Hammarskjold Accepts Invitation to Red China

Jury Deliberates Sheppard's Fate

Judge Outlines Five Verdicts in His Charge

Seven Men, 5 Women Given Case at 10:13 This Morning

CLEVELAND (AP) — A jury in Common Pleas Court today began deliberating the fate of Dr. Sam Sheppard, the 30-year-old osteopath who is charged with bludgeoning to death his pregnant wife, Marilyn, 31.

Judge Edward Blythin delivered a 36-minute charge to the jury in which he gave them five possible verdicts in the charge of murder.

The five possible verdicts are:

1. Guilty of first-degree murder without recommendation of mercy, which carries a mandatory death sentence.

2. Guilty of first-degree murder with a recommendation of mercy; the penalty in this decision is mandatory life imprisonment.

But, after 20 years, the State Pardon and Parole Commission must review the case to determine whether the sentence should be commuted. If the commission so recommends, the governor may commute the sentence. That makes the convicted person eligible for parole.

3. Guilty of second-degree murder, which carries a life prison sentence with possibility of parole in 10 years.

4. Guilty of manslaughter, carrying a penalty of one to 20 years.

5. Acquittal.

During Judge Blythin's charge the seven men and five women on the jury gave him close attention.

Dr. Sheppard was seated about 12 feet away at the counsel table. He kept his eyes fixed on the jury.

In a 36-minute explanation of the law, the 70-year-old judge told the jury it is not necessary to prove motive under Ohio law. And he

Selfridge Pilot Is Killed as Jet Crashes at Holly

Lt. John Brown Dies When Plane Hits Swamp in Routine Flight

A Sabrejet pilot died last night when his plane crashed into a swamp and burned four miles east of Holly.

Killed immediately was 1st Lt. John D. Brown, 28, of Cedarbluff, Va., who was on a routine training flight from Selfridge Air Force Base.

The crash's impact left a crater 15 feet deep and about 30 feet across, while wreckage was scattered over a 300-yard area on the 164-acre farm of Emil Perlich, 72, 7477 Tucker Rd.

Brown crashed about 9:36 p.m., four minutes after losing radio and radar contact with Selfridge Field, according to Major Maxwell Gurman, Selfridge Public Information Officer.

The doomed pilot took off from Selfridge about 9:00 p.m. Gurman said.

Perlich said he heard the explosion when the plane crashed and looked out to see a sheet of flame shoot about 35 feet into the air. Later gun shots were heard, Perlich said. (Air Force officials said the plane was carrying six .50 caliber machineguns.)

Troopers Gerald Corey and Ralph Severance of the Michigan State Police, Flint Post, said they talked with an unidentified woman who spotted the low-flying jet while driving south on U.S.-10. She told troopers that the plane was on fire at that time.

Another who said he saw flames before the plane crashed was Robert Farner of 10086 Oak Hill road, Holly, who said that he heard the plane "cough" three times, and each time flames could be seen coming from the craft.

"Just before I heard the explosion (when the plane crashed) I saw a red blaze," Farner said.

Tom Nicholson of 9698 Kier Rd., Groveland Township, said the plane when it passed over his home was not over 1,500 feet off the ground.

First on the crash scene after Perlich were Holly firemen, and PONTIAC NAMES AT WHITE HOUSE—Murray Snyder, assistant press secretary to President Eisenhower, poses with a petition signed by 20,000 Pontiac citizens pledging cooperation in the Chief Executive's call for safe driving. The President at his news conference commented on the petition pledging cooperation for the safety-on-the-highway campaign. The petition was delivered to the White House during the forenoon Wednesday, safe driving day.

Commie Cable Doesn't Agree to Discuss PWs

Chou Promises Only to Confer About World Peace, Tensions

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold today accepted an invitation for face to face talks with Red China's Chou En-lai in Peiping.

The secretary general acted less than four hours after he had received a cable from the Chinese Communist Premier saying Hammarskjold would be welcome if he wished to discuss questions related to world peace and international tension.

Although Chou did not agree to discuss the 11 American fliers jailed as spies, Hammarskjold was understood to feel that such talks had not been ruled out. For this reason, he accepted without delay.

The exact date of Hammarskjold's departure for Peiping and for the talks was not fixed, but the secretary general intends to go as soon as arrangements can be worked out.

Chou sent two communications to the United Nations. One denounced again the U. N. resolution of Dec. 10 which instructed Hammarskjold to seek release of the imprisoned airmen.

The other contained acceptance of Hammarskjold's proposal for a meeting with Chou.

The second communication, as broadcast from Peiping, said:

"Regarding the United States spies mentioned in your cable, our position has been set forth in my other cable addressed to you.

"In the interests of peace and relaxation of international tension, I am prepared to receive you in our capital Peiping to discuss with you pertinent questions."

This seemed to say Red China had settled the case of the fliers, but was ready to talk about other things. These latter might include the question of seating Red China in the United Nations—a question the U.N. General Assembly at its opening session this year decided to shelve for the remainder of the year.

In his cable to Chou last Friday, Hammarskjold had suggested they meet "soon after Dec. 26."

The spokesman at the U.N. said

UMT Plan Unveiled Today Allows 6 Months' Service

WASHINGTON (INS) — The administration today unveiled its new draft-military training program which allows youths 17 to 19 to volunteer for six months' service with nine and one-half years in the reserves.

The sweeping plan, designed to build up a long-range, strengthened military reserve while allowing a reduction in size of the active forces, provides for continuing the present draft law and enlistment programs for four more years.

As outlined by Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson at a Pentagon news conference, the plan to be submitted to Congress in January would bring 100,000 youths annually into the greatly-modified universal training system.

Under the plan, 17 to 19-year-olds could apply for six months training at $30 a month and then obligate themselves to nine and one-half years in the "callable" reserves in lieu of being drafted on of enlisting. The reserves would be built up to a total of five million men.

Wilson, who has coupled the plan with a decision to trim about 100,000 men from the 1,174,000-man standing army, declared "our economy could not support active forces large enough . . . to provide for the national security."

He added: "We have therefore determined the size of the active forces needed to support our present world-wide commitments and sustain the first shock of hostilities should they occur, and the size of the reserve forces needed to supplement the active forces while we marshal our full strength as rapidly as might be needed.

"I want to emphasize that the

SEC Timetable Stalls Contract

May Give Lawmakers Chance to Kill, Revise Dixon-Yates Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The timetable of a Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) hearing appeared certain today to give the new Congress a chance to revise or kill the controversial Dixon-Yates private power contract before construction work is started.

A company official has said little actual work will be done before the SEC approves financing arrangements, and SEC Chairman Ralph H. Demmler indicated yesterday a decision on initial phases was unlikely before Feb. 1.

The new Congress convenes Jan. 5 under control of Democrats, some of whom have been sharply critical of the Eisenhower administration's plan to purchase privately produced power for use in the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) system.

Although Congress has no direct control over terms of the contract, its control over appropriations gives it power to speak with authority.

Meanwhile Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), promised a statement on the controversy at

Top Rating Is Again Given City's Hospital

Pontiac General Hospital's rating as a top-flight medical institution has been renewed.

At its regular monthly meeting last night, the board of trustees received a report from the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals stating that Pontiac General again has received full accreditation.

The rating resulted from a survey conducted at the hospital's request by a commission representative in September.

Full accreditation is the highest rating given and means that the institution is meeting the standards of operation established by the accreditation commission.

GM Sales Reach Ten Day Record

December Opens With Higher Demand Than in Any Like Period

DETROIT (AP)—Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors Corp., says his company set an all-time retail sales record the first 10 days of this month.

"General Motors' dealers sold more cars during the first 10 days in December than for any similar period in history," Curtice said yesterday in an announcement.

He added that Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac sales were more than double the rate for the like period of 1953.

Curtice said:

"The national economy stabilized last summer and is showing a strong upward trend . . . The continuing vigor and vitality of the automobile market has contributed importantly to the improvement.

"New orders received," he added, "exceeded production by a substantial margin since GM's first 1955 model announcement late in October."

This week's automobile production hit a peak for the year, Wards Reports, Inc., said today.

Ward's estimated total production at 172,249 cars and trucks, a slight gain over last week. The all-time weekly high was 196,348 in the month of June in 1950.

Next Wednesday the 1,000,000th truck of 1954 will be made, Ward's said. It will be the eighth consecutive postwar year of such production.

Message to Be Broadcast

Ike to Open Yule Season With Tree-Lighting Today

WASHINGTON (INS)—President Eisenhower formally opens the Yuletide season today at ceremonies lighting the nation's 67-foot-high official Christmas tree.

The chief executive will deliver his traditional Christmas message over all major radio and television networks during the tree-lighting ceremonies beginning at 5 p. m. (EST), launching the capital's colorful "Pageant of Peace."

His brief address will sound the prayerful Christmas hope that the war-weary world will find the key to enduring peace.

Eisenhower will press a button to light up the huge Michigan-grown tree erected on the Ellipse, a park just south of the White House.

The nation's official Christmas tree has stood in past years on the south lawn of the White House, but was moved to the new spot this year to be the central attraction of Washington's peace pageant.

The tree-lighting ceremony, as well as Eisenhower's Christmas message, was moved up a week this year as part of the same pageant. They have been scheduled on Christmas Eve in past years.

Before the President's speech, there will be a program by the United States Marine Band and an 80-voice choir from Washington churches.

Eisenhower's address, scheduled to run about seven minutes, will be broadcast throughout the world by the Voice of America.

The Pageant of Peace will continue through Jan. 6, the traditional "Twelfth Night" of the Yuletide season.

The President and First Lady will spend Christmas and New Year's at the "Little White House" at Augusta, Ga. They are expected to leave Washington Dec. 23 and return about Jan. 3.

Eisenhower will take advantage of his holiday vacation to work on his State of the Union message which he will present to the 84th Congress on Jan. 6.

NATO Adopts Atom Defense

Agreement Also Seen on How New Weapons May Be Used

PARIS (AP) — Leaders of the free world today adopted a new defense strategy based on atomic firepower and agreed on the way new weapons can be used in the event of an attack by the Communist bloc.

The foreign, defense and finance ministers of the 14 North Atlantic Treaty powers set the role of atomic weapons during a tightly closed session.

They promised a communique on their decision later today or tomorrow.

After adoption of defense plans drafted by the chiefs of staff of NATO members, giving nuclear firepower a place in NATO's "new look" arsenal, the ministers excluded most of their advisers from the closed meeting. Then they took up the controversial question of who can decide on a resort to atomic arms—military men or their governments.

No immediate word on this discussion leaked out, and NATO press officials would say only that the ministers had reached agreement.

The American government was known to be strongly opposed to hampering NATO's deterrent effect with a formula which might be unworkable in a major surprise assault against the West.

Earlier, in the full NATO council session, French Premier Pierre Mendes-France told his colleagues French policy will not be modified by Russia's latest note threatening to denounce the 1944 French-Soviet treaty if the French ratify the Paris accords to rearm West Germany.

Abandon Hope for Lost Vessel

Search Fails to Locate Ship Missing in Atlantic With 24 Aboard

NEW YORK (AP) — The Coast Guard abandoned hope today for the American freighter Southern Districts, missing off the east coast with her crew of 24 since Dec. 4.

An intensive sea and air search for the 3,300-ton vessel was called off last night. Coast Guard ships and planes still will keep a routine watch for her, however, on regular patrols and training flights.

Coast guardsmen expressed belief the vessel went down off Florida while en route from Port Sulphur, La., to Bucksports, Me., with her cargo of sulphur.

She was rounding Florida on Dec. 4, the date of her last radio contact, and a heavy storm was pounding the area at the time.

The Southern Districts was a sister of a vessel that broke in half and sunk in similar weather off Cape Hatteras on Oct. 5, 1951, the Coast Guard reported.

That ship, the Southern Isles, went down so quickly there was no time to send out an SOS.

No SOS was heard from the Southern Districts, and the Coast Guard surmised that a similar fate probably overtook her.

The Coast Guard, besides sending 10 airplanes and a number of patrol boats into the search, alerted all shipping interests, commercial airlines and military air arms to watch for the Southern Districts.

Snow, Rain Forecast for Pontiac Area

Snow mixed with rain is the weather outlook for this evening in the Pontiac area, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau.

There won't be much change in temperature, 26 to 30 being the low tonight with the rain changing to snow flurries late tonight. Tomorrow's high will be from 30 to 34 with more snow flurries. Saturday night will be partly cloudy and colder with a low of 20 to 24 degrees.

Temperatures in downtown Pontiac Thursday held a narrow range of 29 to 32 degrees with just a trace of snow reported. Today at 8 a.m. the mercury registered 30 degrees and rose to 34 degrees by 2 p.m.

Pope's Condition Remains Serious, Vatican Reports

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII remains gravely ill and his weakness continues.

That was the report today on his over-all general condition from Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi. The pontiff's private physician's statement confirmed previous word from Vatican sources that despite optimistic reports following X-ray examinations yesterday the Pope's condition remains serious.

The Vatican sources said his condition is aggravated by a recurrence of hiccups.

The substitute Vatican secretary of state, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Angelo Dell'Acqua, said today the Pope showed signs of "great fatigue" because of the long examination but was "somewhat better than yesterday."

The Vatican press office issued a bulletin at 2:15 p.m. saying the Pope "passed a fair night. This morning the pontiff appeared better and received Msgr. Dell'Acqua in regular audience. The physicians have, meanwhile, prepared the therapy to follow the X-ray examinations."

The Pope's ailment, diagnosed after the X-rays yesterday as a small hernia of the esophagus and gastritis, also is accompanied by hemorrhaging resulting in a slow loss of blood. This, it was said, is partly responsble for the weakened condition and anemia of the 78-year-old head of the Roman Catholic Church.

The tests yesterday set at rest fears the pontiff had an ulcer and might need immediate surgery. Dr. Galeazzi-Lisi said the course of treatment now will aim to increase his strength.

To Complete Your Christmas List

Study of Friends' Likes, Activities Yields Hints for Appropriate Gifts

By JANET ODELL

When you use your imagination to choose Christmas gifts, you are giving a part of yourself with the gift. Using your imagination sometimes saves money also.

Have you a friend who loves to sew? Buy her a length of pretty fabric, perhaps something a little nicer than usual, and present it with an appropriate pattern. You might wrap it in a piece of a discarded pattern and tie it with a tape measure.

Make up a package of fancy wrapping papers, ribbons, cards and seals for that difficult-to-please person. If the recipient is very fond of roses, for instance, make all the articles cater to that preference.

A huge roll of cellulose tape (they can be had from $1 up) will be welcome in any household. How about several dozen, even a gross, of pencils for families where members complain, "I can never find a pencil."

If a member of your family wears glasses, you might approach his eye doctor and have sun glasses made up in his prescription. Or give him a gift certificate for an extra pair.

Boxes of individual bars of soap for guests are a nice gift for the woman who has frequent overnight visitors. We saw one handsome box for $3, but many can be had for less.

The gourmet hostess will like you for hunting up an assortment of unusual foods such as rare cheese, a wee jar of imported caviar, some extra-large pecan meats, or a tin of smoked turkey.

If a youngster loves to draw or paint, get him a roll of white shelf paper and a box of water color paints that has more than the four primary colors in it.

What handy man could resist a set of small jars, each neatly labeled, containing an assortment of nuts, bolts, screws, nails, tacks and all the other little equipment he needs on his work bench?

The Day in Birmingham

Jan. 3 Meeting Will Take Up Ice Skating Rink Bond Issue

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — Recreation Board members last night set a Jan. 13 special meeting date out of which will probably come a recommendation for the City Commission asking that a bond issue for Birmingham's first artificial iceskating rink be placed on the April ballot.

Previously discussed in terms of a portable rink, that idea was abandoned last night in favor of a permanent type. While there is a difference in the initial cost, the board said maintenance problems on a permanent installation would be negligible by comparison. Cost of a portable rink has previously been estimated at $75,000.

Between now and Jan. 13, Roland Reese, board member who has been investigating rinks used in other areas, will work with City Manager Donald C. Egbert to determine the specific amount for a bond issue.

Eton Park would be the location of any skating rink, inasmuch as it is the larger of the city parks and is being developed for spectator activities. In size the board is considering a space comparable to four tennis courts. Ultimately the cement base could be used during summer months for tennis, roller skating and other sports.

Jury Is Deliberating Dr. Sheppard's Fate

explained that circumstantial evidence must be considered carefully. The judge locked the doors of the small courtroom before he began his instructions.

Sheppard's two brothers and their wives were in the courtroom. The defendant gave them a small smile.

Sheppard was taken back to his cell block in the Criminal Courts building where the courtroom is located.

Before the session started a greeting card was handed to Sheppard by the bailiff. He opened it and, folded between the pages, was a four-leaf clover. A brief message was on the sheet of paper inside. Sheppard smiled and at the same time tears came to his eyes.

The jury took with it 214 separate exhibits—127 from the defense and 87 from the state. They ranged from the blood-stained pillow from the bed where Marilyn Sheppard died to a few grains of sand from her husband's trouser cuffs.

The case went to the jury at 10:13 a.m.

force requirements depend upon world conditions. The goals we have set up, therefore, will be subject to continuous reviews."

Assistant Defense Secretary Carter Burgess, participating in the Pentagon news conference, said in his prepared remarks that under the plan "everyone . . . eventually is called to serve."

Major features of the four-year program are these:

1. The six-months training system would be limited to about 100,000 men a year in order to leave a pool of at least 750,000 eligibles from which to draft for two years and to recruit four year enlistments.

2. The reserve forces, now at 2,570,000 men — of whom 1,500,000 are inactive, would be built to a total of five million men by 1959, including three million subject to immediate call.

3. Veterans would have preference for transfer into a "selectively callable" reserve category, subject to call only in a general war mobilization.

Six-month trainees, who could choose between Army and Marine reserve units, would be among those subject to call in case of need, but would not normally be draft eligibles.

4. Both the draftee extension and the trainee program would be voted for only four years. Burgess said "We simply cannot forsee all the problems that will arise five years from now."

It was expected, however, that he would go ahead with previous plans to fly to Sweden tonight for the weekend and after returning here briefly next week, would fly on to Peiping.

Hammarskjold had planned his trip to Sweden originally for ceremonies installing him in his late father's seat in the Swedish Academy of Letters. Yesterday it became known he planned also to see the Red Chinese ambassador in Stockholm about his proposed trip to Peiping and it was expected he now would discuss arrangements for the trip with the envoy.

Also surviving are four brothers and sisters, Wilson Ousley of Elwood City, Roman Ousley of Tampa, Fla., Luceille Grimes of Dothan, Ala. and Ester Grimm of Alabama.

The funeral will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the New Bethel Baptist Church with the Rev. W. H. Bell officiating. Burial will follow in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Lorne C. Pearson

Lorne O. Pearson, 71, 52 S. Genesee, died yesterday at his home after an illness of three weeks.

The son of Samuel and Ameretta Pearson, he was born in Corinth, Ontario, and married Maud Boucher in Canada Feb. 4, 1909.

Retired manager of the Sears Roebuck Building and Roofing department, he came to Pontiac from St. Thomas, Ontario, 27 years ago and was a member of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

Surviving besides his widow are two sons, Kenneth S. of Midland and Harold W. of Pontiac, and three grandchildren.

Service from Sparks-Griffin Chapel will be Sunday at 3 p.m., with Elder Randall Hulse officiating. Burial will follow in St. Thomas, Ontario.

Lowell Phetteplace

Lowell Phetteplace, 74, of 105 Augusta Ave. died yesterday at Universtiy Hospital, Ann Arbor. He had been ill seven years.

Born in Clarkston July 28, 1880, he was the son of Squire and Ella Urch Phetteplace and married Katie Teggerdine in Clarkston in April 1908.

Mr. Phetteplace has lived in Pontiac 58 years, coming here from Clarkston and was a member of the First Baptist Church. He was also a Life Member of Cedar Lodge F. & A. M. No. 60, Clarkston and had retired from Pontiac Motor Division.

He is survived by a son, Manley M. Phetteplace at home and a brother, Stephen of Drayton Plains.

The funeral will be held Saturday at 3 p.m. from the DeWitt C. Davis Funeral Home. The Rev. William E. Hakes of the First Baptist Church will officiate. Burial will follow in Lakeview Cemetery, Clarkston, with the Cedar Lodge conducting the grave service.

Congress May Get Crack at Contract

a news conference today (3 p.m., EST).

Middle South Utilities, Inc., headed by Edgar H. Dixon, and the Southern Co., headed by Eugene Yates, have concluded a 25-year contract with AEC to furnish the TVA with some of the additional power it may supply atom plants in the future. The utility group proposes building a 107-million-dollar plant at West Memphis, Ark.

The SEC is considering plans for the group to invest 5½ million dollars in the newly created Mississippi Valley Generating Co., formed to handle the project.

On this phase, Chairman Demmler annouced yesterday, the commission will close hearings Dec. 23 and will give opposing lawyers until Jan. 18 to file all additional legal arguments. Demmler has said the commission may reach a decision in perhaps two weeks after that.

Condition of Pope Still Is Critical

exploratory X-ray and the fact he again did some work yesterday added to the pontiff's weakness.

Among the tasks believed to weigh rather heavily on the Pope is that of preparing his 16th Christmas message to the world, which is scheduled to be delivered Christmas Eve if he is able.

Since his dangerous collapse Dec. 2, the Pope has continued to concern himself with church affairs although his doctors have cautioned him to rest as much as possible for at least a month. Three times during the past 13 days he has broadcast brief radio messages from his bedside.

Red Cross Announces Bloodmobile Visit

The Oakland County Chapter of the American Red Cross announced today that 72 pints of blood were collected during the last bloodmobile visit here.

Appointments can be made now for the next visit Jan. 11 at the Elks Temple on Orchard Lake Ave.

Interested parties can call the Red Cross office at FE 4-3575.

Perhaps Not Cultural but Sure-Fire Bait

LONDON (INS) — Do Marilyn Monroe's charms further the spread of culture?

Complaining that the "cultural relations division" of the British embassy in Bonn would use an American Monroe film to woo the Germans, the London Daily Express insisted the "attractions can hardly be called cultural."

Chicago in for Tidal Wave Tuesday, Doctor Warns

CHICAGO (UP) — The world is in for earthquakes, tidal waves and volcanic eruptions next Tuesday, ousted college physician Charles Laughead said. But it won't exactly come to an end.

Laughead, who was fired from his post with Michigan State College on grounds that he was predicting the end of the world, made this reassuring forecast here yesterday as he consulted with a fellow believer in imminent doom.

Next Tuesday, he said, will be merely a "turning point toward catastrophe in this part of the world." Chicago will be hit by a tidal wave, the ground from Hudson's Bay to the Gulf of Mexico may rise and the legendary continents of Atlantis and Mu may emerge from the seas, Laughead said.

He warned that the eastern and western seaboards should also be on the lookout for "cataclysmic" upheavals.

But things won't get really bad until 1955, the tall, ascetic-looking physician said.

By that time, he said, it's quite likely that all the land masses as they now exist will sink beneath the oceans and be replaced by new continents. Men from other planets may rescue a few of the earthlings in space ships, he said.

Laughead refused to say whether he's going to stick it out in Chicago next Tuesday or go to some drier city.

"I myself expect to be in the world in the shape I now represent on Dec. 22, he said. "But what changes I am making in my life as a result of this prophecy are matters of my own personal conviction—not for public explanation."

Laughead, 44, and his wife received newsmen in the home of Mrs. Dorothy E. Martin of suburban Oak Park. He gave Mrs. Martin full credit for the predictions and said she had received the news from friends in outer space.

Mrs. Martin agreed that last March she was sitting in her living room when suddenly there was a buzzing in my head, like a signal, and I picked up a pencil."

"I started writing, but there was no thought involved," she said. "The pencil just wrote messages. One of them was that there would be this tidal wave hitting Lake Michigan Dec. 21 and then spreading to other cities."

The messages, she said, came from "connoiters" who live on an undiscovered planet called "Clarion." "Connoiters" often check up on the world in flying saucers of "discs," she said.

Both Laughead and Mrs. Martin refused to comment on the earthquakes which hit the West Coast yesterday. But Laughead said the breakup of the world as we know it has already started in other areas. He cited the earthquakes in Assam and Tibet in 1950.

Early this week, Laughead was fired from his college job, which paid $10,000 a year. John A. Hannah, president of the college, said it was his understanding that Laughead had been going about saying the world would end Tuesday.

Seek More Information on Mindszenty Release

VIENNA (UP)—Catholic officials said today they were "bending every effort" to get more information about the reported release of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty from jail in Communist Hungary.

The unconfirmed reports of his release was published yesterday by the Austrian Catholic News Service, the official voice of the church in Austria. It quoted "usually reliable" sources.

Selfridge Pilot Dies as Plane Crashes

police and Pontiac Post Troopers Charles Johnson and Joseph Kendzierski. Holly Patrolman Robert Prose and Fire Chief Maynard Lowe found the body about 20 feet from where the plane crashed into the ground.

Brown's body was battered beyond recognition, and his flight helmet was found in a nearby tree.

Fires were burning several hours after the crash, and about 300 people who visited the scene were held back by police who feared further explosions.

Brown is survived by his wife, Betty Jean, 26, and their two children, 3 and 1½. Mrs. Brown had been at the base to watch her husband take off for his last flight.

An Air Force investigation team would be sent to the scene to determine the cause of the crash, according to Major Gurman.

Circuit Judges Attend Testimonial Luncheon

Oakland County Circuit Judges Frank L. Doty and George B. Hartrick attended a luncheon at noon today in honor of retiring Royal Oak Municipal Court Judge John E. Brondige.

Necessity of hearing a case prevented Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland from attending. The event, at Adrian Cotter's in Berkley, was sponsored by the Southern Oakland County Bar Assn.

EVERY SPARTON SET IS "Custom-Built"

Because Sparton Builds For Quality—Not Quantity—No Mass Produced Set Can Match These Custom-Built Sparton Features:

1. Unlike most TV manufacturers, Sparton makes 70% of its own parts instead of buying them.
2. Sparton owns its own furniture factory—custom-builds its cabinets like your own fine furniture is built.
3. Every Sparton connection is hand-soldered—obviously impossible in mass produced sets.
4. All Sparton TV sets are completely assembled in Sparton plants.
5. Every Sparton set is individually inspected as it comes off the line. There is no spot checking as in mass production factories.

India Attempts to Preserve Two of Oldest Tribes

NEW DELHI (AP) — Indian government sociologists and anthropologists are struggling to preserve two of South Asia's oldest tribes, each on the brink of extinction. The scientists have been spurred this year by one of their more notable victories—the birth of 50 babies to mothers of the Toda tribe in South India.

However, the battle to save the primitive Andaman island aborigines is not going so well. The Andamanese and the Aodas, although separated by the wide stretch of water of the Bay of Bengal, seem to have been traveling the same road toward extinction in recent years. Census counts last year listed less than 500 Todas and 100 Andamanese.

Low birth rates, poor diets, disease and conflicts with the modern world have played havoc with these tribes as civilization uprooted them from their jungle homes. A century ago each tribe was thousands strong.

Hal Boyle Says:

Let's Force Modernists to Leave Old Santa Alone

NEW YORK (AP) — Sidewalk reflections of a pavement Plato:

If a grinning, skinny old man wearing a neatly clipped grey mustache, a pink shirt, and a stylish charcoal black suit climbs down your chimney on Christmas Eve, don't shoot him or phone for the police.

He may be Santa Claus!

Christmas has gone so modernistic that, sooner or later, someone is going to start a movement to take away old Santa's beard, put him on a diet and turn him into a fashion plate

But do we want that? Would it really improve Santa Claus to make him look like one of those neat, crisp fellows in the men of distinction ads?

The great value of Santa Claus has been that he makes no effort to keep up with the times, and has remained jolly and changeless and old-fashioned for centuries—a symbol of selfless kindness.

It is a mistake to try to modernize great traditions, and Christmas is a great tradition. But in recent years it has been getting more and more arty and, perhaps, less and less hearty.

Take the Christmas tree itself. Any person of middle age can recall the shared joy of a time when decorating the Christmas tree was a matter of family pride. Everybody took part—Dad, Mom, and the kids.

