High Court Allows State Districting to Stand

German Right Gains; Big Parties May Join

BONN, Germany (AP) — Sensational gains by West Germany's new ultranationalist party in the Bavarian state elections yesterday increased the chances of a "grand coalition" of the Christian Democrats and Socialists to form a new national government.

Pressure mounted on the two big parties to end the 26-day government crisis by agreeing on a new chancellor and to agree on a revised election law that would keep the Nazi-tainted National Democratic party out of the federal parliament's lower house, the Bundestag.

The present system of proportional representation could give the National Democrats 30 or more of the 496 Bundestag seats when a national election is held if they repeat their recent success in two state elections.

In their second success at the polls in two weeks, the National Democrats became the third strongest party in West Germany's second most populous state by winning 7.4 per cent of a record Bavarian vote and 15 seats in the legislature.

They won 7.9 per cent of the vote and eight legislative seats in Hesse state Nov. 6.

As National Democrat leaders celebrated with cognac and champagne and called for new national elections, party chairman Friedrich Thielen boasted that the National Democrats will be represented in all German parliaments."

'TO GROWN STRONGER'

Erich Mende, national chairman of the Free Democrats, said the National Democrats showing represented a protest against the Bonn crisis. But he added, "unfortunately, the NPD will grow stronger and mightier from election to election."

Mende brought on the crisis Oct. 27 by taking himself and the three other Free Democratic ministers out of the Cabinet to protest proposed tax increases.

He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Police said there were apparently no witnesses to the accident and a description of the hit-run vehicle was not immediately available.

Romney Oath

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney will be sworn in for his third term in a private family ceremony New Year's Day, with formal inauguration ceremonies set for Monday, Jan. 2, the executive office said today. Romney aide S. John Byington is general chairman of arrangements.

News Briefs From Nation and World

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States today rejected once more the seating of Red China in the United Nations but announced it would support a plan offered by Italy and five other countries for a full high-level study of the China problem.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court stayed today a three-judge federal court ruling that the Georgia Legislature cannot elect that state's next governor.

The effect is to freeze the tangled Georgia election situation until at least Dec. 5, the date set by the Supreme Court for hearing argument.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Forty-eight public schools here and in nearby Hubbard were closed today by a teachers' strike which affected 40,000 pupils.

The strike by teachers' union members in both communities gained support from school bus drivers and truckers who make deliveries to the schools.

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A youth who gave police an address near the Illinois home of Sen.-elect Charles Percy was arrested today in the stabbing of a cabdriver.

The youth was identified as John Mulig, 15, of Riverside, Ill., 15 miles from the home where Percy's daughter, Valerie, was stabbed to death. "With this thought in mind we have notified homicide detectives to pursue this part of our investgation," Police Lt. Edward Rauch said.

Showers Expected in Area Tomorrow

The weatherman predicts Wednesday temperatures will drop and clouds may bring more rain.

The lowest thermometer reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 26. By 2 p.m. sunshine had warmed the mercury to 47.

Rifle Shot Fatal to Young Hunter From Pontiac

A Pontiac youth is dead following a deer-hunting mishap this weekend 20 miles south of Cheboygan in which he was shot in the abdomen with a high-powered rifle.

Larry A. Pugh, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pugh of 12 Whitfield, died at 6:05 p.m. Saturday at Cheboygan Community Memorial Hospital, about 90 minutes after he was hit.

Cheboygan State Police said the youth was with a brother and a cousin when a doe broke from cover and ran through a "heavily hunted" area.

At least three shots were fired, police said, one of them striking young Pugh in the hip and deflecting through his groin. It was not immediately determined from which gun the bullet came, police said.

ENLIST COMMUNITY SUPPORT—Wilson Elementary School principal David Crawford (left) and Clarence E. Barnes, executive director of the Pontiac Area Urban League, discuss plans for Project One Hundred, which is getting under way this week at the school. The program seeks to involve 100 per cent of the community in school activities aimed at helping underachieving youngsters.

New Pontiac School Program Aims at Underachiever Pupil

By PAT McCARTY

Mobilization of community and educational resources behind Wilson Elementary School pupils is beginning this week with initiation of Project One Hundred.

Cosponsored by the Pontiac Area Urban League, the Pontiac School System and the Wilson PTA, the project is unique among local community school programs.

Unlike other community schools, Wilson will concentrate on providing the kind of background pupils need to improve their levels of achievement.

Community school programs thus far introduced in Pontiac have placed strong emphasis on enriching the lives of adults.

WAS PRESENTED

Majority of the $20,000 budget is used for salaries. Huevon Peery is serving as community school director on a half-time basis until he can be completely released from his industrial arts teaching duties at Jefferson Junior High School.

If successful, the program will play a major role in dissolving an environment which creates what Urban League executive director Clarence E. Barnes identifies as "social zombies — persons who do not have the ability to use the social system effectively."

Doing away with this atmosphere "is not just the responsibility of the schools," Barnes said.

SOCIAL WORK

The Urban League's contribution to the project will include social work experience and organization of community resources.

One feature of the program will be home visitations by teachers, a liaison worker and parents working on a part-time basis.

While teachers can be released from classes to make the visitations, many have volunteered to do so on their own time, according to Wilson Principal David Crawford.

Aiming at 100 per cent community involvement, paid and volunteer workers on the project must take into account 289 family units which provide the school's 629 - pupil enrollment.

Adult discussion sessions dealing with child growth and development are to begin next week. Eventually, these will include field trips to other area school districts to give parents a standard of comparison.

Other activities will include arranging for adults to work on a one-to-one basis with youngsters from broken homes.

Reward luncheons are to be held once a month for the youngsters demonstrating the greatest academic and scholastic improvement.

Next spring, parents and teachers will get together with sponsors of the program to evaluate its effect and make recommendations on improving it.

Federal Issue Is Lacking in Case--Tribunal

Appeal Contended That Gerrymandering Resulted From Law

WASHINGTON (AP) —The Supreme Court refused today to interfere with a Michigan Supreme Court decision that held valid that state's legislative apportionment law.

The highest tribunal said an appeal from the state court decision had to be dismissed because no substantial federal question was raised.

Review of the Michigan decision was asked by Maxwell F. Badgley and others.

Their appeal said the Michigan apportionment law set up "numerous legislative districts deliberately gerrymandered for partisan political purposes."

Unless the U. S. Supreme Court reverses the state court decision, the appeal said, the law "will operate to minimize and cancel out the voting strength of political elements of the Michigan citizenry, and many citizens will be denied fair and effective representation for the remainder of this decade, and quite probably for years thereafter."

The appeal contended the law established legislative districts "of distorted, unnatural shapes which break up natural political groupings and communities of interest."

Democratic leaders in Michigain praised the court's action.

Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley said the decision not to interfere with the state apportionment law upholds the principle of one-man, one-vote and approves Michigan's response to that principle.

Rocky, Romney to Discuss Ways to Strengthen GOP

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and George Romney of Michigan were to meet in a resort hotel today to discuss whether "consensus" or "leadership" is the best way to strengthen the Republican party.

The two Republicans agree that recently elected GOP governors will play an influential role in national affairs and in shaping the strategy of the Republican party for the next two years, but disagree on methods.

Romney, considered a likely candidate for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, said when he arrived here yesterday that the party needs "leadership."

Rockefeller has said in recent statements that the GOP needs to achieve a "consensus."

Romney and his wife, who plan a two-week vacation here, were to join Rockefeller and his wife for lunch today. The Rockefellers have been vacationing in the area the past 10 days.

Romney said he had not planned a meeting with Rockefeller and that their encounter here was just a coincidence. But he acknowledged that their talks would concern politics and the future of the Republican party.

Commenting on Rockefeller's "consensus" idea, Romney said: "That's Rockefeller's word. I think what we need is leadership."

In an apparent reference to President Johnson, he added: "I identify the word consensus with someone who has not fared too well with consensus recently."

Romney said the Republican governors "have shown the people that the party can provide better solutions to national problems."

In a poll conducted by Harris after the Nov. 8 elections, voters favored Romney over Johnson 54 per cent to 46 per cent.

Thus, Harris says, Romney "stands a better chance of winning the White House than any Republican since Dwight D. Eisenhower."

WIDE MARGIN

He was the choice of 43 per cent of the Republicans, compared with 28 per cent for the runnerup, Richard M. Nixon.

SCENE OF PLANE CRASH—This crash of a two-passenger, single-engine plane took the lives of two rural Dowagiac men yesterday afternoon about four miles northeast of Cassopolis. Dead in the wreckage are the plane's owner, Bryce Fosdick, and John Vylonis. Witnesses reported the plane circled for some time before it crashed.

Heavy Casualties Inflicted as Reds Attack U.S. Unit

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen clashed with North Vietnamese soldiers in close-quarter fighting today in the central highlands and reported killing 102 of the enemy.

The U.S. military command said the battle broke out when a platoon of the 1st Cavalry, Airmobile, Division was attacked at hand grenade range by a "sizable" North Vietnamese force.

The action, part of Operation Paul Revere 4, raged 22 miles southwest of the U.S. Army Special Forces camp at Plei Djereng, scene of North Vietnamese probes and skirmishes for more than a week.

KOREAN MARINES

Ground action was reported light elsewhere, but Korean marines operating near the South China Sea coast reported killing 91 Viet Cong Sunday in a two-and-a-half-hour battle seven miles northwest of Quang Ngai City. A Korean spokesman said the marines clashed with a reinforced Viet Cong company of 200 men, the largest enemy unit they have met since moving into the area last August.

In the air, Guam-based B52 bombers staged three raids today on enemy positions in South Viet Nam, two of them in Communist War Zone C in Tay Ninh Province.

A few hours after the giant Stratoforts struck, 1,200 men of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division were lifted by helicopter into the target area, moving to within 1,500 yards of the Cambodian border.

ACROSS BORDER

Brig. Gen. G. G. O'Connor, the assistant division commander, said his forces would continue to search for the Viet Cong in the area "but it seems now that they have fled across the border for sanctuary."

The 25th Division troops are part of the largest U.S. ground force of the war operating in Tay Ninh Province in Operation Attleboro to hunt down the Viet Cong 9th Division. U.S. forces have reported killing 1,068 Viet Cong in the operation.

The U.S. Air Force announced it has flown 1,333 tactical strikes in support of Operation Attleboro, a new high for a single operation. B52 bombers also have struck Tay Ninh Province for 13 of the last 14 days.

WAR ZONES — The Communists suffered heavy casualties in these three war zones over the weekend. In A, allied troops reported 166 Reds killed in battle; in B, the South Vietnamese army claimed 230 Viet Cong killed in action; and in C, U.S. destroyers destroyed 20 cargo vessels in an artillery duel.

U.S. Assist to Thais Similar to Viet in '62

BANGKOK (UPI)—American military advisers stalk thick Asian jungles with local army units tracking down a fast-growing Communist guerrilla army.

It resembles Viet Nam 1962. But it is Thailand today.

Reliable American and Thai sources have disclosed that the Communist guerrilla force in this pro-American nation west of Viet Nam has reached about 5,000 men.

Washington as recently as two weeks ago officially denied another hotspot of Viet Nam proportion was kindling in Thailand.

PRIVATE OPINIONS

"I personally think we've got a problem in northeast Thailand and it just isn't going to go away."

● U.S. military engineers are laying logistical groundwork to back up major land operations by the Thais against the guerrillas.

Police Arrest 3 in Burglary

O'Dell Smith, 18, of 76 Willard, and Emmanuel Arnett, 18, of 279 S. Paddock face arraignment on charges of breaking and entering. The 16-year-old will be turned over to juvenile authorities.

Police said Smith and the juvenile were apprehended inside the Mutual Finance Co., 35 Glenwood, about 12:15 a.m. by patrolmen William C. Smith and Denis E. Mulrynewski.

Arnett was taken into custody about 3 a.m. by patrolmen Gary Lambert and Gary F. Root, who said the youth was waiting in a nearby car for Smith and the juvenile.

Ohio Is Defendant State Sues on Erie Land

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley today filed suit against the State of Ohio in the U.S. Supreme Court to recover a triangular, 200-square-mile piece of Lake Erie — subject of a 130-year dispute.

The suit, in response to a resolution sponsored by Rep. Raymond Kehers of Monroe and passed by both houses of the Michigan Legislature, asks the Supreme Court to confirm the jurisdiction and sovereignty of Michigan over the disputed area.

Involved are both water and lake bottom rights which could affect commercial fishing operations. Geologists claim the lake bottom is the site of valuable deposits of gas and oil.

Michigan claims the boundary in the lake should continue east in a straight line until it meets the international boundary between the United States and Canada.

Ohio claims the boundary should extend northeast to the international boundary, giving Ohio an additional triangular-shaped area.

"This triangular area in dispute contains many valuable natural resources, such as fisheries, bottomlands, minerals in the form of gas and oil, all of which are under the direct sovereign and proprietary control of the state legally entitled to them," Kelley said.

"The disputed area has become and will continue to be a source of controversy over which state's laws should be applied, and on numerous occasions the State of Ohio has unlawfully arrested Michigan fishermen in the disputed area," Kelley said.

Several attempts have been made to settle the boundary dispute. Last year, Kelley proposed to Ohio Gov. James Rhodes that a joint boundary commission be authorized to decide the question. The offer was rejected.

City Man Held in Theft Try

Deadline Near in Bell Talks

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America (CWA) resumed contract bargaining today under pressure of a midnight Tuesday deadline.

The company and union agreed on a new contract Oct. 4 but it was not ratified by the union locals and the workers sent their bargainers back to negotiate another pact.

Employes of the Pontiac district office of the telephone company staged a 10-day wildcat strike prior to the Oct. 4 agreement when negotiations were in process on a day-to-day contract extension basis.

Walter Schaar, regional union vice president, said today that the communications workers will not bargain past the midnight tomorrow deadline.

He said the union will decide then whether to submit the latest telephone company contract to union members for ratification or to take a strike vote.

ACCORD REJECTED

Some 17,000 union members voted last month to reject the contract proposed by the company and accepted by international officials of CWA.

★ ★ ★

Report Says Haiti Invaded

NEW YORK (AP) — A CBS news broadcast Sunday night quoted Haitian underground sources as saying opponents of President Francois Duvalier have invaded Haiti. There was no confirmation of the CBS report.

Andre Theard, Haitian ambassador to the United States, said in Washington he had no word of an invasion, and a spokesman for the State Department said the same thing. He said the U.S. ambassador in Port au Prince, Benson E. L. Timmons III, had been asked to look into the report.

CBS said its correspondent in the Haitian capital was told that the invaders landed on the northern coast near Cap Haitien, the country's second city.

The underground sources said Haiti's army, based around Duvalier's palace in the capital, had been put on the alert, CBS reported.

Reports reaching Washington from the Caribbean country last April indicated internal troubles but were not clear whether an uprising had been attempted or a purge of Duvalier's opponents had occurred.

Togo President Reported Battling Overthrow Bid

PARIS (AP) — Insurgents were reported to have seized the Togo radio station early today but President Nicolas Grunitzky later announced that "energetic measures have been taken to put an end to the disorder."

Grunitzky's broadcast, heard in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, indicated that Grunitzky has probably regained the upper hand in the civil disturbances during which his resignation was demanded. It was not clear who was leading the opposition.

An earlier report from the French News Agency quoted travelers arriving at Cotonou, Dahomey, as saying that thousands of demonstrators ringed the presidential palace. The palace was being protected by troops under the chief of staff, Lt. Col. Etienne Gnassingbe Eyadema, who has reportedly clashed with Grunitzky recently on the military budget.

First reports of an uprising came from London. An unidentified speaker on the radio at Lome, the capital, said a revolution had broken out in the tiny West African republic.

Birmingham Area News

Parking Proposals to Be Aired

BIRMINGHAM — Several recommendations which would facilitate additional parking in the civic center area will be considered tonight by the City Commission.

City Manager Robert S. Kenning is recommending that the commission hire a traffic consultant to determine the capacity of the streets which would be used in carrying the traffic to and from the proposed parking facility.

In a letter to the commission, Kenning points out that parking needs should be updated, that the proposed capacity of the parking facility and the type of facility should be studied and that costs and the method of financing must be determined.

He suggests that if, after these items are determined, it is necessary to have a vote of the people on the method of financing, that such a vote not be held prior to Sept. 12, 1967.

CEREMONY EYED

City Engineer William T. Killeen tonight will also suggest that the city hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Nov. 28 for the opening of the parking lot near Woodward and Willets.

Barring bad weather conditions, he said, the parking structure will be available for parking, the elevators operating and all pedestrian entrances open by Dec. 2.

Once the contract work, including attendants booths and some curb and sidewalk work is completed, the city will then take over such work as resurfacing and repair. This cannot be done until the 1967 construction season, according to Killeen, but the lot can still be used.

Lack of parental control is blamed by Police Chief Ralph Moxley for the problems police are having with young people congregating in sections of the downtown area.

He said that during the year, 112 youths under 17 have been arrested for disorderly conduct, loitering, smoking and drunkenness. Most of the arrests have been in the business section.

He said merchants are often reluctant to sign a complaint for fear of bad customer relations and he is asking their cooperation.

N. Viet Infiltration Rate at 7,000 Men Monthly

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communists are moving an average of 7,000 troops a month from North to South Viet Nam and the infiltration rate is apt to go even higher soon, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, said in an interview published today.

Westmoreland's figure on monthly infiltration is substantially higher than the 4,500 to 5,000 estimate reported for months by the Defense Department.

In a copyright interview in U.S. News and World Report, Westmoreland said, "it is likely that, when the good weather period arrives in the Laos panhandle in the near future, there will be an increase in infiltration."

Westmoreland said he believes that a great many of the troops moving south from North Viet Nam "are being used to fill up the depleted ranks of the units that are now in the country—depleted by combat casualties, illness, desertion and defection.

The U.S. commander estimated there are now about 50,000 North Vietnamese regular army troops in South Viet Nam, organized into five divisions.

On the battlefield, Westmoreland said, "the initiative has swung to our side."

But he added, "we will need more troops. We will need more helicopters and means of giving these troops mobility." He gave no figures.

'Life' Wants New Probe of JFK Murder

NEW YORK (AP) — Life magazine has called for a new investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, contending there is "reasonable doubt" that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone, as the commission headed by U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren ruled.

The magazine, in this week's edition out today, says evidence shows "that reasonable — and disturbing — doubt remains.

"One conclusion is inescapable," Life said. "The national interest deserves clear resolution of the doubts. A new investigating body should be set up, perhaps at the initiative of Congress.

"In a scrupulously objective and unhurried atmosphere, without the pressure to give reassurance to a shocked country, it should reexamine the evidence and consider other evidence the Warren Commission failed to evaluate."

The magazine said Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was riding with Kennedy in the Dallas motorcade Nov. 22, 1963, and was wounded himself, was certain that he and Kennedy were hit by two different bullets, not one as the Warren Commission determined.

Press Realigns Ad Dept. Staff

Promotion Manager Becomes No. 2 Man

A realignment of duties in the advertising department of The Pontiac Press was announced today by John A. Riley, advertising director.

SALVATORE WALKER

Named manager of national advertising is William B. Walker of 1101 Berkley. He succeeds Clark H. Stevens of 1386 Lakeside, Birmingham, who is retiring.

Arthur Sanford has been appointed assistant retail advertising manager.

STEVENS SANFORD

Auto Dealer, Judge to Talk

Wayne County Circuit Judge Charles A. Farmer and Detroit automobile dealer Edward Davis will be featured speakers tonight at a Pontiac observance of Equal Opportunity Day.

The event, sponsored by the Pontiac Area Urban League, is aimed at improving employment opportunities for members of minority groups.

Orbiter Snaps 6 of 13 Sites

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Lunar Orbiter 2 has photographed six potential astronaut landing sites on the moon and has seven more places to scout, scientists report.

In 67 orbits of the moon, the spacecraft had exposed 87 of a planned 211 frame picture series. Some pictures show details on the moon's surface as small as three feet across, scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory said yesterday.

Fires at Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Syrian positions east of the upper Jordan Valley opened fire five times toward targets in Israel territory Sunday night, it was officially announced today.

No casualties were reported. The announcement said the Israelis returned the fire.

Malaria Vaccine Hunt Still On

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — Malaria in Viet Nam is being treated by a new combination of drugs that knocks the disease out of afflicted U. S. soldiers, but still will not protect them in advance II, scientists have been looking against the strains prevalent there.

Since 1960 when cases of P. falciparum malaria were found to be resistant to chloroquine therapy, hailed as the revolutionary cure after World War for something to take its place.

Despite reports that drugs in the sulfone family were "promising," the hunt is still on as cases among the soldiers mount.

Military doctors have "reverted" to quinine for the treatment of soldiers hit by the falciparum strain prevalent in the Vietnamese jungles, but quinine alone brings about only a temporary cure, Col. William D. Tigertt, director of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research said.

Assassination Report Satisfies Sen. Hart

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., said yesterday he was completely satisfied with the Warren Commission report on the assassination of President John F. Kennedy three years ago.

Hart said he would oppose a congressional investigation of the assassination.

"We should let this one rest now with the poets and the historians," Hart told United Press International.

"I think the caliber of the men who composed that commission insures that the verdict, the general verdict is sound.

"I have no reason to think that the Warren Commission report fails to answer the question — 'What happened in Dallas?' " he said.

Hart said in the interview that Senate liberals were determined to move at the opening of the 90th Congress next January to revise the rule on debate to make it easier to break a filibuster.

* * *

The rules fight will be the first skirmish in a new attempt to pass a civil rights bill, including a provision banning racial discrimination in the sale and rental of housing, Hart said.

Curfew Fever Hits LA's Strip

200 Teens Arrested on Past 2 Weekends

"Attention. Attention. It is now past 10 p.m. The curfew law is now in effect. Anyone remaining in the area under 18 years old will be arrested."

* * *

Teen-agers on crowded, neonlit Sunset Boulevard — some conventionally dressed, many with shaggy beards, hair or clothing — have heard the message often recently.

It may mean a new face for the Sunset Strip, once a place for good food, adult nightclubbing, elegant jazz; now a place for youngsters to dance frenetically and clog weekend traffic to a standstill. Many, having autos, can visit the area from distant parts of the Los Angeles area.

200 ARRESTED

In two weekends of protesting the 10 p.m. curfew, more than 200 have been arrested on charges ranging from curfew violation to battery against a police officer. Saturday 400 policemen quelled disturbances involving 1,000.

Reactions — and proposed action — have been varied.

* * *

Some say the strip has become run-down, tawdry; the County Board of Supervisors should repeal the ordinance allowing teen-age dancing in night clubs.

Others — adults as well as teen-agers — say it is the curfew ordinance that should go.

Strike Ends at GM Diesel

DETROIT (AP)—Union workers voted Sunday to end a three-day wildcat strike at the General Motors Corp. diesel engine plant in Detroit.

More than 1,000 members of United Auto Workers Local 163 agreed to return to work today after union officials told them the walkout was unauthorized and violated their labor contract with GM.

* * *

Some 4,000 engine plant workers were affected by the walkout that began last Thursday night. The strikers were protesting what they said was an accumulation of unsettled grievances on working conditions and other matters.

Suspect in Holdups Joins Wanted List

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI added to its list of 10 most wanted fugitives today Everett Leroy Biggs, sought in connection with armed robberies in Illinois, Montana and Oklahoma.

The FBI said Biggs, 30, should be considered armed and extremely dangerous. He is white, 6 feet tall and weighs 200 pounds. He was most recently charged with the Oct. 21, 1966 robbery of $77,606 from the Mercantile National Bank, Tulsa, Okla.

Ford, Coca Cola Get Arab Ban for Israeli Dealings

KUWAIT (AP) — The Arab Israeli Boycott Bureau decided Sunday to ban the American Ford and Coca Cola companies throughout the Arab world.

It also considered a possible boycott against the Radio Corp. of America (RCA).

Meeting here for its 24th regional conference, the bureau unanimously adopted a resolution banning Ford and Coca Cola "for persistently refusing to conform to Boycott Bureau regulations."

The conference earlier messaged the giant automobile and soft drink companies, demanding clarification of their intention to open factories in Israel and received "unconvincing replies."

Both concerns stand to lose heavily through the ban. Coca Cola sales account for a large percentage of Arab-U.S. trade in such countries as Egypt and Iraq. Ford and Coca Cola have big sales in Kuwait.

Ford declined to comment

The fate of RCA, the third company threatened with the boycott, was undecided.

Last week, bureau Commissioner General Mohammad Mahjoub claimed that the anti-Israel boycott had already caused a deficit of more than $300 million in Israel's annual budget.

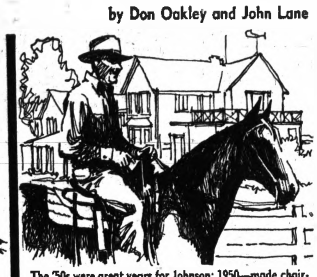
TEXAN IN THE WHITE HOUSE (4)

by Don Oakley and John Lane

On Dec. 8, 1941, Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson voted in Congress to declare war on Japan and Germany. The next day, he volunteered for active duty in the Navy and became the first congressman to put on uniform. He received the Silver Star for gallantry in action in the South Pacific.

In 1942, President Roosevelt ordered all members of Congress in the services back to their Washington desks. Johnson's desk was still in the House of Representatives, until 1948, when he made his second bid for the Senate. By the fantastically thin margin of 87 votes out of one million cast, he defeated Gov. Coke Stevenson in a typically uninhibited Texas campaign. Johnson hired a helicopter and literally campaigned by air.



The '50s were great years for Johnson: 1950—made chairman of the Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee; 1951—unanimously elected party whip; 1953—named Senate minority leader; 1954—re-elected to the Senate for a second term; 1955—elected majority leader, at 46 the youngest in history. A heart attack slowed him temporarily that year. He spent five months recuperating at his beloved LBJ Ranch—or what he called recuperating.

Possible Peril Seen in Pill

By Science Service

WASHINGTON — "The Pill," —combinations of estrogens and progesterones used in oral contraceptives — may be hazardous if taken by pregnant or nursing women, the U.S. Food and Drug Administration warned.

Although there is no reason come to an unborn child from to assume any harm may the small amounts of the hormones present in contraceptive pills, tests on female rate given high doses of the drugs throughout pregnancy have shown that offspring may be sterile.

Because the long-range effects of the drugs on the human fetus are unknown, FDA advises against taking any chances but is not requiring formal cautionary labeling.

It Seems to Me . . .

Strong Two Party System Viewed as Election Benefit

Viewed in the light of retrospection, the current GOP sweep may have deeper significance than was first sensed.

The two party system might have been in jeopardy which would have been a calamity for the nation. Constant victories for either side result in utter indifference to the needs of the people. They bring on a highly dangerous assumption of "our side can do no wrong."

The Democrats still control the Federal Congress but they lost the sweeping power they possessed in both the House and Senate. Most of our biggest and most influential Commonwealths elected Republican Governors. In many States, the Dems lost legislative control.

Most areas reported ballot splitting on a scale never equalled before. Citizens who are aligned with neither party spoke their minds decisively. Self-appointed leaders found themselves roundly repudiated. Once Mr. Citizen steps behind that voting curtain he is strictly "on his own."

Washington newsmen are convinced that President JOHNSON saw the handwriting on the wall from his own listening posts and hied himself out of the Country during the peak of the campaign so he wouldn't have the defeat pinned as sharply on his own coattails.

★ ★ ★

The people in the United States want moderation and common sense. They're aligned against the extreme and against "blindly partisan appeals" which they've seen so often lately.

Another result was the emergence of several forthright candidates for the Presidential nomination in 1968. Romney's sweeping victory advanced his cause, especially since he carried so many GOP candidates with him in the Lansing Legislature. REAGAN, ROCKEFELLER and PERCY were other standouts. And don't forget that Mr. NIXON, who lost to JOHN F. KENNEDY by a whisker.

★ ★ ★

Cassius Fights for Cash

A whole host of our courageous soldiers in Viet Nam must look with supreme contempt on one CASSIUS CLAY. CASSIUS claims he's the "world's champion fighter."

