Telephone Calls Nearing Normal Through State

DETROIT (INS)—Telephone calls throughout the state were nearly back to normal today as supervisory employes at the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. took over duties of operators.

A company spokesman said about 70 per cent of workers in non-striking departments refused to cross picket lines of the Western Electric Co. in the two-day-old strike.

In most Michigan exchanges, only emergency long distance calls were accepted for about 14 hours after the nationwide strike by employes of the equipment subsidiary of the telephone company began.

Strikers picketed 18 Bell offices in Michigan late yesterday until they were withdrawn from the Roseville exchange.

An estimated 50 per cent of the operators crossed picket lines in Detroit plus about 77 per cent of the plant workers and 80 per cent of accounting division employes.

A recording informed long distance callers to dial 311, "if you have an urgent call." The line was reported busy in many cases.

Negotiations get under way in New York today between the Western Electric Co. and the Communication Workers of America, AFL-CIO, after they recessed for the night.

★ ★ ★

Western Electric is the manufacturing arm of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., which controls the Bell Telephone system. Western Electric workers install central office equipment and are members of the Communications Workers of America, as are the operators.

Thirteen of the 25 exchanges being picketed are in Detroit; the others outstate. Michigan Bell said 159 pickets and 76 policemen were on duty today at the exchanges.

★ ★ ★

Michigan Bell, which is not directly involved in the strike, said employes failing to report are doing so illegally. It said its contract with CWA had a no-strike clause and does not expire until Nov. 8.

On the national side, federal mediators today are trying again to resolve the contract dispute that led to a strike of 23,800 telephone exchange equipment installers in 44 states and the District of Columbia.

Long distance service out of Pontiac is still being slowed due to the strike, Raymond H. Storm, Michigan Bell district manager said today.

Supervisory personnel are being assigned the task of handling calls requiring assistance of operators.

Meanwhile, installation of the phone and inter-communication systems at the nearly-completed $875,000 Public Safety Building in Pontiac is at a standstill as the result of the walkout of Western Eleetric installers.

It is not immediately known how long the opening of the building would be delayed because of this.

Trumpet Soloist Dies at Party

Member of Les Brown Band Believed to Have Taken Narcotics

NEW YORK (AP) — Bobby Stiles, 28, trumpet soloist with the Les Brown band, collapsed and died yesterday during what police described as a vodka and heroin party in a fellow musician's hotel room.

Former band member Bobby Burgess and Donald Bagley, a bass player with the Brown organization — both apparently unaware that Stiles was dead — carried him from Burgess' room in the Hotel Belevedere opposite Madison Square Garden.

LOOK TELLS HIM

They were about to lift him into a taxi when Patrolman Michael Reilly walked up. One look told Reilly the trumpet player was dead.

Burgess, 23, of North Hollywood, Calif., was arrested on a charge of permitting his room to be used by drug addicts.

Mathew Gee Jr., 35, a Negro trumpet player, fled the room with another musician, police said. Gee was picked up at the Brooklyn home of his estranged wife and was arrested on a charge of supplying paraphernalia used in the taking of drugs.

★ ★ ★

Butch Stone, comedy singer and business manager of the band, said of Stiles: "This kid was one of the best jazz trumpet players we ever had."

Stone said Stiles joined the band about two weeks ago and seemed shy. The band is currently at the Roseland ballroom.

Deputy Chief Police Inspector Edward W. Byrnes said Stiles started drinking vodka after he finished work yesterday morning. A few hours later, he showed up at Burgess' room.

★ ★ ★

Byrnes said Stiles was the only one to use the heroin. He went to the bathroom, Byrnes said, gave himself a single shot of heroin and collapsed in a chair.

Burgess was fired from the Brown band in July, 1955, after he was arrested on a narcotics charge, police said.

Byrnes said Stiles never showed any sign while playing with the Brown band that he used narcotics. He said Stiles "needed" four or five shots of liquor before he could take solos. He said needle marks on the musician's arm indicated he started using heroin recently.

Ike Discusses Budget

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower discussed federal budget problems for 45 minutes today then went off to a golf course still soggy from an overnight rain.

Little Rock Waits for Next Move by Gov. Faubus

Rep. Hays Urges Action; 200 Subpoenaes Being Prepared by U. S.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) —Rep. Brook Hays, apparently playing the peacemaker's role, is set to see Gov. Orval Faubus again today, but the governor gave no sign, publicly, of his next move in the highly charged dispute over integrating Central High School.

Hays is the Arkansas Democrat who helped arrange Saturday's meeting between President Eisenhower and Faubus.

He flew to Little Rock from Texas yesterday, saw Faubus, and told reporters he will meet with him again today.

He said: "A solution cannot be postponed much longer. The hopes of the people of the country, which have been built up, simply cannot be frustrated."

Somebody has to give in to dissolve the impasse in Little Rock, Hays said, posing the question, "But how to give in without surrendering?"

Who will surrender? "I don't know," he replied. He added: "There is no occasion for pessimism simply because we have not tied up this package."

The federal government was preparing about 200 subpoenaes today for witnesses in its case against Gov. Orval Faubus' intervention with Central High School integration.

A court source said the sub-

Layne Claims He Is Innocent

Place Lion Quarterback on $150 Bond Following Drunk Driving Charge

DETROIT (AP) — Bobby Layne, Detroit Lions' quarterback, pleaded innocent today in traffic court to a drunk driving charge.

Judge John D. Watts set the trial date for Oct. 17 after Layne's attorney asked for an adjournment.

Arrested at 2:10 a.m., Layne was held at police headquarters an hour before being released to Jack Christiansen, a professional football teammate who posted a $150 cash bond.

Layne's attorney, William B. Giles, said:

"Mr. Layne denies emphatically that he is or was guilty of drunk driving. He admits that when leaving the restaurant on Grand River he unfortunately did not notice that the lights of his car were not on.

"He also admits that his Michigan driver's license was not on his person but was in his room, which, unfortunately precipitated his arrest. Mr. Layne wishes the fans of Detroit to know that he regrets the incident."

Doorbell Chimes Startle Burglar to Dropping Loot

The tinkling chimes of the front doorbell as he was leaving, last night caused a burglar to drop half of his prizes after he had looted the Green's Men's Apparel Shop at 4516 Dixie Highway, Drayton Plains.

Waterford Township police, making a routine check in back of a row of stores in the block near Sashabaw Rd., discovered a glass door window smashed at 7 a.m. today.

According to the owner of the shop, Fred Green, the thief was "real neat and extra choosy" in making his selections, but apparently the four-bell chime on the door startled him as he fled.

A few crew neck sweaters were missing and some small-sized T-shirts and a few pairs of medium socks were also gone. More than 100 new winter jockets on racks in the rear of the store, along with expensive slacks, wool shirts and sport coats, were ignored by the intruder.

County Dealers Cut Gas Prices

Gallon Costs One Cent Less at Many Stations Due to Wholesale Drop

Many Oakland County gasoline dealers today dropped prices one cent a gallon on all grades following an announcement yesterday from four major oil companies that wholesale prices are being reduced by that amount.

A check of service stations showed many had already posted the new lower price on their pumps, while others were waiting until they either lowered their present stock of gasoline or received word that the oil companies would grant rebates on these stocks.

Standard led the field with a price reduction announcement, quickly followed by Shell, Speedway and Gulf. Other major companies are expected to follow suit.

The new price today will be 30.5 cents for regular and 34.5 for premium. Speedway, which has one grade of gasoline will charge 31.7.

The price drop is the second in a little over a month. On Aug. 13 Standard led in a reduction of 1.9 cents a gallon, and the others followed suit within 24 hours

The lower prices are aimed at meeting the competition of independents and small chains which have consistently undersold the major firms, persons close to the industry maintain.

Troy Tot Drowns in Backyard Hole

A 2-year-old boy drowned yesterday afternoon in his family's backyard at 5721 Livernois Rd., Troy.

Michael Bell was found in a deep water-filled trash hole in the backyard by his mother, Mrs. Joan Bell, at about 3:30 p.m.

She called Troy police who worked on the boy with a resuscitator, but he was dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Mrs. Bell said her husband, Carl, had recently dug the hole for burying trash and that Sunday's rain fill it up.

Judge, Chief, City Attorney Confer

Seek Towing Hassle Test

Peace overtures and signs of compromise in the hassle between the municipal court and the Pontiac Police Dept. over the city's towing ordinance loomed today.

A softening of attitudes set in yesterday when Judge Cecil B. McCallum visited Police Chief Herbert W. Straley, and today City Attorney William Ewart indicated the city commission would be asked to declare a moratorium on enforcement of the controversial ordinance pending a circuit court decision.

★ ★ ★

Yesterday, Ewart said he would gladly bring a test case to circuit court to determine if McCallum's action in throwing out the towing ordinance was correct.

The parley between the judge and the chief was described by both sides as "extremely amiable."

"I just wanted to read my opinion to the chief," said McCallum, "because I had heard he had never actually seen it."

Straley said that he listened to the judge's views on the law and then said that he felt duty-bound to continue to enforce the ordinance as long as it is on the books.

Both men denied that there was a "feud" between them, saying it was just a difference of duties.

An investigation of the parking ticket situation in Pontiac, along with other traffic violations, brought comments from all parties.

The investigation, by the Police Violations Bureau, showed there were 5,800 warrants on file against moving violators which have never been served and "several thousand" parking tickets, some dating back to 1953 and earlier.

Chief Straley said that considering the manpower shortage in his department and the fact that many violators move out of town, he is surprised there is not more of a backlog.

Straley added he felt the towing ordinance was the best way to cut down the number of unpaid tickets. He said, however, he would check with other chiefs of police this month, to see how their cities handle their ticket problem.

★ ★ ★

Under the city ordinance which Judge McCallum ruled illegal, police were towing away legally parked cars if the owners had unpaid tickets.

Judge McCallum stated there is no legal way to enforce any ordinance except by complaint and warrant.

"I still think if the police started arresting people for back tickets, there would be a flood of violators in here to pay up," he said.

Asked how Detroit handles this problem, the judge said, "They keep a load of officers busy serving traffic warrants for moving violations and when a man is brought in they can quickly tell from court records if he has any parking tags outstanding."

★ ★ ★

"But," he added, "this system only works well if the violations bureau is a part of the court with just one set of records on each offender and if there is ample manpower to serve warrants."

McCallum said he would welcome a test on his decision and invited the city attorney to bring one as quickly as possible.

Something to Comment On

Hagerty Now Grandpa

NEWPORT, R. I. (INS) — White House news secretary James C. Hagerty became a grandfather today.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Roger Hagerty, wife of the secretary's oldest son, a Marine first lieutenant, gave birth to an eight-pound five-ounce boy early today at the naval hospital in Quantico, Va.

★ ★ ★

Beaming proudly as he made the announcement at a news conference in Newport, the 48-year-old White House spokesman declared:

"I'm going to teach the kid fast to say 'No Comment.'"

The youngster's father, who is 25, is an infantry officer at Quantico Marine base. Both mother and child were reported "doing fine."

Top Teamsters in Chicago Set Delegates Free

Kennedy Visits Detroit to Collect More Data for Senate Probe

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

James R. Hoffa, Midwest leader of the Teamsters Union, is in the limelight on three labor fronts today.

Chicago Teamsters chiefs decided last night to let their delegates to the International Teamsters Union convention vote as they please for president.

The action was hailed by Thomas J. Haggerty as an outstanding victory for his candidacy against Hoffa.

At the same time, the Chicago Joint Teamsters Council reaffirmed an earlier endorsement of James R. Hoffa, the leading candidate for the job being relinquished by Dave Beck.

The council said there was no proper way to withdraw endorsement of Hoffa.

Meanwhile the chief counsel of the Senate Rackets Committee re-

Will Probe Hit 614?

It was still a question today whether the continued hearings on Hoffa would focus on his trusteeship over Pontiac Local 614.

Senate investigators and members of an insurgent group seeking to end Hoffa's control over 614 still refused to say whether the controversial affairs of the local would be brought up.

turned to Detroit last night to continue the investigation of Hoffa.

★ ★ ★

Robert F. Kennedy would say only that he wanted to "see some people here in Detroit," where Hoffa heads a Teamsters local. He refused to say specifically what he was investigating or how long he would be here.

HIS SECOND VISIT

Kennedy's appearance here was his second in two weeks. He was here Sept. 4 in connection with Hoffa's affairs.

In Washington yesterday Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) of the Senate Rackets Committee said his group plans to resume its investigation of Hoffa.

McClellan said Hoffa will be invited but not required to be present at the new hearings, tentatively set to begin Sept. 24.

★ ★ ★

The 44-year-old Hoffa is the front-running candidate for the $50,000-a-year job being vacated by Teamsters President Beck.

ALSO INVESTIGATED

Beck also has been investigated by the committee and is alleged by it to have misused some $300,000 in union funds.

★ ★ ★

McClellan said that when the committee resumes its study of Hoffa there will be questions brought up about alleged misuse of union money and conflicts of interest.

Hoffa has said he is undecided whether he will appear at the new hearings.

Another Cool Dip Expected Tonight

Fair and cool is the weather outlook for Pontiac and vicinity tonight. The low will be near 50.

North to northeast winds at 5 to 10 miles an hour will become light and variable this evening and south to southwest at 8 to 14 miles an hour tomorrow.

Tomorrow's forecast is partly cloudy and warmer. The mercury will climb to a high near 75 degrees.

Downtown Pontiac's lowest temperature preceding 8 a.m., was 48. The mercury stood at 69 at 2 p.m.

39th Annual Convention Draws 3,113 Delegates

Legion Considers Policy in Widely Varied Problems

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (INS)—The American Legion's 39th annual convention will be gaveled to order today by National Commander W. C. (Dan) Daniel with 3,113 delegates ready to consider legion policies on a wide variety of problems.

Within the next three days more than 600 resolutions dealing with such matters as rehabilitation, anti-Communism, the U. N., foreign aid, veterans' programs and federal aid to education will be presented to the convention.

Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey and Mayor Joseph Altman of Atlantic City were to welcome the delegates from all over the nation. Official soloist is Morton Downey, the famous singer.

A highlight of the day's program will be the presentation of Daniel's report to the convention.

During the day Bishop Fulton J. Sheen will receive the legion's distinguished service medal and Robert W. Sarnoff, president of the National Broadcasting Company, will receive an Americanism award.

Tonight, at the national commander's banquet to distinguished guests, Gen. Mark Clark will be presented with the Legion's distinguishd service medal.

The legionnaires went into today's business session happy but tired after yesterday's day-long parade along Atlantic City's boardwalk.

They paraded in military formations to the tunes of marching bands and drum and bugle corps from all over the country as jet planes swept low over the procession. Nearly 6,000 legionnaires took part in the parade.

Many of the marchers, veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean campaign, are along in years and it was a strenuous experience for some of them. But they all loved it.

One of the most enthusiastic of the marchers was Ralph Yarborough, Junior U. S. Senator from Texas, and a member of Legion Post 76 of Austin, Tex. He paraded for more than two hours and enjoyed every minute of it.

The legionnaires, quartered in a dozen different Atlantic City hotels, are behaving themselves with much more decorum than at previous conventions.

The old urge to indulge in pranks, using water pistols and more conservative actions, for many of the legionnaires are now settled down and content to see that members of their families have a good time.

The convention concludes late Thursday with election of a new national commander.

Property Owners Only

Registration Ends Sept. 30

All unregistered voters owning property in Pontiac will have until Sept. 30 to register for the Oct. 28 $950,000 bond issue election to equip and furnish Pontiac General Hospital.

City Clerk Ada R. Evans emphasized that only property owners will be eligible to cast votes then, as the state law says only such persons can decide whether a municipality can issue general obligation bonds.

Registration may be made in the clerk's office in the city Hall each weekday from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m. On Sept. 30 the office will remain open until 8 p.m.

Mrs. Evans warned that persons with a new address from the one on the rolls should report same by Sept. 30.

3 Dog Owners Pay $9.30 Fines

County Residents Plead Guilty to Not Obtaining Valid Licenses

Three Oakland County dog owners, accused of refusing to purchase valid dog licenses, paid $9.30 each Saturday after they pleaded guilty to the charge before Highland Township Justice Roy J. Carl.

Dr. Frank Bates, Oakland County Animal Shelter director, reports the three were the first to be taken to court this year of the 5,000 notices sent out March 1 to people owning dogs with expired licenses.

"A great percentage of these people have been very cooperative and have bought their licenses. We've had 10 men working on the cases and we are now starting to find those persons who have refused to purchase licenses," Bates said.

Those fined were Charles Kelley of 303 Stedfield Rd. and Sam Servello of 2018 W. Maple Rd., both of Commerce Township, and Clark Jeffers, 8590 Cooley Lake Rd., White Lake Township.

The local check program was inaugurated in 1953, when 101 rabies cases were reported. No rabies cases have been reported from July 17, 1954, to date, Bates explained.

★ ★ ★

Delinquent licenses cost two dollars for male dog and four dollars for female. They may be obtained at county veterinarians' offices, where the dogs can also be vaccinated.

Know the Weather

By E. H. SIMS

What is the normal path of high pressure areas across the United States? Do you know whether your home is on one of the "main routes."

With fall coming on and more high pressure areas expected, it is good to know the path of these fair-weather systems. Generally speaking, they always travel east. They move in over the United States from California, or that vicinity and move almost due east, in the southern part of the country.

Some cross in near the Washington-Oregon border and that vicinity and cross out to the east between Washington and Philadelphia. Others come in over the Great Lakes region and move out to sea above New York.

Cold systems, unlike warm fronts, move generally downward, slightly, as they cross the country. Their center seldom crosses lower Texas or the Florida peninsula. From now through the winter you will experience more and more of them.

Kiwanis Clubs Launch Annual Peanut Sale

The four Pontiac area Kiwanis Clubs will launch their second annual Peanut Sale this Friday and Saturday.

The 100 club members who will sell the bags of peanuts, are hoping to top the $5,000 mark this year. All proceeds go to help support local children's groups and into summer camp scholarships.

There is no price set for the peanuts. All sales are on a strictly contributory basis, last year's average donation being about 25 cents per bag.

The sale's chairmen are Karl Bradley, of the downtown club; William Traynor, of the west side club; William McGlachen, of the north Pontiac club; and Webster Francis, of the West Bloomfield club.

All four clubs raised approximately $14,500 for children's activities last year through various charitable programs. More than one-third of the money was obtained through the peanut sale.

Flint Ex-Mayor, Dies in Florida

Once Political Boss, William McKeighan, 71, Felled by Stroke

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — William H. McKeighan, 71, former Flint, Mich., mayor and one-time Michigan political boss who evaded gambling conspiracy charges 11 years, died here Sunday following a stroke.

McKeighan had been in ill health for many years. Friends said it was the third stroke he had suffered since moving to Florida.

McKeighan came here shortly after he had been indicted by a Macomb County grand jury in 1946.

Repeated attempts to return McKeighan to Michigan to stand trial were thwarted by his insistence he was too ill to travel. Physicians supported his statements.

Three years ago McKeighan returned to Flint unexpectedly. Macomb County authorities immediately took steps to have him appear in court.

McKeighan appeared and stood mute to gambling conspiracy charges. Trial was set for Oct. 20, 1954.

The former mayor was indicted Aug. 1, 1946, by the one-man grand jury of Circuit Judge Herman Dehnke. He was accused of being the payoff man in a multimillion dollar gambling conspiracy. Three gambling operators also were named in the conspiracy.

The four were charged with bribing two former Macomb County prosecutors and former state police officials not to interfere with their gambling operation.

McKeighan, former power among Michigan Republicans, is survived by his widow, Shirley, of Miami Beach; a brother, John; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Webster, and a son, William A. McKeighan Jr., all of Flint. Funeral service will be held today.

Farmer to Bed With the Cows, Judge Orders

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (INS) — A 32-year-old Schuylkill County farmer with wife trouble will live in his barn with his cattle for the next year — by court order.

★ ★ ★

Walter C. Bennett pleaded no defense to charges that he married his second wife, Wilma, a Pennsylvania girl, while still bound by wedlock to his first mate, Madelon, whom he married in Germany while in the service.

Bennett has three children by his first wife, one by the second.

After being told that the second Mrs. Bennett had a heart ailment which might prove fatal if her bigamous husband were sent to jail, Judge Cyrus Palmer separated him from both wives by court order.

He ruled that for the year it will take to complete the first Mrs. Bennett's divorce action, the farmer will support and care for his second wife, but sleep in his barn.

★ ★ ★

An officer will make sure Bennett obeys the court and, after the divorce is final, the court may permit him to go through a second, and legal, marriage to wife number two.

Police Officers Elect Johnson

Handren, Lafnear Win; Also Newman, Nique; Plan New By-Laws

Det. Orville Johnson has been elected president of the Pontiac Police Officers Assn., defeating his nearest rival, Raymond Meggitt, 42 to 20.

Johnson, the former vice president, succeeds Det. Herbert C. Cooley.

Others elected were Det. Eugene Hendren, vice president; James R. Lafnear, secretary; William Newman, treasurer; and Park I. Nique, sergeant-at-arms.

Meggitt, and Det. Robert Emery, both facing dismissal charges before the Civil Service Commission tomorrow night, were nominated for president and vice president, respectively. They each had identical vote totals of 20.

Of 94 officers eligible to vote, 70 actually participated in the election which ran three days. Ballots were counted by Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

★ ★ ★

The association will meet tonight to consider a set of by-laws. If adopted, they call for elections to be held each June, which would give the new officers less than a full one year term.

Training Driver Hits, Injures Boy

A 7-year-old Lake Orion boy suffered a broken leg yesterday when he was hit by a car driven by a student driver.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Habert, 22, of 990 Sunset, Lake Orion, was pulling into a driveway near her home when Kenneth Austin, of 996 Sunset, dashed in front of her car, she told Oakland County Sheriff's deputies.

Her husband, Thomas, was seated beside her and teaching her to drive. The accident occurred at 5:30 p.m.

The boy was taken to Pontiac General Hospital where he is reported in satisfactory condition today.

The new branch is located at the east end of a central shopping mall in the new center, slated to open soon.

Business hours of the new bank will be from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. Thursday and Fridays, and 6 p.m. Mondays and Tuesdays. The bank will be open from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesdays, and 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays.

With the addition of this new branch office, Pontiac State Bank has offices in Auburn Heights, Drayton Plains, and 1305 Baldwin Avenue in addition to the main office in downtown Pontiac.

Nationalist China Asks for U. S. Economic Aid

TAIPEI (AP)—Premier O. K. Yui asked for 98 million dollars in economic aid from the United States for the 1958 fiscal year.

In a report to Parliament, he said the amount represents an increase of $8,600,000 over the total received in the last fiscal year. He also said he hoped U. S. military aid would not be cut appreciably this year, but gave no indication of its total last year.

Thailand Army Man Takes Control Over Government Today

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—The army's strong man, Sarit Thanarat, surrounded Bangkok with tanks and seized control of the government today "in the name of the people."

The ousted pro-Western Premier P. Pibulsonggram, who has led the government since 1947, was reported fleeing to Malaya.

Not a shot was fired as the army commander in chief took power, with the reported consent of young King Phumiphon Adudet, two days before a scheduled meeting in Bangkok of the military advisers of the anti-Communist Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Sarit said he acted in the interest of the people who, he claimed, were dissatisfied with the government's handling of last February's elections in which Pibulsonggram retained his premiership by a slim majority.

Sarit insisted at a news conference: "I have nothing to do with politics but took the action I did to force the government of Pibulsonggram to resign. It was necessary for me to do this."

It is believed Sarit acted quickly to save his own position as commander of the army.

Sarit told newsmen he wanted a new government as soon as possible but did not know yet what form it would take. He consulted with his lawyers to determine whether to dissolve the National Assembly. Asked if he would become the new Premier Sarit replied that "many people want to be premier."

After the seizure, Sarit modestly proclaimed himself as governor of Bangkok, rather than premier. In that capacity he cabled Prince Wan Waithayakon, Thailand's foreign minister and retiring president of the U. N. General Assembly, that he is still the Thai representative at the U. N.

Waterford Man's Body Recovered

The body of a Waterford Township man, missing since Sept. 4, has been recovered and funeral arrangements are being made.

The Waterford Township man, Arthur McHenry, 39, of 6547 Saline Rd., was found not far from a small island where an empty 14-foot boat was originally discovered Sept. 5.

The body of his father-in-law, Earl Bishop, 58, of Iron Mountain, was recovered earlier. Both men drowned while on a fishing trip on Little Bay De Noc, near Ishpeming.

Although the weather was bad, two planes were chartered by the State Police to assist searching crews.

Township to Fill Two Vacancies

School Board to Name Recreation Members at Thursday Meeting

Filling two vacancies on the Waterford Township Recreation Board will face members of the Waterford Board of Education at their regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

The vacant positions were held by Edwin Greer, whose term expired July 1, and by Lester Carlson, who has resigned. Carlson's term ran to 1959.

Consideration of the purchase of $700,000 of United States Treasury bills from the debt retirement account is one of the items on the agenda.

Also scheduled for discussion are the consideration of bids and awarding of contracts for employes' bonds and the fuel oil contract.

Transportation questions and problems for both the public and parochial school children will be discussed, and information will be presented dealing with the legal basis for partial payment of employe insurance by the school district.

Another topic will be the desirability of becoming affiliated with the State School Board Association, according to Superintendent William Shunck.

Shunck will present recommendations regarding additional crossing guards in the school district, and certain recommendations dealing with teachers' contracts.

A report will be presented by the building committee on a new high school site, the Watkins Lake school site and the Elizabeth Lake school site.

Little Rock Awaits Faubus' Next Move

poenas were being prepared for the scheduled hearing Friday on the government's request for a preliminary injunction against Faubus' use of the troops to hold back Negro pupils.

Little Rock today is one big question-mark.

Will Faubus withdraw the guardsmen from the high school within the next few days and permit Negroes to enroll? Many people believe so.

Or will he sit tight until Friday, then respond to the summons to appear in U.S. District Court, and let the federal government issue an injunction ordering him to stop interfering any longer with the integration of the school? Others believe this is Faubus' strategy.

The governor's mansion is wrapped in silence.

Woodrow Wilson Mann, mayor of Little Rock, sent the letter to Faubus yesterday in the hands of a policeman.

Mann took note of the "persistent rumors" that Faubus will withdraw the Guard within the next few days. He asked 24 hours notice "in order that proper preparations might be made for the general welfare of the public."

That could mean that Little Rock police will go on duty at Central High — possibly to protect the Negroes rather than turn them away from its doors.

Mann has outspokenly critiized Faubus for sending the guardsmen to the school.

2 Officials Knit Well

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Among the prize-winning displays in the women's building at the Tennessee State Fair are a needle point picture by Andrew Doyle and the hooked rugs and needlepoint pocketbook of Sidney Ritter. Doyle is a city judge and Riter is chief of detectives.

Death Notices

STEVE DEMO

Steve Demo, 77, of 32 Lake St. died yesterday morning after an illness of three years.

Surviving besides his wife, Stella, is a son, Chris G. Demo, of Clare.

His body is at the Pursley Funeral Home.

MRS. CLYDE O'ROURKE

Mrs. Clyde (Mary L.) O'Rourke, 71, of 162 Edison St. died yesterday in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital. She had been ill several weeks.

She was a member of the Church of Christ.

Surviving are her husband, a son, Edmund of Pontiac and a brother, Frank E. Killom of Hubbardsville, N. Y.

Service will be at 1 p.m. Thursday from the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

ARTHUR G. BARBER

WALLED LAKE — Service for Arthur G. Barber, 59, of 2410 Haggerty Rd., was held at 1 p.m. today from Richardson - Bird Chapel, with burial in Glen Eden Memorial Park Cemetery. He died Sunday after a 10-day illness.

Mr. Barber leaves his wife, Alma; two sons, John of Pontiac, James of Milford; four brothers, Earl, Harry, Freeman and Morris, all of Pontiac; and four sisters, Mrs. Eva Collins of Pontiac, Mrs. Clista Soldan of Lake Orion, Mrs. Florence Eimers of Caseville and Mrs. Bernice Berry of Flint.

MRS. ALBERT JANKS

HOLLY — Service for Mrs. Albert (Nina E.) Janks, 69, of 205 Grant St., will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday from Sharpe Funeral Home, Clarkston, with burial in Lakeview Cemetery. Mrs. Janks died of a heart ailment Monday.

She leaves a son, Russell, of Fenton, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen Pritchard of Royal Oak; a brother, Don McMahon of Pontiac; and four sisters, Mrs. Sadie Miller of Clarkston, Mrs. Idell Skarritt of Oxford, Mrs. Allena Atkinson of Waterford and Mrs. Ethel Oliver of Roscommon.

Maria Callas Dropped From Opera Company

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Soprano Maria Callas has been dropped from the 1957 San Francisco Opera Co. roster for "refusing to fulfill her contract obligations."