But in many homes the Christmas tree has become so arty, so tortured out of shape, it is unrecognizable. You go into a guy's home and ask him what he's doing with a clothes rack in his living room, and he replies indignantly:

"What do you mean—clothes rack? That's our Christmas tree."

To make one of these modernistic Christmas trees, the last thing in the world you want is an actual tree. First you need a course in expressionism in the nearest art school. Then you take a stuffed moose head, and lay a piece of bone-white driftwood across its widespread antlers. Next you tear apart an old mattress, then attach the coils of springs to the antlers with a pair of pliers.

Man, you've got something—the most up-to-date Christmas tree on the block, even if you have to explain to the neighbors what it is.

The same situation holds true with Christmas cards. There was a time when you could pick up a Christmas card and tell what it was by how it looked and the message printed on it. If you can do that today, the card is regarded as a flop.

I just opened an envelope on my desk a moment ago. It held a card showing a clown seated on an old soda fountain chair and bore this message: "Ah Merriment." I assume this is a Christmas card, and not an invitation to the circus, merely because this is December and the circus isn't in town.

Well, maybe I'm just getting to be a middle-aged fogy. But don't most of us look back to a time when Christmas, always a season of the flowering spirit, had more of heart than art in it? Let's make the modernists keep their paws off Santa Claus. He's perfect as he is.

S-D Day a Success

In the opinion of Safety experts President Eisenhower's S-D Day was a success.

It was that on at least two counts. Not only did it reduce accidents, injuries and deaths, but it proved that the Nation's terrible traffic record can be improved greatly by extra effort.

When the final returns were in they showed that in the 24 hours 49 persons had lost their lives in traffic and 873 were injured in 2,583 accidents. Motorists and pedestrians of Michigan distinguished themselves by completing the day without a single death. Unfortunately, this fine record was marred by the fatal injury of a woman pedestrian who died on Thursday.

To evaluate S-D properly it is necessary to compare the figures above with those of two other Winter days. On December 8 deaths totaled 67 and 2,144 were injured. On December 16, 1953, the death toll was 60 and 1,807 were injured.

With last year's traffic deaths numbering 38,300, deaths on the highways of the United States averaged 105 per day. All this makes it clear that many Americans are alive today who would have been statistics if it hadn't been for the President's crusade.

Let's make every day S-D Day!

Refugees' Gifts to U. S.

In Carnegie International Center across the street from United Nations headquarters in New York, is interesting proof that people from many lands contribute to our culture.

At this center has been staged a veritable talent show. It reveals contributions by outstanding men and women from among the hundreds of thousands of refugees who have been welcomed here to become new citizens.

This impressive display reminds us that we have benefited greatly by Communist and Fascist terror. Oppression moved many of these refugees to risk all for a new start in free America. Our reward is a wealth of diverse scientific, literary and musical contributions.

Those whose work was displayed include mathematicians, biologists, doctors, chemists, authors and composers. Besides many monographs, there are hundreds of books ranging from scholarly works of history to light fiction.

Because all of us Americans either are immigrants or their descendants, we have a lively appreciation of how much these arrivals from overseas have contributed to our national development. The display at Carnegie Center not only should intensify that appreciation but also remind us that the process is a continuing one.

Death Claims Diplomat

The United States lost one of its most distinguished citizens in the death of former Ambassador Hugh Gibson at Geneva.

Seldom has this country had as able and energetic an ambassador with as great a capacity for making friends as Hugh Gibson. From 1914 to 1938, when he retired, there were few international events in which he did not play a prominent part. Among ambassadorial posts he filled were those at Switzerland, Belgium and Brazil.

A close friend of former President Hoover, Mr. Gibson never lost interest in international affairs. Since 1951 he had been director of the 20 nation International Committee for European Migration.

Though death has ended the labors of this ambassador, author and patriot, the record of his services to the country will live long in our history.

Greeks Riot Over Cyprus

It is regrettable that demands for union of Cyprus with Greece should lead to an attack by Greek students on the American mission in Athens.

An AP dispatch says that the demonstration was against U. S. refusal to back the Cypriotes. Their agitation is just another fruit of growing nationalism and it has had the effect of dividing our Allies.

On the one side are the mainland Greeks and the 80 per cent of the islanders who are Greeks. On the other are Turkey and Britain who oppose union.

With the issue soon to come before the U. N. Political Committee, Britain has left no doubt about its stand. It regards the Crown Colony of Cyprus, which sits astride the Eastern Mediterranean Sea and air routes, as too valuable strategically to give up. That our Government agrees was indicated in September when our representative abstained from voting to put Cyprus on the U. N. agenda.

★ ★ ★

One can hope that calm reason will prevail in Athens. Eventually Cyprus probably will go to Greece. But until the Near East situation crystallizes more firmly in favor of the West, strategic considerations must remain the deciding factor.

Postponed Induction Gets Approval of 31 Young Men

Drinking: What if you do before you drive you are putting the quart before the hearse.

Thursday was the December army induction date for 35 young men called to military service by the two local draft boards. All had received their "greetings" and were ready to go. But only a short time before, state headquarters decided that those who preferred to spend Christmas at home could do so upon request and go on Dec. 27. All took advantage of the offer except four and they were inducted Thursday. Their decision to go as first ordered was unique—it means that they will be discharged and home for Christmas in 1956 after having served their two year stretch. The others will still be in the service on that Christmas.

The men at Pontiac Naval Reserve Surface Division, according to

Believes Pontiac Needs a Drag Strip for Young Boys Who Want to Race Cars

(Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.)

We believe that Pontiac should have a drag strip for the young boys who like to race their cars against each other. It would help to cut down juvenile delinquency because of the time the youngsters would spend in helping fix cars, helping keep track of the records and equipment. It would also decrease the number of accidents caused by young boys who go racing on our main streets.

After the drag strip has been built, we believe that each person who wants to race his car should pay a small fee for the use of the strip and equipment. At this rate, the strip would soon pay for itself.

We also believe that they should construct a set of rules for the drivers and cars to follow. The cars should be thoroughly gone over by police officials and track officials before allowed on the strip.

There should be a group of fathers, sons and some officers from the Police Dept. to be judges and officials of the strip.

The track should be one mile long and about 4 lanes wide. It ought to be made of asphalt.

Student Expresses Views on Overcrowded Schools

I have given much thought to the problem of overcrowded schools. My opinion is that if parents, teachers and students worked together, Pontiac could at least have another high school and it also needs junior high schools.

I think that a student has a better chance of learning if he is in a classroom that is not overcrowded. With a smaller number of students in a classroom, the teacher would have more time to spend with those who need extra help.

In other cities that have had this problem, in order to give their children a better education, parents were more than willing to pay higher taxes, so that their schools could be as they should be.

Union Member Agrees With 'Union Man's Wife'

I am in full accord with the statements by a "Union Man's Wife." I am a union man and also a 25 year man. A strike for demand such as for a guaranteed annual wage can't help but could cause a long, drawn out strike and should be well considered and chewed over before forcing it on the union membership.

If every member gets out and votes when the time comes, I am sure the annual wage demand will be voted down. After all there are an awful lot of union members still around who went through the 4-month strike the lady mentioned.

This $5 assessment I don't like either. A $25,000,000 fund is no good if you can't get at least $40 or $50 a week out of it to support your family and help affect the current bills instead of having to go back to work with hundreds of dollars in debts to be paid.

Careful Drivers Saved Life of Pet Dog

Our dog, "Geeda" is 11 years old and her reflexes are slow and deceptive. Since our son joined the Air Force, Aug. 12, 1954, she has transferred her affections to the current paper boy.

I would like to thank two careful drivers who were traveling Williams Lake Rd. recently. The road is a series of curves and apparently Geeda crossed before the approaching cars.

One car swerved and missed her but she continued crossing and the other car struck her an unavoidable glancing blow.

Both drivers had absolute control of their cars and kindness in their hearts. Geeda is fine and my son is wondering if she will recognize him when he comes home for Christmas.

That day was SD day for Geeda, thanks to these two unknown men.

Believes Lonely Widows Need a Social Club

I have noticed several letters in your paper regarding a "lonely widows' club." That is a matter I had never given a thought to, but now that it has come to my attention, I heartily agree that there should be a "get-together" club.

I have been a widower for 9 years and am out all day meeting people and having a pleasant time. After supper I can pick up a pal and go to a saloon, club or any place I like, and this is all right, but let a lonely widow do the same thing, what a talk there would be!! All the good people would not want to speak to her.

Perhaps some of these women, like myself, have raised a family of children who have married and have families of their own. I can go out and enjoy myself whenever I please, but the lonely widow must sit alone, look at the four walls and dream of the past.

Says Christmas Parade Best in Pontiac History

Congratulations for the best yet in Christmas parades in Pontiac! In particular is noted the community spirit from so many scores in creating something beautiful for all to see.

I hope these interests will grow and grow and that more groups will enter floats in next year's parade. I also hope that the core of the parade will continue to denote the commemoration of Christmas as the birthday of Christ.

Then the decorations and tinsel which naturally follow will all be in keeping, making Christ's birthday always the most beautiful and joyful day of the year.

The postman is one person who comes to your home every business day in the year: hot, cold, sunshine, rain, sleet, snow and ice. He comes regardless of the weather.

He walks about 15 miles a day. The postman has not had a salary adjustment in 4 or 5 years. He is required to buy uniforms which are not suitable for dress wear.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.—Psalms 46:5.

★ ★ ★

The Church may have seen its duty imperfectly, for it is made up of fallible things, but when all is said it has been the one power through nearly two thousand years which has stood for peace, for brotherhood and for the cause of the poor and distressed.—Scott.

David Lawrence Says:

Ike May Be Nominated by Both Parties in 1956

WASHINGTON — Once upon a time General Dwight Eisenhower, while chatting with a soldier friend, said that he would like to run for president but only if he could be nominated by both political parties. This happened not so many years ago, when the Eisenhower name was already beginning to appear in the newspapers as a possible presidential nominee.

The soldier friend said that such a development would not be welcomed because it would eliminate the two-party system which is so traditional in America, but Eisenhower clung to the concept until he was forced to choose between a Democratic and a Republican presidential nomination. But now that he has to deal with a Democratic Congress, he relishes the prospect of playing a nonpartisan role.

It wouldn't be surprising if in 1956 the idea of nominating President Eisenhower on both party tickets comes up for public discussion.

For Eisenhower has managed in recent weeks to extricate himself from the position of a party man, and most of his political fighting has been inside the Republican party.

Today the so-called left wing in the Republican Party—if that be the proper term to use as the opposite of what the pro-Eisenhower folks now call the right wing — is enthusiastically praising the President's leadership in that respect and is rejoicing over the defeat, if not the complete overthrow, of the Republican right wing.

These "left wing" Republicans are saying that the recent vote in the Senate was a clear-cut division between the two factions of the party and that it proves Eisenhower now is leader and can afford to ignore, if not further condemn and run out of the party, those who do disagree with him.

At the moment, moreover, warm words of praise are being given to the President for having successfully wooed the Democratic leaders in Congress to his side this week. The assumption is that he will get even more help from the Democrats next session than from the so-called right wing Republicans and that he will thus reconstitute his majority by building it out of the Democrats in Congress and a big chunk of the Republican Party.

Eisenhower was opposed for the nomination by many of the Taft men in the Republican Party in 1952 primarily because they believed that at heart he was a better Democrat than Republican. In fact, that's his reputation abroad.

The moment the news dispatches record Eisenhower as favoring bigger spending programs for them and as saying or doing things to disassociate himself from the so-called right wing Republicans, the more popular he becomes in the eyes of the European press. They have an almost atomic terror about the possible stoppage by "right wing" Republicans of the flow of billions to Europe.

This writer last spring, while talking to a prominent official of an important European government, found him asking about the probable outcome of the congressional elections. When told that the Democrats might get control, the official remarked: "Well, Ike will get along well with them, as he is more of a Democrat than a Republican anyhow, isn't he?"

Judging by the way the President has accepted the advice and guidance of the "left wing" of his party, it would appear that he believes in many, if not all, of the policies of the Roosevelt-Truman administrations under which he served. It seems natural for him, therefore, to be fighting the "right wing" Republicans who themselves have criticized his close friend, General Marshall, and Secretary Acheson and other officials of the Democratic administration.

The President himself probably would not agree that he is devoid of all partisan feeling. He is happiest, of course, when he doesn't have to identify himself with either party, though in 1951 there was a serious effort made to feel him out on the possible acceptance of the Democratic nomination and he declined the overtures.

It is undoubtedly true that today President Eisenhower is very popular with the Democrats and certainly, now that he has made common cause with the so-called left wing in the Republican Party, it would not be illogical if the "left wing" Democrats should want to see him nominated on their ticket, too, so as to assure the "left wing" of continued control of the whole government.

It would, to be sure, be a novelty to have a president nominated by the two major parties—but it is possible, since the primaries in most states are open to anybody and a write-in is permitted in several states. In California Senator Knowland was nominated in the primaries of both the Republican and Democratic parties and had no opposition in the election of his present term.

Notwithstanding this and the fact that the California senator has voted in Congress for 87 per cent of the Eisenhower program, he is called a "right wing" Republican by the "left wing" press. It must be that any senator who deviates only by the slightest margin from the administration is promptly put in the political doghouse by those who purport to speak for or reflect the viewpoint of President Eisenhower.

A presidential nomination for the same man by two parties would not be unnatural in a period when the trend toward one-man government and a one-party government continues—as dissenters are condemned, censured or threatened with the "purge." This is certainly normal in one-party countries.

Wheat as It Comes From Threshing More Appetizing Source of Vitamins

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

I have managed to procure a grinding mill but I find that the few stores that have plain wheat for retail sale in this area have a price tag on it of 15c per pound. That is equivalent to $9 a bushel. If wheat is such a rare, precious commodity, how can a poor man afford to return to the staff of life? (C. W. W.)

Take a little trip out in the country some day, between the first of September and the last of November. You may find a farmer who not only grows wheat but will even sell you a peck or a bushel or a bag of it without betraying astonishment at your intention to eat the stuff.

In the pamphlet "Wheat to Eat" available on request if you provide stamped, self-addressed envelope, among numerous tried and satisfactory recipes for preparing plain wheat in various dishes or treats for the table, there is the report of a New Jersey retired farmer who said his family usually ate their own wheat for breakfast, sometimes for supper, toasted a bit before griding, to give it a nutty flavor. In his farming days he received 56 cents a bushel for his wheat, but as a retired person residing in the city he finds a bushel, all prettied up and flabbergasted in the latest fashion costs him about $60.

For the benefit of anyone who has the gumption to procure a supply of plain wheat and use it in the everyday family diet, I point out once again that wheat as it comes from the thresher is not only more appetizing than any refined wheat product but it is the best food source of the vitamins (of the B-complex) in which the ordinary American diet is so often deficient.

And may I remind you further that in my opinion as an optimal daily intake of vitamin B complex is the best heart tonic child or adult with weak heart can use.

Culinary use of wheat, entire, cracked, coarsely ground or freshly ground to flour every day or at least twice a week, in place of refined, doctored, sugary breakfast foods, so-called, and in place of refined white flour is prerequisite for the prevention or cure of Yankee stomach, peptic ulcer, chronic constipation and the colon derangement known to many victims as mucous "colitis."

If you happen to be subject to any of the troubles mentioned, it can do no harm to let me "tell you more." Not that all the other doctors are out of step, but just that I've picked up from all the other doctors a considerable amount of inside information, some of which is supported by scientific experiments. So, when I say "in my opinion" I mean to imply merely that I am giving what seems to be the medical consensus of the day.

Some people report that they have not only freed themselves from a bad habit but they have experienced improvement in general health from the study of Little Lesson No. 25—"The Constipation Habit and Colon Hygiene." For this 30-page booklet send 25c and stamped, self-addressed envelope. Slip it into purse or pocket so you'll have something to read when there's nothing better within reach.

Signed letters not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. Brady if a stamped, self addressed envelope is enclosed, etc.

Senators Rap Soviet Demand

Suggestion That U.S. Leave Formosa Draws Sharp Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's demand that United States forces abandon the Chinese Nationalist island of Formosa drew sharp retorts today from several Republican and Democrats senators.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told newsmen:

"There is less likelihood that we'll get out of Formosa, where they want us, than that the Russians will have to get out of Poland, for instance, where they are not wanted. They are in Poland against the will of the people—by their power and strength."

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, termed the Russian Foreign Ministry's demand, broadcast Wednesday night by Moscow radio, an attempt to disguise the Kremlin's own perfidy and its own violations of postwar agreements."

Sen. Green (D-RI), another committee member said the broadcast seemed "a strangely informal way" for the Russians to issue a demand that this country get out of Formosa.

"Formosa is an essential element in our defense in the Pacific," he said, as well as the main refuge for the Chinese Nationalist regime.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL

Crash Traps Suspect After Bank Robbery

BUFFALO, Minn. (AP)—A logging camp cook, fleeing with $6,100 taken from a bank here, ended up in the hospital late yesterday when his getaway car crashed into another 15 minutes after the holdup.

Ole Arseth, 49, Isabella, Minn., was captured in a chase organized by George Laplant, off-duty Buffalo police chief, who walked unarmed into the Oakley National Bank while the holdup was in progress. Laplant heard a whispered warning from cashier Harold Templin, raced to his police car, radioed the alarm and took off after the fleeing gunman.

About 100,000 Americans are employed in waterworks.

Plan Grade Separations

DETROIT (AP) — Mayor Albert E. Cobo and Glenn C. Richards, public works commissioner, said Thursday plans for 64 grade separations in Detroit will be started at once. Cost of the project is estimated at 90-billion dollars. The program's final approval hinges on congressional passage of President Eisenhower's highway program.

High Voltage Wire Fatal

TEKONSHA (AP) — Wayne Kidney, 26, of Burlington, was electrocuted Thursday night when he stepped on a high voltage wire after knocking down a utility pole with his car on M60 three miles west of Tekonsha. Calhoun County Coroner R. D. Scott said Kidney apparently stepped out of his car to get help and failed to see the wire.

Deaths Last Night

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Vice Adm. Thomas L. Gatch, 63, in the naval service for more than 40 years before he retired in 1947 because of injuries suffered while skipper of the battleship South Dakota in the Battle of Santa Cruz in World War II.

ROME—Federico Gulinelli, 88, painter and miniaturist, known as the owner of Rome's famed old Cafe Greco Antico, patronized for decades by Italian and foreign artists and tourists.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — Lee Morse, 50, blues singer and song writer of the 1920s and 1930s, and a sister of Glenn Taylor, former U.S. senator from Idaho.

WASHINGTON — Mrs. Homer B. Harlan, 93, who was born across the street from the Capitol while President Lincoln was being inaugurated in 1861, and a daughter of Martin F. Conway, first representative in Congress from Kansas.

AKRON, Ohio—Joseph M. Aylward, 67, circulation manager of the Akron Beacon-Journal since 1920 and former circulation manager of the old Pittsburgh Telegraph and Times.

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Theodore Malvin Matson, 81, director of the Bureau of Highway traffic at Yale University since 1953.

CLEVELAND — Joseph H. Wayne, 62, former state superintendent of New York railways and since 1945 vice president of a Cleveland electrical equipment manufacturing company.

CHICAGO—Otakar Valasek, 70, a political cartoonist for the old Chicago Herald Examiner before World War I, and later a commercial artist.

CRANBROOK, B.C. — The Rt. Rev. Frederick Patrick Clark, 45, bishop of the Anglican diocese of Kootenay since 1948.

Parents Save 6 in Fire

THOMPSONVILLE (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hogarth fought through a wall of flames Thursday to save their six children from a fire which destroyed their home. The parents led the children to safety. As the last child emerged from the burning house, the ceiling fell blocking the entrance to the house.

The animal referred to in the United States as an Elk is technically a wapiti, the true elk being a European animal.

Wife Wins Acquittal in Husband's Death

LAKE ANDES, S.D. (AP) — Mrs. Blanche Conzemius, 36 - year - old mother of 10, was found innocent yesterday of a charge of murdering her husband in their rural home here last September.

Mrs. Conzemius testified she had fired on her mate after he had sought to molest their oldest daughter, 13.

"When a father makes an attack on a daughter he is a trespasser in his own home, forfeits his right to be in the house and is subject to the consequences any trespasser might expect," Circuit Judge James R. Bandy said in his charge to jurors.

New Reserve Center for Army at Flint

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has released funds to build a new reserve center with a training capacity for 200 men at Flint, Mich.

The Flint center is among 14 reserve training centers to be built in 10 states at a total estimated cost of $1,806,000.

The Army said engineers will select and acquire sites for each should start within three to six months after sites are selected.

Plunges to Death

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP)—William Svatos, 50, a Chicago boiler inspector plunged to his death from a fifth-floor hotel room last night after apparently drinking two bottles of a disinfectant. No notes were found in his room.

Eind U.S. Employes Grow Wary of Others

WASHINGTON (AP)—Professional-level government employes in Washington are policing their reading habits and thinking and are wary of their associates, says Dr. Marie Jahoda, associate director of New York University's Research Center for Human Relations.

"The idea of confidence in other people—a traditionally American concept—is being gradually driven to the background," she told a meeting here of the Washington Assn. of Scientists.

Dr. Jahoda helped conduct a recent "climate of thought" study among 70 ranking government employes in 12 agencies.

Rodeo Star Impounded for Moving Too Fast

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Austin (Buck) Rutherford, of Lenapah, Okla., who makes his living hanging on rodeo stock, spent yesterday hanging tinsel on a courthouse Christmas tree.

He is serving a 10-day jail term for speeding 100 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone, and Sheriff Norman Short said he made the cowboy a trusty.

The Oklahoman is top contender for Cowboy of the Year honors as the nation's leading winner of rodeo prize money.

Nice, Noisy and Normal Quads Pass 10th Birthday

HOLLIS, N.Y. (AP) — The Cirminello quads are 10 years old now, and four nicer, noisier, more normal youngsters you couldn't find anywhere.

Maureen, Eileen, Kathleen and Michael live with their parents, Joseph and Kathleen Cirminello, in a two-story gray stucco house in this pleasant residential community in Queens, Long Island.

• • •

Their life is bounded by Queens Public School 134 five blocks away, the neighborhood Methodist church and evenings of homework, television and devoted parents.

To them the publicity surrounding their birth in a Philadelphia hospital Nov. 1, 1944, is apparently just as interesting as the adventures of Donald Duck, their only comic book—and not a whit more personal.

All are good looking, thin youngsters, with straight, dark brown hair and bright brown eyes. Michael has a spatter of freckles across his nose.

• • •

Mrs. Cirminello, the former Kathleen Virginia Hatcher, of Okmulgee, Okla., is a pretty, dark-haired, placid woman who can be fond and objective at the same time.

"I have a headache all the time they're home," she says as a matter of unregretted fact. "So help me, it starts when they come home and it stops when they go to bed. They get rowdier and louder every year."

Joseph Cirminello is an accountant investigator with the Securities and Exchange Commission. He was working in Philadelphia with the commission and living in Upper Darby, Pa., when the quads, their only children, were born to his 30-year-old wife. They moved to Arlington, Va., in 1948, and here four years ago.

Since the quads' weights at birth ranged from 2 pounds 14 ounces to 3½ pounds, their health has been a constant consideration.

"They've always been thin and wiry and with lots of stamina," Mrs. Cirminello says. "The last day of every month I line them up and weigh and measure them. They weigh from 54 to 59 pounds, and Maureen, the tallest, is 54½ inches. Kathleen was the smallest at birth and still is, but she's healthy.

Eileen wants to be a secretary, Maureen a nurse and Kathleen "a mother like Mama." Michael is all set to be a doctor, "because I think I can make a lot of friends that way. A surgeon."

Vet Gets Dog Tag Lost During WWI

SUTTONS BAY (UP) — An Army identification tag, lost by Andrew Grohowski during World War I, has been returned to the Suttons Bay man 35 years after he lost it at Camp Pike, Ark.

Grohowski said he received a letter recently from Clarence Bush, Arlington, Va., who said the identification plate, known as a "dog tag," was dug up by a soldier under his command in 1941 and that he has been carrying it with him ever since.

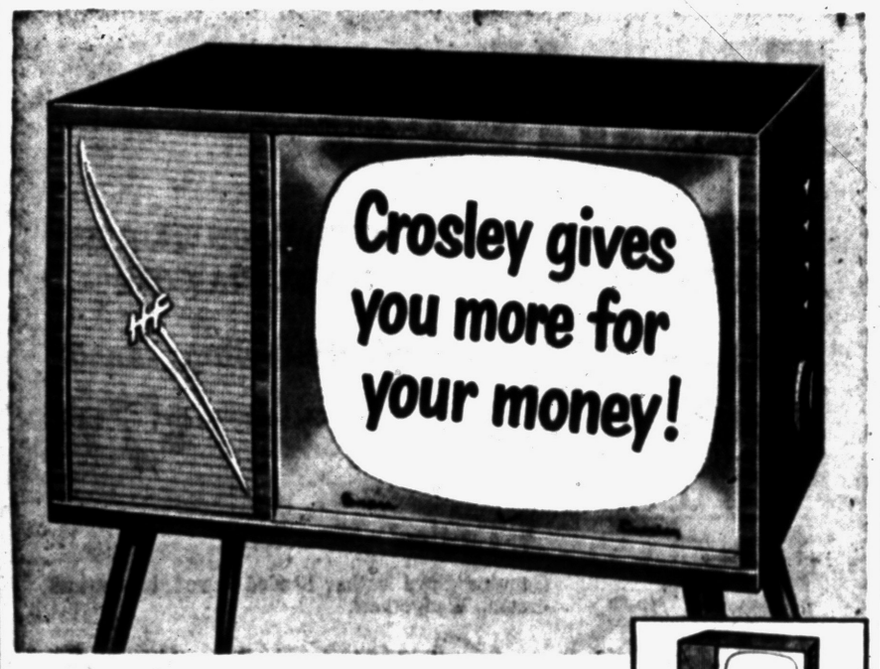

Bush said he traced the plate to Grohowski through Army records in Washington. He mailed it to Grohowski when the Suttons Bay man said he would like to have it as a souvenir. The name of Camp Pike was changed after World War I and is now known as Camp Robinson.

The words "Andrew Grohowski, Pvt. Co. L. 345th Infantry, National Guard" were still legible on the tag.

Police Collecting to Buy Gift for 1953 Auto Victim

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Police are taking up a collection to buy a Christmas present for a traffic accident victim who has been confined to St. Mary's Hospital here since April, 1953.

Mrs. Marie Kapnick, 28, lost both legs, suffered a broken arm, shoulder and collar bone and internal injuries when her car skidded and struck a guard rail on a street in the northeast section of the city.

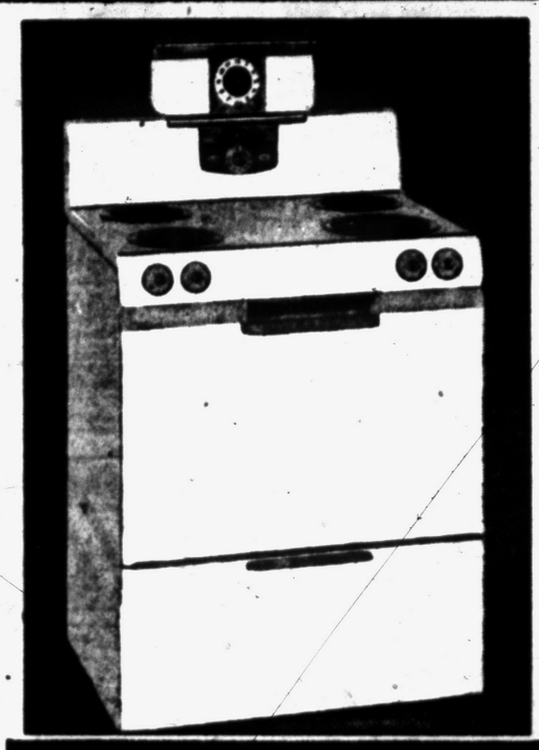

Mrs. Kapnick was thrown from the car and pinned against the rail.

Lt. Raymond Jennings of the police Traffic Bureau said her case came to his attention while he was looking up records for national Safe Driving Day Wednesday.

