OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

In 1957, the late Alfred G. and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,470-acre Meadow Brook estate to Michigan State University to establish a college in Oakland County.

Oakland University was founded in 1957 as a branch campus of MSU, with 570 first-year students. By the mid-1960's, it had evolved into a medium-sized university and in 1970 became an independent, state-assisted university. It now offers more than 70 undergraduate programs and more than 30 graduate programs and enrolls about 12,000 students.

OU's distinct instructional programs—the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, School of Engineering and Computer Science, School of Health Sciences, School of Education and Human Services and School of Nursing—offers a diverse curricula of general education and career preparation courses. Virtually all of these courses are taught by faculty members, not teaching assistants.

The Honors College, a division of the College of Arts and Sciences, meets the educational needs of highly motivated students. The Division of Continuing Education meets the needs of nontraditional adult learners through evening and extension programs.

Academic support facilities include such notable entities as the Eye Research Institute, the only major eye research center in the United States not affiliated with a medical school; the Meadow Brook Health Enhancement Institute, which provides health maintenance/health improvement and cardiac rehabilitation community outreach programs; and the Center for Robotics and Advanced Automation, a unit of the School of Engineering and Computer Science that utilizes high technology manufacturing methods.

And OU's professional arts programs annually attract thousands to the campus. OU has received national recognition and local kudos for its Meadow Brook Theatre, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Meadow Brook Hall and Meadow Brook Music Festival, the summer home of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. OU is located 25 miles north of Detroit, near the small town of Rochester. OU's modern campus, which houses the university's many academic and public service programs, is located on a beautifully wooded site—much of it still undeveloped.

DR. SANDRA PACKARD

President

Dr. Sandra Packard became Oakland University's fourth President on June 15, 1992. Dr. Packard came to Oakland from the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga, where she was provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs and professor of curriculum and instruction. She held the position for seven years.

At UT-C, Dr. Packard was responsible for an annual budget of $27 million. She initiated and raised funds to establish a $3.5 million center for arts education. She co-raised funds for and established nine $1 million endowed faculty chairs of excellence and established the College of Health and Human Services and the School of Social and Community Services. Under her direction, black faculty employment grew by more than 100 percent.

Dr. Packard received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Syracuse University and master's and doctoral degrees in art education from Indiana University. She previously worked at Bowling Green State University and Miami University (Ohio).

Dr. Packard replaced John De Carlo, who served as interim president for one year after the resignation of Dr. Joseph Champagne.

DR. PAUL HARTMAN

Athletic Director

Oakland University athletic director Dr. Paul Hartman is beginning his 10th year as head of Pioneer athletics. Hartman has taken four different athletic programs to new levels of success in an administrative career that has spanned four decades.

The OU athletic program has flourished under Hartman. Last year the women's swimming team won its third straight national championship, while the men's swimmers finished in the top three nationally for the seventh straight season. OU also had its soccer team earn an NCAA bid for the sixth consecutive year. In 1991-92 the Pioneers had their first-ever All-American in cross country. The 1989-90 season saw three winter teams place in the top four nationally, including the champion women's swimming unit. Those three, men's swimming, women's basketball, and the women's swimmers, won GLIAC titles, and were joined by the soccer team in post-season play. In 1988-89 Oakland equalled its best finish ever in the President's Cup, the all-sports trophy in the Great Lakes

Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. The Pioneers finished third in the Cup standings with just 10 league sports, and had the highest average of points per sport of any GLIAC school. OU won four GLIAC Championships that year, and eight of the 10 league teams finished no lower than third. Men's and women's swimming won league titles and finished in the top three nationally. Women's basketball and women's volleyball also won league crowns, with the hoopsters advancing to the NCAA tournament. Soccer, Oakland's only non-GLIAC sport, was defeated in the national semi-finals.

Hartman has made a number of changes since arriving at OU. The department has brought back a Varsity "O" Club for former athletes, as well as the Oakland 100, a basketball support group. OU has also brought back baseball as a varsity sport, and made a number of improvements in the Lepley Sports Center, ranging from the refurbishing of the locker rooms and equipment area to renovation of offices and playing facilities. The department has also added the Pioneer Lounge, which is used for conferences and athletic receptions.