She had been scheduled to open here in "Lucia di Lammermoor" Sept. 27 and appear Oct. 11 in Macbeth" but yesterday company director Kurt Adler tersely announced she would be replaced.

Failure to Get Quorum Delays Police Hearing

By HAROLD S. COHEN

Everyone was at the wedding last night but the preacher. Or so it seemed to the overflow crowd which attended the public hearing of the Pontiac Civil Service Commission to hear charges against two veteran officers suspended by the police department on grounds of derelection of duty.

FAIL TO SHOW

The crowd of some hundred persons, many of them police officers, plus the 15 witnesses subpenaed by the defense, discovered that only one commissioner, Chairman Theodore Carlson, was present.

Lacking a quorum, the meeting could not be held.

Attorney for the two officers, Paul L. Merideth, was present with his clients, Det. Sgt. Raymond Meggitt and Det. Robert Emery, and City Attorney William Ewart was on hand for the department with Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Merideth immediately challenged the right of the chairman alone to even call the meeting to order or to adjourn it to a later date.

Both Carlson and Ewart told of the circumstances that led to the meeting being called for last night. Carlson said he acted on advice of Ewart and the city clerk. Ewart said he had sent official notices of the meeting to all commissioners.

Merideth pointed out he had not heard any mention of a postponment of the hearing until 5 p.m. yesterday and said that witnesses don't like to be called to hearings that don't happen.

Finally, Carlson said the commission would meet for its regular session Wednesday night and, if all members showed up, the hearing could be held then. But he refused to adjourn to that date saying, "I'm not twins, I can't constitute a quorum myself."

★ ★ ★

Merideth later said his clients would appear Wednesday. As the meeting closed, Chief Straley pushed aside a photographer from a Detroit newspaper who was attempting to take his picture and disappeared into some darkened office at the rear of the city hall.

The Day in Birmingham

Commission OKs Room for Teenage Traffic Court

BIRMINGHAM — The Birmingham City Commission last night approved the use of the municipal court room for a Teenage Traffic Court here.

Local teenagers showed their interest in the proposed traffic court by making up almost the entire audience at last night's City Commission meeting.

★ ★ ★

Police Chief Ralph Moxley, with Juvenile Officer Sgt. Robert Schaule, explained for commissioners and students the operation of the proposed court, to be patterned after the well known Flint court.

The local establishment would be operated entirely by high school students. Schaule said jurors probably would be chosen from civics classes of the high school.

Violators between ages of 14 and 17 will come before this court. An adult will be in attendance, but only in an advisory capacity. The only other adults involved will be parents of violators, who will be asked to attend court sessions with their children.

★ ★ ★

Jurors will receive pamphlets outlining their duties and listing the penalties they may mete out. No fines can be assessed, but driver's licenses can be revoked up to 29 days. Jurors also have the power to ask the state for longer suspension periods if they consider the offense severe enough.

The Police Department hopes to have the plan operating early in October.

A Detroit bricklayer, Joseph Derenot, suffered a fatal heart attack in Bloomfield Hills yesterday.

Mr. Derenot collapsed while at work on the new Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints, at Chesterfield and Woodward Aves. He was dead on arrival at Beaumont Hospital.

★ ★ ★

Advance Officers Night and initiation will be observed when Birmingham Chapter OES meets tomorrow. The session will be held in the Masonic Temple at 8 p.m.

Former Mayor Harry Allen Dies

Leader of Birmingham Served in Many Ways; Funeral to Be Thursday

Birmingham's first mayor, Harry Allen, 75, of 556 West Maple Ave., died at Bloomfield Hospital yesterday after a long illness.

A native of Bloomfield Township and graduate of University of Michigan Law School, Allen served as Birmingham village president from 1929 to 1933. He headed the charter committee when the change to city government was made, and held the office of mayor until 1936.

He resigned recently as a member of the Board of Baldwin Public Library, where he had served many years.

He was a member of First Presbyterian Church, the Detroit Bar Assn., Michigan Bar Assn., American Bar Assn., the Detroit Club, Thomas M. Cooley Club of Detroit, and the Pine Lake Country Club.

He also was a director of the Goebel Brewing Co.

He is survived by his wife, the former Marion Clizbe, of Birmingham; a son, James C., immediate past mayor of Birmingham; a sister, Mrs. Mabel A. Penrod of Lansdowne, Pa., and a brother, Stuart, of Birmingham.

The Rev. Glen H. Harris, his pastor, will conduct services at 2 p.m. Thursday at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home. Burial will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

A minimum is the smallest measure druggists use for liquids; it is equal to one drop.

39 Troopers Added to Police Ranks

The State Police yesterday swore in 39 new troopers to bring the force to 1,136, just 20 short of authorized strength.

At the ceremonies in East Lansing, 12 citations for meritorious service were awarded to 11 troopers, one of them posthumously.

Bert A. Pozza, of Flint, killed in a gun fight near Clio in June 1956, was honored for his part in solving an arme drobbery shortly before his death.

The new troopers and their posts include Arthur F. Bush, of Royal Oak; Ypsilinta; Duane Gerstenberger, of Marlette, Jonesville; Chester S. Romatowski, of Wyandotte, Pontiac; and Clarence C. Maturen, of Essexville, Romeo.

Fifty-two kidnaping cases occurring after enactment of the "Lindberg Law" have been solved, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

DEMONSTRATE RESCUE TRUCK—The Pontiac office of Civil Defense this week began displaying this panel rescue truck which is similar to the one expected to be ordered shortly by the city. The display of the vehicle, donated by the factory retail branch of the GMC Truck and Coach, is in conjunction with National Civil Defense Week, Sept. 15-21. It will be located today at Tel-Huron Shopping Center. For the rest of the week it will appear from 12 until 3 p.m. in the downtown area. The truck will also be available for inspection Friday night from 6 until 8 in front of Kresge's, Huron at Saginaw. Shown demonstrating it is Mrs. Iris Parker of 234 S. East Blvd.

2 Murder Trials Slated for Fall

Prosecutor Ziem Says Harris Trial Awaits Scheduling

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem today announced the scheduling of two murder trials this fall. A third remains to be scheduled and a fourth has been averted, Ziem said.

James D. Shepherd, 36, of Birmingham will go on trial next Tuesday on a first-degree murder charge involving the fatal stabbing of his wife, Elizabeth, 42, in their home, 1509 Pierce St., last May 27.

Shepherd is tentatively scheduled to be tried by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams, Ziem said.

A Pontiac man, Elmer F. Martin, 33, of 264 N. Saginaw St., charged with the second-degree murder of Joseph Compeau, 27, of West Bloomfield Township, is up for trial Oct. 3.

Compeau was stabbed to death June 1 at Waterford Township's Cooley Lake road dump.

No trial date has been scheduled yet for Lee Harris Jr., 25, of Pontiac Township, charged with the second-degree murder of Eddie Hicks, 28, of Wye Mills, Pa. Aug. 26 in the Glenview Trailer Park, 2300 Shimmons Rd., where Harris lives.

Mrs. Rose Sarduk, 48, of 2435 Texter Rd., Addison Township will be sentenced Oct. 8 on a manslaughter charge involving the fatal shooting March 28 of her lodger, Martin J. Wojcinski, 48.

She recently pleaded guilty to the charge, avoiding trial on a higher charge of second-degree murder.

Company in Bay City Seeking Radio Station

WASHINGTON (AP) — The communications commission has received an application for a new radio station from Water Wonderland Broadcasting Co. of Bay City, Mich.

The Bay City firm asked for a new station at Caro, Mich., on 1369 kilocycles, 500 watts, daytime.

Pounds Taken On, Lost Wins Prizes

The Fashion Your Figure club will meet 7 p.m. Wednesday, at the Waterford Township high school.

Trophy for losing the most weight last week was awarded to Mrs. Louis Rogers.

Those who (unwillingly) took home the pig trophies for the most weight gained were Mrs. Harvey Leinenger, Mrs. Joe. Grace, Mrs. Mary Morey and Mrs. Barbara Patnode.

New officers for the coming year include Mrs. Alfred Keith, president; Mrs. Henry Allen, vice president; Mrs. Dario DeMasselis will be secretary and Mrs. Edwin Broome, treasurer.

Mrs. Harold Hunt will be the new recording secretary assisted by Mrs. Harvey Leinenger.

Grows Own Tobacco

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—John H. Sherwood, 65, isn't among the top Virginia tobacco growers—that is, so far as quantity is concerned. But his "farm" attracts attention in downtown Norfolk — all two square yards of it. And, says Sherwood, a retired naval employe, it keeps him in chewing tobacco.

August Building Shows Big Drop

Permits Number Same as July; Larger Share for Alterations, Repairs

New construction permits issued last month by Pontiac's building inspection department amounted to $623,234, considerably lower than the July total of $3,438,846.

Included in the August total were permits for 27 new homes ($263,580) and six new commercial buildings ($254,385).

The July total showed permits approved for 15 new homes totaling $139,500. There were 153 permits issued in July, as compared to 151 last month.

Alterations and repairs to homes accounted for a large share of the August figure as 69 permits worth $57,902 were approved for this work. There were also permits for 29 new residential garages ($20,680) approved by Carl F. Alt, city building inspector.

Making up a big share of the August total was a $53,000 permit approved for construction of a new Lutheran church school.

Alterations and repairs to eight commercial buildings ($12,600) were included in last month's figure.

★ ★ ★

Other permits approved by Alt were: five for wrecking ($800); installation of four tanks ($11,400); construction of four fences ($887); installation of one air conditioner ($2,500); construction of overhead crane ($4,500); and addition to Boys' Club ($1,000).

Delay in Sewer Service Problem

Another 90-day extension is expected to be granted tonight by the Pontiac City Commission in the still unsolved question about sewer service to the proposed $2.5 million shopping center at Telegraph and Elizabeth Lake roads.

The further delay will allow both the city and Waterford Township, where the area is located, to continue studies as to whether a supermarket there should discontinue hooking onto the city's sewage systef, or annex the area to Pontiac.

The city faces alternatives of serving as a core city and providing municipal services to such fringe areas, or to stick to its unwritten policy of providing these services only to annexed areas, City Manager Walter K. Willman pointed out.

The Michigan Supreme Court has upheld a lower court decision that the connection to the Pontiac sewer was illegal under a 1935 agreement.

Other major items to be put before commissioners this evening include:

1—Authorize the study of the police department by the Chicago Public Administration Service firm as proposed by Willman last week.

★ ★ ★

2—Hear City Attorney William A. Ewart's opinion on the question of the police department impounding cars for unpaid parking violations against them.

3—Approve the city's Civil Defense and Natural Disaster Plan in conjunction with National Civil Defense Week.

4—Approve a 154-day extension to Darin & Armstrong, Inc. in the construction of the new Pontiac General Hospital addition. This would push the completion date to October 1958.

5—Extend to the Baldwin Rubber Co. union an Oct. 1 deadline to decide whether it will accept a city offer of $45,000 for the local's property at 128 W. Pike St. The property is needed to complete the Lawrence street municipal parking lot.

6—Approve condemnation proceedings to secure a parcel of land needed for Glenwood avenue extension project.

Public hearings are scheduled on the city's intention to construct the following projects:

Combined sewer on west side of Joslyn avenue from First to Second (a continuation from last week); trunk storm drain on Arlene avenue from Columbia to Second; grading, graveling, and related work on Arlene avenue from Madison to Columbia; sanitary sewer on Cameron avenue from existing manhole approximately 420 feet north of Madison avenue to north line of lot 105 Newton Eastes Subdivision.

★ ★ ★

Sanitary sewer on Emerson street from existing manhole approximately 335 feet north of Madison avenue north to the north line of lots 58 and 78 of the Newton Subdivision; curb, gutter, and related work on East Pike from Astor to East boulevard; five foot concrete sidewalk on High street from Blaine to Summit.

★ ★ ★

Commissioners will act also on six other projects in the city's public improvement program.

A petition signed by 58 per cent of residents of the area has been received requesting curb, gutter, and blacktopping of West Cornell from Baldwin to Hollywood.

The Gulf Oil Corp. has asked the city for water services for its new station at East boulevard at Bond drive.

The vacating of portions of Fern and Harvey avenues has been petitioned by Harold W. Dudley, attorney for the Pontiac school district.

Last item on a 25-point agenda will be a request from Derfla P. Bishop for the transfer of an SDM license from 824 Baldwin Ave. to 822 Baldwin.

SOME GIZMO — A one-man helicopter, dubbed the "Gizmo," is tested over Akron, Ohio. Powered by a simple two-cycle outboard motor, the all-frame 'copter weighs slightly more than 200 pounds. It can hover, fly in formation, turn sharply and scoot forward at speeds up to 70 m. p. h. Developed by the Goodyear Aviation Corporation, the Gizmo is designed to serve as either a courier-liaison or tactical vehicle, permitting its use by ground forces during assaults behind enemy lines.

Family Boating Party Ends in Youth's Death

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — A family boating party ended in death yesterday for a 5-year-old boy.

John Cochran, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cochran o of Rte. 2, Berrien Springs, drowned when the family's 14-foot outboard motorboat overturned in Lake Michigan about 200 yards from shore. The boy became entangled in the overturned boat. His mother and father and 9-year-old brother Hugo were rescued.

The accident occurred about three miles north of here.

The United States bought the Virgin Islands from Denmark during World War I as a safeguard against German occupation. Purchase price was $25,000,000.

Bank Holdup Man Thwarted

Bandit's Escape Foiled by Athlete After Robber Flees With $11,200

DENVER (AP)—An unarmed man robbed the American National Bank yesterday of $11,200, but he was thwarted in his escape by a basketball player turned letter carrier.

Police identified the robber as Clayton C. Kemp, 26, father of three children.

★ ★ ★

Kemp, operator of an auto seat cover firm, was captured by 22-year-old Del Toland, a 6-foot-4, 195 pound former basketball player at who is waiting army induction in Colorado State University. Toland, November, subdued Kemp as he attempted to escape aboard a bus.

Bank teller Helen Modig, 21, said a man came to her cage and handed her a note demanding the money in the cage.

The note said "Another man is outside listening to the police radio. He has a tommygun. If you sound the alarm or signal the guard to stop me we will blast this bank to bits."

Miss Modig put the money in a bank money sack. But as he fled through a side entrance she shouted: "Stop that man!"

Toland entered the bus and as a man rushed toward a rear door to get off, the driver closed the door, momentarily catching the fugitive's foot.

Toland subdued him quickly, aided by other pursuers.

Dr. Jenkins of MSU Will Be PTA Guest

Dr. Russell L. Jenkins, Associate Professor of Communication Skills at Michigan State University will be guest speaker at 8 p.m. Thursday, when the Donelson school P.T.A. meets, for the first time this year.

"What People Want From Their P.T.A." is the subject Dr. Jenkins has chosen, and he has become well-known for the "teacher-counselor-adviser" method of teaching.

A member of a number of speech and education associations, Dr. Jenkins, has also developed courses in communication for the Labor and Industrial Relations Center and is active in the National Vocational Guidance association.

Still Have Room in Parents-to-Be Course Tonight

There is room for seven more couples to enroll in the parents-to-be course which begins tonight at the Oakland County Department of Health, officials report.

Expectant parents interested in registering for one of two courses held each Tuesday and Wednesday beginning tonight through November 5 and 6 may do so by phoning the health department or attending the first class tonight at 7:30.

The classes, conducted by a public health nurse, are sponsored by the Oakland County Medical Society, the Oakland County Department of Health and the Pontiac Department of Health.

The first four classes concern the mother, family adjustments, growth and development of the baby before birth, and labor and delivery.

The last four will cover feeding the baby, what the new baby is like and baby's first year.

Audio-visual aids plus hospital tours will be arranged to supplement discussions.

Waterford PTA Schedules Meeting

A "Get-Acquainted" program is lined up for the first meeting of the Waterford Center P.T.A., at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Thomas Belton, director of the Waterford Township Recreation department will give a report on the winter program.

Parents will meet teachers in their respective rooms, and following the program, refreshments will be served by the executive board.

Tiny Macao Going Communist

By MARVIN L. STONE

MACAO (INS)—Tiny Macao, the oldest and perhaps the wickedest foreign colony in Asia, is going communist but no one seems to care.

Plainly enough, no one is doing anything about it. No one except the Communists, that is.

NEAR HONG KONG

Macao was settled just 400 years ago, in 1557, by swashbuckling Portuguese traders. It lies 40 miles south of Hong Kong, like a wart on the southeast end of the China mainland.

The Portuguese are still here, but holding on only at the whim of Chinese Communist ruler Mao Tse-Tung. The Reds have such effective control over Macao's 300,000 population (98 per cent Chinese) they could move in tomorrow if they wanted to risk international repercussions.

Apparently Peiping isn't ready for the risk. So it is concentrating on running Macao, under the noses of the helpless Portuguese, through the local Chinese.

FREE HAND

The Reds run the chamber of commerce with a free hand and have Macao's wealthiest Chinese businessmen falling all over themselves to give support to Communist policies.

Peiping also is trying to kill remaining Portuguese influence with kindness. They are spending a million dollars a year to support Communist libraries, welfare centers and Macao's most imposing hospital.

Portuguese officials told this correspondent that the situation is serious but that it takes money to counter-act Communist influence. Money is one thing Portugal isn't spending in Macao.

★ ★ ★

This once was a prosperous entry port for Western goods flowing to mainland China. The West's trade embargo killed two-thirds of the trade off. Much of what remains is illegal, conducted by gold smugglers, opium runners and others who aren't likely to file tax returns.

In the 4½ miles that make up the entire area of Macao are crowded, in addition to thousands of refugees from the mainland, Portugal's main hope for holding off complete Red control—some 5,000 troops.

Soldiers stand guard at the Macao-Red China border, at the edge of the city proper. You are close to communism here. All you need do is walk under a 20-foot arch and you are in China.

★ ★ ★

Portuguese officials insist that Mao isn't going to move in if only because the Communists don't want to undertake the task of feeding the refugees, estimated at about 100,000.

But this sounds like whistling past the graveyard to others in Macao. They say the colony will remain non-Red only so long as Peiping dares not risk the displeasure of world opinion.

All this is accepted philosophically in Macao. No one moves very fast, no one likes to talk about the Communists around the corner. Macao is going nowhere and this suits everyone just fine.

Belafonte Weathers Second Eye Surgery

NEW YORK (AP)—Singer Harry Belafonte is back in the hospital after a partial recurrence of the retinal detachment of his right eye.

He underwent surgery again yesterday and expects to remain in New York Hospital two or three more weeks. He was released last Tuesday after surgery on the eye Aug. 24.

His physicians appeared satisfied with results of the second operation.

Mayor Erik von Frenchkell of Helsinki, said tourism has risen 40 per cent in Finland since it held the Olympics several years ago.

Road Contracts Grow in August

156 Miles of Highways Costing $70 Million Set for Construction

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly 70 million dollars worth of contracts for construction of 156 miles of super highways were awarded last month, the Bureau of Public Roads reports.

★ ★ ★

The highways are part of the 41,000-mile network of intersate and defense highways which will span the nation and link 90 per cent of all U.S. cities of 50,000 population or more.

Also last month, contracts were advertised for 246 miles of construction, to cost an estimated 105 million dollars. Another 72 million dollars was authorized for surveys, preparation of plans and acquisition of rights-of-way.

As of Aug. 31, 14 months after passage of the 1956 federal-aid highway act, more than $2,700,000,000 was programed for improvements to the interstate system. All but about 400 million dollars of this was federal aid funds, collected from motorists in the form of special exise taxes on gasoline, tires, etc.

★ ★ ★

"Programing" is one of the final steps before contracts are advertised. A state will notify the Bureau of Public Roads that it wants to build a 15-mile four-lane highway between Punkin Center and East Teacup, to cost an estimated 12 million dollars. When the bureau approves the idea, the money is set aside for the project, or programmed.

Construction of 3,461 miles of the federal network had been programmed as of the end of last month.

The following shows the total cost of projects where construction contracts have been advertised or awarded or where work is under way but has not yet been completed in Michigan:

| Total Cost | Federal Funds | Miles |
|---|---|---|
| $40,607,000 | $35,743,000 | 51.8 |

Sex of 113 Rabbits Correctly Predicted

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP)—A University of California geneticist has reported some success in experiments to control the sex of offspring in rabbits.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Manuel Gordon said that of 167 laboratory-bred offspring, the sex of 113 was correctly predicted. He said it would be premature to consider using his experiment on humans.

★ ★ ★

The general principle centers on electrical attraction of the sperm cells. Female-producing cells, under favorable circumstances, are attracted to positively charged points, anodes. Male-producing sperms are attracted toward negatively charged points, cathodes.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Gordon separated the two sets of sperm in the chamber of an apparatus containing positively and negatively charged poles.

Adenauer Victory Good News for World Peace

A triumph for the United States and a defeat for the Soviet Union is the result of Chancellor KONRAD ADENAUER'S re-election in West Germany.

This was a hard blow for the Communists in East Germany who had pulled all possible strings in their efforts to defeat the 81-year-old chancellor.

Since the West German Republic was created in 1949, this was the third straight victory for Adenauer. It was by no means a close race. His margin of victory was an overwhelming 31 million votes.

★ ★ ★

If the Russians had any idea that they were gaining strength in West Germany, Sunday's election should change their minds. For the countries seeking world peace this is most heartening news.

This is another clear picture which shows the potency of the Commies is only as strong as their gestapo.

★ ★ ★

Which all goes to prove that in the rest of the free world where people speak and vote as they see fit, the power of Communists is zero.

U. S. Army Withdrawal a Problem for Japan

The withdrawal of American troops from Japan at the end of this year is presenting that country with more economic problems.

While the Japanese always have said they would welcome the departure of the occupying army, when the time draws near they are somewhat apprehensive. Many Japanese frankly say they are sorry to see our troops leave.

★ ★ ★

Our military establishment employed more than 100,000 Japanese in addition to labor contracts awarded from time to time. Some 200,000 have worked in service businesses which have been dependent on American patronage. The livelihood of these Japanese will be affected seriously. Besides this there is the spending of our soldiers themselves. Japanese authorities place the grand total at $100 million annually.

★ ★ ★

Japan is cutting back overseas buying, including American cotton, in an effort to balance adverse trade which last year amounted to $500 million. In that period we sold Japan $1.6 billion dollars worth of goods while importing only $540 million worth of its products. Lifting of the embargo on trade with China is not expected to yield Japan much for the time being, at least, as the Communists appear to have little to barter and no money to pay for imports.

★ ★ ★

Both the United States and Japan agree that the time has come for troop withdrawals but Japan will have a difficult economic and defense adjustment to make without the income provided directly and indirectly by our military occupation. However, like the child learning to walk, the Japs have to do it.

Maine Goes Modern

In a referendum last week the citizens of Maine abandoned their 137 year old tradition of going to the polls on the second Monday of September to elect a Governor, Senators and Representatives to Congress.

Back in 1845 Congress fixed the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November as the time for choosing state presidential electors. Many states had been in the habit of holding state and congressional elections in September or October but by 1880 most of them decided to conform to the later date.

★ ★ ★

Maine alone held out over the years partly because of bad weather and road conditions likely to occur in that part of the country in November and partly because of a distrust of change. However, neither weather nor roads are handicaps any longer and starting in 1960 Maine will save about $60,000 every four years by eliminating the extra election.

★ ★ ★

"As Maine goes, so goes the Nation," a political adage coined during the first Cleveland-Harrison campaign in 1888, never did make much sense. In 1936, for instance, Maine went Republican as did Vermont in the ensuing Democratic presidential landslide. For a more recent example, in 1956 Maine re-elected a Democratic Governor, EDMUND S. MUSKIE, while going Republican in the presidential election of that year.

★ ★ ★

Besides retreating from its nonconformist stand, Maine's referendum has put an end to that slogan from which many political writers projected results of a November election.

The Man About Town

Paving Finished

New Cross-County Route Is Now Ready for Traffic

Procrastination: Something that can beat you out of $300 in our football contest.

The last link in Oakland County's only east-west cross-county pavement north of Pontiac has just been opened for travel. The completion of nearly three miles of blacktop paving on Grange Hall Road, leading west from Ortonville, finishes the job awaited anxiously for many years.

This highway, entering the county from the east on Romeo Road, goes through Lakeville, Oxford, Oakwood and Ortonville, passing one mile north of Holly, where it merges into State Trunk Highway M-87, on which it leaves the county at the Fenton village limits.

It enters our county on the line between Oakland and Addison Townships, and also traverses Oxford, Brandon, Groveland and Holly Townships. It picks up much of the through traffic that has been going through Lake Orion Village, Clarkston, Davisburg and Holly.

Its total length is close to 40 miles, and its completion marks a new era in modern transportation in Oakland County and Eastern Michigan.

Now retired after serving on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors for 30 years as the representative of Pontiac Township, my good friend, puts it this way: "Our republic's greatest bulwark is an honest free press, but its greatest menace is a crooked free press."

Frank Shimmons,

Every mail is bringing entries from the early birds in our football contest. A list of the games will be repeated in Wednesday's paper.

Now the tall corn has outdistanced both hollyhocks and sunflowers in the sky-going marathon, as of Oxford has a stalk 17 feet high. It might have grown still higher, had it not been necessary to cut it down in order to measure it.

MEMBER OF AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

A Class in Lawlessness

David Lawrence Says:

U.S. Court Can't Legislate Morals

WASHINGTON — Words of wisdom born of a sad experience by the American people a generation ago prompted President Eisenhower to say at Newport the other day:

LAWRENCE

"You cannot legislate morality where human beings are involved — it must come from within."

This can readily be construed as a lesson to be learned in connection with the controversy over "integration" in the public schools. But back of the comment was the knowledge—which so few Americans have today but which is evidently vivid in Eisenhower's own recollection—of the way almost the entire nation dealt with the prohibition question.

The people themselves by the millions joined in nullifying the Constitution in the 1920s. Enforcement became impractical. Then, by actual repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment under which prohibition had been proclaimed, the problem was turned back to the local communities.

Strangely enough, as one reads of the surprised attitude of so many persons today concerning the concept of "nullification," it might be thought that this had never occurred in America.

SEIZED INDUSTRY

Former President Truman, who violated the Constitution when he seized the steel industry in the spring of 1952, talked glibly the other day of the importance of obeying the Constitution as he reprimanded Eisenhower for not taking more forceful measures in Arkansas.

Yet almost everyone forgets that "nullification" is a procedure adopted by a people who resent any arbitrary imposition of a law or rule of law by a minority or by an oligarchy.

Today it is a Supreme Court decision, and neither a constitutional amendment nor a law of Congress dealing solely with desegregation, which is specifically at issue.

LIQUOR OUTLAWED

In the 1920s, on the other hand, there actually was in the Constitution itself an unequivocally phrased amendment which forbade the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors anywhere in the United States. This amendment raised no conflict between the states and the Federal government, for it gave "concurrent power" to both the states and the Congress to enforce it "by appropriate legislation." Congress passed the Volstead Act spelling out in detail "the law of the land" on prohibition.

While the controversy about enforcement lasted 13 years, the actual process of putting through a repeal amendment took less than 10 months in the year 1933.

The widely expressed reaction at the time was epitomized in the oft-heard remark of those days: "You cannot legislate morals."

How many people are alive today who are familiar with what happened during the prohibition epoch?

Only 28 per cent know from first-hand experience how the American people, by individual "nullification," made a dead letter of the Eighteenth Amendment notwithstanding the fact that the entire state and Federal police machinery of enforcement was available for the purpose.

The jails were full of violators— the "bootleggers" in prison who had sold liquor illegally averaged 53,000 a year.

Worst of all was the birth of gangsterism in the big cities. This evil—a legacy from prohibition—is still with us in many localities.

Local option—to let each state or community handle moral questions—is the only way that has proved successful in dealing with social problems in America. The "integration" controversy is today in its infancy.

It may take years to solve it.

(Copyright, 1957)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Foolish Waste to Strain Citrus Fruits, Vegetables

"Two or three carrots, a handfull of spinach and several other vegetables, run through an extractor, will make a 6-oz. glass of juice. Five days a week I get this at the health department of the market. I'm told it is a rich source of vitamins and minerals. The clerk says that what remains in the extractor has no food value whatsoever. (R.J.)"

DR. BRADY

Drinking the juice instead of eating the carrots, spinach and other vegetables is comparable to taking beef broth instead of roast beef or beef steak. In order to get all the nourishment of beef, you must eat it!

Likewise, in order to get all the nourishment of carrots, spinach and other vegetables you must eat the stuff!

Besides aiding intestinal digestion, cellulose, which constitutes most of the material left in the extractor after fruits or vegetables are so treated, is the natural bulk which is required for normal bowel function.

VITAMINS WASTED

The flesh, pith or pulp of orange for instance, discarded when juice is expressed or strained out, contains valuable nutritional factors such as bio-flavonoide, protopectine, vitamin A and vitamin C. Orange peel, for instance, contains about 3 times as much vitamin C as orange juice.

