Farmer Group Warns of National Boycott

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The militant National Farmers Organization has given the nation's food processors an ultimatum: Increase prices for farm products or face an all-out market boycott by farmers that could "shut down the agricultural plant of America."

More than 35,000 NFO members shouted their approval of the plan and adopted the slogan, "No prices, no production," at a meeting yesterday.

No deadline for the desired price boosts was set, but NFO President Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., indicated that the board of directors will not hesitate to consider the all-commodity boycott if market conditions fail to improve.

"The NFO is serving notice that farmers can no longer accept the low farm prices we are receiving," he said.

"Every processor has some time to decide whether he wants to pay the prices and sign the purchase contracts or push the American farmer into waging the economic battle we are willing to fight."

HOLDING ACTIONS

NFO members also authorized the directors to order holding actions of three to four days on milk plus regional market boycotts on livestock and to establish an NFO "grain bank" in hopes of putting a "floor" under grain prices.

Staley announced the NFO target on prices is $1.50 a bushel on corn; $3 a bushel on soybeans and $2 for wheat. On milk it is $6 a hundredweight, about 75 cents over the prevailing price in the Des Moines federally regulated market.

"It is time we tackle the grain situation," Staley said. "Farmers face $1 corn, $2.25 soybeans and $1.30 wheat this fall.

"Our grain bank will enable farmers to store and hold their grain, get the government loans and let NFO bargain for higher prices."

LIVESTOCK TARGET

The target on livestock is $22.45 a hundredweight on hogs, $32.45 on choice cattle and $29.45 for lambs, well above prevailing markets.

Staley said the interim measures would "let the processors of this nation know that we are building for an all-out holding action that would affect every commodity and would shut down the agricultural plant of America."

"It is not our desire to fight an economic battle that would deprive this nation of its food," he added, "but nobody else is going to fairly price our products."

Unless farm prices improve soon, rural America will go bankrupt, he said.

SCATTERED VIOLENCE

Alluding to reports of scattered violence in three major withholding actions on livestock, grain and milk, the group has conducted since 1962, the NFO president promised that boycotts would be conducted with "a businesslike and calm approach."

The organization, which claims membership in 28 states, has never attempted an all-commodity holding action.

ONE PAMPERED BABY — Renay Rollman, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Rollman, 600½ E. Hamlin, Avon Township, shares the attention of nursery attendants, Mrs. Sarah Pauling (left) of 408 Joslyn, Pontiac, and Mrs. Mamie Kittridge, 1451 Courtland, Rochester. Her debut coincided with the opening Tuesday of Rochester Branch, Crittenton General Hospital, 1201 E. University, and as of yesterday afternoon, she was still the sole occupant of the nursery.

'Network Helps Deserting GIs'

LONDON (AP)—The Times of London estimated today that the desertion rate among U.S. soldiers in Germany is running at about 1,000 this year, and three-fourths were primarily concerned with avoiding duty in Vietnam.

The newspaper said the soldiers were being aided by an underground network of European pacifists.

"As the Vietnam war grows, so does the number of deserters and the activity of groups aiding them—which often use the techniques of wartime resistance movements," the paper said.

The Times said its figures were based on an investigation in Europe. The U.S. Army did not provide figures on what it told the Times was a slight but insignificant rise in the absentee rate.

★ ★ ★

The Times investigation began with leaflets encouraging desertion printed in London and circulated on the continent. It led to Paris, where Times reporters met one man describing himself as a deserter and now working as a building laborer. He gave his name only as "Buster."

DOCUMENTED CASE

One case of desertion was documented by a picture of Pvt. Roy R. Jones III, 20, a Negro from Detroit. The Times printed a copy of his leave pass, which it said had been forged for him by a friend.

It said Jones, formerly assigned to Headquarters Troop, 2nd Squadron, 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment, in Germany, is living in a Stockholm suburb on an alien's pass issued by the Swedish government.

Jones told the Times he was getting money from the underground network, was studying to enter a Swedish university and hoped to be a playwright and teach jazz ballet.

"The Vietnamese people are being treated by Americans there the same as Negroes in America," the Times quoted Jones as saying.

The Times said the biggest "service industry" for U.S. deserters was in the Netherlands, where present and former adherents of Amsterdam's Proves offer to help runaway GIs.

Cooling Showers May Be on Way

Partly sunny skies are expected to bring a high today of 83 to 89. Gathering clouds promise a chance of scattered thundershowers late tonight, dropping the temperature to a low of 62 to 68.

★ ★ ★

Clouds will continue over the Pontiac area tomorrow with thundershowers likely. Cooler temperatures are expected in late afternoon or evening.

The outlook for Saturday is partly sunny and much cooler.

Winds today are southwesterly 10 to 20 miles.

Precipitation probabilities are today 10 per cent; tonight 30 per cent; tomorrow 50 per cent.

The low in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 67. The mercury rose to 85 by 2 p.m.

Car Talks Cut Short; UAW Rallies Ranks

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers union and the Big Three auto makers cut short their six weeks of negotiations today with unionists going home to build fires they hope will smoke out new contract offers.

★ ★ ★

Current three-year UAW pacts with General Motors, Ford and Chrysler end Sept. 6 — less than three weeks away.

Thus the union bargainers insist they have been unable to coax agreement on a single contract clause—economic or otherwise—from any of the companies.

They express apprehension and say time is growing short if nonstrike agreements are to be reached covering the Big Three's nearly 700,000 UAW members.

★ ★ ★

The companies have yet to make a counteroffer to what UAW President Walter P. Reuther concedes is "the longest and most ambitious set of demands" in his union's history. Among other things they include a guaranteed annual income.

HISTORICAL PRACTICE

The companies insist that historically their proposals are made only seven to 14 days before expiration of old contracts. As of today there are 20 days left. The companies appear unhurried.

Ford and the UAW were to break off negotiations for the weekend today, permitting union bargainers to return to their home locals to confer with negotiators working on at-the-plant agreements which supplement the national contract.

While home, the Ford UAW negotiators are expected to plump for overwhelming appraisal in voting next week on a proposal authorizing them to call a strike.

No meeting is planned at GM tomorrow, and union bargainers are expected to get back home to urge a big voting turnout to strengthen their hand at the bargaining table.

Douglas Fraser, UAW Chrysler director, brought his local union leaders to Detroit last week for the dual purpose of whipping up a big strike authorization vote and to decide which, if any, issues before local-level bargainers should be moved to the national negotiations table.

Barry Advocates Trial for Stokely

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Barry Goldwater says Black Power advocate Stokely Carmichael should be tried for treason and, if found guilty, executed.

The former Arizona senator, at his summer home, told newsmen yesterday Carmichael should be arrested when he returns to the United States from Cuba.

While saying he doesn't know that Communists are inciting riots in U. S. cities, Goldwater said, "If I were a Communist, I certainly would be working right in there with the Carmichaels and the H. Rap Browns."

He said "They should be treated as traitors and the penalty should be given to them."

Goldwater, who says he will challenge Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz., for the Senate next year, said he views former Vice President Richard M. Nixon as the front-running GOP candidate for the 1968 Presidential nomination. But, he added, by next summer, California Gov. Ronald Reagan might be a stronger contender.

NEW HOUSING—The beginning of a 250-unit apartment project is taking shape at a site on Auburn west of Opdyke. To be developed by Charles L. Langs, the complex will include a community house, tennis courts and recreational facilities. The $2.5-million project will be ready for occupancy next spring.

Teamster Steward Killed in Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Teamsters Union steward was shot to death today in front of Teamsters Local 107 headquarters, the scene of a double slaying last year.

The man was shot across the street from the union hall, located a block from the Delaware River waterfront, police said. A snub-nosed 38-caliber pistol was found later by police on the information counter in the Teamster's office.

Four men are being sought in connection with the shooting.

Viet Issue Vexes Potential GOP Hopefuls

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON — Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan is demonstrating the difficulty potential 1968 GOP candidates are encountering in standing still on a Vietnam war position in this summer of political discontent.

Romney, an all-but-announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, was first classed as a dove, moved over among the hawks, and now is joining the critics of the North Vietnam bombing he once supported.

News Analysis

While House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan shrugged off his differences with his governor. Romney's contention that bombing would never end the war contrasted with Ford's call last week for a step-up in air attacks.

Romney was not the only Republican having second thoughts.

GETTING DISCOURAGED

Chafee, who will head the GOP Governors' Association next year, told a Providence, R.I., news conference yesterday he is getting discouraged with the progress of the war and is altering his position on the bombing issue because "we're not winning to the extent we originally felt we were going to."

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., who has been moving steadily toward eversharper criticism of President Johnson's war policies, told a Cincinnati, Ohio, audience that if its allies don't put up more fight the United States "must ask itself how much more it is willing to expend on a war to protect primarily Asian interests."

At Springfield, Ill., Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said although the Republicans are not making the war a campaign issue, "it's more of an issue with the people than ever before."

★ ★ ★

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, has endorsed the bombing of military targets near Red China which Percy criticized. Their differences over Vietnam policy may have something to do with Percy's reputed willingness to become Illinois' favorite-son candidate at next year's GOP presidential nominating convention.

BROKE SILENCE

In Minneapolis, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon broke a lengthy silence on the Vietnam issue to say he approves extension of the bombing of the North.

★ ★ ★

But Nixon, considered another contender for the GOP presidential nomination, warned a news conference the United States faces a "massive risk" if it doesn't end the war soon.

★ ★ ★

In an earlier speech yesterday, Nixon said he agrees with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower that the war shouldn't be made a partisan issue in the 1968 campaign.

Surveys Boost Nixon's Hopes

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — While Richard M. Nixon endorsed the latest expansion of U.S. bombing in North Vietnam, a poll gave fresh support to his potential candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

The former vice president told a news conference yesterday he won't decide until early next year whether to run for the GOP nomination. If he does, said Nixon, he'll enter "a number of primaries" and withdraw if he doesn't win these tests.

The American Broadcasting Co. said in New York, meanwhile, that its poll of delegates to the 1964 Republican convention shows a near majority of respondents prefers Nixon in 1968.

Gov. Ronald Reagan of California, who hasn't yet completed his first year of elective office, was a second choice— and showed surprising strength among the former delegates as an expected vote-getter.

The ABC poll, to be aired tonight on "Who in '68?", drew responses from 938 delegates, or 71.1 per cent of those who attended the 1964 convention. Of the total responding, 614 said they expected to be delegates next year.

Nixon received 48.5 per cent support as a potential candidate compared with Reagan's 17.1 per cent. But as the projected best vote-getter, Nixon dropped to 39.9 per cent while Reagan climbed to 25.9 per cent.

In a Minneapolis speech and at the news conference, Nixon, despite backing the bombing within 10 miles of Red China, scored the Johnson administration on three issues likely to loom large in 1968—Vietnam, taxes and crime.

Rights Bill Approved by House Protects Riot-Area Workers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has overwhelmingly passed a bill making it a federal crime to harm or interfere with persons trying to exercise their civil rights, and extended the protection to include police and firemen working in riot areas.

But the bill, largely the same as a portion of the 1966 civil rights bill which died in the Senate, may be killed there again.

Chairman Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., whose Senate Judiciary subcommittee began hearings on the same measure Aug. 1, said then it "cannot stand the constitutional light of day" under the 14th Amendment.

Senate sources rated the bill's chances of clearing the full judiciary committee as zero. They said an attempt might be made to bypass the committee and put the House-passed version on the floor for debate, but forecast a Southern filibuster if that tactic is used.

ANGERED BY RIOTS

The amendment providing federal protection for police and firemen was supported by members angered by this summer's city riots, in which several police officers and fire fighters were injured. Some were killed.

A majority of both parties supported the bill, which sailed through Wednesday 326 to 93 after a series of relatively minor amendments were adopted and two major ones were turned back. The bill would make it a federal crime for a person to interfere with, injure or intimidate, or threaten to injure or intimidate anyone because of his race, color, religion, national origin or political affiliation and because he is or has been engaging in certain protected activities.

* * *

The House approved an amendment proposed by Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., which states that free speech and assembly do not permit speech to incite a riot.

Cramer is the sponsor of another bill which would make it a federal crime to cross a state line with intent to incite a riot. He has said the bill is aimed at such Black Power advocates as Stokely Carmichael and H. Rap Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

U.S. Viet Toll Is 7-Month Low

Weekly Total Reflects Lull in Ground War

SAIGON (AP) — American combat deaths in Vietnam numbered 82 last week, the lowest weekly casualty toll in seven months, the U. S. Command announced today.

The number of wounded was 748, also the lowest figure since the first of this year.

The decline in casualties was a reflection of the lull in ground fighting which has now lasted about five weeks, with few significant engagements reported.

The previous week's casualties were 146 American dead and 1,064 wounded, which is slightly below this year's average.

The U. S. Command said 1,043 Communist troops were killed last week, which is also the lowest figure this year.

The South Vietnamese armed forces suffered 283 dead and 683 wounded during the week, which is above average. Their high casualties stemmed largely from isolated actions.

The weekly casualty report listed 18 dead among other allied forces in South Vietnam, mainly the South Koreans and Australians who do not announce precise weekly casualties.

American forces in Vietnam totaled 454,000, unchanged from the previous week.

Communist strength was estimated as 297,000, also unchanged from the previous week.

Americans listed as missing, captured or detained now total 709 for the war, an increase of nine during the week.

The week's death toll brought America's losses in the war to 12,497 killed and 76,630 wounded by unofficial count.

1 of 2 Police Will Be Tried

Other Is Released in Riot-Death Case

DETROIT (AP) — One of two Detroit policemen charged with first-degree murder on the shooting of two Negro youths during last month's riot was bound over today for trial.

Recorder's (criminal) Court Judge Robert E. DeMascio ruled patrolman Ronald August must stand trial in the death of Aubrey Pollard, 19.

* * *

Patrolman Robert Paille was released.

Paillee had been charged in the death of Fred Temple, 18.

* * *

Testimony in the three-day preliminary examination of the two white policemen focused on the activities of August at the Algiers Motel the morning of July 26, when three Negro youths were shot to death.

STILL PROBED

The death of Carl Cooper, 17, still is under investigation.

The prosecution could start criminal proceedings against Paille again, Asst. Prosecutor Avery Weiswasser said. He did not indicate if he would seek new charges against Paille.

* * *

"I cannot logically conclude that there is any evidence in the record that would support the prosecutor's theory," DeMascio commented.

Weiswasser had maintained that Paille should be tried along with August because he was present when the young Negroes were shot.

Detroit Man Arrested in Mail Theft

A 25-year-old Detroit man was arrested by Pontiac police yesterday after he allegedly made off with a mailbag from a carrier's motor scooter.

* * *

Police said John Rice was apprehended in a swampy area behind Bagley School in the Warner-Bagley area after the mailbag was taken from a woman letter carrier's vehicle.

Diane Stockwell, 25, of 11 Edna told police her scooter was parked in the 500 block of Branch when a group of children approached her as she returned from making a delivery and said a man had stolen some mail.

Officers said she chased the man, but he struck her in the face when she warned him to return the mailbag.

* * *

Court Grants Hoffa List of 15 Visitors

CHICAGO (UPI) — A defense motion was granted yesterday, giving jailed Teamsters Union President James Hoffa permission to have more visitors in the Chicago Federal Building.

U. S. District Court Judge Richard B. Austin limited the list of authorized visitors to 15 persons, including Hoffa's four attorneys and members of his family.

Hoffa is in Chicago for a hearing, today in its fourth day, ordered last May by the U. S. Supreme Court to determine if the government used illegal evidence to convict him on mail fraud and conspiracy charges along with six co-defendants.

Bloomfield Hills to Host Workshop for Educators

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The Bloomfield Hills School District will be host to a group of educators from all over the nation in a 10-day workshop beginning Tuesday.

* * *

The district will be used as a model in studies of education processes for the future.

The program is part of the "Educational Systems of the Seventies Project" of the U.S. Office of Education.

Sessions will be conducted at Kingsley Inn, 1475 Woodward.

The Bloomfield district will introduce a new curriculum, Continuous Progress System, in the fall in three schools, elementary through high school.

PILOT PROJECT

In doing so it acts as a pilot for other school systems interested in the philosophy and theory developed in the project.

Coordinator for the summer institute, paid for by U.S. funds, will be Robert E. Boston, assistant superintendent.

On each of the 10 days, morning and afternoon group workshops will be conducted, each touching on one phase of changing educational systems.

* * *

Attending will be educators from Atlanta, Ga.; Boulder, Colo.; Duluth, Minn.; Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Houston, Tex.; Mamoroneck and Mineola, N. Y.; Quincy, Mass.; San Mateo, Calif.; Willingsboro, N. J.; Baltimore, Md.; as well as Michigan representatives.

NATIONAL AUTHORITIES

Among the national authorities to participate are: Dr. Ralph W. Tyler of Carnegie Institute, author of three books on education; and Dr. Bertram Masia, chairman of the department of education at Western Reserve University.

Judge Stays Sentence of Ferndale Man

One of three men serving jail terms for contempt of court before the Oakland County grand jury was released on $5,000 bond yesterday.

* * *

Circuit Judge Farrell E. Roberts stayed the one-year sentence of John Johns, 53, of Ferndale, pending a ruling from the Michigan Court of Appeals. Johns was sentenced Tuesday.

Before the appellate court now is a request from the state attorney general's office to reverse a decision of a Wayne County judge who freed a man convicted of contempt shortly after the Piggins grand jury ended.

Grand jury officials said today they also received notice of a hearing before the appellate court for the release of Roman Nowicki, a former Madison Heights councilman, sentenced to 90 days in prison for contempt of court. No hearing date has been set.

* * *

Nowicki, who is also under three indictments for bribery, originally was sentenced to one year in jail, but the sentence was reduced when he purged himself one day before the grand jury ended by answering a subpoena.

* * *

On Tuesday, the last day of the investigation, Grand Juror James S. Thorburn charged eight persons with various crimes, the largest number of indictments issued on a single day since the grand jury began a year ago.

* * *

Officials now are preparing to send all grand jury records to Lansing where they will be sealed in a vault of the Michigan Supreme Court. An accounting of all expenses incurred by the grand jury will be made to the county board of auditors within 30 days.

Kelley Moves for Dismissal of Tax Case

The Michigan attorney general's office yesterday moved to have a case before a federal court against the new state income tax dismissed.

Pontiac attorney Richard Kuhn is challenging the 2.6 per cent income tax because the people have not been given an opportunity to vote on it.

A hearing on Kuhn's complaint is scheduled for Aug. 28 before a panel of three judges in Port Huron.

Kuhn said it is likely that the motion to dismiss will be heard at that time.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley contends that there is no substantial federal question involved, therefore the court lacks jurisdiction.

* * *

If the motion is denied, the attorney general will ask that the case be held in abeyance until the question of constitutionality is decided by a state court.

According to Kuhn, the question has not yet been raised in a state court.

Kuhn is asking for a temporary injunction to halt the implementation of the tax which is to go into effect in October, and a later hearing to decide the validity of the tax.

Water Service Costs Checked

Since Detroit's action in raising bulk water rates to its suburban community customers probably necessitates a water rate increase, costs of other services provided by the Pontiac Water Supply Division probably will be revised.

Joseph E. Neipling, director of public works and service, said this includes tap-in charges and special assessment charges.

He said a survey by a consulting engineering firm, authorized by the City Commission Tuesday, will probably point out the necessity for making the changes and for increasing the water rates.

Impetus for the study was the announcement by the Detroit Department of Water Supply (DWS) that the bulk rates to suburban communities will be hiked about 15 per cent, from $1.39 per thousand cubic feet to $1.60.

* * *

In Pontiac present rates call for a minimum bill of $10.50 every three months. An average bill for the quarterly period is about $15 to $18.

CHANGE NEEDED

Gerald J. Remus, Detroit DWS general manager, said the rate change is needed to finance the DWS's water supply development program from Lake Huron and to cover increased operating costs.

Expected to be operational in 1971, the Lake Huron supply will serve Pontiac.

Mounties Sift Tot's Tale in Hunt for Killer of 9

SHELL LAKE, Sask. (UPI)—Canadian Mounties today worked with a hazy clue to the identity of the killer of nine members of a farm family — the story of a stranger in the house as told by the only survivor.

Four-year-old Phyllis Peterson told her uncle and authorities she saw a man she did not recognize looking in her dresser drawer on the night of terror.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police appeared confident even though conceding there were no suspects, no known motive and that no murder weapon had been found in the slayings of James Peterson, 47, his wife and seven of their children.

"We will keep expanding the search with Shell Lake as a focal point until we get the break I'm sure we will get," said RCMP S. Sgt. R. E. Sondergaard late last night.

* * *

"We have a couple of encouraging aspects and have eliminated some things but we haven't yet narrowed down the field," said RCMP Inspector Brian Sawyer, the head of the investigating team that included 50 mounties, tracking dogs and a spotting plane.

NO MOTIVE

"We don't have a motive or a weapon," he said.

Shelmer Helgoton, Phyllis' uncle, said the girl told him she not only saw a stranger in the house but also heard shots and saw her mother running out of the house and her father lying on the kitchen floor.

The mounties appeared to put little hope on a major breakthrough in what the girl had to say.

* * *

"We have little to go on from what the little girl said," Sondergaard told newsmen. "It was rather incoherent and unreliable."

CHILD CONFUSED

Sawyer said Phyllis, bewildered and confused, had been "of some assistance but it was limited because of her tender years."

To Serve Walled Lake, Parts of Wixom

New Phone Center to Open Soon

A new $1.5-million telephone central office that will serve approximately 3,900 customers in Walled Lake and a portion of Wixom will be put in operation Sept. 10.

Charles B. Woodhead, public relations manager of the Pontiac district of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., said several changes in dialing methods will be introduced at the time of the changeover to the new switching system.

The new switching center is located on South Commerce Road, a half block north of Pontiac Trail. It will replace the facilities at 320 N. Pontiac Trail.

Customers whose phone numbers presently begin with MA 4 will be served by the new office. At the time of the change all phone numbers now beginning with the MA 4 prefix will be changed to 624.

Beginning Sept. 10, telephone users with 624 numbers no longer will need to dial "1" on message unit calls to telephones in Auburn Heights, Clarkston, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, Oxford, Leonard and Rochester.

SAME WAY

Calls to these communities will be dialed the same way as local calls—by merely dialing the seven-digit number.

Woodhead said there will be no change in the dialing of local or long-distance calls.

One- and two-party customers no longer will need to give their phone number when making a message unit or long distance call. New equipment automatically will note details of these calls for billing purposes.

* * *

Rural customers, however, will continue to furnish the number of the telephone they are using when making a message unit or long distance call.

New numbers will be introduced for information and repair service, Woodhead said.

Starting Sept. 10, callers will dial 411 for information instead of 33-411. For repairs, the number will be 611 instead of 33-611.

With the changeover to the new phone office, four-party service will be discontinued, Woodhead said.

* * *

Four-party customers may change to one- or two-party lines or to rural service.

PREPAY BASIS

Eighty coin telephones in the 624 office will be changed to a prepay basis like that found in most Michigan communities. Callers will deposit 10 cents before dialing a local number or Operator.

A new dial tone somewhat lower in pitch than the present signal will be put in use.

* * *

Bookmarks for use with the current directory will be furnished customers. These bookmarks show dialing instructions and include a map of local and message unit calling areas.

* * *

The dialing information also will be included in the introductory pages of the 1968 area directory.

Principal Lowell Ruggles Views Avondale High School Texts

Huron Valley Sets School Agenda

MILFORD — The Huron Valley School District expects 6,300 students — an increase of about 870 over last year—with the opening of school Thursday, Sept. 7.

Agenda for the first day includes official enrollment, payment of book fees, and meeting teachers. High schoolers will in addition be assigned to homerooms and receive class schedules.

Principals will be available in their buildings from now until Sept. 7 for anyone with questions.

Teachers report for pre-school conferences on Sept. 5.

Motorcycle Smashup Kills Lapeer Youth

LAPEER—A Lapeer motorcyclist was killed on North Elba near M21 yesterday afternoon.

Billie Joe Davis, 19, of 63 Beatly died after his motorcycle went out of control and hit a tree stump about 12:30 p.m., according to sheriff's deputies.

In West Bloomfield Twp.

New Supervisor Named

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Board last night appointed John N. Doherty the new township supervisor, effective Sept. 1.

Doherty, to fill a full-time position, replaces John F. Warren who has served as supervisor part-time for seven months. The board reappointed Warren as trustee.

The new supervisor, of 5431 W. Doherty, has been a real estate developer with the Howard Keating Co., Birmingham, on and off since 1951. Doherty owned a heavy construction company until last year.

Before residing in this area, Doherty was a district manager for Pontiac Motor Co. in Buffalo, N. Y.

He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Detroit.

Doherty's family includes his wife, Julia; Theresa, 11; Michael, 9; and Patricia, 5.

Imlay Takes Cityhood Step

IMLAY CITY—Formal action has been initiated by the Village Council to seek incorporation as a home-rule city.

The council acted Tuesday night on a recommendation of the Village Planning Commission which suggested that boundaries of the proposed city be determined at a later date.

At the same meeting Mayor John Folk proposed the formation of a historical committee to investigate celebration of the village's centennial.

They will be asked to determine whether the celebration should take place in 1971 or 1973.

AREA NEWS

Sewer Contracts Awarded in Troy

TROY — The city has awarded contracts for two sewer projects with a total estimated cost of $120,000.

Winning bidder was Two Way Construction Co. Jobs are a $163,000 project for Wisconsin, Iowa, Maple and Dequindre roads and a $57,000 project north of 14 Mile and west of Dequindre.

A hearing was set for 8 p.m., Sept. 11 for a $68,000 sewer project for the Donaldson-Square Lake area.

A water and a sewer project were approved and bids called for.

A $54,000 sewer is for Austin north of Maple.

Avondale High Preparing 4-Grade Long-Day Setup

Aided by computer programming, the Avondale Senior High School expects to launch its four-grade extended-day program this fall with a minimum of confusion.

The Avondale Board of Education this spring voted the extended-day plan in the face of a serious classroom shortage.

The ninth grade was added to the senior high school enrollment, freeing the junior high to accept sixth graders, thereby relieving overcrowding at the elementary level.

A new elementary school, the R. Grant Graham, is now in construction but not due for usage until next spring. Funds for a second senior high school voted by the people were tied up for nearly a year by Michigan Municipal Finance Commission regulations.

* * *

Lowell Ruggles, Avondale Senior High School principal, said students will be asked to register Aug. 28 through 31. He expects an enrollment of 1,050 students this year as compared to 640 last year.

Ninth graders are to report Aug. 28, for orientation; 10th graders, Aug. 29; 11th graders, Aug. 30; and 12th graders, Aug. 31.

Ruggles said class schedules will be presented at that time and books will be issued. He said activity fees would also be collected.

Students in all grades whose last names begin with the letters A through M are asked to report at 9 a.m. Those in the latter half of the alphabet are asked to report at 2 p.m.

Ruggles said the school will teach 11th and 12th graders in the morning hours and the younger group in the afternoon.

CLASS DAYS

He said classes will begin as early as 7 a.m. and last until noon or 1 p.m. for the juniors and seniors. The younger students will report at 11 a.m. or noon, depending on their schedules, and stay until a full program of classes are complete.

Though study halls have been done away with, Ruggles stresses that the program will offer all those classes formerly offered by the school.

He said any free periods on the part of students can be utilized at a snack bar the school hopes to provide.

Ruggles said the regular Type A classroom lunch will be eliminated because of the different scheduling.

LACK MATH TEACHER

The school has nearly a full complement of teachers, lacking only a mathematics teacher, Ruggles reported.

He noted that teachers would report at varying hours working a solid six-period shift and teaching at least five classes.

Other factors taken into consideration, he said, included the school's athletic program and the need for arranging classes so that participants and coaches would be free for practice.

GOP Supervisor Tells Plight of Heading an All-Dem Board

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — The problem with being supervisor and the lone Republican on the Township Board is that you're the lone Republican, according to Shelby Township's Kirby Holmes.

His position, he feels, was once again brought home Tuesday night when the Township Board rejected two of three candidates to the Township Planning Commission.

Holmes charged, "They accepted the Democrat, but they turned down the Republicans—and they didn't even know one of the men."

Township law provides that the board must ratify such appointments made by the supervisor.

* * *

"What am I supposed to do?" Holmes, a former government teacher in Utica Schools, asked.

LOST TO HOLMES

The board accepted the appointment of George Kullman, the Democrat whom Holmes defeated last fall in the election for supervisor.

"He's a good man," Holmes said, "but so are Joseph Radanovich and John Dyer-Hurdon. Their only problem is that they are Republicans."

However, a spokesman for the Democrats on the board denied Holmes contention that the rejection of the pair was based on politics.

* * *

RECREATION BENEFITS

The County Planning Commission approved its purchase for the benefits it would provide from the parks and recreation angle," Holmes said.

Clerk Mae Stecker, speaking for the rest of the board, said they felt that land purchase authority should come from the people either at the annual meeting or by referendum.

White Lake Twp. Budget Approved

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A balanced budget with $14 to spare received the Township Board's approval at the recent board meeting.

Anticipated expenditures total $171,126, with anticipated revenues at $171,140. Last year's expenditures were $152,019 and revenues were $152,175.

The increase in expenditures for this fiscal year — April 1, 1967, to March 31, 1968 — results from expanded public services, more police and fire protection, and additional office expenses.

The additional revenues are expected to come from more sales and intangibles taxes, said Township Supervisor James Reid.

The Township Board also decided to contract with the Highland Township Library for free library use by the White Lake residents. They have been paying $3 per family each year to use the Highland Township facility.

Supervisor Reid expects that White Lake Township will be able to provide this service by paying Highland about $1,400 per year from a state penal fund.

Utica Treasury in the Black

UTICA — City government ended the 1966-67 fiscal year in the black, an auditors report shows.

"It's the first time in years we haven't had a shortage," said Clerk Eunice Kopietz.

The council was told a $19,000 surplus had been accumulated, but auditors warned that no such surplus would be likely next year.

The council recently added full-paid hospitalization, a life insurance policy and a $150 annual across-the-board raise to its employe benefits.

* * *

A 3-mill raise in taxation last year was credited with the change in the financial picture.

* * *

"In 1963 we had a $42,000 deficit," Mrs. Kopietz said, "And we've been working to reduce it each year. Of the 3 mills added last year, 1.5 mills was set aside for the operating fund and 1.5 mills for the reduction of the Utica drain fund."

Utica property owners pay a total of 19 mills yearly, 1 mill voted for upkeep of the city library.

Paving Approved at Wolverine Lake

WOLVERINE LAKE — Special assessments for the blacktopping of Wolverine Drive, Paulette, Ventura, Soiano and Brisbane streets were approved at the recent Village Board meeting.

The project will cost $17,303, amounting to $1.45 per front foot. Cadillac Asphalt Co. of Southfield is planning to complete the work within two weeks, Village Manager Clifford Cottrell said.

Also at the meeting, the board approved a vacation plan for all village employes. The plan includes six paid holidays, formerly offered only to office employes time off, sick days and probations.

City employes had requested the vacation plan several months ago, said Cottrell.

Final Dance Slated

LAKE ORION — Area Jaycees will host their last teen-age dance of the season 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Bogi-Hut, 102 S. Broadway.

The Thyrd Street group will provide music.

Pontiac Press Photo

NEIGHBORS COMPLAIN — This abandoned schoolhouse on Maybee and Pine Knob, Independence Township, has become a source of annoyance to neighbors. Others find it a source of inspiration and have decorated it with names, pictures, and enigmatic slogans in various colors. The township owns the property and is holding it for a possible future site of a fire station. Neighbors have asked the township to tear it down or paint over the inscriptions to end the "eyesore."

Hearing Slated for Land-Fill

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has scheduled a public hearing on a proposed county sanitary land-fill on 10 acres near the intersection of Benstein and Sleeth roads.

The Township Board of Appeals will conduct the hearing Aug. 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Walled Lake High School, 2978 S. Commerce Road.

The County Road Commission plans to operate the land-fill. It received approval from the County Board of Supervisors about one month ago. A loan of $21,000 will follow if and when the township approves the project and the commission gets a state license.

A tentative schedule sets the opening of the land-fill within 60 days, said Commerce Township Supervisor Robert H. Long.

* * *

The dump is planned to operate for seven years for capacity fill, Long said.

COMMISSIONER NAMED

The Township Board also appointed George Merring, 4351 Bluebird, to the planning commission. A West Bloomfield schoolteacher, he replaces Max Slater whose term expired.

Reappointed to the commission was Edward Oldencamp, a builder.

Farmington Centennial

Founders Fete Opens Today

FARMINGTON — The Elks ox roast, the Miss Founders contest, and a motorcade will open the Farmington Centennial and Third Annual Founders Festival set for today through Saturday.

The Elks were to start serving today at noon at the downtown center parking lot and are to continue through the festival's end.

