14 Lincoln Junior High	17 Emerson School	27 Wilson School
34 Bethune School	15 Owen School	18 McCarroll School	28 Wilson School
36 Jefferson Junior High	32 Waver School	19 St. Michael's Hall	29 Wilson School
37 Jefferson Junior High	42 Owen School	35 LeBaron School	33 Frost School
		38 Mark Twain School
		43 Malkim School



PONTIAC DISTRICTS—This map shows Pontiac's seven City Commission districts and the precincts in each district. Primary elections will be held Monday in only Districts 1, 4, 5 and 7. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

District 1



T. WARREN FOWLER SR.

T. Warren Fowler Sr., 61, of 57 Lake, a heating and electrical contractor, is completing his second two-year City Commission term.

A 40-year resident, he has served on the police trial board and the Pontiac Area Urban League.

His statement:

"I am a candidate for reelection to the City Commission from District 1 because I would like to continue participating in the progress the city is now beginning to make. Some of the more important things I will continue to pursue for increased progress are:

"Vigorous action to seek out developers to initiate the redevelopment of downtown Pontiac.

"Determined effort by all citizens to bring about a harmonious relationship between citizens of all races and creeds.

"As a total community we should especially examine and develop solutions for those problems that are particularly unique to the black community, and therefore relieve much of the prevailing tension in our city.

"In the area of housing there should be continued effort to fulfill the public housing needs; however, there should be increased encouragement of private single-residence construction.

"We need an increased, strengthened and well-trained police department for increased, but absolutely fair law enforcement."

ROBERT J. BOWENS

Robert J. Bowens, 45, of 316 Harrison is making his third try for a City Commission post in District 1.

An employe of Pontiac Motor Division since 1945, he has been a member of the Oakland County Democratic Committee Executive Board, a delegate to the State Constitutional Convention and the Masons.

His statement:

"I want to be elected to help this city solve its many problems and to cut down on cost and waste. I want to do everything I can to build up Pontiac and to bring about a new city, a new downtown and togetherness.

"I also want to go to whatever lengths necessary to bring people together and to eliminate distrust and tension. There has to be a sincere meeting of minds and we can't waste time appointing committees.

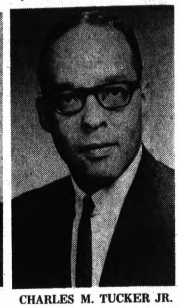
★ ★ ★

"Housing in this city is a severe problem and it makes no sense that this city and state are so wealthy and yet we have antiquated and inadequate housing. We must eliminate slums.

"Downtown deterioation has gone on too long. Steps must be taken to get together so that we can have a new downtown and a spirit to bring it about.

★ ★ ★

"My purpose in running is not to degrade anyone, past or present, but to do what is necessary for the total good of our community."



CHARLES M. TUCKER JR.

Charles M. Tucker Jr., 35, of 161 Earlemoor, president of Tucker Realty and Mark Mortgage Service Co., also ran for the City Commission from District 1 in 1966.

Past president of the Oakland County NAACP, he is a member of the Pontiac Housing Study Committee, Oakland County Child Guidance Clinics, Rema Club, Pontiac Area Urban League and Chamber of Commerce.

His statement:

"I believe we can together, through communication and cooperation, do something ourselves for our district and city. We can, together, bring respect, dignity and understanding while making our community and city a clean, wholesome, safe place to live and raise our families.

★ ★ ★

"This is not a time for politics but for responsible and representative leadership, we must have increased police and fire protection and adequate city services. There should be established a police-community relations department which can do much to bring about understanding and cooperation. We need more Negro policemen.

★ ★ ★

"Our racial problems can't be solved by only reacting but by dedication, continuous communication, understanding and mutual trust."

District 5

ROBERT F. JACKSON

Robert F, Jackson, 41, of 1075 Featherstone is a professional real estate appraiser.

His statement:

"We must attack crime of all kinds and make the city a safe place for all to live. This is going to take the help of all citizens of Pontiac.

"The police department must be improved and so must the attitude of the people.

"The central business district can not be allowed to stand vacant any longer. The city must advertise its good points, such as its geographical center of the future megalopolis which will extend from Toledo to Bay City, its favorable industrial base and its favorable labor supply.

The city must settle on a good financial and structural development plan. "I believe the best development plan presented so far is that presented by the University of Detroit.

"A commissioner should be able to work with the citizens so they can solve their own problems with the full cooperation and assistance of the city government. Our representative system must find a way to move into the districts and work on a one-to-one basis with the people and their problems. This can be done if the proper attitude prevails at the commission table.

"I want to give of my time and efforts to start Pontiac on its way to becoming the outstanding city it deserves to be."

ARNOLD R. JONES

Arnold R, Jones, 41, of 672 Linda Vista, a public relations specialist with Michigan Blue Cross, is seeking a commission post for the first time.

★ ★ ★

President of the Pontiac Knolls Good Neighbor Club, past president of the Detroit Academy of Advertising Arts and past director of information for the Great Lakes Region of the Civil Air Patrol, he has been active in city and congressional district politics since 1963.

He holds a certificate in industrial advertising from the University of Michigan.

His statement:

"I believe the people of Pontiac want more police and fire protection; I believe they want referendum rights, constitutional law and order, local self-rule, revenue-producing use of downtown wasteland, and peaceful, clean and quiet neighborhoods.

★ ★ ★

"I, too, want these things. I have worked for the principles these viewpoints represent in the past and I will continue to do so.

★ ★ ★

I believe lasting achievements for the benefit of all mankind can be made without sacrificing basic freedoms and without centralizing power in the hands of a few."

ROLLIE L. JONES

Rollie L. Jones, 49, of 49 Victory is making his second bid for the commission. He ran in 1964 placing first in the primary voting in District 1 but was defeated in the citywide election.

Jones, a teacher at Jefferson Junior High School, holds a master's degree in education and has taken courses at Wayne State University toward a doctorate. He has been active in the Pontiac Federation of Teachers, the PTA and veterans associations.

His statement:

"There are many problems in the city and I am concerned about all of them.

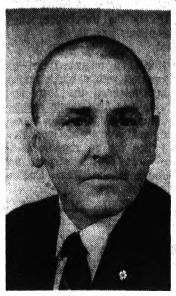
"Redevelopment of downtown is important. It is dead with nothing beautiful to see. Parking is something else. When you do find a parking place it's a mile to the place you would like to go. We should contact several experts and let them bring their plans so a committee can study or review the facts and see if it fits our budget.

★ ★ ★

"The housing shortage. Do we have one, or is this for the Negro? If those who qualify would be given the chance to purchase the house of their choice we would not have as much a shortage as we do.

"I am a supporter of human rights, human dignity and self-respect. I believe there should be jobs for all who qualify with no line drawn according to race, creed or color."

District 4



F. JACK DOUGLAS

F. Jack Douglas, 46, of 1644 Charleston is making his first bid for a City Commission post in District 4.

A resident since 1940, Douglas served with the city's fire department for 18½ years, attaining rank of captain, before being elected to the full-time job of president of the Oakland County AFL-CIO Council.

His statement:

"I am a candidate for City Commission because I believe I can make a contribution toward solving the many problems existing in the City of Pontiac, such as:

★ ★ ★

● "Housing for our many elderly and low-income families.

● "Downtown development — I will work to attract developers and interest them in our downtown urban renewal property.

● "Community centers and recreational facilities for our youth and elderly citizens.

★ ★ ★

"These problems have been neglected too long and I am confident I can make a start to get the city on the move. We need people on the commission who have the imagination and courage to make Pontiac a better city in which to live.

"Having been active in a number of areas, I feel I am familiar with the problems of the city and can make a contribution to the solution of these problems."

GEORGE GRBA

George Grba, 37, of 28 Kimball is making his third try for a City Commission seat from District 4. He finished first in District 4 primary balloting in 1966 but lost in the citywide election.

A native of Pontiac and a veteran of the Korean conflict, he is a graduate of Ferris State College.

He is presently employed as chief maintenance inspector for the Oakland County Department of Public Works.

His statement:

"The City of Pontiac is a dying community in need of salvation. To have salvation it is necessary for a man to be born again, and so it is with our city.

"Pontiac must rid itself of those people who have turned the waters bitter, and now say they will make it sweet.

"The city must be rebuilt with several villages to protect the family—a downtown elevated deck concept, a good road network that will tie the villages, commercial and industrial areas into a beautiful city — a Pontiac that tourists will want to see.

★ ★ ★

"As a city commissioner I will build a root foundation that represents and unites people, business and industry to the highest attainment possible—the good life, a city where no one will be afraid to walk at night."

ROBERT E. GRIMMETT

Robert E. Grimmett, 44, of 274 W. Columbia, a city resident for the past 11 years, is making his first bid for public office.

A member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles 2887 and a precinct delegate for four years, he has been an engineer with the Penn Central Railroad for 22 years. He is a World War II Veteran.

His statement:

"Our city government needs attention. Strict city administration is a must in our society today. To cover past mistakes or misguided ideas more taxes have been demanded by the present commission.

"Citizen rights to vote have been denied. Service to the citizens must come first.

★ ★ ★

"The faith in the City Commission must be restored by the people and a new commission must give the people faith by their actions.

"A good up-to-date police force and fire department are essential. Businessmen in downtown Pontiac must come up with ideas and money for a practical development in downtown Pontiac.

Visable and immediate steps must be taken for new housing developments in all sections of Pontiac.

"I believe in an independent Pontiac. I believe in the people of Pontiac improving their city and keeping it clean. State aid and government aid is simply money out of your own pocket."

RICHARD I. MOORE

Richard I. Moore, 55, of 432 Oakland, a salesman with the Ivan W. Schram Realty Co., has been a city resident since 1936.

A member of the Elks Lodge 810, Moore was the first state commander of the AMVETS, an original member of Oakland County Rent Control Board in 1947.

His statement:

"I believe the ever-increasing crime rate should be the concern of everyone. If elected I will ask the police and fire chiefs to make their needs known and do all in my power to see that they are fulfilled. I will seek a meaningful activation of police and fire reserves to fill emergencies.

"I feel that much can be done about the city's financial condition. The city should move quickly to get free enterprise interested in urban renewal properties and new businesses and industry that will help spread the tax base. In my judgment much money has been wasted and many economies can be effected.

"I would ask for enforcement of the city housing code to keep homes up to standard and also make every effort to obtain badly needed low-cost housing.

"The city has never taken an active part in a youth opportunity program. Let's have one.

"We need a human relations council composed of people who have lived in the city at least five years and composed mostly of grass-roots individuals."

District 7

JAMES H. MARSHALL

James H. Marshall, 65, of 185 S. Jessie is seeking reelection to the District 7 seat he has held since November 1964. He was appointed to fill a vacancy and elected to a two-year term in 1966.

Marshall was employed 40 years with GMC Truck & Coach Division, retiring as clerical supervisor in 1965. He attended schools in Washington and Romeo before coming to Pontiac in 1919.

His statement:

"I would like to call at each resident's house to discuss city problems with them. This is impossible because of the shortness of time before the election. I have mailed each registered voter in District 7 a letter. Please read it carefully.

"I believe the accomplishments in District 7 in the past four years prove to you, the voters, that I am capable of meeting the future problems as they arise. We in District 7 have been very progressive and we have many more plans for the future, such as individual homes and housing for senior citizens and low-income families.

★ ★ ★

"Now that we have increased income to the city, we will be able to increase our police protection and pay our employes wages comparable to surrounding communities.

"Let us all pull together for a better Pontiac. Be sure to vote Monday."

JAMES B. DAVIS JR.

James B. Davis Jr., 42, of 91 Willard is making his second attempt for election to the City Commission from District 7.

★ ★ ★

He was defeated in the primary election in 1966.

An employe of GMC Truck & Coach Division, Davis has worked with the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department over a number of years and with the McConnell Community School program.

A graduate of Pontiac Central High School, he served as vice president of the Southeast Community Improvement Association.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"It hurts to sit idly by and see your city become a ghost town. It's time that we the people do something about it.

★ ★ ★

"I believe the first thing to do is to get new blood on our commission. We need people, be they black or white, who know our problems.

★ ★ ★

"The time of excuses is in the past. We are at the crossroads and it's time to put up or shut up. I would like to be part of a working commission, one that has the people at heart, one that is working for unity."

ROBERT A. LANDRY

Robert A. Landry, 53, of 47 Center, Pontiac's mayor from 1962 to 1964 and a three-term city councilman, seeks election from District 7.

His statement:

"The need for strong leadership, vision, and action now is so urgent in Pontiac that I can not stand idly by without offering my services to alleviate the deplorable conditions under which we are today forced to live in this city. Let me point out two areas that need action now.

"One, public safety and law enforcement. It is the sole and full responsibility of the City Commission to guarantee public safety for all its citizens.

"Today, the public welfare is being subjected to the whims and fancies of those who are turning our public streets into an asphalt jungle. I can do something about that.

"We are a government of laws and not of men, therefore, law and order must be maintained regardless of the likes or dislikes of any or all individuals or groups of citizens in this city. The law must be fair, but must also be firm. I propose to do something about that.

"Two, racial tensions. Community relations were at their highest level four years ago. Today they are at their worst. If local officials do not solve problems with action then minor misunderstandings and false rumors, through inactivity alone, soon develop into issues of major proportions."

ALBERT C. SHAW

Albert C. Shaw, 47, of 196 O'Riley, community school director for the Jefferson Junior High School is making his first bid for office, seeking the District 7 nomination.

A World War II veteran and member of the Newman A.M.E. church, he is on the executive board of the Oakland County NAACP, vice chairman of the Voice of Oakland County Action League; adult adviser to Pontiac Organization of Black Youth and member of the Pontiac Area Urban League and of the youth program committee of the Pontiac YMCA.

His statement:

"Evidence abounds which points up the fact that racism is prevalent in our community. One of the surest ways to combat this evil is to bring the facts of racial differences to the front of our everyday lives.

★ ★ ★

"One of the ways which will be most meaningful to Pontiac will be to have more nonwhite representation on the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

"This must be achieved now — not the changing of nonwhite representation, but the addition of one or more minority group representatives on the commission so that the communication gap between majority and minority groups will become smaller."

Junior Editors Quiz on PARAKEETS

QUESTION: How do parakeets get their colors?

ANSWER: The color of a bird's feathers is determined in one of two ways, or a combination of both. Tiny grains of actual pigment may produce hues of black, brown, gray, red and sometimes orange and yellow. Or, a delicate structure of cells, constructed with tiny grooves or screens, overlays the feathers.

Our diagram at upper left shows how white light, passing through a prism, is dispersed into the colors of the rainbow. In the same way, the cells on certain feathers act like a prism, splitting the light up and bringing brilliant color to our eyes.

This is why the hummingbird flashes with jewel-like colors; why the peacock shimmers in vivid blues, violets and greens and why many birds of the parrot family, like the parakeet, appear so colorful.

The parakeets in our picture are telling us about their particular colors (parakeets can be trained to talk.) Why not color them with crayon or water color paint so you can appreciate their attractiveness still more?

