Admitted Killer Gravlin Sent to Ionia Hospital

Ruled Legally Insane After Hearing With Panel of Psychiatrists

William G. Gravlin, admitted slayer of all seven members of his family, yesterday was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

The 30-year-old Troy Factory worker, termed capable of "most horrible acts," was ordered to the institution by Circuit Judge James S. Thorburn following a three-hour sanity hearing.

Thorburn's decision was based on the testimony of three psychiatrists, whose findings reversed an October ruling that Gravlin was mentally competent to stand trial.

"The testimony should indicate that he is capable of most horrible acts," added Thorburn.

★ ★ ★

"It would be cruel and barbarous to try this man. Our society no longer demands such conduct from its courts."

NO LENGTH SET

Judge Thorburn did not set any length of the commitment since it is not determined by the court. He said that it was his opinion that until such time medical techniques have advanced officials at Ionia would be "derelict in their duty" if they discharged Gravlin.

"These methods are not now apparent," the judge said

The three psychiatrists appointed to examine Gravlin said he was unable to assist in his own defense. His trial was to have begun later this month.

The young father — described by the psychiatrists as outwardly an ordinary man but inwardly in conflict — was accused of first degree murder.

DAUGHTER'S DEATH

He was specifically charged with the death of his teen-age stepdaughter, Judith Ann Bentley, 16.

★ ★ ★

She, her four sisters and brothers, a stepsister and their mother Bette, 40, were found hacked to death in their Troy home at 2121 Garson on Sept. 29. They had been killed a day earlier.

Police said Gravlin, found wandering on the street, admitted the killings but could give no lucid explanation except that he was worried that his wife was going to leave him.

The second psychiatrists' report to Judge Thorburn dwelt in part on Gravlin's troubled past. He had attempted suicides on several occasions, and once was committed to Pontiac State Hospital.

INFANTILE CHARACTER

Dr. Harry August of Huntington Woods described Gravlin as being "very infantile in character," though he also had "good intellect," according to the doctor.

August said Gravlin had "poor personality integration that breaks down under pressure."

Biting Cold Numbs U.P. and North U.S.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Upper Peninsula residents endured biting subzero temperatures early today as southern Lower Michigan braced for another bout with cold weather and snow.

The mercury at Michigan's icebox, Pellston, plunged to 30 degrees below zero. Upper Peninsula communities also reported frigid weather, including Marquette with -11 degrees and Houghton with -15.

★ ★ ★

Ironwood recorded a reading of -32, and unofficial reports from nearby Wakefield indicated the mercury may have dropped to as low as 50 degrees below.

Outside of Michigan, the cold weather numbed most of the northern half of the nation today from Minnesota into Maine. Snow and gusty winds brought added discomfort in many areas.

★ ★ ★

Weather bureau officials said there appeared little indication of an immediate general break in the severe cold spell. Another mass of arctic air appeared headed into the northern Midwest.

COLDEST WEATHER

The coldest weather of the season hit many areas in the northeast, with temperatures dropping far below zero in northern sections of New England and in western and northern New York State.

★ ★ ★

The mercury dropped to record low and seasonal marks in many parts of the midwest yesterday, including a bone-chilling 42 below zero at Hibbing and International Falls, in northern Minnesota.

33 BELOW

It was 33 below today at Hibbing, in the iron range district, and -30 at International Falls, on the Canadian border.

In New York State, an unnofficial low reading of 30 below was reported and an official mark of 25 below chilled Franklinville, in the western part of the state.

Snow to Make Roads Slippery

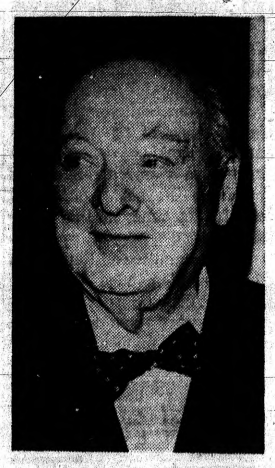
Driving will be hazardous today and tonight with intermittent light snow and flurries forecast. About 2 to 4 inches of new snow is expected by tonight.

In addition, we'll have mostly cloudy skies and somewhat windy and cold weather through tomorrow. The low expected tonight is -5 to 5, to be followed by a high of 5 to 15 tomorrow.

Sunday's weather picture is partly cloudy with little temperature change.

Today in Pontiac, winds are from the east at 10 to 20 miles an hour. They will become northeasterly tomorrow.

Four above zero was today's low mercury reading preceding 8 a.m. At 2 p.m. a still frigid 15 was recorded.



SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL

Bulletin Tells of Weakness in Circulation

Thrombosis Is 3rd for 90-Year-Old Former British Prime Minister

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill today suffered a cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot in the brain — and there was widespread concern that the 90-year-old statesman might be at the end of the road.

A medical bulletin from his doctors said Sir Winston also has developed a circulatory weakness, which would appear to indicate that his heart is flagging or that there was a fairly general blockage of the arteries.

The medical bulletin, issued by his personal physician, Lord Moran, said:

"After a cold, Sir Winston has developed a circulatory weakness and there has been a cerebral thrombosis."

Sir Winston was 90 last Nov. 30.

A thrombosis is the formation of a blood clot in an artery. Sir Winston has survived two previous strokes.

Lord Moran, 82, has been Sir Winston's physican for years, and accompanied him on his far-ranging travels as Britain's prime minister during World War II.

FURTHER BULLETIN

The medical bulletin said, "A further bulletin will be issued at 10 o'clock (5 p.m., Pontiac time) tonight."

It was signed by Moran and Lord Brain, a specialist in nervous diseases.

Earlier, Sir Winston's newspaperman son, Randolph, had told questioners that as far as he knew his illustrious father was suffering only from a cold.

★ ★ ★

But Randolph added that any illness in a man of Sir Winston's age must be regarded as serious.

'45 MINUTES

Lord Moran spent 45 minutes with Churchill.

Churchill's daughter, Mary and her husband, Christopher Soames, a former minister of agriculture, spent three hours at the residence, 28 Hyde Park Gate.

In Rome Sir Winston's actress daughter, Sarah, said she planned to fly home tonight.

★ ★ ★

Churchill disclosed in the House of Commons in 1955 that he had been struck down by a sudden illness and paralyzed in June 1953, while he was prime minister. As a result, he was forced to postpone a Bermuda conference with President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

DIDN'T SAY STROKE

He did not describe the ailment as a stroke, but British newspapers concluded it could hardly have been anything else.

Churchill's own words were: "I was struck down by a very sudden illness which paralyzed me completely physically."

He also is believed to have had a stroke in 1951 while staying on the French Riviera as a guest of the late newspaper tycoon Lord Beaverbrook, and still another some time after 1953.

★ ★ ★

Asked about this today, Lord Moran said:

"He has had more than one, but I can't go into details at the moment. As you'll appreciate, we've got a lot on our plate right now."

LBJ Urges Continuation of Disarmament Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson asked Congress today to extend the life of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for four years to "assure the continuing leadership of the United States in the purposeful pursuit of peace."

Congressional approval of the recommendation, along with the President's request for $55 million for the agency's expenses over the next four years, appeared certain.

Johnson told Congress a determined effort to halt the spread of nuclear weapons over the world is essential to the security of the United States.

He made clear that nonproliferation is a foremost objective of his disarmament policy.

Despite the vast defensive power of this country, the President said in letters to the House and Senate, the effort to stop the spreading of nuclear weapons "is essential to our security, for a continued increase and spread of modern weapons can actually decrease our security."

ADEQUATE FUNDS

An accompanying letter by agency Director William C. Foster said the legislation will be required to keep the agency operating because the present authorization does not provide adequate funds beyond the end of the present fiscal year.

"Attempts directed toward arms control and other measures to lessen the threat of war are no longer Utopian dreams," Foster said.

He added: "The work of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has become an integral part of our over-all national security policy.

"Armaments alone can no longer increase security; the unchecked increase of these weapons of mass destruction can only diminish our safety in the hope for peace."

Johnson noted that four years ago the United States became the first nation in the world to establish such an agency.

He said it had a good record of achievement, citing the conclusion in 1963 of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty by the United States, Soviet Union and Britain.

The treaty, which bans all but underground tests, now has been signed by a total of 107 nations. France and Red China have not signed. They are the only nations in addition to the United States, Soviet Union and Britain who have nuclear weapons or are building them.

Furthermore, Johnson said, the United States has established a direct communications link between Washington and Moscow — popularly known as the Hot Line — has joined in a U.N. resolution against introducing weapons in outer space, and has "initiated cutbacks in the planned production of fissionable material."

In addition, the President said, the United States has put before the Geneva disarmament conference — now temporarily in recess — "a number of important, concrete proposals for the control and reduction of armaments on which agreement has not yet been achieved."

Romney Puts Elly Peterson on His Staff

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney said today that Elly Peterson, a former national Republican leader and U.S. Senate candidate, has joined his personal staff to handle "a lot of stuff I have coming in from people around the country."

"Don't blow it up," Romney exclaimed when asked if Mrs. Peterson could be considered a special assistant for national affairs.

Mrs. Peterson was vice chairman of the Republican National Committee until she resigned to run for the Senate last year. She lost to Sen. Philip Hart, D-Mich.

At the same time, Romney announced a partial reorganization of his executive office staff involving new responsibilities for two aides.

The governor said former Pontiac Press staffer George Trumbull Jr., assistant press secretary, and Albert Applegate, administrative assistant for agency liaison, will assume new staff positions before the end of January.

Trumbull will become administrative assistant to the governor.

2 May Sign Auto Tariff Agreement

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, working and relaxing at his Texas ranch, awaited the arrival late today of Canada's Prime Minister Lester Pearson to put finishing touches on a pact to wipe out U.S.-Canadian auto tariffs.

Johnson and his visitor may be able to sign the agreement before Pearson leaves sometime Saturday.

However, the U.S. Congress would have to pass special legislation before the agreement could be fully effective.

The pact, subject of months of negotiations, would abolish both countries' tariffs on new autos and new auto parts shipped across their common border.

★ ★ ★

Johnson, who flew to the ranch with his wife last night for a three-day stay, expected to have relaxed, informal talks with Pearson. Most work on their major item of business — the tariff agreement — was done in advance of the meeting.

The two leaders have met face to face several times in the past 14 months, most recently at Blaine, Wash., on Sept. 16 when they signed a Columbia River treaty.

Their meetings have been supplemented by seven or eight telephone talks.

Pearson was bound for the ranch from a Florida vacation.

Johnson was here not only to entertain the prime minister, but to push ahead with the drafting of the inaugural address he will deliver next Wednesday after taking the presidential oath.

Signing of the agreement on auto tariffs was postponed several times by last minute haggling over details. But only a few details remained to be worked out in advance of Pearson's visit.

Rights Drive Slated in Alabama City

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. told cheering Negroes last night that next week marks the beginning of massive testing of public accommodations here and a voter registration drive which will touch "the conscience of the nation."

King's remarks at a rally set the stage for the first crucial test for this city's new administration, which has been striving to erase the image of Selma as a symbol of racial strife.

The Nobel Peace Prize winner said that the testing and regisrtation drive would begin Monday, when "we are going to say to Selma in no uncertain terms that we are through with segregation now and forever more."

Jury Returns Indictments in Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A federal grand jury returned 84 indictments today but gave no indication whether any of these involved the slaying of three civil rights workers in Mississippi last summer.

Jury Foreman Dallas Cowan, Jackson insurance man, read the report to U. S. Dist. Judge Harold Cox shortly before noon.

Cox directed the U. S. attorney's office to prepare the indictments. He told the government attorneys to keep the names of those indicted secret until their arrests.

The grand jury reconvened Monday to take up the triple murder case, which touched off one of the biggest FBI investigations in history.

★ ★ ★

Over 50 other federal cases in addition to the racial killings were on the grand jury docket.

THREE KILLED

The three dead men were Michael Schwerner, 24, and Andrew Goodman, 20, white New Yorkers, and James Chaney, 21, a Meridian Negro. They were killed near Philadelphia, Miss., last June in what the FBI termed a Ku Klux Klan plot.

This was the second time the grand jury — which includes one Negro among its 23 members — had considered the triple slaying.

New OU Building Named for Founder

Oakland University's $2.5-million classroom-office building, on which work will soon begin, has been named the Matilda R. Wilson Hall, in honor of the institution's founder.

Plans for the structure have been completed by the architectural firm O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach of Birmingham. Bids will be let in February, and it is hoped the building will be ready for use early in 1966, according to Chancellor D. B. Varner.

To be located north of North Foundation Hall and the main entrance drive, Wilson Hall will provide classrooms and offices for the division of social science and some of the humanities departments.

It will also house certain administrative offices, including admissions, registrar, placement and dean of students.

Attached to the main structure by a covered canopy will be a hexagonal unit housing a large lecture hall and new university art gallery. The lecture hall will seat more than 60 persons for lectures and music presentations.

According to Varner, the building has been designed to provide large lecture halls as well as small classrooms, en-

Jenkins Is Told Subpoena Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rules Committee has notified Walter Jenkins that he will be subpoenaed to testify in its Bobby Baker investigation.

President Johnson's former top assistant got the word by telephone from the committee's special counsel, L. P. McLendon, who said Thursday no decision had been reached on whether Jenkins would be heard in secret or in open hearing later this month.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, one of the three Republicans on the committee, said later Jenkins would have to be heard in public eventually.

Last October, Jenkins' resignation as a White House assistant was requested by Johnson and accepted after it became known that Jenkins had been arrested twice on morals charges.

The rules committee plans to resume its questioning of witnesses in the Baker case in about 10 days. Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, became a millionaire while on the government payroll. The committee has been poking into his affairs for any evidence that he used his job to promote his private business ventures.

More than a year ago, Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent, swore that in 1957 Jenkins pressured him into buying $1,208 worth of advertising time on an Austin, Tex., television station controlled by Johnson's family. Reynolds said this was after he had sold Johnson the first of two $100,000 life insurance policies.

★ ★ ★

At the time, Johnson was the Senate Democratic leader, Baker was the secretary to the Senate Democrats and Jenkins was Johnson's top assistant. When Johnson became president, Jenkins moved into the White House as a presidential assistant.

In a sworn statement to staff investigators of the rules committee, Jenkins denied "any knowledge of any arrangements by which Reynolds purchased advertising time on the television station."

The committee's Republican members demanded that Jenkins be called for questioning, but they were voted down by the Democratic majority.

CONTOURS OF LAND

Designed to conform to the contours of the land, the brick and precast concrete structure will have entrances at two levels. A covered canopy will extend to the main campus road to connect with North Foundation Hall.

When the building is complete, the language laboratory, now located in South Foundation Hall, will be moved to quarters double the present size to accommodate the growing demand for these facilities.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband, who died in 1962, gave their 1,400-acre Meadow Brook Farms Estate as a site for the OU campus and $2 million for its first two buildings.

Panel Hears Bowling Alley Bias Charge

A three-man panel from the State Civil Rights Commission today heard testimony on alleged racial discrimination in a local bowling alley but postponed its ruling until Jan. 26.

The case was presented by Carl Levin, assistant attorney general, who testified that the 16-team Negro Pontiac Community Bowling League was prevented from bowling at Orchard Lanes, 645 N. Opdyke.

Similar testimony was presented by commission representatives.

Named as one of four respondents in the complaint was Donald A. Spalla, general manager of Orchard Lanes, who testified that there were not enough lanes available for the league during "prime time," 5:30-9:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday, which the league requested.

★ ★ ★

Levin asked that the bowling alley management be forced to comply with several requirements, including an offer of space to the league during the 1965-66 winter season.

TO PRESENT CASE

William T. Gossett, chairman of the commission, said the case will be presented to the full commission at its Jan. 26 meeting in Detroit.

A ruling will be made at that time, Gossett said.

U.S. Air, Naval Cover Claimed

Report S. Viets Raid Targets in North

SAIGON (UPI) — Units of the South Vietnamese Air Force and Navy have been attacking military targets in Communist North Viet Nam, reliable sources said today. The raids are reported to have been made with American air and naval cover.

Military informants said the strikes thus far have been carried out by propeller-driven fighter-bombers and PT boats. These were described as "quick" raids which could be expanded at any time.

It was disclosed that the actions have been coordinated with the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. 7th Fleet.

Some military observers said the attacks may be intended more to demonstrate firm American intentions to frustrate a Communist takeover in South Viet Nam than to cut the maze of supply routes feeding the Viet Cong guerrillas.

★ ★ ★

Communist North Viet Nam has made repeated charges that U.S.-supported South Vietnamese commandoes have attacked targets in North Viet Nam.

The Hanoi has claimed to have captured several members of such raiding parties.

The Communists charged in December that South Vietnamese naval units shelled the island of Con Co off the North Vietnamese shore.

On Aug. 5, carrier based U.S. Navy planes attacked north Vietnamese PT boat bases in a retaliatory raid ordered by President Johnson. Those attacks followed Communist PT boat raids against American warships in the Gulf of Tonkin.

★ ★ ★

The attacks reported today followed disclosure that U.S. Air Force fighter-bombers destroyed several bridges on a main Communist supply route in Laos yesterday. The raid was described as the largest yet launched.

THREE KILLED

In an apparently unrelated incident today, two Americans and a Vietnamese were killed when a U.S. Army helicopter hit a power line and crashed in flames northeast of Saigon.

The dead Americans were the pilot, an officer, and the gunner, an enlisted man.

The officer copilot and the enlisted man crew chief were injured. The copilot was seriously hurt.

★ ★ ★

The crash occurred three miles south of Bien Hoa, site of a big U.S. air base in the fringes of Communist territory.

CHECK ON COMMUNISTS

Several flights of U.S. Air Force RF100 VooDoo reconnaissance jet planes were reported to have taken off from Saigon Airport today to check on Communist troop and supply movements to the north.

Reports from Washington said 18 to 24 supersonic jets took part in yesterday's strikes in Laos—by far the largest such combat mission ever launched.

Observers said the attack, in which two of the jets were shot down, was part of a continuing demonstration of American air power in Southeast Asia.

★ ★ ★

Qualified military sources here said air strikes against installations inside North Viet Nam may become the next targets of the heavily armed American jet-striking force based in South Viet Nam.

It was reported that these strikes against North Viet Nam may be made under the guise of U.S. air cover for South Vietnamese fighter-bombers retaliating against guerrilla attacks in South Viet Nam.

Sources said the covering American planes would fire against North Vietnamese ground positions only when fired upon.

In the war on the ground, U.S.-supported South Vietnamese troops launched another operation to search out and destroy Communist guerrillas in the Mekong River Delta.

The latest operation was being carried out by the Vietnamese Army's 21st division in Chuong Thien Province, more than 100 miles southwest of Saigon.

REDS FLUSHED OUT

An American military spokesman said a Communist company was flushed out of the area yesterday. Fifteen Viet Cong were reported killed in the action. Fourteen other guerrillas were captured and 18 suspected rebels detained.

The report said the government forces destroyed two sampans and seized 11 weapons.

On the political front, Prime Minister Tran Van Huong continued consultations with political-religious groups in an attempt to form a more representative government.

Huong met with religious leaders from sects active in the southern part of the country — including the powerful Hoa Hao which maintained its own army in the last days of French colonial rule.

STRONG 10 YEARS AGO

The Hoa Hao were strong enough 10 years ago to challenge the government of Ngo Dinh Diem, then premier, later president and still later overthrown and assassinated in a military coup.

Diem crushed the sect's private army, but the religion is now emerging with new influence.

California May Be Split in Half

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The California State Senate, faced with a July 1 reapportionment deadline, looked today to Congress and to a possible split of the nation's most populous state for solutions.

The 40-member Senate, which represents some 18½ million people, currently is apportioned along geographical lines. The California Assembly is based on population.

The U.S. Supreme Court recently ordered that both houses of state legislatures be apportioned "one-man, one-vote," or by population.

A Los Angeles federal court later ruled in a taxpayer's suit that the state senate must be reapportioned and set the July 1 deadline.

The Senate agreed to abide by the decision, but first wanted to exhaust all avenues of escape.

Reapportionment would mean a shift of from 15 to 20 senators from northern California to the population centers in the south — mainly Los Angeles, San Diego, and Orange counties.

Yesterday, 25 senators—24 of them from the north — cosponsored measures to split California into two states. Seven counties would be in the southern state, 51 counties in the northern.

The action would need two-thirds approval of both legislative houses and an okay by voters in 1966, plus congressional approval.

Grant for Facilities at College in Flint

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The University of Michigan said today it will receive up to $2.4 million from the Mott Foundation of Flint to build additional facilities at the U. of M. Flint College.

In 1956, the Mott Foundation donated $1.2 million to build the Mott Memorial Building on the Flint Campus.

The new grant will provide space needed for the four-year program which the university announced last fall for Flint.

Death Stills Famed Film Songstress

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gene Raymond makes a mournful journey to Hollywood today with the body of his wife, Jeanette MacDonald, lovely songbird of a lilting era in American movies who died of a heart ailment in Houston yesterday. She was 57.

Her death brought an end to a brilliant stage and film career and to her 27-year marriage — a childless one. Her last words to Raymond came in a Houston hospital, where she had been flown Tuesday to undergo heart surgery.

"I love you," she whispered. "I love you, too," he replied.

She died a few minutes later.

The auburn-haired soprano had left her Beverly Hills home in serious but not critical condition as the result of a long-time cardiovascular ailment.

She had been operated upon in June 1963 by Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, who recently performed abdominal surgery on the Duke of Windsor. In December, she had an operation for abdominal adhesions at UCLA Medical Center.

She arrived in Houston by commercial airliner Tuesday and was rushed to Methodist Hospital by ambulance.

Because of her weakened condition, open-heart surgery was postponed, a Hollywood spokesman said. She was being fed intravenously when she died.

Nelson Eddy, Miss MacDonald's partner in a series of melodic films from "Naughty Marietta" (1935) to "I Married an Angel" (1942), said he was "shocked and deeply distressed" to learn of her death.

Eddy once scotched the rumor that the Eddy-MacDonald team was as chilly in real life as another musical partnership, Gilbert and Sullivan.

"There never was a feud," he declared.

Miss MacDonald's career also paired with other top stars — Clark Gable in "San Francisco," Maurice Chevalier in "Love Me Tonight," and "The Merry Widow," Allan Jones in "The Firefly" and Lew Ayres in "Broadway Serenade."

Probe Mystery of Princess

Find Remains of Child Five Centuries Old

LONDON (AP) — Close by Princess Margaret's home, a team of scientists delved today into the mysteries of another princess who died a child bride five centuries ago.

An excavator on an East End building site unearthed a small lead coffin last month. Now it has been identified as that of Anne, Duchess of York, who on Jan. 15, 1477, was married to Richard, one of the murdered "princes in the tower." She died four years later at the age of 8 years, 11 months.

★ ★ ★

Henry Cooper, operating the excavator, found the coffin in a sealed vault 11 feet below ground. It lay within the boundaries of a vanished medieval abbey.

At first archaeologists thought it was another Roman burial, one of hundreds turned up since London started digging deeper to build higher.

DECIPHER INSCRIPTION

Then a Latin inscription on the coffin was deciphered and gave the identification. The little princess was taken to the London Museum, which is part of Kensington Palace, where Princess Margaret lives.

★ ★ ★

On opening the coffin a research team found a skull, covered with matted hair and other bones in fragments of a linen shroud.

★ ★ ★

Pathologists say it may even be possible to determine how Anne died. Child mortality at that time was high, so a natural death could be expected.

More than 70 experts have been assembled for the investigation, among them radiologists, anatomists, metallurgists and dentists. They expect the investigation to last six months. Then the little princess will be reburied in Westminster Abbey, near the tomb of her child bridegroom.

DAUGHTER OF 4TH DUKE

Anne was the daughter of the fourth Duke of Norfolk, England's premier duke, and heiress to vast estates.

She was married in a brilliant ceremony 487 years ago Thursday to Richard, younger son of King Edward IV. The bride was just over 5, the prince was 4½.

Wisniewski quoted Gravlin as saying "In Jackson there is a semblance of normalcy. I won't be with a bunch of nuts."

RIGHTS PROTECTED

Attorney Edward Barrett, president of the Oakland County Bar Association, served on the sanity commission to see that Gravlin's legal rights were insured and was the only member whose opinion was that Gravlin could assist in his own defense.

Gravlin's court-appointed attorney Robert Rann of Royal Oak and Assistant Prosecutor William E. Lang questioned the witnesses.

Last week Gravlin attempted to have Rann dismissed as his attorney but was turned down by Thorburn.

On Tuesday, however, Rann received a letter from Gravlin asking that he continue as defense counsel.

★ ★ ★

Ironically, it was Gravlin's move to dismiss his attorney that brought his recent suicide attempt to light and resulted in the subsequent reexamination.

Court Postpones Trial in School Location Case

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The Oakland County Circuit Court case involving the site chosen for a new Bloomfield Hills high school has met another delay.

The trial scheduled to begin yesterday was postponed until March 2 by Judge Frederick C. Ziem because of a crowded docket and a zoning question still pending before him.

Construction of the school on the west side of Lahser between Long Lake and Hickory Grove is being protested by a group of home owners led by Bloomfield Hills Mayor Louis J. Colombo Jr.

The group filed a suit in August claiming the school would have an adverse effect on the residential character of the neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

The narrow, tree-lined lane should not be assaulted by heavy construction equipment and, later, student traffic, they say.

BOARD RESTRAINED

While the case is in court, the school board is restrained by a temporary injunction from building on the site.

The 40-acre parcel owned by the school board was designated as the place where the district's second high school would be built after it was financed in a June bond issue election.

Cost of the structure is estimated at $2.3 million.

★ ★ ★

Schools Supt. Eugene Johnson said today that the board, which has approved preliminary blueprints for the building, will continue with its plans.

NO ALTERNATIVE

"It's going to hurt," he said, "but we see no other alternative but to see this through. We'll have to fight crowded conditions to the point where we won't be able to do some of the things we wanted to do."

School administrators and teachers have been working with Michigan State University consultants to draw up education specifications for the new building.

"If by any chance we are kept from using this site, we still will have a modern program of secondary education to incorporate someplace else," Johnson said.

★ ★ ★

The present high school, built to house 1,000 to 1,200 students, now is filled to capacity.

CROWDED CLASSES

There are more than 30 students in some of the classes.

"We like to keep down to 25 in college preparatory classes," Johnson said.

High school enrollment is expected to keep increasing at the rate of 150 a year.

"Right now it's saturated — from now on we start to crowd them in," Johnson said.

BREAK GROUND

School officials had planned to break ground March 1 for the second high school so the school could be opened by September, 1966.

Johnson noted that the legal battle also has delayed construction of the district's first public swimming pool, which is to be built with the new high school.

Omaha Hotel Blaze Takes Lives of Two

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Fire which suddenly engulfed a first-floor tap room took the lives of two persons and injured eight in a downtown Omaha hotel early today.

The smell of smoke and an alert night clerk probably prevented more casualties.

Ed Ivey, 50, the night clerk in the Eagle Hotel at 14th and Harney on the eastern edge of the Omaha business district smelled smoke about 4 a.m. He alerted the 50 guests of the 68-room hotel who fled into 15-degree cold.

'HI BROTHER'—'HI SIS'—Margaret Fisher, 22, of Troy, N. Y., holds the hand of her brother, Angelo DiStefano, 19, of Cortland, N. Y., after being separated 19 years. The two were parted when both were adopted.

Parted at Adoption Home

Kin United After 19 Years

CORTLAND, N.Y. (AP) — "It's like a fairy tale," a 19-year-old, who discovered his sister, and a 22-year-old, who suddenly found a brother, chimed after meeting each other.

"I was an only child and now I have a brother," Miss Margaret Fisher, a Troy nurse, told a reporter Thursday night after a high school term paper led Angelo DiStefano of Cortland, the brother she had never known, to her.

★ ★ ★

The pair were separated when Margaret was three and Angelo was an infant. Angelo was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DiStefano.

