Unionists Inducted for Shakedown by Detroit Grand Jury

(From AP and UP Dispatches)

DETROIT — Five AFL Teamsters Union officials indicted on charges of extorting Detroit-area contractors of hundreds of thousands of dollars in a shakedown racket stood mute on arraignment in Circuit Court today.

Pleas of innocent were entered for them. Examination was set tentatively for later this month by Recorder's Judge John A. Ricca.

The indictments were handed down yesterday after a two-month investigation by a grand jury. They also named four unidentified John Does on charges of extortion.

Grand jury aides reported the probe was into shake-downs of Detroit area contractors on major construction work, including the John C. Lodge and Edsel Ford Expressways and the City-County building.

Those indicted were accused of asking and receiving a fee—reportedly 5 cents for each load of dirt excavated from the various construction projects—from contractors.

Aides also said the defendants were charged with accepting money from contractors to prevent or end labor disputes.

The alleged offenses occurred between Jan. 1, 1948, and Aug. 31, 1953, the indictments charged.

Teamsters officials indicted included:

Mike E. Nicoletti, 43, president and business agent of Local 247.

Samuel J. Marrosso, 39, also a Local 247 business agent.

Anthony J. Liuzzo, a third business agent of Local 247.

Daniel J. Keating of Pontiac, 51, president and business agent of Pontiac Local 614.

Frank E. Fitzsimmons, 45, of Milford, vice president of Local 299.

The five appeared yesterday before Judge Culehan and he set bonds of $5,000 each for Nicoletti, Marrosso, Liuzz and Keating and $2,000 for Fitzsimmons.

Another business agent of Local 247, Zeny Grzelewski, was named

15,800 Students Bulge Schools This Semester

Wever Junior to Open Monday; Bagley Finds Big Overflow

At least one school overflowed today as some 15,800 students of Pontiac Public Schools swarmed back to classrooms to start the fall semester.

And another, Wever Junior High School, will remain closed until Monday as workmen put finishing touches on remodeling work.

J. C. Cox, assistant superintendent of schools, said today that Bagley School overflowed "with youngsters who are brand new in the area—probably many from the public housing project."

Two classes found themselves sitting in the school gym this morning, he said, and a third group met under a tree in the school yard.

Pontiac Board of Education, however, has rented the Catholic Information Center on Bagley street, just across from the school, to handle most of the overflow. Two classrooms will be set up there by Monday.

The third room, Cox said, will probably be in the school library.

In some other schools, classes answered roll call to the accompaniment of hammers and saws as last-minute construction work went on.

Cox said total enrollment figures from the various schools will probably be available late today.

The school board, racing to keep ahead of mushrooming enrollment, built five new elementary school additions, the new 12-room Hawthorne school and a three-story Pontiac High School addition this summer.

Cox said he thinks the system's additional teachers and the new buildings will keep class sizes down to 32 youngsters in each elementary classroom and 25 in junior and senior high schools.

Richard Miller Dies of Injuries

Pontiac Student Loses Fight for Life Following 2-Car Accident

A 12-hour fight for life was lost yesterday when Richard Miller, 16, of 586 Fourth St. died in Pontiac General Hospital of injuries received in a two car accident on East Drahner road.

He was one of four occupants in a car returning at 2:30 a. m. from a steak roast held by a group of teenagers in the Grampian Hills near Lake Orion.

The car failed to make a sharp curve and ran off the road hitting another auto carrying five youths who also had slid off the shoulder. Four other teenagers were hurt, none seriously.

Miller remained in critical condition according to a hospital report, until his death early yesterday afternoon. His parents are Mrs. and Mrs. Adam J. Miller.

Born in Grand Traverse County Jan. 9, 1937, he had resided in Pontiac 13 years. He was in the eleventh grade at Pontiac High School.

Besides his parents he is survived by a brother and two sisters, Carl J. of Pontiac, Janet E. and Phyllis A., all at home.

Rosary service will be Friday at 8:30 p. m. in Donelson-Johns Funeral Home.

More Fair Weather Forecast for Friday

Pontiac area residents can expect continued fair skies and pleasant weather tonight and Friday according to the U. S. Weather Bureau.

Temperatures will range from a low of 52 to 55 tonight, to a high of 78 to 82 degrees Friday.

Today at 8 a.m. the reading was 56 degrees, but at 1 p.m. in downtown Pontiac the mercury registered 77.

Woman's Screams Call Neighbors to Rescue

Youth Makes Flying Tackle, Donald O'Brien Questioned, Confesses 3 Assaults

A suspect in the rape-slaying of Mrs. Hallie Perkins, sought by police for her death and the attack on a 16-year-old girl, was caught last night as he attempted to drag a screaming woman into a darkened, vacant field.

Frightened by the screams, the attacker fled but was downed by an 18-year-old youth's flying tackle and knocked unconscious by the force of the impact.

Donald V. O'Brian, 27, of 4 Liberty St., married and the father of two children, admitted in a statement today, according to Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem the rape-attack on Mrs. Perkins, 55, and the 16-year-old, as well as last night's attack.

Credited with his capture are James Brown, 18, of 37 Vinewood St. and Jack Seebald, 48, of 27 Oriole Rd.

They told police they heard the shrieks of Mrs. Mary Forgette, 46, of 20 Oriole Rd., and heard her scream "catch that man."

Mrs. Forgette said today she was grabbed around the neck from behind as she stepped into her backyard after walking home from a theater.

The quiet, residential neighborhood, has high trees lining both sides of the streets and is poorly lighted near Mrs. Forgette's house.

During his statement to the prosecutor this morning, O'Brian admitted attacking Mrs. Perkins on Baldwin avenue near Beverly street and dragging her into a weed-grown field where he bound her hands and feet and attacked her.

He told Ziem he didn't know Mrs. Perkins was dead and thought that perhaps she was only unconscious.

He did admit, however, Ziem said, that he covered the woman's body with a discarded suit coat and wooden planking found nearby. Mrs. Perkins' partly decomposed body was found about noon Aug. 15 and police immediately began a manhunt for the killer.

The 16-year-old girl, attacked only two blocks from the spot where Mrs. Perkins' body was found nine hours earlier in the day, also was bound with her own clothing.

She managed to struggle to a nearby home and summon police. Police redoubled the search for the killer, linked to both crimes.

In his confession this morning O'Brian told Ziem "I don't want to do it but I can't help myself — particularly when I drink."

Then, Ziem said, the suspect told of nocturnal visits to bars in downtown Pontiac and of stalking the streets looking for victims.

O'Brian said he believed the attack occurred on a Monday night when he saw Mrs. Perkins walking south on the Baldwin avenue sidewalk, according to Ziem.

The prosecutor quoted O'Brian as saying he crossed the street and

Hearing Results Due Wednesday

Mrs. Cartrette Remains in County Jail on First Degree Murder Charge

A decision on yesterday's examination of Mrs. Lucy Cartrette, 33, in the fatal shooting of her husband, Scarborough, 32, is scheduled to be handed down next Wednesday by Pontiac Municipal Judge Charles P. Webster.

Mrs. Cartrette is being held in Oakland County Jail without bond on a first degree murder warrant approved by Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem.

At the conclusion of yesterday's all-day examination First Assistant Prosecutor James G. Hartrick asked that Mrs. Cartrette of 259 S. Jessie St., be bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court on the first degree murder charge.

Her attorneys asked that the charge be reduced to manslaughter, contending that no evidence of first degree murder had been introduced to the court.

The fatal shooting took place in te home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Wright of 105 Judson St. on Aug. 29.

Frank Robbins, Hatcher's Aide, Retires at UM

ANN ARBOR (AP) — His 65th birthday and his official retirement from the University of Michigan came simultaneously here yesterday for Dr. Frank E. Robbins, assistant to President Harlan H. Hatcher.

But neither event prompted any special ceremony of observance.

Dr. Robbins worked as usual in his second floor office in the university Administration Building.

He is a native of Westfield, Mass., and holds degrees from Wesleyan University and University of Chicago.

Though his official retirement is effective today, Dr. Robbins will continue at his job for some time as no successor has been chosen.

Eisenhower, Truman at Vinson Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP) — The humble and the great offered a last mournful tribute today to Fred M. Vinson who was born of modest origin and died as chief justice of the United States.

From the national capital and the country over they assembled for funeral services in the great choir of Washington Episcopal Cathedral.

Special places were reserved for President Eisenhower, former President Truman, Supreme Court justices, Cabinet members, diplomats. There was space, too, for just plain people come to honor a distinguished American.

Vinson died of a heart attack early Tuesday morning. He was 63.

For nearly three decades this friendly man had served his country. As a congressman from Kentucky, as secretary of the Treasury and in other high positions in the executive branch of the government, and finally for seven years as chief justice.

Tomorrow he will be buried in Louisa, Ky., the little town where he was born, in a cemetery on the bluffs of the big Sandy River.

Truman counted Vinson as a

There's a Big Parade Today---Boys and Girls Are Going Back to School

Pontiac Press Photos

"THE ROAD BACK"—School bells tolled the end of summer vacation today for some 16,000 students of Pontiac Public Schools.

Above are a few of the boys and girls who turned their steps back from vacation ways to classrooms.

Stephen Lewis, 12, of 119 Elizabeth Lake Rd., who joined biking companion Ronnie Newman, 12, of 55 Waldo St. and dubious David Brown, 6, of 142 Washington St. cast an over-the-shoulder look at the apple that Lowell Vollmar, 6, 138 Washington St., felt might help start the year off right.

But there were first-timers signing up today and Friday for first kindergarten sessions Monday who didn't find the way familiar.

Typical of these half-doubtful tots were five-year-old Cheryl Hayes, 128 Henderson St., and Gilbert Stephison, 92 Henderson, clinging tight to each other's reassuring hands as they faced their first encounter with a schoolroom.

Nose-Count Reveals That Birmingham, Hills Schools Lack Enough Classrooms

(From Our Birmingham Bureau)

BIRMINGHAM—Swinging school doors slowed briefly yesterday and all-important nose-counting began, as Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills surveyed how they stood in the battle to house their children for education.

Birmingham Supt. Dr. Dwight B. Ireland revealed a 525-child gain since summer vacation began, and estimated the figure would reach 600 shortly. The increase is "very slightly below last year, which is not much of a tapering-off," he said.

Total after the first full day was 6,603. "This proves our desperate need for present construction — we're using locker rooms and every possible special room as classrooms," Ireland added.

Bloomfield Hills attendance figures climbed almost 100 pupils over the summer, and set the total there at 788.

"We've reached the danger point in several classes," Supt. Eugene L. Johnson stated. "Our hopes were to hold classes at 25 pupils each, but they are all over 30 and three have more than 40 pupils." No half-day sessions are planned yet, he said.

Starting five years ago with less than a half dozen children, the Baptist Weekday Nursery School has grown steadily and will open its new season next Monday.

The sessions will be from 9 a.m. to noon and will include games, rhythm routines, musical play, refreshments, Bible stories, prayer and rest time. New toys, block sets, manual crafts supplies and play equipment have been added this year.

Director of the school will be Mrs. C. Holger Johnson, assisted by Mrs. Frank W. Prowse. Both have had specialized training and experience in this field, and recently completed courses at the laboratory school at American Baptist Assembly, Wis. Advance registration will be taken tomorrow from 10 a. m. to noon.

Mrs. Hertha R. Wetmore

Service for Mrs. Hertha R. Wetmore, 85, of 361 Shirley Dr. will be Saturday in Evanston, Ill., with burial in Memorial Park Cemetery there.

A resident here at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Vehmeyer, since her husband, the late Ethelbert R. Wetmore, died two years ago, she is also survived by Mrs. D. J. Hutchins of Detroit. She will be taken to Chicago tonight from the Bell Chapel of the William R. Hamilton Co.

$150 Taken From Safe in Store on Telegraph

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Police Chief Clark Green said about $150 was taken yesterday from the safe removed from a carpeting concern at 1666 S. Telegraph.

Damage and loss at a sporting goods and taxidermist store at 1780 S. Telegraph, believed to have been entered by the same person, has not been estimated, Green said.

Sees Russia's Aim as Trade

Father Kubik Explains to Local Lions We Must Lead by Example

"Russia's greatest potential is not the A-bomb or H-bomb and her chief aims is not to spread communism throughout the world.

"Instead, her major goal is the same as the old dream of the czars—creation of a vast union of Slavic peoples for promotion of world trade.

"Her greatest potential is her vast store of natural resources. This is greater even than ours, for the simple reason that she has much more land."

This is the opinion of the Rev. Joseph Kubik, professor of history at St. Mary College at Orchard Lake. Fr. Kubik, son of Polish parents who carried on trade with Russia for many years, recently spent two and a half years abroad for his church, to study political and social trends in Eastern Europe. He spoke before Pontiac Lion Club Wednesday.

Commenting that guns and bombs can be used only to enslave people, Fr. Kubik recalled that no nation has ever been able to enslave Russia because of the vastness of the country.

He said the answer is to understand the Russian background and in showing the people that our way of life is superior to the Communist way which has been imposed in the Soviet states.

He pointed out similarities between Russia and the United States: Both are republics comprised of sovereign states with a central, representative government; both were founded by revolution; both have vast geographical areas and both are now industrialized countries.

He said that politically, Russia differs from us only in that the party now in power has eliminated all opposition for the time being.

He denied the popular belief that Russia is Oriental, and said that the Russians are actually Eastern European, with many of their present concepts and customs having been imported from Western Europe.

Actually, communism was born in Geramny and France and transplanted to Russia," he said. He expressed belief that the 180,000,000 Russians might some day throw off the yoke of the 10,000,000 who comprise the Communist party.

He said that the Communists have been unable to wipe out the religious convictions of the people, and that elimination of religious leaders in Russia was done because religious and political leadership is inseparable in the minds of Eastern Europeans.

Every leader, whether he a shah, caliph, sultan or other leader is both religious and political in his power. There is no separation.

He criticised former President Truman for his Labor Day address, saying: "It was disheartening to hear a former President advise his followers to quit assisting Republicans and be Democrats first.

"I think we should be Americans first and party members later.

"It is such a course that can demonstrate to other peoples that our type of a democrary offers the best way."

Alleged Rape Slayer Captured by Youth

grabbed Mrs. Perkins around the neck.

After dragging her into the field and attacking her, O'Brien told Ziem that he bound her hands and feet and left her there.

"I get a wild feeling sometimes I can't control," O'Brian told authorities. "I don't know why I did it."

Taken to the fields today where Mrs. Perkins body was found and where the teen-ager was attacked, O'Brian pointed to the exact spots where both crimes were committed, according to Pontiac police.

Pontiac Police Detective John DePau, who has been coordinating the search for the slayer, and Michigan State Police Detective Sgt. Charles Leaf, questioned O'Brian throughout the night on various other crimes.

They said today the suspect also admitted an attack on a young girl four years ago near Myrtle and Huron Sts.

Ziem said the suspect also will be questioned in connection with the attempted attack on Mrs. May White of 2409 Mann Rd., Waterford Township, and the slaying of JoAnn Gillespie last Jan. 2 in Detroit.

Mrs. White said a man burst into her home and tried to attack her on Aug. 20, but fled when she screamed and ran to a neighbor's house.

Brown, who aided in last night's capture, was graduated from St. Frederick High School this year. He said he never played football. He'll continue his education at Michigan State College this fall.

Seebald, the other neighbor who chased the fleeing man, is a salesman at Pontiac Retail Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown told today how they were sitting in their living room when Mrs. Forgette's hysterical screams brought them to the door.

Brown called police immediately while his son ran to the neighbor's assistance.

The suspect's flight was halted abruptly by the flying tackle just as he reached the corner of Oriole road and headed down Genesee.

Aroused neighbors poured from their homes and surrounded the suspect while Brown and Seebald straddled their captive.

Mrs. Perkins had been missing from the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Perkins Jr., 76 W. Longfellow Ave., for 11 days before her body was discovered in the weed-choked field.

Police had warned women and children in the Baldwin-Beverly Ave. area to stay indoors at night for fear the slayer would return to the neighborhod.

The first break in the case came when the 16-year-old girl furnished a description of her attacker to Pontiac Police.

A composite drawing of the suspect was printed and distributed throughout the area in an attempt to track down the killer.

Police said today the composite drawing is an excellent likeness of the suspect arrested last night.

Police had been searching for one man in both crimes since Mrs. Perkins' body was bound in the same fashion as that of the young girl attacked shortly after.

The dead woman was found only four blocks from her home by two fishermen searching for crickets in the deserted field. Her body was identified by her daughter-in-law, attracted to the field by the commotion.

O'Brian, an employe of a Bloomfield Hills lawn and garden company, was described by Ziem as appearing rational and said he had no doubt that the suspect's confession is factual.

During his confession, Ziem said, he corroborated the 16-year-old's story of her attack.

He will be taken to the field where Mrs. Perkins' body was found later today, Ziem said.

O'Brian will also appear in a police line-up today for identification by the 16-year-old girl and will be held in Oakland County Jail.

A first degree murder warrant and possibly one for rape will be issued against the suspect tomorrow, Ziem said.

Authorities launched one of the biggest man-hunts in Pontiac's history after the discovery of Mrs. Perkins' body and the attack on the teen-ager.

Thirty-four men were released after the 16-year-old girl was unable to identify them in police show-ups. About 60 other suspects were questioned and released.

Police received several thousand tips during the month-long investigation.

Many tips came from jittery housewives in the Baldwin-Beverly section who kept their children inside after dark and demanded cutting of high weeds and more street lights.

In an effort to halt further sex attacks, the city launched a weed-cutting program along local bus routes.

Pontiac City Commission also last week posted a $5,000 reward for the arrest and conviction of the slayer.

Police Chief Herbert W. Straley assigned every available man to the investigation.

Armed with an artist's conception of the teen-ager's attacker, police combed the Baldwin-Beverly Ave., area for tips.

State Police and Oakland County Sheriff's deputies joined in the hunt.

Mrs. Forgette was treated at Pontiac General Hospital this morning for a bruised jaw suffered when her assailant struck her.

New Hurricane May Miss U. S.

Forecaster Predicts That Storm May Not Touch Florida Mainland

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical hurricane Dolly, packing winds of 100 miles per hour, took a slight curve to the northwest today lessening the threat to the Bahama Islands and the Florida Coast.

An Air Force plane from Bermuda penetrated the season's fourth tropical storm at 8:45 a. m. (EST) and located the center about 600 miles east and a little south of Miami.

Grady Norton, chief storm forecaster at the Miami Weather Bureau, said that "if the hurricane continued on its present course it would not touch the Florida mainland."

Norton emphasized the "if," and pointed out the storm was still in the formative stage, and conditions might change in a few hours.

He said the plane reported hurricane Dolly was still open to the south and had not formed a complete circle around the eye. That was the reason for the various positions reported in the past 24 hours, he said.

The storm had been moving on a north northwest course. At 5 a. m. (EST), it was centered about 160 miles northwest of Turks Island.

trusted adviser. He put him in his Cabinet and then on the Supreme Court bench. Eisenhower, too, esteemed the jurist as a personal friend, even though Vinson was a lifelong Democrat.

And today President and former President were drawn together for the first time since the change of administrations for a final measure of homage to a man they saluted as a great citizen.

Eisenhower interrupted his Colorado vacation to fly to Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Truman came by train from their Missouri home.

The eight remaining members of the Supreme Court, the honorary pallbearers at the services here and in Louisa, interrupted their own vacations to be on hand.

For six hours last night. Vinson's body lay in state in a funeral home on Pennsylvania avenue, two blocks from the White House. Standing near the open casket was a cross of white gladioli and asters from the White House.

Birmingham Youth Mending From Mishap

BIRMINGHAM — Carlo Orlando, 16, of 2488 Yorkshire, is recovering in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital from a broken leg suffered when he was struck by a car while riding his bicycle, at Maple and Hunter Saturday.

'U.S. Must Plan Liberal Tariff'

Head of International Fund Sees Exchange of Goods Needed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The ability of the United States to avoid depression will largely determine whether the world can achieve a free and stable exchange of goods and money, the International Monetary Fund declared today.

In its annual report to governors of the fund and the World Bank, representing 55 nations, the fund reported substantial progress toward a balance of world trade—a pattern free from recurring dollar shortages abroad.

* * *

But the balance is precarious and can be upset, the report said, if the United States and other creditor countries maintain high tariff and other trade barriers or, because of recession, curtail their imports.

* * *

The possibility of "even a rather small decline in American business activity' gives concern to many nations, the report said. It emphasized that the decline of U.S. military spending need not necessarily cause a business dip, and noted that the U.S. government is committed to take vigorous measures to combat any slump.

"However, any short downturn would at once bring back the dollar problem in its full severity, despite any action taken by other countries in the meantime to strengthen their position,' the report said.

* * *

Ivar Rooth, the fund's managing director, in a speech prepared for delivery on presentation of the report today, echoed the appeal made yesterday by World Bank President Eugene R. Black for a more liberal U. S. tariff policy.

If the fund's debtor countries are to achieve "convertibility'—that is, make their money freely exchangeable for dollars and other currencies—they must have more ready access to markets where dollars can be earned, Rooth said.

9 Airmen Await Rescue in Desert

LUKE AIR FRCE BASE, Ariz. (AP)—Nine airmen, a blistering day and a chilly night on the desert behind them, awaited rescue today, nearly 20 hours after bailing from their damaged plane.

They fell into desert terrain so rugged that two ground rescue convoys were forced to turn back. The Air Force now plans to use a helicopter to pick them up.

Apparently none was injured after their four-engine KC97 collided with a B47 while refueling in flight.

* * *

The ships limped back safely, the Stratojet to Davis-Monthan Air Force Base, Tucson, with its crew aboard and unhurt. The flying tanker's pilot, Capt. F. F. Jenkinson, brought his plane down here. Its home base is Smoky Hill Air Force Base, Salina, Kan.

The search for the 'chutists was taken up by 35 planes before a jet pilot sighted them 'alive and appearing unhurt" near the remote southwestern Arizona town of Sundad.

Their fires directed planes which dropped supplies during the night.

TV Payment Excuse Fails to Impress Army

LONDON (AP)—Harold Sneath, 22, told a court martial he failed to report for reserve training because he feared he could not keep up the installments on his television set on army pay.

He was sentenced yesterday to 42 days detention for being absent without leave.

Senate Group to Probe Teenage Gang Warfare

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gang warfare between organized mobs of teenagers is a prime item on the agenda of the Senate judiciary subcommittee's nationwide inquiry into juvenile delinquency.

Chairman Hendrickson (R-NJ) said in an interview today:

"We hope to have task forces of local leaders aid us in all large cities where there are juvenile delinquency problems."

Weather Bureau Happy

ST. LOUIS (AP)—New self assurance is in evidence among employes of the government weather bureau here. For the first time in years they held their annual summer picnic without rain.

Woman and Companion Scale 23,410-Foot Peak

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—A petite French dressmaker and a Swiss missionary turned mountain climber have conquered 23,410-foot Nun Kun peak in Kashmir, according to reports reaching here today.

Mrs. Claude Kogan, 34, of Nice, France, and 27-year-old Pierre Viddoz reached the summit Aug. 28, the report said. The two are members of a French expedition led by Parisian silk merchant Bernard Pierre.

The National Geographic Society says the first storm windows in America are believed to be those at Monticello, Thomas Jefferson's home.

Hohenzollerns Back in News

Theft of Royal Jewels Reminder of Prussia in Her Heyday

WASHINGTON—Prussia, a kingdom that is no more, came back to the news recently when thieves escaped with the royal Hohenzoller jewels of Germany.

In their loot, inestimable in historic value, were diamond-studded snuffboxes of Frederick the Great; gold plate given Kaiser Wilhelm II by his mother; coronation robes of German emperors, and the baton of the Hohenzollern marshals. Strangely, the Prussian crown itself was left behind.

Twenty generations of Hohenzollerns built and ruled Prussia over a span of 500 years, the National Geographic Society says.

They consolidated the German kingdoms, intrigued against Hapsburgs, Bourbons, Bonapartes, and Russian tsars, marched armies across Europe, and made the name "Prussia" synonymous with militarism.

Today Prussia does not exist as a geographic or political entity. Blood-and-iron heart of the pre-World War I German Empire, it became a "Land" of the Weimar Republic after 1918 and was merged into the Third Reich by the Nazis after 1933.

It finally was broken up entirely following World War II.

The Hohenzollern family fell with the Kaiser's abdication in 1918. The various remaining branches became only private citizens in a changed world.

Hohenzollern Castle, their ancestral home, stands like a storybook fortress at the summit of a 2,800-foot-high mountain near the town of Hechingen in southern Germany, 50 miles from the Swiss border. Soaring towers and turreted seven-sided walls rise from precipitious rock.

A "Zollern" castle has stood on that spot since the ninth century, although the present structure, built by Kaiser Friedrich Wilhelm IV, dates from the 1850s.

The two lowest of five stories were specially designed for defense, yet the modern-day thieves succeeded in sealing the walls and cutting the inch-thick iron bars with pincers.

Ike Arrives in Capital for Vinson's Funeral

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, interrupting his Colorado vacation to attend the funeral of Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson, arrived in Washington early today.

Vice President Nixon greeted him as he stepped from the presidential plane Columbine at Washington National Airport. The President called cheerily:

"Hi, there, Dick. What are you doing here?"

Army Plan Could Cut Traffic Deaths

(AP Features)

WASHINGTON — A national disaster on U. S. highways is masked by the fact that death, injury and damage are scattered in time and place, says L. S. Harris, director of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators.

To dramatize, he asks you to imagine that the entire population of Nebraska had been injured — 325,000 people.

Imagine further that everyone in Alliance, Broken Bow, Kearney and North Platte had been killed — 40,000 people.

That is the estimated traffic toll for 1953, he says. To meet that disaster, he urges civilians to adopt the U.S. Army safety program for the road.

The Army accident rate has dropped 34 per cent since the safety program began: from 2.6 per 100,000 miles in 1946 to 1.71 in 1952, he says. In contrast the civilian rate was 2 plus for 1952.

The Army formula for safety on the road is:

1. Keep windows of the vehicle open; breath deeply.
2. Stop for coffee, or just rest every two hours.
3. If drowsiness sets in, stop vehicle, get out and exercise briskly.
4. If possible, change driver every two hours.
5. If the driver becomes too tired or sleepy, pull off road and rest until ready to continue.

5 Years No Worry, but Finding $10 Is

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) —John H. Hernandez apparently has more time than money.

Admitting a marijuana charge to Federal Judge Allen B. Hannay, Hernandez hardly batted an eye when told of his five-year sentence in prison yesterday.

He flinched when told of his $10 fine, however, and swung around with a worried look on his face.

"When do I have to pay the fine?' he asked.

St. Die, a small town in France, is sometines called the godmother of America because it was there that the name "America" was first proposed in 1507.

Quick U. S. Aid for Iran

There will be few if any objections to the prompt cash aid given the new government of Iran by President EISENHOWER.

The $45,000,000 already delivered at Tehran is in addition to the $23,400,000 in Point IV assistance earmarked for that unhappy country. Together these sums should do much to give Premier ZAHEDI the breathing spell he needs to establish a constitutional regime under the Shah.

That ZAHEDI needs such a breathing spell is obvious. When he took office with the royalist coup, the national treasury was empty and the country bankrupt.

What Iran needs now more than anything else is a return to economic stability. That can come only from a reasonably prompt and fair settlement of the oil dispute with Britain and resumption of marketing the country's oil.

Whether or not ZAHEDI can undo the damage caused by MOSSADEGH'S disastrous policy, this cash aid was a sound investment in Iranian goodwill toward us. If it enables the new government to make a start toward improving the lot of the masses, it will prove itself a doubly wise action to discourage Communist designs on Iran.

State Aids Apple Sales

It will be good news for Michigan apple growers to learn that the State Apple Commission has completed plans for an intensive publicity campaign to push sales of their 1953 crop.

Besides arranging for publicity in 1,200 Mid-Western newspapers and radio programs, the Commission has prepared attractive sales promotion kits for retailers. In addition, each package of apples sold at retail will include a selected apple recipe and a special coupon for use in ordering the large new recipe folder.

While Michigan is famed as an apple state, our growers face stiff competition from New York and Washington. A campaign that will remind housewives everywhere that our apples are finer in flavor and quality than any grown in the United States should benefit growers and consumers alike.

★ ★ ★

With the aid of this publicity and proper attention to packaging and shipping, there is no reason why delicious, healthful Michigan apples should not be in strong demand everywhere.

Fire Chief's Warning

Because of the record hot dry weather of recent days, Fire Chief SCHROEDER'S warning of increased danger from grass and leaf fires is timely.

Until the end of the heat wave there had been no rain in Pontiac since August 7. The result is fields are unusually dry and leaves are falling earlier than normal. Already the department has had to respond to 30 grass fire alarms.

In contrast to last September when rainfall was sufficiently heavy to prevent grass fires, there is much more danger this year of such fires getting out of control.

We urge all householders to cooperate by following the Chief's suggestions on how to burn rubbish and leaves safely. Ordinary care by everyone, particularly on windy days, will avert possible serious property damage and even loss of life.

At Your Own Risk

JOSEPH W. HARDING, Assistant Director of Ohio's Industrial Relations Department, is dead because of his own kindness.

Outside of Columbus, he gave a ride to a young soldier later found to be AWOL from Camp Atterbury, Ind. When the hitchhiker attempted to rob him, HARDING was fatally shot trying to wrest the gun from his assailant.

Every crime like this persuades more and more motorists to ignore their own kindly inclinations to give wayfarers a lift. The result is that the vast majority of deserving hitchhikers suffer.

That, however, should not obscure the fact that the HARDING case emphasizes anew that when you give a hitchhiker a ride, you do so at your own risk.

MANY a person who is working hard and saving money for a rainy day will die in the meantime, and somebody else will blow his savings in while the sun is shining.

THE reason no one is reporting flying saucers now is that the kind that could be seen and heard have become obsolete. The newer models now visiting the earth are invisible and noiseless.

"NO ONE knows how much money is spent in tipping," says a statistician. This is especially true of the auditor who tries to check up expense accounts.

Excellent Year for Raising the Most Delectable Bird

Procrastination: What may cause you to lose out in the Man About Town football contest.

Good news is found in the announcement that this has been a good summer for turkey raising, and the Thanksgiving bird should cost no more than last year. Most temperamental of all birds, the young turkeys sometimes keel over and die for no apparent excuse, and are exceptionally allergic to thunderstorms. This year we have had few such storms, and the turkey mortality rate has been lower than usual. Oakland County's largest turkey raisers, report that they have over 6,000 of the birds now putting on extra layers of white meat and developing bigger drum sticks. Their farm is located in Lyon Township.

Charles Coe and Sons,

The city of Pontiac is fortunate that it has possession of beautiful Beaudette Park.

A few years back, before the city became owner of this property, it was surrounded by a clean body of water called the Dawson Pond, always holding its same water level.

Today for some untold reason the city of Pontiac is trying every way possible to surround this beautiful park with a first class swamp. Why?

Believes God Is Never Bound by His Own Laws

Recently a letter in this column stated that God's laws are eternal and unchangeable. I consider this not entirely true.

God is the originator of natural law, but God is also the worker of miracles as well and we may well say that God is never bound by His own laws. He may set aside or overcome any natural law.

In Joshua 10:13 we read, "So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven and hasted not to go down about a whole day." Notice the increase of oil for the needy widow and the floating of the iron ax-head as recorded in II Kings.

What about Christ feeding the thousands with the increase of the loaves and fishes and the stilling of the wind and waves on Lake Galilee so completely and suddenly? Did the law of gravitation hinder the Christ of the ascension?

I would suggest that while all members of the human family are related, a spiritual brotherhood is based on a spirit conversion.

Willie arrived home with two black eyes.

"Yes, I know," returned Willie, "but the other boy's mother told him only to count fifty."

Our Korea Dead Fought Real Aggression, Not Just an Academic, Red Philosophy

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Adlai Stevenson has brought back from his trip around the world an impression about the attitude of many of our Allies toward the United States. It is not clear how much he himself shares, but his challenge to the Eisenhower administration to line itself up with what looks like an appeasement policy in world affairs is unmistakable.

The presidential nominee of 1952 on the Democratic ticket is quoted in a copyrighted interview in "Newsweek" as saying:

"We must decide whether we are trying to destroy communism or trying to achieve a peaceful coexistence with it. The rest of the free world is alarmed by our seeming inflexibility.

"There's a suspicion that our objective is to exterminate communism. They see little prospect of obliterating communism except very gradually or by war—and they don't want war."

Stevenson makes the fatal error of assuming the communism as a philosophy or as a social system is under attack by the United States, when the truth is the real enemy is Communist imperialism. He forgets we are allied with Communist Yugoslavia.

It is the tyrannical totalitarianism in Moscow — not some theory of economics—which menaces the peace of the world and keeps hundreds of millions of persons in bondage.

The delusion that the free world can appease or can "negotiate" any kind of settlement with a group of evil men who have lost all sense of honor and morality still prevails in many parts of the world and indeed in this hemisphere.

* * *

Lester Pearson, Canada's representative in the United Nations General Assembly, delivered a speech at Dartmouth College in which he, too, made the erroneous assumption that American policy for the last several years has been aimed merely at the destruction of communism as an intellectual philosophy.

* * *

Actually, this is a misrepresentation and distortion of the point of view of the American government, as a rereading of the speech by President Eisenhower before the American Society of Newspaper Editors on April 16 will corroborate.

Stevenson says our Allies "need convincing that we are more interested in settlements by negotiation, in reducing tensions, and in stability, than in force and military action," and he added that the West may have to live in a world with communism for a long time, "perhaps for many years."

The former governor of Illinois says the administration here "must begin to talk to the world in terms of what we are for, rather than what we are against—merely being against communism is old stuff in Europe and will win few hearts in Asia."

This is a sad commentary on all the millions of dollars spent by the Truman-Acheson administration for information services and Voice of America broadcasts abroad.

It is a tragic record of the failure of Europeans to take note of most of America's public statements since the Korean War broke out. Evidently, to take Stevenson's analysis of world opinion, the United States has simply been ranting against an economic philosophy and this is "old stuff."

