Edwards New Board Head in GOP-Splinter Dem Win

By JEAN SAILE

The new chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors is Democrat Charles B. Edwards Jr. of Madison Heights.

His election was an upset victory over the Democratic caucus and its candidate, Philip O. Mastin Jr. of Hazel Park. It was also considered a significant achievement by minority Republicans on the board, who were rumored to have instructed their entire caucus to vote for Edwards.

Mastin, who fell one vote short of being elected on the first ballot, withdrew from the race prior to the second and final ballot in an effort to break the deadlock.

Alexander C. Perinoff of Southfield, the Democratic candidate for vice chairman, was elected without controversy.

CHARLES B. EDWARDS JR.

Yesterday's meeting, the first official gathering of the new board, lasted six hours. It included 13 roll-call votes, four recesses for caucus deliberation and much interparty friction.

It also showed there is trouble in the Democratic party. The 15-12 Democratic majority on the new board was weakened by defections by former State Sen. Carl O'Brien of Pontiac, Edwards and Thomas H. O'Donoghue of Ferndale.

O'Brien is loudly unhappy with the lineup suggested by his caucus for committee appointments. Both Edwards and O'Donoghue are long-time supervisors and have made no secret of their unhappiness with what they call a "power grab" by younger and less experienced Democrats.

Despite pleas for bipartisan cooperation by temporary chairman William L. Mainland of Milford, Democrats and Republicans showed themselves sharply divided on many issues.

QUICK START

The fireworks began immediately after roll call while County Clerk Lynn Allen still held the chair.

Democrats put down an attempt by Republicans to operate under the rules of the former board, (providing for a two-thirds majority on major issues) which would have given the minority party much more voice on the board.

Members did accept Robert's Rules of Order with the suspension of the two-thirds majority as applies to the adoption of permanent rules and bylaws.

The Democrats' proposal that a blue-ribbon citizens' advisory committee study duties and salaries of the board was defeated.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY

A committee of the board of auditors and board of supervisors representatives will study the matter and make recommendation to the full board by the middle of February.

Republicans were defeated in their attempt to get more representation on the committee on committees, proposed by the Democrats for the purpose of studying board restructure and making committee appointments.

The committee — Democrats William M. Richards of Ferndale, Niles Olson of Lake Orion, George H. Grba of Pontiac and Mastin, and Republicans Paul Kasper of Bloomfield-Troy, Wallace Gabler of Royal Oak and Robert Patnales of Royal Oak, Republican caucus chairman — is to report back to the full board at the next meeting at 10 a.m. Monday.

Both Democrat and Republican plans for division of responsibility will be considered.

Pontiac Plan Gets a Two-Way Boost

By ED BLUNDEN

The Pontiac Plan received a two-way boost last night from experts in government and finance.

The speakers appeared before the Pontiac Area Planning Council (PAPC) meeting.

★ ★ ★

Aaron Blumberg, an investment and real estate consultant of Detroit, termed the plan "feasible, excellent and clever."

Jerry Fieldhouse, regional site representative for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), called it "exciting."

The Pontiac Plan is for transformation of the vacant 27 acres of urban renewal land south of the downtown area into a housing, entertainment, cultural and shopping complex into which more than $100 million in private development is expected to be poured.

ADOPTED TUESDAY

The plan was developed by the architectural firm of Bruno Leon Associates of Detroit. It was adopted Tuesday by the City Commission as Pontiac's concept for urban renewal.

Following last night's report, the PAPC gave its unanimous endorsement and members urged the entire community to get behind it.

★ ★ ★

From a financial angle, Blumberg narrowed the issue down to the basic question: "Will it sell?" His answer was an emphatic "yes."

OFFERS ANALYSIS

Blumberg was described as a consultant who had been involved in several area developments including Southfield, Northland and downtown Detroit.

In his analysis an investor would want to know if he could construct a building at the site and then offer a service at a competitive price. An investor would have to be certain if he built a hotel, office or store he would be able to make a profit from his sales or rentals after his expenses and payment for the initial investment.

Blumberg said in his opinion this would be possible in the Pontiac Plan and stated some reasons: The developer would not be faced with huge charges for installation of utilities (the city has sewer, water, power, etc.); a ready and growing market exists in and around the city; cost of land has already been subsidized through the investment of the federal government; parking would be provided without initial investment.

This last item aroused some questions which were answered by James Bates, city Urban Renewal director who also contributed to the presentation. Bates said the city planned to use its borrowing power to build an underground parking lot under the complex.

LBJ Wants Joint Surtax Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen says President Johnson wants the 10 per cent income surtax extended, but "he would like some company" in recommending it to Congress.

DIRKSEN

There were indications yesterday Johnson wants President-elect Nixon to join him in the recommendation so the issue would not become the political controversy it was before Congress passed the surtax, at Johnson's request, last year.

The surtax expires June 30. It was originally imposed as an anti-inflation measure.

House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford said he understood Johnson was prepared to make a statement about the surtax in his State of the Union message or budget request, and that Nixon would then issue a statement of his own.

NIXON SILENT

House Majority Leader Carl Albert, Oklahoma, said, however, the White House had received no word from Nixon yesterday afternoon.

Dirksen told newsmen yesterday that Johnson has drawn up a tentative budget of $195 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1, an increase of $10.6 billion over current federal spending.

But the Illinois Republican said the $195 billion was a "base figure" which could be changed, depending on whether Johnson decides in favor of recommending the surtax extension.

Dirksen said congressional leaders were told at a White House meeting revenues would total about $198 billion during the year if the surtax were extended.

Secret Quizzing for Sirhan Jury?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some questioning of prospective jurors in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan trial will be conducted behind closed doors, the defense says.

Grant B. Cooper, one of three lawyers defending the 24-year-old Jordanian charged with murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, revealed plans for the secret questioning during an impromptu news conference yesterday at the end of the third day of Sirhan's trial. The trial was in recess today. Jury selection is expected to start Monday.

★ ★ ★

Cooper said Judge Herbert V. Walker wants prospective jurors cross-examined individually in the privacy of his chambers in areas "of a sensitive nature."

Cooper defined as sensitive any questioning about opinions prospective jurors might have on Sirhan's guilt or innocence — "What they may have seen on television or read in the newspaper."

DEATH PENALTY

But Cooper said questions about the death penalty would be asked in open court.

Sirhan appeared for the nine-minute court session, then retired to the judge's chambers with defense attorneys and prosecutors to hear private testimony from radio newsmen about publicity in the case.

The defendant was dressed in a new blue-gray suit and tie. He was accompanied by two guards.

For the first time since his trial began Tuesday, his mother, Mary, and his brothers Adel, 29, and Munir, 21, all were absent.

President-Elect Marks 56th Birthday

Nixon Aides Map Program for Congress

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Nixon set his cabinet to work today on a two-day round of conferences that will help shape the program he puts before Congress.

Nixon is going back to work himself, primarily on his inaugural address, after a 56th birthday trip yesterday to Northhampton, Mass., for a family party. He received a pair of gold cuff links from his wife; the promise of a red Irish setter from his staff; socks, neckties and pajamas from his daughters, and a telegram from President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

The lead-off session in a series of Cabinet conferences with 22 Nixon advisory groups will be the meeting of Atty. Gen.-designate John N. Mitchell with the task force on crime and law enforcement. Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger of Los Angeles heads that group.

Other sessions were scheduled to cover education, public welfare, government organization and health. Secretary of State-designate William P. Rogers; Robert H. Finch, who will be secretary of health, education and welfare; and Postmaster General-designate Winton Blount were the other Nixon cabinet members due to participate in today's sessions.

CRUCIAL ISSUE

A crucial issue due up later in the sequence is the 10 per cent income surtax which will expire June 30 unless it is renewed. Nixon at one point said it should lapse on schedule, but has since conditioned his tax policy on future budget and economic conditions.

The 22 task forces have, since election day, drafted reports for the new administration on an array of federal problems. Nixon is receiving summaries of their findings.

★ ★ ★

The New York Times said today it had learned that Charles E. Walker, an economist with experience in government, private industry and teaching, will become the new undersecretary of the treasury in the Nixon administration.

The Times said he would work under Treasury Secretary-designate David M. Kennedy in a reorganized Treasury Department, dealing with all but international financial affairs. Another undersecretary will assist in that area.

Dr. Walker has been executive vice president of the American Bankers Association for the past eight years. During the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, he advocated restrictions on government spending. He suppported the tax cut of 1964 and the tax increase of 1968.

The president-elect spent last night at the $95-a-month Northhampton apartment of his daughter Julie and her new husband, David Eisenhower.

Arctic Chill to Linger Still

The bone-chilling blast of Arctic air that spread over the nation's central and eastern sections yesterday still holds its grip on the Pontiac area.

The rough winter weather continues to plague Pontiac with temperatures headed for zero or below tonight.

Snow squalls and gales spreading from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians dumped another two inches of snow on Pontiac yesterday.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau Report for the weekend:

TODAY — Partly cloudy and colder, snow flurries, high 15 to 20. Fair and colder tonight, the low 3 above to 2 below zero.

Winds west to northwesterly 12 to 22 miles per hour becoming northwesterly at eight to 15 miles tonight and variable at five to 12 miles tomorrow.

TOMORROW — Partly sunny and a little colder, high 12 to 15.

SUNDAY — Increasing cloudiness and not so cold.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent: 30 today, 20 tonight and tomorrow.

Fourteen was the low mercury reading prior to 8 a.m. today. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 20.

Flash

NEW YORK (AP)—President-elect Nixon today asked Republican National Chairman Ray C. Bliss to remain in his post. Bliss, after a two-hour conference with Nixon, told newsmen he would stay.

U.S. Selects Moon-Landing Team

EDWIN ALDRIN

NEIL ARMSTRONG

MICHAEL COLLINS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A civilian and two Air Force colonels who have walked in space will fly the Apollo 11 mission, first scheduled attempt by the United States to land men on the moon.

The civilian astronaut, Neil A. Armstrong, will command the spacecraft, tentatively set for launching July 15, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said yesterday.

Related Story, Page A-3

Armstrong and Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. are to descend to the moon in a lunar module from the main spacecraft which will remain in lunar orbit, piloted by Lt. Col. Michael Collins.

Armstrong, survivor of two near-disasters since becoming an astronaut in 1963, is a former test pilot for the X15 rocket plane and was a Navy combat flier during the Korean War.

In choosing the three 38-year-old space veterans, NASA passed up the Apollo 8 astronauts who made the first lunar orbital fligths last month.

But two of these, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. William A. Anders, have been named to the Apollo 11 back-up crew. The other, Air Force Col. Frank Borman, is being assigned to ground work at his own request. He will become deputy director of crew flight operations.

Rookie astronaut Fred Haise is the third man on the back-up crew.

NASA practice has been to spread choice assignments among astronauts qualified for them.

Apollo 9, set for launch Feb. 28, will be an earth orbit of the lunar module of the type in which Armstrong and Aldrin are to land on the moon.

It will be the first manned test flight of the module, and if all goes perfectly, NASA officials say there will be no need for Apollo 10. Scheduled for May 17, this would be a moon orbit of the lunar module. If it is skipped, the Apollo 11 flight may be in mid-June.

Armstrong, the first civilian to fly in space, was commander of the perilous Gemini 8 flight in 1966. After he successfully linked his capsule with a rocket in orbit, the capsule spun out of control, but Armstrong guided it to a safe splashdown in the Pacific.

Last year a lunar landing training craft Armstrong was testing at Ellington Air Force Base, Fla., lost power and fell. Armstrong ejected and parachuted to earth. He was slightly injured when his parachute dragged him across the ground.

Aldrin set a record for "space walking" five hours on the Gemini 12 shot in 1966.

Collins walked in space for 39 minutes and stood in the hatch for another 49 on Gemini 10 in 1966. He originally was scheduled for the Apollo 8 mission, but was sidelined because of a spinal operation. Lovell went instead.

Red Toll 6 Times Allies'--S. Viet

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government claimed today 191,307 Vietcong and North Vietnamese troops were killed in 1968, nearly six times allied losses.

But North Vietnam called 1968 "the best year so far in the Vietnamese people's struggle against U.S. aggression."

The Saigon government put South Vietnamese losses last year at 17,486 killed. The U.S. Command has not released official figures for the year, but American battle deaths through Dec. 28 were 14,521.

★ ★ ★

Despite its claim of heavy enemy losses, the government, in a year-end review, estimated total enemy strength at 300,100 Vietcong, North Vietnamese and political cadre. It claimed 151,000 North Vietnamese troops had infiltrated the South in 1968 — an assessment vastly different from unofficial U.S. estimates of 225,000 to 230,000 men.

The U.S. Command does not publish official estimates of enemy strength, but reliable American sources said the South Vietnamese estimate was considered "high."

HIGH ESTIMATES

In addition to those killed in action, the Saigon government said the enemy lost 21,050 men through capture and 17,597 who defected under the "Open Arms" program. This accounted for a total enemy manpower loss of 229,954 last year, the government said.

Firemen Flip Flapjacks

ROCHESTER — Members of the Rochester Fire Department will serve a pancake breakfast Sunday.

The breakfast, to take place at the fire hall located at University and Main, from 8 to 11 a.m., will be open to the public.

Milliken, House Boost Pro-Parochiaid Forces

LANSING (UPI) — Weary lawmakers, working for more than 14 hours yesterday, decided to call it quits for the weekend early this morning and headed home amid the controversy over tax aid to parochial schools.

Forces favoring the aid had their hand strengthened by qualified support from the state's new governor and a key House rules change.

★ ★ ★

But Gov. George Romney, who is resigning soon to join President-elect Richard M. Nixon's cabinet, remained a roadblock to so-called parochiaid legislation.

Romney has suggested that instead of appropriating tax dollars to nonpublic schools, the Legislature and church officials should consider leaving secular education entirely to the public school system.

★ ★ ★

In farewell remarks to a joint legislative session yesterday, he reaffirmed that stand, but said he was not advocating the mass closing of Michigan's 1,000 parochial schools.

In other political action yesterday, State Sen. Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit was deposed from the position of Senate Democratic leader which he has held for four years.

Liberal Democratic senators elected Sen. Sander M. Levin of Berkley as the new minority leader.

The leadership shake-up came after a 2½-hour caucus which resulted in 10 votes for Levin and 6 for the labor-backed Dzendzel. Two senators were absent. Levin received the liberal and black votes.

MILLIKEN ON SCHOOLS

Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken, who ascends to the governor's office when Romney departs, delivered his first State of the State address to the joint assembly yesterday. He made it clear he does not embrace Romney's position on non-public school aid.

Milliken told the legislators he would sign a parochiaid bill if it complied with the Constitution and was accompanied by funds to pay for the aid.

Even more encouraging to parochiaid forces was an unprecendented rules change boosting membership on the House Appropriations Committee from 13 to 15, permitting the Democratic majority to stack that powerful unit with parochiaid supporters.

Unrest Hits Colleges on East, West Coasts

By The Associated Press

Queens College prepared to reopen today in the wake of a violent student take-over. Two other eastern colleges still were beset by student control of vital centers but were not shut down.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, demonstrations by students at five West Coast schools yesterday necessitated police action in three instances.

Most of those involved in campus disorders were Negro students demanding changes in administration and policy.

★ ★ ★

Queens, one of a half-dozen divisions of the City University of New York, prepared to reopen after a two-day shutdown that followed take-over of some offices by Negro and Puerto Rican students.

About 10 per cent of Queens' 25,000 students are nonwhite.

Negro students remained in control of centers at Brandeis University at Waltham, Mass., and Swarthmore College, just outside Philadelphia. Both schools remain in session.

On the West Coast, police arrested 293 students peacefully in a second day of confrontation yesterday at San Fernando Valley State College in Northridge, Calif. At newly opened Southwest College 18 persons were arrested on charges of interfering with school operations. At East Los Angeles College, 95 sheriff's deputies moved in to restore order after students took over a student center and one other building.

★ ★ ★

At California's El Camino College, Negro students burned an effigy of a teacher but the affair broke up without police being called.

At San Francisco State College, police broke up a demonstration after arresting five students and pushing a crowd of 500 away from the college entrance.

Striking members of the American Federation of Teachers also defied a court order and resumed picketing but kept clear of students demonstrators.

OU Benefactor's Will Challenged

The three children of the late Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson, benefactoress of Oakland University, are contesting a $15-million charitable trust fund set up in their mother's will.

In a suit filed in Oakland County Probate Court, the three children, Mrs. Francis Dodge Van Lennep of Lexington, Ky., Mrs. Thomas Eccles of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Richard Wilson of Bloomfield Hills, ask that the fund be dissolved and the money divided among them.

★ ★ ★

Probate Judge Donald E. Adams said that he will probably rule on the case by Feb. 20. The will was uncontested when it was admitted for probate before Judge Adams in October 1967.

The will, dated March 9, 1967, seven months before Mrs. Wilson's death during a visit to Brussels, Belgium, bequethed a number of personal items to Mrs. Van Lenneps, and $10,000 to each of the other children.

Mrs. Wilson noted in her will that financial provisions had already been made for the children.

After the distribution of specific property and cash to persons and organizations named in the will, including $300,000 for a professorship at Oakland University and $200,000 in trust for each of her two grandchildren, the remainder was to be placed in the existing Matilda R. Wilson Fund to be used for charitable purposes.

★ ★ ★

The lawsuit charges that two officers in the fund are in conflict of interest because they were instrumental in preparing the will. They are Nelson L. Meridith, a tax consultant who is president of the fund, and Frederick Nash, a Detroit attorney.

The children also contend in the suit that the paragraph in the will setting up the fund is invalid under state law because it grants lifetime annuities to three men named in the will. This does not fit in with the purpose of the fund, they said.

Schools to Start Clothing Drive

The 14th annual citywide clothing collection in Pontiac schools will get under way Monday.

A goal of one pound per student in the system, or about 25,000 pounds, was set for this year by the Administrators and Superintendents Association (ASA), sponsors of the drive.

★ ★ ★

The drive will last until Friday, according to Lester Stanley, principal of LeBaron School and chairman of ASA's committee of administrators.

The committee sent home bulletins with all of the schoolchildren asking for clothing. Adults' clothing also will be accepted.

The clothing will be given to Dorcas Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Salvation Army for distribution.

With recommendations from school principals to these organizations, the usual procedure of investigation of needy families will be unnecessary, Stanley said.

Sweden Gives Hanoi Full Diplomatic Ties

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Sweden extended full diplomatic recognition to North Vietnam today in an apparent effort to strengthen the Communist positions at the Paris talks.

Sweden is the first western European nation to grant full recognition to Hanoi, although Britain and France maintain foreign service offices in the North Vietnamese capital.

★ ★ ★

The Swedish decisions came as no surprise following a chill in American-Swedish relations during the last two years because of Sweden's opposition to the Vietnam War.

State Dem Out of Party Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., a leader of House liberals, has declared himself out of the running for the post of Democratic national chairman. Indications were that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey would name his choice soon.

O'Hara told Humphrey yesterday that he had reluctantly come to the conclusion that he could not do justice to his responsibilities in the House and to the party if he accepted the post.

★ ★ ★

"While I very much appreciate the confidence you have shown in me by discussing the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee with me," he said in a letter to Humphrey, "I must ask that my name be withdrawn from further consideration."

Humphrey has been conducting a search for the successor to Lawrence O'Brien, who this week resigned as chairman. Reports indicated that the field had been narrowed down to O'Hara, former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford and Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla.

WILLINGNESS

Although he removed himself for consideration as Democratic national chairman, O'Hara told Humphrey that he would be willing to undertake temporary assignments for the party. He suggested service on one of the task forces created by the August convention in an effort to reform the party.

Much of Italy Is Affected by New Wave of Strikes

ROME (AP)—Much of Italy was strikebound today. Unions called tens of thousands off their jobs in textile mills, metalworking shops and other industries from Venice to Bari. A 24-hour public transport strike crippled Rome.

The new wave of strikes came just a day after lawyers and judges demanding a major revamping of the country's creaky court system staged a near-riot outside the Palace of Justice.

CHALLENGE TO GOVERNMENT

The Rumor government, formed Dec. 12 and certified by confidence votes in both houses of Parliament just before Christmas, has pledged to push for full employment across the land, better conditions for workers and reforms for universities and high schools.

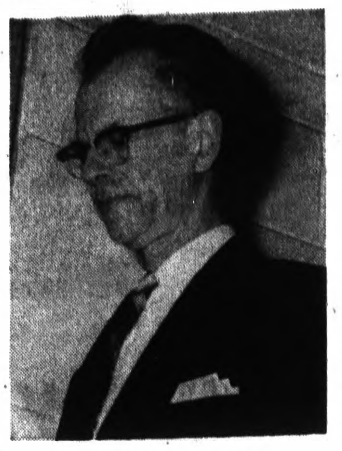

Italy's Communist party and its ally, the Proletarian Socialist party, were fanning the new flames of unrest, Both parties had sought to prevent the center-left realignment, urging an "alternative" government that they left undefined.

The pro-Communist Rome newspaper Paese Sera pleaded in large headlines for all Romans to leave their cars at home today and walk to work or to shop. Otherwise, the paper warned, the city would again become a sea of unmoving autos, as happened during a transport strike Dec. 23.

DEMAND HIGHER PAY

Unions sponsoring the transport strike were demanding higher pay for their members.

But other labor strikes which the Communists claimed hit 17 Italian cities today were aimed primarily at eliminating the "salary zone" system in Italy. Under this system workers in mid-Italy and farther south earn less per hour doing the same work as laborers in the more prosperous north.

DR. RONALD E. CLARK

Employe's Death Laid to Poison

The death of a former employe-patient of Dr. Ronald E. Clark, currently serving a 3-to-15-year prison term for manslaughter in the death of another assistant, has been attributed to sodium pentothal poisoning.

Oakland County Assistant Prosecutor Bruce Leitman said today that it is the opinion of two toxicologists that the traces of the drug found in the brain of Mrs. Hannah Bowerbank, 63, of Detroit was sufficient to cause death.

★ ★ ★

The sodium pentothal was discovered in tests conducted by Dr. S. David Kutob, chief toxicologist for the Michigan Department of Health, after Mrs. Bowerbank's body was exhumed and an autopsy performed in November.

Dr. Clark had listed Mrs. Bowerbank's death as a result of a heart attack. Clark was convicted of manslaughter June 28, 1968, of giving Mrs. Grace Neal, 43, of Livonia, an overdose of sodium pentothal.

Mrs. Neal was Mrs. Bowerbank's successor as Dr. Clark's assistant in his office at 30735 Grand River, Farmington. Mrs. Bowerbank died March 20, 1967. Mrs. Neal died the following Nov. 3.

In addition to Dr. Kutob, and Dr. Richard E. Olsen, pathologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, Leitman said he consulted with Dr. Frederick Rieders, director of the Philadelphia's Poison Information Center, in determining the cause of death. Rieders had testified at Clark's trial.

Even though the cause of death has been determined, Leitman said it is not certain at this time whether a new charge will be leveled at Dr. Clark. Leitman said that the investigation will continue.

Japan to Produce Jets

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government today approved a nine-year plan to produce 34 F4E Phantom jet fighter planes in fiscal 1969 and build a fleet of 104 Phantoms by 1977.

The defense agency decided late last year to make the American twin-engine supersonic jet its mainstay fighter. Cost per plane will be about $5.5 million.

Hospital to Dedicate $1-Million Facility

Pontiac General Hospital will dedicate Sunday what is said to be one of the largest and best-equipped emergency department and physical medicine and rehabilitation centers in the state.

The dedication will be at an open house from 3 to 5 p.m.

The $1-million facility which is connected to the main hospital building by an underground tunnel is expected to be put into use in about a week, depending upon when it can be fully equipped, said hospital administrator Harold B. Euler.

He said the emergency department which has 27 beds will be the first in Michigan and possibly the country to make complete use of disposable clothing and materials.

Patients' gowns, sheets, pillowcases, blankets, wash clothes, drapes, cubical curtains, sponges, nurses's cover-gowns and caps and masks will be disposable to prevent germs from spreading through the hospital.

The cost of the disposables reportedly is no more than using and washing cloth supplies.

★ ★ ★

Other features of the addition at 18 Seminole include:

- Three times as much space as the present emergency facility which has 13 beds.
- More modern equipment, including a floating x-ray table, a machine to process dry x-ray film in 90 seconds and surgilifts to transfer patients lying down to other facilities without moving them.

★ ★ ★

- A special room for children — but referred to as the Teenie Bopper Room — with a console projector to show cartoons.
- A new cardiac clinic in the Kenny-Michigan Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Center.

TREATMENTS TO DOUBLE

One of the largest rehabilitation centers in the Detroit metropolitan area, the center will be able to double the number of treatments given daily. The center contains no beds.

★ ★ ★

A preview of the facilities was given yesterday to about 50 persons who attended a luncheon for donors to the addition.

★ ★ ★

Funds for the new building were made available through donations from the estate of Evelyn Cash Duncan in memory of Ada J. Cash, Gregor-Kohn Foundation, Kenny-Michigan Rehabilitation Foundation, Jacob R. Kovinsky Memorial Fund and Kresge Foundation.

New York to Honor Apollo 8 Crew

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York today to take another spectacular ride, this time through the "Canyon of Heroes" amid a blizzard of ticker tape.

A daylong program of honors and festivities await the first men to orbit the moon.

The spacemen, Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. William A. Anders, with their wives and children, were to arrive at LaGaurdia Airport at 11:15 a.m. EST. They were in Washington Thursday.

Plans called for them to travel by motorcade from the airport to Whitehall Street in lower Manhattan, where they transfer to open cars and start up Broadway to the City Hall. This is the "Canyon of Heroes."

THE SAME ROUTE

Three of their predecessors in space traveled this route, cheered by millions of New Yorkers. They were Lt. Col. John Glenn Jr., the first American sent into orbit, in 1962, and the late Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young, the Gemini astronauts, in 1965.

Cool but clear, sunny weather was forecast.

★ ★ ★

12:25 p.m. — Receive from Mayor John V. Lindsay the Gold Medal of the City of New York.

OFFICIAL LUNCHEON

1:10 — Guests of honor at an official city luncheon in the New York State Theater in Lincoln Center. Authorities said some 700 guests had been invited.

3:10 — Enter the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

4:30 — Visit the United Nations.

7 — Official reception and state dinner given by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The governor's office said some 3,000 invitations had been sent.

ALONG FOR THE RIDE

Accompanying the astronauts are Borman's wife, Susan, and their sons Frederick, 17, and Edwin, 15; Lovell's wife, Marilyn, and their children Barbara, 15, James, 13, and Susan, 10; Anders' wife, Valerie, and three of their five children, Alan, 11, Glen, 10, and Gayle, 8.

Dr. Thomas O. Paine, acting administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, also is in the official party.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the tons of confetti and ticker tape waiting along the lengthy route to be taken by the astronauts, New York radio station WABC said it would distribute thousands of American flags for the spectators. A spokesman for the station said the tradition began with Glenn's parade.

★ ★ ★

Rockefeller termed the occasion a "day of special observance." In a telegram to the spacemen, dispatched minutes after they splashed down in the Pacific, Dec. 27, the governor said:

"In order to demonstrate the extent of our feelings, I would like, on behalf of the 18 million residents of New York, to invite you to come here for a day of special observance which would culminate in a state dinner in your honor."

Flu-Related Deaths Triple Usual Rate

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Deaths from influenza and pneumonia increased sharply again for the week ending Jan. 4, almost tripling the number expected, the National Communicable Disease Center (NCDC) said yesterday.

A NCDC spokesman said 1,523 persons died from flu and pneumonia during the week in 122 cities for which it keeps mortality statistics.

Only 528 deaths had been expected in those cities, leaving 995 to be attributed to the continuing epidemic of Hong Kong flu.

It was the third consecutive week in which deaths more than doubled the number expected, according to NCDC figures. The center's weekly mortality report, however, said indications are that the epidemic is declining in many states.

43 STATES AFFECTED

In all, 43 states have reported widespread or regional influenza activity over the past four months, the NCDC said.

As of Jan. 4, it said, widespread activity has been reported in 38 states, regional occurrence in five states and isolated outbreaks in six states.

The predominant change during the week came in the south Atlantic division, where six states reported widespread occurrence for the first time.

Troy School Officials Claim Classroom Shortage

(EDITOR'S NOTE — A special election is scheduled Monday in the Troy School District on renewal of an 8-mill tax levy for operating purposes and approval of a proposed $6.75-million bond issue. This is the last of three articles detailing the background of the election.)

By TOM GRAY

TROY — Growth problems and a resulting classroom shortage are the major concerns cited by district school officials in scheduling Monday's special election on a $6.75-million bond issue for construction.

Included under the proposed bonding are a new west side elementary school, additions at Hill and Union elementary schools, Troy High School and Baker and Smith junior highs and remodeling at Big Beaver and Poppleton elementary schools.

The issue would also include funds for planning and design for a future high school and a future third junior high school.

Included on Monday's ballot is the proposed five-year renewal of an 8-mill property tax levy for operating expenses. The present levy, approved in 1963, expired in December.

EARLIER VOTE URGED

Schools Supt. Dr. Rex B. Smith previously urged the board of education to schedule the election in December, but a decision was delayed because some members of the board wanted to wait for results of an investigation of the district which is being conducted by the state attorney general's office.

A representative from the district's architects, KMM Associates of Ann Arbor, however, told the board in November that authorization for the issue would be needed soon so bids could be taken in the spring and construction begun this summer.

Enrollment in the system has risen from 3,686 in 1960 to 5,451 now, and is estimated at 6,747 for the school year 1971-72.

At present, according to Smith, pupils in overcrowded situations at four elementary schools are being transported to other schools.

★ ★ ★

Because of the district's increasing tax valuation, the superintendent said, it may be possible to continue the present debt retirement rate of 7 mills even if the issue is approved.

INCREASE POSSIBLE

If the valuation did not reach its projected level of $152 million by the end of 1968, though, the rate could be raised up to half a mill, Smith said.

Earlier last year, the board moved to improve its borrowing power at the urging of the State Municipal Finance Commission — by approving a reduced budget to decrease its deficit by about a third. At the end of last school year, the deficit was estimated at $600,000 by school officials.

The finance commission must give its approval to future bond issues, even after they are approved by voters.

★ ★ ★

As for the millage renewal, Smith pointed to several reasons for supporting passage.

DEFICIT REMAINS

"Even under the present operating tax levy, our needs are not being met," the superintendent commented. "And the remaining $461,000 of our cash deficit must be eliminated by the end of the 1969-70 school year.

The four-mill hike voted by residents last June, Smith said, only allowed about $225,000 of the deficit to be erased. "Any increase in income from increase in valuation of the district will be needed for added enrollment and increasing costs," he added.

★ ★ ★

If the 8 mills proves to be more than necessary — a circumstance which Smith sees as highly unlikely — the board would not have to levy all of the authorized millage.

At present, the superintendent noted, Troy ranks ninth amont 15 South Oakland districts with a total tax rate for operation of 26.70 mills.

HIGH SCHOOL ADDITION — This is an artist's conception of a proposed addition to Troy High School, 3179 Livernois, which would be built with funds from the district's pending $6.75-million bond issue. The addition (in white) would enlarge the school's library and athletic facilities, besides including new classrooms.

New Head of County Board Has Work Cut Out for Him

By JEAN SAILE

Charles B. Edwards of Madison Heights, newly elected chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, has his work cut out for him.

In addition to achieving harmony on the board—split 15-12 between Democrats and Republicans—he also is going to have to try to heal the rift in Democratic ranks.

★ ★ ★

That the rift is due largely to his election as chairman isn't going to make the job any easier.

"I have always been a Democrat, and I always will be," said the new chairman. "I only hope I can pull this body together to work for the good of the county."

ON SECOND BALLOT

Edwards, a supervisor for nine years, won his post in a second ballot by defeating temporary chairman William L. Mainland, Democrat from Milford, and Robert Patnales, Republican caucus leader from Royal Oak. Edwards got 15 votes, Mainland 11 and Patnales 1.

It was rumored that the entire Republican caucus had been instructed to vote for Edwards, who was nominated for chairman by Patnales.

News Analysis

His election left large wounds in the Democratic caucus. The caucus candidate and its chairman, Philip O. Mastin Jr. of Hazel Park, failed to get a majority on the first ballot.

Mastin obtained 13 votes. Fourteen were needed. His opposition, Robert Patnales got 12 votes and two supervisors abstained.

PARTY LINES HELD

Democratic party lines held long enough to persuade Edwards to turn down a Republican nomination for chairman on the first ballot. His withdrawal brought Republican charges of "force and intimidation" against the Democrats.

By the time nominations for the second ballot were opened, it almost required a scorecard to tell the candidates.

★ ★ ★

There were Democrats nominating Democrats, Democrats nominating Republicans, Republicans nominating Republicans and Republicans nominating Democrats.

Former Board Chairman Delos Hamlin, R-Farmington, was nominated by a Democrat, but declined the office.

Mastin withdrew after having been nominated, and the field was left open to Edwards, Mainland and Patnales. Mastin's withdrawal came after the break for lunch and several Democratic caucuses in which he reportedly learned he could not control three members of his party.

Mainland, who hewed strictly to party lines throughout the day, accepted his nomination only after conferring with the Democratic caucus. He turned down a previous nomination.

★ ★ ★

It was largely due to his pleas that any inter-party harmony was achieved.

There were floor fights over the proposed agenda, the temporary rules, the problem of pay for supervisors and the frequently called recesses.

About the only predictable action of the board yesterday was the election of Alexander C. Perinoff, the Democratic caucus nominee for vice chairman, over Patnales. Perinoff got 14 votes and Patnales received 13.

Mainland and Hamlin were named the county's delegates to the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) and Perinoff and Mrs. Mary Bawden, R-Birmingham, were named their alternates.

The board voted unanimously to attend, at county expense, a New Horizons in County Government meeting Jan. 27 and 28 in Detroit.

Police on Guard in Oil Strike

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit Police and Wayne County sheriff's deputies yesterday were assigned to watch for violence in the strike by members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union against seven Detroit-area gasoline and fuel companies.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Maher assigned four sheriff's deputies to watch Gulf Oil Corp. depots in nearby Novi and Hamtramck after the company sought an injunction against picketing at its plants.

Detroit police acted after a Mobil Oil Corp. gasoline truck driver reported his truck was damaged while he was making deliveries to a gas station.

The judge said the deputies would be asked to testify in court Monday as impartial observers for the court. He said both sides had made charges and countercharges of illegal activities at the sites, and he wanted an impartial judgment.

3 Districts Seek State Grant to Study Year-Round School

Three area school districts jointly are applying for a State Board of Education grant to study a 12-month school year.

