Estimate Cost of Pay Hikes Over $279,000

Sept. 6 Is Deadline for Installation of Pontiac Wage Plan

Full implementation of new wage scales for Pontiac city employes will cost more than $279,000 a year, according to preliminary estimates disclosed today by City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

However, Warren said the pay hikes could be handled for the balance of the fiscal year, ending Dec. 31, with existing revenues.

Recommended by a Michigan Municipal League (MML) survey, the new wage scales generally will increase the pay of some 770 city employes.

Warren said the cost to the general fund would be $279,000 for a full year.

In addition, pay adjustments for sanitation employes would cost $18,500; for public housing employes, $3,208; sewage treatment plant, $11,219; and water department, $17,326.

GENERAL FUND

He estimated a cost of $85,000 to the general fund to cover the new wages for the balance of the fiscal year. This would include sanitation employes.

Other costs for the Sept. 6 to Dec. 31 period have not yet been calculated, he said.

Warren has set Sept. 6 as the deadline for the installation of the new wage scales. A report covering the full implementation of the MML survey is slated for City Commission action next Tuesday.

Existing revenues should cover the costs of the new pay plan, Warren explained. He said that the higher economy is expected to give the city $70,000 more in sales tax income than was previously anticipated.

BUDGET AMOUNT

The budget, he said, called for $561,000 in sales tax revenue this year. However, this has been revised upward.

The city manager pointed out that the City Commission was in total agreement that putting an adequate pay plan into operation as soon as possible was basic to "all our problems."

Representatives of city employe groups, given results of the MML survey, have appeared pleased with the proposed wage scales and the fast action of

Peach Queen Is Romeo Girl

Pamela Cumming's coronation was accompanied by more than the usual amount of confusion, but out of it came the first Romeo girl to receive the Peach Queen title in more than 20 years.

Miss Flint, Donna Lee Shepherd, already had been crowned Peach Queen when the astonished judges moved to correct the mistake. Miss Shepherd was contestant No. 1 and Pamela, No. 11.

One judge had put down the figure "1" rather than "11" in designating the winners — thus was the wrong girl honored.

Pamela, who earlier had won the Miss Romeo title, will reign over the 32nd annual Michigan Peach Festival during the Labor Day weekend.

With her will be first maid of honor Nancy G. Shadrick, Miss Waterford, and second maid of honor Barbara Walter, Miss Armada.

Uncle Sam will be called upon to make a sacrifice for the festival, Pamela, 17, had planned to enter the Air Force but will now delay her enlistment.

The 5-foot-6 queen has fair coloring to complement her black hair and blue eyes. She wore an emerald gown for the second portion of the program last night.

A 1964 graduate of Romeo High School, she lives with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Brown, at 284 W. St. Clair. She wants to enter the service as a dental assistant or medical secretary.

PAIR OF BRUNETTES

Both of the maids of honor are brunettes.

Nancy, daughter of the Roy D. Shadricks of 3525 Lorena, Waterford Township, plans to attend Western Michigan University this fall. She is 18.

Seventeen-y e a r-old Barbara has set her sights on Central Michigan University. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James

3 UAW Units Urge Each Firm as Target

CHICAGO (AP) — The Ford, Chrysler and General Motors councils of the United Auto Workers urged today that their companies be made a strike target in the automotive industry.

The council, representing the men who work in the major automobile manufacturing plants in the nation, also voted to reject the contracts offered by the three companies.

The actions left it up to the union's 25-man executive board to decide finally whether or not there should be a strike and, if so, which manufacturer to call it against.

President Walter P. Reuther of the UAW called a news conference for 4 p.m. and apparently will report the executive board's decision at that time.

The 300-member UAW General Motors Council, representing 113 local councils, voted unanimously to instruct its bargaining committee that "if the facts dictate a strike, it should be against the General Motors Co."

★ ★ ★

Woodcock told newsmen his unit feels that General Motors is "more arrogant" than the other two auto makers. He also said that GM dictated the contract proposals to the other companies.

NOT COMPLETE

Woodcock said that a strike vote of members employed by GM has not yet been completed, and workers in 90 of the 130 plants have yet to be polled. Many of the unionist, he said, won't be back at work until Monday.

Woodcock said that the returns he has seen have been "overwhelmingly in favor of a strike." Those returns, he said, include tallies of the big plants in Flint, Mich.

Out of the talks is expected to come a decision on which of the Big Three automakers will be tagged as the No. 1 target for a possibly crippling walkout.

The union is taking a strike vote among its members in all three companies.

UP TO 8 WEEKS

A UAW spokesman estimated that the strike fund, providing an average of $25 per week in benefits to each worker, would support a strike up to eight weeks at GM, longer at Ford or Chrysler.

EXPIRE AUG. 31

Strike Vote Set by City Locals

Worker Poll Said Precautionary Move

Strikes votes have been scheduled between now and Wednesday at the three United Auto Workers locals in Pontiac, according to union spokesmen.

Fisher Body Local 596 will lead off, beginning today. The voting will be continued for the next five working days until all members at the plant have had the opportunity to vote.

Members of GMC Truck & Coach Local 594 will cast their ballots Monday and Tuesday and Local 653 at Pontiac Motor Division will vote Tuesday and Wednesday.

Local 596 President Don Johnson said the voting is a precautionary measure in case UAW representatives and the three major auto companies fail to reach an agreement before the current contract expires Aug. 31, and General Motors Corp. is selected as the union's target company.

★ ★ ★

Negotiations were suspended today while UAW officials met in Chicago to decide which of the three companies, GM, Chrysler or Ford, will be struck if no contract agreement is reached.

WHEN TO RESUME

Bargaining between labor and management representatives, who have rejected each other's preliminary proposals, probably won't be resumed on a national level until Monday.

LBJ Signs Poverty Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law today the $947.5-million antipoverty bill intended to improve living conditions for millions of Americans.

The ceremony climaxed a long fight for the most important piece of legislation originating in the Johnson administration after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Halleck Warns Entire Bill May Be in Danger

Dirksen Stands Firm on Rider to Delay State Apportionment

WASHINGTON (AP) —Rep. Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., raised the possibility today that President Johnson's $3.3-billion foreign aid bill might be "clobbered in the house" in the controversy over legislative reapportionment.

Halleck, the House GOP leader, said he strongly supports a bill the House passed yesterday to strip federal courts of any jurisdiction over apportionment of state legislatures.

He regards it as preferable, he said, to the rider to the foreign aid bill advanced by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader.

Halleck gave his views at a news conference after Dirksen told the same newsmen he is standing firm on his proposal to delay court-ordered reapportionment of both houses of legislatures on a population basis until legislatures can act on a constitutional amendment.

Dirksen made clear he believes that the President would veto the House bill if it reached him. He said that he favored sending the House-passed bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee while the Senate tries to break a filibuster and attach his rider to the foreign aid bill.

SIMILAR PROPOSAL

Halleck was asked if he would support the Dirksen rider if he couldn't get the House bill.

He said he had voted against a similar proposal in the House yesterday when it was offered as a substitute for the bill.

"I might settle for it as half a loaf, I'm not sure," Halleck said.

But he went on to say that many Democratic liberals in the House have said they would oppose the foreign aid bill if an apportionment amendment is attached.

DUE FOR CLOBBERING

"The whole thing might get clobbered in the House," he said.

Dirksen said the House action increases Senate prospects for his rider since it "indicates the intensity of the feeling on the subject." He hopes to get action on the rider after the Democratic National Convention.

Urged to show its "intestinal fortitude," the House approved 218 to 175 a bill that would strip federal courts of jurisdiction in reapportionment cases.

To try to push his proposal through, Dirksen has offered it as a rider to the $3.3-billion foreign aid bill, one of the measures on the administration's "must list."

★ ★ ★

"If the filibuster doesn't stop when Congress reconvenes after the Democratic National Contion next week," Dirksen told a reporter, "I'll have no choice but to file a cloture petition."

He said he was confident proponents could muster the necessary two-thirds majority of senators present and voting to bring the debate to an end.

Opponents of Dirksen's rider, including Sens. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., and Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said they would continue their talkathon indefinitely.

Will Seek Briefings if Necessary---Barry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater left the door open today for intelligence briefings from President Johnson's advisers — but said he is not going to be trapped into campaign silence about things he already knows.

"I will ask for intelligence briefings when I feel they are needed," the Republican nominee for president said yesterday in an interview.

Goldwater indicated he has no plans now to ask for such sessions.

But he said then that if he won the Republican nomination he would expect the administration to provide "the regular briefings made available to other candidates in the past."

WRONG IMPRESSIONS

Goldwater told newsmen his early campaign speeches are going to be aimed in large measure at clearing up what he views as wrong impressions left by the Republican primary campaign.

U.N. May Pull Cyprus Troops

Lack of Finances Perils Mission

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary-General U Thant said today he might have to withdraw the U.N. peace force from Cyprus soon if it does not get more financial support.

★ ★ ★

At a news conference, Thant was asked if the force of 6,500

See Stories, Page C-14

troops, police and medical personnel from nine countries would pull out of Cyprus when its six-month term expires Sept. 26.

He replied that he still lacked $2 million in financial pledges from U.N. members necessary to make up the $12,730,000 needed to run the force for the six months.

"If such support is not forthcoming in the immediate future," he said, "it would appear necessary that the force may have to be withdrawn even before Sept. 26."

Thant said the U.N. mediator for Cyprus, Sakari S. Tuomioja of Finland, was stricken just when, for the first time, he had reported a "ray of hope" that he would be able to settle the Cyprus problem in his talks with Greece, Turkey and other nations.

SUFFERED STROKE

The news conference was Thant's first at U. N. headquarters since his return from talks in Paris, Moscow and Washington.

The Secretary-General said: The situation in Southeast Asia "is deteriorating, and I feel increasingly convinced that the situation will continue to deteriorate if the method of diplomatic and political discussion are not utilized."

Police Hunt Dog That Bit Boy

The dog, which bit the youngster Monday, was described as a black and brown male, possibly part dachshund. The dog had no collar and has been seen in the area only once since the incident.

Andrew was bitten on the hand when he tried to pet the dog.

Lake Orion police and the sheriff's department request that if the dog is located, their offices be contacted.

Swarming Villagers Halt Strike at Cong

TUY HOA, South Viet Nam (AP) — Nearly 1,000 villagers led by children and pregnant women waving Buddhist flags swarmed around an armored personnel carrier unit today, tying up a key portion of a massive anti-Viet Cong guerrilla operation.

While fuming Vietnamese officers watched, the villagers jumped in front and back of vehicles deployed about 13 miles south of this coastal strongpoint, preventing the weapons carriers and army units from moving.

* * *

Military sources said it was certain the villagers were about 85 per cent Viet Cong sympathizers. No tough action was taken against them because of current Buddhist tension and fear of political exploitation by the Viet Cong.

The incident came as Buddhist leaders in Saigon scheduled protests against the Sunday ouster of Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh as chief of state by the ruling military junta.

FIRST MOVES

U.S. advisers in the Tuy Hoa area said the demonstration was the first of its kind in their sector. Other sources said the action apparently heralded a significant new Viet Cong tactic.

Some of the villagers placed their bodies in front of treads of armored personnel carriers, stalling the unit, which was a little below company strength, during vital hours of an operation by about a division of government troops.

* * *

Addressing a rally of 4,000 Buddhist youths, the leader, Tich Tan Chau, sharply criticized Khanh's assumption of additional power last Sunday, when he ousted Maj. Gen. Duong Van Minh as president and installed himself.

* * *

The rally — held in the grounds of the Buddhist Association headquarters here — was in commemoration of last year's pagoda raids by police under orders from the late President Ngo Dinh Diem.

Anxious to avoid an outbreak, police did not interfere during the rally and it ended without incident. But several Buddhist high school teachers said during the rally that they have been invited to police headquarters for questioning.

DEMONSTRATIONS

Buddhist monks said that if the teachers are detained, massive Buddhist demonstrations probably will be held in front of police headquarters.

Trouble was also anticipated in the central Vietnamese city of Hue, 400 miles north of Saigon, where Buddhist demonstrations and a torchlight parade were scheduled tonight and Friday.

Authorities in the Hue area sought to meet the Buddhists halfway by declaring Friday a holiday with time off for Buddhist soldiers and officials.

AVOID TROUBLE

Khanh —who is a Buddhist — had ordered his armed forces to avoid entanglement with political and religious groups. He also warned students to stick to their books rather than demonstrations, or they might find themselves in the army.

U.S. Protests as Russian Fires at Army Vehicle

BERLIN (AP)—A Soviet Army sentry fired two bursts from a submachine gun "in the direction" of a U.S. Army car in East Berlin last Sunday but no one was injured, a U.S. spokesman said today.

* * *

The spokesman said the bullets did not strike the car, though the Soviet soldier fired a burst of three rounds and another of about seven.

The shooting took place in an unrestricted area near a Soviet military installation in the Soviet sector district of Biesdorf-Nord.

Calling the incident an "unprovoked and undisciplined action," the spokesman said a written protest was sent to Pyotr Abrasimov, Soviet ambassador in East Berlin, and to Gen. Ivan E. Yakubovsky, commander of Soviet forces in East Germany.

* * *

ARMY COMMANDER

Gen. Paul Freeman, commander in chief U.S. Army, Europe, protested to the Soviet general.

The spokesman said the protests were delivered yesterday and made these points:

1. U.S. authorities view such an incident as dangerous, unjustified and one that could lead to extremely serious consequences.

* * *

2. U.S. personnel were exercising their right of freedom of movement in the Soviet sector of Berlin, rights also enjoyed by Soviet personnel in the Western sectors of Berlin.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

3. Hillenbrand and Freeman expressed expectation that Soviet authorities would take appropriate disciplinary action and take necessary steps to prevent a similar incident.

"The U.S. military sedan was on a road in the Biesdorf-Nord area of the Soviet sector near a Soviet military installation," the spokesman said.

"As the sedan was turning around on the road to leave the area, a Soviet soldier on sentry duty nearby fired three rounds from his submachine gun at the U.S. vehicle.

"A second burst was fired as the car was leaving the area, making a total of about 10 rounds fired from a distance of approximately 400 meters" — about 1,200 feet.

DRIVEN IN AREA

He added that U.S. Army cars had driven in the area in the past without incident.

So far as could be determined, there have been no shootings in the Soviet sector of the divided city involving Western Allied and Soviet soldiers in recent years.

However, vehicles of the U.S., British and French military liaison mission operating in East Germany have been fired upon by Soviet soldiers, the last known incident occurring two years ago near Berlin.

Although a U.S. Army car involved then was hit by bullets, its passengers were not hurt.

Says Barry Willing to Debate Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater was described today as willing to face President Johnson in a television series proposed by the National Broadcasting Co.

* * *

Goldwater's press secretary, Paul Wagner, said the Arizona senator wouldn't be interested in a format that would have the presidential contenders appear separately.

* * *

Johnson was silent on the NBC invitation to put him and Goldwater — jointly or separately—on the air in a full-hour series of "Meet the Press" television programs.

NBC Board Chairman Robert W. Sarnoff outlined the offer in identical telegrams to Goldwater and Johnson. He said the plan was designed to substitute for actual television debates.

WOULD ACCEPT

Goldwater could not be reached for comment, but Wagner said the Republican nominee "would accept on a face-to-face basis only."

"Separate appearances is hardly a debate," the press secretary said.

* * *

Meanwhile, Republican National Chairman Dean Burch charged Senate Democrats obviously were operating on instructions from Johnson when they rolled up a party line majority Tuesday night to kill legislation aimed at paving the way for debates on radio and television by suspending the "equal time" requirement for the presidential campaign.

* * *

"I can understand why President Johnson desires to avoid debating Sen. Goldwater, having seen the President on television several times," Burch said.

HALF THE COST

He said the Republican National Committee is willing to put up half the cost of television time if Johnson will agree to appear with Goldwater.

Goldwater, in a speech at the Illinois State Fair Wednesday, declared: "I am willing to debate and I'm willing to pay for the time."

* * *

Later, Goldwater told reporters "the Republican party will pay for it. We'll buy the time."

He estimated it would cost about $500,000 to air a debate on three television networks.

AT DISCOUNT?

"Of course, with his connections, he ought to be able to get us a discount on it," the senator said of Johnson.

* * *

Burch said the Republicans would agree to avoid national security matters in any debates. He added they would reluctantly eliminate foreign policy as a debate topic, if Johnson insisted.

* * *

But Goldwater said foreign policy is what he wants to talk about.

37 Survivors in Plane Crash

No Deaths Reported in Nevada Accident

TONOPAH, Nev. (UPI) — A twin-engine DC3 airliner carrying 37 persons to a Nevada gambling resort crashed last night while attempting an emergency landing in a dry southern Nevada lake bed. All aboard survived.

* * *

The Hawthorne Airlines plane was headed from Burbank, Calif., to Hawthorne, Nev., when it reported 15 minutes out of Tonopah at 8 p.m. PDT (11 p.m. Pontiac time) that one engine was out.

Pilot Harry W. Hopkins attempted to bring the crippled aircraft into the Tonopah Airport, but decided to crash-land seven miles south when the second engine caught fire and he saw the flat area ahead.

He brought the plane in near-darkness onto the dry bed of Mud Lake, the same site used by the X-15 experimental aircraft for emergency landings.

* * *

The DC3 landed on one wing, shearing it off, and then cartwheeled 150 yards along the ground. Both engines were knocked loose by the impact.

SAID FANTASTIC

Rick Blakemoor, manager of the local airport, said "it was fantastic that nobody was killed. The plane wound up on its back with the tail sticking up in the air, but the passengers just walked out the door."

* * *

Although 32 of the passengers were held overnight at Nye County Hospital with assorted cuts and bruises, a spokesman said only five required major medication.

* * *

Most seriously injured were Hopkins and his copilot, Stanley Nielson, who were trapped in the cabin for 90 minutes until cut loose with hacksaws.

BIRMINGHAM — The creative use of leisure time will be the key to fall term activities at the Community House, according to Karl F. Emmanuel Jr., director of educational activities.

In addition to regular courses offered to adults and young people, five new courses, "Introduction to Art Appreciation," "Dry Flower Arrangement Workshop," "Mosaic Tiling" and courses in German and Italian will be offered.

In response to the enthusiastic reception accorded last year's courses, Oakland University will cosponsor two new courses this fall; "Problems of Literary Censorship" and "Music Appreciation," both to be taught by university faculty members.

Several new teachers have joined the Community House staff, expanding the capabilities of the educational activities program.

* * *

The Community House, 380 S. Bates, will continue to act as a meeting place for various organizations, and will resume the travel film series and prefilm dinners.

FACILITIES OPEN

Such facilities as the adult and high school employment offices and the mimeograph-addressograph office will again be open to the community.

"We have made every effort to provide something for everyone," stated executive director Bob Bogan, "and it is our hope that more people than ever will make use of the Community House in the coming season."

Warren A. LaLonde

Requiem Mass will be offered for Warren A. LaLonde, 46, of 1085 Dorchester, Bloomfield Township, at 10 a.m. tomorrow in St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church with burial in Mt. Hope Cemetery.

The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today in the Melvin A. Schutt Funeral Home, Pontiac.

Mr. LaLonde, a copy writer for newspapers and radio, died yesterday after a six-month illness. He was a member of St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. Anne M. LaLonde of Pontiac; two sons, John and James, both of Pontiac; and two daughters, Mrs. Christina Morrisey of Pontiac and Mrs. Linda Arron of Los Angeles, Calif.

Also surviving are three brothers, Maynard of Pontiac, Gerald of Los Angeles and Ernest of Niagara Falls, N.Y.; and three sisters, Mrs. Gerald Manausa of Holly, Mrs. George Polasek and Mrs. Alberta Warren, both of Pontiac.

Syncom Clears Space Hurdle

Heads for Another Critical Maneuver

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Syncom 3 satellite cleared a tricky space hurdle early today and headed for another critical maneuver later in the day.

The complex moves, controlled by radio command from the ground, are aimed at placing the spacecraft in a stationary orbit above the Pacific where it would be in position to televise the Olympic Games from Japan.

* * *

A station at Salisbury, Australia, is to trigger a small rocket aboard the satellite. The rocket is to fire a 19-second burst of energy to switch Syncom 3 from a wide-looping orbit ranging from 695 to 23,675 miles to a circular course in which both the high and low points will be about 23,000 miles up.

The action, scheduled to occur high above Sumatra, also would kick Syncom 3 into a position in which it would appear to hover motionless over one area of the earth because its relative speed would match that of the earth's rotation.

TUMBLING CONTINUES

This would not end the satellite's space acrobatics. For more than 10 days afterward, ground stations are to command small jets on the spacecraft to fire at precise times to slowly move it eastward along the equator until it reaches a point above the intersection of the equator and the international dateline.

Fight Over Demanded Name Change

Discordance for Royal Philharmonic

LONDON (AP) — A discordant note echoed over Britain today as the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra defied a government order to shed its regal title.

Along with the refusal came charges of a plot to kill off the orchestra, one of the world's finest.

The orchestra has had a difficult time since the death of its wealthy and talented founder, Sir Thomas Beecham, four years ago.

ORCHESTRA SPLIT

Last year it split with management under Beecham's widow and the musicians set out to manage themselves as a co-operative. At the same time their link was severed with the Royal Philharmonic Society.

Then Home Secretary Henry Brooke told the orchestra it could no longer use the title "royal."

"The orchestra's existence depends on the name. It would be irresponsible for the company to acquiesce in the destruction of the orchestra on other than artistic grounds," the Philharmonic management replied.

Orchestra members insisted that the word royal gives a big boost to the orchestra's selling power, especially in overseas markets for its recordings.

LONG ENGAGEMENTS

Kevin Holland, one of the management, said: "We have engagements stretching more than two years ahead. All these are threatened if we have to drop royal from our title."

Holland charged that underlying Brooks' demand was an intrigue among musicians to swing the Royal Philharmonic Society's influence behind other orchestras.

The society, with royal approval, has held its title since the 19th century. It is an amateur body which runs a choir and sponsors concerts.

Legal authorities doubted if the government has the power to prevent the orchestra from calling itself royal. London, they pointed out, has dozens of royal pubs.

Calm Back in Suburbs of Chicago

DIXMOOR, Ill. (AP) — Suburban calm appeared to have returned to Dixmoor and Harvey today as civil rights and civic leaders pledged determined efforts to heal the sores of racial dissension.

All signs of the turbulent rioting that rocked the two southern suburbs of Chicago Sunday and Monday nights have vanished.

Taverns were permitted to reopen last night, and policemen resumed normal schedules. Police Chief Matt Romer of Harvey announced removal of roadblocks and reopening of stores that had been closed during the evenings.

Mayor Elmer Turngren of Harvey said he was gratified with progress made in easing Negro-white tensions.

He said another community meeting will be held Saturday to learn "the root cause of the trouble" that ended in some 70 arrests and 50 injuries in the two nights of rioting.

PROMISES PROGRAM

John Hebert, chairman of the Harvey Chapter of the Congress Of Racial Equality, promised an intensified program to combat what he called discriminatory practices.

He charged that the underlying causes of the rioting were rooted in discriminatory hiring and a segregated pattern of housing and recreation.

Dixmoor, which is 2 miles south of Chicago, has a population of some 5,000 and is 75 per cent Negro.

1st Rights Fine Is Assessed

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A federal judge has applied the financial lever of the Civil Rights Act for the first time by assessing two men found guilty of contempt $600 to be paid the plaintiffs' attorneys.

U.S. Dist. Judge Bryan Simpson ordered William Chew of St. Augustine, manager of Palms Congress Inn, and his corporation to pay $400. Charles M. Lance Jr., timber dealer, service station operator and nonpaid deputy sheriff of St. Johns County, was ordered to pay $200.

Attorneys for the plaintiffs said they would donate the $600 to the legal defense fund of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Chew and Lance were held in violation of injunctions ordering operators of 17 restaurants and motels to serve Negroes and prohibiting other persons from interfering.

No Beer for Babies, Narcotic Nonsense

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY

"I do not know when I had my first drink," writes one man in reply to the questions I asked readers to answer confidentially about their drinking. "Beer and wine were always available for the asking when I was growing up at home. My parents did not mind my drinking at home, but they did not condone drinking away from home. I was 17 and in the Marine Corps before I had my first drink away from home.

"I do not believe that growing children should take the pledge, because this does not teach the proper respect or use of alcohol. Suddenly becoming 21 in no way means that you can handle alcohol or that you are ready to experiment, so to speak.

"I have two children, one 26 months old, one 13 months old, and they both have had beer, wine and or liquor. They seem to enjoy the flavor of beer, which has nutrition value.