Hospital physicians said complication from Mrs. Kapnick's injuries have kept her in constant pain for the 605 days since her accident. Her physician says she may have to remain in the hospital for some time.

Three months ago, Mrs. Kapnick's mother died of a heart attack while visiting her at the hospital. Physicians said this new shock and her long hospital stay have greatly discouraged Mrs. Kapnick.

A GOLDEN BELL FOR CHRISTMAS TIME

How would you like to have a golden bell for your Christmas tree or for your front window. This one has a clapper that you can swing back and forth as in a real bell. Like many famous bells, it has a design on it. Some, like our Liberty Bell, have words written on them too.

1. Fold a piece of bright yellow construction paper such as you can buy at a school supply or stationery store. Cut out the big half bell (A) from the picture and use it as a pattern. Placing its straight edge along the fold in the construction paper as in (C), trace with a pencil around the curved edge. Then cut the construction paper along the pencil line. Unfold the paper and you have a complete bell. Use it as a pattern to make a second bell.

2. With green crayon, draw a design on one side of each bell. You can use the design in the picture or make a simpler one of your own.

3. Keeping the design on the outside, paste the two bells together along the outer edges but not along the bottom nor the top. Press them under a book until dry. Punch a round hole through the tops, where the little circle is.

4. Cut out the clapper (B), use it as a pattern. Punch a hole where the small circle is at the top.

5. Slip the clapper up inside the double bell until you can see through all three holes. Tie a loop of string through them. Then if you bend the double bell so there is a little space between the sides the clapper will swing back and forth. The bell is now ready to hang up.

Big Push Digs Up Lasting Forest Path

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania museum commission reports the most notable war victory demonstration ever made in the Commonwealth followed destruction of the Spanish fleet during the Spanish-American War.

To celebrate the victory, youngsters of Berks county, gathered at a traditional meeting place on a mountain to push "the Rocking Stone," a huge boulder that teetered as if on a pivot.

The tradition was that the stone would make strange sounds like a crying man. Youngsters had pushed the stone following victories in the Mexican and Civil wars.

However, the youngsters were a little too enthusiastic in 1898. The boulder rocked over into the valley below, plowing a path through the mountain forest that can still be seen.

Name Formosa Adviser

EMPIRE (AP)—John M. Pemberton, commander of the Air Force radar station in Empire, has been transferred to Formosa to become a military advisor to the Chinese National Air Force. His successor has not been named.

The smog which covered London in December, 1952 was blamed for 4,000 deaths.

Show Business

Dave Chasen Once Played Stooge, Now One of Top Restaurateurs

By EDDIE CANTOR

Years ago the great comedian, Joe Cook, had an unusual stooge in his act. This guy would black out his teeth, receive more than his share of Seltzer in the face, have clubs bounce off his head—all the while smiling at the audience with a look on his face that would seem to say, "Oh, you poor fools, you're missing all the fun."

During the years this stooge was with Joe Cook he made friends in and out of show business. He couldn't help it; he just happens to be a friendly guy.

Though he has quit the business, today he has more friends than ever. He is one of the most important restaurateurs in America. It's Dave Chasen I'm talking about and his famous restaurant, Chasen's, in Los Angeles has the finest food and the nicest surroundings of any eating place west of Chicago.

Dave has not lost his sense of showmanship. Adorning the walls, I love the sign which reads, "Eat here and keep your wife for a pet" and this bit of philosophy: "Remember, a halo has to slip only a few inches to have it become a noose."

There's a wonderful painting of W. C. Fields dressed as Queen Victoria. As you enter the restaurant, the first thing that greets your eye is a painting of the dapper former mayor of New York, the late James A. Walker.

Dave does not forget his old friends and his old friends remember Chasen, some of them three or four times a week. His tables are always filled with celebrities. Last Saturday night after his show, Jimmy Durante sat at my table. We were explaining to him about split infinitives. Jimmy loved the expression. "I don't split 'em," he laughed with glee. "When I goes to work on a infinitive, I break it up in little pieces."

The prices at Chasen's are quite reasonable, but Jack Benny complained that they had no right to charge $2.50 for liver. He got quite a laugh when he addressed himself to the proprietor: "Dave, do you know that when I was a young fellow there wasn't a man alive who could lift two and a half dollars worth of liver?" If you ever get to this part of the country and go to Chasen's, mention my name. Not only will you be getting a good table, but I'll be getting a free meal.

Commerce Chief Wins Manufacturers' Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) has announced the award to Secretary of Commerce Weeks of the "NAM Man of the year award" for this year.

Weeks resigned as NAM vice president and director when named to the cabinet by President Eisenhower. In private life, he was a Boston manufacturing executive.

The NAM award is bestowed annually to an American for "his patriotic devotion to the welfare of his country and the American enterprise system."

Parents, Teachers Swap

CARSON CITY (AP) — Carson City school teachers had Thursday off to do Christmas shopping. Parents took over the direction of classroom activities. The swap was arranged at a recent meeting of the Carson City Parent Teachers Association.

Waterford Man Sues County for $2,000

Claiming a 20-foot strip was illegally clipped from his property for a road-drainage ditch, Jessie White of 1430 Crescent Lake Rd., Waterford Township, is suing Oakland County for $2,000.

A summons to appear in the case was issued to the county and county road commission yesterday in Circuit Court.

Construction of a ditch and embankment across his 89-foot frontage has deprived him of use of the land, White asserts in a bill of complaint.

Besides maintaining a home, White says he operates a business on the land and claims the ditch has destroyed part of a landscaped lawn and reduced parking space available to his customers. No hearing date has been set.

TRAVERSE CITY (AP) — Fergus T. O'Connor, president of the Traverse City Manufacturing Co., died at Munson Hospital Wednesday night. He was 59.

Harriman's Plurality Set at 11,125 in New York

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Averell Harriman's plurality over Sen. Irving M. Ives Nov. 2 was 11,125 votes—the narrowest margin in more than a century for a New York gubernatorial election.

The State Board of Canvassers certified yesterday that Harriman polled 2,560,738 votes on the Democratic and Liberal tickets against 2,549,613 for Ives, the Republican candidate.

State Denies Expenses to Suspended Employes

LANSING (UP) — Suspended state employes cannot collect expenses from the state while they collect evidence to upset their punishment, Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard held today.

The opinion was asked by the State Conservation Department because of a request from an employe who was suspended last summer on the basis of charges by a grand jury investigating reported Upper Peninsula frauds involving department employes. The department did not say which employe asked for the expense reimbursement.

Factory Worker to Get Share of $2 Million Estate

DETROIT (UP) — William R. Scott was working at his $80-a-week auto factory job Thursday when he was notified he was one of the heirs to a $2,000,000 estate.

"I knew Uncle Bob had some money, but I certainly didn't think it was that much," Scott said. "Wow!"

Scott, 49, is one of three persons who will inherit the estate of his uncle, the late Robert O. Scott. The others are his brother, Clarence H. Scott of Albuquerque, N.M., and his sister, Mrs. Etta Mae Stricker, Windsor, Ont.

The uncle, a former Detroit real estate man, died last August at Tampa, Fla. He was 84. Some $500,000 in cash and bonds was found in several strong boxes. His Florida holdings were estimated at more than $1,000,000. These, along with his property in Detroit and Canada, produced a total estate in the neighborhood of $2,000,000.

The factory heir, a resident of suburban Highland Park, has been employed by Chrysler Corp. the past eight years. He said his inheritance came as such a surprise he didn't have any immediate plans in mind.

"Now that I know I'll get some of it, I don't know just what I'll do," he said.

New Courthouse Site

BEULAH (UP) — The Benzie County Board of Supervisors yesterday selected a site here offered debt free by the Beulah-Benzonia Chamber of Commerce for the proposed new county courthouse and jail.

Frankfort wanted the supervisors to locate the courthouse there. The courthouse is now in Beulah.

Russian Subway Secrets Printed in Encyclopedia

MOSCOW (UP) — Moscow's elaborately decorated subway is not only a transportation facility but one of the city's chief tourist attractions. Foreign visitors are always impressed by its stations decorated with mosaics and other works of art, its clean and quiet trains. But they have been puzzled by two questions:

"How long is it? And just where does it go?"

These questions have finally been answered by an article in the newly published 27th volume of the "Great Soviet Encyclopedia."

In the course of a long, lavishly illustrated piece about the subway, its mileage is given as 61.5 kilometers and a map of the whole system is printed.

See Quick Approval of Nurse Safeguards

DETROIT (UP)—Quick approval of new policies for safeguarding student nurses in state hospitals is expected today at the December meeting of the Mental Health Commission.

The new policies, prompted by the rape-slaying of Marilyn Kraai, 20, Holland, by a patient at Kalamazoo State Hospital, were approved tentatively by the commission Nov. 19.

One of the regulations provides that student nurses will never escort patients alone but must be accompanied by an attendant or a graduate nurse. Another provides that a graduate nurse must be on duty at all times in wards to which student nurses are assigned.

Approves Brewery Sale

ST. PAUL (UP)— District Judge Gustavus Loevinger Thursday approved the sale of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing Co., of St. Paul, to the Pfeiffer Brewing Co., of Detroit. The sale price was $3,805,000. Pfeiffer will take over operations Jan. 1.

SANTA AND THE MARS KING

By Lucrece Hudgins Beale

AP Newsfeatures

Chapter 13
A SPACE SHIP

It was clear to all that Santa's reindeer would never fly again.

"Oh, dear," said the King. "How can we get these things to Mars now?"

"More than that," said Santa. "How shall I deliver toys around the world on Christmas eve?"

The answer came from Tom. He didn't know it was the answer. He was just thinking out loud. He said, "If only we had a space ship!"

"That's the very thing!" cried Santa.

Then he told them that for years he had been working on the plans for a space ship.

Everyone used to want cowboy things for Christmas," Santa said: "Now I get letters every year asking for space ships. I've been trying to make one and, as a matter of fact, I have some good plans on my desk now."

He hurried to his cottage and gout out an enormous pile of blue prints. These were the plans for the space ship.

"I hadn't thought to build it for many years because I didn't think children were quite ready for space travel. But now, well, do you think we could put it together in a hurry?"

• • •

The Santa workers poured over the plans. They pointed things out to each other, frowned and murmured together in little groups. They scratched their heads, clicked their tongues, measured and counted with their fingers.

Finally they said, "We can do it."

"Will it really fly to Mars?" asked Majesty.

"Oh, certainly. If it flies at all it will fly to Mars."

"How long will it take to build it?"

"Two days and two nights."

"Hooray!" cried Tom. "Let's get started!"

In a few moments every creature in Santa Land was at work on the space ship.

Santa shut himself in his private work room. It was his job to make the secret force that would drive the ship through space.

The Mars King stuffed his pockets and hands and mouth with screws and nails. He became a sort of walking pin cushion. When anyone needed a bolt or tack he had only to yell for the King.

Tom was the errand boy who carried messages and copied plans and made lists of things needed.

Even Mrs. Claus helped. She rolled up her sleeves and mixed batter and baked wonderful things in her oven. Not for a moment did she sleep or even sit in her easy rocker by the kitchen fire.

She brought out basket after basket of fresh doughnuts and cookies and cakes. She kept a big pitcher filled with a wonderful Santa Land drink. It was made of snow and chocolate soda and whip cream and gelatin and cherries and some secret ingredient of her own that made it taste like no other drink in all the world.

In exactly two days and two nights the space ship was done. But alas, Santa had planned it for a child and there was room only for two people in it. And no room at all for Santa's four huge bags.

"We must do the best we can," said Santa. "It would take me years to plan a bigger ship. We must draw lots to see who will go."

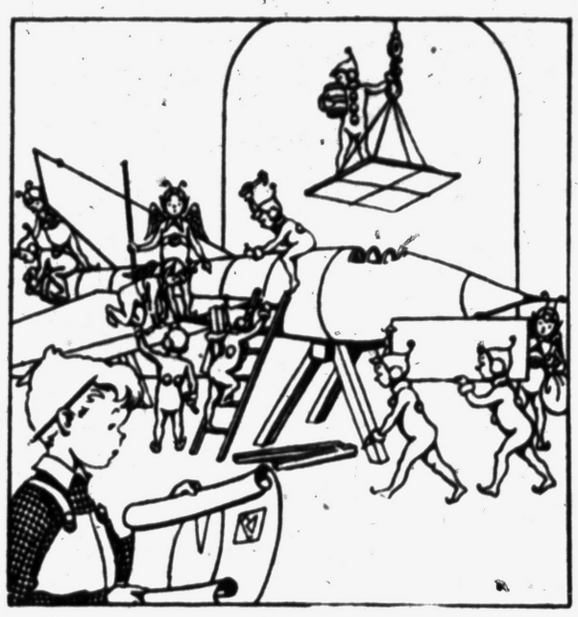

• • •

He put three slips of paper in his stocking hat. Then Majesty and Tom and Santa himself reached in and each took out a paper. The King's paper said "Go." Tom's paper said "Go." Santa's paper said "Stay."

"Never mind," said Santa. "I will come later. The thing for you to do is find some way of putting a stop to the flying saucers. When you have done that my reindeer will fly and I will bring my bags and join you on Mars.

"Now, then, speed away. Our time is very short."

(Tomorrow: Mars)

Detroit Strikes Oil on Plymouth Tract

DETROIT (AP)—A Detroit House of Correction official says a drilling company has struck oil and natural gas deposits on city-owned land near the penal institution in suburban Plymouth.

Harry H. Weinbaum, House of Correction commissioner, said yesterday:

"On the basis of even the first reports I have received the city may realize at least $50,000 a year in royalties."

Weinbaum estimated the deposit as good for a minimum of five million cubic feet of natural gas a day plus 200 barrels of oil per day.

The well was brought in on land bought two years ago by the city for $53,000.

Stars Flying to Outposts to Spend Yule With GIs

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Penny Singleton, screen and radio actress, and actor Forrest Tucker will be among 81 entertainers departing today by Air Force transports to entertain military personel overseas over Christmas.

The group, largest ever assembled for Christmas shows by the Hollywood Coordinating Committee, will visit the Far East, North Africa, Alaska, Europe and the Northeast Air Command.

Some form of heart appears in all animals complicated enough to have specialized organs for respiration, digestion or excretion.

Presidential Holiday Greetings Mailed Out

WASHINGTON (UP) — President and Mrs. Eisenhower's Christmas cards are in the mail.

The cards are white. On the first sheet the presidential seal is executed in color and the words "season's greetings" embossed in gold.

The message on the inside of the card reads "The President and Mrs. Eisenhower extend their best wishes for Christmas and the new year."

The card was prepared by Hallmark Cards and, according to Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, paid for by the chief executive.

The Eisenhowers also will send out a personal card, according to Hagerty, to a few friends.

Water use in the United States averages 100 gallons a day for every person in the country.

Postmaster Gets Shock as Skunk Crawls on Lap

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania State Game commission says the postmaster at Carmichaels, Greene County, is apprehensive about sitting on his own front lawn these days.

They quote the pastmaster this way:

"I was sitting in my easy chair on the lawn one night reading a newspaper, and I felt a tickling and scratching on my bare feet. Thinking it was one of the cats, I paid no attention.

"When the animal climbed on my lap and started rolling around, it seemed time to glance down. I did and took off. So did the 'kitten'—a baby skunk."

To Demand Uniform State Traffic Lights

LANSING (AP) — Legislation to enforce uniform traffic lights in Michigan will be filed in the 1955 Legislature, Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) said today.

Porter said a bill now being drafted would require all electric stop-and-go lights for auto traffic to be hung overhead at street intersections, while signals for pedestrial traffic would have to be limited to "wait" and "walk" signs erected only at curbs.

The bill would require vehicle signals to be red for stop yellow for warning and green for go, Porter said. He said some Michigan communities have eliminated the yellow warning signal.

Porter said his bill also would forbid colored lights of any sort outside the curb line and would prohibit overhead arches of colored lights or similar decorations.

Wife Returns Missing Shopbreaker to Jail

EASTCHURCH, England (AP) — Charles Lammin, 29, who was serving a nine-month prison sentence for shopbreaking, escaped from the local jail Monday.

Jail officials last night heard a pounding on the gate and a voice crying: "Please let me in."

It was Lammin. With him was his wife, who had persuaded him to return and finish his term.

Right-to-Work Laws Defended

National C. of C. Chief Raps Views Expressed by Labor Secretary

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Clem D. Johnston of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce says state laws which ban the union shop "are part of the effort to deal with" what he called a gap between federal laws and state police powers.

Between them, he said yesterday in a Chamber publication, "is a dangerous no man's land which may become the happy hunting ground of the leftists and labor racketeers."

• • •

The Taft-Hartley law limits the power of states to deal with labor matters, but does give them the right to ban the union shop, under which a worker must join a union within a specified time after being hired.

Johnston said businessmen are expressing "disappointment and dismay" at Secretary of Labor Mitchell's denunciation of such laws, now operative in 17 states. These laws permit a man to work without having to become a union member.

• • •

Mitchell, addressing the CIO convention in Los Angeles, said the state laws "undermine the basic strength of labor organizations." President Eisenhower, who earlier had said Mitchell was expressing a personal view, told his news conference Wednesday he had not reached a final decision on the question.

Boys Keep 'Em in Stitches

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (AP) — Eighth grade girls named their class sewing machines after boy friends "because they keep us in stitches."

Pontiac Woman Injured in Two-Car Collision

Mrs. Beth Edwards, 47, of 290 N. Paddock St., was admitted to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital yesterday with injuries suffered in a two-car collision at Auburn and Adams Rd., Avon Township.

The condition of Mrs. Edwards, who received chin and leg injuries, is reported as fair today.

Emmett R. Neff, 64, of 2225 Martin Rd., St. Clair Shores, driver of the other car, told Oakland County sheriff's deputies that he was northbound on Adams road. He stopped at Auburn road and the crash occurred when he started to cross the intersection. Neff was not injured.

Chapter 11 — — 'Suspect'

Dunn Finds Woman's Body on Firewood Elevator

THE STORY: Private Detective Jim Dunn has now met most of the Carlsons, a wealthy family summering in the Colorado mountains. Jim and his wife Nancy have been retained by Mrs. Kit Carlson who wants them to investigate a death on the West Coast which might be murder. Jim and Nancy are posing as caretakers. Mrs. Hilton Carlson, Mrs. Kit's mother-in-law, is feared by Mrs. Kit. Mrs. Oswald Carlson, the mother of Mrs. Hilton's husband, is rather eccentric and has a hobby of taxidermy.

Through the cook, Mrs. Gelstrap, Jim Dunn was informed that his client, Mrs. Kit, had taken to her bed with the beginning of a cold.

"Brought on by chill, don't you doubt it," Mrs. Gelstrap said "I just do hope you'll be able to keep us warm tonight!"

He returned to the cabin in disgust, went to bed too early to a night of restful nightmares in which an animated furnace pursued him through stacks of untouchable wood.

He woke up cold, just as the first sunlight touched the far side of the lake, moved across the water and seemed to pull a wispy tenuous mist with it.

Nancy had made a warm nest of all the covers and murmured sleepily as he got up. He had a momentary and almost irrestible impulse to pull the bedding away and accuse her of cover snatching.

Jim Dunn stretched and yawned. He dressed.

He started down the path toward the main house, in the belief he might still find some embers in his nemesis, the furnace.

He passed the turn in the path before he saw the car.

It was a small but highly polished coupe, parked near the lake shore.

He walked more quickly then, cursing silently at the sound of rushing water which could hide so completely the sound of a motor. He stopped suddenly, retraced the steps he had made in the car's direction.

The door to the basement was open. It stood wide, and he remembered distinctly closing and locking it the night before.

The basement was a gloomy cavern. Warm, pitch-scented air gushed past him to escape into the early morning chill.

He reached for the nearest drop-cord light, turned it on. A nagging familiarity about the small coupe churned in the back of his mind, was pushed aside in the stress of the moment.

The wood he had piled so laboriously, heavy pitch chunks and odds and ends of logs, threw a dark shadow at the far end. He reached the next light.

The elevator!

The last thing he had done the night before was to fill it with a liberal supply of wood and crank it up into the recess in the floor above. But the supporting ropes showed now, and the recess was no longer closed by the under side of the platform.

Jim moved more quickly, but with an added caution, and turned on the last light. The elevator platform held little wood now, carried a far different burden.

The skirts were dirt stained, twisted around the lax figure. An outstretched arm hung limply, stained palm exposed. Plump legs sprawled out grotesquely, and the heels of the polished, sensible shoes rested in a dark stain on the hard-packed dirt.

Unwanted recollection came to Jim Dunn in that instant. A memory of Miss Wister proudly parking her small coupe in the lot near the office, walking the rug path to take dictation in similar shoes.

Jim skirted the woodpile, moved to a point where he could see the face. He let out a long sigh both of disbelief and relief. Whoever owned the coupe outside, the dead woman was not Miss Wister.

He bent over, found no pulse in the limp wrist, touched gently the battered face of Angelica Carlson Jones.

No reason to doubt the cause of death. The matted mousy hair, the impossible indentation beginning at the bloodstained forehead, told of a crushed skull. Angelica's head and shoulders were partially propped against the wall while her body rested unnaturally on the pieces of pitch still on the elevator floor.

The silence of the house pulled him away from further examination, sent him running up the steep stairway. The door at its head was locked. He pounded at it with the sides of his clinched fists. He waited, listened. He pounded again and shouted. He put his ear to the wooden panel.

The silence was a desolate thing.

He kicked at the door with a booted foot, drew back as far as possible and lunged against the door with his shoulder. It held firm, and Jim was almost catapulted down the steep stairs. There was no purchase for his feet, no room for movement necessary for the sustained effort to break down the door.

He clattered down the stairs, hurried through the basement, closed and locked the outer door behind him. Bright sunlight touched the ground of the triangle. The breeze sent ripple patterns across the lake's surface, bringing color change. Small wavelets added their shore-splashing to the background of rushing creek water.

The sun gleamed from polished chrome on the small coupe. Jim moved quickly, wrenched open an unlocked door. The registration and insurance papers on the steering column told him his memory had not played him false. It was Miss Wister's car.

A POSSIBILITY—Dr. Walter R. Dornberger, missile expert, told the Chicago chapter of the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences that in 10 or 15 years rocket-propelled airliners traveling 13,000 mph are a possibility. This is an artist's conception of what such a rocket airliner might look like. Dornberger is a former general in the German army.

Invalid Woman Receives Over Million Yule Cards

JONESBORO, Ind. (INS)—Mrs. Jesse Butler sorted through a million greeting cards today while her carpenter husband contemplated building a new room onto the house to hold the cards.

Mrs. Miller was confined to a wheelchair by sickness but found an outlet for her energy in transforming old greeting cards into novelties.

Friends heard of her need and the word spread. Now the need is more for a place to store about a million cards sent her by residents of the area.

Bob Considine Says:

Sheppard Trial Expense Running Into Big Figures

CLEVELAND (INS)—What does murder cost to pursue, legally? Journalistically?

The answer is plenty.

Let's start with the defense. It retained colorful old Bill Corrigan, the home-grown Clarence Darrow, for this one. On a case of this length and importance, his fee would be (conservatively) $50,000. Probably more.

Then there is Fred Garmone, who might weigh in for half that much, and other members of the defense staff. The investigators who had to be hired to check up on prospective jurors must have cost what is called, for reasons never properly defined, a pretty penny.

An example of how many there were and how well they worked may be gained from the fact that one prospective juror was dismissed because she accepted a ride from a brother-in-law at 6:19 p.m. on the evening of such and such and engaged in the following conversation, etc., etc., etc.

It costs the defense 75 cents a page for the transcript of the trial. The other day the court stenographer came up to Bill Corrigan during a recess and said, apologetically, "You haven't paid for your transcript this week." Or some such. Corrigan lowered his jaw and boomed:

"Will-yum."

William, a real nice fellow and fine lawyer, is his son and a member of the firm.

He reached over and wrote out a check for $538.

As of Wednesday there were 5,400 pages of transcript (1,120,000 words which costs the defense over $4,000. Atop this is the immobilization of the personal practice and to some extent the personal income of Dr. Sam, Dr. Steve and Dr. Richard Sheppard.

Sam is, in effect, laid off. He has been making somewhere between $30,000 and $50,000 a year. Steve has been in drydock, as a medical adviser to the defense, and has not been overly available at the family hospital. Dr. Richard Sheppard assures me the family hospital at Bay Village is doing fine, despite the notoriety of the trial.

Dr. Elkins had to be brought in from Tucson, to speak of Sam's nervous system.

Now, as for the state:

It must pay the jurors $5 a day. If there's a long lockup, hotel rooms must be charged against the taxpayers, and food, drink, etc. It had to send people out to California to break down, or up, Susan Hayes, and picked up the tab for Dr. Lester Hoversten.

And what about us?

To tell the story of the Sheppard trial, lousy as it often has been, chemists had to ponder over things that became ink, reporters had to be sent to the scene, stories had to be written, transmitted, edited, reduced to metal, pressed against paper, folded, bound, distributed, sold.

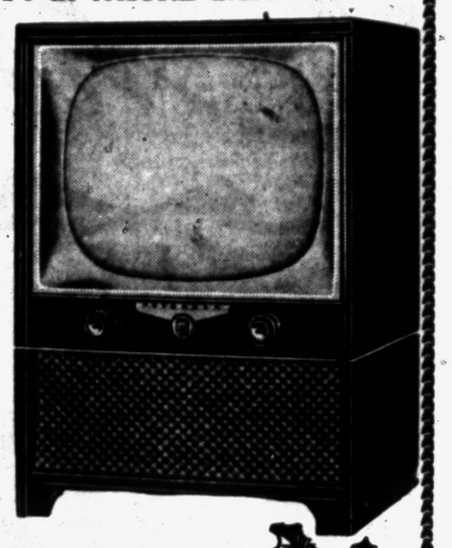

Reporters, spent by these efforts, had to eat, sleep, send things to laundries, buy taxicabs and waiters, and drink. A fine man behind the bar at the Express Grill said only today to me, he said, "I hope Sam gets another trial."

Anyway, murder runs into money. And I hope that one and all will avoid it.

'Merrily, Merrily Ring the Bells,' Theme of Birmingham Club Exhibit

Pontiac Press Photos

Mrs. Berrien Ketchum of Suffield road, Birmingham, is shown with some of the many bells she has collected from all over the country. The bells were displayed Wednesday at the Birmingham Community House when the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club held its annual Christmas exhibit. Mrs. Ketchum's collection was in keeping with the theme of the exhibit, "Merrily, Merrily Ring the Bells."

Robert Quinns Plan Party Decorations

The Robert Quinns and the Hardy Fairs planned the decoration theme for Promenaders dance held in Daniel Whitfield School.

Each member brought items for a Christmas basket to be given to a needy family at Christmas. Mrs. Howard McIntyre will be in charge of delivering the basket.

Callers for the Tuesday evening dance were Robert Earl, George Sweazy, Warren Allen, Harry Anderson and Mr. McIntyre.

Guests of the group were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Darling, the Glenn Hoisingtons, the Warren Hardys, the Guy Pattens, the Harold Millspaughs and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Schultz. January 11 is the date for the next dance.

ESA Has Meeting at YWCA

YMCA was the meeting place for Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority on Thursday evening. Final plans were discussed for the Saturday evenin gdance to be held at Twin Beach Country Club.

Issues of the sorority's state wide newspaper were distributed during the meeting. Jan. 6 is the date for the next meeting.

Don't Discard Old Container

Throwing a lipstick away—even when it's impossible to use any more — is one thing a woman hates to do. She thinks the case is pretty, and maybe she will get a refill someday, or just simply leaves it around "just in case."

If you fit into this category, you can create a new lipstick shade out of the lipstick left over in these old cases.

Take a small utensil you won't want to use for any other purpose — pottery is fine — and put all your bits and dabs of lipstick in it. Melt them over slow heat and pour carefully into the lipstick cases. Let them cool and then twist the stem. This will release lipstick from the side of the case and it's ready for use.

And the color you get from mixing various shades may be a very pleasant surprise.

Guild 3 Has Election and Yuletide Party

New officers were chosen by Guild Three of All Saints Episcopal Church when the group met for their annual Christmas party and gift exchange Tuesday in the Woodland avenue home of Mrs. Martin Parker.