"The people who adopted my brother were supposed to adopt me too, but when they went to do so they found I'd already been adopted," Margaret, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher of Gloversville, said.

Angelo started his search for his sister three years ago. He was writing a high school term paper on adoptions when Mrs. DiStefano told him he had a sister.

Through the adoption papers used for his research, Angelo discovered the name of the social worker, Miss Mamie Rayburn, who had handled his case.

★ ★ ★

Monday the long search ended. Miss Rayburn sent Margaret a letter telling her of her brother.

"I didn't believe her," the attractive brunette said. "I called her up and talked to her. Then I talked to my brother. We talked for about three hours."

PAYING VISIT

Now she is visiting with Angelo, who is employed by a typewriter manufacturer here, and his family. She plans to be maid of honor in her brother's wedding this September.

U.S. Anti-Fidel Efforts Rapped

Castro Foes Predict Hike in Cuban Sugar

MIAMI (UPI)—An American anti-Castro organization today called U.S. efforts to strangle Cuba economically an "abject failure" and forecast a huge increase in the Communist island's sugar production this year.

The Citizen's Committee for a Free Cuba, a nonpartisan and nonprofit group which claims wide intelligence contacts on the island, took issue with predictions that Premier Fidel Castro is likely to collapse or be overthrown because of economic stress.

Paul Bethel, the committee's executive secretary, commented on recent statements by Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., and other administration figures suggesting the Castro regime will crumble, perhaps this year, from economic chaos.

"The committee's judgment is exactly the opposite," Bethel said, "unless there is some presently unforeseen plan behind our current Cuba policy."

Castro, in a Havana New Year's speech, said Cuba expects to produce 5½ million tons of sugar this year. This would be about 2 million tons more than was reported produced in 1964.

SHORT OF GOAL

"He'll fall short of that," the committee spokesman said. "But we predict Cuba will produce between 4.2 and 4.5 million tons.

"This will be disastrous for U.S. policy."

Bethel, former press attache in the American Embassy at Havana, added:

"If the United States doesn't institute measures to block the Cuban sugar harvest, it would indicate there are forces at work somewhere in the administration which are working for an accommodation with Castro."

★ ★ ★

(U. S. administration officials persistently have denied that there can be any "accommodation" with the Castro regime).

MASSIVE SABOTAGE

Among ways which the committee believes the Cuban sugar harvest could be "blocked," Bethel said, are an American-endorsed buildup of anti-Castro resistance forces on the island, massive sabotage of sugar installations, and a boycott by American stevedores of ships from all countries trading with Castro.

Reports circulating in Miami said one and possibly several exile groups are preparing for infiltration of the island soon.

Commenting on these reports, Bethel said:

"We understand they are being discouraged specifically from undertaking anything along those lines now."

He emphasized that a longshoremen's boycott would have to come "from the unions themselves and not from the government." Venezuelan dockers are presently enforcing a stringent boycott of vessels from nations trading with Castro.

"Castro is making a major effort to break the U.S. economic embargo on Cuba and he is succeeding," Bethel charged.

CITY MISSING — Between the trees in the foreground and Mount St. Helens lies Portland, Ore. A fog layer some 900 feet thick covered it yesterday. A photographer went to the top of Council Crest — 1,200 feet — in southwest Portland, aimed his camera north and caught the great expanse of fog stretching to the foothills of Mount St. Helens more than 50 miles away.

Washington News Briefs

Eye Peace Corps in E. Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Administration officials are discussing the possible extension of Peace Corps activities into Eastern Europe as a means of forging stronger links with the Communist nations.

President Johnson has committed his administration to improved relations with Eastern Europe and has specified increased trade as a means to that end. The Peace Corps idea, however, is strictly in the discussion stage — and at lower levels of the administration.

★ ★ ★

Even if the President were to adopt the idea the countries themselves would have to invite the Peace Corps to send in volunteers. There is no assurance such invitations would be forthcoming.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Albert Watson of South Carolina submitted his resignation from Congress to Gov. Donald Russell Thursday, effective the day Russell calls a special election to fill Watson's House seat.

But Russell said that under the Constitution he cannot call an election until Watson resigns unconditionally; "I think the language is pretty plain," the governor said.

★ ★ ★

Watson was reelected to the House last fall as a Democrat. He supported Barry Goldwater, the Republican candidate for president, at the same time. House Democrats stripped him of seniority. So he became a Republican and as a Republican intends to win his seat again.

Russell's position casts considerable doubt on Watson's plan.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. Michael E. DeBakey, the Houston surgeon who operated on the Duke of Windsor, said Thursday President Johnson's proposal for a network of medical centers could make similar treatment readily available to every American.

DeBakey headed the special presidential commission which suggested the President espouse the medical centers proposal. He did so in his health message to Congress.

★ ★ ★

DeBakey told a news conference that while aneurysms — an arterial disorder which afflicted the duke — are common, "there are at present only a limited number of centers in this country that can give the kind of treatment that is needed."

WASHINGTON (AP) —President and Mrs. Johnson said goodby to retiring Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges and Mrs. Hodges with a White House reception Thursday night.

All members of the Cabinet except Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall were present. The party was a surprise to the Hodges.

★ ★ ★

Said Mrs. Johnson in a toast to the former North Carolina governor and his wife: "Rest easy and be happy but don't think you might not be called on again."

In his last day on the job, Hodges watched the unveiling of a portrait of himself which will be on display at the department.

Retired Adman Expires

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Gordon M. Philpott, 70, retired vice president in charge of advertising and sales for the Ralston Purina Co., died Wednesday of a kidney and lung ailment. Philpott, credited with making the company's checkerboard trademark, was born in Toledo, Ohio.

Nation's Pioneer Job Corpsmen Begin Training at CCC Retreat

THURMONT, Md. (AP) — The nation's first Job Corpsmen, the outriders in President Johnson's war on poverty, began training today at a mountain retreat that housed depression youth of the 1930s.

The pioneer group, which includes 11 Baltimoreans and 19 youngsters from Virginia and Kentucky, will occupy sturdy chestnut log cabins built 30 years ago by the Civilian Conservation Corps.

The training site is in the isolated Catoctin Mountain National Park, about a mile from Camp David where two presidents frequently rested.

The youths will be sworn in at Baltimore City Hall and then will board a bus for the 60-mile trip.

Marion Pines, a 40-year-old Goucher College alumna who is in charge of recruiting in Baltimore, says her office has had at least 750 Job Corps applications in the last six weeks.

"I've never seen anything like it," Mrs. Pines says. "Enthusiasm? That's the understatement of the year."

She said when the nine Negroes and two whites were told they would make up the first group from Baltimore, "the kids couldn't believe it.

Most of the applicants, she said, are high school dropouts who see the Job Corps as a way of correcting a mistake. The corps is open to youngsters between 16 and 21 who are out of school and can't find a job.

The corps houses, clothes and feeds them and gives them $30 a month spending money during the training period which may last a year. An additional $50 a month is put aside for the corpsmen to be paid when training is finished.

Junior Editors Quiz on WHALES

QUESTION: If the whale was once a land animal, why did it take to the sea?

ANSWER: When we think of the whale as a land animal, we are apt to conceive of something like the purely imaginative monster at the top—which never existed.

Scientists tell us that whale did come from four-footed land animals. In many whales, there are tiny bones out of sight where the hind legs used to be.

Whales are warm blooded and give milk to their young just like land mammals. Furthermore, whales show traces of hair, which is something only developed by land animals.

But scientists do not know just what the whale's land ancestors looked like or why they left the land or the stages of change to their present shape. The best we can do is guess, and that's what we're going to do.

We show three present-day creatures which, linked together, might suggest how whales changed. We are not saying that whales actually developed from these creature's ancestors.

We use them only as suggestions. Such an animal as the hairy, short-legged wolverine might have developed an appetite for fish, turned into a shorter-haired streamlined creature like the sea otter, then into something resembling a seal and finally into the present whale form.

The fact that the water held him up allowed the whale to grow to his present enormous size.

FOR YOU TO DO: Our artist has had fun drawing his imaginative four-footed whale. Have some fun with your own imagination. Draw a flying whale with wings.

Judge Holds Court in Back Seat of Car

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Judge Edwin P. Chapman held court in the back seat of a car Thursday in 12 degree below zero weather.

Behind the steering wheel was Ernest B. Poegel, 41, who pleaded guilty to going through a stop sign. Poegel, a cripple, would have had to be carried into Municipal Court if the judge hadn't donned his overcoat and gone outside to hear the case.

Poegel was fined $25.

Hart Sets Hearing on Africa Refugees

WASHINGTON (AP) —Hearings on African refugee problems will be held Jan. 21-22, Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., chairman of the Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Refugees and Escapees, said Thursday.

The hearings will explore the recent Belgian-American rescue mission in the Congo, Hart said, and seek data on the extent of Communist influence in the rebel regime.

Bus Revenue, Patronage Go Down in '64

Pontiac Transit Corp. continued during 1964 to have problems with bus patronage, but the latter part of the year revenue was up.

★ ★ ★

Pontiac Transit finished the calendar year with 790,587 riders and $184,370 in revenue, dropping from last year's totals of 847,269 passengers and $189,142.

The increase in revenue during the latter part of the year resulted from a hike in fares in October. The fare for adult riders was hiked five cents.

Last month the bus firm recorded 70,919 passengers for a revenue of $18,221.

★ ★ ★

In December 1963, however, there were 73,480 riders for a revenue of only $16,476.

PATRONAGE UP

Due largely to the Christmas shopping season, bus patronage was up for December over November.

★ ★ ★

There were 65,077 passengers in November, which brought the transit company only $16,452.

In terms of revenue, December was the best month in 1964.

Valuation of New Waterford Twp. Construction in 1964 Up $792,287 Over 1963

Valuation of new construction last year in Waterford Township amounted to $9,048,829, an increase of $792,287 over the 1963 figure of $8,256,542.

The 1964 valuation was based on 1,088 building permits compared to 1,034 issued in 1963.

Approximately $1.1 million of the 1964 valuation total, however, is not additional tax base for the township. Included in this figure are permits issued for the township library building, two water department buildings and the county's Childrens' Village facility.

Residential construction last year increased substantially over the previous year with 321 housing permits issued during 1964 at a valuation of $5,055,730 compared to 260 at $4,387,910 in 1963.

★ ★ ★

Commercial building activity increased only slightly. A total of 21 commercial building permits were issued in 1964 at a $1,119,400 valuation compared to 20 at $1,102,912 during 1963.

LARGEST PERMIT

The largest single permit issued last year was for the Menscola Convalescent Home on Watkins Lake Road. Its valuation was estimated at $762,000.

Despite the general valuation increase during 1964 over the previous year, valuation of permits issued last month was less than half the valuation of the December, 1963 permits.

Last month 50 permits were issued at a valuation of $313,476. This compares to 28 at $720,600 in the final month of 1963.

Two commercial permits issued in December, 1963 accounted for $550,500 of the valuation total for that month.

RISING TREND

Residential building continued its rising trend last month with the issuance of 15 permits at a $243,730 valuation compared to just six housing permits in December, 1963 at a valuation of $136,370.

★ ★ ★

Richard Lawson, supervisor of the township's building department, estimates that construction valuation will reach $10.5 million this year.

★ ★ ★

His prediction is based on a strong upswing in multiple dwelling construction, good prospects for commercial development and a continued upward trend in residential building.

Romney Sets Course for State Progress

In a 4,000-word State of the State message, acclaimed mutually by Republicans and Democrats, Gov. GEORGE W. ROMNEY gave a comprehensive picture of Michigan's current situation and made general proposals touching six areas for the betterment of living conditions for Michiganders.

ROMNEY

Though the treasury surplus is headed for a $100-million figure, the governor warned that it will likely be exhausted within two years merely to meet unavoidable increase in the cost of public service.

★ ★ ★

He proposed a $200,000 study of the state's fiscal position and outlook aimed at overhaul of the tax and revenue structure, if Michigan is to keep abreast of broadening concepts of good government.

ROMNEY stressed the need for deeper involvement of the State in spheres of education, relief of tax burden on senior citizens and mental health. He called for revision of Workmen's Compensation laws and an attack on the mounting toll of highway fatalities with a safety program built around compulsory vehicle inspection, stricter driver licensing and an increase in the State police force.

There was need, he declared, for more exacting election campaign financial laws and recommended that the voting privilege be extended to 18-year-olds.

★ ★ ★

The chief executive spoke for a bipartisan approach to solution of present and foreseen state problems, with closer cooperation between executive and legislative branches of the government.

ROMNEY's address was a well-balanced and constructive resume reflecting the thought and preparation that had gone into it.

★ ★ ★

It should serve admirably as a navigational chart for steering the ship of state through the economic and social waters that roll in never-ending transition.

Democracy Is a Trade Not Easily Mastered

To idealists in the realm of government it is dismaying to witness the reversals occurring in the process of democratizing the many governmental divisions of Africa.

Of particular concern is the threatened breakup of Nigeria, the Nation formed in 1960 in the image of democracy and considered a guide for other nationalist domains aspiring to independence and self-rule.

★ ★ ★

Yet in the first election held since the country's independence, the event turned into a farce and brought the republic to the verge of collapse.

One of the two contending political parties boycotted the voting and went around systematically destroying voting booths. In some areas no votes were cast.

Even before the voting began, there had been talk of civil war and secession on the part of the four regions—designated by the points of the compass — that make up the federation of Nigeria.

★ ★ ★

In the election, the Nigerian National Alliance won a majority of the 312 parliamentary seats. But the United Progressive Alliance, which had urged its followers to stay home, says it will not recognize the results.

Root cause of the chaos is the reversion to tribal loyalties and animosities, religious differences and economic disparity that transcend the concept of a united state. The Eastern Section, in which a large reservoir of oil was discovered, has threatened to emulate prosperous Katanga's attempt to withdraw from the Congo, and secede.

★ ★ ★

Observers gloomily assert that even if the United Progressive Grand Alliance decides to accept the election results, a truly national government must be evolved, or the clashing divisions will inevitably lead to the country's dissolution.

Education Aid on Easier Path

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, like President Kennedy, has supported the separation of church and state tradition, but this week in his education program he proposed giving parochial schools some federal aid.

MARLOW

But he did this because of a rising tide of help-to-education sentiment in Congress, and did it in such a way that he may run into less of a storm than Roman Catholic Kennedy, who opposed such aid in Catholic schools.

Kennedy made dismal progress in his first two years in trying to get Congress to approve a general aid to education bill, with particular emphasis on help for public grade and high schools.

Congress had never passed a law providing such general aid. In 1961 and 1962 Kennedy emphasized he was not asking aid for parochial schools.

And both times he ran into opposition from the Catholic hierarchy.

★ ★ ★

By 1963 Congress had begun to yield under a third pressure: Rising educational needs.

EDUCATION CONGRESS

It passed such a number of important measure that Johnson, after Kennedy's death late in the year, said the Congress of 1963 would be known as the education Congress.

These were some of the steps taken:

Help for college construction; increased funds for vocational education; a boost in college student loan funds; grants to help build new medical schools.

Nevertheless, not even that Congress touched the sizzling question of general aid for public grade and high schools. And in 1964 Congress ducked this one again.

★ ★ ★

But the measures passed last year under Johnson's prodding were unprecedented in scope and number. Still, Johnson, like Congress, stayed away from the church-state issue as much as he could.

BIGGEST-EVER PROGRAM

Then last Tuesday, Johnson proposed the biggest-ever aid to education program, with accent on children of the poor.

It would provide modest sums to be spent on buying nonreligious textbooks for private and parochial school students and some for educational centers to be shared by public and church schools.

But before he ever sent this program to Congress, Johnson's aides had contacted Catholics and those on the other side of the church-state issue.

★ ★ ★

It was learned more of the Catholic clergy are for the program than oppose it. Catholic members of Congress divide the same way. Some of the opponents are still opposed, some not so opposed.

A Good Place To Start

David Lawrence Says:

Congress Role Key to GOP Fate

WASHINGTON — Whether Dean Burch voluntarily resigned or there was a forced change in the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee is of little relevance or significance as far as the fortunes of the Republican party in the future are concerned.

LAWRENCE

Nor is it of any real importance just now who is aspiring to be the Republican presidential nominee in 1968.

The Republicans in recent weeks have put so much emphasis on their internal squabbles that they haven't seen the forest for the trees.

Actually, the Republican national chairman doesn't make Republican policy or mobilize public sentiment on the issues of the day.

★ ★ ★

While advice is acceptable and all viewpoints from governors and former presidential nominees should be heard, the responsibility for making party policy rests with the Republican members of Congress who are dealing every day with national issues.

LEGISLATIVE QUESTIONS

It is the way these legislative questions are handled which can mean victory or defeat in elections.

The Republicans in Congress have elected Gerald Ford as their new leader in the House of Representatives, and from his public statements there are indications that he is well aware of the difference between the making of party policy in Congress and the mechanics of party organization throughout the country which is usually left to the chairman of the Republican National Committee.

The main function of a minority party is to tell the nation what's wrong with the majority party's policies and to explain how they will be detrimental to the public interest. Alternatives are important, but only as principles and as major objectives.

The Republican party in Congress will have numerous "task forces" to help it analyze current issues and prepare speeches of opposition, but this alone will not build the Republican party's chances for victory.

MAJOR WEAKNESS

One of the chief weaknesses on the Republican side is in the field of communication. It has been very ineffective in presenting its point of view to the country, though, to be sure, much of the difficulty has been in the fact that the Republican party in Congress has not been articulate or able to concentrate on major points of opposition to the party in power.

★ ★ ★

The Republican party's job, therefore, lies not in worrying about the ideology of a party chairman, but what the Republicans in Congress are going to do.

Popular Arizona Subject Bad Weather Elsewhere

PHOENIX, Ariz.—You never realize how bad the weather is in New York until you read the newspapers printed in sunnier climes of the republic.

CONSIDINE

It never seems nearly that grueling if you're in the middle of it, in New York.

You look up from a story describing the big town as a cross between Lower Slobovia and Point Barrow and there spread before your eyes is the blooming desert, the rolling mountains of this part of the world, the cloudless blue heaven and people who say "Howdy?" or "Hi'ya?" as if they were interested in an answer.

In other words, they're blessed with lovely weather at this time of year, here and a few other places in the land, but they don't want to let you forget how bad things are elsewhere.

This is surely the fastest growing of the sun countries. In 1940, Phoenix had a population of 65,000. By 1960 the figure had jumped to 439,170.

Today, it is above the 525,000 mark, and the metropolitan area is nuzzling at 850,000. This incredible population explosion has taken place, curiously, in the adopted state of Margaret Sanger, early advocate of birth control.

If you suffer from sinus, arthritis, asthma, hay fever and claustrophobia, this is your country.

If you like golf, you've got to try the new Desert Forest course at Carefree, Ariz., which emerges like an emerald mirage in the big-rock section of the desert. If you'd like to make a closer study of the American rattlesnake, hook or slice into the cactus rough that lines the carpetry of the fairways.

If you stop at Jack Stewart's Camelback Inn, the Goldwater campaign still seems to be going on.

There was a joyful brochure at the front desk this morning entitled "We Hosted a Presidential Candidate at Camelback Inn."

SMALLER PRINT

Underneath the caption, in smaller print, was this: "In All the World Only One." This must refer to the inn, because if memory serves, there were two presidential candidates.

The brochure is well done.

It shows candid shots of Jack getting the word from Barry that the inn would be his headquarters on election night. Another shot of a car coming up the driveway is captioned, "Senator Goldwater Approaching." Then there's one of a hand waving from the car: "Departure of Senator Barry Goldwater."

★ ★ ★

At Mass in nearby (delightful) Scottsdale Sunday, the sermon had to do with the Holy Family. The point made by the priest was that Mary and Joseph allowed their son to go about the business of salvation even at an early age.

"They knew in their hearts they were right," the priest said.

They give up a little hard, out this way.

One of the most beautiful and most needed institutions in Oakland County has been needlessly eliminated in the sale of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Knowing what a great part environment and peace of mind play in the cure of this dread disease, we can sympathize with present and future patients who have apparently been abandoned.

ARTHUR J. BIRD

'Teen-Agers Face Unprincipled World'

I was recently involved in an auto accident in the City of Keego Harbor. A gentleman who witnessed the accident returned while we were waiting for the police. When the officer arrived he told the other party involved to dismiss the witness without taking his name and address.

★ ★ ★

When my mother later questioned discrepancies in the accident report, the investigating officer at the Orchard Lake Police Station, who did not see this accident, told her he felt the witness was not needed.

If these are the endorsed tactics employed by this police department, teen-agers certainly have an unprincipled world to grow up in.

Comments About Parking Near Hospital

Why does the city put three-hour parking limit signs along Seminole street and allow hospital employes to park there all day? We residents wonder if our friends are to park in the city parking lot and pay to visit us. I have never seen the hospital employes' parking lot full.

No one should be allowed to park more than three hours, or the signs should be removed.

'Employes Don't Use Company Products'

Monday's editorial asked that we get relatives to buy Pontiac or GM cars as that is where Pontiac's bread is buttered. It is extreme disloyalty that many GM employes do not drive their own company's product. Three of my neighbors, all GM or Pontiac employes, have two cars each and there isn't a GM car in the six. Not only is their bread buttered by GM, their bread is supplied by GM.

Reports on Demonstration at University

A more reasoned account of the disturbances at the University of California appeared in Saturday Review by James Cass. While he does not necessarily condone the demonstrations, he does point out that we cannot on one hand charge college students with social and political apathy, and on the other hand object when the students show a spirit.

★ ★ ★

The charge of communism should be made only when the evidence is clear. Of twenty student organizations that formed the protest coalition, four were Republican clubs and one a religious one. Mr. Cass cites a report which lists the students among the brightest in the university and among the most advanced academically.

Red Nose

The Oregonian

One of the problems faced by architect Peter M. Hasselmann, who won the competition for the presidential reviewing pavilion for the Jan. 20 inauguration parade, was how to heat the structure. The parade will last seven hours and the President and his guests could become extremely cold in that length of time.

★ ★ ★

After he has satisfied the Secret Service, which objected to some of his designs, Mr. Hasselmann figured the heating problem would be fairly simple. Infrared heat, he decided, would be just the thing. But then he ran into television, which, as everyone knows, is the politicians' chief concern, even ahead of security.

★ ★ ★

Infrared was out. Quite a few citizens will be watching the President on color TV. And infrared, it was discovered would make it appear that Mr. Johnson had a red nose. A red nose is fine for Rudolph, the reindeer, but not for the man who leads the Santa Claus brigade the rest of the year.

Let us not be too critical of modern political cosmetics, however. George Washington probably powdered his wig with unusual care before he took the oath of office.

Italy's Election

The figure of the new president, Giuseppe Saragat, because of his political past, his faithfulness to the principles of democracy and freedom, guarantees the defense of our institutions. The highest office of the state is in good hands. . . .

★ ★ ★

For the new head of state, socialism is synonymous with democracy and freedom; otherwise it is communism and dictatorship. This firm attitude of Saragat has been the object of continuous and implacable attacks by the Communist party. But it remains, immovably, the essence of Giuseppe Saragat's human and political belief.

★ ★ ★

Thus he aligns himself without reservations to the free western world, to the parts of defensive alliance freely supported by Italy, and to the economic integration of Europe: All of which are bonds which he, as foreign minister, worthily worked to strengthen up to the last.

★ ★ ★

Saragat has been consistent in thought and action; he has a wide knowledge of the international world and, in particular, the West, thanks to his studies and his frequent personal contacts with the western political leaders. He is equal, on the internal and world plane, to the high position entrusted to him.

This will no doubt offset the negative impression which the long parliamentary wrangle over his election created both in Italy and abroad.

Usual Response to Aid Request

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has submitted a record low foreign aid request. But he has continued to lump military and economic assistance together and asked that the door be left open for more funds for South Viet Nam. So the usual storm signals are flying.

"Too much, too much," said Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., of the $3.38 billion Johnson called for in a special message Thursday to Congress.

★ ★ ★

"At least $1 billion, possibly $1.5 billion, too high," said Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a member of the foreign relations committee.

But Rep. Otto E. Passman, D-La., who has made a specialty of meat-axing White House foreign aid requests, was subdued. And Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the foreign relations committee who has said he would not manage the bill unless military and economic assistance requests were separated, adopted a wait-and-see stance.

TESTS METTLE

Getting a foreign aid request through Congress in recognizable form has been a test of every president's mettle since the program was instituted in 1948.

★ ★ ★

The $3.38 billion Johnson wants is the lowest presidential aid request ever, but it is more than $600 million above the $2.7 billion President Dwight D. Eisenhower was able to cadge out of Congress for fiscal 1955-56, and it is $130 million more than Johnson himself got last year.

HEARINGS

Hearings are expected to start in the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which does not share Fulbright's views about splitting military and economic assistance and whose chairman, Rep. Thomas E. Morgan, D-Pa., predicted Thursday that the bill "will have an easier time in the House than it has for years."

★ ★ ★

But foreign aid will have to run the gauntlet of three other committees and then the full Senate and House. Sparks are certain to fly, particularly over continued assistance to borderline friends, such as Indonesia and the United Arab Republic, and Johnson's request for an open-ended military-economic authorization for Vietnamese aid.

★ ★ ★

And Fulbright definitely does not stand alone in beating the drums for reform.

If Congress leaves the door open for the President on Viet Nam, he will be able to go to it directly later for appropriations for the antiguerrilla war without first getting authorization for the money in separate legislation. These appropriations would be in addition to the more than $500 million he wants earmarked for South Viet Nam and Laos.

This struck Morse, a persistent opponent of U.S. policy on Viet Nam, as "the sleeper" in the message.

"Obviously," he said, "this is a proposal for funds to make war in South Viet Nam, a war that has not been declared under our Constitution."

Unprecedented Move

2 Irish Premiers Hold Meeting

DUBLIN, Ireland (UPI) —The 45-year-old dispute between Northern Ireland and the Republic of Ireland took a dramatic turn for the better today because of an unprecedented meeting between the two premiers.

Jubilation erupted on both sides of the border when it was disclosed that Northern Ireland Premier Capt. Terence O'Neill had met secretly yesterday in Belfast with Premier Sean F. Lemass of the Republic.

It was the first Irish "summit" meeting since the 1920 partition when the 26 counties of the predominantly Roman Catholic south became independent while the six Protestant counties of the north remained tied to Britain.

Official comment on the surprise conference stressed its economic objectives, but strong political undercurrents in both capitals happily speculated on the possibility of improved future relations.

Following his return to Dublin, Lemass issued a statement saying, "This meeting has removed a roadblock to cooperation but it is not known yet how far the road goes."

HIGHLY SIGNIFICANT

He added, cautiously, "There is no question but that the meeting was highly significant, but its significance should not be exaggerated."

The two premiers had met and were lunching in the Belfast parliament before it became known they had conferred.

Stringent security precautions accompanied the talks, including dual police escorts on both sides of the border.

While fears were expressed that "too hasty an interpretation and too broad an expectation" might result from the meeting, politicans on both sides of the border saw it as a forerunner to vast changes in relations between the two governments.

Also, Colnul C. Galbraith Jr., 9027 Gittins, 3 years, and John M. Splan, 3181 Edgewood Park, 2 years, both of Commerce Township.

★ ★ ★

In addition, five other drivers were cited for their accident-free records.

Over $100,000 Taken From Pair in Miami

MIAMI (AP) — Masked gunmen robbed a New York couple of an estimated $100,000 in jewels, cash and furs as they returned to their rented houseboat early today, police said.

★ ★ ★

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Al Fienstein of Long Island, N.Y., were greeted by two armed men as they entered their unlocked houseboat, docked at the rear of the harbor spa on the 79th Street causeway. The robbers apparently had already ransacked the boat for valuables and were waiting for the couple, police said.

2 Patients Die in Fire at Hospital

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A brief, but blistering, general alarm fire killed two women patients Thursday night at the state mental hospital. More than 1,000 other patients were threatened but quick work by firemen and others prevented greater tragedy.