A man who refuses to fight for his country squares away with a single opponent armed with nothing more lethal than two padded fists, and then he runs around proclaiming he's "the world's champion fighter."

Recently, the draft boards lowered the mental requirements so Clay may qualify. His case is still pending. Let's put it to a vote of the fighting Americans in Southeastern Asia and see whether this lummox is still deferred.

Lottery in New York State

New York State added a lottery in the current elections by a vote of 2 to 1.

Thus the biggest state in the union places voluntary gambling on its tax base. This will produce millions every year and it will be relatively painless. Those who disagree don't have to participate.

This is just about as easy a way to raise money as there is. If you don't like it, you don't pay a red cent. If you do, you pay what you please, when you please.

But it's gambling.

And in Conclusion . . . .

Good news: in 30 days, the days start getting longer. . . . . Sign in a delicatessen window: "Swiss cheese with 22 per cent fewer cavities." . . . . . Liz TAYLOR's "Cleopatra" has finally earned back the $41 million it cost. . . . . An attempt to smuggle 400 Bibles into Russia was thwarted at the border. A second attempt by a British and Dutch minister was stopped. The "guilty parties" in each instance were thumbed out of the country and the Bibles destroyed.

Trusted scouts advise me Mary Ann Wagoner rates as one of the area's attractive ladies. . . . . Esquire Magazine may ask for trouble with the Christmas issue showing a Rembrandt-like painting of "The Three Wise Men" of 1966 — Playboy's Hugh Hefner, LSD's Tim Leary and evangelist Billy Graham. . . . . Overheard: "Today's teenagers come in three genders: male, female and guess." . . . . . They're discussing a ship to carry a million tons of cargo — six times as much as the biggest today. Assembled at sea, it would be 1,800 feet long and 246 feet wide.

Say It Isn't So!

David Lawrence Says:

Profit-Wage Ratio Abuse Cited

WASHINGTON — In the current period of inflation, organized labor has been arguing that corporate profits are high and that wages should be increased in order to meet the rising cost of living.

But there is a dispute about the facts LAWRENCE and the meaning that should be attributed to them.

Indeed, Roger M. Blough, chairman of the board of United States Steel Corp., is indignant because of what he terms a misuse of figures not only by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, but by the Johnson administration.

Blough has just said in a speech before the New York University School of Commerce:

"At a time when the government is urging responsible leaders of labor to exercise restraint in enforcing their wage demands, it is difficult for me to understand why, during the past few months, administration leaders — including the President and members of his Cabinet — have publicized so widely the fact that since 1960 total corporate profits have risen much more rapidly, in terms of percentage, than have wages.

"Now the facts upon which these statements have been based are that during the five years from 1960 to 1965, aggregate corporate profits have risen 67 per cent, while total employe compensation has increased only 34 per cent — or merely half as fast."

DIFFERENT BASES

But Blough, who has available a staff of veteran economists, points out that to use percentages alone is misleading when they are applied to two bases which are of different size.

He declares that the actual figures show that, during the five - year period from 1960 to 1965, total corporate profits rose by $18 billion, while total compensation of employes went up by $89 billion — or 5¼ times as much as profits.

Blough says that 1960 was "a year of recession" and that comparisons should be made so that "good years are likened to good years, and poor ones to poor ones."

Thus, for instance, in the "good year" of 1950 and the "good year" of 1955, total corporate profits rose by $2 billion, while total employe compensation increased $70 billion —35 times as much.

In the next five - year period, comparing the "good year" of 1955 with the "recession year" of 1960, it is found that corporate profits declined by $300 million, and employe compensation still increased by $70 billion.

Taking a look at the entire 15-year period and comparing "prosperous 1950" with "prosperous 1965," Blough points out that corporate profits grew by $19.5 billion, while employe compensation rose by $238 billion — or more than 12 times as much.

★ ★ ★

By even using only percentages, the figures show that over this particular 15 - year period, corporate profits rose 79 per cent, while employe compensation increased 154 per cent.

Bob Considine Says:

Return to Korea Invites Comparison of 2 Wars

SEOUL, Korea — A return to this place stirs hosts of memories and invites instant comparisons with what is happening today in Viet Nam.

CONSIDINE

On this gnarled and aromatic peninsula where it can get hotter than Hades and colder than a lost lover's eye, 750,000 men of the United Nations did boldly battle in a clearly defined ideological war.

The United States finds itself with fewer allies in Viet Nam than it had in the successful if costly task of saving South Korea from communism. But we now have 100,000 more men in Viet Nam than we committed to Korea.

The British, French, Turks, Canadians, Belgians etc., want no part of this newest crusade against Red aggression. But South Korea has dispatched 46,000 men to the scene and the Filipinos are escalating their aid.

Politically we have not nearly as much backing as we had in Korea a decade and a half ago, nor is there as much support on the home front as there was for Truman's not very popular "police action."

ONE DICTATOR

In Korea we dealt with a single dictatorial government during the three-year war, that of Syngman Rhee. It was a civilian government.

In Viet Nam there have been half a dozen shifts in power in Saigon since we countenanced and even abetted the downfall of Diem, the last freely elected chief of state.

We may soon find ourselves involved and asked to take sides in the debate — or worse — which can be expected when the freely elected, civilian-dominated South Vietnamese constitutional assembly is confronted with a veto by Premier Ky and his fellow generals.

Only now has it been made clear that we were close to losing in Viet Nam a year ago.

We were close to losing twice in Korea and no bones were made about the predicaments.

Ingenious Homemaker Beats High Living Costs

I want to tell the woman who said her family couldn't manage without overtime pay that I have 8 children and my husband is a share-cropper. I buy day-old bread and cakes and get clothing from Goodwill. I get windfalls in fruit and make some of the best treats you ever saw. I buy everything cheap and doctor it up. It takes time and I don't watch TV, but we make out beautifully.

I was taught in Driver Education that the pedestrian has the right of way on a green light over drivers turning left or right. One place in Pontiac where this is not enforced is at Perry and Wide Track. Drivers are in such a hurry, they'd rather run someone over than wait a few seconds to let a pedestrian cross.

'Family of Four Needs Overtime to Manage'

I agree with the Orion Township Mother of Three. Our family of four cannot manage without overtime hours. The factory where my husband works has cut production to a 40-hour week and I would like to know why, especially since Christmas is only a few weeks away. My husband has had to take a part-time job. I think one job is enough for any man.

'Government Can't Explain Expenditures'

The House subcommittee on Research and Technical programs has charged the government cannot account for research and development programs that cost $4 billion annually. The subcommittee, headed by Rep. Reuss (D-Wis.) said the government doesn't know how many laboratories it has, where they are, who works in them or what they are doing.

It said new laboratories are created without closing ones no longer needed; pollution research is undertaken among 192 laboratories operated by nine federal agencies.

★ ★ ★

Our Federal government has grown so big and unwieldly, its control by Congress is no longer possible. When will we wake up and demand a reduction in spending by our representatives in Washington.

Question and Answer

Why it is necessary to waste government funds to repeat what I already know in order to get a practical nurse's license? I worked eight months at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital under training and supervision of registered and practical nurses. I'm told I must repeat that experience to meet qualifications for a license. I can understand taking the academic training, but why must I repeat on-the-job training to qualify? I've talked with Mrs. Sherrod, Mr. Hixon, Mrs. Woodward, written to Mr. Farnum and Michigan Secretary of State. Shall I write L. B. Johnson?

GRACE E. BRIGHT

REPLY

It's unlikely President Johnson will intercede, because Michigan law (Nursing Practice Act) requires that applicants who write the examination for practical nursing license must have completed an approved program, which includes theory and clinical instruction. Though your clinical experience was equivalent to the time required, it was not part of an approved program. Unless the law is changed, all applicants must abide by the rules as they now stand. Your state representative would be the one to talk to about having the law changed.

Limited Democracy

The New York Times

Brazil has had her election and it will be surprising if the final results when they are known do not show a victory for President Castelo Branco's Alliance for National Renewal (ARENA).

Early returns bore out expectations that the opposition Brazilian Democratic Movement party would generally come out ahead in the more sophisticated and politically conscious cities, while the official ARENA won the rural areas. A contributing factor was the good prices farmers and landowners are getting for their products. The inflation nearly 40 per cent for 1966, higher than last year's though much less than previously — has caused much discontent in the cities.

The election was not democratic by normal Brazilian standards. Marshal Castelo Branco eliminated some opposition candidates in advance by declaring them subversive and debarred from political activity.

For all its limitations, the election was the nearest thing to a popular expression of opinion since the "revolution" started in April 1964. President Castelo Branco promised to hold the election, and he did. He has promised to turn the Government over to President-elect Costa e Silva on March 15, and he undoubtedly will. A degree of continuity therefore seems assured, at least for the near future.

Coattail Victories

The Grand Rapids Press

It is now generally agreed that many Republican candidates did ride into office Nov. 8 on Gov. George Romney's coattails.

There is a bitter irony in this for the Democrats. Two years ago the Republicans, fearing that numerous Democrats would coast into office under the magic and power of Lyndon B. Johnson's name, sought to make it impossible to vote the straight ticket in Michigan.

The Democrats, figuring that many of their candidates would profit from straight-ticket voting, successfully fought off the Republican move. And they did indeed manage to get a lot of people elected because of the straight-ticket voting.

This time the Republicans were the obvious beneficiaries of the law which permits straight-ticket voting in Michigan. They can be thankful they lost the battle in 1964.

Fire Hits Home in Waterford

Most of the fire and smoke damage was confined to three rooms, according to township firemen.

Three men, one of them armed, walked into Ogg Cleaners, 430 Orchard Lake, late Saturday and robbed the firm of $151, Pontiac police were told.

Mrs. Patricia Blanzy, 42, of 72 Nelson and Mrs. Florence Bradley, 50, of 247 Norton said the bandits entered the store shortly before 5 p.m.

One of the robbers, Mrs. Bradley said, brandished a pistol and forced her to the rear of the store.

He then held the gun on Mrs. Blanzy, police were told, and made her empty a cash register of $100 and a change box of $51.

Tito Claims 'Yugoslav Reds Will Last'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) —President Tito says the Communist party will not wither away or relinquish its leading role.

"Some of our friends in eastern countries say we wish to reduce the party to a simple educationist," he said. "This is not correct."

Tito spoke Sunday at Bjeljina in northern Bosnia, winding up a four-day tour of the province. His speech was made public today.

He replied to critics from East European Communist countries, who maintain the reorganization of the Yugoslav Communist party will weaken its leading role.

POWER SHIFT

The Yugoslav Communist party started its reorganization in July. It took power from the Politburo and shifted it to a larger body—the Presidium of the Central Committee.

Tito said the reorganization was necessary because the party had in the ideological-political field "too little control and permitted some to dilute the process of our Socialist development."

* * *

2-Car Crash Injures Two in Orion Twp.

A St. Clair County man and Lake Orion youth have been hospitalized following a head-on collision last night in Orion Township.

Harry C. Davis, 22, of Yale is reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, while Richard Swem, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swem of 450 N. Shore, is listed as satisfactory at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the two were injured about 10:55 p.m. when Davis' southbound auto collided with a car driven by Claud V. Haddix, 17, of 345 Newton, Lake Orion.

The accident occurred, deputies said, in the northbound lane of M24 south of Clarkston Road.

Swem was a passenger in the Haddix vehicle. A third youth in the car escaped serious injury.

Ford Expects GOP to Have Last Word on State of Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford says he expects Republicans to come up with a "State of the Union" message of their own after President Johnson delivers his to Congress early next year.

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen reports Republicans also hope to offer an alternate budget if Johnson fails to balance income and spending in his proposed 1967-68 fiscal program.

These disclosures, made in separate weekend interviews, came as Republican leaders began formulating strategy on how to deploy their beefed-up minority in the 90th Congress which convenes Jan. 10. The GOP picked up 47 House seats and 3 Senate seats in the Nov. 8 elections.

Dirksen said Republicans will present "positive programs" in 1967 rather than mere opposition to administration proposals.

SIMILAR STANCE

Ford took a similar stance. He said there will be no intention of trying to cut out all "Great Society" programs, but he predicted an effort to "keep them from rolling."

Ford declined to get into specifics on GOP plans, saying he wanted to meet first with rank-ing Republican members of House committees.

He said, however, that House Republicans would not form a coalition with Southern Democrats in an attempt to block administration programs.

"I want to make crystal-clear that the House Republicans will make their own decisions," the Michigan congressman said. But he added: "We will be grateful for any votes from Northern or Southern Democrats, and if others want to join, that is fine."

Ford disclosed efforts will be made to "tighten up" aid to education and to transfer some functions of the antipoverty program to other agencies.

Dirksen said he anticipates the "support of the Republican members of the appropriations, finance and ways and means committees in putting together a fiscal program."

Police Ask Help

Girl Missing in Florida

BARTOW, Fla. (AP) — Police appealed today for help from anyone who has seen Connie Weeaks, a 14-year-old New Mexico girl who vanished after arriving here a week ago.

"We are checking every lead," a police spokesman said, "and we would like to hear from anyone who may have seen Connie."

Connie's father, Elwood Weeaks, said he and his daughter moved from Carlsbad, N.M., about a week ago so he could take a job with International Minerals and Chemical Corp.

Weeaks said Connie has not been heard from since last Monday, when he left her and her pet Chihuahua waiting in his station wagon at the company's office. The auto, which contained Weeaks' clothes, also disappeared. He said she had about $20 with her.

* * *

"My daughter and I were very close," Weeaks said. "She wouldn't just run away."

Weeaks' wife and three other children remained in New Mexico.

"We don't have this sort of thing home in New Mexico," Weeaks said. "I just don't understand it."

'Soviet Missiles Limited'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The antimissile system the Soviet Union is building is a limited one, American sources reported today.

According to U.S. experts, the Russian system will be capable of defending Moscow against "light" nuclear attack — that is, against a small number of nuclear-tipped missiles.

In its first stages, it will not be an effective defense against the full nuclear capability of the United States, according to U.S. intelligence estimates.

But no one can now say whether the Soviets will be content with such a primitive, and perhaps even useless system, or whether they will in future go into the field of antiballistics missiles (ABMS for short) full scale.

Drowns in Meet

ERIE (AP) — Monroe County Coroner Harold Maurice said today an autopsy showed no sign of a head injury or overexertion in the death of a Mason High School swimmer. John J. Lohmann, 16, drowned Friday while competing in a meet before more than 100 witnesses. The victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Lohmann of Erie, was competing in the backstroke event when he failed to surface after making a flip turn while underwater.

What's he earning?

Money, of course! Sometimes the money a boy earns as a Junior Independent Merchant makes quite a difference in the kind of clothing, toys, trips, and education he gets.

But, just as often his parents are doctors, lawyers, school administrators, and successful business executives. Money is not as important to them. And while every boy gets satisfaction from being able to buy things for himself and others without going to his parents, money is not the primary reason these parents encourage their sons to become newspaperboys.

Much More than Money! The development of poise, while many of his classmates are still "all thumbs"; the ability to get along with all kinds of people; the capacity for taking responsibility; and the knowledge that he is a salesman. These will pay far greater dividends in the years to come.

And this is why successful men, many of whom were newspaperboys a generation ago, so strongly recommend to their sons that they get the greatly improved "basic training" provided for today's newspaperboys.

If you think your son might profit by newspaperboy route experience, our circulation department is now accepting applications.

Insurers Put in Congress Spotlight

By TOM NOLAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — In China, 1967 will be the Year of the Goat. In the 90th Congress, it may well be the Year of the Big Insurance Explosion.

Only the high-risk segment of the auto insurance industry was exposed to the glare of a Senate investigation in 1966. But behind-the-scenes inquiries have already been launched into a number of alleged abuses in other aspects of auto insurance and several segments of life and health insurance.

The first act in the drama will begin Jan. 10, when Sen. Thomas Dodd, D-Conn., reintroduces his bill to establish a Federal Motor Vehicle Insurance Guaranty Corporation, cosponsored by Sens. Joseph Clark, D-Pa., Philip Hart, D-Mich., and Warren Magnuson, D-Wash.

Designed to protect those victimized when their auto insurance firms go broke, the proposed guaranty insurance system would be set up along the lines of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, which protects depositors against failures by banks and savings and loan associations.

HART SUBCOMMITTEE

Introduced just before adjournment, Dodd's bill stemmed from the high-risk investigation carried out by Hart's Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee.

Since 1960, this investigation showed, 65 high-risk companies went into receivership, leaving more than 250,000 people without insurance and costing accident victims more than $100 million in claims which could not be collected.

Dodd's bill would require all interstate insurers — not just high-risk firms — to apply for guaranty system status one year after passage of the legislation.

Failure to prove financial stability would mean a firm could not continue to do business on an interstate basis.

The corporation would be financed initially by a $50-million Treasury loan.

Permanent financing would come through a semiannual charge of one-eighth of 1 per cent of each insurer's net direct premium writing.

Passed on to the consumer, it would mean a hike of 25 cents on a $100 insurance premium.

It is virtually certain that Dodd's proposal will meet the unified opposition of the entire insurance industry, just as the FDIC proposal earlier aroused the unified wrath of bankers.

Dem Resigns

MUSKEGON (AP)—Alfred C. Fairchild, chairman of Muskegon County Democrats, resigned Sunday, urging "a new breed of leadership" to rebuild the party after the Nov. 8 election defeat. "After an election like that, I think it is necessary that I step out so we can get a fresh start," he said. Fairchild said he would serve out his term which ends next month.

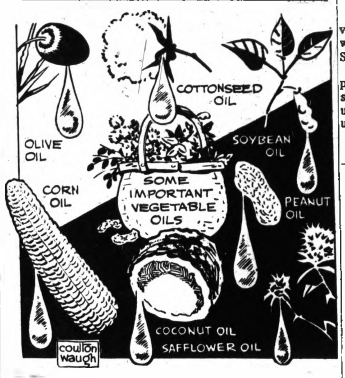
A Junior Editors Quiz About VEGETABLE OILS



QUESTION: How are vegetable oils made?

ANSWER: Vegetable oils, very valuable for cooking, for lubrication, medicine and for use in paint manufacture, are extracted from various fruits and seeds.

They have a great deal of fat, some close to 100 per cent, and a high energy value when used as food.

Our picture shows some important kinds of vegetable oil. Olive oil is very useful in dressing for salads. Corn and peanut oils are also used for this purpose, and for frying as well.

Soybean oil is used in making margarine and shortenings. Cottonseed oil is a base for cooking fats as well as a salad dressing. Safflower oil is also used for dressing and cooking purposes, and for paints and varnishes.

Other vegetable oils are palm oil, useful in soap and candle making, and linseed oil, very valuable in the manufacture of paint.

Vegetable oils to be used for food are extracted by pressing the seeds or fruits after these are first washed.

Oils to be used in other ways may also be extracted by pressure, but the use of chemicals and heat is often combined with this.

Pontiac State Hospital Tells Most-Wanted Yule Items

Pontiac State Hospital has developed a Christmas list of most wanted items to aid prospective Santas from the community.

Dr. Donald W. Martin, hospital medical superintendent said organizations and individuals already are inquiring about useful gifts.

All Christmas donations should be new because of the therapeutic effect on the patients who realize that their presents are of a personalized nature, not just used second-hand gifts to second-choice recipients," he said.

Gifts should be donated unwrapped and accompanied by gift paper and ribbon so that employes and volunteers can prepare each for a patient's individual needs.

Pre-Christmas needs are stamps, new Christmas cards the patients can send out and decorations for the hospital wards and other units.

The gift list includes clothing for men, women and children which meets the special requirements of the hospital; cosmetics and beauty aids; games and educational items; cigarettes, cigars and pipes; cake, candy and nuts; and stationery and related items.

Listed among ward projects are furniture, curtains, radios television sets, other appliances, pool tables, shuffle boards and ping pong equipment.

Three Crewmen Die in Crash of Airliner

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP) —A 40-passenger Martin 404 of Piedmont Airlines crashed Sunday in a swampy area of the Croatan National Forest. Three crew members, only persons aboard, were killed.

They were the pilot, Capt. C. J. Helsabeck, 45, of Walnut Cove, N.C., who had been with Piedmont 12 years; First Officer E. O. Adams, 32, of Taylors, S.C., three months with the company; and Pamela Sue Rumble, 22, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., the stewardess, who had been with the airline one year. All were based in Wilmington, N.C.

* * *

The plane left Wilmington at 5:40 a.m. for the 85-mile trip up the North Carolina coast to pick up its first passengers at New Bern. Tom Davis, Piedmont president, said in Winston-Salem, N.C. that the last radio report from the plane was at 6:06 a.m., when it gave its location as 12 miles southwest of New Bern and reported no problems.

It crashed three miles southwest of the New Bern airport and the fuselage was broken into three pieces. A Piedmont spokesman said there were indications that pilot Helsabeck may have been trying to reach a clearing near the heavily wooded site of the crash.

The plane, Flight 101, was to have stopped at Goldsboro, Raleigh, Greensboro, and Winston-Salem, N.C.; Tri-Cities Airport in Tennessee, and end its flight at Louisville, Ky.

Helsabeck won the Air Medal with seven oak leaf clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross in the European theater in World War II. One of his planes was shot so many times that the crew called her "the Flying Patch."

In 1947, when he was 27 years old, he was elected sheriff of Stokes County, and was the youngest sheriff in North Carolina. The next year, he was elected president of the North Carolina Young Republicans.

Man Hunted in Pair's Killing

SILVERTON, Colo. (UPI) — Thomas Julius Sergent, a 25-year-old former Michigan man being sought across the nation on charges of murdering two Arizona tourists, remained at large today and lawmen said they had no clues to finding him.

New Mexico State Police have issued an all-points bulletin to be on the alert for hitchhikers resembling Sergent, especially those seen in mountinous northern Taos County.

The alert was broadcast after reports were heard Saturday that a hitchhiker resembling Sergent had told a driver in Colorado he was heading south to Taos.

Sergent was charged with two counts of murder.

The warrants were issued Friday in the San Juan County seat of Silverton, not far from where the bodies of Milton D. and Mildred Moelner of Phoenix were found Nov. 2.

Draft Hits 3 Peace Corpsmen

MANILA (AP) — The Peace Corps director for the Philippines said today that three corpsmen had received draft calls barely two months after their arrival in the Philippines from the United States.

Director Richard Balch said one of the group, Fred Lonidier of Seattle, Wash., had been ordered to report for induction Dec. 7 and is scheduled for a medical examination in Manila Tuesday.

* * *

The two others are Douglas E. Magee, 23, of Santa Susana, Calif., and Michael Kiesler, 22, of Louisville, Ky. He said they had appealed for deferment and the appeals were being considered.

"We have done everything we can," Balch said.

OUTSPOKEN LETTER

Lonidier in an outspoken letter to the Manila Times Sunday said his appeals for deferment had been rejected by his state draft board and the presidential appeal board.

"It really makes one wonder whether or not the Peace Corps is perhaps an expendable political gimmick kept in existence to give the lie to any challenge to Johnson's peaceful intentions," Lonidier wrote.

"At least it seems volunteers are expendable.

"It is utterly fantastic that we have been so extensively and expensively trained, transported and maintained, only to be pulled out before we have begun our work."

Balch said the Peace Corps had unsuccessfully carried Lonidier's deferment "to the highest appeals channels there are." He added that the Manila Times was not the proper channel for a Peace Corpsman to complain.

Take a tip from an independent study of police accident reports in Michigan. Out of a total of 109 people who died in Michigan traffic accidents over the Memorial Day, 4th of July and Labor Day weekends, 79 died within 25 miles of their homes. Over 70%!

So this Thanksgiving Day weekend, no matter what state you live in, it's a good idea to stop taking familiar surroundings—or anything else—for granted.

Your Car. Just because it's been running like a top for months, don't be lulled into thinking it'll perform dependably forever. Have your car checked regularly, even if it doesn't happen to send up a trouble signal.

Other Drivers. Just because you haven't had any close calls in traffic recently is no reason to think that other drivers are getting smarter. Be ready for anything. Plan ahead for dangerous situations, such as people getting out of cars from the wrong side or cars going through stop signs.

Yourself. Maybe you know people who've made it home half asleep after a late party. They were lucky. Because you can't be a safe driver when you're tired.

Also, as you probably know, many fatal accidents involve drinking drivers. So a little common sense can save your life.

Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday. But it's no time to let down your guard.

Controversy on JFK Killing Continues to Swirl 3 Years After

NEW YORK (AP) — Tuesday is the third anniversary of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, Tex., and the controversy surrounding his death continues.

Was the killer Lee Harvey Oswald? Did he act alone? Or was there a conspiracy involving one or more accomplices?

* * *

But still pouring forth are books and magazine articles challenging both the commission's report and the adequacy of its investigation.

* * *

Life magazine, in this week's issue out today, said, "A new investigating body . . . should re-examine the evidence and consider other evidence the Warren Commission failed to evaluate."

The magazine said Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was riding with Kennedy and was wounded himself, was still certain that he and Kennedy were hit by two different bullets, not one as the Warren Commission determined.

So persistent are the attacks that in a Nov. 4 news conference President Johnson apparently left open a possibility that the circumstances of the assassination might be further explored — if important new evidence should be forthcoming.

Johnson said: "I know of no evidence that would in any way cause any reasonable person to have a doubt about the Warren Commission. But if there is any evidence that's brought forth, I'm sure that the commission and the appropriate authorities will take action that may be justified."

The Warren Commission report made this summation: "The shots which killed President Kennedy and wounded Gov. (John B.) Connally (of Texas) were fired by Lee Harvey Oswald. On the basis of the evidence before the commission, it concludes that Oswald acted alone."

The commission found that the rifle fire had come entirely from a window of the Texas School Book Depository Building. Critics of the commission insist there is reason to believe some shots were fired from elsewhere.

Attorney Mark Lane asserts in his book "rush to Judgment" that at least seven witnesses said they had seen "a puff, or puffs, of white smoke" from behind a wooden fence which the presidential car was about to pass.

On that point the Warren report had this to say: "In contrast to the testimony of witnesses who heard and observed shots fired from the depository, the commission's investigation has disclosed no credible evidence that shots were fired from anywhere else."

Critics of the commission say a wound in President Kennedy's throat appeared to have been fired from in front of him. If so, the bullet could not have come from the School Book Depository Building.

British Woe: Plants or Jobs?

Rare Flora Is in Way of Firm's Expansion

LONDON (UPI) — A committee representing both houses of Parliament will meet tomorrow to consider a bill which pronounces the death sentence for a community of plants so rare and important that scientists everywhere are fighting for a reprieve.

The bill authorizes a reservoir in Upper Teesdale which would cover part of an assemblage of plants that have survived there for between 10,000 and 15,000 years — a mixture of Alpine, Arctic and European vegetation unique in the world.

Both houses sent the bill to committee with sober and serious acknowledgement that industrial progress has brought about a cruel dilemma.

The depressed northeast of England needs more jobs, and Imperial Chemical Industries (ICI) can supply some of them.

But to build factories in the area, it needs more water and the most suitable site for its purposes in Upper Teesdale includes the Ice Age plant settlement a scientist recently called "The Westminster Abbey of Botany."

WIDE INTEREST

Few scientific causes in recent years have aroused such wide and intense interest. Sir Julian Huxley, director general of UNESCO, said it was a vital part "of the global struggle to save what remains of our natural heritage."

Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands, president of the World Wildlife Fund, said the world was waiting to see whether Britain could save Upper Teesdale.

"There is the verdict of history to be considered," he said.

UNION LEADERS

Before the House of Lords debated the bill Nov. 8, trade union leaders in the northeast issued this statement:

"Given the choice of expanding employment or preserving flora and fauna, work people will vote for employment."

Most speakers in the House of Lords agreed ICI was acting with integrity even to offering 100,000 sterling ($280,000) for a crash program to study the plant settlement before flooding.

★ ★ ★

The big question they sent the select committee was whether some way could be found to supply the water for ICI and save the flora.