Has Stevenson read of the free food given away to East Germans recently? Has he read about the promise of President Eisenhower on April 16 to spend for peaceful purposes the billions saved on armament when Soviet Russia adopts the ways of peace—billions that will go toward alleviating poverty and hunger in the world?

One would think from reading what is being said about the United States abroad that America is a bellicose, ungenerous nation, bent on making everybody think alike on intellectual doctrine, and that communism as a philosophy is about all the American government has been opposing.

It's a palpable piece of propaganda which has been spread around the world about the United States and its aims.

When Stevenson now calls for a clarification of our aims, he is doing a disservice to his own party as well as to the present administration. For the aims of this country have been made very clear under both the Democratic and Republican administrations in the eight years since World War II ended.

What is really wrong is that so-called statesmen abroad in both Europe and Asia are being bluffed by the tyrants in Russia, and are afraid to stand up firmly against despotism.

So they call instead either for "neutralism" or "appeasement," or they avoid the issue by talking about communism as a philosophy or they adopt the Moscow jargon about "peaceful coexistence."

The American government isn't spending billions to build an Army, Navy and Air Force just to fight a so-called intellectual doctrine. The 25,000 American dead and 115,000 wounded in Korea weren't fighting an academic battle on the merits of any economic philosophy.

They were fighting the real enemy of freedom in the world—Communist imperialism and acts of aggression.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Urges Mothers to Serve Simple Meals on Sunday

Grace has a problem that bothers most of you wives at some time or other. She has too many friends, especially for Sunday dinner. And these unexpected "droppers-in" are becoming a pain in the neck. So use the strategy outlined below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case H-382: Grace S., aged 32, has three young children.

"Dr. Crane, our problem is too many friends!" she protested.

"Oh, I know that sounds odd. But guests drop in on us every weekend. If it isn't one group of relatives or friends, it is another.

"Now I wouldn't mind having them when I expect them. But these unexpected visits are getting me down.

"Because of our three young children, I don't have much free time to have a date away from home with my husband.

"Weekends would be my best time except for the fact we always have uninvited guests who drop in.

"These droppers-in are really becoming a pain in the neck. So what can I do?"

Sometimes relatives and friend impose on a country relative partly for the delight in getting away from the city, but partly to have an old fashioned bountiful dinner.

And as a rule, these city visitors don't pitch in to help with the kitchen work or dishwashing with any alacrity.

So in such cases, you overworked wives can beat them to the draw. Get your brood ready for Sunday school or early mass. Then stay away from home by leaving after church for a picnic at some neighboring park.

Remember, it is usually sunny, warm days when people get in the mood to take a drive. That is especially true of city dwellers.

So have your picnic hamper ready and if the weatherman predicts a balmy day on Sunday, then you duck out early for church and your family picnic.

Another excellent plan, which relieves the wife of undue slavery to her kitchen on the Sabbath, is to limit Sunday meals to cheese sandwiches, bread and milk, or fruit.

Make it a rule to serve cold meals on Sunday. Your children will get a much bigger thrill out of having more time with their parents than in losing mother to the kitchen all day, even though they get a hot dinner.

Then, during the week, you wives can prove your culinary skill by feeding your best dinners to your husband and children.

But make the Sabbath as much a day of rest as possible in the kitchen. That would be good for you wives even if you didn't suffer from droppers-in.

And if you still get caught with unexpected visitors, then take them along for an outdoor picnic so you eliminate much of the dish washing.

If you wives would only quit being so fearful about your rating as cooks, you'd quit killing yourselves with Sunday meals, anyway.

For most of us husbands are too well fed. We'd gladly go on simple rations on Sunday in order to have you with us for hikes or at golf, etc.

Now for you unexpected visitors and regular diners at the old family homestead. Be sure you take your parents or friends more food than you consume.

If you want to barge in upon other people, then more than pay your own way. Take fruit or ice cream or a cooked ham and thus furnish most of the menu so your hostess has only the dishes and clean up job afterwards.

For if she is to be deprived of her Sunday with her little family, at least she deserves a free meal even if she must help clean up afterwards.

A lot of cheapskate city people will barge in upon their elderly parents or country friends and bring maybe two quarts of ice cream, though they meanwhile save $5 to $10 by avoiding having dinner at a restaurant in town. So quit being penny ante with your relatives.

Mild Exercise or Long Walks Will Help to Ward Off Heart Pains, Says Brady

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

In the "doctor's bible" Sir William, when he was still just Dr. Osler, wrote:

"Mental emotion is a very potent cause of angina pectoris. John Hunter appreciated this when he said that 'his life was in the hands of any rascal who chose to annoy and tease him.' In his case a fatal attack occurred during a fit of anger."

Poor old John—he popped off at the age of 65 years.

Huh! Poor old William kept breathing until he had just barely reached the prosaic three score and ten.

With brashness, I dare say both of these famous men might well have lived years longer had they known enough to

1. Roll a half dozen somersaults (roll I say, not leap) immediately on rising every morning.

(2) Spend 2½ to 3 hours on light games or devote the same time to walking, and

(3) Take a daily ration of iodin.

Still I can sympathize with John Hunter about the rascals who chose to annoy him.

Things happen to wreck many a day's working schedule and send me stamping toward the bowling green. This is one of them:

Dear Doctor:

About three months ago I sent for your pamphlet Calcium and Rheaumatiz (available on written request if you provide stamped-self-addressed envelope) and began supplementing my diet with calcium and vitamin D as you suggested.

The result has amazed me and my family. I was half-crippled with lameness in lower back and knees. But this has bothered me very little in the last few weeks.

But when I told our doctor about it he said it was lucky I mentioned it, for if I kept on much longer I might get gall stones, kidney stones or deposits of calcium in the joings.

. . . He said too much calcium causes arthritis, and that's why arthritis sufferers should not drink hard water . . .

(Signed, Helen McK. R.)

There's more calcium (lime) in a glass of milk or an egg or a serving of beans than in a quart of the hardest water one can drink.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped self addressed envelope is enclosed.

Scientific Revolution Born at Beltsville Federal Farm

WASHINGTON — American agriculture has reached a peak of efficiency unequaled in all the centuries man has cultivated the earth, reports the National Geographic Magazine in a significant review of scientific results achieved at Beltsville, famous federal experimental farm 12 miles from Washington.

"Because of Beltsville and experiment stations like it in all 48 states," staff writer Samuel Matthews writes, "a revolution is taking place on the American land. . .

"Today's farmer operates machines unknown to his grandfather, that till his fields, mend his fences and milk his cows. He plants seeds from which grow foods and fibers unheard of in this country a few decades ago.

"He raises streamlined pigs that arrive in larger litters and give more ham and bacon, and sheep with longer, finer wool."

Beltsville scientists invented the aerosol spray bomb for killing harmful insects. They discovered the weed-killing powers of the amazing chemical 2, 4-D, conducted the first American tests of DDT and developed the hybrid Pan America tomato that resists wilt disease.

They are working on a new strain of cotton that may prove to be superior to all others.

At Beltsville, the best local breeds of dairy cattle are being crossbred with Red Sindhis from India to produce cows that will milk to cool climate quotas in the warm regions of the South.

Beltsville workers have turned out hormone sprays that keep blossoms on fruit trees long past normal falling time. They invented a machine that sorts eggs for color electronically.

A new Korean grass being tested at Beltsville may be the long-sought lawn cover that crowds out crab grass. Beltsville has produced a lily as big as a trombone bell and a pig that won't sunburn.

But of all the marvels created by these modest Department of Agriculture scientists, only one — a turkey that just fits an apartment-sized oven — bears the name "Beltsville."

Largest in the nation, the experimental farm has 11,000 rolling Maryland acres. There are 2,000 employes, 950 buildings and 53 miles of roads. Included in the property are a granary, acres of greenhouses and an airport. Agents sent out to scout the land prior to its purchase 45 years ago reported it worn out and infertile.

"Anyone can grow a crop on good land," roared the Secretary of Agriculture, James Wilson. "Buy it!"

Soon restored to full production by good scientific management, Beltsville is now a national pride, a major guardian of the country's forests and farms, food, clothing and future health.

Next Case, Please

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ill. (UP)—County Judge Richard Simpson easily settled the argument between J. T. Nicholas, 44, Lawrenceville, and Henry Clay Clark, 46, Metropolis, after they were brought before him and then accused each other of driving the car whose erratic movement caused police to bring them in. He fined Nicholas and Clark $100 and costs each.

Seahorses Multiply in New Glass Tank

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (UP)—Dividends came to the New Plymouth Aquarium Society two weeks after it acquired a "string" of five seahorses.

The seahorses multiplied considerably in their new aerated salt-water glass tank at the home of S. Anchor. No other instances of seahorses "foaling" in a tank are known to the society.

The seahorse method of breeding is as unusual as is the fact that these were bred in captivity. The female deposits eggs in a pouch on the male's front and he patiently nurses them until they have hatched.

Bank Custodian Boasts Memory of 5,000 Names

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UP) —Edward Barton, custodian of safe deposit vaults at Union Trust Co., says it's no trick at all to remember 5,000 names and faces. He proved it the other day by remembering the name of a man who had been away seven years.

Barton, 13 years at his job, works his memory trick this way When a customer comes to the vault room his mind recalls the number of position of the man's box. The name comes by association.

"I started be remembering the numbers and locations of the dozen or so directors' boxes," he says, "and just accumulated the rest."

But Barton is not infallible. Sometimes on his way home to West Suffield, Conn., he forgets errands his wife asked him to do. And once for the life of him he couldn't remember his automobile registration number.

The 800th anniversary of St. Bernard de Clairvaux (1953) had special significance in Dijon, France where he was born.

Husband Tickets Wife, That's End (?) of Tale

MARSHALL, Mnn. (UP) — Mrs. Floyd Minnick wasn't much concerned about parking too long on a Marshall street. She knew the cop on the beat.

She got a tag anyhow. It was signed by Floyd Minnick, her husband. Mrs. Minnick paid her fine.

Hal Boyle Says:

Columnists Unappreciated for Job Is 'Slow Death'

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten years ago it began.

There I was in Sicily, waiting to get a boat for the Salerno landing in Italy. And not a care in the world except who to leave my wrist watch to in case I got hit coming ashore.

Then a press officer handed me the shattering cable from my boss:

"Start writing daily human interest column immediately."

The press officer saw my face turn blue, and asked sympathetically, "What's wrong? A death in the family?"

"Yes," I told him, "a long slow one — mine."

For I remembered how Don Marquis had once described writing a newspaper column as "digging a daily grave."

And later, when I showed Ernie Pyle the cable, he gave an elfin grin and siad, "Cheer up. In between the moments of suffering there are long periods of unconsciousness."

Now, after 10 long years in a brown study, I am convinced both Marquis and Pyle were right.

It has been a tremendous and terrifying decade. In that time I have turned out about 2,800 columns from some 55 countries around the world — and written them in such diverse places as the top of the Eiffel Tower, beneath a Sherman tank, and in a roadside ditch in Korea.

You would think a fellow would learn a lot in all those years.

But all I have found out is that people are as good and bad in Casablanca and Calcutta as they are in Keokuk, a discovery you can really make without leaving your own neighborhood.

The human heart has the same width everywhere.

But it has been a wonderful privilege to find it out the hard way, and to know you have many friends and memories in many places.

People often ask a columnist, "How do you get your ideas? Do they just come to you?" Well, yes and no. Sometimes they are suggested to you. Sometimes they come in the mail. But generally you just take a cold chisel, put it to your head, and start quarrying.

The thing a columnist sees most often is the ceiling. You get to lean back in your chair and stare at a lot of interesting ceilings in this trade.

The hardest thing to realize is the impossibility of writing a column that will please everyone including, perhaps, yourself. It can't be done in a world of differing values.

People don't all laugh or weep or applaud at the same things. And funnybones seem to get more sensitive every troubled year.

The greatest peril to a columnist, it seems to me, is to become a stuffed shirt pundit, to appeal to people's prejudices instead of their minds and hearts.

It is easy to pick up a rock and throw it at something you haven't taken the trouble to understand — far too easy.

If I had my 2,800 colums to do over again, I'd probably do them all differently. Five minutes after any piece of writing leaves your typewriter you can see it is freckled with flaws, but only about half a dozen of the 2,800 were written in hate, and these alone I really regret. There is no greater waste in living than hate.

So it is that today I really feel free to attack only two things—small-mindedness and poison ivy. I used to be against snapping turtles and posion snakes, but, you know, they have their place and purpose in the world.

However, nobody will admit he is smallminded—and even vegetarians don't have a kind word for poison ivy.

The best friends of any columnist are his critics, as they help keep his hat size normal. My favorite critic has always been Elmer Fish of Alliance, Ohio, who used to scribble on penny postcards such remarks as "God must have been asleep when you were born."

Lately I haven't heard from Elmer. I don't know whether he simply got disgusted with me or decided, when the post office raised its prices, that I wasn't worth a two-cent postcard.

What are the secret sorrows of a columnist? They are two — meeting the daily deadline, and people who ask:

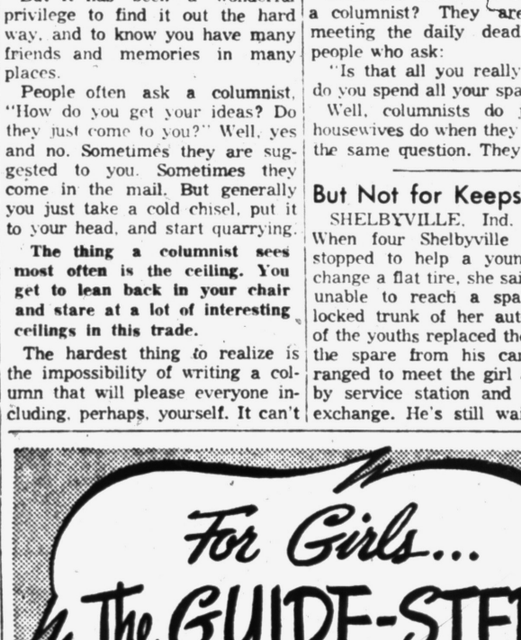

"Is that all you really do? How do you spend all your spare time?"

Well, columnists do just what housewives do when they are asked the same question. They brood.

But Not for Keeps!

SHELBYVILLE, Ind. (UP) — When four Shelbyville youths stopped to help a young woman change a flat tire, she said she was unable to reach a spare in the locked trunk of her auto. So one of the youths replaced the flat with the spare from his car and arranged to meet the girl at a nearby service station and make the exchange. He's still waiting.

'Water' Has Real Kick at Hero's Welcoming

GALLUP, N. M. (AP)—There was a hilarious aftermath to the welcome Medal of Honor winner Hiroshi Miyamura received in Gallup yesterday.

Refreshments at the Miyamura home consisted of gin mixed with water.

Several guests, thirsty from the long parade and broiling sun, gulped the mixture down hurriedly —thinking it was ice water.

The gasping and choking just added to the general uproar—mixed with a lot of laughter.

Fox Quits Producing Films for Flat Screen

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Twentieth Century-Fox will make no more flat-screen movies. It's changing over to exclusive production of CinemaScope wide-screen films.

A studio spokesman said last night that personnel is being reduced from 2,500 to between 400 and 500.

Annual output of films will be cut from 60 a few years ago, to between 15 and 25, he said.

El Salvador is about the size of Maryland.

Cruiser St. Paul Due Back From Korean Duty

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The heavy cruiser St.Paul, which fired the last salvo before the Korean truce was signed, is due here tomorrow from her third tour of duty in Korean waters. She is bringing nearly 1,300 officers and men home for a vacation.

Chesapeak Bay is 195 miles long and a t places 30 miles wide.

14 New Polio Cases Reported

County Rate Drops Off Slightly From Record Number of 31

Oakland County's polio rate dropped off last week after reaching a high for the year of 31 cases, including Pontiac, the week before.

Weekly report from Oakland County Health Department, released by Dr. John D. Monroe, director, lists 14 new polio cases in the county outside Pontiac last week. Twenty-two were reported the week before.

The out-county polio total for 1953 is now 116 cases and two deaths — about the same as last year at this time.

Scattered cases of tuberculosis, scarlet fever, mumps and measles also showed up on the county report, which reads as follows:

	Past Week	Week Ending Aug. 29, '53	Sept. 6, '52
Chicken pox	1	0	1
Measles	4	7	2
Pneumonia (all forms)	0	0	1
Poliomyelitis	14	22	14
Scarlet fever	4	4	0
Tuberculosis (all forms)	4	6	1
Whooping cough	2	6	2
Mumps	3	7	2
Rubella	1	1	3

Four new cases of polio were reported in Pontiac last week, the Pontiac City Health Department report showed today.

The report, also released by Dr. Monroe, shows a drop in polio since the preceding week, when nine cases were listed—the most in any one week this year.

Few cases of any other diseases were shown on the report, which follows in full:

	Past Week	Week Ending Aug. 29, '53	Sept. 6, '52
Gonorrhea	5	0	10
Measles	0	0	4
Mumps	1	0	4
Poliomyelitis	4	0	2
Rubella	0	1	0
Scarlet fever	0	0	1
Syphilis	6	5	5
Whooping cough	1	2	0
Rabies (in animals)	0	0	2

Ocean Village Scavenges Off of Sea Wrecks

RANTUM - SYLT, Germany (AP)—The tragic harvest of shipwreck at sea goes into the thatched roof cottages of this tiny fishing village on the north German island of Sylt.

Window shutters here are made of ship planks washed ashore. Carved figureheads of forgotten three-masters and ancient brass cabin lanterns decorate its driftwood homes.

For centuries this small community behind the North Sea dikes has lived on the flotsam of shipwreck. After heavy gales the young and old of Rantum walk the wind-swept beaches looking for whatever the sea has cast up with the tide.

Landlubbers say it's a mean way to make a living, but Andreas Nissen, Rantum's shore bailiff, only shrugs and says "somebody's death is somebody's bread."

Nissen's cottage, built two centuries ago and shipshape from thatched roof to tarred cellar, is solid evidence of the days when beachcombing was a really lucrative enterprise. Every part of its dark sturdy woodwork has a story of its own. A medieval figurehead over the gable window was sawed off the bow of an ill-fated Dutch merchant ship.

But "the fat years of beachcombing are gone forever," complains Frau Voltjes of Langeoog, the only woman among West Germany's 200 shore bailiffs.

The rewards for Rantum and its sister communities have been diminishing steadily since steamships replaced sailing vessels.

"When a modern steel ship goes to the bottom the odds are she takes her cargo along," Frau Voltjes says. "Only in rare cases does the vessel break up and spill her load."

Gone are the days when unscrupulous beachcombers set up false beacon fires to lure ships on the shoals and no longer can a beachcomber rightly claim as his own the goods he finds washed up on shore. He is bound by law to hand whatever he finds over to the shore bailiff.

The bailiff stores flotsam in a shed and gives public notice. If the owner does not appear the goods are sold at auction. The receipts go to the state treasury and the beachcomber gets a small cut.

In the bailiff's shed at Rantum now are bales of sticky rubber, barrels of English ale, sulphuric acid, liquid ammonia, cases of rancid butter, cans of lard, mining timber and lots of unripe bananas.

Barbados in the British West Indies was the only foreign land ever visited by George Washington. The island is renowned for its even, healthful climate, but, ironically, Washington contracted smallpox during his visit there.

Lady Lobbyists Hard Workers

About 24 in Washington to 2,000 Total; Find It Takes Brains

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Regardless of what lady lobbyists lobby for, they agree on one thing: the American public has a pretty upside-down idea about what they do in Washington.

Plenty of people, they report, are even shocked that a nice girl would lobby.

The mink coat-champagne variety of lobbying rates a laugh from attractive Miss Julia Bennett, lobbyist for the American Library Association. What you really need, she says, "is a good pair of feet."

* * *

Majority opinion among the gals who buttonhole congressmen for a living is that it takes more leg work than party-tossing; more tact than glamour, and a lot more brains than beauty to be an effective lady lobbyist.

* * *

A couple of thousand lobbyists hang out in Washington. Of these only a couple of dozen are women.

Some of them are actually surprised to find themselves legally registered as lobbyists—a lawyer, a physical therapist, a reporter, a psychologist, housewives, glamour girls, even a grandmother. Most of them got interested in a cause and the next thing you know they were lobbying for it.

Swarthmore graduate Thatcher Clarke is only 26. Silver-haired, sixty-ish Miss Elizabeth Eastman has been a familiar figure on the Hill for years.

Lobbying covers lots of territory. First of all, a lobbyist is a legislative watch dog and usually keeps a day-by-day check on the progress of bills or issues affecting her organization.

Although a few organizations restrict their lady lobbyists to information-gathering, plenty of lady lobbyists cart their client's viewpoint straight to the congressmen's desk. They not only attend hearings but sometimes testify at them. When hearings on a bill come up they're liable to put in 18 hours a day.

* * *

Mrs. Frances B. Lucas, who lobbies for the DAR, puts in nine hours at her desk every day; then goes home to cook, clean and keep house for her husband. Mrs. Gordon Arneson, whose husband is a special assistant to the Secretary of State, works for a group called Spokesman for Children. She lobbies for child welfare over the telephone while the baby plays or naps. On maid's day in, she heads for the Hill.

* * *

The party-giving side of lobbying, the girls say, has been overrated.

Margaret Taylor, a smartly turned out widow who pulls down $10,000 a year for lobbying for the National Milk Producers Federation, explains that her outfit throws an annual congressional dinner. Another lobbying group restricts their partying to a single luncheon.

When Congress adjourns lobbyists go to work on their files or even take a couple of weeks at the beach.

Few lady lobbyists get rich. Average annual salary ranges from $3,000 to $6,000. Some make under this: still others volunteer their time. Highest paid on record was Leone Baxter Whitaker, Chicago public relations consultant, who several years ago received $50,000 to lobby for the American Medical Association.

Government to Release Michigan Land for Oil

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Bureau of Land Management announced today that a parcel of 20 acres of land in Michigan's Manistee National Forest will be offered for oil and gas leasing Oct. 21.

The land is in Cedar Creek field about three miles northwest of Sweeter in Muskegon County. Bidders must submit one-fifth of the amount offered to the bureau by 1 p.m. EST on the sale date.

Maryland's Troopers Really Busy on Holiday

PIKESVILLE, Md. (AP)— Maryland's state troopers were a busy lot during the three-day Labor Day weekend.

A report released by the State Police Department yesterday showed they: Traveled 111,557 miles, made 1,625 traffic arrests, investigated 36 smashups in which persons were injured or killed and 122 less serious crashes, and issued warnings to 2,472 motorists who were driving improperly.

It is believed that all dogs are descendants of the common wolf.

Combing Grand River for Escapee From Ionia

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Police and sheriff's deputies were combing the Grand River near here today for a 16-year-old escapee from the Ionia Reformatory.

The youth, who escaped Sunday, was being sought in connection with the Labor Day burglarizing of an Ionia sporting goods store and a series of thefts which included the stealing of a truck, a rowboat and a $4,000 cabin cruiser.

Boy Gives Life to Save Pup From Train Death

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Eight-year-old Jimmy Bumgardner gave his life to save his puppy from being hit by a passenger train.

Jimmy snatched the dog from the Southern Railway tracks near the station here yesterday and was hit by the diesel locomotive. He died in a hospital a few hours later.

Tornadoes helped raise the number of people killed in accidents which took five or more lives in the United States during the first half of 1953 to 1,100.

Prisoner in a Rut

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—It may have set a time-record recently for arrests on the same charge. The prisoner was given a six-months suspended sentence to district court for drunkeness. Four hours later, police had him in tow again. The charge: drunkeness.

Touring Youth in Israel Back Home With Polio

NEW YORK (AP) — Daniel Elazar, 19, who was stricken with polio while on a student tour of Israel, arrived by air today on his way home to Detroit.

Accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Elazar of Detroit, the youth was carried off the plane on a stretcher.

Nebraska Lady Barber Claims Largest Pole

PAPILLION, Neb. (AP)—Mrs. Matilda Cain, one of a dozen licensed lady barbers in Nebraska claims the "biggest" barber pole known.

In front of her shop in this village of 1,034 persons, she has painted the traditional red, white and blue spiral stripes on a maple tree more than nine feet in circumference.

Resignation Announced by C of C Secretary

MUSKEGON (UP) — John C. Beukema, secretary of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce for 31 years, has announced he will retire.

Beukema was 65 years old Aug. 11 and will retire under the chamber of commerce retirement program.

Average School Board Member College Trained

The midwest's average school board member is a man, 46 years old, who earns $7,694 annually and has been on his board for four years.

So stated a report compiled by University of Chicago, which Pontiac Board of Education read Wednesday night.

The report, following a survey of 351 school districts in eleven Midwestern states, showed that 14 per cent of all board members are women. The study stated the biggest single factor in board members' effectiveness was the amount of formal education they had had. Most had about 15 years, or three years of college.

Britain Plans No 'Cure' for Red Sympathizers

LONDON (AP) — Britain says about 15 per cent of the almost 1,000 British prisoners of war released by the Reds in Korea have come out Communist sympathizers but the war office has "absolutely no plans for their dis-indoctrination."

A spokesman said all would be returned to their homes, "where we expect most of them will be cured."

Unknown Tribes Cause Difficulty in Indian Count

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—How many Indians are there in Brazil?

One million? Five hundred thousand? Two hundred thousand?

The nation's Service for the Protection of Indians (SPI) admits frankly that it doesn't know exactly. The above are guesses made by some of its experts.

Such a variance, naturally, makes the planning of assistance programs a little difficult. So the Service is taking a census of Indians.

The job, SPI director Gama Melcher says, is expecially difficult because even some of the known tribes live in regions that are difficult of access. There also are tribes still unknown.

A majority of the Indians in Brazil, the director says, live in the Amazon region. The coastal tribes and those living in the south already have been absorbed into the Brazilian population.

Slate Lie Test in Yacht Death

Detroit Captain Asks Examination After Body of Date Found in Water

DETROIT (AP) — A voluntary lie detector test was scheduled today for a 40-year-old yacht captain who told police he had been drinking Labor Day night with a young woman whose body was recovered yesterday from the Detroit River.

Police questioned Capt. Stuart Kenyon of the yacht Naru after finding the body of dark-haired Elizabeth Istvan, 29. The yacht was moved from its moorings in the search for the body, which was located near the spot where the craft had been anhcored.

Officers said Kenyon told them he met Miss Istvan Monday evening while she was with a party of friends, and the group accepted his invitation to go aboard the yacht.

Kenyon was quoted as saying the others later returned to shore and he fell asleep while Miss Istvan was still aboard. When he awoke Tuesday morning she had disappeared, police said he told them.

Officers said the captain had volunteered to take a lie detector test. No charge was placed against him.

Kenyon has been employed for a year as captain of the 46-foot Naru.

Miss Istvan was reported missing Tuesday by her sister, Mrs. Ann Freeman of Wyandotte.

Medical Society Honors Doctor

Dr. Robert B. Hasner of Royal Oak Rewarded for Distinguished Work

The fourth annual award for distinguished service to medicine was given to Dr. Robert B. Hasner of Royal Oak Wednesday night by the Oakland County Medical Society.

The award is given each year to the doctor with an outstanding record of civic as well as medical service, according to Dr. J. O. Devereaux, the society's executive secretary.

Selection of Dr. Hasner was based on many factors including his work in the drive to set up a south Oakland County hospital; charter membership in the Royal Oak Rotary Club; such civic activity as fund raising for Girl Scout organizations, helping set up the Royal Oak General Hospital and organizing civil defense medical units during World War II.

Two laymen also were presented awards at last night's ceremony for their contributions to medicine in public service.

William F. Maybury, chairman of the Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees, was given the award by Dr. Ferdinand Gaensbauer, and Michigan State Sen. George N. Higgins of Ferndale was presented an award by Dr. Otto Beck, past president of the Michigan State Medical Society.

The major address honoring Dr. Hasner was given by Congressman George A. Dondero, and the award was presented by Dr. O. R. MacKenzie of Walled Lake, president of the Oakland County Medical Society.

Bounty on Grasshoppers Ignored at $1 Per Bushel

CONCORD, N. H. (AP) — New Hampshire, the only state in the nation with a bounty on porcupine, has another rare one — but no takers.

A statute put on the books in 1883 — and never repealed — gives $1 to anyone showing his town selectman a bushel basket of grasshoppers.

But State Treasurer Alfred S. Cloues is uncertain if the bounty was ever paid or why the law was passed. But it stipulates the grasshoppers must be caught during June and July.

Lake Orion Man Hurt

Herbert J. Leach, 27, of 691 Hemmingway, Lake Orion, was treated for cuts and bruises yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital after his car ran off Clarkston road west of Lake Orion, according to Oakland County sheriff's deputies.

Accuse Woman of Conspiracy

Bank Worker Faces Charges of Misapplying $111,000 in Miami

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Jean Elizabeth Dusing, 24-year-old divorcee, today faced charges of misapplying $111,232 belonging to the Central Bank and Trust Co., where she worked for two years.

Five men, former customers of the bank, also were arrested and charged with the woman with conspiring to have her hold up bad checks which they had written.

* * *

They were identified by the FBI as Tom E. Howell, 65, who allegedly received $71,952; Chester C. Smallwood, 34, who said he got $11,245 which he lost at dog races; William Maine, 34, who admitted getting $3,830; Arthur H. King, 35, charged with receiving $3,728; and Warren Schmikel, 32, accused of taking $375.

Mrs. Dusing, Howell and King waived preliminary hearings and were released in $1,000 bonds each. The other three said they might want hearings and United States Commissioner Roger E. Davis set them for next Wednesday. Bonds for two of them were set at $1,000 and for Schmikel at $500.

* * *

The five accounted for $91,131; the remainder was attributed to six other customers against whom no charges were filed because they made restitution to the bonding company which made good the bank's loss.

Mrs. Dusing handled all insufficient fund checks written by the bank's customers and the FBI said she covered her manipulations by submitting false figures to the bookkeeping department at the close of business each day.

Bank examiners uncovered the fraud last March, when the woman was fired. An investigation has been under way ever since.

Dick Haymes' Wife Wants Own Hearing

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Crooner Dick Haymes' estranged wife says he'll be a bigamist if he goes ahead with reported plans to get a quick Nevada divorce and marry actress Rita Hayworth this month.

Nora Eddington Haymes has filed suit for a California divorce. A hearing is expected the first part of October.

* * *

"There's a waiver in a Nevada divorce requiring my full consent to it before it is legal in California," she said last night. "I don't care if Dick and Rita want to get married. I hope they'll be happy. But I'm going to insist on having my hearing first.

"If Dick marries without my consent to the divorce, he'll be a bigamist."

Mrs. Haymes, former wife of actor Errol Flynn, said she was shocked to learn from a deportation hearing that she was the crooner's third wife and not his second. At the hearing on Aug. 26 it was brought out that the Argentina-born Haymes, 34, had married Edith Harper, a singer, 14 years ago in Chicago. He testified the marriage lasted only two or three weeks and "I had just about forgotten we were ever married."

Swimming Ends Mock Prudery, Physician Says

CHICAGO (UP) — A doctor says that "water sports have done much in the last generation to dispel unhealthful prudery."

Dr. H. E. Kleinschmidt, Manhasset, N. Y. praised the value of swimming in an American Medical Association magazine, "Today's Health."

"At the water front," the doctor grace is beautifully revealed in a natural, wholesome manner and the false shame of the Victorian period has all but vanished."

Kleinschmidt said a few generations ago people believed that swimming was dangerous to health.

However, he said it is an excellent form of exercise, diversion, relaxation and recreation.

Among the hazards of swimming, the doctor listed sunburn and over-exertion.

Over-exposure to the sun, he said, is often "too cavalierly brushed aside by many water enthusiasts."

"Over-exertion is a health hazard frequently ignored," he warned. "A cramp should be heeded as a warning to leave the water promptly."

Finds Ring in Oleo

HOBART, Okla. (AP) — You've heard of people who examine oysters hoping to find a pearl. Mrs. Fain Muldowney hit the jackpot in a cube of oleomargerine.

The housewife was mixing a cake when her knife hit something hard as she whittled off a piece of oleo. Inside was a 14-karat gold ring with a center diamond flanked by smaller stones.

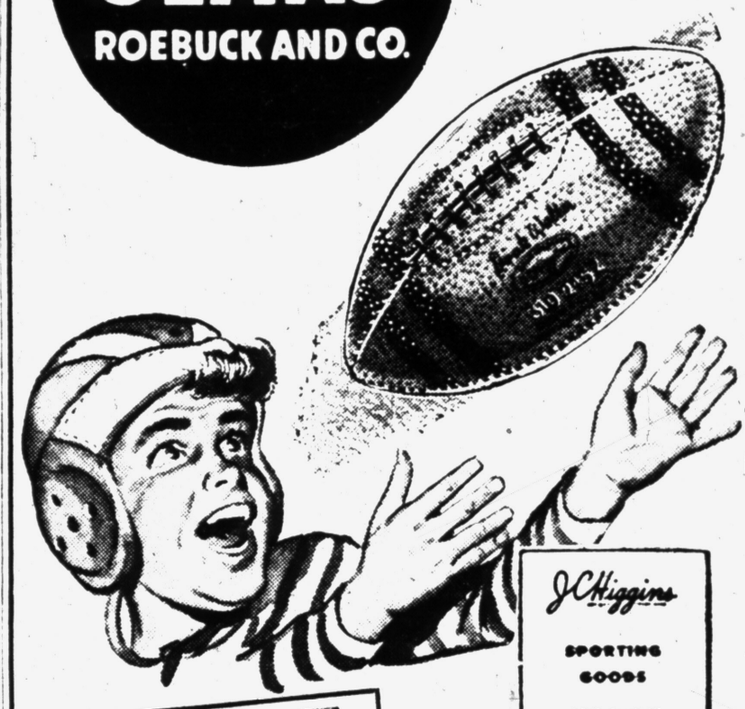

A Hobart jeweler examined the ring and said the stones were genuine.