"I don't believe a person should take a drink at a party or social gathering just to be friendly, if he doesn't believe in drinking. That, to me, is compromising one's principles, which is unforgivable. A man should stick by his principles.

"As for cocktail lounges, I do go into them occasionally, but I think the old-fashioned saloon with its lights, not dim shadows, would be preferable.

"I enjoy your column and wholeheartedly subscribe to most of your teachings or beliefs, but I do believe you blame alcohol and social amenities for too many things. I believe that drinking because 'everybody' is drinking is not justified.

FOLLOW CONVICTIONS

"A man does not drink because his job demands it, as some of your readers say. A man who sticks by his convictions is to be respected, scorned when he compromises these principles for any reason.

"Keep up the good work of your column and may you still be writing when I reach your age."

(Signed).....

Thank you, sir, for your good letter. You will reach my age, I hope, in the year 2023.

I like what you say about a person drinking at a party or social gathering just to be friendly, or because his job demands it.

I do not understand your objection to growing children taking the pledge. Taking the pledge kept us Brady boys from using the narcotic, alcohol, before we were 21. After that we continued to abstain because there was no logical reason or excuse for fooling with it.

You argue, like a confirmed alcoholic, that "suddenly being 21 in no way means that you can handle alcohol or that you are ready to experiment with it, so to speak." Being 21 or 41 or 61 or 81, whether suddenly or gradually, doesn't mean that you can "handle" alcohol. This fatuous notion — that one can "handle" alcohol — is another familiar conceit of alcoholics — it is in the same category with the drunk's assertion that he can whip anybody . . .

This notion of being able to "handle" or "hold" liquor reminds me of Father Pfau's attempt to convince himself he was not an alcoholic. In his book, "The Prodigal Shepherd" he tells how he struggled to wait until 12 o'clock to take the first drink of the day — preparing the drink and then walking the floor watching impatiently for the minute hand to reach 12, then pouncing on the drink and gulping it down . . .

The wonder is that the priest ultimately got off the narcotic and, although he begins his talks in AA meetings with the standard statement "I am an alcoholic," he has been abstinent now for many years.

WHY INDULGE?

After all, why should anyone who enjoys g o od health—I mean ENJOY — and has a clear conscience want to indulge in even the best-selling narcotic?

As you say, sir, a MAN does not drink because his job demands it. A man with character doesn't, nor does a boy or youth join his companions in drinking so they won't call him "chicken."

Lutheran Talk Advises Youth

DETROIT (AP)—A gathering of 12,000 youths received this advice Wednesday night:

"The fellows who park with the girls and demand that they 'prove their love,' don't love the girls. They love themselves."

★ ★ ★

The essence of genuine love, the minister said, was understood by St. Paul when he wrote: "'Love does not insist on its own way.'"

RIGHT MOTIVES

He also said that mankind's ills need an application of mercy without selfish motivations, and accused many church members of engaging in religious activities for the benefit they believe it brings them.

★ ★ ★

"We join up with God for what we can get out of it," the Rev. Mr. Rueter continued. "So its been going for a long time. People have been giving to missions, because this is the best and cheapest way to stop the communists.

★ ★ ★

"Sometimes even prayer is sold as a gimmick—a machine by which we can move God, to manipulate Him to do what we want, to make Him our puppet."

★ ★ ★

Unselfish Christian service, he said, requires that one seeking to serve acquire the ability to feel the joys, the needs and the hurts of the one who is to be served.

Mum (?) Tallulah in London Row

LONDON (AP) — Tallulah Bankhead returned to London today — a city she captivated 41 years ago — and started a small row.

She also refused to leave the customs building until the Rolls-Royce, she said she'd been promised, appeared.

"I don't care where it's parked," she said. "I want to see it. It's in my contract."

MOVIE ROLE

While movie men hastened to the parking lot to alert the chauffeur of the contracted car, reporters asked her if she would walk to the interviewing shed.

★ ★ ★

"No," she replied, "I won't even go near it."

"When were you in London last, Miss Bankhead?" one newsman asked.

Taxpayers Have Right to Know Pay Figures

City employes have demonstrated for improved pay, and the City Commission has received a wage survey which compares Pontiac with cities its size in this region.

★ ★ ★

Although the proposals for increased pay resulting from the survey had been discussed with the employes, the public was kept in the dark. Since the city taxpayers are going to foot the bill for any increases, we feel they should know of the impending changes before, or at least the same time, as the city employes.

Drowning 'Accidents' Don't Just Happen

In reviewing the reports of drownings these past few weeks in Oakland County and Michigan, one questions how many can truly be classed as "accidents."

Witness:

The hit-and-run boating death on Cass Lake.

★ ★ ★

The three youngsters from an organized Detroit church group might not have been the victims of "one of those terrible accidents that just happen — with no one to blame" IF the sheriff's office had been asked in advance to select a spot not too deep for the youngsters AND the Red Cross had been asked to include among the 14 escorts two or more trained lifeguards capable not only of quick rescue but of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation.

How much longer can we continue to plunge innocent victims to watery deaths by disregard of the rights of others; by neglecting even the simplest rules of safety in and out of the water; and by failure to take the ounce of prevention that can prevent "accidents" from happening?

Supreme Court Opens 'Can of Legal Worms'

It does seem odd that people, including Supreme Court Justices, have been reading the Constitution for 175 years without ever noticing that it said both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned according to the one-man one-vote principle.

Now that the current Supreme Court has unearthed this heretofore hidden meaning, many of the legislatures in the Country and many of the State constitutions will have to be shook up in an awful hurry, unless Congress acts in the waning days of this session.

Sens. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., and Frank O. Lausche, D-Ohio, have improvised a bill which will give America time to catch its breath and its legislatures time to ratify an Amendment that will allow them to tailor themselves a little more to the liking of the people of their states than the Supreme Court's decision would allow.

We wish them success. Some of the legislatures so beset by the Court were in existence before the Congress itself. Many of them were set up after the 14th Amendment was passed, and their constitutions were examined by Congressmen who drafted the Amendment before they were readmitted to the Union after the Civil War.

It doesn't seem likely that the framers of the Amendment in which the Court tells us it found its authority would overlook failures of the states to comply with what they really put into it.

If the Court is right, some interesting questions are raised. If the legislatures have been illegally constituted all these years, aren't the laws they passed void? Weren't the Federal elections that were held under these illegal laws void, too? Then weren't the Presidents unlawfully elected? And who appointed the Court's nine Justices? A series of unlawfully-elected Presidents!

If Sens. DIRKSEN and LAUSCHE and some House members who are trying to straighten things out are successful, we may all have occasion to be grateful. Perhaps, in the light of the above possibility, the Supreme Court itself.

Johnson Policy: Belt Goldwater

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — Rock 'im and sock 'im and belt him every chance we get.

This clearly seems the Johnson administration's policy against Sen. Barry Goldwater in the presidential campaign which, before it even starts, promises to be the roughest, toughest in memory.

MARLOW

Goldwater didn't spare President Johnson's feelings when he called him a "phony." Johnson and some of his top aides have already set the pattern of not sparing Goldwater's.

Last week Goldwater criticized his country's defense program: "Under our present leadership with its utter disregard for new weapons, our deliverable nuclear capacity may be cut down by 90 per cent in the next decade."

The Defense Department promptly fired back that this statement of the Republican presidential candidate was "without foundation," was "contrary to the facts" and was "totally false."

'TO INSURE DESTRUCTION'

"Let me assure you that our strategic forces are and will remain in the 1960s and 1970s sufficient to insure the destruction of both the Soviet Union and Communist China under the worst imaginable cirmustances accompanying the outbreak of war," McNamara said.

All this will probably not discourage Goldwater from future criticism. But, judging from the speed and magnitude of McNamara's response, plus that of Johnson himself, the administration apparently is set to smash into Goldwater from now on.

Last week Goldwater told a news conference that in dealing with the Southeast Asia crisis, Johnson seemed to give military commanders authority to use the "whole inventory" of American weapons. The "whole inventory," of course, would have to include nuclear weapons.

"Loose charges on nuclear weapons without any shadow of justification by any candidate for office, let alone the presidency, are a disservice to our national security, a disservice to peace, and, as for that matter a great disservice to the entire free world."

And the campaign hasn't even started.

'I Am The Law!'

David Lawrence Says:

LBJ Year Late on Racial Advice

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is telling the nation that Americans must reject "street riders and night riders" and adhere to law and order so as to assure racial peace.

LAWRENCE

But the Democratic administration is about a year late in getting at the roots of the violence which has swept many Northern cities.

The sanction unwittingly given by the national administration in Washington to the idea of street demonstrations, while theoretically defensible as the exercise of free speech, has resulted in widespread disorders.

Again and again, the demonstrations have had no relationship to the civil rights law or to other public questions, but merely have afforded an opportunity for hooliganism—the looting of stores, as well as the throwing of bricks, stones and bottles at innocent citizens and the police.

The police departments in all big cities are worried.

When tear gas, fire hoses, police dogs or other methods are used to quell the riots, various civic organizations promptly call it "police brutality," and this in turn cannot but encourage some thoughtless persons of both races to take more chances with street demonstrations.

SOBER TRUTH

The sober truth is that cities do not have enough money or policemen to deal with the growing violence.

Maybe some of the funds appropriated by Congress to try to get to the moon will have to be made available to help keep peace on earth, especially in American cities.

Perhaps the best example of how expensive it is to handle a mass demonstration was given just a year ago this month in the famous march on Washington.

★ ★ ★

Few people outside of governmental agencies know how costly the effort was and how the influence of the administration had to be exerted behind the scenes to put white leaders in charge wherever possible so as to diminish the appearance of race conflict.

PROTESTS ENCOURAGED

The publicity given afterwards to the March on Washington as a big success doubtless encouraged street demonstrations in other parts of the country where the police departments were unable to afford any such protection as was provided a year ago in the national capital.

Since then, New York City, Rochester, N. Y., Boston, Paterson and Elizabeth, N. J, Philadelphia, Chicago and other large population centers have had to deal with outbursts of violence which were the result of stimulated racial feelings.

This is precisely what was forecast a year ago when the March on Washington was widely interpreted as encouraging demonstrations in places where 25,000 federal troops would not be so readily available.

Barry Has 'Secret Asset' in Miller's Beautiful Wife

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — GOP standard-bearer Barry Goldwater may have unknowingly acquired a "secret asset" when he chose Republican National Chairman William E. Miller as his running mate.

RUTH MONTGOMERY

Miller's beautiful, 41-year-old wife, Stephanie, is a Polish-American who speaks some Polish and plans to tape vote-getting appeals in that language for radio and TV airing.

It is doubtful whether Barry Goldwater knew of Mrs. Miller's ethnic background when he decided that Bill Miller, a hard-hitting campaigner from the big-vote state of New York, would add most to his presidential ticket.

A gorgeous addition to any political platform, Stephanie was born in Lockport, N. Y., to Stephen Wagner, an immigrant from the Polish Ukraine and his wife, Mary Nowak. The latter's parents were born in Poland.

The nation was treated to frequent glimpses of Mrs. Miller and two of her beautiful daughters during the televised Republican convention in San Francisco.

FAIR GUIDE

Twenty-year-old Libby, a guide in the New York pavilion at the World's Fair, returns to her Newton College of the Sacred Heart in mid-September for her senior year.

Mary Karen, 17, will be a senior at Stone Ridge, a Catholic high school in Bethesda, Md., this fall.

Consequently, their campaign appearances will doubtless be limited to weekends.

Because the Millers also have a 5-year-old son and nearly 3-year-old daughter, Stephanie's campaign activities may also be somewhat curtailed.

Besides playing bridge and golf, Stephanie also swims, water skis, plays the piano, paints in oils, and loves to dance.

"I once wanted to be a dancer," she confides. "I wish I had a husband who likes to dance, but Bill would rather sit and talk, or play bridge."

Stephanie Wagner Miller will probably be at her husband's side at major rallies, particularly when he campaigns in the heavily industrialized areas of Youngstown, Gary, Detroit, Chicago, Milwaukee and Pittsburgh.

The dazzling brunette may even bring the workers personal greetings in Polish and Ukrainian, as Jacqueline Kennedy delivered little speeches in French and other languages.

Will Call Afro-Asian Shots

China Wins Round in Red Rift

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

News Analysis

The Red Chinese have won an important round against the balked and frustrated Soviet Communists in a battle over who calls the shots among Communists of Asia and Africa.

Moscow virtually has thrown in the towel after a long struggle to force its way into the Communist-backed Asian-African solidarity organization.

The outcome has important meaning for Asia. Peking has enjoyed considerable success in keeping the door to Asian communism closed to the Soviet Union. This means the Russians have little influence, for example, on what takes place in a powder-keg situation such as Viet Nam.

The Kremlin, with little choice, had to bow out as gracefully as possible. To insist upon being recognized as an Asian nation and then be voted down by a Red Chinese majority would have been painful.

The fight concerned who would participate in a conference planned by the organization for next March. The first such conference was held at Bandung, Indonesia, in 1955, and the Russians attended.

RACIAL GROUNDS

Moscow says the Chinese opposed the Russians on racial grounds and even pictured the U.S.S.R. as if it were in the same category as "colonial powers with possessions in Asia and Africa." That stung badly.

Trying to make the best of it, Moscow sent messages to Asian and African governments, saying "the Soviet Union cannot allow the question of its invitation to be embarrassing for Afro-Asian countries, and especially its use by anyone for sowing discord among them."

Moscow bowed out.

The message said Moscow didn't take the initiative in raising the question of its attendance in the first place. Perhaps it didn't, but the Kremlin obviously wanted an invitation, and complained the Red Chinese blocked it by "a dishonest game."

This battle has raged a long time. The Soviets date it to 1962 and what they call "the tragic conflict on the frontiers" between Red China and India, and Red China's "narrow nationalism."

UNLIMITED MONEY

Early in 1963 at Moshi, Tanganyika, the Chinese, apparently with unlimited money at their disposal, tried to seize control of an Asian-African meeting, and had a fierce clash with the Russians.

It seemed pretty much a draw. Then, in September, the Russians tried to ram through an approval of their partial nuclear test ban treaty. They were defeated in a meeting of the solidarity organization at Nicosia, Cyprus.

In April, the group held another preparatory meeting in Indonesia. Soviet participation was proposed. Russian-hating Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi engineered the burial of that proposal and the Russians were furious. They took their case directly to Asian and African governments with special messages.

★ ★ ★

They have just done this again, in what appears an attempt to go over the heads of delegations whose Communist members seem to be in the hands of the Chinese.

NOT WANTED

"It is obvious that if some forces, proceeding from their factional goals, do not wish the Soviet Union to attend the conference," the Soviet message fumed. "This harms the national liberation movement."

The "national liberation movement" is Communist language for revolutionary movements in underdeveloped countries subject to seizure by the Communists.

Evidently Red China, North Korea, North Viet Nam, the Japanese Communists and others ganged up on the Russians. If Moscow were invited, they would refuse to attend the meeting, and there would be no solidarity meeting.

The Russians lost, and they know it.

If there is a finer place for a music festival than Baldwin Memorial Pavilion at Oakland U. I can't imagine it! If there is a finer symphony than the Detroit Symphony, I can't imagine it. Thank you to all those responsible for its presentation.

Here are a few suggestions for next year: have at least one afternoon session for young people; chloride the entrance way. And what a spot that would be for a jazz festival.

Writer Comments on Rezoning Request

Do Pontiac citizens realize the condition existing at Sam Allen and Sons, Inc. (scrap iron and metal), located at Orchard Lake Avenue, Saginaw Street and Wide Track Drive?

In the 1930's when the last zoning ordinance was written, this was no doubt a proper location. However, 1964 has brought changes and it seems fitting that the zoning ordinance be brought up to date.

★ ★ ★

The Allens have requested a rezoning from M2, light industry, to M3, heavy industry. We hope this request will not be granted and that the Allens and the city commission might come to an agreement as to a new location where the Allens might expand without jeopardizing the area.

★ ★ ★

The city commission and the planning commission want a shopping center and other buildings in this location. It seems reasonable to believe that any company contemplating building in this particular vicinity would surely hesitate once it became aware of the noise and smoke from new equipment installed for this "scrap yard" operation, to say nothing of the visual aspects.

'Park Lovers Getting Pretty Fussy'

If you "Park Lovers," can't stand the "smelly toilets" at Pontiac Lake Recreation, why don't you stay home? Next you'll want electric ranges in the parks.

A HARDY ONE

Are we so spoiled that we won't spend a day "getting back to nature" without taking inside plumbing with us? If the picnic tables are too close to the toilets we can demand that large sums of tax money be spent installing plumbing, or we can do what our pioneer ancestors would have done — spend a few dollars for soap, antiseptic, and deodorizers; move the picnic table a few few feet away; and go on enjoying a picnic at the park.

Says Liberals Are Extremists, Too

In moderate, liberal circles a huge outcry is raised against "extremism," though the criers will not admit that they themselves fight to extremes to effect their own pet causes. Governors Romney and Rockefeller and President Johnson apply their own brands.

Actually the Goldwaterites I know are cool, collective people waiting patiently to make the big change. Won't the poor world and all its downtrodden natives do a doubletake when they find the U. S. is still one of those "emerging, self-determining nations," and not a has-been, fearfully led, tribute-paying new something-or-other retread?

Mrs. LBJ Dedicates Campobello Island

Mrs. Johnson told the audience of U.S. and Canadian officials, members of the Roosevelt family and the donors of the site that the island memorial "stands as witness to our unfortified boundaries and to our friendship with our neighbors.'

* * *

She said in her prepared speech that "a man triumphed over adversity" here, "and among these bays and books and boats" the shaping of a president took place.

It was on Campobello — he called it his "beloved island" — that Roosevelt was stricken with crippling polio in 1921.

CROWDED DAY

The ceremony was part of a crowded day for Mrs. Johnson which included a visit to Eastport, Maine, to inspect a federally aided public works project and a scheduled stop at Burlington, Vt., for inauguration ceremonies of the state's new Commission on the Status of Women.

At the joint ceremony here Mrs. Johnson praised the family of Armand, Victor and Harry Hammer of New York, for their "generosity and imagination" in restoring the site and donating it to the U.S. and Canadian governments for joint administration as a memorial to the late president.

The rambling, 34-room red brick home of the late president, was given to the U.S. and Canadian governments by Armand Hammer, New York industrial executive and art dealer, and his family.

The Hammer family had purchased the home and its 29 acres of ground in 1952 from Roosevelt's son, Elliott, who had inherited it from his father. Before she died in 1962, Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the late president, helped the Hammer family restore the home.

TRAVELING PARTY

Armand, Harry and Victor Hammer and their wives were included in Mrs. Johnson's traveling party, along with two U.S. members of the Campobello International Commission, Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. who was born at Campobello.

Officially representing the United States were Katie Louchheim, a deputy assistant secretary of state and Oren Beatty, assistant secretary of the interior.

Administration Urges Rejection of Vets' Pension Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Johnson administration has urged Senate rejection of a bill passed by the House to increase veterans' pension payments by an estimated $72.6 million the first year.

Phillip S. Hughes, assistant director of the Budget Bureau, told the Senate Finance Committee Wednesday the estimate is likely to be low and that enactment of the bill "would be inconsistent with the objectives of the administration."

★ ★ ★

Veterans Administrator John S. Gleason Jr. said he went along with the administration position on the measure.

Representatives of veterans organizations testified they considered the measure modest and urged its passage.

Dr. C. Stark Draper, president of the International Academy of Astronautics, told a news conference Wednesday there are strong indications the Russians will attempt a major launching before or during the astronautics congress Sept. 7-12 in Warsaw, Poland.

Dr. E. B. Konecci, director of biotechnology and human research for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration launching "within the next small number of days."

Andrew G. Haley, academy general counsel, said he had been alerted by a British source the Russians would "come out with something spectacular" just before the Warsaw meeting.

None of the three would speculate on the possible nature of he rumored launching.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate approved Wednesday a two-year extension of the food for peace program and cleared a $7-billion-plus appropriation to finance the welfare and labor departments and several smaller agencies.

★ ★ ★

The food for peace bill, authorizing disposal of nearly $50 billion worth of farm surpluses, now goes to the House, which is considering a companion bill.

The $7,080,190,000 appropriation goes to a Senate-House conference. Earlier this session the House voted $173,130,000 less.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A reduction in government interest rates to 1952 levels would boost the economy and save the federal government $27 billion over the next seven years, a group headed by economist Leon H. Keyserling said Wednesday.

The report by the Conference on Economic Progress, a nonprofit organization, also proposed closer supervision by Congress over the Federal Reserve Board. It blamed the board for a substantial rate increase on government securities over the past 14 years.

The group said the administration's policy of high interest rates on short-term borrowing and low rates on long-term securities had failed to stem the flow of dollars abroad, where interest rates are higher. It said the recent tax cut had failed to reduce unemployment.

Author Blasts British Jails

Says Train Robbers Put to 'Near Torture'

LONDON (AP) — Author Graham Green today accused the British penal system of imposing something akin to torture on the jailed gangsters who staged the great train robbery.

"A great deal is written about prison life in Communist countries," said Greene in a letter to the London Daily Telegraph.

"Now we learn that in our own out-of-date, overcrowded prisons, a man can suffer solitary confinement for an indefinite time, except for a brief period each day when he is distinguished from his fellow prisoners by a distinctive dress; that he sleeps, if he can, in a cell with an ever-burning light observed by warders every 15 minutes."

The unusual security precautions against members of the gang were disclosed last week following the escape from prison of Charles Frederick Wilson, one of the 12 jailed for last August's 2.6-million pound ($7.28 million) haul in banknotes from the Glasgow-London mail train.

★ ★ ★

Most of the loot has not been recovered, and Wilson, like the rest of the gang, was being held in a maximum security cell.

NO SYMPATHY

Said Greene: "This is very close to torture for the purpose of eliciting information — torture on behalf of our banks is even less sympathetic than torture with an ideological motive."

The author also criticized the "savagery" of the 30-year sentences imposed on seven of the gang comparing them with "a life sentence (12 years at most in practice) for the rape and murder of a child."

He added: "If our legal system sentences a man to 30 years for an offense against property, it is not surprising if some of us feel sympathy for the prisoner who escapes, again with skill and courage, from such a sentence."

Missed Garbage Can to Bring Fine of $1

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)— This city's new garbage collecting contract, opened for bids today, has a provision in it that the firm awarded the contract will be fined $1 for every missed garbage can.

The city said the $1 fine was inserted because of residents' complaints of nonpickups.

Junior Editors Quiz on JENNY LIND

ANSWER: Jenny Lind, one of the most famous of all singers. Our artist drew this portait from a miniature painted on ivory, which was made during her American visit between 1850 and 1852.

Jenny Lind was born in Sweden in 1820. She had a marvelous musical gift from the beginning; an opera dancer, who discovered this, persuaded her mother to have Jenny educated for the operatic stage.

By 1836 she had given her first operatic performance and she became famous almost at once. It is too bad that we have no records to show us just what were the qualities of her singing which made it so outstanding; people spoke of the "glory" of her voice, calling it both rich and warm.

In the opera, she had the gift of conviction; she could enter all the way into the spirit of the part she was playing.

But Jenny's voice was her greatest gift, and realizing this, she gave up the operatic stage to devote herself to concert singing.

Soon she was known all over the world as the Swedish nightingale, this bird being generally regarded as the finest singer with wings. When Jenny came to America, she was managed by the famous promoter of the circus, P. T. Barnum.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try singing once in a while, even if you don't think you have a good voice. Singing tends to make us happy.

Farmers Urged to Hold Back Livestock

CORNING, Iowa (AP) — The National Farmers Organization, complaining of depressed prices, has called for withholding of livestock from the market in a move for greater bargaining power.

The call to growers to keep their livestock off the market went out Wednesday to 23 states from the Rocky Mountains to the East Coast. A similar action was staged by the NFO for 33 days in 15 states two years ago.

"We want people to know where their pork chops and steaks come from and for farmers to receive a fair price," said Oren Lee Staley of Rea, Mo., NFO president.

"The drop in farm prices started some 12 years ago and is now part of a long time trend," he said. "NFO has been making progress in the bargaining field. But this holding action will give farmers the opportunity to suddenly stop their punishment at the market place."

Staley, 41, in his ninth year as president, said the "action will be by far the greatest show of bargaining power that American farmers have ever made."

The NFO, now in its 10th year, seeks to sign processors to contracts, thus assuring a steady flow of livestock to market at predetermined prices.

The minimum prices the NFO seeks are the same as two years ago: $22.75 a hundredweight for No. 1 and 2 graded hogs, $32.45 for choice beef cattle and $29.45 a hundredweight for sheep.