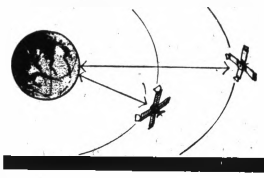
SOME LEARNING

"This precarious assemblage is irreplaceable," said Lord Hurcomb. "If it is allowed to survive, scientists believe that we can still learn something from these plants about evolution on the small scale and that some of those researches in time may even have practical value."

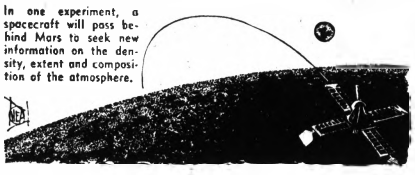
There are 1,285,300 Lutherans in Indonesia.

MISSION TO MARS

Two Mariner Mars spacecraft are scheduled for 1969 launchings from Cape Kennedy in the period from early February to mid-April.



Each Mariner will carry two television cameras to take pictures of surface features as small as 500 feet across in passes within 2,000 miles of Mars. Mariner 4's closest approach was 6,200 miles.



In one experiment, a spacecraft will pass behind Mars to seek new information on the density, extent and composition of the atmosphere.

Other experiments will gather information on Martian temperatures, the landscape and data needed in planning for the landing of life-detection capsule on the planet in 1973.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration is hoping to get closeup television pictures of Mars in 1969 10 times as detailed as those sent back by Mariner 4 in 1965. If the mission succeeds, the pictures may reveal evidence of changing shapes in the planet's craters—indicating erosion and the presence of water at some time in the past.

Gunshot Is Fatal

GROSSE POINTE (AP) — Dennis Schuler, 17, of Detroit, died Sunday at Bon Secours Hospital of a gunshot wound in the head suffered Thursday when he was fired on by police during a foot chase. Patrolman Thomas Kelly of Grosse Pointe Farms police said he shot the youth after Kelly stopped him for questioning about a stolen car. Kelly said Schuler ran and failed to heed two warning shots. A third shot, aimed at the youth's legs, struck him in head, Kelly said, because the officer said he lost his balance on a fence while taking aim. "We're very sorry but we see no reason to bring charges against the officer," said Police Chief Jack Roy.

Draft Robs Viet Government of Best Men

By RAY CROMLEY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

SAIGON — There are a considerable number of South Vietnamese who would not go along with adopting for their country Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's recent suggestion of a lottery to select American draftees.

Viet Nam is already bothered by the loss to the draft of young men with critical skills. A lottery would make the situation even worse.

Says one government scientist: "They took the head of our atomic project. He was a man with great skill. Men with his training are in critically short supply."

Reports an adviser to a provincial governor: "The draft took our only good administrator. I tried to get him off but I couldn't succeed.

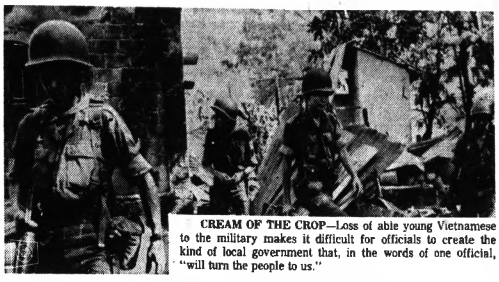
* * *

"The poor quality of the government in some of my districts is what's giving the Viet Cong fuel to work on. It's one of the reasons why the VC are making gains here.

'COST US DEARLY'

"The loss of this able man will cost us dearly. The less capable man we've had to put in his place will set us back where we hurt most.

"We will have a hard time creating the kind of local government that will turn the people to us."



CREAM OF THE CROP—Loss of able young Vietnamese to the military makes it difficult for officials to create the kind of local government that, in the words of one official, "will turn the people to us."

The same story is heard in other provinces, in local districts, in the government offices in Saigon and in the professions.

Men are drafted who are critically needed for agricultural, educational, financial and administrative jobs crucial to sound government and the war effort.

One education official in the Delta complained: "Here's a high school that had only two teachers. Now the principal tells me he's about — the only teacher in the school — because of the draft."

ESSENTIAL INGREDIENT

This loss of needed teachers is especially serious at a time when many military men in Viet Nam consider the improvement of schools essential to winning the war.

A considerable number of South Vietnamese argue that it would be wiser to select who is drafted and who isn't on the basis of now essential their work is to the nation — considering the military, governmental, agricultural and educational aspects of the national interest.

These men say that if so many essential men are drafted for the army that the civil government doesn't make the progress it should, it will become much more difficult to win this war.

* * *

STRONG FEELINGS

U.S. military men I spoke with have some strong feelings about the type of young men they need in Viet Nam. They like the men they get.

In a war such as this the heavy need is for highly trained younger officers and men with a considerable amount of education.

* * *

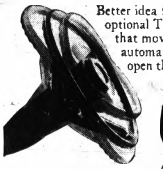
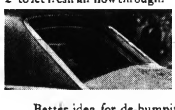
Better idea for stopping: power front disc brakes, standard on Mercury Brougham, Marquis, Park Lane and Colony Park.

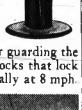


Better idea for getting in: Cougar's optional Tilt-Away Steering Wheel that moves out of your way, automatically, as you open the door.

Better idea for breathing: the back window in the Brougham sedan that lowers 2" to let fresh air flow through.

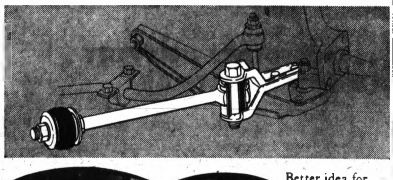


Better idea for a Lincoln Continental-type ride: Mercury Marquis, with 7 better ideas for smooth riding we borrowed from our distinguished big brother.



Better idea for guarding the kids: optional door locks that lock themselves automatically at 8 mph.

Better idea for de-bumping a road: an articulated drag strut on the Mercury Cougar that "catches" bumps like a catcher's mitt. Takes the sting out of sports car riding.



Better idea for shifting: Select-Shift Merc-O-Matic, the automatic transmission that's also a manual. Lets him shift through the gears, lets her put it in automatic and forget it.

Better idea for looking ahead: optional 2-speed Interval Selector Windshield Wipers that speed up when you do.

Romeo Residents Divided in Reaction to Ford Plans

By JEAN SAILE

ROMEO—What happens when a small community of 3,500 population suddenly finds itself about to become the headquarters for a division of one of the world's major manufacturing operations?

Caught up in a swirl of progress, Romeo citizens are as divided in their reaction as in their reasons for living in this Macomb County community in the first place.

To businessmen along the two-block Main Street — the town's name for its section of Van Dyke (M53) — the coming of Ford Motor Co.'s Tractor Division is just what the town needed.

To councilmen faced with providing sewage and water to the newly annexed 160 acres east of the old Romeo village limits, there are both good and bad prospects.

* * *

FOR THE BETTER?

"The town will change a lot — I don't know if it will be for the better," said one woman, who declined to be identified.

"I do think, though," she added, "that the type of people coming out here to work will be better than most of the rumors are suggesting."

To back up her view, Fred Thompson, public relations manager for the Ford Tractor Division, stressed that the plant, besides being an assembly operation for industrial equipment, will also house world headquarters of Ford's Equipment Operations.

* * *

"We'll have a wide range of people," he said, "from the general manager and staff to manufacturing and engineering people, controllers, and assemblers."

Area News

JOB SEEKERS

The contract for completion of the building says Feb. 1, according to George Kirchner, project engineer for Ford.

Kirchner said he's already been approached by several people — who he assumes to be current residents of the area — on the possibility of obtaining jobs.

On February an assembly operation is expected to start, with the office staff coming later. Some 200 people are expected to be employed by next summer, according to Thompson.

* *

One of Romeo's major worries is where housing will be found for the new employes. Another is services.

The village has gone to some expense to run a $25,000 water line to the plant — it expects to pay half the cost — and there is some feeling about replacing a storm sewer in the same area.

Police Chief Lyle Jewell said his 11-man department will have to be expanded.

"There'll be an increase in traffic, and we're going to need more than the one patrol car we now have," Jewell said.

* * *

BONDING CAMPAIGN

Romeo Schools are currently engaged in a bonding vote campaign with the intention of raising $560,000 next Dec. 19 as a stopgap measure.

In the meantime, a citizen's advisory board has been set up to study needs over the next five years and another bond issue vote next spring is a likely prospect.

Louie Bartholomew, 85, recently moved from the farm to 135 Croswell, is the town's unofficial historian. His faded clippings document activities of the town's leading citizens and businesses back to the turn of the century.

* * *

Bartholomew reports Romeo was once a thriving community — its economic life based on carriage works, planing mills, and a foundry.

"But when Henry Ford offered $5 a day to work in his Highland Park plant, the men left Romeo in droves," he said.

'AUTO KILLED TOWN'

"It was the auto that killed Romeo," he continued, "and it never really recovered. They took out the old Detroit Urban Railway, and they tried to start several other businesses here, but none ever caught on."

"I guess maybe the reason was," he said, "that all of them tried to raise money here in Romeo."

"This new plant," said Bartholomew, "is the first real thing to come to Romeo that will do the town any good."

"Most of the people who would have resented change such as this have passed away," he said, "and there's a new set of young people here who want to see the town grow."

'GROWING PAINS'

Ray Dembowski, local Ford retail dealer since 1952, said, "I know it will be good for the town. We're just suffering growing pains now."

He said, "The company may have a problem getting help out here. I've had quite a time getting help as far as mechanics and service people go."

Weekend Toll Is 14 on Michigan Roads

By the Associated Press

The body of Gus M. Vitos, 28, of Lansing was found pinned beneath a car in which he was riding Sunday after a five hour search by police.

The driver of the car, Leonard Garfield, 22, of Lansing, crawled onto I-75 near Grayling and flagged down a motorist after Garfield's car rolled off the road and hit several trees.

In a Grayling hospital, Garfield told attendants his friend still was pinned under the car. Police were summoned and searched from 3 a.m. until they found the wreckage at 8 a.m.

Vitos was one of 14 victims of fatal traffic mishaps in Michigan over the weekend. Others killed were:

James H. Hollestelle, 18, of Kalamazoo, when the auto in which he was riding ran off a road and crashed Sunday near Kalamazoo.

ONE-CAR ACCIDENT

Ruth M. Belleisle, 23, of Chicago, who died Sunday in a South Bend, Ind., hospital from injuries suffered in a one-car accident Saturday night on U.S. 12 in Cass County.

George Cole Jr., 23, of Flint, who died Sunday an hour after he was injured in a two - car crash at a Flint intersection.

* * *

David Lesperance, 18, of Essexville and June Kucera, 18, of Munger, when a car driven by Lesperance ran off a county road east of Bay City Sunday and landed in a ditch.

Peter Paul Drobek, 60, of West Branch, when he was struck by a car while crossing a street in West Branch Sunday.

STRUCK BY CAR

Ann C. Heramb, 45, of Chicago, when she was struck by a car while attempting to cross a street in Lansing Sunday.

Douglas Bykerk, 3, of Hudsonville, when struck by a car after he ran into a road near his home in Ottawa County Saturday.

* * *

Lewis Floyd Wright, 19, and Jennie Mae Morris, 18, both of Cadillac, when their ran ran off a street in Cadillac Saturday night and struck a tree.

Garret Gates, 24, of Hamilton, when his car brushed fenders with another on an Allegan County road, skidded out of control and slammed into a tree.

* * *

Ronald Turner, 18, of Livonia, when the car in which he was riding collided with another vehicle at an intersection in Dearborn Heights Friday night.

Russell Clark, 67, of Cheboygan, when struck by a car Friday night on Black River Road 10 miles southeast of Alverno in Cheboygan County.

Two Area 4-H'ers to Attend Confab

JOHN JACKMAN

Two area young people will spend five days in Chicago beginning Nov. 27, having been chosen state winners in 4-H programs this year.

John Jackman of Romeo and Merlyn Barclay of Metamora will join the Michigan delegation to the National 4-H Club Congress.

Jackman, 18, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jackman, 15550 29 Mile Road. A Michigan State University freshman, he won first place in the state insect identification contest in 1965.

He plans to develop his interest in entomology into a career.

* * *

Winner of an impressive collection of county medals and state and county blue ribbons, Jackman is sponsored by Hercules Inc.

CONSERVATION AWARD

Miss Barclay, 18, also a freshman at Michigan State University, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Barclay, 3818 Diehl. She won the conservation award sponsored by John Deere.

* * *

Gearing her program toward her goal of becoming a research chemist, Miss Barclay has developed a project on water pollution.

* * *

She has also won land-judging honors and in 1965 represented Michigan in the national land-judging contest. She has won six county medals for different projects.

MERLYN BARCLAY

'Cinderella's Slipper' Will Be Presented

AVON TOWNSHIP — A traditional fairy tale with original music by G. A. Grant-Schafer comes to life as the Children's Theater presents "Cinderella's Slipper" over the Thanksgiving weekend.

Six performances of the three-act operetta will be presented at Avon Playhouse. There will be an 8 p.m. Friday performance; 10 a.m., 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Saturday performances; and 1 and 4 p.m. performances Sunday.

A chorus of eight will complete the cast.

Goodfellow Sale Scheduled by Club

The annual Goodfellow sale to help brighten Christmas for about 40 needy families has been set for Dec. 9-10 by members of Metropolitan Spirit 83 of Avon Township.

Some 27 salesmen, mostly firemen, will take to the Rochester, Crooks and Adams Road intersections on Auburn to sell special issues of The Pontiac Press.

Private Groups to Pay for Using Commerce Hall

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — From now on, any organizations other than governmental groups will have to pay a $15 fee for the use of the township hall.

* * *

Township Clerk Harry H. Helvey said the hall is being used two and three nights a week by outside groups.

Adult Courses Start Jan. 30

Adults in the Huron Valley School District will soon be offered the opportunity to broaden their educational horizons.

Starting Jan. 30, the school district will offer its first adult education program.

In announcing the program, school officials said they believe education planning for individual needs is a continuing process and that a "marked interest and growing expression of these needs has focused attention on education beyond formal schooling."

"Technological developments, rapid social change and increased free time contributed heavily to a new awareness of these needs," they said, "and the board of education believes that adult education is essential to meet these growing needs."

Meeting Is Tonight on Plan for Airfield

TROY — Several hundred people are expected to attend a protest meeting at 8 tonight at Troy Senior High School.

* * *

The meeting has been called in response to a recent Federal Aviation Agency announcement that unless acceptable "aeronautical objections" are put forth, the Jim Robbins Co. private airfield will go public.

Representatives are expected from Clarwson, Madison Heights, Royal Oak and various subdivisions in Troy. The meeting is hosted by the Troy Panhandle Homeowners Association.

The group has circulated petitions objecting to a public airfield throughout the four communities.

Green Thumb Showing

New Cauliflower Tested

If cauliflower doesn't now appeal to your sense of taste, it may soon offer some aesthetic value.

Beauty as well as nutrition appears to be the aim of a new type of cauliflower developed at Michigan State University.

It's green!

It doesn't need any special tying or handling to stay green before harvest. And, homemakers, it even stays green after cooking.

The new cauliflower was developed by Dr. Shigemi Honma, MSU horticulturist. He did it by crossing a good white cauliflower variety with broccoli.

* * *

Honma started developing the green cauliflower variety in 1958. It will be field-tested next summer. Growers then will decide if it should be sold commercially.

MUST BE USED

Growers should look forward to the new cauliflower since it does not require tying one to two weeks before harvesting. The tying procedure must be used with white cauliflower to prevent the cauliflower from becoming a creamy, brownish color.

Preliminary trials show that homemakers like the new cauliflower, since it keeps its light green color after cooking and, as a result, is more attractive alone or with a sauce.

The consumers also say that the green cauliflower tastes as good or better than white varieties.

* * *

While the new cauliflower is not yet named, Honma calls the cross "Hacabro" — a combination of the words "Hawaiian," "cauliflower" and "broccoli."

Church Sets Annual Bazaar, Dinner

AVON TOWNSHIP—St. Luke's Methodist Church will conduct its annual bazaar and dinner Saturday, Dec. 3.

* * *

The bazaar will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Lunch will be served from 11 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., dinner from 5 to 7 p.m.

Mrs. Dennis Burtch, 2453 Walnut, Pontiac Township, and Mrs. Glenn Weiler, 2084 Allerton, Pontiac Township, are bazaar chairmen, and Mrs. Wayne Brookshear, 3480 Walton, Pontiac Township, and Mrs. David Dorer, 2760 Norton-Lawn, Avon Township, are dinner chairmen.

Visitors Galore

The daily population of New York City's Rockefeller Center — approximately 208,000 — is exceeded by only 55 cities in the U.S. An estimated 160,000 persons visit the area each day on business and pleasure, and 48,500 work in Center-owned and operated buildings.

News of the Area

Consolidation Proposed for Shelby Twp. and Utica

Cityhood through consolidation has been proposed for a roughly 72-square-mile area just over the eastern boundary of Oakland County.

William F. Schuchard, executive secretary of the Shelby-Utica-Sterling Chamber of Commerce, contends that the people of his area have always wanted one single unit of government.

Since Sterling has incorporated, Schuchard says, and the Chamber agrees, that steps should be taken to consider the matter of a Shelby Township-Utica consolidation.

Incorporation for Shelby Township alone was turned down by voters in the Nov. 8 election.

* * *

Schuchard says he thinks it quite possible that should Shelby and Utica form an alliance, then Sterling would be interested in entering.

LISTS REASON

Reason for the stand taken for consolidation by the chamber at this time, according to Schuchard, is "the attempt to head off any piecemeal annexation attempts."

Schuchard said he's been studying such a consolidation plan for most of the last ten years and is convinced that this is what "the people" really want.

A poll taken by the chamber about three years ago showed 65 per cent in favor of consolidation of the area, according to the secretary, and as many were interested in areawide cityhood at that time as there were those who wished time to study it.

* * *

The chamber has mailed out 800 letters regarding its views and is hopeful that a commission of residents from Shelby Township and Utica will be formed.

125 MEMBERS

* * *

"No stand has been taken on urban renewal for Utica," according to Schuchard, "because members felt it better to determine the outcome of a consolidation effort before becoming involved on a purely local basis."

E. Europe Feels Entrapped by Unrealistic Hanoi Policy

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — East European Communists have a frustrated feeling of being dragged unwillingly behind what they consider the unrealistic onward rush of Hanoi's war policy.

This feeling was expressed privately and was reflected in public speeches at the Bulgarian Communist Party Congress which ended Saturday. Leaders from Eastern Europe and Communists from other areas attended.

The Congress heard more about China than Viet Nam. Except for the Romanians, the delegates in their speeches did not discuss the Vietnamese situation in detail, and most notably they did not set conditions for peace.

This was one of several recent signs that, in Eastern Europe and in Moscow, policies on Viet Nam are flexible. The European Communist governments want the war to end and therefore are not insisting on such conditions as U.S. withdrawal from Viet Nam before peace negotiations can open.

WANT PEACE TALKS

Some sources considered it significant that speakers at the Bulgarian Congress did not demand that U.S. air raids on North Viet Nam be halted. The suggestion is that the East European Communists want peace talks started despite the air raids.

But Hanoi is adamant.

It still is insisting publicly that the United States accept the whole package of its peace terms: end the raids, withdraw, leave Viet Nam to the Communists. So far as could be determined during the Congress, Hanoi's public position is also its private position.

"They're unrealistic," a Bulgarian said.

REALISTIC APPRAISAL

He thought Hanoi refuses to recognize the facts of American power and determination. Realism, to him, means a settlement of a war that no one can win.

Another person said that Bulgarian Gen. Ivan Mihailov came back from Hanoi last month feeling very discouraged about the prospect for any realism developing in North Viet Nam. Leaders there insisted to Mihailov that they would fight on for another 20 years if necessary, this source reported.

* * *

There is talk in Sofia of trying to buy a change in Hanoi's thinking. The Soviet bloc reportedly agreed last month on a billion dollars worth of aid to North Viet Nam above the hundreds of millions worth sent already.

Mushrooming 'Color Explosion' Felt

By RALPH (Skipper) MILLER
Written for AP Newsfeatures

Most of us are accustomed to hearing about a population explosion but did you know we also have — in our world of photography — a mushrooming "color explosion?"

The subject was brought into focus at a photo industry press conference called by Republic Color Corp. a few days ago, at which I heard the familiar voice of Andre Baruch announce a new annual awards program for achievements in color photography.

Absent from the assembled group of photojournalists was vacationing Irving Desfor, AP columnist who plans to conclude his European tour by taking color pictures of the 1966 Photokina at Cologne, Germany.

Present, however, was Alfred Eisenstaedt who suggested he be accompanied by Sophia Loren.

The proposal was vetoed by Republic officials who feared the photographers might become so magnetized by her colorful personality they would forget the purpose of the meeting.

LOUD AND CLEAR

In a voice loud and clear, Kodak's journalism ambassador J. Winton Leman beamed the following messages concerning the color explosion as it now affects American citizens coast-to-coast and border-to-border:

● Television: Color, the biggest baby to hit the TV screen since the advent of the tele tube, was only a maybe until recently. Now, every prime time network show is telecast in color. Also, more than 50 local TV stations have installed their own color processing labs.

● Movies: A black-and-white movie is such a novelty that it is given special billing on the theater marquee. So many home movies are made in color that camera shops no longer sell black-and-white home movie film. Schools and colleges use color almost exclusively in films being made to educate the new generation.

EVER-INCREASING NUMBER

● Portraits: The commercial studio in your neighborhood is among the 12,000 in the land that emphasize color portraits; in fact, your studio may be among the ever-increasing number no longer offering black-and-white portrait service.

● Identification: It's a law, in 12 of our 50 states, that an auto driver must carry a photographic driver license. But did you know that 10 of the 12 require a color photo and that 21 more states are currently working on legislation to make color identity a fact of life? All police mug shots, in 1,700 cities, are made in color. Some five million students are being photographed in color during this fall semester for an ID card that will admit them to libraries, ball games and scholastic activities.

DON'T BE SURPRISED

● Advertising: As you turn the pages of Sunday newspapers and magazines, make a mental note of the number of color photos used. Don't be surprised if you tabulate something between 65 and 85 per cent.

★ ★ ★

● Scientific: No well-dressed astronaut would think of heading for the moon without his camera; most of his pictures are, of course, in color, and no matter whether the exploration is in outer space, the depths of the ocean or inside a man's stomach, the color image is the one that tells which direction to turn, bank or slice.

"The popularity of color in all avenues of photography," said Lemen, "whether amateur, exploration, portraiture, illustration, news, science, motion picture, TV, identification, sales promotion, training or education has been more than an explosion. It has the appearance of a restless volcano."

Cuban Exiles Seek Exhibit

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cuban exiles have asked for representation in Interama, a projected permanent exposition here in which American republics will have pavilions.

Committee chairman Eduardo Garcia Dartayet said, "It is unthinkable that a transitory political accident such as the Castro regime could keep Cuba from displaying her cultural heritage."

Two Dowagiac Men Die in Plane Crash

CASSOPOLIS (AP)—Two Dowagiac men were killed Sunday when their single-engine Piper airplane crashed in woods four miles northeast of Cassopolis.

The victims were identified as John Vylonis and Bryce Fosdick.

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My husband is a business man and his boss has invited us to have dinner at their home. I'm wondering if I'm expected to return this invitation by having my husband's boss and his wife to our apartment for dinner? (My husband is 25 years old; his boss is forty).

Or, do you think a mere thank you as we leave their home is enough? I'm anxious to do the right thing. Mrs. Cullen.

Dear Mrs. Cullen: Since the boss's invitation is in the nature of a business formality, it isn't necessary that you invite them to your apartment.

You may find, after having dinner with them, that in spite of the age difference you enjoy each other's company so much that you want to have them. If your relationship remains strictly business, thank them sincerely and let it go at that.

Then, at a later date you might include them in a less intimate group such as a cocktail party or possibly a dinner where another older couple or two were to be present.

HOPE CHESTS

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to receive a cedar chest in the near future. I do not have any idea as to how to accept this gift.

If I tell my family and friends about it or if I invite them over to see the chest, will they feel obligated to buy a gift? Any advice or information you can give me will be appreciated. Susan P.

Dear Susan: I cannot possibly tell you how to accept this gift since you didn't tell me who was giving it to you. In any case, I have never heard of such an event bearing any obligation to your friends.

Husband Takes Action

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Last week a friend and his wife came over to visit us. My husband was discussing sports with the man, and I was helping the wife with some stitches she was having diffieulty crocheting.

ABBY

Out of the wide blue sky my husband got up out of his chair, walked over to where I was sitting, and kicked me! I was so shocked my dentures nearly fell out. I was too stunned to say anything, and of course, our guests didn't know what to say or think, so they pretended they didn't see anything.

Later on, when our guests left, I asked my husband what his idea was in kicking me. He said, "You were sitting badly, your dress was hiked up over your knees." For crying out loud, is this any way for a husband to act when there are guests around?

KICKED IN K. C.

DEAR KICKED: Certainly not. Nor is it any way for a husband to behave when there are NO guests around. He needs to be taught a lesson. Serve him hay. It's a fitting diet for the kind of animal who doesn't speak — but kicks.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Someone signed WORRIED wrote expressing concern because her birth certificate carried her mother's maiden name. She assumed that her mother had had her before she was married.

Abby, in most states (and perhaps in ALL of them, for all I know) this is the way all birth certificates are made out. Only the mother's MAIDEN name appears on the child's birth certificate. Never her married name. A very humane practice if you ask me. M. D. A.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday mom had 50 cents on her dresser, and this morning it was gone. We have a large family and no one will own up, so my father has placed all us kids on restriction until the guilty party confesses.

* * *

We can't use the phone, radio or TV, and we've lost all our privileges for a whole month. I considered saying I took the 50 cents to get the other innocent ones off restriction, but that would include the guilty one, too, so maybe that's silly.

* * *

I think I know who took the money, and I think my parents know, too, but they are waiting for her to own up to it. Do you think this is fair? What should I do?

UNHAPPY

DEAR UNHAPPY: If your parents know who the guilty party is, but are punishing all of you, they are being very unjust. Don't claim guilt you don't deserve. You innocent ones should go to your parents and declare your innocence once more. By this time the guilty party should 'fess up. Good luck.

Is Nothing Sacred?

It's a Mod, Mod World

DETROIT (AP)—"This is not exactly the wedding I had planned for my daughter," said the mother of the bride.

Joined in holy matrimony in a mod wedding ceremony at the Michigan State Fair Grounds Sunday were Randy Rossi, 19, an unemployed go-go dancer, and Gary Norris, 25, an unemployed artist.

* * *

The bridegroom wore a five-button, plaid suit with a cowboy belt and a six-inch-wide tie.

Billed as the nation's first mod wedding, the affair included:

- A bearded youth banging in the roof of a dilapidated car with a sledge hammer.
- A pretty girl wearing a white dress which served as a canvas for a purported artist who decorated her with mustard and catsup squeezed from plastic dispensers.
- A youth slithering across the stage using a bullwhip and two high-powered flashlights for props while performing an alleged dance.

A crowd of about 4,500 attended the half-hour ceremony, listening to a rock 'n' roll group which featured a lanky girl wearing blonde hair and a gaunt face.

The couple was married by Highland Park municipal judge David Golden, who last year was honored by the North American Judges Association for "outstanding community service."

Gals Invade Territory of the Marines

The first Women Marines served in the Marine Corps during World War I. Called Marinettes, they filled clerical vacancies which permitted men to be available for combat duty.

Although the Marinettes were organized for only one year, they made a lasting impression.

* * *

Women today in the Marine Corps are no longer called Marinettes, but they play a major role in the security of our country today by serving as they did in World War I.

QUALIFICATIONS

The basic qualifications to become a member of the world famous Women Marines are: Must be 18 to 29 years of age; be unmarried (no dependents); have a high school education or pass necessary GED Test; must be of excellent moral character; pass necessary mental and physical tests.

* * *

Any young woman interested in becoming a Woman Marine may contact Sgt. Carl Ripley, at the Federal Building, Room 201, 35 E. Huron Street. Women Marines are needed now!!!

Karen Rognaldson Wed to Patrick Giannotta

Our Shepherd Lutheran Church in Birmingham was the setting for the Saturday evening marriage of Karen Kay Rognaldson to Patrick Andrew Giannotta.