The Oxford, Lake Orion and Rochester districts will cooperate in submitting the application, which is due by Jan. 17.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Harry J. Jones, director of instruction in Rochester, and a member of the six-man interdistrict committee which drafted the application, said the proposed study would consider both economic and educational efficiency of year-round operations.

"We discussed our common interests and agreed that it might be wise to submit a proposal together, so that we would have a large enough area to make a more feasible study," he explained.

The state board, Jones said, has $100,000 available for the grants, which may not exceed $25,000 apiece.

The application drafted by the committee notes points of similarity between the three districts, asserting that they "share similar problems with many other school districts located on the outer fringes of large metropolitan areas."

Problems listed include a rapidly expanding student population which is outstripping the tax base of the districts; the need for new school facilities; taxpayers' reluctance to approve additional funds; and the need for a more comprehensive educational program.

"We would like to see the controversy surrounding year-round schools placed in its proper perspective," the application continues. "Exactly what are the benefits to the fast-growing, suburban community and how can we take advantage of them?"

REPORT SCHEDULE

The committee's timetable calls for the study to begin in April, with a preliminary report to be submitted by June and a final report by March, 1970.

But regardless of the study's outcome, the present need for new buildings and operating money will not be lessened, Jones stressed.

★ ★ ★

"We have an $8-million bond issue pending now," he said. "If the issue is approved, the buildings proposed for construction would be completed and filled with students by the time we would be able to begin attempting to implement this program."

The bond issue vote is scheduled for Feb. 8.

Deadline Near for Tree Orders

TROY — It's not too late to order a tree for your yard this summer in this city.

Residents have until Wednesday to place orders for trees, either to be planted in city right-of-ways or for their own property, with the parks and recreation department.

★ ★ ★

Parks and Recreation Director D. Lee Osborn said the forestation program was planned last year, but failed to get off the ground when the city encountered problems in ordering trees on short notice.

However, Osborn added, the city has entered into a three-year contract with Cottage Nursery of Lansing to provide the trees.

TREES AVAILABLE

Available are little-leaf linden, green ash and pin oak for right-of-ways. All are 1½-2 inches in diameter and 10-15 feet high, said Osborn, and will be planted, tended and replaced by the city, if necessary at $15 apiece.

Residents may also order trees for their own use on a cash-and-carry basis without guarantee. Prices will range from $8 for 1-1½-inch diameter, under-10-foot trees to $15 for the larger size offered for right-of-ways.

★ ★ ★

"We planned the program for residents who have lost trees through Dutch elm disease, or who live on a street where a sewer has been put in and trees cut down," Osborn explained.

The trees are scheduled for delivery to the city in early April.

Independence OK to Final Drafting of Sewer-Setup Plans

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has authorized Johnson and Anderson Inc. of Waterford Township to pursue final drafting of plans for the township's extensive sanitary sewer project.

The project's first stage of development has been geared toward rectifying the township's most serious sewer problems primarily in the area south of I-75. Several schools, and the Sterns-Seligman and Clarkson Gardens subdivisions are located in this area.

★ ★ ★

The first stage will encompass the area around the village of Clarkston basically on the south and east areas of the village, according to Howard Altman, township clerk.

A new line will extend along M15 down to Waterford Road or near the Independece Square Apartment complex on Waterford Hill. Another small segment will extend from M15 and Dixie Highway westerly to Jacks Green Lake subdivision on White Lake Road. Off Maybee, the line will take in the Highwood Village subdivision.

Another tangent takes in the Woodhull Lake-Pelton Heights, Lake Oakland and Sashabaw Plains area — all south of Maybee. An additional proposal for the line would be to head northerly along Lintonville Road parallel to Maybee, extending to Sashabaw. The Goodrich Farms subdivision is the principle section in this area.

School-Closing Plan Is Detailed

A Huron Valley School District spokesman announced today that notices concerning school closings because of inclement weather might be made over two Detroit radio stations — WJR (760) and CKLW (800).

There are two types of announcements possible, according to a school spokesman. One would merely say that schools are closed, and therefore no students are to report that day.

★ ★ ★

The second type of announcement would be that buses are running on main roads only. This means that buses will make regular stops in the village of Milford, at all district schools, and on several of the main roads in the district.

In such case, the buses will run on the following roads: Milford from Maple to Clyde, General Motors, Wixom, Commerce, M59, the paved section of Hickory Ridge south of M59, Duck Lake north of M59 to Duck Lake School, Ormond to Jackson, Bogie Lake, Elizabeth Lake, and the paved section of Oxbow Lake.

"We realize that some students may not be able to get out to these roads, but students are expected to make every reasonable effort to be in school" said a district spokesman.

At a recent special meeting of the Huron Valley board a new member was appointed.

★ ★ ★

Henry Prokoff, 7349 Biscayne, White Lake Township, will fill the vacancy recently created by Carlos Trask III, who is moving out of the school district. An area resident since 1944, Prokoff runs Henry Prokoff Builders.

'68 Dairyman of the Year Is Rose Township Farmer

A Rose Township farmer came away with top honors yesterday at the annual Oakland County Dairy Banquet, sponsored by the Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA). The banquet was held at a Pontiac restaurant.

Taking The Pontiac Press award as the county's 1968 Dairyman of the Year was Daniel Stack, 10180 Eagle.

★ ★ ★

Stack's 41-head herd tested an individual average of 14,574 pounds of milk and 535 pounds of butterfat, placing it well up among the country's dairy herds.

★ ★ ★

HIGHEST AVERAGE

The Longs had the highest production average in the county in taking honorable mention for the third year in a row. They are previous winners of the top award, which is awarded only once to an individual.

★ ★ ★

The 57-head Long herd averaged 17,465 pounds of milk and 646 pounds of butterfat.

★ ★ ★

Verages for the 33-head herd owned by Peters were 12,136 pounds of milk and 464 pounds of butterfat.

TECHNIQUES DETAILED

County Agricultural Extension Agent Bill Muller conducted the meeting and followed the awards with a slide presentation detailing some of the newer dairying techniques around the county.

Vickers Unit Moved Near Center in Troy

TROY — The Vickers Division of Sperry Rand Corp. has moved its hydraulic school to new quarters near the firm's administrative and engineering center, at Maple and Crooks.

The school's new building contains 7,800 square feet of floor space, about double the size of the former quarters in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

With the opening of the new facilities the present school staff of eight will be able to handle up to 900 students a year — an increase of 20 per cent. With an increase in staff, the building will be able to accommodate an increase of 50 per cent in enrollment.

The school conducts courses to instruct customer personnel in the basic principles of fluid power and the application and maintenance of fluid power equipment.

Employment Program Is Succeeding

One of the great challenges of our time is to hire the hard-core unemployed, find out what factors make these people "unemployable" and try to eradicate those factors.

Thus, the recent announcement that General Motors Corporation has hired more than 21,700 hard-core unemployed nationally between April 1 and Nov. 30, 1968, comes as good news. Such strides to meet the challenge are truly symbolic of good old American ingenuity in tackling a tough problem.

Even more meaningful to our area is the fact that of the 21,700 hired in that eight-month period, 7,100 were employed at southeastern Michigan GM plants.

A further breakdown reveals that 1,559 hard-core unemployed have been hired by GM plants here in Pontiac under this program which is being administered in cooperation with the National Alliance of Businessmen.

★ ★ ★

This includes more than 200 who are currently holding down jobs under the Operation Opportunity program at Pontiac Motor Division. This is a separate program initiated by GM and the Pontiac Area Urban League in the fall of 1967.

Most significant of the figures announced by GM Board Chairman JAMES M. ROCHE is that the retention rate of the hard-core unemployed is 67.6 per cent—nearly identical with all others hired during the same period.

This is one of the keys to the success of such efforts. Hiring so-called unemployables is one thing, but keeping them on the payroll is another. It is keeping them employed that, in the long run, is most vital.

Critics may charge that such programs are a wasted effort because more than 30 per cent of the unemployables don't last. The bigger point these critics miss is that GM has taken nearly 14,750 people off the debit side of society and retained them on the productive side of the ledger.

It takes some realistic reevaluation of traditional criteria for hiring to make such programs work. But the results are obviously worth it — a renewal of individual pride and purpose for the worker, a contribution to the local community and an expanded work force.

GM's program, to date, has exceeded initial expectations, and we commend the corporation for its fine efforts in this field of endeavor.

Teddy's Win Again Proves 'Kennedy' Power

Another KENNEDY rings the bell and demonstrates that his magical name is a strong vote getter. To prove his strength in the Democratic party, last week Senator EDWARD KENNEDY took on, and defeated, Senator RUSSELL LONG for the Senate Democratic whip.

KENNEDY

With only a few days advance notice, once again a KENNEDY proved just what their machine can do. It is quite obvious that LONG was not defeated for the job he held by his colleagues alone. It was a national Democratic power play that won for young TEDDY.

LONG was no easy man to bump from the job, and the major political significance probably would be that when the KENNEDY forces join together they wield some pretty potent power.

Just what Teddy plans to do regarding 1972 is anyone's guess. Kennedy is appealing, and in this new job the potential exposure is immeasurably greater than just being another Senator. For the next four years he will be getting newspaper ink and that's a Kennedy trait.

★ ★ ★

Since the election the Democrats are split and face a major task in trying to evolve as a strong force, and TEDDY may be their answer.

Football Injuries Not Attributable to Meanness

Knee injuries to several college and professional football super stars this fall have caused a lot of speculation that players are becoming meaner. A number of quarterbacks have been injured from among the pros, but for some reason we would hazard a guess that it is not meanness.

More likely it is just the vulnerability of the super stars, and this has always been a part of the game.

The fact that Joe Namath is sounding off does not lead us to believe that we will witness wholesale murder when the New York Jets meet the Baltimore Colts Sunday.

★ ★ ★

It sounds more like the old-fashioned collosal buildup that BABE RUTH and the New York Yanks used in salary discussions with the hope of improving attendance in the upcoming baseball season. Actually the contract had been signed months before.

Freedom, Affluence–U.S. Dilemmas

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON — As the American people enter 1969, they may begin, hopefully, to get closer to an understanding of their fundamental problems than was true during unpredictable, puzzling, and curiously rigorous 1968.

BIOSSAT

For all the insistent clamor from the student barricades, the black power meeting places, and the intellectual liberals' drawing rooms, the deepest problems facing the U.S. citizenry — and to a great extent the whole western world — are not centered on how to obtain more affluence and more freedom for more people.

The year was most disturbing for its continuous and very thorough demonstration that a considerable proportion of the American people, like their counterparts in Europe and elsewhere, do not know how to use freedom and affluence when they have it.

Somehow, from all the upsetting episodes of this wild year, the erroneous notion arose that democratic government and its supporting free economic system were insufficient to the demands of a swiftly changing age.

ABUSES OF FREEDOM

Some young people fed this misconception by representing abuses of freedom as necessary "new freedoms" and by reviling an economic structure that allowed them literally to drive to the radicals' barricades in their own cars.

But moves beyond freedom toward license, and shouts for a more effortless access to material goods, not only have confused the general picture but reflect the bewilderment in the minds of the troubled and the rebellious as 1969 opens.

★ ★ ★

As the writer, Irving Kristol, recently observed with acute perception, the true root of the matter is the enlarging discovery by Americans and others in western civilization that freedom and affluence are not really goals in themselves. There is no ultimate magic, no final fulfillment, in the achievement of either or both of these objectives.

★ ★ ★

Freedom to do what? Affluence to what ends? These questions, Americans are learning with increasing force, are the real ones.

PURPOSELESS

They, more than anything else, are at the core of the western world's spiritual malaise.

The thunderous complaint, as Kristol notes, is against the aspect of purposelessness in life which many Americans think they detect as they gaze from the mountaintops of freedom and affluence.

When freedom, in the reasonable sense, is commonplace, and material things come easily, people look for substitute challenges.

★ ★ ★

The challenge of finding real challenge rests inevitably in unexplored realms of self-help which are surely quite unrelated to the bizarre distortions conceived by some in the unrest of 1968.

First-Stage Fired A-OK!

David Lawrence Says:

Inflation Legislation Ignored

WASHINGTON — Who is running the national economy today? The government is trying to do it, directly and indirectly, by pushing up the interest rates so as to curtail borrowing and slow down the "boom" which has brought inflation.

LAWRENCE

But the truth is there has been too much dependence on the voluntary action of individual groups in business, finance and labor, without much thought about the need for legislative restrictions such as have been applied heretofore during wartime.

When the Federal Reserve Board tightens money and banks push up their prime rate of interest to 7 per cent, the cost of borrowing tends to discourage purchases of houses and automobiles as well as the construction of new facilities by industry.

★ ★ ★

Theoretically, this squeeze on credit is expected to check the boom and halt the inflation, even though it is recognized that when credit brakes are applied too tightly, the economy is sometimes pushed into a recession, with a decline in business, a rise in unemployment and a drop in profits.

Unfortunately, the rise in the cost of living and the upward movement of the wage-price spiral are not related to any single factor such as interest rates.

Also, the "take-home" pay of many millions of workers in America has been adversely affected, not merely by the increase in federal taxes but by the higher taxes paid for Sccial Security as well as the upward trend in state and city taxes.

WORKERS CONCERNED

The average worker is concerned primarily with what he has left after all the deductions for taxes have been made by the employer.

In order to manage the American economy in wartime, when so many extra billions of dollars are being spent by the government, it becomes necssary to apply wage-and-price controls. This is unpopular politically.

★ ★ ★

Higher tax revenues, together with some reduction in federal spending, indicate a budget surplus of about $1 billion in the current fiscal year, compared with a $25-billion deficit in the previous year.

But the surtax imposed last June did not slow down the economy in the second half of 1968, and the boom began to pick up momentum, with prices rising at the fastest rate in 17 years. So the surtax did not attain its objective.

The Federal Reserve Board, which had eased credit after passage of the surtax, reversed itself in December. It reduced bank reserves available for lending and raised discount rates. As a result, commercial banks have found it necessary to increase their rates to the public — to a record of 7 per cent for "prime" loans. .

CONFIDENCE IMPORTANT

What is not often realized is that public confidence is perhaps the most important element in managing the national economy and that, once this confidence is impaired, a recession of substantial proportions can follow.

This is really what happened in the 1930s despite the attempts to use constructive measures to overcome the adverse developments in the national economy.

It is this kind of situation which officials here recognize as one of the risks involved in tampering with the economy.

Today there are about 2½ million acres of rice under cultivation in Arkansas, California, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas. The U. S. is the No. 1 rice-exporting country in the world, shipping to more than 100 countries.

Question and Answer

Could you please tell me if mortar is a separating joint or if it's a bonding compound? If it is a separating joint, can it also bond (in reference to building blocks)?

L. W.
Clarkston

REPLY

The building suppliers and masons we talked with all agreed that, while it acts as a separating agent, it is primarily a bonding compound.

Question and Answer

Who was the first person to invent the atom and does that word mean anything special, or is it a made up word like "glop" or something?

J. J.—AGE 10

REPLY

Well, "invented" isn't exactly the right word. "Discovered" would be more accurate, since the atom was already here. An ancient Greek philosopher by the name of Democritus, born sometime around 460 B.C., was the first person to develop a full atomic theory. It turned out to be an amazingly clear picture of what modern science discovered to be fact. He is the one who named the atom, which he conceived to be the smallest particle possible. The word comes from the Greek word "atomos," meaning something that cannot be cut.

Reviewing Other Editorial Pages

Power . . .

Norfolk (Va.) Ledger-Star

Quite obviously the Israeli government respects power. Equally obviously, it depends upon the use of power to warn its enemies, instill respect for Israeli territorial integrity and to bring fear to its opponents.

What the legal government of Israel used against Lebanon was pure and simple terrorism. Can anyone question that? Can anyone question that the government of Premier Levi Eshkol vastly over-reacted to the Dec. 26 attack on an El Al airlines plane in Athens airport by two terrorists by ordering an Israeli commando group to carry out an official, governemnt-sponsored raid on the Beirut International Airport in Lebanon and destroy 13 civil aircraft belonging to three Lebanese air lines?

★ ★ ★

Lebanon? This country plays such a minor Mid-East role that it was not attacked by Israel in June, 1967, and took no part in that six-day war. As President Johnson's special assistant for national security affairs Walt Rostow assessed the Lebanon raid. "We think it a grave matter for regular forces of the Government of Israel to attack a civil international airport in a country which has been striving toward moderation in the Middle East."

It is small wonder that many nations of the world condemned Israel for the attack; the Americans, the French, the Russians, for a start. To conduct an official air-borne raid against another country's civil air lines as a response to a two-man terrorist raid is simply unacceptable in the chancelleries of the world. The two Arab terrorists were captured and will be tried in Greece.

★ ★ ★

And so the United Nations Security Council was asked by Lebanon to look into the Beirut raid and it was asked by Israel to look into the "acts of warfare, terror and violence by irregular forces and organizations" against Israel.

Washington has an opportunity to apply the pressure of power against Israel, and to do it in a way the Israelis will respect. The day before the raid on Beirut, Washington announced that it would sell Israel 50 F-4 Phantom military jets, beginning in 1969. In the light of this raid on Beirut, the Israelis seem to have enough air power now not only to defend their country but to commit acts of terrorism against other countries. The agreement to sell them these 50 jets ought to be canceled forthwith.

Secret Accounts

Manchester (N.H.) Union Ledger

The time when secret numbered Swiss bank accounts were used largely by sophisticated financiers has passed, according to Robert M. Morgenthau, U.S. attorney for southern New York.

At the present time, "enormous numbers" of stock market investors — including "ostensibly irreproachable citizens" eager to avoid income taxes—are hiding their money in Switzerland.

None of which is surprising, of course. But we can't help wondering how many of those "ostensibly irreproachable citizens" are the same people whose "moral consciences" compel them to demand that poor old John Q. Taxpayer, the perennial doormat, be socked by Internal Revenue to pay for the hare-brained Welfare State schemes they themselves have conceived.

GOP Warm, Dems Tepid to Milliken's Speech

LANSING (UPI)—Comments on Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken's first state-of-the-state message today range from excellent to "It was little more than a cataloging of our problems."

Gov. George Romney was pleased with the emphasis Milliken put on the necessity of supplying the revenue needed for any new programs.

★ ★ ★

"Michigan is fortunate to have a governor who understands its problems and gives every promise of providing needed leadership in a critical period," he said.

Other Republican leaders followed suit and praised Milliken and his speech.

HAMPTON'S REACTIONS

"It was impressive and forthright. I particularly liked his attitude on government fiscal responsibility," said House Minority Floor Leader William Hampton of Bloomfield Hills.

House Republican leader Robert Waldron said the speech indicated "That we are probably in for a year of consolidation and perfection of programs begun during the last six years."

★ ★ ★

Republican National Committeewoman Mrs. Elly Peterson said the speech showed we are entering a new era "and it's exciting."

Republicans in both the House and Senate agreed that Milliken's remarks on Parochiaid, which leaves the door open for state aid to parochial schools did not hurt him with GOP legislators.

DEMOCRATS LUKEWARM

On the other side of the aisle, Democrats generally expressed lukewarm comments on the address.

★ ★ ★

The new House Speaker, Rep. William A. Ryan of Detroit, said the speech only cataloged the state's problems.

★ ★ ★

"He gave little more than generalities. He told us the problems, but offered no solutions," he said.

Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley termed the speech a "thoughtful and well-stated outline of very general goals with which almost all of us can agree."

TESTS AHEAD

"However, his administration will be tested not by those general goals but by the specific means which he will propose to achieve them and by the methods he administers those laws which are enacted."

★ ★ ★

Sen. Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit, the former Democratic leader in the Senate, said the speech "points up the fact that the new governor, having served in the Legislature, will work much closer with us than the previous governor."

STATE OF THE STATE — Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken, due to take over soon as Michigan's governor, delivers the State of the State message yesterday to a joint session of the Legislature in Lansing as Gov. George Romney looks on.

Romney, Milliken Apart on Parochiaid

LANSING (UPI) — Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken made it clear Thursday that when he follows Gov. George Romney as governor of Michigan, he won't follow Romney's proposal that state aid to education be restricted to public schools.

Romney, in his farewell address to the people of Michigan Monday, suggested that private schools restrict themselves to religious and moral instruction if they cannot afford to maintain secular education.

★ ★ ★

Milliken, who will succeed Romney as governor when Romney resigns to join the Nixon cabinet, divorced himself from Romney's position in his "State of the State" message to the Legislature Thursday.

"It would be tragic if circumstances should cause the private schools and colleges, religious-affiliated or otherwise, to deteriorate and disappear," Milliken said. "We must be vigilant in our efforts to maintain diversification in education. Strong private and independent institutions have long demonstrated their value in all walks of American life."

NO SPECIFIC PLAN

Milliken did not endorse a specific proposal for state aid to nonpublic schools. A bill to that effect was defeated in the Legislature last year. But the next governor did indicate he would sign such legislation if it reached his desk, and if the lawmakers provided funds for such a program.

★ ★ ★

Romney, holding back his resignation until his appointment as secretary of Housing and Urban Development is confirmed by the Senate, warned that any program of state aid to private schools would take Michigan "down a new expensive road" of increasing demands on its treasury with no assurances that such a plan would be a success.

★ ★ ★

Romney told the Legislature Thursday he did not propose to close nonpublic schools.

"That would be up to the churches," he said. "They could provide desperately needed regular weekday religious and moral instruction to all their interested children and maintain secular education to the extent parents would support both.

★ ★ ★

"Churches and others obviously have an unchallenged right to operate schools and supply both secular and religious education," Romney said.

Senate Liberals Again Try to Limit Filibuster Rule

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate liberals began their biennial drive yesterday for a rules change to make it easier to limit filibusters.

Sens. Frank Church, D-Idaho, James B. Pearson, R-Kan., and 34 other members filed a resolution requiring the Senate to end a filibuster and move to vote whenever three-fifths of its members in attendance order it. Under current rules, two-thirds of the senators present must vote for cloture-halting debate — before a filibuster can be stopped.

★ ★ ★

Church introduced the rules change after the opening gavel. Sen. Spessard Holland, D-Fla., leader of southern opponents who regard the filibuster as a sacred weapon against northern repression, objected, forcing a 24-hour delay in its consideration.

Thus began the confusing parliamentary procedure that often ties the Senate machinery into knots at the beginning of each new session.

SURE OF VICTORY

Sens. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., and Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said they were confident a majority — with one or two votes to spare — were for the three-fifths resolution.

But that, they acknowledged, does not mean it will pass. The key question — the one that has thwarted previous rule change attempts — is whether the Senate is willing to permit a session-opening rules change without a filibuster if a majority votes for a cloture.

★ ★ ★

In the past, southerners and allies from small states have simply filibustered the antifilibuster proposals to death.

Quartets Will Sing at PNH

The 26th annual Barber Shop Quartet Show will be presented at 8:15 p.m. Feb. 8 at the Pontiac Northern High School Auditorium.

The "Holiday of Harmony" is sponsored by the Pontiac Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America.

It has been customary to use proceeds from this songfest to support the barbershoppers' international service project, the Institute of Logopedics, in Wichita, Kan., which works with handicapped children in the correction of speech defects.

★ ★ ★

Talent for the evening will include the Auto Towners of Detroit, winners of the International Championship in 1966; the 1968 winners of the contest, the Sharp Lifters of Detroit; and the Chordials of Wayne and Toledo.

Quartets from the Pontiac Chapter include The Harmony Knights, the Resonaires and the Merry Motor Men.

Tickets are available at Grinnell's at the Pontiac Mall, the Professional Center Pharmacy, 5770 Ortonville, Independence Township, and from any member.

Firemen Late for Train Blaze

OAKRIDGE, Ore. (AP) — It's true, said the firemen, they were pretty slow getting to the fire that broke out in an overheated axle journal on a Southern Pacific flatcar, then spread and charred a load of timber.

But, said the firemen, when the train crew spotted the fire and pulled out the blazing car, they reassembled the train across the only nearby access road to the fire station.

★ ★ ★

Firemen got to the scene by making a three-mile detour.

QUARTET FEATURED—The Sharp Lifters of Detroit will be featured at the 26th annual Barber Shop Quartet Show scheduled Feb. 8 at Pontiac Northern High School. The group is the 1968 Michigan winner of the international championship.

McCarthy Defers, but Senate Panel Still Dovish

WASHINGTON (AP) — Men opposed to pursuing a military solution in Vietnam will continue to dominate the Senate Foreign Relations Committee despite Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's decision to hand over his seat to a staunch defender of the war, Sen. Gale McGee.

Any move to resume the bombing of North Vietnam or otherwise escalate the war would be sure to encounter the same heavy opposition from committee members that has plagued President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

The key to relations between the committee's dominant peace faction and President-elect Nixon would be what course Nixon takes if the Paris negotiations fail to end the fighting in South Vietnam.

On the war issue, the new foreign relations committee shapes up with nine members, including Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., who have opposed escalation, five who have supported increasing military pressure and one whose position is not easily catalogued.

FOE OF VIET WAR

McCarthy, who became a major contender for the Democratic presidential nomination on the strength of his opposition to the war, decided to give up his seat after the committee membership was cut from 19 to 15.

The cutback, which had the support of Fulbright, left the Democrats with no vacancies, and apparently barred McGee, an outspoken hawk, from returning to the committee. He had been bumped after Republican gains in the 1966 election gave them an additional place on the committee.

There was talk in the Capitol corridors that Fulbright planned it this way, but it was at this point that McCarthy came to the rescue of McGee D-Wyo.

Fellow senators were amazed. Asked if he was surprised by McCarthy's move, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana replied, "I sure as hell was."

Asked to explain, Mansfield said, "I don't know the answer, ask McCarthy."

"An act of magnanimity and benignity," said McCarthy when a reporter put the question to him. However, in a statement the senator said he favored a smaller committee because he thought it could be more effective in influencing administration policy, and said he gave up his seat so fellow Democrats "could honor their commitment to Sen. McGee" that he would be reassigned to the committee.

Citizens Aiding Family of a Man Who Cared

ST. LOUIS (AP) — If Raymond Sansoucie had been true to his name, he wouldn't have taken up that chase New Year's Eve.

★ ★ ★

Sansoucie is French for "without care." Raymond Sansoucie cared, pursued a youthful purse snatcher and was shot to death — over $6 the thief had taken from a 61-year-old widow.

★ ★ ★

Sansoucie, a father of four whose widow is expecting a fifth child, died in his wife's arms. Now his act of heroism has triggered a campaign by the St. Louis Grand Jury Association to raise funds for his family.

Within seven days, the fund billowed to nearly $50,000. And there were the letters. Many correspondents wondered if Sansoucie's blood should be on the American conscience.

'GOOD SUFFER'

"It is a sign of the times that the good people suffer while the hoodlum element runs at large," said a letter with checks of $50 and $10 enclosed. "In some way we have to turn the tables and add strength to the cause of law and order."

"Mr. Sansoucie was a hero. He saw a crime in progress and tried to do something about it, a rarity today," wrote another.

★ ★ ★

Sansoucie had been driving with his wife and three of their children when he saw the purse snatcher grapple with Mrs. Madge Robinson.

Sansoucie braked, jumped from the car and chased the man around a corner. Minutes later two men ran to Ruth Sansoucie and asked, "Are you Ruth? A man has been shot down the street, and he's asking for Ruth."

LAST WORDS

"I love you," Sansoucie told her. These were his last words.

Letters and donations started coming that weekend after the grand jury association announced it had started the fund. In the first week they had come from 22 states.

★ ★ ★

A professor of English from Ames, Iowa, pointed up the irony of Sansoucie's name and deed.

"Coincidence plays a great part in our human affairs, but I am struck by the ironic fact that Mr. Sansoucie's name, in French, sans-souci, means 'easy-going,' 'without a care in the world.' A man who would stop his car to aid someone in distress seems to me to elevate the idea of sans-souci almost to sainthood."

ACT CONTRASTED

One letter contrasted Sansoucie's act with the case of Kitty Genovese, the 28-year-old woman attacked three times by the same man in New York one night in 1964. Thirty-eight people watched witout acting while the man took a half-hour to kill the woman.

★ ★ ★

None of those 38 people had died trying to help. Sansoucie had.

★ ★ ★

"You can't blame others for not wanting to help for fear of their lives," an 80-year-old woman wrote in a letter accompanying her $5 check.

But another said, "Thank you for giving us a hero in a day of cowards."

And another said Sansoucie's sacrifice proved two things. One of them was, "It does not pay to become involved and this makes me very sorry."

EXPRESS FRUSTRATION

Many letters expressed frustration about what one writer descrined as our laws which give "every advantage to the criminal."

★ ★ ★

"It is disturbing to me, as I am sure it is to others, that we can no longer feel safe on the streets or in our homes. I feel, however," another wrote, "that there is no chance for this to improve until power is restored to our police and law-enforcing bodies."

★ ★ ★

While five elderly ladies, members of the grand jury association, sorted the letters and counted up the money, a St. Louis police officer stood watch.

The officer spoke more about people's actions than the laws' limitations.

★ ★ ★

"I think the man (Sansoucie) went further than you can expect even the best citizen to," he said. "He did everything he should have done when he chased the man away. It should have ended right there. That's where the police come in."

Pontiac Plan Given Two-Way Boost

The lot would not only allow for denser development above ground but would reduce a developer's initial cost. Payoff of the bonds would be made by charges to property owners at the site — after they are in operation.

Blumberg praised the plan for its "cleverness," citing the importance of the piecemeal construction factor. He said it has "cost control."

★ ★ ★

Blumberg was hired by the PAPC for $600 to make his study. To finish his services he said he will prepare a complete report for printing which would draw together all the material gathered for the Pontiac Plan.

As a HUD official, Fieldhouse could foresee no unsurmountable obstacles in the plan even though in some aspects it does not come under present government regulations.

"I'm excited by the possibilities here," Fieldhouse said. Tracing the history of urban renewal, he said: "What was valid in the 1950s is not valid now," and added that HUD is willing to comply with new thinking.

"With the wholehearted support of the community . . . there isn't anything that can't be done," he said. Fieldhouse is expected to be assigned to Pontiac during implementation of the plan and said, "I'm looking forward to working with you."

★ ★ ★

He said the Pontiac Plan might lead the way for other cities.

At the conclusion of the report, a project of a special task force chaired by Jack J. Simon, a vote of appreciation was given to C. Don Davison of Bruno Leon Associates, a Pontiac native who is credited for the original concepts in the Pontiac Plan.

REPORT RECEIVED

In other business, the PAPC received a report from its Special Committee which studied the PAPC, the City Commission and Pontiac School Board and their interrelationships.

The report, which recommended several changes in the structure and bylaws of the PAPC, is to be studied and then discussed at the Feb. 13 meeting, 7:30 p.m. at the Board of Education office, East Wide Track at Auburn.

★ ★ ★

Members also asked for a report on obtainng fair-employment practice pledges from firms doing work with or for the school board and city. The report was requested for the next meeting.

Knife-Wielding Sky Pirate Forces Jetliner to Havana

MIAMI (AP)—After a side-trip to Cuba, 72 holiday-bound tourists flew on to Nassau today, leaving behind in Havana a knife-wielding man who said he had just completed a Communist mission and was fleeing the FBI.

An Eastern Airlines spokesman said the only passenger who failed to return from Cuba was listed on the manifest as "Mr. R. Bohle." He gave no home town when he bought a ticket, but told a stewardess he was from Indianapolis, Ind., and had attended Purdue University.

★ ★ ★

Stewardess Joyce Jernigan said the hijacker told her his name was Ronnie and he hated the United States.

"He said he was running from the FBI and that he was a Communist who had just completed a mission," the 21-year-old blonde from Miami said. "He didn't say what the mission was about.

"He held a 7-inch knife in my side the whole way" to Havana, Miss Jernigan said. The sky pirate sat beside her and "he would give me a little jab every time somebody came near."

Miss Jernigan said she was in the rear of the plane when the hijacker, feigning illness, asked if he could sit beside her.

★ ★ ★

"After he sat down, he said, 'I hate to tell you this, but we're going to Cuba,'" Miss Jernigan related after she returned to Miami. "I said, 'No, we're not,' But he said: 'Oh yes, we are.' and pulled out that big knife."

The hijacker took over the Boeing 727 jet yesterday shortly after it departed Miami for the Bahamas. The flight to Cuba was brief. The crew and two passengers — Mr. and Mrs. Keith Thrash of Little Rock, Ark. — returned to Miami about 4½ hours later.

HEART PROBLEM

Thrash, a retired Air Force major, said he was permitted to come back aboard the hijacked plane because of a heart condition. He was en route to Nassau for a life insurance company convention.

★ ★ ★

The other passengers returned on different planes early today. Another Eastern plane then whisked them on to Nassau.

Haco Boyd, the mayor of Little Rock, Ark., said: "They gave us the blue plate special treatment."

He said the trip was "an experience," but "Under the circumstances, I didn't like it. I don't like one individual to be able to do something like this. The government ought to do something about it."

'WEAK NOSE'

Boyd said the hijacker was "a rather decent looking person, except for his nose and his mouth which were a little weak."

"They treated us like kings," Ron Ownbey of Russellville, Ark., reported. "They flat layed it on. They wined and dined us and tried to show us the better parts of Havana."

U.S. Envoy Leaves Mexico Ties Firm

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Fulton H. Freeman left his post as U.S. ambassador this month, wearing the highest honor Mexico can give a foreigner and basking in probably the best relations the neighboring countries have ever enjoyed.

Freeman, a 53-year-old career Foreign Service offer, is becoming president of the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies in Monterey, Calif.

★ ★ ★

A jazz-playing, cigar-smoking extrovert, he was awarded the Aztec Eagle in a ceremony at the Foreign Ministry.

"I believe relations between the United States and Mexico are at an altitude now which has seldom, if ever, been reached in the history of diplomatic relations between the two," Freeman said.

JOHNSON APPOINTEE

Freeman, father of three married daughters, was appointed ambassador by President Johnson in February 1964, after three years as ambassador to Colombia.

The son of a Protestant minister, he spent his childhood in China and received part of his education at the University of Lingman before returning to his home state of California to attend Pomona College. Later he went to Princeton University.

★ ★ ★

Freeman joined the Foreign Service in March 1939 as vice consul in Mexico City at a time when relations between his homeland and Mexico were extremely low. Mexican President Lazaro Cardenas had nationalized foreign oil holdings in Mexico, nationalized the railroads and was trying to remove Mexico's economic dependence on foreign capital.

Slightly more than a year later Freeman was assigned to Peking, where he was interned by the Japanese after the attack on Pearl Harbor. He returned to the United States in 1942 and a year later went to Chungking for two years. He then went back to Peking until 1948 when he was named China affairs officer in the State Department.

