Hunt Widens for Missing Girl

Employment Up Million in May; Plant Pay Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—Employment rose by a million in May to a record 66,016,000 for the month. Unemployment fell by 238,000 to 3,389,000.

Announcing the figures today, Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Strauss and Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said they reflected further substantial improvement in the nation's job picture.

An unusually large pickup in factory employment accompanied a May seasonal rise in farm work.

The May total of 66,016,000 employed was the largest number of Americans with jobs for any month of May. It compares with an all-time peak of 67,221,000 set in July 1957.

The new figures represent a drop of about 1½ million among the unemployed in the past year. However, the idle total is about 70,000 higher than it was in May 1957.

The ratio of unemployment to the labor force declined in May to 4.9 per cent compared with 5.3 per cent in April and around 6 per cent during last winter. This is the first time the idle ratio has dropped below 5 per cent since November 1957.

★ ★ ★

Factory worker earnings averaged $90.32 in May—representing the first time in history the average passed the $90 mark. Earnings among durable goods workers averaged $98. Among soft goods workers it was $80.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell called the report extraordinarily good.

Mitchell predicted to reporters Tuesday that the joint Labor-Commerce Department report would show an excellent gain in employment and a new decline in unemployment.

The last prior account showed 65,012,000 employed in April with 3,627,000 unemployed.

★ ★ ★

Unemployment dropped sharply in Michigan last month, the Michigan Employment Security Commission reported today.

The MESC said a preliminary report showed 240,000 jobless workers as of May 15, a drop of 60,000 over the same time a month ago. Unemployment in Detroit was pegged at 140,000, down 30,000 from April.

Auto industry employment at 752,000 was up over 150,000 from May 1958, but still is about 40,000 lower than in May 1957.

The average work week in manufacturing continued to rise, reaching 40½ hours in May—the longest work week for May since 1955. Overtime in manufacturing averaged 2.7 hours a week.

★ ★ ★

While the May gain in employment was largely seasonal, Seymour Wolfbein, deputy assistant secretary of labor, said it was accompanied by a very encouraging gain of 100,000 in factory employment which usually tends to decline in May.

Allies Reject Delay on Berlin

One-Year Moratorium Blasted by Herter as Threat, Duress

GENEVA (AP)—A Russian proposal to the Western powers for a one-year moratorium in the Berlin crisis was rejected in the foreign ministers conference today.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko the United States "will never negotiate under deadlines, threats or duress."

In a dramatic session—amid talk of a breakoff of negotiations—Herter appealed to Gromyko to reconsider the proposal he made yesterday.

Gromyko offered to hold up for a year Russia's threat to squeeze the Allies out of West Berlin, provided they started work on Soviet-dictated terms for a German settlement.

Conference officials said the new Soviet plan has these four main points:

★ ★ ★

1. The Soviet Union will guarantee the continuance of the existing occupation status of West Berlin for one year.

2. It will guarantee unrestricted Allied access into West Berlin by operating traffic controls along the access routes as at present.

3. The Western powers in turn will agree to the creation of an East-West German commission to develop contacts and technical cooperation between the two Germanys.

4. The Big Four will agree to conclude a peace treaty either with a united German government or with the governments of the two Germanys.

Business Blooms in Downtown Shopping Area

Business is blooming in downtown Pontiac.

Large cedar buckets filled with bright red geraniums are decorating the fronts of downtown stores, bringing sparkle and color to the city's business district.

★ ★ ★

More than 50 shops have purchased plants thus far.

The appearance of plants is a project of the Downtown Merchants Assn., designed to beautify the shopping district.

"Before we're through, we'd like to see plants in front of every store downtown," said George Richman, owner of the Wiggs Colony Shop, who is spearheading the project.

★ ★ ★

He said 20 other stores have ordered the plants, which have drawn much favorable comment from local shoppers.

Clothing, Other Clues Fizzle, Search Goes On

Police Comb Detroit for Teenager Gone Since Monday

DETROIT (AP)—State police and authorities of suburban communities today joined the expanding search for a 14-year-old schoolgirl who has been missing since Monday from her northwest Detroit home.

Descriptions and photographs of Susan Lawrence, whose parents say she is little enough to pass for a girl of 9 or 10, have been circulated to suburbs by Detroit police.

Police said about 100 tips from persons who had said they had see the girl or knew something about her have been screened. Most were discarded as useless.

For a time, police believed clothing found on a suburban golf course might have been Susan's. But the dress and underclothing found by a golfer at Glenhurst Golf Club in suburban Redford Township have been discarded as possible clues because their sizes were not those of Susan.

Detectives and motorcycle policemen combed cemeteries and industrial plant property in the area of the girl's home.

Marvin G. Lane, chief of detectives, said no homicide officers would be assigned to the case "until there is evidence of death."

★ ★ ★

"At this point," Lane said, "there is no evidence this is anything but a search for a missing girl. We have no evidence of anything to the contrary. At 14, she is too smart to be pulled into an automobile against her will."

Susan was taking final examinations this week. Police said she had spoken of her dread of the examinations to her friends.

Officers also said the girl had often expressed dislike for Detroit and had asked her father to move to some other city.

Police Det. Elmer Reed reported "what may be a lead." He said a west side service station owner, Ernest Winkles, 47, reported he was "quite sure" he had seen Susan earlier yesterday morning.

"She was with two young boys in a 1940 Buick with Arkansas tags," Winkles said. "They stopped and bought gas. The boys were in the front of the four-door and on the back seat was this girl lying down with a quilt over her. I am quite sure the girl in the car was the missing one."

Winkles said one boy was 17 or

High temperatures will continue in the upper 80s over the weekend with Thursday and Sunday slightly cooler. Low temperatures will remain in the 70s the weatherman says.

Rainfall will average about one-half inch in scattered late afternoon and evening thundershowers throughout the five-day period, the U.S. Weather Bureau forecasts.

The high Thursday will reach near 86 and the low 64-72. Today's southerly winds at five miles an hour will increase to 8-15 miles tonight.

Mostly cloudy with a few showers or thunderstorms tonight and tomorrow is the forecast for both north Lower Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

Scattered showers or thundershowers and turning cooler is the outlook for Friday in the northern sections and mostly fair and warm, in the southern sections of the state.

Seventy-one was the lowest recorded temperature in downtown preceding 8 a.m.

What Better Name Could Library Get?

The $500,000 new library that is to arise this fall in Pontiac's developing Civic Center was officially named last night.

★ ★ ★

The occasion was a little sad. At one time, there were hopes that some public benefactor would contribute a large sum of money to help finance the cultural center. The library would have been named after the generous citizen.

But no Andrew Carnegie ever showed up in Pontiac.

The library is scheduled to be constructed exclusively from tax moneys.

"We should name the library after the people who paid for it," said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

City Commissioners agreed with his choice for the name: Pontiac Public Library.

Central, Northern Highs Plan Graduation for 526 Seniors

The graduating classes of Pontiac Central and Pontiac Northern high schools will be addressed at commencement exercises by Dr. Lowell R. Eklund and D. B. Varner.

Three hundred and forty-five Central graduates, their guests and school officials will hear Dr. Eklund's speech entitled "The Fabulous Future." The commmencement will be held 8 p.m. Thursday at Wisner Memorial Stadium.

Dr. Eklund is the director of continuing education at Michigan State University Oakland.

Dale C. Harris will conduct the Central Band in the processional and recessional and two other numbers during the program. The invocation will be delivered by Joanne Wood, senior class secretary, and the remarks by Harrison Munson, class president.

Principal Francis W. Staley will officiate during the presentation of the class.

★ ★ ★

"The Fortunate Few" is the subject of the address to be delivered to the 181 graduates of Northern by Varner, chancellor of MSUO. The program will begin 8 p.m. Friday in Northern's auditorium.

D. B. VARNER

DR. LOWELL R. EKLUND

The Northern Band, assisted by Madison and Lincoln Junior high school students, will be conducted by Eldon E. Rosegart in the processional and recessional and "Dedication," by Hermann.

The Rev. James W. Deeg, pastor of the Oakland Park Methodist Church, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

James Lyons, senior class president, will address his remarks to the assemblage and Principal Philip J. Wargelin will present the class and awards.

★ ★ ★

Glenn Griffin, president of the Pontiac Board of Education, will preside over both commencements.

Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools, will award diplomas at both exercises.

A number of scholarship awards will be announced commencement nights. Those to be given to Central students are the PTA Scholarship, Sarah McCarroll Foundation, Regents-Alumni, University of Michigan, Hi-Y, Y-Teen, and the Michigan State University Entrance scholarships.

Also included are scholarships from the MSU Club of Oakland County, Alma College, State Board of Education, Central State University, University of Detroit "Grant-in-Aid," Baldwin-Wallace in Berea, Ohio; Metropolitan Detroit Science Fair Scholarship, W. Allen Booth mathematics award, and the MSUO Entrance Scholarship.

Scholarships to be awarded to winners announced at Northern's commencement are the MSUO scholarship, State Board of Education Scholarship and the John Thors Jr. Student Scholarship Award.

Full Tax Dips $1.29 in Pontiac

New Local Levy Is the Same, but County, School Bills Drop

By PETE LOCHBILER

Combined city, county and school tax rates in Pontiac will be $1.29 lower this year, according to the current tax picture.

The total tax bill is scheduled to be $43.29 for each $1,000 in assessed valuation, compared with $44.58 last year.

The city's share will be $13.27 for the second straight year.

With a feeling of pride, city commissioners adopted the rate last night.

While other Michigan cities have seen a rise in taxes this year or a cutback in services, Pontiac will be able to hold the line on both taxes and services, said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

★ ★ ★

"The city manager and the city assessor deserve everyone's thanks for their successful efforts to keep taxes down," said Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

The school tax in terms of assessed values is scheduled to be only $22.90, compared with $23.70 last year. The county tax will also go down, said City Assessor W. Ray Ransom.

It will drop from $7.94 to $7.12, if county equalized valuations are

Lower Tribunal Receives Broad Cleanup Rights

Officials of Teamsters Union Face Trouble If Monitors Disregarded

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Court of Appeals today gave U.S. District court power to enforce its cleanup orders on President James R. Hoffa of the Teamsters Union.

In a unanimous decision, the appellate court said Dist. Judge F. Dickinson Letts was within his rights in modifying a consent order which terminated litigation to bar Hoffa from taking office.

★ ★ ★

Under the order, Hoffa was allowed to take office but a three-member board of monitors was set up to watch over the union's affairs and make recommendations for restoring democracy to the union.

In its opinion today, the appellate court said recommendations of the monitors are not self-enforcing, but that they may go to Judge Letts for orders putting them into effect.

If Hoffa and the other Teamsters officials fail to comply with recommendations, the appellate court said, the monitors may report this fact to Judge Letts.

Hoffa Can See No Wrong in Using 5th Amendment

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Teamster President James R. Hoffa has explained the reason he believes so many Teamster officials invoke the Fifth Amendment before the Senate Rackets Committee. The Teamster president said yesterday, "It doesn't mean there is anything to hide" when officials of his union clam up before the committee.

"They took the protection of the Fifth Amendment because they didn't have the formal education to compete with the lawyers and didn't want to run the risk of perjury," he stated.

335 Will Graduate Tonight at Waterford High School

Roy A. Larmee, director of the University of Chicago Laboratory School, will deliver the commencement address at Waterford Township High School graduation exercises tonight for 335 seniors.

Scheduled to begin at 8, the program will be held outdoors on the school football field, weather permitting. The gymnasium is the alternative.

The prelude, processional and recessional will be played by Beverly Wells. The Rev. Benjamin Bohn, pastor of the Crescent Hills Baptist Church, will deliver the invocation and benediction.

Lanny Younger will present the valedictory message.

Superintendent of Waterford Township Schools William Shunck will do the introductions, while Principal James S. Fry will present the class. Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, president of the Waterford Township Board of Education, will award diplomas.

'Can't Afford It,' Says Whitmer

Board Will Act on New Wage Scale for 803 Here Tomorrow

By HARVEY ZUCKERBERG

The Pontiac Board of Education will act tomorrow on a new wage scale increase for the city's 803 teachers.

It won't meet the requested pay hike put to the Board two weeks ago by a joint salary committee of the Pontiac Education Association and the American Federation of Teachers.

"We are not going to be able to be as high as the teachers would like," said Dr. Dana P. Whitmer, superintendent of schools. "We simply can't afford it."

Whitmer said the increase in the pay schedule he will present to the Board tomorrow will be based on the cost of living increase in the Detroit area over the past two years.

The teachers got their last raise in 1957.

The increase will be "just a little bit over" the 2.1 per cent cost of living figure.

The teachers' request was based on more than twice that percentage. Their pay schedule submitted for consideration of the Board was rated on the national cost of living increase over the past two years, which comes to 4.3 per cent.

In dollars and cents, the teachers starting salaries are $4,350 with a bachelor degree, $4,550 with a master degree, $4,750 with 30 hours credit beyond the master's and $4,950 with a doctorate.

ASK FOR $200

Again, in dollars and cents, the teachers have asked for a raise of close to $200 for the starting teacher with a bachelor degree. The new schedule of the Board calls for a raise of approximately $100.

Whitmer cited the reduction of teachers' purchasing power and the school system's "competitive position" as the factors making necessary a salary schedule adjustment.

"Teachers are scarce and competition is keen," Whitmer said. "There are more jobs than there are teachers. We must meet the competition in order to attract teachers of quality.

"The Pontiac school system competes with 52 other school systems in the Detroit metropolitan area. We are ranked 39th in pay for teachers, far below the median."

The superintendent said this situation puts Pontiac at a distinct recruiting disadvantage.

"We have to begin recruiting in February for teachers for the next fall term," he said. "Every year we must hire about 120 to fill vacancies and meet demands of population increases. We have budgeted 18 additional teachers this year because of swelling enrollment.

MUST RECRUIT, RETAIN

"But we must not only recruit them, we must be able to retain them also. Our teachers feel that the Pontiac school system is an excellent one. But they must also be happy with their economic status as well as their job."

★ ★ ★

Whitmer said the responsibility must be met to maintain the economic position of teachers as a quality staff is, more than any other factor, the basic necessity for a good school system.

Whitmer warned, "If the new pay schedule does not meet their expectations, we are going to lose some teachers to competing school areas."

★ ★ ★

The semi-monthly Board meeting will be held at 5 p.m. tomorrow at Madison Junior High School.

Search Continuing for Missing Girl

18 and the other about two years younger.

More than 200 officers sought the girl last night.

★ ★ ★

Susan, a Mumford High School freshman, left home at 9 a.m. Monday to study for examinations. She was to go to either her school library or a public library but police said she did not arrive at either.

★ ★ ★

The girl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lawrence, told police Susan, their only child, received a threatening telephone call recently in which the caller said "If I ever get ahold of Susan, she'll never know what hit her."

They said they also had been plagued by repeated telephone calls in which the caller hung up when they answered the phone.

The girl's mother said her daughter had about $2 with her when she left the house. She said Susan did not date and was "very shy." She's so tiny that she looks only about 9 or 10."

Susan was wearing a red gingham skirt, white blouse and black leather shoes when last seen. She is 4 feet 11, weighs 70 pounds and has blue eyes and brown hair.

Her parents told police their daughter was a good student and the only difficulty she had had in school occurred recently when her purse was stolen. Susan reported the theft and the name of a girl she thought took the purse.

The Lawrences said a bunch of students waited outside the school that night for Susan but the girl ran back inside and was driven home by a teacher.

The Day in Birmingham

See No Water Shortage Here, Say Gare, Kenning

BIRMINGHAM — The indications are at present that Birmingham will face no water shortage, according to Water Dept. Chief Robert Kenning and City Manager L. R. Gare.

Area communities which experienced shortages did so because of a distribution problem in their mains according to the Southeastern Water Authorities.

Gare pointed out that should the Detroit office issue sprinkling regulations Birmingham must abide by them. He added that in an extreme emergency the city would operate its South and Wakefield wells.

The Wakefield Well was operated for a short time Monday night when a power failure reduced the pressure in the Water Authority Mains.

Fire Chief Park H. Smith put the city's emergency generator into operation for the authority until repairs were completed.

Kenning said Birmingham is using about 6 million gallons of water a day. This is very close to the peak consumption reported last summer.

Six persons escaped injury about 9 last night when a large tree toppled across two south bound lanes of Woodward avenue at the intersection of Cranbrook road.

Robert Boyd of 864 Bernie Lane, Madison Heights, told Bloomfield Hills Police that he had just turned south on Woodward avenue when he saw the tree begin to fall.

Riding with him were his wife; his year-old daughter; his sister, Judy Boyd of 1729 Otis St. Oak Park; his brother Phil Boyd; and Jerome Kerr.

★ ★ ★

Miss Boyd and Kerr are to be married Saturday.

Property damages amounted to $2,000 last month according to the accident report issue today by Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley.

Six persons were injured in fifty accidents with property damage estimates at $8,735. Right-of-way violations contributed to half the accidents, Moxley said.

Members of the Franklin Cemetery Auxiliary will meet at 1 p.m. tomorrow for their annual picnic at the home of Mrs. Floyd Beardslee, 725 E. Square Lake Rd.

Following the business meeting, sale of plants and bake goods will be held.

MRS. EVA SHERBINO

Service for Mrs. Eva Sherbino, 74, of 435 Madison Ave. will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow from St. Paul's Chapel of Christ Church Cranbrook.

Burial will be in Milford Cemetery. Her body is at Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

Mrs. Sherbino died yesterday in a Detroit nursing home following a long illness.

Her only survivor is a brother, Clarence Burnett of Ortonville.

Learn-to-Swim Drive Opens This Week at 'Y'

The 1959 annual Rotary YMCA Learn-to-Swim campaign opened this week, with registrations now being accepted at the Pontiac YMCA.

Boys and girls 9 years old or over who don't know how to swim may register for the free classes.

Instructors said the classes will be limited to 465 children. Each child must be accompanied by a parent to register.

Twenty-six Rotarians under the chairmanship of Mac T. Whitfield have contacted all elementary schools in Pontiac and secured applications of interested children.

The applications merely serve as interest finders, not as actual registration slips, Whitfield pointed out.

The campaign this year will be conducted June 15 to June 26.

Rainy Relief Seen for Many Spots in U.S.

By The Associated Press

Rain fell across scattered sections of the country today as June's spell of warm weather continued in many areas.

Wet weather was in store for many parts of the country, in the form of showers and thundershowers during the late afternoon and evening.

Severe thunderstorms developed in eastern North Dakota and western Minnesota Monday as warm and cool air clashed. Tornadic winds lashed the Fargo, N. D., area, causing thousands of dollars of property damage. No injuries were reported but an 18-year-old girl was killed by lightning near Ardoch, in northwestern North Dakota.

More than 75 persons were made temporarily homeless in the Fargo area after the strong winds toppled 25 trailer homes. At least 30 aircraft were destroyed or damaged. Rain and hail pelted the city.

Precipitation during the night was widely scattered. Showers fell in areas from northern parts of the Gulf Coast states into sections of the Ohio Valley.

Out of the warm belt were wide areas in the far Northwest and eastward through Montana and along the Canadian borders of North Dakota and Minnesota. In the Northeast, only Maine and New Hampshire were completely covered by cool air. Temperatures in the cool belts were mostly in the 50s.

Combined Tax Rate Drops $1.29 in City

VALUATIONS DIP

Reason for the dip is that county and state equalized valuations in Pontiac have dropped this year, although the city assessed valuations have gone up.

County and school tax allocations are based on state equalized values, while the city spreads taxes on the lower, assessed valuations set by the Pontiac Assessing Dept.

The drop in equalized valuations (county and state figures are virtually identical) was from $335,000,000 to $319,000,000.

★ ★ ★

Behind the cutback is the fact that the Pontiac Assessing Dept. convinced the County Equalization Committee and the State Tax Commission that city assessed values more closely approximated state equalized values than formerly believed.

This was especially true of Pontiac's industrial assessments, Ransom said.

"The county and state had previously been equalizing Pontiac's values at a rate too high to be fair," Ransom said.

During the process of equalization, the county and state decided not to boost Pontiac assessed values so high this year. The Pontiac equalization factor was only 1.23 this year, compared with 1.52 last year.

This means that Pontiac equalized values are only 1.23 times higher than assessed values this year, instead of 1.52 times as high.

Thus, though county and school millage allocations are the same this year as last, those rates translated into terms of assessed valuations will be lower than last year.

As far as dollars and cents go, the cutback in the tax rates will probably do much to offset the rise in assessed valuations this year, officials said.

Pontiac's assessed valuation is $277,213,800, this year, a rise of $6,269,800 over last year. This increase is broken down into $3,041,650 on real property and $3,227,650 on personal.

Because of the rise in assessed valuations, the city will be able to increase its tax collections sufficiently to meet increased operating expenses, although maintaining last year's tax rate, Willman said.

Walter Reuther Denies He Backs Williams in '60

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Walter Reuther says he is not backing Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams "or anybody else" for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

"I have no candidates," the president of the United Auto Workers told newsmen yesterday when asked about his choice.

Commissioners OK $7,654 for Straley Hearing

City commissionrs last night voted to pay $7,654 to cover expense of the Herbert W. Straley hearing before the Civil Service Commission.

★ ★ ★

They authorized payment of bills from James G. Hartrick, special counsel for the Civil Service Commission; A. Floyd Blakeslee, special assistant counsel for the city; and Oakland County Court Reporters Co., which recorded transcripts of the 18-day hearing.

Hartrick's payment was $1,960, Blakeslee's $2,610, and the court reporters' $3,084.

Hartrick's payment was $65 less than originally charged. Mayor Philip E. Rowston said Hartrick had agreed to charge only $20 an hour for 11 hours of conference work, instead of $25.

Publishers Predict 10-Cent Newspaper

NEW YORK (UPI) — U. S. daily newspaper prices are gradually edging toward a dime a copy, the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. reported today.

★ ★ ★

Some 170 papers now cost 10 cents at news stands, an increase of eight papers in the past four months, the association said. "The trend toward more 10-cent U. S. daily newspapers continues."

★ ★ ★

Newspapers selling for eight cents have advanced to eight, a gain of three since February. Some 483 papers cost seven cents, the same number as in February; 49 six cents, a drop of two; and 991 five cents, a decline of nine.

★ ★ ★

The papers attribute the price increases to the climbing costs of newsprint, wages, fringe benefits and other materials and services, the association said.

Wants Space-Monkey

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—A Hollywood studio said it has formally asked the Army's Missile Command to release space-monkey Baker from "the rigors of scientific research" to co-star with Mamie Van Doren and Mickey Rooney in a picture entitled: "The Private Lives of Adam and Eve."

Change Made in Tally of Waterford Election

A correction has been made in the Waterford Township school election total with top winner Edmund L. Windeler receiving 76 votes in the Waterford Village precinct instead of the 17 votes reported in yesterday's Pontiac Press.

However, his total of 349 votes remains the same, according to unofficial reports.

Eskimo Children Are Wonderful Phenomena

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — Four years ago about this time, when the first signs of summer were trickling down the necks of my city friends, I was trapped in the northernmost town of the United States.

It should have been pleasant, sleeping in a parka and trying for a tan while lying on an ice bank in the Arctic Ocean under a 24-hour sun.

But it wasn't. It was bleak and eerie and almost — how to explain it? — unearthly, in Pt. Barrow, Alaska.

In the bluish light of the midnight sun, dozens of tiny, fur-inflated figures of Eskimo children bounced like so many rubber balls outside the wooden barracks the U. S. Army maintains for the rare visitor. The children made small, piping sounds as they endlessly and idiotically jumped the night away.

To add to the weird symphony, a large number of mangy, skeleton-thin huskie dogs wailed in constant discord with the human chorus.

FOG CLOSES IN

After one night of sleepless loneliness I was ready to leave. But then the fog closed in. I spent the day at the weather shack, where a government lady observer kept remarking:

"Anybody'd be crazy to try to come in, in this. But we've got some crazy pilots up here . . ."

Outside, in an enclosure of fog that was darker than midnight of the day before, more children bounced and yipped, and more dogs howled. The local weather girl didn't seem to notice.

"Oh, that," she said. "You don't even hear it after awhile. These Eskimo children are the smartest kids anywhere in the world — well certainly the least inhibited. They jump because it keeps them warm and makes them strong. They make those little cries because they're happy but they don't want to wake anybody.

NO ROUTINE

"They play all night, or all day, because up here they never know the difference. They sleep only when they're sleepy, and they eat only when they're hungry, and thank God the world hasn't told 'em they're wrong."

★ ★ ★

I went back to the barracks, having stopped at the commissary on the way for a canned-ham type sandwich. At the door, clustered like an assortment of stuffed pandas with human faces, were seven of the unworldly, uninhibited ones. I am not very tall, especially in snowshoes, but they reached scarcely further than my waist.

★ ★ ★

With the roundest eyes in the mooniest faces on earth, they watched me. Their mouths, pale and small under their beefsteak-tomato cheeks, opened as mine opened.

When I took a bite, they bounced in sheer ecstasy.

I thrust the sandwich forward. They looked at it, then at me, with wonder. They neither extended a hand to take it, nor shook their heads in refusal. I don't think there is any gesture for "no" in Eskimo.

No native pride. They simply were not hungry.

Remembering children from other places, who tend to cram down anything tasty as long as it's offered, I wondered if these really were children at all. And as they bounced off across the jagged ice, in the pure delight of being alive in their stark nightmare world, I decided they were not.

They are wise, wonderful phenomena in a world that elsewhere suffers from malnutrition and gout.

UNIQUE RECIPES

Today I received a 4x4 booklet called the "Eskimo Cook Book," prepared by students of Shismaref Day School and published by the Alaska Crippled Children's Association, Anchorage. It is explained, in a typewritten preface, that "Eskimos don't have cook books," but the schoolkids were asked to describe how their mothers prepared their favorite dishes.

These are comparatively sophisticated children, who can speak English, so there are dozens of delightful delicacies. Like "boiled ptarmigan small intestine," "bear feet cooked well," "oogruk flippers in fresh blubber."

But my favorite, remembering Pt. Barrow, is a recipe offered by Agnes Kiyutelluk, for "soured seal liver."

"Soured seal liver is made in the summer. Place liver in enamel pot and cover with blubber. Put in warm place for a few days until sour. Most of the boys and girls don't like it, except grown-ups and old people. I don't like it either."

Only 1 Attends Dinner of Last Man Brotherhood

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — The table was set for 33. A bottle of very old Madenra wine stood near the head of the table and there were 33 lighted candles — one at each place.

But only one man was there.

It was whate may have been the next to last annual meeting of "The Last Man Brotherhood."

Frederick O. Goresbeck, 88, a white-haired farmer from Vernon sat alone at the head table — the only one of three known surviving members of the organization able to attend last night's dinner.

After officially calling the meeting to order, Goresbeck solemnly walked around the table. At each place he read a name card and blew out a candle until only three candles remained lighted.

One was in front of him. The others represented his neighbors, William H. Pease, 89, who "still gets around a little, but now he's incapacitated" and Thomas J. Potter, also 89, of Mt. Dora, Fla.

The original brotherhood was founded nearly two centuries ago by oarsmen on the Thames River in England. The Hartford brotherhood was founded at the turn of this century.

Traditionally, the last surviving member opens the bottle of Madiera wine, vintage 1840, drinks a toast to the departed members, pockets the treasury and forms a new broherhood.

Not so with Goresbeck.

"I'm getting weary," he said. "this takes a lot of time. Next year we probably will terminate it."

Cable Highway Carries Goods to Site of Dam

NEW YORK (UPI) — Building the Glen Canyon Dam in north central Arizona is the biggest construction job going on in the United States today and it couldn't be done without an aerial highway of steel.

Men and materials are being carried to the ruggedly inaccessible construction site by a network of steel cables strung from towers 700 feet above the Colorado River, according to the American Iron and Steel Institute publication Steelways.

Glen Canyon, scheduled for operation in 1964, will open up some 110,000 square miles of arid land in Arizona, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico and Wyoming.

Two-fifth of the U. S. milk supply is used in fluid state.

Bob Considine Says:

France Wants Atom Age Big League Status

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK—Charles de Gaulle made a fervid resolve when he was returned to power a year ago that nothing — including his life — would stand in the way of his determination to restore France's lost prestige as a world power.

Nothing has. The almost mystic man has reason to believe that he was Providentially selected to lead the Free French in World War II and in the twilight of life end the chaos that accumulated in the Assembly, the government and the colonies during his years in political exile.

France has recovered amazingly in that single year. The franc has stiffened, Algeria's colossal oil reserves are on the point of being tapped, the tragi-comic spectacle of the wrangling Assembly is ended, and there is no question of France's place at the table when the Titans meet.

But in one grave respect, France remains a minor league nation. It has no military strength to brandish at the conference table. It has no atomic potential, which is the modern substitute and superior of conventional military strength.

De Gaulle, therefore, has taken an awesome short cut toward that status by threatening to pull France out of NATO unless the United States and Britain make it an atomic partner. Obviously, De Gaulle's emissaries had suggested such cooperation privately and been rebuffed. De Gaulle has utilized the weapon of the enemy, Russia, the threat, to deal with his friends. He'll probably get enough of his demand to enable France to hold up her head when it sits with the Big Three atomic powers.

But, hauntingly, it recalls the prophecy of Bernard Baruch when the Russians spurned his atomic inspection plan. The old man said the day would come when, without inspection, even the poor little nations of the world would possess nuclear arsenals and one headstrong zealot with a nation the size of his hat, and consequently little to lose, could plunge the world into a war that could cause a hundred million deaths and more.

Still, it seems grossly inconsistent to accept De Gaulle as a full partner in the human shield of the West against the Soviet bloc and then deny him the only credentials that are recognized in the Atomic Age. The real problem will come when all the other friends and then even the neutrals demand the same concessions.

Incidentally, the greatest nuclear physicist France ever produced, Joliot-Curie, was the only Western scientist who refused to stop publishing papers on his findings during the period while U. S. and Allied physicists were secretly concocting the first atomic bomb. After the war he was granted permission by the U. S. State Department to visit the United States, but the security section of the Manhattan Engineering District (the bomb-building complex) quietly vetoed the State Department's order.

It assigned an agent to accompany Joliot-Curie and to see that he never got here. The operative, soul of hospitality, kept Joliot-Curie in a London hotel suite for days on end, on one pretense and then another, often bogus reports about bad flying weather. The gift of the agent's camel's hair coat was the clincher that persuaded the French scientist to give up on his seemingly ill-starred trip and return home.

Why? The M.E.D. had learned that left-winger Joliot-Curie planned to go to Russia after his U. S. trip. It wished to take no chances.

What we didn't know at the time was that Russia was already well along with its production of the bomb that would break the U. S. monopoly which some of our best people thought would last a generation.

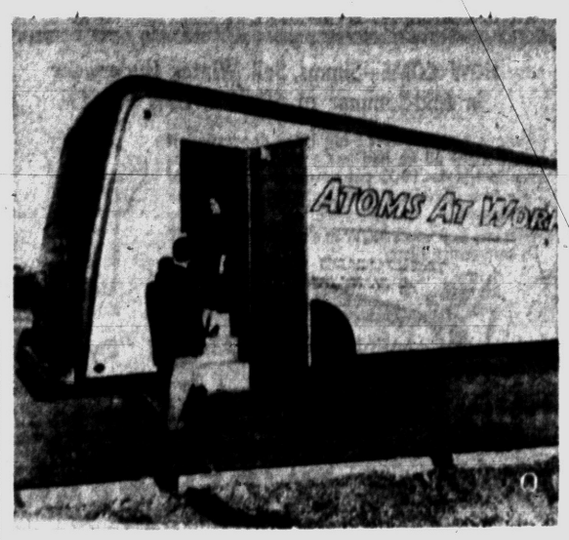

The German-born thermonuclear genius, Dr. Klaus Fuchs, had slipped into this country with the distinguished British nuclear team which came here early in the game. The Roosevelt administration, as a courtesy to Winston Churchhill, let all enter without even routine security checks.