About 1,200 patients, some in wheelchairs, were removed into subfreezing temperatures from a women's dormitory and then sheltered temporarily in a nearby auditorium.

★ ★ ★

Most of them wore only nightclothes and were barefoot although some managed to drape blankets around them. A majority of the patients were evacuated within 30-minutes after the blaze was discovered.

"We were very lucky it wasn't much worse," said Robert Blackburn, assistant to the mayor. "Only quick work by firemen prevented it from becoming a terrible disaster."

FIRST ALARM

The first alarm sounded at 9:22 p.m. in the long, rambling, old five-story brick building, which is almost 100 years old.

The blaze broke out in a linen closet on the third floor of the dormitory and spread rapidly through a room with nine beds into a hallway. Cause of the fire and an estimate of the damage were not immediately determined.

★ ★ ★

Firemen at a nearby station house have long familiarized themselves with the buildings of the sprawling South St. Louis hospital complex for such an emergency. The complex houses about 2,600 patients and covers almost nine city blocks.

★ ★ ★

Assistant Fire Chief Robert Olsen said the fire was so hot that it held the firemen back for a few moments, despite their masks and protective fire suits. But once they caught up with the blaze in the hallway, they put it out almost immediately.

Ex-Con Is Boston's 16th Gang Slaying

WILMINGTON, Mass. (UPI) —The nearly nude, shot and beaten body of an ex-convict was found early today giving greater Boston its 16th gangland slaying in 10 months.

★ ★ ★

The body was identified through fingerprints as that of Robert Rasmussen, 36, of Dedham. Rassmussen had been released from Walpole State Prison on Nov. 16. Police said he had a long record, including forgery convictions.

★ ★ ★

His frozen body was dressed only in underwear and black socks. A striped necktie with a windsor knot hung loosely from his neck.

World News Roundup

Hostages Freed as Latin Strike Ends

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Twenty-four bedraggled hostages whom striking shipyard workers threatened to throw out of second-story windows were released Thursday night when agreement was reached on a dispute over back pay.

About 300 strikers at Astarsa, Argentina's largest private shipyard, had gone on strike Tuesday, claiming the company was three weeks behind in wages and had not paid the annual year-end bonus provided by law.

★ ★ ★

The strikers grabbed management engineers Wednesday and threatened to hurl them from a two-story building if police interfered. The hostages said they had been given a sandwich a day.

A police source said the strike leaders may be charged with kidnaping.

STOCKHOL M (AP) — John Uno Norman, a 55-year-old Swedish businessman, is on trial on a charge of attempted espionage for the Soviet Union. The trial is closed to the public.

Norman was accused of obtaining U.S. electronic products used by Sweden for defense so that he could sell it to the Russians. The prosecution said the items included microtransistors, radar material and mines.

★ ★ ★

Police said Norman admitted acquiring some classified information but denied plans to sell it.

MOSCOW (AP) — Top government and Communist party leaders of Eastern Europe will meet in Warsaw next Tuesday, possibly to discuss the multilateral nuclear force proposed for the North Atlantic Alliance.

A brief communique Thursday night said the political consultative committee of the Warsaw Treaty Organization would meet. This brings together leaders from Bulgaria, East Germany, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Romania and the Soviet Union.

ENUGU, Nigeria (AP) — Dr. W. A. Visser't Hooft apparently will remain head of the World Council of Churches, at least until mid-1966.

The council's central committee Thursday night shelves a nominating committee's choice for general secretary and decided to appoint a new committee. The committee would further consider a successor for the Dutch theologian who has headed the council since he founded it in 1948.

The committee nominated Dr. Patrick C. Rodger, 43, a member of the Episcopal Church in Scotland and the head of the council's faith and order department.

Dr. Visser't Hooft is 65 and had requested retirement this year.

STOCKHOLM (AP) — The Swedes have been cautioned to limit themselves to three pheasant each. Three to eat, that is.

A veterinary research team reported today that pheasant shot during the fall season had eaten mercury-cured seeds, outlawed last May as a poultry feed.

The researchers found pheasant meat contained as much as 800 times the safe limit of mercury set by the World Health Organization. They warned that eating more than three birds could cause brain damage, blindness or paralysis.

USIA Blasted for Staging Viet Movie

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Information Agency was blasted on the House floor by Rep. Charles E. Chamberlain, R-Mich., Thursday for making "a phony propaganda movie about the red hot war" in South Viet Nam.

Chamberlain said that in staging battle scenes for a movie about the war the USIA violated its function of "telling the truth about America to the world."

★ ★ ★

USIA officials here, who said they learned about the make-believe battle from an Associated Press story, have announced the staged scenes will not be released.

Chamberlain said in making such a movie the USIA was paralleling "the deceit practiced by the administration on the over-all picture of the war in Viet Nam."

WANTS TRUTH

"It's time the administration started telling the truth," he said.

USIA Director Carl Rowan, whose decision it was to scrap the synthetic battle scenes and sounds, has called for an explanation of the whole incident involving a mock attack by Vietnamese troops.

Cut Your Own Taxes—9

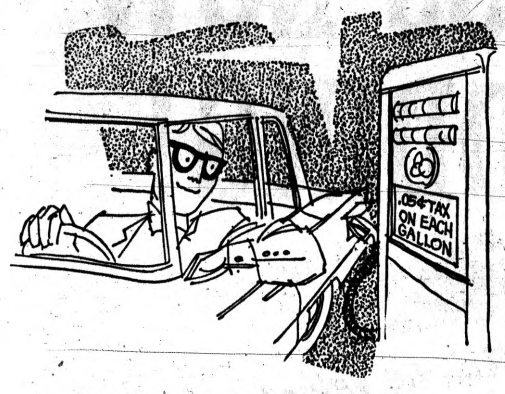
Many Former Deductible Items Are Not Included in New Law

By RAY DE CRANE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Many taxes formerly deductible on the annual income tax return were eliminated by the 1964 Revenue Act. These are the tax on cigarettes and alcoholic beverages and fees paid for auto license tags and drivers' licenses.

The Treasury Department also has reviewed the sales tax allowance charts in the 38 states having state, county or city sales taxes.

For each state Internal Revenue Service now has a chart showing the optional amount of sales tax which may be deducted without any proof being required. These automatic allowances are based upon total income and the number of persons in the family.



Gasoline Taxes Are Deductible

In most of the states the sales tax allowances for 1964 returns are not as liberal as those permitted in former years.

★ ★ ★

There is this saving grace: Unlike the experience of past years IRS will now permit taxpayers who purchased an automobile in 1964 to add on to the allowance in the state schedule for sales tax the actual amount of state sales tax paid on an auto purchase.

CAR PURCHASE

This probably will mean that the taxpayer who buys a car every year or two will have in the aggregate a higher allowance for sales tax than formerly. Those who buy a car no more often than every three years will have a smaller deduction.

Also deductible in the tax column are real estate taxes (but do not include special assessments for roads or sewers), state and local gasoline taxes, state and local income taxes and personal property taxes which many states have on investments and revenue-producing securities.

It is well to remember that NO federal taxes such as those charged on transportation, utilities, admissions and the various excise taxes are deductible.

★ ★ ★

Here is the gas tax for the various states:

5 cents — Illinois, Kansas, Missouri, Texas, Wyoming.

5½ cents — Massachusetts.

6 cents — Arizona, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, District of Columbia, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Wisconsin.

6½ cents — Arkansas, Georgia, Vermont.

6.58 cents — Oklahoma.

★ ★ ★

7 cents — Alabama, California, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia.

★ ★ ★

7½ cents — Washington.

8 cents — Alaska.

Maryland was 6 cents to June 1, 1964, 7 cents thereafter.

Labor Promised Congressional Action on Repeal of Taft-Hartley 'Right to Work'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Several hundred AFL-CIO leaders from all over the nation headed home today to spread the word that organized labor has a promise of speedy action on its No. 1 goal in Congress—repeal of Section 14B of the Taft-Hartley Act.

This is the so-called "right-to-work" section of federal labor law that allows the states to prohibit contracts that require all employes to join a union.

★ ★ ★

Chairman Adam Clayton Powell of the House Education and Labor Committee told the 800 labor leaders attending a legislative conference that hearings will begin Jan. 25. He said the repeal bill would be sent to the House floor by March 1.

★ ★ ★

This was the first firm word of action on the measure. Previously, administration spokesmen from President Johnson on down had been vague about the timing of the repeal legislation, which is sure to set off a pitched battle in Congress.

'NOT EASY'

Rep. Frank Thompson Jr., D-N.J., whose labor subcommittee will conduct the hearings, said:

"We are going to have a hard time. It isn't going to be easy." Johnson reportedly wants to get some other prime administration goals, particularly health care, out of the way before the 14B fight starts.

The health care for the aged measure reportedly still will get priority in the House.

★ ★ ★

Informed sources said the timing of the 14B repeal measure was worked out between Johnson and AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Powell stepped out ahead of Johnson and pleased the AFL-CIO leaders by announcing he will propose legislation on two prime labor goals still opposed by the administration.

One will be to increase the federal minimum wage from $1.25 to $2 over three years and the other to cut the standard work week from 40 to 32 hours over two years.

More than 85 per cent of all the churches in the U.S. have Sunday schools. Their estimated enrollment is about 30 million.

★ ★ ★

Carol is the first student from Pontiac Northern to go overseas through a foreign exchange program of this sort. As yet it is not known whether she will be placed in Western Europe, South America or Japan.

A student wishing to go abroad through an exchange program must have a good scholastic record, an interest in people, be active in school, church and community affairs and be willing to accept responsibilities.

Carol was chosen because she has all these qualifications. Her trip will be sponsored by Pontiac Northern's International Club, formerly known as the AFS.

★ ★ ★

The students are Allan Benson, junior, and David Han and Leroy Pritchard, both seniors.

These high-scoring students took a second part of this test early in December, but as yet the results are unknown.

Top 100 students along with their principals will be invited to attend the awards banquet which will be held at Oakland University Feb. 20.

Pat Smiddy, a senior, was Northern's representative Sunday at the Junior Miss Pageant held at Northern.

Few Favor Expanding War

Viet Withdrawal Opposed by Senators

(Editor's Note: Amid the sound and fury over U.S. policy toward Viet Nam, the issue is being quietly examined by a relatively small group of Congressmen who will have an important voice in the final decision—members of the House and Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committee.)

★ ★ ★

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Whatever the future holds for Viet Nam, members of the two Senate committees closest to the problem overwhelmingly oppose an outright withdrawal of U.S. military power from that shaky anti-Communist bastion.

But a survey of the foreign relations and armed services committees by United Press International also disclosed that only a handful of this group of lawmakers favor any dramatic expansion of the U.S. military commitment there.

Twenty-two of the 32 members of the two key committees gave their opinions. Several declined firmly to comment until they have more information.

The survey confirmed indications that senior legislators are waiting for some "lead" from President Johnson on future policy toward Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

All 22 were opposed to withdrawal under present conditions.

Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., newly elected Democratic whip and a foreign relations member, said the cost of proving to the Communists that "constant aggression is not profitable" will be no greater in South Viet Nam than somewhere else.

'BETTER ADVICE'

"President Johnson has been to Viet Nam," he said. "He has better advice on the situation there and is the best informed man on the subject. I think he should make the decision, and I expect to support him in it. For the present, his decision appears to be to stay and fight, and that seems to be right to me."

Most senators who favored standing fast either were opposed to extending the war to North Viet Nam or hedged on the question.

An exception was Sen. Howard Cannon, D-Nev., a reserve general in the Air Force and an armed services committeeman.

★ ★ ★

"We should increase our aid to Viet Nam to let that country follow the policy of hot pursuit," he said. "We should take whatever steps necessary, even above the North Viet Nam border, to stop aggressive forays.

★ ★ ★

"The Vietnamese should be allowed to make contact and continue contact until they knock hell out of the Viet Cong. I am not prepared to say we should go in with our own troops."

RUSK BRIEFING

Chairman J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., whose foreign relations committee has been briefed by Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the crisis, said "we should continue our efforts for the present" in hope of working out a stable solution.

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., ranking GOP member on armed services, declined to rule out the possibility of either expanding the conflict or neutralizing the country. But he said:

"We certainly cannot get out of South Viet Nam, at least for the present time. I would not, under present conditions, favor bombing or going beyond that nation's borders or, on the other hand, favor steps to neutralize the country."

Few members endorsed Sen. Wayne Morse's continuing demand that the Viet Nam problem be laid in the lap of the United Nations. Sens. Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio, and Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., both foreign relations members, urged that Asian countries be brought in to help save the Vietnamese. Five senators agreed it might be worth trying for U.N. action, but were not optimistic.

U.S. ACTION

Would Congress support the President if he decided to enlarge U.S. military action in South Viet Nam? More than half of those interviewed did not answer specifically and only six had an affirmative reply. Some said it would depend on the form of his proposal.

The idea of neutralization of South Viet Nam won only scattered backing. Again, a number said, this would depend on what kind of neutralization — effective or the kind that would lead to a Communist takeover.

Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont., a foreign relations member and Asian expert, reiterated that French President Charles de Gaulle's suggestion of neutralization should receive "most serious consideration."

But he stressed that "we should not withdraw unless and until a satisfactory, internationally guaranteed settlement is achieved."

★ ★ ★

As for bombing Red supply lines or bases in North Viet Nam forces, Mansfield said:

"We should not expand the military action. Of itself, expansion will not resolve the problem. It is more likely to enlarge it and in the end we may find ourselves engaged with American forces all over Asia in full-scale war."

POLICY CHAIRMAN

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper, R-Iowa, GOP policy chairman and another foreign relations member, called for a "clear-cut policy" but no withdrawal. He, too, opposed extending the war to North Viet Nam but said "we should take steps to see that those South Vietnamese borders are sealed."

Like most of the other senators, Hickenlooper could only voice hope that a stable South Vietnamese government could be established. He said he did not know if this can be achieved.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., an armed services member and chairman of the Atomic Energy committee's weapons subcommittee favored standing fast.

★ ★ ★

"There has been much talk of 'neutralizing' South Viet Nam," he said. "The fact is that our obective is a neutralizing of that country — but not the kind people have been talking about.

A NEUTRAL

"In order for South Viet Nam to survive as a 'neutral' it must be strong enough to protect its territorial integrity.

"That would be a 'hard' neutrality which would help all of Southeast Asia — in contrast with a 'soft' neutralism which would lay the foundation for a Communist takeover."

Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., a foreign relations member who has a son serving on the USS Tucker, one of the destroyers fired upon off North Viet Nam, said a withdrawal would be "catastrophic for the cause of freedom in that whole area."

★ ★ ★

"I think we have to beef up our effort to the point where we can hold the line," he said. "I think we must look for a stalemate of sorts, then we can say 'let's negotiate.' I do not favor bombing supply lines in the north. Ours should be defensive action. And I do not believe we should commit American forces in South Viet Nam."

TOUGHER ACTION

Smathers was one of those who thought taking the issue to the U.N. might work if tied to tougher military action.

"When the Communists understand we're going to stay in Viet Nam, the Communists in the U.N. would talk," he reasoned.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., No. 2 man on the armed services committee, shared the recently expressed opinon of Chairman Richard B. Russell, D-Ga.

★ ★ ★

"I wish we could get out of South Viet Nam," Byrd said. "But I don't see how we can do it under present circumstances. And I don't see that we can greatly expand our effort there without the serious risk of war with China . . . we made a serious mistake in ever getting into Viet Nam in the first place."

Actress Puts Marriage First

LONDON (AP) — Rachel Roberts said today she is quitting stardom to spend more time with her husband, Rex Harrison.

"I love Rex. I have to be with him. It's as simple as that," said the 35-year-old actress who was nominated for a Hollywood Oscar last year for her performance in "This Sporting Life."

Miss Roberts now has the title role in the hit musical "Maggie May." She said she will leave the show next month.

Into her role steps sultry Georgia Brown, the Cockney-born Broadway star for whom "Maggie May" was planned originally.

LONG ABSENCE

"I've had leave of absence from my marriage for too long," said Miss Roberts.

"Rex and I have only seen each other for the odd weekend. He's been filming in Italy.

"Some weekends I've flown out there on the Sunday and come back on the Monday. Sometimes he would come to London just for one night.

"It's not good enough. You can't be married on that basis.

"Much as I adore the part of Maggie — the best I've ever played — my marriage must come first.

"Giving up the role involves a tremendous sacrifice. But that's the price you pay when you love someone, and I love Rex."

Miss Roberts said she and her 56-year-old husband have started negotiations to adopt a baby.

Socialite Succumbs

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (AP) — Mrs. Mary Glover Nettleton, 70, prominent in New York, Newport and Palm Beach society, died Thursday. Mrs. Nettleton, who published three volumes of her own poetry, was born in Kansas City, Mo.

Japanese Premier Sato Honored in New York

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York, presented a golden key to the city to Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato at a dinner last night.

"This key opens our hearts but not our treasury because I am afraid there is not much there," Wagner said referring to the city's chronic deficit.

The world birth rate is now 37 per 1,000 inhabitants.

Arends Win Tied to Fear of 2nd Barry Rebuff

WASHINGTON (AP) — Southern Republican congressmen were "scared to death" to support House Leader Gerald R. Ford's whip candidate because it might have been construed as an anti-Goldwater move, a highly placed pro-Ford source said today.

He ascribes to this factor the defeat of Ford's personal choice for the assistant leader's job, Rep. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen of New Jersey.

★ ★ ★

Instead of following Ford in his first test as their new leader, House Republicans Thursday reelected the old whip, Leslie C. Arends of Illinois, by a 70-59 margin.

Arends was an early backer of Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination, while Frelinghuysen is considered a liberal.

MAJOR FACTOR

Political observers credit Goldwater's states rights stand on the civil rights issue as a major factor in helping him to carry five Southern states and in electing seven new Republican congressmen from Deep South states.

Of the total of 15 Republicans from Southern states, according to the Ford leadership count, all but three voted for Arends in the secret ballot.

★ ★ ★

"It was a matter of bad timing," the source said, "coming right after the announced resignation of Dean Burch (as Republican national chairman).

"If the whip election had come first it would have gone very differently. But the Southerners told Ford they just couldn't afford two anti-Goldwater things in a row in the party. They were scared to death."

Ford himself said, "Well, some days you win and some days you lose."

Arends said, "I'm going to try to make Jerry look good." Arends served under Ford's two immediate predecessors, and said in advance he would be completely loyal to Ford if he won. He insists his election was not a repudiation of Ford by those Ford is supposed to lead.

★ ★ ★

Frelinghuysen told friends, "I like to think I'm glad I tried."

One of the younger "activists" who strongly supported Ford and Frelinghuysen, Rep. Albert Quie of Minnesota, said what hurt Frelinghuysen the most was his membership in the Wednesday Club, a group of about 20 liberal Republican House members.

PARTY FACTION

"They (fellow Republicans) looked at this group as an effort to factionalize the party," Quie said.

But Rep. John Lindsay, R-N.Y., a founder of the Wednesday Club, denied the result was a blow at his group, which had asked for more representation in the leadership.

★ ★ ★

"I am very happy that Jerry Ford showed his intention by supporting Frelinghuysen," Lindsay said in an interview. "So we lost, but I give Ford a lot of credit. And who can be mad at Les Arends He'll make a good whip."

Halleck's Step Down Proves a Long One

WASHINGTON (AP) — Charles A. Halleck takes the last, long step from the office of House Republican leader today — and accomplishes what no congressman has done before.

The deposed GOP House chief becomes the first to move into the huge, costly and unfinished Rayburn Office Building — thus leaving the place of the mighty for the echoing halls of the mighty few.

★ ★ ★

Saturday morning, as soon as the Halleck staff has moved out bags and baggage, the new GOP leader, Gerald R. Ford, will move into the Capitol office of the leader with his files, books — and problems.

Halleck, the self-proclaimed "gut fighter" from Indiana, won't be around for the sentimental journey from the office under the Capitol dome with its magnificent view of the mall and the Washington Monument.

FINE VIEW

When he arrives back in town in time for the inauguration next week, he'll find himself settled in a second-floor, three-room suite — with a fine view of the Capitol, a long walk away.

Until the subway system is operating between the Rayburn building and the Capitol, the 64-year-old Halleck will have to walk through the underground walkway from his office to the House chamber, not counting escalators and elevators.

★ ★ ★

That may not be for long, however. The two cars for the subway — each to carry 24 passengers and an operator — are to be delivered and put in place today. The hopes are that they will be zipping along by the end of next month.

It'll be lonely in the Rayburn building for a while, before the offices for the 168 other congressmen who'll be quartered there are completed. So far Halleck's only neighbors will be workmen and some subcommittees holding sessions there.

★ ★ ★

The Capitol architect's office reports that some of the offices still lack furniture and carpeting.

Because of the need for finding a place for Halleck — and quick —furniture for his office was borrowed from others.

Loss Mounting in Dock Strike

Cost Is Estimated at $67 Million a Day

NEW YORK (UPI)—Spurred by a government report that the five-day dock strike was costing nearly three times as much as originally estimated, Longshore union leaders and some rank and filers today continued efforts to win converts to a once-rejected contract.

★ ★ ★

Federal Maritime Administrator Nicholas Johnson said yesterday the Maine to Texas longshoremen's strike was sapping the nation's economy at the rate of $67 million a day.

Heretofore, the cost to the maritime industry and related industries was believed to be about $25 million daily.

"It's a great tragedy for the American merchant marine and the American people," Johnson said.

★ ★ ★

He said 80 to 90 per cent of the nation's manufacturing plants are serviced through the strike-bound East and Gulf coast ports.

GOVERNMENT SURVEY

Releasing results of a government survey, the Commerce Department official said the strike had halted the movement of imports and exports at a cost of more than $66 million a day.

It also idled 75,000 longshoremen, 12,000 seafarers and 15,000 persons in related industries, he said.

American passenger ships, tied up by union seamen respecting picket lines of the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA), were losing revenue at the rate of $200,000 a day.

★ ★ ★

Four big American-flag liners were marooned in the port of New York while foreign ships came and went.

PROPOSED PACT

The strike began last Monday, three days after ILA members on the New York-New Jersey waterfront rejected a proposed four-year contract the union leadership saw as a pattern for settlements in all East and Gulf ports.

★ ★ ★

The agreement provided the industry's first guaranteed annual wage as a hedge against a gradual reduction in work gang sizes.

U. S. Envoy to Egypt Back in Washington

CAIRO (AP)— U.S. Ambassador Lucius Battle flew to Washington today to confer on the strained relations between the United States and the United Arab Republic. He will be there 10 days.

Washington has held up a decision on $35 million in extra aid President Gamal Abdel Nasser requested to ease a food shortage. U.S. food aid to Egypt now totals $140 million a year. Battle took over the diplomatic post last September.

Dean Emeritus Expires

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Everett William Lord, 93, founder and dean emeritus of Boston University's school of business administration, died Thursday. Lord, who was dean of the business school from 1913 until 1941, earlier had served as assistant commissioner of education for Puerto Rico.

Avon Clears Way for 'Medical Village'

AVON TOWNSHIP — The Township Board has given its approval to the rezoning of land next to the proposed site of the Rochester Branch of Crittenton General Hospital in order to permit construction of a "medical village" and an unknown number of apartment buildings.

Dealing with the professional site first, the board voted unanimously to reclassify 14 acres with 700 feet of frontage on Walton Boulevard and 900 feet on Livernois Road from general farming to administrative and professional.

This will allow Lloyd E. Smith of Bloomfield Hills to go ahead with plans for a medical-dental clinic on that property.

The second step also received the board's unanimous approval.

It was the rezoning of about 32 acres with 1,180 feet fronting on the east side of Livernois from general farmland to multiple dwelling classification.

★ ★ ★

Both rezoning requests had been previously approved by the regional planning commission, zoning board and county coordinating zoning committee.

NOT FINAL

Although site plans are not yet final, Smith said that the design of the professional building or buildings would match that chosen for the Crittenton Hospital branch.

He is purchasing the land from Howard L. McGregor Jr. who also donated the hospital site.

Included in the property Smith plans to develop are the buildings now occupied by the Snyder Dairy.

★ ★ ★

In other action, the board decided to ask the Oakland County Department of Public Works (DPW) for a cost estimate on how much work the township would have to undertake in engineering studies on the possibility of extending the Oakland University sewer arm.

A request for such an extension has been received from engineers representing a number of city residents who desire sewer service.

★ ★ ★

Once the DPW provides the cost estimate, the board will again consider authorizing the engineering studies.

Ottawa District Boy Scouts Set for Polar Bear Derby

Klondike sleds ready and outdoor skills foremost in their minds, the Boy Scouts of the Ottawa District will rush off to the Polar Bear Derby tomorrow.

Their course will be at the Kensington Park group campsite near Milford.

The derby is a rugged winter event which calls for teamwork and Scout know-how, according to John Watzke, district camping and activities chairman in charge of the derby.

Patrols of five to eight Scouts will pull Klondike-type sleds in the 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m. event.

The previously laid-out trail will run between designated spots where Scouts skills will be tested. Each station will bear the name of a Yukon town.

TO SOLVE PROBLEMS

Problems to be solved at the spots include first aid, ice rescue and bandaging a broken or sprained limb at "Dawson," rope work and essential knots at "Yukon Peak," measuring distance or height at "Kodiak" and compass work at "Skagway."

At "Fairbanks" there will be a gold-rush race, an efficiency test of sleds on a downhill run for speed and durability.

The Scouts will build a fire and heat chocolate at "Polar Cove" to test skill and speed at fire building.

★ ★ ★

'GOLD NUGGET' AWARDS

Patrols will be awarded "gold nuggets" for points earned at each station and for such things as patrol teamwork, Scout participation and conduct, good turns and good sled design.

★ ★ ★

A "poke" of earned nuggets will be turned in by each patrol leader to qualify for awards, with the biggest earning the Polar Bear Trophy. There also wil be trophies for second and third place winners and a streamer for each participating patrol.

Goodfellows to Elect

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Election of officers is on the agenda for the Commerce Township Goodfellows meeting Sunday at 5 p.m. in Commerce Fire Hall No. 1. All Goodfellows are urged to attend.

Apply Now for Forestry Practices

The Oakland County Agriculture and Stabilization Committee is accepting applications for three forestry practices again this year.

These include planting trees for forestry purposes, thinning and release of desirable trees and pruning of crop trees.

ASC county offices will make cost-share payments to assist farmers to carry out these practices.

Technical service for these practices is furnished by Al Phillips, area forester from the Imlay City District Conservation office.

★ ★ ★

Phillips will be at the County Extension Office, 155 N. Saginaw, Pontiac, Monday to consult with farmers and woodland owners about any forestry problems they may have.

TREES, SHRUBS

Besides the above forestry practices, trees and shrubs can also be cost-shared for wildlife food plots, for erosion control and for windbreaks.

★ ★ ★

The Oakland County Committee reminds all farmers interested in any of the practices for planting trees that they can apply at the ASCS Office at 63 Oakland, Pontiac.

Application must be made before the practice is started, to receive cost-share payments.

No Vacation for OU Coed

Handbags Pay for Paris Stay

AVON TOWNSHIP—Although she doesn't own one purse today, two years ago pretty Oakland University coed Robin Young, had 85 of them — handsewn and all for sale.

A talented art major and scholarship student, Robin decided that color slides and lectures on European art were no substitute for firsthand study.

On top of that, as the oldest of 10 children, she felt that after 20 years of group living, she needed to strike out on her own for awhile.

Undismayed when friends said the cost of a year in Europe would be prohibitive, Robin hit on the plan of making and selling the purses to help provide the necessary funds.

★ ★ ★

The purses were a sellout, and with additional earnings from a job as waitress at a summer resort the resourceful young entrepreneur was able to make the trip.

NO VACATION

She lived and studied in Paris for seven months, but it was no vacation. She ended up working 12 hours a day as a nursemaid and cook for a French family — scarcely a change from some of the family duties she had left behind in Michigan.