POSTED TO ITALY

He was attached to the embassy in Rome from 1951 through 1955, then became political adviser to the Supreme Allied Commander of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. In 1958 he was appointed chief inspector of the Foreign Service but held that post only a few months before becoming embassy councilor and deputy chief of mission in Brussels.

Freeman lists several reasons for solid improvement in relations between his country and Mexico.

★ ★ ★

"There have been eight personal meetings between President Johnson and a Mexican president in a little less than five years," Freeman said.

"That certainly constitutes a record for an American president."

ADVANCES

He also mentioned the four meetings of the Mexican-American trade committee, increased tourism for both countries, personal meetings between Mexican and American businessmen, and the creation of a commission for development and friendship along the border.

Freeman said he has no idea whom President-elect Nixon might name as the new ambassador to Mexico, and emphasized that his resignation was made almost a month before the presidential election. It was not, he said, a routine change-of-administration resignation.

★ ★ ★

The ambassador declined to comment in detail on U.S. policy toward its neighbors to the south.

"I think we are on the right track," Freeman said, "but we have made some mistakes in Latin America.

POLICY ADVICE

"We have to continue to be flexible. We have to continue to think of the countries in Latin America individually. They are distinct and separate countries.

"It must be a policy toward 24 separate countries, not a 'Latin-American policy.'"

Junior Editors Quiz on LATITUDES

QUESTION: What are the horse latitudes and how did they get that name?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Warm air rises from continents and oceans. Cooler air comes rushing in to replace it and these movements cause winds.

But the rotation of the earth and unequal heating causes variations in strength and direction of wind. In certain ocean areas, the weather remains calm for long periods of time. Two such calm belts, which lie between more active wind areas, are called horse latitudes (see small map).

When one of the old-time sailing ships, which depended entirely on wind for motive power, became trapped in such an area, it might lie motionless for weeks or months.

Many ships carried horses to the West Indies. When such ships were caught in windless areas, there might not be enough water aboard for the animals to drink, so the horses might have to be destroyed and thrown over the side. From a number of cases of this kind, the area became known as the horse latitudes.

In these latitudes, calm is produced by air sinking quietly from high up. In another belt of calms, the doldrums, the air is moving gently upward.

Top U.S. Expert on Russia Ending a 40-Year Career

MOSCOW (AP) — When U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson goes home next week, he will be ending a diplomatic career that started 40 years ago with his appointment as vice consul in Colombo, Ceylon.

LLEWELLYN THOMPSON

★ ★ ★

Thompson's resignation was announced this week by the White House. He has served two markedly different terms as ambassador to Moscow. The first was in the Khrushchev period. Then, two years ago, Thompson came back and President Johnson expressed hope for improvement in American-Soviet relations.

★ ★ ★

This has not come about. Vietnam has caused continuing Soviet hostility. Thompson helped set up the meeting between Johnson and Premier Alexei Kosygin in Glassboro, N.J., in June 1967, but that produced no breakthrough.

★ ★ ★

When attempts got under way to negotiate peace in Vietnam, the Kremlin took a more conciliatory line. It signed the nuclear nonproliferation treaty and offered to discuss limiting the nuclear missile race.

INVASION SHOCKER

But before talks started, the invasion of Czechoslovakia shocked the West, and the White House refused to go ahead with new moves toward detente. Instead it backed a tougher Atlantic Alliance policy.

★ ★ ★

Thompson, a leading State Department expert on Soviet affairs and widely considered an able diplomat, could make little progress.

★ ★ ★

During the two last years the ambassador has been without the round of Kremlin receptions and frequent meetings with Soviet leaders that characterized the Khrushchev period. He has had only rare talks with the top men, who avoid mixing with Western diplomats.

During his first tour as ambassador here in 1957-62 Premier Nikita Khrushchev championed peaceful coexistence and attempted to come to terms with the United States.

LEADING ROLE

Thompson then talked regularly with the Soviet premier and was credited with a skillful hand in helping guide his country through the U2, Cuban and other crises of the period. He played a leading role in summit meetings for both Presidents Eisenhower and Kennedy, then returned to Washington for five years as a special presidential consultant on Soviet affairs.

★ ★ ★

He is one of the most prominent of the old group of Kremlin experts now leaving the foreign service.

★ ★ ★

Thompson is 64. He served as second secretary in charge of the Moscow embassy during the war years of 1940-44, winning the Department of State's Medal of Freedom for handling affairs "at the risk of capture." During this period he also mastered the Russian language.

★ ★ ★

"There was little else to do in Moscow during the siege," he once explained. "I took a lesson a day and spent most evenings studying behind the blackout curtains."

The first photographs of the moon were taken in 1840 by John William Draper.

Florida Has a Museum on Wheels

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Florida schoolchildren can go back in time to earlier days of the state's history through a traveling time machine — a museum on wheels.

Reproducing the atmosphere, as well as the artifacts, of Florida's colorful history the exhibit is contained in a 12-foot-by-45-foot trailer that will cover the roads of north central Florida.

★ ★ ★

It was produced by the Florida State Museum, a department of the University of Florida, in cooperation with St. Johns County.

Visitors see the captain's quarters of an early sailing ship, complete with a seascape through the window that rocks with the "roll" of the ship.

SMELL OF SEAWEED

There's a smell of seaweed and brine and the sound of creaking rigging, running feet and muffled Spanish commands.

A rough-hewn pioneer cabin looks ready for the frontier wife to return to finish dinner, with a scent of spices in the air, hand carved tools ready to be used and a rope-strung bed.

WTH Will Present 'Cinderella'

By JANICE CRISP

Waterford Township High School's Annual Children's Theatre presentation is scheduled for today at 4 p.m. with a second performance at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. It will be given in the WTH gymnasium, with an admission charge of 25 cents.

This year, the play chosen by the dramatics department is "Cinderella." However, it will be slightly different from the traditional fairy tale.

"It's a little more corny and funny than the regular version," said the play's student director, Carol Schaad.

Monday and Tuesday of this week, the show went on the road and visited area grade schools. A few scenes from the play were shown to help with publicity.

CAST IS LISTED

Roles will be played by Ruth Anne Corey, Cinderella; Randy Greene, prince; Duane Williams, prime minister; and Suzi Neff, fairy godmother.

The parts of the three stepsisters will be taken by Geni Thurston, Grizelda; Lois Schlosser, Matilda; and Veonne Ostrander, Frump. Jan Robinson plays the stepmother.

Ladies are Sandy Armstrong, Lori Jones, Sally Nelson and Jackie Pilet. Lords are Dan Dalton, Dennis Perrault, Dan Sherman and Tom Whaley.

Others are Cindy Case, lady one; Sharon Williams, lady two; and Debbie Greene, lady three.

DIRECTOR NAMED

The play is directed by Carol Schaad, with Jackie Pilet, assistant director; Ann Hobart, producer; and Mary Reynolds, stage manager.

Last Friday, Waterford Township and Kettering high school ski teams played host to a team from Manistee. Their team members were entertained Friday, and then spent the night with the host skiers. Saturday, the Manisteers competed in the meet with these two schools.

Waterford skiers who placed high in the meet were Debbie Morris, first; and Jim Nye, second.

All girls interested in competing for the area title of Miss March of Dimes should sign up now.

The Skippers will play at Farmington tonight in basketball.

Teacher Changes at Northern

By LARRY HELTSLEY

With the change of the year came a change in teachers for many Pontiac Northern students.

Several adjustments have been made in teacher assignments, and three new teachers have been added to the staff.

★ ★ ★

After the semester break, Sandra Filion and Carl Sturgeon will begin their duties at PNH.

"Vandalism" at school and on the streets was the discussion topic at the PTSA meeting Wednesday night. Entertainment and refreshments were provided by PTSA members.

BUSY MONEY-MAKERS

All three classes at Northern are in the planning stages for moneymaking projects.

Sophomores are planning a sock hop as their first project.

Junior class members will hold a pancake supper Feb. 7 in the cafeteria to raise money for their treasury.

Donkey basketball will be seen for the first time in PNH history — another first for the seniors. Senior class members will play a team of faculty all-stars in late February. Players and cleanup volunteers are being sought for the game.

FOR SENIOR PROM

Profits from the game will be used to finance the senior prom. Money will also be set aside to establish a scholarship fund for deserving seniors for the senior trip.

★ ★ ★

Varsity club members have begun preparations for the annual Valentine dance. Band auditions, committee formation and organization procedures are under way as the varsity club will hold one of its many fund-raising activities.

★ ★ ★

Scholarships will be awarded to several deserving senior varsity club members to help support their college educations.

Cheerleaders at Mott Sport New Uniforms

By GEORGIA ROSEWALL

Along with the new chants and cheers that accompany basketball season, Waterford Mott varsity cheerleaders are sporting new uniforms.

The powder blue culottes and sweaters, on order since last year, arrived in time for the first basketball game. Navy blue trim around the neckline and skirt pleats complete the color scheme.

★ ★ ★

Varsity cheerleaders are Cindy Shanabrook, captain; Dawn Saffron, Mari Lunn Hutson, Kathe Moore, Dee Dee Smith and Diane Detmer.

The curriculum planning committee recently announced results of a poll asking students for their opinions on the curriculum, including what they would like to see changed.

SIMILAR IDEAS

The committee learned that both students and teachers made the same proposals, like more variety in art courses and more specialized study in science.

Students also gave their opinions on independent study and a pass-fail grading system.

★ ★ ★

School Government Board members conducted a student poll of their own this week.

Students were asked for opinions on long haircuts; wearing coats in school; cigarettes showing in shirt pockets; reconsidering the penalties for violating the smoking policy; and teacher sovereignty in classrooms.

POSSIBLE CHANGES

Results of the poll will determine whether or not Mott's rules should be changed.

Juniors will take the National Merit Scholarship Test Feb. 15 at Waterford Township.

Interested students can register this week in the office. Registration fee is $2.

★ ★ ★

Members of the ski team are Ken Pass, Gary Slocum, Rich Lietner, John Cudnohutsky, Kenise Edwards, Harry Drake, Bob Whitlow and Ann Edwards, Karel McCulloch, Pam Morse, Sandy Schriner and Sue Freeman.

OUTINGS

Coach George Perry said that sometime during the season the team would take a trip to Grayling and to Boyne Mountain.

Waterford Mott will meet Bloomfield Lahser tonight in the WTH gym. Reserve game is scheduled for 6:30, with varsity at 8.

Due to a teachers' workshop, Mott students did not attend classes today.

Newly Constructed Library Is Open to Groves Students

By BENITA ROSEN

At long last, the newly constructed library at Wylie E. Groves High School is available for students use.

When Groves students reconvened after Christmas vacation, the new library was open, the construction completed and the books and materials that were formerly situated in the temporary library room were indexed in the newer and larger room.

★ ★ ★

The temporary library, which has been in use for the last four months because of the construction, was inadequate for the almost 1,900 students at Groves.

Now that the new library is completed, students are able to employ such additional study aids as a central reading lounge and study and listening carrels, the latter for hearing language tapes.

COPY MACHINE

A Student Corps-sponsored copy machine has been included with the new equipment.

For the first time, a room that is often used by students has been carpeted to cut down on the noise in the library.

★ ★ ★

Near the checkout desk, a paperback book exchange has been set up. This will enable students who are done with a particular book and wish to read another to bring in their own book and exchange it.

Along with the new appearance of the library, new rules for its use during study halls will be enforced.

MORE LIBERAL

In the past, it was only possible to use the library with a pass from a teacher. Now, students with study halls can either go to C-9, a restricted study room; D-1, a study hour for quiet talking; or to the library for unlimited use of the facilities.

At any time during the study hall a student may change rooms, if he does so quietly and without causing any trouble.

★ ★ ★

Those who abuse the privilege of study hall freedom, will be sent back to the enforced study hour room, C-9.

WLC Has a New Look

By DONNA SILLS

Among the sights of the new year at Walled Lake Central High School are several student teachers from Michigan State University.

They will work at the high school until the middle of March. Each student teacher is assigned to a teacher in the field he or she is studying.

The soon-to-be teachers will learn classroom procedure and teaching methods as well as gain experience guiding a class.

Many students at Walled Lake are preparing for the musical tryouts. This year the high school will present "My Fair Lady" at the end of May. The play is under the direction of Alexander Zerban, with the help of Debbie Fockler, student assistant director.

Helmut Holland-Moritz is the orchestra director and the students will soon begin music practice.

All students of Walled Lake Central High School are eligible to try out for the musical. Tryouts consist of three parts — reading, singing and dancing. Every person must audition in all three areas. Tryouts will last througtout the month and rehearsals will begin in February.

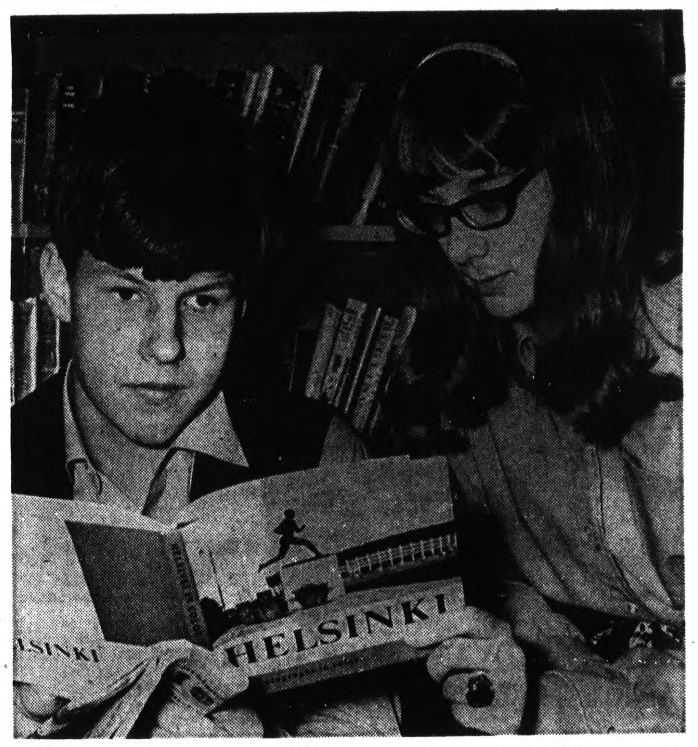

This week saw the last Walled Lake league debate. The last West Oakland league debate was yesterday and today, the last Metropolitan league was held.

Our Lady Has New Principal

By CHRIS GINGRAS

As the first semester draws to a close, the winds of change are blowing at Our Lady of the Lakes High School as a new principal and new faculty member joined the OLL staff.

Sister Mary Paul, O.P., returns as principal after a three and a half year absence.

★ ★ ★

She replaces Sister Mary Celine, O.P., who was principal of the OLL grade school for three years and who has been high school principal since September.

★ ★ ★

Sister Paul comes to us from Saint Benedict's in Pontiac, where she has been principal since September. Prior to that she was principal of Sts. Andrew and Benedict schools of Detroit.

REMEMBER HER?

Many students here at Lakes will also remember her as principal from grade school days.

★ ★ ★

Also joining the staff is Ann Beardsley. Miss Beardsley is a graduate of Marygrove College, with a degree in Spanish.

★ ★ ★

She has used her Spanish quite extensively, as she spent the summer of 1966 working in Mexico with a volunteer student program from Detroit.

★ ★ ★

She also spent the summer months of 1968 studying at the University of Buffalo and in Barcelona, Spain.

★ ★ ★

Aside from her teaching duties of both Spanish and senior sociology, Miss Beardsley will be dean of girls and actively involved in the counseling program.

Andover Club Shows Movie

By ANN PETERS

The French Club of Bloomfield Hills Andover High School held its first French movie night last night.

"The Case of Doctor Laurent" was presented in Andover's Little Theater to students from all area schools.

This film is the first in a series which will include such classics as "Crime and Punishment" and "La Symphonie Pastorale."

Money raised from these movies will be spent on club activities.

Plans were also revealed this week for Andover's annual Winter Carnival. Sponsored by the Student Council, it will be held the last week of February.

The festivities will begin with the judging of class ice sculptures and will end with the annual semiformal dance.

He's Here From Finland

Holly's Harri Says 'Hello'

By MARCIA CLARK

"'Mol' or 'hei' is the way we say hello in Finland," said Harri Peltola, Holly High School's Finnish exchange student.

"My home is in Helsinki. I have one brother, Mauri, who will soon be 15. Both my parents work. My father is an English professor at the university, and my mother is an anesthesiologist at a local hospital.

★ ★ ★

"We live in town for the winter and in the country in the summer."

Harri's American hosts are the Jack Montgomerys of Holly. He has two American brothers, Bob and Tom, and one sister Julie.

MORE VACATION

"We go to school six days a week, but school always starts Sept. 1 and ends May 30. Going to school on Saturday isn't as bad as it might seem . . . for we get a three week Christmas vacation, a 10-day midwinter vacation (usually in February) and a six-day Easter vacation.

"Also we get one day off every month. But I'll have to admit, I prefer your five-day system.

★ ★ ★

"The grading scale is different. Students are graded from four to 10, with five being the lowest possible passing grade. Schools are not as restricted in Helsinki. During free hours, students are free to come and go as they please. Most go to a local coffee bar and talk to their friends.

"Many of the sports played in America," he added, "are also played in Finland." Though he enjoys participating in many sports, Harri's favorite is swimming. He also gives a fond nod to bicycling. "Once I rode around our lake. It's about 30 miles."

A TOP SKIER

A member of the HHS Ski Club, Harry is a top skier.

"Most of the skiing in Finland is cross-country," he continued. "And, it's sort of a rich man's sport, for you can't rent your equipment, you must buy it.

"The food in Finland is much like that here except that there are less vegetables and we eat more potatoes. The school lunches are better here. In Finland, they only serve a one-course lunch. It costs about 10 cents for each meal but you have to sign up for the entire semester.

★ ★ ★

"Semesters aren't as long as here. They end just before Christmas. And . . . we have no finals."

LIKE TO DANCE

The Finnish teen-agers like to dance as do their American counterparts. The music is provided by either bands or records. But the dances usually are held only in the cities.

"Ninety per cent," said Harri, "no, more like 95 per cent of the kids, go to these dances without dates."

★ ★ ★

Harri will return to Finland in July where he will continue his education.

"I would like to be a doctor, preferably an anesthesiologist."

Pontiac Catholic Titans Set Sight on League Championship

By GERI KLINKHAMER

Hopes are high at Pontiac Catholic High School as the new year brings another chance of a championship for the girls' varsity basketball team.

Last year the Titan girls were the only team able to bring home a trophy to the newly hallowed halls of Pontiac Catholic.

★ ★ ★

This year, after being moved up to the AA Northeast Catholic League, they again have set this goal and have strengthened their title possibilities by winning the first three league games.

The first game was against St. Ladislaus. Lad's had control the first half to lead by two points, but the Titans rallied the second half and won, 40-32.

LED ALL THE WAY

The second game, PC controlled all the way and downed St. Clement, 36-19.

The third game Sunday against Servite was one in which each team gained and lost the lead many times. Regulation play ended in a 33-33 tie.

The Titan Girls applied the pressure in overtime and went on to win, 41-35.

★ ★ ★

The junior varsity has won one of three games.

It dropped the first game to St. Ladislaus, 16-13. In its second game, the team came on strong to defeat St. Clement, 26-14.

TIME RUNS OUT

Against Servite, the junior varsity had it rougher than the varsity. Time ran out before it was able to erase the two-point lead held by Servite, which won 18-16.

No specific captains were named by either team. Both are under the direction of Mrs. J. Nickman, basketball coach.

★ ★ ★

The unbeaten varsity includes Vivian Barnes, Fran Finnegan, Maureen Daugherty, Debbie Deuman, Jane Staszkiewicz, Debbie Campbell, Carmen Guillean, Pat Tyrell, Sue Schmansky, Martha Bieri and Pat Brady.

The JV team includes Denise Deuman, JoAnne Walter, Pat Smith, Maureen Horton, Jackie O'Conner, Marilyn Bokota, Cheryl Dove, Juanita Jiminez, Rita Evans, Nancy Polmear, Rendy Vidrio and Barb Gross. Sue Giglio is student manager.

SCHOOL NEWSPAPER

After a year's waiting, PC finally has a student newspaper. The "Titan Tally-Up" will be a bi-monthly publication under the direction of Sister Mary De Lima, journalism instructor.

★ ★ ★

Editors chosen are: Patrick Francken, editor in chief; John Parle, sports editor; and Chris Carry, feature page editor. The paper plans to have its first publication around the end of January.

★ ★ ★

The Ski Club went to its first meet of the season Wednesday. It is under the direction of Cynthia Moloney, physical education instructor.

Pontiac Press Photo

ON THEIR WAY—If extra practice sessions can guarantee Pontiac Catholic High School seniors (from left) Sue Giglio, Maureen Daugherty and Debbie Deuman a basketball championship, they are on their way to success. Last year, the varsity girls' basketball team brought home the bacon in the form of a trophy. To date, the team is undefeated in the AA Northeast Catholic League. Mrs. J. Nickman is the girls' coach.

SCHOOL NEWS ROUNDUP

Avondale

By KAREN SHELDON

Students of Avondale High School are awaiting the arrival of exchange student Hector Daniel Senatore Jan. 17.

Hector, 16, from Motevideo, Uruguay, will stay with the Edmund O'Rourkes of 3423 Nichols, Pontiac Township.

★ ★ ★

Sports, holidays and classes are just a few of the activities that Hector enjoys. He likes traveling and learning about different countries, their customs, and how the inhabitants think and act.

Upon returning home, Hector hopes to study engineering at a university in Montevideo.

HOT LUNCH PROGRAM

The Student Council of AHS is always busy. Yesterday the director of food services for Oakland County Schools, Verna Jehnsen, addressed the council regarding the hot lunch program in high schools.

Flint Northwestern Schools and Avondale Schools are planning a cultural exchange. Student Council members from AHS will travel to Flint to discuss a conference held recently at Camp Kett.

★ ★ ★

Novi

By THOM HOLMES

Hamlet goes underground at Novi High School — at least that's the word from the senior English class. Sue Carroll, English teacher, is working with the students to produce their own version of the Shakespearean tragedy.

The entire production will be the work of the students: writing, casting, directing and, hopefully, filming.

★ ★ ★

Miss Carroll hopes that this project may help some students enjoy Shakespeare more.

As of now, the cast has not been completely selected. Initial filming may begin within a month. It is hoped that the completed movie may be shown to the entire high schhool.

★ ★ ★

The Novi High School Ski Club will venture on its first outing tomorrow morning. It will go to Mt. Brighton. More than half of the ski club members have never skied before.

Dominican

By ANDI BARNES

Seniors at Dominican Academy, preparing for graduation, have chosen the traditional class class motto and song.

As its motto, the class of 1969 chose:

"I sought my soul, but my soul
I could not see.
I sought my God,
But He eluded me.
I sought my brother and found all three."

The class chose blue, green and silver for its colors and lilies of the valley as its flower.

★ ★ ★

The girls agreed upon "I've Got to Be Me" by Sammy Davis Jr. as their song. St. Jude was chosen as the patron saint of the class.

Brandon

By MARJORIE WIDMAN

Last weekend was the annual ski trip to Boyne Highlands for the Brandon High School Ski Club.

Chaperones were Al Martus, Terry Tressler, Tim Young, Roger Pidington and Rosaley Serich.

★ ★ ★

Only two of the chaperones had experience on skis. The others were going for the first time and the patterns that they made in the show banks showed it.

Saturday a few of the young people went to the Club Poneytail for dancing to discover that two of the chaperones could really "dance to the music."

Peasants Love Colombian President

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — "Mr. President, we trust you."

The coarsely written placard, waved by a smiling peasant girl, caught the eye of President Carlos Lleras as he climbed a muddy hill in an isolated province where he had gone in his campaign to keep in touch with the people.

★ ★ ★

The "weekend Carlos Lleras-style" has become a household word in Colombia. Thousands of bureaucrats in different parts of the country have learned to fear it. Many Colombians see it as a hope that the usually lofty "Bogota government" will get acquainted with their problems.

Of the 122 weekends that have gone by since he reached power, Lleras has spent 74 out in the boondocks lashing away at inefficient bureaucrats and patiently listening to complaints.

80,000 MILES

He has traveled more than 80,000 miles by air and land.

The purpose is to keep in tune with feeling of the people toward his administration, to learn about needs and to check if the local administrations are operating with efficiency, a presidential spokesman says.

Such a weekend was spent by Lleras at Bucaramanga, capital of the state of Santander, 350 miles north of Bogota.

Accompanied by 6 of his 13 ministers, Lleras boarded an uncomfortable Hercules C130 cargo plane which touched down in the mountain-surrounded Bucaramanga airport 45 minutes later.

CHEERED BY CROWD

The temperature was 95. Lleras, impeccably dressed in a dark suit with a dark red tie, jumped out of the plane to be cheered by a crowd estimated by police at 2,000 including some small delegations of workers and peasants.

★ ★ ★

The airport, and most of the city of 300,000 were decorated with yellow, blue and red national flags and yellow and green city flags as well as with red flags denoting the Liberal party.

After shaking hands with scores of men, women and children, Lleras boarded a black hardtop Mercedes for a six-mile ride to one of Colombia's biggest heavy industry plants to be officially inaugurated by him.

"What is this?" was the usual question he asked of machine operators as he took a complete tour of the machine tool-making factory.

Then, the inspection finished, he delivered a stinging political speech by radio to all the nation from a makeshift platform in one of the factory wings.

Using the new factory as an example of what the nation can do to enhance industrialization, Lleras demanded that the country not "rely exclusively on foreign investment, and be the owner of its own destiny." He also criticized Colombian unions for opposing his programs.

★ ★ ★

Lleras attended a lunch given by the most prominent businessmen of Bucaramanga. Slowly sipping his favorite drink, guava juice, he listened for a couple of hours to the complaints of the businessmen without making any comments.

After lunch Lleras drove to the local industrial university and to a new hospital, inspecting both.

ATTEMPT FEARED

The last scheduled activity in the day was a meeting with the communal action leaders of the state, where Lleras gave a pep talk. The brief speech was interrupted several times by power failure, causing consternation to the security agents who feared that the total darkness enveloping the covered gymnasium might be used in an attempt on his life.

The president got up early next morning and attended Mass before boarding an air force helicopter to inspect several public works in progress and demand detailed explanations from the officials in charge.

★ ★ ★

Then he flew in the same light chopper to a neighboring mountainous area, surrounded by jungle. He met there with several hundred peasants and gave many property titles for lands they had been working for years. It had been expropriated from its old owners, within the framework of the agrarian reform program.

The favored peasants, many of them openly crying, stood in line to receive the titles. Many embraced the president while he questioned them on their needs.

College Honors Its Historian

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Allan Nevins, widely known historian, is the 31st recipient of the Alexander Hamilton Medal, presented annually by the Association of the Alumni of Columbia College.

The award is named for the American statesman who was a student at King's College, as Columbia was known before the Revolutionary War. It is given to an alumnus or present or former faculty member of the College "in recognition of distinguished service and accomplishment in any field of human endeavor."

Nevins, De Witt Clinton professor emeritus of American history at Columbia University, is a Pulitzer prize-winning author who was a member of the faculty from 1928 to 1958. He then became a research scholar at the Henry E. Huntington Library in San Marino, Calif.

He founded Columbia University's oral history project 20 years ago, as a means of recording for posterity the remembrances of persons whose intimate accounts of times and events have become of great assistance to historians.

Woman Assaulted

Tippit Son Charged

DALLAS (UPI)—The 19-year-old son of the Dallas policeman slain by presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald has been charged with assault with intent to rape, it was reported Wednesday by the Dallas district attorney's office.

TIPPIT

Charles Allen Tippit, one of the beneficiaries of a half-million-dollar trust set up from donations to his mother following the shooting, is charged with attacking a 30-year-old woman in her apartment on New Year's Eve.

★ ★ ★

The charges will be presented to a grand jury within three weeks, said Dallas Dist. Atty. Henry Wade.

★ ★ ★

If there is an indictment, trial will be within two weeks, Wade said. Conviction could bring a life sentence.

INCRIMINATING EVIDENCE

Police said young Tippit's wallet was found on the floor of the Oak Cliff apartment of the woman who was attacked.

The assault victim told police she was attacked as she entered her apartment after leaving a New Year's party in another apartment. She said the attacker forced her into the bedroom and threw her on the bed, hitting her on the face and ripping her undergarments.

★ ★ ★

A group of the woman's friends came into the room, frightening away her attacker.

Charles' father, J. D. Tippit, was gunned down in Oak Cliff, a Dallas suburban area, Nov. 22, 1963, the day President John F. Kennedy was killed.

OSWALD DEED

Dallas police and the Warren Commission, set up to investigate the Kennedy assassination, both agreed Oswald killed Tippit.

★ ★ ★

Patrolman Tippit was felled by two bullets as he chased Oswald less than an hour after Kennedy was shot. Tippit had spotted Oswald in Oak Cliff as he was crusing in his patrol car. He was killed as he got out of the car.

Counterterror Now the Strategy in Israel

JERUSALEM (UPI) — In the Old Testament, it is eye-for-an-eye, tooth-for-a-tooth justice. In the New Testament of Israeli strategy—retaliation raiding—it is called bloodless counterterror.

It lies behind the dark talk of possible Middle East doom that is coming from such worried men as U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Jordan's King Hussein.

★ ★ ★

It is the policy championed by Moshe Dayan, this nation's military hero. It is not thrilling citizens of Israel who would prefer to be known for turning desert into farmland. But counterterror now is what Israeli leaders believe may be the only way toward eventual national security in a holy land where hate is thy neighbor.

Dec. 28 officially marks the start of the new strategy in Israel's fight for what Israelis regard as their survival.

POUNCED ON AIRPORT

Israeli commandos pounced on Beirut Airport and, in 15 minutes, blew up 13 Lebanese airliners, did $55 to $100 million damage and flew home in the helicopters that brought them.

Since the 1967 war with the Arabs, Israel has—in her eyes—suffered a snowballing wave of Arab guerrilla attacks against her borders.

Others, Arabs and Westerners, may see a difference between the Arab armies that do relatively little of the raiding and the guerrillas who plant bombs, shell farms and fire at tractor crews.

But regular or irregular, the enemy is the enemy to Israel and the Beirut raid marked the opening of the campaign Israel had been warning of—making the Arab nations directly responsible for anti-Israeli acts born on their soil.

From now on, civilian installations in the Arab states will be as open to danger as the civilian targets the guerillas seek on Israeli's frontiers. This is the counterterror.

But the Israel plan is not to shed civilian blood in these raids. The aim is to destroy property.

★ ★ ★

There were doubts about the policy. But the naysayers have fallen silent since Athens, and, since, shortly before, a terror bomb in Jerusalem killed 12 civilians and wounded 70.

The major criticism in Israel is that maybe the counterterror will not work.

The critics argue it may only end in the major world powers stepping in and making peace their way in the middle East. Few Israelis see this as good; they believe their border once more would be open for an Arab attack sure to come, an Arab drive aimed at what Israelis believe is extermination of this nation and this race.

Mom Will Learn Trust If You Behave Yourself

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: When my sister was 15 she got in trouble and you know the rest. I was nine at the time and I've been trying to make up for her mistake ever since so my mother will be proud of at least one of us.

Well, I'm 13 now and the kids seem to like me and I am quite popular, but my problem is my mother. She worries about me all the time, and she keeps pushing my sister's past on me. It's like leading two lives. My own and what my mother thinks I am.

'I think I have proved to other people that I am not a "bad" girl like my sister, but I'm still trying to prove to my mother that she can really trust me. Can you help me, Abby?

LIVING TWO LIVES

DEAR LIVING: Don't blame your mother for "worrying." It's not easy for her to forget what she went through with your sister. But one mistake doesn't make a girl "bad," so just concentrate on behaving yourself and your mother will "really" trust you soon.

DEAR ABBY: I am 13 years old and read your column and I sure wish you would put this in.

The man who was mad at his wife because he thought he couldn't father a child at his age and he said he was over 60 should listen to this. My grandfather is 82 years old and he has 23 children, and the youngest is ten years old, so there. And you can sign this "PROUD OF GRANDPA" IN RIVERSIDE

CONFIDENTIAL TO FRANKIE BOY: The man who is always talking about how great he is with the women is doing what he does best. Talking.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for all Occasions."

A Money Gift for Small Tot Not Much Fun

By ELIZABETH L. POST
Of The Emily Post Institute

Dear Mrs. Post: Recently I went to a birthday party for a young boy, and many of the gift toys were broken before the party had finished. I was wondering why people don't give money for future education. Is it proper to give money rather than a toy?—Mrs. M.G.

Dear Mrs. G.: Relatives and godparents often give money as a gift and that's fine. But I sympathize with the poor little boy — happily looking forward to toys and games for his birthday — who winds up with a handful of paper and is told it will be great for his future education.

In a sense the money gifts are more for the parents than the child. However, I do approve of your idea of giving a gift of serious, lasting value. I suggest that if you wish to do that, you also give the child a very inexpensive present — it need not be made to last, but he can at least have the fun of opening it and enjoying it on his birthday.

Hermione Gingold on Stage Saturday

Actress - comedienne Hermoine Gingold will narrate Walton's "Facade" Suite with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra in a special Kresge Concert Saturday.

The concert, conducted by Sixten Ehrling, will begin at 8:30 p.m. in Ford Auditorium.

"Facade" consists of twenty-two poems by Dame Edith Sitwell set to music by composer William Walton, a friend of the Sitwell family.

Orchestral works on the program are Walton's "Johannesburg Festival Overture" and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6 in B minor ("Pathetique").

The program is presented in conjunction with a special grant from the Kresge Foundation, which makes possible popular ticket prices.

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, which celebrates its thirtieth anniversary this year, will present tts annual Souvenir Program at this concert.

List of Wardrobe Essentials Shorter Than Many Think

What does "wardrobe" really mean? Get your pencil out and make a list as though you were off on a trip for at least two weeks. Compare it with the following:

★ ★ ★

1. The basic clothes already described in past articles: a lightweight and warm coat, two suits of different warmth (one might be a two or three-piece knit suit), and either a basic dress or blouse-and-skirt for mild and winter weather.

★ ★ ★

2. A cocktail dress, preferably two. One could be a little black dress with something bare about it . . . the other might have a matching jacket.

★ ★ ★

3. An evening dress. Whether you will wear it a lot isn't the point, nor is the price. It can be a little top and a long skirt, a long-sleeved, full length shirtwaist dress; a short chiffon or lace, pale crepe or glittery.

★ ★ ★

Whatever it is, it needs an evening type of covering. For short black dress, a short black silk raincoat sometimes does the trick, much as it does for after dark. But most evening clothes look best with short or full length cloth coats to match or harmonize.