★ ★ ★

They knew from Nazi sources that Fuchs was a Communist. By the time the bombs fell on Hiroshima and Nagasaki, Russia knew almost as much about how to create them as we did, through Fuchs, Dr. Alan Nunn May, the Rosenbergs, Sgt. David Greenglass and the courier Harry Gold.

Fuchs will be released from a British prison soon and go to work for the East German Communist government.

All of which helps lend validity to De Gaulle's demand for egalite.

ATOMIC EXHIBIT — Today ends the three-day appearance here of the Atomic Energy Commission's mobile exhibit on peaceful uses of atomic energy. The trailer exhibit has been located on N. Saginaw street, between Huron and Lawrence, under the sponsorship of the Pontiac Area Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Armour to Close Slaughterhouses

Will Shut Chicago Yards Operations, Others in Five Cities

CHICAGO (UPI) — Armour and Co., a long-time institution at the Chicago stockyards, will close its slaughterhouses here within the next few months.

★ ★ ★

The company announced Monday that livestock slaughtering also will be discontinued at East St. Louis, Ill.; Denver; Tifton, Ga.; West Fargo, N.D. and Columbus, Ohio.

Armour will continue certain livestock buying, processing and sales operations at the affected plants, the statement said.

It said the company will try to transfer 5,000 employes affected by the closings to other plants.

Slaughtering operations have been continued at heavy losses for several years despite a program of modernization and new equipment, the company said.

★ ★ ★

Obsolescence of buildings, declining livestock receipts at some markets and "a widely recognized condition of excess production capacity in the meat packing industry" were blamed for the move.

Little Child Spreads Pestilence and Fire

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (UPI) — Four-year-old Chuck Thrall, who was taken to police headquarters after being found wandering near his home early one morning, exposed at least nine persons to his measles before his father arrived to fetch him back home.

Next day, Chuck managed to set fire to his mattress and suffered first and second degree burns.

Yale had the first course in geology in the U.S. in 1809.

U.S. Propaganda on Geneva Booms

GENEVA (AP) — The United States today mounted a propaganda offensive to counter Soviet attempts to blame the lack of progress by the Big Four at Geneva on the West.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. Information Agency and Voice of America broadcasts told the world that the foreign ministers' meeting appears headed for failure and that "Soviet stubborness and stone-wall rigidity" are to blame. The American statements also charged that the Soviets are blocking the Geneva talks on a ban on nuclear weapon tests.

★ ★ ★

All U.S. broadcasts included President Eisenhower's repeated warnings that his willingness to attend a summit conference depended on progress at Geneva.

Decade of Seaway Problems Ahead

CHICAGO (AP) — Ocean ships have carried headaches as well as cargoes up the new St. Lawrence Seaway.

A candid report to that effect was given — in detail — yesterday by Maxim Cohen, general manager of the Chicago Regional Port District.

And he figured problems will persist for a decade.

Cohen, a veteran of 34 years in the business, figuratively let down his gray hair before a group of newsmen and attorneys at the Institute of Admiralty and Maritime Law sponsored by the John Marshall Law School.

★ ★ ★

Referring to the congestion that developed this spring along the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes shipping lanes, he stated:

"As long as we have a St. Lawrence Seaway, we will have congestion at the beginning and end of the season."

The seaway operates for about eight months of each year. The glut of vessels at the opening this year was caused, in part, by a pile-up due to ice in the water.

Cohen said that the facilities of Chicago's Lake Calumet are not adequate at this time in the sense that it lacks a big dock for handling steel and another for handling bulk liquids. But, he commented, other Great Lakes ports have the same problems.

★ ★ ★

He said the seaway, to be successful, must provide bulk cargoes both ways — such as grain outbound and ore, in bound.

He also said that western lake ports need to draw cargo from a hinterland extending all the way to the Rocky Mountains. He noted that western railroads have not taken steps to reduce rates on shipments from this area to the ports for shipments overseas.

Cohen predicted that Soviet Russia will bring boatloads of potash to the Great Lakes and take cargoes of carbon black at Sarnia, Ont., for return trips.

He said that it is inevitable that a new port will be built in the Burns Ditch area in Indiana.

★ ★ ★

And he said that some day Canada may abolish seaway tolls because they are unpopular with both the wheat growers and industry in the Dominion.

One of 70 Youngsters to Spell Way to Title

WASHINGTON (AP)—Boys and girls who can wade through words that would sink most grownups compete today for the title of national spelling champion.

Seventy youngsters—37 girls and 33 boys—reached the two days of finals through regional contests held all over the country.

★ ★ ★

The champion will be crowned Thursday after as many rounds as it takes to eliminate all but one. A single miss and they're out.

All the entries are 15 years of age or under. None is past the eighth grade in school.

John Nelson, 9, of Houston, Tex., is the youngest.

★ ★ ★

Gerardo Aguirre, 15, of Tamaulipas, Mexico, is the oldest. Gerardo also is the first Mexican to get all the way to the finals in the 32 national spelling bees. He crosses the Rio Grande every day to attend classes in Laredo, Tex.

Hard of Hearing Turn to Stereo Craze Too

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stereo has gone to work for the hard-of-hearing. Hearing aids have been developed which come in pairs, one for each ear, separately adjusted.

The Hearing Aid Industry Conference said this method of binaural hearing enables persons with certain types of defects to achieve a better sense of sound direction and distance than a single aid would give them.

Video Interests Daughter

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Maxwell Distenfeld was taking a little nap before dinner when his 11-year-old daughter Krissie, who had been watching television, tiptoed into the bedroom and patted him gently on the cheek.

When Dad asked Krissie what she wanted, she replied: "I just wanted to know whether you have a medium or a heavy beard."

Nickel was used for plating as early as 1843, but because of the metal's high price then and the difficulty of getting it in a state pure enough, it was not until about 1870 that nickelplating was established as an industry.

State Voters Definitely Prefer Use or Sales Tax to Income Tax

The uncompromising battle goes on in Lansing.

Several independent polls around the state have shown that the people prefer a sales tax or a use tax. They don't want a graduated income tax. They don't want a piggyback income tax.

The piggyback tax is a percentage of your Federal income tax, but that's graduated already so the piggy deal is graduated automatically.

They don't want an income tax period. The people universally said the sales tax comes in tiny amounts and is easier to pay. Also, its backers say it is MUCH CHEAPER to collect.

★ ★ ★

Historically, the voters have rejected a State income tax several times. As a matter of fact, they don't want more taxes at all and that's understandable; but the average citizen grants that there seems to be a desperate need for more taxes AND IF WE HAVE TO HAVE ANOTHER TAX, the sales tax is the least painful.

It's paid in driblets.

You pay according to your spending.

Outside residents help, too.

★ ★ ★

Hence, if a man spends $20,000 a year, and another spends $4,000, the man with the larger income pays FIVE TIMES AS MUCH TAX. He pays it at the same rate as the lesser, but some of the slippery Democrats would have you believe he pays it at a different rate or in some highly mysterious manner that only they can figure. Don't be fooled. The man that spends $20,000 pays five times as much tax as the one that spends four.

★ ★ ★

And yet the Dems continue to drag their feet and leave Michigan dangling. The will of the people bows before the will of a few top leaders who propose to run everything their way, irrespective of what the citizens prefer.

★ ★ ★

The Reuther-Williams Democrats are champions of an unpopular cause. They're trying to ram their own system down the voters' throats whether they like it or not.

This is highhanded and arrogant. It defies the will of the people.

★ ★ ★

Let's modify this attitude and solve Michigan's problem. We stand bankrupt, stupid and bungling in the eyes of the United States and even in some foreign countries. Of course, we're none of those things.

Let's win back our good name.

Let's pay our bills and go forward.

Read These Statistics Before You Drive Again

Let's not rest on our laurels of honorable mention for traffic safety. Accidents are expensive. According to the National Safety Council, they cost the nation nearly 12 billion dollars a year

★ ★ ★

Accidents know no peer as a killer of young people, the Council reports. It cites this evidence.

More persons 15 - 24 years of age die in accidents than from all other diseases and other causes combined.

Accidents are the leading cause of death among persons in the 1-36 age group.

★ ★ ★

The motor vehicle is the No. 1 accidental death dealer among persons aged 5-74. Falls are No. 2.

Nearly one in three hospital emergency - room patients is an accident victim. These victims spend more time in the hospital, on the average, than other patients.

An American is hurt in an accident every three seconds. One person is killed every six minutes. Remember, you could fall in this category.

"These are pretty shocking statistics," the Council said. They certainly emphasize the urgent need not to be complacent when driving a car.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac has a good record and should be congratulated. All of us could improve our driving habits. Statistics do not just happen, they are made.

David Lawrence Says:

French Nuclear Issue Will Resolve

LONDON—The dispute over how much encouragement should be given to France to become a nuclear power and whether American jet bombers shall be transferred to bases outside France unless permission is given to stockpile atomic bombs in that country is likely to be ironed out satisfactorily.

LAWRENCE

The reason is that there is much merit on both sides, and the only real difficulty is that President De Gaulle has not yet come to grips with some financial facts that lie at the bottom of the controversy.

★ ★ ★

France, to be sure, has every right to become a nuclear power, as President De Gaulle wishes. But so has the United States a right to consider whether and to what extent she will share her nuclear information with other powers. Similarly, France has the right to say what military units shall be stationed on her soil, especially those which would be used in an atomic war.

Great Britain has never surrendered this right, and in the last analysis reserves the privilege of vetoing the use of bombs that are stockpiled on her territory. The assumption is that, in an emergency, permission will be forthcoming promptly—but the fact remains that such permission has to be obtained from a parliamentary government and not from a British army commander stationed at NATO headquarters.

General De Gaulle is a man in whom the passions of an intense nationalism are as deeply ingrained today as they were during World War II when he headed the French government in exile. He has always been a hard man to negotiate with, and he sometimes goes off on a tangent in disregard of the advice of his own close associates. There certainly is no reason why an agreement shouldn't be reached which will retain for France the right to say whether and when atomic bombs and missiles may be launched from French territory.

But NATO cannot in turn give France nuclear information or the means of becoming a nuclear power. This is something which depends on a vote by the Congress of the United States, which must amend the present law concerning the sharing of nuclear information. It also depends on the practical use that will be made of such data.

Obviously it costs a great deal of money to become a nuclear power, and the French budget—now strained to the utmost, especially by the war in Algeria—cannot possibly provide the funds needed to engage in nuclear production. Nor is the United States likely to appropriate such money at a time when world sentiment seems to favor less and less production and distribution of nuclear weapons.

Even Britain is feeling the financial strain of the nuclear business, and there is a nationwide feeling here that tests should be abandoned. This naturally would mean a curtailment of production, too.

What is disconcerting about the whole episode is that some of the French reliance on bargaining technique is producing a rather unfavorable impression. It is a little outdated as a means of influencing American policy for the French to go on the theory that the United States may be persuaded to give in on the French request for nuclear information if permission for the stockpiling of atomic weapons is refused by the French government.

There is in the United States considerable sympathy for General De Gaulle's desire to raise the prestige of his country on the military side, but in these days, when a nuclear-war plan requires instant cooperation by all the Western Allies, it would be foolish to build up a cumbersome machinery of consultation and permission-giving. France has been overrun once because she was not adequately prepared or did not have enough help on hand from the outside to maintain her military position. So bungling in the defense preparations now could have disastrous effects in the next big emergency.

One of the paradoxes in the French situation is that, if nuclear tests are really to be suspended by agreement with the Soviets, there is not much reason to add any new member to the "nuclear club."

As for bomber bases in France, these, relatively speaking, may turn out to be of less and less importance.

Dr. William Brady Says:

He Caught Heart Disease While Listening to Speech

"My husband heard a speech on heart disease" (writes a Wisconsin reader) "and now he has abandoned the use of all foods having any non-soluble fat — particularly butter, cream, whole milk, shortening, egg yolks and meat fats. He says such food is extremely bad and likely to be fatal to males after 35.

DR. BRADY

"We have three boys—7, 9 and 13 — and a girl 15 years old. He insists the boys take only skimmed milk, but the girl may have whole milk. He says I may eat the yolk of eggs, that it won't hurt me until the change of life, and then I'll have to cut out all soluble fats . . .

"Please give us your views on this soluble and non-soluble fat business. (Signed) Mrs. L. G.

There's a special kind of heart disease, which your husband evidently contracted from the person who made the speech on heart disease. It is called iatrogenic heart disease. IATRO is Greek for doctor or medicine; —GENIC means produced.

It is my belief that it would take a rigidly supervised dietic experiment or test on a large group of persons, with an equal number of controls, at least 30 years to give us significant evidence that the amount of cholesterol in the diet has anything to do with the development of atherosclerosis or heart disease.

Since we have no such evidence, it seems to me foolish to exclude such essential foods as butter, egg yolk and meat from the diet.

Three kinds of physicians worry patients about cholesterol in the diet: First, those who are shrewdly aware how much such dietary advice impresses customers—who think it is scientific and up to date. Second, the doctors who go along with the fad because they can't stand seeing their patients running from one specialist to another for such up-to-date advice. Third, doctors who think there may be something in the theory that cholesterol in the diet is "deposited" in the artery wall or in the heart wall.

In view of the wide variation in the amount of cholesterol in the blood in health (says Duncan's "Diseases of Metabolism"), apparent deviations from normal in the presence of disease must be interpreted with caution.

I don't know whether to laugh or cry when I see or hear of one of these poor souls carefully trimming the tasty fat from his meat or discarding the yolks of eggs or denying himself butter, cream or whole milk in the vain attempt to prevent cholesterol "deposits" in his coronary arteries.

Letter From 'Overtaxed' Brings Storm of Protest

I'm not a teacher or home owner, and pros and cons of raising teachers' pay is something I have no opinion on, but I do have an opinion of Overtaxed's sense of values.

His statement, "All they do is teach kids anyway," prompted me to write. I can't think of a better reason for granting a raise than that statement alone.

Harry Roebuck

I wonder if Overtaxed has taxed his brain lately? The idea that our teachers aren't doing an important job is revolting.

★ ★ ★

Does Overtaxed ever need a doctor? Do our laws protect him? Doctors and lawyers wouldn't be there if they hadn't had a grade school and high school education. Maybe Overtaxed would like to live in a country where basic education is unimportant. If he would look around, he would see all the things that are provided him by the basic education others have had.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Overtaxed couldn't have had much of an education or he wouldn't gripe about educating the present generation. Too bad he can't see beyond his pocketbook.

Mrs. Sireta Neighbors

Lake Orion

I wonder what Overtaxed would do if he or she were asked to teach and discipline 30 to 35 pupils. He'd yell for more money. Some children don't know how to act because parents won't teach them. Teachers must like the job or they wouldn't teach for what they receive.

I'm no teacher, but I do appreciate what they're trying to do for our children. I have three boys and I'm a Cub Scout leader, and even that is a job. I say hurray for teachers who are doing their best to teach our doctors, lawyers and so on. Teachers work just as hard as somebody on a different type of job.

'Senator Kennedy Is Slipping Fast'

Kennedy's current bill practically stops newsboys under the age of 16. Once this man stood right at the top of his party ranks, but he has slipped and slipped until now he is as low as Williams. He would be a menace in any top public office. What ever would Abraham Lincoln think of men that proposed ideas like these?

'Wouldn't That Be a Terrible Mess?'

Socialized medicine isn't perfect, either. There's a move on foot in England for the doctors to strike to get their pay raised. That would be a bad blow to the health of the nation and what would you do if you were in a serious accident?

Reds Stall Bomb Talk

GENEVA (UPI) — American and British negotiators went into their 92nd session at the Geneva nuclear talks today with Russia still back-pedaling on the inspection issue.

★ ★ ★

So far the Soviets have failed to present the West with any clear-cut evidence that they are willing to back a workable system for detecting illegal nuclear blasts once a test ban is adopted.

The Western delegates have devoted much of their time since the conference resumed Monday after long adjournment to questioning the Russians about their plan for limited, on-the-spot inspections. No direct answers were forthcoming.

The Russians insist that most of the inspectors and control post personnel for policing a test ban in the U.S.S.R. be Russian.

There is a world of difference between their stand on the issue and that of the United States and Britain, which favor the setting up of an international "detective" bureau whose agents would be free to move almost anywhere at a moment's notice.

★ ★ ★

The West believes the Russian plan is "loaded" in the Soviet favor and could not honestly function.

Soviet unwillingness to provide key scientific information yesterday further dampened Western optimism on getting early agreement on a test ban.

There did seem to be some forward progress, however, which holds the promise of eventual success.

Russia and the West this week submitted separate proposals on the study of high altitude nuclear explosions, and it appeared likely to observers here a compromise between the two plans can be reached.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Change Yourself to Change World

Billy's case is startling, so use it at kindergarten or in Sunday School. World Wars are started by adult "Billys" who fail to employ the wise psychology which Billy's mother taught him. Russians respond to friendliness and kindness just as quickly as did the Indians whom William Penn encountered, but they also react just as quickly to threats and intimidation.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE B-457: Billy, aged 6, moved from the city to a home in the country.

CRANE

His parents had chosen a rustic old place with an old barn attached to it. And behind the barn was a little valley, on the far side of which was a tall cliff.

The very first day in the new location, Billy and his dog were exploring back of the barn. During their play, Billy laughed loudly.

Much to his surprise, back came an answering laugh from across the valley.

★ ★ ★

You and I realize that it was simply an echo. But Billy had never heard an echo before, so he knew nothing about such things.

Immediately, he became suspicious. The more he thought about it, the more hostile he felt toward that mocking boy who lived across the valley.

★ ★ ★

"Hello," he shouted across the valley, rather belligerently, and in a split second, he was greeted by a mocking "Hello."

So Billy was now convinced that there was an unfriendly little boy across the way.

"I don't like you!" he shouted, and soon he received a similar taunt, "I don't like you!"

Now he was positive his neighbor was hostile.

"Come over here and I'll fight you," Billy boldly challenged, but his adversary was not abashed or scared into silence, for back came a similar dare, "Come over here and I'll fight you."

That was too much for Billy, so he ran into the house to inform his mother of his startling discovery.

LIFE IS OUR CHAMELEON

"Mother," he began breathlessly, "There's a naughty boy across the valley," but she looked her disbelief.

★ ★ ★

"Oh, yes there is," he insisted, "for he said he didn't like me and told me if I'd come over he'd fight me."

For a moment, Billy's mother was puzzled, but then she caught on to the situation.

So she told Billy if he'd be kind and pleasant to the little boy across the valley, she felt he would no longer want to fight Billy. And she coached Bill in what to say.

Billy rushed back to the barn, eager to test out his mother's advice, but meanwhile holding a Doubting Thomas attitude.

"Hello," he shouted again in a cordial tone and back came an equally cordial "Hello."

★ ★ ★

"I like you," he yelled, and much to his surprise, that previous bad boy now replied, "I like you."

"I wish you'd come over here and play with me," Billy called, and back came an equally gracious invitation, "I wish you'd come over here and play with me."

That demolished Billy's Doubting Thomas attitude entirely, so he rushed back to the house and explained to his mother that she was right, for the little boy across the valley had told Billy he liked him and had even asked him to come over and play with him.

Our kindly mothers and religious leaders try to tutor all of us in similar situations all throughout life, which is what helps lift Earth closer to heaven.

★ ★ ★

For life mirrors our own personal outlook. Our environment resembles a chameleon, that tiny lizard that changes its hue to fit its background.

To change the world, we must first change ourselves, deep inside!

Flight to Chicago No Quick Trip Via Honolulu

HONOLULU (AP)—Tired, he boarded the plane and dozed off.

Waking, he looked out of the window and saw the blue Pacific.

Richard Fuerst had intended to go to Chicago. He arrived in Honolulu.

★ ★ ★

He told the stewardess he apparently went through the wrong gate at Burbank, Calif. The pilot suggested he remain a day as the airline's guest. But Fuerst, of Marinette, Wis., insisted: "Got to get to Chicago."

After a 2-hour Hula holiday, he caught a plane for the mainland.

Hospital Pickets Battle Police

Graduation of Doctors Turned Into Melee as Strikers Join March

NEW YORK (AP)—Fifty policemen, swinging nightsticks, and about 100 pickets clashed Tuesday in the first outbreak of mass violence in the month-old hospital strike.

Seven pickets were arrested. No serious injuries were reported.

Leon Davis, president of the striking union, called for an investigation by Mayor Robert F. Wagner.

★ ★ ★

"We vigorously protest the brutal clubbing of the defenseless strikers by the police," he said. "And we call upon Mayor Wagner to investigate and take immediate action against the policemen responsible for these outrageous attacks."

The brief flareup occurred at a medical school graduation ceremony near one of the seven hospitals struck by nonprofessional workers.

★ ★ ★

The academic procession was made up of the faculty of New York Medical College and 123 students who were to receive degrees. They marched three blocks in 90 degree heat in academic robes. The hospital pickets gradually joined the end of the procession.

The trouble broke out when police formed a solid wall to move the pickets, by then a group almost as large as the procession out of the line. Doctors and students were not involved.

Young Father Is Killed in Fall Under Tractor

LANSING (UPI) — A 22-year-old father of three died near here yesterday when he fell under a farm tractor he was using to cultivate a corn field.

Frank Goebel apparently lost control of the tractor while backing, fell off and was killed when the vehicle ran over his skull, Eaton County sheriffs officers said. The machine then rolled down a 20-foot embankment and into the Grand River. The body is at the Fields Funeral Home, Dimondale, pending funeral arrangements, officers said.

Back in 1749, New York and New Hampshire nearly fought a war over territory. They were able to make peace before anything serious developed.

Ortonville Child Shoots Himself Unloading Rifle

A five-year-old Ortonville boy accidentally shot himself in the leg Tuesday while attempting to unload a .22 caliber rifle.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said Eric Wollerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wollerman of 1512 Hummer Lake Rd., was alone in a tent behind his home when the accident occurred shortly after noon.

The boy was treated by Dr. Paul Schoen Jr. of Ortonville, and was then taken to Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital for further treatment and Xrays. His condition is not serious, deputies said.

Eric told detectives that he saw the gun in the corner of the tent and picked it up. He said he was sitting on a cot "trying to get the bullets out" when it discharged.

The rifle, used by an older brother to shoot crows, had been left in the tent loaded, detectives reported.

Annuals or Perennials?

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, regarded as a contender for the Republican nomination for president, is having a sizable landscaping project done, at his own expense, around the governor's executive mansion. Wags are wondering whether he's planting annuals—or perennials.

Navy Won't Cut Seaway Cruise

States Canada Already Has OK'd Plan Despite New Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy said Tuesday that it will go ahead with plans to send a 27-ship flotilla through the St. Lawrence Seaway despite Canadian fears the warships might cause a seaway traffic jam.

Canadian Transport Minister George Hees told Parliament that he had asked the United States to cut the size of the flotilla and send only two ships through the locks each day.

Asked about the transport minister's suggestions, the Navy said plans for the trip had been approved by Canadian officials.

The Navy said the warships are scheduled to go through the seaway in separate groups.

The schedule calls for one ship to begin the passage June 22, followed by six the next day and four on June 24.

No American warships are scheduled to enter the seaway on June 25, but two will enter on the following day and four more on June 27.

The Navy said that in view of the prior Canadian approval of this schedule it "has no plans to modify the number of ships taking part" in the first large scale visit of seagoing warships to Great Lakes ports.

Summer Fluoride Clinic Slated for Waterford

With Waterford Township's first portable dental equipment scheduled to arrive this week, the summer topical fluoride treatment program is ready to begin June 16, according to coordinator Mrs. John Hoke.

A fee of $3 for four treatments will be charged each of the 1,400 children registered for the program. Children in the 4, 7, 10, and 13-year old age bracket will receive the treatments. The program will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. daily through Aug. 4.

Besides the new Waterford Township School District's dental equipment, which will be set up in the senior high school science room, there will be one set borrowed from the Michigan State Health Department and another rented from the Walled Lake School District.

Senior students from the University of Michigan and the University of Detroit will be assisted by two local residents and some 60 volunteer workers from 16 Parent-Teacher Assn. health committees in the township.

This will be the third year that the summer fluoride treatment program has been in operation. The project not only has become self-sustaining but it has been possible to reduce the treatments from $4 to $3, Mrs. Hoke said.

At an informal meeting June 15, Mrs. Hoke will present the new $700 dental chair and some $300 in equipment to Supt. of Schools William Shunck. The ultimate goal of the group is to be entirely independent of outside dental equipment, Mrs. Hoke added.

Dr. William K. Baer, representing the District Dental Society, is serving on the Executive Committee in charge, organizing the program.

Others include Mrs. Gordon Trevethan, orientation; Mrs. Martin Dewey, scheduling; Mrs. Robert Eisele, secretary - treasurer and Roy Gallipo, supplies and equipment.

Receives Probation in Try to Hire Killer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A middle-aged secretary who fell in love with her employer began two years probation today for attempting to have his wife assassinated by a hired killer.

Judge Joseph E. Gold imposed the sentence Tuesday after Pauline Weiss, 48, pleaded guilty at a hearing to solicitation to commit murder.

Judge Gold stipulated that Miss Weiss undergo psychiatric treatment at least once a month for the next two years and that he be given periodic reports on her emotional stability.

Miss Weiss' intended victim was Muriel Griffin, 53, wife of Willard K. Griffin, 58-year-old advertising executive.

Crime Rate in Cities Shows Slight Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—The FBI today reported a slight drop in major crime in the nation's cities during the first three months of the year.

★ ★ ★

The report, based on preliminary figures, was accompanied by an appeal from J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director. He asked the public "to continue and intensify cooperation with law enforcement officers in the continuing battle against the hardened criminal and vicious juvenile delinquents."

★ ★ ★

The FBI said that major crimes, on an over-all basis, dropped less than one per cent in cities of more than 25,000 population when compared with the rate of the first three months of 1958. In that year, major crimes reached an all-time high.

Pistol Fired 1st Shot

LEXINGTON, Mass. (UPI)—The "shot heard 'round the world" to ignite the American Revolution was fired from a pistol — not a musket, British Major John Pitcairn ordered the "rebels" to disperse and when they refused he whipped out his pistol and fired into them.

Each hour of the day and night U.S. railroads receive for shipment about 4,370 carloads of freight to be delivered to various destinations.

2 Arrested, Officer Shot in Windsor Bank Holdup

WINDSOR, Ont. (AP)—Two men have been arrested in connection with a daring daylight holdup of a Windsor bank in which a police officer was wounded critically.

Constable Bryan Pickup, father of three children, was shot in the stomach yesterday during a struggle with one of the bandits. He is reported in satisfactory condition today.

Pickup was the first of three officers who arrived at the Bank of Montreal branch in the city's east end in response to a general alarm.

The alarm was sounded, unnoticed by the bandits, by the bank's chief clerk, Norman Wingrover, as he and 15 customers and bank employes were being herded into the bank vault.

An eyewitness, Dawson Esvik, 49, of Windsor, helped the wounded officer arrest one of the gunmen. Esvik was driving a truck past the bank when he saw one of the bandits emerge from the bank.

"I saw this tall guy come out of the bank and throw himself on the policeman," he said. "They were grappling on the ground when the gun went off."

"I got out of my truck, rushed over and grabbed the guy's arm and twisted it right up his back. Another police officer came along and another guy came out of the bank. There were shots going off all over the place and I didn't know quite what was happening."

"The policeman was bleeding and I tried to help him while holding the guy down." The gunman was subdued and the revolver lay on the sidewalk.

Another eyewitness said that at least six shots were exchanged between one officer and one of the bandits before the gunman surrendered.

The two men arrested at the scene and now in custody are Kenneth Coulter Irwin, 34, of Toronto and Nicholas Hamilton (alias Nicholas McCormick), 32, of Vancouver. Irwin was released from prison in April.

More than $10,000 the bandits took from the bank in a shopping bag was recovered by the police. Grant Hibbert, the bank mnaager, said the thieves took $10,733.

Seven Certified as Aquatic Leaders

Seven persons have been certified as national YMCA aquatic leader-examiners by the Aquatics Department of the Pontiac YMCA.

They are William Banks, 58 Franklin Blvd.; James Gallivan, 723 Ludlow St., Rochester; Rita Olson, 573 Rascob Ave.; Donald Porritt, 90 Washington St.; Jane Rindfusz, 179 Nelson St.; Robert Willard, 3815 Mapleleaf St., Waterford Township; and Mary Wood, 761 Owego Dr.

★ ★ ★

John J. Moreau, 'Y' aquatic director, said that certifications were made after local training and attendance at Michigan area YMCA aquatic institutes held recently at Jackson and Flint.

Wind Cave in South Dakota became a national park in 1903. It has several miles of artistic galleries in its limestone walls.

House Jimmied Open, Only the Watchdog Gone

PITTSBURGH (AP) — When Lulu Mills went visiting, she took comfort in the thought that her 8-month-old boxer was guarding her apartment. He was rated a good watchdog.

★ ★ ★

She returned home to find the door to her apartment had been jimmied open. She told police the only thing missing was her watchdog.

Kennedy Subpenaed in Bufalino Suit

WASHINGTON (AP) — A subpena has been issued for Senate Rackets Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy in connection with a 3½ million dollar damage suit filed by Detroit Teamsters official William Bufalino against Time, Inc.

The subpoena was issued yesterday by U. S. District Court.

Kennedy is not a defendant in the suit. He is sought for the taking of an oral deposition in the case. Kennedy was asked to appear July 15 for the oral examination. The suit was filed last March in Federal Court in Detroit.

Bufalino, president of Teamsters Local 985, has a separate suit pending since last September in the same court in Detroit on behalf of himself and the local seeking five million dollars damages from Kennedy himself. Bufalino contends in this suit that Kennedy maliciously attacked his personal and professional reputation.

2 St. Louis Dailies Closed by Strike

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Both St. Louis daily newspapers were closed today by a strike of St. Louis Stereotypers Union Local 8 against the afternoon Post-Dispatch.

Materials and jurisdiction were involved in the complicated dispute.

★ ★ ★

The union struck at midnight Tuesday, forcing the morning Globe-Democrat to suspend publication. The Globe, target of a recent 99-day strike by the American Newspaper Guild, is printed by the Post-Dispatch under contract.

★ ★ ★

The Globe-Democrat's 2 a.m. edition was not published but the newspaper ran off all of its home editions by changing its schedule.

★ ★ ★

Picket lines were set up at midnight. No negotiations were held Tuesday night.

It All Settles Down With a Pair of Pants

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A laborer who lost his pants in a picket line scuffle got a new pair without much of a battle.

The picket, Charles Thomas, told an alderman his trousers were torn in a scuffle May 28 in front of the Artcraft Mantel Co.

Thomas and another picket made various charges against Joseph H. Bliss Jr., the firm's head, and Lawrence Vecci, an employe.

Opposing attorneys agreed all charges could be dropped if Thomas were given $23.50 for new trousers. That's how the case ended.

Killed Over Rock 'n' Roll

WEST ISLIP, N.Y. (AP)—Robert Coles Jr., 15, wept Tuesday as he was arraigned on a first-degree murder charge—accused of stabbing another boy to death in an argument over rock 'n' roll records. Carl Jaycox, 15, who police say borrowed the records and then refused to return some of them, died in a hospital earlier in the day. He had been stabbed in the neck with a penknife during the argument Monday night.

