FIGHT INFERNO — Firemen and volunteers pour water on the burning Katie Jane Rest Home in Warrenton, Mo., as fire of undetermined origin swept through the structure, killed more than 70.

Flames Sweep Brick Structure Within Minutes

Explosion, Blaze Hit Missouri Unit Sunday; No Exact Count of Dead

WARRENTON, Mo. (AP) — Smoke and steam still rose today from the smouldering ruins of an old folks' home which was turned into a funeral pyre in minutes for at least 70 persons by a racing fire yesterday.

Seventy of the 155 inmates, including 45 women, were reported missing.

The fire and an explosion took its toll in a matter of minutes. One eyewitness said it seemed the entire two and one-half story brick building was aflame in three or four minutes. Another said it couldn't have been more than 15 minutes.

Searchers poured water on sections of the ruins today and then continued to probe through debris for bodies. They had recovered 16.

Survivors of the tragedy were given a breakfast of soft boiled eggs, oatmeal, bread and coffee or milk in their temporary quarter's in the home's administration building. The food was cooked in the high school cafeteria, about two blocks away.

Mrs. Bernice McDaniel, a nurse's aid who was on the second floor when the fire broke out, said she could recall only two Sunday visitors on her floor. She didn't know whether they escaped.

ESCAPED UNHURT

Mrs. McDaniel, 42, said she and Mrs. Alta Floyd were on duty when her 10-year-old daughter called out "fire." All three escaped unhurt.

"We made our way down the stairs and out the crowded front door," she said. "We didn't have an opportunity to rescue any of the patients. They were all bedridden."

Mrs. McDaniel, resting at her Montgomery City, Mo., home where she was "terribly shaken up," said after reaching safety she "heard a terrific explosion."

She said there were seven nurse's aids, janitors and kitchen workers on duty at the time of the tragedy, which was all over in minutes.

Bodies could be seen in the rubble. They were so badly burned that plastic bags and cardboard cartons were used to gather them up. Most of the bodies appeared to be in the basement.

County Coroner F. H. Knigge estimated the death toll "from 70 on up." The state highway patrol, in reporting 70 inmates unaccounted for, did not include employes.

Picketing Ended Today in 5-Day Docks Tie-Up

Expect Return to Work Tomorrow Will Bring Peace to East Coast

NEW YORK (AP)—Picketing ended on the New York waterfront today, and an employer spokesman said striking longshoremen may return to work here tomorrow on the basis of a negotiators' agreements.

Agreement was reached last night on a pact to end the five-day tieup of ports from Maine to Virginia.

Alexander P. Chopin, chairman of the New York Shipping Assn., said his prediction of a possible return-to-work here tomorrow was based partly on reports that longshoremen might not wait until after a member vote on the pact.

He also said some locals were holding meetings today concerning the agreement between coastwise negotiators for the shippers and the International Longshoremen's Assn. (Ind).

"This contract ensures waterfront peace along the entire East Coast from Hampton Roads, Va. to Portland, Maine," said ILA counsel Louis Waldman.

The ILA Executive Board meets late this afternoon on back-to-work procedures. Thomas Gleason, ILA organization director, said it would be known about 3 p.m. when dockers in this and other ports would return to work.

Normally, a return to work is conditional on membership ratification of committee-negotiated agreements. Chopin declined to predict when workers in other ports would be back on the job.

Thorny local issues in several ports still are to be worked out.

Championship Form in Florida

SIZZLING SANDS — A 1957 Chieftain, of the type which won the grand finale to Daytona Beach's famed NASCAR classic yesterday, streaks across the finish line during recent qualifying tests. A similar model, piloted by Cotton Owens, of Spartanburg, S. C., set an average speed mark of 101.60 miles an hour.

Pontiac Sets New Record in Daytona Beach Victory

Roaring over the sands at an average speed of 101.6 miles an hour, a 1957 Pontiac blazed its way to a record victory in the 160-mile Grand National Championship race at Daytona Beach, Fla., yesterday.

The 317-horsepower Chieftain two-door sedan—of the type built by Pontiac for police fleets—was driven by Cotton Owens of Spartanburg, S.C.

His average speed was the fastest ever negotiated over the famed NASCAR course. The race classic was for late model stock automobiles.

The mark climaxed a week of driving in which Pontiac models set new records in acceleration tests, standing miles and the flying mile.

Owens covered the 160-mile course in one hour, 34 minutes and 29 seconds to surpass the 101.32 mile-an-hour mark set in Saturday's race between convertibles.

The Pontiac's engine, which brought Owens third place in qualifying heats Saturday, is equipped with three double-barrel carburetors and a special cam.

Owens and his Pontiac fought a duel for first place with Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, driving a Chevrolet, taking 31 of the 39 laps before Goldsmith dropped out because of mechanical trouble.

He finished two miles ahead of another Chevrolet. Other places were taken by a Mercury, third; a Chevrolet, fourth; and a Ford, fifth.

A crowd of 37,000 gathered on the beach to watch Owens win. His car was entered in the race by a Daytona Beach dealer.

Seek Sanity Hearing for Sniper After Mental Examiner's Report

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem, announced today he will petition circuit court tomorrow for a sanity hearing in the case of Gary A. Taylor, the Southfield Township factory worker who confessed to more than a dozen shootings in the county since Dec. 1956.

Ziem said his petition is based on the findings of a mental examination given Taylor at the request of his attorney.

Dr. Ivan A. LaCore, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital, was appointed by Ziem to conduct the examination. He examined the confessed "phantom sniper" at the Oakland County Jail Saturday.

In the summation of the findings reported to Ziem, LaCore said:

"Taylor is dangerously mentally ill and should be hospitalized."

Taylor, 20, of 16192 Marguerite St., was apprehended by Royal Oak police Feb. 7 after terrorizing four communities in a period of three hours with a .22 caliber rifle. The sniper fired at eight persons that night. He hit two of them, both young girls.

Taylor faces a charge of assault with intent to murder in the shooting of Shirley Eland, 19, of 200 Hickory Grove Rd., Bloomfield Hills.

TAYLOR'S WEAPON

Ziem reported that ballistic tests of the bullet recovered from this shooting indicated that it was Taylor's weapon that fired the shot. It was Miss Eland's description of Taylor's car that led to the sniper's arrest.

In Taylor's exclusive interview with a Pontiac Press reporter last week, he said:

"I get this urge to shoot women and nothing but being locked up can stop me. I'm glad I was caught so I can't hurt anyone anymore. I need treatment."

Miffed at Attentions to Fiancee

Did Harrison Hit Sinatra?

NEW YORK (AP) — Newspapers printed reports today that British actor Rex Harrison slapped Frank Sinatra in the face twice at a party in a misunderstanding over Harrison's fiancee Kay Kendall.

The New York Herald Tribune and the New York Daily Mirror had similar stories from Hollywood about the incident, which reportedly occurred last week.

Neither Sinatra nor Harrison could be contacted in Hollywood for comment on the stories, and other sources at the film capital were unproductive.

From the reports the incident shaped up along these lines:

Sinatra, his fists clenched at his side during the double slapping, didn't strike back but walked away.

He later told friends that he didn't believe Harrison knew what he was doing and he didn't intend to take advantage of him.

A friend of Sinatra said:

"Frank knew he could whip Harrison with one hand tied behind his back. He was outraged that Harrison thought he was flirting with his girl. Later he thought the whole incident pretty funny."

The slapping occurred at a party attended by many Hollywood notables with producer-agent Charles Feldman as host.

Sinatra went to the patio of Feldman's home to get some fresh air early in the morning and Miss Kendall joined him there for a chat.

They had a casual conversation, in the course of which Miss Kendall admired Sinatra's shirt. Harrison, who had escorted his fiancee to the party, came out looking for her, and found her with Sinatra.

Miss Kendall said to Harrison: "Isn't this a beautiful shirt Frank is wearing?"

Harrison grudgingly agreed and asked what color it was.

Said Sinatra: "Just an old shirt. Kind of off-white, maybe yellow."

Harrison then slapped Sinatra.

Sinatra, gritting his teeth and clenching his fists, said, "It's still yellow."

Then came the second slap. Several other guests came out on the patio, and Sinatra walked away.

Harrison, who is on a month's leave as male star of the Broadway musical hit "My Fair Lady," was divorced in Mexico Feb. 7 by his wife of 14 years, Lilli Palmer. She charged incompatibility and mental cruelty.

New York Official Boosts Fluoridation

NEW YORK (AP) — Health Commissioner Leona Baumgartner says fluoridation of New York's City's water supply would have saved 85 million dollars in children's dental bills in 10 years.

She said the bulk of the opposition to fluoridation is centered among "professional anti's."

"I am not impressed by the size of the opposition," she said, adding: "I just think they make a lot of noise."

Appearing yesterday on a radio program, she expressed her belief that fluoridation will eventually be approved.

The Board of Estimate will hold a hearing on the fluoridation proposal March 6.

Can't Deny This: You Are Among the 100 Million

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A national statistical analysis firm reports that 100 million different Americans now read a newspaper during the average day.

The average reader spend 34 minutes a day with his newspaper during January, Sindlinger said.

The 100-million mark was passed for the first time in history during January, according to a report by Sindlinger & Co., Ridley Park, Pa.

Although the number of readers declined prior to Christmas to a point lower than before the Suez crisis, it shot up to the all-time high right after New Year's, the report said.

An official of the firm said surveys revealed that the general increase in newspaper, magazine and book reading was coming from "increased selectivity of the nighttime televiewer who has had TV for a long time."

Car Skids Into Pole; Man Dies Near Utica

Harold J. Mink Jr., 43, of St. Clair Shores was killed Saturday afternoon near Utica when his car skidded on ice and struck a utility pole, troopers of the Centerline State police post said.

Mink died instantly when the pole crashed down on him at Clinton River and 19 Mile Rds. in Sterling Township, police said.

He was alone at the time of the accident.

Wouldn't Disclose Names

Indict Arthur Miller on Contempt Charges

WASHINGTON (AP)—Playwright Arthur Miller, husband of actress Marilyn Monroe, was indicted today on two charges of contempt of Congress.

The indictment stemmed from Miller's refusal to tell the House Committee on Un-American Activities the names of fellow writers with whom he admitted attending Communist party meetings in 1939 and 1940.

Miller denied in testimony to the committee June 21, 1956, that he had ever been a Communist or under Communist discipline, but admitted he had been associated with a number of Communist-front groups.

The Pulitzer Prize winning playwright told the committee he "would not support now a cause dominated by Communists."

In refusing to name persons with whom he attended Communist party meetings, Miller said: "My conscience will not permit me to use the name of another person and bring trouble to him."

The federal grand jury which indicated Miller also returned a separate indictment charging Dr. Otto Nathan of New York, executor of the estate of the late Albert Einstein, with contempt of Congress.

DECLINED PRIVILEGE

Neither Miller nor Nathan claimed the Fifth Amendment's privilege against answering questions that might tend to be incriminatory.

Contempt of Congress is punishable by up to $1,000 fine and a year's imprisonment on each count.

Familiar Forecast! Colder, More Snow

"Button up your overcoats," Pontiac residents, and don't forget gloves and mufflers when leaving the house tonight. The weather man has forecast snow flurries and turning colder with temperatures hovering in a 10 to 18 degree range.

Partly cloudy with temperatures expected to reach only 22 to 28 degrees is the prediction for Tuesday.

The mercury read 39 at 2 p.m.

Two inches of snow fell on Royal Oak and the Detroit area today, briefly glazing streets.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. this morning was 19.

'M' Grid Aide Quits

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Don Robinson quit today as backfield coach at the University of Michigan, and Chalmers (Bump) Elliott, another former Michigan backfield star, was reported in the city—possibly to discuss the position.

One report was that Elliott, who starred on Michigan teams in the late 1940s, would be offered an assistant athletic directorship, too.

Prosperous Pot Glitters With Gold and $900 Booty

All that glitters isn't gold, but in this case, it's just as good. That's the loot in our Pot-O-Gold, which right now totals $900.

That much money would make several mortgage payments, or finance the new furniture you've been wanting, or, if you're the frivolous type, provide quite a few champagne dinners. We suspect that many who are ordinarily above entering contests will succumb to the temptation.

If you're interested, turn to page 21 and start solving it now and be sure to get it in on time. And, unless you never cry over spilled milk, mail your entry on a postcard. Otherwise, it will be disqualified.

Early Voting Light in Waterford

Expect Balloting to Get Heavier

Evening Should Swell Number of Voters in Primary Election

Early voting was generally light in Waterford Township this morning as residents began to turn out for a primary election, but evening voting hours were expected to swell the number of registered voters participating.

A spot check of the three largest precincts in the township showed a turnout well below the early figures of the general election last fall.

Seeking nominations are a slate of 18 Republicans and 20 Democrats. Winners after the polls close at 8 p.m. will win places on the April 1 ballot.

There are contests for four nominations on the Democartic slate—treasurer, trustee, justice of the peace and township committee.

ON GOP BALLOT

On the GOP ballot, battles for nomination as supervisor, clerk and treasurer are drawing interest.

Precincts and their locations are listed below:

Precinct 1—Jayno Adams School on Clintonville road; Precinct 2—Fire Station No. 2 on W. Walton boulevard; Precinct 3—Waterford Village School;

Precinct 4 Williams Lake school;

Precinct 5—Township Hall; Precinct 6—Hudson Covert School; Precinct 7—Donelson School; Precinct 8—Stringham School; Precinct 9—Oakland Coin Co., on Cooley Lake road.

Precinct 10 — Lambert School; Precinct 11 — Knights of Pythias Hall on Voorheis road; Precinct 12 — Community Activities building on Williams Lake road.

Post Office Hit by $300 Robbery

Lakeville Theft May Be Linked to Breakins at 2 Nearby Schools

Thieves broke into the Lakeville Post Office, 556 Lakeville Rd., Addison Township, yesterday and escaped with more than $300 in cash and checks.

Postmaster Marion Haddrill discovered the front door of the building pried open at 1:50 p.m. He told Oakland County Sheriff's detectives the cash drawer latch had been removed and the contents scattered about. Two boxes containing cash and checks were missing.

Postal Inspector M. P. Wood reported that $129.46 was taken in cash and $210 in checks.

Two schools in Addison Township were also reported broken into shortly before the post office incident. It is not known yet whether there is any connection between the crimes.

SCHOOL RANSACKED

At 10:48 a.m. yesterday the janitor of the Lakeville School reported to the Sheriff's office that vandals had broken into the building through a rear door. Classrooms and offices were ransacked, but nothing was reported missing.

John Southerby, 4399 West St., discovered that thieves had entered the Leonard School when he opened the building at 11:45 a.m. Sheriff's detectives said desks and drawers had been disrupted, and small change scattered about. A new record player is missing, they revealed, and $25, mostly in bills, taken from a filing box.

Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter

Barron Slayer Faces Possible Sentence of 15 Years in Prison

PORT HURON (AP) — Roger Fetting, 36, pleaded guilty to manslaughter today in the Jan. 9 slaying of hillbilly ballad singer Lonnie Barron, shot down in bachelor quarters back of a dance hall he operated at nearby Muttonville.

Maximum punishment for manslaughter is 15 years imprisonment.

Fetting testified at his examination that he shot the 24-year-old Barron after the latter boasted he had been intimate with both Fetting's wife, Betty, 35, and his sister, Mrs. Jean Kerr.

Mrs. Fetting testified that her husband intercepted a letter she had written Barron revealing dates she had kept with Barron, who had a reputation as a "ladies man," while her carpenter husband was away deer hunting.

Prosecutor Wilbur V. Hamm agreed to reduce the charge against Fetting from first-degree murder to manslaughter at his examination.

Circuit Judge Edward T. Kane, before whom Fetting was arraigned, referred the case to the court's probation department and ordered a psychiatric examination of Fetting. He set no date for sentencing.

Fetting, who lives at nearby Lexington, told the judge he had been promised no leniency or other favor in pleading guilty.

Coffee Break Leads to Suspect's Arrest

A cup of coffee led to the arrest of a 20-year-old Pontiac man who is charged with passing bogus checks.

Lester Leon Archer, 464 Auburn Ave., was apprehended at the Sanitary Restaurant, 16 S. Saginaw about 9:15 p.m. Sunday on a warrant filed by Willis Stewart, Manager of the Kroger Super Market, 715 N. Perry St.

Detective Herbert Cooley said he recognized Archer while he was having a cup of coffee in the local restaurant. He remembered him as the man Stewart had previously pointed out from a photograph as being the one who cashed $124 check Feb. 7.

Cooley added Archer admitted he had passed eight checks totalling over $1,000. This check was drawn on the Clarkston State Bank.

Will Act Through U. N.

U.S. Quits Effort in Israeli Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States virtually washed its hands today of efforts outside the United Nations to win Israeli withdrawal from disputed Middle East territories.

After an all-out weekend try which the White House said brought no agreement, President Eisenhower bluntly told Israel it now has "the maximum assurance that it can reasonably expect at this juncture, or that can be reconciled with fairness to others."

That was a key phrase in an 800-word statement authorized by the President at his Thomasville, Ga., vacation headquarters.

He wound it up with a new appeal for Israeli cooperation with the United Nations, declaring:

"The United States, for its part, will strive to remain true to, and support, the United Nations in its efforts to sustain the purposes and principles of the charter, as the world's best hope of peace."

Israeli officials said, however, their talks with American officials are not at an end. Despite the air of finality about American pronouncements, Israeli Ambassador Abba Eban said he expects to meet again with Secretary of State Dulles — "but no date has been fixed.'

DULLES STILL OPEN

While the main U. S. effort was shifting to the U. N. at New York City, Dulles' door still was open to Eban if his government wants to change its mind about holding on to the Gaza Strip and the Gulf of Aqaba area called Sharm el Sheikh.

Golda Meir, Israel's foreign minister, said last night Israeli troops would evacuate Sharm el Sheikh in an hour if the United States guaranteed free shipping to all nations in the Gulf of Aqaba.

In a nationwide TV appearance, she proposed three other possible solutions: (1) a similar guarantee by Egypt, Saudi Arabia and Jordan, which border the gulf, (2) stationing of U.N. police forces at Sharm el Sheikh to prevent harassment of gulf shipping, and (3) an Israeli-Egyptian peace treaty.

Business Heads Will Hold Clinic

C. of C. Invites Members to Attend Discussions of Current Issues

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce has issued an invitation to attend the "Congressional Issues Clinic" in Detroit, Feb. 28.

Sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce, the clinic features panel discussions, led by top businessmen from the country, on spending and taxes, government competition, wages and labor, and "climate" for economic growth.

In addition, local and regional business leaders will discuss and analyze specific issues shaping up in the present Congress.

Chamber Manager John W. Hirlinger said cost for the day's program will be $7, which includes two-way bus transportation, registration, and luncheon. Buses leave City Hall at 8 a.m. and return at 5:30. The program is scheduled for the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel.

Waterford House Fire Blamed on Smoking

Careless smoking was blamed by firemen as the cause of a fire at the home of Wesley Riley, 1088 Premont St., at 4 a.m. Saturday.

The fire started in the living room of the frame building, and damage was estimated at $1,500 by Waterford Township firemen who answered the call.

The building and contents were covered by insurance.

Ike's Aide to Speak

Your Income Tax

This is one of a series of articles prepared by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service to help you prepare your Income Tax Return.

ARE YOU THE HEAD OF THE HOUSE?