Mrs. Bruce Hubbard was named president; Mrs. Curtis Patton, vice president; Mrs. Lynn Davies, treasurer and Mrs. Robinson Bronoel, secretary.

Fashionettes Hold Christmas Party

Fashionette Club held a combined Christmas and birthday party Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Leah Herveat of North Johnson avenue.

The birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Herveat. Prizes for the evening were awarded to Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Harold Paida, Mrs. Edward Omans, Mrs. Ralph Walton and Mrs. Albert Lovse.

Mrs. Nellie Georges will present a talk on handcraft at the Dec. 21 meeting.

Clean Tan Shoes

Try a combination of woolen cloth and banana skins to clean difficult tan shoes. Rub the skin on the shoes and polish with the woolen cloth. But always wipe the shoes clean as possible first.

First prize for tea table decorating was won by Mrs. Seth B. Slauson of Larchlea drive. The exhibit, sponsored by the Birmingham Farm and Garden Club, was held at the Birmingham Community House Wednesday.

Sigma Betas Have Party

Mrs. Wallace Williams opened her home on Tilden avenue Thursday evening to members of Phi chapter of Sigma Beta sorority for an annual Christmas party. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Charles Fournier and Mrs. Peter Similuk.

Special guests were Mrs. Marge O'Brien of Detroit, Mrs. James Deneau of Franklin Hills and Doris Hendrian.

Christmas gifts were placed on a workbench, behind which a picture of Santa was mounted. Mrs. Fournier served as Santa's helper by delivering the gifts as secret pals were revealed.

A money making activity was held at the meeting. Proceeds will be used to buy additional food and gifts for a basket to be presented to a needy family.

The chapter will celebrate its founders day Jan. 6 at the Adamson road home of Mrs. Jack Ross.

Sponge Saves Soap

A sponge in the soap dish not only saves soap but keeps the soap dish from getting messy.

Stretch While Wet

To keep lace curtains from stretching, put them back on their rods while wet, weighing the lower hems with a pole, and they will dry evenly.

Use Those Socks

Old socks pulled over shoes packed for travel will keep the shoes unscratched and clothes clean.

Mrs. B. W. Crandell of Pleasant avenue, Birmingham, was photographed with her first prize winning table decoration. The sleigh is of wrought iron and supports the candles. Judging for all the exhibits was done by the standard system.

Civitan Club Will Sponsor Musical

'Vagabond King' to Be Presented Jan. 15 at High School

The Jan. 15 performance of Vagabond King, sponsored locally by Civitan Club will be held in Pontiac High School auditorium. Proceeds from the production will go to Pontiac Camp Fire Girls.

This performance will mark another milestone in the number of audiences that have seen the production. During its two year run on Broadway, "Vagabond King," given by a national company has played to over 650,000 people.

After the first year of its new engagement, a second company was sent to Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, Dallas, Los Angeles, San Francisco and other cities from coast to coast.

At the same time, another company opened in London. Subsequently, the rights to produce the musical were leased in France, Australia, Holland, Sweden and Denmark.

During the past summer "Vagabond King" was performed by a touring company in 85 summer theaters.

It was also given showing by established musical groups such as the St. Louis Municipal Opera Company, the Music Circus at Lambertville, N. J., Cape Cod Melody Fairy in Massachusetts, Musical Tent Theater of Toronto, Can. and Dallas Starlight Park.

If the production receives community support as anticipated, it will pave the way for future theatrical attractions in this city, both musical and dramatic.

All the flavor, verve and beauty of the original New York production have been retained; the audience will hear the complete score and scenery will create an illusion of the 16th century settings wherein action takes place.

Colorful ballet numbers have been staged by Marcella Dodge who is assistant choreographer to Agnes De Mille, creator of the dance routines for "Oklahoma," "Brigadoon," "Can Can" and other musicals.

All seats for the production will be reserved. Tickets may be purchased from several downtown stores.

Culture Club Meets

Mrs. J. L. Bennett Is Speaker

Child Culture Club heard Mrs. Joseph L. Bennett tell "A Polish Christmas Story" when it held its annual holiday party in the home of Mrs. Frank Grosse on Auburn avenue.

Mrs. Bennett told how a poor family gave a Christmas puppet play depicting the birth of Christ in order to earn money for Christmas necessities.

At the story's ending the family, overwhelmed by the spirit of the Christ Child, gave its money to a mother and her new baby who needed it more. Mrs. Bennett led a Christmas carol sing that followed the story.

Roll call question for the day was, how have you handled the Santa Claus myth in your family? Mrs. Donald Marcus and Mrs. William Brannack were guests of the club for this Tuesday evening meeting.

Card Club Has Party

A Christmas party was enjoyed by members of the Joy Card Club when they gathered Thursday evening at the Clarkston home of Mrs. Richard Kroninger. Gifts were exchanged and new names for secret pals were drawn. Mrs. Dow Williams will open her home on Mary Sue drive for the Dec. 30 meeting.

Staff Members Are Entertained

Members of the board of directors who sponsored the luncheon are Mrs. Ralph Mills, Dr. Campbell Harvey, L. Harvey Lodge, Milo Cross, Mrs. Leonard Lewis, Dr. Richard Galpin, Mrs. R. W. Steere Jr., W. E. C. Huthwaite, Mrs. Barney Habel, William R. McDonough and Dr. Jerome Fink. Mrs. Bert Norton is president of the board.

Guild Eight Meets at Moore Home

Mrs. Claude Moore of Orchard Lake avenue was hostess Wednesday to members of Guild Eight, All Saints Episcopal Church, for a Christmas party.

Games were played and carols were sung preceding the gift exchange, with Mrs. Chris Gibbons acting as Santa. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Amvets Auxiliary Has Special Guest

Jimmy Dey Post 12 Amvets Auxiliary had Mrs. Elizabeth Parson of Venice, Calif., as a guest at a Christmas party held Wednesday evening. Jimmy Dey Post was named after Mrs. Parsons' son.

Pictures and narration on the Holy Land were given by Frieda Huggett. Other guests for the evening were Mrs. Paul Gorman and Mrs. Edward Avadenka. Mrs. Stewart Houghton, Mrs. Wesley Newman, Mrs. Ben Mirkin and Mrs. Roland Dennis were hostesses.

Plymouth Group Has Program

Faye Donaldson was hostess Wednesday evening to the Plymouth Group of First Congregational Church in her home on Voorheis road. A Christmas program was enjoyed following the business meeting.

Mrs. Melvin Boersma gave the history of seven of the best known Christmas carols, which were sung by the group. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Coming Events

Areme Chapter 503, OES, will meet Monday at 8 p.m. for a Christmas party at Hotel Roosevelt.

Cook Nelson Post 20 American Legion auxiliary will hold its annual junior Christmas party Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m. in the American Legion Home on Auburn avenue. Further information may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Jean Busse, 15 Adelaide St.

Christmas Programs Highlight School PTAs

Special yuletide programs highlighted the week's activity for grade school PTA's on Thursday.

McConnell Glee Club, composed of sixth grade students, sang. Students who took part in the dramatization were Muriel White, Robert Marks, Clenna Hall, Darlene Lutzkiw, Larry Keech, Larry Evans and James Sterling who performed the part of Santa Claus.

During the second part, pupils presented a Christmas Story with the Glee Club providing music in the background.

In the Nativity Scene, "Mary" was played by Beatrice Sehnorkian, "Joseph" by Kenneth Howell, the Innkeeper by Billy Huff and the Angels by Carolyn Evans, Nicole Herald, and Brenda Mosely.

Shepherds were played by Richard Withum, Kenneth Keech, James Joyce, Gene Prudhomme, George Hicks, Billy Huff, Randy Bastedo, and Duane Gallero.

Ralph Diaz, Tommy Hubbel, and Steve Wagner played the Wise Men. David Herald portrayed the child with the lamb. Soloist was Elizabeth Ballard. A chorus of first grade pupils also sang.

Mrs. George Robins was general chairman, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Pinkall as program chairman, Mrs. Royal Exline as musical director and Dorothy Hensel as stage manager.

Ann Metzger supervised the costuming. The pupils of Mrs. Robert Halcrow, Mrs. Howard McNarney and Josephine Stilwell prepared the programs. Patricia Boughner, Janet Watkins, and Candace Luchenbach were ushers. Table decorations were arranged by Mrs. Margaret Beattie.

Mrs. William MacPherson was social chairman and was assisted by the other members of the faculty.

Wisner School

Dr. W. H. Marbach of the First Presbyterian Church spoke for Wisner PTA when it held its annual Christmas program Thursday afternoon. Dr. Marbach gave an analogy of the first Christmas and the Christmas today. "The same Prince of Peace is worshiped today as was worshiped on that first Christmas," he said.

The Wisner Glee Club gave several selections accompanied by their director, Mrs. Donald Weiss. Mrs. William J. Thomas led community singing with Mrs. Fred Froede accompanying.

Mrs. Lyman Cowley and Mrs. Talmadge Shelton presided at the tea table. Prize for highest parent attendance was won by Jane Danton's first grade room.

Hawthorne

Children of Hawthorne School presented a seven part dramatized program with music provided by the glee clubs.

Program topics were "Christmas Eve with Santa" featuring the sixth grade; "Shepherds, Angels and Star" with the third grade; "Three Wise Men" with sixth grade pupils and a Nativity scene with parts taken by fourth graders.

The school rhythm band also participated in the program and a choral reading was given by the fifth grade. One section was entitled, "Christmas Card Pantomimes" and "Christmas at Home" was portrayed by second grade pupils.

Willis

Willis PTA celebrated Christmas with a luncheon recently. On Thursday, members of fifth and sixth grades sang Christmas songs for the program and Miss Adah Shelley spoke on children's books.

Serving on the social committee were Mrs. Harold Beebe, Mrs. Truman Jewell, Mrs. Floyd Keigt, Mrs. Eugene Williamson and Mrs. Locke Bishop.

Toes Need Maximum of Care

Long gloomy memories of a mother's admonishing — "be sure to dry between your toes" — seem to have made many women all the more stubborn about it. They stamp their feet on a fluffy bath mat and let it go at that.

No one needs a textbook to know that mother was right. For health and cleanliness, the toes need their drying and care. Particularly for the woman who takes a shower is this important, for the soap film that settled on the bottom of the tub settled on her feet, too.

An added extra for the so-important toes is a beauty treatment all their own. After they're tenderly dried, give the nails a trim while they're easy to deal with.

Powder or cream is a treat for them. If you're coping with athlete's foot, the powder you select, of course, will be a medical one. If your feet are healthy, pick a soft bath powder. If they're dry, try a soothing cream.

Application is important. Don't just shake the powder from above. It won't get to where it's needed, between the toes where they rub together. Try application with a sterilized cotton-tipped swab. Powder, with care, will go on as smoothly as glazed china. Cream will get into all the areas you want with the use of a swab. Smoot either the cream or powder up over the toes, in the wrinkles and around the nails.

Mend Knitwear

Loosely-knit garments are easier to mend if they are placed over a brush instead of the usual darning egg.

Bethany Baptists Hold Unit Meetings This Week

Bethany Baptist Women's Society held unit meetings in various members' homes this week.

Dorcas Group met Thursday noon for a luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Criger on Lorraine court. Mrs. John Webb presented the devotional program. Plans were made for the January Society luncheon at which Dorcas Group will serve.

The Lincoln avenue home of Mrs. Ray Sherman was the setting Thursday for the Christmas luncheon and gift exchange of Esther Group. Mrs. Harry Buerhing and Mrs. I. M. Lewis presented the Christmas devotions. The group voted to send a gift to a student at the Baptist Missionary Training School.

Lydia Group met Thursday evening for dinner and a Christmas party at the Spokane Drive home of Mrs. Daniel Owen. Boxes of school supplies and used clothing were packed for Mather School and members also brought gifts for needy children. Mrs. Maynard Johnson gave devotions.

The Thursday luncheon and gift exchange of Martha Group was held in the Woodbine drive home of Mrs. Clifford Steffey, with Mrs. Robert Sutton assisting. A basket was packed for an elderly couple. Mrs. Clarence Myers presented the devotions.

Naomi Group met recently for luncheon at the Cherokee Road home of Mrs. Aaron Fox. Mrs. Harry Taylor gave the devotions. Project for the day was the sewing of cancer pads.

Mrs. William Shirley of Seminole avenue opened her home recently for members of Ruth Group. Mrs. Gayle Johnson presented devotions. The group planned for a gift to be sent to its special interest student at the Baptist Missionary Training School. Mrs. A. J. Pepper assisted the hostess.

League of the Blind Holds Square Dance

The League of the Blind gathered Wednesday evening at Longfellow school for the second in a series of square dances being sponsored by the Pontiac Lions Club.

During intermission Christmas carols were sung by 30 choir members from the St. George Greek Orthodox Church of the Rev. Sam Gouvellis.

Lion club members serving on committees for the evening were the chairman, Warner Wasmuth; Harold Northon and Ray McDonald who took care of transportation; Emery Mitchell who had charge of serving refreshments; and Dr. George Harkless, who arranged the program.

MOMS Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McVean of State Hospital Grounds and Mrs. E. Fay Tick of Lennox were guests of Zone One Past President's Club, MOMS of America, Inc. when the group entertained recently for the Anti-aircraft Company of the United States Air Force stationed in Ferndale.

Guidance Club Has Gift Exchange

Secret pal Christmas gifts were exchanged Wednesday evening by members of the Parent Guidance Club. The group met for a party in the James K boulevard home of Mrs. Q. R. Mahan. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Edwin C. Barnhart, Mrs. M. S. Rentfrow and Mrs. Max G. Coleman.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Earl Foster. Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the party. The next meeting will be held Jan. 5 at the home of Mrs. Robert Ensworth on Starr avenue.

Christmas Party Held by Group

Group singing was led by Mrs. Glen H. Arthur when Westside Home Demonstration Group held its Christmas party in Hotel Waldron.

Committees for the Wednesday event were by Mrs. Don C. Milbourn, Mrs. Warren T. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Arthur, and Mrs. Charles Johnson. Mrs. Don C. Milbourn Jr. was a guest.

Jan. 26 is the date for the next meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. William Mustard.

ALICE LEE BARRETT

The Dudley Barretts of Willet avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Alice Lee, to Asgual L. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asgual B. Phillips of Utica. An autumn wedding is planned.

Consider Improvement Ideas Carefully, They May Prove Profitable

Try It

Girls Will Like the Idea

We have been talking about getting the Christmas shopping done, decorating your house, and getting last minute presents made, but here is an idea which you girls will like for you can dress yourself up for the holidays.

These decorated bobby pins will make you look like part of Christmas, and they also make good gifts for friends. You boys might make some for the lady members of your family. Use strong, well-made pins for your decorating. You have many things to choose from to use for brightness. Bells can be tied on with string and a bit of ribbon. How about a piece of holly, either real or not? Look through your small Christmas balls and see if there are some which can be tied to a bobby pin. A sprig of evergreen with a bright bow makes a good hair ornament. How about a triple bow of your prettiest Christmas ribbon?

You may want to make these in pairs, for sometimes a lady likes to wear these on both sides of her head. They do not need to be just alike, but should be the same size.

Make Stuffing Early

Poultry stuffing can be made ahead except for addition of the liquid. Refrigerate until ready to stuff the bird.

The 'Suggestion Boxes' Are There for a Reason

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Many of us get annoyed with our Congressmen or local officials, but very few of us write letters telling how we feel, and what we think should be done.

The same is true with the suggestion box which most companies put up for the use of their employees.

You may get all kinds of ideas on the job; ideas we think would make the work easier, or the records more correct, or in some way improve our own job or that of the whole department. But how many times do we type up the suggestion and put it in the suggestion box?

The other day while lunching with a group of business women, this subject came up.

One girl who worked in a manufacturing plant had come up with an idea. It had proved to be a good one, and she had received a nice bonus check in payment. The others could hardly believe their ears: "You mean, they really paid you for it?"

As we discussed the topic, some interesting highlights appeared.

Two of the girls admitted that they feared to submit ideas lest the company didn't really want them, and they might get fired if they did. This is a lot of nonsense. All companies are in business to make money, and if you can think of a good idea to improve any phase of the business, they will welcome it.

One of the girls was too shy, and had too little respect for her own ideas. Yet, she admitted, one thing that had occurred to her two years ago, and dismissed because it was her own idea, had later been put into use when submitted by someone else, and was saving the department a good deal of money.

If you have a job, and have been on it long enough to know what you're doing, see if you cannot think of an improvement in methods in your department. Be careful to consider it from every angle, and if, after you have done this, it still seems like a good idea, suggest it to management.

You may get a handsome check, and you will also get a feeling of participation, a feeling of being more than just a tiny cog in a great big wheel. And you may well, if you keep it up, get a whopping big promotion!

IF wide hips, no bosom—

The middy and tight skirt unbalance your figure but bodice detail and some skirt fullness balance bosom and hip fault.

Miss N. B.—The line that hangs straight from the shoulders, caught into a taut band at largest hip area, you should avoid. Dots have never been prettier and here they provide a bosom fill-in and hip slimmer.

Direct Fire of Personal Brilliance

Girl Called 'Flirt' Can't Help Showing She Is Friendly

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

Some girls are high - voltage babies. They're charged with plenty electricity. They can't slither across a rug without drawing sparks from anything metal they touch. They brush their hair and it makes a halo around their heads. Shaking hands with them makes you tinglingly aware that you're touching something warmly, vibrantly alive. They exude sparks. And they can't help it.

A girl who is so super-charged is envied by all her quiet, passive, less energetic friends. They watch her having no trouble at all putting over her personality. They observe her magnet qualities. They notice that she has a very good time indeed. And they're jealous. They call her a flirt.

That's suposed to be bad.

At least, this girl thinks so. She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've just been told by my best friend that I'm a flirt! I guess I've been doing it unconsciously, but other boys and girls have noticed it. I don't want to lose their friendship just because of flirting—but I might if I don't do something quick. Maybe you can offer some suggestions."

You say you've "been doing it" unconsciously. What under the sun have you been doing? Radiating sunshine, smiles, sparkel? Teasing the boys with a bright good humor? Tossing a bouquet here and a high-flying compliment there? Playing up to the masculinity in the boys?

If that's all you've been doing, consciously or unconsciously, you've just been exuding that pent-up electricity of yours. Your high-voltage disposition has been having a field day.

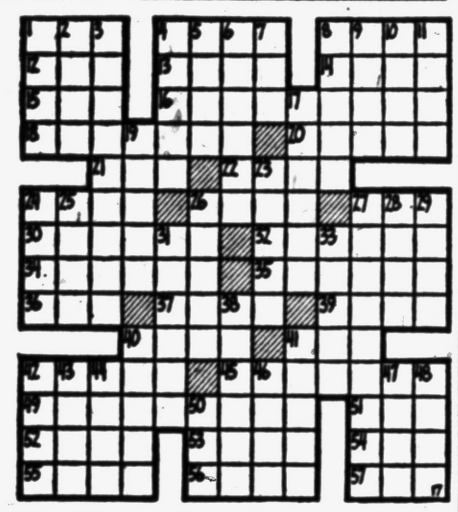

The only thing wrong with it that I can see is maybe you've been shooting sparks in all directions. Maybe you've been flirting with the wrong boys!

You notice it was a girl who called you a flirt. Could it be that she and the other girls think you show too much attention to the boys they like? Could it be that they're scared of the effect you have on boys they think are theirs? Could it be they are terrified you have a snatch in mind?

It's hard for a girl who's full of very attractive bounce and steam to hold herself down and dim her sparkle. That wouldn't be natural—everybody'd think she was sick. But you can direct your fire. You can steer clear of boys who are taken and avoid the disapproval of the girls who staked them out. You can devote all of your steam to one boy so the girls will know you are taken; consequently safe. You can flirt with the girls. They'll know you don't mean a thing by it. They'll realize that you like people and can't help letting it show. And that's good!

Home Visit Annoying to Resident

Relative's Pride Prompts Tour of 'Private' Quarters

By EMILY POST

A reader explains: "My husband and I and his parents have bought a house together. It is a two family house and we each have separate apartments. This is the first house my parents-in-law have ever owned and they are very proud of it.

Whenever my mother-in-law has visitors she takes them on a tour of the house. After showing them through her apartment, she brings them unannounced to our apartment. Many times we are having dinner or the house isn't presentable for guests and I find these intrusions very annoying.

Will you please tell me if it would be unforgivably rude to refuse to let them go through the apartment when it is not completely in order?"

The only way you could refuse would be to say, "Oh please come in another time, I am just in the midst of house cleaning and I don't want you to see it all out of order." Or what would be better, your husband could appeal to your in-laws not to take people through your apartment without giving you warning.

Dear Mrs. Post: A friend of mine lost her mother this past week. Within the next two weeks this same friend will have a birthday. I have always sent her a birthday card and I would like to know if it would be proper to send her one this year.

If you can find a card expressing affection rather than a joyous day, then yes. But a card shouting "happy birthday" would not be suitable.

Dear Mrs. Post: Is it still customary for a young man to ask permission of the girl's parents to marry their daughter? I think it is the correct thing to do, but my son says "no," that once the couple have ageed to marry, they simply tell the parents of their plans. Please tell us if this is correct?

Your son is definitely right. They together explain their plans and hope the girl's parents approve.

Priscilla Group Has Yule Party

Priscilla Circle of Oakland Park Methodist Church met recently in the Mansfield avenue home of Mrs. Courtney Clara.

Mrs. Al Ostrander opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Raymond Tyler spoke of traditions and conditions in Europe and Japan where she has lived. A Christmas party was held and gifts were brought for underprivileged children.

Alumnae Plans Tea December 22

Mrs. Russell S. Strickland will open her Bloomfield Hills home Dec. 22 from 2 until 4 p. m. for a tea to be given by Delta Gamma Alumnae, Group Two. The tea is being given in honor of collegiate members from the Birmingham, Royal Oak and the surrounding areas who arrive home for the holidays.

The entire board is assisting the chairman, Mrs. David A. Taylor, with the tea. Invitations and name tags are being taken care of by Mrs. M. C. Cameron.

Women's Chorus Has Party

The annual Christmas party of the Pontiac Women's Chorus was held Tuesday evening at the Henderson street home of Mrs. Edward Cornell. Mrs. Alfred Osmick played the part of Santa as the guests gathered around the Christmas tree.

Members of the chorus surprised Mrs. Harold A. Tripp by presenting her with toys for the play train at Pontiac General Hospital.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. James Absher, Mrs. Sidney Olson, Mrs. George Tallerday, Mrs. C. E. Coonfield, Mrs. John W. Keinert and Novello Davies.

Chanukah Sugar Cookies Children's Holiday Treat

Pontiac Press Food Editor

Sunday evening, December 19, marks the beginning of another Chanukah season, or the Festival of Lights, for the Jewish people. On that night the first of eight candles will be lighted and on succeeding nights one more candle will be added until there are eight. It is a season of merriment and gift giving, as well as remembrance.

In our position as food editor we inquired about any special foods for the Chanukah season. Outside of potato pancakes, there are no dishes particular to this holiday. But on talking with the wife of Rabbi Sanford E. Saperstein we found that she makes special Chanukah cookies. She promised to have some made, and the above picture shows the results.

Mrs. Saperstein has a set of Chanukah cookie cutters like the sets of Christmas cutters we have. She had used the lion which represents the strength of the Maccabees, the six-pointed star of David and a dreidel; this last is a toy, a top used in Chanukah games. There was also a ram's horn cutter that she had not used.

These cookies are very crisp and pleasingly brown. We think you will like to try them, and that your children will enjoy them as much as Jonathan and Reena Saperstein do.

CHANUKAH SUGAR COOKIES
By Mrs. Sanford E. Saperstein

3 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ cup shortening
¼ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon orange juice
1 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 eggs

Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and beat. Add sifted dry ingredients, then orange juice and vanilla. If the dough is too wet to roll, add a little more flour. Roll on a floured board and cut with desired cutters. Sprinkle with yellow or orange colored sugar. Bake on ungreased pans 10 minutes in a 400-degree oven.

Amvets Auxiliary Holds Yule Party

Bemis Olsen Amvets Auxiliary Post 113 met at the home of Mrs. Robert Harrell of Bow lane for a Christmas party.

Mrs. Robert Howell, hospital chairman reported on gifts to be given to residents at Oakland County Convalescent Home.

Gifts will also be sent to boys at Camp Oakland under the direction of Mrs. Jack Olsen. Clothing will be collected for needy families under the chairmanship of Mrs. Charles Butler.

Vegetables Popular

In 1953, the average American ate more than 200 pounds of vegetables, according to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Refrigerate Stuffing

Any stuffing left from the Christmas turkey should be removed from the bird and refrigerated separately in a covered container.

Child Requires Good Explanations

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

Some years ago, movie director Alfred Hitchcock took John Buchan's story, "The Thirty-Nine Steps," and made a motion picture classic. Its shocking climax still chills audiences whenever it is revived.

What is its shocking climax?

It is that moment in the story when the hero, running for his life from known enemies, reaches for safety—only to discover that the man who represents it is the mastermind of the plot against him.

Why do we chill at this experience of the hero? Because we have shared it with him. As children, pursued by known enemies, we have also reached for safety, only to find that the mother who represented it to us had masterminded the plot against us.

No? Then we may not recall our emotions in our first barbers chair as scissors were wielded behind us by a strange man. We may not remember our first visit to the dentist when we sat waiting for unknown disaster to approach. We have forgotten what went on in us in our first hospital as the ether cone was dropped over our nose, smothering our breath for incomprehensible reasons.

And along with these memories, we have also forgotten how it was to cry out for mother's help against these enemies only to find that she approved of what they were doing to us and had secretly conspired in the plot against us.

We felt the same shocked terror of the hero of "The Thirty-Nine Steps." I ask us to remember it. If we do, we will always make a point of explaining our intention to take little boys and girls on first visits to barbers, dentists and hospitals.

It's a temptation not to explain it. For small children are not equipped to understand why we want hair cut, teeth filled and tonsils surrendered. To avoid bother by their worry and protests, we sometimes plunge them into these experiences without warning.

It is not wise. For though confiding our plan cannot entirely protect the little child against some feeling of betrayal by us, it does safeguard him against the shock of discovering us to be a secret conspirator in the plot against him.

This shock is the real danger, for as he grows, we can work out the feeling of betrayal. But we may find it hard to work out the sense that follows the discovery of secret conspiracy. It can become a source of chronic anxiety.

WSWS Hears Talk on Missionaries

Mrs. Herbert E. Ryan of Baldwin avenue opened her home to members and friends of the Women's Society of World Service of Baldwin Avenue Evangelical United Brethren Church, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Philip Waldie had charge of the program during which Mrs. Walter Frederiksen told of organizations with which the society co-operates and the activities in which the WSWS takes part.

Mrs. Barbour Williams spoke on missionaries around the world. Others taking part in the program were Mrs. Mary Spragg, Mrs. Lewis Ball, Mrs. Grant Burlison and Mrs. Don Vincent. Mrs. M. G. Baker closed the meeting with a Christmas devotion.

CHRISTMAS PLAYERS — Five students at St. Frederick School are pictured in a scene from their Christmas play, "The Little Blue Angel," to be presented Dec. 19 and 20 at 8 p. m. in the parish hall. Left to right, they are, the soldier, played by Richard Ellsworth, 97 S. Paddock; the King, played by Bobby Morrow, 201 Willard; Sheila Lane, 76 S. Roselawn as the Princess; and the Dancer, played by Candy Lease, 155 Ormsby. Kneeling in front is Melcolm Oswalt of 191 Earlmore, who takes the part of Billy.

Best Wishes for the Holidays From High Schools

With the coming of Christmas and a long awaited vacation, correspondents from all three high schools wish you a Merry Christmas and a pleasant New Year. They'll be back again in January.

St. Frederick

Girls' basketball captain Jean McHugh finally got those uniforms out of moth balls with help of teammates last Friday, as Coach Joan Mazza called the first practice session.

Predictions of taking the championship again as they did two years ago are being made by returning letter winners Jean McHugh, Carolyn Robichaud, Ida Jane Arcand, Mary Barnett, Gail Dean, Marilyn Ashby, Margie McHugh, Sharon Neville and Margaret Drake.