Attorneys to Decide on Klumpp Jury

CINCINNATI (AP) — Attorneys today begin the hazardous job of deciding where they might have made a mistake in tentatively accepting a full panel of 12 jurors for the first-degree murder trial of Edythe Klumpp.

Tentative selection of the panel of seven men and five women was completed Tuesday.

Mrs. Klumpp, a 41-year-old blonde part-time home economics teacher, is accused of killing Louise Bergen, 32, Oct. 30, and burning the body the next day after keeping it in her automobile overnight.

The state claims she killed Mrs. Bergen because Mrs. Bergen would not divorce her estranged husband, William, so he and Mrs. Klumpp could marry.

Mrs. Klumpp claims Mrs. Bergen was shot accidentally as they grappled for a gun.

Each side has six peremptory challenges by which they may excuse jurors.

Amazing New ION Producing PURITRON

HAILED BY DOCTORS
FOR RELIEF OF
HAY FEVER, ASTHMA, SINUS, ALLERGIES

U. S. Pat. No. 2,855,641

Just plug in: it's portable!

A remarkable new "Puritron" has been developed by electronic scientists. It is being acclaimed by doctors after they buy it and see it work in their own homes, for their own families — and for their patients in their offices and operating rooms.

PURITRON clears any room of irritating dust, odors, pollen and smoke. It's better than a kitchen exhaust fan.

"Energized" Air — Flooded With Ions — Proves Beneficial to Asthma, Sinus, Hay Fever and Allergy Sufferers

Patented Puritron action floods the air with a high concentration of newly acclaimed "negative Ions" — invisible "energized" particles in the air, now performing medical miracles through "Ion Therapy" in hospitals all over the world. Sufferers report remarkable relief from respiratory discomfort . . . breathing, sleeping are easier — even for asthmatics.

READ WHAT DOCTORS AND USERS SAY ABOUT PURITRON!

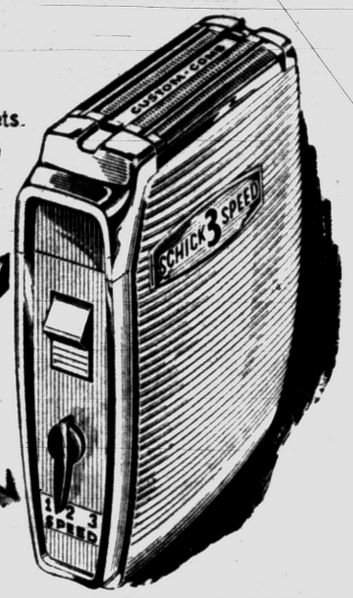

"Surpassed all expectations. Performs miracles for a dust allergy patient" (Pennsylvania doctor) . . . "For the first time I woke up without sinus trouble" (New Jersey MD) . . . "Controlled a stubborn form of respiratory allergy in my daughter, age 5" (Southern physician) . . . "First time in 13 years my son has slept with his mouth closed . . . not fighting to breathe. No sore throat, no cracked lips. To the inventor and manufacturer, my thanks." • "Tried so far only one day and found it gave marvelous relief. Thanks!" • "I get asthma with hay fever and that's why I bought Puritron. Believe me it is wonderful. Makes me breathe easier . . . and sleep. (All testimonials above were unsolicited.)

'Frisco Miffs Art Collector

Mrs. Robinson, Actor's Ex-Wife, Decides Not to Donate Exhibit to City

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Edward G. Robinson's ex-wife has disinherited San Francisco. She is going to give her valuable art collection to some other city.

"I wanted to leave the collection to the city I loved and I thought loved me," Gladys Robinson said Tuesday before driving to Los Angeles in her scarlet Ferrari sports car. "But I got the bums' rush and I probably never will come back."

★ ★ ★

The exhibition, containing 54 Renaissance, 19th-century French and contemporary French and Italian masterpieces, opened June 6 at the Palace of the Legion of Honor and runs through July 5.

She charged there was very little publicity, no catalogues and not enough excitement about the collection, which she values at more than a million dollars.

Also, none of the 14 trustees showed up at a pre-opening press party.

Ross Smith, assistant director of the Palace, said trustees never show up at those affairs. As for attendance, he remarked that nobody was breaking down the doors, but it was better than average — 1,500 last weekend.

Smith's boss, Thomas Carr Howe, vacationing at Santa Fe, N.M. said "The museum is distressed that Mrs. Robinson is displeased with her reception. I thought we had done the best we know how."

Portraits by Tiepolo and Tintoretto are included in the collection as well as Pissaro's "Harbor Scene" and Modigliani's "Boy in Green." Twenty paintings are by Guiseppe Gambino, a Sicilian protege of Mrs. Robinson.

There also is a portrait of her—"Victoria in Red" — done by Capuletti, a modern Italian Salvador Dali.

Mrs. Robinson hinted she may give the collection to Philadelphia, the city of her birth. But she made no definite commitments.

Leaves Wife at Station; Doesn't Even Miss Her

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — At 7:30 a.m., Arthur Crews Wells missed his wife. He drove back to a service station where they had stopped at 11:30 p.m. the night before.

There she was, to explain that she had gone into the station to freshen up. Wells thought she was asleep in the back of their station wagon.

Wants Role Equal to U.S., Britain

NATO Losing France (?)

PARIS (AP)—France appears to be drawing steadily away from her chief partners in the Atlantic Alliance as President Charles de Gaulle puts on pressure to win his country an equal role with Britain and the United States.

Western diplomats are opening concerned over how far the stubborn French president will go.

De Gaulle has set a course aimed at restoring France to her lost international prestige and power.

His strategy appears to be to cold shoulder various NATO projects until the United States and Britain openly recognize the "grandeur of France" which De Gaulle proclaims with religious fervor.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle is asking to be accepted as a bargaining equal to President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. His demand is viewed as somewhat unrealistic since France has no atomic bomb, only two under-strength divisions now under NATO and is threatened with internal dissension over Algeria.

WANTS FORMULA

De Gaulle wants the formula on how to put together an A-bomb. He can't get it from the United States. Congress forbids that. Britain shows no inclination to give it to him.

The French president wants to work out with Eisenhower and Macmillan a global policy including the Middle East, Asia and Africa.

But both hte United States and Britain have misgivings about France's refusal to promise Algeria independence. The United States doesn't want its Far East policy decided in Paris. Britain is jealous of her role as senior partner to the United States in NATO.

★ ★ ★

De Gaulle also is opposed to the theory of integrated forces in NATO. He prefers individual national commands. De Gaulle announced the French Mediterranean squadron would not be put under NATO control in time of war.

NO MISSILE SITES

The French president won't accept missile sites in France, because he won't have control over the missiles atomic warheads.

There has been no indication the United States or Britain will give in on any major points. Yet they don't know how to placate De Gaulle otherwise. Reprisals would only raise the ire of the stiff-packed President.

★ ★ ★

The latest development is the prospect the supreme Allied commander, Gen. Lauris Norstad will soon pull some 200 American fighter-bombers away from French bases.

Norstad says that since France won't admit U.S.-controlled atomic weapons for the planes, they must be based where they can keep their ammunition.

Eight-Lane Freeway to Circle Moscow

MOSCOW (UPI)—Moscows first freeway, a super high-speed highway with no traffic lights, is being built in a circle around the city, the newspaper "Soviet Fleet" reports.

★ ★ ★

The 70-mile-long freeway will provide four lanes of traffic each way, with a 13-feet-wide strip of shrubs serving as a divider.

★ ★ ★

The freeway, which is intended to route trucks around the capital, will be lined with trees to keep it clear of snow and will be studded with gasoline stations in anticipation of heavy auto traffic.

For Dr. Johnson Fame Is a Fleeting Thing

LONDON (UPI)—Movie producer Carl Foreman thought it would be a good idea to announce plans for a forthcoming film in unusual surroundings — perhaps the 18th century home of Dr. Samuel Johnson, which is now a museum.

★ ★ ★

An assistant telephoned county officials to ask if the house would be available. "We don't have any Dr. Samuel Johnson in our files with that address," the assistant was told. "What does he specialize in?'

A Lincoln monument marks the spot of an old blockhouse in Dixon, Ill. It was in this blockhouse that Jefferson Davis and Abraham Lincoln met and were friends in the days of the Black Hawk War.

California Pair Going to Sell Santa Claus

SANTA CLAUS, Calif. (AP) — Santa Claus has been put on the market.

★ ★ ★

Pat and June McKeon, who founded this tourist attraction on $500 they borrowed 11 years ago, haven't had a vacation in all of that time. Besides, they want their three children, they said, to have a more normal home life.

★ ★ ★

Santa Claus has a post office, a cafe, a bakery, a toy shop, a pottery shop and a miniature train. The town is incorporated and it may be the smallest town in the world: 315 feet long and 110 feet wide. It's on Highway 101, about two miles south of Santa Barbara.

The asking price: $265,000.

Wisconsin Findings Old

PLATTEVILLE, Wis. (AP)—Bones, tools and ashes dug from three southwestern Wisconsin rock shelters indicates man lived in the area as much as 11,600 years ago.

There is a poplar tree near Waterloo, N.Y., where a young soldier in the Civil War hung his scythe with the request that it not be removed until he returned. He didn't return. The growing tree has now almost enveloped the scythe so that only a few inches of the blade now show.

Move to Save Starkweather

Supreme Court Asked to Grant Stay; Father Will Seek Warrant

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — One new legal move to save Charles Starkweather, admitted slayer of 11 persons, from electrocution Friday was under way today and another was expected.

In Washington the U.S. Supreme Court was asked to grant Starkweather a stay of execution.

In Lincoln Guy Starkweather, father of Charles, said he expected to go into district court seeking a writ of habeas corpus on grounds his son was not adequately represented by counsel when tried and sentenced to death for slaying 17-year-old Robert Jensen, Bennet, Neb., schoolboy.

★ ★ ★

The Supreme Court action in Washington was taken by Washington attorneys James J. Laughlin and Albert J. Ahern Jr., who said they were not conversant with circumstances of the trial but "it appears from information in the public press that a question was raised as to adequate assistance of counsel."

The Washington filing drew immediate objection from Nebraska Attorney General C. S. Beck who telegraphed the Supreme Court clerk that nothing is to be gained by a stay of execution.

Beck said Starkweather's rights have been fully reviewed by the federal court.

The slaying for which Starkweather was convicted was one of 10 by gun and knife in a three-day period in January, 1958. His girl friend, Carol Ann Fugate, was convicted as an accomplice to the Jensen slaying and sentenced to life imprisonment. Her mother, step-father and half-sister were among the victims.

Don't Drop Out, Students Advised

That High School Diploma Is Really Worth Effort

Another school year is over, and a number of boys and girls in town will quietly drop out of high school, never to return, never to receive a diploma.

For the nation as a whole, only 60 per cent of those who enter high school remain to graduate.

If you know a youngster who says he won't return to high school in the fall, see if you can persuade him to go back. An education cut short will have a decided effect on his future, says the Institute of Life Insurance.

Maybe the effect won't be especially noticeable at the beginning, because boys and girls who quit school don't have too much trouble getting a job right away.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics recently kept an eye on a group of "dropouts," and discovered that the school leavers found jobs "with almost startling promptness" once they began to look for work. Most were earning some kind of income within a month's time.

DIFFERENCE IN JOBS

High school graduates also find jobs quickly, but there is a difference in the kind of jobs both groups obtain. For example, suppose you have a daughter who is planning to quit school early. Chances are her first job will require no particular skills.

On the other hand, if your daughter has a high school diploma she'll probably go to work in an office because of the skills she'd acquired in her commercial courses.

A difference in type of jobs also shows up among boys who quit school early and those who stay to graduate.

Thus if you have a son who is thinking of dropping out of high school, he may very well wind up in a job where no special skills are required: unskilled worker in a factory, laborer or perhaps a filling station attendant.

Of course, there is nothing wrong with occupations that require only a minimum of skills. The plain fact, however, is that the more skilled a boy or girl, the farther he can go in terms of income. While it is true that one who leaves school early will find work right away, he won't do as well financially as the full-fledged high school graduate.

HERE ARE FIGURES

If you want to convince a boy of the value of returning to school in the fall, try these statistics on him: 16 per cent of boys who had quit school weren't even making $40 a week in their first jobs, and only 20 per cent were earning $80 a week or better.

How did high school graduates make out? Thirty-one per cent were earning $80 a week or better, and only 4 per cent were earning less than $40 a week, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said.

Perhaps even this argument won't be strong enough to convince a youngster who is determined to quit. He might insist that he can get along on a smaller income at first, and that time will take care of the raises.

What he probably doesn't know is that the one who leaves school early is more often the victim of unemployment than the high school graduate. This proved to be the case in all seven geographical areas covered in the Labor Statistics study.

In terms of rates of unemployment, spells of unemployment and total time since leaving school spent as an unemployed worker, the dropouts had a much poorer record than the graduates.

Literacy Rally in N.Y. Friday

Worldwide Campaign Seeks to Teach 720 Million to Read, Write

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (UPI)—A rally will be held in New York City Friday to further interest in a worldwide campaign to teach reading and writing to an estimated 720 million illiterate persons.

The rally will be sponsored by the Foundation for World Literacy and will be presided over by Frank R. Ahlgren, editor of the Memphis Commercial Appeal and vice chairman of the foundation's trustees.

Ahlgren said the meeting would be financed by Memphis citizens who see the foundation as "a tremendous force" for overcoming illiteracy in the United States and throughout the world.

The foundation regards illiteracy as the greatest threat to Democracy and believes that teaching persons in other countries to read and write would be a step toward improved business relations.

"It has been repeatedly pointed out that countries that teach people to read and write earn a gratitude that makes them receptive to the ideologies of those teaching countries," Ahlgren said.

The Friday meeting will be featured by the National Broadcasting Company on its "Family Living" program next month. NBC will broadcast conversations between Arlene Francis, Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn) and Dr. Frank C. Laubach, internationally known literacy expert.

Experiments in teaching "non-readers" by television have been conducted by WKNO, Memphis' educational television station, and in Charlotte, N.C. success of these experiments brought organization of the foundation.

The method of instruction used was developed by Laubach during 30 years of teaching illiterates in many languages. An estimated 100 million adults have learned to read and write through the Laubach method.

Sound Alert Over Toy

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—The security staff of the world's largest naval base here was thrown into a tizzy by a toy pistol. The "weapon" a guard saw on the rear seat of an enlisted man's car, left by his 9-year-old son, caused a general alert to security personnel.

'Never Earned One'—H.S.T.

Honorary Degrees Have a Purpose

NEW YORK (NEA) —Count on the Hon. Harry S. Truman to blurt it right out: "I'm no college professor. I've got no degrees except those I didn't earn."

But don't count on our institutions of higher learning and deeper truth to be overjoyed at his remarks.

For honorary degrees — unearned sheepskins — are as important to the American academic industry as income from tuition or endowment funds.

And so, before the month of June burns out the grass on our campuses, 5,000 men, women and dogs will rise in rented caps and gowns to claim degrees conferred, curiously, for totally extra-curricular activities.

★ ★ ★

These are the fruits of a research by two freelance writers of the contemporary scene: Albert C. Lasher and Myron Kandel, who have combed universities to find the answer to one question:

"Why bother to give honorary degrees?"

TRADITIONAL

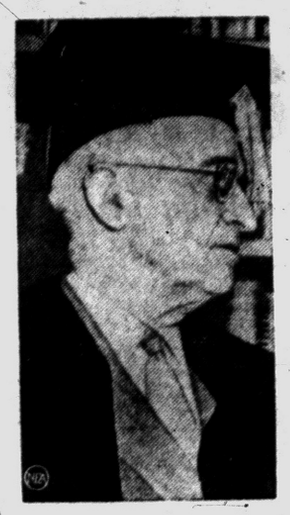

In the first place, they have found, there is a tradition for it in this country that dates back to 1692 — the earliest days of American universities.

"In those days," Lasher said, "it was an attempt to make up for what we considered our sad lack of titled nobility."

But as we were a democracy, honorary degrees were a matter of your choice, good behavior and $8, until as recently as 1915.

By then, Lasher and Kandel report in Harper's Magazine, most schools had taken up the responsibility of naming honorary candidates, explaining that such degrees were recognition of distinguished service to the world, nation, state, community and school.

Meanwhile, students putting in long hours and real money to earn their degrees complained that honorary parchments belittled the whole effort. Consequently, new degrees were invented, many of them tailored to recognize each distinguished servant.

HARRY S. TRUMAN: He admits he never earned one.

MASTER OF INNUENDO

Thus: Doctor of Public Service, Doctor of Diplomacy, of Philanthropy, of Sanitary Engineering.

Also: Doctor of Fortitude and Faith (to Adm. Richard E. Byrd); Doctor of Oratory (to James Curley, late of Boston); Master of Innuendo and Snappy Comeback (to Charlie McCarthy, a wooden commedian); and Doctor of Canine Fidelity (to a German Shepherd dog).

For the most part, of course, honorary degrees go to the big names of our big government and industry and military service—but only after they become big.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, after a distinguished diplomatic career, won the Nobel Peace Prize. Within six months he had received 13 honorary degrees.

Dr. Grayson Kirk received four as acting president of Columbia University and 23 when he became president.

85 FOR HOOVER

The champion of them all, however, is former President Herbert Hoover who holds 85. But none from his own alma mater, Stanford Universtiy, which gives none.

"But Stanford," Lasher reports, "is courageous, and maybe foolishly so. It is losing what other colleges have found to be a wonderful way to get publicity, stimulate contributions, get prominent people to visit the campus.

"It used to be a good way to get an important commencement speaker, too," Lasher said. "But it can be a terrible slap in the academic face to get your proffered degree turned down by a man who has 'just too many other commencements to address and honorary degrees to receive."

Things have got so bad that a New York restaurateur has received a degree for his baked potatoes; and a "little ivy league" president has had to deliver the commencement address on his own campus — a fashion that went out with Platos bell, book and sandal.

Maybe This Explains Why Hotel Went Broke

HOLDENVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer recently received two $1 bills in the mail from Sioux City, Iowa. The letter said: "For room rent due since Sept. 18, 1933. $2. Paid." It was signed E. Coburn.

Palmer said the letter was addressed to "a Mr. Palmerton, Whitehouse Hotel, Holdenville, Okla." Palmer was owner and manager of the hotel which went out of business in 1937.

Chickens Battle to See Who Is Ruler of Roost

ELK RIVER, Minn. (UPI) — Hens aren't necessarily henpecked, according to researchers who found that chickens penned together are constantly fighting to decide who bosses whom.

Poultry experts at the Nutrena Feeds' research farm here said the "bosses" monopolize feed, water and nests, sometimes even cowing the lowly into starvation.

Journey To Love

By Virginia Nielsen

© 1959 by Virginia Nielsen. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Alex Norris has advised Kathie to give the apparently valuable deed to Hawaiian land, which she is carrying, to the ship's purser for safe keeping. Secretly, Kathie wonders if Alex is the person who tried to steal it, and hopes he is not.

CHAPTER XII

She tossed and turned on the bed, and as if in tune with her troubled thoughts, the vessel tossed and rolled, too, with now and again a discernible shudder running along its length.

They were moving faster, Kathie thought, or the sea was rougher. Or perhaps both.

While she listened, wakeful, a sound quite apart from the engine or the waves caught her ear.

It was a stealthy sound, and it was just outside her door. Someone was trying her doorknob!

★ ★ ★

Even though she knew her door was locked, a feeling of panic went through her. Kathie sat up and snapped on the light over her bunk.

Instantly the sound ceased. And though she listened a long time, scarcely daring even to breathe, she heard nothing more — not even footsteps going away.

★ ★ ★

When she finally slept, it was with the lamp still burning above her head.

She slept late the next morning, and after she had showered and dressed, the breakfast hours were almost over. It did not matter, Kathie told herself.

She had more important business than breakfast. She had decided to take Alex' advice about putting her valuables in safekeeping without further delay.

With the purse containing the deed clutched tightly under her arm, she stepped out into the passageway.

At almost the same instant, Sam Ward stepped out of his stateroom. His handsome face lighted when he saw her. "Good morning!" he exclaimed. "We missed you at breakfast."

"I did most of my sleeping this morning," Kathie confessed.

"You weren't sick, were you?"

She shook her head.

'ROUGH NIGHT'

"That's good. It got pretty rough during the night, you know. Not many of us had an appetite for breakfast this morning."

Kathie searched his face briefly and decided to confide in him. "I was afraid," she admitted. "I thought someone tried my door in the night."

Sam looked both concerned and, she thought, a little amused. "Why didn't you pound on the wall?" he asked her. "I'm right next to you, you know."

"I was so frightened I couldn't do anything except sit up in bed and shiver."

"Probably someone got the wrong door," Sam said.

Kathie shook her head stubbornly at that. Instinctively she knew that someone making an honest mistake would not have been so stealthy.

His presence at her side was reassuring. So were the cheerful greetings he received from several passengers they met in the passageways. Kathie was experiencing a pleasurable sensation of attracting interest because she was with Sam.

But even while she was smiling up into Sam's eager face, memory struck a painful chord in her heart — the memory of Alex' kiss the night before up on the boat deck.

SALT BREEZE

Strange how sharply it came back to her mind. She could almost feel the fresh salt breeze on her cheeks, contrasting so vividly with the warmth of his lips and the warm rush of blood to her face.

★ ★ ★

At the purser's office she drew the deed from her pocketbook and said, "I'd like to leave this in your safe."

She felt rather than saw Sam's start of surprise.

"Seal it in this envelope, please, and write your name on the outside," said the purser.

When she had done as he requested, he listed the item in a ledger and locked it in the big safe behind him. Kathie was nervously moistening her lips. Sam waited expectantly.

Finally she managed to say it. "Someone entered my cabin yesterday and searched my things."

Once again, there was a flicker of surprise in Sam.

The purser looked grave. "Is anything missing?"

'MONEY IN HANDBAG'

Kathie shook her head. "I had my money and my — this paper with me in my handbag."

"Then how do you know someone was in your stateroom?"

★ ★ ★

"Because my clothes had been rumpled and my suitcases were unlatched."

★ ★ ★

"Your suitcases were not locked?"

"No."

"Did you lock your room before leaving?"

"No," Kathie admitted, flushing, "I — didn't think to lock it."

The purser looked still more grave. "I would advise you always to lock your stateroom when you leave it, Miss Ebberts.

★ ★ ★

We don't anticipate any trouble of this kind on our ship, but it is only common sense to lock up. Did this happen after we left port?"

"I think so," Kathie said.

★ ★ ★

The purser shrugged, and she could see that her uncertainty relieved him.

"So many people come and go while we are in port. The baggage boys, for instance.

"Under the circumstances, there would be no point in making any sort of investigation among our passengers. It wouldn't do to embarrass some of these people—"

★ ★ ★

Kathie broke in defensively: "Someone tried my door after I had gone to bed last night."

"That could have been an accident," said the purser.

Detroit Needy May Test Plan of Food Stamps

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Philip A. Hart (D-Mich) states he hopes Detroit can become a pilot city in a program to develop a workable food stamp plan.

Hart said at his weekly news conference he will "certainly support" the proposal, which was advanced at an agriculture subcommittee meeting yesterday. Hart is a member of the full committee.

He said the suggestion to try the plan in Detroit "may be the best and indeed the only way to get a workable food stamp plan started."

Under various food stamp proposals, needy persons would be issued stamps by state and local welfare agencies. The stamps would entitle the recipients to receive surplus food.

Hart said he also will support a proposal by Sen. J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark) to put the U.S. mutual security program on a long-term, three-year to five-year basis, and shift the emphasis more toward economic rather than military aid.

MSUO Faculty Dean Gets Honors Degree

Dr. Robert G. Hoopes, dean of the faculty at Michigan State University Oakland, was honored by his alma mater, Cornell College of Mt. Vernon, Iowa, with a doctor of literature degree.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hoopes, 39, was awarded the Lit. D. degree for his distinguished work as vice-president of the American Council of Learned Societies and for his contributions to educational journalism.

★ ★ ★

Prior to his appointment at MSUO, Dr. Hoopes was a member of the department of English at Stanford University where he was considered one of the school's outstanding teachers.

He also helped to bring about a major revision of the undergraduate curriculum and later authored a book on the subject, "The Undergraduate in the University." He is currently working on a second publication, "Right Reason in the English Renaissance," accepted for publication by the Harvard University Press.

★ ★ ★

Because of his distinctive leadership in the development of the new program at Stanford, he was chosen in 1957 as vice-president of the American Council of Learned Societies, an organization which serves as focal point for some 22 educational association, groups and societies throughout the country.

In addition to his duties as dean of the faculty at MSUO, Dr. Hoopes will also teach a course in composition and literature.

2 Million Scientists Work

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Department of Labor reports there are nearly two million Americans working as scientists, engineers and technicians. In industry alone, the number of employees in these categories increased some 28 percent between 1954 and 1957.

Estimates by the United States forest service place the total known stand of Ponderosa pine at approximately 250 billion feet as of recent date.

Pollution Blamed on Waterford

Sylvan Sewage Contract Approved

With Waterford Township declared to be the main cause of pollution to Crystal Lake, Pontiac city commissioners last night approved an agreement with Sylvan Lake for sewage treatment.

* * *

A report from the City Health Department indicated that Crystal Lake pollution stemmed mostly from a county storm drain that feeds into it from Huron Gardens subdivision, an unsewered area of Waterford Township.

Sewage, seeping directly into the drain from over-loaded septic tanks in the subdivision, is carried through the west side of Pontiac and dumped into the Clinton River just north of the Orchard Lake bridge, flowing southward into Crystal Lake, according to City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn.

The drain called the Westend Drain was constructed in 1922 and has been the main source of pollution to Crystal Lake throughout the years, City Manager Walter R. Willman believes.

* * *

City Commissioner Milton F. Henry, satisfied that the city of Sylvan Lake was not materially contributing to the pollution, agreed to Willman's recommendation that the sewage treatment agreement be signed.

The agreement is similar to one signed with Waterford Township last year, allowing Pontiac to bill the city government for treatment instead of individual householders, as in the past.

The treatment rates will be 16 cents for 1,000 cubic feet of flow entering the Pontiac sewage system. A rate that covers operating costs and allows the city about a 10 per cent profit, Willman said.

* * *

All of Sylvan Lake and eastern portions of Waterford Township have been hooked onto the Pontiac treatment system for many years.

The new agreements prevent the outside areas from tacking new lines onto the Pontiac system without approval of the Pontiac City Commission — a provision aimed at preventing further overloading of Pontiac's already overloaded sewage treatment facilities.

The pollution report, prepared by City Sanitarian Charles Cohen at Henry's request, said there is a second source of pollution to the lake.

* * *

This is the new Ward Orchards storm drain constructed by the Oakland County Drain Commission last year.

Cohen said the drain was apparently picking up septic tank overflow in the Ward Orchards subdivision of Bloomfield Township, especially in rainy weather, conveying the pollution into the western end of Crystal Lake.

Septic overflow apparently settles in hollows and low spots in the subdivision, Cohen said, then is swept into the drain by storm waters.

During rainy weather this pollution is "significant," but during dry weather contributes "very little" to the condition of the lake, the report said.

* * *

Cohen said the Westend Drain pollution was "extremely high and relatively constant."

He said it becomes worse in dry weather when the flow of the Clinton diminishes, making the pollution rate higher.

"The only practical hope of removing this source of pollution would be to provide sewage treatment facilities for the offending area or to reroute the drain itself," said Cohen.

Henry, who hopes to see Crystal Lake used as a public swimming area someday, called upon fellow commissioners to give Cohen's report thorough study.

* * *

"We should seek court action against Waterford Township to prevent pollution or force the township to reroute the drain into some other lake," he urged.

Cohen said that the mouth of the Clinton showed no pollution at Sylvan Lake, although he added that traces of pollution might show up later this summer.

The Oakland County Health Department several years ago said that traces of pollution in Sylvan Lake weren't sufficient to make swimming there harmful.

But Mayor Philip E. Rowston believed that pollution was worse than commonly supposed at the western side of Sylvan Lake.

"The Health Department's study was a whitewash," he said.

* * *

Cohen added doubts that Crystal Lake would ever be suitable for a public bathing beach because the water level drops so much during the summer.

* * *

Henry, however, maintained the lake would make "a beautiful swimming spot and excellent recreation area, if the pollution were stopped."

As a temporary measure, he asked the city administration to post the lake with "No Swimming" signs.

"It's a wonder we haven't had an epidemic as a result of kids swimming there," Henry said.

* * *

Cohen doubted that Crystal Lake pollution shows up significantly on the east side of Pontiac, where the Water Resources Commission has been testing Clinton River pollution with an eye to ordering Pontiac to build more sewage treatment facilities.

Willman said that the Oakland County Department of Public Works plan for a Clinton River Sewage Disposal System may eventually take care of the situation in Huron Gardens subdivision.

"The State Health Department is aware of the problem and is working, slowly, to cure it," he said.

Waterford Township officials have said that legal restrictions on financing have prevented offering sewer facilities to unsewered areas. The township was one of the first to turn to the county for help in building sewers.

Pontiac City Affairs

Owners' Lack of Funds Kills Projects

The 1960 public improvement program suffered more setbacks last night, mostly because property owners don't have funds on hand this year to pay for improvements, city commissioners said.

Four more projects were deleted from this summer's construction plans. They were:

Grading and graveling of the alley north of Auburn avenue, Sanford to Ardmore; a sidewalk on the south side of Irwin avenue, Going to East boulevard; sidewalks on both sides of Luther street, Highland to Franklin; and curbs and gutters on the half-block section of Tennyson avenue, Hollywood to Bonnie Briar Bush subdivision.

At nearly every Commission meeting since the 1960 public improvement program got underway, one or more projects have been dropped because property owners protested they were unable to pay special assessments to help finance them.

"If this keeps up, we won't have too much of a public improvement program left this year," said Commissioner William W. Donaldson.

Commissioners have expressed the philosophy that it's better to cut back on improvements than to hit financially stricken property owners with new special assessments.

"We don't want anyone to lose his property," said Commissioner Milton R. Henry.

But more projects were approved last night than deleted. No objections were raised at public hearings on intention to construct six other improvements this summer, including:

* * *

Grading and graveling of Arlene street, Perry to Madison, grading, graveling, curbs and gutters on Howard street, Johnson to Adelaide, and four sidewalk projects, including a new sidewalk in front of five homes on Bartlett street, the east side of Stanley avenue, Kennett to Beverly, the west side of Going street, Ferry to Central, and the east side of Going street, Irwin to South boulevard.

Also approved at a public hearing was the assessment roll for the $108,000 widening of Cass avenue, Oakland to Wisner Stadium.

Hearings were scheduled for next Tuesday on assessment rolls covering five projects, including the $135,000 paving of Joslyn avenue, Walton to Collier; a sanitary sewer on Brooklyn avenue, Stanley to Richmond; curbs and gutters on Harriett street, Adelaide to Baldwin; a sidewalk on the north side of Columbia avenue, Carlisle to Walton Boulevard Park subdivision; and grading and graveling of Kettering street between Madison and Baltimore.

Sidewalks on the northwest side of Perry street, Madison to the Modern Housing Addition subdivision, were declared a public need.

This sidewalk will serve Pontiac Northern High School students as the Stanley avenue sidewalk will serve Alcott School.

* * *

Commissioner John A. Dugan asked the city administration to investigate complains of dust arising from a dirt alley and parking lots behind commercial buildings on Joslyn avenue, between Madison and Tennyson.