Recognized nutrition authorities maintain that skins or peels of apples, pears, tomatoes, carrots, turnips, oranges, grapes, radishes, parsnips, peaches and potatoes should be eaten and not discarded, for they contain valuable nutritional materials.

It is necessary, of course, that all such fruits or vegetables should be carefully washed with soap and water and brush or sponge or with one of the modern detergents (soap is the best, I think), and then rinsed with running water.

This not only removes possible residue of poisonous insecticide and microscopic eggs of parasites but also disease germs with which fruit or vegetable has been contaminated by human handler or by flies.

HAVE IT FRESH

When you feed baby his daily ration of fruit or vegetable juice, don't cheat that little guy. Feed him freshly squeezed, unstrained juice — not tired stuff that has stood over night losing vitamin strength by oxidation.

As soon as a child gets all his temporary teeth (20) at the age of 2½ years), let him eat any of the fruits or vegetables above mentioned, skins and all.

At breakfast don't be a molly-coddle. Insist on having your fruit served whole. At dinner grab for the skin of baked potato and leave the contents for the poor soul who's lost his molars.

★ ★ ★

Signed letter, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Critical Anonymous Letter Is Answered by Press

I thought our one and only Pontiac paper used the slogan "Freedom of the Press," but I guess not, because if it were true, it would get Chief Straley's side of the story. But all you print is what you want to print."

★ ★ ★

You should give Chief Straley a chance to back up the stories that your paper so readily prints, which are all knocking him down. Just like the Chief issuing an order to pick up cars because they haven't paid tickets. The Chief tries to save you and you, the taxpayers, money.

★ ★ ★

Seeing The Pontiac Press prints only one side of these vicious stories and rumors, maybe it wants dirty, crooked politicians to run our city. As a taxpayer, I am getting pretty tired of reading about everybody knocking the Chief. Come on, men, let's be men and not a bunch of bullies. Let's give the Chief a chance to state his side of his story or is The Pontiac Press afraid to let Chief Straley talk?

West Ender

(Editor's Note: The Press runs letters under anonymous signatures if the true name is attached for our files as evidence of good faith. We have no interest in letters from citizens who are afraid or ashamed to sign their names, even for the reference files. The letter above had no name and we are under no obligation to print it whatsoever. Also, we insist the true name be printed in the paper if the letter is a personal attack.

However, this one is running to show "West Ender's" several friends we play considerably fairer than West Ender who hides shamelessly in the bushes. In the letter above, personal criticisms of other people are omitted because of no signature. West Ender's other two letters in the same mail will appear if West Ender sends his name and address.)

'Try Governor Who Will Work'

Well, now if Governor Williams can quit leading parades, campaigning in Wisconsin, crowning beauty queens, calling square dances at the State Fair, conducting auction sales, rushing like a mad man from crowd to crowd to shake more hands, perhaps he can find enough time to go back to Lansing, sit down and go to work.

I know this is expecting too much from politics' greatest playboy, but those jobs he has driven out of Michigan are still driven out. Let's try a governor that's Republican, Democrat, Socialist, Bolshevik, Labor Capital, clean, dirty or 15, years old that wants to work for the people instead of wanting to spend his entire time campaigning for the next election.

Offers Suggestion for Next Year

There are so few days when it gets to 90 in the summer, I suggest next year The Press lower the "no necktie" rule to 85. We tried to observe your limit, but too many days are close but not actually up to 90. Can't you make it 85?

Six Sufferers

(Editor's Note: Good idea. Bring it up next June.)

Take Opposing Sides of Question

Oldster says expectant mothers should drop their jobs early. I thought in this enlightened age everyone knew that the story about the stork wasn't really factual. With that established, why should anyone hide?

1957

In the old days, expectant mothers didn't parade around the streets. True feminine modesty asserted itself.

'You Can't Deny Execution Here'

Some of these sob sisters that oppose capital punishment must get a little red in the face when they read about dope peddlers.

When someone passes out several million dollars worth of dope to destroy men, women and children, can the most craven and chicken-hearted want them to be fined in court or "sent to prison for 11 years?" (Minus time off for "good behavior." )

The only way dope peddlers can live is through teaching people to start using it, knowing the victims can never quit. I think this is worse than murder and worse than rape. A murderer might charitably confine himself to one or two cases, but the dope peddlers kill hundreds apiece and it is a slow, torturous, lingering death.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Study Habits Important in College

Charley is like thousands of bright young men who haven't learned how to study efficiently. So he now is afraid he will flunk out of college. While you are in high school, better learn the art of fast reading and good study habits, for you jump from the minor leagues to the big time when you reach college.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case V-392: Charley G., aged 19, has entered the state university.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane, Charley wants to be a dentist and join me in my office," his dentist father told me.

"But he never was much of a student in high school. Mother and I told him we didn't require him to make 'A' grades, but we wished he'd rate at least a 'B' average.

"However, he didn't quite make that 'B' average. And now he is gloomy because he says the courses are very hard and his classmates are smarter than they were in high school.

"So he is discouraged. He is afraid he may flunk out. What can I do to help him?"

Mental competition is usually much keener in college than in high school. And you can easily see why.

★ ★ ★

For the dullards in high school seldom go on to the university. No, it is more likely to be the ambitious, bright students that head for college.

That means your classmates are big leaguers. To appreciae this, consider grade school as similar to sandlot baseball.

High school is then like the minor leagues. But when you arrive at college, you find yourself in the big time. You are figuratively surrounded by scholastic "Yankees" or "Dodgers" and other world champions.

Your high I.Q. no longer is enough to get you by with a passing grade, though it might have sufficed in high school.

For in college you need both a high I.Q., plus efficient habits of study that should have been acquired years earlier.

Smart kids who don't know how to bear down and study efficiently, soon flunk out.

Nowadays it usually doesn't mean your I.Q. is low if you fail in college. No, it is more likely to indicate you either didn't learn how to study or else are squandering too much time in social life and "bull sessions."

COLLEGE SCREENING

Another serious problem confronts freshmen students at our state universities. Since state colleges are compelled to admit the graduates of their state high schools, they are usually flooded with far more pupils than they can handle.

So they deliberately try to flunk out a sizable percentage in order to shrink the enrollment down to a size which matches the college facilities.

That first semester is thus a "screening out" affair by which the professors rigidly weed out the boys from the men.

And by "men," we mean those who can rapidly glean the essentials from a text book and show their knowledge on final examinations.

If you are a slow reader or have not been better than a "C" student in high school, then you better learn the art of swift reading.

Consulting Psychologists are usually available in most cities, who can test your reading speed and give you helpful drill. In a few weeks, you may double your reading rate.

Some of our more progressive high schools are likewise conducting such reading tests and offering their students a splendid training in faster reading.

Furthermore, it is well to make a running true-false or "multiple choice" quiz over your textbook assignments as you study.

Thus, whenever you find a definition or factual statement, list it as a quiz item on your personal test that you are compiling. And indicate the page where you found it, in case you wish to check back later because of a lapse of memory.

There is thus an art to more efficient studying habits, so send for the booklet on "How to Study More Efficiently," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

Get it while you are still in high school so you will be all set for the keener competition of college.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Texas City Conquers Epidemic

Caution Dallas Parents, Children on Rabies Peril

DALLAS, Tex. (INS) — Dogs may be a man's best friend and a boy's best pal but they can also be deadly if infected with rabies.

A pamphlet distributed to thousands of school children in Dallas, where a recent epidemic of the disease was conquered by a long quarantine, offers these suggestions to parents:

NO STRAY

Make sure your child never plays with a strange dog.

Make sure your child knows that if he is bitten by a strange dog he should remember the breed, size and color of the dag, whether it wore a collar and tags and what direction it went after bitting him.

Make sure your child knoew that if he is betten he should inform his parents immediately and he should be taken to a physician immediately after the wound is washed thoroughly wtih soap and water.

* * *

All dog bites should be reported to the City health officer and the police department.

The pamphlet, prepared by the Dallas County Veterinary Medical Association and the Dallas City Health Department, explains that rabies is a virus disease that infects all warm-blooded animals — dogs, cats, mice, elephants, canaries and even whales.

"Once the disease passes the incubation stage in any animal, rabies is invariably fatal," the pamphlet continues.

"Infection cannot be made through normal skin surface, but can only enter the body through a fresh scratch or wound, and since the virus is usually present in the saliva of an infected animal the disease is most commonly transmitted through the bite of a rabid animal."

EYE SYMPTOMS

Symptoms of rabies in dogs, the most common source of human infection, takes two different forms: furious rabies and dumb rabies.

"Farious rabies" causes the dog to wander aimlessly, attacking anything or anyone that comes in his path. They have been known to attack trees and posts, and any person who makes any sort of move — even friendly will be attacked.

In "dumb rabies," the dog becomes depressed and develops paralysis of the lower jaw, causing the jaw to hang down and give the dog a "stupid" look. This dog is unable to bite but owners have been known to expose themselves by sticking their fingers in the dog's mouth to find out what was wrong.

DON'T KILL

"Do not kill a dog suspected of having rabies," the pamphlet warns, "because if the animal is destroyed too soon it may be impossible to make a positive diagnosis." Call the city animal pound which will keep the dog under observation for the required period of time.

"The majority of bites are caused by dogs that are not rabid," the pamphlet says, but any bite should be investigated. If the dog has a collar and tags, follow him to his home and find out from the owner when the dog was last vaccinated, then check to verify the owner's statement.

Even though proper administration of vaccine makes it relatively impossible for a dog to contract rabies, no precaution should be skipped if the dog shows rabies symptoms.

Gary Cooper Plans to Move to Montana Ranch

BUTTE, Mont. (AP)—Actor Gary Cooper, who made a fortune playing cowboy, says he is going to move from the movie studio bunkhouse to a real Montana ranch house.

Cooper announced yesterday he had purchased a substantial interest in the 25,000-acre T-Bar-3 Ranch, owned by W. T. Studdert. The price wasn't disclosed.

Cooper is a native of Montana. "I've always had a hankering to come back to Montana when my movie career is over and I couldn't think of a better life in Montana than being a cattleman," he said.

Fire One Rocket, Other Doesn't Work

MISSILE TEST CENTER, Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP) — One rocket streaked aloft and another didn't in tests yesterday at this security-locked experimental base.

Spokesman at Patrick Air Force Base confirmed a rocket firing at 2:20 p.m. No details were provided. Informed sources in Washington said the missile was one of the smaller variety.

* * *

Nothing official was learned about the other rocket, which put on a spectacular pyrotechnic show for distant viewers while it stood upright on a launching pad in the intermediate-range firing area.

* * *

Observers reported that vapor shot out of the white-hulled missile for more than an hour, then smoke and flame bloomed from around the rocket's base, and vapor clouds obscured the missile. Later, according to John Morton, reporter for the Miami Herald, the rocket appeared to be discharging liquid oxygen from its fuel tanks.

Move to Unite Germans Oct. 15

Western Parliament to Go to Berlin to Elect Adenauer for 3rd Term

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German Parliament will travel to Berlin, 100 miles behind the Iron Curtain, on Oct. 15 to elect Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to his third term.

* * *

The dramatic move will underscore the official commitment by all political parties to reunite the 52 million Germans of the West with the 17 million of Communist-dominated East Germany.

* * *

The date of the session was set yesterday after Adenauer's smashing Sunday election victory.

After the short session, the Parliament will return to Bonn for its regular work.

* * *

Adenauer said recently that the uncertainty of the election was hampering West German dealings with the Soviet Union. As long as there was a chance the Social Democrats might defeat Adenauer's Christian Democrats, the Russians apparently were unwilling to make any concessions to the Chancellor.

* * *

Now the Christian Democrats' strong pro-Western policies have been endorsed in an election giving them 14,998,754 votes to 9,490,726 for the Socialists.

* * *

Although no change in Soviet tactics is expected immediately, some believe the Russians eventually will make a softer approach—probably in an effort to slow West German rearmament.

State Flag Goes to South Pole

Banner to Be Dedicated in Sealed Container Under Polar Ice

MANISTIQUE (UP) — Gerald R. Dubois, a former Jackson resident now a construction mechanic in the Seabees, will place the first Michigan flag on the South Pole during an expedition to the Antarctic this fall.

Dubois, who has been visiting his parent, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dubois at their resort north of here, will leave Oct. 1 from Davisville, R.I., with a party of 14 Navy officers and men.

★ ★ ★

He was presented a large blue Michigan flag in a ceremony at the courthouse here recently, with a request from Gov. Williams that the banner be placed on the pole.

Very few states as yet have flags at the pole, Dubois said.

The Michigan banner, after being placed and photographed at the Navy station, will be put in a sealed container with a governor's proclamation, and then will be buried in the 9,250 feet of ice at the pole. Its location will henceforth be designated on government maps.

The observance of the National Geophysical Year is the occasion for the expedition.

Dubois' party will relieve a group now at the South Pole, in time for them to return for Christmas.

★ ★ ★

At the pole the eight scientists, one doctor and five enlisted men will test military clothing, equipment, lubrication and other factors under sub-artic conditions. Dubois' job will consist of operating a bulldozer which will push snow into a water melting plant and keeping all equipment running.

The group will be isolated from the world except for shortwave radio communication. The men will spend 12 to 14 months on the ice and 1½ to three months in traveling to and from the station.

Dubois hopes to complete correspondence courses leading to a warrant officer rating after completeing duty at the pole. His wife will be in Topeka, Kan., with her parents while he is there.

Dubois entered the Navy in 1942 and has been in various parts of Europe and Asia. Since 1952 he has been in the Navy construction group and plans to continue for a career.

He has been in just about every European and Mediterranean port, has served in China, Japan, Hawaii, Guam, Alaska, Germany and the Philippines. The South Pole expedition is a highlight of his naval career.

Speaker Claims Fund Shortage

Warns Social Security Deficit Will Increase as More Draw Benefits

DETROIT (UP)—A life insurance underwriter said today that the nation's Social Security trust fund has a shortage of 300 billion dollars and that the deficit is increasing year after year.

Albert C. Adams of Philadelphia, vice president of the National Assn. of Life Underwriters (NALU), said in a speech prepared for the 68th annual NALU convention here that "the amount in the trust fund wouldn't be half enough to pay what has already been promised to more than 10 million people now drawing benefits.

★ ★ ★

In Washington, a spokesman for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said the Social Security trust fund is in sound condition.

"Best estimates indicate it is in actuarial balance," he said. "Over the long range future, the system is estimated to have sufficient income from tax contributions . . . and from interest earned on investments, to meet all future payments for benefits and administrative expenses."

"You can understand the grave situation in the future," Adams said, "when you consider that today nine out of 10 active workers pay social security taxes but only five out of 10 of our older citizens are drawing benefits.

★ ★ ★

"But about 20 years from now roughly nine out of 10 senior citizens will be eligible to draw benefits. In addition, the proportion of old people in our population will have increased considerably by that time and the average benefit paid to these people will be substantially larger than it is today."

Hare Proposes Efficiency Probe

LANSING (UP) — How to make Michigan's state agencies run more smoothly, possibly with less money, is the aim of a survey proposed by Secy. of State James M. Hare.

Four efficiency firms agreed yesterday to outline for Hare how they would conduct such a project, and how far it should go.

Hare asked for their plans by Sept. 30 so the State Administrative Board may decide whether to hire one of the firms.

★ ★ ★

"No department head likes to see his department cut down," Hare said. "That's why an outside agency should do the job."

In his own department, he added, the agency could look into the possibility of issuing "permanent" license plates for motor vehicles, with tabs issued every year. This, he estimated, might save taxpayers half a million dollars a year.

Emmet Leahy, president of the Leahy Co., New York City, sail the survey likely would be split up into two phases—possibilities for immediate savings and a blueprint for future economy.

★ ★ ★

The group also advised a study of possible consolidations and elimination of outdated or unnecessary government operations.

Other firms represented were the McKinsey Co., New York; Methods and Efficiency Engineering Co., Bay City, and McClure, Hadden and Ortman, Chicago.

Supervisors Hear Report on Taxes Rejected in 1957

Only $376 worth of county taxes has to be rejected, cancelled or respread this year, the Auditor General Committee of the Board of Supervisors reported yesterday.

In other committee action, the board aproved sale by the Buildings and Grounds Committee of a Bloomfield Hills lot for $525.

It approved a two-year membership by the county in the six-county Inter-County highway Commission. The cost to Oakland was $4,000.

The Drain Committee was asked to study recommendations for establishment of lake levels at Long, Fox, Duck, Bevins, Cedar Island and Oxbow Lakes.

Flowers for Supervisors

Fund in Red—Faces Too!

A deficit in the annual report of the Board of Supervisors' flower fund caused a flurry of laughter and wry comment yesterday.

Mrs. Genevieve Schock, Berkley supervisor and flower committee chairman, announced to the board that the fund was $32 in the red.

★ ★ ★

In the last year, she said, $73 had been collected and $105 spent.

Supervisor John L. Carey, of Springfield Township immediately demanded a full audit of the flower fund. Board chairman Delos Hamlin, of Farmington, ordered the supervisors locked up in their chamber until an accounting was made.

Red-faced Mrs. Schock protested that she could produce a sheaf of receipts showing where the money went.

Board members decided that was hardly necessary. They dipped into their own pockets for $2 apiece and shortly afterwards the fund was well in the black again.

The mayor leads a double life!

Donald D. Jardine of Harbor Springs, Michigan, has led a constructive "double life" for years. He has served as a Boy Scout leader, as a special policeman for civil defense or other emergency, as an officer of a community improvement association and as a member of the Harbor Springs City Council. Today, as mayor pro tem., he devotes every hour that can be spared from his family and his business to conscientious conduct of Harbor Springs' affairs.

And, during the same years, Donald Jardine has been building a successful business. Five years ago he borrowed the money to acquire his own independent business, a Standard Oil service station. Now, his debt repaid, he has one of the finest and most successful service stations in this part of the country. He found something he liked, and he found success by staying with it!

Donald Jardine is one of many Standard dealers throughout Mid-America who lead "double lives," lives of service to the motoring public and to their communities.

We're proud of the fact that thousands of Standard's own employees, too, give freely of their time and talent to civic and human welfare activities. All over this part of the country you'll find our agents, chemists, salesmen, engineers, accountants, refinery people and others active in church, school, 4-H, FFA, Boy Scout, and other jobs done by good citizens.

 What makes a company a good citizen?

Responsible companies, like responsible people, contribute to the security, the economic health, and the general well-being of the communities in which they live and work.

Clayton A. Johnson, second from left, is shown presiding at a meeting of the school board in Bancroft, Michigan. President of the board, he also is active in other community affairs. He believes it is his duty as a citizen to serve in community projects. Mr. Johnson is a Standard Oil agent.

Richard L. Browne, in white helmet, is chief of the volunteer fire department in St. Charles, Michigan. He has served as a volunteer for ten years and has been chief for three years. Why? Because he likes to serve the people of his community both on and off the job. He is a Standard Oil dealer.

A sorrowing friend, Harry Marsh, writes from Fort Smith, Arkansas:

"I'm sorely disappointed in you and think you should apologize to Chet Huntley and the rest of us for your role in that sorry TV panel interview with Gov. Faubus.

"You let a little two-bit country politician wind you up and allow him to spend fifteen minutes (?) without answering one question that we can remember.

"I'll admit that Orval is a wily and shrewd manipulator who is playing both ends against the middle and is to have the solid backing of all the prejudiced and intolerant now as he 'liberates' us from a handful of straight AA students who threatened to enter the 'wrong' school.

"I'm only seventy-four and willin' as Barkus. Eager as a young Lochinvar. Not for love! No! But for the by-line: The fun of being discovered as was Grandma Moses.

"Contrary to common consent that one must break in young or be resigned to the chimney corner or a rocking chair in the best 'room,' wouldn't it be satisfying to the 'ham' in me to crash the gate and the prejudice?" Mrs. Steele adds lyrically:

"I'd like to write a column.

I'd like to write a column
And think it would be fun
If I could find the subject
That isn't being done!"

A lady from Cohoes, N. Y., laments: "Your piece on the college freshman who spelled it 'collich' is no worse than one which one of my daughters, aged 17, came out with the other day. I corrected her when I heard her say on the telephone, 'Are youse all going?' I said, 'Please, say are all of you going.' She told me I was wrong because the plural of you is youse and she should know because she's going to school!"

★ ★ ★

Miss Ellen Quam, of Seattle, kindly sends me a copy of her letter to the FBI in which she protests against publication recently of several of my pieces, including a series on Cardinal Spellman and some information on the itinerary of Queen Elizabeth II.

"If you let that visit (of the queen) take place I really will bite your ears off," Miss Quam warns what must be a thoroughly alarmed FBI.

"Although I am only six months old, I have often remarked to my companions that I've had a constant feeling I was on this earth before. I must have been a Frenchman. I find great relief strolling around the French building's gardens in Radio City."

Tell a Child the Truth if He Needs Operation

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Don't tell white lies to your children when they must have an operation, a University of Michigan pediatrician advises.

Dr. James L. Wilson, chairman of the pediatrics department at University Hospital here, says parents should "explain the reasons for their going to the hospital in a simple way they can understand."

And, he adds, "parents should get it clear in their own minds as to exactly why the operation is necessary before trying to explain it to the child."

Recreation Unit Slates Activities

15 Different Events Planned by Waterford Department

Forecasting a heavy schedule for public recreation in Waterford Township is the announcement that fifteen different activities have been planned for the fall and winter season by the recreation department.

Activities beginning in September are ballet studio, and Saturday Morning Fun, at 10 a.m. Sept. 21. Dog obedience training will start at 8 p.m., Sept. 11.

★ ★ ★

Other activities will include cake decorating classes, popular dance instruction, adult gym club, square dance instruction, youth night, camera club and a "Ladies Fashion Your Figure" club.

This recreation program follows completion of a most successful summer, according to director Tom Belton.

"More than four thousand different people directly participated in one or more of the seven summer activities," he said. "Both the quality and quantity of each program were strengthened this year and it is hoped that each future year will show the same growth," he added.

The remaining activities for the winter will be men's and junior basketball leagues, archery lessons and league, and ladies exercising classes.

A new recreation booklet, listing additional information relative to fall and winter programs will be distributed through the township schools in mid-September.

"Each year the township recreation department is expanding programs for children as well as adults and planning to provide group participation in popular leisure time activities at little or no cost," Belton concluded.

NATO Warships in Atlantic Prowl

Maneuvers Are Aimed at Guarding Against Enemy Submarines

... By GEOFFREY MILLER ...

LONDON (AP)—Warships of seven Western allies slipped out of British ports in the predawn darkness today for huge NATO exercises to protect the Atlantic lifeline.

One by one and in apirs more than 200 fighting ships left for rendezvous points in NATO's first full-scale Atlantic maneuvers in four years.

★ ★ ★

The 58 U.S. warships were led by the giant carrier Forrestal and the submarine Nautilus, the worlds craft.

The exercise has been dubbed "Strikeback." One of its prime objects is to work out ways to keep the Atlantic highway open against marauding submarines.

The Soviet Union is known to be building up the greatest underwater fleet the world has ever known.

★ ★ ★

Besides the United States, other nations taking part are Britain, Canada, France, the Netherlands, Portugal and Norway.

The exercises start officially Thursday.

Asian flu attacked British sailors and knocked four ships out of the exercise.

Othersiew, a NATO spokesman said, the mighty force carrying 75,000 men headed into the Atlantic according to plan.

★ ★ ★

A striking fleet of 100 ships commanded by U.S. Vice Adm. Robert B. Pirie will go into action against an imaginary enemy force in the North Atlantic and the North Sea. These areas would be most vulnerable to attack by Russia's submarines.

Pirie is directing operations from the Forrestal.

The Nautilus heads the enemy forces. It is backed up by jet bombers of the Royal Air Force.

Pirie is concentrating on defending channels through which Soviet sybmarines could slip if they set about cutting off the lifeline to Europe.

Junior Editors Quiz on KINGS

QUESTION: What throne was saved by a spider?

ANSWER: In 1306 the armies of Robert Bruce of Scotland were soundly beaten by the English.

He fled to Ireland and went into hiding in a hut. On the ceiling he spotted a spider swinging by one of its threads, trying to get from one beam to another. The spider tried six times and failed. Bruce realized he had fought and lost the same number of battles against the English. He decided that if the spider tried a seventh time and succeeded, he also would try again. The spider's next attempt was successful, so King Bruce reorganized his armies and scored a stunning victory over the British at Carrick in 1307. England finally recognized Scotland's independence and Bruce's right to the throne.

FOR YOU TO DO: The story of Robert Bruce is as fascinating as any you'll find in history. You can learn more about this man and his determination to free Scotland by going to the library.

Governor Blames Tourist Impasse on Legislature

BAY CITY (AP) — Gov. Williams says Michigan's 600 million dollar tourist industry stood still this year because the Legislature failed to adequately support it through park money.

Williams, addressing the Michigan Hotel and Resort Assn., here over the weekend, said "the unfortunate truth is that Michigan's 600-million dollar tourist industry stood still this year because it was not adequately supported by legislature."

The governor said that while the Michigan Tourist Council estimates a few more tourists visited the state this year the dollar volume of business remained at the 600 million made last year.

The governor said the Legislature cut the tourist council budget $136,000 below his recommendation.

He said he votoed a bill for state park fees and auto stickers "because the Legislature was trying to substitute fees for appropriations, and because the plan would have meant less money, not more, for the parks in the future."

Flood Surveys Asked of County

Cities on 10-Mile Road Seek Investigation Into Drainage Problems

Hazel Park wants a survey by the Oakland County Department of Public Works aimed at solving its flooding problem.

At the Board of Supervisors meeting yesterday, Madison Heights asked for another investigation into flooding of its southern boundaries by waters flowing across Ten Mile road from Hazel Park.

Both requests were sent to the Drain Committee for study. The DPW, created last June to expedite inter-community sewage and water projects, has not yet been assigned any storm water project.

The new department so far has under consideration two proposed sanitary sewer systems, the so-called Evergreen and Farmington interceptor sewers.

The board yesterday upheld the DPW's policy of demanding financial advances from participating communities to help pay for advance engineering.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Frank H. Stephenson, of Farmington Township, had maintained the county itself should advance the money.

Board Chairman, Delos Hamlin, of Farmington, argued that communities should pay some money in advance as evidence of their "good faith."

Stephenson in turn declared that if the state law authorizing the DPW "had any real teeth in it, the county wouldn't have to ask for a show of good faith."

It was Oakland County that drew up and lobbied for passage of the law by the legislature this spring. So far, Oakland is the only Michigan county to set up a DPW.

Little Rock Mob Like Gas Jet Seeking Spark

(This is the second of six articles in which a famed reporter describes vividly what he and a reporting team have found in the South today.)

By BOB CONSIDINE

LITTLE ROCK (INS) — A mob is a leaking gas jet in search of the flame that will give it life. The mobs that gathered at Central High School and later at North Little Rock High across the river never found the spark. Or never dared accept it when offered. The fumes remain.

There weren't many in assembly at the peak of the agitation and they seldom physically represented the burghers of either of the Little Rocks. They were a motley crowd of poor whites, crackpots, distributors of religiously-phrased diatribes, churchless preachers, loafers, the curious, and sometimes the gravely concerned.

But they shared one thing in common with what appears to be a great bulk of the people of Arkansas. They fear the consequences of integration and, at times, seemed on the brink of doing something physical in the hope of stopping it. Anyone suspected of holding a different view was fair game for the mob's collective anger.

The mob's hunger for action, and its individual fear of taking the step that would ignite it, were in constant conflict. When informed of some of its verbal excesses directed at people who tried to make themselves heard in the cause of law and order, Gov. Orval Faubus commented with satisfaction that this proved how correct he was in calling out the National Guard.

A mousy little man in a stiff suit, who identified himself with dignity as "a business man who took the day off," told a member of the International News Service reportorial team, "It's like this. I don't believe in violence, but like a lot of other folks I'm hanging in the balance. If anything happens, I'm fighting to keep the niggers out of that school.

"They want to come here for only one reason, and it ain't education. Education don't mean nothing to them. They want to come to get them a white girl."

Six of the nine Negro teenagers who sought admission were girls.

Harold Dicus (CQ), a muscular, good-looking senior in Central High, reported on conditions inside the institution, as he saw them.

"All the boys will definitely resist any integration," he said solemnly. "We're ready to fight. We're ready to fight any white who takes their side, too. My parents feel very strong about this, very strong. What I can't understand is the teachers. They act indifferent, like it wouldn't matter if a few niggers came in."

"They'd do the same thing to us if we tried to get into their schools," another boy added.

An art class had come out of the big brown-brick school and set up its easles on the sun-splashed lawn, in striking contrast to the long line of national guardsmen bearing M-1's and carbines, the two big Army half-tracks sealing the street from motor traffic, and the ragged ranks of the mob across the street.