* * *

At the reception in Kimberly Hall, Roseville, were their parents, the Clarence Rognaldsons, West Ann Arbor Avenue, and the Bruno Giannottas of Utica.

* * *

* * *

* * *

* * *

Karen Kay Rognaldson, daughter of the Clarence Rognaldsons of West Ann Arbor Avenue, and Patrick Andrew Giannotta, son of the Bruno Giannottas of Utica, were wed Saturday in Our Shepherd Lutheran Church, Birmingham.

Area Women's Groups Meet, Plan for Holidays

Plans for the holidays and news of interest were discussed as several area groups met last week.

Alpha Delta Kappa

Mrs. Eugene Gary of Navajo Road was hostess for a membership tea on Sunday to Zeta chapter, Alpha Delta Kappa sorority.

* * *

* * *

Lambda Chi Omega

Candy cups were made at the recent meeting of Lambda Chi Omega sorority, Beta Theta chapter, for children in the Sarah Fisher Children's Home in celebration of Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Forrest Elwell of St. Jude Drive opened her home for this meeting where Mrs. Melvin Smail spoke of the recent state convention held in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. James Davis acted as cohostess.

Sigma Beta

* * *

Epsilon Sigma Alpha

Holiday decorations were made at the recent meeting of Alpha Alpha chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority. Mrs. Calvin Warner of Sunnybeach Boulevard opened her home for the group.

Mrs. Richard Falls reported on the boxes of clothing and supplies mailed to an orphanage in South Viet Nam.

Localite Hosts Dinner Party

Dinner guests of Mrs. Dugald Black of West Maple Road, Saturday, in the Women's City Club, Detroit, were Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Search, Whispering Pine Lane; the Mansel O. Wileys, Malibu Drive; the Birkett Dutys of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. George Caruana of Beverly Hills.

Ceremony Held for Aktivators

Mrs. R. C. Hollis, Great Lakes regional director of the sorority, presided at the ceremony after dinner.

Completing the list are Mrs. Fostine Watson, Mrs. Homer Walker, Carolyn Wheeler and Mrs. Kenneth Young.

MRS. W. H. FINMAN

Area Girl Takes Vows on Saturday

Saturday afternoon vows were exchanged by Joan Kay Powell and Wayne H. Finman in Our Lady of the Lakes Catholic Church.

SHEATH GOWN

* * *

Secret Sparkle Can Be Yours

Partially close eye to which you are applying false lashes starting at inner corner and fanning outward.

Put on adhesive 10-15 minutes before applying lash and press false lash base in place.

* * *

Use a dry mascara brush to blend both natural and false lashes. To keep their shape, lashes should be placed on the molded form they came on.

Relate Eyeglass Frames to Shape of Face

NEW YORK (NEA) — Glassy-eyed lasses are finally seeing the light of day (and night) in a wonderful new world of glamor especially designed for them.

A variety of smart eyeglass frames have been created by designers who are aware of the different ages and facial shapes of the millions of "cheater" girls.

Gloria LeVaggi Derosiers, who designs frames for Univis, suggests that you choose your eyeglass frames with your hairdo, age and face shape in mind.

As a tip for the girls who wear both glasses and bangs, she advises that the bangs be cut well above the eyebrow.

MATURE WOMAN

The mature woman with a triangular face might well choose a clear, lightly jeweled frame that has a slight winged extension at each side of the top of the frame.

* * *

* * *

The round - faced woman should wear a frame with an upswept look and deep lens shape. And if her face is square, she should choose an oval frame of small proportion.

* * *

* * *

And the teen with a square face would do well to choose an oval frame to add needed roundness. The oval frame shape will offset the squareness of the jaw.

The sketches shown will illustrate Mrs. Derosiers' points on how you can choose glass frames that will enhance and not detract from your good looks.

Indian Girl Loves to Jump

AGRA, India (AP) — India has a woman prime minister, so why not a woman paratrooper?

That is what Miss Farida Rehana, 26-year-old Moselm girl, thought, and now she has become the Indian army's first woman paratrooper.

Miss Rehana, an officer in the army medical corps, qualified with several jumps from a C-119 cargo plane, after completing training in the paratroopers' training school in September.

The most thrilling moment of the training, says Miss Rehana, was leaping from the plane in the dark of night, with no idea of what obstacles were awaiting her on the ground.

Miss Rehana, a nurse doctor, said she was happy she proved that a woman could not only be prime minister of India, but also could jump from the skies.

* * *

She has to settle for title of India's second woman military parachutist, however. The first to qualify in the Indian Defense Services was Squadron Leader Mrs. Geet Ghosh of the Air Force. She qualified in 1959, leaping from a DC3.

* * *

Asked about her future ambitions, Miss Rahana said: "For the present, I want to jump again and again. Let the future take care of itself."

Keep in Style While You Wait

A maternity wardrobe should be just as varied and lovely as any other. The mother-to-be should have beautifully designed clothes for every activity of her daily life.

Starched-In Gloss

Teaching Map

Teach your children early how to set a table correctly. Make it easy for them by drawing a map for them to go by. Also, let them take turns serving food at a meal. This is a big step toward helping them to be more comfortable at social gatherings.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

Q. I am a 16-year-old girl who would appreciate your opinion. I am 5 feet 7½ inches and weigh 135 pounds. Once in a while my weight will go up to 140 pounds. My measurements are: bust 34 inches, waist 27 inches and hips 36½ inches. Mother says I am just right but, of course, I disagree. I would value your advice.

A. Remember, "mother knows best." She surely does in this instance anyway. Your weight is perfect for your age and height. You might take a few waist slimming exercises, for a loss of an inch in that measurement.

* * *

Q. Will tweezing the eyebrows make them stop growing?

A. I have no evidence that it will. If you jerk the hairs out, I suppose you could injure the root. If you tweeze only the hairs outside your natural browline, the ones you do not want anyway, why do you care whether or not they grow back? I fervently hope that you are not tweezing all of the hairs out for some reason. Perhaps you are experimenting with different shapes. If so, just tweeze with care.

* * *

Q. Is paraffin oil the same as mineral oil and is it as good to use to cleanse the face?

A. Paraffin oil has a heavier base with more paraffin. Mineral oil is better for a cleanser. I think even it is too heavy. However, if you use this for a cleanser be sure to use a lubricating cream also.

* * *

Q. I have a very embarrassing problem. My left bust is smaller than my right. This is very noticeable in sweaters and swim suits. What can I do? I am desperate!

* * *

Take a weight of some sort in the left hand. With a straight elbow raise the left arm up until it is at right angles to your body. Slowly lower arm.

* * *

Q. My hands are just plain fat and beefy looking and I hate it. Are there exercises to reduce the hands?

A. No. There are exercises to keep the hands flexible and graceful but a general loss of weight is the only way to lose fat on the hands.

Special Age Payment in Social Security

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

The big question people keep asking us is: "Just exactly who gets this new $35-a-month payment the government is handing out to people over 72"

MARY FEELEY

Like any new provision in the law, this one is surrounded by confusion until its real intent is understood.

The Special Age 72 payment is part of the Social Security Law and became effective in October of this year. It states that only those receiving no other federal, state, county or city funds are eligible. But there are surely going to be some exceptions, so the questions keep coming up.

Mrs. F. L., in Brooklyn, N.Y., wants to know:

"Can my husband receive that $35-a-month being offered under the Special Age 72 payment law — or is it for women only? He's 76 years old."

The answer to this one is that the government isn't playing any favorites — men have equal rights. Provided, that is, that they're eligible as far as age and financial status are concerned.

Mrs. E. S., in Washington, Pa. writes:

"I am 74 years old, a widow. I receive $69.50 a month from Social Security, and am also signed up for medicare. Am I entitled to this new $35-a-month payment being given to older people?"

Not when you're receiving Social Security benefits, Mrs. S. These $35-a-month payments are designed to help those who are not receiving any other aid from public funds.

B. R., in Birmingham, Ala., asks:

"Why haven't I received any notice about getting this monthly payment of $35 I hear about — since I'm 73 and not getting any other federal aid — not even Social Security."

Maybe you didn't sign up for medicare, B. R. This list of names, with the accompanying personal data provided a means of getting in touch with people who had reached their 72nd birthday and therefore might be eligible for these special payments. The answers they could then report on the questionnaire would determine whether or not they actually were eligible.

Mrs. MacC., Phoenix, Arizona, writes:

"If I did not sign up for medicare, yet am qualified as being over 72 and receive no government help whatever, can I still apply for this $35-a-month payment? And if so how?"

Go to your nearest Social Security Office Mrs. Mac C. and tell them you believe you are eligible and would like to fill out the application for this government aid. Just because you didn't sign up for medicare doesn't prevent you from getting any funds to which you're entitled under this new provision.

I. O. in Ozone Park N. Y. writes:

"My sister and I 80 and 76 years old are single and the last members of the family. We are now in a home run by a charitable organization. Is there any way we can benefit by this new law that allows $35 a month to people over 72? We haven't any income at all."

If the entire care you and your sister are receiving I.O. is being provided through this charitable organization, I doubt if you're eligible. The reason is that this home, or organization, may be getting its funds from state or city sources. But talk to the director of the home about it.

The Michigan Heart Association has for the fifth year used a design by a Michigan artist for its Christmas card. William A. Bostick, secretary of the Detroit Institute of Arts, did a water color of the 117-year-old Fort Street Presbyterian Church and the Fort Street Depot of the C & O Railroad. Money from the sale of the cards is used only for heart research. Cards may be ordered from the Association at 277 Pierce Street, Birmingham, Mich. 48011. Price is 15 cents a card, 20 cents for those that are imprinted.

Pot Holder Idea Is Noteworthy

To protect baby's knees when he is at the crawling stage, patch the knees of his creepers with bright colorful pot holders. Get them thick enough to give him the needed protection, and at the same time thin enough to launder along with the garment.

Read Label Before Use

Instructions for products are written for a reason, as an engineer discovered while installing an underground sprinkling system. He took off on his own and then saw the logic of the step-by-step instructions. For better results follow the directions worked out by experts for manufacturers and outlined on tags and labels.

Luxury Floor Has Benefits

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Elimination of breakage and ease of maintenance are only two of the benefits a local grocery store is realizing from the installation of wall-to-wall carpeting.

* * *

"The amazing thing about the carpet is that people respect it," reports Larry Lee, manager of the newly remodeled supermarket. "I haven't found one cigaret butt or burn on it yet," he declares, "and some women are shopping in their stocking feet.

* * *

Candle Making Jobs Keep Retarded Busy

Many of the country's mentally retarded citizens are busily engaged in a new industry — making candles.

* * *

Three years ago Mrs. Eunice Kennedy Shriver, sister of John F. Kennedy, started the project in Hyannis Port, Mass.

* * *

Raymond Loewy contributed the design which is a tall tapered four-sided candle rising 18 inches out of a star-shaped form near the base.

The first workshop to make these candles was in Chicago. Financed by the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation, it proved that the retarded could be employed in such a project.

Now there are 12 centers throughout the country making the candles.

* * *

Mrs. Shriver has said that the more than one million mentally retarded in this country who are capable of employment represent a valuable source of manpower that can be trained.

* *

The Waterford Organization for Retarded Children is selling these candles; Mrs. Elmer Golding of Adamson Street has them available.

* * *

They are also on sale in several area department and specialty stores.

Pontiac Press Photo

Lights on the Thanksgiving dinner table at the Vernon Barker home on Lola Court will be "Flame of Hope" candles. These specially designed candles are made by retarded individuals in special workshops throughout the country. The Waterford Organization for Retarded Children is selling them at a bazaar Tuesday, 7:30 p.m. in John D. Pierce Junior High School. Mrs. Barker, a member of the organization, is shown here with her son, Terry Joe.

Living Accents

More and more decorators are using green plants as important decorative elements in furnishing a room. The Society of American Florists points out that plants can punctuate a focal point or camouflage an architectural defect. Your florist can help you select plants in proper scale to the room and their location within the room.

Handy Cup Hooks

Case No. A-582

Tax Pays for Loafers

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE A-582: Max F., aged 36, has a family of 5 children.

DR. CRANE

"Dr. Crane," he began, as I was riding in his taxicab recently, "I drive this cab to supplement my wages.

"For I am a butcher in a supermarket.

"But I need more money to support my large family and also meet the constantly rising deductions from my pay check.

"For we can't live on my weekly wages from the store.

"Either my wife must get a job or I must do moonlighting.

"Since two of our children aren't even old enough for kindergarten, I prefer to handle two jobs and let my wife stay at home.

"But what gripes me and the other cab drivers, is the patronage we get from families on relief.

"They will actually call a taxi just to go down to the super market a few blocks away!

"And then they routinely shove a new $20 bill at us. We wonder where these welfare cases get so many new $20 bills!

"And another thing which annoys taxi drivers is the fact that these shiftless folks want to put on airs.

"For example, when you came up to my cab, you opened the rear door and stuck your suitcase inside, without my help.

"But not these relief patrons!

"They make us drivers hop out and run around to open the rear door for them! Imagine such nerve!

"For it's our taxes they are spending to ritz their neighbors!"

Throughout our early national life, we always tried to help those who were in dire need, such as the sick and orphans.

Even so, there was a certain amount of distaste at being a recipient of such community charity.

So those who received such public aid usually wanted to get back into a job.

And this was the wholesome psychology that made us the greatest nation on earth.

Then a subtle change occurred.

Not only did we begin to grow maudlin in our sentimentality for the indigent, but we let them develop the bad psychology that they were fully entitled to lifelong indolence at the taxpayers' expense.

"It's our right!" became the prevailing attitude.

"We are just as entitled to happiness as anybody else!"

Yet our Declaration of Independence never said that anybody was entitled to happiness but merely to the "pursuit of happiness."

Tersely, that means we are entitled only to a chance to work!

But not to sit idly sipping beer in front of color TV, furnished by the workers in society via taxes, so these indolent can hoard their energy to procreate more illegitimate children by night, for us taxpayers to support!

What a treat for a youngster's birthday . . . A tall chocolate layer cake with candles tucks away in Mother's new "Spacemaker 17," a no-frost refrigerator-freezer with lots of room inside to hold birthday goodies. Until party time, the cake fits neatly on the new type of shelving that easily adjusts up and down to fit the tallest, shortest, or bulkiest food items at top, middle, or bottom of the 12 cu. ft. fresh food section. Below in the giant roll-out freezer are deep bulk storage baskets where ice cream and frozen foods store in zero-degree temperature. An automatic icemaker that refills a king-size ice tray automatically supplies an abundance of ice cubes. The new General Electric "Spacemaker 17" is on wheels, so it can be rolled out for easy cleaning or redecorating.

A Canadian Trip Follows Landrum Vows Saturday

On a Canadian honeymoon are the Robert Marshall Landrums who were wed Saturday evening in the Waterford Community Church.

* * *

Parents of the bridal couple are Mr. and Mrs. Louis L. Daniel of Winkleman Drive and the Robert A. Landrums of Savoy Drive.

* * *

Matron of honor for the ceremony was Mrs. James Walker with attendants Mrs. Martie Steiner, Mrs. Lerry Wood, Patti Vidlund, Renea Daniel and flowergirls, Carol Steiner and Kathy Daniel.

* * *

* * *

MRS. R. M. LANDRUM

Holiday Answer

You will find that a copper wool scouring pad is just the thing to use in removing pinfeathers from a plucked bird.

* * *

Brush lightly against the growth with the pad, and it will curl the feathers upward so you can grasp them with the fingertips or kitchen tweezers.

Remove Mildew

Mildew stains on rugs should be sponged with thick suds or rug shampoo, rinsed with a cloth wrung from cool water, and dried in the sun if possible, says the Nebraska Extension Service.

Polyps Possible Peril to Politicians

By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON — Now that it's over and the danger has passed, let us give some thought to the benefits that may come from President Johnson's throat operation.

WEST

Apart from the fact that the polyp was not malignant, the most significant thing was the theory that it may have been caused by "excessive speaking."

I personally know little if anything about medicine. Had the doctors said the polyp was caused by eating lollypolyps, I would have believed them.

But as a layman, I have trouble accepting the "excessive speaking" theory.

President Johnson, as everyone knows, is a man of few words. Like most Texans, he is the strong silent type. It is difficult to believe anyone as taciturn as he could have damaged his vocal cords through loquacity.

Had such a thing happened when Calvin Coolidge was President, there wouldn't have been any doubt. But Lyndon Johnson? It just doesn't figure.

During the two sessions of the 89th Congress, which expired last month, the House and Senate filled 55,326 pages of the Congressional Record with speeches, debates and other forensic activity.

* * *

If such statistics were available, they probably would show that habitual two-page-a-day talkers run a 70 per cent greater risk of developing throat polyps than do occasional talkers or mutes.

If urbanization trends continue, 240 million Americans will be residing on 8.7 per cent of the land while only 60 million will occupy the remaining 91.3 per cent withint the next 3 syears.

What do you have to be thankful for?

Because we at A&P have much.

We're thankful for God's blessings on our great country.

We're thankful for the free enterprise system that has allowed us to serve you for more than a century.

We're thankful, that again this year we'll be privileged to play a part in making Thanksgiving feasting a memorable occasion for so many.

But most of all we're thankful for you... for your patronage and loyalty.

When you come in we hope that the warmth of our service, the completeness of our selection and the dependability of our values will tell you better than words how thankful we are.

These Relishes Are for Turkey

Looking for new and different holiday relishes? Here are some unusual ones that will make your Thanksgiving turkey extra delicious this year. Maraschino cherries add a wonderful taste to your bird . . .

Cherry Peach Relish

1 12-ounce package frozen sliced peaches, thawed
¼ cup maraschino cherry juice
2 tablespoons cornstarch
½ cup chopped maraschino cherries (about 20 cherries)
½ cup chopped pecans

* * *

Drain peaches; reserve syrup. Combine cherry juice and cornstarch; blend. Add peach syrup. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Chop peaches.

Combine peaches, cherry juice mixture, cherries and pecans; mix well. Chill. Serve with turkey or ham, as desired. Makes about 1½ cups.

* * *

Strawberry Walnut Relish

1 10-ounce package frozen sliced strawberries, thawed
¾ cup chopped celery
1 cup chopped walnuts
½ cup currants

Combine all ingredients; mix well. Chill. Serve with ham or turkey, as desired. Makes about 2 cups.

Top With Filberts

Filbert topping is delicious on pumpkin pie. About 15 minutes before removing the pie from the oven, sprinkle pie with ½ cup of sliced filberts that have been sauteed until crisp and brown in 2 tablespoons of butter.

TURKEY MOLE

Sauerkraut Makes It a Reuben

Everybody knows how good kraut is with hot dogs on a roll. But you may not know how much it adds to enjoyment of other kinds of sandwiches.

Welcomed by anyone who is hungry. Serve it for a late supper when the man of the family has his card-playing cronies over for the evening.

Reuben Junior

2 cups drained sauerkraut
½ cup creamy Russian dressing
1 teaspoon chopped chives
½ pound sliced turkey or chicken
½ pound sliced boiled ham
6 aged natural Swiss cheese slices
12 slices pumpernickel bread

Mix kraut with dressing and chives; chill. Place ham, turkey, cheese and kraut mixture on 6 bread slices; top with remaining bread.

If desired, butter outside of sandwiches and grill slowly.

Serve Leftovers With Style

Turkey Stars Twice

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Food prices have gone up — that point I won't argue — but I want to point out something that many of our readers may not realize.

* * *

The price of our Thanksgiving turkey is just about the same as it was 10 years ago.

* * *

I went back into the files of The Press and read food ads for Thanksgiving food in 1956 and 1961.

In 1956, turkeys were advertised from 38 to 48 cents a pound; in 1961, they were 28 to 49 cents a pound; and last week, they were 33 to 49 cents a pound.

That is something you might consider when you count your blessings this week. Turkey is still a good buy.

* * *

After that big dinner on Thursday, be sure to take care of the leftovers. Spoon all the dressing out of the turkey and refrigerate it and the gravy at once.

Both should be used within a few days and reheated only once. They can be frozen if you don't want to use them right away.

Don't leave the turkey out at room temperature for people to nibble on. Cover it loosely and put it in the refrigerator.

* * *

For longer storage, it is wise to remove the meat from the bones and wrap it in foil. Freeze this in meal-size packages. Use the bones for soup.

How will you use the leftover meat?

* * *

Mole sauce is a fiesta and feast-day specialty that combines a weird assortment of ingredients, including a small amount of unsweetened chocolate. If your fimily is adventurous in eating, try it.

TURKEY MOLE

2 green peppers, cut and seeded
2 small onion, peeled
2 cans (1 pound each) tomatoes
1 can (4 ounces) pimiento, drained
½ cup blanched almonds, optional
¼ cup salad oil
1 tablespoon chili powder
1¼ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon Tabasco
⅛ teaspoon cinnamon
⅛ teaspoon ground cloves
2 bouillon cubes
¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 square (1 ounce) unsweetened chocolate
8 cooked turkey slices or 3 cups diced cooked turkey

* * *

Heat oil in skillet. Add blended mixture, seasonings and bouillon cubes. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer 20 minutes. Uncover; stir in bread crumbs and chocolate.

Heat, stirring occasionally, until chocolate is melted. Layer with turkey slices in a 2½-quart casserole, or on large platter. Bake in 350 degree oven about 20 minutes. Serve with rice. Yield, 8 servings.

Much of the working population that carries its lunch will appear with turkey sandwiches Friday and next week.

* * *

If anyone comes home for lunch, or you're entertaining, a hot turkey sandwich is a good choice. This one on brown 'n' serve rolls spread with deviled ham is a bit different.

HOT HAM AND TURKEY SANDWICHES

6 brown 'n serve club rolls
Butter, softened
6 teaspoons prepared mustard
1 can (4½ oz.) deviled ham
Sliced cooked turkey
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1½ cups milk
1 cup (4 oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
6 teaspoons toasted slivered almonds

Brown rolls according to package directions; cut in half lengthwise. Place in 6 individual ramekins. Spread each roll half with butter, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard and 2 teaspoons deviled ham. Cover with sliced turkey.

To prepare cheese sauce; In a 1-quart saucepan melt butter; stir in flour. Remove from heat; gradually stir in milk. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cook 2 additional minutes.

Remove from heat. Stir in cheese to melt. If necessary, return to heat to finish melting. (Do not boil.) Pour ¼ cup cheese sauce over each sandwich. Sprinkle each with 1 teaspoon almonds.

* * *

Bake in preheated 450 degree oven for 10 minutes or until cheese is bubbly. Makes 6 servings.

Cubed turkey marinated with sweet canned cherries is the base of a delicious salad. When you add celery and toasted almonds for crunchiness, the result is just about perfect.

CHERRY TURKEY SALAD

2 cups cubed cooked turkey
1 cup chopped celery
¼ cup French dressing
2 hard cooked eggs, chopped
⅓ cup slivered toasted almonds
½ cup mayonnaise
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Lettuce
2 Avocados
Lemon juice

Chill cherries. Combine turkey, celery and French dressing. Chill in refrigerator at least 1 hour. Stir in drained cherries, eggs, almonds, mayonnaise, salt and pepper.

* * *

Arrange lettuce on salad plates. Brush sliced avocado with lemon juice and arrange on lettuce leaves. Mound salad to the side and top with additional almonds if desired. Makes 6 servings.

* * *

TURKEY-CORN CASSEROLE

3 tablespoons butter or margarine
¼ cup flour
1 cup turkey broth or milk
½ teaspoon salt
pepper to taste
1 No. 2 can (2½ cups) cream style corn
2 cups turkey, cooked and diced
1 cup soft bread crumbs
¼ cup butter or margarine, melted

Melt 3 tablespoons butter and add flour. Blend and cook over low heat until bubbly. Add broth all at once and cook, stirring constantly, until thickened throughout. Season with salt and pepper.

Alternate layers of corn, turkey and sauce in a greased 1½ quart casserole, or in 6 greased individual ramekins. Blend crumbs with melted butter and use to top casserole.

Bake in oven at 350 degrees until crumbs are browned and sauce is bubbly at edge, 25 to 30 minutes.

HOT HAM AND TURKEY SANDWICH

Toast Blanched Almonds in Skillet

To toast blanched almonds, of nuts and brown lightly, stir- place a tablespoon of butter in a ring occasionally. Oil may be skilelt to melt. Add about a cup used instead of butter.

By OSWALD and JAMES JACOBY

Fred Karpin's new book, "Psychological Strategy in Bridge," includes examples of strategic bids made in the early days of contract.

JACOBY

Today's hand is from the Culbertson - Lenz match and illustrates a bid invented by Oswald Jacoby early in 1931 and used successfully in that match as the preemptive jump overcall in standard expert practice today. In 1931 Jacoby was about the only person who used it, although other experts followed along shortly thereafter. We still recommend the bid but not with quite so weak a hand as Jacoby held then.

The purpose of the preemptive weak jump overcall is to deprive your opponents of bidding space. It also is likely to excite them and cause them to misbid. The danger of the bid comes from being doubled and in which case your opponents could have made had they played the hand.

The two heart bid excited Mrs. Culbertson sitting North. She jumped to three spades. Ely Culbertson, South, bid four diamonds. From then on the bidding continued to six diamonds. Ely's four and five no-trump bids were normal. This match was played before anyone had invented an artificial four no-trump convention.

Mrs. Culbertson might well have stopped at five no-trump but she knew Ely had a good hand and could not visualize that most of his strength was in hearts.

The slam would have made except for the fact that Jacoby came up with the lead of the six of spades. He hoped to discourage a spade finesse but it turned out that Lenz held the ace. Lenz returned a spade for the setting trick. With any other suit Led Culbertson would have made all the tricks.

Q—The bidding has been:

Fatal Stabbing

SAGINAW (AP) — Police continued today to probe the knife slaying of Mrs. Ann McCrea, 82, of Saginaw. The victim's body was found Saturday by her brother, Fred Gohm of Saginaw. Police said the victim's purse, containing less than $10, was missing.

Nation to See Detroit Parade

DETROIT (AP)—The 40th annual Thanksgiving Day Santa Parade in downtown Detroit will be televised nationwide.

The high point of the J. L. Hudson Co. parade will be Santa's arrival on a turquoise sleigh at the end of the parade. He will be greeted by an escort of toy soldiers when he reaches the parade's destination at the department store

FLINT (AP) — Mayor Jerome Cavanagh of Detroit will be guest speaker Nov. 30 when the Flint Urban League observes Equal Opportunity Day. Floyd J. McCree, Urban League president and newly elected mayor, will be honored at the luncheon meeting.

Astrological Forecast

BY STOREY OMARR
For Tuesday

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): If you expect questions, skepticism . . . you won't be disappointed. Day represents challenge rather than quiet. Be prepared for decisions, possible conflict. You will be ready.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): You may find confusion in surprising areas where previously you were sure there was no doubt. Welcome change. Creative thinking can overcome problem. Don't lose confidence.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Your ability to reason comes to forefront. Try to concentrate efforts. Don't scatter forces. Make decisions based on facts. Be aware of actions and possible reactions.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Some of your plans, efforts now are solidified. Take initiative. Discuss ideas with superiors. No time to hide light under bushel. Be forthright. State needs . . . results follow.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Later today you could discover method of accomplishing goal. Key is willingness to experiment. Confide in trusted friend, family members. Light of knowledge shines bright during discussion.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Compare desires with actual requirements. Analyze needs. Be realistic. Then take steps to achieve goal. You can solve financial puzzle, have load lifted from shoulders.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Climax to recent efforts indicated. You get decision —likely to be favorable. Be willing to give time to your own project. Display confidence . . . and emote.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Methods of work must be examined. Discard old-fashioned areas of endeavor. Streamline approach. Fellow workers willing to aid. Know this and express desires.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Day features chance for constructive change. Activity connected with children, creative endeavors also accented. New start in new directions spotlighted tonight.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Some plans due to be overhauled. Don't be caught with guard down. Keep up with current events. If those around you appear secretive . . . listen, observe and draw valid conclusions.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): You are able to make contact with important persons. Fine time for appointments, special communications. Exhibit versatility, sense of humor. Be kind to relatives.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): Stress self-reliance. Others may mean well but lack proper tools. Be independent . . . lead rather than follow. Set steady pace to inspire confidence. Show you do know proper direction.

