Avon Woman Shot to Death

Killing Charged to Son-in-Law

By MEL NEWMAN

A 49-year-old Avon Township woman was shot to death at her home late yesterday in the presence of her husband, son and several of her grandchildren.

Killed was Mrs. Arthur Falls of 1315 Gettysburg. She was shot once in the chest at close range, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

A man identified as the victim's son-in-law was arrested at the scene, deputies said.

McDONALD

Paul M. McDonald, 40, of 3399 Shimmons, Pontiac Township, was arraigned this morning in Avon Township Justice Court on a charge of first-degree murder.

He stood mute and demanded examination, which was set May 11 by Justice of the Peace Harry Hubert.

McDonald will be held without bond at the Oakland County Jail, officers said.

The victim's husband and son, Gary, 21, of 2581 Peter's, Pontiac Township, told about 21, of 2581 Peter's Pontiac Township, told investigators they were working on a car in the driveway of the Falls home about 9 p.m. when a man they identified as McDonald appeared from behind the garage carrying a rifle and ordered them into the house.

AT FOOT OF STAIRS

They said several of the Falls grandchildren were inside the house and were told to go with them to the basement.

Investigators said Mrs. Falls was at the foot of the basement stairs with another of the grandchildren in her arms when the assailant suddenly fired the fatal shot.

A coroner's report said she died instantly.

Falls told deputies he then whirled and grabbed the gunman and with Gary's help wrestled him to the floor. They subdued him until police and an ambulance arrived, officers said.

RIFLE IMPOUNDED

A 32-caliber level-action rifle was impounded at the scene, according to investigators.

McDonald was reportedly released on $5,000 bond from the Oakland County Jail about noon yesterday pending examination on a charge of statutory rape.

U.S., British Ask Red Troop Cut

LONDON (UPI) — Diplomatic sources said today that the United States and Britain will ask the Soviet Union to cut back its forces in Eastern Europe to match the planned withdrawal of 40,000 allied troops from West Germany.

The sources said the Russians may respond favorably, if only because they need the troops to reinforce their defenses along the uneasy border with Communist China.

The U. S. will pull back 35,000 men and the British 5,000 to lessen the drain on their foreign exchange reserves.

The troops will be held in ready reserve to be rushed back into service with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) if necessary.

★ ★ ★

British Minister of State George Thomson told Parliament yesterday that the projected withdrawal should spearhead force reduction "on both sides of the Iron Curtain."

Anglo-American consultations with European allies on the projected approach to the Soviet Union were expected shortly.

East Europeans reportedly would also favor a reduction, if not a total withdrawal, of the Soviet forces stationed in their territory.

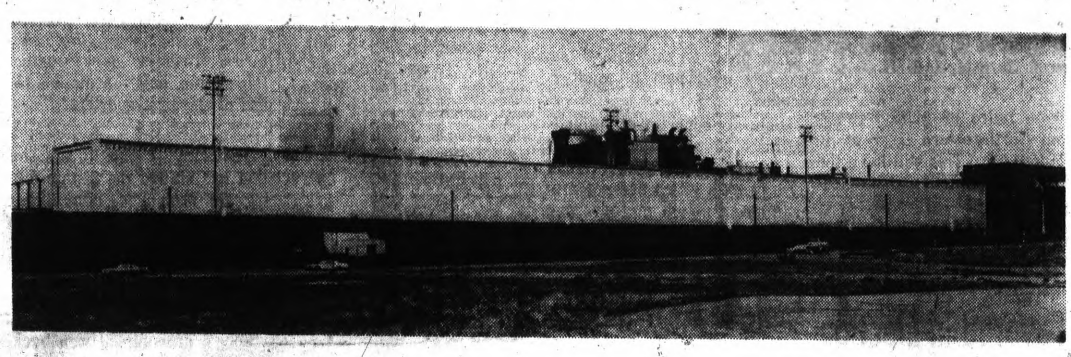
BIG DITCH — Construction crews have begun excavation for pipeline construction of Pontiac's $1.1-million Galloway Creek sewer. Workers from the Ric-Man Co. started digging at the intersection of Mount Clemens and Bay (shown above) at the north edge of the Herrington Hills subdivision. The sewer will extend north to the Walton-Giddings area and terminate at the city's new treatment plant near Auburn and Opdyke. (See story, page B-10.)

BEFORE AND AFTER — The photo above shows the present Pontiac Motor Division foundry, on Montcalm near Saginaw, and below is an artist's conception of what the new foundry installation will eventually look like. Included in the future planning are five new arc furnaces and four electric induction furnaces to reduce foundry air pollution. The first phase of the construction project is scheduled for completion in late 1968.



With New Melting Facilities

Pontiac Div. to Cut Foundry Pollution

Pontiac Motor Division today announced plans for the installation of new electric melting facilities which will greatly reduce foundry air pollution.

★ ★ ★

F. James McDonald, divisional works manager, said the long-range project would be divided into various stages because of the necessity of keeping the foundry in continuous operation.

The new melting facilities will use electric arc furnaces as primary melters and electric induction furnaces for the accumulation and mixing of the molten iron.

McDonald explained that the new facilities will be located in the same general area as the existing foundry just off Montcalm Street between the Saginaw and Glenwood entrances to the divisional manufacturing complex.

★ ★ ★

Site preparation for the electric melting facilities will begin this summer with actual construction of the multistoried building scheduled to follow in the fall.

The first phase of the project is expected to be completed late in 1968.

"Without a doubt this is the most difficult building program we have ever undertaken," McDonald said. "Since we must keep our plants running without interruption while the foundry renovation takes place, we can do it only a step at a time."

He called the new melting system the "newest, most sophisticated and best in controlling foundry air pollution."

Main advantages of the system, as outlined by McDonald, are a low volume of air pollution since the entire operation can be controlled easily through an efficient collection system and exceptional melting reliability which results in a better quality of iron.

★ ★ ★

In the initial phase of the long-range foundry improvement program, the first electric furnace will be installed near the west end of the existing melting facility.

★ ★ ★

The erection of additional electric furnaces and the dismantling of some of the existing cupolas are under study.

Scattered Frost Seen for the Area Tonight

Clear skies with scattered frost is the weatherman's forecast for tonight in the Pontiac area.

The mercury will dip to freezing temperatures tonight, with a low 26 to 32 expected. Partly cloudy and continued cool is the prediction for tomorrow.

Friday will be somewhat warmer with a chance of showers.

Westerly winds at 12 to 18 miles per hour will diminish tonight becoming light and variable.

A frosty 32 was the low temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. The 2 p.m. reading was 53.

Mormon Priesthood Not Racist—Romney

LANSING (UPI) — In defense of his Mormon religious beliefs, Gov. George Romney said today that the church's doctrine prohibiting Negroes from attaining the priesthood is "not a racist position."

★ ★ ★

"People just don't understand the church position," Romney said at a news conference. He declined, however, to explain the doctrine.

"I'm not going to get into a discussion on it because it would inject the church into politics," Romney said.

The questions about Romney's Mormon religion "have been brought up publicly ever since I decided to run for public office," Romney said. "It does not bother me because my position is quite clear."

★ ★ ★

Romney said his record on civil rights as a governor and as a private citizen speaks for itself.

POLITICAL REASONS

"I don't think people who are raising the question are raising it because they want to join the church," he said. "They're raising it because of political reasons."

"If you review the efforts I've made to eliminate social injustice and discrimination, it covers the whole gamut of that area," Romney said.

Romney Sunday completed his first political trip into the deep South with stops in Georgia and Arkansas.

At his news conference today he accused former Alabama Gov. George Wallace of using uneasiness over federal power as a guise for racism. Wallace, Romney said, is advocating "states' rights, including a state right to reinstate segregation."

RACIST CAMPAIGN

"The distinctive thing about Wallace's campaign is that it's a racist campaign," Romney said. He said if Wallace decides to run for president as a third party candidate in 1968 he would hurt the Democrats more than the Republicans.

Romney said he was encouraged by his Southern trip. He said he saw signs that the Republican party was becoming a "truly national party."

He repeated his position that a third party movement would be a mistake for the South.

Pontiac Approves Two Service Pacts for Keego Harbor

City commissioners last night gave formal approval to two service contracts with Keego Harbor, one for use of Pontiac's sanitary land-fill site and a second for use of the city's public library.

Endorsement of the land-fill request came by unanimous vote of the seven commissioners, who last week split on acceptance of Waterford Township into a similar agreement.

The contract permits individual Keego Harbor residents to use Pontiac's landfill on West Kennett on a fee basis, with 50 cents charged for delivery of a load of trash by automobile.

West Bloomfield Township preceded both Waterford and Keego Harbor in obtaining use of the dump site. Opponents to use of the site by neighboring communities have charged that Pontiac will become "the dumping ground of Oakland County."

★ ★ ★

Use of Pontiac's public library is granted Keego Harbor on a one-year contract, with a charge of two-tenths of a mill on Keego Harbor's state equalized valuation.

The proposal was approved last week by officials in Keego Harbor, which becomes the third community to obtain library service from Pontiac.

Road Plans Ambitious but Funds Short

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the first in a series on Oakland County Roads.)

By DICK SAUNDERS

An estimated $91 million in state highway construction is programmed for Oakland County between now and June 30, 1972, assuming there's money enough in the state coffers to meet rising construction costs.

★ ★ ★

That's the problem. There isn't.

Unless more funds are pumped into the road program, some of those projects will have to be delayed.

The Michigan State Highway Department has planned a tremendous program of preliminary engineering and right-of-way acquisition this year to make feasible construction awards in 1968 and 1969 averaging $235 million per year.

Next year and 1969 are the heaviest construction award years in Michigan's history, according to Howard E. Hill, retiring state highway department director.

The future of these projects lies in continuation of federal aid at the level already authorized for these years and the hope that state revenues can keep pace with increases in construction costs.

Hill points out that this hope is dim indeed.

"Our minimum construction program needs for the period Oct. 1, 1966, to June 30, 1972, are $1,356,000,000 at 1965 contract prices," he said.

"Our funds available from present gas and weight taxes and federal aid are $1,204,000,000.

This means we are $152 million short of meeting the emergency needs as programmed . . . ," he noted.

Many of the programmed projects will be postponed to later years unless an additional gas and weight tax increase is authorized by the Legislature this year, Hill said.

While there are no major highway projects slated to go under contract in the Pontiac area this year, things will pick up in 1968.

Here are the major projects programmed for construction in the Pontiac area through mid-1972. Dates contracts are to be awarded are in parentheses.

NEW FREEWAY ROUTE

- Construction of a new I-96 freeway route from I-696 south to 8 Mile Road (1-1-68). This will also serve as a portion of M275 freeway and will run just east of and parallel to Haggerty in Farmington Township.
- Widen and rebuild 1.3 miles of Telegraph at Maple (3-1-68) to provide right and left turn lanes. Present cost estimate is $800,000.
- Widen and rebuild one mile of Telegraph at West Long Lake Road (3-1-68) to provide similar right and left turn lanes. Current estimate is $550,000.

★ ★ ★

- Widen 1.9 miles of M59 from the present two lanes to five lanes in Waterford Township from Airport to Williams Lake Road (6-1-69).

ALREADY POSTPONED

- Completion of the M59 freeway from Auburn Road in Avon Township easterly to the Oakland-Macomb county line (10-1-69). This project, originally scheduled

- Michigan's state highway construction program through June 30, 1972, will be an estimated $152 million in the red unless new sources of income are tapped.
- It is conservatively estimated that there are $44 million worth of state highway projects critically needed now in Oakland County alone, but are not programmed for construction before mid-1972 due to lack of funds.
- Many highway projects now slated to go under contract before mid-1972 will be postponed unless a hike in gas and weight taxes is authorized by the legislature this year.
- The $2 million the Oakland County Road Commission gets each year to build and maintain county roads is described as "pathetically small" by one road commission official. It would take a minimum of $10 million per year to build all the county roads needed between now and 1980.

300 Reds Die in Other Battles

N. Viet Hill Attack Repulsed

SAIGON (AP) — A company of U.S. Marines weathered a heavy attack by two companies of North Vietnamese troops today at disputed Hill 881 North and, with Leatherneck reinforcements and air and artillery help, repulsed them.

Elsewhere, U.S. infantrymen and South Vietnamese paratroopers reported killing more than 300 Communist soldiers in two battles more than 400 miles apart. Another American unit uncovered one of the largest enemy caches of the war north of Saigon.

The U.S. Command announced that, in nearly five hours of heavy fighting, 20 Marines were killed and 45 wounded. The Marines reported they killed 40 Communists in repulsing the attack around the strategic piece of high ground in this ninth day of a campaign through hills of northwestern South Vietnam near the Laotian frontier.

A spokesman said the Marine company was in night defensive positions six miles northwest of the forward command post at Khe Sanh when Communist gunners launched a heavy mortar attack at 4:30 a.m. The barrage was followed with an assault by the two Communist companies, perhaps more than 300 men.

REINFORCEMENTS

Units from other Marine companies moved in as C47 Dragons, artillery, armed helicopters and fighter-bombers pounded the Communist positions.

The attack was repulsed and by 10 a.m. the fighting appeared to have died down, the spokesman said.

Other Marines reported they occupied Hill 881 South in an assault Tuesday to clear the enemy from that point overlooking infiltration routes from Laos.

In bitter fighting since April 25 in the rugged area, counting the latest casualties, the Marines have lost a total of 116 men killed and 321 wounded. Marines have reported killing 464 Communists.

While the ground fighting raged from the Mekong Delta in the south to South Vietnam's northernmost provinces, U.S. fighter-bombers kept the aerial pressure on North Vietnam. American pilots flew through overcast skies Tuesday, using radar controls and bombing through breaks in the clouds to pound the main rail lines running northeast and northwest from Hanoi to Red China.

★ ★ ★

A U.S. Air Force F105 Thunderchief was downed by ground fire in North Vietnam today but the pilot, Maj. Charles C. Vasiliadis, 39, of Huntington, N.Y., was pulled from the jungle by a helicopter 36 minutes later. It was the 529th American combat plane reported lost in the war against North Vietnam.

Birmingham Area News

Tests Show Students Rate Far Above Average

BIRMINGHAM — How well do Birmingham School District students stack up compared to others across the nation?

"Very well," according to Dr. George Hallock, director of pupil services, who presented the results of a group of tests used nationally to the board of education last night.

His graphs showed district scholars in all grades and in all study areas were substantially far advanced compared to the average.

He said the graphs were based on about 150,000 testings.

Tests are given at various grade levels, he explained. They measure both primary ability and achievement. In the lower levels, Birmingham children showed themselves to be at a basically high level to begin with — about 107 with the norm being 100.

ADVANTAGE GROWS

However this advantage grows after exposure to the district's program so that by 11th grade, the average score is placed about 114.

In Iowa Tests of Educational Development, given at 10th and 12th grades, Birmingham students stand at the 99 percentile mark in many categories, which would put them among the best-educated of all groups tested.

This was bourne out by Dr. Hallock's graph which compared the district with other "select" schools with similar facilities.

★ ★ ★

This placed the district at even above the normal "highly rated" schools.

WARNING GIVEN

Dr. Hallock warned the board against placing too much emphasis on tests. Board members questioned why Birmingham students seemed to place low in 4th to 5th grade math.

Hallock explained other districts placed emphasis on math early, while Birmingham does not.

He concluded the tests were "a reasonably accurate statement" and that "we're doing a better job of producing creative thinkers."

Lawsuit Filed on Grand Jury

System Challenged; $250,000 Is Asked

A Madison Heights druggist filed suit yesterday in Federal District Court, Detroit, challenging the constitutionality of Oakland County's one-man grand jury investigation being conducted by Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

In his complaint, Emil Pavlovics also is asking to be awarded $250,000 damages from Pratt, State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley, who initiated the grand jury, special prosecutor Jerome K. Barry; and his assistant, Charles J. Porter.

A hearing has been requested for May 15 by Pavlovics' attorney, James Renfrew of Royal Oak, for the purpose of obtaining a temporary injunction against the investigators.

Pavlovic's suit charges that Michigan law makes the grand juror function as a prosecutor rather than a judge, and that persons indicted by the grand jury then face trial before one of his "fellow jurists."

Pavlovics was cited for contempt by the Pratt grand jury last October for refusing to answer questions when he appeared as a witness.

In March, the Michigan Court of Appeals dismissed the contempt charge against Pavlovics and three other men, including State Rep. Bill S. Huffman, because the extent of the investigation was not defined.

A week ago, Pratt amended his petition so that it would be more specific.

Pavlovics said in his suit that he was subpoenaed again last week to appear before Pratt.

Shortage of Money May Delay Roads

to go under contract this July, was postponed almost a year ago due to lack of funds.

● Widen .5 mile of Rochester Road from the M59 freeway to South Boulevard (10-1-69). Originally programmed for this summer, this project was postponed last year due to a lack of funds.

● 9.6 miles of freeway, reconstructing and extending Northwestern Highway from I-696 to its intersection with the proposed North-South M275 freeway near Haggerty Road in Commerce Township (4-1-71).

● 7.6 miles of M275 freeway from Northwestern Highway to M59 (4-1-71). This will have the effect of completing the extension of Northwestern as far as M59 near Bogie Lake Road in White Lake Township.

COUNTY PROJECTS

While the above list is confined only to the Pontiac area, there is also major highway work slated elsewhere in Oakland County, including the $11-million I-75—I-696 interchange next year and construction of the proposed I-696 freeway route across South Oakland in 1969.

Telegraph is also slated for rebuilding between Northwestern and 12 Mile Road in Southfield in 1968.

This program may sound big, but it's only part of what is needed.

Highway department officials estimate there is critical need for another $44 million in road projects which are not programmed through mid-1972 due to lack of funds.

STRIKE CUTS MILK—Mrs. Edna Laenertz peers into the refrigerator of a Chicago grocery store to find it empty of milk. It was the same all over the area before the two-day dispute between dairies and drivers ended at 2 a.m. today after six hours of discussion in the office of Mayor Daley.

Campaign Law Foes Confident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jubilant foes of the presidential campaign financing law today predicted final victory by week's end amid vows by their principal opponent to continue the six-week floor battle indefinitely.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., author of the election subsidy plan and its staunchest defender, suffered a stinging setback Tuesday when the Senate voted 52 to 46 against his bid to overturn Senate repeal of the law.

But Long showed no signs of giving up the fight, telling newsmen: "I don't know whether this is the half, or maybe the end of the first quarter."

★ ★ ★

The vote — fifth in a series that has stalled the Senate during the prolonged, often bitter debate — defeated a Long amendment that would have stripped from a pending tax bill the election subsidy repealer.

DEM BACKING

Long's amendment won backing from 46 Democrats. But all 35 Republicans present and 17 Democrats voted against it.

Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and John J. Williams, R-Del., principal backers of the repealer, said they're confident the Senate will pass the tax bill by the end of the week with the repeal rider on it.

★ ★ ★

"The Senate has had its fill of this and wants to get this bill out of the way," said Gore.

Ad Executive Sees Surge of Prosperity

Coming up is "the greatest surge of prosperity this country has ever known," declared Ernest A. Jones, president of MacManus, John & Adams last night.

He addressed the annual Birmingham - Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce banquet at Kingsley Inn, Bloomfield Hills.

The prominent advertising executive foresees the surge as "the record baby crop of the late 1940s marry and set up housekeeping, as houses, cars, appliances wear out, as young men return from service and as minority groups become an ever-greater economic factor."

A crowd of over 200 heard Jones rap the "doom and gloom boys" who promote "a lack of confidence in ourselves, our economy and our government."

★ ★ ★

He hit out at the label "recession" being placed on the current economic situation. The expected drop in car sales from 9 million last year to 8.2 million this year still means 1967 will be the third best year in history, he pointed out.

PRESENT SLOWDOWN

He blamed the present slowdown on "many negative factors, financial, political, even weather. But mostly, I feel, it's caused by a general public fear of the future," Jones said.

The eventual end of the Vietnam war should touch off the future boom is Jones' prediction.

He offered to "bet" on the development, he said, adding "I am backing that bet in the most substantial way I know — by multimillion dollar expansions both in this country and abroad," he said.

Tax Split Seen in House GOP

LANSING (AP) — Only 47 of the 54 Republican House members voted in caucus Tuesday to support the present GOP tax plan, House Speaker Robert Waldron said.

But Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, who has consistently predicted "over 50" GOP votes for the package now before the House, added he still thought he could collar 50 Republicans in a final showdown on the floor.

It will take 55 votes to pass a fiscal package in the House. Democratic leader William Ryan has indicated his party may give the GOP about 10 votes to help pass the right program.

The House has avoided floor action on tax reform this week, but bipartisan negotiators have been meeting in hopes of working out a compromise package.

A program developed in Monday's talks drew 43 votes in Tuesday's Republican caucus, Waldron said. The negotiators, hoping to attract a few more Republicans, made some more changes in the package after the caucus.

The key changes in Tuesday's proposal were lowering the personal income tax exemption from the $1,200 suggested Monday to $1,000 and increasing the amount to be returned to local government units from $43 million to $75 million.

Action Slated by DST Foes

LANSING (AP) — A Detroit attorney representing a group favoring standard time for Michigan said yesterday he will again seek court action to stop a rival group which wants the state to go on Daylight Saving Time.

Tom Downs, representing the Michigan Farm Bureau and groups of theater and bowling alley owners, said he planned to mail an application for a rehearing before the State Court of Appeals.

He said the group would move that the Board of State Canvassers make no decision on petitions filed last Friday seeking a referendum on the time issue until the Farm Bureau case is settled.

S. Korea President Favored in Election

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Eighty per cent of South Korea's 13.9 million registered voters were expected to vote today in the presidential election, and President Chung Hee Park was favored to win a second term.

★ ★ ★

U.S. and South Korean troops along the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea sharpened their vigilance against Communist disturbances along the border. After the election campaign began a month ago, the Communists stepped up their attacks along the 151-mile truce border.

President Park, who heads the Democratic Republican party, and his chief opponent, former President Yun Po-sun, were among the early voters in Seoul, the capital.

Midwest in Grip of Unseasonably Cold Weather

By the Associated Press

Wintry-like cold gripped the nation's midsection today as an unseasonable frigid spell drove temperatures near record lows for the date.

Temperatures through the Midwest were more typical of March than May, with readings well below normal.

★ ★ ★

In Chicago an early morning reading of 38 was 15 degrees below normal and within 4 degrees of the record low of 34 for the date.

Except for the Midwest, clear, crisp weather with little precipitation prevailed across the country.

GI Cutback 'Good Start'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield urged today a "phase by phase reduction" of U.S. troops in Europe, and said a planned 35,000-man cutback is a good start in that direction.

The chief Senate advocate of a substantial reduction in U.S. troop commitments in Europe also indicated he will seek to keep the pressure on for continuing withdrawals.

★ ★ ★

But Mansfield said in an interview he is not seeking abrupt, swift reductions.

"I realize that these things can't be done overnight," he said.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk discusses the troop issue today at a closed session of a special Senate panel headed by Mansfield.

Guilty of Killing

DETROIT (AP) — Thomas D. Hickerson has been convicted of second-degree murder in the slaying of his wife, Shirley, Feb. 10. He was accused of shooting her during an argument at their Lincoln Park home.

State Department Cuts 273 Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department's top administrative officer has ordered a two per cent cut in the department's employment ceilings here and around the world, it was learned today.

The order abolishes an estimated 273 jobs and apparently is aimed both at economy and at curbing what critics contend is overstaffing in the big foreign affairs agency.

Idar Rimestad, the new deputy undersecretary for administration who issued the order, described it as a "modest beginning" to try to turn around the gradual growth of the State Department's payroll.

"This is the first step to come to grips with the size of the department," Rimestad told a newsman through an aide.

There is a general feeling that we can do with fewer personnel and what we want to do is to get the number of our people in line with available funds," he said. "It will have no impact on foreign affairs operations. They could even improve."

SIMILAR CUTS

Rimestad, who took over the department's top administrative post in February, was previously in a similar position at the U. S. embassy in Paris when 50 jobs were eliminated there. He is known to believe this did not impair the embassy's effectiveness. Some veteran U. S. diplomats long have contended that American foreign policy could be better carried out with a smaller bureaucracy.

Rimestad's directive does not apply to the U. S. diplomatic staff dealing with Southeast Asia, where the Vietnam war rates Washington's top priority.

It also does not call for the firing of persons now on the payroll. The cutback is to be achieved by not hiring people to fill vacancies as they occur.

But "in general the reductions should be applied to officer positions" — meaning those held by career diplomats — the directive says.

This adds to recent pressure on many older U. S. diplomats to retire. The department also is planning to shorten the time limits within which foreign service officers must be promoted or face discharge.

Reports on 'Model' Plaza in East Aired

A City commissioner along with a key backer of the University of Detroit plan for downtown Pontiac last night reported to the commission on separate visits to Hartford, Conn. — cited by opponents to the Taubman plan as a model city for Pontiac.

District 4 Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson and Don Davidson, U. of D. professor of architecture, each gave accounts of downtown development and urban renewal progress in Hartford.

Hudson described Hartford's Constitution Plaza as "beautiful and impressive" but reported the downtown plaza consisted of only 10 per cent retail stores.

"They've got some real giants — banks and insurance companies," Hudson said, "but one store owner told me the plaza was just not satisfactory for retailers.

★ ★ ★

"When I was told they still hadn't felt the effect of outlying shopping centers, I urged them to move rapidly into downtown retail development."

TAUBMAN OPPONENTS

Davidson said he visited Hartford at the invitation of Donald H. Frayer, chairman of a local citizens committee opposing the Taubman plan.

"I was impressed by several things in Hartford," Davidson said, "but especially when an insurance executive told me the city was slipping steadily until a group of citizens got concerned about 12 years ago.

"These people, he said, were 80 per cent nonresidents of Hartford and, at first, were looked upon as rabble-rousers.

"Now an ordinance in Hartford forbids authorization of any project over $100,000 without the approval of the citizens committee."

A letter from the Citizens Committee for Pontiac's Positive Progress last month urged commissioners to visit Hartford as a "model" of urban redevelopment.

Commission Approves Parking Lot Land Rental

City rental of downtown urban renewal land for use as an all-day parking lot was given formal approval by the commission last night.

By a vote of 7-0, commissioners authorized payment of $100 monthly to Pontiac's urban renewal authority for use of a parcel of the R20 project.

The land, lying on both sides of South Perry at the south edge of Water Street, is presently paved and has been used without charge by an estimated 150 cars daily.

James L. Bates, director of planning and urban renewal, estimates charge of 25 cents for all-day use will more than offset costs incurred by the city in establishing a single entrance to the lot, constructing a booth and hiring an attendant.

Although an accelerated work schedule was to have had the lot in operation at the first of this week, City Manager Joseph A. Warren told commissioners last night the lot probably would not be on a paying basis until Friday.

LEASE APPROVED

In a related parking lot proposal, commissioners voted 6-1 to lease for $50 a month a small section of land on Perry just north of Sears Roebuck & Co.

★ ★ ★

Clarence H. Smith, operator of another lot on Perry, will rent the property—52-by-142 feet—on a monthly basis.