Contestants, selected at a preliminary judging Tuesday, are: Nancy C. Brown, Dee Dickson, Wanda S. Gorham, Cathy Karwoski, Linda Newbury, Sizanne Nicholls, Dawn Shipley, Julie E. Smith, Linda Steltar and Linda Thompson.

* * *

The winner and runner-ups will be announced at 7:30 p.m. following a motorcade to the Village Green.

CONTEST EMCEE

Terry Frisco, a television producer, is the chairman and master of ceremonies for the contest.

Completing the festival's first day will be a Franklin Band concert at 8 p.m. at the Village Green, a dance at the East Junior High School from 9 p.m. to midnight, and a dinner at the Masonic Temple sponsored by the White Shrine No. 44.

Slated for tomorrow are a country-style dinner, a community dance, a beard-growing contest and a Job's Daughters dinner.

* * *

Walled Lake Teacher Returns From Office Occupations Institute

WALLED LAKE — Miss Jody Newcomer of Walled Lake High School recently returned from a four-week National Institute for Teacher-Coordinators of Office Occupations Programs at the University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The institute instructed teacher-coordinators of office occupations programs in new techniques, methods and materials.

Louis H. Schimmel

A widespread area loses an invaluable ally and friend in the untimely death of Louis H. Schimmel.

One of the established authorities on municipal and State finances, this outstanding citizen was blessed with unusual perspicacity and a keen insight that penetrated the depths of everything in which he was a participant. And Mr. Schimmel was spread over a wide area in a variety of activities.

SCHIMMEL

★ ★ ★

The City of Pontiac had no more staunch friend and ally than this public spirited citizen and he has contributed an untold number of hours to the betterment of Pontiac in a variety of ways. A considerable part of this might rightly have fallen within the realms of professional duties. But he disclaimed financial recognition.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Schimmel was quiet, jovial and invariably with a smile, many of which he sired himself. He was a valuable contribution to any gathering and was welcomed wherever he went.

★ ★ ★

Often a shrewd, practical and penetrating mind is associated with a somewhat arbitrary attitude, but there was none of this in the man under discussion. Unhappily, he has been the victim of rather intense suffering and pain over the past few weeks. His wide circle of friends, acquaintances and neighbors have lost a valuable ally who will be sorely missed in many ways in the days ahead.

May God rest his soul.

See Need for Gas Stations on Throughways

Many people have expressed curiosity and dissatisfaction over the fact you can't buy gasoline on throughways. Often you face a stretch of considerably more than a hundred miles without a gas station en route.

★ ★ ★

The law prohibits them.

Somehow, this seems wrong.

Surely the matter could be divided equitably between various companies without showing favoritism. Stations could be assigned fairly and impartially by a board made up of the companies themselves.

★ ★ ★

None would be along the actual traveled roadways but all would be located at the various comfort stations which are always off the throughways. Hence, the gasoline services wouldn't interfere with travel whatsoever.

★ ★ ★

Unless there's some cogent reason why this isn't possible Congressmen should look into the matter.

Communists Withhold Payments, UN Totters

That greedy, uncooperative Soviet Union owes the UN just over $62 million for peace keeping activities.

The U.S. has paid in full.

We always do.

Communist satellite nations have followed their leader and withheld payments. Probably this was a flat order from the Kremlin.

The UN is badly in debt.

It owes over $100 million.

★ ★ ★

U.S. taxpayers forked over nearly half of the total of all peace keeping maneuvers. Some of this money was on voluntary measures. On these same costs, Russia volunteered — nothing.

The UN actually totters.

But Uncle Sap keeps it going.

Remember—it's your money.

There are over three billion people in this world. How long can slightly less than 200 million pay all the bills, lose its citizens in war and pay the costs around the globe? We are only six per cent of the total. How long can this continue?

Remember — they're your boys.

Rights Leaders Striking Far Afield

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — There's plenty at home to use up their energy since the civil rights movement is bogged down, but some of its leaders are reaching way beyond civil rights for something to attack or denounce.

MARLOW

Latest example: The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee is now accusing the Jews of atrocities against the Arabs.

Before that Dr. Martin Luther King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was denouncing American involvement in the Vietnamese war and calling this country "the greatest purveyor of violence in the world."

He called for a coalition of the antiwar and civil rights forces.

In a recent letter SNCC charged Zionists seized Palestine through terror, force and massacres. The publication carried two photographs purporting to show massacres in the Gaza Strip in 1956. SNCC denies it's anti-Semitic.

ARAB PROPAGANDA

That's not the way Irwin Shulman, southeastern director of the Anti-Defamation League, sees it. He says the whole business smacks of anti-Semitism. He said the published photographs previously appeared in Arab propaganda publications.

And, he said, the SNCC charges represent the total propaganda line taken by the Arabs with some changes which, he said, reflect Soviet views.

Ralph Featherston, SNCC's program director, said his organization had received no financial help from the Arabs. But it does need financial help.

★ ★ ★

FREEDOM HOUSE

After King's attack on the war, Freedom House—an organization whose directors include former Illinois Sen. Paul Douglas, a famous liberal; Roy Wilkins of NAACP, and Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., the only Negro in the Senate—issued a paper attacking King in turn.

It criticized him for lending his "mantle of respectability" to a peace movement, which, it said, contained "well-known Communist allies and luminaries of the hate-American left." King denied Communists influenced his war stand.

But now King, overshadowed for months by the more bizarre antics of Brown and Carmichael, has another idea which, if it got out of control, might cause more trouble than anything seen in this country in 1967.

He has called for nonviolent programs of organized, mass civil disobedience as a weapon for fighting racial discrimination and poverty. For example: coupling Negro school boycotts with mass sit-ins at factories to demand jobs.

MASSIVE CAMP-OUT

And he has another idea: a massive camp-out in Washington. He said this would mean taking people from Mississippi and camping in the capital while refusing to eat or move until action was taken by Congress to ease slum conditions and economic hardships for Negroes.

But that kind of camp-out in Washington could wind up in a riot at a time when riots are in the air.

—And The Deep Red (Ink) Sea!

David Lawrence Says:

German-U.S. Ties Dramatized

WASHINGTON — The implications of the meeting here between Chancellor Kiesinger of Germany and President Johnson are far-reaching. The conference dramatizes before the world the close relationship between West Germany and the United States.

LAWRENCE

For despite the withdrawal of French troops from the NATO military force by Gen. De Gaulle, the fact remains that the United States is pledged by treaty to an instantaneous defense of West Germany as well as France if they should be attacked.

Since this commitment has in no way been diminished by the French attitude, it is natural for the U.S. to rely more on West Germany for troops, and to urge that German defense against a possible invasion by hostile forces be not reduced.

There is in the background something even more important, which is reflected in a London dispatch that came over United Press International wires coincident with the conference at the White House here. It reads as follows:

"The Soviet Union's determination to prevent the nuclear arming of Germany appears to be the primary reason behind the Kremlin's sudden readiness to hasten a ban on the spread of nuclear weapons, diplomatic sources said today."

The German chancellor declared in Washington that if his government were to sign the treaty for the nonproliferation of nuclear weapons, it would require assurances that nonnuclear nations "cannot be the object of political blackmail by a power which possesses the weapons."

The most practical way to defend West Germany, therefore, is to have a nuclear force established under the auspices of a united Europe, so that the trigger would be pulled by an international command the moment there was a nuclear attack from the Soviet Union. This is the German chancellor's real desire.

The reduction, however, of the number of ground troops maintained in West German would, in the opinion of the American government, be construed in Eastern Europe as a sign of weakness. Hence, the U.S. has urged that a substantial force be ready to take care of crises which might suddenly develop if tensions are again heightened.

The current policy, of course, is to try to improve relations not only with the Soviet Union but with the countries in Eastern Europe.

The Johnson-Kiesinger conference reaffirms American friendship with the German people, and it also makes clear that the U.S. itself has not changed its mind about the importance of bringing East and West Germany together.

While the issue of reunification is at present not being pressed, it has not been forgotten.

France already possesses nuclear weapons and Red China has produced the same kind of bombs.

It would be natural for the Germans to try a peaceful way of achieving a reunion with their fellow countrymen. But if this fails, they could someday insist upon the right to make nuclear weapons, not for offense but for defense.

Bob Considine Says:

Ruth Crowded Full Life Into Limited 53 Years

NEW YORK — Hard to believe that Babe Ruth was only 53 when he died 19 years ago yesterday. He crowded so much into that comparatively limited life. He lived the kind of life that would kill a horse, but it wasn't the life he led that killed him.

CONSIDINE

Cancer earmarked him, with its customarily pitiless impartiality, and took him out of the game he liked even more than baseball — the game of life.

With the help of the consummate baseball historian Fred Lieb, I wrote what became Babe's last literary will and testament.

It remains a memorable experience. He was in great pain most of the months while the book was being put together. It made his cronically bad memory for names harrowingly worse. And there was as much talk about his condition as his memoirs.

He didn't know what was wrong with him and nobody was going to tell him not even the doctor — the great Hippolyte Wertheim — who operated on him.

★ ★ ★

I was made a part of the conspiracy by Babe's two good friends and advisers, his attorney, Melvyn Gordon Lowenstein, and his buddy from many years back, J. Paul Carey, the transportation wizard. I was solemnly assured that if Babe learned that he was a terminal case he'd "go out the window."

OWN DIAGNOSIS

Babe diagnosed his trouble himself.

"Damned teeth!" he'd groan in the husky whisper which had replaced his organ-toned voice of old. "... couple of infected teeth." To humor him, his doctors (at one time he had eight) ordered the teeth extracted.

He made only one change in the book. He decided not to include in the text the story of having been gypped out of a lot of money by a ring of Cuban bookmakers who had flattered him by promising to fix a race for him.

★ ★ ★

"No good for the kids," Babe said. He was genuinely interested in kids, probably because he was one so long.

Teen Problems Begin at Home

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A survey made by this reporter of data from 12 states coast-to-coast indicates a pattern in the clandestine narcotics and liquor selling, dope addiction, glue sniffing and prostitution in a sizable number of high schools and even junior high and intermediate schools.

CROMLEY

From South Boston there are reports of traveling liquor stores that do a boom business selling cheap liquor and wine to youngsters at black market prices.

★ ★ ★

From Washington state and the Northwest comes the report that teen-agers in some numbers engage in prostitution to raise money for pep pills, marijuana or LSD. That information is echoed from coast-to-coast.

In upper New York state, a principal of a middle-class neighborhood elementary school reports picking up one, two and sometimes three or four empty tubes of airplane glue daily on school grounds.

On some high school and college campuses in a number of states, it is reported marijuana is as easy to acquire as candy bars.

From Alabama, there are reports of open sex facilities where teen-agers can bring their girl friends for illicit relations.

In Massachusetts, reports tell of teen-agers taking spiked oranges to school in their lunch boxes. Hypodermic needles are used to shoot gin, scotch or vodka into the fruit.

These phenomena are no respecters of neighborhood, state or race. The data comes from middle-class suburbs, from the poor sections of town and from high-income neighborhoods.

The youth involved are both white and Negro. At one leading East Coast university, where surveys indicated 15 per cent of the students had taken marijuana, hashish or LSD, reports indicated two-thirds of the group were on the dean's list of superior students.

In New York state, one day the police arrested 23 youngsters on charges of peddling narcotics. The youth were a cross section of the middle-class community. Only one was a Negro.

The pattern in these 12 states was in the homes.

The officer described a group he had in custody: The parents gave them liberal allowances. Some had cars. There was no supervision.

In most cases, officials reported absent or overly permissive parents.

Some officials said of the youngsters they arrested on narcotics charges that there was no stable, significant male adult whose strength the addict could absorb. The father was dead, or weak, or he had abandoned the family, either physically or morally.

If the father lived at home, he was a big drinker or spent his time in making money. The mother was the big shot. She had subdued the father.

Often the young dope addicts have been protected by their parents from the consequences of their actions. They've never known the cost of wrongdoing. Their parents have continually made excuses. When their youngsters have been caught, they have often pulled strings and the charges dropped.

Officials working on the problem complain that parents don't seem concerned enough to give their children the supervision they should. One Virginia judge has been quoted as saying that if parents gave their children a strong sense of direction and moral values, juvenile offenses would drop drastically.

This is a problem we can't throw at the government. Only an aroused citizenry can change things.

Voice of the People:

'Why Allow Communists to Overrun Our Country?'

Why fight Communists in Vietnam when U.S. is overrun with them, publicly preaching hate, violence, arson and murder? LBJ talks "that law and order must prevail," yet Rap Brown and Carmichael roam free to talk of more riots, killing, etc. Why not deport these two to Cuba permanently? After hearing Castro's warm-up speech, these three deserve each other.

★ ★ ★

The American people are being dragged under with high prices, far too many taxes, crime and nasty politics. The President proved the last point when he had to play a game while Detroit was burning.

★ ★ ★

Election is coming, so let's all vote to get the "Bird Family" out of the White House and pray for a man in there to run our country, not ruin it as the present administration is doing. Bring our boys home and protect America first.

Driver Sees Potential Killers on Highway

Trucks and other cars that have long ladders or poles sticking out behind should have them clearly marked. I think that's the law. Recently I've seen several of these potential killers sailing along with no marking. The jug's the place for drivers like this.

Use Newspaper Space for Important Topics

A recent article in The Pontiac Press was entitled "Go-Go Dancer to Wed in Working Clothes." Why will a newspaper bother to use space and time to print such a thing? Why make such an issue and go into such detail when we live in a world declining in morality and values and populated by hipsters and molesters? The space in the newspaper should be used for more important and unreported topics.

'Complain, to Congressmen About Taxes'

A recent article stated that "a middle-income married American earning $10,000 a year with a five per cent raise (which means $500 more per year) will only have a buying power of $185 out of the $500 if the consumer price index rises about three per cent over the year." After the 10 per cent surtax and if Social Security taxes rise, you will only have $2.20 left of the pay raise to pay state and local taxes. The article states that even if you are single you are much in the same dilemma.

REPLY

Yes.

Think about the shape you're in

(WOMAN-TO-WOMAN TALK ABOUT YOUR FIGURE)

Short or tall, slim or rounded, young or more mature, most every girl or woman today is concerned about her figure. And right now, while you're thinking about new autumn clothes, is an ideal time to take a look at yourself and see what shape you're in. Even if you feel you have a figure problem, we feel we can help you. How do we know? We talked with women like yourself, with our expert fitters and figure consultants, with buyers and designers, too. Just take a few minutes now to read about shapemakers that can help you look better and feel better in your new-season clothes.

What's new in clothes for Fall? Generally speaking, the look is young and feminine, yet newly curved—a closer-fitting top moving in in the middle. Your bra and girdle are important—clothes should glide on over a natural-looking figure, skimming close to bosom and hips. The control should be light but firm, giving you a younger feeling, allowing more freedom and action. The silhouette is easy—shaped to the body—the top small, curved and close, with gently molded waist, smooth hips and thighs.

About the bra and girdle you wear now: statistics show that over half the women of America wear the wrong bra, and much the same probably goes for girdles, too. For instance. Do your bra straps dent your shoulders? Does the back of the bra ride up? Does your girdle pinch, poke or bind? Does it (or do you) roll over at the waist? Does your girdle squeeze and make unsightly bulges? All of these, unfortunately, are common complaints, and easy to correct. Read on.

You can have a bra that fits right. They come in a few basic styles, but in many variations. 1. The soft-cup bra, unlined—can be regular or underwire. 2. The contour bra—any bra with a thin, soft lining in the cup to give just a hint of shaping or extra support. 3. The padded bra—to add dimension to the slight figure. 4. The strapless bra—any bra without straps. Most all come in many lengths: short, ¾, or longline with or without a bottom band. And, of course, there are variations beyond these basics. All in all Hudson's Pontiac has over 150 styles in brassieres—each with a special reason for being in stock.

How should you choose a brassiere? The fitting room is the only real way to be sure of getting the proper size and style. The bra that's perfect for your friend is not necessarily a good choice for you. And the choice is so varied. Not only is a bra measured for your body size, but your bone structure and cup size are also important factors, with cup sizes ranging from AA (slight development) to A, B, C, D, DD and even E in order of increasing fullness. Your fitter has been carefully instructed so she can advise you correctly, fit you perfectly in 10 to 15 minutes.

There are so many types of girdles. Here again there are important considerations. A girdle with a rigid front can flatten your tummy. Side or back panels of heavier elastics or rigid fabrics can minimize full hips. Heavy thighs get smooth control with panties that have long-to-longer legs—one pantie girdle even comes in thigh sizes A,B,C like a bra cup. High-waist girdles or panties accent your waistline; panties with a natural-looking back are ideal under pants, the mini briefs and mini girdles control with soft pressure; some shapemakers even have stockings attached. Or you might prefer an all-in-one garment for one smooth controlling curve. In any case, the choice depends on your figure type, your wardrobe needs, your personal taste.

How should you choose a girdle? The fitting room is a must. Because Hudson's Pontiac has over 125 girdle styles and sizes, your fitter will analyze your figure, help choose the shapemaker just right for you. Only when you try it on and fasten the garters can you really tell. Then you should stand, sit, bend, to check the fit and comfort.

What does a fitter actually do? 1. She determines your basic figure type. You're a straight-hip figure (full midriff and bosom, narrow hips) or average (well proportioned) or a full-hipped (weight concentrated below waist). 2. She takes proper measures. 3. She judges your specific needs, keeping in mind the fashions you're doing the figuring for. 4. She fits you, and double-checks the fit, noting especially the position of the garment, the fit at waist and thigh. Sounds a bit complicated, but not for our trained experts—15 to 20 minutes is all it takes.

Know your fabrics. No doubt you know about elastic and satin and cotton, but it helps to understand the newer ones, too. Spandex, for instance, a man-made stretch fiber introduced a few years ago. You see it often (Lycra®, Vyrene® and Blue C® are popular spandex fibers) because it comes in various weights like stockings do, and gives flexible control that can vary from light smoothers to firm controllers. Shapemaker construction may combine stretch fibers with non-stretch panels for rigid firmness. There you'll see cotton, rayon, polyester, lots of light quick-drying nylon.

What about laces and pretty trims? They're very much a part of the feminine picture. Because shapemaker designers know what a woman likes, you'll find touches of dainty embroidery or panels or trims of lace, pretty enough to show. Delicate? In looks only. For today's laces are mostly man-made fibers that wear long; some stretch laces even give good support in spite of their fragile appearance.

Is color important in shapemakers? Indeed it is. For real ladylike fashion wear skin tones that blend with your skin—they don't show through white or pale colors or light fabrics. You'll find other colors, too, of course. Pastels or bright tones, basic white or black, even colorful prints just for fun!

And there's more, more, more. Shapemakers are a big story, especially at Hudson's. Among other things, we'll alter your garments to suit your individual requirements, keep your measurements on file if you wish. At Hudson's Pontiac we have expert fitters and figure consultants to help you, in the privacy of beautiful, comfortable fitting rooms. Our unique services at Hudson's even include the careful fitting of many special needs such as surgical garments.

Seeing is believing. All it takes is a few minutes in the Bra and Girdle departments at Hudson's Pontiac, 1st Floor. Stop in soon—see what we can really do to put you in great shape.

Viet Staple Food Prices Drop After 12 Pct. One-Month Hike

SAIGON, (AP) — After an inflationary trend that had seen food prices jump 12 per cent in one month, food prices fell in Saigon last week by an average three per cent, economic sources said today. Over-all prices were down 2.7 per cent for the week.

There was no immediate explanation for the drop in prices. The price increases over the past several weeks had been attributed to Viet Cong attacks on roads to Saigon from Dalat, the main vegetable-growing area, and from the Mekong delta, South Vietnam's rice bowl.

Viet Cong tax collectors were reported operating once again on Route 20 from Dalat and it was thought the Communists were letting commercial traffic through once again so they could collect more taxes.

The inability of traffic to move on the road boosts prices in Saigon more than Viet Cong taxes, officials said.

Nonfood prices rose an average of one per cent last week, but the major drop in food prices brought down the over-all price level.

The cost of living index had risen to an all-time high of 303 in the week ending Aug. 7, but fell to 295 last week. The index base was set at 100 in January 1965.

Some of the major food price decreases were in fish, chicken and shrimp, major sources of protein in the Vietnamese diet. Rice prices, which have shown the most stability over the last several weeks, dropped slightly last week.

Tuition Plan Irks Grads; MSU Gifts May Drop

EAST LANSING (UPI) — A key alumnus of Michigan State University has warned that alumni are "angry enough" about MSU's new ability-to-pay tuition plan that many of them will halt their voluntary gifts to support scholarships and athletics.

In a long letter to MSU President John A. Hannah, Dr. Arno W. Weiss of Saginaw said he found it "strange and depressing" that Hannah had accepted the plan adopted by the MSU board of trustees on a 5-3 vote last month.

* * *

There have been many demands that the plan be rescinded, but the board is not scheduled to meet again until Sept. 21. The three Republican members of the board—all of whom voted against the plan—were to meet with Gov. George Romney today to discuss it.

According to Weiss, alumni are "not just disturbed or a bit concerned."

WITHDRAW STUDENTS

"They are angry enough not only to discontinue their giving, but to withdraw their children from the university," he said.

"The only recourse is backward, for the university will suffer scholastically, academically, socially, and financially unless the governing body reverses its decision," Weiss said.

* * *

A graduate with the class of 1939, Weiss is chairman of the board of trustees of the MSU development fund that raises money among alumni and friends of the university to support special projects. Last year, such giving totalled $5.8 million.

But he said alumni contributions this year — including his own — would drop drastically unless the university decides to abandon its plan to base tuition for Michigan undergraduates on family income if that income is between $11,800 and $16,700 a year. Below and above those figures, flat rates would apply.

GAMBLE ON GAIN

The governing body must gamble the possible gain of a small sum against the loss of the giving by free enterprise . . . this is an extremely poor risk," Weiss said. "the odds are great and stacked against the university."

* * *

Weiss wrote Hannah Aug. 9 and sent 1,400 copies at his own expense to state officials, educators, alumni and others interested in higher education. At the urging of fellow development fund trustee Edward Rothman of Bloomfield Hills, he released it to every newspaper and broadcast station in the state Wednesday.

* * *

"The response has been very gratifying," Weiss said. "I've heard from many people and they all concur in what I've said. These people have given before because they wanted to give; but now they don't know if they will be able to any more."

NAACP Head Lauds Resignation

Mayor Unites Flint's Negroes

FLINT (AP) — The resignation of Mayor Floyd McCree has united all segments of the Negro community in this industrial city of 200,000 into single force, Negro civil rights leaders said Wednesday.

"There is great unity now," said Edgar B. Holt, who heads the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). "And it's not limited to the Negro community either.

* * *

"Elements of the white community, who were ambivalent (about civil rights) at first, now are more and more concerned," he said.

McCree notified fellow City Commissioners he would resign Monday following a 5 - 3 defeat of an open housing ordinance. He reaffirmed Wednesday that his resignation would be turned in next Monday at the regular commission meeting.

WRONG THING

"The people feel it was a very wrong thing what the commission did to McCree," said Holt. "There is a lot of embarrassment on the part of the white community.

"Many people have made overtures to McCree to stick it out. They feel McCree was a vital force for calmness and coolness in our city—which we are very proud of this summer.

* * *

"You know," added Holt, "we had only a baby riot. Now people feel we'll have only king-sized disturbances."

Flint was the scene of relatively minor racial violence when riots, looting and burning swept Detroit last month. More than 100 persons were arrested in Flint, but most of them were released on the promise that they would try to cool off the situation in the Negro ghetto.

SURFACE CALM

Holt said there remains a relative surface calm in Flint, whose population includes about 50,000 Negroes, but "there is a tenseness."

John W. Mack, executive director of the Flint Urban League, and one of three Negroes who resigned positions on the city's Human Relations Commission because of McCree's action, said a major reason for the present cohesiveness of the community was the "humiliation McCree suffered" in the defeat of the ordinance.

* * *

"When this thing happened, people in different civil rights groups — militants, moderates, liberals—started contacting one another, he said. "For the first time we've had meetings where the diversified points of view have been expressed it's beginning to address itself to the basic problems."

Threat in Africa

BRUSSELS (AP) — The Belgian Radio today reported that Bukavu Radio held by the mercenary forces of Maj. Jean Schramm has threatened the neighboring African state of Burundi with reprisals if it does not cease furnishing aid to the Congolese army.

* * *

Burundi is granting landing rights and free passage to Congolese forces en route to the rebel-held Bukavu area.

U.S. Finds No Rigging in Viet Election

SAIGON (UPI) — A senior American diplomat today said U.S. officials have found no evidence of the South Vietnam military regime rigging next month's presidential election.

"We have not yet found anything to substantiate the charges. All kinds of rumors can be expected," the diplomat told newsmen at a "background" briefing.

He had cited charges by civilian candidates that Chief of State Gen. Nguyen Van Thieu and Premier Nguyen Cao Ky have been using illegal pressure and threats to ensure their election Sept. 3.

"It is possible that there will be overzealous officials who may exceed their authority," he said. The diplomat said that even former Premier Tan Van Huong, a leading civilian candidate, had acknowledged this while making the charges against government officials and police.

In Washington, where some members of Congress have criticized the Vietnamese elections, President Johnson yesterday said. "This is not to say that the campaign or the election in the south will be without blemish. It is only to say that an effort is being made, without strong endorsement, to conduct an open election in a nation under fire."

Advertising...

"Advertising doesn't make things cost more; it makes them cost less. The more units of your product you can sell, the more of your investment is returned to you, the more people you can employ, the more machinery you can buy, and the more products you can make. Provided you keep telling people, more people about your product. Telling people is advertising. And advertising is one of the big reasons this country has gotten where it is: by raising people's sights, by telling them what's available, and by making products available at lower and lower cost."

Excerpt from an address by Mr. Robert K. Kintner, Meldrum & Fewsmith, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio.

The newspaper you are now reading has advertising you probably are MOST interested in, because it is the advertising of the local community, local stores, local individuals. It is the NEWS of local businesses and markets where you will buy. It is your catalog of items and prices . . . a listing you cannot find anywhere else, at any other time!

If you are in business your advertising should be in this newspaper to reach the most number of buyers at a fantastically low cost per customer. Call us for the details.

If you are an individual with things or services to sell, swap, or buy our Classified Ads are your low cost agents. Easy to use, just call 332-8181 . . . our Ad-Visers will be pleased to help you.

If your business or your home is located anywhere in this area you will save time, money and travel by reading and 'shopping' the news columns and advertising in every issue of The Pontiac Press.

GOOD OLD-FASHIONED AFTER-INVENTORY ODDMENT CLEARANCE

at exactly 1/2 off original prices!

These are oddments — the broken sizes, one- and twos-of-a-kind, the slow sellers of 1967 that showed up in our inventory. But they're all dependable HHS quality, in fact, they're mostly famous makes, in both summer and year-round weights. Still, out they must go, and we've cut prices in half to insure they do. (As a matter of fact, our Early Bird specials are reduced much more than half.) Better hurry though . . . quantities are limited and the sale lasts just two days.

623 SUMMER AND YEAR-ROUND 1- AND 2-PANT SUITS AT ½ PRICE . . . MOSTLY FAMOUS BRANDS

Rarely will you find an opportunity like this to buy good quality clothing at such savings! These are odds and ends in many styles and fabrics. The sizes are broken, of course, but check the suit list, and if your size is there, come in and make the buy of a lifetime. But don't waste a minute, at these prices they'll melt away in no time!

COCO CHANEL

Who's Old--Not Chanel, Fashion's High Priestess

PARIS (AP) — Coco Chanel, the grande mademoiselle of Paris fashions, is having a birthday Saturday. Whether she is about to become 84, 85 or 86 is shrouded in feminine mystery — she likes to think of herself "up in the 70s."

Whatever her age, her energy and dynamism still mark the fabulous world of high fashion.

She has twice conquered the fashion world and still holds her own. A Chanel suit is a status symbol.

Women have been known to keep them for 30 years and update them by maybe shortening the skirt, though Chanel has never been a champion of the miniskirt — she finds it grotesque.

CONSTANT

Of her suits her enemies like to say: "It's still the same old thing." But she never has departed from the style she herself created — the luxury of ease and comfort, which spelled her initial approach to fashion.

She changes her colors and fabrics, introduces new detailing, sponsors wonderful tweeds, and launches new jewelry and hairdos. Basically her technique is her own.

Her influence was so great on the fashion world that when in 1954 she returned to the scene, other designers had undergone subconscious influence and designed clothes "a la Chanel."

When her first collection appeared it was a nostalgic remembrance of things past, for she had picked up where she had left off 16 years before.

It took her a couple of seasons to get back into stride, but almost from the first, clients began to order wardrobes.

* * *

Today there's nothing nostalgic about her designing. Creating fashion in her own way is her life.

She cannot remain idle. Like an actor, she cannot leave the stage and has never given a farewell performance.

"C'est plus fort qu'elle — she can't help it" say her workers who adore "Mademoiselle" regardless of the way she is inclined to scotch an entire group of dresses if she finds an imperfection.

She has been known to throw out as many as 25 models at the last moment because they did not live up to her expectations.

At times, she says: "This is the last collection I'll design." It only means she's tired, and on she goes.

"Mademoiselle" arrives at 31 Rue Cambon every day around 12:30 p.m. and has her lunch in her apartment on the third floor of the building. The apartment is filled with art treasures collected down the years.

* * *

She likes entertaining a few friends at lunch. She eats better than when she is alone and she also likes good conversation.

SOVIET TRIP

She is planning a trip to the Soviet Union with an 80-piece collection and seven mannequins in accepting a Soviet invitation to attend the Moscow festival of fashion.

The musical which she has authorized Alan Jay Lerner to make on her life should appear in the fall.

Simultaneously, a new perfume called "Coco" will be launched. Whether it will have the same triumphant success as No. 5 remains to be seen.

Jan Peerce Opens at Meadow Brook

Jan Peerce will be the Meadow Brook Festival soloist in the final concerts of the season tonight and Friday at 8:30 p.m. and Sunday at 7:30 in the Baldwin Pavilion of the Oakland University campus.

Sixten Ehrling will conduct the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in this the 32nd concert of the eight week series.

* * *

Peerce will sing arias from Mozart's "Don Giovanni" and Verdi's "La Traviata," "Masked Ball," and "Luisa Miller."

The program will include the overture to Mozart's "Cosi fan tutte," the second suite from Debussy's "Iberia," and Respighi's symphonic poem "Roman Festivals."

Grounds open two hours before the performance for picnics and buffet service. Tickets are available at Hudson's, Grinnell's, and the festival box-office on the grounds, after noon Saturday and Sunday.

Navy Mothers Meet

There will be a meeting this evening at 7:30 in the Naval Reserve Center for members of the Navy Mothers Club, No. 355.

What to Do When Person Forgets Name

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I would like to know what to do in the following embarrassing situation. You meet a person you know whom you haven't seen in ages, and he addresses you by name, and you can't for the life of you remember his name.

It is especially embarrassing if you are accompanied by someone whom you should introduce.—Lynn

Dear Lynn: This is an embarrassing situation, which everyone of us must have faced at some time. If your obvious look of dismay doesn't cause the other person to help you out by telling you his name, the only thing you can do is say, "I'm so sorry, I know we've met but I just can't remember your name."

It's not ideal, but unless you wish to struggle along trying to place him, it is the only solution.

Dear Mrs. Post: Our youngest son is stationed in Holy Loch, Scotland, and married a little girl from Greenock, Scotland, in March of 1966. We attended the wedding over there, met the family, and just adore the girl.

They now have a month old daughter and I wondered if I should write her and offer to send announcements to our family and friends in the States. I am going to await your opinion before writing her and making the offer.—Mrs. R. H.

Dear Mrs. H.: Although I have never heard of it being done, I see no reason that you should not send out birth announcements if the young mother agrees.

Lenore Romney, wife of Michigan's governor, poses with two of her grandchildren. Wearing a wool knit dress by Anne Klein for Mallory, Mrs. Romney is being featured in the August Ladies Home Journal.

Her Aging Husband Surely Deserves More in Loyalty and Consideration

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am 58. My husband is 71 and retired. We have been married for 26 years. He has always been a kind and generous man, but Abby, I know that what I feel in my heart for him is pity, gratitude and habit — not true love.

ABBY

We have very little in common. I am a college graduate and former school teacher while he never went beyond fifth grade in grammar school. His only interests are home-cooked meals, sports, and shootem-up westerns on television. He is so childish and dull.

* * *

Living with him underfoot all day is getting to be more than I can tolerate. We have no children who survived beyond infancy. I am lonely, bored and frustrated.

Would you advise divorce this late in life? He has money, and I know I could get a good settlement. No name or city, please. I'm sure he doesn't know what's in my mind.