Not since 1958 have hogs brought the NFO asking price. Within the last two years hog prices dropped to $14 a hundredweight. Earlier this year cattle sold for $20.50.

RESULT NOT CLEAR

The result of the 1962 holding action, which was marked by some violence, was never clearly determined. The NFO claimed success. The processors said they were able to get sufficient livestock for slaughter. However, prices paid at the market place did rise slightly.

Staley said the low prices paid for livestock are due to chain store policies. They have "tremendous buying and selling power" and can set the prices to be paid, he said.

Loans Aid Negro in Business

The four all have one thing in common. They are thankful to the Small Business Administration for inaugurating what is known as a "6X6" program designed to aid Negroes.

All benefited by the program which provides loans up to $6,000 for periods up to six years with emphasis on substituting character for collateral. Philadelphia was chosen one of the cities for pilot projects.

"If it hadn't been for the administration, I wouldn't be here today," said Edwards. "I think the SBA loan is about the greatest boon that the small businessman could ever receive. Some of the ideas they gave me have really been a boon. They showed me how to buy supplies so you could get the rock-bottom price."

Edwards received a loan of $3,400.

Mrs. Woods said she was able to purchase equipment she might not otherwise have had.

SOME POINTERS

"We were able to get some pointers on how to keep the business going, finance it, and other things like that. I think it's a very good program. It's a good way to get a business started when you don't have enough money," she said.

Mrs. Woods borrowed $200.

Richardson, who was given a loan of $4,000, said, "If not for these people we might not be in business today because it is very difficult for a small business to get hold of the capital. The amount of collateral a bank demands is too great. I think it's the best thing that's come along for people like us. I think it's one of the best things that ever happened."

Coleman, who received $6,000, summed up: "I have better equipment now and I'm able to get around much more because of the loan. Increased profits from the loan can't actually be seen right away, though I am getting customers I've never had before."

AIDS NEGROES

Philip Savage, tristate secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said the experimental program will help Philadelphia Negroes demonstrate they are good credit risks for private lending institutions.

He said the new program also will help ease the unemployment situation.

Edward N. Rosa, regional director of the SBA's Philadelphia office says the program has been a "tremendous success." He adds, however, that there has been an apparent reluctance among Negro businessmen to take advantage of the program.

Rosa said, however, that of more than 200 loans made since January, about 40 per cent have been to Negro businessmen. He said that in the first five-month period, there were 55 loans to Philadelphia Negroes, compared with only seven SBA loans to Negroes here in the previous 10 years.

WALLS CAME DOWN — A huge earth-moving rig ran amok in Seattle, Wash., yesterday, crushing two cars and tearing off a corner of a hotel. The rig is called a "turnapull," and its driver was the only person injured in the incident. He was hurt by bricks tumbling from the hotel wall.

1st Stop for Beatles Is 'Howling' Success

A capacity crowd of more than 17,000 shrieked as the British quartet sang 11 songs.

"It was quite an ordeal," said Sheriff Earl Whitmore of San Mateo County, who was in charge of 130 deputies.

The faithful — mainly girls 12 to 15 years old — sat through a variety of other acts for an hour and one-half before the Beatles ran unannounced onto the stage, which was protected by a wood and wire fence.

NOISE CONTINUED

Shrieking girls climbed on their chairs and ran down the aisles. The din never diminished throughout the entire act.

★ ★ ★

About a half-dozen young girls were overcome and required first aid. A boy suffered a dislocated shoulder. A girl was bruised.

It was the first performance of a 23-stop North American tour that continues tonight at Las Vegas, Nev.

Promoter Paul Catalina said the gate was around $90,000.

STOP THE BEANS

He was one of many near the stage hit in a hail of jelly beans thrown at the Beatles. Twice officials climbed on stage and urged a halt to the flinging of the jelly beans.

After the show two limousines with police escort dashed from the back of the arena and hundreds of girls followed. The Beatles actually were still in their dressing rooms. They left about one hour later.

U.S. Pilots Bearing Brunt of Viet War

SAIGON, Viet Nam (UPI) — American pilots still bear the brunt of the air war in South Viet Nam and will for a long time to come despite an intensive training program for Vietnamese fliers.

U.S. Air Force Brig. Gen. R. R. Rowland, chief American adviser to the South Vietnamese Air Force, made this clear at a press conference last night.

He said there has been a "significant" increase in the number of combat air strikes flown by Vietnamese pilots.

But he declined to discuss the relative roles of American and Vietnamese pilots in terms of numbers or percentages.

An accelerated flight training program for the Vietnamese "has been paying off," Rowland said, and the Vietnamese will take an increasingly important role in combat flying.

★ ★ ★

Asked if this meant the Vietnamese would soon be able to assume the entire role, Rowland replied, "I wouldn't even be able to hazard a guess on that. It depends on policy decision at home" and on other factors that are uncertain.

20 MONTHS

Rowland has been at his job here about 20 months. He said the number of personnel in the Vietnamese Air Force has doubled since the training program opened in 1962 and the number of aircraft has tripled.

Boris Aimed West, Now Headed East

MOSCOW (UPI) —Boris Khurgin, a young man who wanted to go West, today is going east — apparently to Siberia.

Boris, 19, is the latest Soviet youth to be held up as an example of what happens to those who shun work and loiter around the foreign tourist hotels. His story appeared yesterday in the newspaper Moscow Komsomolets.

Like the others, he tried to adopt Western ways. He called himself Bob and made "crazy plans to escape" the Soviet Union.

The names of the foreigners involved in Boris' case were not disclosed by the newspaper, but it mentioned "well-wishers in California" that he had written.

★ ★ ★

"He was leading the life of a parasite — empty and pitiable," the newspaper said. He contacted tourists in and around their hotels, selling things they would give or sell him on the black market. Finally he met a "professional provocateur."

AFTER SYMPATHY

"Trying to win Boris's sympathy, he told him: 'Yes, Robert' — for Boris liked to call himself Robert or Bob — 'You will be able to unfold your possibilities only in the free world'," the paper said.

The foreigner gave Boris some whisky, and Boris promised him: "I'll run away." Moscow Komsomolets said Boris wanted "foreign clothes that smell of imported sweat and greasy green dollars."

He continued his plans to escape, however, and wrote the people he knew in California:

"I'll try to carry out one of my crazy plans to escape. The next letter I'll write to you will be from Paris or Rome. Thank you for the moral support."

Instead of Paris or Rome, Boris' destination was believed to be Siberia. A Moscow court sentenced him to four years' banishment.

'The Tax Reduction'

By ED LACY

I was having lunch and full of my usual payday anger because out of my pay Uncle Sam had taken a big chunk in taxes.

I can't live on what's left. Being a man of good taste, I wear $200 suits, my stereo and tape recorder are the most expensive, as are my various cameras and radios.

Due to the large tax bite, I have to buy on the installment plan and enough payments were due this week to leave me broke.

We single guys are supporting the country! If I was married, I'd not only get the $600 exemption for my wife, but my weekly tax deduction would be smaller.

★ ★ ★

It burns me. Why should single people be penalized?

ONLY 36

Sure, someday I'll marry but I'm only 36 and have time for that. I don't need a wife, my sharp clothes turn the chicks' heads. In fact, tonight I have an 8:00 date with a most cute number.

Over coffee I happened to read this small item in the newspaper: some rich cat had his pocket picked and lost $1,000.

There wasn't any chance of recovering the wallet but this rich clown told the police, "Well, I suppose I can take it off my income tax, as a loss."

The idea hit me so hard I nearly choked. I'd been a fool! I'd stage a "little robbery" and recover some of my tax money.

CASHED CHECK

I cashed my pay check at the bank, withdrew $500 of the $515 in my savings.

If you're wondering how I was able to save that much, I didn't. I was lucky enough, for a change, to hit a daily double at the track.

Really lucky, because since it was under $600, the track didn't take my name, report the win to the tax boys.

★ ★ ★

On reaching my office, I placed the five $100 bills, plus my pay, inside my sock, knew it was safe every time I took a step. I live in a basement apartment in the "arty" section of town.

SIMPLER IDEA

At first I was going to break one of the three locks on my door, but I had a simpler idea — I merely unlocked and opened the rear window a crack.

Next I phoned the police station and told them, "I wish to report a robbery. I withdrew some money today to pay bills and while I was out shopping just now, some crook came through the back window and took $578."

The officer asked for my name and address and then asked me to repeat my story while he wrote down the details I had given. When I finished he said:

★ ★ ★

REPORTING IT

"No, sir. I . . eh . . found my coat on the floor, the thief must have heard me returning and took off. I'm reporting it so I can at least deduct it from my income tax at the end of the year."

I thought after I mentioned income tax that maybe I was talking too much, but the officer didn't act suspicious.

"We'll send a detective over as soon as possible. In the meantime, check to see if anything else was taken."

★ ★ ★

Shaving for my date, I grinned at my sharp face in the mirror. This year I'd get a rebate from Washington.

READY TO PROVE

I had the window open, a list of my due payments, and my bankbook ready to prove I'd had the money. And of course all the time I was literally standing on it.

The clock read 7 p. m. and no police. I was worried about being late for my date. I thought perhaps he didn't see my name in the bells, so I stood outside.

I was getting jittery, it was 7:30 and I didn't want to stand up this cute babe.

BURLY TYPE

A car stopped and a burly type with detective stamped all over him, stepped out. I told him who I was as we went down the steps into my apartment.

The second I opened the door I saw I'd really been robbed!

While I was outside, some ratfink had come through the open rear window and cleaned me out — taken my suits, my radios, my cameras and recorder!

As I gasped to the dick, "Great day in the morning, I've been robbed of over $1,600 worth of stuff!"

TOOK DESCRIPTIONS

"We'll try the hock shops, of course," the detective said, writing down a description of the things, even the serial numbers of the cameras and typewriter from my time payment books.

"Robbed twice within an hour. The crook must have been watching you from the alley. Not much chance of getting the things back, but, with this loss you probably won't have to pay any income tax at all this year."

I was too sick to bother answering. The devil with the tax, how am I going to replace all my things, not to mention finish paying on the missing cameras and other items?

(The End)

Most of them. And it's been that way for years. To be blunt about it, Gordon's is England's biggest selling gin — as it is America's and the world's. Why? Probably because we have always refused to tamper with a good thing. Gordon's still harks back to Alexander Gordon's original formula — conceived in London 195 years ago — so its distinctive dryness and delicate flavour remain unchanged and unchallenged to this day. # Wagner Returns to NY; Predict Kennedy Support

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner returns to New York City late today amid reports he will then endorse Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate.

Kennedy has said he wouldn't think of running without "express approval" by Wagner, New York State's top Democrat.

★ ★ ★

There were newspaper reports that Kennedy would announce Friday his resignation as attorney general and his candidacy for the nomination.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy backers say he has more than enough delegate votes to win the nomination at the state convention, which opens in 12 days.

QUOTES KIN

The New York Herald Tribune today quoted Stephen P. Smith, Kennedy's brother-in-law, as saying in an interview with Jimmy Breslin:

"I would think that everybody would like this thing cleared up before the convention starts in Atlantic City. By the end of the week, both indicate. Then the mayor will make a statement and the attorney general will resign, by Friday probably, and become available to run for the Senate here in New York."

★ ★ ★

Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of Rochester announced Tuesday he would seek a second term and do it independently of the national GOP ticket, headed by Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona.

Dean Burch, chairman of the Republican National Committee, said Wednesday in Washington that the committee will support Keating, if he is the nominee.

Keating has opposition for the nomination from Rep. Paul A. Fino, GOP chairman in the Bronx, who said Keating's stand was "tantamount to bolting the Republican party."

This raised the possibility of a floor fight at the convention, but Keating was expected to win handily.

Burch also said he does not expect Clare Boothe Luce, former ambassador and wife of publisher Henry R. Luce, to enter the contest on the Conservative party ticket.

Mrs. Luce, cochairman of the Citizens for Goldwater Committee, has announced no decision on whether she would run.

SPEAKING TRIP

Wagner was in Minneapolis and in Fargo, N.D., Tuesday and Wednesday on a speaking trip.

He repeated in Fargo his statement that he has no timetable for revealing whether he will support Kennedy. "I'm not making the selection," he said. "That will be done by the state convention."

Army Hopes Scouting for the Birds

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON — The Army is wondering whether the job of scouting out a hidden enemy may be for the birds. It is paying something more than chicken feed to find out.

The research program already has winged into its second phase.

The results of an initial feasibility study on birds' reconnaissance potential so encouraged Army scientists at the Aberdeen, Md., Proving Ground that a $174,472 contract has been signed with the General Atronics Corp. of Philadelphia.

When the Army awarded the contract, it would say only that it was a "research program of training birds for field surveillance" and that "the project is classified."

A spokesman went a bit farther today in answering questions. "The initial program was a study of the learning ability of birds. In this case, the study was to determine whether a bird can be taught to recognize the presence of a person and, if so, would the bird perform characteristic action indicating such recognition," the spokesman said.

"The feasibility study indicated positively that a bird can be taught and that a bird will perform a characteristic response indicating recognition of the presence of a person.

★ ★ ★

"On the basis of this, a further study is being initiated."

Believes Johnsons' Wealth to Be Issue in Campaign

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman Dean Burch indicates he believes President Johnson and his family are a lot richer than accountants say and that Republicans intend to make a campaign issue of how the first family accumulated its wealth.

Burch, who was handpicked for his job by GOP presidential nominee Barry Goldwater, told a news conference Wednesday that the accounting firm's estimate of the Johnson's wealth at $3,484,098 was "incredibly low." The accounting was made at Johnson's request and the report was released by the White House.

Burch complained that assets were listed on the basis of cost to the Johnsons. He said this was "like listing the value of Manhattan Island at $24." He insisted the fair market value ought to be the basis for assessing the family wealth.

"I don't think the figures, as I've seen them, make any sense," he said.

PLACE WORTH

Some published reports have placed the Johnson family worth as high as $14 million, contending the market value of the Johnson holdings far exceed their book value.

Burch said he found it peculiar that "the bulk of the fortune was made in areas subject to government regulation" over a period when he said Johnson was making an average of $12,000 a year in public service.

Observing that "a public officer must avoid not only evil but the appearance of evil," he said the Republicans want to know whether there was any "influence aired in the government- regulated field."

The accounting firm of Haskins and Sells, directed by the President July 7 to make an audit, reported that on July 31 Johnson, Mrs. Johnson and their two daughters, Lynda Bird and Luci Baines, had assets of $3,682,770 and liabilities of $198,672. This placed their net worth at $3,484,098.

IN WIFE'S NAME

Most of the Johnson holdings were in the name of his wife, Lady Bird. She had a net worth of $2,126,298 compared with $378,081 for the president. Lynda Bird's net worth was $490,141 and Luci Baines' $498,578.

The audit showed that during the last 10 years Mrs. Johnson had drawn $570,856 in salary as an officer of Texas Broadcasting Corp. while her husband was getting $409,730 in salary and expenses. The family interest in the broadcasting company was valued at $2,543,838.

In arriving at the figures the auditors fixed the value of real estate held by the Johnsons at cost, less depreciation for the improvements on the land.

Haskins and Sells said in a letter to the President that the audit "conformed with generally accepted auditing standards." But it added that the amounts listed for holdings in the broadcasting corporation, ranch properties and real estate outside of Texas "are not intended to indicate the values that might be realized if the investments were sold."

Dem Platform Writers Feel Rights Fight Is Avoidable

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Democratic platform drafters were optimistic today that a party-splitting fight over a civil rights plank can be avoided.

As the platform committee moved here to wind up hearings begun in Washington, members from both the North and South spoke hopefully of reaching agreement on a generally acceptable plank.

The civil rights issue, however, may spark a sharp fight in another area — the seating of delegates from Mississippi and Alabama.

The platform drafters' optimism was due in large part to testimony by Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy that he saw no need for a platform promise to seek new civil rights laws. He said he felt the 1964 Civil Rights Act was broad enough to cover the party's 1960 pledges in this field.

STRESS ENFORCEMENT

Civil rights leaders in their testimony emphasized enforcement of the 1964 act and legislation to provide more and better job opportunities for Negroes rather than new civil rights measures.

However, Frederick G. Dutton, the White House aide who is executive director of the platform committee, still tagged the writing of a civil rights plank as the most difficult task for the group.

The committee completed three days of hearings in Washington Wednesday and were to start taking additional testimony here this afternoon with Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze and Gov. Carl Sanders of Georgia among the witnesses.

The hearings are to be concluded Friday and the committee hopes to finish its drafting work late Saturday or early Sunday.

DETERMINED SPIRIT

Kennedy testified Wednesday that what is needed in the platform is "not so much a promise to seek new civil rights laws as a promise to generate the spirit of determination in which our country can and will solve its racial problems."

Pierre Pelham, an Alabama delegate, asked if he meant that no new civil rights legislation is necessary now. "That is correct," Kennedy replied.

The attorney general also stressed respect for law, calling for "a clear reaffirmation of our belief that lawless disregard for the rights of others is wrong when it is used to deny civil rights and that it is wrong when it is used to obtain civil rights."

At the same time, he said outbursts of racial violence often have deep causes and "the causes will not go away simply because we may put more policemen on the street or write a platform affirming respect for the law."

CONTINUE WORK

"We must continue to work, as we have worked, to eliminate the frustrations that create the outbursts," Kennedy said.

This theme was threaded through the statements of Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Martin Luther King, president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality.

Pelham later told a reporter he was pleased Kennedy had not asked for any new civil rights legislation. This sentiment was echoed by other Southerners on the platform committee — David McConnell of North Carolina, Robert R. Richardson of Georgia, Yancy McLeod of South Carolina, Mrs. Carey Salmon of Louisiana and others.

★ ★ ★

McLeod, the South Carolina Democratic chairman, said there now appears to be "a very good chance" of writing a platform that will be generally acceptable in the South. If so, he added, "it could have a profound effect on the outcome of the election."

League Will Start Fund-Raising

The League of Women Voters is staging a finance drive this weekend to raise the funds which they will need for their continued work for good government. Members of the league will call on individuals for financial support.

★ ★ ★

Finance chairman, Mrs. Charles Neldrett, has stated that "because membership in the league is open to all women at moderate cost, income from dues must be supplemented by contributions from civic-minded citizens who wish to aid the league in its work for good government."

★ ★ ★

The National League of Women Voters is spearheading a nationwide "Women Voters Week" Sept. 13-19 at which time the emphasis will be on community-wide plans to get out the vote.

AVAILABLE SOON

The Pontiac league has completed a publication, "Know Your Oakland County Government," which will soon be available. They have also completed a recent study of Pontiac's urban renewal projects and downtown business redevelopment.

Public welfare and the relationship of local, state and federal programs is now under study by the group.

★ ★ ★

Purpose of the league has been stated by Lillian Davidson — "The League of Women Voters of Pontiac since its inception has provided a maximum benefit to its community through its comprehensive voters' service program. The goal this year is to significantly increase registration and voting participation."

★ ★ ★

The league is a nonpartisan group which has as its aim the promotion of informed and active citizens who participate responsibly in government. It does not support or oppose candidates and takes a position on issues only after careful study by its members.

WORKING ON DRIVE

Working with Mrs. Neldrett on the drive are Mrs. John Borsvold, Mrs. Robert Ankeny, Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, Miss Davidson, Margaret Harths, and Mrs. Frederick Holmes.

Use Mister Until Told Otherwise

Q: My husband's office has a family picnic once a year. I know quite a few of the employes.

Each year, however, new ones are added to the staff. When my husband introduces me to a new member at the picnic, he will say, "Mary, I would like you to meet John Brown."

In conversation after that do I call him Mr. Brown or John?

★ ★ ★

A: In spite of today's much more general use of first names, you should call him Mr. Brown unless he asks you to call him John.

This is especially true if he is an executive of the company.

Q: I have never been married, but have a daughter 21 years old who is planning to be married. I am puzzled over the correct wording of the wedding invitations.

Since I have never been married, I cannot use Mrs. and Miss seems all wrong and only tends to emphasize the situation.

I would appreciate your help on this very perplexing problem.

A: In the situation you describe, it will be best to have the invitation worded impersonally in this way:

The honour of your presence

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem may not sound very serious to you, but it has caused a small war between my girl and me.

ABBY

I am a mechanic, 23 and single. I am going with a very nice girl who is 22 and works in an office.

Her office is having a party. (A hayride, of all things.) They decided not to ask anyone who is NOT employed in their office.

That isn't too bad. But the clincher is that no wives or husbands are invited. They are all over 21 and drinks are served.

If I were a married man working in an office, I wouldn't go to an office party if my wife was not welcome.

My girl is on the hayride committee and she says I don't work in an office and I don't know what I'm talking about; that any time you have married couples at a drinking party it always ends up in a drunken brawl.

Am I wrong? Or is she?

MECHANIC

★ ★ ★

DEAR MECHANIC: She is. And, furthermore, if a married person is in danger of becoming involved in a "drunken brawl," he is better off with his own wife.

DEAR ABBY: I am an attractive (I'm told) 23-year-old woman who has more then her share of dates, so please don't think I'm man-hungry.

I have a next-door neighbor who is approximately 26. He has been living there with his brother and sister-in-law for about a year.

I am not the flirty type, so things have been going slow. I know he is shy, and so far the most I have been able to get out of him is a "hello."

I know he is aware of my existence, but that's about it. I don't think he has a steady girl as he's home a lot.

DEAR INTERESTED: Your best bet is to become better acquainted with the sister-in-law.

You can always borrow a cup of sugar. Once she knows you better, if the man is available, interested, and normal, you'll have your chance.

Otherwise, who needs him?

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SAILOR ON THE U. S. S. KITTY HAWK CVA-63": Glad to hear that under that uniform beats the heart of an "old-fashioned" boy who has respect for virtue and womanhood.

Exhibition Depicts Colonial Housewife

WILLIAMSBURG, Va.—"Woman's work is never done"—an aphorism as true today as it was in the eighteenth century—is graphically illustrated in a special new exhibit, "The Colonial Housewife," currently on display here.

Visitors to the official Information Center for historic Williamsburg see sixteen enclosed displays emphasizing concepts still important to today's housewife. These include cooking, conversation, manners and hospitality, gardening, and children.

The focal point of each window is a full-size photograph of an original oil portrait of a prominent Virginia lady. Appropriate quotations and various eighteenth-century accessories complement these pictures.

The originals of these portraits, many representing the Randolph and Bolling families, are on view in such Exhibition Buildings as the Brush-Everard House, the home of George Wythe, or at the famous Wren Building at the College of William and Mary. Designer Peter A. G. Brown, Director of Special Exhibits for Colonial Williamsburg, says the exhibition will remain on display for the next six months.

Eighteenth-century objects vary from a medicine chest with glass bottles and pewter pill boxes to an English spinet. A yarn winder, needlework frame, tape loom and embroidered crewelwork pocket adorn two windows devoted to handwork.

To further emphasize the concept that hands were never idle, the art of painting and drawing is also depicted. Thomas Jefferson supports this belief in a letter to daughter Martha: "Drawing is a pretty pleasing accomplishment."

The over-all exhibit—reading, studying and teaching—again reflects the fatherly advice of Jefferson who explains that his choice of books for daughter Martha is based on "the chance that in marriage she will draw a blockhead" which he calculates "at about 14 to one . . ."

In the window depicting letters and correspondence, Jefferson again writes words of wisdom: "In matters of correspondence as well as money, you must never be in debt."

Pewter platters, creamers, beakers, spoons and measures—common to good cooks now—decorate the cooking section. Garden implements including a large copper watering can adorn the herb and flower garden display.

In a case following a more frivolous vein, visitors see colonial fashions centered around an eighteenth-century dressing table complete with powder and scent boxes, tortoise-shell comb and a pair of silver and paste buckles. Giving additional emphasis to the gayer side is a window on dancing which contains 200-year-old satin dancing slippers. The popularity of this art was described by Governor Sir William Gooch: "I can find . . . not an ill dancer in my Government!"

An open house in the Rochester Masonic Temple Sunday from 2 to 5 p.m. will be held to celebrate the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Whims of Rochester. The Whims were married Aug. 20, 1914. Hosting the reception will be the couple's three children, Mrs. H. C. Klix of Rochester, V. L. Whims of Lake Orion, and Mrs. W. E. Harrison of Milford. The couple also has 11 grandchildren.

State of Toes Report

Step Up to Better Feet

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

★ ★ ★

Step right up, atop a phone book. You're in your bare feet, of course. Now curl your toes over the edge of the book and try to riffle the pages — doing to the pages with the toes what you'd do with your thumb when you riffle a deck of cards.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Abe Rubin, a Washington, D.C., foot expert described the exercise during an interview about the state of the nation's feet.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Rubin, editor of the American Podiatry Association's "Journal" and executive secretary of the association's council on education, has been trying to improve foot care for three decades.