District 4 Commissioner Leslie H. Hudson opposed rental of the property when told Smith would not be required to construct blacktop paving on the lot.

AIR POLLUTION INSTRUMENT — Charles S. Cohen, Pontiac senior sanitarian, prepares the wooden box atop City Hall for another 24-hour test of air pollution in the area. Results of local testings will be used as the basis for a national appraisal of pollution.

Wooden Box Tests City's Air Pollution

A wooden box on the roof of the Pontiac City Hall has been utilized the past two months as an air pollution survey instrument.

Periodic 24-hour pollution samples are taken in Pontiac as part of a national air sampling program that will continue until Dec. 21.

Results of the local samplings are submitted to the Michigan Department of Health labroatory for analysis. When the national sampling process is completed, a report will be prepared incorporating an analysis of all air pollution findings.

Working as a team on the Pontiac project are Frederick W. McDermott, district engineer for the State Health Department's occupational health department, and Charles S. Cohen, Pontiac senior sanitarian.

★ ★ ★

Cohen said that a porous white paper is inserted into the top of the box for the 24-hour tests made about three times monthly.

GRAYISH, FLAKY

The 5-by-9-inch porous filter paper is grayish and flaky at the end of the test period, according to Cohen.

These papers as well as detailed weather reports during the test period are submitted to the laboratory after being taken from the box.

A gauge and rubber hose attached to the top of the wooden box serve to regulate a 65-cubic-foot per minute flow of air through the box.

Junior Editors Quiz on CATS

QUESTIONS: Why and how does a cat purr?

ANSWER: Taking the why first, the cat in our picture is answering: "Because I'm happy and contented." But we may still ask: why purr about it? Purring is one of the many signals animals give about their feelings. These signals are useful.

Purring says: "I'm well fed and happy; go on caring for me this way and I'll stay contented. You can tell it by my purring and when I rub against your legs and lift up my tail with a little crook at the top."

A cat can give a very different signal, too — as when a dog starts after her. Then, her hiss and arched back clearly mean, watch out!

The cat's purr signals are caused by the chords animals have in their throats which vibrate by air passing over them to create sound. If a cat yowls, the chords are tightened up. When a cat is feeling happy, its chords are loose and relaxed, and the passing air vibrates them to make a soft, contented sound.

★ ★ ★

Even large cats, such as lions, can purr. The lion's vocal chords are large, so he can roar and frighten his prey. His purr is more like a deep growl.

Negro Wins Gary Mayoral Primary

GARY, Ind. (AP) — A Negro city councilman outpolled the incumbent in Gary's Democratic primary Tuesday in a bid to become the first mayor of his race in Indiana's second largest city.

With the vote virtually complete, Councilman Richard Hatcher defeated Mayor A. Martin Katz by an 18,567 to 16,107 margin.

Hatcher carried predominantly Negro precincts by heavy amounts and more Negroes than whites voted in the election. Negroes comprise about 55 per cent of the city's population and about half the number of registered voters.

A TINDERBOX—Dry woodland areas in Florida add to the danger of fire to homes. This picture, taken near Orlando, shows two boys skirting a danger area. April's .27-inch rainfall has brought emergency county legislation against burning of trash by residents.

Cattle Industry Faces Big Loss as Drought Continues in Florida

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Beef cattle, fenced into drought-parched range lands, are starving to death as Florida's worst drought in a quarter century continued in spite of prayer and science.

Cows that survive the lack of feed are going to market 50 pounds skinnier than usual, according to the Florida agriculture commissioner, Doyle E. Conner. The cattle industry will suffer a $5-million loss that will raise the price of beef.

★ ★ ★

Most of Florida—virtually the entire peninsula—has been without rain since early March while the sun broiled daily with temperatures pushing 90.

Cattlemen want the state labeled a disaster area.

NO RAIN IN SIGHT

In a new five-day forecast issued Tuesday the Weather Bureau in Miami said no rain was in sight.

"My own ranch is parching," Conner said. "It's the worst drought I have seen in years." He said the death toll was "sizable."

★ ★ ★

Arthur L. Higbie Jr., executive vice president of the cattlemen's association, called it a "disaster" for ranchers.

"The calf crop is in deep trouble as a result of the burned grasslands since they can't eat anything else," Higbie said.

DISASTER TAG

Higbie said his association has voted to ask the federal government to pin the "disaster" tag on the Sunshine State to open the way for low interest federal loans and extension of outstanding paper.

The Cape Kennedy area has been dry for 70 days. Tampa broke drought records set in 1898.

In the Orlando area, county commissioners voted a fire emergency which will ban open fires to prevent the spread of flame to tinder-dry woodlands. Gov. Claude Kirk recently signed a similar proclamation for Polk County in the citrus belt.

Key West officials were rushing to completion the 2.2-million gallons a day desalinization plant which had been scheduled to open early in March. The island chain, surrounded by salty ocean, has only the 18-inch pipeline from the mainland as a water supply.

House Okays Safety Worker Pension Bill

LANSING (AP)—Bills to put the governor in charge of state highway safety and allow police and fire employes to retire at full pension after 25 years were among a handful of measures passed by the House Tuesday.

The House removed nine bills from its 220-item calendar, passing eight and defeating one.

Under the current legislative schedule, Saturday is the deadline for action on the other 211 measures.

The Safety Employes Retirement Bill passed 89-3, although Rep. James Heinze, R-Battle Creek, said it would put a severe financial burden on a number of cities.

PRESENT LAW

A full-time fireman or policeman of an affected municipality may currently retire at age 55 after 25 years of service. A 25-year veteran may leave before reaching 55 and remain eligible for later retirement.

The House bill, sponsored by former detective Gustave Groat, R-Battle Creek, would enable a 25-year man to draw his pension regardless of age.

Red China Says U.S. Jets Bombed Its Territory, Fled

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist China today charged four U.S. Air Force jets bombed its territory yesterday and then fled from Red interceptors.

The official New China News Agency (NCNA) dispatch from Peking marked the fourth Communist Chinese claim in nine days of American air intrusions.

Peking has claimed downing five U.S. planes, four jet bombers and a pilotless Drone reconnaissance craft, since April 24.

It vowed "severe punishment" if such alleged incidents continue.

In Washington, a Defense Department spokesman said, "Although the Department of Defense does not normally comment on Chinese Communist broadcasts, reports failed to show any evidence that the recent propaganda allegations are correct."

U.S. planes are barred on orders from flying within 25 miles of the Communist Chinese frontier while striking targets in North Vietnam.

NCNA said the four jets yesterday "blatantly intruded into Chinese territorial air space over the southern area of Ningming county in the Kwangsi Chuang autonomous region and dropped several bombs, causing damage to the people's property and threatening their lives."

A Peking defense ministry spokesman "wrathfully condemned this flagrant war provocation on the part of U.S. imperialism and lodged the most vehement protest."

Senator Hart Comes to Aid of OU

It appears that regardless of the outcome of the fiscal reform issue now being fought out in the State Legislature, Oakland University is to have a fine arts building badly needed to advance its new Academy of Dramatic Art project.

★ ★ ★

Michigan's Democratic Senator, PHILIP A. HART, has announced that a Federal grant of $1 million is in the works to assure construction of the building designed for classrooms and offices for the Dramatic Art program.

★ ★ ★

The Senator went into action when an austerity State budget proposed by Gov. Romney cut $3.2 million from OU's allocation, eliminating provision for the new building. Implementation of the austerity budget, however, would be contingent upon failure of the legislature to provide tax revenue sufficient to meet the $1.2 billion budget for fiscal 1968 originally proposed by Romney.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the fine arts building, two other facilities are envisioned to complete the Dramatic Arts concept—a $5-million concert hall and a $2-million theater.

★ ★ ★

It is good to know that the university's progress in its performing arts undertaking is not to run aground on the shoal of the State's threatened fiscal retrenchment, and Sen. HART is to be commended for the standby salvage action he has taken.

Local Airport Benefits From Federal Grant

A first step in the upgrading of Oakland-Pontiac Airport, which Oakland County recently acquired from the City of Pontiac, is announced by the aviation committee of the County Board of Supervisors.

★ ★ ★

The improvement takes the form of a partial instrument landing system, the lack of which has been a serious detriment to total utilization of the airport.

★ ★ ★

Cost of the installation is estimated at $90,000, all of which is assumed by the Federal government, and represents the first phase of a complete system.

With the airport's pattern of instrument approach nearly double that required for Federal approval of a full instrument landing facility, the second phase is expected to follow in short order.

Despite the lack of a modern system of landing guidance, the local airport is rated as the third busiest in the State. Freed of this disadvantage together with additional improvements envisioned, Oakland-Pontiac Airport can be expected to zoom to new heights of activity.

Russia Plays Key Role in United Nations Crisis

As the United Nations General Assembly convenes in a special meeting next Friday, one of the top items on its agenda is the critical financial state of the global organization.

★ ★ ★

It is critical mainly because the Soviet Union has reneged on payment of the $50-plus million owed as its share of U.N. peacekeeping operations in the Congo and other trouble areas between 1957 and 1964. During that period, the United States contributed about a quarter of a billion dollars for such purpose; the Russians not a kopek.

★ ★ ★

The U. S. is striving desperately to keep the United Nations alive and Russia in it; and there are indications of a Kremlin intention to consider settlement of its arrearage. But no date for payment nor in what amount has been forthcoming.

The U.N. has merely shadowboxed through the last two regular meetings of the General Assembly, because under Article 19 of its charter a member nation more than two years behind in payment of special assessments could be denied its vote.

★ ★ ★

Russia eminently qualified for such exclusion, but the United States decided against initiating a showdown that might have led to the withdrawal of the Soviets from the organization.

Consequently, the proceedings for the 1965 and 1966 sessions were confined to routine matters with avoidance of issues that could precipitate action on Russia's status.

It appears that the United Nations would be impotent without the membership of the second most powerful country in the world; but unless a more cooperative attitude is adopted by that country, the U.N. will be equally impotent with it as a member.

Viet to Be Bleeding Issue in 1968

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — There isn't any doubt now, despite the Republican support for President Johnson on Vietnam, that the war will be a bleeding issue in the 1968 presidential race. Worse than that, it will be a sack of confusion.

MARLOW

The voters will be drenched in an argument over details and, since very few people are equipped with a chronology of events to help them analyze the arguments themselves, they will be looking at the speakers left, right, left, right, like watching a tennis game.

It comes down to this: while the Republicans back Johnson on fighting and trying to win the war, they are preparing to try to tear him to pieces for the way the war has been fought.

But the Republicans will probably be arguing among themselves on what to find fault with or whether they should.

★ ★ ★

Last September, a few weeks before the 1966 Congressional elections, the Republican leaders in the House issued a White Paper, an updated study of a similar White Paper of the year before, criticizing Johnson on Vietnam.

LENGTHY STUDY

Now the Senate Republican Policy Committee has released a lengthy staff study pretty much paralleling the one put out by the House GOP leaders.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, no longer a member of House or Senate but a very active prospect for the Republican nomination next year, recently gave a taste of things to come.

In March, while in Paris on a fact-finding world tour, he said the bulk of the American home front stands behind the Democratic administration's policies and actions in Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

In April, in Saigon, he said he did not think the war would be an issue in 1968 but that U.S. tactics in prosecuting the war — such as the bombing of North Vietnam and manpower — would be.

2-WAY TALK

This gives Nixon — and it appears to be Republican policy as it shapes up — freedom to talk in two directions at once. He said he thought the Democrats would be more divided over the war than the Republicans.

Whether another likely Republican presidential prospect, Michigan's Gov. George Romney, will follow the Nixon technique isn't clear yet although, in his recent but carefully prepared statement supporting the war effort, Romney gave himself plenty of room if he thinks he needs it to criticize.

Monday, in the South, Romney spoke out against actions that might weaken the effort to end the war or help the Communists.

Dodd-ging The Big One!

David Lawrence Says:

GOP Viet Report Ill-Conceived

WASHINGTON — The Republicans are skating on thin ice. The report of more than 90 typewritten pages issued by the so-called "study" group or "staff" of the Senate Republican Policy Committee is, in its innuendoes and inferences, so much at variance with administration policy on Vietnam that it immediately evoked from J. William Fulbright, Democrat, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, a favorable comment.

LAWRENCE

He said the "study" is "the most encouraging bit of news I've seen lately," and added that it furnishes "the only break in the clouds I've seen for some time."

Apologies and explanations came afterwards from various Republicans, some of whom felt that the document should not have been first released to the press and that it has been "misinterpreted."

The art of confusing the reader, however, was never practiced with more skill than in this same "study."

★ ★ ★

It says, for instance, in the introduction that the Vietnam war has assumed "unusual dimensions" and that among other things this "means not knowing at any given moment precisely who the enemy is."

MADE IT CLEAR

The Department of State, on the other hand, has again and again made it clear that both the Soviet Union and Red China are supplying the arms and ammunition, the airplanes and the trained advisers to support the North Vietnamese army and the Vietcong.

The "study" also emphasizes that the Vietnam war "means enormous discretionary powers assumed by the President, with Congress asked to approve his actions after the fact." But this has been true in every war in history.

The staff "study" contains for the most part some interesting historical information, but in the concluding paragraphs it asks these pertinent questions:

"Does the Republican Party serve American best by saying that politics stops at the water's edge? That we must rally behind the President? Does bipartisanship mean that Democratic mistakes are Republican responsibilities?"

★ ★ ★

The authors of the document left an impression that their rhetorical answer is a resounding "No" and that, in effect, politics must rule, irrespective of how much the current dissension may give the enemy reason to believe that, if it waits until the 1968 election, the United States may pull out of Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

To argue that the Vietnam war must be treated as a political issue is to put the Republican leadership in Congress in a very uncomfortable position.

Bob Considine Says:

Legendary Jockey Finally Is Getting His Just Due

NEW YORK — it has taken 70 years for the conscience of thoroughbred racing to assert itself in the case of perhaps the greatest rider of them all, Isaac Burns Murphy. His bones have lain that long in an unkempt graveyard in Lexington, Ky.

CONSIDINE

But, this Thursday, what's left will be interred in manicured and beautiful Man O' War Park, hard by the sturdier bones of the classic champion.

A monument will mark the spot where lies the first man to win three Kentucky Derbies and whose record of 628 victories in 1,412 races has no parallel.

The ghost of Isaac Murphy, son of a slave, may find it ironic that this tribute paid him three score and 10 years after his death, is the work of a good public relations firm in far-off New York — Ted Worner Associates.

★ ★ ★

One of Ted's accounts is the Kentucky Club Tobacco Co., Wheeling, W. Va., which conducts an annual racehorse giveaway contest.

KEEN INTEREST

The company's top man, Stuart F. Bloch, who is keenly interested in racing, is chairman of this sentimental happening.

Eddie Arcaro, the perfect choice for the ritual, is honorary chairman. Eddie broke Murphy's Derby record—which has been equaled by the great Earl Sande.

Murphy was five feet tall but heavy, by modern standards. He weighed 130 pounds and waged a perpetual war against gaining any more. The battle could have contributed to his death at 36.

★ ★ ★

His judgment of pace is legendary in racing, and so is his honesty in a profession renowned for frequent lapses in same.

TINY FRACTION

He earned but a tiny fraction of what jockeys make today, but had principle enough to scorn conspiracies which might have made life more plush.

★ ★ ★

Murphy's advice to an infamous contemporary, "Just be honest and you'll have no trouble and plenty of money," worked out reasonably well in his own life. He was honest and had no trouble, but there wasn't any money when he died.

★ ★ ★

But now, thanks to Stuart Bloch, he is moving to a better neighborhood.

'Time Change Petitions Get Top Priority in State'

Nero fiddled while Rome burned. Believe me, Michigan is no different. With all the rapings, killings and various other crimes committed daily, are our elected officials working to bring back capital punishment? No, they are working day and night getting out petitions for an extra hour of daylight so they and others in high places might have a little more time to play golf.

★ ★ ★

You can certainly see what issue gets top priority in this State.

Disagree With Letter on Ambulance Sirens

Mr. "Merchant," have you ever driven along with your radio on and all car windows closed? Do you think you could hear a siren? Recently I was driving along Wide Track Drive and never heard the ambulance siren until it was right next to me. Scared me half to death but I didn't even hear it coming. Sirens should be louder.

CAUTION

In response to "Merchant' in regard to siren use, my son works part time for a local ambulance service and I am glad they have sirens, for his sake as well as for his fellow workers. Too few people heed the flashing lights of emergency vehicles. Many times I have held my breath as a car pulled into the path of a moving emergency vehicle.

Two Reply to Letter on Fund-Raising Effort

The Eastern Junior High Bell Ringers have spent several hours of their own time playing at schools, churches and various civic organizations in the Pontiac area. It is evident Mrs. Ellsworth is not informed concerning these students' efforts. They have had one month to raise over $12,000. What type of fund-raising projects other than performances does Mrs. Ellsworth suggest?

We appreciate the support of schools, civic organizations and individuals.

ROBERT O. WOLTERS

Mrs. Ellsworth should be proud that we have a group of teen-agers in Michigan that received such an honor as the trip to England. This group is just a few of the many teens who are good, sensible kids who work hard to achieve a good name but are taken for granted by all. Let's not complain about sharing this wonderful experience with them. Let's prove that all Americans can be proud of their young adults.

Disagree With Need for Capital Punishment

Capital punishment is not the only answer to controlling acts of violence such as the one in Grand Ledge. The men who commit these crimes are not merely out for kicks, they are sick. They need help, not punishment. Chances are there has been too much punishment in their lives and no understanding.

★ ★ ★

Why do people become enraged at a "sex crime?" Isn't it strange that the woman who wants the death penalty for a sex criminal did not call for the same penalty for the many men who kill for money, dope, etc.? We must support the hospitals for the mentally ill so that they can adequately restrain and help these sick people.

Question and Answer

It's a disgrace to drive on Doris Road and see the garbage and trash. The lot where the skating rink burned down about two years ago has never been cleaned up, and it's being used for a public dump. How can we get this cleaned up? Also, a yard with 11 or 12 old cars and other junk should be considered a junk yard and owners made to clean it up.

CONCERNED VERY MUCH

REPLY

Pontiac Township Supervisor Wahl is just as concerned as you. He planned to meet today with the new township lawyer to review litter ordinances and determine the best way to enforce them. Once the status of the law is established, Supervisor Wahl says he intends to start a concentrated clean-up program. At present, litterers can be fined $100 and/or jailed 90 days.

The critics are widely divided in evaluation of Gen. William Westmoreland's appearance before Congress and the Associated Press.

Nothing but enthusiasm, however, showed in the welcome they gave him when he addressed Congress, in a speech calling for unity at home and support for the soldiers in Vietnam.

This speech, unlike the one he gave to Associated Press members, contained no direct criticism of war opponents. He was interrupted 18 times by applause and got four standing ovations.

The meeting, said the columnists, was held by Romney supporters, who wanted to promote a candidate who could be held in reserve if "Romney stumbled."

Westmoreland's current appearance in the limelight could invigorate that movement "to hold a candidate in reserve, just in case . . . ."

Can you imagine, some people don't like trees. In fact, some people are outspokenly anti-tree. They think trees are for the birds.

★ ★ ★

They're a nuisance in the city. They shed leaves that have to be raked. They harbor birds who aren't housebroken or outdoors broken either.

These were the complaints aired by anti-tree spokesmen during a recent tree-planting bee in a downtown Baltimore neighborhood. They claim it's nice to look at a tree, but in a park.

It's a good thing Joyce Kilmer didn't live in that Baltimore section, else his fine poem "Trees" might never have been written.

Lawyer Proposals Stir Up Opposition

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's attorney general, a federal appeals court judge and spokesmen for news media joined in opposition Tuesday to a State Bar committee's proposed rules to govern attorneys on the release of information in criminal cases.

The Bar is considering the rules for possible inclusion in its canon, the code of ethics restricting the practices of attorneys.

★ ★ ★

Attorneys would be bound by the canon to deny certain items of information to newsmen or face the possibility of being called before the Bar's committee on ethics.

The committee could levy penalties ranging from a reprimand to disbarment on lawyers who violated the canon. Courts could also hold violators for contempt.

SOUNDING OFF

William Ellmann of Detroit, president of the Bar, described the session as "an opportunity for everyone to sound off."

More discussion meetings will be held, he said.

★ ★ ★

"We hope to take a good, hard look at it," Ellmann said, "and come to a solution that will be reasonably tolerable to both sides."

Some 50 persons — lawyers, news media spokesmen, prosecutors, police officers and judges—attended the session.

NEWSMEN OBJECTED

Spokesmen for the state's newspapers radio and television stations and news services particularly objected to the long list of information lawyers would be required to withhold.

The proposed list includes such items as a prior criminal record, a confession, the identity of witnesses and the results of examinations or tests.

★ ★ ★

The State Bar Committee on Bar-Press Relations boiled its recommendations down to 10 items.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said he did not think there was major conflict in Michigan between the constitutional right of a defendant to a fair trial and the constitutional right of a free press and the right of the people to know the facts.

NOT THAT URGENT

"The urgency of the problem is not as great as some people seem to think," Kelley said.

"Since the 10 commandments have been handed down, people have had trouble keeping them," he said. "There is a tendency to avoid guidelines."

★ ★ ★

Kelley said he thought there should be a continuing dialogue between all those concerned with the problem. He said he did not believe in compulsion in setting up such rules.

Kelley and Gov. George Romney stepped in and suspended a somewhat similar set of rules drawn up by State Police director Col. Fredrick Davids earlier this year.

DID NOT CONSULT

Davids drew the rules restricting release of information by State Police in criminal cases. He failed to consult with the governor and attorney general.

Judge George Edwards of the U.S. Court of Appeals in Detroit, a former Detroit Police commissioner, urged "deep consideration of the values of freedom of the press and freedom of speech.

★ ★ ★

"We should go slowly," Edwards said. "There is no need to throw the baby out with the dirty bath water."

Edwards said he was concerned about a similar restriction proposed by the American Bar Association.

WOULDN'T CONTROL PRESS

"These would not control the press," he said of the national proposals. "They would control the source of the information—the members of the bar. The standards proposed nationally are entirely too vague."

Edwards said the legal profession should seek instead, the cooperation of the press in withholding information not offered in testimony.

★ ★ ★

"Let's not attempt to muzzle the prosecutors, attorneys or police," he advised.

"A free press is necessary to assure a fair trial," asserted Norman C. Rumple, managing editor of the Midland Daily News and president of the Michigan Press Association.

CENSORSHIP CHARGED

"Restriction of news material at the source is censorship," Rumple said.

Similar proposed orders to restrict the release of information by police would be "an unwarranted invasion of freedom of the press," he said.

★ ★ ★

"This is a problem that does not really exist," contended Mark Ethridge Jr., editorial director of the Detroit Free Press.

"In Michigan," Ethridge said, "we have a highly responsible press and highly responsible, cooperative law enforcement authorities.

INFRINGEMENT REJECTED

"We want no code of ethics that would infringe upon the public right to know the public business. Justice is much more likely to be done in the light of day than in the dark."

Sheldon Hochman of the Detroit News editorial staff said he thought there should be a much more systematic study of the problem.

★ ★ ★

"Once the machinery of restraint is started, it is not easy to reverse it," he warned, adding: "I hope we won't be forced into anything that would mean a war to the death against the bar.

"Newspaper enterprise," he noted, "is able to work its way around restraints."

GUIDELINES ADOPTED

William Peppler, an attorney and also a correspondent for the Toledo Blade, said his newspaper has voluntarily adopted a set of guidelines dealing with criminal proceedings.

"I still consider myself on the side of the angels," he said, "with freedom of the press."

★ ★ ★

John Seaman of Lansing, chairman of the State Bar Committee on Bar-Press Relations, said the proposals "are tentative and just a starting point."

Picture Is Emerging on Changes in Draft

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Emerging from the mountain of studies, blue ribbon commissions and presidential messages is a fairly clear picture of what the young man in the street can expect in the way of changes in the draft.

★ ★ ★

It started to come into focus yesterday after the House Armed Services Committee completed its first day of hearings on extending the Universal Military Training and Service Act, due to expire June 30.

From the testimony of the Pentagon's manpower expert, Assistant Defense Secretary Thomas G. Morris, and the questions and statements of committee members, it became apparent that:

- The present order of calling youths would be reversed, with 19-year-olds going first. Both President Johnson and a citizens' panel advising the Armed Services Committee recommended the change.
- Student deferments would continue, but in general would be confined to undergraduates.
- The nation's 4,000 local draft boards will continue to function, but may undergo some overhaul so that all men will be judged by the same national standards, regardless of where their board is located.

Copter Mechanics' School Just Warm-Up for Vietnam

MILLINGTON, Tenn. (AP) — The sun beats down and the heat waves ripple from the searing skin of the helicopter. Below, a burly Marine sergeant wipes his forehead, watches and scowls as the men tug at the misshapen rotor.

"Put your backs into it and rock that blade," the sergeant barks. "You're not going to break it. Put pressure on that rotor blade. Pull it, now! Pull!"

★ ★ ★

The blade slips loose and the men stand grinning until the sergeant yells them back to work: the blade came out, but the time lag must be cut.

There aren't any bullets pinging into the side of the copter, and there's no danger of a hostile mortar round crumping in. Just 17 miles south along the four-lane highway is Memphis, where there's no need for bars on windows to keep out grenades or for search-and-kill teams to stalk snipers.

MAY BE DOING SAME

But before many more weeks are over the men who just replaced their first rotor blade in practice may be doing the same job in the muck or dust of Vietnam or on the hanger deck of an aircraft carrier in the South China Sea.

The students are learning what there is to know in the basic helicopter school, one of 36 courses taught at the 3,500-acre Memphis Naval Air Station. About 700 mechanics come out of the helicopter school each year, and the road to graduation is long and rough.

★ ★ ★

The schools go under the formal name of the Navy Air Technical Training Center, and that's where the Navy teaches just about everyone in its air arm except pilots and navigators. The head man is Rear Adm. Magruder Tuttle, and his command also extends to Lakehurst, N.J., Jacksonville, Fla., and Glynco, Ga.

Old aircraft hangars are the classrooms for the helicopter school. Marine Lt. Jim Entwisle is officer in charge there, and he knows his subject through and through. He was a gunnery sergeant before he took his commission and is a 17-year helicopter veteran with time spent in both the Korean War and Vietnam. Entwisle heads a staff of 40. And he's proud of the men he teaches.

"CREAM OF THE CROP"

"Very rarely do we want to box ears," he says. "The students here are so highly motivated, so eager, so sharp. I get the top 10 per cent here—the cream. These boys are champing at the bit; they all want to get overseas where the action is."

By the time Entwisle gets them, the men already have come a long way. First there's basic training, and then a basic aviation school.

★ ★ ★

"That's the toughie," Entwisle says. "The kids get 35 or more subjects thrown at them in just two weeks. In most cases they haven't had anything remotely associated with the stuff in their past schooling or experience. It's rough."

If they make it through the basic school, there's a four-week course in fundamentals and mechanics—covering about 45 subjects from molecular theory and the use of hand tools to solving problems in parallel cell groupings.