Four months of travel through nine countries made her 11-month stay worth all the effort.

Back at Oakland University this year as a junior, Robin is one of more than 300 students receiving scholarship assistance through the efforts of the OU Scholarship Committee, made up of volunteer women from Oakland and Macomb counties.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the assistance provided by her scholarship, Robin works 20 hours per week as a student employe and assistant in the art department. She manages this in spite of carrying five courses instead of the normal three or four.

MIXED FEELINGS

With time at a premium, the big sister to five brothers and four sisters in the family of the Rev. and Mrs. Robert C. Young of 1396 New Life has some mixed feelings about life in a large family.

She feels it's "a good way to learn flexibility and an openness to others' ideas," but admits that cooperating with "the herd" in such matters as meals and transportation leaves her wishing there were more hours in a day.

As if she wasn't already fully occupied, the enterprising coed keeps her hands busy in class knitting sweaters for her brothers and sisters whenever she's not taking notes.

★ ★ ★

Asked if this wasn't carrying efficiency too far, she laughingly explained that she bought enough wool in England to fit them at their current proportions.

"I'm knitting like mad to finish before they grow out of them," she said.

PURSUES TALENT—Scholarship student Robin Young of Avon Township works on a piece of sculpture in her major field at Oakland University. Daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Robert C. Young of 139 New Life, she recently completed a firsthand study of European art abroad, earning the money for her 11-month stay herself.

DESIGN IN STEEL — Relatively warm temperatures before the recent cold snap speeded construction of the new Bopp-Decker, Inc. plant on East Drahner, just off M24, in Oxford. A little ahead of schedule, the building is slated to be ready for occupancy by June 15. Most of the steel and much of the block wall work is done on the 160x380-foot factory which will manufacture plastic double-wall food and beverage vessels. The company has outgrown its present manufacturing facilities in Royal Oak and Birmingham.

Classes Next Week for Rochester Adults

ROCHESTER — Adult education classes to be held mainly at the two junior high schools and the senior high, will start next week.

★ ★ ★

Registration will take place the first night any given class is offered.

Ten enrollees will be required to form a class and any class with less than this number will be dissolved after the first meeting.

Among the 10 new courses to be offered is a unique one titled "Basic Education Program."

★ ★ ★

It consists of beginning reading, writing and arithmetic skill for anyone who has not finished his elementary education or wants a refresher before attempting secondary school work.

OTHER CLASSES

Others include bookkeeping, basic electricity, jewelry marking, clothing the family, crafts workshop, upholstery, flower arranging and china painting.

Another innovation is intermediate contract bridge which is a follow-up course for those who have had beginning bridge.

Many repeats are included in the whole outline of courses, ranging from typing, English and new math for parents to rug hooking and crewel design.

★ ★ ★

A wide variety of classes is planned to benefit the hobbyist and homemaker and even those who just have time on their hands, according to Al Valencia, director, adult education department.

EXERCISE COURSE

For those who like a little more exercise and possible figure-slimming activities, classes will be offered in square dancing, slimnastics for women and indoor golf.

★ ★ ★

The only class scheduled for Meadow Brook School is intermediate ballroom dancing beginning Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Further information about the courses, most of which run for 10 weeks, can be obtained by calling Valencia at the Board of Education office.

Since 85 per cent of Michigan-produced navy beans are canned, cracked or checked seed coats may become a major problem for the state's bean industry, warns Milt Erdmann, Michigan State University crop specialist.

Blaze Levels Wixom Barn

Century-Old Building Destroyed Yesterday

WIXOM — A four-hour fire yesterday afternoon leveled a century-old barn which had become a landmark here.

★ ★ ★

Loss of the barn on the John Parvu property, 3645 W. Maple, was estimated at $8,000.

Firemen from five departments battled the blaze which was reported shortly before 5 p.m. Trucks assisting the Wixom department were from Milford, Novi and Commerce and Highland townships.

After being put out, the fire flared up again about 10 p.m. but was quickly extinguished, according to Wixom Fire Chief Robert Potter.

★ ★ ★

The two-story building, about 60 by 175 feet, was of wood construction with asbestos siding. It was not currently in use except as a storage area for small equipment.

NO INSURANCE

Mrs. Parvu said the couple recently had canceled insurance on the barn because they were going to tear it down and build a garage on the site.

3 Area Teens Await Trial

ROMEO — Three area youths, all 18, are awaiting trial in Macomb County Circuit Court on charges of arson.

★ ★ ★

Donald F. Schirmer of 16130 30 Mile, Ray Township; Richard Beal, 169 W. Hollister, Romeo; and William Sutton, 12610 29 Mile, Washington Township, are free on $500 bond pleading guilty to the arson charge.

★ ★ ★

They were arraigned, before County Justice Edmund A. Schmidt Jr. on a charge of burning down a vacant home Nov. 15.

HOLLY — A series of five first aid courses sponsored by the Holly Jaycee Auxiliary will begin Monday at Holly Elementary School, 801 E. Maple.

All interested persons are invited to attend the sessions, to be held on five consecutive Mondays.

Filing Deadline Is Near in Troy

TROY — Candidates for various city offices have until 4 p.m. Monday to file nominating petitions with City Clerk J. Lawson Lockhart, and it already appears that a Feb. 15 primary election may be necessary.

Three men, including two incumbents, have filed for two city commission seats, and two others for the position of mayor.

A third petition for the mayor's spot would neccessitate the primary.

At present, incumbent appointee Vincent J. McAvoy, who is serving out the unexpired term of former mayor Robert J. Huber, has filed a petition in a bid for election to that office.

★ ★ ★

Competition has come from City Commissioner Clifford Sutermeister, who has also filed for the office of mayor.

MAY SEEK POST

And there are indications that former civil defense director Clarence F. Long, who ran unsuccessfully against Huber in 1959 and 1960, may file a petition for the top city office this time.

If he does, a primary will be held to decide which two mayoralty candidates will face each other in the April 5 general election.

Wallace B. Hudson, also mayor pro tem, and Kenneth Henning have filed petitions for their own expiring commission seats.

Henning is a recent appointee to fill the unexpired portion of McAvoy's term as a city commissioner.

Another petition for one of the two commission seats has come from Alphonse Bajgier, a member of the city's planning commission.

Other positions being vacated in April are those of Municipal Judge Charles Losey and Associate Judge Seville Mason.

Losey has filed for reelection, and W. D. Bollinger has filed for the associate judge spot. So far, Mason has not filed a petition for reelection.

Mother, Child Escape Fire in Troy Home

TROY — A woman and child escaped a fire yesterday afternoon that damaged the two-story frame home in which they were living.

Mrs. Betty DeJohn and her 4-year-old son, William, were the only ones in the house at 136 W. Square Lake when the fire broke out about 12:30 p.m.

Several other children were at school.

Two Troy fire department stations responded to the alarm and brought the blaze under control in just over an hour.

Fire Chief Mike Ford said the fire started in an upstairs bedroom closet. Damage was limited to the second story of the home, and Ford estimated the damage at about $3,000.

He said the home was insured against fire damage.

Hal Boyle Jumps to Conclusions on Human Nature

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Jumping to conclusions:

A leader is a person born with a megaphone in his brain and a desire to shout his ability to the world.

BOYLE

Most great leaders in any field — whether they be politicians, soldiers, businessmen, evangelists, artists or rock 'n' roll singers—are to some extent megalomaniacs. This means they have a mania for great or grandiose performance, plus a feeling of personal omnipotence.

There are two types of megalomaniacs — the noisy ones and the quiet ones. If you have to work for one or another — and most people do — it is better to work for a noisy one.

CAN ALWAYS TELL

You can always tell when you've satisfied the ego of a noisy megalomaniac; with a quiet one you're never sure.

No person is truly educated unless he looks up a word in the dictionary at least twice a week.

You hear a lot about romances between millionaires and hat-check girls. But when it comes to marrying, most hat-check girls wind up with musicians or bartenders.

Being cast up on a desert island all by yourself is pretty dismal, but the loneliest men in civilization are those who play golf with their wives on Saturday because they can't find three other guys to make a foursome.

★ ★ ★

Just holding things together is hardly enough in this world to make you a hero. Whoever built a statue to a paper clip?

SOMETHING TO ANTICIPATE

A woman always should have something to look forward to. That's why a wise husband never gives his bride a diamond engagement ring until their 50th wedding anniversary.

The average beggar is about as shrewd a judge of human nature as the average personnel manager — but he can make quicker judgments.

It's high time universities gave course in "footballeese," the gibberish in which sportscasters describe the art of pushing, kicking, or passing an inflated pigskin up and down a gridiron. It certainly is the most rapidly growing language in America, but I have yet to meet a fan able to tell me in English just what a "flanker back" is, and how he earns his living.

★ ★ ★

What makes many of us so neurotic isn't that we can't have what we want but that we are faced with so many choices we can't decide what we really do desire. The world was just as happy when ice cream came in only three flavors — vanilla, chocolate and strawberry.

All hobbyists become public bores with their bragging except the fellow who secretly collects French postcards.

Supervisors From 6 Counties Meet

Metro Unit OKs Legislative Program

The Supervisors Inter-County Committee yesterday approved a lengthy legislative program for 1965.

The program was presented to the six-county group by Mrs. Mildred Stark, Macomb County supervisor, at a luncheon meeting at the Botsford Inn, Farmington.

Legislative representatives of the six counties—Oakland, Wayne, Monroe, Macomb, St. Clair and Washtenaw — will promote the program during the current legislative session in Lansing.

The list includes several bills which were introduced in the legislative last year but were never passed.

★ ★ ★

The bills and amendments of general interest to be included in this year's program are summarized as follows:

- State reimbursement for care of mentally ill patients awaiting commitment;
- Increase in reimbursement for care of indigent tuberculosis patients;
- Increases in social welfare and hospitalization reimbursement;
- Regulations on operation of motor boats;
- Changes in fee schedules of county officers (clerk, register, treasurer);
- Allow counties to organize municipal housing commissions;
- Increase state grant to county health departments;
- Reimbursement for costs of court appeals initiated by indigent defendants;
- Meat inspection by State Health Department;
- Service charge of 3 per cent on support and alimony payments;
- Reimbursement for foster care costs on juveniles awaiting transfer to training schools;
- Permit school districts to expend funds for traffic safety devices.

Gov. George Romney Delivers His State Of State Message

GOP, Dems Hail Romney Talk

LANSING (AP)— Republican Gov. George Romney, building a Michigan political image that could challenge that of legendary former Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams, is "sounding more and more like Williams every day," say Democratic legislators.

Romney's State-of-the-State message to a joint session of the House and Senate Thursday—applauded enthusiastically by Republicans and politely by Democrats—evoked a favorable reaction from both afterwards.

★ ★ ★

With a few reservations, Democrats praised the speech as outlining programs they, as the former minority party, tried for years to pass.

In the 42-minute speech, Romney outlined his programs in broad terms, warned that the state's surplus will be swallowed up by rising costs by 1967 and promised six special messages in coming weeks.

★ ★ ★

It covered such areas as workmen's compensation, education, mental health, tax relief for senior citizens, traffic safety and fiscal reform — many of them long-standing pet projects of the Democrats.

The speech was interrupted by applause 24 times, although the reception was not as warm as last year when Republicans still held a majority in the legislature.

Romney drew a mild slap from House Speaker Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, who said:

★ ★ ★

"The governor indluged in a little bit of patting himself on the back—a practice, however, which is not unusual or unexpected in Gov. Romney's messages."

Rep. J. Robert Traxler, D-Bay City, majority floor leader, was irked at Romney's statement on tax reform that "I stand ready now or at any time to work toward a bipartisan program of fundamental tax reform, when you are genuinely so inclined.. ."

TAX REFORM

Asked Traxler, "What does he expect us to do? Picket his office, saying, 'we want tax reform."

But the Democrats can agree with most of the ground covered in the message, he said.

"These are things we have been trying to get for 12 years —ever since I've been here," said Associate Speaker Protem, Dominic Jacobetti, D-Negaunee.

Senate Majority Leader Raymond Dzendzel, D-Detroit, said he was "somewhat impressed because he spoke in the tone that we of the Democratic party spoke in the past.

STAND READY

"Name - calling," Dzendzel said, "is out the window." He said he believed the Republicans "stand ready, willing and able to help with this program."

Sen. Basil Brown, D-Detroit, described the message as "very good, an excellent speech."

★ ★ ★

But, Brown said, "I had to look twice to see if it was Soapy (Williams) reading or Romney .. .you take the Democratic platform and compare it with his speech, and you'll find almost every plank."

"He sounds more like G. Mennen Williams every day," said Jacobetti.

★ ★ ★

"It reminds me of my first term," Traxler said, "when Romney was making his first State-of-the-State speech. I sat back, closed my eyes and thought, 'How can you distinguish between this and the Williams Swainson program?"'

Despite Romney's alleged similarities to Williams, the speech went over big with Republicans.

Rep. Robert Waldron, R-Grosse Pointe, minority leader, called it "basically a blueprint for Michigan's future and the participation of government in it. It stresses individual responsibility and government's role in building a 'climate of opportunity.'"

House GOP caucus chairman Arnell Engstrom of Traverse City said "in my 24 years of legislative experience I have yet to hear a governor present such an accurate assessment of the challenges we face as Gov. Romney did today. If reason prevails among the Democratic majority, we will see this outstanding program for continued Michigan progress enacted in this session."

RESPONSIBLE PROGRAM

Sen. Garry Brown, R-Schoolcraft, the Republican floor leader, said "the proposals reflected a responsible program to meet the needs with proper acceptance of the role of government."

★ ★ ★

It may have sounded like Williams, he conceded, but he said there was an important difference:

"This was a more responsible speech. Williams proposed to have government do everything for everybody, but Romney draws an equation between the roles of government and individuals."

Solon Wives Hold Election of Their Own

LANSING (AP) — There's something about the business of electioneering that even grips the wives of the senators and representatives.

The ladies got into the act for the first time this year by forming a new association of wives of members of the House of Representatives and Senate and electing officers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Rep. Francis Beedon, R-Muskegon, was elected president; Mrs. Rep. Carl Little, R-Saginaw, vice president; Mrs Sen. Don Potter, R-Lansing, secretary, and Mrs. Rep. Charles Davis, R-Onondaga, treasurer.

The ladies held their first meeting at an informal tea Wednesday while the husbands were reorganizing the legislature.

Four U.S. presidents have been assassinated and four have died natural deaths while in office.

Legislative Recess Gives Time for Two House Probes to Start

LANSING (AP) — Many Michigan lawmakers returned home today for an 11-day recess, after just two days in Lansing to open the 73rd Legislature.

The recess until Jan. 26 though, will enable two House committees to at least start their assignments — investigate the qualificaions of Rep.-elect Daniel West, D-Detroit, and conduct a recount involving Rep. Carroll Newton, R-Charlotte.

Members of the West Committee held their first informal meeting Thursday on the case of the Detroiter who has been charged with income tax fraud, voting irregularities and forgery.

The other committee must recheck the November tally which gave Newton a six-vote victory over Democrat Claude Burton of Bellevue.

After Gov. George Romney presented his State-of-the-State message to a joint session, House Republicans tried twice to show some strength against the majority Democrats.

The test showed the same thing an earlier test showed Wednesday — the Democrats are about 2-1 stronger.

Republicans tried to amend the West resolution to order the committee to issue a progress report Feb. 2.

Only one Democrat — Rep. E. D. O'Brien, D-Detroit — voted with the minority party, and the issue was defeated in a roll-call vote, 67-37.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Russell Strange, R-Mount Pleasant, former chairmen of the elections committee, tried to get the Newton-Burton recount conducted under State Elections Commission rules, rather than committee rules. The amendment was defeated along party lines.

An apparent attempt to increase the protection of the contested Republican seat, his amendment called for ruling out distinctively marked ballots only when it is evident that the illegal mark was made by the voter himself.

Mrs. Joseph E. Fouser of North Adams Road completes a table arrangement for the Men's Night Smorgasbord sponsored by Osage branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association. Theme for the annual event Monday in the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church is "Granny's Herbs and the Witch Doctor."

Garden Club Member Grows Centerpieces

By MADELEINE DOEREN

Racing against time are tiny herb gardens growing in flats under special lights in the North Adams Road home of the Joseph E. Fousers.

"They simply have to be ready for my garden club's Men's Night Smorgasbord on Monday," explained Mrs. Fouser who is decorations chairman for the affair to be held in the Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church.

Since the first smorgasbord in 1961, Osage Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association has looked forward to its occurrence each January.

Dr. C. Howard Ross of Ann Arbor will present an amusing program, "Granny's Herbs and the Witch Doctor."

Mrs. Fouser has made some eight grannies for the dinner tables, using bottles wrapped in styrofoam, covered with gay cottons.

The witch doctor is an 'egghead' with brown florist's tape binding his arms and legs made of pipecleaners and cotton-covered wire.

Mr. Fouser who was at home when we were there, is especially proud of his English cress which has grown several inches since he planted the seeds some 20 days ago.

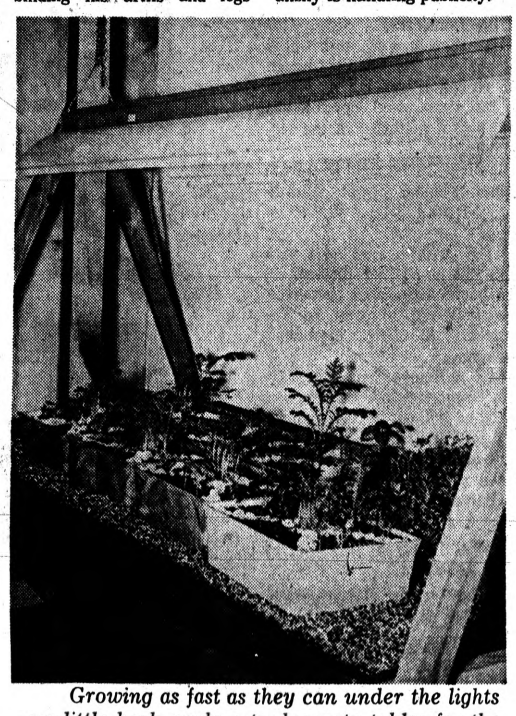
His herb favorites are sweet and purple basil and rosemary (without which no lamb dish is complete), perennial tansy which his wife adds to green salads, sweet marjoram, chives and sweet savory.

Growing under lights were deep-toned coleus, begonias, African violets, gloxinias and a variety of house plants.

Former Detroiters, the Fousers have been area residents for 15 years. Their redwood contemporary home overlooks a valley.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Fred Trickey, Osage Branch president, appointed Mrs. Charles Crane, general chairman for the 6:30 p.m. dinner. Mrs. Frederick Stefansky is handling publicity.



Growing as fast as they can under the lights are little herb gardens to decorate tables for the Osage Garden Club's Men's Night Smorgasbord. White marble chips separate the tiny plants of sweet and purple basil, rosemary, chives, sweet savory and English cress.

Distance Makes Heart Grow Fonder

How Close Can You Get?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Where is a girl supposed to sit when she is on a date with a boy who drives a car with bucket seats?

ABBY

Would it be proper for her to sit in the middle, between the two bucket seats so she won't be so far away from her date? Supposing the gear shift is between the two seats?

Please answer in the paper because I know other girls who have the same problem.

NOT CLOSE ENOUGH

DEAR NOT: The girl sits in the bucket seat BESIDE the driver.

The problem of distance between the girl and her date is a mere drop in the bucket compared to those she'll run into if she tries to occupy the "no girl's land" between the seats. Sit where you belong.

He can't drive forever.

DEAR ABBY: I am 26 and the mother of four children.

When I married (six years ago) I weighed 118 pounds, and wore a size 12 dress. I am five feet six and everyone used to compliment me on my figure.

Today I wear a size 18½ dress, and the last time I had the courage to get on a scale I weighed 188 pounds. I don't have to tell you how ashamed of myself I am.

★ ★ ★

I have gone on every diet I've heard of and I've even tried to smoke, but it makes me sick. I just don't have the will power to stick with a diet. I've heard there is a club people join to help them lose weight. It's supposed to be something like Alcoholics Anonymous. People help each other.

I need inspiration and encouragement from others who have the same problem. Or doesn't that work, either?

FAT AND DISGUSTED

DEAR FAT: Nothing "works" unless you are willing to work at making it work. "TOPS" (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) is one of the most prominent clubs.

Write to their headquarters at 2306 S. Howell Ave., Milwaukee 7, Wisconsin, for information about their chapters in other cities. Good luck.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WAITING FOR TOMMY": He seems more interested in having a ball, than in having a ball and chain. Give up.

Tickets may be purchased from Mrs. Robert Holm, Mrs. Donald Lumsden, and Mrs. Raymond Pardee.

Others selling tickets are: Mrs. James Greene, Miss Marian Ballard, Mrs. Kevin Ritter, Helen Clark, Mrs. James Adams, and Mrs. Edward Omans.

All reservations must be in by Feb. 17.

Also on the agenda, was a progress report on the new addition to the hospital by Sister Mary Xavier, RSM.

The speaker was Mrs. Lois Green, case worker at Pontiac State Hospital. Her topic was "Care of the Aged and How to Deal with Aging Parents."

Soprano and Cellist Play for Musicale

The January meeting of Pontiac Tuesday Musicale took place at Central Methodist Church.

A large audience heard the program which featured Carolyn Grimes, soprano, and David Eicher, cellist.

Accompanied by Robert Bates, Miss Grimes sang a varied program, which began with three arias by the early baroque English composer, Henry Purcell.

★ ★ ★

Miss Grimes concluded her first group with the singing "Marten Aller Arten" from Mozart's "Abduction from the Seraglio."

CELLIST

Tschaikowsky's "Rococo Variations" were performed by David Eicher, who was a 1964 Dora Dawson scholarship winner.

David was accompanied by Lyle Settle and played, as an encore, "Arioso" by Bach.

Miss Grimes continued the program with five songs from chamber music, the poetry by James Joyce and the music by Clark Eastham, Royal Oak composer.

The songs featured night and the strings, twilight and the piano, dawn and the harp, evening and the voice, and singing in the gloom.

She concluded with four poems in the form of songs by the modern Spanish composer, Turina.

For her encore she sang "Care Selve" by Gluck.

The chairman of the day who introduced the guest artists was Mrs. J. F. Cummiskey.

SOCIAL CHORES

Cochairmen of the social committee were Mrs. J. G. Aldrich and Mrs. E. F. Dalton, assisted by Mrs. B. A. Benson, Mrs. L. J. Enos, Mrs. R. C. Fell, Adeline Hook, Mrs. J. B. Nicholls Jr., and Margaret Steward.

Cultural Aids Project Seeks Volunteers

After a summer and one school semester, volunteers working through the Cultural Aids Project (CAP) have been so successful that efforts are now being made to recruit more workers.

★ ★ ★

CAP began last summer under the chairmanship of Mrs. A. J. Levin of Franklin, in cooperation with the Pontiac Board of Education and sponsored by the Urban League.

Youngsters chosen by their school principals, were assigned to interested volunteers. Each pair of child and adult spent time together and participated in trips and other activities.

★ ★ ★

When school began in September, these volunteers began to assist in the first and second grades of Bethune, Mark Twain and Wilson schools. Their specific goal was helping less mature youngsters in reading and arithmetic.

WERE TRAINED

The volunteers first attended training sessions, then spent some time in observing the regular teachers' routines.

From then on, they worked with the individual children, usually on a once a week basis.

★ ★ ★

B. C. Van Koughnett, acting director of elementary education, directs the volunteer program in the schools. He says:

"We would like as many new volunteers as we can get. We hope that they can help the child improve his own self-image so that he will then take more interest and enjoyment in learning.

"Patience, warmth, a sympathetic sense of humor and dependability are the qualities needed, plus, of course, enough education to carry out suitable projects under the direction of a teacher."

Teaching experience is not necessary. Individuals with college degrees are preferred, but this is not mandatory, provided the person qualifies in other respects.

Even though interested volunteers cannot give a day EVERY week, they are needed and wanted. Suitable schedules can be worked out.

The main requirement of all new CAP volunteers is that they attend an all-day session Jan. 25 at Mark Twain School. This will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the library, with time out for lunch.

The volunteers, who have given some six months to the CAP project, are unanimous in their praise for it. Their feeling of satisfaction more than outweighs any time the program takes.

ACTIVE NOW

Active participants at present include Mrs. Carlos B. Gayles, Miss Lulu McGregor, Mrs. Florence Pappert and Mrs. Harry Reed of Pontiac.

Mrs. Frank Dickie, Sylvan Lake; Mrs. William Doerr and Mrs. Roy Reuther, Orchard Lake; and Mrs. James P. Dickerson of Rochester are volunteers.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. William L. Kahn joins Mrs. Levin in coming from Franklin. From Bloomfield Hills are volunteers, Mrs. Stratton Brown and Mrs. T. L. Peterson.

★ ★ ★

The Birmingham volunteer group consists of Mesdames: Martin Butzel, Glenn Carpenter Jr., John R. Edman, Peter Finn, Albert Sobey and Alfred Zweig.

★ ★ ★

Any interested man or woman who wishes to participate in the Cultural Aids Project should contact Mrs. Butzel of Lone Pine Road, Mrs. Kahn in Franklin or the office of Van Koughnett in the Pontiac Board of Education building.

Arlene (left) and Darlene Thomas of Valencia Street have found in Mrs. Martin L. Butzel, Lone Pine Road, a friend who offers them fun and broader horizons.

The Emory Beals of Ashford Avenue, White Lake Township, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sue Ann to Joseph Neldrett, son of the Joseph E. Neldretts of South Edith Street. Early May vows are planned.

'Boss Night' to Be Held by Group

The American Business Women's Association, Land-O-Oak chapter, has chosen Bedell's Restaurant for the annual Boss Night dinner on Feb. 9.

Mrs. Thure Wickman, women's supervisor and coordinator for volunteer workers and donations for the Oakland County Children's Center, spoke at this week's meeting in Airway Lanes.

The center, built in 1929 to house some 90 children with 10 staff members, has grown to house from 100 to 150, with a staff of 60. Some 165 children are boarders in private homes.

The school at the center teaches from kindergarten through the 10th grade. Special arts and craft classes are taught by volunteer workers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mayes of West Rundell Street have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alice Louise to Charles Johnson, son of Mrs. Carl Johnson of East Canton, Ohio, and the late Mr. Johnson.

New Ideas on Allergies

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Persons aren't born with a specific allergy — but have the capacity to become allergic to something, reports Dr. Arnold Dankner, assistant in internal medicine at St. Louis Jewish Hospital.

"You may become sensitive by repeatedly coming into contact with certain foreign substances," Dr. Dankner said.

"You can inherit a tendency for becoming allergic; I've seen whole families with allergic problems, though they were each allergic to different substances."

Dr. Dankner says the biggest problem in the summer is hay fever, "and it isn't caused by hay at all."

He said farmers called it that because they noticed their eyes watered and they sneezed during the haying season.

★ ★ ★

"Actually, hay fever is caused by ragweed pollen," he said. "Rose fever isn't caused by roses either."

The doctor said that one person in eight will be allergic to something significant in his lifetime.

★ ★ ★

Asked if we "outgrow" allergies, Dr. Dankner said "perhaps, some people say they do . . . others don't."

He explained that an allergy is a violent reaction by the body to a foreign substance.

★ ★ ★

"They think their ears are extra sensitive," he said, "but if they contacted that metal any place else on their body. they would get the same reaction."

Vinegar Keeps Pleats

DEAR POLLY — My hint is for the reader who wanted to know how to permanently pleat skirts.

★ ★ ★

To make permanent pleats in skirts and dresses, I dip a cloth in vinegar and wring it out almost dry. Lay this cloth over the pleats and press with a hot iron until dry.

The acid in the vinegar makes the pleats permanent.—MARION

GIRLS — I found these pleats looked as well after laundering as those in ready-made, drip-dry dresses. Be sure your fabric is on friendly terms with vinegar.—POLLY.