PREVENT DAMAGE

The damage, discomfort and crippling from the constant wearing of high heels, he indicated, is preventable — provided sensible women follow his sensible advice.

★ ★ ★

"I'm not warring on high heels, as such," he said, "just against the constant wearing of same. This throws the weight on the forward part of the foot, contracts the calf of the leg an unnatural way and eventually can cause back pains."

★ ★ ★

Another exercise he recommended: walk around the house in your stocking feet, doing a sort of ballet by raising your toes and the forward part of foot. When you do it properly, you walk on your heels.

Dr. Rubin said the women least likely to damage their feet via high heels are those who wear the proper shoes for the proper occasions.

HIGH HEELS

"High heels," he said "should be reserved for dress occasions because they are dressy shoes. For regular duty —houseworker, office, shopping — you ought to wear comfortable duty-type shoes. For play, wear play shoes."

In town for the annual meeting of the American Podiatry Association, Dr. Rubin also discussed what apparently shapes up as "the common cold of teen-age feet."

"It's a growing problem," he said. "They chew their fingernails in the daytime and tear off the ends of their toenails with their fingers at night."

So what happens? They get ingrown toe-nails, that's what. This, too, is a preventable problem. Dr. Rubin said the teenagers who do this are careless, too careless to trim their nails properly.

DAMAGE FEET

"And they are unmindful of the damage they are doing to their feet," he said.

The expert, formerly director of clinics at the Illinois College of Podiatry in Chicago, said generally the basic thing about foot hygene is — keep them clean.

Has to Share Spotlight

Girl, 4, Jealous of Baby

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE T-449: Donna B., aged 4, has a new baby sister.

"But, Dr. Crane," her worried mother began, "it is Donna who causes us the most trouble.

"If her daddy warns her not to do something, then Donna will deliberately disobey, even though she knows he will give her a spanking.

"What makes a child act so stubborn? It seems stupid to me for her to break rules when she realizes in advance that she will be punished for so doing."

ONLY WEAPON

Donna's behavior may seem stupid to her mother.

But to Donna it is the only weapon she can use to get her daddy and mother to pay attention to her.

It was foisted upon her without proper warning. Her parents never told her in advance nor enlisted her eager anticipation of the new baby.

Alas, Donna's domination of the family spotlight was then at an end, for Mother brought home an intruder or interloper in the form of a new baby.

It usurped the throne, as it were, and commandeered the chief attention of both Donna's daddy and mother.

What to do? Donna felt much like any adult prima donna who has long monopolized the spotlight on the stage but who, without any warning, suddenly finds herself demoted to a minor role in the chorus!

HOLD HER

But they are preoccupied with the new baby.

Many a love-starved youngster will even risk a spanking rather than be ignored.

ACROSS HIS LAP

For if she is spanked, Donna knows at least her daddy will hold her across his lap, so she does receive some physical contact, though it may sting and make her cry.

"Oddly enough," Donna's mother added, "even though we spank her severely, she seldom cries!"

Actually, this is a very tragic and pathetic situation when you understand the outlook of 4-year-old Donna. Her badness is purposive!

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Few women are satisfied with the type hair they have. The familiar sentence, "I can't do a thing with it," is uttered by women with fine hair, coarse hair, straight hair and curly hair.

However it seems to me that fine hair is the most difficult to manage. It falls flat in humid weather and certainly its owner cannot pass for the windblown type.

I have often been walking down Fifth Avenue when other women along beside me didn't have a hair out of place, while mine was flying in all directions.

This type hair cried for a really good haircut more than any other. It doesn't hold a set as well as other types, but if the hair is well shaped it will keep some semblance of a hairdo even if it becomes somewhat limp.

HAIR SPRAYS HELP

The ends should be blunt-cut and it should have a permanent which adds body rather than curls.

If you have this kind of hair never have a cream shampoo or you will really be sunk! The hairdo should be medium in length or even short. This makes the hair appear heavier and thicker.

Those of us who do not have naturally curly hair look with envy at those who do have it. However this is not always an unmitigated blessing. The very curly head can also present problems. It, too, can be unmanageable.

CURLY HAIR DRY

Curly hair is usually dry. Therefore use only cream shampoos. A cream dressing on the ends will help. When you set your hair use the jumbo size rollers and a good wave lotion.

Do not have your hair thinned any more than necessary because the thin ends will curl up in little tendrils.

Extremely curly hair can be straightened by a professional. Be sure that he or she really knows this technique. It can be successful and lasts about as long as a permanent does.

Since this process must be repeated it is best to try to control the curls with measures I have mentioned unless the hair is really kinky and unmanageable. There are conditioners for dry hair which will help.

★ ★ ★

If you are worried because your hair is falling out you may want my booklet "Is Your Hair Thinning?" This gives you the latest information. If so send, 15 cents and a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for it to Josephine Lowman in care of The Pontiac Press.

Dawdlers Reflect Own Pushy Attitude

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: I have a boy, 13, who can't do anything until the very last minute. If I say anything I get accused of riding him.

But if I didn't he would let his laundry accumulate until he didn't have a clean shirt and then I'd get complaints about that. My husband is just like him.

If we're going out, he always has a million things to do at the last minute before he joins us in the car.

He encourages the boy to put things off, finding excuses for him instead of backing me up. . .

ANSWER: You're telling me that your men folk dawdle. Know something? Dawdling is never resistance to collecting laundry or joining us in the car.

It's never resistance to the action we want from the dawdler. It's resistance to some pusher's suggestion that the dawdlers can't move without pushing.

So, if you are involved with dawdlers, you will get nowhere by making issues of collecting laundry or joining you in the car.

The problem is your own secret certainty that your dawdlers are not going to move unless you push them.

It will compel you to continue pushing them until you realize what that secret certainty costs you in tension, exhaustion and resentment.

Can you realize this?

I hope so. Because it is only through a sudden, outraged appreciation of what our pushing costs us that we can stop it.

★ ★ ★

It is only when we can feel our tension and register the exhaustion of our faces in the mirror that we can rise up in defense of ourselves and cry out to our own hearts (or to our dawdlers), "I am more important that collections of laundry or excursions in the car!

DON'T PUSH

"Never will I abuse my valuable energies again by pushing you to do what you don't want to do! If you don't want to move, stand still! Wear soiled shirts until they fall off you!

"Sell the car if you don't want to use it! Whatever you want, I'm through pushing you to want something else!"

So it is a difficult way. For our certainty that our dawdlers will refuse us any consideration is our certainty that we do not deserve consideration.

CONSIDER SELF

Register this, my friend. Because the unpalatable fact is that unless we can show consideration for ourselves, our resisting dawdlers will assume that we can manage without it.

SEW SIMPLE
By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice Farmer: I have two man-made fur coats that need shortening. Can I do this myself or must I have it done professionally?

Dear Mrs. D. R.: Working with man-made fur is much like working with any heavy fabric. It will sew beautifully with your machine, however you must try to avoid too much bulk at seams etc.

Don't use more than 10 to 12 stitches per inch when machine stitching. You may have to catch-stitch the seams to your coat fabric to keep them open.

The most important tip I can give you to keep the seams from showing, is to take a needle and pull the little hairs out of the seams on the right side. When this is done you won't see the seam.

TAILOR TRIX WINNER

When trying to match the color in any of a vari-colored piece of fabric, or for a complete contrast for making a rope belt, buy wide hem-facing which is cut on the bias. The choice of colors is fantastic and since it is already cut on the bias, there is no sewing together of the bias ends of "do it yourself!" fabrics, it's much cheaper, and you have no wasted scraps.

Make a two-piece suit out of your girl's suit when it has become too short. Cut the suit just above the waist for the bra part. It is best to insert a small piece of elastic in a hem to keep it snug fitting.

Also, turn a hem at the waist of the shorts and insert elastic. Not only will you save a few dollars now, but you will give your girl a big thrill with her first two-piece suit.

You can all get into this sewing act and give us some of your fresh new ideas. I thought the "sweat shirt" fad was over, but after spending some time at a large Eastern resort, I find they are more popular than ever. Please send me some of your original ideas (photos, if possible) for sweat shirt variations that can be used for high school and college girls.

I will give Tailor Trix Boards for the six best ideas. Send them today to Sew Simple, in care of the Pontiac Press.

Pep up your basic black dress with a pretty, feminine touch for fall! Make a separate detachable collar of silk organza. Instead of using white, which is always good, but not outstanding, make yours with the top layer of black silk organza and the under layer of white. This will give the collar an intriguing iridescent look and your dress will have a new look.

Hand Coverings With Reptile Look

Reptile looks are creeping into the glove picture for fall and winter.

Glove creator Aris, for one, has set its sights on the denizens of the jungle, putting forth reptile skin coverings for hands. Some of the snake skins are real; others, imitation.

Noise Problem?

Weather Stalls State Launch

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Unfavorable weather forced postponment of another weather rocket shot, Wednesday the third in a series of five, scheduled by engineers from the University of Michigan.

The shots, fired from the Keweenaw Peninsula, are being conducted to show that Michigan could be included in a national meteorological rocket network.

The university said Wednesday's firing was rescheduled for Friday.

The last firing, Aug. 14, of the 8-foot ARCUS rocket, four and a-half inches in diameter, was termed a success by university officials. The rocket reached an estimated altitude of 250,000 feet and radioed meteorological data back to earth.

The first shot, fired earlier this month, was also a success, university officials said.

Delegate Back on Rolls

Democratic State Central Committee headquarters announced Tuesday that Ryan, of Detroit, had withdrawn from the Michigan delegation but Wednesday, State Chairman Zolton Ferency said the announcement "was issued in error."

Ferency at the same time said that Al Barbour of Detroit, president of the Wayne County AFL-CIO, has withdrawn. Ferency also confirmed Tuesday's withdrawal by U.S. Rep. Lucien Nedzi, D-Mich., who is running against Ryan in the Sept. 1 primary.

Kenneth Robinson of Grand Rapids, named Tuesday to replace Ryan on the 102-member delegation, will instead substitute for Barbour.

NO DETAILS

Ferency would not elaborate on reasons for the withdrawals or the mix-up.

A Camp With Feeling

A veteran fisherman with a prize trout couldn't be prouder of his catch than this girl is with hers.

Both are a little scared — the boy and the rabbit — but the event will be a memorable one in the boy's life.

The little girl wrinkles her freckled nose as she slowly runs sensitive fingertips over the tiny fish she holds gingerly in her right hand. A nervous grin tugs at the corners of her mouth and her mind records the image of the first fish she has ever "seen." She had caught it herself only minutes ago.

The boy is nine, maybe ten years old. He is self-conscious as he tries to comfort a struggling furry rabbit just handed to him by a camp counselor. A squeal of nervous laughter reveals his uneasiness. His giggles are caught up by a couple of small friends who are waiting their turn to hold the rabbit, and their merriment echoes through the sun-splashed glade.

A short distance away an intense young ukelele trio strikes a dissonant chord as anxious fingers strum unseen strings.

To the average child, these events are half-forgotten memories of last year's summer camp brushed aside by the press of new experiences. To the children shown here, they are big important moments, images which must be filed mentally by category and event.

They are blind. They see their camp through fingertips made sensitive by reading Braille. Their camp, located at Malibu Beach, Calif., is special.

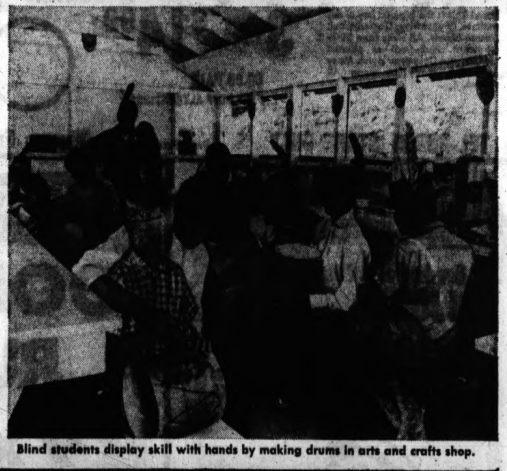

Camp Bloomfield, operated by the Foundation for the Junior Blind of Los Angeles, was organized ten years ago to provide the blind youngsters of Southern California with meaningful experiences to help them grow up as well-rounded individuals. The camp fills a void in the blind child's social life during his school years.

The school years are difficult for blind children. They have little contact with "seeing" youngsters their age. Before the camp was organized, many spent their summers and weekends just sitting and listening to the radio.

K Going to Prague for Official Visit

VIENNA (AP)—Premier Khrushchev will arrive in Prague next Thursday for an official visit, Czech legation officials said here today.

The officials said Khrushchev will attend ceremonies marking the 20th anniversary of the Slovak uprising against the wartime German occupation.

Observers here expect Khrushchev to use the occasion for talks with Czech leaders about the Moscow-Peking feud and the Kremlin's call for an international Communist conference to discuss it.

News From Around the World

Easy Procedure Cited in Divorce Rate Hike

LONDON (AP) — A Los Angeles psychiatrist says the increasing U.S. divorce rate may be caused by easier divorce procedures, rather than a rise in unhappy marriages.

Prof. Norman Brill told the first international congress of social psychiatry, that many people used poor excuses when seeking divorce.

He claimed that interfering mothers-in-law, money problems, nagging, drinking and sexual incompatibility were danger signals, but not the basic causes of divorce. He said immaturity at the time of marriage played a big role.

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — Dominican authorities have arrested seven union leaders in an effort to halt a mushrooming strike which has idled 6,000 drivers of public transport in this capital city.

The Federation of Christian Unions had called a strike of workers in the stores and factories of Santigo, this country's second largest city. The strike started Monday and has spread to stores, factories and the capital's transport system.

The strike started as a protest against a government measure which almost doubles employer and employe contributions to social security funds. The transport drivers are striking because of an increase in gasoline taxes.

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet doorbells are under attack. Even when not ringing, they use up all the power that can be generated by a normal hydroelectric station, a reader writes Izvestia, the government paper.

The reader said that he has discovered that all Soviet doorbells are equipped with tiny transformers which constantly use power.

The writer said he has complained to the government, but was told the design cannot be altered.

BERLIN (AP) — A West German tourist bus, with a dead man aboard, traveled through Communist East Germany and no one but his wife noticed he was dead.

West Berlin police said that Gerhard Batke, 54, a West Berlin businessman died of a heart attack shortly after the bus left Munich and headed for the East German border.

Mrs. Batke said nothing, apparently fearing trouble at Communist checkpoints.

When the bus arrived at the border Wednesday, Mrs. Batke told the Communists her husband was not feeling well. So they only glanced at his identity card and did not attempt to question him.

* * *

'Lack of Soviet Backing Halted China'

LONDON (UPI) —Soviet refusal of support has frustrated any plans Communist China may have had to wage war against the United States in retaliation for U. S. attacks on North Viet Nam, according to diplomatic reports reaching here.

When U. S. planes bombed North Vietnamese naval bases to stop raids by Communist torpedo boats in the Tonkin Gulf, Peking warned that the action would not go unpunished.

But reports reaching here from Peking said the Chinese apparently have put off any settling of accounts and are "cooling off."

Although Communist China has a huge land army, its military means are thought too limited for any major involvement in a war with the United States.

Technically, Communist mutual defense pacts pledge Moscow to come to the aid of any other Communist country that is threatened or attacked.

But these pledges were made before the Sino-Soviet split, and diplomats here said from the start of the Tonkin Gulf crisis that Moscow would not get involved in a war that could only benefit Peking.

Communist Chinese Foreign Minister Chen Yi was reported by the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia to have said Peking regards its 1950 defense treaty with Russia as a scrap of paper.

NOT TOO HOT TO HANDLE—Cincinnati's Reds' slugger Frank Robinson (20) was aroused when Giants' pitcher Ron Herbel hit him with pitch in first inning yesterday; but he wasn't so mad that umpire Pelekoudas wearing mask) and coach Reggie Otero could not handle the situation. Catcher Del Crandall (left) of the Giants is restrained by an unidentified umpire. Robinson later hit two home runs as Cincinnati won, 7-1.

Lions to Help Eagles 'Debut'

Last week the 1964 edition of the Detroit Lions under new owner and president Bill Ford made their home debut in exhibition against the Baltimore Colts.

Next Sunday the Lions will help another team[3] make its home debut under new ownership and a new head coach.

The Philadelphia Eagles were purchased last December for $5,500,000 by Jerry Wolman who immediately set out to rebuild the Eagles' image with a new head coach, Joe Kuharich, new club offices, and a series of six trades which brought in 15 new players.

Now the Eagles are out to prove they will not be the doormats of the Eastern Division as everyone predicts and in the first two exhibition games they have seriously indicated their intentions.

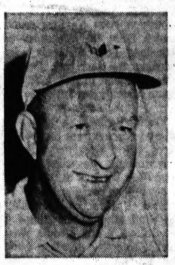

After holding the Baltimore Colts to a 7-7 halftime score they lost 28-17. Last week the Eagles defeated highly regarded Pittsburgh 24-13 and in 70,000-seat Franklin Field Sunday they were keyed up in giving 45,000 fans a first look at the new team.

Norm Snead, who went to Philly from Washington for Sonny Jurgenson, and King Hill have shared the quarterbacking thus far and the big surprise in the running attack has been rookie Israel Lang from Tennessee A & I who has picked up 119 yards in 18 carries from the fullback slot.

Trades have given the Eagles veteran strength at several positions. Center Jim Ringo was obtained from the Packers along with fullback Earl Gros.

Yesterday, the Eagles trimmed their roster to 51 asking waivers on 8-year defensive tackle John Melekas, halfback Paul Dudley, a 3-year player, and rookies Mickey Babb an end from Georgia and Bill Swingle a linebacker from Northwestern.

Rochester Ace Leads 5 Titlists in Tourney

Winningest Champion Uncertain Entrant in 36-Hole Event

By FLETCH SPEARS

A Rochester golfer with a hot putter will return to Pontiac Municipal Golf Course this weekend to defend his 1963 City Medal Play Championship.

He is Lou Mitzelfeld, 43, whose play last year around the greens was near perfect as he carved out a 36-hole score of 142 over the par 69, 5,677-yard course.

Mitzelfeld is one of five former champions who will be on hand for the opening round Saturday. The final 18-hole round will be played Sunday.

Winningest player in the history of the event, Mike Andonian, may be missing when the field tees off Saturday.

★ ★ ★

He plays his first match tomorrow and a victory would move him into the second round on Saturday. "If I lose tomorrow, I'll play in the Pontiac tournament," he said.

SENIOR GOLFER

The senior among the former champions in the group is Kip Inman, who grabbed his first title in 1929 and finished first again in 1945.

Butler Cooper won the title in 1958 and established the tournament record with a score of 68-67—135.

Three-time winner Glenn Harding (1947-48-50) will also be on hand along with Ron Rothbarth (1956).

The field includes 33 other players who qualified in a field of 147 at the course last Saturday.

Mitzelfeld bagged the medal crown on his second attempt. He entered in 1961 but failed to qualify.

If he runs into trouble this year, another Mitzelfeld, the champ's son Tom, could take over.

Tigers Continue Mastery Over Angels

Detroit Rolls to 5-2 Victory

Kaline, Cash Spark Attack With Homers

DETROIT (AP)—It would be a good thing for the Detroit Tigers if there were more teams like the Los Angeles Angels in the American League.

No team has dominated the Angels as much as the Tigers have since the L.A. entry began league play four years ago.

Al Kaline and Norm Cash clouted home runs Wednesday night to carry the Tigers to a 5-2 victory over the Angels to give them an 8-5 edge in the season's series.

BIG EDGE

The Tigers held a 37-17 record over the Angels at the start of the campaign and had won all three previous series.

★ ★ ★

And, the Tigers were just as good on the West Coast as they were at home, recording a 17-7 advantage on the Angels' home grounds, while being 20-10 at Tiger Stadium.

Wednesday night's game looked like another squeaker.

Don Demeter, pinch-hitting for starting pitcher Joe Sparma with two outs in the seventh inning, singled to center to score Bill Freehan with the run that put the Tigers ahead for good.

Cash's two-run blast in the eighth—his 19th home run of the season—gave Fred Gladding a little cushion to work with as he saved the game for Sparma.

KALINE HOMERS

The Angels made the most of their first two hits off Sparma in the third as Bob Rodgers singled, went to second on an infield out, and scored on Gatewood's single inside the right field foul line.

Manager Charlie Dressen said he yanked Sparma because he felt "he just wasn't throwing right. All of his curves were flat."

The Tigers and Angels were scheduled to close out their four-game series tonight with Denny McLain (3-3) and George Brunet (6-6) the probable starters.

Fumbling Yanks Put Chicago Near First

By The Associated Press

While the Chicago White Sox are rushing rapidly toward the top of the American League, the New York Yankees are having trickle troubles.

The White Sox moved to within one-half game of first-place Baltimore Wednesday night, taking advantage of three Yankee errors for four unearned runs and a 4-2 victory. The Orioles lost to Boston 4-3 in 10 innings.

AP Photofax

LOPE ZLIKES LIFE—Three straight wins over the Yankees have made life very pleasant for White Sox manager Al Lopez this week.

Pitcher Jim Bouton and third baseman Clete Boyer were the Yankees who had the trickles.

The malady first appeared in the third inning after the White Sox loaded the bases with two out. Pete Ward grounded to first baseman Joe Pepitone, who tossed the ball to Bouton at first. The throw was in time, but Bouton missed the base, allowing Ray Herbert to score.

THROWS BALL

His error upset Bouton so much that he threw the ball down in disgust. As it trickled near the first base coaching box, Jim Landis, who had reached third on the first miscue, dashed home with the run that gave Chicago a 2-1 lead.

The trickles mushroomed into catastrophe again in the seventh inning when Chicago scored two runs, breaking a 2-2 deadlock.

With runners at first and second and none out, J. C. Martin bunted along the third base line. Bouton grabbed the ball, but his throw to third for the force was too late. But wait. Mike Hershberger slid past the base.

Boyer alertly pounced on the runner, tagging him for an apparent out. But wait again. The ball trickled out of Boyer's glove, and the White Sox had the bases loaded.

Bouton settled down briefly, striking out Cam Carreon. Then, however, he walked Landis for one run, and Pete Mikkelsen replaced him. Don Buford ended the scoring with a sacrifice fly that scored Ron Hansen.

The loss kept the Yankees four games behind Baltimore. In other AL games, Detroit defeated Los Angeles 5-2, Minnesota downed Washington 3-1 and Cleveland outlasted Kansas City 6-4.

BUNTS FAIL

The Orioles also experienced difficulty with a trickling baseball. In their case it was a couple of bunts that rolled foul.

They came off the bat of Boston rookie Tony Horton in the 10th inning with Carl Yastremski at first.

Baltimore sent the game into overtime on Jerry Adair's triple and John Orsino's sacrifice fly in the eighth inning. Orsino earlier had homered for the Orioles as did Boog Powell.

Jim Kaat and Al Worthington pitched the Twins past the Senators. Kaat, 13-6, had a shutout until the ninth. Worthington replaced him after Don Leppert walked and Dick Phillips got his fourth hit, a single. Jim King singled in a run, but Worthington got the next two Senators.

Vic Davalillo drove in three runs and Joe Azcue two for the Indians. All of Davalillo's RBI came on a third-inning single with the bases loaded and two out. The hit broke a 2-2 tie, putting the Indians ahead to stay. Jim Gentile socked his 22nd homer for the Athletics in the fourth.

Detroiter Moves Up in Doubles Tourney

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (AP)—Rudy Hernando of Detroit and Bill Higgins of Lawton, Okla., defeated Ron Holmberg, Brooklyn, and Al Hill, Dallas, 7-5, 12-10, 12-10 in the third round of the National Doubles tennis championships Wednesday.

Hernando and Higgins outlasted Keith Jennings, New Canaan, Conn., and Chum Steele, Cambridge, Mass., 8-10, 6-2, 9-11, 7-5, 7-5 in the second round.

Top-ranked Davis Cuppers Dennis Ralston and Chuck McKinley were pitted against the seventh-ranked team of Cliff Buchholz of St. Louis and Butch Newman of San Antonio in the men's division.

The other two matches had fourth-seeded Frank Froehling III of Coral Gables, Fla., and Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico opposing Arthur Ashe Jr. of Richmond, Va., and Bill Bond of LaJolla, Calif., the No. 6 team.