MORE TRAINING

After that, the students move on to an eight-week course in jet engine mechanics and then—after more than 30 weeks of waiting and training — they join Entwisle for another eight weeks of school.

Under Entwisle and his men, they learn helicopter rigging control, routine paperwork, the theory of helicopter flight and the maintenance of aircraft frames, rotors and engines.

Then they're out of classes, ready for action. And the action can be dangerous.

The students know about the dangers and they'e serious in their studies. But they're also eager to get finished.

"I don't think there's any greater satisfaction than to get out there and see the results of your work flying," says one Marine corporal. "Then you know that you're doing a good job, the best possible job you can do to make these things go."

AP Wirephoto

COPTER CLASS — Students at Memphis Naval Air Station's basic helicopter school receive instruction with the aid of a mockup. Practice here may lead to the real thing in Vietnam or aboard an aircraft carrier in the China Sea. The school at Millington, Tenn., graduates about 700 mechanics a year.

Scientists May Give Aid to Finicky Fu-Fu Eaters

By Science Service

ACCRA, Ghana — Scientists at the University of Ghana have produced instant fu-fu — an important step toward solving West Africa's food problems.

They are not yet marketing the product because they want it to taste exactly like natural fu-fu, so the notoriously finicky African consumer will accept it.

Fu-fu is made from yams, large, bland relatives of the sweet potato. For centuries, African women have cooked and pounded them in heavy wooded mortars until the starch congealed into a stiff dough — fu-fu. The sticky mass is molded into little balls with the fingers, dipped into a spicy soup and eaten.

Yams are one of the few food crops indigenous to Africa, and have played an important role in African culture for centuries. In many cultures, a man's wealth and importance in the community are measured largely by the size of his yam crop.

★ ★ ★

As a staple, however, yams have many disadvantages. The price of yams per calorie is five times as high as other sources of carbohydrates, and the land and labor requirements for yam culture are roughly twice those for potatoes in temperate climates.

For all these reasons, yam prices in West African markets skyrocket during the three or four months before the new harvest in September.

No Billboards? Little Reaction

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Removing billboards from the side of the roads seems to have little effect for better or worse on human reactions to the environment, the National Academy of Sciences was told.

According to a new method of measuring quality in visual surroundings, devised by Arthur D. Little, Inc., in San Francisco, people react to the total scene, not to specific parts of it.

Consequently, current piecemeal beautification programs will probably do little to enhance the urban environment, vice president Cyril Herrmann reported.

Measures of pleasure and displeasure were taken from a group of people shown slides of urban commercial scenes and landscapes. Besides having subjects rate the scenes, the test revealed where they fixed their eyes.

★ ★ ★

Recent studies indicate that eye pupil dilation is related to pleasure and constriction to displeasure.

ONLY A THIRD

Surprisingly, only a third of the people realized when billboards were removed from a scene, whether commercial or landscape. Fewer throught their absence changed the quality of the environment.

The single item most people noticed and disliked was utility lines, said Herrmann. The test suggests, however, that removing utility lines, plus billboards and all other signs, from roadsides is not a good idea. Subjects liked the cleansed scenes no better than the original confusion.

Mrs. Gladys O'Donnell (left) of Long Beach, Calif., and Mrs. Phyllis Schlafly of Alton, Ill., look in different directions but they have the same goal—the presidency of the National Federation of Republican Women. They got together Tuesday at a luncheon in Washington.

Lady Candidates Clash Before Election

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — When it comes to politics, Gladys O'Donnell and Phyllis Schlafly sound as if they don't disagree at all. They're for unity and Republican victory in 1968.

They disavow the John Birch Society, deny getting any campaign money from Eastern liberals or arch-rightwingers. They don't want to label themselves or anyone else and would embrace moderate, conservative and liberal in the GOP.

But, when it comes to election tactics, the two contenders for the presidency of the National Federation of Republican Women let go at each other.

They clashed over coffee cups Tuesday at a Women's National Press Club luncheon in their first face-to-face confrontation of the federation election. Balloting is Saturday.

Mrs. Schafly, 43, Alton, Ill., mother of six, with her lawyer-husband John Fred in the audience, expressed her ire over beng passed over by the federation nominating committee, although she is first vice president.

The committee picked Mrs. O'Donnell, 63, a widow, owner of a crude oil business in Long Beach, Calif., a Powder Puff Derby pilot and at present federation program chairman.

Mrs. Schlafly claimed the federation's national headquarters "to which we all pay dues" was being used for her opponent and that "stories leaked out derogatory to me."

REBUTTAL

Mrs. O'Donnell entered a denial that the national offices were used "by anyone, for anyone." She called some of the tactics of Californians and Alabamans for Schlafly "unworthy of Republican women."

She said some of their literature mailed to delegates was designed to "create dissension and doubt as to the veracity of my own campaign and my trustworthiness."

Asked if she sanctioned or approved these mailings in her behalf, Mrs. Schlafly said they were sent out before she saw them, conceding, "I would say certain aspects were less than fair."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Schlafly, 43, Alton, Ill., tunity to wade into a much-discussed letter from Barry Goldwater, 1964 GOP presidential candidate.

She said the incumbent federation president, Dorothy Elston, Middletown, Del., had "suppressed a paragraph that concerned me because she didn't agree with it."

★ ★ ★

In it, Goldwater wrote Mrs. Elston: "You and I both know the election of either of these fine ladies will not be a slur on any member of the Republican party, will not have a divisive effect and further, that under the leadership of either, the federation will be united to carry out its true function, which is the election of Republicans all across the land."

EXPLANATION

Mrs. Elston's explanation has been that she left the paragraph out in one of her mailings because it would have necessitated a second page and strained the budget of her "shoestring campaign."

One dimly veiled threat from Mrs. Schlafly came when the contenders were asked whether election of a conservative or moderate federation president would affect national Republican policy.

★ ★ ★

"Well, that remains to be seen," said Mrs. Schlafly. "The worst thing that can possibly happen to the Republican party would be that reliable Republicans who have a consistent record of supporting the ticket would get the feeling that they're not wanted in the party.

"I think it would be very divisive for them to feel that people like me are being by-passed and purged and that is not good for the future of the party because, let's face it, nobody can win without us."

Tell Mom You Have Duty

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a single girl of 29, living at home with my widowed mother. I have a good job and am very happy.

ABBY

I date, but have no one steady. Even though I am content with my life, my mother is not. She thinks something must be "wrong" with me because I'm not married by now and it doesn't seem to bother me. She's even suggested I get psychiatric help.

I appreciate her motherly concern, but I am getting sick of hearing her tell me to hurry up and grab the next thing that comes along because it might be the last. She insists that every "normal" woman should have a husband. I can't take much more of her badgering. Please help me.

HAPPY

DEAR HAPPY: Tell your mother to quit worrying about you and to go on a manhunt of her own. (Widows are "normal," and she has less time left than you.) Point out that you can't in good conscience go to work on getting a man unless she has one. And if she still thinks you should see a psychiatrist, tell her you'll go if she will.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I am being married soon and have had several lovely bridal showers. I received many duplicate gifts, such as toasters, mixers, steam irons, coffee-makers and deep-fryers. Mac (my fiance) and I had planned on exchanging all the duplicate gifts for things we need but didn't get as gifts, so when my mother asked me if she could have every item I got more than one of, I told her I'd have to talk it over with Mac.

My mother got real mad and said, "I didn't see Mac's name on any of the shower-gift cards!" Now she won't even talk to me. Imagine trying to plan a wedding with a mother who won't speak to you! Am I wrong? Or is my mother wrong? She called me a selfish, ungrateful child.

DOWNHEARTED BRIDE

DEAR DOWNHEARTED: Although Mac's name may not have been on the cards, the shower gifts were intended for your future household — yours and Mac's, so I think your mother is wrong.

FRIDAY

Women's Association, Drayton Plains Community United Presbyterian Church, 6:30 p.m. in the church. Annual mother and daughter banquet. Mrs. Donald Remillard will speak and the Kettering Gleemen will present a program.

YWCA International Club, 6:30 p.m., in the "Y." Cooperative dinner with Rolf Winter, Pontiac 'Press' photographer, showing film on "Holland." A nursery will be provided for small children.

One-Letter Error Gives Her Rights to Former Spouse

DENVER (UPI)—A divorced woman learned Tuesday that a one-letter mistake had given her custody of her former husband instead of her 3-year-old daughter.

The disclosure came in district court when the ex-husband, Chasson L. Moutray, 45, went on trial for kidnaping his daughter, Chasson Michelle.

★ ★ ★

The court dismissed the case after it pointed out to Mrs. Joan Moutray, 29, that her 1965 divorce decree gave her custody of Chasson L., her husband, instead of Chasson M., her daughter.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Moutray, a secretary, said she would ask the court to amend the decree.

"After all, it's my child I want and for sure not him," she said.

This Virtue in Action Brings Followers

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: Why didn't you rebuke that illogical woman who wrote you, "As a child I had so much religion crammed down my throat that I am an atheist?"

Such a comment makes no more logic that if she'd said, "As a child I had to wash my face so often that I won't wash my face any more." Whereas some few people blame stern parents for their rejection of religion, many others have proved the truth of the Biblical injunction: "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. . . "

ANSWER: I didn't rebuke her because I'm not a missionary. It's not my business to reclaim people for any religious faith they have rejected. That's reasonable, isn't it? After all, I am not a member of any association for the propagation of religion in any of its forms.

However, I am capable of understanding that other human beings, like me, sometimes express themselves inaccurately. Thus, I can stand the possiblity that this reader of mine who blamed her atheism on parents who crammed "too much" religion down her throat may not have said what she really meant. I can envision the possibility that what she meant was: "I lived so long with people who told me the way I should go while refusing to go that hard way themselves that I've got no use for yakkers about Christian virtue who can't produce it in action.

"I have rejected Christianity because my experience of it has been limited to pomposity which used talk about its 'shoulds' as substitutes for the reality of Christian performance."

What I'm saying of course, is that it is not easy to preach the "shoulds" of religious virtue to children and a very different thing to materialize them in our own action. That "way we should go" is, as I'm sure you know, a most difficult way to go.

★ ★ ★

Otherwise St. Paul would not have said, "The good that I would I do not; but the evil which I would not do, that I do."

So I cannot claim that superiority which would entitle me to "rebuke" anyone who may have chosen atheism. That is how it is with me.

So I think for instance, that instead of telling a child how he "should" stop sucking his thumb, we'd do better to go on our knees and pay God for forgiveness of that arrogance which impose a "should" on him when we who "should" love our neighbors as ourselves can't do it.

Sometimes I think I'm a truly religious person. At other times, I don't. But I sure do try to be an honest one.

Honor Four in Ceremony

At a candlelight ceremony Monday evening in the Hira Street home of Mrs. Jack Koyl, Xi Beta Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi bestowed the Exemplar degree on four members and then installed officers.

Receiving the degree were Beverly Bornak, Mrs. John Coombs, Mrs. James Sauve and Mrs. Ivan Baumann.

★ ★ ★

Incoming officers are Mrs. John Coombs, president; Mrs. Wendell Doolin, vice president; Mrs. Robert Lyon, Recording secretary; Mrs. Jack Koyl, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Edward Forsythe, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Plans were discussed for a mother-daughter luncheon and a June picnic at the home of Mrs. Sauve.

2 Women Make Beanbag Basis for Enterprise

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Is it a bird; is it a plane? No, it's a Flying Tosser—the product of two local women who have made a business out of child's play.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Richard Goewert and Mrs. William Bramsch, who met when they shared a hospital room after having surgery, decided to join forces, take the old-fashioned beanbag and update it with a variety of shapes and names.

NEW BUSINESS

They started making such items as Sunny Side Up, which looks like a fried egg; Eight Ball; Rat-a-tat, shaped like a drum, and flower, fruit and animal beanbags. Before they knew it they found themselves businesswomen as well as housewives and mothers.

Madison Jr. PTSA

Madison Junior high P.T.S.A. will sponsor a discussion of "What Your School System is Doing in Areas of Mental and Physical Health, Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Madison Little Theatre. Speakers will be Arnold Embree, Director of Guidance and Pupil Personnel Service, and B. C. VanKoughnett, Director of Community Action Programs.

New officers will be installed.

White Lace Is Chosen for Wedding

Gowned in white re-embroidered French lace over silk organza, featuring an Empire bodice and detachable full train, Barbara Sue Branham became the bride of Edmund Henry Adams.

★ ★ ★

A head piece of matching lace petals outlined in pearls and crystals held her bouffant illusion veil.

Her flowers were pink roses and white carnations.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the couple, wed Saturday in Christ Lutheran Church, are the Ollie R. Branhams of Olson Street and Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Adams of Joyce Street.

Sherry Whitcomb was maid of honor. Attendants were: Barbara Goodwin, Donna Adams and Linda Sherman.

★ ★ ★

Wayne Hodler was best man. Roger Bool, Slade Pratt and Fred Roberson were ushers.

★ ★ ★

A reception in the Italian American Club followed the evening ceremony. The couple is on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls.

'Girls Friday' in Convention

Anna Marie Predmore, secretary to assistant superintendent of schools Richard Fell, presided at the 26th annual convention of the Michigan Association of Educational Secretaries last weekend.

★ ★ ★

The sessions were held at Boyne Mountain Lodge, Boyne Falls. Miss Predmore is president of the state group.

★ ★ ★

Others attending from Pontiac were Mrs. Frederick Dyke, president, Pontiac Educational Secretaries Association; Mrs. Lorenz Ahlgrim; Mrs. Paul Arndt; Mrs. Howard Hess and Mrs. William L. Thomas.

Orchestra Ends Season in Outstanding Style

By BERNICE ROSENTHAL

With the last regular concert of the current season Tuesday evening the Pontiac Symphony Orchestra contributed one of the finest performances of its 13 years.

Violin soloist was Sergiu Luca, Leventritt Award Winner.

By and large, it was exciting, sensuous music that the audience heard last evening at Pontiac Northern High School.

Under the direction of Felix Resnick, the orchestra blossomed out with a resonance, an abandon and a verve which had every member of the organization on its mettle from beginning to end.

IT'S HIS LIFE

To Mr. Luca, 22-year-old Rumanian violinist, music is as natural as breathing.

Despite years of rigorous formal training, he maintains the ingenuous emotional approach of a gypsy, and the result is musical magic.

His color, depth of tone and mastery of technique is reminiscent of Isaac Stern.

He is a polished artist, and, no doubt, the musical world will hear much of him in the years to come.

★ ★ ★

His "Symphonie Espagnole" was liquid fire, and new accents stressed in the difficult Spanish rhythms.

For the first time in its history, the orchestra was hard pressed and a little at a disadvantage in following Mr. Luca's musical line with only one rehesrsal.

The Wienizwski "Polonnaise," rather trivial musically, but a fine example of virtuoso performance violinistically, was as stimulating and ecstatic as a controlled whirlwind.

SPIRITED OPENING

Berlioz's "Roman Carnival Overture" opened the spirited program. It was played with gay abandon and excellent ensemble work.

★ ★ ★

Purcell's "Suite for Strings", 17th century music, had a delicacy and grace which were a tribute to the orchestra's controlled string section, and Mr. Resnick's fine taste and thorough knowledge of the interpretation of the Baroque style.

★ ★ ★

"Dance Rhythms" by contemporary Wallingford Riegger, again a change of pace in a skillfully planned program, was airy, amusing and purposely angular.

★ ★ ★

It had an "arhythmic" approach, just on the edge of the jazz line, and was both played and heard with thorough enjoyment.

★ ★ ★

The concert concluded with a thoroughgoing and meaty playing of Wagner's brief but flamboyant Prelude to Act III of "Lohengrin".

★ ★ ★

The Pontiac Symphony Orchestra will play its final family concert of the season on Sunday afternoon, May 21, for the first time at the Baldwin Pavilion at Oakland University.

Oven Mitts for Polishing

Here's a "handy" time-saver from the National Cotton Council.

Use a pair of oven mitts in soft quilted cotton to polish furniture.

★ ★ ★

Put oil or wax on one mitten and use the other to shine and polish. Mitts can be washed when necessary.

Eva Radaford Weds David E. Hodges

A candlelight ceremony in the Waterford Commmunity Church was the setting for vows repeated by Eva Jean Radaford and David Edwin Hodges.

The newlywed Mrs. Hodges wore a gown of silk-faced peau de soie under Alencon lace, featuring a dome silhouette with panel train.

Her silk illusion veil was secured by a double crown headpiece with pearls and crystals.

★ ★ ★

She carried a bouquet of red roses, white gardenias, Stephenotis and ivy.

★ ★ ★

Elaine Gibson of Flint was maid of honor. Linda Dean was bridesmaid.

★ ★ ★

Kenneth Hodges was best man for his brother. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Elwin L. Hodges of Bielby Road.

★ ★ ★

Ray Rossell of Royal Oak was an usher.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the bride are the Eugene V. Radafords of Hira Street.

★ ★ ★

The couple will make their home in Flint.

SEW SIMPLE
By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice Farmer,

I'm sure there are lots of gals who have my problem. Looking over my summer wardrobe, alas, I have found I've added inches in the wrong places. Nothing fits and I can't afford a new wardrobe. What can I do to these clothes so they won't look patched?

Mrs. J. O.

Dear Mrs. J. O.:

Fortunately for you and many others, the patched look is in this year and your remodeled dresses may actually end up more attractive than they were originally.

★ ★ ★

Here are two ideas for you to play with, and I'll bet you'll be thinking of many clever ideas, too. Let me know what you come up with; you may win one of my Tailor Trix pressing boards!

Take a bold contrast color and add a strip from the underarm to the hem at the side seam. Since this strip should be an even width, you may have to take out more of the width of the dress itself at the underarm or else it would be too wide. It wil llook more complete if you also add a 3 or 4 inch strip around the hem of the dress.

Another simple idea would be to add a strip of contrasting fabric directly down the center of your dress, beginning with about 2 inches at the neckline and gradually ending up with 5 or six inches wide at the hemlines. This could very in width according to your own personal desires. I would suggest you add a bias binding to the neckline in the same contrasting color which again would tie the whole idea together.

Don't throw away those scraps of left over fabrics. You can make almost anything for nothing by simply combining them. The wilder they get, the more professional they will look.

For complete instructions on making those tiny, corded loops that are so popular today, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Eunice Farmer in care of The Pontiac Press and be sure to enclose 10 cents with your request. My leaflet called "Spaghetti Straps and Rope Belts" is especially helpful when making summer clothes.

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

Mrs. A. Hixson, St. Louis, Mo., is this week's Tailor Trix pressing board winner for her following suggestion.

I have found it economical, when cutting two garments from one piece of material or altering the cutting layout before buying fabric, to first lay out the pattern on a floor of linoleum squares. The squares are usually 9 inches which would make two tiles wide for 36-inch fabric laid on the fold or three squares for 54 inches. Often you can rearrange the pieces of the pattern so that you will need less material. This is especially helpful when considering a purchase of expensive fabric!

Named to the board of directors were Richard C. Poole, Orchard Lake, and Mahlon A. Benson Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Anderson, Waterford Township, joined the group as new members.

Board members voted to revise the constitution. Mrs. John Q. Waddell was elected committee chairman for this project. The association voted to purchase 16 cribs for the hospital nursery.

The engagement of Barbara Jean Davis to Paul L. McGowan is revealed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Davis of Georgeland Street. His parents are the John McGowans of Major Street. Late fall vows are planned.

Girl Scouts Collect Dust

Who needs more dust collectors? Plenty of people do. And it's not another piece of bric-a-brac or a broken-down grandfather's clock they're after. The need is for dust-collectors - with - a - difference and Girl Scouts — yes, Girl Scouts — are exactly that!

For some time now, members of the Inland Empire Girl Scout Council in Spokane, Washington, have been collecting vacuum cleaner sweepings from family, friend and neighbor, then storing the dust in large brown paper bags.

★ ★ ★

Twice a month, each Girl Scout troop delivers its collective dust to the Hollister-Stier Laboratories for use in the manufacture of an antigen with which dust sensitive patients will be treated.

The subtle differences in dust of Girl Scout family, friend and neighbor help the researcher, too. One man's dust may cause another's allergic reaction, other kinds of dust may not, and the laboratory is trying to develop a product that will combat allergic reactions to all varieties of dust.

FILL NEED

Who needs more dust collectors? In the U.S. alone, some 5 million dust-sensitive persons do, when they are collectors like the Girl Scouts.

FIND OUT HOW UN-SOUR SOUR CREAM REALLY IS taste it!

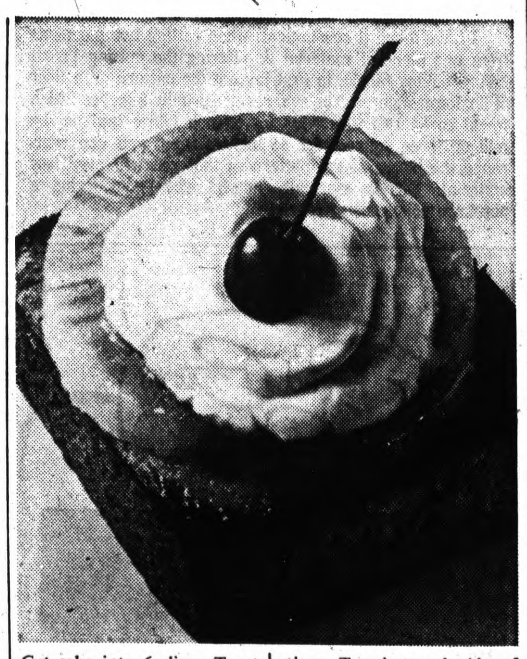
Don't let the plain Jane name for this elegant product fool you. Today's dairy-made sour cream has a delicately tart flavor, thick smooth texture and cream white color that appeals to almost everyone. And it's surprisingly low in calories. It's a convenience food that adds a gourmet touch to any part of a meal.

After all, if sour cream were really sour, would people put it on cake? Go ahead . . . try it! Serve this Toasted Pineapple Delight for dessert tonight. Your family will love it and you'll join the fraternity of fine cooks who sing the praises of sour cream.



Toasted Pineapple Delight

6 servings
1 angel food loaf cake (11¾ oz.)
½ cup (1 stick) butter, softened
½ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
6 pineapple rings
1 cup dairy sour cream
6 maraschino cherries

Cut cake into 6 slices. Toast one side of cake under broiler. Meanwhile, in a small bowl combine butter, brown sugar and cinnamon. Spread generously on untoasted side of cake slices, extending slightly over edges. Top buttered side of cake slice with pineapple ring; dot with any remaining butter mixture. Broil 1-2 minutes or until golden brown. Serve warm. Garnish each slice with sour cream and a cherry.

Case No. C-522

Odds Against Oldster

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE C-522: Clarence G., aged 42, is a Sales Manager.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I made a bad mistake six months ago.

DR. CRANE

"For I hired a salesman who was 56 years old, since he had been very successful in the life insurance field in former years.

"So I figured he could become a big producer in my new agency.

"And I thought he might also offer some sound advice to my younger salesmen.

★ ★ ★

"But he didn't even earn the advance salary I gave him.

"For he would routinely regale the younger men with funny stories or else he'd tell them about some of the big deals he had made in previous years.

★ ★ ★

"Dr. Crane, is it true that younger men make the best salesmen?"

SALES PSYCHOLOGY

If an older man has stuck to the same sales field for 25 years, he will be likely to exceed the record of a novice, just starting out.

For it usually takes several years to build up a sales clientele and a medical, dental or legal practice.

But an older man who is a "rolling stone" in the sales field, is not as likely to make a fresh success as the younger novice.

One reason is the fact that selling is a rigorous profession, requiring a lot of footwork to supplement the headwork.

★ ★ ★

And as men grow older, they subconsciously shun footwork!

For they haven't the excessive energy of the younger generation.

Besides, it is often deflating to the ego of a man of 45 or 50 to be placed in the same group as those who are 25 to 35.

To salve his own pride, he may thus talk about his previous big deals.

★ ★ ★

But this doesn't add to his current commission check!

Instead, it takes up the valuable time of the younger men who should be on the phone or out making personal calls.

Actually, an older man CAN be even more successful when starting out in sales work than the younger fellow.

But the odds are against it.

And another factor often enters in, for when older salesmen call on younger prospects, such as purchasing agents, the younger men may feel a subconscious resentment.

This is a mixture of their veiled hostility to their own fathers, for the older salesman immediately is identified with the "older generation."

Besides, the younger purchasing agents often detect a superior or bossy note in the older salesman's palaver, which angers or intimidates them.

But when they face a beginner, they feel superior and thus are more genial and generous.

"It takes a winner," runs the old adage, "to be generous."

★ ★ ★

So send for my booklet on "Modern Sales & Advertising Strategy," enclosing a long stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

It contains an "Advertising Test" to show you how well you can outguess the average buying public.

Widen Eyes

If you would be the wide-eyed beauty of song and poem, but nature hasn't cooperated, try this simple beauty touch. Place a dot of cream rouge at the inner corners of the eyes. Blend it with the finger tips. The eyes will appear to be wider spaced. Before retiring remove all eye makeup with cotton squares, soaked in good quality witch hazel.

Auxiliary Names Metropolitan Club Confab Delegates

Delegates and alternates to the National Convention of Metropolitan Clubs were elected by the Metropolitan Club Auxiliary No. 6 Tuesday evening.

The convention will take place in Lansing Aug. 15-17.

★ ★ ★

Those representing the auxiliary are: Mrs. Gilbert Brown Mrs. Ralph M. Dean and alternates Mrs. Park Nique and Mrs. Harold Wright.

Mrs. Ralph Dean reported on the recent roundtable meeting of all Michigan auxiliaries in Redford.

★ ★ ★

Others attending the Yale Street Meeting were Mrs. Nique and Mrs. Brown.

Plans were made for a memorial service and cooperative dinner in May.

Groveland Will Build New Hall

GROVELAND TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has approved construction of a new $17,000 hall to replace the 91-year-old present structure.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Earl Rhinevault said he expects the new structure to be completed by fall. Work will begin in a few weeks.

The board has authorized the expenditure of funds and a tentative plan for the hall, presented by an architect, was approved. The building is to go on a site at the southeast corner of Grange Hall and Barron.

Rhinevault said the money has been accumulating in the building fund for the last 20 years. "Now we've got the money and we're going ahead," he said.

★ ★ ★

The new building will be a one-story structure with offices for the supervisor and storage space for township records, now kept at homes of officials.

RELIC OF PAST

The old building at Grange Hall and Wildwood is a relic of the past built in 1875. On either side of it is a bog. Thirty persons are about all it can comfortably hold.

The building and land is to be put up for sale, Rhinevault said. The property for the new building is owned by the township.

Rhinevault has been facing angry critics in the last few months concerning reassessment of township property to comply with state laws.

★ ★ ★

He said the new township hall would not involve additional taxes and that the community is "in the black" as far as financing goes.

Township officials indicated their support of the board of tax review by reappointing the entire three-man board.

★ ★ ★

Reappointed were John Millmine of Barron Road, John Auten of 525 Brandt and Arthur Stack of 7167 Grange Hall.

ALMA (AP)—A federal grant of $7,498 has been made to Alma College. The money is to help finance a program of inner-city teaching experience for Alma College teacher trainees.