The student body has been dodging Margaret Carry in the hall this week, as she is pestering everyone to buy a match box holder. "If you don't smoke, maybe you will later. You'll regret it if you don't buy one now," she says. It's very noticeable that Margaret is an enthusiastic Junior achievement worker.

Starting Wednesday, the student body took a breather with half-day sessions. This enables jobholders to work at Christmas.

Junior biology students are finding it hard to put the human anatomy together correctly. When Kay Smith was asked why she thought she hadn't done so well on her test, she remarked, "I think I put a couple livers where the kidneys belonged."

Choral gowns arrived this week along with the costumes for the Christmas play, which starts Sunday.

Sister Teresina's art classes have been busy this week giving the school that winter look. Her artists have painted the doors of every room in the school in colors of the traditional Christmas season. Every design is different and done very well.

Since this is the last column until after the busy holidays, we want to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas. Be good and take care of yourselves.

St. Michael

As if he didn't have enough troubles, St. Mike coach, Bob Minewearer, took on the extra burden of English classes this week as Sister Vianney was at the dress rehearsal of the Christmas play

Cheerleader Captain Gwen Herald announced that on days of basketball games everyone who can should wear his or her school sweater.

These days have been dubbed School Sweater Days and all the students enjoy participating in the event which adds to the color of the game.

Last Friday evening, CYO director, Fr. Immel, boarded the school bus along with his students and headed for the hayride at Holiday Park, after which everyone enjoyed dancing, donuts and hot chocolate in the recreation room.

Sister Gerald and her seniors discussed the schedule for Christmas caroling. This year it was decided that seniors would visit various local institutions and sing carols for the aged and infirm. The decision was reached that the Oakland County Infirmary and Menscola would be entertained.

Members of Junior Achievement groups are selling everything from planters to plastic fish-hook holders, and plaguing all their classmates with a "How would you like to buy . . .?" routine all week.

Seniors have announced their choice for the senior play as "The Curious Savage." Tryouts will be held Sunday afternoon.

Pontiac High

Students are planning to attend the big basketball game tonight with Flint Central, hoping to repeat last Friday's win and make up for Tuesday. The New Year's dance sponsored by the City Recreation Department at the YMCA and Pontiac High gymnasiums is sharing the spotlight this week, too. The affair, which is semi-formal, promises to be the highlight of holiday festivities.

Sunday is the day for the annual Combined Vocal Groups Concert. The concert will be at 3 p.m. and will present the Pontiac High Vocal Department, MacDowell Male Chorus and the Pontiac Women's Chorus.

Tuesday evening the Projectionists Club, along with their Latin Club guests, attended a skating party. Highlight of the evening was club advisor, Marion Lehner, on roller skates.

Members of John Youngpeter's Linnean Society recently elected Jim Smith president. Other officers are Irene Kamachos, vice president, Barbara Kenny, secretary and Mary Kennedy, treasurer. The club took a field trip to the University of Michigan Botanical Gardens Sunday.

With the coming of Christmas, students and faculty of PHS are donating money for CARE packages to be sent overseas.

Members of the Quiver staff are completing plans for their banquet Monday which will honor past and present Quiver editors.

Iama Hook and her Latin classes announced the Christmas issue of the Epistolae Scholae netted $143.56, with Pontiac High contributing $74.84.

The Chem-Physics club held its Christmas party Thursday, keeping in the spirit of chemistry by roasting marshmallows over Bunsen burners.

Georgianna Schuis's art classes are displaying jewelry they made. Made of silver, the jewelry includes pins, cuff links, earrings and pendants in the first floor show case.

The art classes are also helping the Student Council make decorations to place in the halls for Christmas and are creating their own silk screen Christmas cards.

Hitchhike Slayer Starts Life Term

CHARLOTTE (UP) — Paul R. Spinner, 26-year-old Lansing hitchhiker who pleaded guilty to the slaying of a fellow Lansing resident who had given him a lift, today began a sentence of life imprisonment.

Spinner was sentenced yesterday by Circuit Judge Archie McDonald.

He pleaded guilty to slaying Niles Liscomb, 30, after Liscomb had picked him up on the outskirts of Lansing last Aug. 4.

An official of the Ionia State Hospital for the criminally insane testified that Spinner had been a patient at the hospital for four years and was treated as a psycopath. He had been sent to the hospital after an attempted holdup in Flint.

Reds May Get Tough With West Again Next Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia may harden its attitude toward the West again early next year.

Such a switch would not necessarily reduce the chances which now appear to exist for improving basic contacts between Moscow and the rest of the world.

It would tend to increase tensions a little and to show more clearly the essentially antagonistic nature of Communist policy toward non-Communist nations.

These views are held by responsible Washington officials, some of them highly placed. The views are speculative. They are based on several considerations, including:

1. An assumption that Russia's plugging of "peaceful coexistence" during the past year has been aimed primarily at lulling West European countries into relaxation and thereby blocking the rearmament of West Germany.

2. The reasonable certainty that, despite Russia's efforts, both France and Germany will ratify the pending agreements under which West Germany would be armed and made a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The treaties last night passed a first reading in West Germany's lower house of Parliament.

3. A belief that some degree of hostility toward the outside world is necessary to justify to people under any Red dictatorship the burdens and restraints imposed on them.

Final European action on ratification of the various agreements on Germany is expected early next year. After that there may be Big Four foreign ministers' meeting. French Premier Pierre Mendes-France has suggested one for May.

Last August, the French Assembly killed the European Defense Community plan to rearm West Germany. It was a great victory for the Russians, whether or not their "peaceful coexistence" campaign had anything to do with it. Some experts here think the Assembly's vote was mainly a matter of French politics and anti-German traditions.

At any rate, there is high optimism that Western defense plans will not suffer another similar defeat in France. If this optimism proves justified, some American officials believe the main cause for Russia's backslapping campaign will have ceased to exist.

Meanwhile, of course, the Kremlin may think up some other reason to carry on, but developments in the last two days suggest this is not necessarily so.

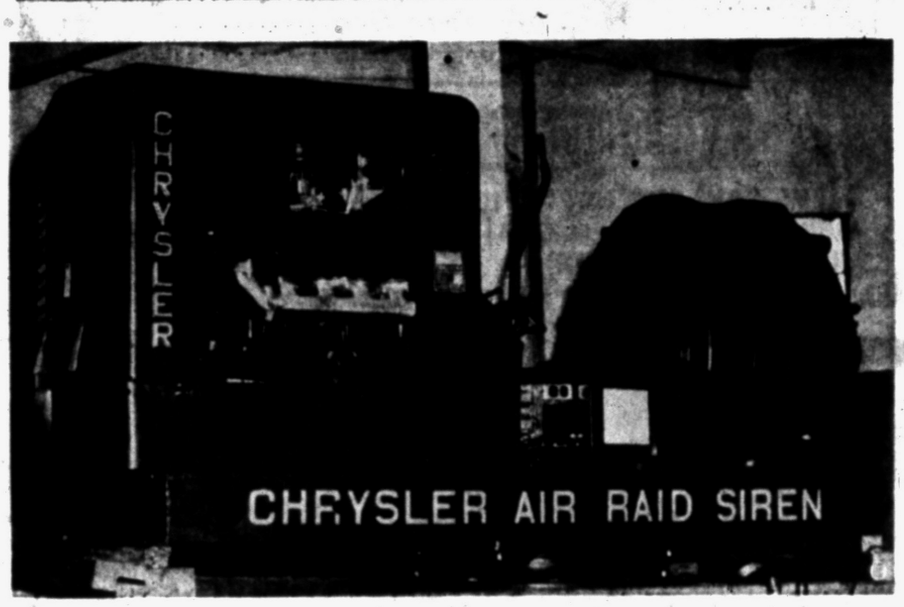

Yesterday, for example, Russia formally warned France that ratification of the German treaties will annul a French-Russian mutual assistance treaty signed in 1944.

Even though the Soviet line on this is familiar, the formal notice is a fairly tough action.

Two days ago the Soviet Foreign Ministry announced in a broadcast from Moscow that Russia supports Red China's claim on Formosa and denounced the defense pact which the United States signed with Nationalist China earlier this month.

City Buys New Air Raid Warning Siren

Pontiac Press Photos

17 FLOORS UP — High atop the penthouse of the Pontiac State Bank Bldg., construction workers assemble the steel platform for the city's new air raid siren (above). The $5,000 warning device is slated to be set in place by next Friday. Welding the platform beams is James Bozarth, of South Bend, Ind. At lower right, George Jerdon, 4416 Walton Blvd., Drayton Plains, checks the level of the base. At left is pictured the 180-horsepower siren, identical to those used in Detroit. It develops 135 decibels (sound units) and is the largest siren now built. Workers will disassemble it, take it to the 14th floor by elevator, then hoist it through a sky-light to the penthouse, three stories higher. It will be reassembled on the platform. The horns, through which the sound is emitted, were removed before this picture was taken.

Will Be Located on Top of Bank

Device May Be Tested Next Week; Is Expected to Alert All of City

Taking shape above the heart of Pontiac is a steel platform to house the city's new $5,000 air raid siren.

It is expected that the siren will be installed and ready for testing a week from today, providing the weatherman continues to cooperate.

Constructing the platform atop the Pontiac State Bank Building's penthouse is a crew of four J. A. Fredman Co. steel workers.

Fredman was awarded the $3,700 installation contract by the City Commission.

Half the cost of siren and installation is being paid by the federal government as its share toward Pontiac's civil defense.

The 180-horsepower siren theoretically should put out enough warning noise to alert the entire city area, said City Manager Walter K. Willman.

"We eventually may have to augment it with one or two small sirens in outlying areas," said Willman, who is also city civil defense head.

The siren will be disassembled and taken up to the building's top floor — 14 stories above the ground — via the regular passenger elevators.

Then the sections will be hoisted through a skylight to the penthouse roof, another three stories up.

They then will be lifted the remaining few feet from the penthouse roof to the platform, where they will be reassembled to form the siren.

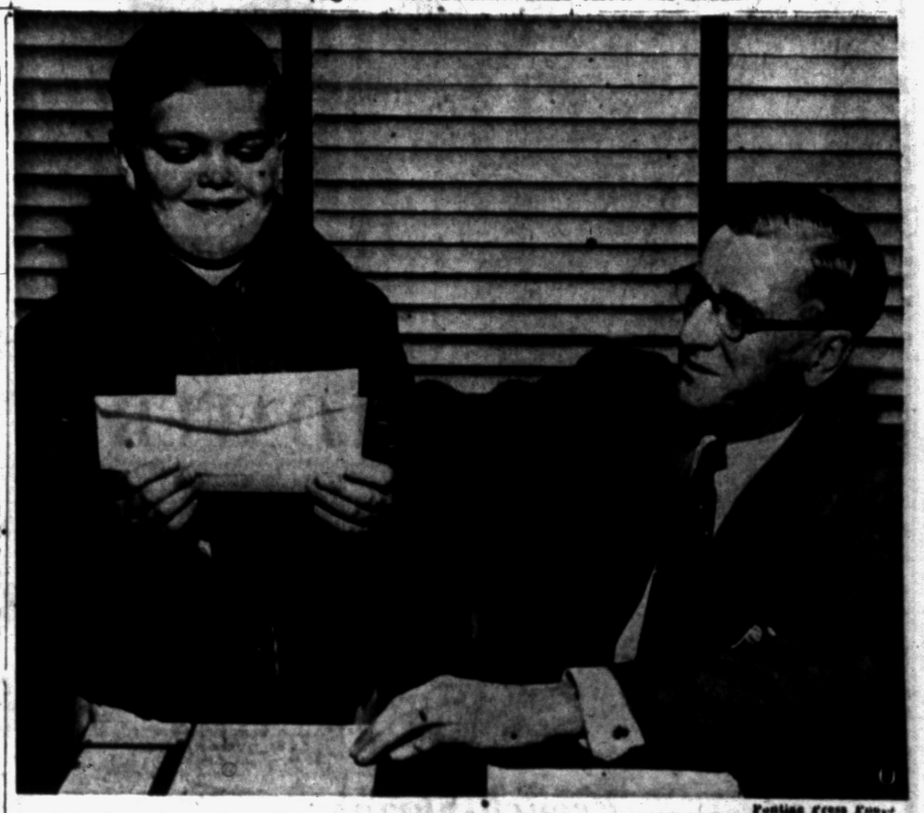

"As soon as we get it installed and tested we plan to thoroughly publicize the different signals and what they mean," Willman said.

The city manager feels the new siren will provide much stimulus to the city's civil defense program.

"Without anything to alert our people we've been handicapped in civil defense. A siren is basic to that need."

He added that installation of the siren will insure continued support for the local CD program by the federal government. A city is not eligible for aid unless it has a warning system, he explained.

As now planned, the siren will be tied in with the bell and light alarm system already in operation in Pontiac city offices, schools and hospitals and some factories.

Soon after the boy's scrawling letter explaining his predicament appeare din the Pontiac Press earlier this week, his doorbell rang. It was Donald Hampton, 14, of 198 Florence St., who told Frankie he had found $6 and thought it might be his. Frank took $4 of it, giving $2 to Donald for returning it.

Then Frankie's phone rang. It was a soft drink firm saying it was sending him a $6 check to make up his loss. Then Kresge's called and told him they were presenting a $6 gift certificate. Now Frankie is trying to return the $5 to young Hampton and the check to the soft drink company. He is shown above receiving the credit certificate from H. D. Stayton, Kresge store manager.

CUSTOMER TURNS SALESMAN—Dr. Harold A. Furlong, president of the Rotary Club, which sponsors a Junior Achievement firm, was so impressed with the company's products that he convinced five friends to purchase the Christmas decorations made by its young members. BASHFUL THOMAS PEEKS—A typical evening at the A. Earl Shepherd home, 54 Edison St., when church activities do not interfere is a bit of sewing for mother, reading for father and the two oldest daughters, Marcea and Ruth, while Patricia and Thomas share their toys together.

What Religion Means to Our Family

Christian Belief Is Greatest Legacy of Earl Shepherds

By LULA B. OGDEN

"Religion comes first in our family life. School, social and other activities second," the family of A. Earl Shepherd said.

"Without faith in our Lord Jesus Christ we cannot see how families can be happy.

"We feel that the greatest legacy we can leave our children is a strong Christian belief," the parents said.

All of the family except Patricia and Thomas belong to the Oakland Avenue United Presbyterian Church, Marcea joining in 1952 and Ruth in 1953.

In fact it was at the local church that the parents met. They were married July 15, 1939.

Shepherd was born in Denver, Col., and his wife at North Branch. She came to Pontiac in 1938 and her husband in 1928. They both joined the church shortly after arriving here.

Trustee, church treasurer, elder for 14 years, Shepherd also has served on the committee for Child Evangelism Fellowship and was a member of the steering committee for the Christ for Pontiac campaigns three different years.

Especially interested in Sunday School work, he was superintendent 12 years.

Mrs. Shepherd was Sunday School treasurer two years and is now a committee member for Pioneer Girls. She also is business manager for the church paper.

All three girls are life members of the Junior Missionary Society and Marcea and Ruth are Pioneer Girls.

Mrs. Shepherd remarked that while she and her husband are deeply interested in Christian work, "It is Mr. Shepherd who keeps the ball rolling around here. With the family, I might find excuses sometime, I am afraid."

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Firemen restrained Mrs. Robert Ward from entering her burning house to save a photograph of her son, killed in the Korean war. The furnishings were destroyed but the photograph later was found in her scorched handbag—undamaged.

Kalamazoo Postmaster Answers All Letters Sent to Santa Claus There

KALAMAZOO (UP)—If the average youngster receives everything he asks for in his letter to Santa Claus, mom and dad will have to shell out about $300 per child, Kalamazoo Postmaster John Van Eck said today.

Van Eck reads every letter addressed to Santa that finds it way to the post office. What's more, he answers them.

"It started last August," the postmaster explained. "A Kalamazoo boy named Dennis Byrne had foresight enough to send his Christmas mail early, and his letter to Santa wound up on my desk.

"I sent Dennis a letter saying I was forwarding his Christmas list to the North Pole, and it was certainly early enough to reach Santa before the big day."

But Van Eck's letter set a precedent he hadn't foreseen.

"Now I answer all the letters from children who include their return address," Van Eck said.

"It comes right in the middle of our busiest season, but I have three youngsters of my own and I know how important it is to them to know that Santa will receive their lists in time for Christmas.

"I usually find time to let each one know their letter was placed on the right sleigh to the North Pole."

Van Eck types most of the two-line answers himself, and his secretary handles the rest. The postmaster pays the postage himself.

"So far, we've answered about 60 letters that have included return addresses. Of course, we can't do anything about the others, and they will wind up in the dead letter pile," he said.

Van Eck blames the large amount of "residential patron" mail—the "throw-away" mail delivered from door to door by the postman—for the kiddies' extensive Christmas lists.

"There have been a lot of toy catalogs in the mail," he explained. "And these kids must read every one of them from cover to cover. They certainly can wring a catalog dry."

He said the average list to Santa includes about 16 items, which would cost about $300, but he never promises anything in his replies.

"I just tell them Santa will give them what he feels they need most."

Most of the letters have their humorous aspect, he said. For instance, there was the one from a boy who wanted a small bear. His list called for a "small beer."

Saugatuck Dock OKed

SAUGATUCK (AP) — The village council has accepted Frank Dennison's proposal to build and operate a dock along the Cook Memorial Park frontage. Dennison said the dock will provide water, electricity and other services for visiting yachts. He said the dock will become city property at the end of 12 years.

3 Counties to Map Traffic Control Plan

LANSING (AP) — Officials of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb County, the state's critical target area, will meet Monday to map the creation of an emergency transportation and traffic control plan to be used in case of mass evacuation of their populations.

Capt. C. F. Blankensteyn, deputy state civil defense director, said the meeting would be held at the Detroit armory on Eight Mile road.

He said it would be attended by police, sheriffs, transportation, traffic, county road commission and similar officials from the three counties.

WJR Asks for Permission to Move TV Transmitter

DETROIT (AP) — Station WJR has asked the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) for permission to move its approved channel 12 television transmitter site from Clarkston in Oakland County to near Chesaning between Saginaw and Lansing.

The move, if approved, would eliminate the Detroit area from coverage.

John F. Patt, WJR president, told a group of Flint businessmen Wednesday that the construction of new stations, increases in power by existing stations and the assignment of a new channel in the Jackson area during WJR's two-year struggle for the channel, made the shift advisable.

Patt said the station's television base of operations will be in Flint and the new channel will serve Flint primarily.

The new site, he said, would extend coverage to the entire Saginaw Valley, including Flint, Saginaw, Bay City and Midland and as far west as Lansing.

WJR was granted authority last May to build the new television station with a transmitter site near Clarkston. Transmission from the Clarkston site could be received in most of Detroit.

Patt said:

"The new site selected by our engineers is believed to be the optimum location, not only for primary service in Flint, but to send Flint programs to the viewers of the Saginaw-Bay City-Midland-Lansing area as well.

"Since outlets in these districts are presently inadequate to serve all four of the national networks, the re-location of the WJR transmitter site will make possible a wider selection of national programs to the entire area."

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Iranian patriots are demanding a slowdown in the export of the Persian cats who have made the country's former name a household word around the world.

Reports from Iran's northern province of Azerbaijan that a local cat tycoon is stripping the area of kitties brought sharp protests.

"Allah protect us from the consequences of this procedure," the influential weekly Roshan . Fkr railed. "For 6,000 years we have been famous for our cats. But if matters proceed at this rate, we may even have to import cats."

Reports from the North said an unidentified dealer was buying Persian cats en masse at 18 rials—about 25 cents—per kitten. His offer of 50 rials for pregnant cats resulted in a land office business, the reports said. The cats' destination wasn't reported.

Jail Alabama Pair for Keeping Slaves

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Two brothers—prosperous white farmers of west central Alabama—were sentenced in federal court yesterday to 18 months in prison for holding Negroes in slavery.

The sentences were imposed on Oscar Edwin Dial, 34, and his brother Fred 25. The brothers were convicted in May.

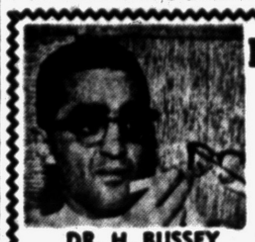

Seven brothers and cousins in Alabama and Mississippi were originally indicted on federal charges of peonage, but the government had asked that the other cases be dismissed.

Ike Names Rockefeller to New Cold War Post

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower today named Undersecretary of Welfare Nelson A. Rockefeller as a special White House assistant on cold war strategy, with emphasis on psychological warfare.

The 46-year-old millionaire resigned his post as undersecretary to take the new job, in which he will serve as a presidential adviser on those phases of foreign policy which concentrate on the global struggle for men's minds.

KP of the Year Claims Peeling Spuds Relaxing

FT. KNOX, Ky. (AP)—There's no appeal like it—the appeal in peeling potatoes.

"It's relaxing," says Pfc. Robert F. Cordy, who can clean 11 spuds in one minute. After he took the speed test recently, his mess sergeant commented:

"Cordy is so good a peeler in the kitchen I'd like to have him on KP every day."

* * *

That would be fine with the 25-year-old Korean veteran, who often volunteers for KP duty.

Cordy's prowess as a potato peeler won him recognition this week as KP of the year, a newly created honor for outstanding kitchen performers. He also got a three-day pass from this post but he can't wait to get back.

* * *

"It's always warm and clean in the kitchen," he says. "We have lots of coffee to drink, and you never hear of KPs marching, do you?"

The Louisville soldier's enlistment is up in July and he hopes to enter the restaurant business.

Flight Marks 51st Birthday

U.S. Airmen Observe Anniversary of First Aircraft Ascent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Airmen throughout the nation observed aviation's 51st birthday today and wound up a year-long celebration of its progress during its first half century.

Aero clubs, flying groups and the air-minded public generally scheduled meetings to celebrate the first powered flight, by the brothers Orville and Wilbur Wright, just 51 years ago.

The major celebration—actually, a series of aviation meetings—is occurring here. But the most colorful, sentimental and memory-tinged gathering is around the gaunt, severely simple hilltop memorial to the famous first flight at Kitty Hawk, N. C.

Topping the Washington events was the award by President Eisenhower, at the White House of the Collier Trophy for "outstanding achievement in aviation" to two famed plane builders. They are J. H. (Dutch) Kindelberger, president of North American Aviation, Inc., Los Angeles, and E. H. Heinmann, chief engineer of Douglas Aircraft Co., Santa Monica, Calif., honored for developing the first supersonic fighter planes in service.

Other awards were scheduled at the annual Wright Day Dinner of the Washington Aero Club. They included the Wright Trophy for public service in aviation to Theodore von Karman, Pasadena, Calif., Budapest-born rocket scientist, and the Brewer Trophy for achievement in aviation education to John Furbey, Kansas City, Mo., education specialist for Trans World Airlines.

Presidents of most of the airlines of the United States also were here for annual meetigs of the Air Transport Assn. and the conference of local service airlines.

PARALYZED ARTIST—Warren Van Ess of Grand Rapids holds a brush in his mouth as he paints a landscape in the Mary Free Bed Convalescent School. Immobilized by polio, he realized only last summer he had a talent for painting. His finely detailed watercolors are gaining increasing attention from critics and art patrons. He already has done two scenes on a commission from a hospital visitor who was attracted to his work.

Holds Brush With Teeth

Paralyzed Polio Patient Discovers Artistic Talent

By ED MARKAITY

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Warren Van Ess is new on the Grand Rapids art scene but his amazing work is gaining increased attention from critics and art patrons.

Van Ess, 19, is a patient at Mary Free Bed Convalescent School. He is immobilized by polio which paralyzed both arms and legs.

He paints by holding his brush between his teeth and making his strokes with movements of his head. Warren, who discovered his talent only last summer, has completed four watercolors and plans next to try oils.

He already has done two scenes on a commission from a hospital visitor who was attached to the finely detailed work.

Warren has been guided by instructors at the convalescent school and by publice art consultants who pay regular visits. They report that each of his works showed marked improvement over the last.

All of the scenes, say Warren's instructors, exceed the standard that might be expected of an average youth who has full use of his hands.

The Van Ess works, two autumn scenes and two western outdoors views, are marked by intricate detail. George McClellan, Warren's convalescent school instructor, says the youth displays infinite patience with the painting.

Warren is a former Central High School student. He has a brother in military service and two married sisters. None of them are artists, he says.

With a smile, he confides that his own talent might come from an uncle in the West who is a traveling sign painter.

Besides his art work, Warren is carrying on his 11th grade studies and hopes eventually to win a diploma, temporarily delayed by his illness. He also is art editor of a school newspaper, the Merry Free Press.

Van Ess says he hasn't yet mastered oil painting techniques but McClellan feels that they offer the youth a bright horizon.

"There's no telling just were this talent may lead," he says.

Paris Treaties in Committee

Pacts Get Preliminary OK in Lower House of German Parliament

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Paris agreements to free and rearm West Germany went to Bundestag committees today after receiving preliminary approval from the lower house of Parliament.

Despite the initial success, Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's drive for quick ratification appeared certain to face serious difficulties when the pacts return to the chamber next month for key second and third readings.

• • •

Winding up a two-day debate on the first reading the Bundestag agreed last night without a recorded vote to send the controversial agreements to committees for further study.

The decision came after the house voted down a Socialist motion to postpone further action until big power talks are held with Russia on reunification of Germany.

• • •

The vote on the Socialist move was 236-153, with 3 abstentions. But 95 members of parties included in Adenauer's government coalition were absent when the roll was called, possibly because the ballot came sooner than had been expected. Their absence robbed the chancellor of the two-thirds majority he will need on the final vote to make rearmament constitutional.

Shirley Temple's Kin Files Suit for Divorce

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—George F. Temple Jr., brother of actress Shirley Temple, has filed suit for divorce against his wife Patricia Ruth. The former wrestler charged desertion and cruelty.

Mrs. Temple, 23, separated from her husband in 1952, is involved in litigation over the paternity of her 5-month-old daughter Kenny Ann. She has named Hartle Duane Patterson, 28-year-old actor, as the father.

COMING HOME—Loy W. Henderson, U. S. ambassador to Iran for the past three years, is coming back to the U. S. for a new assignment. He will become Undersecretary of State for Administration, succeeding Charles E. Saltzman.

Penmanship Wins

HEREFORD, England (AP)—Police charged Charles Finlayson Hunter, 74, with drunken driving. To support their case in Magistrates Court yesterday, they submitted results of a handwriting test on the retired Army colonel and a doctor's certificate that Hunter was incapable of driving. The magistrates decided Hunter's writing was better than the doctor's. Case dismissed.

Heat needed to melt ice would be sufficient to raise the temperature of the resulting water nearly 80 degrees centigrade.

Buy only a fresh tree as short a time before Christmas as possible. Do not keep a tree after it has dried out. Locate tree away from exit doors and passageways. Stand tree firmly in pail of water or wet sand. Use only non-combustible decorations. Be careful with matches, smoking and open flame. Use only approved type of wiring in good condition. Have your old cords and light sets examined by an electrician and repaired before using. Discard all worn-out cords. Make certain that all bulbs fit securely. Turn off Christmas tree lights when replacing bulbs, when decorating tree, before retiring, or if your house is left unattended. Do not overload your electric circuits. Place Christmas gift wrappings in metal waste basket and get rid of them at once.

A Christmas tree is a potential fire hazard wherever set up inside of a building. While the safeguards outlined above are reprinted from a design intended for home fire prevention during the holiday season, they most certainly are appropriate if a tree is to be set up in any other building where people are to assemble. A safe Christmas is a MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Fire Chief Warns of Yule Tree Being a Fire Hazard

Simple precautions against Christmas Tree fires will make your holiday a safe and happy one, Pontiac Fire Chief John F. Schroeder advised today.

"A Christmas tree fire is especially perilous," he said. "There is probably no other fire like it unless it might be a torch dipped in oil."

Schroeder explained that it burns so rapidly it is virtually impossible to extinguish the flames by methods ordinarily available.

