UF Is Nearing 30 Per Cent Mark in Drive

Campaign Chairman Emphasizes the Need for Citizen Support

After one week in full swing, the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign has reached the 29.4 per cent mark in its drive toward a goal of $815,500, UF officials announced today.

Bruce J. Annett, 1964 general campaign chairman, said overall receipts to date total $240,325.

Along with the announcement, Annett emphasized the need for citizens to get behind the drive which supports 55 health, family, youth and research agencies serving the six township areas included in the drive.

The industrial division received a boost late last week with the General Motors corporate gift of $150,000 bringing industrial totals to 27.5 per cent of the $546,500 goal of this campaign division, according to Charles F. Brown, UF industrial chairman.

★ ★ ★

The commercial division heads the list for early returns.

Jack Brannack, chairman, reported $77,930.00 or 39 per cent of this division's $223,642 quota reached. Within the commercial division, chapter plan teams, consisting of firms of 10 or more employes, have reached 42 per cent of their quota.

Of these, Brannack cited Pontiac Retail Store employes' gift which was up 5½ per cent.

The women's group, under Mrs. Merrill Petrie, reported $6,990 during the first of four telephone report dates set during their 10-day residential drive.

★ ★ ★

The women hope to meet their quota of $31,698 by Oct. 23. Mrs. Petrie reports 1,500 volunteers have been recruited in this year's residential canvass in Pontiac, Waterford, Independence, and Orion townships.

INSIGNIFICANT RETURNS

Advance gifts and other campaign units have not had significant returns thus far. Report sessions for these groups will be held later in the week, Annett stated.

★ ★ ★

The drive, which began Oct. 13, is scheduled to end Nov. 6.

Body to Lie in State in NY

Death Takes Herbert Hoover at Age 90

Barry Asks About Jenkins; LBJ Schedules More Trips

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater wages his presidential campaign on three fronts today after asking for an FBI report on "possible security factors" involved in the case of resigned White House aide Walter W. Jenkins.

The Republican presidential nominee planned to spend the day recording a television speech dealing with foreign policy and developments in the Communist world.

He hits the road again tonight for an address at Pikesville, Md. I'e canceled a speech in Baltimore and postponed until Oct. 26 another at Salisbury to prepare the television show.

He is due to appear on nationwide television for a half-hour tonight to talk about morality in government.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, President Johnson is reported scheduling a series of home-stretch campaign trips.

WILL APPEAR

Subject to the priorities of the presidential job, he is understood to have told his campaign lieutenants he will attempt to make personal appearances in all areas where they believe such campaigning will boost his vote total.

★ ★ ★

The president's obvious aim is not only to defeat Goldwater but to rout his Republican opponent.

This involves direct attacks on Goldwater's position in areas where the GOP strategists believe their candidate is strongest.

★ ★ ★

After a meeting tomorrow with his special advisory committee on foreign policy, Johnson is expected to take off again for Ohio. Goldwater has listed the Buckeye state as one he must carry if he is to win.

HIGHLY TENTATIVE

All of the President's schedules remain highly tentative. He is reported committed to visit New York, California and Michigan before the Nov. 3 voting.

★ ★ ★

In Michigan, the Democrats are worried that a lengthy strike of Detroit newspapers may hamper their local candidates and Johnson's chances of carrying that state with its 21 electoral votes.

Goldwater dealt openly with the Jenkins matter for the first time in a letter yesterday to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

U.S. Keeps Eye on Russia for Signs of Further Shifts

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials are watching for possible further upheaval in the Soviet Union's leadership as they consider what steps the United States should take in the coming weeks to deal with changed international conditions.

President Johnson, who conferred with congressional leaders for 2½ hours yesterday, has called a meeting of his special advisory committee on foreign policy tomorrow.

This group of prominent private citizens will be given detailed reports on world developments and asked to consider various possible actions.

Johnson told newsmen that he had met with the congressional leaders, Democrats and Republicans, but gave no details of the information presented to them.

It is understood that administration officials told the legislative leaders they are not sure what issues, domestic or international, led to the overthrow of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The briefing is also understood to have brought out that while Leonid I. Brezhnev, 57, seems to be the top man in the Soviet ruling group, the actual post-Khrushchev power structure is not yet clear and the possibility of further changes, possibly involving a power struggle in the Kremlin, must be borne in mind.

'No State Need for Income Tax'

Romney and Staebler on Campaign Trails

By The Associated Press

Gov. George Romney says Michigan has "no immediate need" for a state income tax.

Romney's Democratic gubernatorial rival, Neil Staebler, declares Michigan's mental health program is going at a "snail's pace."

Those were among observations by the two yesterday as they began the final fortnight of campaigning before the Nov. 3 election.

Romney talked about taxes at a news conference in Kalamazoo in which he said he could "see no immediate need' to recommend an income tax.

★ ★ ★

He said Michigan still needs fiscal alterations though part of this had been secured this year and that recommendations from a legislative committee are expected to suggest diversion of possible funds to local governments.

TAX REFORM

Romney's comment was in response to a question whether he would propose tax reform in 1965 if he were elected to a second term as governor. The legislature ditched his 1963 tax reform program.

Staebler assailed Romney's mental health policies in an appearance at Benton Harbor where he spoke to Whirlpool Corp. employes.

He said Romney has caused delay in mental health efforts by impeding organization of community health clinics which he called the best method for handling mental illness.

The Republican governor, he said, has increased the local financial support necessary to get such clinics started.

MORE EMPHASIS

Staebler also pledged a stepped-up traffic safety program with more emphasis on secondary roads and tighter licensing restrictions. He supported compulsory automobile inspection.

Of taxes, Romney called (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

Commissioners to Act Tonight on Income Tax

Public Hearing Set Before Officials Vote on City Ordinance

Action on a Pontiac city income tax is slated for tonight by the City Commission.

The tax ordinance, similar to that of other Michigan cities, was introduced last week.

A public hearing will precede commission action on the ordinance, which must be passed before Nov. 1 to become effective by 1965.

The ordinance proposes a one per cent tax on the income of Pontiac residents and corporations and a half per cent levy on the income of nonresidents working in the city.

Residents working in another city which already has an income tax would pay the nonresident rate.

EFFECTIVE JAN. 1

Should the City Commission approve the tax ordinance, it would go into effect Jan. 1 unless electors petition for a referendum on the question.

City residents have until Dec. 15 to request a vote. Petitions must be signed by 10 per cent of the total vote in the immediate past municipal election.

This would mean 1,433 signatures, according to figures from the city clerk's office.

Commenting on the commission's proposal last week, Mayor William H. Taylor Jr., cited the city's financial plight and said

Johnson, Barry Lead Tributes to Ex-President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson and Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater led Americans of all political creeds in tributes to Herbert Hoover today as a patriot and humanitarian.

Johnson said Hoover's "unquenchable sense of public responsibility for both our nation and a troubled world stands as an example that will endure.

"Mrs. Johnson and I want to extend our deep personal sympathy to Herbert Hoover's sons and other members of his family," the President said.

"We have lost a wise American, and the world has lost a humanitarian citizen of all mankind. His steadfast leadership served us undaunted through good times and bad — as businessman, provider for the poor and hungry, president and elder statesman."

Goldwater said Hoover's death was a profound loss to the American people and to the cause of individual freedom and dignity throughout the world.

★ ★ ★

PUBLIC FIGURE

"Mr. Hoover was one of the most imminent American public figures of his time," Stevenson said.

"And his life was marked by broad interests and many constructive contributions."

"I share the universal sadness over his death," he added.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said Hoover's death will "be mourned throughout the world for his concern for his fellow man was an inspiration for all human conduct."

End Comes Quietly for 31st U.S. President

Life Spanned Career of Engineering and Government Service

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Herbert Clark Hoover died at the age of 90 in his New York apartment today after a lengthy illness.

Hoover's condition took a turn for the worse Saturday when he was stricken with a sudden and massive internal hemorrhage from the upper gastro intestinal tract.

His two sons, Herbert Jr. and Allan Henry, were with him in his 31st floor suite in the Waldorf Towers when he died.

The body of the 31st president will lie in state for two days in St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church on Park Avenue. Then, after memorial service, it will be taken by train to Washington for a service in the Rotunda of the National Capitol.

★ ★ ★

Burial will be in a national park at the site of a small cottage where he was born in West Branch, Iowa, in 1874.

SAME CHURCH

The St. Bartholomew service will be similar to that conducted for his wife, Lou Henry, 20 years ago in the same church. She died at the age of 70.

Those close to Hoover said he was stoic through his illness, never complaining of pain.

Only one other former president, John Adams, lived longer. Adams, the nation's second chief executive, was 90 years and 8 months old when he died; Hoover 90 years and 2 months.

★ ★ ★

The announcement of Hoover's death was written on Waldorf-Astoria Hotel stationery by his personal physician, Dr. Michael J. Lepori. It said:

"President Hoover died Oct. 20, 1964, time 11:35 a.m."

Ike Takes Look at Recent World Events

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Major changes that raise big questions for the West have burst upon the Communist world. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, in this exclusive AP interview, gives his views on the developments.)

By RELMAN MORIN and MARVIN ARROWSMITH

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says "I am not one of those who feels too good about Khrushchev being removed."

With the momentous change in the Soviet government, he added: "The Russians can go either way. They can move closer to us or closer to Red China."

Eisenhower discussed last week's developments in the Soviet Union and Red China in an interview with the Associated Press" in his Gettysburg office.

He emphasized that he has had no briefings from official quarters, and repeated several times, "We are just speculating."

★ ★ ★

He spoke rapidly, in the manner of a man who has been thinking a good deal about the topics under discussion.

SEVERAL YEARS

The former president said he believed it would take the Chinese Reds several years before they become a formidable nuclear power.

Answering a question, he said: "I would think it would take five years to be a really significant thing, because one of the big things they have to work on is a means of delivery. And as for a means of delivery, they haven't any plane bigger than a fighter or a light bomber.

The only place they can reach with that would be their old friends, the Russians. India would be the only other place I can see where they would be any good. And even there you couldn't use much of a fighter plane.

"No, I think that until they get any real nuclear capability, they might build defensive weapons."

POTENTIAL TROUBLE

However, Eisenhower said, he could envision potential trouble if or when Peking begins to develop a sizable nuclear capacity.

"As it begins to develop, the tension begins to mount, because now you have a country that very definitely said it was going to take over Formosa, site of the Nationalist Chinese government and they will be delighted to do it by war," Eisenhower said.

That was one of the big troubles between Khrushchev and themselves. He says, "You can't do this by war.' But I tell you, if that situation develops, then I think Russia would be a little more scared than we."

★ ★ ★

Asked whether he thought there might have been any connection between the atomic explosion in Red China and the removal of Nikita S. Khrushchev as head of the Soviet government, Eisenhower replied:

"I wouldn't think that would be. You see, the reason is that they must have engineered a in humanitarian work and in writing.

"Work" was his rule. He called it "the best antidote to ills and pills." He worked almost to the end.

* * *

Repeatedly, during his latter years, he had fought off serious ailments.

BIRTHDAY MESSAGE

Hoover said in a birthday message on Aug. 10 that "the key to America's abundance was its freedom.

"Freedom is the open window through which pours the sunlight of the human spirit and of human dignity," he said.

As president when the Depression hit the nation in 1929, Hoover endured mueh abuse, but he lived to regain wide affection and esteem as a wise, humane elder statesman.

* * *

He was sought out for counsel by Democratic officeholders, as well as Republicans. Countless friends and admirers came to love him as a man of immense sympathies and gentle wit.

LEISURELY TALKS

Even his grave illnesses of recent times did not stop him from leisurely conversations with callers, and from keeping two secretaries at work with his writing.

Until lately, it had taken eight of them to keep up with his output. But waning health slowed him down.

He underwent surgery for an abdominal cancer in August 1962; made an astonishing comeback from anemia brought on by intestinal bleeding in June 1963 and recovered from a kidney hemorrhage complicated by a respiratory infection in February 1964.

Asked how he felt on his 90th birthday, he said, "Too old."

NOT AT CONFAB

He didn't make it to the 1964 Republican convention in San Francisco, although he had attended every other one since 1928. But "the Grand Old Man of the Grand Old Party" sent a farewell message, noting he had offered his last word before, but "This is really it."

In that message, he said "Peace of the world is the first obligation of statesmen and government" and that the "major world issue today is whether government shall be the servant or master of men."

Hoover's image was that of "American individualism" and of unswerving devotion to country.

* * *

His range of public service included direction of massive relief operations in World War I, food administration at home, secretary of commerce and then the presidency, from 1929 to 1933.

LATER YEARS

In later years, he made worldwide food surveys for the government, was chairman of the nonpartisan Hoover Commission studying executive branch operations, and carried on various other tasks.

One of his last excursions out of his apartment was in May 1963, when he spurned his doctor's advice against it, and spoke at a reception honoring astronaut Maj. L. Gordon Cooper Jr.

Hoover equated the early space flights with the bold expeditions of great explorers such as Lewis and Clark, Lindbergh and Byrd.

"Each of these men had added spirit and character to our country. There could be no greater tribute than this to any man and no greater service to our people."

* * *

The late President John F Kennedy paid Hoover a brief visit at the time.

KNEW POVERTY

The son of a small town blacksmith, Hoover was orphaned at the age of 10, and knew poverty.

But he worked his way through Stanford University to become a top-flight mining engineer and a wealthy man at 28.

Then he turned to public affairs.

When he visited his birthplace at West Branch, Iowa, on his 88th birthday in 1962, a crowd of 25,000 hailed him.

"One of America's great men," former President Harry S. Truman called him.

City Retirement Proposal Will Face Voters in April

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal to increase the city's contribution to the municipal employes retirement fund will be decided by voters in the city election next April.

* * *

The City Commission last night approved a recommendation of the retirement board to place on the ballot a new formula by which annual benefits will be computed.

The cost of implementing the amendment to the City Charter has been estimated at 25.5 cents for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

According to Russell T. Berger, secretary of the retirement system, this would be reduced to 21 cents over the next five years because of the city's increased over-all assessed valuation.

* * *

The tax increase would provide an additional $20,000 to the city's present contribution of $80,451, Berger said.

COMPUTING FACTOR

To provide more adequate benefits for city employes, the proposed new formula increases by two-tenths of one per cent the computing factor upon retirement, from 1.0 to 1.2 per cent for general city employes and from 1.5 to 1.7 per cent for fire and police.

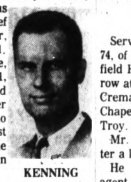
"Based on average annual salary of $7,000 the increased benefit would be about $420, said Berger.

Members of the police and fire department currently have 5 per cent of their earnings placed in the retirement fund while general employes pay 3 per cent of their first $4,200 and 5 per cent on anything over $4,200. The city matches all contributions.

* * *

Berger said that this is the first proposed increase in allowance since 1954.

Birmingham's assistant city manager Robert S. Kenning last night was named by the City Commission as the city's chief administrator, effective Jan. 1.



KENNING

At that time, Kenning, 41, will succeed City Manager L. R. Gare, who announced last week that he would retire in three months.

Kenning, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, with a degree in civil engineering and business administration, joined the city in 1951 as assistant superintendent of the Department of Public Works.

Two years later he was named head of the department. In 1956 he assumed the duties of assistant city manager.

A resident of Berkley, Kenning is married and has three sons.

This year he served as Birmingham Michigan Week chairman and previously was responsible for the celebration's Government Day program.

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society for Personnel Administrators, National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Birmingham YMCA. He is a former president of the Birmingham Rotary Club.

Prior to joining Birmingham, Kenning was employed with the Bass Construction Co. of Troy as a job engineer on large construction projects dealing with sewer, water and power plants.

Stephen Ksycinski

Mr. Ksycinski died yesterday after a brief illness.

Surviving are his wife, Agnes; a daughter, Mrs. Sandra G. Murdock; a son, Gary, stationed with the U.S. Army in Houston, Tex.; a brother; and a grandson.

Mrs. Carl Metz

Private service for Mrs. Carl (A'Dra Sue) Metz, 63, of 1590 Tully Court, Bloomfield Township, was held this morning at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, Pontiac, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Metz died Thursday after a long illness.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Bloomfield Heights Garden Club and Pine Lake Country Club and was a past president of the Newcomers Club of Birmingham.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Robert F. of Brooklyn, N.Y. and Don P. of Milwaukee, Wis.; a sister; and a brother.

Memorial contributions can be made to a cancer fund or any other charity.

Louis J. Schneider

Service for Louis J. Schneider, 74, of 1430 Inwood Circle, Bloomfield Hills, will be 4 p.m. tomorrow at Christ Church Cranbrook. Cremation will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Schneider died Sunday after a long illness.

He was a manufacturer's agent to the automotive industry and a retired General Motors executive.

A member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Mr. Schneider also belonged to Orchard Lake Country Club, the Tuscarora Club of Lockport, N.Y., Tau Beta Phi fraternity and the Society of Automotive Engineers.

His body is at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham, but there will be no visitation.

Surviving are his wife, Geraldine, and two sons, L. James of Birmingham and Rev. Edward N. of Washington, D.C.

GM, UAW Vow to Settle

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union have pledged President Johnson they will strive for settlement as quickly as possible in a 26-day-old strike.

The President prodded both company and union Monday to try for speedy settlement, saying continuance of the strike "will jeopardize the continuous upward thrust of our economy."

More than 300,000 of GM's 360,000 production workers have been idled. The President said this is starting to have an impact on production and employment in other industries.

Another auto industry strike, against American Motors Corp., ended Monday three days after it began with agreement on a new contract covering AMC's automotive division. There were 24,000 involved here.

REACHED ACCORD

General Motors and the UAW reached accord on a new national contract Oct. 5, but at-the-plant working agreements which supplement it have been reached by only 79 of 130 UAW bargaining units in GM.

When a Sept. 25 strike deadline passed the union called out its members, except in GM plants selling parts and accessories to Ford and Chrysler which already had negotiated new national economic packages with the UAW.

Waterford Knocks Tax Proposal

Waterford Township Board members last night took formal action opposing the City of Pontiac's proposed income tax levy on nonresidents of the city.

* * *

The resolution opposing the tax levy, which passed unanimously, was offered by Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin who cited the great number of Waterford residents who work in Pontiac and would be affected.

"It appears that the Pontiac City Commission is attempting to shift the burden of running its municipality from the shoulders of those who benefit to those who do not, namely the nonresidents," Seeterlin said.

He added that the proposal to tax nonresidents is another example of taxation without representation.

"This concept has always been foreign to our American heritage of democracy," Seeterlin added.

The supervisor said that the city commission must be shown that the passage of the income tax on nonresidents will be more harmful than helpful to the city in the long run.

Seeterlin suggested methods of fighting the nonresident tax including court litigation, attempting to lure business and industry away from Pontiac and boycotting city located businesses.

the present tax system, based primarily on the property tax, was inadequate.

GAVE STATEMENT

Taylor issued a "Pontiac at the crossroads" statement saying, "We must decide whether our city will move forward or fall back into a second-rate community."

Implementation of an income tax, he added, would be accompanied by a reduction in the property tax rate. Estimates now put the property tax cut at about $3 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

If an election is called for on the income tax, state law stipulates that the commission must call for a vote between Feb. 1 and March 20, 1965, delaying the effective date of the tax until July 1.

In other business tomorrow night, bids on an urban renewal parcel will be considered, a contract for planning a master plan for city storm sewers will be up for approval as well as the sale of a city-owned lot in Perry Park subdivision.

Sheriff Warns Area Hunters: 'Use Caution'

With the opening of pheasant hunting season today, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department urged all area hunters to use caution as they take to the fields in search of game.

Specific warnings were issued regarding the careless use of firearms and against hunting in closed areas.

Hunters should stay away from residential areas where there is danger of stray shots hitting homes or play areas, officers said.

Nimrods should also be wary of their weapons, especially when hunting in groups.

Officers said it is illegal to damage buildings, signs, fence posts or similar objects along the woodland paths.

They also reminded hunters that the townships of Bloomfield, Avon, Farmington, Waterford and Southfield are completely closed to hunting and specific areas in other townships are either closed or posted.

Eisenhower Reviews Recent World Events

COINCIDENCE

"Knowing well of the development, this might have happened by coincidence right at the same time.

* * *

"But I don't think this particular explosion and this other thing were very closely connected."

The former president pointed out that considerations of the Soviet economy may have played a part in Khrushchev's dismissal.

* * *

He spoke of "the lack of consumer goods" and "the fact that they had to buy, and did buy, from the free world a lot of wheat, this may have had something to do with it."

POSSIBLE FACTORS

He indicated that he has been examining a number of possible factors in Khrushchev's expulsion and said:

"I know that he expected to stay. He constantly told me he would be there much longer after I was gone, and I would say, 'Yes, that is true.'

"There has to be some reason for throwing the man out. If we can determine the correct reason, then we would know how to cut our own cloth.

* * *

Expanding on his statement that he is "not one of those who feels too good" about Khrushchev's dismissal, Eisenhower said:

* * *

"Until I am persuaded by something that I can see that is concrete, and specific evidence that the situation has been improved, I will continue to think that. On the other hand, I can hope that it will be good, that is all."

NUCLEAR WAR

He said he does not believe the Kremlin wants a nuclear war.

"At the time they were building the H-bomb, which I believe was a result of espionage, they also were building great public works that could be destroyed by one bomb.

"So I have the conviction that they would not start a nuclear war. I don't believe they will start one even if we have serious difficulties with them," Eisenhower said.

* * *

President Johnson said in a televised statement Sunday, "The new Soviet government has officially informed me through Ambassador Dobrynin that it plans no change in basic foreign policy. I spoke frankly as always to the Soviet ambassador . . . I believe this was a good beginning on both sides."

FAINT SMILE

Musingly, and with a faint smile, Eisenhower said: "I would like to talk to Khrushchev now. I believe if he could get out of Russia, with his family, he would like to."

Eisenhower said he would like to talk over with the expremier some of the events that had arisen in the past—and once brought the two men into a violent confrontation.

That developed in Paris, May 18, 1960, when Khrushchev torpedoed the proposed summit conference.

* * *

He took the action after Francis Gary Powers, flying a U2 reconnaissance plane, was shot down over Soviet soil and the United States denied he was on a spy flight.

Khrushchev, at a massive, 2,000-man news conference referred to Eisenhower as "my fishy friend," and likened the president to a thief.

He also withdrew an invitation to Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower at that time referred to the "violence and inaccuracy" of Khrushchev's outburst.

* * *

But Eisenhower said in the interview:

"You know, he had streaks of frankness with me. He told me things and I asked the CIA to check on them and it turned out to be correct."

CHINA RECOGNITION

Turning to the question of the atomic explosion in Red China, Eisenhower was asked whether he thought this might necessitate a change with respect to American recognition of Peking.

He replied: "No, I would not think that. After all, this would be recognition under blackmail, or under threat."

With respect to bringing Red China into the United Nations, he said:

"Well, I would still say this—they have never given a satisfactory explanation of what they have done to our prisoners, nor released them. They have brainwashed them. We saw the effects of that. They have never yet purged themselves of the condemnation that is still standing against them as an aggressor in North Korea. They are still causing and formulating and giving the supplies to carry out the civil wars in Southeast Asian states.

"And to top it off, they are still saying they are going to take Formosa by force.

U.N. CHARTER

"Let's look at the charter of the United Nations.

"Do you take someone in who is a brigand, who has two pistols, one on each hip, ready to pull them out and shoot it out?

"There has to be some kind of a cleaning of their own record before I would consider it. That is the way I see it."

* * *

The United States, he said, "should be watchful and wary, and firm as to our own rights."

VIET NAM TRIP

In the interview, Eisenhower ruled out all questions pertaining to the presidential campaign or domestic policies.

However, he did comment on the statement by Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, that he might ask Eisenhower to go to South Viet Nam.

On Oct. 5, Goldwater said: "If elected, I intend to come to grips with this vital question (South Viet Nam) and at that time I want the very best and soundest advice available. I believe a group of experts, headed by Gen. Eisenhower, could provide that advice."

Goldwater called the former president "this country's foremost military man and foremost statesman."

Eisenhower last Wednesday celebrated his 74th birthday and he said it would be "quite a chore" to go to Southeast Asia.

He said he would be prepared to assist the administration in any way he could, but that he would want to talk it over first with persons in authority.

He said: "Mr. Kennedy asked me whether I would be ready to go on some chores."

His answer, he said, was that it would depend on his health and the adivce of his doctors.

IN GETTYSBURG

Eisenhower's office is in Gettysburg, several miles from his farm.