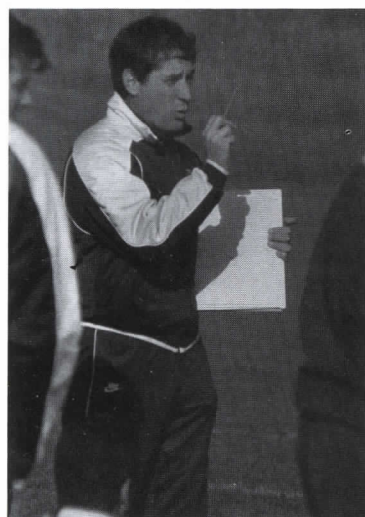

Previously Hartman had developed additional summer camp programs, created a new season ticket plan, instituted a Hall of Honor for exceptional Pioneer athletes, and introduced the first athletic team banquet.

The OU athletic director also made a large impact in his previous posts. At Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, his first post, Hartman started a football program with enthusiastic student support. Fifteen years later, a running back named Joe Dudek put that program on the map with a bid for the Heisman Trophy. In his second post, at Florida International University, Hartman began a women's golf program. One of the first women's scholarship award winners was Pat Bradley, who later became the first $2 million winner on the Ladies Pro Golf Association tour. Hartman did not begin the basketball program at his next stop, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, but one of his athletes there, Terry Porter, drew national attention as an NBA draftee from a non-scholarship school, and is now an outstanding point guard for the Portland Trailblazers.

A graduate of Ohio State University and a native of Columbus, Ohio, Hartman lives in Rochester with his wife, Jane. He is the third OU athletic director, succeeding Corey Van Fleet in June of 1983, who followed OU's founding father of athletics, Hollie Lepley.

GARY PARSONS

Head Soccer Coach

Now in his 12th season as head coach of the Pioneers, there isn't much that Gary Parsons hasn't accomplished with the Oakland University soccer program. Oakland has established itself as a soccer power during the last 11 years thanks in great part to Parsons' efforts.

Under Parsons, OU has gone to six straight national tournaments and nine in the last 10 years. OU has also advanced to the national semi-finals on four different occasions, including one trip to the finals. The Pioneers have been the number one team in their region four different years, and have been rated as high as second nationally. During Parsons' tenure Oakland has averaged over 15 wins a year and has averaged one All-American and four All-Region players per season. His career mark is 163-45-22 in his 11 years.

Parsons' coaching success began before his arrival in Rochester. After going to four straight NCAA tournaments as an assistant coach at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, he almost led OU to the playoffs in his first year with a 14-4-1 record and the number one ranking in the Mideast Region. He upgraded the schedule and shored up some weak areas for his second season and Oakland became one of the top soccer powers in the nation.

His 1982 squad lost in the national semi-finals to Florida International University. The following season the Pioneers returned to the final four, suffering a 1-0 loss to Seattle Pacific. Both losses were on the road to the eventual national champion. After those two tough semi-final losses, the Pioneers advanced to the national tournament for the third consecutive season. This time, Seattle Pacific needed a penalty kick shootout to oust the Pioneers. In 1985, OU missed out on the playoffs despite a 14-3-2 mark which included a 13-1-1 record in the last 15 games. This just fueled OU's fire in 1986.

That year's run to the national finals included a pair of 1-0 home playoff wins against Lock Haven University and Davis and Elkins College. These games sandwiched a stunning 2-1 win on the road against Gannon University, a team the Pioneers had never beaten before. The playoff run ended in Seattle, when Seattle Pacific scored two early goals and coasted to a 4-1 title win. In 1987 OU returned to the national tournament, losing a first-round match-up to semi-finalist Missouri-St. Louis. A third-straight trip came in 1988, and a fourth final four appearance ended with an overtime road loss at California State-Northridge. OU was ousted from the playoffs in overtime again in 1989, losing a first round match-up at Gannon. In 1990 OU fell to the Knights again, this time in the Central Region final. Last year OU lost to national finalist Sonoma State in a shootout in the tournament's opening round.