Were you unmarried or legally separated at the close of the year? Did you furnish over half the cost of maintaining your household and have a relative living there for the entire year, except for a temporary absence? Are you entitled to a dependency deduction for the relative? If so, then you are entitled to the special tax rates as head of household.

Did you pay over half the cost of maintaining a household which is the principal place of abode of your father or mother? Does either qualify as your dependent? If so, use the head of household rates.

Also, if you have an unmarried child, grandchild, or stepchild that is not a dependent — but had as their principal residence your household — and you paid over half the cost of maintaining that household — use the Head of Household rates — that is — Schedule III — in your instruction booklet.

However, if your adjusted gross income is less than $5,000 — and you are not itemizing your deductions — use the Tax Table.

(Further information on income tax problems is available without charge at the Internal Revenue Service office, 53½ W. Huron St. Phone FE 2-0206.)

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower put aside vacation activities today to keep in "very close touch" with Washington on the Middle East crisis. He was reported ready to return to the capital "any time he should decide it necessary."

Eisenhower conferred with Secretary of State Dulles by telephone again this morning and also studied written reports on the Mideast situation sent to him from Washington by Dulles.

70 Die as Fire Hits Missouri Rest Home and the injured out before flames thwarted further rescue attempts.

SETS OFF EXPLOSION

Shortly after the fire's start, a muffled explosion shot flames and smoke billowing into the air, visible more than 30 miles away.

It started off as a pleasant Sunday afternoon. Relatives were visiting with inmates. Some 50 of them were believed to have been in the building when the fire broke out at 3:45 p.m. Not all of them had been accounted for.

The Rev. Walter H. Schwanie, a Lutheran minister, was holding services in a first-floor room of a dormitory for 22 patients and 11 visitors.

The congregation was singing the hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," when they heard someone shout, "Fire!" The visitors and the Rev. Mr. Schwanie helped the patients, two of them in wheel chairs, flee the flames.

STARTED IN HALL

The fire reportedly started in a hallway nearby. The operator of the home, Woodrow O'Sullivan, said he had no idea what caused it. Authorities said they were puzzled over how quickly flames enveloped the 65-year-old building. O'Sullivan estimated property damage at $250,000.

Thirty-nine patients in an adjoining building, also a two-story brick structure, were evacuated safely and taken to a grocery store across the street.

Warren Stuart, an employe at a nearby filling station, was putting gasoline in a car when he heard the fire alarm in this east central Missouri town of 1,600, 55 miles west of St. Louis.

He helped six inmates to safety before flames turned him back. He told of hearing screams and cries for help.

Mrs. Velma O'Sullivan, wife of the operator of the home, was injured slightly helping 10 inmates escape. She and others laid mattresses on the ground and told inmates, standing at windows, to jump. Several jumped the 20 feet to safety.

O'Sullivan, who had operated the home since 1948, said his patients ranged in age from 50 to 99 years. He called it the Katie Jane Memorial Home.

"I've spent $30,000 trying to fix it up just to prevent something like this," he said, explaining there were no heating stoves in the building. The home was heated by steam from a powerhouse a block away. Cook stoves in the kitchen used liquified petroleum fuel stored in big pressure tanks 100 yards behind the building.

Mayor Oscar H. Kossina said the Warrenton Volunteer Fire Department had inspected the home only four weeks ago and it had "passed inspection."

The nursing home fire was the third of its kind in the state in slightly more than four years. Twelve persons lost their lives in a rest home fire at Puxico in southeast Missouri last July. Eighteen persons burned to death in the fall of 1952 in Hillsboro, south of St. Louis. The Hillsboro home was operated by O'Sullivan's sister Mrs. James Lewis and her husband.

O'Sullivan said he believed his 90-year-old aunt, Mrs. Noad Chandler, perished in the fire.

Disney Receives Highest Award From Film Guild

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (INS) —Famed film producer Walt Disney was presented with the Screen Producers Guild's highest honor, the Milestone Award, last night.

Pontiac Deaths

Harry H. Askew

Harry H. Askew, 61, of 1940 Hollywood Dr., Monroe, formerly of Pontiac, died Sunday following a one-year illness.

Surviving besides his wife, Cora Mitchell Askew, are two daughters and two sisters.

The body will be shipped to his birthplace, Baltimore, Md., and from there to Havre de Grace, Md., for the funeral.

Nancy Lynn Love

Nancy Lynn Love, the six month old child of Dennis and Rita McDermott Love, 5294 Lynsue Ln., died Saturday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

There will be a prayer service at 8:30 p.m. today at the Donelson-Johns Funeral Home with Rev. A. H. Mullins of the Columbia Avenue Baptist Church officiating. The body will then be taken to the Gaskins Funeral Home, Harrisburg, Ill., where funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Burial will be at the Sunset Hill Cemetery there.

Lawrence G. Miller

Lawrence G. Miller, the 9-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Miller of 439 Alberta St. died this morning at Pontiac General Hospital.

Survivors include his parents and three brothers, William, Leo and Michael, and three sisters, Patricia, Katherine and Sandra.

Service will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday at the Barnard Funeral Home in Capac, with Rev. Marie Fenton of the Capac Methodist Church officiating. Burial will be in the East Berlin Cemetery.

Nicholas Stephen Romeos

Nickolas S. Romeos, the infant son of Gerasimos and Eleanor Navarre Romeos of 132 Prospect St., died Friday at the Pontiac General Hospital.

He is survived by his parents and a sister, Dianne.

Service was at 10 today at the St. George Greek Orthodox Church, with the pastor, Rev. Achille Siagrias officiating, with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Arrangements were by Pursley Funeral Home.

Mrs. Mary Jane Sandow

Mrs. Mary Jane Sandow died Sunday at the home of her son Stanley, 33 Virginia Ave., after a two years' illness.

She is survived by two sons Stanley and Jay, two brothers and two sisters.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday at the Huntoon Funeral Home, with her pastor Rev. M. R. Everette of the Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church officiating. Buril will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

This Man Took Shortcut to His Own Arrest

A Drayton Plains man who admitted Friday he entered the Bloomfield Hills High School has two things to blame for his arrest—a shortcut he took, and alert police.

Lee Roy Persful, 22, of 5674 Williams Lake Rd., will be arraigned in Circuit Court today on a charge of breaking and entering.

Bloomfield Hills Police Chief Clark Green said desk sergeant Norman Denhke saw Persful pull into the parking lot behind the police station, park his car, and head for the nearby high school.

Watching Persful in the moonlight, Denhke radioed a scout car. The patrolmen took Persful's car keys, and then ordered him to come out of the school. A jump from a second-story window was not enough to avoid arrest.

Car Fire in Pontiac Causes $150 Damage

Pontiac Firemen were called to 125 N. Perry St. about 1 a.m. today to extinguish a fire in the front seat of an auto.

Cause of the fire in the auto, owned by Elmer Schields, 1040 Scripps Rd., Lake Orion, was careless smoking, according to firemen. Damage was estimated at $150, they added.

City Man Sentenced for Drunk Driving

Clarence Owens, Sr., 62, of 745 Hogarth Rd., was committed to the Oakland County Jail Saturday for 40 days after he was found guilty of drunk driving and causing an accident.

Owens was committed after he failed to pay a $100 fine plus 20 days in jail. He appeared before Judge Cecil McCallum.

No Royal Visit Planned to U.S. or Canada Now

LONDON (AP)—The Foreign Office denied today London newspaper speculation that Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh would visit America later this year.

"There are no plans for a royal visit to the United States or to Canada at present," a spokesman announced.

The Day in Birmingham

City to Face Question of Island View Drive

BIRMINGHAM — The controversial question of vacating Island View Drive will appear again tonight on the city commission agenda. Since the postponement of the issue on Jan. 28, city officials have made checks on such items as flood control, property title and the proposed use of the area for off-street parking.

Business places on Hunter boulevard have petitioned the closing of the drive for this purpose. Area residents are strongly opposed to the idea declaring it will ruin the beauty of the entire section.

Another item held over from a previous hearing is the proposed revision of the city's sign ordinance. Real estate board members who requested the delay have prepared a five-page report on revisions they feel will clarify and strengthen the ordinance.

Admitting their field is among the most frequent violators, members have dealt with several infractions in this line as well as other points they believe of major importance.

Commissioners, also, will hear the annual report of the police department and the quarterly report of financial returns from parking meters.

Detective Lt. Merlyn Holmquist reported this morning on an attempted safe-robbery at the Quarton Market on West Maple Road.

Entrance he said, was made through a next-door beauty parlor where an adjoining door enters the market premises. In the market the combination was knocked from the safe but the burglars were unable to open the door.

"They had to pry their way out," Holmquist said, "when they lock the market up, they really lock it. These fellows got in there and then had to ruin two doors in order to get out."

Birmingham Exchange Club is petitioning city commissioners for permission to hold the annual street sale of tooth brushes on April 20. Club president, Richard Gibson, said that proceeds of the sale are used entirely in the exchange program for underprivileged children.

Mrs. Anne Adams Hutchinson

A former resident of Troy and daughter of a pioneer Troy family the late Albert and Margaret Duncan Adams, Mrs. Anne Adams Hutchinson, 81, died yesterday in Providence Hospital Detroit, after a long illness. She had made her home at 1235 Edison Ave., Detroit.

She was the widow of the late William Hutchinson. She attended Birmingham High School and Doane College in Crete, Neb. She was a member of Brewster Pilgrim Congregational Church of Detroit and a former member of the Detroit Women's City Club.

Survivors include two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Seymour Adams of Birmingham and Mrs. Alec Adams of Des Moines, Iowa and several cousins.

Service will be at 3 p.m. Wednesday from Bell Chapel of the Wm. R. Hamilton Co. with burial in Greenwood Cemetery.

Oliver K. Helwig

Services for Oliver K. Helwig, 60, Director of Process Development for the Fisher Body Division, General Motors, will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Mayflower Congregational Church.

Mr. Helwig, who lived at 340 Colonial, Birmingham, died yesterday in Henry Ford Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth; two sons, Owen and Lawrence, and a daughter, Mrs. John Crawford.

See 2-1 Vote for Ike Doctrine

Knowland Says That Mideast Plan Will Get Decisive Senate OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) predicted today the Senate will pass by a margin of more than 2-1 its revised version of President Eisenhower's anti-Communist Middle East resolution.

But Sen. Aiken (R-Vt) said in a separate interview that if more than 25 of the Senate's 96 members vote "no," their action might classify the resolution as "one of those matters it might have been better not to bring up."

Both Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles have urged a decisive vote for the resolution to demonstrate solid support. The House passed it 355-61.

The Senate is expected to begin debate on the Middle East plan late today after acting on the first money bill before it this session.

As revised by Senate committees, the resolution would provide that "if the President determines the necessity thereof, the United States is prepared to use armed forces" to assist Middle Eastern nations seeking such aid "against armed aggression from any country controlled by international communism."

Up to 200 million dollars in military and economic aid also would be made available for Middle Eastern countries.

Senators O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) and Douglas (D-Ill) already have said they will try to amend the resolution in the Senate.

Police Arrest Man on Felonious Assault

Thomas Edward Mitchell, 27, of 258 Elm St., was arrested by Pontiac Police on a warrant brought by Ronald Wagner, 33 Gingell Ct., charging felonious assault.

Mitchell was apprehended at 78 Baldwin Ave., by Detective Eugene Hendren and Officer Gerald Navarre. He is accused of being one of two men who allegedly brandished a knife and inflicted a four inch cut on the left leg of Wagner as he and two friends were leaving a bar February 9.

Mitchell is to be arraigned today in Municipal Court.

Gun-Toting Youth Confined Again

A frightened 15-year-old Pontiac area boy, who terrorized a busy Detroit shopping district with a stolen gun Saturday afternoon, was back in confinement at Oakland County Children's Home today.

He was flushed without a struggle from a large brick and steel incinerator in which he had taken refuge in the Seven Mile road-Gratiot avenue vicinity.

The trouble began, police said, at 1:10 p.m. as the boy was attempting to steal a pair of blue jeans from the basement of a Federal department store, 14335 Gratiot. The gun fell from his belt.

He picked the weapon up and brandished it at three employes who were chasing him, then ran from the store down Gratiot to Seven Mile, looking for a hiding place.

Hundreds of busy shoppers gave way as the boy ran, gun in hand, to the rear of a nearby supermarket, 14165 Seven Mile. Two officers tracked the boy down to the incinerator.

The boy passed the gun out without any attempt at violence, but refused to leave for several minutes, saying he was afraid, police said.

He was taken into custody and returned to the Oakland County home, from where he had escaped Friday night, James W. Hunt, director of Children's Services, said.

The youth had walked away from the home unnoticed, Hunt said, and later that night admittedly stole the gun from a home in Warren.

Hunt said Detroit police may press a second charge against the boy. He was being held at the home last week awaiting a hearing on a breaking and entering charge.

Heavy Rains Relieve Texas

Bring Temporary Halt to Blistering Drought in Southern Area

DALLAS (AP) — Heavy rains drenched the drought-seared Texas Big Bend country, the lower South Plains and parts of the lower Rio Grande Valley over the weekend and more rain was forecast for today.

At least eight deaths, including seven traffic fatalities, were blamed on the weather.

A southwest Texas county agent called the rains the best in his area in seven years. But State Agriculture Commissioner John White said the precipitation was not general enough to be considered even a partial break in the long drought.

He did say the rains in some parts approached a more normal pattern for February for the first time in six or seven years.

Almost all of the country around Alpine received an average of hahalf an inch yesterday after Saturday's downpours that ranged up to nearly 4 inches.

Light rains also fell yesterday at Brownsville. Streets were temporarily flooded in that Rio Grande Valley city Saturday when a 4-inch rain soaked the area.

Frank Newsom, county agent for Jeff Davis and Brewster counties in far west Texas, said the rains in his area were the biggest ever recorded for February or at least as far as he could remember.

A small tornado struck the Stuart community near Harlingen in the Rio Grande Valley. It knocked over small buildings, trees and utility poles, but no one was injured.

Royalty Sires 16 Pups

DETROIT (AP) — Prince von Schoengerr, 4, and the Duchess of Heidelberg, 2, are the parents of a royal and large new family today—a litter of 16 German short-haired pointer puppies. Both the Prince and the Duchess are registered with the American Kennel Club, and they belong to Harold Emery, a Detroit factory worker.

Feminist Ends Famine

CAIRO (AP) — Feminist leader Doria Shafik says she has ended her hunger strike against what she called Egypt's "dictatorial regime" after 11 days because "I believe my country needs me." She vowed to fast "to the death" Feb. 6, and lost 17 pounds. Her first food yesterday was a bowl of soup and a cup of coffee.

Current Information for Utah Kite Flyer

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Thirteen-year-old kite flyer Robert R. Malin Jr. has a pretty good idea what Ben Franklin felt 204 years ago.

Robert was flying his kite using a string containing metalic thread. The string touched a 7,200-volt power line and Robert was knocked to the ground.

He suffered a slight burn on his right hand — where the electricity entered — and a pin-size burn on the heel of his left foot — where it left, as the voltage grounded out.

More than 1,500 prehistoric saber-tooth tiger skulls have been recovered from the La Brea tar pits near Los Angeles.

Youngest Senator, Church, to Work Hard, Talk Little

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Frank and Forrest (Twig) Church, two young newcomers to town, are both studying hard these days.

Frank, a 32-year-old Democratic Senator from Idaho and now youngest member of that body, is trying to learn the ins and outs of the venerable upper chamber.

Twig, age 8, his only son, is doing his best to get the hang of things in the third grade where he's a new pupil.

Both seem to be adjusting very well to the strange surroundings and new faces.

Twig has some neighborhood chums out near Chevy Chase where the Senator and his wife Bethine have rented a house. Frank is winning lots of friends in and out of the Senate.

"The boy is getting along fine and I'm pleased with his progress," says Church. "As for myself, I have a lot to learn, and I'm anxious to become better acquainted with my senior colleagues.

"I know most of the Democrats and I hope to become friendly with the Senators on the other side of the aisle."

This should not be too hard for personable, fresh-faced Church, who upset arch-conservative Herman Welker in last fall's election.

Although he looks more like a college student than a Senator, Church has managed to convince old-timers here that he s grown up enough for the job.

This is despite the fact that round-cheeked Church was mistaken for a page boy several times during the first days of Congress.

Once when a lady visitor at the Capitol told a page boy about the mistaken identity in Church's presence, the Senator couldn't resist identifying himself. The woman retreated in embarrassed confusion.

Just how does a young man win a Senate seat on his first try for public office against a well established and well known opponent?

"I have no secret formula," explains Church with a laugh. "I worked hard and went into all corners of the state.

"A man's maturity is more a matter of his judgment and behavior than his birthdays," he adds.

Church's main goal now is to learn all he can about his job and avoid stepping on older toes.

During the few evenings that he has had at home so far, he has been reading "Profiles in Courage," by Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass). The book, which Kennedy gave him, tells about some of the outstanding and courageous figures in the Senate over the years.

FULFILLS BOYHOOD DREAM

It has always been Church's boyhood dream to become a Senator.

"I consider it the greatest deliberative body in the world," he explains while pacing back and forth across his large office. "For many years I studied and read about it."

Actually, it was his son Twig who more or less called the outcome of the election.

One day the boy came home from school and reported that a poll of his class gave President Eisenhower 21 votes as against two for Stevenson.

The two hold-outs were Twig and a youngster who was a distant relatives of Adlai.

"When the other boy switched to Ike, Twig was pretty discouraged," says Church. "Then the class voted on the Senate race. Well, when I came out way ahead that made everybody happy. It was a good omen."

EXCELS AS SPEAKER

Like most successful young politicians, Church excels as a speaker. And even in the informality of his office he modulates his words in slightly oratorical tones. But it's not annoying.

Church is planning to wait a while before he rises to have his say in the Senate, however.

"I'll just tread lightly and work hard on committees," he says. Following this policy, he prefers not to talk about President Eisenhower's Middle East proposal. At this stage he thinks it would be brash for him to sound off on important foreign policy matters when wiser tongues are around him.

"When I do join in Senate debate, I hope I'll be able to measure up to some of the most adroit debaters in the nation," he adds.

Bipartisan Group to Go With Nixon to Ghana

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon will have bipartisan congressional representation in the delegation he takes with him to ceremonies on the independence of Ghana March 3-10.

Ghana is on the African Gold Coast.

Secretary of State Dulles said Thursday members of the Nixon delegation will include Reps. Francis P. Bolton (R-Ohio) and Charles C. Diggs (D-Mich).

Others will be Gov. Walter A. Gordon of the Virgin Islands and Mason Sears, U. S. representative of the United Nations' Trusteeship Council.

Shouldn't Bend Too Far — Might Get Toppled

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Kay Bogendorfer is a woman who'll bend over backwards to be fair.

As president of the city civil service commission she approved a leave of absence for a city employe, John J. Pulskamp, who wants to run for the city council.

One of his opponents will be Mrs. Bogendorfer.

AMERICA'S FASTEST GROWING CIGARETTE

Take One Cartoonist's Evaluation: Disney's No Artist Genius--Walt

(In 1923, a young cartoonist from Kansas City arrived in Hollywood with $40, determination—and ideas... Thirty-four years and some millions of dollars later, Walt Disney holds a unique place in the entertainment world. In the following article, the first of four, Hollywood reporter Charles Denton tells the story of Disney—the man and the entertainment phenomenon.)