Form prevailed in the third round on the sun-baked courts Wednesday although the third-seeded men's team of Clark Graebner of Beachwood, Ohio, and Marty Riessen of Hinsdale, Ill., encountered stiff resistance and an unseeded English duo from Oxford University established themselves as the new dark horses.

Graebner and Riessen were trailing 2-1 in sets before they rallied to defeat Rod Susman of St. Louis and Chuck Rombeau of Los Angeles, 6-3, 3-6, 9-11, 6-3, 6-2, in a three-hour match.

★ ★ ★

Lanky Ray Weedon and stocky Tim Phillips of Oxford upset the sensational new duo of 17-year-old Cliff Richey of Dallas and Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., 4-6, 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, 9-7, in two hours and 25 minutes of crowd-pleasing play.

Former Pontiac Champ Leads WMGA Field

Former Pontiac Women's Medal Play champion Mrs. Bobbie Miller fired an 87 yesterday at Rochester Country Club to pace the qualifiers in the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association.

N.Y.'s Riddled Defense Glad to Get Messner

By United Press International

The New York Giants like that extra margin. That's why they acquired linebacker Max Messner from the Detroit Lions for a future draft choice Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Allie Sherman's squad was down to its last three linebackers due to injuries suffered by Jerry Hillebrand and Bill Winter. Two of the three, Lou Slaby and Tom Costello, have seen little National Football League action.

ON SIDELINES

The Eastern Division champs were preparing to unveil Hillebrand against the Washington Redskins and Sam Huff, his predecessor at middle linebacker, for the first time on Saturday; but Hillebrand's injury will keep him sidelined.

Winter will miss action because his knee, operated on after the 1963 season, has been slow in healing.

Tom Moore has become the forgotten man of the Green Bay Packers now that Paul Hornung has returned, but if Packers' coach Vince Lombardi does not want him, George Halas will gladly take him.

Moore, the seventh leading rusher in the NFL last season, was being used behind Hornung as the Packers prepare to meet the Bears Saturday at Milwaukee.

JOB IS TOUGHER

Although both Moore and fullback Jim Taylor were sidelined for last Saturday night's 34-10 victory over the Giants, the Packers still gained 150 yards rushing, which should make Halas' job even tougher.

Draper Wins Canada Play First Round

SASKATOON, Sask. (AP) — Tom Draper of Royal Oak, Mich., a perennial contender in the Canadian Amateur Golf Championships, won his first round match from Don Alexander of Winnipeg 1-up Wednesday by winning the last hole. Draper was a finalist in 1962, losing to South Africa's Reg Taylor.

Bostock advanced Wednesday by eliminating Robert Stimpson of Ottawa 4 and 3 while Weslock, protecting an ailing back by swinging easily, whipped Robert Esdale of Edmonton 7 and 6.

Also advancing were Bunky Henry of Valdosta, Ga.; and Ron Folk of Saskatoon, a student at North Texas State University.

Two rounds will be played today over the par 70, 6,528-yard Saskatoon Riverside Course. The tournament winds up Saturday with a 36-hole final.

Two City Nines in District Play

Two Pontiac softball teams are moving into Port Huron in a bid for a regional title in the Michigan Softball Association's state tournament.

The Class A play was scheduled to open tonight, but rain early today dampened the field and Port Huron officials said the games may be postponed until tomorrow.

300 Bowl, Pontiac's American League champion, was slated to meet Shoffner Appliance of Port Huron in the first game of the two-game knockout series at Memorial field today at 7 p.m. with the winner meeting Top Hat Tavern of Flint tomorrow at 7.

Meeting in the first round of the 'B' play were Flint Sport Shop and Marlow Excavating of Port Huron.

If today's games are postponed, the teams will open tomorrow night. Second round games will be played on Saturday and finals on Sunday.

The 'A' regional winner will advance to the state finals at Midland, Sept. 4-7, and the 'B' titlist moves into state play at Escanaba, Sept. 4-7.

Pupil Battling Tutor in AFL

By United Press International

It'll be a case of the pupil trying to show his old teacher how it's done when quarterback Jacky Lee leads the Denver Broncos against George Blanda and Houston tonight in an American Football League exhibition game on the Oilers' home ground.

Lee, who labored in the shadow of Blanda his entire career, much in the same manner of Lee Grosscup of the New York Giants, who waited in vain for Y. A. Tittle to grow old, was sent to Denver by Houston last week in an unusual "lend-lease" deal.

Backing up Blanda for Sammy Baugh's Oilers will be highly-touted rookie Don Trull of Baylor, who is expected to take Lee's place as second-string quarterback.

In weekend action, Kansas City meets San Diego Saturday on the Chiefs' home ground and play the Raiders on Sunday.

Top Golfers in American Classic Play

AKRON, Ohio (UPI) — A blue ribbon field of 96 golfers, headed by Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, and Tony Lema, teed off today in the first round of the $50,000 American Golf Classic.

Nicklaus, the leading money winner with $96,217 in official earnings, and Palmer, the runner-up in the money derby, were considered favorites because the 7,168-yard Firestone Country Club course favored long hitters.

However, Lema started off in search of his sixth victory of the year. Champagne Tony finished on top in the British Open, the Thunderbird, the Bing Crosby National, and the Cleveland and Buick Opens.

Nicklaus, seeking to move past the $100,000 mark in earnings, had his eye on the $7,500 first prize or the $4,000 second place money. The Columbus, Ohio, blaster had a one-under-par 68 in a practice round Wednesday.

Palmer carded a 68 in his tune-up and although Lema did not report a score, he had a sizzling 33 for a nine hole round earlier this week. The field also included defending champion Johnny Pott, Gary Player, Ken Venturi, Mike Souchak, Juan Rodriguez, Bobby Nichols, and Mason Rudolph. All except Pott are among the top ten leading money winners this year.

Japanese Boxer Dies

TOKY O(AP) — A 22-year-old Japanese professional boxer died Thursday after 82 hours in coma following his sixth round knockout in Tokyo Sunday night.

Featherweight Takashi Hasegawa was the second Japanese pro boxer to die after being knocked out.

NFL Colts to Skip Locker Room Rug

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

It was an advertising gimmick. The carpet company wanted to advertise its product is so durable it could withstand the cleats of football players.

CBS Remains Calm Under Sale Probe

NEW YORK (UPI) —Officials of the Columbia Broadcasting System(CBS) expressed no alarm when they learned the Justice Department's antitrust lawyers are scanning their purchase of the New York Yankees.

"The best legal advice that CBS could get assures us that no conflict with antitrust laws is involved," said Frank Stanton, president of the network, and Board Chairman William Paley in a joint statement Wednesday night.

UPI learned Wednesday in Washington that the Justice Department is conducting a preliminary investigation of the sale of 80 per cent of the Yankees to CBS for $11.2 million.

Battle Scarred S.F. Giants Fall Back Again

By The Associated Press

The Philadelphia Phillies were nursing a six-game lead today in the National League pennant race.

The San Francisco Giants and Cincinnati Reds were nursing welts.

The Phillies built their lead over second-place San Francisco to the biggest of the season by whipping the Chicago Cubs 9-5 Wednesday after the Reds handed the Giants their fourth straight 7-1 in the biggest beanball battle of the season.

The Reds-Giants game was still in the top of the first inning when Cincinnati's Frank Robinson was hit on the left arm by a Ron Herbel pitch. Robinson started toward the San Francisco pitcher but was restrained by Umpire Chris Pelekoudas while Giant shortstop Jim Davenport grabbed Herbel as both benches emptied.

EXCHANGE WORDS

The umpires had to step in only a few minutes later when Robinson started from first base toward Herbel. And, later, when Robinson was retired at second base on a double play, he and Davenport had a few words.

★ ★ ★

"I know when I'm getting thrown at," said an angered Robinson after the game.

"He was yelling things at me I can't even repeat," said Herbel. "I was ready to fight him."

Reds' starter Bob Purkey was hit by a John Pregenzer pitch in the fourth inning, bringing a warning from Pelkoudas and an automatic fine. Prukey, meanwhile, evened the struggle by hitting Jim Hart twice.

In between, Robinson hit two homers and Chico Ruiz collected four hits in support of Purkey's six-hit pitching, pulling the Reds to within one game of the Giants in the standings. The Giants skid has brought them closer to sixth place than first.

Elsewhere, Jim Hickman's grand slam homer gave the New York Mets a 4-2 victory over Pittsburgh, Houston edged the St. Louis Cardinals 8-7 on a run-producing single by Nellie Fox in the 10th inning and the Los Angeles Dodgers outslugged Milwaukee 7-6 with a 14-hit attack.

Robinson was hit by Herbel after Vada Pinson had doubled home two runs for the Reds in the first. Robinson then did some of his own hitting, slamming his 23rd homer in the third inning and No. 24 in the seventh.

Purkey brought his record to 7-7, allowing the Giants only run when he threw wild on a grounder after Hal Lanier doubled.

The Phillies got the job done in the eighth inning, overcoming a 5-4 deficit with a five-run explosion. Clay Dalrymple and Tony Taylor triggered the rally with singles before Wes Covington drove in the tying and winning runs with a pinch double.

The Cubs had snapped a 4-4 tie in the top half of the inning on singles by Joey Amalfitano, Billy Williams and Ron Santo, who earlier hit his 24th homer.

That was more than enough for Tracy Stallard, who had a shutout until Bill Virdon hit a two-run homer in the ninth. Stallard brought his record to 7-16 with a six-hitter.

The Colts tied the score in the ninth when Bob Aspromonte drove in his fourth run with a single after the Cardinals had taken the lead with four runs in their half.

Frank Howard hit his first homer in 25 days and drove in three runs for the Dodgers, who blew most of a five-run lead but held on behind Ron Perranoski's relief pitching. Perranoski struck out Lee Maye with the bases loaded and two runs in, cutting off the Braves final threat in the eighth inning.

Driver Ward, Family Unhurt in Air Mishap

LEBANON, Ind. (AP)—Race driver Roger Ward of Indianapolis, his wife and infant son escaped injury Wednesday night when a single-engine plane crash-landed on Interstate 74 about 3 miles south of here.

The plane's undercarriage was badly damaged.

Ward, 43, a World War II fighter pilot, said the engine on his Beechcraft Bonanza began sputtering shortly after he took off from Weir Cook Airport in Indianapolis. He was en route to Milwaukee, for a U.S. Auto Club stock car race today.

The two-time winner of the Indianapolis 500-mile auto race radioed Indianapolis he was returning for an emergency landing, but said he decided to head for the Brownsburg Airport when the engine trouble grew worse.

Ward told police he did not know the exact location of the Brownsburg Airport and so lined up with the eastbound traffic lane of Interstate 74. He said he kept his wheels up in case he landed in a soft field, but came down instead on the pavement. The plane skidded on its belly into a ditch beside the super highway.

She starred as a professional from 1947-1960. The trip to Pine Lake will be her fifth successive visit there.

State Amateur Hopefuls Fall

Two Ousted in 2nd Duel of Women's Play

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP) — Michigan's two entries in the U. S. Women's Amateur Golf Tournament were eliminated Wednesday in the tournament's second round.

Sharon Miller of Battle Creek lost 2 and 3 against Barbara McIntire, Colorado Springs, the tournament's 1955 and 1959 champion.

Patricia Shook of Saginaw was defeated 2 up by Brigitte Varangot of St. Germain, France, one of Europe's best women golfers.

Marcella Rose of Jefferson City, Mo., who pulled one of the biggest upsets of the day at Prairie Dunes Country Club by defeating Carol Sorenson of Janesville, Wis.

Miss Rose won her first round match Wednesday, 2 and 1, over Carla Glasgow of Whittier, Calif., before coming back in the afternoon second round to even her personal account with Miss Sorenson.

Clay-Liston Promoter to Attend Convention

NEW YORK (AP) — Garland Cherry, a spokesman for Intercontinental Promotions Inc., said Wednesday night he has accepted an invitation to appear at the World Boxing Association Convention in connection with a proposed Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston heavyweight title rematch.

"The return bout between Clay and Liston was tentatively scheduled for late September," Cherry said, "and while we had offers from several cities, it was decided not to pursue any further negotiations in deference to the WBA which has scheduled a hearing on the match."

Relief Pitcher Winners' Star

Don Picmann Tames Cranbrook, 6-3

Huron-Airway relief pitcher Don Picmann did a wrecking job on Cranbrook hopes and put the H-A nine on a solid foundation in the city baseball championship playoffs last night.

* * *

Picmann slammed the door on a Cranbrook comeback and put its back to the wall in the best-of-five series with five innings of shutout relief in a 6-3 Huron-Airway victory.

The triumph was the second straight for the defending city champions and put Cranbrook in the position of having to take three straight to win the title.

The southpaw Picmann, who had displayed limited effectiveness since early in the season, came into the game with three runs in, one out and the tying run on third base in the fourth frame.

* * *

ESCAPES JAM

Picmann escaped the fourth-inning jam after walking the bases loaded, and yielded only two hits and one walk the rest of the game.

* * *

John Lucadam, who drove in only three runs all during the regular season, had three runs batted in last night on a base-loaded double and single. This gives him nine rbi's in five playoff games.

His two bagger accounted for the first two runs and his single drove in an insurance marker in the bottom of the fourth. John Fieser also had a run-producing double in the winners' two-run second inning.

Losing hurler John Billesdon was touched for only five hits but seven walks and three errors kept him in trouble until late in the game.

* * *

The two teams will play again at 7:30 p.m. today at Jaycee Park. All contributions collected at the game will be used to defray the expenses of the city representative in the state Class A playoffs.

Bids for Third Win

DETROIT (AP) — Two-time winner Iggy Katona predicted Wednesday that he would win the 250-mile new car race at the Michigan State Fair Grounds Sunday, Sept. 6. Katona, who won in 1961 and 1962, said he intended to "be the fastest qualifier... and stay in front all the way."

About how its been carefully 'batch distilled',
(Rather than mass-produced)
And aged almost a mile up in the high dry Rockies (Brrrr-)
Truly different. Truly smoother
Truly Canadian (Mmmm-)

YOUR BOAT

By BILL McCORMICK
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Exploring is an often neglected extra added attraction that can lend much enjoyment to boating. You can find interesting places and things you never knew existed and some places you may have seen hundreds of times from land can take on entirely new, and more intriguing, aspects from the water.

In even the most carefully charted waters you often can locate secluded coves and other anchorages that nobody else—including the chart-makers—has discovered. Exploring such places can be delightful fun and entirely safe and sane if you follow certain basic rules.

If you want to get away from it all in tidal waters it is best to navigate at low tide. If the water is clear you can see dangerous bottom when the tide is out—and if you do run aground all you have to do is sit still and wait for high tide to set you afloat.

Most large bodies of water have tributaries and offshoots that are seldom, if ever, sailed and offer fine prospects for exploring. Islands are fertile fields for snooping about and there are thousands of them — from the Bahamas to the St. Lawrence River — that have never been explored.

Abandoned waterfront structures and hulks may offer interesting surprises and there is nothing that quite equals the thrill of becoming acquainted with a quaint off-the-beaten-track village you have discovered by water.

★ ★ ★

Every boatman is a potential Balboa. All you have to go is get out of the main stream and into the out-of-the-way byways.

Benefit Game for Softball 9s

Constellation Leads Cup Finals

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Constellation remained undefeated today in final trials for U.S. America's Cup defenders. With a 2-0 record, she outranks American Eagle, 2-1; Nefertiti, 1-2, and Columbia, 0-3.

★ ★ ★

The New York Yacht Club race selection committee, supervising the trials on Rhode Island Sound, is expected to hold one more round-robin series of three races before eliminating two yachts. The remaining two boats will be pitted against each other until the committee chooses one to face the British challenger.

★ ★ ★

Constellation, which handed American Eagle her first match-race defeat of the current season Tuesday, beat Nefertiti by two minutes and 18 seconds on the 15.3-mile course on Rhode Island Sound Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

American Eagle whipped Columbia by four minutes and 58 seconds in the second race. Constellation trailed Nefertiti for the first 15 minutes. But when the beamy craft from Marblehead tacked and tried to cross Constellation's bow, Bob Bavier put Constellation under Nefertiti's lee bow, backwinded her and forced the Marblehead boat back on the other tack to leeward.

★ ★ ★

Bavier kept Nefertiti pinned down the remainder of the first leg and rounded the mark one minute and 56 seconds ahead. Constellation rolled up a four-minute lead on the second leg and held it through the third.

★ ★ ★

Columbia's crew required 45 seconds after the start of her race with American Eagle to break out the Genoa jib. By then American Eagle had a 200-yard lead. She increased that to two minutes and 50 seconds at the first mark and to four minutes 18 seconds at the last mark.

★ ★ ★

The race was trimmed from its normal 24.3-mile distance because a southwest wind failed to come up until 2 p.m.

LBJ's Musical Draws Little GOP Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson threw a lavish party Wednesday night to sing the praises of the 88th Congress, but Sen. Barry Goldwater and most GOP leaders chose not to sing along with Lyndon. They didn't show.

* * *

Johnson invited all members of Congress — Democrats and Republicans — to join him in watching a fast-paced musical extravaganza on the White House lawn, then mix under lantern-festooned trees for small talk and vittles.

In between, he delivered a 15-minute speech praising the current Congress as constructive, compassionate and cooperative.

"This session of Congress," he said, "has enacted more major legislation — met more national needs — disposed of more national issues — than any other session of this century or the last."

BIPARTISAN RECORD

He emphasized that the record of the 88th Congress was written by "votes from both parties."

* * *

All the top congressional Democrats were on hand. But only Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel of California, the GOP whip, was present to represent the Republican hierarchy.

A temporary stage was set up on the lawn for the Broadway-style show produced especially for the occasion. In quick tempo, the professional cast socked out campaign songs of history, from "Tyler and Tippecanoe" to "I Like Ike."

One number was interrupted by a burst of spontaneous applause, when the singers and dancers came forward with Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign anthem, "Happy Days Are Here Again."

RECALLS KENNEDY

There was another emotional interruption, during Johnson's talk. That was when the President expressed the wish that the late President John F. Kennedy could have been present to thank the legislators "for helping see that his dreams came true."

Johnson himself said "thank you" for congressional passage of a string of Kennedy-initiated measures: the civil rights law, the biggest tax cut in history, hospital and education legislation. He also mentioned passage of his own "war on poverty" program.

The President said the record of the 88th Congress shows that "there has been this year no stalemate in our system, no deadlock in our democracy."

He said he and the Congress have not been locked in battle but "locked arm-in-arm instead, battling for the people we serve together."

AP Photofax

READY FOR SHOW — President and Mrs. Johnson (right) settle back to enjoy the show on the south lawn of the White House last night at a "Salute to Congress" program, to which all congressmen were invited by the President. Other couples are Sen. and Mrs. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., (left) and House Speaker and Mrs. John McCormack, D-Mass. Rep. Victor Wichersham, D-Okla., is in second row between Humphrey and Mrs. McCormack.

Barry Death Threat Brings Fast Switch

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) —A telephoned death threat yesterday caused a hurried change in plans in the plane flight of Sen. Barry Goldwater back to Washington.

A caller told the Springfield Police Department that Goldwater would be shot between 3:30 and 4 p.m., so the GOP presidential candidate's plane, due at Washington at that time, switched destinations as a precaution.

Goldwater has had at least two other death threats, one in Washington and another at his Phoenix home.

In Springfield, the FBI and city police said they were not investigating the reported threat. The FBI said it had simply relayed the police department's warning to Goldwater's party.

Lt. Clifford Baity of Springfield police said they would not investigate "because nothing happened and Goldwater's not in Springfield."

The death threat came at 12:52 p.m., when the police department received a long distance call from a man who identified himself as Lt. Bruce Allen.

"There is going to be a hit on Goldwater," the man told Det. Sgt. John Nolan. "Do you know what a 'hit' is?"

* * *

"Yes, that he's going to be shot," said Nolan.

HUNG UP

"That's right," said the caller.

When "Lt. Bruce Allen" was asked what police department he was calling from, he answered "Chicago," and hung up.

The only immediate clues to the origin of the call were that it came from a pay phone and the caller was asked by the operator to deposit $1.75 before the call began.

* * *

Effect of Drought on Plains States Spotty

KANSAS CITY (AP) — There is a drought in the nation's mid-section.

Just how bad depends on to whom you talk and where he lives.

Crops planted early did pretty good. Those planted late are struggling. Livestock is running out of pastures. Some townfolks are conserving dwindling water supplies. Fishermen find vacations marred by lowered streams and lakes.

The government has released soil bank acreage in wide areas to keep cattle from being dumped on the market for lack of feed.

On the plus side, wheat farmers who have just about finished their major effort for the year turned in pretty fair crops. Early corn is going to be good in most places, and alfalfa has been through two cuttings.

WEATHERMAN'S FAULT

Spring rains were generally good, clear through June. Then July turned hot and dry, climaxing early in August with a heat wave that shot temperatures in many sections higher than they had been since the real drought of the mid-30s.

After this came a cool spell that in Missouri and Kansas dropped the thermometer some 20 degrees below normal for this time of the year.

As nearly always, there's still hope things will improve—if . . .

PICTURE BY STATES

Nebraska — Crop production expected to be lowest since 1956 unless there is a turn in the weather. General water shortage reported with irrigation canals closed all along North Platte River from near Ogallala to Wyoming border. Federal government designated 13 counties as disaster area, releasing soil bank lands for grazing, but Omaha union stockyards report no wholesale unloading of cattle yet.

Colorado — State Agriculture Department says drought "in some areas as bad as in the 30." Winter wheat in southwestern section suffered 50 per cent damage with loss estimated at $50 million.

SPOTTY DAMAGE

Kansas — Government declared 76 counties disaster area but damage spotty. Wheat crop will be about seventh largest on record. Corn and sorghum prospects fair. Livestock in western areas hurt by burnt-out pastures and come culling of herds under way. Some areas having to haul water for both stock and humans.

Missouri — Early corn expected to produce good yields but late fields need rain. Government has designated 59 counties as disaster areas. Soybeans declining and cotton in bootheel beginning to show drought damage.

Oklahoma — Recent rains improved outlook for cotton and already harvested wheat crop was 24 per cent more than 1963. But corn, sorghums, oats and barley about 17 per cent under last year and 39 per cent below 1958-62 average.

Texas — Cotton products revived by recent rains and harvest already under way. Pasture and other crop prospects also improved but pastures still in bad shape.

HARDEST HIT

Arkansas — Recent rains helped a lot but northwest counties still in trouble. Heavy culling of livestock herds reported and some farmers already feeding winter hay. Corn crop badly damaged but big money crops such as cotton, rice and soybeans in eastern part of state in good shape.

Warring Millionaire Succumbs in Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) —Ivor Thord-Gray, 86, reportedly a millionaire who spent most of his life in war, died Tuesday night.

Thord-Gray, a Swedish-born American who fought African Zulus for the British in 1906 and later joined the rebel army of Pancho Villa to help capture Mexico City, was not content with peaceful assignments. As a scholar, Thord-Gray compiled a dictionary of the native tongue of the Tarahumara Indians of Mexico.

CONVENTIONS AND CRISES/ The Democrats

by Don Oakley and Ed Kudlaty

The nation was still suffering from the effects of the business depression of 1893 when the Democratic party met in national conclave in Chicago in July 1896.

The "Gay '90s" were anything but that for millions of Americans struggling under low wages and long hours — if they were lucky enough to have jobs.

A strong third party had come on the political scene in 1891 — the Populist — an amalgam of farmers and laborers, Chief among its aims, which included the graduated income tax and eight-hour day, was to base the monetary system on silver rather than gold.

As so often before, the Democrats were divided. Democratic President Grover Cleveland stood solidly for the gold standard but was opposed by the majority of his party.

CONVENTION OPENS

As the convention opened, the battle between the free-silverites and hard-money men was joined over the seating of delegations. Silver quickly proved stronger than gold.

Then the young leader of the Nebraska delegation, William Jennings Bryan, was asked to address the delegates.

Only 36, Bryan was a former congressman who had opposed Cleveland's gold policy and won fame as a spellbinding speaker.

The "Boy Orator" with the silver tongue (but not throat of gold) delivered one of the most famous speeches in American history, ending with the memorable lines:

"You shall not press down upon the brow of labor this crown of thorns; you shall not crucify mankind upon a cross of gold!"

In the campaign of 1896, eight parties were in the field. Even the Prohibitionists had split in two over the money issue. Gold Democrats had bolted to form the National Democrats.

BRYAN CAMPAIGNS

Bryan had the support of the Populists and National Silver Party as well as the Democrats. He traveled 18,000 miles and made hundreds of speeches in a hard-hitting campaign.

★ ★ ★

Yet in the end, the voters chose McKinley's "Full Dinner Pail" over a silver lining in the sky.