Troy Unit to Eye School Crisis

By ED BLUNDEN

TROY — The possibility that three new schools will not open this fall, a factor in the district's financial crisis, will be considered by a school board advisory committee tonight.

Also considered will be that the remaining schools face crowded classrooms and possible attendance-in-shifts and that 40 teachers may have to be laid off.

The dollar crisis centers around a $278,000 deficit the school board claims has accumulated during the last school year. This deficit is expected to be repeated this school year for the same reason — higher teachers' salaries.

The solution to the problem as proposed by the board is an eight-mill tax levy subject to approval by the voters on June 12.

However, an obstacle was placed in the path of the tax proposal when a citizens' advisory committee appointed by the board failed to agree that a levy was necessary.

CUT BACK SUGGESTED

Chairman of the committee Peter A. Taucher claimed the money problem could best be solved by cutting back, returning to "conventional" methods and dropping so called "frills."

Other citizens also had ideas on how the district could get out of its financial jam. The possibility of not opening three new schools — two elementaries and a junior high school was discussed.

At the end of a stormy three-way 3½-hour debate Monday, it was decided to start all over again. A new committee was formed under Taucher and it was directed to take the entire school budget under consideration and come up with a possible solution. The 8 p.m. meeting is closed to the public.

★ ★ ★

As it was pointed out at the Monday meeting, the millage issue would have little chance with Troy voters with a negative recommendation by a citizens committee.

PREPARED BY THREE

It was also pointed out the financial study was prepared by just three persons. Taucher admitted it had been difficult to get volunteers to serve on this aspect of the citizens study and he welcomed formation of the new finance committee.

★ ★ ★

It was further pointed out at the meeting that Troy voters are reluctant to approve additional taxes at this time. Last month they rejected a one-half mill proposal for a library, which would have cost about $4 per property owner.

Dr. Rex Smith, superintendent of schools, said the voters should be given a chance to show their desires and their feelings on the work of the district.

Dr. Rex Smith Sees Red---In The Budget

AREA NEWS

Imlay Takes Step Toward Cityhood

IMLAY CITY — As the first step toward an incorporation vote as a city, the Village Council last night gave first reading to a planning commission ordinance.

Manager Harvey Weatherwax said it would take about a month for its adoption to become final.

Also due for consideration was the village's preliminary budget of $195,086 for the coming fiscal year. Up $6,707 from last year, the increase is taken up by pay raises granted recently to village employes.

A public hearing on the budget is slated for 7 p.m. Monday.

A change in the building code providing that the building inspector issue permits instead of the village manager was adopted.

New Rochester Facility

School Vexes Board

ROCHESTER—A new elementary school not expected to be ready for use until after Oct. 1 has caused some headaches for board of education members here.

The board approved double usage of Meadowbrook Elementary School on a split-shift basis next fall until the new Long Meadow School, now under construction at the foot of Allston, is completed.

Fred Hugger, currently the principal of Woodward Elementary School, was named the new principal of Long Meadow. His appointment leaves an as yet unfilled vacancy at Woodward.

In anticipation of the Long Meadow completion, new attendance areas were approved by the board.

Long Meadow will for the most part draw from Judson Park, Hitchman Haven and Tienken Manor subdivisions. The majority of its students formerly attended Meadowbrook and North Hill School with others at Baldwin and McGregor.

EXTENDED NORTH

The North Hill Elementary School attendance area was extended north to Gunn Road to alleviate crowded conditions at Baldwin School.

Schools Supt. Douglas Lund said such redistricting should drop the average class size from this year's 30.2 to 27 next year.

★ ★ ★

The board also approved initiation of a fifth and sixth grade string orchestra program for next fall.

Centennial Event Set in Farmington

FARMINGTON — The city's 100th anniversary will be observed with an open house at the city hall Friday.

The public is being invited to tour the city offices from 1 to 5 p. m.

★ ★ ★

At its meeting Monday night, the City Council passed a resolution declaring May 6 through Dec. 31 as Centennial Year. The city was incorporated as a village on May 6, 1867.

Further celebrations will be held during the Founder's Day Festival July 27-29.

Church to Host Third Card Party

CLARKSTON — St. Daniel's Church will host its third annual card party at 8 p.m. Friday at the Clarkston Community Center. Mrs. Michael Salzano, 8220 Reese, Independence Township, is chairman.

★ ★ ★

A smorgasbord dessert will be offered and prizes will be awarded.

Ford 'Citizen of Year' Is Sterling Twp. Man

A Sterling Township man has been named Ford Motor Co.'s "Citizen of the Year" in Macomb County and five other area employes honored for community service.

★ ★ ★

Floyd J. Beane, 11436 Crown, was presented with a cast bronze Town Crier's bell for activities ranging from Little League baseball to Democratic party politics.

Beane is an experimental mechanic at Ford's Michigan Proving Ground in Romeo.

"Outstanding Service Award" plaques, bearing the engraved commendation of Henry Ford II, chairman of the board, were given to a Utica resident and four Rochester residents.

★ ★ ★

Robert C. Miller, 8616 Elizabeth Ann, an employe at the Utica Trim Plant, was cited for work with the American Legion, fund-raising drives, school work and Goodfellows.

ROCHESTER RECIPIENTS

Fro Rochester, those honored were Peter Hines, 53454 Bruce Hill, an employe at the Utica Trim Plant, cited for work with schools, scouting and political activities; Jerome Nowacki, 1296 Potomac, an employe at the Sterling Plant, for work as a volunteer probation officer in Madison Heights; and Russel J. Williams, 1521 Gravel Ridge, an employe at the Michigan Proving Ground, cited for scouting, YMCA Indian Guides, schools, Kiwanis and fund-raising activities.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bessie Hissong, 212 S. Helen, Rochester, whose husband, Howard, works at the Michigan Proving Ground, was also honored. She was credited with reviving Camp Fire Girls activities in the community.

Talk on Missions

AVON TOWNSHIP — Missionary work in Hong Kong will be discussed for members of the Ridgecrest Baptist Women's Missionary Union at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at the church, 1181 Harding.

Works on Rochester Centennial

Ex-Avon Clerk Not 'Retiring'

By JEAN SAILE

ROCHESTER — It was a tornado that blew Frances Covert into town some 64 years ago, and she's made her presence felt and has affected the course of the community ever since.

The most recent job for the active woman, who was Avon Township clerk for 29 years, is the chairmanship of the historical data committee for the town's upcoming centennial celebration.

She was asked to serve by centennial Chairman John Boeberitz, and the choice was a natural. Who better than the former clerk whose duties included the sorting and classification of some 100 years of township history not too long ago?

Still very active despite her retirement, Mrs. Covert looks forward with enthusiasm to the June 1969, observation of the town's 100th birthday.

★ ★ ★

"We want to get the whole town involved — all the clubs — and all the people who might have historical information. We are going to put out a Rochester history book, you know," she said.

ORIGINAL PAPERS

She presented a copy of the original village incorporation papers dated March 24, 1869, and noted that elections were required to be advertised only five days in advance by its rulers.

Born in North Branch, Mrs. Covert and her parents moved to Rochester after a tornado had damaged the family home.

Her parents then proceeded to build the first house on Parkdale Street adjacent to what is now the Parke-Davis laboratories.

In 1908 they moved to the white frame home at 427 Pine which Mrs. Covert still occupies.

PAST PLAYS PART

The mellowness of the wood and the warmth of her outstanding cranberry glass and willowware collection mark the house. It's a home where the past plays an important part.

Mrs. Covert started her varied careers early. Her first job — while still in her teens — was that of a piano teacher. But she left that to attend what was then Detroit Business University.

Employed later by various Rochester firms, she at one time managed the D & C Store.

★ ★ ★

In 1928, she began her public life by becoming village treasurer, and then moved over to the township where she ran for township treasurer. She picked up the job of deputy clerk along the way and was first elected to the position of clerk in 1932.

21 STRAIGHT VICTORIES

Her career saw her winning 21 consecutive elections for the position.

She was also the town's first secretary of state office manager.

As 1956 delegate to the Republican convention in San Francisco, the dynamic little fireball extended her influence to national matters.

"It was a ball," she recalls.

Huron School Board Asks Trustee to Replace Himself

MILFORD — A Huron Valley Board of Education trustee was appointed to replace himself until June after submitting his resignation last night.

Horace Lodge Jr., a member of the board for seven years, resigned because of business conflicts and a lack of time.

After accepting his resignation, the board then voted to ask him to fill the vacancy until the June 12 school elections.

"The board feels he is knowledgeable about current building plans and wants his services until June," said Gerald Kratz, administrative assistant.

★ ★ ★

He said Lodge, who was not at the meeting, will be approached with the idea today.

FILL TERM

A new member, elected in June, would fill the remaining one year of Lodge's term.

In other business last night, the board approved final site improvement plans for Johnson, Baker, Muir, Duck Lake and Brooks schools.

Projects will include blacktopping, tree planting and general site development. Money for the work, $400,000, was approved as part of an $8,313,100 bond issue last June.

The board also awarded a contract for a fence around the high school tennis courts to the Crown Fence Co. of Detroit for $2,450.

HORACE LODGE JR.

Walled Lake Board Hires 2 Principals

WALLED LAKE — Two new elementary school principals have been hired by the board of education, although building assignments have not yet been made.

David Crawford, currently principal of the J. P. Wilson Elementary school in Pontiac, was offered a contract starting next fall.

He received his bachelor's degree from Eastern Michigan University in 1959 and his master's degree from the University of Michigan in 1961. He has taught five years in Pontiac and is completing his third year as principal at Wilson.

The second new principal is Spencer Rush, a graduate of Western Michigan University. He received his masters degree from Western in 1965 and has had 4½ years of teaching experience in Portage and in Pacific Grove, Calif.

★ ★ ★

Also hired by the board was Joan Wolff as director of cafeteria services. Currently executive dietician in charge of research and experimental kitchens for the Greyhound Food Management Co., she was formerly food supervisor with Stouffers Co. of Chicago.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, the board voted to ask the city of Walled Lake to consider sharing the cost of a $17,000 to $18,000 skywalk at Pontiac Trail and Decker.

School officials say the corner is a "treacherous" one. Yesterday a crossing guard was killed in a two-car accident there and about a month ago, two children were hit, although they were not seriously injured.

In other action, the board proposed an agreement between the Howard Keating Co. and the board of education whereby both would share the cost of an extension of a sewer line through the Keating property to the new high school site on Beck Road.

Estimated cost of the project is $33,000.

Bids for construction of the new high school, to be ready by the fall of 1969, will be taken July 13. Grading bids will be taken on May 24.

Another bid date established by the board was June 29 for construction of a new elementary school on Loon Lake Road and a building for type B mentally handicapped children.

Californian Plans 5-Day Underwater Test

LONDON (AP) — Mary Margaret Revell is a 29-year-old California mermaid who plans to take a dive in the water this June — and stay under five days.

★ ★ ★

It's an experiment she's conducting to test how a person can withstand being submerged for extended periods without any shelter. The attempt will be made from June 5 to 10 in a little cove on the Mediterranean coast line of Sardinia.

★ ★ ★

She is training in London with a 66-pound self-contained backpack made by a French firm. It is an advanced aqualung, fully equipped with a radio, breathing apparatus and a feeding system.

★ ★ ★

The radio will keep her in contact with a boat. Her air will come from the tank's four cylinders and will be replenished every 30 minutes with an air gun device lowered from the boat. Two divers, who will be in attendance at all times, will operate the air gun.

TALL BLONDE

Food for the tall, athletic blonde from Shafter, Calif. will come from a detachable tank with a pump-fed hose leading to her mouthpiece. She will get only liquid foods, changed from time to time for variety.

★ ★ ★

Miss Revell will start at about 100 feet down, and work up the cove shelf until her last day is spent at 10 feet. While below she will map the bottom of the cove, photograph sea life, and take rock samples.

★ ★ ★

At night she will sleep under — yes, under — a bed being designed to prevent her from floating away.

"The original design is being modified because I have a habit of sleeping while standing on my head," she said.

DUE TO BUOYANCY

Underwater, due to buoyancy, she meant.

All the time she will be monitored by closed-circuit television and two divers from the team of 14, working in shifts.

Miss Revell has been diving for sport for 10 years. The last three months have been spent in training for this project.

The equipment is being contributed by the French and Italian manufacturers. Sardinians have donated housing for her crew. A French marine biology laboratory is receiving the scientific findings. She hopes to sell a book on her experiences.

Among things she will look for is weight loss, which she predicts at 40 pounds. But she won't disclose her present weight. Another is the effect of salt water on her skin, which will be covered by a "wet suit," in which the skin is constantly in contact with water.

★ ★ ★

The experiment is Miss Revell's own idea, she said.

★ ★ ★

"It's in my interest. I have the stamina and endurance abilities and a love of the sea."

For Youngsters

Waterford Gun Training Near

The Waterford Township Jaycees today announced they will sponsor a shooting education program in conjunction with the Jaycees' national effort to teach good "gunmanship" to youngsters across the nation.

The six-week program for township boys and girls 7 to 14 years old will be cosponsored by Daisy Manufacturing Co.

The first meeting will be at 7 p.m. May 11 at the Community Activities, Inc., building, 5640 Williams Lake.

All phases of good gun usage and proper gun handling will be taught, according to Jaycee officials. BB guns will be used.

A competition night between youngsters and their parents will climax the program.

Jaycee President Michael G. Patterson said the project is the most comprehensive shooting program ever provided for youngsters.

"All Waterford Township boys and girls," stressed Patterson, "are eligible and go through an extensive, but interesting series of lessons on all phases of careful gun handling and shooting."

Project Cochairmen Jim Fuller and Ken Zimmerman urged all participants who own BB guns to bring them to the meetings.

Surveyor 3 Will Get a Breather

Photos Show Lunar Soil Is Like Wet Sand

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor 3 starts a well-earned two-week sleep tonight after 10 days of digging into the mysteries of the moon.

Four historic trenches — the first furrows made by man in any but his native soil — are visible evidence of what scientists suspected — that the lunar surface is strong enough to support manned landing craft.

★ ★ ★

More than 6,000 pictures televised by the tripod spacecraft show the dry, grainy soil has the consistency of wet sand, at least to the depth of 7½ inches, and there is some indication of a harder layer underneath.

Controllers at Jet Propulsion Laboratory radioed commands Tuesday preparing the 620-pound spacecraft for the minus 250-degree lunar night with taped instructions for the operation of the heater protecting its electronic brain.

SCOOP IS POISED

The hand-sized scoop, mounted on a five-foot extension, was left poised 30 inches above the surface, ready to resume digging after the sun rises on the moon May 17.

★ ★ ★

Picture-taking will continue until the lunar sunset, about 6 p.m. EST tonight, prevents Surveyor 3's swiveling eye from snapping any more shots of the gouged and hammered terrain between two of the spacecraft's skeletal circular padded feet.

★ ★ ★

In 27 hours of scoop operation, Surveyor 3 has dug four 2-inch wide trenches, the largest nearly two feet long.

That one, created by five passes of the scoop, is 7½ inches deep. Measurement of the electrical power needed to pull the shovel toward the spacecraft on successive scoops indicate soil firmness increases with depth.

WALLS STILL STANDING

Latest photographs of this series show the walls are still standing, marked with well-defined tracks from screw heads on the lower jaw of the scoop.

Two rocks — one a half-inch in diameter, the other twice that size — have been picked up by the scoop but disappeared after being dropped.

★ ★ ★

The scoop, like the arm of a toy steam shovel, also was pushed into the soil seven times and dropped — from heights up to 30 inches — 13 times to test the bearing strength of the surface.

★ ★ ★

All tests so far, a laboratory spokesman said, show the terrain that surrounds Surveyor 3's landing site in the dry Ocean of Storms would support the 15-ton landing craft planned in the Apollo program.

To Serve Northeast Pontiac

Galloway Sewer Work Starts

Favored by warm weather and soft ground, construction crews started work Monday on a sewer project aimed at breathing life into the commercial and residential future of northeast Pontiac.

Fittingly, perhaps, the bulk of the $1.1-million Galloway Creek Trunk Sewer is being built by a young firm, one new to Pontiac and anxious to establish itself by successful completion of a major city job.

Ric-Man Construction Co. was awarded the contract, however, only after Joseph E. Neipling, director of public works and service, had supervised a second, closer look at Ric-Man's bid.

Study of the cost estimate was ordered after Ric-Man submitted a bid $219,000 under the next lowest company, and further promised to do the job in 290 days — one month faster than estimates of other firms.

★ ★ ★

Satisfied that the new company was prepared to meet the obligations of the sewer project, however Neipling recommended the bid be accepted, which the City Commission formally did a short time later.

PROJECT GOALS

Now, with the work on the sewer started, city engineers are optimistic that early next year will see fulfillment of two immediate objectives of the project:

- Deliver sewer service to the Walton-Giddings area;
- Provide service to the new Catholic Central High School, presently being built on land bounded by Walton, Giddings and Perry.

Both aims were included in a staff analysis prepared by Neipling early this year and presented to the City Commission.

★ ★ ★

With the aims were figures comparing cost of an independent city sewer project against two cooperative proposals — the Clinton-Oakland proposal and an alternate contract presented by the Oakland County department of public works.

CENTRAL FIGURE

Pontiac had seriously considered both cooperative ventures, and in turn had been deemed a central figure in each proposal.

At an informal meeting in mid-January, however, commissioners unanimously decided to accept Neipling's recommendation that the city initiate an independent sewer project.

Persuasive points at that time were guarantee of service to the Walton-Giddings area and city autonomy in providing sewage outlets to residents.

★ ★ ★

Bids were solicited late in January and Ric-Man's proposal of $710,000 for sewer construction was formally approved by the commission March 21.

MARCH 1, 1968

If work proceeds on schedule, close to six miles of trunk lines, lateral collection pipes and force mains will be in operation before March 1, 1968.

Residents of the northeast sector will obtain immediate service from the new sewer only if their homes are located along the proposed routes of lateral collection lines.

These collectors extend at the north end to the Joslyn-Upland-Brooks area; easterly to the Northfield - Walton - Giddings area; and in the south in small sections along Herrington Elementary School and Featherstone Road.

★ ★ ★

Single-family residents will be assessed $3 per front foot to tie in to collection lines, in addition to a $72 charge for a service-pipe "stub" and a one-time connection fee of $150.

STUB FEE

Front-foot assessments and the stub fee are payable to the city over a 10-year period.

The connection charge is levied at the time homeowners apply for a plumbing permit.

Scheduled for inclusion in the new sewer line, but not liable for fees, are residents of the Herrington Hills subdivision, whose existing sewage facilities will be connected internally with the Galloway Creek system.

Immediate construction costs for the Galloway Creek project are being met with monies from the sewage utility fund, which will be reimbursed through issuance of revenue bonds.

Antipollution Goal: More Clean Smokestacks (Left), Fewer Dirty Ones

Victory Over Pollution at One Firm Cited

By DAVID J. COOK

Sanitation experts attempting to bring under control air pollution problems in Pontiac have achieved what they feel to be a small, but potentially significant victory.

COOK

Sharing credit for the success is what one city official termed "excellent cooperation" on the part of one of Pontiac's largest building supply companies.

The joint effort resulted from a series of complaints received by the city last June from residents in the city's southwest corner.

Soot and ashes from the Boice Building Supply Co., complainants said, were speckling newly washed cars, dirtying laundry in back yards and under some conditions spilling a smoky pall over the Telegraph-Orchard Lake area.

Several protests were turned in to District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin. Others went to then city sanitarian Ralph T. Florio.

★ ★ ★

Florio's investigation of Boice facilities at 545 S. Telegraph revealed the company was using coal-fired furnaces for curing building blocks, providing hot water for ready-mix concrete and as part of its plant heating operations.

CLEANUP ATTEMPTS

A conference between Florio and Boice officials first resulted in attempts by the company to "cleanup" its coal-burning operations.

In large measure, Florio noted, these efforts were unsuccessful.

Despite extensive studies of coal and burning techniques, the Boice stacks continued to expel large amounts of "fly ash" (partly burned particles of carbon) and smoke.

★ ★ ★

"From our standpoint," Florio recalled, "the only alternative was conversion of the furnace operation to gas.

CONSIDERABLE TIME

"This wasn't something, however, that Boice had to do immediately.

"If they had resisted, we would have been forced to go through the considerable time and expense of a court action."

Pontiac's general nuisance ordinance enables the city to prosecute companies or persons whom it feels are in violation of air pollution standards and are unwilling to take corrective measures.

★ ★ ★

"It's something we can do," Florio said, "but also something we'd prefer not to."

'POSITIVE ATTITUDE'

It was at this point that Boice officials took what Florio called "a positive attitude" and initiated a conversion of their burning facilities.

Consumers Power Co. routed two large gas trunklines into the Boice yards, where the changeover to gas was completed about two months ago.

The difference, according to residents, is considerable.

Smoke has virtually disappeared, along with the ashes and soot which were targets for complaints.

PRIME POLLUTERS

Florio, who has since accepted a position with Pontiac General Hospital, termed action by Boice "heartening," but noted the city still has "four or five" major sources of air pollution.

★ ★ ★

Among these is Pontiac Motor Division, whose giant foundry operation throws out immense quantities of smoke each day.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Motor engineers are presently studying several methods of controlling the pollution, Florio said. Even the most inexpensive alternative is expected to cost several millions of dollars.

Dirksen Rallies Party Behind LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen is keeping his sometimes balky Republican troops lined up behind President Johnson in fighting the war in Vietnam.

The resilient Dirksen climbed out of a hospital bed yesterday, not yet fully recovered from a bout with pneumonia, to put down an incipient revolt among party members who don't like the way the war is going and are searching for a Republican alternative.

When Dirksen got through lecturing them at a closed policy committee meeting about the political liabilities of questioning the commander in chief's basic direction of a bloody conflict, they went docilely along with a statement giving "wholehearted support" to Johnson and standing "four-square" behind him.

Downtown Detroit Gets More Police

DETROIT (AP) — Shoppers and office workers in a 60-block area comprising the core of Detroit's downtown area, were afforded additional police protection Tuesday.

A special 17-man unit, kept in contact by walkie-talkie radios, patroled the area on foot to prevent purse snatchings, auto thefts, burglaries, holdups and other assaultive crimes.

Senior Class Trips Now Are Termed Educational

It's that time of year again when many high school seniors engage in romance, rowdyism and class trips—hopefully, not all at the same time.

★ ★ ★

But area school administrators agree that that is not the case. A random survey shows that most of the high school seniors are mature young adults, well-behaved enough to go on some sort of trip.

Today there seems to be growing concern among school administrators and board of education members over what to call these school-sponsored trips for seniors.

Many school systems still call them simply "the senior class trip." Others have become more technical—usually as the result of a controversy—and have interjected educational overtones into the naming of the trip.

★ ★ ★

Seniors from Waterford Kettering High School will go on a four-day "education field trip" to New York City next week. Howard Bennetts, assistant principal, explained:

"We don't have approval from the board for senior trips any more. They are primarily social activities. We have to keep education in mind."

Waterford Township High seniors will take a five-day "educational trip" to the newly opened Expo 67 worlds' fair in Montreal.

Only three out of 15 area high schools surveyed have no trips whatsoever for seniors, either sponsored by the school or organized by students. They are Rochester, Walled Lake and West Bloomfield.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Central High does not have a school-sponsored trip this year only because of a lack of participation, Wesley Maas, assistant principal, said.

DIDN'T HOLD WATER

Central seniors had voted to take a boat trip to Mackinac Island but the plans didn't hold water. Now some 65 seniors are planning to go to Expo 67 on their own after school's out.

Groves and Seaholm Highs in Birmingham also had what was described as "not actually a senior trip," but an optional trip for seniors to Washington, D.C., and New York during Easter vacation.

★ ★ ★

Most popular visiting grounds among 10 of the 15 schools checked were New York City and Washington, D.C. The most unusual trip this year — and possibly the most exotic — was to Bermuda by Oxford High School.

Local Opinions Are Varied

FAIR Draft: How Fair Will It Be?

By MEL NEWMAN

How fair will FAIR be?

President Johnson, after a lengthy study by a special committee to investigate inequities in the country's Selective Service system, has proposed sweeping changes in the draft.

He dubbed his plan FAIR—short for Fair and Impartial Random selection.

The present Selective Service law, which has been in effect since the outbreak of World War II, will expire June 30. It has been under attack as unfair and inadequate through much of its existence, but never so heatedly as since the beginning of the Vietnam war.

★ ★ ★

However, those proposed changes which will be made into legislation are unlikely, for the most part, to be exercised for some time.

LIKES PRESENT SYSTEM

Opinions of the proposals — such as use of a lottery system, drafting younger men first, and tightening up certain types of deferments — vary even among draft board members.

Isadore Goode, chairman of Pontiac Board 67 and a 25-year board member, said he doesn't see anything wrong with the present system.

He pointed out that a lottery would give everyone the same break, which, he said, would be both good and bad.

★ ★ ★

"There are legitimate reasons why a man should be deferred from service," he said. "A lottery would not determine which men have legitimate excuses."

DRAWS FIRE

Goode said he was in favor of drafting younger men first "so as not to disturb their future years." He said younger, single men should meet their obligation before settling down with a family or starting college, if possible.

The proposal to alter the local board system and replace most of its function with a series of more centralized review boards drew fire from Goode.

"Whatever reason a man may have for being deferred from service would stand locally as well as at a central review board," he said. "Thus, the review board would do just what's being done locally."

★ ★ ★

Goode emphasized the attempt at fairness on the part of local board members in selecting registrants, but conceded a point to the lottery system in answer to another complaint about the present system.

UNCERTAINTY REMOVED

"If a boy knows just where he stands at 19, the element of uncertainty in later years, during college or after marriage, is removed."

V. John Manikoff, chairman of Pontiac Board 65, cited this uncertainty on the part of most registrants as the most important factor in the draft.

"The lottery would be more universally just," he said, "and I can't see where it would represent so great a change from what we now have."

★ ★ ★

He pointed out that draft boards would still determine, through perhaps within stricter guidelines, which registrants whose names were pulled at random might be deferred.

Tightening the rules for granting deferments on the basis of college or family situation would be a far smaller problem, he said, if youths were selected at 19.

The system, thus, would relieve itself of some deferment problems as it developed.

Dr. Wallace G. Lee, a member of Board 331 in Pontiac, said he does not feel a lottery system is justified now.

★ ★ ★

"It sounds good," he said, "but the country can't afford to take all the eligible 19-year-olds at any one time. In other words, we still have to be selective."

NEEDS TESTING

He admitted the proposed system would have merit because of its apparent fairness, but added that a lottery needs testing to prove its real worth.

"We can improve on the system we have without just throwing it out," he said.

James Avery of Royal Oak took a different view of the Selective Service system—that of a registrant.

He graduated recently from Oakland Community College and is not sure of his draft status. Jim hopes to be able to continue toward a degree, but has already spent three of his four draft board-alloted college years at OCC.

'MORE CLEAR-CUT'

"The new system," he said, "Would be more clear-cut and eliminate some of the uncertainty a lot of guys face.

"Still, it wouldn't help a person in my position much. I'm in favor of two years of military service immediately upon high school graduation."