These people represented no organized group. They were drawn to the school by instinct, by the publicity, and to sense the exhilaration of being part of a crowd with which they felt in complete accord. If Gov. Faubus had made an appearance he would have been swamped with well-wishers.

A pipe-puffing, fortyish man in old blue denims, filled his bowl reflectively with bull durham, said his name was "Mr. Milam," and continued:

"There'll be blood on the street here if them niggers go to school over there. I'd fight to keep them out. I went to war once for a principle. I figger a nigger is like a Jap. I fought against Japs and now I'm ready to fight against niggers. I thought I fought in that war to get freedom. Now look what we got."

(Next: A talk with Frank G. Clement, governor of Tennessee, and how he differs from Gov. Faubus of Arkansas on use of national guardsmen.)

Eye Relocating Workers Displaced From Jobs

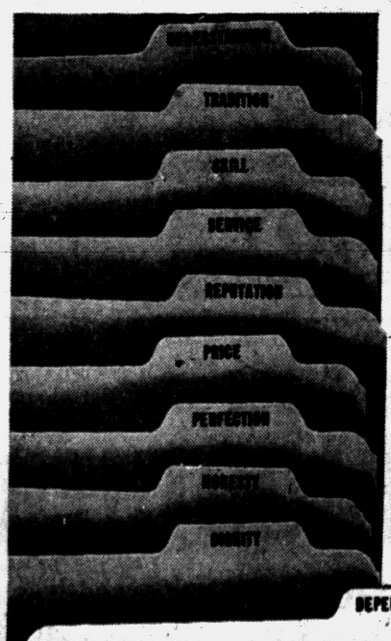

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams planned a meeting today with two state officials on the problem of retraining and relocation of workers displaced by auto company mergers and shutdowns.

Williams said he would get together with Lynn S. Bartlett, state superintendent of public instruction, and Max Horton, Michigan Employment Security Commission director.

He said a recent report by the MESC said the shutdowns of Kaiser-Frazer, Hudson, Packard and other plants accounted for loss of 77,000 job opportunities, with 35,000 of the persons affected still lacking permanent new jobs.

Animals Are Easier to Train Than People

NEW YORK (AP)—"Animals are easier to deal with than people—because they are more predictable," said Fred Birkner, who operates a television school for our furred and feathered friends.

★ ★ ★

A video college for animals and birds? Yes, indeed, and pray why not. If a politician or a movie star feels he needs a few lessons before going on TV, why shouldn't a horse, a boa constrictor or a parakeet?

At his Chateau Theatrical Animals' School on West 48th Street, Birkner conditions his winged and four-footed scholars to the sights and sounds of a television studio.

"This is to remove their nervousness," he explained.

★ ★ ★

A donkey sits patiently listening to a record playing canned laughter and applause. A horse is led around to get him accustomed to TV cables writhing about the floor. A monkey stares inquisitively as a dummy camera is wheeled up to his face for a close-up. Clem, a trained lamb, learns to stand patiently at ease under bright hot lights.

★ ★ ★

"The one sound we don't have to condition them to is jeers," said Birkner. "I have never known people to boo an animal actor."

Birkner, 37, has spent his life with animals ever since he ran away from home in Vienna at 16 to become a circus lion tamer. In addition to training animals for television, modeling, or Broadway shows, he acts as an agent and boasts he can supply anything from a flea to an elephant for private parties or lodge picnics.

"Animals are often smarter than people," he said, "but each animal is an individual, and has to be taught as an individual.

One of his more temperamental subjects was Baron Wolfschmidt, a wolfhound who was supposed to stand upright while posing for a vodka ad. The Baron, who is lazy refused to stay upright until Birkner thought of putting a mirror in front of him so the dog could see himself. After that it was hard to get him back down on all fours.

★ ★ ★

Animals do just about as well financially, if not better, than two-legged actors. A cat or mouse gets $35 for a walk-on part, a boa constrictor up to $450 for a creep-on role.

Extend Deadline for Clergy to Sign Up

Most clergymen who haven't yet chosen to be covered by Social Security now have until April 15, 1959, to do so.

Their right to sign up had run out last April 15. But, Congress—just before adjourning — extended this deadline for another two years.

Under Social Security, clergymen—unlike most people—have the option of deciding whether they want to participate in the Social Security program. Congress made coverage optional because some religious sects objected to compulsory coverage.

★ ★ ★

Out of this optional arrangement grew the deadline for signing up.

Here's how:

In 1954, Congress changed the Social Security law which for the first time provided coverage for clergymen—on any basis. The effective date was Jan. 1, 1955.

Because Congress felt there should be a deadline for them to decide whether they wanted to be covered, it set April 15, 1957, as the final signing date.

After the deadline, Congress found that many clergymen hadn't signed up due to misunderstandings or lack of knowledge; that nearly half hadn't signed. To give them another chance, it extended the deadline to April 15, 1959.

Only clergymen who are newly ordained will be brought under the law after that date. And, they must voluntarily sign up within two years from the April 15 which follows their ordination or be barred from coverage forever.

If you're a clergyman and you haven't signed up for Social Security coverage, it's easy to do so. But, it's going to cost you between $37.50 and $267.75 in Social Security tax when you file your income tax return for 1957.

First, here's the story on how to sign up:

You should write or visit your nearest Social Security office and ask for a Social Security number and for a special application (Form 2031) on which you must signify your desire to be covered.

The form must be filled out and filed with the nearest district office of the Internal Revenue Service.

The coverage will be as a self-employed person even though you may be working for a salary from your church. As a self-employed person, you'll be expected to file by next April 15 a report of your earnings along with your regular income tax form.

You'll also be expected to pay the Social Security tax on your earnings up to $4,200 a year for the years 1956 and 1957. The amount could run from a low of $37.50 to a high of $267.75.

By paying your tax for 1956 and 1957, you'll be considered covered by Social Security as of Jan. 1, 1956. If you're anywhere near retirement age — 65 — getting this retroactive coverage could mean a considerable difference in the size of your future retirement payments.

Once you elect coverage, you'll have to continue to file a tax return and pay the Social Security tax in each year you earn $400 or more.

Incidentally, your church or institution doesn't become involved or obligated in any way in your arrangement for Social Security coverage. But, there's nothing to stop your church from adding the cost of the tax to your salary or compensation. Many churches have done this.

(Questions on Social Security problems may be addressed to "Social Security," in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions will be answered by mail from the Pontiac office of the Social Security Administration. There is no charge for this service.)

Man Kills Self, Sister-in-Law

Former Postmaster of Saugatuck Despondent Over Wife's Death

SAUGATUCK (UP) — The sister-in-law of a former Saugatuck postmaster was shot to death last night in the home where her brother-in-law was found fatally wounded. State Police termed their deaths murder and suicide.

★ ★ ★

James Boyce, a Saugatuck policeman, said he was passing the home of Archie G. O'Neal when he heard two shots. Investigating police found the 67-year-old O'Neal dying on the porch.

His sister-in-law, Mrs. Hilda Hitchcock, 58, of Ionia, was found dead in the kitchen where she had been washing dishes.

O'Neal had been a patient in a veterans' hospital in Saginaw. Mrs. Hitchcock had picked him up last Saturday and brought him here for a visit.

Friends said O'Neal had been despondent since the death of his wife Sept. 1. Mrs. Hitchcock had been staying at the O'Neal home to help out after the death of her sister.

★ ★ ★

A World War I veteran, O'Neal was being treated at the hospital for a heart condition. He retired as postmaster of Saugatuck in 1949.

Youth Paddling Way to New Orleans

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (UP) — A New Jersey youth who bet $500 he could pilot his canoe from New Jersey to New Orleans was paddling around Lake Michigan yesterday.

Phil Akeret, 25, Cape May, N.J., said he is going to leave Lake Michigan at Chicago and journey to the Mississippi River over Illinois waterways.

Akeret, who is a life guard during the summer and a soda jerk in the winter, started his journey at Cape May on May 16 after an elderly adventurer dared him to do it and backed up the dare with the bet.

The youth said he averages about 35 miles a day by paddling 10 out of every 24 hours. From New Jersey he traversed the Hudson River to Lake Champlain and then through the St. Lawrence River. He cut through the state of Michigan on inland waters and entered Lake Michigan at Grand Haven.

★ ★ ★

Akeret said he expects to reach New Orleans in December and collect the $500.

Wet Weather Dampens Gulf, Eastern States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

More wet weather dampened Eastern and Gulf states today but it was generally fair and pleasant in most other sections of the country.

★ ★ ★

It also looked like more warm and humid weather for the Gulf States and the Atlantic Seaboard. There was considerable shower and thunderstorm activity yesterday and during the night.

★ ★ ★

Scattered thunderstorms with heavy rainfall in some areas were reported in the mid-Atlantic states. LaGuardia field in New York City was hit by more than 2 inches of rain. Fairly heavy falls also were reported in Gordonsville, Va., Washington, D. C., and Tetorboro, N.J. Scattered thundershowers in New England brought mostly light amounts.

City in Texas Fears Spread of Asian Flu

JASPER, Tex. (UP) — An illness doctors say may be Asian flu has hit 400 pupils and forced closing of schools here.

At Fort Worth, 274 co-eds at Texas Christian University were treated for an "irritation of the upper respiratory system," but a TCU spokesman said the sickness was not Asian flu.

REGAL SPLENDOR — The music room at Buckingham Palace, London, is the setting for this official photograph of Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip, issued in connection with their forthcoming visit to Canada and the U. S. The queen wears a shimmering gown of white tulle, embroidered in silver and gold, with the blue ribbon of the Most Noble Order of the Garter over her left shoulder. Her jewels include a diamond and pearl diadem, earrings and necklace, and a diamond bracelet and watch. Prince Philip wears the uniform of an Admiral of the Fleet.

Some Say They're Indian Trail Markers

Gnarled Trees Evoke Controversy

LANSING (UP) — Indian trail marker trees are revered as living landmarks of our pioneer past in many Michigan communities.

Tradition has it that the Indians deformed these trees for trail markers by bending young saplings to point out the route to be followed.

The gnarled trees identified as Indian trail markers nearly all are of a venerable age now. There's always a stir of local sentiment when one has to be cut down because of the ailments of acute old age or in the name of progress.

But there are those who dispute the entire theory behind the identification of marker trees.

One expert snorts "ridiculous." Another says "nothing but unauthenticated folklore."

Victor F. Lemmer of Ironwood, a former president of the Michigan Historical Society, has conducted some extensive research on the subject.

Lemmer is a firm believer in the authenticity of the trail markers. But he's fair enough to include in his voluminous file the scoffing of the skeptics.

Just one small news item, carried by the Associated Press, saying that the Michigan Historical Commission was interested in collecting material on marker trees attracted scores of answers.

Donald E. Roberts of Holland reported he had located some 70 such trees along the Lake Michigan shoreline in southern Ottawa and northern Allegan counties.

Roberts, an engineer, said he had at first discounted the entire theory but now was a believer. The odd appearance of the trees he found, Roberts said, could not be accounted for by natural deformity, such as by wind.

Roberts also advanced the theory that early settlers might have picked up the trick of bending the trees from the Indians. He cited cases of such trees being found along section lines and one located on a known early stage coach route.

A tree on the Post Office lawn at Ironwood is one of those identified as a trail marker.

Four such trees are found in the vicinity of Traverse City. They are along the route of the old Mackinaw Trail running north and are near former Indian encampments.

Similar trees have been reported from Allegan, Sparta, Elk Rapids, Acme, Glen Lake, Northport, St. Johns, Rose City, Muskegon, Munising, Whitehall and Au Train, Mich.

A letter received by the Historical Commission from George E. Johnson of Lowell, telling about a tree on his property, was typical.

He reported that arrowheads had been found in the vicinity and said that "years ago, an old man now dead" told him the tree was an Indian marker.

Supporting evidence has come from other states.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture publication, "Famous Trees," says the Indian practice of deforming trees as signposts was common in the Mississippi Valley region and the eastern and southern United States. It notes such surviving trees are most common in Cook and Lake Counties in Illinois.

★ ★ ★

Among the disbelievers, some are gently cynical. Other are downright bitter.

John Witthoft, chief curator of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, said he had no reason for believing the Indians marked their trails this way.

"I consider the whole thing ridiculous," Witthoft declared. "At least some of the examples I have seen are in completely preposterous places for any trail marker and others are by no means old enough to have served as such."

That's what some of the doubters have to say.

But the communities with such treasured trees would much rather believe their own wealth of local tradition, as handed down from "an old man, now dead."

Says Husband Hurled Two Knives at Her

LOS ANGELES (UP) — Jacqueline Thomas, a red-haired singer who has sued for divorce, charges that her husband flew off the handle and hurled two knives at her, missing with both shots.

★ ★ ★

The knives were thrown so hard they flew off their handles too, she told Superior Court in asking that Richard H. Thomas, 38, a television traffic operator, be ordered to move from their home.

★ ★ ★

He agreed to go, and the court ordered him to pay $150 monthly for support of Miss Thomas, 24, and their child Jeffrey, 15 months old, along with $200 monthly for upkeep of the home.

Ike Not Butting In

Mixed Schools Feuding Expected to Die Down

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Eisenhower administration expects the feuding and fussing over school integration to die down before long for two main reasons:

1. Public opinion. President Eisenhower has said this on the record.

★ ★ ★

2. Dollars and cents. Eisenhower hasn't said this publicly, but it can be stated that he thinks business and industrial pressure will squelch violence, and that it will, in the not too distant future, force compliance with federal court antisegregation orders.

One man close to the President puts it this way: "Suppose you wanted to build a plant in the South. Where would you build it — in Arkansas or in Missouri?"

★ ★ ★

He meant, of course, in a state where troops have been called out or in a state where integration has started smoothly.

In other words, would you invest your money in a state where there's trouble or in a state where peace seems assured?

This can't help influencing governors and other key officials of Southern states.

★ ★ ★

Arkansas, the state where National Guard troops have been posted to keep some Negro pupils out of a high school in Little Rock, is a good example.

It's a poor state, measured by such things as industrial resources. It wants more industry. It has paid for a national advertising campaign to attract investment by outsiders.

★ ★ ★

Whatever the local sentiment may be on the integration question, administration officials don't see how Gov. Orval E. Faubus can resist pressure to calm things down if he wants to raise living standards in his state. Nobody doubts that he does want that.

This sort of pressure is by no means confined to Arkansas.

Reporter William Hines told in last Sunday's Washington Star of a talk he had some months ago with a business leader in Winston-Salem, N.C.

"Among us," Hines quoted the man as saying, "we represent probably 95 per cent of the financial resources of Forsyth County. We quietly passed the word that trouble here would be bad for business and we weren't going to have any. We have this thing so well locked up that a cab driver couldn't get a gasoline credit card without our say-so.

"No, there isn't going to be any trouble."

There wasn't. And the Eisenhower people think similar pressure — maybe you could call it public opinion engineered from above — will prevail elsewhere in the South, allowing for different local situations and expecting no overnight miracles.

Some of Eisenhower's critics say he should take a firmer stand against violence and come out unequivocally for integration. The Democratic Advisory Council said Sunday, for instance, that he "has lost an opportunity to exert leadership in behalf of law and order."

The White House showed itself irked at this and a number of similar criticisms, not all of them from partisan sources.

Plainly, the President's policy is to let things work themselves out among the people involved — confident that, in the long run, the American people will prove themselves law-abiding without any uncalled-for mixing in a difficult situation by people from Washington.

★ ★ ★

If Eisenhower is right, his policy will go down in history as one of wisdom.

If he is wrong, the responsibility for the stoning of children and for the dynamiting of schools—as in Nashville, Tenn.—may be laid at his door.

Intelligence Agents Call 10 'Plotters' in Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (UP)—Military intelligence agents yesterday arrested 10 men accused of planning to assassinate high police officials and create other disorders in Havana suburbs.

The outbreak was to take place at the time of the recent uprising of rebels and sailors at the Cienfuegos naval base in south central Cuba, the agents said. Most of those arrested were said to have confessed.

The office of state attorney general is an elective one in all but seven states in the United States.

Expands Trading With Soviet Satellites

BONN (INS) — Starved for foreign currency, the rigidly anti-Communist Spanish government was reported today to be quietly expanding trade with Soviet satellite countries.

DPA, the West German news agency, said in a dispatch from Madrid that Francisco Franco's government is even preparing cultural and sports exchanges with Moscow itself.

★ ★ ★

Well informed quarters in the capital were quoted as saying that Spanish minister of commerce, Alberto Ullastres, spoke with Polish officials during his recent visit to Vienna on a "major" expansion of trade links between the two countries.

Since last July, Madrid reached a trade agreement with Poland providing for exchanges totaling billions of dollars.

Spain is in urgent need of industrial equipment and semi-finished products in exchange for Spanish agricultural produce and raw materials.

Spain, DPA said, is anxious to swap wine for trucks with Hungary. A similar deal was said to be under discussion with Czechoslovakia.

Herter Visits Rhee

SEOUL (UP)—U.S. Undersecretary Christian A. Herter visited President Syngman Rhee today and later visited the quiet Korean front. Government sources said Korean officials stressed a need for an administrative agreement governing, among other things, the jurisdiction over offenses committed by U.S. forces in Korea.

Fans Are Nuisance to Smokey

But Bear Remains Popular Symbol of Fire Prevention

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—Smokey the Bear, popular living symbol of forest fire prevention and one of the capital's most ogled celebrities, is more than bored with his public. Sometimes he's downright rude.

★ ★ ☆

Never noted among his handlers for a pleasant disposition, Smokey often has lumbered into his house and slammed the door when he tired of the public gaze.

LOCKED OUTSIDE

His distaste for the spotlight has reached the point where zoo keepers are forced to lock him out part of the day.

★ ★ ★

Smokey, now 6, was found wandering in New Mexico's Lincoln National Forest, all four feet scorched by a devastating fire. He was flown to Santa Fe, treated, and eventually brought to the zoo.

Pictured in dungarees and equipped with fire - fighting shovel, Smokey is known to millions of young and old.

He has been the most popular of the fire prevention symbols used by federal and state agencies, industries, private organizations.

★ ★ ★

William F. Huber, director of Cooperative Forest Fire Prevention, says the theme of the 1957 Smokey program, "Thanks, folks, for preventing forest fires," is in order because fires have been reduced from 210,000 in 1942 to less than 145,000 in 1956 and annual acreage losses have dropped from 32 million to less than 9 million.

SMOKEY SOUVENIRS

Improvements noted in the current fire picture include fewer man-caused fires.

★ ★ ★

Smokey headquarters at the U. S. Forest Service, or the state forester's offices, have been distributing such things as Smokey bumper strips, bookmarks, stamps and posters. Radio and TV spot sare also made available.

The Smokey Bear "Story of the Forest" has been distributed to more than four million children and is used as a text in many schools.

Commercial items out this year include a Smokey badge, and new Smokey Bear doll, and a Smokey newspaper comic strip. There's even a Smokey maple crunch ice cream.

★ ★ ★

Huber and other officials would like to see Smokey get a new moat-type setup in the zoo with a miniature ranger station and dwelling.

Many Students Bound for Western Michigan

Today we will conclude our list of college students. We will finish telling you about those students who are going to Western Michigan University and add a few out-of-state students for good measure.

★ ★ ★

Over in Kalamazoo at Western Michigan University we will find seniors Karen Jo Anderson of Wenonah drive and Marcia Ballagh of Rochester. Both coeds are studying elementary education and Marcia is a Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority member.

Another senior is Martha Varney of Nelson street, who is in speech correction.

SOPHOMORE STUDENTS

Nancy Ann Day of Rochester, who is on a secretarial program, returns to Western as a sophomore, as does Herbert Butler of South Anderson street who is studying physical education. Jerry Young of Wolfe street is a sophomore as well as a member of Army ROTC and Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity.

★ ★ ★

Among the freshmen on Western's campus will be Linda Duff of Lois street, Carole DuFord of DeSoto street, Marlene Lazenby of Exmoore road, Gail Mitchell of West Walton boulevard, Marlene Noe of Chapman street, Anne Pontz of Clarkston, David Struble of Woodbine drive and Terry Tollefson of Stanley avenue.

Terry is a second semester freshman and the WMU News Service informs us that she is not only active in campus activities but was on the high scholarship list for the spring semester.

David Duman of Oakdale drive will be a junior at Western this fall, as will Marcia Smith of Elizabeth Lake road. Marcia is studying secondary education and is affiliated with Alpha Sigma Alpha sorority. Business administration sophomore Gail Greenless of Lake Orion will also be on the Kalamazoo campus.

OUT OF STATE

Completing his senior year at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia is Robert T. Lewis of Chippewa road. He leaves for school the 20th of September.

Returning to Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., for his senior year in business administration is Kirk Holbolth of North Johnson street.

★ ★ ★

That winds up our college section for this year. We wish you all the best of luck at school—study hard—but don't forget to have fun!

Residents Enjoy Last Fair Days

Well, the weatherman tells us it won't be long now before Old Man Winter comes roaring in complete with snow, ice and howling winds.

But before all this unpleasantness overtakes us, there should be some nice days ahead. And, as you can detect from these pictures, there are some families in Pontiac who are taking advantage of these few remaining warm days.

OUTDOOR COOKERY

Backyard barbecuing has become increasingly popular and some of us are taking every opportunity available to get in a few more outdoor cook-outs.

★ ★ ★

Those of us who are avid barbecuers will impatiently wait out the winter months until it is time once again to take to the backyard with its flies, ants and the wonderful aroma of charcoaling meat.

Fashion Show Set

At the final luncheon of the season Thursday, women of Pine Lake Country Club will have a bridge party and fashion show. A local shop will put on the fashion show.

California Is Setting for Nuptials

Edna M. Pinkston Becomes Bride in Palo Atlo Rite

Edna M. Pinkston and Dr. Clinton M. Petty were married in the First Methodist Church of Palo Alto, Calif. The Rev. Robert J. Hawthorne performed the Sept. 8 ceremony.

★ ★ ★

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Aneta F. Pinkston of Mohawk road, and Mrs. June M. Petty of Hollywood, Calif., is the bridegroom's mother.

GOWNED IN SILK

For her wedding the bride wore a Mira Mist silk gown with imported Chantilly lace. The bodice and straight front were accented with seed pearls and sequins. The train of the gown was designed like large, overlapping petals.

Her contoured lace crown, outlined with pearls and touched with sequins, held a fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, gardenias and stephanotis.

Iva R. Pinkston of Palo Alto was her sister's only attendant. She wore a full harem-skirted ballerina-length dress of sunglo taffeta. Her velvet scalloped crown and silk illusion half-veil were in a matching shade, and she carried a shower arrangement of yellow carnations.

★ ★ ★

Dr. T. R. Jenkins of Palo Alto was the best man, while Dr. W. A. Gustafson of Palo Alto and W. R. Davis of Menlo Park, Calif., seated the guests.

CHOOSES BLUE

For a reception in the Patio room of the First Methodist Church the bride's mother wore a lace over taffeta dress of heavenly blue with navy accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Petty chose a navy lace and taffeta dress with navy accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

★ ★ ★

Before leaving on a two-week trip to the Hawaiian Islands the new Mrs. Petty changed to a red sheath dress with white accessories. The couple will live in Mountain View, Calif.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom was graduated with bachelor's, master's and doctor's degrees in mathematics from the University of Southern California in Los Angeles.

Collection Has Soft, Classic Look

This fall designer Ruth Joyce shows a collection which might be termed "elegantly simple." There's softness and the uncluttered look of the classic.

★ ★ ★

Throughout the collection black is favored for late day and daytime wear, and hemlines remain at mid-calf regardless of Paris dictates.

Miss Joyce believes in a hem length which is flattering to the woman, not set according to style whims.

The designer uses soft sheer wools, and the garments fall loosely from shoulder to hem. One daytime dress of wool with slim lines has a dramatic stole made of two long triangles joined at the long points for a slim center section.

One triangle is larger than the other, hanging longer and fuller when knotted or draped over the shouder. The gray wool fabric is lined with red.

★ ★ ★

Lace is the "big" fabric for evening and pink is a favored color for evening wear. Very few jackets are used in the Ruth Joyce collection, with capelets and stoles in their place.

Shoulders are natural and most of the sleeves are set in. Waistlines are natural.

North Oakland Scout Directors Hold Gathering

The directors of Northern Oakland County Council of Girl Scouts met Monday in CAI Building, Waterford. Mrs. Claude Kingsley was named new troop camp chairman.

★ ★ ★

New program chairman is Mrs. Bobbie Dale Pickford. Mrs. Watson Stringer was named a new member of the resident camp committee and Mrs. James A. Glennie was made a member of the finance committee.

★ ★ ★

A new camp savings plan was explained and adopted. Girl Scouts may buy stamps from their neighborhood leader and use them toward camp fees.

Moose Unit Plans Yuletide in October

Mrs. Richard Dawson has been named by Moose Lodge, Pontiac Chapter 360, to head the Christmas in October project for children at Mooseheart.

★ ★ ★

In charge of the Sept. 24 penny supper is Mrs. William Vandruska, it was announced when the group met Monday evening. Mrs. Clark Cavalier was appointed chairman of a Sept. 21 money-making project.

Niblick Group Holds Golf Day

Thirty-four members and husbands attended the annual Niblick Golf Club day at Pontiac Country Club Sunday. After dinner Mrs. Henry Pfeuffer and Oscar Eckman received first prize for winning the afternoon's mixed two-ball foursome.

★ ★ ★

Second prize was awarded to Mrs. Donald Bos and Lynn Allen, while Mrs. Aaron Fox and Donald Bos took third prize.

★ ★ ★

Social committee for the event was composed of Mrs. Albert Gaines and Mrs. Arthur Compton.

Dorothy Joan Reveals Plans

Dorothy Joan, whose marriage to Lt. Michael Hackett will be an event of Sept. 28, announced that Ardath Casselman will attend her as maid of honor. Donna Goodraw of Grosse Pointe, Mary Ellen Ehrman of Kokomo, Ind., and Judith Kline will be bridesmaids. Elaine Zian is to be the flower girl.

★ ★ ★

The bride-elect announced these attendants at a Saturday shower given by Judith Kline and Pat Wisner in the Lenox avenue home of Mrs. Harold Kline.

Pontiac Chorus Today Begins Its 26th Season

Today will mark the beginning of the 26th year of Pontiac Women's Chorus. This year the chorus will be under the direction of George R. Scott with Mrs. Norman Smith as accompanist.

★ ★ ★

Mr. Scott is a University of Michigan graduate. After graduation he spent two years in the Army, for which time he directed a 40-voice male chorus.

He then became minister of music at Commerce Methodist Church, a position he now holds.

Mrs. Smith is organist and choir director of Orchard Lake Presbyterian Church.

Women's Chorus is affiliated with the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Maurice Thome to Direct Club

Maurice Thome is the new president of Temple Beth Jacob Men's Club. Other officers are Jerome Peters, vice president; Melvin Eller, secretary, and Hal Fersht, treasurer.

Marvin Barnett, I. E. Gordon, H. Malcolm Kahn and Dr. J. E. Berk have been named as members of the board of directors.

These officers will be installed tonight at a dinner meeting to be held at Rotunda Inn.

Project Banishes Twilight Blues

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Twilight is the happiest time of day if you're happy, but it's the saddest time if you're sad.

★ ★ ★

For Mrs. Y., it was a sad time. Mrs. Y. had just recently lost her husband and was finding it difficult to adjust herself to her loss. They hadn't any children, but theirs was one of the happiest marriages.

MOVED TO APARTMENT

For a few months, Mrs. Y. went on a cruise. When she returned she moved from the house she had spent so many happy years in to an apartment in the city.

★ ★ ★

"I thought I could lose myself and find it easier to forget in the city where I would be surrounded by people," she told me.

But like many people, Mrs. Y. found that you can be lonelier in the midst of big crowds than you can all by yourself.

★ ★ ★

"I used to drag through the days, pretending to enjoy sightseeing and shopping," she went on, "and then by evening I'd be in the apartment looking out at the skyline, watching the sun set—and wishing I could die! Finally the doctor said I'd have to get something to do or he wouldn't answer for my sanity or my health.

NO EXPERIENCE

"Getting something to do," she continued, "at my age and with no experience, is easier said than done. I love cooking and homemaking and it's all I know.

"It would be impossible for me to go to school and learn a new skill—couldn't keep my mind on it. So the doctor said, 'well then, cook or keep house for somebody.'

★ ★ ★

"At first I was shocked, but then I began to think about it.

"One evening when I was crying and thinking how much I hated the twilight, I got an idea. The building I was in was full of business couples. I would cook dinner for some of them.

★ ★ ★

"When I told the superintendent of my plan, he thought it was a good one and said he'd tell some of the tenants.

LITTLE CELEBRATION

"Right away, a young couple came to call and asked if I could prepare dinner for them every Friday night. They both worked hard and loved to have a little celebration on Friday. I agreed, and I must say it was wonderful fun.

"I got everything ready for them and when they came, I left. I didn't want to serve dinner, just cook it. They were delighted. If I say so myself, I'm a good cook. They pay me well, too, which doesn't hurt!