COMPLETE THE LIST

4. Two dresses, other than your basic dress, for every season. For summer, you'll naturally need leisure dresses, too. If you're a sweater-and-skirt fan, you might substitute different sweaters with a couple of skirts (one wool, one linen or cotton) for the dresses.

★ ★ ★

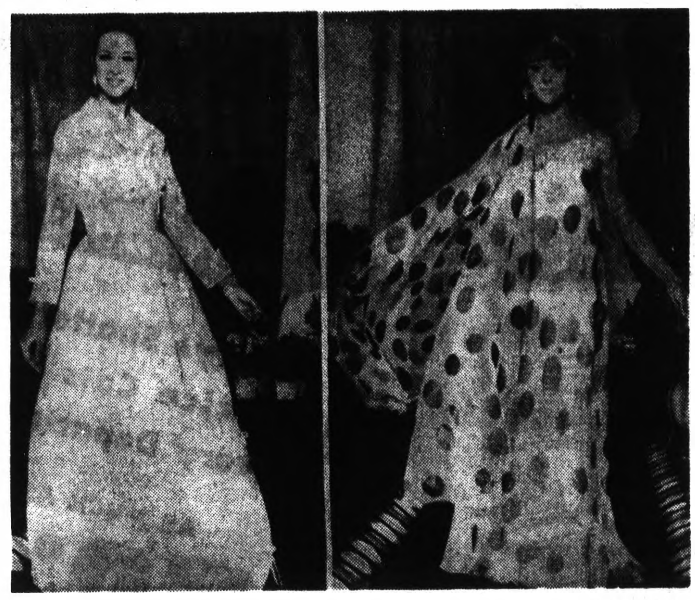

This is the last of the series on fashion today. You may send for all the material in a booklet, one of a series issued free by the ILGWU, 275 7th Ave., New York City 10001. Other booklets are available on "Girdles and Bras," "Planning Your Trousseau", "Travel in Style" and "How to Dress Your Little Girl."

Not Speedy Enough

JACKSON (AP) — Two Leoni Township deputies added midwifery to their duties late Wednesday, after they gave chase to a speeding car.

★ ★ ★

Unlike the familiar scene in which the police escort the car to the hospital after they discover the driver was speeding because of an expectant mother, the deputies reached the car just after Mrs. Hoy Wilson, Jr., had given birth to a five-pound son. Both were reported well in a Jackson hospital.

Otsego Holiday Is Fashion Scene

By SHIRLEY GRAY

The clothes the gals wore this holiday season at Otsego, says one who was there, were "gorgeous, unbelievable."

One of the apres-ski standouts was Mrs. Richard (Nancy) Kern in a leopard tunic over a long-sleeved black blouse. Black hose completed the ensemble.

Mrs. Rinehart (Ann) Bright went Oriental, with a turquoise and gold long-sleeved long coat, slit up the side, over trousers. Liz DeLorean was a sensation in bell-bottom trousers of silver lame and matching long-sleeved blouse.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. George (Trudy) Huebner relaxed in a long black velvet skirt and a long-sleeved white blouse topped by a Hong Kong vest of solid gold sequins and glitter.

★ ★ ★

The white slacks and tunic worn by Mrs. Wayne (Betty) Andreae had deep panels of sequined aquamarine on the front of the tunic and the trouser bottoms.

Luxurious velvet by Pucci was the choice of Mrs. Joe (Marilyn) Mack. Topping off the trousers and sleeveless jacket was a blouse in a dazzling print of turquoise, blue and green on a white ground.

★ ★ ★

Got the mid-winter blahs? Bored with white sales? Bloomfield Open Hunt is having informal supper club dancing on three successive Fridays — January 11, 18 and 25 — while other area clubs are closed. Dress is informal; no reservations required.

New Board of Supervisors Gains the Attention of Women

By JUNE ELERT

The first meeting of the newly-structured Board of Supervisors for Oakland County brought out a handful of spectators, about half of them women.

Maybe it's not quantity that's important here. The quality of interest was intense.

I'll by-pass the male Board-watchers, except to note that they equalled the women in their interest, with whispered conferences, kaleidoscopic caucuses seat-hopping and overheard bets on the proceedings, with lunch as the stake.

Who would have thought that Robert's Rules of Order could cause such commotion?

GARB

Most of the women present were dressed for the weather, some in slacks and boots, with a few birds in bright plumage here and there.

Julia Maddock, Deputy County Clerk, smoothly-coiffed and slender, performed her duties quietly on the bench.

Another busy woman there was Reta Erickson of Fenmore Street, a veteran of 13 years' service to the Board in the capacity of assistant clerk and secretary. At the beck and call of the 27 members, she made many unobtrusive trips here and there, completely unruffled by the demands on her.

★ ★ ★

Come to think of it, I probably saw her in low gear, since 27 bosses must be an improvement over the former 87.

At lunch, compressed into a caucus recess, I met Mrs. Ruth Hagen who had spent the morning trying to find an interesting court case to listen to.

She showed up in the Supervisors' Auditorium later and seemed quite at home there, meeting some Board members and spectators with handshakes and first-name greetings.

SOLE WOMAN

The only woman member of the Board, Mary Bawden, (Mrs. Gravin Jr.) was favored by the chair by being asked to serve as teller of a ballot count.

★ ★ ★

The League of Women Voters had some representatives in the audience. Their purpose was to see what disposition would be made of the League's appeal to the Board to increase the food and clothing allotment for ADC mothers. The figure, they told me, has remained stationary since 1961, despite the rise in the cost of living.

Mrs. William (Margaret) Essery represented Birmingham-Bloomfield; Mrs. Ross (Mary Lou) Callaway was there as president of the West Bloomfield Township group.

The eight units in this area have combined in a cooperative effort to get this appeal acted upon, and a letter was sent (prior to the meeting) to each of the Board members.

Mrs. Carol Sweeney, one of the leaders of the ADC mothers' sit-in at the courthouse a couple of months ago, was an interested spectator, along with a couple of friends.

One prodigious knitter worked throughout the proceedings on a beautifully-patterned garment in pale gold.

Watching her, I wondered, at one point, if she might be wearing it before the new chairman was elected.

You Must Contribute Over Half of Support

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Can you claim your mother or father as a dependent on your federal income tax return for this year, even though her Social Security payments have been increased automatically from $600 to $660?

You may well be able to claim her again for this year. But don't just pick up last year's support figures in order to prove it!

While Social Security payments are not considered gross income, they are counted as income toward the support of the recipient. You must therefore be able to show that you contributed more than half of your mother's support in order to claim her as a dependent.

MORE

Under the new SS law, every beneficiary, starting last February, is receiving an increase in payments of at least 13 per cent. So if your mother is spending her entire Social Security allotment per year toward her own support, you must spend a greater amount out of your own pocket toward her total support costs in order to get this tax deduction.

★ ★ ★

That means that you must be able to prove that you spent more, probably, this last year on your mother than you did the year before. With the general increase in the cost of living, no doubt you actually did. Just be sure to check your records with extra care.

Altar Society Elects Officers

Mrs. Joseph Emmerth was elected president of the St. Michael's Altar Society at a meeting in the parish hall Tuesday evening.

★ ★ ★

Others to assume new posts are Mrs. Leo Hope, first vice president; Mrs. Harold Dugan, second vice president; Mrs. Louis Petrusha and Rose Griffin, secretaries and Mrs. Gordon Gillette, treasurer.

When paper or parchment lampshades are new, give them a light coat of either paste or liquid wax and polish gently. All the care they will need from then on is dusting.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

It just slips up on us! Aging is such a gradual process that it must accumulate some results like a few lines, droops, extra pounds or bulges, before we realize what is happening to us. We cannot avoid growing older. However, the aging process can be slowed down tremendously and the appearance of age delayed by a few important daily routines.

Of all of these, regular daily exercise is one of the most important, if not the most important. It is becoming increasingly apparent that we are more likely to rust out than to wear out.

★ ★ ★

Exercise should be a part of any reducing program or self-improvement routine unless there is some medical reason for not including it. It burns up calories. It tones as the pounds disappear and is therefore preventative to flabbiness.

Also, it is the only way you can redistribute your weight more attractively. Make exercise a part of your slimming program. Soon you will be so pleased with the results, beauty-wise and health-wise, that you will make it a lifetime habit.

Here are some things to remember:

- Always have your heart and blood pressure checked before beginning.
- Begin slowly and build up gradually. Start doing only a few exercises a few times a day and gradually increase the number of exercises you are doing and the number of times you do each one. Do not stop exercising if you have some sore muscles. Soak in a hot tub. Continue, doing what you can. This will soon pass.
- Try to do the exercises every day. It does not matter when you do them except that it should be several hours after eating.
- Follow directions carefully. The WAY you do an exercise can make a great difference in the results you get.
- If you are tired rather than refreshed after a reasonable rest you are doing too much. Cut back.

Here are today's menus.

BREAKFAST

½ grapefruit (4½ inches dia.)
1 cup of cornflakes
1 teaspoon sugar
8 ounces whole milk—use part on your cereal
1 slice whole wheat toast
1 teaspoon jelly
Black coffee

LUNCH

1 cup consomme
Medium tomato stuffed with 3 ounces tuna fish — 1½ teaspoons mayonnaise and a dash of lemon
2 Melba toasts
6 ounces skim milk

DINNER

8 oz. tomato juice
Meat patty, broiled, 4 ounces lean ground
⅔ cup frozen vegetables, sprinkled with grated parmesan cheese
½ cup butternut squash, boiled and mashed, with teaspoon butter or margarine
½ package frozen melon balls
Total for the day 1,192 calories

★ ★ ★

Want to join the fun? If you have missed some of my Eight Week Beauty Improvement Plan (BIP for short) which has been running in this newspaper this week you may want my "Bip Kit." This has complete directions, a calorie chart, additional slimming menus for two weeks, 12 champion exercises, weight and height chart, calorie chart, and a BIP wall chart on which you can watch your beauty line rise as your weight line drops.

Chill of Neglect Seeps In at Pontiac State

A Bird Flies From Rotted Ceiling Of Occupied Room At Pontiac State Hospital

Old Building Awaits Warmth

By DICK ROBINSON

Back in 1878, a brand new facility was opened called the Eastern Michigan Asylum.

Today that facility is called Pontiac State Hospital. Ninety-one years later the name has changed, but some Victorian living conditions remain.

★ ★ ★

Unlike general medical hospitals, this mental hospital's patients live most of the day in hallways and recreation rooms.

In the old days, the hospital's bedrooms were just for sleeping. In most cases, the same is true today. It is just as well because many patients in the original building find the rooms unbearable.

NO HEAT, LIGHT

Pontiac State's patient population is 1,756. From 400 to 600 patients in the old main building are without heat or electricity in the 200 to 300 rooms they use primarily for sleeping, according to Gerald Bax, the hospital's nonmedical administrative officer.

The old building's most urgent physical need is replacement of ancient windows which permit cold air, particularly westerly winds, to seep in, according to Bax.

★ ★ ★

Newspapers and rags have been stuffed into the window cracks, and blankets have been hung in front of windows in attempts to keep out the frigid air.

"It's uncomfortably cold in many rooms," says Bax, "but it's really cold for some 25 seclusion patients in rooms where doors have to be kept locked."

OPEN DOORS NEEDED

Rooms without heat ducts or electricity ordinarily get heat and light from doors open to the hall.

Bax said it would take $200,000 to replace the old wooden frame windows.

★ ★ ★

The hospital has asked in the current budget request to the state for $50,000 for four years to replace the old building's windows, according to Bax.

He reports he has been making similar requests since 1957, but has gotten a total of only $8,200.

WALLS TOO THICK

Heat ducts can't be put into most of the unheated rooms because the walls are 18 inches thick in places, Bax said.

Electricity problems are on the way to being solved in two to three years, he says.

★ ★ ★

"Gas jets originally lighted the hospital and were replaced with electricity about 1900," Bax explains. "But the capacity of the electric lines is not adequate for today when we have hair dryers, popcorn poppers and more business machines."

In the last three years, the state has given the hospital $270,000 to improve electricity, the administrative officer said.

SOME NEW TOILETS

Some headway is being made in remodeling toilets and baths, Bax says.

One problem is that there just aren't enough toilets and some are just bowls without seats, according to Bax. Toilets and showers aren't individualized with partitions.

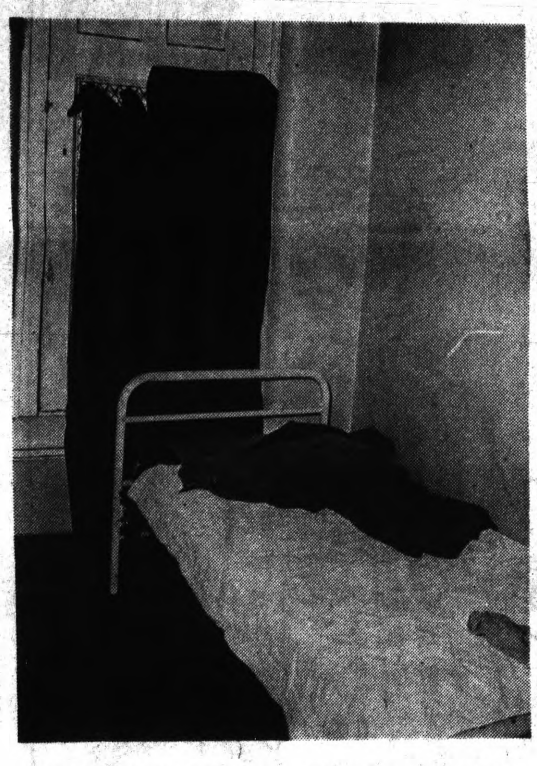

★ ★ ★

All possible measures to prevent fires at the hospital have been taken, reports Bax. He said all recommendations of the state fire marshal, including replacement of wooden floors and stairs, have been followed.

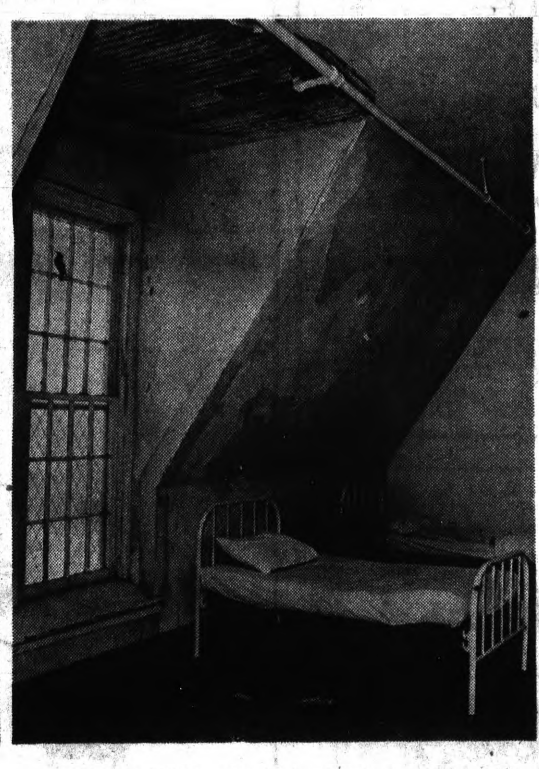

PLACED POORLY—Makeshift heat ducts in a hospital room were placed at the ceiling where much of the heat stays without heating the rest of the room.

DRAFTY WINDOWS—Hospital maintenance man Stanley Pankow shows how drafts are partially eliminated from windows. Old window stops have to be removed each summer to clean the windows and are no longer tight-fitting.

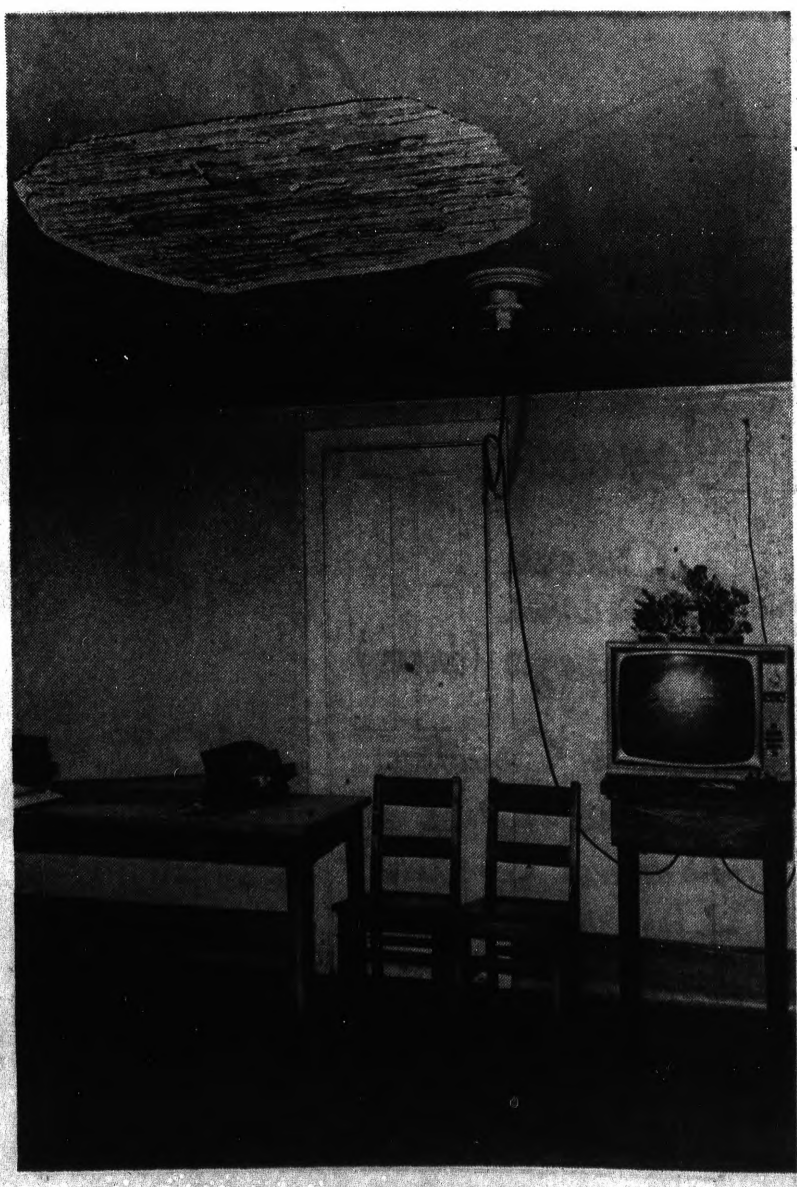

SECLUSION IN THE COLD—A blanket keeps some of the cold from coming in a drafty window in a room where patients are locked in seclusion.

BIG BIRD CAGE — The bird which flew out of the ceiling peers out of the caged-up window in a patients' room. The room is used primarily for sleeping.

FALLEN PAINT — A patient's room goes unrepaired because of a shortage of workers. The hospital has five painters to take care of painting repairs such as this one.

FIRE HAZARD—Water, plaster and electricity don't mix. Water from the roof has caused the plaster to fall near an electrical outlet in this day room.

ROTTED CEILING—Water seeps through the hospital's rotted slate-covered wooden roof and damages the interior. Damage has gone unrepaired because the hospital has been unable to get workers to fix the roof, Gerald Bax, administrative officer, says.

HOT BED—While some hospital rooms are cold, others are too hot because there are no thermostatic controls. Heat blowing out of this vent makes sleeping in this bed unbearable.

Vandalism Forces Close of 2 Schools

Extensive vandalism at the Troy High School and Baker Junior High School last night forced the closing of both buildings today.

Loss assessments at both schools are still to be determined, but school officials said the vandalism possibly was the most costly ever reported in the school system.

Damage at both schools was similar, with desks and chairs overturned in several rooms, the school offices and libraries.

Numerous windows in both schools were smashed. School authorities had not yet determined whether any equipment had been stolen.

At the high school, the public address system was destroyed. Cafeteria applianses and the biology department, acquarium were badly damaged. Kitchen appliances and shop equipment were reported damaged in the Baker building.

The last school vandalism incident reported in Troy was at the Baker building last September. Both schools will be reopened Monday, said school officials.

Gravel Plant

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Plans for construction of a $2-million plant near Grand Haven to produce expanded clay lightweight aggregates were announced Thursday by the Construction Aggregates Corp. The plant, described as the largest in the world, will handle 300,000 tons of lightweight aggregate a year.

Southfield Schools Fund Is Short $1.5 Million

SOUTHFIELD (AP) — A shortage of more than $1.5 million, enough to prevent construction of a junior high school planned under a 1966 bond issue, has been revealed in a special report on the Southfield School District's building and site funds.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit accounting firm of Plante and Moran indicated the three-year-old fund valued at $2.4 million, had been spent and is more than $45,000 in the red.

★ ★ ★

"Misrepresentation to the public and to bonding autorities could be involved," said a spokesman for the state attorney general's office. He also questioned the board's practice of shifting money from various funds without making public the excess expenditures.

★ ★ ★

John Riley, a recently elected Southfield School board member, charged "the taxpayers are getting clipped", by the loose money handling and borrowing procedures. He also claimed the school board acted unwisely in approving construction plans as did the title abstract company for not making an adequate title search.

Fashion Your Mind After Tie---Broad

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At a men's fashion show in New York the other day, three male designers wore neckties that were four or five inches wide.

WEST

"The little, narrow tie has gone with the little, narrow mind," John Weitz, one of the designers, said.

Reading this made me realize that I had been spending too much time in the ivory tower lately. My preoccupation with great national issues had caused me to lose touch with fashion trends.

I was aware, of course, that neckties had been getting wider. But I had no idea that narrow, little minds had gone out of style.

This change in mental haberdashery certainly hasn't been very apparent in Washington. Most of the people I come in contact with—congressmen, bureaucrats, etc.—are still uniformly narrow-minded.

So I naturally assumed that narrow minds remained in vogue.

★ ★ ★

Fortunately, I am acquainted with a young woman who is a fashion writer. I called her up and asked about the new cerebral style.

"The style center of America is New York," she explained. "Most of the new fashions originate there, and it takes them awhile to catch on in the rest of the country.

"The 'in' crowd in New York began switching to broad minds about a year ago. I find them occasionally at chic parties in Washington, but it may be several months before they become commonplace."

I said, "Is this another one of those passing fads, or will the fashion last a few years? If broad minds are here to stay, I want one. But I can't afford to change my way of thinking every time some screwball designer in New York has a new whim."

★ ★ ★

"Fashions always run in cycles, and it's difficult to predict them," she replied. "Broad minds may be popular one season and narrow minds the next.

"Generally speaking, men's styles last longer than women's do. You've had your narrow, little mind so long it has gravy spots on it."

MENTAL FABRIC

I said, "Well, most of the mental fabric nowadays is synthetic. If I got a brainwashing, my mind might shrink."

"I don't think you need to worry about that," she said. "Yours was preshrunk."

The fashion industry evidently having decided that a man's mind should match his necktie, I am wondering what the next step will be.

★ ★ ★

Closed minds would seem to go with turtlenecks, and open minds with sport shirts.

But if bow ties ever made a comeback, we're all in trouble.

N.Y. Strains to Contain the Problems Plaguing Its Weary People

NEW YORK (AP) — This tough city of eight million people is a living, vibrant, exciting, sophisticated example of the law of diminishing returns and increasing chaos.

It hires a third of a million people to fight its fires, patrol its streets, teach its children, run its subways, drive its taxis and pick up its trash, all of which they do, from time to time.

★ ★ ★

It has over a million youngsters in school, from time to time.

It has over a million people on relief, all of the time.

URBAN PROBLEMS

What problems New Yorkers wouldn't have already are brought in by some three million outsiders who enter the city every weekday morning, but sleep somewhere else. Unless the trains and buses stop or the power goes out, in which case they sleep in New York City.

In the middle of this contorted existence is the vibrant, exciting, sophisticated New Yorker. Just take a look at how he lived in 1968, or as Mayor John V. Lindsay would put it, "survived."

★ ★ ★

Survival. No mean trick in New York where normal city troubles become near-disasters in size, where new problems are pioneered and invented, where a city official said air pollution is so bad that New York would die if it had the confining weather of Los Angeles, where water pollution is so bad even ocean beaches close, where, in 1968, a fuel oil strike and the Hong Kong flu combined to put the city "in a state of peril," by the measure of the city health commissioner, a state of peril some New Yorkers did not survive.

★ ★ ★

But the New Yorker survived a dozen other perils in 1968—from blood shortages to a teacher's strike, from police pickets to disgruntled firemen.

His first real crisis came in February. The trash men went on strike. New York just barely keeps its head above trash level anyway. But with the strike, 10,000 tons of refuse a day piled up on city curbstones. Wallowing in its own filth, the city faced a prime health hazard. Ultimately, after 10 days, the trash men returned.

FIREMENS' ACTS

In 1968, New York firemen staged a slowdown on fire inspections to back up their demands for more pay. With one out of eight New Yorkers living in housing the city says should be torn down, the warning was sufficient.

In 1968, New York police, citing the hazards of their jobs, picketed precinct stations and city hall with signs that said, "Blue Power... Dump Lindsay... We Want Daley," to back up demands for salaries matching those offered in Mayor Richard Daley's Chicago. Over five days, some 23,000 New York police reported ill with the flu, more than a month before the epidemic hit the city. In crime-rich New York, the warning was sufficient.

At the bottom of the list, poorly paid hospital attendants struck city-run hospitals for more money. After all, they could argue, their $4,000 salaries were about what a family of four received on relief without working at all.

In 1968, there were also periodic shortages of taxicabs, while drivers picketed City Hall for one reason or another.

TEACHER STRIKE

Then in September, it was the teachers. They struck the year before for more money. Now it was job security, a protest against a plan to decentralize the city's schools.

The 55,000-member teachers' local, biggest in the nation, balked at the plan that would make it deal with 33 local boards instead of the total school system. It argued that individual teachers would be at the mercy of local administrators, perhaps local animosities.

★ ★ ★

By mid-November, New York's schoolchildren had been given only 12 days of classroom study in the on-again, off-again strike. When compromise finally reopened the schools on an overtime basis to catch up, some schoolchildren struck to protest the overtime.

Thus do New Yorkers torment one another. The strike produced another unhealthy by-product-vocal anti-Semitism by some Negroes, acts against Jewish shops. Two thirds of the teachers are Jewish. More than half of the schoolchildren are Negro or Puerto Rican.

DANGEROUS DUO

The holiday season of 1968 brought still more treats for the embattled New Yorker. As predicted, the Hong Kong strain of Asian influenza hit the city, rose quickly to a full-fledged epidemic. Then fuel oil deliverers struck and left some 400,000 New Yorkers shivering in unheated apartments.

Influenza which forms a lethal partnership with pneumonia was now a major health hazard. Armed with emergency powers, the city got fuel oil deliveries under way again, and in an ironic footnote as the year ended some 500 fuel oil drivers out of 7,000 were reported down with the flu.

★ ★ ★

The flu epidemic created a serious shortage in blood for transfusions because so many donors were ill. It came just as the holiday accident toll rose, heightening the demand for blood.

All of these crises have to be looked at against the backdrop of the New Yorker's normally tortured existence. He is largely an apartment dweller, and his rent gallops upward, often doubling, when the buildings are not rent-controlled.

TRANSLATOR

The New Yorker becomes an expert in translating bad plumbing, inadequate heat or other problems into health or fire hazards so that city agencies can jar an immobile landlord into action.

When he finally becomes disgusted enough to move, he often shakes with shock and alarm to discover his apartment is being shown for $50 to $100 more a month than he paid fo it.

★ ★ ★

Still his apartment is his home, his sanctuary. He cares for it, and he bars the door against the hostile city outside.

Some even use, in addition to conventional locks and bolts, a police lock, a metal bar braced in the floor at one end and the door at the other.

The New Yorker survives, and his city survives. Indeed it grows. A recent survey found that 12.5 per cent of New York City's land is vacant and room for expansion, this in a city Nikuita Khrushchev once said had too many houses. In a sense, New York is a grand experiment in how large things can become before they collapse on themselves.

Yet through all his travail, the New Yorker preserves some hope—that the landlord will send the repairman, that the schools will improve, that taxes will abate and taxis increase, that the subways won't be struck in 1969.

New York's problems today become the problems of other cities tomorrow. But that is little solace to the New Yorker.

★ ★ ★

He is the man who tends the nation's front door. He clerks its economic headquarters. He is custodian of the town Emerson called "a sucked orange," and O. Henry dubbed "The City of Too Many Caliphs."

Baltimore Colts vs. N.Y. Jets' Super Bowl Matchups

Offensive

Colts-----Jets

Offensive Tally: Colts 5, Jets 5, 1 Even.

Flankers

ORR MAYNARD

Jim Orr's legs are older but he can get into open, averaging 25.6 yards per catch, which was tops in the NFL.

★ ★ ★

Don Maynard breaks patterns and has 11 seasons of experience behind him. Namath looks to him for long TD passes.

POSITION EDGE: JETS

Split Ends

RICHARDSON SAUER

Had great last half of season, topping club in TD catches with eight and good inside and outside moves, Richardson has six years behind him.

★ ★ ★

They call George Sauer a "faster Ray Berry" and no one in pro ball runs more incisive patterns. Will give Colt corners a fit.

POSITION EDGE: EVEN

Quarterbacks

MORRALL NAMATH

How do you knock a guy who is keeping John Unitas on the bench? There are many skeptics about Morrall's passing, but still a great field leader.

★ ★ ★

Namath has earned much of his 400-grand and has a great arm. Still will throw interceptions when off balance.

POSITION EDGE: JETS

Fullbacks

JERRY HILL SNELL

Jerry Hill broke leg twice, also has had broken arm and hand. This year he hurt knee but when Colt need blocking, he's there.

★ ★ ★

Jets insist that Matt Snell is best pass protection blocker in game. He's big threat running inside or out and must be watched on safety valve pass.

POSITION EDGE: JETS

Halfbacks

MATTE BOOZER

Tom Matte's is "Mr. Utility" of the Colts. Nothing super about him but always consistent and his QB experience makes him halfback pass threat.

★ ★ ★

Emerson Boozer once looked like Gale Sayers but has been off since damage knee in 1967. He is alternated with Bill Mathis.

POSITION ADVANTAGE: COLTS

Tight Ends

MACKEY LAMMONS

Colts biggest so-called "super star" is John Mackey, a tough guy to haul down and a player with few weaknesses. His blocking has been overlooked.

★ ★ ★

Pete Lammons has surgery scheduled for after the season, and he is unnoticed because Namath doesn't go to tight end much.

POSITION ADVANTAGE: COLTS

DIFFERENCE OF DECADE—Coach Weeb Eubank has champions of the NFL and AFL in his background. In 1958 and 1959 he coached the Baltimore Colts to divisional championships and is shown with his star quarterback then Johnny Unitas (right photo). This year with Joe Namath at quarterback (left) Eubank took the AFL title and as fate would have it, he will face the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl Sunday, with several of the Colts left from the 1959 Baltimore team.

AP Wirephoto

HONORED BY COACHES—Joe Paterno, who just a couple days ago turned down a lucrative offer to enter pro coaching, was picked by the college coaches at the NCAA meeting as "Coach of the Year." Penn State, winner in the Orange Bowl, finished No. 2 in the AP ratings.

Baltimore Colt Quarterback Says 'Let Actions Speak'

MIAMI (AP) — Earl Morrall isn't interested in Joe Namath's lip, just his arm.

Morrall, the Baltimore Colts' quarterback, said he had read Namath's reference to him as a sixth rate quarterback.

★ ★ ★

"He can express any opinion he wants," said Morrall. "That's his business.

"I don't worry about other quarterbacks. All I'm interested in is the other team's defense.

That's what you have to beat.

Actions speak louder than words. It's what you do on the field that counts."

Namath, quarterback of the American Football League champion New York Jets, rapped Morrall earlier this week. Namath said there were at least five quarterbacks in the AFL better than Morrall.

THROWS 26 TD'S

The 34-year-old Morrall threw 26 touchdown passes this season in leading the Colts to the National Football League championship and into Sunday's Super Bowl game against the Jets. He was voted the NFL's player of the year. Namath was architect of the Jets' AFL championship drive.

Morrall said: "I haven't seen too much of him. I've read a lot.

"He gets a lot of publicity. From what I've seen on television and films, he throws quick, gets back fast, gets rid of the ball."

Morrall said he couldn't recall ever putting a rap on another player.

"As I say, he can talk. It's up to each individual what he does. I don't have to believe it."

The Colts' passer said that as a team, Baltimore doesn't pay too much attention to things like this, in case Namath's blast at him was meant to be psychological. He said there was some logic in the reasoning that Namath might be trying to bolster the Jets' confidence by downgrading him and the rest of the NFL champions.

Morrall had kind words for the man he supplanted at quarterback for the Colts, the brilliant John Unitas.

"John helped a lot. He's a great team man. We talk during the week before a game, watch films, and he gives his advice during a game."

Morrall added: "It's tough on Unitas. Anybody who is a competitor finds it hard to be on the sidelines. But, his arm has been bothering him. It's a great tribute to him the way he has helped me. He's done everything he can."

Centers

CURRY SCHMITT

Bill Curry is a fierce hitter, has divided time with veteran Bill Szymanski and is on all special teams.

★ ★ ★

John Schmitt gets little attention, but is called a pretty smart Jet for picking up opposing blitzes.

Right Guards

SULLIVAN RASMUSSEN

Dan Sullivan is a lesson in perserverance for the Colts. He was released, stayed with the taxi squad and has now succeeded the great Jim Parker.

★ ★ ★

Randy Rasmussen will re-claim his job if Herman plays tackle. His legs are so big he demand special pants and he is a farm boy who isn't afraid of getting his nose into the dirt.

POSITION ADVANTAGE: COLTS

Left Tackles

VOGEL WINSTON HILL

Efficient, studious Bob Vogel is not as big as some tackles at 240 but he always comes out with a good grades since he started six years ago.

★ ★ ★

At one time Winston Hill could have used hooks as he was called a chronic holder, but he has learned and at 280 is agile for his size.

Stays at Arizona State

No Comment From Kush

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) — Frank Kush was as elusive as some of his Sun Devil backs today as to why he decided to quit Pittsburgh five days after accepting the job as head football coach to remain at Arizona State University.

'He was nowhere to be found Thursday when ASU athletic director Clyde Smith proudly announced that the school's winningest coach in history had decided that he wouldn't return to his native Pennsylvania, after all.

★ ★ ★

Smith said Kush didn't get a thing he hadn't been offered before he began talking with Kentucky after the Devils' 8-2 season.

Had he been promised the athletic directorship when Smith reaches retirement age in 2½ years? There's no heir apparent at this time, Smith told newsmen.

An unnamed Pitt official was quoted by the Arizona Republic as saying he felt Kush became disenchanted with his chances of restoring the Panthers' football fortunes when he learned of the entrance requirements.