"MRS. X"

DEAR MRS. X: After 26 years of marriage to this "kind and generous man" I think he is deserving of more loyalty and consideration than you exhibit. And what makes you, at 58, think all you have to do is divorce him and your life would be transformed into an exciting, gay and fulfilling one? You supply the answers. But be honest with yourself, then act accordingly.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I would like your views on girls and women (over 40) who come to work in an office in mini and micro-mini skirts. Isn't there some booklet that describes appropriate dress for the office? Sign me . . . HORRIFIED

DEAR HORRIFIED: In the absence of house rules, common sense should prevail. Unfortunately common sense seems to be less and less common these days, in which case the office manager, boss or whoever is responsible for the morale, efficiency, and output of the establishment should post some clear-cut "thou shalts" and "thou shalt nots" with regard to attire.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were invited to the home of a friend for a small dinner party. When I received the invitation my hostess asked me expressly NOT to tell her sister-in-law that she was having a party because she hadn't invited her.

Well, the morning after the party, this uninvited sister-in-law phoned me and asked, "What did you do last night?" What could I say? TRAPPED

DEAR TRAPPED: You could have said, "It's a military secret——" and blown your friendship to smithereines. Or you could have told her where you had been.

When asked not to "tell" something, don't accept the burden of bearing the secret. Reply, instead, "I'll not volunteer the information. Neither will I lie if asked."

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am in a social snake pit. I am 21 and my husband is 26 and we have been married for five whole months!

Our social activities center around my husband's friends which include hippies, alcoholics, people with shaky reputations, and you name it, he knows one.

My husband claims he loves me, but when it comes to his friends, I am supposed to just accept them.

I've asked him why he didn't marry someone more "in" with the crowd. He replied, "If I had wanted to marry someone like that, I could have, but I didn't want someone like that for my wife."

Well, he didn't get someone like that for a wife, but as his wife I get people like that for my social environment. What am I to do? NOT "IN"

DEAR NOT IN: You can either accept them, or try to upgrade your husband's choice of company. If these are the kind of characters your husband found attractive during your courtship, one wonders what you had in common as a basis for marriage.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO ROZZIE: If you're looking for a man with money, marry a chiropodist. I understand they make money hand over foot.

Problems? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056. For a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Recruiting Changed in 50 Years

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK—The newspaper clipping is yellowed and frayed. But its headline shows how the government half a century ago recruited for the military services.

* * *

Beautiful cover girls rather than a man in a stove pipe hat and red, white and blue attire proclaimed, "Uncle Sam Wants You" or words to that effect.

"Here are three reasons why Navy recruiting has been so brisk!" says the headline from the old "New York World" Aug. 16, 1918. "When beauty calls 'TO ARMS' WHO CAN RESIST THE APPEAL . . . " The story told of three beauties of the times whom the noted illustrator, Howard Chandler Christy, had painted for the recruiting posters.

POSTER GIRLS

We located one of the poster girls the other day when news got around that either the Christy original or the autographed copy from the artist to her had shown up on the wall of a New York restaurant. Her son, in New York from the Midwest, accidentally discovered it.

Dark-haired Lylia Burnard, she was then. Still in her teens, she was a Ziegfeld girl, David Belasco was her theatrical manager; her face graced the front of magazines, artists' drawings of her illustrated numerous magazine stories.

* * *

Today, she's Mrs. Jack Leeder, wife of a construction engineer, silver haired and elegant looking, and the grandmother of two teenagers.

* * *

From a closet in her Bronx apartment, Mrs. Leeder pulled out the faded clipping, studio photographs of her in those great-looking wide-brimmed hats of another day, a photograph of the poster showing her in a Marine uniform saying, "If you want to fight, join the Marines," and a letter dated May 8, 1918, from Maj. Gen. George Barnett, Marine commandant, thanking her for "this work of art from which we expect such excellent results . . "

* * *

"I don't know why anyone'd be interested in this now," said Mrs. Leeder.

Out came some of the cover pictures. "At that time," she said, "Your face on a magazine cover was tremendous prestige. We were paid 50 cents an hour to pose. A photographer's model earned $5 a day. But then, the subway was a nickel, cigarettes 10 cents a package . . ."

* * *

She, the other girls, Louise Ford and Nancy Palmer, and the artist did the posters as a patriotic contribution.

* * *

Mrs. Leeder's son, William, 41, a purchasing agent who lives in Barrington, Ill., discovered the Christy poster when he and friends dropped into "Your Father's Moustache," a Greenwich Village nightclub. Whether it is the original or the autographed duplicate can't be determined.

* * *

It is affixed to a structural wall. But owner Joel Schiavone has offered Mrs. Leeder visiting privileges.

The original "Gibson Girl's" granddaughter out-twigs "Twiggy." Diana Gibson, a senior at Hollis College, models an experimental aluminum-foil-on-paper slip dress. Looking more like "Twiggy" than her famous grandmother, Diana forecasts fashion for disposable party costumes. Diana is named for Charles Dana Gibson, whose drawings of his wife set styles at the turn of the century.

We Humans Are Already 'Switched Off'

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Up at Yale's Medical School a scientist has suceeded in destroying a female monkey's maternal feeling for her baby. He achieved this advance in scientific progress by directing radio commands to electrodes implanted in her head.

Reading this news item, a New York Times writer was moved to write an editorial on that probable day in the future when push-buttons will turn us into robots, too, turning our feelings off according to the whims of the button-pusher.

Future day? My goodness, it's already here.

For example, many of us already have been detached from material feeling for war's burned and mutilated babies. Just like that monkey. Exactly like her. We're getting more and more disconnected from our natural feelings every day of our lives.

Our newspaper reports that some drifter with a rifle has leaned out of his rooming house window to shoot dead some innocent stranger in the street below and we tune out on feeling about that, too.

We've got to. For we are sane rats. And when we find ourselves spinning helplessly in a whirligig of an uncontrollable world, we adopt the sane rat's solution to his laboratory's whirligig. We go to sleep. We go robot.

It has to be like that. For the button-pushers are directing so many horrors at us these days that we may have to choose to go dead to feeling about them. It's called "apathy" in us. I don't know what it's called in monkeys.

No, we don't need scientists to turn us into robots. The world's news has already accomplished it most effectively. So, in a way, I'm grateful for the people I've infuriated by my recent columns on abortion.

I TRULY AM. I appreciate how desperate is our human need for what small island of moral certainty we can cling to in the chaos of life-hate which surounds us.

So, though I can't agree with you, God bless my critics for their passionately human concern.

Long-time Pontiac residents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Surre of Kemp Street, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday. They were married August 15, 1917 in Battle Creek, and moved to this city two years later. Sons Robert and Richard and daughters Virginia and Maxine will host an open house for their parents at First Federal Savings and Loan of Oakland Sunday from 2 to 6 p.m. There are 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Oven Spray a Hazard to Consumer

Consumers were warned that three self-pressurized, spray-type oven cleaning products containing propane gas may cause explosions when used on hot surfaces or near a pilot light.

Seven instances of fire and explosion attributed to use of the products in ovens have been reported to the Food and Drug Administration. One of them resulted in burn injuries the FDA said.

The products are being recalled from the market, but some of the aerosol cans are still on retail shelves, or in homes, the FDA said.

One of the hazardous cleaners is labeled as Aeroseal Super Foam Oven Cleaner with Ammonia. It is manufactured by the Aeroseal Corporation, of Camp Hill, Pa.

The other two cleaners were formerly sold by the Sunbeam Appliance Service Company, of Chicago.

* * *

One of them, labeled Heavy Duty Cookware Cleaner, formerly contained highly flammable propane gas as a propellant. A new version of the product contains freon gas as the propellant, but many of the cans with propane are still on the market. Cans containing freon have an "F" stamped on the bottom.

Sunbeam also is recalling another aerosol product labeled as Heavy Duty Oven Cleaner, which was distributed in Nebraska and northeast Indiana.

Recall of the Aeroseal Corporation product was initiated voluntarily on June 3. Later that month a Los Angeles housewife suffered first and second degree burns in an explosion that occurred when she sprayed the cleaner in an oven. She had extinguished the pilot light before using the cleaner.

Patsy Ann Matlock and William K. Knight have become engaged. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. William Matlock of Maynard Court and the James M. Knights of Lake Orion.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hunt of Clara Street announce the engagement of their daughter, Bonnie L., to Pfc. Gary D. Roerink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roerink of Joswick Street, Pontiac Township. She is a Central Michigan University sophomore.

WCTU Chooses Officers

The August meeting of the Frances Willard WCTU was held Wednesday at the James K Boulevard home of Rev. Lola Marion.

Mrs. Frank Deaver, President of 19th District WCTU, was in charge of election and installation of officers for 1967-68. Those elected were: Mesdames LeRoy Shafer, president; Lola Marion, vice-president. Others were Ethel McCluskey, Ralph U. Graham, Anna Bone and Mrs. Nellie Monroe.

Mrs. Shafer was appointed delegate to the state convention in Jackson, Sept. 27-29.

The Oakland County picnic will be held Sept. 12 at the Pontiac Lake home of Mrs. Joseph Green. Barry Grant will be guest speaker that afternoon.

Never Underestimate the Power of Women

IT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

THERE IS A LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

The League of Women Voters was the first national nonpartisan organization to launch a "get out and vote" campaign. At the present time more than 125,000 women in over 1200 local leagues in all 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico are getting an education in politics and at the same time demonstrating that a nonpartisan organization can be politically effective. The League is open to all women citizens of voting age who believe in representative government.

The League of Women Voters was established in 1920 primarily to help the more than 20 million women voters carry out their responsibilities. The League is concerned solely with government, it is non partisan, pioneering in the presentation of candidate meetings, giving impartial information on who is running for office in local, state or congressional elections, where and when to vote, or what the qualifications are or what ballot issues are up for decision . . . Yes, it makes a difference.

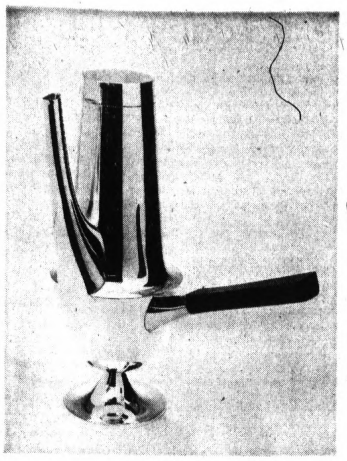
Psychedelic Art Appears in Silver Design



First-prize winner in the 1967 Sterling Silver Design Competition was won by Richard Johnston, a student at Cranbrook Academy of Art. The slim sterling teapot and beverage server displayed workmanship described by judges as being "as close to perfection as can be imagined."

The effects of "psychedelic art" are beginning to be seen in sterling silver design, an area which leans more to the traditional than to the avant-garde.

Although elegance is still the keynote among the prize-winners of the 1967 Sterling Silver Design Competition, one piece — a multibulbous vase resembling a rather ferocious sea anemone — was described by judges as a shocker."

★ ★ ★

The competition, sponsored by the Sterling Silversmiths Guild of America, encourages design students at the college, technical or post-graduate level to apply their talents to sterling silver. Entrants are required to submit sterling silver pieces which they have both designed and crafted.

SKILLFUL USE

Originality and skillful use of metal scored high points for the vase, which is outlined on either side with tentacle-like projections. Amethyst crystals seem almost to "grow" out of the top and bottom of the piece.

★ ★ ★

But the most startling aspect of the vase is the color and texture of the metal itself.

"Electro-formed silver has been tortured, antiqued and worked into a piece which defies every known convention in silversmithing," commented a judge, adding, "It is a delightful experience."

★ ★ ★

This was submitted by Cranbrook Academy of Art student, Richard Johnston.

Despite the sophistication of its design, the more practical aspects of the functional piece are not neglected: judges asserted that it pours "literally without spilling a drop."

The prize-winning pieces will be shown along with several others which won honorable mention awards during 1967-68 as part of a traveling exhibit sponsored by the Guild in major cities throughout the country.

Deep etching of sterling inlays is well suited to rugged size and design of jewelry box combining sterling silver and walnut. It was designed and handcrafted by Donald L. Bacorn of Syracuse (N.Y.) University.

Mending China

When mending a prized piece of china or glass, hold the pieces together with cellophane tape while applying the cement. When the cement dries, carefully pull the tape away. This makes for precision work. The work is so neat you can hardly tell where it has been mended.

Color Stabilizer Is Conditioner

A new beauty breakthrough is a soft cream that stabilizes hair color and acts as a hair conditioner, the manufacturer reports.

Thomas R. Jackmans Repeat Vow in Holly Rite

St. Rita's Church, Holly was the setting Saturday afternoon for vows spoken by the Thomas R. Jackmans (nee Theresa Ann Wooley).

Janice Jackman was maid of honor and James Wooley was best man. They are sister and brother of the bridal couple.

★ ★ ★

Cynthia Omans and Corinne Wesolowski were attendants.

Ushers were John and Kenneth Jackman, also brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride chose floor length Chantilly lace and organza with a natural waistline and gathered skirt for her vows. Her full chapel train featured matching lace and organza.

Parents of the newlyweds who greeted guests in the church hall after the rite are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert K. Wooley of Rattalee Lake Road, and the Richard Jackmans of Romeo.

The couple will honeymoon in Canada and at Expo '67.

Heat canned yams and apricot halves in a sugar syrup in a skillet. Serve with pork chops.

Life Span Increasing

BOSTON, Mass. (WMNS)—A child born today is not only likely to live longer than his forebears did, he is also likely to be heavier and taller than they were. This is the finding of Dr. M. H. Wittenborg, president-elect of the Society of Pediatric Radiology.

The Boston physician, in an article in the "American Journal of Roentgenology," pointed out that a one-year-old infant today is seven percent taller and 12-15 percent heavier than a child in the previous century. His brother aged nine to 14 is likely to be six to eight percent taller and 12 to 15 percent heavier.

Summer vows in 1968 are being planned by Sandra Janna Rose and Bruce L. Lucarelli. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Wayne Rose of Slocum Road, Pontiac Township, the late Mr. Rose and Mrs. Gladys Lucarelli and Quinino Lucarelli, both of South Portland, Maine.

The Phillip Whitings of Genes Drive, Pontiac Township announce the engagement and planned June 1968 vows of their daughter, Claire Jacqueline. Her fiance is Fredrick A. Parsons, son of the Norman Parsons of Kingsmere Circle, Avon Township. She is a sophomore at Spring Arbor College and he is a senior at Michigan State University.

Andrew Arrives

Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Clough (Becky Odell) of Los Angeles, Calif. announce the birth of a son, Andrew Laurance, on Aug. 7. Grandparents are the Carmi J. Odells of Ogemaw Road and the Laurance Cloughs of Delmar, N.Y.

Questions Percentage of Today's Tip

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

MARY FEELEY

Dear Miss Feeley:

Is it true you should tip 15 per cent of a restaurant bill now instead of 10 per cent?

Does this apply to drive-ins as well as restaurants? What is the minimum bill on which a tip should be paid — for instance, what about a couple of root beers at a drive-in, or a $1.25 bill at a restaurant?

Although I am primarily concerned about tipping for meals, I would also like information on tipping porters for carrying luggage and tipping cab drivers. And what about hairdressers?

L.K., Madison, Wis.

Dear L.K.:

It's generally true that 15 per cent of the bill is the accepted tipping practice in restaurants — with 20 per cent not uncommon in some of the plushier places in big cities.

In fact, we've become accustomed to the 100 per cent tip — a dime left beside the saucer for a 10-cent cup of coffee at a counter.

Drive-ins and food counters are no exception to the "restaurant" tipping practice: 10 cents is a minimum gratuity for a snack up to 50 cents, gradually rising to a 25 cent tip for a $1 tab.

While tipping customs vary, depending on the size of the city or town and the part of the country, be prepared to give the porter 25 cents per bag he carries for you.

And don't wound the cabbie's feelings with less than 25 cents for a $1 ride, or 20 per cent of the meter fee if it goes above that. Even if you just ride around the block, less than a 15 cent tip is unthinkable.

As for keeping all hands happy in the beauty shop, the tipping situation gets more complicated as the luxury factor increases. In a small shop in a small community, where one hairdresser does the whole works, 10 to 15 per cent of the bill is adequate.

If, however, you patronize a snazzier shop and involve the services of a colorist and stylist, you'll thank the former with at least 75 cents and the latter with nothing less than $1. These will be in addition to more modest tips to other attendants who may have shampooed you or unpinned you. If, however, your do-it-all hairdresser happen also to be the shop owner, you can assume that any tipping is out of order.

Since moderation becomes the tipper more than a display of lavishness does, follow the customs wherever you find yourself. You'll soon catch onto what's expected of you. Of course, you don't have to tip for lousy service.

Dear Miss Feeley:

I lost my paycheck (or it was stolen) and went to the bank to stop payment on it but the check had already been cashed. I did not endorse this check, and the endorsement which was honored was way out!

Who has to compensate me — my employer or the bank?

G.B., New York City

Dear G.B.:

The bank is responsible, since it's their obligation to check an endorsement in your name with your own signature, which the bank has on file if you have an account there. Otherwise, proper identification should be required before payment is made.

The usual procedure would be for your employer to give you another check, then arrange with the bank to see that his own acount is properly credited.

Dear Miss Feeley:

We have two life insurance policies, payable monthly to a collector. He has never mentioned dividends and every time I question him about it, he is evasive. What shall we do?

Mrs. J.K.M., Downers Grove, Ill.

Dear Mrs. M.:

Write to the home office of the company who issued your policies, giving them the policy numbers and explaining the situation. Some policies are what's called "debit" type, where dividends are used to purchase paid-up additional insurance.

This may be the type you have, but you should certainly find out from management.

Aging, Genes Often Cause of Hair Loss

ELKHART, Ind. (WMNS)—The relentless march of time plus genetic inheritance play a role in whether a woman's crowning glory will remain thick and lustrous, or whether she will lose a good bit of hair as she ages.

This is the view of dermatologist T. D. Arlook, M.D., who also notes reassuringly that most female baldness "is not an irreversible process in women, as a rule."

While there is little that can be done about aging or one's genes, baldness or hair thinning caused by too tight or frequent hair curling; or by braiding that interferes with scalp circulation; or by excessive use of dyes, wave set solution, or hair sprays can be halted if these practices are stopped.

★ ★ ★

Certain medicines may cause hair loss, as can excessive vitamin A intake. Her physician should be alerted at once when a woman notices that a drug is inducing hair loss.

FIND CAUSE

Therapy, notes Dr. Arlook, must be based on the cause of the hair loss. (Hint to users of curlers, dyes, etc.)

Incidentally, the physician maintains that there is some truth to the notion that emotional shock or disturbance can be a cause of hair loss.

Women Medics Confront Similar World Problems

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Problems faced by women doctors in North America and South America are similar, but the diseases they treat are different, two local women physicians learned at the 10th semi-annual meeting of the Pan American Medical Women's Alliance in Lima, Peru.

Dr. Ruth Montgomery-Short of Wichita, who was elected secretary of the alliance, and Dr. Irene Koeneke, Halstead, Kan., found there is about the same percentage of women doctors in South America as in this country.

But the doctors noted that they saw diseases there they had not seen since medical school.

Malnutrition and parasites were among the big problems.

New Guinea Has More Incidents of Multiple Birth

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (AP) — In some parts of New Guinea there are many times the number of multiple births that can be expected in Western communities.

Two sets of triplets were born recently in the Mt. Hagen and Wewak districts.

* * *

The director of public health, Dr. R. F. R. Scragg, said that in the Bole area of West New Britain one set of triplets was born in every 400 births, and one set of twins in every 20 births.

The normal expectation in Western countries, he said, was one in 80 births for twins, and one in 6,000 births for triplets.

* * *

Dr. Scragg said no special studies had been made that might indicate the reason for the high number of multiple births.

He said similar high rates had been reported from some parts of Africa.

MRS. LEE R. NORMAN

South Dakota Wedding Trip for Pair

A honeymoon in the Black Hills of South Dakota followed the recent marriage of Carole Mae Freeberg and Lee Ray Norman in Crystal Evangelical Free Church, Crystal, Minn.

The daughter of the Vernon E. Freebergs of Minneapolis chose a tiered gown of silk Georgette over taffeta in a bouffant style with scalloped edging of Chantilly lace.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Mitchell and Mrs. Edward Stracklin. Carolyn Mitchell served as flower girl.

Male members of the wedding party were Jack Henderson as best man with groomsmen Andrew Norman (the bridegroom's brother) and Daniel Bowker. Ushers were Keith Setterstrom and Darrel Freeberg.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Norman of Brandt Road, Groveland Township.

Weight of Affluence

WASHINGTON, D. C. (WMNS) — Give the affluent American lots of labor-saving devices, a car and TV and what do you have? The overweight American. This is one conclusion of eight specialists on nutrition who compiled a book for physicians, "Obesity and Health."

Sponsored by the U.S. Public Health Service, the book points out that obesity is now a major American health problem, becoming more common as the good life comes within the grasp of more people.

The truth is, physicians agree, that most overweight people are overweight because they eat too much. It's as simple as that: Most of us eat too much, too richly, and we do little or no exercise to burn up the excess calories we ingest.

One physician estimates that as many as one out of four patients he sees is overweight. Their problem, he notes, is neither metabolic nor glandular. It is gluttony.

* * *

Care for Games

When children receive a new game, before giving it to them to play with, use cellophane tape to reinforce the corner seams of the box. This prevents the box from coming apart at the seams from handling. Also slip a stout rubber band around the box to help prevent loose cards or parts from being scattered or lost.

Pontiac Airman Wed Recently

Airman 3C Robert Clyde Hadden, currently of Alexandria, La., wed Linda Cheryl Jones of Arvada, Colo, in a recent ceremony.

The Arvada Baptist Church was the setting for the afternoon nuptials in which the bride wore a cage styled gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta.

Freeze Block of Stock

When freezing soup stock, pour it into loaf pans to freeze. When frozen solid, remove from the pans and wrap in freezer paper. These blocks store neatly and take up less freezer space.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Phares (Carol Windell) announce the arrival of Kelli Ann this morning. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Phares of Woodlow Street and Rev. and Mrs. Orville Windell of Genella Street.

Colorful Touch in Wastebaskets

New wastebaskets are colorful and decorative.

* * *

One group features gay cotton print fabrics permanently bonded to metal baskets, then protected by a soil-resistant process.

* * *

Like all waste containers, they need to be washed out often with hot soap or detergent suds to keep the inside sanitary.

Bias on Capitol Hill Is Charged

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House, fresh from passing a new civil rights bill, has heard accusations of racial segregation and discrimination in the Congress-run Capitol Hill power plant.

Twelve Negro employes of the plant said Wednesday they're forced to use Negro-only washrooms and are discriminated against in jobs and pay.

House Speaker John W. McCormack pledged a personal probe of charges made in letters to Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., and the Washington Evening Star. Conyers, a Negro, said he was pleased to know McCormack would investigate. House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said if the charges are true, "this would be Jim Crowism at its worst. It should be stopped immediately."

The controversy erupted as the House was passing overwhelmingly a bill to provide stiffer penalties for those who violate civil rights — including rights to equal job opportunity and conditions.

LOCKER ASSIGNMENTS

William C. Justice, chief plant engineer, denied there was pay or job discrimination but acknowledged race is a factor in the assignment of lockers.

* * *

He said it is customary in making locker assignments for white employes to get lockers vacated by white men, and for Negroes to get ones vacated by other Negroes. Justice said that's been the policy for 35 years and he has received no complaints until now.

* * *

This tends to segregate the two washrooms, he acknowledged, since the lockers are situated there.

Justice denied favoritism for whites in job classification and pay.

He told the Evening Star white employes possessed "higher level experience and intelligence than we've been able to find in the colored men."

NOT DEPENDABLE

Justice added the Negro-white job classification at the plant "seems to run counter to what's desired to get integration here, but they just don't have the intellectual ability and they're not as dependable."

One Negro employe, who said he didn't want to be identified for fear he'd lose his job, called working conditions "like the Deep South 20 years ago."

One in three, or about 15 million, wives earn a paycheck. Half of all working wives earn about a quarter of their family's total income.

Grand Rapids GI Killed in Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Michigan soldier was among nine servicemen listed by the Defense Department Wednesday as killed in action in Vietnam.

He is Army Sgt. George A. Zomberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Zomberg of Grand Rapids.

U.S. Imports Wasps to Fight Elm Disease

EAST LANSING (UPI) — A tiny black wasp imported from France is being used to combat Dutch elm disease in the United States.

Though no cure-all to the tree-ravaging Dutch elm beetle, scientists at Michigan State University hope the wasp will prove an effective fighter against the tree killing bark beetle larvae.

Dr. James W. Butcher, an insect specialist at MSU, spearheaded the drive to bring the wasp to the United States two years ago from France where it was discovered to be a big help in reducing the Dutch elm disease there.

He said the wasp produces larvae which kills bark beetles existing in Dutch elm trees by sucking out juices from the beetle larvae.

Several plantings of the wasps have been made throughout Michigan to discover how effective the imported insect will be in combating the Dutch elm bark beetle larvae.

Uncle Sam Pays College Tabs

By JERRY BAULCH
Associated Press News Features

WASHINGTON — If you're thinking about bucking for a college scholarship maybe you'd like to try for one of the thousands offered each year by the Armed Services through ROTC.

They're prize plums, but the competition is stiff.

Men already in college taking ROTC can compete for them as well as high school students looking forward to college. It's too late to try for this fall but there's time for next year.

The Navy has a Nov. 17 deadline for applying, the Army Jan. 1. The Air Force hasn't set one yet, but it probably will be about mid-April.

The program is picking up steam as each service builds towards its legal limit of scholarships by 1970-71. The Navy, Army and Air Force each has a 5,500 limit under their separately run programs. The Marine Corps is included in the Navy program.

THREE AT ONCE

If you're a high school senior there's nothing to stop you from bidding for scholarships in all three programs at the same time, as well as other scholarships and the military academies. When an ROTC scholarship is passed up it usually goes to an alternate.

Each service program has its own variations for selecting the winners, but the benefits are the same:

All tuition and incidental fees paid, a textbook allowance and $50 a month living allowance during the school year. The pay is higher during summer camps or cruises.

This won't, however, take care of all your college expenses. The Navy, which has been running its program much longer than the Army and Air Force, figures you'll need $300 to $800 a year extra.

CHOOSE COLLEGE

You can choose your college so long as you find one that will accept you and that has an ROTC of the service that awards you the scholarship. The Army has 262 colleges you can choose from, the Air Force 175, and the Navy 52.

But there is an obligation. When you graduate with the gold bar of an ensign or 2nd lieutenant you are pledged to a six-year military obligation.

The Navy, Marines and Army each requires a scholarship student to do four years of active duty after commissioning, plus two more in the Reserves. The Air Force scholars agree to take flight training for a year after college and stay on active duty five more years.

SUMMER TRAINING

You take one summer of training in the Army and Air Force ROTC before you get your commission. But the Navy requires NROTC students to train during all three college summers.

In the three programs, you have to be a male U.S. citizen, a high school graduate and not a conscientious objector. The Navy says you must never have been married and must stay single until commissioned.

The main criteria are your scholarship record, aptitude tests, extracurricular activities, and personal interviews. Of course, you have to be in tip-top physical shape.

You mustn't reach your 24th birthday before June 30 of the year you'll get your military commission. And you must be at least 17 when your freshman year starts.

Tito Peace Talks With Arabs Apparently Fruitless

CAIRO (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito wound up his swing through Arab lands today amid signs that his talks with Arab leaders failed to produce any peaceformula for the Middle East.

The semiofficial Egyptian newspaper Al Ahram quoted Yugoslav sources as saying Tito will soon launch "far-reaching political activity" through personal contacts and through the United Nations. The activity reportedly will be aimed at breaking what Tito has termed the "period of diplomatic stagnation"—the time since the emergency U.N. General Assembly on the Middle East adjourned in July.

* * *

Al Ahram said Tito insisted that he had proposed no specific peace plans to Arab leaders, saying, "I came here merely to exchange views."

Informed sources said Tito had pleaded for a "realistic" approach to Middle East problems growing out of the June 5-10 war, and that this stand met especially stiff opposition in Syria.

PLEA REJECTED

Syrian Chief of State Noureddin Atassi rejected Tito's plea, the sources said, and refused to budge from Syria's hard anti-Israeli line.

On the religious front, the proposal of the chief rabbi of the Israeli army to hold prayers on Moslem territory ignited fears among politicians that it would touch off widespread Moslem protests, both in Israel-occupied territory and outside it.

* * *

The rabbi, Brig. Shlomo Goren, announced he would pray atop the hill where the second Jewish temple once stood in Old Jerusalem. The spot now holds the mosques of the Dome of the Rock and El Aksa, both sacred to Islam.

The second Jewish temple was destroyed in 70 a.d. by Titus. All that remains of it is Jerusalem's Wailing Wall, which stands just outside the mosque area.

The International Red Cross said that the first Arab refugees turning to their homes Friday.

In Geneva, the Red Cross said it expects the repatriation rate to begin at about 1,000 a day. More than 200,000 Arabs fled the west bank of the Jordan River during or after the June war.

* * *

Czechoslovakia revoked the passport of Czech writer and Communist party member Ladislav Mnacko, who has been in Israel demonstrating his pro-Israeli sentiments, despite his own government's allegiance to the Arabs.

Mnacko has a Jweish wife. He created an international storm earlier this year with a book highly critical of the Communist ruling class, "The Taste of Power."

U.S. CRITICIZED

In Tel Aviv the Israeli tabloid Yediot Aharonot said U.S. State Department officials were working against President Johnson's goal for peace in the Middle East. The newspaper charged that the State Department has been trying to get Israel to relinquish captured land.

Ahmet Shukairy, chairman of the Palestinian Liberation Organization which has headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon, blamed the Israeli victory on U.S. support and aid. "Israel, left alone, would crumble in any confrontation with the Arabs," he said.

Shukairy, whose goal is a Palestinian state to replace present-day Israel, called the United States the No. 1 enemy of the Palestine people. But he said that if the United States offers the Arabs free military training or other aid, many Arabs might take it.

Mower Crashes

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP) — Something new in traffic accidents was reported here. Elden Finley was driving around his lawn atop a power lawnmower when the brakes failed. The mower charged out into the street and hit a police car.

Alaska Flood Ebbs; Death Toll Now at 7

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — The brown floodwaters of the Chena River receded today, but at a pace so slow that the city's 15,000 evacuees were not expected to begin returning to their damaged homes and businesses before Saturday. Only a tiny fraction of them carried flood insurance, officials said.

The bodies of four more victims were found Wednesday, disaster headquarters and state police reported, bringing Alaska's flood death total to seven. Two bodies were discovered in the city and two more in Tok, a river community on the Alaska Highway.

Police conducting a house-to-house search earlier reported three deaths including that of a young child.

The victims were not identified and the cause of death was not given.

95 PCT.

About 95 per cent of Fairbanks' buildings were affected by the flood, but an insurance executive estimated just two per cent of the community's property owners had flood insurance. The situation prompted calls for immediate federal rehabilitation funds and low cost loans to businessmen and homeowners.

"It's much more than I expected it to be," said Creath Tooley, western regional director of the President's Office of Emergency Planning, who toured the city of 30,000 by boat and helicopter Wednesday. "You just don't expect to see a town inundated such as this."

Damage was placed at about $200 million.

Gov. Walter Hickel, calling for Fairbanks to be designated a federal disaster area, said he thought Saturday would be the earliest time residents could return to their homes—if rain holds off.

Cloudy skies settled above the city today, and the Weather Bureau forecast a few light showers. "If those clouds drop more rain we could be right back in trouble," said Mayor H. A. Boucher.

FIRE DANGER

The danger of uncontrolled fire, which had officials on edge Wednesday after five buildings burned in the downtown area, tapered off with no additional fires reported today.

The Chena, sent on a rampage by more than 5½ inches of rain during four days, was down about six inches from Tuesday's high point when up to nine feet of muddy water rushed into the business district.

At peak flow, Geological Survey engineers said, the river was pouring through Fairbanks at a rate of 15 billion gallons a day—enough to supply the city of New York with water for about two weeks.

Hickel, with Tooley at his side, told newsmen that state and local governments were nearing the limits of their financial ability to cope with the disaster.

"I would think," Hickel said, "that under the circumstances it would be only natural for federal aid to be forthcoming."

BEFORE WINTER

Hickel and Boucher both stressed the need for a quick and massive effort to complete reconstruction and repair before the arrival of winter weather, in which temperatures of 60 below zero have been recorded here.

Hickel said he had given some consideration to a special session of the legislature to meet problems of the disaster, but he said no decision had been made as yet.

★ ★ ★

"If we find it necessary to call the legislature into special session to meet the situation here, we wouldn't hesitate to call one," Hickel said.

One of the hardest-hit areas embraced the site of the Alaska-67 exposition, showplace of Alaska's purchase centennial this year.