Parsons has earned five Mideast Coach of the Year selections in his nine Pioneer seasons. He was the coach of the victorious West team in the 1988 Soccer Senior Bowl in St. Louis, a team which included John Stewart, the second two-time All-American in Oakland soccer history. In 1989 Earl Parris became the sixth Pioneer under Parsons to be selected to the Senior Bowl, meriting a post-season trip to both the indoor and outdoor classics.

Parsons is the former coordinator of the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America Division II national top 20 poll, as well as the former chairman of the NCAA Division II Soccer Committee. In addition to his coaching prowess, Parsons enjoyed a noteworthy playing career. He was voted the Most Valuable Defensive Player at Plymouth State College as a senior and helped the Panthers make the New England State College Athletic Conference finals in his last two years. Parsons holds degrees in math and physical education from Plymouth State. A native of Oakham, Massachusetts, Parsons also serves as an assistant coach with the Michigan State Youth Soccer Association's state select program, and is on the staff of the Region II Olympic Development program serving as the U17-1/2 regional coach. He also directs the highly successful OU soccer camps during the summer months.

STEVE SEARGEANT

Assistant Coach

Steve Seargeant returns to Oakland University as Gary Parsons' top assistant coach. Seargeant, who was Parsons' assistant in 1984, replaces Morris Lupenec, who left OU to become the head coach at the University of Detroit Mercy. Seargeant, a native of England, played soccer professionally for 16 years. He has been a camp coach and clinician since retiring from the professional ranks in 1982. His other coaching stints include the Sport Club and Michigan selects, and the Wallasey Youth team in his native England. He coached the Wallasey team for five seasons.

As a youth, Seargeant had the honor of playing in historic Wembley National Stadium for England's national under 16 team.

The 41-year-old Seargeant is single and lives in Auburn Hills.

RALPH TORRE

Assistant Coach

Ralph Torre is in his third year as an assistant coach on Gary Parsons' staff. Torre was OU's starting goalkeeper for two seasons prior to beginning his stint as an assistant coach in 1990.

Torre earned All-Region honors in both 1988 and 1989. His 11 shutouts that year rank second on the single-season charts, while his 0.74 goals against average rates him fourth. He is third at OU in career saves and second in both shutouts and goals against average. Torre helped lead the Pioneers to a pair of NCAA tournament bids, including a trip to the final four in 1988. The Pioneers were 29-9-5 with Torre in net.