Pitt athletic director Caz Myslinski, who had hired Kush Saturday, denied this saying, "he requested to be released because he has personal problems — his family didn't want to leave and some other things."

Kush's comment that he now realized his "deep desire to remain at Arizona State" came in a statement released by the school. He wasn't at a later news conference, and Smith said he didn't know where he was.

But the athletic director said he didn't feel the reversal would affect Kush's reputation in Pennsylvania, where he does much of his recruiting.

"People there will respect Frank for the fine person he is," said Smith. "He'll still be able to go and sit down in the kitchen with mom and dad."

Smith said Kush had been promised earlier a sixth varsity assistant, a paneled office and a $2,000 raise to $21,500 a year July 1. He's compiled an 81-28-1 record since 1958.

He said he met with Kush and Myzlinski in Los Angeles Tuesday night when it was agreed that Kush would remain here, but the announcement was delayed to allow Pitt time to renew its search for a coach.

Left Guards

RESSLER TALAMINI

Glenn Ressler is a quiet man and he has had shots at three other positions before the Colts found him a regular job at guard. Good on pass defense.

★ ★ ★

Bob Talamini was all-league choice when with Oilers and with the Jets he has been a squat, steady, smart operator.

POSITION ADVANTAGE: JETS

Right Tackles

BALL HERMAN

For a couple years, Sam Ball was being killed by some of the great defensive ends in the game, but has been surprising now as a regular.

★ ★ ★

Dave Herman, an all-AFL guard will probably be at tackle and do double duty if needed. He is versatile.

POSITION ADVANTAGE: JETS

Defensive

Colts-----Jets

Defensive Tally: Colts 7, Jets 2, Even 2

Middle Linebackers

GAUBATZ ATKINSON

Denny Gaubitz calls the signals, takes part in just about every play and lets the thriving publicity fall to the other Colt defenders. Once called "Joe Schmidt's" successor at the spot when with Detroit.

★ ★ ★

Baby faced Al Atkinson puts zing into the middle of the Jets defense. Called most "underated" in AFL.

POSITION EDGE: Even

Right Defensive Tackles

MILLER ELLIOT

A solid guy on the front four of the Colts is Fred Miller, once a "Chinese Bandit" at LSU. Is a pioneer for the use of more mobile men inside.

★ ★ ★

Quickness is also the forte of John Elliott since he is small at 245 at the position. Once a high school high jump champ.

POSITION EDGE: Colts

Left Defensive Tackles

B. R. SMITH ROCHESTER

Funny how a guy like Billy Ray Smith could find a home at defensive tackle after flunking as defensive end. Rangy and tough on pass rush.

★ ★ ★

Jets platoon this position but Paul Rochester is normally found there. Does better on running plays than pass rush when he changes with Carl McAdams.

POSITON EDGE: Colts

Right Defensive Ends

BRAASE BIGGS

Ordell Braase has played in the shadow of Gino Marchetti people have not realized just how old, how experienced he is, having been a regular since the Colts' title of 1959.

★ ★ ★

Verlon Biggs is as good as he wants to be. He has the size but needs reasons for motivation which could hurt the foe when he's inspired.

RUBBA SMITH PHILBIN

"Bubba Kill" is destined to be a long enduring shout in Baltimore once he finds the finese of the late Big Daddy Lispcomb. Right now 6-8 and 295 is his argument.

★ ★ ★

One of the top pass rushers in the AFL is Gerry Philbin who does everything to keep a blocker off balance. Has had a great year.

Right Cornerbacks

LYLES BEVERLY

It took a little while but Lenny Lyles has clouted respect into opposing pass receivers. The former speedster from Louisville has some fine moves.

★ ★ ★

Randy Beverly's speed is his asset but he can be fooled. He made the club in 1966 and is rapidly catching up with the experience gap.

Left Cornerbacks

BOYD SAMPLE

Edwards' Net Play Helps Wings Win

Haywood Must Get More Cage Help

DETROIT (UPI)—The U of D plays the U of D Saturday night.

That's no typo, either. It's the University of Detroit hosting the University of Dayton in a crucial test for Coach Bob Calihan and his Titans.

★ ★ ★

Detroit, 10-2, needs the win to show the pollsters why they deserve a national ranking. Dayton, 9-2, is thinking the same funny thought.

★ ★ ★

"We don't feel good about the loss," said Flyers' Coach Don Donoher of Dayton's 59-55 defeat by Xavier of Ohio shortly after his team went down to the Louisville Cardinals.

"We have to wonder about the play of this club. They haven't played too well yet, but we're hopeful that they'll put it all together pretty soon."

TWO SETBACKS

Oddly, those words could have come from the mouth of Calihan, who hopes to take the Flyers apart. Detroit has dropped two straight games on the road to Minnesota and Marquette and is having a little trouble getting it all together itself.

Calihan isn't having any trouble with Spencer Haywood, who is togetherness personified. The 6-foot-8 former Pershing High star is third in the nation in scoring with a 32.5 average. Haywood's snatching a nation-high 24 rebounds per game.

★ ★ ★

"We've got to get Haywood some help," Calihan said, "and we'll keep trying different people until we do."

One of those "different people" could be 6-foot-9 sophomore Al Peake, a bit slow and awkward but with some promise at center. Calihan also said the Titans, tied with Northwestern for 19th in the latest rankings, need to spring hot-shooting guard Jimmy Jackson free more often.

TALL PIVOT

Dayton will have the full-time services of 6-foot-10 center Dan Obrovac for the first time in six games. He's been out with an arm injury but appeared briefly in the loss to Xavier.

★ ★ ★

The Flyers' leading scorer is forward Dan Sadlier at 18.5, while guard Jim Gottschall is popping in 13.1 points per game. Ken May, brother of departed Dayton star Don who is now with the New York Knickerbockers, is averaging 11.2 while center-forward George Janky sports a 10.1 mark.

2 Bloomfield Swim Teams Record Wins

Swimmers from two Bloomfield Hills' high schools scored their fourth victories of the season last night with numerous pool and varsity records.

Andover boosted its record to 4-1 by sinking Livonia Stevenson, 62-43, and Lahser scored a 68-37 triumph over Madison.

★ ★ ★

Jeff Klann scored a double victory by winning the 200 individual medley with a varsity record of 2:17.5 for Andover and he also took the 100 breaststroke with a school mark of 1:08.1.

Kevin Trimmer set pool records for Lanser by winning the 100 freestyle and 200 ind. medley in :56.7 and 2:22.3, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Rick Amann was also a double winner for Lahser and he had pool and school records, winning the 50 freestyle in 24.8 and 100 butterfly in 1:00.1.

Brad Boston also won two events for Lahser.

Big 10 Relays at MSU Pool

Eight Olympians representing four countries will compete the thirteenth annual Big Ten Swimming Relays Saturday at Michigan State.

Defending champion Indiana has to rate as the favorite once again on the strength of six of the Olympians.

Swimmers Charlie Hickcox, Dave Perkowski and Don McKenzie, and divers Win Young and Jim Henry were on the United States squad that took almost every medal in sight in Mexico City, while teammate Ron Jacks was swimming for Canada.

★ ★ ★

The Spartans have an Olympian of their own in freestyle distance man George Gonzalez, a member of the Puerto Rican team. He already has broken the Spartan varsity record for the 1,000-yard freestyle set by former All-American Ed Glick.

Michigan has a eefending conference champion in Juan Bello, a member of Peru's Olympic aggregation. Bello won both the 100- and 200-yard freestyle titles in last year's Big Ten Championships.

Michigan '5' Makes Habit of Overtime

Wolverines Journey for Big 10 Contest at Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI)—The way Michigan is playing its Big Ten basketball these days, you'd almost think the Wolverines were getting paid time and one-half for overtime.

Michigan, fresh off from a pair of overtime victories at home, steps in between the rock and the hard place Saturday when the Wolverines journey to Minnesota for their third conference match.

★ ★ ★

"Our progress from the beginning of the season has been terrific and though we still have a long way to go, I'm pleased with the way the boys have responded to pressure situations," said new coach John Orr. "When you have to go into overtime twice in a row and then win, you have to play tight basketball."

Of course, just ask him and Orr will reply quicker than a home win by a conference team that he'll take regulation time victories in a minute.

TEST COMING

"We now go on the road," Orr said, "and that is where the real test comes."

Road triumphs have been as rare in the Big Ten in recent years as whooping cranes in Michigan — only 20 of last season's 70 conference matches saw the visitors come out with a larger score.

Minnesota, which knocked off the University of Detroit and Marquette when both teams were ranked earlier this season, features a name familiar to the older generation.

The Gophers' top scorer is forward Larry Mikan, son of the American Basketball Association commissioner and former National Basketball Association great. George Mikan starred for DePaul at college but earned his pro fame at Minnesota with the old Minneapolis Lakers.

STRONG REBOUNDER

Mikan, a 6-foot-7 bomber, has an 18.1 points per game average and is pulling off about 12 rebounds per game. His younger, and shorter, brother Terry is also on the Minnesota squad.

Michigan, 2-0, in conference play compared to Minnesota's 0-1, has a chance to move to the top of the conference all alone since co-leader Purdue is idle until Jan. 25 because of exams.

★ ★ ★

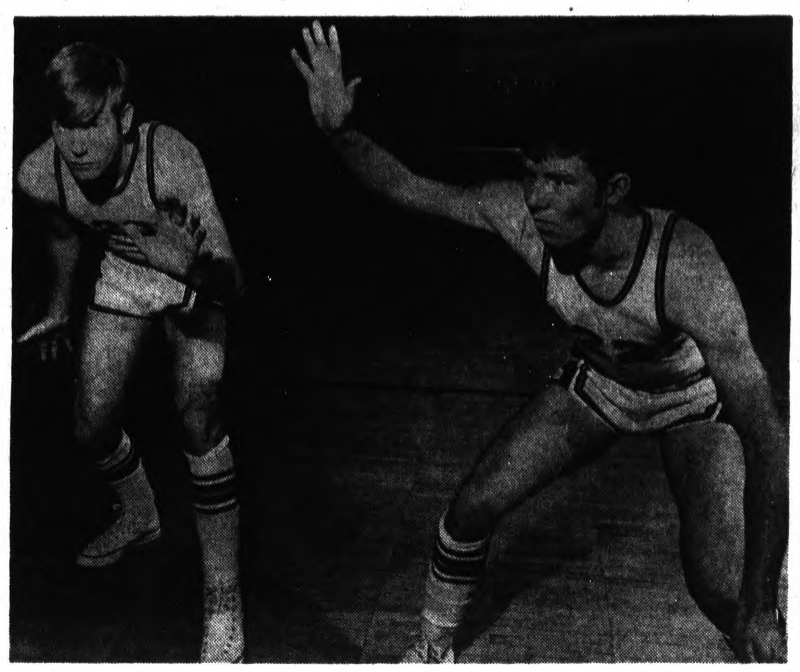

Rudy Tomjanovich's scoring has zoomed up higher than his 6-foot-7 height. The Hamtramck junior is leading the conference in scoring with an average of 37 points for his two games.

★ ★ ★

But then, you'd be leading the league too if you scored 48 points in one of those games as Tomjanovich did in the Wolverines' extra-session beating of Indiana. In that game, Rudy's 21 field goals set a school record and his points tied Cazzie Russell's all-time Michigan mark for a single game.

The Wolverines have now reeled off six straight conference wins over the last two seasons and are 8-3 overall this season compared to the Gophers' 6-5 overall record.

Michigan State, which snapped a five-game losing streak with a win over Wisconsin in its second Big Ten game last Tuesday, is idle until next Tuesday.

RED-HEADED DEFENSE — Walled Lake coach John Osler can try to distract the opposition with a pair of red-haired Vikings in Tom Evans (left) and Don Burlingame. The Vikings are struggling with only one win in six starts, so Osler might have a stratagem or two to unfurl against once-beaten Pontiac Northern as both teams return to action in an Inter-Lakes League encounter tonight at PNH.

Rookie Shoots 66

Sifford's 63 Leading

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The cast of leading characters in today's second round of the $100,000 Los Angeles open has something old, 45-year-old Charlie Sifford, and something new, 22-year-old Grier Jones of Wichita, Kans.

Sifford, first Negro to win a major golf tournament, came in with a first-round 63, eight under par, Thursday for a three stroke lead after 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament which ends Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Jones, the 1968 NCAA champion who turned pro just last fall, shot a 66, a mark matched by Dave Hill, the veteran from Evergreen, Colo.

Thirty-two golfers in the starting field of 144 were under par 36-35—71 on the Rancho Park municipal course. Three of them landed at 67—Jimmy Walker, a 30-year old Los Angeles "rookie" who has won only $225 as a pro; Terry Dill, Austin, Tex., a regular but not big winner on the PGA tour; and Bob Murphy, pro rookie of the year in 1967 who amassed earnings of $105,000 in 1968.

Australia's Bruce Crampton shot a three-under-par 68 and defending champion Billy Casper and eight other pros carded 69s.

Arnold Palmer who has won this tournament three times could do no better than a one-over-par 72, the same as U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino.

★ ★ ★

Sifford's 63 was one shot off the course record of 62 set by Phil Rodgers when he won this tournament in 1962 and tied by Palmer when he took it in 1966.

Sifford's nines were 35-28. He had an eagle three on the 526-yard 13th hole where he sank a wedge shot from 40 yards. He took one bogey—when he missed a three-foot putt on the third hole—and had seven birdies.

★ ★ ★

The first-round weather was overcast with a slight chill in the air but attendance was estimated at 7,500.

The field was to be cut to the low 70 pros and ties at the end of two rounds.

Upset Scored in Rec League

Genesee Quint Tops CIO by 54-53

Duke's Speedo ran out of time and field goals Thursday night in losing its initial game of the season, while CIO 594 romped to stay unbeaten in another Waterford Township Recreation men's basketball division.

Genesee Welding utilized its superior free throw shooting, including a pair of clutch charity tosses by George Heaton in the final minute of play, for a 54-53 upset win over Duke's.

Kampsen Realty joined the service station team atop the Class B American League standings at 3-1 with a 45-44 conquest of Lighthouse Lanes as Dan Larkin's layup iced the decision.

The other AL contest saw Coulacos Insurance trim Lakeland Pharmacy, 48-43, to square the winner's mark at 2-2. Bill Hayward's 16 points paced the victory.

FOURTH STRAIGHT

CIO stretched its International loop winning streak to four in a row with a 55-37 frolic at the expense of Irwin Realty. The victors led at the half, 31-18.

Mel's Sport Shop, trailing 25-16 at the intermission, spurted for a 50-43 win over M. A. Benson and a 3-1 record.

Tom Dabbs scored 10 of his 15 points in the first half and sparked Spencer Floor Covering (2-2) to a 60-47 triumph over Sparks-Griffin. It was 34-15 at the break.

Tim Morley of Lighthouse Lanes and Gary Hayward of Duke's led last night's scoring paradex with 17 points each in losing efforts.

Stemkowski Scores Second Hat Trick

DETROIT (UPI) — Roger Crozier's bad knees may be getting a lot better real soon — especially if Roy Edwards keeps playing super-goalie for the Detroit Red Wings.

Edwards continued his superb play in the nets Thursday night and the Red Wings supplied him with enough goals for two games — including Pete Stemkowski's second National Hockey League hat trick — as Detroit lambasted the hapless Los Angeles Kings, 6-2.

Stemkowski started the scoring only 43 seconds after Brent Hughes of the Kings held him in the Los Angeles end as the Detroit center was trying to shoot.

Garry Unger, who blazed in his 17th goal in the third period, fired a low screamer from the point and Stemkowski turned it by Kings' goalie Gerry Desjardins.

The Los Angeles net-minder must have felt like all the shots in the world were coming at him in the second period, when Detroit scored three times.

Stemkowski tallied twice within 37 seconds to put the game out of reach. The Red Wings center's 11th and 12th markers of the current campaign were both short-range blasts which Desjardins apparently was screened out on.

Bruce MacGregor notched his eighth goal and Frank Mahovlich, whose first period score was disallowed when it was ruled Stemkowski was offside, fired in his 20th of the season in the final period.

Mahovlich was the seventh NHL marksman to eclipse 20 goals so far this season and it's the 10th time he's reached that figure. One more score and the "Big M" ties for 10th place on the all-time NHL scoring list.

But Edwards kept things under control with his second consecutive near-brilliant job in the cage since taking for Crozier, whose bad knees prevent him from getting off the ice with any speed.

★ ★ ★

"He made at least five great saves," raved Coach Bill Gadsby in the locker. "He came up with the big save again and again."

Los Angeles put 34 shots on Edwards, waring a mask for only the third time, compared to the 32 Detroit took.

Other Games

Bob Wall's first period goal, his fifth, broke a string of three straight scoreless games for the Kings, who have not sipped from the sweet cup of victory even one time in the last five games. The scoreless streak extended for 210 minutes and four seconds. Lowell McDonald also tallied for Los Angeles.

Crozier reported the result of the physical examination he had diagnosed his knee troubles as stretched tendons in both knees. He added that they felt a lot better now.

★ ★ ★

In the other NHL contests played, goals by Fred Stanfield and Ted Green while both teams were short-handed enabled the Boston Bruins to slide past the Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-2.

Phil Goyette, Rod Seiling and Jean Ratelle each tallied for New York as the Rangers came from behind to whip the Philadelphia Flyers, 3-1, and the Pittsburgh Penguins erupted for four first period goals to coast past the Minnesota North Stars, 7-2.

The probable new owners of the Oakland Seals got a preview of what they are rumored to be buying so they can move the franchise to Buffalo and they may not want it back—as the Montreal Candens ripped Oakland, 8-4, the most goals the Seals have allowed in their brief history.

WKHS Breaks Ice on Slopes

Captains Divide Ski Meet With Skippers

Kettering broke the ice in the All Sports Trophy battles with Waterford this year but only managed to split its ski meet with the Skippers Thursday at Mt. Holly.

The Captains won the boys' meet handily (132.2-153.1) to claim 50 points in the trophy battle, but Debbie Morris paced Township to a 117.6-117.9 victory in the girls' competition.

The top four boys and the top three girls count in the cumulative time standings for each team. Dave Perkins and Bob Schram were one-two for the WKHS boys.

Change Transfer Rule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Athletes who transfer from junior colleges to four-year schools no longer must wait a year before participating in varsity athletics at their new school.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association during its meeting in Los Angeles this week ruled such transfer students can participate in varsity athletics after one quarter or semester — providing their grades are good.

★ ★ ★

An NCAA Executive Committee proposal, accepted during the meeting, sets a 2.5 or C-plus grade average as the standard.

And, it uses a formula to predict that if a student is capable of a 1.6 or C-minus grade average, but makes a 2.5 or C-plus average the first grading period, the student can represent the school in athletics.

A student with a better than 1.6 grade projection or record also is eligible if his average after the first grading period is 2.5 or better.

★ ★ ★

Essentially, the new rule won't count for football players unless they complete a quarter or semester of work during the spring or summer.

If an athlete does not make a 2.5 average during the first grading period, he still must wait a full year before participating on a varsity team.

Meeting Set for Volleyball

The second halves of the Waterford Township Recreation Department's volleyball seasons for the men's and women's programs will be organized Jan. 20-21.

The women will meet Jan. 20 at Mason Elementary School. The men will gather at 7 p.m. Jan. 21 at Pierce JHS. The player fee is $3 in both programs.

Kenyon's Little Man Leads Cage Scoring

NEW YORK (UPI)—John Rinka, Kenyon's 5-foot-9 shooting ace, leads the nation's small colleges in scoring for the fourth consecutive week, National Collegiate Sports Services said today.

Rinka hit 34 points in his only game last week and had a comfortable lead over the rest of the field with his 37.8 average. Two other players considered short by today's standards, 6-2 Ted McClain of Tennessee State and 6-0 John McElroy of Youngstown, moved up to the No. 2 and No. 3 positions.

★ ★ ★

McClain scored 109 points in three games last week to raise his per-game mean to 34.5 and advance one notch in the rankings. McElroy, fifth place last week, moved up with his 113 points in three games last week.

Another Kenyon Cager, John Dunlop, took over the free throw percentage lead with his 93 per cent accuracy.

Four Texans to Start in Bowl Backfield

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — An offensive backfield which could be termed a "Texas Terror" has been named to start for the South squad in Saturday's nationally televised Senior Bowl scrap.

* * *

South Coach Charley Winner of the St. Louis Cardinals and North Coach Allie Sherman of the New York Giants put their collegiate all-star teams through light, short workouts today after announcing the starting lineups.

* * *

In the South offensive backfield it's all Texas and on the line it's the Southeast with one exception.

At quarterback will be Edd Hargett of Texas A&M, at halfback Ross Montgomery of Texas Christian, at fullback is Paul Gipson of Houston, and in the flanker spot is Jerry Levdas of Southern Methodist.

Operating in front of the Texas foursome are Ron Sellers of Florida State at split end and Bob Hamlett of LSU at tight end. Jim Barnes of Arkansas and Billy Rhodes of Florida State are the starting tackles, Charles Rosenfelder of Tennessee and Guy Dennis of Florida are the guards and Jim Parkes of Ale Miss fills the center spot.

OPPOSING TEAM

The North will have a starting backfield of Bobby Douglass, Bob Campbell, Bill Enyart and Gene Washington.

* * *

Campbell is the Penn State hero of the Orange Bowl and has shown up well in practice. Enyart was the Hula Bowl's "most valuable" and his line shattering abilities will have a big role in the North's attack.

* * *

On the North line will be Eddie Hinton of Oklahoma at split end and Ted Kwalick of Penn State at tight end. The tackles are Kansas' Keith Christensen and Penn State's Dave Bradley while Mike Montler of Colorado and John Shinners of Xavier are the guards.

John Didion of Oregon State is the center.

* * *

Hargett was named offensive captain of the South Thursday and linebacker Mike Hall of Alabama was chosen defensive captain.

Hurler Abernathy Returns to Cubs

CHICAGO (AP)—Relief pitcher Ted Abernathy returned to the Chicago Cubs Thursday in a deal that sent three players to the Cincinnati Reds.

Going to the Reds are a pair of rookies, catcher Bill Plummer and Pitcher Ken Myett plus infielder-outfielder Clarence Jones.

* * *

Abernathy, with the Cubs in 1965, had a 10-7 record for the Reds last season. He was credited with 11 saves and posted a 2.74 earned run average in 78 games.

Angel Player Is Recovering

CARACAS (UPI)—Vic Davalillo, former Cleveland Indian infielder now with the California Angels in the American League, is recovering from an acute gastric ailment in a Caracas clinic, his brother reported Thursday.

The brother denied earlier reports Davalillo had been hospitalized for a nervous breakdown.

OL St. Mary Cager Pads Scoring Lead

Slender senior Tim Megge of Orchard Lake St. Mary is halfway along the path to his second straight Oakland County basketball scoring championship.

With seven games down and seven to go, Megge and his Eaglet teammates have rolled up a 7-0 record. Along the way Megge has poured in 217 points for an average of 31.0.

NEVER STOPPED

Megge wasn't stopped by any of the Northwest Catholic League opponents in the first round and it's unlikely things will be different in the final half of the campaign.

During those seven outings, Megge's lowest output was a 21-point effort against Detroit St. Rita. His tops was a 51-point night against St. Francis de Sales.

EAGLETS TRAVEL

Tonight, the Eaglets travel to Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows (2-5). In their first encounter, Megge counted 31 points.

* * *

Holding down the No. 2 spot on the scoring ladder is Greg Carter of Roeper School, who finished third in the point race last year.

Sam Brady, who has sparked Pontiac Catholic to a 6-1 record, second to OL St. Mary, has tossed in 164 points for a 23.4 mark.

Memphis State in Near Miss

By United Press International

No. 13 almost turned out lucky for Memphis State in a Missouri Valley Conference basketball game Thursday night.

The Tigers reeled off 13 straight points while holding St. Louis University scoreless early in the second half to take a 41-37 lead. And they had a 53-51 lead with just 16 seconds remaining in the game.

★ ★ ★

But St. Louis' Jim Bryan hit a field goal to tie the game. The Billikens' Fritz Ziegler made four free throws in the final minute of an overtime period to give St. Louis a 63-62 victory.

In other major college games Thursday night, Notre Dame bilt edged LSU 94-92, Drake defeated Butler 76-73, Vandernipped Wichita State 86-81, North Texas State bested Bradley 106-92, William and Mary outgunned The Citadel 73-56 and Utah beat Utah State 107-89.

Notre Dame and Butler played on even terms until early in the second half, when the Irish pulled away. Even then, Notre Dame had to hold off a late spurt by the Bulldogs who were led by Gary Hoyt with 25 points.

Drake's Missouri Valley Conference victory over Wichita State pleased the partisan fans at Des Moines, Iowa, although when the outcome was still uncertain, they showed their ire by showering the floor with pennies and waste paper three times in protest of officials' decisions. One man reached over the scorer's table and socked the referee a glancing blow.

★ ★ ★

North Texas' victory over Bradley, also in the MVC, was the school's first over the Braves in league play.

Vanderbilt held LSU's Pete Maravich, the nation's leading scorer, to 38 points and came from behind in the final six minutes for its Southeastern Conference victory. Tom Hagan scored 32 for Vanderbilt.

In the small college ranks, top-ranked Kentucky Wesleyan led all the way in defeating Corpus Christi, Tex., 101-84.

O. J. Simpson to Let Firm Negotiate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — O. J. Simpson acquired a manager and Steve Sogge acquired a baseball career Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The two stars of the University of Southern California's fourth ranked f blooltemata fourth ranked football team appeared together at a news ocnference to talk about the turns in their destinies.

★ ★ ★

Simpson, whose spectacular rushing won him the Heisman trophy, said he's signed a "total management" contract with Sports Headliners, Inc., of Indianapolis.

★ ★ ★

It will handle all his affairs, including negotiations for a pro contract. Simpson is expected to be the No. 1 draft choice this year.

★ ★ ★

Sogge, Trojan quarterback, is less known as a baseball catcher. But he's a good one and the Los Angeles Dodgers signed him to play with their farm club at Spokane.

★ ★ ★

Sogge said he signed as a free agent to what he called a very fair contract. Terms were not disclosed. Said Dodger player personnel director Al Campanis: "He's an outstanding receiver with a good arm. For a catcher he can really run well."

★ ★ ★

The firm Simpson signed with is headed by Charles M. Barnes, a 1953 Souther Cal graduate, who manages a flock of other sports figures.

Sonics Blast Royals, 119-110

By United Press International

The Sonic boom heard from Seattle doesn't occur too frequently but when it explodes somebody gets hurt.

Cincinnati, battling New York for the fourth playoff berth in the National Basketball Association's Eastern Division, held a 21 point lead late in the first half only to drop a 119-110 decision on the hot fourth period shooting of Len Wilkens.

★ ★ ★

New York routed Phoenix 134-120 to take a two-game lead over Cincinnati.

★ ★ ★

Wilkens put the Sonics in the second stage of their victory orbit after Seattle tied the game at 87-all in the third period. He scored seven points early in the fourth quarter to trigger the final assault on Cincinnati. The victory was Seattles' 15 in 46 games.

Bob Rule led Seattle with 34 points and Wilkens finished with 24. Connie Dierking paced Cincinnati with 24 as the Royals missed Oscar Robertson, out with the flu, and Adrian Smith, sidelined with a leg injury.

TOP KNICK

Willis Reed's 34 points led New York's romp past Phoenix as the Knicks hit a torrid 57 per cent from the floor. Cazzie Russell netted 29, Dave Debusschere scored 22 and 17 apiece were collected by Walt Frazier and Dick Barnett as the Knicks sharpened their scoring averages. Stan Mackenzie led Phoenix with 18 points.

★ ★ ★

The victory was the 12th for New York in its last 13 games.

That's how many times we inspect a Volkswagen.
These are some of the ok's our little car has to get in our factory.
(It's easy to tell the ok's from the no's. One no is all you ever see.)
We pay 8,397 people just to look for things to say no to.
And no is no.
A visitor from Brazil once asked us what we were going to do about a roof that came through with a dent in it.
Dents are easy to hammer out.
So what we did shook him a little.
We smashed the roof down to a metal lump and threw it out in the scrap pile.
We stop VWs for little things that you may never notice yourself.
The fit of the lining in the roof.
The finish in a doorjamb.
In the final inspection alone, our VW has to get through 342 points without one blackball.
One out of 20 doesn't make it.
But you should see the ones that get away.

2 Deadlocked for Lead in Alameda Open

SUNOL, Calif. (UPI)—Neither Bill Ogden nor Rich Martinez has ever done anything on the pro tour, but both have a shot now for the top prize of $10,000 in the Alameda Open golf tournament.

The two shot matching two-under-par 70s in the opening round Thursday to share the early lead. While a 70 really isn't much to brag about, in the Alameda it looks more like a 65 or 66. That's because Ogden and Martinez were the only players in a field of 144 to break par over the long and tough Palm Course at the Sunol Valley Country Club.

Elks, K. of C. Bowlers Begin This Weekend

A steady stream of weekend visitors will begin invading Pontiac tomorrow in search of fun and funds on the lanes at 300 Bowl and the Elks Lodge No. 810.

The Michigan State Council of the Knights of Columbus will commence their 28th annual state tournament with appropriate ceremonies at 3:30 p.m. on the 300 Bowl lanes.

Participating in the festivities will be Mayor William Taylor, national K. of C. bowling secretary William Burke, supreme director Thomas Kavanagh of Lansing, state deputy Frank Lawrence of Flushing, Pontiac grand knight John Donohoe and state K. of C. bowling president Stan Cieslowski of Allen Park.

Numerous other officials will be guests at the affair which will follow the 1 p.m. tournament opening five-man team squad. A 4 p.m. squad is also listed.

A record 720 teams and a record 2,950 singles entries have entered in the competition which has a $28,013 prize fund. The state K. of C. meet will run every weekend through its Mar. 23 wrapup.

WOMEN READY

The 12th annual Elks Ladies National Invitational sponsored by the Pontiac lodge will start at the Orchard Lake Ave. temple with a 5 p.m. team squad tomorrow.

Tournament chairman J. B. McDermid will be host at a 2:30 p.m. luncheon of tournament officials and guests, and has arranged for the opening ceremonies featuring state Elks women's president Donna Jean O'Connor of Plymouth who will also compete on the first squad.

City commissioner Robert Irwin, president Lillian Jacobs of the Greater Detroit Women's Bowling Association and president Margaret Lally of the Pontiac WBA will be the featured guests.

Tournament secretary Hettie Gorsline reports 122 teams and more than 650 singles entries for this year's competition. Defending singles champion Irene Hammond of Caulmet City, Ind., is entered in this weekend's action.

The Elks Ladies National Invitational will run six weekends through Feb. 23. Entries from Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan have been received.

The cash prizes total $4,000 plus trophies sponsored by the local lodge.

Thunderbird Hosts Keglers

Area golf and country clubs will be represented by teams of women Saturday in the eighth annual Red Run GC district Tournament at Thunderbird Lanes in Troy.

The first squad will bowl at 10 a.m. and another is slated for 1:30 p.m. Cochairwomen are Mabel Erickson and Ethel Marshall, both of Red Run GC.

Army's Super Service

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Armed Forces Radio and Television Service will broadcast live the Super Bowl between the New York Jets and the Baltimore Colts.

By JERE CRAIG

Annette Marie McLean of Union Lake is only 4½ years old. Her father Ervin drives a jitney six days a week for General Motors Truck and Coach and hasn't bowled much since his daughter's birth.

Nor is any other member of the family—which includes McLean's wife Edith, a son Ricky and another daughter Susan—very active in the sport presently. But bowling has suddenly become a friend to the McLean's and little Annette Marie in particular.

The McLean family this week was named to receive $500 from the Bowling Proprietors of Michigan through the Pontiac region owners as a gift from the Bowler's Charities Tournament fund.

The money will go into a special account at the Union Lake Community National Bank to defray the medical expenses incurred by Annette Marie as a result of a serious accident when she was an infant.

When she was approximately six months old, the youngest of the three McLean children was accidentally scalded when she fell under an open faucet.

Annette Marie faces a seires of operations, she's already had two, during the next few years in an effort to correct the scars and possibly restore hair where she was badly burned on the face and head.

"The doctor estimates it'll take nearly $20,000," her father says. "There is about $4200 in the account now from various groups such as the union at the plant and what I put into the fund."

Someone donated a wig that she wears when she goes out, and a benefit program is planned in the near future. The proprietors gift puts the McLeans about one-fourth of the way to their goal.

BOWLERS' PRESENT

The gift is actually a present from the bowlers in the Pontiac area since it is part of the proceeds from 1968's first Bowler's Charities Tournament.

The second annual affair will begin tomorrow at 23 establishments in the local area (which extends as far as Ann Arbor, Saline, Belleville, Utica and Holly) and runs for the next two weeks. It is probably the easiest bowling tournament to enter.

All that is necessary is to fill out an entry blank prior to the bowler's next league session and donate $1 to the fund. The proprietor uses the bowler's league score that day plus a tournament handicap of 70 per cent for men and 80 per cent for women.

The top 10 per cent at each house then will go the area rolloff next month at West Side Lanes. The area prizes include color television, portable TV's cameras, and the grand prize at the state rolloff is a 1969 automobile.

SEVEN REGIONS

More than $20,000 has been set aside for prizes around the state. There are seven areas of competition in the tournament.

Last year more than $29,000 was raised for charity with the Pontiac area providing the third largest contribution. The state association's biggest outlay went to the Coldwater State Home for the Mentally Retarded.

Two bowling lanes complete with semi-automatic pinsetters were installed, and a recreation room was outfitted.

Other significant contributions of $500 or more went to the state Heart Association, the Michigan Cancer Society, the Ruth Alden Dress Drive, the Retarded Children's Association in Northern Michigan, the Goodfellow Fund of Detroit, Boys' Clubs, Big Brothers Organizations and the Lansing Training School.

The Bowler's Charities Tournament is run solely by the bowling proprietors and channels bowlers' donations into worthy areas of need in the same general areas as well as to groups servicing the entire state.

Annette Marie wasn't the only case considered locally for help. The propriertors hope this year's toruanment response will be sufficient to support two or more similar gifts.

Opening lead—♥6

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

The late Douglas Drury was or may not have been the best bridge player in the world but he was mighty good. Furthermore, there never was a nicer partner or opponent. His principal contribution to bridge is the Drury Convention which is used by a great many players. Jim uses it. Oswald doesn't but admits that it has considerable merit.

Today's hand shows the Drury Convention at its best. The fact that North holds clubs for his two-club call is coincidental. The two-club bid shows heart support and asks partner to rebid to two diamonds with a minimum or subminimum, to bid two hearts with a sound hand or to jump with a really good opening bid.