Commissioners approved transfer of an SDM liquor license at 1022 Baldwin avenue from George Varon to Randall and Roe Waller.

Licenses Revoked or Suspended

28 Forfeit Driving Rights

Twenty-eight Oakland County motorists have had their drivers' licenses revoked or suspended during the past few weeks, the Michigan Secretary of State's Office has reported.

* * *

Floyd C. Caverly, 648 Brown Rd, Pontiac Township.
Richard Kaye, 30 Lake Angelus Shores, Waterford Township.
John H. McDonald, 1591 Taylor Rd., Pontiac Township.
Vincent C. Bellis, 49 Marina W., Pontiac.
John M. Stoddard, 1181 Baldwin Ave., Pontiac.
Leonard Smith, 10618 Ellsworth, Ferndale.
Ronald A. March, 862 Lincoln St., Royal Oak.
Frank Harris, 21312 Westview St., Ferndale.
Alfred O. Hansel, 616 Beaumont Rd., Milford.
Bruce E. Frank, 6827 Elmwood St., Milford.
Elden Pugsley, 24846 Brettonwoods Rd., Madison Heights.
Leonard H. Jensen, 10380 Fish Lake Rd., Holly.
William Coker, 1318 E. Evelyn St., Hazel Park.

Ordered to show proof of financial responsibility for unsatisfied judgment were:

Vernon E. Newman, 618 Bridge St., Dearborn Heights.
Charles H. Phillip, 70 County Rd., White Lake Township.
George J. Herring, of Dunlawton Ave., Port Orange, Florida, 32064 (Prior to Hazel Park.)
Allen A. and Alvin R. Campbell, 23851 Bermanville Rd., Perrysburg.

Losing their licenses for unsatisfactory driving records were Johnny Luckhowitz of 3121 Berkshire Rd. and Charles A. Page of 118 W. Mahan St., both of Hazel Park.

The licenses of Charles E. Thurber of 28785 Somerset Rd., Lathrup Village, and John Abram T. Short of 20015 Alger St., Madison Heights, were revoked due to unsatisfactory driving records and failure to appear for re-examination.

Richard Mathis of 392 Ditmar St., Pontiac, and Ray V. Miller of 29922 Old Plank Rd., Wixom, had their licenses suspended for unlawfully driving away an automobile.

* * *

Others to lose the right to drive were John E. Jackson of 415 Branch St. and Philip L. Tinsman of 501 Front St., Holly, for driving with a revoked and suspended license, and Earl Wilson of 9147 Hutchins Rd., White Lake Township, for physical reasons.

Jury to Fix Award in Canyon Air Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal jury today will determine the damages to be awarded three plaintiffs in a 10-million-dollar suit stemming from the 1956 Grand Canyon air crash.

The jury held that both United Air Lines and Trans World Airline are legally responsible in the crash, which claimed 128 lives.

The suit was brought by relatives of three persons aboard the UAL flight. Two of the victims were attorneys for Ford Motor Co. —Theodore M. Kubiniez and Donald F. Kehl. The third was Carl J. Snyder, a vice president of Chrysler Motors Co.

The largest claim was filed for Mrs. Snyder, who asked $5,250,000.

Eight other suits are pending in federal court. A similar suit lasted November resulted in an average award of $75,000 for each death.

Northern Joins Program of Summer Playgrounds

There'll be a summer playground program this year at Pontiac Northern High School for the first time.

This will be one of several new features in the Department of Parks & Recreation's 1959 summer playground program, June 22 through Aug. 14.

Aimed at teenagers and adults, the Pontiac Northern program will take place from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. weekdays, featuring such activities as weight lifting, tumbling, tennis, volleyball, badminton, archery, basketball and wrestling.

This program is similar to the one rescheduled for Pontiac Central High School for teenagers and adults, 6-9 p.m. weekdays.

There will be a few changes in the department's regular summertime program for youngsters age 6 to 15, said Leonard T. Buzz, city recreation supervisor.

Playground programs will be held Monday through Friday at 22 locations, including the Lakeside Community Center and 21 schools: Bagley, Baldwin, Bethune, Lincoln Junior High School, McConnell, McCarroll, Webster, Wilson, Longfellow, Crofoot, Emerson, Jefferson Junior High School, LeBaron, Washington Junior High School, Wever, Herrington, Central, Malkim, Mark Twain, Owen and Wisner.

This will be the first time Wisner has been included, and the first time in two years that Owen has been used. While Mark Twain will have a full day's program for the first time, the Central program will be in the mornings only and in the Malkin during the afternoons.

The playground program, conducted by Parks & Recreation supervisors, includes athletics, games, field trips, arts and crafts, music and dramatics. At some locations, the play times run from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

In addition, the department this year will offer supervision for group outings at Murphy, Oakland, Optimist and Rotary Parks. The supervisors will be available to groups to organize and equip games and other activities.

Speedy Action Save Tot's Life at Sylvan Lake

Tragedy was averted with only seconds to spare Tuesday as an alert Air Force pilot home on leave saved the life of a two-year-old boy on Sylvan Lake.

Little Johnny Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, 2162 Pontiac Dr., Sylvan Lake, eluded his mother's watchful eye while toddling near Ferndale Beach.

Johnny began wading in shallow water. Moments later Vern Stange, of 103 Mechanic St., standing at the water's edge, saw the child's body floating on the surface near the shore.

Stange raced into the water, grabbed the boy, and headed for shore.

* * *

"His body was blue and his eyes closed but he was breathing," said the boy's distraught mother. Stange applied artificial respiration along with Andrew Lindsey, of 2099 Pontiac Dr., a friend of the Smith family.

Sylvan Lake Police and West Bloomfield Township firemen worked over the boy with an inhalator until they had removed most of the water from his lungs and the boy began to show signs of life.

They credited Stange, a former lifeguard and swimming instructor at Pontiac YMCA, with rescuing the boy just in time to save him from drowning.

Grants Starkweather Stay of Execution

WASHINGTON (AP)—Justice Charles Evans Whittaker of the Supreme Court today granted a stay of execution to Charles Starkweather, 20-year-old mass killer from Nebraska. Starkweather had been scheduled to die in the Nebraska electric chair on Friday morning.

Whittaker said that counsel for Starkweather would have until June 17 to file a petition with the full Supreme Court, asking a review of his case.

If a petition is filed, the stay will remain in effect until the full court acts finally on it.

Judge Vows No Prejudice

Trial of Four White Men Accused of Raping Negro Coed Opens

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—A veteran north Florida jurist pledged his court would function "without regard to race, creed or color" during the Tallahassee rape trial opening today.

★ ★ ★

Circuit Judge W. May Walker told newsmen the case of four white youths charged with raping a slender Negro coed was being treated no differently than any other.

There was an atmosphere of tension in Florida's capital city as the highly publicized case began. Walker said the case probably would be concluded by Saturday unless selection of a jury stretched out too long.

The four, if convicted without a recommendation of mercy, would get the death penalty. No white man ever has gone to the electric chair in Florida for raping a Negro.

The slow business of picking a jury was expected to take a day or more. Three women and several Negroes were in the panel of about 170 prospective jurors.

Seating capacity of the somewhat antiquated courtroom was supplemented by about 50 chairs to provide for about 300 spectators.

★ ★ ★

National attention has been focused on the case, partly because it took place just a week after Mack Charles Parker, 23-year-old Negro accused of raping a white Mississippi woman, was hauled from a Poplarville, Miss., jail by a group of men. His body was found in a river 20 miles away. There have been no arrests in that case.

★ ★ ★

The four youths on trial here were arrested within hours after the alleged rape of the 19-year-old Tallahassee girl on May 2. They were indicted by a specially summoned grand jury and have been held in the county jail without bond.

All four youths pleaded innocent at their arraignment. Sheriff Bill Joyce said all had signed confessions.

★ ★ ★

The defendants are Willion Collinsworth, 23, a telephone lineman who is married and has two children; Patrick G. Scarborough, 20, an Air Force man; David Ervin Vaughn, 18, a high school senior, and Ollie Stoutamire, 16.

They were charged with snatching the Florida A&M University girl from her escort following a school dance, and driving her to a lonely woods where they raped her repeatedly.

How To Hold FALSE TEETH More Firmly in Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH today at drug counters everywhere.

COME ON IN — Mrs. Sue Peery, 80, of Nashville, Tenn. was drinking tea in her living room when she heard two cars collide. She jumped up, and moments later "The whole wall just exploded" as one of the cars plowed through a window and struck the chair in which she had been sitting. She was not injured.

The European Common Market

U.S. Helps Sponsor Its Own Headache

By J. M. ROBERTS
AP News Analyst

Three men playing unique roles in world diplomatic history are visiting the United States this week.

One is a Belgian, another a German, the third a Frenchman. Each of them represents six different countries. None of them represents his own country in the conferences now going on in Washington.

Each of them separately, and all of them collectively, head up organizations, and a movement, strongly supported by the United States. Yet the whole thing, during a long period of adjustment, may cause the United States some serious headaches.

The men are Walter Hallstein, the German, president of the European Economic Community; Etienne Hirsch, the Frenchman, president of the European Atomic Energy Commission (EURATOM); and Paul Finet, the Belgian, president of the European Coal and Steel Community.

They represent the collective efforts of France, West Germany, The Netherlands, Italy, Luxembourg and Belgium to establish a common European market free from internal tariff barriers, with all cooperating in the application of atomic energy to peaceful uses and in stabilizing production and distribution of coal and steel. Agriculture also is involved in the economic community's plans.

A 10 per cent reduction of tariffs on foodstuffs between the six countries already has been effected, and more is to come until there are none.

Distribution of labor also is involved. Workers in the coal and steel community already can move around on ECSC "passports" without being restricted by national boundaries. Management and investment is affected, with the community itself borrowing and lending money for development. In this, the United States is largely involved.

In one way, this means that the United States is partially financing development of a competitive economic force.

The European community's population and labor force are only slightly smaller than those of the United States. It is the biggest customer of the United States, buying about half of her exports of food and tobacco, textile fibers, fuels and petroleum products. American investments in the area run between 5 and 6 billion dollars. More dollars are going in to establish industrial footholds inside the community.

The concertium, already exporting at the rate of about 15 billion dollars annually, promises to become an even greater competitor for world markets. Its gross product, now more than 200 billion annually, is expected to be doubled in 15 years. It has almost doubled in the last 10 years.

By cooperating in this movement, the United States thus joins the three community presidents in uniqueness. For the sake of European unity and economic stability, she is helping to establish a great competitive force — one which already has Great Britain seriously worried.

And all the while Europe moves step by step toward economic and even possibly political unity, something which was barely a gleam in the eyes of a few of her politico-economic philosophers such a few years ago.

Technicians May Yet Be Illiterate Humans

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Specialization is fine but don't overdo it, is the advice to science and engineering students from Dr. Kirtley F. Mather, emeritus professor of geology at Harvard. He said they should learn broad, basic principles that stand behind scientific matters.

He said one of the dangers of present educational practices is a tendency to graduate well-trained technicians who are really illiterate human beings.

There are more than 8,000 bituminous coal mines within the United States.

Wandering Yen Can Be Curbed

U. S. May Deny Passports to Trouble Spots—Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department's authority to deny passports for Americans to travel to areas it regards as potential trouble spots, such as Red China, was upheld Tuesday by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

"In foreign affairs, especially in the intimate posture of today's world of jets, radio and atomic power, an individual's uninhibited yen to go and to inquire may be circumscribed," said an opinion by Chief Judge E. Barrett Prettyman.

"A blustering inquisitor avowing his own freedom to go and do as he pleases can throw the world international neighborhood into turmoil."

The unanimous decision of the three-man court rejected an attempt by William Worthy Jr. of Baltimore, Md., to get his passport renewed. It upheld a decision by the U.S. District Court last Oct. 2.

The case is expected to be appealed to the Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

As a reporter for the Columbia Broadcasting System, the New York Post and the Baltimore Afro-American, Worthy visited Red China for 41 days in 1956 and on his way home spent two days in Hungary in 1957. His passport was stamped "not valid" for travel to either country.

TURNED DOWN

When Worthy's passport came up for renewal in March 1957, the State Department turned him down after he refused to agree that he would abide by the restrictions against going to forbidden areas.

Retired Supreme Court Justice Harold H. Burton, sitting on the appeals bench as an extra judge, and Judge William K. Miller, a regular member of the court, joined Prettyman in today's opinion.

Prettyman said the President's authority to conduct foreign affairs includes the right to bar American travelers from areas where the chief executive fears military or political conditions may be "the occasion of a clash, diplomatic or military, with a foreign government."

The State Department may act as agent for the chief executive in this connection, the judge said.

★ ★ ★

He added that Worthy's case had no connection with a Supreme Court ruling that the State Department may not deny passport applications because of the beliefs and associations of the applicants.

In Worthy's case, Prettyman said, no beliefs, associations or personal characteristics are involved.

RIGHT TO TRAVEL

Worthy's attorney had argued that a citizen has the constitutional right to travel anywhere in the world except under the severest of international emergencies. He insisted the present international situation is not such as to justify any areas as off limits to Americans.

Prettyman said "the mere day-to-day maintenance of order which insures liberty requires restrictions upon individual rights."

To say that the government cannot restrict travel, the judge said, "would be to hold that the protection of the peace against American-caused incidents in foreign countries is outside the realm of foreign affairs. Such latter holdings would be both illogical and unrealistic."

★ ★ ★

And in Worthy's particular case, Prettyman said, the newsman's "avowed intent is to seek 'especially stories that involve the risk of war.'"

★ ★ ★

Worthy is now teaching at Brandeis University near Boston.

Piped Curiosity Gives Henry Static Afternoon

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Poor Henry, thought 12-year-old Cheryl Hammons. What a way to spend an afternoon—with one arm stuck in a drain pipe.

★ ★ ★

Henry French Jr., with the insatiable curiosity of an 11-year-old, had thrust his arm up to the elbow into a drain pipe leading out of a building near his home. "I just wanted to see what was in there," he remarked.

Cheryl, tugging as hard as she could, couldn't pull his arm out.

So for nearly three hours Tuesday, Henry could do little but wait while a crew with an air hammer chipped at concrete surrounding the pipe. They finally were able to cut through the pipe and free Henry's arm, swollen but otherwise unhurt.

★ ★ ★

Henry, who had gone through the ordeal without a whimper, broke into tears when it was all over.

The industry-operated tree farm program is now being actively promoted in 46 of the states.

City Foundation Granted Funds

Commission Approves $1,000 to Help Raise Sums for Civic Works

The Pontiac Foundation last night was granted up to $1,000 in city funds to aid its campaign for private subscriptions to public enterprises.

The money will be used to key up the Foundation's drive in advance of the Pontiac centennial celebration in 1961, said Commissioner William W. Donaldson.

Donaldson, founder and former president of the six-year-old organization, said that the centennial observance would probably act as a spur to public interest in the foundation.

"I don't know how much of the $1,000 the Foundation will have to draw on, but I'm sure the money will produce large dividends," said Donaldson in asking the City Commission to approve the grant.

★ ★ ★

The Foundation was organized mainly to gather funds for a civic auditorium, but it has other interests as well, Donaldson said.

It stands ready to hold funds for such projects as Pontiac General Hospital, the new city library and the YMCA dormimarked for the auditorium, Donaldson said, but some aimed at dormitory construction and the furnishing of Pontiac General Hospital rooms.

★ ★ ★

"We hope to encourage philanthropy and civic interest in Pontiac," said Donaldson.

Late Father O'Reilly Honored by City

A tribute to the late Rev. Michael J. O'Reilly, pastor of St. Michael Catholic Church, was passed by the City Commission last night.

★ ★ ★

The tribute, drawn up by Commissioner Robert A. Landry, cited Fr. O'Reilly's achievements during his 25 years in Pontiac.

"His contributions to the growth and betterment of Pontiac will be long remembered," the tribute read in part.

Fr. O'Reilly died June 5 of a heart condition. He was 70 years old.

Won't Call Ailing Legislators

Dems Drop Tax Vote Plot

LANSING (AP) — Democratic strategists gave up today on hopes of bringing two ailing House members from Detroit to Lansing for a touch-and-go vote on the 146 million dollar "piggy-back" income tax plan.

Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit, Democratic House leader, said they were "too ill." He had talked last week of resorting to an ambulance trip for Rep. Joseph G. O'Connor, who is recovering from an operation.

The tax measure was due later today to ra second and decisive roll call with far-reaching strategic importance in the gruelling legislative tax fight.

The same bill failed by a single vote last week. A second defeat would kill it for good, barring resort to unusual parliamentary maneuvers that seldom succeed.

A similar second test also was due today for a Senate-approved bill to extend temporary unemployment compensation benefits to about 28,000 of Michigan's unemployed. Aided by two rebel Democrats, House Republicans last week narrowly missed pushing through the GOP version of the measure.

Democrats apparently needed at least five Republicans votes to save the income tax bill, which would require individuals to pay the state seven per cent of their federal income tax bill.

Meanwhile Michigan staggers from payday to payday. Her general fund deficit is building up close to 110 million dollars, the state finance chief said today.

James W. Miller, state controller, said he saw no reason to materially change earlier estimates. Actually, the exact figure won't be known until mid-September when books on 1958-59 finally are closed.

Blame Fire on Heat

NEW YORK (UPI)—The 91 degree heat of the day was blamed last night for a five-alarm fire which gutted a Brooklyn factory and damaged four other buildings. Fire Marshal Martin Scott said it appeared the high outside temperature had triggered an explosion of fumes in the factory, which manufactured rubberized cloth.

Annual Affair Slated Tonight

Euler to Address Elks Flag Day Dinner

Harold B. Euler, Pontiac General Hospital administrator, will be the guest speaker at the 16th annual Flag Day dinner tonight at Pontiac Elks Temple.

Sponsored by the Elks committee for Americanism, the banquet begins at 6:30 p.m.

Nearly 90 new U.S. citizens will attend as invited guests. These are people who have won U.S. citizenship in Oakland County in the past year.

Several of the new citizens will appear in a brief program directed by Janice Antona, instructor of the Pontiac school system's citizenship classes.

The banquet is held every year on the Wednesday preceding Flag Day, June 14.

A Day for Bermudas

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI)—University of Vermont students proclaimed a Bermuda Shorts Day "to organize spirit and see if the students would do something together."

This year, the Americanism Committee is headed by Lynn Allen Jr., son of the late county clerk who was chairman of the committee from its inception in 1943 until his death last year.

★ ★ ★

Past exhalted rulers of the Elks lodge instituted a new custom this year. They presented a new, 49-star American flag to present Exalted Ruler Ruben M. Kinport, which will fly at the lodge during the remainder of Kinport's term in office.

One million trucks in use today in the United States are 14 or more years old.

East Germany Bluffing About Taking West Berlin

EAST BERLIN (UPI) — The Communist regime in East Germany probably is bluffing when it threatens to force the Western Allies out of West Berlin.

★ ★ ★

But the German Comunists do believe that sooner or later they will have a great degree of influence over the activities of the Allied garrisons in West Berlin and their supply.

The Communists are less confident about their control over 17,000,000 restless East Germans.

That is the sum of impressions gathered during a visit to East Berlin and East Germany this week and from talks with all sorts of people ranging from Communist (SED) Party central committee men down to railway ticket takers and construction workers.

When speaking for the record they talk though of how the Soviet will back them up in the long list of things they say they will forbid the Allies to do.

When they're not talking propaganda the German Communist leaders speak a lot less threateningly. They still maintain that East Germany will sign a separate treaty with Russia, but they are vague on details and indicate it will be the simple passage of time that will give them control over West Berlin's lifelines.

Asked at what point in stalemated East-West negotiations an East German - Russian peace treaty would be signed, East Berlin's Communist Party Chief Paul Verner declared, "When that would be, no one can say. I'm no fortune teller, but we won't wait until 1961 when the Adenauer regime in West Germany is to have completed its atomic armament."

The Communists still refuse to believe that the West will not agree to their peace treaty demands, and they think they're making gains as far as winning some sort of recognition from the Western powers.

★ ★ ★

They believe the Allies now are moving towards an agreement whereby they will negotiate with the East German regime on supplying their garrisons in West Berlin.

★ ★ ★

"Everyone at the Geneva Conference, not just Britain, but also France, now talks of things that were taboo before the conference," said Stefan Heymann, foreign ministry press chief. "The Western powers now recognize we have rights."

All party leaders are convinced that this growing recognition of their regime eventually will force the West Germans to enter into a confederation with East Germany. This would give them a certain influence over events in West Germany, where they now have no influence.

But the Communists still worry about their own influence in East Germany.

"The regime would not last a minute if the Soviet army left," said a man met in the East Berlin railway station. "Even a lot of party members could switch. But as long as the Russian army is here, there won't be another revolt."

Deeds Land to Lord but Can't Finish Deal

TRANQUILITY, N. J. (AP)—Robert Rusby wants to end fighting on earth for land so he's deeded his 24 acres to God. But there have been some complications.

To be legal, the deed must be delivered in person and so far, said Rusby, this has been quite a problem.

Senate Confirms Bid of C. Douglas Dillon

WASHINGTON (AP)—C. Douglas Dillon had Senate approval today to step officially into the second ranking job in the State Department.

The Senate, by a voice vote Tuesday, confirmed President Eisenhower's nomination of Dillon as first undersecretary. A 95-minute attack by Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La) and a defense by Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn) preceded the confirmation.

★ ★ ★

Dillon will take over the post vacated by Christian A. Herter when he succeeded the late John Foster Dulles as secretary of state.

Long told the Senate that rejection of Dillon would help take away what he called control of foreign aid by "international Wall Street tycoons."

★ ★ ★

Longs attack on Dillon was described by Sen. Bush as offensive and inaccurate. He said it was "so full of damaging innuendoes and inaccuracies" that it scarcely merited a reply.

Then He Decided It Was Time to Make His Exit

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A sailor testifying in a murder trial said he and some companions were watching a fight when one of the participants drew a gun and killed the other.

"What happened next?" he was asked.

"He cocked the gun again," was the reply.

"And then?"

"We left."

Pink irises are the pride and joy of Mrs. Lester A. Coleman. Her garden, which also features fish ponds and martins, will be among those on view during the Birmingham - Bloomfield portion of the Greater Detroit Garden Pilgrimage June 20-21.

Tour of Area Gardens Planned

A colonial dooryard display and rock garden in a secluded patio graces the Harry Calvert home on Surry road in Foxcroft. Mrs. Richard Burgis, refreshments chairman, picks out a spot for serving refreshments Sunday.

Pilgrimage Is Slated by Clubs June 20-21

Ten gardens, at their lush springtime peak, will be featured in the Birmingham-Bloomfield portion of the Greater Detroit Garden Pilgrimage. The gardens, belonging to members of local garden clubs will be on view June 20 and 21.

The Harry Denyes garden on Baldwin road in Birmingham is a walled living terrace that reflects the artistry of its owners. Mrs. Denyes is an interior decorator.

A Birmingham architect and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hyed of Waddington road, have their garden divided into separated areas with evergreens. Each section is accented with statuary.

An extra treat — a greenhouse — will be on view in the Berwyn road, Birmingham, home of Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Emmert. Visitors may also tour the ample grounds and orchards.

★ ★ ★

Roses in unusual varieties are the specialty of the Earl Tripletts. Despite the ravages of winter, their garden on North Williamsbury road in Birmingham is flourishing.

Last of the gardens of the Birmingham group is that of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calvert of West Surrey road in Foxcroft. On Sunday refreshments will be served here in the secluded patio and guests may enjoy the rock garden and colonial dooryard display.

★ ★ ★

Of the five Bloomfield gardens, the Max Fruhauf estate is largest. It features formal, herb and wild flower gardens, all in a natural wooded, stream-bordered setting. The garden provides sanctuary, not only for the family, but birds, ducks and dogs. "Cobble Court" is north of West Long Lake road on Brookside road.

Neighbors beyond the Fruhauf's also on Brookside road are the Blaine Eynons. The home, the former Couzens estate, has a stream (the same one the Fruhauf's enjoy) and formal gardens.

★ ★ ★

The James Zeder estate located on Orchard Ridge road is seven acres of rolling terrain surrounding an old world sunken pool and rose garden.

Overlooking the golf course of Bloomfield Hills Country Club is the beautifully landscaped contemporary home of the Lester Colmans on Rathmor road. Besides the gardens and fish pond, there are several houses of very active martins.

Near the Colmans is the new contemporary home of the George Romneys on East Valley road. The grounds show just how much can be accomplished within a year. The fountain tumbling through the rock garden will be the background for Saturday refreshments.

Cochairmen of the event are Mrs. Fred Henny and Mrs. Alan Loofbourrow. Assisting them are Mrs. John Cowen and Mrs. Willet McCourtney, tickets; Mrs. Howard Green and Mrs. Henry VanVurst, flags; Mrs. William Kahn and Mrs. H. S. McFarland, publicity; Mrs. Donald Wallace and Mrs. Karl Richards, hostesses; Mrs. Richard Burgis, refreshments and Mrs. Frank Webb, horticulturist.

★ ★ ★

Tickets for the tour are available from members of local garden clubs or may be purchased at any of the tour locations. Price of a ticket provides a map and admission to each of the gardens during the tour, starting at any convenient point.

Both local clubs and the Detroit Garden Center will benefit from the proceeds.

Bids to Honor Queen Deluge Chicago Mayor

CHICAGO (AP)—The impending visit of Britain's Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip has Chicago's social elite knocking on the mayor's door.

The royal visitors will be in Chicago only 23 hours on July 6, but Mayor Richard J. Daley already has turned down requests from hundreds of individuals and organizations hoping to get into the act.

"Were Her Majesty to spend the next six months in Chicago," Daley said today, "it would be impossible for her to see and do all the places and things suggested."

The royal visit will mark the official opening of the expanded St. Lawrence Seaway and Chicago's emergence as a major seaport.

The Queen and Prince will be representing the Dominion of Canada, a partner in the Seaway development. Chicago is the only U.S. city they will visit.

Lead 850 on Good Will Mission

Sekleses Back From Trip to Greece

By RHEA E. VIETOR
Women's Editor
The Pontiac Press

Mr. and Mrs. Socrates V. Sekles have returned to their home on Ottawa drive after a two-month excursion to Greece. Mr. Sekles was in charge of a group of about 850 "Ambassadors of Good Will" that sailed aboard the T.S.S. Olympia from New York April 10.

MRS. VIETOR

The cruise took ten days and included stops at Lisbon, Naples and Sicily.

The Sekles were treated "royally" in every sense of the world, they reported. They were received by the King and Queen of Greece, the Archbishop and the Greek Premier.

Mrs. Sekles, newly-elected president of the Women's Association of the Pontiac Symphony and first vice president of Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary said that the entire trip was like a dream. Although she loved every minute of it, she was happy to get back to Pontiac and to see her four children, Frances, Nick, Alex and Kiki.

After a sendoff in New York, including a reception at the St. Moritz, they arrived on board ship to find their cabin crowded with flowers and telegrams, including a warm message from President Eisenhower.

'PEOPLE TO PEOPLE'

The excursion of these American Hellenic Educational Progressive Association members (AHEPA) was in line with President Eisenhower's "People-to-People" program to bring closer understanding and friendship between us and the people of other nations in the world. Mr. Sekles has served Ahepa in local and district offices and nationally as supreme treasurer of the fraternity.

Highlights of the trip as recalled by Mrs. Sekles included the "wonderful meals," the enormous suite they had aboard the luxury ship and the reception they received during their entire stay in Greece.

GROUP WELCOMED

The excitement began when jet planes saluted them and boatloads of dignitaries came aboard before the ship docked, to extend a welcome to the group.

There was a city hall reception where the mayor insisted on some folk dancing and a banquet attended by the U. S. ambasador to Greece and his wife and at which Mr. Sekles was principal speaker.

There were tours to ancient ruins, historic sites and round of receptions and entertainment.

Perhaps the most touching was the welcome given the Greek-American group by the village of Volos. The city was badly damaged by an earthquake in 1955 and Mr. Sekles dedicated the new, not yet completed school for preventive diseases built high in the mountains beyond the town.

It was a holiday, complete with flags, marching bands and topped off by a luncheon outdoors in the village square.

Mrs. Sekles said she had another thing for which to be thankful. Although it was a rough crossing, she and her husband proved to be good sailors.

Mr. Sekles is a member of the Masonic Lodge, the YMCA and the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce.

Besides her work with the Pontiac Symphony and the Pontiac General Hospital Auxiliary, Mrs. Sekles is active in the City Federation of Women's Clubs, the Tuesday Musicale, Daughters of Penelope, and many other civic organizations.

Plan Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moorman of Dexter road will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday at their home. All friends are invited.

Ground Raisins Change Peanut Butter Cookies

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

There seems to be no end to the variety of peanut butter cookies. Today's version calls for ground raisins. Although it is a sticky job with your food grinder, it is essential to the recipe.

Mrs. Jack King of Hammond Lake is today's cook. Right now the family lives, eats and sleeps baseball. Mr. King works with the Little Leaguers. Mrs. King also enjoys sewing, swimming and bowling.

RAISIN PEANUT BUTTER COOKIES
By Mrs. Jack King

1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup peanut butter
1 cup granulated sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
¾ teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup raisins, ground

Mix shortening and peanut butter and cream with sugars until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients. Stir in raisins.

Roll into balls the size of walnuts. Then roll in granulated sugar. Flatten with a fork. Bake 10 minutes at 375 degrees.

ALVA F. FLAKE

To receive a B. S. Degree in education and natural science from Eastern Michigan University June 13 is Alva F. Flake. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde V. Flake of Keego Harbor, he will be arts and crafts director at Camp Oakland this summer.

YWCA Golf Classes to Begin Thursday

Pontiac YWCA announces the formation of a golf league. Open to all Y members, classes will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday at the city course. Mrs. Carolyn Francis, golf instructor for the Y will be the league sponsor.

The Y Nursery will be open at 9 a.m. for children aged 2½ through 5 years. The day camps will open June 29 for girls 8-11 and 12-15 years.

The children rehearse for their part in the City and Country School carnival this Sunday. Left to right are Shelly Faigenbaum and Barbara Zullman, who will be can can girls, and Nancy Ginn, daughter of Mr. James Ginn, cochairman of the affair.

School for Gifted Sets Scholarship Carnival

A special feature of the City and Country School carnival this year will be a water ballet. The 12th annual scholarship carnival, sponsored by parents at the school for gifted children, will be held Sunday from 1 to 6 p.m. on the school grounds, located half a mile north of Long Lake road on Woodward avenue.

★ ★ ★

The theme this year is "Western Jamboree." Fun for everyone in the family has been planned. An open pit barbecue will continually broil chicken and roast beef and complete dinners will be served throughout the day.

There will be a variety of games and prizes. The children will have an opportunity to ride ponies, pan for gold, dig for buried treasure and play darts.

★ ★ ★

There will be a continuous show, complete with can can girls at the "Last Chance Saloon."

The carnival helps raise money each year for scholarships to assist parents who have talented children and cannot otherwise afford to send their children to the school.

If you are going on a trip, have a look at those soft little leather slippers that fold into a tiny leather case. Most department stores have them. They tuck into a corner of a suitcase.

Shower Fetes Jean Wahr, Bride-Elect

Jean Wahr, bride-elect of Paul Alan Benson, was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. A. Chester Varney on Nelson street.

★ ★ ★

Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wahr of Manistee, and Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Benson of Pioneer drive, will be married June 27.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Wahr, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Ralph Rouse, Mrs. John Dugan, Mrs. Bryan French, Mrs. Robert O'Reilly and Mrs. Willard Bennett.