He gets in before 9 a.m. every day, works on speeches and on his next book about his second administration.

With the assistance of his staff, he handles an average of about 600 pieces of mail daily.

AF Clears 3 Fliers Downed Over E. Germany

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has cleared for further flying duty the three officers whose reconnaissance plane strayed over Communist East Germany last March and was shot down by a Soviet jet, it was disclosed today.

A flying evaluation board blamed the RB66's border crossing on failure of the plane's compass and recommended that the crewmen be "kept on flying status," the Air Force told the Associated Press.

★ ★ ★

Air Force headquarters approved the board's recommendations. A spokesman said that closes the case.

After the plane was downed on March 10, the Russians and East Germans charged that investigation of the wreckage "established beyond a doubt" that it was on a spy mission.

PLANE WANDERED

The United States said the plane had wandered into Communist air space by mistake. The Air Force Command ordered widening of an upper zone along the East-West boundary in Germany and Air Force planes flying in the area were directed to be under "positive radio control" at all times.

The board held that a major cause of the incident "was the failure of electronic navigational equipment on board the RB66 plane."

★ ★ ★

"The board found that weather conditions which obscured the ground to the crew contributed to the navigational error," the Air Force said.

Two members of the crew have been on ground assignments at the Toul-Rosieres Air Base in France pending the outcome of their cases. They are Capt. David L. Holland, pilot, from Holland, Minn. and Capt. Melvin J. Kessler, an instructor navigator from Philadelphia.

The third crewman, Lt. Harold W. Welch, navigator, of Detroit was badly hurt in the downing of the plane. The Air Force said he still is hospitalized at Chanute Air Force Base, Rantoul, Ill.

★ ★ ★

All three officers were held by the Russians in East Germany after they parachuted from their stricken plane. Welch was freed March 21, Holland and Kessler March 27.

On April 3, a board of inquiry reported that "a gross navigational error resulting from erroneous indications" from an electrically driven compass led the plane's crew to believe they were on the correct course when they were not.

However, the inquiry board reported that additional factors "appeared to be lack of complete crew coordination and failure to cross-check the plane's position by other navigational means available," the Air Force said at the time.

★

The Air Force then convened a flying evaluation board of officers to study the case. It said such a board is set up "for the purpose of developing and considering evidence as to the qualifications of aircrew personnel to be retained on flying duty."

GOP's Miller Sees Inflation Under LBJ

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Businessmen backing President Johnson may dine at the White House if Johnson is elected but the main course would be crow, says Rep. William E. Miller.

The Republican vice presidential nominee said Monday night that those who expect continued business prosperity under the Johnson administration would be sadly disillusioned.

★ ★ ★

In an attack on the President's spending policies, Miller painted a picture of rampant inflation with "printing-press money" — dollars so devalued that they would be "handled in bushel baskets."

Miller resumed his verbal pummeling of the Johnson administration in a statement issued as he arrived here from San Diego, where he had enjoyed a two-day rest from campaigning.

His schedule in the San Francisco area included speeches today at San Jose and Oakland before flying east to Cleveland, Ohio.

Addressing a crowd of about 2,000 in the San Mateo High School Monday night, Miller evoked laughter and applause with barbs aimed at Pierre Salinger, the Democratic candidate for U.S. senator.

★ ★ ★

Salinger, former press secretary to Johnson and the late President John F. Kennedy, has been the object of "carpetbagger" charges since he returned to California to run for the Senate.

Miller said that Salinger would not be able to vote for himself in California because he could not meet residency requirements.

CAN'T VOTE

"If he can't vote for himself I don't see why anybody else would," Miller declared.

He called Johnson's plan for "The Great Society" a "blueprint for the most powerful government and the most expensive government and the most regulatory government in the history of the United States.

★ ★ ★

Earlier, in San Diego, Miller told reporters he was inclined to agree with Johnson that Communist China should be brought into the nuclear test-ban treaty.

"But," he added, "this should not open the door to recognition of Red China."

Jet Fuel Blast Injures Five

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Five men were injured when a fuel truck pumping jet fuel from the XB70-A bomber exploded and burned.

The fuel was ordered removed after the huge bomber's scheduled fourth flight was canceled Monday due to an engine malfunction.

★ ★ ★

The blast critically burned two civilian truck crewmen and seriously hurt a third. An Air Force sergeant who tried to rescue the injured men suffered less serious injuries, as did a fourth civilian.

The explosion didn't damage the plane, one of two built under a billion-dollar Air Force program.

MEN INJURED

Chester E. Pernula, 44, of nearby Palmdale suffered a skull fracture and burns, and Ivan Mayo, 44, of nearby Lancaster suffered burns over 75 per cent of his body. Earl Smith, 43, also of Lancaster, was seriously burned.

Second Actress Is Ill Filming New Movie

Hollywood (AP) — When Joan Crawford became ill and forced a lengthy delay in filming of the movie "Hush . . . Hush, Sweet Charlotte," she was replaced by actress Olivia de Havilland.

Now, Miss de Havilland is ill. She is confined to her hotel with a respiratory virus, a spokesman said yesterday. Production of the movie has been halted until she can return for the last two days of shooting.

Planning Avondale's Needs

Citizens to Help Schools

In the midst of plans for the second phase of a 1961 building program, the Avondale School Board is already looking ahead to the future, and will ask citizen help in predicting that future.

A new citizens committee will be organized to study the building and curriculum needs and to project enrollments over the next five years in the district.

The School Board voted unanimously last night to establish the new committee to make the 5-year study.

AREA NEWS

Also being considered is the possible use of "outside" consultants to direct the efforts of the committee and to correlate, organize and analyze the information gathered.

★ ★ ★

The board instructed Schools Supt. George E. Shackelford to arrange for the presence of some consultants at an early meeting to discuss the matter with the members.

CONSULTING EXPERTS

Among those suggested for the job by Shackelford are consulting experts from Wayne State University.

The last citizens committee to be organized, in 1961, was allocated $1,500 to pay secretarial and consulting expenses, but the board did not take similar action last night.

The question of earmarking funds for either the new committee or consultants will be dealt with after the board has met with both.

★ ★ ★

In other action, the board authorized the superintendent to instruct architects O'Dell, Hewlett & Luckenbach of Birmingham to prepare working drawings of work to be done at the junior and senior high schools.

SECOND PHASE

The work comes under the second phase of a $1.29 million building program authorized by the school electorate three years ago.

The junior high will gain two classrooms, remodeling of the kitchen, a counseling office, relocation and remodeling of the library and additions to the shop and a cafeteria.

At the senior high, work will include two new classrooms, relocation of the libaray, remodeling of the science labs and an addition to the industrial arts shop.

★ ★ ★

The board anticipates construction costs of about $220,000 at the junior high and $118,000 at the senior high.

WORKING PLANS

Officials hope that working drawings can be completed and improved by January, so that bids can be asked in February.

Shackelford was also instructed to get more information about a lateral sanitary sewer line which is part of the Troy sewer system, and which ends about 1,700 feet south of the Stiles School.

He will contact residents in the area of South Boulevard and Livernois Road to determine if they would like to tap into the line if it were extended from Livernois and Lovell to the school.

★ ★ ★

Resident participation in the plan would reduce the cost of extension to the district, which has been roughly estimated at $12,000 if the district has to pay for it entirely.

★ ★ ★

Extension to the school would alleviate serious septic tank problems there, and would bring the lateral line right to the Troy city limit, the superintendent said.

Police for Addison at Stake on Nov. 3

ADDISON TOWNSHIP—Should a township police department be created?

And would township residents approve a 2-mill tax levy to provide such local protection?

These two questions will be answered by township voters when they cast their ballots on these two local propositions in the Nov. 3 election.

Besides deciding whether a township police department should be created, residents will be asked if they would agree to pay $2 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation to finance it.

★ ★ ★

The idea of a township police force originated some months ago in Township Board discussions, and received impetus from a petition signed by less than 100 residents.

EARLY SEPTEMBER

Presented at a special board meeting in early September, the petition asked that the question of a township police department be put up to the voters in the November general election.

Police protection now comes from the Oakland County Sheriff's office and the State Police.

One of the township's four constables also works part-time on police duties.

★ ★ ★

The proposed 2-mill tax, which would amount to $1.29 per $1,000 of local valuation, would raise between $4,000 and $5,000 per year.

This would be enough to pay and equip one full-time police officer.

Signs to Curb Troy Speeding

Stops Are Placed in Morse School Area

TROY — The City Commission took further steps last night to curb speeding in the area of the Morse School on Hickory.

Stop signs were ordered in three places. A three-way stop will be put into effect at Van Courtland and Robinwood, a stop at the east end of Cherry and another at the west end of Robinwood.

Residents in the area complained to the commission last week that inadequate policing and signs plus poor visibility were creating a safety hazard.

They described speeding as taking place at all hours of the day and night, and told of having thrown objects at cars to make them slow down.

★ ★ ★

The commission also decided to ask the owner of a lot near Westwood on Cherry to level the piles of dirt on the lot.

★ ★ ★

Residents told the group that the piles obscured vision, creating a blind corner.

White Lake Dem Club to Hear Circuit Judge

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—Judge Philip J. Pratt, now seeking election to the Oakland County Circuit Court bench, will speak at tomorrow night's meeting of the White Lake Township Democratic Club.

The program is scheduled for 8 p.m. at the township hall.

School Election Set in S. Lyon

SOUTH LYON — The School Board has set Dec. 12 as the date for a school election on a building program, but has yet to decide how much will be asked from the district's voters.

★ ★ ★

Two more proposals to add classroom space to the district were put before the board last night, and a planning committee set up to discuss them.

The committee will have the job of deciding which proposal should be put on the ballot, or of devising a plan of its own.

Board members Alfred Ueker and Frank N. Gready came up with proposals that differed only in part.

★ ★ ★

Both proposed to expand the present high school and establish a special education program.

MOVE STUDENTS

Ueker's plan would move junior high students to the present elementary school, next to the high school (to be remodeled), but Gready advocated remodeling the Sayre School to accommodate the junior high pupils.

Ueker said his plan would have several advantages, including greater flexibility of the teaching staff, better utilization of the bus system and elimination of the need to transport junior high students from Sayre to the high school for band practice.

Another advantage would be the use of a larger gymnasium for the junior high pupils.

★ ★ ★

Ueker would then use the Sayre School for elementary students only, expanding it to include those now in the old annex building.

SCHOOL ADDITION

Gready's proposal would involve putting an addition on the Sayre School to house those elementary students now in the annex building.

Both plans call for the use of the annex building for administrative offices and public meetings only, as well as for any overflow of students between building programs.

The planning committee which will discuss and determine the proposal to go before the voters in December consists of all board members.

★ ★ ★

Also on the committee are Schools Supt. Frank Bartlett, high school principal Gerald Hartman, junior high principal William Adams, elementary principal Donald Burns and system architect Henry Haberkorn.

Church to Seek Building Funds

Nov. 1 Kickoff Date for Program Phase

ROCHESTER — Members of St. Paul's Methodist Church will launch the second phase of their current building program Nov 1.

★ ★ ★

Plans presently are to begin construction of a large new sanctuary edifice within two years.

The original building, costing $365,000, which was occupied in 1959, will be completely paid off this month with final payment on the existing mortgage.

Chairman of the upcoming membership drive will be Jack Ralph, 2182 Livernois. Ralph is also chairman of the board of trustees of the church.

★ ★ ★

Campaign goal is set at $112,260, of which $35,000 will be applied to the new building fund. The remaining $77,260 will be used for operating expenses and benevolences.

TOTAL PROGRAM

The total budget program is under the direction of Robert Swanson, chairman of the Commission on Finance.

Ralph said that plans for the drive include a Loyalty Sunday ingathering of subscription intentions Nov. 1 to be followed by home visits to complete the program.

In the eight years of the present ministry of the church, it has grown from a membership of 753 to 1,383.

★ ★ ★

The staff includes two full-time ministers, a part-time ministerial visitor, full-time education workers and two church secretaries.

The church school has an enrollment of 1,052 members.

Area Man Stands Mute

A Clarkston man stood mute at his arraignment yesterday in Circuit Court on a felonious assault charge against two employes of a finance company.

★ ★ ★

A plea of innocent was entered for Billy Cole, 41, of 53 Waldon by Judge James S. Thorburn in binding him over for trial. No trial date was set.

Cole is accused of firing two gunshots at the finance company employes after they had repossessed his truck Sept. 22.

Rochester Club Chooses Candidate for State Contest

ROCHESTER — No one was surprised when it was announced at the Rochester Junior Woman's Club Board meeting yesterday that Mrs. William Beardmore of 213 Nesbit Lane, was chosen as the club's candidate for state title of the club woman of the year.

Mrs. Beardmore has served her club as editor of the Newsletter, recording secretary, vice president and president.

Her presentation of the official entry in the General Federation of Woman's Clubs Shell Oil Company Education Program helped to bring the club a $500 award this year.

She was instrumental in the establishment of the teachers aid program designed to help slow readers.

★ ★ ★

The nominee's interest in the betterment of her community is evidenced by her active participation in the Rochester University Presbyterian Church where she has served as deacon, chairman of Mary Circle, Sunday school teacher, and worked on the planning committee for junior and senior high fellowships.

BOARD MEMBER

She also served on the Rochester school study committee which recommended teacher salaries be raised in 1963 — a recommendation approved by the voters.

She is a board member of the Friends of Woodward Memorial Public Library, Inc., and a member of the Rochester Area Human Relations Committee.

Mrs. Beardmore is a past president of the Republican Woman's Club and now works in precinct registration and finance drives.

★ ★ ★

An alumna of Cornell University, she serves on its secondary school committee and acts as a liaison member giving out information on Cornell and interviewing likely candidates.

FAMILY BENEFITS

Mrs. Beardmore's family has benefited by her active interest in many aspects of learning. She and her husband, who is a virologist with Parke, Davis and Co., Detroit, enjoy good books as do the children, Nancy, 13, and Allen, 11.

The children have been encouraged in 4-H Club work and their mother has worked on many county 4-H fairs and in the Meadowbrook PTA.

According to Mrs. Beardmore, the most rewarding aspect of her club and civic work has been the realization of what individuals can accomplish when working together.

The state title is awarded by the Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs, Junior Division.

On hand at this week's 8 p.m. session will be Cliff Iverson of the White Lake Lumber Co., who will answer questions on construction materials.

Carol Kurth, new county extension home economist, will show a film on planning color schemes.

★ ★ ★

Building codes will be explained by Donald Fish, township building inspector.

ELECTRICITY PLAN

On Oct. 29, Jean Hardy, electric living adviser, and Lou Snyder of Detroit Edison Co., will show how to plan lighting and electricity in the home.

★ ★ ★

The Nov. 5 program will have "Home Financing" as its theme. Speaker will be Robert Peck of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

★ ★ ★

Individual help with house plans, landscaping and interior design will be available to workshop participants.

Suit Is Filed on Insurance at Studebaker

DETROIT (AP)—The United Auto Workers announced Monday filing of a court suit against Studebaker Corp. in what it called an effort to protect the life insurance of 3,226 retired Studebaker employes.

The UAW said its suit was filed in Superior Court in South Bend, Ind., where Studebaker made automobiles before shifting its car production to Canada.

Life insurance for retired workers is "explicitly fixed" in a UAW-Studebaker contract and "does not cease when the current agreement expires on Oct. 31, as the company contends," the union said.

The UAW said the contract provides for coverage of a retired worker until his death or until he is re-employed by Studebaker or by another company which has similar coverage.

The total value of Michigan farms totals over $4 billion.

Trio to Sing in Imlay City

IMLAY CITY —The Eastmen Trio of Covington, Ky., will present a sacred concert at the Imlay City Church of the Nazarene Saturday at 7:30 p.m.

The trio also will sing during the evangelistic campaign now in progress at the church, at 10 and 11 a.m. Sunday and again Sunday night at 7:30.

Evangelist Norman Brown of Monroe will preach the sermon in each of the Sunday services.

Threaten Suit in TV Hassle

Comic Jackie Mason Battles Ed Sullivan

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) — The show was over today, but the dispute between showman Ed Sullivan and comedian Jackie Mason may go on for some time — even leading to a court battle.

★ ★ ★

The battleground ranged from Sullivan's plush Desert Inn suite at this gambling mecca to the concrete canyons of New York, where Mason threatened to sue Sullivan for libel.

The issues:

● Mason's alleged "obscene gestures" during last Sunday night's Ed Sullivan show, which the showman claimed was seen by 50 million viewers, including many children.

★ ★ ★

● Sullivan's subsequent cancellation of a $35,000 contract calling for Mason's future appearance on five more of his shows.

ON TAPE

"The proof is on tape, and all the king's horses and all the king's men can't change it," Sullivan said yesterday, referring to Mason's gestures.

The "obscene gestures" cited by Sullivan consisted of Mason "thumbing his nose at Sullivan and the audience" and "making gestures" with his finger at Sullivan and into the television camera," the showman said.

Mason, in New York, said he would sue.

★ ★ ★

"I did make some gestures, but I didn't mean to do anything vulgar," the comedian said. "It didn't enter my mind. He has no right to renege on a contract that he has with me for five more shows."

AUDITION ACTS

Sullivan, who came here after the show to audition acts for future productions, said:

"How a man can do that in front of a television audience in front of 50 million people just after the President of the United States has finished discussing foreign policy is beyond me."

The showman said both he and the show's cameraman had held up their index fingers as a time cue, to show Mason he had one minute left on the air.

★ ★ ★

He said Mason then began his "obscene gestures."

Race Is Only Part of Story

South Backing Barry for Many Reasons

(Editor's Note: Another report from a UPI correspondent who is touring the country by bus to note talk and trends in this election season.)

By LOWRY BOWMAN

EN ROUTE THROUGH DIXIE (UPI) — There is one strikingly obvious fact about the South these days. It displays more "Goldwater for President" signs, bumper stickers and placards than any other area of the nation.

Exactly what it will mean on election day is hard to tell. But it is the first thing that strikes the visitor's eye.

President Johnson's championship of the civil rights bill in Congress may have much to do with the apparent southern sentiment for Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, but there are many facets to the South, and the racial issue is only part of the story.

There is solid, conservative Republican growth, for example, in the Tampa Bay area of southwest Florida which has become a haven for elderly sun seekers from all over the nation.

When Goldwater spoke recently in St. Petersburg, he made no mention of his previous controversial statements on the Social Security program, but that made no difference to many of the retired persons in the area.

MODERN HOME

At Bradenton Manor, a modern apartment-nursing home for the elderly south of St. Petersburg, Goldwater is a favorite among the residents, all of whom must be over 65 to be eligible for residence in the manor.

"I'm going to vote Republican because it's best for the country," said 85-year-old Cylde Ohls. "I don't think Sen. Goldwater has waged a good campaign, and I haven't been proud of the mud-slinging, but this country needs a Republican president."

Robert Parry, administrator of the manor, said he had heard none of the 150 residents express any enthusiasm for President Johnson's proposal of medical care for the aged under Social Security "even though some probably could use it."

Small-town bus stations throughout the South demonstrate graphically — more so, probably, than school desegregation — a degree of racial integration that would not have seemed possible just a few years ago.

Segregated waiting rooms, drinking fountains, rest rooms and lunch counters are gone. Negro bus passengers in the Deep South states still generally sit toward the rear of the buses, but many now take the front seats.

Three days of bus riding between Texas and Tennessee found no incidents and no veiled comments, although they still occasionally occur.

Lee Anderson, editor of the Chattanooga (Tenn.) News-Free Press, which circulates in northwest Georgia, northeast Alabama and southeast Tennessee, is one of those who believes racial matters as such have little to do with southern sentiment for Goldwater.

The News-Free Press endorsed Goldwater early in the campaign despite the senator's oft-repeated statement that he favors selling the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA), a vital part of Chattanooga life.

"Goldwater is the only candidate for president who is for constitutional government," Anderson said. "Lyndon Johnson has ignored and abused the Constitution.

"I don't believe the majority of southerners, or anyone else, wants to mistreat the Negro. But they do want the right to their own individuality. Sen. Goldwater voted against the civil rights bill on constitutional grounds. Southerners believe he is an honorable, forthright man, and they just don't believe Johnson."

Anderson said he "firmly believes" that Goldwater will carry most of the South and that the major issue is that of "constitutional government" as opposed to what he called Johnson's "many years of proven political hypocrisy."

"Southerners have the feeling that there is immorality in government when men like Bobby Baker and Billie Sol Estes can operate, while the attorney general can come down here and put a man out of business for trying to run his own restaurant in his own way," he said.

Lesley Bergeron, 41, unemployed, riding a bus to New Orleans to look for work in a fish cannery, was asked his opinion.

"That Johnson has been for the Negroes all along," he said. "Goldwater ain't afraid to stand up for the white man."

Surgery Aids Shoe Salesmen

Girls Can Alter Foot Size

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — What, madam, the shoe pinches? To ease her pinched feet, medical science is trying this technique: Saw off a little piece of foot.

Two San Diego, Calif., orthopedic specialists told the Western Orthopedic Association meeting yesterday about the surgery.

"It's a losing battle," said Dr. Malcolm B. Coutts, "to persuade young human females to wear shoes adapted to the peculiarities of their feet. They would rather be dead than out of fashion."

Shoe-fitting problems sometimes cause what doctors call "pump bumps" — enlargements on the heels of women who wear pumps or high heels. Dr. Philip H. Dickinson said that it is often quite painful.

The answer: surgically shave down the heel bones. Dr. Dickinson reported 31 cases where the pump bump symptoms were relieved by this operation.

Communist Hierarchy Shifts Top Command

The changing of the Kremlin guard, about which there had long been speculation, eventuated with almost anticlamactic suddenness.

Although the move lends itself to erudite analysis and academic interpretation, the maneuver, it seems to us, is based on simplicity and practicality.

★ ★ ★

The head man wasn't delivering the goods and his directors (the Presidium) fired him.

It is hard to say whether the adversities that seem to have caught up with the foremost Communist nation are chargeable entirely to NIKITA KHRUSHCHEV and his administration, or are the inevitable evolution of rigid sociological and economic forces showing up in deepening imbalances in the government and among the populace.

But since it is a truism in Communist procedure as well as democratic that the man who takes the bows is also the one who takes the rap, it is not surprising that the visible decline of Russia's domestic and global position should call for a shakeup.

Although there is little likelihood of sweeping policy changes in the orderly and nonviolent transition of Kremlin power, there is one significant implication. It holds both reassurance and threat for the West — the democracies.

There is reassurance in that a formidable totalitarian power can indeed realign its top governmental regime without the chaos and revolutionary upheavals generally related to such shifts. On the other hand, threat lies in the knowledge that communism in the world's leading exponent of it can achieve such an unexpected degree of political capability.

★ ★ ★

In short, it should be a warning to all free countries that opposition to communistic ideology cannot for one minute be relaxed.

Cole Porter

The melodic hand of one of America's great composers was stilled when death claimed COLE PORTER at age 71.

Considered one of the century's preeminent tunesmiths PORTER, though born a millionaire, amassed another fortune from a brilliantly successful musical career that embraced both stage and screen.

His song hits were almost countless, the unforgettable "Night and Day" being perhaps most deeply implanted in the country's musical consciousness.

The composer was a cosmopolite and numbered the celebrities of the world as his friends.

The world lost a great artist when Mr. COLE was taken from his mortal sphere. His passing will be mourned by a legion of friends and admirers to whom he brought entertainment and spiritual uplift.

It's Rags to Riches for Dolls Dolled Up

Problems of childhood seem to deepen with changing times.

Once, the eyes of the Little Mother glowed at sight of a homemade rag doll, assembled from odds and ends of leftovers and remnants. Expense of bringing the "baby" into the world was roughly that of mailing a letter.

But the role of young motherhood has risen in cost like everything else. Today the tag on a great big beautiful doll, turned out in the style to which it needs be accustomed, would be comparable to taking a live doll to dinner at "21" and the theater.

★ ★ ★

The big breakthrough came a few years ago with the birth of the Barbie doll. The innovation zoomed like an astronaut and Barbie's basic-chassis cost of $1.92 along with it—to a total of $106.84 for the 48 different ensembles needed to accouter the foot-high female for all occasions.

Barbie is not a talking doll, but if she were her favorite words, needless to say, would be "I haven't a single thing to wear."

★ ★ ★

It seems that Barbie now has a sister, Skipper. So far, she has only a skimpy 10 dress combination running to a paltry $20. But none smartens up faster than a doll, and if you think Skipper will stand or sit still for the status quo you're headed straight for her doll house.