DEAR POLLY — We converted two occasional chairs into television seats for the children by unscrewing the seat and back from the legs and placing them right on the floor near the set.

The legs were then attached to a plain flush door to make a handsome bench for our record player, radio and records. — FRANCES

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY—Did you ever try to find a blown-out fuse when the fuse box was in the basement and you were all alone? It can mean endless trips up and down stairs to see if you have found the culprit.

★ ★ ★

I solved this problem by plugging my vacuum cleaner, turned on, to the dead outlet. Then when the dead fuse is replaced with a good one I can hear the noise from the sweeper.—MRS. C. J. H.

★ ★ ★

DEAR POLLY — If you own a tape recorder, tape your children's favorite stories. On busy days when there is no time to read to the children, just turn on the tape recorder.

This keeps the little ones entertained and mother can go on with her chores.

To make a sweater for your little dog to wear on cold days, take a child's old knit flannel pajamas and cut off a leg or arm that has a ribbed cuff.

★ ★ ★

Cut out a place for the dog's front legs and stitch. The ribbed cuff fits around his neck.—ANNE

Send Friend Gift Later, Card Now

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: I was very much surprised to receive a birthday present from a friend. It was the first time she had ever given me a birthday present.

She will be having a birthday soon. Is it necessary for me to give her a gift in return? I never did before.

A: if you send her a present, it will probably start an endlessly yearly exchange of birthday presents.

If you wish to avoid establishing a precedent, I would suggest that you merely send her a birthday card and wait for some other special occasion to send her a little gift.

Q: I am about to have my linens monogrammed.

Should I have them marked with my future initial in the center and the initials of mine and my fiance's first names on either side, or should they be marked with my initials alone?

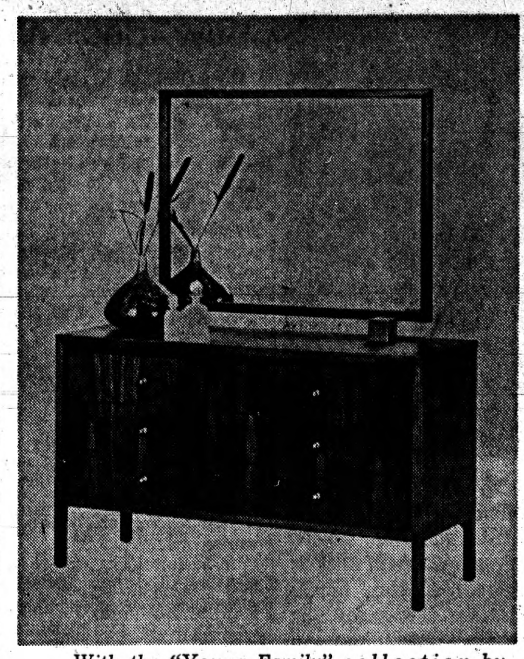
A: The conventional marking for a bride's linen is a combination of her malden and married initials.

For example, if your maiden name were Mary Smith and you were marrying a man named Jones, you would mark your linens MSJ.

Q: When a person is eating at table and feels he or she must blow his or her nose, is it not proper to leave the table?

A: It isn't necessary to leave the table, but if the nose must be blown it should be done as quickly and silently as possible without drawing attention to it.

The clothes of the bride and groom as well as those of their attendants are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "Clothes of the Bridal Party."



With the "Young Family" collection by Basic-Witz, even a newlyweds' budget can afford good design. The double dresser is from this year's furniture showings in Chicago's Merchandise Mart. Hand-matched walnut veneer is highlighted by narrow bandings of rosewood. Tiny, polished brass knobs are set on round rosewood inlays. Line available locally.

Knifing Is Electrified

NEW YORK (UPI) — Are Americans getting too lazy? Losing their muscle? Or just plain tired from pushing so many buttons?

The questions are prompted by a report that sales of electric knives will hit $140 million next year.

Edward P. Reavey Jr., of Hamilton Beach, who made the report, didn't mention anything about research concerning an electric spoon or fork.

Clean Bulbs Make Light Brighter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Snatch light bulbs, if the purpose is to get them clean.

A film of dust on light bulbs can cut light output as much as 50 per cent, says the Lamp and Shade Institute of America.

The institute offered these tips on lamp care:

During the routine of housecleaning, use a soft cloth to wipe the bulbs, reflector bowls if there are any, and lamp bases. Use the soft brush attachment of the vacuum cleaner on the shades.

Once a month, or oftener if needed, remove the reflector from the lamp, wash in warm, soapy water, rinse and dry thoroughly.

But never wash light bulbs; the water can loosen the cement holding the base to the glass.

Clean lamp bases with a mild warm water and soap solution on glass, pottery, marble and onyx surfaces, then wipe dry.

Wood and metal should be dusted and protected with a thin coat of wax.

Never use polishes or abrasives on metal surfaces.

These surfaces usually are protected with transparent lacquer which polishes will remove.

Cooky Mixture Made Right in the Pan

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Food Editor

Before Christmas, Mrs. W. W. Parris of Birmingham sent in a most interesting cookie recipe. At that time, we had published so many recipes for sweets that we filed hers away.

However, we did make the cookies and found them good, if a bit on the rich side.

Very young cooks can make this kind of cookie.

SEVEN-LAYER COOKIES
By Mrs. W. W. Parris

In a 9x13-inch pan melt 1 stick butter or margarine. Sprinkle with 1 cup graham cracker crumbs. Add in the order given:

1 cup shredded coconut
1 package (6 oz.) chocolate pieces
1 package (6 oz.) butterscotch pieces
1 can sweetened condensed (NOT evaporated) milk
1½ cups chopped nuts

Bake 30 minutes at 350 degrees. When cool, cut into bars or squares.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

As you know by now, I am bringing you my Eight-Week Beauty Improvement Plan this week. The idea is to see how much you can improve your appearance in eight weeks time with my help.

Most women who join Bip wish to lose from 15 to 20 pounds in this length of time.

Those of you who have been following my routine, which is appearing in this newspaper, now know how to decide what your ideal weight is.

You know how to take your measurements and what they should be.

You know how many calories you should have in order to lose the number of pounds you wish to lose.

You have been given general directions as to how to plan your reducing diet and also one sample dinner.

Now we come to an important part of BIP — EXERCISE.

Any slimming routine or self-improvement program is much more successful if the right exercises are included. These increase your energy output and burn up calories.

They increase tone while the extra pounds drop away.

Exercise is the one way you can redistribute your weight more attractively.

If you are overweight AND your measurements are out of proportion, when you lose you will be smaller all over but your measurements will still be out of proportion.

As a matter of fact many women who are not overweight follow my Beauty Improvement Plan for this reason.

CHECK BEFOREHAND

Before starting your exercises you should have your heart and blood pressure checked by your physician. This should be done just as a matter of course.

When you begin, start very slowly and build up gradually. Select exercises for your particular figure defects.

If you have the usual overweight problems you will want exercises for the waist, abdomen and hips.

If you are too enthusiastic and do too much too soon you will pay for it with very sore muscles. This may discourage you and cause you to give up exercises.

Even if you increase the amount of exercise gradually you will probably experience some soreness. Continue your exercises anyway.

If you stop you will have to go through this sore stage all over again. It will help if you soak in a hot bath. The sore muscle stage does not last long.

WARM UP FIRST

Warm up before starting your exercise program each day with the following. Walk around the room for a few minutes, slowly at first and gradually increase to briskly.

Then stand in place and walk in place, lifting the knees up in front of you. This takes care of your heart curve.

★ ★ ★

Never jump into strenuous exercise from inactivity. Work into it slowly.

Today I give you one abdominal and one hip slimming exercise. Do these each day, 10 times at first.

For the abdomen: Lie on your back on the floor with your legs straight and your arms resting on the floor overhead. Bend both knees up close to your abdomen and grasp your knees with your hands.

Return legs and arms to starting position. Continue for 10 times. Take time for the stretch-out between bendings.

HIPS, THIGHS AND WAIST

The following exercise is a splendid slimmer for the hips and thighs and also gives the waist a twist.

Lie on your back on the floor with your arms resting on the floor, extending straight out from your shoulders, palms toward the floor. Swing your right leg over your left and try to touch the floor on the left side of your body with your right toe. Keep the knees stiff.

★ ★ ★

Bring your right toe as near your left hand as you can. Return leg to starting position.

This time swing your left leg over your right and try to touch the floor on the right side of your body with your left toe. Return leg, and continue, alternating.

Do both of these exercises 10 times the first day and gradually increase until you are doing them 30 times each for the rest of the eight weeks.

Art Rides Horseback

PHOENIX, Arizona (AP) — If you're going to sketch horses, you can do it best on horseback, believes Miss Emilie Touraine.

The young lady, who calls herself a "horse-crazy kid who never outgrew it," can be seen at horse shows and rodeos, sitting on a horse, her leg caught around the pommel, drawing portraits of other horses.

Her pictures usually sell to horse lovers faster than she can sketch them.

Color Affected by Direction

When sewing with corduroy, remember that it is a pile fabric and that the direction of the pile affects the fabric's color.

All pieces must run in the same direction.

Mid-August vows are planned by Judith Gayle Clayton, daughter of the Edward L. Claytons of Mueller Road, Orion Township, and James Bennett Wright, son of Mrs. Mary Wright, South Lapeer Road, Orion Township, and James H. Wright of West Howard Street.

Fresh-Air Facial Benefits Looks

Give your face a fresh-air facial now and then. After a thorough cleansing with soap and water, or your favorite cleanser, slap the skin briskly with a cotton square dipped in skintone lotion.

★ ★ ★

Leave off all makeup except lipstick, and take your outdoor exercise with your face exposed to the air.

Young Marriages

American women are marrying earlier and having their first baby sooner after marriage than a generation ago.

Honey in Freezer

Put honey in the freezer if planning to keep it long and store in small containers so just a little can be taken out at a time.

India's Government Is in Throes of a Crisis Over Leadership

By CONRAD FINK

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — A crisis of confidence grips the Indian government.

New Delhi's top leaders privately say they are unsure of foreign policy and worried about India's internal health. Most important, their confidence in Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri has slipped.

★ ★ ★

Shastri, 60, in office eight months, is coming under fire from his political opposition — right as well as left — and the Indian press is bombarding him with charges of indecisive rule of this land of 480 million people.

★ ★ ★

Six months ago, when the stunning impact of Jawaharlal Nehru's death united India's ruling elite around Shastri, he could have easily withstood all this.

TOP AIDES

Today, even top aides in his Congress party are angry at what they call his diplomatic ineptitude and political fumbling.

★ ★ ★

Several influential politicians quietly are campaigning for Shastri's job.

★ ★ ★

The only thing preventing an open political battle is fear among the aspirants that they lack the necessary party backing and that to challenge Shastri publicly at this time would unleash disruptive factors that could do immense harm to party and country.

This is reported by leading political and government figures who say nothing must be done to disturb India's precarious balance on the edge of economic chaos and political turmoil.

LAL BAHADUR SHASTRI

MIDDLE-ROADER

They see Shastri — a middle-roader — as the only man acceptable to the many factions of his huge Congress party. Almost all potential rivals in sight have carried leftist or rightist tags most of their political careers.

Nevertheless, political empire-building is under way.

★ ★ ★

Railway Minister S. K. Patil, a pro-American conservative, is seeking support. A few months ago, he was strongly backing Shastri. Morarji Desai, an influential conservative, and V. K. Krishna Menon, a leftist, are active. Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit, who has acknowledged an ambition to be prime minister, is trying to work her way into the capital's inner circle.

Shastri, at first a reluctant hero, appears convinced that at this juncture he must hang on to the top job. But he also is aware that contenders are lining up.

CARRY ON

"I have to carry on this burden," he said in an interview.

"Given the time, some of the ticklish problems we are faced with at present will be resolved."

★ ★ ★

The way he attacks "ticklish problems" has caused dissension within his Cabinet. Finance Minister T. T. Krishnamachari has threatened to resign in squabbles over economic policy; several ministers have objected to foreign policy moves.

In the Congress party, the situation is little better. Kumaraswami Kamaraj, now midway in a two-year term as party president, talks of quitting.

TOOK LICKING

If any one event kicked off Shastri's troubles it was his performance at the Cairo nonaligned conference in October. India hoped Shastri could take over Nehru's leadership of the nonaligned. Instead, Shastri took a licking in the back room politics at Cairo. He proposed the conference send a mission to dissuade Communist China from making an atomic bomb. China's friends, not consulted in advance, promptly junked the proposal.

Shastri was criticized back home for violating a fundamental rule of politics: always quietly prepare the ground before planting a seed.

★ ★ ★

This he failed to do again a few months later when he proposed the United States and Soviet Union guarantee nuclear protection for nonnuclear powers. Not even Foreign Minister Swaran Singh, then in Moscow, was advised in advance.

Prompting Shastri to make these moves was India's almost frantic desire to somehow counter Communist China, now a nuclear power, in the race for prestige in Asia and Africa.

ECONOMIC CRISIS

In domestic politics, Shastri was driven by a worsening economic crisis that has left India short of food and foreign exchange and heavily dependent on U.S. foreign aid.

A food rationing plan stumbled over objections of rebellious state governors. Tasting victory, state leaders began chipping away at New Delhi's powers in other realms.

As discontent grew, Shastri opened an image-building campaign. He traveled more, spoke at countless meetings, and made a much-publicized return to his native village. He missed several sessions of Parliament and that touched off new criticism. One paper published the headline: "Wanted: Purposeful Leadership."

★ ★ ★

Last month, Shastri for the first time waved an iron fist. His government arrested more than 700 pro-Peking Communists and accused them of plotting violent revolution.

★ ★ ★

His subsequent postponement of elections in Kerala State reinforced his opposition's cry that the arrest was a part of a political maneuver.

It seems that nothing Shastri does is acceptable. Around every corner, snipers are lying in wait.

Mexico Mishap Kills 2

ON CHICAGO STREET — The Rev. Robert H. Owens patrols Rush Street in Chicago as part of his ministerial duties. The Episcopalian minister stays on duty late in the night to serve whoever needs him.

Cleric's Parishioners Are 'Night People'

CHICAGO (AP) — Amid the gaudy neon lights which awaken Rush Street at dusk is a small desk lamp, illuminating in a second-story window a narrow white sign: "Night Pastor."

Behind it, six nights a week, sits the Rev. Robert H. Owen, minister to the "night people" — the bartenders, B-girls, musicians, cabbies and cooks of Chicago's near North Side entertainment strip.

★ ★ ★

Father Owen, 40, a Protestant Episcopal priest with a wife and six children, describes his work as an "off-beat ministry." His comments during an interview bore out the description:

—"This guy had just been rolled of $800 and somebody referred him to me. I didn't get the $800 back but I think I made him feel a little better about losing it.

MARRIES COUPLE

—"A young couple who had been living together for six months saw the sign in the window and came up out of curiosity. Three days later I married them."

—"A lot of drunks wander in. They need to get some swill in them before they can talk about their problems."

★ ★ ★

A piano player of sorts, he started his unusual pastorate as the result of his friendship with many of the Rush Street night-club musicians.

In September, after "talking and talking and talking," Father Owen got permission from Bishop Gerald F. Burrill of the Diocese of Chicago to start a "night pastorate."

NEXT TO BAR

He set up quarters above a restaurant and next door to a bar featuring calypso music.

★ ★ ★

Those who come to see him have family problems, marital problems, problems with liquor or narcotics, but basically they are bothered about religion.

★ ★ ★

"Usually they've been in the church earlier in their lives but have dropped out. Now they're looking for something — what they're really looking for is God," he said.

Dual Sanctioning Still Hot Potato

AAU Gives NCAA Rebuttal in Athletic Truce Proposal

CHICAGO (AP) — The NCAA-AAU feud over control of amateur athletics still is a hot potato no matter whose fire it's under.

The potato again was tossed to the AAU Thursday by the NCAA Council which decided, at the close of the group's national convention, to proceed with a truce bid.

This boils down to co-sanctioning of track meets at the domestic level. The international level was not included, and that's about the only thing new.

The nub of the long power struggle between the two organizations has been the AAU's hold on an international sanctioning.

Dual sanctioning long has been the NCAA's ace card in trying to negotiate a truce. Regardless of the newest wording, the AAU rebutted through its executive director, Col. Don Hull that if the proposal were aimed at dual sanctioning "we would be wasting our time talking to them."

UP IN AIR

This apparently puts the whole thing up in the air where it long has been.

The NCAA Council expressed sharp disappointment at "premature AAU disdain and summary dismissal" of the resolution. A meeting between the NCAA-backed U.S. Track and Field Federation and the AAU was urged.

Approval of a bylaw by the NCAA would in effect boycott AAU-sanctioned track meets after March 1. Walter Byers, executive NCAA director, said this revised code would subject schools whose athletes compete in non-federation meets to probation or censure and that it "dramatized and crystallized the issue."

"Our people are convinced that we are right on our side," said Byers. "The whole issue (of sanctioning track meets) is going to be vividly dramatized in the next few months and I think public pressure will force the AAU to re-examine its position."

FEELS PRESSURE

Among the first to feel pressure was the venerable Cleveland Knights of Columbus indoor track meet scheduled March 19. It draws heavily on collegiate stars.

★ ★ ★

Cleveland representatives told Byers that the March 1 boycott-deadline, which permits all Eastern AAU-supported indoor track meets to be conducted without interference, was unfair. Bill Weber, director of the Cleveland meet, charged discrimination.

Byers said the March 1 date was incorporated into the convention legislation at the advice of counsel and no slighting of any particular meet was intended.

WOMAN ATHLETE OF YEAR—Mickey Wright of Dallas, Tex., was named Woman Athlete of the Year by the Associated Press. Miss Wright has been a pro golfer for 11 years and this is the second straight year she has won the honor.

Athlete Honor Again Accorded Miss Wright

DALLAS (AP) — Golfer Mickey Wright is delighted to have been picked as the Female Athlete of the Year for the second straight time but she says she also is surprised.

"Naturally, I am delighted and honored. But I also was surprised. I didn't think I would win it a second time because 1964 was an Olympic year," she said Thursday night.

★ ★ ★

The 29-year-old blonde, who now has won more tournaments and more money than any other woman in pro golf, was the first choice of 118 voters on the Associated Press panel of about 250 sports writers and broadcasters.

With a total of 492 points, Miss Wright easily outdistanced Olympic swimmer Donna de Varona of Santa Barbara, Calif., who had 235 points for second place in the year-end poll.

DAWN THIRD

Dawn Fraser, the Australian swimmer who won the Female Athlete of the Year Award in 1962, placed third, followed by tennis ace Billie Jean Moffitt and 15-year-old Olympic swimming star Sharon Stouder.

Despite an illness that kept her out of competition for a month, Miss Wright won 11 golf tournaments in 1964 to equal her 1963 record and was the leading ladies PGA money winner for the fourth straight year with $29,800.

Miss Wright has surpassed most of the golf records set by another Texan, the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias. But the Babe still holds the record for being chosen as Female Athlete of the Year in the AP poll. She won the honor six times — one for track and five times for golf.

So completely did Miss Wright dominate the sport during 1964 that she was the only golfer among the top 10 in the AP poll. Sixth through 10th places were taken by Edith McGuire, track; Maria Bueno, tennis; Wynomia Tyus, track; Margaret Smith, tennis; and Mary Rand, track.

Gene Littler Holding Lead at San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — There is a peculiar twist to the golfing career of Gene Littler, who led the way into the second round of the $34,500 San Diego Open today.

Littler won the San Diego tournament in 1954 when he was still an amateur. But in the view of his hometown San Diego worshipers he has done little in their San Diego Open as a professional.

★ ★ ★

Of course, all Gene has done outside the county is win the U.S. Open, the rich Las Vegas Tournament of Champions three straight years, many other events and amassed a tidy nest egg.

But the San Diego Open, nothing.

NINE-UNDER

Littler shot a nine-under-par 62, a competitive course record in Thursday's first round. He did it with a sensational putting performance in 30-32-62 over the par 35-36—71 Stardust Country Club course.

Despite the great round, it gave Gene only a two-stroke cushion over his nearest challenger, Bud Holscher, with Holscher's 32-32—64.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Leading golf scores in the first round of the $34,500 San Diego Open:

Gene Littler	30-32—62
Bud Holscher	32-32—64

All-Star Game of AFL Has East Favored

Fast Promotion Has Houston Hoping for Crowd of 20,000

HOUSTON (AP) — The American Football League's All-Star game, hurriedly transplanted to Houston from New Orleans when 21 Negro players claimed racial discrimination, matches the pride of the Eastern Division against the best of the West Saturday afternoon at Jeppesen Stadium.

Houston Oiler officials who undertook the difficult job of promoting the game under short notice hopefully expected a crowd of 20,000 if the weatherman lives up to his forecast of cool dry weather.

★ ★ ★

There had been talk of a crowd as high us 60,000 if the game had been played in New Orleans' Sugar Bowl.

The game will be telecast at 2 p.m., EST, by the American Broadcasting Co., with the Houston area blacked out.

The West has won all three previous games in the series, pulling out a 27-24 decision last year at San Diego in the final seconds. There was no All-Star game in 1960, the league's first year.

OWN PLAYERS

Coach Lou Saban of the champion Buffalo Bills banked heavily on his own Buffalo players and a big delegation from the second place Boston Patriots to put the East in the win column.

Saban will start Babe Parilli, Boston quarterback, but he will have Buffalo's Cookie Gilchrist at fullback and the Bills' Elbert Dubenion and Ernie Wallick as the ends. Larry Garron of Boston will be the running back and the elusive Charlie Hennigan of Houston at flanker.

Later in the game Saban will bring in his own quarterback Jack Kemp who led the Bills to a 20-7 victory over San Diego in the championship game at Buffalo Dec. 26. Tackle Stew Barber and guard Billy Shaw will be among the five Buffalo starters on offense.

★ ★ ★

Sid Gillman, Western coach, will have five of his San Diego Chargers in the starting lineup — tight end Dave Kocourek, flanker Lance Alworth, running back Keith Lincoln, tackle Ron Nix and guard Walt Sweeny.

Lincoln suffered a broken rib on a crashing tackle by Mike Stratton of Buffalo early in the title game but he has recovered and will play.

City Readies Ice Facilities

The Parks and Recreation Department's ice skating rinks and sled and toboggan slides should be ready this weekend if the weather remains cold.

Ice skating areas have been prepared at Murphy Park, Eastern, Lincoln and Washington junior high schools, LeBaron School, Oriole Field and Rotary Park.

★ ★ ★

Volunteer workers have charge of the rinks at Washington Park, Crofoot, Longfellow, Emerson, Herrington and Wever Schools, and Northside Boys Club.

The toboggan and sledding slopes are at Murphy Park.

BRUIN MAKES SAVE — Ed Johnston, Boston Bruins' goalie, sends the puck off to the side, making a save off the stick of Earl Ingarfield (10) of the New York Rangers in the first period of their NHL game at Boston last night. Also in the play are Don Marshall (22) of the Rangers and Bruins' Bob McCord (4) and Leo Boivin (20). Boston won the game, 5-3.

Toronto Skater 'Killer'

By the Associated Press

Toronto's Bobby Pulford is dangerous just taking his regular turn for the National Hockey League's defending Stanley Cup champions. When he's out killing a penalty, he's absolutely devastating.

Pulford, considered by NHL coaches to be the league's top penalty killer, showed why Thursday night when he turned a Toronto penalty into a goal as the Maple Leafs whipped the Montreal Canadiens 5-3.

Allan Stanley was in the penalty box when Carl Brewer broke up a Montreal rush and got the puck up to Tim Horton and Pulford. Horton fired from the point at Canadien goalie Charlie Hodge and Pulford steered home the rebound.

That was the only goal of the first period but Montreal scored three times and Toronto twice in the middle session so it was 3-3 going into the final 20 minutes.

Then Pulford's second goal of the night and his 14th of the season broke the deadlock midway through the third period. Eleven seconds after Pulford hit, rookie Pete Stemkowski scored his first NHL goal to ice it for the Leafs. Claude Provost scored twice for Montreal.

SEVENTH STRAIGHT

It was Toronto's seventh straight game without a loss and moved the surging Leafs within a point of second-place Montreal.

In the only other game played, Boston got three goals from Murray Oliver and whipped New York 5-2.

The Bruins fired 48 shots at Jacques Plante and New York's masked goalie kept the Rangers in the game with some outstanding saves.

Boston came from behind after two goals by New York's Bob Nevin had erased an early 1-0 Bruin lead. Billy Knibbs and Wayne Rivers also scored for the Bruins who won their third straight home start and 10th game of the season.

Season Mark Is Hull's Goal

MONTREAL (AP) — Chicago's Bobby Hull, apparently headed for a single season goal scoring record, was the only unanimous choice on the National Hockey League All-Star team for the first half of the season, announced today.

★ ★ ★

Hull, with 35 goals after 39 games, seems a cinch to break the 50-goal record he shares with Maurice Richard and Bernie Geoffrion. The blond left wing received the maximum 90 points possible in voting by sports writers and broadcasters in the six league cities.

Joining Hull on the first team forward line are Detroit Red Wing center Norm Ullman and Montreal Canadien right wing Claude Provost. The defensemen are Montreal's Jacques Laperriere and Chicago's Pierre Pilote. The Canadiens' Charlie Hodge is the goalie.

The voting:

GOAL

Hodge, Montreal, 72; Crozier, Detroit, 67; Sawchuk, Toronto, 10; Johnston, Boston, 5; Hall, Chicago, 5; DeJordy, Chicago 3.

DEFENSE

Laperriere, Montreal, 84; Pilote, Chicago, 65; Gadsby, Detroit, 48; Howell, New York, 40; Brewer, Toronto, 32; Green, Boston, 21; Horton, Toronto, 13; Vasko, Chicago, 10; Bolvin, Boston, 6; Baun, Toronto, 6; Stanley, Toronto, 3; J.C. Tie for Lead in SEMA Play Could Result

First Place Skirmish Faces Groves; Central Travels to Handy

Birmingham Seaholm's basketball team will have two goals tonight when the Maples entertain Ferndale:

1. Knock the Eagles from their lofty No. 8 rating in the Associated Press poll; 2. gain a tie for first place with Ferndale in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

Birmingham Groves also will draw attention tonight.

The Falcons travel to North Farmington with the loser dropping out of a tie for first place in the Northwest Suburban loop.

Other top games of local interest send Pontiac Northern to Waterford, Pontiac Central to Bay City Handy and St. Frederick to St. Michael.

★ ★ ★

Any athletic contest between Ferndale and Seaholm draws plenty of interest because of the rivalry between the two schools. It has been built on first place battles and the basketball game tonight is no exception.

The Maples slipped once in seven games, against Southfield, in what veteran observors termed "one of those nights when the ball just wouldn't go in the basket."

Seaholm has won six and is 2-1 in league play. The Eagles have knocked off six opponents, but were hard-pressed to down Royal Oak Kimball 57-56 in their last outing. Ferndale is 3-0 in the SEMA.

Seaholm is ranked 17th in the AP standings.

Northern needs a victory to retain a share of first place in the Inter-Lakes. Pontiac Central's is facing a couple of potential problems.

LOOKING AHEAD

Coach Fred Zittel must keep the Chiefs from looking past Handy to next week's encounter with Saginaw in a Saginaw Valley showdown. PCH is first and the Trojans second.

★ ★ ★

The second problem could be the small Handy gym. It has given PCH trouble in the past.

St. Michael handled St. Frederick with ease in the encounter between the schools and is favored to turn the trick a second time.

Tonight's Avondale-Fitzgerald game will be played at Avondale instead of Warren as printed in last night's Press.

Pontiac Northern travels to Ann Arbor and Cranbrook is at Howe Military Saturday.

Ice Yacht Regatta Set for Cass Lake

The International Ice Yacht Association will have its second annual Iceboating Regatta championships beginning tomorrow on Cass Lake.