* * *

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you have what appears to be tremendous awareness. You set sights on goal and arrive at it—despite opposition.

* * *

Orientation Planned for New Legislators

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's bipartisan Legislative Council plans a two-day session next month designed to teach the state's 46 new legislators how to legislate.

During a scheduled two-day orientation period Dec. 12-13, a freshman lawmaker who knows how to get elected but may not know much else can learn:

- How to get a bill drafted;
- Who his party leaders are;
- What his party offers him;
- What his party expects of him;
- What members of the Capitol Press Corps think of him; and
- Where the Capitol Building's toilets are.

* * *

"What happens is, one day a guy wakes up and discovers he's a legislator," says Don Hoenshell, director of the Legislative Service Bureau and secretary to the Legislative Council.

SEMINAR, HANDBOOK

"He's schooled in politics, probably, or he wouldn't have been elected. But possibly he doesn't know what to do next."

So the council is offering him the two-day seminar and a "legislator's Handbook" which will tell him what the executive branch of state government does, what the state's judicial system looks like, what services and research facilities are open to him, how to go about trying to translate his campaign promises into law, and so forth.

It also will give him a badge with his name on it, so the other legislators will know who he is.

Veteran lawmakers like House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, House Minority Leader Robert Waldron and long-time Sens. Garland Lane and Frank Beadle, are scheduled to take part in the orientation program.

Revenue Commissioner Clarence Lock will tell the newcomer where the state's money comes from, and appropriations committee members will tell him where it goes.

FIRST TIME

This will be the first time a state agency has sponsored a legislative orientation program. There have been others, but those were hosted by universities or other outsiders.

The freshmen ("we don't call them freshmen anymore," Hoenshell adds, "we call them first-term legislators") will also be treated to a tour of the Capitol Building, a cocktail party (not at state expense) and a panel discussion on "as the news media view the Legislature."

Truthful, Not Honest

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) — Three Laramie boys were fined $29 each and sentenced to 15 days in jail after it was found they had stolen floodlights for their rock 'n' roll band. Appropriately, the name of the dance band is: "Ali Baba and the Thieves."

New Ulcer Aid 'Tops Milk'

DETROIT (AP) — A Detroit doctor has found a preparation he says is more effective than milk in helping to heal ulcers.

Dr. William S. Haubrich, who conducted tests with four other Detroit doctors, said the preparation contains mostly safflower oil.

* * *

Speaking to the American College of Physicians regional meeting in Detroit Saturday, Dr. Haubrich said it works better than milk in reducing stomach acidity, and unlike milk, does not increase the cholesterol level in the blood stream.

The new preparation has twice the fat content of milk but safflower oil is polyunsaturated fat and has less effect o nthe cholesterol level than milk.

* * *

Dr. Haubrich said ulcer patients, many of them restricted to diets consisting mainly of milk, had shown a slightly higher than normal rate of heart attacks. High cholesterol is thought to be a factor in the cause of heart attacks.

Young Bandit Settles for $5

DETROIT (AP)—A courteous bandit, trying for a $10 holdup, settled for $5, police reported today.

He entered a cleaning store Friday and put a pen knife to the throat of Mrs. Erma Brown, 42.

"I'm desperate. I need $10," he said.

Mrs. Brown said she was scared at first but something about the youth — about 20, wearing rumpled clothes — put her at ease.

'DO YOU MIND'

"We'll, why don't you only take $5," she said.

"Do you mind if I tie your hands?" the bandit asked.

"No please don't" said Mrs. Brown. "I have heart trouble."

"Okay, I wont,' said the youth, stuffing a cord into his pocket.

He opened the cash register, carefully removed a $5 bill from some cash, and asked for a pencil, and wrote down Mrs. Brown's name and address.

"I'll get it back to you," he said, and fled.

"He was a lot more frightened than I was," said Mrs. Brown.

HOME SAFE—Rose Marie Bradley, 7, of Panama City, Fla., who police say was offered a ride by a stranger then held captive, has a broad grin for her mother and father after being returned home safely. Police say Rose Marie was found early yesterday in a car driven by R. E. Collins of Columbia, S.C. The child was bound and gagged. She had been missing for over five hours when found.

Dem Senate Control Appears Sure for 4 Years

Although Republicans could hope to regain control of the House for the first time since 1952 with the impetus of the election of a president, the GOP's chances of getting the upper hand in the Senate would seem to require a Democratic defeat in the proportions of Barry Goldwater's 1964 disaster.

With their Senate membership boosted to 36 in the Nov. 8 election, the Republicans would have to grab 15 Democratic seats two years from now to gain a Senate majority—and the powerful committee chairmanships and other prerogatives that go with it.

Twenty-three Democratic and 11 GOP seats will be at stake in 1968. But politicians currently class as doubtful only about 10 Democratic and perhaps one Republican post.

Senatorial contests in California nearly always toss-ups. But Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, the assistant GOP leader, faces more than usual difficulties because of his failure to give public support to Republican Ronald Reagan, who won the governorship.

Connor Denies Report That He Plans to Resign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Secretary John T. Connor says he has no "present" plans to resign, despite a persistent Washington rumor that broke into print yesterday.

The denial was issued through an aide who dismissed the latest report as "a revival of an old rumor that has been kicking around for a long time."

The copyrighted report was written by Marianne Means of the King Features Syndicate and published in the Washington Post.

It attributed the information to insiders who said they were told by Connor that he planned to quit in January.

Connor, President Johnson's first Cabinet appointee, has served since December 1964. Johnson described him at the time of his appointment as "smart, loyal and patriotic." The Texas White House was unavailable for comment on Miss Means' dispatch.

DISCONTENT EVIDENT

Yesterday's disclaimer is not likely to dampen the speculation that Connor's resignation is in the works, for the secretary himself laid the groundwork with a Christian Science Monitor interview some time ago.

Wedding Plans Snuffed Out as 7 Die in Crash

LOCKNEY, Tex. (AP — Plans for a Thanksgiving week wedding were snuffed out Sunday when a Santa Fe freight train slammed into an auto carrying seven young people.

Five persons in the auto, including the bride-to-be were killed. The other two passengers, one of them the intended groom Jessie Salas, were critically injured in the accident at the Texas Panhandle town of Lockney, 80 miles southeast of Amarillo.

Salas, 17, of Lockney and Teresa Islas, 15, of nearby Floydada were to have been married today.

Killed besides Miss Islas were Emma Herrera, 17, of Lockney; Lidlia Cruz, 11, and her 3-month-old sister, Norma; and Angelina Cruz, 13, all of Shallowater.

Sweetan Leads Detroit Squad to 20-14 Win

Studstill Sets Record; Motor City Defenders Intercept 5 Passes

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Karl Sweetan won his first battle with John Unitas Sunday in a match between former sandlot quarterbacks, and the Detroit Lions won their most satisfying game of the waning NFL season.

Sweetan, with help from his front line, withstood the big rush of Ordell Braase, Gino Marchetti and company, and with the poise of a seasoned veteran moved the Lions with consistency to a 20-14 triumph.

It was a bad day for Unitas who had five of his passes intercepted by an alert Lions' secondary which in the first nine games had nine interceptions and has 10 in the last two game

Sweetan had 152 yards passing, which is below his 229-yard average since taking over from Milt Plum in Baltimore five games ago, but the former Pontiac Arrow star had three of his completions totalling 76 yards, including a beautiful picture play 57-yarder to Pat Studstill, nullified by penalties.

Studstill, however, still set a Lions' pass receiving record for one season with 1,143 yards breaking Terry Barr's record of 1,086 set in 1964. Studstill had 74 yards in four receptions yesterday, one of them a 49-yard touchdown pass from Sweetan.

Penalties and fumbles played havoc for both teams.

Sweetan then fired 20 yards to Ron Kramer to the one and from here Bobby Felts scored. Garo Yepremian converted to make it 7-0 as the period ended.

MAJOR PENALTIES

The score remained the same at halftime but during the second period, the Lions received four major penalties in four successive series of possession to hamper their offense.

Lou Michaels tried 47, 45 and 50-yard field goals in the quarter and missed, while two other Colt drives ended with Wayne Rasmussen and Dick LeBeau intercepting Unitas' passes.

An interception by Ernie Clark after the ball bounced off receiver Lorick's chest set up Yepremian's 21 yard field goal from the 21 early in the third quarter to make it 10-0.

The Lions started a drive on their own 22 and in six plays including a 12-yard rollout run by Sweetan, they scored when Studstill broke free from defenders Bobby Boyd and Chuck Logan and took a perfect bullet pass from Sweetan for his 49-yard TD jaunt.

It looked safe with a 17-0 lead, but in the fourth quarter, two Lions' fumbles then gave the Colts new life.

Falcons Flog Giants, 27-16

Atlanta Bags First NFL Victory

NEW YORK (AP) — It took the new-born Atlanta Falcons 10 games but they finally came of age as a football team Sunday at Yankee tadium.

"We knew we were ready to beat somebody," said Randy Johnson, the rookie quarterback from Texas A & I who threw three touchdown passes and scored once in a 27-16 victory over the hapless New York Giants.

"We became a team last week against Baltimore," said Norb Hecker, who left Green Bay as Vince Lombardi's assistant to take the head coaching job with the National Football League's expansion team. "After last week (a 19-7 defeat by Baltimore) we wanted this one real bad.

"My heart was pounding. What can you say? The boys really earned it. They worked hard. I'll have to remember what I wore."

Hecker has been predicting week after week that his team would win the next one. After nine wrong picks he finally came up roses.

Asked about next week's game with the Chicago Bears, Hecker said, "We're going to win it."

Ernie Wheelwright, disappointed when the Giants let him go to Atlanta in the expansion draft last winter, scored two touchdowns on Johnson passes of nine and six yards.

LOT OF PRIDE

"There were other backs that should have gone before me," Wheelwright said in the Atlanta dressing room. "Yeah, I was kind of anticipating this game all year. I really wanted to show the Giants. I didn't need anybody to ride me. I have a lot of pride and I do my best. The Giants were always on my back."

Wheelwright said he came to camp weighing 255 pounds and was told to reduce by coach Hecker. He played Sunday at 229 pounds. In addition to his two TD catches he ran 14 times for 51 yards.

* * *

Junior Coffey, a former Green Bay back who came in the same expansion draft, carried 16 times for 64 yards.

Johnson, a bonus pick of the Falcons last fall, completed 15 of 25 for 177 yards and the three TDs. He was intercepted once.

Cleveland Captures Defensive Struggle

CLEVELAND (AP) — Leroy Kelly raced 56 yards up the middle for a touchdown as the Cleveland Browns defeated the Washington Redskins 14-3 in a National Football League game Sunday.

The Redskins played control ball effectively, but were unable to score until Charlie Gogolak, the soccer style place-kicker, booted a 20-yard field goal in the third quarter.

The Browns got the ball only once in the first quarter but were able to capitalize on that one opportunity to take a seven-point lead.

* * *

The scoring drive started with Ernie Kellermann's interception of a pass by Sonny Jurgenson on the Cleveland 23. The Browns scored in nine plays, Green catching Ryan's five-yard pass in the end zone.

The Redskins moved into field goal range twice in the second quarter, but Gogolak missed on both attempts — one from 27 yards out and the other from the 39.

Green Bay Wins, 13-6

Packer Reliefer Stars

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Zeke Bratkowski, the quarterback with almost everything but a starting job, has done again what he did so well in 1965—saving a Green Bay Packers' game in relief of quarterback Bart Starr.

Starr's selfless stand-in stood up Sunday to the Chicago Bears, a team that discarded him five years ago. He fired two touchdown passes that carried the Packers to a 13-6 victory. The win gave Green Bay outright claim to the National League's Western Conference lead.

* * *

The balding Bratkowski took over for Starr at the start of the second period after the NFL's leading passer pulled a hamstring muscle. It was only the third appearance of the year for Starr's understudy and close personal friend, but Bratkowski came through with 14 completions in 25 passing attempts for a net gain of 487 yards.

His six-yard pitch to Carroll Dale put the Packers ahead in the second period and his 33-yard toss in the final quarter to the same target kept Green Bay there.

"It's pretty hard to come in there like that," said Packer Coach Vince Lombardi. "Bratkowski deserves a lot of credit."

UNCOMFORTABLE

Bratkowski, who kept Green Bay's offense intact in several games last season after injuries forced Starr to the sidelines, is clearly uncomfortable alone in the spotlight.

"I did play in a couple of games last year," said the man who was at the helm when Green Bay defeated Baltimore in last December's memorial postseason playoff game. Like Starr, Bratkowski would rather talk about the team.

* * *

"We try to be — and we are — one," he said. "We're a unit and every player on the roster of 40 players is important."

The quarterbacks are alike in many ways. Both are serious men with courtly manners and a deep intensity toward football. "They think alike," said tackle Henry Jordan. "They are students of the game."

Bratkowski and Starr discuss game plans together and analyze game films together. When Starr is playing, Bratkowski is on the sideline telephone. When Bratkowski is playing, Starr is on the sideline watching.

Both convey to one another what they see by means of friendly persuasion. Between them there is no race or rivalry.

There is a practical reason for this approach that goes beyond friendship.

"I try to prepare myself just like Bart so there isn't any big adjustment to be made and we can keep the continuity of the ball club offensively," Bratkowski said.

A long time regular for the Bears and the Los Angeles Rams before joining the Packers in 1963, Bratkowski may be better now than he ever was despite his 35 years. If he is, he gives the credit to Starr.

"The tremendous amount of study and attention to the game that Bart has," he said, "it sort of rubbed off."

Red Wings Hit Cellar After Defeat at Boston

Boston put the Wings in the basement with a 5-2 victory Sunday night that moved the Beantowners into a third place tie with New York.

In other NHL action, the Montreal Canadiens broke a five-game losing streak by defeating the Rangers at New York 2-1, and Toronto eked out a 2-2 tie with the league-leading Black Hawks.

The Bruins jumped off to a 1-0 lead over Detroit when Gil Marotte clicked on a screen shot from the blue line at 2:50 of the first period.

Two minutes later, while Marotte was in the penalty box, 18-year-old rookie Bobby Orr took a pass from Dallas Smith on a three-on-one break and scored his third goal of the season.

Andretti Wins 500-Mile Race; Jones Piles Up

Andretti, finishing more than a lap ahead of runner-up Al Unser of Albuquerque, N.M., pocketed $8,709 with his eighth first-place finish this season.

The Nazareth, Pa., driver was challenged for the lead only by Jones since winning the pole post position with a track record qualifying speed of 122.16 miles an hour. It was the first time a driver from the pole position had ever won a championship event at Phoenix International.

Jones slipped by Andretti on the 85th lap and led until the 132nd when Andretti resumed the lead. A half-lap later, Jones spun his car against the retaining wall when its engine blew, cutting the brake line. He was not injured.

2 Miscues Aid Dallas to Triumph

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Don Meredith ran for one touchdown and passed for another Sunday as the Dallas Cowboys converted a pair of Pittsburgh miscues into scores and moved into a tie for the top spot in the National Football League's Eastern Conference with a 20-7 victory.

The victory gave Dallas a 7-2-1 record and a share of No. 1 position with the St. Louis Cardinals, idle this weekend.

* * *

Pittsburgh's two offensive errors occurred in the first half and enabled the Cowboys to build a 10-0 lead over a stubborn Steeler team, which was trying to upset a contender for the third week in a row.

* * *

Dallas added a 37-yard Danny Villanueva field goal in the third quarter and a 38-yard touchdown pass play from Meredith to speedy Bob Hayes in the fourth quarter.

SECOND TD

The Cowboys struck for a touchdown early in the second quarter when Meredith circled right end for three yards and a touchdown. Villanueva's conversion put Dallas ahead, 7-0.

* * *

The first score was set up by an unusual offensive miscue by the Steelers.

Pittsburgh punter Frank Lambert dropped back to kick on a fourth down. As the ball was centered, halfback Jim Butler, running onto the field to take his position, ran behind the center and the ball hit him.

Butler scooped up the loose ball, but was down at the Pittsburgh 35. From there, Meredith went over nine plays later.

Minutes later, the Cowboys added another three-pointer by Villanueva from 27 yards out after Butler fumbled a lateral from quarterback Ron Smith on the Steeler 19.

Pittsburgh came back with its longest sustained drive of the game, going 70 yards in 11 plays and scoring on an 11-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Bill Asbury.

But the Dallas defense, led by linemen Bob Lilly and Jethro Pugh, easily contained Pittsburgh from then on.

Notre Dame Satisfied With 10-10 Tie

Try for Win 'Stupid Gamble'—Irish Coach

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

EAST LANSING — A record breaking crowd of 80,011 and the greatest press crew ever known to cover a college game, 735 press, radio and TV personnel, must be categorized as "stupid" by Notre Dame football coach Ara Parseghian.

Parseghian lashed back at the thinking to go for the win instead of the 10-10 tie with Michigan State Saturday as a "stupid gamble."

* * *

He still felt, however, that the Irish are still the No. 1 rated college team in the country, after defending his thinking as to why he ran out the clock with six straight running plays in the final 1:30 of the game.

"Everybody is making a federal case out of the last minute of the game. Our whole game plan, which was hurt by injuries was not to open up until we had good field position.

"In the last minute if we had moved to their 45 we might have gone to the air but we weren't going to gamble against percentages and lose on an interception and a possible field goal," he said.

Hanratty was lost in the first period when hit with a savage tackle by Bubba Smith. Goeddeke also went out with a leg injury in the first period. Hanratty's injury was a shoulder separation.

Eddy was injured in a freak accident. He slipped in stepping off the train, reinjured his shoulder and did not dress for the game.

YEOMAN'S JOB

Michigan State had a 10-0 lead with Jimmy Raye guiding the offense. Regis Cavender, subing for the injured Bob Apisa at fullback, did a yeoman's job.

Cavender ended a 73-yard march in the second period by going four yards. Midway in the quarter, Dick Kenney booted a 47-yard field goal.

On the ensuing kickoff, Notre Dame marched 54 yards in four plays with quarterback Coley O'Brien passing to Bob Gladieux, Eddy's replacement, for a 34-yard touchdown.

Early in the fourth quarter Notre Dame tied the score 10-10 with a 28-yard field goal by Joe Azzaro, but the Irish received a rash of breaks the rest of the way and could not capitalize.

Twice they intercepted Raye's passes, but O'Brien seemingly could not hit in the clutch and this is where Hanratty's absence was obvious.

Azzaro tried a field goal of 34 yards but it was wide with 4:50 to play.

* * *

In the final 1:30, Michigan State called time out three times hoping to get possession of the ball as Notre Dame went for the time consuming plays.

O'Brien sneaked for the final five yards as the game ended on the Notre Dame 41.

MSU coach Duffy Daugherty would not comment on Notre Dame's decision to hold the ball, but he said, "We called time out because we wanted the ball, and had no plans on going for the tie."

MSU Captain Says Spartans No. 1 Squad

EAST LANSING — Michigan State halfback Clint Jones said, "I think we're No. 1 and I think if we played Notre Dame again we could beat them."

The 6-foot, 206-pound MSU co-captain met often and violently with Irish captain Jim Lynch as the teams played their 10-10 tie.

* * *

Jones hit Lynch with a savage tackle after the Irish captain made a great interception of a pass. Lynch fumbled and Jones then recovered the ball on the Notre Dame 36 which set up the 47-yard field goal by Dick Kenney.

Coach Duffy Daugherty and the players were the center of attention at MSU's Kellogg Center Sunday and Duffy was praised on a TV show for the gamble on a fourth and one situation on his own 30-yard line.

Jimmy Raye made the first down and Duffy said, "We never had any doubts about taking that gamble. We were going for broke."

Matson Returns to Haunt 49ers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Ollie Matson returned as an old pro to the scene of his collegiate glory and scored the fourth period touchdown that gave Philadelphia a 35-34 comebacke victory over the San Francisco 49ers Sunday.

Matson grabbed a four-yard pass from King Hill, and Sam Baker booted the conversion that snatched the triumph for the Eagles after they trailed from the start of their National Football League contest.

The 49ers dominated the first half on a rainy afternoon in Kezar Stadium, leading 20-7 at the intermission. Then, with second stringers Matson at halfback and Tom Woodeshick at fullback, the Eagles began their comeback.

Matson, who starred at the University of San Francisco 15 years ago, drew a cheer from the fans when he started the Eagles on a 93-yard touchdown march with a 28-yard run. But as the game progressed, he became just another enemy.

After he scored, the 49ers had one last opportunity. It went glimmering as Tommy Davis missed a 42-yard field goal try with 1:14 remaining.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams, who went on a 55-point scoring spree against the New York Giants last week, reverted to the field goal and an awesome defense Sunday to outkick the Minnesota Vikings 21-6 in a weird and rain-drenched National Football League contest.

Place kicker Bruce Gossett booted four field goals to two by the Vikings' Fred Cox but most of the excitement for the 38,775 fans in Memorial Coliseum did not come until the final two minutes.

Gossett got his fourth field goal, the Rams got their only touchdown — set up by the defense and registered on their own fumble in the end zone — and a safety.

Quarterback Roman Gabriel, attempting to score from the three, was tackled, received a broken nose and the ball bounced into the end zone where Ram Billy Truax recovered for the touchdown.

Tie Makes Polls Look Good---Ara

SOUTH BEND — Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian, whose crippled team closes at Southern California next Saturday, said he was "anxious to see how the national AP poll develops" after the Irish-Spartan deadlock.

He commented:

"My feeling is that the rankings were sort of vindicated by our tie which indicates a pretty decent job of naming the country's two best teams."

* * *

Parseghian had a lot more to say against criticism of his game-ending freeze for the disappointing 10-10 tie. He asserted:

"Nobody has said anything about the Michigan State missing a 13-10 defeat by a margin of three feet or less in the last five minutes. Our Joe Azzaro's missed field goal by that slim margin came after Michigan State gambled with a pass from its own 20 and we intercepted.

"All these experts who said we should have thrown the bomb as the clock ran out, forget we didn't hit the bomb for 59 minutes before.

"They forget that Michigan State ran out the clock deep in its own territory at the end of the first half, even though the Spartans earlier got their one touchdown after a 42-yard pass to Gene Washington.

"And they forget any interception against us at the close could have given Dick Kenney a field goal shot within the 50." Kenney kicked one 47 yards which gave Michigan State its 10-0 lead. Last week, he had a 57-yarder just miss.

Interceptions Help Buffalo in AFL

By the Associated Press

Art Graham, Otis Taylor and George Sauer displayed sizzling pass catching ability, but when it comes to plucking passes out of the air, you can't overlook Tom Janik.

Boston's Graham snared 11 passes and Kansas City's Otis Taylor grabbed nine as the Patriots and the Chiefs battled to a 27-27 tie in the American Football League Sunday.

Sauer pulled in eight passes, gaining the league lead in that department as the New York Jets whipped Miami 30-13.

Buffalo's Janik caught only two passes, but they were thrown by Houston's Don Trull, and the interceptions were key factors in the Bills' 42-20 triumph over the Oilers.

The 26-year-old safetyman picked off his first pass in the second quarter, setting up a touchdown that put the Bills ahead 21-13. Minutes later he got in the way of another Trull aerial and this time rambled 37 yards for a touchdown.

The Bills balanced Janik's outstanding defensive performance by rolling up 508 yards on offense. Jack Kemp passed for two touchdowns and ran for another while Daryle Lamonica also threw for two scores.

Graham, who hadn't scored a touchdown since 1964, tallied twice for Boston on two of the 11 passes he caught. Babe Parilli hit him on touchdown passes of 21 and 38 yards. Taylor also scored twice, taking passes of 21 and 26 yards from Len Dawson.

New York's Sauer didn't score any touchdowns, but the 144 yards he gained on his eight receptions put the Jets into scoring territory more than once. Emerson Boozer scored twice, the second time on a 96-yard run with the second-half kickoff.

Art Powell, another of the league's top receivers, caught only one pass for Oakland, but it was an 18-yard scoring toss from Tom Flores. The Raider quarterback also threw two yards to Larry Todd for a touchdown.

Dodgers Head Home

TOKYO (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers headed for home Sunday after posting a 9-8-1 record — the poorest by a major league baseball team in Japan — during a goodwill series played before capacity crowds.

Football Bowl Officials Begin Pairing Opponents

Boilermakers Have Job of Improving League's Image

CHICAGO (AP) — Purdue finally has nailed down its first Rose Bowl bid and with it the responsibility of regaining Big Big Ten prestige which was battered along the nation's gridirons this season.

The indecision of Saturday's 10-10 tie between Big Ten champion Michigan State and top-ranked Notre Dame merely capped the worst season the Big Ten has experienced against non-conference foes.

* * *

Iowa's 44-0 loss to Florida Friday night and the Michigan State-Notre Dame tie left the Big Ten with an 11-17-1 record against outside opposition.

Now Purdue gets an opportunity to do some face saving with a victory in the Rose Bowl game. The Boilermakers clearly will take the second best team in the conference west inasmuch as Michigan State could not make a repeat trip.

LAP BEHIND

Purdue, having lost only to Michigan State and Notre Dame, finished second, one lap behind Michigan State and two games ahead of Michigan and Illinois who deadlocked for third place.

Spearheaded by quarterback Bob Griese on offense and halfback LeRoy Keyes on defense, Purdue finished with a rush after mending its defenses.

* * *

Once ranked ninth in the Big Ten defensively, Purdue finished third after blanking Wisconsin and Minnesota in succession and then yielding only six points in Saturday's windup against Indiana in a 51-6 rout.

Purdue's comparative strength against the West Coast representative in the Rose Bowl will be difficult to determine since the Boilermakers did not meet anyone from the Far West.

The West Coast probably will be represented by either UCLA or Southern California.

CRAWLING AHEAD — Eight-month-old Sandy Johnson putters along on the grass as her daddy, Drexel University's Ken Johnson (dark shirt), leads a group of runners in the Middle Atlantic Conference College Division cross country championship race in Philadelphia Saturday. 'Bama to Face Cornhuskers

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Alabama and Nebraska, the 1966 Orange Bowl combattants, get their invitations today for a rematch—but this time, in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's acceptance will come at Birmingham where Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant and 'Bama President Frank Rose meet Sugar Bowl official Charlie Zatarain at the Monday Quarterback Club luncheon.

Bryant is gunning for an unprecedented third straight national championship for his Crimson Tide following last Saturday's 10-10 deadlock between Notre Dame and Michigan State, No. 1 and No. 2, respectively in The Associated Press rankings.

Under new rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, invitations and acceptance for postseason games can not be made until 10 a.m., local time, on the Monday after the third playing Saturday in November. That's today this year.

The exception is for teams that complete their regular seasons earlier.

Alabama now sports an 8-0 record and Bryant sends his Tiders against Southern Mississippi, statistically the nation's top defensive club, this Saturday and winds up the campaign Dec. 3 in a nationally televised match with 'Bama's traditional foe, Auburn.

BOTH UNBEATEN

If both teams continue their winning streaks, it will give the Sugar Bowl its first match of unbeaten, untied teams since 1952 when Tennessee, the previous season's national champion, met Maryland, which won 28-13.

Alabama defeated Nebraska 39-28 in the 1966 Orange Bowl and claimed the national title although it had an 8-1-1 regular season record.

Bryant won the national crown the year before after a 10-0 regular season but lost to Texas in the Orange Bowl. The 1965 crown was decided after the bowl games, the previous year on regular season accomplishments.

* * *

This will be 'Bama's fifth trip to the Sugar Bowl, which will be played on Jan. 2, in 1967 because New Year's Day falls on a Sunday.

Sweetan in Charge as Detroit Triumphs

The big, 220-pound end from Syracuse took a short flat pass from Ciuozzo at the Colts 40. He had three Lions swarming all over him, broke loose, was hit again at the 50, kept his balance, was hit by LeBeau at the 20 but kept his momentum and went into the end zone for a 64-yard stand-up touchdown.