He said it was hard to comment on the present system of deferments because this seems rather nebulous.

★ ★ ★

"The proposed system," he said, "would at least have a better defined qualification guideline."

For Avery, the element of uncertainty remains.

"I'm sort of looking forward to service," he said.

"But, not like this."

Access to Apartment Project

Plans to Pave Strip Affirmed

An agreement expressing Pontiac's intention to pave a 750-foot access strip along the proposed route of East Boulevard was given formal approval of the City Commission last night.

A 6-1 vote of commissioners affirmed city plans to lay a 24-foot-wide road along the north boundary of a town-house apartment project on Woodward near Pontiac's south city limits.

Developer Charles L. Langs had sought paved access to the apartments, which are presently served only by a private lane at their southern edge.

Langs, in turn, is asking the City Planning Commission for rezoning to commerical of a 6.6-acre parcel of land at the northwest corner of the apartment complex.

★ ★ ★

The planning commission had denied the request previously.

VOICED DISAPPROVAL

Dissenting vote was cast by District 2 Commissioner Robert C. Irwin, who voiced disapproval of what he termed "tying together" the right-of-way transfer with the rezoning proposal.

The Barton-Aschman study of Pontiac traffic problems urges extension of East Boulevard from its present terminal westerly to Woodward.

Acquisition of the right-of-way needed for extension of the full boulevard is presently stalled by reluctance of the city to pay $15,000 asked by Dr. John Ylvisaker for a portion of the projected route owned by him.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners also received from Pontiac Postmaster William W. Donaldson a request to extend the unopened Miami Road right-of-way at the rear of central post office property at 735 W. Huron.

ZONING REQUEST

Donaldson asked that property presently zoned residential in the area be changed to parking, adding some 50 feet in length to the post office parking lot.

James L. Bates, director of planning and urban renewal, told commissioners a recommendation on Donaldson's proposal would be forthcoming as part of a proposed zoning map revision.

By a unanimous vote, commissioners formally rezoned to commercial a parcel of land at the southwest corner of Opdyke and M59.

★ ★ ★

In another rezoning, commissioners amended to R3 z 40-acre parcel of land southeast of the intersection of Walton and Arlene.

The city planning staff is presently studying proposals for a multiple housing development on the site.

City Affairs

Commissioners Bow to Blacktopping Foes

Resistance by local property owners last night defeated another street-paving proposal advanced by city engineers.

Public hearing on an asphalt project for Baxter Street between Raeburn and Prospect resulted in city commissioners formally withdrawing a resolution to prepare assessment rolls for the paving.

Joseph E. Neipling, director of public works and service, estimated total construction cost of $4,980 for the project, with city share of $2,190.

Residents told the commission, however, that paving was "unnecessary and unwanted."

★ ★ ★

District 7 Commissioner James H. Marshall, who originally moved in favor of the project, withdrew his motion when it was determined that a majority of the few residents of the area had expressed objections to the proposal.

COST ESTIMATE

In another paving project, Neipling presented to commissioners a cost estimate for paving of Fuller between Mansfield and Columbia.

A public hearing had been previously held on a one-block stretch of Fuller between First and Second, but property owners successfully argued against paving of an isolated portion of the street.

Neipling estimated total cost of the project at $37,190, including property owner assessments of about $18,000.

★ ★ ★

Public hearing was set for May 16 on paving of the seven-block stretch.

SIMILAR HEARING

A similar hearing was set for May 16 on a proposal to pave Baltimore Street from Kenilworth to Emerson.

Neipling's recommendation on the $10,430 project cited traffic circulation problems in the area of Emerson Elementary School as well as a dust nuisance in the area.

Property owners' share of the cost is estimated at about $6,000.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners directed Neipling to prepare plans and estimates for paving of Bradford from South Boulevard to Central.

Paving of the street is designed to precede rezoning of the area to parking.

GMC Truck & Coach Division officials have solicited the rezoning in order to proceed with a proposed plant parking area.

Virginia was admitted to the Union on June 26, 1788.

GE to Triple Reports on Apollo Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Construction progress reports on Apollo space vehicles will be made by General Electric Corp. inspectors to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration three times as often from now on.

★ ★ ★

NASA said Tuesday the reports from the GE troubleshooters will come monthly instead of quarterly.

The reports from the inspection teams tell the space agency how work is progressing on the space vehicles, what remains to be done and in what ways the contractor may be slipping up, a NASA spokesman said.

★ ★ ★

A spacecraft that will be used in an unmanned Apollo test flight later this year was given a going over in the latest report, the spokesman said. He said he didn't know how the number of flaws pointed out in it compared with previous reports.

Pair Meet 22 Years After Auschwitz

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — At first they stared. Then one cried, 'Lisa! Oh, my God!" And they were crying. It had been 22 years since concentration camp.

Lisa Milch was 5702-5281 in Auschwitz. Her sister-in-law, Gope DeLange, was 5305-5295. The numbers are tattoed on their arms.

★ ★ ★

Gope is 63, Lisa is 67. They last saw each other as guards led some inmates to a gas chamber. For nearly 22 years, neither knew if the other had survived.

Tuesday, Gope recognized Lisa at Gate 32, Miami International Airport.

"Lisa! Lisa!" she cried. "Oh, my God!"

NEAR INJURY

Lisa ran trembling toward the turnstile and nearly injured her hip to reach Gope.

An accident had led to their reunion. Gope, living in Amsterdam, walked into a restaurant two years ago and recognized Lisa's brother. She learned her sister-in-law survived Auschwitz, emigrated to the United States and was living in Miami.

★ ★ ★

At the airport—while curious passengers watched—the women told about concentration camp.

"These numbers were stamped on our arms the day we entered," Lisa said. "From then on it was utter horror."

"We carried the dead of starvation to the ovens. Each day at 11 a.m., we were given a crust of bread. It was green and moldy."

Gope told how she escaped having her head shaved.

"I was sick the day they were shaving heads. Lisa was strong and healthy; they shaved her."

Toward the end, Lisa said, she became so hungry she "stole a potato from a dog in the prison yard."

"I was given 25 lashes on my naked back for that," she said. "The scars still are there."

★ ★ ★

The Nazis drew blood from the inmates for sick and wounded German troops, Lisa said. They stopped when a prisoner's weight fell to 60 pounds. Lisa weighed 150 when she entered Auschweitz — 70 when she left.

Especially designed to benefit

WIDOWS RETIREES
ADMINISTRATORS

Our money management plan is provided free of charge to those who have lump sums of money to be managed over a period of years. The service offers current income, high yield, and long range security.

You want the assurance of wise counseling; someone well informed, who will take the risk and worry out of your financial planning.

By utilizing a combination of long term, high yield Savings Certificates and a Passbook Account, our plan provides an automatic living allowance that is mailed to you each month. Dividends on your Certificates are automatically credited to your Passbook Account, thus prolonging the term of monthly income without disturbing the high yield Certificates. Ask your own attorney to arrange it for you if you like.

EXAMPLE:

You can invest $34,000 today and receive $150 per month for the next 20 years and still have over $25,000 remaining at the end of that time.

Rights Forces Lose Fight in Mississippi

SUNFLOWER, Miss. (AP) — Negro civil rights forces apparently lost their first major grass roots political fight in this delta area, where Negroes outnumber whites.

However, a federal court suit was in the making, alleging that the municipal election in Sunflower was not held "in a fair and impartial manner."

★ ★ ★

Registered Negro voters outnumber white voters in Sunflower 185-153. But when the votes were counted Tuesday, white candidates for mayor and alderman held a decisive edge.

Mayor W. L. Patterson, who has held the $50 a month post for 12 years, defeated Otis Brown Jr., 21, by a count of 194-123 — indicating that Patterson drew some Negro support despite the aggressive Negro campaign to split the balloting along racial lines.

"I campaigned to get the votes of some of the good Negroes, but not those radicals in the Mississippi Freedom Democratic party," said Patterson.

Poll officials gathered the ballot boxes after the count and took them to a bank, where they were placed in a vault.

The special elections here and in nearby Moorhead were ordered by a federal court. Moorhead, however, was not considered the prime battleground because white voters there outnumbered Negro voters, 390-310.

At Moorhead, the ballot count was discontinued Tuesday night with Mayor Wesley I. Upchurch holding a 370-264 lead over Jimmy Lee Douglas. White councilmen also were ahead.

HEAVY REGISTRATION

The ballot count resumes today.

The heavy Negro registration in both towns came after the 1965 elections were voided by the court on the ground that Negroes were not given enough time to get on the registration rolls.

The suit leading to the decision was filed by the Freedom Democratic party formed by civil rights forces in Mississippi and predominantly Negro.

A federal suit challenging the Sunflower election was decided upon Tuesday night, at an FDP rally.

Alvin Bronstein, an FDP lawyer from Jackson, said the suit was based primarily on a claim that election officials broke an agreement to allow a Negro voting commissioner to advise Negro illiterates in the polling booths.

2 Murdered Sisters Share Same Grave

DETROIT (UPI) — A little girl walked softly to the two tiny, rose-draped caskets. In each hand she carried a doll.

The dolls were placed gently beside the bodies of the girl's two friends.

A Girl Scout badge that would have become 8-year-old Debby Crowther's later this month if her life hadn't ended in a macabre rape-strangling was pinned to her white dress.

Her brownie badge was pinned to the white dress of her little sister, Kim, 6, the victim of the same senseless slaying, who looked forward to September when she would have had a badge of her own.

★ ★ ★

The little sisters were walking home from school together Friday when they were raped and strangled.

BURIED TOGETHER

They were buried together yesterday in the same grave, their caskets touching.

"The parents wanted the vaults touching each other because the children were so close," said Robert F. Lane of the Lane Funeral Home.

"They usually have separate graves, but in this case the parents wanted one master grave."

A 14-year-old runaway who was allegedly "high" from a glue-sniffing binge was charged with the slaying.

MILE-LONG PROCESSION

A mile-long funeral procession wound through the peaceful Detroit suburban area carrying the tiny bodies from the funeral home to the White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

The procession was escorted by officers from four towns and the Wayne County Sheriff's office.

More than 200 people overflowed the funeral chapel as the Rev. Dr. Henry Walsch of Plymouth preached what he called "a sermon of love" for the girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crowther.

"All we can say to the parents is that we love them," he said.

He added that there were no words that could explain the loss or give comfort.

PARENTS IN SECLUSION

Mr. and Mrs. Crowther were in seclusion at a relative's home from the time of the killing and returned there after the funeral.

For the Crowthers there was no returning to their rented Westland home that was filled with the memory of the two happy little girls.

Throughout the ceremony at the funeral home and again later at the mausoleum in the cemetery, Mrs. Crowther wept loudly and her husband fought back tears.

★ ★ ★

After the mausoleum service Mrs. Crowther was given a sedative. She left the building doubled over with grief, crying, "They're gone. They're gone." After the family and friends departed, the caskets were taken by station wagon to the grave site where they were placed in cement vaults bearing the girls' names and lowered into the ground — the caskets touching.

COPTER OFF TO CANADA—Gov. George Romney tried out this Michigan-made helicopter before waving it off on a 10,000-mile, 100-day trip through Canada. The craft, made by the R. J. Engstrom Corp. of Menominee, is scheduled to visit all the Canadian provinces, the Northwest Territory and Alaska in an observance of Canada's centennial celebration.

Death Penalty Hearing Urged

LANSING (UPI) — The chairman of the State Senate Judiciary Committee has proposed holding a public hearing on whether Michigan should adopt capital punishment.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Robert Richardson, R-Saginaw, said he thinks the "Senate should come to grips with this rather harsh" proposal.

Another state senator, Stanley Rozycki, D-Detroit, proposed an amendment to the constitution to permit the death penalty for murder.

Richardson, a former Saginaw prosecuting attorney, said he didn't have any definite opinion on whether to support the proposal, but would welcome a complete discussion.

Rozycki said he was serious in proposing the death penalty. He said he offered his proposal "to dramatize the crime in Detroit."

"If the Senate wants to consider the plan, let's really decide how far we want to go in fighting crime," Richardson said in a challenge to the other lawmakers to "put up or shut up."

Gazzara Pleased: Series Vindicated

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — The three Emmy nomiations for "Run For Your Life" brought special satisfaction to Ben Gazzara this week. The honors meant vindication for a series that was reportedly canceled for a brief period recently.

THOMAS

"That's the way I heard it," reported the dark, New York-born actor. "NBC canceled the show and so notified the producer, Roy Huggins. Then four days later, the decision was reversed, and we were renewed for a third season."

"Run For Your Life" has been a prestigious show, as reflected in reviews and this week's Television Academy nominations. The show was cited as best dramatic series, and Gazzara was named as one of the five outstanding actors of a dramatic series. Also nominated: Pete Rugolo for his scoring of the series.

If a show could win such honors, how then could it be canceled for a brief period?

RANKED 47th

"The ratings were soft," Gazzara admitted. "We were beaten by 'The Big Valley' much of the time. We ranked about 47th among all the network shows, which is only fair.

"But we had a very loyal audience, and a quality audience, too. Many, many people have told me, 'Run For Your Life' is the only show I watch on TV.'

"Okay, so we only had 30 million viewers. What I want to know is: what's wrong with 30 million viewers?"

Gazzara suggested that the series may have fallen into disfavor because of its penchant for tackling sensitive subjects.

'SKIMMING' THE TAKE

During its first two seasons, "Run For Your Life" has dealt with: alleged "skimming" of the take in legal casinos; the drive for greater control of firearms; kidnaping of a war criminal from a neutral country; the comparison of a Hell's Angels-type of group with right-wing organizations; white backlash and attitudes of liberals toward Negroes.

"Run For Your Life" even dared to present a Christmas story with an unhappy ending.

★ ★ ★

"There can be no doubt that our show creates trouble for the network," Gazzara insisted. "The segment with (Negro actor) Ossie Davis was blacked out by many channels in the South.

"But I feel there is a need for a series that provides a kind of provocation. And that's the only kind I would be interested in."

TAKING VACATION

Gazzara is taking a vacation to Acapulco where his wife, Janice Rule, is making a film. Then he returns to Universal City for another season, which he hopes will be the last.

"Yes, I know that actors can become millionaires if their series go four years," he said. "But I think three years is long enough for any series. And what's wrong with being a thousandaire?"

Pulitzer-Winning Playwright Says Prize Is Losing Honor

NEW YORK (AP) — Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright Edward Albee says the coveted award is in danger of losing its position of honor because of the methods employed in determining the awards.

Albee won the 1967 award in drama for his play "A Delicate Balance," four years after the prize trustees overruled a theater jury and refused to give him the prize for "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf."

However, the mechanics of selection were defended Tuesday by a member of the Pulitzer Prize advisory board who said that "It has always held itself free to overrule juries and has frequently done so."

There was sharp criticism of the board Monday after it was reported the board overruled a journalism jury's recommendation that Harrison Salisbury receive the 1967 international reporting award for his dispatches to the New York Times from North Vietnam.

GIVEN TO HUGHES

Instead the board elected by a reported 6-5 vote to give the honor to R. John Hughes of the Christian Science Monitor for his coverage of the Indonesian crisis. Hughes had been second choice of the jury panel which voted 4-1 for Salisbury.

Erwin D. Canham, editor in chief of the Christian Science Monitor and a member of the advisory board, said Tuesday in a statement: "There has been a regrettable misunderstanding concerning the operation of the board. It always has held itself free to overrule juries and has frequently done so.

"This year in particular, juries were asked not to present first choices, but lists. Some juries did and others did not. But in any case, for many years, juries have presented choices, and the advisory board has selected among them."

At a news conference Tuesday, Albee said, "I privately think of this as my second Pulitzer Prize."

FREER TO CRITICIZE

He said he thought of refusing this year's award but decided to accept it because he then would be freer to criticize it and because while it "is an honor in decline, it is still an honor, a considerable one."

Albee pointed to growing criticism over the years over what is honored and the method of selecting award winners.

"The criticism has not been limited to the award for drama, but perhaps it has been noisiest in that department.

"Certainly something should be done to counter the feeling in the arts that the Pulitzer Prize is not always given to the best work in any given year.

NO AWARD

"Certainly something should be done to counter the feeling that the trustees will, from time to time, pass over a controversial work in favor of one more conventional, if of less value or, failing that option, choose to make no award at all," he said.

AP Wirephoto

ACCEPTS PRIZE, VOICES WARNING— Playwright Edward Albee, who was named winner of the Pulitzer Prize for drama Monday, told a news conference yesterday that he accepted the prize although he considered turning it down. "I would suggest," he said, "that the Pulitzer Prize is in danger of losing its position of honor, and could, foreseeably, cease to be an honor at all." In 1963 the Pulitzer trustees overruled the theatrical jury which recommended the drama award for Albee that year.

PIN-WORMS
AND NOT KNOW IT

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then — Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly, easily. Ask your pharmacist.

EXILED KING EXPLAINS JOB—Exiled King Peter II of Yugoslavia tells a news conference in Los Angeles yesterday about his new position with a savings and loan association. He will try to recruit savings from people abroad for the firm.

'Job Raises My Stature'

Yugoslav King Now U.S. Businessman

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It's a long way from the Yugoslavian throne, but the businessman's swivel chair seems to suit exiled King Peter II just fine.

"I don't think the training as a monarch helps much," King Peter said Tuesday as he went to work with the Sterling Savings & Loan Association of California.

★ ★ ★

"But I can tell you," he said at a news conference, "I think my connections all over Europe will help a lot. We will try to recruit savings from people abroad."

And the prestige? Doesn't that kingly image suffer a little in the role of a businessman?

"I think taking this job raises my stature," he replied.

Asked if he went to work out of necessity, the exiled king said: "I have independent means up to a point. When we left I had a little money, but nothing extraordinary."

★ ★ ★

And what about Yugoslavia, where he ruled as a teen-ager until driven from the throne by invading armies from Nazi Germany?

"I can't speculate about going back to Yugoslavia as king," he said. But speculating, he said: He would first like to see "a real democratic constitution voted for the country," and then he would "build up and reestablish a good economy."

WHAT HE MISSES

What does he miss most?

"Doing my best for the good of my people."

In the meantime, Peter said, he'll be doing his best for his savings and loan company.

He added that every Californian should have a portfolio of investments — "of which part should be in savings and loans."

'WELL SAID'

"Well said, your majesty," said the firm's board chairman, Jack J. Spitzer.

You deserve at least one real dress-up suit for the weddings, banquets, lawn parties, dances, graduations, plays and other big social affairs of the long, hot summer.

This one.

For a real dress up occasion, the Suit is Molana, a crisp, wrinkle-free suit of Dacron, polyester, fine worsted and sleek mohair. It stands alone among other summertime fabrics. You look like a million. A cool million, thanks to the thousands of tiny "windows" in every square inch of weave. They let body heat out, cooling breezes in. See our big collection of luxurious Molanas by famous Phoenix. Flawlessly tailored in 2- and 3-button models with plain front trousers. You deserve at least one. All right, maybe two.

Toronto Takes Series, 4-2

Sawchuk Sparkles as Leafs Win Stanley Cup

TORONTO (AP) — Terry Sawchuk, veteran 37-year-old goalie who was benched, vindicated himself and brought the Stanley Cup back to the Toronto Maple Leafs.

It was Sawchuk's inspired goal tending that was the key to Toronto's 3-1 victory over the Montreal Canadiens Tuesday night that gave the Leafs the coveted Cup, symbolic of world hockey supremacy.

Toronto won the best-of-7 final National Hockey League playoff series, four games to two, and ended Montreal's two-year reign as Cup champions. The Leafs had won the Cup three straight years before Montreal took it in 1965.

Sawchuk was benched after Montreal won the first game of the series. He was replaced by another veteran goalie, 42-year-old Johnny Bower, who starred as the Leafs won the next two games.

Sawchuk got a second chance when Bower injured his thigh muscle in the pre-game warmup before the fourth game. Montreal beat him again to even the series. When Bower still was unable to start the fifth game, Sawchuk was given another chance and he rose to the occasion as the Leafs won 4-1 on Montreal ice.

He was superb against the Canadiens Tuesday night and the crowd of 15,977 gave him a standing ovation when the game ended.

★ ★ ★

"He came up with the key saves," said Jean Beliveau, the Montreal captain. "There were three or four shots early in the game you could usually count on as goals."

Toe Blake, the Montreal coach, added: "The Toronto goal tending in the last two games was exceptional."

Sawchuk made 40 saves. He stopped what seemed sure Montreal goals. He robbed Beliveau twice on close-in shots and stopped John Ferguson three times. He made another sensational save on Bobby Rousseau's slapshot in the second period.

The only goal Sawchuk yielded was to Dick Duff at 5:28 of the third period when Toronto held a 2-0 lead on second period goals by Ron Ellis and Jim Pappin.

PULLED OUT

Gump Worsley, who made 33 saves in the Montreal net, was pulled out in the last minute of play and George Armstrong scored Toronto's last goal into an empty net with only 47 seconds left.

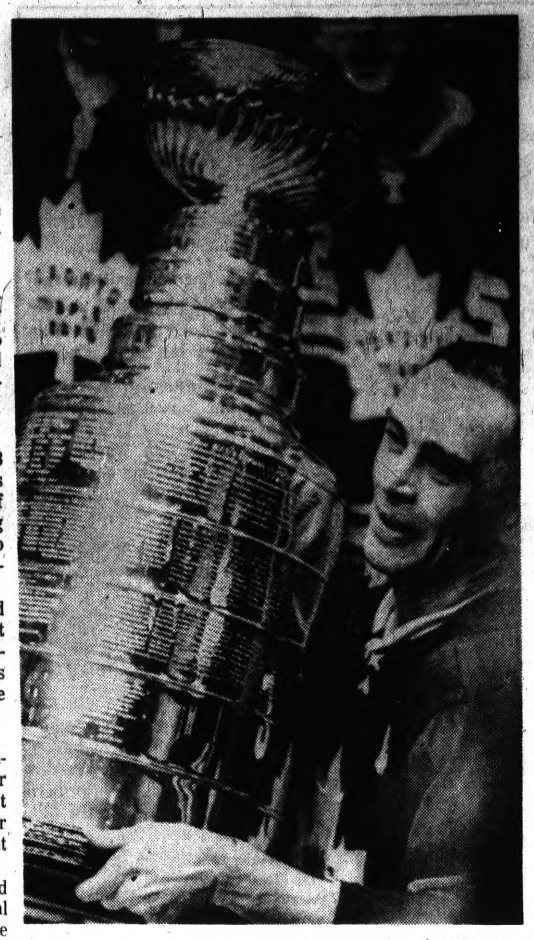
Pappin's goal, which turned out to be the winning one, first was credited to Pete Stemkowski. An official correction was made just before the end of the game.

★ ★ ★

The victory climaxed a Toronto comeback that started after the Leafs had lost 10 straight games midway of the regular NHL season and appeared out of the playoffs.

They rallied to finish third behind Chicago and Montreal and then beat Chicago in the semifinal playoffs, four games to two.

Sawchuk's goal tending was credited with a major role in Toronto's success against Chicago, too.



AP Wirephoto

IT'S ALL OVER — The strain of the Stanley Cup playoffs is reflected in the face of Toronto Maple Leafs captain George Armstrong, who clutches the Stanley Cup after the Leafs downed the Montreal Canadiens last night, 3-1, to win the series, 4-2.

Minnesota Puts New Yorkers on Ice

Senators, A's Trade Blanks; Angels Win

Chicago-Detroit Tilt Is Postponed; Twins Post 13-4 Verdict

By the Associated Press

Charlie Finley's snow-colored playshoes inspired the Washington Senators but Cal Griffith's frost-covered playground left the New York Yankees cold.

The Senators, aroused by the white kangaroo footwear introduced by owner Finley at Kansas City this spring, donned white caps and socks before splitting 1-0 shutouts with the Athletics in a doubleheader Tuesday night.

★ ★ ★

The Yankees, meanwhile, shivered through a 13-4 setback in Minnesota's sub-freezing weather after Twins' President Griffith decided against a postponement.

California edged Boston 3-2 behind Jim McGlothlin's three-hitter in the only other American League action. The Detroit-Chicago and Baltimore-Cleveland games were washed out.

The Tigers and White Sox rescheduled the one-game stand for tonight.

George Selkirk, Washington's general manager, came up with the idea of going white-on-white against the Athletics, who survived an opening-day protest by Cleveland Manager Joe Adcock that their white shoes distracted opposing batters.

REGULAR CAPS

The Senators took batting practice in their regular dark caps and red and blue stockings, then slipped into the clubhouse and emerged in their new regalia.

Southpaw Pete Richert, working 7 1-3 innings, and two relievers then whitewashed the A's on two hits in the twilight opener, decided by Ken McMullen's run-scoring single in the sixth. But Kansas City rebounded behind right-hander Jim (Catfish) Hunter, who scattered seven hits, and an RBI single by Dick Green in the sixth to snap the Senators' winning string at four games.

★ ★ ★

In Minnesota, a combination of 13 Minnesota hits, four New York errors and temperatures that ranged from 32 degrees at the start to 29 at the finish took its toll on the Yankees.

It was the coldest weather in which a game has gone on in Minnesota since the Twins entered the league in 1961. Monday night's scheduled game between the clubs had been postponed because of 40-degree temperature, strong winds and sporadic rain.

FAST START

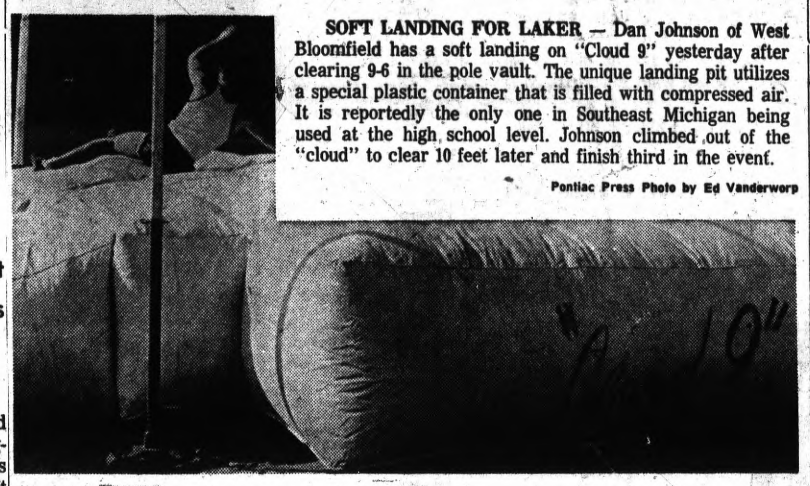
The Twins rocked Yankee starter Fritz Peterson for six runs in the first inning, enabling Dean Chance to breeze to an easy victory. Chance pitched six innings before his arm tightened up and Al Worthington finished up.

McGlothlin, a 24-year-old right-hander, retired the Red Sox in order until the seventh, when he walked Mike Andrews with one out. Carl Yastrzemski followed with a double and Andrews scored on a sacrifice fly, trimming California's lead to 3-1.

★ ★ ★

George Scott homered for the Red Sox in the eighth and Tony Conigliaro singled with two out in the ninth.