★ ★ ★

Hence, South's jump to three hearts. With a weaker hand North would sign off at four hearts but he has a maximum pass. True, he only holds three hearts but he has two aces and can well afford to bid four clubs to show a maximum holding with slam possibilities.

That four-club bid is enough for South. He makes no effort to get to seven since it would be too much to expect to find his passed partner with the right cards for a grand slam.

There is little play to the slam contract. All lines will succeed but the best is what South adopted. He won the trump lead in dummy, played a diamond to his ace, ruffed a diamond in dummy, returned to his hand with a spade, ruffed his last diamond, got back to his hand with his other top spade and drew trumps.

★ ★ ★

Then he spread his hand announcing that he would make an overtrick in the event that West held the king and queen of clubs and queen of spades or five clubs to an honor plus that same queen of spades. This was a typical expert claim. He risked nothing by making it since he was going to run off all his trumps in any event and there was that possible squeeze against West.

Pass	2♣	Pass	2♥

What do you do now?

A—Bid three no-trump. There is no need to insist on playing this hand in a suit contract. It would be nice to bid three hearts but your partner might pass.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding two no-trump your partner jumps to three no-trump. What do you do now?

Advances Lead Declines

Stock Mart in Buying Mood

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market opened in a buying mood today with advances leading declines in moderately active trading.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average hung onto Thursday's rally. It climbed 4.17 after the first hour of trading, then eased to 931.38, up 3.92, after 90 minutes of trading. The Dow rail figure was up .48 at 265.60, utilities were up .22 at 134.55 and stocks were up 1.01 at 335.19.

Gains were scored by United Fruit, Grand Union, Molybdenite, International Telephone and Telegraph and Cincinnati Milling Block.

Brokers viewed the market as in optimistic mood after yesterday's early rally held up and the Dow scored its first upturn this week.

★ ★ ★

Lending encouragement, they said, was the Labor Department report on continued low rate of unemployment.

A good indicator of the optimism on the market, one broker said, was the movement toward utilities, usually sensitive to periods of tight credit.

★ ★ ★

Two blocks of Houston Lighting, one 19,000 and the second 219,000, sold at 42½, up ⅜.

Brokers said the favorable unemployment figures, added to the lack of action Thursday by the Federal Reserve in raising the cost of money, might spur the "technical rally" into next week.

'Airport' Film Crew Prepares for Its Takeoff

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — George Seaton, who confesses to having once been "a white-knuckle air passenger," has taken charge as pilot of the biggest flight movie in recent Hollywood years, "Airport."

THOMAS

Universal is going all out with the Arthur Haley best-selling novel, and the film may well cost $10 million before it makes a landing.

Producer Ross Hunter has assembled a cast that to date includes Burt Lancaster, Dean Martin, Jean Seberg, Helen Hayes and Van Heflin. Filming begins in Minneapolis late this month.

Film veteran Seaton—"Miracle on 34th Street," "Country Girl"—wrote the script for "Airport" and will be directing it. He admitted he has not always been a fan of air travel.

SLIGHT CRACK-UP

"Years ago I was in a crack-up of a plane as we were taking off at Columbus, Ohio," he recalled. "Fortunately we were only 10 feet off the ground, so there was little damage.

"But that was enough to make me a white-knuckle passenger after that. Until I made a picture about the Berlin airlift, 'The Big Lift' with Montgomery Clift and Paul Douglas, 1950.

"Then I rode in the cockpit with the pilots and I decided: 'these people know what they're doing.' I've been a pretty good passenger since then."

Seaton recently traveled in the flight deck of a transcontinental jetliner and was impressed anew with the competence of today's fliers. The flight was made with the permission of the Federal Aviation Administration, which is cooperating with "Airport," apparently in hopes that the picture will carry the message of such competence.

OFFICIAL COOPERATION

To the surprise of many, the Air Transport Association, which includes the major airlines, is also cooperating with the film. Reason for the surprise: The plot concerns the bombing of a passenger jet.

"The vice presidents of the companies came out here and they seemed to approve the script," said Seaton. "They brought up some points, not inaccuracies but matters of procedure, which I incorporated."

Seaton made two changes from the novel which should please the airlines. He eliminated the character of the airport manager's brother in flight control "because anyone that emotionally unstable would never be permitted in the tower." And, for condensation reasons, Seaton removed the mill-in of local residents protesting jet noise.

"We have received permission to shoot at Minneapolis Airport and will construct added counters inside the terminal to house those airlines that don't fly out of Minneapolis," said Seaton.

"The airport is still called Lincoln Air Terminal, though in reality it represents O'Hare in Chicago. O'Hare is so busy it would have been impossible to shoot there."

One production problem hasn't been solved. The company needs a Boeing 707 to use for six weeks.

Said Seaton: "No airline could afford to let us have one for more than three days, and it would take a day and a half to paint new insignia and another day and a half to remove it. We could rent a 707 for $17,000 a day, but even on our budget we can't afford it."

Big-Time Theater Thrives in Atlanta

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Atlanta has joined the thin ranks of big-city theater. With two professional acting companies staging continuous programs, it joins New York and Los Angeles as a major theatrical city. And costly new structures built for the Atlanta actors confirm that drama in Georgia has a permanent home in the southern city.)

By WILLIAM GLOVER
AP Drama Writer

ATLANTA — In its first season of big-time, multiple theatrical endeavor, Atlanta is simultaneously experiencing boom and crisis.

The new Atlanta Municipal Theater succeeded so well at its debut with a quaint bit of ancient operatic bric-a-brac ("King Arthur,") that eight performances had to be added, erasing an anticipated deficit.

★ ★ ★

Over at Theater Atlanta, three years old and regarded in some civic areas as free-wheeling opposition for AMT's Establishment aura, a sassy satire, "Red, White and Maddox," went SRO and was transfered to New York's Broadway.

But the difference between the two triumphs was far-reaching. AMT's rocket start seemed likely to loft it through the ensuing premiere season of separate opera, ballet and drama presentations.

STRUGGLING ENTERPRISE

TA, howover, is involved in a cliff-hanging struggle for survival because of an intricate lawsuit brought by its landlady for allegedly unpaid rent.

"We are fighting for our life," says Jay Broad, the fiercely determined managing director who changed a century-old amateur acting club into the present Equity ensemble of 22 who plan to stage a dozen shows this season, legal decisions permitting.

★ ★ ★

The presence of two professional companies—one with a 36-week season, the other 33 weeks—makes Atlanta the only U.S. city other than New York and Los Angeles with plural programming.

That this metropolitan area of 1.5 million can support two theatrical ventures is confirmed by Broad and Christopher Manos, AMT's general director.

EAGER THEATERGOERS

"If surveys and statistics are correct," Manos notes, "there are 25,000 people who will see anything cultural in this area. That is exactly the number we need to survive."

Michael Howard, artistic boss of AMT's drama unit—opera and ballet are separate but coordinated divisions—goes further in extending a potential palm leaf to the Broad company.

★ ★ ★

"The differences will smooth away," he says. "I would like eventually to effect even an exchange of players and cooperate in some productions."

When it comes to underwriting costs—TA's budget is $450,000; AMT's is $2 million—Broad says: "People tend to take sides and feel they can support only one group. That's been the situation ever since we began."

SAME ORIGINS

An underlying irony is that both the Atlanta Memorial Arts Center—the newly-opened $13-million structure which houses AMT along with the city's symphony orchestra and an art gallery—and Theater Atlanta's $1-million home a few blocks down Peachtree Street, were inspired by the same tragedy.

In 1963, 110 leaders of Atlanta's artistic activities were killed in a plane crash at Paris's Orly Airport. The center was erected in honor of the whole group. Frania Lee built TA's theater as a memorial to her daughter, Helen Lee Cartledge.

★ ★ ★

TA's big hit last season was a production of "MacBird!," which two-thirds of the 50-member board opposed but which garnered one-third of the season's box-office revenue. The gate for "Red, White and Maddox" was even headier.

Each of the acting companies feels pride in already possessing esprit de corps—Broad's through careful selection of compatible spirits, and Howard's because his newly assembled players have worked with him in the past.

ROTATING REP

TA is already playing four works in rotating repertory at its 760-seat auditorium. AMT plans seven major exhibits into next spring, and a number of others in a small basement house adjacent to its 900-seat playhouse.

Manos, "a bit sensitive about being called the Establishment," feels the downstairs activity will enable his troupe to experiment and avert the perils of too much work oriented only at box-office success.

★ ★ ★

Although the Atlanta Repertory Theater did not intend to attempt rotating play exhibit in its first season, Manos and Howard express satisfaction that "King Arthur" has so jammed the theater's calendar as to force the company into repertory performance of "The Hostage" with "Marathon '33."

"That's the way repertory should come about," smiles Howard, "because of box-office pressure."

THIRD GROUP

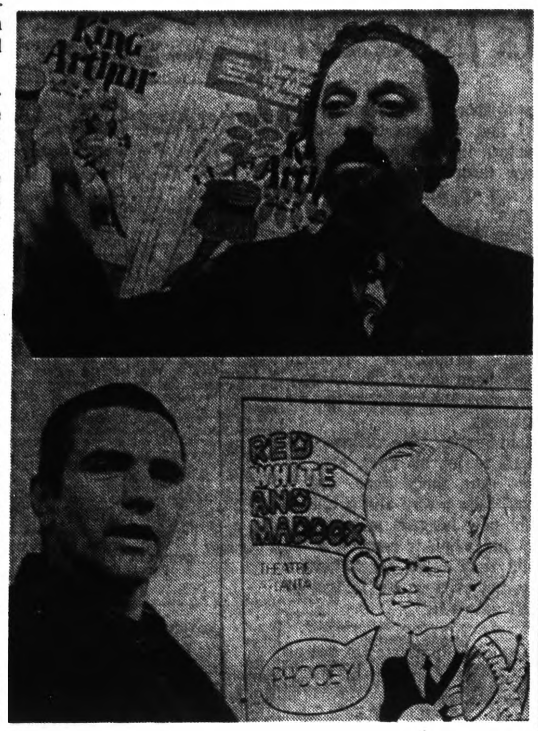

In addition to the major competitors, Atlanta is also the home of a semiprofessional group, Academy Theater, long established and now mainly concentrating on shows for schools.

All the activities demonstrate hearteningly that the city is awake to theater and has a strong nucleus of people who care in this season of pivotal decision.

AP Wirephoto

DRAMATIC SUCCESSES—Atlanta gave a good reception to both its theatres' productions this season. At the Theater Atlanta, Jim Garner (left) played Lester Maddox in "Red, White and Maddox." The new Atlanta Municipal Theater made a promising debut with "King Arthur," in which the lead was played by Edward Lally (right).

AP Wirephoto

THEATER DIRECTORS—Michael Howard (upper photograph) is artistic director of the Atlanta Repertory Theater and directed its first play, "King Arthur." Jay Broad (lower) is coauthor and director of "Red, White and Maddox," the Theater Atlanta's outstanding satire.

The more famous people are the more inclined they are to be at ease about serving simple, but delicious and easily prepared food. They know a party depends upon the people invited, and upon their being happily wined and dined with whatever menu the hour of entertaining recommends. Abundance, certainly! Each dish very hot or very cold as it should be, and served with attractive, but not necessarily expensive accessories. Swiss Lose Image of Tranquility

By HANNS NEUERBOURG

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — The new year started in Swiss style—with a tax amnesty—yet many Swiss were asking what has gone wrong with their country.

Switzerland's image as an island of tranquility in a troubled world has been clouded by scandal, violence, protest movements and police brutality.

It never has been all yodeling and contented cows, as some travel posters may seem to suggest.

The tremors of unrest recorded during the past few months appear negligible by world standards, but they were strong enough to make an editorial writer speak of "nightmares."

NO 'MERE SPECTATOR'

"A confortable living lulled people to sleep and delayed the rude awakening," observed the liberal Zurich weekly Die Weltwoche. And the progovernment Bund of Bern said that Switzerland has "ceased to be a mere spectator" in a restive world.

Competing for headlines were a militant French-speaking autonomist group and a federal probe that exposed the neutral country's largest arms manufacturer as a supplier of arms to world trouble spots.

For the first time in history, the floor of the staid federal Parliament last month became the scene of a free-for-all when juvenile autonomists who had forced their way into the assembly hall were stopped by strong-fisted deputies and retreated with bleeding noses.

There was widespread public applause for that unusual display of legislative powers. The autonomists in turn lost much of the sympathy they had won because of a heavy-handed government order placing troops in their Jura region on special alert. It took four months of bitter regional tension before federal authorities called off the alert, likened by vociferous critics to the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia.

MINORITY OF 100,000

The autonomists claim to represent a French-speaking minority of more than 100,000 in the canton of Bern, where most people speak German. They want to live in a French-speaking canton of their own, like the residents of four other Swiss states.

Italian and Romonsh, a quasi-extinct relic of the Roman occupation, are the other two official languages of the confederation. Switzerland covers a scenic, largely mountainous area half the size of Maine and has a population of 6 million.

★ ★ ★

The government explained its alert was a mere measure of precaution to protect federal property against feared autonomist sabotage.

A commission of mediators is studying the Jura autonomists' demands for a greater say in their regional affairs. There is little prospect of an early settlement of this issue, which dates back to the 1815 Congress of Vienna when the map of Europe was redrawn following the defeat of Napoleon.

ARMS SCANDAL

More urgency was lent to the investigation of the arms scandal that stirred an outcry of public indignation, particularly after it was learned Nigeria was among the six African and Middle East countries that received Swiss weapons.

Newspapers suggested that Swiss cannon might have fired at mercy planes operated by the all-Swiss International Red Cross Committee to supply starving Biafrans with food and medicine partly donated by Swiss citizens.

One usually well informed newspaper has estimated that the arms deals, violating an official embargo on sales to areas of tension, involved almost half a billion Swiss francs—$116 million.

So far, three executives of the company, Oerlikon Buehrle and Co. of Zurich, have been directly implicated and the probe has extended to other arms makers. The government is studying proposals for a complete halt of arms exports.

ANGRY PROTESTS

Editorial offices have been flooded with angry letters from readers. In Bern, seven youths protested the arms sales in a weeklong pre-Christmas hunger strike. That gesture of nonviolent protest contrasted with the Christmas Day bomb explosion in front of the Zurich police headquarters which shattered windows 100 yards away and set off the alarm system of the nearby branch of the Soviet Bank of Commerce.

Zurich was rocked by large-scale riots last May. Thousands of youths, demonstrating their of youths, demosstrating their demand for a city youth center, clashed with police. There were scores of injured on both sides and almost 200 arrests. A municipal commission, after months of probing, found that police officers had been needlessly violent in several cases.

★ ★ ★

Max Frisch, playwright and novelist, came out in support of the youngsters and also threw his authority behind demands of students, joining in the worldwide protest movement, for radical education reforms. There were teach-ins and an occasional boycott of lectures.

The general mood of militancy has given new momentum to advocates of women's suffrage.

GROWING CAMPAIGN

A women's march to the federal capital in Bern was called off shortly before the scheduled time, but there is a growing time but there is a growing campaign against a government proposal to sign the European human rights convention with reservations about female balloting. So far, only five of Switzerland's 25 states admit women to their polling stations—and female votes are limited to regional affairs.

Somehow, however, time appeared running out for this last major stronghold of patriarchic society. In a move that might have incensed William Tell, women recently were admitted for the first time to rifle ranges.

★ ★ ★

In the general air of tension, many Swiss may have breathed easier following the Defense Department's decision not to let noncommissioned officers store bazookas in their homes. The officers' assocation had suggested this would greatly increase war readiness of the national militia.

Symptoms of revolution have appeared on the lighter side, too—in Switzerland's dairy industry. One plant has begun turning out square cheese instead of wheels. Alarmed traditionalists are beginning to wonder how long the holes in Swiss cheese will survive.

STABLE CURRENCY

Despite a 2.2 per cent rise in living costs during the past 12 months and a much-discussed substitution of silver coins by nickel-copper pieces, the Swiss franc is still one of the world's most stable currencies.

There are plans for a greater uniformity in taxes which would doom the "fiscal paradise" status of some Swiss cantons. But that will not come before 1972 at the earliest. The amnesty effective Jan. 1 was more reality. It rewards new fiscal honesty by renouncing all claims for back taxes on previously undeclared income and makes repentent evaders immune from legal action.

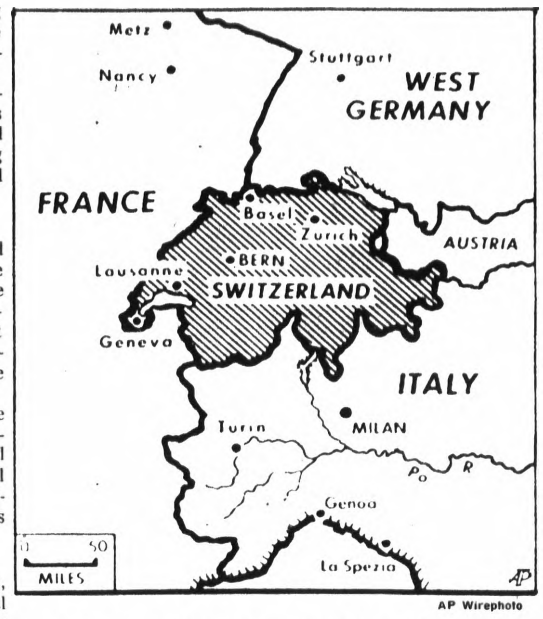

★ ★ ★

Foreign tax evaders profit, apparently in increasing numbers, from the strict secrecy observed by Swiss banks. There is little likelihood Swiss authorities will do anything about it.

Robert M. Morgenthau, U.S. attorney for the southern district of New York, estimates that the U.S. revenue loses millions of dollars annually because gangsters, stock market swindlers and other operators put money in numbered accounts here.

STILL HOLIDAYLAND

The holidayland flair of Switzerland remains strong despite all new domestic restiveness. Although there is widening discussion about a threat of "Americanization" of the Swiss economy, tourist officials happily tell of polls showing that Switzerland still ranks tops among all countries Americans would like to travel to.

Switzerland Is Losing Its Tranquil Image

Food-for-Freedom Liberates Viet Diets

SAIGON (UPI) — With a name like new toothpaste ingredient, the U.S. 5 (Public Law) 480 program gave $23 million worth of free food to 3.5 million hungry Vietnamese in 1968.

Perhaps as much as $5-million more will be available next year, says John Dunlap, assistant director for the Food for Freedom program in Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

If peace should come to the country in 1970, he says the added funds will be used to resettle refugees.

Today, Food for Freedom in Vietnam helps to provide milk, rolled oats, flour, vegetable oil and other foodstuffs for more than a million refugees. When the war is over and the homeless eventually resettled, the United States plans for at least a further six months support for the refugees.

'HE'LL HUNGER FIRST

"You can't just say here are some hogs, chickens, seed and land, then leave a guy, Dunlap said. "He'll get hungry while the rice is growing and there go the chickens, maybe even the hog, and we're back where we started."

★ ★ ★

The 55-year-old agriculture specialist also administers a feature of the program under which certain American farm products can be purchased by Vietnamese importers for Vietnamese piasters paid to the South Vietnamese government. The United States stipulates that these government funds in turn are to be used solely for the country's defense system.

Wheat flour, rice, tobacco, milk in various forms and corn are brought into Vietnam this way, and the country's food economy leans heavily on them.

Dunlap is enthusiastic about his job. He calls it the best in Vietnam because every month he has the satisfaction of seeing strides made in the economy of the country. He and his whole staff have just volunteered for a second tour of duty here.

PRESSURE USED

But, he says, it has been a question of pressuring officials and educating the people, too.

"We have to lean on the authorities to repair their warehouses, for instance. They're in bad shape here and wastage to rodents is common. So before we sign an agreement on a new consignment of rice we lay down these sort of conditions," Dunlap said. "But the Vietnamese are trying hard."

★ ★ ★

Educating the people can be harder. It took eight months to persuade farmers it is more profitable in the long run to feed hogs corn rather than garbage, even if the intial outlay is higher. But now the 2,000 tons of imported American corn that were so difficult to get rid of in March have been increased to 9,000 tons, all of which are eagerly absorbed by the farmers.

And the conservative eating habits of the Vietnamese have made acceptance of new foods difficult, too. People have had little besides rice, some vegetables, and small quantities of fish or chicken most of their lives, and prove stubborn to change.

2nd Recount Petition Filed

Supervisor Winner Makes Countermove

A counterpetition for a recount was filed yesterday with the Oakland County Election Office by Supervisor Lew R. Coy of District 27.

★ ★ ★

Circuit Judge William R. Beasley had given Coy permission to file the counterpetition late after ruling Monday that Ray Lahti, defeated by Coy in the Nov. 5 election by 50 votes, could go ahead with his recount.

★ ★ ★

Coy, 48, of 2942 Loon, Wixom, had challenged Lahti's right to a recount in a lawsuit on the grounds that Lahti had not informed him of his intention within 24 hours after filing his petition.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the 24-hour law, the state statute governing recounts requires that a counterpetition must be submitted within 48 hours after the original petition is filed.

LOST SEAT

Lahti, 53, of 240 Nalone, Wixom, lost his seat on the board of supervisors by a vote of 5,601 to 5,551.

★ ★ ★

He is asking for a recount in six precincts, while Coy's recount will involve only one.

★ ★ ★

Election officials think that the recount will begin sometime next week.

★ ★ ★

An earlier review of the vote for the two individuals can not take place until a recount is completed on Daylight Savings Time.

RECOUNT IN PROGRESS

The time recount is in progress and won't be completed until Monday.

The time issue is being rechecked in 105 of the county's 465 precincts.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hope Gorman, a member of the County Board of Canvassers, said today that an additional 95 votes against Daylight Savings Time have been picked up in the recount so far.

"A PAD THAT'S RIGHT OUT OF PLAYBOY!"

30-DAY OCCUPANCY

That's what one young swinger said when he first glimpsed an Oakland Valley Apartment! Modestly, we agree. We've put all the latest luxuries into these 1 and 2 bedroom apartments . . . sunken living rooms, terrace dining rooms, even private balconies. We've carpeted them, draped them, installed air conditioning, and sound-condition them so as not to inhibit parties. And just to show we're serious about the Playboy bit, we've built the great new Oakland Valley Club for Oakland Valley Apartment residents and their guests. It has a pool, card and game rooms, exercise room, sauna baths, and a very free-wheeling atmosphere. All yours for as little as $175 a month. P.S.—Bunnies Welcome.

Models Open Daily and Sunday—1 to 8 P.M. Saturday—1 to 6 P.M. Closed Wednesday.

'Political Garbage' Is Out on Campbell's TV Show

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Glen Campbell, who says he's "just an old boy from Arkansas that picks and grins," starts his own one-hour prime time CBS TV show Jan. 29, and he may be bucking the tide by promising, "The political garbage is out. We're not going to put down the government or American society and I'm not having any guests that make political speeches."

WILSON

Ten months ago he was practically unknown, singing at the Hotel Taft's Nashville Room, which was also practically unknown.

Suddenly he hit with a record, "Gentle on My Mind," and became host on "The Summer Brothers Smothers Show."

"I found out from the mail," 30-year-old Glen said at Toots Shor's, "that my audience didn't like the political junk. That's all right for Tommy Smothers. That's his bag. But it's not mine. Somebody thought I should do a put-down of 'I Believe.' I'm not puttin' down any religious song!"

Glen comes from a farm eight miles out of Delight, Ark. "How'd I get outa there? When I was 8, I went with my dad and three brothers to harvest tomatoes outside of Willshire, Ohio.

"Willshire!" exclaimed this columnist leaping to this columnist's feet. "That's next door to Rockford, my home town!"

"Rockford's where we used to go to see the picture show," Glen said. "We got paid 10 cents a hamper. I always had my gittar with me. That's where I found out there was something else in the world outside of Arkansas."

"Did you ever get to Fort Wayne or Lima?"

"I never got to them big towns. I was just a country boy," Glen said.

After the Time-Life "winners circle" party, Francine Gottfried, "Miss Wall Street" of '68, in a yellow sweater, had dinner at the Tower Suite with Astronauts Schirra, Cunningham and Slayton, and startled everybody.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Restaurateur Red Tracton described an unkempt little sidestreet cafe: "It's a dirty ashtray with music."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "We're a lazy generation. We have computers to do our thinking, and TV discussion shows to do our conversing."

EARL'S PEARLS: Nowadays if a movie has no intimate bedroom scenes, you get the feeling you came in late.—Ade Kahn, McCall's.

Director William Wyler, who shrugs off stories that Barbra Streisand really directed "Funny Girl," says he hopes someone starts a rumor he and Barbra were romantic: "You've no idea what that'd do for my ego." That's earl, brother.

A Look at TV

Astronauts, Little Lyn Star

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — Amid all the carefully-arranged ceremonies surrounding the Apollo 8 astronauts in the White House on Thursday, there came a delightful interruption that may have been slightly distruptive but which charmed the daytime television audience.

Eighteen-month-old Patrick Lyndon Nugent suddenly broke away and started to run toward his grandfather, President Johnson. After a moment of complete paralysis, his mother hurried forward, scooped him up and departed, looking a little grim.

★ ★ ★

The episode detracted not one whit from the honor being paid to the intrepid moon travelers, and it gave the proceedings a pleasant, informal warmth.

The three astronauts were the daytime stars of Thursday television. The three networks assiduously covered first the ceremonies with the President in the White House East Room, then the astronauts' speeches before Congress, followed by their news conference. The men handled the long day in the public eye with easy poise, wit and humor.

Tom Jones, an attractive young Welshman with a big voice and a wiggle reminiscent of early Elvis Presley, had his hour early in the evening on ABC — A London-taped special that is alleged to have persuaded the network to sign him to fill out the remainder of this season with a weekly show.

Jones is a strong and sure performer, but his special seemed less a television show than a taped version of a night-club or theatre appearance. Jones constantly seemed to be projecting to the back rows instead of to the camera or microphone.

The hour was loaded with music, with the star belting out his songs on a big, busy stage. But the show gave the viewers no chance to know the man, and since this kind of intimacy is vital to TV survival he will have to add another dimension if he expects to compete with established favorites.

Radical Chang

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — At 7 p.m. every Sunday the Irish border seems to disappear.

Cars stream out of Northern Ireland, where the pubs are shut, into the Irish Republic, where they are open. The customs men at the border have all gone home, and you could smuggle a herd of elephants.

★ ★ ★

The border is in fact good business for bartenders, smugglers, government employes and politicians. Ireland, with a total population of only 4½ million, has two parliaments, two sets of officials, two tax systems, two sets of customs men, two of everything.

No one expects the system to change soon. But radical change is nonetheless in sight on both sides of the line which has divided Ireland since home rule was established nearly 50 years ago.

SOME REFORMS

In the six counties of the mainly Protestant North, Prime Minister Terence O'Neill has been forced to yield some of the reforms demanded by the Roman Catholic minority. Northern Ireland is a largely-self-ruling part of Britain.

Husband Decorates Home With a Bold Color Theme

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Should the color theme be red, white, black? Should the furniture lean to Contemporary, Mediterranean, Provincial? What about draperies, carpeting, fabrics? Decisions, decisions and though Mrs. Ron Gardner may make her preference known, the final action hinges on her husband's approval.

Decorating his own home was somewhat of a busman's holiday for Ron Gardner who spends his days guiding discerning clients at the Thomas Furniture company in Waterford Township into furniture choices that they will be happy to live with for years to come.

★ ★ ★

To create the effect of spaciousness in the moderately-sized living room, Gardner selected white walls and white plush wall-to-wall carpeting. Fond of bold colors, he used scarlet and black to complete the room's color theme.

The dominant piece in the living room is the walnut-based sofa with its companion tables maintaining a constant line. The black plush cushion and its half-ellipse back are highlighted by scarlet wool pillows. Lighting the piece is a black-chained hanging fixture with a textured black-on-white shade.

Above the sofa hangs an oil depicting a night in New York City. The painting is balanced by black Japanese characters which impart an oriental feeling to the room. Repeating the scarlet of the back pillows is the plush round before the sofa.

Walnut cubes serve as versatile cigarette tables. Accent pieces in the arrangement include a crystal ashtray, artificial fruit in a pedestal container and red-glass grapes with green leaves.

★ ★ ★

Scarlet antique satin draperies blend with the twin red wool chairs serving the room's low black-lacquered table. As a light source, Gardner chose a black and red ceramic lamp with a white shade banded in scarlet velvet.

Continuing the contemporary mood with a hint of the exotic is the adjoining family room carpeted in red plush. The hearth of the white brick fireplace is also carpeted in the same material.

Walls of the room are white, again to put the emphasis on space. Color interest is introduced in a pair of matching wing backs flanking a walnut end table. The bold print stresses red, shades of purple and black.

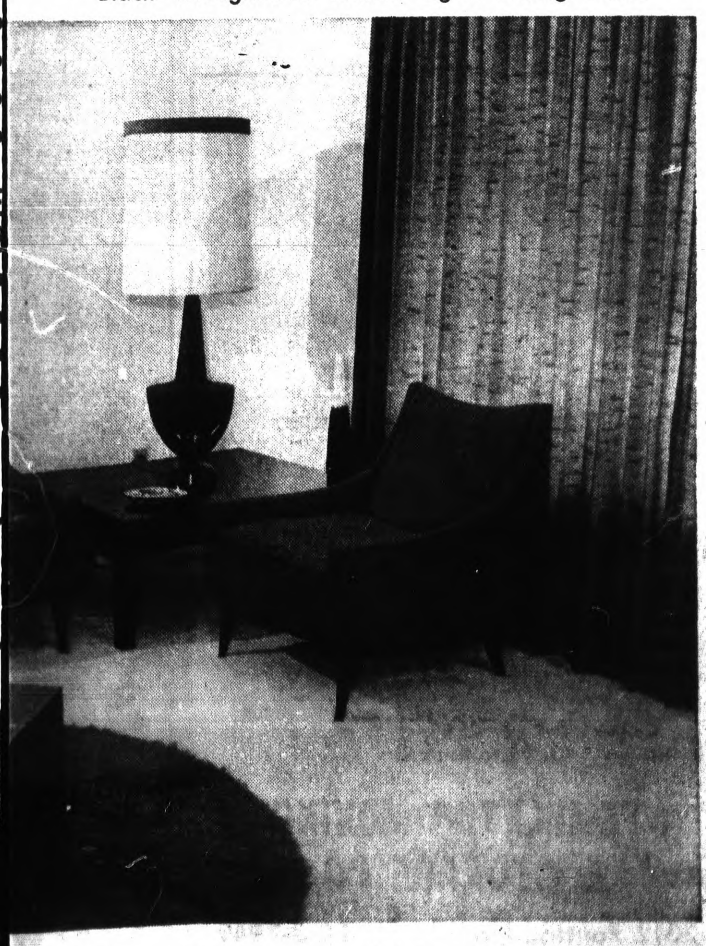

Serving the white sofa, is a round walnut cocktail table adorned by a cluster of red glass grapes with green leaves.

★ ★ ★

In the dining portion of the room, ruby glass pedestal candlesticks share the top of a black serving cabinet with crystal pieces. Above the cabinet hangs an original oil, "Blackout" by Rich Cahoon framed in black.

Radical Change Is in Sight for Divided Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — At 7 p.m. every Sunday the Irish border seems to disappear.

Cars stream out of Northern Ireland, where the pubs are shut, into the Irish Republic, where they are open. The customs men at the border have all gone home, and you could smuggle a herd of elephants.

★ ★ ★

The border is in fact good business for bartenders, smugglers, government employes and politicians. Ireland, with a total population of only 4½ million, has two parliaments, two sets of officials, two tax systems, two sets of customs men, two of everything.

No one expects the system to change soon. But radical change is nonetheless in sight on both sides of the line which has divided Ireland since home rule was established nearly 50 years ago.

SOME REFORMS

In the six counties of the mainly Protestant North, Prime Minister Terence O'Neill has been forced to yield some of the reforms demanded by the Roman Catholic minority. Northern Ireland is a largely-self-ruling part of Britain.

O'Neill has brought in legislation to abolish the "company vote" which in some cases gave businessmen multiple votes in local elections. He has ordered local governments to prepare a fair system of allocating municipal housing. Catholics have long complained that Protestants get preference in public housing.

★ ★ ★

Most significant of all he fired William, Craig, who as home minister was the principal target of complaints that police were overzealous in handling a recent wave of pro-Catholic demonstrations.

O'Neill's personal dispute with Craig centered on an issue that involved politics — the degree to which the British Parliament has the right to pressure Northern Ireland into reforms. But "Craig out" was the cry of the demonstrations, and out he went.

UNDER PRESSURE

In the 26 counties of the Roman Catholic South, the Republic of Ireland, Prime Minister Jack Lynch is under political pressures which could unseat his government.

This being Ireland, Northern Ireland the Republic are engaged in both a war of nerves and in moves to improve relations. But after 48 years of partition, prospects for unity look as remote as ever.

★ ★ ★

Even Nationalist politicians in the North, formally committed to reunion under the Republican flag, concede that the chances are slim. They now look for eventual federation, perhaps as a result of British and Irish entry into the European Common Market.

Ireland is divded as much in the minds of its people and their ways of life as it is politically. The rival capitals illustrate the contrast.

DOUR INDUSTRIAL CITY

Belfast is a dour industrial city, built around the derricks of its shipyards. Sunday in Belfast is a day for best suits and church and no entertainment.

Dublin, in the South is a city with its heart in entertainment and the professions. Its 400,000 people support five daily newspapers and five professional theaters. Sunday, after Mass, is a day for sport and a night out in "singing pubs."

By world standards, both nations are prosperous. The Irish, according to the World Health Organization, are the world's best-fed people.

But both have areas of real poverty. Housing conditions in older cities are often scandalous.

LIVING IN 1 ROOM

Londonderry, where the North's civil rights campaign gets its main impetus, has whole families living in one room — in one case a family of nine.

Now the civil rights movement, with its emphasis on reform in housing and government, is spreading from the North to the republic. Politicians on both sides of the border face a critical year.

★ ★ ★

In the North, the basic demand remains "one man, one vote" in local elections. Votes now are confined to householders and their wives, and 200,000 adults are disfranchised in municipal elections.

The civil rights campaigners say this disfranchisement, coupled with rigging of electoral wards, acts mainly to the disadvantage of the Catholics who make up a third of the North's 1½ million.

IN MAJORITY

As a result, such towns as Londonderry and Dungannon have city governments controlled by Protestants, although Catholics are in the majority.

These political arguments, with their basis in religion, are part of the battle between Catholic and Protestant which has raged in Ireland for centuries. Extremists on both sides fan the fire. Demonstrations and countermarches have brought repeated clashes with police and are likely to continue.