By CHARLES DENTON

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Thumbtacked to a memo cluttered wall in an executive's office at the discreetly bustling Walt Disney film studio is a list of rules for living which concludes:

"Don't look over your shoulder. Somebody might be gaining on you!"

Penciled beneath this sage bit of advice from baseball's ageless Satchel Paige is the notation:

"And it might be Walt!"

The admonition is more than just an office witticism. It is a summation of the mixture of awe and admiration with which more than 1,250 employes regard their boyish, imperious, daring, meticulous, imaginative, earthy boss.

Most of those who have labored with Walt Disney through the years in which his fortunes have advanced and retreated like the tide are inclined to agree with the genius evaluation.

They are unanimously impressed by the breathless heights to which his thoughts can soar, by his almost flippant disregard of obstacles in turning ideas into reality and by his bottomless capacity for work.

New arrivals in the outwardly serene, campus-like atmosphere of Disney's domain are impressed by the "family" spirit and by their employer's genuine concern for their individual problems.

Yet to many of his close associates, Disney is also a man whose disarming grin disguises a mania for perfection, whose abruptness can sting like a lash and whose determination to oversee every phase of his sprawling operation personally can, and often does, chafe sorely.

To the public which has followed his fables with delight for nearly three decades, Disney appears as a grown-up little boy with the twinkle of curiosity in his eyes, the golden touch of Midas, and a spirit that ascends to the world of day dreams while his feet remain solidly planted in the sod of Americana.

NO ARTIST GENIUS

In some degree, all of these appraisals are correct. Disney himself will admit to some of these qualities, although he does not regard himself as a genius or an artist of any stature.

"Art was always a means to an end with me," he says nonchalantly, perching one loafer-shod foot on a paper laden table in his office.

"I've always been more interested in the mechanics of a thing—how to do it. Lots of people can draw, but they don't know what to draw. I have men who, like me, used to be artists and, like me, not the best artists."

Comrades' Convention Shows Party Weakness

The shrinking ranks of American Communists meeting in New York for their first national convention since 1950, were bitterly divided into three factions.

William Z. Foster, the national chairman, is a hard core Stalinist. The editor of the Daily Worker, John Gates, wants the party to declare its "independence" of Moscow. In between is a group whose spokesman is Eugene Dennis, party secretary. He favors a pro-Khrushchev line.

The comrades had trouble deciding whether they should continue as a political party or reorganize as a political association. They finally decided to maintain the party as a political one of "independent and equal status in relation to the world Communist movement."

Communist membership in this country has dwindled under the impact of the Hungarian revolt and the downgrading of Stalin. Fewer than 25,000 remain and they are old timers. Understandably there are few recruits to fill the ranks.

The Communist threat, however, does not depend on numerical strength. It comes from espionage and subversive activities. The FBI and other law enforcement agencies can't relax their vigilance despite the apparent weakness of the party at this time.

Guatemala Booming After Ouster of Reds

In sharp contrast to the pro-Communist government of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, the present regime in Guatemala is doing something for the people.

Elected in 1954 after a revolt, President Carlos Castillo Armas has outlawed Communism and reorganized the country. He still is facing many difficulties. Communists are working underground and he is being criticized for accepting U.S. advice and economic aid.

Yet President Castillo Armas has a lot of public support and the country shows it isn't the same place it was before the revolution, says U.S. News & World Report. Unemployment is low, stores are doing a big business, hotels are crowded and there's plenty of money in the banks. Reserves of gold and dollars are near an all time high.

Now that the unfavorable Arbenz oil code has been replaced by one like Venezuela's, major U.S. oil companies are exploring northern and eastern Guatemala. Work is being rushed on the Pan-American Highway, on the parallel Pacific Highway, and on the road to the Caribbean. The new program will give the 42,000 square mile country a system of 1,280 miles of roads by 1960 at a cost of $130 million.

Nearly all the privately owned large farms are in the hands of a few people. But near the Pacific Highway there are some communities where family sized farms of 50 acres have been established. These are on government land that is being subdivided under a new agrarian law whereby settlers become owners.

U. S. advisers helped draft this law and are giving guidance to Guatemalans on the best farming methods. Producing more food will raise the standard of living and increase national income; both would discourage Communism.

We also are aiding in the training of teachers and American technicians are helping with programs of sanitation, public administration and low cost housing. Funds allocated for period ending next June 30 amount to $68 million. This relatively small amount of U.S. help is producing splendid results.

However, the annual national income per capita is only $183. Half of Guatemala's 3,200,000 population are illiterate Indian peasants and many are still hungry.

President Castillo Armas is doing a fine job and Guatemala is well on its way toward recovery.

A woman applied for a divorce because her husband, an amateur poet, insisted upon reading his poems to their guests. The divorce should be granted—the man is a sadist.

Another way to increase the life span considerably would be for grandparents to refuse to baby-sit.

County Has a Top Place in Report on TB Cases

Wolf: What now is so far from the door that the daughter fears she won't hear his whistle.

Oakland County stands out like a health haven in a report just released by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association

in comparison with our state's other nearby more populous counties. In new TB cases reported it had 253 within the year, or one to each 2,400 population. Wayne County had 3,375 cases, or one to each 770 population. Macomb County had 314, or one to 719 population. Genesee County had 168, or one to each 1,785 population.

Detroit alone had more than one-half the state's new cases, although it has less than one-third of the population. That city's new case rate is twice that of Pontiac. The report says, "Largest city, greatest problem."

Wayne and Macomb are the only counties in the southern peninsula that show a gain in cases above the overall state rate.

David Lawrence Says:

Brownell Qualifies for Court Post

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has an interesting dilemma on his hands in filling the vacancy on the Supreme Court of the United States caused by the retirement of Justice Stanley Reed.

Shall the President again appoint someone with judicial experience? Shall he select someone from the Middle West, as is being suggested, because no one who hails from that region now is on the highest court?

LAWRENCE

Two of these categories fit Attorney General Herbert Brownell. He is an able lawyer with many years of successful practice before the courts and he was born and brought up in Lincoln, Neb., and is a graduate of the University of Nebraska.

President Eisenhower already has appointed to the Supreme Court two men with judicial experience and is reported, therefore, to be leaning toward the nomination of Attorney General Brownell because of his wide knowledge of federal legal problems.

Precedent also can be cited for appointing an attorney general. More than 10 per cent of all the justices appointed to the Supreme Court from its inception have served first in the Department of Justice.

President Jackson appointed Attorney General Roger Taney in 1836 to be chief justice.

APPOINTED CLIFFORD

President Buchanan appointed Attorney General Nathan Clifford in 1858 to be associate justice.

President McKinley appointed Attorney General Joseph McKenna in 1897 to be associate justice.

President Theodore Roosevelt appointed Attorney General William H. Moody in 1904 to be associate justice.

President Wilson appointed Attorney General J. C. McReynolds in 1913 to be associate justice.

President Coolidge appointed Attorney General Harlan F. Stone in 1925 to be associate justice and President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed him in 1941 to be chief justice.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed Attorney General Frank Murphy in 1940 and Attorney General Robert H. Jackson in 1941 to be associate justices.

NAMED CLARK

President Truman appointed Attorney General Tom C. Clark in 1949 to be associate justice.

Another instance that really belongs in the same class was the appointment of Solicitor-General Stanley Reed in 1938 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

This adds up to 10 justices out of the entire 90 that have served since 1789 but in the last 100 years the percentage of appointees from the Department of Justice has been 16 per cent and in the last 50 years it has gone up to more than 22 per cent.

The main reason why presidents have inclined frequently to the idea of appointing an attorney general is that this official more than any other man in the federal government usually has a grasp of all the legal problems confronting the government. Thus in the last four years Attorney General Brownell has had to weigh the merits of disputes in every controversial field ranging from anti-trust to civil rights.

HAS EXPERIENCE

He brings to his present post an experience gained in five terms in the legislature of the state of New York with its variety of state problems. He also has acquired during his term as attorney general a specialized knowledge of the difficulties growing out of the congestion in the federal courts.

His ardent advocacy before Congress of broader legislation in the field of "civil rights" may hurt him with some of the southern Democrats but this would be offset by the votes he would get for that very reason from the "liberal" Democrats. He would, of course, receive the solid support of the Republicans and, if nominated, would be confirmed.

LI'L ONES

"Don't stay in there too long, Dad—my frog likes swimming by himself!"

Dr. William Brady Says:

Tottering Tome of Yore Mutters a Hint of CA & D

Last time I cracked a book on pediatrics (quite a while ago, as any specialist will tell you), infantile tetany was still a mystery, though the author mumbled about calcium metabolism.

As for tetany in adults, and especially in elderly persons, medical authorities seem to shy away from it, but I'm no medical authority, so I can say, tetany is a nutritional deficiency disease, due to inadequate daily intake of calcium and vitamin D. To prevent tetany, just see to it that the daily intake of calcium and D meets the individual's requirement. To cure it, double the intake.

BRADY

Tetany must not be confused with tetanus (lockjaw). The characteristic manifestation of tetany is spasm or cramp, very painful cramp, in muscles of the hands and wrists in infants, leg or arm muscles in older children (sometimes called "growing pains") and in calf or foot of older persons.

Many persons subject to tetany dare not stretch when they awake in the morning, because they have found that th's brings on the spasm.

Tetany is commonly not recognized when it occurs in a mature adult, simply because the medical textbook authors persist in associating it with infancy. So the most effective prophylaxis and treatment is not applied.

SEND FOR BOOKLET

Send stamped, self-addressed envelope and ask for the pamphlet "Adult Tetany." It gives detailed instructions for prevention of tetany and for relief of the cramps.

Tetany in early childhood is most likely to occur in children who have or have had rickets.

Again, I say that so-called "growing pains" are usually due to tetany. So are dull aches or vague pains in the legs of elderly persons, who, poor souls, are so easily persuaded to attribute their pains to "arthritis," "neuritis," "phlebitis," or the cold damp weather around here.

The prophylaxis (prevention) of tetany, in infant, growing child, youth, or mature adult, is so simple and cheap that only a few suffers get the benefit of it.

THICK SKULLS

Most of them just can't get through their thick skulls the fact that the prevention and relief of tetany is nutritional, not medicinal. Calcium and D is like meat and potatoes or bread and milk. You don't "try" 'em for a week or two and then discontinue them.

High calcium diet includes not less than 1½ pints (3 glasses) of whole milk or skim milk or buttermilk daily, cheese, eggs, cabbage, cauliflower, string beans, green peas, lettuce, any green leafy vegetable available, celery, asparagus, nuts, peanuts.

The three glasses of milk, skim (separator) milk or buttermilk per person per day is the minimum requirement for good nutrition. That or its equivalent in milk products such as cheese.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Wants More Local Interest in School Band Activities

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I would like to know why there is so little interest shown in the activities of the junior and senior high school bands of Pontiac. We have the highest rated senior high band in the state. Instead of being justly proud of the fine musicians, the instrumental music department is turning out, there is a lukewarm feeling about it and they are practically ignored.

Recently a group of band students went to the Southeastern Michigan Band and Orchestra Association Solo and Ensemble Festival at Ypsilanti. They received first ratings due to the screening and hard work of the directors and students. Instead of decent publicity there was a tiny article on the back page. All other school activities are given large write ups. Why?

Is it because the school administration would rather have fourth class bands or do they want to do away with band music altogether? I believe the opportunity this department offers boys and girls is unusual. Proper discipline and good citizenship is insisted upon, and the so-called Happy Band idea would soon spoil their tradition.

People of Pontiac, let's show our bands and directors that we are proud of them and appreciate their efforts.

Band Parent

Approves Editorial About Courthouse

I heartily approve of the editorial in The Press on the Courthouse situation. We'd rather have it downtown, but if it isn't going to be located there, we certainly want it on the edge of the city instead of in the southern part of the county.

I don't believe many people will follow Mr. Wilmot who says he'd just as soon see it in Royal Oak as on the edge of Pontiac.

This city is the logical home and the Courthouse should be in the middle of the county and not along one edge.

Pat Glynn

'What Does Wool Do for Carlotta?"

I was interested in Carlotta's letter in the Voice of The People which said the wool in Pontiac girls' sweaters does more for the Pontiac girls than it did for the sheep. What I want to know is how does Carlotta herself shape up in that wool?

Grandpa

Reader Answers Shocked Writer

A Voicer is "shocked" at the suggestion that we avoid precipitation war with Russia and he concludes by saying if Russia doesn't behave, "destroy her."

Destroy her? How? Does the writer want an all-out war that could level half a hundred American cities? Does he want four or five million men in arms and half that number in combat? How else is it possible to destroy Russia?

And, lastly, there's no guarantee that even this will do it. We might end up by destroying ourselves and we're the current hope of the civilized world.

Same Peace

Wants Landmark to Remain in City

I, too, am a taxpayer, though it is not in the city limits. I am against moving the Courthouse to Royal Oak. I have lived in this county going on 40 years, and I can't see any advantages in doing so, only a good many disadvantages.

I certainly feel we are in need of a new one, but why move it? Wouldn't some of the adjoining buildings including the old Courthouse be torn down and a new and larger one, be built in the same place? Why, moving it is like taking the capitol and placing it somewhere else. We need a few of the old landmarks around to remind people of the older days.

If more people would stop and think twice, we would have a better world to live in. I lived a good many years in Royal Oak before coming to this township, and again I say, it is no place for it.

"Suppose a heart attack should hit me again when nobody is around: What could I do?"

HEART ATTACKS

If you are all alone when stricken by a heart attack, there are several things to do which may save your life.

First of all, if you are still conscious, your attack is not as likely to be fatal, so let that knowledge reassure you.

Secondly, the main treatment for a heart attack, even when we medics get you to a hospital, is oxygen.

For the pain of a heart attack is considered a result of lack of enough oxygen to the muscle fibers in the injured heart wall.

There are two ways to increase the supply of oxygen. One is to breathe a richer oxygen mixture as from a bottle of oxygen or while lying in an oxygen tent at the hospital.

The other is to speed up your breathing. Despite the sharp pain you may suffer over the front of the chest, grit your teeth and force yourself to perform rapid, deep breathing:

This act of heavy breathing will not hamper the heart or jeopardize your life. Instead, it may save your life.

And as the extra oxygen reaches the heart muscle, the sharp pain may grow duller and duller.

So you don't need to feel that your only hope for a richer oxygen supply is at the hospital.

You can administer your own cardiac first aid right where you lie.

LIE DOWN

And you should lie down when your heart is under strain, for that horizontal position reduces your blood pressure and also slows down the heart rate.

If, moreover, you know you have high blood pressure or have suffered a previous heart attack, your physician can give you pills that will also work swiftly to dilate the coronary arteries and thus permit them to carry more oxygen to the heart muscle.

So carry such medicine in your purse or vest pocket at all times. And beware of liquor. The latest medical findings veto the use of alcohol.

This result is at variance with previous medical views where it was felt the alcohol would also dilate the coronaries and thus offer more blood supply to the ailing heart.

But alcohol dulls pain and thus acts much like morphine in masking the first symptoms of a heart attack.

So the user of alcohol may not feel the early warning pain. As a result, he may run for a bus or hurry up a flight of stairs and then drop dead from the heart attack which his liquor has masked.

The final and best all-around antidote for heart patients is to team up with God in a daily partnership. Then your entire nervous tension is more relaxed and your heart works under less strain.

At bedtime, too, you can then ask God to take over the night shift for you and thus enjoy deeper, more refreshing slumber, untroubled by nightmares and insomnia.

You can survive many heart attacks, so don't worry about a previous attack if you are now six weeks beyond it: After 6 weeks of convalescence your heart is actually stronger than before the attack.

But tobacco and liquor hamper your heart so send for my booklet "How to Stop the Tobacco & Liquor Habits," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Find Mt. Clemens Taxis With Inaccurate Meters

LANSING (AP)—A check of taxicab meters in Mt. Clemens disclosed that nine of the 15 meters checked were inaccurate, the Foods and Standards Division of the State Agriculture Department reported.

Five of the inaccurate meters were found to be in error against the customer while four were in error against the company.

The meters were checked after local residents complained they were being overcharged for taxicab fares, the division said.

College Allows Athletes to Bare Legs in Sports

BETHANY, Okla. (AP)—A 40-year tradition has gone by the boards at Bethany-Peniel College, a Nazarene Church institution.

The college's board of trustees has authorized male students to wear "apparel baring the knees" for intra-school athletic events.

Since the religious school was first situated here in 1917, men students have been required to wear warm-up suits or long trousers in any type of athletic contest.

Ring No Bother, Now!

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Albert M. Dashiell will not be bothered by a $500 wedding ring that caused a rash on her finger. In order to allow the finger to heal she took off the ring and pinned it to the mattress of her bed for safe keeping. A few hours later the mattress was picked up by a local renovation firm and with it went the rash-causing ring.

Truman Refuses Trip to Europe

Says His Commitments Won't Allow Him to Visit Greece, Turkey

WASHINGTON (AP) — Citing other commitments, former President Truman has declined invitations to attend ceremonies marking the 10th anniversary of the Greek-Turkish aid program he inaugurated.

The State Department announced this yesterday and said it is "a source of regret" to both President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

The invitations originated with the Greek and Turkish governments, which plan celebrations in Athens and Ankara next month. Dulles passed the invitations on to Truman after Eisenhower had given his approval.

Truman, on a combined speaking-vacation trip in Florida, sent his reply to Dulles Saturday. The former Democratic President declined in Miami Beach to say what was in it.

But yesterday, State Department press officer Lincoln White told newsmen:

"We have heard that Mr. Truman, because of previous commitments, would be unable to accept the invitations of the governments of Greece and Turkey to visit those countries on the 10th anniversary of the Truman Doctrine.

"This is a source of regret to both the President and the secretary of state and it must be to the governments of Greece and Turkey."

The department said it would not make public the contents of Truman's reply.

Relations have been cool between Truman and Eisenhower since the 1952 election campaign.

45 Legislatures to Meet

Washington's Great Decisions

1. To Tell the Truth

We have all heard the story of how George Washington, as a young boy, used a fine new axe and chopped down a treasured cherry tree on his father's plantation in Virginia.

Augustine Washington asked his son about it and the boy looked his father straight in the eye and told the truth — "I cut down the cherry tree."

The story probably is a legend that has formed to show how George Washington made the first of his great decisions and resolved always to tell the truth. You will read of his other decisions later this week.

Washington had need of making decisions early in life for his father died when he was only 11 and he was left to help care for his mother. George's mother said the boy always did his duty.

When Washington was only 16, he was hired by Lord Thomas Fairfax to survey the nobleman's vast grants of land beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains.

He accomplished this perilous journey, mapping wild country, directing helpers much older than himself and making careful records, accurate enough to become official.

By the time George was 19, he stood more than 6-feet tall and was a responsible and capable man.

Tomorrow: Dangerous Responsibilities

TV Comics Go Straight to Win Emmy Nomination

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ed Wynn and Red Skelton, who have made a lifetime career of taking comic pratfalls, turned to tear production this season and won themselves nominations for television Emmies.

The nomination of the two famous comics highlighted the televised nomination ceremony Saturday night of the Television Academy of Arts and Sciences. Nominees wre announced in 29 acting and technical categories, with the winners to be selected March 16.

Wynn's nomination for best supporting actor and Skelton's for best single performance were 2 of 13 nominations won by Playhouse 90, the CBS-TV weekly dramatic series which swept the nominations.

"It's like being a doctor for 50 years and then winning your first case in court," Wynn commented. His role as the trainer in "requiem for a Heavyweight" was his first serious one in 55 years of show business.