* * *

It was a 77-yard drive in three plays and with Michaels point it was 17-7.

A few minutes later, John Robinson fumbled a fair catch punt and the Colts were again in striking distance on the Detroit 16.

Lenny Moore picked up all 16 yards in two carries and Baltimore moved within 17-14 with six minutes left to play.

Sweetan then moved the team from his own 26 to the Baltimore 10 and Garo added a field goal from the 23 to complete the scoring.

Ciuozzo still had the Colts moving but the big front four of the Lions, led by Darris McCord, Larry Hand, Karras and Roger Brown, kept the pressure on him and with :58 seconds left a desperation pass to Willie Richardson bounced off the ground.

* * *

"He's getting better with every game," coach Harry Gilmer said of Sweetan," and our defense is now playing better."

It was the Lions' second straight win and they now prepare for the Thanksgiving Day clash with the 49ers Thursday.

Georgia Tech, Florida Have Date in Miami

"The teams involved should be obvious," Committee President John Ring told a news conference. For a week, the field had been narrowed to Tech-Gators and Alabama-Nebraska.

Orange Bowl officials feel that Florida's star quarterback Steve Spurrier will be a big attraction. They expressed confidence that Georgia Tech and the Gators will attract a huge television audience.

SOLD OUT

All 72,000 Orange Bowl tickets have been sold except 26,000 reserved for the two teams. Georgia Tech and Florida will receive $227,000 on the basis of last year's capacity crowd receipts. Bowl officials anticipate television will reach 17 million homes.

It will be Tech's 14th bowl appearance. The Engineers have won 10 games, losing only to Tulsa in the Orange Bowl, to Texas in the Cotton, and Missouri in the Bluebonnet.

Florida is making its sixth appearance. The Gators have won three Gator Bowl games and lost one. Last year, they bowed to Missouri in the Sugar Bowl, 20-18.

The Orange's opponent, to be announced today, will be Tennessee, Mississippi or Miami.

The Gator Bowl Commission announced Sunday that the Syracuse players voted unanimously to accept the bid.

Syracuse, which lost its first two games, then won the next eight, has one of college football's most powerful rushing attacks, built around two-time All-America fullback Floyd Little and junior fullback Larry Csonka.

UCLA, Trojan 11s Await Bowl Voting

LOS ANGELES (AP) — UCLA's surprising upset triumph over Southern California is recorded history, but coaches and players in both camps are awaiting still another equally significant decision.

Pacific 8 Conference athletic directors meet in San Francisco today to cast their ballots, naming the West's representative to play the Big Ten's Purdue in the Rose Bowl Jan. 2.

* * *

On the field Saturday, UCLA's remarkable effort against the more sizeable Trojans, producing a 14-7 victory, was the product of a brilliant performance by No. 2 quarterback Norm Dow.

Dow, called into service when Gary Beban broke a bone in his right leg a week ago, had played approximately one full game in three years. But the 6-foot, 175-pound senior was unquestionably the outstanding player in the game.

USC retaliated to tie the count on fullback Dan Scott's one-yard dive, set up by Mike Hull's 57-yard dash on the previous play.

But Dow came back to guide the decisive march. The winning points came on Cornell Champion's 21-yard run — a counter play against the flow of the Trojan defense.

Afterward, Dow sat in the locker room, cradling the game ball awarded by teammates. "It was very strange," he said. "I can't explain it. At the start of the week, I felt tremendously nervous. It was the longest week of my life.

"Then, at the start of the game I was all right all of a sudden. I felt better than I had at any time. I guess I just decided when it came down to game time that I had worried enough all week."

Of Dow's day, USC Coach John McKay said: "I'd have to say he's the best quarterback we've faced this year — at least he's the only one who made us look that bad. He certainly ran exceptionally well against us."

Golf Triumph for Miss Creed

WACO, Tex. (AP) — The women's golf tour rolled on to Augusta, Ga., but it was without little Clifford Ann Creed, who won the $10,000 Success Open here Sunday.

Miss Creed, posting a two-under-par 70 for a 54-hole total of 207, was winning her third tournament of the year. She grabbed $1,500 here to make her earnings $21,089.50 and insuring her fifth place.

* * *

She won't play the two remaining tournaments of the tour, instead. She's going to the Bahamas for an exhibition.

Big 'O' Jump Shot Wins for Royals

CINCINNATI (AP) — When the Cincinnati Royals need to get a job done they call on Oscar Robertson.

With 25 seconds remaining in their National Basketball Association game with the Baltimore Bulls Sunday night and the score tied at 123, the Royals called a time out to get up a play for the Big O.

It worked. Robertson pushed in a short jump shot to give the Royals a 125-123 victory, snapping a three-game losing streak. A desperation shot by the Bullets' Ben Warley with only two seconds left was way off its mark.

Pontiac Runners Spur Hazel Park to Harrier Win

Pontiac Northern's Mark Kay and Gene Santos were instrumental factors Saturday as the Hazel Park Rec Club won an Amateur Athletic Union Three-Mile Cross Country run at Hinds Park in Wayne.

Running for Hazel Park, Kay and Santos finished fourth and sixth in the team race as the No. 2 and 3 finishers for the winners. Kay earned a medal, also, as the 10th place runner over-all.

Young Kegler Captures First Pro Triumph

BALTIMORE (AP) — Jim Stefanich moved from fourth place to the top on the final day and won the $3,000 first prize Sunday in the $34,000 Fair Lanes Open.

It was the first victory on the Professional Bowlers Association tour for Stefanich, a 25-year-old from Chicago who now becomes eligible for the Tournament of Champions in Akron, Ohio, next spring.

Stefanich, a par golfer who was undecided between a career in the bowling lanes or on the golf courses, finished the 1966 PBA tour in 19th place with winnings of $14,570.

The leaders, with their pinfall including bonus pins, and money winnings:
1. Jim Stefanich, Chicago, 3140, $3,000
2. Dave Souter, Detroit, 9177, $1,500
3. Billy Hardwick, Louisville, Ky., 9117, $1,200
4. Bob Knipple, Long Beach, Calif., 8894, $1,150
5. Dick Weber, St. Louis, 8882, $1,100
6. Thompson, Cleveland, 8829, $1,050
7. Bill Lillard, Dallas, 8821, $1,000
8. Dick Ritger, Hartford, Wis., 8798, $950
9. Don Johnson, Kokomo, Ind., 8699, $900
10. Curt Schmidt, Ft. Wayne, Ind., 8654, $850
11. Ed Lubanski, Detroit, 8597, $800
12. Butch Gearhart, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., 8583, $750
13. Larry Lewis, San Francisco, 8511, $700
14. Tommy Tuttle, King, N. C., 8509, $650
15. Bud Horn, Los Angeles, 8479, $625
16. Dave Davis, Phoenix, Ariz., $600

During my road test of the new 4-wheel drive 'Jeep' Wagoneer for Mechanix Illustrated, I took it on a turkey shoot in the Florida Everglades. Getting there was half the fun. The Wagoneer cruised effortlessly as fast as the law allowed. Its power steering is smooth and easy; the ride soft as silk. But when I got there, I flipped it into 4-wheel drive and plunged into the muck of the swampland. This comfortable, cushy car plowed through like an assault vehicle. It was uncanny that a handsome, luxury station wagon like the Wagoneer could perform in the boondocks with the same easy-going attitude it had on the highway. It's just about the perfect all-around car—good looking, comfortable and, in 'Jeep' 4-wheel drive, it'll go just about anywhere you've got a mind to take it. What more could you ask for?

Keg Champs Sharp in Finale

The State Singles Invitational Bowling Championships at Huron Bowl Sunday weren't decided until the final three frames of the men's division and the last three games in the women's event.

Warren's Bob Lukanowski and East Detroit's Elvira Toepfer are the new champions in the second annual competition sponsored by the Michigan Bowling Proprietors Association of America.

Lukanowski, who has a 204 average in the Detroit All Star Classic, came from behind to beat Hal Jolley of Detroit by 20 pins, 5836-5816 total, after trailing by 39 going into the concluding head-to-head match.

The break for the 37-year-old Lukanowski came in the eighth frame when Jolley failed to convert a 6-10 spare. The extra 10 pins the Maples Lanes' team member lost were the difference as Lukanowski won the match, 185-176, and gained the 50 bonus pins.

The victory was worth $750 plus a trophy for Lukanowski, who is a member of Coca-Cola's 1966 Detroit City Team tournament title team. Jolley garnered $150 and a trophy.

In the women's division, Rita Modzelewski of Wyandotte led by 13 pins after the first three six-game blocks and still was on top with three games to go.

QUEEN

But Mrs. Toepfer, the reigning queen of Detroit women bowlers, blasted a 253 in her 22nd game to take the lead and pulled away in the final two games to win by 226 pins.

Now in her 27th year of bowling, Mrs. Toepfer and her Alcamo Catering teammates (from the Detroit Ladies Major League) took four of the top six places.

Pontiac area bowlers were led by Airway Lanes' pro Jim Rutkowski who finished sixth and won $70. Don Martell won $60 for seventh, Pat Sweeney $60 (eighth), and $15 winners were Art Pearson (13th), Karl Vande-Moortell (15th) and Bob Schreur (24th).

Shirley Pointer, who directed the competition for Huron Bowl, earned $15 for her 14th place among the women. Virginia Quick took 11th place and $15.

State Grid Teams End by Losing

By the Associated Press

Michigan's college football season wound up a losing note Saturday as Western Michigan and Eastern Michigan suffered losses to out-of-state foes.

West Texas State whipped the Broncos 30-7 while Ohio Northern upended Eastern 17-9. In other games, Central Michigan blanked Wayne State 44-0, and Northern Michigan played to a 7-7 deadlock with Quantico Marines.

West Texas quarterback Hank Washington, the nation's total offense leader, reinjured his already damaged throwing arm but still had enough left to hit on 15 of 20 passes for 164 yards and a touchdown as the Texans dumped WMU. He ran for 64 yards and scored a TD himself.

Ohio Northern overcame a 9-7 halftime deficit to end Eastern Michigan's five-game winning streak. Lonny Head booted a 21-yard field goal for the Hurons and Bob Edelbrock scored on a 33-yard TD scamper. Joe Petty put Ohio ahead 10-9 with a third period field goal and Northern never trailed.

LEADS CMU

The victory was Central's fifth straight after five losses in a row for retiring coach Bill Kelly.

Kelly steps down this spring after posting a career mark of 91-58-2 in 37 years. He was presented with an automobile in pregame ceremonies.

CMU rolled up 522 yards in total offense while holding WSU to 213 yards. Wayne State ended the season with a 2-6 mark.

Roy West's pass interception midway in the fourth quarter triggered a 39-yard drive to paydirt, earning Northern Michigan a tie with Quantico. Lonnie Holton scored on a one-yard burst and Tony Richardson booted the extra point.

St. Louis, 'Frisco Paired in Soccer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The University of San Francisco will play St. Louis University in the quarter-finals of the NCAA Soccer Championships at St. Louis Saturday.

In regional playoffs the past weekend USF beat San Jose State 2-1 in San Francisco and St. Louis trounced Colorado College 5-1 in Colorado Springs, Colo.

Season Ends With Win

23 Finished at 'M'

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Twenty-three University of Michigan football players have finished their eligibility, and their thoughts must be of what might have been.

The Wolverines were rolling with two straight victories when they lost to North Carolina, apparently caught looking ahead to Michigan State. Then Michigan lost to MSU.

Next, a series of mistakes cost Michigan a 22-21 loss to Purdue. The Wolverines rebounded to smash Minnesota 49-0, then downed Wisconsin.

But a 98-yard pass interception runback by Illinois beat the Wolverines in that game. They finished by beating Northwestern and clouting archrival Ohio state 17-3 Saturday.

"Take away those two plays and the whole season would be turned around," Elliott said.

POWER DISPLAY

Saturday it was halfback Jim Detwiler who put on most of the power display. The 215-pounder, playing with the flu, ran for 140 yards against Ohio State and scored a touchdown.

Rick Sygar kicked a 23-yard field goal and two extra points and quarterback Dick Vidmer hit end Clayton Wilhite for 28 yards and a touchdown.

Detwiler was used sparingly in the second half. "I had a bug," he explained. "At halftime I lost my lunch and couldn't get going in the second half.

"I should have broken more tackles, but I was weak. I ran a lot more than I usually do and that probably contributed to wearing me down."

OSU Coach Woody Hayes griped about the officiating, but paid grudging homage to the Michigan defense. "I've never seen so many balls knocked down," he said. "We tried every darn thing we knew to make that game come our way, but we couldn't do it," he said.

Captain Jack Clancy, an end, caught three passes for 59 yards and a total of 1,079 and a Big Ten record. Vidmer's six completions for 110 yards gave him the school career passing record and he's a junior. Rick Sygar broke a Big Ten record for conference extra points. The previous record of 22 was shared by Michigan kickers Jim Brieske and Harry Allis. Sygar had a total of 32 this fall without a miss.

Clancy, Detwiler, backs Carl Ward and Dave Fisher, linebacker Frank Nunley and the entire secondary of Rick Volk, Sygar, John Rowser and Mike Bass will graduate.

A 6-4 season, 4-3 in the Big Ten, is only what might have been. But at least the Wolverines beat Ohio State and handed Hayes his sixth loss to Michigan in 16 years and second losing season.

The Buckeyes finished 4-5.

Puerto Rico Golf Crown Captured by Spanish Pro

DORADO, Puerto Rico (AP) — A par 72 on Sunday's final round gave Spaniard Ramon Sota a four-round total of 284 and the Puerto Rico Open Golf championship by two strokes over Bill Collins of Purchase, N.Y.

Collins shot a 71 Sunday and earned $2,000. Sota collected $3,000.

Third place and $1,500 went to Richard Whetzle of Pikesville, Md., whose course record equaling 67, the low score of the final round, gave him 290.

Art Wall, Pocono Mano, Pa., and Canadian Murray Norman tied for fourth by shooting 72s for 291s. Each won $1,100.

The next highest American finisher was Sam Carmichael, Martinsville, Ind., who finished with a 75 for 294 and eighth place, worth $700.

Auburn Campus Cagers Top Highland Quintet

The Auburn Hills campus of Oakland Community College finished a notch ahead of OCC's Highland Lakes campus in the Schoolcraft Invitational Basketball Tournament Saturday night.

The Auburn Hills quintet came through with a 106-100 overtime decision over Highland Lakes to claim the third spot in the six-team tournament.

Auburn Hills and Highland Lakes deadlocked 90-all at the end of regulation play, but the Nikes found the range in the overtime session and tossed 16 points through to sew up the win.

John Olander tossed in 26 for the losers, followed by Willie Craft and Ed Pruitt with 25 apiece.

McCoskey, Patterson, Pruitt and Larry Pratt were named to the eight-man All-Tourney team. Loraine's Steve Schrader took the Most Valuable Player award.

In a Friday Michigan Christian College Athletic Association contest, Midwestern Baptist trimmed Great Lakes Bible School, 92-55, at Lansing for its first cage win in four starts.

The two schools battled to a 1-1 tie in two overtime periods Saturday. Vermont took third place by defeating Lynchburg, Va., 2-1.

Arnie Charges to Slim Victory in Houston Golf

Palmer Cans Pressure Putt on 18th Hole for One-Shot Win

HOUSTON (AP) — When the people root for a millionaire over an average guy, then the money bags man must be something special.

The personable, usually smiling golf pro had Arnie's Army rooting for him to win the $110,000 Houston Champions International Golf Tournament Sunday and he obliged by sinking a pressure-packed 12-foot putt for a birdie 3 on the 18th hole to win by a stroke over Gardner Dickinson Jr.

An estimated crowd of 30,000 swarmed over the beautiful grounds of the immaculately groomed 7,118-yard par 36-35 layout of the Champions Golf Club and most of the spectators tried to follow Palmer on a perfect, summery day.

The 37-year-old son of a golf pro from Latrobe, Pa., has had his army since 1960 when he scored eight victories including triumphs in the Masters and the U.S. Open.

When his putting is on the beam, Palmer is virtually unbeatable. His putting was on the beam for the final, dramatic round of the Houston tourney, last of the big money individual completion of the year.

Palmer was sitting in the press room after his final round of 34-35—69 for 275, nine strokes under par, when Dickinson, a hungary-looking, 5-foot-11, 130-pounder who hadn't won a regular pro tournament since 1962, strode to the 18th needing a par 4 to tie Palmer and force a sudden death playoff.

Dickinson, a 39-year-old Alabama native playing out of Lost Tree Village, Fla., got off a good drive on the 428-yard hole. He flubbed his second shot, however, sending it to the right.

He chipped weakly and was short of the green on his third. Then he chipped boldly from about 30 feet out. The ball slid about three inches past the hole.

"Whew," exclaimed Palmer, "that was close. A real good try."

News in Brief

Uncertainties Aid Decline

Stock Market Falls Sharply

NEW YORK (AP) — Afflicted by discouraging economic news and uncertainties about a possible tax increase, the stock market fell sharply today. Trading was fairly active early this afternoon.

General Motors was delayed in opening due to a heavy accumulation of sell orders. It dropped 1 to 68¾ on an opening block of 30,400 shares and extended its loss fractionally in later trading.

* * *

GM's decision to cut back January was part of the picture of declining sales in the auto industry. A drop in housing starts, a decline in new orders for durable goods and reports of a more selective attitude by consumers in the booming color television business were cited as factors in the market decline.

* * *

UNWELCOME NEWS

News that the Johnson Administration is on the threshold of deciding whether or not to boost taxes produced the kind of uncertainty that Wall Street dislikes heartily.

Prices slid on the American Stock Exchange in active trading. Walter Kidde lost about 4, Williams Brothers 3, Ameco, Rollins Inc. and Syntex about 2 each. Solitron Devices gained 4 points.

Japan Group, China OK Pact

$200-Million Accord Is Last Phase in Plan

TOKYO (AP) — A private Japanese group and Communist China signed a 1967 trade agreement ni Peking today totaling slightly less than $200 million, the Kyodo news service said.

The agreement is the fifth and last phase of a long-term trade plan representatives of the two countries drew up in an unofficial memorandum in 1962.

Kyodo said details of the agreement were not made public.

The total two-way trade, it said, represented a drop compared with the 1966 agreed total of $204 million.

DIFFERENCE

Kyodo said it is understood the 1967 trade would differ very little in import and export items.

It said Japan's contracted import of Chinese rice, which amounted to 300,000 tons in 1966, is expected to amount to 200,000 tons in 1967.

Japanese trade with Communist China is also conducted by other groups and firms not affected by the 1962 Japan-China trade memorandum.

The total two-way trade between Japan and Red China amounted to $469 million in 1965. It registered $320 million in the first half of 1966 — an increase of 41 per cent over last year's corresponding period.

Draft Parley Asks Broader Objector Law

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP) — A college-sponsored conference on the Selective Service System adopted a resolution calling for a more liberal definition of a conscientious objector after three students walked out in protest.

One of those who walked out, Frank Shaffer, a student at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis., said the proposed change would "allow a person to be draft-exempt if he didn't want to serve in a particular war."

The proposal asks that a man be exempted as a conscientious objector if he has personal philosophic or moral objections to a war.

* * *

"In our society we just can't allow a person to decide which war he will serve in," Shaffer said.

ACT AS INDIVIDUALS

But Shaffer and Yale students Lanny Davis of Jersey City, N.J., and John Rothchild of St. Petersburg, Fla., said one reason for their walkout was that they could not commit their schools to the actions of the conference.

Business Notes

Black Nov. 17 for Firm

Unison in Trading Eyed

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

CUNNIFF

NEW YORK — On the very day that a meeting was under way on the growing power of institutional investors, 25 per cent of the stock in a certain company was traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

The amount was almost unbelievable. And it could only have occurred through trading by the big share owners; that is, through activity of the institutions. Among these are mutual funds, pension funds, trusts.

The company, Fairchild Camera & Instrument Corp., has less than 3 million shares outstanding. More than 562,000 of them changed hands in a few hours Nov. 17. The price plunged $19.62 to $106.75.

About the same time, in an unrelated event, a speaker told the meeting on institutional investing that "Apparently it is worrisome to the observers of the market to find we tend to buy and sell somewhat in unison."

NOT CONFINED

The worry isn't confined to observers. It includes the exchanges, investment houses, federal officials and small investors. It includes as well the institutions, which have been proud of their role as stabilizers.

* * *

Such dips would have been considered amazing a few years ago, but big price changes became common this year. Among the reasons:

1. Institutional ownership is increasing. Fully one-third of all stock now listed is owned by institutions or trusts.

* * *

2. These institutions are trading more often than in the past. Official figures show the turnover rates for some have doubled in 10 years.

3. Institutions tend to congregate in certain stocks and often trade them at the same time. Considerable institution money this year has been invested in a well-known list of glamor stocks.

MAY BE CAUSED

Declines may be caused by any very large fund unloading its shares at once. When institutions act in unison it can have a devastating effect. And, because they read the same storm signals, they may sell at the same time.

* * *

The mere selling by one institution can influence another. If a fund trader holds a certain stock he cannot ignore a sale of that stock by a competitor fund, for a sale might lower the price. Funds, therefore, watch each other.

"Our trading operation is an intelligence and counterintelligence operation," said the head of a very large mutual fund group privately.

* * *

"The name of the game today is to use money effectively at all times," he said. "All of us are members of analysts societies, and analysts trade information and judgments back and forth." But, he said, not the timing.

PERFORMANCE MANIA

This becomes more important during the so-called performance mania. Institutions once held stocks for years. Now they trade in and out so that they can always show the best performance at any time.

Nobody can say for sure why selling commenced in Fairchild, but the decline began as rumors spread that prices might be cut in integrated circuits, one of the products that put Fairchild in the glamor category.

* * *

Other manufacturers were hurt also. Texas Instruments dropped more than $15 and Motorola more than $10. All make integrated circuits, miniaturized electronic units used in television sets and satellites.

Tremendous blocks were unloaded, one of them more than 100,000 shares. This could not have been accomplished by small traders, most of whom had not even heard the apparent reason for selling.

NOT AS EVIDENT

The "unison" activity generally is not as evident as stock is purchased, for it can be accumulated slowly. But when it is unloaded it is dropped with a rush. Timing is important. Quickness in acting is essential.

"The concrete information is on the sell side more often than on the buy side," said the mutual fund man. And frequently that sign is an indication that earnings might not be as good as anticipated.

* * *

The institutions can be stabilizers, especially when they slow a rapidly declining market. But they present problems, too.

Church Belle Not Likely to Skirt Issues

They did not get them, but Judith Rydings, 23, had some new sounding things to say about preachers' wives.

"I see no reason why vicars' wives should be dowdy," Mrs. Rydings said. "I think the church must create a modern image.

* * *

"I want the teen-agers' confidence, and I think I'm getting it. I should add that I'm very flattered."

Her husband is the Rev. Donald Rydings of St. Mark's, an Anglican church in nearby Bourne End. Now serving as church missioner, he will be inducted as vicar next month.

With her mini-skirt, pretty Mrs. Rydings wore black fishnet stockings studded with diamond designs and her dark hair cut in a short bob.

SHE'S DIFFERENT!

Not Mrs. Rydings.

"Religion doesn't have to be stodgy," she said in an interview. "There is no need to leave the rest of the world outside when one goes to church.

* * *

"I always try to be up-to-the-minute in fashion. My ideas may have caused quite a stir in the village, but I think the locals are now beginning to accept them."

She said her husband approves of her attitude.

* * *

He commented: "The image of a conventional vicar's wife is more in the minds of the people than anything else —and particularly in the minds of people who do not go to church very often."

Fire Kills Five Indian Children

GLEICHEN, Alta. (AP) — Two Indian families wept helplessly early Sunday as fire took the lives of five children 2 to 5 years old.

Five adults in the living room of the house were cut off by a wall of flame from the bedroom where the children were sleeping.

The adults ran into the bleak fields surrounding the house on the Blackfoot Indian Reserve 50 miles east of Calgary. Three children in the house also escaped.

The dead were Justine Raw Eater, 5; her sisters, Doreen 4, and Lucille, 2½; and two other sisters, Gail Spencer, 5, and Carol, 2.

TWO ATTEMPTS

The mother of three of the dead children, Cecelia Raw Eater, 47, made two attempts to enter the blazing house but each time was driven back by the heat and smoke. Her husband, John David, was not at home.

Police said an overturned heater may have started the fire.

Mrs. Raw Eater was taken to a Calgary hospital. She was reported in satisfactory condition with burns to her hands.

Steps Are Taken to Free Vessel

Salvage crews from a Detroit firm were ordered to transfer the 470-foot ship's cargo of coiled steel to another vessel for transport to Chicago.

The Nordmeer's engine room and four holds became flooded after the vessel went aground Saturday night on Thunder Bay shoal about 20 miles east of Alpena.

Fear of Germany Outdated, Says British Official

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Secretary George Brown today called West Germany's leaders "genuine democrats and internationalists" and said the dislike and fear some countries felt about Germany was an example of out-of-date history being a bad teacher.

Brown made the statement shortly before taking off on a mission to Moscow. He spoke at the opening session of an editorial conference organized by the International Publishing Corp.

Brown said so many people have suffered in the past half-century in the wars with Germany that it is not surprising that fear and dislike dominate their feelings.

"But feelings can be a very poor counsellor," he said, "and anyone who has studied Germany today knows how different it is from the Germany of the two world wars."

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I would like to start an investment program in growth stocks for the education of my three small children. I have considered Radio Corp. of America and National Steel. What is your opinion of these two stocks or would you recommend something else? We have a few hundred dollars to start with." H.H.

A. I believe it is vitally important that you learn at the outset to differentiate between growth and cyclical issues.

True growth stocks are those which over a period of years have established a record of consistent gains in earnings, dividends and price at a faster rate than the economy as a whole. Cyclical issues are shares which are closely tied to the major up and down moves in business.

National Steel is a cyclical stock as are all others in its group. It is a sound stock for income but it is unlikely to enhance your capital in the years ahead. RCA shows an excellent picture of growth and would qualify for your objective. For a second choice, I suggest Bristol-Myers, which has an unusual record of earnings expansion and has increased in price over 1500 per cent during the past decade.

Q. "I'm a senior in college and recently made my first purchase — 100 shares of General Public Service at 5⅞. A few days later you advised an investor against buying low-priced stocks. Naturally I am quite concerned. Would you advise me to sell?" D.H.

A. I'm afraid that you misunderstood my remarks about low-priced stocks. In the column to which you refer, I advised specifically against buying low-priced speculative stocks. Your General Public Service is a closed-end investment company and its price is closely related to its net asset value. The shares are not speculative. They offer a relatively good return from investment income and security profits. I advise you to hold.

Show People Are Targets for Wave of Death Threats

By EARL WILSON

WILSON

Detectives were interviewing Phil Greenwald, entertainment director of the Hotel Concord, about threatening him with bullets if he booked Jackie Mason— and just then he got another one. Detectives listened in.

And model Barbara McKee of the 7th Av. Set has just had a man jailed for threatening to meet her at her subway stop and break her arms and legs.

The marriage of Alan Jay Lerner to Karen Gundersen, 31, assistant editor of Newsweek, resulted from a romance that began as a magazine assignment. Miss Gundersen was doing an article on Barbara Harris of Lerner's show, "On A Clear Day," in September 1965.

Bulgaria Displays Schizophrenic Trait

By TOM CULLEN
European Staff Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

SOFIA, Bulgaria — When it comes to head-nodding, yes means no and no means yes in Communist Bulgaria.

Take tourism, for example. The Bulgarians have gone to a lot of expense to attract tourists to the Black Sea coast.

New seaside resorts with improbable names like Golden Sands and Sunny Beach have sprung up overnight, complete with modern hotels, nightclubs, open air cinemas, paddle pools for the kiddies.

CIA AGENT

The American businessman-type who is busy photographing the girls in their bikinis on Golden Sands beach is obviously a CIA agent, the public is told.

At a time when the other eastern European countries, notably Romania, are asserting their independence, Bulgaria, with a population of 8 million, still remains firmly tied to Russia.