"Now I have three couples to cook for so that I'm busy Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. I just love it and I'm almost like a mother to those young people.

"I look forward to the evenings, now. Twilight is no longer crying-time for me!"

Men Share Blame for American Women's Tensions

(America's married women are probably the most pampered wives in the world. Their husbands spend millions of dollars a year on time-and-labor-saving gadgets—and then often pitch in and help with the housework too. And yet, one of the major causes of tension in Mrs. America is an unsatisfactory relationship with her husband. In the following article, the second in a series of five, experts from around the world explain why this is so.)

By OLGA CURTIS
INS Women's Editor

A woman's attitude toward sex, the experts say, depends on a man's attitude toward her.

So psychiatrists blame the American man for the fact that many American women find sex "unpleasant and a great source of tension."

"In this puritanical country man has never been taught to make love," one doctor explains bluntly.

Dr. Douglas Gordon Campbell, psychiatric spokesman for the San Francisco Medical Society, also says that in the U.S. "sex has become a mechanical act that gratifies the husband but not the wife."

His words are echoed by experts both here and abroad. Professor Alcide Fraschini of Rome University, for example, says, "There is far less tension in the Italian female than in the American because in Italy the male is still the master of the sexual situation."

★ ★ ★

A famous Italian lawyer agrees. Mrs. Maria Bassino Sotis of Rome says:

"Italian men concentrate their attention on women: They show their best in the difficult problems of sentimental and sexual relations. So Italian women enjoy the advantages of a full womanliness . . . which provides a sense of stability and freedom from strain."

ZSA ZSA COMMENTS

The contrast between European and American men also was noted by Hungarian actress Zsa Zsa Gabor, who has had four husbands, from both sides of the Atlantic. She said:

"An inadequate lover or husband naturally causes tension in a woman.

"American husbands are too busy to give all kinds of promises to their wives, so American women complain all the time. European husbands promise their wives anything to keep them happy, even though the promises are not always fulfilled."

While European women happily admire a "Don Juan," the basic male-female relationship in the U.S. has blurred. One physician who specializes in women's problems, Dr. Robert J. Steward of Denver, says that "a male is now less a male and a female less a female." The result, he notes, is "tension caused by psycho-sexual malajustment."

This maladjustment can cause a woman to reject her femininity altogether. Dr. Karl Beutner of San Francisco, a psychiatrist, reports that demands for hysterectomies are increasing among younger women who want to sidestep child bearing. The increase in drinking by women, he says, is also an attempt to escape their role as women.

★ ★ ★

The pattern of sexual frustrations in women is found in the files of family counselors everywhere. The Family Service Association of America, for instance, offers these "typical" cases:

★ ★ ★

A young mother who quarreled incessantly with her husband explained she knew he didn't really love her. Why? "Because the only time he shows affection is when we have sex relations."

SHE WAS BORED

Another young wife admitted she "was doing a little drinking" because she was bored with her husband. She knew she was bored, she said, "because she simply couldn't get interested in sex." She finally admitted she had never been satisfied in sex, and could not understand what "interested" her husband.

Similar reports come from other countries where psychiatrists acknowledge "the sexual inadequacy of the male." Mamoru Michizoku, professor of clinical psychology at Tokyo's Chiba University, used exactly that phrase in explaining the tensions of Japanese women. He said:

"Japanese men are simply not expressive, and completely lack tenderness in their love-making. There is no embracing, no kissing."

As a result, Professor Michizoku says "some Japanese women turn to tranquilizers; some—especially younger girls—to alcohol."

Lemonade Plum Jelly Is Different

Mrs. Worden Tries Frozen Concentrate to Add Tartness

By JANET ODELL

When you go off the beaten track of the recipe and experiment with food, then you become a creative cook. Mrs. H. T. Worden did just that when she made her green gage plum jelly this year.

Making a home for her husband, three school age children and a baby less than a year old keeps Mrs. Worden pretty well occupied. She likes to sew and hopes some day to have time to paint.

GREEN GAGE PLUM JELLY
By Mrs. H. T. Worden

5 pounds green gage plums
1 can (6 oz.) frozen lemonade concentrate
1 box powdered pectin
7½ cups sugar

Crush thoroughly ripe plums. It isn't necessary to peel or pit them. Add 1½ cups water and simmer, covered, 10 minutes. Place in jelly bag and squeeze out juice.

Add undiluted lemonade concentrates to juice. You should have 5½ cups in all. Measure sugar into a bowl to add later.

Pour prepared juice into large saucepan. If necessary add water to make correct amount of juice. Mix powdered pectin with juice in pan. Place over high heat and stir until mixtures comes to a FULL ROLLING BOIL. Then boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove jelly from heat, skim off foam with metal spoon and pour at once into glasses, leaving ½ inch space at top of each. Paraffin at once. Makes about 12 medium glasses.

City Artists Meet

Pontiac Society of Artists met Friday evening in Adah Shelly Library. For the October meeting Beaver Edwards, sculptor and painter from Scarab Club in Detroit, will speak on features of art.

A most jolly fellow to have around—a catch-all for soiled clothes; or a hiding place for pajamas! Whether used on door or bed, this jolly jester will not only add a touch of gaiety but also delight the youngsters.

Pattern No. 2223 contains tissue; hot-iron transfer for face; sewing and embroidery directions.

Send 25c in coins, your name, address and the pattern number to Anne Cabot, The Pontiac Press, 372 W. Quincy St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Have you a copy of our 1957 Needlework Album? It contains 56 colorful pages showing many pretty designs; plus directions for making three crochet items and a quilt. Only 25c a copy!

Delta Kappa Gamma Opens Fall Season

Xi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society opened the fall season with a dinner meeting Thursday evening at Davisburg Elementary School. Mrs. Everett Hathaway and Mrs. Frank Tucker served as the committee on arrangements.

Ora Hallenbeck gave a report on the northwest regional meeting held this summer in Washington, D. C. Mrs. Hathaway showed pictures taken on a European trip.

'Personal' Letters Irk Secretary

She Resents Mail Addressed to Boss in This Manner

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: What about the propriety of sending letters to a man at his office with envelopes marked 'personal'? I rather resent the implication when a letter like this arrives for my boss, but another secretary here thinks there is nothing rude about it and, in fact, she even thinks it eliminates all possibility of embarrassment to herself. What is your opinion?"

Answer: It is proper to mark the envelope this way when the letter is a really personal one sent to the person's office. It would be inexcusable to do this, however, when sent to anyone's home address.

"Dear Mrs. Post: The following incident occurred some time ago but I have been puzzled about it ever since and would like your opinion on the matter.

"My daughter graduated from junior high school in June. She was the president of her class. The school gave the graduating class a farewell dinner and dance. At this dance, my daughter asked her teacher, a man, to dance with her. He did, but she was the only one he danced with and that was the only time he danced all evening.

"As I was chaperon there, I thought it was nice of him to ask her, but when I mentioned it to my daughter, she said she had asked him to dance. Do you think it was proper for her to ask him to dance?"

Answer: She should have waited for him to ask her.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When making out a check, should it be written to Mary Smith or Mrs. John Smith? What if a person doesn't know the woman's given name?"

Answer: If you don't know her name, then you would have to make it out to Mrs., otherwise it should be written to Mary Smith, which is her signature.

Onion Scent No Way to Social Acceptance

Onions are not only healthful, they're indispensable to a salad and to many other dishes. But no one ever labeled them a beauty aid.

The hostess who comes from the kitchen to greet her guests with an outstretched hand that wafts onion odors could be called socially backward.

Even though she's wearing her favorite perfume, it's safe to say that the onion scent will come out on top every time.

★ ★ ★

Best way to solve the problem is to peel the onion with cold water running. Either peel it directly under the stream of water or frequently let the water play over the hands during the peeling. This will both kill the scent and keep your eyes from watering.

★ ★ ★

When the job is over, wash your hands, dry them carefully and use a little scented talc in the palms. The cold water and the talc should turn the trick and make you socially acceptable.

The talc is a good idea as follow - up to other kitchen tasks. It belongs on a shelf in the kitchen together with mirror, hand lotion, comb and lipstick.

Teachers Club Sees Slides of Isle Royale

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Thorpe showed slides of their trip to Isle Royal National Park when Teachers Exchange Club met Thursday evening in the Oneida road home of Mr. and Mrs. Merill Stephens.

Among the guests were the families of James Hull, Norris Smith, Theodore Fouble, and Bert Crelley. Other guests were Elmer Thorpe, John Borsvold, Linn Kennaday, Wilson Roback, Floyd Walker and Ralph Gardner.

Golf Tourney Held by Amvets Leagues

AMVETS Post 161 held a Scotch foursome golf game at Silver Lake Golf Club on Saturday with women's and men's leagues of the post. Later Mrs. Orval Russel hostessed the group in her Anders street home for a business meeting.

Mrs. Russel was named chairman for the membership dance which will be held Nov. 2 in K. of P. Hall.

Jolly Ten Meet

Jolly Ten Club met Wednesday evening at the Watkins Lake home of Mrs. Arnold Orr. She was assisted by Maxine M. Orr. Among the guests were Mrs. Delbert Dexter.

Give Child Benefit of Reasonable Doubt

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The other day in my city's Children's Court, the presiding judge called the case of an 11-year-old boy charged with smashing a parking meter.

However, when he asked the accusing officer to identify the child as the culprit, the man admitted he couldn't do it. Then the judge, reminding the youngster that he was on oath, asked him, "Did you smash this parking meter, son?"

"No," said the boy. "What happened was three big kids told me to watch out for cops while they did something. When I asked what it was they were going to do, they tore my shirt. One of them hit me. So I went with them.

"They bunched up together at the curb, I heard glass breaking—and then that cop's squad car turned the corner. Next thing I knew, the big kids had run down the alley—and everybody was yelling I'd busted the meter."

★ ★ ★

To this claim of innocence, investigators added reports of good behavior at home and school. Dismissing the case for lack of evidence, the judge turned to me and said, "It is my policy to give children the benefit of any reasonable doubt of their guilt. This right is granted to adults—and I try to see that children get it, too."

EXCELLENT POLICY

It's an excellent policy, I think—and one that parents could profitably adopt.

★ ★ ★

Like the Children's Court, we are sometimes unable to prove a child's guilt of some misdeed. We just can't assemble convincing evidence that our lost thimble was taken by Ellen or the hall closet light left burning all night by Bill. We have no facts with which to challenge their denials of these actions.

Under these circumstances, the wise thing to do is dismiss the case—and do it as the judge did, clearly, definitely and decisively.

Sometimes, unlike him, we refuse Ellen or Bill the benefit of the "reasonable doubt"—and keep on nagging at them with hints that we think they did take our thimble and forget to turn out the hall closet light.

This suspiciousness is not calculated to get us truthfulness, even if we have been told a lie.

I wish you could have seen the face of the boy whose innocence had been deemed reasonable by the judge. First, relief flooded it. Then gratitude filled it. Then he began to cry.

Practice to Overcome This Handicap

Shyness Can Prevent Happiness

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Practically everyone is self-conscious to some degree and under some circumstances. Many folks suffer from shyness to such an extent that it affects their personalities and their happiness.

★ ★ ★

Because of this extreme consciousness of self and fear concerning what others may think of them, many of these persons withdraw from life. They avoid expanding their horizons. This certainly does not lead to happiness or to an interesting life.

It takes a lot of practice to overcome this handicap, and it is a handicap. If you are going to succeed you must take every opportunity to widen your business and social contacts.

You must practice meeting new people and talking with them as well as those you already know. You must accept invitations rather than make excuses.

★ ★ ★

A trick I often have given in this column consists of simply changing your mental viewpoint. Concentrate on others and what they are saying and thinking and feeling. Find out what their interests are. If you do this you soon will begin forgetting yourself, and once you do this you will have banished shyness.

Another trick has its humorous aspects. Once you realize that the other fellow is just as anxious about the impression he is making as you are, you have won.

It is really funny sometimes to watch a group of people, each one trying to impress the other and all uncertain and insecure. You often can observe this.

This viewpoint brings you the realization that those we meet are not really concentrating on us, what we have on or what we say. They are much more apt to be involved in thoughts of how they themselves appear and what they are saying.

In other words, if we would take ourselves much less seriously we would be much less self-conscious.

Many times the individual who seems the life of the party or who appears to be conceited is putting up a front to cover his or her shyness.

Folks often are misjudged as conceited when they are aloof only because of shyness. This is especially true of very young people.

★ ★ ★

If you would like to have my leaflet "How to Overcome Loneliness and Self-Consciousness" send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 59 to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Tomorrow: "First Aid for Circles, Puffs, Lines about Eyes."

MRS. ERNEST LOWELL GOOD

Betty Lou Wortman and Ernest Lowell Good were united in marriage Saturday in Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church. Mrs. June E. Wortman is the bride's mother, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Good.

Betty Lou Wortman Wed in Gown of White Taffeta

Fifty relatives and close friends witnessed the wedding Saturday at 1:30 p.m. of Betty Lou Wortman and Ernest Lowell Good. The ceremony was performed in Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church by the Rev. Dr. William H. Marbach and the Rev. Theodore Allebach.

★ ★ ★

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. June E. Wortman of Dwight avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Good of Cadillac avenue are the bridegroom's parents.

She wore a close-fitting Juliet cap accented with seed pearls which held a veil of pure French illusion. Her chapel bouquet was of white roses, feathered carnations and ivy.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Floyd Reynolds served as her sister's matron of honor. She was gowned in a waltz-length Monaco blue crystalette dress banded in matching velveteen. It was fashioned in princess style with a full skirt and an Italian neckline which plunged to a V in back. Her crown of Monaco blue was completed by a matching face veil. She carried a colonial arrangement of deep pink and white carnations.

OTHER ATTENDANTS

Bridesmaids Janet Turner of Buffalo, N.Y., and a sister of the bride, Jo Anne Wortman, were gowned in dresses like that of the honor attendant. They carried bouquets of light pink and white carnations.

★ ★ ★

Wayne Good served as his brother's best man while Dennis Beach and Gilbert Roberts seated the guests.

For a reception at Devon Gables Mrs. Wortman chose a street-length dress of pale aqua lace over taffeta and a miniature yellow tea rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace sheath over taffeta with a corsage of dusty pink minature roses.

★ ★ ★

The bride was graduated from Michigan State College where she is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he is a member of Phi Delta Chi fraternity.

Don't Expect Appreciation for All the Work You Do

Get Happiness From the Knowledge That You're Handling Job Well

By RUTH MILLETT

"He doesn't appreciate how hard I work," wives are always writing me about their husbands.

Maybe it's time somebody came right out and said, "Look, ladies, nobody ever fully appreciates how hard another person works."

Maybe if more women would accept that fact there would be fewer making themselves unhappy.

Appreciation is a nice thing to receive. But the only sure way of enjoying whatever work you have to do is to get pleasure out of the results.

If your whole pleasure in a job depends on some other person's appreciation of how hard it was, you're likely to come up shy on job satisfaction.

★ ★ ★

Some working women even carry this attitude of demaning appreciation for what they do.

LOOK TO THE BOSS

In this case it is the boss instead of the husband who is supposed to feel grateful for how hard they work.

★ ★ ★

The fact that he is paying for the work doesn't seem to make any difference.

It's human nature to want and to enjoy appreciation. But it's foolish to carry the need for appreciation so far that you can't get along without it.

Learn to get happiness out of the knowledge that you're doing a job to the best of your ability. Get satisfaction from the results of your efforts and you won't get to the place where you think "What's the use?"

MR. and MRS. GERALD T. MOORE

Married Saturday in First Assembly of God Church were Joelma Dean Dempsey and Gerald Thomas Moore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Dempsey, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bronnie Moore.

Joelma Dempsey Speaks Vows in Evening Service

Joelma Dean Dempsey and Gerald Thomas Moore were married Saturday evening in First Assembly of God Church. The Rev. Wesley Wibley performed the ceremony before 200 guests.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Dempsey of Third avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bronnie Moore of Walton boulevard.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The gown was fashioned with a fitted bodice, a bouffant skirt with ruffles and a detachable overskirt which extended into a chapel train.

Her headpiece was a pillbox of swirled net and seed pearls which secured a fingertip veil of French silk illusion. She carried carnations centered with a white orchid on a Bible.

Mrs. Ronald McNeal served as the matron of honor and Mrs. Glenn Vallance and Mrs. Bob Cone were the attendants. They were gowned alike in mint green taffeta dresses with nylon eyelet overskirts and cummerbunds. They wore mint green crowns and carried bouquets of carnations.

The brother of the bridegroom, Harold Moore, served as best man. Ushers were Glenn Vallance and James Dempsey, a brother of the bride.

For an 8 p.m. reception at the YWCA the bride's mother wore a silk print dress with Dior blue accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Moore chose a blue light wool dress with beige accessories and a sweetheart rose corsage.

★ ★ ★

Before leaving on a northern Michigan trip the new Mrs. Moore changed to a baby blue knit dress with navy accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple will live on Auburn avenue.

Mrs. Vann Hostess to Saybrook Group

Mrs. William Vann was hostess to Saybrook Group of First Congregational Church when they met for luncheon Friday in her South Shore drive home.

Assisting her were Mrs. George Vincette, Mrs. Emil Moessner and Mrs. Sidney Baer. Mrs. Stanley Smith Jr. was a guest of the group.

The barrel silhouette with greatest width through the center is not for the tall figure. Width at the top is wrap-over diagonal line slims.

Black fur on black fabric was a highlight of the Paris collections. Most coats are rounded or tapered and it is the tapered coat, not the rounded silhouette, which is most flattering for overweight figures.

Meeting Conducted by Colonial Group

Colonial Group of First Congregational Church met Friday for a luncheon in the Cherokee road home of Mrs. Percy Hunt. Mrs. Fred Voelker was the cohostess.

Mrs. Charles Coppersmith, Mrs. George Wasserberger, Mrs. George Sutton and Mrs. Philip Vieriech were the luncheon committee.

MR. and MRS. DANIEL D. BAILEY

Laura Rose Ruggles and Daniel Douglas Bailey were married Saturday evening in Clarkston Baptist Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Ruggles, and the Daniel J. Baileys are parents of the bridegroom.

Couple Wed in Clarkston

White gladioli and purple chrysanthemums banked the altar of Clarkston Baptist Church for the candlelight wedding ceremony of Laura Rose Ruggles and Daniel Douglas Bailey. The Rev. Walter Gibson performed the Saturday evening rite before 110 guests.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond M. Ruggles of Clarkston, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Bailey of Melrose avenue are the bridegroom's parents.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of white Italian silk shantung with a lace-and-sequin-accented Sabrina neckline. She carried white roses and orchid streamers on a white Bible, and her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crownette of stephanotis.

Nancy Turnbull was the honor attendant and Lorraine Rioux of Clarkston served as bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in ballerina-length white chiffon dresses with red cummerbunds. They wore crownettes of red carnations and white roses and carried colonial bouquets of white roses and red carnations.

★ ★ ★

Fred Wilson acted as best man and Arnold Larson, Robert Bowers and Larry Ruggles of Clarkston seated the guests.

For a reception held in the church parlors Mrs. Ruggles wore a blue wool dress with a pink and white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink sheath with black lace and a corsage of white and pink carnations.

Before leaving on a northern Michigan trip the new Mrs. Bailey changed to a deep beige wool jersey dress with chocolate brown accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live in Ypsilanti where both attend Eastern Michigan College. The bride is a member of Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority and Mr. Bailey is affiliated with Alpha Omega Delta fraternity.

Parents Protest Policy on Buses

Waterford Board Told Children Must Walk on Dangerous Roads

Parents in 11 different school areas in Waterford Township are circulating petitions protesting against the current school bus service for their children, it was reported last night.

★ ★ ★

Ralph Blair, representing the William Beaumont School area, was present at last night's Waterford Township Board meeting requesting that the board do something about walking facilities for the children.

Approximately 50 families are keeping their children from school until a solution can be reached for student safety in getting to and from school, Blair says.

He pointed out that children are compelled to walk on narrow South Hospital road, as there are practically no shoulders on either side.

★ ★ ★

Blair said, "It is not so bad now, but when it snows and the plows push the slush to the sides, the road will become even more dangerous to walk on."

NEW LEGISLATION

According to Blair, at least three half empty school buses pass up children walking to William Beaumont School each day.

★ ★ ★

The state used to pay for transportation of pupils living outside a one-mile radius from the school they attend, but last year the legislature passed a new law, changing the radius to 1½ miles.

The Waterford Township Board of Education has assumed the cost of transporting the children in the additional one-half-mile area, maintaining the same bus policy as in previous years.

Blair said that approximately 150 parents are planning to meet at Beaumont School at 6 p.m. Thursday, then proceed to the Board of Education meeting with signed petitions requesting action to alleviate the situation.

★ ★ ★

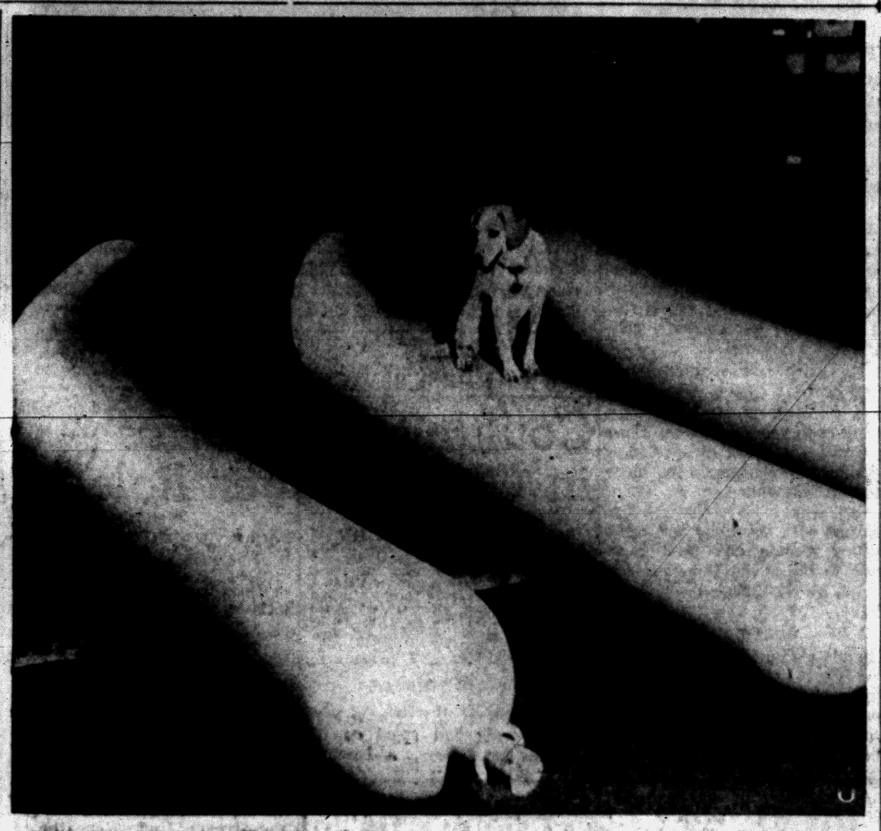

Other board business included the purchasing of a set of aerial views of Waterford Township for zoning purposes. Bids were opened for a fence to be built around the Waterford Cemetery, and all were rejected due to inadequate specifications.

TRUSTEE NAMED

New bids will be advertised specifing three alternates of the type of wire to be used.

★ ★ ★

John Coleman was appointed township trustee to replace Richard Lamberton who has moved to California. Coleman will accept the position pending his resignation as township constable.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT—These king-sized "hot dogs" are giving pooch something to think about in the U.S. Steel Corp. plant at McKeesport, Pa., where the frankfurter-shaped cylinders were built. They are curved to match the shapes of modern ship hulls for space-saving at sea. Actually, they contain highly-compressed oxygen, of vital importance in long undersea cruises of the Navy submarines.

2 Elections Held to Decide Issue

Charter Commissions Were Chosen for Both New Communities

SOUTHFIELD TOWNSHIP — Southfield Township residents went to the polls yesterday and voted, in two separate elections, to break up their township into three parts — the city of Southfield covering 26½ square miles in the southern end of the township; the village of Westwood taking in a 4½ square mile area; leaving four acres of Southfield as a township.

★ ★ ★

For the city of Southfield, there were 3,247 yes votes and 653 no votes.

For the village of Westwood, residents cast 1,612 votes in favor and 865 no votes.

For charter commission for the city of Southfield, nine positions were voted on. Township Supervisor Eugene Swem led by a narrow margin over Donald L. Swanson, 1,978 to 1,964. The seven others on the commission are Thomas M. Costello, Philip A. Maloney, Patrick G. Flannery, Robert F. Wuerfel, John J. Hollywood, J. Leo Walton and C. Hugh Dohany.

★ ★ ★

The five seats on the Westwood Charter Commission were won by Robert B. Reed, Marvin B. Cline, Edward M. Shurtleff, Hugh G. Allerton Jr. and Chester F. Guilmet.

Voting for the new city of Southfield was proportionately light. There are 18,122 registered voters in the combined area. There were 3,900 votes cast for the City of Southfield, as compared to 2,477 cast for the village of Westwood.

The new city of Southfield is located in the southern end of the township, exclusive of Franklin Village, Lathrup and Bingham Farms.

★ ★ ★

Boundaries of Westwood Village are from Greenfield to Evergreen between 13 Mile and 14 Mile roads, and from Evergreen to the eastern boundary of Bingham Farms Village, between 12½ and 14 Mile roads.

Farm Income Shows Increase

But Higher Profit May Be Limited to Bigger Government Payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The increase in farm income this year over last may be limited largely to bigger government payments under the soil bank program.

Preliminary figures compiled by the agriculture department indicate that 1957 net farm income may be about half billion dollars more than last year's $12,100,000,000. Net income is the amount left after paying production costs.

Payments to farmers for retiring land from surplus crops under the soil bank program are expected to total about 733 million dollars this year compared with about 250 millions last year.

Farm prices have been averaging about 3 per cent higher this year than last, but the volume of marketing has been smaller.

A department report issued yesterday said that net income for the first three quarters of this year ran at the annual rate of about $12,300,000,000 compared with $11,900,000,000 for the corresponding period last year.

White Lake Club Wins Plaque for Membership

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A plaque for membership was presented to the Ladies Auxiliary of Metropolitan Club, Spirit No. 78, White Lake Township Tuesday night. The award was made at the organization's national convention in Grand Rapids and presented to the group, meeting in the home of Mrs. Robert E. Larson by Mrs. Bessie Kerske of Dearborn, National president. The presentation came as a surprise to this auxiliary which is a comparatively new group formed a litle more than a year ago.

Rite Performed at St. Joseph

Maria Foehlinger Weds

LAKE ORION — A recent morning Nuptial Mass in St. Joseph Catholic Church united Marie Loraine Foehlinger of South Broadway street, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Anton Foehlinger of Ottersheim, Germany, and Charles Richard Walter. He is the son of Mrs. Gertrude Walter of 190 W. Flint St. and the late William Walter.

★ ★ ★

The bride's gown of lace over satin was of tailored princess style with a short chapel train. The neckline was scalloped and the sleeves tapered at the wrist.

A crown of sequins on satin secured her fingertip veil. She carried a white prayer book, with an orchid and stephanotis sprays and satin streamers.

Nela Foehlinger, sister of the bride, wore a nile green gown for her duties as bridesmaid. Ray Genereux, friend of the bride, gave her away.

William Walter Jr. was the best man for his brother. John Walter and John Kuzara were the ushers.

The reception was held at Veterans Hall at Oxford, with 150 in attendance.

Students in Class at Dunkel School

Though Unfinished, Building Houses 520 on Full-Day Session

FARMINGTON — The 520 students who moved into O. E. Dunkel Junior High School yesterday may be roughing it for a while, but they will be on full day sessions.

The new school was to have been ready for occupancy by Sept. 9. However some of the classrooms, the shop, homemaking room and gymnasium are not yet completed.

★ ★ ★

School officials decided last week to move students into the classrooms that can be used and hope for early completion of other rooms.

The general contractors have given no definite indication when work in the classrooms will be completed.

Since the start of the school term, Dunkel Junior High students have been crowding Farmington Junior High School, causing double sessions there. Farmington Junior High also has gone on full day sessions.

Set Home Groups Rally Day

The Home Demonstration groups of the Holly and Davisburg districts will hold their annual Rally Day on Wednesday at First Baptist Church, Holly.

Registration is scheduled for from 9:30 to 10 a.m.

A potluck luncheon will be served at noon, with each person bringing their own table service, dish to pass and rolls.

Each group has been asked to enter an exhibit and a prize is being offered to the club with the largest representation.

Speaker of the day will be Donna Ackerman of Smith-Bridgeman Co. of Flint. Her topic, "Fashions and Grooming."

H. W. Andersons of Almont Mark Golden Wedding

ALMONT — Over 100 relatives and friends attended the Sunday open house reception marking the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Anderson at their home on South Main street here.