Guild Is Seeking to Publish Union Paper in Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — Officials of the Detroit branch of the American Newspaper Guild today sought to form an alliance of unions to publish an interim paper during the city's newspaper shutdown, in its 107th day.

Thomas M. McMahon, executive secretary of the Newspaper Guild of Detroit, said that starting today his union officials will "devote the majority of our efforts to achieve publication of a joint union paper."

★ ★ ★

The city's major dailies, the afternoon Detroit News and the morning Detroit Free Press, have been idled since mid-November.

The Teamsters in January struck and forced out of publication two privately financed, interim papers.

Motorist Irked by Kansas Policy on Birth Dates

SALINA, Kan. (UPI) — The birth date listed on his driver's license has upset George F. Chlebak, an art instructor at Kansas Wesleyan College.

Chlebak was born Feb. 29, 1936. Thursday he wrote Gov. Robert Docking objecting to the Motor Vehicle Department using March 1.

★ ★ ★

A Kansas statute provides, with reference to drivers licenses, that "if any person's birthday is Feb. 29 the first day of March shall be regarded as his birthday."

Chlebak wrote Docking: "I maintain any listing of my birthdate other than Feb. 29, 1936, is invalid and insulting."

★ ★ ★

He was told earlier by the department that Feb. 29 would confuse the computers.

He's Grounded by the Weather

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — It was tough getting to work in Louisville Thursday, and no one realized it more than Police Lt. Jack Bynum. Snow turned to ice on the streets and traffic was so snarled that Bynum couldn't get downtown from his suburban home.

After a half-hour delay, a helicopter picked up Bynum and took him to work. Bynum's job is reporting on traffic conditions from the helicopter.

In March of 1966, there were 58.1 million householders in the United States, an increase of 10 per cent since the 1960 census was taken.

Male Campus Hit in Leap Year Rush

DUBUQUE, Iowa (UPI) — An estimated 150-200 students from Clarke College, a girls' school, invaded the all-male Loras College campus Thursday night in celebration of Leap Year.

Both colleges are in Dubuque.

★ ★ ★

One Clarke girl said the demonstration was staged "for two major reasons: 1. We want dates, and 2. To serenade Loras in appreciation for Loras men."

Some of the Loras men tossed water-filled balloons from dormitory windows. Others rushed out to talk to the girls.

Current Books

A DIFERENT KIND OF WAR prepared from the original manuscript of Vice Admiral Milton E. Miles, USN, by Hawthorne Daniel. Doubleday, $7.95.

★ ★ ★

A controversial, disquieting and well-documented analysis of the United States' post-World War II failures in China which led to take-overs by Soviet and home-grown Communists.

It suggests that the U.S. government, because of overlapping and competing bureaucracies, may be heading for more of the same in Vietnam because it refuses to learn from history . . . insists on applying U.S. methods in attempting to solve Oriental problems . . . and because, in essence, it is unable to or refuses to understand the Oriental mind and establishment.

A foreword by Adm. Arleigh Burke, chief of U.S. Naval Operations from 1955 to 1961, endorses the book as "timely" and says "some American officials were busy supporting the Communists in their campaign to destroy Chiang Kai-shek and the central Chinese government."

To Miles the war was lost in the first weeks of peace because we ignored Chinese he considered friends and turned over arms to the Communists.

Miles also quotes Adm. Leahy as saying President Roosevelt felt there were strange areas of our China policy and had intended to investigate them. But death intervened.

★ ★ ★

"Wars provide opportunities for mistakes," writes Miles, "but . . . we should study the mistakes we have already made so as to keep from repeating them in any future war where the Asian philosophy prevails."

Dean C. Miller (UPI)

The Lawyers by Martin Mayer (Harper and Row $8.95): There are some 300,000 lawyers in the United States.

That's about one for each 250 persons in the labor force. They make an average of $13,000 a year. That's about twice what their clinets average.

★ ★ ★

One in every 40 is female. Less than one in 100 is a Negro.

Provided also are guidelines on what to charge.

(Most bar associations recommend $20 an hour. A routine divorce will cost a $150 to $200 fee. A simple will, only $25. That's because the lawyer looks to get the estate business eventually, and that will net him 7 per cent of the first $1,000; 5 per cent of the next $4,000; 4 per cent of the next $10,000; 3 per cent of the next $60,000; and 2.5 per cent on all over $75,000. A $2,470 fee on a $75,000 estate is worth keeping the price of drawing the will down to $25.)

★ ★ ★

All this fascinating data comes from this treatise on the professional life of the American attorney.

Mayer, who impressed previously with his well-researched "Madison Avenue, U. S. A." and "The Schools," is not out to debunk. His purpose is expository and he has capably achieved it.

Bruce W. Munn (UPI)

REPEAT THE INSTRUCTIONS. By R. Vernon Beste. Harper. $5.95.

★ ★ ★

Beste's espionage novel goes deeply enough into the emotional crises of its principal character to be far more effective than the usual contrived thriller.

It also uses the theme of the trapped and expendable agent, manipulated in a cat-and-mouse game and then abandoned.

So in two respects, at least, this is a spy story in the Le Carre manner, ah observation which is intended as a compliment.

★ ★ ★

This is a well-plotted, smoothly written, chillingly plausible story of a man snared, against his will, into the deadly game of spy against spy.

Miles A. Smith

THE CRITICAL HISTORIAN. By G. Kitson Clark. Basic Books. $5.95.

★ ★ ★

Here is an admirable little book by a prominent British historian who imparts some professional wisdom for the practical end of general enlightenment.

Clark succeeds very well. He writes about methods of historical research — standards of proof, evalution of documents and sources, the ubiquity of bias.

But the habit of skeptical appraisal implicit in these methods would clear away many of the myths and legends that infest conventional opinion.

The author shows the precariousness of much of the evidence on which historical assumptions rest.

★ ★ ★

The exact methods of historical evaluation and scholarship are numerious and require special training. All, as Clark notes, are devised to answer two questions: "What is your authority for saying this?" and "How do you know that what you say happened happened in this way?"

If these questions were asked more often and more insistently, much mistaken and pernicious belief would be eliminated.

Robbers Take Army Funds

MONTREAL (AP) — Four hooded robbers armed with submachine guns raided Montreal International Airport early today and escaped with $85,000 in cash destined for the U.S. Army at Goose Bay, Nfld.

Three of the men marched into the Air Canada freight office while the fourth waited in a getaway car.

★ ★ ★

An employe of Air Canada said one man held a submachine gun to his head and shouted to the other employes in the office to lie on the floor. A second robber went into the warehouse and gave the same order to employes there. The third man shot off the lock on a wire cage in the warehouse where the money was stored.

★ ★ ★

Hardly a minute later, the three left with a black leather bag containing the loot. Employes said Air Canada regularly handles shipments of money for the U.S. Army at Goose Bay.

Police set up roadblocks in the area of the airport and throughout the West End of Montreal.

Motor Vehicle Highway Fund

5⅝, 4.60%, 4.10%, 4.05% Revenue Bonds

Dated February 1, 1968 Due August 1, as below

These notes, issued to finance the construction, improvement, maintenance and repair of highways, will be payable as to both principal and interest solely from future revenues derived from the State collected taxes (Motor Vehicle Highway Funds) on motor vehicle fuels and license tag fees. The enabling statute, under which these notes are issued, limits the County borrowing to an amount not in excess of 20% of the net revenues returned by the State to the County, for road purposes, for the preceding five years. Road Commission officials state that this $1,000,000 note issue represents only 3.70% of total net revenues of $27,005,135 received by the County during the past five years. Other pledges through 1973 against these same funds do not exceed $514,962.50 in any year, leaving very ample coverage for all combined County Motor Vehicle Debt.

Trade Moderately Active

Stock Mart Resumes Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market resumed its decline early this afternoon in moderately active trading.

The market made an early show of firmness but it didn't last long.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon held a gain of .40 at 840.90 but losses outnumbered gains in the over-all list by a wide margin.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon also showed a gain, rising .2 at 305.8 with industrials up .8, rails off .2 and utilities up .2.

Selective strength in blue chips bolstered the popular averages.

Gold mining stocks advanced again on further reports of increasing demand for gold in European markets and rises in gold shares throughout the world. Various rumors and reports accompanied the rise.

★ ★ ★

Montgomery Ward, active and up about a point, continued to respond to advance estimates that its earnings would show a large jump. Its rise helped the averages as did advances exceeding a point by American Smelting and Liggett & Myers.

★ ★ ★

Prices were generally lower on the American Stock Exchange. Gold mining issues bucked the downtrend. Among them, Giant Yellowknife and Pato Gold rose a point or more, Goldfield, Day Mines and Wright Hargreaves fractions.

★ ★ ★

Campbell Chibougamau, up a point, paced the Amex on activity. Data Processing dropped 3, Susquehanna 1 and Signal Oil "A" a fraction.

Rise Predicted in Auto Sales

1968 Projections Up 600,000 Over '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department today projected new car sales this year at about 8.9 million, up about 600,000 from last year.

Its forecast was based on a survey of consumer buying intentions for the coming months.

Results of the January survey show that households anticipate buying new cars at the annual rate of 7.6 million during the April-September period compared with purchases of 7.1 million last year, the department said.

Governments and business bought another 1.2 million cars during 1967 to raise total retail sales for the year to about 8.3 million.

★ ★ ★

If consumer buying intentions hold true and household purchases continue to comprise about 85 per cent of total sales, new car purchases this year should reach 8.9 million, the department added.

SLIGHTLY MORE

The survey taken in January showed that American consumers plan to spend slightly more in coming months on cars, household appliances and houses than they indicated in an October survey but the department said the changes were not substantial.

Indexes for used car purchases and houses were up significantly from their level of a year ago, however.

The deparment said the used car index rose from 98.7 in January of last year to 103.4 last month while the index for houses jumped from 98.1 to 105.7.

★ ★ ★

The department also said Americans generally were more optimistic about the likelihood of increased incomes in January than they were last October.

Greatest optimism came in households with annual incomes of less than $3,000, probably because of increased Social Security benefits.

Complaints Rising on Product Quality

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Grumblings from corporate purchasing agents about the poor quality of manufactured products are growing louder. Some feel a deterioration set in about two years ago and is now intensifying.

Blamed for the condition are several factors, but most commonly cited are:

—The present high-volume economy which is putting strains on some production facilities, even though industry as a whole is not operating at total capacity.

★ ★ ★

"High volume is the name of the game," said Jack O'Connor, editor of Purchasing Week magazine. "The important thing is to get the product out of the plant."

—Cost cutting in plants and factories in an attempt to take pressure off a profits-squeeze.

Ironically, some agents note that this cost cutting is double-barreled. Corporate purchasers seeking to save money put pressure on the vendor for lower cost goods. The vendor, seeking to maintain profit margins, skimps on quality.

—A deterioration in workmanship, partly because of a tight labor market in which marginal employes are used.

★ ★ ★

"Too many skilled people have lost pride," said the agent for a company whose annual sales top $1 billion. "It's a general frame of mind of too many workers. Too many of us don't have pride in a job well done."

Such gripes can be heard almost any time at all from certain people, it is true. And, a spot check does indeed show that some corporations feel there has been no deterioration in quality, especially in the quality of raw materials.

SIZE, COMPLEXITY

Another purchasing agent comments that the size and complexity of some products now makes it impossible for them to be thoroughly tested before being delivered to the customer. Flaws then must be corrected while the product is in use.

But, despite these explanations, the gripes do seem to be rising in crescendo. And, echoing the complaints of manufacturers is the discontent of consumers about sloppy work, poor design, lax servicing.

★ ★ ★

The fact that thousands of automobiles have been recalled for defects is also evidence of the problem, as is the growing concern in Washington with protecting buyers from inferior goods and services.

Said the purchasing agent for a company that spends more than $100 million a year on plant expansion:

"We've been plagued with the quality of equipment supplied —compressors, turbines, chemical processing machines. In one case the bearings were in backward on a power plant engine. Welding often is improperly done."

COSTLY DELAYS

This, he said, not only causes the finished plant to be more expensive than had been foreseen, but results in very costly delays in getting the plant into operatin.

"We haven't got a profit margin that can tolerate a half-good plant," he said. "We can't afford it."

★ ★ ★

As a result of all this, said an agent, "you need to spend more time on expediting, following-up orders and on inspection than in any time I can remember since World War II and the Korean war."

It is increasingly frustrating, he said, to hold vendors to their shipping promises. "And then when it comes it's not made right." He forecast further deterioration.

UAW to Eye Setting AMC Strike Date

DETROIT (AP) — Top officials of the United Auto Workers Union were expected to decide today whether to set a strike deadline at American Motors Corp., the only major U.S. automaker lacking a national union contract.

★ ★ ★

The International Executive Board of the UAW was expected at a meeting to weigh the question of striking the financially troubled firm.

★ ★ ★

Thursday — the day set by the union as the target for reaching agreement on a contract—passed without any indications AMC or the UAW were close to settlement.

★ ★ ★

Company and union negotiators met for about an hour on companywide issues, then turned their attention to local matters involving at-the-plant contracts. Both sides recessed negotiations until today, planning to meet again on local issues.

IMPORTANCE LOST

An AMC official said Thursday night that the importance of the target date was "completely lost" because of AMC's plan to halt its auto production next week because of parts shortages caused by a strike at a supplier firm.

The union issued the target

date tactic, rather than a strike deadline, in its successful national contract negotiations with General Motors in December.

Meanwhile, UAW members Thursday struck three more General Motors Corp. facilities, bringing to 4,100 the number on strike against the firm.

Gardner Bows Out Quietly

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare is without a Cabinet-level officer at the reins following the quiet departure of Secretary John W. Gardner.

Gardner, who guided HEW 2½ years, completed his last day on the job Thursday and left inconspicuously. He will immediately tackle a nongovernmental job, chairmanship of the Urban Coalition.

★ ★ ★

There was no visit from the President, no ceremonial public leave-taking such as marked Thursday's departure of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

President Johnson hasn't named a new secretary for HEW, outranked as a federal spender only by the Defense Department. Until the appointment is made, he said when Gardner's resignation was announced in January, the acting department head will be Undersecretary Wilbur J. Cohen.

LBJ Misled Congress on Tonkin--Study

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top secret Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff study concludes that the Johnson administration misled Congress about the 1964 Tonkin Gulf incidents that led to the bombing of North Vietnam, it was learned today.

Essential parts of the study, which has been a closely guarded secret up to now, were made public by Sen. Wayne L. Morse, D-Ore., in a senate speech yesterday.

Morse did not identify them as such in his address, but reliable sources said his remarks were taken nearly verbatim from the staff study.

The study formed the basis for a searching review by the full committee that has led several members to express doubts that the Aug. 4, 1964, attack on the destroyers Maddox and Turner Joy ever occurred.

★ ★ ★

Members have also questioned whether the United States might not have provoked the incidents or at least overreacted to the whole affair.