Ed has a logical reason for his switch from comedy to serious drama.

"I just couldn't get work as a comic. And when a fellow's out of work it's easy to act serious."

Skelton portrayed a comic on the skids to place him in the field with such strong dramatic competitors as Fredric March, Lloyd Bridges, Sal Mineo and Jack Palance.

Among other nominees to become early favorites:

John Daly, who covered the political conventions with more attention to news than electronics and won a nomination in the news-gathering category.

Nanette Fabray, no longer (Sid) Caesar's "wife," but nominated anyway as best comedienne.

James (Gunsmoke) Arness and Hugh (Wyatt Earp) O'Brien, expected to have a showdown fight for best series actor.

Evelyn Rudie, the child actress who played "Eloise" on Playhouse 90.

Jack Benny, whose recent 39th anniversary of his 39th birthday was celebrated by the Friers' Club at $100 a plate, for best comedian.

Jane Wyman, already a movie Oscar winner, for best series actress.

"Requiem for a Heavyweight," for best single program of the year.

Forgotten Gulf of Aqaba Regains Lost Importance

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

On the map the Gulf of Aqaba looks like a long carrot growing upside down in the land of the Bible.

It stretches for 100 miles from the Red Sea to the southern tips of Israel and Jordan.

It is 12 to 17 miles wide. To its west lies the Sinai Peninsula of Egypt. To the east are Saudi Arabia's deserts.

It is something of a lifeline for both Jordan and Israel. To Israel the right to navigate this gulf is a key point of its current bargaining.

Athwart the mouth of the gulf —where the stem might join the carrot—are two craggy islands—Tiran and Sinafar. Coral reefs and shallow water bars ships from the passage between Sinafar and the Arabian coast on the east. The only navigable channel from the Red Sea to the gulf is the strait between Tiran Island and the equally rocky Sinai Peninsula. The channel in this strait narrows down to some 500 yards.

Egyptian artillery on the Sinai shore controlled the strait from 1950 to 1956. Last November when the Israelis attacked Egypt they seized this strip of Sinai coast, called Sharm el Sheikh. They still hold it.

Proceeding north up the gulf, one can see the peaks of Mt. Musa and Mt. Katherina, rising over 7,000 feet into the cloudless Sinai sky. Either of these mountains may have been Mt. Sinai, where the Bible says Moses received the Ten Commandments.

The slopes of Mt. Katherina hold the famous Greek Orthodox monastery of St. Catherine. It was founded in 530 A.D. on the spot where, the monks believe, Moses saw the burning bush.

At the head of the gulf, according to the Bible, the Israelites rested during their 40 years of wandering in the wilderness after their exodus from Egypt on the way to the Promised Land.

Later King Solomon built copper mines and iron smelters at a settlement called Ezion-Geber. From the nearby port of Eloth (now called Eilat) he sent fleets to the kingdom of Ophir (which scholars have never been able to identify—though they think it may have been located in what is today Pakistan or India) the fleets brought back cargoes of gold, silver, ivory, apes and peacocks.

After Solomon, the prosperity of Eloth and Ezion-Geber declined rapidly. The Romans built a military post at ancient Eloth, which they called Aelana. In the 10th century it was again a prosperous trade center — but then fell into decay.

Now, as Israel's southern port, it is surviving. The Israelis hope Eilat may be a great commercial and tourist center. It has excellent beaches and impressive natural scenery. A small oil pipeline runs from Eilat across Israel. Under consideration are bigger pipelines designed to break the stranglehold of Egypt and Syria on oil transport routes from the Middle East to the Mediterranean.

Eilat and the Gulf of Aqaba enable Israel to receive shipping from the Orient without using the Suez Canal.

Just east of Eilat, Jordan has been building up its only port, Aqaba. Many Moslems sail from Aqaba on their pilgrimages to Mecca.

RCAF Bomber Hits 7 Buildings; None Badly Hurt

WINNIPEG, Man. (AP) — A twin-engine Royal Canadian Air Force bomber ripped into a residential area of nearby St. James last night, bouncing off houses and knocking down garages, but neither the plane's occupants nor residents were seriously innured.

The Mitchell bomber was trying to reach Stevenson Field after a long-range weekend navigational flight to Vancouver.

The pilot, Flight Officer J. S. Sargent of Westwood, Ont., had reported engine trouble as he neared the field on the glide path from the southeast, the RCAF said.

Roaring down through the early evening darkness, the plane slammed the roof of the home of James Mair, left part of its fuselage embedded in the house next door occupied by Maxwell Orchard and knocked the chimney from the home of Steve Reynolds. The three homes are side by side.

Dipping into the back yards as it dove diagnolly across the block, the aircraft pushed in the roof of one garage, demolished another while the owner was away with his car, broke off a six-inch power pole, and skidded into the framework of a house under construction.

Hollywood Raid Links Marilyn

Who Paid Off Whom? Answer May Touch Off Magazine Ban

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A move to ban scandal magazines in California gained momentum today as the result of a state senate committee investigation of a Hollywood raid involving Joe DiMaggio, Frank Sinatra and Marilyn Monroe.

The raid was reportedly engineered by detectives hired by former baseball star DiMaggio. The detectives allegedly planned to batter down the apartment door of Joe's wife, Miss Monroe, but they got the wrong apartment.

An "expose" magazine later featured a story about the alleged abortive raid, linking DiMaggio and his pal, singer Frank Sinatra, with the raiding party.

Sinatra was subpoenaed Saturday to appear before the Senate committee, headed by Sen. Fred Kraft of San Diego, at a hearing in Los Angeles beginning Feb. 27.

INVITE DIMAGGIO

DiMaggio will also be invited by the committee, in an effort to determine whether one of the private detectives involved sold the story of the raid to the magazine.

The committee will seek to determine if laws regulating private detectives in their treatment of clients reports are tight enough.

Attorney Jerry Giesler, who represents several celebrities in damage suits against scandal magazines totaling millions of dollars said that the legislature should pass laws making it possible to serve the distributor of the magazine in California.

Giesler said:

"If we could fight those magazines here we could stop them.

Lloyd Harris, investigator for the Senate committee said:

"Attorney Giesler's suggestion is an excellent one, and I will recommend to the committee that Giesler be invited to attend the hearing."

VFW Backs Red Move

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's veterans of foreign wars have taken note of the American Communist party's plan to move headquarters from New York to Chicago. The governing council of the Pennsylvania department approved a resolution authorizing "payment of the moving expenses of the Communist party's (American) headquarters to Moscow, into the Kremlin, if possible."

Happy to Have Lou Acting Instead of Fighting

Nova's Mother Now Breathes Easy

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Lou Nova was a heavyweight boxer — the kind of man who is likely to come home, after a hard day, with a decidedly wounded expression and a gap over his gums.

Mrs. Louis Nova, Lou's mother, was and is a registered nurse who particularly abhorred this type of business, despite the fact that it is one of the myriad little catastrophic occurrences that help form the backbone of her profession.

"Black eyes and splintered jaws and so forth are not such a terrible problem for a nurse when they come on the face of a stranger," she says sweetly, "but to treat your son . . ." Well, those were heartbreaking days.

"I never saw him fight even once, and I never stopped begging him to quit. His father was an artist, a great pianist. He played with the San Francisco Symphony, maybe you know.

"I myself had been a singer, until Lou's father passed on when Lou was only 6, and I had to call on my resources and take up nursing.

"You can imagine, then, how I felt about this strange calling that Lou felt was his. Whenever he fought, I just sat in a silent house, because I couldn't even listen on the radio, trying to hold myself together while I was getting together the medications I was just sure he would need.

DESPECTABLE WORK

"I was always so sure that this time he would be badly hurt. I didn't care who won the fight. I just cared in what shape he'd be coming home."

Mrs. Nova, a strikingly svelte woman with the soft sort of face all poets would like to find on all mothers and nurses, recently came to New York from California for the first time.

For the first time, too, she saw her son in action. He is an actor now, playing in a Broadway hit called "The Happiest Millionaire," and Mrs. Nova has two adjectives with which to describe him:

"Respectable," she says, "and dignified."

It took 10 years of "emotional fatigue" and nursing care—"will I ever forget those hot and cold compresses, that all-night milk and orange juice feeding"—before Lou finally said he'd had it with the ring, and gave back to his mother an eight-hour sleep night.

She realizes now that she possibly exaggerated her fears and overplayed the role of worried mother, but "I think every mother of every fighter is the same way. If she is a natural mother, she would be naturally concerned to see her son enter into competition with a man who has dedicated his life to the idea of beating her son's brains in."

STILL BRAWNY

Now, in a way, since everything turned out fine and her boy is still brawny after winning the world's amateur heavyweight title, Mrs. Nova is rather glad she had such a rough time of it.

For two reasons: 1. The world is a whole, new, rosier world, and 2. "I don't suffer from stage fright for him—the fear of fluffing a line seems absolutely idiotically inconsequential."

Asked how she thought Lou measured up as an actor, she says:

"Oh, I think he is—what shall I say? He just knocked me out, I was so surprised at his ability."

Max Baer, who was unprejudiced, used to say exactly the same thing.

Dem Leaders Demand Action

Call for Civil Rights, Statehood for Alaska, Hawaii; Score Dulles

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Resolutions prodding Congress to enact civil rights legislation at its present session, denouncing the Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy and demanding quick statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska were announced as the final actions of national Democratic party leaders at their first West Coast meeting.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said the meetings of the national committee, the new advisory council and other leaders were held here as a tribute to the West, which scored election gains that gave the Democratic party control of Congress.

The resolutions were adopted in closed sessions of the advisory council.

The civil rights resolution urged passage "during this first session of the 85th Congress of legislation embodying civil right planks in the 1956 Democratic platform.

Specifically mentioned were elimination of discrimination on the right to vote and to engage in gainful occupations.

No mention was made in the resolution of the Supreme Court desegregation dcision or of violence which has followed in some Southern states.

The platform referred to the decision and put the party directly in support of the high court.

Adlai Stevenson, the 1956 Democratic presidential nominee, who sat with the council, referred to civil rights only once in his speech to a $50 Democratic dinner Saturday night. He "hoped and prayed" that Congress would pass civil rights legislation "with overwhelming Democratic support and without filibuster and parliamentary harassment."

Stevenson assailed "the administration's rock 'n' roll diplomacy" and advocated action — "even at the risk of war" — to bring peace to the Middle East and to open the Suez Canal to all traffic.

Family Double Feature

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Two sisters gave birth to sons 42 minutes apart yesterday in the same delivery room of Rose Hospital with the same doctor in attendance. The new arrivals are Michael De Perez, 9 pounds, 3 ounces, son of Mrs. William De Prez, 29, whose husband is a milk deliveryman, and Thomas John Branich, 11 pounds, 6 ounces, son of Mrs. John Branich, 33, wife of a postal clerk.

Catholics Slate 'Book Week' to Open Feb. 17

Catholic Book Week which has been celebrated annually for 17 years, always takes place during the month of February which has been designated as "Catholic Press Month." The dates this year for the Week are Feb. 17 to 23. The theme is: "Christian Books, Heralds of Truth."

Sponsored nationally by the Catholic Library Association, the week is observed by thousands all over the United States. For the week, the National Committee produces an official poster each year and issues Catholic Book List with descriptive notes about each book included.

These lists are prepared for adults, young adults, and for children.

The basic idea of Catholic Book Week is to focus attention on and promote the reading of Catholic literature. The appeal of the week is made not only to Catholics but to the general reading public.

The week also is aimed at encouraging publishers to become more interested in the publication and distribution of good literature.

The number of cows in California has increased by an average of 100,000 a year since 1940, giving the state a present bovine population of about 3,800,000.

CHEVY WINS WORLD'S FIRST AUTO DECATHLON!

The '57 Chevrolet wins independent ten-way test of all the driving qualities you want in your car. Chevy beat everything else in its field and all higher priced cars entered to boot.

Here was a test of handling and performance that separated the men from the boys in the low-price field!

The Auto Decathlon was run on an obstacle course, which duplicated driving situations you encounter on the road. Chevy and the other two low-priced cars—plus some higher priced cars (including one of the highest)—were given the full treatment by expert drivers.

They splashed through a water tank, wheeled around pylons, took curves that had built-in bumps. And they did a lot more besides.

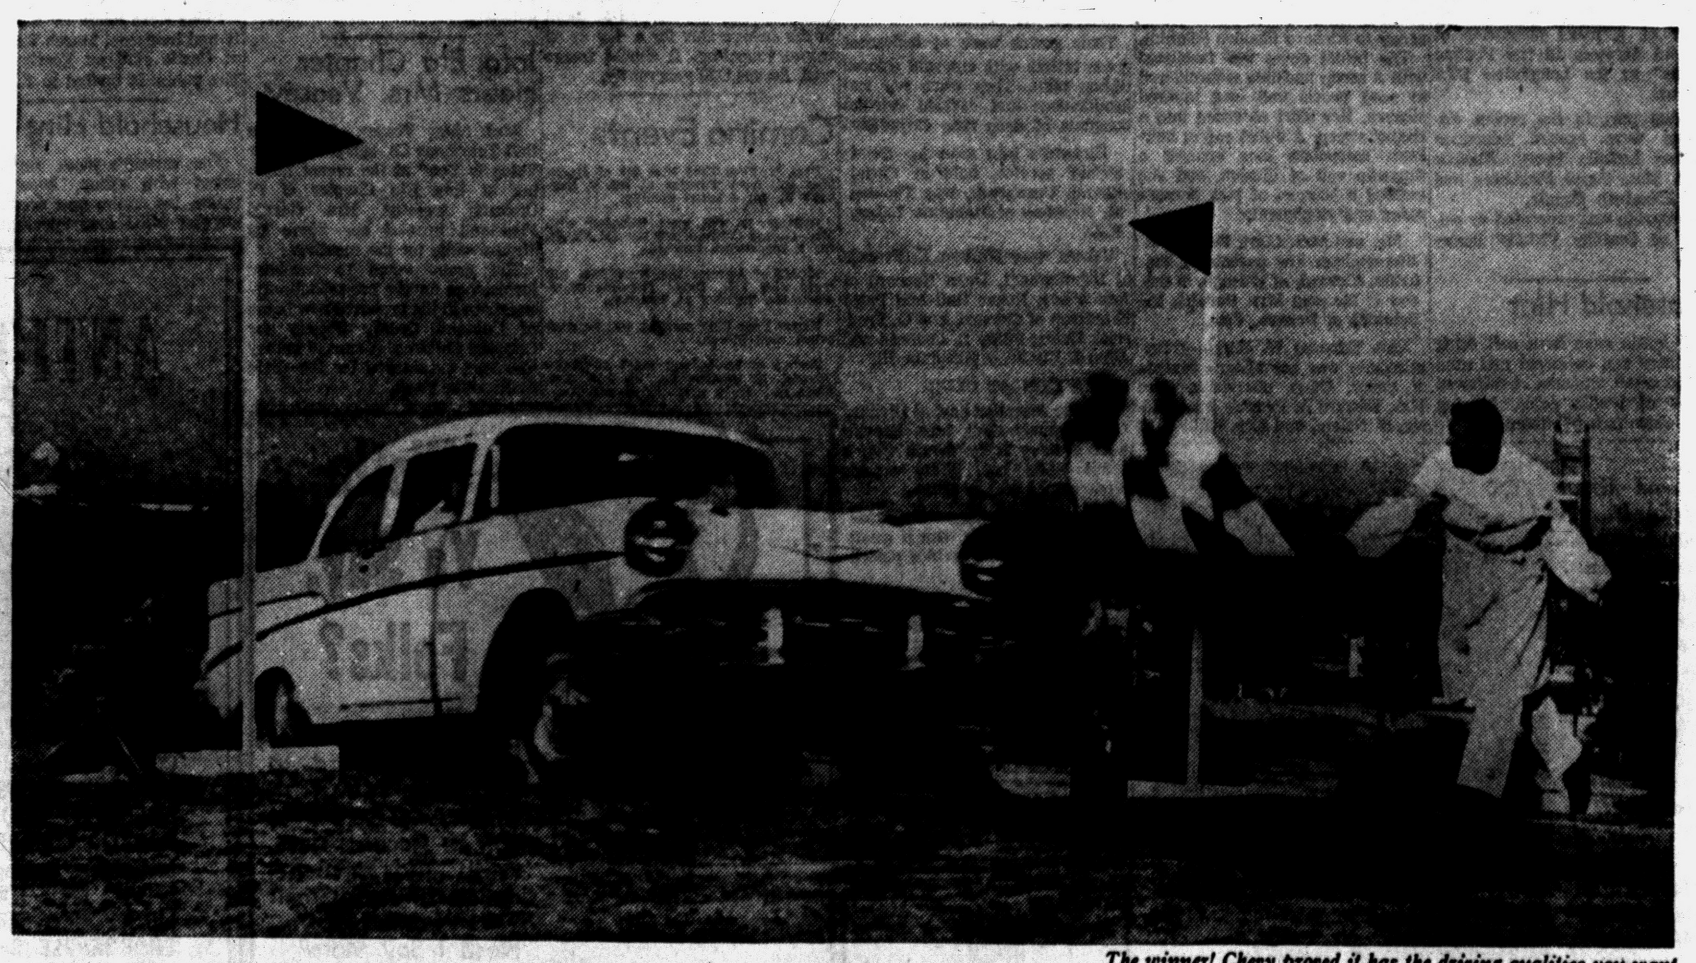

And when NATA* observers totaled up the results from their electronic timer to see who made the best showing, they found that Chevrolet had finished first by a big margin!

All cars entered were equipped with standard V8 engines and automatic drives. You can come in today and drive the same kind of Chevy that won the Decathlon!

Sun-Loving America Turns to Patios

DALLAS, Tex. (INS) — Outdoor-loving Americans are surrounding their homes with patios these days.

There are big patios and small ones — in front, on the sides and in the back of the house —for looks, work, play, eating and lounging— in $10,000 to $100,000 houses.

A young Dallas architect who specializes in patios in Texas "where there are eight steak-grilling months a year" said the trend is simply in keeping with the new way of living.

"During the past five years people have been staying at home more to do the things they used to go away to do," Thomas Scott Dean explained.

In Dean's houses three terraces are the minimum—sometimes five. One at the entrance is small, a sort of outdoor entrance hall, and sometimes it is part of the parking area.

NOT VISIBLE FROM FRONT

"The living patio should not be visible from this area," Dean points out, "because anyone coming to the door should not become a part of the social living there until invited in."

There should be a service patio for drying clothes, for garbage and such, he believes, and it must not be visible from the "easy-living" area.

The principal terrace—for easy living—must be placed or fenced for privacy, out of the afternoon sun and adjacent to the indoor living room and kitchen.

Extras to meet the needs of certain families include play terraces for the children—and these should be hidden from the principal patio by a fence or a jog in the house to keep sandpiles and swings out of sight.

"Sometimes there are two outdoor children's areas to take advantage of different exposures, and these are in full view of mother as she works at her sewing or cooking," Dean said.

ONE FOR FLOWERS

Another separate area can be set aside for a "cutting terrace" where flowers that are good only during parts of the year are grown.

Shade, a warm weather essential in cold or hot climates, is provided by roof overhang, vine-covered lattices, awnings or trees.

Dean prefers trees in his patios and said it is "usually less expensive to plant a full-grown tree where you want it than to find a lot with an appropriate tree."