★ ★ ★

Harold William Anderson of Simcoe, Ont., and Lottie Mae Pilkey of Orillia, Ont., were married seven were present, including Mrs. Sept. 4, 1907, in the Orillia Presbyterian Church by the Rev. R. N. Grant.

They lived in Orillia for a short time, later going to Manitoba, Canada, and to Detroit, before coming to Almont in 1920. They have resided here for the past 37 years.

Mrs. Paul Blumerick and Mrs. Charlotte Betker of Imlay City assisted at the tea table. Members of the OES and the Home Study Club helped to serve.

★ ★ ★

The Andersons have one daughter, Mrs. William (Evelyn) Hannah of Sarnia, Ont., one son, George of Oxbow Lake, three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

U. S. Milk Marketing Order OK'd in Iowa

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Agriculture Department announces that a federal milk marketing order for north central Iowa will go into effect Oct. 1 following approval by producers in the area.

Pricing provisions do not become effective until Nov. 1.

The law requires approval by 75 per cent of the producers who vote. The percentage of approval was 75.3.

Village Artists to Start Classes at Imlay City

IMLAY CITY — The Village Artists will begin their fall class under the direction of Mrs. Donald Putnam tomorrow from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in the home economics room of the Imlay City High School.

Any one interested may contact Mrs. Putnam for further information, phone Randolph 4-5035.

Blacktop Road on 50-50 Basis

Independence Board and County Enter Plan to Resurface

INDEPENDENCE TOWNSHIP—The Independence Township Board, at its regular session, received communication from Oakland County Road Commission on blacktopping Waldon road from the Clarkston limits to Almond Lane. Supervisor Duane Hursfall and Clerk Harold Doebler were authorized to sign the agreement specifying the work would be done on a 50-50 basis between township and county.

Fire Chief Don Beach gave a progress report on repair work at No. 1 Fire Station. He announced the Fire Department would take part in the Fire Prevention Week Parade to be held in Pontiac in October.

A petition for street lighting in Pelston Heights Subdivision was received by the Board. Three bids were received on the township road truck. The Oakland County Road Commission had the high bid of $950, and it was voted to accept the bid.

Two petitions for rezoning from Agriculture Sections 1 and 2 were rejected. It was voted to advertise for bids to repair the cemetery office roof and replace the chimney.

★ ★ ★

The board also voted to relieve Carl Anthony of the superintendency of Lake View Cemetery, effective Sept. 30., in response to his expressed desire to retire, as soon as possible.

It was decided to appoint John Skarritt as acting and working superintendent, effective Oct. 1.

The Library Committee was authorized to make necessary repairs to plumbing in the Independence Township Library building.

It was announced that Supervisor Hursfall and Herbert Baines would attend the Board of Review being held in Lansing Sept. 17-18.

Reception Fetes Newlyweds at Almont

ALMONT — Three hundred friends and relatives attended a Sunday open house honoring newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Campbell, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Kelley, in Almont.

★ ★ ★

Attended by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Campbell, Sherrie and Gerald were married at the Methodist church in Angola, Ind., Aug. 24.

After a wedding trip, Gerald returned to his studies at Port Huron Jr. College.

The new Mrs. Campbell is continuing her work with doctors in Almont.

Population of the Union of South Africa is now 14,167,000.

Farmers From 15 Nations Meet for Plowing Title

PEEBLES, Ohio (AP)—The biggest sod-busting contest in the world got under way today with the staccato fanfare of tractor exhausts.

A rain-softened, 2,500-acre tract near this Adams County village is the area. On it are pitted the best farmers in the United States and 14 other nations.

★ ★ ★

Officially called the 1957 World's Conservation and Plowing Contest, the event also is being drummed as the "World's Fair of Agriculture."

By its close Friday evening, sponsors of the event predict total attendance will hit 250,000.

This is America's first time to host the five-year-old event, which started in Canada in 1953.

★ ★ ★

Tractors are supplying all the horsepower and scores of arm machinery manufacturers are exhibiting their wares in an effort to convince farmers to become even more mechanized.

Together with other commercial, educational and conservation displays, the exhibits cover more than 100 acres.

★ ★ ★

After the Ohio state contests today will be the national contests tomorrow and the world contests Thursday and Friday.

So far America has yet to win a world title.

Orion DeMolay Chapter Will Receive Charter

LAKE ORION—The Lake Orion Chapter of the DeMolay will receive its charter from Harold Koch, supreme deputy of Michigan, Sept. 23.

★ ★ ★

The meeting at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Hall will also be a public installation of the chapters officers. To be installed are Carl Baber, master counsellor; Douglas Black, senior counsellor; and Alfred Kochonowski, junior counsellor.

Refreshments will be served by the Lake Orion DeMolay Mother's Circle.

MR. AND MRS. EDWIN GOIT

TO MARK 50 YEARS—Open house will be held Saturday, Sept. 28, honoring the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Goit, at their home at 1395 Hospital Rd., Four Towns. The couple, residents of Oakland County most of their lives, are the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Terreault of Pontiac, and two sons, Robert of Milford and William Goit of Berkley. They have 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

Farm Researchers Tackle Honey, Carrots, Prunes

WASHINGTON (INS)—Farm researchers are seeking economical ways to produce three crops that are important money-makers to many farmers—honey, carrots and prunes.

Agriculture department scientists are tackling one problem that baffled producers for years—how to extract honey from combs cheaply. They think they've found an answer in a machine that automatically changes speed while it extracts the honey.

The operator loads this machine with uncapped combs, turns it on and forgets it. The machine goes through four speed cycles, similar to an automatic washing machine, and provides quick, efficient extraction.

The researchers are also trying to find a quick way to uncap honeycombs. One new machine that uses two sets of toothed aluminum rollers is very efficient, but there's a hitch in it: it doesn't conserve the capping wax, which is worth about 60 cents a pound.

Another development is mechanical handling of large hives—tipping them horizontally for easy inspection. Some of the models use fork-lifts mounted on trucks; others are on tricycle frames or garden tractors. Power-operation causes less alarm among the bees than simple hand examination of the hives.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the agriculture department has granted funds to the University of Idaho for research in breeding sturdy new types of carrots.

The money will go to develop new hybrid species of carrots with higher yields, better quality and greater uniformity.

The Idaho fruit research station at Parma is also going to study another problem — what turns some prunes brown near the pit about the time they reach the market.

The answer would help greatly in finding a preventive and thereby making prunes more popular. The Idaho researchers believe they can learn the secret by analyzing microscopic amounts of chemicals found in the prunes.

U. S. Must Name Spy Trial Witnesses

NEW YORK (AP) — The government has been ordered to hand over to counsel for Rudolf I. Abel, alleged Russian spy, a list of witnesses who will be called to testify against him at his trial.

★ ★ ★

Federal Judge Mortimer W. Byers in Brooklyn ordered yesterday that the defense be given the list next Thursday. He stipulated that the address of Reino Hayhanen, a former member of a Russian spy ring, he kept secret from Abel.

★ ★ ★

James B. Donovan, Abel's court-appointed lawyer, is to get the address in confidence. Hayhanen was named as a coconspirator in the indictment and is slated to be the government's chief witness.

★ ★ ★

Abel's trial was advanced four days to Sept. 26. On that date, Byers is to rule on whether Donovan will get a bill of particulars detailing the charges in the three-count indictment.

Abel was indicted Aug. 7 and charged with collecting and transmitting atomic and defense secrets to the Soviet Union. If convicted, he could face a death penalty.

★ ★ ★

In another spy case, in U. S. District Court in Manhattan yesterday, counsel for Mrs. Myra Soble, confessed Soviet spy, filed a motion to reduce a 5½-year sentence imposed on her Aug. 9.

Stars Aghast at News

Couldn't See Morros in Cloak-Dagger Role

The most intriguing spy story of recent times is that of bald, pudgy Boris Morros, 62, one-time Hollywood musical director who spent 12 years as a U.S. counterspy. His movieland past, however, is little known. In two columns starting today Bob Thomas writes about Hollywood's lively recollections of Morros' lighthearted days in filmland.

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hearing that Boris Morros had spied on the Russians for 12 years and helped crack a spy ring, a former Hollywood associate of his remarked:

"At first I couldn't believe it. Boris a spy! Impossible! But then I realized it could be. Boris could charm anyone — even the Russians."

Said another: "Boris as a cloak-and-dagger man? It's very bad casting. I worked closely with him for years and never thought of him as anything but an affable extrovert. In all those years, I never once heard him discuss politics."

This sampling gives you an indication of the shock with which Hollywood received the revelation of Morros as an American spy. For he was a memorable character in a town where characters are a dime a dozen.

Nearly everyone I talked to remembered the Rosary.

"It was a string of beads he kept in his desk," said a publicity man. "He was always bringing it out and whirling it around. If you asked—and even if you didn't—he'd tell you that Rasputin gave it to him.

"No one really believed it, any more than we believd his stories that he played fiddle for the Czar. But Boris is such a fantastic character that it could have happened."

★ ★ ★

Another co-worker testified to Morros' shrewdness:

"He was a great improvisor. He could give you dozens of ideas on the spur of the moment. They might have been borrowed from who knows where. But they were generally exciting ideas."

Only one studio official ever got an indication of Morros' connection with the Russians. He was invited to a wartime party at the Russian consulate. Present were various town screwballs and others who were to give unfriendly testimony to Congressional committees.

Present, too, was chubby, smiling Boris Morros, sipping vodka and slapping the backs of the Russians, who had no notion that he was working for the U.S. government.

He did not compose and conduct hundreds of movie scores, as he also declares. His only big studio job was as head of Paramount's music department, a supervisory post.

★ ★ ★

He came to Paramount Studios in 1935, hoping to become a producer. But he was placed in command of the music department.

"His job was to find the right people for the right job — composers, orchestrators, etc.," recalled a fellow worker. "He never composed or conducted, though often he would stand behind the conductor and keep the beat.

At the end of his three-year contract in 1938, Morros left Paramount to fulfill his ambition to produce. He induced William LeBaron, then Paramount Studio boss, to join him.

Morros produced "Flying Deuces" with Laurel and Hardy, "Second Chorus" with Fred Astaire, the all-star "Tales of Manhattan" and the longhair "Carnegie Hall." None prospered at the box office.

It was ironic that his greatest — and most successful production was his 12-year deception of the wily Russians, a real-life performance more fantastic than anything he could produce on the screen.

Tomorrow: How Morros himself was duped by a wily agent.

Police Probing Actress' Death

Officers Turning to Past for Clue in Strangling of One-Time Star

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Officers probing the strangulation of one-time screen star Rhea (Ginger) Mitchell have indicated they will turn to the 63-year-old spinster's past for some clue to her slayer.

Sought for questioning was a balding, middle-aged man reported to have kept company recently with her.

★ ★ ★

Miss Mitchell, who played opposite William S. Hart, Tom Mix and other Western heroes in silent pictures, was found dead yesterday in a large apartment house, the second she had managed in the past year.

Police in Seattle, Wash., were asked to question Miss Mitchell's Mrs. John Benson.

★ ★ ★

Homicide investigators said they also plan to talk with the woman's friends and contemporaries from her film successes of the mid-1920s, including actresses Anna Q. Nilsson and May McAvoy.

The body was found in a tiny dressing room of Miss Mitchell's apartment. A belt from her blue silk dressing gown was knotted tightly about her throat.

★ ★ ★

There were slight scratches on her throat and her left eye was slightly discolored, but officers said there was no other evidence of a struggle and none that the red-haired former actress had been sexually attacked.

They said robbery may have been the motive for the slaying.

Beck Trial Date on Tax Charges Set for Jan. 6

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—Trial of Dave Beck, president of the Teamsters Union, on income tax evasion charges will be held next Jan. 6 in the U.S. District Court here. The date was set yesterday.

Beck has pleaded innocent to nine counts of evading $240,000 in income taxes for the years 1950-53.

Trial of his son Dave Jr. and four business associates charged with conspiracy to help Beck evade his taxes will also be held Jan. 6, unless motions for separate trials are granted.

The four men charged along with Beck Jr. with conspiracy are Fred Verschueren Sr., Seattle, West Coast auditor for the Teamsters; Norman Gessert, Seattle, a relative of Beck and a Teamster organizer; Nathan Shefferman, Chicago labor relations consultant; and Shefferman's son Shelton.

★ ★ ★

Federal Judge George H. Boldt has set Oct. 18 as the date for the hearings of any motions or challenges.

Ike Will Meet Budget Director

Brundage Brings Aide, Stans, for Discussion of Federal Spending

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Eisenhower meets with Budget Director Percival Brundage at the vacation White House today for a discussion of federal spending in the year starting next July 1.

Brundage is accompanied from Washington by his new deputy Maurice H. Stans, who was sworn in yesterday after resigning as deputy postmaster general.

★ ★ ★

Brundage and Stans also brought along a preliminary report on government spending and revenue for the current fiscal year, which began last July 1. That report is scheduled to be made public in Washington Oct. 1.

The President's vacation headquarters announced late yesterday he will make two speeches instead of one when he interrupts his Newport stay for a single day next Monday for a Washington visit.

★ ★ ★

The Washington speech scheduled previously will be at a small business conference Sept. 23, a meeting the President called several weeks ago.

In advance of that talk Eisenhower will speak informally at the annual meeting of the Board of Governors of the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund and the International Finance Corp.

He also plans to attend a White House meeting of the National Security Council before flying back to Newport late in the afternoon.

Michigan Moves on Bad Drivers

20 Counties Organize Rules of Safety Schools for Traffic Violators

LANSING — Michigan was moving today to the threshhold of a pioneering step in traffic safety—creation of rehabilitation schools in the counties for bad drivers.

Under a permissive law enacted last spring, about 20 counties are expected to set up the newly authorized schools shortly after the statute becomes effective Sept. 27.

Malcolm D. Whale, a state department of public instruction official, said he thought the movement would spread until it touched most of the state's 83 counties.

Rules governing the new units, to be officially known as driver safety schools, were given a public hearing yesterday. After review by the attorney general and signing by the governor, they will become effective, probably at about the same time as the law.

Judges will furnish most of the students from those who come before them in traffic cases.

A motorist convicted for the second time within a year of a moving traffic violation may be referred to a school, and his sentence stayed pending completion of the course.

The secretary of state, who administers the state driver licensing law and keeps records on serious violations, also may refer students.

★ ★ ★

Under the proposed rules, the courses must consist of at least eight hours of instruction by a state certified driver education instructor. A maximum fee of $10 may be charged, and classes must be limited to an enrollment of 30.

Nashville Pupils Asked to Return

Safety Assured Under City Law Enforcement and U. S. Injunction

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — School officials told parents to return their children to six newly integrated schools today with assurance of their safety under the double protection of local law enforcement and a federal court injunction.

Federal Judge William E. Miller issued the injunction yesterday after a four-hour hearing at which evidence linking 10 defendants to last week's segregationist disturbances was presented.

The order forbids John Kasper and nine others or anyone acting in concert with them from interfering with court-ordered desegregation of Nashville's first grades.

★ ★ ★

It continues in force the strong provisions of a restraining order issued last Thursday at the request of city officials.

Two of the original 12 defendants, however, were dropped from the list yesterday, one for lack of evidence and one for lack of notice.

Defense lawyers strongly argued that specific terms forbidding boycott or picketing should not be included in the injunction, because this would violate rights of freedom of speech.

Miller said these activities may be permitted under normal circumstances, but the court had a right to forbid them in the context of violence which accompanied admission of 15 Negro first-graders to five Nashville schools last Monday.

★ ★ ★

Violence already had subsided under hardboiled local police action before the federal injunction was issued last week.

The city schools reopened today after a long weekend holiday.

Queen Seeking to Curb Inflation in Netherlands

THE HAGUE (AP)—Queen Juliana of the Netherlands urged the nation today to cooperate in curbing expenditures to restore the balance in the national economy.

"The equilibrium in our national economy has been disturbed," the Queen said in an unusually grave speech from the throne.

★ ★ ★

To check the inflationary trend, the government proposed increased purchase taxes on luxury items, such as cars, television sets and tobacco, and a small increase in property taxes.

★ ★ ★

The 1958 budget shows a deficit of about 160 million dollars. Total expenditures will be about 210 million dollars as compared with this year's 217 million.

The Trobriand Islands are about 150 miles northeast of the tip of Papuan New Guinea, with Kiriwana being largest in the group.

Denies Undermining State Tax Study

LANSING (AP) — A spokesman for the Michigan Manufacturers' Assn. says the organization is not trying to undermine a study of the state's tax structure, and that some of its members are taking part in it.

★ ★ ★

John C. McCurry, assn. general manager, replied to a letter from Rep. Adrian De Boom (R-Owosso), vice chairman of the special House committee set up for the tax inquiry.

De Boom complained that a Lansing lobbyist for the MMA distributed a letter indicating a lack of confidence" in the legislative group, headed by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton).

McCurry observed that Conlin had named five officials of MMA member companies to the Citizens' Advisory Committee working with the legislators.

★ ★ ★

McCurry said there was little doubt that the state's tax structure needed rewriting, and that prompt action is "imperative."

Red Chinese Admitting Anti-Communist Riots

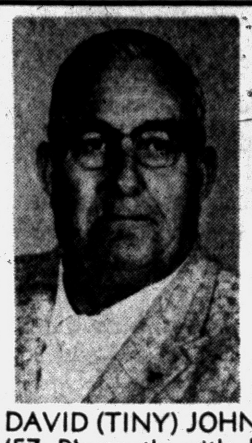

HONG KONG (AP)—Red China's official news agency has admitted that violent anti-Communist rioting erupted last July in the South China province of Kwangtung.

A New China News Agency dispatch from Canton said five Communist officials and an unspecified number of other persons were killed in the outbreak July 12. It said "24 murderers who took part in the riot were virtually eliminated the same day."

Alarm Clock in Auto Proves Fake Bomb

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bradley Coyle, 32, saw a strange looking box near his car yesterday and heard strange noises when he kicked it. He stopped looking when he found inside the handless face and works of an alarm clock, two containers and an electric switch. He called police.

But a Ft. Knox detonation expert, after investigation, said it takes more than putty, soot, wires and an old alarm clock to cause an explosion.

Bill Kelly, ever-optimistic coach of the Central Michigan College Chippewas, saw his 1957 grid bubble burst in a hurry last Saturday night in Saginaw.

The Chips lost to Bradley, 14-7, and ended a winning streak which started 15 games when Central still had the nickname of "Podoley U."

Most everyone, especially around Mt. Pleasant, thought this team would be better balanced, would win its victories in a cake walk.

In fact the game with Hillsdale in two weeks was figured to be the battle between two unbeaten little giants.

★ ★ ★

The vaunted Chip running attack headed by Pontiac's Walt Beach gained most of its yardage laterally and to the rear.

Phil Officer, another Pontiac player, saw a couple minutes of action and went out with an injured leg.

Ed Revis got into the game at fullback in the final quarter and actually did the best of the trio of ex-Chiefs, but the cause was already lost.

"What happened to your running attack?" someone asked Kelly after the game. "It ran out of gas getting here I think," he answered.

Cranbrook football coach Fred Campbell is hoping the recent stay of the Detroit Lions will bear some fruit a few years from now.

The last visit of the Lions about 20 years ago did. George "Potsy" Clark who was then coach, was quite impressed with Cranbrook. "This is where I would like to send my boy," he said after a stay of several years.

It now seems that Potsy's nephew, Stuart Clark is a member of the Crane team. He is a senior transfer from Champaign, Ill., and Campbell is really high on the lad.

Transfer rules will not permit him to play Friday night at Birmingham, but he will play in the remainder of the schedule against other preparatory schools.

POTSY'S KIN — Relation to Potsy Clark, former Detroit Lions' coach is Stuart Clark, now a member of the Cranbrook football squad. Young Clark transferred from Champaign, Ill., to the school where his uncle, Potsy, once trained the Lions. He is a senior halfback.

Alabama Nine Wins 2 Tilts, National Title

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — Birmingham, Ala., posted a pair of uphill victories yesterday in winning the national championship of the American Amateur Baseball Congress. It edged Knoxville, Tenn., 5-4, and defeated Aberdeen, S.D. 3-1.

Birmingham was undefeated in the four-team round robin national finals.

★ ★ ★

Wyandotte, Mich., was runner-up with a 14-7 triumph over Knoxville. The victory gave the Michigan team the eastern division title in the tournament. Wyandotte and Knoxville finished the eastern playoff last week in a tie and had agreed last night's final round game would determine the division championship.

Suggest Return Date for Cotton and Hart

NEW YORK (AP)—One good thriller deserves another so sharpshooting Sugar Hart of Philadelphia probably will clash again Oct. 28.

At least that was the date for the return suggested last night by matchmaker Teddy Brenner after Hart and Cotton fought to an action-packed 10round draw at St. Nicholas Arena.

★ ★ ★

Brenner, promoter as well as matchmaker at St. Nicks, said he also hoped to match Hart, 21, Philadelphia welterweight, and Vince Marinez, a ranking welter from Paterson, N.J.

Braves' Bats Check Talk of Foldup

National Loop's Leaders Boost Edge to 3 Tilts

Rattle 14 Hits in 5-1 Win Over Phils; Buhl Winning Hurler

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Base hits and Bob Buhl returned to the Milwaukee Braves' fold last night in time to silence, for the time being at least, talk of another September foldup.

The National League leaders pumped out 14 hits—one less than in their previous three games, all losses—in sinking the Philadelphia Phillies 5-1.

The bushy browed Buhl scored his first victory since Aug. 14 after one false start following a three-week bout with a sore pitching shoulder.

The victory added a half-game to the Braves' lead over the second place St. Louis Cards, who were idle. Their edge is three games.

★ ★ ★

Manager Fred Haney refused to read anything into the base hit total. The Braves as a team hit .368 last night compared with a team average of .215 during their previous 11 games, in which they won three times.

★ ★ ★

"The two big factors for us were, of course, the hits which have been practically non-existent," he said, "and the return of Buhl. He gives us another starting pitcher when we need one the most.

★ ★ ★

"With the exception of Warren Spahn our pitching hasn't been good. Sure, we weren't getting the hits, but the pitching was spotty, too. Buhl gives us a big lift."

Haney laughed off a suggestion that what he described as "a wee bit of a pep talk" before the game might have helped.

"It wasn't what I said, it's what they did,' he said.

★ ★ ★

Both Haney and Buhl agreed that Del Rice, 34, former Redbird, "led the Braves out of the wilderness."

★ ★ ★

The veteran catcher drove in two of the Braves' first three runs with his eighth home run and a double.

Milwaukee Can Top 2 Million Again Tonight

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Braves, attendance champions of the major leagues since they moved to Milwaukee from Boston in 1953, need 27,655 paid admissions in tonights game with New York to go over the two million mark for the fourth straight season.

★ ★ ★

If they don't reach the turnstile total tonight, they are sure to do so tomorrow night when the Giants also will provide the opposition.

★ ★ ★

Counting last night's turnout of 20,929 for their game with the Phillies, the Braves have drawn 1,972,345 paid admissions for 65 home dates. in 1954, when they set a National League record of 2,131,388, they drew 2,029,777 through 65 dates.

"We won't fumble away the game like we did last year." That was the comment Coach Dick Hoffheins of Wyandotte made when he looked back on the 39-7 score at the hands of Pontiac in his own back yard a year ago.

Most of the names which figured in that setback are now seniors on the Wyandotte eleven and are bitterly looking forward to avenging that humiliating defeat.

The Bears were not actually as bad as the score indicated. They proved this by going on to finish with a 6-3 season mark including victories over Lincoln Park, Highland Park, Monroe and Royal Oak, a conquerer of Pontiac.

"We fumbled eight times in that game, losing the ball five times, every one of which led to a Pontiac touchdown," said Hoffheins. "That broke our back in the first period," he added.

Two of the leading linemen in the Border Cities conference, Steve Stieler, center and linebacker, and Joe Carollo, a 215-pound tackle, are back to bolster the veteran Dot line.

Quarterback Gerry Noble, who engineered the lone touchdown on a pass play last year, has another year's experience to go with his veteran backfield which includes two speedy halfbacks, John Winn and Bill Jeffrey, and a big fullback, Dan Galeski.

The Chiefs went through a full game scrimmage last Saturday and the results were still far from what Coach Jesse MacLeay expected.

Guard Willie "The Wheel" Duncan drove through a couple of times to block a pair of punts, and the play of fullback Archie Brooks, end Mike Hardiman and George Palaian at tackle were the outstanding points.

The defensive backfield made a poor showing against high wobbly passes and as a result MacLeay indicated he would reshuffle the unit on defense.

Transfer Bob Manning displayed the speed which won him the Detroit dash title in track last spring when he scooted 45 yards for a touchdown, but did not flash the form of using his blockers as was expected of him.

★ ★ ★

Little Jim Kellar, a 145-pounder, and junior Larry Douglas alternated at right half and were impressive, but lacking polish.

A surprising job was turned in by quarterback Harrison Munson, 160-pound junior who replaced the ailing Dick Whitmer late in the scrimmage.

The Wyandotte game has become a traditional opener for Pontiac since 1952. The Chiefs have won four of five in the series, and all were high scoring affairs.

Game time at Wisner Stadium Friday night is 8 o'clock. Advance game tickets are on sale at the school.

Hoeft Faces Yanks Today

Tigers Set Sights on 3rd

NEW YORK (AP) — The Detroit Tigers today have the same won-lost record they had a year ago this date but they have a better-than-even chance to end the season two places higher in the American League standings.

With a 75-68 won-lost mark on Sept. 17 of last year, the Tigers were in fifth place where they remained until the end of the season.

Today with the same performance record the Tigers are only one game behind the third-place Boston Red Sox and everything points in Detroit's favor.

For one thing the Tigers are riding the crest of 12 victories in their last 15 starts. For another they topped the New York Yankees last season, hold a 6-5 edge over them at Briggs Stadium this year and trail by only one game, 5-4, as they open a two-game set against the first-place Bombers here today.

In addition, the Red Sox have several games with the Yanks who are struggling to clinch the pennant.

On the debit side, however, is the possibility of New York wrapping up the race sooner than expected.

"If New York clinches the pennant, they might rest their regulars in the Boston games and that would impair our chances," pointed out Detroit manager Jack Tighe.

"But right now, we are in a good position to make up that one game we need and a third-place finish would be great after our slow start," he added.

Tighe picked Billy Hoeft to start today against New York's Bobby Shantz.

Tulane-Army Tilt Is Moved East

NEW ORLEANS (INS) — Army Secretary Wilbur M. Brucker's announcement that the Tulane-Army football game would be transferred from New Orleans to West Point this fall because of Louisiana's segregation laws drew the wrath today of Rep. F. Edward Hebert (D-La.).

Hebert said he was "shocked" by Brucker's telegram to him yesterday and accused the army of "becoming part of the vicious propaganda drive of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People."

Tulane officials, disappointed that the game would not be played at Tulane Stadium, issued a statement similar to Brucker's telegram to Hebert.

Brucker said the change has been agreed upon by both schools "after further study of Louisiana's segregation laws showed that segregated seating arrangements would have to be observed by West Point."

Lemon Gets Hopeful Report on Sore Arm

WASHINGTON (AP)—A doctor has told Bob Lemon his pitching arm should be okay by spring, and that he should be able to pitch baseball for four or five more years.

Hank Greenberg, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, said he got that report in a phone call to Lemon at his home in Long Beach, Calif. The veteran right-hander, who will be 37 next Sunday, went home last month after X-rays showed bone chips in his elbow.

Woman Hits 300 on Grand Rapids Alley

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Mrs. Laverne E. (Marge) Davison held a Grand Rapids sports record today as the city's first woman to bowl a perfect game in league competition.

She posted a 300 game last night while competing as a member of the Fan Majors team. It came as the second game of a series in which also scored 159 and 174 for a 633 total.

Mrs. Davison, mother of four children, has been bowling for the past 20 years.

Yanks Back Kubek for Rookie Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Now that the New York Yankees privately figure they have the American League pennant safely tucked away, they are turning their attentions to other matters.

★ ★ ★

One of the most important is the race for the AL rookie of the year. Their man, of course, is Tony Kubek, 20, infielder-outfielder, jack-of-all-trades. To a man, they'll be mighty disappointed if Kubek doesn't get the award.

"You might say his long-range prospects for continual employment around here appear to me at present to be highly favorable," Manager Casey Stengel said today, emphasizing his perfect grammar with a wink.

★ ★ ★

Young Kubek, in the past five games, has started in four different positions. He has become, perhaps, the handiest Yank of them all, and his .294 batting average doesn't tend to belittle him, either.

★ ★ ★

In addition to his versatility—a prerequisite to stay in Stengel's favor—Kubek can:

1. Hit to all fields.
2. Bunt.
3. Run.
4. Throw.

He claims his best position is shortstop, but Stengel pays no heed. The professor simply looks over his lineup each day, decides who is crippled at the moment and inserts 'Kubek.