One last thought — a dire one—is passed on to apprehensive parents. Skipper stands just nine inches —three shorter than her sister—and the chances of passing on some of Barbie's hand-me-downs are about as good as the flea getting the canine vote as a dog's best friend.

IF you don't worry about what you think of yourself, you won't worry about what others may think of you.

Press 'Schedule' a Bomb to Rivals

Fallout of Contestants Follows Gridiron Tests

Pontiac never saw a brighter nor more exhilarating day than last Saturday — but for 446 Press Football Contestants it was a gloomy and dispiriting date on the calendar.

The hapless ones, you see, had laid it on the line that either Penn State would take Syracuse or the outcome of their grid clash would leave the two fit to be tied.

★ ★ ★

But, alas, it was not to be. Leading at intermission after a first-half splurge, the Nittany Lion thereafter subsided—exhibiting about as much ferocity, football variety, as Ferdinand the Bull.

On the other hand, the Penn threat must have made her foemen see red—orange, then, if you're going to split colors. The "Boys From Syracuse"—to run in the title of an old song—showed signs of spirited rehearsal between halves, and when play was resumed, rendered two encores of their opening touchdown for a 21-14 win.

As might have been expected, that preeminent pigskin prognosticator, the self-effacing Major Hoople, hit the winner right on his bulbous nose.

How do things look for next Saturday's elimination — the seventh of the 15-game schedule for the newspaper's annual contest?

Well, Purdue's Boilermakers are pretty popular — nothing to do with the drink — with 496 entrants rooting for them, while 166 will cheer themselves husky for the Iowa Corn Huskers. . . . We thought that was a little corny too.

Only 10 forecasters couldn't make up their minds, and will have a private victory celebration if the game produces no winner.

★ ★ ★

As the number of contest survivors lessens, your chances increase of snuggling up to the winner's award of a $500 U. S. Savings Bond. So, you might tentatively start doing a little early Christmas shopping.

With Certain Leanings

David Lawrence Says:

Real Perils Hidden From People

WASHINGTON — These are days when people around the world are constantly being "brainwashed." The phrases of euphemism hide from the people the real threat to the peace of mankind.

LAWRENCE

Some of the cover-up is politically motivated, and some of it is designed to gloss over ominous developments by wishful thinking.

The world is told, for instance, that a treaty which bans certain nuclear testing is a great achievement, and all that is necessary now is to persuade Red China to join the signatories of that pact.

But not a word is spoken about the graver danger involved in the actual use of nuclear weapons. It is the continued existence of an arsenal of nuclear bombs capable of destroying in a few minutes hundreds of millions of human lives which is the menace to civilization.

Not a word is being spoken, moreover, by the heads of government anywhere, including the United States, about the terrible power possessed by a few governments.

Today there is no conference going on anywhere on genuine "disarmament" — no effort to insure the destruction of all nuclear weapons and a prohibition against any resumption of their production.

MAINTAIN ARSENALS

There are proposals instead to maintain the present nuclear arsenals intact, though not to increase them. This, however, has only stimulated France and Red China to try to develop nuclear strength of their own as a measure of self-protection.

President Johnson, in his address to the nation on Sunday night, deplored the nuclear testing by Red China and urged the smaller nations not to become frightened by "nuclear blackmail."

He offered to use American power to offset any effort by Red China to use her nuclear potentiality as a means of exerting pressure in diplomacy.

Mr. Johnson called on Red China to sign the test-ban treaty. But of what avail is such a step if nothing is to be done to ban the possession of nuclear bombs?

NOT CONFINED

The use of words to convey unrealistic impressions is, of course, not confined to this country.

Leonid Brezhnev, the new chief of the Communist party in the Soviet Union, said in his first speech after Nikita Khrushchev was removed:

"If the governments of other states, for their part, display a striving for peace, if the sovereign right of every nation, big and small, to settle its destiny itself is observed, then peaceful labor and progress will be assured . . .

"The Soviet Communist party will strive for the consolidation of the unity of the great community of fraternal Socialist countries on a fully equal footing . . .

"The Soviet Communist party will uphold the general line of the world's Communist movement."

This means a continued infringement by the Soviet government on the sovereign rights of the people of other countries. It is a reaffirmation of Moscow's determination to rule the world through Communist infiltration of the governments of smaller countries — the true objective of Communist imperialism.

The oppressed peoples of the Soviet Union and of the Communist bloc are helpless today as the dictatorship group in Moscow changes personnel but not its absolutism.

This is a time when the outside world can tell the Soviet people, by radio and by word of mouth through travelers, how freedom's formula can bring a new government through a free system of elections and assure the citizens of the Soviet Union that the fruits of their toil can be used to improve and sustain a better economic life. But the rest of the world somehow is strangely silent.

Never was there a more propitious time to emphasize the contrast between the way the Soviet Communist party imposes its tyrannical rule and the way Great Britain and the United States, respectively, choose their governing bodies.

It is an opportunity sadly missed.

Doolittle Tells Reasons He's Backing Goldwater

NEW YORK — No champion of Sen. Barry Goldwater's presidential hopes is more candid and realistic than Gen. James H. Doolittle, cochairman (with Clare Boothe Luce) of the Citizens for Goldwater drive.

CONSIDINE

"Goldwater might not win a state, or he may take enough of them to win the election," the fabled airman and technological engineer told us.

★ ★ ★

"I'm for him because he heads a crusade for something in which I believe."

Did he feel that Goldwater was the nation's last chance?

★ ★

"No, I don't" he said. "But some do.

NOT READY?

"Maybe we're not ready for conservative government, but I think that we will be when it becomes apparent that the next step we take will make a Socialist state of us.

★ ★ ★

"What Goldwater offers, it seems to me, is an opportunity to slow down a bit on the federal handout, put some morality back in force, let the whole blinking world know we're every bit as strong as we are fair and humane.

"For 30 years the trend toward ever larger federal government has gone unchecked, except for a temporary slowdown under President Eisenhower.

★ ★ ★

"I just happen to believe that we can get along better in the long run with the smallest possible federal control capable of doing the job. Goldwater promises just that.

★ ★ ★

"The momentum toward more and more dependence on Washington probably is too great by now to be reversed. But I think it can be slowed down."

Editors Differ on Senate Races

By BRUCE BIOSSAT

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Sharply divided opinions exist among Newspaper Enterprise Association client editors as to major party prospects in the 35 separate U.S. Senate races now reaching the climactic stage across the country.

BIOSSAT

Of the 35 seats at stake (two in Tennessee), 26 are now held by Democrats and nine by Republicans.

Among the 380 editors who responded to NEA's fall election survey, 127 or just about one-third thought the Republicans would gain seats Nov. 3. Only 91 made specific guesses as to the number the GOP might pick up. The average gain suggested was roughly four seats.

This response matches the widely held notion that the coattails of a winning presidential candidate are no magic carpet lofting lesser candidates to victory. For only 51 editors think Sen. Barry Goldwater will defeat President Johnson, yet 127 believe Republican senatorial nominees can best Democrats running with Johnson.

On the other hand, almost as many editors — 122 — think the GOP will lose senatorial seats this fall. Just 69 made specific guesses, and the estimated average loss was three seats.

★ ★ ★

Another 107 editors concluded that the present Democratic advantage of 66 seats to 34 would be exactly maintained after the balloting is over. Twenty-four hazarded no forecast.

Editors in their respective states predicted that Democratic incumbents (or their replacements) would hold onto their seats in 22 states: California, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nevada, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, Tennessee (two seats), Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

Responding editors from Ohio believe that incumbent Democratic Sen. Stephen Young will be unseated by his GOP challenger, Rep. Robert Taft, son of a famous father. There were too few responses to make a judgment on the Democratic seat held by Sen. Quentin Burdick of North Dakota.

★ ★ ★

Editors from the areas involved predicted that Republicans in Nebraska, New Mexico, Pennsylvania and Vermont would retain presently occupied Senate seats.

Despite contrary evidence of current polls, the editors think former Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy will take away Republican Sen. Kenneth Keating's seat in New York.

Evidence was too limited for judgments on seats now held by Republicans in Arizona, Delaware, Hawaii and Maryland.

Independent evidence beyond this survey suggests that Sen. Hiram Fong of Hawaii and Sen. J. Glenn Beall of Maryland are in serious trouble from Democratic rivals. Nor is Gov. Paul Fannin, running for the Arizona seat being vacated by Goldwater, free from difficulty.

★ ★ ★

NEA's client editors also were asked to weigh the impact this year of the major party vice presidential nominees.

A bit more than 40 per cent of the responding 380 editors — 154 — thought Johnson's choice of Sen. Hubert Humphrey would do him more harm than good. But another 122 thought the Minnesotan would help the Democratic ticket, and 102 said the choice would have no material effect.

As for the Republican vice presidential choice, Rep. William Miller of New York, a whopping 219 editors — 57.6 per cent — said he would have no impact at all on Goldwater's race against the President. Ninety thought he would hurt the Arizonian's chances, and 71 thought he would help.

'Present County Hospital Site Is Best for Patients'

An article announced that a committee had recommended the sale of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium on Cooley Lake Road. It was also stated that a new hospital might be built at the county center on Telegraph.

★ ★ ★

Since the type of patient treated in the county hospital tends to have a chronic illness, it often means that a prolonged stay is necessary. Extended visits to hospitals are depressing. It is necessary to do all that can be done to keep the patient cheerful.

The Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium is located on a hill overlooking Union Lake and takes full advantage of the scenery. The proposed new location does not offer these natural advantages.

In this era of goodwill to the senior citizens and those who are ill, let us not sell out one of the most beautiful sites a hospital can have.

'Freedom Lovers Will Vote for Barry'

I would like to comment on Mr. William Lyman's recent prediction based on "facts."

The majority of voters have too much good sense and integrity to return a man of questionable character to the White House.

★ ★ ★

They will, instead elect a man of high character and purpose, Sen. Barry Goldwater. His election would prove a national disaster to those few Americans who clamor for a welfare state; his election would prove a global disaster to our enemies, the Communists, who are counting on Lyndon Johnson's support in their plan to take over the world.

★

Newspapers close to the feeling of the majority of voters (such as the Birmingham Eccentric and The Pontiac Press) support Sen. Goldwater. Those newspapers and periodicals which stand to lose most by a return to the free enterprise system and unmanaged and uncensored news support LBJ.

I agree that the choice is between sanity and insanity, and discerning, freedom-loving Americans support the only candidate who will return our country to a sane, responsible position in the world today—Sen. Barry Goldwater.

GOP Hits at Security Issue

Johnson Assures Future Reports on Jenkins Case

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson has assured congressional leaders that they will be kept informed of progress in the FBI and Secret Service's investigations of former White House aide Walter W. Jenkins.

Johnson was said to have given the assurances voluntarily yesterday at a bipartisan session with House and Senate leaders.

None of the legislative leaders questioned him about Jenkins, who resigned after his arrest on a morals charge had been disclosed.

Republicans continued to hammer away at the Jenkins case, questioning whether the incident raised a serious security question at high levels of the Johnson administration.

Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the GOP presidential candidate, sent a letter to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover yesterday asking why Jenkins was not "subjected to a thorough security check and investigation upon moving into a highly sensitive position in the White House."

SECURITY ISSUE

Republican National Chairman Dean Burch termed "patently ridiculous" a statement by Democratic vice presidential nominee Hubert H. Humphrey that Jenkins case did not involve any security risk.

Burch charged that the Johnson administration was trying to suppress the facts in the Jenkins case, which he said "had grave significance insofar as our national security is concerned."

Jenkins, 46, resigned last week as Johnson's aide after disclosure that he had been arrested twice on morals charges at the Washington YMCA, first in 1959 and again last Oct. 7.

Sources said the President reviewed for congressmen his long association with Jenkins.

They said he told them that Jenkins and others from the White House had been attending an informal party at the new offices of Newsweek magazine on the night he was arrested.

Two plainclothes policemen arrested the White House aide less than an hour after he was last seen at the party.

Burch Hits Johnson, Says GOP Will Sue FCC for Equal Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman Dean Burch says President Johnson's nationwide address Sunday night was "purely political" and the government's refusal to order equal time for Sen. Barry Goldwater amounts to information "suppression and manipulation."

The GOP will sue the Federal Communications Commission in an effort to overturn Monday's ruling that the President's television-radio broadcast — on air time provided free by the networks — does not fall within the equal time provisions of the Communications Act, Burch said Monday night.

★

The Republican chairman charged the administration with news suppression and appealed for funds to finance a half-hour broadcast by Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, Wednesday night. Johnson's "free program" was worth about half a million dollars, he said.

Burch spoke on NBC on time provided without charge by the network after it, CBS and ABC had rejected his request that Goldwater be given equal time to match Johnson's broadcast — on free time — and the FCC had backed up their decision.

SENT TELEGRAM

After Burch spoke, Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey sent a telegram to William McAndrew, NBC's vice president in charge of news, saying the GOP chairman had "talked about extraneous issues and made a plea for contributions to the Republican campaign."

"I would like a response as to whether NBC believes the Democratic party is now entitled to time to respond," Bailey said.

★

Johnson was given time Sunday night to speak as president on last week's important foreign developments, which included China's detonation of its first nuclear device, the change in the Soviet Union's government and the Labor party's victory in Britain's election.

Presidents customarily are given free air time to report to the nation on matters of moment. However, Section 315 of the Communications Act provides that radio and television stations must give equal time to all candidates for an office if it provides time for any of them.

WAS POLITICAL

Burch said that anyone who saw the President Sunday night would have to agree that "the sole purpose of the program was political."

2 Petroleum-Filled Ships Collide in Alaska Harbor

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Two sea-going tankers loaded with petroleum products slammed together in the harbor Monday. The resulting fire spewed flames skyward hundreds of feet.

Authorities said one man was missing from the two crews, and two others were hurt.

★ ★ ★

One of the vessels, the Santa Maria, of American registry, was abandoned and burned to a red hot hulk.

The crew of the other vessel, the Sirrah, of Dutch registry, stayed aboard and, after the two ships drifted together for a short time, managed to pull away and sail up Cook Inlet, away from the burning Santa Maria and the flame-licked water around her.

FROM OREGON

Officials listed the missing man as Eugene Hughes, about 35, a fireman from Portland, Ore.

They identified the injured as Hank Leland, 28, Bloomington, Calif., a maintenance man, and Edmund Oliver, 36, Long Beach, Calif., a fireman water tender.

★ ★ ★

Oliver broke both ankles when he jumped 12 feet from the Santa Maria to a rescue boat. Leland also suffered an ankle fracture in jumping from the stricken ship.

Don Walter, acting port director, said the Sirrah apparently dragged anchor and rammed into the Santa Maria, which lay at anchor about a half mile off the Anchorage waterfront.

FLAMES SPREAD

Flames spread out for a couple of thousand yards on the water. For a time it was feared the incoming tide would sweep the fire to the docks.

★ ★ ★

Myron Rosser, Compton, Calif., a crewman from the Santa Maria, said "The other ship struck us. There was a sheet of flame. We fought the fire for a little while—10 or 15 minutes — and then abandoned ship."

★ ★ ★

Walter said the 550-foot Santa Maria, owned by the Union Oil Co., anchored Monday afternoon with a load of miscellaneous petroleum products. He said it could carry 135,000 barrels.

The Sirrah, on a voyage for Shell Oil Co., was carrying a cargo of 141,000 barrels of jet plane and turbine fuel.

Modern Life Is Studied at Council

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Questions of war and peace, love and marriage, science and progress, and brotherhood and justice came before the Vatican Ecumenical Council today as the Roman Catholic assembly turned to a study of the church in the modern world.

★ ★ ★

The study being undertaken by the 2,500 council fathers in St. Peter's Basilica is one of the most sweeping ever to be considered by an ecumenical council in the church's 2,000-year history.

The opening lines of the schema on the modern world struck the keynote of the document.

NO LESS

They said: "The joys and the griefs, and the hopes and the anxieties of modern man, especially of the poor and the afflicted, are no less the anxieties and the hopes, the griefs and the joys of this council."

★ ★ ★

Some council officials warned against expecting too much from the long-awaited document. They said there is much it does not do. Others termed the document a brilliant example of the church's ability to think and speak in fresh, modern terms of significance to men everywhere.

★ ★ ★

The schema is a direct appeal to the world's half-billion Catholics to work for brotherhood with all men. It calls on Catholics to take a continuously active part in the formation of public opinion, in science and culture, in programs to improve community life, and in movements aimed at ending racial, social and economic discriminations.

The schema acknowledges the growing pressure of questions in the minds of many Roman Catholics about birth control. While it proposes no drastic turnabouts in church bans on contraception, it holds out the prospect that changes may be in the offing.

Texas Governor, Lady Bird Sub for the President

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Texas Gov. John Connally and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson stepped up to bat for the President in campaign speeches yesterday.

"There is no choice between the men who have offered themselves for the highest office in this land," Connally declared at a $100-a-plate Democratic luncheon attended by 450.

★ ★ ★

"By all odds Lyndon B. Johnson is the man who should be the next president of the United States."

Connally, confidant and campaign consultant of Johnson for years, and the First Lady appeared as substitutes for the President, who called off a Texas trip because of global developments.

Red China Says U.S. Is Trying to Belittle A-Blast

PONTIAC MALL OPTICAL CENTER
Open Evenings 'til 8:30 P.M. 682-1113

TOKYO (AP) — Red China said today its detonation of an atomic bomb had "shocked and irritated" the United States and that both President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk had "tried their best to belittle" its significance.

It also noted Rusk's television statement Oct. 18 that China's prestige undoubtedly would be raised because it now is a nuclear nation.

The New China News Agency dispatch from Peking said the Chinese achievement "is a heavy blow to the U.S. policy of nuclear monopoly and nuclear blackmail."

It said Johnson pretended to be concerned about the well-being of the Chinese people, "in spite of the fact that the United States has conducted hundreds of nuclear tests."

LBJ REJECTION

Peking also attacked Johnson's rejection of its proposal for a world conference to outlaw nuclear weapons, saying: "While . villifying the Chinese government proposal, Johnson revealed that the U.S. government was not interested at all in the complete prohibition of nuclear weapons.

In New Delhi, Indian Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri warned that "the Chinese are trying to build up a mighty war machine and thus create fear in the minds of all." He spoke in a broadcast marking "solidarity day," the opening of the China-India border war in 1962.

* *

Malaysia's deputy prime minister and defense minister, Tun Abdul Razak, said the Chinese nuclear test had "strengthened the Communist position in Southeast Asia."

Pakistani officials in Karachi said the Chinese blast had reinforced the position of countries seeking Red China's immediate admission to the United Nations.

Compromise Sought on Peace-Keeping Dues

Support Grows for U.N. Opening Delay

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Support is growing for a move to postpone the U.N. General Assembly opening to give the United States and the new Soviet regime time to work out a compromise on the issue of paying peace-keeping dues. Diplomats predicted the opening would be delayed two weeks, until Nov. 24.

The 19-nation, Latin-American bloc gave virtually unanimous approval to the idea at a meeting Monday after the United States announced it was willing to consider a postponement.

Informants said a number of Asian and African delegates also have signified approval. The Communists apparently are willing to go along.

Before the Soviets dumped Nikita Khrushchev, the United States had warned that at the assembly opening Nov. 10 it would invoke a U.N. Charter provision that members two years in arrears on their dues should lose their assembly vote. It would affect the Soviet Union and nine other member states.

MIGHT QUIT

The Soviets indicated they might quit the United Nations if they lost their assembly vote. They have refused to pay for peace-keeping forces, contending the assessments were illegal because the General Assembly made them instead of the Security Council.

The United States reportedly believes that the new Soviet leaders should have time to study the issue before a showdown is called.

The shake-up in the Kremlin continued to generate repercussions.

Polish and Hungarian leaders, who refused to join in the Kremlin's denunciation of Khruschev, issued a joint appeal for talks to heal the rifts in international communism and reiterated support for the Moscow limited test-ban treaty. The communique was signed by Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Hungarian party boss Janos Kadar, who has been visiting Warsaw.

* * *

The British Communist party expressed anxiety at Khrushchev's ouster and called on the Kremlin to give an explanation.

The London Daily Telegraph, quoting "trustworthy sources in Eastern Europe," said Khrushchev is reported to be receiving medical treatment 25 miles from Moscow. The Soviet press has given no hint of the former leader's whereabouts.

West German Stamp Will Mark JFK Death

BONN, Germany (AP) — The West German post office will put out 27.5 million stamps commemorating the anniversary of President Kennedy's death.

The 40-pfennig (10 cent) stamps will carry a portrait of Kennedy and the date of his assassination, Nov. 22, 1963.

New York Crowd Said Largest to Welcome Peggy

NEW YORK (AP) — An aide to Mrs. Barry Goldwater says the crowd of women that turned out to greet her here was the largest of the campaign.

Thousands of women formed a line Monday that wound through the foyers and lobbies of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, out the Park Avenue entrance and down 49th Street a full block. It was drizzling part of the time.

Mrs. Goldwater, wife the Republican presidential candidate, shook hands with the women who were invited by the Federation of Women's Republican Clubs of New York State.

Liberalization, Fragmentation, Coexistence

Nikita's Era Showed 3 Major Changes

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of three dispatches in which UPI's chief diplomatic correspondent in Europe sums up and assesses the 11 years of Nikita Khrushchev's rule in the Kremlin.)

By K. C. THALER

LONDON (UPI) — Three major developments characterize the 11 years in which Nikita S. Khrushchev led Soviet Russia:

- Liberalization at home, including the fostering of science and Russia's triumphant leap into the space age.
- The policy of coexistence with the West, especially the United States.
- The fragmentation of the world Communist movement by the split with Red China.

Khrushchev's liberalization of the Russian people themselves from the steel dictatorship of Josef Stalin brought sweeping reforms in the secret police system.

Tens of thousands of "political" prisoners under Stalin were released from prisons and concentration camps. Chief of Secret Police Lavrenti Beria, Stalin's top agent of terror, was run out of office and shot.

* * *

The Stalinist grip on individual citizens was loosened. Censorship over foreign correspondents' dispatches from Russia was ended.

ART FREEDOM

Freedom in the arts was encouraged. Efforts were made to increase the flow of goods to Russian consumers; the housewives of the land began to get a break with both the manufacture and import of more "nontechnical" goods.

In the area of coexistence, Soviet leaders led by Khrushchev emerged from the isolation of the Kremlin.

Khrushchev, accompanied by his then premier, Nikolai Bulganin — the famous "B and K" twins" of Khrushchev's early years in power — went to Geneva in the summer of 1955 for a summit meeting with then President Eisenhower, Britain's Anthony Eden, and France's Edgar Faure.

* * *

Stalin had never left Russia except for his wartime meetings with Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill. But Khrushchev started as a traveler and kept on being one.

VISITS BRITAIN

After the first summit in Geneva, he visited Britain in the following year. The United States eventually was to see him, as were most of the countries of Europe, Red China and other Asian countries.

He became one of the most traveled leaders in the world — and in doing so, even where he was feared or mistrusted —made friends by the sheer force of his ebullient personality.

He was something new in Russia, a handshaker and kisser of babies.

The Khrushchev grin and the jokes that went with it also warmed the Soviet homeland as Russians came to know for the first time a relatively free and easy kinship with their leaders.

* * *

And the slow but nevertheless improved flow of consumer goods was something every Russian could appreciate. Short shrift was given to the consumer under Stalin. Now for the first time, the shift in Soviet industry was largely to making things for the people.

ENVIED STANDARD

Khrushchev, in his concern with the domestic economy, made it plain that he envied and admired the American high standard of living. He remained a staunch enemy to the end of the American method, but the results were something else again.

He preached to Russians of the good life to come. He promised to meet, and eventually surpass, the American standard of living. One of his driving aims was to overtake the American economy.

Economic triumph was not to be his and his experimentation caused setback after setback. His most complete failure was in agriculture. His pet project to develop the vast virgin lands of Asian Russia flopped.

He pushed it against the advice of many experts and political advisers. He was to suffer in the waning months of his regime the ignominy of having to buy wheat from the West.

SPACE PROGRESS

But whatever his economic failures, Khrushchev more than surpassed them, in Soviet prestige as well as accomplishment, in the field of space developments. His was the honor of hailing history's first space satellite, Sputnik I, that sent the world off into a new age in October 1957.

Russia went on from there to put the first man in space, the first woman, and to send the first multipassengered spacecraft out of the world.

Khrushchev saluted the American space accomplishments as they came, but never conceded that the United States was anything but an added starter in space.