Dean at MSU Named Head of Utah State

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Dr. Glen Laird Taggart of Michigan State University was named president of Utah State University today.

He succeeds Dr. Daryl Chase, who has headed the school since 1954. Dr. Chase was designated president emeritus.

The appointment is effective June 30.

Dr. Taggart, 52, is dean of international studies and programs and professor of sociology at Michigan State.

★ ★ ★

His appointment was made at a special meeting of the Utah State Board of Trustees.

In accepting the position, Dr. Taggart returns to his native county. He was born in Lewiston, near Logan, and graduated from Utah State University with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 1940.

'Get Tough' Chief to Honor Negroes

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Three Negro youths who live in a slum area where Police Chief Walter Headley recently announced a "get tough" policy will get special presents from the chief for chasing down a purse snatcher.

Headley said he would give Allen Fortune, 14, Jerome Carr, 12, and Robert Hunter, 10, the best bicycles he could find and certificates of appreciation in ceremonies at police headquarters.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q—My husband and I are in our early 30s with three small children. We have two mutual funds, Oppenheimer and Fundamental Investors. We are adding to these for our children's education. We have $4,000 in the bank, half of which we would like to invest with the hope of doubling our money in a year or two to make a down payment on a house. What is your advice?—G.A.

A—I advise you most sincerely to abandon the idea of putting money into stocks to try to double it in a year or two. We have had a big rise in share prices since October, 1966, and prospects for doubling your money in a short time—always a dubious procedure—are at present downright unlikely. Some very good stocks—including Holiday Inns and Walgreen—have more than doubled over the past 12 months, but further gains from present high levels seem likely to slow down.

If you require your money in a year or two, leave it in the bank where it will be safe from any decline during that period, I believe that the two stocks mentioned above have excellent growth possibilities and might help you to reach you goal—but not in one or two years.

Q—We own Wellington Fund, Dreyfus Fund and Television & Electronics. Our agent suggests that for a fee of $5 we should transfer our holdings of Wellington into either Windsor or Ivest.—I. S.

A—My answer must depend upon your objective and your circumstances. Wellington is a balanced fund which is good but rather conservative from a growth standpoint. Windsor is good but has had a rather moderate performance record. If you want a fast-action stock and are willing to accept the risks involved in this type of security, I suggest Ivest which has compiled an impressive record.

People Just Weren't Interested, Gov. Romney Now Admits

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — George Romney, who seldom met a voter he didn't try to persuade, admitted in the end the people really weren't interested.

And so, in the words of an associate, he took the last opportunity available to exit gracefully from an exhausting, futile Republican presidential campaign that covered barely 100 days—but ranged over half the world.

* * *

Actually, by the time those 100 days began, defeat was probably certain.

But until he withdrew, Romney wouldn't even talk about the possibility. "I expect to win," was all he would say when people asked him who he would favor for the GOP nomination if he couldn't have it.

STRANGE HANDS

Week after week the gray-haired governor set out from his state capitol at Lansing, Mich., to grip strange hands, shake his fist at the unconvinced, talk himself hoarse. He milked a cow, ran a mile, risked a ski slope.

The quest covered tens of thousands of miles, cost hundreds of thousands of dollars—$275,000 in New Hampshire alone. That outlay of money and effort guaranteed him nothing in the New Hampshire presidential primary except a resounding defeat.

* * *

Today, in a final gesture, Romney planned a mission of thanks to the New Hampshire campaign workers who couldn't get him the votes he needed.

Admitting he could not win, and dropping from the White House race, Romney said:

"I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

15 BELOW ZERO

What would he have missed?

He would not have spent two icy hours shaking hands in 15-below-zero weather as the sun rose over a Nashua, N.H., parking lot.

He wouldn't have marched down a quiet, residential street in Beloit, Wis., hatless in a frigid wind, waving a big baton in front of a high school band.

* * *

He never would have milked Phil Grundy's cow that morning in Oshkosh, Wis.

He wouldn't have spent 15 minutes gripping the arm of a man in a Concord, N.H., sporting goods shop, arguing that his refusal to endorse Barry Goldwater four years ago was really in the best interests of the Republican party. The man left, unconvinced.

A GOOD THING?

He might never have gone bowling in Franklin, N.H.—and that might have been a good thing. It took him 34 balls to knock down 10 pins—and two weeks later, Romney went bowling again. Thirty-three balls that time.

It apparently never occurred to Romney to bowl like everybody else in New England—throw three balls, then have the pins set up again. He just kept rolling until they all went down.

* * *

Actually, the White House effort Romney announced Nov. 18 dates back to the hours after his 1966 reelection triumph in Michigan. He was on top of the polls, the logical candidate, telling people he would take a long hard look before deciding whether to seek the nomination.

There never seemed much doubt.

* * *

A month later, in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., he told a secret session of fellow Republican governors that if he ran for the nomination, he would give them progress reports.

NO PROGRESS

His reports came Wednesday, and it was a report of no progress.

Why?

Over the next year, it became clear that Romney could not transfer to the national stage the mystique that made him unbeatable in Michigan.

* * *

On Feb. 17, 1967, Romney set out on a week's tour of the West to sample the prospects for his possible candidacy. He behaved like a campaigner all the way. And he soon was in trouble.

Romney criticized President Johnson's Vietnam position, but refused to talk in specific terms or to outline his alternative. It was the birth of a problem that nagged him until the end. Months later, on Sept. 4, he repudiated that a "brainwashing" had once led him to consider U.S. involvement in Vietnam morally right and necessary. That word haunted his campaign.

So did the race riots which raged in Detroit from July 24 until July 29, and the political dispute over who was to blame for a delay in the dispatch of federal troops to quell the uprising.

"I think you fell on your face up there in the riots," a worker told him in the early-morning chill of a Laconia, N.H., parking lot as Romney sought votes in January.

PNH Gets Ready for Talent Show

By BETTY ATWELL

Rehearsals, costumes and variety are key words for the first Student Council Talent Show to be given at Pontiac Northern High School.

The program, which includes everything from singing to dance routines will be viewed by PNH students next Tuesday, during sixth hour for a token fee.

Linda Tenjeras is chairman of the event.

The students displaying their talents are Tom Pardee who will sing and play the guitar; Beverly Clancy, performing a modern dance routine; Nick Dinkens and Dorothy Bradley, singing a duet and Dorothy will also sing a solo number.

Other talents include Pat Spragle, playing the piano, Monica Patterson singing with Debbie Tenjeras as piano accompanist: "The Mother's Recipe," a band; and "The Delvations," a singing group.

Concluding the list are "The Sensations," (Hardiman Jones, Leon Conley and Sandy Seay) doing a dance routine of the Detroit Temptations; and a singing group, "The Barber Shop Quartet."

Dress rehearsal will take place Sunday at PNH.

Approximately five of the students from the show will perform their acts at Waterford and Walled Lake high schools later this month.

The Waterford and Walled Lake talent shows will be presented at Northern March 27.

Jerry Bixby will be master of ceremonies for the show Tuesday.

Senior Dick Tucker is responsible for the special lighting effects for the performance.

This week students at Northern pondered the identity of the "Mystery Lady" whose voice came over the public address system during homeroom.

Kathy Hoisington, the mysterious voice, was advertising the auction which took place before and after school Monday and Tuesday.

Tickets for Meadow Brook Theatre performances, pizzas and beauty salon trips were just a few of the items auctioned off by Arnold J. Wilson, history teacher, and his assistant, "The Mystery Lady."

These and other items were donated by various stores and shops in the area.

Proceeds from the annual event will go towards equipment for the softball team.

The parts were chosen for the Catalina swim show to be presented in May. The theme will be fairy tales.

Seniors ordered their gold and white graduation cards and announcements last week.

TALENTED TRIO — Practicing for the forthcoming talent show at Pontiac Northern High School are (from left) Nick Dinkins, Tom Pardee and Beverly Clancy. Nick and Tom are juniors, Beverly, a senior. The program will be presented during sixth hour next Tuesday. Linda Tenjeras is the general chairman of the Student Council-sponsored event.

Waterford High Will Replace Record Board

By MARY JERGOVICH

The blue and gold track and field board at Waterford Township High School has displayed the school's track records for "many" years.

It has served its purpose well and the WTHS Varsity Club feels it has "served" long enough.

The club is making plans to purchase a new board which will be kept in the girls' half of the gymnasium.

The old 6-foot by 4-foot track and field board is made of wood. The school records are presently painted on a piece of plywood and placed on the board next to the event.

★ ★ ★

Because of this method of displaying the records, any records broken could not be changed until the end of the year.

The larger new board will display records by means of gold plastic letters placed on a blue felt background. The plastic letters will make it possible to change school records as they are broken.

WTHS seniors have begun organization of their annual senior prom.

General chairman of the prom is Maggie Jacobs, assisted by cochairman Sharyn Richmond.

★ ★ ★

Ann Spees is in charge of programs; Jackie Charter and Karen Van Deusen, tickets; Mickey Burns, decorations; and Richard Eagle, publicity.

IN CHARGE OF INVITATIONS

Renee Le Blanc will handle the invitations and Pam Talbot, prom favors.

Senior class officers are: Mike Vidor, president; Bob Thomas, vice president; Pam Talbot, secretary; and Sharon Terry, treasurer.

Yesterday the sophomore class sponsored Waterford's first "Grippie Day" and students wore their "grippies" (thick, rippled sole tennis shoes) to school.

The shoes were worn to help publicize the sophomore rec-night which was last night.

END OF SEASON

Earlier this week, the girls' basketball team had a party to offically end its basketball season.

Coach Sue Richert announced that varsity high scorers of the year were Debbie McKee with 90 points, and Lois Fenlon, 58.

Junior varsity high scorers were Cheryl Danules, 42 points and Dee Dee Craig, 31.

The varsity squad finished the season with a 6-2 win-loss record and the junior varsity was 5-1.

Students Take to the Labs

By DEBBIE ROCHON

With the recent opening of the new Pontiac Catholic High School, came the opportunity for many would-be scientists to experiment to their hearts' content with new laboratory facilities.

The science department at PC is divided into three sections: the biology laboratory, a chemistry laboratory and a physics lab.

These rooms all have connecting doors, so that a student bearing a dangerous compound need not venture into a crowded corridor to enter the adjoining laboratory.

This science wing has special significance to Pontiac Catholic students, as it was the final section of the construction that had to be completed before the new building could be opened to regular classes.

The Student Council sponsored its first Mardi Gras Dance Tuesday, featuring the Unknowns, and the Section 5 band as entertainment. A Mardi Gras king and queen contest was held, with the royal couple reigning over the dance.

Candidates elected from the senior class were Cathy Harkins, Elaine Steinhelper, Maurice Finnegan and Bob Webster.

Junior candidates were Donna Himmelspach, Princine Petinga, Vincent Holland and Jim LaLonde.

Representng the sophomore class were Debbie Malloy, Judy Wright, Tim Boyer and Pierre Landry.

★ ★ ★

Freshmen representatives were Taurus Shepard, Joe Guillean, Debbie Daugherty and Lisa Wade.

PENNY VOTES

The king and queen of the Mardi Gras were elected by penny votes with each cent counting as one vote.

The first Mardi Gras royal couple elected at Pontiac Catholic were Elaine Steinhelper and Jim LaLonde.

Tryouts were held this week for Pontiac Catholic's spring musical, to be staged in May. Students will perform in "Annie, Get Your Gun," written by Irving Berlin and produced on Broadway by Rogers and Hammerstein.

Howard Hoeflein, drama teacher, and Sister Mary de Lima, music instructor, will make arrangements for the presentation, along with Sister Colette, who will direct scenery construction and choreography.

The varsity girls' basketball team captured the championship in its league, thus providing Pontiac Catholic with its first sports trophy.

The girls are now involved in the final playoffs, with their next game taking place Sunday.

The speech and drama classes at Pontiac Catholic attended the Meadow Brook Theatre presentation of "King Lear" yesterday.

Avondale High Fairs Are Near

By JANICE MALANE

The annual science fair will be held Monday at Avondale High School.

After months of work, students from science classes will be judged on their individual projects.

The projects will be judged by people from the area who have knowledge in the subject matter of the project. Each project receives a rating of superior, excellent, good or satisfactory.

The judging will be held Monday evening from 6-8. The fair will be open to the public from 8-10 p.m.

In conjunction with the science fair, the Key Club will hold a book fair. Paperback books will be on display in the Hive Monday through Friday of next week. Students will be able to browse and purchase books to add to their own home library.

IN CHARGE OF FAIR

The committee in charge of the book fair is headed by Marcia Connors and Marty Gerloff.

The Key Club will receive 20 per cent of the sales and profits from the fair. The money will go into buying new books and furniture for the reading room.

The distributive education classes, under the supervision of teacher Bill Lightcap, worked hard to dress up the Hive.

★ ★ ★

Students recently got flags and mascots from all the league schools and hung them in the Hive.

To aid AHS students to get to away games, the class made a map with all the other schools locations on it and directions to get to each school.

Each club and organization is represented in the Hive by a paddle hanging on the wall.

Thursday AHS had its first involvement with a vocational school. Principal Lowell C. Ruggles, William Glavan of the industrial arts department, and the guidance counselors attended a meeting at Pontiac Northern to discuss the plans for the vocational schools soon to be built in Oakland County.

★ ★ ★

When the schools are built, Avondale will send one-third of its students to receive some type of vocational training.

Dominican Halls Quieting for Lent

By ANDI BARNES

Activities at Dominican Academy are being slowed down with the coming of Lent and in keeping with the season the halls are quieter than usual.

★ ★ ★

Tuesday, juniors took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

In order to boost up their class treasury, sophomores are selling "praying hands" pens.

Seniors are going to sponsor a prom this year instead of the usual Coronation Ball.

★ ★ ★

All plans, however, must be made outside of class time, and the activity will not be school-sponsored.

★ ★

The prom is to be held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club April 19.

Cindy Miller was chosen Valentine Queen of the freshmen class.

Anouilh's 'Time Remembered'

Mott Play Opens Tonight

By GEORGIA ROSEWALL

Waterford Mott High School Charter Players presents the Jean Anouilh play, "Time Remembered," tonight in Mason's cafetorium. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

For their first production the Mott Players are undertaking a difficult and unique play. Jean Anouilh, unlike other playwrights, trys to transpose reality on the stage through the use of the conventions of the stage.

Stories are exploited as fictions; characters are shaped into caricatures who, in turn, act like actors and think like playwrights; speech is elevated to dialogue; settings and action become audacious and spectacular productions.

Joined with Anouilh's almost legendary stagecraft, the resulting play achieves its purpose to entertain, to move and to disturb the audience.

"Time Remembered" is a romantic comedy about a prince who fell in love with a ballet dancer. After her death, he builds and relives the past with her.

As the play opens Amanda, a young girl who later tries to live in his make-believe world, is fidgeting in the library of the duchess' ancient mansion. She has been waiting here for over two hours to see the duchess, the Prince's aunt who appears to be somewhat crazy.