As a guide in handling the Christmas tree, the following 12 "do's and don't's" by the fire department may help for a safe Yuletide:

1. Buy a fresh tree. Be careful of trees described as "fire-proof." Schroeder said he knows of no effective fire-proofing treatment.
2. Keep the tree in a cold place until you're ready to set it up.
3. Saw off diagonally at least an inch of trunk and keep the tree standing in a container of water when you put it up. Be sure the container always has water.
4. Keep the tree well away from fireplaces, radiators, television sets, strong electric lights or other sources of heat.
5. Never use candles for lighting. Use only electric lights — and, first, check them carefully for defective wires or sockets.
6. Be careful not to overload an electric circuit with the tree lights.
7. Turn off the tree lights if there's to be no one in the room for any length of time. Never leave the house with the tree lights on.
8. Use non-combustible decorations.
9. Be sure that metallic icicles or other decorations don't touch light sockets.
10. Don't operate electric trains or other electric toys under the tree; they might cause sparks.
11. Move the tree lights if the tree needles near the bulbs turn brown. When needles start falling in large numbers, get rid of the tree.
12. Dispose of the old tree outdoors. If you burn it, be sure the area is safe from harm. Don't burn the tree in the furnace, stove or fireplace. A dry tree burns with almost explosive violence.

Copper Celebrated

AJO, Ariz. (AP) — The 100th anniversary of the opening of the first copper mine here by white men was celebrated with a pageant, "The Copper Giant." More than 200 persons took part. The first mine was opened in 1854 by 14 men.

Veteran Supreme Court Clerk Dies in Lansing

LANSING (AP) — Jay Mertz, 78, long-time clerk of the State Supreme Court and a recognized authority on Supreme Court procedure, died as a Lansing hospital Wednesday night.

Mertz was clerk of the Supreme Court from 1916 until his retirement Oct. 1, 1952.

He joined the court staff in 1904 as secretary to the late Judge William L. Carpenter. He later spent some time as a government clerk in the Panama Canal Zone and in 1908 returned to the court to work for the late Judge Flavius L. Brooke.

School Bus Driver Gives Kids to Police

CHICAGO (AP)—A bus driver, irked by 35 noisy, disorderly students of a social adjustment school yesterday, detoured to a police station.

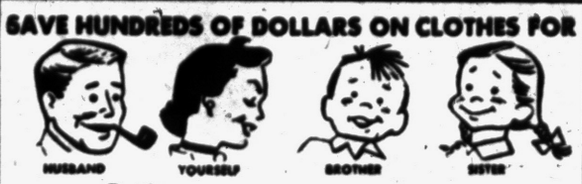

Policemen surrounded the bus and removed the jeering teenagers one at a time. They were turned over to the school for disciplinary action.

The boys, ranging in age from 14 to 18 years and all students at the Montefiore Social Adjustment School, boarded the bus in a group. One kicked the change purse of th edriver, R. W. Watzke, 28, and he was unable to recove rit. Transit employes tried to help Watzke but were unable to get on the bus.

Predicts Polio Drug to Be Taken by Mouth

WASHINGTON (UP) — A polio-preventing preparation which can be taken internally by swallowing it may soon be developed, a scientist predicts.

Dr. Albert B. Sabin of Cleveland said the material to be swallowed would be polio viruses so genetically cultivated they would not cause polio but would build up human resistance to natural strains of the disease.

Wood for matches is sawed into planks two inches thick, then seasoned for two years or more.

Man Asks Examination on Concealed Arms Count

Keith B. Peters, 22, of 528 E. Lincoln, Royal Oak Township, demanded examination yesterday on a charge of carrying concealed weapons when arraigned before Royal Oak Township Justice Hendrik J. Smit.

Smit, who set examination for Dec. 23, ordered Peters to be held in Oakland County Jail when Peters was unable to furnish $1,000 bond, according to Patrolman Richard Travnikar.

Peters was arrested Wednesday morning by Patrolman Joseph Landino at the Township Grill, 26160 John R, Royal Oak Township. Peters had a hunting knife in his possession, police said.

Worker Will Fight Security Dismissal

DETROIT (UP) — Famous Lockett, 31-year-old Army veteran, said today he would fight dismissal as a security risk from his civilian job with the Navy.

Lockett said he was dropped as a machinery inspector for the Detroit office of the inspector of naval materials as a security risk and accused of having been a member of American Youth for Democracy in 1946.

American Youth for Democracy zation by the attorney general.

"It's a lie," Lockett said. "I never was a member. I heard of the group while I was a student (at Wayne University), but I didn't join. I'll fight this thing out. I'm not guilty of this."

Lockett will be given a hearing in Detroit Dec. 27 by a three-member naval board.

James H. Doolittle, on Sept. 24, 1929, made the first all-instrument flight in aviation.

Court Limits Golf Course on Use of Long Lake Water

Oakland County Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty issued a ruling yesterday restricting the pumping of water from Long Lake to sprinkle Morey's Golf course at 2280 Union Lake Rd., Commerce Township.

Claiming unlimited pumping by Morey onto his course bordering the lake had lowered its level three feet below normal, some 27 Long Lake property owners had brought suit.

In his decision, Judge Doty concluded that "reasonable use of the water in Long Lake by (Morey) should be limited to six hours pumpage per day through July, August and September.

The judge stated that until the suit was started Morey used the pump almost constantly during the dry summer season.

He said the lake had receded up to 20 feet in from front of some of the homes and "their properties have been materially damaged. . . in front of these homes there is nothing much left but mud, causing stench and preventing (them) from using the water for their own purposes."

Morey maintained that the dry spell in 1953 had caused the water to recede. But Judge Doty said he was satisfied Morey's use of water contributed to the situation.

Morey said he would appeal the decision.

Petition Filing Deadline Nears

Waterford Clerk Lists Other Due Dates for Spring Election

WATERFORD—Deadline for candidates to file petitions for the township primary election is Jan. 3 at 4 p.m., Clerk Louis Barry has announced.

This is the first election year that Waterford Township has used the primary election to name candidates for the spring election.

Previously caucuses were held by the Democratic and Republican parties to select their candidates.

Jan. 6 is the last day a candidate may withdraw, Barry also announced. The final date for voters to register for the spring election is Jan. 24, and Feb. 19 at 2 p.m. is the deadline for applying for absentee ballots.

Feb. 21 is the biennial spring election.

FANCY GOODIES—By the looks in the eyes of Teddy and Pamela Hale, the gingerbread and candy Christmas decorations their mother, Mrs. Harold G. Hale has created, may not last until Christmas. Mrs. Hale, of 4052 Lamont St., Drayton Plains, made the carousel of cookies, and then went on to create a gingerbread house and chewing gum cottage. The projects, which took hours of work, feature such intricate workmanship as a chimney of peanut cobblestones, and cavorting cookie animals in the carousel, making use of jujubes and lifesavers.

Woman at Drayton Creates Yule Scene of Chewing Gum, Gingerbread, Cookies

By JANE WINDELER

DRAYTON PLAINS — A Christmas fantasy good enough to eat is now on display in the Drayton Plains School on Sashabaw road. It was created by Mrs. Harold G. Hale of 4052 Lamont street, and consists of a gingerbread house, a chewing gum cottage and a cookie carousel.

The gingerbread house has a roof of multi-colored fruit leaf shingles and gumdrops decorate the eaves. On one side is a fireplace chimney constructed of lump sugar and then frosted green.

The chewing gum cottage which took thirty packages of chicklets and five hours labor features a chimney of peanut cobblestones. Beads of cookie confetti brighten the roof and the overhang is undercoated with life-savers. Green jujubes compose the door and the window-sills.

The carousel has large cookie animals which cavort on a marshmallow platform. The supports are candy canes and the roof is red and white sugared cardboard.

All parts are held together with a paste made of confectioners sugar and water. According to Mrs. Hale, each section has to "set" before another can be added.

The display also features some non - edible parts. A manger scene, a candle choir, Santa and his reindeer and a sleigh full of toys, plus a Christmas tree gaily decorated with sequins.

There are three children in the Hale family. Gary, 13, attends the Isaac E. Crary Junior High, and Teddy, 9, and Pamela, 8, attend Drayton Plains School.

Last year, Mrs. Hale made only the chewing gum cottage which she kept until September.

She isn't sure of the fate of her "objects d'art" this year but the youngsters will probably manage that.

White Lake Ready for Goodfellow Sale

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — Twelve members of the White Lake Township Metropolitan club will conduct their annual Goodfellows newspaper drive Saturday.

Education Board Buying 2 Waterford School Sites

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—The board of education announced last night that a 10-acre elementary school site in the Lambert-Stringham area has been purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pazik for $7,500.

The site is located on the east side of Winding Drive.

The board also announced that preliminary agreements have been signed for an elementary school site in the Waterford-Drayton area, at a cost of $7,000.

This is a plat of approximately six acres just south of Eagle Lake.

Plans which are being created for an elementary school at Hatchery and Crescent Lake roads will be modified to meet the needs of the newly acquired sites.

In other action the board hired four new teachers, Mrs. Shirley A. Gorte, who will teach in the Hudson Covert school; Donald R. Peterson, for high school mathematics; Mrs. Thelma Bremer, for junior high counselor, and Charles Ryan, for junior high instructor.

The board also approved a $100 annual pay ipcrease for custodians firing furnaces on weekends.

Following the meeting High School Principal Roy Laramee showed the film, "Freedom to Learn," produced by the Michigan Education Assn., showing teaching of controversial subjects.

Schools to Stage 2 Yule Concerts at North Branch

NORTH BRANCH — A concert by the high school bands and choruses will be featured at the annual Christmas program Monday evening at the school.

John R. Church is directing the bands, and Mrs. Preston Orr the vocal groups.

Caro Boy Gets Thanks for Gift to Mamie, Ike

CARO (UP)—Ten-year-old Tommy Galloway said today he thinks the money he spent to send a gift to Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower was one of the wisest investments he ever made—and Tommy is careful about how he spends money.

The small expenditure made Tommy the envy of all his fifth-grade classmates because in return he got a personal letter from the nation's first lady.

The boy learned in classroom discussions and in talks with his mother that Mrs. Eisenhower was redecorating her home near Gettysburg, Pa. He asked his mother, who is a china painter, to paint a dish for Mrs. Eisenhower.

At first his mother declined but when Tommy offered to pay for it she agreed because "he is always very careful with his money."

A few weeks after he sent the dish Tommy received a letter on White House stationery with a commemorative stamp. It was signed, "Mamie Doud Eisenhower."

Hubbell School Sale Authorized

$500 Price Accepted for Building, Site at Adams, Pontiac Rds.

ROCHESTER — The board of education has voted to sell Edward Stout the Hubbell school building and site at Adams and Pontiac roads.

The school is no longer used by the Consolidated School district. The price was $500.

This school was one of three that the Avon Youth and Recreation Assn. has considered acquiring for a possible community youth center.

Board members said they had heard nothing more of such plans. The school is directly adjacent to the Stout farm.

Committee to Seek Federal, State Aid

DETROIT (INS) — A joint committee yesterday unanimously resolved to ask for federal and state loans to help finance the planning of water and sewage systems in Macomb, Oakland, Monroe and Washtenaw counties.

The committee, made up of the chairmen and five members of the county boards of supervisors from the four counties and Wayne County, proposed that local money be raised to match the amount of the loans.

Wayne County, which is committed to spending $450,000 in a six-year study of water and sewer plans, would not be affected by the plea.

Committee members estimated that planning in the four counties concerned would cost in the neighborhood of $2,000,000 to $2,500,000.

Clarkston Man Dies in Crash at Marlette

CLARKSTON — A 20-year-old Clarkston resident suffered fatal injuries in a collision with a truck near Marlette yesterday.

Cecil L. Finkel was on his way to Bad Axe to help with funeral arrangements for his grandmother, Mrs. Isabel McConald, 78.

A double funeral will be held Sunday.

General's Remarks Protested by Russia

WASHINGTON (INS)—The State Department is studying a Russian protest today about allegedly anti-Russian remarks made by an Air Force general in Britain on Dec. 10 while briefing his men on their duties.

Counselor Anatoli F. Dobrynin of the Soviet Embassy conferred for seven minutes with Under Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. concerning a speech delivered by Brig. Gen. John D. Stevenson, commander of the 49th Air Division in Great Britain.

Gen. Stevenson was quoted as saying that the lethal power of U. S. air units "is something which will give the Russians cause for consideration."

Set Date to Vote on Incorporation

Jan. 17 Slated for Ballot on City Status for East Royal Oak Township

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP —The Madison Heights Civic Association is sponsoring a current move to incorporate the east side of Royal Oak Township.

Since the first city Royal Oak in 1921 and the more recent Oak Park in 1946, incorporated, the Township's original 36-square-mile area has been steadily reduced by eight incorporations. Today eight square miles of unincorporated area remain.

Jan. 17 is the date set for residents to vote on whether the area should become the "City of Madison Heights". They will also vote on a charter commission which would take office only if incorporation is approved.

The commission, composed of nine members, would draft a city charter which would be submitted to ovters for approval of rejection. If no charter is approved at the end of two years, the area would revert to township status.

Prayer Meeting Set

METAMORA — A cottage prayer meeting for the congregation of the Hunters Creek Community Church will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John DeGroot on North Oak street Saturday evening.

Old Irving Berlin Tune

Marilyn Monroe's Song Sure to Stir Plenty of Talk

By LAURA Z. HOBSON

NEW YORK (INS)—"After You Get What You Want, You Don't Want It," is the title of an Irving Berlin song written 34 years ago, back in 1920.

It never became a big Berlin hit; I for one never heard of it, never saw any printed reference to it, and unless you're connected with Irving Berlin or Tin Pan Alley, you probably never heard of it either.

But last night at a gala world premiere for the Actor's Fund, Marilyn Monroe sang it from a million-acre screen in the new $5,000,000 movie, "There's No Business Like Show Business"—and I'll bet you another $5,000,000 that the "double meaning sweepstakes" of the world was won in that very instant.

By next Friday night, otherwise known as Christmas Eve, she'll be singing that same ditty—and how she sings it!—and that same key line in Philadelphia and San Francisco. On Christmas Day the movie opens in Boston, Chicago and Los Angeles, and soon after that Marilyn and the "double meaning sweepstakes" will have swept the country.

As a kind of spoken reinforcement on the victory Miss Monroe has a big dramatic scene in which she finally breaks off with her sweetheart, Donald O'Connor, and tells him why she has decided there's no other way.

Success, she explains, though I won't try to quote precisely—success is something he has enjoyed all his life and grown used to, because his family was famous for years in the theater. But for her it's different—

Any girl, she goes on, who's been on her own since she was 15 years old, any girl who then has a chance to make good in show business, to star, to become famous in her own right—the girl simply has no other choice than give up everything else and stay with the career and only the career.

Well, to my mind, that big scene just about put the engraving of name and date on the silver cup for the world championship.

The picture itself deserves about 900 silver cups, by the way—By and large it's a technicolor honey of a musical, starring Ethel Merman, Mitzi Gaynor, Dan Dailey, Donald O'Connor, Johnnie Ray and Miss M. M.

What's more, it's filled with a couple of dozen of Irving Berlin's all-time greats that everybody and his brother certainly has sung and whistled and danced to down the years.

Most of all, it's filled with the greatest Ethel Merman I've ever seen among all the great Ethel Mermans in all the hits she's ever had before.

Which makes me surer than ever that the special song and the special scene Marilyn Monroe dishes out were definitely not put there for any special purpose at all.

Probably the song was already on the sound track long before Marilyn broke off with you-know-who, and perhaps that scene and dialogue about why a girl has to choose careers instead of love had been shot long before the finished film was in the cans.

It simply must have been that way. Coincidence, pure and simple.

I'm positive that nobody connected with the studio or the picture could have had the faintest inkling that anybody in any audience would or could conceivably raise any question of good taste.

Neither the scene nor the song is or the cutting room floor, is it?

And isn't that all the proof you need?

Peoria Doctor Wins Physician's Award

WASHINGTON (INS) — President Eisenhower's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped announced Thursday that its 1954 Physician's Award will go to Dr. Harold A. Vonachen of Peoria, Ill.

Dr. Vonachen, medical director of the Caterpillar Tractor Co., was commended, in part, because "he convinced plant management that there are many jobs that a disabled man or woman can perform efficiently."

The Physician's Award, signed by the President, will be presented to Dr. Vonachen Jan. 25 in Washington.

Naval Office, Miner Stage Prompt Rescue

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — A naval officer home on leave and a miner went down 800 feet into a salt mine yesterday with portable oxygen equipment and brought up another miner just before their oxygen gave out.

The rescued man, Julius Smith, 40, was overcome by carbon dioxide fumes after an explosion and faced almost certain death. He was reported in "fairly good shape" at a hospital.

Lt. Billy Scroggins had been demonstrating new oxygen equipment to firemen when word of the blast reached him. He took the equipment—without which the rescue would have been impossible—to the mine and descended with Chester Camp.

Gregory Peck Denies Charge of Cruelty

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actor Gregory Peck, 39, has answered his wife's divorce suit by denying her charges of cruelty.

Mrs. Greta Peck, 42, said in her suit she and Peck had been estranged since Jan. 13, 1953. They were married in 1942. Mrs. Peck said a financial agreement already has been signed. She seeks custody of their three sons.

Jap Soldiers Get Break

TOKYO (AP)—It would have been a shocker in prewar days in Japan, but hardly an eyebrow was raised when a woman was appointed to the faculty of the Defense University, Japan's West Point. She is Teruko Sobeya, 40, pretty, demure, who was appointed by the Japanese Defense board to head the University's physics department.

Volunteer members of the Mason County Allied Labor Council helped erect the cross. The French explorer-missionary priest died near the spot on his return from a trip to the Mississippi River nearly 400 years ago. The base of the cross will be encased with field stone.

Movies Slice Damage Claims by $94,000

BALTIMORE (AP)—In his $100,000 suit against the Baltimore Transit Co., F. Albert Glombowski, 64, claimed he received "permanent injuries" when his car was hit by a company bus. He contended he was unable to now do "laborious work."

During the trial, movies of Glombowski were shown by defense lawyers. The films showed the plaintiff carrying a heavy auto battery, crawling under an auto and bending over an engine.

The jurors yesterday scaled Glombowski's demands down and awarded him $6,000.

Union Seeks Work for Idle Railroaders

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A CIO Transport Workers union group will meet next Wednesday with representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad to discuss means of returning thousands of the PRR's furloughed maintenance workers to an active status.

TWU President Michael Quill estimated in a letter to James M. Symes, PRR president, that 10,000 to 12,000 employes who are members of the TWU's Railroad Workers Division" are on furlough. Some, Quill said, have had that status for a year.

A PRR spokesman said the railroad's estimate is that about 8,000 men employed in shops in Wilmington, Del.; Altoona, Pa.; Columbus, Ohio; an Terre Haute, Ind., are on furlough.

Another Strike Faced by Port of New York

NEW YORK (AP)—The sprawling Port of New York, struck three times in the past 15 months, today faces the possibility of another walkout.

The International Longshoremen's Assn., representing some 20,000 New York dock workers, announced yesterday it is contemplating a strike. Observers believed no walkout was likely before Jan. 1.

The announcement came six days after the union membership rejected a contract agreement that would have given the dock workers a 17-cent hourly package boost and a union shop.

The last strike on the 350-mile waterfront occurred Oct. 4. It lasted two days and ended with what the union described as a clear-cut victory—an 8-cent hourly wage increase, which brought the wages to the present rate of $2.35 an hour.

Michael Di Salle Pays Tribute to a Politician

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—One of the most amusing men in public life, ex-Price Administrator Michael DiSalle, was listing the defects of a famous politician.

"But," conceded Mike, "he makes a great speech.

"He should," he added. "He's been making it for 30 years."

MICHAEL DI SALLE

DiSalle, who recently sought the Democratic chairmanship, was asked why he wanted the job. Now practicing law in Toledo, he soon celebrates his 25th wedding anniversary. In 7 years, all his 5 children will have finished college. And Mike would like then to become a university professor or department head in political science. He feels the chairmanship would have been another step toward that goal.

Sophia Loren, the new Italian doll they're all talking about, is now to be seen at Photographer Gene Cook's one-man show at the N. Y. Camera Club. When Cook shot her in Italy, she was driving her own fast car at a hellish clip and suddenly swung around and took after a high-powered Isotta Franchini which turned out to be driven by her boy friend. Cook asked her how she knew her beau was near.

"I could tell by the sound of his motor," she said—so evidently motor music has replaced mandolin music in modern Rome.

State Acts to Curb Port Huron Smog

LANSING (AP) — Gov. Williams' office today took steps to end smog reportedly caused by refineries in the area of Sarnia, Ont.

Aides said the governor has asked Port Huron City Manager Jay Gibbs to make a formal request for state intervention through the Port Huron City Council.

On receipt of the request, the governor is expected to ask the International Joint Commission to act in abating the air pollution. Port Huron residents have complained that the smoke is thick enough sometomes to impair breathing.

The IJC, composed of U. S. and Candian representatives, is currently studying complaints that Canadian refinery wastes are polluting the St. Clair River, Lake St. Clair and the Detroit River.

San Francisco Area Jostled by Quake

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—An earthquake which cracked walls and shook buildings but apparently caused no major property damage jostled the San Francisco Bay area late last night, some 20 hours after a more severe shock hit Nevada and neighboring states.

The University of California seismograph at Berkeley pinpointed the quake at 11:09 p.m. centered 12 to 15 miles south of Berkeley in the San Leandro area.

The San Leandro Morning News reported some cracked walls in private residences in that city and said buildings in the area shook sharply.

The tremor was felt as far away from here as Vallejo, 40 miles to the northeast, Hamilton Air Force Base, 35 miles north and throughout the heavily populated Bay area.

State Christmas Trees Said Better Than Ever

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Christmas trees are of better quality this year than ever before, the State Agriculture Department said today.

C. A. Boyer, chief of the department's plant bureau, said the public is demanding shapelier trees and the cutters are finding they have to supply them.

Boyer said the Christmas tree market is excellent, with a good balance of supply and demand.

GI to Explain Flag Attitude

Private to Tell General Why He Didn't Salute at Retreat Ceremony

By HUELL WARREN

EDGEWOOD, Md. (AP) — Pvt Bruce A. Wallace, studious but boyish looking at 24, has a date with his general today to explain how he feels about the flag.

The Army didn't like his explanations after he failed to stand at attention and salute as the Stars and Stripes were hauled down at sunset at the Army Chemical Center here Nov. 3.

Brig. Gen. John R. Burns is studying still another explanation Pvt. Wallace made under oath last week.

• • •

Gen. Burns said he would decide, after talking to the young mechanical engineer, whether to order him tried by a court-martial or let it go at a strong reprimand.

Wallace, from Ridgewood, N.J., declined to say another word until he sees the general, a fellow alumnus from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

According to 1st Lt. Carl L. Teshman, Wallace's company commanner, the private told him:

"I do not respect the flag and I did not feel it necessary for me to render proper respect to the flag at retreat if I am not in formation.

• • •

"My being in the Army has lessened my respect for the country. I feel that my service is unnecessary and a waste of time. I classify the flag as a symbol not requiring respect according to my religions."

In his sworn statement of Dec. 6, Wallace denied he had said his Army service lessened his respect for the country and was unnecessary.

Iron Strengthens Germs

Frank Sinatra Signed for Role in 'Brass Band'

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — In Chicago tomorrow, Jesse L. Lasky will announce before a large group of band members that after three years he is finally bringing "The Big Brass Band" to the screen. But the star is a singer, and not another bandleader patterned after John Phillip Sousa.

Jesse will say that the singer is Frank Sinatra, whom he has signed. As "The Big Brass Band" won't be made until July, Frankie will have plenty of time to get all of his fighting done and his picture work finished.

Frankie made his first picture, "Miracle of the Bells," for Jesse, and even if he does fight occasionally he is a sentimental guy, and that ain't bad.

• • •

I cannot say how many years ago I saw Lionel and John Barrymore in "The Jest" on Broadway, but it made an impression that I'll never forget, seeing the two brothers trying to out-act one another.

So I am especially interested to hear that Jack Palance and Jay Robinson will co-star in a revival of this classic play, which will be produced on Broadway by Jean Dalrymple next season.

Palance will play the Lionel Barrymore role and Robinson the role created by the inimitable John.

• • •

Attractive Ann Robinson, Jack Webb's leading lady in "Dragnet" smashed her boyfriend's expensive car in an accident. Did she get a scolding? She did not. He happens to be Ed Sweeney, Florida hotel owner.

He has moved to California and, well, he's going to marry Ann next summer.

He felt he was lucky that she wasn't hurt.

• • •

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Joan Collins, 20th's new British actress is on her way to London to file divorce action against her actor-husband, Maxwell Reed. She wants to get this domestic situation cleared before she starts her Hollywood career.

Talk is that Leslie Caron will marry Robert Petit when she's free in March in Paris. He'll produce her play "Orvet" there.

Terry Moore will be well chaperoned in Iceland, Scotland and the Azores where she'll entertain the boys during the holidays. Her mother and father are going with her.

Bing Crosby looms up very strongly as an Academy Award contender for "The Country Girl." Never has there been so much discussion over any picture. When it's all been said and done, Bing turns in a great performance.

Rosalind Russell and Freddie Brisson's eleven-year-old son, Lance, gets here from school in the east tomorrow on his first plane ride to spend Christmas with his parents.

Linda Christian has been too ill to answer telephone calls. One reporter asks if it's true that she has been receiving telephone calls from opera star Cesare Siepi? She wishes they were from Tyrone Power.

At the Bel Air farm house, Abbe Lane's new Paris gown had many admiring eyes, among them her bridegroom, Xavier Cugat.

Police Entry Rings Alarm

Building Project Faces Court Test

Health Hazard Claimed by Residents of Area on Bald Mountain

Some 20 residents of the Bald Mountain road area in Pontiac Township are attempting, through Oakland County Circuit Court action, to prevent a multiple-dwelling unit development near their homes.

They are asking the court to nullify an amendment to the township zoning ordinance adopted Nov. 22 by the township board rezoning an area on Bald Mountain road north of Lapeer road from farm-residential to multiple dwelling.

In a bill of complaint, the residents say builders Walter Smith and Beecher N. Rossman have poured footings for an eight-unit development on the site without obtaining a building permit.

They claim the soil is not properly constituted to handle waste from the planned buildings and their surrounding homes will be made "unsanitary and unhealthful."

The residents ask for an injunction stopping Smith and Rossman from proceeding with the project. The two will appear in court later in an attempt to show why the injunction should not be issued. Date for their appearance has not been set.

Interest in Better Music Urged by Catholic Priest

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP) — The Most Rev. John J. Wright of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Worcester believes introduction of music such as that composed by Victor Herbert to the younger generation would nullify the danger from suggestive music with themes "of seduction and passion."

Bishop Wright says such music is heard daily on radio and television and constitutes a danger to the younger generation. He recently urged the Guild of Our Lady of Providence to strive for the attendance of family groups at its musical programs.

Police Hope to Buy Out Blind Man's Cigarettes

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Employes in Grand Rapids police headquarters who normally buy a pack of cigarettes each day from Earl Near ordered a carton today.

It was their way of showing their appreciation to Near, a blind man who has operated a tobacco and confectionery stand in police headquarters for eight years.

Members of the Fraternal Order of Police, who are sponsoring "Earl Near Appreciation Day," hope they and their friends will buy out Near's entire stock before the day ends as Christmas present.

Christmas Fun Week Begins at 'Y' Dec. 27

Christmas Fun Week will begin Dec. 27 at the Pontiac YMCA, 131 Mt. Clemens St., George Balch, boys and girls director, announced today.

Because the program is limited to 100 boys and the same number of girls, Balch urged parents to register youngsters before noon Dec. 24. A free Christmas gift will be given to the youths. Boys or girls 9 years and older may register for the program which includes activities in the gymnasium and swimming pool. Many games and movies are also part of the fun agenda.

Balch said registrations may be made by calling the Y at FEderal 5-6116.

Employe-Employer Rift in State Denied

DETROIT (AP) — August Scholle, president of the Michigan CIO Council, and Lester J. Steele, chairman of the Michigan Economic Development Commission, denied last night allegations that a bitter employe-employer relationship exists in Michigan.