It is the most Soviet of all the satellite states.

INFLUENCE EVIDENT

The Russian influence is evident in everything from the architecture of Sofia's main buildings (Stalin Gothic) to the compulsory teaching of the Russian language in Bulgarian schools.

As a reminder that the personality cult is not entirely dead there is the tomb, here in Sofia, of Georgi Dimitrov, founder of the Bulgarian People's Republic, who lies embalmed in a blue serge suit in a temple specially built for him.

PROTEGE OF NIKITA

A protege of Khrushchev, Zhivkov, who is 55, has found it hard to move with the times.

For example, he still insists upon heading both the government and the Communist party.

In Poland, Hungary, Romania and Czechoslovakia these jobs are split between two men, the real power being the party first secretary.

On the other hand, Zhivkov is passing up party stalwarts in order to promote technocrat-minded younger men for important jobs.

GROWTH RATE

Thanks to his liberal economic policy, Bulgaria now has the highest growth rate (15 per cent) of any Iron Curtain country.

Bulgaria is two years up on technically advanced Czechoslovakia when it comes to introducting the so-called new economic management reforms.

The number of foreign visitors to Bulgaria is expected to total 1.5 million this year, which is triple the number in 1963.

TOURIST SPENDING

These tourists will have left behind them $40 million, according to present estimates. This is still only one-third of the intake of Yugoslavia, but the trend is on the upgrade.

More important still is the influence these tourists are having on the Bulgarian people and on the Bulgarian people.

LAST BARRIER

But in time these restrictions are expected to meet the fate they have met elsewhere in Eastern Europe.

Who knows when, at some future date, Bulgarians will nod their heads yes and may actually mean yes?

Holiday Switch: Indians Do Inviting

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — In a reversal of the first Thanksgiving in this nation, the white man will sit down Thursday as guest of Indians near Scottsdale.

Pima Indians have invited officials of Phoenix and nearby cities to share their Thanksgiving feast on the Salt River Indian reservation.

Ford Removes Himself From VP Contention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Gerald R. Ford, House Republican leader, says "I have absolutely no interest whatsoever in running for vice president."

Ford, in an interview, said his "future is here, in the House of Representatives." He said he hopes to be speaker of the House some day.

While disclaiming any ambitions to become vice president, the 53-year-old Ford, of Grand Rapids, described Gov. George Romney as "the front runner" for the 1968 presidential nomination.

"This doesn't automatically mean Gov. Romney will get the nomination," Ford said. "He will have to work for it."

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY SON Arlie Slade, who passed away 2 years ago Nov. 20, 1964.
You are not forgotten loved one, for will you ever be,
as long as life and memories last,
you will remember thee.
We miss you now our hearts are sore,
as time goes by we miss you more,
Your loving smile your gentle face,
no one can fill your vacant place.

Kid Is Sin-cere and Has a Point

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mrs. A. T. Dinwiddie asked her Sunday School class what "you must do before you obtain forgiveness of sin."

There was a pause. Finally one 6-year-old timidly held up his hand and said: "Sin."

Hunter Kills 5 Sitting Swans

SOMERS, N.Y. (UPI)—A Polish immigrant slaughtered a family of five sitting swans yesterday to provide a "real American dinner" for Thanksgiving, police said.

The hunter said he thought they were geese.

As horrified spectators on the shore of Muscoot Reservoir pleaded with him to stop, he fired a shotgun at the white swans from close range from a boat. One witness said he was told to mind his own business.

State police arrested Romuald Sicinski, 38, of New York, and charged him with violation of the federal migratory bird act and New York state conservation laws.

* * *

"I didn't know I was breaking the law," Sicinski, a U.S. resident since 1959, said. "They looked just like gooses to me and I have a goose-shooting license. I just wanted to celebrate Thanksgiving with a real American dinner."

Conservation officials said the swan colony were North American whistling swans and consisted of a father, a mother and three 1-year-old cygnets.

Sicinski was released in $80 bond. He could be fined $187.50 if found guilty.

Officer Refuses to Tell Probers Who Threw Gas

HIGHLAND PARK (AP)—After 18 days of investigation, Highland Park police still are trying to learn the identity of the officer who tossed a tear gas shell into a private home.

Lt. Donald Ashcroft, in command of police the night of a raid on the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson, was found guilty Thursday of a related charge. He has refused to tell his superiors who tossed the tear gas.

SUSPENDED

Ashcroft was suspended Nov. 4 and charged with withholding information from superior officers because no record of the incident was made in the daily police log.

* * *

Ashcroft acknowledged he had led officers to the Hudson home on suspicions that it was a gambling place. He also said the house had been gassed.

* * *

Capt. Edwin Usher, head of the uniform division, said when Ashcroft was asked the name of the officer who threw the tear gas shell, the lieutenant replied, "I do not think I should commit myself."

Sixty Years on the Road

FLORHAM PARK, N.J. (AP) — After 60 years of driving, William Hockenjos has surrendered his driver's license at the age of 96.

The New Jersey Auto Club honored its long-time member with a luncheon after he recently returned his annual membership bill along with a note which read:

"I'm returning the bill because I am 96 and I think it's about time I stopped driving."

Triton Moon Is on Crash Path

By Science Service

CHICAGO — Triton, the larger of Neptune's two moons, is on a collision path that will crash it into the planet or break it into pieces to form a ring like the rings around Saturn.

* * *

The event will not occur for at least 10 million years, and perhaps not for a billion years, Thomas B. McCord, a California Institute of Technology graduate, has calculated.

Considering that the solar system has existed for nearly five billion years, 10 million years is actually a very short time.

Astronomers are especially interested in Neptune and its two moons because Triton, the nearer and larger, has a retrograde orbit while Nereid, the smaller and more distant, has a highly elliptical orbit.

Hoover to Testify? Ruling Due Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Whether FBI Chief J. Edgar Hoover must testify on his agents' admitted violation of Robert G. (Bobby) Baker's constitutional rights was expected to be decided in a federal court ruling today.

* * *

The sensitive and potentially explosive issue centers on the testimony of FBI agents that they eavesdropped electronically on secret conversations in Washington, Las Vegas and Florida in which Baker participated or was mentioned.

Justice Department attorney William Bittman later stipulated — for the record — in a private bench session with U.S. District Judge Oliver Gasch and Baker's lawyer, Edward Bennet Williams, that the eavesdropping violated Baker's constitutional rights.

MISSING—New York Congressman Adam Clayton Powell, ordered to surrender Wednesday to begin serving a 30-day jail sentence and pay a $500 fine on his conviction for criminal contempt of court, was missing from his Harlem pulpit yesterday. The order, to be appealed tomorrow, allows authorities to arrest Powell at any time—even on Sundays or when Congress is in session.

Tentative OK Averts Radio-TV Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Two performers unions and four broadcasting networks reached a tentative contract agreement Sunday night, averting a strike threatened for midnight.

* * *

Negotiating sessions went on throughout the day and, at 9:15 p.m., federal mediator Abraham A. Desser announced a settlement.

The announcement indicated that the 17,500 members of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists and the 18,000 members of the Screen Actors Guild would remain on the job pending membership votes.

There was no immediate comment from the two unions or the networks involved — the National Broadcasting Co., the Columbia Broadcasting System, the American Broadcasting Co. and the Mutual Radio Network.

* * *

Terms of the settlement were not made public.

Powell Not in His Pulpit

NEW YORK (UPI) — Last week, the Rev. Adam Clayton Powell told his congregation he'd be back in the pulpit this week, "the Lord willing and the judges not preventing." Powell never showed yesterday.

It wasn't really certain where the congressman-clergyman spent the Sabbath day. It was only certain that he didn't show at Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church.

Powell has been ordered to surrender to the sheriff Wednesday to begin serving a 30-day jail sentence and pay a $500 fine on his conviction for criminal contempt of court for refusing to pay a $164,000 defamation of character judgment won by a harlem widow.

This order, to be appealed tomorrow, allows authorities to arrest Powell at any time—even on Sundays, or when Congress is in session.

Three previous civil arrest orders stemming from the same case were inapplicable on Sundays or on weekdays when the Congress was meeting because of Powell's congressional immunity from arrest.

Reagan 'Not After Presidency in 1968'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Gov.-elect Ronald Reagan of California says he won't seek the Republican presidential nomination in 1968.

"I have a four-year contract with the people of California," Reagan said on a television interview program, broadcast Sunday.

Reagan said he believes former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. George Romney of Michigan are the front-runners for the nomination.

German Right Gains; Big Parties May Join

BONN, Germany (AP) — Sensational gains by West Germany's new ultranationalist party in the Bavarian state elections yesterday increased the chances of a "gradn coalition" of the Christian Democrats and Socialists to form a new national government.

Pressure mounted on the two big parties to end the 26-day government crisis by agreeing on a new chancellor and to agree on a revised election law that would keep the Nazi-tainted National Democratic party out of the federal parliament's lower house, the Bundestag.

The present system of proportional representation could give the National Democrats 36 or more of the 496 Bundestag seats when a national election is held if they repeat their recent success in two state elections.

A law giving more weight to majority voting could keep them out of the Bundestag.

In their second success at the polls in two weeks, the National Democrats became the third strongest party in West Germany's second most populous state by winning 7.4 per cent of a record Bavarian vote and 15 seats in the legislature.

They won 7.9 per cent of the vote and eight legislative seats in Hesse state Nov. 6.

As National Democrat leaders celebrated with cognac and champagne and calle for new national elections, party chairman Friedrich Thielen boasted that the National Democrats "will be represented in all German parliaments."

'TO GROWN STRONGER'

Erich Mende, national chairman of the Free Democrats, said the National Democrats showing represented a protest against the Bonn crisis. But he added, "unfortunately, the NPD will grow stronger and mightier from election to election."

Mende brought on the crisis Oct. 27 by taking himself and the three other Free Democratic ministers out of the Cabinet to protest proposed tax increases.

Chancellor Ludwig Erhard finally agreed to step aside for someone who could form a majority in the Bundestag.

The election was a personal victory for Franz Josef Strauss, chairman of the Christian Democrats' Bavarian branch. His Christian Social Union won 48.2 per cent of the vote and kept its legislative majority with 110 seats, two more than it got four years ago.

SHUT OUT

The Socialists kept their 79 seats. The Free Deomcrats and the Bavarian party which had together held 17 seats, were shut out of the new legislature.

That gave the Free Democrats, the third party in the Budestag, considerably less weight in negotiations with the Christian Democrats and Socialists over a new chancellor.

Strauss, whose party vied with the National Democrats for the ultra-conservative vote, commented: "The results are an answer to all those who have tried to pull Germany through the

Rocky, Romney to Discuss Ways to Strengthen GOP

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and George Romney of Michigan were to meet in a resort hotel today to discuss whether "consensus" or "leadership" is the best way to strengthen the Republican party.

The two Republicans agree that recently elected GOP governors will play an influential role in national affairs and in shaping the strategy of the Republican party for the next two years but disagree on methods.

Romney, considered a likely candidate for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, said when he arrived here yesterday that the party needs "leadership."

Rockefeller has said in recent statements that the GOP needs to achieve a "consensus."

Romney and his wife, who plan a two-week vacation here, were to join Rockefeller and his wife for lunch today. The Rockefellers have been vacationing in the area the past 10 days.

Romney said he had not planned a meeting with Rockefeller and that their encounter here was just a coincidence. But he acknowledged that their talks would concern politics and the future of the Republican party.

Commenting on Rockefeller's "consensus" idea, Romney said: "That's Rockefeller's word. I think what we need is leadership."

In an apparent reference to President Johnson, he added: "I identify the word consensus with someone who has not fared too well with consensus recently."

Romney said the Republican governors "have shown the people that the party can provide better solutions to national problems."

REAGAN'S COMMENT

On a radio-television program yesterday, California's Gov.-elect Ronald Reagon said it is too early "to evaluate who will rise above all" to be the GOP candidate.

Romney Leads LBJ in Poll Across Nation

In a poll conducted by Harris after the Nov. 8 elections, voters favored Romney over Johnson 54 per cent to 46 per cent.

In the same poll, Johnson easily outdistanced the other Republicans considered conteaders for the GOP presidential nomination in 1968.

WIDE MARGIN

He was the choice of 43 per cent of the Republicans, compared with 28 per cent for the runnerup, Richard M. Nixon.

And the poll found that while in September, 54 per cent of the Republican voters thought their party could win the presidency in 1968, 70 per cent thought so after November's Congressional elections, in which the GOP made substantial gains.

New JFK Death Probe Urged

NEW YORK (AP) — Life magazine has called for a new investigation of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, contending there is "reasonable doubt" that Lee Harvey Oswald acted alone, as the commission headed by U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren ruled.

The magazine, in this week's edition out today, says evidence shows "that reasonable — and disturbing — doubt remains.

"One conclusion is inescapable," Life said. "The national interest deserves clear resolution of the doubts. A new investigating body should be set up, perhaps at the initiative of Congress.

"In a scrupulously objective and unhurried atmosphere, without the pressure to give reassurance to a shocked country, it should reexamine the evidence and consider other evidence the Warren Commission failed to evaluate."

The magazine said Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who was riding with Kennedy in the Dallas motorcade Nov. 22, 1963, and was wounded himself, was certain that he and Kennedy were hit by two different bullets, not one as the Warren Commission determined.

Romeo Greets Changes With Mixed Reaction

A small, Macomb County town of 3,500 persons, Romeo — once a thriving community — sustained a severe blow to its economic health when industry left with the advent of the motorcar.

Today, however, the car and its influence are on the brink of injecting new life into the town.

Changes of any kind provoke a mixed reaction. Some residents welcome the new plant at the east end of town, others are not so sure of its benefits.

Rifle Shot Fatal to Young Hunter From Pontiac

A Pontiac youth is dead following a deer-hunting mishap this weekend 20 miles south of Cheboygan in which he was shot in the abdomen with a high-powered rifle.

Larry A. Pugh, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pugh of 172 Whitfield, died at 6:05 p.m. Saturday at Cheboygan Community Memorial Hospital, about 90 minutes after he was hit.

Cheboygan State Police said the youth was with a brother and a cousin when a doe broke from cover and ran through a "heavily hunted" area.

At least three shots were fired, police said, one of them striking young Pugh in the hip and deflecting through his groin. It was not immediately determined from which gun the bullet came, police said.

New Pontiac School Program Aims at Underachiever Pupil

By PAT McCARTY

Mobilization of community and educational resources behind Wilson Elementary School pupils beginning this week with initiation of Project One Hundred.

Cosponsored by the Pontiac Area Urban League, the Pontiac School System and the Wilson PTA, the project is unique among local community school programs.

Unlike other community schools, Wilson will concentrate on providing the kind of background pupils need to improve their levels of achievement.

Community school programs thus far introduced in Pontiac have placed strong emphasis on enriching the lives of adults.

WAS PRESENTED

Majority of the $20,000 budget is used for salaries. Huevon Peery is serving as community school director on a half-time basis until he can be completely released from his industrial arts teaching duties at Jefferson Junior High School.

If successful, the program will play a major role in dissolving an environment which creates what Urban League executive director Clarence E. Barnes identifies as "social zombies — persons who do not have the ability to use the social system effectively."

SOCIAL WORK

The Urban League's contribution to the project will include social work experience and organization of community resources.

One feature of the program will be home visitations by teachers, a liaison worker and parents working on a part-time basis.

While teachers can be released from classes to make the visitations, many have volunteered to do so on their own time, according to Wilson Principal David Crawford.

Aiming at 100 per cent community involvement, paid and volunteer workers on the project must take into account 289 family units which provide the school's 629 - pupil enrollment.

Adult discussion sessions dealing with child growth and development are to begin next week. Eventually, these will include field trips to other area school districts to give parents a standard of comparison.

Other activities will include arranging for adults to work on a one-to-one basis with youngsters from broken homes.

Reward luncheons are to be held once a month for the youngsters demonstrating the greatest academic and scholastic improvement.

N. Viet Infiltration Rate Put at 7,000 Men Monthly

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communists are moving an average of 7,000 troops a month from North to South Viet Nam and the infiltration rate is apt to go even higher soon, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, said in an interview published today.

Westmoreland's figure on monthly infiltration is substantially higher than the 4,500 to 5,000 estimate reported for months by the Defense Department.

In a copyright interview in U.S. News and World Report, Westmoreland said, "it is likely that, when the good weather period arrives in the Laos panhandle in the near future, there will be an increase in infiltration."

Westmoreland said he believes that a great many of the troops moving south from North Viet Nam "are being used to fill up the depleted ranks of the units that are now in the country—depleted by combat casualties, illness, desertion and defection.

The U.S. commander estimated there are now about 50,000 North Vietnamese regular army troops in South Viet Nam, organized into five divisions.

On the battlefield, Westmoreland said, "the initiative has swung to our side."

But he added, "we will need more troops. We will need more helicopters and means of giving these troops mobility." He gave no figures.

Shoppers, Beware! Rain Likely Tuesday

Thanksgiving shoppers should be prepared for an occasional shower tomorrow as south to southwesterly winds will chase today's sunshine under a cloud cover.

The weatherman predicts Wednesday temperatures will drop and clouds may bring more rain.

The lowest thermometer reading in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 28. By 1 p.m. sunshine had warmed the mercury to 44.

Late-Breaking News Briefs at a Glance

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley today filed suit against the State of Ohio in the U.S. Supreme Court to recover a triangular, 200 - square - mile piece of Lake Erie — subject of a 130-year dispute.

The suit, in response to a resolution sponsored by Rep. Raymond Kehers of Monroe and passed by both houses of the Michigan Legislature, asks the Supreme Court to confirm the jurisdiction and sovereignty of Michigan over the disputed area.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court stayed today a three-judge federal court ruling that the Georgia Legislature cannot elect that state's next governor.

The effect is to freeze the tangled Georgia election situation until at least Dec. 5, the date set by the Supreme Court for hearing argument.

The three-judge court in Atlanta on Nov. 17 ruled unconstitutional a Georgia Constitution provision that the legislature choose between two top candidates when no candidate for governor gets a majority of the popular vote.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Forty-eight public schools here and in nearby Hubbard were closed today by a teachers' strike which affected 40,000 pupils.

The strike by teachers' union members in both communities gained support from school bus drivers and truckers who make deliveries to the schools.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. air cavalrymen clashed with North Vietnamese soldiers in close-quarter fighting today in the central highlands and reported killing 102 of the enemy.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. military command said the battle broke out when a platoon of the 1st Cavalry, Air-mobile, Division was attacked at hand grenade range by a "sizable" North Vietnamese force.

The action, part of Operation Paul Revere 4, raged 22 miles southwest of the U.S. Army Special Forces camp at Plei Djereng, scene of North Vietnamese probes and skirmishes for more than a week.

KOREAN MARINES

Ground action was reported light elsewhere, but Korean marines operating near the South China Sea coast reported killing 91 Viet Cong Sunday in a two-and-a-half-hour battle seven miles northwest of Quang Ngai City. A Korean spokesman said the marines clashed with a reinforced Viet Cong company of 200 men, the largest enemy unit they have met since moving into the area last August.

★ ★ ★

In the air, Guam-based B52 bombers staged three raids today on enemy positions in South Viet Nam, two of them in Communist War Zone C in Tay Ninh Province.

A few hours after the giant Stratoforts struck, 1,200 men of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division were lifted by helicopter into the target area, moving to within 1,500 yards of the Cambodian border.

ACROSS BORDER

Brig. Gen. G. G. O'Connor, the assistant division commander, said his forces would continue to search for the Viet Cong in the area "but it seems now that they have fled across the border for sanctuary."

The 25th Division troops are part of the largest U.S. ground force of the war operating in Tay Ninh Province in Operation Attleboro to hunt down the Viet Cong 9th Division. U.S. forces have reported killing 1,068 Viet Cong in the operation.

The U.S. Air Force announced it has flown 1,333 tactical strikes in support of Operation Attleboro, a new high for a single operation. B52 bombers also have struck Tay Ninh Province for 13 of the last 14 days.

SINGS OF THE GOOD LIFE—A 17-year-old South Vietnamese girl, dressed in black pajamas and surrounded by children, sings sentimental songs about the good life in government-controlled areas whose people are loyal. The girl is a member of a government pacification team on a recent mission to a small village. The team was accompanied by U.S. and government troops.

U.S. Assist to Thais Similar to Viet in '62

BANGKOK (UPI)—American military advisers stalk thick Asian jungles with local army units tracking down a fast-growing Communist guerrilla army.

It resembles Viet Nam 1962. But it is Thailand today.

Reliable American and Thai sources have disclosed that the Communist guerrilla force in this pro-American nation west of Viet Nam has reached about 5,000 men.

Washington as recently as two weeks ago officially denied another hotspot of Viet Nam proportion was kindling in Thailand.

PRIVATE OPINIONS

"I personally think we've got a problem in northeast Thailand and it just isn't going to go away."

The informants reported that:

- American soldiers are patrolling the wildness of northeast Thailand with combat battalions of the royal Thai army, advising them in anti-guerrilla operations.
- U.S. military engineers are laying logistical groundwork to back up major land operations by the Thais against the guerrillas.
- Americans piloting American helicopters are flying Thai troops into battle.

O'Dell Smith, 18, o 76 Willard, and Emmanuel Arnett, 18, of 279 S. Paddock face arraignment on charges of breaking and entering. The 16-year-old will be turned over to juvenile authorities.

Police said Smith and a minor companion were apprehended inside the Mutual Finance Co., 35 Glenwood, about 2:15 a.m. by patrolmen William C. Smith and Denis E. Mutrynowski.

Arnett was taken into custody about 3 a.m. by patrolmen Gary Lambert and Gary F. Root, who said the youth was waiting in a nearby car for Smith and the juvenile.

Police said file cabinets and desk drawers inside the firm had been rifled and papers scattered on the floor.

U. S. Support Seen

China Entry Study Eyed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Some U.N. diplomats predict that the United States will support a resolution to authorize a year's committee study of admission of Red China to the world organization.

★ ★ ★

Italy, Belgium, Brazil and several other nations planned to submit a resolution today calling for the U.N. General Assembly to appoint a committee to study the issue, sound out Peking and recommend a fair solution to the 1967 session.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg was scheduled to present the U.S. view on the China question in a speech to the assembly shortly afterward.

★ ★ ★

Italian Sen. Attilio Piccioni, outlining the proposal to the assembly Friday, said the committee should ask Peking if it really wants to be represented in the United Nations and if it will abide by the charter.

STRONG OPPOSITION

The committee also should determine what the position of Nationalist China would be if Peking were granted a seat, he said. The Nationalists, now confined to the island of Formosa, currently represent China in the Security Council and the General Assembly. The Nationalist government and the mainland Communist regime both have expressed strong opposition to a two-China policy giving representation to both.

Goldberg told the assembly Sept. 22 that the issue of seating Red China concerned whether Peking would abide by the charter and whether it would withdraw "unacceptable" demands for the expulsion of the Nationalists.

He said the United States would oppose any effort to oust the Nationalists in favor of Peking.

Orbiter Snaps 6 of 13 Sites

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)— Lunar Orbiter 2 has photographed six potential astronaut landing sites on the moon and has seven more places to scout, scientists report.

In 67 orbits of the moon, the spacecraft had exposed 87 of a planned 211-frame picture series. Some pictures show details on the moon's surface as small as three feet across, scientists at Jet Propulsion Laboratory said yesterday.

Togo President Reported Battling Overthrow Bid

PARIS (AP) —Insurgents were reported to have seized the Togo radio station early today but President Nicolas Grunitzky later announced that "energetic measures have been taken to put an end to the disorder."

Grunitzky's broadcast, heard in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, indicated that Grunitzky has probably regained the upper hand in the civil disturbances during which his resignation was demanded. It was not clear who was leading the opposition.

An earlier report from the French News Agency quoted travelers arriving at Cotonou, Dahomey, as saying that thousands of demonstrators ringed the presidential palace. The palace was being protected by troops under the chief of staff, Lt. Col. Etienne Gnassingbe Eyadema, who has reportedly clashed with Grunitzky recently on the military budget.

First reports of an uprising came from London. An unidentified speaker on the radio at Lome, the capital, said a revolution had broken out in the tiny West African republic.

Birmingham Area News

Parking Proposals to Be Aired

BIRMINGHAM — Several recommendations which would facilitate additional parking in the civic center area will be considered tonight by the City Commission.

City Manager Robert S. Kenning is recommending that the commission hire a traffic consultant to determine the capacity of the streets which would be used in carrying the traffic to and from the proposed parking facility.

In a letter to the commission, Kenning points out that parking needs should be updated, that the proposed capacity of the parking facility and the type of facility should be studied and that costs and the method of financing must be determined.

He suggests that if, after these items are determined, it is necessary to have a vote of the people on the method of financing, that such a vote not be held prior to Sept. 12, 1967.

CEREMONY EYED

City Engineer William T. Killeen tonight will also suggest that the city hold a ribbon-cutting ceremony on Nov. 28 for the opening of the parking lot near Woodward and Willets.

Barring bad weather conditions, he said, the parking structure will be available for parking, the elevators operating and all pedestrian en-

Once the contract work, including attendants booths and some curb and sidewalk work is completed, the city will then take over such work as resurfacing and repair. This cannot be done until the 1967 construction season, according to Killeen, but the lot can still be used.

Lack of parental control is blamed by Police Chief Ralph Moxley for the problems police are having with young people congregating in sections of the downtown area.

He said that during the year, 112 youths under 17 have been arrested for disorderly conduct, loitering, smoking and druneness. Most of the arrests have been in the business section.

ACLU Backs Bid for Stay on Georgia Vote Ruling

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Georgia's attorney general, asking the U.S. Supreme Court to delay further court rulings on selection of a Georgia governor, gained a temporary ally today.

The ally was the American Civil Liberties Union, which sought successfully last week to have a lower court void a state constitution provision that called for the legislature to pick a winner when no candidate gets a majority.

Republican Howard Callaway drew 451,032 general election votes for governor to 448,459 for Democrat Lester Maddox. But former Gov. Ellis Arnall got 57,832 write-in votes — keeping either nominee from the 50-plus per cent required to win.

Atty. Gen. Arthur K. Bolton was in Washington today, backed by Charles Morgan, regional director of the ACLU, to ask that the lower court's ruling be stayed until after the Supreme Court has heard Bolton's appeal.

EXTENDED STAY

Francis Shackelford and Emmet J. Bondurant, lawyers for a citizens group which had joined the ACLU in attacking the constitutional provision, also are in Washington. They are seeking to have the lower court ruling upheld promptly.

A stay until Nov. 27 already is in effect, set by the three-judge panel in Atlanta which ruled last Thursday that a showdown in a malapportioned legislature would give unfair weight to some voters' ballots. The three federal jurists proposed no alternative.

Gov. Carl E. Sanders is due to leave office Jan. 10 but has said he would remain until a successor is chosen.

Morgan said Sunday that he desired a stay "until such time as the court can expeditiously hear this appeal and all aspects of it."

The issue is too complex to be decided hastily, Morgan said, adding that meanwhile the state would have leadership with Sanders still in office as provided by the state constitution.

LBJ Disobeys His Doctor, Drives Car

Johnson "is a hard man to slow down," Cain had observed Wednesday, though adding that, and other presidential doctors hoped they could persuade the chief executive to take things easy.

MINDS BRIEFLY

It was the President's first real public outing since surgery for the removal of a polyp from his throat and the repair of an incisional hernia which resulted from his gall bladder-kidney stone operation in October 1965.

And he made the most of it.

Deadline Near in Bell Talks

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and the Communications Workers of America (CWA) resumed contract bargaining today under pressure of a midnight Tuesday deadline.

The company and union agreed on a new contract Oct. 4 but it was not ratified by the union locals and the workers sent their bargainers back to negotiate another pact.

Employes of the Pontiac district office of the telephone company staged a 10-day wildcat strike prior to the Oct. 4 agreement when negotiations were in process on a day-to-day contract extension basis.

He said the union will decide then whether to submit the latest telephone company contract to union members for ratification or to take a strike vote.