House Unites to Back Hike in Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Democratic and Republican leaders have forged a rare union to assure passage of legislation to boost Social Security benefits and taxes.

If the bill finally is enacted, the average benefit paid a retired couple would go up from $145 to $164 a month. Each of the current 24.2 million beneficiaries would receive at least a 12½ per cent increase. The range of benefits for a single retired person, now $44 to $142 a month, would rise to $50 to $159.80.

Taxes would go up as well—a maximum of $44 next year for a worker earning as much as $7,600 and for his employer. The scale would rise more in future years.

While official endorsement of the bill by the House Republican leadership Wednesday assured passage, there is opposition to some portions of it and the Senate is expected to work over the measure extensively, leaving its final shape to be determined by a conference of the two chambers.

HOUSE CONSIDERATION

The House is considering the bill under procedures that allow only a yes or no vote without amendments.

Federal Officials Urge Open Housing

Congress Hit: 'Ignoring Urban Poor'

CINCINNATI (AP) A high-ranking federal official has criticized Congress for "ignoring" the plight of the urban poor, and a second official warns that unless Congress passes openhousing legislation soon, "We're in real trouble."

Ann Roberts, a deputy administrator of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Affairs, criticized Congress generally and the House of Representatives in particular Wednesday for what she called its "consistent approach to major housing bills in recent years."

* * *

"It has killed rent supplements with all of its promise for providing good housing quickly for the poverty-stricken, Mrs. Roberts said. "It has killed the bill designed to eliminate the plague of rat-bitten children from the national scene.

"It has stripped funds from the Model Cities Act and it is generally ignoring the problems of the nation's slums,"

NO LIKELIHOOD

Dr. Ruby Martin said there appeared to be no likelihood that Congress would pass any open housing legislation in the near future "and if we don't get open housing, we're in real trouble."

"Racism threatens to engulf all of us with black against whites and vice versa," she said.

Dr. Martin is education branch chief in the civil rights office of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

She called for a concerted effort to "turn the tide."

TALK TO SORORITY

The women—both Negroes—spoke at the 29th national convention of the Delta Sigma Theta public service sorority, a predominantly Negro organization. The convention ends Saturday.

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., also made an appearance Wednesday night, calling on the United States to "fight its battles at home with greater resources than we use to fight a battle 12,000 miles from our shores."

* * *

"We have battles to fight in our own country," he declared, "battles against poverty and hunger and ignorance, battles for justice and equality. It is time we put first things first."

Percy promised that Congress would do more to aid the poor in city slums, but Mrs. Roberts charged that Congress had added "to the abundance of those who have much" and failed "to provide enough for those who have too little."

* * *

"To continue the status quo is to perpetuate despair and degradation and to feed the revolutions of rising frustrations," she said. "Is it any wonder that the black voices we hear are voices of violence?"

On August 7, 1967, there was a demonstration by skilled tradesmen in front of the Local 653, U.A.W. Union Hall, 990 Joslyn Avenue. We, the elected officers of Local 653, recognize the right of U.A.W. members to demonstrate or to make demands on their elected officers, as long as it is done in the true spirit of the U.A.W.

The Pontiac Press, on August 8th, ran an article that there were some 200 tradesmen in the demonstration, that there were petitions containing signatures of 1,200 tradesmen objecting to the guaranteed income.

The facts are that there were approximately a total of 98 skilled tradesmen in the demonstration which represents approximately 4% of our skilled tradesmen in Pontiac Motor Division. There were 810 signatures on the petitions.

It is our understanding that some of our tradesmen who signed the petitions and who came to demonstrate were told this was a U.A.W. movement and not a demonstration by the I.S.S.T. only to find upon arrival in front of the union hall that there were banners being paraded by the I.S.S.T.

We hope these members are wiser today than they were on August 7, 1967.

To those who hide behind the banner of the U.A.W. yet seek to confuse or divide what the U.A.W. stands for. We the local officers, say to you—we will not become confused neither will our ranks be divided.

We say to those who were carrying the I.S.S.T. banner that:

1. Your protest concerning the N.L.R.B. should be taken up with the N.L.R.B. They made the rulings, not the U.A.W.
2. The protest of the guaranteed annual wage is a demand placed on management at the National Convention through Sub-Councils and through conferences of both production and skilled.

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP
PLANNING COMMISSION
PUBLIC HEARING
THURSDAY, AUG. 24, 1967
8:00 P.M.
at O. E. DUNCKEL
JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
32800 TWELVE MILE ROAD

The Farmington Township Planning Commission will give formal consideration to an amendment to the Farmington Township Zoning Ordinance which would create a new district to be known as the B-4 Planned General Business District, Any person who may be interested is invited to participate in the discussion of the proposed change.

The purpose of the new business district is stated in the Preamble to the new Article in the proposed amendatory ordinance set forth below.

PROPOSED AMENDATORY ORDINANCE

PREAMBLE

An Ordinance to amend the Zoning Ordinance No. 29 of the Township of Farmington as amended.

IT IS HEREBY ORDAINED by the Township Board of the Township of Farmington, Oakland County, Michigan:

SECTION ONE:

That a New Article IX-A including Sections 950, 951 and 952, be added to said Ordinance No. 29, and that Article II - Definitions, and Article XIII, Schedule of Regulations, be amended as set forth below.

ARTICLE IX-A — B-4 PLANNED
PREAMBLE: GENERAL BUSINESS DISTRICTS

The B-4 PLANNED GENERAL BUSINESS DISTRICTS are designed to provide for a variety of retail and services establishments in business areas abutting major traffic arteries and so located and planned as to provide convenient customer parking, store servicing and pedestrian traffic movement within the business district and with a minimum of conflict with traffic on abutting traffic arteries. To assure optimum site planning relationships and minimum internal and external traffic conflict, each use will be reviewed as it relates to its site and abutting sites and as it relates to the entire B-4 District and abutting districts. The following regulations shall apply in all B-4 Districts and shall be subject further to the provisions of ARTICLE XIV, "GENERAL PROVISIONS," and ARTICLE XV, "GENERAL EXCEPTIONS."

SECTION 950. PRINCIPAL USES PERMITTED:

1. Any retail business or service establishments permitted in "B-2" Districts as "Principal Uses Permitted" and "Uses Permissible on Special Approval" all subject to the requirements applicable to such uses.
2. Veterinary Hospitals.
3. Mortuary establishments.

SECTION 951. REQUIRED CONDITIONS:

1. All uses shall receive site plan review and approval by the Planning Commission prior to the issuance of a permit for construction of the proposed use. A site plan drawn to scale with dimensions shown shall be submitted showing existing and proposed construction. The site plan shall show entrances and exits to the site, parking areas, relationship of proposed use to abutting properties and screening proposed for the development.
2. Site plan review by the planning commission shall include the following:
   a. The location and design of driveways providing vehicular ingress to and egress from the site, in relation to pedestrian traffic.
   b. The traffic circulation features within the site and location of automobile parking areas; and may make such requirements with respect to any matter as will assure:
      (1) Safety and convenience of both vehicular and pedestrian traffic both within the site and in relation to access streets.
      (2) Satisfactory and harmonious relations between the development on the site and existing and proposed development of contiguous land and adjacent neighborhoods.
   c. The planning commission may require landscaping, fences, and walls to be installed and maintained on the site to adequately screen and protect abutting properties.
   d. The Planning Commission may establish such requirements as will insure that ingress and egress to the property shall be only by means of clearly limited and defined drives.
3. In those instances where the planning commission finds that an excessive number of ingress and/or egress points may occur with relation to major or secondary thorofares, thereby diminishing the carrying capacity of the thorofare, that may require marginal access roads and, to assure adequate traffic circulation on the site, may require the development of parking so that contiguous lots on abutting properties will allow traffic circulation from one property to another without re-entering the public thorofare.
4. The marginal access road shall be adjacent to the front property line and shall be at least twenty-two (22) feet wide. Said marginal access road shall be either dedicated as public right-of-way or shall be an easement which will permit the use of marginal access road for traffic circulation from one property to another. Said easement shall be in a form acceptable to the Township Board. No permanent structures such as curbs shall be permitted within the easement or right-of-way although temporary features such as wheel stops may be permitted. Each property owner shall be responsible for maintenance of the easement so that it remains usable as a means of getting from one property to another.
5. In reviewing the site plan the planning commission may permit parking in the easement area provided that the layout is such that the parking can be removed at a later date when the marginal access road is needed for access to adjacent properties, without disrupting the layout of the parking area. Temporary parking spaces permitted within the marginal access drive shall not be included in computing the minimum off-street parking requirements under Section 1404.
6. Where marginal access roads are required the planning commission shall recommend that the entire twenty-two (22) foot area be paved up to abutting properties. Backing from parking spaces onto the marginal access road shall not be permitted except on a temporary basis.
7. Temporary entrances and exits may be approved for individual sites provided money is placed in escrow to assure elimination of temporary entrances and exits. Occupancy permits shall not be issued until monies have been deposited with the township.

In determining which entrances and exits will be permanent and which will be temporary. The Planning Commission shall generally be guided by a minimum distance of six hundred (600) feet between entrances and exits and the location of existing drives on the opposite side of the street.

SECTION 952. AREA AND BULK REQUIREMENTS: See ARTICLE XIII "SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS" limiting height and bulk of buildings and minimum size of lot by permitted land use.

ARTICLE II — DEFINITIONS

Amend the definition of "Marginal Access Road" to read as follows:

Marginal Access Road: A service roadway parallel to a feeder road or to a street; and which provides access to abutting properties and protection from through traffic.

Amend ARTICLE XIII — SCHEDULE OF REGULATIONS as follows:
Add a new category B-4

Use District	Minimum Size Lot Per Dwelling Unit		Max. Height of Building		Minimum Yard Setback (Dimensions in Feet)				Total Floor Area Min. Per Unit	Ground Floor Area Min. Per Unit	Maximum Percentage Lot Coverage Per Unit
	Area in Sq. Ft.	Width in Ft.	In Stories	In Feet	Front	Sides: Least One	Sides: Total of Two	Rear
B-4 Planned General Business District	NONE	NONE	2 (g)	40 (g)	120' (p)	(e)	(e)	[illegible] (f)	NONE	NONE	NONE

Footnote:
(p) The front set backs shall be measured from the existing or proposed right-of-way line on major or secondary thorofares. Marginal access roads required, whether dedicated or private, may be included within the front yard. The required front yard may be utilized for parking and may be zoned as a P-1 District.

SECTION TWO:

All Ordinances or parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this Ordinance full force and effect.

SECTION THREE:

The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby Ordered to take effect upon publication of the Ordinance as required by law.

SECTION FOUR:

There's Gold in That Silver --Certificates, Cartwheels

NEW YORK (AP) -- There's gold in them thar silver certificates!

And even certain nickels are worth more than 5 cents.

Dealers are advertising their willingness to pay from 25 to 30 per cent over the face value of $1, $5 and $10 silver certificates.

When trading in silver dollars begins on the New York Mercantile Exchange Monday, the asking price for a 60-pound sack bulging with 1,000 uncirculated cartwheels is expected to be about $2,000.

And one dealer says he's collecting nickels minted from 1942 through 1945 because they contain enough silver and copper to make them worth more than 5 cents.

The law of supply and demand is responsible for the current ferment in silver.

Certain coins always have been worth more than their face value because they were scarce and because a collector was willing to pay a premium for them to fill holes in his collection.

Silver coins—dimes, quarters, halves, dollars—command a premium for their value to collectors rather than their metallic value.

This was because the U.S. Treasury for years had held the price of American silver at $1.29 an ounce, an artificial ceiling that ignored the law of supply and demand.

The formula worked, however, even though silver consumption in recent years began outstripping production. In 1966, silver consumption in the United States for industrial purposes amounted to a record of about 150 million ounces, an increase of 9½ per cent over 1965.

Despite this growing demand for silver by such industries as the photographic, sterling ware, electronics and electrical, the government held the price.

Negro Youth Charged With Riot Murder

DETROIT (AP) — A Negro youth, who arrived in Detroit from Birmingham, Ala., about six weeks ago, was charged with first degree murder Wednesday in the slaying of a shoe repair shop owner during last month's racial rioting.

The youth, Darryl McCurtis, 20, of Detroit, demanded examination at his arraignment before Recorder's Judge George W. Crockett. He was ordered held without bond pending a pretrial hearing Aug. 28.

Judge Crockett said an attorney would be appointed to represent McCurtis.

The Detroit News said a tip funneled through its Somebody Knows secret witness plan led to the arrest. The News offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in the case.

McCurtis was charged in the death of George Messerlian, 68, who was severely beaten by a mob of looters during the first day of the riot, July 23. He died in a hospital July 27.

Messerlian was clubbed while trying to protect his shop from looters, police said. He emerged from the shop waving a saber with which he hacked one of the looters on the shoulder.

LEADER SLAIN — Puerto Rico union leader Frank Chavez, 39, was shot and killed yesterday in San Juan. A strong suporter of Teamster's President James Hoffa, he was shot by a former bodyguard, Ivan Coll Figueroa.

Harlem Told: Politick for Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Negro congressman told an angry Harlem delegation — visiting Capitol Hill to demand a rat eradication law—to transform its frustrations into political action.

"I'm as sick and tired of this crap as anyone," Rep. John Conyers Jr., D-Mich., told the group from New York City's Negro slum section Wednesday.

* * *

"I know you're mad at everyone including me and that's your privilege—but it's about time that black, mad, angry, frustrated America begins to turn this into some political channels," Conyers added.

The Harlem group joined another from the Brownsville section of Brooklyn to meet informally Wednesday with some New York City congressmen and Conyers to demand reversal of House action that sidetracked the $40 million, administration-backed rat control program.

80 MEMBERS

Chief spokesman for the 80-member delegation was Jesse Gray, a trim, articulate Negro.

Gray, asserting that rats in slum homes are one of the root causes of racial unrest, said: "If Congress can't address itself to killing rats, we're in a sad sack in this nation."

* * *

Rep. Frank J. Brasco, the Brooklyn Democrat who arranged the meeting and who intervened on at least two occasions to soothe tense situations, said the House action was supported by Southern Democrats and by 79 per cent of the Republican membership.

Gray was chief catalyst of an Aug. 7 demonstration by a Harlem group in the House chamber in protest of that body's refusal to consider the rat control bill. The demonstrators ended by tangling with Capitol Hill police.

"Once you start killing rats," he told the congressmen, "you'll get into the rotten buildings and see for yourself what causes riots."

Sandwiches Hold Popular Appeal

POTATO SALAD POOR BOY

August is always sandwich month. Once again, cooks have a wide variety of new combinations to try.

Who knows? You might even convert a peanut butter and jelly diehard.

All of the ingredients used for the Potato Salad Poor Boy are foods you probably have on hand right now, or keep on tap for quick as a wink assembly.

Bright red tomato wedges alternate with salami wraped cheese sticks to form a colorful top layer, resting on a brand new sandwich ingredient — potato salad. The crusty loaf of chewy French bread offers the perfect texture contrast.

POTATO SALAD POOR BOY

1 long loaf enriched French bread
Butter
Lettuce leaves
2 cans (1 lb. each) potato salad
12 slices salami
6 oz. American cheese, cut in 12 sticks
2 tomatoes, each cut in 12 wedges

Cut bread in half horizontally; spread with butter. Arrange lettuce leaves on both halves. Top with potato salad.

* * *

Alternate salami rolls and two tomato wedges along top of both halves. Cut each half into three slices for serving. Makes 6 servings.

As party fare, Tiny Tot Subs are unbeatable. Or pack the sandwiches off to summer camp or back-to-school in the fall. They were designed to be a packable-perfect school lunch choice.

TINY TOT SUB

6 enriched Club rolls
Mustard
6 slices bologna, halved
6 slices American cheese, quartered
2 tablespoons pickle relish

Cut rolls in half and spread roll bottoms with mustard. Lay 2 pieces bologna on each. Arrange 4 quarters cheese on sandwich, overlapping edges; spread 1 teaspoon pickle relish over cheese. Cover with roll top. Makes 6 servings.

Tunaburgers are delicious when enhanced with that yummy charcoal flavor. And they're so simple to do that your teenagers can make them when the gang comes over.

Serve them on buns with a choice of makings for a meal-size sandwich.

TUNABURGERS

2 eggs
¾ cup catsup
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 tablespoon capers
2 teaspoons instant minced onion
3 cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) flaked tuna, drained
6 hamburger buns, toasted and buttered
Avacado, tomato, onion, cheese and lemon slices
Cucumber spears
Green pepper rings

In mixing bowl, beat together eggs, catsup, bread crumbs, lemon juice, capers and instant onion; stir in tuna. Shape into 6 patties.

Cook on outdoor grill or broil on foil-lined broiler pan, 3 to 4 inches from source of heat, 4 to 5 minutes on each side or until lightly browned.

Serve with additional catsup, if desired, on buns with choices of avocado, tomato, onion, lemon, cheese, cucumber or green peppers. Makes 6 servings.

TINY TOT SUB

Nutty Hamburgers

Ever try adding chopped nuts to hamburger? They give a delightful flavor. Add some finely minced or grated onions along with the nuts and salt and pepper.

Toasted Raisin Bread Base of Good Sandwich

Make it a farewell to summer party with raisin bread sandwiches served poolside or on the patio. This hearty three decker sandwich is going to be a winner with the back to school crowd for lunches and study-time snacks. It's also a satisfying suggestion for big breakfast eaters.

Raisin bread, nutritiously loaded with plump California seedless raisins is stacked with bacon, tomato slices and hard cooked eggs. To add a bit of flavor surprise, spread the toasted raisin bread with curried butter before assembling.

Lettuce cups filled with chili spiked mayonnaise, ripe olives and dill pickle are good go alongs.

For super sandwiches unlimited, use versatile raisin bread and a little imagination. It's a popular bread with children and goes over big for sandwiches to bag for school or eat at home.

Stack it, roll it, toast it, frost it or cut it into fancy shapes.

For fillings and toppings try all sorts of meat, poultry, fish, jams, jellies, peanut butter, relishes, you name it — almost any combination is compatible with raisin bread.

STRAW HAT SANDWICH

¼ cup butter
⅛ teaspoon curry powder
12 slices raisin bread
8 thin tomato slices
8 crisp cooked bacon strips
4 hard cooked eggs
Seasoned salt
½ cup mayonaise
1 tablespoon chili sauce
4 small crisp lettuce cups

Melt butter with curry powder. Toast raisin bread and spread lightly on one side with curried butter.

For each 3 decker sandwich arrange 2 tomato slices and 2 bacon strips on raisin toast slice; cover with second raisin toast slice and a sliced egg. Sprinkle with seasoned salt. Top with raisin toast.

Grate Coarsely

If you are trying an old-fashioned cake recipe that calls for adding "grated unsweetened chocolate" to a cake batter, be sure to grate the chocolate coarsely so it will remain in small flecks.

* * *

If you grate the chocolate fine, it is likely to melt and amalgamate completely with the batter.

Flavor Bread for Sandwiches

In Spain, a popular sandwich is made by slicing crusty rolls or small loaves of Italian-type bread lengthwise, then rubbing one piece of the bread with the cut side of a ripe tomato, brushing the other piece of bread generously with olive oil.

* * *

For the filling, sliced salami or other similar sausage may be used, or sweet peppers (pimientos), or stoned black olives, or a combination of several such ingredients.

To Extend Height

To make a collar for a souffle dish, place a wide strip of foil (double thickness) around the outside of the dish, overlapping the ends. Secure the foil with a piece of string.

Baked Bean Sandwiches

Hearty Eaters Like 'Em

Often a delicious sandwich is the perfect answer for lunch, after school snack or late supper. Easy to make, it needs whatever you happened to have on hand.

At one time a bean sandwich was a happy habit of a few people in-the-know. Today nearly everyone has tried and enjoyed this versatile "in hand" treat. There are dozens of variations and you'll find it fun to experiment, discover your favorites.

TOASTED BEAN SANDWICH

1 21-oz. can pork and beans in tomato sauce
1 cup grated sharp cheese
½ cup sliced pimiento olives
1 teaspoon prepared mustanrd

Drain beans and mash slightly. Mix in all other ingredients. Butter bread and spread with the bean mixture. Cover with another slice of bread. Place sandwiches in heated skillet with 1 tablespoon melted butter. Brown slowly on both sides to heat thoroughly. Makes 6.

BEEFY BEANBURGERS

2 cups quick pre-cooked beans
3½ cups boiling water
1 cup chopped onion
1 pound ground beef
1 tablespoon butter or bacon drippings
1 cup catsup or chili sauce
Dash of tabasco sauce
Salt to taste
8 round sandwich buns

Add boiling water to beans, bring to rolling boil and simmer 15 minutes. Drain. Melt butter or fat in skillet; add meat and onion, stirring to break up and brown evenly till meat is done. Add beans and remaining ingredients and toss to blend. Spoon on toasted buns. Garnish with onion rings and pickles. Makes 8.

BACKYARD BARBECUE

1 1-lb. can pork and beans
3 frankfurters
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
Catsup or chili sauce, enough to moisten

* * *

Heat beans and grill frankfurters over open fire. Dice or slice franks very thin. Mash beans slightly and mix in all other ingredients. Serve on your favorite bread. Makes 6.

So Low in Fat, High in Protein

A three-ounce portion of boned and skinned broiled chicken contains only nine grams of fat, says the National Broiler Council. The fat that chicken does contain is higher in unsaturated fatty acids than in any other meat fats . . . 64 per cent of the fatty acids in chicken are unsaturated.

* * *

Another nutritional plus for chicken is that it is high in protein, and protein of the best quality for it contains all the essential amino acids. All this adds up to one point: chicken is good for you.

COOL VEGETABLE SALAD — Change of pace . . . A handsome molded vegetable salad provides a cool change of pace from the usual summer salads. Serve on a platter bordered with cold cuts and cheese.

Mold Raw Vegetables in Gelatine Salad

A cool sparkling gelatine mold, served outdoors on a hot day, is one of the pleasantest possible culinary sights. If the mold is accompanied by cheese and cold cuts, your guests will have a meal they will long remember — with a minimum of kitchen work on your part.

This molded vegetable salad is a new version of the classic Perfection Salad.

Into the mold go shredded cabbage, chopped celery, and chopped radishes; the seasoning includes a little lemon juice to provide the vegetables with an agreeable tang.

Thanks to the presence of reliable unflavored gelatine, there is little cookery involved — Only the two or three minutes required to dissolve the unflavored gelatine in liquid.

And one of the chief virtues of this wonderful dish is that it may be made beforehand — at serving time, all you do is unmold onto a platter, surround with the meat slices, and lunch or dinner is ready in a twinkling.

Unmolding the mold is a simple procedure; do it this way. Dip the mold in warm (not hot) water to the depth of the gelatine.

Loosen around the edge with the top of a small paring knife. Place the platter on top of the mold and turn upside down. Shake, holding the platter lightly to the mold.

If the gelatine does not unmold readily, repeat the process.

Cool Vegetable Salad

3 envelopes unflavored gelatin
2 cups cold water, divided
⅓ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
⅓ cup vinegar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup salad dressing
1½ cups finely shredded cabbage
1½ cups chopped celery
1 cup chopped radishes
Swiss cheese slices
Sliced ham and liverwurst

Sprinkle gelatin over 1½ cups of the water in saucepan. Place over low heat; stir constantly until gelatine dissolves, 3 to 5 minutes. Remove from heat; stir in sugar and salt. Add remaining ½ cup water.

Blend vinegar and lemon juice into salad dressing in mixing bowl; blend into gelatine mixture. Chill until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Fold in vegetables. Turn into a 6-cup mold; chill until firm.

When ready to serve, unmold onto large serving platter. Arrange cheese slices, sliced ham and liverwurst around mold. Yield: 8 servings.

Protein Mixes for Pear Rounds

For snacks or appetizers, core fresh pears and cut crosswise in thick rounds. Dip cut sides in fruit juice to keep white; then spread with softened sharp cheese, cream cheese mixed with chopped nuts, peanut butter or deviled ham. Stack 2 slices together so topping is in center and on top.

Italian Style Hash Made With Macaroni

Most hash is made with potatoes, unless it's a Texas variety which has rice, of course. But if it's inspired by Italy, the hash will have macaroni.

Since macaroni and cheese are such favorites, they will certainly continue to be when beef joins the team, adding a complete protein to the dish.

Leftover beef to be gound for this dish can come from the last of a roast cooked on the rotisserie or Sunday's roast cooked in the oven.

Italian Beef Hash

2 cups ground cooked beef
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup meat stock or water
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
Salt and pepper
⅓ cup macaroni, cooked
¾ cup grated American cheese

Melt butter or margarine in a saucepan and blend in flour. Gradually add meat stock or water and cook, stirring constantly until thickened. Add Worcestershire sauce and season with salt and pepper.

Combine ground beef, cooked macaroni and white sauce and pour into a greased 1-quart casserole.

Use Whole Loaf for a Sandwich

The whole loaf of raisin bread makes a super snack. Take a loaf of raisin bread. Spread each slice with butter, then reassemble with slices of Cheddar and Jack cheese. Tie together with string and bake in hot oven (400 degrees) until loaf is crusty and cheese melts. Terrific with spaghetti dinners.

QUICK TO FIX — Even unexpected company won't throw you if your emergency shelf holds ingredients for a tasty casserole. Canned mushroom gravy embellishes canned luncheon meat and potatoes for an easy dinner.

Dinner Takes Little Time to Fix

It happens to everyone! A casual "why not drop over to the house this afternoon" turns into a spur-of-the-moment "why not stay for dinner."

* * *

Be prepared for this last minute type of entertaining with a complete dinner on your pantry shelf. For example, use canned mushroom gravy to embellish canned luncheon meat and potatoes.

While everyone pitches in to help, offer them a refreshing cocktail of ice cold vegetable juice, another out-of-the-can item.

For this one-dish meal, start by cutting the luncheon meat into strips and brown with sliced onions and crushed dill. Use a festive skillet so you can carry it right to the table.

Then add diced cooked potatoes (for convenience, try the canned variety), tangy lemon juice, and lively-tasting mushroom gravy. Simply heat and garnish with parsley.

* * *

Luncheon Meat and Potatoe Company Treat

1 can (10 ounces) luncheon meat, cut in thin strips
¾ cup sliced green onions
⅛ teaspoon dill leaves, crushed
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10½ ounces) mushroom gravy
3 cups cubed cooked potatoes
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Chopped parsley

In skillet, brown meat and cook onion with dill in butter until tender. Add gravy, potatoes, and lemon juice. Heat; stir now and then. Garnish with parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

PINK DRINKS—Vibrant maraschino cherries lend color, contrast and extra special flavor to long cool drinks for lazy summer days.

Maraschino Cherries, Juice Go in Cooling Drinks

Here are a couple of ideas for cooling drinks with a light refreshing taste to go along with afternoons at the pool-side or patio which will be enjoyed by children and grown-ups alike.

Cherry Frappe . . . a taste tempting combination of ruby-red maraschino cherries, vanilla ice cream and orange sherbet, whirled together in the blender and served over crushed ice in tall frosty glasses topped with scoops of orange sherbet.

Cherry Pineapple Flip . . . a delicious concoction of plump maraschino cherries, pineapple juice, eggs and a dash of spicy cloves, also whipped together in the blender, is just the thing to tempt jaded palates.

Cherry Frappe

2 jars (4 ounces each) red maraschino cherries
1 pint vanilla ice cream, softened
2 pints orange sherbet
Crushed ice

Combine undrained cherries, ice cream and half the sherbet in electric blender*; blend until smooth. Pour into glasses half filled with crushed ice. Top with scoop of remaining sherbet. Garnish with mint. Serve with straws. Makes 6 servings.

*For ease of handling, blend half the ingredients at one time.

Cherry Pineapple Flip

1 jar (4 ounces) red maraschino cherries
1 can (1 pint, 2 ounces) unsweetened pineapple juice
2 eggs
Dash cloves

Combine undrained cherries, pineapple juice, eggs and cloves in electric blender; blend until smooth. Pour into ice filled glasses. Garnish with mint, if desired. Makes 4-6 servings.

Sherbet Tops Melon Boat

A cool and colorful sherbet-melon boat is a "sure bet" for a summer party's refreshment. The boat and melon balls are prepared well in advance of the party, covered and chilled in the refrigerator until serving time.

* * *

Scoops of delicate apricot or tangy lemon sherbet, or both, are set in place just before the majestic melon is brought to the table.

Sherbet Melon Boat

Cut off the top third of a long watermelon leaving a generous portion to form a boat-shaped container. Zig zag or scallop the edge if desired. Remove the upper portion.

Use a melon baller or small spoon to make balls from both parts of the melon. Remove all seeds. Keep balls chilled until service time.

Then, fill melon boat with chilled balls and top with scoops of sherbet.

SHERBET MELON BOAT — This dessert is so simple, but is always a pretty addition to a party. Add scoops of sherbet to a watermelon shell filled with melon balls. Set in a bed of ice if you like.

PAIR OF WINNERS — Two County Fair first prize winners . . . three layer Prune Spice Cake and a deep, dark chocolate cake frosted with brown sugar whipped cream.

Prune or Chocolate

Cake Is Always a Good Dessert

July and August are the traditional months for County and State Fairs where youngsters display fat sleek animals and the ladies vie for first prize ribbons for their jams, jellies, mincemeat and cakes.

Here are two recipes for cakes that are first prize winners no matter whether the judges are professional or members of your own family.

* * *

Prune Spice Cake is a wonderfully moist (and it stays moist) tender cake with a delicious blend of spice and prune flavors. It calls for a dash of black pepper to perk up the spices.

You can use either canned or cooked dried prunes. If you're using cooked dried prunes, let them stand overnight in their juice and save some of the juice for the frosting.

Aunt Kitty's Chocolate Cake is a Pennsylvania recipe that's a quick-to-make, one-bowl cake.

PRUNE SPICE CAKE

¾ cup all-vegetable shortening
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups chopped cooked prunes
3 cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon EACH: salt, cinnamon, nutmeg
½ teaspoon mace
½ teaspoon black pepper
1¼ cups buttermilk
Coffee Prune Frosting

Grease three 9-inch round cake pans and line bottoms with waxed paper*.

Measure shortening into a large mixing bowl; gradually add sugar, beating well after each addition. Beat in eggs one at a time, stir in vanilla and prunes.

Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, mace and pepper. Stir into creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk. Pour batter into prepared cake pans.

* * *

Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until cakes test done. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pans and peel off paper. Cool on cake racks.

Spread Coffee Prune Frosting between layers and on sides and top of cake.

To prepare Coffee Prune Frosting (makes about 3½ cups): Beat ¾ cup all-vegetable shortening with 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups sifted confectioners sugar. Beat in ½ teaspoon vanilla and 1½ tablespoons instant coffee powder.

Add 4 cups sifted confectioners sugar alternately with enough prune juice (6 to 8 tablespoons) to make a good spreading consistency.

*If only 2 pans are available one-third of batter may be stored in refrigerator while other layers bake.

* * *

Or, pour batter into a greased and floured 13x9-inch pan and bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 1 hour, or until cake tests done. Cool in pan. Cut into squares and serve with whipped cream or sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

AUNT KITTY'S CHOCOLATE CAKE

½ cup all-vegetable shortening
½ cup unsweetened cocoa
1½ cups sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 egg yolks
2 cups milk
2½ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1½ teaspoons baking soda
Brown Sugar Whipped Cream

Grease two 9-inch round cake pans then line bottoms with waxed paper.

In large bowl of electric mixer, blend together shortening, cocoa, sugar, vanilla, egg yolks and 2 tablespoons of the milk. Beat at medium speed of electric mixer about 4 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally with rubber scraper.

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Stir into cocoa mixture alternately with remaining milk. Pour batter into prepared pans.

Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until cakes test done. Let cakes cool in pans 10 minutes, turn out and remove paper. Cool on wire racks.

Spread Brown Sugar Whipped Cream between layers and on top of cake. Store in refrigerator.

To Prepare Brown Sugar Whipped Cream (Makes about 2 cups): Whip 1 cup heavy cream with 3 tablespoons firmly-packed brown sugar until soft peaks form. Spread between layers and on top of cake.

Crackle the Shells

To make a quick job of peeling eggs, roll the hard-cooked eggs between the palms of your hands quickly. This will loosen the shell. Begin peeling at the large end of the egg.

CEREAL 'N' ICE CREAM COMPOTE—Take two cups presweetened ready-to-eat cereal and spread one-third of it over the bottom of well chilled compote or serving dish. Spread one pint of your favorite ice cream and one cup sweetened sliced peaches and strawberries over cereal. Top with half of remaining cereal. Spoon a second pint of ice cream and another cup of fruit over cereal. Sprinkle remaining cereal over top. Makes 4-6 servings.

This Bread Uses Variety of Flours

In about three hours you can have four delicious loaves of bread made.