Scholle said such charges were prevalent in some of the large cities of the eastern seaboard. But investigation, he said, has failed to show a single significant illustrato nof a firm having left the state because of labor difficulties.

Steele supported the union leader's statements and said there is a general feeling among commission members that the group is achieving better co-operation between business, industry and labor.

Giants, Indians Dominate Majors' All-Star Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (AP)—Befitting their station, New York's world champion Giants and Cleveland's American League champion Indians dominated the 1954 Associated Press Major League All-Star Team, capturing six of the 10 positions.

* * *

Six of the 16 big league clubs, four in the National, were represented in the AP's ninth annual all-star squad, selected by 422 baseball writers and broadcasters throughout the nation. The National League had six players to four for the American.

* * *

The Giants and Indians were the only clubs with more than one representative. Each had three. Brooklyn, St. Louis, Cincinnati and the New York Yankees had one each.

Second base — Bobby Avila, Indians (.341)

Third base — Al Rosen, Indians (.300)

Shortstop — Alvin Dark, Giants (.293)

Leftfield — Stan Musial, Cardinals (.330)

Centerfield — Willie Mays, Giants (.345)

Rightfield — Duke Snider, Dodgers (.341)

Catcher — Yogi Berra, Yankees (.307)

Righthanded pitcher — Bob Lemon, Indians (23-7)

Lefthanded pitcher — Johnny Antonelli, Giants (21-7)

Only three players are holdovers from the 1953 team. They are Rosen, Musial and Snider. Musial made the team for the eighth time, missing only once since the poll was inaugurated in 1946.

* * *

Mays, the brilliant Giant outfielder who led both majors in batting with a .345 average, topped all vote getters. The Negro flash was named on 397 ballots. Musial had 340 votes to easily join Mays in the outfield. Snider had tough competition from Boston's Ted Williams before finally sneaking into the third garden spot, 195 votes to Ted's 153.

The second biggest vote-getter was Berra, who won the catching position hands down with 389 votes.

* * *

All infield positions were decided by comfortable margins.

Dark enjoyed an overwhelming margin of more than 200 votes over runner-up Harvey Kuenn of Detroit for the shortstop berth.

Lemon, winner of 20 games for the sixth time, led all the righthanders with 287 votes but the biggest vote-getter among all the hurlers was southpaw Johnny Antonelli, whose 21-7 record and 2.29 ERA was tops among National League moundsmen. The young Giant was named on 344 ballots. Robin Roberts, biggest National League winner, was runner-up to Lemon with 97 votes while Antonelli's chief competition came from Warren Spahn. The veteran Braves lefthander, another 6-time 20-game winner, received 57 votes.

In all 18 pitchers received consideration.

FIRST BASE — Kluszewski, Reds, 330; Hodges, Dodgers, 52; Vernon, Senators, 11; Lockman, Giants, 8; Adcock, Braves, 6.
SECOND BASE — Avila, Indians, 259; Schoendienst, Cardinals, 117; Fox, White Sox, 21; Hamner, Phillies, 7; Gilliam, Dodgers, 6.

No Letup for Lions Against Cleveland Club

Parker Aims to Use All His Power in Non-Title Tilt Sunday

DETROIT (UP) — Coach Buddy Parker's Detroit Lions put two unique records on the line Sunday when they battle the Cleveland Browns in a "nothing" game preparatory to the week-away National Football league title clash between the two teams.

The Lions have never lost to the Browns in the four years Parker has served as head coach. Nor have they ever lost two games in a row under the direction of Parker.

Cleveland is in a position to shatter both of those marks since the Lions suffered a 28-24 loss to the Chicago Bears last Sunday.

While the opener of the back-to-back series between the arch rivals will mean nothing in the league standings — Detroit and Cleveland have already wrapped up the Western and Eastern division titles, respectively — Parker isn't planning to take it easy and save his fireworks for the championship game.

"We play to win every game," Parker said. "That's the only way you can play in this league. Remember, it only takes a couple of losses to establish a losing habit."

Consequently, Parker will use every able-bodied member of the Detroit team in an attempt to get the Lions back on the winning path.

Bobby Layne, Detroit's No. 1 signal-caller, will return to his quarterback post. A broken nose and a shoulder injury kept him out of last Sunday's game with the Bears.

Parker said offensive guard Dick Stanfel is the only Detroit player definitely out of the 1st Cleveland encounter. Stanfel wrenched his back a month ago and has been sidelined since. Parker is hopeful he will be available for the title game.

Detroit has met Cleveland seven times in the last four years and the only time the Lions failed to produce a victory was during the 1953 exhibition season when the teams fought to a 24-24 tie.

$113 Million Is Wagered by State Race Fans in '54

LANSING (AP) — Horse race fans paid $113,063,370 through pari-mutuel windows at Michigan race tracks this year, Aud. Gen. John B. Martin reported today.

Martin said an audit of all track operations showed $97,641,045 was paid back on winning tickets.

The state received $6,890,291 from its share of the tax and the tracks received $8,532,030.

From the state's total income, $1,023,201 was paid to three cities where tracks are located. Jackson got $33,201, Hazel Park got $500,000 and Livonia $500,000.

The audit showed the 57-day season at the Michigan Racing Association produced a total wager of $40,364,829, of which the state and the track each received $2,685,000.

The 57-day Hazel Park season produced $39,801,479 in wagers. The state and the track each got $2,655,000.

The 39-day Hazel Park harness meet produced $10,488,540 in wagers. The state got $493,684 and the track $1,017,981.

The 39-day season at Northville Downs produced $8,810,557, of which the state got $417,711 and the track $858,237.

The 39-day Wolverine Harness Meet brought in $11,099,725 in wagers. The state got $522,406 and the track $1,074,724.

City Parochial Quintets Play Home Tonight

St. Mikes Entertain OL St. Mary and St. Fred Faces Royal Oak '5'

A full Suburban Catholic League basketball card tonight matches winners of last weeks opening round against the four 1st-game losers.

Both Pontiac parochial squads are at home. St. Michael entertains once-beaten but dangerous Orchard Lake St. Mary and St. Frederick is host to Royal Oak St. Mary. In other games, St. James goes to St. Benedict and St. Clement plays at St. Rita.

Coach Bob Mineweaser's veteran Shamrocks face a potentially strong Orchard Lake squad that has been weakened by the temporary ineligibility of its only returning letterman, forward Tom Kalasz.

Kalasz, a 6-foot senior, has been sidelined for the month by academic deficiencies. Eaglets bowed to St. Benedict 37-33 last week after opening with a 52-48 nonleague win over St. Stanislaus.

St. Frederick, beaten 39-31 by St. Rita in its opener, seeks to break into the win column against St. Mary's Irish. Coach Tom Bean's Royal Oak team scraped past St. Clement 47-45 despite its lack of experience and height.

Tonight's games wind up SCL's pre-Christmas competition.

Richard Nears 400th Goal of Career in NHL

'Rocket' Bags No. 399, Beliveau Gets Two in Canadian Victory

By The Associated Press

The incomparable Maurice (The Rocket) Richard, for more than a decade the scourge of National Hockey League goalies, is just a swat away from his 400th goal today — a total not even remotely approached before.

Richard, greatest scorer in NHL history, slipped in his 399th goal last night as his Montreal Canadiens cuffed the New York Rangers 5-1. It was an easy score, with Richard flipping in a loose puck from just outside the goal crease in a wild scramble.

Richard, who began his career with the Canadiens in the 1942-43 season, collared the goal at 15:05 of the 2nd period, but despite an all-out effort — he skated with several lines in a tireless attempt — he couldn't drive in the coveted No. 400.

It was Richard's 15th goal of the season and was the popular highlight of the game, although Jean Beliveau scored twice and Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion gained his 21st goal of the season during the rout.

With the victory, Canadiens increased their NHL lead to three points while the Detroit Red Wings moved past idle Toronto into 2nd place with a 4-2 victory over the Boston Bruins.

Dangerous Precedent?
Frick Holding Up OK of Kiner's Salary Cut

NEW YORK (AP)—Ralph Kiner probably will be asked to sign a new 1955 contract with the Cleveland Indians when he and Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick meet here Saturday.

* * *

Frick disclosed yesterday he was holding up approval of Kiner's contract in which the slugging outfielder volunteered to take a salary cut above the 25 per cent limit.

Kiner, who received a reported $65,000 with the Chicago Cubs last season, was traded to Cleveland last month. Figuring his poor season with the Cubs entitled him to no more than $40,000 for next year, he signed his new contract with the Indians Tuesday.

Kiner insisted he was setting no precedent in taking an unusual cut of approximately 40 per cent.

Reports persisted, however, that other players would disapprove such a procedure, figuring a dangerous precedent would be set.

* * *

In Pittsburgh, Kiner said he still didn't see anything wrong with the contract, but if Frick wanted him to sign a new contract, he would abide. The new contract presumably would be around $49,000 on the basis of a 25 per cent cut.

North Roster Complete for All-Star Game

UM's McDonald Added to List That Includes Rody, Zagers of MSC

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The North squad for the Christmas night college All-Star football game in the Orange Bowl was brought to its full, 25-man strength Friday with the addition of a back and two linemen.

* * *

Michigan quarterback Duncan McDonald, Kansas State guard Ron Marciniak and Marquette end Tom Braatz completed the North roster for the Shrine Charity game. Two UCLA ends, Bob Heydenfeldt and Bob Long, were added Thursday night.

The coaches — Ivy Williamson of Wisconsin and Bernie Crimmins of Indiana for the North and Andy Gustafson of Miami and Jim Tatum of Maryland for the South—were scheduled to get acquainted with their newly arrived players Friday and start workouts Saturday.

* * *

Ends—Jim Soltau, Minnesota; Lewis Matykiewicz, Iowa; Bob Heydenfeldt, UCLA; Bob Long, UCLA; Tom Braatz, Marquette.

Tackles—Charles Kubes, Minnesota; Sam Palumbo, Notre Dame; Frank Varrichone, Notre Dame; Paul Kernaldian, Syracuse.

Guards — Norman Amundsen, Wisconsin; Ron Riba, Northwestern; Fred Rody, Michigan State; Ron Marciniak, Kansas State.

Centers—Warren Lawson, Iowa; Gary Messner, Wisconsin.

Backs — Florian Helinski, Indiana; Tom Gastall, Boston University; Duncan McDonald, Michigan; Bert Zagers, Michigan State; Pat Abbruzzi, Rhode Island; Carl Norman, West Virginia; Ron Younker, Penn State; Rex Brock, Purdue; Alan Ameche, Wisconsin; Sam Pino, Boston University.

Dietz Signs as Indianwood Pro for '55 Season

Former Michigan Open Titlist Will Succeed Bob Waara

Announcement was made here today of the appointment of Mike Dietz of Grosse Pointe as golf professional for Indianwood Country Club. Carl Ruebelman, Pontiac automobile dealer and owner of the club, said that Dietz would take over his new duties March 15.

DIETZ

Ruebelman signed Dietz during a recent trip to Pinehurst. Mike was a contender in the recent Miami Open tourney and went up to Pinehurst to confer with Ruebelman. He was signed for one year.

Dietz is the 2nd new golf professional to be named within a week for a Pontiac area club. Elmer Prieskorn was named Pine Lake's pro, to succeed Henry Ransom, resigned. Dietz succeeds the veteran Bob Waara who has purchased a course of his own, near Grand Rapids.

Dietz is well known in the Detroit district where he has competed in many tourneys, winning the State Open in 1952 at the course where he will now preside as pro. He is also a former district champion and was Joe Belfore's aide at Country Club of Detroit. He later was at Lakepointe two years before making the professional tour.

Cage Contrasts
Jeff's Rout of Lincoln, Braves-Eastern Overtime Scrap Mark Juniors' Opening

City Junior High School Basketball League season got under way yesterday afternoon, with a rout and an overtime thriller providing contrast in the opening card.

Jefferson swamped Lincoln, 68-15, as 6-foot 3-inch center Jim Ray collected 15 points and teammate Archie Brooks added 14. Jeffs led 34-8 at halftime and 54-10 at the three-quarter mark. Jerry Covington scored 10 of Lincoln's 15 points.

Eastern's defending league champions caught fire to score 13 points in a 3-minute overtime period to down Washington, 42-32.

The teams were tied 14-all at halftime and 29-all at the end of regulation time. In the extra period, Chuck McIlrath and Ken McLintock scored four points apiece, Bill Hayward had three and Coley added two. A basket by Dick Whitmer and a free throw by Lessie Watkins accounted for Washington's scoring.

Eastern actually won the contest from the free throw line, sinking 24 of 41 chances. Braves outscored the Indians from the floor, 13 goals to nine.

'Hard Way' Win Over Bruins Puts Wings in Second Place

BOSTON (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings came from behind and scored twice in the final period last night to defeat the Boston Bruins, 4-2, and take over 2nd place in the National Hockey League.

Dutch Reibel scored twice — in the 2nd and 3rd periods—to stretch the Wings' unbeaten streak to six games. The roly-poly center tied the score at 2-all in the 2nd and fliped in a setup pass from Marcel Bonin at 10:24 of the final stanza.

While pulling a point ahead of idle Toronto the Wings remained three points behind the league-leading Montreal Canadiens who defeated New York, 5-1, last night.

Already handicaped without the services of captain Ted Lindsay, the Wings got a jolt last night when Alex Delvecchio was shaken up after being checked by Leo Boivin, and had to leave the ice. But he returned in the final period and assisted on Johnny Wilson's goal.

Detroit opened with a brief 1-0 lead after only 2:54 of the 1st period whe nTony Leswick lofted a 10-foot golf shot past Boston's rookie goalie John Henderson.

Boston came back to take the margin when Murray Costello banged in a 25-foot screen shot and Cal Gardner followed on a pass off the backboards from Lorene Ferguson.

Reibel was centering between Vic Stasiuk and Lorne Davis when he knotted the count with a stab at a rebound. He was subbing for Delvecchio on another line when he poked in the winner lifting a backhander into the net from six feet away.

Wilson teamed with Gordie Howe and Delvecchio for the final filip.

Seven Uclans Playing in Post-Season Tilts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Seven members of the UCLA Bruins football team that finished its 1954 season undefeated and untied have accepted invitations to play in post season games.

Ends Bob Long and Roy Heydenfeld will play in the North-South Bowl game at Miami. Halfback Primo Villanueva and tackle Joe Ray accepted bids to the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Ala. Guards Jim Salsbury and Sam Boghosian and All-America tackle Jack Ellena will participate in the Shrine East-West game at San Francisco, and Salsbury, Ellena and Villanueva will perform in the Hula Bowl game in Honolulu next month.

Grill Quintet Takes 2nd Win

Edges Inn Team, 44-38; Shack Five Registers 'A' Victory

Griff's Grill won its 2nd straight victory in City Class B Basketball League competition last night, edging Stadium Inn, 44-38.

Winners pulled away from a 22-21 halftime lead to move into the finale with a 37-32 edge. Harrison led Griff's with 13 points, but Stadium Inn's Jim Lee took game honors with 14.

Chuck's Shack evened its Class A record at 1-1 by defeating Price's 54-47. Price's outscored Chuck's, 27-25, in the 2nd half but couldn't make up its 29-20 halftime deficit.

Tom Spencer had 14 points for the winners, while Hubert Price had 18 for the losers.

Stadium	11	10	11	6—38
Griff's	10	13	15	7—44
Chuck's	16	11	10	15—54

Ice in Small Lakes May Be 'Fishable'

LANSING (AP)—The ice on most small lakes will be safe for ice fishing this weekend, the State Conservation Department advised today.

Utmost caution was urged, however.

The department said fishing pressure had so far been light but an increase was expected this weekend.

Some perch were being taken in Grand and Long Lakes, Presque Isle County. Bluegill fishing was fair in Walton Pond, Grand Traverse County. Pike fishing was good in Crooked Lake, Missaukee County.

Whitefish were being taken in Hubbard Lake. Perch fishing was fair to good in the shallow waters of Saginaw Bay. Some northern pike were being taken from Houghton Lake.

PHS Tankers Seek 3rd Win

Swim at Ferndale in Today's Meet; Chiefs in Favorite Role

Pontiac High's swimming team was at Ferndale this afternoon, seeking its 3rd consecutive victory of the season against Lincoln High.

Chiefs, boasting victories over Flint Central and Mt. Clemens, were favored over the twice-beaten Railsplitters. Lincs bowed to Grosse Pointe, 50-33, and Highland Park, 57-27, in their 1st two starts.

Four PHS swimmers — breaststroker Bob Keavy, back-stroker Tom Cross and free-stylers Dennis Simson and Bob Lamson — were after their 3rd straight win in their individual specialties. Only Keavy, who faces a strong challenger in Ferndale's Denny Ford, was expected to encounter much difficulty.

Ferndale's top man, back-stroker Dick Leonard, will miss the meet because of ineligibility.

Conservation Worker Wins Bobcat Battle

18-Pounder Tackled, Tagged by Biologist at Houghton Lake

HOUGHTON LAKE (AP) — A conservation department worker, with the help of two companions, literally tackled an 18-pound bobcat near here yesterday.

Ellsworth M. Harger, biologist for the Houghton Lake Wildlife Experiment Station, said he ran down, caught and tagged the bobcat in the Butterfield creek area of Missaukee County.

"She wasn't as mean as some others we've handled," Harger said. "Her teeth went through my skin a little bit although I wore heavy gloves."

The department catches and tags the animals in order to study their movements. Usually, dogs are used and they are held at bay in trees.

This bobcat, Harger said, was caught on the ground. It was the first taken by the department this winter.

Non-Shooting 5 Draws Fire of Foes' Coach

CHICAGO (AP) — Quincy College was in DePaul's doghouse Thursday, accused by DePaul Coach Ray Meyer of putting on "a disgraceful exhibition of basketball."

DePaul, playing in its own gym, won the game Tuesday night, 77-22. Quincy did not take a shot from the floor until 14:33 of the 1st half and tried only 20-25 shots in the entire game.

"That was a disgraceful exhibition of basketball Quincy put up in our gym—the worst I've seen in many, many years of coaching," said Meyer, who is also DePaul Athletic director. "We'll never play Quincy again in anything, basketball or marbles.

"I don't condemn stalling tactics as such—we've stalled ourselves, but when teams use the stall it's with an effort to win. There was no effort to win on Quincy's part."

Union Basketball Action Opens With Two Games

Oakland County UAW-CIO Basketball League action opened last night with two games played at Eastern Junior High School.

Henry and Tuttle each collected 12 points to lead Local 653 to a 39-21 victory over Local 594. Another 12-point performance by Fish 596's Francis helped his team defeat Milford CIO 898, 28-25, in the 2nd game.

Another Triple

ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—Apprentice George Taniguchi rode another triple at Golden Gate Fields Thursday and upped his leading total for the meeting to 59.

The 25-year-old California-born Japanese won with Nic Lovere $3.80, Owners Venture $4.30 and Samoa Winds $7.00.

Hayes Plans Drills Open to the Press

COLUMBUS, O. (UP) — Coach Woody Hayes, whose Ohio State Buckeyes leave by plane for California tomorrow for their New Year's day date with Southern California in the Rose Bowl, said today some of the Buckeyes' early practice sessions in California would be open to the press.

* * *

Hayes said that he plans to hold two-a-day workouts for three days next week, beginning Monday. He added that the Buckeyes were behind schedule in their training but said he was pleased with the team's overall fitness.

Jap Netters Win

MANILA (AP) — Japan's young Atsushi Miyagi and Yuji Takayama outdrove and outsmashed Philippine veterans Cesar Carmona and Amado Sahchez to win the Philippine Tennis Assn's. doubles championship today.

The scores were 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Cincinnati Back Is Added to North's 'Senior' Team

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A 177-pound back and a 190-pound guard have been added to the rosters for the sixth annual Senior Bowl Game Jan. 8 when the squad members make their professional debut.

* * *

Dick Goist, University of Cincinnati captain, will replace back Primo Villaneuve of UCLA for the North. Little All-America guard Hamp Cook of Mississippi Southern wil play for the South.

Other Rebel guards are All-America Bud Brooks, Arkansas; Frank Mincevich, South Carolina and George Atkins, Auburn.

In the North backfield with Goist will be Alan Ameche, Wisconsin; Max Burkett, Iowa State; Florian Helinski, Indiana; Dave Leggett, Ohio State; Lindon Crow, Southern California; Ron Drzewiecki, Marquette; Bob McNamara, Minnesota; Corky Taylor; Kansas State and Dick Young, Chattanooga (Tenn.).

Winning team members will receive $500 and expenses and losers $400 and expenses each. The game will be in 36,000 capacity Ladd Stadium.

Unbeaten 5s Tangle

Nine Oakland County high schol basketball teams are undefeated thus far this season, but only two have played more than two games. This pair, Milford and Royal Oak Madison, put their records on the line tonight against Keego Harbor and Roseville, each boasting a 1-0 record.

* * *

Milford and Keego tangle for the leadership of the Wayne-Oakland League on the Keego court, while the winner of the Madison-Roseville tilt will take the Oakland-B Conference lead.

Shrine and Ferndale, both with 2-0 marks, are finished until after the holidays and Birmingham (2-0) is at Mt. Clemens tonight. Keego, Hazel Park, Pontiac St. Michael and RO St. Mary are teams with victories in their only games.

The parochial quintets are in action tonight and Hazel Park has a game with its alumni Dec. 21. In the area, six teams are unbeaten, none of which has played more than two games.

Utica (2-0), Warren (2-0), and Lake Shore (1-0) have completed their pre-holiday schedules. Armada (2-0) and North Branch (2-0) play tonight along with Roseville.

* * *

Three games are offered in Pontiac tonight with Flint Central at PHS, OL St. Mary at St. Mikes and RO St. Mary at St. Freds. The Milford-Keego game is the feature of a heavy schedule in the suburban area.

Southfield plays at Waterford, Holly at Clarkston, Farmington at Walled Lake and Romeo at Oxford in other contests. Rochester is on the road at Lapeer, Lake Orion goes to Davison and Avondale to Clawson. Fitzgerald at Troy and Millington at Ortonville round out the night's play for the "locals."

NCAA Questioning Oklahoma Players

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. is questioning University of Oklahoma football players in an apparent followup to an investigation started last spring.

Several players were interviewed by an NCAA panel yesterday. They said their replies were taken on a wire recorder.

The investigators declined to discuss their probe. NCAA headquarters, following its regular policy on complaints against schools, has not disclosed who originated the complaints against Sooner football practices nor has given the nature of them.

Middie '11' Holds Final Pre-Christmas Practice

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy's Sugar Bowl-bound football team was scheduled to hold its last workou there today before going on leave for Christmas.

The Middies will start practice again Dec. 27 at Tulane University for the bowl game against Mississippi on New Year's Day.

Building Project Faces Court Test

Health Hazard Claimed by Residents of Area on Bald Mountain

Some 20 residents of the Bald Mountain road area in Pontiac Township are attempting, through Oakland County Circuit Court action, to prevent a multiple-dwelling unit development near their homes.

They are asking the court to nullify an amendment to the township zoning ordinance adopted Nov. 22 by the township board rezoning an area on Bald Mountain road north of Lapeer road from farm-residential to multiple dwelling.

In a bill of complaint, the residents say builders Walter Smith and Beecher N. Rossman have poured footings for an eight-unit development on the site without obtaining a building permit.

They claim the soil is not properly constituted to handle waste from the planned buildings and their surrounding homes will be made "unsanitary and unhealthful."

The residents ask for an injunction stopping Smith and Rossman from proceeding with the project. The two will appear in court later in an attempt to show why the injunction should not be issued. Date for their appearance has not been set.

Interest in Better Music Urged by Catholic Priest

WORCESTER, Mass. (UP) — The Most Rev. John J. Wright of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Worcester believes introduction of music such as that composed by Victor Herbert to the younger generation would nullify the danger from suggestive music with themes "of seduction and passion."

Bishop Wright says such music is heard daily on radio and television and constitutes a danger to the younger generation. He recently urged the Guild of Our Lady of Providence to strive for the attendance of family groups at its musical programs.

Police Hope to Buy Out Blind Man's Cigarettes

GRAND RAPIDS (UP) — Employes in Grand Rapids police headquarters who normally buy a pack of cigarettes each day from Earl Near ordered a carton today.

It was their way of showing their appreciation to Near, a blind man who has operated a tobacco and confectionery stand in police headquarters for eight years.

Members of the Fraternal Order of Police, who are sponsoring "Earl Near Appreciation Day," hope they and their friends will buy out Near's entire stock before the day ends as Christmas present.

Christmas Fun Week Begins at 'Y' Dec. 27

Christmas Fun Week will begin Dec. 27 at the Pontiac YMCA, 131 Mt. Clemens St., George Balch, boys and girls director, announced today.

Because the program is limited to 100 boys and the same number of girls, Balch urged parents to register youngsters before noon Dec. 24. A free Christmas gift will be given to the youths. Boys or girls 9 years and older may register for the program which includes activities in the gymnasium and swimming pool. Many games and movies are also part of the fun agenda.

Balch said registrations may be made by calling the Y at FEderal 5-6116.

Employe-Employer Rift in State Denied

DETROIT (UP) — August Scholle, president of the Michigan CIO Council, and Lester J. Steele, chairman of the Michigan Economic Development Commission, denied last night allegations that a bitter employe-employer relationship exists in Michigan.

Scholle said such charges were prevalent in some of the large cities of the eastern seaboard. But investigation, he said, has failed to show a single significant illustrato nof a firm having left the state because of labor difficulties.

Steele supported the union leader's statements and said there is a general feeling among commission members that the group is achieving better co-operation between business, industry and labor.

Giants, Indians Dominate Majors' All-Star Team

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (AP)—Befitting their station, New York's world champion Giants and Cleveland's American League champion Indians dominated the 1954 Associated Press Major League All-Star Team, capturing six of the 10 positions.

* * *

Six of the 16 big league clubs, four in the National, were represented in the AP's ninth annual all-star squad, selected by 422 baseball writers and broadcasters throughout the nation. The National League had six players to four for the American.

* * *

The Giants and Indians were the only clubs with more than one representative. Each had three. Brooklyn, St. Louis, Cincinnati and the New York Yankees had one each.

THE ALL-STAR TEAM

First base — Ted Kluszewski, Reds (.326)

Second base — Bobby Avila, Indians (.341)

Third base — Al Rosen, Indians (.300)

Shortstop — Alvin Dark, Giants (.293)

Leftfield — Stan Musial, Cardinals (.330)

Centerfield — Willie Mays, Giants (.345)

Rightfield — Duke Snider, Dodgers (.341)

Catcher — Yogi Berra, Yankees (.307)

Righthanded pitcher — Bob Lemon, Indians (23-7)

Lefthanded pitcher — Johnny Antonelli, Giants (21-7)

Only three players are holdovers from the 1953 team. They are Rosen, Musial and Snider. Musial made the team for the eighth time, missing only once since the poll was inaugurated in 1946.

* * *

Mays, the brilliant Giant outfielder who led both majors in batting with a .345 average, topped all vote getters. The Negro flash was named on 397 ballots. Musial had 340 votes to easily join Mays in the outfield. Snider had tough competition from Boston's Ted Williams before finally sneaking into the third garden spot, 195 votes to Ted's 153.

The second biggest vote-getter was Berra, who won the catching position hands down with 389 votes.

* * *

All infield positions were decided by comfortable margins.

Dark enjoyed an overwhelming margin of more than 200 votes over runner-up Harvey Kuenn of Detroit for the shortstop berth.

Lemon, winner of 20 games for the sixth time, led all the righthanders with 287 votes but the biggest vote-getter among all the hurlers was southpaw Johnny Antonelli, whose 21-7 record and 2.29 ERA was tops among National League moundsmen. The young Giant was named on 344 ballots. Robin Roberts, biggest National League winner, was runner-up to Lemon with 97 votes while Antonelli's chief competition came from Warren Spahn. The veteran Braves lefthander, another 6-time 20-game winner, received 57 votes.

In all 18 pitchers received consideration.