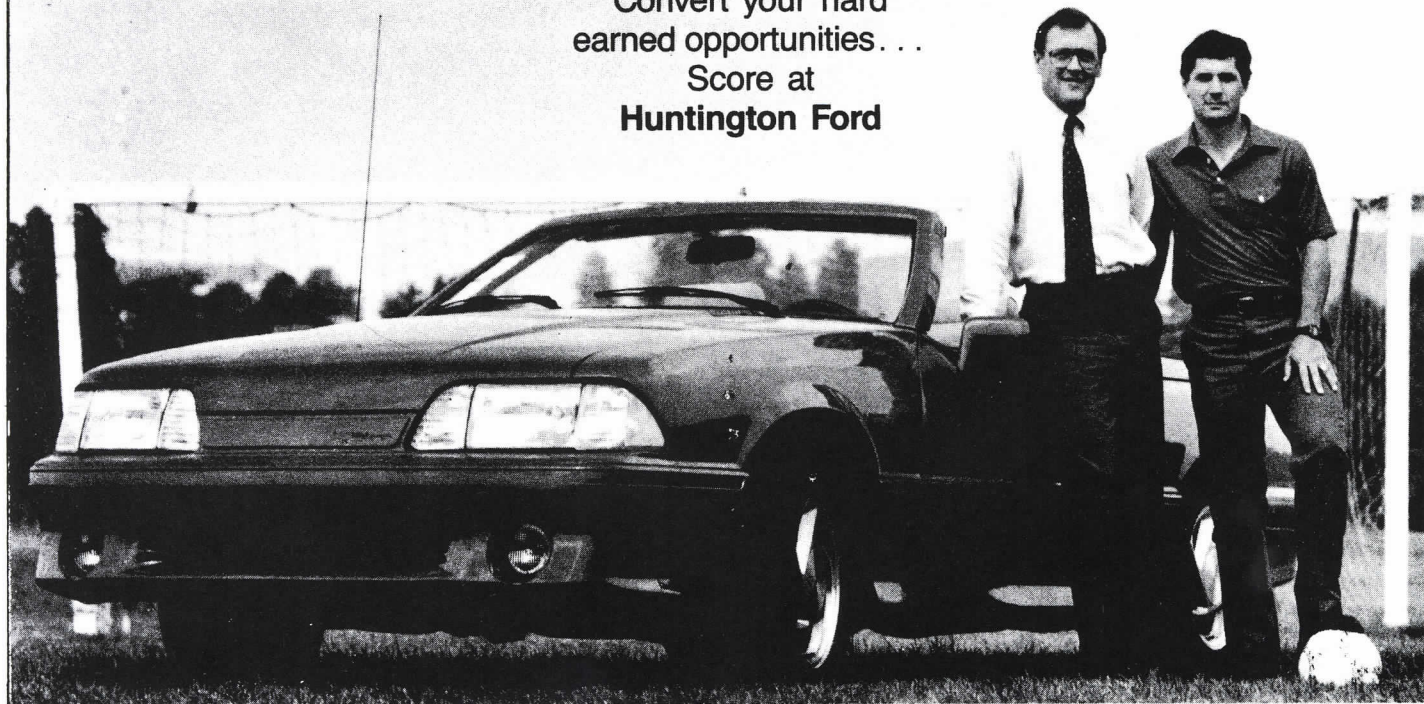

A native of Mississauga, Ontario, Torre is a graduate of Oakland with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English. He is currently pursuing a Master's degree in English at OU in addition to his coaching duties.

Torre is single and lives in Pontiac.

PIONEERS LOADED WITH EXPERIENCE, QUESTION MARKS IN 20TH SEASON

Senior sweeper Derek Williford will anchor the Pioneer defense.

Nine of the 11 starters return. Fifteen of the squad's 18 players on its 1991 post-season roster are also back. Six of those 15 were among Oakland University's top seven scorers last year. Combined with a solid crop of newcomers, coach Gary Parsons' 12th season looks like a good one. Still, some big question marks exist as the Pioneers prepare for their 20th season of varsity soccer.

OU has made 10 NCAA Tournament trips in its 19 seasons, including six straight and nine in the last 10 years under Parsons. This squad may have as much depth as any of the previous teams. "The combination of our returnees and our recruiting has given us more players to choose from than in the past," Parsons said. "We are deeper, and have more options to go to."

The big question marks are resulting from the graduation of All-American defender Dan Weinerth and the departure of top goal scorer Mike Thornton. Another pair of starters from last year's team, defender Jim Harrison and defender/midfielder Jeff Forshey, had post-season knee surgery.

"Our depth could be a problem if Forshey and Harrison don't fully recover from their knee injuries," Parsons said. "It will be up in the air as to who will be playing in the back if those two aren't ready to play."

Harrison, a junior, has been a two-year starter at outside back. Forshey, a senior who has been plagued by injuries throughout his career, has been a regular at outside back and outside midfield and could see action at either spot this year. Three-year starter Derek Williford, a senior who has also had his share of knee problems, will return to start at sweeper. Another senior, John Kropinski, could step in on defense, as could sophomore David Ankori. Both were starters at times during the 1991 campaign. Freshmen Matt

Werner from West Bloomfield and Will Bothe from Lake Orion, both on the state Olympic Development Team, could fit into the plans on defense.