★ ★ ★

"The kid starts after the ball like Joe DiMaggio used to," said Stengel in admiration. "He starts when the ball is his and sometimes you think he's not going to catch it. But he gets to it just like DiMag."

The only infield spot Kubek has not played is first base. He hasn't played right field simply because the situation where he would be needed there has not come up.

★ ★ ★

"I wouldn't worry about putting him on first," commented Stengel. "I think he could handle the job."

As for his hitting, his one drawback is that he has not shown much power. Big and strong though he is, Tony has hit three home runs.

★ ★ ★

Stengel even has an explanation for that.

"He's just learning to pull the ball," pointed out the Bomber pilot. "He'll hit a lot more homers next year."

Ol' Sammy Grabs Dallas Title, $8,000

DALLAS (AP) — Sam Snead, who says he wants to win a tournament a year until he's 50 then retire, took the one for 1957 yesterday with the widest margin anywhere since 1955—10 strokes in the $40,000 Dallas Open.

And the colorful old slammer also said he was going to win the National Open—the only tournament that has eluded him in his 21 years of campaigning—before he's 50.

Admitting to 45 yesterday after he had wound up with a three-under-par 68 for a 264 total over 72 holes and had grabbed the $8,000 first money, Snead said he figured he still had enough good golf to finally snare the National Open. "Putting like I have in this tournament I could win it every time," he said.

Snead was winning his 96th tournament according to the PGA record book when he took the Dallas Open with a couple of world record ties on the way. He previously had won the Round Robin at Wykagyl, N. Y., but this isn't counted in the PGA standings.

"I have won over a hundred tournaments, he disputed. "The PGA isn't counting a flock of tournaments I have won over the years."

★ ★ ★

Anyway, Snead is the greatest tournament winner in golf history.

But he won't be trying for any more this year although there are two tournaments still ahead for the tour. Snead is going to Japan with Jimmie Demaret to play in the international matches in October.

Snead went into fourth place among the money-winners. He has participated in 12 of the 32 tournaments this year and has earned $28,260.83.

★ ★ ★

Sneads victory by 10 strokes was the longest lead of the year—the best previous was Ken Venturis five-stroke triumph at Milwaukee. The widest margin of which the PGA has a record is the 13 strokes Gene Littler won by at Las Vegas in 1955.

★ ★ ★

Three fellows charged out of the pack into a tie for second place, each winning $3,066.67. They were Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., who had a closing 66; Cary Middlecoff of Hollywood, Fla., who had a 69, and Bob Inman of Detroit, who had a 67. All three wound up at 274.

Cranes Lose Exhibition

Foreign Booters Win, 5-3

Cranbrook's soccer team took an international setback Sunday afternoon when a squad of foreign students attending area high schools whipped the Cranes 5-3 in an exhibition before an interested crowd. crowd.

The Cranes, who open the season Friday in Sarnia, Canada, got all of their scoring from captain John Studebacker, but it was a trio of foreign lads who put on a classy exhibition of booting.

Pete Jensen of Denmark, a student at Milford, scored three goals. Tom Pares of Spain, studying at Wyandotte Roosevelt, got one and Redford student Pelite Mayer from Portugal got the other.

"They are tremendous soccer players," said Crane coach Ben Snyder, "and they did well considering they had never played together."

Attempting to stimulate soccer activity in the area and to give foreign students a chance to play their national pastime, Snyder said the game would become an annual affair.

Eleven foregin students played in the game.

Japanese Head for Global Title

Turn U. S. 9's Mistakes Into Victory in Last Night's Contest

DETROIT (AP) — Before the other teams in the Global World Series realize that they cannot afford to make a mistake against Japan, the team from the Far East may walk off with its first series championship.

The United States team did last night what two other teams have done previously, make mistakes. And just as they have done in two previous contests, the Japanese turned the mistake into victory. This time the score was 3-2.

It was the third straight one-run victory for Japan and left the constructors as the only unbeaten team in the tournament that started with eight nations competing. Four are left. Mexico and Hawaii joined Colombia and Holland on the sidelines in the double-elimination affair.

★ ★ ★

Mexico suffered its second loss, 3-2 to Venezuela, and Hawaii bowed 11-6 to once-beaten Canada.

Charged With Drunken Driving

Layne Arrested in Detroit

DETROIT (INS)—Detroit Lions quarterback Bobby Layne was reported arrested at 2:10 a.m. today on a charge of drunken driving in Detroit.

Police said he refused to take a drunk-o-meter test at headquarters, but managed to walk the white line unerringly. Layne reminded them he accomplished this feat with five stitches in his right ankle.

Patrolmen who arrested him said he made a wide turn when pulling out of a parking space and drove over the center line for about two blocks with his lights out. They claimed he was driving "about five or 10 miles" over the 30 mile an hour limit.

Policeman Lemmie Pratt said the quarterback left his car in gear wehn he got out after being stopped, and it drifted back into the scout car parked behind.

The Lions star was released on $150 bond posted by teammate Jack Christensen. He will appear in traffic court today.

PGA, Tourney Sponsors Clash

Dispute Concerns Entry Fee Collection for 24 Major Events

DALLAS (AP) — Golf tournament sponsors and the PGA were at odds today in a dispute over which was to have the entry fees.

★ ★ ★

The PGA delivered an ultimatum yesterday to the International Golf Sponsors Assn., representing 24 major golf tournaments, that the tournaments could turn over the entry fees in exchange for elimination of the $2.00 service charge or not be on the tour.

Roger Hagel of Phoenix, president of the golf sponsors association, said such a plan would hurt at least 16 tournaments and might cause some of the old and established tournaments to drop off the tour.

★ ★ ★

J. Edwin Carter, PGA bureau tournament manager, met with the sponsors association executive committee Sunday night then departed early yesterday for California, leaving the ultimatum behind. Carter had said the PGA needed the additional funds it would get from the entry fees for operation of its bureau "in doing a better job for the sponsors."

★ ★ ★

Hagel said his organization submitted a substitute plan which would retain the service charge but set the amount in accordance with the size of the purse. The sponsors told the PGA this would realize more money than for the PGA to have the entry fees.

Hoot Song Sets Record

DELAWARE, O. (INS) — Hoot Song has set a world two-heat record at the Grand Circuit harness racing meet at Delaware, O., by winning the first heat of the $9,300 filly stake for three-year-old trotters in 2:03-2/5 and the second dash in 2:03-3/5.

Basilio Becomes Forgotten Man

NEW YORK (INS) — It is supposed to take two to make a fight, but the requirement apparently has been waived for next Monday's Ray Robinson-Carmen Basilio middleweight title bout.

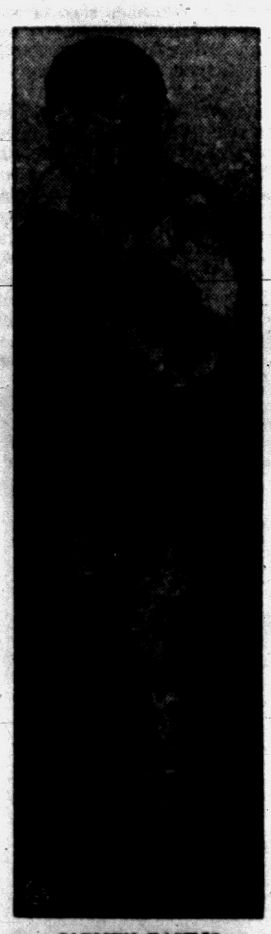

★ ★ ★

There has been some mention of Basilio's name in the advance publicity, to be sure, and Sugar Ray presumably will permit his challenger a modest introduction from the Yankee Stadium ring.

By and large, however, Basilio has been the forgotten man. King Sugar obviously considers him only a spear carrier in this lavish million-dollar production starring Ray Robinson, co-produced by Ray Robinson and directed by Ray Robinson.

The only thing not entirely Robinson's own is the script. Come Monday night, there is a nasty suspicion that Basilio may try to ad lib a few lines.

Basilio is working for less than half as much money—20 per cent to Robinson's 45—and it is as much his nature to be modest and retiring as it is Sugar Ray's to strut in the limelight.

CARMEN BASILIO

Carmen has come up the long, hard road, collecting more lumps than dollars on the way. He will be fighting for his biggest purse, and the future will be rosy if he can win Robinson's title.

But Robinson needs Basilio as much as Carmen needs Sugar Ray—perhaps more, since his end of the purse is so much greater.

Robinson has snubbed Basilio or patronized him in what seems a calculated campaign to humiliate the little erstwhile onion farmer. But he did not agree to the fight as a favor to Carmen.

★ ★ ★

There is no other fighter around who could help Robinson earn more than half a million dollars for a night's work—money that Sugar Ray apparently needs badly since he is being sued by one ex-manager and is on the arm for more than $100,000 to another.

A Basilio victory would be overwhelmingly popular with the fight crowd, a factor likely to influence predictions of the outcome. There has been a wide split among the prognosticators. It is a tough fight to figure.

The big question is which Robinson will be in the ring against Basilio—the one who fumbled and fuddled his way through the first, losing 15 rounds with Gene Fullmer or the one who put together a classic combination out of his memory book to kayo Fullmer when they met again.

Until the answer to that one is spelled out at Yankee Stadium next week, the vote here must be for Basilio.

NEW YORK—Charlie Cotton, 151, Toledo, Ohio, and Garnet Hart, 146¼, Philadelphia fought 10-round draw.

TIJUANA, Mexico — Auburn Copeland, 126, outpointed Roberto Garcia, 126, Mexico City, 10.

PARIS—Alphonse Halimi, 119½, Paris stopped Chic Brogan, 118¾, Scotland, 2.

LAS VEGAS — Neal Rivers, 160, Las Vegas, outpointed Milo Savage, 160, Salt Lake City, 10.

Lions Get Veteran Center

Gatski Will Report Today

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Lions have obtained veteran center Frank Gatski from the Cleveland Browns.

The Lions gave up an undisclosed draft choice yesterday for the 6-foot-3, 240-pound lineman.

The 35-year-old Gatski, one of the members of Coach Paul Brown's first pro football team of 1946, was Cleveland's regular center for nine year. He played college football for Marshall College, W. Va.

The Browns had announced at the beginning of the training season that Gatski had retired. But Gatski denied it and said he was holding out for a better contract. He said he had returned his contract unsigned to the Browns.

Lions coach George Wilson said he had talked with Gatski and that the lineman was to report at the Detroit training camp some time today.

The Lions also announced that waivers had been asked on Val Joe Walker.

Cards Buy Hurler

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Pitcher Frank Barnes, owner of the lowest ERA in the American Assn., was purchased yesterday from Omaha by the St. Louis Cardinals. Barnes, 29, Negro righthander, compiled a 2.41 ERA and had a 12-10 won-lost record at Omaha, a Cardinal farm club.

Moore, Anthony Complete Drills

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The major training grind comes to an end today for light heavyweight champion Archie Moore and challenger Tony Anthony, who meet for the title at the Olympic Auditorium Friday night.

★ ★ ★

Al Ailvani, training the dapper contender from New York, scheduled a final boxing tuneup today at their Santa Monica camp.

Moore, the ageless marvel from San Diego, continued to drill behind closed doors.

Archie also remained silent about his weight. But a source close to the champion said he weighed 180 pounds last Friday and apparently would have no trouble making the 175-pound limit by weigh-in time Friday.

Then check these facts that prove that FORD is still your best buy!

There hasn't been any question about Ford being the best buy throughout the '57 season—Ford's sales leadership has proved it! And now that the model-year end is here, Ford's an even better buy. To make room for our '58's, we Ford Dealers are offering you buys that have never been equaled. Just look at these savings:

You save when you buy Ford
When you compare prices, you'll find that model for model, right across the board, Ford cars are the lowest priced* of the low-price three. And as far as the medium-priced cars are concerned, you can buy a '57 Ford for hundreds of dollars less than a similarly equipped medium-price model.*

You save when you drive Ford
Ford showed dramatic proof of its low-cost operation in the only nationally recognized test of gasoline economy—the 1957 Mobilgas Economy Run. In a field of twelve different makes of cars, a Ford Six delivered more miles per gallon than any of them. Proof, indeed, that Ford delivers the kind of economy you want!

You save when you trade a Ford
Latest official auction figures on used cars show clearly that Ford commands a higher price than either of its two low-priced competitors. Ford is worth more when you buy and when you sell it, too!

Almont Thumb Favorite Again

South Central Race Wide Open

(This is the 7th of a series of eight articles by The Pontiac Press sports staff discussing the 1957 high school football picture in Oakland County and area leagues. Today's article discusses the South Central and Southern Thumb.)

By CHUCK ABAIR

It's unusual when every team in a league is considered capable of winning the championship in the same season but that appears to be just the case in the South Central Conference this year.

Defending champion Imlay City, Oxford, Ortonville, Millington and North Branch are expected to wage an all-out war before the SCC title is decided. Oxford and Millington have new coaches to make it that much more interesting.

Although Imlay went unbeaten last fall and has eight lettermen back, three of the five coaches have picked Oxford to take over the spotlight this year.

But they rate the others so close to the Wildcats that there can be no actual league favorite. The race is wide open.

New Wildcat skipper Dick Figg has built his team around eight lettermen headed by rugged fullback and linebacker John McCullum and linemen "Red" Newton, 230, and Lloyd Martin, 220. This trio looked impressive in a recent scrimmage against Class A Lapeer as did little newcomer Dick Duncan. A casualty of the drill was veteran guard Les Brown, who suffered a severe shoulder separation and may miss the entire season.

Ortonville has 10 lettermen back from the team that finished 3rd and could very well go all the way. The Blackhawks have some big linemen and could come up with the top backfield in the loop with such experienced ball-toters as Larry Follis, Dave Kolwasky, Wayne Dickenson and Gil Withey.

Imlay lost quarterback great Larry Dorow and 14 other experienced hands but still has some top performers paced by Don Coenen, a halfback, and center Skip Cameron. George Glinke feels certain he can improve on his 1-3 record at North Branch with most of his key boys back. "We lost five of our seven season games by only one touchdown last year," points out George.

★ ★ ★

Syd McLouth is taking over a winless team at Millington but with a few breaks he could very well go from the bottom to the top in one season. He has 17 lettermen, headed by 3-year ace Dick Zink, and some big newcomers to work with and expects to have a 200-pound line.

The situation is just the opposite in the Southern Thumb where Almont is hands-down favorite to take all the marbles. The Raiders had only a tie to mar an otherwise perfect record in 1956 and shared 1st place with New Haven.

Graduation was rough on New Haven, while Almont survived with 15 lettermen. That is expected to make the difference this fall.

Memphis and Dryden are figured the chief threats to domination by Almont. The latter school has five returning starters with a great deal hinging on how well big Curtis Slater can make the switch from end to fullback.

★ ★ ★

Armada will be the Thumb darkhorse with 13 lettermen. Scatback Jess Piancencia and Ed Thompson could make the Tigers roll. Brown City and Capac had winless seasons last fall and need considerable improvement to cause much trouble. The Green Devils have the best chance with 18 veterans, some good newcomers and a promising transfer from Sandusky.

(Wednesday: Eastern Michigan)

Lansing Dentist Sues Trucks for Balance of Loan

DETROIT (INS)—A Lansing, Mich., dentist today was seeking recovery of $4,295 in a law suit against pitcher Virgil Trucks of the Kansas City Athletics.

Dr. Robert M. Jones filed a charge in Wayne County, Mich. circuit court that he loaned Trucks $2,700 in 1947 on a promissory note carrying six per cent interest.

The dentist declared Trucks, a former Detroit Tigers' hurler, has paid only $25 "on account" in the past 10 years.

Dr. Jones seeks the principal of $2,700 plus $1,595 interest.

Seeded MacKay Out of Tennis Tourney

LOS ANGELES (AP)—First-round upsets eliminated two seeded players in the 31st annual Pacific Southwest tennis championships yesterday.

Ed Kauder, 30, math teacher in Beverly Hills, Calif., put down fifth-seeded Whitney Reed of Alameda, Calif., 8-6, 3-6, 6-2.

★ ★ ★

Ex-pro Bert Brown of Los Angles did likewise to Davis Cupper Barry MacKay, Dayton, Ohio, in another three-set stunner, 5-7, 6-2, 7-5. MacKay was seventh seeded.

Fielder, Kennedy Earn Berths

Wings Alter Forward Line

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Radically altered forward lines will mark the 1957-58 model of the Detroit Red Wings.

The absence of Ted Lindsay alone—a fixture since 1944—would be change enough. But it appears that in addition there will be at least three new faces up front.

Rookie Guy Fielder is claiming a spot at center. Twenty-two-year old Forbes Kennedy has been making an impression at left wing. And Len Lunde, another rookie, is looking very good in preseason drills.

"Kennedy is a natural left wing," said general manager Jack Adams of the former Chicago Black Hawk. "He has the aggressiveness we want and he's a better player than I had even hoped for. He's got himself a place on our club."

Kennedy came to the Wings in the trade last summer that sent Lindsay to the Hawks. He played center with Chicago and checked in as a candidate for that position when the camp opened here a week ago.

The Wings are deep in centers, however, with Alex Delvecchio, Norm Ullman and Dutch Reibel, holdover regulars from last year's team.

Kennedy will make his debut as a left wing tomorrow night when Detroit meets the Edmonton farm club again in the second game of the exhibition series. The Flyers held the National Hockey League champions to a 3-3 tie last Saturday.

In 68 games with the Black Hawks last season, Kennedy scored eight goals and assisted on 13 others. He started the season with an impressive rush but trailed off in effectiveness as the campaign progressed.

The Red Wings trimmed a dozen players from the squad as the club moved into the second week of training. All were amateurs from Canada and the United States. They were returned to the local clubs for whom they will play during the coming season.

McGuire Coaches Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank McGuire, coach of North Carolina's NCAA champions, today was named to direct the College All-Stars in the sixth annual basketball game against the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Assn., Oct. 19. McGuire's team will include 10 of last season's leading college seniors who have since been drafted by the NBA.

Power never faltered, all the way. Chevrolet's standard Thriftmaster 6 conquered the roughest terrain on Pikes Peak . . . ran perfectly, mile after mile!

Chassis parts withstood the pounding. Rough going on rocky grades showed how rugged the Chevrolet frame, springs, transmission and rear axle really are.

Body remained aligned, despite twisting. Sheet metal stayed tight and solid. That's evidence that the Chevy body will last through years of hard service.

PIKES PEAK CLIMB SHOWS WHY YOUR CHEVY WILL KEEP ON GOING...KEEP ON SAVING!

It takes a totally rugged truck to climb Pikes Peak to the top without using the road. Yet that's what a Chevrolet pickup did . . . kept on going up towering grades and through the thin air of altitudes up to 14,110 feet!

Starting low on the mountain, a production Chevrolet pickup with 4-wheel drive bulled its way upward through evergreen forests, over logs and stumps, to high, rocky terrain above timberline. In the thin air of cloud-high altitudes, the truck rolled and pitched over huge boulder piles, up breathtaking grades.

Every truck part took the worst the mountain had to offer. The standard Chevrolet Thriftmaster 6 gave flawless performance despite thin air. The chassis withstood miles of jarring impacts. This pickup actually achieved the top of Pikes Peak without using the road. See your Chevrolet dealer for a truck with the same brand of stamina!

'Trader' Parker Gets Morrall

Ex-MSU Player Among 4 Signed by Steeler Club

Buddy Also Gets Carl and Buzzell in Deal With Bears

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three seasons ago, 270-pound Maurice Bassett was the prize rookie of the world champion Cleveland Browns of the National Football League.

Bassett, 26, today was one of a score of players cut from NFL rosters as clubs sought to reach the 38-player limit through trades and cutoffs.

★ ★ ★

Pittsburgh was the leagues leading trader as new coach Buddy Parker shook up his team after a 37-10 beating last weekend by the Chicago Bears.

Parker got Earl Morrall, NFL sophomore who starred at Michigan State, from the San Francisco 49ers. The former Detroit coach gave up Marv Matuszak, Steeler defensive stalwart, and Pittsburgh's first choice at the next two draft meetings. San Francisco sent guard Mike Sandusky along with quarterback Morrall.

★ ★ ★

The Steelers also got halfback Harland Carl and linebacker Aubrey Rozzell from the Bears. Rozzell was bought for cash. The Steelers agreed to give up another future draft choice for Carl.

As part of the house cleaning, Parker cut six players, including quarterback Jack Scarbath. Scarbath, who had been sharing the first string quarterback slot, scored Pittsburg's lone touchdown against Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Coach Paul Brown traded as well as cut. He sent center Frank Gatski to the Detroit Lions for an undisclosed draft choice. Gatski, 35, was the teams regular center for nine years. Also released by the Browns were Paul Camera, halfback, Stanford, and end Thurlow Cooper, University of Maine.

---

Wally Fromhart, head football coach at University of Detroit, once turned down a baseball contract from the Baltimore Orioles of the Class AAA International League over 20 years ago.

Wulff Ineligible at MSU

Van Pelt Shows Zest

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Michigan's "old reliable," quarterback Jim Van Pelt, is back in action and showing his old zest.

In contrast with this encouraging word from the Wolverine camp was the announcement by MSU that halfback Jim Wulff will be scholastically ineligible to play football for the Spartans this fall.

Van Pelt, the veteran signal caller, has shaken off the effects of a leg injury which kept him away from contact work for a full week. Yesterday, for the first time since Sept. 7, Van Pelt was able to practice with the first team.

"He's got lots of catching up to do," said Coach Bennie Oosterbaan, "but he's still my first quarterback."

During Van Pelt's absence, sophomore Stan Noskin shot into prominence. His passing excelled and his all-round performance may have speeded up Van Pelt's recovery. Noskin proved without a doubt he'll be ready whenever Oosterbaan calls on him.

But the sophomore failed to unseat the veteran despite his deadly passing, a weapon which Van Pelt often handled ineffectively.

Backfield coach Bump Elliott summed up Van Pelt's worth in one word:

"Experience."

It is apparent that Michigan will start with Van Pelt, the quarterback who has won his spurs. It's almost apparent that Noskin will see lots of action in the first few games. With his golden arm, he may even take Van Pelt's job by mid-season—but not by the Southern California game 11 days from now.

Wulff, 5-9, 180-pound senior from Chicago, and two-time letter winner, has been declared scholastically ineligible for the fall season at MSU.

Wulff failed to get through a summer make up course in economics. The delay in receiving final word on his status came because the visiting professor who gave the course had returned to Australia and could not be reached for a conclusive check.

Wulff, particularly strong in the defense, ran with the first string briefly for a while last season. He currently was rated third at the position behind Walt Kowalczyk and Art Johnson.

Michigan State at one time had four letter men competing at the position. The depth there was further hurt this fall because Don Zysk, 5-11, 170-pound senior from Grand Haven, has been sidelined because of a shoulder separation received in the spring.

Zysk also was a two-time letter winner.

Age of Chivalry Reborn

20th-Century Knights Ride Chargers in U. S.

WASHINGTON — The Age of Chivalry shows signs of rebirth.

Twentieth-century knights are riding chargers and wielding lances at tournaments in Europe and the United States. The medieval sport of jousting almost died out after France's King Henry II took a fatal spill in 1559, but now it is regaining the popularity of yore, the National Geographic Society says.

JOUSTS HELD

Tilts have been held regularly in Virginia for more than a century. Tilting now is so popular in Maryland that fans are requesting space on the sports pages. Horsemen in other states, including Pennsylvania, North Carolina and West Virginia, have taken up the sport.

Modern tilting makes up in skill what it lacks in danger. Knights no longer try to unhorse each other. Iron covering has yielded to silk shirts and polo caps.

To an archaic cry—"Charge, Sir Knight!"—the modern cavalier gallops across a field and tries to spear a tiny ring with his lance. The knight collecting the most rings (some are only an inch in diameter) wins the right to crown his lady as queen of the tournament.

★ ★ ★

In Arezzo, Italy, gaily bedecked knights charge at a quintain—a medieval device that can fell a careless rider. The target is fixed on one end of a pivoting bar that swings around and whacks the lancer—unless he's quick.

Denmark, Yugoslavia and England have been holding tilts. This year the Dutch ransacked their country for 14th-century musical instruments to add an authentic touch to a tourney at Utrecht.

When knighthood was in flower, jousting provided training for the almost continuous warfare of the Middle Ages. In those days the knights played for keeps, with the winner collecting the loser's armor and horse.

Wheat Futures Steady on Board

CHICAGO (AP)—Wheat futures, with the exception of nearby September, steadied on the Board of Trade today after declining at the outset.

Liquidation of the September contract and heavy stop-loss orders were mainly responsible for early loses. Deliveries of September wheat at 501,011 bushels were considered liberal and this influenced trading.

★ ★ ★

Some professional buying was noted in the bread grain but not enough to offset the bearish trend in the September contract.

Corn was steady despite abundance of feedstuffs and a general lack of investment demand. Some professional buyers were credited for early fractional advances in the feed grain.

Near the end of the first hour new style wheat was ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, Sept $2.12⅜, corn was ⅜ to ¾ higher, Sept $1.23, oats were ⅛ lower to ⅛ higher, Sept. 65¼, rye was ⅛ to ⅜ lower, Sept. $1.29¼, soybeans were ¾ lower to ⅜ higher, Sept. $2.33⅜.

U. N. Assembly Session Opens

See Meetings Bringing to Head Thorny Issue of Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The U.N. General Assembly embarks today on crucial session expected to bring the thorny disarmament issue to a head.

★ ★ ★

The first session will be devoted mainly to election of a new Assembly president to succeed Thailand's Prince Wan Waithayakon and approval of Malaya's admission as the U. N.'s 82nd member.

Both the United States and Russia want disarmament high on this year's agenda.

Secretary of State Dulles is expected to focus on the issue in a 45-minute policy speech Thursday. So is Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

★ ★ ★

Diplomats looked to Syria to clarify its position in the Soviet orbit when the question of Russian penetration in the Middle East comes up for debate.

There was considerable speculation in U.N. corridors as to how the Communists' perennial demand for seating Red China would come up this year.

Laud Gas Dealer on 28-Year Service

The Pure Oil Co. last night paid tribute to its oldest dealer at the same location on the occasion of his retirement.

At a dinner at the Rotunda Inn, long time Pure employes, officials and friends of Joe Joiner lauded him for his 28 years with the firm.

He owned Joiner's Pure Oil Service at Orchard Lake and Telegraph Roads. Paying tribute were J. H. Askren, Detroit division manager; Charles Snyder, division manager emeritus; C. M. Wiget, district manager; and Richard Williams, Pontiac branch manager.

Joiner, 67, plans a trip to Arizona, but will continue to live in the Pontiac area. He was given a set of matched leather luggage by the firm.

Dinner Sparks Member Drive

Pontiac YMCA Goal Is 200 Volunteers by September 26

The Pontiac YMCA kicked off its membership drive at a luncheon meeting for volunteers yesterday.

James R. Jenkins, of 62 Wenonah Dr., is campaign chairman for this year's drive which will run until Sept. 26.

The goal is to add 200 more adult members to the Y's total 2,800 membership.

★ ★ ★

Principal speaker was Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, who said that YMCA members don't show up in juvenile court, which points to the value of the Y in the community.

Jenkins is heading up a group of 70 volunteers who will seek new members and renewals of membership.

★ ★ ★

He said the Y now has only 588 adult members — far too low a ratio. "There should be 25 per cent adults in our membership," he added.

Membership fees are $8 for boys or girls and from $30 to $100 for families, depending on the privileges desired.

Four Schools to Present Library Book Displays

AVONDALE — Supt. Raymond Baker, and Frances Ford, acting elementary librarian, have completed plans for four schools to stage a book fair.

A library book display will be held in the Elmwood, Stone, Auburn Heights and Stiles Schools. The latest books will be shown by several companies dealing in children's books.

Teachers and parents will have the opportunity to select the best books needed and to handle them. Read portions, talk with the representatives of the different companies.

Many teachers will scan the books for controlled vocabularies, interest levels, beauty of artwork, true literary value, stimulating continuity in all subjects, as well as pleasure reading.

Parents and PTA groups are urged to attend the exhibit at the schools their children attend. The following schedule will be used in the various schools.

ELMWOOD SCHOOL — Mr. George Shackelford, Principal, 1 p.m. Sept. 19.

STONE SCHOOL — Mrs. Doris Pugsley, Principal, 1 p.m. Sept. 20.

AUBURN HEIGHTS — Mr. Eva Yarger, Principal 1 p.m. Oct. 7

STILES SCHOOL — Mrs. Irma Nutter, Principal, 1 p.m. Oct. 8.

Stock Market Slightly Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market was mostly a little lower today. Trading, fairly brisk at the start, quickly quieted down.

Pivotal issues mainly displayed fractional declines although a few posted modest gains. As a group, steels displayed a little more activity than other sections.

★ ★ ★

Steels, oils, motors and metals headed downward. Utilities were mixed. Some radio-television shares scored modest gains.