Act One Bread

¾ cup milk, scalded
¾ cup sugar
4 teaspoons salt
⅓ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
5 cups (about) unsifted regular white flour
½ cup yellow cornmeal
½ cup unsifted stoneground wholewheat flour
½ cup unsifted stoneground rye flour
1 cup wheat germ
1 egg white slightly beaten with 1 tablespoon water

Into the scalded milk stir the sugar, salt and butter; cool to lukewarm.

In a large warm bowl, dissolve the yeast in the warm water; add lukewarm milk mixture, 2 cups white flour, cornmeal, wholewheat flour and rye flour; beat until smooth. Add wheat germ and enough additional white flour to form a soft dough.

Turn out onto lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and elastic — 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm draft-free place until doubled—about 1 hour.

Punch down dough; turn out onto lightly floured surface. Divide into 4 equal pieces; shape each into a round loaf and place, well apart, on greased cookie sheets that have been sprinkled with extra cornmeal. Cover; let rise as previously until doubled—about 45 minutes.

Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 10 minutes. Remove from oven and brush tops of loaves with egg-white mixture. Bake 5 minutes more. Cool on wire racks. Makes 4 small loaves.

Dry Vermouth Is Sauce for Skillet Chicken

Here's a pleasant menu for two young couples!

Wine-kissed Chicken
Mixed Rice with Green Peas and Mushroom Sauce
Fresh Fruit
Cheese and Crackers

Wine-Kissed Chicken

1 large broiler-fryer, cut up
⅓ cup flour
1¼ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon each butter and oil
½ cup dry vermouth

Reserve bony back pieces of chicken for another use. Wash and dry chicken; coat with flour mixed with salt and pepper.

Brown chicken skin side down in the hot butter and oil in a large skillet, over moderate heat, for about 10 minutes. Turn and brown the other side about 10 minutes.

Turn skin side down again; add half the vermouth to the skillet; cook, uncovered, about 10 minutes; if drippings scorch, turn down heat. Turn skin side up, add remaining vermouth; cook another 10 minutes or until tender.

RFK Backs Johnson in Moving to Lessen Alliance-Funds Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, backing the Johnson administration, moved today to head off partially a cut in funds for the Alliance for Progress.

He said he was doing so to honor the pledge his late brother, President John F. Kennedy, made when the plan of aid to Latin America was established six years ago.

The New York Democrat sponsored an amendment to restore $72 million of the $172 million the foreign relations committee cut from the Alliance authorization for fiscal 1967-68.

Kennedy worked closely with top administration officials in drafting the amendment, his office said, and they told him a $72-million increase would cover spending plans for this year.

The Kennedy proposal would bring the authorization to $650 million.

Six years ago, the senator said, President Kennedy pledged to Latin America that this country would join in "a new Alliance for Progress to assist free men and free governments in casting off the chains of poverty."

"It is to honor that pledge that I offer this amendment," the senator continued.

He commented in a speech prepared for delivery in the Senate.

The Senate is in its fourth day of debate on a $2.7 billion foreign aid bill, which was cut $737 million below Johnson's requests by the foreign relations committee.

Rising costs of the Vietnam war and domestic problems, including violence in cities, were cited by committee members as reasons for the cutbacks.

Gains have been made in Latin America, he continued, but "the battle has not been won nor is victory in sight."

On the eve of Kennedy's speech, the State Department issued its annual review of the alliance, reporting that the Latin American countries are pumping more money into the program than originally expected.

Amendments to the bill are pending, including proposals to restore $33 million the foreign relations committee cut from technical assistance to underdeveloped nations throughout the world.

The Senate voted 68 to 20 Wednesday to overrule the foreign relations committee and continue at 75 per cent the amount of a private investment in a developing country that would be protected against loss. The committee wanted to cut it to 50 per cent.

WRITER EXPELLED — Rebel Czech writer Ladislav Mnacko learned that the Czech government had revoked his citizenship and expelled him from the Communist party after he voiced opposition to his country's support of Arabs in the Israeli conflict in a news conference yesterday in Tel Aviv.

Romney to Eye Tuition Plan

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney is to meet today with members of the Michigan State University Board of Trustees to discuss the controversial new sliding scale tuition plan for MSU and Oakland Univsesity.

"I personally want to ask him what help he can give us in withdrawing from this stupid plan," said Republican Trustee Frank Merriman of Deckerville.

"Certainly he (the governor) would be in a better situation to bring pressure to bear about this situation than would any member of the board."

The new tuition plan, based on a sliding, graduated scale according to parents' income, was approved by the MSU board last month despite objections of Republican trustees.

Conner Smith of Pinconning, one of the five Democratic trustees who voted for the tuition plan, today said he is willing to reconsider the plan.

"I don't like the situation at all," he said. "I think the plan is discriminatory but to get the university moving, we had to break the stalemate."

Court Studies Civil Servants Parking Fee

LANSING (UPI) — The Ingham County Circuit Court yesterday agreed the state shouldn't charge some of its employes for parking and ordered daily fees halted at three Lansing lots until the case can be thoroughly reviewed.

Judge Sam Street Hughes issued a temporary restraining order against the State Department of Administration to suspend the 25-cent daily parking fee that state employes in the Capitol area began paying Monday.

Hughes assigned Circuit Judge Louis Coash to get a date for a hearing on a permanent injunction.

Bringing the suit was the Michigan State Employes Association (MSEA), which charged the fee was "discriminatory" in that it constituted a condition of employment for workers in downtown state office buildings. Civil Service employes elsewhere park free.

Aegean Water Desalted to Quench Patmos Thirst

By OWEN EDWARDS
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

PATMOS, Greece — The Ancient Mariner's paradoxical problem of "water, water everywhere and not a drop to drink . . ." is not particularly well-known as literature here in Greece, but on islands such as this one, surrounded by the blue Aegean but depending almost solely for water on winter rainfall, it is a vital fact of life.

* * *

The tiny island of Patmos recently drew scientists and engineers from all over the world to witness the opening of Greece's first major step toward quenching its age-old thirst — a solar distillation plant claimed to be one of the biggest in the world.

Designed by Professor Anthony Delijiannis of the Polytechnical School of Athens University and constructed by local labor at a cost of 3.5 million drachmas ($117,00), the desalination "still" was officially opened as the final event of the Second European Symposium on Solar Distillation.

After the project was duly blessed by six spectacularly Greek Orthodox priests from the island's imposing 11th century monastery, a handle was turned by the designer and a stream of fresh water that had been drawn from the ocean the day before shot into the air.

* * *

Delijiannis told the gathering of government officials, desalination experts and jubilant islanders that he anticipated a yearly yield of almost three million gallons of water.

SAFETY MARGIN

Although this is less than what the island's cisterns collect during a normally wet winter, the unit would, he said, provide the islanders with a much-needed margin of safety in case of drought. During previous dry years it has been necessary for the government in Athens to send water by ship from the mainland to many of the Greek islands.

The still, which looks like a vast greenhouse rising only about two feet high but covering an area of 93,000 square feet, uses a minimum of mechical equipment, employing the virtually cloud-free summer sun as its major source of energy.

Water is pumped in from the sea to a depth just under one inch. As this water evaporates, leaving its salt behind, it is collected on the angled glass covers of the plant's 71 units and trickles down into troughs, from which it flows by gravity into two underground reservoirs. The remaining brine is flushed out of the plant with sea water and the process starts again.

* * *

The Patmos unit is the first of seven such projects scheduled to be constructed on islands in the Aegean.

LESSONS LEARNED

Seven months were required to build the Patmos unit, but officials of the Hellenic Industrial Development Bank and the Greek minister of industry say that the lessons learned here should speed up subsequent constructions.

* * *

At the close of the ceremonies the islanders, initially skeptical of the project, indicated the full acceptance of the new device that will steal water from Poseidon's domain as they pointed with pride to a blue and white sign in the port town's tiny square. The sign, of the type that guides tourists to points of historic interest, reads: "To the Patmos Solar Distillation Plant."

Spain Lures Filming of Villa Capers

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

MADRID — Why would a Hollywood producer come to Spain to film a movie about Pancho Villa, Mexico's bandit revolutionary?

The reasons are mostly economic, partly political, according to Ted Richmond, veteran of filming in Hollywood ("Mississippi Bells") and Spain ("Return of the Seven").

THOMAS

He will soon begin shooting "Villa Rides," starring Yul Brynner and Robert Mitchum. The new film bears no relationship to the memorable 1934 movie "Viva Villa!" starring Wallace Beery.

* * *

The Paramount film could have been made in Mexico or California, either of which offers landscape approximating that marauded by Villa just before American entrance into the first World War. Yet Richmond chose to make "Villa Rides" in Spain.

He hinted that the problems with Mexico were largely political, the government there has been increasingly concerned with the Mexican image in films, as evidence by the recently lifted ban of Frank Sinatra because of alleged slurs against Mexican divorce laws in his film "Divorce on the Rocks." A movie about the highly controversial Villa might produce a hornet's nest of censorial problems.

ECONOMIC ADVANTAGES

But such problems appear to be minor compared to those of an economic nature. The fact remains that filming in Spain is much less expensive than in Hollywood, or Mexico.

"We can make this picture in Spain for $3.5 million," said the producer. "The same production values in an American-made film would be double the cost."

* * *

Richmond is by no means a "runaway" producer. This is only his third Spanish-made film. But his first one was enough to sway him to filming here.

Road Perils Find Way Into Network

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government has realized that some roadside hazards that make older highways dangerous have been incorporated into many new Interstate highways.

Road builders now concede that when work began a decade ago on the $50 billion Interstate network planners underestimated the perils that might be posed by fixed objects along the roadside.

* * *

It's proving to be a costly—and deadly—oversight, although statistics show Interstate highways are far safer than other roads.

Now, with 25,000 miles of interstate highways completed at a cost of $30 billion, the Bureau of Public Roads is urging states to spend what one source said would be hundreds of millions more in federal dollars to correct such hazards as:

TO CORRECT HAZARDS

- Heavy steel sign and light poles mounted in concrete bases. Although lightweight poles that snap off harmlessly when hit by a vehicle have been on the market for years, some states still erect the massive sign and light supports.
- Guard rails that don't guard, but guide skidding cars directly into bridge abutments and the like.
- Exposed guard rail ends that can spear vehicles which run off the road. Some states bury guard rail ends in the ground, but most don't.
- Exit areas cluttered with steel and concrete obstacles.

Junior Editors Quiz on MORGAN HORSE

QUESTION: How did the Morgan breed of horse originate?

* * *

ANSWER: The Morgan is a special, remarkable breed of horse. It is descended from one particular horse, a stallion that not only had unusual qualities but the ability to pass these to his descendants, so they have become the qualities of an entire breed.

This horse, shown in the picture by a statue presented by the Morgan Horse Club to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, was named Justin Morgan after his owner Justin Morgan, who obtained him as a colt.

The colt, born in 1793, was first used by Morgan as a saddle horse. He is thought to have had Thoroughbred and Arabian ancestors as well as other blood strains.

Small, fast, with an exceptionally gentle disposition, this horse was extremely strong, and able to pull heavier loads than any other horse of his size. He lived to be 29 and had a number of owners.

Recognized as a remarkable animal, he was bred many times. His colts proved to have the same wonderful combination of strength and gentleness. Soon the Morgan horse became popular all over America.

GI's in Viet Crave Water

Lack in Combat Areas Leaves Troops Thirsty

GIA VUC, South Vietnam UPI — Sgt. Lorin Griggs, 22, of Cleveland, Tenn., was so thirsty he drank a half bottle of blue-colored mouthwash.

SP4 Jim Pettit, 22, of Houston, Tex., said he would give a month's salary, $246.60 less Social Security, for a single canteen of water.

* * *

First Lt. Roger Kehrier, another 22-year-old, from Bay City, Mich., was willing to leave the security of the base camp in the darkness to reach the Song Re River, at least an hour hike away through an area thick with Viet Cong.

* * *

MEMORY OF HOME

And for a battalion of the 1st Cavalry Division last Monday, water became something to dream about, to savor like a memory of home.

It was no emergency, but it served to point out one of the most pressing concerns for the man in Vietnam.

* * *

Bravo Company of the 2nd Battalion of the 12th Cavalry dropped into the river valley like clockwork from a score of helicopters. Sniper fire ripped through a few of the choppers but no one was hit.

* * *

The zone where the 126 men had landed was ablaze. Support aircraft earlier blanketed the perimeter with white phosphorus, which set fire to the wind-whipped elephant grass.

CASUALTIES

A combination of the fire and the over-enthusiasm of helicopter door gunners eager to get out of the area resulted in eight sprained or broken ankles and one back injury to the men.

"Good thing it was a cold LZ, (a safe landing zone:)," said Charles Vokal, 20 of Grand Rapids, Mich. "I thought for sure we were going to run into V. C. fire."

* * *

While Med-Evac helicopters were summoned to remove some of the injured, Bravo Company fought the spreading fire. One man collapsed.

Water was used liberally. The fire was contained, but not before a substantial amount of Bravo's water was consumed.

REQUEST WATER

By radio, the request for water was made by Bravo's commander, Capt. Philip E. Pons Jr., 30, a 1962 West Point graduate.

* * *

The water was promised and, for a time, was actually on its way to the battalion. But through a snafu it never arrived. Unless it involves a "tactical emergency," such as a shortage of ammunition, the choppers will not venture out after 7 p.m. for fear of being downed after dark.

* * *

Bravo was out of water. A few joked, but soon the subject of water became all-consuming. The temperature remained in the 90's even after dark.

Recognizing the potentially serious situation, Bravo's First Sergeant, Theolopolis (Ted) Rigas, 35, a native of Astoria, Queens, called his sergeants together.

NONE DIED

"No one has ever died of thirst out here," he told them. "We'll have plenty of water tomorrow. Let them joke about it. But don't let it get out of hand."

* * *

The company poet recalled a line from Coleridge's "The Ancient Mariner" and mouthed in a stage whisper: "Water, Water, everywhere, but not a drop to drink."

Someone on perimeter duty crooned, "Cool, Clear Water."

* * *

Then, there was silence. "They're all asleep early tonight," said the "top," Sgt. Rigas. "It must be the water."

Finally, shortly after 8 o'clock a helicopter landed with 11 five-gallon cans of water, enough for one canteen per man.

* * *

"You know," said Lt. Kehrier, "you only appreciate water when you haven't got it."

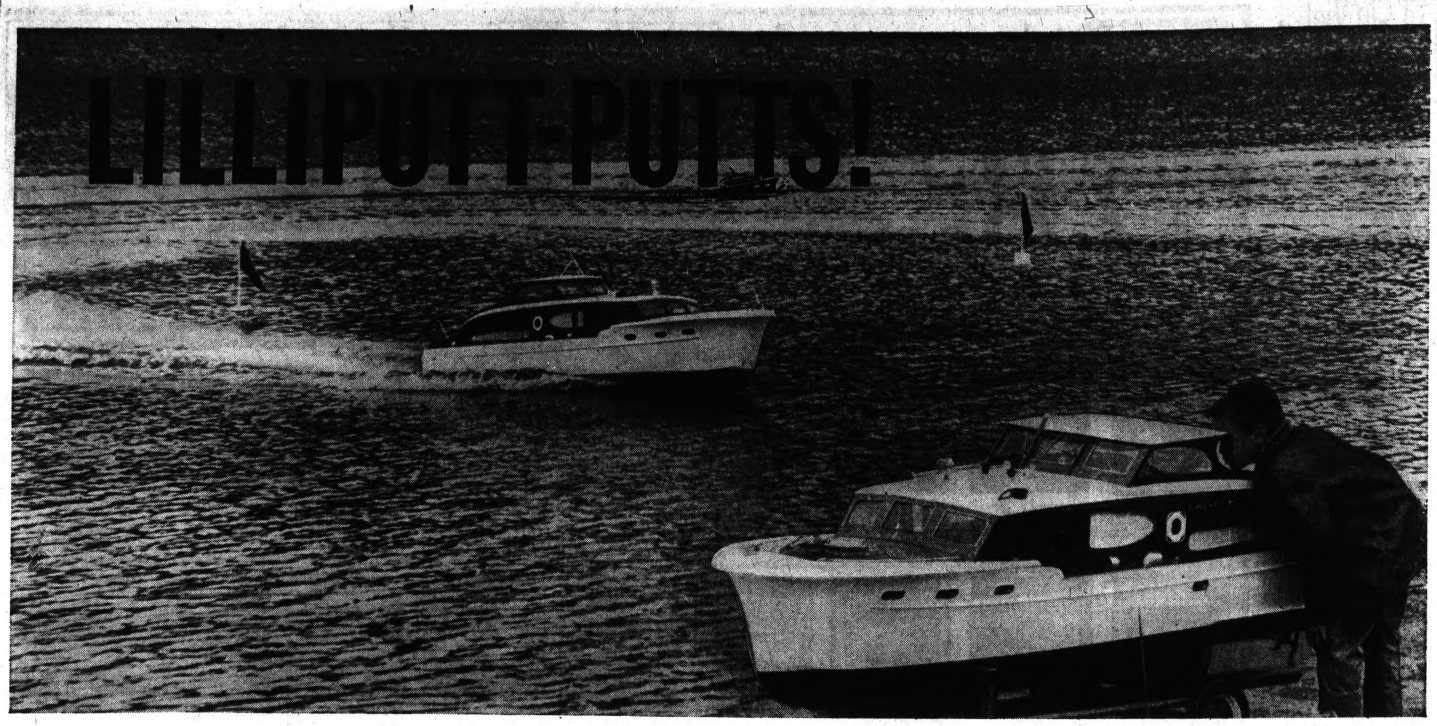
LILLIPUTIANS



The morning air at San Francisco's Lake Merced fills with the thunderous throb of high-powered engines and, in the North Lake area, the eye catches the trim lines of surging ships sweeping under full throttle through the water's calm.

But wait!

They aren't full-size, these beautifully-produced craft, but individual hand-made creations (seldom more than 75 inches in length), participating in the sectional competition of the San Francisco Model Yacht Club.

From throughout the state entrants come, bringing with them their own interpretation of the two classes, hydro (pontoon-plus hull) and monoplane (single hull), to tune and polish and prepare before launching onto the 700-yard course.

They race only for silver and gold cups, but with each entry is a pride of perfection which, in terms of dollars, can go beyond several thousands in investment.

The competition, begun in 1901 with sailing craft only, has swung slowly to the power-crafts favored mostly by the younger enthusiasts while the oldster's preference still is for the sedate speed of a sailing ship.

It is, however, the power which makes this event the finest and fastest in California, with over 100 entries of gasoline-operated, remote-controlled yachts in each speed competition.

Their lines and times will improve as years pass, yet in the thrill of speed and labor of creation, these enthusiasts fulfill a part of themselves and give to onlookers that same excitement as they race in miniature the ships of their dreams.

Father and sons concentrate on tuning up their entry.

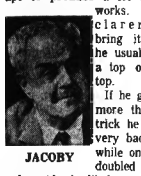
In a duplicate game a one no-trump doubled contract is apt to produce a lot of fireworks. If declarer can bring it home he usually gets a top or near top.



JACOBY

If he gets set more than one trick he gets a very bad score while one down doubled but not vulnerable is likely to be just about average.

East's takeout double of one spade is not recommended for steady consumption. He had passed originally but the fact that he had passed had not changed one card in his hand. He still had 10 high card points and poor distribution.

South might well have passed one spade and let his opponents take over but South decided to try one no-trump with his 13 points and it was up to West to do something. West made an unpopular double.

It was 100 per cent unpopular. West didn't like it much. North hated it but didn't think he had any place to go. East didn't like it but was sure he had no place to go and South surely didn't like it but knew he had no place to go.

West opened his jack of diamonds and it was up to the defense to set declarer two tricks if they could work it out and South wanted to get out for down one if possible.

The defense was too good and it wasn't possible. West's jack of diamonds held the first trick and he continued with the four. East won with the queen and led the nine of clubs. It was allowed to hold and he continued with the eight.

South won this trick and led the queen of spades. West covered with the king and South let it hold.

The defense had four tricks in and proceeded to take the king of clubs, the ace of hearts and two more diamonds for that 300-point plus.

What do you do now?

A—Bid four clubs. Your partner has shown the ace of spades but warned you that the diamond suit is wide open. You must not bid three no-trump but might well have jumped to five clubs.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Ranch Mixes Work, Instruction for Boys

BILLINGS, Mont. (AP)—Yellowstone Boys' Ranch recently completed its first decade of providing a second chance for boys aged 9 to 14.

★ ★ ★

The program combines hard work and responsibility with classroom instruction, trained counseling and family living. The 87 boys work on the ranch and raise a three-acre garden, freezing or canning the vegetables. The vocational program includes specialized farm and maintenance work, carpentry, and elementary electrical training.

★ ★ ★

Bird Interference

STAFFORD, Kan. (AP)—Clyneth Shusky of Stafford was at a loss to understand why his combine overheated whenever he took it out to cut his wheat crop. He decided to dismantle the radiator on the vehicle to seek the cause of the trouble. He found a bird's nest full of hard-boiled eggs which had stopped the water from circulating through the radiator.

Pony Gets 'Whoa'

CHICAGO (AP) — Patrolman Raymond Egan stopped a motorman here and charged him with driving without a city sticker or driver's license, illegal use of license plates, and obstruction of the driver's view. The last charge was made because there was a pony standing in the back seat of the convertible.

Man Arrested After Shooting

City Youth Wounded in Alleged Argument

A Pontiac man was arrested late yesterday for investigation of attempted murder following the gunshot wounding of a 19-year-old youth in an alleged argument.

Taken into custody at his home was Louis Simmons, 49, of 226 Prospect, according to city police.

Treated for a wound in the left ankle and later released from St. Joseph Mercy Hospital was Louis Green of 200 Raeburn.

Green told officers he was involved in an argument with a man he identified as Simmons about 10:30 p.m. at the Prospect address.

* * *

He said the man pulled what appeared to be a small automatic pistol and shot twice, missing, then fired the shot which wounded him as Green ran across the street.

Simmons was held overnight in Oakland County Jail.

Reunion Sept. 1-3 for Tank Battalion

Member of the area chapter of the 761st Tank Battalion and Allied Veterans Association of World War II, can attend the 19th annual reunion Sept. 1-3 at the Sheraton Dayton Hotel, Dayton, Ohio.

Interested members may contact the national president, Rufus Taylor of 590 Nevada, or the local chapter president, Spurgeon Grazes of 586 Nevada, for additional information or reservations.

The Pontiac chapter is dedicated to serving under-privileged children and elderly citizens of the communities.

Pill-Passing Pauline Perils London Tots

LONDON (AP) — Police warned parents today of the peril of their children playing with a girl named Pauline.

Intent on driving home their caution, they toured the streets of suburban Harrow Wednesday night and this morning, broadcasting their warning by loudspeakers.

* * *

The trouble is the gifts that Pauline has been giving.

Five children ages 2 to 11 were treated at a Harrow hospital after accepting what they, and perhaps Pauline, too, thought was candy.

STILL HELD

One 2-year-old is still being held for observation.

The police said doctors described the candy as orange-colored junior aspirin tablets.

They said druggists told them that four of the tablets were the maximum safe dose.

* * *

The cops acted after several children told of a girl called Pauline generously passing out the tablets on a street corner near a school.

Said one constable: "Of course, the children may have exaggerated the number of aspirins handed out by Pauline, but we must be absolutely sure."

Alabama Gov. Lurleen Wallace is deeply tanned and feeling fine now after her battle with cancer. But she plans more X-ray therapy in September to guard against a recurrence.

LURLEEN

Most of the time these days, Mrs. Wallace relaxes on the sands of the Gulf Coast. She hasn't been at her office since shortly before she spent three weeks in July in a Houston, Tex., cancer clinic for the removal of a malignant growth in her lower abdomen.

But she carries on the state's business from an office in the mansion when she is in Montgomery and by telephone when she is away, and she plans to make a speech or two before returning to Houston. Mrs. Wallace says she hasn't decided yet when she will return full time to running the state.

Disposal Plant to Have Fountains, Pools

New York City has hired Philip Johnson, a distinguished architect more at home with cultural complexes and exposition halls, to design a $70 million sewage disposal plant. He says he's thinking about dressing it up with fountains and ornamental pools.

Johnson, who designed the New York State Theater at Lincoln Center and the New York State Pavilion at the New York World's Fair, said he planned to cover the plant's 22-acre roof with pools and a system that will spray jets of water 200 feet into the air.

Mayor Lindsay 'Balm for an Aching City'

New York Mayor John V. Lindsay met former presidential assistant Jack Valenti at the movies last night—in a schoolyard in Jamaica, Queens. The showing was part of the Movies in the Street program, funded by the Motion Picture Association of which Valenti is president.

VALENTI

LINDSAY

"John," he said, "it's a marvelous job that you're doing, getting down among the people." Then he told newsmen: "A leader must move among the people to understand their problems. What Mayor Lindsay is doing works as a balm for a city that aches from time to time."

The free show has been running five nights a week since July 13 in 22 areas considered potential trouble spots.

'Good as Anything From th' U.S. Mint'

When Georgia Neese Gray was treasurer of the United States, her signature appeared on the greenbacks the government issued. They were considered pretty good anywhere in the world. But before Mrs. Gray was treasurer folks in Richland, Kan., where she was born thought brass tokens bearing her father's name were as good as anything from the U.S. Mint.

Today, Mrs. Gray begins what she calls the final closeout at the general store that her father, Albert Neese, and his brother, Frank, opened in 1879. The store has to make way for the Clinton dam and reservoir on the Wakarusa River which will inundate Richland. As town banker during the early 1900's and again in the 1930's Albert Neese issued his own script, good anywhere in the valley. He urged his clerks and customers to use the tokens instead of money and to invest the regular tender with him.

Mrs. Gray was behind the meat counter the day President Harry S. Truman's secretary called to say the President wanted her to become the nation's first woman treasurer. She served from 1949 to 1953. Mrs. Gray is now a Topeka banker.

Apartment Blaze in Detroit Snuffs Two Tots' Lives

DETROIT (AP) — Two children perished today when fire swept an apartment building on Detroit's near West Side.

Victims were Anthony Palomo, 2, and Harry Burke, 3, whose charred bodies were found in a first floor bedroom.

* * *

The fire was discovered by two police patrolmen, who helped evacuate 15 residents from the apartments. They were forced back by the flames, however, when they tried to reenter the building to rescue the children.

Cause of the fire was undetermined.

Crash Hurts Pontiac Man

A Pontiac man was treated for cuts and bruises at Pontiac General Hospital after an accident last night in which his truck ran into a parked car, then careened into a house at 76 S. Sanford.

* * *

Frank Orsini, 49, of 2220 Coe was driving north about 10:10 p.m. when his truck hit the parked car, police said. He told officers the truck's steering was defective.

Orsini was ticketed for improper lane usage.

4 Pontiac Teens Will Attend JA's Indiana U. Meet

Four high school students will represent the Pontiac Junior Achievement Business Center at the 24th National Junior Achievers Conference at Indiana University, Aug. 20-25.

Delegates will be Charles Graham of 58 Charles; Tonayo Gray of 171 N. Johnson; Sandra Keller of 232 Grey, Pontiac Township; and Gerald Walton of 2295 Snell Brook.

Serving as a counselor at the conference will be Theodore Villella of 42 College, Pontiac Township.

Aug. 28 Trial for Area Man

A Pontiac man accused of the gunshot wounding of a man in a city bar last month was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court Tuesday on a charge of attempted murder.

Free after posting $500 bond set by Municipal Judge Cecil B. McCallum is James Buchanan, 48, of 15 Parkdale.

His trial is scheduled for Aug. 28 before Circuit Judge William J. Beer.

Buchanan was arrested July 19 about an hour after Condy Elliott, 36, of 90 N. Francis was shot four times in a city bar.

Romney, Teachers Mull Detroit Crisis

DETROIT (AP) — An air of pessimism shrouded today's top-level meeting between Detroit school officials, teachers and Gov. George Romney, called by the governor in an attempt to insure the opening of schools Sept. 5.

A. L. Zwerdling, a Detroit attorney and school board member, said Wednesday he felt the meeting probably would accomplish much. Either the teachers will strike over salary demands, he said, or the school board will have to give them a shortened school year as "a sop."

The Detroit Federation of Teachers, (DFT), AFL-CIO, collective bargaining agent for the city's 11,000 teachers, seeks a $1,500 wage increase and a reduction of the school year from 40 to 38 weeks. The last board offer was $500 and no reduction in the school year.

'Singer' Is Fined

BBOISE, Idaho (AP) — The leader of the rock 'n' roll singing group, Paul Revere and the Raiders, should have stuck with a horse as the first Paul Revere did. Instead, Mark Lindsay, leader of the group, was fined $95 for speeding by Justice Frank Chalfant Jr. of this city.

3 Break-Ins Reported on Orchard Lake Road

Police are investigating the theft of an estimated $1,750 worth of business machines, rugs and appliances from three business places on Orchard Lake Road.

* * *

Also taken in the burglaries committed sometime Tuesday night or yesterday morning were a 32-calibre revolver and an unknown amount of phenobarbitol.

Officers were notified of a break-in at Advance Laboratories, 875 Orchard Lake, by an employe.

Missing were an electric typewriter, an adding machine, a portable radio and the revolver.

Officers said thieves apparently broke a window on the south side of the building to make entry. While investigating, police learned of the theft of an adding machine and the drugs from a doctor's office upstairs.

Police said keys taken from the laboratories opened the office of Dr. Robert Netzel.

* * *

Also broken into was the Dalton Carpet Cleaners, 671 Orchard Lake. Reported missing were $500 worth of white rugs, a combination cash register-adding machine, a check protector, a clock and a radio.

Officers said a screen was removed from an unlocked front window.

2 Township GOP Leaders Appointed

The appointment of two women to head Republican activities in Waterford and West Bloomfield townships was announced today by John Cartwright, GOP chairman of the 19th Congressional District.

Mrs. Eugene M. Griffin was named director of the party organization in Waterford, the most populous township in the county.

The same post in West Bloomfield Township went to Mrs. Watson Stringer of 2661 Warner Drive.

Mrs. Griffin, 5204 Cooley Lake, is a past president of the Waterford Township Republican Women's Club which she helped organize.

* * *

A precinct captain and an elected Republican precinct delegate, Mrs. Griffin succeeds Mrs. L. Catherine Wolters, Waterford Township treasurer, in the party position.

Mrs. Stringer has been captain of precinct four in West Bloomfield for 10 years and is a past president of the Walled Lake High School PTA and the PTA council.

She has also been active in the West Bloomfield Township Civil Defense organization.

More Classes for Practical Nurses Asked

The Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Board of Control last night took action aimed at enlarging the scope of practical nurse training.

Hospital administrator Harry H. Whitlow was instructed by the board to write a letter to Oakland Community College requesting that the college provide such an educational service.

* * *

Presently the only federally financed practical nurse training program in the Pontiac area is administered by the Pontiac School District and funded by the Manpower Development Training Act of 1962.

Hospital board members are seeking the practical nurse training agency change because they feel the demand for more trained personnel could better be met by the college.

Crane Robbed in Orion Twp.

Some $400 worth of parts were stolen from a crane parked on unoccupied property in Orion Township, Oakland County sheriff's deputies were told yesterday.

Paul Mason of 1780 Bearinger, Attica, told investoagtors the battery, instrument panel, generator and radiator were taken from the vehicle at 3770 Stanton.

$225 Is Stolen From City Hotel

Police are investigating the reported theft of $225 from the main desk of the Waldron Hotel, 36 E. Pike.

Milton Yerkes, 23, assistant manager, said the money was taken from an unlocked drawer behind the counter sometime between 3 and 6 a.m. yesterday, times when he had checked the drawer.

Detroit Man Charged With Hamburg Murder

A Detroit man held in Oakland County Jail on an armed robbery warrant was charged with murder and attempted murder yesterday in the January slaying of a Hamburg druggist and wounding of the druggist's son.

* * *

James E. Hayton, 25, was identified in a lineup of seven prisoners as one of two men who killed George Reck Jan. 7 in a holdup at Reck's pharmacy, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

He was reportedly identified by Reck's son, George Jr., 19, who was critically wounded during the robbery, but managed to escape the assailants by fleeing to a nearby restaurant.

Hayton was captured Aug. 2 in a holdup at a Southfield supermarket. His brother, Darryl, 22, was shot to death when Southfield police surprised the holdup men and opened fire.

WSU Alumni Head to Speak at PBI

Pontiac Schools Emphasizing New Sex Education Classes

By DICK ROBINSON

An emphasis on sex education in Pontiac schools is as new as a newborn baby.

School administrators have decided for the first time to develop a uniform sex education program this fall.

Not until three or four years ago did sex education programs really catch on in schools across the country. Now programs are popping up at a startling pace.