Unseen Cong Target of Special Forces

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Special Forces captain and I were out in a small motorboat in the middle of the Mekong River in South Viet Nam just east of the Cambodian border.

He pointed to the river bank on our left. "Viet Cong forces are all along there," he said. He pointed a little ahead on our right. "The Viet Cong are also there," he added.

I didn't see any Viet Cong or hear any shots. I still have no way of knowing whether any Viet Cong were patrolling at the moment.

That is the eerie part of this war. You don't see the enemy.

★ ★ ★

For all I could tell, I was as safe as I would be along a country river at home in the United States. Or, I could have been in the sights of a Viet Cong rifle.

ALREADY SEEN

Officers assured me I'd already been. I have no way of knowing whether that was the case.

"You see that little imitation houseboat over there?" asked the captain. "And that small landing craft. We have a recoilless rifle and a machine gun mounted on the houseboat and troops loaded on the landing craft. We have them slowly patrolling that side of the river close to shore — so inconspicuously that no one notices them.

"Then we take the motorboat we're in right now and run up and down openly on this side of the river. We're bait, you see. Then the Viet Cong attack and we duck and run.

★ ★ ★

"The houseboat and the landing craft push over fast from the opposite shore and attack the Viet Cong who have exposed themselves. If we're fast enough, we maul them a little."

20-MILE SECTION

The captain's special forces outpost has the job of defending a 20-mile section of the Vietnamese border against infiltration of Viet Cong troops from sanctuaries in Cambodia. Because the land is so marshy, his men do their patrolling in boats.

This Special Forces advanced detachment of 12 American officers and men had trained several companies (exact number secret) of native Vietnamese into special guerrilla detachments to constantly patrol their 20 miles of border area.

They were working day and night. But they don't have enough men to do a compelte job.

★ ★ ★

It was clear the Viet Cong were moving out of their Cambodian sanctuary, making attacks in Viet Nam, then moving back into safety in Cambodia. There they rest, regroup, refit and train.

ARMY STOCKADE

There was a wall around a small compound with machine gun emplacements every so often. There was a watch tower in the center with a 75mm recoilless rifle and a machine gun mounted to fire over the walls.

This Special Forces detachment was a sitting duck for Viet Cong to sit outside and fire in with well-aimed mortar fire.

"In fact," one officer told me, "you see this group of 100 or so Vietnamese lined up outside the compound for free medical care. Well, we know some of them are Viet Cong. We treat them the same as anyone else when they want to see the doc.

★ ★ ★

Defeat GOP, Negroes Urged

DENVER (AP) — Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, urged Negroes last night to help defeat the Republicans in the presidential election.

"Let's not spend time picketing, marching and demonstrating," Wilkins said at the convention of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, an organization for Negro college graduates. "Right now the target is the kind of philosophy which came out of San Francisco."

He said he attended the Republican National Convention and found frightening "the thought, intensity and fanaticism" of participants.

"I'm not telling you how to vote," Wilkins said, "But anyone who doesn't know by now might as well vote for the other side."

Milliken Forms Units for Nomination Bid

LANSING (AP) — Sen. William Milliken, R-Traverse City, says he is forming committees in all Michigan counties to carry out his campaign for the GOP nomination for lieutenant governor.

Milliken, Senate majority floor leader, said he has appointed R. Dale Biggs of Midland as chairman of the Midland County committee.

Plane in Test Area Forced to Land

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Aerial security officers forced a private plane to land yesterday as it flew over the Nevada test site an hour before detonation of a low-yield underground nuclear blast.

The explosion was the 12th announced this year.

Aboard the plane were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gimberlin of Colusa, Calif., who told Atomic Energy Commission security officers they were en route to Reno, Nev.

★ ★ ★

They were questioned and released after the test blast, which the AEC said was equivalent to 20,000 tons of TNT.

Tshombe Begins Roundup of Foes as Fighting Rages

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Premier Moise Tshombe moved today to oust thousands of citizens of nations accused of undercutting his regime, as fighting raged in the East Congo city of Bukavu invaded by rebel forces.

As the spreading Communist-backed rebellion seemed to take a turn for the worse, Tshombe said he believed a report that Peking-trained rebel leader Pierre Mulele, 33, was dead. Diplomatic sources, however, believe the former Congolese education minister was alive in Brazzaville, the former French Congo.

* * *

Government forces in Bukavu were reported pushed back to the city's European quarter, but Col. Leonard Mulamba said he believed he could retake the rebel-held part of the city if reinforcements were available. U.S. cargo planes airlifted two loads of troops and supplies to the besieged city during the night.

The U.S. Embassy said that its seven or eight-man staff in Bukavu fled to neighboring Rwanda after heavy street fighting erupted Wednesday. A plane load of 40 refugees, mostly U.N. personnel, arrived in Leopoldville Wednesday night.

800 TROOPS

A government garrison of some 800 troops was fighting to salvage the city, capital of central Kivu Province and the only important city in the turbulent northeastern Congo still under government control.

The rebels, who hold an estimated 25 per cent of this vast and mineral-rich nation, captured the key city of Stanleyville two weeks ago.

* * *

The Bukavu uprising came after a government order in Leopoldville to deport citizens of Brazzaville, Burundi and Mali whose governments are accused of backing the revolt.

Denouncing the governments as accomplices of Communist China, Tshombe told a news conference that his order would be lifted only if their support of the rebellion ends. He accused China of moving to use the Congo as a base to take over all of Africa.

MASS ROUNDUP

It was not known how many persons would be deported but some estimates were as high as 50,000. Authorities began a mass roundup for the 20-minute ferryboat ride across the Congo River to Brazzaville.

Commenting on the Mulele death report, Tshombe said he was satisfied with evidence that the rebel leader had been killed Leopoldville radio carried a brief announcement of the reported death.

* * *

Tshombe said several thousand Watusi refugees from Rwanda were trying to move through Bukavu to invade their homeland. Rebels and Watusi slaughtered two French U.N. officials north of Bukavu on Monday.

In North Katanga, government forces reportedly recaptured the farming town of Kapona. Reports from Europeans in Baudouinville, 60 miles west of Elizabethville, said 40 rebels were killed in the assault.

A dispatch from Brazzaville said that Congo Republic has called on the Organization of African Unity to name a committee to investigate deteriorating relations between the two Congos.

TRIO OF PEACHES — Flanking 1964 Michigan Peach Queen Pamela Cummings are first maid of honor Nancy G. Shadrick (right) and second maid Barbara Walter. The three were picked from among representatives of 12 communities last night in Romeo. During the four-hour contest, they appeared in both street and formal attire, gave readings, were interviewed and answered questions of the judges.

Work to Begin on Area Plant

OXFORD — Within the next month, ground will be broken here for a new, 60,800-square-foot factory, slated for completion early in 1965.

Officials of Bopp-Decker, Inc., manufacturers of double-wall food and beverage vessels made of Polypropylene under the brand name "Vacron," decided in June to build a new factory here.

The firm now has manufacturing sites in both Royal Oak and Birmingham and has outgrown these sites, according to Julius Decker, president.

The factory, to be located at East Drahner, just off M24, northeast of the railroad tracks, will take advantage of existing railroad tracks and a water hole located on the factory grounds.

* * *

The New York Central Railroad will put in a spur to the factory, as most of the production is shipped by rail, and the water hole will be used as a discharge point for water used to cool factory machines.

PRESENT PLANS

Present plans call for warehouse and production space only in the Oxford plant, although architects have made provision for the addition of office space in the front of the building when needed.

The "Vacron" line includes mugs, tumblers, bowls, juice glasses, coolers, soup cups, pitchers, ice buckets, serving bowls, percolators and place settings.

"Vacron" products are sold largely to supermarket chains and other businesses for use as free gifts to customers.

CREATE PROGRAMS

Bopp-Decker helps create all the necessary promotional and advertising programs to go with the products themselves.

* * *

Present production plans call for a 24-hours-a-day operation, six days a week. The majority of employes in the new factory are expected to be women, but men will be needed to operate a number of machines.

FRINGE BENEFITS — Employes of the Galman Instrument Co., Ann Arbor, can sink their teeth into one of their fringe benefits. The company has planted six acres of corn, two acres at a time to stagger the harvest, next to the firm. It was done for the benefit of employes, some of whom are shown gathering corn after their day's work was finished.

State Dems Prepare for Party Convention

By RICHARD PYLE
Associated Press Writer

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Democrats, mindful that they may be tapped for important roles on two major issues, were getting ready today for their party's 1964 national convention.

A 500-member group, including 102 delegates, 92 alternates, staff and families will represent Michigan among the thousands converging this weekend on the hotels and motels along the boardwalk in Atlantic City, N. J.

* * *

The convention opens Monday in that city's convention hall, the largest facility of its kind in the world. By that time, Michigan delegates may know whether they will have key parts in one—or both—of two possible controversies.

The big question is the selection of a vice presidential running mate for President Johnson.

SUPPORT TO HUMPHREY

Should a contest develop, Michigan's delegation might throw its support to the expected bid of Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D-Minn., for the Democratic nomination for vice president.

Humphrey is considered the favorite, with his fellow Minnesotan, Sen. Eugene McCarthy, also being mentioned as a strong possibility. The formal selection will come Thursday.

Humphrey is well-known to many veteran leaders in the Michigan Democratic party. In a recent poll of the delegation by the Associated Press he emerged an overwhelming choice.

One key Michigan delegate, noting that Humphrey is attractive to many state Democrats for his record and leadership in civil rights, warned that McCarthy should not be discounted.

"The Michigan delegation can be expected to go along with President Johnson's choice no matter who it is," he said. "We don't want a repetition of 1960."

The reference was to the fact that Michigan Democrats at the 1960 convention opposed the choice of Lyndon Johnson as the vice presidential nominee and wound up on the losing side.

* * *

In a meeting in East Lansing, Aug. 9, Michigan delegates adopted a resolution saying Johnson should have a "completely free hand" in selecting his running mate.

"We ain't got any other choice anyway," Michigan AFL-CIO President August Scholle, who sponsored the resolution, told his fellow delegates.

SEATING ISSUE

The other issue in which Michigan may have a prominent part is the demand by a predominantly-Negro group known as the "Freedom Democrats" to sit as the Mississippi delegation.

That fight would come earlier, if at all, depending on action taken by Saturday's crucial meeting of the convention's credentials committee.

* * *

A resolution adopted at their June 13 state convention pledges Michigan Democrats to back the demand of the "Freedom Democrats" against the all-white regular delegation from Mississippi.

MINORITY REPORT

If that committee agrees to seat the all-white delegation, Michigan and several other states who also approved the "Freedom Democrats" resolution would be expected to join in a minority report carrying the fight to the convention floor.

At least one Michigan delegate, Negro attorney Alphonso Harper of Detroit, has expressed personal concern that the state delegation might bow to pressure to seat the all-white group, or to a compromise in which both were seated with votes divided.

Diggs has said, however, that if there is a fight, Michigan will be in the vanguard."

Michigan's delegation, though composed of 102 members, will have 92 votes. Two of these are whole votes held by the national committeeman and national committeewoman, with all others holding 9-10ths of a vote each.

The Michigan group, headed by Sen. Patrick McNamara, D-Mich., will occupy most of the 14-story President Hotel and Motel, located on the boardwalk for which the ocean resort city is famous.

Seeing Not Believing in Colon

Starting today women will be sawed in half, people will be burned alive, and enough rabbits will appear out of hats to make stew sufficient for a platoon of restaurant customers.

Oranges will grow on a tree. And first you see something, then you don't see it.

About 1,000 magicians who make a living fooling people or do it just for kicks, have converged on Colon for their annual Magic Convention.

Although there will be public shows, the illusionists will view new tricks, see the old ones refined, and attempt to fool each other today in a "Magician's Only Parley."

OWN STANDBYS

Most magicians know all of the standard tricks but some of them have their own private standbys which they zealously guard from other members of the fraternity.

One of the most polished modern illusionists is Roy Huston. Huston has several eye-appealing illusions, including the "burned alive" act and his own version of the "girl without a middle," a version that has baffled even magicians who do the saw-the-girl trick.

The early arrivals yesterday were shown new mechanical tricks produced by Abbott's Magic Novelty Co. of Colon, and many of them swapped tales and trends with other members of the fraternity.

* * *

Ex-FBI Agent Sentenced for Bank Robberies

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A former FBI agent who once served in Detroit, received five sentences of 12 years each Wednesday in U.S. District Court after pleading guilty to bank robberies in Seattle and Salt Lake City.

Robert Louis Hagenston, 36, Culver City, Calif., was convicted in April of robbing a Portland bank and attempting to hold up another.

* * *

Judge John Kilkenny said the sentences would run concurrently.

Tot Turns Turnkey, Locks Self in Cell

SOUTHFIELD (AP) — The new Southfield Police Department jail has apparently reformed its first occupant — even before work on the structure is completed.

Four-year-old Stuart Sklar of suburban Southfield became the jail's first prisoner recently when he apparently toddled into a cell and closed the door behind him.

Stuart was sprung by his parents—Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sklar—after a 90-minute incarceration. Mrs. Sklar says Stuart has been behaving better since then.

County Clerks End Kalamazoo Confab

KALAMAZOO (AP)—The Michigan Association of County Clerks closed its three-day convention here Wednesday with election of officers.

* * *

Nevada Fires Under Control

Behind them, they leave:

● More than 350,000 acres of charred rangeland. Much of it was valuable to northeastern Nevada stockmen for grazing their cattle.

★ ★ ★

● A Boise, Idaho, pilot dead when his plane crashed Sunday after bringing a fire crew to Elko, and two Elko County ranchers seriously burned trying to stop a blaze.

CREWS GO HOME

Paychecks started going out today and four-engine Forest Service planes were ready to fly the fire crews home to points throughout the West. Many of the men had been on the line since Saturday.

A crew of 111 men was still posted on the worst and most stubborn blaze, the 200,000-acre Boulder Flat-Maggie Creek fire which burned a stretch of grass and sagebrush 75 miles long to the west and northwest of Elko

It was controlled Wednesday afternoon by an assault team of 1,000 fire fighters. Skeleton crews mopped up five other blazes. The crews had totaled 2,300 men.

RESEEDING PLAN

The Bureau of Land Management is working on a proposed rehabilitation plan officials hope will get quick approval by Congress. It calls for reseeding much of the burned range.

"We hope to get funds at an early date so we can do land treatment work before we suffer losses from erosion and noxious weeds," said J.R. Penny, state BLM director.

Gov. Grant Sawyer of Nevada and the state's congressional representatives have urged speedy federal action to help distressed stockmen. The director of emergency planning, Edward McDermott, said President Johnson had promised all possible assistance.

However, it will be two years before cattle can graze any restored land. As Peter Marble, state cattle association president, put it: "What is burned is burned."

★ ★ ★

New Zinnemann Film Not Masterpiece

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Behold a Pale Horse" falls short of being a masterpiece by Fred Zinnemann, but any film by the Vienna-born creator is an important event.

THOMAS

This is Zinnemann's first movie in four years, the last one being the poignant study of family survival, "The Sundowners." He then tried to fashion a filmable tale from James Michener's massive "Hawaii." He wanted to make two movies from the novel; United Artists wanted one. Impasse.

The director interested himself in the Emeric Pressburger novel, "Killing a Mouse on Sunday." It was a story of the aftermath of the Spanish civil war.

The project brought trouble from the start. The Spanish government placed a ban on all activities within the country of Columbia Pictures, which was sponsoring the film. The Spaniards didn't like the book, and now Zinnemann reports they don't like the movie. Columbia is still banned.

DIRECTOR CLAIMS

The director claims "Behold a Pale Horse" is no more political than movies that show American police in a bad light. But the division of good and evil is plainly evident.

★ ★ ★

The good guy is Gregory Peck, an aging, irreverent guerrilla who has continued the war long after his side has lost, making forays from his exile home in France.

The bad guy is Anthony Quinn, a corrupt, adulterous commandant of the Guardia Civil, Spanish national police force. For years he has been bedeviled by Peck's raids across the border. Now, with the guerrilla's dying mother as bait, he sets a trap.

The confluence of opposing forces was masterfully portrayed by Zinnemann in "High Noon," perhaps the perfect Western. He uses the same technique in "Behold a Pale Horse." The pace at first is deceptively slow, filled with seemingly extraneous incident.

PACE QUICKENS

Then the pace begins to quicken and the incidents fall into a pattern. The buildup comes to a violent, shattering climax.

It is in the climax that "Behold a Pale Horse" seems to fail to achieve greatness. Peck's final show of defiance appears a pointless waste of life, including his own.

Peck creates one of his finest characterizations since "The Gunfighter," in which he had a parallel role. Quinn is his blustery self, and Omar Sharif is sympathetic though passive as a priest caught in the crossfire.

Ruby: Oswald Stranger to Me

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Ruby reportedly told the Warren Commission he never knew Lee Harvey Oswald, President Kennedy's accused assassin, and that his compassion for the president's widow led him to kill Oswald.

That information came from the New York Journal-American, which is publishing under copyright a 102-page transcript of a three-hour interrogation of Ruby by Chief Justice Earl Warren in Dallas last June 7.

The account is written under the byline of columnist Dorothy Kilgallen, who said she obtained the transcript "through sources close to the commission in Washington."

In yesterday's second installment Ruby is quoted as saying of his shooting Oswald:

★ ★ ★

"Of why that Sunday morning — that thought never entered my mind prior to that Sunday morning when I took it upon myself to try to be a martyr or some screwball, you might say.

"CARRIED AWAY"

"But I felt very emotional and very carried away from (sic) Mrs. Kennedy, that with all the strife she had gone through — I had been following it pretty well — that someone owed it to our beloved president that she shouldn't be expected to come back to face trial of this heinous crime.

"And I have never had a chance to tell that, to back it up, to prove it. Consequently I am being victimized as part of a plot in the world's worst tragedy and crime at this moment."

In the transcript, Warren repeatedly asked Ruby if he knew Oswald prior to the shooting. Ruby is quoted as saying:

★ ★ ★

"I never knew Lee Harvey Oswald. The first time I ever have seen him was the time in the assembly room when they brought him out, when he had some sort of shiner on his eye."

AFTER ASSASSINATION

Just a few hours after President Kennedy was killed, Ruby mingled with newsmen in the assembly room of Dallas Police Headquarters and saw Oswald.

★ ★ ★

Broken Exhaust Kills Girl

The girl, Brenda Nayler, of Holden, Mo., was being transferred from a Warrensburg, Mo. hospital to Kansas City for treatment of cuts and a leg fracture suffered in a highway accident Saturday.

* * *

Brenda was dead and her mother, Mrs. Hirschel Nayler, and Dr. A. M. Ziegler of Holden were unconscious when the ambulance arrived.

James Rutlander, Jackson County coroner, said the broken exhaust apparently allowed carbon monoxide to enter the rear section of the ambulance through a vent.

About 27,000 Americans die yearly in accidents in the home, twice the number killed while at work.

Last Year's Angry Climate Has Mellowed

New Atmosphere to Greet School Integration in Alabama

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A year ago, time ran out and Alabama came face to face with classroom integration in an angry climate of fear and violence.

Gov. George C. Wallace mobilized his state troopers to keep the Negroes away, but the racial barriers came down as the federal courts said they must. The tensions eventually subsided, and, except for Tuskegee, the Negroes went to class almost unnoticed.

* * *

Another school year is at hand; there will be still more integration — much more. But the atmosphere has changed. The muttered threats have been muted. Community leaders have spread the message that violence will accomplish nothing.

There is a changed climate in the governor's office, too, although Wallace has not conceded the workability of integration.

NO LONGER AT DOOR

Nevertheless, he no longer stands in the schoolhouse door, as he did at the University of Alabama last year, to fulfill his inaugural pledge of "segregation forever."

He — and those under his command, such as the highway patrol —are under a federal court injunction against any overt act to interfere with court-ordered school desegregation as he did a year ago at Birmingham, Huntsville and Tuskegee.

* * *

When the spring semester ended last May, schools were still segregated throughout Alabama except at Birmingham, Huntsville, Mobile and in the rural communities of Notasulga and Shorter in Macon County.

Tuskegee High School, also in Macon County, had been integrated at the start of the school year last September. The 250 white pupils walked out, leaving the two-story brick building empty except for 12 Negro pupils and 13 white teachers.

JOINED BOYCOTT

The State Board of Education ordered the school closed as an economic liability. A federal judge then transferred the Negroes to Notasulga and Shorter where white pupils promptly joined the boycott.

* * *

Since the summer vacation began, the federal courts have ordered more grades included in presently integrated schools. The court also directed school desegregation in other communities — Montgomery, Gadsden, Bullock County, and in the rural areas surrounding Mobile and Huntsville.

Tuskegee High School will be reopened. Both white and Negro pupils have applied for enrollment when classes resume Sept. 12.

A three-judge federal court has given schools throughout the state a blunt ultimatum that they stand to lose all state funds unless they begin making plans o integrate.

CHANGING ATTITUDE

The changing attitude is particularly evident in Montgomery, where the first mass civil rights demonstration began almost a decade ago with a year-long Negro boycott of segregated city buses.

* * *

There was violence then, climaxed by the bombing of four Negro churches. Later there were the bloody "freedom rider" riots of May 1961.

* * *

The county school board has made it unmistakably clear in the face of the desegregation order that the schools will remain open. There has been no violence this time.

Pathet Claims Kill of Three U.S. Planes

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Pro-Communist Pathet Lao forces claimed today they shot down three U. S. military planes this week in northcentral Laos.

The Pathet Lao said the planes were downed between yesterday and Tuesday in Pathet Lao territory near Xieng Khouang north of Vientiane, the New China News Agency said in a radio dispatch from Peking.

The broadcast said one aircraft was a U. S. helicopter searching for the pilots of the other two downed planes. Earlier, the royal Laotian Air Force said it lost a T28 aircraft on a support mission and also reported a second missing plane.

The United States has supplied the Laotian government with T28 planes at the request of Neutralist Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma.

ASSURE SUPPORT

At a stopover in Bangkok, the neutralist leader said his country's problems could only be solved by negotiation, not force. He said he could not be certain his meeting with Pathet Lao leader Prince Souphan-ouvong, who is his half-brother, would end hostilities in Laos.

He charged that the Communist faction routed Neutralist forces last May in the strategic Plaine des Jarres region with outside Communist help.

Few Southern Businesses Going Private to Avoid Rights Law

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Only a small percentage of businesses in the South have turned into private clubs to avoid integration since enactment of the civil rights law.

An Associated Press survey showed scattered instances of restaurants — and one hotel — changing to restricted memberships as a means of keeping out Negroes.

In Mississippi 13 businesses have been issued private club charters by the secretary of state since the new law was signed by President Johnson last July 2.

"If I took Negro customers, I would go out of business," explained one businessman. "If I didn't, I would be in trouble with the government. This way the club selects its members and we avoid trouble."

CLUB CHARTER

In Jackson, Miss., the Robert E. Lee Hotel obtained a private club charter but has not disclosed details of its planned operation.

In Little Rock, Ark., the State Capitol cafeteria was incorporated as a private club shortly after the civil rights law was enacted. An aide to Gov. Orval E. Faubus serves as corporation president.

The AP survey showed only half a dozen switches in Alabama which Negro leaders last spring labeled a major desegregation target.

In Mobile, only two small restaurant-tavern businesses have been organized into private clubs. A Montgomery restaurant went to a private club basis; two Birmingham businesses have asked for charters and a Tuscaloosa recreation club was organized the day the Civil Rights Act was signed.

NOT RELATED

A restaurant near Rocky Mount, Va., became a private club but the owner said the decision had nothing to do with the law. A tavern in Norfolk turned private more than a year ago to avoid serving Negroes.

★ ★ ★

In Georgia, segregationist Lester Maddox closed his Atlanta restaurant rather than comply with a federal court order to integrate. Maddox said he had been considering a private club operation but no decision has been made.

Another Atlanta restaurant operator, James Kilgore, has applied to the city aldermanic police committee for a private club permit.

A city attorney, Lewis Slaton, said he would advise the committee at its next meeting that the city repeal or amend its 1959 ordinance requiring private clubs to get permits from the city. Charters are issued through the secretary of state's office.

"There is no need for the city to have to get in the middle on this," Slaton said.

Negroes have gone to court against private clubs in Texas and North Carolina.

Texas has long had a large number of private clubs because of a state law against sale of liquor by the drink. Dallas has more than 300 such clubs which provide a built-in barrier against integration of taverns.

One Dallas restaurant and bowling alley turned private as a result of integration efforts, and two Negroes filed suit seeking damages and a restraining order against segregation of the business.