The competition will start at 11 a.m. It will continue through Sunday evening.

★ ★ ★

There will be doubles and singles events. At least 30 entries are expected from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Michigan.

The Detroit Ice Yacht Club is host for the regatta.

Pontiac Runner Slated for '65 'Deaf Olympics'

The 10th annual International Games for the Deaf will be held in the United States, at Washington, D. C., for the first time, June 27-July 3, and a Pontiac runner has been nominated to compete.

POWELL

The "Deaf Olympics" as they are called was last held in Helsinki in 1961, and in the 1965 games at Washington, a total of 1,000 athletes from 38 nations are expected to compete.

Abram Powell of Pontiac, who was a track star at the Michigan School for the Deaf in Flint up to his graduation last June, is expected to compete in the 400 meter run.

In Midwestern qualifying for International Games for the Deaf in Indianapolis last summer he won a berth by running the event in 50.8, and while in school he was unbeaten in 34 starts.

TEN SPORTS

The United States will have 150-175 competitors in 10 sports in the Deaf Olympics, including track and field, swimming, basketball, soccer, gymnastics, riflery, table tennis, lawn tennis, cycling and wrestling.

The deaf athletes will follow all of the basic rules of the World Olympics with medals of gold, silver and bronze awarded for the top three places.

The American Athletic Association for the deaf is raising $75,000 for the American athletes and goal for each athlete's costs is $500.

Donations to the International Games for the Deaf on behalf of the Pontiac entry, Powell, must be denoted as such and mailed to IGD Team Director Art Kruger, Gallaudet College, Washington, D. C.

Recreation Quintet Posts 100 Pointer

Spencer Floor Covering romped over the century mark last night to defeat Six R's Construction in a Woterford Township Men's Recreation Basketball game, 110-74.

Another American League tilt saw Lakeland Pharmacy nudge by O'Neil Realty in overtime, 75-70; while Lyons Service tripped Reyson Market, 49-44, in National League action.

Bill Gappy (33), Harry Dearborn (22), John Herrington (22) and Tom Durocher (15) were in twin figures for Spencer's, which is the defending township champion. Mike Shipman hit 29 for Six R's.

Bill Waun led Lakeland with 25 and Al Barkeley hit 17. Bill Bryce (21) and Dennis Herrigan (16) paced the losers.

Wayne Zikla of Ryeson's tallied 20 but it wasn't enough to offset Ray Heaton's 17 and Tom Courtingly's 14 for Lyons which took charge late in the third quarter.

Ex-Purdue Ace Leads Pontiac 5

A slender former All-America cager from Purdue now playing for the Pontiac Nationals has climbed into a tie for first place among North American Basketball League scorers.

Willie Merriweather, a 6-4 jump-shot artist who plays both forward and guard, raised his average to 26.2 with 29 points at Muskegon last week.

This tied him with cousin Porter Merriweather of Chicago and Muskegon's Ed Burton, who was held to 11 points by the Nationals.

Pontiac is idle this week on the NABL schedule but will practice for next Saturday's visit to Grand Rapids and prepare also for league - leading Benton Harbor's visit to Pontiac Jan. 30.

Mexico Can Shelter Fans

MERICO CITY (AP) — Even if no more hotels are built in the next few years, Mexico City will have no problem housing visitors expected for the 1968 Olympics, says the Federal District Hotel Association.

★ ★ ★

According to the association, affiliated hotels have a capacity for 192,000 persons, ranging from the super-luxury to the third class categories.

It said better hotels are capable of housing about 100,000.

Nevertheless, plans are under way to build new hotels and motels.

Lutherans Top Christian Five

Rochesters' Michigan Christian Junior College regretfully journeyed outside the Michigan Christian College Athletic Association ranks again last night.

It returned from Detroit Lutheran College a 79-49 loser. This is the third non-conference loss on the Warriors' 2-6 cage record.

They snapped a five-game losing string with two triumphs last weekend after several roster improvements resulting from the new academic quarter at the junior college.

Pontiac's Midwestern Baptist Seminary will return to state Christian College AA cage competition by visiting Lansing Great Lakes Bible College tomorrow afternoon.

Michigan Christian will travel to Grand Rapids to face runner-up Grace Bible College in an evening tilt.

76ers Beaten Without Wilt

Pistons Are Defeated by West, Baylor

By The Associated Press

As Wilt Chamberlain started a week's vacation across the continent, the Philadelphia 76ers lost their first game with the 7-foot-1 ace in their employment.

The 76ers, playing with only seven men, dropped a 138-126 decision to the Baltimore Bullets in the National Basketball Association Thursday night. Los Angeles downed Detroit 104-100 in the other game.

The 76ers announced the acquisition of Chamberlain from the San Francisco Warriors early Thursday. However, Philadelphia gave Chamberlain a week off so he could settle his affairs in San Francisco.

Chamberlain, who said yesterday that this will be his last season, has indicated that he will wait until the campaign is over before making a decision.

That left the 76ers with seven players since they sent three men to the Warriors in the deal.

STAYED EVEN

Philadelphia stayed even with Baltimore until Bob Ferry's basket broke a 108-108 tie. Bullets led by as much as 17 points after that. Philadelphia had led at halftime 73-68.

★ ★ ★

Los Angeles came from a six-point deficit in the final five minutes on the scoring of Jerry West and Elgin Baylor. Detroit led 89-83 when the Lakers' pair went to work and scored 19 of their team's last 21 points.

West scored eight for a 91-91 tie, and Baylor put in three that kept the Lakers even 96-96. West then whipped in two field goals and two free throws before Baylor wrapped it up with a final basket. West wound up with 29 points, Baylor 38. Terry Dischinger had 23 for the Pistons.

THE TALL ONE—Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-1 center traded by the San Francisco Warriors to the Philadelphia 76ers this week, talks to reporters at San Francisco Airport. He told the writers he might retire after this season despite the trade. The Warriors obtained guard Paul Neumann and forwards Connie Dierking and Lee Shaffer along with about $75,000 in cash.

School Swimming Programs Add Junior High Sessions

"Operation Waterproof" — Junior High School, will get underway at Northern High School swimming pool tomorrow.

At the same time, the elementary school swim program, "Operation Waterproof" — 4th Grade, will continue for a second ten-week session at the Central High Pool if sufficient interest is indicated.

All fourth, fifth and sixth graders desiring lessons are invited to enroll at the Central Pool on Saturday, January 16, at 8:30, 9:30, or 10:30 a.m. A fee of $8.00 is charged for the ten one-hour lessons.

"Operation Waterproof" programs are designed to make pupils safe in, on, or near the water. This need becomes particularly important since the 1964 water mishaps in Michigan numbered 290, the worst water toll since 1959.

Over half of these deaths resulted from accidents occurring on or near the water, while there were 144 swimming deaths. Eighteen persons drowned in Oakland County during 1964, an increase of two over the previous year.

Over 120 junior high school boys and girls will receive beginning and advanced swimming instruction and junior life saving for ten weeks for a fee of $8.00 at Northern.

The junior high school program is an extension of "Operation Waterproof" — 4th Grade, which has involved over 430 fourth grade students in beginner swimming instruction over the past two years.

The junior high program will operate only at Northern High School and boys and girls can enroll on Saturday whether or not they responded to the city-wide survey.

The following schedule has been arranged:

NORTHERN HIGH SCHOOL POOL
Bob Spence, Pool Director

8:30- 9:30 a.m. Madison Girls; Eastern Girls
8:30-10:00 a.m. Junior Life Saving—Boys and Girls
9:30-10:30 a.m. Lincoln Girls, Kennedy Girls, Washington Girls
10:30-11:30 a.m. Madison Boys, Lincoln Boys, Kennedy Boys, Washington Boys

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL POOL
William Birkhead, Pool Director

8:30- 9:30 a.m., 9:30-10:30 a.m., and 10:30-11:30 a.m.—4th, 5th, 6th grade swimming instruction.

A special beginning and advanced swimming class for parents will be offered at Northern beginning Saturday, January 23, from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., if at least 20 parents enroll.

The fee for parents of enrollees in "Operation Waterproof" will be $5.00 for ten one-hour lessons, while other parents will be charged the regular fee of $8.00.

Students are required to bring a bathing suit, towel, and soap. Girls are required to wear bathing caps.

Scoring Leader Pacing Rochester to Success

Coach Wayne Case of Rochester should be happy.

The Rochester basketball team shares the lead in the Oakland A League and it boasts the leading scorer in Oakland County is Bruce McDonald.

And really, Case is happy—with the team and McDonald. Perhaps McDonald also makes him sad. And there's a good reason.

McDonald's a senior and won't be back.

If the Falcons win the O-A title, McDonald will have a big hand in it.

The 5-10 playmaker has poured in 177 points in six outings for an average of 29.5 a game. He holds a slender lead over Ferndale's Lee Palmer, who is hitting at a 27.1 pace.

Pontiac Northern's Roger Hayward is nestled in fourth with a 25.0 mark.

Michigan and Michigan State are both on the road, but the majority of Michigan's other college basketball teams will stay within the state's boundaries for the heavy weekend of action.

Michigan, which shares first place in the Big Ten with Minnesota, is at Northwestern. Michigan State faces Iowa in a nationally televised game.

Closer to home, Marquette will be at Detroit and Kent State plays at Western Michigan in a Mid-American Conference encounter.

One of the county's best organized and supported bowling tournaments will begin tomorrow afternoon following appropriate ceremonies at Elks 810 Lodge.

The eighth annual Elks Ladies National Invitational Tournament will start at 2 p.m. and run weekends through Feb. 28th. It will attract bowlers from four states.

Although the prize fund is a modest $4,800 plus trophies, the tournament continues to grow each year. All the defending champions are returning among the 530 women who are participating. One member of the defending team titlist is absent.

The entries are from Indiana, Illinois and Ohio in addition to Michigan. Pontiac's Imperial Beauty Salon is the defending women's handicap champion and will be on the 8 p.m. squad tomorrow. Hettie Gorsline is the captain; Betty Knaus, Thelma Seney and Gladys Buchanan return, too.

Team events are bowled Saturdays while singles and doubles events are staged Sundays.

The local Elks Lodge is to be commended for its continued sponsorship of this fine tournament; and this year's officials are wished the best of luck with the endeavor. The image they create will form the basic impression many of the visitors will have of Pontiac.

SPARE PINS

All that Bill Meade of Franklin needed to bowl a good game was a new ball.

Bill, 2675 Captain Lane, was bowling in the Senior House League at Birmingham Bowling Monday night.

His game was off. He asked Rodney Smith, coowner of the alley, to drill him a new ball.

After the league finished, Bill moved to the counter, picked up the new ball and walked back to the lanes.

He put 12 in the pocket for a 300 game, his first.

The Pontiac Traveling Classic League is back in action and enters its fifth Sunday of competition this weekend. The six teams will vie beginning at noon on the Huron Bowl lanes.

It is time for the March of Dimes Tournament again; in fact, many league bowlers started this week around the northern part of the county and southern county bowlers will begin Sunday, Al Kaline announced, the county campaign director.

There are valuable prizes in the tournament. Interested bowlers should contact their proprietors soon for further details.

BOWLING

The West Side Lanes' Classic League came up with a 700 series for the second straight week Monday night when Mike Figa connected for 245-236—705.

He lost high game honors, though, to Lee Luenberger who hit 255 (638) as the circuit began its second half with Orchard Lanes posting the only sweep.

At Huron Bowl last Friday the Classic bowlers completed their first half with Fontana Brothers very effectively stopping Calbi Music's bid to tie for first place.

Fontana swept eight points to clinch the top spot. It had 1133-3183 led by Jim Rutkowski who scored 253-236—698. Felice Quality Market's Tony Ledesma rolled the high game, 257 in a 673 series.

The Huron Pontiac General Hospital League reported Hazel Roberts as its high bowler Monday with 511.

There was a 279 by Ken Nickerson of the Tinhorns in the Howe's Lanes Bucks & Does loop that same night.

COOLEY SCORES

Monday at Cooley Lanes the Lady of Refuge League listed Charles Lebrun with 254-237—679. The Bloomfield Knolls circuit Tuesday had Beverly Fry with 202-201—570.

John Wozniak hit 260 in Saturday's Moonlite Doubles which was led by Sid and Betty Harris with 1,312. Cooley's Senior House loop saw Larry Angott bowl 630 and Jerry Dunkel 628.

The Junior House League last week had a 635 by Wozniak.

★ ★ ★

At Auburn Lanes Sunday Mary Beebe had 225 for the second straight week in the Sunday Nite League, and Bill Weirts 234. The Ball & Chain bowlers that night were led by Gloria Kuckenburg's 204—536.

The Monday Lions at Auburn listed John Noonan with 235—629 and Lou Heilig with 239 as 14 men reached 200 or better. Bud Peel led 12 men over 200 Tuesday with his 221 among the Businessmen keglers.

The Orchard Lanes Monday Mixed All-Star League recorded a 225-207—621 effort for Leland Gutzke, and a 200-526 for Dorothy Ware.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Fred Lening, a burly sharpshooter from Fairless Hills, Pa., led 432 of the nation's best male bowlers as they headed into the last day of qualifying in the $100,000 All-Star Bowling Tournament.

★ ★ ★

Lening rolled a six-game series of 1365 Thursday to boost his total for two days and 12 games of preliminary action to 2699. He was 40 pins ahead of second-place Harry Smith, the former champion from Boston who shot 1317.

Dick Weber of St. Louis, winner of the 1962 and 1963 All-Star crowns, moved up to third place when he shot 1290 to boost his total to 2657.

Mike Samardzija Jr. of Pontiac averaged 216.5 yesterday for 1299 and a 2396. George Chicovsky slipped back with a 1061 for a 2282 total.

The men's field will be cut to 216 tonight after 18 games of qualifying. The men's quarterfinals begin Saturday morning. A woman's field of 216 begins qualifying the same day.

★ ★ ★

Defending men's champion Bob Strampe of Detroit was mired in 70th place Thursday night with a 12-game total of 2446. He lost ground when he rolled a 1207 series in Thursday's second round.

Tommy Tuttle, the newcomer from King, N.C., who finished second in the 1964 All-Star, was tied for 15th place with Bobby Meadows of Dallas with 2556.

Four-time titlist Don Carter of St. Louis rolled a 1242 series, but his 2361 placed him 175th.

Yank 2nd Baseman Awaits '65 Start

NEW YOR K(AP) — Bobby Richardson, first New York Yankee to sign his 1965 contract, said today the firing of Yogi Berra as Yankee manager came as a "shock" to him but at the same time he was looking forward to playing under Johnny Keane.

"Everything I've heard about Keane has been good," said the American League's All-Star second baseman. "He has an excellent knowledge of the game and he is a fellow who commands respect — in a quiet way.

★ ★ ★

"I had the opportunity of observing him on one occasion. That was a number of years ago when I played for him in an American Association All-Star game. He left a lasting impression upon me."

Richardson, who signed for an estimated $35,000, which General Manager Ralph Houk said represented a "modest" raise, acknowledged he had given serious thought to quitting baseball at the end of the 1964 season.

DETROIT (AP) — Detroit Lions Head Coach Harry Gilmer isn't sure how long it will take to complete his staff, but he's got the first man he really wanted.

The Lions announced Thursday that offensive line coach Aldo Forte, one of five assistants fired by the team last month, has been signed for the 1965 season.

"I've been talking to a lot of people," Gilmer explained. "Aldo was the man I wanted right off, and I'm very happy to have him."

"I feel I've been vindicated," Forte said.

This Barber Shop Offers Pool, Coffee, Soft Music

There's no floor show every half hour or Bunny Girl manicurists, but Vern Lovrensky, 29, of 4412 Lanson, Waterford Township, has equipped his new barber shop with just about everything else.

Lovrensky opened for business Nov. 27 at 960 Joslyn.

The decor is modern and masculine with contoured chairs, Danish modern couches, rich wood paneling, mounted fishing trophies on the walls and a thick carpet in the lounge area.

A large, Danish modern coffee table is heavily laden with magazines (and today's Pontiac Press).

There's also a TV set and potted plants.

★ ★ ★

But that's only the main floor. There's a basement, too.

COFFEE POT

At the bottom of the stairs is an electric coffee pot, which is always full of hot—free—coffee. In one corner is a soft-drink dispenser.

And in the center of the shiny tiled floor is a regulation pool table, which Lovrensky says keeps as many as four customers at a time (plus spectators) entertained on busy days.

Soft background music plays constantly over a speaker system which Lovrensky uses to call "next" to customers in the downstairs lounge.

★ ★ ★

In spite of these refinements, haircuts are still the standard price.

'JUST FINE'

Commenting on the success of his unusual new tonsorial parlor, Lovrensky says, "Everything's working out just fine."

Home Rule, Reapportionment

Look for State to Alter County Setup

By BILL EASTHAM

The 1965 session of the Michigan Legislature, which convened this week, is virtually certain to result in the most radical changes in the 123-year history of the state's county governmental structure.

Looming on the legislative horizon are county home rule and county reapportionment, both of which promise to involve state legislators in bitter controversy.

The home rule bill, scheduled to be introduced as Senate Bill No. 1 by Wayne County legislators, will be a rerun from last year, when it died in House Committee on Towns and Counties after being passed by the Senate.

But reapportionment legislation promises to lead the state's 66 incumbent and 82 freshman trails.

The Michigan Supreme Court presently holds the key to reapportionment legislation, and the demand for such legislation may provide the impetus needed to pass a home rule enabling act.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court recently upheld a decision that Wisconsin boards of supervisors are unconstitutionally apportioned under the "one-man, one-vote" principle set forth in the 14th amendment.

A similar appeal, originating in Kent County, is pending before the Michigan Supreme Court.

Most observers expect Michigan's high court to reach the same conclusion.

Among those expecting county home rule and reapportionment enabling acts to come out of this year's legislative session is Delos Hamlin of Farmington, chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors.

A supervisor for 23 years and chairman of the board for the past nine years, Hamlin was quietly advocating home rule when most county officials were viewing it with alarm.

HAMLIN

"Michigan county government is a rural government," Hamlin said.

"It's still suitable for a lot of upstate counties, but it's no longer adequate for counties like Oakland."

Hamlin is confident that a home rule enabling act will be passed this year. His main concern is that it be a simple, flexible act that can be applied to all counties.

He believes that the Wayne County bill is practical in theory, but doubts that it will ever become law without undergoing major surgery, which may limit its effectiveness.

Hamlin sees no need for radical changes in Oakland County government.

★ ★ ★

"I think the present system is rather loose and could be strengthened," he said, "but it should be by evolution rather than revolution."

COMBINE OFFICES

The department of public works and the county drain office should be combined under one appointed administrative head to eliminate duplication of engineering plans and studies, Hamlin believes.

He also advocates making all appointed boards and commissions directly responsible to whatever governing body the county charter calls for.

The main pitfall to be avoided under home rule, Hamlin points out, is a centralized government with too much power.

★ ★ ★

He believes the county's home rule governing body should contain no less than 20 or more than 40 persons, representing equally-populated districts, with an administrative staff to implement the policies they formulate.

LIMITS ON RULE

"Charter cities should never be interferred with," Hamlin points out, "and the county policy-making board should deal only with county or regional matters."

Regarding county reapportionment, Hamlin says: "I don't know if it's good or bad, but it seems inevitable and we may as well learn to live with it."

Circuit Judge Fred N. Searl, who ruled last Sept. 11 that Kent County's board of supervisors is unconstitutional, included in his 37-page opinion a threat to redistrict the county himself if the legislature doesn't put reapportionment machinery into gear during the current session.

★ ★ ★

"If the legislature is forced to act on reapportionment," Hamlin said, "it seems logical to combine it with home rule legislation."

LITTLE EFFECT

Hamlin doesn't think reapportionment will have much effect on the administration of Oakland County.

"We're fortunate in not having opposition between rural and city factions on our board of supervisors. This isn't true in all counties."

Regardless of the outcome of other county legislation, Hamlin expects the present system of township boards to retain its status quo.

★ ★ ★

"The township supervisor will probably continue to be the chief administrator," Hamlin said, "but he will no longer serve on the governing board of the county."

AMEND CHARTERS

Hamlin also pointed out that county home rule will make it necessary to amend city charters which designate certain city officials to serve on the county board of supervisors.

It is unlikely that the county charter will provide for any appointments to the county's governing body, Hamlin said.

Indian Troops Killed

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP)—Three Indian soldiers have been killed in clashes this week along the Kashmir cease-fire line, the Pakistan government said today.

It said the clashes occurred Monday at Tander and Padhar, 150 miles from Rawalpindi. The statement mentioned no casualties on the Pakistan side of Kashmir but charged the Indians fired first.

In Waterford Township

Education Project Hits Stride

Waterford Township's community school program, launched last September, has already grown into a major education project.

"We expect to have at least 75 classes in operation by the end of this month," Robert Lawyer, director of the program, said.

Patterned after the highly successful community school project in Flint, the Waterford program is designed to provide more extensive use of school facilities for all members of the community.

"I feel we have a good start in getting people involved," Lawyer said.

"Though we haven't compiled figures to date on total participation, I'm sure it will be a pleasant surprise when we add up the number of people."

EACH NEIGHBORHOOD

All 26 of the elementary schools in Waterford will be utilized in the program. Areas around each school are termed neighborhoods.

The school district is divided into quarters for purposes of administering the project with a director assigned to each of the four sections.

A questionnaire was used to determine what type of program was best suited to a particular neighborhood. Ideas from school staff members also were weighed in scheduling activities.

Neighborhood councils also have been formed in most neighborhoods to serve as advisory groups.

HELP STARTING

PTA groups and school principals have been very helpful in getting the councils started, Lawyer said.

The myriad of classes included in the community school program ranges from gym activities to cake decorating.

Among other activities are arts and crafts, round and square dancing, instruction in musical instruments, preschool programs, language lessons, knitting, sewing, mathematics for parents, photography, painting and dramatics instruction.

Clubs formed in conjunction with the program include stamp, coin, dramatics and a rock club.

'Need Law Change for Amish Teacher'

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett, superintendent of public instruction, indicated here yesterday that the State Legislature would have to change the laws before he could permit the Amish clan at Camden to continue operating its small school with an uncertified teacher.

★ ★ ★

Gov. Romney and various organizations and individuals have gotten behind the bearded Amish in their efforts to keep the school going.

The Amish defended their right to use Ruth Graber, 19-year-old teacher, in the education of 23 children in a one-room school, although her formal education ended at the eighth grade.

Dr. Bartlett, who was here for the Michigan Association of School Superintendents State Convention yesterday afternoon, said the lawmakers have the right given them by the people to change the law for the Amish community. "If they choose to change the law—and the responsibility is theirs — I will uphold the law," he said.

★ ★ ★

"The future of our country, its very safety, is dependent upon the education of our children.

'UNIVERSAL SITUATION'

"I am sure all of us, including the good people who live in Camden, want the very best for their children. At the same time, we have a universal situation in the Amish community in Camden.

"These people, in the practice of their free choice of religious beliefs, have contributed much to the growth of the state of Michigan. They should be encouraged to be a part of Michigan's future," Dr. Bartlett said.

Gov. Romney Wednesday urged legislators to exempt the Amish clan from the teacher requirements and Rep. Frederic J. Marshall, R-Allen, said he would introduce legislation to give relief to the Amish.

★ ★ ★

The clan is in Hillsdale County where Miss Graber has been teaching the 23 children from eight Amish families.

★ ★ ★

The Amish contend this is all the education their families need to carry out their farming duties.

Dr. Bartlett held a hearing last week before issuing his decision to close the school.

The hearing held by Dr. Bartlett and Eugene Krasicky, assistant attorney general Jan. 6, was called on complaint of Walter Holliday, Hillsdale intermediate school district superintendent.

★ ★ ★

During the hearing, Levi Graber, a spokesman for the Amish families, said the school is a church-operated school without aid from the state and contended Miss Graber was qualified to teach.

He said it is difficult for the Amish to find a teacher that would meet the standards which the clan had set.

'This Is Your Life,' Art Linkletter Is Told by Ralph Edwards

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD — They said it could never happen but this week it did. Ralph Edwards came on Art Linkletter's show and announced, "This is your life."

THOMAS

The onetime rivals in audience-participation shows finally made their appearance together, much to Linkletter's consternation. It was all part of the 20th birthday celebration for his "House Party" show. The Edwards-Linkletter summit meeting will appear on the daytime CBS series Jan. 22.

★ ★ ★

It was just 20 years ago today that Art and his partner, John Guedel, staged the first edition of the longest party in history. They already had a nighttime radio show, "People are Funny," and Art commuted weekly to San Francisco, where he emceed the daytime "What's Doing, Ladies?"

The two had an idea for another program about the younger generation, called "Under 21." They went to New York to sell it to Young and Rubicam advertising agency. No sale, was the reply, but General Electric was looking for a five-a-week show. Art and John quickly concocted "House Party." It has been on radio ever since and on television for 13 years. It's the only program broadcast in both mediums.

INTERVIEWING KIDS

"The only feature we saved from 'Under 21' was interviewing young kids," said Art. "And we're still doing it."

Over the years Linkletter has changed — from friendly, optimistic emcee to friendly, optimistic millionaire. The show has changed, too.

★ ★ ★

"We have less of the frantic party atmosphere that we used to have," said Art. "The biggest change is interviews in depth which I do with noted figures.

"This reflects the changing audience. There is more interest in self-improvement than ever before. The show has tried to meet that interest."

LISTS SUPERLATIVES

Art listed these superlatives of the two decades:

1. Most outstanding interview: Cecil B. DeMille, a few years before his death. "He really opened up — and this was his first appearance on the air in eight years, since he had been put off radio for refusing a union political assessment."

★ ★ ★

2. Most poignant interview: With a Negro handyman who had put five children through college, then graduated from high school and college himself.

3. Biggest laugh: When a 5-year-old was asked how his parents met. "I don't know," said the tyke, "but I do know they were roommates in college."

Pierre--Oops, Michele--Becomes a Mother

NEW YORK (AP) — Pierre is a gray seal. She has just become a mother at the Coney Island Aquarium. Result: Pierre's name is being changed to Michele.

"We had thought Pierre was a male," said Dr. Carlton Ray, associate curator. "But obviously we were wrong."

1st Chancellor at Tech

HOUGHTON (AP)—Dr. J. R. Van Pelt, who retired Jan. 1 as president of Michigan Tech, has become the first person in the school's 80-year history to hold the position of chancellor. Van Pelt was succeeded as president by Dr. Raynold L. Smith.

During 1963, a total of 216,700 mobile homes and trailers were produced in this country.

Name U. of M. Lecturer

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The Rev. Roland de Vaux, O.P., director of the French Biblical and Archaeological School in Jerusalem, will deliver the 1964-65 Zwerdling Lectures in Old Testament studies at the University of Michigan Jan. 21-22.

The New York World's Fair attracted 27 million paying visitors during its first season.

If You Want to Do It Up Big

Take Lots of Greenbacks to Inauguration

WASHINGTON (AP) — Like most tourist attractions, the presidential inauguration Jan. 20 will cost money to see.

Hundreds of dollars, in some cases. Not much, in others.

★ ★ ★

The parade will be free — to those who stand on the curb. A hitchhiking college boy can get by for a few dollars, if he eats lightly. A corner-cutting family can stay at a rooming house, ride buses instead of taxis, and take other economy measures.

But were a couple from, say, Johnson City, Tex., to come for the inauguration and accompanying festivities, it could cost them almost $600 to do it up big.

COSTLY ITEMS

This includes more than $300 for travel, $160 for food and lodging and $122 to enjoy the various inaugural events.

Our Texans, having received general invitations to the inauguration and having purchased tickets to events open to the public, decide to go. Neighbors drive them to Austin, Tex., for the flight to Washington. Friends and kinfolk have promised to care for their three children and their pet beagles. Round-trip air fare, $143 each, or $286.