2 Injured as Auto Strikes Halted Car

A Clarkston man and a Pontiac woman were injured yesterday when a car smashed into the rear of another stopped for a light at the intersection of Auburn and Opdyke Rds., Oakland County sheriff's deputies said today.

Earl J. Steven, 34, of 5155 Westview, Clarkston, was treated at Pontiac General Hospital for a back injury, the hospital said. He was riding with his brother Carl J. Steven, 34, same address.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital reported that Josephine Hess, 49, of 1135 Boston Ave., was treated for cuts. She was riding with her husband, William H. Hess, 51, deputies said. Hess told deputies he was stopped for a traffic light when Steven struck his car.

Ten Head for Mecca on Bicycles, Not Mules

JERUSALEM (AP) — Ten Indians arrived in the Arab Old City-Section of Jerusalem on bicycles on their holy pilgrimage to Mecca, cradle of Islam, according to the Arab Old City daily "A-Diffa." One of the group is 65.

It's the first time in history that the pilgrimage, called "Haj," has been made by bicycle, the paper remarks.

County Deaths

Mrs. Margaret E. Butler

LAPEER COUNTY—Service for Mrs. Floyd (Margaret E.) Butler, 70, a former resident of Lapeer County who lived in Detroit, will be 9 a.m. Saturday at St. Francis Assissi Church with burial in West Deerfield Cemetery. She died yesterday at House of Providence Hospital.

Funeral arrangements are by Aldog Gundry Funeral Home in Flint.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. D. W. Templeton of Flint and William Butterfield of Troy; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Aubey and Mrs. Mag Gleasom, both of Detroit; several nieces and nephews and five grandchildren.

5 Top Teamsters Cited for Extortion

by the grand jury as a co-conspirator but not a defendant.

The five union leaders, as well as the four John Does, were named on extortion charges, which carry penalties of 20 years in prison.

Other charges against them included conspiracy to extort, conspiracy to request and accept gifts, gratuities and commissions from contractors by acting in a particular manner in relation to their local unions, and requesting and accepting gifts, gratituities and commissions.

The grand jury began its investigations June 15 after a House subcommittee hearing in Detroit conducted by Rep. Clare Hoffman (R-Mich).

Yesterday's groups of indictments was the second handed down by the grand jury.

Last week seven men, two of them officials of the AFL juke box union locals, were indicted on charges of racketeering in the Detroit area juke box industry.

Claims Italians Still on Border

Yugoslav Official Says Italy Has Not Recalled Troops After Incident

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — Yugoslav undersecretary for foreign affairs, Ales Bebler, informed parliament today Italy has failed to withdraw troops sent to this country's border as a result of the controversy over Trieste. He said Yugoslavia plans to "undertake measures."

Bebler did not disclose what "measures" were under contemplation. Previously, in a note to the Italian government, Yugoslavia warned it would move troops up to the frontier unless Italian force were withdrawn.

His brief statement came in response to a question from the floor on whether the Italians have withdrawn the troops "recently concentrated along Yugoslavia's border."

The statement—and the previous exchange of several notes between the two countries—stemmed from the expressed fears of Italian Premier Guiseppe Pella's new government that Yugolsavia had planned formal annexation of zone "B" of the Trieste free territory.

(Under the Italian peace treaty Trieste was designated a free territory. Part of it, including the strategic Adriatic seaport of Trieste itself, was placed under Anglo-American jurisdiction. The balance, mostly hilly farmland, was turned over to temporary Yugoslav control.)

In his speech of Sunday at Okrag-ljica, five miles from the Italian border, President Tito of Yugoslavia formally disavowed any intent to annex zone "B" with the terse comment: "Why should we do it? We already have it."

Notice of Intention to Construct Parking Facilities on Baldwin Avenue from Walton Boulevard to Colgate Avenue.

You are hereby notified that at a regular meeting of the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan held on the 8th day of September, 1953, by resolution, it was declared to be the intention of the City Commission to construct parking facilities on Baldwin Avenue from Walton Boulevard to Colgate Avenue at an estimated cost of $6,207.85 and that the plan, profile and estimate of said improvement is on file in the office of the City Clerk and may be found there for inspection.

It is further intended to construct said improvement in accordance with the plan, profile and estimate, and that the cost thereof shall be defrayed by special assessment according to frontage and that all of the lots and parcels of land fronting upon either side of Baldwin Avenue from Walton Boulevard to Colgate Avenue shall constitute the special assessment district to defray $6,207.85 of the estimated cost and expenses thereof.

Notice is hereby given that the Commission of the City of Pontiac, Michigan will meet in the Municipal Court on the 15th day of September, 1953 at 8 o'clock p.m. to hear suggestions and objections that may be made by parties interested.

W. O. 6596.

Escaped Pole Predicts Revolt

Interpreter Who Left Reds Says Now Is Not the Time, However

SEOUL (AP)—A young Polish interpreter who bolted from Communist control and was given U.S. sanctuary said today his people some day will rise in revolt against the Reds "but now is not the time."

Jan Hajdukiewicz, 28, told a news conference the Communist rulers of his homeland could not be overthrown "without outside help" even though 99 per cent of the Polish people oppose the Red regime.

* * *

Hajdukiewicz was a civilian interpreter for Polish members of the neutral nations inspection commission supervising the Korean truce. Yesterday he asked U.S. Col. Harold T. Babb for political asylum as a plane to carry him back to North Korea warmed up at Kangnung Air Base in east Korea.

His request was granted and he was quickly taken to a place of safety.

"We had to get that guy out of there in a hell of a hurry," said one U.S. officer.

* * *

Only an hour before the balding young Pole met newsmen in Seoul a Communist official at Panmunjom charged that he had been "kidnaped" by the U.S. Army.

The Polish delegate to the Neutral Nations Supervisory Commission did not demand the return of Hajdukiewicz but said a strong protest would be lodged.

* * *

Hajdukiewicz, wearing green U.S. Army dungarees, told his news conference he made his dramatic break because "I knew it was my last chance."

He said he believes his escape will encourage others in Poland.

"The Polish government is based on fear," he said. "I didn't want to return to my country which has been subjugated by the Communist regime. I should like to go to the United States of America."

* * *

He described communism as "the subjugation of all life."

After the news conference Hajdukiewicz was accompanied by U.S. officers to an undisclosed site, presumably in the Seoul area. He probably will be flown to Tokyo in a day or two, but army officials said they had no information on this.

'Show Me' Writer Turns Up Homeless

CHERTSEY, England (AP) — Jimmy Campbell, the tunesmith who wrote the old favorite "Show Me the Way to Go Home," turned up in court yesterday with no home to go to.

Campbell, now 50, was charged with obtaining credit by fraud from a hotel.

His lawyer said the little Scotsman, whose real name is James Tyrie, has long since squandered the fortune he made writing songs and was a victim of drink — "a penniless, tragic figure."

In addition to his best known number, Campbell was co-writer of such favorites as "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," "Good Night, Sweetheart" and "Try a Little Tenderness."

The court put him on probation for three years on condition that he spend the next 12 months in a hospital — at state expense.

148 Doukhobors Parade in Nude to Protest Order

NELSON, B.C. (AP)—Seventy-one women and 7 men in the Doukhobor tent village of Polatka were arrested last night for parading in the nude in protest to orders that their children attend public schools.

* * *

The arrests were made by Royal Canadian Mounted Police in the village situated on the outskirts of nearby Perry Siding, 250 miles east of Vancouver, B.C. The members of a radical wing of the Doukhobor colony were rounded up and put on Canadian Pacific Railway cars for shipment to Vancouver. They ofered no resistance but remained unclothed during the roundup.

All of the 148 persons arrested have been charged with contributing to juvenile delinquency.

Only a few of the Doukhobor children showed up at school opening time.

* * *

RCMP officials said the tent village would be dismantled. Polatka is the Russian word for tent village.

* * *

The radical group has for years opposed regularly constituted authority. They have been a headache to provincial authorities ever since coming from Russia early this century.

UAW Gets Go Ahead on 'No Raiding' Pact

The UAW executive board officially approved the proposed agreement Wednesday.

Sen. Knowland Against Letting Red China in U.N.

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP)—Sen. William F. Knowland, U. S. Senate majority leader from California, said today it would be a betrayal of Korean casualties "to welcome the murderer (Red China)" into the United Nations.

Knowland, on a fact-find tour of the Far East, told a news conference he would press for the United States to quit the U. N. if Red China is admitted.

Man of 84 Wins Right to Loiter in Pool Hall

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A man of 84 years "has a right to loiter," Mayor Roy Hofheinz exclaimed yesterday.

Hearing the appeal of an 84-year-old man arrested Monday in a pool hall, the mayor volunteered to pass a hat around and take up collection should a fine be levied against him.

Prince Akihito Visits President Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House visit awaited Crown Prince Akihito, 19-year-old heir to the throne of Japan, today, soon after President Eisenhower's arrival from Denver.

The President is interrupting his Colorado vacation to attend the funeral of Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson. He will fly back to Denver tonight.

Prince Akihito, making a month's tour of the United States on his way home from the coronation of England's Queen Elizabeth, had been scheduled to see Eisenhower Sept. 21 in Boston.

The prince will be touring New England then and the President will be in Boston to deliver a speech.

Rich Uranium Strike Reported in Australia

CANBERRA, Australia (AP) — National Development Minister William Spooner announced today a "promising" discovery of uranium ore near Katherine, in Australia's northern territory.

Spooner said the new discovery, along with the "Coronation Hill" deposits located 70 miles north of Katherine on June 2 considerably extend Australia's potential uranium production.

Jobless Told to Report to MESC Bi-Weekly

DETROIT (UP) — The Michigan Employment Security Commission said today it was instructing most jobless pay claimants to report to their branch offices once every two weeks instead of weekly.

The MESC said the bi-weekly reporting was an economy move ordered by the U. S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Employment Security.

Korean Parents Catch Glimpse of Prisoner Son

PUSAN, Korea (AP)—The long vigil for one of the countless Korean families separated by war ended for a moment yesterday in a short, silent reunion.

* * *

Choe Jae Man, a policeman, learned from a newspaper that anti-Communist North Korean prisoners held on Koje Island would pass through Pusan.

* * *

He and his wife, both refugees from North Korea, traveled 60 miles to this port city. They spotted their son, Cho Hyong Sok, 26, among 500 prisoners who were transferred from a landing craft to a train bound for the demilitarized zone.

The tearful mother rapped the tightly closed window of a U. S. Army bus which carried young Choe to the train. Without a word, parents and son waved at each other. Then the bus pulled away.

The father said his son, a former medical student, was forced into the Red army soon after the war started and later captured by U. N. forces.

* * *

Choe must remain with the group resisting repatriation for 90 days, during which time the Reds will attempt to persuade him to return to North Korea.

* * *

"I am sure my son will come back to us and live with us in the Republic of Korea," his father said. "We will wait till he goes through what he has to. I know he will endure anything and never return to Communist North Korea."

CONFERENCE KEYNOTERS—Comparing notes at Tuesday's pre-school conference were Frank J. DuFrain, superintendent of Pontiac Public Schools; Dr. Harold C. Hand, University of Illinois, main speaker; and Mrs. Golda Holecheck, Bagley School principal and chairman of the school system's Professional Growth Committee, which organized the program. Some 600 teachers met at Pontiac High School to confer on the importance of helping today's students realize the far-reaching effects of aviation's growth.

Boys Club Starts Fall Program

YOUNGEST MEMBER—William V. Coulacos, Boys Club director, welcomes Tommy Myers, 5, into the club on opening day. Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Myers Jr., 442 S. Marshall St. At extreme right is Mike Fiorillo, the club's physical director.

820 Register for Activities

10 'Touch' Grid Teams Will Begin Practicing Immediately

Hundreds of happy youngsters flocked to Pontiac Boys Club this week to be on hand for the opening of the fall program.

William V. Coulacos, executive director, said 820 boys have registered so far and a membership of 1,100 is expected by Christmas.

Coulacos also announced the appointments of Wilbury Pyles, art and crafts director, and Michael Chavalier, physical director.

Several new features have been added to the club's annual program as well as expansions of others.

Ten football teams of six men each will get underway immediately, according to Coulacos. The game will be restricted to "touch" football, he said.

To better integrate members and "teach leadership and government in action," the boys this year will hold campaigns to elect a mayor and aldermen who will supervise various activities. The mayor and aldermen will hold weekly luncheon meetings with the club director to discuss improvements and policies, according to Coulacos.

Expansion of boxing and gymnastics and tumbling will begin as soon as groups are organized for these activities.

Twenty-five intramural and three varsity basketball teams will be formed. The teams will be referred and coached by boys of the club. Every boy taking part in gym activities this year will receive a free gym suit.

The club's Mothers Club, Coulacos said, is making preparations for a fall festival to be held Oct. 1 and a membership campaign for the same month.

Membership in the club is open to boys from six to 17 years of age, but five-year-olds may join if accompanied by an older brother. Coulacos said boys over 17 may join a senior division at the club.

Asks State Vote on Legal Bingo

Representative Seeks to Put Constitutional Amendment on Ballot

LANSING (UP) — Wheels were in motion today for calling a statewide referendum next year to legalize lotteries conducted by patriotic, religious and charitable organizations.

Vincent M. Brennan, Jr., of Detroit, requested Wednesday that Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary approve the form of petitions to be circulated throughout the state requesting a constitutional amendment.

Brennan said 286,500 signatures will be needed to place the issue on the November, 1954, election ballot.

If sufficient signatures are filed to get the issue on the ballot and a majority of citizens vote for the change, the way would be cleared for legalizing charity bingo and raffles.

Brennan's proposed amendment would change the present section of the constitution which prohibits the legislature from legalizing lotteries by adding an exception that "this section shall not apply to lotteries conducted by patriotic, and religious, or charitable organizations.

"It has become evident during the past few weeks that a controversy exists concerning lotteries for charitable purposes," Brennan declared. "It is generally known that for many years lotteries have been permitted locally and in other parts of the state, depending on who happens to be the law enforcing officer in the particular community.

"In my opinion the voters of this state should have an opportunity to determine whether these activities should be permitted. The only way the voters can have this opportunity is to submit to them a proposed amendment to the state constitution."

Before the petitions can be circulated, the secretary of state must approve their legal form.

Favors More U. S. Millions to Fight Reds in Indochina

WASHINGTON (UP)—The National Security Council was reported today to have recommended that France be given several hundred million more American dollars to back a new drive to end the bloody Indochina war.

The American funds would enable France to transfer nine battalions of troops from Europe to Indochina to lead a new campaign against the Communist-led guerrillas.

* * *

Highly placed officials who reported this said the security council, the government's top policy-making body, decided on this move yesterday at a review of the Indochina war.

* * *

President Eisenhower is expected to approve the recommendation after discussing it with key congressional leaders to determine how to scrape up the money.

Preliminary estimates indicate the new aid program would cost some 300 to 400 million dollars in addition to the 400 millions Congress appropriated for Indochina this year.

The Eisenhower military and foreign policy leaders are reported convinced the United States has no alternative but to back the new French Indochina program if it wants to keep this strategic Southeast Asia nation out of Communist hands.

* * *

Communist-led rebels, supplied by Red China, already have conquered large areas of Indochina during an eight-year campaign and have tied up more than 350,000 French and loyal Indochinese troops.

* * *

The new French plan for winding up the conflict was put forward by the government headed by Premier Joseph Laniel. Its author is Gen. Henri Navarre, who drafted it after a visit to the battlefront.

The offer to move nine battalions of French troops to Indochina to reinforce units already there is reported to be the principal feature of this new strategy.

But the French are said to have promised also that they will try to build up the loyal Viet Nam army further so it, along with Cambodian and Laos forces, can eventually take over the burden of defending Indochina.

* * *

To increase popular native support for the Indochina conflict, the French government also has pledged to grant complete and lasting independence to the three Indochina states.

* * *

The Laniel government secretly appealed to the United States for additional aid money about six weeks ago. The National Security Council and other key government agencies have been weighing the problem since then.

Eisenhower discussed the strategy and cost aspects with Secretary of State Dulles, officials said, during a foreign policy review Monday at his summer vacation White House in Denver. He had opportunity for a briefing on the security council views on a brief trip to the capital today.

Red Refugee Steers Barge to Freedom

BERLIN (UP) — An East German canal man fled to West Berlin today in a barge loaded with limestone.

The barge was the last of a string being towed through a narrow channel in the British sector of West Berlin.

Near Ploetzensee he cut his barge loose and steered it to the shore, where he asked police for political asylum.

The East German, whose name was not revealed, was the latest of several who have used the canals to make a bid for freedom.

The Soviets control the waterways in both East and West Berlin. Because of so many escapes via them, the Reds have put police in motor launches to patrol the waters.

Cleveland Judge Convicts Three Newspapermen

CLEVELAND (UP)—Common Pleas Judge Joseph H. Silbert late yesterday convicted three members of the Cleveland Press' editorial staff of contempt of court for a picture taken in the judge's courtroom. Their attorneys announced they would appeal.

City Editor Louis Clifford was fined $500 and costs and ordered held in the custody of the sheriff for one hour. Reporter Sam Giaimo was fined $100 and costs. Photographer James Thomas was fined $100, suspended.

* * *

However, the sentences were stayed after Atty. Tom J. Edwards general counsel for the Scripps-Howard Newspapers, announced he would file a notice of appeal. The newsmen were released on bond.

At issue was the taking of a photograph of Former Probate Judge Nelson J. Brewer as he was arraigned last Aug. 20 on a charge of embezzlement. Brewer pleaded innocent.

Judge Silbert contended he had told reporter Giaimo on the preceding afternoon no pictures would be allowed. He said he informed Giaimo and another reporter this was because of a section in the Canon of Ethics of the American Bar Association, stating that courtroom pictures should not be permitted.

Edwards argued Silbert's order had no legal effect because it was not a part of the Court Journal, and that "a court can speak only through a journal."

* * *

He also contended that there was no obstruction of justice in a "mere click of the camera." He said the Canon of Ethics was not binding on the press, and asserted that the judges of the Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court, as a group, had discussed the canon at a meeting earlier in the year, but had failed to adopt it.

Chance to Govern County Offered Oakland Citizens

(Editor's Note: This is the last of three articles on Oakland County Board of Supervisors.)

By PATRICIA A. WOOD

Whether you live in the city or in the country, you can have a voice in county government.

For one or more of the men and women who answer roll call at Oakland County Board of Supervisors' meetings answer for you.

The 85-man board will guide the destiny of several vital programs in the near future.

One of these is planning for a new county courthouse-office building at the county center along Telegraph Road and West Boulevard on Pontiac's west side.

Another is a new county farmers' market for Pontiac being considered for Oakland Avenue near West Boulevard. Both Pontiac and county officials want the market moved away from its present spot at 40 Mill St.

The controversial dog rabies vaccination program is under way, and its results will, get close inspection by the board.

You may have comments on these matters, or on other "irons" in the supervisors' "fire."

If so, you can bring your questions, complaints, words of praise or suggestions to your supervisor's attention — or to the attention of the full board.

Here's how:

If you're concerned about a matter, first make sure it's something the Board of Supervisors is responsible for, and not a matter handled by your township board or city council. Officials at your township or city hall should be able to tell you who's responsible.

If it's a matter for the board, you can send it to the full board by writing to the Board of Supervisors in care of Lynn D. Allen, county clerk, Oakland County Courthouse.

If it's something you think your individual supervisor should handle, but you don't know who he is, ask the officials at your township or city hall for his name.

Supervisors have telephones.

They have mailing addresses.

Many have offices where they can talk to citizens interested in county matters — especially in townships, where the supervisor can usually be found at the township hall.

The full board meets about once a month, on a year-round average.

The sessions are open to the public, and roomy galleries for seating onlookers are built into the supervisors' meeting hall at Oakland County Office Building, 1 Lafayette St., Pontiac.

Oakland County Clerk's office, reached through the county switchboard — FEderal 3-7151 — usually knows the date and time of the next scheduled meeting.

City residents with comments about their supervisors' work on the board should make them to their city council or commission, which appoints city supervisors.

Township residents regularly put their comments of support or disagreement on ballots at elections once every two years.

Park Goers Near Peak

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's state parks may set an all-time attendance record this year, the State Conservation Department said today.

Earlier this year, it appeared attendance would slip well below the 13,262,000 record set last year but now parks department officials report that attendance at many parks is running ahead of a year ago.

The record two-week heat wave is believed to be the main reason for the big increase.

"Earlier this year, weather kept parks attendance down and it looked like the 1953 total would drop below last year's record," one official said. "But now parks workers are confident that the total this year will again set a record for attendance."

Attendance at Grand Haven has reached the 1,357,000 mark, just 1,000 shy of the previous high. Officials said a new record is bound to be set before the park closes Oct. 15.

Holland State Park also is over the 1,000,000 mark while at this time last year 868,000 persons had visited the Lake Michigan park.

Bay City, with 737,000 visitors so far, is 78,000 ahead of last year and Island Lake Recreation Park, with an attendance of 975,000, is 110,000 above last year.

Pentagon Wires Kin of 944 GIs

List Consists of Men Unaccounted for Since Capture by Reds

WASHINGTON (UP)—A faint spark of hope went out from the Pentagon today to the next of kin of 944 American servicemen whose whereabouts are unknown since their reported capture by the Reds in Korea.

The Defense Department list will be made public beginning tomorrow, 24 hours after telegrams are dispatched to the relatives of the men missing and unaccounted for.

* * *

The list includes 610 from the Army, 312 from the Air Force, 19 from the Marines and 3 from the Navy. The Communists were asked yesterday to account for them.

The list of missing men was based on Communist propaganda reports, the word of their exchanged buddies, private letters and other sources.

* * *

The Communists have not reported that any of the men escaped or died in captivity.

The Pentagon said yesterday the next of kin of the 944 Americans are being sent this message:

* * *

"The secretary of the (appropriate department) has asked me to inform you that the name of (the missing serviceman) was included in a list of servicemen who, there is reason to believe, were at one time in Communist custody but for whom no accounting has yet been made. This list has been presented to the Communists with an urgent request for such an accounting.

"All possible efforts are being made to obtain information regarding (the serviceman's name) and in the event any is received, it will be furnished to you promptly without request by you."

Penning Notes to State Lovely Is Homework?

DOWAGIAC (UP) — Fall classes started at Oak Street Grade School today and the first assignment for nearly 100 pupils was to write letters to their history teacher wishing her luck in the Miss America Contest.

Twenty-year-old Velva Irene Robbins, a fourth grade teacher at the school, won the Miss Michigan title last June and is representing the state in the 1953 pageant at Atlantic City, N. J.

"I think it would be nice if all of the children who had Miss Robbins last year and those who will have her this year wrote a letter wishing her luck," said Miss Mini Rouaan, principal at the school.

Miss Rouaan asked two fifth grade teachers who now have Miss Robbins' students from last year, Mrs. Max Gillette and Mrs. Betty Bates, to have their students write letters.

She also asked Mrs. Henry Visser, who is teaching Velva's fourth grade students temporarily until the shapely teacher returns next week from Atlantic City, to do likewise.

Try to Disprove 'East Is East, West Is West'

GIs Cement Relations With ROKs by Non-Political Pact: Marriage

BY FRED SPARKS
(NEA Staff Writer)

SEOUL, Korea (NEA)—We are cementing our South Korean relations with a non-political pact: Marriage.

During these idle hours of truce our GIs being human, so far from home and so lonesome, are forming friendships that will end at the altar. Each week the number of applicants multiplies.

(Old Soldier says: "When an army is on the move, infantrymen collect chickens; when garrisoned, they collect wives.")

A good example is Sgt. Richard Marquis, 22. As a combat engineer during his first months in Korea he built roads and bridges under the fire of Chinese snipers.

When the fighting sputtered down during truce talks he was shifted to floor walking in the Seoul PX.

It took him exactly two days to pay attention to Miss Kyung Sook, a salesgirl with a slight acquaintance of English.

She had a doll's figure. Long thick lashes around her almond eyes meet like a venetian blind and the sergeant wondered what, if anything, she could see.

She saw him, all right. Faster than you can spell Syngman Rhee they were strolling evenings through Duk Soo Palace as moonlight shimmered on the lotus pond —or jitterbugging in the EM club of the 55th MP Battalion.

This was no sailor-in-a-port affair. Marriage seemed inevitable despite East and West, Kyung sitting on the floor and Richard in a chair, Kyung's rice and Richard's potatoes, Christianity and Buddhism.

The Army didn't quite see it that way. Taking our young men to far off places has made it worry about spring and romance as well as Communists and firepower.

The Army denies no trooper the right to wed, but reserves the right to warn.

A chaplain frankly explained the problems of inter-racial marriages; how Kyung would have trouble adjusting herself in his native Parkersburg, W. Va.; how their children would be marked "different" and suffer the awful persecution of young schoolmates.

EAST-WEST MERGER—Sgt. Richard Marquis of Parkersburg, W. Va., lives in Seoul with Korean wife and daughter.

Richard also noted that Kyung's family and friends were bitter that she dated a GI, questioning the intentions of all soldiery.

Furthermore, in this land ancient custom forbids a single girl to have boy friends and parties; marriage is a matter arranged by the elders.

Sgt. Marquis retreated (as so many do) before the two-sided pressure. In a sorry scene, in the mid-day shadow of a Seoul pagoda, he said goodby to Kyung Sook.

As his army career was closing he went to Inchon Harbor to catch a ship home. While waiting his mind was tortured: "What right have others to interfere with our happiness? Shall we bow before common prejudices?

The next morning, startling the embarkation officer, he re-enlisted and volunteered to remain in Korea another year. He pleaded with Kyung to forgive him. She interpreted his appeal to her father, who consented.

They were married in a simple ceremony, he attended by GIs in combat boots, she by slippered brown girls in white robes. Korean wine and U. S. rations mixed equally after the rites.

With their 7-month-old baby, Ada Leona, they live in a neat house with sliding papered walls.

En route to his home through the narrow busy alleys of Seoul, his jeep scrapes past oxcarts, past the shattered skeletons of half this destroyed capital, vendors selling second hand Army clothes, and GIs with rifles strapped to their backs, walking hand in hand with girl friends.

Dick still takes his meals in the Army mess hall; Mrs. Marquis can't handle the cooking tastes, although she carefully studies an imported recipe book. She herself still prefers the violently garlicked native dishes and the inevitable rice.

Her clothes come from the "Wishing Book," local slang for U. S. mail order catalogues which the girls thumb through, pointing and saying: "I wish I had that . . . wish I had this . . ."

Soon they will sail together for the U. S. for what they know will be a trying adventure to find happiness and security.

Kyung's friends who also married our soldiers and went before them to the States have written mixed reports. Others have returned, admitting failure.

And back here an ex-wife, a divorced woman, is so much tragic baggage on the streets, scorned by all.

But the Marquis are determined, somehow, to prove that Kipling was wrong about "East is East and West is West."

Shoe May Be Clue to Lost Fishermen

SAULT STE. MARIE (UP) — A shoe found by a woman tourist had searchers out again today in hopes of finding some trace of two lost Detroit brothers.

The pair, Walter and Harry Butler, disappeared Aug. 12 on a flight from Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., to Jamestown, Ont., where they were going for a fishing trip.

The shoe was found near Batchewanna Bay on Lake Superior, and Mrs. Harry Butler said it was one worn by her brother-in-law the day he and her husband disappeared on the 250-mile plane trip.

A patrol boat and fishing boats in the Batchewanna Bay area were alerted by Canadian authorities to watch for signs of the missing plane and the men.

Like Your Lawn:

Baldness Is Due to Wear, Expert Says in Booklet

WASHINGTON (UP) — Every expert seems to wind up in Washington eventually, so it was only natural today to bump into a man who says he has a sure-fire plan for preventing baldness.

His name is Angelo Mantello, an earnest, 56-year-old barber from Hartford, Conn. It was 19 years ago that he had the great revelation.

It suddenly occurred to him that most of the men who are bald got that way because they wore their hair out, by sleeping in their arms or ramming their heads into pillows or headboards.

It's just like a lawn," Mantello said. "Keep walking on it long enough, and you wear out the grass."

Mantello explained his system in a booklet, "Baldness, Seven Ways To Help Prevent It." In the book he calmly dropped a remark that may surprise baldheads from coast to coast.

"Baldness is not necessary or inevitable," Mantello wrote. "Such notions are outmoded."

The Mantello plan is simple. He has designed a pillow, a narrow job only six inches across in which no one possibly could bury his head and thereby wear out his hair. By keeping the arms and headboards away from the head, Mantello says, a fellow's hair can be saved from wear and tear.

Like most people with missions, Mantello has run into skeptics. It was one such comment that has him in these parts.

Three years ago Arthur Godfrey poked fun at the Mantello theory on a radio show. Well, Mantello bided his time, which he thinks now has arrived.

Godfrey recently was hospitalizes, and Mantello is positive it changed his sleeping habits and Godfrey is wearing out his hair.

This rumor apparently got to Godfrey, who claimed it was a close haircut that made the difference. He even combed his hair on one of his television shows in an effort to prove there was nothin to it.

Mantello insists there is, however, and is keeping a weather eye on Godfrey's red thatch via TV.

Jet Trainer Plows Into House, Kills One

VAN NEYS, Calif. (UP) — A jet trainer, trying to come in to an airport for an emergency landing, plowed through the front door and out the back of a Van Nuys house yesterday killing one person in the home.

Two other occupants were only shaken up, and two Air Force men in the plane suffered cuts and bruises.

While the plane tore the middle out of the John T. Chandler home, there was no fire. The Lockheed T3 came to rest in the back yard, leaving a wing in the living room and a tank embedded in a kitchen wall.

Fatally hurt was Mrs. Phyllis O'Kray, 48, Chandler's mother-in-law. Chandler, 35, and his wife Helen, 28, suffered only shock.

Wave of GI Volunteers Hitting Extreme High

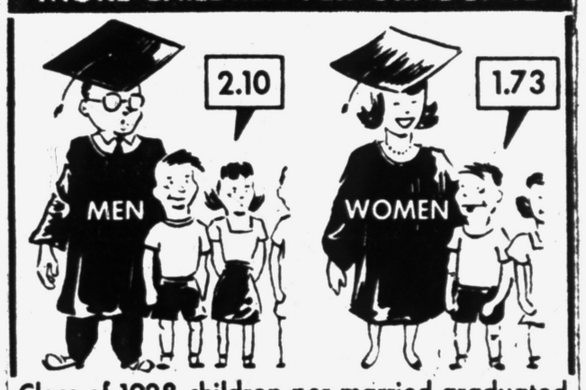

LANSING (UP)—A wave of volunteers is hitting local draft board offices in many parts of the state.

Lt. Col. Arthur A. Holmes, state Selective Service director, said the number of volunteers for military service "is extremely high"—so high that some local draft boards have asked to have their draft quotas for the month increased.

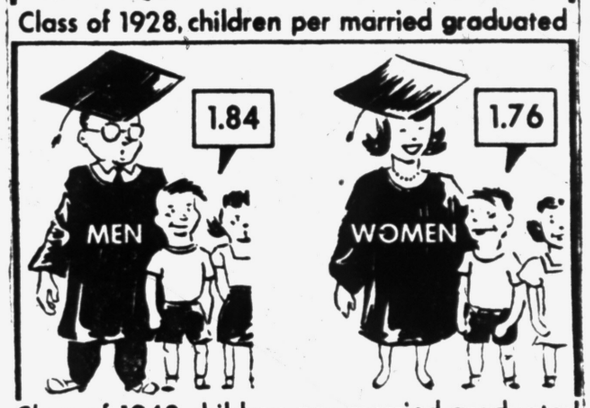

Col. Holmes said the upsurge of volunteers will not mean a reduction of future draft calls generally.

In Barranquilla, Colombia, red traffic lights have advertisements on them.

MORE CHILDREN PER GRADUATE

Class of 1928, children per married graduated

Class of 1943, children per married graduated

College graduates are having more children, a study by the Population Reference Bureau shows. Women graduates of the class of 1943, now married, already have more children than those who graduated 25 years ago, on the average, and men in the same class have almost as many. But, the bureau warns, college graduates do not yet reproduce themselves in the population of the United States.

Playing Cupid to Hippo Poses Weighty Problem

NEW YORK (AP)—As hippos go, Pete is a pigmy of only 350 pounds.

So, when he appeared lonely, Bronx Zoo officials ordered a small girl hippo to keep him company and built special pens to house the little couple.

Pete was still lonesome today. His girl friend arrived. Zoo officials took one look and ordered her away as too fat for Pete. She weighed 700 pounds.

Superintendent of Eloise Quits to Take New Post

DETROIT (UP) — Dr. Roland M. Athay has resigned as medical superintendent of Wayne County General Hospital to become the first full-time medical director of a Detroit committee on alcoholism clinic.

Athay said he quit the $18,500-a-year hospital post because of "difficulties and unpleasantness connected with a position like mine."

Tax Evasion Charges Filed Against Two

DETROIT (AP)—Income tax evasion charges that beat the statute of limitations deadline by only six days were on file today against two officials of a Detroit steel firm.

Leonard Friedman, president of the Layfayette Steel Co., and Benjamin Goldberg, vice president, were charged with withholding more than $75,000 from federal income tax payments for the years 1946 and 1947.

The two will be arraigned Monday before Federal Judge Arthur A. Koscinshi.

District Attorney Fred W. Kaess filed a complaint instead of a grand jury indictment against Friedman and Goldberg to get the case into court before Sept. 15, the date on which the charges would have been voided by the statute of limitations.

The government charged that Friedman and Goldberg reported an income of $131,742 for the years 1946-47, paying taxes of $40,062, but actual income was $440,966 and the tax should have been $125,767.

Handy Schooner Still Carries On

Once Had to Compete With Handsome Clipper —Now Afraid of Diesels

WASHINGTON—Not the glamorous clipper ships, but sturdy schooners were the mainstays of American seaborne commerce in the golden days of sail.

Only in the few years between 1846 and 1859 did the graceful but uneconomic square-rigged clippers make their roaring passages across the wide oceans, says the National Geographic Society.