★ ★ ★

Others were Mrs. Charles Borst, Mrs. William McCreedy, Mrs. Claude Winter, and Mrs. John Hubbard and Mrs. Bert Curtis of Rochester.

Mrs. James Ginn of Franklin discusses plans for the 12th annual scholarship carnival of the City and Country School with Mrs. Ray Bailey of Birmingham. Mrs. Ginn is cochairman of the "Western Jamboree" and Mrs. Bailey is on the committee.

New Jersey Firm Specializes in Preserving Wedding Gowns

By MARY PRIME

NEW YORK (UPI) — Memo to the bride: If someone spills champagne in your lap or steps on your veil, call John Van Drill. He's been patching up wedding gowns for 25 years.

Van Drill owns the Le Boeuf Co., of East Orange, N.J., which has specialized in restoring and preserving dresses for more than 70 years. Last year, the plant processed 31,000 bridal gowns, most of them in July and August after June weddings.

Few cleaners will touch a wedding dress except at owner's risk, Van Drill said. His firm — the first and largest of its kind — insures its work. Average cost of preserving a gown is about $35, depending on the value of the dress.

When preserved, a gown is sealed in a case. If it is worn after processing, the guarantee is broken.

Some dresses come to the firm decayed by age or ripped by accident. One bride-to-be arrived to see Van Drill the day before her wedding, clutching what looked like a rag.

Her dog had got its collar caught in the dress. The dog ran out the door and down the street, chasing a cat. By the time the sobbing girl recovered the dress, the heads were almost gone, and the lace and satin were ripped and covered with mud and grease.

Van Drill and his crew worked most of the night on the gown. Stains were removed with carbon tetrachloride and oleic acid. Then the gown was dry-cleaned. A lacemaker remade the torn rosepoint. A seamstress reshaped the pleats and mended the satin. Oil sizing with a plastic base was applied. Finally, the dress was pressed.

The wedding took place on schedule, and the dress looked like new.

In addition to bridal gowns, the firm does special jobs for museums, bridal shops and department stores, private customers, and New Orleans Mardi Gras Kings.

Several years ago, Van Drill restored and preserved all the inaugural gowns of the wives of Arkansas governors. The gowns, some dating back to the 1800's now are on display in the state's museum at Little Rock.

One customer brought in a dress made in Revolutionary War days from a calico table cloth.

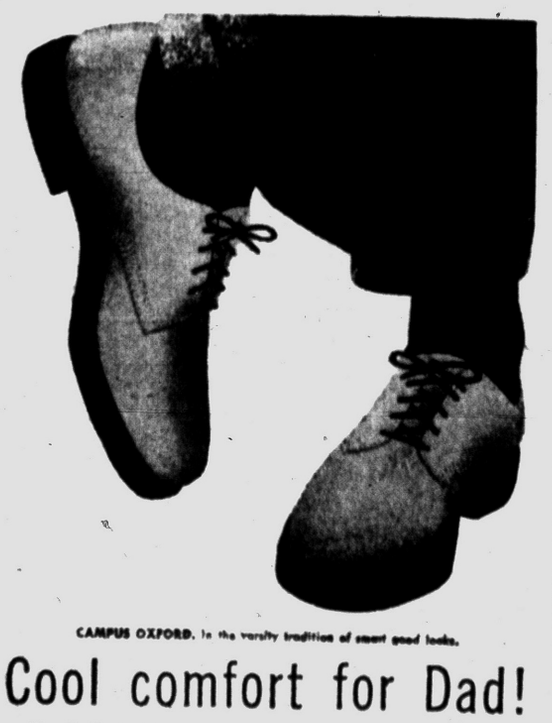

Another family sent in a gown with a note urging caution in handling the lace. It had been made by a male ancestor in a confederate-prisoner-of-war camp during the Civil War.

LEG CRAMPS?

One of the most common causes of painful muscle cramps is a prolonged deficiency of calcium.*

So says a famous doctor and widely-read newspaper columnist, formerly with the Mayo Clinic, and other well-known health authorities

When meals, consistently deficient in calcium, are fortified with DYNA-CAL Calcium Tablets, tormenting calcium-deficient muscle cramps can be promptly relieved. But don't confuse DYNA-CAL Tablets with ordinary calcium-phosphorus products. DYNA-CAL Tablets contain no phosphorus which frequently intereferes with the absorption of calcium. And DYNA-CAL Tablets contain a special ingredient which helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing faster relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles. Pleasant-to-take DYNA-CAL Tablets with calcium, glutamic acid hydrochloride, and vitamins D and C contain no drugs. They are safe, harmless, calcium food supplements. If you are suffering miserable muscle cramps, and suspect you are not getting enough calcium, ask for DYNA-CAL Tablets, today. Bottles of 90 tablets, $1.50.

*Other causes for muscle cramps are entirely unrelated to calcium deficiency.

'Help Someone Who Can't Help Self' . . . Abby

'Plenty of Ways to Get Unbored'

DEAR ABBY: I am 28 and was recently married. I worked in an office and married my boss. Now he doesn't want me to work any more. We have no children. I don't care for cards and I'm no good at sports. My housework is done in two hours. I am healthy, ambitious and bored stiff. How can I lead a more useful life?

ABBY

BORED

DEAR BORED: There are institutions for the aged, retarded children, the blind and veterans. There are young mothers who never see the bottom of the ironing basket and old folks who need help in tending their homes. Church groups, youth groups and Red Cross! If you want to be happy—do something for somebody who can't do for himself.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What happens to a 21-year-old girl who dreams of kissing her boyfriend every night, but when he asks her to kiss him, she refuses. DIANE

DEAR DIANE: NOTHING!

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who needs help. She is good looking and smart and very mixed up. (Three broken marriages at the age of 27!) She works around men and gets money from them to pay her psychiatrist. She has no morals whatsoever but there is something admirable about her. How can I convince her that she is doing wrong?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: If your friend is seeing a psychiatrist, the last thing in the world she needs is more advice. When one is trying to regain his emotional stability through professional help, good friends do not interfere.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I wish you could put this in headlines: WHEN YOUR HUSBAND ASKS FOR A DIVORCE, TELL HIM TO GO JUMP IN THE LAKE. I made the biggest mistake of my life when, after 16 years, my husband told me he wanted a divorce because he fell in love with a younger woman. All I was thinking of was my pride. I didn't want to hold a man who didn't want me. Not even for our children. We settled everything quietly in a lawyer's office and are now legally divorced. I still love him, Abby, and word has reached me that his second marriage is not working out. Yes, I still have my pride . . . but another woman has my husband. "FOOLISH PRIDE"

It's Your Own Fault if Life Is Boring

By RUTH MILLETT

How long has it been since you—

Tackled a job you were a little afraid of, instead of looking around for an excuse to get out of doing it?

Invited a stranger, perhaps a visitor from another country, into your home?

★ ★ ★

Made a trip to the library to get books to read up on a subject that suddenly caught your interest?

Tracked down an old friend you hadn't heard from in years?

Sat down and tried to figure out how to make your home more convenient and attractive and how to overcome the small annoyances that keep irritating you?

Rated yourself on the kind of job you are doing, whether you are a working woman or a homemaker or a combination of the two?

Decided to work toward a distant goal?

Went over your outside activities with a critical eye, determined to drop any one of them that didn't offer you real enjoyment or a sense of satisfaction?

Made the first gesture of friendship toward a new neighbor?

Attempted to learn something new and challenging?

Said of an evening out, "This was fun. It was so different."?

★ ★ ★

Became friends with someone considerably older or younger than your own age group?

Planned a trip to a far off place, whether or not you might ever be able to afford it?

Did anything to make yourself a better educated person, such as reading great books you missed in school, studying art appreciation, music, attending a series of lectures or enrolling in a night school course?

If it has been quite awhile since you've done many of these things, no wonder if you complain your life is getting dull.

Has Prince Philip Lost His Zest?

By TOM A. CULLEN

LONDON (NEA) —"Philip's nose is out of joint," someone in the crowd remarked when Prince Philip arrived at London Airport recently after an absence of 14 weeks.

Indeed, the Duke of Edinburgh looked anything but happy as he strode down the gangway of the Britannia airliner from his 36,000-mile world tour.

His smile was forced. The greeting he gave to the Queen and to his 10-year-old son, Prince Charles, seemed strained. He had a distant, preoccupied air.

GOOD REASON

If the princely nose was out of joint, there was good reason for it to be. During his absence on royal business both of his children had been ill, and Princess Anne was still recovering from chicken pox at Windsor Castle.

Prince Philip had missed the Queen's birthday by one week. He had also missed spending the Easter holidays with his young son who was home from boarding school.

★ ★ ★

He must have felt very much "out of touch," both as husband and father.

The glum look is one that Prince Philip wears increasingly. Canadians and Americans may catch a glimpse of it during the Duke's unguarded moments when he accompanies the Queen on her Canadian tour starting June 18.

★ ★ ★

The glum look has prompted some people to wonder if, after all, rumors of a rift in the royal marriage do not have some basis in fact. Two years ago these rumors gained wide currency.

But more often the question is asked:

TIRED OF JOB?

Is Philip growing tired of his job?

For it is not only a look, but an attitude. Newsmen assigned to tag along behind the Duke find him more and more peevish, irritable.

Not long ago when Prince Philip was in a London store, a woman called out to him in Greek, "May God grant you long life."

Philip swung around, stared at the woman coldly and snapped in English, "I do not speak Greek."

A trivial incident, perhaps, but indicative of an increasing edginess on the Duke's part.

★ ★ ★

Undoubtedly, the Duke's enforced absence from home on Commonwealth business accounts for much of his irritability. His absences total one year in the past three years. Hunting trips, factory inspections, speaking engagements at home keep him constantly on the go.

★ ★ ★

By the end of this year he will have been away from home 177 days, or nearly six months.

Naturally royal family life has suffered. But it is not only the unnaturalness of his family life that irks Prince Philip. It is the monotonous stream of criticism which awaits him at home that causes the Duke's face to lengthen as he nears England's shores.

EVERY MOVE KNOWN

Every time he plays polo on Sunday, the Lord's Day Observance Society rolls its eyes toward heaven. He is accused of being godless (although he attends church services regularly), of corrupting the nation's morals.

Every time the press publishes a photo showing his receding hairline, his mail bulges with suggestions on curing baldness.

Every time the Duke loses his temper (usually when his privacy is invaded by sightseers) the whole world hears about it.

Prince Philip is said to be extravagant, although he has done his best to modernize Buckingham Palace and to put the other Crown estates on a paying basis.

When he used both a destroyer and a Royal Air Force plane to take him 600 miles to a polo match at Windsor not long ago, there was a fearful outcry in the British press.

★ ★ ★

Of a more serious nature are the criticisms which Lord Beaverbrook's newspapers level at Prince Philip. Playing upon anti-German feeling which is still strong here, the Beaverbrook press never misses an opportunity to remind its readers of Prince Philip's foreign origin.

The Duke is not without his defenders. His keenness in scientific matters, his knowledge of and interest in labor-management problems, have earned him nothing but praise.

He is the outspoken foe of the Smug Set, which he defines as "the smugly satisfied, that great body which exercises its power by inertia."

Still the carping continues. They account for much of the glumness that North Americans may have occasion to observe during the coming Canadian tour.

To observers, Prince Philip's smile seemed forced when he returned to England recently from a 14-week tour.

Meeting Closes Season

St. Michael Altar Society held its final meeting until fall Tuesday evening at the parish hall.

Mrs. Blanche Blust announced the St. Rose Unit would have a bake sale June 26. Members of the unit will also have a house party and meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Gallo of Rose court June 23.

Mrs. Gayle Coulson, chairman of Little Flower Unit, announced a cooperative supper will be held at the parish hall June 16.

St. Monica Unit will combine its June meeting with a card party at the home of Mrs. Roy Tatham on Lawson drive in Lake Orion.

Mrs. George Michaels, membership chairman, reported a total of 501 members to date.

Refreshments at the meeting were served by members of the St. Gerard Unit. Hostesses were Mrs. Francis O'Conner, Mrs. Charles Loubert, Mrs. Robert Brehmer and Mrs. James Baldwin.

Hennin-Larson Nuptials Performed at Rochester

St. John Lutheran, Rochester, was the setting for the Saturday evening wedding of Eloise Marie Larson of Rochester and Marvin L. Hennin. The Rev. Walter C. Gerken officiated at the double-ring rite in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Alester Larson of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hennin of Midvale street.

The bride wore a gown of embroidered sheer with a fitted bodice featuring a square neckline and long tapered sleeves with shoulder capping of embroidery. The dress was fashioned with a basque waist, bouffant skirt of gathered ruffles and a chapel train. Her headpiece was of imported flowers in a crown shape, worn with a fingertip veil of pure silk French illusion, and she held a cascade of white roses with stephanotis and ivy on a white Bible.

★ ★ ★

Carole Bird of Rochester attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Shirley Bauer of Drayton Plains, Phyllis Oberg and Charlotte Clanahan, both of Rochester, and Sharon Hennin, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendants wore pink, blue, yellow, orchid and green respectively in nylon sheer featuring scooped necklines, fitted waists and bouffant skirts banded in embroidery with velvet inserts of ribbons. Each wore a matching hat trimmed in sequins and held matching floral arrangements.

Flower girl was Diana Weddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weddle. She was gowned in a pink floor length frock and carried pink rose petals in a basket.

MRS. MARVIN HENNIN

★ ★ ★

Robert Weddle was best man. Ushers were William Ray, Duane Schurtz, Robert Muenstermann and Bruce Larson of Rochester, brother of the bride.

Gordon Bird of Rochester was ring bearer.

For a trip to St. Louis, Mo., the new Mrs. Hennin changed to a paisley print sheath with a white waffle weave coat and wore white accessories with a corsage of white roses. The couple will reside in Illinois.

Individuals Vary

Vacation Together, Apart?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

This week in the column I am discussing various aspects of the family vacation, and one we should not overlook is that age-old question — whether husbands and wives should vacation separately or together.

I interviewed a distinguished psychiatrist about this and about vacations generally. His immediate response, as you may imagine, was that whether or not a couple should vacation separately or together was dependent on the individuals.

But why don't you "listen in" on part of our conversation.

Doctor: "It depends on how the husband and wife get along together; whether they have fun together and whether or not they enjoy the same things."

Josephine Lowman: "Don't you think it is most often the husband who decides what sort of a vacation it is going to be?"

Doctor: "Yes, I think that is true, probably because the woman has more leisure in her daily life to do things she wants to, while a husband normally does not have as much free time."

Josephine Lowman: "Are there any general mistakes which you feel folks make in their vacations?"

Doctor: "Yes, I feel very strongly about one! Couples should leave their small children at home until they are old enough to add something to the vacation and get something out of it themselves. It is no vacation for the parents to drag their small fry about. It is twice as much trouble taking care of them away from home than it is at home."

Josephine Lowman: "I am glad to hear you say that because it confirms the way I have always felt. Fortunately my mother was kind enough to stay with our children when my husband and I went on vacations, but if she had not been, I would have preferred to stay at home until the children were older."

At this point I said: "Of course, doctor, you know a lot of people may get mad at us if we print this conversation!"

Mother and child—it's a pretty picture. Why spoil it by taking Baby on a long, uncomfortable trip. It's no fun for the parents—or the children.

Doctor: "Sure. You will get letters saying things like, 'Daddy doesn't ever get to see the children' and 'The children would feel left out' and 'The family must do things together,' but I stand firm on this one anyway. Husbands and wives must have some time away from the children for a good marriage.

"As for the over-all planning for a vacation, that depends on the individual, too. Some people plan ahead for every step they are going to take and every breath they are going to breathe."

Josephine Lowman: "It sounds to me like more deadlines to meet."

Doctor: "But they enjoy it. They would not enjoy it any other way. They are the compulsive type. Then there are those who like to amble off without definite plans and go where they wish and stop when they wish and stay as long or for as short a time any place they want to at the moment. Then, of course, lots of people are in between these two extremes."

Well, that gives you an idea of our conversation. And I hope it gives you some ideas about vacations. Incidentally, the psychiatrist preferred to remain anonymous. I guess he preferred to have me answer all the mail!

★ ★ ★

Tomorrow: "A Home Vacation Can Be Fun — And It's Relaxing, Too."

ROWENA M. HARVEY

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Harvey of New Orleans, La., announce the engagement of their daughter, Rowena Margaret, to Air Force Lt. William Russel Meyer, son of the Russel H. Meyers of Pine Lake. The wedding will take place July 6 in New Orleans.

Showered With Gifts

Honor Local Bride-Elect

Judith M. Bassett, bride-elect of Herbert F. Bauer Jr. was honored at a shower given at the home of Mrs. David Edstrom of Maceday Lake.

Parents of the couple who will be married Aug. 22 at All Saints Church are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bassett of East Iroquois road and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Bauer of Sierra Madre, Calif.

Guests at the shower were Mrs. Russell Bassett, Ethel Bassett, Vera Bassett, Mrs. D. L. Brown, Mrs. Louis Cole, Mrs. Maitland Comb, Mrs. Barney Habel, Mrs. Charles Hayner, Mrs. W. R. Eames, Mrs. Paul D. Hammond, Mrs. C. O. Miller, Mrs. F. L. Shield, Mrs. Fritzi Stoddard and Mrs. C. R. Sauer.

Other were Mrs. Goodloe Rogers, Mrs. Ray Taylor, Mrs. H. M. Thatcher, Mrs. C. H. Purdy, Mrs. D. R. Wilson, Mrs. Charles Wood, Mrs. Harry Windiate and Mrs. John Windiate.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Frances Blackstock of Detroit, Mrs. Thomas Edwards of Detroit, Mrs. Emmett Hollingworth and Mrs. Jack Stevens both of Flint, Mrs. R. J. Kvitek of Birmingham, Mrs. Wayne Longair, of Clarkston, Mrs. Elmer Pettengill of New Jersey, Mrs. Frank Wood and Mrs. Clinton Wood both of Harrison.

Chic of Hat Spoiled by Gesture

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: A few months ago I was the maid of honor in a friend's wedding and wore a small hat which had a veil on it that came to about the tip of my nose. Just before I started down the aisle I lifted this veil back over the hat.

"Several of my friends have told me that I was entirely wrong to have done this and that only the bride's veil is thrown back; others thought it was all right. However, none of them actually knew for sure. I would definitely like to know for future reference, whether I was right or wrong."

Answer: It seems to me that throwing back the veil you describe would have ruined the chic of your hat and it would have been better to leave it as it was.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have been told that it is never proper to introduce anyone as "my friend." The reason given for this is that by calling one person a friend it implies that the other is not. Will you please tell me if this is correct?"

Answer: What you were told is quite true and when introducing one friend to another young friend you would say, "Mary Smith — John Jones." When introducing a friend to a near relative, you might say, "This is my friend Mary."

Student League of Musicale Meets for Picnic

A picnic Sunday afternoon at the Winterberry drive home of Paul Eicher closed the season for the Student League of Tuesday Musicale.

★ ★ ★

The host played several double bass selections, and an impromptu string quartet made up of Karen and David Eicher, Martha Kurzweil and Mary Slowik provided the program.

★ ★ ★

Award winners were Barbara Payne, Dianne LaBair, and Margaret Moreau.

Mrs. Lester Snell and Mrs. Lyndon Salathiel have served as counselors.

Be sure to refrigerate custard but serve it as soon as possible.

OLD MANNERISMS

Rid yourself of mannerisms that add years to your age. There are so many little things that add years to appearance. Make a mental note of these and avoid them:

1. "Dropping" your weight into a chair.
2. Jutting your head (and shoulders) forward. Cocking your head.
3. Stooping over from the waist to awkwardly pick up an article.
4. Fidget, mumble, lack of interest, wandering mind.

Watch for aging mannerisms and add to this list yourself.

Walled Lake Seniors to Hold Class Party at School Till Dawn

ELEANOR G. DUCKWITZ
Walled Lake Correspondent

WALLED LAKE — Parents of graduating seniors, who used to face the hours after the commencement exercises with apprehension, have a far happier prospect this year. No more will they lie awake wondering where their young people are. This year they will know.

This year the graduates will be at the Walled Lake Senior High School participating in an all class party which will continue until dawn.

The idea for the party, the first in this immediate area, originated last fall when mothers of several seniors informally expressed their thoughts on the subject. They wanted their young people to have a good time but didn't like the idea of them driving from one open house to another. They also didn't like unchaperoned open houses.

Another consideration was the expenses involved in holding open houses.

One party for everyone, they thought would solve all these problems and still permit the grad nates to have the fun and entertainment they desired.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Frank Roemer of West acres was so enthusiastic about the idea that her daughter, Marge, a member of the Senior Executive Board obtained permission to present the idea to the entire class.

The students recogized its value and they themselves decreed the party would be just for the Class of '59 — no dates, no guests. It would be the last time they would be together as a class so they wanted to keep it a closed party.

With student support, letters were sent to all senior parents, inviting them to participate. Mrs. Roemer also organized a telephone committee so that the parents of each of the 260 graduates were contacted personally.

★ ★ ★

The response was terrific, Mrs. Roemer said. Parents attended meetings, volunteered their services and contributions began pouring in. It was clearly understood that the ability of his parents to donate should not keep any student home.

Now with commencement, scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow, all is in readiness for the party which will follow. The committees have attended to all details to make this party one long to be remembered and perhaps to set a tradition to be followed by future classes.

As soon as the cap and gown clad seniors march out of the auditorium Mrs. Robert Sommer will start her committee transforming the huge room into a "night club."

Allowing the students approximately an hour for family reunions by 11:30 p.m. the fun will begin. Entertainment is the responsibility of Mrs. Norman Smith. She has engaged John Bookout of Orchard Lake Music who will play records for dancing, conduct "mixers" and get the party moving.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Smith has also promised some surprise talent and arranged games for non-dancers.

Drawing for door prizes will be conducted at frequent intervals, the first one at midnight.

The rules committee headed by Mrs. Harold Welch, has stated that no one may enter the party after 12:30 a.m. and if he leaves he may not come back. No one who has been drinking will be admitted nor will any alcoholic beverages be permitted at the party.

Mrs. Donald MacLean's committee will see to it that plenty of snacks are on hand until 3 a.m. when Mrs. Edward Brinker's group will serve breakfast.

During the hours that the party is in progress, Mrs. Arthur Mowrey has arranged for parents to be present to chaperone as "unobtrusively as possible."

It is expected that the party will break up about 4 a.m. but participants may stay until 5 if they wish.

★ ★ ★

In the following days after the party, Mrs. David Whitcomb, as finance chairman, will see that all accounts are settled with the donated funds.

If the energy and enthusiasm being expended on plans and preparations are any criteria, this senior party should be a rousing success, its sponsors say.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bilyeu of 2000 Dunwoodie Rd., Ortonville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Veachel Yvonne, to Glenn C. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Allen of Grosse Pointe. An Aug. 21 wedding is planned.

Novi Board Hopefuls Must File by Friday

NOVI — Candidates for the Novi School Board election, July 13, must file their petitions at either the superintendent's office or at the office of the secretary of the Board before 5 p.m. Friday, Dr. William Medlyn, schools superintendent, announced today.

★ ★ ★

All petitions which are submitted must bear the names of at least 50 registered voters.

★ ★ ★

There will be two three-year and one one-year positions open.

★ ★ ★

Arthur Heslip, president of the Board; Russell Taylor, secretary and Dr. Harold Morris, trustee, are the men whose terms will expire.

Civic Center Site Approved

Southfield Will Buy 166 Acres for $740,000 Despite Xway Threat

SOUTHFIELD—The purchase of a 166-acre site for a civic center on Evergreen road, between 10 and 11 Mile roads, has been authorized by the City Council, Administrator Robert J. McNutt said today.

The land, which will cost Southfield $740,000, will be possibly in the path of the proposed east-west expressway. The council, happy over the purchase, will fight any effort to put an expressway through the property, McNutt said.

The land, which is on the east side of Evergreen road south of Lathrup road, will be bought from Mary E. Thompson of 25630 Evergreen Rd.

McNutt said plans call for the city to buy 106 acres now for $477,000 and take a two-year option on the remaining 60 acres for $270,000. The option will cost $10,000.

The city will raise $100,000, plus the $10,000 option price for the first down payment, by July 30. The land will be paid for over a 5- to 10-year period.

The State Highway Dept. has sought Southfield's approval for an east - west expressway that might follow a route south of Lathrup road to 10 Mile road. This would bring the proposed highway through the Thompson land.

The council wants the expressway at 11 Mile road north of the city limits.

Auburn Heights Club Plans Dinner, Cards

AUBURN HEIGHTS — The Auburn Heights Community Club will meet at 6:30 p.m. tomorrow at the clubhouse, 270 S. Squirrel Rd. Mrs. Frank Pretzinos and Mrs. Denton Cooper will be hostesses for the dinner which will be followed by a short business meeting.

The public is invited to join members at 8 p.m. for an evening of pinochle.

Schedule Issued for Rochester

Lawn Sprinkling Curbed

ROCHESTER — Village President Clarence M. Burr has issued a proclamation establishing a schedule for lawn sprinkling to be in force until a permanent ordinance is adopted by the Rochester Village Council.

The proclamation specifies that householders with even-numbered houses sprinkle their lawns only on the even days of the month. Those with odd-numbered houses will be allowed to water their lawns only on the odd-numbered dates, it reads.

The reason for the edict, Burr said, is that the advent of warm, dry weather and the increase in sprinkling has reduced the water pressure to such a degree that it is not available to meet the minimum domestic needs of a large section of the village populace.

The proclamation further states that because the emergency already exists the restrictions are effective immediately.

Meanwhile village officials are taking the intitial steps toward adoption of a permanent ordinance to take care of the water-pressure situation.

Legality Halts Township Sanction

Youth Guidance OK Denied

OAKLAND TOWNSHIP — Upon advice of corporation counsel, the Oakland Township Board last night turned down a request to approve a proposal sanctioning Rochester Area Youth Guidance program.

In a letter from Attorney Charles Davis, the township was advised that statutes under which township governments operate do not include action of this kind. "Consequently it cannot be taken despite the program's desirability," the lawyer said.

The Rochester Village Council gave its official sanction to the guidance program, now in operation, in April. And the committee in charge of the program said that, as long as the program would cover the entire Rochester Community School District, it would seek approval of the ordinance from both the Avon and Oakland Township Boards.

The Avon Township Board passed a similar measure at its May 27 meeting.

★ ★ ★

A special election is being held in Oakland Township today to determine if residents will approve a Consumers Power Co. franchise to install and maintain power lines here for the next 30 years. The polls will be open until 8 p.m.

★ ★ ★

In other action, the appointment of Francis Hughes as Justice of the Peace was approved. He will fill the two-year unexpired term of Kenneth Waite.

Royal Oak Garden Club to See Film on Insects

ROYAL OAK — The Royal Oak Farm and Garden Club will hold its final meeting of the current year at 7:25 p.m. tomorrow in the church house of the First Baptist Church of Royal Oak, located at 309 N. Main St.

★ ★ ★

Lester Swan, authority on biological control, will show a colored film supplemented by colored slides. The film, made by the Biological Control Laboratory of the University of California, is entitled "Natural Control of Insect Pests."

★ ★ ★

The meeting is open to the public.

Jack Benny to Eulogize

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Jack Benny will deliver the eulogy Thursday at memorial services for veteran motion picture director Charles Vidor at Wilshire Boulevard Temple. Vidor, 58, died last week in Vienna where he was making a movie. Interment will be at the Home of Peace Mausoleum.

GETS HONORARY DEGREE — The man who recently played a leading role in promoting and building the Romeo Community Youth and Civic Center, Walter F. Sheetz, right, receives an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Lawrence Institute of Technology, Detroit. Sheetz, who lives in Romeo and is president of the R. C. Mahon Co., Detroit, is shown receiving his degree from Edward Spencer, treasurer of the Detroit Edison Co., and institute board member, left, before E. George Lawrence, institute president.

Honor 2 Girls for Posters

One Bloomfield Twp. Student First; Other Gets Special Mention

WEST BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Donna Schwind, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schwind of 2933 Glenbrooke St., Keego Harbor, has been awarded first prize for the poster she submitted in the West Bloomfield Township Library Board contest.

Betty Serydarian, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Serydarian, of 3330 Ward's Point Rd., Orchard Lake received honorable mention in the competition.

Both Donna and Betty are students of West Bloomfield High School.

The library contest was open to all students of the Township enrolled in grades 9 through 12.

Inaugurated by the Library Board, it was designed to increase awareness of residents of the community of the facilities offered by its libraries, a Library Board spokesman said today.

The Main Library at 3201 Orchard Lake Ave. and the Branch Library located at 7200 Cedar Bank in Westacres are the two facilities open to the township.

Milford High Junior to Sail for Belgium on Fellowship

MILFORD — Attractive, brown eyed Carole Hagerty, Milford High School junior, is hastily making preparations to spend six weeks in Belgium. She will sail from New York on the S. S. Zuiderkruis on June 18.

Carole, 17-year-old daughter of the James E. Hagertys of White Lake, is the recipient of an American Field Service fellowship under the Summer Program.

Although Carole received word in April that she had been accepted for the program, it was only one week ago she learned her destination.

She will leave Detroit Metropolitan Airport on June 16 accompanied by three other AFSers from the area. They are Janet Howe of Holly who will go to Great Britain; Sheila Murphy of West Bloomfield, going to Sweden and Patricia Cobb, Farmington, whose destination is Norway.

★ ★ ★

The American Field Service Summer Program enables selected juniors from high schools participating in the foreign student program to spend six weeks of the summer living with a family abroad. It was instituted in 1950, at the suggestion of returning European students.

Throughout the summer the local AFS chapters as well as the New York office will be in constant touch with these students and their families, while the European AFS committees will also maintain personal contact with them.

CLARKSTON HIGH SCHOOL — More than 100 workmen are swarming over the 70-acre school building site, as the new 2½ million dollar high school begins to take shape. Schools Superintendent Dr. L. F. Greene and construction engineer Edward Powell look over progress made since voters approved the school bond issue by a 2½ to 1 margin.

Clarkston High School Rises on 70-Acre Site

CLARKSTON — The 70-acre school site in the southeast section of town is literally "alive" with activity as the new 2½-million-dollar high school begins to rise out of the cleared landscape.

Two of the six units now are outlined against the sky, and more than 60 per cent of the footings and underground tunnels have been completed since voters approved the school bond issue at a special election May 26.

It is expected that the new high school building will accommodate 1,000 pupils in grades 10 through 12. There are 18 general classrooms and special science, biology, chemistry, physics, art, business education, homemaking, music and shop rooms included in the plans.

★ ★ ★

A gymnasium for 2,000 spectators, a 350-seating capacity auditorium, cafeteria, kitchen, library and administrative offices all will be furnished with the very latest equipment, according to Schools Supt. Dr. L. F. Greene.

★ ★ ★

Provisions have been made for future expansion of the high school right on the same huge site which was purchased by a far-sighted Board of Education for $16,000 in 1940. Greene estimated that the same property would probably cost between $150,000 to $200,000 today.

The present overloaded high school will be used as a junior high school after the new building has been completed and made ready for operation in 1960.

There are some 3,500 pupils in the Clarkston Community School District at the present time. Based on past enrollment trends, there will be an estimated 4,600 pupils attending Clarkston schools within the next four years, Greene said.

Bids for driveways, sidewalks and parking lots will be accepted by the Board of Education sometime late this month.

Chicago Plans Big Hello for Queen Liz, Entourage

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD—I said "goodbye" to Chicago on the wave of the biggest "hello" ever planned in its history—the arrival of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, aboard their private yacht, on July 6.