★ ★ ★

As Amanda is getting ready to leave the duchess pops in and the action begins. The duchess seems to have the ability to pop in anywhere and make it appear natural.

For actors to achieve Anouilh's purpose takes much skill, practice, time and enthusiasm. Mott players with their enthusiasm have spent the time and have developed the skill necessary to present this play to its fullest potential.

Groves High School Hosts Discussion by 2 Clergymen

By BENITA ROSEN

The Groves High School Little Theater was the site last week of a two-hour program presented for humanities classes from both Groves and Seaholm high schools.

Pastor David Strang and Father Kenneth Untener were the speakers and copanelists in the discussion, which ranged from drugs and interracial marriage to evolution and the recent motion picture, "The Graduate."

Pastor Strang is the minister of a Plymouth Lutheran Church, and Father Untener is a Roman Catholic priest associated with the Detroit chancery.

Before Pastor Strang and Father Untener came to present their discussion and students submitted questions as a basis for the discussion.

★ ★ ★

Commenting on the kind, quality and depth of the questions, Pastor Strang said, "If these questions are any indication of young thought today, the church had better wake up and stop giving you pat answers or quite frankly you have lost the church, or it has lost you."

WHAT'S WRONG?

When asked what's wrong with today's teen-agers, Pastor Strang responded, "You wouldn't believe me if I said nothing.

Clarifying the teen-agers' position Father Untener said, "They want to be honest and that's great. At this stage you're reactionary. The reason why you do many things is to let the older generation know that you don't like what they are doing. You know what you're against, but you don't know what you are for."

Like teen-agers, Pastor Strang and Father Untener know what they are against, they are against the war in Vietnam.

"Many things are being done there that are immoral. The end never justifies the means no matter how good the end is, these means (bombing, mortars) just can't be used," declared Father Untener.

The problem of church unity and the Ecumenical Council's role also came up in the discussion.

The priest explained that the Ecumenical Council's goal was "unity, not uniformity" and said, "It is a sin for churches to be separate."

Holly Choir Practices for Big Festival

By MARCIA CLARK

The Holly High School a cappella choir recently traveled to Bloomfield Hills to practice for the league festival to be held later this spring.

All schools in the Wayne-Oakland league will participate in this program.

The French and Spanish clubs are collaborating on plans for a language club banquet under the supervision of John Ingles.

Next year's scheduling has begun. All scheduling will be done through a central computer.

★ ★ ★

Returning from a recent weekend of skiing are members of the Holly Ski Club. They stayed at Gilbert Lodge, Twin Lakes 4-H Camp, Traverse City.

Only one casualty was reported. Lynn Winglemire, a junior, tore ligaments and tendons in her leg after a collision on the slopes.

WLHS Plans Arts Festival

By JOANNE SANDERSON

The Walled Lake High School's Fine Arts Festival, which will take place March 14 and 15 is in the planning stages.

The Leif (school newspaper), is sponsoring a photographic contest. There are five categories for submitted entries — sports, still-life, portraiture, candid and miscellaneous.

Deadline for the entries is today. Along with this contest, an extra edition of the newspaper will include a schedule of all festival events and pictures of all the rehearsals.

The International Cafe, sponsored by the Language Department, is materializing. The decorations committee met in the art room after school making decorations for the cafe.

★ ★ ★

The cafe will offer food and entertainment, all of which will center around the customs and foods of other countries.

COFFEE HOUSE

Other aspects of the festival are the Coffee House, sponsored by the English department; two plays, sponsored by the drama class and Drama Club; and the literary magazine, "Touche," with Laurel Adlar as sponsor.

The Varsity Club is promoting the sale of ski jackets. The jackets are sold during lunch hour only. The money will be added to the Varsity Club's treasury for future use.

Hootenanny Tonight at WBH

By BOB BROWNE

The American Field Service will sponsor a Hootenanny at 8 tonight in the West Bloomfield High School.

This will climax the day for all area exchange students who visited West Bloomfield today and attended classes with their "brothers and sisters."

First hour, the visitors were guests of honor at a special assembly which was held in the Gymnasium. The assembly was to enable the students of West Bloomfield to welcome their guests and to allow the students to ask the foreign students about their feelings concerning matters of international importance.

Also, at this time, the students told about their own countries and how they are adjusting to the American way of life.

The Student Council held tryouts for its annual "Lakers Capers" this week. This year's "Capers" will feature a variety of song and dance numbers, free exercise routines, comedy skits, a dramatic monologue, piano and violin solos and walk-on appearances by our stage crew.

EMCEE TRYOUTS

Tuesday, Master of Ceremony tryouts were held with the representatives of the council judging. John Pollack and Vicki Basset were selected to emcee the show.

Tickets to the March 22 show go on sale soon.

The freshman basketball team, Tuesday night, won the Brighton Freshman Invitational Tournament, and wound up its season with a 13-2 record. Coach is Adrian Dutcher.

Monday, the Michigan State Jazz Band played a concert at Abbott Junior High School to demonstrate the classical jazz sound. The performance was sponsored by the Student Council and the band.

Novi to Hold Computer Hop March 9

By THOM HOLMES

Novi High School Student Council will hold a Computer Dance March 9.

During the past week each high school student who wishes to attend the dance bought a ticket. Along with this ticket, every student has also received a computer card, which he then has filled out by completing the interesting questions.

These cards are to be sent back to the computer company, and an "ideal" date will be selected for everyone.

Dates will not be announced until everybody is at the dance.

★ ★ ★

Student Council has approved the idea of joining the National Honor Society. Application for admission will be made soon.

TRACK MEET

Novi track enthusiasts will attend the National College Athletic Association's indoor collegiate track meet at Cobo Arena. The original group that was to attend include only 20 boys.

★ ★ ★

But now, the girl track fans are also allowed to go, so the number of students who will attend the meet will probably be between 30 and 40.

★ ★ ★

Fred Hanert, history teacher and track coach, and Florence Pangborn, the girls' athletic teacher, will attend the event with the student group.

Students and Faculty Move Into New Stevenson High

By PENNY McMILLEN

Confusion reigned supreme. Second only to the utter havoc were the distant gazes of exhausted students and teachers.

★ ★ ★

The day was Monday and students were making their way through Adlai E. Stevenson High School for the first time.

Staff and students made the weekend shift from afternoon sessions at Utica High to a 7:20 a.m. to 12:20 p.m. shift at SHS.

Last week, Dr. Robert S. Ulrich, SHS principal, spoke to the three classes separately and made the long-awaited announcement. Maps of the sprawling SHS, which have since saved many students and teachers, were distributed, and Ulrich tried to explain the maze of corridors.

Prime concern for many was the time element involved for shifting classes. It seemed barely feasible that five minutes was sufficent time to traverse from one end of the building to another.

HAND HOLDING

Ulrich quieted their worries with his own experiment: he made the walk through SHS in three and a half minutes. But he grinned and added, "Of course, I didn't have anyone's hand to hold."

Last Friday, SHS students were given the day off so equipment could be moved and teachers could prepare their classrooms for Monday's onrush of students.

The previous day, combination locks were distributed for SHS lockers, and students cleaned out their Utica lockers.

★ ★ ★

It's still only a beginning. The parking lot is a mass of muddy ruts, and some of the school departments are only half functioning because of delayed equipment. The chaos has subsided slightly and members of SHS are gradually getting accustomed to the early morning hours.

At Troy High School

2nd Newspaper Planned

By LINDA SWEET

Troy High School will soon be offered two student newspapers — Something Else, recently tending to include more feature articles and describing itself as Troy's only "underground" newspaper, and a new publication planned by the student government.

The student government publication has not yet been distributed, but general student opinion is that it is hoped that it will be better than the existing newspaper.

Something Else is limited not only by the ordinary restrictions of high school journalism, but also must contend with a student body (numbering approximately 1,000) which purchases less than 250 copies at each publication date.

A minority of both teachers and students support this publication. Also, few people have shown an interest in participating in newspaper activities.

★ ★ ★

Despite all this, Something Else has received unlimited support and understanding from principal, Clyde Peterson, and from assistant principal, Francis J. Cappaert.

SENIOR RIGHTS

Enthusiastic senior petitioners have discovered many hindrances in the declaration of their rights as upper classmen. Three petitions were circulated and over 100 signatures were collected. These petitions were given to the senior class president, Chuck Hunt, and henceforth, the subject of upperclassmen's rights has been dropped.

The Voice of Christian Youth and the Vivace Club are attempting to offer themselves as active clubs for student participation. Next Thursday at 2:20 p.m. the VCY will present the movie "The Restless Ones" in the cafeteria.

★ ★ ★

Seniors are already actively involved in graduation. Announcements and name cards are being ordered now through the senior office.

Due to the colors offered in gowns many seniors have a relatively unusual idea—light blue gowns for the girls and navy blue for the boys thus displaying the class colors.

National Honor Society Inducts at Lake Orion

By DIANE CHAMBERLIN

The Lake Orion High School chapter of the National Honor Society held its induction of new members recently. Guest speaker was Robert Branton, principal of Eastern High School, Detroit.

Four NHS members spoke on the merits which are considered in choosing new members.

Mike Bowman spoke on scholarship; Dick Sheardy, leadership; Brenda Robinett, service; and Sue Soper, character.

Accepted into the N.H.S. were seniors Linda Blount, Ruth Anne Brown, Diane Chamberlin, Cheryl Flood and Kathy Grasser.

★ ★ ★

Others were Pat Hamlet, Ann Herzog, Larry Hollens, Pam Houston, Linda Mullins and Jeanette Powley.

JUNIOR INIATATES

Juniors admitted were William Baker, Viki Dewis, James Fields, Cheryl Gritzinger, Deena Hards, Caroline Kuester and Jack Martin.

Also inducted were Duane Moffitt, Bob Morris, Mike Pantalee, Linda Peters, Sue Rhodes and Debra Rome.

Still others were Serie Spicer, Deborah Stolze, Karen Thompson and Bonnie Workman.

★ ★ ★

The club now has a total of 41 members. It is under the direction of Mrs. Mary Oliver.

Tonight is the last basketball game of the season and also "Mom's Night" at LOHS. The mothers of both the varsity basketball players and the varsity cheerleaders will be introduced to the crowd and given a corsage. They will then be escorted down the floor by their son or daughter.

Oxford High Leap Year Dance Near

By CLARA CALLAHAN

Oxford High School sophomores are celebrating Leap Year with a Sadie Hawkins Dance, "Hitchin' Hullabaloo," tomorrow night.

★ ★ ★

As an unusual twist to the usual "hitchin' " theme, couples will be "married" in an old-fashioned out-building rather than the traditional church.

Music will be provided by the Invention.

Saturday morning, the OHS band will travel to Mount Clemens High School to participate in the District IV band festival.

★ ★ ★

The seniors recently held Parents' Night for the parents of all students planning to take the senior trip to the Texas Dude Ranch.

Price, agenda and date were discussed.

OLL Students Study, View 'King Lear'

By DIANNE REED

After an extensive study of "King Lear" by Shakespeare, the students at Our Lady of the Lakes attended the play at the Meadow Brook Theatre last week.

The Lakers viewed a technical dress rehearsal in which the directors stopped the play if they felt something was done poorly or could be improved.

The approach advanced the knowledge gained by the students watching. They came back to Our Lady with many interesting insights and opinions with the discussions that followed most spirited.

Monday marked the beginning of the first annual girls' basketball homeroom intramurals. Among the teams seeing action will be senior teams, Boyd's Broncos and Raymond's Raiders, and junior teams, Mafia and Marauders.

★ ★ ★

The sophomore team, the Bombers, and the freshmen team, Richard's Rangers, will also hit the court. The Broncos and the Mafia are favorites for the championship. Games will continue through this week.

How do you handle the problem of voids when using Blackwood?

JACOBY

If you are void of a suit try to approach the slam by some other means. We told you not to bid Blackwood with a worthless doubleton in an unbid suit. Similarly don't bid four no-trump when you are void of a suit. You have various scientific methods at your disposal.

All of these frequently pinpoint the right lead in case your partner can't control the suit you are afraid of. Sometimes the best way to bid that type slam is to jump right there and hope that your opponents won't find the killing lead.

When your partner uses Blackwood and you hold a void there is an approved way to show the void. It is as follows: If you think your void is a good one, jump to six in the suit you would have bid five in as a normal Blackwood response.

★ ★ ★

North's jump to six diamonds showed that he had one ace and was void of a suit. It also had to be a good void. It couldn't be diamonds — North had bid that suit. It shouldn't be spades — South had bid that suit. Hence, it had to be clubs.

South's jump to seven hearts was still a trifle optimistic. North did not have to hold the king of hearts for his bids.

As a matter of fact, South wasn't too happy when he saw the dummy. He had to ruff the first club which left him with only three trumps in dummy. He would have to set up either his spades or dummy's diamonds and he decided to go after the diamonds because the odds favor a 3-2 break when you miss five cards.

He led the ace of diamonds at trick two and ruffed a diamond with the queen of trumps. Then he led a trump to dummy's king and ruffed another diamond with his ace of trumps.

Since this accounted for all the diamonds he simply played out dummy's last two trumps to pick up East's and made the rest of the tricks with the rest of the diamond suit and his ace and king of spades.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
			1 ♠
Pass	2 ♣	Pass	4 ♠
Pass	4 N.T.	Pass	5 ♥
Pass	5 N.T.	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A K Q J 7 6 5 ♥ A 3 2 ♦ 7 6 ♣ 5

What do you do now?

A—Just bid six diamonds to show that you hold one king.

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid six diamonds and your partner bids six spades. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Saturday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (March 21-April 19): You may be torn between desire to act quicly and responsibility which dictates otherwise. Don't aggravate family. Not wise to trade something of value for flash in pan.

TARUS (April 20-May 20): Results of efforts apt to be delayed. Too much has yet to be settled within group, organization. Your restlessness doesn't help matters. Avoid argument with relative. Take it easy.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Friend could be ill-advised concerning money affairs. Know this. Be cautious. Don't risk possessions based on assurance from charmer. Do your own checking. Then double check.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): One in authority or with power could offer taunting challenge. Not wise to accept. You are being tested. If you exhibit self-control, you impress. Takes discipline. Display it.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): In effort to obtain solid information you may be skipping essentials. Realize this. Maintain sense of balance. Study GEMINI message. Accent on what happens behind your back.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You could find genuine bargain in luxury item. Fine day for presenting family member with gift, token of affection. Give of yourself and you will also receive. Act accordingly.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Don't assume authoritative role. Instead, stress experience, willingness to accept responsibility. Then what you seek could be presented on silver platter. Realize this. Act wisely.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Nondirect approach works best today. Applies especially where favors, special privileges are concerned. Don't press, push or attempt to force issues. Be receptive and charming.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Reactions, feelings are intense. Nothing appears to occur halfwa today. Realize that you pay for what you receive — don't ask for more than you can afford. Highlight maturity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): A legal issue affecting property could be spotlighted. Know where responsibility begins and ends. Strive to assert yourself in constructive manner. Strengthen ties of affection.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): You might find that those close to you make unreasonable demands. Don't compound the error. Be understanding. Find the reasons why. By so doing you avoid foolish conflict.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Those who depend on you, including children, may express financial requirements. Wise to be considerate. Creating friction today could backfire into double trouble. Act accordingly.