Needing large crews, lacking in cargo space and often weakly constructed, they inscribed but one brief page in the annals of the United States merchant marine before they vanished forever.

The schooner, on the other hand, was born in Colonial times and still goes its handy, weatherly way as handsome yacht or able workabout.

To fit the definition "schooner," a vessel can be any size so long as it has two or more masts and carries a "fore-and-aft" rig. In such a rig, the sails are attached by their leading edges to the masts and therefore set parallel to the axis of the hull.

On a square-rigger, sails bend to spars which cross the masts at right angles and hence lie naturally athwartships.

Men of Gloucester, Mass., claim they "invented" and named the schooner rig. The South disputes the claim.

Wherever they originated, early American schooners had to be fast. Foreign powers jealously dominated the seas, leaving mainly such illicit trades as downright piracy open to Yankee sailormen.

So successful was the schooner rig that from the Revolution on, it always far outnumbered the American square-riggers. The Grand Banks fisheries were conducted in schooners.

Schooners chased pirates for the United States Navy, hunted seals on the West Coast, and carried the bulk of American coastwise cargoes. They traded in every ocean, without the publicity given the clippers.

In this hemisphere, the schooner survives mainly as a yacht, performing with credit in races against more modern sailing rigs.

A few old, tired commercial schooners hang on in Chesapeake Bay, thanks to Maryland law which says oysters may be dredged only under sail.

Commercial schooners still cut an important figure in the West Indies. Dozens of them, including a few of the old Gloucester fishing vessels, carry cargoes through the warm seas, confident they still have a few more years before they too are replaced by the unromantic diesel freighters that doomed most of their sisters.

Demand Good Teeth for Police Recruits

WASHINGTON (AP) — The commissioners of the District of Columbia agreed that only men with good teeth can join the police force. Two applicants had been rejected because they had partial dentures.

Former commissioner F. Joseph Donohue protested

'We don't expect them to go out and bite somebody.'

A recent count shows that more than 400,000 trees grow on the boulevards and avenues and in the parks of Paris, France.

2 Marines Wounded by Japanese Police

CAMP GIFU, Japan (AP)—Cpl. T. C. Kimler and Pvt. S. E. Upton of the 9th Regiment, 3rd Marine Division, were injured by bullets fired by Japanese policemen wearing civilian clothes in nearby Naka-Jo last night, a Marine spokesman said today.

He said the Marines, walking in the shopping section, became involved in an altercation with the policemen, who opened fire when the Marines ran.

One Marine was hit in the left arm and hip; the other in the thigh.

Both were hospitalized but neither is in serious condition.

High ROK Officers Tried by Military

SEOUL (AP)—Three high-ranking South Korean army officers, including a brigadier general, are being tried by a high military court at Taegu on charges of violating South Korea's national security law.

Details of the charges were not divulged.

One is the former chief of the MACHINE 3 .. ..h.. Republic of Korea army intelligence bureau, Brig. Gen. Kim Chong Pyung. An informed source said Kim is accused of giving a military secret to a civilian.

He was arrested by the ROK counterintelligence corps about three months ago along with his father, Lt. Col. Kim Bong Kil, and the former chief of staff of the ROK 1st Corps, Col. Kim Wha San.

President Hears Firsthand Tales of Red Cruelty

DENVER (AP) — Two American soldiers freed by the Communists in Korea told President Eisenhower yesterday about abuses at the hands of the Reds.

Their accounts were given in reply to questions of the President. The two were among 13 UOWs visited by the President while he was at Fitzsimmons Army Hospital for treatment of a bruised right elbow.

From Cpl. Richard M. Davis of Battle Mountain, Nev., Eisenhower heard an account of how the Communists kept him for 30 days in a 3-foot-square dugout. Mistreatment of a friend was recounted by Pvt. Youis Kerkstra of Byron Center, Mich.

Teachers Given 600 Calendars by B'nai B'rith

Six hundred special "school calendars," gifts to Pontiac Lodge, B'nai Brith, will find their way to the desks of teachers of Pontiac Public Schools this week.

The calendars were turned over to Frank J. DuFrain, superintendent of schools, Wednesday by Dr. Maurice Thome, president, and Dr Harry Arnkoff, community relations committee chairman of the local B'nai B'rith lodge.

B'nai B'rith leaders say the calendars, which designate patriotic and religious dates as well as other holidays, are being distributed to teachers in many communities across the nation by public service groups.

370 Protest Polluting of Kalamazoo River

ALLEGAN (AP) — Residents of nearby Plainwell aind Otsego met here last night to protest the polluting of the Kalamazoo River.

Some 370 irate citizens met with state conservation officals and voted for a fund raising campaign to force paper mill owners in the area to proceed with plans for waste disposal.

422 Ex-POWs Land in States

Say Two 'Progressives' Were Beaten by GIs on Voyage Home

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Another 422 American repatriates returned home yesterday from long imprisonments in Communist prison stockades in Korea.

Several hundred relatives and friends cheered their arrival on the Navy transport Gen. John Pope—fifth repatriation ship to dock at Ft. Mason in the past two weeks.

The Marine Phoenix, carrying 374 more ex-prisoners, is slated to dock Sunday, the Military Sea Transport Service said.

* * *

Yesterday's returnees said at least two so-called "progressives"—Americans whom fellow prisoners said cooperated with the Communists in prison camp—were beaten aboard the Pope.

Cpl. Harold W. Beerbower of Saegerstown, Pa., said about 10 "pros" were aboard the Pope and they were segregated after the beatings, which occurred the first day out of Inchon, Korea.

* * *

His account was supported by Pfc. Thomas M. Caroland Jr. of Cedar Hill, Tenn.

Caroland said one of the beaten men was "just a jerk who was afraid," but he called the other "a real rat who spied for the Reds and got several Americans tortured."

Insults Fly Fast When Old Salts Hold Annual Race

BAR HARBOR, Me. (UP) — A precautionary check may be needed to make sure no firearms are aboard sloops which cross the starting line in the annual Maine Retired Skippers' Race Sept. 11.

The preliminary comments have been salty.

Capt. Horace Griffin of Portland, a 70-year-old retired Casco Bay seaman, tossed in his entry with the comment that last year's winner "isn't fit to handle a dory-load of geraniums."

Capt. Phil Haskell of Deer Isle, whose sloop was first over the finish line last year, loftily recalls that Bucksport skippers had insulted Deer Isle seamen in similar fashion before the 1952 race.

The Bucksport deep-water men had gibed that Deer Isle sailors were really "mostly lobstermen, clam diggers and the like."

A retired skipper must be at least 65 years old to compete in the race.

Ike Sends Greetings on Jewish New Year

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has voiced "warmest greetings" and a hope for peace in the Jewish New Year 5714, which begins today.

The President's message, sent from his vacation headquarters in Denver to Americans of Jewish faith, came as sundown services yesterday ushered in the 10-day period of Rosh Hashana.

"May this New Year bring to peoples of good faith everywhere the reassurance that more tranquil days are indeed near," Eisenhower said.

State Marine Among Five to Get Posthumous Medal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Relatives of five Marines who died heros' deaths in Korea came today to Washington to receive from Vice President Nixon Medals of Honor awarded the men for their valor.

The Marine Corps commandant, Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, invited to the ceremony at Marine barracks here retired Army Gen. Lucius D. Clay, former Allied commander in Germany and a friend of 2nd Lt. Sherrod Emerson Skinner of East Lansing, Mich., one of the five men to receive the posthumous award, the highest decoration of the nation.

Skinner was a forward artillery observer. In the action which brought his death he was wounded twice as he left a bunker to direct the fire of his men. Ammunition ran out and the enemy started to overrun the position. Skinner told his men to pretend they were dead.

A grenade rolled into the midst of the group. The wounded Skinner flung himself on the grenade, blanketing the force of its explosion. He saved the men but died himself.

S. Sgt. William E. Shuck Jr., whose parents live at Ridgley, W. Va., and whose widow, Mrs. Victoria L. Shuck, lives at Waukegan, Ill., died while helping aid other wounded marines after being severely wounded himself.

S. Sgt. Lewis G. Watkins of Senaca, S. C., led an attack to retake an outpost the Reds had captured. He was wounded, but kept going. the position was retaken, but as the Marines huddled in the trench a grenade was tossed in.

Watkins picked up the grenade, turned to shield it with his body from his men and attempted to to toss it away. But it exploded, killing him.

Pfc. John D. Kelly of Homestead, Pa., was serving as a radio operator when his platoon was pinned down by enemy fire. He turned over his transmitter to another man, grabbed a gun and twice charged and wiped out enemy machinegun nests. But his single-handed attack on a third position brought a mortal wound.

Pvt. Jack William Kelso, Fresno, Calif., was in an outpost when an overwhelming enemy force attacked. The platoon leader fell. Kelso took over command.

He stood up in the face of heavy fire to seize a grenade. It blew up in his hand, badly injuring him. But he stood on his feet and fired at the enemy until his comrades could withdraw. He died.

Women Make Project Out of Repairing Road

OMAHA (AP)—When the city kept delaying a neighborhood paving project, the women took things into their own hands.

Fifteen women and their children turned out with hoes, shovels, rakes and picks to do something about the ruts and rocks. Mrs. Dale McKeighan organized the work detail after her husband arranged for four truckloads of dirt and crushed rock. She described the street as "too dangerous to walk on, much less drive a car over."

Ease Rice Shortage

MANILA (AP)—Burma's increased rice production has eased the threat of a rice shortage in Southeast Asia, says a U. S. Technical Cooperation Administration official. Ison Dashotels, TCA agricultural consultant in Burma, said this season's Burmese rice harvest is even more promising. A greater rice yield is expected because of early rains and more rice acreage.

It is estimated that one-third of the world's trade is carried on in pounds sterling.

Whether Skirts Go Up or Down, Paris Emphasizes Top Half of Figure

Male Fashions Gaily Adapted for Coed Wear

This year there is a greater selection of typical male fashions adapted, tongue in cheek, for the college girls. Jackets, weskits and shirts top the list.

But instead of doing these in conservative Brooks Bros. colors, they are best in bright and exaggerated fabrics. There are big bright prints for shirts. Yellow felt, black and white brocade, bright cotton tweeds, printed corduroys for jackets and vests.

Shirts follow two paths—the new washable wool jerseys offer some real competition to sweater fashions when styled as clasic shirt-like tops. Variations that look very good are scarf-tie necklines; new scooped-to-the-back necklines; sandaway cuffed necklines that can be filled in with scarfs.

The man-tailored shirt is done in a host of new fabrics—those greenish uniform colors, challis-type floral prints, bright stripes, stripes-and-prints, big colorful paisley prints — those with the brightest colors look the newest.

Sweaters can be defined as refined in a classic mood with stress on soft dressmaker touches, luxury blends and hand touches of delicate embroidery. Costumes headline the other knitted categories, most important suits and dresses emphasizing the ensemble mood.

There is a wide choice of party and at-home knitwear. Halters, weskits, decollette types with fur and glitter are fresh and novel. Also knitted are pants, shorts, leisure jackets and coats.

The full blouse silhouette is too heavy. Modify to a tiny back blouse in dress, suit or coat. Friendly to broad beam and back.

Mrs. S. W.—Many fall models are definitely bloused in back. Gently bloused into dolman cut top with modified fulness above a back-dipping contour belt, can slice inches off back and does not add bulk to the petite size.

Bright Colors Flash

There are bright flashes of color in coat and jacket linings this fall. There are also touches of color in shoe linings and can-can petticoat ruffles.

Supremely Smug Male Berates Gals

Dishwashers, Says 'Expert' on Women Can't Even Operate

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
(AP Newsfeatures Writer)

A gentleman of my acquaintance, grinning sardonically and wickedly, dropped in the other day to inform me that a "lady of his acquaintance" sold her electric dishwasher after using it only three times.

This, the happy lad reported with an air of victory, was his conclusive proof that women are the most backward of American citizens. I suspect that collecting examples of feminine retardment is his hobby, a cheaper, more exciting one than early airmail stamps or Spode gravy boats.

From the electric-dishwasherless woman, my chum moved easily into other examples of female incompetance, just as though one woman who didn't want a dishwasher in the house means that all over the nation, women were going back to old-fashioned dishpans and suffering dishpan hands en masse.

"She is a living example of the disquieting fact that the women of America (bless 'em) are among our most backward citizens," he noted with the fire and style of a Fourth of July orator.

"Her husband bought it as a surprise, but for her it was too new fangled. She preferred the rag and towel method, which was good enough for Grandma. As a result, she does dishes early and late while her well-meaning husband fumes, her children go about their business without her, and the gardening and writing she always plans remain undone.

"If you have a friend who can't or won't drive a car, even through there is one in the family, chances are the friend is female. If you have a female relative who has money to invest, she likely turns to a financially incompetant man for advice instead of using her own superior native intelligence.

"Right now some of the leaders of these backward citizens are still campaigning for equal rights, even though men are the ones who need them. It isn't equal rights the gals need at this point but more readiness to jump at opportunities they have and to take advantage of the progress that men manage to make for them."

Of course, I suspect that my outraged friend just happens to be the fellow who surprised his wife with a dishwasher—probably an anniversary present, too. I suspect also that she heaved it at him in sheer rage and then sold it for junk.

If she did decide not to use it, for what were probably good and sufficient reasons, why didn't her husband either explain its operation, or give her a hand with a dish towel instead of just sitting there fuming?

As far as women NOT driving family cars, this is the old classic squeeze women are forever caught in. If and when a woman does drive the family car, she gets nothing but snide remarks about her driving skills.

Fall fashions from Paris reveal skirt lengths generally to be slightly longer than in the past. Shorter skirt lengths are expected to reach this country by spring but these will not be drastically short. Pierre Balmain does a version of the short evening ensemble (left) in pink, mauve and blue brocade. Bodice top is outlined with folds of pale mauve chiffon. Chamois colored jersey (left center) by Jean Patou has paneled front and width at top.

New season silhouette is shown (right center) in Balmain's black, gray and white marble print that has tiny waistline wrapped with azure blue satin cummerbund. Suit by Jean Desses (right) is in mixture of black and broun tweed with wide pleated pockets and shoulder width. It's worn with small brown velvet hat. Emphasis is placed on the top half of the figure and bosomline is high and stressed in new silhouette.

Princess Dress Revival Also Notable in Several Leading French Collections

PARIS (NEA)—Now that the raging controversy over hemlines has subsided to a mere tempest in a silhouette.

The emphasis is on the top half of the figure. Shoulders in every collection are widened and rounded.

Bosomline is high and stressed, waistline has a natural, normal look that's not strangled in a corset. Rather, it is shaped and boned for a slim appearance.

For day, skirts are straight or slightly bell-shaped with fullness restrained in everything but gala ball gowns.

Because of the uproar over hemlines, the important reappearance of the princess dress in the collections of Fath, Balmain, Desses and Dior has gone almost unnoticed.

The collections also featured "the chic little black dress" with the touch that's unmistakably Parisian.

Coats have never been so important. They come in all lengths and many fabrics. Generally, they've lost much of their width, but fullness has not disappeared entirely.

Both city and casual coats take on a new look through fabrics. These include "rocky tweeds," heavy mohair and brushed wools and woolens that imitate leopard, zebra and tiger fur.

The fur lining is back. The casual wrist-length, unfitted coat is shown at Schiaparelli with inexpensive fur lining. This tops a suit.

Dior lines a spreading coat of white-and-gold ribbed wool with mink and Castillo at Lanvin lines jackets with the ever-flattering ermine. Desses use black seal.

Fur is also important as trim: scarves tucked into collarless coats, collars and cuffs on suits, muffs of every size, and even bra tops for evening gowns. Balmain uses leopard with blonde tulle.

The ankle-length evening gown with accompanying coat is far more important than the long version for everything but very formal occasions.

There's the slinky sheath or the dress with bell-shaped medium fullness in the skirt.

Winning colors are all the beiges, alabaster and winter white, and cognac in shades from apricot to burnt topaz. Black is sophisticated.

There's a good showing of wine reds, winter green, window glass blues and dark grays.

Hanging Laundry Healthful Exercise

If hanging out laundry is a weekly chore, make it double as a beauty exercise. Stand straight as you reach for the clothes pins, reach high as you pin the clothes in place; breathe deeply of healthful fresh air.

Exercise like this out of doors will put new sparkle in the eyes, new glow in the cheeks. Good beauty aids are a light head scarf, a pair of sturdy shoes, and a bottle of lotion. The lotion keeps hands, moist from laundry, from chapping in the air. Smart homemakers keep lotion handy near the laundry center, constant reminder that beauty is an everyday affair.

Curly-Cues!

Smart girls never let their straight hair stay that way. So when you're improving on nature, permanently, be sure to use a home wave lotion tailored to your hair texture. You'll find one for your tresses among home wave kit for normal-to-wave, hard-to-wave, and easy-to-wave or color-treated hair.

Mom Asks Hen Party Suggestions

Planning Birthday Celebration for Her Daughter, 14

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I'm going to give my 14-year-old daughter a birthday party, inviting 10 girls her age. I suggested at first that we invite boys, but she insisted she'd prefer a hen party for a change.

"Now I'm facing the problem of how to entertain a group of girls too old to play 'pin the tail on the donkey' and too young for bridge. Could you help me plan an all-girl party that they'd really enjoy?"

The real problem, as I see it, is to plan a celebration that will be so different and exciting that the girls won't even miss the boys.

Were I a 14-year-old girl I'd want to go somewhere to do something I don't usually do, something that doesn't require boys to make it fun, something I'd never done before.

And so here are my ideas for expeditions that are quite different from the usual party at home, and games.

A BIG DAY IN TOWN: If 11 girls are too many for you to shepherd around alone, enlist the help of a friend or relative. Then the girls won't feel they must take turns walking with you, and you'll have somebody to talk to!

Make a regular schedule so your day will have some organization, get your tickets ahead of time, then whip the girls through a routine that might begin with a radio broadcast. After sitting, hike them off to a museum to look at dynosaurs, period rooms or antique jewelry.

It will then be time for a quick lunch before a very special movie. And wind up the afternoon with a glamorous touch: Tea to soft music in a big hotel.

Allow a little meandering time between events so they can pop in to visit a church or a shop, or stop to "oh" and "ah" a doggie in a window. Bet such a party wouldn't cost much more than one would at home, and your daughter will get presents anyhow!

AN EVENING OUT: Whatever is off your list as normal routine with the boys would make the ingredients for an evening celebration. Buffet supper or barbecue in the badkyard to begin with, then off to the drive-in in two cars. Or a picnic supper and a big go at a nearby amusement park.

They might get a bang out of going to the stock car races, or to play miniature golf, with ice cream and birthday cake served at home when you get back.

Or you might take them to a club or very special restaurant for an all-dressed-up and elegant dinner. (Try to pick one with no dancing or the girls will begin to miss their regular partners.)

While you're making plans, ask your daughter what she and her girl friends would consider an exciting night out, something they have never been allowed to do yet.

With you behind it, and with no boys to confuse the issue, you might find that their wildest dreams are easy to bring true. What a birthday present!

Don't Hang Knits

Knit outerwear has become popular largely because these garments are easy to launder and pack, and usually require no pressing. Never put these garments on hangers.

Heavy Fabrics, Ruffles Change Skinny to Slender

The expression "painfully thin" has real meaning when one sees a girl, not slender but emaciated, who hasn't any feeling for dressing herself in a flattering disguise.

We recently saw such an unfortunate girl who wore a shirtwaist dress of a clinging material that looked like jersey, with formless sleeves and a V-neck.

Her gloves ended at her bony wrists. She was teetering on spike-heeled sandals. All in white, she emphasizes her ghostly quality.

This girl did the opposite of what she might have done in the way of clothes to flatter. In redressing her, we may as well begin with her feet. If she insists upon sandals, let's give her ankle-straps.

Her sandals were not of that type and she is one of the very few women who wears this type of shoe becomingly. Let's get her off those slender heels which make you feel she's going to fall over. A more solid-looking heel will make her seem more solid. The toes should never point, regardless of current style trends.

Now, through the magic of dress, our girl has changed from "Miss Skinny" to "Miss Slender."

LISTEN, MEN! All girls are flattered by affection—but save us from those enthusiastic lads who are too demonstrative. We can get a bloom on our cheeks without exuberant pinching!

Get Cottage All Ready for Winter

By HUBBARD COBB

One of the things you want to make sure of if you own a summer camp or cottage is that when you return to it in the spring it will be more or less the way you left it in the fall.

Just what sort of shape it really is in depends on what you do when you close it up.

Of course, the plumbing should be completely drained after the water supply has been shut off. Be sure that all valves are drained and fill all the plumbing fixture traps with kerosene.

The electricity should be turned off at the main switch box. Remove all foodstuff and don't leave any bottled liquids that are likely to freeze.

Items such as clothing, bed clothes, etc., should be cleaned and put away with moth crystals to keep out moths and small rodents.

The exterior of the house should be carefully gone over and sealed so that rodents can't get in while you are away.

It's a good idea to apply wire screening over the top of the chimney and to any other opening of this sort.

Windows should be locked closed and it's not a bad idea to board them up to keep out interested passing strangers.

All exterior doors should be locked and if the existing lock is something that you can open with a bent hairpin, better replace it with something that is really going to offer some opposition.

Too many summer camps are broken into only because the locks on the doors just aren't any good.

What we need is a law to make it possible to use politicians for breach of campaign promises.

Your face may be your fortune, but your future is in your hands. Busy hands need care, and should receive consideration, not only for the many tasks they perform, but because they play an important part in your beauty quotient. Rich in lanolin, this hand lotion penetrates your skin and replenishes vital oils that your hands need to make them feel and look smooth as silk.

1st Serving Never Given to Hostess

Would Be Greatest Possible Rudeness, Says Mrs. Post

By EMILY POST

A wife writes me: "Last evening my husband and I were invited to dinner at the house of his employer. I was seated on the host's right and when the waitress came around with the serving dishes, I was served first instead of the hostess.

"I was never so embarrassed in all my life as I had no idea how to attack the complicated dish that was presented to me. I was almost tempted to refuse it but took a deep breath and broke into it, making a mess of that beautifully arranged dish.

"I ask you, Mrs. Post, what does one do when one is served a complicated dish first? Wouldn't it have been more thoughtful of her guest for the hostess to have herself served first?"

Answer: I'm very sorry, but the hostess who has herself served first commits the greatest rudeness possible. The arrangement of the dish is especially prepared for the guest of honor and it is quite correct for her to spoil it.

Dear Mrs. Post: I recently received an invitation to a church wedding and reception. The invitation did not carry the usual R. s. v. p. so I did not reply and I understand that several other guests did not reply either.

We were told later that R.s.v.p. is no longer used and that anyone receiving an invitation to a wedding reception should know enough to acknowledge it. Will you please tell me if we were wrong?

Answer: No, you were quite right.

Dear Mrs. Post: My mother died two months ago. My father has given me her diamond wedding band, a very pretty ring which I would like very much to wear. But I was told that it would be improper as I am not married. Will you please advise me?

Answer: As a diamond band is not traditionally a wedding ring, you may wear it without impropriety.

Dear Mrs. Post: When writing on single sheet note paper, is it incorrect to write on both sides of the paper?

Answer: There is no rule about writing on one side only. However, if the paper is thin, writing on both sides may make your letter hard to read.

Helping Husband Get Ahead in Career Doesn't Mean Living His Life for Him

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Sometimes I think we are getting so technically-minded in America today that nothing can be done spontaneously or naturally.

For example, the woman bringing up a child is inundated with books on how to be a good mother.

As one of them told me recently: "I spend so much time pausing and wondering if I really am doing right by my child that I have almost no time to relax and enjoy him."

We have books on how to do this, and how to do that, until it seems to me occasionslly that all that is needed is a book on how to get the most out of your how-to books.

This has been particularly brought home to me of late when I noticed how many letters I receive from young wives asking for advice on how to help their husbands get ahead.

Most of the time, the wife is truly sincere about it. She is willing to make any extra effort necessary, whether it means baking cookies for the men in the office, clipping news items from the business page which are up the alley of his career or whatever.

Sometimes she lets this get out of hand, and is such a busy beaver trying to further her husband's interests that she needles him unmercifully and gives him no peace.

But always the motive is a most worthy one. "I was only trying to help you get ahead, dear," she says when he blows up.

In my lifetime, I have heard the stories of many, many husbands and many, many wives, and the only answers I have for this querq: "How can I help my husband get ahead?" is this:

1. Relax and just love the guy. Too often a wife overlooks this in the frantic drive to help him keep up to where she thinks he should be.

2. Learn about what he is doing, not by studying all the technical books and articles in his field, but by just listening to him.

A wife can learn more that way, in the first place, and can give her husband real moral support if he knows she is interested in hearing what went on in the office.

3. A wife should have some kind of interest of her own so that she won't be jealous of his career.

In short, a wife's honest interest in her husband's work is one thing — and a healthy one.

But a driving desire to live his life instead of her own is another — and a very unhealthy — thing.

If you're thinking of buying a fur coat and price is an object, pick the best grade of a fur that's moderately priced rather than a low grade of a rare and expensive fur.

Adjustable Shower Fits Mom and Pop

The problem of a joint shower for a tall husband and a tiny wife is solved by an adjustable shower on the market.

The showe rhead slides up and down a rod so that even a small child can take a shower without splashing mother. Mother can take a shower shoulder height and keep her hair dry.

Perfume That Clings

Q.—Dear Penny: I adore perfume, but for some reason or other its frangrance just does not last on me. I have told several of my friends that I want a new perfume, but first I must find out about a lasting one.—Mrs. A. W.

A.—A particularly good idea for women who claim that perfume does not "stay with them" is a Liquid Skin Sachet. It smooths on the skin very easily, and lingers longer because of its sachet base. It has a slower rate of diffusion and evaporation than any other type of fragrance. Try this Houbigant Chantilly Liquid Skin Sachet. Only $1.85 plus tax at better stores.

Jacqueline Phelps Speaks Her Vows

Wearing a gown of Chantilly lace over satin, Jacqueline Frances Phelps, daughter of Milo Phelps of Detroit and Mrs. James Foster of Pontiac drive, became the bride of Charles Herbert Crumm Saturday evening in St. Trinity Lutheran Church.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Crumm of Walled Lake.

The bride's gown featured a traditional skirt of satin with an accordion-pleated front panel and she carried a cascade of white roses and glamellias. Her jewelry was a pearl choker and pearl earrings.

JoAnn Sheffler of Milford as maid of honor wore a gown of emerald green lace over taffeta with a strapless bodice and bolero jacket. She carried a cascade bouquet of gold-colored glamellias.

Bridesmaids Jean Metcalf of Detroit and Betty MacDonald, the bride's sister, wore coral-colored gowns styled like the honor maid's. They carried matching bouquets of toast-colored glamellias.

Diane O'Rourke wore a miniature replica of the bride's dress for her duties as flower girl.

Harry Mohr of Columbus, Ohio, was best man with George Markey, Dan Ranger of San Bernadino, Calif., and Gerald Phelps, the bride's brother, as ushers.

A teal blue dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses was worn by the bride's mother. The bridegroom's mother wore an ensemble of the same colors.

A trip through the western states was chosen by the newlyweds for their honeymoon. The bride's traveling ensemble featured a navy blue check coat and taffeta dress with blue and white accessories.

The reception was held in the Chieftain Hall. They will reside on Lakeview drive, Cass Lake.

Honeymooning in the western states are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herbert Crumm. She is the former Jacqueline Phelps, daughter of Milo M. Phelps of Detroit and Mrs. James Foster of Pontiac drive. The Herbert F. Crumms of Walled Lake are his parents.

BARBARA JEAN NELSON

Announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Gary William DeVault are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nelson of Bald Mountain road. Gary is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. James Franklin DeVault of South Jessie street. A wedding is being planned for late September.

Toastmistress Leaders Named

Appointments of committees for the year were made when members of Pontiac Toastmistress Club met Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron.

Mrs. Clayton Rule heads the membership committee; Mrs. Robert Sutton and Mrs. Lester Snell, program; Mrs. Norman Sutherland, Mrs. James Palmer and Mrs. Orben Wilkins, hospitality, and Mrs. Joseph Shaw, press chairman.

Others appointed were Mrs. Milton Freet, public relations; Mrs. W. A. Vernon and Helen Turek, community service; Mrs. Howard Wheatley, Mrs. Gertrude Nethercott and Mrs. J. R. Shaffer, education, and Mrs. R. W. Hodge, parliamentarian.

Mrs. L. B. Windsor is historian; Mrs. Robert Bunce, reservations chairman, and Mrs. Wendell Green and Mrs. Harold Ott, revision of the constitution.

The table topic for the evening was "The Changing Hemline" with Mrs. Sutton as the topic mistress. Mrs. Robert Scharf attended as a guest.

White Shrine Plans Sept. 23 Card Party

Announcement of a card party to be held in the Roosevelt Temple Sept. 23 was made by Mrs. Lloyd Wait, worthy high priestess of Pontiac White Shrine, when the group met Wednesday evening in Roosevelt Temple.

Fifty five members were present at the meeting where plans for the coming season were made.

Buffalo Rite of Interest in Bloomfield

Bride Claimed by John Shuell, Now of Vermont

By RUTH SANDERS

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — A wedding in Buffalo, N. Y., Wednesday, was of great interest in Bloomfield Hills.

John Mercier Shuell of Peru, Vt., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Shuell who lived at "Brooknoll" on Lone Pine road, was married in the First Presbyterian Church.

The bride was Nancy Dudley Nussbaumer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis L. Nussbaumer of Buffalo.

A reception was give at the Garrick Club. The new Mr. and Mrs. Shuell will leave the end of this week for an extended trip to Europe. On their return in the late fall they will live in Vermont.

Attending the wedding were the bridegroom's three sisters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Saunders of Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Munn of Peru, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wolf Jr. of Connecticut.

* * *

Lt. and Mrs. George T. Trumbull Jr. were hosts at a Tuesday evening party in the home of Mrs. Trumbull's parents, the John G. Woods of Lone Pine road. The young Trumbulls have been spending a 10-day leave here, coming from El Paso, Tex. Their next station will be in Indiana.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Gillette returned Monday from a long weekend cruise with Harold DuCharme of Grosse Pointe on his yacht "Natoya." Mr. and Mrs. Gillette will go to Hyannisport, Mass., for the weekend of Sept. 18 to visit Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Finkenstadt at their summer home there.

* * *

Patty Eden will leave Friday to spend the winter in New York. She will teach school there and spend her vacations with her family in Palm Beach. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlton G. Eden, have taken a house there for the winter months.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Anderson and their daughters, Suzanne aue Marynell, returned Wednesday from their summer home at Bellaire where they spent the holiday weekend.

Marynell will leave early next week to attend the Katharine Gibbs Secretarial School in New York.

Couple Married in Alaska

The chapel of Ladd Air Force Base in Fairbanks, Alaska, was the setting Aug. 30 when Virginia Lee Davis became the bride of Pfc. Walter Balcerzak.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Davis of LaDue drive, wore a gown of white nylon tulle and lace and a fingertip veil. She carried a corsage of red and white roses to complete her ensemble.

Sylvia St. Clair of Pontiac, who is attending the University of Alaska, was Virginia's only attendant.

Conrad Piasecki of Detroit performed the duties of best man for Walter, who is the son of Bruno Balcerzak of Detroit and the late Mrs. Balcerzak.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the newlyweds' home in Fairbanks.

Autumn Activities Outlined by Guild 7

Activities for the fall season were planned when Guild Seven of All Saints Episcopal Church met at the home of Mrs. Stuart Austin on Cherokee road Wednesday.

Final arrangements were made for a dessert card party to be held at Mrs. J. Walter Drake's Lake Angelus home Wednesday.

Patricia A. DeLano Wed

Patricia Ann DeLano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeLano of First Avenue, became the bride of Donald V. Harrison Saturday evening in the Joslyn Avenue United Presbyterian Church.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Harrison of Second Avenue.

The bride's gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace over ivory satin with a sweeping scalloped train and tiers of tulle accenting the front of the skirt. A Mary Queen of Scots headpiece held the tulle veil and she carried a white shower bouquet centered with an orchid.

Attending the bride were Joan Bowhall as maid of honor and Christine Harrison, Marjorie Baynes and Ruby Thompson as bridesmaids with Holly Defibaugh and Vicki Harrison as flower girl.

Jim Traver was best man and Robert Thompson, Keith Traver and Fred Johnson were ushers with Fred Giddings as ringbearer.

After a reception in Knights of Columbus Hall, the newlyweds left for a trip to northern Michigan and Canada. They will reside on Mechanic street.

Banking Institute to Outline Educational Program at Annual Breakfast

Gathering Scheduled on Sunday

General Chairman of County Event Is Mrs. Maslowski

The educational program of the American Institute of Banking will be the highlight of the breakfast to be given by the Oakland County Chapter Sunday at Rotunda Inn.

Mrs. Edward Maslowski is general chairman for the event and Mrs. Nuella Moore will be toastmistress. Ticket chairmen are Mrs. June Wortman and Elna Banghart.

Mrs. Ronald West, past chairman of the Women's Committee, will be an honored guest.

The annual council dinner of the Oakland County Chapter of the institute was held Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron.

Selected members from banks in the Oakland County Chapter attended to receive instructions on the educational program for the coming year.

These plans will be passed on to other members Wednesday when the education campaign begins.

Among the honored guests were Mrs. Cecil Attig, president; Wayne Dengate, first vice president; Mrs. William Pennanen, second vice president, and past presidents Larry Johns and John Black.

Maslowski of Drayton Plains, in gathering material for her address. The breakfast, scheduled for Sunday at Rotunda Inn, is to introduce the institute's educational program.

MOMS Unit 19 Installs Officers at Legion Hall

Mrs. Herschell Gibbs was installed as president when members of MOMS of America, Inc., Unit 19 met Tuesday evening in the American Legion Hall on Churchill road.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Sam Sprague, first vice president; Mrs. Peter Salwold, second vice president; Mrs. George Dodman, recording secretary, and Mrs. Glenn Norris, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Ira Harden, chaplain; Mrs. Walter Meyer, treasurer; Mrs. George Funk and Mrs. Henry Armstrong, color bearers, completed the list.