★ ★ ★

Tensions arising from the marches have put a damper on efforts by Lynch and O'Neill to increase political and economic cooperation. Both men are moderate in their religious views and have sought to work together in occasional meetings.

The Belfast government says any change in the municipal voting system must await a general reorganization of local government methods. This may take 18 months.

ANOTHER DEMAND

Another demand is for repeal of the Special Powers Act, which permits detention without charge. It has been in operation since 1920, mainly to deal with the outlawed Irish Republican Army. It has not been used since 1962, when the IRA dropped its attacks on border units of the northern police.

A parallel civil rights campaign is mounting in the South against a criminal justice bill which critics say infringes the right of assembly.

The bill, due for final debate in January, would give police powers to ban demonstrations. It makes it an offense to discourage payment of taxes, a favorite form of protest in Ireland, most recently used by farmers in demanding better support prices.

The bill has been denounced by such organizations as labor unions and the Farmers Association.

SHIFT TO LEFT COMING

Some people in the know say a marked shift to the left is coming in Irish politics, and with it the defeat of the Fianna Fail party which has ruled for most of the past 30 years.

Its logical successor would be a coalition between the union-backed Laborites and the moderately nationalist Fine Gael.

If the election due by 1970 does produce a left-of-center coalition, then the Irish Republic is due for a further step toward a welfare state and a further reduction of its differences with the North.

The republic already has an elaborate series of unemployment and sickness benefits but these invariably are lower than the British rates applied in the North.

URGED TO EMIGRATE

Comparable differences exist in unemployment pay. One effect is that the urge to emigrate is less strong in the North than in the republic.

In Londonderry, a city of 57,000, 17 per cent of the male population is unemployed. But their relief pay is often greater than the $38.40 which is the average industrial wage in the republic.

★ ★ ★

The North maintains these higher levels at a cost of $240 million to the British treasury, one-third of the government expenditure in the North. Their very existence is a major barrier to a real dismantling of the border.

IMPRESSED BY PONTIAC PLAN—Two experts had high praise for the Pontiac Plan for development of downtown urban renewal land. Speaking at last night's Pontiac Area Planning Council meeting were Jerry Fieldhouse (left), regional site representative for the department of Housing and Urban Development, and Aaron Blumberg, an investment and real estate consultant from Detroit.

Edwards New Board Head in GOP-Splinter Dem Win

By JEAN SAILE

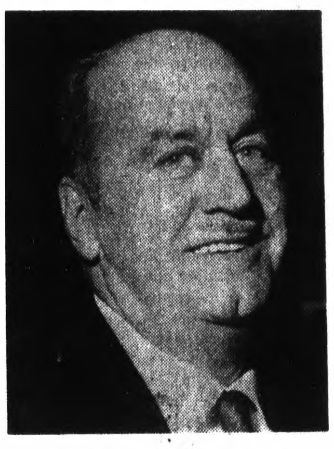

The new chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors is Democrat Charles B. Edwards Jr. of Madison Heights.

★ ★ ★

His election was an upset victory over the Democratic caucus and its candidate, Philip O. Mastin Jr. of Hazel Park. It was also considered a significant achievement by minority Republicans on the board, who were rumored to have instructed their entire caucus to vote for Edwards.

Mastin, who fell one vote short of being elected on the first ballot, withdrew from the race prior to the second and final ballot in an effort to break the deadlock.

Alexander C. Perinoff of Southfield, the Democratic candidate for vice chairman, was elected without controversy.

CHARLES B. EDWARDS

Related Story, Page A-4

Yesterday's meeting, the first official gathering of the new board, lasted six hours. It included 13 roll call votes, four recesses for caucus deliberation and much interparty friction.

It also showed there is trouble in the Democratic party. The 15-12 Democratic majority on the new board was weakened by defections by former State Sen. Carl O'Brien of Pontiac, Edwards and Thomas H. O'Donoghue of Ferndale.

O'Brien is loudly unhappy with the lineup suggested by his caucus for committee appointments. Both Edwards and O'Donoghue are long-time supervisors and have made no secret of their unhappiness with what they call a "power grab" by younger and less experienced Democrats.

Despite pleas for bipartisan cooperation by temporary chairman William L. Mainland of Milford, Democrats and Republicans showed themselves sharply divided on many issues.

QUICK START

The fireworks began immediately after roll call while County Clerk Lynn Allen still held the chair.

Democrats put down an attempt by Republicans to operate under the rules of the former board, (providing for a two-thirds majority on major issues) which would have given the minority party much more voice on the board.

Members did accept Robert's Rules of Order with the suspension of the two-thirds majority as applies to the adoption of permanent rules and bylaws.

The Democrats' proposal that a blue-ribbon citizens' advisory committee study duties and salaries of the board was defeated.

COMMITTEE TO STUDY

A committee of the board of auditors and board of supervisors representatives will study the matter and make recommendation to the full board by the middle of February.

Republicans were defeated in their attempt to get more representation on the committee on committees, proposed by the Democrats for the purpose of studying board restructure and making committee appointments.

The committee — Democrats William M. Richards of Ferndale, Niles Olson of Lake Orion, George H. Grba of Pontiac and Mastin, and Republicans Paul Kasper of Bloomfield-Troy, Wallace Gabler of Royal Oak and Robert Patnales of Royal Oak, Republican caucus chairman — is to report back to the full board at the next meeting at 10 a.m. Monday.

Both Democrat and Republican plans for division of responsibility will be considered.

Pontiac Plan Gets a Two-Way Boost

By ED BLUNDEN

The Pontiac Plan received a two-way boost last night from experts in government and finance.

The speakers appeared before the Pontiac Area Planning Council (PAPC) meeting.

★ ★ ★

Aaron Blumberg, an investment and real estate consultant of Detroit, termed the plan "feasible, excellent and clever."

Jerry Fieldhouse, regional site representative for the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), called it "exciting."

The Pontiac Plan is for transformation of the vacant 27 acres of urban renewal land south of the downtown area into a housing, entertainment, cultural and shopping complex into which more than $100 million in private development is expected to be poured.

ADOPTED TUESDAY

The plan was developed by the architectural firm of Bruno Leon Associates of Detroit. It was adopted Tuesday by the City Commission as Pontiac's concept for urban renewal.

Following last night's report, the PAPC gave its unanimous endorsement and members urged the entire community to get behind it.

★ ★ ★

From a financial angle, Blumberg narrowed the issue down to the basic question: "Will it sell?" His answer was an emphatic "yes."

OFFERS ANALYSIS

Blumberg was described as a consultant who had been involved in several area developments including Southfield, Northland and downtown Detroit.

In his analysis an investor would want to know if he could construct a building at the site and then offer a service at a competitive price. An investor would have to be certain if he built a hotel, office or store he would be able to make a profit from his sales or rentals after his expenses and payment for the initial investment.

Blumberg said in his opinion this would be possible in the Pontiac Plan and stated some reasons: The developer would not be faced with huge charges for installation of utilities (the city has sewer, water, power, etc.); a ready and growing market exists in and around the city; cost of land has already been subsidized through the investment of the federal government; parking would be provided without initial investment.

This last item aroused some questions which were answered by James Bates, city Urban Renewal director who also contributed to the presentation. Bates said the city planned to use its borrowing power to build an underground parking lot under the complex.

LBJ Wants Joint Surtax Push

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen says President Johnson wants the 10 per cent income surtax extended, but "he would like some company" in recommending it to Congress.

There were indications yesterday Johnson wants President-elect Nixon to join him in the recommendation so the issue would not become the political controversy it was before Congress passed the surtax, at Johnson's request, last year.

DIRKSEN

The surtax expires June 30. It was originally imposed as an anti-inflation measure.

House Minority Leader Gerald R. Ford said he understood Johnson was prepared to make a statement about the surtax in his State of the Union message or budget request, and that Nixon would then issue a statement of his own.

NIXON SILENT

House Majority Leader Carl Albert, Oklahoma, said, however, the White House had received no word from Nixon yesterday afternoon.

Dirksen told newsmen yesterday that Johnson has drawn up a tentative budget of $195 billion for the fiscal year starting July 1, an increase of $10.6 billion over current federal spending.

But the Illinois Republican said the $195 billion was a "base figure" which could be changed, depending on whether Johnson decides in favor of recommending the surtax extension.

Dirksen said congressional leaders were told at a White House meeting revenues would total about $198 billion during the year if the surtax were extended.

Secret Quizzing for Sirhan Jury?

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Some questioning of prospective jurors in the Sirhan Bishara Sirhan trial will be conducted behind closed doors, the defense says.

Grant B. Cooper, one of three lawyers defending the 24-year-old Jordanian charged with murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, revealed plans for the secret questioning during an impromptu news conference yesterday at the end of the third day of Sirhan's trial. The trial was in recess today. Jury selection is expected to start Monday.

★ ★ ★

Cooper said Judge Herbert V. Walker wants propsective jurors cross-examined individually in the privacy of his chambers in areas "of a sensitive nature."

Cooper defined as sensitive any questioning about opinions prospective jurors might have on Sirhan's guilt or innocense — "What they may have seen on television or read in the newspaper."

DEATH PENALTY

But Cooper said questions about the death penalty would be asked in open court.

Sirhan appeared for the nine-minute court session, then retired to the judge's chambers with defense attorneys and prosecutors to hear private testimony from radio newsmen about publicity in the case.

The defendant was dressed in a new blue-gray suit and tie. He was accompanied by two guards.

For the first time since his trial began Tuesday, his mother, Mary, and his brothers Adel, 29, and Munir, 21, all were absent.

President-Elect Marks 56th Birthday

Nixon Aides Map Program for Congress

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Nixon set his cabinet to work today on a two-day round of conferences that will help shape the program he puts before Congress.

Nixon is going back to work himself, primarily on his inaugural address, after a 56th birthday trip yesterday to Northhampton, Mass., for a family party. He received a pair of gold cuff links from his wife; the promise of a red Irish setter from his staff; socks, neckties and pajamas from his daughters, and a telegram from President Johnson.

★ ★ ★

The lead-off session in a series of Cabinet conferences with 22 Nixon advisory groups will be the meeting of Atty. Gen.-designate John N. Mitchell with the task force on crime and law enforcement. Dist. Atty. Evelle J. Younger of Los Angeles heads that group.

Other sessions were scheduled to cover education, public welfare, government organization and health. Secretary of State-designate William P. Rogers; Robert H. Finche, who will be secretary of health, education and welfare; and Postmaster General-designate Winton Blount were the other Nixon cabinet members due to participate in today's sessions.

CRUCIAL ISSUE

A crucial issue due up later in the sequence is the 10 per cent income surtax which will expire June 30 unless it is renewed. Nixon at one point said it should lapse on schedule, but has since conditioned his tax policy on future budget and economic conditions.

The 22 task forces have, since election day, drafted reports for the new administration on an array of federal problems. Nixon is receiving summaries of their findings.

★ ★ ★

The New York Times said today it had learned that Charles E. Walker, an economist with experience in government, private industry and teaching, will become the new undersecretary of the treasury in the Nixon administration.

The Times said he would work under Treasury Secretary-designate David M. Kennedy in a reorganized Treasury Department, dealing with all but international financial affairs. Another undersecretary will assist in that area.

Dr. Walker has been executive vice president of the American Bankers Association for the past eight years. During the Kennedy and Johnson administrations, he advocated restrictions on government spending. He suppported the tax cut of 1964 and the tax increase of 1968.

The president-elect spent last night at the $95-a-month Northhampton apartment of his daughter Julie and her new husband, David Eisenhower.

Arctic Chill to Linger Still

The bone-chilling blast of Arctic air that spread over the nation's central and eastern sections yesterday still holds its grip on the Pontiac area.

The rough winter weather continues to plague Pontiac with temperatures headed for zero or below tonight.

Snow squalls and gales spreading from the Great Lakes to the Appalachians dumped another two inches of snow on Pontiac yesterday.

Here is the official U.S. Weather Bureau Report for the weekend:

TODAY — Partly cloudy and colder, snow flurries, high 15 to 20. Fair and colder tonight, the low 3 above to 2 below zero.

Winds west to northwesterly 12 to 22 miles per hour becoming northwesterly at eight to 15 miles tonight and variable at five to 12 miles tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

TOMORROW — Partly sunny and a little colder, high 12 to 15.

SUNDAY — Increasing cloudiness and not so cold.

Precipitation probabilities in per cent: 30 today, 20 tonight and tomorrow.

Fourteen was the low mercury reading prior to 8 a.m. today. At 12:30 p.m. the temperature was 18.

U.S. Selects Moon-Landing Team

EDWIN ALDRIN

NEIL ARMSTRONG

MICHAEL COLLINS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A civilian and two Air Force colonels who have walked in space will fly the Apollo 11 mission, first scheduled attempt by the United States to land men on the moon.

The civilian astronaut, Neil A. Armstrong, will command the spacecraft, tentatively set for launching July 15, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said yesterday.

Related Story, Page A-3

Armstrong and Col. Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. are to descend to the moon in a Lunar Module from the main spacecraft which will remain in lunar orbit, piloted by Lt. Col. Michael Collins.

Armstrong, survivor of two near-disasters since becoming an astronaut in 1963, is a former test pilot for the X15 rocket plane and was a Navy combat flier during the Korean War.

Civilian Heads U.S. Team for Moon Landing

In choosing the three 38-year-old space veterans, NASA passed up the Apollo 8 astronauts who made the first lunar orbital flight in last month.

But two of these, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Lt. Col. William A. Anders, have been named to the Apollo 11 back-up crew. The other, Air Force Col. Frank Borman, is being assigned to ground work at his own request. He will become deputy director of crew flight operations.

Rookie astronaut Fred Haise is the third man on the back-up crew.

NASA practice has been to spread choice assignments among astronauts qualified for them.

Apollo 9, set for launch Feb. 28, will be an earth orbit of the lunar module of the type in which Armstrong and Aldrin are to land on the moon.

It will be the first manned test flight of the module, and if all goes perfectly, NASA officials say there will be no need for Apollo 10. Scheduled for May 17, this would be a moon orbit of the lunar module. If it is skipped, the Apollo 11 flight may be in mid-June.

Armstrong, the first civilian to fly in space, was commander of the perilous Gemini 8 flight in 1966. After he successfully linked his capsule with a rocket in orbit, the capsule spun out of control, but Armstrong guided it to a safe splashdown in the Pacific.

Last year a lunar landing training craft Armstrong was testing at Ellington Air Force Base, Fla., lost power and fell. Armstrong ejected and parachuted to earth. He was slightly injured when his parachute dragged him across the ground.

Aldrin set a record for "space walking" five hours on the Gemini 12 shot in 1966.

Collins walked in space for 39 minutes and stood in the hatch for another 49 on Gemini 10 in 1966. He originally was scheduled for the Apollo 8 mission, but was sidelined because of a spinal operation. Lovell went instead.

Milliken, House Boost Pro-Parochiaid Forces

LANSING (UPI) — Weary lawmakers, working for more than 14 hours yesterday, decided to call it quits for the weekend early this morning and headed home amid the controversy over tax aid to parochial schools.

Forces favoring the aid had their hand strengthened by qualified support from the state's new governor and a key House rules change.

★ ★ ★

But Gov. George Romney, who is resigning soon to join President-elect Richard M. Nixon's cabinet, remained a roadblock to so-called parochiaid legislation.

Romney has suggested that instead of appropriating tax dollars to nonpublic schools, the Legislature and church officials should consider leaving secular education entirely to the public school system.

★ ★ ★

In farewell remarks to a joint legislative session yesterday, he reaffirmed that stand, but said he was not advocating the mass closing of Michigan's 1,000 parochial schools.

In other political action yesterday, State Sen. Raymond Dzendzel of Detroit was deposed from the position of Senate Democratic leader which he has held for four years.

Liberal Democratic senators elected Sen. Sander M. Levin of Berkley as the new minority leader.

The leadership shake-up came after a 2½-hour caucus which resulted in 10 votes for Levin and 6 for the labor-backed Dzendzel. Two senators were absent. Levin received the liberal and black votes.

MILLIKEN ON SCHOOLS

Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken, who ascends to the governor's office when Romney departs, delivered his first State of the State address to the joint assembly yesterday. He made it clear he does not embrace Romney's position on non-public school aid.

Milliken told the legislators he would sign a parochiaid bill if it complied with the Constitution and was accompanied by funds to pay for the aid.

Even more encouraging to parochiaid forces was an unprecendented rules change boosting membership on the House Appropriations Committee from 13 to 15, permitting the Democratic majority to stack that powerful unit with parochiaid supporters.

Unrest Hits Colleges on East, West Coasts

By The Associated Press

Queens College prepared to reopen today in the wake of a violent student take-over. Two other eastern colleges still were beset by student control of vital centers but were not shut down.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, demonstrations by students at five West Coast schools yesterday necessitated police action in three instances.

Most of those involved in campus disorders were Negro students demanding changes in administration and policy.

★ ★ ★

Queens, one of a half-dozen divisions of the City University of New York, prepared to reopen after a two-day shutdown that followed take-over of some offices by Negro and Puerto Rican students.

About 10 per cent of Queens' 25,000 students are nonwhite.

Negro students remained in control of centers at Brandeis University at Waltham, Mass., and Swarthmore College, just outside Philadelphia. Both schools remain in session.

On the West Coast, police arrested 293 students peacefully in a second day of confrontation yesterday at San Fernando Valley State College in Northridge, Calif. At newly opened Southwest College 18 persons were arrested on charges of interfering with school operations. At East Los Angeles College, 95 sheriff's deputies moved in to restore order after students took over a student center and one other building.

★ ★ ★

At California's El Camino College, Negro students burned an effigy of a teacher but the affair broke up without police being called.

At San Francisco State College, police broke up a demonstration after arresting five students and pushing a crowd of 500 away from the college entrance.

★ ★ ★

State Dem Out of Party Race

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Mich., a leader of House liberals, has declared himself out of the running for the post of Democratic national chairman. Indications were that Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey would name his choice soon.

O'Hara told Humphrey yesterday that he had reluctantly come to the conclusion that he could not do justice to his responsibilities in the House and to the party if he accepted the post.

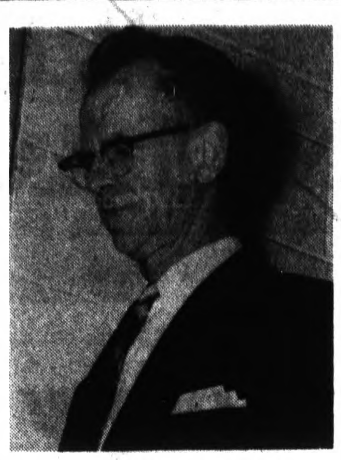

★ ★ ★

"While I very much appreciate the confidence you have shown in me by discussing the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee with me," he said in a letter to Humphrey, "I must ask that my name be withdrawn from further consideration."

Humphrey has been conducting a search for the successor to Lawrence O'Brien, who this week resigned as chairman. Reports indicated that the field had been narrowed down to O'Hara, former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford and Sen. Fred Harris, D-Okla.

WILLINGNESS

Although he removed himself for consideration as Democratic national chairman, O'Hara told Humphrey that he would be willing to undertake temporary assignments for the party. He suggested service on one of the task forces created by the August convention in an effort to reform the party.

Oakland County Assistant Prosecutor Bruce Leitman said today that it is the opinion of two toxologists that the traces of the drug found in the brain of Mrs. Hannah Bowerbank, 63, of Detroit was sufficient to cause death.

★ ★ ★

The sodium pentothal was discovered in tests conducted by Dr. S. David Kutob, chief toxologist for the Michigan Department of Health, after Mrs. Bowerbank's body was exhumed and an autopsy performed in November.

Dr. Clark had listed Mrs. Bowerbank's death as a result of a heart attack. Clark was convicted of manslaughter June 28, 1968, of giving Mrs. Grace Neal, 43, of Livonia, an overdose of sodium pentothal.

Mrs. Neil was Mrs. Bowerbank's successor as Dr. Clark's assistant in his office at 30735 Grand River, Farmington. Mrs. Bowerbank died March 20, 1967. Mrs. Neil died the following Nov. 3.

In addition to Dr. Kutob, and Dr. Richard E. Olsen, pathologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, Leitman said he consulted with Dr. Frederick Rieders, director of the Philadelphia's Poison Information Center, in determining the cause of death. Rieders had testified at Clark's trial.

Even though the cause of death has been determined, Leitman said it is not certain at this time whether a new charge will be leveled at Dr. Clark. Leitman said that the investigation will continue.

Japan to Produce Jets

TOKYO (AP) — The Japanese government today approved a nine-year plan to produce 34 F4E Phantom jet fighter planes in fiscal 1969 and build a fleet of 104 Phantoms by 1977.

The defense agency decided late last year to make the American twin-engine supersonic jet its mainstay fighter. Cost per plane will be about $5.5 million.

Red Toll 6 Times Allies'--S. Viet

SAIGON (AP) — The South Vietnamese government claimed today 191,307 Vietcong and North Vietnamese troops were killed in 1968, nearly six times allied losses.

But North Vietnam called 1968 "the best year so far in the Vietnamese people's struggle against U.S. aggression."

The Saigon government put South Vietnamese losses last year at 17,486 killed. The U.S. Command has not released official figures for the year, but American battle deaths through Dec. 28 were 14,521.

★ ★ ★

Despite its claim of heavy enemy losses, the government, in a year-end review, estimated total enemy strength at 300,100 Vietcong, North Vietnamese and political cadre. It claimed 151,000 North Vietnamese troops had infiltrated the South in 1968 — an assessment vastly different from unofficial U.S. estimates of 225,000 to 230,000 men.

The U.S. Command does not publish official estimates of enemy strength, but reliable American sources said the South Vietnamese estimate was considered "high."

HIGH ESTIMATES

In addition to those killed in action, the Saigon government said the enemy lost 21,050 men through capture and 17,597 who defected under the "Open Arms" program. This accounted for a total enemy manpower loss of 229,954 last year, the government said.

KUALA LUMPUR (AP) — Malaysian authorities are still seeking 35 militant Communist leaders who escaped a police crackdown that netted 140 suspects last November, Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak told Parliament today.

MOSCOS (AP) — The Soviet Union's TU144 supersonic jetliner made its second flight Wednesday, climbing, banking and diving as Soviet correspondents observed from another aircraft, the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda reported today.

Schools to Start Clothing Drive

The 14th annual citywide clothing collection in Pontiac schools will get under way Monday.

A goal of one pound per student in the system, or about 25,000 pounds, was set for this year by the Administrators and Superintendents Association (ASA), sponsors of the drive.

★ ★ ★

The drive will last until Friday, according to Lester Stanley, principal of LeBaron School and chairman of ASA's committee of administrators.

The committee sent home bulletins with all of the schoolchildren asking for clothing. Adults' clothing also will be accepted.

★ ★ ★

The clothing will be given to Dorcas Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and the Salvation Army for distribution.

With recommendations from school principals to these organizations, the usual procedure of investigation of needy families will be unnecessary, Stanley said.

Sweden Gives Hanoi Full Diplomatic Ties

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Sweden extended full diplomatic recognition to North Vietnam today in an apparent effort to strengthen the Communist positions at the Paris talks.

Sweden is the first western European nation to grant full recognition to Hanoi, although Britain and France maintain foreign service offices in the North Vietnamese capital.

★ ★ ★

The Swedish decisions came as no surprise following a chill in American-Swedish relations during the last two years because of Sweden's opposition to the Vietnam War.

Much of Italy Is Affected by New Wave of Strikes

ROME (AP)—Much of Italy was strikebound today. Unions called tens of thousands off their jobs in textile mills, metalworking shops and other industries from Venice to Bari. A 24-hour public transport strike crippled Rome.

The new wave of strikes came just a day after lawyers and judges demanding a major revamping of the country's creaky court system staged a near-riot outside the Palace of Justice.

The widespread labor unrest, coupled with continued student demonstrations and occupations, posed a serious challenge to the newly seated center-left government of Premier Mariano Rumor.

The Rumor government, formed Dec. 12 and certified by confidence votes in both houses of Parliament just before Christmas, has pledged to push for full employment across the land, better conditions for workers and reforms for universities and high schools.

Italy's Communist party and its ally, the Proletarian Socialist party, were fanning the new flames of unrest, Both parties had sought to prevent the center-left realignment, urging an "alternative" government that they left undefined.

The pro-Communist Rome newspaper Paese Sera pleaded in large headlines for all Romans to leave their cars at home today and walk to work or to shop. Otherwise, the paper warned, the city would again become a sea of unmoving autos, as happened during a transport strike Dec. 23.

DEMAND HIGHER PAY

Unions sponsoring the transport strike were demanding higher pay for their members.

But other labor strikes which the Communists claimed hit 17 Italian cities today were aimed primarily at eliminating the "salary zone" system in Italy. Under this system workers in mid-Italy and father south earn less per hour doing the same work as laborers in the more prosperous north.

Hospital to Dedicate $1-Million Facility

Pontiac General Hospital will dedicate Sunday what is said to be one of the largest and best-equipped emergency department and physical medicine and rehabilitation centers in the state.

The dedication will be at an open house from 3 to 5 p.m.

★ ★ ★

The $1-million facility which is connected to the main hospital building by an underground tunnel is expected to be put into use in about a week, depending upon when it can be fully equipped, said hospital administrator Harold B. Euler.

He said the emergency department which has 27 beds will be the first in Michigan and possibly the country to make complete use of disposable clothing and materials.

Patients' gowns, sheets, pillowcases, blankets, wash clothes, drapes, cubical curtains, sponges, nurses's cover-gowns and caps and masks will be disposable to prevent germs from spreading through the hospital.

The cost of the disposables reportedly is no more than using and washing cloth supplies.

★ ★ ★

Other features of the addition at 18 Seminole include:

• Three times as much space as the present emergency facility which has 13 beds.

• More modern equipment, including a floating x-ray table, a machine to process dry x-ray film in 90 seconds and surgilifts to transfer patients lying down to other facilities without moving them.

★ ★ ★

• A special room for children — but referred to as the Teenie Bopper Room — with a console projector to show cartoons.

• A new cardiac clinic in the Kenny-Michigan Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation Center.

TREATMENTS TO DOUBLE

One of the largest rehabilitation centers in the Detroit metropolitan area, the center will be able to double the number of treatments given daily. The center contains no beds.

★ ★ ★

A preview of the facilities was given yesterday to about 50 persons who attended a luncheon for donors to the addition.

★ ★ ★

Funds for the new building were made available through donations from the estate of Evelyn Cash Duncan in memory of Ada J. Cash, Gregor-Kohn Foundation, Kenny-Michigan Rehabilitation Foundation, Jacob R. Kovinsky Memorial Fund and Kresge Foundation.

Troy School Officials Claim Classroom Shortage

(EDITOR'S NOTE — A special election is scheduled Monday in the Troy School District on renewal of an 8-mill tax levy for operating purposes and approval of a proposed $6.75-million bond issue. This is the last of three articles detailing the background of the election.)

By TOM GRAY

TROY — Growth problems and a resulting classroom shortage are the major concerns cited by district school officials in scheduling Monday's special election on a $6.75-million bond issue for construction.

Included under the proposed bonding are a new west side elementary school, additions at Hill and Union elementary schools, Troy High School and Baker and Smith junior highs and remodeling at Big Beaver and Poppleton elementary schools.

The issue would also include funds for planning and design for a future high school and a future third junior high school.

Included on Monday's ballot is the proposed five-year renewal of an 8-mill property tax levy for operating expenses. The present levy, approved in 1963, expired in December.

EARLIER VOTE URGED

Schools Supt. Dr. Rex B. Smith previously urged the board of education to schedule the election in December, but a decision was delayed because some members of the board wanted to wait for results of an investigation of the district which is being conducted by the state attorney general's office.

A representative from the district's architects, KMM Associates, of Ann Arbor, however, told the board in November that authorization for the issue would be needed soon so bids could be taken in the spring and construction begun this summer.

★ ★ ★

Enrollment in the system has risen from 3,686 in 1960 to 5,451 now, and is estimated at 6,747 for the school year 1971-72.

At present, according to Smith, pupils in overcrowded situations at four elementary schools are being transported to other schools.

★ ★ ★

Because of the district's increasing tax valuation, the superintendent said, it may be possible to continue the present debt retirement rate of 7 mills even if the issue is approved.

INCREASE POSSIBLE

If the valuation did not reach its projected level of $152 million by the end of 1968, though, the rate could be raised up to half a mill, Smith said.

Earlier last year, the board moved to improve its borrowing power at the urging of the State Municipal Finance Commission — by approving a reduced budget to decrease its deficit by about a third. At the end of last school year, the deficit was estimated at $600,000 by school officials.

The finance commission must give its approval to future bond issues, even after they are approved by voters.

★ ★ ★

As for the millage renewal, Smith pointed to several reasons for supporting passage.

DEFICIT REMAINS

"Even under the present operating tax levy, our needs are not being met," the superintendent commented. "And the remaining $461,000 of our cash deficit must be eliminated by the end of the 1969-70 school year.

The four-mill hike voted by residents last June, Smith said, only allowed about $225,000 of the deficit to be erased. "Any increase in income from increase in valuation of the district will be needed for added enrollment and increasing costs," he added.

★ ★ ★

If the 8 mills proves to be more than necessary — a circumstance which Smith sees as highly unlikely — the board would not have to levy all of the authorized millage.

At present, the superintendent noted, Troy ranks ninth amont 15 South Oakland districts with a total tax rate for operation of 26.70 mills.

HIGH SCHOOL ADDITION — This is an artist's conception of a proposed addition to Troy High School, 3179 Livernois, which would be built with funds from the district's pending $6.75-million bond issue. The addition (in white) would enlarge the school's library and athletic facilities, besides including new classrooms.

New Head of County Board Has Work Cut Out for Him

By JEAN SAILE

Charles B. Edwards of Madison Heights, newly elected chairman of the County Board of Supervisors, has his work cut out for him.

In addition to achieving harmony on the board—split 15-12 between Democrats and Republicans—he also is going to have to try to heal the rift in Democratic ranks.

★ ★ ★

That the rift is due largely to his election as chairman isn't going to make the job any easier.

"I have always been a Democrat, and I always will be," said the new chairman. "I only hope I can pull this body together to work for the good of the county."

ON SECOND BALLOT

Edwards, a supervisor for nine years, won his post in a second ballot by defeating temporary chairman William L. Mainland, Democrat from Milford, and Robert Patnales, Republican caucus leader from Royal Oak. Edwards got 15 votes, Mainland 11 and Patnales 1.

It was rumored that the entire Republican caucus had been instructed to vote for Edwards, who was nominated for chairman by Patnales.

News Analysis

Mastin obtained 13 votes. Fourteen were needed. His opposition, Robert Patnales got 12 votes and two supervisors abstained.

PARTY LINES HELD

Democratic party lines held long enough to persuade Edwards to turn down a Republican nomination for chairman on the first ballot. His withdrawal brought Republican charges of "force and intimidation" against the Democrats.

By the time nominations for the second ballot were opened, it almost required a scorecard to tell the candidates.

★ ★ ★

There were Democrats nominating Democrats, Democrats nominating Republicans, Republicans nominating Republicans and Republicans nominating Democrats.

Former Board Chairman Delos Hamlin, R-Farmington, was nominated by a Democrat, but declined the office.

Mastin withdrew after having been nominated, and the field was left open to Edwards, Mainland and Patnales. Mastin's withdrawal came after the break for lunch and several Democratic caucuses in which he reportedly learned he could not control three members of his party.

Mainland, who hewed strictly to party lines throughout the day, accepted his nomination only after conferring with the Democratic caucus. He turned down a previous nomination.

★ ★ ★

It was largely due to his pleas that any inter-party harmony was achieved.

There were floor fights over the proposed agenda, the temporary rules, the problem of pay for supervisors and the frequently called recesses.

About the only predictable action of the board yesterday was the election of Alexander C. Perinoff, the Democratic caucus nominee for vice chairman, over Patnales. Perinoff got 14 votes and Patnales received 13.

Mainland and Hamlin were named the county's delegates to the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (SEMCOG) and Perinoff and Mrs. Mary Bawden, R-Birmingham, were named their alternates.

The board voted unanimously to attend, at county expense, a New Horizons in County Government meeting Jan. 27 and 28 in Detroit.

Police on Guard in Oil Strike

DETROIT (UPI) — Detroit Police and Wayne County sheriff's deputies yesterday were assigned to watch for violence in the strike by members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union against seven Detroit-area gasoline and fuel companies.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Richard Maher assigned four sheriff's deputies to watch Gulf Oil Corp. depots in nearby Novi and Hamtramck after the company sought an injunction against picketing at its plants.

★ ★ ★

Detroit police acted after a Mobil Oil Corp. gasoline truck driver reported his truck was damaged while he was making deliveries to a gas station.

The judge said the deputies would be asked to testify in court Monday as impartial observers for the court. He said both sides had made charges and countercharges of illegal activities at the sites, and he wanted an impartial judgment.

Deadline Near for Tree Orders

TROY — It's not too late to order a tree for your yard this summer in this city.

Residents have until Wednesday to place orders for trees, either to be planted in city right-of-ways or for their own property, with the parks and recreation department.

★ ★ ★

Parks and Recreation Director D. Lee Osborn said the forestation program was planned last year, but failed to get off the ground when the city encountered problems in ordering trees on short notice.

However, Osborn added, the city has entered into a three-year contract with Cottage Nursery of Lansing to provide the trees.

TREES AVAILABLE

Available are little-leaf linden, green ash and pin oak for right-of-ways. All are 1½-2 inches in diameter and 10-15 feet high, said Osborn, and will be planted, tended and replaced by the city, if necessary at $15 apiece.

Residents may also order trees for their own use on a cash-and-carry basis without guarantee. Prices will range from $8 for 1-1½-inch diameter, under-10-foot trees to $15 for the larger size offered for right-of-ways.

★ ★ ★

"We planned the program for residents who have lost trees through Dutch elm disease, or who live on a street where a sewer has been put in and trees cut down," Osborn explained.

The trees are scheduled for delivery to the city in early April.

3 Districts Seek State Grant to Study Year-Round School

Three area school districts jointly are applying for a State Board of Education grant to study a 12-month school year.

The Oxford, Lake Orion and Rochester districts will cooperate in submitting the application, which is due by Jan. 17.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Harry J. Jones, director of instruction in Rochester, and a member of the three-man interdistrict committee which drafted the application, said the proposed study would consider both economic and educational efficiency of year-round operations.

"We discussed our common interests and agreed that it might be wise to submit a proposal together, so that we would have a large enough area to make a more feasible study," he explained.

The state board, Jones said, has $100,000 available for the grants, which may not exceed $25,000 apiece.

The application drafted by the committee notes points of similarity between the three districts, asserting that they "share similar problems with many other school districts located on the outer fringes of large metropolitan areas."