Gene Kelly was in and out of New York in a flash, but not before I had a chance to learn he's very excited over the offer from the Paris opera to be the first American ever invited to choreograph and stage a ballet there next June.

He isn't exactly set on his theme, but he thinks it will be a modern ballet set to Gershwin music.

Among some telegrams awaiting me at the Waldorf Towers was one from Sam Spiegel with news that he's signed Mercedes McCambridge to play Elizabeth Taylor's mother in "Suddenly Last Summer." Sam says, "Luckily, Mercedes happened to be vacationing here in London—and we could get her."

★ ★ ★

Another wire — David Janssen (that dashing private eye of "Richard Diamond") inked his contract with Joseph Schenck Enterprises for a brand new TV series, "The Racers." If you ask me, my good friend Joe has himself a winning star in Mr. J. . . .

JAPANESE SHOW

And, a third message — Shirley MacLaine's husband, Steve Parker, is importing a spectacular Japanese variety show with all top Japanese talent to Las Vegas (the New Frontier) in July.

Dean Martin is much more of a sentimentalist than his wisecracks would lead you to believe.

His birthday happened to fall on the same day as Nancy Sinatra Jr.'s (she hit 19), so Jeanne and Dean hosted a dual birthday party at La Rue with two cakes. Young Nancy's 11-year-old sister, Tina, also got in on this "do."

Same place, same night—Joan (Mrs. Harry) Cohn with Eugene Enders, the Red Buttons, Curt Jurgenses and Greer Garson, just back in Hollywood from Texas where she's been with her ailing Buddy Fogelson. Buddy is much improved since that serious automobile accident.

★ ★ ★

Poor Christine Carere has her troubles what with her career in Hollywood booming along and her husband, Philippe Nicaud, scoring in a hit play, "The Reclining Figure" in Paris. The French actress isn't happy at all about these enforced separations.

★ ★ ★

Snapshots of Hollywood, Chicago and New York collected at random:

Apparently even the impending visit of the stork isn't saving the Frank Ross - Joan Caulfield marriage. He's dating pretty brunette Jean Marrin.

The many times postponed Jeff Chandlers divorce finally gets a court calendar date—June 29.

The widow of Lou Costello accompanies her daughter, Carole Costello, every night to Ye Little Club where Carole's just opened a singing engagement.

Tanglewood Gets New Stage Canopy

LENOX, Mass. (UPI) — A new $40,000 stage canopy will replace the present shell when the Boston six-week summer concert series at Symphony Orchestra opens its the Tanglewood Music Shed here.

Mrs. Edmund H. Talbot donated the sum in memory of her late husband, a Boston attorney, for whom the structure will be named.

The new acoustical canopy will consist of 67 triangular plywood panels of various sizes, connected tip-to-tip and suspended from the roof trusses with side walls of plywood.

State Leads Lakes Area in Acreage for Trees

MANISTEE—Michigan has 572 certified Tree Farms, consisting of 1,028,584 acres, the Chairman of the Michigan Tree Farm Committee reported.

Rowland W. Blair, chief forester for the American Box Board Co. of nearby Filer City, said Michigan leads all Great Lakes states in the amount of acreage covered by the Tree Farm program which is designed to properly manage their woods and thereby help supply the nation's timber needs.

Gov. Long Sick for Months, Says Wife

Saw Breakdown Coming

NEW YORK (UPI) — The wife of Louisiana's Gov. Earl Long said she knew her husband's breakdown was coming eight months ago when he became so obsessed with running for a fourth term that he stopped eating and began to abuse his family and close friends.

Mrs. Blanche Long, in a copyrighted article in Life Magazine, said "It was just as plain as day" to her that he needed medical help long before he finally agreed to it.

"Any day I expected them to call me to tell me he had dropped dead in the street," she said.

Mrs. Long said her husband, brother of assassinated Huey Long, began to fret over a new home he was building because he was afraid people would think it was too grand.

"He was called on for several conferences with the internal revenue people," she said, "and that worried him, too.

"Every little thing began to build up on his mind until it was obvious that he was getting sicker every day."

Long was taken to a hospital in Galveston, Tex., for treatment, and his wife predicted he would be discharged a well man in time to run for re-election as governor of Louisiana.

Mrs. Long said that about six weeks ago she noticed his condition was getting so bad that he was irritable all the time.

★ ★ ★

"He started doing things he had never done before," she said. "He made the troopers who drive his car travel at 100 m.p.h., where before he had always made them stay down to 55. Everywhere he went he made them run the police siren full blast, where before he had forbidden them to use it."

Abandon Attempt to Cross Atlantic in Motorboat

Three U. S. Air Force crewmen, one of them from Birmingham, last night gave up the attempted crossing of the Atlantic to Florida from Plymouth, England, in the 12-ton motorboat "Saralinda."

They said the little craft was too fragile to withstand such a long crossing.

The airmen set out from England more than a month ago. They left Gando, 12 miles south of the Canary Islands, Monday but returned four hours later because of heavy seas.

The three crewmen, T. Sgt. Edward Little of Birmingham, Maj. Howard Reynolds of Orlando, Fla., and Lt. William R. Sepe of Cranston, R.I., will fly to Casablanca Monday. From there Reynolds and Sepe will fly back to the United States. Little will return to England, where he is stationed.

Another motorboat, the "Lightning," started the voyage from Plymouth with the "Saralinda" but later dropped it.

Father Shoots Daughter

LAUREL, Miss (UPI)—A four-year-old girl was accidentally shot by her father late yesterday. She died within an hour. Officers said C. Stanley Hutchinson was cleaning his automatic pistol. He dropped the gun, they said, the pistol discharging and the bullet striking Hutchinson's daughter, Cathy. The shooting was ruled accidental.

Aga Khan to Receive Degree at Harvard

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—An undergraduate affectionally called "K" by his classmates gets his bachelor of arts degree Thursday at Harvard College's 308th commencement.

★ ★ ★

"K's" formal title is His Highness the Aga Khan IV, spiritual leader of some 20 million Ismaili Moslems.

It is in his capacity as Imam of the Middle East sect that he has donated to Harvard $50,000 to establish a 10-year program of scholarships, preferably for students of his faith.

To Aga Khan's gift, Harvard is expected to put in another $50,000 to make a scholarship fund of $100,000 available in the next decade for students from Pakistan, India, the United Arab Republic, Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Lebanon, Jordan, Iran, East Africa, including Kenya, Tanganyika, Uganda and Zanzibar.

The Aga Khan, 22, who succeeded his late grandfather Aga Khan III as Ismaili Moslem leader while a sophomore at Harvard, announced the scholarship plan in a formal statement distributed by the college news service.

Women Voters Back Piggy Back Tax Plan

EAST LANSING (AP)—The League of Women Voters of Michigan today announced support of a graduated state income tax, including the "piggy-back" income tax plan backed by Democrats and a scattering of Republican lawmakers.

The action was taken yesterday by the State Board of the League, a non-partisan group of women voters with 23 local leagues across the state.

As an alternate to a graduated tax, the league said it would support a "properly written" flat rate tax.

It opposed the use (sales) tax increase supported by Republicans.

"The league's position is based on its 20 years of study of Michigan's tax structure," said Mrs. Howard Lichterman of Huntington Woods, league president.

Detroit Teachers Get $200-a-Year Pay Hike

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Board of Education last night approved a record 166-million-dollar budget featuring a $200 a year increase for all teachers. There are about 10,000 teachers in the Detroit system.

The outlay is up about one third from the current budget of 124-million dollars. The starting salary for teachers with a bachelor's degree will be $4,700. Top salary will be $7,700 for teachers with a doctor's degree and 10 years' experience.

Michigan to Lease Ferry Docks at Straits

LANSING (UPI) — The State Highway Department today announced leasing agreements for use of the state ferry docks at St. Ignace and Mackinaw City.

The state will get $14,215 for use of the docks by the Arnold Line and Straits Transit Inc.

The Highway Department announcement follows a promise by the State Waterways Commission that there will be an effort to encourage industrial development in the Straits area.

Bill Hikes Tax on Life Firms

Would Up Levies From Insurance Companies by 60 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A joint House-Senate conference committee today hammered out a compromise bill which would boost income taxes on life insurance companies by about 60 per cent.

The bill would require the industry to pay about $500,000,000 in taxes on their 1958 income, compared with $319,000,000 that would have been levied under a temporary formula that has been in effect in recent years.

The compromise would set up a permanent taxing formula requiring the industry to pay the regular 52 per cent coorporate rate on a larger proportion of its investment income and on about half of its underwriting profits. The latter profits hitherto have been tax free.

President Eisenhower's balanced budget assumed that Congress would approve the $500,000,000 tax bite on the insurance industry.

There was widespread dissatisfaction within the insurance industry over the terms of this old formula.

★ ★ ★

The House originally passed a bill that would have collected an estimated $545,000,000 on 1958 income. The Senate revised this, scaling it down to about $500,000,000.

House members of the conference committee accepted most of the 60 Senate amendments, resulting in only a slight dollar change in the Senate version of the legislation.

GOP Solons Support a 'State Rights' Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Republican Policy Committee has endorsed a "states rights" bill, despite the opposition of Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers.

★ ★ ★

The commitee endorsed the bill Tuesday with most of its 33 members present and only a few opposing the action. The bill was drafted by Rep. Howard W. Smith, Virginia Democrat.

★ ★ ★

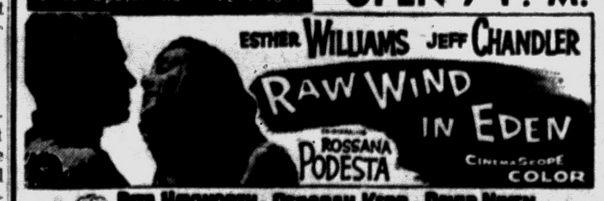

The Smith bill would declare that no act of Congress should supersede a state law unless Congress specifically states its intention of doing so, or unless there is a clear case of conflict between the two.

Is the Long Dynasty Dead? Will Russell Save It? Will Earl Return?

In 1928, a fiery country lawyer named Huey P. Long was elected governor of Louisiana. Recently there have been rumblings the Long dynasty was crumbling. AP writer Hugh A. Mulligan, an AP staffer at Louisiana's Capitol for three years, returned to Baton Rouge to survey Louisiana's government under the Long influence. Today's story, the first of three, deals with the situation in the wake of Earl Long's commitment.

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
AP Staff Writer

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—The long Long trail winding through Louisiana politics for 30 years has meandered tragically to the gates of a Galveston, Tex., mental clinic where Earl Long, Huey's younger brother, is confined after two shockingly profane speeches to the Legislature.

Will Earl be back? Is the Long dynasty dead?

These are the questions being asked openly and answered guardedly in the 34-story state Capitol building that rises as a giant headstone over Huey P. Long's grave.

A sanity hearing next week will provide some indication of the 63-year old governor's political future.

Since Earl's departure, no one has dared to pick up the Long mantle but some have tip-toed up to sniff at it. State Sen. B. B. Rayburn of Bogalusa, floor leader in the Senate, announced that he might be available to carry the Long banner in the coming governor's race and was promptly branded a "flyweight" contender by an outraged Long man in the House.

★ ★ ★

Rumors persist that U.S. Sen. Russell Long, Huey's son who bears a striking physical resemblance to the late Kingfish, is maneuvering to take over the Long forces and run for governor in the December Democratic primary with the support of Delesseps Morrison, the dynamic mayor of New Orleans. Morrison would then complete the rest of Russell's Senate term and run for a full term with his support in 1961.

Both deny that any deal has been struck.

★ ★ ★

"I've always had an ambition to be governor and someday follow my father in the mansion," Russell Long said in an interview, "but I have serious doubts at this time about leaving the Senate for the governorship. The normal political path is through the governor's office to the U.S. Senate, not the other way around. However, if it were the only way of keeping the Long faction together, I might consider running."

The senator joined in the family conclave that decided to sign commitment papers for the stricken governor.

AP Wirephotos

LONGS OF LOUISIANA—These are the three men who have made the Long family a political dynasty in Louisiana politics since 1928. It started that year with the election of Huey "The Kingfish" Long, center, as governor. Left is present Gov. Earl Long, Huey's younger brother, recently committed to a psychiatric clinic. Right is U. S. Sen. Russell Long, Huey's son, who may run for governor.

"My uncle and I have differed politically in the past," he said. "He has his following. I have mine. As far as I'm concerned, Lt. Gov. Lether Frazar is the head of the Long forces now. I'm available for help but not here to put pressure on things."

Spending most of his time in Washington, Russell lacks the strong personal following and patronage-fed political machine that made his father and uncle absolute bosses of the Long faction. His alliance with the northern liberal wing of the Democratic party is sure to come under heavy fire from segregation leader W. M. Rainach, an all but announced candidate for governor himself.

Many of Russell's opponents, together with some of his friends, feel that he lost considerable ground by showing flashes of temper when six House members objected to his addressing a joint session to explain the governor's illness and sudden trip out of state. Refusing to speak without an unanimous invitation, Long angrily demanded that the six stand up and be counted, and was somewhat taken back when they did. Three times he stalked away from the microphone, the old family fury burning in his eyes and his jaw set in a way reminiscent of Huey, but finally was persuaded to go ahead with his remarks.

If the Long camp is wary until the old warrior's future is determined by psychiatrists, many former Long supporters are anxious to pickup the pieces of his following. Among them are Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr., and State Comptroller Bill Dodd, both potent vote getters. There are even rumors that Blanche Long, the governor's wife, might be persuaded to run.

Segregation leaders, growing in political power since the Supreme Court school decision, are convinced that Earl Long's breakdown, witness by thousands on television, marks the end of the Long dynasty, regardless of whether he ever runs again.

★ ★ ★

In Louisiana the governor cannot succeed himself, but Earl a few weeks ago came up with a scheme to resign before his term ends in favor of Lt. Gov. Frazar and then run to succeed Frazar.

Long collided head on with segregation leaders when he attempted to forestall by legislation a vote registration cleanup that in the past three years has removed thousands of Negroes from the rolls.

Although he insisted that he was "100 per cent for segregation" and merely out to protect the poor white vote, segregationists accused him of making blantant play for Negro support. The charge is not without some foundation, since Long's floor leaders privately admit the governor had no intention of letting his measures pass and actually pulled six key votes off the Senate floor when they came up.

★ ★ ★

"By this play for Negro votes, Earl riddled his organization," said State Sen. Rainach, the ardent, Bible quoting segreation leader who always wears a gray tie emblazoned with the Confederate flag. "This is the end of factionalism in Louisiana politics, of Long against anti-Long."

For 30 years Long against Long has been the dominant theme in Louisiana politics, with each side certain of anywhere from 30 to 40 per cent of the vote, and there are those who say it always will be a major factor as long as there is anyone around with the name of Long.

★ ★ ★

"I've never known a Long to be politically dead, certinly not the governor," insists State Sen. C.H. Downs of Alexandria a Long leader.

Tomorrow: The rise of Huey Long and his still lingering influence on Louisiana politics.

Picks Michigan-Built Plane for Tokyo-to-New York Record Try

By A.F. MAHAN JR.

TECUMSEH (AP) — Michigan still is building airplanes.

And Peter Gluckman, San Francisco's flying watchmaker, has picked a Michigan-made Meyers 200 for a Tokyo-to-New York crack at Max Conrad's brand new nonstop record of 7,638 miles.

Gluckman, who has hopped light planes across the Atlanic and to Honolulu and back, said he picked the creation of Allen H. Meyers for his first attempt at the non-stop record "because I think it is the best airplane built."

Meyers is a 50-year-old Michigan resident who built his first airplane in 1953 when he ran a flying school at Wayne. This year he hopes to build 25 of his $23,750, four-place, executive-type planes at the Meyers Aircraft Co. plant outside this southeastern Michigan town.

Meyers, who builds from the airframe up, likes to brag his plane is "all-Michigan." It is powered by a 260-horsepower engine built by Continental Motors at Muskegon.

★ ★ ★

The Civil Aeronautics Administration has put its stamp of approval on the Meyers 200, a successor to the Meyers 145, a two-place, $9,750 flying job. Meyers built 35 of the latter.

Meyers learned to fly and barnstormed in a Jenny of World War I vintage. Finally he settled and started a flying school at Wayne, but he couldn't find a plane that gave him everything he wanted. So he designed and built his own. He scraped together the funds slowly from tuition fees at his school.

That first plane later became the Air Force's OTW bi-wing trainer of World War II.

Between barnstorming junkets, Meyers had worked in the engineering and mechanical departments of the Glenn Martin, Chance-Vought and Stinson Aircraft plants.

Both the Detroit-made Stinson and the old Ford tri-motor have passed. So has Willow Run's plane-a-minute Liberator factory of World War II.

Although not a graduate engineer, Meyers built his first ship from scratch. And that is the way he has built its successors.

★ ★ ★

He holds a commercial pilot's license and divides up testing with his test pilot, or does it with him. If he isn't in the air, Meyers is likely to be found on his back aground, helping a mechanic adjust this or that under a wing. Or he may be helping to hang a motor, or running the gas pump or sweeping up behind one of his 75 employes.

Meyers advertises his plane as "the safest ship of its class," adding "—and we can prove it."

TELLS OF STRUCTURE

He starts with a straight forward truss section made of chrome-alloy steel tubing. The structure extends outboard to include the wing wheels of the plane's retractable tricycle landing gear.

Chrome-alloy steel tubing also encloses that four-passenger cabin.

The Meyers 200 has a wingspan of 30 feet 6 inches, is 24 feet 4 inches long and stands 7 feet 4 inches tall.

Its 260-horsepower, fuel-injection Continental engine gives it a cruising speed of 204 miles per hour at 75 per cent of power at 7,500 feet. It has a range of 1,380 miles without refueling.

The sleek little plane has a landing speed of only 55 miles an hour, weighs 1,870 pounds empty and has a load capacity of 1,130 pounds. Back of the four-place cabin is a 200-pound luggage compartment.

Thick carpeting overlay the floors of the sound-proofed cabin virtually surrounded by glass.

Meyers started his Wayne flying school in 1933 and ran it until 1940, when he moved his airplane-building to a broad farm field outside Tecumseh.

That field now has runways stretching 2,600 and 2,400 feet and they can handle anything up to a DC3, a two-engined transport popular on U. S. airlines until a few years ago.

But airplanes aren't the only thing Meyers builds. There are also Meyers boats, aluminum jobs of 10, 12 and 14 feet length. And there are Meyers truck bodies for pickups. In addition, he does much airframe assembly work under subcontract for other aircraft builders.

Japanese Have Their Own Ideas of Joy Party

TOKYO (AP) — "A joy party began."

That's what the English language synopsis of a play said—although up on stage the actors, joy party, and the synopsis has around showing as much gaiety as a totem pole.

But the synopsis said it was a joy party, andthe synopsis has become the foreigner's guide through the intricacies of the Japanese theater.

Sometimes the synopsis explains. Sometimes sheer poetry is the result, without much elucidation.

Take the play "The Mother of Shosno Shigemoto."

It's about 78-year-old Kunitsune and his wife, Kitano-kata who "was about 20 years old and was so famous with her extreme beauty."

GIVES HER AWAY

During the "joy party" Kunitsune becomes so drunk he gives Kitano-Kata away to Shihei "top man of the Fuijiwara."

Says the synopsis "he was for a long time considering to make his wife free fo rthe sake of her own happiness because he was too old for her. But now, after she was gone with someone else, he stood in desperate loneliness."

But not Shihei, who according to the synopsis, "was so much pleased with Kitano-kata that he visited her room everyday."

Well, as it happens in Japanese plays everything becomes very confused at this point. The Fujiwara clan falls on bad days.

Shihei dies—or as the synopsis says: "Fujiwara family collapsed after Shihei and many members died of ill or thunder (sic). Kunitsune (who is about 90 at this point), who could never get his wife out of his memory, became insane. The young Shigemoto (their young son) was pitiest (sic). He could never see his mother again since Kitano-kata has also been confined herself in a small nunnery outside of the town after Shihei died."

The synopsis shows everything turns out fine in act 3.

"One day Shigemoto was walking nearby the nunnery. Suddenly, he was struck with a strong wish to see mother and started to run along a stream. He found a nun preying (sic) before the grave of Shihei. It was Kitano-kata. He called her name. The mother and son were holding each other without a word, under the cherry tree in full blossom."

The Nichigeki, a big, modern music hall, also gives out an English synopsis of its acts.

Scene 15 of one play is called "Concrete Jungle."

"An ambitious scene which depicts a crowd of young people, singing the praises of their youth in the midst of noise and 'rock 'n' roll,' at Westside (sic) of New York where dwell crime and poverty."

Will Be Held at Cobo Hall in Fall

National Auto Show Slated for Detroit

DETROIT (UPI) — The first National Auto Show ever held in Detroit will be staged in the fall of 1960, the Automobile Manufacturers Association has announced.

The site will be at the city's new Cobo Hall and the show will be held Oct. 15 through 23.

AMA President L. L. Colbert, who also is president of Chrysler Corp., announced the show in a joint news conference with Mayor Louis C. Miriani.

The mayor predicted the show would attract one million visitors.

Colbert said the Detroit show would be a bigger one than the Natoinal Auto Show held in New York in 1958. That one cost $10,000,000.

The auto show will also provide the first major public exhibition of Cobo Hall, the 54 million dollar exposition center now under construction.

★ ★ ★

"We are gratified that we can now bring the national show to the heartland of the automotive industry," said Colbert.

"It is our intention to put on the greatest exhibition in the long history of the National Auto Show. We expect to make it an event of worldwide interest that will focus attention on the Detroit area, its industry and many new attractions."

The National Auto Show is the only one sponsored collectively by the passenger car and truck manufacturers.

Gasoline taxes yielded state last year and the Federal government 16 billions. This total of 45 billiond ollars compares with the U.S. Treasury's billion dollars in collections from all taxes during the nation's first 88 years.

Tigers in Profitable Defeat at Boston

Relief Work of Burnside Is Bright Spot

Hurls Shutout Ball After Damage Is Done; Share 4th With Yanks

BOSTON (AP) — The Detroit Tigers suffered a profitable defeat last night.

The Bengals lost to the Boston Red Sox 5-2 but discovered a possible first-line performer in pitcher Pete Burnside.

Burnside, former New York Giant, held the Red Sox to three hits in hurling shutout ball for 6 1-3 innings following a five-run Boston first inning against starter Jerrie Davie. Davie failed to finish the first.

A pitcher's duel developed between Burnside and young Jerry Casale of Boston but the Tigers limited to four hits, couldn't make up the difference.

The defeat forced Detroit into a fourth place tie with the New York Yankees, still two and a half games from first place.

After Boston's big first inning, the best the Tigers could do off Casale was two runs in the fourth on Harvey Kuenn's double and Charley Maxwell's 12th home run.

The Tigers only other hits were a single by Lou Berberet in the second and a two-out double by Al Kaline in the ninth.

With Boston shelling Davie for six hits and all its runs in the first, the rest of the game was just about exclusive property for pitchers Casale and Burnside.

Burnside took over with two out in the first. The former Dartmouth collegian struck out seven men, including Ted Williams twice, before leaving for a pinch hitter in the eighth. He walked three men.

Knuckleballer Barney Schultz pitched the eighth for Detroit, setting down Boston in order.

Ten men batted for the Red Sox in the first with Casale capping their attack by driving in the last two runs with a double. That was the blow that sent Davie to the showers. It was the second time in two starts that Davie was knocked out early. He left in the third inning last Friday against Washington.

The Red Sox showed Davie no mercy. Singles by Billy Consolo and Pete Runnels along with a sacrifice fly by Williams got the first run.

Singles by former Tiger Vic Wertz and Jackie Jensen scored another. After Frank Malzone fouled out, Gary Geiger got an infield single, loading the bases. Ed the Yost bobbled Pete Daley's score and Casale then hit his double for the last two runs.

Seven Clubs 'Certain' for 3rd Major Loop

NEW YORK (AP) The New York Times said today that New York, Toronto, Houston, Denver, Dallas-Fort Worth and Minneapolis-St. Paul "were virtually certain to be included" in a proposed third major baseball league.

American and National League clubowners last month voted to "favorably consider" applications for the establishment of such a league. At that time William Shea, chairman of Mayor Wagner's baseball committee, said he planned to submit a package proposal to Commissioner Ford Frick within several weeks.

Hoad, Gonzales Gain in 'Robin'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lew Hoad came from behind to defeat Tony Trabert 2-6, 6-4, 6-3 in the annual Masters Round Robin Tennis Tournament here last night.

Earlier, Pancho Gonzales downed Pancho Segura 6-2 after cracking Segura's serve in the third and seventh games.

A crowd of 3,621 fans watched the tourney—a record for the Los Angeles Tennis Club. Hundreds were turned away.

'I Did It and I'm Sorry'

Admits 'Firing' at Mantle

DETROIT (AP)—A contrite 14-year-old boy hung his head and admitted yesterday that he unloosed a firecracker barrage at New York Yankee centerfielder Mickey Mantle at Briggs Stadium June 3.

The boy is a nephew of James W. Goodlet, 26, of suburban Allen Park, who was arrested by police after they found a dozen firecrackers in his coat pocket as he was leaving the stadium.

After the bombardment, Mantle smashed out a ninth-inning home run that beat the Detroit Tigers 6-5.

"I did it and I'm sorry," the boy told Recorders Court Judge Frank G. Schemanske. "I hate to think that maybe I most hte Tigers that game."

The court did not reveal the boy's name.

Judge Schemanske dismissed a charge against Goodlet of possessing firecrackers, a misdemeanor in Michigan. The boy was turned over to juvenile authorities.

St. Louis Out of Cellar, Giants Gain

Cards Wallop Spahn, 12-3

By The Associated Press

An unpredictable bunch, these St. Louis Cardinals. They've lost more one-run decisions (15), and dropped more games by last-inning runs (9) than any other club in the National League. But when they break loose for their biggest run production of the season, who do they blast off against? No less than first place Milwaukee and Warren Spahn.

★ ★ ★

They quit the cellar with a 12-3 romp against the Braves last night running up the highest one-game run total anyone has managed this season against Milwaukee.

It also was their first victory in five tries against the Braves and only the 30th time in 83 decisions that they have beaten Spahn, who now is 7-7 and has been charged with a third of Milwaukee's losses.

This one trimmed the Braves' lead to two games over the San Francisco Giants, who won 6-2 at Pittsburgh. Chicago and Los Angeles remained tied for third, four games behind, when the Cubs belted Cincinnati 8-4 and the Dodgers plunked Philadelphia into the cellar 3-2.

★ ★ ★

Kenny Boyer drove in four runs for the Cards with a two-run homer, his 13th, and a two-run double. Gino Cimoli batted in three with his fifth homer in a five-run sixth that made it a rout. Boyer and Bill White each had three hits in the Cards' 16-hit barrage, with White socking two doubles and a triple.

Larry Jackson (4-6), who had lost twice to the Braves, gave up seven hits, one a two-run homer by Felix Mantilla, his first. The Cardinal right-hander had a shutout until Hank Aaron's RBI double.

Southpaw Johnny Antonelli (8-3) who has won five of his last six decisions, was the Giants' winner with a five-hitter, blanking the Bucs on three hits before Don Hoak's home run in the seventh. Dick Stuart homered for the other Pirate run in the eighth. Orlando Cepeda and Daryl Spencer each drove in two runs for the Giants, with Cepeda rapping a double and two singles among the Giants' 11 hits. Vern Law (5-4) was the loser.

★ ★ ★

Three homers scored six runs for the Cubs, who now have won six of their last seven games. Bobby Thomson's seventh homer came with two on in the fifth against loser Joe Nuxhall (3-4), who left after putting a tie-breaking run on base in the seventh. Ernie Banks then tagged reliever Tom Acker for his 14th home run and Dale Long added his eighth. Bill Henry (4-2) won it with 2 2-3 innings of hitless relief. Vada Pinson hit his ninth homer, with one on, for the Reds.

★ ★ ★

The Dodgers had only four hits, split by Junior Gilliam and Wally Moon, but beat Ray Semproch (2-4) in the sixth inning when Gilliam's single, a force out and Moon's double broke a 2-2 tie. Moon's triple and an infield out had deadlocked it in the fourth. The other Dodger run was unearned, scoring in the second on two errors and a walk. Stan Williams (3-1) was the winner with a five-hitter, but needed help from Sandy Koufax in the ninth.

Dodgers Drafting Plans for 2nd All-Star Tilt

By United Press International

LOS ANGELES — The Los Angeles Dodgers today called on the experience in handling the largest crowd in baseball history to help make a success of the second Major League All-Star game of the year and the first in west coast history.

"With the background we acquired in putting on our exhibition game with the Yankees that drew more than 93,000 people, we do not anticipate any major problems in handling the All-Star game," a Dodger spokesman commented.

Despite a public request that inquiries on the All-Star game here Aug. 3 be delayed until arrangements can be worked out, the Dodgers offices were deluged with telephone calls.

The host club immediately began arranging a series of staff meetings to lay the groundwork for the weekend arrival of Charles Segar, representing baseball commissioner Ford C. Frick. Segar will go over plans for the ticket distribution and technical arrangements for the game with the Dodgers.

Frick had disclosed yesterday that the second All-Star game would be a twi-night affair for two reasons — to get better television time and to make the public more comfortable in the vast Coliseum which is an uncovered stadium.

The Dodgers said the exact time would be one of the questions to be settled in conferences with Segar and TV network executives, but the game would unquestionably start between 4 and 5 p.m., PDT, when the August sun is not so hot as at midday.

At a meeting in New York yesterday with President Warren Giles of the National League and Joe Cronin of the American League, a flip of the coin made the National League club the home team here just as it will be in Pittsburgh.

Frick said that the same squads except for pitchers will play in both games but in the Los Angeles game three players will be added to each club in order to give men who are on hot streaks between the first and second All-Star games a chance to play.

Pirates Bow to K.C., 7-1

The Knights of Columbus scored three times in each of the first two innings and coasted to a 7-1 victory over the Pirates in a Class A City League baseball game yesterday at Wisner Field.

In Class B action at Jaycee Park, the Don Nicholie club finally broke into the win column with a 6-5 decision over Pontiac Business Institute.

The Knights collected nine hits off Mel Alldridge, two apiece by Terry Thomas and Stu Dell, and one of Thomas' blows was a bases empty homer in the 4th to account for the final K.C. run.

Terry Hoy went all the way on the mound for K.C. and effectively scattered four hits while fanning eight. An unearned run in the 2nd inning prevented Hoy from getting a shutout. Ed Busch made two hits for the Pirates.

Two singles and an infield error enabled Don Nicholie to score an unearned tally in the 6th and it turned out to be the decisive run.

CROWDED PLATE — Frank Robinson of Cincinnati scores on a wild pitch in the 4th inning at Chicago's Wrigley Field yesterday. Pitcher Bob Anderson of the Cubs steps lively as he covers the plate to take the throw from catcher Cal Neeman, who recovered the ball. The Cubs won, 8-4.

Expects No Trouble at Olympics

YPSILANTI, Mich. (UPI)—An American member of the International Olympic Committee said today he did not anticipate any trouble from either Communist or Nationalist China during the Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The I.O.C. member, Douglas Roby, arrived at his home here last night from Munich, Germany, where he attended the historic I.O.C. meetings.

He landed at New York aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth and then flew to Willow Run Airport near here.

Roby disputed statements by I. O. C. president Avery Brundage that the recent vote to expel Nationalist China from the Olympics was "virtually unanimous" and also Brundage's claim that no Communist pressure was used to influence the action against the Chinese Nationalists.

But he said he did not expect any difficulties in staging of the Winter Games because of action either the Nationalists or the Communists could take now.