* * *

Through it all, with some false starts and an occasional serious reversal, Khrushchev talked up peaceful coexistence. He rejected the Communist dogma of the inevitability of war, quarreled openly, nastily and all the time with Red China on the question.

HIGH POINT

Khrushchev's visit to the United States in September 1959, and his Camp David talks with President Eisenhower, marked the high point of his coexistence policy. He returned to Moscow impressed with what he had seen, buoyed up by the friendly nature of his meetings with the American people and the American President.

This was the period that the Sino-Soviet axis began to bend, then crack. Peking generated a campaign through the Communist world, just a whispering one at first, that Khrushchev had sold out to capitalism and imperialism.

Peaceful coexistence took a hard blow when Russia shot down an American U2 reconnaissance plane in May 1960 and arrested and subsequently tried its pilot, Francis Gary Powers.

The timing could not have been worse, with an East-West summit meeting set for Paris in that month. Everyone showed up, but Khrushchev's fury over America's "spying" spilled over, and the summit collapsed in bitter invective before it began.

DIDN'T LAST

Khrushchev's sulk didn't last. He had stormed out of Paris to East Germany, where many thought he would in his wrath sign a separate peace treaty with the Communist regime. He didn't, and as time went on, peaceful coexistence grew again.

It bloomed into a partial nuclear test ban treaty with the United States and Britain, and step-by-step approach to further easing of tension with the United States under the presidency of John F. Kennedy.

Khrushchev's peaceful coexistence was by no means a sell-out or surrender to the West. Throughout the Khrushchev era the Soviets took advantage of every opportunity to undermine or weaken western power.

* * *

By wooing the so-called neutral and unaligned nations with aid and arms, Khrushchev strove with considerable success to stir trouble in what was left of the British empire. He fanned the flames of revolution and anticolonialism wherever they burned in Africa and southeast Asia — and, as Cuba was to prove, in the Americas.

THREATENED BRITAIN

At the height of the Anglo-French invasion of Suez in 1956, Khrushchev threatened to blitz Britain with his new nuclear power. He forced his way into the strategically important Middle East by giving arms to Egypt's Gamal Abdel Nasser.

When U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles turned Nasser down, Khrushchev helped Egypt build the Aswan Dam.

Khrushchev gambled and lost — the Red Chinese accused him among other things of "adventurism" — when he gave the West an ultimatum to get out of West Berlin. This was his first major challenge in the blunderbuss method he came to use on occasion. The last was over Cuba.

* * *

Under Khrushchev, the Russians embraced Fidel Castro, helped him with men, money and arms — including nuclear-capable arms. And this brought the confrontation of October 1962 between the White House and the Kremlin.

While the world held its breath, President Kennedy stood firm before Khrushchev's threats — and it was Nikita Khrushchev who backed down.

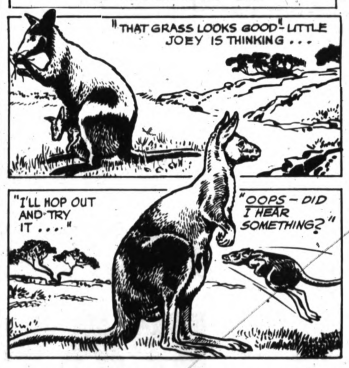
Junior Editors Quiz on KANGAROOS



QUESTION: Why does a mother kangaroo carry her baby in her pouch?

ANSWER: A little joey or baby kangaroo, is only about an inch long when born. He's small, but he's possessed by a tremendously strong idea, which is to climb into the big comfortable pouch his mother has waiting for him.

Once inside, he's happy. For weeks he stays there, feeding, resting and growing rapidly. Finally he pokes his head out and takes a look at the world.

One day, as in the upper picture, the joey will see something tempting and hop out. He has the comforting feeling that his mother is around and if he loses his nerve (bottom picture) he can always take a flying leap back into his safe little home. It may be months before he is out on his own.

Young animals have a great need for security when they first grow up.

Nature provides many methods — birds have nests, many animals bring up their young in caves or inside thickets.

Kangaroos belong to the large group of marsupial mammals, who have developed their own way of caring for their young by carrying them around in a soft warm pouch.

FOR YOU TO DO: Most marsupials live in Australia, but we have one kind in America, the opposum. Mother opposums have pouches like kangaroos, but they also have a most unusual way of carrying their young around when too big for the pouch. Try to find out what this is.

Music of the Past Entertains the Present

By GEORGE V. CRIPPS
Associate Professor of Music
Oakland University

A feeling for 17th and 18th century music for strings came alive Sunday afternoon on the Oakland University campus through the fine efforts of professors Wilbur Kent, violinist - violist, and Clive Henery, harpsichordist, of the Oakland University music department.

★ ★ ★

In a lecture - recital, Mr. Kent, teacher of strings and director of the Oakland University Orchestra, gave commentaries on the development of the violin, viola and the bow, and pertinent information about the music and the composers of this period of music.

VIOLA SOLO

The first composer to be heard was H.J.F. von Biber whose Passacaglia of solo viola was impressively played by Mr. Kent. A beautiful veiled quality of tone produced on his early 19th century viola and a fine command of bow made the counterpoint sound as if it were two instruments playing instead of one.

Five old French dances for viola and clavier by Marin Marais (1656-1728) introduced Mr. Henery, teacher of piano, whose skill at the harpsichord was an attraction of the program.

★ ★ ★

Rather than the usual solo and accompaniment style, here was a poetry of sound of delicate fabric, color and balance played in a light-hearted manner inviting you to dance.

Mr. Kent switched to violin for J. S. Bach's Sonata in G minor. The compelling motion of Bach's music was not always precise in the allegro movements but the vitality of the performance never faltered.

★ ★ ★

Following the intermission, when many of the audience came to the stage of the Little Theater to examine the harpsichord and the violin and viola, a Concerto in G Major for Viola and Clavier by Telemann was performed.

STRING GROUP

The program concluded with the appearance of the Oakland University String Consort, a group of six violin students, a bassoonist, Mr. Kent and Mr. Henery. They played a vigorous and charming work by William Boyce (1710-1779), Symphony V in D major, edited by Kent.

Shape Up Berets

Here's a good way to block those popular knit berets for children: after sudsing, rinsing and blotting the beret in a towel, insert an unbreakable plastic record of correct size.

Pat the beret smooth, then let it dry to a perfect circle.

Gayle Fuller, daughter of the Ernest Fullers of Green Lake was named queen of the 36th annual homecoming, Friday, at Ferris State College, Big Rapids. Sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, the 18-year-old Commerce freshman was crowned by Ferris President Victor F. Spathelf after she topped seven other candidates in a campus-wide selection. More than 90,000 alumni attended the three-day weekend.

He Wouldn't Be a Convict If Parents Had Convictions

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Norfolk County Home of Correction and Jail, Dedham, Mass.

DEAR ABBY:

I have never written a letter like this before, and I do so now hoping it will help other young people to get on the right track.

ABBY

I am 20, and come from what could be called an average middle-class family.

I have been doing a lot of reading lately, including your column in the Boston Record-American.

I recognize myself in so many of the letters other young people have written to you, such as, "My parents won't let me have a car," or, "My parents want to know where I am every minute," or, "My parents place too many restrictions on me."

★ ★ ★

Well, I had my own car at 16. I kept any hours I pleased, and I got what I wanted about 90 per cent of the time.

If my parents refused me anything, I either argued, or I sulked until I got my own way.

How wrong I was. I wish you would tell parents that they would do their children a tremendous favor if they learned how to say "NO" to them . . . and stuck to it.

A few months ago I would have laughed at this, but my outlook has changed.

I love and respect my parents, Abby. But I didn't become a spoiled, self-centered brat all by myself. I had plenty of help.

Sincerely,
R. J. E. IN CELL 63

DEAR ABBY: I am a college freshman and there is a young man I see every day that I would like to get to know better, but I don't know how to go about it.

He is a foreigner, and hasn't been in this country too long, but he looks like he would be very interesting.

We are both in the same chemistry class. How do I strike up a conversation with him?

INTERESTED

DEAR INTERESTED: Ask him to light your Bunsen burner. It could start a low flame.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing in hopes that you can help this young couple who are on the verge of getting a divorce.

They were married just after the boy graduated from high school. One month later their baby boy came.

The following year the girl finished her senior year of high school. Her mother cared for her baby during school hours.

Now the young husband wants "out." He says he doesn't love the girl and never did, and no one is going to make him stay married to her.

He refused to see a minister or anyone for counseling. He went to a lawyer and is determined to get his freedom.

The wife is heartbroken. She says she still loves him and will do anything to save her marriage.

Can you help them, Abby?

BOGGED DOWN

★ ★ ★

DEAR BOGGED: No one can help unless the parties involved want to be helped.

The young wife can make it difficult for her husband to obtain the divorce, but she can't force him to live with her.

Assuming she could "save" the marriage, a young husband who feels trapped and bitter would make a poor husband and a worse father.

Problems? Write to ABBY, care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send one dollar to Abby, care of The Pontiac Press, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

NEW MEMBERS

Welcomed as new members were Mrs. William Cashin, Mrs. Mahlon Benson Jr., Mrs. Donald W. Martin and Mrs. Edward P. Dalton.

Civic improvements chairman, Mrs. Lundbeck, announced the awarding of citations for this month. Cited for making their grounds attractive were Pearce Floral Company; Grovecrest Convalescent Home; the new medical building of Dr. Harry L. Riggs; and Huron Medical Center.

★ ★ ★

Plans for the annual Holiday Tea on Dec. 9 were announced by Mrs. Kenneth Vandenberg. Members will arrange tables in Christmas and New Year's motifs.

Remove Yellow From Fabrics

A leading manufacturer of automatic washers suggests this way to restore whiteness to yellowed fabrics: presoak in hot water containing some dishwasher detergent, then wash with your usual laundry soap or detergent.

Wash-Day Blues

It's the retailer, not mother, who's singing the wash-day blues.

★ ★ ★

A Texas merchant recalls that mothers used to buy six sets of shorts and tops per child in prewash-wear days.

"But now they buy only two and run a wash load every day!"

A recent celebration in their Greenwood Avenue, Avon Township home honored the 50 years of marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tucker. They were married Oct. 17, 1914 in Scottsville, Ark. Their children, Doyn Tucker and Mrs. Willie R. Berry, sponsored the event. They have six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Today's News From Washington

No U.S. Increase in Fallout Noted Yet From China N-Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Weather Bureau says radioactive material from Red China's atomic test blast last Friday may already have started to pass over the United States, but lack of rain could mean very little will fall to earth.

Atomic Energy Commission scientists added Monday that any fallout from the "low yield" test would not be likely "to cause any undue health hazard" in the nation.

Fallout specialists of the Weather Bureau said if the explosion tossed any radioactivity into the atmosphere the cloud would have been expected to enter the North American continent just north of the U.S.-Canada border "sometime between noon and midnight" Monday.

As of Monday afternoon, Public Health Service officials said they had not detected any increase in radiation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The FBI said Monday that its investigations in the year that ended June 30 led to 12,921 convictions and actual, suspended and probationary sentences that totaled more than 38,100 years.

★ ★ ★

Director J. Edgar Hoover noted that fines, savings and recoveries in cases investigated by the FBI reached a new record level — $210,771,402. He said that represented a return of $1.43 for every dollar appropriated for the FBI.

★ ★ ★

It also noted that the Communist party had "worked unremittingly to increase its influence in the racial struggle; gain new members through an intensive youth recruitment campaign; and promote the false impression that it is a legitimate political party."

The report said that the number of civil rights cases handled by the FBI increased to 3,340, which it described as "a substantial rise over the previous year."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson says his administration spent $41 million less during the July-September period than the late President John F. Kennedy's spent during the same three months of last year.

At a news conference Monday, Johnson said there are now 21,000 fewer persons working for the federal government than when he became president last Nov. 22. The employment level is the lowest in two years, he said.

Apostles of Radicalism Running GOP — Hubert

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey launched one of his hardest attacks on political extremism today and said "the responsible Republican leaders have temporarily lost control of their party to the apostles of discord and radicalism."

"By its refusal to condemn the lunatic fringe of American politics," said Humphrey in remarks prepared for a rally in this predominately Republican city, "the Goldwater party has permitted into its ranks those individuals and organizations whose stock in trade is the politics of hate, the politics of dispair."

★ ★ ★

The Democratic vice presidential nominee centered his fire on the John Birch Society, Gerald L. K. Smith's Christian Nationalist Crusade and the Minutemen, whom he described as "a wild, right-wing group which trains its members for guerrilla warfare."

Humphrey quoted Robert B. Depugh, national head of the Minutemen, as having called President Johnson "a political opportunist who would sell the United States out to the Communists or anyone else who would pay the price."

ROUGH PLAY

American politics, declared Humphrey, has "often involved a good deal of rough play. But never on this scale — never with this venom and personal invective."

For a generation, said Humphrey, "these extremists and radicals have been pushing their accusations, their innuendoes, their attacks in the back alleys of American politics.

★ ★ ★

"Now they have captured the Grand Old Party and transformed it into Goldwater's own party."

Humphrey returned to campaigning after breaking off his Florida barnstorming to attend a White House meeting of congressional leaders on the international issues.

Flying directly from the capital to Ardmore, Okla., Monday night, Humphrey told a rally there that he and other legislators were briefed on the swift changes in the world picture — the new governments in Moscow and London, Red China's detonation of a nuclear device and "not too long from now a further development."

★ ★ ★

Humphrey did not amplify the latter remark in his address, but later on the plane flying to Tulsa, told newsmen he referred to the possibility the Red Chinese will conduct another nuclear test.

Hero Gets Jail Term Shortened

LONDON (AP) — John Day, who rescued a child from drowning while he was on the run after breaking jail, is back in his cell but a hero with his sentence reduced.

He's also been adopted by the parents of Marnie Watts, the 8-year-old boy he saved. Day is 25.

Marnie's mother, 42-year-old Violet Watts, told the Court of Criminal Appeal yesterday:

"We can never hope to repay John Day for saving Marnie's life, but at least I've shown a little gratitude. When he comes out of prison, he will come and live with us."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Watts said she took her children wading one day last May.

FELL INTO POOL

"Marnie fell into a pool that was six feet deep," she said. "Suddenly, John appeared from nowhere and jumped in without a moment's hesitation. I'm sure he saved Marnie's life."

Day had been serving a four-year sentence for theft. After he was caught two more years were added to his sentence.

On the basis of Day's heroism, his lawyer appealed against the extra sentence.

★ ★ ★

After hearing Mrs. Watts, the three judges said the extra two years could run concurrently with the longer sentence. With time off for good behavior, Day will get out in 1966.

Bombing Trial Starts in South

MAGNOLIA, Miss. (UPI) — A white man goes on trial today on charges stemming from a racial bombing. Officials were expected to disclose seven more indictments by a grand jury which investigated the violence.

Ernest F. Zeeck, 25, one of four white men indicted in connection with the bombings earlier this month, will be tried in the old brick courthouse, shaded by giant magnolia trees.

The four indictments were announced before a week's recess by the jury, which returned yesterday and handed down seven more sealed indictments. A total of 11 persons had been arrested by state, federal and county officers in the violence.

Indictments are kept secret until the person is arrested.

The grand jury, which investigated a number of local cases, said in a report yesterday that prior to the arrival of civil rights workers here, there was little violence.

CALLED ON CITIZENS

"Since these persons have been in our country, they had sought to divide our people and acts of violence have occurred," the jury said. It called on local citizens "to continue to be peaceful and to leave the enforcement of our laws to the law enforcement officials."

District Attorney Joe Pigott said he expected Zeeck's trial to be completed in one day. Circuit Judge W. H. Watkins, who empaneled the grand jury which indicted Zeeck, was presiding.

Watkins was expected to set trial dates for three other men indicted along with Zeeck—Jimmy Prinston Wilson, 38, Billy Earl Wilson, 22, and Paul Wilson, 25, all employes of the Illinois Central Railroad.

Zeeck, married with one child, was employed by the Western Auto store in McComb.

SINGLE INDICTMENT

He and the three Wilsons were charged in a single indictment with unlawful use of explosives. The state law carries a possible death sentence upon conviction, with a prison sentence of any length to be set by the judge if the jury fails to spell out the penalty.

Others arrested were Emery Allen Lee, 35, a former Army demolition expert whom the FBI accused of supplying bombs for the various incidents; Hilton Dunaway, 36; John Paul Westbrook, 20; Charles Avery Womack, 26; Gerald Lawrence, 21; Sterling Lewis (Bubber) Gillis, 35; and Murphy J. Duncan, 44.

Gillis and Womack were freed on bond and the others remained in jail. Gillis, son of one of McComb's wealthiest men, was arrested by the FBI a day after posting bond and charged with robbing the Monticello bank March 2.

He later was released under two $10,000 bonds on state and federal robbery charges and taken to Whitefield State Hospital for mental tests.

Judge to Hear Dismissal Bid for Teamster

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) —A defense motion to dismiss a jury tampering indictment against Detroit Teamsters Union official Charles (Chucky) O'Brien will be heard here today by U.S. Dist. Judge Frank Wilson.

O'Brien, close associate of Teamsters President James Hoffa, is charged in connection with the jury which convicted Hoffa here of jury tampering earlier this year. Three co-defendants also were convicted. Hoffa has appealed.

The defense contends the statute under which O'Brien was indicted is unconstitutional and the grand jury was improperly selected.

The indictment charges O'Brien indirectly offered $25,000 to Mrs. Callie T. Key, a woman member of the Hoffa jury on condition she would testify that Hoffa did not receive a fair trial.

Frank Ragano, a Tampa, Fla., attorney, will represent O'Brien who has pleaded innocent to the charges.

Dies After Collision

IONIA (AP) — Mrs. Mary Whitney, 33, of Belding died Monday in an Ionia hospital from injuries suffered when the station wagon-school bus she was driving Wednesday collided with a car. Seven of 13 children in the bus were injured.

JUDGES FOR HANGING — Children at the University of Michigan hospital look over art reproductions to determine which ones should hang in their ward. The art jury was formed when children complained about the pictures on their walls. In the judging, it was found works by children their own ages were most appreciated.

Know What They Like

Hospital Children Art Critics

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Those young whippersnappers in the children's ward at University of Michigan hospital just don't appreciate some modern art.

They had a chance to have a print of Georges Braque's "Still Life — the Table" hung on their walls. And do you know what one of them said? "It looks like a junkpile."

★ ★ ★

They had a chance to have Maurice Utrillo's famous "Cathedral at Rheims" hung on the wall. And do you know what one of them said? "If he'd paint some ghosts coming out of the walls, he'd have it made."

So an art committee of the hospital's Volunteer Guild this week is installing paintings more suited to a child's obvious tastes.

JURY ON ART

The more welcome paintings include about a half-dozen works chosen by an art jury of nearly two dozen young patients from a selection of paintings done by pupils at the Forsyth Junior High School art classes in Ann Arbor.

These were the ones they really liked, especially if the painting had words on it that told about the subject.

"Hickory, Dickery Dock," for example, won unanimous approval. "Little Jack Horner," also was accepted unanimously.

With some seated in wheelchairs, others displaying bandages and all in hospital garb, the critics aged 4 to 12 watched while Volunteer Guild members lifted each painting for judging.

"I get sicker the more I look at it," said one juror, scratching her adhesive tape while examining Renoir's "Patinage a Longchamps."

QUICK APPROVAL

A junior high painting of a rhinoceros, done in red, yellow and orange, won prompt approval.

The only one of the masterpieces deemed more acceptable than the rhinoceros was Georges Pierre Seurat's "The Seine at Courbe-Voie." It beat the rhinoceros by two votes.

The Veterans Administration has forclosed 140,650 mortgages since its home loan program started 20 years ago.

Say Cuba Ordered Raid in Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY (UPI) — Armed raiders, apparently acting on orders from Communist Cuba, killed three soldiers and wounded two in a predawn attack Saturday on an outpost at Panzos in northeastern Guatemala, the army announced today.

A communique said the bandits fled in the darkness, taking with them unspecified "booty" from the army post.

Authorities in the nearby port of Matias Galvez reported hearing a radio Havana broadcast at 12:45 a.m. Saturday—before the raid on Panzos occurred — saying Communist elements in Guatemala "would attack villages in the northern part of the country."

Only the one attack was reported.

See Trend Toward Pontiac as 'Core City'

City officials have extended a welcome mat to Pontiac's neighbors, inviting nearby townships to submit requests for sewage services.

The invitation signals future development of Pontiac as a "core city."

City Commissioners decided at a recent informal meeting to give favorable consideration to requests for services, particularly sewage services.

Pontiac has provided such services to some areas outside the city limits for almost 30 years. However, the present decision will broaden this policy to include all areas adjacent to the city.

★ ★ ★

City Manager Joseph A. Warren describes Pontiac as offering a complex of services which have "become . . . identified as necessary for urban living."

ACHIEVE PROMINENCE

Some cities, according to Warren, because of their location and development, achieve prominence in their areas, offering a center for regional governmental activity, medical services, legal services, cultural development, social facilities and commercial and industrial complexes.

Since new communities can not offer such services, they must rely on the older community and revivlove around it.

"This is quite understandable," Warren said, "in the case of Detroit attaining development that can't be achieved by any of its suburbs.

★ ★ ★

"To a lesser degree," he added, "but still following the same concept, Pontiac is a central city for Oakland County and must, on a scale that is cast, be able to fulfill the same role as Detroit in Wayne County."

INDUSTRIAL COMPLEX

Warren said that Pontiac already has the industrial complex and medical and legal services.

"Our present city Commission is well aware of our core city significance and is quite willing to move in the direction of enlarging the status of Pontiac as a core city."

Sewage services are seen as the big area that Pontiac can be a "good neighbor" with many mutual benefits.

★ ★ ★

City Engineer Joseph E. Neipling said that waste disposal is already a joint operation in some areas of Waterford Township and the city of Sylvan Lake.

FORMAL AGREEMENT

In 1935, Pontiac and the township signed a formal agreement to furnish sanitary sewers in the area of the city's west end, said Neipling.

Sanitary sewers in the city of Sylvan Lake date back to 1945. Prior to these two contracts, however, sewer connections were made for individual property owners, but no formal agreements were made with the governing bodies.

Neipling said that Pontiac has the ability to serve outside areas without any damage to city residents. In fact, city residents might benefit, he noted.

★ ★ ★

The sewage treatment plant is sufficient to handle all present areas and has the capacity to handle more, according to Neipling.

CAN BE EXPANDED

The plant can be expanded gradually up to 100 million gallons per day. It now handles about 14 million gallons of waste per day with a rated capacity of 19.5 gallons, Neipling said.

On a test basis, he added, the treatment plant has run at 30 million gallons.

Expansion of the treatment plant, if outside areas were to be served, could be done at the expense of the entire service area, not just city residents.

In addition, the plant can be expanded at much less cost than construction of a new one, he said.

NOT CAPABLE

Some of the city's sewers are not capable of carrying more flow as they are already overloaded. However, revenues derived from serving outside areas will help install new needed sewers.

"Thus," said the engineer, "Pontiac residents would obtain assistance in solving some existing problems."

The cost of furnishing sewer service to outside areas will vary with the type of service requested. The city of Sylvan and Waterford Township currently pay 30 cents per 1,000 gallons.

★ ★ ★

This charge includes an apportioned cost of:

- Treatment plant construction and operating cost.
- City sewer operating and construction costs (the portion carrying flow from the outside area)
- Cost of meters; reading and maintaining them.
- Billing, clerical work and a share of the cost of services furnished sewage agencies by other city agencies.

COST TO RESIDENTS?

And what would the cost be to residents of outside areas?

First, lateral sewers would have to be constructed to Pontiac's city limits. This cost would be borne by the users involved.

Pontiac residents currently pay $3 per front foot for lateral sewers with the city kicking in an additional $1 per foot generally.

★ ★ ★

City residents now pay $150 per residential sewer connection. The cost for outside areas would depend upon the lengths of lines required. Low density suburban areas would require longer, more expensive lines than relatively dense population areas.

Neipling points out that city residents without the present out-of-city users would be paying at least 10 per cent more for sewage service.

Meanwhile, present outside users would be paying double their present rate for the same kind of service.

Plan to Dig Out Sewer Trench in Search for Boys

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police Chief James Finan of suburban Fairfax plans to start excavating a 20-foot deep sewer trench today in an effort to find two boys who disappeared Thursday.

James McQueary told police Monday his son Jimmy, 9, had been scolded for playing in the hole Wednesday night. Jimmy and John Hundley, also 9, vanished about 4 p.m. the next day.