Serving on the board of directors will be Mrs. Malcolm Scantland, Mrs. William Burgdorf and Mrs. Francis Gazette.

Mrs. Frank Polasek introduced the past presidents and Mrs. Scantland introduced Mary Dell Harden, soloist, and Joyce Meyer who played accordion selections. Norma Zehlke was accompanist.

Mrs. Loyd Alber of Pickney, state president of MOMS of America, Inc., attended as a guest.

Committee Reports Heard by Sorority

Mrs. Cecil Elsholz, president of Phi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, called on committee heads to report on their respective programs for the year when the group met Tuesday evening at Hotel Waldron.

Reports were given by Mrs. Ray Slaughter, ways and means; Mrs. Robert Shorey, scholarship; Mrs. Mable Roat, social, and Mrs. Helen Baldwin, program.

The chapter made plans to rush new pledges this fall and announced a Chinese auction to be held at Mrs. Slaughter's home for the September social.

Coming Events

Ladies Auxiliary of Eagles Aerie 1230 will meet this evening at 8 in the hall on West Montcalm street.

Canadian Legion Post 23 and Auxiliary will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue.

Board members of the City Federation of Women's Clubs will meet Monday at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Richard Paschke, 1451 Union Lake Rd.

A reminder that the annual AIB breakfast is Sunday at Rotunda Inn is prepared by Mrs. June Wortman of Dwight avenue (left) and Betty Jane Berg of West Montcalm street, as they cut out and staple posters to be put up in Oakland County banks. Mrs. Wortman is also ticket chairman for the event.

WSCS Drama Planned

"A Sower Went Forth" is the name of the dramatization to be presented Friday when the WSCS of the First Methodist Church meets in the church parlors.

This first program of the new season shows the great love of Jesus for his people and gives an explanation of the meaning of being a sower of good deeds.

Among those who will take part in the presentation are Mrs. James Sorenson, Mrs. Gerald Augsburger, Mrs. Norman Legge and Mrs. A. G. Jackson.

The worship service will be conducted by Mrs. B. D. Church at the 7 o'clock meeting, and plans for the annual Harvest Home banquet will be discussed. Mrs. Chester Arnold and members of the Ruth Circle will be hostesses for the social hour.

Report Presented to Extension Club

Mrs. Kenneth Anderson reported on the Modern Home Extension Club garden party held recently in East Lansing, when the group met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Philip Wargelin on Voorheis road.

Plans were made to attend the Extension Club Rally Tuesday at Dublin Community Center, and the group agreed to make aluminum trays at the next meeting Oct. 13 in the home of Mrs. Harry Santala on Montroyal avenue.

Altar Society Plans Sept. 22 Card Party

Plans for a Sept. 22 card party were completed when the Altar Society of St. Vincent de Paul Church met Wednesday evening in the Parish hall. Mrs. Delma Chapdelain is chairman of the event.

Mrs. Theresa Zwicker conducted the NCW meeting at which it was announced that the second quarterly meeting of the Northwestern Deanery will be held Sept. 24 at 1 p.m. in St. William Church, Walled Lake.

Refreshments were served by St. Anne Guild.

New Safe ALL-IN-ONE Capsule Discovery for Easy Reducing!

$2.98 for 80 capsules

SCIENCE NOW HELPS YOU TAKE OFF YOUR FAT WHILE YOU EAT THE FOODS YOU CHOOSE

Do you like sweets, candy, cake and are you a real glutton when it comes to butter, gravy, potatoes? Have you tried one thing after another to reduce, spent dollar after dollar for pills and tablets and in spite of everything you've tried you're still too fat?

Well, be as skeptical as you like, but NOW, right NOW, there's a wonderful new kind of capsule that helps you take off pounds and inches of ugly fat safely, quickly and so much easier you hardly know what's happening.

You don't suffer starvation dieting hunger, you take no drugs, you don't exercise. In fact, you don't even diet one bit more than you want to, because you automatically eat less and here's why . . .

COUNTERACTS HUNGER

Just recently a well known scientist perfected a new tiny capsule that combines not one but ALL THE RECOGNIZED proven aids to reducing he found in all the advertised products offered today. It contains the concentrated proteins you've read and heard about. It combines the vitamins and minerals often lost when cutting off fattening foods containing these needed vitamins and minerals. It combines the vegetable cellulose that has no calories yet expands when it absorbs water thereby helping to give the feeling of a full contented stomach. Yet these tiny new capsules contain not just one but ALL the drugless reducing aids he found to be needed to actually automatically make you eat less without conscious effort and like it! In fact these tiny capsules are so packed with vitamins and minerals, protein and non-caloric filling food, they actually equal and exceed many a meal.

FAT GOES FAST

You'll be surprised at the fat you lose the first week, the inches that disappear, the first month. No hunger, no strict dieting, no drugs, no exercise. And the cost is absolutely nothing unless you grow slim, more youthful-looking, more active and enjoy better health.

Airmen Taking British Brides

Rate Is 200 Per Month Despite Obstacles Put Up by U. S. Forces

LONDON — (NEA) — Despite a U. S. Air Force "wet blanket," American airmen are marrying British girls at the rate of 200 a month.

In the Seventh Air Division alone, wedding bells ring for six out of every thousand single men each month, while a similar number are altar-bound in the Third Air Force.

For an Air Force GI, marrying a British girl is like running an obstacle course, with the Air Force brass setting up the hurdles.

First he must get permission to marry from his squadron commander whose heart may or may not be made of flint.

Then there is a four-month "cooling off" period for him to think it over. No amount of wheedling or cajoling will persuade USAF headquarters to cut the marriage red tape to less than four months.

U. S. AIRMAN AND BRITISH BRIDE: Before he could wed, Sgt. Thomas Rustemier had to furnish a lot of proof.

It's for the serviceman's own protection," explains Lt. Col. J. D. Andrew, of Skyland, N. C., staff chaplain of the Seventh Air Division.

"An airman who has been in England only two weeks comes to me and says he wants to marry a girl he picked up in Picadilly Circus. It may or may not be the real thing, but he'll have plenty of time to decide."

Andrew's job is to test the course of true love for unexpected bumps.

"The chaplain told me that my American dream cottage might turn out to be a trailer on the edge of some God-forsaken air base," recalls Averil Rustemier, attractive 18-year-old British bride of S-Sgt. Thomas C. Rustemier, of Bancroft, Iowa.

Averil said she didn't care as long as Tom was inside the trailer, and so they were married early in July. But first, here is what the sergeant had to prove:

That he had $300 in the bank. (Until last September, a $900 surety was required before permission to marry was granted.)

That both he and his future wife were sound physically, as proven by blood tests and chest X-rays.

That Averil had no Communist or other subversive affiliations, as determined by Scotland Yard investigation.

Inasmuch as Averil is only 18, permission also had to be secured from her parents.

Very few of the marriages contracted in Britain have come unstuck, according to Andrew.

"The most trouble we have," the chaplain claims, "is with American wives who complain that their husbands are stepping out on them, and who want to be sent back to the States."

Reasons why the made-in-Britain matches are inclined to be durable are that the wife is living in her own country, while the husband enjoys all the benefits of an inflationary economy where his dollar goes much further than it would in the U. S.

To American mothers, the chaplain's comforting word is: "Your sons are marrying nice girls from good family backgrounds."

To the girl he left behind in Dubuque, the news is: the chances of Johnny marching home single are mighty slim.

The Rev. C. E. "Stoney" Jackson of Tullahoma, Tenn., a Disciples of Christ minister, is said to be the only clergyman in the country formally consecrated at a public service to a "ministry of sports."

Vary Breads For Lunch Box

QUICK MOLASSES BROWN BREAD—Perfect for school lunch boxes is this molasses bread. It will contribute valuable amounts of iron to your youngster's diet. Put it in the lunch box spread with butter or with a cheese filling.

Nutritious Type Uses Molasses

Quick Treat Baked in Cans, Good With Butter or Cheese Filling

Varying the bread for sandwiches is one of the easiest ways to defeat monotony in the school lunch box. Treat your scholar—or your husband if you pack his lunch—to a different kind of bread each day. Buy some, make some, experiment with new combinations. Start with Quick Molasses Brown Bread; the family will approve.

Quick Molasses Brown Bread

1 cup ready-to-eat bran
½ cup seedless raisins
2 tablespoons shortening
½ cup molasses
¾ cup boiling water
1 egg
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cinnamon (if desired)

Measure bran, raisins, shortening and molasses into mixing bowl. Add hot water, stir until shortening is melted. Add egg and beat well. Sift together flour, soda, salt and cinnamon; add to molasses mixture, stirring only until combined. Fill 2 greased cans* about ⅔ full. Bake in preheated moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes. Remove from cans, slice and serve immediately while still hot. Makes two loaves.

*Size can commonly used for canned baked beans.

Cracker Puff Good Substitute

Cheese and Cracker Puff brings a bright idea to family meal planners for meatless menus. This casserole made with economical nonfat dry milk is an appetizing dish which is so easy to prepare and is a food budget saver, too.

Cheese and Cracker Puff

2 cups saltine cracker crumbs
½ pound package process Swiss cheese, shredded
2 eggs, slightly beaten
2 cups liquefied nonfat dry milk
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon nutmeg

Lightly butter a 1-quart casserole. Fill with alternate layers of crumbs and cheese, starting with the crumbs. Combine eggs, liquefied nonfat dry milk, salt and nutmeg; blend well. Pour over crumb and cheese layers. Bake in a 350 oven 30 to 40 minutes or until puffy and golden brown. Makes 4-6 servings.

Buying a cake rack? Make sure it's reinforced with cross wires on the underside so it won't sag. See that it's rustproof.

Pop Will Keep Fruits Fresher

We'll let you in on a secret. Would you like to be able to keep cut-up fruit crisp and fresh in color until you're ready to serve it?

Cover it with any carbonated beverage and refrigerate it.

Ginger ale or cola will add an interesting flavor tang; the fruit types will merely reinforce the natural fruit flavors.

There's a further alliance between fresh fruit and soft drinks, too. They make an ideal extender for mayonnaise, thus reducing calories for you. Just stir a little beverage (again, your choice of flavors) into prepared mayonnaise. Add a little at a time until the consistency is what you wish.

Or, if you want a reduced-calorie dressing of mayonnaise consistency, make up the following dressing which may be stored in a jar in the refrigerator. It has less than half the calories of ordinary mayonnaise.

Soft Drink Dressing

⅓ cup carbonated beverage*
1 teaspoon gelatine
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon or lime juice (optional)
¼ teaspoon salt

Pour ¼ cup beverage into measuring cup, sprinkle gelatine on top. Place cup in saucepan of hot water; heat until gelatine has dissolved; remove from heat.

Stir remaining ¼ cup of beverage into mayonnaise, a little at a time, then stir in gelatine mixture, demon or lime juice and salt. Chill to mayonnaise consistency before using (about 1 hour). Store in refrigerator. Stir before using. Makes ¾ cup dressing.

Making Salad Dressing at Home Means Variety

Salad is the beauty spot of a meal. Everybody likes to eat crisp greens curling around such delectables as bright tomato wedges or radish roses or fresh fruit. Tastes good. What is more, makes the whole meal taste better.

A good cook lets her imagination run as far as the store's big fresh produce bins will let her, to help in creating salad treats for the family.

That way she dresses up plain-Jane meals or the fanciest menu. And feeds her family foods they need, a wealth of vitamins and minerals for good health.

Here are a few do's and dont's for fixing salad.

Do buy the crispest, freshest greens intact because you don't tor as soon as you get them home to save flavor and Vitamin C.

Don't ever cut greens; tear them. This way you keep the juices of greens intact because uou don't cut across the cell walls of the plant.

Do prepare attractive garnishes for your salads such as carrot curls or celery fans, cucumber petals (thin rounds of unpeeled cucumbers chilled in ice water), cauliflower florets, onion rings or radish accordions (cut radishes crosswise in thin slices about two-thirds through the radish, chill in ice water).

Don't fail to garnish every salad — sometimes just with paprika.

Do have a contrast of flavors in your salad. Use a bland food like bananas with a tart, homemade French dressing, a lightly-seasoned dressing with spicy or tart foods, or simple French dressing with almost any salad.

When you make your own dressing, these flavor contrasts are easy to achieve, because you can add to homemade dressing those seasonings best suited to your salads and to your family's taste.

Serve Canned Salmon Without Removing Bones

Don't pick out the bones from canned salmon! Serve them right with the fish. They're so softened by the canning process that they're entirely edible and contain that valuable nutrient, calcium.

Salmon is also valuable in the diet for the phosphorus it offers. In addition it's a rich source of vitamin D, niacine and riboflavin, and of course it's a protein food.

Want your brown sugar to stay soft? Store it in the bread box.

Polka Dot Pie Is Unusual Dish

If you serve a glamorous dessert at your next party, your success as your club's best cook is assured! These polka dot party pies will take you down that road to success.

They have all of the ingredients for glamor—pretty to look at and just full of chocolate and ice cream—yet they're so easy to make and serve you'll be a doubly-pleased cook.

Polka Dot Party Pies

1 6-ounce package semi-sweet chocolate pieces
2 tablespoons fat
3½ cups corn flakes
Vanilla or coffee ice cream

Melt chocolate and fat over hot but not boiling water. Do not heat longer than necessary.

Stir in corn flakes. Have tart pans lined with parchment paper or aluminum foil. Coat insides with chocolate corn flake mixture, patting in lightly. Leave shells rough of contour and texture; they will be more crisp and easy to eat.

Chill in refrigerator until firm. Remove foil, let stand at room temperature a few minutes, fill with ice cream, and serve at once. Yield: 4 tart shells.

Salmon, Canned Peas Grand on Cornbread

Uncommon foods are common on the tables of America today because of the miracle of the tin can.

Peas, for example, were once a luxury of three or four weeks in early summer; in cans they are ready to eat all year long.

Salmon in fresh form is found only in coastal waters and goes to market in limited areas only; in cans, everyone can enjoy its ocean tang.

Together these ready-to-eat canned foods make a delicious combination served with cornbread shortcake squares.

Chili Sauce Peps Up Cold Meat Platter

When you serve cold meat, it is always a good idea to accompany it with some kind of relish. Now is the time to make up homemade chili sauce. There is no meat sauce quite like it. This is our favorite recipe.

Old Fashioned Chili Sauce

18 large tomatoes
6 large onions
2 tablespoons salt
1 cup sugar
2 cups vinegar

Scald, peel and chop tomatoes. Peel onions, put through coarse grinder. Mix all ingredients together and boil slowly one hour or longer, stirring well. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal.

When the Quints Were Babies

World Beat Path to Home in Ontario to See Girls

CALLANDER, Ont., was just a dot on the map on the shores of Lake Nipissing before the birth of the Dionne quintuplets put it in the spotlight.

Then the world beat a path through its streets to the Dr. Dafoe Hospital, which the Province of Ontario built on the outskirts of town near the house where the quints were born.

As the gates opened for visiting hours, eager throngs (like the ones in top left photo, taken in 1935) rushed pell mell for the nursery for a glimpse of the quints. The word of Dr. Dafoe was law as to whether they could be seen at specified times and often crowds were turned away if the babies had colds or were sleeping.

Visitors could see the quints at play—perhaps on a bobsled like the one at bottom left, into which they were bundled for a romp in the snow in 1936.

But what the visitors couldn't see was the quints having their own private fun, such as romping (right photo) with the twinkly-eyed man who played such a vital role in their lives, the late Dr. Allan Dafoe.

Quick Mocha Cake Uses Instant Coffee

For a delicious dessert that's a cinch to make, try a Quick Mocha Cake made this easy way:

Quick Mocha Cake

Add 2 teaspoons instant coffee to the contents of one package of white cake mix, then prepare cake according to package directions, using chocolate milk in place of the liquid called for on the package. Bake according to package directions. Frost with your favorite frosting.

Vegetable kabobs are fun! Just thread chunks of tomato, squares of green pepper and small onions onto skewers and broil along with steak or chops.

Three Basic Rules for Unflavored Gelatine

There are three simple and basic rules for using unflavored gelatine. First, soften in cold liquid. Second, dissolve thoroughly in a hot liquid or over hot water. Third, season or flavor, and if desired, add solid ingredients such as diced fruit, vegetables, meat, etc.

One envelope of unflavored gelatine will "gel" up to two cups of liquid. If sugar is used in the recipe, it is counted as part of that liquid because it goes into solution. Up to two cups of solids may be added per envelope of gelatine.

Crisp crackers spread with cream cheese and accompanied by a glass of apple juice offer a happy man's of satisfying late evening hunger.

Berry Muffins Easy to Prepare

Although we can make blueberry muffins all during the year with canned or frozen berries, they taste especially good when made with fresh berries.

If you will have all the dry ingredients measured and combined the night before, you need not wait for the more leisurely week end breakfasts to serve muffins. It will take only a few minutes to get them ready for the oven.

Sugartop Blueberry Muffins

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons sugar
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 egg
1½ teaspoons lemon rind
¾ cup milk
1 cup blueberries (measure after picking over, washing and draining thoroughly)
4 teaspoons sugar

Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and 6 tablespoons sugar into a mixing bowl. Cut in butter with pastry blender or rub in with fingers until mixture resembles fine crumbs.

Beat egg until foamy; add milk and beat enough to combine. Add to flour mixture, stirring only until dry ingredients are moistened. Fold in blueberries and 1 teaspoon of the lemon rind with a few turns of the spoon.

Spoon into greased muffin pan (measuring 2¾ inches across top of each cup). Mix remaining ½ teaspoon lemon rind with 4 teaspoons sugar; sprinkle over top of muffins.

Bake in 425 oven 20 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out without any particles of batter clinging to it. Makes 12 muffins.

A three-pound loin of pork roast will need about 2½ hours cooking time in a 350 oven.

HONEY PEACH SHORTCAKE—Hot, tender baking powder biscuits, with or without butter, are the perfect base for this shortcake. Right now you will use fresh peaches, later on canned or frozen ones. Drizzle honey over all for the perfect taste sensation.

Honey Peach Shortcake a Tempting Fall Dessert

After strawberry season, perhaps you gave up serving shortcake—reluctantly. Now that the fall crop of peaches is in abundance, treat your family to peach shortcake made with honey. If you like whipped cream on your shortcake, sweeten it with honey also. We might add that plain sliced peaches served with honey make a wonderful breakfast or dessert fruit.

Honey Peach Shortcake

2 cups flour
3 teaspoons double acting baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
4 teaspoons shortening
¾ cup milk
1 teaspoon honey

Mix and sift dry ingredients. Cut in shortening as for baking powder biscuit. Add honey to milk and add enough of this mixture gradually until the mass adheres together. Turn out on a slightly-floured board and pat out to 1-3 inch in thickness. Cut with a biscuit cutter and put one piece on top of the other with butter between. Bake in hot oven for about 20 minutes. Then separate biscuits ready to put fruit between.

Peel peaches, cut in eighths and drizzle with honey. Place fruit on lower half, put other half of cake on top, and put fruit over the whole. Serve with Whipped Honey Sweetened Cream topped with one slice of peach.

Note: A quick baking powder biscuit mix may be used if desired.

Blueberry Pancakes Good With Preserves

As a change from blueberries and cream or even those delicious blueberry muffins, try putting blueberries in pancakes. They're wonderful too.

Blueberry Griddle Cakes

2½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons brown sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
2 cups buttermilk or sour milk
1 teaspoon baking soda
3 tablespoons melted shortening
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup fresh blueberries or frozen blueberries, thawed and drained
Butter or margarine
Peach or apricot preserves

Sift flour, salt and sugar together. In a bowl, combine eggs, buttermilk or sour milk and baking soda; mix thoroughly. Stir in sifted dry ingredients and mix until smooth. Blend in shortening; beat well. Cover and store in refrigerator overnight.

When ready to bake the griddle cakes, blend baking powder into the batter and fold in blueberries. Bake on hot griddle. When bubbles appear on the surface of the griddle cakes, turn and brown other side. Serve immediately with butter or margarine and peach or apricot preserves.

Plum Scuffle Different Way to Use Fruit

A light yet nourishing dessert is Red Plum Scuffle. It offers a different way of serving the delicious fruit so abundant now.

Red Plum Scuffle

1 cup fresh plum pulp
4 well beaten egg yolks
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
4 stiffly beaten egg whites
6 tablespoons sugar

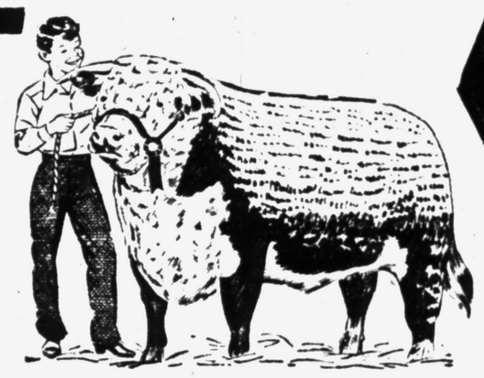

Prepare pulp by cutting ripe red plums in small pieces and pressing them through sieve. Add lemon juice, rind, sugar, egg yolks and salt. Fold in egg whites.

Place mixture in greased 1½-quart baking dish. Bake at 325 degrees F. (moderately slow oven) 45 minutes.

Serve at once with cream or custard sauce. Serves six.

Limes Make Tempting Pie

Do you love to experiment with new recipes? Well, here's an exciting one for you to try out—Frozen Lime Pie. It's easy to make and utterly delicious. You just prepare a simple basic mixture, pour it in a freezer tray and pop it in the refrigerator to harden. The result is a pie of truly unusual taste and texture. Fortunately, you don't have to take this statement on faith. The first experimental bite will turn you into a confirmed Frozen Lime Pie-ite!

FROZEN LIME PIE—An inspired blending of the ingredients makes this pie a success. Lime juice and rind are used plentifully, but eggs, cream and sugar take away their sharpness while retaining all their wonderful refreshing qualities.

Frozen Lime Pie

6 eggs, separated
1 cup sugar
Grated peel 2 limes
Juice, 3 limes
2 cups heavy cream, whipped
1 1-3 cups chocolate wafer crumbs

Combine egg yolks, sugar, lime peel and juice in top of double boiler. Cook over hot water, stirring, until slightly thickened. Cool. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Fold in whipped cream. Sprinkle half of the crumbs in large refrigerator tray. Pour in lime mixture. Top with remaining crumbs. Freeze firm. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Mock Hollandaise Sauce

Make a wonderful, mock hollandiase sauce for vegetables quickly and easily. Soften 2 (3-oz.) packages cream cheese and beat in 2 egg yolks, one at a time. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice and a dash of salt. Place over hot water until barely heated through, then serve.

After-School Snacks Feature Cookies

Back to school for the children and back to normal for mother. Time now to think of cookies for after-school snacks. Here's an easy-to-make recipe for Chocolate Egg Kisses:

Beat 2 egg whites (about ¼ cup) until stiff but not dry. Fold in 1 cup of sugar gradually, then add 2 squares of grated bitter chocolate to mixture. Drop by teaspoons on a greased cookie sheet. Bake in your gas oven at 300 degrees F. for about 20 minutes.

Use up the leftover egg yolks in this pudding for dinner: Mix together 2 egg yolks, 6 soda crackers rolled fine, ½ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon melted butter, and 1 cup of milk. Bake in a greased pudding dish at 350 degrees F. until firm. Serve with bottled grape juice spooned over each portion.

Boiled Frosting Need

Never omit cream of tartar or corn syrup from a boiled frosting when it's called for in the recipe. Cream of tartar and corn syrup cooked with the frosting syrup help in the formation of small crystals as well as in preventing crystal growth on standing.

Lemon, Rice Melt in Mouth

Here is a rice dessert your family will simply love but they will love you too, for fixing this Lemon Rice Pudding for them. You are mighty glad when they claim this lemon flavored rice pudding to be one of their favorites, because it is just as easy and as quick as any dessert "in the books."

Lemon Rice Pudding is light as a feather, fluffy as a cloud and melts in you mouth like well, the most wonderful dessert you have ever eaten. This dessert is fast to make and, very, very low in cost because the main ingredients are inexpensive rice and "economy" pudding mix.

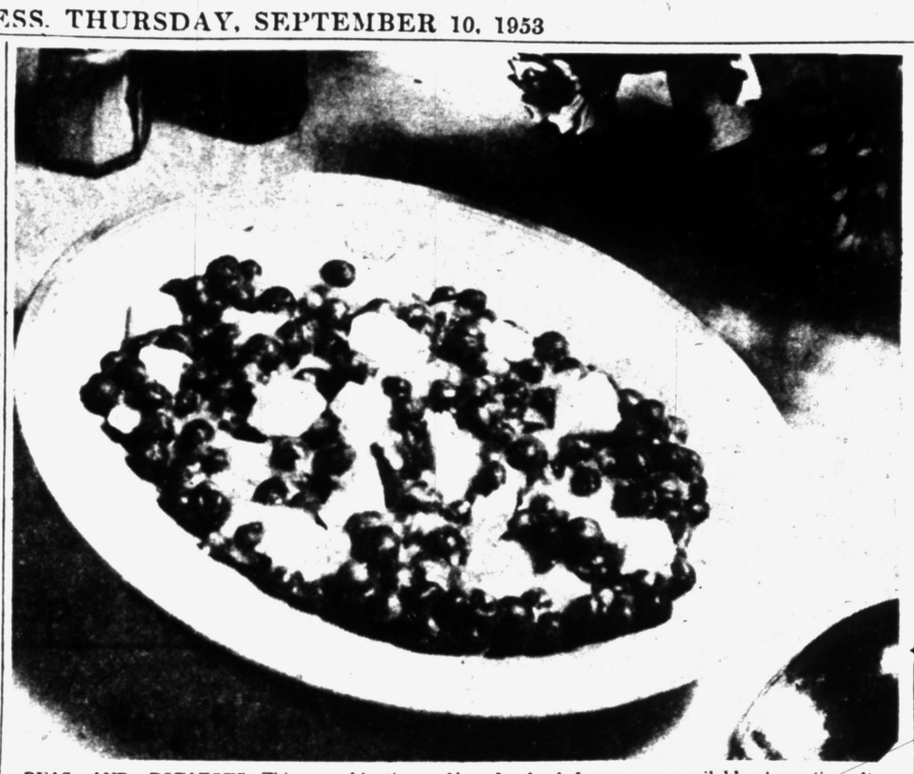

Lemon Rice Pudding

1 package lemon pudding mix
2½ cups warm cooked rice
1 cup toasted cocoanut

Put 1 cup uncooked rice, 2 cups of cold water and 1 teaspoon of salt into a 2-quart saucepan aand bring to a vigorous boil. Turn the heat as low as possible. Cover the saucepan with a lid. Do not remove lid nor stir rice while it is cooking.

Leave saucepan over this low heat for 14 minutes. Remove from the heat. The rice is now ready to use. However, leave the cover on the saucepan to keep the rice warm if you are not ready to use it immediately.

Follow directions on box for preparing lemon pudding. Add warm rice to hot pudding before folding in the beaten egg whites (made according to directions on box.) Serve hot or cold, topped with the toasted cocoanut

PEAS AND POTATOES—This combination of tender green peas and diced potatoes used to be a treat during the all too short summer season. With garden-fresh frozen peas available at any time, it can be a year-round treat.

Frozen Peas Go in Old Favorite

An old fashioned farmhouse favorite is this dish of peas in cream with potatoes. It is easy to prepare with quick-frozen peas, packed at the peak of perfection.

Hearty eating for hearty appetites on early fall days.

1 cup diced potatoes
1 package extra fancy quick-frozen peas
½ teaspoon chopped onion
½ cup heavy cream heated (or ⅔ cup white sauce)
1 teaspoon sugar
½ teaspoon salt

Add salt and sugar to ⅓ cup water, bring to boil. Drop in solidly frozen peas, cook for 3 minutes from second boil. Drain. In another pan, cook potatoes and onions in a little water until tender, drain, combine with peas, dress with cream or white sauce. Season with salt and pepper. Serves 5 to 6.

Versatility Credited to Souffle Salad

The souffle salad is a versatile one. You may use any combination of fruits and flavored gelatin.

Sweet Cherry Souffle Salad

1 package cherry or raspberry gelatin
1 cup hot water
½ cup cold water
1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice
½ cup real mayonnaise
¼ teaspoon salt
2 cups pitted dark sweet cherries
½ cup chopped filberts or almonds

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water, vinegar, mayonnaise and salt. Blend well with rotary beater. Pour into refrigerator freezing tray.

Quick-chill in freezing unit 15 to 20 minutes or until firm about one inch from edge but soft in center. Turn mixture into bowl and whip with rotary beater until fluffy.

Fold in pitted cherries and nuts. Pour into one-quart mold or individual molds. Chill until firm. This will require from 30 to 60 minutes. Unmold on salad greens and garnish with ripe cherries with stems. Makes six servings.

Delicious Frosting

Topping for cake: Pineapple Parfait is a superb frosting for your favorite white cake. Follow directions for making a seven-minute icing, using canned pineapple juice instead of water. Omit vanilla and add 1-3 teaspoon grated lemon rind after removal from fire.

Do Right by Your Children and Pack 'Good' Lunches

BY JANET ODELL
(Pontiac Press Food Editor)

September 10 is the day when the "school boy with his satchel and shining morning face" goes off to school. So does his sister and all the other boys and girls in the neighborhood.

Shakespear never heard of a lunch box, but his school boy might well have carried a lunch in his satchel. It is that lunch with which we are now concerned.

All summer your boys and girls have been around home where you could prepare an adequate lunch for them. Now many of these youngsters will be eating their noon meal at school and you have a new problem.

If their school has a hot lunch program, they will be well fed. But if your child, for one reason or another, carries his lunch, you must send him off each morning with an appetizing, well-balanced lunch in his lunch box.

Sandwiches and more sandwiches can become monotonous. Your young scholar may rebel and discard part of his lunch instead of eating it.

Sandwiches have their place in the lunch box because they usually provide the main part of the meal. But let's use our imaginations and try to plan varied lunches that are interesting.

* * *

When you plan the meal away from home, check to be sure it contains all the essentials. Each lunch should provide some protein food such as eggs, fish, meat, cheese, legumes or nuts; milk in some form; vegetables, preferably one raw; fruit; and a simple dessert to climax the meal and to give that necessary added energy that growing boys and girls need.

Since thermos bottles come with most lunch boxes, they can carry an important part of the lunch. When the school sells milk, use the thermos for soup, stews, baked beans or spaghetti on cold days.

If the last three are made a little thinner than usual, they will pour out of the thermos nicely. Or you may have one of the new thermos bottles that has a mouth wide enough to admit a spoon.

Pack salads in covered paper cups. Send along the dressing in a separate container; that means a fresher tasting salad at noon.

This is a first of a series of articles we are planning to run on packing lunches. In them we shall try to make your job easier by suggesting menus and ways to simplify the preparation and packing.

We pack school lunches ourselves and do not minimize the difficulty of doing it every day.

However, we do know that the meal which should provide one-third of the child's food for the day must be well planned.

We cannot let our children down.

Marshmallows Come In Handy for Quick Sauce

Marshmallows are handy to have around when you are making dessert sauces. They make the sauces creamier and smoother. Try these recipes for unusual ice cream toppings.

Mocha Marshmallow Sauce

½ cup strong coffee
1½ cups light cream or top milk
¼ pound marshfallows (about 16 marshmallows)
3 eggs, well beaten

In the top of a double boiler, combine coffee, light cream or top milk and marshmallows; cook over hot water until marshmallows are melted. Add small amount of marshmallow mixture to eggs and mix well; return to top of double boiler and cook until thickened and smooth. Remove from heat and cool. Serve garnished with shaved chocolate if desired.

For Brandied Sauce add ½ teaspoon brandy flavoring to the cooled sauce.

For Rum Sauce add ½ teaspoon rum flavoring to the cooled sauce.

Raisin Spice Cookie Has Only 56 Calories

From a small cookbook designed to make life and food more interesting for the person on a sugar-restricted diet, comes a recipe for Raisin Spice Cookies.

Weight watchers may make these tempting cookies, happy in the knowledge that each one contains only 56 calories.

Raisin Spice Cookies

1 saccharin tablet (¼ grain)
2 tablespoons water
⅔ cup water
¼ cup shortening
1 cup seedless raisins
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon baking soda
1 egg
1 cup sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder

Dissolve saccharin tablet in 2 tablespoons water. Boil together the water, shortening, raisins, nutmeg and cinnamon for 3 minutes. Let cool. Add dissolved saccharin and soda. Beat in the egg, add the dry ingredients. Drop by tablespoons 2 inches apart on greased cookie sheet.

Bake on shelf slightly above center of 350 oven for 8 minutes or until glossy and just barely soft to the touch. Remove from pan at once. Makes 2 dozen.

Blue Cheese Lovers Like This Recipe

Blue cheese devotees will appreciate this dressing on practically anything—lettuce wedges, cress or a combination of crisp greens.

Jiffy Blue Cheese Dressing

¼ cup salad oil (not olive oil)
¼ cup evaporated milk
2 tablespoons cider or wine vinegar
½ teaspoon minced onion
¼ teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons crumbled blue cheese

Oil and evaporated milk should be at room temperature to form a good emulsion. (The use of salad oil is suggested in the recipe rather than olive oil because of its blandness. Olive oil has a distinctive flavor and suits more tastes when used only as part of the measurement of oil.)

Measure all ingredients for the dressing into a screw top jar that holds at least one pint. Cover tightly and shake vigorously for about a minute. Chill thoroughly before using. Makes about two-thirds cup dressing (2 to 4 servings).

Meal Skipping Test

Young men acted as subjects in a breakfast study and went through periods of eating breakfast and omitting breakfast entirely. Maximum work output was less, reactions were slower, and they tired more easily when breakfast was skipped.