IF SATURDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you attract others to you with their problems. You're a natural physician, teacher, counselor. You are due to complete major cycle, project. Recognition is deserved — and you receive it.

Blaze in Boxcar Brings Arrest of 3

WINFIELD, Kan. (AP) — Flames coming out of the rear of a boxcar brought firemen and policemen rushing to the Santa Fe railyards.

Police said three persons riding in the car had built a fire to keep warm. Wood had been ripped from inside the car for fuel.

Police arrested Willie Clayton and his sons, Leroy and Harvey, on vagrancy charges—and gave them warmer quarters in jail.

LONDON (AP) — Police Thursday flushed out four Pakistanis who had made a home in a tunnel housing the central heating under London Airport.

Airport porters said the Pakistanis had been there for months.

The four, all men, were discovered among heating pipes under the main Oceanic building of Heathrow.

"They had bed rolls, pots and pans, and a stove down there," said one of the porters.

Ants Lived in Colonies 100 Million Years Ago

By National Geographic Society

WASHINGTON — Ants were living in societies millions of years before man appeared on earth.

Two worker ants, preserved in amber, recently were found in New Jersey. They existed about 100 million years ago before dinosaurs became extinct. These prehistoric ants had heads like wasps, the insect family from which ants diverged.

Today all known ants live in groups, the National Geographic Society says. A colony may range in size from a dozen or so individuals to huge communes containing more than a million insects.

Outstanding in every ant society is the queen. She is not the ruler — the colony needs none since each individual knows by instinct what to do — but rather the mother of the entire nest.

★ ★ ★

The queen begins life as a winged member of another colony. In time, the wingless workers revolt against the winged individuals and drive them out.

MALE ANT DIES

The routed ants, which are the males and sexually active females, try out their wings in a tremendous marriage flight. After mating, a male ant quickly dies, but a female discards her wings and finds a place to start a colony.

The future queen builds a small chamber, lays a few eggs, and tends the young until they are old enough to work. Then she retires, becoming literally an egg-laying machine.

A special sac in her abdomen holds the seed of her long-dead mate. Year after year, spermatozoa are transferred to the eggs.

★ ★ ★

Unlike most insects, ants live for many years. Queens have survived 20 years in captivity; workers, nearly 10.

OBSERVERS AMAZED

Observers have been amazed at how far an ant scout will travel and how well it seems to find its way.

The Austrian scientist Wilhelm Goetsch once gave an ant a bread crumb and watched it set off for home. "It had to travel more than 20 feet as the crow flies and climb over a six-foot wall," Dr. Goetsch reported. "All this it did without hesitation and without any help from other ants — sure proof that it knew its way perfectly."

When an ant finds food, it lays a scent trail back to the nest. Other ants quickly follow the track to the food.

★ ★ ★

Scientists have created artificial trails by merely rubbing ants on a sheet of paper. The ants follow these trails as if they had been made naturally by a finder ant.

SPECIAL SECRETIONS

When a finder ant arrives at the nest, the other ants smell and perhaps taste the food brought in. Special secretions by the finder may convey excitement.

Ants lack ears, but are very sensitive to sound vibrations. The insects make squeaks and grating sounds that are sometimes audible even to man.

Ant watching is a popular hobby in the United States. In the past decade about five million ant farms have been sold.

★ ★ ★

To meet the demand, ant pickers in Southern California daily collect insects for a penny apiece. One picker earned $3,000 for 300,000 ants.

Sun Poses Peril to Astronauts

Spacemen Risk Death From Radiation

By Science Service

PASADENA, Calif. American astronauts have a rendezvous with the moon before 1970 — but they also have, if they make the timetable, a rendezvous with potentially fatal radiation from an angry sun.

★ ★ ★

They will be landing during the maximum period of solar flares, immense disturbances on the sun that fling out Xrays and cosmic rays in deadly profusion.

An astronaut walking the lunar surface could be killed in the storm which would pour radiation through his unprotected body. (Within the spaceship, however, he should be safe because of its metal shielding, as he would be safe on earth because of the shielding atmosphere.)

An advance warning would help, but presently not enough is understood about the sun or its eruptions to make a warning possible.

★ ★ ★

Scientists believe they will eventually be able to predict the coming of individual solar flares—but apparently they will develop this ability too late to warn this decade's astronauts.

BLACK OUT RADIO

Dr. Harold Zirin, astrophysics professor with Mt. Wilson and Palomar Observatories, is working in that direction. He estimates that it will be five years before man can truly predict the coming of a solar flare.

Such flares not only endanger astronauts, they black out shortwave radio communications on earth, and cause auroras.

Already, however, Dr. Zirin sees certain clues, or precursors, to the coming of flares. It is a base on which an early warning system may some day be built.

★ ★ ★

Solar flares, which are associated with sunspots, were first detected in 1855. They are invisible in ordinary light, yet when viewed by instruments sensitive to the extreme ultraviolet, these great outbursts of energy provide dramatic evidence that the sun has a seething surface that erupts unpredictably.

★ ★ ★

A flare covering only a one-thousandth of the solar surface emits more ultraviolet light in a second than all the rest of the sun put together.

The total energy release in a flare over all wavelengths equals the output of the entire sun in the same time.

★ ★ ★

New knowledge about solar flares is coming from time-lapse motion pictures combined with special filters that show the sun's activity in the light of one narrow wavelength. This activity makes up one of Dr. Zirin's precursors.

WATER LOSS SURVEY

Sealed proposals for the performance of a Water Loss Survey on the water distribution system in the City of Pontiac will be received by the City of Pontiac, Michigan, at the office of the City Clerk until 2:00 P. M. (EST) on the 25th of March, 1968, at which time they will be publicly opened and read aloud.

The water distribution system in the City of Pontiac contains approximately 240 miles of cast iron water mains. Sizes of mains range from 4" to 48", with the majority of the mains being 6" and 8" in diameter.

Proposal Form and a detailed set of maps of the water distribution system may be obtained from the office of the Director of Public Works, 450 East Wide Track Drive, Pontiac, upon deposit of $20. The full amount of the deposit will be refunded upon the return of the maps in good condition within 30 days after opening of bids.

Proposals must be submitted on the form furnished by the City.

Any bid may be withdrawn prior to the scheduled closing time for receipt of bids, but no bidder shall withdraw his bid within sixty (60) days after the actual opening thereof.

The City reserves the right to reject any or all bids and to waive any informalities in bidding.

Terms of Payment

Payments will be made monthly, based upon the percentage of the contract completed during the current month, as approved by the Water Supply Superintendent, less 10 per cent for retainage.

Season Opens on Bachelors

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP) — The Southeast Missourian in Cape Girardeau published the names of 48 eligible bachelors Thursday and told the single women of the area that now it is up to them "to run them down by whatever means, fair or foul."

Emily Hughes, women's editor of the afternoon newspaper, compiled the list as "a community service." It includes the single man's name, address, occupation and age. The ages ranged from 20 to 39.

Managing Editor John Blue said the newspaper published a similar list on Feb. 29, 1964. He said a few weeks ago the paper checked on the 1964 bachelors and found that "half had left town, six had married and six remained bachelors."

New Machine Performs 12 Blood Tests at Once

PALO ALTO, Calif. (UPI) — An automated blood analysis machine that can perform 12 different chemical tests simultaneously is in operation at the Palo Alto-Stanford Medical Center.

★ ★ ★

The new $30,000 machine will speed up the processing of chemical laboratory tests and materially reduce their cost to patients, according to Dr. Frederick A. Fox, director of clinical laboratories.

★ ★ ★

The machine can perform one battery of 12 tests every two minutes, Fox said.

"Before the machine was available, it would have taken one medical technologist about four to six hours to perform the same 12 tests," he said.

★ ★ ★

The 12 tests would normally cost $76, but now cost only $18.

COMMON TESTS

The tests are those commonly ordered by physicians to help them in the diagnosis and treatment of patients.

Fox said such automated equipment "will free technologists to perform more complicated tests and to participate in the development of new tests."

He said automated machines are needed to meet the increasing demands for blood chemistry tests and because of a nationwide shortage of medical technologists.

★ ★ ★

The blood analyzer, known as an SMA-12, is fed samples of blood serum from plastic cups placed in a circular pickup tray. These samples are pumped through an elaborate maze of plastic and glass tubing until they reach a programmed colorimeter which reads the final results.

The results of all 12 tests are automatically recorded on a single graph within 12 minutes after the sample enters the machine.

100 YEARS AGO
This was a new home, having risen proudly to take its place among the stately frame homes of the little village of Clarkston. Many changes have occurred in the ensuing years; the parlor is gone and has become part of the large living room and some years ago, modern plumbing was introduced. Today, it graciously awaits a new family who will enjoy the comfort and tradition of one of the older homes of Clarkston. 3-bedrooms await the laughter of children and the large dining room looks forward to many more family dinners. May we introduce you to this opportunity? $20,000 with $5,000 down.

IT'S TOO EARLY
To enjoy the swimming pool in the backyard on this 3-bedroom ranch in Clarkston but, you can buy now and pay later. Offered at $39,500, this home features a full walk-out basement with paneled recreation room, 1½ baths, 2-car garage carpeting throughout and is on 2 lots. Walking distance to Clarkston schools and the village. Move up to this executive home by moving out to Clarkston. Shown by appointment.

TED'S CORNER

QUESTION: What are closing costs? ANSWER: They are the costs incurred by a lending institution to close a mortgage plus the proration of taxes and other miscellaneous items. QUESTION: Who pays the closing costs? ANSWER: Normally the purchaser. QUESTION: When must they be paid? ANSWER: At the closing. QUESTION: How much home owners insurance should I have? ANSWER: The mortgage companies insist that it be in, at least, the amount of your present mortgage. Usually it would be less than what you paid for the home for it would be a waste of good money to insure the lot.

On February 28, 1968 we stated that a commission collected by a realtor was set by state law. This in part was incorrect. The state allows the local board of realtors to set their own commission rates. We are very sorry this was not more clearly stated.

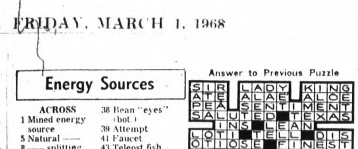
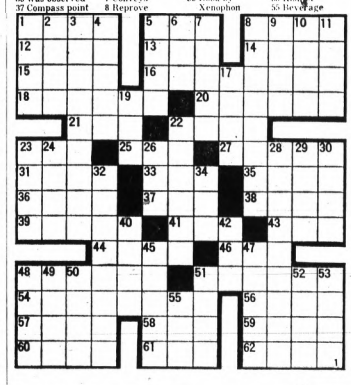
Answer to Previous Puzzle





Heirs to Get Money Without Probate

SEATTLE (AP) — Two Colorado men, heirs to the $1.1 million estate of a cousin they never saw, will receive part of the inheritance without having to wait for probate procedures.

Superior Court Judge Edward Henry signed an order Thursday certifying that after a nationwide search Arch Everly of Longmont, and Arthur Bell of Ft. Lupton were the only heirs of Leslie Everly of Seattle.

★ ★ ★

It was agreed they should receive $100,000 immediately because of their age. Everly is 89 and Bell 91.

Bishop Favors Shorter Lent

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — The Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Georgia, the Rt. Rev. Albert R. Stuart said Thursday he would like to see the six-week Lenten season shorted to two weeks.

"Two weeks would be long enough for the special disciplines of Lent," he said.

He said he believes that in modern times, 40 days is too long to achieve the purpose of greater devotion, fasting and alms giving.

Jane Making Sneaky Plans for 'Texas Guinan' Musical

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Jane Morgan, who's doing a concert with the Doodletown Pipers at Madison Square Garden Felt Forum this week, has a sneaky plan which sounds wonderful. She's going to do a musical about Texas Guinan on Broadway in the fall, and we suspect her figure's better than Guinan's though we really wouldn't know.

The famous Stage Delicatessen, torn by dissension among the family partners, may be sold for a million $ plus to a group which would start a chain. Personally, as a customer for 25 years, I hope Max Asnas, his brother Hymie, their sister, and partner Eddie, patch it all up and continue this great B'way institution just as it is, forever, until we reach that Great Pastrami in the Sky.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Secret Stuff: A top TV singer has an intriguing family situation—he has a pal who's a model and his wife has one who's a public figure . . . A famous TV host calls his Nevada pad "my love-in" and adds, "My wife is never there. She lives in absentia" . . . Steve Lawrence made Steve Rossi take a bow in the audience at "Golden Rainbow" . . . The Beatles closed their U.S. office, split with their management, and now manage themselves.

"Hot Millions," being produced in London by Mildred Freed Alberg, one of the few female film makers, is Bob Newhart's second movie in 6 years . . . Janis Page, replacing Angela Lansbury in "Mame" April 1, rented Ralph Burns' apt. while he's orchestrating the "Sweet Charity" film in Hollywood . . . Lady Sarah Russell and her new husband, Greek actor Theo Roubanis, danced at El Morocco . . . Nancy Cushman wears nothing but a pearl necklace in "The Swimmer" film . . .

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "You never see flags anymore," Morey Amsterdam said at the Latin ¼. "You put one up at your house and they think it's a post office."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Gil Rosenbrier, who banned hippies at Chicago's O'Hare's Inn, tells of one hipping saying to another, "Say, who isn't your barber?"

REMEMBERED QUOTE: Injustice is relatively easy to bear; what stings is justice. — Henry Louis Mencken.

EARL'S PEARLS: After flying in a propeller plane, Cue publisher Ed Loeb remarked, "It was so slow, they not only showed a double feature, but a newsreel and coming attractions."

Bobby Darin said he couldn't get the Maharishi on the phone —he has an unlisted mountain. That's earl, brother.

A Look at TV

Carol Is Overprotected

By RICH DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Miss Carol Channing is a very imposing lady who needs little protection on a stage. Her track record is, you might say, rather successful.

In her one-hour ABC-TV variety special last night, however, she got so much alleged "protection" in hopes of assuring good ratings that the results were far from satisfactory.

In this special and her last one, there has been considerable lack of understanding how best to present her. As usual, the answer would seem to be rather simple and obvious: Just let the lady do what she does best, and don't crowd her.

Alas, however, consider last night's affair. There was Walter Matthau, apparently to appeal to the more hip, sophisticated audience — but this wonderfully funny and talented man was the recipient not only of little to do, but of a large number of uninspired lines as well. He seemed ill at ease, and almost altogether misused too.

★ ★ ★

Then there was Eddy Arnold, apparently to appeal to the provinces. He actually introduced a number this way: "I hope you enjoy this song . . . it's one of my favorites." And suddenly everything seemed 20 years out of date.

There was, in addition, the pop group called "The Association" obviously to appeal to the did very well with its number, "Windy," a fine sound.