ACCORD REJECTED

City Man Held in Theft Try

★ ★ ★

Report Says Haiti Invaded

NEW YORK (AP) — A CBS news broadcast Sunday night quoted Haitian underground sources as saying opponents of President Francois Duvalier have invaded Haiti. There was no confirmation of the CBS report.

Andre Theard, Haitian ambassador to the United States, said in Washington he had no word of an invasion, and a spokesman for the State Department said the same thing. He said the U.S. ambassador in Port au Prince, Benson E. L. Timmons III, had been asked to look into the report.

CBS said its correspondent in the Haitian capital was told that the invaders landed on the northern coast near Cap Haitien, the country's second city.

The underground sources said Haiti's army, based around Duvalier's palace in the capital, had been put on the alert, CBS reported.

Reports reaching Washington from the Caribbean country last April indicated internal troubles but were not clear whether an uprising had been attempted or a purge of Duvalier's opponents had occurred.

Press Realigns Ad Dept. Staff

Promotion Manager Becomes No. 2 Man

SALVATORE WALKER

Named manager of national advertising is William B. Walker of 1101 Berkley. He succeeds Clark H. Stevens of 1386 Lakeside Birmingham, who is retiring.

Arthur Sanford has been appointed assistant retail advertising manager.

STEVENS SANFORD

Fires at Israel

TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Syrian positions east of the upper Jordan Valley opened fire five times toward targets in Israel territory Sunday night, it was officially announced today.

No casualties were reported. The announcement said the Israelis returned the fire.

Fire Hits Home in Waterford

Using three pieces of equipment, the firemen had the blaze under control in less than 30 minutes.

* * *

Bloomfield Twp. Man Will Head '67 Jewish Drive

President of the American Savings and Loan Association, and chairman of the board of the Citizen's Mortgage Corp., he is a past president of the Michigan Savings and Loan League.

Avon Township Family Routed by Fire at House

* * *

Avondale Fire Department answered the call at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jennings, who with their three small sons had recently rented the home at 3584 Alida.

* * *

All the family's clothing and furniture was destroyed. The family was taken in by neighbors for the night.

At 5:10 a.m. a second alarm was sounded as the house once more burst into flame.

Trio Gets $151 in Robbery at Ogg Cleaners

Three men, one of them armed, walked into Ogg Cleaners, 430 Orchard Lake, late Saturday and robbed the firm of $151, Pontiac police were told.

Mrs. Patricia Blanzy, 42, of 72 Nelson and Mrs. Florence Bradley, 50, of 247 Norton said the bandits entered the store shortly before 5 p.m.

One of the robbers, Mrs. Bradley said, brandished a pistol and forced her to the rear of the store.

He then held the gun on Mrs. Blanzy, police were told, and made her empty a cash register of $100 and a change box of $51.

* * *

The three men, described to police as Negroes in their late 20s or early 30s, then fled on foot, the women said.

Corydon was the capital of Indiana from 1816 to 1824.

Mrs. Wrigglesworth died Saturday.

Utica Resident Robbed of $100

Edward Glick, 22, of 3994 E. South Blvd. said he was in a telephone booth at Harry's Bar, 494 S. Sanford, when his assailants pulled him out of the booth, knocked him against a door, and fled with the money.

Tito Claims 'Yugoslav Reds Will Last'

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) —President Tito says the Communist party will not wither away or relinquish its leading role.

"Some of our friends in eastern countries say we wish to reduce the party to a simple educationist," he said. "This is not correct."

Tito spoke Sunday at Bjeljina in northern Bosnia, winding up a four-day tour of the province. His speech was made public today.

He replied to critics from East European Communist countries, who maintain the reorganization of the Yugoslav Communist party will weaken its leading role.

POWER SHIFT

The Yugoslav Communist party started its reorganization in July. It took power from the Politburo and shifted it to a larger body—the Presidium of the Central Committee.

Tito said the reorganization was necessary because the party had in the ideological-political field "too little control and permitted some to dilute the process of our Socialist development."

2-Car Crash Injures Two in Orion Twp.

Harry C. Davis, 22, of Yale is reported in fair condition at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, while Richard Swem, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swem of 459 N. Shore, is listed as satisfactory at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Oakland County sheriff's deputies said the two were injured about 10:55 p.m. when Davis' southbound auto collided with a car driven by Claud V. Haddix, 17, of 345 Newton, Lake Orion.

The accident occurred, deputies said, in the northbound lane of M24 south of Clarkston Road.

Theft of Ring Is Reported

* * *

Two Pontiac Men Honored by Mayor

Two Pontiac men were among three persons honored yesterday by Pontiac Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. at a state meeting of the American G.I. Forum of Michigan.

Tomas Chavez Jr., president of the state Latin Americans United for Political Action, and Alfredo Aleman, chairman of the American G.I. Forum of Pontiac, were both cited for civic contributions.

Also honored at the meeting at the Waldron Hotel was Ruby Zuniga of Saginaw, recently elected executive secretary of the national G. I. Forum's juvenile division.

Ford Expects GOP to Have Last Word on State of Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican leader Gerald R. Ford says he expects Republicans to come up with a "State of the Union" message of their own after President Johnson delivers his to Congresse arly next year.

Senate GOP leader Everett M. Dirksen reports Republicans also hope to offer an alternate budget if Johnson fails to balance income and spending in his proposed 1967-68 fiscal program.

These disclosures, made in separate weekend interviews, came as Republican leaders began formulating strategy on how to deploy their beefed-up minority in the 90th Congress which convenes Jan. 10. The GOP picked up 47 House seats and 3 Senate seats in the Nov. 8 elections.

Dirksen said Republicans will present "positive programs" in 1967 rather than mere opposition to administration proposals.

SIMILAR STANCE

Ford took a similar stance. He said there will be no intention of trying to cut out all "Great Society" programs, but he predicted an effort to "keep them from rolling."

Ford declined to get into specifics on GOP plans, saying he wanted to meet first with ranking Republican members of House committees.

He said, however, that House Republicans would not form a coalition with Southern Democrats in an attempt to block administration programs.

"I want to make crystal-clear that the House Republicans will make their own decisions," the Michigan congressman said. But he added: "We will be grateful for any votes from Northern or Southern Democrats, and if others want to join, that is fine."

Ford disclosed efforts will be made to "tighten up" aid to education and to transfer some functions of the antipoverty program to other agencies.

Dirksen said he anticipates the "support of the Republican members of the appropriations, finance and ways and means committees in putting together a fiscal program."

Police Ask Help

Girl Missing in Florida

BARTOW, Fla. (AP) — Police appealed today for help from anyone who has seen Connie Weeaks, a 14-year-old New Mexico girl who vanished after arriving here a week ago.

"We are checking every lead," a police spokesman said "and we would like to hear from anyone who may have seen Connie."

Connie's father, Elwood Weeaks, said he and his daughter moved from Carlsbad, N.M., about a week ago so he could take a job with International Minerals and Chemical Corp.

Weeaks said Connie has not been heard from since last Monday, when he left her and her pet Chihuahua waiting in his station wagon at the company's office. The auto, which contained Weeaks' clothes, also disappeared. He said she had about $20 with her.

"My daughter and I were very close," Weeaks said. "She wouldn't just run away."

Weeaks' wife and three other children remained in New Mexico.

"We don't have this sort of thing home in New Mexico," Weeaks said. "I just don't understand it."

"We're going to keep looking," said a police spokesman, "but so far we've come up against a blank wall."

'Soviet Missiles Limited'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The antimissile system the Soviet Union is building is a limited one, American sources reported today.

According to U.S. experts, the Russian system will be capable of defending Moscow against "light" nuclear attack — that is, against a small number of nuclear-tipped missiles.

In its first stages, it will not be an effective defense against the full nuclear capability of the United States, according to U.S. intelligence estimates.

But no one can now say whether the Soviets will be content with such a primitive, and perhaps even useless system, or whether they will in future go into the field of antiballistics missiles (ABMS for short) full scale.

Drowns in Meet

ERIE (AP) — Monroe County Coroner Harold Maurice said today an autopsy showed no sign of a head injury or overexertion in the death of a Mason High School swimmer. John J. Lohmann, 16, drowned Friday while competing in a meet before more than 100 witnesses. The victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Lohmann of Erie, was competing in the backstroke event when he failed to surface after making a flip turn while underwater.

What's he earning?

Money, of course! Sometimes the money a boy earns as a Junior Independent Merchant makes quite a difference in the kind of clothing, toys, trips, and education he gets.

But, just as often his parents are doctors, lawyers, school administrators, and successful business executives. Money is not as important to them. And while every boy gets satisfaction from being able to buy things for himself and others without going to his parents, money is not the primary reason these parents encourage their sons to become newspaperboys.

Much More than Money! The development of poise, while many of his classmates are still "all thumbs"; the ability to get along with all kinds of people; the capacity for taking responsibility; and the knowledge that he is a salesman. These will pay far greater dividends in the years to come.

And this is why successful men, many of whom were newspaperboys a generation ago, so strongly recommend to their sons that they get the greatly improved "basic training" provided for today's newspaperboys.

If you think your son might profit by newspaperboy route experience, our circulation department is now accepting applications.

Three Crewmen Die in Crash of Airliner

NEW BERN, N.C. (AP) —A 40-passenger Martin 404 of Piedmont Airlines crashed Sunday in a swampy area of the Croatan National Forest. Three crew members, only persons aboard, were killed.

They were the pilot, Capt. C. J. Helsabeck, 45, of Walnut Cove, N.C., who had been with Piedmont 12 years; First Officer E. O. Adams, 32, of Taylors, S.C., three months with the company; and Pamela Sue Rumble, 22, of Poughkeepsie, N.Y., the stewardess, who had been with the airline one year. All were based in Wilmington, N.C.

* * *

The plane left Wilmington at 5:40 a.m. for the 85-mile trip up the North Carolina coast to pick up its first passengers at New Bern. Tom Davis, Piedmont president, said in Winston-Salem, N.C. that the last radio report from the plane was at 6:06 a.m., when it gave its location as 12 miles southwest of New Bern and reported no problems.

It crashed three miles southwest of the New Bern airport and the fuselage was broken into three pieces. A Piedmont spokesman said there were indications that pilot Helsabeck may have been trying to reach a clearing near the heavily wooded site of the crash.

The plane, Flight 101, was to have stopped at Goldsboro, Raleigh, Greensboro, and Winston-Salem, N.C.; Tri-Cities Airport in Tennessee, and end its flight at Louisville, Ky.

Helsabeck won the Air Medal with seven oak leaf clusters and the Distinguished Flying Cross in the European theater in World War II. One of his planes was shot so many times that the crew called her "the Flying Patch."

In 1947, when he was 27 years old, he was elected sheriff of Stokes County, and was the youngest sheriff in North Carolina. The next year, he was elected president of the North Carolina Young Republicans.

Man Hunted in Pair's Killing

SILVERTON, Colo. (UPI) — Thomas Julius Sergent, a 25-year-old former Michigan man being sought across the nation on charges of murdering two Arizona tourists, remained at large today and lawmen said they had no clues to finding him.

New Mexico State Police have issued an all-points bulletin to be on the alert for hitchhikers resembling Sergent, especially those seen in mountinous northern Taos County.

The alert was broadcast after reports were heard Saturday that a hitchhiker resembling Sergent had told a driver in Colorado he was heading south to Taos.

Sergent was charged with two counts of murder.

The warrants were issued Friday in the San Juan County seat of Silverton, not far from where the bodies of Milton D. and Mildred Moelner of Phoenix were found Nov. 2.

Draft Hits 3 Peace Corpsmen

MANILA (AP) — The Peace Corps director for the Philippines said today that three corpsmen had received draft calls barely two months after their arrival in the Philippines from the United States.

Director Richard Balch said one of the group, Fred Lonidier of Seattle, Wash., had been ordered to report for induction Dec. 7 and is scheduled for a medical examination in Manila Tuesday.

* * *

The two others are Douglas E. Magee, 23, of Santa Susana, Calif., and Michael Kiesler, 22, of Louisville, Ky. He said they had appealed for deferment and the appeals were being considered.

"We have done everything we can," Balch said.

OUTSPOKEN LETTER

Lonidier in an outspoken letter to the Manila Times Sunday said his appeals for deferment had been rejected by his state draft board and the presidential appeal board.

"It really makes one wonder whether or not the Peace Corps is perhaps an expendable political gimmick kept in existence to give the lie to any challenge to Johnson's peaceful intentions," Lonidier wrote.

"It is utterly fantastic that we have been so extensively and expensively trained, transported and maintained, only to be pulled out before we have begun our work."

Balch said the Peace Corps had unsuccessfully carried Lonidier's deferment "to the highest appeals channels there are." He added that the Manila Times was not the proper channel for a Peace Corpsman to complain.

Take a tip from an independent study of police accident reports in Michigan. Out of a total of 109 people who died in Michigan traffic accidents over the Memorial Day, 4th of July and Labor Day weekends, 79 died within 25 miles of their homes. Over 70%!

So this Thanksgiving Day weekend, no matter what state you live in, it's a good idea to stop taking familiar surroundings—or anything else—for granted.

Your Car. Just because it's been running like a top for months, don't be lulled into thinking it'll perform dependably forever. Have your car checked regularly, even if it doesn't happen to send up a trouble signal.

Other Drivers. Just because you haven't had any close calls in traffic recently is no reason to think that other drivers are getting smarter. Be ready for anything. Plan ahead for dangerous situations, such as people getting out of cars from the wrong side or cars going through stop signs.

Yourself. Maybe you know people who've made it home half asleep after a late party. They were lucky. Because you can't be a safe driver when you're tired.

Also, as you probably know, many fatal accidents involve drinking drivers. So a little common sense can save your life.

Thanksgiving is a wonderful holiday. But it's no time to let down your guard.

E. Europe Feels Entrapped by Unrealistic Hanoi Policy

By HENRY S. BRADSHER

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — East European Communists have a frustrated feeling of being dragged unwillingly behind what they consider the unrealistic onward rush of Hanoi's war policy.

This feeling was expressed privately and was reflected in public speeches at the Bulgarian Communist Party Congress which ended Saturday. Leaders from Eastern Europe and Communists from other areas attended.

The Congress heard more about China than Viet Nam. Except for the Romanians, the delegates in their speeches did not discuss the Vietnamese situation in detail, and most notably they did not set conditions for peace.

This was one of several recent signs that, in Eastern Europe and in Moscow, policies on Viet Nam are flexible. The European Communist governments want the war to end and therefore are not insisting on such conditions as U.S. withdrawal from Viet Nam before peace negotiations can open.

WANT PEACE TALKS

Some sources considered it significant that speakers at the Bulgarian Congress did not demand that U.S. air raids on North Viet Nam be halted. The suggestion is that the East European Communists want peace talks started despite the air raids.

But Hanoi is adamant.

It still is insisting publicly that the United States accept the whole package of its peace terms: end the raids, withdraw, leave Viet Nam to the Communists. So far as could be determined during the Congress, Hanoi's public position is also its private position.

"They're unrealistic," a Bulgarian said.

REALISTIC APPRAISAL

He thought Hanoi refuses to recognize the facts of American power and determination. Realism, to him, means a settlement of a war that no one can win.

Another person said that Bulgarian Gen. Ivan Mihailov came back from Hanoi last month feeling very discouraged about the prospect for any realism developing in North Viet Nam. Leaders there insisted to Mihailov that they would fight on for another 20 years if necessary, this source reported.

* * *

There is talk in Sofia of trying to buy a change in Hanoi's thinking. The Soviet bloc reportedly agreed last month on a billion dollars worth of aid to North Viet Nam above the hundreds of millions worth sent already.

Dem Senate Control Appears Sure for 4 Years

Although Republicans could hope to regain control of the House for the first time since 1952 with the impetus of the election of a president, the GOP's chances of getting the upper hand in the Senate would seem to require a Democratic defeat in the proportions of Barry Goldwater's 1964 disaster.

With their Senate membership boosted to 36 in the Nov. 8 election, the Republicans would have to grab 15 Democratic seats two years from now to gain a Senate majority—and the powerful committee chairmanships and other prerogatives that go with it.

Twenty-three Democratic and 11 GOP seats will be at stake in 1968. But politicians currently class as doubtful only about 10 Democratic and perhaps one Republican post.

* * *

Senatorial contests in California nearly always toss-ups. But Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, the assistant GOP leader, faces more than usual difficulties because of his failure to give public support to Republican Ronald Reagan, who won the governorship.

HOME SAFE—Rose Marie Bradley, 7, of Panama City, Fla., who police say was offered a ride by a stranger then held captive, has a broad grin for her mother and father after being returned home safely. Police say Rose Marie was found early yesterday in a car driven by R. E. Collins of Columbia, S.C. The child was bound and gagged. She had been missing for over five hours when found.

Connor Denies Report That He Plans to Resign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Commerce Secretary John T. Connor says he has no "present" plans to resign, despite a persistent Washington rumor that broke into print yesterday.

The denial was issued through an aide who dismissed the latest report as "a revival of an old rumor that has been kicking around for a long time."

The copyrighted report was written by Marianne Means of the King Features Syndicate and published in the Washington Post.

It attributed the information to insiders who said they were told by Connor that he planned to quit in January.

Connor, President Johnson's first Cabinet appointee, has served since December 1964. Johnson described him at the time of his appointment as "smart, loyal and patriotic." The Texas White House was unavailable for comment on Miss Means' dispatch.

DISCONTENT EVIDENT

Yesterday's disclaimer is not likely to dampen the speculation that Connor's resignation is in the works, for the secretary himself laid the groundwork with a Christian Science Monitor interview some time ago.

Wedding Plans Snuffed Out as 7 Die in Crash

LOCKNEY, Tex. (AP) — Plans for a Thanksgiving week wedding were snuffed out Sunday when a Santa Fe freight train slammed into an auto carrying seven young people.

Five persons in the auto, including the bride-to-be were killed. The other two passengers, one of them the intended groom Jessie Salas, were critically injured in the accident at the Texas Panhandle town of Lockney, 80 miles southeast of Amarillo.

Salas, 17, of Lockney and Teresa Islas, 15, of nearby Floydada were to have been married today.

Killed besides Miss Islas were Emma Herrera, 17, of Lockney; Lidlia Cruz, 11, and her 3-month-old sister, Norma; and Angelina Cruz, 13, all of Shallowater.

GM Is Delayed

Mart Dips in Moderate Trade

Losses of most key stocks ranged from fractions to 1 or 2 points. Some higher-priced issues showed wider losses.

General Motors was delayed in opening due to an accumulation of orders following late Friday's news that GM plans production cutbacks in December and January. The stock lost 1⅛ in advance of the news Friday.

Losses of about 1½ were showing by Boeing, Zenith and Pennsylvania Railroad.

Texaco, Eastman Kodak and Pan American World Airways were down about 1 each.

54,000 SHARES

International Paper, off ⅜ at 25¾ on 13,000 shares; American Telephone, off to 55¼ on 7,500; and Boeing, off 1 at 62 on 5,000.

On Friday, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 2.4 to 296.7.

Prices were generally lower on the American Stock Exchange. O'Okiep Copper lost 1. Down fractionally were Monogram Industries, Giannini Controls, Oak Electro-Netics, Louisiana Land and Edo Corp. "A."

News in Brief

Japan Group, China OK Pact

$200-Million Accord Is Last Phase in Plan

TOKYO (AP) — A private Japanese group and Communist China signed a 1967 trade agreement in Peking today totalling slightly less than $200 million, the Kyodo news service said.

The agreement is the fifth and last phase of a long-term trade plan representatives of the two countries drew up in an unofficial memorandum in 1962.

Kyodo said details of the agreement were not made public.

The total two-way trade, it said, represented a drop compared with the 1966 agreed total of $204 million.

DIFFERENCE

Kyodo said it is understood the 1967 trade would differ very little in import and export items.

It said Japan's contracted import of Chinese rice, which amounted to 300,000 tons in 1966, is expected to amount to 200,000 tons in 1967.

Japanese trade with Communist China is also conducted by other groups and firms not affected by the 1962 Japan-China trade memorandum.

The total two-way trade between Japan and Red China amounted to $469 million in 1965. It registered $320 million in the first half of 1966 — an increase of 41 per cent over last year's corresponding period.

Draft Parley Asks Broader Objector Law

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio (AP) — A college-sponsored conference on the Selective Service System adopted a resolution calling for a more liberal definition of a conscientious objector after three students walked out in protest.

One of those who walked out, Frank Shaffer, a student at Lawrence University in Appleton, Wis., said the proposed change would "allow a person to be draft-exempt if he didn't want to serve in a particular war."

The proposal asks that a man be exempted as a conscientious objector if he has personal philosophic or moral objections to a war.

"In our society we just can't allow a person to decide which war he will serve in," Shaffer said.

ACT AS INDIVIDUALS

The conference, attended by students, teachers and administrators from about 40 colleges, was called "extremely successful" by Dr. James P. Dixon, president of Antioch.

But Shaffer and Yale students Lanny Davis of Jersey City, N.J., and John Rothchild of St. Petersburg, Fla., said one reason for their walkout was that they could not commit their schools to the actions of the conference.

Black Nov. 17 for Firm

Unison in Trading Eyed

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

CUNNIFF

NEW YORK — On the very day that a meeting was under way on the growing power of institutional investors, 25 per cent of the stock in a certain company was traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

The amount was almost unbelievable. And it could only have occurred through trading by the big share owners; that is, through activity of the institutions. Among these are mutual funds, pension funds, trusts.

The company, Fairchild Camera & Instrument Corp., has less than 3 million shares outstanding. More than 562,000 of them changed hands in a few hours Nov. 17. The price plunged $19.62 to $106.75.

About the same time, in an unrelated event, a speaker told the meeting on institutional investing that "Apparently it is worrisome to the observers of the market to find we tend to buy and sell somewhat in unison."

NOT CONFINED

The worry isn't confined to observers. It includes the exchanges, investment houses, federal officials and small investors. It includes as well the institutions, which have been proud of their role as stabilizers.

Such dips would have been considered amazing a few years ago, but big price changes became common this year. Among the reasons:

1. Institutional ownership is increasing. Fully one-third of all stock now listed is owned by institutions or trusts.

2. These institutions are trading more often than in the past. Official figures show the turnover rates for some have doubled in 10 years.

3. Institutions tend to congregate in certain stocks and often trade them at the same time. Considerable institution money this year has been invested in a well-known list of glamor stocks.

MAY BE CAUSED

Declines may be caused by any very large fund unloading its shares at once. When institutions act in unison it can have a devastating effect. And, because they read the same storm signals, they may sell at the same time.

★ ★ ★

The mere selling by one institution can influence another. If a fund trader holds a certain stock he cannot ignore a sale of that stock by a competitor fund, for a sale might lower the price. Funds, therefore, watch each other.

"Our trading operation is an intelligence and counterintelligence operation," said the head of a very large mutual fund group privately.

"The name of the game today is to use money effectively at all times," he said. "All of us are members of analysts societies, and analysts trade information and judgments back and forth." But, he said, not the timing.

PERFORMANCE MANIA

This becomes more important during the so-called performance mania. Institutions once held stocks for years. Now they trade in and out so that they can always show the best performance at any time.

Nobody can say for sure why selling commenced in Fairchild, but the decline began as rumors spread that prices might be cut in integrated circuits, one of the products that put Fairchild in the glamor category.

Other manufacturers were hurt also. Texas Instruments dropped more than $15 and Motorola more than $10. All make integrated circuits, miniaturized electronic units used in television sets and satellites.

Tremendous blocks were unloaded, one of them more than 100,000 shares. This could not have been accomplished by small traders, most of whom had not even heard the apparent reason for selling.

NOT AS EVIDENT

The "unison" activity generally is not as evident as stock is purchased, for it can be accumulated slowly. But when it is unloaded it is dropped with a rush. Timing is important. Quickness in acting is essential.

"The concrete information is on the sell side more often than on the buy side," said the mutual fund man. And frequently that sign is an indication that earnings might not be as good as anticipated.

The institutions can be stabilizers, especially when they slow a rapidly declining market. But they present problems, too.

Church Belle Not Likely to Skirt Issues

They did not get them, but Judith Rydings, 23, had some new sounding things to say about preachers' wives.

"I see no reason why vicars' wives should be dowdy," Mrs. Rydings said. "I think the church must create a modern image.

"I want the teen-agers' confidence, and I think I'm getting it. I should add that I'm very flattered."

Her husband is the Rev. Donald Rydings of St. Mark's, an Anglican church in nearby Bourne End. Now serving as church missioner, he will be inducted as vicar next month.

SHE'S DIFFERENT!

Not Mrs. Rydings.

"Religion doesn't have to be stodgy," she said in an interview. "There is no need to leave the rest of the world outside when one goes to church.

"I always try to be up-to-the-minute in fashion. My ideas may have caused quite a stir in the village, but I think the locals are now beginning to accept them."

She said her husband approves of her attitude.

He commented: "The image of a conventional vicar's wife is more in the minds of the people than anything else —and particularly in the minds of people who do not go to church very often."

Fear of Germany Outdated, Says British Official

LONDON (AP) — Foreign Secretary George Brown today called West Germany's leaders "genuine democrats and internationalists" and said the dislike and fear some countries felt about Germany was an example of out-of-date history being a bad teacher.

Brown made the statement shortly before taking off on a mission to Moscow. He spoke at the opening session of an editorial conference organized by the International Publishing Corp.

Brown said so many people have suffered in the past half-century in the wars with Germany that it is not surprising that fear and dislike dominate their feelings.

"But feelings can be a very poor counsellor," he said, "and anyone who has studied Germany today knows how different it is from the Germany of the two world wars."

Fire Kills Five Indian Children

GLEICHEN, Alta. (AP) — Two Indian families wept helplessly early Sunday as fire took the lives of five children 2 to 5 years old.

Five adults in the living room of the house were cut off by a wall of flame from the bedroom where the children were sleeping.

The adults ran into the bleak fields surrounding the house on the Blackfoot Indian Reserve 50 miles east of Calgary. Three children in the house also escaped.

The dead were Justine Raw Eater, 5; her sisters, Doreen 4, and Lucille, 2½; and two other sisters, Gail Spencer, 5, and Carol, 2.

TWO ATTEMPTS

The mother of three of the dead children, Cecelia Raw Eater, 47, made two attempts to enter the blazing house but each time was driven back by the heat and smoke. Her husband, John David, was not at home.

Police said an overturned heater may have started the fire.

Mrs. Raw Eater was taken to a Calgary hospital. She was reported in satisfactory condition with burns to her hands.

Steps Are Taken to Free Vessel

Salvage crews from a Detroit firm were ordered to transfer the 470-foot ship's cargo of coiled steel to another vessel, for transport to Chicago.

The Nordmeer's engine room and four holds became flooded after the vessel went aground Saturday night on Thunder Bay shoal about 20 miles east of Alpena.

Successful Investing

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "I would like to start an investment program in growth stocks for the education of my three small children. I have considered Radio Corp. of America and National Steel. What is your opinion of these two stocks or would you recommend something else? We have a few hundred dollars to start with." H.H.

A. I believe it is vitally important that you learn at the outset to differentiate between growth and cyclical issues.

True growth stocks are those which over a period of years have established a record of consistent gains in earnings, dividends and price at a faster rate than the economy as a whole. Cyclical issues are shares which are closely tied to the major up and down moves in business.

National Steel is a cyclical stock as are all others in its group. It is a sound stock for income but it is unlikely to enhance your capital in the years ahead. RCA shows an excellent picture of growth and would qualify for your objective. For a second choice, I suggest Bristol-Myers, which has an unusual record of earnings expansion and has increased in price over 1500 per cent during the past decade.

Q. "I'm a senior in college and recently made my first purchase — 100 shares of General Public Service at 5⅞. A few days later you advised an investor against buying low-priced stocks. Naturally I am quite concerned. Would you advise me to sell?" D.H.

A. I'm afraid that you misunderstood my remarks about low-priced stocks. In the column to which you refer, I advised specifically against buying low-priced speculative stocks. Your General Public Service is a closed-end investment company and its price is closely related to its net asset value. The shares are not speculative. They offer a relatively good return from investment income and security profits. I advise you to hold.