"I cannot agree with Mr. Brundage, as he was quoted in the press, that the vote on this action was practically unanimous," Roby said. "The vote was taken by a show of hands, which is customary in I.O.C. action, unless a secret ballot is requested.

"Although no final tally was announced, it was my opinion that at least 28 voted in the affirmative, leaving the remainder, or 22, in negation. Nope of the Americans supported the motion."

John J. Garland of Los Angeles was the other voting member of the U. S. delegation at Munich. Brundage, as presiding officer, did not cast a ballot.

Roby told United Press International he felt Russian delegates and others from Communist-dominated countries helped swing the vote against Nationalist China and open the door for re-admission to Red China.

He was quick to point out, however, that the seven Iron Curtain nations represented at the meeting had only eight voting delegates.

"The Communist nations drew some powerful outside support in the voting," he said, but declined to identify where the support came from.

Roby said he hoped Nationalist China would "modify" the name of its Olympic group and rejoin the I.O.C. He said he also hoped Red China, which quit the I.O.C. last year, would apply for reinstatement and "conduct itself in the spirit of the Olympic movement, which it hasn't done heretofore."

Plenty of Runs in City Softball

Three homers were hit and a total of 52 runs crossed the plate, 23 in one contest, in last night's four-game City League softball program at Beaudette and Northside parks.

Guy Weiss of Arro Realty and Bob Armstrong of the Moose each homered as the Realty club gained a 6-4 victory at Beaudette. A three-run uprising in the 6th inning brought Big Bear Construction a 5-2 win over Autos of Europe.

Ron Chaffee of Harrison's Grill slammed a two-run homer in the 2nd inning at Northside, but it was all to no avail as the Huron Bowl team won a wild, free-hitting affair by a 15-8 margin. Huron collected 18 hits, three apiece by Ed Erickson, Rick Adams and Gary Crake.

In the other outing yesterday, Wright's Upholstery scored five runs in the 2nd inning and breezed to a 9-3 conquest of Buttercup Drive-In.

Patty Berg Defends American Open Title

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The Betsy Rawls and Mickey Wrights are slowly crowding Patty Berg off the golfing pedestal. But Patty is a tenacious lady, and this week she comes back home to launch a comeback.

Patty is defending champion in the second annual American Women's Open golf tournament opening Thursday at Brookview Course. She won last year by a runaway eight strokes.

Mrs. Benton WDGA Victor

Breaking 80 for the first time in her golfing career, Mrs. Robert Benton won the weekly Women's District Golf Association tournament yesterday at Edgewood Country Club.

Mrs. Benton shot 40-39—79 for a one-stroke edge over Mrs. Frank Campsie, whose scorecard read 43-37. There were no birdies on Mrs. Benton's round and she bogied the 1st, 2nd, 12th and 15th holes.

Mrs. Campsie finished in the runnerup spot for the 2nd straight week after losing to Mrs. Susie LeClair of Ann Arbor last week at Orchard Lake.

Coming home in a 3rd place tie at 81 was Mrs. Frank L. Thompson Jr. and Mrs. LeClair. Mrs. Sam Gawne of Bloomfield Hills took 4th spot with 42-40—82.

1-Hit Shutout for Shell

Dick Shell hurled a one-hit shutout to highlight Spencer Floor Covering's 12-0 rout of the Lotus Lakers in last night's Waterford League softball play at Drayton Plains. Drayton Drug scored an 8-5 exhibition victory over Dobski's Bar in the other contest.

SIGN FOR TITLE BOUT — Challenger Ingemar Johansson of Sweden (left) and champion Floyd Patterson pose in the New York State Athletic Commission office Tuesday after signing formal contracts for their June 25 heavyweight title bout at Yankee Stadium. Between them is Gen. Melvin Krulewitch, commission chairman. The signing was halted until a federal judge denied an application by Eddie Machen for an injunction to bar Johansson from fighting Patterson.

Patterson Ignores Talk Johansson Has No Left

CHATHAM, N. J. (AP)—Reports that Ingemar Johansson appears to be strictly a right-hand puncher, make no impression at all with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

As far as Patterson is concerned, the unbeaten Swede could very well be a terror with his right and a killer with his left.

"I've heard talk that his power is supposed to be only with his right hand," said Patterson at his training camp today. "But I'm not going to pay any attention to that. I never do.

"I haven't seen him fight since we were in the Olympics at Helsinki in '52. I saw just a bit of the movie of his fight with Eddie Machen on TV Sunday night. He looked like he could punch real hard with his right."

It was the right that sent Machen thumping to the floor when Johansson knocked out the Californian in the first round at Goteborg, Sweden, last Sept. 14.

"Don't think for a minute I'm just going to watch his right," continued Floyd. "You do something like that and the next thing you know you could get caught by a left hook. My idea is not to get caught by anything. I'd rather do the hitting.

"I'll be prepared for anything. That's what I do for all my fights. You really can get crossed up if you listen to a lot of talk.

"So I'll be prepared for anything from Johansson. He's the No. 1 contender. He's undefeated. He has 13 knockouts in 21 fights. He must be good. I'll have to be better."

Patterson resumed boxing after a one-day layoff because of the official signing for the fight at the New York Athletic Commission offices Tuesday. The fight is scheduled for June 25 at Yankee Stadium.

★ ★ ★

The signing took place after federal Judge Irving Kaufman, in New York, refused to halt the fight. He denied an application by Machen for an injunction to prevent Johansson from fighting Patterson until the Swede gave him (Machen) a return bout. Machen claimed a return bout contract gave him first rights.

Anglo-American Track Meet in 59th Season

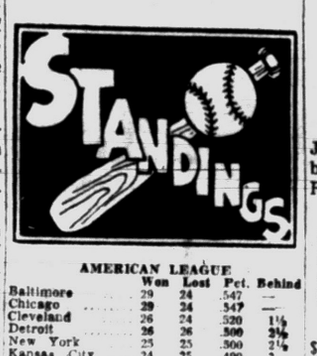

LONDON (AP) — Harvard and Yale renew an anglo-American university track and field competition that goes back 59 years against Oxford and Cambridge this evening.

Performances may not prove world shattering but that really means little to the athletes of the four famous universities.

In fact, what may attract more attention at the White City Stadium will be the appearance of American cheer leaders, for cheer-leading is something quite foreign to the two ancient British universities.

As for the meet itself: The Americans are expected to win but only by a point or so. Only first places count and if there is a tie on first places, the match is to be a draw.

In the Harvard-Yale vs. Oxford-Cambridge competition in past years, the English have won nine, the Americans seven and there has been one draw. The last time the Americans won was back in 1933.

Wings Begin Rebuilding Plan

Swap Wilson, Rookie for Barry Cullen; Add Ranger Farmhand

MONTREAL (UPI) — Manager Jack Adams began his job of rebuilding the cellar-dwelling Detroit Red Wings yesterday.

He also paid the draft price of $20,000 for a key youngster from Saskatoon of the Western League, 19-year-old Gord Labossier. Saskatoon is in the New York Rangers' minor league system.

The 30-year-old Wilson has spent seven years in the National Hockey League, five with Detroit and two with Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Cullen, 23, never has played regularly during his three years in the NHL. He was injured last year and his production slumped to six goals from 16 two years ago.

Cardinal Cimoli Fined

ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Gino Cimoli was notified Tuesday night by National League President Warren Giles that he has been fined $100 for his part in a near-riot Sunday at Philadelphia.

Cimoli said Giles informed him he was fined because he instigated the battle by advancing on Phillies pitcher Don Cardwell after a brushback pitch. Players from both sides joines in the brief brawl.

Pro Football Planning 5-Week Telecast Series

NEW YORK (AP) — Pro football, already the fastest growing spectator sport in America, is planning a series of nationally televised exhibition games late this summer.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press has learned that the National Football League and the American Broadcasting Co. have agreed to a five-week, Saturday night series beginning the week after the annual All-Star Football Game between the pro champions and the College All-Stars.

"The All-Star Game is set for Friday, Aug. 14, with the NFL champion Baltimore Colts playing the College All-Stars at Soldier Field, Chicago. As usual, it will be an ABC telecast.

★ ★ ★

If present plans jell, the network will follow through the following Saturday, Aug. 23, with the Chicago Cardinals vs. the Pittsburgh Steelers from Austin, Tex.

★ ★ ★

Other games on the planned TV series:

Aug. 29—Detroit Lions vs. New York Giants at Detroit.

Sept. 5 — Chicago Bears vs. Washington Redskins, at Jacksonville, Fla.

Sept. 12—Green Bay Packers vs. Washington at Winston-Salem, N.C.

Sept. 19—Chicago Bears vs. Cleveland Browns at Cleveland.

All games will start at 9 p.m. EST, and there will be no blackouts, except possibly in the cities in which the games are played.

★ ★ ★

The regular-season NFL telecasts, carried on the CBS network, are blacked out within a 50-75 mile radius of cities in which NFL games are scheduled.

★ ★ ★

The two "ifs" in the NFL-ABC venture are the same as in any TV series — that enough stations are willing to carry the shows and that enough sponsors' cash is available.

Although the network will not comment officially, it was learned that it is optimistic on both counts.

Orioles Tie White Sox for AL Lead

By The Associated Press

The Orioles are tied for the American League lead!

Never since Baltimore returned to the majors in 1954, have the Birds been in first place after the first few days of a season. But now Manager Paul Richards' collection of castoffs have made it.

They did it by belting Cleveland's suddenly dead Injuns 7-3 last night while Washington beat the Chicago White Sox 7-4. That left the White Sox and Orioles with 29-24 records and a 1½-game lead over third place Cleveland in one of the closest AL pennant races ever.

There's only a 5½-game spread from top to bottom.

New York's defending champions finally reached .500 with a 9-8, 13-inning victory over Kansas City that hoisted the Yankees from sixth into a fourth place tie with Detroit, beaten 5-2 at Boston. Both are only 2½ games behind the leaders.

Kansas City, now sixth, trails by only three games. Seventh-place Washington is five games behind with Boston last, 5½ back.

★ ★ ★

The castoffs, players labeled expendable by other clubs, did the job as the Orioles handed the Indians their ninth defeat in 10 games. Gene Woodling, who even Richards once traded away, and Chico Carrasquel, peddled by the White Sox, Indians and A's, each belted two-run homers. And Billy Loes, once with the Dodgers and the guy Baltimore tried to dump this spring, saved it with another fine relief job. Ernie Johnson, the want, won it.

★ ★ ★

Loes, the right-hander whose trade to Washington was nixed by arm trouble, came on as the Birds' third pitcher last night with the bases loaded and none out in the seventh inning. He retired Woody Held on a pop up, then Minnie Minoso, finishing with a hitless three-inning mop up.

Johnson (3-1), who gave up two hits and two walks, had relieved starter Billy O'Dell in the fifth. The Birds packed it away in the bottom of the fifth on a pair of walks and errors by loser Mudcat Grant (3-2) and Rocky Colavito that scored three runs. Grant threw wild after fielding Willie Tasby's bunt, and Colavito then threw wild to third after retrieving the ball in right field.

It was the Orioles' fifth victory in their last eight games and was bagged before a crowd of 46,601 —Baltimore's second largest in modern history.

Rookie Bob Allison drove in three of Washington's first four runs with his 13th and 14th homers. Then the Senators won it with three in the eighth against losing reliever Turk Lown (3-2) on a single, an error, three walks, a hit batter and a balk. Washington also scored a run in the fourth when J. W. Porter was struck in the face by a Bob Shaw pitch the game, but was not injured with the bases loaded. Porter left seriously. Tex Clevenger (2-1) was the winner with two innings of three-hit, shutout relief.

★ ★ ★

Hector Lopez, late of the A's, tripled and scored a tying run for the Yankees in the ninth, then singled home the clincher in the 13th against Tom Sturdivant (1-3), late of the Yankees. Jim Coates won his first in the majors as the Yankees' sixth hurler and 10th in the game, joining relievers Bobby Shantz and Ryne Duren for a hitless shutout over the last six innings. Norm Siebern and Mickey Mantle homered for the Yanks, who had 17 hits, but twice blew leads while getting their 10th victory in 12 games.

Calls It a 'Maverick' Organization

Trautman Raps Minors

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Is a "civil war" brewing in minor league baseball?

What's all this talk about "a house divided against itself cannot stand"?

That quote, by President Lincoln in Civil War times, was reiterated yesterday by George M. Trautman, head of the minors, in referring to the newly created Independent Baseball Clubs Assn.

Trautman called the association "a maverick organization which clearly has the capability of doing much more harm than good."

In Portland, Ore., Clyde Perkins IBCA president, replied that his association does not intend "in any way to impede the operation of baseball or do any thing detrimental to its interests. But we believe the majors are shortsighted in letting the minors continuously, one after another, go broke.

★ ★ ★

"They are driving our customers from our ball parks," Perkins continued, "especially with their Saturday and Sunday TV." By that he referred to major league baseball being televised into minor league territory."

"For this loss of patronage we divide with us (the minors) the money received for such an invasion of our territories; and is there anything rebellious, revolutionary, threatening or maverick to that?"

Trautman said the IBCA's organizational meeting in Seattle last week "had an upsetting effect upon work being done by officials of both the majors and minors to create a new fund of up to a million dollars" for minor league clubs.

But to get back to the original question: Is a "civil war" brewing in the minors?

"I trust not," said Trautman.

Top Drivers in Flint Auto Event Thursday

Pontiac area race fans will have an opportunity to see some of the Midwest's leading drivers in a United States Automobile Club-sponsored midget car race Thursday at Auto City Speedway's quarter-mile dirt track on Dort Highway, near Flint.

An array of Indianapolis "500" drivers will headline the eight-event card to be climaxed by a 50-lap feature race.

The field of about 20 Offenhauser midget cars and drivers will be headed by Shorty Templeman, three-time USAC midget race national champion and for several years an Indianapolis "500" competitor. He will race against such other midget car and "500" specialists as Rex Easton, Jack Turner, Gene Hartley and LeRoy Warriner.

Time trials will be from 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Caribbeans in Pan-Am

CHICAGO (AP) — The Olympic Assn. of the West Indies Federation, composed of 11 Caribbean Island states, will compete as a team for the first time in the third Pan-American Games.

Bolt Retains Open Confidence

Favor Midwest in NCAA Meets

Track Test, College Baseball Series Put Nebraska in 'Spot'

OMAHA (AP)—Nebraska is the collegiate sports capital of the world this week.

At Lincoln the biggest NCAA track and field meet gets underway Friday.

At Omaha the annual college world series starts Friday.

And in both competitions the midwest is given a better than good chance to win championships.

In the track and field festival, expected to draw over 15,000 fans during the two days, Kansas of the Big Eight Conference is seen as a likely champion.

Some, however, think it's Oregon's year. But Oregon suffered a hard blow when illness forced sprinter Roscoe Cook to withdraw.

In the baseball carnival, Oklahoma State of the Big Eight is viewed as the team to beat.

The Cowboys will get a real test when they open up the event Friday night against Western Michigan, a frequent performer in the series and always tough competition.

In first round of the double elimination series will be completed Saturday with Connecticut meeting Penn State; Arizona playing Clemson; and Colorado State College tackling Fresno State.

Ex-Ring Figure Dies

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Harry Bonderefsky, 71, a prominent figure in the boxing world for many years, died Tuesday.

Bonderefsky, who operated under the name of Harry Curley, once was co-manager of former lightweight champion Ike Williams.

CHAMP'S IN FORM — Tommy Bolt sends the ball onto the green with a 40-foot chip shot during a tuneup for the defense of his U. S. Open Golf Championship, which gets under way Thursday at Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N. Y. The Open runs through Saturday with Sunday reserved for any possible playoff.

Starts Defense Thursday 3rd in Early Odds

Gallery Looking for Another Hogan-Snead Battle

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (AP) — A confident Tommy Bolt begins defense of his U.S. Open Golf Championship tomorrow, apparently unconcerned by the shadows of those two aging giants, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead.

★ ★ ★

It's another Snead-Hogan Open, so far as most of the gallery at the Winged Foot Golf Club is concerned, and it will remain so until they fall from contention. It's been that way almost for the last 15 years.

Hogan, 46, tight-lipped and determined, and with his putting touch good again, is shooting for a record fifth Open title. Snead, 47, winner of 103 other tournaments, is seeking his first.

Bolt fired a two-under-par 68 in practice yesterday and promptly announced that he didn't intend to vacate his throne without a struggle.

★ ★ ★

Bolt rated no better than third choice in preliminary odds which have made Snead the co-favorite with Arnold Palmer at 6-1 and placed Cary Middlecoff and Art Wall Jr. next at 7-1.

★ ★ ★

The champion is 10-1 with Hogan, Ken Venturi and Gene Littler.

Snead has had a phenomenal string of sub-par rounds in practice, ranging from 66 to 69, but he considers this an ill, rather than a good, omen. "When the bell rings, the wheels come off for me," he commented wryly.

Hogan, a man of driving ambition intent on surpassing Willie Anderson and Bob Jones as the winningest of all Open champions, has been on the scene for two weeks, practicing diligently.

★ ★ ★

"He is playing like the Hogan of old," says Claude Harmon, the host pro and frequent playing companion of the Texas Hawk. "You have to go with him."

The 6,873-yard, par 35-35—70 Winged Foot course has turned out to be not the monster of most Open courses. Most of the competitors—125 pros and 25 amateurs—have labeled it a fair test of golf.

Plans Completed to Televise 1960 Olympics

NEW YORK (AP)—The Columbia Broadcasting System Tuesday announced plans for daily telecasts of the 1960 Olympic Games in Rome.

★ ★ ★

Arrangements have been made with the Italian Olympic Committee for daily telecasts of the events beginning Aug. 25, 1960. The filming will be done on tape, and the tape flown to New York each day in time for network viewing during the prime evening hours.

★ ★ ★

This will be the first daily TV coverage of the Summer Olympics. The tape used for such an undertaking was not available in 1956 when the Olympics were last held in Melbourne, Australia.

★ ★ ★

The 1960 Winter Olympics, however, will be televised live and by tape by the American Broadcasting Co. from Squaw Valley, Calif.

Silky Is Favorite

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Silky Sullivan heads a small cast of California horses slated to run in the $25,000 added Golden State Breeders Handicap at Hollywood Park tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

Silky, winner of one and loser of another in his starts at the current meeting, will have Willie Shoemaker aboard for the mile and one-sixteenth test.

California Investigation on

Check Ring Mysteries

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — California's athletic commission, battling to clean up boxing and keep out hoodlums, today delves into a series of mysteries.

Telephone calls, fight cancellations and managerial disputes were on the agenda.

The commission and law enforcement officials continued to probe last Wednesday's slugging in Los Angeles of Hollywood Legion Stadium promoter Jackie Leonard.

He testified at a recent commission meeting that eastern underworld character Frank Carbo and Philadelphia fight manager Frank (Blinky) Palermo were trying to muscle in on the contract of welterweight champion Don Jordan of Los Angeles.

A Los Angeles County grand jury probe of the Leonard assault is tentatively scheduled for June 23.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday asked Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk to investigate hoodlums in boxing and the beating of Leonard.

Don Chargin of Oakland, who substituted for Leonard at Legion Stadium last week, reported a mystery telephone call warning him to stay out of Los Angeles. He went anyway, under police protection.

Chargin also reported that Larry Boardman of Marlboro, Conn., who once was co-managed by Palermo, had pulled out of a scheduled main event next Saturday at Legion Stadium.

Chargin quoted Sam Boardman, Larry's father, as saying:

"My boy's not fighting for Leonard because he's a stool pigeon."

Art Ramponi of Oakland, scheduled to oppose Boardman, also pulled out claiming illness. A commission spokesman said a doctor had verified the ailment.

Gambina said he was trying to get Sam Boardman to change his mind when Ramponi pulled out.

Gambina, of Los Angeles, also is involved in a managerial contract involving Bert Brodose of San Francisco. Brodose claims he sold a share of heavyweight Reuben Vargas' contract to Gambina, representing crooner Frank Sinatra, for $10,000 and has been paid only $500. Gambina denies the $10,000 figure.

Brodose also told of mystery telephone calls—not threatening—to him and Vargas' mother seeking to determine the boxer's whereabouts. He said the calls came about midnight. Gambina said he once called Mrs. Vargas about 10 p.m. to inform her about a commission hearing on the contract case.

Governor Brown yesterday declared, "We know there are hoodlums in boxing nationally but we want to find out if they are trying to muscle into California."

He said Mosk's office will not take over the current commission investigation but rather will help with its larger team of special investigators.

Dick Drott Active Again

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs Tuesday restored pitcher Dick Drott to the active list after a 30-day shelving with a sore arm.

To make room on the roster for the 22-year-old Drott, the Cubs asked waivers on pitcher Bob Porterfield.

Seven Horses Enter Belmont

By The Associated Press

Seven horses are set to prance to the starting gate Saturday in the Belmont Stakes, last bauble of racing's Triple Crown.

Latest entries in the $125,000-added mile-and-a-half gallop are Claiborne Farm's Dunce and P.H.B. Frelinghuysen's Lake Erie.

Dunce has been coming on strong since he ran out of the money in the Kentucky Derby, won by Tomy Lee. The 3-year-old son of Tom Fool-Ghazni bounced back to finish fourth in the Preakness—second of the Triple Crown events—and yesterday impressed his owners with a 2½-length triumph in the High Gun Purse at Belmont Park.

★ ★ ★

Lake Erie, who ran third recently in the Jersey Stakes, has a proud reputation to uphold. His daddy, War Admiral successfully completed the Kentucky Derby-Preakness-Belmont triple in 1937.

The favorite's role likely will go to Preakness winner Royal Orbit. Others entered are Sword Dancer, Black Hills, Bagdad and Manassa Mauler.

Sword Dancer lost the Derby to Tomy Lee by a nose, ran second to Royal Orbit in the Preakness and, in his last outing, won the Metropolitan Handicap. Black Hills upset Royal Orbit in last Saturday's Peter Pan in which Bagdad wound up second.

If all seven go postward, it will be the richest Belmont in history with a gross value of $143,500. The net to the winner will be $93,225 unless supplementary nominee Manassa Mauler wins. The Mauler would net $88,275.

WINNERS' WINNER — That's right. The well set-up English pointer female, Wahoo Cactus Breeze, shown by her owner and handler Dave Grubb, 40 Court Dr., won the recent Ohio-Pennsylvania Winner of Winners derby at Blairsville, Pa. She had to be winner of at least one previous event in order to be eligible for this trial. Breeze won over 10 other top dogs, on a remarkable cast. She is one of three dogs campaigned by 21-year-old Grubb who plans to become a professional trainer. The silver bowl, center, is the trial's rotating award.

You're the Skipper

"What boat should I buy?" ask hundreds, in letters we receive this time of year.

"Our family wants to get started in boating; should we begin with a small rowboat? How much should we spend? How much about seamanship do we need to know?"

"There's no need to start with the smallest boat made. A tiny dinghy or rowing pram would be dangerous, in fact, with the whole family aboard. Nor is a large, heavy rowboat an ideal first choice, unless its price happens to just fit your budget.

Every year a number of well-to-do beginners start with large cabin cruisers. Treating boat and water with respect, they learn.

The most popular pleasure craft in America today is the 14 to 16-foot outboard-powered runabout. Here is a boat with room for a family of four, plus picnic and fishing baskets and water skis. It is an easy boat to learn to handle, and in it you may head out with safety in good weather on an average inland waterway.

★ ★ ★

A modest-sized outboard can push you along at good speed, and your boat is a size that is easy to trailer.

Should you wish to economize or experiment with different boats at the start, you may buy only the motor, drive with it in your car trunk and rent a boat for your motor at the waterfront. For about $700 on up you can buy a boat and motor.

This is not the amount you should budget for. With this size boat you may miss a lot of fun if you do not have a trailer. Load the boat, hitch up behind your car and extend your boating investment to new lakes and rivers, seacoast harbors and inland reservoirs, and perhaps later on a winter vacation.

Aboard, you will need one approved life preserver cushion, vest or ring for each passenger. Navigation lights and horn are required. Oars or a paddle, anchor and line plus docking lines, a reliable bilge pump, fenders for tying up alongside a dock, tools and spare engine parts are needed. You need a compass if you are heading out on a trip, emergency flares and first aid kit, and for added comfort perhaps a convertible canvas top.

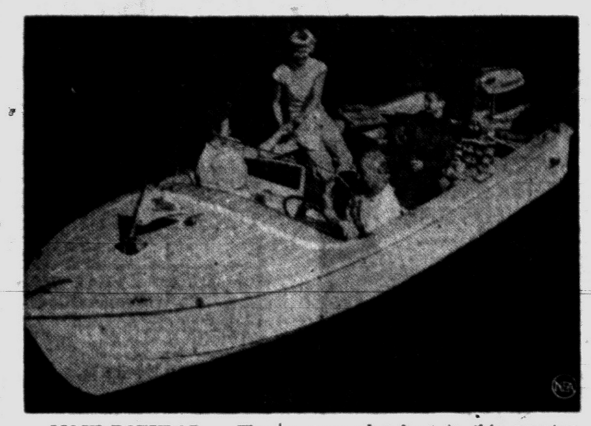

With a larger craft you will want and need additional accessories.

Don't overlook a sailboat as a possible first choice. A sloop-rigged craft of about the same 15-foot size in the day-sailer category can offer a great deal of fun for all the family.

Choose your boat, power or sail from a reputable builder and of a type popular in your area. That way you'll find one suitable for your local wind and water conditions which will maintain a high resale value when you move on to a larger craft.

Get a boat and practice.

You will never know all there is about boating, but like many others you may find you can have fun learning.

MOST POPULAR — The most popular boat in this country, at present, is the 14-foot outboard runabout type, like that above. These roomy craft afford room for all the family, or friends, for a picnic afloat, fishing, or water skiing.

Outboard 'Hot Rodders' Give Wildlife Bad Time

By The Press Outdoors Editor

Numerous complaints reaching Conservation officer Cyril Adams at Lake Orion point up a matter that has reached rather serious proportions in this area of myraid lakes.

"I have had quite a number of complaints during the last week or two regarding motorboat operators chasing waterfowl. One such complaint resulted in the arrest of the guilty party (at Lake Orion). In this instance young goslings were run down and killed," Adams says.

Similar complaints have come from other waters, where Canada geese, and ducks, with their goslings and ducklings, have been molested and injured.

Wild waterfowl have a difficult itme enough, bringing off their broods to the point where they can fend for themselves, what with predators and other obstacles.

Such acts as these are the work of unthinking, irresponsible persons, who would deliberately operate a fast boat close to swimmers and fishermen. Fortunately there is now a well defined move under way to put a stop to careless operation of motorboats in the Oakland County area. There's nothing sporting in endangering the lives of humans and wild creatures, just for a "kick".

CROSS COUNTRY BY MOTORBOAT

Two intrepid outboarders are now on their way for a transcontinental crossing of North America, the first time an east-west trip has been tried. John Edwin Hogg, 67, writer-photographer and 30-year-old John Dahl left New York recently, hope to make the crossing, entirely by boat, to Astoria, Ore., in a leisurely 10 weeks.

Besides providing an extremely interesting jaunt, this run should afford opportunity to collect much valuable information on waterways, wildlife and other pertinent outdoors subjects.

Their floating home is a 19-foot fibre-glass cruiser driven by a pair of 35-hp outboards. The voyageurs were due to call at Detour, St. Ignace, Manistique and Menominee, Mich., during the "leg" that takes in the Great Lakes.

The Conservation Department is seeking more information on movements of spawning pike, and in that connection its biologists have tagged a number of fish (412) at Fife lake. Fishermen who take these fish in the Manistee system, and at Fife lake, are asked to provide the tag number, date, size and location of the catches.

Lethal effect of certain insect-repellants on bird life was demonstrated a few days ago, when a number of wild birds at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lashkevich, in Birmingham succumbed to what Cranbrook naturalists told Mrs. Leshkevich was some type of poison spray.

A pair of brown thrashers, nesting in an evergreen, died, and the householder also noted a robin that succumber after exhibiting similar symptoms. Four thrasher nestlings were removed from the tree, and are now being cared for at Cranbrook.

Study Conservation Enforcement Roles

Fish, Game Men Confer

Approximately 70-80 representatives from 14 states and the provinces of Manitoba, Ontario and Saskatchewan attended the recent 15th annual conference of the Association of Midwest Fish and Game Law Enforcement Officers at Detroit.

Regional and district field administration supervisors and enforcement officers of Michigan's Department attended, according to Association President, Michigan's E. E. Tucker. Tucker is in charge of the department's law enforcement program.

Conservation department director Gerald E. Eddy welcomed the delegates and spoke briefly on the far-reaching role of law enforcement and the responsibilities of enforcement officers. Later, N. V. Olds, Assistant Attorney General, discussed the legal concepts in conservation.

Archers Down Record Total

Archery deer hunters took a record 2,600 whitetails in Michigan during the 1958 season, according to a Conservation Department estimate based on a post card survey of archers.

Bow and arrow enthusiasts had set their previous high in 1956 when 2,430 deer were killed.

Last year's figure, together with the regular and special firearm season harvest and camp kill, boosted the total deer take in 1958 to approximately 101,440, highest since 1952.

Almost seven per cent of the estimated 38,920 archers afield were successful last season.

Highest take was registered in the northern Lower Peninsula where some 1,910 deer were killed.

Area Silver Poodle Wins Unusual Honor

In her first big competition, and only her 2nd show test, the 2½-year-old silver miniature female, Merrie went best in show at the recent Delaware County, Ohio (Media), Kennel club event. It was the first time, says Phil Moses whose wife, Betty, owns Merrie, that a silver miniature poodle female has won such honors in the U. S. There were 593 dogs in the show.

Merrie had just one point prior to this show.

Mrs. Moses has also finished a male silver miniature's championship this spring, CH. Torquay Gray Prince, 3-years-old.

DAV Sells Ducats, Shares Proceeds

Top Stables in Show

Preparations are moving ahead rapidly for the 42nd annual Detroit Horse Show, June 23-28, at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, East Long Lake Rd. Ticket sales will be handled by the Oakland County Chapter DAV, which will share in proceeds from the affair.

Rated one of the country's top outdoor horse shows, the BOH event attracts top horses from scores of the most prominent stables in the United States. Entries are filling rapidly at this time, and among them will be many fine riders and mounts seeking places in the forthcoming Olympic equestrian events.

Some of the riders and horses have taken part in past Olympics, including Major Robert Borg of Oxford, whose dressage performances last summer provided brilliant highlights for the annual show.

Show is open to the public. There will be no charge for the first two days, devoted to junior equestrian activities. The many hunter and jumper classes are expected to offer some of the finest competition seen here in years.

Among stables expected are those of Si Jayne (Park Ridge, Ill.), Ten Pin Farm, the Victor Sifton stable from Winnipeg, Canada, Waverley Farms of Warrenton, Va., The John S. Pettibones from Middleburg, Va., Toledo's Ottawa Creek Farm, the perennial favorite, Max Bonham's stable from Battle Creek, and a number of Oakland county area stables.

Stanley Humphrey is show chairman. Bert C. McIntire is the manager, and members of the advisory body include also last year's chairman Irving A. Duffy, W. O. Bridge, John R. Davis and G. Fred Morris. Mrs. E. E. Fisher and Mrs. Fred Davis are secretaries.

Camp-O-Rama This Weekend

Milford's first Camp-O-Rama is set for this weekend, June 12-14 on the Milford High School athletic field.

It will display the latest in complete camping and station-wagon living. There will be tents, trailers, accessories, boats, motors and numerous other pieces of equipment and gadgets.