And for those in the audience who might not feel quite at ease with The Association, there was the United States Air Force Academy Cadet Chorale, rendering song of the armed forces.

Finally, there was George Burns, and in his unique way he proceeded to get a little plain fun into the goings-on, as he teamed up with Miss Channing on "Some of these Days," and bantered with Matthau.

★ ★ ★

Miss Channing did several pleasant songs and got a few laughs, but by and large she was just too cute in her direct remarks to the viewers.

Miss Channing is a terrific comedienne, and it is a pity none of the sketches really unleashed her — particularly with such a funny partner as Matthau around.

The name of the hour was "Carol Channing and One Hundred and One Men. There were about 100 too many.

Bridegroom Signs Vow: I Proposed

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The bride in a wedding Thursday, Feb. 29, said she had a statement signed by the bridegroom that it was "he who did the proposing, not me."

The bride is Mrs. Wilma McDonnell, 46, an Iowa State University graduate student, and the bridegroom is Iowa State Prof. Bob R. Holdren, 45.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Holdren, a widow formerly of Huron, S. D., said she insisted, "all in fun, of course," that Holdren sign the statement. She said it also includes a promise that Holdren will celebrate their wedding anniversary "every year on Feb. 28, and not just every four years when Feb. 29 rolls around."

Casey Jones was John Luther Hones, employed in the 1890s on the Illinois Central Railroad.

YOUR TV AND YOU

Your TV set and you are probably inseparable companions on most of these cold winter days and evenings. This means extra hours of operation for your set and that is like putting extra miles on your car. It generally means that additional maintenance will be required. When this need arises, be kind to your TV set by giving it competent professional service. Eliminate guesswork and experimenting, call a reliable and experienced TESA of Oakland County Service Dealer.

U. S. Panel Urges Massive Effort to End Race Turmoil

WASHINGTON (AP) — A presidential commission demands compassionate, massive and sustained efforts — perhaps costing more money than the Vietnam war — to end the destruction and bitterness wrought by racial disorder in America's cities.

★ ★ ★

"Our nation is moving toward two societies, one black, one white — separate and unequal," declared the President's Commission on Civil Disorders. It condemned white racism as a central cause.

Unless immediate action is taken, the commission said, "large-scale and continuing violence could result, followed by white retaliation, and, ultimately, the separation of the two communities into a garrison state."

New taxes must be imposed if necessary, the panel told President Johnson, but "there can be no higher priority for national action and no higher claim on the nation's conscience."

The White House had no immediate reaction to the report. Comment in Congress was sparse — probably because the document was released two days earlier than planned and most congressmen hadn't received a copy.

MAJOR QUESTION

But even before its release, one major question was being raised.

"Where," asked Rep. George H. Mahon, D-Tex., "are we going to get the money?" He heads the House Appropriations Committee.

The commission spent seven months investigating riots in Newark, Detroit and 21 other cities. It concluded: "The urban disorders of the summer of 1967 were not caused by, nor were they the consequence of, any organized plan or conspiracy."

But militant organizations and individual agitators, it added, "helped to create an atmosphere that contributed to the outbreak of disorder."

Among the commission's proposed remedies:

- Immediate action to create 2 million new jobs in the next three years — 1 million by private industry and 1 million by local, state and federal governments.
- Tax incentives and other subsidies for industries that locate in poverty areas, both urban and rural, and which give on-the-job training to hard-core unemployed.
- Vigorous moves to flatten artificial barriers to employment, "including not only racial discrimination but, in certain cases, arrest records or lack of a high school diploma."
- Sharply increased efforts to eliminate de facto segregation and racial discrimination in all schools, North and South, by sternly applying civil rights laws.
- Early childhood education for "every disadvantaged child in the country," increased aid for older students who want to attend college and greater federal support for adult basic education.
- Enactment of a federal open-housing law covering sale or rental of all housing — including single-family homes — and the placement of more low-income housing outside slum areas.

7 Children Perish in N. Michigan Fire

From Our News Wires

LAKE CITY—Seven children in two families perished today in a fire which destroyed a farm home on M-55 about 10 miles southeast of this Missaukee County community.

The mothers and two other children escaped.

Police said Mrs. Vicki Hall and Mrs. Dawn Snyder, both 34, were sleeping in an upstairs bedroom with Mrs. Hall's infant daughter Patricia, 4 months, when the fire broke out sometime before 2 a.m.

The smoke and flames quickly spread through the house, waking the two women, who frantically tried to reach the other children, police said.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hall, with the infant in her arms, grabbed her son, Mike, 2, and ran downstairs through the flames.

DOORWAY SEALED

But Mike broke from her grasp and ran into the kitchen. The fire sealed off the doorway, forcing Mrs. Hall away from the kitchen to a nearby window, which she leaped through.

Mrs. Snyder and her eldest son, Louis, 13, escaped through upstairs windows.

Killed in the fire were Danny, Susan and Rex Snyder, aged 5 to 7, and three of Mrs. Hall's children, Debra, 6, Tammy, 4, and Mike. The children were cousins.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hall and the infant were reported in fair condition at Cadillac Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Snyder and Louis were treated and released.

EN ROUTE TO OHIO

Mrs. Snyder's husband, Norman, was driving a furniture van to Ohio when the tragedy occurred. State Police located him in Detroit.

Mrs. Hall was separated from her husband, police said. She was Snyder's niece, troopers said.

The cause of the fire was not immediately determined.

★ ★ ★

Intense heat and smoke prevented the firefighters from entering the house. Police said firemen also were hampered by pumps that continually froze.

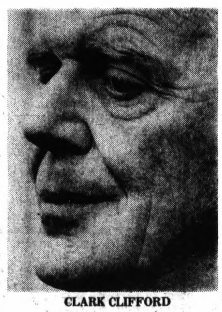
ROBERT McNAMARA



CLARK CLIFFORD

New Secretary of Defense Takes Oath of Office Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Clark M. Clifford, reputedly a hardliner on the Vietnam war, takes the oath today as the nation's ninth secretary of defense. President Johnson planned to look on as Chief Justice Earl Warren administered the oath to the 61-year-old Washington lawyer at a White House ceremony.

Clifford was overlooked by many of the spectators who stood in the rain yesterday outside the Pentagon to applaud outgoing Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

But today Clifford becomes the Pentagon's kingpin, boss of 3.4 million military men, more than one million civilian employes and a spending budget of about $76 billion.

There has been speculation that Clifford, who left one of Washington's most prosperous law practices, may serve as kind of a caretaker Pentagon chief until after the November election.

CRITICAL POST

By this reasoning, Johnson would have a trusted long-time associate in the critical post during the election year and then — if reelected — could search for a longer-term Cabinet officer if Clifford preferred to return to law.

At his late-January confirmation hearing before the Senate Armed Services Committee, Clifford testified that in accepting Johnson's call he had not placed any limitation on the period he was willing to serve.

"I am ready and prepared to serve for whatever length of time he chooses me to do so," Clifford said.

The new defense chief has had a long association with defense matters, dating back to Truman administration days when he helped write the law which unified the military services.

IN ON DECISIONS

As an adviser to Johnson, he has been in on many of the critical White House conferences at which major decisions on the course of the Vietnam war have been made.

Although not yet secretary, he participated this week in White House conferences reappraising U.S. strategy in Vietnam and considering what sources said was a request by Gen. William C. Westmoreland for about 100,000 more U.S. troops in Sources in position to know picture Clifford as something more of a hardliner on Vietnam than McNamara has been, although the degree of difference is said to have been less than a gulf.

Draft-Rockefeller Move Is Urged

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two Republican governors have advised their colleagues they better start pushing a draft-Rockefeller bandwagon now or it may never get rolling.

Govs. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland and Tom McCall of Oregon, expressed certainty yesterday the New Yorker will not lend himself to any last-ditch attempt to stop Nixon.

★ ★ ★

They interpreted Rockefeller's position as demanding substantial support from party moderates — including most of the 26 GOP governors — before he'll consider running.

70 North Viets Killed in Attack on Khe Sanh

KHE SANH, Vietnam (AP) — More than 500 North Vietnamese soldiers attacked the Khe Sanh Combat base through the fog before dawn today.

They got to the barbed wire ring around the base before they were driven back with at least 70 of their men killed.

The Red infantrymen charged behind three sapper platoons in the attack on the base's eastern perimeter, which is held by a battalion of 500 crack South Vietnamese Rangers.

A flight of the U.S. Air Force's huge B52 bombers, flying in direct support of ground troops for the first time in the war, dropped tons of explosives only 750 yards in front of the Rangers' lines.

★ ★ ★

The besieged U.S. Marine base in the northwest corner of South Vietnam was on a Red alert — meaning an attack was believed imminent — when the enemy soldiers came lunging through the darkness and mist.

PLACED TORPEDOES

Some of the Communist sappers succeeded in placing Bangalore torpedoes under the coils of barbed wire that circle the two-square-mile base, but they were killed before they could trigger the charges.

U.S. and South Vietnamese naval forces meanwhile reported their biggest single bag of the war — the destruction of three 100-ton Communist trawlers loaded with Soviet AK47 assault rifles and ammunition along the coast. Another of the 100-foot vessels fled out to sea and escaped.

The U.S. Command said one of the trawlers was blown up by its crew to escape capture and the other two were shot up in flames by U.S. Navy and Coast Guard boats, infantrymen firing from the beach and planes attacking overhead.

★ ★ ★

In the Saigon area, South Vietnamese military headquarters reported capture of a Viet Cong sampan on the southern fringes of the capital, and a spokesman said the sampan contained 80,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, 50 pounds of dynamite and 200 mortar and rocket rounds.

Weather Lamblike

March came prancing into Pontiac last night perky as a lamb with skies becoming sunny at dawn.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau forecast for the weekend:

TODAY — Mostly sunny. High 34 to 40. Cloudy with little chance of rain or snow tonight. Low tonight 25 to 30.

Winds westerly 10 to 18 miles per hour shifting to northwesterly 15 to 25 miles tonight.

TOMORROW — Chance of snow flurries and turning colder.

SUNDAY — Partly cloudy and rather cold.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: today 10, tonight 40 and tomorrow 20.

A brisk 12 above was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury registered 30 at 12:30 p.m.

Candidates Listed

Today's Pontiac Press carries a complete listing of City Commission candidates vying for their district nominations in Districts 1, 4, 5 and 7 on pages C-8 and C-9.

The primary elections will be held Monday. Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The top two vote getters in each district will face each other in the city's general election April 15.

Wealthy Bachelors Throw Posh Matchmaking Party

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) "It's the nicest collection I've ever seen," cooed a platinum blonde model as she scanned 29 wealthy bachelors who threw a posh partly in a ballroom by the sea to find "the right girl."

★ ★ ★

Twenty-nine girls, chosen from 10,000 applicants, were wined, dined and presented with solid gold pins by the wife-hunting men-about-town on the traditional day for the girls to chase, Feb. 29, Leap Year Day.

The bachelors, all of whom must earn over $25,000 a year to be a "29-er," include a British millionaire who docked his yacht in Fort Lauderdale several years ago and just hasn't decided to move on yet, a state legislator, doctors, dentists and corporation executives for the asking.

"As soon as I heard about it I raced like mad and took my picture down in person," said Joan Gordon, the smiling model in a low-cut pink gown. "I didn't believe there were so many eligible bachelors in town."

★ ★ ★

The girls selected were not exactly the short-order-cook type with dreams of meeting a millionaire.

"All the girls are quite bright," said Leonard M. Sakrais, a Miami Beach dentist.

An architect's consultant, a casting director for a network television show, a New York actress, a doctor of psychology, a model, an airline stewardess and a handful of school teachers were among those selected.

Legislators Act on Antiriot, Court Bills

LANSING (AP) — Shaking off the shock of Gov. George Romney's surprise withdrawal from the race for the Republican presidential nomination, lawmakers moved Thursday on controversial antiriot and court measures.

The Senate easily passed its first antiriot bill—aimed at squelching riots by making it a crime to incite to riot—despite lengthy argument over whether it will help prevent repeats of last summer's Detroit upheaval.

Meanwhile, the House spent its Thursday session attempting to wrap up debate on a complex lower court reorganization bill in preparation for a final vote.

Republican legislators and staff members, some still numb from the news of Romney's Wednesday withdrawal, managed only weak smiles at Democratic jokes inspired by the governor's action.

TO CHARTER BUSES

The governor's staff made plans to charter buses for a trip to Detroit to greet Romney on his arrival there late today from New Hampshire, where he had been campaigning in recent weeks.

It was not immediately known when Romney would return to his Lansing office, but the flurry of legislative action seemed almost in anticipation of a return to normalcy in the Capitol.

The Senate antiriot bill was approved 32-2 and sent to the House after it was amended to omit a provision calling for a sentence of up to life imprisonment.

Sponsored by Sen. James Fleming, R-Jackson, the bill forbids inciting, inducing or exhorting to murder, kill, wound, assault or commit any other felony which might endanger life.

MINOR CRIME

Fleming amended the bill to provide that a person found guilty of incitement would be liable to the penalty for the crime to which he incited another person.

Critics of the life imprisonment provision argued that a person could go to jail for life for inciting another person to comit a relatively minor crime.

The bill, one of a flood of antiriot and anticrime measures before the Legislature, was opposed only by Democratic Sens. Coleman Young and Arthur Cartwright, both Detroit Negroes.

Fleming described the bill as one which would allow law enforcement officers to prevent riot situations "by acting before the damage is done."

Stern Police Action Facing Future Rioters

DETROIT (AP) — Any rioters in Michigan next summer will find themselves facing a stern phalanx of police.

Control measures aimed at a quick "snuff out" are being or have been adopted in practically all cities and in many smaller communities, as well.

"Be prepared" are watchwords.

The State Police and National Guard are coordinating their programs with planning of local authorities. Many neighboring communities have adopted mutual assistance pacts. Prosecutors are being brought into planning.

★ ★ ★

Manpower of most police departments has been increased since last summers Michigan riots, which saw 43 die and millions of dollars damage done in Detroit.

INTENSIVE TRAINING

Two more died of gunshot wounds in Pontiac and several persons were wounded in Grand Rapids. Some 40 people were arrested in Flint.

Intensive stints in riot control training have been conducted. New weapons, including disabling chemical sprays, have been added. Monroe and Oakland counties are purchasing armored cars for their sheriffs.

The Michigan House of Representatives passed 80-8 last week a bill which would make it a felony to possess a "Molotov cocktail" and inserted an amendment which would make it effective May 1 instead of 90 days after adjournment of the Legislature.

Also pending in the House is a bill that would make inciting to riot punishable by life imprisonment. The Senate has yet to act on either bill.

Many communities now have citizen-volunteer police reserves.

While authorities everywhere conceded they already have or are drafting control plans, none wanted to spell out the specifics in a survey conducted by The Associated Press and its member newspapers.

One police administrator put it this way: "Macy doesn't tell Gimble. It would be inappropriate to tell people who want to take over your city what you are going to do to prevent it."