★ ★ ★

Taxis in Washington, including trip from and to the airport. Downtown taxicabs are only 50 cents or so a ride, but our friends are likely to do a lot of riding: $20.

Total: $306.

RESERVED ROOM

Since our Texans want to be in the midst of the excitement, they have reserved a room at one of Washington's first-class hotels. Rooms run about $20 per day: $80.

They'll eat either at the hotel or restaurants, except if they get a free invitation to a party being given by Texans for Texans. Per day food allowance: $20 for two: $80.

★ ★ ★

Jan. 18 — Reception for distinguished ladies, afternoon; Democratic gala, evening; both by invitation only. About the only way you can get into the gala, at which name stars will perform, is to be a senator or a governor or a member of the President's Club — they contribute $1,000 each to the campaign.

Our Texans spend the day sightseeing.

Jan. 19 — Governors reception, invitation only; reception honoring the Humphreys, 6-8 p.m., $5 per person. They go to see the next vice president: $10. In the evening can attend either the inaugural concert, tickets from $5 up, or the Young Democrats reception and dance, $10 per person. They go to the concert: $10.

Jan. 20 — Inaugural ceremony, by invitation; unless you're on really good terms with your senator and congressman, you had better plan on watching it on television in your hotel room.

Parade, $3.50 per seat and up: they buy $3.50 seats, sit back and watch the parade and the bands and the floats. $7.

Citizens for Johnson-Humphrey reception, $10 per person. $20.

★ ★ ★

Inaugural ball, $25 per person, $750 for box seating 8. Actually there are four balls, three in hotels and one at the National Guard Armory. He rents a tuxedo, $20. She brought a dress. He buys her an orchid, $3.50. At the ball they patronize a new feature: the bar, $5. Total: $78.50.

★ ★ ★

Total for inaugural events: $125.50.

Over-all total: $591.50.

Plus $1 for the inaugural program, which may be the biggest bargain of the week.

Mountain Men Cause Stir in Sioux City, Iowa

SIOUX CITY, Iowa (AP) — Sixteen men from Wyoming, clad in buckskins, with shoulder-length hair and carrying muskets, created a stir in Sioux City when they were marooned here yesterday.

A bus carrying them to Washington for the inauguration of President Johnson broke down and the Wind River Mountain Men of Fremont County, Who., strolled around town while it was fixed.

★ ★ ★

A spokesman, Jack Langan, said a group of which the 16 were part was organized last year for Wyoming's 75th anniversary of statehood.

MSU Prof to Address Area Counselors Group

Dr. James Costar of Michigan State University will discuss the guidance needs of elementary school pupils at Wednesday's 1:30 p.m. meeting of the Oakland Area Counselors Association at Dondero High School, Royal Oak.

Active on various state committees interested in defining ways in which counseling can be provided to elementary school pupils, Dr. Costar is a professor in the department of counseling, personnel services and educational psychology at MSU.

The Hindus practiced a form of plastic surgery as early as 800 B.C., according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Educator Set to Retire

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)— Prof. Harry L. Crawford, director of the Soo branch campus of Michigan Tech since 1953, has announced plans to retire in June. He will be 65 in May.

Averages Near Historic Highs

Stubborn Gain Continues

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels, nonferrous metals and airlines rose in a stubbornly advancing stock market early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Stock market averages were launching an attack on their historic highs of late November.

Gains of fractions to a point prevailed among key stocks.

With eight days of a generally upward trend behind it, the stock market was flouting predictions that it would pause for a 'rest.'

Steels benefitted by some Wall Street comment to the effect that they have been oversold and that a steel strike is not as strong a possibility as supposed.

Auto production continued at a brisk pace but the motor stocks were mixed. Airlines benefitted again from continued expectations of higher revenues and earnings.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .8 at 331.5 with industrials up 1.4, rails up .1 and utilities up .7.

Airlines rose fractionally on a broad front. Drugs inched higher.

UP A POINT

Up about a point were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem and Jones & Laughlin. Lukens added 2.

Prices were generally higher in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Old Town gained 2, Pepperell more than a point.

Corporate and U.S. Government bonds were steady in light trading.

Malaysia Urges Indonesia: End Hostility, Aggression

KUAL LAUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Malaysia demanded today that Indonesia "cease hostilities and all acts of aggression" if it wants a peaceful solution to the crisis between the two countries.

A government statement noted the "desire so piously expressed by President Sukarno" of Indonesia, who suggested Thursday that an African-Asian group or the United Nations investigate whether the North Borneo states of Sarawak and Sabah want to remain in Malaysia.

★ ★ ★

Sukarno said he would abide by the result. He also called on Malaysia's prime minister, Tunku Abdul Rahman, to return to the negotiating table.

The Malaysian statement said:

"After experience of a series of abortive peace talks with Indonesia, Malaysia naturally would rather see a genuine demonstration of the professed desire rather than hear mere expressions of it."

'STILL WILLING'

Foreign Ministry spokesman Ahmad Nordin said Malaysia is still willing to accept the proposal for an African-Asian peacemaking commission, which the Philippines originally proposed.

But he emphasized this would be acceptable only "as soon as Indonesia ceases hostilities and all acts of aggression and is ready to respect Malaysia's sovereignty and territorial integrity."

Nordin said Malaysia could not ask for less in view of Indonesia's withdrawal from the United Nations, "statements by its leaders following that and the buildup of (Indonesian) military forces in Borneo and Sumatra, together with the threat of laysia."

★ ★ ★

Deputy Prime Minister Tun Abdul Razak said earlier that Sukarno "must prove he wants peace by deeds, not words alone."

Meanwhile, the buildup of British forces in Northern Borneo continued. A British artillery battery was flown in, and several antiaircraft guns arrived.

British transport planes landed more Gurkha troops from Hong Kong. Five hundred of the tough little Nepalese fighters are being flown in this week, joining 1,000 Gurkhas already there.

2 Vacancies Are Filled on School Unit

Two vacancies on the Oakland Schools' citizens advisory committee on special education were filled yesterday by the Oakland County Board of Education.

Mrs. Dorothy Barningham, secretary of the Waterford Township Board of Education, and John J. Houghton, superintendent of Ferndale Schools, were named to the committee.

The vacancies were created by the death of Hugh Evans and the resignation of Clifford Smart who is now a member of the State Legislature.

In other action the board authorized an expenditure of $1,000 for substitute help in the reading clinic program.

Enora Higgenbottom of Ferndale will be assigned to part-time duties in the reading clinic.

Smelled a Story

UNION CITY, Tenn. (AP) —Turner Kirkland called in a reporter yesterday, saying he captured a badger — rare in these parts—in a cage-like trap.

"Looks more like a skunk to me," said the reporter.

"He's just got a white spot on his head—not all the way down his back," said Kirkland as he jabbed the animal with a stick to get a better view.

Turned out the reporter was right.

Jakubous told sheriff's deputies that a truck passed him and threw up dust which impaired his vision momentarily as the boy was crossing the road.

Jerry said that he waited for the truck to go by and then started across the road.

Solons Oppose Gas Chamber in Coast Nightclub

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Oregon legislators protested Thursday a request that a Portland night club operator be allowed to use the state penitentiary gas chamber for entertainment purposes.

★ ★ ★

The chamber is not being used because the death penalty was abolished in the November election.

★ ★ ★

Harvey Dick had requested that the state sell him the execution facility for use in a night club now under construction. He said customers could have their pictures taken inside it.

★ ★ ★

State senators said Thursday that the chamber should be destroyed instead.

Liberian Ship Springs Bad Leaks at Sea

HONOLULU (AP) — The 7,298-ton Liberian freighter African Monarch radioed an SOS Thursday night that she was taking water 1,800 miles northwest of Honolulu.

The U.S. Naval Transport Ship Hampton Roads answered the distress signal immediately and messaged the Coast Guard in Honolulu that she was alongside the freighter.

★ ★ ★

The African Monarch, owned by the General Navigation Co. of Monrovia, said it was leaking badly through two cracked plates and was in danger of sinking.

It was not known what caused the plates to crack.

STOP ENGINES

Later, the Coast Guard said the African Monarch had stopped her engines — which were apparently unharmed — and was pumping strongly with the leakage gaining only slightly.

Meantime, the Coast Guard cutter Bering Strait, on ocean station duty in the mid-Pacific, was due to rendezvous with the monarch at 3 p.m. Saturday.

★ ★ ★

An Air Force rescue plane stood by for takeoff at Hickam Air Force Base in Honolulu.

The Coast Guard said the seas were rough and it was believed the Hampton Roads was sufficiently equipped to take crewmen off the 440-foot-long freighter if necessary.

LIFE BOATS

The freighter reported that its life boats were damaged in recent storms.

No information was given on the crew or the name of the captain.

Detroit Edison Reports . . .

DECREASED RATES FOR CUSTOMERS—INCREASED DIVIDENDS FOR STOCKHOLDERS!

A happy paradox in Southeastern Michigan. On November 12, Detroit Edison and the Michigan Public Service Commission jointly announced a reduction in electrical rates amounting to $3,750,000 per year. A few days later, on November 16, Walker Cisler, Chairman of the Board, announced an 8% increase in the dividend rate. And, earlier this year, Edison employes received a general wage increase.

These are the kinds of results you can expect when you combine sound utility management and a dedicated work force with an expanding economy. This is what's happening in Michigan—and at Detroit Edison.

General Blows His Stack

Who Trooped Off With Hat?

FORT HUACHUCA, Ariz. (AP) — Somebody has stolen Maj. Gen. Benjamin H. Pochyla's gold-braided hat, and the general naturally is steamed up about it.

So is the Army's Criminal Investigation Division which is making a major search.

The hat, said to be worth $80, disappeared from the Military Inn outside the main gate of the Fort Huachuca Army installation.

"It's a general's hat and has all that gold braid on it," explained Pochyla, who happens to be the base commander.

★ ★ ★

CID agents questioned Joanna Proctor, a clerk typist at the base, and one of them said she was reported seen slipping the general's hat under her coat and walking out the door with it.

DENIES CHARGE

But Miss Proctor denied any such thing. She sympathizes with Gen. Pochyla but was angry when a sheriff's deputy showed up later yesterday at her mother's home in Bisbee, some miles away.

"I came to pick up the general's hat," the officer said.

Mrs. Joseph Proctor called her daughter and asked, "Joanna, did you take the general's hat?"

★ ★ ★

"I assured her that I had not and that I had not even seen the general or his hat," Joanna told reporters last night.

The Army investigators asked Miss Proctor if anyone had been with her in the restaurant-tavern when the hat vanished last Tuesday night.

"I told him that two friends of mine were with me, and I gave him the names," she said. "Again, he asked me whether I had taken the general's hat, and again I told him that I had not."

The two friends — both young women — were questioned and both denied having taken the hat, Miss Proctor said. They told her they expected to take lie detector tests.

The whole incident didn't seem serious, Miss Proctor says — until her mother was brought into it.

"I do not feel that a hat is as important as my reputation or that of my family," she said.

Meanwhile, Gen. Pochyla — who reported the loss of his hat to investigators and said he wanted it back — is unhappy with the search.

He told a reporter last night: "I'm sorry I caused all that commotion."

Inaugural Plans 'Groovy'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—When Melissa Baron, 13, wanted to go to the inauguration, she wrote President Johnson for an invitation. And got it.

But Melissa, nicknamed Missy, found yesterday that wonders never cease. She was invited to fly to Washington with California Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Said Missy: "Gee, that's groovy."

She and her mother, Mrs. Charles L. Baron, then rushed out to buy some new, warm clothes for the inauguration.

★ ★ ★

Her father owns a men's shop in Belmont Shore, and the family lives in suburban Lakewood. Missy is blonde, blue-eyed and is in the eighth grade.

She and her parents leave with the governor's party by chartered jet Sunday.

Schoolwork Is Child's Responsibility

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Dear Dr. Nason: How can I get my 12-year-old son to become more serious about his schoolwork? He has had asthma since the age of two. However, he now seems to be growing out of it. His teachers feel he works below his ability primarily because he needs a more serious feeling toward his work.

DR. NASON

Mrs. J.E.A.,
Newport News, Va.

Your son is following the pattern of children who have, because of illness, been given too much help. He should be required to produce his homework on his own. Make clear to him that it is his responsibility.

You may give him a few hints on how to do the work, but don't look up words in the dictionary for him or constantly answer questions as to how words are spelled, etc.

It may take a year to get him entirely on his own but it is worth the struggle. Be firm even though it may mean greater failure for him in the beginning!

Dear Dr. Nason: Our son has completed his sophomore year at college. His cumulative average was 1.85. He needed 2.00 to remain in school. How should I go about getting him back into school or find some other college that will accept him with this average

Mrs. C. J.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

★ ★ ★

This is your son's problem — not yours!

The first thing your son must do is to learn something more about learning. The procedures and habits he followed for two years obviously were inadequate.

With plans in mind for the improvement of his scholarship, he should take extension work from the university or enroll in a junior college or a city college.

Unless he can demonstrate that he has remedied his defects as a student, neither he nor the college would benefit by his return.

Dear Dr. Nason: My nephew lives on the Gulf Coast and is interested in majoring in Marine biology when he enrolls in college next year. Will you please evaluate this science for me and advise if it provides worthwhile career opportunities Would it be better for him to take a basic biology major in college and marine biology in graduate school for a Master's degree.

M.J.G., Media, Pa.

★ ★ ★

Marine biology, although a recent specialty, is gaining in importance by leaps and bounds. The sea is one of man's last frontiers. There are increasing career opportunities in the field.

Your nephew should be guided by the college counselor. To carry out a major in marine biology, the boy must necessarily follow the pattern of studies set up by the college in which he enrolls.

(You can write to Prof. Nason in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions of widest interest will be answered in this column.)

In a recent International Match Point match at the Valley View Studio in Dallas, Tex., it took one North-South pair five rounds of bidding to reach a very good six diamond contract. South won the first spade in dummy, led a trump to his ace and a second trump back to dummy's king.

JACOBY

At this point, there was no play left for the contract, but South gave it the old college try. He led the queen of clubs from dummy and if East had covered with the king, South would have been able to finesse against West's ten and get rid of his losing spade, but East held up his king. If South had known about the 4-1 diamond break before he led trumps, he could have made the hand by attacking clubs at trick two, but South made the normal play by assuming diamonds would split 3-2.

The six-diamond contract had been eminently correct, since all it depended on was a reasonable trump break, but to add insult to injury, the opposing North-South pair reached the inferior contract of six hearts and made it.

At that table, South won the first spade in dummy and promptly led the queen of clubs. There was no way to make the heart slam if the club finesse was going to lose.

The queen of clubs was allowed to hold, whereupon South drew trumps and cashed his ace of clubs. Then he played the ace of diamonds and a second diamond to dummy's queen.

His next play was the nine of clubs. East had to play his king, whereupon South returned to dummy with the king of diamonds and discarded one of his two losers on the jack of clubs.

Mother, Baby Survive Unusual Birth in England

CHESTERFIELD, England (UPI) — Doctors today reported the birth of a boy who developed in his mother's abdominal cavity instead of the womb. Chances of such a birth were placed at 60 million to one.

The mother was identified as Mrs. Cythis Longson, 26, of nearby Brimington.

The infant weighed 4 pounds 6 ounces at birth eight days ago.

Doctors said such births are normally fatal to both mother and baby. They said there have been only 500 cases recorded in the Western world and that only about 50 of those infants survived.

★ ★ ★

The baby, named Hayley, has been placed in an incubator. Mrs. Longson is recovering satisfactorily from the delivery operation.

Zoo Spoils Lion's Appetite

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Simba the lion is being transferred from a plush residence in Williamsburg to the Norfolk Zoo, and he's so upset about it he's off his feed. Even ice cream cones.

This is not so curious because Simba, a 10-month-old, 200-pound, de-toothed and de-clawed beast, almost had the run of the house at the Herman Dail home.

Tame as a kitten, Simba rode in the Dails' car and slept at the foot of their bed until they decided he was getting a bit too big to play with.

They gave him to the zoo, which had no lion.

★ ★ ★

The Dails taught Simba to eat ice cream zones. But for the present, even ice cream doesn't appeal to him.

LOST APPETITE

Moved to the shelter here, he immediately lost his appetite.

About a month and a half from now, he will move to the special Simba shelter built at the zoo to show him off.

So You Want to Be a Birdwatcher
By Bruce Radabaugh

By CORENNA ALDRICH

"So You Want to Be a Birdwatcher" Well, more than likely you don't. But don't sell it short.

Even though Bruce Radabaugh's book by that name may not make you a bird watcher, it will almost certainly give you a great deal more respect for those who are. The chapter on bird census alone is enough to do that.

And how would you like to identify a bird that learned the wrong song when he was growing up? It happens now and then.

But if you think that presents a problem for bird watchers, think of the poor bird who goes courting with the wrong mating call.

Now the author, who lives in Royal Oak and belongs to the Pontiac Audubon Society, is the first to admit there's a tendency to view bird watchers as birds who could do with a little watching themselves.

SAME WAY

In a delightful introduction, Radabaugh admits that until recently he felt the same way, and, as a matter of fact, still has doubts about butterfly chasers. (He does a little of that, too, but hides his net when cars go by. "I probably look suspicious at moments like this, but it's better than looking like a butterfly chaser.")

In his story of how he became an enthusiastic bird watcher, the author outlines simple, basic rules for the beginner.

Much of his advice should prove as handy for the window-sitting bird watcher as for the field-tripping variety.

Judging from the number of bird feeders one sees, Radabaugh may have quite a few takers in the first category.

Simply and directly written with amusing sidelights, this book should be especially valuable to Scout leaders, teachers, mothers and even older children taking their first look at the aviary world.

Anyone who has an interest in nature study will find Radabaugh's book informative and enjoyable.

Unexpected Meeting

GREGORY, S.D. (AP) — A father and son had an unexpected meeting when their cars collided at the crest of a hill. Russell Cook was traveling north on a dirt road at the same time his son, Lyle Cook, was driving south on the road. Both suffered injuries which required hospitalization.

Automation Shoots By

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Clyde Wyatt, a dapper 73, has been passed over by the age of automation.

In a downtown restaurant this week, Wyatt stepped up to a machine that sprays you with cologne for a dime and dropped the coin in the slot. He heard a noise and looked up.

"It was the perfume," said the 4-foot-11 Wyatt, "going right over my head."

Murder Suspect Put on FBI Wanted List

WASHINGTON (AP)—An ex-convict charged with the murder of a State Department secretary was added today to the FBI's roster of the 10 most wanted fugitives.

He is Walter Lee Parman, 32, accused in a federal warrant with strangling Shirley Ann Carey early last Saturday. The nude body of Miss Carey was found in an alley in Washington's Cleveland Park area Saturday morning. She had been savagely molested, the FBI said.

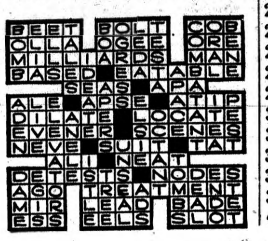
Answer to Previous Puzzle



Washington 'Crowning' Tops New York's Galas

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The way they say it in our terribly chic N.Y. circles now is, "Are you going to Washington for the Coronation?"

Maybe New York's a little jealous . . .

WILSON

Texans will be outnumbered at the Inaugural by only one other group — hairdressers. Nowadays, stars like Carol Channing. Julie Andrews and Carol Burnett travel with their personal hairdressers if possible. At times like these, when there's such demand, we understand the hairdressers' fees are so high ($1500 a day) that LBJ would prefer letting "Mr. Kenneth" be President and LBJ would be a "coiffurist."

There's talk of the hairdressers operating in planes flying between Los Angeles, New York and Washington. Edie Adams' husband, Marty Mills, says Edie usually gets her hair done in a bar either in a restaurant or in their Rolls Royce, and they have a drink en route — complete with Hairspray sprayed into it. "When I order a martini now," Marty says, "I usually say to the bartender, 'Put a little Hairspray in this, so it'll taste right.' "

★ ★ ★

I was telling Arlene Francis, the famous ad-libber, about the belly-dancing school, "The Stairway to Stardom," next door to the Americana. Arlene flipped, "Shouldn't they rename it 'The Navel Academy'?"

Jack Carter's lovely wife, Paula Stewart, is about to break out as a single cafe star—and she'll be beautiful! . . . Cafe comedian Dave Barry says at the Copa, "We got back the Star of India but lost the Star of Cleopatra."

Somehow I omitted Buddy Hackett's name from the stars at "Fight For Sight." So great now in "I Had a Ball," he was at his best. When he told the audience, "Just seeing me alone was worth the price of admission," he was right.

★ ★ ★

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Secret Stuff: A famous young comedian and his foreign wife are having a trial searation . . . And a very popular baseball star and his wife are split again . . . Fred Astaire phoned dancers Brascia and Tybee that they were the best produced dance set ever on TV in "On Broadway Tonight."

Dick Shawn's vivid description of a skinny gal who's pregnant gets a riotous laugh in "Peterpat" — "You look like a stuffed olive." Years later, reading a letter from his teen-age son, he says, "There are 14 words here written in Early Moronic" (A great laugh show!)

★ ★ ★

WISH I'D SAID THAT: "Friend of mine decided to go on a diet after getting stuck in a phone booth." (Clyde Moore, Columbus Dispatch.)

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "A philanderer is a man who considers himself too good to be true."

EARL'S PEARLS: "Secretaries today say their wolfish bosses are old bears—but what they want is a young buck." (George Kirby.)

"When a husband says he's leading a quiet home life," Don Miner was telling Abe Zuckerman, "he may mean that his wife isn't speaking to him" . . . That's earl, brother.

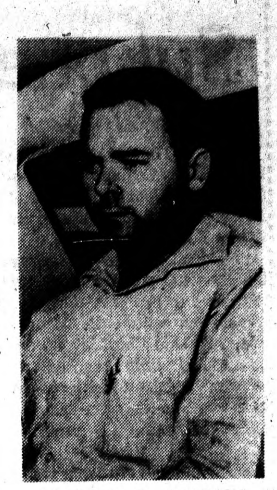
Gravlin Sent to Mental Hospital



WILLIAM G. GRAVLIN

Admitted Killer of Family Said Legally Insane

Panel of Psychiatrists Finds He's Capable of 'Most Horrible Acts'

William G. Gravlin, admitted slayer of all seven members of his family, yesterday was committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

The 30-year-old Troy Factory worker, termed capable of "most horrible acts," was ordered to the institution by Circuit Judge James S. Thorburn following a three-hour sanity hearing.

Thorburn's decision was based on the testimony of three psychiatrists, whose findings reversed an October ruling that Gravlin was mentally competent to stand trial.

"The testimony should indicate that he is capable of most horrible acts," added Thorburn.

★ ★ ★

"It would be cruel and barbarous to try this man. Our society no longer demands such conduct from its courts."

NO LENGTH SET

Judge Thorburn did not set any length of the commitment since it is not determined by the court. He said that it was his opinion that until such time medical techniques have advanced officials at Ionia would be "derelict in their duty" if they discharged Gravlin.

"These procedures are not now apparent," the judge said

The three psychiatrists appointed to examine Gravlin said he was unable to assist in his own defense. His trial was to have begun later this month.

The young father — described by the psychiatrists as outwardly an ordinary man but inwardly in conflict — was accused of first degree murder.

DAUGHTER'S DEATH

He was specifically charged with the death of his teen-age stepdaughter, Judith Ann Bentley, 16.

She, her five stepsisters and stepbrothers and their mother Bette, 40, were found hacked to death in their Troy home at 2121 Garson on Sept. 29. They had been killed a day earlier.

Police said Gravlin, found wandering on the street, admitted the killings but could give no lucid explanation except that he was worried that his wife was going to leave him.

The second psychiatrists' re-

Stroke Suffered by Sir Winston

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill has suffered a blood clot in the brain, a medical bulletin said today.

The medical bulletin, issued by his personal physician, Lord Moran, said:

"After a cold, Sir Winston has developed a circulatory weakness and there has been a cerebral thrombosis."

Sir Winston was 90 last Nov. 30.

A thrombosis is the formation of a blood clot in an artery. Sir Winston has survived two previous strokes.

Lord Moran, 82, has been Sir Winston's physician for years, and accompanied him on his far-ranging travels as Britain's prime minister during World War II.

The medical bulletin said "a further bulletin will be issued at 10 o'clock (5 p.m., Pontiac time) tonight."

It was signed by Moran and Lord Brain, a specialist in nervous diseases.

Earlier, Sir Winston's newspaperman son, Randolph, had told questioners that as far as he knew his illustrious father was suffering only from a cold.

★ ★ ★

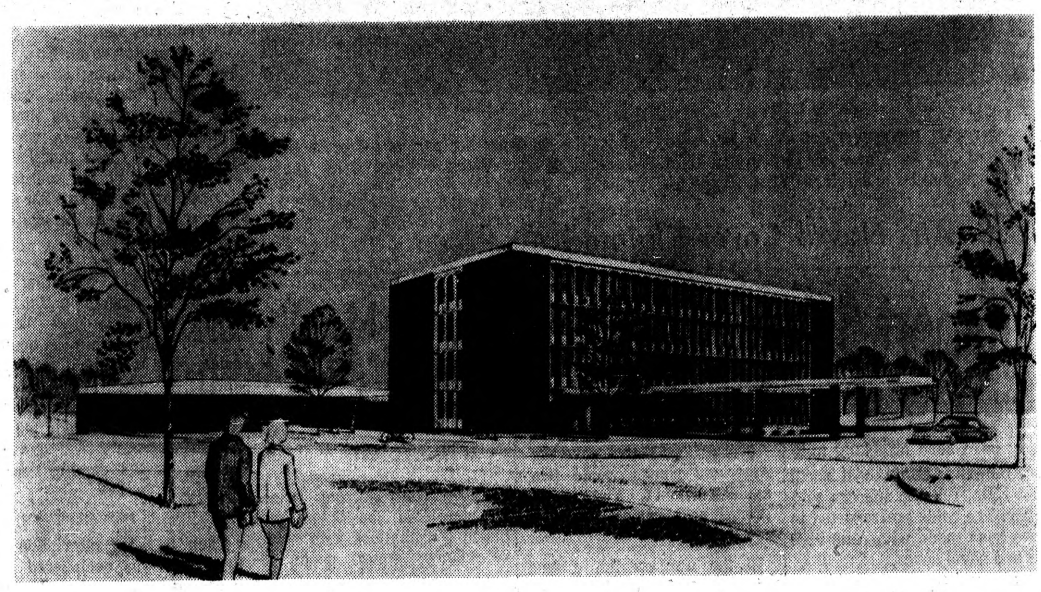
But Randolph added that any illness in a man of Sir Winston's age must be regarded as serious.

BOUNCE BACK

Churchill has always been able to bounce back from his illnesses, and, birthday after birthday, for the last five years or more, he has been able to totter to the ground floor windows of his London home at Hyde Park Gate, smile and give his famous V-for-victory sign to well-wishers congregated outside.

On his last birthday, Lady Churchill, Sir Winston's darling Clementine, held her husband's arm as he moved slowly to the window. He looked extremely pale.

After he slowly made his V sign with the first two fingers of his right hand, Sir Winston was gently led away by his wife, his devoted companion for many years.



NEW ADDITION TO CAMPUS—Oakland University's new classroom-office building will be named the Matilda R. Wilson Hall. The $2.5-million structure has been designed to provide large lecture halls as well as small classrooms. It will also house administrative offices including admissions, registrar, placement and dean of students.

Biting Cold Hits U.P., North U.S.

By The Associated Press

Upper Peninsula residents endured biting subzero temperatures early today as southern Lower Michigan braced for another bout with cold weather and snow.

★ ★ ★

The mercury at Michigan's icebox, Pellston, plunged to 30 degrees below zero. Upper Peninsula communities also reported frigid weather, including Marquette with -11 degrees and Houghton with -15.

Ironwood recorded a reading of -32, and unofficial reports from nearby Wakefield indicated the mercury may have dropped to as low as 50 degrees below.