Authorities agree that sex education in schools is needed in this free-swinging era of sex revolution. They point to these facts:

- One out of every six teenage girls becomes pregnant out of wedlock.
- An estimated 300,000 teenagers report infections of venereal diseases yearly, and more than one million cases go unreported.

Pontiac alone accounted for more than half of the cases of venereal diseases, syphilis and gonorrhea reported last year in Oakland County. One-third of the county's illegitimate births are reported in Pontiac.

BESIEGE SCHOOLS

Parents throughout the nation, including those in Pontiac, have virtually been besieging the schools to take on the job of teaching about sex.

It is a job they generally are unable to do. They are apt to feel strained, embarrassed and inadequate.

Sex education received in the home is often frequently a mixture of superstition and old wives' tales infused with some factual information.

"Studies show that 80 per cent of youth gain sex information from sources (the rough-and-ready expertise 'picked up in the gutter') other than the home," Asst. Supt. William J. Lacy explained.

ONLY INSTITUTION

"The school is the only institution in our society that reaches almost all young people."

Thus, schools are called on to help solve the conflict between "mother says" and "the gang says" — whom to believe?

Teachers, though, are not free of sexual problems and often cannot use even a meager vocabulary concerning sex without blushing.

But over-all, teachers are the best equipped to teach sex. And they will learn how through in-service programs.

BIG QUESTION

The big question is when should children be taught about sex. Most experts agree that it should start early.

In Glen Cove, N.Y., 5-year-old kindergartners are taken on bisexual expeditions into the school's men's room to show the principal anatomical differences between boys and girls.

The philosophy in this New York City suburb is that "sex is something you are, not something you do."

* * *

SYPHILIS GERMS

"We don't have any organized program at the lower elementary level," Lacy said. "We may tell younger children that germs cause disease and when they get older that germs cause syphilis."

Pontiac's sex education emphasis this year will be put on grades five through eight. Other elementary and secondary grades will continue to receive a sprinkling of sex information, depending on the teacher's whims.

"Our program will teach the kids the things they should learn at home and church."

* * *

At the start, time devoted to sex education with two teacher consultants will be as follows:

- Three one-hour programs on reproduction education for all fifth- or sixth-grade boys and girls.
- Four programs on human sexuality and sex roles for all seventh- or eighth-grade boys and girls.

Most sex education courses — to the chagrin of the critics — avoid talking about contraception and sex techniques. Michigan law prohibits instruction on birth control.

The seamy side of sex—VD, homosexuality, abortion—generally is postponed until late in high school or is not even discussed at all. Venereal disease is explained in Pontiac.

Some schools, such as in Washington, D.C., require the parents' written consent before children may attend classes on human reproduction.

* * *

Today there is a new insistence on dealing with every facet of sex: biological, emotional and sociological. Lacy agrees that schools should "deal with all aspects of sex."

'FACTS OF LIFE'

But for many school districts the "facts of life" include only information about human reproduction, menstruation and the dangers of premarital intercourse.

Others callm to have sex education programs — the popular euphemism "family living" or the "rainy-day phys-ed-movie bit" — offering little more than a film on human reproduction or Walt Disney's well-worn "story of Menstruation."

Pontiac secondary schools have treated the subject via films, printed material and lectures in physical education, home economics and science courses. But still the program is only in its infancy.

"I feel a developmental program with units spotted in several grade levels is better than having separate courses on sex education," Lacy said.

He agrees with experts that straight, frank answers "in language acceptable in education" should be given and that information should be given gradually.

"Pontiac does not have any sensational program as in Anaheim, Calif., where teachers permit classroom use of four-letter words in order to strip them of the forbidden-thrill value," Lacy said.

Anaheim's program is recognized as one of the best in the country.

Other techniques in schools across the country commonly include assigning children to model the male and female genitals in clay.

IN DETROIT

In Detroit, a teacher demonstrates the stretching of the uterus with a rubber ball inside a sock and the growth of the human embryo by soaking beans in water until they swell and sprout.

One of the toughest questions about sex information is whether it should be straight information or have moral direction. The "do not because you'll get in trouble" attitude no longer carries any weight, some say.

Schools may prepare both sexes for the "traps of dating" or rely heavily on "cautionary tales" or "situation ethics."

* * *

"The main approach of our program," says Lacy, "is information. Moral direction is part of the responsibility of the schools, too. We use statistics as a threat, not threats of pregnancy, etc."

* * *

But he emphasized that parents, too, have to reassert their own morality at home and that sex education in schools should only be a supplement to parental and religious direction.

The suicide rate for physicians between May 1965 and 1967 was estimated at 34 per 100,000 deaths, twice the rate for the male population in general.

Dieting Slugger Feasts on Tiger Pitching

Loss to Boston Pushes Bengals to Fourth Place

BOSTON (AP) — George Scott's crash diet to regain his starting job paid off the second time in two nights against the Detroit Tigers as the big first baseman cracked a pair of homers in powering Boston to an 8-3 victory Wednesday night.

The defeat dropped the Tigers into fourth place, one-half game behind the Red Sox in the American League pennant race.

Boston Manager Dick Williams had benched Scott in a series last weekend because the young slugger's weight had ballooned to 221 pounds, six over the limit set by the manager.

Scott celebrated his return Tuesday night by smacking a first inning homer in a 4-0 victory over Detroit.

Scott's Wednesday night homers accounted for four Boston runs and a solo shot by Reggie Smith added another.

* * *

The only Tiger muscle was provided by Norm Cash who hit his 16th homer after a single by Willie Horton. Detroit tied it in the third when Bill Freehan sent a grounder off Joy Foy at third for an error.

DENNY LIFTED

Tiger starter Denny McLain was lifted in the third after allowing five runs. He was tagged for the loss, his 13th, against 15 victories.

McLain was followed by Dave Wickersham and then Mike Marshall who let in three more Boston runs as the Tigers lost their sixth straight in Fenway Park.

Today Earl Wilson and Jim Lonborg, two of the winningest pitchers in the league with 16 victories each, will battle in the Tigers' final encounter at Boston this year.

"No potatoes, no gravy, no beans, no nothing with any starch," Scott said after his long-ball outburst. "The boss wants me to stay at 215 pounds or under. So it's just scrambled eggs and steak the rest of the way. I want a lot more long tatters."

Scott said he picked up his excess poundage during an off day before the start of the California series.

Scott's two homers, hiking his season total to 16, also raised his batting average to .293. He has driven in 57 runs.

State's Queen of Golf Loser to Local Teen

Michigan's "Queen of Golf" in 1966 is winding up the present campaign as a pauper.

Joyce Kazmierski, the Michigan State University coed who won nearly every major state women's crown last year and lost them all this season, suffered her worst defeat in competition yesterday by dropping a 10 and 8 match in the first round of the Women's National Amateur Golf Championships in Pasadena, Calif.

Pinning the setback on Miss Kazmierski was 16-year-old Bonnie Lauer of Edgewood Country Club in Union Lake, who later dropped a second-round verdict to Lou Dill of Deer Park, Tex.

The biggest surprise of the day was the play of 16-year-old Marianne Cox of Santa Ana, Calif., who ousted four-time champion Jo Anne Gunderson Carner of Seekong, Mass., 2 and 1, and then bounced former Trans-Mississippi champ Roberta Albers of Tampa, Fla., 3 and 2.

Of the quarter-finalists, five are under 20 years of age. The USGA tourney is being played over the 6,062-yard Annadale Golf Course.

EX-CHAMP SURVIVES

The only former champion remaining after two rounds is Jean Ashley of Chanute, Kans., who downed Margaret Harmon of Shelbyville, Tenn., 2 and 1, and Connie Day of Cleveland, Tenn., 2 and 1.

Mrs. Scott Probosco of Chattanooga, Tenn., scored a 1-up win over two-time champion Barbara McIntire of Colorado Springs.

Other quarter-finalists are medalist Phyllis Tish Preuss of Pompano Beach, Fla.; Peggy Conley, 20, of Spokane, Wash.; Martha Wilkinson, 18, of Fullerton, Calif.; and Jane Bastanchury, 19, of Whittier, Calif.

Chisox in Hit Mood; Twins Whip Angels

By The Associated Press

The Chicago White Sox, who sometimes seem to win with mirrors, did it Wednesday night with a hitter who can't run, a runner who suddenly can hit and — would you believe — three home runs.

The notoriously light hitting White Sox sprayed 17 safeties around Comiskey Park including two home runs by Pete Ward and one by Gerry McNertney and walloped Kansas City 14-1.

Ken Boyer, sidelined by a pulled muscle in his left leg, came off the bench in the fourth inning and delivered a bases-loaded single that drove in three runs.

The ball soared over left fielder Danny Cater's head and the three runners scored easily. But Boyer, limping badly, barely made it to first base.

Sandy Alomar, acquired just hours before game time from the New York Mets as part of the Boyer deal, started at shortstop for Chicago, lashed two singles and scored two runs. Throughout his career, Alomar has been noted as a fast runner and good fielder but weak hitter.

SEVEN STRAIGHT

The victory kept the Sox 1½ games back of the streaking first place Minnesota Twins who won their seventh straight, 5-1 from California.

* * *

Boston moved into third place by beating Detroit 8-3. Cleveland nipped Washington 1-0 and Baltimore edged New York 5-4.

Minnesota bunched four hits and two walks for five first inning runs against California and that was enough for Dean Chance, who won his 16th game.

The first three Minnesota batters — Zoilo Versalles, Cesar Tovar and Tony Oliva — tripled, doubled and singled for two runs. An infield out following two walks drove in another run and Ted Uhlsender's two-out double produced two more.

* * *

Steve Hargan outduelled Camilo Pascuel and Tony Horton's ninth inning double — only the second hit for the Indians — gave Cleveland its victory.

* * *

Hargan, who struck out 10, finished with a three-hitter. Horton's two-out double scored pinch runner Chuck Hinton from first base. Pascual did not allow a hit until the seventh when Max Alvis singled with two out.

YEA TEAM! — Ready to cheer for Pontiac's pro football Firebirds is this fivesome of (l-r) Cathy Norberg, Sue Hartung, Diana Norberg, Linda Jackson and Lois Hunt. The Firebirds meet the Flint Blue Devils in an exhibition game at Pontiac's Wisner Stadium Saturday at 7:30 p.m. The girls are coeds at Oakland University.

F-Bird Back 6,000 Miles From Home

Both at End

F-Bird Coach Has 'Willies'

Pontiac Firebird football coach Tom Tracy has the "Willies" today as he prepares for Saturday night's exhibition game against the Flint Blue Devils at Wisner Stadium.

It's not that Tracy is afraid of Flint, but he may have some confusion when he calls for Willie Washington to enter the game.

Yesterday when Tracy called for Willie, two players stepped out.

At tight end, the Firebirds have Willie Washington, a 6-foot and 180 pounder from Allen University.

Another Willie Washington came into camp yesterday and he stands 6-feet-7 and goes 240 pounds from Alcorn A&M in Mississippi.

Tracy assigned him to the defensive end position.

Bill Apisa Hopes to Follow Friend on Lions' Squad

Bill Apisa, like his brother Bob, the Michigan State All-America fullback, came about 6,000 miles from Hawaii to Michigan because he wants to play football.

Bill didn't come all that way just to play for the Pontiac Firebirds, but he is hoping for a chance with the Detroit Lions and while he is biding his time until next year's camp, he will be running at fullback for the Firebirds.

A four-year varsity player at the University of Hawaii, Apisa came to the area a few weeks ago with a friend, Lew Kamanu, a onetime prep teammate in Hawaii who was the Lions' No. 4 draft choice this year.

Kamanu, a 6-4 and 250 pounder who played at Weber State College last season, is being tried at defensive end.

* * *

REASONS HERE

"I want to watch Bob play this fall, and I hope I can get a chance with the Lions next summer," he said. "I guess those are my main reasons for being here."

Living in Royal Oak with relatives, Apisa will be at fullback for the Firebirds Saturday night when the Flint Blue Devils visit Wisner Stadium for an exhibition game.

He scored one touchdown on an eight-yard dash in the 28-13 loss to Ypsilanti last week, but he played only half the game because coach Tom Tracy felt he wasn't out long enough to learn all the plays.

"He's as strong as a bull," said Tracy, "he'll give us real power at fullback."

Game time Saturday night is 7:30 and tickets for the exhibition contest are available at Osmun's, Griff's Grill, Bob-Ken's and the Firebirds' downtown office.

There are no reserved seats for the exhibition game, all tickets are $2 for adults and $1 for students.

Lions Trim Five From Squad

14 Others Slated for Ax Prior to Season's Opener

The Detroit Lions cut five players from their squad Wednesday in their drive to get down to the 40-player limit.

Fourteen more are scheduled to go befoe the weeding out is completed.

* * *

Cut Wednesday were Jim Edgerly, Jack O'Billovich, Art Johnson, Gus Kasapis and Clarence Miles. O'Billovich and Edgerly had tried to make the team last year.

LEG INJURY

O'Billovich, a former Oregon State linebacker, was cut last season after he suffered a knee injury.

Edgerly, a defensive tackle from New Mexico State, suffered a similar injury last year playing with Pontiac in the MFL.

Johnson played college ball at Michigan State as a defensive back and then in Canada for two years before being picked up as a free agent by the Detroit club. Miles, a defensive end at Trinity College, had been dropped by the Green Bay Packers two weeks ago.

* * *

Kasapis, a native Detroiter who played college ball at Iowa, is a defensive lineman and played Canadian ball.

The Lions left for the West Coast today to begin getting ready for their next exhibition game Sunday against the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

Pros Wreck Par in Tuning Games for Hartford Open

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP) — The annual destruction of par figures at Wethersfield Country Club begins today as 146 professionals and amateurs begin the four-day $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Golf Tournament.

Twenty-four of the 49 pros competing in Wednesday's pro-amateur preliminary broke the course standard of 71, led by Bob Goalby's seven-under-par effort of 30-34-64.

The 37-year-old former University of Illinois football player added the $300 pro-am prize to the $72,437 he'd won in 23 tournments this year.

Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass., who makes only rare appearances on the pro tour these days, fashioned a 65. Tommy Aaron, Charles Coody and Bill Matindale shared third place with 67s.

Score Tourney Upsets

MANCHESTER, Mass. (AP) — Two tall girls scored upsets in the second day of play of the Essex Country Club Women's Tennis Tournament Wednesday.

Karen Krantzcke, a 6-foot-2 Australian, defeated fifth-seeded Mary Ann Eisel of St. Louis in a gruelling two-hour match 6-3, 7-9, 6-4.

Still another upset was recorded by Maryna Godwin of South Africa, who stopped Mrs. Donna Fales of New York, 6-8, 6-2, 6-3.

Grid Coach Mending

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — University of Nebraska athletic director and football Coach Bob Devaney was reported doing "very well" following an appendectomy Wednesday morning.

Devaney was admitted to a hospital Tuesday night.

Giant QB's in Tuneup

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Fran Tarkenton and Earl Morrall, veteran quarterbacks, went through a lengthy workout Friday throwing long and short passes as the New York football Giants went through a final hard tuneup for Saturday night's game against Washington at Raleigh, N. C.

PEKIN, Ill. (UPI) -- Kathy Whitworth and Carol Mann, running one-two in the scrap for leading money winner of women's pro golf, were the favorties for the $10,000 Women's Western Open, beginning at the 6,605 yard Pekin Country Club.

Cooley Lake 'Open'

Fisherman's Paradise

Cooley Lake will be a fisherman's paradise until Sept. 11.

Fish of any size and in any quantity can be taken until that date when the Conservation Department will chemically treat the lake to remove the existing fish population.

The liberalized regulations went into effect Aug. 15.

PERMIT REQUIRED

However, any anglers wishing to take advantage of the special ruling will need a permit. These free permits are available at the Pontiac Lake District office Highland and Tull. A fishing license is still required.

Just about any method of fishing will be allowed under the permit.

In addition to the regular hook and line method, anglers can take fish with hand, rubber or spring controlled spears with an attached line of not more than 20 feet in length; bow and arrow; dip nets; landing nets; or by grabbing them by hand.

Lights may be used in spearing at night.

Fishermen who do not have the special permits will have to abide by the regular fishing laws covering size and possession limits.

The lake is being treated to remove an overpopulation of stunted panfish and rough fish. It will be restocked later in the fall or early spring with rainbow and largemouth bass.

Michigan's Peaches in Tennis Quarter-Finals

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Defending champion Peaches Bartkowicz assaulted Laura duPont with rock-speed backhand shots and whipped the North Carolinian, 6-2, 6-0, to advance to the quarter-finals of the 50th U.S. girls lawn tennis championship Wednesday.

* * *

Miss Bartkowicz, of Hamtramck, Mich., reeled off 11 straight victories with a slashing, two-handed backhand that overwhelmed Miss duPont of Charlotte. The Hamtramck ace also had her opponent on the ropes with several fine drop shots.

Yanks Cling to Slim Lead

Germans Surprising U.S. Track Squad

DUESSELDORF, Germany (AP) — The U.S. track and field squad, shaken by their own first night showing against the fiery West Germans, face a fight to regain lost prestige tonight.

* * *

The U.S. aces hold a slender seven-point lead going into the final day of the two-day dual meet.

Only a mighty final heave by chunky hammer thrower Ed Burke of Newport Beach, Calif., and a soaring lead by pole vaulter Dick Railsback of Pasadena, Calif., in Wednesday night's two final events kept the Americans' lead alive by a score of 56-49.

A defeat by West Germany would turn this European tour into a nightmare trip for the U.S. team.

The American team, fresh from its overwhelming victory in London where it won 19 of the 21 events with a 51-point victory margin, was expected to easily defeat West Germany.

NOT FRIGHTENED

But the fighting German squad refused to be overawed by the U.S. reputation.

* * *

The biggest upset was eclipse of U.S. star pole vaulter Bob Seagren of Los Angeles who regularly clears 17 feet and was expected to heard a Yankee maximum points victory.

* * *

Jack, Sanders Held in Check by Lady Pros

BALTIMORE (AP) — Pro golfers Jack Nicklaus and Doug Sanders have learned that the weaker sex is not unnecessarily the inept sex too.

* * *

The Nicklaus-Sanders team played to a tie Wednesday against Kathy Whitworth and Carol Mann, two top women pros who are 1-2 in money winnings on the Ladies Professional Golfers Association tour.

* * *

In fact, it may have been even more of an embarrassment but Nicklaus sank a 15-inch birdie putt to win the final hole and shot a 69 for the match play round. It was played to benefit the Maryland Association of Brain Injured Children.

* * *

Sanders and Miss Whitworth fired 70s, and Miss Mann carded a 71.

Ailing Redleg Hurler Misses in No-Hit Bid

By the Associated Press

The tale of the tape—that's the story of a serious, but unsuccessful bid for the first no-hitter in the 59-year history of Pittsburgh's Forbes Field.

Tape around the right ankle of Cincinnati's Jim Maloney enabled the veteran right-hander to make the bid Wednesday night.

* * *

But it didn't prevent him from aggravating an injury, which forced him to leave in the seventh inning of the game won by Cincinnati 4-0.

Billy McCool took over and was touched for both Pittsburgh hits in the eighth inning.

St. Louis nipped the Chicago Cubs 4-3, Atlanta topped San Francisco 6-3, the New York Mets beat Philadelphia 5-3 and Los Angeles trounced Houston 7-1 in other National League games.

"I was scared," said McCool, who relieved Maloney after he stepped into a hole with his right foot in delivering a fourth ball to Matty Alou, making Alou the first Pirate base runner.

"I wanted it real badly," continued McCool, "but I wished he could have stayed in. I think he might have gotten it."

Maloney declined to talk about what might have been but he did comment about his ankle injury, which he said he suffered last Friday night against Los Angeles.

* * *

"I haven't been able to run on it at all, and the only way I could pitch tonight was because of the tape," he said.

* * *

Jose Pagan kept the Forbes Field jinx against no-hitter intact with a one-out single in the eighth. Jerry May followed with a double but McCool then settled down to preserve the shutout.

TAKE LEAD

Tony Perez' 23rd homer gave the Reds a 2-0 lead in the fourth, and they added another pair in the sixth on Lee May's RBI double and an error.

* * *

First-place St. Louis came up with two runs in the ninth on a two-out bases loaded walk and Alex Johnson's infield hit to beat Chicago. The Cubs had taken a 3-2 lead on Glenn Beckert's two-run homer in the seventh.

* * *

Ron Swoboda was the big gun in New York's victory over Philadelphia. He slammed three hits and drove in four runs.

Hank Aaron's 30th homer, with two on in the third, powered Atlanta past San Francisco as Ken Johnson boosted his record to 13-5.

* * *

Los Angeles broke out of run scoring famine as Jim Lefebvre and pitch Bill Singer each drove in two runs against Houston. Singer also limited the Astros to four hits in bringing his record to 7-4.

Babe Ruth Series Discusses Moving

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — The Babe Ruth World Series will have to be moved from flood-stricken Fairbanks, Alaska, but no decision on where to relocate the baseball series was expected before late Wednesday.

Milt Granett, president of the Babe Ruth League, Inc., said here league officials were meeting in Anchorage to discuss the situation.

The series was to have been played in Fairbanks Aug. 19-27. Granett said all visiting teams had been alerted in time and were being held in their home towns pending a relocation decision.

City-Township Nines Meet in 'B' Tourney

Pontiac's American League champion Ron's Roost is getting another shot at Waterford power Spencer Floors in Class B state district softball tournament action.

* * *

Earlier in the week, Spencer dumped Ron's into the losers bracket by posting a 10-0 victory, but the Roost team earned another shot by eliminating Warren last night, 6-5.

Spencer and Ron's meet this evening at 8 at Beaudette Park. A win for Spencer would end the action and boost that team into the regional. If Ron's wins, a second game would be necessary to determine the district champion.

Ron's scored twice in the first and third innings, once in the fifth and added the winning run in the seventh when Bud Hayward tallied on a fielder's choice. Bud Hayward and Bill Buck led the attack with three hits apiece.

* * *

Midget Bar eliminated Berkley's Merchants in Class D district action, 9-6, last night and will now take on Local No. 594 this evening in the finals of district play. If the bar team wins this evening, a second game would be needed to settle the title.

SPARK ATTACK

Frank Morrow and Bill Goulet picked up two hits each to spark the Midget attack. The winners broke a 4-4 tie with two runs in the fourth and closed it with three more in the fifth.

* * *

In Class C action in Waterford Township, Day's Sanitary Service of Waterford scored four runs in the bottom of the sixth to oust Pontiac Town & Country.

A single, a double and an error brought home two of the runs in the sixth for Day's and pitcher John Herrington tripled home the tying marker and scored the winning run on Ben Traxler's single.

Al Smith picked up two hits and knocked in three runs for Town & Country who bolted to an early 4-1 lead. Paul Atkins and Tom Studt picked up two safeties each for the winners.

The win puts Day's into the finals tomorrow at 7:30 against Holly Jamison Insurance.

* * *

In Class A action, Royal Oak Merchants rolled past Ferndale behind the three-hit, 15-strikeout pitching of Bill Middleton, 10-0. The two play again at 6 tomorrow.

Turbine Craft Winner

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP) — The gas turbine powered Mona Lou II, driven by Odell Lewis of Fond de Lac, Wis., won the two-day Hennessy Cup offshore race Wednesday.

The winner's overall time for the race in the Pacific Ocean from Long Beach to San Diego and back, a distance of 300 miles, was 5 hours 15 minutes 3 seconds.

Mona Lou II, with the same type power plant as the controversial car driven by Parnelli Jones in the Indianapolis 500 race on Memorial Day, placed second both Tuesday and Wednesday to win the title in the third Hennessy event.

Big Broad Jumper, the leader after the first day of racing, suffered an engine failure on the return trip. Bill Wishnick of New York City tried to bring his twin engine craft in on one engine but that conked out near Newport Beach.

Second place went to Don Aronow of Miami Beach, Fla., in his Maltese Magnum IV in 5:38:36.

TURN ABOUT — World lightweight champion Carlos Ortiz (right) turns his back on challenger Ismael Laguna in the eighth round of their title bout in New York's Shea Stadium last night. Ortiz retained his title with a 15-round decision.

Flashy Ortiz Keeps Title; Wants Welter Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Carlos Ortiz, his fifth straight successful lightweight championship defense behind him, had a slightly puffy eye cocked toward bigger and better things.

"Give me two months," the Puerto Rican-born New Yorker said in his dressing room after solidly trouncing Ismael Laguna in 15 rounds Wednesday night, "and I'll be ready to fight again.

"Two months. Then bring on Cokes."

MAKES REFERENCE

The reference was to Curtis Cokes, the world welterweight champion.

"I don't need the money," the happy Ortiz said. "I'm loaded. But I would like to be the first Puerto Rican to hold three titles. I'd like Cokes."

* * *

Ortiz, 30, held the world junior welterweight title before taking the lightweight championship from Joe Brown in 1962. In losing the title to Laguna in his native Panama in 1965 on a 15-round decision, then winning it back seven months later in Puerto Rico.

* * *

This time there was little doubt about it.

The broad-shouldered, powerful Ortiz started and finished strongly, rocking the 24-year-old Laguna repeatedly with a solid right hand.

* * *

In the middle rounds, he let up a bit—"I told him to take it easy, to let Laguna have a couple," manager Bill Daly explained later—and the swift, flashy Panamanian swarmed to the attack to the delight of a group of about 2,500 Panamanians in the shouting, chanting, flag-waving crowd of 19,480 at Shea Stadium.

* * *

Referee Art Mercante and judge Al Berl each had Ortiz ahead in rounds 10-4-1. Judge Jack Gordon had Ortiz the winner 11-3-1. The Associated Press scored for Ortiz 10-4-1.

Oakland Wins Division Title

Clippers Score 3-1 Soccer Victory

By The Associated Press

The Oakland Clippers are the champions of the National Professional Soccer League's Western Division thanks mainly to a spectacular individual performance by Elija Mitic.

* * *

Mitic accounted for all three Clipper goals Wednesday night as Oakland defeated the Chicago Spurs 3-1.

* * *

The Clippers played two-thirds of the game with only 10 men after losing Mario Baesso in the 29th minute of the first half.

* * *

In other games Wednesday night, New York downed Los Angeles 6-4 and Philadelphia blanked Baltimore 1-0.

AAU Meet Starts

Women Tankers Vie

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Mrs. Joel Lenzi O'Connell of the Santa Clara Swim Club defends her one-meter springboard diving crown Thursday as the annual National AAU Women's Outdoor Swimming and Diving Championships get underway in Kelly Pool.

The one meter diving is the only event on the first of a four-day program featuring 350 swimmers and 76 divers competing not only for national crowns, but fall trips to Japan, England and Mexico.

The talented field lists 16 of the 18 winners at the recent Pan American Games in Winnipeg, Canada, and a host of world, national and meet records are expected to fall before the meet winds up Sunday.

On both Friday and Saturday, there will be six events, trials and finals, with the final seven trials and championships Sunday. All competition is slated to end by no later than 6 p.m. each day.

Mrs. O'Connell, a pert blonde from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., seeks her third straight AAU one meter springboard title and will have to out dive some formidable opponents to accomplish the feat.

The field includes last year's runnerup, Jerri Adair of the Rita Curtis Swimming Association; Patty Simms of Arcadia, Calif.; Micki King of Pontiac; Cynthia Potter of Houston; Sue Gossick, Tarzana, Calif., runnerup indoors and sixth outdoors, and Lesley Bush, the Olympic platform diving champion who won the indoor title and is fresh from a platform title in the Pan American Games.

WMGA Golfer Gets 3rd Win

Mrs. Panasiuk Fires 82 at Bald Mountain

Canadian Mrs. Nick Panasiuk continues to hold a hot hand in the weekly Women's Metropolitan Golf Association outings.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Panasiuk, from Elmstead, Ont., saved the best for last, yesterday as she birdied the final two holes at Bald Mountain Golf Club to capture her third victory of the season in the weekly competition.

The birdies gave her a 43-39—82 and a one-stroke victory over Mrs. Midge Cova of Novi and Mrs. David Mortimer of Birmingham.

Mrs. Panasiuk, who used up 31 putts in her round, rolled in a 40-footer on No. 17 and banged home a 10-footer at No. 18.

The victory was her third of the season, and along with her wins, she has grabbed the runner-up spot five times.

City Slow Pitch Leader Gains Finals in Playoffs

Defending champion MGM-Shales continues to play just well enough to win in its efforts to hang onto the city's Slow-Pitch softball championship.

The hard-hitting MGM crew gained the finals of the upper division Slow-Pitch playoffs last night with an 8-7 victory over Wagon Wheel, the second one-run triumph for the MGM team in as many nights.

The win moved MGM into tonight's game against unbeaten Chalet Inn at 6:45 at Beaudette Park. If MGM wins, a second game will be necessary to determine the winner. If Chalet wins tonight, it will represent the city in district tournament play which opens next week.

MGM downed Pontiac Press Tuesday night by scoring the winning run in the last of the seventh, 7-6, and last night the squad picked up the winning marker in the last of the sixth on Fred Hanzek's single.

★ ★ ★

EARLY LEAD

MGM jumped off to an early lead with two runs on two hits in the first and Pound's three-run homer in the second. Larry Olsen tightened the game with a two-run blow in the fifth.

★ ★ ★

In lower-bracket Slow-Pitch playoffs, Moose 812 advanced to the second round by downing Hagen Shell, 8-7, and Dave Grubbs' Kennels was eliminated after forfeiting to Sport-O-Rama.

Moose used six hits and an error to produce six runs in the first and held on to down Hagen. Hal Hooker, Dick Davis and Larry McCarlin picked up two hits apiece for the winners.

Sport-O-Rama takes on Moose this evening at 6:45 at Northside. The loser meets Hagen Shell on Monday at 8:30 at Northside with the winner of that game moving into the finals on Tuesday.

Hurls No-Hitter in Junior Play

Ron Gleason hurled a no-hitter here yesterday in pitching Roseville to victory in state regional junior baseball tournament action.

★ ★ ★

The fastballing Gleason fanned six and walked five in blanking Dearborn Heights, 9-0. Along with his pitching, Gleason rapped out three singles to spark the Roseville offense.

★ ★ ★

In a Class F regional scrap, Saginaw came up with one run in the second and two more in the third to down East Detroit, 3-2. Jerry McCoy scattered four hits to pick up the win.

U.S. Skiers Tops Field

FARELLONES, Chile (AP)—Jerry Elliott of the United States won the 26th Kandahar of the Andes ski competition held last weekend in this Andean town.

Champ Upset in Canadian Golf Tourney

VICTORIA, B. C. (AP)—Nick Weslock, the defending champion from Burlington, Ont. was upset in the first round of match play Wednesday in the Canadian Amateur Golf Championship. He was beaten by Winnipeg's Nick Mickowski, a former National Hockey League player with the New York Rangers, 3 and 2.

Jim Weeks of San Diego, Calif., beat Johnny Johnston of Vancouver, 1-up, and Dick Runkle of Los Angeles routed Dick Dallagiacomo, Redding, Calif., 7 and 6. Mike Reasor, Longview, Wash., lost to Ben Kern, Cooksville, Ont. 3 and 1.

Sports Picture Remains Hazy

Solution Not Near, Says Spokesman

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. James B. Pearson said today the controversy over control of amateur sports in the United States appears no closer to a solution despite the efforts of an arbitration panel.

★ ★ ★

"I fear that it may become mandatory for the Congress to legislate a settlement in the interest of the athletes themselves and of the United States as a whole," the Kansas Republican said.

★ ★ ★

Pearson made his statement as the Senate Commerce Committee undertook to review in two days of hearings the status of efforts to resolve the dispute between the National Collegiate Athletic Association — NCAA — and the amateur Athletic Union — AAU.

★ ★ ★

Theodore Kheel of New York, chairman of the NCAA-AAU arbitration board appointed by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in December, 1965, was to report on the situation as it now exists and what hope, if any, he foresees for a solution to the controversy.

Muskegon Wins Tourney Opener

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)— Third baseman John Chapple swung the big bat in the nightcap of a five - game baseball card Wednesday as he led Muskegon, Mich., to an 8 - 5 victory over Lawton, Okla.

It was the first - round game for both teams in the double elimination, National Semipro Baseball tournament.

In earlier games Ocala, Fla., eliminated Middlesex, N. C., 4-3; Kokomo, Ind., ousted Jackson, Miss., 4-1; Sloan, N. Y., defeated Plymouth, N. H., 15-5, and Boulder, Colo., the defending national champion, defeated Tucson, Ariz., 6-4.

Totals 5,058 Points

Swede Wins Pentathlon

NEWTOWN SQUARE, Pa. (AP) — Bjorn Ferm, a 23-year-old Swedish graduate student, won the U.S. Modern Pentathlon championship Wednesday, finishing with a total 5,058 points in the five events.