Among opening blocks were 3,400 shares of Sears, Roebuck, up ½ at 27½ and 2,500 shares of Hertz, up ½ at 41⅞. The gain in Herts subsequently was shaved.

Other opening blocks included 2,000 shares of American Can, off ⅛ at 44⅛; 2,500 shares of Bethlehem Steel, off ⅛ at 44; and 1,800 shares of Borg-Warner, off ⅛ at 36⅜.

★ ★ ★

A block of 10,000 shares of J. I. Case 2nd preferred crossed the tape at 5½, unchanged.

2 Liquor License Holders Penalized

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has announced penalties handed out to two Pontiac area license holders at hearings held in Lincoln Park recently.

★ ★ ★

Stanley Kaminski, owner of the Cass Lake Tavern, 5001 Greer Rd., West Bloomfield Township, was fined $150 for selling to a minor last April.

Paul I. Spadafore, owner of the Spadafore Bros. Super market, 706 W. Huron St., was fined $150 and sentenced to have his license suspended for a period of seven days, for selling to a minor last March.

However, his suspension was waived, due to the appearance of the minor at the time of the violation.

"HEY! LET'S TALK THIS OVER" — It's time for a shot and judging from his expression Tick doesn't appear too happy about being "shot" with a needle as big as he is. The one-year-old Chihuahua is owned by Clarence R. McNaughton of McKinley Heights, Ohio.

Attacks 'Pirating' From Competitors

Mitchell Talks on Lack of Skilled Labor

NEW YORK (AP)—Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell said today that if industry spent half the money on manpower management that employers spend on "pirating" workers from competitors, shortages of trained workers would be much less acute.

★ ★ ★

Mitchell's remarks were in a speech prepared for delivery to the Commerce and Industry Assn. of New York. He discussed increasing need for skilled workers in private industry.

The demand for skilled workers has been "out-running" the supply in recent years, Mitchell said.

"The pinch gets tighter as the economy grows and as our national appetite for goods and services grows in billion-dollar gulps," he declared.

★ ★ ★

He criticized employers for policies he said "have excluded large segments of the work force from jobs or from on-the-job training and advancement on such artificial grounds as age, sex, race, religion or national origin."

By 1965, Mitchell said, the gross national product must increase by 40 per cent to 560 billion dollars. This increase, he said, will be needed to provide for a population that will exceed 193,000,000.

Ten million additional workers will be needed to achieve such an increase, Mitchell said, and they must be able to handle specialized and complex jobs.

Mitchell said young persons have lately shown a lack of interest in the craftsmen occupations —mechanics and machinists, tool makers and topflight production line workers.

Between 1951 and last year, he said, there was a drop of 28 per cent in the number of skilled craftsmen under 25 years of age.

State Serviceman Injured in Crash

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP)—A Marine helicopter instructor and his Navy student were injured in a crash of their helicopter yesterday.

★ ★ ★

The Pensacola Naval Air Station said the two were hurt when their craft crashed into trees while they were practicing landings at an auxiliary field near Pensacola.

They were identified as Marine 1st Lt. H. R. Seelye of Stanton, Mich., and Ensign A. H. Gamble of Templeton, Calif. Both were stationed at Ellyson Field, an auxiliary of NAS.

Neither was believed to be seriously injured.

★ ★ ★

Seelye is the son of Mrs. Bernice Rath, Lansing, Mich. Gamble is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora C. Gamble, Templeton.

Cause of the crash was not determined.

Secretary of State's Office to Shut Down

The Secretary of State's office in Pontiac will be closed from 5 p.m. tomorrow to 8:30 a.m. Thursday, branch manager Willis M. Brewer announced.

The office staff, he said, will be attending an educational session Wednesday in Flint.

The office will open half an hour earlier than usual Thursday, Brewer added. It regularly opens at 9 a.m.

Tests Delaying School Opening

Kennett Road Building Cannot Be Used Until Water Is Checked

Students waiting to enter the new Kennett road elementary school will have to sit tight for several more days while tests of the water are made, according to Dr. Otto Hufziger, assistant superintendent of schools in charge of business.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac School Superintendent Dana P. Whitmer was scheduled to meet with City Manager Walter K. Willman today to discuss a speed-up plan for the series of three tests which requires a 48-hour wait for results.

Hufziger said the main city water line leading to the school will be flushed today and chlorinated during the night.

The first test is to be taken tomorrow.

The school can not be opened until the water is tapped into the school.

★ ★ ★

Hufziger explained that the sewer and water lines of the new $439,000 school have been completed to the property line for two weeks and will be connected as soon as the city lines reach them.

"We are now at the mercy of those tests. If everything goes as planned, school should begin by the latter part of the week", according to Hufziger.

Mark Anniversary of TB Sanatorium

The members of the board of supervisors were entertained at a luncheon at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium Monday, the occasion being the thirtieth anniversary of the opening of the sanatorium.

Albert Weber, chairman of the sanatorium's Board of Trustees, presided at the program following the luncheon. Remarks were made by Dr. W. A. Hudson, chief surgeon James Cheng, medical director, and G. H. Williams, business manager; also by Elmer Kephart, chairman of the sanatorium committee of the board of supervisors, and Joe Haas, secretary of the sanatorium board of trustees.

Weber, Haas and George Scott, the three members of the sanatorium board, were presented with plaques by the board of supervisors, the presentation being made by Delos Hamlin, chairman.

Complete Approach to Mackinac Bridge

LANSING (AP) — Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie late yesterday announced completion of the south approach to the Mackinac Straits Bridge, and expected completion of the north approach in two weeks.

★ ★ ★

Mackie said the new pavements will not be opened to the public until traffic is admitted to the bridge, on or near Nov. 1.

The south approach, consisting of 1.3 miles of four lane divided highway, plus four structures over railroad and highways, cost $1,429,000. It will carry U.S. 23, U.S. 27 and U.S. 31.

The north approach will connect the bridge to U.S. 2 west of St. Ignace.

Mackie called the bridge "one of the great" highway achievements of the decade, and said it will provide Michigan with a vital economic link as well as a nationwide tourist attraction.

Car Inventory Above Month and Year Ago

DETROIT (AP) — Dealer new car inventories on Sept. 1 amounted to 728,595 units, Automotive News reports. The total compares with 704,745 cars on hand Aug. 1, and with 504,395 held by retailers Sept. 1, 1956.

Commenting on the inventory situation, the trade paper said:

"Almost all of the new cars in inventory were 1957 models. However, there was a sprinkling of '58s — Edsel, Rambler, Nash, Hudson and Studebaker."

The paper adds that "indications are stocks will be cut down sharply this month as more makers go down for changeover operations."

Retail sales, Automotive News says, "are holding relatively high, according to field reports, although dealers say they are selling in a no profit market and have had to resort to a certain amount of forcing."

4,095 Buy Edsel Cars in Six Days of Sales

DETROIT (AP)— A total of 4,095 people bought Edsel cars the first six days the new automobile was on sale, J. C. Doyle, Edsel general sales manager said yesterday.

Sales averaged just over 682 a day for the six selling days from Sept. 4, when the Ford Motor Co.'s latest line went on public display, through Sept. 10.

The figure does not include demonstrators, dealer personnel cars or company-owned vehicles, Doyle said.

Drain Assessments Set

County to Levy $224,044 for '58

Oakland County this year will levy $224,044 in drain assessments.

The total was approved yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

Most of the assessments, Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry said, are for maintenance work or bond payments on older projects.

★ ★ ★

Of new projects, the largest calls for a new dam and levies at Pontiac Lake.

A five-year spread was okayed by the supervisors yesterday. During the first year, White Lake Township residents of the lake will pay $16,975 and the township as a whole $868.

Waterford Township residents of the lake will pay $607 and the township as a whole $289.

The Oakland County share is $2,316 and the State Highway Department is to pay $579.

★ ★ ★

A $65,000 loan to begin financing of the project was approved yesterday by the Board of Supervisors.

Barry believed the project will be completed in time to prevent the threat of flooding this spring.

Bids have been advertised and will be opened Sept. 27.

Another five-year assessment will be levied for the first time in Novi Township for the clean-out of the Garfield drain. The total this year is $6,927.

Another new five-year assessment is for the $115,000 clean-out of the Sprague drain in Avon, Bloomfield, Pontiac Townships and Troy City. The total this year is $26,542.

Supervisors Vote Loan to Finance Dam

Oakland County government found itself yesterday in the position of the dog that chased its own tail.

The Board of Supervisors decided to make a change in its committee system. But supervisors found they could not thrash the idea out on the floor, but instead must send it to a committee for preliminary consideration.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Frank H. Stephenson, of Farmington Township, asked that advance notice of committee meetings and agendas be sent from now on to all supervisors and interested persons, including the press."

There was enthusiasm for Stephenson's suggestion, but Corporation Counsel Harry J. Merritt pointed out that an alteration in the board's by-laws would be necessary to make the change.

Stephenson's motion, accordingly, was referred to the By-Laws Committee for study.

Under the Oakland system of government, resolutions are prepared by committees and then presented to the board for action. Stephenson's complaint was that he often was "grossly unprepared" to vote on resolutions about which he knew "little or nothing."

Stephenson maintained that important decisions are in the hands of a few members on "all-powerful committees."

★ ★ ★

The board as a whole, Stephenson noted, usually "rubber-stamps committee recommendations without discussion.

Stephenson, in turn, was attacked as "a publicity-seeker," by Supervisor Charles B. Edwards Jr., of Madison Heights.

Edwards, defending the committee system, argued that all committee meetings are public and can be attended by anyone who wishes.

★ ★ ★

"But almost nobody ever comes to the board meetings, let alone to the committee meetings," Edwards observed.

★ ★ ★

Stephenson had objected to a vote asked on a propose $65,000 loan to the Drain Commission to finance a new dam and levies on Pontiac Lake.

"I never heard of this proposal before," the Farmington representative said.

Drain Committee chairman, John G. Semann, of Berkley, agreed that the proposed loan had been brought up hastily, explaining that the danger of flooding at the lake would be critical if the construction does not proceed before winter.

With Stephenson abstaining, the board voted for the loan. It will be paid back with interest by a five-year assessment of the lake district.

★ ★ ★

Drain Commissioner Daniel W. Barry requested the loan after failing twice this summer to finance the project through other means.

Japan Asks U. S. to Cancel A-Tests

TOKYO (AP)—Japan urged the United States today without success to cancel the 1958 nuclear tests in the Pacific.

Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi handed a note to U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II asking the United States to call off the tests on humanitarian grounds.

MacArthur replied that the United States "has repeatedly stated its willingness to suspend nuclear tests as part of a dependable disarmament agreement."

Chimp Congo Paints in Oil to Buy a Wife

LONDON (AP)—Congo the chimp is no chump.

"He is, perhaps, the only chimpanzee in the world," said zoologist Dr. Desmon Morris, "who is painting his way to a wife."

The zoologist thought it a pity that many chimps who paint pictures get no benefits from the sale of their art.

"If our plan is approved by the directors of the London Zoo," said the zoologist, "Congo's paintings will be put on sale and the money received would go towards buying him a mate."

★ ★ ★

Dr. Morris looked over 24 oil paintings that the 2-year-old chimp has turned out in the past five months.

"Yes," he told a news conference, "that lot would buy him a nice little mate."

Congo's paintings and 36 works of art by the Baltimore, Md., chimp Betsy will go on public exhibition tomorrow.

A casual critic might judge the paintings of the American chimp Betsy of Baltimore to be more sophisticated than Congo's.

"Not so," said Dr. Morris. "The American paints with his fingers. Our Congo uses a brush. A decided difference."

There is a difference. Betsy's fingers make designs of delicate curves and whorls.

Congo uses bold, downward strokes. His masterpieces look somewhat like bundles of sticks loosely bound together.

The zoologist says that chimpanzee painting is a serious new study.

"We are trying to get at the origin of human art," he said, "and chimpanzees give you much more assistance than humans.

"This is because there is no such thing as real abstract art with people. They can't help being influenced by images."

Chinese Envoy Coming to U. of M.

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Dr. Hollington K. Tong, Chinese ambassador to the United States, will visit the University of Michigan Sept. 28 as featured speaker at a conference on Chinese-American cultural relations.

The meeting is sponsored by the China Institute in America and the university.

It will be devoted to revitalizing the teaching of Chinese studies in American schools, preserving their cultural heritage and training for Chinese leadership.

Ambassador Tong, a graduate of the University of Missouri, formerly was one of China's foremost newspaper editors.

Oakland Seeks $933,750 Grants

Requests Federal Aid in Constructing Sewage Treatment Projects

Oakland County is seeking a total of $933,750 in federal grants for construction of sewage treatment projects, the State Water Resources Commission said today.

★ ★ ★

The five requests are part of those made by 38 communities which are seeking $4,615,028 for projects costing $32,800,000.

★ ★ ★

The local requests are for the North Evergreen interceptor project ($250,000), South Evergreen project ($250,000), the Farmington interceptor ($250,000) and projects in South Lyon ($112,500) and Lathrup Village ($71,250).

County DPW Director Harold K. Schone has divided the $3 million Evergreen project in two to qualify for more federal aid for each.

★ ★ ★

Milton P. Adams, commission executive secretary, said it is likely that only a dozen or so of the state applicants will share in the $1,387,000 allocated by the state.

OCTOBER MEETING

Priorities for receiving the funds will be determined at the commission's Oct. 30 meeting.

★ ★ ★

Three of the five county applications are for maximum grants, along with those of Muskegon, Ypsilanti and Macomb County.

The $2.5 million Farmington system would serve Farmington city, Keego Harbor and parts of West Bloomfield, Farmington and Southfield Townships.

The Evergreen system is for Bloomfield Hills, Lathrup Village and parts of Birmingham, Troy, Bloomfield Township and Southfield Township.

★ ★ ★

Both projects have been turned over to the newly created County DPW for completion.

Lathrup Village has planned a $300,000 interceptor system aimed at stopping the pollution of the Rouge River.

No Teeth for Prisoner

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — The Dauphin County has ruled against Bernard Wagner, an inmate of Eastern State Penitentiary. Wagner wanted the court to order prison officials to give him a new set of false teeth.

Patient Walks Away From Court, Police

Pontiac police are wondering today how a man managed to walk undetected out of Probate Court yesterday just after he had been committed to Pontiac State Hospital.

Charles R. Carpenter, 47, of 405 W. Huron St. was later picked up quietly at his home and taken by police directly to the hospital.

Carpenter had been ordered committed by Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore, then told to wait in the courtroom until attendants arrived to take him away.

★ ★ ★

Two police officers had been with him, Lt. George Scott said. But they were acting strictly as witnesses in the case, not as guards, Scott pointed out.

After testifying, the two officers left the courtroom. Apparently Carpenter took a look around the courtroom, saw nobody was watching him, and decided to do the same. Police found Carpenter at his home 45 minutes later.

CD Units Prepared

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—A tornado forecast found Civil Defense units here fully prepared. The forecast came during "Operation Alert," a Civil Defense test, with all units in action. There was no tornado.

To See Braves, You May Sleep in Chicago

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—It's actually true that if the Milwaukee Braves go into the World Series, many visiting fans will have to sleep in Chicago hotels and take the 1 hour 20 minute train ride to Milwaukee.

WILSON

The TV guest star situation's so rough that the new Patti Page show paid $1,720 round trip plane fare to fly Michiko Hammamura from Tokyo to sing "Banana Boat." The young lady, who's done nude modeling, won't dress as she does in Japan when she sings the song—largely in bananas.

A certain comedian found how to upset the orchestra. He says, "I'd like to congratulate the band. They're working under a terrific handicap—there's a marijuana shortage."

Charles Baron, the Chicago auto dealer who became a Las Vegas hotel operator, slugged his press agent right in the lobby a few hours back. The publicist dusted himself off and said, "Well, I guess that's my two-weeks notice."

JAYNE MANSFIELD

A hot water bottle shaped after Jayne Mansfield has been created as a novelty item by Don Poynter of Cincinnati. He also marketed whisky-flavored toothpaste and do-it-yourself voodoo kit which bore the advice, "Do unto others before they do unto you."

Walter Brennan, the TV star, claims a Hollywood ham patronizingly asked a visiting Indian chief, "How do you like our town?" The chief said, "Fine, and how do you like our country?"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Lionel Hampton's band was pulled out of the Central Park show to play for President Eisenhower at Newport . . . Joan Fontaine's an Asiatic flu victim in London . . . Robert Young got $7,500 — the show's top dough for guests—for his short stint on the Steve Allen TV'er . . . Switch . . . Bogey man Boris Karloff is judging beauty contests in England . . . Victor Borge's cafe salary keeps soaring—it's up to 40G's a week in Las Vegas. A hotel owner told him, "It's like a poker game—you keep raising, but we'll keep calling you."

EARL'S PEARLS: Sign on a midwest railway crossing: "It takes a train 14 seconds to pass this crossing—whether your car is on it or not." That's earl, brother.

Maternal Role Appeals to Star

Happy to Break Away From Zany Character of Miss Brooks

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Eve Arden is busy being herself these days — with relish.

★ ★ ★

For the first time in years of trouping, explains the erstwhile TV schoolmarm, she's found a role that least comes close to fitting her real personality. And to put the record straight she is not the wise-cracking, predatory female Mr. Chips she played for so many years.

If all goes well, she hopes to wind up comfortably "typed" as a considerably more dignified and infinitely less man-hungry character than "Our Miss Brooks" ever could hope to be.

The new "Eve Arden Show," which bows in on CBS tonight, is an outgrowth of Emily Kimbrough's tickling book about one of her lecture tours and the problems of a career woman with moppets dangling from the ribbons of her tea dress.

★ ★ ★

Eve has a different carrer and a few more heirs and heiresses than the original. But the differences are far less important to her than the similarities between her off-screen life with husband Brooks West and four youngsters and the character she is playing.

GENTLER COMEDY

"For one thing," she says easily, "I don't have to strive as hard because this is closer to me, being a mother. It's more naturalistic, and it's a little gentler form of comedy.

"When I stopped 'Our Miss Brooks' a year and four months ago, I was dissatisfied with it. I began to be so identified with it. I WAS Miss Brooks to everyone.

"For a while I didn't even think about television. I wanted to sit back and see what developed. So, in a way, I've been practicing for this by being a mother. I felt the kids needed me."

★ ★ ★

The problem was to find a role that would separate the lithe blonde gently from the Miss Brooks characterization without sacrificing the public acceptance she gained in trying to hammer English into the skulls of Madison high's clientele for five years on radio and four on TV.

CLOSER TO HOME

"We deliberately set out to find a character I knew a little more about," Eve says, "something closer to home. What I wanted to play was a career mother, which hasn't been done before on television.

★ ★ ★

"How far we can go with is remains to be seen, of course."

The worrisome question in any such radical change of format for an established performer is whether he or she can break out of the original mold in the public mind.

No star with as successful a series as "Our Miss Brooks" has ever tried it on TV.

RETURNS TO REALITY — Eve Arden is happy to abandon her portrayal of the wacky schoolteacher, "Our Miss Brooks," to play a more dignified, natural character in "It Gives Me Great Pleasure." Eve's new comedy series, based on a book by Emily Kimbrough, begins tonight at 7:30 on CBS-TV.

34 Citizens Confer in Lansing

Hope to Slash Accidents, Deaths on State's Waters

LANSING (AP) — Thirty-four citizens ranging from police officials to conservationists set out today to devise a program for cutting deaths and accidents on Michigan's waters.

★ ★ ★

Meeting for the first time yesterday, they learned that big loopholes must be plugged in Michigan's water safety program before their goal can be met. They included problems of law enforcement, public education and conflicting statutes.

The 34 are members of Gov. Williams' Water Safety Study Commission, headed by George Clay, Grand Rapids industrialist.

Williams gave them five specific goals:

1. A program for improving boat safety.

2. A plan for reducing drownings, which totaled 146 in the first eight months of the year.

3. Greater uniformity in application of state and federal water laws and regulations.

★ ★ ★

4. A plan to stir up greater public interest in water safety.

5. Recommendations for changes in state water safety laws.

SOME HEADWAY

Keith Wilson, acting director of the State Waterways Commission, told the group that the Legislature made some headway this year in promoting water safety.

★ ★ ★

A law enacted this year, he said, will require registration of all powerboats and all boats 16 feet or longer operating on inland waters. This law, he said, will aid in curbing reckless boat operators when it takes effect March 1.

Other sections of the law include a ban on night water skiing and reaffirm regulations preventing drunk and reckless boat driving.

"But there are still plenty of law enforcement problems that remain," said Sheriff Harley Ensign of Macomb County, representing the Michigan Sheriffs' Assn.

★ ★ ★

"We might consider requiring every boat operator to have an operator's license," he said. "Also, we ought to have a law limiting the number of people who can ride in a boat. Often we warn people on Lake St. Clair about overloading a boat. But we can't enforce the warning."

OTHER PROPOSALS

Stiffer regulations on lifesaving and fire-fighting equipment, a study of conflicts between boaters and swimmers, extension of lifesaving and water safety instruction to public schools, and a study of non-resident liability in boat accidents also were proposed for consideration.

Clay set the commission's next meeting for Sept. 26 in Lansing.

Engine Explodes, Burning Man Fatally

DOVER, N.J. (AP)—An experimental rocket engine that was not running suddenly exploded yesterday, burning one man to death and injuring six others.

Herbert L. Bell, 28, Arlington, Tex., died when the engine blew up during a "routine test" at the naval air rocket test station at nearby Lake Denmark. The test was being staged by Reaction Motors, Inc., makers of the engine.

★ ★ ★

Bell was one of four representatives of the Chance-Vought Aircraft Co. of Dallas who had come here to watch the test. His companions and three other men suffered burns in the blast.

★ ★ ★

In fair condition at Dover General Hospital were William Dellecker, Hackettstown; Hjalmar Lagerquist, Ramsey; and R. L. Johnson and R. D. Tweedy of Chance-Vought, Glen Repp, Dallas, and Elmer Baierl, Hackettstown, were treated for burns and released.

Cause of the blast wss not determined.

Jackson Hospital Asks Federal Aid for Addition

LANSING (AP) — Request for formal approval of a $350,000 federal grant to assist in construction of an addition to Mercy Hospital in Jackson has gone to the U.S. Public Health Service, the office of hospital survey and construction said today.

Jordan J. Popkin, director of the state agency, said approval is practically assured since the public health serivce already has endorsed construction plans.

★ ★ ★

The $2,300,000 project, already under construction, will be built largely through local donations and borrowed funds. Jurdan said the federal grant should enable the work to be completed and provide funds for equipment as well.

Harold Craig Raises Total to $119,500

NEW YORK (AP) — Dairy farmer Harold Craig, of Granville, N.Y., has upped his televsion quiz show winnings to $119,500.

Craig, 26, won $15,500 last night during his 13th appearance on the NBC "Twenty-One" show.

If he decides to continue next week he will have a chance to top the record of $129,000 set on the show by Charles Van Doren, Columbia University instructor.

Former Slave Dies, 103

NORTH WILKESBORO, N.C. (AP)—Mrs. Jane Denny, a former slave, died here at the age of 103. Her Mother, Dilcey Cowles, also died at the age of 103, and had belonged to Capt. Andrew Carson of Iredell County, N.C., an uncle of frontier scout Kit Carson.

'Mommy, Daddy Don't Want Me'

Youth, 5, Stabbed in Back

NEW YORK (AP)—"My daddy don't want me. My mommy don't want me," a 5-year-old lad was quoted by detectives today at a hospital where he was being treated for a stab wound in the back allegedly inflicted by his mother.

★ ★ ★

The mother, Mrs. Catherine Maida, 28, estranged from her husband, was arrested on charges of felonious assault.

★ ★ ★

Her son, Michael, stabbed with a kitchen knife, was reported at Bellevue Hospital not to be in serious condition. The boy also had a slash on his right hand, apparently suffered while attempting to fend off a knife thrust.

Police said the mother had been under treatment for a nervous disorder.

Plans Tribute to Noted Doctor

Medical Service Honors Physician Who Found How Blood Circulates

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service is sponsoring a memorial tribute today to the 17th century English doctor who discovered that the blood circulates in a continuing stream powered by the heart.

★ ★ ★

A program was arranged to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the death of William Harvey whose tombstone in Hempstead, Essen, bears the inscription that he brought health to the world and immortality to himself. Harvey died June 3, 1657.

★ ★ ★

For centuries before Harvey's time, the standard belief was that the liver—not the heart—was the body's prime organ. Under this concept, food was absorbed from the intestines and carried to the liver where it was elaborated into blood and charged with an imaginary essence, "the natural spirits."

These "natural spirits" were then supposed to be distributed from the liver to other parts of the body by means of veins in which the blood ebbed and flowed, up and down.

The heart was looked upon as the generator for "vital spirits" which were supposed to develop from a combination of blood trickling into the heart from the liver, and air brought into the heart by a particular vein.

★ ★ ★

These "vital spirits" were supposed to be responsible for movement and muscular activity, and it was believed that arteries distributed these "spirits" throughout the body.

Asks Strong Policy Toward Russians

DETROIT (AP) — Antoni Pajack, prime minister of the Polish government in exile in London, yesterday said a continued strong United States policy toward Russia was the best hope for a free Poland.

In an interview, Pajack said:

"If the United States stops communism whenever it springs up, it will put pressure on Russia and there will have to be changes in Russia. That will help the subjugated countries free themselves."

He said it would be impossible for Poland to win freedom by a revolution. "It would be downed in a sea of blood as it was in Hungary," Pajack said.

Pajack, 64, has been prime minister in exile since September, 1955.

British Test New Jet

LONDON (AP)—A new model of the British Comet jet, corrected for a fault which apparently caused two crashes in 1954, was a step closer today to a return to commercial passenger service. The Comet Mark 2E made a 4,600-mile round trip test flight yesterday between London and Beirut in 12¾ hours.

Japan's Red Leader Held

TOKYO (AP) — Japanese police Omura, 52, director of the Japan Communist party's secret finance department and member of the Central Executive Committee. He was charged with violating Japans foreign exchange regulations.

Iraq King Gives Princess Gifts to Seal Betrothal

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—A hazel-eyed little princess who soon will go back to school has received a gift of diamonds and emeralds from King Faisal II of Iraq in quiet ceremonies sealing their betrothal.

★ ★ ★

Princess Fazilet, 16-year-old descendant of Egyptian and Ottoman monarchs, was given the jewels yesterday by Iraq's Premier Ali Jawdat and Abdulla Bakir, chief of the royal palace. They flew to Istanbul for the presentation at a friend's villa on the Bosporus.

★ ★ ★

The brown-haired princess was presented with a diamond and emerald ring and a flower-shaped brooch with an emerald in the center and diamonds for petals.

There also was a letter from the 22-year-old King, who proposed last Thursday night in Istanbul, where he had spent a two-month vacation. The marriage is not expected to take place until the princess completes school next year.

McMillan's Party Names Chairman

LONDON (AP)—Viscount Hailsham took over today as chairman of the Conservative party and set out to reverse the trend of electoral setbacks for the government.

Prime Minister Macmillan handed the 49-year-old peer the job of whipping the party into shape for national elections in 1959 or 1960.

Hailsham, formerly minister of education, also became lord president of the council. Although this is a high Cabinet post, it will allow him more time for party duties.

★ ★ ★

Like Macmillan and Sir Winston Churchill, the new party chairman had an American mother. She was Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Judge Trimble Brown of Nashville, Tenn. She died in 1925.

Dog's Name Confuses Plumber's Assistant

OLIVE BRANCH, Miss. (AP) — Mrs. E. W. Littlejohn called a plumber to work on a water heater and soon thereafter her daughter, Joan, called her dog.

The plumber's assistant answered: "No, mam, he didn't, he just barked."

This went on for some time before the dog, name of Diddy Bite, showed up and ended the confusion.

It's All 'Real George' for Kazumi Otsuka

DALLAS (AP)—Everything is "real George" now for Mr. Otsuka.

He told Judge D. B. Wood his last name was just fine. He added he'd like to change his first name, Catzumi to Kazumi and use it as a middle name.

But what he really wanted, he said, was a new first name. Judge Wood granted his complicated wish.

So now he's George Kazumi Otsuka.

New Gadgets Misfire

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Newspapers were alerted; TV stations notified and radio stations were informed that a Midland, Tex., firm would demonstrate its latest firefighting equipment at a local airport. Members of the news media were on hand when an old plane was set afire. The demonstration equipment failed to operate and the regular firemen doused the blaze.

There are more than 12,000 trailer parks in the United States.

Telephone Drawback

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP)—Attorney Ted James of Great Falls made a 275-mile speech by telephone to the East Galgary, Alta., Kiwanis Club, part of the celebration of Canadian-American Friendship Week. There was one drawback, though. "I have no idea whether you're asleep, drowsy or absent," James told his audience.

A small museum dedicated to short-story writer O. Henry is at Austin, Texas.