Surfacing is usually brick or sand, or concrete with redwood dividers. Concrete is finished rough or smooth and is usually colored and scored in squares or imitation flagstone.

Flagstone set in concrete is "considerably more expensive and not particularly advantageous" according to Dean.

Average cost of including three patios around a home is only about 15 per cent of the total cost, Dean said, "and there is a lot more than 15 per cent of the living to be done in them."

Pot Roast Delicious With Sauce

Mrs. De Roo Heats Shredded Meat in Peppery Mixture

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

This recipe may be used with leftover pot roast, or you may buy a couple of pounds of rump or chuck and use that. It is for a barbecued dish, one that is a little different.

Mrs. William DeRoo is today's cook. A six-weeks-old daughter has kept her close to home recently. This is the second girl in the DeRoo family.

In the past Mrs. DeRoo has been active in her church. She is a member of the Birmingham AAUW. Sewing and gardening are two favorite pasttimes.

POT ROAST BARBECUE
By Mrs. William DeRoo

Cook as for regular pot roast, omitting the salt and cooking longer than usual. Cool and shred meat.

Barbecue Sauce

1 tablespoon vinegar
1 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
2 teaspoons salt (use only 1 teaspoon salt if leftover meat, already salted, is used)
¼ teaspoon (scant) cayenne pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
½ teaspoon chili powder
½ teaspoon black pepper
1 bottle catsup
½ cup meat broth
1 medium onion, sliced fine

Mix all ingredients, add meat and bring to a boil. This barbecue mixture tastes better if it is made ahead of time and allowed to stand in the refrigerator for a day or so before reheating. It should freeze well. Serves 8-10 generously.

Anne Clark Bennett Wed

BIRMINGHAM — A gown of peau de soie was worn by Anne Clark Bennett for her wedding Saturday to Richard Sheldon Schmidt.

The bridal gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline embroidered in seed pearls and long tapered sleeves. Her skirt extended into a chapel sweep. A Juliet cap of heirloom rosepointe lace secured a fingertip veil of illusion, and she carried a bouquet of pink demure roses and stephanotis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bennett of Birmingham are parents of the bride. Richard, of Chicago, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph F. Schmidt of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Edmund W. Burke of Birmingham was her sister's matron of honor. Other attendants were Mrs. Edward A. Proctor, Mrs. Nelson B. Noland and Mrs. William E. Francis, sister of the bridegroom, all of Birmingham.

DRESSED IN GREEN

Their gowns were of iridescent green taffeta with emerald colored ribbon trim. They wore ivy leaf headdresses and carried colonial bouquets of deep rose carnations.

Richard's best man for the 4 o'clock service, held at Christ Church Cranbrook, was Thomas M. Donohue of Mountain Lakes, N.J.

Ushers were William E. Francis of Birmingham, Dean Barnard of Ann Arbor, Roger Hall and Peter Braestrup of Chicago, and O. Frederick Bates, Philip L. Cochran and Allen J. Ely Jr. of Hinsdale, Ill.

RECEPTION AT CLUB

For the reception held at Orchard Lake Country Club, Mrs. Bennett wore a navy faille sheath with a small white hat. White orchids were pinned to her purse.

Mrs. Schmidt wore a slate blue peau de soie gown with a small matching hat and orchids pinned to her purse.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Varadero Beach, Cuba, the new Mrs. Schmidt had changed to a charcoal and white tweed suit with a white hat. The newlyweds will make their home in Chicago on their return.

Sweater Appliqued

Newest addition to the sweater-and-dress idea for 1957 is the print silk dress with sweater that has the print appliqued over it.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Chenault of Birmingham announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Anne, to Walter Scully McPhail, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McPhail Jr. of Birmingham. Mary is a graduate of Michigan State University and Walter was graduated from Denison University. They plan a fall wedding.

Intelligent Daily Care Delays Signs of Aging

Skin Needs Regular Cleansing, Lubrication

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

No one treatment is best for all types of skin but there are general rules which apply to all outer coatings. For instance there is cleanliness.

The skin must be cleansed regularly twice a day whether or not you use a cleansing cream or soap and water. The oily skin should be cleaned with soap and water while a cleansing cream is best for the very dry epidermis.

Another thing which concerns all women regardless of the type complexion they have is the fact that the fatty deposits between the skin and the muscles of the face decrease with the years. Also the natural oils lessen as time passes.

Therefore, it is the unusual woman who cannot profit by skin lubrication from middle age on, and probably sooner than that.

An oily complexioned woman does not need creams in younger years but the chances are that she will require them later on. The woman with very dry skin should investigate a cream which helps retain moisture. The hormone creams do this. Practically all women need an eye cream after early youth.

NECK TREATMENT

Give your neck the same treatment you do your face. Makeup bases differ. Some are more oily than others. Naturally a dry complexion demands an oilier base than one which has more natural oils.

If you are subject to whiteheads or blackheads or enlarged pores you will find that the stimulation a complexion brush provides will be helpful.

If you have a "combination skin," parts oily and parts dry, you will have to treat each part separately, following the rules for dry skin on the dry portions and the ones for oily skin on the oily portions.

This is not so difficult as it sounds. Usually the oily portions are about the nose and chin and sometimes on the forehead. Use soap and water on these portions and cream the rest of the face and the neck.

Daily intelligent care can delay the signs of aging for years and years.

MELODY EMPLOYED IN VARIOUS WAYS

For some time now most of us have been aware that music is being used in rehabilitation and as therapies of different sorts. However, I doubt that you know in how many varied ways melody is being employed today.

The first time I realized that I was in contact with piped or "canned" music was some years ago when I went to my favorite beauty salon to have my hair fixed.

They were running late and I had quite a wait. However, the loveliest music filled the air and although I am always busy I did not feel irritated by the delay.

I said to the owner of the shop, "This music is wonderful! We do not usually get such a good selection over our radio. Are you playing records?" He replied, "No. This is canned music."

I said, "You no doubt have this to soothe your customers while they wait." He answered, "Yes. It is so soothing that I sold myself a brush this morning."

Today piped program music goes to hotels, factories, restaurants, offices, clinics, hospital delivery rooms, airplanes, dentists' offices, trains, supermarkets, banks, libraries, passenger ships, reducing salons, insurance companies, police stations, post offices and almost every other place you can think of.

At least one swimming pool has program music which you hear only when under water, and there is a filling station where music begins whenever the gasoline pump is raised.

GREATLY EXPANDED

The idea of music-to-work-by was greatly expanded during World War II when studies showed that it increased production more than 50 per cent and morale more than 80 per cent in plants where it was tried.

Color, air-conditioning, lighting and music are being used more and more in business and in the home to promote efficiency and decrease fatigue.

However, the value of music is largely dependent on the kind of music which is used and the way it is used in various circumstances. For years, the leading music company has done intensive and comprehensive research and has made all kinds of surveys in order to discover important facts about this.

It now knows many interesting things: When the biggest energy slumps are during the day, and how to counteract them, what the popular taste in music is, how this taste has changed over the past nine years, what type melody different type workers like, what tempos are best for which situations, how long at a time people are benefitted by music, and many such things.

I am going to tell you about this tomorrow. I think it will be interesting to you and that you can apply some of the information to your personal life.

Tomorrow: "Interesting Facts About Background Music, Effect."

Cleaning cream is best for the very dry skin.

Local WSCS Hears Panel Discussion

Mrs. Joe Wagley, Mrs. John Fuller, Mrs. Ray Magner and Mrs. James Wellington took part in a discussion entitled, "Whom Shall I Send?" The program was presented at the recent meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Oakland Park Methodist Church.

Devotions by Mrs. Ray Coombe were on the same theme. Mrs. Earl Foster reported on the recent Mid-winter Rally of the Flint district WSCS and members were urged to attend the March 13-15 "North - Central Jurisdictional Meeting" at the Detroit Central Methodist Church.

Child Culture Club Has Annual Party

The annual revelation party of the Pontiac Child Culture Club was held at the home of Mrs. Charles L. Bauers of Barrington road. Guests at the recent meeting were Mrs. Allan Denham, Mrs. Floyd Crump and Mrs. Frank Grosse.

A cooperative dinner was served followed by a brief business meeting at which time secret pals for the past year were revealed.

Woman Creates Her Own 'Luck'

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Some people want iron-clad guarantees from life, while others are willing to go along on faith and take things as they come.

"If you can guarantee me a good job that's really interesting, I'll learn to type," some women say.

But life isn't that way. You have to go ahead and do your part first, and then just see what happens.

It's like saying, "If you can guarantee that he'll be healthy and strong and bright and turn out to be President, I might have a baby."

Most women go ahead and have their babies and put their faith in them. But when it comes to jobs, they're not always as wise.

Mrs. K., for example, has been corresponding with me for about three years. She's thinking of learning to type at home—has been think about it, in fact, for some time now.

But she isn't quite sure it's the thing to do. After all, it's tedious and how does she know something will come of it? Can I absolutely, positively guarantee she'll like it?

No, I can't. So Mrs. K. continues to think about it, as she has done for three years.

On the other hand, Mrs. T. was willing to take a chance.

Mrs. T. wrote me about a year ago. She wanted to learn to type because it might help her to get a job. She is a widow in her early fifties.

I sent her my pamphlet on learning to type at home and in about four months I heard from her again.

She was a good typist, not fast but accurate. She was taking temporary jobs to get experience and then she wanted to get a really interesting job.

DECORATING FIELD

Mrs. T. loved the decorating field, but everybody said it was impossible to get into it without training.

"But," as Mrs. T. wrote me, "that's what they say about everything. I figure you never know until you try. Besides, I've learned to type and I'm studying bookkeeping. I might be useful to a decorator—who knows?"

Mrs. T. wrote letters to the top decorators in her city, asking if she could talk with them about the possibility of a job doing typing, bookkeeping, filing and answering telephones. Eventually, she was hired and she loves the job.

Mrs. K. would probably just sigh and mutter about some people having all the luck. But Mrs. T. knows very well that she makes her own luck!

Rare Coins Displayed at Annual Antique Show

A last minute change in plans will bring a Flint coin and stamp dealer to Pontiac's Antique Show and Sale, opening at 11 a.m. tomorrow at All Saints Episcopal Church.

Old foreign and demestic coins and a complete set of commemorative half dollars are included in this collection. There will be a large supply of Confederate paper money available.

The dealer also offers free appraisal of coins and will buy both coins and stamps.

At other booths will be everything in antiques from fine silver to pine primitives.

Herbert Martin, Pontiac's blind chair caner, again will be on hand to show samples of his work. Hooked rugs made by Mrs. Frederick Goodell of Grosse Pointe and her pupils will be on display.

A dress has been loaned to the show by Mrs. Frank Stull, a member of Guild 11, sponsor of the show. The dress was owned by Mrs. George Stull, a long-time Pontiac resident.

The 20-inch waistline of the dress presented a problem until Janet Evans tried it on for size. Janet, who wears it with an inch to spare, will model it Wednesday afternoon.

Little Susan Jane Allen will be on hand then, too, in an old fashioned child's dress.

A country store will be stocked with home baked goods, supplied by guilds of the church, and jams, jellies and candy made by a farm kitchen caterer.

LUNCH IN GALLERY

Lunch, snacks and tea, featuring home - baked pastries, will be served daily on the balcony overlooking the show.

Working on the balcony will be Mrs. T. M. Vanderstempel, Mrs. Robert Evans, Mrs. Charles Kistner, Helen Oldzinski, Mrs. Corliss Armstrong, Mrs. R. G. Campbell, Mrs. Charles Sanft, Mrs. Gerald Kirkby, Mrs. Larmon Smith, Mrs. Kenneth VandenBerg, and Mrs. William Heller. Mrs. A. E. Silk will supply her specialty, a lemon fluff dessert.

Working with Mrs. Vernon Abbott on the kitchen committee will be Mrs. Clarence Smith, Mrs. Felix Wotilla, Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Bryan Kinney, Mrs. Earle Knapp, Mrs. Dawson Baer, Mrs. R. M. Rasmussen, Mrs. Frank Vydick and Mrs. John MacDonald.

Mrs. C. R. Gatley will act as treasurer for the show and will be assisted by Mrs. N. E. Durocher.

Assisting Mrs. Stull at registration will be Mrs. Harold McDonnell, Mrs. Horace Hall, Mrs. L. M. Whitfield, Mrs. Monroe Osmun, Mrs. R. R. Anglemier, and Mrs. Charles Whitfield.

Many Parents Fear Direct Action

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

At four, Andy balks at coming to meals, delaying his mother's work.

So at mealtimes she tries to bribe him to be "nice" to her by being "nice" to him. She'll pretend great interest in the building of blocks he's erecting, saying, "My, what a big house you're making! Is it going to have a garage? Come along to lunch and tell me about it . . ."

But Andy always senses his mother's fear of him behind these words of simulated interest. It upsets him. He doesn't like being the dependent of a protector who suffers from fear of him.

So he says angrily, "Go away, you old dopey brat." But this open appeal for unfrightened action from his mother gets him nowhere. Instead of picking him up and bearing him out to the kitchen, she just experiences more resentment at him for increasing her helplessness.

She goes on talking. She says, "Is that the way to speak to your Mommy? Don't you know I love you and want you to be a good boy? Come to lunch now . . ."

In a recent issue of the Ladies Home Journal, Dr. Erich Fromm names the problem of Andy's mother. He says, "People who talk and talk and talk very often do not realize that there are certain acts to which one must commit oneself if one is really going to learn anything.

"The person who wants to swim, for instance, can talk with a swimming teacher all he wants to—but he can never learn to swim until he commits himself to trust the carrying power of the water."

Many parents fear taking direct action toward children.

Psychological knowledge can't help us with this fear. We can read child psychology books until our brains are jammed with information on how to act toward Andy—and still remain incapable of committing ourselves to the carrying power of action toward him.

This is the weakness of parent education. Though the experts can tell us what to do, they cannot swing us over the chasm that lies between doing and fear of doing.

They can't endow Andy's mother with the self-trust she needs to leap into the unknown consequence of acting toward him, feeling, "This thing I do seems so right to me that I can't be bothered fussing about its consequences."

Often parents who fear action toward children were victims of childhood overprotection. They dare not give themselves to any risky action because they were denied discovering how often it blesses us.

All Saints Guild Meets at Home of Mrs. Isgrigg

Mrs. William Isgrigg of Cherokee road entertained members of Guild Six, All Saints Episcopal Church. Mrs. Fred Cockle, newly elected president, led devotions at the recent meeting.

Other officers for the coming year are Mrs. John Blamy, vice president; Mrs. Charles Rogers, treasurer, and Mrs. Robert Castell, secretary. Appointed to serve as chairmen were Mrs. Walter Wharton, wedding receptions chairman; Novella Davies, membership; Mrs. Robert Tricker, united thank offering; Mrs. Victor Sutt, Christian education, and Mrs. Castell, publicity.

Mrs. Blamy and Mrs. Tricker, delegates to the recent convention held at Masonic Temple, Detroit, reported to the group, and plans were made to continue Tuesday evening Lenten programs.

Ani Chapter Plans Pre-Lenten Party

Hazel and Alice Kabodian were cohostesses to members of Ani Chapter of the Armenian Relief Society Tuesday evening in their home on Prospect street.

Reports were presented on the newly organized chapter's card party held recently. Plans are being made for a pre-Lenten party, with Mrs. Fred Hamilton serving as general chairman.

Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour.

Nebs Club Meets

Mrs. Nyda Caldwell of Chetolah Shores entertained members of the Nebs Club at a recent party. Members contributed box lunches for the luncheon.

Lisbon Hails Visiting Queen, Duke

Huge Crowds Line Streets

Confetti, Noise Obscure Rumors of Disharmony in Royal Household

LISBON (INS) — Rumors of a royal rift dissolved into the background today as Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh were welcomed in Lisbon with noise and ceremonies befitting only royalty.

The royal yacht, Britannia, left Setubal early in the day under escort of British destroyers and Portuguese navy vessels.

When it reached the mouth of the river Tagus, an armada of private yachts and fishing vessels joined the entourage.

"The yacht sailed up the river, huge crowds waved flags and handkerchiefs. Fortresses along the route boomed 21-gun salutes. Bands on the vessels played the British and Portuguese national anthems and marches.

Finally, when the yacht anchored promptly at 11 a.m. (6 a.m. EST), the Queen and the Duke transferred to a beautifully carved golden royal barge, built in the 17th century and manned by 40 selected naval cadets. The celebration was like those of days long gone by. The Queen's attendants wore costumes of the 17th century.

The Portuguese dawn broke sunny and clear, following the heavy storm of Saturday night and Sunday, and the streets of ancient Lisbon filled early.

When the royal barge landed, President Francisco Higini Craveiro Lopes greeted the visitors. There were more gun salutes. Sirens sounded. Crowds cheered. And there was no talk of the royal rift.

Crowds thronging Lisbon's downtown area, jammed since the sun rose, continued to swell by the minute as the merry-makers sought a vantage point from which they could see the Queen and Philip.

Platoons of police had long been in their positions along the Queen's route. Blue-uniformed officers with white braid and shoulder decorations added to the color of the confetti-and-flower-covered streets.

Throughout the city people had walked early toward the royal route, carrying folding chairs and boxes to sit upon.

After the beginning of her official reception at black horse square, a 17th century golden coach was waiting to drive the Queen to the palace of Queluz.

Milan Pays Homage to Arturo Toscanini

MILAN, Italy (AP) — The music lovers of Milan, from street sweepers to opera stars and directors, stood in drizzling, chilling rain today to pay their last homage to maestro Arturo Toscanini.

The massive casket containing the noted conductor's body arrived by train from Rome. Draped with an Italian Flag, it was placed in the center foyer of the famous La Scala opera house, where the conductor scored some of his greatest triumphs.

The lion of music died in New York Jan. 16 at the age of 89. His body was flown from the United States yesterday. His son Walter and his daughters, Countess Wally Castelbarco and Mrs. Wanda Horowitz, accompanied the body.

Lines formed before dawn in front of the opera house. Many persons wept.

The foyer pillars and the crystal chandeliers were draped in black. A bouquet of violets and orchids was placed at the head of the coffin and red, white and green flowers — the Italian national colors — at the foot.

La Scala's orchestra played the funeral march from Beethoven's Eroica Symphony. Six municipal guards stood at attention.

The onetime second cello player who became one of the world's greatest conductors first appeared at La Scala in 1898.

Candidate 'in a Lather'

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Amy Ballinger, a candidate for the Pittsburgh Central Labor Union's executive board, says she's "all in a lather" about the election coming up Thursday. To demonstrate the point, Miss Ballinger has sent a cake of soap to each delegate, asking for his vote. A cake of soap is appropriate too. Miss ballinger is secretary - treasurer of Local 141, Laundry Workers.

Ekberg, Hubby Flee Scene of Fisticuffs

PALM BEACH, Fla. (INS)—Curvacious film actress Anita Ekberg and her huskey husband, actor Anthony Steel, were reported on a yachting trip today, far from the Palm Beach scene of fisticuffs involving Steel last week.

A telephone call to the Horace Dodge home at Palm Beach yesterday, where Miss Ekberg and Steel had been guests, brought the news:

"They are on a three-day yachting trip."

Steel and sculptor Joseph Dubronyi reportedly exchanged blows Feb. 15 when Steel resented alleged attentions Dubronyi "forced" on Miss Ekberg.

Icy Highways Major Factor in State Fatalities

Death Toll 14 in Weekend

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Icy highways contributed to the Michigan traffic death toll of 12 this weekend.