Camp-O-Rama opens at 6 p.m. Friday. A vesper service will be held Sunday at 10 a.m. to which the public is invited. A new, 49-star American flag will be presented to Troop 171 Boy Scouts, who will conduct the services.

Many Outdoors Events in June

Michigan's extensive summer program of outdoors events really gets under way this month. Among the outstate highlighted features are the following, for June:

11-13—Annual boat show at Grayling; 3rd annual perch festival at Ludington.
12-14—Lilac festival at Mackinac Island.
20—State bass season opens.
21—Tawas River canoe race, Tawas.
27—2nd annual Mackinaw canoe marathon at Cheboygan; summer fishing derby, Cheboygan.

Events involving dogs include:
June 13-14, 21-22—Retriever field trials at St. Clair Shores (So. Michigan Springer Spaniel Club).
21—At Highland Rec. Area, field trial for retrieving dogs, using pigeons and ducks (Golden Retriever Club of America).
27—Field trial, So. Mich. Springer Spaniel Club, at St. Clair Shores. (Pigeons will be used.)

There's a field trial at Bald Mt. area on July 12, when ducks will be used (English Springer Spaniel Club of Mich.). An all-breed water trial is set for July by Mich. region, Weimaraner Club of America.

Plagued by Tax Laws, Tight Money, Debt

Treasury Must Buck Federal Policy

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Other things besides a ceiling on interest rates are keeping the U.S. Treasury financially embarrassed.

One is the tax laws that favor its competitors in the money market — corporations and state and local agencies.

Another is the higher yields that government backed mortgages offer investors — federal guarantees that make these mortgages look as riskless as treasury securities.

One is the tight money policy by which the Federal Reserve Board is helping the administration in its fight to stave off another inflationary inroad on the purchasing power of your dollar.

And a prime one is the habit of the federal debt to grow and grow. Only Congress — or, some say, an aroused public — can stop that.

To some degree these factors affect both the nonsalable U. S. Savings Bonds which individuals — most in the lower income brackets — buy, and the salable treasury securities which look for their market among the banks, other financial institutions and funds, corporations and well-heeled individual investors.

But they apply especially to the marketable securities which have been giving the treasury its biggest headaches. These problems will still remain even if Congress goes along with President Eisenhower's request to lift the ceiling on the interest Uncle Sam can pay when he borrows.

Let's look at these sales difficulties that U.S. marketable securities face.

In today's crowded borrowers market competition can be stiff. And the tax laws give corporations a head start. The treasury itself picks up about half of a big corporation's borrowing costs. That's because when it borrows it can charge the interest to expenses.

Since it must pay the treasury about half of its gross earnings in income taxes, it saves about half of the interest it pays out. Hence, paying higher rates to get a loan isn't the pain it might be.

Tax laws favor the states and local agencies when they borrow—and they are doing so in increasing volume. Their securities are tax-exempt, appealing to any investor in the upper income brackets.

U.S. Treasury Securities, on the other hand, are fully taxable at the federal level. Thus they lose much of their charm for the investor who pays high taxes anyway, and sees no percentage in going into a higher bracket.

Another competitor for lending money is the home mortgage. This treasury now does or would like to.

When the mortgage is backed by the Federal Housing Administration or the Veterans Administration the risk to the investor is slight. With today's home building boom there are lots of mortgages for investors to buy.

In all this the treasury has an ont — the short term security. If it can't sell long-term bonds because of the competition from higher yielding tax exempts and corporate bonds, it can peddle its securities in the short term market where it is supreme.

The trouble with that is these short term securities tend to become like cash and therefore an addition to the credit supply.

This feeds any inflationary fires that may be starting. And neither the treasury nor other Washington agencies want to see that.

A higher interest rate would help the treasury attract some long-term investment money. But many observers think the only real and lasting solution would be a cut in federal spending.

Fulbright Opposes Ike on Foreign Aid Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee was asked today to overrule President Eisenhower and approve a five-year program of foreign development loans financed by Treasury borrowings.

Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) said he would push the proposal to a vote despite Eisenhower's opposition.

★ ★ ★

Eisenhower has said he prefers direct appropriations rather than indirect use of Treasury funds to finance the foreign loan program as well as other activities.

The issue provided a test in the first committee vote on Eisenhower's $3,930,000,000 foreign aid program.

★ ★ ★

Fulbright and Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) are sponsors of the amendment to provide loans for economic development abroad at the rate of 1½ billion dollars a year.

Fulbright said he discussed the amendment in a closed session Tuesday at which "a majority of those present favored the principle."

Grow Big Appetites

NEW YORK (UPI)—Agriculture Department economists found it costs about $11.80 a week to feed a 16-year-old boy, as against $4.50 for a three-year-old child and $8.50 for a 75-year-old man. Food costs run about 33 per cent more for a 16-year-old boy than for a girl of the same age.

Stocks Rally From Setback

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied vigorously early today after a series of bad setbacks.

Key stocks advanced from fractions to more than 2 points.

Prices advanced smartly in all major sections of the list. Trading was heavy. The ticker tape was late for a prolonged period.

The market was ripe for a strong recovery, brokers said. They noted that yesterday's sharp decline was arrested at a resistance level which had held in May and that a comeback was in the making in the final minutes of trading.

Prices were higher from the start. Aluminums continued their strength shown even in the midst of yesterday's shakeout.

Coppers, steels, motors, rails, utilities, tobaccos, aircrafts, electronics, rubbers and electrical equipments surged ahead.

Gains of about 2 were scored by Alcoa, Kaiser Aluminum, Anaconda and Westinghouse Electric.

General Tire rose more than 2 points, Raytheon more than a point.

Legislators Find 'Numbers' Bill Very Confusing

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—This is one of the reasons why legislators can become confused.

The Alabama House passed a bill titled:

H. 153. To amend sections 259, 260, 262, 264, 267, 269, 270, 271, 272, 274, 278, 279, 281, 282, 283, 285, 286, 289, 291, and 294 of title 46 of the code of Alabama 1940; and to repeal sections 261, 263, 265, 266, 287, 288, 293, 296 and 297 of title 46 of the code of Alabama 1940; and to provide for the effective date of this act.

The bill slashes through existing law regarding the practice of chiropractic so that other laws regulating the profession can be set up.

Ford-Canton Idle Pay Delayed by Court

DETROIT (AP)—Some 11,000 Detroit area Ford workers may have to wait at least a month to collect jobless benefits for the time they were idled in 1953 by a strike at a Ford plant in Canton, Ohio.

The U.S. Supreme Court cleared the way for the payments Monday by refusing to review a Michigan Supreme Court decision which held the workers were entitled to the benefits totaling about one million dollars.

Director Max Horton said the Michigan Employment Security Commission could start paying the benefits by next Monday but says he has been advised by the attorney general's staff "that we cannot make payment prior to issuance of an order by the circuit court."

The case originated in Wayne County Circuit Court.

Work Stoppage Slows Grains

CHICAGO (AP)—Grain futures prices backed down slightly under light scattered selling in the first few minutes of slow activity today on the Board of Trade.

A work stoppage by weighers at most of Chicago's major elevators has halted handling of grain there and brokers said it could have put the brakes on some trading. The weighers are involved in negotiations on a new wage contract.

There appeared to be a small volume of evening up trade, too, on the possibility that the government's June crop report could contain some surprises.

After about an hour wheat was ⅛ cent a bushel higher to ⅜ lower, July $1.84½; corn ¼ higher to ¼ lower, July $1.26¼; oats ¼ lower to ½ higher, July 64½; rye ⅜ to ⅜ lower, July $1.22¾; soybeans ¼ to ½ lower, July $2.25.

USW Would Switch Negotiation Method

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers Union is seeking to resume company-by-company contract negotiations between committees next Tuesday.

This type of negotiation was abandoned a month ago. Since then, the talks have been conducted by four-man teams representing the union and the 12 largest companies in the industry.

Industry leaders reserved decision on whether to go along with the union's request for resumption of company-by-company bargaining.

Some sources believed the union's maneuver was made with the hope of finding one or more companies that would break away from the industry's solid front.

Nixon Slates Whirlwind Trip This Weekend

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon will leave Thursday on a quick weekend trip that will take him from New York to California.

Nixon and his family will fly to New York Thursday for U.S. fleet ceremonies. The vice president then will fly by jet to San Francisco for an evening speech.

He will fly to Virginia City, Nev., Friday for an appearance at the Nevada Silver Centennial and then fly to Los Angeles Friday night.

On Saturday, Nixon will take part in commencement exercises at his alma mater, Whittier College, Whittier, Calif., and Sunday he will visit Disneyland at Anaheim, Calif., for dedication of new facilities.

His Monday schedule calls for a visit to his Yorba Linda, Calif., birthplace and an honorary degree from the University of San Diego. He will return to Washington Monday night.

PRESENTED CERTIFICATE — Chairman of the Waterford Township Recreation Board Erwin G. Greer presents newly-installed Junior Chamber of Commerce President E. Frank Richardson a certificate of merit for his efforts in futhering recreational activities in the township. The presentation was made at a banquet at the Community Activities Center last night.

Waterford's Jaycees Install New Officers

More than 100 Waterford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce members, their wives and guests attended the annual installation banquet at the Community Activities Center last night, in recognition of National Recreation Month —June.

★ ★ ★

Highlighting the program was the presentation of the first Recreation Department award to the Jaycees for outstanding recreation activities they provided during 1958-59.

In making the merit award, Chairman of the Recreation Board Erwin G. Greer said, "A good program in a community is not the responsibility of a recreation board alone, but of the total area and its various organizations. The Jaycees have done a tremendous job in this respect."

Some of the Jaycee-sponsored projects were the Queen Contest, Christmas Lighting contest, Children's Christmas party, Easter egg hunt, Halloween parties, Teenage Road-E-O, adult bowling tournament and—just getting started—the golf tournament for boys.

★ ★ ★

Former president George F. Scantland installed Frank Richardson, president; Arthur Salley, first vice president; Zaven Melkonian, second vice president; Donald Beedle, secretary; Jack McCaffrey, treasurer; and Richard Thompson, corresponding secretary.

Supervisor Elmer Johnson spoke briefly. The $500-scholarship winner, Chester Hansley, and Richard Carlson, teenage Road-E-O winner were honored.

Also honored was the key man who helped last year's president the most, Thomas L. Marcero.

Flood Survey Gets Go-Ahead

House Approves Funds to Investigate Current Storm Water Drains

Funds for a flood survey of the Red Run Drain and the Clinton River—Oakland County's main storm water outlets to the Great Lakes—were approved yesterday by the House of Representatives, Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland County) announced today.

Broomfield said he expects no difficulty in winning Senate or presidential approval. The survey will begin within the year beginning July 1.

Also included in the bill were $27 million in funds to deepen and widen Great Lakes connecting channels as an aid to increased ship traffic because of the recent opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The survey will help clear away the threatened danger of further legal entanglements for the Twelve Town Drain and other badly needed storm drains in the county, Broomfield said.

Some Macomb County communities have threatened court action on the Twelve Town project because of possible overflowing of the Red Run and Clinton River during heavy rainstorms.

Never Saw Benefactor

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Miss Olive E. Towne, 63, of Cleveland, Ohio, has inherited nearly $130,000 from a first cousin whom she apparently never knew. William T. Corkhill, 75, an electrician, died last January without making a will. Authorities found more than $130,000 in a dozen savings banks and over $10,000 in cash at his home. He reportedly inherited most of it from his father, a locksmith, and from an aunt, Judge Michael Rogers of Surrogate's Court ruled Tuesday that Miss Towne, a retired insurance company employe, is the only heir to Corkhill's money.

Hold Boy Friend in Girl's Murder

Find Her Strangled to Death Just Week Before High School Graduation

AMHERST, Mass. (AP)—An 18-year-old girl who was to be graduated from high school next week was found dead of strangulation in her bedroom in North Amherst early today, and her 19-year-old boy friend was arrested on a murder charge.

Police Chief Francis E. Hart said the body of Joan Elizabeth Julian, who recently enlisted in the Marines, was found by her father. Hart took into custody Thomas J. Hannigan Jr., of South Amherst.

★ ★ ★

Chief Hart reported the youth said he was afraid of losing the girl.

The chief gave this account: Hannigan had entered the girl's bedroom through a window. They were there about two and a half hours when the youth suddenly strangled her.

Hannigan went to St. Brigid's rectory where he talked with a priest. The priest telephoned police.

Large Bear Shot Prowling Around Baltimore Alleys

BALTIMORE (AP)—City police report they shot and killed a large, black bear in downtown Baltimore about 4:15 a.m. today.

Somewhat proudly, officers said they think it was the same elusive bear that gave Washington police so much trouble recently.

Two men spotted the animal late Tuesday night near a cemetary in the southwest section.

Police were alerted. Some 100 officers joined in the hunt.

The bear wandered in and out of alleys, with dogs at its heels.

The hunt ended about five hours later when police felled the animal with a high-powered rifle.

It took four policemen to load it into a wagon

A FIRST FOR THE NAVY—The USS George Washington, the Navy's first fleet ballistic missile submarine, hits the water as she was launched at the Electric Boat yard of General Dynamics Corp. in Groton, Conn., Tuesday. Swainson to Address USO Awards Event

Michigan's new lieutenant governor, John B. Swainson, will be the main speaker at the first annual awards program held by the Greater Pontiac USO Sunday at the Auburn Heights Nike base.

Swainson, a youthful ex-state senator from Detroit, was elected to the number two state post last fall, replacing Philip A. Hart, now a U. S. Senator.

During the program, beginning at 2 p.m., more than 60 Pontiac area organizations will receive citations from Irving Steinman, USO chairman, for contributions to the USO program here.

Besides providing entertainment for service men stationed at the Nike bases in Auburn Heights, Commerce Township and Franklin Village, the Pontiac USO committee provides parting gifts for new inductees and enlistees in the armed forces.

★ ★ ★

A special feature of the program will be the appearance of the 35-member U.S. Army Air Defense Command Choral Group from Colorado Springs, Colo.

Also on the program are Mayor Philip E. Rowston and Mrs. George Cram, auxiliary chaplain of the Pontiac Amvets, Jimmy Day Post 12.

Rowston is scheduled to offer appreciation from Pontiac for the USO's services, while Mrs. Cram will present a 49-star flag to the USO, to fly at its headquarters at the Pontiac YMCA.

Presentation of the flag coincides with Flag Day.

The awards program is under the direction of Thomas Horwitz and Kay Vedder, two members of the USO committee.

Also on the program committee are Salvation Army Capt. J. J. Heaver, Mrs. Fred Haushalter, Mrs. Reeba Netzler, Norma Feiler, Mrs. William Dean Sr., James Campbell, Mrs. Clark Kimball, David R. Ewalt, Fred J. Haggard and Alvid Kushner, director of the Mt. Clemens USO.

Bob-Lo Gunman Still Sought

Believe He Swam Channel and Is Now Hiding in Detroit

AMHERSTBURG, Ont. (AP) — A man believed wounded in a gun battle with police on Bob Lo Island today was thought to have escaped to Detroit.

Provincial police said they still were searching the Detroit River island for Leroy Morenci, 22, of Amherstburg, but added that Morenci was known as a strong swimmer and was believed to have made it across the river to Michigan.

The island is located in the river off Amherstburg. It is about 18 miles downriver from Detroit.

The gunfight broke out yesterday when two masked men tried to rob the island amusement park's safe. Police tipped off to the holdup by a phone call were waiting on the island when the men arrived with Park Superintendent Norman Parsley as a hostage.

Parsley dropped to the ground when he saw the police and the gunfight ensued. Both the gunmen disappeared following the battle, but a man was arrested in Amherstburg less than an hour later.

Leslie Temesy, 35, of Amherstburg, father of six children, was charged later yesterday in Magistrate's Court with attempted robbery in connection with the Bob Lo incident. Bail for Temesy was set at $10,000 by Magistrate J. Arthur Hanrahan.

Police believe Morenci was wounded during the gunfight. They said he was an extremely strong swimmer and was known to have swam the channel to the island.

Morenci was described by police as extremely dangerous, with a long record of crimes of violence.

Ask Bids on Paving of 2 Pontiac Streets

City commissioners last night asked for construction bids covering more than $200,000 worth of concrete paving contemplated this summer.

Bids are to be opened at the July 7 City Commission meeting.

Projects covered include the widening of Cass avenue from Oakland to Wisner Stadium and the paving of Joslyn avenue for the half mile stretch between Walton boulevard and Collier road at the city limits.

Originally, the city administration had planned another $100,000 project this year — widening of East boulevard from Mt. Clemens to Michigan. But it was cancelled last week for engineering reasons.

NOTICE OF SALE
$100,000.00
Walled Lake Consolidated Schools
Oakland County, Michigan

NOTICE

Sealed bids for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of Walled Lake Consolidated Schools, Oakland County, Michigan, of the par value of $100,000.00 will be received by the undersigned at Walled Lake, 615 N. Pontiac Trail, Michigan until 8:00 o'clock p.m. Eastern Standard Time of the 15th day of June 1959 at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated May 15, 1959, will mature April 1, 1960 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding 4 per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at such place as may be agreed with the purchaser. Denominations and form of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

Said note or notes shall be subject to redemption prior to maturity at the option of the school district, in inverse numerical order, at par and accrued interest on any interest date of any thereof upon fifteen (15) days notice served upon the holder or holders thereof or published in a newspaper or publication circulated in the State of Michigan which carries as a part of its regular service notices of the sale of municipal bonds.

For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining at the rate or rates specified therein the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from July 1, 1959 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computations produces the lowest interest cost to the Walled Lake Consolidated School District. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of the 1959 tax.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked, Proposal for Notes.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2% of the par value of the notes drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of Walled Lake Consolidated District must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at Board of Education Offices, 615 N. Pontiac Trail, Walled Lake.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Approved June 2, 1959.

Comics Try So Hard; Monkeys Get Space

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — George Jessel, taping a TV show here for a broadcast in Hollywood, issued a warning to all TV actors, from those not doing well to those up to par—"and spell that any way you want to," he said. "Two monkeys caused more talk and got more headlines than any comedian who ever lived," Jessel maintained. They had no agents—they didn't need writers—and you could buy them for peanuts!

WILSON

Julia Meade of the Ed Sullivan show is expecting . . . Ginger Rogers feels the British press gave her "a rugged time" . . . New moves are under way to bring Ted Husing back to N.Y. . . . Debbie Reynolds told a friend of ours that Bob Neal was an ideal escort because he "isn't a wolf" (Bob may not like that!)

Hermione Gingold wept recently before undergoing a minor operation—and the doctor said, "Don't worry, this isn't serious." Exclaimed Hermione: "I'm not worrying about myself but about my mink coat. When I die, it will go to my sister. My sister leads a very dull life. My mink coat is used to going to premieres, cocktail parties and Jack Paar's program. It won't be able to endure a dreary existence. My mink coat would be very sad. I think I'll take it with me!"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Audrey Meadows, a permanent member of the Sid Caesar revues cast, will get co-star billing . . . Ethel Merman played host to 50 of her son's schoolmates at "Gypsy" . . . Edith Piaf deferred sailing to France, will give a party.

Anthony Eden's son Nick is due in H'wood for a screen test . . . Cary Grant's enroute to H'wood to answer a $700,000 slander suit . . . Jerry Lewis had his press agent searching for Landon and Willkie buttons to wear to Eleanor Roosevelt's birthday party . . . While Jack Entratter (of Las Vegas) is in Europe he'll try to sign Brigitte Bardot for the highest salary ever paid there.

★ ★ ★

EARL'S PEARLS: A minor operation is one that is performed on someone else.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Do you remember when it was more expensive to hire a taxi than park your car? . . . That's earl, brother.

Castro Police Smash Plot

26 Arrested in 4 Raids Had Plans to Counter Cuban Revolution

HAVANA (UPI) — National police today arrested 26 persons and seized large quantities of arms in raids on four "counter-revolutionary" centers.

★ ★ ★

Two of the raids, in Santiago, spawning grounds of Fidel Castro's revolution, netted 23 of the suspects.

Two more persons were picked up in Jiguani, Oriente Province, and a former army corporal, Rafael Marrero Gonzalez, was arrested in Havana.

Santiago police said their prisoners, most of them former soldiers or policeemn, confessed that they had plotted a "wide campaign of terrorism," including the assassination of army leaders, terrorism and sabotage.

Earlier, Castro's land reform institute had ordered everyone who owns more than 1,000 acres of Cuba to report the extent and value of his property within 90 days.

An order signed by Castro warned that anyone who falsifies the sworn statement required by the institute or fails to submit it faces not only confiscation of his land but criminal action as well.

At the same time, the institute announced that land titles will be issued by the end of next week to more than 1,000 peasant families in Pinar del Rio Province, center of opposition to Castro's land reform decree.

Expand Radiation Study

LANSING (AP)—The State Health Department has expanded its study of natural radiation in the Monroe area to include soil, animal and rain samples. Dr. Albert E. Huestis, state health commissioner, said the expansion will give a broader picture of normal radiation near the nuclear plant now being built near Monroe. Heustis added, "then, after the plant begins operating, we will be able to tell if radiation increases in that area."

Civil Rights on Johnson's Work List for the Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's Republican leader approved informally today a Democratic worksheet loaded with political fireworks but omitting any big new spending bills.

★ ★ ★

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill) noted in an interview that Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas had included several major requests of President Eisenhower in an outline Tuesday of the work ahead for the Senate.

★ ★ ★

Among other things, Johnson called for action on "a reasonable civil rights measure which will appeal to free men who wish to make progress rather than make an issue." Dirksen said he agrees sponsors are going to have to tread this politics-mined field cautiously if they want to pass a bill.

"I have always proceeded on the theory that civil rights legislation must of necessity be reasonable in its nature if we expect to get action by the Senate and House," Dirksen said, "the administration seeks to be restrained in this field."

★ ★ ★

Of Johnson's list of priority measures, Dirksen ticked off a number of others he recalled Eisenhower had requested.

These included extension of the international wheat agreement and excise tax rates; military and atomic energy construction; foreign aid and creation of an inter-American development bank.

However, the Republican leader said he can't predict these will be passed in a form acceptable to the president.

★ ★ ★

Johnson's statement said the Senate will act also on "revision of the debt limit and other fiscal legislation." Dirksen noted that did not specifically mention the higher interest rates on government bonds Eisenhower has requested.

Johnson also indicated that the Democrats may put off until next year any effort to write a general farm program and an aid-to-education measure.

Elliott Freed in Drunk Case

Jury Finds F.D.R.'s Son Innocent; He Says He Was Just Tired

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Elliott Roosevelt, 48, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, was acquitted Tuesday of a drunken driving charge.

A jury of nine men and three women took only a half-hour to find him innocent. Roosevelt, smiling broadly shook hands with each of the jurors.

Roosevelt was arrested the morning of April 4 when he was found asleep behind the wheel of his parked car in this resort town.

His defense centered on testimony that he was not driving the car and that his condition was the result of fatigue.

Roosevelt, under questioning by defense attorney Richard G. Kleindienst, said he arrived in nearby Phoenix the afternoon preceding his arrest. He had flown his light plane from California after only four hours sleep, he said, and was extremely tired.

Roosevelt said he ended a business conference at his winter home in Scottsdale at 3 a.m. and was driven downtown by a business associate, Jack O'Connor, of Junction, Colo.

He said he slipped behind the wheel and fell asleep after O'Connor got out of the car to lock another vehicle. Roosevelt said he was awakened when police arrested him. He charged he was roughly handled.

Under cross-examination, Roosevelt admitted having seven or eight cocktails during the afternoon and evening preceding his arrest.

Kenneth M. Pepper Jr., Scottsdale deputy marshal, testified Roosevelt had a drunkometer reading of .208. Under state law, a reading of .150 is presumed to indicate intoxication.

State Youth Wins

LANSING (AP)—David W. Gibson, 19, of Eaton Rapids has won the National Young Republican (YR) Essay Contest on the topic: "Why I will cast my first vote for the GOP." John M. Ashbrook, YR national chairman, announced the selection of Gibson. His prize is a free trip to the national YR convention at Denver in June.

Hepatitis on Rise

LANSING (AP)—Cases of infectious hepatitis are on the rise in Michigan, the State Health Department reports. There were 577 cases of the virus infection of the liver through May 31 compared with 365 in the same period in 1958. The disease, also called yellow jaundice, is spread through personal contact.

To Fete Retired Leader

LANSING (AP)—Civil and military leaders will honor Maj. Gen. George C. Moran, retired adjutant general of Michigan, at a testimonial dinner here June 13. Moran retired April 30 after 11 years as chief administrative officer of the state's military establishment.

Inflation Plea Goes to Doctors

Ike Asks Medical Men to Charge the Nation Reasonable Rates

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—President Eisenhower has called upon organized doctors to help write a preventive prescription against inflation in the same way they guard the nation's physical health.

★ ★ ★

And one way, he told the 108th annual meeting of the American Medical Assn. Tuesday night, is by charging reasonable fees for medical care. He made no accusation that doctors were charging unreasonable rates.

★ ★ ★

In his speech he hammered anew at what he termed the urgent need for a balanced federal budget.

"For those who will take the trouble to look, there is no difficulty in seeing the relationship between fiscal responsibility and a successful, meaningful life for all in a climate of freedom," he said.

"I am confident that you doctors as community leaders in great urban centers and in the villages and farm areas of America, can do much to promote greater understanding of the importance of this vital relationship.

★ ★ ★

"So I believe that, as you show us how better to preserve our own health, you can do a great service to yourselves, and to all of us, as you teach that the future of our republic and the free world depends upon our ability to maintain fiscal soundness in government, a robust economy, and a stable dollar."

He led up to this by saying that "the medical profession as much as any other, has a vital interest in preventing inflation."

"Certainly," the President said, "it wants to provide its services for a fee within range of what people can reasonably pay."

★ ★ ★

As though cautioning against any possibility of the government moving into the medical care field on a large scale Eisenhower said: "If the time ever comes when large numbers of our citizens turn primarily to the government for assistance in what ought to remain a private arrangement between doctor and patient, then we shall have suffered a great loss.

★ ★ ★

"The cost of inflation is not paid in dollars alone, but in increasingly stagnated progress, lost opportunities, and eventually, if unchecked, in lost freedoms for the doctor and patient."

The chief executive trimly dressed in a summer formal suit—spoke to a capacity audience of more than 5,000 at Convention Hall.

★ ★ ★

The occasion was the inauguration of Dr. Louis M. Orr of Orlando, Fla., as new president of the AMA.

TV Simplifies 'Job' for Sidewalk Bosses

TOLEDO (AP)—Closed-circuit television has solved a problem that long plagued the sidewalk superintendent, supervising construction work on the upper floors of office buildings.

★ ★ ★

When work on the new 15-story Libbey-Owens-Ford office building here reached the 10th loor, a television camera was installed to flash action to a screen located at eye-level on the sidewalk.

The live drama features steelworkers astride beams silhouetted against the Toledo skyline.

Sidewalk supers apparently like the new departure. One called it "the newest freedom, the freedom from strain."

Domestic Cars Get 52 Times More Promotion

NEW YORK (UPI) — Detroit spends as much in one week on auto promotion as the entire imported car industry spends in a year, according to Everett Taylor Martin, vice president of Jaguar Cars Inc.

Martin, who formerly headed publicity and advertising for the British Automotive Manufacturers Association, also noted that dealer organizations of the domestic industry outnumber foreign dealers here by six to one, but foreign car sales continue to grow at a faster pace.

Historical Society Buys Important Lincoln Paper

WAUKESHA, Wis. (AP)— A gift of $300 from the Waukesha Daily Freeman made possible the purchase of an important Abraham Lincoln manuscript by the State Historical Society of Wisconsin.

The letter was written to Lincoln by Vice President Hannibal Hamlin on April 23, 1861, when Hamlin was in New York working on defense plans. He suggested that the Chickapee munitions works he put in full operation.

It is estimated that at least 145 different languages are spoken in the Soviet Union.

Video Builds Bogus World Instead of Trying Reality

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI)—Television could open two windows: one onto the world, the other into ourselves.

★ ★ ★

What strikes me most forcibly about TV, however, is that the bulk of its product does neither: it creates instead a bogus world which insulates us from the real.

Two of last night's TV shows furnish as good an illustration as any. One was a western, ABC-TV's Sugarfoot. The other, a situation comedy, CBS-TV's Peck's Bad Girl.

I single them out for convenience — any of the dozens of other westerns, mysteries and adventure strips would serve as well as Sugarfoot; any of the half-dozen other situation comedies as well as Peck's Bad Girl.

★ ★ ★

Sugarfoot manufactured a typical hour of TV stupor and its problem was solved in the way all shows of this kind "solve" things — by gunplay. Might is right and right is always mighty in the end, we are told.

Reality is hard. The dramatists who have grappled with it — from the Greeks up to our own O'Neill and Williams — have emerged with products that illumine and pinch and make us feel.

The issue has nothing to do with pessimism or optimism, with comedy or lack of it, with art as a vehicle of entertainment or instruction.

Any or all of these things may be present, but they are side issues. The principal issue is dealing honestly with the human condition.

That is why the bulk of TV's product leaves any responsive viewer with a feeling of emptiness, of time kissed off. The run-of-the-swill TV product takes the easy way out.

It leans on hollow formula. It ties up its drama in neat little half hour and hour packages and its primary effect is to lull.

THE CHANNEL SWIM: An automaker (Pontiac) will sponsor eight one-hour specials on NBC-TV next season. One of them will be a Victor Borge show.

Three others will involve Gene Kelly — he'll star in one Dec. 16; his production company will turn out one on March 18; and the third will be a May 11 repeat of the taped Kelly show seen on CBS-TV this season.

One other possibility in the series is a program which will showcase young talent.

Beginning Aug. 25, 1960, CBS-TV will offer daily nighttime telecasts of the Rome World Olympic Games — the shows, up to an hour in length, will be etched on videotape and jet planed into New York . . . the CBS-TV Du Pont show of the month will offer nine 90-minute dramas next season, the first on Sept. 28.

New Serum May Save Sick Child

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP)—Doctors today banked their hopes to save the life of a 7-months-old baby on a new serum being developed at the University of Colorado Medical School.

The child, Michael Scully, is in critical condition at Pawtucket Memorial Hospital suffering from eczema vaccinatum, described by physicians as a rare and usually fatal disease.

The serum which may cure the baby came to the attention of Dr. William B. Cohen almost by chance Tuesday.

Dr. Cohen, head of the hospital's dermatology department, said he was thumbing through a medical journal when he came across an article saying the serum was being developed at the Denver institution.

★ ★ ★

He quickly asked the University of Colorado for some of the serum and was promised a shipment by plane.

Dr. Cohen said Michael has been in high fever for eight days and largely unable to take nourishment.

Gems Stolen From Wife of Robert Montgomery

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Police said today that jewel thieves stole $100,000 in jewelry from the wife of actor-producer Robert Montgomery sometime Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

The gems were in a suitcase. Elizabeth S. Montgomery told detectives she noticed it was missing while she was dressing for dinner.

★ ★ ★

The case was stolen from her apartment in fashionable Bel-Air, a suburb near West Los Angeles.

Detectives said the burglars pried open a window opening onto a patio and slipped into the first-floor apartment. Nothing else was taken.

Asks UP Armories

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's Adjutant General has asked the Legislature for $335,000 toward construction of armories at Sault Ste. Marie and Ishpeming. Maj. Gen. Ronald D. McDonald said $235,000 is needed in state funds to replace the Ishpeming armory which burned Feb. 3 and $100,000 for a new armory at the Soo.