Ferm finished first in fencing, fifth in target shooting, sixth in the 300-meter swim and fourth in the cross-country run earlier in the week and clinched the title despite finishing out of the top five in the steeplechase ride Wednesday.

Bill Sickels, a former quarter-miler at The Citadel, captured the riding Wednesday. He rode flawlessly over 17 obstacles and finished under the required three minutes for a perfect score of 1,100 points.

Behind Ferm in the over-all championship were four Americans: Capt. Bill Matheson, U.S. Army; Capt. Don Walheim, U.S. Army; Lous Cotton of Chico State and Dr. Robert Beck of Boston.

Matheson had 4,826 points; Walheim, 4,817; Cotton, 4,758; and Beck, 4,569.

The four will represent the U.S. in the world championships, in Sweden, late next month.

FOULED UP—Foredeck crewmen struggle to clear jib fouled over the spinnaker pole of the Columbia as her America's Cup rival Intrepid sails clear in the background with her pole in place. Intrepid held onto the lead to win the second straight race in the Cup trials finals. Columbia's miscue came at the start of the final downwind run as the jib was dropped and crewmen started to hoist the spinnaker which cannot fill until the pole is cleared.

Winner Meets Aussie Yacht

Lack of Wind Slows Cup Trials

NEWPORT, R.I. (UPI) — The final series of trials to determine a U.S. yacht to defend the Old Mug in the America's Cup Races next month against Australian challenger Dame Pattie once again is having trouble with the weather—or lack of it.

The third series of preliminary races started Tuesday and the four 12-meter sloops vying for the U.S. berth in the best-of-seven competition opening Sept. 12 were slowed by light winds, although they finished the races.

The same thing happened Wednesday and the day's races finally were washed out when none of the boats finished by the 6 p.m. deadline.

The Wednesday pairings — favored Intrepid versus Columbia and Constellation against American Eagle—were not carried over to today.

SAME COURSE

The boats compete over the same 24.3-mile course, which starts at the America's Cup buoy off Brenton Reef light tower, that will be used in next month's ocean-going "world series."

It marks the first time such a practice has been observed since the prelims were held on different courses from the actual cup course.

The selection committee of the New York Yacht Club, home of the Old Mug since the yacht America first won it in 1851, has until Sept. 5 to make a decision on who will oppose Pattie. This country never has lost the mug since winning the first race.

* * *

Intrepid, unbeaten in last month's trials and beaten by Eagle only when trouble occurred in the first series on Long Island Sound, is regarded as the eventual opponent for the Aussie sloop.

Skippered by Bus Mosbacher, the boat has gotten better with each race.

Intrepid led Columbia by about a minute and a half after the first mark in Wednesday's race and maintained her lead. Connie held the half-way lead over Eagle but the lack of wind — very light winds, actually — crippled the effort and no one finished.

* * *

Some 75 spectator boats — as well as the crew of Dame Pattie — watched the competition under hazy skies that limited visibility to about three miles.

Pattie, skippered by Jock Sturrock, has been holding her own drills near the course to get familiar with the winds and waters.

Canada Grid Coach Fired

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — Head Coach Dave Skrien was fired Wednesday by the Vancouver Lions of the Canadian Football League.

Jim Champion, an assistant coach the past two seasons with the National Football League St. Louis Cardinals, was named to replace him.

Pro Gridders Slate Full

From Our Wire Services

The jolly green giants from Green Bay, minus the Jim Taylor-made power which carried them to the world championship of pro football last season, clash with Chicago's Monsters of the Midway Friday night and the thud you hear could be one of the worst falls taken by the Bears under the George Halas regime.

Taylor now is doing his marching for the New Orleans Saints. His absence wasn't even noticed last Saturday when the Packers put down the Pittsburgh Steelers 31-20.

Donny Anderson, a half-million dollar bonus beauty, signalled he was ready for full-time action as he scored on a 50-yard run and threw a 63-yard touchdown pass.

The Bears are on the front-end of an ironman stint, two games in five days. Chicago takes on the Kansas City Chiefs of the American Football League next Wednesday.

The Denver Broncos go after their second victory over an NHL team when they host the Minnesota Vikings in the only other exhibition game scheduled Friday night.

TWO PERFECT CLUBS

Two other perfect record NFL clubs seek to protect their records when Los Angeles 2-0 entertains Cleveland 0-2 and Washington 1-0 plays New York 0-0-1 at Raleigh, N.C., Saturday night.

Other games on tap that evening pit New Orleans against Pittsburgh at Baton Rouge, La., and inter-league games between Atlanta and Miami in the Orange Bowl and Philadelphia vs. New York at Cincinnati.

San Diego is home to Detroit Sunday in the fourth inter-league meeting of the weekend. Dallas is at San Francisco in a Sunday NFL game and Baltimore visits St. Louis Monday night.

In the AFL, Kansas City, the defending league champion, goes after its third straight pre-season victory against Oakland, 2-0 at Portland, Ore., Saturday

Boat Deaths Down, Injuries Were Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Coast Guard reported Monday a one per cent drop in the number of deaths last year from boating accidents, but said the number of accidents, injuries and property damage increased substantially.

* * *

In its annual summary of boating, the Coast Guard said accidents apparently increased 10 per cent during 1966 but some of this probably resulted from better reporting techniques.

Last year, there were 4,350 reported boating accidents, the Coast Guard said, compared with 3,740 the year before.

But Adm. Willard J. Smith, Coast Guard commandant, cautioned that the entire increase cannot be attributed to better statistics.

* * *

"Boating may not be as safe as ever," he warned.

BIG RISE

The Coast Guard called astonishing a 67 per cent rise in personal injuries and a 55 per cent increase in property damage sustained by boats during 1966.

* * *

Injuries rose from 927 in 1965 to 1,555 last year, the report showed.

Of the 5,567 boats involved in accidents during 1966, total damages of more than $7 million were sustained by 3,226 of them, a $2.5 million increase over 1965.

At the end of 1966, the nation's boating fleet was estimated at 8.2 million craft, 200,000 more than the total a year earlier.

* * *

Capsizing remained the main cause of fatal boating accidents last year. Almost half the victims—621—died as a result of a capsized boat. The Coast Guard said that except in the most unusual cases, persons should remain with an overturned boat.

Coach Shares Polo Grounds Slugging Mark

NEW YORK — (NEA)—Joe Adcock, now manager of the Cleveland Indians, is one of only three players to homer into the distant centerfield bleachers of the Polo Grounds.

* * *

Joe jolted a Jim Hearn (Giants) fastball the 470-plus feet from home plate on April 29, 1953, while playing with the Milwaukee Braves.

* * *

Hank Aaron of the Braves did it June 18, 1962, and Lou Brock, then with the Cubs, reached the seats the night before — both against the Mets.

Babe Ruth hit a couple into the general vicinity but that was when the seats were closer in than the present location.

Market Remains Higher

Gains Outnumber Losses, 3-2

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market remained higher early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Gains outnumbered losses by a ratio of about 3 to 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 3.88 at 919.56.

Brokers said the average was once again bouncing off the support level represented by 910-915 in the Dow industrials.

GOOD NEWS

At the same time, they said the market had the benefit of some encouraging economic news: the rise in industrial production, the jump in housing starts and the narrowing of the United States' unfavorable balance of international payments.

Selective strength among blue chips and some of the merger-oriented issues highlighted the session.

The Associated Press industrial average at noon was up .3 at 337.9 with industrials up 1.6, rails off .2 and utilities off .4.

Allis-Chalmers was very active and up more than 2 points as it warmed up again to the raised offer by Ling-Temco-Vought for the proposed merger.

Gains of about a point were made by Sperry Rand, Glen Alden, Curtiss Wright and Consolidated Cigar, the latter spurred by a reported merger agreement with Gulf & Western.

* * *

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Associated Oil & Gas was active and up a fraction. Sperry Rand warrants advanced more than a point.

Other active fractional gainers included Asamera Oil, United Asbestos, Technicolor, Gale Industries, Great American Industries, Dynalectron and Ryan Consolidated Petroleum.

B52 Targets: Hidden Camps

Engineers Rip Cong Tunnel, Bunker Setup

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers kept trying today to destroy hidden enemy camps in the A Shau Valley after Army engineers spent 45 days ripping out a huge Vietcong tunnel and bunker system in the An Lao Valley. The A Shau area, on the Laotian border almost directly west of Da Nang in northern South Vietnam, had been the target of more than 50 previous raids by the eight-engine bombers and of hundreds of fighter-bomber strikes.

* * *

But these have failed to destroy the camps east and west of the valley or to close permanently a 25-mile road which carries heavy truck traffic from the Communists' road network in Laos.

The B52s struck the northern part of the valley Wednesday night, aiming at suspected base camps, rest areas and storage facilities. A second raid today pounded suspected infiltration routes, storage areas, weapons positions and fortified areas about 12 miles farther south.

Supporting American ground forces, the B52s also attacked suspected enemy troop concentrations near coastal Bong Son, about 325 miles north of Saigon.

U.S. Army engineers said that for the time being, the rugged An Lao Valley, running inland from the coast of central Binh Dinh Province 260 miles northeast of Saigon, is useless as a Red hideout and supply area.

The valley had been the scene of repeated ambushes and battles. But the engineers said Wednesday they had finished plowing up the Communist fortifications that included 820 log and dirt bunkers and almost four miles of trenches.

Weather limited air raids against North Vietnam to the southern panhandle region for the second straight day Wednesday. Air Force pilots reported destroying three pieces of railroad rolling stock and three trucks and tearing up rail lines in several places.

DAMAGE REPORTED

Navy pilots said they destroyed or damaged two bridges, 44 supply barges, three trucks and a ferry.

The U.S. Command did not report any U.S. planes shot down, but an Army helicopter on an assault mission in South Vietnam was destroyed Wednesday by eneny ground fire near Duc Co in the central highlands 275 miles north of Saigon. There were no casualties. Only scattered skirmishes were reported in the ground war. U.S. Marines reported killing 15 Communists in two clashes in Operation Cochise near coastal Tam Ky, about 340 miles northeast of Saigon. Four Marines were killed and 11 wounded.

News in Brief

Damage to a bulldozer and loading machine parked at 5471 Crescent, Waterford Township, was reported to police yesterday by Ernest Spurgeon, who said said the monetary extent of the vandalism was undetermined.

Ralph Dikeman Jr. of 6858 Longworth, Waterford Township, told police yesterday that the top of his convertible was damaged by an object thrown from a passing car at Cass and Elizabeth Lake raods.

Listings, Growth Help It Work

Dart Theory Analyzed

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK — Those who seek to get under the skin of the mutual fund industry are now throwing darts at lists of corporate stocks and claiming a better investment record than the funds' highly paid managers. The latest to make his point was Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H., who claimed his dart picked a list of stocks that have risen in a 10-year period from $10,000 to $25,300. No fund can match this record.

CUNNIFF

Earlier this year some highly respected economists said about the same thing, and at least one university study came to the same conclusion after a long investigation that involved billions of electronic calculations.

The dart theory, therefore, is backed by the reputations of scholars and universities, but it is not their discovery. The dart theory has long been used by bettors at racetracks all over the country. The only variation is that a needle instead of a dart is plunged into the racing program.

If the method has developed a following at racetracks, where the running stock sometimes includes some real losers, why shouldn't it develop a following on the stock market, where the entries generally are of high quality?

CHANCES BETTER

If betters claim—and their claim is subject to doubt—success with the dart method at racetracks, where there is only one winner per race, isn't it likely to work also on the stock market, where there are sometimes hundreds of winners a day?

Whatever their faults, the stocks listed on major exchanges generally represent the soundest corporations in America. The fact is that stocks must be winners to begin with in order to be listed on reputable exchanges. Strict requirements concerning profitability must be met. If they are not, the stock may be delisted.

* * *

On the New York Stock Exchange, the nation's largest, listing requirements include a degree of national interest in the stock, wide distribution of shares, earning power of more than $2 million a year before taxes, one million shares minimum outstanding, and at least 2,000 shareholders.

If these requirements are not maintained, the company could become a candidate for delisting. For instance, if the company's assets decline sharply and its earnings drop below $400,000 for three years in a row, delisting action might begin.

OTHER REASONS

There are other reasons also for the success of the dart theory, the primary one being the expansion of the American economy. An expanding economy means expansion also for the corporations doing the work.

Back in 1956 the nation's Gross National Product, the total of all its goods and services produced, was just a bit more than $400 billion. Sometime next year it will achieve a rate of about $800 billion a year.

This growth in output means that many of the companies that existed back in 1956, when McIntyre's theoretical list was compiled, have grown tremendously. Proof can be shown in a dozen ways. Consider this one:

In 1956 some 1,087 companies with a share value of about $220 billion were listed on the Big Board. Ten years later this list of companies had grown less than 25 per cent—but the share value was close to $600 billion.

NO MYSTERY

Evidence such as this takes the mystery out of the dart theory. Almost anybody can score a bull's eye if the board is full of bull's-eyes, as is the stock market board during a period of economic expansion.

But beware of the dart theory; it belongs at the racetrack or in a game of chance. For a person seriously to use the random or dart approach to picking stocks would be to deny his own intelligence.

The theory might work, but most investors need more assurance than that, and that assurance can come only from studying the available information about any corporation before investing.

Water Main Exhibit to Be Shown Here

Ever see a water main so big you could walk through it with your arms outstretched and not touch the sides?

Such a pipe, outfitted with displays describing area water supply and pollution control programs, will be at the Pontiac Mall during business hours tomorrow and Saturday.

The 28-ton pipe display is planned by the Detroit Department of Water Supply which serves Pontiac. The walk-in exhibit is a local tie-in with the national promotion of Water Week by the American Water Works Association.

Water mains like the size of the one being used for display are currently being laid to form a giant pipe line that will eventually reach from the Detroit system to Flint and Lake Huron.

The pipe, carrying a "Water Service Is Our Business" sign, is 35 feet long, 10 feet wide, and 13 feet high.

Teachers Rebuff Romney on Detroit School Talks

DETROIT (AP) — Gov. George Romney was rebuffed today in efforts to get Detroit school officials and teachers to resume bargaining on a labor contract and to avoid a delay in scheduled school opening next month.

Romney urged that nogotiators get together again immediately rather than to wait until Aug. 28, when contract talks are slated to resume.

* * *

But Mary Ellen Riordan, president of the Detroit Federation of Teachers, told Romney in a heated exchange that the teachers are standing fast on their original position and will not come back to the bargaining table before then.

The remarks were made at a special meeting called by Romney in an attempt to get negotiations reactivated. They were recessed last June 23 at the request of the teachers' union.

Mrs. Riordan said that there was no possibility of contacting all of Detroit's teachers for a meeting at which they might reconsider their original decision.

She said they are scattered "all over the world" bettering their own backgrounds and educational abilities and therefore would not be available for any such vote.

* * *

"We believe the issues can be resolved between Aug. 28 and the opening of school," she said.

Mrs. Riordan said that resolving the teacher contract issues before school opening day Sept. 5 would be far easier for both parties "had the governor fulfilled his responsibilities to the schools last spring before the legislature adjourned."

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q) "I purchased A. J. Industries at 7⅞. The stock has done nothing. I have received no dividends from the company and not much information except a year-end statement. I don't know what is due me as a stockholder, so I am asking your advice." H.K.

A) You apparently made the not uncommon mistake of buying a stock about which you knew very little at the time of purchase. People frequently do this because they consider that a low-priced stock is cheap simply because it is low priced. This is not necessarily so.

Your company was formerly engaged in gold mining under the name of Alaska Juneau. It is now mainly in the military equipment business and earnings appear largely dependent on the Vietnam war. No dividends have been paid for many years and none seem immediately in prospect. The shares have doubled in price in 1967 and now sell near their ten-year high, which is where you came in. Financial reports, published quarterly, should be available to you through your broker. The company is under no obligation to send you more than you are now receiving. Your shares are speculative but earnings are reported to be in a strong uptrend and I would hold for the present.

Q) "The airlines have not been acting well in a strong market. Don't you think they are the best group for long-term growth?" L.C.

A) I wouldn't put it quite as strongly as that, although the growth outlook certainly seems very promising. Some of the airlines have been showing margins from rising expenses and a restricted rate structure. I think that several of the more performance-conscious funds have been selling airlines, which may have contributed to their lacklustre action. I like them for longterm holding, particularly Pacific Southwest which operates entirely within the state of California.

Mexico Now Invites Sinatra to Return—and Make a Film

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Mexico, which barred Frank Sinatra because he made a movie in which the Mexican flag was inadvertently flown upside down, has invited him to reenter the country whenever he chooses . . . and make another movie . . . about Mexico.

WILSON

"We need a hundred Sinatra's to help us build Mexico," said Ollalo Rubio Jr., a Mexican producer who has been here spreading the word about Sinatra being invited back, particularly to Acapulco, where he has a home.

Former President Miguel Aleman Sr., now president of Mexican Tourism, plus the department of interior and the labor unions telegraphed Sinatra that his visa had been reinstated.

Then Rubio outlined the specific movie project to Henri Gine of Sinatra's staff. They want to film "The Road to Mexico" with Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis and Cantinflas—a story about American tourists who discover the charms of the country, not only architectural but feminine.

I am now a proud father-in-law. Earl Jr. and bride Susan Bauer are honeymooning somewhere in beautiful New Jersey after the ceremony at St. Peter's Lutheran Church . . . Truman Capote's fixing up a motion-picture redo of "Laura" for Lee Radziwill. That's what they say he said at Dick Ridgely's in Southampton.

Juanita Hall is being moved to Medical Arts Hospital to be treated for pernicious anemia among other ailments. You who contributed to "the Juanita Hall Fund" deserve her thanks.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Secret Stuff: A NY nightclub operator, bored flying back from Europe, going into a blackjack game with a fellow passenger and lost $18,000 . . . A film producer enraged the wife of a famous composer by "borrowing" her ideas for house decoration while there for dinner, incorporating it in his own pad, and then getting publicity about it as "his" . . . Paris believes beautiful Genevieve Bujold, who appears opposite Jean-Paul Belmondo in "The Thief of Paris," could be the new sex rocket.

Ann-Margret was out of her Las Vegas Riviera act with laryngitis. Her substitute: husband Roger Smith (aided by Vic Damone) . . . Mariner 5 Makes Half-Way Point

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Mariner 5 spacecraft is now halfway into its 128-day flight to the planet Venus.

The 540-pound space vehicle, launched June 14, is due to fly within 2,500 miles of Venus' surface and relay data on the planet's atmosphere and space surroundings back to earth.

Syndicate Buys Control of Four Star Television

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Controlling interest in Four Star Television, founded in 1955 by the late Dick Powell and other motion picture stars, has been sold to a syndicate.

The firm produces television film series, music sheets and recordings.

* * *

Attorney A. Morgan Maree III, former corporate secretary, said today the sale was closed Tuesday.

The transaction reportedly involved about $1 million, or $2.50 a share, for stock held by David Niven, Charles Boyer and June Allyson, Powell's widow.

NO COMMENT

Maree, son of board member A. Morgan Maree Jr., declined to make details of the sale public. David Charnay and Louis Blacker, investors reported to be heading the syndicate of 15 members, would not comment until a statement by their attorney is prepared.

The firm's stock traded over the counter Wednesday at $6.38 a share. The firm's sales hit a peak of $24 million in 1961 but fell to $20 million last year.

* * *

Powell's estate owned 213,000 of the 665,950 outstanding shares. Boyer owned 107,000.

Only Balky Firms Fined by Air Rules

LANSING (AP) — Industries not measuring up to new air pollution rules won't be prosecuted as long as they can prove they are attempting to remedy their problems, says an official of the State Department of Public Health.

Only "totally uncooperative" firms may find themselves paying the $100 a day fine provided for in the new regulations, said Bernard D. Bloomfield, assistant chief of the division of occupational health.

The rules, which took effect earlier this week, set specific limits on emission for various types of industry.

Trailer Bandit Robs Branch

DETROIT (AP) — This city's "trailer bank bandit," so dubbed by police, Wednesday held up an East Side branch office of a savings and loan office at gunpoint and made off with $4,685.

* * *

The bandit over the past two years has stolen about $50,000, police say, all from branch banks, usually in the suburbs and often temporarily housed in trailers.

The Detroit News has offered a $2,000 reward for conviction of the bandit, described by witnesses as a Negro of medium height and build.

Filipino Actor Province Politico

MANILA (UPI)—A Philippine movie actor who has played in several Hollywood productions is running for governor of nearby Rizal Province.

Actor Pancho Magalona, whose screen credits include "Marauders," the last film in which the late Jeff Chandler starred, was named the Liberal party candidate Wednesday. He will run against incumbent Gov. Isidro Rodriguez of the governing Nacionalista party in the November election.

Aide Promoted at Interlochen

INTERLOCHEN (AP)—Verne Hawes has been promoted from guidance consultant to assistant director of the Interlochen Arts Academy, Karl Haas, academy president, announced Wednesday.

His appointment is the second change in the academy's administration since June when Charles Eilber was moved up from principal to director.

Citizen Vote Set on Dearborn Frisk Law

DEARBORN (AP)—Voters in this Detroit suburb will be asked their opinion in the Sept. 12 primary about the controversial stop-and-frisk law.

The City Council, acting on the recommendation of Mayor Orville L. Hubbard, voted to place the advisory question on the ballot following a stormy session Tuesday night.

* * *

Councilman John Baja, who dissented, termed the advisory vote a "waste of time," adding the law should be enacted and left to the courts to determine its legality.

The law, considered in Detroit briefly, has not been drawn into legal form in Dearborn, but in essence would allow police officers to stop and search any person suspected of criminal action or intent.

'OVERWHELMING SUPPORT'

Hubbard, mayor of Dearborn's 112,000 residents for 27 years, and considered a proponent of the separate but equal theory of civil rights, said he felt "99 and 44-100th per cent of the people in Dearborn" would support the plan.

Hubbard said policemen would "never abuse the law" by detaining or unnecessarily embarrassing innocent citizens.

* *

"The police know who the lawbreakers are," the mayor said.

Draft Error Gets His Discharge

FT. BRAGG, N. C. (UPI) — Pfc. Leslie E. Brown didn't hate to get up this morning — it's the day he becomes plain Mr. Brown.

* * *

Brown, victor over the Pentagon, is a civilian again after five months of Army duty he shouldn't have served. He was drafted by mistake.

"All I want is time to get back on my feet," said Brown, adding he would be on his way home to Oreland, Pa., by noon.

The 23-year-old Brown said he was not bitter. The Army gave him a soft job as clerk in the company office during most of the five months of mistaken service.

* * *

"I think those five months active time should be compensated for in reserve time," said Brown.

* * *

Brown served six months active duty in late 1965 and early 1966, and then entered the Pennsylvania National Guard. But the Guard goofed and put him on a "delinquent" list. The Army drafted him March 21 despite his protests.

Nondrivers Get State Identification Cards

DETROIT (UPI) — A state representative and his wife today were to get the first state identification cards for nondrivers. Both are totally blind.

Rep. Robert D. Mahoney, D-Detroit, and his wife, Jennie, were to be presented the cards under a new program to give legally blind persons official identification that sighted persons take for granted.

Mahoney, of course, sponsored the legislation to set up the program. Secretary of State James M. Hare, who was to make the presentation, said he hoped it would soon be expanded to include other non-drivers who for reasons of age or physical handicaps can't get a driver's license that so many merchants require for identification.

Farmer Group Warns of National Boycott

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The militant National Farmers Organization has given the nation's food processors an ultimatum: Increase prices for farm products or face an all-out market boycott by farmers that could "shut down the agricultural plant of America."

More than 35,000 NFO members shouted their approval of the plan and adopted the slogan, "No prices, no production," at a meeting yesterday.

No deadline for the desired price boosts was set, but NFO President Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., indicated that the board of directors will not hesitate to consider the all-commodity boycott if market conditions fail to improve.

"The NFO is serving notice that farmers can no longer accept the low farm prices we are receiving," he said.

"Every processor has some time to decide whether he wants to pay the prices and sign the purchase contracts or push the American farmer into waging the economic battle we are willing to fight."

HOLDING ACTIONS

NFO members also authorized the directors to order holding actions of three to four days on milk plus regional market boycotts on livestock and to establish an NFO "grain bank" in hopes of putting a "floor" under grain prices.

Staley announced the NFO target on prices is $1.50 a bushel on corn; $3 a bushel on soybeans and $2 for wheat. On milk it is $6 a hundredweight, about 75 cents over the prevailing price in the Des Moines federally regulated market.

"It is time we tackle the grain situation," Staley said. "Farmers face $1 corn, $2.25 soybeans and $1.30 wheat this fall.

"Our grain bank will enable farmers to store and hold their grain, get the government loans and let NFO bargain for higher prices."

LIVESTOCK TARGET

The target on livestock is $22.45 a hundredweight on hogs, $32.45 on choice cattle and $29.45 for lambs, well above prevailing markets.

Staley said the interim measures would "let the processors of this nation know that we are building for an all-out holding action that would affect every commodity and would shut down the agricultural plant of America."

★ ★ ★

"It is not our desire to fight an economic battle that would deprive this nation of its food," he added, "but nobody else is going to fairly price our products."

Combat Deaths 82 for Week, Lowest of Year

SAIGON (AP) — American combat deaths in Vietnam numbered 82 last week, the lowest weekly casualty toll in seven months, the U. S. Command announced today.

The number of wounded was 748, also the lowest figure since the first of this year.

The decline in casualties was a reflection of the lull in ground fighting which has now lasted about five weeks, with few significant engagements reported.

The previous week's casualties were 146 American dead and 1,064 wounded, which is slightly below this year's average.

The U. S. Command said 1,043 Communist troops were killed last week, which is also the lowest figure this year.

S. VIET TOLL

The South Vietnamese armed forces suffered 283 dead and 683 wounded during the week, which is above average. Their high casualties stemmed largely from isoalted actions.

The weekly casualty report listed 18 dead among other allied forces in South Vietnam, mainly the South Koreans and Australians who do not announce precise weekly casualties.

American forces in Vietnam totaled 454,000, unchanged from the previous week.

Communist strength was estimated as 297,000, also unchanged from the previous week.

Americans listed as missing, captured or detained now total 709 for the war, an increase of nine during the week.

The week's death toll brought America's losses in the war to 12,497 killed and 76,630 wounded by unofficial count

Car Talks Cut Short; UAW Rallies Ranks

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers union and the Big Three auto makers cut short their six weeks of negotiations today with unionists going home to build fires they hope will smoke out new contract offers.

★ ★ ★

Current three-year UAW pacts with end Sept. 6 — less than three weeks away.

Thus the union bargainers insist they have been unable to coax agreement on a single contract clause—economic or otherwise—from any of the companies.

They express apprehension and say time is growing short if nonstrike agreements are to be reached covering the Big Three's nearly 700,000 UAW members.

★ ★ ★

The companies have yet to make a counteroffer to what UAW President Walter P. Reuther concedes is "the longest and most ambitious set of demands" in his union's history. Among other things they include a guaranteed annual income.

HISTORICAL PRACTICE

The companies insist that historically their proposals are made only seven to 14 days before expiration of old contracts. As of today there are 20 days left. The companies appear unhurried.

Ford and the UAW were to break off negotiations for the weekend today, permitting union bargainers to return to their home locals to confer with negotiators working on at-the-plant agreements which supplement the national contract.

While home, the Ford UAW negotiators are expected to plump for overwhelming appraisal in voting next week on a proposal authorizing them to call a strike.

No meeting is planned at GM tomorrow, and union bargainers are expected to get back home to urge a big voting turnout to strengthen their hand at the bargaining table.

Douglas Fraser, UAW Chrysler director, brought his local union leaders to Detroit last week for the dual purpose of whipping up a big strike authorization vote and to decide which, if any, issues before local-level bargainers should be moved to the national negotiations table.

Vietnam War Issues Seen Plaguing Potential 1968 Republican Candidates

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON — Republican Gov. George Romney of Michigan is demonstrating the difficulty potential 1968 GOP candidates are encountering

News Analysis

in standing still on a Vietnam war position in this summer of political discontent.

Romney, an all-but-announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination, was first classed as a dove, moved over among the hawks, and now is joining the critics of the North Vietnam bombing he once supported.

While House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan shrugged off his differences with his governor. Romney's contention that bombing would never end the war contrasted with Ford's call last week for a stepup in air attacks.

Romney was not the only Republican having second thoughts.

GETTING DISCOURAGED

Chafee, who will head the GOP Governors' Association next year, told a Providence, R.I., news conference yesterday he is getting discouraged with the progress of the war and is altering his position on the bombing issue because "we're not winning to the extent we originally felt we were going to.'

Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., who has been moving steadily toward ever sharper criticism of President Johnson's war policies, told a Cincinnati, Ohio, audience that if its allies don't put up more fight the United States "must ask itself how much more it is willing to expend on a war to protect primarily Asian interests."

At Springfield, Ill., Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., said although the Republicans are not making the war a campaign issue, "it's more of an issue with the people than ever before."

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, has endorsed the bombing of military targets near Red China which Percy criticized. Their differences over Vietnam policy may have something to do with Percy's reputed willingness to become Illinois' favorite-son candidate at next year's GOP presidential nominating convention.

BROKE SILENCE

In Minneapolis, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon broke a lengthy silence on the Vietnam issue to say he approves extension of the bombing of the North.

★ ★ ★

But Nixon, considered another contender for the GOP presidential nomination, warned a news conference the United States faces a "massive risk" if it doesn't end the war soon.

★ ★ ★

In an earlier speech yesterday, Nixon said he agrees with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower that the war shouldn't be made a partisan issue in the 1968 campaign.

Surveys Boost Nixon's Hopes

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — While Richard M. Nixon endorsed the latest expansion of U.S. bombing in North Vietnam, a poll gave fresh support to his potential candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

The former vice president told a news conference yesterday he won't decide until early next year whether to run for the GOP nimination. If he does, said Nixon, he'll enter "a number of primaries" and withdraw if he doesn't win these tests.

The American Broadcasting Co. said in New York, meanwhile, that its poll of delegates to the 1964 Republican convention shows a near majority of respondents prefers Nixon in 1968.

Gov Ronald Reagan of California, who hasn't yet completed his first year of elective office, was a second choice—and showed surprising strength among the former delegates as an expected vote-getter.

The ABC poll, to be aired tonight on "Who in '68?", drew responses from 938 delegates, or 71.1 per cent of those who attended the 1964 convention. Of the total responding, 614 said they expected to be delegates next year.

Nixon received 48.5 per cent support as a potential candidate compared with Reagan's 17.1 per cent. But as the projected best vote-getter, Nixon dropped to 39.9 per cent while Reagan climbed to 25.9 per cent.

In a Minneapolis speech and at the news conference, Nixon, despite backing the bombing within 10 miles of Red China, scored the Johnson administration on three issues likely to loom large in 1968-Vietnam, taxes and crime.

Sicily Volcano Erupts

MESSINA, Sicily (AP) — Mt. Etna burst into a new eruption today 24 hours after 37 earth shocks were registered in this nearby city which was destroyed in 1908 by an earthquake.

Molton rock was fired hundreds of feet into the air in the new eruption. Lava began pouring from a vent on the volcano's northeast slope where there have been frequent eruptions during the past two years.

Fire Hits London Hotel

LONDON (AP) — Fire swept through upper floors of London's Prince of Wales Hotel today, forcing hundreds of guests into the street in their night clothes. No injuries were reported.

Fifty firemen brought the blaze under control in an hour.

Cooling Showers on the Way

Partly sunny skies are expected to bring a high today of 83 to 89. Gathering clouds promise a chance of scattered thundershowers late tonight, dropping the temperature to a low of 62 to 68.

★ ★ ★

Clouds will continue over the Pontiac area tomorrow with thundershowers likely. Cooler temperatures are expected in late afternoon or evening.

Precipitation probabilities are today 10 per cent; tonight 30 per cent; tomorrow 50 per cent.

The low is downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 67. The mercury rose to 84 by 1 p.m.

'Network Helps Deserting GIs'

LONDON (AP) -- The Times of London reported today that as many as 1,000 U. S. soldiers have deserted from their units in Germany this year to avoid duty in Vietnam. The Times said the GIs were being helped by an underground network of European pacifists.

The Times said about three-quarters of the 1,000 soldiers were primarily concerned with avoiding combat.

"As the Vietnam war grows, so does the number of deserters and the activity of groups aiding them—which often use the techniques of wartime resistance movements," the paper said.

The Times said its figures were based on an investigation in Europe. The U.S. Army did not provide figures on what it told the Times was a slight but insignificant rise in the absentee rate.

The Times investigation began with leaflets encouraging desertion printed in London and circulated on the continent. It led to Paris, where Times reporters met one man describing himself as a deserter and now working as a building laborer. He gave his name only as "Buster."