★ ★ ★

Workmen filled in the excavation some time that evening.

Chief Finan said his men spent Monday searching empty buildings in the village of 2,500 on Cincinnati's eastern outskirts. Police have received dozens of calls from people all around Greater Cincinnati who think they have seen the boys.

Incumbent Keating vs. Kennedy

N.Y. Race Is Still a Toss-Up

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the second of five articles on key election contests for the U.S. Senate. Future articles will deal with Ohio, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania.)

By RELMAN MORIN

NEW YORK (AP) — New York's senatorial election at this late stage is still a guessing-game, based on the effect of elements as elusive as quicksilver and the answers to some key questions.

Will the "magic name" carry Robert F. Kennedy to victory over his Republican opponent, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating?

* * *

Certainly, it has brought out huge, emotionally aroused crowds. In Glens Falls, at 1 a.m., for example, people were still lining the streets, some wearing night clothes, to see Kennedy. He has had tremendous exposure to voters since the first moments of his campaign.

* * *

It is anybody's guess as to how much of this frenzy will translate into votes on Nov. 3. Kennedy thinks a fraction of it will.

NO SUPPORT FOR BARRY

What has been the effect of Keating's refusal to support Sen. Barry Goldwater, the GOP candidate for president?

"There are fundamental differences of viewpoint," Keating said when he declined to endorse the national ticket.

* * *

Democratic leaders in two communities of upstate New York told this correspondent they believed Keating's action would win over some Democratic votes. "You hear a lot of talk from people who say they like what Keating did about Goldwater," they said.

President Johnson is expected to carry New York by a mighty margin. The New York Daily News, announcing the first findings in its presidential straw poll last week, said the survey showed Johnson running three-to-one ahead of Goldwater.

STRAIGHT TICKET

Question: How many New Yorkers who vote for Johnson will simply pull the lever for a straight Democratic ticket, thus also casting a ballot for Kennedy? And how many others will split the ticket to vote for Keating?

Said a Ntw York City technician: "In our family, we're Irish and Democrats but we're for Keating as a matter of principle. Bobby Kennedy may be a good man but he doesn't belong here."

* * *

Said a printer in Wantagh, L.I., "everybody in the shop and the union is for Johnson and Kennedy, but most of my neighbors say they're for Johnson and Keating."

Republicans hopefully recall some notable instances of ticket-splitting. In 1962, Democrat Arthur Levitt was elected state controller by 790,000 votes while GOP Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was winning by 530,000.

SYMPATHY VOTE

If Kennedy receives a "sympathy vote" as the brother of the assassinated president, Keating may be the recipient of a "sympathy vote" on other grounds.

Said a woman in an electronics plant on Long Island, "Keating has done a good job and I don't like seeing a young whippersnapper come along and try to take it away from him."

* * *

The "carpetbagger" issue is a handicap to Kennedy. He was born in Massachusetts and lived in Virginia before moving to New York, where he had lived for a time many years ago. Keating twits him about this, saying "it's difficult to become an instant New Yorker," and, "there are people who have been waiting in line at the World's Fair longer than my opponent has been in New York."

CONSERVATIVE PARTY

But Keating has another handicap in the form of the Conservative party which has put up a senatorial candidate, Henry Paolucci. Paolucci, 43, is a professor of history and political science at Iona College, New Rochelle.

In the 1962 elections, the Conservatives cast 141,877 votes for their candidate for governor, and 116,151 votes for their senatorial candidate.

* * *

If the Keating-Kennedy contest is close, these 100,000-plus votes could spell the difference.

In a wealthy section of Long Island — and at a reception for Keating — a woman said, "Virtually everyone I know is for Goldwater and so they're furious at Keating. Some of them say they're going to vote for Paolucci but I think most of them will just stay home."

MINORITY DEMOCRATIC

The minority groups in New York are generally believed to vote Democratic. Thus, Kennedy should be the beneficiary of most of the support of these groups. But here, again, there may be a question in this election.

Keating has been active in the field of civil rights. He authored the Civil Rights Act of 1957 and aides say he contributed substantially to other such bills.

* * *

"Sure, I know that," said a Negro in Hempstead, L.I., "but most Negroes don't. They know what Kennedy and his brother did."

However, a Negro attorney in Harlem, Mrs. Cora T. Walker, said, "that was true earlier in the campaign but we've been getting the word around about Keating. There's a good deal of rethinking now." Mrs. Walker is a Republican.

NEGRO NEWSPAPER

The Negro newspaper, New York Amsterdam News, has endorsed Kennedy, saying he was "a great attorney general and we believe he will make a great senator."

Keating also was one of the early proponents of recognition of the State of Israel and his aides say he has worked consistently for assistance to the new nation.

* * *

At a meeting in a Jewish center in Flushing, L.I., which Keating attended, a Rabbi cited these efforts and said, "we Jews do not forget our friends."

In the hills outside Jerusalem, there is a grove of trees donated by Jews of Rochester, N.Y. as part of the Israeli reforestation program. At the request of the donors it is named "Keating Forest."

KENNEDY DRIVE

Kennedy is 38, trim, tailored, with all the Kennedy drive and determination. He took his pre-legal training at Harvard and then was graduated from the University of Virginia Law School. He went immediately into the criminal division of the Department of Justice.

In 1954, he became chief counsel for the McClellan committee. Its hearings on labor-management problems brought Kennedy a good deal of national attention.

* * *

He managed John F. Kennedy's 1952 campaign for senator from Massachusetts and the 1960 campaign for president.

In the present election battle, Kennedy has referred often to what he considers the principal achievements of the Kennedy-Johnson administration and to the actions of his late brother.

KEATING IS 64

Keating is 64. He has a ruddy complexion, blue eyes, grey hair worn long, and an incandescent smile.

Possibly to minimize the difference between his age and Kennedy's, he walks like a man late for the train. In one building, Keating sprinted up a flight of stairs, two steps at a time, leaving the rest of his party far behind.

* * *

At one time, he was a Latin teacher. When he was 20, he entered Harvard Law School and later joined a law firm.

He has been in Washington 18 years, first as a congressman and now as a senator.

STATEMENTS ON CUBA

He attracted national attention in the summer of 1962 when he began issuing statements about Russian activity on Cuba. On Aug. 15 of that year, he wrote the State Department calling for action. Later he spoke of the situation in Senate speeches.

Keating does not attract Kennedy-sized crowds. Where they have appeared in the same places, persons who said they saw both meetings said Keating's audiences were smaller. At a service clubs' luncheon, with places for 200, only half were filled for Keating.

* * *

In a speech, Kennedy can stir explosions of applause. Keating doesn't seem to try. He speaks in a dry tone, seldom shouting. Both men have a dry wit and use it to good advantage with their audiences.

Where does the race stand at is stage?

KENNEDY AHEAD

The New York Daily News poll had Kennedy ahead, three-to-two. Herbert Brownell, former attorney-general, now Keating's campaign director, says the senator is ahead by "a hair's breadth."

One of Keating's aides said 50 registered Democrats in a Long Island community had been reached by telephone. He said 23 declared for Keating, 13 for Kennedy with the remainder not saying. Another such telephone survey in north-central New York, the aide said, showed Keating with 43 per cent, Kennedy 28 per cent and the remainder not saying.

Frenchman Shuns Nobel Nomination

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Jean-Paul Sartre, French author, playwright and existentialist philosopher, has asked that he not be nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature, says the Stockholm newspaper Dagens Nyheter.

The newspaper, quoting informed sources, said Sartre had made his request in a note to the Royal Swedish Academy of Letters. The academy reportedly already has chosen Sartre for the award, to be announced Thursday.

A spokesman for the academy said he couldn't confirm or deny the reports.

High Negro Registration Boosts LBJ Illinois Hopes

CHICAGO (AP) — President Johnson, running ahead of Sen. Barry Goldwater in statewide straw polls, has been given a boost in Illinois, Democrats say, because more Negroes than ever are expected to vote in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

"That's the way it looks right now," said Thomas P. Sheehan, chairman of the Republican Central Committee in Cook County. "But at this point no one knows how many Negroes have been knocked off the poll lists. As we all know, they move around from week to week.

★ ★ ★

"They register an awful lot," Sheehan said, "but they get knocked off a lot, too."

An official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People estimated today that nearly 500,000 Negroes will vote in Chicago Nov. 3, about 100,000 more than voted in the 1962 congressional election.

99 PER CENT

And, said Granville Reed, Chicago NAACP branch program assistant, "99 per cent of them will vote for Johnson."

A NAACP-sponsored voter registration drive that began last winter boosted the number of registered voters by 39 per cent — or 108,639 potential voters — over the April primary figures.

The Chicago drive, part of a national registration program leaned heavily on community organizations, the Chicago Urban League and various civil rights groups, Reed said.

Reed estimated that 75 per cent of the eligible Negroes in Chicago are registered, "perhaps equal to the percentage of registered whites."

DOWN 92,000

Sidney T. Holzman, chairman of the Chicago Board of Election Commissioners, announced last week that registrations in the city had dropped to 2.1 million, down nearly 92,000 from 1960.

That drop, coupled with the gain in Negro registration, said Holzman, means "the Negro vote will be higher than in any previous election."

★ ★ ★

Negroes and other nonwhites comprise about 35 per cent of the city's 3.5 million residents. About 55 per cent of the state's 10.1 million citizens live in the Chicago (Cook County) area.

The Chicago Sun-Times straw polls indicate the President is favored by 75 per cent of the city's voters, well ahead of the late President John F. Kennedy's 1960 pace.

★ ★ ★

Kennedy, aided by a 309,000 vote plurality in Cook County, won Illinois' 26 electoral votes in 1960 by a slim 8,858 votes.

Mourn Deaths in Yugoslavia

Top Soviet Officers Died in Plane Crash

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — Yugoslavia today began two days of official mourning for Russia's top military officer, Marshal Sergei S. Biryuzov, and 17 other Soviet citizens killed in a plane crash yesterday.

Yugoslavs filed past the caskets of Biryuzov and six other generals who had been on their way to take part in Belgrade's liberation celebrations.

All seven of the officers had led Soviet forces in the battle for Belgrade against the Germans 20 years ago. The other 11 dead were crew members.

Biryuzov, who had been close to ousted Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, was named first deputy defense minister only three months ago. He had been chief of staff of the armed forces since early last year and held the post concurrently with his Defense Ministry job.

The four - engine Soviet turbo - prop plane struck fog-shrouded Mount Avala yesterday morning as it approached Belgrade.

HIT PEAK

It hit the 1,700-foot mountain about 400 feet from the top.

Peasants in the area reported hearing three explosions. They found the airliner on fire and the bodies burned beyond recognition.

The Yugoslav government appointed an investigating commission to find out the cause of the crash.

The three-day liberation ceremonies were cancelled and the two days of mourning proclaimed instead.

Little Known German Scores Upset in Winning Decathlon

Single Medal Won Monday by Marksman

Long American Hold on Decathlon Ends After 32 Years

TOKYO (AP) — American marksman Lones Wigger produced the United States only medal — a gold one — while little known Willi Holdorf of Germany scored an upset in winning the decathlon and Boston's John Thomas qualified for the high jump final in the Olympic games today.

Thomas then sounded a rare disquieting note in these Olympics by blasting American sports fans.

★ ★ ★

Wigger, an Army first lieutenant from Carter, Mont., produced the United States' only medal Tuesday when he scored a world record 1,164 points in winning the small-bore rifle three-position title.

MEDAL BREAKDOWN

His medal was the 72nd collected by the United States in these 18th modern Olympics. Russia added six to its collection and now has 55. The breakdown between the two dominant nations shows the United States with 32 gold, 21 silver and 19 bronze; Russia with 17 gold, 15 silver, 23 bronze.

★ ★ ★

Stealing the spotlight from the team struggle between the two titans, however, was the spectacular show of Holdorf, a sturdy, six-foot, 200-pound German physical education student.

He had to fight off the continuing challenge of countryman Hans-Joachim Walde and Russian Rein Aun, then withstand the closing rush of the favorite, the 1960 silver medalist and world record-holder C.K. Yang, before nailing down the decathlon championship and breaking America's 32-year-old domination of the event.

★ ★ ★

Holdorf scored 7,887 points under a recently changed scoring table for the gruelling, 10-event, two-day test.

SLIPPED BEHIND

Walde, in second most of the way, slipped to third when the Russian Aun won the 1,500-meter run, the final event. Aun finished with 7,842 points and the silver medal, Walde with 7,809.

★ ★ ★

Paul Herman of Santa Barbara, Calif., was fourth with 7,787.

The big surprise was the decline of Yang, the veteran Nationalist Chinese by way of UCLA, who was the heavy favorite. He started the final day in ninth place and made a gallant run at the German before fading.

★ ★ ★

Yang closed to sixth on a 15-1 pole vault, then to fourth on a 223-7 javelin throw, but was just too far back and finished in fifth place with 7,650 points.

Russ Hodge of Roscoe, N.Y., was ninth with 7,325 and Dick Emberger, Oceanside, Calif., 10th with 7,292.

★ ★ ★

Wigger's rifle record produced the seventh medal contributed by a surprisingly strong U.S. shooting team and marked his second medal. Earlier, he had taken second in the small-bore rifle prone position.

Prep Gridder Is Rattled After TD

BAMBERG, S. C. (AP) — Bamberg High School tackle Donald Pressley did a hand stretch to the ground just before his team kicked off to Blackville Monday night after a third quarter touchdown.

He found himself grabbing a rattlesnake by the middle.

Pressley let go in a hurry with a yelp.

The rattler, about three feet long, was dispatched with a down marker.

Ex-Cowboy Gibbs Reported Strong Possibility

Lions May Find Solution to QB Problem in UFL

POSSIBILITY — Sonny Gibbs, former TCU All-America quarterback now playing with Toledo of the United Football League is considered as a possibility to be Earl Morrall's replacement with the Lions.

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

Faced with the serious problem of finding another quarterback to replace the injured Earl Morrall and getting an understudy for Milt Plum, the Detroit Lions were reported looking to the United Football League for a replacement.

The quarterback who has caught the Lions' eye is former TCU All-America and the No. 1 draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1961, Sonny Gibbs now with the Toledo Tornadoes of the UFL.

Gibbs, who stands 6-feet-7 and weighs 230 pounds, was cut by Dallas this year after he failed to play in a single play during the entire 1963 season as a rookie.

Currently, Toledo is in 3rd place in the four-team Western Division of the UFL and Gibbs' passing has been far from impressive in seven games.

LOW PER CENT

He has thrown 122 passes and completed only 48 for 759 yards and four touchdowns for .393 per cent and he has had 14 interceptions, the highest percentage in the league.

★ ★ ★

The UFL has some top former collegiate quarterbacks in its ranks including former Western Michigan star Ed Chlebek at Grand Rapids; Ron Miller, former Wisconsin star once with the Los Angeles Rams now at Charleston; Ron DeGravio formerly of Purdue at Indianapolis and Ivan Toncic, ex-Pitt star at Wheeling.

★ ★ ★

Chelbek has the best passing mark in the UFL having completed 130 to 250 passes for 1,299 yards and 10 TD's in seven games.

Another possibility could be former Bay City Central and U. of D. ace Jerry Gross, a former Cleveland draft choice, who was one of the nation's top passers while in college.

Gross was snubbed because of his height, but it was readily admitted he was one of the most accurate passers and scrambling quarterbacks in college.

Other possibilities in the hat could be George Bork outstanding Northern Illinois passer now in Canada; Galen Hall, ex-Penn Stater who was with Washington one season and is now assistant coach at West Virginia; Glen Griffing, released this year by the Giants.

Of course the Lions could always try to lure Bobby Layne, Eddie LaBaron or Lamar McHan out of retirement but this is highly improbable.

There are a few teams in the NFL with three quarterbacks, namely the Rams, Giants, Eagles, Steelers and Redskins but again no trades can be made after the 5th game thereby eliminating such a possibility.

To add a free agent or player from another league the Lions will have to drop four players. Morrall and possibly Dick Lane would be on the injured reserve list, leaving two others to be trimmed.

★ ★ ★

Under the new NFL 40-player rule, any player who is placed on injured reserve cannot play for the season but he must be counted as part of the roster. A team can add a player only if the squad is down to 36 and the added player would make the roster 37.

With the powerful Baltimore Colts, leading the Lions in the Western Division by only a half game, coming to Tiger Stadium Sunday, the Detroit offensive line must now set up a solid screen around Plum to protect him from the rushes of Gino Marchetti, Ordell Brasse, Don Shinnick and others.

The Lions and the Colts are on the opposite sides of NFL statistical columns. Detroit's defense having given up only 71 points in six games, has run roughshod over opposing quarterbacks, while the Colts offense is rolling over foes with 203 points in six encounters.

★ ★ ★

Among the Baltimore scalps are two Green Bay Packer triumphs, both of which came as result of missed or blocked kicks of Paul Hornung.

Hornung missed the extra point in the first Baltimore game won by the Colts 21-20 and last Sunday with the Packers leading 21-17, his field goal attempt was blocked in the final minute and the Colts then scored to win 24-21.

With the offensive unit hampered by Morrall's loss, the rough Lions' defense is planning to put forth its utmost effort against the Colts.

★ ★ ★

"We've got to have the supreme effort from everyone, offense and defense," said veteran co-captain Joe Schmidt to his teammates en route home from Chicago on the United charter Sunday.

Shaken but not demoralized by Morrall's injury, the Lions know their "supreme effort" may have to resemble the famous Turkey Day roast they enjoyed against the Packers in 1962 and as Schmidt indicated they may be due for an encore.

SPORTS

Yanks Name Keane Skipper

New York Position Test for Field Boss

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Keane, who qualified to manage the New York Yankees by whipping them in a World Series, is a poised but fiery Irishman with a knack for knowing ball players. He is more in the mold of the brisk, business-like Joe McCarthy or Ralph Houk than Yogi Berra, the man he succeeds.

★ ★ ★

His talent for commanding the loyalty of ball players will be tested in New York as never before in his career. He takes over an uneasy club in which player dissatisfaction helped ease Berra out of his job after one year and one pennant.

Keane's faith in his players helped bring the world championship this season to St. Louis.

Bob Gibson who won two games in the Series for the Cards credits Keane with the faith to make him a starter after he faltered in his first major league years. Keane's faith brought 39-year-old relief artist Barney Schultz out of the minors and into a major role in the Cardinal rush that won the National League pennant.

Keane recommended that the Cardinals obtain Roger Craig from the New York Mets in a trade after the pitcher had lost 18 games with the Mets. He remembered Craig from the minors.

★ ★ ★

Craig returned the favor with a brilliant relief victory against the Yankees in the Series' fourth game.

The 53-year-old former infielder, who never played in the majors, spent 35 years working for the Cardinals. At the height of his glory, piloting a Cardinal team to a World Series, he dictated a letter of resignation to his wife, Lela, and waited to present it to his boss, August Busch, Jr., after the Series ended.

Keane, who let his players make the noise during the Series, took the play away from them with his abrupt act.

He was a .300 hitter in the low minors. When he reached Houston in 1935 a Sig Jakucki pitch struck his head and put him in the hospital in a coma for six weeks.

News Gatherings Set Concerning Braves

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Keane was named manager of the New York Yankees today.

Keane, who resigned as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals only 19 hours after leading them to a World Series victory over the Yankees, succeeds Yogi Berra, who was fired despite winning a pennant in his first year as manager.

★ ★ ★

Keane is the 18th Yankee manager and their fourth in the last five years.

General Manager Ralph Houk, who announced Keane's signing at a giant press conference at a midtown hotel, said the 52-year-old Keane had been given a one-year contract.

PAY BOOST

Terms were not disclosed but it is believed Keane will receive around $45,000. The grey-haired Texan was paid $35,000 by the Cards this past season, when he led the team to the Series championship, climaxing his 35th year in professional baseball.

The Cards won the Series in the seventh game last Thursday and Keane quit the next day in a stunning move.

★ ★ ★

"This is a great day for the Yankees," said Houk. "We are mighty happy and proud to have John join our organization. We hope he will be with us for a long time to come.

In rapid fire developments Monday, Fred Hutchinson resigned as manager of the Cincinnati Reds and was succeeded by Dick Sisler, and Harry (The Hat) Walker was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates to succeed Danny Murtaugh.

★ ★ ★

Will the Milwaukee Braves move to Atlanta? The answer is expected to be forthcoming Wednesday in a meeting of the Milwaukee board of directors in Chicago. A news conference has been called for 11:30 a.m. EST, Wednesday.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat said in its Tuesday edition that Red Schoendienst, former star second baseman, is expected to be named the new Cardinal manager within three days.

★ ★ ★

The resignation of Hutchinson and the signing of Sisler was not a surprise. Hutchinson, ill with cancer, took a leave of absence on Aug. 13 and Sisler managed the Reds the rest of the season. Officially Hutchinson's resignation does not take effect until next spring so he can draw a full pension.

★ ★ ★

Walker, in signing a one year contract to replace Murtaugh who quit because of ill health, managed the Cardinals for part of the 1955 season after Eddie Stanky was let go.

Kent Douglas of NHL Leafs Regains Form

MONTREAL (AP)—Kent Douglas, who won rookie of the year honors two years ago with the Toronto Maple Leafs but slumped so badly in his sophomore season that he had to be farmed out, leads the National Hockey League scorers, statistics showed today.

★ ★ ★

Douglas has one goal and seven assists for eight points, two better than last year's scoring champion, Chicago's Stan Mikita.

Four other Leafs are among the league's top 11 point makers. Red Kelly, a member of Parliament who was Canada's official representative to the Tokyo Olympics and returned just in time to open the season, has three goals and two assists for third place. Frank Mahovlich, Dave Keon and Don McKenney are tied with five other players with four points apiece.

Syracuse Tops in East

NEW YORK (UPI) — Syracuse University got a perfect rating to lead in Lambert Trophy balloting, the symbol of eastern college football supremacy, ahead of second-place Villanova.

John Thomas Takes Aim at Win-or-Else People

TOKYO (AP) — An embittered John Thomas said Tuesday American sports fans are "blood-thirsty" and can be compared to the thumbs-down galleries that cried for death in the days of the Roman gladiators.

"They have no use for losers," the Boston high jumper added. "They don't give credit to man for trying. They have appreciation only for the champion, the man who finishes first."

The towering Negro admitted he feels deserted going into the Olympic high jump finals Wednesday when he will seek to wipe out the memory of his disappointing showing at Rome in 1960.

DOESN'T CARE

"I don't care what the people think," he said. "I am on my own. I can't trust fans and supposed well-wishers any more. They are fickle and vascillating.

"If I win, they're with me. If I lose, they're the first to desert me and call me a bum."

Thomas goes into the high jump the underdog to the two Russians, defending champion Robert Shavliakadze and Valery Brumel.

★ ★ ★

It's different than in Rome four years ago when he was regarded as the biggest cinch of the Games, a man who cleared seven feet as easily as stepping off a curb.

Instead, Shavliakadze won at 7-1, with Brumel second and Thomas third, although both cleared seven feet.

"I felt proud at getting a bronze medal," Thomas said. "But everybody else thought I was a goat. People who had been slapping me on the back ignored me as if I had a plague. I was called a quitter, a man with no heart. It left me sick."

PUBLIC CHANGES

Thomas said he had nightmares for months after this experience but soon learned to accept it as the changeable character of the American public.

"American spectators are frustrated athletes," he added. "They'd like to be champions, but can't. So they sit in the stands and cheer the champion and ridicule the loser.

"In the champion, they see what they'd like to be. In the loser, they see what they actually are, and they treat him with scorn."

Thomas recalled that he was only 19, competing in his first Olympics, when he failed at Rome.

"That's why I want so hard to win the high jump. I'd like to show those people who criticized me. But I'm not worrying about them. I'm worrying only about myself."

DEALS HIMSELF OUT — Branch Rickey, whose resignation last night as a player consultant for the St. Louis Cardinals followed closely on the heels of the resignation of manager Johnny Keane, is seen relaxing in the Florida sun.

Branch Rickey Also Leaves Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Branch Rickey, baseball's old warhorse, resigned Monday as special consultant to the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and went into seclusion at a Florida hotel.

★ ★ ★

It was another astonishing development in a series of executive changes that have rocked the Cardinals since mid-August.

Neither Rickey nor key Cardinal personnel could be reached for comment, and there was little information in the terse, 15-word announcement of his exit:

"I have received Mr. Rickey's resignation as consultant to the St. Louis Cardinal baseball club," said General Manager Bob Howsam.

RECOMMENDED

Ironically, Howsam is the man Rickey personally recommended to replace the fired Bing Devine.