McGlothlin struck out 11 and drove in the Angels' first run with a third inning single. In the fourth, Jim Fregosi's homer and Jimmie Hall's run-scoring double boosted the lead to 3-0.



SOFT LANDING FOR LAKER — Dan Johnson of West Bloomfield has a soft landing on "Cloud 9" yesterday after clearing 9-6 in the pole vault. The unique landing pit utilizes a special plastic container that is filled with compressed air. It is reportedly the only one in Southeast Michigan being used at the high school level. Johnson climbed out of the "cloud" to clear 10 feet later and finish third in the event.

Chiefs Win Triangular Track Meet

Special to the Press

FLINT — Pontiac Central's Chiefs grabbed six firsts and piled up 75 points in an easy triangular track victory over Flint Northern (54) and Bay City Handy (19) in the wind and cold here yesterday.

Bill Tipton picked up two of the firsts by taking the hurdles, winning the highs in 14.2 seconds and the lows in 19.3.

Jon Costello set a PCH sophomore record in the 880 with a time of 2:00.5. The old mark of 2:02.2 was set by Walt Horton in 1964.

Other firsts for PCH were taken by Harold Boone (mile), Bruce Turpin (long jump) and Bob Dickie (two mile).

In Prep Track Meets

More Losers Than Winners

There were more losers than winners as four Wayne-Oakland League schools saw track action, and two Inter-Lakes League squads had split success Tuesday.

Bloomfield Hills was the only W-O team to win, taking a triangular meet under the lights at Clarkston. The Barons amassed 98 points to 37 for Holly and 13 for host Clarkston.

West Bloomfield was a gracious host, dropping a 77-41 verdict to Lutheran West in a non-W-O encounter.

Walled Lake posted its second victory, topping Plymouth 69⅔-48⅓, aided by firsts in both relay events and a sweep in the long jump.

However, the Vikings' I-L foe Waterford didn't fare as well. Cranbrook ripped the Skippers, 73-45, despite a track record by the losers' Larry Biskner. He topped the 12-6 mark at the Cranbrook pole vault pit.

The loss was Waterford's fifth in six dual meets. Cranbrook is 4-2.

★ ★ ★

Walled Lake is 2-6, and West Bloomfield slumped to 2-3 with its loss to Lutheran West who missed at least a share of first place in only the shot put and high hurdles.

★ ★ ★

Bloomfield Hills won all but the 880-yard run and the mile relay at Clarkston. The host Wolves6' best showing was a second place by John Simonds in the pole vault.

2 Golf Leagues Ready for Play

A couple of men's golf leagues will open play Friday at Silver Lake Golf Club regardless of weather conditions.

League director Ernie Felice said the morning league starts at 7:30 and the afternoon loop at 4:30. He said there are three openings for players in each league.

Orion Golfers Triumph

Bruce Rupert and Gene Harry carded 44s yesterday at Paint Creek in leading Lake Orion to a 185-220 golfing victory over Madison. The win evened Orion's record at 2-2.

Two Unbeatens in ABC Event

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Lou Scalia of Hollywood, Fla., and Bill Johnson of New Orleans, the only unbeaten finalists in the American Bowling Congress Masters Tournament, clash today in a four-game match which will determine at least one contestant for the climactic championship match tonight.

The loser of the Scalia-Johnson duel drops into the losers bracket where he will compete in a series of matches with other once-beaten contestants for the other berth in championship match.

★ ★ ★

Scalia and Johnson, dark horses in the original field of 438, ran their records to five straight wins Tuesday.

Johnson's most significant victory Tuesday came when he edged Les Schissler of Denver 846 to 832 in four games.

Scalia scored a resounding 962-784 victory over Harry Smith of Redwood City, Calif., and then turned back Ed Lubanski of Detroit 872 to 841.

Bubba's Little Brother Ready for Grid Duty

EAST LANSING (AP)—When Lawrence Smith was eight years old, his older brothers took him to the sandlots of Beaumont, Tex., to teach him to play football.

The opposition was other kids in the neighborhood . . . kids like Mel Farr, Gale Sayers, Larry Ferguson, Aaron Brown, Jerry Levias, and, of course, Smith's brothers, Willie Ray and Bubba.

★ ★ ★

"You learned quickly or you quit," recalls Smith, a freshman at Michigan State.

The other boys learned well enough to gain all-star status at such schools as UCLA, Kansas, Iowa, Minnesota and Southern Methodist, where Levias was voted the rookie of the year in the Southwest Conference last year.

They called Lawrence Smith Tody, a derivative of Toro, the Spanish word for bull. Tody is all of that at 18, standing two inches shorter and 10 pounds lighter than his famous brother Bubba, a 6-foot-8, 285-pound All-

Waterford Leads I-L

INTER-LAKES LEAGUE

	W	L		W	L
Waterford	2	0	Farmington	1	1
L. Stevenson	2	1	Walled Lake	0	3
P. Northern	1	1

The Skippers of Waterford sit atop the Inter-Lakes League baseball race with an unexpected member giving chase.

The Skippers dropped title-hopeful Farmington, 5-4, Tuesday to up their I-L mark to 2-0. Staying a half game behind at 2-1 is Livonia Stevenson, who nipped Walled Lake, 1-0.

The Spartans won only one game in their baseball debut last spring, but upset defending cochampion Pontiac Northern in their 1967 opener last week.

Brad Potter's one-out triple gave WTHS its winning run at Farmington. Larry Hemmerly, like Potter a sophomore, singled, stole second base and scampered home on the big blow.

Larry St. Dennis and Kirk Hamilton delivered run-producing singles in a three-run Waterford first inning. The Falcons tied the score with four in the fifth on two-run basehits by Al Kilkka and Jerry Tinkle.

GOOD RELIEF

But junior Rod Kennedy came in to stop the host team without a hit the rest of the way. He combined with starter Bill Hill for 12 strikeouts.

★ ★ ★

Waterford now has won four straight games in a 6-3 season, while the Falcons are 2-3 overall.

★ ★ ★

Paul Tonnemacher of Stevenson limited Walled Lake to one solid hit by Pat Piilo in the fifth inning, whiffing 10 and driving in the lone run with a bloop single. Dave Horton allowed only three hits but had his record squared at 1-1.

The Vikings are 1-6 for the campaign.

Rochester '9' Rolls

Rochester hiked its undefeated string to seven in a row with an 8-0 conquest of Clawson Tuesday.

The Oakland A League leaders jumped into a 7-0 advantage in the opening inning. Their eight-hit offense in the lopsided tilt included four doubles.

Dick Farrand ignited a two-run first inning with a two-bagger and scored on Dan Johnson's two-run single.

In Rochester's five-run second, Jim Burton sandwiched a two-run single between RBI doubles by Dan Wheeler and Bob Boice. Johnson and Burton both added singles to their hitting records.

Enrolls at Northern

Pistons Win Flip, Walker

Detroit Signs Cage Ace to 4-Year Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — Last year the Detroit Pistons lost a coin toss and ended up drafting Dave Bing.

This year they won the toss from the Baltimore Bullets and drafted Jimmy Walker. Since last year's second choice turned out to be the National Basketball Association's Rookie-of-the-year, there's no telling what might happen with this year's first choice.

The Pistons might even get out of the NBA cellar.

Walker, an All-American from Providence, was signed to a $110,000, four-year contract.

The Pistons beat out Indianapolis of the new American Basketball Association for the top choice.

Detroit came up with a firm offer Monday. Walker said he called Indianapolis and was told the club couldn't make a firm offer until Wednesday.

"I told them so long," he said. "I prefer Detroit, anyway."

Big Bubba Is Brother's No. 1 Booster at MSU

America defensive tackle at MSU last year and the No. 1 pick in the 1967 pro football draft.

GIVEN ADVICE

When Tody reported for spring football practice at MSU this year, Bubba gave him this advice:

★ ★ ★

"You have only two ways to go. You are going to be good or you are going to be sorry."

Tody doesn't like the comparison to his older brother, an outgoing jolly fellow who responded to the cries of "kill, Bubba, kill" at Spartan Stadium for three years.

"Bubba says I had more potential as a freshman than he did. I'm not in the position to say. He wants me to excel.

★ ★ ★

"I asked him to stop telling people that, but he keeps it up. It puts an awful load on me. I haven't played a college game yet and people ask me if I want to play pro football and who would I like to play for?

"I know everyone will measure me against Bubba. I took it all into consideration when I came to Michigan State, in particular, because everyone here knows him better than anywhere else.

"But I'm not like Bubba and I want people to understand that."

TOSSED OUT

Where Bubba merely knocked down blockers and ball carriers with carefree abandon, Tody is the type who gets tossed out of games (the Indiana freshman game last year) and is prone to personal fouls.

★ ★ ★

"Bubba can smile and wave and say hi to everybody and that's his way," observed Tody, who will be a middle guard on the Spartan defensive unit. "But there are days I can't do that. Some days I just want to be left alone."

Like Bubba and older brother Willie Ray, Tody played high school football for his coaching father, W. R. Smith, in Beaumont.

Honors Go to Jockey 70 Years After Death

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Seventy years after his death, a son of a slave, born on a tobacco plantation, is to be honored as one of the greatest jockeys in the history of racing in this country.

Isaac Burns Murphy, who died in 1896 at the age of 36, set a remarkable record of 628 victories in 1,412 races.

IKE MURPHY

In addition, he was the first man to ever win three Kentucky Derbies — in 1884 (Buchanan), in 1890 (Riley) and in 1891 (Kingman).

REBURIED

Murphy's remains, discovered by a newspaperman here in an unmarked, neglected grave in an abandoned cemetery, will be reburied near America's most famous thoroughbred, Man O' War, in the latter's magnificent memorial park.

Stuart Bloch, an executive of the Kentucky Club Tobacco Co. of Wheeling, W. Va., proposed the idea and provided a suitable monument to be placed on the new grave May 4.

Isaac Burns Murphy, or Ike, is a legend in Kentucky. His record of three Derby victories stood for 57 years until finally broken by Eddie Arcaro, who scored the fourth of his five Churchill Downs triumphs in 1948 with Citation.

And, appropriately enough, Arcaro, now retired from riding, has agreed to be honorary chairman at the dedication ceremonies in Man O'War Park here two days before the running of the 93rd Kentucky Derby.

Some Agreement Reached in Amateur Track Dispute

NEW YORK (AP) — Labor mediator Theodore Kheel and his sports arbitration board have obtained agreement on a number of major points from the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Amateur Athletic Union in their long dispute over which group should control amateur athletics in the United States.

One agreement during a meeting Tuesday involved the re-establishment of a coordinating committee for track and field, giving the AAU, NCAA, U. S. Track and Field Federation and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics an equal voice with one vote apiece.

The AAU and NCAA also agreed to empower the coordinating committee to handle any dispute that comes up in track and field.

THIRD POINT

Kheel said this committee will resolve any disputes in track and field at any level.

A third point involved event sanctioning, Kheel said the AAU conceded that it only has to sanction an event — not an entire meet.

The case of Jim Ryun's pending world record of 1:49.9 for the half mile was tabled. Ryun ran his world record half mile at the USTFF meet in Terre Haute, Ind. last June. The record was not accepted by the International Amateur Athletic Federation, world governing body of the sport, because the AAU had not signed the application. The AAU had not certified the meet.

Kheel said another meeting may be held before the next USTFF championships at Albuquerque, N.M., June 9-10.

Waterford Netters Post 6-1 Victory

Waterford Township swept the singles and lost only the final doubles match in taking a 6-1 Inter-Lakes League tennis triumph over Farmington Tuesday.

The victory left the Skippers undefeated in a pair of loop outings and squared their overall mark at 3-3. Farmington is 1-1 in league play.

Skippers, Milford Post Golf Wins

Waterford and Milford each defeated Bloomfield Hills' golf squad, 171-175, yesterday at Forest Lake Country Club.

The Skippers were paced by Randy Berry and Ray Tallerday's 42s. Dennis Weeks had 41 for Milford and teammates Rick Yeager and Dave Baker 43s.

Bill Scott of Hills was the day's medalist with a 40 and the Barons' Randy DeArment posted a 42. Waterford is 13-2 on the season and entertains Milford today at Pontiac CC.

Coach Leaves Town

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ed Jucker was hired as coach of the Cincinnati Royals Tuesday and a few hours later caught a plane to New York for his first chore — the National Basketball Association draft meeting.

South Lyon Nine Still in Running for League Title

South Lyon received a boost at the right time Tuesday and remains in contention for the Southeastern Conference diamond crown despite losing a 4-3 verdict at Chelsea.

The Lions gave up all four runs, two of them unearned, in the opening inning and then couldn't catch up. The loss left them with a mark of 5-2 in the loop.

They remained tied for the lead, however, with Saline who lost also, 4-3, to Dexter.

Mike Byrd singled home the initial run for South Lyon in the fifth, and Don Jones drove in two with a sixth-inning safety. However, he was stranded on second base. The Lions are 7-3 over-all.

Kettering Golfers Gain Loop Win

Kettering stayed unbeaten in Tri-County League golf matches with a 223-233 decision over Lapeer at the Lapeer Country Club.

Playing in strong wind, the five-man WKHS squad was led by Dave Moilanen's 39. Teammate Gary Quitiquit, who had a hole in one earlier this season, with a 43.

Lapeer was led by Jack Babcock's 44. Kettering is 8-1 overall and 5-0 in league play.

PRICES START AT ONLY... $35.95 each

D70-14 (6.95 x 14) Red or White stripe tubeless plus $1.92 Fed. Ex. Tax and old tire

WIDE BOOTS ARE BEST ON TODAY'S HIGH PERFORMANCE CARS
They deliver the stability, the strength, the riding qualities that are needed for today's breed of powerful cars. Track tested under special conditions at speeds up to 130 M.P.H.

WIDE BOOTS ARE STRONGER
That's because they're built much like racing tires. The cord (brawny, triple-tempered 3-T Nylon cord) is set at a different angle — a low angle — for less heat build up and longer wear.

WIDE BOOTS HAVE ALMOST ONE-THIRD WIDER TREAD THAN ORDINARY TIRES
They put more rubber on the road for faster starts, better cornering, quicker stops.

LOUIS REYNOLDS

Bowler Scores in Finale

The final game of the 1966-67 bowling season proved to be the biggest one in the nine-year career of Louis Reynolds from Clyde.

The evening didn't start out well for the 194-average member of the Aluma-Vue team in the West Side Merchants League at Airway Lanes last Friday.

He began with a 165, then switched his tactics on lanes 23-24 and bowled a 237 game. He refined the line in the final game, and rolled the first 300 of his career.

The perfect game was the second this season at Airway. Reynolds' 300 also boosted him to a 702 series on the final night.

★ ★ ★

He admitted just "trying to hit the pocket" on his last three deliveries. "I didn't want to miss the head pin," he confirmed.

★ ★ ★

Bowling in very quiet, pressure-packed environment, the youthful kegler brought three balls hard into the pocket and claimed his perfect game to the delight of the watching throng.

Grapple With Books

EAST LANSING (AP) — Four members of the Michigan State NCAA and Big Ten championship wrestling team had straight "A" marks during the winter term. They were Dale Anderson, unbeaten conference and national NCAA 137-pound titlist, and Dave Campbell, Mike Johnson and Tom Wendt, a Detroiter.

Derby Winner in Line for Fat Racing Purse

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — With the last of the dress rehearsals behind them, a field of 15 3-year-olds seemed likely today for the greatest two-minute show in horse racing — Saturday's Kentucky Derby.

★ ★ ★

If all 15 satrt, the 1¼-mile race will be one of the richest in its 92-year history, grossing $163,700 with the winner's pot totaling $121,200.

Spokesmen from the camps of several probables, however, indicate firm decisions won't be made until entry time Thursday morning.

★ ★ ★

Edith Bancroft's Damascus, winner of the Bay Shore and Wood Memorial, carried the role of probable favorite, with Churchill Downs handicapper Bill Smith pegging the son of Sword Dancer at 2-1.

Vulture's Feathers Unruffled

By the Associated Press

The Vulture's feathers remain unruffled.

Sandy Koufax, Maury Wills and Tommy Davis are gone but Phil (The Vulture) Regan still is around, remaining the Los Angeles Dodgers of the good old days.

★ ★ ★

Regan, nicknamed The Vulture for the way he swooped down on victories in late inning relief last year, picked up his first of the season Tuesday night in the Dodgers' 5-3 triumph over Pittsburgh.

★ ★ ★

It's been almost one full year since Regan lost a game. The last time was May 13, 1966 . . . appropriately enough, a Friday night. That came at Forbes Field and since then, The Vulture has been flying high.

★ ★ ★

He won 13 straight last season and Tuesday's victory extended his unbeaten appearance string to 66 games — 58 last season and seven this year.

The Pirates had another shot Tuesday and actually tied the game against him when he relieved starter Claude Osteen with one out in the eighth.

Roberto Clemente singled, delivering Wills, now a Pirate, with the tying run. But Regan pitched out of the jam and held Pittsburgh at bay until the 11th when the Dodgers rallied.

Dedicated Anglers Take Over Trout Streams

The opening weekend of trout fishing has come and gone and so have most of the fishermen.

From now until the special seasons close late in November, the dedicated trout anglers will dominate the lakes and streams. Most members of the once-a-year crowd have temporarily packed their equipment to wait for the bluegills and bass to become more active.

★ ★ ★

But they did manage to reap a good harvest on certain Oakland County waters before returning to their homes in Southeastern Michigan.

Hatchery-reared trout — some of good size — were hoisted out of Upper Trout and Foley lakes like perch during Saturday's opener. The accepted method was to sink a fat nightcrawler or a hook full of eggs to the bottom and wait for a school to come along.

Action began to taper off Sunday on the two lakes. The trout ranks had been thinned and it doesn't take long for these fish to wise up.

On the special "lures only" ponds, fishing was excellent at Fenton, fair at Bald Mountain and not so good at Davisburg during the first hour of the season.

Catches were nil on these ponds by Monday afternoon. However, all three contain rainbows and a few browns over 15 inches long. Petitbone "flies only" pond may be the best of the four special ponds.

CLEANED OUT

Poachers apparently cleaned out Minnie Lake before the season opened. Conservation Department fish biologists reported 10 boats on the small lake in the Holly recreation area and no trout caught opening day.

Good catches of browns, planted as sub-legals a year ago, were made on Paint Creek. The Huron and Clinton Rivers were very poor and there was little pressure on Kearley and Duck creeks.

Fishing was on the poor side at area lakes such as Orchard, Union, Maceday, Deer and Cemetery and fair at Pine and Square.

Don Brown, 2522 Hartline, fished below the special Bald Mountain trout pond opening day and took seven trout, with the largest going 19 inches. This stream eventually flows into Paint Creek.

He caught the fish between midnight and 2:30 a.m. Don Lockhardt, 1142 Dudley, caught four rainbows from the special pond during the weekend and added two more from the delta on the west side of Kern Road.

★ ★ ★

He used a Mepps spinner which seemed to be the most consistent producer on the three special lures ponds.

A three-pound splake was taken at Cass Lake by Richard Ulasich, 2427 Lafay, Saturday. Conservation officers report the splake catch poor, but did say that a couple of browns—one 15 inches—were caught at Cass.

Panfish on local lakes showed signs of becoming active with big perch being boated at Pine, Square and Cedar Island and good bluegills being caught on flies at Holly millpond and Sylvan Lake.

★ ★ ★

Trout fishermen who headed north ran into two problems. There were no hatchery trout—except on a stretch of the Manistee that was treated last year—and waters were high and in some cases roily.

Results were generally poor.

STEELHEADS

Good catches of steelheads were made on the Little Manistee near Peacock and Little Garlic River near Manistee.

★ ★ ★

The AuSable was high and its South Branch dirty. Fair catches were made on the North Branch. The Rifle was poor, but Buttermilk Creek near Cadillac yielded good browns.

In the Upper Peninsula, some big browns were caught at Moccasin Lake near Marquette and the Mosquito River in Alger County was a good spot for steelheads.

Early Morning Jaunts Could Benefit Hunters

Plan now for next fall's pheasant hunting season.

That's the advice of Howard Greene, Conservation Department district game biologist at Pontiac Lake, who is in the process of finding out how many pheasants, quail and woodcock are around this spring.

★ ★ ★

"We are peparing to take our annual spring crowing count," said Greene. "It's a good way to tell where pheasants will be this fall.

"We used last spring's count to pinpoint a real hotspot in Macomb County," he pointed out. "Concentrations of quail can be found the same way."

Greene stated that "anyone can take such a count." He didn't say that some extra fortitude is needed — getting out of bed well before dawn.

"Drive to a different general area a half hour before sunrise each day," he instructed. "Stop the car every mile and listen. It doesn't take long to learn if any roosters are in the area. They crow every two minutes."

About two weeks of this will locate the "good hunting," he said. "Where roosters are concentrated this spring is where they will be in the fall."

2 Area Lakes on Race Slate

Powerboats at Loon, Sylvan in June

Boaters in region six of the American Power Boat Association will launch their 1967 racing season early in June at Dayton, O., and then move into Pontiac for two regattas.

★ ★ ★

Contestants will race on Sylvan Lake June 11 and move to Loon Lake for more competition June 18. The dates here are two of 10 on the APBA summer schedule.

After the Pontiac races, the group has dates at Ypsilanti (June 25), Ecorse (July 2), Columbus (July 9), Kalamazoo (July 16), Celina, O. (Aug. 6), Cincinnati (Aug. 20), Indian Lake, O. (Aug. 27) and Newport, Ky., (Sept. 17).

The season officially opens the weekend of June 3-4 at Dayton with the Eastern Divisional Championships. Winners in each class at Dayton will be eligible to participate in the national competition later in the summer.

★ ★ ★

Contestants in the region six come, primarily, from four racing associations.

The four are Marine Prop Riders of Detroit, Dayton Motorboat Racing Association, Ohio Valley Motorboat Racing Association and the Northern Kentucky Boat Club.

Forest Fire Planned

The Conservation Department will control-burn 1,070 acres in the Crystal Falls District of the Upper Peninsula this month in an attempt to improve game habitat — mostly deer range.

Public Hearing

The possible inclusion of the Huron Islands and Seney National Wildlife Refuge into the Wilderness Preservation System will be discussed at a public hearing at 9 a.m., May 10, in Marquette. Seney totals 19,150 acres and the islands, offshore from the Huron Mountains, contain 147 acres.

Game Division Chief Named

Donald W. Douglass, whose choice was a mild surprise, has taken over his new duties as head of the Conservation Department's game division.

Douglass, 58, former supervisor of the division's species management and technical service section, assumed his new position Monday. He replaces Harry D. Ruhl who retired the same day.

Although with the department since 1939, Douglass was not listed as a frontrunner for the post by those who try to guess promotions.

Possibly this is because he managed to stay out of the limelight.

The new division chief was appointed according to Civil Service rules and procedures.

Douglass, well respected by those in his field as a biologist and ornithologist, joined the department to direct grouse investigations after serving as a biology instructor at Texas Technological College the preceding five years.

In 1943, he was named assistant supervisor of Southern Michigan state game areas. Two years later, he was promoted to assistant supervisor of the species management and technical services section which he was appointed to head in 1946.

Douglass reassumed that supervisory post in 1950 after serving one year as associate professor of wildlife management and zoology at Michigan State University.

St. Clair River Yields Salmon

The Conservation Department confirmed yesterday that a coho salmon has been caught from the St. Clair River.

District fish biologist Steve Swan of Pontiac Lake reported that Clyde Springborn of St. Clair caught the 18-inch, 2¼-pound fish last Friday while angling from the dock in front of his home.

Swan and other department fish experts made the identification. This is the first confirmation of a coho being taken by hook and line on the east side of the state.

Coho's were stocked last spring in two streams that flow into Lake Michigan.

Teacher Classes in Conservation at Higgins Lake

Applications are being taken at the Conservation Department's Region III headquarters in Lansing for the 1967 Teachers' Conservation School at Higgins Lake.

Featured in the school's six week-long sessions this summer will be a special seminar for school administrators and board members during the July 23-29 period.

This summer's regular one-week teacher classes, covering such subjects as earth history, minerals, soil, water, forestry and wildlife and their interplay in resource management, are scheduled for July 9-15; July 16-22; July 30-August 5; August 13-19; and August 20-26.

More details may be obtained by writing to: Teachers' Conservation School, Michigan Department of Conservation, 408 Kalamazoo Plaza, Lansing, 48914.

State's Most Precious Bird Returns

MIO (AP)—Michigan's unique and most precious bird — the Kirtland's warbler—will be returning to the state by the end of this week or next.

The tiny song birds are not spectacular. But they are precious in that it is estimated that only about 1,000 are left.

They are unique because they only will nest in a small area of Michigan where conditions are ideal for survival.

The birds are fussy about where they rear their young. They build their nests only among jack pines 10 to 15 feet tall. They prefer a location where the young pines are nearly touching each other and they build the nest at the base of the tree.

Every spring the birds return to the jack pine country in the northeastern section of the Lower Peninsula.

SPECIAL REFUGE

The federal government has set aside a section near Mio to protect them. The State Conservation Department also worries about the birds and has three protected nesting areas.

The Kirtland's warbler, like all song birds, are protected. But because of their scarcity, both departments have carried on a program of tree planting to aid their fight for survival.

★ ★ ★

The little bird is a blueish grey color with a breast of bright yellow with spots on the side. It is more easily spotted by its song than by sight, however.

The male only gives out a shrill, warbling whistle. This is quite unlike the soft trill of most birds in the warbler family.

★ ★ ★

The whistle is believed to be used as a courtship call and also as a signal by the male bird to warn other males off his territory.

Bird watchers and lovers come from all over the country to observe Michigan's warbler during the brief season the migratory birds remain here.

The warblers spend their winters in the Bahamas. They arrive in Michigan in the late spring and leave in the early fall, staying only long enough to rear their young.

The story of the identification of the warbler as a unique species and the discovery of its Michigan nesting ground reads like a detective thriller.

An Ohio naturalist, Dr. Jared Kirtland, first identified the bird as a separate species. The bird actually was discovered by a Charles Peases on the Kirtland farm, near Cleveland and the Lake Erie shore, in 1851.

Indiana Halts Coho Netting

Indiana's Department of Conservation has taken steps to shut down commercial fishing for coho and chinook salmon in about 20 days in its state's Great Lakes waters.

The closure, to take effect as soon as enough time has elapsed after the change has been publicly posted, will be coupled with the addition of salmon sport-fishing regulation for Indiana patterned after Michigan's.

Ecologists to Meet

The spring meeting of the Michigan Association of Conservation Ecologists will be May 25-26 at Lake Superior State College in Sault Ste. Marie.

DOT Chief's Bluff Is Lost on House Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Transportation Alan S. Boyd is a flop at using poker tactics.

Boyd laid a blue chip on the table at hearings on the highway beauty bill in the House Tuesday but couldn't convince a single member of the public works committee that he had anything in his hand.

The committee is threatening to rewrite the 2-year-old program for removing billboards and prettying up the roadside because it doesn't like the way Boyd is running it.

The secretary, trying to avert such action, said he would be willing to let local zoning authorities regulate billboards in commercially zoned areas instead of requiring approval by the federal government — a key point in the controversy.