PROCRASTINATORS' DAY — The Secretary of State's office at 95 E. Huron was crowded yesterday, the deadline for acquiring 1968 auto license plates. Approximately 1,500 applications were handled the last day. A similar scene was reported at the Waterford Township office, 4520 Pontiac Lake, which handled 1,550. However, at both places, officials reported applicants were not required to wait long and the rush wasn't as bad as in other years.

Pontiac Press Photo

Weather in February Full of Surprises

Like an efficient court jester, February kept a bag of tricks that may not have always left Oakland County residents laughing—but it certainly emphasized the element of surprise.

From a record-high of 52 on Feb. 1 (the month's high), temperatures plummeted to a frigid 3 degrees below zero on Feb. 21. This compared to a high of 47 and a low of minus 8 in February 1966.

The mercury chalked up a mean of 22.2, 1.8 degrees warmer than the previous February.

A 2-inch rainfall plagued the area following the Feb. 1-2 preview of spring, washing out roads and flooding basements. The next day, as temperatures slid into the freezing zone and winds began to bluster, the water accumulation iced streets and freeways.

★ ★ ★

Total precipitation accumulation for the month was two inches of rainfall and six inches of snow. Last February, only one-tenth of an inch of rain fell and 12¼ inches of snow.

21 SUNNY DAYS

There were 21 days of sunshine during this leap-year month as compared to 14 in 1966.

Raw winds out of the arctic at 15 to 25 miles on Feb. 8 caused fathers to put golf clubs back into closets all over the county as mothers swaddled their children with scarves and extra clothing to beat frostbite.

Nixon Stresses Johnson as Foe

Anti-LBJ Vote Urged in New Hampshire

LEBANON, N.H. (AP) — With Gov. George Romney out of the New Hampshire presidential primary, Richard M. Nixon is endeavoring to depict the election as a contest between himself and President Johnson.

Nixon closed a speech to a large audience in Lebanon by saying:

★ ★ ★

"Go forth from this room and show that New Hampshire says that it's time for Lyndon Johnson to go back to Texas and that as New Hampshire goes, so goes the nation."

The audience exploded with applause.

Earlier, Nixon referred indirectly to Romneys' withdrawal by saying, "Your votes still matter." He told the crowd, "The voters of the nation will be looking to New Hampshire, and the size of the vote on the Republican side will be measured against the size of the vote on the Democratic side."

★ ★ ★

Nixon told a reporter after the speech, "To a certain extent, considering the registration, the New Hampshire primary can be considered an approval or disapproval of the Johnson administration."

Official 1966 New Hampshire registration figures showed 145,694 Republicans; 122,422 Independents, and 87,490 Democrats.

FDA Head Opposes Control of Antibiotic

WASHINGTON (AP) — The head of the Food and Drug Administration has told Senate investigators he sees no sure way of stopping doctors from misusing the antibiotic drug Chloromycetin short of government control over medical praetice.

And, testified Dr. James L. Goddard Thursday, he would not want to see the government acquire such power.

★ ★ ★

Goddard told the Senate prescription drug subcommittee that taking the drug off the market "would do more harm than good." He expressed agreement with a survey which concluded about 1 in 24,000 patients die after taking it.

★ ★ ★

Goddard announced tougher labeling requirements for the drug. He also said there would be a direct appeal to doctors to heed hazard warnings about the antibiotic, which he said is needlessly given to millions of patients.

CALLED BIASED

An official of Parke-Davis, manufacturer of the drug, issued a statement frmom company headquarters in Detroit calling the Senate hearings "one-sided and biased because they have not reviewed Chloromycetin in proper perspective."

Dr. Joseph F. Sadusk, Parke-Davis vice president for medical and scientific affairs, said the implication has been that Chloromycetin is the only dangerous antibiotic.

★ ★ ★

"This is far from the truth because all antibiotics are dangerous to, give," Sadusk said. "They all have their toxic potential."

He also said Parke-Davis has made strong efforts to warn doctors about the toxic potential of the drug, whose generic name is chloromycetin.

Dirksen Hit for 'Reneging' on Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate liberals have accused Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of endangering the civil rights bill by proposing a modified open-housing section after agreeing with them on broader legislation.

They also attacked Thursday an open-housing amendment put forward by Dirksen's son-in-law, Sen. Howard H. Baker, R-Tenn. But a Dirksen aide and Baker indicated it never was clear just what was to be in the new compromise open-housing proposal forged by Dirksen and the liberals.

"I regret that anyone has seen the necessity to file amendments that could jeopardize passage of this legislation," said Republican Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts, the only Senate's only Negro member.

Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., said, "I think the bargain has been made and ought to be kept."

House Vote on Court Bill Today

LANSING (AP) — A bill which would replace Michigan's judicial grab bag of municipal, police and justice courts with a uniform statewide lower court system races to a vote in the House today.

The measure required a two-thirds majority for passage, and the tally was expected to be close.

★ ★ ★

"I think we've probably got the votes," said Rep. Donald Holbrook, R-Clare, who led the fight for the big, complicated bill during weary and often bitter hours of floor debate last year and again in this legislative session.

House leaders had pushed for a showdown on the measure Thursday, but ran out of time and decided to call for a vote today.

STILL FACESTRIALS

If passed by the House, the court reorganization bill still faces trials in the Senate, where a substantially different measure has been written by the chamber's judiciary committee.

The House version abolishes not only the offices of circuit court commissioner and justice of the peace, which are doomed anyway at the end of 1968 by the State Constitution, but also the state's municipal and police courts outside Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Replacing the abolished courts would be a statewide network of 181 district judges, each required to be an attorney, forbidden to practice law on the side, and paid $20,000 a year by the state.

The House bill is a rewritten version of a measure which last December fell 17 votes short of passage.

An attempt by several Negro legislators from Detroit to extend the district court system into their city, doing away with the traffic and ordinance division of Recorder's Court, was defeated Thursday. Afterward, five Negro members vowed to vote against the bill.

★ ★ ★

Rep. David Holmes, D-Detroit, led the fight to include Detroit, seeking to divide the city into four districts in order to make likely the election of more Negro judges.

UAW Mulling AFL-CIO Ties

Preelection Break Viewed as Unlikely

DETROIT (AP) — Walter P. Reuther sits down today and Saturday with the 26-member executive board of his United Auto Workers to get its advice on when he should lead his union out of the AFL-CIO if the federation fails to meet his demands for reform.

Many within top UAW ranks don't believe any break will come before the November presidential election, in which labor would like to present a united front for President Johnson's reelection.

Pointing to the red-haired Reuther's unpredictability, however, some concede an earlier walkout is a possibility.

The 60-year-old Reuther has charged the AFL-CIO, into which he led his Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) in 1955, has become "undemocratic" and is "vegetating" under the presidency of 73-year-old George Meany.

MUST BE RESHAPED

As a price for continuing in the 14 million member federation, the UAW has insisted the AFL-CIO heirarchy must be reshaped and a massive organizing drive inaugurated to expand labor's membership.

Meany generally has maintained silence on Reuther's criticisms over the last year, saying he didn't intend to debate internal affairs in the public press.

★ ★ ★

Reuther had lost repeated rounds to Meany in the AFL-CIO Executive Council, before raising the threat of pulling out his 1.5 million members.

The UAW Executive Board was given specific authority last April to break with the AFL-CIO if it chooses to do so and launch its own drive "to get the labor movement on the march again."

Action, however, was delayed while Reuther concentrated on winning new three-year contracts with the automotive Big Three — General Motors, Ford and Chrysler. That now is behind him.

The UAW chief promised the convention that once new contracts were won he would ask a special meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council to place the UAW's program before it. If he has asked such a session, no one has disclosed it.

Most top-level UAW executives say they would expect him "to give the AFL-CIO one last chance" before a final break.

The agenda for today's and Saturday's UAW Executive Board meeting calls merely for discussion of AFL-CIO and UAW relationships.

Fair-Housing Unit Sets Meeting on Campaign

BIRMINGHAM — To discuss plans for its campaign to secure a "yes" vote in this city's April 1 referendum, Birmingham Residents for Fair Housing has scheduled a general meeting at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the auditorium of Holy Name School, 680 Harmon.

A representative from the Greater Flint Council of Churches, which conducted a successful campaign for that city's fair-housing ordinance, will speak at the meeting, according to Dr. John M. Dorsey Jr., chairman of the temporary citizens' group.

★ ★ ★

Dorsey said the group's object was to encourage as much "open, public discussion" of Birmingham's ordinance as possible prior to the municipal election.

Two more chairman for this city's 1968 Michigan Week celebration have been named.

Richard J. Thomas Jr., chairman of the committee for the annual observance, which will take place from May 18-25 this year, has announced appointment for Community Pride Day and Our Government Day chairmen.

They are, respectively, Mrs. William A. McNamee, 1271 Lakeside, and John F. Saefke, 1235 Villa.

★ ★ ★

A city commissioner, Mrs. McNamee guided last year's Community Pride Day activities. She has been a member of the Michigan Week committee for the past three years.

★ ★ ★

She also serves as commission member of the Birmingham Youth Assistance Committee, chairman of the Beautify Birmingham Committee, and member of Gov. Romney's Commission on the Status of Women.

Saefke, assistant city manager, has chaired the Our Government Day program for the past three years.

Sweden has only three cities with more than 100,000 inhabitants, against 51 in Britain, which is little more than half the size.

Central Rome Paralyzed by Student Riots

ROME (AP) — Central Rome was paralyzed today by rioting university students who clashed with thousands of helmeted police swinging clubs and firing tear gas.

Hundreds of persons were injured, including at least 60 police. More than 100 rioters were taken into custody.

★ ★ ★

Downtown bus and taxi service halted. Shopkeepers shuttered their stores. Passers-by and lower grade school children fled to shelter in terror as the disorders spread.

★ ★ ★

Students screaming, "Revolution! Revolution!" bombarded police with paving stones ripped up from the streets. They overturned and set fire to police cars and buses. Ambulances with sirens screaming raced through the streets.

★ ★ ★

It was the most violent clash in the city since students began occupying university buildings three weeks ago in a campaign for more say in school administration and more modern teaching methods.

★ ★ ★

A parade of 3,000 students formed in Piazza di Spagna and marched to the Schools of Architecture where they fought with police guarding the building.

14 Make Commission Bid

City Polls Open Monday

By BOB WISLER

Registered voters in four Pontiac districts will go to the polls Monday to nominate eight city commission candidates.

Fourteen candidates — including two incumbent commissioners — in Districts 1, 4, 5 and 7 are vying for nominations.

Voters in each district will select two men to face each other in the city's general election April 15.

There will be no primary voting in Districts 2, 3 and 6. In each of these districts only two persons per district filed nominating petitions as candidates.

★ ★ ★

The primary election is held to narrow the list of candidates to two per district.

CANDIDATES LISTED

Seeking nomination in each of the districts where a primary will be held Monday are:

District 1 — Incumbent T. Warren Fowler Sr., Charles M. Tucker Jr. and Robert J. Bowens Jr.

District 4 — F. Jack Douglas, Richard I. Moore, George Grba and Robert E. Grimmett.

District 5 — Arnold R. Jones, Rollie L. Jones and Robert F. Jackson.

District 7 — Incumbent James H. Marshall, Robert A. Landry, James B. Davis and Albert C.Shaw.

★ ★ ★

Candidates for election or reelection who do not face primary battles and who will be automatically nominated to face each other in the general election are:

★ ★ ★

District 2 — Commissioner Robert C. Irwin and Louis E. Fairbrother.

District 3 — Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. and Earl D. Spring Sr.

District 6 — Commissioner Wesley J. Wood and John F. Leonard.

Registered voters in the four districts where primary elections will be held total 20,293 out of a total 29,805 in the city, City Clerk Olga Barkeley said.

A breakdown of registered voters by districts (in districts where a primary election will be held): District 1—3,963; District 4—5,714; District 5—7,093; and District 7—3,523.

While the primary voting will narrow the candidates to 14 in the seven districts, there is no guarantee that there will not be write-in candidates in the general election.

★ ★ ★

Write-in candidates have frequently been a feature of Pontiac elections. In 1964, a write-in candidate, Emmett Wellbaum was elected to the City Commission over the two men who had been nominated in the primary.

The present City Commission has been together for the past two commission terms. Six of the seven commissioners were elected or reelected in 1964 with Marshall being appointed in November 1964.

All seven of the commissioners were reelected in 1966.

With Commissioners Leslie H. Hudson and John A. Dugan dropping out of contention this year the commission is bound to have at least two new faces in District 4 and 5.

★ ★ ★

Voters have been cautioned to vote for only one candidate.

Absentee ballots can be picked up at City Hall until 2 p.m. tomorrow, Mrs. Barkeley said. They must be returned in time to be counted Monday, she said.

Pontiac Polling Places Listed

The following is the list of 26 polling places for Monday's City Commission primary election.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Primaries in Districts 2, 3 and 6.

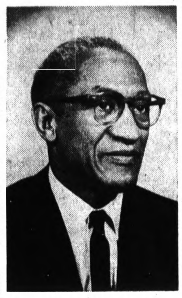
PONTIAC DISTRICTS—This map shows Pontiac's seven City Commission districts and the precincts in each district. Primary elections will be held Monday in only Districts 1, 4, 5 and 7. The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

District 1



T. WARREN FOWLER SR.

T. Warren Fowler Sr., 61, of 57 Lake, a heating and electrical contractor, is completing his second two-year City Commission term.

A 40-year resident, he has served on the police trial board and the Pontiac Area Urban League.

His statement:

"I am a candidate for reelection to the City Commission from District 1 because I would like to continue participating in the progress the city is now beginning to make. Some of the more important things I will continue to pursue for increased progress are:

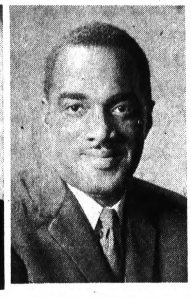
"Vigorous action to seek out developers to initiate the redevelopment of downtown Pontiac.

"Determined effort by all citizens to bring about a harmonious relationship between citizens of all races and creeds.

"As a total community we should especially examine and develop solutions for those problems that are particularly unique to the black community, and therefore relieve much of the prevailing tension in our city.

"In the area of housing there should be continued effort to fulfill the public housing needs; however, there should be increased encouragement of private single-residence construction.

"We need an increased, strengthened and well-trained police department for increased, but absolutely fair law enforcement."



ROBIRT J. BOWENS

Robert J. Bowens, 45, of 316 Harrison is making his third try for a City Commission post in District 1.

An employe of Pontiac Motor Division since 1945, he has been a member of the Oakland County Democratic Committee Executive Board, a delegate to the State Constitutional Convention and the Masons.

His statement:

"I want to be elected to help this city solve its many problems and to cut down on cost and waste. I want to do everything I can to build up Pontiac and to bring about a new city, a new downtown and togetherness.

"I also want to go to whatever lengths necessary to bring people together and to eliminate distrust and tension. There has to be a sincere meeting of minds and we can't waste time appointing committees.

