

Tuesday, April 22, 2008

Cindy Williams stars in MBT's 'Nunsense' production

Cindy Williams, star of "Laverne and Shirley" will come to Meadow Brook Theatre for a four-week run of the original "Nunsense," which will run April 23 through May 18.

When the convent cook, Sister Julie, Child of God, accidentally poisons 52 of the sisters, the convent is in dire need of funds for the burials. The remaining nuns raise the funds by putting on a show.

"Nunsense" is written and directed by Michigan native Dan Goggin and is celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2008.

Williams comes to Meadow Brook Theatre after completing a run on Broadway in "The Drowsy Chaperone."

Talkbacks for "Nunsense" will be held on April 23-25 at the shows which begin at 8 p.m. and on Sunday, April 27 and Sunday, May 11 at the 2 p.m. show.

For more information on this or any production at Meadow Brook Theatre, or for information on the Theatre Ensemble, visit the Meadow Brook Theatre Web site.

Meadow Brook Theatre is a non-profit cultural institution serving southeast Michigan for more than 40 years.

SUMMARY

Cindy Williams, star of "Laverne and Shirley" will come to Meadow Brook Theatre for a four-week run of the original "Nunsense," which will run April 23 through May 18.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, April 22, 2008
Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Tuesday, April 22, 2008
Article Start Date: Tuesday, April 22, 2008