Rickey, 83, was contacted in Hollywood, Fla., but declined comment. He was understood to have spent much of the afternoon watching a workout of the Cardinals' Hollywood farm team and dictating to his secretary.

★ ★ ★

Howsam checked out of his St. Louis hotel. Cardinal President August A. Busch Jr. let his telephone ring unanswered as speculation soared over whether Rickey resigned or was fired.

The move had St. Louisans wondering, what next?

Busch had brought the bushy-browed, cigar-smoking Rickey back into the Cardinal organization about 19 months ago. No sooner had the cagey old-timer arrived, than small disputes developed between him and Devine.

FINED DEVINE

On Aug. 17, Busch fired Devine. Devine, general manager seven years and affiliated with the Cardinals 25 years, had been named baseball's Executive of the Year in 1963 by the Sporting News after the Cards finished second in the National League race.

Business Manager Art Routzong also was fired. Busch explained that he was disappointed and frustrated over the Cards' inability to win the pennant.

Devine went to New York as assistant to President George Weiss of the Mets. He had hardly settled into his new chair when Eddie Stanky, the Cardinals' director of player development, resigned to join Devine in a similar capacity with the Mets.

The next day the Cardinals announced that three veteran scouts had resigned. They also went to the Mets.

Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane, at the time, was reported on his way out. The word was that Busch had arranged to replace Keane with Leo Durocher, then a coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But the 53-year-old Keane, a 35-year man with the Cardinals, led the club to an amazing 11th-hour surge and St. Louis' first pennant and world championship in 18 years.

Friday — just 19 hours after the Cards won the World Series from the New York Yankees — Keane resigned. He said he was leaving because of "a lot of little things, none of them important."

Buffalo Shows Statistical Edge

Bills' Perfect Log Backed by Figures

NEW YORK (AP) — The Buffalo Bills, who sport professional football's only perfect record, showed why in American Football League statistics released today.

* * *

The Bills, who have won six straight games, top the AFL in six of the eight team statistical categories. The New York Jets, who boast the AFL's top rusher in rookie Matt Snell, lead the other two team categories.

Buffalo leads the total offense with 2,382 yards gained. Broken down the yardage comes to 1,526 through the air and 856 on the ground. Both figures are tops in their respective divisions as well.

The Bills, with Daryle Lamonica and Jackie Kemp doing the passing, have averaged 254 yards a game with 83 completions in 168 attempts. Cookie Gilchrist paces the running game which has produced 142 yards a game on 215 attempts.

Buffalo has the best defense, yielding just 243.5 yards per game. The Bills also boast the league's top passing defense and were the least penalized club.

Proud Coach Tips Hat to Olympic Thinclads

TOKYO (UPI) — Bob Giegengack, proud coach of Uncle Sam's triumphant tracksters, tipped his Olympic cap to them Tuesday for their superb performances so far although he pointed out there has been plenty of heartbreak mixed in with the gold medals.

* * *

"Everyone on the squad has done everything thats been asked of him even though the pressure has been fantastic from the very beginning," said the 57-year-old Yale mentor who has been coaching 33 years.

"We can all be proud that not a single member of our squad has cracked under the pressure," he added.

"The spirit has been marvelous and there hasn't been a single case of misbehavior on anyone's part."

The only drawback is that there aren't enough gold medals to go around, Giegengack said, and that's where the heartbreak comes in.

"There are only 22 track and field events plus two relays," he explained. "That means there are 30 gold medals to be given out. It also means there can be only 30 truly happy individuals out of the thousands competing since all have the same objective.

CONSOLATION PRIZES

"In a sense, the silver and bronze medals are consolation prizes. When one of our fellows wins one, I never know whether to congratulate him or console him. You know these boys are heartbroken but gentlemen don't show it."

Despite what Giegengack says, that isn't always the case.

Blaine Lindgren of Salt Lake City, Utah, admits he cried after finishing second to teammate Hayes Jones in Sunday's 110-meter hurdles and Ralph Boston of Covina, Calif., was precariously close to tears after having to settle for the silver medal in the long jump.

* * *

"It's been a long time since I cried, but I'm not ashamed to say I did after Jones beat me," the lanky, 25-year-old Lindgren confessed. "What hurt was that I lost the race because of a stupid mistake. I started leaning toward the tape too quickly but I'll never make the same mistake again."

Notre Dame Sought for Sugar Bowl

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Sugar Bowl is seriously considering Notre Dame as one of its teams for the 1965 classic here and plans to send a committee to South Bend, Ind., this Saturday to see the Irish play Stanford.

* * *

"I'd vote for taking Notre Dame and Louisiana State right at this moment and gamble on their records in the last half of the season," said one member of the Mid-Winter Sports Association, sponsor of the Sugar Bowl.

Another Sugar Bowler said that the unofficial response from Notre Dame has been encouraging.

Both Notre Dame and LSU are undefeated and both are nationally ranked.

* * *

"Notre Dame has given us reason enough to believe it might be seriously interested," said still another Sugar Bowl official.

All asked not to be quoted by name.

MAY CHANGE

Notre Dame has had a long-standing anti-bowl policy in the past. However, since Notre Dame's football fortunes have been down for so many years, it is understood that the university would like to make an exception this year.

Ara Parseghian, the new Notre Dame coach, has always looked favorably on post-seasoß games.

Because of the integration question, the Sugar Bowl has had only Southern and Southwestern teams in recent years.

* * *

LSU hasn't appeared in the Sugar Bowl since 1959 and the Tigers flatly rejected a trip to New Orleans — only 90 miles away from their Baton Rouge campus—for New Year's Day, 1961 in favor of an Orange Bowl bid.

Canada Takes Lead of Penn Horse Show

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Canada soared into the unofficial team lead in international jumping competition at the Pennsylvania National Horse Show Monday night behind 18-year-old Jim Day, aboard The Comet.

Day rode the brown gelding flawlessly around an intricate, serpentine course twice and edged Mexico's Rafael Jiminez, riding Gaylor by a heartbreaking four-tenths of a second.

Placing third in the Pennsylvania 28th Infantry Division trophy competition was Day's teammate, Jim Elder, on Beefeater.

The 1-3 finish gave the Canadians 24 points in the unofficial team standings, 12 points above the United States. Three other nations are competing in the week-long show.

Bill Robertson, 23, of Darien, Conn., a former Golden Gloves boxer, rode The Sheriff to a fourth place finish to save the United States from a shutout in Monday night's competition.

* * *

Day, a freshman majoring in architecture at the University of Toronto, could do no wrong, clearing eight hurdles in the first round and six more in the second with only one close call.

Racing against time and cutting corners when it counted the most, the youngster came up with a spectacular 26.5 seconds on the second round when time was the factor.

He was followed by Jiminez, who knew the time he had to beat. Coming to the last series of jumps, a difficult in-and-out barrier. The crowd sensed the Mexican had a chance, but on the approach, Jiminez' horse hesitated momentarily and lost valuable time, finishing in 26.9 seconds.

Day, who finished second Saturday night on Mr. Dunahee and tied for third on The Comet, took over the individual lead with 20 points.

* * *

Jiminez and James Saurino of the United States, Saturday night's winner, were tied for second with 10 points apiece.

Brazil made its first appearance Monday night after its four horses were brought to the United States by emergency airlift. The ship on which the horses originally were to be transported to this country was struck by a hurricane off the coast of South America.

The debut of the Brazilians, however, was disappointing. Dr. Gianni Samaja, aboard Mr. Jim suffered eight faults, knocking down two barriers in the first round.

Mexico on the strength of Jiminez' ride nailed down third place in over-all team scoring with 10 points. Argentina and Brazil were both scoreless after the second day of jumping.

The COMPLETE BOWLER

By RAY BLUTH
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
For bowling poise and stability—both mental and physical—give me that wonderful grandaddy of them all, Buzz Fazio.

BUZZ FAZIO takes the perfect position for the start of his delivery.

He is as well balanced as an apothecary's scales throughout his entire delivery.

Careful study of Buzz' form over the years has convinced me that his smooth swing and delivery stems from a sound beginning. Before he even begins his pushaway Fazio looks smooth. His standing position is well night perfect.

Buzz stands easily, with his feet pointed straight ahead. The weight of his body is evenly distributed. He is firm, but not rigid, relaxed but not limp.

Before he even begins to swing Buzz looks as comfortable as a statesman in a rocking chair.

Operating from a start like that, it is small wonder the little guy has been dominant on the bowling scene for more than 30 years.

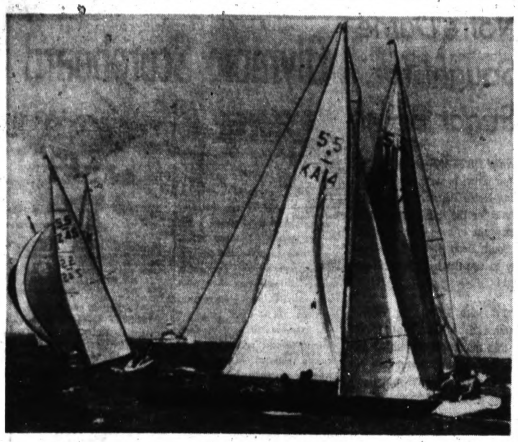
Promoters Renege on Las Vegas Title Fight



AP Photofax

ROYALTY IN RACE — Norway's Fram III (N27), skippered by Crown Prince Harald, maneuvers past Australia's KA14 in the fifth race of yesterday's 5.5 meter class Olympic yachting race at Enoshima, Japan. The Norwegian craft finished 10th.

Middleweights to Delay Bout

No Guarantees Paid Giardello, Carter

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The world's middleweight title bout between champion Joey Giardello and Rubin (Hurricane) Carter scheduled for Friday night has been called off and the possibility of a fight between the two remained in doubt today.

★ ★ ★

In essence, the local Silver State Boxing Club failed to come up with a guarantee of $55,000 — $42,500 for Giardello and $12,000 for the challenger.

All in all, it was a complicated three-way promotion between the Silver State Club, Nationwide Sports, Inc., and Telescript, Inc., which was supposed to handle a national closed circuit telecast of the fight.

BASIC ISSUE

There were many ramifications presented before the Nevada Athletic Commission Monday night, but the basic issue was:

The local promoters had been told last Wednesday to come up with certified checks but did not produce.

★ ★ ★

There were late-minute compromises, but the Giardello forces insisted on the complete terms of the contract, namely the $55,000 in certified checks.

"I will not let my fighter go into the ring without the money," said Arnold Giovanetti, adviser for the champion.

"We have a contract and we demand that it be fulfilled," argued Mike Del Collo, Philadelphia attorney.

FIRST CRACK

Del Collo represents Nationwide Sports, which had a share in the promotion.

★ ★ ★

Giardello's adviser assured the commission that Carter would be given the first crack at the title when a new date was agreed upon.

The closed circuit television company had promised Giardello $60,000 if the fight went on, but Executive Secretary James Deskins said he had been advised that the telephone line charges for such a hookup had not been paid, although they had been ordered.

★ ★ ★

This, however, according to the commission, had nothing to do with the basic agreement concerning live audience gate receipts for Giardello and Carter.

"Carter deserves a fight and we will give him a first crack at it," Giovanetti told the commission.

Cassius Will Win, Says His Trainer

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Cassius Clay's trainer, Angelo Dundee, said Monday that Clay will beat Sonny Liston in Boston Nov. 16 "no matter what shape Clay is in."

★ ★ ★

"Liston made two bad mistakes in his life," Dundee said. "The first one was when he fought Clay before and the second one is fighting him again."

Dundee said the heavyweight boxing champ without a crown —removed by the World Boxing Association—was "not available for words." But he stepped into the Louisville Lip's role with flying colors.

Bay City Central Tops 'A'

Dryden Moves in Prep Ratings

By the Associated Press

Portland captured first place in Class C-D and the races remained tight for high ranking in the other two classes in this week's high school football poll conducted by The Associated Press.

Bay City Central continued the leader in Class A, although three other schools are threatening. Kingsford remained the best team in Class B.

The standings among the state's smallest schools (C-D) once again had the biggest shakeup. All 10 teams either were in new positions in the top ten or were new to the standings.

DOWN ONE

Akron-Fairgrove dropped to second and Middleville advanced a notch to third in C-D. Adrian Catholic improved by two places to take fourth and Dryden leaped from tenth to fifth.

St. Charles, Watervliet and Homer took the last three places, replacing Galesburg-Augusta, Frankenmuth and New Haven.

★ ★ ★

East Lansing, Traverse City an Flint Central continued their fight to dethrone Bay City.

The AP's statewide panel of sports writers and sportscasters give Bay City a 17-point bulge in the voting. Traverse City was just three points behind East Lansing for second place; Flint Central was solidly entrenched in fourth.

LOSES PLACE

In the only moves in this class, Lansing Everett jumped one spot to fifth, Lincoln Park went from ninth to sixth and Saginaw Arthur Hill dropped four places to ninth after bowing to Bay City.

Kingsford (7-0) and Hillsdale (5-0) made it a two team race in Class B. Cadillac, Buchanan and Albion rounded out the top five.

Northwestern Ready to 'Bounce' at MSU

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — The Wildcats of Northwestern, saddled with a three-game losing streak because of a leaky pass defense, are aiming to get back on the winning trail at Michigan State.

★ ★ ★

"We're going to bounce back somewhere along the line," said coach Alex Agase. "I don't know if it will be this week or not but we're going to catch up to somebody."

Northwestern opened its season with a 7-3 victory over Oregon State and then edged Indiana 14-13. Since then, however, the Wildcats fell before Illinois and Fred Custardo 17-6; Minnesota and John Hankinson 21-18 and Miami of Ohio and Ernie Kellermann 28-27.

BIG PROBLEM

Pass defense has been the big problem with Custardo, Hankinson, and Kellermann helping boost the averge of completions against Northwestern to 61 per cent. However, the Wildcats also have been plagued by a lack of conversions.

Missed extra points were costly in both the Minnesota and Miami defeats, forcing the Wildcats to try for two points and fail on several occasions.

★ ★ ★

Agase indicated that he will replace Dean Dickie, the kicking specialist, with Dave Milam who is also the team's No. 2 quarterback behind Tom Myers.

Myers is not enjoying a good season. He has completed 43 of 95 attempts for 611 yards and two touchdowns but five of his passes have been intercepted.

BEST RUNNER

Steve Murphy, a hard-hitting fullback, is the team's leading ground gainer with 264 yards in 70 attempts and 3.7 average. He also leads in scoring with 30 points.

Ron Rector is the No. 2 runner with 170 yards in 40 attempts and a 4-2 average. Cas Banaszek is the main pass catching threat with 15 receptions for 193 yards.

MSU Defense Knee High in Leg Injuries

EAST LANSING (AP)—Injuries, particularly of the knee type and especially to the defensive unit, are bothering the Michigan State football squad this week.

The accumulation of hurts, gathered over four games, means the Spartans won't have either top "go" or "stop" power against Northwestern in the homecoming game this weekend.

★ ★ ★

Those bothered by knee and leg injuries on the defensive unit include end George Webster and Doug Roberts, linebacker Ed Macuga and linebacker-center Buddy Owens.

Halfback Harry Ammon still is bothered by the heel injury that kept him from making the trip to Indiana.

Ailing Wolverines Return to Squad

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Michigan's offensive guard Dave Butler and halfback Jim Detwiler returned to practice Monday, helping restore some balance to the injury-riddled football team.

Butler had suffered bruised ribs and Detwiler a bruised nose in the Wolverines' 21-20 loss to Purdue Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, doctors reported knee injuries suffered during the game by starting guard Rick Hahn and starting linebacker Barry Dehlin would keep both players out for the season. Three other Wolverine starters earlier were lost for the season because of injuries.

The team worked out Monday in intermittent rain and hail, stressing its ground game to prepare for Saturday's contest with Minnesota.

Ohio State Now Tops AP Rating

Baseball managers aren't the only ones riding an un-merry go-round this fall. The nation's college football powers have been playing musical chairs since the season's opening whistle, with Ohio State the latest to claim a precarious perch atop the shambles.

★ ★ ★

Ohio State's fourth straight victory, a 17-0 shutout of Southern California, coupled with Arkansas' 14-13 upset of top-ranked Texas pushed the Buckeyes into first place in The Associated Press weekly poll today and dropped the Longhorns to sixth.

The Buckeyes, No. 2 a week ago, drew 35 of 44 first-place votes in the balloting of writers and broadcasters for a commanding lead over fast-rising Notre Dame. Ohio State netted 447 points to 380 for the runner-up Irish. Third-ranked Alabama received five first-place votes, Notre Dame and fourth-ranked Arkansas, two each.

FOUR STRAIGHT

The Irish made it four in a row by blanking UCLA 24-0 and Alabama trimmed Tennessee 19-8 for victory No. 5.

★ ★ ★

Of the top ten teams in the AP's pre-season poll, only four — Ohio State, Alabama, Texas and Syracuse — remain on the select list and only the Buckeyes and Crimson Tide still are unbeaten.

Mississippi, No. 1 in the original balloting, has slipped from contention along with Oklahoma, Illinois, Auburn, Navy and Washington.

★ ★ ★

Texas, its unbeaten string snapped at 15 games by the rugged Razorbacks, fell a notch behind fifth-ranked Nebraska, which walloped Kansas State 47-0.

The top ten teams with first place votes in parentheses, won-lost records and points on a 01-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1.	Ohio State (35)	4-0 447
2.	Notre Dame (2)	4-0 380
3.	Alabama (5)	5-0 365
4.	Arkansas (2)	5-0 297
5.	Nebraska	5-0 239
6.	Texas	4-1 194
7.	Louisiana State	4-0 174
8.	Syracuse	4-1 123
9.	Florida	4-0 82
10.	Florida State	5-0 64

Gomer Jones Effigy Victim

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Gomer Jones, in his first season as head football coach at the University of Oklahoma, was hanged in effigy early Monday.

University police cut the dummy loose Monday morning after it was discovered hanging from a tree about 30 feet high.

★ ★ ★

The Sooners have won only one game in four outings this season, but still are among the favorites in the Big Eight Conference race.

Jones, who served for 17 years as OU line coach under Bud Wilkinson before moving up to the top job this season, did not appear to be disturbed. "You're not a coach unless you have been hung twice and fired once," he said.

KC Chiefs Ask Waivers

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs placed defensive back Charley Warner on waivers Monday.

Helms Hall-of-Fame Selects Al Wistert

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Al Wistert, star tackle of the university of Michigan 1940-41-42 football teams, was elected to the Helms Hall College Football Hall of Fame Monday.

★ ★ ★

Wistert was among a dozen to be honored, including Angelo Bertelli, Notre Dame quarterback of the 1940s, and Johnny Lattner, Notre Dame halfback of the 1950s.

Many Sidelined

Injuries Hit Big Ten

CHICAGO (AP) — Midwest football briefs:

Indiana—The Hoosiers will be without the services of linebacker Tom Erickson, who is sidelined with a fractured leg, for Friday night's game with Miami, Fla.

Wisconsin—Tackle Bob Richter suffered a dislocated elbow and will be out of action in the Ohio State game. Either junior Duncan Hoffman or Bill Weberspann will fill in for Richter.

★ ★ ★

Minnesota — Halfback Bill Crockett, tackle Fred Nord and end John Najala returned to action for Minnesota after being sidelined with injuries. John Hankinson, Gopher quarterback was back running with the first team.

Iowa — Halfback Jim Kallbreath was promoted to the varsity because of his running and blocking. Other Hawkeyes nursing minor injuries were expected to be ready for the Purdue game Saturday.

Purdue — Middle guard Bob Hopp will be out of action for the Iowa Hawkeyes. Hopp suffered an ankle sprain. Otherwise, the Boilermakers are in good shape for Saturday's game.

Illinois—The Illini are in top shape for their battle against UCLA. Players who suffered minor injuries against Minnesota will be ready for the Uclans.

Notre Dame — Quarterback John Huarte was given the game ball and was among those praised by coach Ara Parseghian for their play against UCLA. The Irish expect little trouble from Stanford Saturday.

Ohio State—No. 1 in the national standings, Ohio State worked to stop a rejuvenated Wisconsin ground attack.

North-South Golf Veteran Setting Pace

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Winning the medal in Monday's first round of qualifying for the North-South Seniors Invitational Golf Championship was a natural for Howard Creel of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Creel was 1961 and 1962 World Seniors champion and is captain of the 1964 U.S. World Seniors team.

His one-under-par 71 over the 7,051-yard No. 2 course at Pinehurst Country Club set the pace as an original field of 356 was whittled to 96 for today's second round of qualifying.

The low 16 scorers in today's qualifying will play in Wednesday's first round of championship flight match play.

Roland MacKenzie of Pinehurst shot 72 for runner-up honors Monday. Dr. John C. Mercer of Fitchburg, Mass., and George K. Whyte of Norotan, Conn., had 73s.

Key Interception in Waterford Play

The GLK team defeated the Oakland Raiders, 19-14, as Kirk Zuelch scored on a last-minute pass interception in Monday night Waterford Township Flag Football action.

Other results last night included a 26-0 shutout for the Nerds against the Vikings as Bob Sleva passed for all the points, and a 21-7 win for the Bruins over the Scrubs as Dave Giles scored two touchdowns and two PAT's.

Mike Williams scored twice in the GLK's close victory to offset the 14-point effort of Chuck Lee for the Raiders.

Like Old Times for Alice Faye

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD—Well, it looked just like old times with Alice Faye smiling as she walked down the runway and singing, "come on along, come on along, to Alexander's Ragtime Band."

THOMAS

No, this wasn't another of the endless television replays of the great 1938 musical she made with Tyrone Power and Don Ameche. This was Alice Faye 26 years later, looking just as blonde and beautiful and sounding the same mellow notes.

* * *

Alice was back for one of her periodic excursions from the great American desert to appear on a Hollywood Palace show that will appear on ABC Nov. 14. She seemed to be happy to be back in action once more, but the weather made her wonder: Was this trip necessary?

"Oh, the smog," she groaned. "I don't know how you people stand it. Yesterday I was crying all through rehearsals. And the heat: Nothing is air conditioned here; there's no escape."

* * *

But she admitted that she enjoyed getting back into the routine, even though she was "pushed" into the Palace date. By whom?

"By Phil," she said, referring to her corn-pone hubby, Phil Harris. He likes to see her keep her hand in the entertainment scene.

PALM SPRING PIONEERS

The Harrises were pioneers among the Hollywood expatriates who have settled permanently in Palm Springs. Phil and Alice landed there 14 years ago. She admitted the danger of living year-around in a resort town — friends from the city are apt to drop in any time expecting to party.

* * *

Alice left the homestead three years ago to make her first film in 14 years, "State Fair." It marked a return to 20th Century-Fox, where she had made all her musicals — "On the Avenue," "Sing, Baby, Sing," "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Rose of Washington Square," "Hello, Frisco, Hello," etc.

NEVER SAW FILM

"I never saw 'State Fair' so I don't know how the picture turned out," Alice commented. "It was fun seeing the people I used to work with in the old days — the ones who were left. But I didn't enjoy working the way I used to. Everything is so cut and dried now."

* * *

Alice, now thrice a grandmother, says she and Phil will continue living on the desert — at least until the smog comes.

"I see it hanging over the mountains," she said. "I suppose it will get to us eventually. Then I don't know what we'll do."

Noted Biologist's Kin Is Working on Farm

KANSAS CITY (AP) — "I'm the black sheep of the family," said 20-year-old Susanna Huxley. "I've always been nuts for animals."

* * *

Miss Huxley, granddaughter of Sir Julian Huxley, famed British biologist and author, was explaining why she's working as a hand on industrialist Cyrus Eaton's farm in Ohio. She's in Kansas City to help groom cattle for the American Royal Livestock Show.

Opening lead—♠Q

By OSWALD JACOBY

The jump to two no-trump over partner's one over one response is just as much a picture bid as the one no-trump rebid. Needless to say, the picture is quite different even though it does show a no-trump distribution.

JACOBY

The one no-trump rebid shows less than an opening no-trump; the jump to two no-trump shows 18 or 19 points, which is just one or two points more than a maximum opening no-trump.

In this situation, if responder doesn't like his hand he must pass and let his partner suffer at two no-trump, since opener will bid again over any below game call.

South's jump to two no-trump is the perfect rebid with his hand. North's raise to three no-trump illustrates a principle of bidding that all players should learn. That principle is that you don't hang one trick short of game when you have any excuse whatsoever to go on. North really had to look around to find that excuse, but it was there. His partner had opened the bidding with one club, and North felt that his jack of clubs might turn out to be a key card.