Problems listed include a rapidly expanding student population which is outstripping the tax base of the districts; the need for new school facilities; taxpayers' reluctance to approve additional funds; and the need for a more comprehensive educational program.

"We would like to see the controversy surrounding year-round schools placed in its proper perspective," the application continues. "Exactly what are the benefits to the fast-growing, suburban community and how can we take advantage of them?"

REPORT SCHEDULE

The committee's timetable calls for the study to begin in April, with a preliminary report to be submitted by June and a final report by March, 1970.

But regardless of the study's outcome, the present need for new buildings and operating money will not be lessened, Jones stressed.

★ ★ ★

"We have an $8-million bond issue pending now," he said. "If the issue is approved, the buildings proposed for construction would be completed and filled with students by the time we would be able to begin attempting to implement this program."

The bond issue vote is scheduled for Feb. 8.

Independence OK to Final Drafting of Sewer-Setup Plans

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has authorized Johnson and Anderson Inc. of Waterford Township to pursue final drafting of plans for the township's extensive sanitary sewer project.

The project's first stage of development has been geared toward rectifying the township's most serious sewer problems primarily in the area south of I-75. Several schools, and the Sterns-Seligman and Clarkson Gardens subdivisions are located in this area.

★ ★ ★

The first stage will encompass the area around the village of Clarkston basically on the south and east areas of the village, according to Howard Altman, township clerk.

A new line will extend along M15 down to Waterford Road or near the Independence Square Apartment complex on Waterford Hill. Another small segment will extend from M15 and Dixie Highway westerly to Jacks Green Lake subdivision on White Lake Road. Off Maybee, the line will take in the Highwood Village subdivision.

Another tangent takes in the Woodhull Lake-Pelton Heights, Lake Oakland and Sashabaw Plains area — all south of Maybee. An additional proposal for the line would be to head northerly along Clintonville Road parallel to Maybee, extending to Sashabaw. The Goodrich Farms subdivision is the principle section in this area.

School-Closing Plan Is Detailed

A Huron Valley School Disttrict spokesman announced today that notices concerning school closings because of inclement weather might be made over two Detroit radio stations — WJR (760) and CKLW (800).

There are two types of announcements possible, according to a school spokesman. One would merely say that schools are closed, and therefore no students are to report that day.

★ ★ ★

The second type of announcement would be that buses are running on main roads only. This means that buses will make regular stops in the village of Milford, at all district schools, and on several of the main roads in the district.

In such case, the buses will run on the following roads: Milford from Maple to Clyde, General Motors, Wixom, Commerce, M59, the paved section of Hickory Ridge south of M59, Duck Lake north of M59 to Duck Lake School, Ormond to Jackson, Bogie Lake, Elizabeth Lake, and the paved section of Oxbow Lake.

"We realize that some students may not be able to get out to these roads, but students are expected to make every reasonable effort to be in school" said a district spokesman.

At a recent special meeting of the Huron Valley board a new member was appointed.

★ ★ ★

Henry Prokoff, 7349 Biscayne, White Lake Township, will fill the vacancy recently created by Carlos Trask III, who is moving out of the school district. An area resident since 1944, Prokoff runs Henry Prokoff Builders.

'68 Dairyman of the Year Is Rose Township Farmer

A Rose Township farmer came away with top honors yesterday at the annual Oakland County Dairy Banquet, sponsored by the Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA). The banquet was held at a Pontiac restaurant.

Taking The Pontiac Press award as the county's 1968 Dairyman of the Year was Daniel Stack, 10180 Eagle.

★ ★ ★

Stack's 41-head herd tested an individual average of 14,574 pounds of milk and 535 pounds of butterfat, placing it well up among the country's dairy herds.

★ ★ ★

HIGHEST AVERAGE

The Longs had the highest production average in the county in taking honorable mention for the third year in a row. They are previous winners of the top award, which is awarded only once to an individual.

★ ★ ★

The 57-head Long herd averaged 17,465 pounds of milk and 646 pounds of butterfat.

★ ★ ★

Manager Adolph Engler accepted the certificate for Pine Row Farm, owned by Green Senley Jr. The 62-head Pine Row herd averaged 14,568 pounds of milk and 526 pounds of butterfat.

Verages for the 33-head herd owned by Peters were 12,136 pounds of milk and 464 pounds of butterfat.

TECHNIQUES DETAILED

County Agricultural Extension Agent Bill Muller conducted the meeting and followed the awards with a slide presentation detailing some of the newer dairying techniques around the county.

Vickers Unit Moved Near Center in Troy

TROY — The Vickers Division of Sperry Rand Corp. has moved its hydraulic school to new quarters near the firm's administrative and engineering center, at Maple and Crooks.

The school's new building contains 7,800 square feet of floor space, about double the size of the former quarters in Detroit.

★ ★ ★

With the opening of the new facilities the present school staff of eight will be able to handle up to 900 students a year — an increase of 20 per cent. With an increase in staff, the building will be able to accommodate an increase of 50 per cent in enrollment.

The school conducts courses to instruct customer personnel in the basic principles of fluid power and the application and maintenance of fluid power equipment.

Chill of Neglect Seeps In at Pontiac State

Old Building Awaits Warmth

By DICK ROBINSON

Back in 1878, a brand new facility was opened called the Eastern Michigan Asylum.

Today that facility is called Pontiac State Hospital. Ninety-one years later the name has changed, but some Victorian living conditions remain.

★ ★ ★

Unlike general medical hospitals, this mental hospital's patients live most of the day in hallways and recreation rooms.

In the old days, the hospital's bedrooms were just for sleeping. In most cases, the same is true today. It is just as well because many patients in the original building find the rooms unbearable.

NO HEAT, LIGHT

Pontiac State's patient population is 1,756. From 400 to 600 patients in the old main building are without heat or electricity in the 200 to 300 rooms they use primarily for sleeping, according to Gerald Bax, the hospital's nonmedical administrative officer.

The old building's most urgent physical need is replacement of ancient windows which permit cold air, particularly westerly winds, to seep in, according to Bax.

★ ★ ★

Newspapers and rags have been stuffed into the window cracks, and blankets have been hung in front of windows in attempts to keep out the frigid air.

"It's uncomfortably cold in many rooms," says Bax, "but it's really cold for some 25 seclusion patients in rooms where doors have to be kept locked."

OPEN DOORS NEEDED

Rooms without heat ducts or electricity ordinarily get heat and light from doors open to the hall.

Bax said it would take $200,000 to replace the old wooden frame windows.

★ ★ ★

The hospital has asked in the current budget request to the state for $50,000 for four years to replace the old building's windows, according to Bax.

He reports he has been making similar requests since 1957, but has gotten a total of only $8,200.

WALLS TOO THICK

Heat ducts can't be put into most of the unheated rooms because the walls are 18 inches thick in places, Bax said.

Electricity problems are on the way to being solved in two to three years, he says.

★ ★ ★

"Gas jets originally lighted the hospital and were replaced with electricity about 1900," Bax explains. "But the capacity of the electric lines is not adequate for today when we have hair dryers, popcorn poppers and more business machines."

In the last three years, the state has given the hospital $270,000 to improve electricity, the administrative officer said.

SOME NEW TOILETS

Some headway is being made in remodeling toilets and baths, Bax says.

One problem is that there just aren't enough toilets and some are just bowls without seats, according to Bax. Toilets and showers aren't individualized with partitions.

★ ★ ★

All possible measures to prevent fires at the hospital have been taken, reports Bax. He said all recommendations of the state fire marshal, including replacement of wooden floors and stairs, have been followed.

A Bird Flies From Rotted Ceiling Of Occupied Room At Pontiac State Hospital

SECLUSION IN THE COLD—A blanket keeps some of the cold from coming in a drafty window in a room where patients are locked in seclusion.

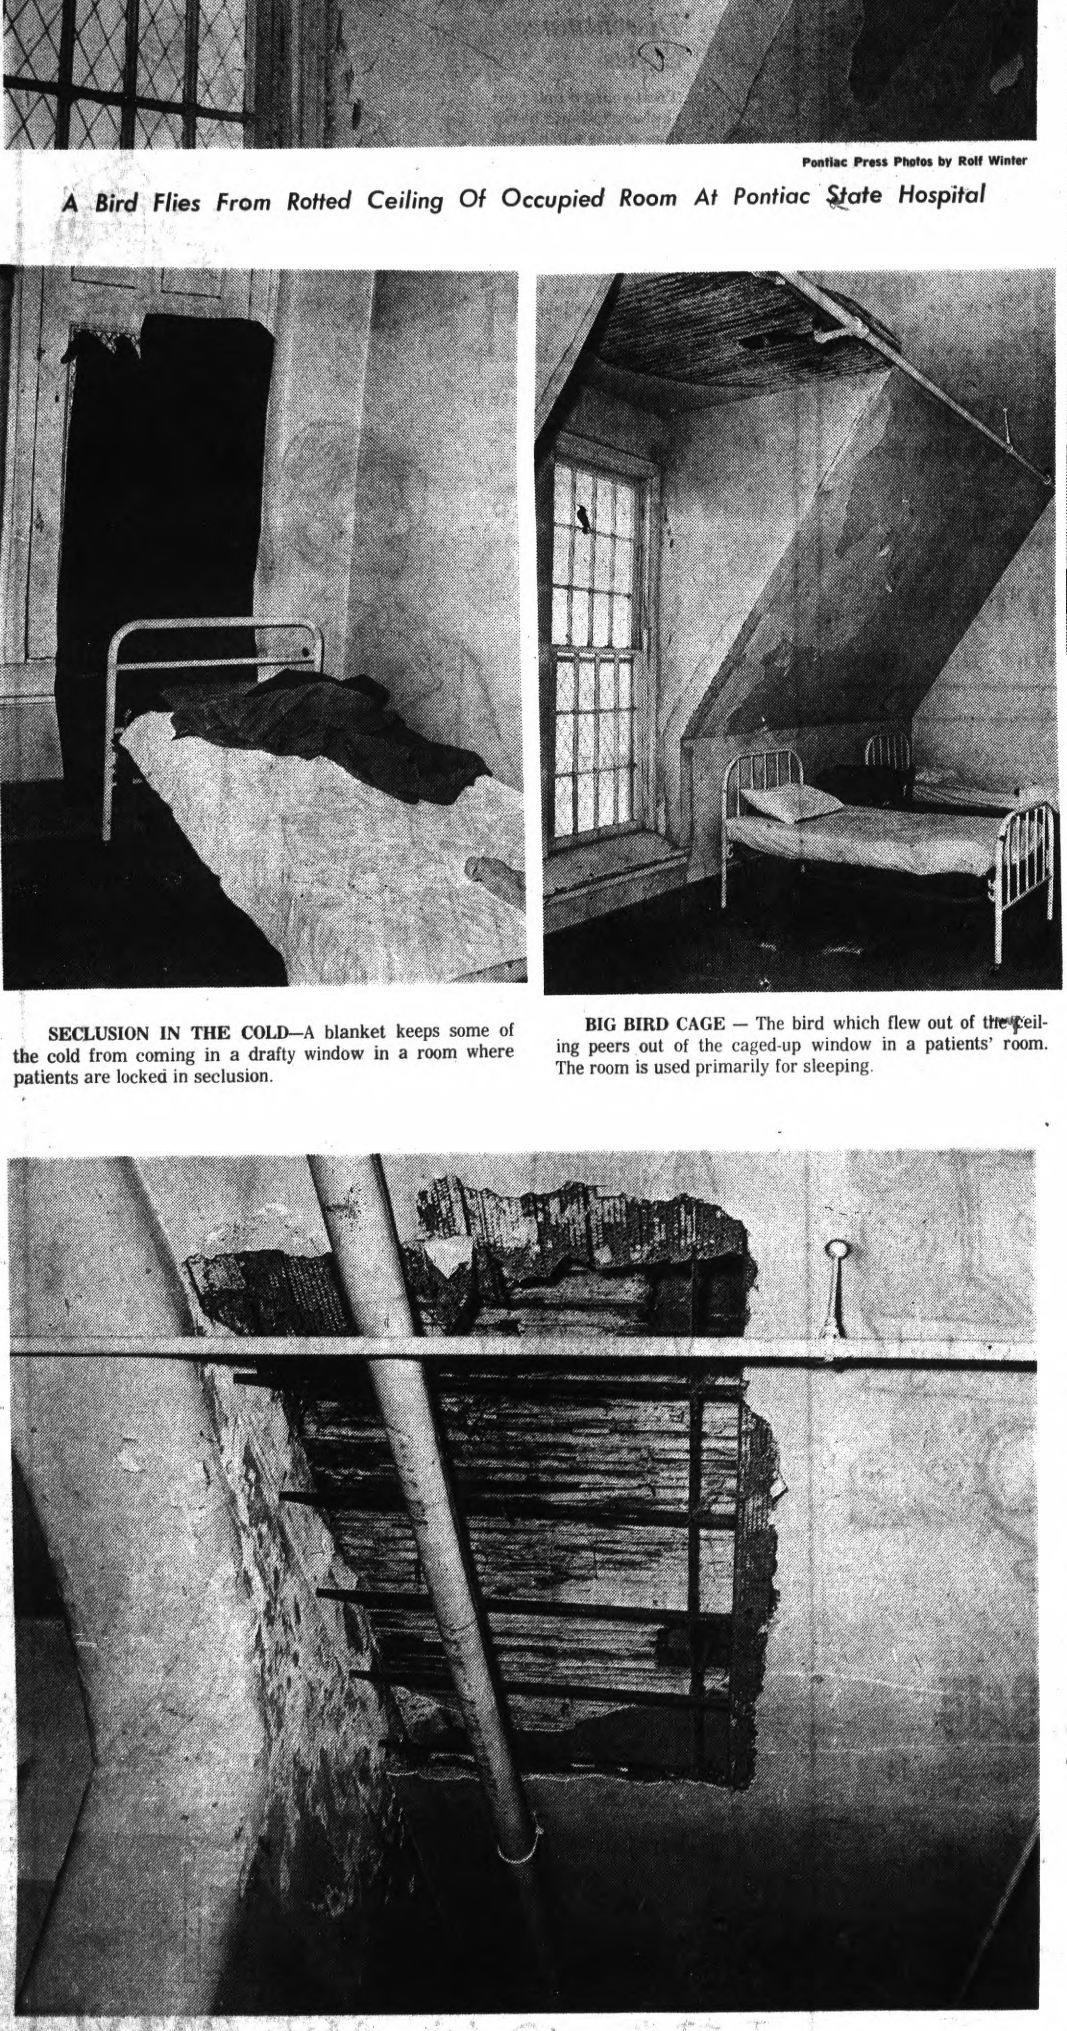

BIG BIRD CAGE — The bird which flew out of the ceiling peers out of the caged-up window in a patients' room. The room is used primarily for sleeping.

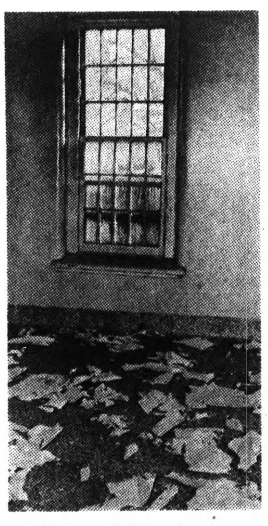

PLACED POORLY—Makeshift heat ducts in a hospital room were placed at the ceiling where much of the heat stays without heating the rest of the room.

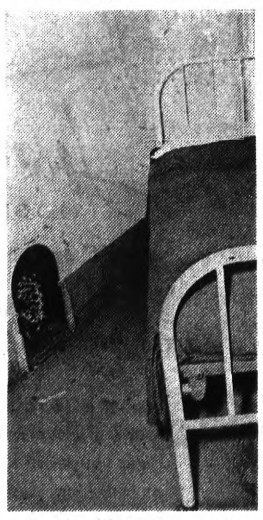

DRAFTY WINDOWS—Hospital maintenance man Stanley Pankow shows how drafts are partially eliminated from windows. Old window stops have to be removed each summer to clean the windows and are no longer tight-fitting.

ROTTED CEILING—Water seeps through the hospital's rotted slate-covered wooden roof and damages the interior. Damage has gone unrepaired because the hospital has been unable to get workers to fix the roof, Gerald Bax, administrative officer, says.

FALLEN PAINT — A patient's room goes unrepaired because of a shortage of workers. The hospital has five painters to take care of painting repairs such as this one.

HOT BED—While some hospital rooms are cold, others are too hot because there are no thermostatic controls. Heat blowing out of this vent makes sleeping in this bed unbearable.

FIRE HAZARD—Water, plaster and electricity don't mix. Water from the roof has caused the plaster to fall near an electrical outlet in this day room.

Vandalism Forces Close of 2 Schools

Extensive vandalism at the Troy High School and Baker Junior High School last night forced the closing of both buildings today.

Loss assessments at both schools are still to be determined, but school officials said the vandalism possibly was the most costly ever reported in the school system.

Damage at both schools was similar, with desks and chairs overturned in several rooms, the school offices and libraries.

Numerous windows in both schools were smashed. School authorities had not yet determined whether any equipment had been stolen.

At the high school, the public address system was destroyed. Cafeteria applianses and the biology department, acquarium were badly damaged. Kitchen appliances and shop equipment were reported damaged in the Baker building.

The last school vandalism incident reported in Troy was at the Baker building last September. Both schools will be reopened Monday, said school officials.

Gravel Plant

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Plans for construction of a $2-million plant near Grand Haven to produce expanded clay lightweight aggregates were announced Thursday by the Construction Aggregates Corp. The plant, described as the largest in the world, will handle 300,000 tons of lightweight aggregate a year.

Southfield Schools Fund Is Short $1.5 Million

SOUTHFIELD (AP) — A shortage of more than $1.5 million, enough to prevent construction of a junior high school planned under a 1966 bond issue, has been revealed in a special report on the Southfield School District's building and site funds.

★ ★ ★

The Detroit accounting firm of Plante and Moran indicated the three-year-old fund valued at $2.4 million, had been spent and is more than $45,000 in the red.

★ ★ ★

"Misrepresentation to the public and to bonding autorities could be involved," said a spokesman for the state attorney general's office. He also questioned the board's practice of shifting money from various funds without making public the excess expenditures.

★ ★ ★

John Riley, a recently elected Southfield School board member, charged "the taxpayers are getting clipped", by the loose money handling and borrowing procedures. He also claimed the school board acted unwisely in approving construction plans as did the title abstract company for not making an adequate title search.

Soft and low. Gentle and quiet. That's electric heat.

It's the quietest heat you can get.

If it's radiant, there's no sound at all. If it's a warm-air furnace, the fan runs at a lower speed. Gives only a gentle hum, soft as a lullaby.

What else?

Electric heat is clean. No fumes. No soot. No draft. No chill one moment nor a burst of hot air the next. The humidity stays in the comfort range. It's better for you. Your nose and throat. Better for your home.

Call Edison for the name of your nearest Edison-approved Electric Heat Contractor. He'll give you a no-obligation survey. And we'll see that you get a $100 trade-in allowance on your old heating plant.

Edwards' Net Play Helps Wings Win

Haywood Must Get More Cage Help

DETROIT (UPI)—The U of D plays the U of D Saturday night.

That's no typo, either. It's the University of Detroit hosting the University of Dayton in a crucial test for Coach Bob Calihan and his Titans.

★ ★ ★

Detroit, 10-2, needs the win to show the pollsters why they deserve a national ranking. Dayton, 9-2, is thinking the same funny thought.

★ ★ ★

"We don't feel good about the loss," said Flyers' Coach Don Donoher of Dayton's 59-55 defeat by Xavier of Ohio shortly after his team went down to the Louisville Cardinals.

"We have to wonder about the play of this club. They haven't played too well yet, but we're hopeful that they'll put it all together pretty soon."

TWO SETBACKS

Oddly, those words could have come from the mouth of Calihan, who hopes to take the Flyers apart. Detroit has dropped two straight games on the road to Minnesota and Marquette and is having a little trouble getting it all together itself.

Calihan isn't having any trouble with Spencer Haywood, who is togetherness personified. The 6-foot-8 former Pershing High star is third in the nation in scoring with a 32.5 average. Haywood's snatching a nation-high 24 rebounds per game.

★ ★ ★

"We've got to get Haywood some help," Calihan said, "and we'll keep trying different people until we do."

One of those "different people" could be 6-foot-9 sophomore Al Peake, a bit slow and awkward but with some promise at center. Calihan also said the Titans, tied with Northwestern for 19th in the latest rankings, need to spring hot-shooting guard Jimmy Jackson free more often.

TALL PIVOT

Dayton will have the full-time services of 6-foot-10 center Dan Obrovac for the first time in six games. He's been out with an arm injury but appeared briefly in the loss to Xavier.

★ ★ ★

The Flyers' leading scorer is forward Dan Sadlier at 18.5, while guard Jim Gottschall is popping in 13.1 points per game. Ken May, brother of departed Dayton star Don who is now with the New York Knickerbockers, is averaging 11.2 while center-forward George Janky sports a 10.1 mark.

2 Bloomfield Swim Teams Record Wins

Swimmers from two Bloomfield Hills' high schools scored their fourth victories of the season last night with numerous pool and varsity records.

Andover boosted its record to 4-1 by sinking Livonia Stevenson, 62-43, and Lahser scored a 68-37 triumph over Madison.

★ ★ ★

Jeff Klann scored a double victory by winning the 200 individual medley with a varsity record of 2:17.5 for Andover and he also took the 100 breaststroke with a school mark of 1:08.1.

Kevin Trimmer set pool records for Lanser by winning the 100 freestyle and 200 ind. medley in :56.7 and 2:22.3, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Rick Amann was also a double winner for Lahser and he had pool and school records, winning the 50 freestyle in 24.8 and 100 butterfly in 1:00.1.

Brad Boston also won two events for Lahser.

Big 10 Relays at MSU Pool

Eight Olympians representing four countries will compete the thirteenth annual Big Ten Swimming Relays Saturday at Michigan State.

Defending champion Indiana has to rate as the favorite once again on the strength of six of the Olympians.

Swimmers Charlie Hickcox, Dave Perkowski and Don McKenzie, and divers Win Young and Jim Henry were on the United States squad that took almost every medal in sight in Mexico City, while teammate Ron Jacks was swimming for Canada.

★ ★ ★

The Spartans have an Olympian of their own in freestyle distance man George Gonzalez, a member of the Puerto Rican team. He already has broken the Spartan varsity record for the 1,000-yard freestyle set by former All-American Ed Glick.

Michigan has a defending conference champion in Juan Bello, a member of Peru's Olympic aggregation. Bello won both the 100- and 200-yard freestyle titles in last year's Big Ten Championships.

Michigan '5' Makes Habit of Overtime

Wolverines Journey for Big 10 Contest at Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (UPI) —The way Michigan is playing its Big Ten basketball these days, you'd almost think the Wolverines were getting paid time and one-half for overtime.

Michigan, fresh off from a pair of overtime victories at home, steps in between the rock and the hard place Saturday when the Wolverines journey to Minnesota for their third conference match.

★ ★ ★

"Our progress from the beginning of the season has been terrific and though we still have a long way to go, I'm pleased with the way the boys have responded to pressure situations," said new coach John Orr. "When you have to go into overtime twice in a row and then win, you have to play tight basketball."

Of course, just ask him and Orr will reply quicker than a home win by a conference team that he'll take regulation time victories in a minute.

TEST COMING

"We now go on the road," Orr said, "and that is where the real test comes."

Road triumphs have been as rare in the Big Ten in recent years as whooping cranes in Michigan — only 20 of last season's 70 conference matches saw the visitors come out with a larger score.

Minnesota, which knocked off the University of Detroit and Marquette when both teams were ranked earlier this season, features a name familiar to the older generation.

The Gophers' top scorer is forward Larry Mikan, son of the American Basketball Association commissioner and former National Basketball Association great. George Mikan starred for DePaul at college but earned his pro fame at Minnesota with the old Minneapolis Lakers.

STRONG REBOUNDER

Mikan, a 6-foot-7 bomber, has an 18.1 points per game average and is pulling off about 12 rebounds per game. His younger, and shorter, brother Terry is also on the Minnesota squad.

Michigan, 2-0, in conference play compared to Minnesota's 0-1, has a chance to move to the top of the conference all alone since co-leader Purdue is idle until Jan. 25 because of exams.

★ ★ ★

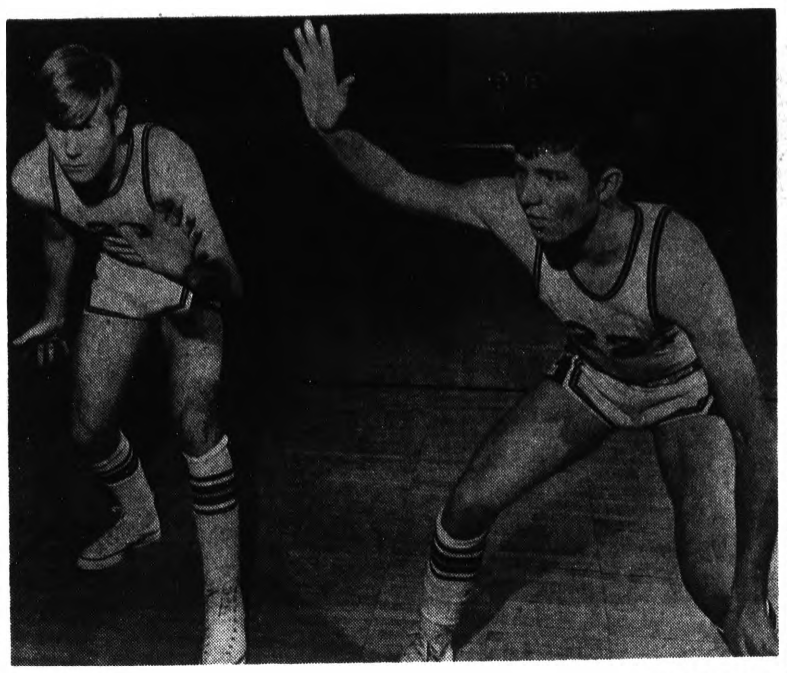

Rudy Tomjanovich's scoring has zoomed up higher than his 6-foot-7 height. The Hamtramck junior is leading the conference in scoring with an average of 37 points for his two games.

★ ★ ★

But then, you'd be leading the league too if you scored 48 points in one of those games as Tomjanovich did in the Wolverines' extra-session beating of Indiana. In that game, Rudy's 21 field goals set a school record and his points tied Cazzie Russell's all-time Michigan mark for a single game.

The Wolverines have now reeled off six straight conference wins over the last two seasons and are 8-3 overall this season compared to the Gophers' 6-5 overall record.

Michigan State, which snapped a five-game losing streak with a win over Wisconsin in its second Big Ten game last Tuesday, is idle until next Tuesday.

RED-HEADED DEFENSE — Walled Lake coach John Osler can try to distract the opposition with a pair of red-haired Vikings in Tom Evans (left) and Don Burlingame. The Vikings are struggling with only one win in six starts, so Osler might have a stratagem or two to unfurl against once-beaten Pontiac Northern as both teams return to action in an Inter-Lakes League encounter tonight at PNH.

Rookie Shoots 66

Sifford's 63 Leading

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The cast of leading characters in today's second round of the $100,000 Los Angeles open has something old, 45-year-old Charlie Sifford, and something new, 22-year-old Grier Jones of Wichita, Kans.

Sifford, first Negro to win a major golf tournament, came in with a first-round 63, eight under par, Thursday for a three stroke lead after 18 holes of the 72-hole tournament which ends Sunday.

★ ★ ★

Jones, the 1968 NCAA champion who turned pro just last fall, shot a 66, a mark matched by Dave Hill, the veteran from Evergreen, Colo.

Thirty-two golfers in the starting field of 144 were under par 36-35—71 on the Rancho Park municipal course. Three of them landed at 67—Jimmy Walker, a 30-year old Los Angeles "rookie" who has won only $225 as a pro; Terry Dill, Austin, Tex., a regular but not big winner on the PGA tour; and Bob Murphy, pro rookie of the year in 1967 who amassed earnings of $105,000 in 1968.

Australia's Bruce Crampton shot a three-under-par 68 and defending champion Billy Casper and eight other pros carded 69s.

Arnold Palmer who has won this tournament three times could do no better than a one-over-par 72, the same as U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino.

★ ★ ★

Sifford's 63 was one shot off the course record of 62 set by Phil Rodgers when he won this tournament in 1962 and tied by Palmer when he took it in 1966.

Sifford's nines were 35-28. He had an eagle three on the 526-yard 13th hole where he sank a wedge shot from 40 yards. He took one bogey—when he missed a three-foot putt on the third hole—and had seven birdies.

★ ★ ★

The first-round weather was overcast with a slight chill in the air but attendance was estimated at 7,500.

The field was to be cut to the low 70 pros and ties at the end of two rounds.

Upset Scored in Rec League

Genesee Quint Tops CIO by 54-53

Duke's Speedo ran out of time and field goals Thursday night in losing its initial game of the season, while CIO 594 romped to stay unbeaten in another Waterford Township Recreation men's basketball division.

Genesee Welding utilized its superior free throw shooting, including a pair of clutch charity tosses by George Heaton in the final minute of play, for a 54-53 upset win over Duke's.

Kampsen Realty joined the service station team atop the Class B American League standings at 3-1 with a 45-44 conquest of Lighthouse Lanes as Dan Larkin's layup iced the decision.

The other AL contest saw Coulacos Insurance trim Lakeland Pharmacy, 48-43, to square the winner's mark at 2-2. Bill Hayward's 16 points paced the victory.

FOURTH STRAIGHT

CIO stretched its International loop winning streak to four in a row with a 55-37 frolic at the expense of Irwin Realty. The victors led at the half, 31-18.

Mel's Sport Shop, trailing 25-16 at the intermission, spurted for a 50-43 win over M. A. Benson and a 3-1 record.

Tom Dabbs scored 10 of his 15 points in the first half and sparked Spencer Floor Covering (2-2) to a 60-47 triumph over Sparks-Griffin. It was 34-15 at the break.

Tim Morley of Lighthouse Lanes and Gary Hayward of Duke's led last night's scoring paradex with 17 points each in losing efforts.

Stemkowski Scores Second Hat Trick

DETROIT (UPI) — Roger Crozier's bad knees may be getting a lot better real soon — especially if Roy Edwards keeps playing super-goalie for the Detroit Red Wings.

Edwards continued his superb play in the nets Thursday night and the Red Wings supplied him with enough goals for two games — including Pete Stemkowski's second National Hockey League hat trick — as Detroit lambasted the hapless Los Angeles Kings, 6-2.

Stemkowski started the scoring only 43 seconds after Brent Hughes of the Kings held him in the Los Angeles end as the Detroit center was trying to shoot.

Garry Unger, who blazed in his 17th goal in the third period, fired a low screamer from the point and Stemkowski turned it by Kings' goalie Gerry Desjardins.

The Los Angeles net-minder must have felt like all the shots in the world were coming at him in the second period, when Detroit scored three times.

Stemkowski tallied twice within 37 seconds to put the game out of reach. The Red Wings center's 11th and 12th markers of the current campaign were both short-range blasts which Desjardins apparently was screened out on.

Bruce MacGregor notched his eighth goal and Frank Mahovlich, whose first period score was disallowed when it was ruled Stemkowski was offside, fired in his 20th of the season in the final period.

Mahovlich was the seventh NHL marksman to eclipse 20 goals so far this season and it's the 10th time he's reached that figure. One more score and the "Big M" ties for 10th place on the all-time NHL scoring list.

But Edwards kept things under control with his second consecutive near-brilliant job in the cage since taking for Crozier, whose bad knees prevent him from getting off the ice with any speed.

★ ★ ★

"He made at least five great saves," raved Coach Bill Gadsby in the locker. "He came up with the big save again and again."

Los Angeles put 34 shots on Edwards, waring a mask for only the third time, compared to the 32 Detroit took.

Other Games

Bob Wall's first period goal, his fifth, broke a string of three straight scoreless games for the Kings, who have not sipped from the sweet cup of victory even one time in the last five games. The scoreless streak extended for 210 minutes and four seconds. Lowell McDonald also tallied for Los Angeles.

Crozier reported the result of the physical examination he had diagnosed his knee troubles as stretched tendons in both knees. He added that they felt a lot better now.

★ ★ ★

In the oher NHL constets played, goals by Fred Stanfield and Ted Green while both teams were short-handed enabled the Boston Bruins to slide past the Toronto Maple Leafs, 3-2.

Phil Goyette, Rod Seiling and Jean Ratelle each tallied for New York as the Rangers came from behind to whip the Philadelphia Flyers, 3-1, and the Pittsburgh Penguins erupted for four first period goals to coast past the Minnesota North Stars, 7-2.

The probable new owners of the Oakland Seals got a preview of what they are rumored to be buying so they can move the franchise to Buffalo and they may not want it back—as the Montreal Candens ripped Oakland, 8-4, the most goals the Seals have allowed in their brief history.

Kenyon's Little Man Leads Cage Scoring

NEW YORK (UPI)—John Rinka, Kenyon's 5-foot-9 shooting ace, leads the nation's small colleges in scoring for the fourth consecutive week, National Collegiate Sports Services said today.

Rinka hit 34 points in his only game last week and had a comfortable lead over the rest of the field with his 37.8 average. Two other players considered short by today's standards, 6-2 Ted McClain of Tennessee State and 6-0 John McElroy of Youngstown, moved up to the No. 2 and No. 3 positions.

★ ★ ★

McClain scored 109 points in three games last week to raise his per-game mean to 34.5 and advance one notch in the rankings. McElroy, fifth place last week, moved up with his 113 points in three games last week.

Another Kenyon Cager, John Dunlop, took over the free throw percentage lead with his 93 per cent accuracy.

For J. C. Athletes

Change Transfer Rule

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Athletes who transfer from junior colleges to four-year schools no longer must wait a year before participating in varsity athletics at their new school.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association during its meeting in Los Angeles this week ruled such transfer students can participate in varsity athletics after one quarter or semester — providing their grades are good.

★ ★ ★

An NCAA Executive Committee proposal, accepted during the meeting, sets a 2.5 or C-plus grade average as the standard.

And, it uses a formula to predict that if a student is capable of a 1.6 or C-minus grade average, but makes a 2.5 or C-plus average the first grading period, the student can represent the school in athletics.

A student with a better than 1.6 grade projection or record also is eligible if his average after the first grading period is 2.5 or better.

★ ★ ★

Essentially, the new rule won't count for football players unless they complete a quarter or semester of work during the spring or summer.

If an athlete does not make a 2.5 average during the first grading period, he still must wait a full year before participating on a varsity team.

Meeting Set for Volleyball