In Charlotte, N.C., a Negro leader has filed a complaint under the new law against a YMCA which refused a room to a Negro civil rights worker. The YMCA contends it can exclude Negroes because it requires transients to join the organization and pay about 70 cents weekly dues.

Barriers Fall in Jackson, Miss.

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Negroes register today to attend first grade classes in this capital city's public school system for the first time.

The first registration of Negroes for desegregated classes in the state below the college level came last Friday at Biloxi. There were no incidents there, and none are expected here.

Nevertheless, police planned tight security measures in this city, which last summer saw more than 500 Negroes arrested for demonstrating for equal rights.

The federal court suit which brought about integration in the Jackson schools was filed two years ago by Negro parents, including Medgar Evers, the slain executive of the Mississippi branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Evers was assassinated June 21, 1963.

Federal Judge Sidney Mize combined suits attacking segregation in Jackson, Biloxi and rural Leake County and ordered schools in the three school districts to desegregate this fall.

APPROVES PLAN

At Oxford, Federal Judge Claude Clayton of the Northern District of Mississippi, yesterday approved a plan for desegregation of first grade classes at Clarksdale in the Delta.

Judge Clayton's order called for Clarksdale to desegregate the 2nd grade in February.

There was no indication of how many Negroes would register for desegregated classes in Jackson.

School authorities say there are about 1,800 Negro children among the 3,800 expected to register for the first grade.

Mexicans to be Barred

California Growers Face Worker Cutoff

BACKGROUND OF THE NEWS — SPECIAL REPORT

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — California growers are far from resigned to the loss of their braceros — those hard-working Mexicans who help harvest the great California crops.

Outside the San Joaquin Valley community of Stockton, farmer Sam Loduca glumly watched the men in straw hats harvest cucumbers for 25 cents a bushel and remarked:

"I'm glad I don't like cucumbers. There won't be any next year."

* * *

Like Loduca, other growers are counting the days until Dec. 31, the expiration date of Public Law 78 under which more than 100,000 Mexican citizens came to the United States for farm work last year.

EXERTING PRESSURE

State officials say growers are quietly exerting pressure on Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown to fight for some sort of bracero legislation next year.

* * *

Although the official position of the Council of California Growers is not to seek extension of the bracero program, farmers and the Brown administration say California agriculture faces a difficult season next year without it.

Despite the hard-core unemployment in California and elsewhere, state officials admit failure in the search for Americans to replace the bracero.

"In our view, we're going to have a real bad time next year to make up the labor force needed," said Albert B. Tieburg, state employment director.

Organized labor says there would be no shortage of domestic labor if farmers would pay more than the $1 an hour guaranteed to the Mexican nationals.

"There is no job that Americans won't do if they get paid for it," said Al Green, who directs the AFL-CIO's Agricultural Workers Organizing Committee. He suggested a $2 an hour minimum wage.

* * *

Braceros, paid by piece work, earn varying amounts. They averaged $1.50 an hour picking tomatoes not far from San Francisco Bay; 90 cents an hour for thinning cantaloupes in Southern California's Riverside County and $1.25 for picking cantaloupes farther north in Fresno County.

Tieburg said the state hopes to import some Mexican nationals next year under a different federal law, the McCarran-Walter Immigration Act. But he doesn't expect this method to allow as many braceros as the present Public Law 78.

AP Photofax

WON'T HAVE JOB — A Mexican bracero picks tomatoes in southern California, as he and many others have done for years. However, the termination of a public law may make it illegal for him to enter next year. The imported Mexican farm help is willing to work in the hot California sun at a comparatively low wage. Labor spokesman are asking higher wages to suit American workers.

Dems Make It Hard to Duplicate Tickets

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Officials are making it difficult for counterfeiters who would like to duplicate tickets for the Democratic National Convention which opens Monday.

The tickets won't be distributed until the weekend. Officials won't release any details on the ducats beforehand, including where they are being printed.

"We didn't want to give people a week or two to figure out how to counterfeit them," said Samuel C. Brightman, deputy chairman of public affairs.

Counterfeiting has always been a problem at national political conventions.

FAKE TICKETS

During the 1952 Democratic convention, red-white-and-blue ribbons were issued entitling holders to admission to any part of the hall. They were easy to duplicate and a lot of gate crashers got in.

★ ★ ★

A delegate or alternate to the convention here will get an honorary badge, complete with decorative ribbon, that will be good only to get through the front door of Convention Hall. Inside the building he must display another credential, called a security badge and labeled "convention floor" to get through turnstiles to join his state's delegation.

There are 5,260 delegates and alternates.

FENCED-OFF AREA

Spectators among the 18,500 expected to join the hall will get tickets admitting them only to seats behind a fenced-off barrier. There will be other tickets for the balcony seats, which the officials call "arena" seats, and for the 6,000 news, television and radio men who will cover the convention.

All sections of the auditorium are called "reserved" but there are no individually reserved seats.

"Once inside a reserved section, it's first-come, first-served as far as the best seats are concerned," said J. Leonard Reinsch, convention director.

'Hairy' Days for Barber

When a blessed event appeared imminent in the Bearden household, he posted this sign in his shop:

"Notice. Not responsible if I have to depart in the middle of your haircut. My wife and I are expecting our first child at any moment. If you don't mind, please pour some water on me if I should pass out."

Convention Role: Keep 'em Happy

N.J. First Lady Thrust Into Limelight

By JAY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

PRINCETON, N.J. — Betty Hughes, New Jersey's hostess with the mostest children, had planned to spend her first Democratic National Convention sitting in a corner taking notes.

That was before the Democrats picked Atlantic City for their convention opening Monday, thereby thrusting the state's first lady into the limelight as official hostess.

The humorous, extroverted wife of Gov. Richard J. Hughes, mother of a brood of 10—4 are his, 3 hers and 3 theirs — describes her role this way: "I'm in charge of keeping everybody happy, women and children first."

THREE HOSTESSES

"As far as I can see, there are three: Thelma Parkinson Sharp, national committeewoman and chairman of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission, who has attended every Democratic convention since 1924, when she was a delegate-at-large with her first time to vote; the beautiful Mrs. Charles Engelhard, wife of the chairman of the host committee, and me.

"I'm the only one who has not been to a convention. I'm certainly glad to have their support."

★ ★ ★

Except for Tom, 2, most of the Hughes children will take turns going to Atlantic City because "there isn't enough room, and we don't have enough tickets for them all at once."

Bob, 26 and second oldest, is committeeman from his district in Clifton, N.J., and will be there on his own, with his wife.

SOCIAL EFFORTS

Among her social efforts at the convention will be parties for the New Jersey delegation, a contingent of the diplomatic corps and the credentials and platform committees; breakfast for the press women and a fashion show for women delegates and their alternates.

Two young Hugheses, Brian, 8, and Honey, 7, will be hosts at a children's pool party on the last day.

Mrs. Hughes and her secretary, Mrs. Devey Chafey, designed the costumes — white drip-dry dresses and skimmer hats — for the convention's girl greeters, the Jersey Girls.

"They are 250 of the state's prettiest and most intelligent young women between 21 and 35," Mrs. Hughes says.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Hughes says that at Moven, the governor's mansion at Princeton, "I feel like a hotel or restaurant manager a lot of the time, but I know that in retrospect I'll look back at it as a wonderful experience. Look at what exciting years they are. We've been here 2½ years and have had one baby and one national convention. What more could you ask?"

Russia to Send Guns to Cyprus

LONDON (UPI)—Russia will donate antiaircraft equipment to President Makarios of Cyprus as the first concrete contribution to follow the Soviet pledge of support, diplomatic reports said today.

But Moscow apparently has not yet decided whether to give massive arms aid such as rockets or supersonic fighter aircraft.

Diplomatic reports said much will depend on what Makarios is prepared to offer. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was believed interested in detaching Cyprus from the West and removing British strategic bases from the island.

Khrushchev also was reported anxious to keep North Atlantic Treaty Organization or Turkish bases off the island.

The idea of such bases has been brought up in Western moves to end the fighting between Greek and Turkish Cypriots.

Allied diplomats said that any Soviet attempt to turn Cyprus into a Mediterranean Cuba would damage or even destroy the possibilities of drawing closer to the United States, which Khrushchev is believed anxious to do after the American presidential election.

The Allied diplomats said Khrushchev would play it cautiously, trying to make the most of the potential "opening" in Cyprus but keeping the coexistence door open with the United States.

Unconfirmed reports circulating in diplomatic quarters claimed that Russia had tried but failed to pry Turkey loose from NATO before siding openly with Makarios in the Cyprus dispute.

Russia has long been concerned about Turkey's position on her southern flank.

Turkey is a member both of NATO and of the Central Treaty Organization, which also includes Iran and Pakistan. Both are alliances against Communist encroachment.

But above all, Turkey controls the Bosphorus and the Dardanelles, Russia's sea exit from the Mediterranean.

Turks Threaten to Close Mediterranean to Soviets

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — Turkey has threatened to bar Russia's naval gateway to the Mediterranean Sea "if there is a danger of war" over Cyprus.

Foreign Minister Feridun Cemal Erkin said yesterday that the Montreux Agreements of 1934 give Turkey the right to close the Straits of Bosphorus and the Dardanelles if Turkey's security is threatened.

Turkey and Greece, both members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), have been backing opposite sides in the Cyprus dispute.

The Turkish press said yesterday that the Soviet freighter Novy Dumbass passed through the Bosphorus on Tuesday, carrying four dismantled aircraft, heavy artillery and military personnel.

The Communist skipper allegedly said his destination was Cyprus.

"If Russia sends military aid to Cyprus, we will act accordingly," Erkin said when asked about the report. "If there is a danger of war, we might close the straits."

Despite centuries of trying, Russia never has been able to expand to the shores of the Mediterranean.

ONLY OUTLET

Its only naval outlet to the Mediterranean is through the Bosphorus, which connects Russia's Black Sea ports to the Sea of Marmara.

The Dardanelles in turn connects the Sea of Marmara with the Mediterranean. Both connecting waterways are surrounded and controlled by Turkey.

Only the News That's Fit for Commu nism

Whole Russian Picture Not Covered by Tass

Although papers here frequently publish stories about Soviet crime, corruption, bureaucratic inefficiency and other domestic problems, such items seldom find their way onto the Tass wire.

CONTROLS LAX

Lax controls that encourage embezzlers of state property.

Complaints about spotty press coverage of new technical developments.

BLACK MARKETS

Factory directors who force workers to put in overtime without pay in order to fulfill monthly plan targets.

Poor taste and inefficiency in city planning and architecture.

Smolensk industrial enterprises which consistently fall short of production plans.

POOR ORGANIZATION

Criticism of army officers' behavior.

Two burglars apprehended by an army officer.

ANTIALCOHOL

And two stinging antialcoholism pieces.

None of the stories appeared on the Tass domestic or foreign wires.

However, similar items from the West are eagerly passed through the agency's two-way censorship screen to make up the bulk of its foreign news coverage.

The government-run news agency also gives heavy play to Western labor strikes, accidents and disasters and political troubles.

ASSIGNED ROLE

Tass fulfills its assigned role as chronicler of the Soviet march to communism by churning out a seemingly endless stream of glowing reports of new economic and social achievements.

Occasionally editorial enthusiasm for propagandizing Soviet science leads them into repeating phony stories like the one last year about a deep-frozen prehistoric chameleon that came alive after it was thawed out.

Favorable comment about the Soviet Union by foreign visitors and tourists is transmitted in bulk quantities on the overseas wire to foreign subscribers.

MAIN FUNCTION

One of Tass' main functions is laying down the latest Kremlin line on important policy matters in the form of Tass statements, commentaries, and party-government documents.

★ ★ ★

Tass originally ignored the event but issued an official explanation of the incident a few days later.

HAPPY LOT

Then it began turning out stories picturing the happy lot of foreign students in the Soviet Union and denouncing the Western press for playing up the incident in Africa and the rest of the world.

The agency now is engaged in an all-out assault on the Communist Chinese, devoting several articles daily to polemical attacks on Peking.

It also appears to be attempting to counter Chinese and Western charges of Soviet imperialism and colonialism with a spate of pieces intended to impress foreigners with the progress made in the central Asian republics.

DETERMINED EFFORT

In recent years, Tass' directors have made determined efforts to streamline their cumbrous operation in the fashion of the major Western news agencies.

Major foreign news breaks are being reported on the Tass wire with considerably less delay than formerly. These reports usually are short and factual and without comment.

Later, when the Kremlin policy line has been laid down, expanded stories containing the official Soviet viewpoint are moved on the wire.

Tass also tries to be first with important domestic developments, but Western reporters often beat them on live stories such as Soviet Premier Khrushchev's speeches.

SUMMARIES

The practice of summarizing major Soviet documents and speeches before transmitting their texts has also arisen in recent years.

In the old days, Tass editors preferred to duck the chancy game of picking out the most important elements of a Soviet leader's speech. It simply ran the text with no comment.

Birth Control Drug Successfully Tested

MCALESTER, Okla. (AP) — A Cornell University scientist said Wednesday a new birth control drug has been successfully tested on 15 volunteer prisoners at the Oklahoma Penitentiary.

★ ★ ★

Dr. John MacLeod said the male inmates were rendered infertile for at least four months. MacLeod is associated professor of anatomy at Cornell's Medical School at Ithaca, N.Y.

★ ★ ★

He said injections of the drug, depo-provera, made the men infertile five weeks after the first injection and that the drug's contraceptive action lasted 120 days and longer. Further tests are being made.

CASSEROLE - SANDWICHES — Shredded wheat biscuits give this meal-in-one sandwich a crisp, crunchy texture—so good with bubbling hot cheese over them.

Cheese Casserole Made With Cereal

Open-faced sandwiches, hot from the broiler, with a golden brown, bubbling cheese sauce over bright red tomato slices and ham or luncheon meat, make a good luncheon dish. But what's so different about this you ask!

* * *

It's the bottom layer of the sandwich. Round or oblong shredded wheat biscuits are used instead of the usual piece of toast. If you've never tried them for this purpose you have a wonderful surprise in store for yourself. Here's a simple way to have a sandwich that stays crunchy and crisp even with a sauce over it.

This is a good one-dish meal for it combines a vegetable together with several excellent protein foods; meat, cereal and cheese. Sharp Cheddar cheese with a bit of dry mustard and Worcestershire sauce brings a flavor to this cheese sauce that "makes" the sandwich.

If getting cereal into the menu is a problem for you, here is a good way to use this important basic food. With milk to drink, and fruit for dessert, you have a well-balanced meal.

Broiled Cheese Casserole Sandwiches

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
teaspoon pepper
¾ teaspoon dry mustard
1½ cups milk
2 cups cubed sharp Cheddar cheese
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
4 round or oblong shredded wheat biscuits
8 slices baked or boiled ham or luncheon meat
8 slices tomato

Melt butter in saucepan. Add flour, salt, pepper and dry mustard and mix well. Add milk gradually. Cook, stirring constantly, until the sauce is smooth and thick. Add cheese and Worcestershire sauce and cook until cheese melts.

Split shredded wheat biscuits in half and place two halves in each individual casserole. Top each half with a slice of ham and tomato.

Pour cheese sauce over the top and broil until bubbly and browned. Serve at once.

NOTE: The ham or luncheon meat may be omitted if desired.

Sandwiches Resemble Butterflies

Whimsical Butterfly Sandwiches are certain to delight the guests at your next feminine gathering. These perky canape sandwiches depend not on tricky preparation steps but on a simple arrangement of slices of party rye bread for their butterfly effect.

Spread a zesty avocado mixture on the bread slices then arrange them with the curved sides together to make "wings." Hard-cooked egg slices make decorative "Monarch" markings and bright pimiento strips form butterfly "bodies."

Serve the sandwiches with punch, iced tea or coffee.

Sandwiches which fill so many menu slots—from quick lunch to elaborate party refreshments — help fill the day's nutritional requirements, too.

Sandwiches prepared from enriched or whole grain breads supply essential B-vitamins and the mineral iron, and nourishing fillings supplement the bread with additional nutrients.

Butterfly Sandwiches

1 cup finely diced, ripe avocado (1 medium avocado)
12 slices bacon, crisply cooked, crumbled
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice
12 slices party rye bread
12 slices hard-cooked egg (about 2 eggs)
6 pimiento strips

Mix together avocado, bacon, onion and lemon juice; let stand at room temperature 15 minutes. Spread mixture on rye bread.

For each sandwich, place the two rounded top edges of bread next to each other. Place one egg slice in center of each bread slice. Place pimiento strips between egg slices. Makes 6 sandwiches.

Have a Party During Convention

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Whether you're a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat or not, you'll probably spend some time watching or listening to the Democratic National Convention next week.

* * *

Why not make a party out of it, with your friends or neighbors? All you need to furnish in the way of refreshments are snack foods. When people are tense or excited, they like to nibble.

Have you ever thought of serving dip in a bread bowl? The thick round loaves of rye bread are especially good for this.

Convention Appetizer

1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese
¼ pound blue cheese
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
½ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ teaspoon Tabasco
¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, optional
1 teaspoon grated onion
½ cup milk
1 small round loaf rye bread

Place all ingredients except milk and bread in bowl. Let stand at room temperature about 30 minutes to soften cheese. Mix slowly with electric mixer or blend with wooden spoon, adding milk gradually, until spread is smooth and fluffy. Chill about 30 minutes.

To make bread bowl, cut a slice from the top of loaf and hollow out the center. Transfer the chilled cheese spread to the bread bowl and shape it into a high, smooth mound. If desired, garnish top with olives.

* * *

Turkey Dip

1 cup mayonnaise
1 teaspoon fresh ginger or ¼ teaspoon ground ginger
1 crushed garlic clove
¼ cup finely minced green onion
1 teaspoon curry powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 finely chopped hard-cooked egg
½ cup finely chopped celery
2 cups shredded or finely chopped cooked turkey

Combine dressing ingredients and mix until well blended, then stir in turkey meat. Pour into dip dish; place in center of large tray, and surround with corn chips, potato chips or crackers.

If you want to do a little more work for your party, make some tiny cocktail puffs and fill them with shrimp or chicken salad or a vegetable filling:

French Onion Bread Sticks

2 (about 15-inch) loaves French bread
⅔ cup margarine
1 envelope golden onion soup mix

Cut bread into lengthwise strips about 7 inches long. Blend margarine and soup mix. Spread on cut surface of bread. Wrap loaves tightly with aluminum foil.

Heat in 375 degrees F. (moderate) oven until bread is hot and margarine mixture has melted, about 15 minutes. Makes about 16 servings.

Lemon Onion Dip

1 envelope golden onion soup mix
1 cup dairy sour cream
½ cup milk
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
Chopped radish

Shoulder Butt for Main Dish

Something pretty, something savory — that's a prescription most homemakers would like to fill when it comes to preparing the main dish.

★ ★ ★

One of the meat cuts with which she may be a little less familiar is smoked shoulder butt. This is cut from the fore section of pork, says meat authority, Reba Staggs.

It's shaped in a roll, cured and smoked. The flavor is very similar to ham.

It may be prepared whole by roasting, but since it is boneless, you may also have it sliced and topped with this spicy tinted applesauce. Slices take a shorter cooking time than roasting the whole piece.

Smoked Shoulder Butt—Spiced Applesauce

8 slices smoked shoulder butt, cut ¼-inch thick
1 cup unseasoned applesauce
1 teaspoon sugar
⅛ teaspoon cloves
1 or 2 drops red food coloring

Mix applesauce, sugar, cloves and red food coloring. Place shoulder butt slices in baking dish. Top each slice with approximately 2 tablespoons applesauce mixture. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees) 30 minutes. 4 servings.

Buttermilk and Spices Make Good Cupcakes

Spicy Cupcakes

1 cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon baking soda
¼ teaspoon each cinnamon and allspice
⅛ teaspoon each mace and cloves
¼ cup butter or margarine
⅔ cup sugar
1 large egg
¼ cup buttermilk

Sift together the flour, baking soda, cinnamon, allspice, mace and cloves. Cream butter and sugar; beat in egg thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients in three additions alternately with buttermilk; blend only until smooth.

Turn into buttered muffin-pan wells filling about half-full. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 25 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean.

Remove to wire rack and serve warm or cool. Top with powdered sugar or frosting.

If muffin-pan wells are six-tablespoons capacity, recipe will make 8 cupcakes.

SUMMER TREATS—A pair of snacks to serve before your meal or during a warm summer evening. Stalks of celery double as stirrers in frosty tomato Frappes. Puffy mounds of a cheese mixture dot crackers, which are briefly baked.

Partially Frozen Tomato Juice Served With Cheese Delights

Opposites attract . . . like the combination of a sparkling cool drink and sizzling hors d'oeuvres. A boon to the busy hostess, unusual Double Cheese Delights and Tomato Frappes take little time to prepare and may be refrigerated until just before the party.

Double Cheese Delights

1 egg white
½ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup grated Romano or Parmesan Cheese

Place crackers on cookie sheet and set aside. Beat egg white until quite stiff but not dry; gently fold in mayonnaise and cheese. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto crackers.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for about 10-12 minutes or until puffy and golden. Serve immediately. Yield: 12 double puffs.

Tomato Frappes

Season tomato juice with Worchestershire sauce, Tabasco sauce, lemon juice, or other flavorings. Pour to about 2 inches deep in large shallow pan. Place in freezer. Let ice form about an inch around edges: stir from outside to center. Continue freezing and stirring until juice is "mushy".

★ ★ ★

Serve with celery sprig for stirrers. (Time will vary, depending on amount of juice and temperature of freezer. Should the mixture be ready too soon, remove from freezer and place in tray under freezing compartment.)

Serve Soup for Supper

Good Peanut Butter Soup

2 tablespoons salad oil
1 tablespoon flour
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon celery salt
½ cup smooth peanut butter
2 cups milk
2 cups vegetable juice (the variety that includes tomato)

Gently cook the onion in the oil until wilted but not brown. Stir in flour, salt and celery salt; then peanut butter. Add milk; cook and stir constantly over low heat until smooth and thickened. Stir in vegetable juice and reheat but do not boil. Makes about 4½ cups.

Serve Crunchy Peanut Brittle Parfait

The crunchiness of peanut brittle and the tenderness of rice make the pair an excellent beginning for a cool summer dessert.

For Peanut Brittle Parfait, steam cooked rice in milk until milk is absorbed. Cool. Then blend with whipped cream, flavored with honey and nutmeg, and chill.

Spoon the chilled mixture into parfait glasses (or use your prettiest goblets) alternately with peanut brittle combined with coconut macaroon crumbs. Results? Delectable!

Rice is an excellent choice for any summer meal. It takes little time to cook, needs no pre-cooking preparation, and is ready to serve as it comes from the cooking pot. It may be used at any meal of the day and at snack-time, too.

Because rice can be used in so many ways, smart homemakers keep a supply of cooked rice on hand at all times. Cooked rice keeps in the refrigerator for one week and in the home freezer up to eight months. Cover rice before refrigerating and place in freezer container before freezing.

Peanut Brittle Parfait

1 cup hot milk
2 cups cooked rice
½ teaspoon salt
cup heavy cream
1 cup honey
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¾ cup finely crushed peanut brittle
1 cup coconut macaroon crumbs

Heat milk in top of a double boiler. Add rice and salt; cover. Place over boiling water and cook about 30 minutes, or until milk is absorbed, tossing lightly with a fork several times. Chill thoroughly.

Combine cream, honey and nutmeg; beat until stiff. Reserve a little whipped cream for the top of each serving. Fold remainder with peanut brittle into chilled rice mixture.

Butter Icing—Liked by All

Mar Beth Thomas's Butter Frosting

½ cup butter
2 cups confectioners sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon (about) lemon juice

Cream butter; gradually beat in the sugar, keeping smooth. Beat in vanilla and as much of the lemon juice as needed to make good spreading consistency. Enough frosting to fill and cover top of 9-inch layer cake.

Note: Cream may be substituted for the lemon juice.

Lamb Chops Get Overnight Stay Before Baking

Baked Lamb Chops

6 large shoulder lamb chops, about ½ inch thick
2 tablespoons each salad oil and lemon juice
½ teaspoon each salt and pepper
¼ teaspoon dried crushed oregano
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon cider vinegar
2 teaspoons water
½ teaspoon mustard

Cut excess fat from lamb chops. Mix together the oil, lemon juice, salt, pepper, oregano and garlic; spread on both sides of chops. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight.

Plain Crab Will Do for Sandwiches

Recently, wire press services reported that a chef at the Paris airport unwittingly cooked and turned into crabmeat salad several prized King Crabs. The zoo-bound crabs were temporarily stored in the chef's walk-in refrigerator early one morning awaiting transfer to another airline.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Combine two-thirds cup cooked, flaked crabmeat together with 2 tablespoons creamy French dressing, a hint of curry powder and 2¼ cup each of chopped ripe olives, celery and hard-cooked egg. This is ample filling for 5 sandwiches on thinly sliced French bread.