Snow flurries thoughout the state made roads slick and treacherous.

At least six persons were killed in crashes that followed skidding on ice roads.

Besides the traffic deaths, a man suffocated and a farmer was gored fatally by a bull.

Harold J. Mink, Jr., 42, of St. Clair Shores, was killed Saturday night when his car crashed into a utility pole near Utica outside Detroit.

John Williams, 17, a Midland high school senior, was killed Saturday night when his car skidded on icy M20 and crashed into a tree six miles west of Bay City.

Mrs. Neva Fullwood, 33, of Flint, was injured fatally Saturday night when the car in which she was riding, skidded into the path of an oncoming truck on US10 four miles south of Flint.

Ann May Sollenberger, 19, of Grand Rapids, was killed Saturday night when the car in which she was a passenger was involver in a two-car collison on the US131 bypass, 2½ miles east of Grand Rapids.

Solomon Bennett, 74, of rural Wayne county, was killed Friday night in a two-car collision on US25 about 10 miles southwest of Detroit.

Frank B. Catalino, 36, was suffocated Saturday in a house trailer parked inside his gasoline station in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Doris May Kuiper, 34, of Rte. 2, Zeeland, was killed Saturday when her car skidded into a truck on a hill two miles east of Zeeland.

Joseph H. Gibbons, 32, of Keego Harbor, was killed Friday night when his car skidded into two trees and a utility pole in Bloomfield Township near Detroit.

James J. Hackworth, 22, of rural Calhourn county, was killed Saturday when his car skidded into a tree while he was on his way to work in Albion.

Edmond Posey, 53, of Marine City was killed Saturday night when his tractor skidded on ice and overturned on him.

Hammond C. Babb, of Grand Rapids, and his wife, Ethel, both 48, were killed Saturday night when their car was struck on a Grand Rapids city crossing by a Chesapeake & Ohio freight train less than half a mile from their home.

Cindy Lou Doxsie, 5, of Holland, Ohio, was killed Sunday in a two-car collision in Monroe county six miles north of the Ohio line.

Raymond L. Tackaberry, 45, of rural St. Joseph county, was gored fatally by a bull Saturday night on his farm three miles north of Three Rivers.

CD to Offer Course in Radio Monitoring

Robert A. Stierer, assistant Civil Defense director for Pontiac, announced today that a course in radiological monitoring will be held Monday nights April 1 through June 17.

"This is another step to stress Civil Defense measures in the city," he said.

He said the class will be limited to 30 persons who are members of CD organizations "or who will make their training available to CD organizations."

The classes will be taught at Pontiac High School each Monday night from 7 to 10 p.m. Victor Lindquist, PHS science teacher and graduate of a University of Michigan radiological course, will be the instructor.

Assisting Linquist will be Fred T. McDermott, state industrial hygienist for the Michigan Dept. of Public Health.

Interested CD persons are asked to make application for the course with Stierer at the City Hall. The course is being coordinated with the Oakland County CD Council.

Tray of Rings Stolen From Detroit Display

DETROIT (AP)—A tray of 18 rings valued at $14,000 was reported stolen from the Detroit Jewelry show in a downtown hotel yesterday.

David Ettenger, general manager of the Imperial Pearl Syndicate Inc., told police the diamond and pearl cultured rings were taken from an easel-type display board.

Helwig, of Fisher Body, Dies at Ford Hospital

DETROIT (AP) — Oliver K. Helwig, director of process development for Fisher Body Division of General Motors Corp., died yesterday in Henry Ford Hospital. He was 60 years old.

A native of Hanover, Ont., he had lived in the Detroit area for 25 years.

Union Leaders Predict Big Gain at Rally in Flint

FLINT (AP)—At a rally marking the 20th anniversary of the Flint sitdown strike, leaders of the United Auto Workers said yesterday the union has set its sights on larger economic gains in new contract negotiations next year.

Roy Reuther, director of international affairs for the UAW, told union members, "You can't live on the laurels of the sitdown. New members must understand that they, and not the sitdowners, must win further gains."

He is a brother of UAW President Walter Reuther.

Leonard Woodcock, UAW vice president in charge of the General Motors department, said, "If we don't get the biggest economic concession that we have ever gotten in 1958, we are going to be doing the wrong thing." He added that further gains for labor were necessary "to get purchasing power into the hands of the people."

Woodcock said he differed from critics who blamed organized labor for spiraling prices. Asserting industry was to blame, Woodcock said General Motors raised prices about 10 per cent when "it wasn't necessary."

The rally climaxed a 10-day celebration by the union of the sitdown strike that ended Feb. 11, 1937, at GM's Fisher Body and Chevrolet plants in Flint. The sitdown strikers occupied the plants for more than a month before the UAW won recognition from General Motors as bargaining agent for the workers.

President Reuther, in a telegram read at the rally, said the sitdowners "risked everything they had to establish the union" and "help change the whole face of the United States."

Roy Reuther said the UAW "should look back 20 years to draw inspiration from the sitdowners." He added they should "put aside factionalism and unite for further gains."

King Convicted in Krise Murder

No Sentence Date Set; Could Draw Life Term; Friend Also Arrested

WHITE CLOUD (AP)—James King, former Wayne County common pleas court bailiff, was convicted of second-degree murder Saturday in the slaying of farmer George L. Krise.

A jury of 11 men and 2 women deliberated less than two hours

Circuit Judge Earl C. Pugsley of Hart set no sentence date.

Second-degree murder carries a prison sentence of any number of years up to life. It permits parole after 10 years.

King, 58, was accused of shooting Krise Nov. 16 after the Newaygo County farmer ordered King and his hunting party off his land.

King pleaded self defense.

The trial lasted seven days.

While the jury was deliberating, Judge Pugsley ordered the arrest of Cleveland Gilmore of rural Newaygo County, a friend of King's, on charges of attempting to obstruct justice through influencing the jury. Gilmore formerly lived in Detroit.

Judge Pugsley said Gilmore was charged with suggesting to defense attorneys that "with a little money" he could arrange to influence one or two jurors to get at least a hung jury.

Gilmore demanded examination when arraigned on the charge. Examination was set for March 6.

Wings Assured Playoff Berth, Whip Bruins, 6-2

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings today are assured of a spot in the Stanley Cup playoffs for the 19th year in succession.

The Wings' triumph yesterday afternoon over the Boston Bruins, coupled with New York's 3-2 win over Toronto last night, makes it mathematically impossible for Detroit to finish lower than 4th in the national hockey league.

As recent as 10 days ago, most of the hockey "experts" were saying Detroit would falter and the Montreal Canadiens would barrel home with their second straight NHL title.

But now it appears the opposite has happened. The Wings are keeping up a torrid pace, but no other team seems to be able to make up ground. Montreal's 3-2 victory over Chicago last night left the Canadiens still eight points behind Detroit's 74 in the NHL standings.

"We're in good shape," said Detroit coach Jim Skinner, whose needling of a Bruin player touched off a five-minute flareup in the middle of the Red Wing victory. "Every man on this club is confident that we're going to win the title. We won't fold now."

Skinner wouldn't let Boston defenseman Ferny Flaman forget about a couple of lapses that resulted in Detroit goals, and when Flaman charged through to the Detroit bench he and the Detroit coach began an exchange of punches — most of them wild ones — that brought out players from both benches and a handful of fans.

Officials and attendants managed to break up the scramble before any noticeable damage was done. Referee Ed Powers decided against any penalties, although he meted out 14 others during the game.

Two-goal performances by Billy Dea and Gordie Howe paced Detroit victory, the Wings' 32nd of the season — two more than they were able to amass last year when they finished in second place behind Montreal.

Howe, with two goals, and Ted Lindsay, with the opening goal and an assist on Howe's second score, each picked up a pair of points in the individual scoring drive. Howe leads the pack with 71, Lindsay has 69 and Jean Beliveau of Montreal, last year's leader, is third with 67.

Defenseman Red Kelly, Marcel Pronovost, Al Arbour and Warren Godfrey made Goalie Glenn Hall's job a reasonably simple one. Although Hall was nicked for a pair of goals — both after the Wings had taken a 4-0 lead — he was confronted with only 18 other Boston shots on goal.

Boston's rookie goalie, Don Simmons, had his hands full. The youngster who took over for the ailing Terry Sawchuk was successful in early meetings with the Wings, but he was defeated early in the 4th Sunday matinee contest in the Detroit club's history.

The Wings will be in Fort Wayne tonight for an exhibition game.

HALL UNDER FIRE — Boston's Leo LaBine (16) fires for the net in the 2nd period of Sunday afternoon's NHL game at the Olympia, but Detroit goalie Glenn Hall blocks the net well to make the save. The Wings beat the Bruins, 6-2, for a weekend sweep with a victory at Toronto Saturday. Detroit now has an 8-point lead in the NHL and has assured itself of a Stanley Cup playoff berth.

Must have been pressure for Henry Sands of Midland who missed taking the lead in the singles of the Elks Bowling Tournament yesterday.

Sands rolled actual games of 222 and 245 and with his 96 handicap he then needed only a 162 in the final game to overtake the 724 of leader John Gavie. But Sands hit only 123 pins and failed to place even among the top 10.

State Team to Compete in Chicago

Grand Rapids Dominates GG Finals

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The oddsmakers don't make much of an allowance for a "home ring" advantage in boxing, but half of the eight-man crew that will carry Michigan's banner into Chicago's tournament of champions next week earned their state titles right in their own back yard.

In addition to capturing four championships in the "open class" for the national competition, Grand Rapids fighters claimed a pair of titles in the novice division during the 26th annual all-Michigan Golden Gloves competition.

Nearly 10,000 fans were on hand in Civic Auditorium Friday and Saturday nights for the amateur spectacular of flying fists. There were 75 of the 3-round battles to determine eight champions in each division.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Grand Rapids team took the Stephen Griffin memorial cup, emblematic of the team championship.

Although there was no official vote, most ringside observers regarded Bill Vereecken, the 126-pound open titlist, the "class" of the competition.

New Cage Loop Is Considered

U. of D. Among Schools Aiming to Unite for Basketball League

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Delegates of six independent universities hope to establish on a one season trial basis a two-division basketball conference.

After promising to bring the matter before their respective athletic councils, the representatives ended their two day talks yesterday on the Oklahoma City University campus.

Agreeing to the proposed loop were OCU; Marquette of Milwaukee; Depaul, Greencastle, Ind.; DETROIT; Creighton, Omaha, Neb., and Regis of Denver.

The group agreed to try to launch a conference that would include ten teams by the time championship plays opens in the 1958-59 season.

Other schools rumored to be on the invitational list are Louisville; Butler, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Valparaiso, Valparaiso, Ind.; Rockhurst, Kansas City; St. Ambrose, Davenport, Iowa; and possibly Missouri Valley members St. Louis and Drake of Des Moines, Iowa.

Taking part in the parley here was Fred Delano of Detroit.

35-Pound Weight Record Beaten

MEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — Al Hall, the rugged ex-Cornell weightman from Hanover, Mass., today needed only official recognition for a new record in the 35 pound weight —67 feet, 9½ inches.

Hall cut loose the throw in a special AAU-sanctioned event at Tufts' Cousens cage Saturday on the last of his six tries.

The heave bettered both the recognized world mark of 64 feet, 10 inches held by Bob Backus and the 66 foot, 7½ inch by Hal Connolly still pending.

Local 653 Quintet Noses Out Falcons

A two-point superiority in the 1st half was enough to bring Local 653 a 69-67 victory over the Local 594 Falcons in Sunday's best UAW-CIO League basketball game at Jefferson Junior High.

Local 653 gained a 30-28 halftime advantage and matched points with the Falcons during the final two quarters. Ron Woodhull led the winners with 26 points, while Al King scored 22 for the Falcons.

In yesterday's other league game, Perry Williams tallied 16 points to pace Local 596 to a 42-32 triumph over the Local 594 Vikings.

St. Fred Romps, 60-46; Mikes Yield to Eaglets

St. Frederick rallied to gain its 9th victory of the season, but St. Michael encountered rough going in Sunday afternoon basketball games.

The Rams spotted St. Bernard a 26-23 halftime lead, then came back to win going away, 60-46, in the St. Fred gymnasium. The triumph gave the southsiders a 9-4 season record.

St. Mike gave a better account of itself against Orchard Lake St. Mary than previously, but still succumbed to the strong Eaglets, 46-42, at the Pontiac High gym.

St. Fred iced its decision with a 17-8 bulge in the 3rd period. Not content to stop there, the Rams buried the Detroiters under a 20-point deluge in the 4th quarter.

Three St. Fred cagers scored in double figures. Dick Kast was tops with 19 points, followed by Tom Derocher who made 18. Dick Nickerson had 11.

The Shamrocks were outscored from the floor, 20 field goals to 13, but managed to stay in contention at the foul line by sinking 16 out of 22 free tosses.

St. Mary enjoyed a 28-20 halftime edge and still led by eight points entering the final period. The Mikes rallied to tie the score, 40-40, but the Eaglets bounced right back to wrap it up.

Art Goisdsinski and Pete Madelans sparked the Eaglets with 13 and 10 points respectively. It was their 12th victory in 13 starts, SCL champion St. Benedict inflicting the lone setback.

Chuck Brown netted 15 points and Dan Dropps made 10 for the Shamrocks, whose season record now stands at 8-4.

Phil Bieri scored 18 points to lead St. Fred's junior varsity to a 41-32 triumph over St. Bernard while St. Mike's reserves bowed to the Eaglets, 48-32.

Pontiac Sets New Nascar Speed Record at 101.6

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A bit of strategy, that could have just as well backfired, helped Cotton Owens to his record smashing victory yesterday in Nascar's 160-mile grand national circuit race for stock autos.

"I felt we were all pretty equal in there," the Spartanburg, S.C., garage owner said, "so I tried to set a pace which would force somebody out.

"It could have been me," he added with a grin.

His pace was a blazing 101.6 miles an hour average in a 317-horsepower 1957 Pontiac. It killed off the only real challenger he had from the field of 57 starters, Paul Goldsmith of St. Clair Shores, Mich., jockeying a 283-horsepower fuel injection 1957 Chevrolet.

Goldsmith duelled Owens for 32 laps of the 39-lap grind over the 4.1-mile beach and road course.

Goldsmith was running 25 seconds ahead in the 31st lap when his Chevrolet started bellowing smoke. He dropped out after two more laps with a burned out piston.

Johnny Beauchamp of Harlan, Iowa, driving a 270-horsepower Chevrolet finished second, 55 seconds behind Owens.

Another 33 seconds back came Fonty Flock of Atlanta in a 335-horsepower Mercury. Buck Baker of Charlotte, N.C., was fourth in a 283-horsepower Chevrolet and Marvin Panch of Gardena, Calif., fifth in a 300-horsepower Ford.

Others in the first 10 were Bill Lutz of Louisville, Ky., Curtis Turner of Roanoke, Va., Speedy Thompson of Charlotte, N.C., Rex White of Silver Springs, Md. and Charlie Cregar of Nazareth, Pa.

Owens' run was the fastest ever made on the track here. He clipped nearly 10 miles an hour off the mark set by Tim Flock of Atlanta in this race two years ago in a Chrysler.

The victory was worth $4,250 to Owens. Beauchamp won $2,450, Fonty Flock $1,500.

Ishpeming Boys Rank High in Ski Jumping

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—Jim Marra of Ishpeming, Mich., scored 198.8 points in two jumps of 90 feet to finish third in the class 3 (12-13 years) competition in the central U. S. Ski Jumping tournament yesterday.

Ronny Richards, also of Ishpeming, soared 80 and 81 feet to capture 189.6 points and second place in the class 4 (11 years and under) event.

Elks Keg Leaders Survive 5th Weekend of Tourney

New 7th place entries in both the doubles and singles handicap divisions were the only changes on the big scoreboard of top performers as the Michigan Elks Bowling Tournament completed its 5th week of action here last night. There are three more weekends to go.

There was no new challenge to any of the leaders as they remained exactly the same for the 2nd straight weekend. Some have held 1st place since the tourney started and they could go all the way now after surviving the latest sessions.

Outstanding bowlers from Grand Rapids, Royal Oak and several other cities came to town Saturday and Sunday with strong chances of moving in among the leaders on the basis of past performances in their own areas but only the above-mentioned 7th placers could do so.

The entire list of leaders in both team groups and actual pacesetters for singles and doubles retained their positions. Grand Rapids' L. Powers rolled a 694 to move in ahead of C. Horrall and J. Haddrill, both of Pontiac, in singles handicap.

The addition to the doubles department was the Royal Oak duo of G. Brannock-W. Meyerhoven with 1301.

Dickie's Service of Pontiac has dominated singles play for four weeks now, while Detroiter John Gavie has been in front since the 2nd day in singles. Doubles leaders are Bill Fann-Vern Miller of Plymouth (handicap) and E. Walker-K. Haviland of Detroit (actual).

Battle Creek ace H. Zook still reigns as the man to beat for the all-events trophy with his 1843 total posted the 2nd weekend.

Record 279 Brings Win for Miss Faulk

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Mary Lena Faulk, who has been playing for pay only 25 months, today holds the Ladies Professional Golfers Assn. record for 72 holes of play and is $880 richer after victory in the St. Petersburg Open.

The tall young lady from Thomasville, Ga., turned in rounds of 71-67-73-68 for a total of 279 that smashed the LPGA record of 284, set by Marlene Bauer Hagge at Denver in 1956. Men's par is 71 for the 6,116-yard Sunset course.

The 279 was three strokes better than runner-up Louise Suggs. Miss Suggs received $616 of the $5,000 purse.

Third money of $528 went to Betty Jameson, who herself equaled the old record of 284.

Other leaders were Fay Crocker, 287; Joyce Ziske, 290; Mickey Wright and Mrs. Hagge, tied at 293; defending champion Kathy Cornelius, 294; and Wiffi Smith, 295.

Land-O-Lakes Gains Keg Lead

Leads changed hands in all divisions as the 5th annual Huron Valley Bowling Tournament completed its 3rd weekend at the Fairgrounds alleys last night. The event comes to a close next Sunday.

A red-hot Land-O-Lakes Recreation contingent took over 1st place in both team score and actual pins over average, while Detroit and Farmington keglers moved into leads in individual play.

Land-O-Lakes tallied a combined handicap 3107 total to move past the Commerce Stars, who dropped the 2nd in team score. All five members had 500 series as the Waterford Township group finished with 254 pins over average.

Detroiter H. Bergeron took over the high actual series lead with 658. D. Oldenburg of Farmington rolled the top game of the tourney hitting a 254 actual.

Senior Skaters in 1st Contest

First "senior-senior" dance skate contest was held Sunday night at Rolladium rink, with LaMae White and Pete Marchewka emerging the victors after skating the "Glide Waltz." Combined ages of the couples had to be 60 or over.

Second races of the 4th period were also skated at Rolladium, on Saturday. Winners were:

Class A — Arthur Rouse and Suzanne Field; Class B — Doug Stranahan and Connie Pape; Class C — Buddie Henke and Yvonne Gibbs.

Cards' Alvin Dark Wins 3rd Golf Title

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—St. Louis Cardinals shortstop Alvin Dark has won the major league baseball players golf crown for the third time.

His victim yesterday, as in 1955, was Al Lopez, manager of the Chicago White Sox. Dark won 5 and 4.