Add Peaches to Pear Jelly for New Flavor

Here's an easy jelly with a new flavor:

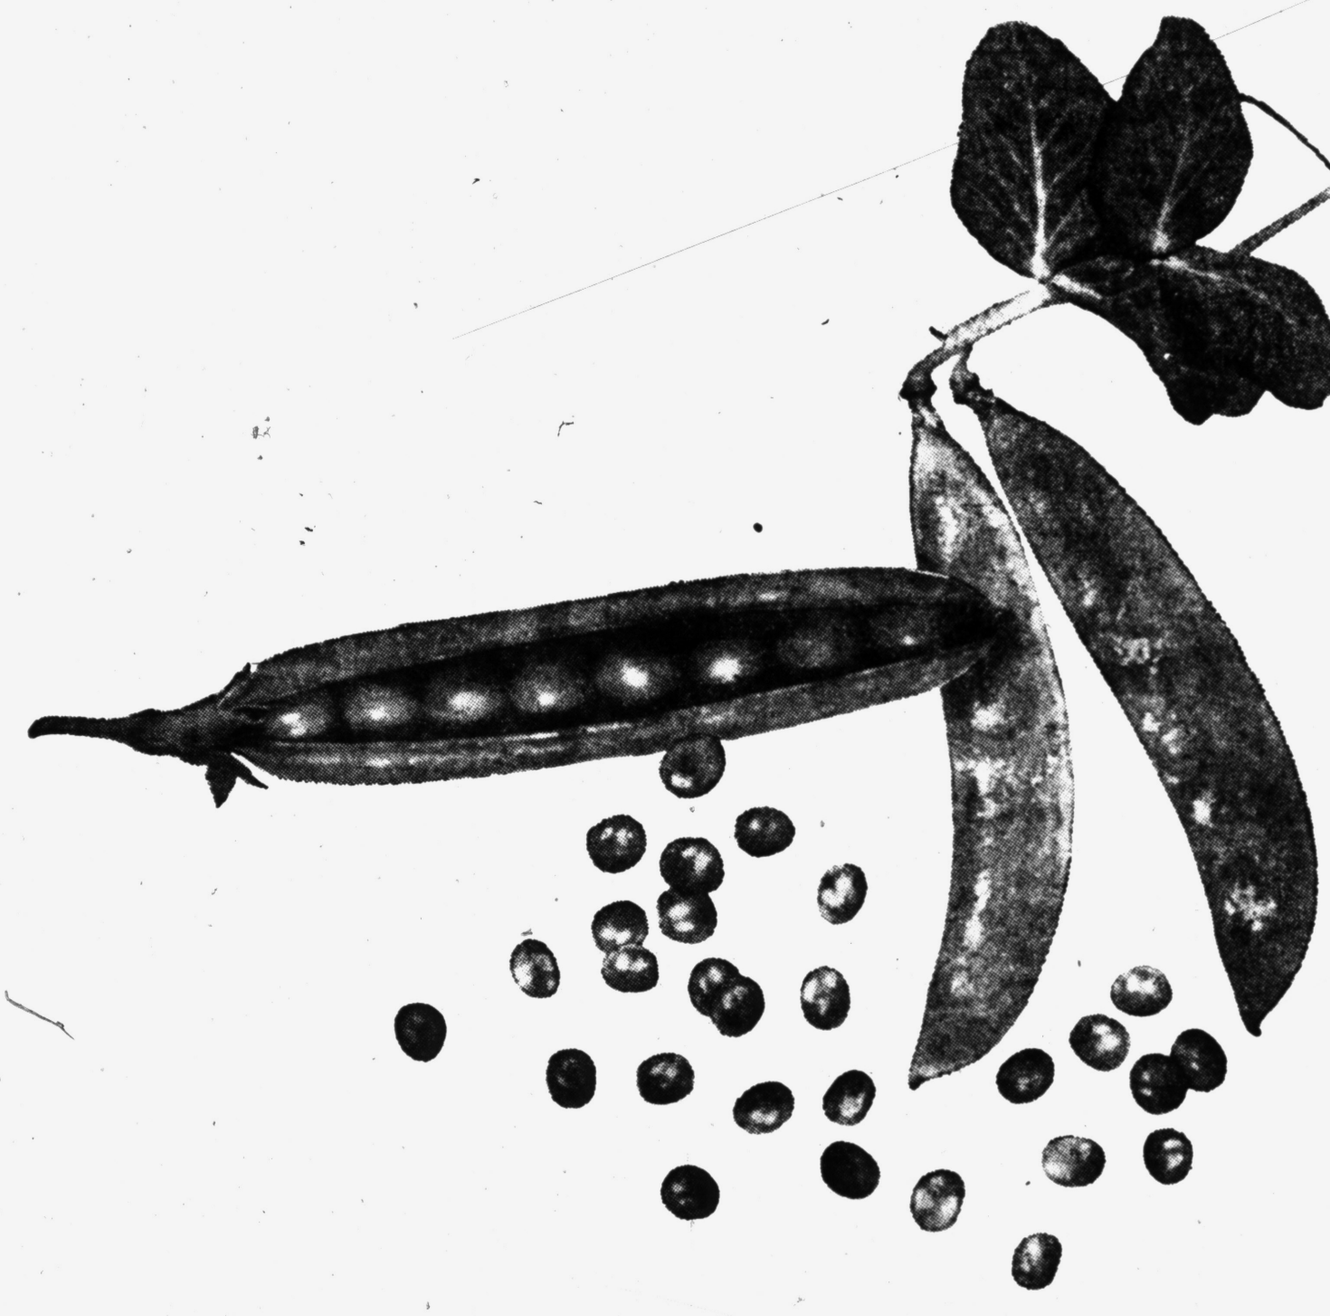

Peachy Pear Jelly

2 lbs. (9 large) Bartlett pears
2 lbs. (6 medium) Freestone peaches
2 cups water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
6½ cups beet or cane sugar
1 cup liquid fruit pectin

Wash fruits, removing cores and pits. Place in a large preserving kettle and crush. Stir in water and lemon juice. Cook for 10 minutes.

Squeeze cooked fruits through jelly bag. Measure 3 cups of combined juices. Stir juices and sugar together in a flat-bottomed preserving kettle. Bring to a boil over high heat. Stir in liquid fruit pectin. Bring to a full rolling boil; boil hard 1 minute.

Remove from heat; skim. Pour into hot, sterilized glasses; paraffin at once. Makes about nine 6-oz. glasses.

Combine Cereal in Bar Cookies

There's no cookie easier to make than a bar cookie. Spread the dough in the pan, bake it and cut it in squares when done.

Here is our nomination for a different cookie — cinnamon crunches — made extra good with crisp cereal shreds.

Cinnamon Crunchies

1 cup sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup shortening
½ cup sugar
1 egg yolk
2 tablespoons milk
¼ teaspoon vanilla
1 egg white
3 tablespoons sugar
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ cup corn soya shreds

Sift together dry ingredients. Blend shortening and sugar thoroughly; stir in egg yolk, milk and vanilla. Add dry ingredients gradually and mix well. Spread in ungreased pan, about 7 by 11 inches.

Beat egg white slightly and spread over top of dough. Combine remaining ingredients and sprinkle over top. Bake in 350 oven about 20 minutes. Cut into bars while still warm. Yield: 12 bars (1½x2 inches).

Spanish rice on the menu? Stir in contents 1 can (2¼ oz.) deviled ham for extra flavor the family will love.

ONION-BROILED FILLETS—Take your favorite kind of fish fillet, brush it with lemon sauce, broil it, and you have a delicious main course. The garnishes are stuffed olives on top of juicy onion slices, with lemon wedges for those who want them.

Fillet With Onion on Top Forms Quick, Tasty Meal

Onion-Broiled Fillets are the answer to the need for a quick meal. On the night when you step inside the door at six o'clock, they are the perfect main dish. If you have remembered to take the fillets out of the freezer in the morning, they will cook in 6 to 10 minutes. If they are still frozen, they will take longer. With a canned vegetable, a relish tray, potato chips and dessert from the corner bakery, you'll have dinner on the table in half an hour.

Onion-Broiled Fillets

1 package frozen fish fillets
1 teaspoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons salad oil
¾ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon paprika
4 onion slices
Sliced stuffed olives

Let fillets thaw on refrigerator shelf. Cut into 4 even pieces. Mix together lemon juice, salad oil, salt, pepper and paprika. Place onion slices and fish pieces, skin side down, in preheated broiler. Brush with lemon sauce.

Broil 2 inches from source of heat until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork, about 6 to 10 minutes. Baste often with sauce. Serve fish topped with onion slices and garnished with stuffed olive slices.

Exciting Main Dish

Slices of chicken, ham or turkey on toast slices and topped with a cheese sauce makes a delight to see and eat as it comes from the broiler — bubbling hot. Slivered toasted almonds, crisp bacon crumbles, chopped chives or parsley add a regal touch to the sandwich. Your family will find a main dish like this exciting as an introduction to "hot sandwiches."

Corn Syrup Creams Chocolate Frosting

For an all-chocolate cake, use this luscious new confectioners' frosting. The tradition of corn syrup gives it a rich, creamy smooth consistency and good keeping qualities.

Black Beauty Frosting

¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup dark or light corn syrup
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon vanilla
½ cup cocoa
3½ cups (1 pound) sifted confectioners' sugar
1 to 2 tablespoons milk

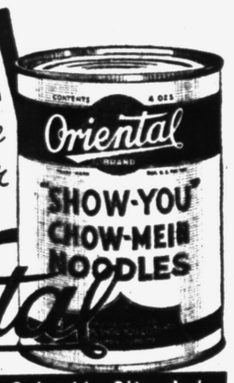

Cream butter. Add corn syrup, salt and vanilla; blend. Add cocoa; mixing well. Add confectioners' sugar alternately with the milk, beating until smooth and creamy after each addition. Additional milk may be added, if necessary, to make good spreading consistency. Makes enough to cover 10-inch tube or tops and sides of two 8-inch layers of cake.

Do you want to give waffles a glamour treatment? Sprinkle the batter with finely chopped pecans before closing the waffle iron. Serve with melted butter or margarine and cinnamon-sugar.

Top Cantaloupe With Meringue, Bake in Oven

Baked Alaska means meringue spread over ice cream and browned in a very hot oven. This idea can be used with other ingredients besides ice cream.

Try this recipe for cantaloupe surprise and be prepared for delicious eating.

Cantaloupe Surprise

3 ripe chilled cantaloupes
6 egg whites
½ teaspoon cream of tartar
1 cup sugar
¾ teaspoon grated lemon rind
3 teaspoons fresh lemon juice

Halve cantaloupes and remove seeds. Scoop out pulp with ball cutter or teaspoon. Pile back into shells. Place in refrigerator.

Beat whites with cream of tartar until stiff. Gradually beat in sugar, one tablespoon at a time. Continue beating until stiff and glossy. Fold in lemon rind and juice.

Pile meringue on top of cantaloupe—spreading to the edge. Bake in 500 oven about three minutes or till delicately browned. Serve immediately. Serves six.

Other well-chilled fruits may be combined with the melon balls.

Buttermilk Makes Better Nut Bread

In baking, grandma's old trick of using buttermilk and soda gives cakes and bread a wonderful flavor and a texture impossible to achieve with sweet milk and baking powder. Try it in this delectable nut bread.

Buttermilk Nut Bread

½ cup butter
½ cup sugar
1 egg, unbeaten
2 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon soda
¾ cup pecans or other nuts, chopped fine
1¼ cups buttermilk

Cream butter, add sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add egg. Beat well. Mix and sift flour, salt, baking powder and soda. Stir in pecans.

Add dry ingredients to creamed mixture alternately with buttermilk. Pour into buttered loaf pan. Bake in 325 oven for about 1¼ to 1½ hours. Yield: One medium loaf.

Note: This loaf is better when made the day before serving. When cool, wrap in waxed paper.

Garlic Cheese Nibbles Made With Popcorn

Expecting Sunday night visitors? Trot out garlic-cheese nibbles as an inexpensive and different treat.

Place 3 quarts of ready-prepared popcorn in a large shallow pan. Trickle about ¼ cup melted butter over the popcorn, then sprinkle with ½ cup grated Parmesan cheese and garlic salt to taste. Mix well with a fork.

Heat at 300 degrees F. in the oven for about 10 minutes, shaking the pan often.

If you have a really deep skillet with a dome cover you can use it for deepfat frying.

Rich and Tangy Orange Dessert

This Orange Cream Fluff is the perfect dessert to end a meal and will go down as cool as an ice cube.

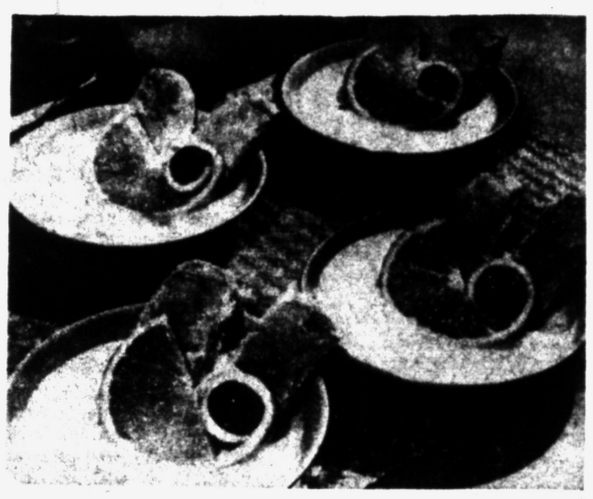

Orange Cream Fluff

- 4 tablespoons lemon juice
- 4 tablespoons orange juice
- 1 tablespoon grated orange rind
- 1½ cups (15-oz. can) sweetened condensed milk
- 2 eggs, separated
- 12 lady fingers

Blend together lemon juice, orange juice, grated orange rind, condensed milk and egg yolks; stir until thickened. Beat egg whites until stiff. Fold into condensed milk mixture.

For each serving, split two lady fingers in half, lengthwise. Arrange in individual serving dish. Pour Orange Cream into center of dish.

Repeat process for each serving. Chill. If desired, garnish each serving with orange slice. Makes 6 servings.

ORANGE CREAM FLUFF—Here's a dream dessert that can be made in about 10 minutes. The principal ingredient, sweetened condensed milk, gives it a rich creamy flavor, while lemon and orange give it a sharp tang. Garnish it with lady fingers.

For hasty tartar sauce: Add to 1 cup prepared sandwich spread, 4 teaspoons minced onion, and 1 teaspoon lemon juice.

Sweet Pickles Dress Up Salad

Add sweet gherkins to that old favorite, cabbage salad. Chopped pimentos will add an interesting bit of color. This salad should be good to serve on the buffet table with cold meats.

Pickle Lime Salad

- 1 3-ounce package lime-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup hot water
- ½ cup cold water
- ½ cup pickle liquid
- ¾ cup sliced sweet gherkins
- ½ cup chopped canned pimientos
- 1 cup shredded cabbage
- ¼ cup mayonnaise

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add water and pickle liquid. Chill until almost firm. Beat with rotary beater until light and fluffy. Fold in sweet gherkins, pimientos, cabbage and mayonnaise; mix well.

Turn into oiled 1-quart mold and chill until firm. Unmold and surround with cold meats, if desired. Makes 4-6 servings.

PICKLE LIME SALAD—Sweet gherkins, shredded cabbage and lime-flavored gelatin are the main ingredients in this molded salad. They are tempting at any time of the year. Mold the salad in one large mold or in individual ones.

Tasks for All!

If you want your children to help with household tasks, make a weekly schedule and put it on your family bulletin board. List mother's and dad's jobs, too, so the youngsters will feel they're sharing an important family enterprise.

Making fruit preserves? Stir them carefully when they are being brought to the boiling point so as not to scorch.

Melt two squares of unsweetened chocolate with a half teaspoon of butter, then dribble around the top edge of a white-frosted cake; let the chocolate run down the sides of the cake in uneven lines.

WAYS WITH LUNCHEON MEAT — Canned luncheon meat owes much of its popularity to its versatility. Besides using it for cold meat platters and sandwiches, you can prepare quick meals such as those pictured. Glaze it, add it to baked beans or chef's salad.

Toast Bread Cubes

Small fry love toasted bread cubes in a cream soup, under a poached egg or as a base for creamed vegetables, meat or fish. To prepare the cubes, cut soft bread into small squares. Arrange the cubes on a cookie sheet and place in a slow oven turn the bread occasionally and toast until brown on all sides.

Luncheon Meat Dishes Fine at Picnic Suppers

Mrs. America's first choice in the canned meats line-up is canned luncheon meat. This flavorful blend of meat and spices is especially attractive to budget-minded shoppers as a 12-ounce can provides three to four all-meat servings.

Here's one tempting way to serve canned luncheon meat. Bake it with a nippy glaze. Serve with jelly-filled apricot halves for a noteworthy guest or family meal.

Nippy Glazed Luncheon Meat

2 (12-ounce) cans luncheon meat
Whole cloves
½ cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1½ teaspoons horseradish
¼ cup water

Remove luncheon meat from can and place in shallow baking dish. Score top of meat and stud with whole cloves. Combine brown sugar, mustard and horseradish; spread on top and sides of meat. Pour water into bottom of pan. Bake at 350 degrees Fahrenheit until meat is glazed, 25 to 30 minutes, basting occasionally. To serve, cut meat into thick slices and top with a little of the sauce from bottom of pan. 6-8 servings.

This economical luncheon meat and baked bean casserole is especially good for picnics, church suppers or buffet dinners. Luncheon meat slices are glazed and baked on top of well seasoned canned beans. The beans have a "baked all day" flavor after only one hour in the oven.

Luncheon Meat-Bean Bake

1 (12 ounce) can luncheon meat
2 (16-18 ounce) cans Boston style baked beans
¼ cup catsup
Brown sugar
Prepared mustard
½ cup finely chopped onions

Combine beans with catsup, ¼ cup brown sugar, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard and onions. Pour into 1½ quart casserole. Bake in 375 degree Fahrenheit oven for 30 minutes. Cut luncheon meat into 6 slices and spread with mustard; sprinkle generously with brown sugar and place on beans. Continue baking for another 30 minutes. 6 servings.

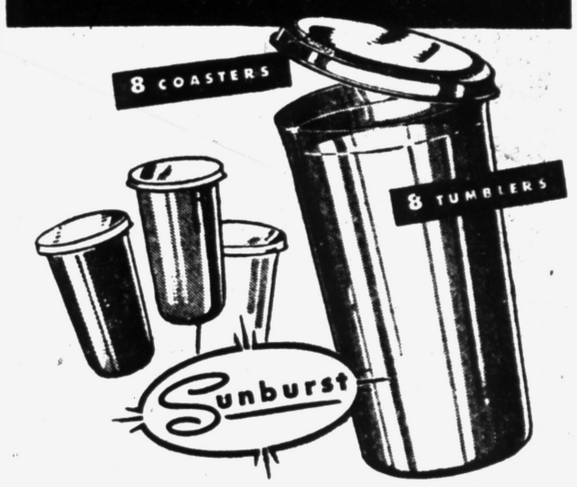

For summer suppers and luncheons, plan the menu around a special chef's type salad of greens and luncheon meat.

Luncheon Meat Chef's Salad

Tear crisp greens into bite-size pieces and arrange in a bowl. Center with a row of alternating tomato and hard-cooked egg slices. At both ends of the bowl, place strips of canned luncheon meat.

Bring out the rich flavor of pork chops by sprinkling lemon juice on both sides of the meat before cooking.

Dieters With Sweet Tooth May Eat Saccharin Candy

Good news for diabetics! Good news for weight watchers! There are new recipes available for sweet dishes that contain no sugar at all. Saccharin is the sweetening agent used.

Not until about 50 years ago was there any substitute for sugar. People who could not tolerate sugar just went without it.

Then saccharin was introduced, and food for the diabetic became far more interesting. It may be used for months at a time without danger, if the quantity does not exceed more than 1 or 2 grains three times a day.

Saccharin has become very popular with many who are on a reducing diet. In fact, some restaurants serve it along with sugar. There is also a powdered form that is easier to use on fruits and cereals and in cold liquids.

A former staff member of the famous Mayo Clinic dietetic cafeteria has developed and tested a number of recipes using saccharin. Each quarter grain tablet of saccharin used does the sweetening job of a teaspoonful of sugar.

These recipes were recently presented at the annual meeting of the American Dietetic Association.

If you would like a booklet containing more recipes for these sugar-free foods, request it from the Monsanto Chemical Company, 800 North Twelfth Blvd., St. Louis 1, Mo. We are printing several for your immediate use.

Delightful Dessert

For a simple and delightful dessert: Pour ½ cup warm honey over sections from six oranges. Chill, sprinkle with chopped toasted almonds and serve with angel food cake.

Candy is one of those things that dieters and diabetics just don't eat. Times have changed. If you'll use this recipe, you may indulge in several pieces safely.

Coconut Candy

1 cup shredded coconut
2 tablespoons non-fat dry milk
2 saccharin tablets (¼ grain each)
⅛ teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon water
½ teaspoon vanilla

Chop coconut very fine. Put into a 4-cup bowl and blend in non fat dry milk. Dissolve saccharin and salt in mixture of water and vanilla. Add to coconut mixture and stir until dry ingredients are moistened. Shape coconut mixture into mounds by pressing into a teaspoon. Chill until firm. Makes 16. Calories in one piece: 22.

Commercially packed chili sauce may be taboo for you. If so, try this recipe and enjoy a spicy condiment with meat or fish.

Chili Sauce

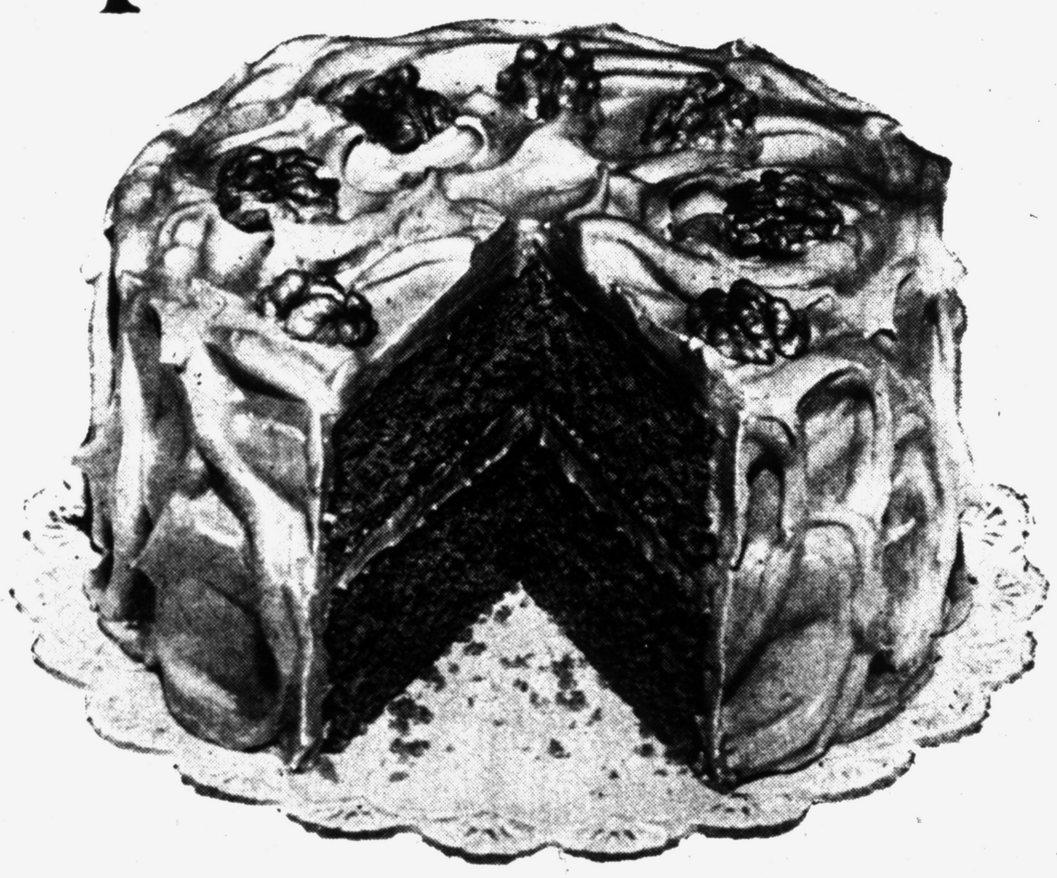

3 cups dietetic pack or fresh tomatoes
½ cup chopped onion
1 cup chopped celery
4 saccharin tablets (¼ grain each)
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons vinegar

Combine tomatoes, onion and celery in 6-cup saucepan. Cook over low heat for 1 hour, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat and cool. Dissolve saccharin tablets and salt in vinegar. Add vinegar mixture to cooled chili sauce. Cover and store in refrigerator. Makes 1 pint. One serving: 1 tablespoon. (6 calories).

All Duncan Hines knowledge of fine flavors... in this most flavorful of all cakes!

NEW Duncan Hines Spice Cake Mix

"In a spice cake, the artful blending of the spices is all-important," says Duncan Hines, America's foremost authority on good eating. "A pinch of one spice and just a suspicion of another can work wonders. But you can't guess—you've got to know.

"Now my new Duncan Hines Spice Cake Mix takes the guesswork out of making spice cakes for you. Carefully chosen spices have been expertly blended right in the mix. All you add is water and fresh eggs for a perfectly delicious cake!

"One of the secrets of fine baking is the use of strictly fresh eggs. No good cook would think of using dried eggs, and yet factory-dried powdered eggs are the only kind that can be put 'right into' a cake mix package. That's why I ask you to add your own fresh eggs to my mixes.

"And that's why—when you use Duncan Hines Cake Mix and your own fresh eggs—you're guaranteed a fresher, bigger cake—better in appearance, freshness and flavor ... or your money back."

Ham 'n' Eggs a la King Zippy With Horseradish

Serve this economical protein food in ham and eggs ala king style, sparked with horseradish, over slices of golden brown toast.

For three servings of ham and eggs a la king, make one cup of medium white sauce. Blend in one-fourth teaspoon dry mustard and two teaspoons prepared horseradish. Add one cup of cubed ham and two diced, hard-cooked eggs.

Serve hot over toast, allowing two slices per serving. Sprinkle paprika over all.

Remember These Rules for Beef Liver Cooking

Some general principles to remember when cooking beef liver are these: 1. Beef liver may be pan-fried, broiled, or braised. 2. It is better not to remove the veins in liver before cooking, as this tends to pull the meat out of shape. 3. Do not wash liver before cooking. 4. If liver is to be ground, place it in boiling water for 5 to 10 minutes beforehand to set the juices. 5. Do not overcook beef liver.

Try Stuffed Beets With Cold Meats

These stuffed beets would look wonderful on cold meat platter. They can be made with fresh beets now and canned ones later on.

Beets With Cucumber Relish

1 large cucumber, chopped
Centers from 6 cooked beets (1 cup diced)
1 tablespoon finely chopped scallions and tops or chopped onions
¼ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons chopped celery leaves
⅛ teaspoon ground black pepper
2 teaspoons grated horseradish
½ cup sour cream

Combine all ingredients. Chill thoroughly. Stuff the beets with the relish. Serve as salad or on relish tray. The cucumber relish may be served as is in a dish.

A la King Quickie for Warm Evenings

Busy career homemakers will like this idea for a supper quickie:

Prepare one package pre-cooked rice according to package directions. Combine one can condensed soup (any kind) and ½ cup milk in saucepan. Heat over direct flame, stirring occasionally. Add one cup meat, fish or poultry (tuna, chicken, ham, etc.) and desired seasonings to soup mixture; mix and heat. Serve soup mixture over rice for a delicious a la king dish.

Says Chinese Hold Fliers as Hostages

TOKYO (AP)—Maj. David F. MacGhee of Tampa, Fla., said today he heard while in Communist captivity that the Reds plan to intern 22 American fliers in Manchuria "until the United States recognizes (Red) China."

The 34-year-old Floridian, who spent nearly three years in Red stockades, said at a news conference at Tokyo Army Hospital the information came from a Chinese Communist who had proved "extremely reliable in other instances."

MacGhee said the Chinese told him the purpose of holding back the 22 Americans was to force the United States to negotiate with Red China through diplomatic channels, thereby establishing recognition of the Communist regime.

Although their country is in the Northern Hemisphere, residents of El Salvador call the May-October wet season winter and the dry months in the rest of the year summer.

British Study Order to Build Red Ships

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Board of Trade is conferring with admiralty experts on the advisability of letting British shipyards build 28 million dollars worth of small ships for the Soviet Union.

Harry L. Dowsett, chairman of the big Dowsett engineering combine and leader of a British industrial mission which returned yesterday from Moscow, announced that the ships were on order. Included are at least 40 refrigeration vessels and trawlers.

The Board of Trade, which controls shipments of strategic goods to Communist countries, has called in navy men to help determine whether a current ban on shipbuilding for the Reds should be continued.

Man, 85, Back on Job

MIAMI, Okla. (AP)—Arthur Hadden, who figured he retired a little too early five years ago, went back to work today on an eight-hour shift as a meat inspector. He is 85.

Maryland Finally Pays Its Tribute to Da Vinci

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — With mumbled apologies Maryland is getting around to officially observing the 500th anniversary of Italian artist Leonardo da Vinci . . . one year late.

Gov. Theodore McKeldin yesterday proclaimed Oct. 11-17 as Leonardo da Vinci Appreciation Week in Maryland.

He explained that "war and related distractions" caused the overlooking of the observance in 1952.

Yugoslavs Study Arrest Process

Tito's Regime Admits Nabbing Many People Without Reason

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Parliament studied a bill proposing changes in Yugoslav criminal procedures today after President Tito's regime admitted arresting 171,731 persons—many "without reason"—during the five years ended in 1952.

The figures on arrest were contained in a report issued last night by Vice President Mosha Pijade. Its acknowledgement of large-scale arrests coupled with the government's backing of the proposed changes was considered an indication of official confidence in the nation's present internal security situation.

* * *

Pijade said 45,086 persons were arrested in 1948, the year President Tito broke with the Cominform, 52,606 in 1949, 36,196 in 1950, 22,359 in 1951 and 15,484 in 1952. Of those taken in 1950, he added, 30.4 per cent were arrested without reason. In 1951 the percentage was 26.6 and in 1952, 20.2.

The vice president gave no further explanation of the arrests "without reason." Nor did he indicate whether there had been any such arrsts in 1948 and 1949.

* * *

Many of the persons taken into custody were released without trial, Pijade declared. Others, he added, were sent for "corrective treatment" to state labor projects and some still are serving terms.

Narriman Files Suit to Divorce Farouk

CAIRO, Egpt (AP) — Former Queen Narriman has filed suit for divorce and asked $14,350 a month alimony from exiled ex-King Farouk, 33.

She "has no plans so far" to claim the custody of their 19-month-old son, her lawyer, Sheikh Muharram Fahim, said yesterday. He said Narriman charged adultery, maltreatment, mental cruelty and estrangement.

Farouk is living near Rome with his son. Nineteen-year-old Narriman fled Egypt with him but returned last March and since has lived quietly with her mother in Heliopolis, a Cairo suburb.

Hitchhiker Rides to Washington on Ike's Plane

DENVER (AP)—A hitchhiker was aboard President Eisenhower's plane when the Chief Executive flew to Washington last night to attend funeral services for Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson.

Accompanying the President and his aides was John Archibold, 20, who was returning East to enter his junior year at Princeton.

The 'lift' was arranged by John's mother, Mrs. Eileen Archibold, and Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower. They've been friends since childhood and Mrs. Archibold lives only a few doors from the residence of Mrs. John S. Doud, mother of Mrs. Eisenhower.

10,000 Bible Balloons to Float Into Satellites

NEW YORK (AP)—The International Council of Christian Churches said yesterday it will send a barrage of 10,000 balloons carrying small Bibles into Iron Curtain countries.

The barrage, conducted from Western Germany, is part of a plan to float more than 50,000 Bibles and religious tracts into Russia and its satellites.

The program got under way a week ago, when 5,000 Bible-carrying balloons were sent aloft.

As the ninth and deciding state to ratify the Federal Consitution, the state of New Hampshire might be said to have "created" the United States. It was the first of the colonies to declare its independence and adopt a constitution.

Retirement Means Hard Life for Priest

CLEVELAND (UP) — A 71-year-old retired Jesuit priest here is chopping his way through old age by working on a 20-acre wood lot with an axe.

Following his retirement in 1947, Professor Emeritus Joseph S. Joliat, S. J., went to work on the lot adjacent to John Carroll University in University Heights.

He's been whacking away at the rate of an acre a year since then and although he doesn't credit woodchopping for his well-preserved longevity, he does consider it fine exercise.

Father Joliat was born and raised on an Ohio farm and recalls his youthful woodchopping days vividly. "It's a little like picking up where I left off during boyhood days on my father's farm," he said nostalgically.

The land will ultimately be used for John Carroll's proposed stadium.

The blink of your eyes takes from 1-10 to ¼ of a second.

Interesting Bolivia Marks Her 128th Year as Republic

WASHINGTON—Bolivia, tin-rich land of topographic contrast, this year is celebrating its 128th anniversary as a republic.

In 1825, "Upper Peru," as it was then called, threw off Spanish rule and declared itself an independent country, the National Geographic Society recalls.

It chose the name Bolivia in honor of the man who led it to freedom, Simon Bolivar.

Because its principal cities, the bulk of its population, and its most important mining centers are on the bleak 12,000-foot "altiplano," Bolivia is often thought of as a plateau nation.

There in the cold Andes, three of the Western Hemisphere's loftiest peaks—Sajama, Illimani and Illampu—rise to more than 22,000 feet. Golfers can drive balls an average of more than 300 yards in the high, thin atmosphere.

But in the north and east, thickly forested slopes drain to the warm Amazon basin.

In the southeast, plains stretch toward Paraguay, while in a rich central valley grow oranges, bananas, pineapples and dates. Bird life includes parrots and flamingoes. Jaguars and ocelots stalk the jungles.