Outside of Michigan, the cold weather numbed most of the northern half of the nation today from Minnesota into Maine. Snow and gusty winds brought added discomfort in many areas.

★ ★ ★

Weather bureau officials said there appeared little indication of an immediate general break in the severe cold spell. Another mass of arctic air appeared headed into the northern Midwest.

COLDEST WEATHER

The coldest weather of the season hit many areas in the northeast, with temperatures dropping far below zero in northern sections of New England and in western and northern New York State.

★ ★ ★

The mercury dropped to record low and seasonal marks in many parts of the midwest yesterday, including a bone-chilling 42 below zero at Hibbing and International Falls, in northern Minnesota.

33 BELOW

It was 33 below today at Hibbing, in the iron range district, and -30 at International Falls, on the Canadian border.

★ ★ ★

In New York State, an unnofficial low reading of 30 below was reported and an official mark of 25 below chilled Franklinville, in the western part of the state. It was -24 in Line Lake and -22 in Massena, the same reading which was reported at Montpelier, Vt.

Rights Drive Set in Alabama

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. told cheering Negroes last night that next week marks the beginning of massive testing of public accommodations here and a voter registration drive which will touch "the conscience of the nation."

King's remarks at a rally set the stage for the first crucial test for this city's new administration, which has been striving to erase the image of Selma as a symbol of racial strife.

The Nobel Peace Prize winner said that the testing and registration drive would begin Monday, when "we are going to say to Selma in no uncertain terms that we are through with segregation now and forever more."

Speaking in this east-central Alabama city for the second time in less than two weeks, King outlined a three-point program which he said includes:

- A massive challenge of voter registration policies when the Dallas County Registration Board meets again Monday.
- Applications for city jobs "like being policemen and other things like white people do."
- Attempts to get service in "every restaurant, every theater, every hotel, and every motel in Selma."

Pearson Due at LBJ Ranch

Leaders May Sign Pact on Auto Tariffs

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, working and relaxing at his Texas ranch, awaited the arrival late today of Canada's Prime Minister Lester Pearson to put finishing touches on a pact to wipe out U.S.-Canadian auto tariffs.

Johnson and his visitor may be able to sign the agreement before Pearson leaves sometime Saturday.

However, the U.S. Congress would have to pass special legislation before the agreement could be fully effective.

The pact, subject of months of negotiations, would abolish both countries' tariffs on new autos and new auto parts shipped across their common border.

★ ★ ★

Johnson, who flew to the ranch with his wife last night for a three-day stay, expected to have relaxed, informal talks with Pearson. Most work on their major item of business — the tariff agreement — was done in advance of the meeting.

New OU Building Named for Founder

Oakland University's $2.5-million classroom-office building, on which work will soon begin, has been named the Matilda R. Wilson Hall, in honor of the institution's founder.

Plans for the structure have been completed by the architectural firm O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach of Birmingham. Bids will be let in February, and it is hoped the building will be ready for use early in 1966, according to Chancellor D. B. Varner.

To be located north of North Foundation Hall and the main entrance drive, Wilson Hall will provide classrooms and offices for the division of social science and some of the humanities departments.

It will also house certain administrative offices, including admissions, registrar, placement and dean of students.

Attached to the main structure by a covered canopy will be a hexagonal unit housing a large lecture hall and new university art gallery. The lecture hall will seat more than 60 persons for lectures and music presentations.

★ ★ ★

According to Varner, the building has been designed to provide large lecture halls as well as small classrooms, enabling the university to utilize its total space more effectively.

CONTOURS OF LAND

Designed to conform to the contours of the land, the brick and precast concrete structure will have entrances at two levels. A covered canopy will extend to the main campus road to connect with North Foundation Hall.

When the building is complete, the language laboratory, now located in South Foundation Hall, will be moved to quarters double the present size to accommodate the growing demand for these facilities.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband, who died in 1962, gave their 1,400-acre Meadow Brook Farms Estate as a site for the OU campus and $2 million for its first two buildings.

★ ★ ★

Included in the gift was the 125-room Meadow Brook Hall, Sunset House and many service buildings.

LIFE TENURE

Mrs. Wilson retains life tenure of these residences, but has opened Meadow Brook Hall to a number of major Oakland University functions.

★ ★ ★

Wilson Hall, commemorating the generous gift, will be the second OU building constructed with state funds.

Of the present 12-building complex, only the science building, completed in 1962, has been built with funds provided by the Michigan Legislature.

Israeli Patrol, Jordanians Trade Shots

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI)— Israeli and Jordanian border forces exchanged fire today across the no-man's-land separating the two countries in the Abu Tor sector, a military spokesman announced.

No casualties were reported. An Israeli border patrol was said to have returned fire when it came under attack from two Jordanian positions.

The United Nations truce supervisory organization arranged a cease - fire. Israel protested the incident to the U.N.

Gen. David Elazar, chief of the Israeli northern command, warned last night that border tension was increasing and said 1965 might prove to be a decisive year in the Arab-Israeli confrontation.

"We must have our sovereign rights concerning waters," he said, referring to Arab projects to divert waters in Jordan River territories away from Israel.

California May Be Split in Half

State's Senators Fight Redistricting Ruling

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — The California State Senate, faced with a July 1 reapportionment deadline, looked today to Congress and to a possible split of the nation's most populous state for solutions.

The 40-member Senate, which represents some 18½ million people, currently is apportioned along geographical lines. The California Assembly is based on population.

The U.S. Supreme Court recently ordered that both houses of state legislatures be apportioned "one-man, one-vote," or by population.

A Los Angeles federal court later ruled in a taxpayer's suit that the state senate must be reapportioned and set the July 1 deadline.

The Senate agreed to abide by the decision, but first wanted to exhaust all avenues of escape.

Reapportionment would mean a shift of from 15 to 20 senators from northern California to the population centers in the south — mainly Los Angeles, San Diego, and Orange counties.

Yesterday, 25 senators—24 of them from the North—cosponsored measures to split California into two states. Seven counties would be in the southern state, 51 counties in the northern.

The action would need two-thirds approval of both legislative houses and an okay by voters in 1966, plus congressional approval.

Disarmament Unit Plea by LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson asked Congress today to extend the life of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency for four years to "assure the continuing leadership of the United States in the purposeful pursuit of peace."

Congressional approval of the recommendation, along with the President's request for $55 million for the agency's expenses over the next four years, appeared certain.

Johnson told Congress a determined effort to halt the spread of nuclear weapons over the world is essential to the security of the United States.

He made clear that nonproliferation is a foremost objective of his disarmament policy.

★ ★ ★

Despite the vast defensive power of this country, the President said in letters to the House and Senate, the effort to stop the spreading of nuclear weapons "is essential to our security, for a continued increase and spread of modern weapons can actually decrease our security."

ADEQUATE FUNDS

An accompanying letter by agency Director William C. Foster said the legislation will be required to keep the agency operating because the present authorization does not provide adequate funds beyond the end of the present fiscal year, June 30.

"Attempts directed toward arms control and other measures to lessen the threat of war are no longer Utopian dreams," Foster said.

He added: "The work of the Arms Control and Disarmament Agency has become an integral part of our over-all national security policy.

"Armaments alone can no longer increase security; the unchecked increase of these weapons of mass destruction can only diminish our safety in the hope for peace."

4 YEARS AGO

Johnson noted that four years ago the United States became the first nation in the world to establish such an agency.

He said it had a good record of achievement, citing the conclusion in 1963 of the limited nuclear test-ban treaty by the United States, Soviet Union and Britain.

The treaty, which bans all but underground tests, now has been signed by a total of 107 nations. France and Red China have not signed. They are the only nations in addition to the United States, Soviet Union and Britain who have nuclear weapons or are building them.

Furthermore, Johnson said, the United States has established a direct communications link between Washington and Moscow — popularly known as the Hot Line — has joined in a U.N. resolution against introducing weapons in outer space, and has "initiated cutbacks in the planned production of fissionable material."

GENEVA CONFERENCE

In addition, the President said, the United States has put before the Geneva disarmament conference —now temporarily in recess — "a number of important, concrete proposals for the control and reduction of armaments on which agreement has not yet been achieved."

Death Silences Voice of Famous Movie Songbird

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gene Raymond makes a mournful journey to Hollywood today with the body of his wife, Jeanette MacDonald, lovely songbird of a lilting era in American movies who died of a heart ailment in Houston yesterday. She was 57.

Her death brought an end to a brilliant stage and film career and to her 27-year marriage — a childless one. Her last words to Raymond came in a Houston hospital, where she had been flown Tuesday to undergo heart surgery.

"I love you," she whispered. "I love you, too," he replied.

She died a few minutes later.

Jenkins Is Told Subpoena Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Rules Committee has notified Walter Jenkins that he will be subpoenaed to testify in its Bobby Baker investigation.

President Johnson's former top assistant got the word by telephone from the committee's special counsel, L. P. McLendon, who said Thursday no decision had been reached on whether Jenkins would be heard in secret or in open hearing later this month.

★ ★ ★

But Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, one of the three Republicans on the committee, said later Jenkins would have to be heard in public eventually.

Last October, Jenkins' resignation as a White House assistant was requested by Johnson and accepted after it became known that Jenkins had been arrested twice on morals charges.

The rules committee plans to resume its questioning of witnesses in the Baker case in about 10 days. Baker, a former secretary to the Senate Democrats, became a millionaire while on the government payroll. The committee has been poking into his affairs for any evidence that he used his job to promote his private business ventures.

More than a year ago, Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance agent, swore that in 1957 Jenkins pressured him into buying $1,208 worth of advertising time on an Austin, Tex., television station controlled by Johnson's family. Reynolds said this was after he had sold Johnson the first of two $100,000 life insurance policies.

★ ★ ★

At the time, Johnson was the Senate Democratic leader, Baker was the secretary to the Senate Democrats and Jenkins was Johnson's top assistant. When Johnson became president, Jenkins moved into the White House as a presidential assistant.

In a sworn statement to staff investigators of the rules committee, Jenkins denied "any knowledge of any arrangements by which Reynolds purchased advertising time on the television station."

VOTED DOWN

The committee's Republican members demanded that Jenkins be called for questioning, but they were voted down by the Democratic majority. Despite GOP cries of whitewash, the Democrats refused to budge until last month when Chairman B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., announced the committee had unanimously agreed to subpoena Jenkins "at an appropriate time."

Cooper said that because of the long delay in calling Jenkins as a witness, he ought to be heard in open session. "It will have to be that way," he said.

Sens. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska and Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, the other two GOP members of the committee, were not available, but Cooper said they plan to meet soon to draw up a list of additional witnesses they want called.

Since resigning his White House post, Jenkins has been under medical and psychiatric care.

First 'Goldbrickers'

The custom of referring to a soldier who tries to avoid unpleasant duty as a "goldbrick," started with the former legal practice of soldiers being able to buy off their enlistments by hiring a substitute. This practice was in effect as late as the War Between the States.

SANDBAG PROTECTION — An increased force of U.S. Air Force jets sent to Viet Nam are protected by a barricade of sandbags today. The sandbags are part of the protection against mortar attack by Viet Cong guerrillas.

U.S. Air, Naval Cover Claimed

Report S. Viets Raid Targets in North

SAIGON (UPI) — Units of the South Vietnamese Air Force and Navy have been attacking military targets in Communist North Viet Nam, reliable sources said today. The raids are reported to have been made with American air and naval cover.

Military informants said the strikes thus far have been carried out by propeller-driven fighter-bombers and PT boats. These were described as "quick" raids which could be expanded at any time.

It was disclosed that the actions have been coordinated with the U.S. Air Force and the U.S. 7th Fleet.

Some military observers said the attacks may be intended more to demonstrate firm American intentions to frustrate a Communist takeover in South Viet Nam than to cut the maze of supply routes feeding the Viet Cong guerrillas.

★ ★ ★

Communist North Viet Nam has made repeated charges that U.S.-supported South Vietnamese commandoes have attacked targets in North Viet Nam.

The Hanoi has claimed to have captured several members of such raiding parties.

The Communists charged in December that South Vietnamese naval units shelled the island of Con Co off the North Vietnamese shore.

On Aug. 5, carrier based U.S. Navy planes attacked north Vietnamese PT boat bases in a retaliatory raid ordered by President Johnson. Those attacks followed Communist PT boat raids against American warships in the Gulf of Tonkin.

★ ★ ★

The attacks reported today followed disclosure that U.S. Air Force fighter-bombers destroyed several bridges on a main Communist supply route in Laos yesterday. The raid was described as the largest yet launched.

THREE KILLED

In an apparently unrelated incident today, two Americans and a Vietnamese were killed when a U.S. Army helicopter hit a power line and crashed in flames northeast of Saigon.

The dead Americans were the pilot, an officer, and the gunner, an enlisted man.

The officer copilot and the enlisted man crew chief were injured. The copilot was seriously hurt.

★ ★ ★

The crash occurred three miles south of Bien Hoa, site of a big U.S. air base in the fringes of Communist territory.

CHECK ON COMMUNISTS

Several flights of U.S. Air Force RF100 VooDoo reconnaissance jet planes were reported to have taken off from Saigon Airport today to check on Communist troop and supply movements to the north.

Reports from Washington said 18 to 24 supersonic jets took part in yesterday's strikes in Laos—by far the largest such combat mission ever launched.

Observers said the attack, in which two of the jets were shot down, was part of a continuing demonstration of American air power in Southeast Asia.

★ ★ ★

Qualified military sources here said air strikes against installations inside North Viet Nam may become the next targets of the heavily armed American jet-striking force based in South Viet Nam.

U.S. COVER

It was reported that these strikes against North Viet Nam may be made under the guise of U.S. air cover for South Vietnamese fighter-bombers retaliating against guerrilla attacks in South Viet Nam.

Sources said the covering American planes would fire against North Vietnamese ground positions only when fired upon.

In the war on the ground, U.S.-supported South Vietnamese troops launched another operation to search out and destroy Communist guerrillas in the Mekong River Delta.

The latest operation was being carried out by the Vietnamese Army's 21st division in Chuong Thien Province, more than 100 miles southwest of Saigon.

REDS FLUSHED OUT

An American military spokesman said a Communist company was flushed out of the area yesterday. Fifteen Viet Cong were reported killed in the action. Fourteen other guerrillas were captured and 18 suspected rebels detained.

The report said the government forces destroyed two sampans and seized 11 weapons.

On the political front, Prime Minister Tran Van Huong continued consultations with political-religious groups in an attempt to form a more representative government.

Huong met with religious leaders from sects active in the southern part of the country — including the powerful Hoa Hao which maintained its own army in the last days of French colonial rule.

STRONG 10 YEARS AGO

The Hoa Hao were strong enough 10 years ago to challenge the government of Ngo Dinh Diem, then premier, later president and still later overthrown and assassinated in a military coup.

Diem crushed the sect's private army, but the religion is now emerging with new influence.

Charge U.S. to Arm Viet-Bound Koreans

PANMUNJOM, South Korea (UPI) — Communist North Korea charged today the United States plans to arm a South Korean expeditionary force for dispatch to South Viet Nam.

The charge was made by Maj. Gen. Pak Joong Kook, North Korean representative to the joint military commission which supervises the 1953 Korean truce. He spoke at the commission's 198th meeting in this truce village.

The North Korean general said he based the accusation on a report distributed by South Korea's Haptong news agency in Seoul.

The agency reported that the United States has promised to deliver 27 radar-equipped patrol ships to Korea and reinforce the South Korean army for movement of troops to South Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

South Korean President Park Chung Hee announced plans for the expeditionary force several days ago, but its departure date has not been disclosed, pending approval by the national assembly.

FLAGRANT VILATION

Pak said U.S. arms for such a force would constitute "a flagrant violation" of the Korean truce. He demanded removal of all weapons delivered to South Korea since the armistice was signed.

Pak said the South Vietnamese force was discussed in Washington on Jan. 6 by South Korean defense officials and a Gen. Wood.

The North Korean charge backed up Communist Chinese threats last Tuesday that Peking would come to the aid of North Viet Nam if the United States expanded the anti-Communist war in South Viet Nam.

★ ★ ★

Communist China said the United States was trying to drag allies into the war in violation of the 1954 Geneva Conference on Indochina.

ANSWERS CHARGES

U.S. Rear Adm. Paul P. Blackburn, the United Nations delegate to the armistice commission, replied to Pak's charges today by saying:

"Whatever you do or say, it will not make us remove the weapons."

Blackburn said the United States found it necessary to bring new arms into South Korea to maintain the balance of power after the Reds introduced new-type fighter planes.

Death Stills Famed Film Songstress

Bakey, who recently performed abdominal surgery on the Duke of Windsor. In December, she had an operation for abdominal adhesions at UCLA Medical Center.

She arrived in Houston by commercial airliner Tuesday and was rushed to Methodist Hospital by ambulance.

Because of her weakened condition, open-heart surgery was postponed, a Hollywood spokesman said. She was being fed intravenously when she died.

Nelson Eddy, Miss MacDonald's partner in a series of melodic films from "Naughty Marietta" (1935) to "I Married an Angel" (1942), said he was "shocked and deeply distressed" to learn of her death.

SCOTCHED RUMOR

Eddy once scotched the rumor that the Eddy-MacDonald team was as chilly in real life as another musical partnership, Gilbert and Sullivan.

"There never was a feud," he declared.

Miss MacDonald's career also paired with other top stars — Clark Gable in "San Francisco," Maurice Chevalier in "Love Me Tonight," and "The Merry Widow," Allan Jones in "The Firefly" and Lew Ayres in "Broadway Serenade."

She was born in Philadelphia. She began singing and dancing at an early age, and first found success as a dancer. While appearing in Broadway revues she continued vocal lessons and reached stardom as a singer.

MUSICAL TALENT

When sound came in, movie studios were seeking musical talent, and Miss MacDonald was signed by Paramount for an early talkie opposite Chevalier in "The Love Parade."

Probe Mystery of Princess

Find Remains of Child Five Centuries Old

LONDON (AP) — Close by Princess Margaret's home, a team of scientists delved today into the mysteries of another princess who died a child bride five centuries ago.

An excavator on an East End building site unearthed a small lead coffin last month. Now it has been identified as that of Anne, Duchess of York, who on Jan. 15, 1477, was married to Richard, one of the murdered "princes in the tower." She died four years later at the age of 8 years, 11 months.

★ ★ ★

Henry Cooper, operating the excavator, found the coffin in a sealed vault 11 feet below ground. It lay within the boundaries of a vanished medieval abbey.

At first archaeologists thought it was another Roman burial, one of hundreds turned up since London started digging deeper to build higher.

DECIPHER INSCRIPTION

Then a Latin inscription on the coffin was deciphered and gave the identification. The little princess was taken to the London Museum, which is part of Kensington Palace, where Princess Margaret lives.

★ ★ ★

On opening the coffin a research team found a skull, covered with matted hair and other bones in fragments of a linen shroud.

★ ★ ★

Pathologists say it may even be possible to determine how Anne died. Child mortality at that time was high, so a natural death could be expected.

Gravlin Ruled Legally Insane

port to Judge Thorburn dwelt in part on Gravlin's troubled past. He had attempted suicides on several occasions, and once was committed to Pontiac State Hospital.

INFANTILE CHARACTER

Dr. Harry August of Huntington Woods described Gravlin as being "very infantile in character," though he also had "good intellect," according to the doctor.

August said Gravlin had "poor personality integration that breaks down under pressure."

The second psychiatric examination was a result of Gravlin's attempt to take his own life in jail recently by cutting his wrists.

★ ★ ★

Gravlin once tried to take his life while serving in the Navy, according to testimony.

CONDITION ALTERED

One psychiatrist, Dr. George Evseeff of Bloomfield Hills, served on the first panel that found Gravlin capable of aiding his defense. Dr. Evseeff said Gravlin's mental condition has changed since then.

The third of the group was Dr. Edward M. Wisniewski of Bloomfield Hills.

Dr. Wisniewski said that Gravlin "would rather go to Jackson where he would be considered normal, than to Ionia where people would think him insane."

★ ★ ★

Wisniewski quoted Gravlin as saying "In Jackson there is a semblance of normalcy. I won't be with a bunch of nuts."

RIGHTS PROTECTED

Attorney Edward Barrett, president of the Oakland County Bar Association, served on the sanity commission to see that Gravlin's legal rights were insured and was the only member whose opinion was that Gravlin could assist in his own defense.

Gravlin's court-appointed attorney Robert Rann of Royal Oak and Assistant Prosecutor William E. Lang questioned the witnesses.

Last week Gravlin attempted to have Rann dismissed as his attorney but was turned down by Thorburn.

On Tuesday, however, Rann received a letter from Gravlin asking that he continue as defense counsel.

★ ★ ★

Ironically, it was Gravlin's move to dismiss his attorney that brought his recently suicide attempt to light and resulted in the subsequent reexamination.

Court Postpones Trial in School Location Case

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The Oakland County Circuit Court case involving the site chosen for a new Bloomfield Hills high school has met another delay.

The trial scheduled to begin yesterday was postponed by Judge Frederick C. Ziem because of a crowded docket and a zoning question still pending before him.

Construction of the school on the west side of Lahser between Long Lake and Hickory Grove is being protested by a group of home owners led by Bloomfield Hills Mayor Louis J. Colombo Jr.

The group filed a suit in August claiming the school would have an adverse effect on the residential character of the neighborhood.

★ ★ ★

The narrow, tree-lined lane should not be assaulted by heavy construction equipment and, later, student traffic, they say.

BOARD RESTRAINED

While the case is in court, the school board is restrained by a temporary injunction from building on the site.

The 40-acre parcel owned by the school board was designated as the place where the district's second high school would be built after it was financed in a June bond issue election.

Cost of the structure is estimated at $2.3 million.

★ ★ ★

Schools Supt. Eugene Johnson said today that the board, which has approved preliminary blueprints for the building, will continue with its plans.

NO ALTERNATIVE

"It's going to hurt," he said, "but we see no other alternative but to see this through. We'll have to fight crowded conditions to the point where we won't be able to do some of the things we wanted to do."

School administrators and teachers have been working with Michigan State University consultants to draw up education specifications for the new building.

"If by any chance we are kept from using this site, we still will have a modern program of secondary education to incorporate someplace else," Johnson said.

★ ★ ★

The present high school, built to house 1,000 to 1,200 students, now is filled to capacity.

CROWDED CLASSES

There are more than 30 students in some of the classes.

"We like to keep down to 25 in college preparatory classes," Johnson said.

High school enrollment is expected to keep increasing at the rate of 150 a year.

"Right now it's saturated — from now on we start to crowd them in," Johnson said.

BREAK GROUND

School officials had planned to break ground March 1 for the second high school so the school could be opened by September, 1966.

Johnson noted that the legal battle also has delayed construction of the district's first public swimming pool, which is to be built with the new high school.

Omaha Hotel Blaze Takes Lives of Two

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Fire which suddenly engulfed a first-floor tap room took the lives of two persons and injured eight in a downtown Omaha hotel early today.

The smell of smoke and an alert night clerk probably prevented more casualties.

Ed Ivey, 50, the night clerk in the Eagle Hotel at 14th and Harney on the eastern edge of the Omaha business district smelled smoke about 4 a.m. He alerted the 50 guests of the 68-room hotel who fled into 15-degree cold.

'HI BROTHER'—'HI SIS'—Margaret Fisher, 22, of Troy, N. Y., holds the hand of her brother, Angelo DiStefano, 19, of Courtland, N. Y., after being separated 19 years. The two were parted when both were adopted.

Parted at Adoption Home

Kin United After 19 Years

CORTLAND, N.Y. (AP) — "It's like a fairy tale," a 19-year-old, who discovered his sister, and a 22-year-old, who suddenly found a brother, chimed after meeting each other.

"I was an only child and now I have a brother," Miss Margaret Fisher, a Troy nurse, told a reporter Thursday night after a high school term paper led Angelo DiStefano of Cortland, the brother she had never known, to her.

★ ★ ★

The pair were separated when Margaret was three and Angelo was an infant. Angelo was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Anthony DiStefano.

"The people who adopted my brother were supposed to adopt me too, but when they went to do so they found I'd already been adopted," Margaret, the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher of Gloversville, said.

Angelo started his search for his sister three years ago. He was writing a high school term paper on adoptions when Mrs. DiStefano told him he had a sister.

Through the adoption papers used for his research, Angelo discovered the name of the social worker, Miss Mamie Rayburn, who had handled his case.

★ ★ ★

Monday the long search ended. Miss Rayburn sent Margaret a letter telling her of her brother.

"I didn't believe her," the attractive brunette said. "I called her up and talked to her. Then I talked to my brother. We talked for about three hours."

PAYING VISIT

Now she is visiting with Angelo, who is employed by a typewriter manufacturer here, and his family. She plans to be maid of honor in her brother's wedding this September.

Schoolwork Is Child's Responsibility

By LESLIE J. NASON, Ed. D.

Dear Dr. Nason: How can I get my 12-year-old son to become more serious about his schoolwork? He has had asthma since the age of two. However, he now seems to be growing out of it. His teachers feel he works below his ability primarily because he needs a more serious feeling toward his work.

DR. NASON

Mrs. J.E.A.,
Newport News, Va.

Your son is following the pattern of children who have, because of illness, been given too much help. He should be required to produce his homework on his own. Make clear to him that it is his responsibility.

You may give him a few hints on how to do the work, but don't look up words in the dictionary for him or constantly answer questions as to how words are spelled, etc.

It may take a year to get him entirely on his own but it is worth the struggle. Be firm even though it may mean greater failure for him in the beginning!

Dear Dr. Nason: Our son has completed his sophomore year at college. His cumulative average was 1.85. He needed 2.00 to remain in school. How should I go about getting him back into school or find some other college that will accept him with this average

Mrs. C. J.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

This is your son's problem — not yours!

The first thing your son must do is to learn something more about learning. The procedures and habits he followed for two years obviously were inadequate.

With plans in mind for the improvement of his scholarship, he should take extension work from the university or enroll in a junior college or a city college.

Unless he can demonstrate that he has remedied his defects as a student, neither he nor the college would benefit by his return.

Dear Dr. Nason: My nephew lives on the Gulf Coast and is interested in majoring in Marine biology when he enrolls in college next year. Will you please evaluate this science for me and advise if it provides worthwhile career opportunities Would it be better for him to take a basic biology major in college and marine biology in graduate school for a Master's degree.

M.J.G., Media, Pa.

Marine biology, although a recent specialty, is gaining in importance by leaps and bounds. The sea is one of man's last frontiers. There are increasing career opportunities in the field.

Your nephew should be guided by the college counselor. To carry out a major in marine biology, the boy must necessarily follow the pattern of studies set up by the college in which he enrolls.

(You can write to Prof. Nason in care of The Pontiac Press. Questions of widest interest will be answered in this column.)

In a recent International Match Point match at the Valley View Studio in Dallas, Tex., it took one North-South pair five rounds of bidding to reach a very good six diamond contract. South won the first spade in dummy, led a trump to his ace and a second trump back to dummy's king.

JACOBY

At this point, there was no play left for the contract, but South gave it the old college try. He led the queen of clubs from dummy and if East had covered with the king, South would have been able to finesse against West's ten and get rid of his losing spade, but East held up his king. If South had known about the 4-1 diamond break before he led trumps, he could have made the hand by attacking clubs at trick two, but South made the normal play by assuming diamonds would split 3-2.

The six-diamond contract had been eminently correct, since all it depended on was a reasonable trump break, but to add insult to injury, the opposing North-South pair reached the inferior contract of six hearts and made it.

At that table, South won the first spade in dummy and promptly led the queen of clubs. There was no way to make the heart slam if the club finesse was going to lose.

The queen of clubs was allowed to hold, whereupon South drew trumps and cashed his ace of clubs. Then he played the ace of diamonds and a second diamond to dummy's queen.

His next play was the nine of clubs. East had to play his king, whereupon South returned to dummy with the king of diamonds and discarded one of his two losers on the jack of clubs.