DOCUMENTED CASE

One case of desertion was documented by a picture of Pvt. Roy R. Jones III, 20, a Negro from Detroit. The Times printed a copy of his leave pass, which it said had been forged for him by a friend.

It said Jones, formerly assigned to Headquarters Troop, 2nd Squadron, 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment, in Germany, is living in a Stockholm suburb on an alien's pass issued by the Swedish government.

Jones told the Times he was getting money from the underground network, was studying to enter a Swedish university and hoped to be a playwright and teach jazz ballot.

"The Vietnamese people are being treated by Americans there the same as Negroes in America," the Times quoted Jones as saying.

The Times said the biggest "service industry" for U.S. deserters was in the Netherlands, where present and former adherents of Amsterdam's Proves offer to help runaway GIs.

To Serve Walled Lake Parts of Wixom

MAKE OVER PAGES

New Phone Center to Open Soon

A new $1.5 - million telephone central office that will serve approximately 3,900 customers in Walled Lake and a portion of Wixom will be put in operation Sept. 10.

Charles B. Woodhead, public relations manager of the Pontiac district of Michigan Bell Telephone Co., said several changes in dialing methods will be introduced at the time of the changeover to the new switching system.

The new switching center is located on South Commerce Road, a half block north of Pontiac Trail. It will replace the facilities at 320 N. Pontiac Trail.

Customers whose phone numbers presently begin with MA 4 will be served by the new office. At the time of the change all phone numbers now beginning with the MA 4 prefix will be changed to 624.

Beginning Sept. 10, telephone users with 624 numbers no longer will need to dial "1" on message unit calls to telephones in Auburn Heights, Clarkston, Drayton Plains, Lake Orion, Oxford, Leonard and Rochester.

SAME WAY

Calls to these communities will be dialed the same way as local calls—by merely dialing the seven-digit number.

Woodhead said there will be no change in the dialing of local or long-distance calls.

One- and two-party customers no longer will need to give their phone number when making a message unit or long distance call. New equipment automatically will note details of these calls for billing purposes.

* * *

Rural customers, however, will continue to furnish the number of the telephone they are using when making a message unit or long distance call.

New numbers will be introduced for information and repair service, Woodhead said.

Starting Sept. 10, callers will dial 411 for information instead of 33-411. For repairs, the number will be 611 instead of 23-611.

With the changeover to the new phone office, four-party service will be discontinued, Woodhead said.

* * *

Four-party customers may change to one- or two-party lines or to rural service.

PREPAY BASIS

Eighty coin telephones in the 624 office will be changed to a prepay basis like that found in most Michigan communities. Callers will deposit 10 cents before dialing a local number or Operator.

A new dial tone somewhat lower in pitch than the present signal will be put in use.

The new signal will enable switching equipment to accommodate both dial and Touch-Tone pushbutton telephones.

* * *

Bookmarks for use with the current directory will be furnished customers. These bookmarks show dialing instructions and include a map of local and message unit calling areas.

* * *

The dialing information also will be included in the introductory pages of the 1968 area directory.

Principal Lowell Ruggles Views Avondale High School Texts

Huron Valley Sets School Agenda

MILFORD — The Huron Valley School District expects 6,300 students — an increase of about 870 over last year—with the opening of school Thursday, Sept. 7.

Agenda for the first day includes official enrollment, payment of book fees, and meeting teachers. High schoolers will in addition be assigned to homerooms and receive class schedules.

Principals will be available in their buildings from now until Sept. 7 for anyone with questions.

Teachers report for pre-school conferences on Sept. 5.

Motorcycle Smashup Kills Lapeer Youth

LAPEER—A Lapeer motorcyclist was killed on North Elba near M21 yesterday afternoon.

Billie Joe Davis, 19, of 63 Beatty died after his motorcycle went out of control and hit a tree stump about 12:30 p.m., according to sheriff's deputies.

In West Bloomfield Twp.

New Supervisor Named

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — The Township Board last night appointed John N. Doherty the new township supervisor, effective Sept. 1.

Doherty, to fill a full-time position, replaces John F. Warren who has served as supervisor part-time for seven months The board reappointed Warren as trustee.

The new supervisor, of 5431 W. Doherty, has been a real estate developer with the Howard Keating Co., Birmingham, on and off since 1951. Doherty owned a heavy construction company until last year.

He received a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Detroit.

Doherty's family includes his wife, Julia; Theresa, 11; Michael, 9; and Patricia, 5.

Imlay Takes Cityhood Step

IMLAY CITY—Formal action has been initiated by the Village Council to seek incorporation as a home-rule city.

The council acted Tuesday night on a recommendation of the Village Planning Commission which suggested that boundaries of the proposed city be determined at a later date.

At the same meeting Mayor John Folk proposed the formation of a historical committee to investigate celebration of the village's centennial.

They will be asked to determine whether the celebration should take place in 1971 or 1973.

Sewer Contracts Awarded in Troy

TROY — The city has awarded contracts for two sewer projects with a total estimated cost of $120,000.

Winning bidder was Two Way Construction Co. Jobs are a $163,000 project for Wisconsin, Iowa, Maple and Dequindre roads and a $57,000 project north of 14 Mile and west of Dequindre.

A hearing was set for 8 p.m., Sept. 11 for a $68,000 sewer project for the Donaldson-Square Lake area.

A water and a sewer project were approved and bids called for.

Avondale High Preparing 4-Grade Long-Day Setup

Aided by computer programming, the Avondale Senior High School expects to launch its four-grade extended-day program this fall with a minimum of confusion.

The ninth grade was added to the senior high school enrollment, freeing the junior high to accept sixth graders, thereby relieving overcrowding at the elementary level.

A new elementary school, the R. Grant Graham, is now in construction but not due for usage until next spring. Funds for a second senior high school voted by the people were tied up for nearly a year by Michigan Municipal Finance Commission regulations.

* * *

Lowell Ruggles, Avondale Senior High School principal, said students will be asked to register Aug. 28 through 31. He expects an enrollment of 1,650 students this year as compared to 640 last year.

Ninth graders are to report Aug. 28, for orientation; 10th graders, Aug. 29; 11th graders, Aug. 30; and 12th graders, Aug. 31.

Ruggles said class schedules will be presented at that time and books will be issued. He said activity fees would also be collected.

Students in all grades whose last names begin with the letters A through M are asked to report at 9 a.m. Those in the latter half of the alphabet are asked to report at 2 p.m.

Ruggles said the school will teach 11th and 12th graders in the morning hours and the younger group in the afternoon.

CLASS DAYS

He said classes will begin as early as 7 a.m. and last until noon or 1 p.m. for the juniors and seniors. The younger students will report at 11 a.m. or noon, depending on their schedules, and stay until a full program of classes are complete.

Though study halls have been done away with, Ruggles stresses that the program will offer all those classes formerly offered by the school.

He said any free periods on the part of students can be utilized at a snack bar the school hopes to provide.

Ruggles said the regular Type A classroom lunch will be eliminated because of the different scheduling.

LACK MATH TEACHER

The school has nearly a full complement of teachers, lacking only a mathematics teacher, Ruggles reported.

He noted that teachers would report at varying hours working a solid six-period shift and teaching at least five classes.

Other factors taken into consideration, he said, included the school's athletic program and the need for arranging classes so that participants and coaches would be free for practice.

GOP Supervisor Tells Plight of Heading an All-Dem Board

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — The problem with being supervisor and the lone Republican on the Township Board is that you're the lone Republican, according to Shelby Township's Kirby Holmes.

His position, he feels, was once again brought home Tuesday night when the Township Board rejected two of three candidates to the Township Planning Commission.

Holmes charged, "They accepted the Democrat, but they turned down the Republicans—and they didn't even know one of the men."

Township law provides that the board must ratify such appointments made by the supervisor.

* * *

"What am I supposed to do?" Holmes, a former government teacher in Utica Schools, asked.

LOST TO HOLMES

The board accepted the appointment of George Kullman, the Democrat whom Holmes defeated last fall in the election for supervisor.

"He's a good man," Holmes said, "but so are Joseph Radanovich and John Dyer-Hurdon. Their only problem is that they are Republicans."

However, a spokesman for the Democrats on the board denied Holmes contention that the rejection of the pair was based on politics.

* * *

RECREATION BENEFITS

The County Planning Commission approved its purchase for the benefits it would provide from the parks and recreation angle," Holmes said.

Clerk Mae Stecker, speaking for the rest of the board, said they felt that land purchase authority should come from the people either at the annual meeting or by referendum.

White Lake Twp. Budget Approved

Anticipated expenditures total $171,126, with anticipated revenues at $171,140. Last year's expenditures were $152,019 and revenues were $152,175.

The increase in expenditures for this fiscal year — April 1, 1967, to March 31, 1968 — results from expanded public services, more police and fire protection, and additional office expenses.

The additional revenues are expected to come from more sales and intangibles taxes, said Township Supervisor James Reid.

The Township Board also decided to contract with the Highland Township Library for free library use by the White Lake residents. They have been paying $3 per family each year to use the Highland Township facility.

Supervisor Reid expects that White Lake Township will be able to provide this service by paying Highland about $1,400 per year from a state penal fund.

Utica Treasury in the Black

UTICA — City government ended the 1966-67 fiscal year in the black, an auditors report shows.

"It's the first time in years we haven't had a shortage," said Clerk Eunice Kopietz.

The council was told a $19,000 surplus had been accumulated, but auditors warned that no such surplus would be likely next year.

The council recently added full-paid hospitalization, a life insurance policy and a $150 annual across-the-board raise to its employe benefits.

* * *

A 3-mill raise in taxation last year was credited with the change in the financial picture.

* * *

"In 1963 we had a $42,000 deficit," Mrs. Kopietz said, "And we've been working to reduce it each year. Of the 3 mills added last year, 1.5 mills was set aside for the operating fund and 1.5 mills for the reduction of the Utica drain fund."

Utica property owners pay a total of 19 mills yearly, 1 mill voted for upkeep of the city library.

Paving Approved at Wolverine Lake

WOLVERINE LAKE — Special assessments for the blacktopping of Wolverine Drive, Paulette, Ventura, Solano and Brisbane streets were approved at the recent Village Board meeting

The project will cost $17,303, amounting to $1.45 per front foot. Cadillac Asphalt Co. of Southfield is planning to complete the work within two weeks, Village Manager Clifford Cottrell said.

Also at the meeting, the board approved a vacation plan for all village employes. The plan includes six paid holidays, formerly offered only to office employes time off, sick days and probations.

City employes had requested the vacation plan several months ago, said Cottrell.

Final Dance Slated

LAKE ORION — Area Jaycees will host their last teen-age dance of the season 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Bogi-Hut, 102 S. Broadway.

The Thyrd Street group will provide music.

Jaycees have sponsored a total of five dances this summer, the average attendance close to 100, a spokesman said.

NEIGHBORS COMPLAIN — This abandoned schoolhouse on Maybee and Pine Knob, Independence Township, has become a source of annoyance to neighbors. Others find it a source of inspiration and have decorated it with names, pictures, and enigmatic slogans in various colors. The township owns the property and is holding it for a possible future site of a fire station. Neighbors have asked the township to tear it down or paint over the inscriptions to end the "eyesore."

Hearing Slated for Land-Fill

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has scheduled a public hearing on a proposed county sanitary land-fill on 10 acres near the intersection of Benstein and Sleeth roads.

The Township Board of Appeals will conduct the hearing Aug. 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of the Walled Lake High School, 2978 S. Commerce Road.

The County Road Commission plans to operate the land-fill. It received approval from the County Board of Supervisors about one month ago. A loan of $21,000 will follow if and when the township approves the project and the commission gets a state license.

A tentative schedule sets the opening of the land-fill within 60 days, said Commerce Township Supervisor Robert H. Long.

* * *

The dump is planned to operate for seven years for capacity fill, Long said.

COMMISSIONER NAMED

The Township Board also appointed George Merring, 4351 Bluebird, to the planning commission. A West Bloomfield schoolteacher, he replaces Max Slater whose term expired.

Reappointed to the commission was Edward Oldencamp, a builder.

Farmington Centennial

Founders Fete Opens Today

FARMINGTON — The Elks ox roast, the Miss Founders contest, and a motorcade will open the Farmington Centennial and Third Annual Founders Festival set for today through Saturday.

The Elks were to start serving today at noon at the downtown center parking lot and are to continue through the festival's end.

Contestants, selected at a preliminary judging Tuesday, are: Nancy C. Brown, Dee Dickson, Wanda S. Gorham, Cathy Karwoski, Linda Newbury, Sizanne Nichols, Dawn Shipley, Julie E. Smith, Linda Steitar and Linda Thompson.

* * *

The winner and runner-ups will be announced at 7:30 p.m. following a motorcade to the Village Green.

CONTEST EMCEE

Terry Frisco, a television producer, is the chairman and master of ceremonies for the contest.

Completing the festival's first day will be a Franklin Band concert at 8 p.m. at the Village Green, a dance at the East Junior High School from 9 p.m. to midnight, and a dinner at the Masonic Temple sponsored by the White Shrine No. 44.

Slated for tomorrow are a country-style dinner, a community dance, a beard-growing contest and a Job's Daughters dinner.

* * *

Walled Lake Teacher Returns From Office Occupations Institute

WALLED LAKE — Miss Jody Newcomer of Walled Lake High School recently returned from a four-week National Institute for Teacher-Coordinators of Office Occupations Programs at the University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The institute instructed teacher-coordinators of office occupations programs in new techniques, methods and materials.

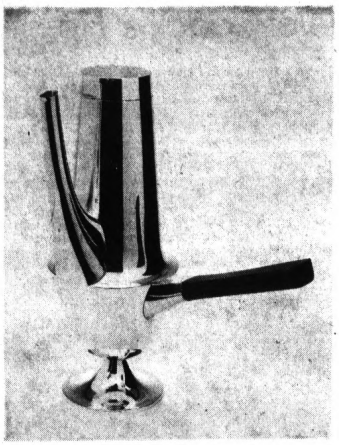
Psychedelic Art Appears in Silver Design



First-prize winner in the 1967 Sterling Silver Design Competition was won by Richard Johnston, a student at Cranbrook Academy of Art. The slim sterling teapot and beverage server displayed workmanship described by judges as being "as close to perfection as can be imagined."

The effects of "psychedelic art" are beginning to be seen in sterling silver design, an area which leans more to the traditional than to the avant-garde.

Although elegance is still the keynote among the prize-winners of the 1967 Sterling Silver Design Competition, one piece — a multibulbous vase resembling a rather ferocious sea anemone — was described by judges as a shocker."

★ ★ ★

The competition, sponsored by the Sterling Silversmiths Guild of America, encourages design students at the college, technical or post-graduate level to apply their talents to sterling silver. Entrants are required to submit sterling silver pieces which they have both designed and crafted.

SKILLFUL USE

Originality and skillful use of metal scored high points for the vase, which is outlined on either side with tentacle-like projections. Amethyst crystals seem almost to "grow" out of the top and bottom of the piece.

★ ★ ★

But the most startling aspect of the vase is the color and texture of the metal itself.

"Electro-formed silver has been tortured, antiqued and worked into a piece which defies every known convention in silversmithing," commented a judge, adding, "It is a delightful experience."

★ ★ ★

This was submitted by Cranbrook Academy of Art student, Richard Johnston.

Despite the sophistication of its design, the more practical aspects of the functional piece are not neglected: judges asserted that it pours "literally without spilling a drop."

The prize-winning pieces will be shown along with several others which won honorable mention awards during 1967-68 as part of a traveling exhibit sponsored by the Guild in major cities throughout the country.

Deep etching of sterling inlays is well suited to rugged size and design of jewelry box combining sterling silver and walnut. It was designed and handcrafted by Donald L. Bacorn of Syracuse (N.Y.) University.

Avant-garde vase won third place for Carole Small, a student at Tyler School of Art, Elkins Park, Pa. It features electroformed sterling combined with amethyst crystals.

Mending China

When mending a prized piece of china or glass, hold the pieces together with cellophane tape while applying the cement. When the cement dries, carefully pull the tape away. This makes for precision work. The work is so neat you can hardly tell where it has been mended.

Color Stabilizer Is Conditioner

Thomas R. Jackmans Repeat Vow in Holly Rite

St. Rita's Church, Holly was the setting Saturday afternoon for vows spoken by the Thomas R. Jackmans (nee Theresa Ann Wooley).

Janice Jackman was maid of honor and James Wooley was best man. They are sister and brother of the bridal couple.

★ ★ ★

Cynthia Omans and Corinne Wesolowski were attendants.

Ushers were John and Kenneth Jackman, also brothers of the bridegroom.

The bride chose floor length Chantilly lace and organza with a natural waistline and gathered skirt for her vows. Her full chapel train featured matching lace and organza.

Parents of the newlyweds who greeted guests in the church hall after the rite are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert K. Wooley of Rattalee Lake Road, and the Richard Jackmans of Romeo.

The couple will honeymoon in Canada and at Expo '67.

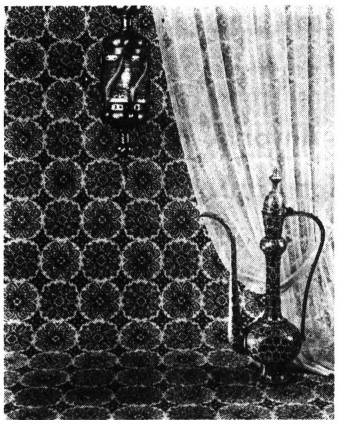
A cat best knows where to be comfortable. She chooses Firth's "Country Home," carpet that makes everyone feel at home. The checked stripe pattern is ageless, belongs in decorating themes from Early American to contemporary. Eye-catching, but easy to live with because of its dense Acrilan pile of interwoven loops. Wide color selection for high fashion look at a budget price.



Styling depends upon the individual. "Colony Craft" pattern from the famed "Designer Gallery" collection of Alexander Smith offers a fine starting point. Its medallion motif can be played up country style with Pennsylvania Dutch furnishings, or the top deck kept stark with Near East accessories as accents. Pattern on the floor is easy to walk on, care for, sit around TV with.

New Guinea Has More Incidents of Multiple Birth

PORT MORESBY, New Guinea (AP) — In some parts of New Guinea there are many times the number of multiple births that can be expected in Western communities.

Two sets of triplets were born recently in the Mt. Hagen and Wewak districts.

* * *

The director of public health, Dr. R. F. R. Scragg, said that in the Bole area of West New Britain one set of triplets was born in every 400 births, and one set of twins in every 20 births.

The normal expectation in Western countries, he said, was one in 80 births for twins, and one in 6,000 births for triplets.

* * *

Dr. Scragg said no special studies had been made that might indicate the reason for the high number of multiple births.

He said similar high rates had been reported from some parts of Africa.

Pour leftover soup into ice cube trays and freeze it. Then store the cubes in freezer. You then will have on hand just the right amount of soup needed for each meal. This does away with having to reheat the entire amount.

Carole Mae Freeberg became the bride of Lee Ray Norman recently in Crystal, Minn. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Norman of Brandt Road, Groveland Township, and the Vernon E. Freebergs of Minneapolis. The newlyweds will reside in Pontiac.

MRS. LEE R. NORMAN

South Dakota Wedding Trip for Pair

A honeymoon in the Black Hills of South Dakota followed the recent marriage of Carole Mae Freeberg and Lee Ray Norman in Crystal Evangelical Free Church, Crystal, Minn.

The daughter of the Vernon E. Freebergs of Minneapolis chose a tiered gown of silk Georgette over taffeta in a bouffant style with scalloped edging of Chantilly lace.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Mitchell and Mrs. Edward Stricklin. Carolyn Mitchell served as flower girl.

Male members of the wedding party were Jack Henderson as best man with groomsmen Andrew Norman (the bridegroom's brother) and Daniel Bowker. Ushers were Keith Setterstrom and Darrel Freeberg.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Norman of Brandt Road, Groveland Township.

The newlyweds have returned to take up residence in Pontiac.

Weight of Affluence

WASHINGTON, D. C. (WMNS) — Give the affluent American lots of labor-saving devices, a car and TV and what do you have? The overweight American. This is one conclusion of eight specialists on nutrition who compiled a book for physicians, "Obesity and Health."

Sponsored by the U.S. Public Health Service, the book points out that obesity is now a major American health problem, becoming more common as the good life comes within the grasp of more people.

The truth is, physicians agree, that most overweight people are overweight because they eat too much. It's as simple as that: Most of us eat too much, too richly, and we do little or no exercise to burn up the excess calories we ingest.

One physician estimates that as many as one out of four patients he sees is overweight. Their problem, he notes, is neither metabolic nor glandular. It is gluttony.

* * *

Care for Games

When children receive a new game, before giving it to them to play with, use cellophane tape to reinforce the corner seams of the box. Tito Peace Talks With Arabs Apparently Fruitless

CAIRO (AP) — Yugoslav President Tito wound up his swing through Arab lands today amid signs that his talks with Arab leaders failed to produce any peaceformula for the Middle East.

The semiofficial Egyptian newspaper Al Ahram quoted Yugoslav sources as saying Tito will soon launch "far-reaching political activity" through personal contacts and through the United Nations. The activity reportedly will be aimed at breaking what Tito has termed the "period of diplomatic stagnation"—the time since the emergency U.N. General Assembly on the Middle East adjourned in July.

* * *

Al Ahram said Tito insisted that he had proposed no specific peace plans to Arab leaders, saying, "I came here merely to exchange views."

Informed sources said Tito had pleaded for a "realistic" approach to Middle East problems growing out of the June 5-10 war, and that this stand met especially stiff opposition in Syria.

PLEA REJECTED

On the religious front, the proposal of the chief rabbi of the Israeli army to hold prayers on Moslem territory ignited fears among politicians that it would touch off widespread Moslem protests, both in Israel-occupied territory and outside it.

* * *

The rabbi, Brig. Shlomo Goren, announced he would pray atop the hill where the second Jewish temple once stood in Old Jerusalem. The spot now holds the mosques of the Dome of the Rock and El Aksa, both sacred to Islam.

The second Jewish temple was destroyed in 70 a.d. by Titus. All that remains of it is Jerusalem's Wailing Wall, which stands just outside the mosque area.

The International Red Cross said that the first Arab refugees turning to their homes Friday.

In Geneva, the Red Cross said it expects the repatriation rate to begin at about 1,000 a day. More than 200,000 Arabs fled the west bank of the Jordan River during or after the June war.

* * *

Czechoslovakia revoked the passport of Czech writer and Communist party member Ladislav Mnacko, who has been in Israel demonstrating his pro-Israeli sentiments, despite his own government's allegiance to the Arabs.

Mnacko has a Jweish wife. He created an international storm earlier this year with a book highly critical of the Communist ruling class, "The Taste of Power."

U.S. CRITICIZED

In Tel Aviv the Israeli tabloid Yediot Aharonot said U.S. State Department officials were working against President Johnson's goal for peace in the Middle East. The newspaper charged that the State Department has been trying to get Israel to relinquish captured land.

Ahmet Shukairy, chairman of the Palestinian Liberation Organization which has headquarters in Beirut, Lebanon, blamed the Israeli victory on U.S. support and aid. "Israel, left alone, would crumble in any confrontation with the Arabs," he said.

Shukairy, whose goal is a Palestinian state to replace present-day Israel, called the United States the No. 1 enemy of the Palestine people. But he said that if the United States offers the Arabs free military training or other aid, many Arabs might take it.

Mower Crashes

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP) — Something new in traffic accidents was reported here. Elden Finley was driving around his lawn atop a power lawnmower when the brakes failed. The mower charged out into the street and hit a police car.

PAIR OF WINNERS — Two County Fair first prize winners . . . three layer Prune Spice Cake and a deep, dark chocolate cake frosted with brown sugar whipped cream.

Prune or Chocolate

Cake Is Always a Good Dessert

July and August are the traditional months for County and State Fairs where youngsters display fat sleek animals and the ladies vie for first prize ribbons for their jams, jellies, mincemeat and cakes.

Here are two recipes for cakes that are first prize winners no matter whether the judges are professional or members of your own family.

* * *

Prune Spice Cake is a wonderfully moist (and it stays moist) tender cake with a delicious blend of spice and prune flavors. It calls for a dash of black pepper to perk up the spices.

You can use either canned or cooked dried prunes. If you're using cooked dried prunes, let them stand overnight in their juice and save some of the juice for the frosting.

Aunt Kitty's Chocolate Cake is a Pennsylvania recipe that's a quick-to-make, one-bowl cake.

PRUNE SPICE CAKE

¾ cup all-vegetable shortening
2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups chopped cooked prunes
3 cups sifted cake flour
2½ teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon EACH: salt, cinnamon, nutmeg
½ teaspoon mace
⅛ teaspoon black pepper
1¼ cups buttermilk
Coffee Prune Frosting

Grease three 9-inch round cake pans and line bottoms with waxed paper*.

Measure shortening into a large mixing bowl; gradually add sugar, beating well after each addition. Beat in eggs one at a time, stir in vanilla and prunes.

Sift together flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, mace and pepper. Stir into creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk. Pour batter into prepared cake pans.

* * *

Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until cakes test done. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pans and peel off paper. Cool on cake racks.

Spread Coffee Prune Frosting between layers and on sides and top of cake.

To prepare Coffee Prune Frosting (makes about 3½ cups): Beat ¾ cup all-vegetable shortening with 1 teaspoon salt and 2 cups sifted confectioners sugar. Beat in ½ teaspoon vanilla and 1½ tablespoons instant coffee powder.

Add 4 cups sifted confectioners sugar alternately with enough prune juice (6 to 8 tablespoons) to make a good spreading consistency.

*If only 2 pans are available one-third of batter may be stored in refrigerator while other layers bake.

* * *

Or, pour batter into a greased and floured 13x9-inch pan and bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 1 hour, or until cake tests done. Cool in pan. Cut into squares and serve with whipped cream or sprinkle with confectioners sugar.

AUNT KITTY'S CHOCOLATE CAKE

½ cup all-vegetable shortening
½ cup unsweetened cocoa
1½ cups sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 egg yolks
2 cups milk
2½ cups sifted cake flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1½ teaspoons baking soda
Brown Sugar Whipped Cream

Grease two 9-inch round cake pans then line bottoms with waxed paper.

In large bowl of electric mixer, blend together shortening, cocoa, sugar, vanilla, egg yolks and 2 tablespoons of the milk. Beat at medium speed of electric mixer about 4 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally with rubber scraper.

Sift together flour, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Stir into cocoa mixture alternately with remaining milk. Pour batter into prepared pans.

Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven 30 to 35 minutes, or until cakes test done. Let cakes cool in pans 10 minutes, turn out and remove paper. Cool on wire racks.

Spread Brown Sugar Whipped Cream between layers and on top of cake. Store in refrigerator.

To Prepare Brown Sugar Whipped Cream (Makes about 2 cups): Whip 1 cup heavy cream with 3 tablespoons firmly-packed brown sugar until soft peaks form. Spread between layers and on top of cake.

Crackle the Shells

To make a quick job of peeling eggs, roll the hard-cooked eggs between the palms of your hands quickly. This will loosen the shell. Begin peeling at the large end of the egg.

CEREAL 'N' ICE CREAM COMPOTE—Take two cups presweetened ready-to-eat cereal and spread one-third of it over the bottom of well chilled compote or serving dish. Spread one pint of your favorite ice cream and one cup sweetened sliced peaches and strawberries over cereal. Top with half of remaining cereal. Spoon a second pint of ice cream and another cup of fruit over cereal. Sprinkle remaining cereal over top. Makes 4-6 servings.

This Bread Uses Variety of Flours

In about three hours you can have four delicious loaves of bread made.

Act One Bread

¾ cup milk, scalded
¾ cup sugar
4 teaspoons salt
⅓ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
5 cups (about) unsifted regular white flour
½ cup yellow cornmeal
½ cup unsifted stoneground wholewheat flour
½ cup unsifted stoneground rye flour
1 cup wheat germ
1 egg white slightly beaten with 1 tablespoon water

Into the scalded milk stir the sugar, salt and butter; cool to lukewarm.

In a large warm bowl, dissolve the yeast in the warm water; add lukewarm milk mixture, 2 cups white flour, cornmeal, wholewheat flour and rye flour; beat until smooth. Add wheat germ and enough additional white flour to form a soft dough.

Turn out onto lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and elastic — 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm draft-free place until doubled—about 1 hour.

Punch down dough; turn out onto lightly floured surface. Divide into 4 equal pieces; shape each into a round loaf and place, well apart, on greased cookie sheets that have been sprinkled with extra cornmeal. Cover; let rise as previously until doubled—about 45 minutes.

Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 10 minutes. Remove from oven and brush tops of loaves with egg-white mixture. Bake 5 minutes more. Cool on wire racks. Makes 4 small loaves.

Dry Vermouth Is Sauce for Skillet Chicken

Here's a pleasant menu for two young couples!

Wine-kissed Chicken
Mixed Rice with Green Peas and Mushroom Sauce
Fresh Fruit
Cheese and Crackers

Wine-Kissed Chicken

1 large broiler-fryer, cut up
⅓ cup flour
1¼ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon each butter and oil
⅓ cup dry vermouth

Reserve bony back pieces of chicken for another use. Wash and dry chicken; coat with flour mixed with salt and pepper.

Brown chicken skin side down in the hot butter and oil in a large skillet, over moderate heat, for about 10 minutes. Turn and brown the other side about 10 minutes.

Turn skin side down again; add half the vermouth to the skillet; cook, uncovered, about 10 minutes; if drippings scorch, turn down heat. Turn skin side up, add remaining vermouth; cook another 10 minutes or until tender.

Remove chicken from drippings and serve at once.

Spain Lures Filming of Villa Capers

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

MADRID — Why would a Hollywood producer come to Spain to film a movie about Pancho Villa, Mexico's bandit revolutionary?

The reasons are mostly economic, partly political, according to Ted Richmond, veteran of filming in Hollywood ("Mississippi Belle") and Spain ("Return of the Seven"). He will soon begin shooting "Villa Rides," starring Yul Brynner and Robert Mitchum. The new film bears no relationship to the memorable 1934 movie "Viva Villa!" starring Wallace Beery.

* * *

The Paramount film could have been made in Mexico or California, either of which offers landscape approximating that marauded by Villa just before American entrance into the first World War. Yet Richmond chose to make "Villa Rides" in Spain.

He hinted that the problems with Mexico were largely political, the government there has been increasingly concerned with the Mexican image in films, as evidence by the recently lifted ban of Frank Sinatra because of alleged slurs against Mexican divorce laws in his film "Divorce on the Rocks." A movie about the highly controversial Villa might produce a hornet's nest of censorial problems.

ECONOMIC ADVANTAGES

But such problems appear to be minor compared to those of an economic nature. The fact remains that filming in Spain is much less expensive than in Hollywood, or Mexico.

"We can make this picture in Spain for $3.5 million," said the producer. "The same production values in an American-made film would be double the cost."

* * *

A crime was reported to New York State police every eight minutes during 1966.

Junior Editors Quiz on MORGAN HORSE

QUESTION: How did the Morgan breed of horse originate?

* * *

ANSWER: The Morgan is a special, remarkable breed of horse. It is descended from one particular horse, a stallion that not only had unusual qualities but the ability to pass these to his descendants, so they have become the qualities of an entire breed.

This horse, shown in the picture by a statue presented by the Morgan Horse Club to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, was named Justin Morgan after his owner Justin Morgan, who obtained him as a colt.

The colt, born in 1793, was first used by Morgan as a saddle horse. He is thought to have had Thoroughbred and Arabian ancestors as well as other blood strains.

Small, fast, with an exceptionally gentle disposition, this horse was extremely strong, and able to pull heavier loads than any other horse of his size. He lived to be 29 and had a number of owners.

Recognized as a remarkable animal, he was bred many times. His colts proved to have the same wonderful combination of strength and gentleness. Soon the Morgan horse became popular all over America.

Road Perils Find Way Into Network

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government has realized that some roadside hazards that make older highways dangerous have been incorporated into many new Interstate highways.

Road builders now concede that when work began a decade ago on the $50 billion Interstate network planners underestimated the perils that might be posed by fixed objects along the roadside.

* * *

It's proving to be a costly—and deadly—oversight, although statistics show Interstate highways are far safer than other roads.

Now, with 25,000 miles of interstate highways completed at a cost of $30 billion, the Bureau of Public Roads is urging states to spend what one source said would be hundreds of millions more in federal dollars to correct such hazards as:

TO CORRECT HAZARDS

- Heavy steel sign and light poles mounted in concrete bases. Although lightweight poles that snap off harmlessly when hit by a vehicle have been on the market for years, some states still erect the massive sign and light supports.
- Guard rails that don't guard, but guide skidding cars directly into bridge abutments and the like.
- Exposed guard rail ends that can spear vehicles which run off the road. Some states bury guard rail ends in the ground, but most don't.
- Exit areas cluttered with steel and concrete obstacles.