Frankfurters need simmering, rather than boiling, in the home kitchen because they are a fully-cooked sausage.

Russia Tanker Crosses Bow of U.S. Cruise Ship

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A cruise ship said a 10,000-ton Russian tanker crossed its bow last night eight miles east of Miami.

"I could have hit the ship with a five-iron," said Dave Yeomans, agent for the cruiser Orange Sun. "We told everybody on board they could take pictures and get Miami Beach hotels in the background."

Yeomans said Cuban refugee crewmen ran to the cruiser's top deck waving a Free Cuba flag. Russian sailors, he said, responded by shaking their fists at the cruiser. He said the Russian vessel was called H a b a Kuccaki.

The Coast Guard said it had no report of the vessel.

Johnson Approves Huge Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has signed into law a bill appropriating $46.8 billion for American defense at home and abroad this year.

The big money bill, for the fiscal year ending next June 30, includes $207 million to pay for raises that Congress approved for U.S. servicemen beginning next month.

Price Pattern Irregular

Market Trading Lower, Quiet

Losses of a couple of blue chips — du Pont and Union Carbide — were large factors in the decline of the industrial average. Each stock lost about 2 points.

* * *

The market seemed vulnerable to a decline even before the session started, brokers said. They noted a slump in housing starts, a cut in some oil refinery operations and uncertainty regarding the next stage in auto labor negotiations as contributing to the mood of caution.

The trend was slightly lower among autos, steels, rails, aerospace issues, chemicals and electronics. The cigarette stocks continued to push higher on the latest word of increasing shipments. Airlines snapped back a bit from the recent heavy selling in the group.

As the auto industry awaited some sign from the union as to which company it would select as the prime target in a possible nationwide strike, General Motors and Chrysler lost fractions. Ford, American Motors and Studebaker were about unchanged.

Prices were generally higher in quiet trading on the American Stock Exchange. Old Town was up about 2.

Corporate bonds were slightly higher. U.S. Government bonds were unchanged.

Mississippi Project Is Said Successful

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—Civil rights leaders said yesterday their "Mississippi summer project" has been "eminently successful" and announced the program would be continued through the fall and winter.

Robert Moses, director of the project sponsored by the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), said more than 200 summer volunteers had elected to remain in the state and carry on the drive stressing Negro voter registration.

In addition, he said 100 staff workers of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) and the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) would continue with the project.

Volunteers, mostly white, remaining will stay at COFO's expense, Moses said. They had footed their own bills up to now. Other volunteers are preparing to returnto their homes and schools.

* * *

A report on the summer project and plans for the remainder of the year were outlined by Moses and James Forman, SNCC's executive secretary, yesterday on the campus of biracial Tougaloo College near here.

THREE AREAS

"We feel the project has been eminently successful," Moses said, particularly in three areas:

- Organization of the Freedom Democratic party and the challenge of the regular Mississippi Democrats at the national convention;
- Establishment of freedom schools in which Negro youths "have been able to learn and talk about things they don't get in their regular classes;"

* * *

- Focus of the nation's eye on the state, winning the establishment of an FBI office in Jackson and "attempts by the federal government to begin to take care of this problem."

700 VOLUNTEERS

About 700 volunteers, mostly white college students, were drawn from all parts of the nation to work in the program which has been plagued by violence since its inception.

* * *

Three workers were murdered near Philadelphia, Miss., and numerous other workers have received beatings and suffered other forms of harassment in all areas of the state.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY

The East and West hands are not shown today because you don't need to see them in order to play the hand properly. All you need to know is that East follows to the first trick with the three of hearts.

JACOBY

You start by "C"ounting your winners, both sure and potential. If you take the first trick you are sure of eight tricks and can make 11 if you pick up the queen of diamonds.

Now you "A"nalze the lead and "R"eview the bidding and note that if you lose to the queen of diamonds and if West has led the queen from a five-card suit the defense cash four heart tricks and set you.

You also note that West has over-called and probably has that five-card suit.

Could he have a six-card suit? Yes! In that case, you can afford to win that first heart trick and finesse against West for that diamond queen. If East gets in he won't have a heart to lead to his partner.

How about a four-card heart suit? In that case, you can lose to the diamond queen and still make the hand.

Now about that likely five-card suit? How can you make the hand? Suppose you let the queen of hearts hold? West may continue. In that case, you win with the king and finesse against West. East can make the queen of diamonds if he has it but your contract will be safe.

* * *

Suppose West shifts? Now you finesse against East for the queen of diamonds. If West holds it he will take a trick with it but you will still have the hearts stopped and will wind up with four diamonds, three spades and two clubs.

Dems Get Aid From Republican

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican congressman has turned his office into a clearing house for information to help his Democratic opponents get ready for their Atlantic City, N.J., convention.

Glenn said he's received all types of inquiries — on the best way to get to Atlantic City to the location of hotels — from Democratic congressmen and their aides.

There's nothing he can do to obtain hotel or motel reservations in Atlantic City. That's being handled by the Democratic National Committee.

RESERVATIONS NEARBY

But he has obtained reservations near Atlantic City.

Recently he gave each of his Democratic colleagues a map of Atlantic City showing the location of the major hotels and motels, and passes for toll bridges along the Ocean Highway in Cape May County, also a part of his congressional district.

"The only thing I'm holding my breath about," said Glenn, "are the complaints that might come in after the convention."

Dope Problem in NY Suburb

Survey Reveals 900 Youths Are Addicted

YONKERS, N.Y. (UPI)—City authorities said today that 900 youngsters in this populous New York suburb are narcotics addicts, and about 100 of them are from upper - middle - class families.

Public Safety Commissioner Daniel F. McMahon said his investigation of narcotics addiction confirmed that the problem is not exclusive to slums.

He said the use of heroin was far more widespread in fashionable northwest Yonkers than elsewhere in the city.

McMahon said he is disclosing the findings of his survey to enlist the support of parents, clergymen and civic leaders in stamping out narcotics addition.

★ ★ ★

He said he was discouraged by the response of parents who refused to believe confidential police reports about their children.

INCLUDE ATHLETES

The commissioner said Yonkers youthful addicts range from 14 to 21 years of age and include high school athletes.

Twenty - four youths have been arrested so far this year, double the number of all narcotics arrests here in 1963.

● Several teen - age girls made periodic trips to New York's Times Square to earn narcotics money by prostitution.

INJECTED FORCIBLY

● One youth who refused a shot of heroin at a private party in an upper middle class home was thrown to the floor and injected forcibly. He became an addict.

★ ★ ★

● An 18-year-old boy addict has escaped from a hospital and has been missing for two weeks. An 18-year-old girl addict also disappeared two weeks ago.

★ ★ ★

● Large numbers of teenagers have become 'hooked" on narcotics by hanging out with addicts in a city park on the former estate of a New York millionaire.

Young Red Chief Beats and Rapes Passerby, 17

The newspaper "Literaturnaya Gazetta" (Literary Gazette) said Viktor Levashov, a member of the Komsomol organization in the Leningrad District of Moscow, became drunk with other young Communists at a party.

★ ★ ★

It said Levashov's colleagues informed the court after his trial that he had been dropped from the organization. His sentence was not reported.

LBJ Fans Lose Seaplane— and Paul Newman's Vote!

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "I just switched to Goldwater!" groaned Paul Newman, with half a grin, as he nervously bit his nails and looked out of a chartered plane at the moon over Long Island Sound.

WILSON

It was 8:15 Sunday night . . . time to be at the Little Theater, on 44th Street, for an Actors' Fund performance of "Baby Want a Kiss."

But the Young Citizens for Johnson had lost a seaplane. Losing a seaplane isn't easy. But the Young Citizens for Johnson have hidden strength. They had come through.

Paul, who'll be a "Young Citizen" 40 years old next January, had been co-host, with Charlotte Ford, of a glamorous $15-a-head barbecue for Lynda Bird Johnson at the Henry Ford estate at Water Mill, L.I.

It was under a candy-striped tent . . . pretty Charlotte Ford spoke of Paul as "the attractive man beside me" . . . one female gushed, "I love his blue eyes. Never mind the barbecue. Just give us some Paul Newman!" . . . there'd been beer, barbecued ribs, barbecued chicken, beef and ribs, barbecued Republicans (oops!) . . . and then Paul and tall, smiling Lynda Bird mixed with the 1,000 ticket-buyers.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Some Texans heckled Fran Jeffries at the Copa this a.m. insisting that Red Buttons, whom she'd introduced, perform. Red talked Texan back to 'em: "You-all take care yo' table and I'll take care of mine." . . . Ann-Margret who used to date Elvis, says she's got a date with Ringo here next week.

Ed Sullivan's home from Mayo's, feeling fine . . . The Copa Girls howled at our item about some Latin Quarter gals taking bust-building injections. "So unnecessary for us," they chortled. . . . At Monsignore, Rudy Vallee, asked for an autograph, smiled, said "Sure," and signed "Will Osborne," his rival of the 30s.

★ ★ ★

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: "Just think how much our cities lost during the horse and buggy days because no one thought of making a piggy bank out of every hitching post." (The Graham, Tex., Scandal Sheet.)

Advises State to Allow Release of Reserve Funds

Ease Restrictions to Cut Insurance Costs, Says MSU Expert

EAST LANSING (AP) — Life insurance premiums could be lowered if states would ease up on their investment restrictions on insurance companies, says a Michigan State University finance specialist.

States require unnecessarily large reserves to back up preferred stocks in the investment portfolios of life insurance companies, says Dr. Alden Olson, assistant professor of financial administration.

Some of the reserves could be released in the form of dividends to policy holders and lower rates on new policies.

Statistics covering the period of 1929-58 showed a greater return for preferred stocks than the supposedly more stable corporate bonds, he said. The stocks also have been as stable as good qualify and high grade bonds since 1920 and more stable than high grade bonds since the end of World War II.

STOCKS RETURN MORE

The stocks returned 4.65 per cent in the 29-year period—as compared with 3.55 for the bonds, he said in a 111-page report published by the MSU Bureau of Business and Economic Research.

"Nevertheless, preferred stocks are burdened with valuation requirements based on fluctuating market prices as contrasted to stabilized values permitted for corporate bonds."

Insurance regulations are set independently in each state. But they are the outgrowth of policies drawn up by the National Association of Insurance Commissioners—a voluntary organization of state insurance commissioners.

Peach Queen Is Romeo Girl

Pamela Cumming's coronation was accompanied by more than the usual amount of confusion, but out of it came the first Romeo girl to receive the Peach Queen title in more than 20 years.

Miss Flint, Donna Lee Shepherd, already had been crowned Peach Queen when the astonished judges moved to correct the mistake. Miss Shepherd was contestant No. 1 and Pamela, No. 11.

One judge had put down the figure "1" rather than "11" in designating the winners — thus was the wrong girl honored.

Pamela, who earlier had won the Miss Romeo title, will reign over the 32nd annual Michigan Peach Festival during the Labor Day weekend.

With her will be first maid of honor Nancy G. Shadrick, Miss

U.S. Protests Soviet Shots

10 Rounds Fired at Army Car in E. Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — A Soviet army sentry fired two bursts from a submachine gun "in the direction" of a U.S. Army car in East Berlin last Sunday but no one was injured, a U.S. spokesman said today.

The spokesman said the bullets did not strike the car, though the Soviet soldier fired a burst of three rounds and another of about seven.

Calling the incident an "unprovoked and undisciplined action," the spokesman said a written protest was sent to Pyotr Abrasimov, Soviet ambassador in East Berlin, and to Gen. Ivan E. Yakubovsky, commander of Soviet forces in East Germany.

★ ★ ★

ARMY COMMANDER

Gen. Paul Freeman, commander in chief U.S. Army, Europe, protested to the Soviet general.

Expect UAW to Pick Strike Target Today

Union Officials Set Meetings on Talks; Contracts End Aug. 31

CHICAGO (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union — backed by a $66-million strike fund—is expected to select its prime target today for a possible nationwide strike in the auto industry.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther and union officials scheduled a series of meetings to discuss the status of negotiations over three-year contracts covering more than a half-million assembly line workers.

Out of the talks is expected to come a decision on which of the Big Three automakers—General Motors, Ford or Chrysler—will be tagged as the No. 1 target for a possibly crippling walkout.

★ ★ ★

A UAW spokesman estimated that the strike fund, providing an average of $25 per week in benefits to each worker, would support a strike up to eight weeks at GM, longer at Ford or Chrysler.

EXPIRE AUG. 31

All the big three contracts are due to expire at midnight Aug. 31.

Union strategy, if precedent is followed, would then be to halt production with a mass walkout at the target company's plants, while extending contracts with the other two firms on a day-to-day basis.

The strikebound company would be hit when it hurts the most — just when 1965 models are beginning to roll out of the factories. Its competitors, meanwhile, would have the auto sales field virtually to themselves.

8TH WEEK OF TALKS

UAW Locals in City Slate Strike Votes

Strike botes have been scheduled between now and Wednesday at the three United Auto Workers locals in Pontiac, according to union spokesmen.

Fisher Body Local 596 will lead off, beginning today. The voting will be continued for the next five working days until all members at the plant have had the opportunity ot vote.

Members of GMC Truck & Coach Local 594 will cast their ballots Monday and Tuesday and Local 653 at Pontiac Motor Division will vote Tuesday and Wednesday.

Local 596 President Don Johnson said the voting is a precautionary measure in case UAW representatives and the three major auto companies fail to reach an agreement before the current contract expires Aug. 31, and General Motors Corp. is selected as the union's target company.

★ ★ ★

Negotiations were suspended today while UAW officials met in Chicago to decide which of the three companies, GM, Chrysler or Ford, will be struck if no contract agreement is reached.

WHEN TO RESUME

Bargaining between labor and management representatives, who have rejected each other's preliminary proposals, probably won't be resumed on a national level until the target company is announced.

'Act on Districting Bill'

General N-Ban Pact Acceptable to Russia

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet Union said today it is willing to sign a general treaty banning the use of nuclear weapons.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin told the 17-nation disarmament conference such a treaty "would put an end to all nuclear aggression."

He expressed strong support for a proposal by Ethiopian delegate Mikael Imru that the next U.N. General Assembly should convene a world conference to draft a treaty outlawing the use of nuclear weapons in war.

Western delegates immediately described the proposal as impractical and likely to create a false and dangerous sense of security.

Imru said the conference should take action to implement a 1961 U.N. resolution urging the United States and the Soviet Union to consider the possibility of a general ban on the use of nuclear arms.

★ ★ ★

He urged that a general convention laying down such a ban should be drafted quickly.

FIRST TIME

It was the first time the subject has come before the two-year-old disarmament conference.

"The Soviet goverament is ready to assume all the commitments attached to such a convention, provided other states do likewise," Tsarapkin said.

The first Western speaker in the debate, Canada's Gen. E. L. M. Burns, said a declaration outlawing the use of nuclear arms was "unlikely to produce useful results and, moreover, will give rise to a dangerous false sense of security."

★ ★ ★

Burns said such a declaration was unlikely to be observed by states which felt their security was threatened.

VIOLATIONS COMMON

"History has shown that previous similar declarations have all been violated, without exception," he added.

He said it was illogical to ban the use of nuclear weapons and continue piling them up, and he urged the conference to seek to end the nuclear threat by a controlled elimination of atomic weapons rather than by a vague and unenforcable declaration.

U.S. delegate Clare H. Timberlake did not speak in the conference session but he told newsmen afterward the proposal "remains as unacceptable to the United States as it always has been."

37 Survivors in Plane Crash

No Deaths Reported in Nevada Accident

TONOPAH, Nev. (UPI) — A twin-engine DC3 airliner carrying 37 persons to a Nevada gambling resort crashed last night while attempting an emergency landing in a dry southern Nevada lake bed. All aboard survived.

★ ★ ★

The Hawthorne Airlines plane was headed from Burbank, Calif., to Hawthorne, Nev., when it reported 15 minutes out of Tonopah at 8 p.m. PDT (11 p.m. Pontiac time) that one engine was out.

Pilot Harry W. Hopkins attempted to bring the crippled aircraft into the Tonopah Airport, but decided to crash-land seven miles south when the second engine caught fire and he saw the flat area ahead.

He brought the plane in near-darkness onto the dry bed of Mud Lake, the same site used by the X-15 experimental aircraft for emergency landings.

The DC3 landed on one wing, shearing it off, and then cartwheeled 150 yards along the ground. Both engines were knocked loose by the impact.

SAID FANTASTIC

Rick Blakemoor, manager of the local airport, said "it was fantastic that nobody was killed. The plane wound up on its back with the tail sticking up in the air, but the passengers just walked out the door."

★ ★ ★

Although 32 of the passengers were held overnight at Nye County Hospital with assorted cuts and bruises, a spokesman said only five required major medication.

★ ★ ★

Most seriously injured were Hopkins and his copilot, Stanley Nielson, who were trapped in the cabin for 90 minutes until cut loose with hacksaws.

Barry Leaves Door Open on Intelligence Briefings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater left the door open today for intelligence briefings from President Johnson's advisers — but said he is not going to be trapped into campaign silence about things he already knows.

"I will ask for intelligence briefings when I feel they are needed," the Republican nominee for president said yesterday in an interview.

Goldwater indicated he has no plans now to ask for such sessions.

NEW SLAP

He accused the Pentagon chief of making public top secret information "that I have held respect for" in challenging Goldwater's statements on defense matters.

Goldwater said he thinks some administration agencies would offer briefings "that I could completely trust, that I would feel I was getting a really fair answer.

But he added: "I would say from my experience on the armed service committee that Defense is not one of them."

WRONG IMPRESSIONS

Goldwater told newsmen his early campaign speeches are going to be aimed in large measure at clearing up what he views as wrong impressions left by the Republican primary campaign.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed into law today the $947.5-million antipoverty bill intended to improve living conditions for millions of Americans.

Dirksen Wants Action After Dem Confab

Senate Receives Tougher Proposal From the House

WASHINGTON (AP) —Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen pressed today for a showdown in the congressional battle over reapportionment—and the Supreme Court—immediately after Democrats hold their national convention.

The Senate, already snarled by a filibuster against Dirksen's proposal for delaying court-ordered reapportionment by population of both houses of state legislatures, received a much tougher proposal from the House yesterday.

Urged to show its "intestinal fortitude," the House approved 218 to 175 a bill that would strip federal courts of jurisdiction in reapportionment cases.

To try to push his proposal through, Dirksen has offered it as a rider to the $3.3-billion foreign aid bill, one of the measures on the administration's "must list."

★ ★ ★

Dirksen said the House measure would increase pressure in the Senate for adoption of his amendment and might shorten the fight Senate Democratic liberals are making to prevent a vote on his proposal.

'NO CHOICE'

"If the filibuster doesn't stop when Congress reconvenes after the Democratic National Contion next week," Dirksen told a reporter, "I'll have no choice but to file a cloture petition."

★ ★ ★

He said he was confident proponents could muster the necessary two-thirds majority of senators present and voting to bring the debate to an end.

Opponents of Dirksen's rider, including Sens. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., and Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said they would continue their talkathon indefinitely.

Police Hunt Dog That Bit Boy

The dog, which bit the youngster Monday, was described as a black and brown mate, possibly part dachshund. The dog had no collar and has been seen in the area only once since the incident.

Andrew was bitten on the hand when he tried to pet the dog.

Lutheran Talk Advises Youth

DETROIT (AP)—A gathering of 12,000 youths received this advice Wednesday night:

"The fellows who park with the girls and demand that they 'prove their love,' don't love the girls. They love themselves."

★ ★ ★

The essence of genuine love, the minister said, was understood by St. Paul when he wrote: "'Love does not insist on its own way.'"

RIGHT MOTIVES

He also said that mankind's ills need an application of mercy without selfish motivations, and accused many church members of engaging in religious activities for the benefit they believe it brings them.

★ ★ ★

"We join up with God for what we can get out of it," the Rev. Mr. Rueter continued. "So its been going for a long time. People have been giving to missions, because this is the best and cheapest way to stop the communists.

★ ★ ★

"Sometimes even prayer is sold as a gimmick—a machine by which we can move God, to manipulate Him to do what we want, to make Him our puppet."

★ ★ ★

Unselfish Christian service, he said, requires that one seeking to serve acquire the ability to feel the joys, the needs and the hurts of the one who is to be served.

Mum (?) Tallulah in London Run

LONDON (AP) — Tallulah Bankhead returned to London today — a city she captivated 41 years ago — and started a small row.

She also refused to leave the customs building until the Rolls-Royce, she said she'd been promised, appeared.

"I don't care where it's parked," she said. "I want to see it. It's in my contract."

MOVIE ROLE

While movie men hastened to the parking lot to alert the chauffeur of the contracted car, reporters asked her if she would walk to the interviewing shed.

★ ★ ★

"No," she replied, "I won't even go near it."

"When were you in London last, Miss Bankhead?" one newsman asked.

Mrs. LBJ Dedicates Campobello Island

Mrs. Johnson told the audience of U.S. and Canadian officials, members of the Roosevelt family and the donors of the site that the island memorial "stands as witness to our unfortified boundaries and to our friendship with our neighbors."

* * *

She said in her prepared speech that "a man triumphed over adversity" here, "and among these bays and books and boats" the shaping of a president took place.

It was on Campobello — he called it his "beloved island" — that Roosevelt was stricken with crippling polio in 1921.

CROWDED DAY

The ceremony was part of a crowded day for Mrs. Johnson which included a visit to Eastport, Maine, to inspect a federally aided public works project and a scheduled stop at Burlington, Vt., for inauguration ceremonies of the state's new Commission on the Status of Women.

At the joint ceremony here Mrs. Johnson praised the family of Armand, Victor and Harry Hammer of New York, for their "generosity and imagination" in restoring the site and donating it to the U.S. and Canadian governments for joint administration as a memorial to the late president.

The rambling, 34-room red brick home of the late president, was given to the U.S. and Canadian governments by Armand Hammer, New York industrial executive and art dealer, and his family.

The Hammer family had purchased the home and its 29 acres of ground in 1952 from Roosevelt's son, Elliott, who had inherited it from his father. Before she died in 1962, Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the late president, helped the Hammer family restore the home.

TRAVELING PARTY

Armand, Harry and Victor Hammer and their wives were included in Mrs. Johnson's traveling party, along with two U.S. members of the Campobello International Commission, Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Undersecretary of Commerce Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. who was born at Campobello.

Officially representing the United States were Katie Louchheim, a deputy assistant secretary of state and Oren Beatty, assistant secretary of the interior.

Dawdlers Reflect Own Pushy Attitude

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

DEAR MRS. LAWRENCE: I have a boy, 13, who can't do anything until the very last minute. If I say anything I get accused of riding him.

But if I didn't he would let his laundry accumulate until he didn't have a clean shirt and then I'd get complaints about that. My husband is just like him.

If we're going out, he always has a million things to do at the last minute before he joins us in the car.

He encourages the boy to put things off, finding excuses for him instead of backing me up. . .

ANSWER: You're telling me that your men folk dawdle. Know something? Dawdling is never resistance to collecting laundry or joining us in the car.

It's never resistance to the action we want from the dawdler. It's resistance to some pusher's suggestion that the dawdlers can't move without pushing.

So, if you are involved with dawdlers, you will get nowhere by making issues of collecting laundry or joining you in the car.

The problem is your own secret certainty that your dawdlers are not going to move unless you push them.

It will compel you to continue pushing them until you realize what that secret certainty costs you in tension, exhaustion and resentment.

Can you realize this?

It is only when we can feel our tension and register the exhaustion of our faces in the mirror that we can rise up in defense of ourselves and cry out to our own hearts (or to our dawdlers), "I am more important that collections of laundry or excursions in the car!

DON'T PUSH

"Never will I abuse my valuable energies again by pushing you to do what you don't want to do! If you don't want to move, stand still! Wear soiled shirts until they fall off you!

"Sell the car if you don't want to use it! Whatever you want, I'm through pushing you to want something else!"

So it is a difficult way. For our certainty that our dawdlers will refuse us any consideration is our certainty that we do not deserve consideration.

CONSIDER SELF

Register this, my friend. Because the unpalatable fact is that unless we can show consideration for ourselves, our resisting dawdlers will assume that we can manage without it.

Milk Is Sold in Pop Bottles

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — A new concept in fluid milk packaging and distribution consists of serving it in eight-ounce pop bottles at 10 cents a bottle from vending machines.

ATTEND SISTER