YOU'RE THE MANAGER

By BEN OLAN

Bob Buhl was one of three dependable pitchers on the Milwaukee Braves' staff last season. Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette were the others.

Buhl won 18 games and lost 8, finishing 13 of the 33 games he started. As a batter, however, Buhl managed only seven hits in 73 times at bat. He had two doubles and batted in three runs.

Here's a case in which Buhl was a central figure. If you were the Milwaukee manager what would you have done? Then see what actually happened.

(Key: (R) righthanded.)

The game between the Braves and Cubs at Milwaukee is deadlocked 1-1 in the last of the seventh. Warren Hacker (R) is pitching for Chicago. Joe Adcock, the Braves' first batter, is retired. Billy Bruton follows with a fly ball which is dropped by outfielder Gale Wade and Bruton streaks to third base on the error. Starting pitcher Buhl (R) is the next batter with Danny O'Connell (R) and Johnny Logan (R) to follow.

Would you:

a. Put in a pinch-hitter for Buhl?

b. Order Buhl to try a squeeze bunt?

c. Let Bruton try to steal home?

d. Have Buhl swing away?

Result: A—Wes Covington (L) bats for Buhl and singles to center, scoring Bruton. Milwaukee adds another run to win 3-1 as Dave Jolly, in relief, holds Chicago scoreless (April 19).

Finalists Set Up for YMCA Tourney

Phalanx No. 1 and Pontiac Hi-Y will collide in the final round of play Saturday at 6:30 p.m. for the YMCA Community Basketball League title.

Finalists were determined Saturday when Phalanx defeated St. George 60-31, and Hi-Y turned back YMCA, 50-39.

Phalanx held only a 4-point lead at halftime, but exploded after intermission to smother St. George. Top scorers were Williams (St. G) with 9, Clapp (P) with 14; 53 fouls were called in the game.

McClure and Colbert with 10 each led scorers for YMCA, while Van Ryzin and Cordingly with 14 each paced victors.

A foul-shooting tournament will follow the title round, for all Community loop players. It will be a best-of-15 single elimination affair. Winner will get a "Oscar."

Walsh Ill, Broke

Old Star Bitter Over Majors' Pension Plan

CHESHIRE, Conn. (AP)—Big Ed Walsh, the Pennsylvania coal miner who became one of baseball's greatest pitchers 50 years ago, lies seriously ill today in a small bedroom here.

Although reluctant to talk about it, Edward Armstrong (Big Ed) Walsh, elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1946, is broke. His only revenue, he says, is a pension of $50 a month from the Veteran Baseball Players Assn.

He can't afford to buy postage stamps to answer requests for his autographs, most of them from kids, he recently told a group of Connecticut sports writers.

That pains him as much as the crippling arthritis. Walsh, 74, once the idol of millions of baseball fans can't walk. It's a struggle for him to sit up.

But it isn't his physical condition that he's complaining about. What has made him bitter is the failure of today's "high-salaried baseball players to do something about including the old-timers in their pension plans."

"After all, we helped to make baseball the popular game it is and paved the way for today's rich pension plans," says Big Ed.

The sight of Walsh struggling to sit up isn't a pretty one, but despite it, Big Ed says he is grateful for the $50 a month pension and the favors from Mr. and Mrs. Henry MacAteer, a couple who have taken him into their modest one-family home here, only a pop-fly from Meriden's city line.

It was in Meriden back in 1902 that Walsh, possessing a blinding fast ball, powered by a big muscular frame, began his famed professional baseball career. His feats were numerous, but most of them came in 1908 when he pitched in 66 games, winning 40, losing 15 and tying one while pitching the Chicago White Sox to the American League pennant.

State Cage Teams Enjoy Wins

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

The big three basketball teams in the state made a clean sweep of Saturday night's cage activity, and all three have league games tonight.

Michigan State won its 6th straight in the Big Ten by whipping Iowa, 77-67, at Jenison fieldhouse and the Spartans can move into a tie for 2nd place with a win at Illinois tonight.

Sophomore Johnny Green paced the MSU victory with 23 points and as many rebounds for his best night of the season.

The victory gave the Spartans a 6-3 mark in the league in third place behind Indiana, 7-2 and Ohio State 7-3.

The Buckeyes are idle tonight however and the Hoosiers meet Iowa at home. A Hoosier loss coupled with an MSU win would throw the race into a three-way deadlock, each team with 7-3.

Meanwhile at Ann Arbor, the Wolverines ended a two-game victory famine with a four-pronged attack and some crisp rebounding to run Illinois ragged, 102-89.

Ron Kramer sparked the onslaught with 25 points with sophs M. C. Burton and George Lee hitting 23 and 21 respectively and Jimmy Shearon getting 17.

The Wolverines took 68 rounds in comparison to only 48 for the Illini. Michigan, Illinois and Minnesota are all now 5-4 in 4th place tie in the Big Ten. Tonight Michigan is at Purdue.

Hebert Texas Open Champ, Dietz 12th

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Jay Hebert, the slender young pro from Louisiana, headed for Houston and the next stop on the golf tour today with a victory in the $20,000 Texas Open achieved by "the only shot that would have done it."

Hebert, 34-year-old playing out of Sanford, Fla., 3-ironed to the green on the 185-yard 18th hole at Brackenridge Park and sank a 6-foot putt for a birdie to beat Ed Furgol, the St. Andrews, Ill., veteran by a stroke for first money in a rain-swept round yesterday. He had a 4-under-par 67 on the final round for a 72-hole total of 271—13 strokes under par.

"It takes a perfect shot on this hole," said Hebert as he accepted the $2,800 check to make him the second leading money-winner of the year. "I made it and I won."

Hebert, capturing his second tournament of the winter tour—the only player who has won more than one—had staged a glittering duel with Furgol, the man with the withered arm, down the stretch.

But Hebert stroked the putt that brought him the precious birdie on the 18th. Furgol parred the hole and won second money of $1,900 with 272.

Tying for third place were Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., and Tony Holguin of Midlothian, Ill., who had 68 and 66 respectively for 274 totals.

As the golf tour moves on to the $36,000 Houston Open, Hebert has climbed into second place in money winnings with $7,415. Doug Ford of Mahopac, N.Y., is the leader with $8,585.50.

Don Addington of Tecumseh, Mich., and Mike Dietz of Lake Orion, Mich., shot a 279 to win $610 each and finish in a four-way tie for 12th place.

John Barnum of Belmont, Mich., carded a 281 to win $340 in a six-way tie for 18th place.

Bob Inman of Detroit had 283 to end in an eight-way deadlock for 22nd place and win $112.50.

'Byes' His Way Up

BC Boxer in Gloves Final

Without ever having smacked a glove on an opponent, Pontiac Boys' Club boxer Dave Blower has advanced to the final round of the Detroit Golden Gloves tournament.

Dave, a husky novice 175-pounder, is scheduled to oppose rugged Duke Ellis of the Detroit Northern Recreation center, in a Wednesday night battle at the Fairgrounds, with a trip to Chicago's Tournament of Champions the winner's reward.

Blower moved to the finals by an odd schedule quirk that gave his three consecutive round byes. He has shown a lot of promise in pre-tourney entry bouts here. Boys' Club trainers say he could go a long ways. Dave is the last of the BC fighters to stay in competition.

Ellis is 21, and is 6-feet-2 tall. He defeated two foes on the way to the finals.

Losers in Overtime

GRAND FORKS, N. D. (AP) — Joe Poole scored in a sudden death overtime to give North Dakota a 4-3 Western Intercollegiate Hockey League victory over Michigan Tech, Saturday night.

Long OK's Buc Terms

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Joe L. Brown general manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, says his regular first baseman, Dale Long, has agreed to 1957 contract terms.

Wilt Needs 40 Points

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain needs 40 points against Oklahoma tonight to regain the individual scoring lead in major college basketball.

That would give the Kansas giant a 30.61 average against a 30.57 mark by South Carolina's Grady Wallace. Both Wallace and Columbia's Chet (The Jet) Forte, No. 3 in the scramble.

In Detroit, the Titans snapped a four-game losing streak by beating Oklahoma A&M at its own game, 60-57, for a Missouri Valley win.

The defense-minded Aggies, led most of the way, but then senior star Bill Ebben hit four straight field goals and in the last four minutes the Titans put on a fast passing stalling exhibition.

Ebben finished with 27 points to lead the attack.

U. of D. is at home tonight against another Iba-coached team, Tulsa, of the Missouri Valley.

In other games involving state teams, Hope won at least a tie for 1st place in the MIAA by defeating Kalamazoo, 69-57, and Albion stayed right up with Hope by beating Hillsdale 75-54.

Hope and Albion now have 8-3 records in league competition.

Adrian (7-4) defeated Alma 64-61 in another MIAA game.

Illinois entries in the interstate conference retained their mastery over Michigan teams. Western Illinois, conference pacesetter, defeated Central Michigan 97-58 and Illinois Normal turned back Eastern Michigan 104-92.

In non-league games, Detroit Tech rallied in the second half to defeat Tri-State of Indiana 74-68; St. Norbert College (Wis.) beat Michigan Tech 77-75, and Ferris Institute set back Northern Michigan 80-77.

YMCA Tankers Splash to 3rd Double Victory

Completely outclassing their opponents in both ends of the Prep and Junior team swimming events at Flint YMCA Saturday, Pontiac YMCA rolled to its 3rd straight double-header victory, over Flint 50-28 and 48-33.

Meet was held in the Manley pool at Northern High.

The results:

Laurel, Pimlico Merger Studied

BALTIMORE (AP)—The State Racing Commission scheduled a public meeting at its offices here today to hear pros and cons of a proposed merger of Pimlico and Laurel horse race tracks.

The proposal, first made public Friday night, would close venerable Pimlico in congested northwest Baltimore and shift its 40 days of racing to Laurel. Laurel is a modern, roomy installation located—like Bowie, Maryland's third major track—between here and Washington.

Michigan Wins, 4-1

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Four Michigan players figured in the scoring as the Wolverines defeated Minnesota, 4-1, in a Western Intercollegiate Hockey League game Saturday.

Britain, Greece, Turkey May Resolve Cyprus Issue

ATHENS (INS)—Britain, Greece and Turkey will very probably sit around a conference table again to thrash out the Cyprus issue, but this time with a neutral body looking over their shoulders.

This is the conclusion arrived at by informed circles in Athens as the date nears for a full-dress United Nations debate on the Greek appeal for Cyprus self-determination.

The Greek motion, proposing that the people of Cyprus, a British crown colony, be allowed to determine their own political future, was placed on the U. N. agenda last November.

Two previous attempts by Greece to bring the Cyprus issue before the U. N., in 1954 and 1955 met with failure.

When the first attempt was voted down, violence erupted on the island within four months. It has so far cost a total of about 200 British and Cypriot lives and is continuing.

The second failure, in 1955, led to the talks between the governor of Cyprus, Sir John Harrding, and Archbishop Makarios, leader of the Cypriot Nationalists who seek union with Greece.

The talks broke down after five months of negotiation and immediately afterwards, in March 1956, Makarios was accused of complicity with the EOKA underground and exiled to the Seychelle islands in the Indian Ocean.

Since then, the Western nations, and the United States in particular, have become increasingly worried by the fact that the dispute is seriously hampering the effectiveness of NATO's Souutheast European defense set-up.

Learning Both Ways

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP)—The three Meadows brothers are out to prove that marriage is no stumbling block to a college education. Berman, 25, Bill, 21, and Fred, 18, all say their grades at Marshall College have increased since they were married. Two of the wives also are going to college.

Expect Todds' Arrival

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor and producer Michael Todd, recently married in Acapulco, Mexico, are expected here shortly on their honeymoon. A spokesman for former actress Marion Davies said the Todds have leased Miss Davies' home in this desert resort city, planning to remain here until Easter. The Todds now are in New York.

With $900 Pot How Can You Resist Trying?

We can't imagine anyone passing up an opportunity to win $900 when all it takes is a little time spent having fun with the Pot-O-Gold puzzle. If you would like to be the one, get busy on your entry now and be sure to follow all the rules. If no winner is found for last week's puzzle, you may win that check for almost a thousand dollars.

The puzzle consists of (1) a number of circles which contain a few scrambled letters, and (2) a corresponding list of clues to these words printed below. The object is to arrange each group of circled letters into a word that best fits its clue. The word which you select for Circle No. 1, then would be the one which you would print in the space to the right of (1) below.

You'll notice that some circles contain $ signs in pots of gold. You may use such a symbol as any letter you wish. However, it and all letters in that circle must be used. The $ sign, of course, can represent ANY letter in the word.

Do the same in all the other circles. Study the clues carefully and arrange all the letters into words that you believe best conforms to these clues. Use your $ signs to help you spell out the right words.

OFFICIAL CONTEST RULES

1. Anyone is eligible to enter the POT-O-GOLD contest with the exception of Pontiac Press employes or their immediate families.

2. A contestant may submit as many entries as he or she wishes but they must be on official entry blanks printed in this newspaper.

3. To submit an entry the contestant must print his answer words in the proper spaces, cut out the area enclosed by dotted lines and attach it securely to a 2-cent postcard. No entries will be acepted if they are in envelopes. Entries for Puzzle No. 38 must bear a Tuesday, Feb. 26, postmark (or before). No entries received after that time whether mailed or delivered by hand, will be declared eligible. The Press is not responsible for entries lost or delayed in the mail.

4. Sorry, telephone calls or mail concerning details of the contest cannot be answered or acknowledged.

5. The Pontiac Press will award a cash prize of $100 a week to the winner of each weekly POT-O-GOLD contest. If more than one winning answer is received the prize will be divided equally among the winners. If any week or weeks should pass without any winners, the prize will be added weekly until a winning solution is submitted.

6. Winners will be awarded an extra cash bonus of $25 each if they are Pontiac Press subscribers of record on the day winners are announced. Only one such bonus can be awarded to each prize-winner no matter how many weekly prizes may accumulate.

7. Each week's puzzle will be published Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the contest's end. Either or all will be considered as official entry blanks.

8. Winners and correct solutions will be announced each Friday of the week following individual contests. Official keeper of answers will be Frederick C. Ziem, prosecutor for Oakland County. Only the General Features Corp., originators of the puzzles, will know the solutions until after each contest is over. Answers will be delivered to the Press judges by Mr. Ziem after the final deadline.

9. There is only one correct solution to the POT-O-GOLD puzzle, and only that correct answer can win. The decision of the judges is final and all contestants agree to abide by the judges' decision. All entries becoming the property of The Pontiac Press and none can be returned.

10. Completed puzzles must be addressed to POT-O-GOLD, POST OFFICE BOX 58, Pontiac, Michigan. Winners will be notified either by telephone or in the mails.

Employs No Think Tricks, Says Quizman Van Doren

NEW YORK (INS)—Quiz expert Charles Van Doren, whose visibly strenuous thinking has won him $138,000 on TV, claims he has "no thinking system."

"I just stand there and hope to get an idea," he said today.

The 31-year-old Columbia University English instructor, who returns to the quiz show "Twenty One" tonight, added:

"It's some association and some plain idiot hopefulness.

"People insist I must use some kind of thinking tricks. Well, I know something about logic and I do try to associate one bit of knowledge with another.

"But when I don't know it right off, I have to squeeze it out of my memory. I always hope the answers will come, but I never believe it will work. I just hope."

Van Doren, who furrows his brow, counts on his fingers and mumbles while "hoping and squeezing his memory," also insists that he doesn't read to memorize.

"I just read," he told International News Service. "I don't set out to memorize. But of course I'm the kind of guy who looks up one thing in the Encyclopedia Britannica and keeps reading for the next 30 or 40 pages.

"At that I've only read about 20 per cent of the Britannica. I dip into it on weekends as booster readings since I got on the show. I usually re-read the almanac and the world atlas each weekend too."

Van Doren, interviewed between classes in literature, pooh-poohed the idea that he is a memory wizard.

"Ask my students," he said. "Sometimes I can't remember the name of an author in class, and most of the time I can't remember my room number. In fact, I can't remember my own social security number—I'm not good at numbers."

The son of Pulitzer Prize poet Mark Van Doren is becoming "more and more embarrassed" at the attention he's won.

"It was bad enough when students started applauding my entrance into class. But now people are coming in the doors and people are coming in the windows.

"The mail is piling up, and I don't even have time to eat."

The mail the tall, curly haired bachelor gets is still largely "matrimonial proposals."

"I may have to send out form letters," Van Doren laughed. "I have no plans for matrimony. I'm still surprised at the proposals—did you know I got about a hundred valentines?"

Tonight Van Doren will either continue playing the TV quiz or quit with his $138,000. It seems likely he'll go on, although he won't say officially till show time (9 p.m. EST, NBC-TV).

Barring ties he can't lose more than $10,500, and if he continues winning, his potential is unlimited.

Asked if he thought his winning streak would continue, Van Doren smiled, "I'm not superstitious."

CONSTIPATED?

new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks

without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrifty" colon. A "thrifty" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-R-E-T-C-H STIMULATE it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge.

ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAID, the amazing new lavative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy.

SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions.

IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT: Exercise tones your body! And COLONAID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98c for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Bob Considine Says:

Broadway Boasts Wholesome Play

NEW YORK (INS) — I bear some discouraging tidings about my friend Don Ameche's new Broadway show, "Holiday for Lovers." It is a play without perversion, minus alcoholics, bereft of opium addicts, murder, torture and delinquency both adult and juvenile.

How it ever got all the way to the Great White Way without a Tennessee Williams element of rancid decay remains one of the mysteries of the season.

This one is about an insurance man from Minneapolis and his wife who take an unmarried daughter abroad for the family's first trip to surprise still another daughter sent over two years in advance to study music.

It is a clean, wonderful, wholesome portrait of that increasingly familiar subject, the American traveler who has made best sellers out of travel books and travel agents rich enough to do a bit of traveling themselves.

Ronald Alexander's romantic comedy, staged with swift sureness by Shepard Traube with the gifted assistance of John Robert Lloyd, employs (in addition to Mr. Ameche) some fine players like Carmen Mathews, as his wife, Sandra Church, as the younger of his daughters, Ann Flood as the daughter who has had two great years in Europe, the all but incomparable bullyboy George Mathews as a brother-in-law, Audrey Christie as Ameche's know-it-all sister and genial other folks.

(Later research showed that "genial other folks" meant some excellent people named Tom Carlin, who plays the Rockefeller Fellow who falls for the younger daughter; Rene Paul, the elder daughter's teacher, and a pinchable maid played by Denise Dorin.)

SHOW FOR EVERYONE

What happens at the Longacre Theater is what happens to everyone who has 1) traveled and 2) has children. Nobody smokes a reefer, strips or throws a bump, any more than real folks do in real life. This is a fine show for everybody.

Don Ameche makes his first starring role in a non-musical in "Holiday for Lovers." He's just great. This fellow must be up around my age—the middle 30s—but he looks like a boy.

OOPS! — The "spell" of the Orient turns out to be somewhat fractured English in this sign erected by an enterprising bicycle shop owner in Nikki, Japan. The misspelling illustrates the typical difficulty Japanese have pronouncing the English "R".

But you know when he talks to his stage daughters that he knows what he's talking about. He should. Don and Honey have six children, including a boy in the Navy. "Holiday for Lovers" should run until taxes are declared unconstitutional.

Had a talk the other day with United Airlines Capt. Bud Gurney, a good, gray man of 51 who flies one of Pat Patterson's DC7s from Los Angeles to Honolulu and who has just finished serving as technical director for a film about a friend of his.