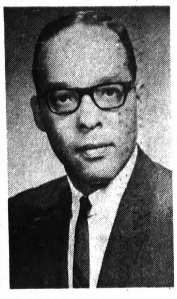
★ ★ ★

"Housing in this city is a severe problem and it makes no sense that this city and state are so wealthy and yet we have antiquated and inadequate housing. We must eliminate slums.

"Downtown deterioation has gone on too long. Steps must be taken to get together so that we can have a new downtown and a spirit to bring it about.

★ ★ ★

"My purpose in running is not to degrade anyone, past or present, but to do what is necessary for the total good of our community."



CHARLES M. TUCKER JR.

Charles M. Tucker Jr., 35, of 161 Earlemoor, president of Tucker Realty and Mark Mortgage Service Co., also ran for the City Commission from District 1 in 1966.

Past president of the Oakland County NAACP, he is a member of the Pontiac Housing Study Committee, Oakland County Child Guidance Clinics, Rema Club, Pontiac Area Urban League and Chamber of Commerce.

His statement:

"I believe we can together, through communication and cooperation, do something ourselves for our district and city. We can, together, bring respect, dignity and understanding while making our community and city a clean, wholesome, safe place to live and raise our families.

★ ★ ★

"This is not a time for politics but for responsible and representative leadership. we must have increased police and fire protection and adequate city services. There should be established a police-community relations department which can do much to bring about understanding and cooperation. We need more Negro policemen.

★ ★ ★

"Our racial problems can't be solved by only reacting but by dedication, continuous communication, understanding and mutual trust."

District 5

ROBERT F. JACKSON

Robert F. Jackson, 41, of 1075 Featherstone is a professional real estate appraiser.

His statement:

"We must attack crime of all kinds and make the city a safe place for all to live. This is going to take the help of all citizens of Pontiac.

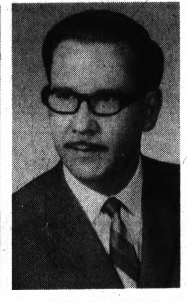
"The police department must be improved and so must the attitude of the people.

"The central business district can not be allowed to stand vacant any longer. The city must advertise its good points, such as its geographical center of the future megalopolis which will extend from Toledo to Bay City, its favorable industrailial base and its favorable labor supply.

The city must settle on a good financial and structural development plan. "I believe the best development plan presented so far is that presented by the University of Detroit.

"A commissioner should be able to work with the citizens so they can solve their own problems with the full cooperation and assistance of the city government. Our representative system must find a way to move into the districts and work on a one-to-one basis with the people and their problems. This can be done if the proper attitude prevails at the commission table.

"I want to give of my time and efforts to start Pontiac on its way to becoming the outstanding city it deserves to be."



ARNOLD R. JONES

Arnold R. Jones, 41, of 672 Linda Vista, a public relations specialist with Michigan Blue Cross, is seeking a commission post for the first time.

★ ★ ★

President of the Pontiac Knolls Good Neighbor Club, past president of the Detroit Academy of Advertising Arts and past director of information for the Great Lakes Region of the Civil Air Patrol, he has been active in city and congressional district politics since 1963.

He holds a certificate in industrial advertising from the University of Michigan.

His statement:

"I believe the people of Pontiac want more police and fire protection; I believe they want referendum rights, constitutional law and order, local self-rule, revenue-producing use of downtown wasteland, and peaceful, clean and quiet neighborhoods.

★ ★ ★

"I, too, want these things. I have worked for the principles these viewpoints represent in the past and I will continue to do so.

★ ★ ★

I believe lasting achievements for the benefit of all mankind can be made without sacrificing basic freedoms and without centralizing power in the hands of a few."

ROLLIE L. JONES

Rollie L. Jones, 49, of 49 Victory is making his second bid for the commission. He ran in 1964 placing first in the primary voting in District 1 but was defeated in the citywide election.

Jones, a teacher at Jefferson Junior High School, holds a master's degree in education and has taken courses at Wayne State University toward a doctorate. He has been active in the Pontiac Federation of Teachers, the PTA and veterans associations.

His statement:

"There are many problems in the city and I am concerned about all of them.

"Redevelopment of downtown is important. It is dead with nothing beautiful to see. Parking is something else. When you do find a parking place it's a mile to the place you would like to go. We should contact several experts and let them bring their plans so a committee can study or review the facts and see if it fits our budget.

★ ★ ★

"The housing shortage. Do we have one, or is this for the Negro? If those who qualify would be given the chance to purchase the house of their choice we would not have as much a shortage as we do.

"I am a supporter of human rights, human dignity and self-respect. I believe there should be jobs for all who qualify with no line drawn according to race, creed or color."

Early Trading Moderate

Stock Market Stages Rally

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied early today. Trading was moderately active. Gold mining stocks continued strong.

Gains outnumbered losses by more than 4 to 3.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average advanced 1.10 to 841.60.

The golds added new gains on further reports of increasing demand for gold in European bullion markets and rises in the price of gold mining shares in markets throughout the world. Various reports and rumors accompanied the gains.

WARDS UP A POINT

Montgomery Ward, up about a point, showed further strength following reports of rising earnings expected.

Among the gold miners, Homestake rose close to a point while Benguet and McIntyre Porcupine added fractions.

★ ★ ★

Sunshine Mining, a leading silver producer, advanced about 1½. Ranco gained more than a point.

Republic Corp. and IBM dropped a couple of points. Ogden slid more than a point on continued profit taking on its rise earlier this year.

OIL STOCK GAINS

Occidental Petroleum gained ⅛ at 31⅛ on a block of 11,000 shares.

Scott Paper traded unchanged on a block of 48,000 shares.

★ ★ ★

The slowness of Thursday's decline and the lessening of volume was interpreted as a good sign of technical market strength despite disconcerting news.

Inflationary thinking was spurred by the newest rise in consumer prices, the increase in sulphur prices and expanded plans for consumer buying.

Thursday the Associated Press Average of 60 Stocks fell 1.4 to 305.6.

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Rise Predicted in Auto Sales

1968 Projections Up 600,000 Over '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department today projected new car sales this year at about 8.9 million, up about 600,000 from last year.

Its forecast was based on a survey of consumer buying intentions for the coming months.

Results of the January survey show that households anticipate buying new cars at the annual rate of 7.6 million during the April-September period compared with purchases of 7.1 million last year, the department said.

Governments and business bought another 1.2 million cars during 1967 to raise total retail sales for the year to about 8.3 million.

★ ★ ★

If consumer buying intentions hold true and household purchases continue to comprise about 85 per cent of total sales, new car purchases this year should reach 8.9 million, the department added.

SLIGHTLY MORE

The survey taken in January showed that American consumers plan to spend slightly more in coming months on cars, household appliances and houses than they indicated in an October survey but the department said the changes were not substantial.

Indexes for used car purchases and houses were up significantly from their level of a year ago, however.

The deparment said the used car index rose from 98.7 in January of last year to 103.4 last month while the index for houses jumped from 98.1 to 105.7.

★ ★ ★

The department also said Americans generally were more optimistic about the likelihood of increased incomes in January than they were last October.

Greatest optimism came in households with annual incomes of less than $3,000, probably because of increased Social Security benefits.

Complaints Rising on Product Quality

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Grumblings from corporate purchasing agents about the poor quality of manufactured products are growing louder. Some feel a deterioration set in about two years ago and is now intensifying.

CUNNIFF

Blamed for the condition are several factors, but most commonly cited are:

—The present high-volume economy which is putting strains on some production facilities, even though industry as a whole is not operating at total capacity.

★ ★ ★

"High volume is the name of the game," said Jack O'Connor, editor of Purchasing Week magazine. "The important thing is to get the product out of the plant."

—Cost cutting in plants and factories in an attempt to take pressure off a profits-squeeze.

Ironically, some agents note that this cost cutting is double-barreled. Corporate purchasers seeking to save money put pressure on the vendor for lower cost goods. The vendor, seeking to maintain profit margins, skimps on quality.

—A deterioration in workmanship, partly because of a tight labor market in which marginal employes are used.

★ ★ ★

"Too many skilled people have lost pride," said the agent for a company whose annual sales top $1 billion. "It's a general frame of mind of too many workers. Too many of us don't have pride in a job well done."

Such gripes can be heard almost any time at all from certain people, it is true. And, a spot check does indeed show that some corporations feel there has been no deterioration in quality, especially in the quality of raw materials.

SIZE, COMPLEXITY

Another purchasing agent comments that the size and complexity of some products now makes it impossible for them to be thoroughly tested before being delivered to the customer. Flaws then must be corrected while the product is in use.

But, despite these explanations, the gripes do seem to be rising in crescendo. And, echoing the complaints of manufacturers is the discontent of consumers about sloppy work, poor design, lax servicing.

★ ★ ★

The fact that thousands of automobiles have been recalled for defects is also evidence of the problem, as is the growing concern in Washington with protecting buyers from inferior goods and services.

Said the purchasing agent for a company that spends more than $100 million a year on plant expansion:

"We've been plagued with the quality of equipment supplied—compressors, turbines, chemical processing machines. In one case the bearings were in backward on a power plant engine. Welding often is improperly done."

COSTLY DELAYS

This, he said, not only causes the finished plant to be more expensive than had been foreseen, but results in very costly delays in getting the plant into operation.

"We haven't got a profit margin that can tolerate a half-good plant," he said. "We can't afford it."

★ ★ ★

As a result of all this, said an agent, "you need to spend more time on expediting, following-up orders and on inspection than in any time I can remember since World War II and the Korean war."

It is increasingly frustrating, he said, to hold vendors to their shipping promises. "And then when it comes it's not made right." He forecast further deterioration.

UAW to Eye Setting AMC Strike Date

DETROIT (AP) — Top officials of the United Auto Workers Union were expected to decide today whether to set a strike deadline at American Motors Corp., the only major U.S. automaker lacking a national union contract.

The International Executive Board of the UAW was expected at a meeting to weigh the question of striking the financially troubled firm.

★ ★ ★

Thursday — the day set by the union as the target for reaching agreement on a contract—passed without any indications AMC or the UAW were close to settlement.

Company and union negotiators met for about an hour on companywide issues, then turned their attention to local matters involving at-the-plant contracts. Both sides recessed negotiations until today, planning to meet again on local issues.

IMPORTANCE LOST

An AMC official said Thursday night that the importance of the target date was "completely lost" because of AMC's plan to halt its auto production next week because of parts shortages caused by a strike at a supplier firm.

The union issued the target date tactic, rather than a strike deadline, in its successful national contract negotiations with General Motors in December.

Meanwhile, UAW members Thursday struck three more General Motors Corp. facilities, bringing to 4,100 the number on strike against the firm.

Gardner Bows Out Quietly

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Health, Education and Welfare is without a Cabinet-level officer at the reins following the quiet departure of Secretary John W. Gardner.

Gardner, who guided HEW 2½ years, completed his last day on the job Thursday and left inconspicuously. He will immediately tackle a nongovernmental job, chairmanship of the Urban Coalition.

★ ★ ★

There was no visit from the President, no ceremonial public leave-taking such as marked Thursday's departure of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara.

President Johnson hasn't named a new secretary for HEW, outranked as a federal spender only by the Defense Department. Until the appointment is made, he said when Gardner's resignation was announced in January, the acting department head will be Undersecretary Wilbur J. Cohen.

LBJ Misled Congress on Tonkin—Study

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A top secret Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff study concludes that the Johnson administration misled Congress about the 1964 Tonkin Gulf incidents that led to the bombing of North Vietnam, it was learned today.

Essential parts of the study, which has been a closely guarded secret up to now, were made public by Sen. Wayne L. Morse, D-Ore., in a senate speech yesterday.

Morse did not identify them as such in his address, but reliable sources said his remarks were taken nearly verbatim from the staff study.

The study formed the basis for a searching review by the full committee that has led several members to express doubts that the Aug. 4, 1964, attack on the destroyers Maddox and Turner Joy ever occurred.

★ ★ ★

Members have also questioned whether the United States might not have provoked the incidents or at least overreacted to the whole affair.

Dean at MSU Named Head of Utah State

LOGAN, Utah (AP) — Dr. Glen Laird Taggart of Michigan State University was named president of Utah State University today.

He succeeds Dr. Daryl Chase, who has headed the school since 1954. Dr. Chase was designated president emeritus.

The appointment is effective June 30.

Dr. Taggart, 52, is dean of international studies and programs and professor of sociology at Michigan State.

★ ★ ★

His appointment was made at a special meeting of the Utah State Board of Trustees.

In accepting the position, Dr. Taggart returns to his native county. He was born in Lewiston, near Logan, and graduated from Utah State University with a bachelor's degree in sociology in 1940.

'Get Tough' Chief to Honor Negroes

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Three Negro youths who live in a slum area where Police Chief Walter Headley recently announced a "get tough" policy will get special presents from the chief for chasing down a purse snatcher.

Headley said he would give Allen Fortune, 14, Jerome Carr, 12, and Robert Hunter, 10, the best bicycles he could find and certificates of appreciation in ceremonies at police headquarters.

News in Brief

Roger L. Haist of 715 Robinwood told Pontiac police yesterday that someone took items valued at about $400, including a stereo tape player, a radio, a microphone, a tachometer and a gearshift lever knob, from his car while parked on the 900 block of Baldwin.

Rental Shop Opening Set

Royal-Rental Co., 2711 Elizabeth Lake Road, Waterford Township, is holding a grand opening this weekend.

The shop rents everything from tools and garden equipment to party goods and trailers.

"If we don't have what you want, we'll get it if possible," said owners Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vanker of 14190 Iverness, West Bloomfield Township.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q—My husband and I are in our early 30s with three small children. We have two mutual funds, Oppenheimer and Fundamental Investors. We are adding to these for our children's education. We have $4,000 in the bank, half of which we would like to invest with the hope of doubling our money in a year or two to make a down payment on a house. What is your advice?—G.A.

A—I advise you most sincerely to abandon the idea of putting money into stocks to try to double it in a year or two. We have had a big rise in share prices since October, 1966, and prospects for doubling your money in a short time—always a dubious procedure—are at present downright unlikely. Some very good stocks—including Holiday Inns and Walgreen—have more than doubled over the past 12 months, but further gains from present high levels seem likely to slow down.

If you require your money in a year or two, leave it in the bank where it will be safe from any decline during that period. I believe that the two stocks mentioned above have excellent growth possibilities and might help you to reach you goal—but not in one or two years.

Q—We own Wellington Fund, Dreyfus Fund and Television & Electronics. Our agent suggests that for a fee of $5 we should transfer our holdings of Wellington into either Windsor or Ivest.—I. S.

A—My answer must depend upon your objective and your circumstances. Wellington is a balanced fund which is good but rather conservative from a growth standpoint. Windsor is good but has had a rather moderate performance record. If you want a fast-action stock and are willing to accept the risks involved in this type of security, I suggest Ivest which has compiled an impressive record.