North won right on all counts. The jack of clubs insured four club tricks. Four club tricks plus three aces and two kings gave South about as easy a three no-trump as anyone ever had.

A—Bid one no trump. You have a no-trump pattern and don't like either of your partner's suits.

Coppers Continue Strong

Mart Shows General Advance

NEW YORK (AP) — Coppers continued strong and other industrials joined in a general stock market advance early this afternoon. Trading was fairly active.

Stock market averages were heading into record high ground again and trading for the year on the New York Stock Exchange passed the billion-share mark earlier than last year, which was a record for turnover.

★ ★ ★

The coppers were resuming their rally of yesterday on peak world prices for the red metal.

The auto stocks perked up following a pledge by General Motors and the auto union that they will try for a settlement of the 26-day GM strike as soon as possible.

OTHERS ADVANCE

Steels, rubbers, tobaccos, airlines, building materials and drugs joined in the advance.

Aerospace defense stocks — aside from United Aircraft which rose a point — simmered down following their recent advance on fears of increased international tension.

★ ★ ★

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .4 at 330.2, with industrials up 1.3, rails up .1 and utilities off .2.

Both averages were moving above their latest record closing peaks.

AUTOS UP

GM edged to the upside and Ford rose fractionally while Chrysler tacked on more than a point.

Prices rose in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange. Eastern States preferred "A" rose more than 2.

Up a point or better were Louisiana Land, Duval Corp., Crown Central Petroleum, Capital City Broadcasting and APL Corp.

Corporate and U.S. Government bonds showed a generally higher trend.

Says Barry, Keating Hurt JFK Policy in Cuba Crisis

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (UPI)—Roger Hilsman, former state department intelligence chief, yesterday accused Sen. Barry Goldwater and Sen. Kenneth B. Keating of almost upsetting President Kennedy's policies during the Cuban missile crisis.

Hilsman said that Goldwater, the GOP Republican aspirant, and Keating, running for reelection to the U.S. Senate, had engaged in "drum beating," criticism and belligerent calls for action throughout the Cuban crisis and on into the following year when the missiles were already removed.

Hilsman's charges were in reply to an article by Keating in the current issue of Look magazine.

In his article, Keating claimed the Kennedy administration had done nothing about detailed information he said he had obtained as early as October, 1962, about the Russian missile bases in Cuba.

★ ★ ★

"The facts that were available to me at that time as director of intelligence of the state department were somewhat different," Hilsman said.

NO EVIDENCE

"First, although many officials suspected that the Soviets might be putting missiles in Cuba . . . there was no evidence available to the U.S. government or any of its officials demonstrating this until the U2 flight on Oct. 14.

"Second, to my knowledge, Keating made no effort to give the U.S. government the information obtained by him . . . information which would have helped enormously in guiding the U2's.

"Sen. Keating has refused to give anyone the source of his information, although if his information was in fact something more than rumor, knowing the source of it obviously would have helped fill an urgent national security need to do all we can to improve our intelligence gathering efforts."

Hilsman said that the Keating article hints that someone down the line had kept higher officials in the dark.

"This is a serious charge," Hilsman said, "yet he refused to identify the official with whom he claimed to have 'verified' his information.

"Throughout the Cuban missiles crisis, from October on into 1963, long after the missiles were gone, Sen. Keating and his colleague, Sen. Goldwater, joined at every opportunity in criticizing what they termed 'do-nothing' policies and in issuing belligerent calls for 'action.'

"In fact Sen. Keating and Sen. Goldwater's drumbeating more than once came close to upsetting President Kennedy's policy of firmness and restraint — a policy that succeeded both in getting the Soviet missiles out of Cuba and in doing so without war."

Hilsman took the opportunity to praise the role of former attorney general Robert F. Kennedy in the Cuban crisis whom he said had "eloquently and persuasively argued against precipitate 'action'—against surprise bombing of the missile sites and in favor of blockade . . ."

Kennedy is Keating's Democratic opponent in the race for the U.S. Senate seat from New York.

Dismissal Denied in Baby Death

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A motion to dismiss a murder charge against Mrs. Irene Laubenthal, 39, of Grand Rapids in the death of her 3-month-old daughter, Jill, was denied Monday in Superior Court.

Judge Claude VanderPloeg gave no explanation for his ruling which ended approximately 45 minutes of oral argument by attorneys for prosecution and defense.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Laubenthal, mother of six children, remains free on $10,000 bond to await arraignment. Court-appointed defense counsel Harold Sawyer Jr. indicated he would appeal the denial to the State Supreme Court. Prosecutor James K. Miller said, meanwhile, that arraignment of the woman would be sought next Monday.

NO CAUSE OF DEATH

Sawyer contended in his motion for dismissal that the prosecution presented no cause of death, no evidence that death resulted from a crime and no showing of probable cause against the mother.

The burned body of the baby, seventh child in the Laubenthal family, was discovered Sept. 16 in a trash box outside the city's northeastern limits.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Laubenthal was bound over to Superior Court after police court examination Oct. 6 on the murder charge. Sawyer won her release from custody on a writ of Habeas Corpus heard a week ago by Circuit Court Judge Fred N. Searl.

Oklahoma University was the last football team to win the national college championship two years in succession in 1955-56. No team has since been able to repeat.

2 Jailed for Smuggling Arms

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Two Swedish lieutenants of the U.N. Cyprus peace force were sentenced to two years at hard labor Monday and stripped of their rank for smuggling arms to Turkish Cypriots. They said they acted from idealistic motives.

Lars W. Lindh, 27, and Helge Hjalmarsson, 28, were caught in the act in northwest Cyprus late in September and brought home for trial.

"Seeing how the Turks were hemmed in by superior enemies (Greek Cypriots), it was like giving help to drowning people or to starving children," Hjalmarsson said during the trial.

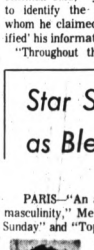
Star Sees 'Regular' Men as Blessings of Nature

By EARL WILSON

PARIS—"An actor cannot be a man . . . he cannot have real masculinity," Melina Mercouri, the Grecian sizzler of "Never on Sunday" and "Topkapi," declared with a defiant toss of her chinchilla hat as we were lunching here at the Relais-Plaza with all heads and ears turned to see and overhear the courageous star.



WILSON

"An actor must be a monster. To make a life with one would be two monsters living together. Imagine an actor doing a woman's work, always looking in the mirror. You look in your mirror if you're a woman and the man's looking in your mirror at the same time. UGH!"

Brave Miss Mercouri admitted that several prominent actors may resent her remarks. She admitted that to her, masculinity and man may be different than by other people's definitions.

"To me," she said, growing enthusiastic, "a real man is the greatest thing God ever made.

"By masculinity, I don't mean having a lot of girls around you . . . being a Don Juan.

"I mean loyalty, courage, honesty. I mean a man putting his arms around you, making you feel you're a woman . . . not punching you on the back like a pal."

★ ★ ★

Miss Mercouri then mentioned Tony Perkins and Sir Laurence Olivier as among the loyal, courageous, honest friends she would place in the masculinity class.

Other stars she has worked with or known well she shrugged off as "phonies" or "being unhappy" or "egotistical."

Death Claims Herbert Hoover

UF Is Nearing 30 Per Cent Mark in Drive

Campaign Chairman Emphasizes the Need for Citizen Support

After one week in full swing, the 1964 Pontiac Area United Fund campaign has reached the 29.4 per cent mark in its drive toward a goal of $815,500, UF officials announced today.

Bruce J. Annett, 1964 general campaign chairman, said overall receipts to date total $240,325.

Along with the announcement, Annett emphasized the need for citizens to get behind the drive which supports 55 health, family, youth and research agencies serving the six township areas included in the drive.

The industrial division received a boost late last week with the General Motors corporate gift of $150,000 bringing industrial totals to 27.5 per cent of the $546,500 goal of this campaign division, according to Charles F. Brown, UF industrial chairman.

★ ★ ★

The commercial division heads the list for early returns.

★ ★ ★

Jack Brannack, chairman, reported $77,930.00 or 39 per cent of this division's $223,642 quota reached. Within the commercial division, chapter plan teams, consisting of firms of 10 or more employes, have reached 42 per cent of their quota.

Of these, Brannack cited Pontiac Retail Store employes' gift which was up 5½ per cent.

The women's group, under Mrs. Merrill Petrie, reported $6,990 during the first of four telephone report dates set during their 10-day residential drive.

★ ★ ★

The women hope to meet their quota of $31,698 by Oct. 23. Mrs. Petrie reports 1,500 volunteers have been recruited in this year's residential canvass in Pontiac, Waterford, Independence, and Orion townships.

INSIGNIFICANT RETURNS

Advance gifts and other campaign units have not had significant returns thus far. Report sessions for these groups will be held later in the week, Annett stated.

★ ★ ★

The drive, which began Oct. 13, is scheduled to end Nov. 6.

Barry Asks About Jenkins; LBJ Schedules More Trips

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater wages his presidential campaign on three fronts today after asking for an FBI report on "possible security factors" involved in the case of resigned White House aide Walter W. Jenkins.

The Republican presidential nominee planned to spend the day recording a television speech dealing with foreign policy and developments in the Communist world.

He hits the road again tonight for an address at Pikesville, Md. He canceled a speech in Baltimore and postponed until Oct. 26 another at Salisbury to prepare the television show.

He is due to apptar on nationwide television for a half-hour tonight to talk about morality in government.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, President Johnson is reported scheduling a series of home-stretch campaign trips.

WILL APPEAR

Subject to the priorities of the presidential job, he is understood to have told his campaign lieutenants he will attempt to make personal appearances in all areas where they believe such campaigning will boost his vote total.

The president's obvious aim is not only to defeat Goldwater but to rout his Republican opponent.

This involves direct attacks on Goldwater's position in areas where the GOP strategists believe their candidate is strongest.

★ ★ ★

After a meeting tomorrow with his special advisory committee on foreign policy, Johnson is expected to take off again for Ohio. Goldwater has listed the Buckeye state as one he must carry if he is to win.

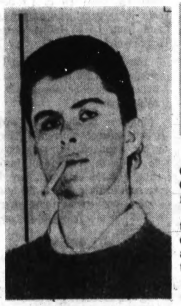
HIGHLY TENTATIVE

All of the President's schedules remain highly tentative. He is reported committed to visit New York, California and Michigan before the Nov. 3 voting.

★ ★ ★

In Michigan, the Democrats are worried that a lengthy strike of Detroit newspapers may hamper their local candidates and Johnson's chances of carrying that state with its 21 electoral votes.

Goldwater dealt openly with the Jenkins matter for the first time in a letter yesterday to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.



CANDY HUGHES

Male Party Crashed by Curvy Coed

BERKELEY, Calif.) (UPI)— Candy Hughes, a University of California coed with a 36-25-36 figure, is definitely all girl.

But, she disclosed yesterday, there apparently are a number of men on the campus who aren't capable of discovering that fact.

In a story for the student newspaper, Daily Californian, Miss Hughes disclosed that she slipped into an all-male smoker on the campus last Friday and spent two hours without being detected.

Miss Hughes, 19, of Anaheim, Calif., is a reporter for the student paper.

Her adventure started, she said, with a sign posted last week outside Harmon Gym: "Men's smoker — Absolutely no dames."

MAN'S WIG

Meeting the challenge, Miss Hughes stuck her long brown hair under a man's wig, applied a stubble of beard with theatrical gum, and put on trousers, tennis shoes and a baggy sweater.

Actually, she reported, it was not as exciting as one might expect. All in all, she decided, there's really no reason for other girls to follow her example.

"In fact," she said, "even the men should forget about them."

'No State Need for Income Tax'

Romney and Staebler on Campaign Trails

By The Associated Press

Gov. George Romney says Michigan has "no immediate need" for a state income tax.

Romney's Democratic gubernatorial rival, Neil Staebler, declares Michigan's mental health program is going at a "snail's pace."

Those were among observations by the two yesterday as they began the final fortnight of campaigning before the Nov. 3 election.

Romney talked about taxes at a news conference in Kalamazoo in which he said he could "see no immediate need' to recommend an income tax.

★ ★ ★

He said Michigan still needs fiscal alterations though part of this had been secured this year and that recommendations from a legislative committee are expected to suggest diversion of possible funds to local governments.

TAX REFORM

Romney's comment was in response to a question whether he would propose tax reform in 1965 if he were elected to a second term as governor. The legislature ditched his 1963 tax reform program.

Staebler assailed Romney's mental health policies in an appearance at Benton Harbor where he spoke to Whirlpool Corp. employes.

He said Romney has caused delay in mental health efforts by impeding organization of community health clinics which he called the best method for handling mental illness.

★ ★ ★

The Republican governor, he said, has increased the local financial support necessary to get such clinics started.

MORE EMPHASIS

Staebler also pledged a stepped-up traffic safety program with more emphasis on secondary roads and tighter licensing restrictions. He supported compulsory automobile inspection.

Of taxes, Romney called

Public Hearing Set Before Officials Vote on City Ordinance

Action on a Pontiac city income tax is slated for tonight by the City Commission.

The tax ordinance, similar to that of other Michigan cities, was introduced last week.

A public hearing will precede commission action on the ordinance, which must be passed before Nov. 1 to become effective by 1965.

The ordinance proposes a one per cent tax on the income of Pontiac residents and corporations and a half per cent levy

Should the City Commission approve the tax ordinance, it would go into effect Jan. 1 unless electors petition for a referendum on the question.

City residents have until Dec. 15 to request a vote. Petitions must be signed by 10 per cent of the total vote in the immediate past municipal election.

U.S. Watching Russia for Further Upheavals

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials are watching for possible further upheaval in the Soviet Union's leadership as they consider what steps the United States should take in the coming weeks to deal with changed international conditions.

President Johnson, who conferred with congressional leaders for 2½ hours yesterday, has called a meeting of his special advisory committee on foreign policy tomorrow.

This group of prominent private citizens will be given detailed reports on world developments and asked to consider various possible actions.

Johnson told newsmen that he had met with the congressional leaders, Democrats and Republicans, but gave no details of the information presented to them. He said the reports he and several Cabinet members gave constituted "a highly classified briefing."

It is understood that administration officials told the legislative leaders they are not sure what issues, domestic or international, led to the overthrow of Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The briefing is also understood to have brought out that while Leonid I. Brezhnev, 57, seems to be the top man in the Soviet ruling group, the actual post-Khrushchev power structure is not yet clear and the possibility of further changes, possibly involving a power struggle in the Kremlin, must be borne in mind.

End Comes Quietly for 31st U.S. President

Life Spanned Career of Engineering and Service for Country

NEW YORK (AP)—Herbert Clark Hoover, 31st president of the United States, died today at the age of 90.

His death followed a recurrence of massive gastro intestinal hemorrhage.

The staunch old statesman, whose life spanned a varied career of engineering, high office and humanitarian service, had kept busy almost to the last.

Hoover's two sons were at his bedside when the end came.

'BEST ANTIDOTE'

"Work" was his rule. He called it "the best antidote to talk of ills and pills."

Death came quietly at his apartment at the Waldorf Towers which he described as his "comfortable monastery."

Hoover will lie in state in St. Bartholomew's Church, Park Avenue and 51st Street, for two days. After memorial service, he will be taken by train to Washington.

★ ★ ★

There, he will lie in state under the rotunda of the National Capitol.

FINAL SERVICE

Following the service there, his body will be flown to West Branch, Iowa, where the final service will be held as he is laid to rest in the national park at the site of the small cottage where he was born in 1874.

Repeatedly, and sometimes almost miraculously in his latter years, he had fought off serious ailments.

But time, and its wear, finally claimed him. No other former president except John Adams, the nation's second chief executive who died at 90, had reached such an advanced age. Adams lived 90 years and eight months, Hoover, 90 years and two months.

Hoover, who passed that mark Aug. 10, 1964, said in a birthday message that the key to America's abundance is its freedom.

'OPEN WINDOW'

"Freedom is the open window through which pours the sunlight of the human spirit and of human dignity."

As president when the "great depression" hit the nation in 1929, Hoover endured much abuse, but he lived to regain wide affection and esteem as a wise, humane elder statesman.

Ike Takes Look at Recent World Events

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Major changes that raise big questions for the West have burst upon the Communist world. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, in this exclusive AP interview, gives his views on the developments.)

By RELMAN MORIN and MARVIN ARROWSMITH

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says "I am not one of those who feels too good about Khrushchev being removed."

With the momentous change in the Soviet government, he added: "The Russians can go either way. They can move closer to us or closer to Red China."

Eisenhower discussed last week's developments in the Soviet Union and Red China in an interview with the Associated Press in his Gettysburg office.

He emphasized that he has had no briefings from official quarters, and repeated several times, "We are just speculating."

★ ★ ★

He spoke rapidly, in the manner of a man who has been thinking a good deal about the topics under discussion.

SEVERAL YEARS

The former president said he believed it would take the Chinese Reds several years before they become a formidable nuclear power.

Answering a question, he said: "I would think it would take five years to be a really significant thing, because one of the big things they have to work on is a means of delivery. And as for a means of delivery, they haven't any plane bigger than a fighter or a light bomber.

The only place they can reach with that would be their old friends, the Russians. India would be the only other place I can see where they would be any good. An even there you couldn't use much of a fighter plane.

★ ★ ★

"No, I think that until they get any real nuclear capability, they might build defensive weapons."

POTENTIAL TROUBLE

However, Eisenhower said, he could envision potential trouble if or when Peking begins to develop a sizable nuclear capacity.

"As it begins to develop, the tension beings to mount, because now you have a country that very definitely said it was going to take over Formosa, site of the Nationalist Chinese government and they will be delighted to do it by war," Eisenhower said.

"That was one of the big troubles between Khrushchev and themselves. He says, 'You can't do this by war.' But I tell you, if that situation develops, then I think Russia would be a little more scared than we."

★ ★ ★

Asked whether he thought there might have been any connection between the atomic explosion in Red China and the removal of Nikta S. Khrushchev as head of the Soviet government, Eisenhower replied:

★ ★ ★

"I wouldn't think that would be. You see, the reason is that they must have engineered a coup d'etat on awfully short notice, in a rapid time.

COINCIDENCE

"Knowing well of the development, this might have happened by coincidence right at the same time.

★ ★ ★

"But I don't think this particular explosion and this other thing were very closely connected."

The former president pointed out that considerations of the Soviet economy may have played a part in Khrushchev's dismissal.

★ ★ ★

He spoke of "the lack of consumer goods" and "the fact that they had to buy, and did buy, from the free world a lot of wheat, this may have had something to do with it."

POSSIBLE FACTORS

He indicated that he has been examining a number of possible factors in Khrushchev's expulsion and said:

"I know that he expected to stay. He constantly told me he would be there much longer after I was gone, and I would say, 'Yes, that is true.'

"There has to be some reason for throwing the man out. If we can determine the correct rea-

UAW, GM Pledge Speedy Settlement After Johnson Prod

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers union have pledged President Johnson they will strive for settlement as quickly as possible in a 26-day-old strike.

★ ★ ★

The President prodded both company and union Monday to try for speedy settlement, saying continuance of the strike "will jeopardize the continuous upward thrust of our economy."

★ ★ ★

More than 300,000 of GM's 360,000 production workers have been idled. The President said this is starting to have an impact on production and employment in other industries.

Another auto industry strike, against American Motors Corp., ended Monday three days after it began with agreement on a new contract covering AMC's automotive division. There were 24,000 involved here.

REACHED ACCORD

General Motors and the UAW reached accord on a new national contract Oct. 5, but at-the-plant working agreements which supplement it have been reached by only 79 of 130 UAW bargaining units in GM.

★ ★ ★

When a Sept. 25 strike deadline passed the union called out its members, except in GM plants selling parts and accessories to Ford and Chrysler which already had negotiated new national economic packages with the UAW.

A return to work on GM's closed-down assembly lines was made contingent upon settlement of local-level issues.

President Johnson said Monday a quick end to the GM strike would be "in the best interest of the parties, of the economy and of the general public."

SEPARATE STATEMENTS

Company and union responded in separate statements they were willing to work "day and night" to resolve local-level issues.

Automotive News reported that national passenger car production fell off last week to an estimated 79,000 units, compared with 179,422 built in the corresponding week of 1963.

★ ★ ★

The trade publication also reported that new car sales for the Oct. 1-10 period were 210,374, against 262,761 in the comparable period last year.

However, Ford and Chrysler were reported to have posted their biggest sales ever for the first 10 days of October. GM dealers then were running out of new cars.

BACK IN PRODUCTION

American Motors expected to get back into Rambler and Ambassador production today. A contract remained to be worked out for some 3,000 employed in the company's Kelvinator appliance division at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The UAW and Borg-Warner Corp., which supplies transmissions to AMC, are continuing on a day-to-day basis a contract which otherwise would have expired last week. The UAW Borg-Werner local at Muncie, Ind., has voted to seek strike authorization from the international union.

★ ★ ★

The impact of GM's strike was being felt at Muskegon, Mich., among other places. The Muskegon Chronicle reported two layoffs, one involving 500, at plants there which supply the auto industry.

The Saginaw News recently quoted GM sources in that city of 98,265 as saying the daily loss in wages there was $217,000 and could go to $400,000 if more jobs were shut down in GM plants.

★ ★ ★

General Motors estimated earlier the national loss in wages amounted to $7 million a day.

Car Skids Into Truck on Telegraph Road

A West Bloomfield Township man was killed last night when the car he was driving rammed the rear of a gravel truck on Telegraph in Bloomfield Township.

Dead is Henry C. Aubert, 43, of 2324 Pine Lake.

Bloomfield Township police said the accident occurred about 500 feet south of the Maple intersection.

The gravel truck, which was driven by John E. Carrier, 22, of 1938 Garrick, Warren, was slowing for a red light when Aubert's car skidded into the rear end, officers said. The pavement was wet at the time of the crash.

Police said Aubert, who suffered head and chest injuries, was killed instantly.

The vehicle was a total wreck, officers said.

REAL RED POWER

U.S. experts said real power in the Soviet Union is vested in the Communist party's Presidium, which is a kind of board of directors with Brezhnev's position that of chairman of the board.

Administration officials say the situation faced by Brezhnev, Kosygin and other members of the Communist ruling group is basically different in one respect from that which faced the men who took over after Stalin's death in 1953.

The men now in power have had a great deal of experience in working together. They shared authority with Khrushchev, who spent almost three years' time away from Moscow.

★ ★ ★

It is considered possible, therefore, that the process of shaking down into an orderly government under the new leadership will be less difficult for the current rulers than for Stalin's successors.

DEFENSE PLANS

At the meeting with congressional leaders, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara outlined current and future U.S. defense plans, Secretary of State Dean Rusk analyzed the political significance of recent world events and discussed steps the United States is taking or plans to deal with them.

Director John A. McCone of the Central Intelligence Agency and Chairman Glenn Seaborg of the Atomic Energy Commission presented details on what the President called classified information.

It was understood that McNamara, McCone, and Seaborg dealt primarily with U.S. knowledge of Red China's nuclear test explosion last Friday.

City Retirement Proposal Will Face Voters in April

BIRMINGHAM — A proposal to increase the city's contribution to the municipal employes retirement fund will be decided by voters in the city election next April.

The City Commission last night approved a recommendation of the retirement board to place on the ballot a new formula by which annual benefits will be computed.

The cost of implementing the amendment to the City Charter has been estimated at 25.5 cents for each $1,000 of assessed valuation.

According to Russell T. Berger, secretary of the retirement system, this would be reduced to 21 cents over the next five years because of the city's increased over-all assessed valuation.

★ ★ ★

The tax increase would provide an additional $20,000 to the city's present contribution of $80,451, Berger said.

COMPUTING FACTOR

To provide more adequate benefits for city employes, the proposed new formula increases by two-tenths of one per cent the computing factor upon retirement, from 1.0 to 1.2 per cent for general city employes and from 1.5 to 1.7 per cent for fire and police.

Based on average annual salary of $7,000 the increased benefit would be about $420, said Berger.

Members of the police and fire department currently have 5 per cent of their earnings placed in the retirement fund while general employes pay 3 per cent of their first $4,200 and 5 per cent on anything over $4,200. The city matches all contributions.

★ ★ ★

Berger said that this is the first proposed increase in allowance since 1954.

Birmingham's assistant city manager Robert S. Kenning last night was named by the City Commission as the city's chief administrator, effective Jan. 1.

KENNING

At that time, Kenning, 41, will succeed City Manager L. R. Gare, who announced last week that he would retire in three months.