Bolivia produces one fifth of the world's tin. There are also large deposits of silver, copper, lead and zinc. The country's petroleum industry is growing, and Bolivia ranks high in the mining of antimony and tungsten.

The land bears traces of a highly developed Indian civilization. Evidences of the earliest settlement center around the ruined city of Tiahuanaco, where Indians of the Colla stock developed an advanced culture.

The Incas of Peru were influenced by the Colla civilization, which they conquered about 1200 A. D.

Inca rule lasted until the coming of the Spaniards in 1532 under Francisco Pizarro and Diego de Almagro, Bolivia's population is still more than half Indian.

Fifth largest South American country but one of the most sparsely populated, Bolivia has two capital cities.

Sucre, where the Supreme Court meets, is the legal capital of the republic, while La Paz, a city of some 300,000 inhabitants, is the actual seat of government.

Roads are poor in Bolivia but there is good airline service, and many miles of navigable rivers provide avenues of commerce.

Lake Titicaca, half the size of Lake Ontario and lying at an elevation of 12,507 feet above sea level, is the highest lake in the world on which there is regular steamer service.

Vessels ply its waters carrying passengers and freight between Bolivia and Peru.

Industrial Dentists Inspect Jets' Teeth

CINCINNATI, O. (UP) —A new type of "industrial dentist" is employed at the General Electric jet engine plant near here to check the numerous "teeth" of jet engines.

The tooth-like structures, technically called blades, are part of the compressor section of jet engines and they must be kept in condition to "chew up air" at the rate of over three tons a minute. That's enough to empty a six-room house in less than seven seconds.

Air which enters the front of the engine is sucked up by the hundreds of blades which compress it into smaller and smaller space. The air is then forced into combustion chambers where it is mixed with fuel and burned.

The expanding gases force thrie way out the rear of the engine at about 1,200 miles an hour, giving the plane a forward thrust.

Birthmarks Fade Under Tattoo Needle

CHICAGO (UP) — Tattooing has been used effectively to camouflage ugly dark purple birthmarks, says a New York plastic surgeon.

Dr. Herbert Conway of the New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center described the technique in the Journal of the American Medical Association.

A thick solution of natural skin color pigment is injected into the stained skin with an oscillating needle. Conway said an area of from four to five square inches may be treated in one hour by a skilled technician.

He said he achieved an 83 per cent rate of satisfactory results in cases where dilated blood vessels which caused the birthmarks were beneath the inner skin or in the deeper part of the inner skin itself.

More Grandmas Than Residents in This Town

HEBRON, Neb. (UP) — The old gag, "My grandma just died" got a new twist when a tornado wrecked much of this town of 2,000.

Sightseers, denied access to the smashed areas, attempted the ruse to get past state patrol officers. One patrolman said, "More grandmothers were reported missing than the whole population of the town."

Peace Officer Follows 'Book' to Teach Convicts

BRIGHAM CITY, Utah (UP)—A Box Elder County peace officer has come up with a method of prisoner rehabilitation probably never foud in a handbook on criminology.

When deputy sheriff Leo Cottam, known as a "tough" officer, slams the steel cell door shut on a new prisoner, he hands the inmate a Bible and instructs him to "learn the Ten Commandments."

Cottam doesn't claim any miraculous recoveries from lives of crime, through his innovation, but says the prisoners "at least know something new when they leave the county jail."

"It's surprising how well most prisoners learn their lesson he said. If they were in a Sunday School class most of them would earn gold stars."

One inmate memorized and recited The Commandments so speedily that Cottam sent him back to his cell to learn them backward.

Buddhist monks, priests and laymen worked by sun and torchlight for more than 1,000 years to hew from solid rock the elaborately carved temples and decorations at Ajanta and Ellora in the Indian State of Hyderabad.

Skunked at Raising 'em —Family Tries Again

HUGO, Okla. (AP)—The Elmo J. Robison family found five skunks in their barn lot last year, befriended them, removed their odor sacs and tried to make pets of them. But one by one all five disappeared from the farm.

The Robison boys, Rance and Elmo Jr., recently found a litter of six baby skunks in the barn. The boys checked up and identified the mother as one of the five they had befriended last year. They now plan another try at making pets of the little cats.

Monticello, the home of Thomas JEefferson, is full of gadgets like hidden stairways and dumb-waiters and a clock and a weathervane that can be read both inside and outside.

Sallie Brophy Climbing Fast

Takes 'Julie Fielding' Part, Calls Experience Very Exciting

NEW YORK — Sallie Brophy, leading lady on TV's new daytime serial drama, "Follow Your Heart" has hobnobbed with English royalty, understudied Tallulah Bankhead and played opposite some of the most attractive actors in show business, yet she is a simple, unsophisticated girl.

The minute you meet the 24-year-old actress, you are struck with her freshness, vivacity, her interest in people and her complete disregard for formality.

Like the wealthy young Philadelphia society girl she portrays on "Follow Your Heart," she can't bear social climbers.

From the time she was a two-year-old in Phoenix, Ariz., where she was born, Sallie wanted to be an actress.

Her next stop after high school was the college of New Rochelle, N. Y., because "it was just 45 minutes from Broadway."

During the summer she worked as an apprentice in Westport, Conn. in a playhouse run by the Theatre Guild. Here she met Miss Bankhead and got her first part in "Ladies in Retirement."

From there she went to London with her father, Frank C. Brophy, for the Olympic Games, with the idea of getting into the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art.

Sir Cedric Hardwick helped her to get an audition. He also introduced her to George Cukor, who was in London to direct, "Edward, My Son." Cukor worked with her for two days on diction, expression and voice inflection and she was admitted to the academy.

Upon her return to the United States, she landed as understudy to Tallulah Bankhead in "Private Lives" and later understudied Margaret Phillips in "Second Threshold."

In addition to her Broadway work, Sallie has appeared on many top TV dramatic shows, including "Robert Montgomery Presents," "Kraft TV Theatre" and "Philco TV Playhouse."

When asked how she likes playing the same character five times a week in a serial drama, she commented, "It's really very exciting. I feel like I am living the actual life of Julie Fielding in 'Follow Your Heart.'"

Miss Brophy is five feet six inches tall, has brown hair and green eyes. She is single and lives with her cousin in a midtown Manhattan apartment. She is an excellent equestienne and loves to play tennis.

FOLLOW YOUR HEART — Pretty, young Sallie Brophy who portrays the daughter in the new daytime serial "Follow Your Heart" plays the role of a Philadelphia socialite with great conviction. Sallie's views often correspond with the character in the script; hard headed and independent, she too, chooses to "follow her heart."

Real Estate Group Hears Housing Plan

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A plan to attract new capital to slum clearance projects by giving "the incentive of rapid depreciation for federal income tax purposes" was outlined last night by the president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

President Charles B. Shattuck told directors of the Michigan Association of Real Estate Boards, opening its 39th annual convention today, that the proposal would be put before the Eisenhower administration.

"We are proposing an annual depreciation rate not to exceed 20 per cent," he told 150 directors at a banquet session.

The dinner preceeded formal opening of the convention, which is attracting about 500 Michigan real estate dealers.

Shattuck said the proposal for attraction of new capital was part of a three-point program being pushed by his group for slum clearance by the "direct method."

The laws of El Salvador require every man to vote.

Tells Way to Get U. S. Contracts

Stanley Bishop Claims That It's 'Big Business' in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—"The teacher asked the kid was the world round, and he said no.

"She asked was it flat and he said no.

"She says, 'If it is not round or flat, what is it?'

"He said, 'My daddy says it is crooked.'

"I think that is what everybody thinks of the Washington situation."

With this little aside, Stanley Leroy Bishop of S. L. Bishop Associates told a House investigating subcommittee of the trials and troubles of a "manufacturer's representative" in the capital.

A manufacturer's representative generally tries to get government business for his client, or help otherwise in the relations with the government.

The armed services subcommittee—looking into alleged "influence peddling" in military purchasing—got plenty of inside dope on the profession in 254 pages of testimony, released yesterday.

Bishop told the committee he really didn't have an office and didn't have any associates but he chose that title for his operations because he thought it sounded nice.

One view of how some people in the business operate was given by Jon Jonkel who himself has been investigated and criticized by a congressional committee for his role in helping Sen. Butler (R-Md.) unseat former Democratic Sen. Millard E. Tydings.

Jonkel said he knows some 40 or 50 men in the business.

"I don't think any one of them has ever lost an opportunity to advise me, the world at large and anyone standing within earshot that they have a heck of a lot of information about possible contracts," Jonkel testified.

"That seems to be quite a business in this town. If you don't have the information, just raise your eyebrows as though you can get it."

Adrian PW Gets Back Home With Money Orders

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — S. Sgt. Norman A. Robinson of Adrian, Mich. returned from a Korean prisoner-of-war camp $300 richer because he invested his money and then kept his Red captors guessing.

Robinson, who got back to this country yesterday on the Gen. John Pope, said he bought $300 worth of postal money orders in 1950, just 20 days before he was taken prisoner.

During 33 months of captivity he managed to hang onto the money orders.

"The Communists never took them," he reported, "because they couldn't find them. I hid them just about everywhere in camp, and I kept changing the hiding place."

Naturally, one of the first things Robinson did when he got home was to cash those money orders.

Publisher McGraw Dies in Sleep at 57

NEW YORK (AP)—Curtis McGraw, 57, president and chairman of the board of the McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, died early today at his suite in the Carlyle Hotel.

Associates said he had appeared in good health recently and had been working regularly at his office. A company spokesman said he died in his sleep. The cause was not known immediately.

Born in Madison, N. J., McGraw's home was at Princeton, N. J.

The company is a leading publisher of books, as well as nine international magazines and 26 domestic magazines, including such periodicals as Business Week, American Machinist, Aviation Week, and Engineering New Record.

Voting Booth Is Buzzing With Busy Bee Swarm

MT. CLEMENS (AP)—A bunch of bees may keep the balloting down Monday when residents go to the polls to vote on a bond issue for a new city hall.

The bees have taken over a voting booth. And with all bee keepers in the district busy at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit, it may mean a low vote in precinct 5.

800 Prisoners Riot After Fire

Washington Prison Hit by $500,000 Blaze and Inmate Disorders

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—Eight hundred state penitentiary inmates followed a half million dollar prison fire last night with cell-wrecking disorders that were quelled only after guards sprayed their quarters with tear gas three times.

The outbreak apparently was kept to a minimum by prompt action. Guards herded prisoners quickly into their cells when 14 inmates began acting up at evening meal time. Dishes were thrown and chairs smashed as a group of "young but tough" men began misbehaving.

* * *

This occurred about two hours after an unexplained fire roared through the institution's metals plant, destroying it and over one million license plates destined for use on Washington state automobiles in 1954.

Damage from the fire was estimated by Deputy Warden Al Remboldt at half a million dollars. No disorders accompanied the blaze. It started after the plant had been closed down for the evening.

Officials were prepared, however, for unrest and acted quickly when the dining room melee broke out. Back in their cells, the men apparently became annoyed, Rembolt said, because the prison's ventilation system failed when the fire burned out part of the power circuits.

Soon the convicts began hurling materials and abuse out the barred doors of their cells.

* * *

Mattresses were set afire and tossed out windows which had been broken with fists or articles ripped from cell walls. Lavatories were broken from their supports and smashed. Disorders grew more violent until they reached their peak about 8 p.m. in four wings.

Eighty guards and 30 police officers entered the cell blocks, filling the cells with tear gas. Cursing and shouting taunts, the inmates continued their depredations through a second volley of tear gas.

School Board Sees Audit, Approves New Teachers

Pontiac Board of Education members looked over the annual audit of books, approved 37 more new teachers and voted to pay several assessments for public improvements Wednesday.

The audit of books, completed by Ernst and Ernst, showed the school district finished its 1952-53 year June 30 with an $80,895.71 deficit in the unallocated general fund.

But other funds showed balances.

The revolving fund was $31,258.04 in the black and the building and site fund, under which the school buildings and equipment are also listed, had assets worth $7,996,404.42. The debt retirement fund balance was $64,189.20.

The school board voted to pay for Pontiac City improvements such as curbs, gutters and drainage near Eastern Junior High, Hawthorne and Owen Schools and a house the board owns on Union Street.

Board member Louis R. Schimmel commented that the school board, which is not required by law to pay for public improvements, had volunteered to pay the city up to $10,000 a year for improvements near schools.

The board approved hiring of 37 more new teachers and several salary increases, leaves of absence and resignations.

It voted to join the Michigan Association of School Boards, paying $100 for a year's membership. Mrs. Lola B. King, secretary of the board, pointed out that the association, which brings board members throughout Michigan together to discuss problems has a membership of 1,300 boards and 9,000 persons.

School board members decided to meet Sunday, Sept. 20, for an informal tour of the city's new schools opening this fall.

Pioneer's Daughter Dies

MANISTEE (AP) — Mrs. Winnogene Scott, daughter of a pioneer family and a school teacher here for 30 years, died Wednesday at the age of 89. Her father was T. J. Ramsdell, prominent in the early lumbering days.

Ease of Reading an Influence in Book Choice

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP)—People choose books that are easy to get or easy to read, not the ones they say they want to read, Lester Asheim reports in "Library Trends," University of Illinois quarterly. "The reader himself seldom knows why he reads a certain book."

He disagrees with the idea that people change radically upon reading a single book.

"A lifetime of reading forms the opinions and attitudes we possess, and the dramatic moment of change and revelation comes because we have been building up to it through all the other media which have preceded.

"Education is the most important influence on reading behavior no matter what the sex, age, or economic status of the reader," he states. "Younger adults read more than the older ones. Upper income groups read more than the lower income groups. Women are more likely to read for recreation, and men are more likely to read for professional and vocational reasons."

Bearings Expensive, Rail Survey Shows

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UP)—Use of solid journal wheel bearings costs American railroads $750,000 per day, according to a study made at the University of Illinois.

The solid journal wheel bearing has been standard equipment for more than a century.

The university's engineering experiment station found the cost of using them $7.59 to $8.53 per 1,000 freight car miles on two typical large railroads.

Most of the money went into routine maintenance. On one road this cost $5.42 per 1,000 car miles; accidents and fires from "hot boxes" cost 35 cents; delays and repairs $1.82.

On the other road maintenance cost $5.59, accidents and fires 29 cents and delays and repairs $2.65.

There are approximately 30,000 miles of logging railroads in the United States.

The American Bible Society distributed 13,369 Scripture volumes in the U.S. and abroad in 1952.

Quake Near Turkey Kills 30, Injures 100

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—An earthquake rocked the Paphos district of this British island off the southern coast of Turkey today. Police said about 30 persons were killed and 100 injured in various villages.

Southeast of Cyprus, Haifa and other points in northern Israel felt earth tremors on this first day of the Jewish New Year but no casualties or damage was reported.

Police reports said houses in the Paphos district were damaged extensively. Doctors were rushed to the area from Nicosia and other towns. The quake disrupted telephone communications with the area.

Violent quakes in the eastern Mediterranean area devastated three Greek islands in the Ionian Sea a month ago, killing an estimated 1,000 persons.

Ferndale Cites Need for Water

To Inform U. S., State About the Desirability of Second Source

FERNDALE—A move to interest the federal government in the need for a second water supply source for Ferndale and other south Oakland cities was begun by the City Commission this week.

Commissioners said notices will be sent to federal and state civil defense agencies and Michigan Water Resources Commission stating that the present Detroit source is inadequate.

The notices will point out that if this area were delivered an atomic attack there would be insufficient water pressure here to fight fires.

The lawmakers pointed to Lake Huron as a second water supply and stated that federal aid would be needed to build necessary lines to bring the water here.

Methods of increasing water pressure during hot summer months will come under commission study later.

Cheboygan Girl Reigning Over 1953 State Fair

DETROIT (AP) — An attractive Cheboygan area farm girl last night was hailed as Miss Michigan State Fair of 1953.

Brunette Miss Catherine Sewchuck of Route 1, Cheboygan, won the title in competition with 40 other state beauties — all winners of local beauty contests.

Gov. Williams presented the 5 foot 8 inch queen with a trophy representing her victory, before a large crowd at the State Fairgrounds band shell. Miss Sewchuck, who weighs 138 pounds, was crowned Miss Cheboygan of 1953 earlier this year.

The new state beauty queen lists her hobbies as riding, boating and swimming. Miss Sewchuck also professes to be an excellent cook.

Waterford Man to Aid Fund Plan

Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen Will Act to Integrate Area With Pontiac

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — The Rev. W. J. Teeuwissen Jr., president of Waterford Township United Fund, has been named chairman of a committee to help integrate the township into this year's Pontiac Area United Fund campaign.

Harold A. Fitzgerald, Pontiac Area United Fund president, announced other committeemen include Mrs. Lillian Balmer, Loyal D. McMillin, Robert C. Beattie, Mrs. Helen Weaver, Fred Green and Henry B. Mehlberg. Mehlberg was last year's Waterford United Fund campaign chairman.

The Pontiac Area campaign Oct. 20-Nov. 6 will be the first in which Pontiac and Waterford have pooled their fund-raising efforts. Goal for the drive is $487,000.

Business Women Plan Card Party

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP — Business and Professional Women's Club, meeting in the CAI building Tuesday, voted to sponsor a card party at the building Oct. 19.

Mrs. Inez Walter was appointed general chairman of the affair which will be open to the public.

Three new members, Mrs. Nancy Mitchell, Mrs. Dee Dieterle and Mrs. Dorothy Sellman were voted into the club.

Louis Dorman Jr., township civil defense director, will speak at the club's next meeting Sept. 22.

Recent Heat Wave Hurt Many Crops in Michigan

LANSING (UP) — The recent heat wave stunted the growth of some fruits and other farm crops in Michigan, the state cooperative crop reporting service said today.

The service said the hot, dry weather, which tied a 37-year state record for number of consecutive days when temperatures were 90 degrees or higher, caused peaches to ripen prematurely resulting in smaller than normal size.

The heat also hurt late corn, potatoes, field beans, soybeans, sugar beets, and apples but the agency said good crops still are in prospect if the state has additional rain.

The service said most fields still are dry but predicted rain will fall in most parts of the state Friday and Sunday.

2 Republicans on State Board

A. J. Hannah Named, Also John J. Mac Innis to Farm Commission

LANSING (AP)—Two Republicans, long prominent in farm circles, today willingly sat on the political hot seat resulting from the firing of Charles Figy as state agricultural director.

The two men, Arthur J. Hannah of Grand Rapids and John J. MacInnis of Sault Ste. Marie, accepted appointment by Gov. Williams to the state agricultural commission.

They took on the job, with three Democratic commissioners, of finding a successor to Figy who would quiet the outcries in GOP farm circles against Figy's dismissal.

Hannah and MacInnis succeed E. Roy Eagle of Sault Ste. Marie and George McIntyre of Saginaw, two Republicans whose term had expired shortly after their refusal to join in Figy's firing.

Hannah, 48, is a poultryman of prominence and a brother of President John A. Hannah of Michigan State College. He is executive director of the Michigan Agricultural Conference, a director of the American Poultry and Hatchery Federation and of the Michigan State Poultry Improvement Association. In June he was named as a member of the poultry and egg advisory board of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

MacInnis is an active farmer, who served 14 years as member of the Upper Peninsula state fair board and two years as its secretary-manager.

Nicole Maurey Earns Paris Plane Fare

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The life of a movie star is a great one if, like Bing, you can lead the life of Crosby.

Paramount staged the premier of Bing's new movie, "Little Boy Lost," last week but Bing was too busy fishing in Idaho to attend.

It would have been a real chore to get him to come even if he had been in town so Paramount did the next best thing. The studio brought co-star Nicole Maurey all the way from Paris just to attend the opening.

But the voluptuous French doll—Crosby calls her a combination of Rita Hayworth and the farmer's daughter — more than earned her plane fare.

She made three television appearances, gave 25 separate interviews to the press and met representatives of the foreign press in one huge press conference.

In addition, she did several radio broadcasts, met with several French groups, attended her own premier and also one of John Wayne's, made two nightclub appearances and went to several parties.

All of this happened in less than a week. She boarded a plane in Paris on a Monday and traveled continually until early Wednesday morning. She was back on the plane en route home the following Sunday.

The Paramount publicity department reports that she withstood the pace in great shape, even though she averaged less than 6 hours sleep a night. Of the two publicity men assigned to her, one was unable to report to work the following week and the other one showed up groggy.

If there ever were any misgivings about the boxoffice pull of 3D, director George Sidney dispels them here and now.

Although never publicized as such, Sidney holds the dubious distinction of being the first 3D director. Back in the middle thirties, he directed several Pete Smith shorts in the new dimension.

The shorts, if you recall, required the use of red and green glasses and caused quite a stir at the time. However, they caused no revolution because Hollywood was making money at the time. Hollywood revolts only in time of boxoffice unrest.

MGM recently pieced several of the old shorts together and presented them as a 3D attraction in England. Sidney reports that they are making a mint.

Sidney is about to play another important role in 3D. He has just finished "Kiss Me, Kate," the musical that may well decide the fate of 3D. The movie, shot in both 3D and flat versions, is a typical plush Metro musical. It will be released in November on a test basis.

Two theaters in New England will show it flat. Two in Texas will show it in 3D. The boxoffice results will be watched closely.

Sidney disclosed that Texas was chosen because the Lone Star state is 3D crazy at the moment. What does Sidney think will happen?

"I believe that there will be a place for all mediums," says Sidney. "Some pictures will lend themselves to each medium."

Huron Schools to Open Friday

Half-Day Sessions Face Some Pupils Until New Construction Is Done

MILFORD — Half-day classroom session face some students in Huron Valley Schools for the next two months despite a nearly completed building program.

This problem was worrying board of education members as elementary pupils prepare to begin classes tomorrow. The building program was the sole topic of conversatin at Tuesday night's board meeting.

Supt. Harold Hanson said additional rooms in Bertha Baker School in Milford would be ready for use Monday, but some grades would be forced to continue on half-day schedules for the next two months. A few, he said, might begin full days in about two weeks.

Hansen said even though students face half days contractors will have completed their work program a full two months ahead of the promised Dec. 1 date.

One of the largest groups in Huron Valley Schools is the seventh and eighth grades with 314 students enrolled. However, this group, according to Hansen, will be taught on a full-day schedule in Highland School starting tomorrow.

Twenty-two busses are now being used to transport out-of-town pupils, and 81 teachers are employed to teach an enrollement of 2,200.

Berkley Plans Tribute for Repatriated POW

BERKLEY — Officials and citizens of this community will pay tribute to Cpl. Lahman L. Bower Jr., recently returned from a Communist prisoner of war camp, Saturday, Sept. 19.

According to R. D. Horen, commander of Berkley Post 374, American Legion, sponsors of the event, several national and local officials have been invited. They are:

Sen. George Higgins, Rep. George Dondero, State Rep. William S. Broomfield, Mayor Donald McPherson, City Manager Donald Oakes, Judge Ralph Finley, Police Chief Frank Irons and Police Captain Pete Sykes.

The event is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. at the Post, 3079 W. Twelve Mile Rd.

Bower, 23, who entered service in January 1949, was a Communist prisoner for 32 months and was released in the POW exchange Aug. 10. He was captured Dec. 1, 1950.

A Berkley High School graduate, he was awarded the Purple Heart for wounds received while serving as a medical aid man with the Second Infantry Division's Ninth Regiment.

Cpl. Bower has been at his home at 1036 Columbia Rd. since Aug. 29.

Public Works Projects to End

Rochester Set to Finish Water, Sewer, Street Jobs Next Week

ROCHESTER — Two public works projects here will be completed next week, according to Village Manager Robert Slone.

Slone said work on the water and sewer project for Campbell, Heil and Faser Streets is progressing rapidly and will be finished early next week.

Work began yesterday on the prime and double seal coat of Englewood Street and will also be completed next week.

Slone also said that contractor George Landgraf would be retained to lay the 300 feet of 12-inch piping which will run from the pump house to village lines. Work on the new 10-by-20 foot pump house is scheduled to begin next week.

The final reading of the new water and sewer ordinance which would raise the rates is scheduled for the regular meeting of the Village Council Monday night.

Sunday to Be Rally Day at Rochester Church

ROCHESTER — Sunday will be Rally Day at St. Phillip Episcopal Church School.

Purpose of the day is for registration of members, scheduled for 10 a.m.

Church officials also announced that Sunday is the last day for 10 a.m. services. Beginning Sept. 20, services will be at 8 and 11 a.m.

The annual parish picnic will be held at Avon Park following the 10 a.m. service Sunday.

Grimm Retains Slim Hope of Beating Brooks

Dodgers Need Only 2 Victories to Wrap Up NL Pennant

MILWAUKEE (AP) — "We ain't dead yet."

It was Charley Grimm talking last night in the Milwaukee Braves clubhouse after his team had dropped a 2-0 decision to Philadelphia.

* * *

"We haven't won since we left Brooklyn," Grimm mused as he watched his athletes tramp over wrapping paper left from gifts showered on them by admirers.

* * *

"I don't know why, but we haven't done a thing since then."

The Braves whipped Brooklyn twice, 9-8 and 6-1, on their last eastern trip early this month.

Reminded that the magic number in the National League pennant race now is two, Grimm shook his head.

"Well," he said, "we'll be ready for them. We ain't dead by a long ways and as long as we've got a chance we'll be in there. All we need is some hitting."

* * *

The Dodgers, who come in here tomorrow for a two-game series, can clinch their second successive pennant by winning twice.

Grimm said Lew Burdette, the lanky right-hander he promoted from the bullpen to starting status in midseason, would go against the Dodgers in the first game of the series tomorrow night. Burdette beat Brooklyn on a six-hitter at Ebbets Field Sept. 3, and will take a 14-4 record into the game.

Snead's Record Believed Safe

Fairways Soft as 100 Start in Eastern Open; Burkemo in Field

BALTIMORE, Md. (UP)—Most of the big names of golfdom were included in the 100-man field teeing off today in the first round of the Eastern Open Golf tournament, but the softened condition of the course was expected to protect Sammy Snead's tourney record.

Four inches of rain fell during the weekend, leaving the fairways and greens in the 6895 yard Mt. Pleasant course soft. Pros who took warm-up rounds complained that tee shots were not getting their full roll.

In view of this factor, most experts were predicting that a 72-hole score of about 280 would win the tourney this year, five more than Snead's mark in winning the '52 event.

Snead, however is not defending his title.

Top "Money" entry is Doug Ford of Harrison, N. Y., second only to Lew Worsham on the prize-winning list. Other entries were Tommy Bolt, Chandler Harper, Ed (Porky) Oliver and PGA champion Walter Burkemo of Franklin Hills, Mich.

3-Year Bowl Pact Is Given Approval

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A three-year renewal of the Rose Bowl agreement between the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conference was signed yesterday.

The pact provides for games at Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's Day in 1955, 1956 and 1957. Present contract expires Jan 1.

No team may play two years in a row.

Enos Slaughter of the St. Louis Cardinals has played in every All-Star game since 1946.

5 Ex-Champs in US Amateur

NEW YORK (AP) — Winners of four of the last six British Amateur golf championships, two former U. S. Amateur champions and two runners-up for the title, and the 1952 and 1953 Canadian Amateur champions will swing right into action Monday when play begins in the 53rd U. S. Amateur Golf Championship at Oklahoma City.

But, the only players ever to win the British, U. S., Canadian and French Amateur titles — Dick Chapman — won't be there.

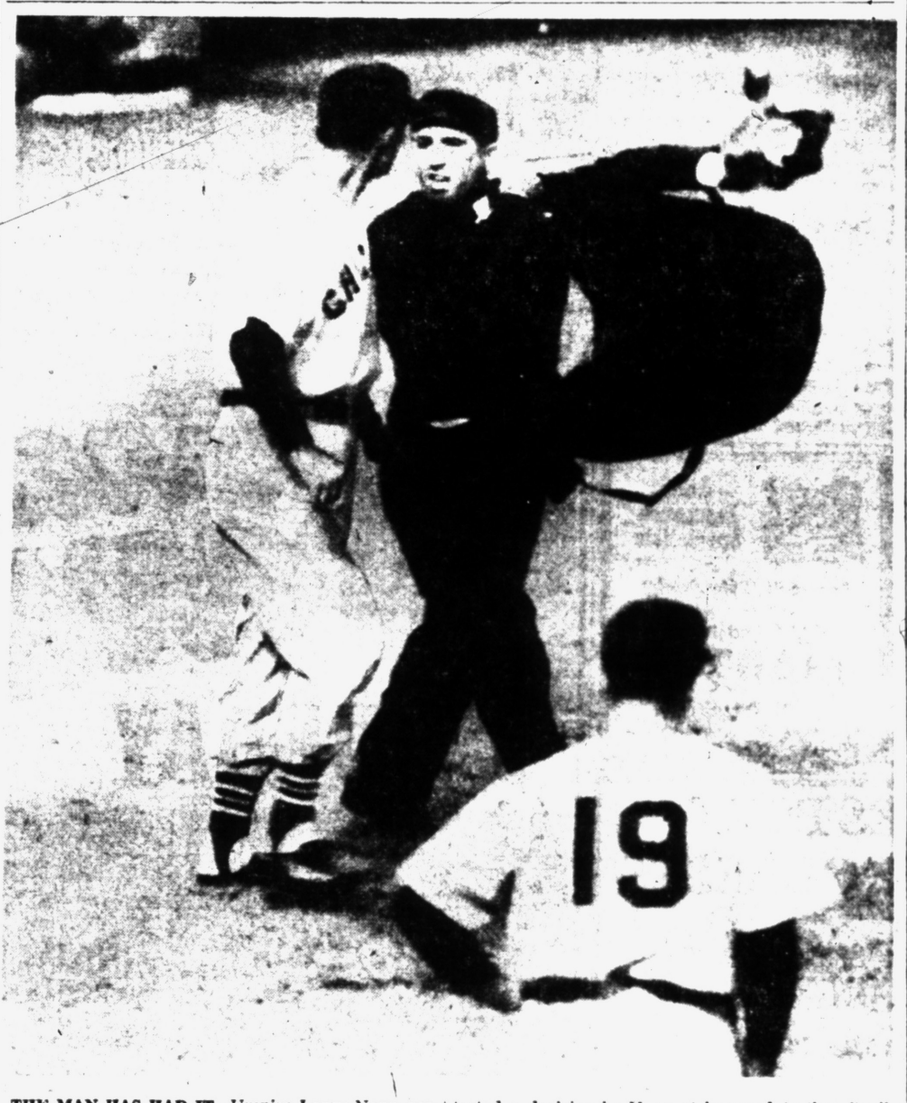

Chapman was one of 11 withdrawals announced yesterday by the United States Golf Association. Others included three members of the recently-defeated British Walker Cup team who had entered but didn't really intend to play — Roy MacGregor, Arthur Perowne and James C. Wilson. Substitutes were named from the list of alternates.

In all, five former U. S. champions, including the defender, 48-year-old congressman Jack Westland of Everett, Wash., still are in the field. All were exempt from last week's sectional qualifying rounds, along with members of the two Walker Cup teams, Canadian and British titleholders and the current junior and public links champions.

When the first round starts Monday over the 6,852-yard Oklahoma City Golf and Country Club course, the home club ace, Charlie Coe, 1949 U. S. champion, will be one of the first off the tee. He plays another Oklahoma City golfer, Glen Flowler. Chick Evans, 1916 and 1920 winner, will meet Royal Hogan of Fort Worth in the first round. Other ex-champs Ted Bishop, Sam Urzetta and Westland, drew byes.

Frank (forgotten man) Stranahan, who won the British Amateur title in 1948 and 1940 and was runner-up to Urzetta for the 1950 U. S. title but didn't make the Walker Cup team this year, will meet Joe Walser, Jr., of Oklahoma City in the first round.

Other important first round pairs include Larry Bouchey, 1952 Canadian champion, vs. Thomas L. Draper, Detroit.

THE MAN HAS HAD IT—Umpire Larry Napp gestures with arms, mask, a baseball and his chest protector as he ousts Chicago White Sox manager Paul Richards from Wednesday's game against the New York Yankees at Yankee Stadium. Richards protested a decision by Napp at home plate that finally went in favor of the Sox. Napp called Sox catcher Red Wilson out on a double steal, then reversed himself when Yogi Berra dropped the ball. Richards was beefing about the umpire's first call.

'Pigskin Preview' Irish on Top, MSC in Sixth Place

Annual "Pigskin Preview" (Saturday Eve. Post) picks Notre Dame as the top football team in the country and lists three other midwestern elevens — Ohio State, Michigan State and Michigan — among the nation's 20 strongest for the 1953 season.

They were selected by veteran sports writer Fred Russell where he also picked an All-America team which includes John Borton, of Ohio State, and John Lattner, of Notre Dame, in the backfield. Lattner is chosen as the "back of the year."

Behind Notre Dame, Russell picks Maryland, UCLA, Ohio State, Georgia Tech, Oklahoma, Michigan State, Alabama, Southern California, Tennessee, Texas, Michigan, Duke, Florida, West Virginia, Navy, Pittsburgh, Rice, Princeton and Holy Cross, in that order.

In the Big Ten, Ohio State and Michigan State stand apart from the field, with the winner of their game at Columbus on Nov. 7 likely to go on to the championship and Rose Bowl. Russell picks the Buckeyes.

Oakland Women Win

Team championship of the Women's District Golf Association was won Wednesday by Oakland Hills. The Oakland women won a playoff from Western Golf Club at Orchard Lake Country Club, 9-3.

Chiefs, Mikes Back to Single Daily Sessions

Graybiel, Mineweaser List Tentative Lineups as Openers Approach

By BILL MARTIN

Opening of classes this week forced Pontiac's three high school football teams to revert to single daily workouts. Both Pontiac High and St. Michael have been practicing twice daily since drills started on Aug. 31. St. Frederick has been holding single sessions all along.

With little more than a week left before opening games, coaches at all three schools are beginning to increase the tempo of drills.

Chiefs and Mikes open Sept. 18, with Pontiac traveling to Wyandotte and the Shamrocks entertaining Avondale in Wisner Stadium. Rams entertain Marine City Holy Cross on Sept. 20, also at Wisner.