AT VARIANCE

"I've laid down a real blue chip," he told the committee.

Further questioning, however, showed that Boyd had firm opinions as to what constituted a competent local zoning authority. They were widely at variance with the committee's.

The blue chip turned out to be worthless for settling the dispute.

Boyd had already demonstrated a weakness at bluffing, another fine art of the poker player. In his prepared testimony he said there could be no highway beautification program that did not provide for "substantial removal" of billboards. When he read the statement, however, he changed "substantial removal" to "positive control."

★ ★ ★

Seeing a possible breakthrough, Rep. Jim Wright, D-Tex., said if the change represented a change in Boyd's thinking about what the law required, they might be near agreement.

★ ★ ★

"No," said Boyd. "I try to be honest with everyone. I feel the law does require substantial removal of billboards but I changed the language to avoid waving a red flag at the committee."

Rock Singer Free on Bond

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rock 'n' roll singer Carl Dean Wilson — arrested on a charge of draft evasion — is free on $15,000 bond that permits him to leave the country pending trial.

Wilson, 20, was arrested in New York last week. He entered a plea of innocent to a grand jury indictment Monday.

★ ★ ★

His request to rejoin his singing group, the Beach Boys, in Europe was granted Tuesday by U.S. Dist. Judge A. Andrew Hauk.

Wilson's attorney, J. B. Tietz, told Judge Hauk the singer is opposed to the draft on religious grounds.

DETROIT (AP) — The Army has increased its order with Kaiser Jeep Corp., Toledo, by 186 additional 2½-ton trucks. The cost is $1.3 million. The trucks are being produced at the firm's South Bend, Ind., plant.

Five Citizens to Be Honored

Five citizens will be honored at the fifth annual citizens' awards dinner in Pontiac on May 17.

Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. will present awards to the recipients. Dave Diles, sports director of WXYZ-TV in Detroit, will be the featured speaker.

The program, sponsored by the Pontiac Citizens' Committee on Youth, will be held at 7 p.m. at the Pontiac Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake. Tickets are $4.

We don't intend to go into all the ramifications and variations that might have taken place in the bidding and play of today's hand. We are not writing a book — merely an article.

JACOBY

After this bidding West opened the queen of clubs against South's three no-trump contract and South won in dummy and led a low spade.

Tobias Stone who sat East is one of the greatest defensive players of all time. The spade play was unusual enough to indicate to Stone that declarer wanted someone to lead a diamond and Stone was not about to do that. Instead he led a club right into dummy.

West was careful to play the jack and hang onto the three spot as a possible out card later, because West also realized what declarer's problem was.

Another spade was led from dummy and Stone was in again. This time he played his eight of hearts. South played low as did West and dummy's jack won the trick. Back came a heart and East's ten and declarer's king fell to West's ace.

West put his partner back in with the queen of hearts and Stone continued to harass declarer by leading the ace and queen of spades.

Dummy's king took the queen. This left dummy with the four of spades. Declarer called "Low spade."

Stone said "Lower spade," and produced the deuce. By this time West had managed to get rid of all his four diamonds and was down to the nine-three of clubs and the 13th heart. The best declarer could do was to take dummy's ten of clubs and give West the last two tricks. The whole diamond suit had been shut out!

♥♣CARD Sense♠♦

Q—The bidding has been:

West	North	East	South
		1 ♥	Dble
Pass	2 ♦	Pass	Pass
2 ♥	Pass	Pass	?

You, South, hold:
♠ A J 10 6 5 ♥ 2 ♦ K 4 3 ♣ A Q 8 6
What do you do now?

A—Bid two spades. You want to compete further and if your partner can't stand two spades he can probably go back to three diamonds with safety

TODAY'S QUESTION

You bid two spades. West passes and your partner bids three clubs. What do you do now?

115 Fingerprinted in Search for Killer

HILLSDALE (UPI) — Police took fingerprints from 115 of the 123 male students at Reading High School yesterday in an attempt to find the killer of an aged mother and her son in March.

Hillsdale County Prosecutor James N. Parker said unidentified fingerprints were found in the home of Mrs. Ella N. Northrop, 89, and her son, Harold, 68.

The parents of the youths were asked for their permission to conduct the fingerprinting. The students cooperated, with some treating it as a lark and one way to get out of classes.

Woman Is Killed by Her Own Car

DIXON, Ill. (AP) — Ella M. Leigh, 33, was struck by her own auto and killed Tuesday.

Witnesses told police Mrs. Leigh parked the car on a hill and began walking away from it. They said the car began to roll downhill and Mrs. Leigh ran in front of it, trying to jump inside, but was unable to get out of its path in time.

Woman Killed in State Crash

LAKE ODESSA (AP)—Grace Rogers, 83, of near Lake Odessa was killed Tuesday when two cars collided on M50 about 1½ miles east of Lake Odessa.

Police said she was riding in a car driven by her husband, John, 84, who was hospitalized at nearby Hastings. The other car was driven by Edward Schlak, 71, of Lansing. He escaped injury, police reported.

Canadians Cry '1984' on Police Plan

VANCOUVER, B. C. (UPI) — A recent proposal by a committee of the Association of Police Chiefs for broadening police powers has drawn cries of "police state" and "1894." The association denies the accusations contained in the criticism.

"We're not moving toward a police state," says Ralph Booth, chief of the Vancouver police and president of the association. "We are not trying to infringe on anyone's liberties. But as the judge said, 'Why should an innocent man worry?' "

Adoption of the proposals is doubtful. The report seeks:

- To arrest without warrants persons suspected of minor criminal offenses, persons loitering in hallways, locker rooms and inside apartment buildings;
- To detain temporarily as a preventive measure all suspected rabble-rousers and troublemakers;
- To detain for 24 hours all suspects without charge and without taking them before a judge;
- To search houses without warrants for counterfeit money, stolen property, burglary tools or in cases when a policeman thinks a crime has been or is about to be committed;
- To force clergymen, lawyers, doctors, psychiatrists and social workers to disclose information to police told to them in confidence by parishoners, clients or patients;
- To require any person to give his name and address to any policeman who asks for any reason;
- To require judges and magistrates to undergo psychiatric examination;
- To continue the present practices of flogging with the lash, prosecution and imprisonment of children from 7 to 14 years old and trial in adult courts of those over 16;
- To require criminals to supply compensation to their victims as part of their sentences.

The reaction was instantaneous.

★ ★ ★

"An example of the police mind run rampant," said Mark McGuigan of the Canadian Civil Liberties Association.

'OUTRAGEOUS'

"Outrageous and out of date . . . a completely thoughtless approach to the problem of crime detection and the administration of justice," said David Lewis, new Democratic party House leader.

★ ★ ★

Five steps toward a police state," Vancouver Mayor Tom Campbell said. "Their job is to administer the law, not make it."

Consolidation Indicated

Market Maintains Firmness

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market maintained a firm stance in active trading early Wednesday afternoon.

Prices moved narrowly with most changes of key issues being fractional.

Brokers called the performance a consolidation after the long, strong gain in April.

Some analysts expressed the opinion that the process would be brief and that the market would make an effort to penetrate the 900-level on the Dow Jones industrial average.

Gainers outnumbered losers but the margin had narrowed since earlier in the session.

Electronics declined and building materials advanced. Other groups were mixed.

The Associated Press 60-stock average at noon was up a minimal .1 at 325.9 with industrials up .4, rails off .1 and utilities off .1.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was ahead 1.67 at 893.32.

Chrysler, which was alone among the automakers in reporting a sales increase in April over a year earlier, gained a minor fraction.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange. Valley Metallurgical, Wheelabrator and Edo gained about 2 points. Seven Arts and Consolidated Oil were up about a point.

Pontiac Boy, 4, Badly Hurt After Being Hit by Car

A Pontiac boy, struck by a car late yesterday near his home, is reported in serious condition today at Pontiac General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Tommy K. Frederick, 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ermal Frederick of 4 Clark, was hospitalized after being hit about 5 p.m., according to Pontiac police.

★ ★ ★

Vernie M. Deel, 38, of 225 W. Princeton, driver of the car, told police the boy darted in front of him from between parked cars.

The mishap occurred on Clark near the intersection of North Saginaw.

'Custer Scapegoat' Might Be Cleared

WASHINGTON (UPI) — After the Sioux and the Cheyenne had done their bloody work at the Little Big Horn that June afternoon in 1876, somebody obviously had to be the scapegoat in the disaster.

It couldn't be Gen. George A. Custer. He and his troopers of the 7th Cavalry lay in unmarked graves near the site of the massacre. And besides, the general had a vengeful wife and powerful political friends.

According to American Legion and Charles A. Reno of Jackson Heights, N.Y., the scapegoat eventually turned out to be Maj. Marcus A. Reno, one of Custer's troop commanders at the battle.

Charles Reno, who is Maj. Reno's great-grandnephew, and lawyers for the Legion go before the Army's board of correction of military records today to ask that the major's 88-year-old court-martial conviction be set aside.

Although his conduct at the Little Big Horn was questioned, most notably by the widow Custer, the court-martial that bounced Maj. Reno from the service was for "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

This was in 1879, four years after the battle. It was alleged that he had been brawling at an officer's club in the Dakota Territory and struck a second lieutenant, among other things. His dismissal from the Army was upheld by President Rutherford B. Hayes in 1880.

But attorneys Samuel C. Borzilleri and Gene L. Fattig, representing Charles Reno and the American Legion, claimed that Maj. Reno would never have been convicted had it not been for the controversy over his part in the battle of the Little Big Horn.

Reno was one of Custer's two top subordinates in the ill-fated attack on a huge Sioux encampment, during which Custer split the 7th Cavalry into three forces.

★ ★ ★

While Custer was preparing to charge from the North, forces led by Reno and Capt. Frederick W. Benteen were to attack further upstream along the Little Big Horn river.

DISORDERLY RETREAT

But before Custer could charge, Benteen's force engaged the hostiles, and the pony soldiers were sent into a disorderly retreat. Only 15 men in Reno's command of 130 escaped. All of the 207 men with Custer were killed.

Reno's part in the battle became controversial, particularly after published charges made by Custer's widow, who condemned him for not taking his force to Custer's aid.

Although an inquiry ordered by Congress cleared Reno of any wrongdoing on the battlefield, he became involved in a series of drinking incidents.

★ ★ ★

After his dismissal, Reno lived in Washington, broke but still pushing his case for reinstatement until he died in 1889. He was buried in Glenwood Cemetery in a grave identified only by a number and a reference in a burial book.

★ ★ ★

Charles Reno and the Legion sought to clear his name so that he would be eligible to be reburied in the Custer battlefield cemetery in Montana.

Plea Changed in Road Death

A Pontiac youth charged with negligent homicide in a traffic death last week faces arraignment in Circuit Court May 13 after withdrawing a guilty plea to the charge.

Alvin Birdiett, 18, of 75 Willard was originally scheduled to be sentenced Monday after pleading guilty to the charge last week.

When it was determined the case could not be heard in Municipal Court, however, the sentencing was canceled and a date set for appearance in Circuit Court.

Judge Cecil B. McCallum ordered Birdiett released in $200 bond. The youth was the driver of a car which allegedly ran a red light, fatally injuring a 47-year-old Pontiac woman.

Court Gives English Writer Happy Ending

LONDON (UPI) — An appeals court yesterday gave best-selling mystery novelist Hammond Innes one of his happiest endings.

The court ruled in the writer's favor in a complicated tax case involving profits from a book that Innes gave to his father in 1960 as a present.

The 53-year-old novelist's troubles began when he turned over the manuscript of "The Doomed Oasis" to his father and granted him the rights to the royalties. When the Elder Innes died three years later, he had collected all the profits on the popular book and paid the taxes.

But on the sales after the death, the Inland Revenue Department claimed the author was responsible for an estimated $43,500 in taxes.

★ ★ ★

Innes said he was not liable for the taxes because he had given the book away before publication. The court upheld his claim.

Brave Whale Is Freed From Dock Pilings

CAPE LOOKOUT, N.C. (UPI) — A devil - may - care whale, spouting water, swam close to shore along the outer banks yesterday and became entangled in the pilings of a dock.

Six Coast Guardsmen spotted his plight and worked for more than an hour to free him.

★ ★ ★

The 70-foot sperm whale was "frantic, but suddenly quieted down like a baby when it saw we were trying to free it from the pilings," a coast guardsman said.

"The last we saw of the while, he was doing about 15 knots and heading southwest into deep water. He was injured pretty badly, but he'll make it."

Boat Makes 1st Trip of '67 to Isle Royale

HOUGHTON (AP)—The Ranger III, 165-foot National Park Service boat which transports tourists to Isle Royale, made its maiden trip of 1967 Tuesday.

It carried no tourists, but aboard were 18 maintenance men and park rangers sent to prepare the island for opening of its season June 1. Four Park Service men previously had been flown to the island.

The trip from Houghton to Isle Royale National Park, out in Lake Superior, requires six hours normally.

School Study to Be Mulled

Waterford Board to Hear Administration

The Waterford Township Board of Education will consider a series of 12 recommendations by a citizens' school finance study committee at its 7:30 p.m. meeting tomorrow.

The recommendations were presented to the board at its April 20 meeting. Since then the administration has reviewed the suggestions and made recommendations whether to concur with them.

Climaxing a six-week study, the citizens' committee accepted the recommendations which are concerned with the areas of finance, future needs, personnel and program.

In other business, the board will hear a report on the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (COG), whose goal is to provide effective ways of working together to resolve common metropolitan problems.

★ ★ ★

COG was created three years ago by the Committee of One Hundred, comprising governmental leaders from the six-county metropolitan area.

POSTPONEMENT CONSIDERED

Also tomorrow night, the board will consider a superintendent's recommendation to postpone the bid opening to June 1 for construction projects at Cooley, Covert, Grayson, Haviland, Leggett, McVittie and Monteith elementary schools.

School officials said an insufficient number of bids have been received.

★ ★ ★

A recommendation to reject bids a second time for an interior remodeling project at Waterford Township High School also will be considered by the board.

Health Policy Goals Cited

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Detroiters not only want hospital and surgical bills covered by insurance, but they also would like dental, doctor office visits, drugs and home nursing services covered, according to a University of Michigan report.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Charles A. Metzner, a public health psychologist, said a survey of 1,200 Detroiters showed "the huge majority" want all-inclusive coverage.

Agreement was so unanimous, Dr. Metzner said that "a politician could base his platform on complete health coverage and no doubt win." Dr. Metzner predicted that "within 30 years most dentists and doctor bills will be paid by the employe's company or insurance agency."

Admiral to Speak

DETROIT (AP)—Adm. A.G. Ward, the U.S. representative to the NATO Military Committee, will be the main speaker at an Armed Forces Week luncheon May 16.

Youth Still Serious After Auto Crash

A Detroit youth is still in serious condition at Pontiac General Hospital today as the result of an automobile accident early yesterday.

Mark S. Redfern, 17, was injured when the car in which he was a passenger went out of control, hit some trees and split in half on Inkster and Lone Pine roads, West Bloomfield Township.

The driver was Arnold L. Spencer, 17, of Redford, who was held in Oakland County Jail on charges of stealing the car from a gas station in Redford.

Decision on Trial for Stepmother of Dead Boy Slated

A decision will be made May 23 on whether or not to bind over to Circuit Court for trial a Bloomfield Township woman charged with fatally beating her stepson.

The ruling regarding Mrs. William Lukes, 23, of 1147 Dorchester will be made by Bloomfield Township Justice Alice Gilbert.

Mrs. Lukes is accused of second-degree murder in the death of her 3-year-old stepson, William, on Jan. 31, 1966.

Arguments were heard yesterday by Mrs. Gilbert on a motion by Mrs. Lukes attorney, William Lang, to dismiss the case.

Rights Unit to Hear Charge Against GM

DETROIT (UPI) — A hearing was scheduled by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission today on a charge that General Motors Corp. Practiced religious discrimination against a Jewish employe.

Philip Marlowe of Detroit, who is employed by GM's Fisher Body Division, charged that he had been refused opportunities for job upgrading, had been harassed because of his religion and had been subject to excessive and unequal discipline.

Marlowe is seeking an order from the Civil Rights Commission ordering GM, its officers, agents and employes to cease its alleged discrimination against him.

$95,000 Given in Corvair Suit

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—A U.S. District Court jury awarded Tuesday $95,000 to a Denver widow who had sued General Motors Corp., alleging her husband was killed because of a faulty 1965 Chevrolet Corvair.

The jury deliberated seven hours after a nine-day trial before awarding the judgment to Mrs. Dorthea M. Walden, mother of seven.

Her suit alleged that her husband, H. L. Walden, 46, a welder, was killed Oct. 1, 1965 in a one-car accident near Tucson, Ariz., when the Corvair he was driving left the road and crashed in a ditch.

Her lawyers claimed the universal joint bearing on the car's drive shaft failed from fatigue because of improper factory assembly. They said this caused Walden to lose control of the car.

★ ★ ★

General Motors attorneys claimed Walden had been drinking and lost control of the car after swerving across the highway center line.

Man Robs Pontiac Station Attendant

A service station attendant was robbed while at work early today by a man carrying a pistol, Pontiac police were told.

John Hendrix, 45, of 12 N. Paddock, an employe at the Clark gas station at 157 Auburn, told officers the bandit ordered him into a room at the rear of the building and took some $70 in cash from him.

He said the gun appeared to be a 32-caliber pistol. The gunman fled east on Auburn on foot, police were told.

Link of Heredity to I.Q. Boosted

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Heredity is far more important than environment in determining human intelligence, a Stanford University psychologist reported to the National Academy of Sciences meeting recently.

Dr. Arthur R. Jensen, from Stanford's Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, based his conclusion on a new mathematical formula for deriving estimates of heritability. He applied this formula to past studies of identical and fraternal twins.

U.S. House Perplexes S. Korean

A Korean government official working in the Washington office of Congressman William S. Broomfield of Royal Oak says he is amazed and a little confused at the way the U.S. House is run.

"When you see the chaos on the floor of the House of Representatives when it is in session — the members reading newspapers, smoking and talking — you wonder how they accomplish anything," said Congil Park, 32.

"But the more familiar you become with the process, the more you realize that the hard work is done in long hours of subcommittee and committee meetings. Then, it is not so difficult to understand how some of the most complicated legislation is drafted and enacted."

Park is chief of one of four divisions of the Legislative Research Bureau which serves the Korean National Assembly. He is here on a one-year congressional fellowship sponsored by the American Political Science Foundation.

Park, who lives in Seoul, chose Broomfield for the first half of his program because Broomfield is the ranking Republican on the House foreign affairs subcommittee on Asian and Pacific affairs.

Two Sessions of Cleanup Are Canceled

The Greater Waterford Community Council (GWCC) has decided to cancel Friday and Saturday's sessions of the group's townshipwide road-side cleanup project.

A GWCC spokesman said the project was discontinued because most of the cooperating neighborhoods were covered last weekend.

★ ★ ★

The GWCC's regular monthly meeting his been postponed from next Tuesday to May 16. School board candidates are slated to speak at the meeting.

Merit awards for persons who participated in the townshipwide cleanup and beautification program also will be presented at the May 16 meeting.

Only Washington OK Lacking on '701' Project

The Waterford Township Planning Commission was informed last night that the township's proposed third-year "701" planning program has been approved by the Chicago regional office of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and by the Michigan Department of Commerce.

State and local officials are awaiting final approval from HUD in Washington.

To be implemented with federal and local funds, the program deals with future industrial development in the township, capital improvements, public relations and an attempt to improve the appearance and environmental quality of the township by upgrading commercial-industrial frontage on the three major thoroughfares — M59, Dixie Highway and Elizabeth Lake Road.

In other business last night, the planning commission passed a motion recommending to the Township Board that a higher salary range be considered for the position of assistant planner.

★ ★ ★

The position has been vacant since Curtis Rossow resigned last month to accept a job with Driker Associates, Inc., planning consultants of Birmingham.

RECRUITING DIFFICULTIES

Planning Director Vernon Wiggins told commission members he is experiencing difficulties recruiting someone for the job.

Present annual salary for the position ranges from a starting $6,698 to a maximum $8,549 after six years.

Also last night, the commission unanimously elected member E. Frank Richardson to serve as secretery to fill the unexpired term of William Dean Jr. who resigned from the commission earlier this year.

★ ★ ★

The term for the secretary position expires in July.

DEADLINE SET

In still other business, the commission made official a policy establishing the deadline for placing first introduction zoning items on the agenda at 5 p.m. the Tuesday preceding the meeting.

The commission handles zoning cases the fourth Tuesday each month.

Teacher Leader Reelected

MRS. FLOYD

Running unopposed, Mrs. Earl R. Floyd was reelected president of the Waterford Education Association (WEA) yesterday in the organization's annual election.

Some 315 of the association's 650 members voted following Monday night's annual election dinner or yesterday at four school precincts.

WEA membership consists of all but 79 of the district's teachers, counselors and coordinators.

Mrs. Floyd, a fourth-fifth grade teacher at Waterford Village School, was elected president in January, winning out over Waterford Township High School teacher John Makowski in a special election called to fill a vacancy.

Also president of the Pontiac Area Council of Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. Floyd has been named twice to "Who's Who of American Women."

The mother of two married daughters, Mrs. Floyd lives at 5955 Andersonville, Waterford Township. Her husband operates his own upholstery business in the township.

OTHER OFFICERS

Other officers elected to one-year terms for the 1967-68 school year were Mason Junior High School instructor James Matteson, vice president; Marjorie Sorensen, a third-fourth grade teacher at Covert School, secretary; and Pierce Junior High School counselor Michael Lemense, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Elected to one-year terms on standing committees were Howard Heitzeg, professional problems; Makowski, salary; Richard Teal, legislation; Janet Voelker, publications; Michael Wierimaa, public relations; and Robert Kaminskis, teacher education and professional standards.

In addition, John Poage and Donald Dryden were elected to two-year terms on the Michigan Education Association's representative assembly.

McRae Is Floored by Houk During Waldorf Floor Show

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Gordon MacRae loped out onto the floor at the Waldorf Empire Room, looked cautiously around the ringside, observed that Ralph Houk wasn't there and then smilingly said to the customers, "Welcome to Madison Square Garden."

When he finished his show, he said, "Tomorrow night, Cassius Clay."

WILSON

The Battle of the Waldorf in which the NY Yankees manager flattened the good-looking singer with a surprise punch was already joke material.

"Break up Ralph Houk!" one baseball fan suggested.

"After being married 20 years, you'd have thought Gordon would have learned how to duck," said another.

"Now Houk should be matched with Sheila MacRae," proposed another.

"Houk misunderstood. He thought it was the Umpire Room" . . . was another attempted witticism.

One witness to the scuffle, when Houk got angry at his wife because she was dancing with MacRae and didn't want to go home, said: "Ralph was so angry he had to hit somebody and MacRae was handy." They agreed that MacRae was the innocent party.

Two bystanders bent over the fallen MacRae as he lay on the dance floor. One bystander lifted his head.

"Leave him there, he may be hurt!" said the other bystander.

The first bystander dropped MacRae's head with a loud Clonk. That blow may have knocked MacRae out for the second time in one evening, a record.

Gordon is not only a hit at the Empire Room—he got hit at the Empire Room.

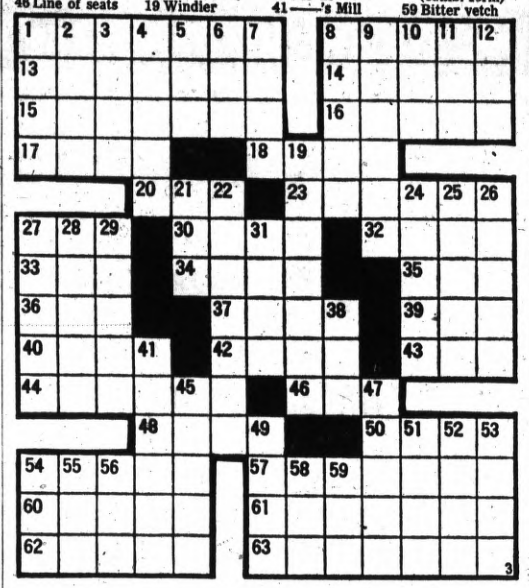
Answer to Previous Puzzle



People in the News

By The Associated Press

Actor Laurence Harvey has taken over the directing chores for the final scenes of "A Dandy in Aspic" after the sudden death of producer-director Anthony Mann, a company spokesman said yesterday.

Mann, 60, died of a heart attack Saturday in West Berlin after having spent two years on the spy thriller—his 45th film—and with less than two weeks of shooting to go.

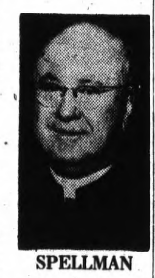
Harvey plays the main role of a British-Soviet double agent in the film.

The final scenes of "Dandy" are being filmed on location in West Berlin and include an auto race crash scene in which a Soviet agent is shot during the uproar.

Prebirthday Party Given for Cardinal

There were 78 red and white candles on the birthday cake for Francis Cardinal Spellman.

And there were six young girls to blow them out at a prebirthday party given him in New York City yesterday by Ladies of Charity of New York Catholic Charities.



SPELLMAN

The cardinal, who will be 78 tomorrow, greeted as many of the 550 women who came as possible.

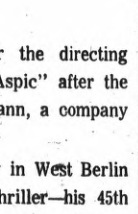
A wistful moment came when, in acknowledging their birthday salutes, he said he did not know if he would have any more.

"But," he quickly added, "at any rate I enjoyed them all."

Actor Just Wants 'Sunshine, Rest'

"All I need is some sunshine and rest, and I'll be in great shape," says actor Fredric March.

He was slated to be released from a Los Angeles hospital today after two weeks' confinement.



MARCH

The two-time Academy Award winner was stricken last month with a seizure caused by high blood pressure.

March, 69, said he would return with his wife, Florence Eldridge, to their Connecticut home.

Ex-WAC Chief Joins the Job Corps

Col. Emily C. Gorman, once head of the Women's Army Corps, has joined the Job Corps in Washington, D.C.

She will serve as deputy to its director of plans and programs.

A native of Pulaski, N.Y., she joined the WACs in 1942 and became corps director 20 years later.

APPEAL FOR BANANA BUNCH — Bearded Louis Abolafia sits among bananas and guitar-playing hippies yesterday in a theater in the East Village section of Manhattan where he launched his campaign for the presidency of the United States. The happening was billed as a "Cosmic Love Convention, a 72-Hour Freakathon for Hippies and Saints."

'Beat' Before He Starts

Hippie Will Run for President

NEW YORK (AP) —A delegate with a banana skin stuck on his nose was walking down the aisle of the Village Theater as Louis Abolafia spelled out his campaign platform for the presidency of the United States.

"I want to spread love through art," Abolafia was saying between bites of a banana.

★ ★ ★

"If I become president, I will set up cultural centers throughout the country."

"People's tastes would be improved," he explained. "Eventually love would spread all over the world and wars would become impossible because everybody would love everybody else."

LAUNCHED CAMPAIGN

Launching his campaign Tuesday, Abolafia, 25, had the theater alive with a semipsychedelic East Village happening billed as a "Cosmic Love Convention, a 72-hour Freakathon for Hippies and Saints."