The film is "The Spirit of St. Louis." The friend is Charles A. Lindbergh. Bud and Slim took their first flight together. Both were frightened. That was back a few years.

The pilot was Otto Timm, an old hand who recently reconstructed the planes Lindbergh and Gurney flew during their days of wing-walking, mail-carrying and stunting.

At $80,000 each, three copies of the "Spirit of St. Louis" were built, one of them by Al Debono, a modern aviator who flew a propellor plane (Jimmy Stewart's stub-winged F51) across the country faster than anybody.

MOVED EMOTIONALLY

Contrary to reports, Lindbergh did not order most of the film reshot. He was moved emotionally by its authenticity when it was shown to him recently. It is a film without the standard love interest. It ends before he meets Anne Morrow.

It was more than two years in the making, cost $6,000,000, and its aerial scenes were shot by Tom Tutweiler, a superb craftsman. Lindbergh and Gurney, reliving adventures of three decades ago, itched to fly the instrumentless planes of their youth—and did.

Bud Gurney said this:

"When we were kids together we dreamed of 150 miles an hour and 20 passengers. Dreamed! Now my wife makes a dinner date for me before I take off from LA to Honolulu, or vice versa, with 80 passengers . . . and I'm always there when soups on."

There was considerable tension around the set when Lindbergh, visiting the proceedings, said he insisted on flying one of the reconstructed crates. Bud took over another plane of the same mold.

A Warners man mumbled something about parachutes. But Lindbergh said, "We didn't have any back in those days. Why should we worry about them now?"

Webford Club Elects Officers at Luncheon

Officers were elected for the coming year at a recent meeting of the Waterford Township Webford Club.

At the luncheon-business meeting, Mrs. Carlos Richardson was elected president of the group. Mrs. Glyn Hickson will be vice president and Mrs. L. H. Marsh is secretary. Treasurer for 1957 will be Mrs. Ray New Mersh.

Ireland has a population of 2,-289,700.

Twirl Contest Held at Orion

Twirlers From Nation and Canada; Plainville Girl 2nd Winner

LAKE ORION — Grand Champion Suellen Schumm, 9, of La-Porte, Ind., burst into tears as she was crowned supreme twirler in the National Baton Twirling Contest at the high school here Saturday. Sponsors were the Land-O-Lakes Majorettes, and director was Roy Hess.

Suellen, during the long tests lasting from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., had also taken the award for nine-year-olds and won the junior championship.

Jodie Marshall, of Plainville, tallest girl in the contests won the senior championship. The first two times Suellen and Jodie performed in finals for judges, a tie resulted. The third time Suellen won by one tenth of a point.

Selita S. Smth, 5, of Sharpsville, Ind.; Margaret J. Wells, 7, of Port Huron; Paulette Lugowy, 8, of Hamilton, Ont.; and Suzanne James, 10, of Royal Oak were all winners in their age groups for the Junior Championship.

Other winners in their age groups included Bonnie Kugel of Comstock Park who won over Sue Bahrke of Orion 1956 Michigan State Champion; Sandra Baker, 12, of Hamilton, Ont.; June Ann Ciampa, 13, of Dearborn; Sharron Shutty, 14, of Oak Park; Shirley Boetz, 15, of Pioneer, Ohio; Marilyn Schulte 16, of East Detroit and Jodie Marshall in the 17-and-over group.

Another twirloff thrice repeated was with two batons, featuring Sharron Shutty, 14, and June Ann Ciampa, 13. The third ballot showed a tie and so it was thus declared.

The final decision of the corps was a difficult one. Pat Duncan's Majorettes, known to fans of the Lions football games won on a technical point of military precision over the Betty Feist Majorettes of Hamilton, Ont. who featuerd more intricate steps and rythym.

A most touching contestant was Shirley Westfall, a deaf mute from Hamilton, Ont. whose teacher was with her at the starting line and tapped the beats on her arm so she would be in rythmn. She progressed alone with much confidence and won an "A" medal on her merits.

Missing Nurse Phones Sister

But Sheriff in Florida Still Investigates Case Involving Doctor, Boat

SWANQUARTER, N. C. (AP) — Sheriff Charles J. Cahoon said today he had not "closed the books" in the mysterious disappearance of a New Jersey nurse Feb. 9 from a doctor's yacht, although a sister of the nurse had told him she had talked with the missing woman by telephone.

The sheriff said he would await further developments in the vanishing of Mrs. Mary Ann Scales, 33, of Trenton, N. J.

Cahoon confirmed an earlier report that he had talked by telephone with the sister, Mrs. Marie McDonald, of Bordentown, N. J. He quoted Mrs. McDonald as saying the call came from Florida although she did not know from what place.

"She told me she knew it was her sister, and would swear it was her voice," he declared.

Mrs. Scales had been the object of a widespread search since she supposedly disappeared near Ocracoke Island from a yacht of Dr. James T. Dodge, 46-year-old general practitioner of Trenton, N. J.

The doctor and nurse, separated from their spouses, had been cruising.

Cahoon quoted Mrs. McDonald as saying that Mrs. Scales "wanted to know how her little girl was getting on. The sister said she could tell that Mrs. Scales was very much upset and sick. Mrs. Scales told her not to try to get in touch with her anymore.

Mrs. Scales' husband, Eugene, who works in a Trenton brake shop, said previously he had filed suit for divorce charging desertion, and is caring for the couple's two children.

Previously Dodge's wife, Mrs. Dorothy Dodge of Mercerville, N. J., said she had left her husband last May because of the nurse. The Dodges also have two daughters.

Film Role Awaits Dog Which Has Kosher Appetite

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If you have a dog with a kosher appetite, there's a movie career waiting for him.

Director George Sidney says he needs a dog that will eat bagels, sour cream, lox and cheese blintzes.

"The dog, to co-star with Frank Sinatra, Kim Novak and Rita Hayworth in Columbia's 'Pal Joey' can be any breed or mixture thereof," Sidney said.

"The script calls for him to be Sinatra's pet—and eat the same kind of food—throughout the picture," he said.

Hollywood dogs so far have turned up their noses at the diet. "They want strictly horsemeat filets," Sidney bemoaned.

'One stipulation though," he added, "the dog must not mistake Sinatra for a bone—or a lamppost."

Fire Kills 13 Japanese

Prognosis on Proboscis: Durante Is Nose-Worthy

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — "Schnozzola," Gene Fowler's book about the one and only Jimmy Durante, has been sold to Mike Curtiz, who has been negotiating with Gene for months. Gene will script the story, and Danny Thomas has been invited to play the title role. This isn't the first time that Danny has acted for Mike. Several years ago he scored a hit in "I'll See You in My Dreams," the story of the famous song writer, Gus Kahn.

Mike, at the moment, is working hard on "The Helen Morgan Story," but if he finishes his chores in time he will fly to New York to attend Jimmy Durante's testimonial dinner on March. 15th. He tells me he believes Danny has the same quality of sweetness that characterizes the Schnozzola.

I just cannot think of anyone better to play Mayor Skeffington in "The Last Hurrah" than Spencer Tracy. So I am glad to tell you it looks good for Spence, who has had several conferences with director John Ford.

I must say Diana Barrymore tells everything in her about-to-be published book. I was sent a proof of Look magazine for March 5, which publishes her story under the title "I Had Everything but Love."

Having known John Barrymore very well, and her mother, Michael Strange, the story is of great interest.

WORK ADVICE

Part of John's advice to Diana was: "Watch the men; watch the drinking; watch everything. I don't say live for your career, but be careful, and work. Work on other plays while you are in the one you are doing. You have excellent actors and actresses here. Work with them, if they'll work with you."

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Hot rumor is that Desilu Productions (Desi and Lucy) will take over the RKO lot, which is sadly empty.

CBS, as a surprise to Jack Benny, plans to make a TV film of his testimonial dinner.

Now what press agent dreamed this up? Marlon Brando is wearing a surgical mask to keep his Japanese fans away. Oh, Daddy-O!

Two very congenial friends are Randolph Hale, producer of "Anniversary Waltz," and Marjorie Lord, star of the same play. Their favorite place to meet is the Wild Goose restaurant.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

Handless Task in Disposal Unit Brings Firemen

PACOIMA, Calif. (AP) —Firemen disposed of a garbage disposal to free Mrs. Skip Schoen from its iron grip.

They dismantled part of the machine, drilled holes in one piece, and finally sawed through the portion that had imprisoned Mrs. Schoen in the kitchen of her Pacoima home.

Mrs. Schoen, 34, explained that she reached into the disposal — turned off, of course — to retrieve a spoon.

"I reached for it and looked out the window," she said. "I don't know what happened. I don't know how the other hand got in there."

Her daughter, Karlene, 15, called the firemen. It took eight of them an hour and a half to free Mrs. Schoen. Her only injury: swollen wrists.

Soybeans Fall in Mixed Deals

CHICAGO (AP) — Soybeans fell a couple of cents while corn displayed unusual strength on the Board of Trade today. Wheat, oats and rye eased early.

March and May corn opened on gains extending to about a cent which was a good jump for a grain which has been going down for many months. Most of the upturn was held in subsequent dealings.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ½ lower to ⅜ higher; March $2.34, corn ⅞ to 1 cent higher, March $1.29⅛, oats ¼ lower to ½ higher, March 75⅜, rye 1 to 1¼ higher, March $1.35¼, soybeans ⅝ to 2 cents lower, March $2.39⅝, and lard 10 to 20 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $14.92.

GM Locomotives on Way for Argentine Use

CHICAGO (AP)—A General Motors Corp. spokesman disclosed yesterday the firm has shipped 18 diesel locomotives to Argentina, the first such GM order to go to the South American country.

H. G. McLean, export manager for the firm's electro-motive div., said the shipment was part of an order of 25 General Motors G-12 general purpose locomotives purchased by D. F. Sarmiento, a division of the Argentine state-owned railway.

The G-12 is designed to pull either passenger or freight cars and can be used for shunting (switching) McClean said.

Profit-Taking Punctures Bulge

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was irregular early afternoon after profit-taking reduced early gains.

Pivotal stocks fluctuated from fractions to around a point. A few gains beyond this range remained. Trading was active.

The market opened higher as it extended the rising movement which existed at the close Friday when prices were continuing a sharp rebound from the break early in the past week.

Today's gains, however, were trimmed as traders took profits on substantial gains from last week's lows in leading issues.

Major steels erased their initial gains and were either slightly lower or about unchanged. Chrysler and Ford were the only motor stocks to cling to the upside. Leading rails still remained ahead but by a narrow margin. Non ferrous metals and aircrafts were mixed.

Dealership Demand for Projected 'Edsel'

CHICAGO (AP)—Benson Ford, vice president of the Ford Motor Co., said today that 2,244 dealership applications have been received for the firm's projected medium priced line of Edsel cars.

The new brand would share the field with Ford's Mercury line—between the lower Ford car and the higher Lincoln price ranges.

Ford told the Executives' Club of Chicago that the decision to bring out the new medium price line was made after a market study showed Ford has been "growing medium price car customers for our competition."

Man Held on Charge

Samuel Greene, 28, of 5½ Grant St., arrested Wednesday charged with indecent exposure, was committed to the Oakland County Jail Saturday pending an examination Wednesday in Municipal Court.

Greene was arraigned before Judge Cecil McCallum and demanded examination. He failed to furnish a $500 bond.

News in Brief

A wrist watch valued at $75 was reported stolen from Bruce Lemon 141 Clifford St. between 3 p.m. Saturday and 9 p.m. Sunday after thieves entered his home by forcing open a window, according to Pontiac police.

Ollie Byrd, 37, of 25840 11 Mile Rd., Birmingham, paid $75 in fine and court costs Saturday after pleading guilty to drunk driving before Keego Harbor Justice James Southart.

U.S. Car Production Exceeds '56 Period

DETROIT (INS)—Wards Automotive Reports says that U. S. car production through last week passed comparable 1956 output for the first time in 1957.

The statistical agency said that Saturday scheduling of several Ford Motor Co., and Chrysler Corp. divisions helped boost the year's total to date past the 1956 mark.

Plymouth's bid for a 17,000-unit output this week would mark its highest weekly turnout since December, 1955.

Production was estimated by Ward's this week at 148,484 cars and 23,306 trucks, compared to 147,163 cars and 22,957 trucks last week.

Woman Injured in Car; Driver Unhurt by Skid

A Pontiac woman was injured last night when the car in which she was riding left the road on Waldron Road near Baldwin Road in Orion Township.

Treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital for her injuries was Agnes Loyd, 24, of 72 Green St. Driver of the car, Rome Gragg, 35, of 60 Mathews St., was uninjured. He told Sheriff's deputies he lost control on a patch of ice.

REGISTRATION NOTICE
City of Pontiac

For Biennial Spring Election and Special City Election, Monday, April 1, 1957.

To the Qualified Electors of the City of Pontiac, Oakland County, Michigan.

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law" I, the undersigned Clerk, will, upon any day except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election receive for registration the name of any legal voter not already registered who may apply to me personally for such registration. Provided, however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the thirtieth day before any regular, general or official primary election and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at the office of the City Clerk Monday, March 6, 1957 the last day for registration from 8 o'clock a.m. until 8 o'clock p.m. on said day for the purpose of reviewing the registration and registering such of the qualified electors as shall properly apply therefor.

The name of no person but an actual resident of the precinct at the time of said registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

Dated February 15, 1957.

ADA R. EVANS,
City Clerk

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF FLOYD M. Loomis, who passed away Feb. 18, 1956.
You bid us not farewell,
You said goodbye to none,
Your loving heart had ceased to beat,
Before we knew that you were gone.
God saw that you were suffering,
And so he closed your weary eyes;
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."
Sadly missed by his wife, Suzie, sons Donald, Carl, Floyd Ray, daughter Lenora and grandchildren.

City Employes Form Committee to Study Safety

City employes have formed a City of Pontiac Employes Safety Committee, according to Harold Marshall, city personnel director.

It was formed recently "to invite management's attention to an unsafe condition or unsafe working practice," Marshall said.

The committee consists of 12 members representing all city departments. Clyde Christian, assistant Department of Public Works superintendent, is temporary chairman.

ADVENTURE CALLS — "The Buccaneers," starring Robert Shaw (left) as Dan Tempest and Brian Rawlinson (right) as Gaff Guernsey, is one of several popular television series produced in England. The British have taken a wide lead in transferring historic adventure stories to the home screen. "The Buccaneers" is shown Saturday at 7:30 p.m. over CBS.

Programs Win Wide Popularity

Films Are Produced in England to Guarantee Authentic Background

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP) — While history is not always a popular school subject, it is providing the background for three television programs which are very popular with the young in heart of all ages.

They are Buccaneers (CBS-TV, Saturday nights), Robin Hood Sir Lancelot (NBC-TV, Monday nights.) All are filmed in England by Sapphire Films, Inc.

Why are the programs produced in England?

In the words of Peggy Phillips, story editor: "You can't build an English castle in an American back yard and make it look like anything but a thing built in an American back yard. It's preferable to rent a genuine castle."

It is interesting, however, that a majority of the scripts are now being written by Americans. Miss Phillips, an American, is here now collecting writers. The producers feel that American writers have a better understanding of American story interests.

"The hardest thing for a British writer to do," says Miss Phillips, "is to get that opening hook that snares and holds an audience. British writers are strong on character and historical relationships and atmosphere while Americans concentrate more on conflicts between characters. The British pace is more leisurely because the whole method of their craft is cumulative."

The producers plan two new programs. One, tentatively entitled The Highwayman series, will concern one of the first police detection agencies in history, the famous Bow Street Runners of the 18th century. Another, to be filmed in Italy, will be based on Florence during the Renaissance.

Reindeer Well Insulated

NOME, Alaska — Reindeer hair is specially adapted for cold climates. Each hair is made up of many hollow cells, which serve as insulation. Because of the hairs' structure, Eskimo clothes made of reindeer skin are said to be buoyant enough to support a man in water.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery

Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called *Preparation H. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug stores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Trying to Be Normal, but Has He Made It?

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—Marlon Brando's trying to become "normal" but I'm not sure he's made it. He hired two Hollywood press agents—and has a Japanese girl friend, singer Miyoshi Umreki . . . Ethel Merman has an "Eisenhower corner" in her Park Lane apartment. The letters framed there, from Ike to her husband Bob Six, are signed, "D. E."

Walter Pidgeon is the best dressed Hollywood actor—and Adolph Menjou's the worst, claims tailor Irving Heller . . . Gary Cooper couldn't get tickets to the opening of Tom Ewell's "Tunnel of Love," so he went to a preview. The show has a $550,000 advance—and some weeks in June are already sold out.

I went around to see Jerry Lewis at the Palace and found Danny Kaye, Richard Rodgers, Betty Kean and Jackie Keller there—and Jerry said, "And I see Yul Brynner over there—oh, pardon me, lady!" Jerry, whose first-night crowd wasn't too enthusiastic, said to me: "An opening night audience doesn't come to see the show; they come to have the show see them."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Aristotle Onassis anniversary gift to Grace and Rainier will be a $1,500,000 yacht . . . Panama's president asked Elizabeth Taylor Todd to queen it over their Mardi Gras March 1 . . . MGM's rushing Dean Martin's films, $10,000 Bedrooms," may open it while Jerry Lewis is still at the Palace.

Eartha Kitt wired from Calcutta, "They accused me of spying, but they won't say who I'm spying for . . . Mae West's planning a new Las Vegas casino . . . Jockey Hedley Woodhouse's daughter, 2, was burned when she stuck a hairpin into a light socket.

Vermont Mines Copper

MONTPELIER, Vt. — New England has only one copper mine, at South Strafford, Vt. It ranks 20th among the nation's producers with its annual output of nearly 7,000,000 pounds of copper. Its ore contains 2 per cent copper and its shafts are more than 6,000 feet deep.

Josef Hoffmann Taken by Death

Composer, Teacher, Noted Pianist, Director Succumbs at 81

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Death has ended the long and varied career of famed pianist Josef Hofmann.

The Polish-born musician—celebrated first, at 5, as a piano prodigy—died Saturday at 81 in a Los Angeles nursing home. Physicians blamed a haart attack for his death. He had been hospitalized only four days.

Hofmann's genius included such achievements as:

A finished concert pianist; a composer; a teacher of gifted pupils; a director of a great conservatory; and, amazingly, as an inventor of mechanical devices and auto accessories, for which he held more than 60 patents.

As a boy he took time from concert tours in Europe, Scandinavia and the United States to invent extension pedals and heel rests so his short legs could manipulate piano pedals.

In 1924, Hofmann became the director of the newly founded Curtis Institute, endowed by Mrs. Mary Louise Curtis Bok with 12½ million dollars. He was a United States resident since 1900 and a resident of Los Angeles and nearby Long Beach since 1930.

Surviving are his widow Betty; three sons, Anton, 32, and Peter, 20, of Cambridge, Mass., and Edward, 26, an Air Force man stationed at Lake Charles, La.; and a daughter, Josefa, of Aiken, S.C.

Hofmann first came to the United States in 1887 at the age of 11. He began a series of 80 U.S. concerts—playing as many as four a week. The tour ended after 52 concerts when the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children intervened.

At 16 Hofmann became the first and only pupil of the celebrated Anton Rubinstein.

His last public appearances were in Los Angeles at the Hollywood Bowl and the Embassy Auditorium in the early 1940s. Since that time he and his wife had lived in almost complete seclusion.