PHS Coach Ed Graybiel has cut his varsity squad to 33 players, while junior varsity coaches Ed Heikkinen and Tony Pizza are working with 35 youngsters.

Graybiel is fairly well set in the line, but backfield positions are still wide open. Tentative 1st-string line has Leroy Moore and Jim Wiscombe at ends, Jack Hopkins and Tom Metzdorf at tackles, Ed Shaw and Bill McLarty at guards, and converted guard Ed Hoban at center.

Two complete backfields have alternated behind the No 1 line. Dick Ayling and Marv Caswell have been sharing the quarterback slot, while halfbacks include Bill Rose, Walt Poe, Jimmy Williams and Homer Harrison. Zack Athanas and Coley Gracey are leading fullback candidates.

St. Michael Coach Bob Mineweaser is concentrating on offense. His 1st-string line includes Joe Wilhelm and Rick Adams at ends, Larry Maison and Al Wilhelm at tackles, Mike Campbell and Dick Fleming at guards and Bob Schmidt at center. Don Doll, regular guard, is nursing a knee injury and probably will not return until next week.

Shamrock backfield ill have Russ Shindorf at quarter, Mike Lauringer, Bud Schwartz or Bob Anderson at halfbacks and Wayne Magnan at full.

Lack of manpower is St. Frederick Coach Charles Talbot's big problem. Talbot expects more candidates now that school has opened. At present he has only 32 prospects.

Balzhiser Has Edge

Four Fullbacks in Fight for Starting Job at UM

By JOHN. F. MAYHEW

ANN ARBOR (AP)—A sizzling four way battle was in progress here for the job of fullbacking Michigan's 1953 football team.

Fighting for recognition were Dick Balzhiser, Bob Hurley, Dave Hill, and Fred Baer.

Balzhiser, a regular at the job last year, boasts a wide edge in experience that counts heavily with coach Bennie Oosterbaan and his staff.

However, Baer and Hurley have some game experience, and have developed in spring and fall practice. Baer carried the ball 17 times last season for 53 yards. Hurley collected 68 yards on 20 tries before suffering a rib injury that put him out for the year.

A possible sleeper is Hill, a converted halfback from the 1950 season who has added weight and maturity from Korean military duty. A former Ypsilanti High School star, Hill boasts more speed than the others but needs poise and finesse to become a fine fullback.

Oosterbaan, himself, hesitates to make a choice right now. In the meantime the four are going all out to get a crack at the job.

The Wolverines lost, at least temporarily, the services of regular center Dean Ludwig, yesterday. Ludwig was hurt Tuesday during a practice session. Yesterday it appeared his bump in the head may have been more serious than at first supposed.

Ludwig was lodged in University Hospital for observation "for two or three days," Oosterbaan reported.

The injury raised the possible necessity of switching back to center Capt. Dick O'Shaugnessy.

$50 Per Pound Is Tuna Price in Tournament

But Entries Can Well Afford Cost of Annual Fishing Derby

WEDGEPORT, N. S. (AP)—Men who are willing to pay as much as $50 a pound for tuna fish start competition today in the International Tuna Tournament.

That is the estimated cost to the men who go after the battling bluefins on Soldier's Rip as members of 10 teams from 13 countries. The cost includes the expense of traveling to this tuna-conscious town, chartering boats and equipment.

Half of the anglers, however, are millionaires. One purchased $20,000 worth of fishing gear before coming to the tournament. They'll leave about $200,000 in the province this season.

The tournament is the year's biggest event for this quaint Acadian village where in 16 years the chief interest has turned from lobster fishing to catering to millionaire sportsmen.

Guides and boat captains who once made a precarious living at back-breaking labor, now help the anglers land their fish and get $52 daily for doing it.

MSC Gridder's Draft Status in Question

EAST LANSING (AP)—The draft status of Michigan State football end Ellis Duckett was a question mark today.

Duckett failed one of his military courses and the fact was reported to his draft board at Flint. He since has made up the course but the draft board called him for a conference this week.

As of now, his status remains in doubt although it is assumed here his college deferment will be continued since he still is taking military training with the ROTC.

Midget Football Program Starts Seventh Season

League to Open Play on Sept. 19 at Wisner Field

Pontiac's Midget Football League will start its 7th year of operation Sept. 19. Program is sponsored by the City Parks and Recreation department in cooperation with the board of education.

First sessions will be held at Wisner Field, with the grade school division starting at 9 a.m. and the junior high school section starting at 11 a.m.

Fifth and 6th grade boys who have not reached their 13th birthday by Nov. 1, 1953, and who do not weigh more than 100 pounds are eligible for the grade school division of the league. Age and weight classifications for 7th graders will be determined after registration closes.

All players must furnish shoulder pads and headgear. Football shoes cannot be worn. Equipment must be check by the coaches in charge.

Youngsters participating in the league must have written permission of parents or guardians. Permit cards will be issued at the Parks and Recreation office, 35 Hill street, or at Wisner Field on Sept. 19. Seventh-grade boys may take advantage of the high school athletic insurance. Information about insurance may be obtained from junior high school coaches.

Magician Needed

Wisconsin Coach Ivy Williamson Facing Slimmest Season in 5 Years in Big 10

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — Unless Ivy Williamson is a genuine magician, Wisconsin's Big 10 co-champions are in for a far from fat football season this fall.

Williamson pulled a quarterback out of the hat a year ago and the kid — 19-year-old Jim Haluska — led the Badgers to a tie with Purdue for the conference crown and a trip to the Rose Bowl last winter.

If the Badgers come even close to repeating in the league, Williamson will have to do the same thing again. Haluska broke a leg playing baseball this summer and is out for the year. That leaves sophomores Jim Miller and Jack Stellick and seniors Gust Vergetis and Glenn Wilson contending for the signal caller's slot. Miller at the moment has the edge.

Aside from quarterback, Williamson has his backfield about set. Big Alan (The Horse) Ameche, one of the Big 10's hardest hitting runners as a sophomore last fall, will go at fullback and as a linebacker on defense, with co-captain Roger Dornburg and Jerry Witt manning the halfbacks both ways.

Badgers may be hurting at the ends, too, although lettermen Ron Locklin and Norb Esser are available. Lost, though, probably for the year, are big Don Voss and co-captain Jerry Wuhrmann, both with knee injuries.

A pair of 200-pound veterans, Clarence Stensby and Mark Hoegh, are available at the tackles. Guards likely will be John Dixon, and Ron Roberts. At center is Gary Messner. Neither Messner nor Roberts won major letters in 1952.

Playing the single platoon this fall, Williamson plans to use Ameche, Messner and Dixon as linebackers.

Williamson, starting his 5th year in the Big 10, goes in with the best 4-year record in the conference — 17 victories, six losses and three ties.

Passing Is Stressed by Spartan 11 in Scrimmage

By ROBERT E. VOGES

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State's passing attack is getting a fine polish in football scrimmage sessions this week.

In yesterday's session, coach Biggie Munn threw his No. 1 eleven against his second team in an hour-long scrimmage. The first team outscored the substitutes 4-2 with five of the six touchdowns coming on passes.

Tommy Yewcic, quarterbacking his "pony backs," threw three scoring passes. Receivers were End Don Dohoney of Ann Arbor, halfback Billy Wells of Menominee and fullback Jerry Planutis.

Flint's Leroy Bolden was the other halfback in the first string backfield. Planutis alternated with fullback Evan Slonac, who carried for the fourth touchdown scored by the regulars.

Earl Morrall of Muskegon ran the second team backfield. Jimmy Ellis of Saginaw and Bert Zagers of Cadillac were at the halves and Gene Lekenta of Grand Rapids and Vic Postula of Marshall alternating at fullback.

Flint's Ellis Duckett worked at both halfback and end and pulled down one of Morrall's passes to score for his outfit.

Johnny Matsock of Detroit, a halfback on the defense and a quarterback on offense, intercepted a pass for the other score by the second stringers.

Although the passing looked good, quality of the play otherwise was uneven. The second team was sent jogging around the field as a penalty for frequent fumbles.

Hunters Get 38 Bighorns

DENVER (AP)—Colorado's 10-day open season on bighorn rams, first in 68 years, today was in its eighth day with 38 of the sheep reported killed so far.

The state game and fish department said the latest four kills were in the Crestone Creek area of the Sangre De Cristo mountains yesterday. It estimated 50 bighorns will be killed by the 169 hunters licensed.

Gonsalves' Victory Puts Him Nearer Title Effort

OAKLAND, Calif (AP) — Sharpshooting Johnny Gonsalves, leading contender for the world lightweight championship, was a stride closer to a title bout today.

The slender Oakland boxer retained his role of No. 1 challenger with a 10 round unanimous decision over fifth-ranked Henry Davis of Los Angeles last night.

The fast fight was televised nationally, from Oakland auditorium.

Gonsalves out-boxed Davis to pile up a winning margin. He scored with left hooks and counter-punched effectively with rights to the jaw.

Davis, an aggressive two-fisted ring man, couldn't catch up with his elusive target until the bout was nearly over. The Detroit-born Negro, who learned to box in Honolulu, slammed into Gonsalves with a flurry of punches to win the ninth and tenth rounds.

Referee Jack Downey and judge Eddie James both scored the fight 55½ - 54½ for Gonsalves. Judge Toby Irwin had it 58-52. The Associated Press carded it 56-54.

Trout Catch in Tamarack Is Mystery

LANSING (AP) — Conservation department fish researchers plan to use an electric shocker on landlocked Tamarack creek, Montcalm County, to try to find out why it contains lake trout.

Fish division chief Fred Westerman said that so far he and his men are at a complete loss to account for the authenticated catching of two lake trout in the stream.

Lake trout mainly spend their life span in the Great Lakes and some of the larger inland lakes. There is no record of lake trout having been planted anywhere near Tamarack creek.

Georgia Tech quarterback Pepper Rodgers holds the Southeastern Conference records for consecutive extra points (19) and for most field goals (4) during a regular season.

Horse Finishes Race, Collapses and Dies

DETROIT (AP) — Mickle, a 5-year-old gelding owned by Emory Mains of Jackson, collapsed and died at the Wolverine Harness raceway last night just after crossing the finish line in sixth place.

It was the second death of a harness horse in the Detroit area this season.

Dr. Stanton, a pacer that had earned over $170,000 during his lifetime of racing for owner Lindy Fraser, died at Hazel Park in May during a morning workout.

Best Teams Don't Always Win World Series; Yankee Pitching May Offset Dodgers' Power

By GRANTLAND RICE

NEW YORK—In lining up the Dodgers and Yankees one must always remember that the better club does not always grab the big World Series dough.

For just a few examples the Cubs of 1906 were a far better team than the White Sox. The Cubs won 116 games that year. They had Tinker to Evers to Chance. They had Johnny Kling. They had a great outfield. But the trouble was the White Sox had Ed Walsh, Nick Altrock and Doc White.

* * *

The Athletics of 1914 were a better team than the Boston Braves. A much better team with Eddie Collins, Stuffy McInnis, Jack Barry, Frank Baker, Chief Bender, Eddie Plank, etc. But the Braves had Dick Rudolph, George Tyler and Bill James.

* * *

The Yankees have few men who could make the Dodger team. Even Yogi Berra couldn't crowd out Roy Campanella. The Dodger infield is better and the Dodger outfield is much stronger.

But again it comes down to the pitchers. Casey Stengel has Vic Raschi, Allie Reynolds, Eddie Lopat, Whitey Ford, Johnny Sain, Jim MacDonald, Tom Gorman and Bob Kuzava out of which he hopes to squeeze a lot of good pitching.

Main flaw he faces is that the Dodgers are supposed to murder left-handers and this includes Lopat, Ford and Kuzava.

* * *

All this told, Casey Stengel has much better pitching material than Charley Dressen has. Cheerful Chuck hasn't too many able, dependable men on his staff, barring Carl Erskine.

* * *

As a rule it doesn't matter for Dodger bats cover up a lot of poor or ragged pitching. Whether these same bats can keep on getting runs off the pick of Yankee pitching is another mattter. No one can tell now.

In the Dodger punch, Casey will find twice the batting strength he has faced all year. Cleveland and Chicago combined haven't the power the Dodgers carry in their bats.

* * *

So it has to be pitching on the part of Casey Stengel and his Yankees. I can't see him winning any other way. The Dodgers are a better ball club. But that doesn't mean that they will have much of an edge in the World Series. Not if Casey's pitching comes out the way he hopes it will.

No-Platoon Era Brings Personnel Shuffle

By BOB HOOBING

NEW YORK (AP)—A quarterback playing center? There's that and more in store for college football fans when the 1953 season opens in less than two weeks as coaches do some fancy personnel shuffling for the coming no-platoon era.

The story of Don Babers at Oklahoma A&M provides an example of what's going on across the country. As a sophomore quarterback two years ago, Babers ranked fifth nationally in passing, accounting for 1,352 yards via the airlanes off the Cowboys' spread formation attack. He held down the job last year too but in '53 he'll be starting at center in Jim Lookabaugh's newly installed split-T setup.

Bud Wilkinson, whose Oklahoma Sooners are once again in the national spotlight, is doing plenty of experimenting—particularly in the backfield where the departure of Billy Vessels, Buck McPhail and Eddie Crowder left a huge gap.

Elsewhere, Steve (The Horse) Meilinger, Kentucky's all-everything boy, will try his hand at halfback for the Wildcats after starring at end and in the backfield in '52.

* * *

At Notre Dame, Dan Shannon, whose fumble-inducing tackle set up the winning Irish touchdown against Oklahoma last year, will operate both ways at end rather than at linebacker where he played in the two-platoon days.

* * *

Johnny (Jeep) Bednarik, brother of Penn's great Chuck, will throw his 217-pound frame at William and Mary's opponents from end this season where the Indians are thin. He had been a tackle.

With newcomer Bowden Wyatt shifting Arkansas' offense from the split-T to the single wing, sparkplug Lamar McHan goes from quarterback to tailback to handle the heavy duty work for the Razorbacks.

Georgia Tech's Larry Morris, linebacking specialist in '52, becomes a two-way center. Minnesota's Bob McNamara, currently sidelined with a knee injury, is slated to take some of the pressure off All-America halfback Paul Giel after a year at offensive end and defensive safety. Texas' Jack McMurray, who caught a touchdown pass in one of the first Longhorn scrimmages, has been switched to center where there's a shortage.

Southeastern Fans Look for Another Banner Year

By MERCER BAILEY

ATLANTA (AP)—Fans in the Southeastern Conference, long accustomed to top caliber football, are looking forward to one of the most interesting seasons in years.

Coaches and players seem inclined to accommodate them.

Everyone realizes it would be hard to improve on last year, when the SEC supplied 4 of the nation's top 10 teams and 5 of the 22 offensive and defensive All-America players.

But despite the death of platoon style football, fans and coaches are figuring on another banner year. Power still lies in the big teams of 1952—Georgia Tech, Tennessee, Mississipi and Alabama. They finished in that order in the league.

Tech was rated second best in the nation, Mississippi seventh, Tennessee eighth and Alabama ninth. All four, plus Florida, played in New Year's Day bowl games.

Although graduation took all of the SEC's All-America players, the conference boasts stars a-plenty.

'Bama coach Harold Drew, a two-platoon man who thinks the rules change has "returned football to the horse-and-buggy days," says his team has been over-rated.

Tech coach Bobby Dodd agrees that SEC teams will be more evenly matched this year.

Although Alabama, Tech and Tennessee appear stronger than Mississippi, at least on paper, Ole Miss' schedule gives the Rebels a bit of an edge.

Who After LaStarza?

Defeat of Ezzard Charles Again Points Up Lack of Heavyweight Contenders

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—Doesn't the second straight defeat of Ezzard Charles, this time by a light-heavyweight named Harold Johnson, make it plainer than ever that the whole blooming world has about run out of big men who can use their fists?

Who is Rocky Marciano to fight next, assuming that he conquers Roland LaStarza two weeks from tonight at the Polo Grounds? There simply is not a challenger worthy of the name, assuming that no one wants to see Jersey Joe Walcott come out of well-earned retirement. We have not heard a manager, other than those of LaStarza and Charles, claim seriously that he has a man who might trim Rocky.

* * *

It seems strange to recall now that those who refused to accept Joe Louis' greatness when he was at his best liked to say that he had nothing to fight except a lot of bums. Marciano, who wants to make much money in a hurry, will be wishing shortly that there was a Billy Conn or a Max Baer or a Max Schmeling or even a Tony Galento around these days to help him pack a few ball parks, as they helped Joe.

* * *

Doesn't the speed with which Ted Williams, a gaffer of 34, got himself back into shape and began wanging homers again prove once and for all time that the long spring training trip is strictly window dressing? Although we do not know all the things the ballplayers' new lawyer is going to ask of the magnates, we do know that the athletes grouse mightily about the length of the spring grind and the fact that their salaries do not start until the opening day of the season.

Steelers Down Redskins, 21-14

Rogel, Finks, Chandnois Score for Pittsburgh in Exhibition Win

COLUMBIA, S. C. (UP) — Franny Rogel, Jim Finks and Lynn Chandnois were the ballototers whose touchdowns paid off for the Pittsburgh Steelers Wednesday night in a 21-14 exhibition pro football victory over the Washington Redskins.

A crowd of 22,000 saw the two National Football League teams tangle in an Elks Club charity game.

Rogel, former Penn State star, cracked the scoring ice midway in the first period when he scored on a 29-yard dash. Redskins tied the score in the second period.

Pittsburgh scored twice in the third with Finks blasting over from 10 yards and Chandnois dashing home from five yards out.

Two of Michigan State's 13 varsity athletic teams have perfect season records for the 1952-1953 year. The football team had a 9-0 record while the tennis squad registered 10 wins and no losses.

Goal in Overtime Beats Ivory Rangers

Davey Williams took a pass from Wendell Smith and rifled home a goal after five and a half minutes of sudden-death overtime play Wednesday night to give Franklin Hills an upset 5-4 victory over Ivory Rangers at Ivory Polo field.

Williams' goal, his third of the match, handed the Rangers their third loss of the season in 24 contests. Ivory team played without Capt. Jack Ivory.

Wacker's All Stars won the preliminary match, 12-6, over Birmingham Ramblers.

Rutgers first played Columbia in football back in 1870.

Tribe Keeps Winning, But It's Too Late Now

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

Alas, those poor Indians!

They keep winning and winning and where do they wind up? In second place.

Twenty victories in the last 23 games. That's Cleveland's remarkable record during the past three weeks. But today, with the season's end a little over two weeks away, they still trail the pennant-bound New York Yankees by nine games.

* * *

That's the way it was last year. Too late and too little. The Indians won 18 of their last 21 games, but in the same period the red-hot Yanks gained half a game on them.

The Yankees need only a combination of nine victories and—or Cleveland losses to clinch their record - breaking fifth straight championship following last night's 9-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox. The Indians boosted their second-place margin to four games over the White Sox, edging out the Boston Red Sox 2-1.

Brooklyn's National League-leading Dodgers reduced their "magic number" to two for mathematical elimination of Milwaukee, shutting out the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-0 while Philadelphia was blanking the Braves 2-0.

The New York Giants dropped St. Louis into a tie for third place, defeating the Cards 8-3. Chicago's Cubs won their sixth straight, defeating the Pittsburgh Pirates 8-7 on Ralph Kiner's 31st home run with two mates aboard in the ninth inning.

* * *

The two twi-night double-headers in the American League ended in splits. Mickey Vernon's double scored Eddie Yost in the 12th inning to give Washington a 2-1 victory over St. Louis after rookie Don Larsen had pitched the Browns to a 3-0 triumph in the opener. Marion Fricano hurled a four-hitter and Pete Suder batted in three runs with a triple and homer to give the Philadelphia Athletics a 7-1 victory after Ralph Branca had pitched the Tigers to a 8-2 opening game triumph.

Al Rosen's 40th homer was the big blow in the Indians' success. Billy Pierce tried to become the first pitcher since Walter Johnson in 1908 to blank the Yankees three times in succession and failed—just as 12 others did before him.

Brooklyn's slugging crew hit two more home runs, Nos. 193 and 194. Pee Wee Reese hit a grand slammer and Duke Snider cracked his 38th. Bob Milliken, replacing the injured Johnny Podres with two out and two on in the first, pitched hitless and runless ball for 8 1-3 innings to gain his seventh victory.

Warren Spahn failed for the third straight time to notch his 20th victory. The Milwaukee southpaw hooked up in a scoreless duel with Philadelphia's Bob Miller but weakened in the ninth when Stan Lopata crashed a home run with a mate aboard to decide the battle.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

BATTING—Al Rosen, Indians—hammered his 40th home run with a man on base in the eighth inning to give the Cleveland Indians a 2-1 triumph over the Boston Red Sox.

PITCHING—Bob Milliken, Dodgers—relieved the injured Johnny Podres with two on and two out in the first inning and pitched hitless ball the remainder of the way as the Dodgers blanked the Cincinnati Reds 6-0.

Tennessee Eleven Riddled by Graduation and Draft

By OSCAR THOMPSON

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Tennessee starts the 1953 football season with a new coach, a relatively inexperienced squad and few, if any, hopes of maintaining its position as one of the nation's gridiron powerhouses.

Harvey Robinson, a balding 43-year-old bachelor, has stepped into the head coaching position vacated by the ailing Gen. Bob Neyland, one of the game's ranking coaches for the past quarter-century.

Graduation and the draft riddled Tennessee's two 1952 platoons which compiled an 8-1-1 record and ranked 8th in the Associated Press poll.

Despite the loss of 15 1st-stringers and a total of 20 letterman, Robinson admits the outlook is not altogether dark.

Robinson, who's been coaching since he graduated at Tennessee in 1932, thinks he'll be adequately manned at ends, tackles, tailback, blocking back and possibly fullback.

"Our weakest positions," he adds, "are guard, center and wingback. We have no depth at any of them.

Guard and wingback posts are likely to give Robinson the most trouble.

In the Tennessee system, the guards and wingback are required to do a lot of blocking, both at the line of scrimmage and downfield. And there isn't an experienced player on the squad for either of these posts.

Tennessee's 11-game schedule is termed by Robinson "the most difficult we've played in years."

Vols open the season Sept. 26 with Mississippi State.

Track Is Loser to Big Bettor

Hazel Park Out $1,200 When Man Collects on $20,000 Show Pool

DETROIT (AP) — A tall man in a blue jacket bet $20,000 on two show pools at the Hazel Park race track yesterday.

His horses came through and he profited $2,000. The track had to go into the red to the tune of $1,280 to pay him the legal minimum of 10 cents on the dollar.

The unidentified big bettor had to sweat it out in the fourth race when Nags Head, carrying his $10,000 bet, just managed to show by half a length in the fourth race. His bet had made the horse a heavy favorite to show.

In the sixth race, Mr. X picked the M. H. Van Berg entry of Fine Fiddle and Chic Wave, and Fine Fiddle won easily.

The track lost $860 in paying off on Nags Head and $420 on the Van Berg horses.

The mysterious bettor placed his wagers in three sections, buying $4,000 worth of $50 tickets at each of two windows and $2,000 worth at a third window.

One cashier said the man frequents Kentucky race tracks, operating in about the same manner.

Williams Stopped, Mark 'Falls' to .429

BOSTON (UP)—Mike Garcia of Cleveland — the first pitcher he nicked for a homer upon his return from Korea—also was the first hurler to stop Ted Williams Wednesday night.

Williams, in addition to committing his first error in the field, failed to get a hit in three trips to the plate, marking the first time he went hitless in a starting role since rejoining the Red Sox last month.

Williams' average "skidded" to .429.

Clark Expects Titans to Be Improved Club

UD Confident Pontiac's Dave Kline Can Replace Marchibroda

DETROIT (AP)—The big problem at the University of Detroit this season is to find a replacement for Ted Marchibroda, the spectacular quarterback who led the entire nation in total offense last season.

But coach Dutch Clark doesn't seem worried about it, which is somewhat of a revelation insofar as football coaches are concerned.

"Our attack won't be as explosive as last year," Clark said today, "but we'll control the ball more often. We're going to put more stress on running.

"With Marchibroda in there," Clark added, "we could score at any time—from any part of the field. But we didn't control the ball."

Dave Kline, a senior from Pontiac, Mich., is being groomed to fill Marchibroda's shoes.

"Kline knows how to run the team," Clark said. "We were a little concerned about his defensive ability. But for the last two years, he worked closely with Marchibroda, and we're hoping a little of Marchibroda's talents rubbed off on him."

Titans had a 3-6 record last year, defeating only Wichita, Drake and Fordham. Their low point was a 62-21 trouncing at the hands of Tulsa.

"I think we're improved over last year," said Clark, once one of the greatest quarterbacks in pro football history. "We're not the fastest team in the world nor do we have a breakaway runner but, in the overall picture, we're a sounder club."

Clark named his starting backfield as Kline at quarterback, Jim O'Leary and Lee Riley at halfbacks and Ray Zambiasi of Owosso, Mich., in the fullback slot.

Jim Engleman Awarded MVP Title by Pilots

Jim Engleman, former Pontiac High all-around athletic star now an outfielder for the Binghamton team of the Eastern League, has been named the circuit's most valuable player in a poll of league managers.

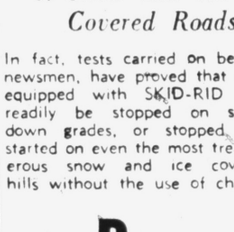

The ex-Chief football, basketball and baseball standout has ranked among the loop's leaders in batting, home runs and runs batted in all season.

Managers named Steve Kraly, who posted a 19-2 record for Binghamton before being called up to the parent New York Yankees, as the league's outstanding pitcher.

There were a total of 56,928 alley beds certified in 6,657 establishments by the American Bowling Congress during the 1952-53 season which ended July 31.

Tigers Cling to Sixth Spot as They Head for Gotham

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Detroit's Tigers headed for Yankeeland today, still clinging to that slim half-game hold on sixth place in the American League.

They kept the edge over Philadelphia by splitting Wednesday's twinight doubleheader with the Athletics, whom they displaced in the standings on Labor Day.

The Tigers won the opener 8-2 behind Ralph Branca's seven-hit pitching, but bowed to rookie Marion Fricano in the second game 7-1.

Both Tigers and A's are idle today, so Detroit will carry the advantage to New York where the club begins a two-game series with the league-leading Yanks tomorrow.

Young Fricano gave up only four hits in recording his eighth win of the season against 10 defeats, and he had a one-hitter in the works until the eighth inning. Fred Hatfield had singled in the first, but the Tigers couldn't score until the eighth when Johnny Pesky doubled with one out and scored on Matt Batts' single.

Only other Detroit hit in the nightcap was Harvey Kuenn's ninth-inning double, which extended his hitting streak to 15 straight games.

Steve Gromek was the starter and loser, allowing the first three Philadelphia runs. His record is 6-8. Ray Herbert pitched a rugged eighth inning, in which the Athletics got four runs on three singles, a walk, an error and a wild pitch.

Tigers took the lead in the opener in the third when Kuenn doubled and moved home on two successive long fly balls. A five-run sixth inning, sparked by home runs by Steve Souchock and Johnny Bucha, sewed up the game for Branca.

Last Detroit run came in the seventh on Jim Delsing's bases-empty homer.

Walter Kellner, younger brother of Philadelphia's Alex Kellner, pitched the last two innings of the opener. He didn't allow a hit, walked three and struck out two.

Bob Considine Says:

There Is Much to Learn About 'Brain Washings'

NEW YORK (INS)—No phase of the prisoner exchange in Korea was more blood-chilling than the accounts some of our men gave of the calculated destruction of their minds.

The braver men resisted efforts of the Reds to wring "confessions" from them, or information to which the Reds were not entitled under the Geneva Convention. Unquestionably, many died for persisting in such a stand. Others, like the Great World War II ace, Col. Mahurin, attempted suicide when driven at long last to distraction. Still others quickly "confessed," confident that they could later explain away their seeming confirmation of Russian charges against the U.S.A. handful came around to the Communist way of thinking and betrayed their fellow Americans either because their love of creature comforts was greater than their love of country or because they had been successfully sold.

"Brain-washing," as foreign correspondent Edward Hunter calls it in a shocking book about the practice, became the psychological whip with which our men were almost daily flogged during their captivity in Korea. Strong men broke without a mark on their bodies or "truth serum" in their veins, and almost eagerly parroted preposterous Communist propaganda over the enemy radio.

Why?

Robert Vogeler, who "confessed" and served 17 months of a 15-year sentence for alleged espionage in Hungary, quited one of his endless interrogators as boasting, "If God himself was sitting in that chair we would make him say what we wanted him to say."

There is no doubt that at this moment, Lavrenti Beria, who helped devise this agony, is undergoing it and will appear in court, apparently sound of body and mind and confess to crimes which not even this foul monster could have committed.

Hunter recalls in his book that Angus Ward, the American consul who was arrested by the Reds and held for several months, was not fully believed when—after his release—he told members of the Overseas Press Club in New York that if his Chinese interrogators had questioned him for another two weeks he would have "confessed" to anything they wanted.

Ward also told us on that occasion that while he was stationed in Moscow, he saw an officer of another embassy arrested, held for months, and brought to trial on a rape charge, to which he pleaded guilty. He was deported. When he returned to his embassy to pick up his effects his superiors were stunned to hear him say with great earnestness, "They got the goods on me." His superior knew that he had not been anywhere near the place where the alleged rape took place, and assured him he could now tell the truth in the sanctuary of the embassy.

But the man repeated his confession and left the country.

Months later he wrote to his superiors telling them he recalled vaguely having confessed to a rape charge, in front of them, and reminded them that he was no place near the so-called scene. As for the trial, he had no memory of it.

The brain-washing of Carindal Mindszenty and his subsequent "confession" and sentence is one of the more vivid demonstrations on what diabolicial measures the enemy employs to massacre the spirit and mind as well as the flesh.

This, then, is an appeal to the armed forces to refrain from sweeping condemnations or prosecutions of those who "confessed" in Korean captivity. There is much to learn from them about this fresh horror visited upon the world.

Indians Use Unique Hunting Technique

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (UP) — The Indians that once inhabited Padre Island, off the South Texas Gulf Coast, had a unique system of hunting deer, according to 19th Century Spanish records.

One group of Indians would chase the animals into the water around the island. Another group waited in canoes to spear the deer as they swam.

An estimated 400,000 persons in the U. S. have pneumonia each year.

Need Rearrangement of Business Districts

CHICAGO (UP)—An expert on city development says the future of central business districts in many cities may depend largely on the orderly rearrangement of the downtown area.

J. D. Carroll Jr. discussed the problem in Public Management, monthly journal of the International City Managers' Association.

Carroll, director of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Study, said city officials must encourage the intensive use of existing commercial sites, and must make it easier for traffic and people to move within the downtown business districts.

Two major trends, increased automobile registrations and the postwar boom in suburban development, have magnified the problems of the central business district, Carroll said.

He said a study at Flint, Mich., showed that travel by automobile diminishes as cities increase in size, due to traffic congestion and travel distances.

But he said despite these factors, "the larger the city the greater the parking problem."

The study of Flint showed a "steady, relative decline in real property values in the central business district, especially in land values," Carroll said.

Canadian Boys Train in Rugged Woods Camp

BANFF, Alta. (AP) — The rugged territory of Banff National Camp teaches self-reliance while providing a vacation-time prize for top qualifying members of Canada's 60,000 high school students in Fhaki. About 150 teen-age cadets attend the army camp.

Here bears, wolves and lynxes take second rating to the mosquito. The boys are told that bears are more afraid of cadets than cadets are of bears. E. R. Hall, civilian instructor, says there has never been a proven case of a wolf attacking a human, although the wolf, like the lynx, will follow a man for hours out of curiosity.

"I'm much more afraid of the mosquito than I am of the bear," says Hall. The stings of a swarm of mosquitos and the resultant itch and irritation have been known to drive a man crazy.

Market Quiet, Lower Trend

NEW YORK (AP) — The Stock Market staged a mild decline today following two days of quiet steadiness.

The fall went to between 1 and 2 points at the outside in the case of a handful of issues. Most changes either way were fractional with minus signs predominating.

Volume was light at a rate in the neighborhood of yesterday's 860,000 shares.

Grains Showing Light Selling

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains suffered from a little light selling on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were more active than in the previous slow sessions.

Distant wheat contracts lost the most ground in early dealings, although recovering partly from losses which ran to more than a cent. Soybeans showed some early strength, helped along by an upturn in fats and oils.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼-⅞ cent lower, September 73½. Soybeans were unchange cent lower, September $1.58⅞, and oats were ⅛-½ lower, September 73½. Soybeans were unchanged to ⅞ higher, September $2.60⅜ and lard was five to 22 cents a hundred pounds higher, September $18.17.

In Memoriam 1

IN LOVING MEMORY OF CLYDE W. Warren who died Sept. 6, 1952
It is lonesome here without you,
And sad and weary the way,
Life has not been the same,
Since you were called away.
Sadly missed by his wife and son Cecil and Clara, Florence Warren.

Card of Thanks 2

WE WISH TO EXTEND OUR heartfelt thanks and appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved wife and mother, Leonard Yocum and sons, John and Gerald.

MY SINCERE THANKS AND APpreciation to all my friends for their works of comfort, acts of kindness and floral tributes, given at the time of the death of my brother, Frank W. Springstein.
Alta B. Springstein.

ONE OF THE OLDEST AND largest landscape and nursery product companies operating nationally will employ men in Pontiac area to call on our established customers and to establish new accounts. No experience required as we have the finest training program in the industry. Income is substantial and immediate, national average for all our men who work 5 days a week or more is in excess of $5,000. Above average men earn considerably more and have opportunity for manager positions. The work is pleasant, dignified and semi-professional. Our type of selling offers a life-time career because our customers repeat year after year and is not seasonal as we contract from 6 months to 1 year ahead. This is strictly saleswork and we are not interested in landscape gardeners or laborers. Applicants should be over 25, have a car and some experience in doing business with the public. For personal interview phone Norm Schram, FE 4-8614, Friday and Saturday.