The delegates were met in the lobby by a sign reading: "Help a beatnik in his humble attempt at an honest living. Buy a banana."

★ ★ ★

Harold Chizman, seated on a mat covered with bananas, said they cost 15 cents apiece but added, "You get three cents back if you return the peel."

Inside, granny-dressed and miniskirted teeny-boppers danced to the amplified dissonance of a rock 'n' roll group while projectionists played movies and slides on the ceiling, walls and floor.

ATTEMPT TO MESH

"The idea is to have the audience and the band become one in the same," explained Abolafia. "There is no split between performing and looking."

A blonde beating a tambourine ran up the aisle crying "Love, Love, Love!" as Abolafia explained his campaign strategy.

"I am asking supporters to write in my name. Of course, a lot of my supporters are too young to vote, but it's healthy that they should be interested," he said over the din.

"Later we'll have lots more entertainment. We'll have poetry reading and singing and more groups playing. We haven't really gotten warmed up yet," he concluded and strode off to be with his supporters.

DOESN'T EXPECT TO WIN

Campaign manager Andrew Kent explained outside that his candidate does not really expect to win the presidency.

★ ★ ★

"However," he added, "it's a sign that Abolafia is emerging from the underground."

Epidemic Hits Ebeye Island in S. Pacific

AGANA, Guam (AP) — A severe epidemic of gastroenteritis has struck the island of Ebeye in the Marshall Island chain in the Pacific Trust Territory.

Three deaths have been reported and a total of 498 people, mostly children, are affected by the disease.

★ ★ ★

Ebeye is the relocation center for Marshall Islanders forced off Kwajalein by the Army Nike Zeus test site.

Five nurses and three Army doctors have arrived from Kwajalein to help.

★ ★ ★

The Red Cross is sending medical supplies with an Air Force plane. The Navy at Pearl Harbor also will send supplies as needed.

Fancy for Uniforms Leads to 18 Arrests

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A Buffalo, N.Y., man faces a 179-day sentence for illegally wearing a U.S. military uniform-the 12th time he has been sentenced on the same charge.

In addition to the sentence, Judge Edward Dumbauld of U.S. District Court levied a $250 fine Tuesday against Henry L. Holmes, 35, who has been arrested on the charge 18 times since 1949.

"If you have a passion for uniforms," Dumbauld asked, "why don't you enlist?"

$130,000 Won for Loss of Eye

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Curtis Hogenson, 24, has been awarded $130,000 damages for the loss of his right eye caused by the malfunction of 70-year-old Spanish ammunition captured during the Spanish-American War.

He was firing a Spanish 43-caliber rolling block rifle July 17, 1965 when a cartridge exploded.

★ ★ ★

Hogenson sought $150,000 from Service Armament Co., Inc., of Bergen, N.J., which sold him the ammunition through a mail order from a rifle magazine advertisement.

The Superior Court jury returned its verdict late Monday night.

Dedication Set

DETROIT (AP) —The Very Rev. Peter Arrupe, S.J., superior general of the Jesuits, will dedicate a new sciences building at the University of Detroit today. Father Arrupe will visit with Archbishop John F. Dearden prior to the dedication.

Asparagus—a Delicacy Not to Miss

Fresh asparagus is here now to enjoy as often as you like.

Preparation takes a few minutes, but is simple. Snap off the tough ends of the stalk. Peel stalks with vegetable peeler or cut off the scales. Wash thoroughly.

Cook whole or cut stalks in long, diagonal slices, leaving tips whole.

Cook in boiling, salted water just until tender. Start checking within five minutes.

Lift the cover from time to time to help asparagus keep its good green color; or leave cover off entirely. Drain and serve very hot.

Every good cook should learn a simple yet satisfactory way to make hollandaise sauce. More than just a classic trimming for asparagus, broccoli and other vegetables, hollandaise serves as the basis for Bearmnaise and other famous sauces.

There are several accepted methods for making hollandaise, some easier and better than others. Offered here is a new, fret-free method, one that features the powdered creamer, as a surprise ingredient.

Exceptionally easy and nearly disaster-proof, this method results in a sauce of perfect flavor and of extra rich, satiny texture. It's a sauce, too, that can be kept in the refrigerator for two or three days, then beaten in a bowl or pan over hot, not boiling, water until warm and smooth.

Remember that hollandaise should be served warm, not hot, and that too high heat can spell grief for any sauce based on an emulsion of butter and egg yolks.

EASY HOLLANDAISE

½ cup butter
3 tablespoons non-dairy creamer
4 egg yolks
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup water

Heat butter in top of double boiler over hot (not boiling) water until just melted. Beat together Pream, egg yolks, salt, lemon juice and water.

Stir egg mixture into melted butter; continue to cook over hot water, beating with wire whip until thick. Makes about 1⅓ cups.

MUSTARD HOLLANDAISE

½ cup butter
3 tablespoons non-dairy creamer
4 egg yolks
¼ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons lemon juice
2 tablespoons "hot" prepared mustard
¼ cup water

Heat butter in top of double boiler over hot (not boiling) water until just melted. Beat together Pream, egg yolks, salt, lemon juice, mustard and water.

Stir egg mixture into melted butter; continue to cook over hot water, beating with wire whip until thick. Makes about 1⅓ cups.

You may want to try other sauces for asparagus too.

FRESH ASPARAGUS WITH BROWNED BUTTER SAUCE

½ cup (½-stick) butter
3 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
2 pounds fresh asparagus, cooked
Fresh parsley or lemon slices

Heat butter in small saucepan until golden. Add lemon juice. Pour over hot cooked fresh asparagus.

Garnish with fresh parsley or lemon slices. Makes ⅔ cup.

FRESH ASPARAGUS WITH MUSHROOM CHEESE SAUCE

2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
¾ teaspoon salt
¾ cup chopped Cheddar cheese
2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice
½ cup fresh sliced mushrooms, sauteed
2 pounds fresh asparagus, cooked

Melt butter or margarine in saucepan. Blend in flour. Stir in milk.

Cook over medium heat until of medium thickness. Add salt, pepper, cheese, lemon juice and mushrooms. Mix well to melt cheese.

Remove from heat and serve hot over cooked fresh asparagus. If desired, sprinkle with additional chopped Swiss cheese. Six servings.

EASY HOLLANDAISE SAUCE

Serving Ideas for Asparagus

Use the raw tender tips of asparagus in a tossed green salad.

- Cold, crisp cooked spears garnished with crumbled bacon, grated hard-cooked egg, and a cherry tomato cut in half may be served with Italian or French dressing for an elegant luncheon salad.
- Cold asparagus spear or pieces marinated in a vinaigrette dressing with cubes of Swiss cheese is another delicious salad.
- An excellent luncheon dish is made simply by putting crisp tender cooked asparagus spears on a toasted English muffin. Top the asparagus with Swiss or Jack cheese and melt it under the broiler.
- Cook tender asparagus pieces in butter with thinly chopped green onion.
- Cook asparagus pieces or whole stalks in chicken broth or consomme instead of water for additional flavor.
- Cook asparagus only until crisp-tender. Toss with pieces of walnut that have been sauted in butter and a dash of garlic salt.
- Combine cooked asparagus with sauted chicken livers and shallots.
- Roll cooked stalks of asparagus in thin slices of ham. Put in a casserole. Top with a tangy cheese sauce and bake in the oven until bubbly.
- Left-over asparagus can be rolled in pancake batter and deep fat fried. Serve it with a broiled steak.

MARKET BASKET

DELTA DUTCH SALAD

Package Dinner Is Start of Tasty Skillet Meal

Pig In a Poke was a popular recipe about 1940 and consisted of pork sausage links baked in a popover batter.

Our 1967 "Pig in a Poke" boasts brown-an-serve sausage deliciously buried in tender egg noodles with a delectable sour cream and cheese sauce flavored with fine herbs and spices and the addition of juicy tomatoes.

This modern version is as easy to make as it is good to eat because you use a popular casserole mix. The Noodles Romanoff from which it's prepared now comes in a new six-serving size for greater-than-ever convenience and economy, too.

Sausage Noodle Skillet

1 package (8 ounces) brown-and-serve sausage links
1 package (8.5 ounces) noodle with sour cream and cheese sauce mix
1 can (8 ounces) tomatoes
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons parsley flakes

Cut sausage links in half and brown as directed on package. Drain off excess fat. Prepare noodles with sour cream and cheese sauce mix as directed on package except — increase milk to 1 cup. Stir in tomoes and seasonings.

Pour noodle mixture over sausages in skillet; heat to boiling. Cover and cook over low heat 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. 6 servings.

Cream Livers for Lunch Dish

Cook 1 package (8 ounces) frozen livers in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in covered skillet until thawed and browned; stir often. Add ½ cup chopped celery and ¼ cup chopped onion; cook until tender.

Gradually blend in 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup, ½ cup milk, ¼ teaspoon paprika, and 2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced. Heat; stir often.

Serve on toast or in patty shells. Top with crisp bacon, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

You might like to try marinating hamburgers (before cooking) in a mixture of salad oil, soy sauce and crushed garlic.

New Salad Improves as It Stands

Delta Dutch Salad is so simple to make, you won't believe it until you try one. Put this salad together a couple of hours ahead of serving time so the onions can do their part in making this an unusual salad.

The need for making the Delta Dutch Salad ahead of time suggests that it is an ideal salad to take on picnics and barbecue get-togethers. The texture and flavors of cheddar cheese, onion, lettuce also complement most meats cooked over a grill.

You will want to buy a sweet white onion. The delicate, mild, milky-like onion juice flavor is the key ingredient for making this an unusual salad.

DELTA DUTCH SALAD

1 quart torn chunks of iceberg lettuce
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
½ large sweet onion
½-1 teaspoon sugar
1 cup cooked fresh asparagus
3 ounces smoked cheddar cheese
3 slices of crisp bacon crumbled OR
¼ cup crushed pork cracklings

Wash lettuce and break into chunks. Dry in wire basket or towel. Put on bottom of salad bowl. Spread a thin layer of mayonnaise over the top layer of lettuce chunks.

Cut a slice off the side of the onion so you can balance it easier while cutting. Leave the skin on the onion. Cut slices as thin as possible. Discard the outer layer of the onion and separate the rings. Put on top of the mayonnaise.

Sprinkle the sugar lightly over the onion rings. Cover bowl and put in refrigerator.

Prepare asparagus by washing. Cut the stalk in thin diagonal slices and leave the tip whole. Cook quickly in boiling salted water three minutes. drain and cool.

Cut cheese in strips. Add both of these ingredients to the salad. Do not toss.

Let the salad remain in the refrigerator until serving time. Top with crumbled bacon. Makes 4-5 servings.

ORANGE STRAWBERRY DESSERT — This simple combination of fresh Valencia orange sections and fresh strawberries is a pretty spring dessert. Add 2 tablespoons Cointreau and ¾ cup sugar to one can (6-oz.) orange juice concentrate; mix well. Mix one pint strawberries with sections from 6 oranges and pour concentrate over fruit. Refrigerate several hours or overnight. Makes 6 servings.

CRAB HAM ROLL — Blend Alaska King crab with softened cream cheese, chopped celery and parsley and toasted slivered almonds. Season and spread on thin slices of boiled ham. Chill a few hours and serve as is, or slice the rolls crosswise to make bite-size pinwheels.

Instructions Listed for Cooking Frozen Meat

If you're ever puzzled on how to cook a piece of meat taken directly from the freezer, here are some instructions from the American Meat Institute to answer your questions.

Cooking methods and degrees of doneness are the same for fresh and frozen meats—only the total cooking times vary.

Roasting — Hard-frozen oven roasts require approximately ⅓ to ½ again as much cooking time per pound as do the corresponding fresh roasts.

Use the same procedures for roasting hard-frozen meat as for fresh or completely thawed roasts; place meat on a rack, roast in a 325 degree oven. Do not cover pan, do not add water, and do not baste during cooking.

Use a meat thermometer to determine the doneness of the meat, and insert it in the roast after the center of the meat is thawed, or when it is about half-done. (Do not force thermometer into partially thawed meat; it may break if the roast is still hard-frozen in center).

★ ★ ★

Broiling—Thin-cut, hard-frozen steaks require very little more broiling time than the same cuts of fresh meat. Thicker cuts of hard-frozen steaks will require ¼ more to two times as much broiling time as the corresponding fresh cuts.

Because frozen steaks need slower cooking, place the hard-frozen steaks at least four inches below the source of heat so the exterior surface does not overcook before the interior is done. If it is impossible to lower the broiling rack, reduce broiling temperature.

Follow the same broiling procedures as with fresh or thawed meats: set oven regulator at 550 degrees or "broil," place meat on broiler rack and broil until meat is well browned. Season with salt and pepper, turn and brown other side.

Test for doneness by making a slit in the meat near the bone to determine color. Season and serve immediately.

Pan-Broiling — Hard-frozen thin steaks and chops require very little more pan-broiling time for thicker cuts of hard-frozen meats as recomended for the corresponding fresh cuts.

To pan-broil hard-frozen thin cuts, dust lightly with a little flour. Heat a heavy skillet, add about a tablespoon of fat, and brown meat quickly on both sides.

Hard-frozen thicker cuts need not be dusted with flour, but after browning in a lightly greased hot skillet, the heat should be lowered so that the meat cooks without excess browning.

★ ★ ★

Braising—Frozen meats to be braised take little or no longer than the corresponding cuts of fresh meat.

If meat is to be floured before browning and cooking in water, as pot roasts, for example, thaw meat slightly, and dredge in or pound in flour. Meats that require no flouring may be browned without thawing, but require a little additional cooking time.

Follow the same braising procedure as for fresh meat: brown meat in a little hot fat in a heavy pan, add seasonings and a small amount of liquid. Cover and cook over low heat until tender.

Cooking in Water — Frozen meats to be cooked in water take little or no longer than corresponding fresh cuts. The longer cooking times are required for larger pieces of frozen meat

Prepare frozen meat for cooking in water as the fresh cuts are prepared: brown meat in a little hot fat if preferred, cover with water, and cook slowly until meat is tender.

Pie Filling Is Top for Cake

Every busy homemaker and hostess should have a collection of "timesaver" recipes. For with all of today's convenient, quality mixes, it is possible to serve a complete meal on short notice with a minimum of fuss. And, even when time is not a problem, such "timesaver" foods can be distinctive and delicious.

★ ★ ★

Creamy Cherry Pie Cake is an elegant dessert that requires a minimum of preparation time.

Two new mixes—Cherry Chip Layer Cake Mix and Creamy Cherry Frosting Mix — make this "pie cake" quick and easy to prepare.

The cake is baked in pie pans instead of layer pans and then left in the pans to cool. Dairy sour cream is combined with the Creamy Cherry Frosting mix to add a special smoothness to the tangy flavor. Ruby-red canned cherry pie filling completes this "timesaver" dessert.

And Creamy Cherry Pie Cake is a striking color combination of pinks and red — to make it a feast for the eye as well as the taste.

Creamy Cherry Pie Cake

Heat oven to 350 degrees (glass pans — 325 degrees). Grease and flour two 9-inch pie pans.

★ ★ ★

Prepare cherry chip cake mix as directed on package. Pour into prepared pans; bake 30 to 35 minutes. Cool. Leave in pans.

In small mixer bowl beat 1 package creamy cherry frosting mix and ⅔ cup dairy sour cream until smooth. (Do not overbeat.) Spoon half of frosting around edge of each layer, building up the edge.

Fill center of each frosting ring with ½ can (1 pound 5 ounces) cherry pie filling. Chill. To serve, cut into wedges.

Savory Crab Filling Rolled in Ham

Perfect marriages aren't always made in heaven. Here is one your kitchen can create. Crab and ham combine deliciously in Crab Ham Rolls for a luncheon dish that's always a success.

Either frozen or canned Alaska King crab may be used in the Crab Ham Rolls since both are completely cooked in the packaging and processing. Cimply defrost and drain the frozen crab or drained canned crab, then place it on a cutting board and slice fine with a sharp knife.

Sprinkle lemon juice over the crab and it's all ready to blend into the cream cheese filling.

Garnish Crab Ham Rolls with wedges of hard-cooked egg and olives. Serve with a fruit gelatin mold and buttered thinly sliced rye bread for a tempting spring or summer luncheon.

Crab Ham Rolls

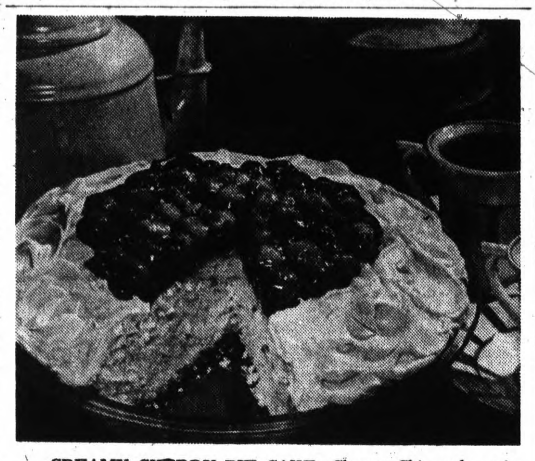
1 (7½ oz.) can Alaska King crab or ½ lb. frozen Alaska King crab
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 (8 oz.) package cream cheese
¼ cup finely chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
Salt and pepper, to taste
12 slices lean boiled ham

Drain canned crab or defrost and drain frozen crab. Place on chopping board and slice fine with sharp knife. Sprinkle with lemon juice.

Have cream cheese at room temperature to soften. Blend with crab, celery, parsley, almonds, salt and pepper. Spread on slices of boiled ham and roll, securing with picks if necessary. Chill well.

Remove picks and serve on luncheon plate with garnish of hard-cooked egg and olives. Makes 6 servings.

For appetizers, slice Crab Ham Rolls in ½ inch slices and serve with picks.



CREAMY CHERRY PIE CAKE—Cherry Chip cake mix and Creamy Cherry frosting mix are brand new! The beautiful pink cake blossoms with colorful cherry-flavored chips in every bite. The creamy Cherry Frosting mix is the first and only cherry frosting available in creamy form, and its lively flavor is the perfect, tangy complement to the sweet cherry cake. Sweet and tangy—the perfect wedding of flavors for a happy pair.

Prepare Citrus Peels in Your Blender

If you have a blender, you can save yourself some time and work by preparing citrus fruit rind for marmalade in the blender.

Blender Marmalade

3 cups prepared fruit (3 medium oranges, 2 medium lemons, 1½ cups water, and ⅛ teaspoon baking soda)
5 cups (2¼ lb.) sugar
½ bottle liquid fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Remove skins in eighths from 3 oranges and 2 lemons. Lay strips flat; shave off and discard about half of white part.

Place a third of the strips and ½ cup water in blender, cover, and blend at high speed until rind is in small pieces. Pour into saucepan.

Repeat two times, using a third of the strips and ½ cup water each time. Then add soda; bring to a boil, cover, and simmer 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Section or chop peeled fruit; discard seeds.

Add pulp and juice to cooked rind. Simmer, covered, 10 minutes longer. Measure 3 cups into a very large saucepan.

Then make the marmalade. Add sugar to fruit in saucepan; mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly.

Remove from heat and at once stir in fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim for 5 minutes to cool slightly and prevent floating fruit.

Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover at once with ⅛ inch hot paraffin. Makes about 7 medium glasses.

Yam Salad Is Unusual Dish

There is something new in salads. Combine with large pieces of California walnuts, canned pineapple chunks and sliced celery with drained, canned yams cut into one-inch cubes. Salt lightly.

Serve in crisp cups of western iceberg lettuce with a dressing of mayonnaise seasoned with curry powder and lemon or lime juice. Garnish with additional walnut halves.

Shred orange peel and carrots. Season with sugar when cooking. Perky flavor.

Stuffed Eggs Give Slaw a Nice Look

It's cabbage salad, all right, but with some nice extra touches.

Egg and Slaw Salad

6 eggs
3 tablespoons mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
White pepper to taste
Paprika
¼ cup olive oil
2½ tablespoons red wine vinegar
1 teaspoon prepared yellow mustard
2 teaspoons sugar
2 cups firmly packed finely shredded green cabbage
Salad greens and, if desired, sliced tomato and cucumber

Hard-cook and shell eggs; cut in half lengthwise. Remove yolks; mash fine with mayonnaise, salt and pepper; spoon back into white cavities.

Flute yolk stuffing with the tines of a sharp kitchen fork; sprinkle with paprika.

In a bowl, with a fork beat together the oil, vinegar, mustard and sugar. Mix in cabbage adding salt and pepper to taste.

Arrange stuffed eggs and slaw on salad greens; garnish with tomato and cucumber if used. Makes 4 servings — 3 stuffed-egg halves per portion.

MUSHROOM DRESSING—To dress up a simple lettuce and tomato salad, serve it with this savory Lemon Mushroom dressing. This will keep well in the refrigerator.

Marinate Mushrooms for Salad Dressing or Appetizer Course

A simple lettuce and tomato salad can be turned into a gourmet masterpiece with this splendid lemon mushroom dressing. Thinly sliced mushrooms, left to stand overnight in a delicately seasoned marinade, will absorb the savory flavors of bottled lemon juice and various spices.

For a change, why not serve this impressive salad in the continental manner — between the main course and dessert? It's sure to please the most discriminating palates, and it's a salad worthy to be served as a separate course.

As a treat for true mushroom lovers, the marinade and sliced mushrooms can also be served as an appetizer. Simply double the amount of mushrooms to one pound.

MUSHROOM SALAD DRESSING

½ pound fresh mushrooms, thinly sliced
½ cup salad oil
½ cup bottled lemon juice
2 teaspoons seasoned salt
½ teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon cracked pepper
¼ teaspoon basil
¼ teaspoon marjoram
¼ teaspoon oregano
¼ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon garlic powder

Wash mushrooms; slice thinly. Combine oil, bottled lemon juice, seasoned salt, sugar, pepper, basil, marjoram, oregano, salt and garlic powder in a jar. Shake mixture well.

Pour marinade over sliced mushrooms. Cover lightly and marinate overnight to allow mushrooms to absorb flavors.

Dressing keeps well in tightly closed container in refrigerator. Serve over wedge of lettuce topped with tomato slice. Makes approximately 2 cups.

A pound loaf of white bread contains somewhat less protein than a pound of whole-wheat loaf.

This Deep-Fried Swedish Dish Bridges Culinary Boundaries

There are certain foods and recipes that cut across both national and cultural boundaries. Just such a food is made from a not too sweet or rich dough that's cut or shaped and deep fried until crisp and golden brown.

★ ★ ★

We and the English call them doughnuts . . . Mexicans call theirs Bunuelos . . . the Germans have their Krapfen and Bismarks . . . the French their beignets . . . and the Swedes have Fattigmann. All are deliciously different but somehow basically the same.

★ ★ ★

The frying is particularly important whether you're making doughnuts or Fattigmann. Fry in a deep pan about half full and use a pure all-vegetable shortening heated to 365 degrees.

FATTIGMANN WITH STRAWBERRIES

8 egg yolks
½ cup sugar
¼ cup butter, melted
½ teaspoon crushed cardamon seed
¾ teaspoon grated lemon peel
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon cognac
1 egg white
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
4 cups sifted all-purpose flour (about)
Solid all-vegetable shortening for deep frying
Sweetened sliced strawberries

METHOD

Beat together egg yolks and sugar in bowl until thick and light yellow. Gradually add melted butter. Stir in cardamon, lemon peel, salt and cognac.

Beat egg white until stiff but not dry; fold into egg yolk mixture. Fold in the whipped cream. Gradually mix in enough flour to make stiff dough.

Cover and chill several hours or overnight. On a floured surface, roll dough very thin, 1/6 to ⅛-inch thick. Cut into diamond shapes about 4 inches long.

★ ★ ★

Cut a 1-inch lengthwise slit in center of each diamond and fold one end through slit.

Heat shortening in deep pan to 365 degrees. Fry Fattigmann in hot shortening until golden brown on both sides. Drain on paper towels. Sprinkle with confectioners sugar, if desired.

STRAWBERRIES

Serve several Fattigmann in a deep bowl topped with sweetened strawberries and cream, or serve as an accompaniement with the strawberries. Makes about 7 dozen.

Apples and Dates Are Simmered for a Relish

Relish making need not be confined to harvest time. Here is a different fruit relish made with apples.

Apple Date Realish

About 2½ pounds tart apples, pared and sliced ½-inch thick to make 6 cups
2½ cups sugar
1 tablespoon salt
2 packages (each 10 ounces) pitted dates
¾ cup currants
¾ cup finely chopped onion
⅓ cup sliced crystalized ginger
1 clove garlic, crushed
5 tablespoons Worchestershire sauce
Tobasco sauce to taste
1 teaspoon ground ginger
1½ cups cider vinegar
½ cup fresh or frozen lime juice
Red food coloring

In a large bowl, with your hands, thoroughly mix together the apples, sugar and salt; let stand several hours.

Into a large kettle turn all the ingredients except the apples; add 1 cup water; boil gently for 20 minutes. Add apples and cook gently until relish is thick (about 50 minutes) adding ½ to 1 cup water as needed. Add enough red food coloring to give a rosy hue.

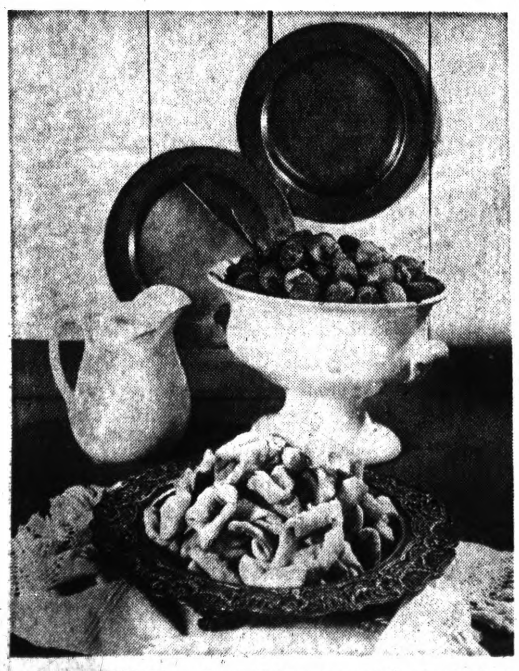
★ ★ ★

Makes about 3½ pints. Store for several weeks before using.



FATTIGMANN — Serve Fattigmann with a bowlful of fresh red California strawberries, or slice and sweeten the berries and serve them shortcake fashion over the doughnuts.

Karen's STOREWIDE CLEARANCE SALE

"BEWARE the MAGIC CARPET"

You've heard it — perhaps in person or with the telephone approach. It's the get rich-quick scheme — "You have been selected to receive this offer" . . . "This is your opportunity of a lifetime" . . . "No cost to you . . . etc." Remember: "FREE" doesn't always mean what the word implies. When you are offered something for nothing it behooves you to investigate thoroughly or you may pay until it hurts!

We don't believe you can possibly find greater carpet values than we are offering now, that's why we are using this special tabloid section to tell you about it. We respect the privacy or your home, too —