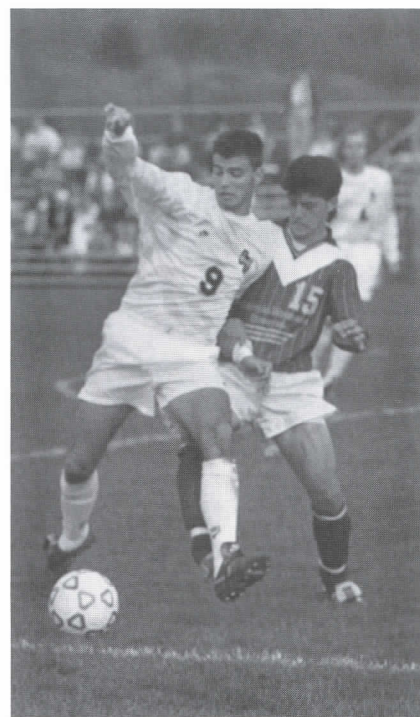

Oakland averaged just over two goals per game last year. It's two leading scorers had just seven goals, and Thornton was one of those two. Sophomore Eli Tiomkin, OU's overall top scorer last year with six goals and 10 assists for 22 points, will return up front. Three of Tiomkin's six goals last year were game winners. Another soph, Mali Walton, will move to an outside forward spot after earning All-Region honors as a midfielder last year. Walton, who had two goals and nine assists last year, has outstanding speed and should be dangerous on the wing. Junior Kevin Lang and sophomores Michael Burger and Chris Koren combined to score eight goals off the bench last year. Among the newcomers at forward are LaMarr Peters, the Michigan prep Player of the Year in 1989 from Brother Rice, and Chad Schomaker, an All-Stater from Troy High School.

"We have a definite void to fill up front," Parsons said. "We need someone to emerge as a solid goal scorer. Right now I don't know if we have someone to do that."

There is no lack of depth or talent in the midfield. Junior All-Region performer John Gentile is back in the center of midfield. An outstanding defensive player, Gentile also had six goals and nine assists a year ago after scoring eight goals as a freshman. Joining Gentile in the middle of midfield will be another junior, Dominic Scicluna. Scicluna scored two goals last year and is excellent at controlling the ball. Seven-goal scorer Andrew Wagstaff, just a sophomore, will man one of the outside spots. Wagstaff had the game-winning goal in three straight matches late in the year. Forshey or Walton could hold down the other outside midfield position. Ankori, junior Tim Fitzgerald, and freshman Nathan Bradley from Sarnia, Ontario could also earn playing time in the midfield.

"We have more options in the midfield than anywhere else," Parsons said. "If Scicluna can handle the pressure of playing center midfield, he could give us the combination we have been looking for with Gentile."

The Pioneers are also solid in goal with junior Mike Sheehy, a two-year starter. Sheehy played in all 21 games last year, posting seven shut-outs and a 0.93 goals against average. An

Junior John Gentile is the Pioneers' quiet leader in the middle of midfield.

All-Region choice as a freshman, Sheehy is in the Pioneers' career top five in every goalkeeping category. Returnee Bill Miller, a sophomore, and freshman Matthew Infante from Midland Dow High School will back up Sheehy.

A rugged schedule again faces the Pioneers. Three 1991 NCAA Tournament participants are on the slate, starting with Northeast region finalist Keene State, an early-season opponent on September 12 at the Lock Haven Tournament. The other two are California State-San Bernadino, coming to the Marriott Soccer Classic, and Missouri-St. Louis, which hosts OU in its tourney. Other opponents include regional rivals Lock Haven, Mercyhurst, Northeast Missouri State and Lewis on the road, plus Northern Kentucky, Gannon and Wisconsin-Parkside at home. The Pioneers will also face the five Division I schools in Michigan in search of yet another Great Lakes State Cup.

The Pioneers have extended their year past the regularly scheduled finale nine times in coach Parsons' 11 seasons. Oakland has the talent to make its 10th NCAA trip, but how far it goes will depend on the answers to the lineup questions. If a solid goal-scorer emerges, OU could make a run to the top as it concludes its second decade of soccer.