Kenning, a graduate of the University of Minnesota, with a degree in civil engineering and business administration, joined the city in 1951 as assistant superintendent of the Department of Public Works.

Two years later he was named head of the department. In 1956 he assumed the duties of assistant city manager.

A resident of Berkley, Kenning is married and has three sons.

★ ★ ★

This year he served as Birmingham Michigan Week chairman and previously was responsible for the celebration's Government Day program.

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, American Society for Personnel Administrators, National Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Birmingham YMCA. He is a former president of the Birmingham Rotary Club.

★ ★ ★

Prior to joining Birmingham, Kenning was employed with the Bass Construction Co. of Troy as a job engineer on large construction projects dealing with sewer, water and power plants.

Stephen Ksycinsk

Service for Stephen Ksycinski, 55, of 124 Alive, Bloomfield Township, will be 10 a.m. tomorrow at the Vasu-Lynch Funeral Home, Royal Oak. Burial will be in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Ksycinski died yesterday after a brief illness.

Surviving are his wife, Agnes; a daughter, Mrs. Sandra G. Murdock; a son, Gary, stationed with the U.S. Army in Houston, Tex.; a brother; and a grandson.

Mrs. Carl Metz

Private service for Mrs. Carl (A'Dra Sue) Metz, 63, of 1590 Tully Court, Bloomfield Township, was held this morning at Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home, Pontiac, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mrs. Metz died Thursday after a long illness.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, Bloomfield Heights Garden Club and Pine Lake Country Club and was a past president of the Newcomers Club of Birmingham.

Surviving besides her husband are two sons, Robert F. of Brooklyn, N.Y. and Don P. of Milwaukee, Wis.; a sister; and a brother.

Memorial contributions can be made to a cancer fund or any other charity.

Louis J. Schneider

Service for Louis J. Schneider, 74, of 1430 Inwood Circle, Bloomfield Hills, will be 4 p.m. tomorrow at Christ Church Cranbrook. Cremation will follow in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery, Troy.

Mr. Schneider died Sunday after a long illness.

He was a manufacturer's agent to the automotive industry and a retired General Motors executive.

A member of the Detroit Athletic Club, Mr. Schneider also belonged to Orchard Lake Country Club, the Tuscarora Club of Lockport, N.Y., Tau Beta Phi fraternity and the Society of Automotive Engineers.

His body is at the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co., Birmingham, but there will be no visitation.

Surviving are his wife, Geraldine, and two sons, L. James of Birmingham and Rev. Edward N. of Washington, D.C.

Hunting Season Warning

With the opening of pheasant hunting season today, the Oakland County Sheriff's Department urged all area hunters to use caution as they take to the fields in search of game.

Specific warnings were issued regarding the careless use of firearms and against hunting in closed areas.

Hunters should stay away from residential areas where there is danger of stray shots hitting homes or play areas, officers said.

Nimrods should also be wary of their weapons, especially when hunting in groups.

Officers said it is illegal to damage buildings, signs, fence posts or similar objects along the woodland paths.

They also reminded hunters that the townships of Bloomfield, Avon, Farmington, Waterford and Southfield are completely closed to hunting and specific areas in other townships are either closed or posted.

Snowsuit Lost in City Trash, Owner Sought

Pontiac's Department of Public Works today found itself in the strange position of seeking the owner of a snowsuit.

The resident called the DPW about the suit. Workers searched and found it, but no one got the resident's name or address.

Hence, Christian has requested that the owner of a lost snowsuit come to the DPW and claim it.

Action Due Tonight on City Income Tax

William H. Taylor Jr., cited the city's financial plight and said the present tax system, based primarily on the property tax, was inadequate.

GAVE STATEMENT

Taylor issued a "Pontiac at the crossroads" statement saying, "We must decide whether our city will move forward or fall back into a second-rate community."

Implementation of an income tax, he added, would be accompanied by a reduction in the property tax rate. Estimates now put the property tax cut at about $3 per $1,000 assessed valuation.

If an election is called for on the income tax, state law stipulates that the commission must call for a vote between Feb. 1 and March 20, 1965, delaying the effective date of the tax until July 1.

★ ★ ★

In other business tomorrow night, bids on an urban renewal parcel will be considered, a contract for planning a master plan for city storm sewers will be up for approval as well as the sale of a city-owned lot in Perry Park subdivision.

A Kalamazoo women's group presented Romney with a basketful of $1 and $5 bills—totaling $912—for use against campaign expenses.

Later in the day Romney crossed Staebler's trail in Benton Harbor.

Supporters of Barry Goldwater, the Republican candidate for President, turned out at a Romney rally in Benton Harbor, chanting "We want Barry" and waving Goldwater signs.

Romney, who has refused to endorse the Arizona senator, said he was not bothered by the demonstrators.

IN KENT COUNTY

The governor planned a round of campaign appearances in Kent County today.

Staebler flew to Saginaw Monday night and planned to spend today making Saginaw appearances before flying to Reed City to attend a 14-county dinner honoring himself and U.S. Philip Hart, D-Mich.

Waterford Knocks Tax Proposal

Waterford Township Board members last night took formal action opposing the City of Pontiac's proposed income tax levy on nonresidents of the city.

★ ★ ★

The resolution opposing the tax levy, which passed unanimously, was offered by Township Supervisor James E. Seeterlin who cited the great number of Waterford residents who work in Pontiac and would be affected.

"It appears that the Pontiac City Commission is attempting to shift the burden of running its municipality from the shoulders of those who benefit to those who do not, namely the nonresidents," Seeterlin said.

He added that the proposal to tax nonresidents is another example of taxation without representation.

★ ★ ★

"This concept has always been foreign to our American heritage of democracy," Seeterlin added.

The supervisor said that the city commission must be shown that the passage of the income tax on nonresidents will be more harmful than helpful to the city in the long run.

Seeterlin suggested methods of fighting the nonresident tax including court litigation, attempting to lure business and industry away from Pontiac and boycotting city located businesses.

Italian Train Strike Snarls Rail Service

ROME (AP) — Train service throughout Italy was snarled today with the launching of a nationwide rail strike ordered for 3½ hours each day for a week.

The walkout, called by the big Communist general Confederation of Labor, left both domestic and international train traffic at a standstill or badly delayed. Non-Communist unions opposed the strike.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Light rain is forecast tonight for the upper Great Lakes area. Temperatures are expected to warmer from the Gulf states and along the lower West Coast. Little change is anticipated elsewhere.

Eisenhower Reviews Recent World Events

son, then we would know how to cut our own cloth."

★ ★ ★

Expanding on his statement that he is "not one of those who feels too good" about Khrushchev's dismissal, Eisenhower said:

★ ★ ★

"Until I am persuaded by something that I can see that is concrete, and specific evidence that the situation has been improved, I will continue to think that. On the other hand, I can hope that it will be good, that is all."

NUCLEAR WAR

He said he does not believe the Kremlin wants a nuclear war.

"At the time they were building the H-bomb, which I believe was a result of espionage, they also were building great public works that could be destroyed by one bomb.

"So I have the conviction that they would not start a nuclear war. I don't believe they will start one even if we have serious difficulties with them," Eisenhower said.

President Johnson said in a televised statement Sunday, "The new Soviet government has officially informed me through Ambassador Dobrynin that it plans no change in basic foreign policy. I spoke frankly as always to the Soviet ambassador . . . I believe this was a good beginning on both sides."

FAINT SMILE

Musingly, and with a faint smile, Eisenhower said: "I would like to talk to Khrushchev now. I believe if he could get out of Russia, with his family, he would like to."

Eisenhower said he would like to talk over with the ex-premier some of the events that had arisen in the past—and once brought the two men into a violent confrontation.

That developed in Paris, May 18, 1960, when Khrushchev torpedoed the proposed summit conference.

★ ★ ★

He took the action after Francis Gary Powers, flying a U2 reconnaissance plane, was shot down over Soviet soil and the United States denied he was on a spy flight.

Khrushchev, at a massive, 2,000-man news conference referred to Eisenhower as "my fishy friend," and likened the president to a thief.

He also withdrew an invitation to Eisenhower to visit the Soviet Union.

Eisenhower at that time referred to the "violence and inaccuracy" of Khrushchev's outburst.

★ ★ ★

But Eisenhower said in the interview:

"You know, he had streaks of frankness with me. He told me things and I asked the CIA to check on them and it turned out to be correct."

CHINA RECOGNITION

Turning to the question of the atomic explosion in Red China, Eisenhower was asked whether he thought this might necessitate a change with respect to American recognition of Peking.

He replied: "No, I would not think that. After all, this would be recognition under blackmail, or under threat."

With respect to bringing Red China into the United Nations, he said:

"Well, I would still say this—they have never given a satisfactory explanation of what they have done to our prisoners, nor released them. They have brainwashed them. We saw the effects of that. They have never yet purged themselves of the condemnation that is still standing against them as an aggressor in North Korea. They are still causing and formulating and giving the supplies to carry out the civil wars in Southeast Asian states.

"And to top it off, they are still saying they are going to take Formosa by force.

U.N. CHARTER

"Let's look at the charter of the United Nations.

"Do you take someone in who is a brigand, who has two pistols, one on each hip, ready to pull them out and shoot it out?

"There has to be some kind of a cleaning of their own record before I would consider it. That is the way I see it."

★ ★ ★

The United States, he said, "should be watchful and wary, and firm as to our own rights."

VIET NAM TRIP

In the interview, Eisenhower ruled out all questions pertaining to the presidential campaign or domestic policies.

However, he did comment on the statement by Sen. Barry Goldwater, the Republican presidential candidate, that he might ask Eisenhower to go to South Viet Nam.

On Oct. 5, Goldwater said: "If elected, I intend to come to grips with this vital question (South Viet Nam) and at that time I want the very best and soundest advice available. I believe a group of experts, headed by Gen. Eisenhower, could provide that advice."

Goldwater called the former president "this country's foremost military man and foremost statesman."

Eisenhower last Wednesday celebrated his 74th birthday and he said it would be "quite a chore" to go to Southeast Asia.

He said he would be prepared to assist the administration in any way he could, but that he would want to talk it over first with persons in authority.

He said: "Mr. Kennedy asked me whether I would be ready to go on some chores."

His answer, he said, was that it would depend on his health and the adivce of his doctors.

IN GETTYSBURG

Eisenhower's office is in Gettysburg, several miles from his farm.

He gets in before 9 a.m. every day, works on speeches and on his next book about his second administration.

With the assistance of his staff, he handles an average of about 600 pieces of mail daily.

Little Known German Scores Upset in Winning Decathlon

Long American Hold on Decathlon Ends After 32 Years

TOKYO (AP) — American marksman Lones Wigger produced the United States only medal — a gold one — while little known Willi Holdorf of Germany scored an upset in winning the decathlon and Boston's John Thomas qualified for the high jump final in the Olympic games today.

Thomas then sounded a rare disquieting note in these Olympics by blasting American sports fans.

* * *

Wigger, an Army first lieutenant from Carter, Mont., produced the United States' only medal Tuesday when he scored a world record 1,164 points in winning the small-bore rifle three-position title.

MEDAL BREAKDOWN

His medal was the 72nd collected by the United States in these 18th modern Olympics. Russia added six to its collection and now has 55. The breakdown between the two dominant nations shows the United States with 32 gold, 21 silver and 19 bronze; Russia with 17 gold, 15 silver, 23 bronze.

* * *

Stealing the spotlight from the team struggle between the two titans, however, was the spectacular show of Holdorf, a sturdy, six-foot, 200-pound German physical education student.

He had to fight off the continuing challenge of countryman Hans-Joachim Walde and Russian Rein Aun, then withstand the closing rush of the favorite, the 1960 silver medalist and world record-holder C.K. Yang, before nailing down the decathlon championship and breaking America's 32-year-old domination of the event.

* * *

Holdorf scored 7,887 points under a recently changed scoring table for the gruelling, 10-event, two-day test.

SLIPPED BEHIND

Walde, in second most of the way, slipped to third when the Russian Aun won the 1,500-meter run, the final event. Aun finished with 7,842 points and the silver medal, Walde with 7,806.

* * *

Paul Herman of Santa Barbara, Calif., was fourth with 7,787.

The big surprise was the decline of Yang, the veteran Nationalist Chinese by way of UCLA, who was the heavy favorite. He started the final day in ninth place and made a gallant run at the German before fading.

* * *

Yang closed to sixth on a 15-1 pole vault, then to fourth on a 223-7 javelin throw, but was just too far back and finished in fifth place with 7,650 points.

Russ Hodge of Roscoe, N.Y., was ninth with 7,325 and Dick Emberger, Oceanside, Calif., 10th with 7,292.

* * *

Wigger's rifle record produced the seventh medal contributed by a surprisingly strong U.S. shooting team and marked his second medal. Earlier, he had taken second in the small-bore rifle prone position.

Trade Impossible, but Maybe Free Agent

Lions Ponder Solution to Quarterback Problem

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor Pontiac Press

Wanted one used quarterback with enough mileage to help the Detroit Lions through eight remaining football games.

Coach George Wilson might even consider giving some old standby quarterback a fast overhauling to alleviate the most serious problem now facing the Lions who must also think about the high flying Baltimore Colts.

Earl Morrall's broken collar bone has put him out for the season and Milt Plum now takes over the starting berth without an understudy of any sort, except a former single wing halfback who has found himself a home as a receiver rather than thrower.

Terry Barr, once the jack-of-all trade halfback at the University of Michigan will be limbering up his arm this week as a precautionary measure and the Lions may have to find some spread formation especially designed for him.

Maybe Bobby Layne can be lured out of retirement. Or possibly retired Lamar McHan or Eddie LaBaron can be talked into spot duties.

These possibilities appear unlikely.

There are a few teams with three quarterbacks, namely the Rams, Giants, Eagles, Steelers or Redskins, but the problem is that it's impossible to get anyone.

INJURED RESERVE

The Lions could put Morrall and possibly "Night Train" Lane still hobbled with leg injuries on the injured reserve list but that would leave two more players to be trimmed.

* * *

Under the new NFL 40-player rule, any player who is placed on injured reserve cannot play for the season but he must be counted as part of the roster. A team can add a player only if the squad is down to 36 and the added player would make the roster 37.

* * *

Even so, trades are also impossible as no trading is permitted after the 5th game of the season.

The Lions could pick up a free agent, but again it would mean trimming the four players.

With the powerful Baltimore Colts, leading the Lions in the Western Division by only a half game, coming to Tiger Stadium Sunday, the Detroit offensive line must now set up a solid screen around Plum to protect him from the rushes of Gino Marchetti, Ordell Brasse, Don Shinnick and others.

The Lions and the Colts are on the opposite sides of NFL statistical columns. Detroit's defense having given up only 71 points in six games, has run roughshod over opposing quarterbacks, while the Colts offense is rolling over foes with 203 points in six encounters.

* * *

Among the Baltimore scalps are two Green Bay Packer triumphs, both of which came as result of missed or blocked kicks of Paul Hornung.

Hornung missed the extra point in the first Baltimore game won by the Colts 21-20 and last Sunday with the Packers leading 21-17, his field goal attempt was blocked in the final minute and the Colts then scored to win 24-21.

With the offensive unit hampered by Morrall's loss, the rough Lions' defense is planning to put forth its utmost effort against the Colts.

"We've got to have the supreme effort from everyone, offense and defense," said veteran co-captain Joe Schmidt to his teammates en route home from Chicago on the United charter Sunday.

Shaken but not demoralized by Morrall's injury, the Lions know their "supreme effort" may have to resemble the famous Turkey Day roast they enjoyed against the Packers in 1962 and as Schmidt indicated they may be due for an encore.

Baseball Retains Spotlight

Calls Commissioner 'Stooge' of Owners

VERSAILLES, Ky. (AP) — Former commissioner of baseball A. B. (Happy) Chandler says the sport is painlessly and unwittingly committing suicide and can be saved only by being placed under federal antitrust laws.

* * *

Chandler accused baseball's present commissioner, Ford Frick, of being a stooge for the club owners, who he in turn accused of being interested in only one thing — making money.

"Most of the owners in baseball today couldn't care less about the future of the game," he said in an interview. "They have no interest in, nor any consideration for, the American people who pay the bills."

FELT PRESSURE

Chandler, who was commissioner from 1945 until he was forced out under pressure in 1951, said the only thing that would save baseball besides federal intervention would be a strong commissioner, "but the owners would never stand for that.

"Most of the people in baseball want to run the sport just to fit their own pocketbooks, never caring who they step on or how many people get hurt by their actions — such as moving franchises," he said.

* * *

"Baseball is no longer a sport, it's a business and should be treated as such," he said.

"Frick is a stooge for the owners, but remember that is just exactly what they want," Chandler said.

"They don't want him to encourage minor league baseball or anything that is so vital to the game. They just want him to keep his mouth shut and draw his paycheck — and he does a good job of that," Chandler continued.

BLAME BASEBALL

The former Kentucky governor and a senator also said professional football has replaced baseball as the No. 1 spot in America and that baseball had only itself to blame.

"Major league baseball has no respect for the minors, or for college baseball either," Chandler said. "And these are the only two training grounds for the game."

Pirates, Reds Tab Managers

Yankees, Milwaukee Set News Gatherings

By the Associated Press

Who says this is the football season? Although the World Series ended last week baseball still is getting a major share of the headlines on sports pages.

In rapid fire developments Monday, Fred Hucthinson resigned as manager of the Cincinnati Reds and was succeeded by Dick Sisler, and Harry (The Hat) Walker was named manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates to succeed Danny Murtaugh.

* * *

And today Johnny Keane, who quit as manager of the Cardinals after winning the World Series, is expected to succeed Yogi Berra as manager of the New York Yankees.

Berra was fired after his one season as manager in which he led the Yankees to a fifth straight American League pennant.

Will the Milwaukee Braves move to Atlanta?—The answer is expected to be forthcoming Wednesday in a meeting of the Milwaukee board of directors in Chicago. A news conference has been called for 11:30 a.m. EST, Wednesday.

WHO'S NEXT?

Up in the air is who will be chosen to succeed Keane as manager.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat said in its Tuesday edition that Red Schoendienst, former star second baseman, is expected to be named the new Cardinal manager within three days.

The resignation of Hutchinson and the signing of Sisler was not a surprise. Hutchinson, ill with cancer, took a leave of absence on Aug. 13 and Sisler managed the Reds the rest of the season. Officially Hutchinson's resignation does not take effect until next spring so he can draw a full pension.

Walker, in signing a one year contract to replace Murtaugh who quit because of ill health, managed the Cardinals for part of the 1955 season after Eddie Stanky was let go.

Kent Douglas of NHL Leafs Regains Form

MONTREAL (AP)—Kent Douglas, who won rookie of the year honors two years ago with the Toronto Maple Leafs but slumped so badly in his sophomore season that he had to be farmed out, leads the National Hockey League scorers, statistics showed today.

* * *

Douglas has one goal and seven assists for eight points, two better than last year's scoring champion, Chicago's Stan Mikita.

Four other Leafs are among the league's top 11 point makers. Red Kelly, a member of Parliament who was Canada's official representative to the Tokyo Olympics and returned just in time to open the season, has three goals and two assists for third place. Frank Mahovlich, Dave Keon and Don McKenney are tied with five other players with four points apiece.

Syracuse Tops in East

NEW YORK (UPI) — Syracuse University got a perfect rating to lead in Lambert Trophy balloting, the symbol of eastern college football supremacy, ahead of second-place Villanova.

John Thomas Takes Aim at Win-or-Else Fans

TOKYO (AP) — An embittered John Thomas said Tuesday American sports fans are "blood-thirsty" and can be compared to the thumbs-down galleries that cried for death in the days of the Roman gladiators.

"They have no use for losers," the Boston high jumper added. "They don't give credit to man for trying. They have appreciation only for the champion, the man who finishes first."

The towering Negro admitted he feels deserted going into the Olympic high jump finals Wednesday when he will seek to wipe out the memory of his disappointing showing at Rome in 1960.

DOESN'T CARE

"I don't care what the people think," he said. "I am on my own. I can't trust fans and supposed well-wishers any more. They are fickle and vascillating.

"If I win, they're with me. If I lose, they're the first to desert me and call me a bum."

Thomas goes into the high jump the underdog to the two Russians, defending champion Robert Shavliakadze and Valery Brumel.

* * *

It's different than in Rome four years ago when he was regarded as the biggest cinch of the Games, a man who cleared seven feet as easily as stepping off a curb.

Instead, Shavliakadze won at 7-1, with Brumel second and Thomas third, although both cleared seven feet.

"I felt proud at getting a bronze medal," Thomas said. "But everybody else thought I was a goat. People who had been slapping me on the back ignored me as if I had a plague. I was called a quitter, a man with no heart. It left me sick."

PUBLIC CHANGES

Thomas said he had nightmares for months after this experience but soon learned to accept it as the changeable character of the American public.

"American spectators are frustrated athletes," he added. "They'd like to be champions, but can't. So they sit in the stands and cheer the champion and ridicule the loser.

"In the champion, they see what they'd like to be. In the loser, they see what they actually are, and they treat him with scorn."

Thomas recalled that he was only 19, competing in his first Olympics, when he failed at Rome.

"That's why I want so hard to win the high jump. I'd like to show those people who criticized me. But I'm not worrying about them. I'm worrying only about myself."

DEALS HIMSELF OUT — Branch Rickey, whose resignation last night as a player consultant for the St. Louis Cardinals followed closely on the heels of the resignation of manager Johnny Keane, is seen relaxing in the Florida sun.

Branch Rickey Also Leaves Cardinals

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Branch Rickey, baseball's old warhorse, resigned Monday as special consultant to the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and went into seclusion at a Florida hotel.

* * *

It was another astonishing development in a series of executive changes that have rocked the Cardinals since mid-August.

Neither Rickey nor key Cardinal personnel could be reached for comment, and there was little information in the terse, 15-word announcement of his exit:

"I have received Mr. Rickey's resignation as consultant to the St. Louis Cardinal baseball club," said General Manager Bob Howsam.

RECOMMENDED

Ironically, Howsam is the man Rickey personally recommended to replace the fired Bing Devine.

Rickey, 83, was contacted in Hollywood, Fla., but declined comment. He was understood to have spent much of the afternoon watching a workout of the Cardinals' Hollywood farm team and dictating to his secretary.

* * *

Howsam checked out of his St. Louis hotel. Cardinal President August A. Busch Jr. let his telephone ring unanswered as speculation soared over whether Rickey resigned or was fired.

The move had St. Louisans wondering, what next?

Busch had brought the bushy-browed, cigar-smoking Rickey back into the Cardinal organization about 19 months ago. No sooner had the cagey old-timer arrived, than small disputes developed between him and Devine.

FINED DEVINE

On Aug. 17, Busch fired Devine. Devine, general manager seven years and affiliated with the Cardinals 25 years, had been named baseball's Executive of the Year in 1963 by the Sporting News after the Cards finished second in the National League race.

Business Manager Art Routzong also was fired. Busch explained that he was disappointed and frustrated over the Cards' inability to win the pennant.

Devine went to New York as assistant to President George Weiss of the Mets. He had hardly settled into his new chair when Eddie Stanky, the Cardinals' director of player development, resigned to join Devine in a similar capacity with the Mets.

The next day the Cardinals announced that three veteran scouts had resigned. They also went to the Mets.

Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane, at the time, was reported on his way out. The word was that Busch had arranged to replace Keane with Leo Durocher, then a coach with the Los Angeles Dodgers.

But the 53-year-old Keane, a 35-year man with the Cardinals, led the club to an amazing 11th-hour surge and St. Louis' first pennant and world championship in 18 years.

Friday — just 19 hours after the Cards won the World Series from the New York Yankees — Keane resigned. He said he was leaving because of "a lot of little things, none of them important."

Bob Gibson Cites Work of Ex-Manager Keane

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Gibson is giving credit to former Cardinal Manager Johnny Keane for making him a major league pitcher. The pitching star of the St. Louis victory over the New York Yankees in the World Series was in town Monday to pick up a sports car from a magazine for his performance.

Gibson said he ran into a tough time when he first came to the majors.

"I won about six ball games in two years. Keane made me a starter and he made me a major-league pitcher."

Prep Gridder Is Rattled After TD

BAMBERG, S. C. (AP) — Bamberg High School tackle Donald Pressley did a hand stretch to the ground just before his team kicked off to Blackville Monday night after a third quarter touchdown.

He found himself grabbing a rattlesnake by the middle.

Pressley let go in a hurry with a yelp.

The rattler, about three feet long, was dispatched with a down marker.