FIRST BASE — Kluszewski, Reds, 330; Hodges, Dodgers, 82; Vernon, Senators, 11; Lockman, Giants, 8; Adcock, Braves, 6.
SECOND BASE — Avila, Indians, 259; Schoendienst, Cardinals, 117; Fox, White Sox, 21; Hamner, Phillies, 7; Gilliam, Dodgers, 6.
THIRD BASE — Rosen, Indians, 214; Mathews, Braves, 76; Thompson, Giants, 59; Boone, Tigers, 25; Jablonski, Reds, 19.
SHORTSTOP—Dark, Giants, 279; Kuenn, Tigers, 51; Carrasquel, White Sox, 47; Reese, Dodgers, 26; Logan, Braves, 7.
OUTFIELD — Mays, Giants, 397; Musial, Cardinals, 340; Snider, Dodgers, 195; Williams, Red Sox, 153; Mantle, Yankees, 57; Minoso, White Sox, 45; Doby, Indians, 32; Mueller, Giants.
CATCHER — Berra, Yankees, 319; Campanella, Dodgers, 9; Hegan, Indians, 7; Crandall, Braves, 5; Westrum, Giants, 4.
RIGHTHANDED PITCHER — Lemon, Indians, 287; Roberts, Phillies, 97; Wynn, Indians and Trucks, White Sox, 16; Grim, Yankees, 6.
LEFTHANDED PITCHER — Antonelli, Giants, 344; Spahn, Braves 57; Ford, Yankees, 14; Haddix, Cardinals, 4; Lopat, Yankees, 2.

No Letup for Lions Against Cleveland Club

Parker Aims to Use All His Power in Non-Title Tilt Sunday

DETROIT (UP) — Coach Buddy Parker's Detroit Lions put two unique records on the line Sunday when they battle the Cleveland Browns in a "nothing" game preparatory to the week-away National Football league title clash between the two teams.

The Lions have never lost to the Browns in the four years Parker has served as head coach. Nor have they ever lost two games in a row under the direction of Parker.

Cleveland is in a position to shatter both of those marks since the Lions suffered a 28-24 loss to the Chicago Bears last Sunday.

While the opener of the back-to-back series between the arch rivals will mean nothing in the league standings — Detroit and Cleveland have already wrapped up the Western and Eastern division titles, respectively — Parker isn't planning to take it easy and save his fireworks for the championship game.

"We play to win every game," Parker said. "That's the only way you can play in this league. Remember, it only takes a couple of losses to establish a losing habit."

Bobby Layne, Detroit's No. 1 signal-caller, will return to his quarterback post. A broken nose and a shoulder injury kept him out of last Sunday's game with the Bears.

Parker said offensive guard Dick Stanfel is the only Detroit player definitely out of the 1st Cleveland encounter. Stanfel wrenched his back a month ago and has been sidelined since. Parker is hopeful he will be available for the title game.

Detroit has met Cleveland seven times in the last four years and the only time the Lions failed to produce a victory was during the 1953 exhibition season when the teams fought to a 24-24 tie.

$113 Million Is Wagered by State Race Fans in '54

LANSING (AP) — Horse race fans paid $183,063,370 through pari-mutuel windows at Michigan race tracks this year, Aud. Gen. John B. Martin reported today.

Martin said an audit of all track operations showed $97,641,045 was paid back on winning tickets.

The state received $6,890,291 from its share of the tax and the tracks received $8,532,030.

From the state's total income, $1,023,201 was paid to three cities where tracks are located. Jackson got $23,201, Hazel Park got $500,000 and Livonia $500,000.

The audit showed the 57-day season at the Michigan Racing Association produced a total wager of $40,364,829, of which the state and the track each received $2,685,000.

The 57-day Hazel Park season produced $39,801,479 in wagers. The state and the track each got $2,655,000.

The 39-day Hazel Park harness meet produced $10,488,540 in wagers. The state got $493,684 and the track $1,017,981.

The 39-day season at Northville Downs produced $8,810,557, of which the state got $417,711 and the track $858,237.

The 39-day Wolverine Harness Meet brought in $11,099,725 in wagers. The state got $522,406 and the track $1,074,724.

City Parochial Quintets Play Home Tonight

St. Mikes Entertain OL St. Mary and St. Fred Faces Royal Oak '5'

A full Suburban Catholic League basketball card tonight matches winners of last weeks opening round against the four 1st-game losers.

Both Pontiac parochial squads are at home. St. Michael entertains once-beaten but dangerous Orchard Lake St. Mary and St. Frederick is host to Royal Oak St. Mary. In other games, St. James goes to St. Benedict and St. Clement plays at St. Rita.

Coach Bob Mineweaser's veteran Shamrocks face a potentially strong Orchard Lake squad that has been weakened by the temporary ineligibility of its only returning letterman, forward Tom Kalasz.

Kalasz, a 6-foot senior, has been sidelined for the month by academic deficiencies. Eaglets bowed to St. Benedict 37-33 last week after opening with a 52-48 nonleague win over St. Stanislaus.

St. Frederick, beaten 39-31 by St. Rita in its opener, seeks to break into the win column against St. Mary's Irish. Coach Tom Bean's Royal Oak team scraped past St. Clement 47-45 despite its lack of experience and height.

Tonight's games wind up SCL's pre-Christmas competition.

Richard Nears 400th Goal of Career in NHL

'Rocket' Bags No. 399, Beliveau Gets Two in Canadian Victory

By The Associated Press

The incomparable Maurice (The Rocket) Richard, for more than a decade the scourge of National Hockey League goalies, is just a swat away from his 400th goal today — a total not even remotely approached before.

Richard, greatest scorer in NHL history, slipped in his 399th goal last night as his Montreal Canadiens cuffed the New York Rangers 5-1. It was an easy score, with Richard flipping in a loose puck from just outside the goal crease in a wild scramble.

Richard, who began his career with the Canadiens in the 1942-43 season, collared the goal at 15:05 of the 2nd period, but despite an all-out effort — he skated with several lines in a tireless attempt — he couldn't drive in the coveted No. 400.

It was Richard's 15th goal of the season and was the popular highlight of the game, although Jean Beliveau scored twice and Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion gained his 21st goal of the season during the rout.

With the victory, Canadiens increased their NHL lead to three points while the Detroit Red Wings moved past idle Toronto into 2nd place with a 4-2 victory over the Boston Bruins.

Dangerous Precedent?
Frick Holding Up OK of Kiner's Salary Cut

NEW YORK (AP)—Ralph Kiner probably will be asked to sign a new 1955 contract with the Cleveland Indians when he and Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick meet here Saturday.

* * *

Frick disclosed yesterday he was holding up approval of Kiner's contract in which the slugging outfielder volunteered to take a salary cut above the 25 per cent limit.

Kiner, who received a reported $65,000 with the Chicago Cubs last season, was traded to Cleveland last month. Figuring his poor season with the Cubs entitled him to no more than $40,000 for next year, he signed his new contract with the Indians Tuesday.

Kiner insisted he was setting no precedent in taking an unusual cut of approximately 40 per cent.

Reports persisted, however, that other players would disapprove such a procedure, figuring a dangerous precedent would be set.

* * *

In Pittsburgh, Kiner said he still didn't see anything wrong with the contract, but if Frick wanted him to sign a new contract, he would abide. The new contract presumably would be around $49,000 on the basis of a 25 per cent cut.

North Roster Complete for All-Star Game

UM's McDonald Added to List That Includes Rody, Zagers of MSC

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The North squad for the Christmas night college All-Star football game in the Orange Bowl was brought to its full, 25-man strength Friday with the addition of a back and two linemen.

* * *

Michigan quarterback Duncan McDonald, Kansas State guard Ron Marciniak and Marquette end Tom Braatz completed the North roster for the Shrine Charity game. Two UCLA ends, Bob Heydenfeldt and Bob Long, were added Thursday night.

The coaches — Ivy Williamson of Wisconsin and Bernie Crimmins of Indiana for the North and Andy Gustafson of Miami and Jim Tatum of Maryland for the South—were scheduled to get acquainted with their newly arrived players Friday and start workouts Saturday.

* * *

Ends—Jim Soltau, Minnesota; Lewis Matykiewicz, Iowa; Bob Heydenfeldt, UCLA; Bob Long, UCLA; Tom Braatz, Marquette.

Tackles—Charles Kubes, Minnesota; Sam Palumbo, Notre Dame; Frank Varrichone, Notre Dame; Paul Kernaklian, Syracuse.

Guards — Norman Amundsen, Wisconsin; Ron Riba, Northwestern; Fred Rody, Michigan State; Ron Marciniak, Kansas State.

Centers—Warren Lawson, Iowa; Gary Messner, Wisconsin.

Backs — Florian Helinski, Indiana; Tom Gastall, Boston University; Duncan McDonald, Michigan; Bert Zagers, Michigan State; Pat Abbruzzi, Rhode Island; Carl Norman, West Virginia; Ron Younker, Penn State; Rex Brock, Purdue; Alan Ameche, Wisconsin; Sam Pino, Boston University.

Dietz Signs as Indianwood Pro for '55 Season

Former Michigan Open Titlist Will Succeed Bob Waara

Announcement was made here today of the appointment of Mike Dietz of Grosse Pointe as golf professional for Indianwood Country Club. Carl Ruebelman, Pontiac automobile dealer and owner of the club, said that Dietz would take over his new duties March 15.

DIETZ

Ruebelman signed Dietz during a recent trip to Pinehurst. Mike was a contender in the recent Miami Open tourney and went up to Pinehurst to confer with Ruebelman. He was signed for one year.

Dietz is the 2nd new golf professional to be named within a week for a Pontiac area club. Elmer Prieskorn was named Pine Lake's pro, to succeed Henry Ransom, resigned. Dietz succeeds the veteran Bob Waara who has purchased a course of his own, near Grand Rapids.

Dietz is well known in the Detroit district where he has competed in many tourneys, winning the State Open in 1952 at the course where he will now preside as pro. He is also a former district champion and was Joe Belfore's aide at Country Club of Detroit. He later was at Lakepointe two years before making the professional tour.

Cage Contrasts
Jeff's Rout of Lincoln, Braves-Eastern Overtime Scrap Mark Juniors' Opening

City Junior High School Basketball League season got under way yesterday afternoon, with a rout and an overtime thriller providing contrast in the opening card.

Jefferson swamped Lincoln, 66-15, as 6-foot 3-inch center Jim Ray collected 15 points and teammate Archie Brooks added 14. Jeffs led 34-8 at halftime and 54-10 at the three-quarter mark. Jerry Covington scored 10 of Lincoln's 15 points.

Eastern's defending league champions caught fire to score 13 points in a 3-minute overtime period to down Washington, 42-32.

The teams were tied 14-all at halftime and 29-all at the end of regulation time. In the extra period, Chuck McIlrath and Ken McLintock scored four points apiece, Bill Hayward had three and Coley added two. A basket by Dick Whitmer and a free throw by Lessie Watkins accounted for Washington's scoring.

Eastern actually won the contest from the free throw line, sinking 24 of 41 chances. Braves outscored the Indians from the floor, 13 goals to nine.

Jefferson	13	21	30	12	—66
Lincoln	2	6	2	5	—15
Eastern	8	6	6	9	—13—42
Washington	8	6	8	7	—3—32

'Hard Way' Win Over Bruins Puts Wings in Second Place

BOSTON (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings came from behind and scored twice in the final period last night to defeat the Boston Bruins, 4-2, and take over 2nd place in the National Hockey League.

Dutch Reibel scored twice — in the 2nd and 3rd periods—to stretch the Wings' unbeaten streak to six games. The roly-poly center tied the score at 2-all in the 2nd and flipped in a setup pass from Marcel Bonin at 10:24 of the final stanza.

While pulling a point ahead of idle Toronto the Wings remained three points behind the league-leading Montreal Canadiens who defeated New York, 5-1, last night.

Already handicapped without the services of captain Ted Lindsay, the Wings got a jolt last night when Alex Delvecchio was shaken up after being checked by Leo Boivin, and had to leave the ice. But he returned in the final period and assisted on Johnny Wilson's goal.

Detroit opened with a brief 1-0 lead after only 2:54 of the 1st period whe nTony Leswick lofted a 10-foot golf shot past Boston's rookie goalie John Henderson.

Boston came back to take the margin when Murray Costello banged in a 25-foot screen shot and Cal Gardner followed on a pass off the backboards from Lorene Ferguson.

Reibel was centering between Vic Stasiuk and Lorne Davis when he knotted the count with a stab at a rebound. He was subbing for Delvecchio on another line when he poked in the winner lifting a backhander into the net from six feet away.

Wilson teamed with Gordie Howe and Delvecchio for the final filip.

Seven Uclans Playing in Post-Season Tilts

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Seven members of the UCLA Bruins football team that finished its 1954 season undefeated and untied have accepted invitations to play in post season games.

Ends Bob Long and Roy Heydenfeld will play in the North-South Bowl game at Miami. Halfback Primo Villanueva and tackle Joe Ray accepted bids to the Senior Bowl game at Mobile, Ala. Guards Jim Salsbury and Sam Boghosian and All-America tackle Jack Ellena will participate in the Shrine East-West game at San Francisco, and Salsbury, Ellena and Villanueva will perform in the Hula Bowl game in Honolulu next month.

Grill Quintet Takes 2nd Win

Edges Inn Team, 44-38; Shack Five Registers 'A' Victory

Griff's Grill won its 2nd straight victory in City Class B Basketball League competition last night, edging Stadium Inn, 44-38.

Winners pulled away from a 22-21 halftime lead to move into the finale with a 37-32 edge. Harrison led Griff's with 13 points, but Stadium Inn's Jim Lee took game honors with 14.

Chuck's Shack evened its Class A record at 1-1 by defeating Price's 54-47. Price's outscored Chuck's, 27-25, in the 2nd half but couldn't make up its 29-20 halftime deficit.

Tom Spencer had 14 points for the winners, while Hubert Price had 18 for the losers.

Stadium	11	10	11	6	—38
Griff's	10	13	18	7	—44
Chuck's	18	11	10	15	—54
Price's	13	7	18	13	—47

Ice in Small Lakes May Be 'Fishable'

LANSING (AP)—The ice on most small lakes will be safe for ice fishing this weekend, the State Conservation Department advised today.

Utmost caution was urged, however.

The department said fishing pressure had so far been light but an increase was expected this weekend.

Some perch were being taken in Grand and Long Lakes, Presque Isle County. Bluegill fishing was fair in Walton Pond, Grand Traverse County. Pike fishing was good in Crooked Lake, Missaukee County.

Whitefish were being taken in Hubbard Lake. Perch fishing was fair to good in the shallow waters of Saginaw Bay. Some northern pike were being taken from Houghton Lake.

PHS Tankers Seek 3rd Win

Swim at Ferndale in Today's Meet; Chiefs in Favorite Role

Pontiac High's swimming team was at Ferndale this afternoon, seeking its 3rd consecutive victory of the season against Lincoln High.

Chiefs, boasting victories over Flint Central and Mt. Clemens, were favored over the twice-beaten Railsplitters. Lincs bowed to Grosse Pointe, 50-33, and Highland Park, 57-27, in their 1st two starts.

Four PHS swimmers — breaststroker Bob Keavy, back-stroker Tom Cross and free-stylers Dennis Simson and Bob Lamson — were after their 3rd straight win in their individual specialties. Only Keavy, who faces a strong challenger in Ferndale's Denny Ford, was expected to encounter much difficulty.

Ferndale's top man, back-stroker Dick Leonard, will miss the meet because of ineligibility.

Conservation Worker Wins Bobcat Battle

18-Pounder Tackled, Tagged by Biologist at Houghton Lake

HOUGHTON LAKE (AP) — A conservation department worker, with the help of two companions, literally tackled an 18-pound bobcat near here yesterday.

Ellsworth M. Harger, biologist for the Houghton Lake Wildlife Experiment Station, said he ran down, caught and tagged the bobcat in the Butterfield creek area of Missaukee County.

"She wasn't as mean as some others we've handled," Harger said. "Her teeth went through my skin a little bit although I wore heavy gloves."

The department catches and tags the animals in order to study their movements. Usually, dogs are used and they are held at bay in trees.

This bobcat, Harger said, was caught on the ground. It was the first taken by the department this winter.

Union Basketball Action Opens With Two Games

Oakland County UAW-CIO Basketball League action opened last night with two games played at Eastern Junior High School.

Henry and Tuttle each collected 12 points to lead Local 653 to a 39-21 victory over Local 594. Another 12-point performance by Fish 596's Francis helped his team defeat Milford CIO 898, 28-25, in the 2nd game.

Another Triple

ALBANY, Calif. (AP)—Apprentice George Taniguchi rode another triple at Golden Gate Fields Thursday and upped his leading total for the meeting to 59.

The 25-year-old California-born Japanese won with Nic Lovere $3.80, Owners Venture $4.30 and Samoa Winds $7.00.

Hayes Plans Drills Open to the Press

COLUMBUS, O. (UP) — Coach Woody Hayes, whose Ohio State Buckeyes leave by plane for California tomorrow for their New Year's day date with Southern California in the Rose Bowl, said today some of the Buckeyes' early practice sessions in California would be open to the press.

* * *

Hayes said that he plans to hold two-a-day workouts for three days next week, beginning Monday. He added that the Buckeyes were behind schedule in their training but said he was pleased with the team's overall fitness.

Jap Netters Win

MANILA (AP) — Japan's young Atsushi Miyagi and Yuji Takayama outdrove and outsmashed Philippine veterans Cesar Carmona and Amado Sahchez to win the Philippine Tennis Assn's. doubles championship today.

The scores were 5-7, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

Dedicate Catholic Shrine

CADILLAC (UP) — A Catholic shrine, entitled "Our Lady of the Snows," has been dedicated at Caberfae winter sports area near here. The shrine, built from private funds, is patterned after shrines at European winter sports areas.

3-1 Loop to Operate Eight Clubs in 1955

CHICAGO (AP) — With Burlington, Iowa, and Terre Haute, Ind., giving assurances they will be able to carry on next season, the Class-B Three-I Baseball League again plans to operate in 1955 as an eight-club circuit.

NCAA Questioning Oklahoma Players

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. is questioning University of Oklahoma football players in an apparent followup to an investigation started last spring.

Several players were interviewed by an NCAA panel yesterday. They said their replies were taken on a wire recorder.

The investigators declined to discuss their probe. NCAA headquarters, following its regular policy on complaints against schools, has not disclosed who originated the complaints against Sooner football practices nor has given the nature of them.

Middie '11' Holds Final Pre-Christmas Practice

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Navy's Sugar Bowl-bound football team was scheduled to hold its last workou there today before going on leave for Christmas.

Unbeaten 5s Tangle

Nine Oakland County high schol basketball teams are undefeated thus far this season, but only two have played more than two games. This pair, Milford and Royal Oak Madison, put their records on the line tonight against Keego Harbor and Roseville, each boasting a 1-0 record.

* * *

Milford and Keego tangle for the leadership of the Wayne-Oakland League on the Keego court, while the winner of the Madison-Roseville tilt will take the Oakland-B Conference lead.

Shrine and Ferndale, both with 2-0 marks, are finished until after the holidays and Birmingham (2-0) is at Mt. Clemens tonight. Keego, Hazel Park, Pontiac St. Michael and RO St. Mary are teams with victories in their only games.

The parochial quintets are in action tonight and Hazel Park has a game with its alumni Dec. 21. In the area, six teams are unbeaten, none of which has played more than two games.

Utica (2-0), Warren (2-0), and Lake Shore (1-0) have completed their pre-holiday schedules. Armada (2-0) and North Branch (2-0) play tonight along with Roseville.

* * *

Three games are offered in Pontiac tonight with Flint Central at PHS, OL St. Mary at St. Mikes and RO St. Mary at St. Freds. The Milford-Keego game is the feature of a heavy schedule in the suburban area.

Non-Shooting 5 Draws Fire of Foes' Coach

DePaul, playing in its own gym, won the game Tuesday night, 77-22. Quincy did not take a shot from the floor until 14:33 of the 1st half and tried only 20-25 shots in the entire game.

"That was a disgraceful exhibition of basketball Quincy put up in our gym—the worst I've seen in many, many years of coaching," said Meyer, who is also DePaul Athletic director. "We'll never play Quincy again in anything, basketball or marbles.

"I don't condemn stalling tactics as such—we've stalled ourselves, but when teams use the stall it's with an effort to win. There was no effort to win on Quincy's part."

Cincinnati Back Is Added to North's 'Senior' Team

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A 177-pound back and a 190-pound guard have been added to the rosters for the sixth annual Senior Bowl Game Jan. 8 when the squad members make their professional debut.

* * *

Dick Goist, University of Cincinnati captain, will replace back Primo Villaneuve of UCLA for the North. Little All-America guard Hamp Cook of Mississippi Southern wil play for the South.

Other Rebel guards are All-America Bud Brooks, Arkansas; Frank Mincevich, South Carolina and George Atkins, Auburn.

In the North backfield with Goist will be Alan Ameche, Wisconsin; Max Burkett, Iowa State; Florian Helinski, Indiana; Dave Leggett, Ohio State; Lindon Crow, Southern California; Ron Drzewiecki, Marquette; Bob McNamara, Minnesota; Corky Taylor, Kansas State and Dick Young, Chattanooga (Tenn.).

Winning team members will receive $500 and expenses and losers $400 and expenses each. The game will be in 36,000 capacity Ladd Stadium.

Drug Retains Lead in City Table Net Loop

Furtney Drugs retained its lead in the Pontiac Table Tennis League Thursday night by beating China City, 5-1. Capitol Barbers stayed in 2nd place, one point back, with a 5-1 decision over Fleet Carrier.

Pontiac Cigarette Service holds 3rd place with 21 points, followed by Short's Variety with 15, Huron Friendly Market, 14, Pontiac Varnish, 13, Fleet Carrier, 5, and China City, 3.

In one of the top matches Jerry Saunders of Furtney's upset city champion Sid Barnfather of China City, 21-18, 18-21, 21-18. Al Jankie of Fleet Carrier defeated Fuz Hall of Capitol Barbers, 18-21, 21-18, 22-20.

Plymouth Swim Team Nips Maple Tankers

Plymouth edged Birmingham High School's swimming team, 43-41, Thursday in a down-to-the-wire finish in the Barnum Junior High pool.

Birmingham trailed until Frank Mabley pulled the Maples ahead with a victory in the 150-yard individual medley. That gave Birmingham a 37-35 lead.

Touring Pros Set Sights on Par in Havana Tourney

HAVANA (AP)—A field of touring U. S. pros figured to give par another beating Friday with Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., and Shelley Mayfield of Chicopee, Mass., leading the way into the second round of the $15,000 Havana Invitation and pro-amateur golf tournament.

Bolt and Mayfield fired 65s, seven under par, in Thursday's round, just a stroke off the competitive record for the 6,377-yard, par-72 Havana Country Club course set in 1949 by Jimmy Demaret. But despite the excellent rounds, Bolt and Mayfield had just a one-stroke lead over Ed Furgol, the U. S. Open champion from Clayton, Mo., and Skip Alexander of St. Petersburg, Fal.

* * *

In all, 23 of the 34 pros entered shot par rounds or better, although defending champ Bob Toski of Livingston, N. J., wound up with a 76.

Furgol especially found the course to his liking and said "two more rounds like my first and I'll win this tournament."

Al Besselink of Grossingers, N. Y.; Dave Douglas of Wilmington, Del., and Walt Burkemo of Franklin, Mich., were tied for third with 67s going into the second round of the 72-hole tournament.

Writers Pick Bannister as Top Sportsman

LONDON (UP) — Europe's top sports editors elected Roger Bannister of Britain as their "sportsman of the year" today in a final salute to the man who has bowed out of competitive athletics in the year during which he became the 1st man to shatter the four-minute mile.

Votes were polled from 24 editors who acclaimed the 25-year-old Bannister with 210 points — 58 more than the 152 they handed Leningrad marine Vladimir Kuts for 2nd place.

On a basis of 10 points for a 1st place nomination; nine for 2nd; eight for 3rd and so on, John Landy of Australia, present mile record holder, placed 3rd with 94 points. He received 14 more than American shot-putting star Parry O'Brien, of Los Angeles, who polled 80.

Chris Chataway of Britain, who later revenged Kuts' victory in the European 5,000 meters championships in Berne, received 78 votes for 5th place.

Ducats on Sale Today

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Lions announced Thursday that 7,500 tickets for their National Football league championship game against the Cleveland Browns Dec. 26 will go on sale in Detroit today. The game will be played at Cleveland. Tickets are $6.

Face Explosive Flint Central on PHS Court

Indians Set Scoring Record of 93 Points in Opener

Flint Central, which set a school scoring record in its only start to date, comes here to wind up the pre-holiday portion of the Chiefs' 1954-55 schedule. Only other Valley game listed sends Saginaw (0-2) to Bay City Central (0-1).

Joe Dowdy, starting his 4th year as the Indians' head coach, brings to Pontiac a tall and experienced squad that hit an amazing 51 per cent of its shots in swamping Bay City Handy 93-53 last week.

Dowdy used 14 men in an effort to keep the score down, but all 14 players contributed points. Top scorers were center Joe Quarles, who sank five of nine shots, and forward Chuck Crickmore, who connected on seven of 10 tries.

Teaming with the 6-foot 3-inch Crickmore at forward tonight will be 6-footer Ken Lucas, while Ed Nyberg (5-11) and either John Flesser (5-9) or Chuck Johnson (5-7) will handle the backcourt slots. Squarles, 6-foot-2, will alternate with 6-4½ junior Tom Owen at the pivot.

Coach Art Van Ryzin, whose team dumped Royal Oak and Flint Northern before losing to Port Huron Tuesday, will go with John James (6-3) and Marv Caswell (6-2) at forwards, Dick Blacklaw (6-4) at center, and Bob Johnston (6) and Walt Poe (5-10) at guards.

The teams split in two meetings last year, Pontiac winning the 1st, 56-54, and losing the 2nd, 57-35.

Sneaky Block Hurts

After being knocked-out by a flying elbow, Detroit Lions' tackle Gil Mains commented, "I didn't even hear his feet a-hittin' the soft turf as he sneaked up on me, much less see him."

Two-Way Plan Set Up for Checking Deer

LANSING (AP)—The state conservation department is busy with two separate methods of checking on the deer population in Michigan.

About 10,000 firearm deer hunters will receive postcards within a few weeks after Christmas asking for information about the 1954 deer season.

The sampling of a cross-section of hunters supplies usually accurate information, the department said.

In addition, department field men are going through the woods on snowshoes, making track counts of deer numbers. The counts will give some indication of the number of the deer in the woods in comparison with previous years.

CASE—Push for Control.

Admittedly few could emulate Don Carter, the St. Louisan who is currently American match king. He's so far down at the foul line, doubled up like a jackknife, that they call him "chin on the floor." His method and his delivery, though, are not difficult to copy.

Beginners especially should adopt his way of releasing the

At release he applies just a little, lifting spin with the fingers—just enough to put a rolling turn on his devastating ball. Notice the hand is straight ahead. No wrist turnover whatever.

Remember: The arm swings straight out, reaches; the fingers apply spin, and the ball then holds a consistent line to the payoff strike pocket.

Doubles Win Puts U.S. in Challenge Round

Seixas, Trabert Easy Winners Against Swedes

Richardson Will Play in Singles Finale as Vic Takes Rest

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) — Vic Seixas and Tony Trabert sent the United States into the Davis Cup Challenge Round again today with a smoothly contrived 6-3, 6-4, 6-3 doubles victory over Sweden's Lennart Bergelin and Sven Davidson.

• • •

The triumph made the Yanks' margin in the best-of-five event 3-0 and makes tomorrow's two final singles matches mere formalities. In fact, nonplaying captain Billy Talbert said he would rest Seixas and send national intercollegiate champion Hamilton Richardson of Tulane into the fray against Davidson. Trabert will play Bergelin.

Until someone comes along to prove otherwise, Seixas and Trabert must be regarded as the best tandem in amateur tennis. They certainly looked the part in whipping Bergelin and Davidson, a pair of Swedes who had been at the top of their games.

Some experts Down Under predicted that Sweden, in fact, might gain the Challenge Round. But Talbert said his boys would win the Interzone by 5-0. Now he looks to be right.

• • •

There was some doubt as to Trabert before the event got under way. Tony admittedly was off form, but from the impression he gave in both his singles victory and today's doubles, he could have been playing possum. He was tremendous. So was Seixas, and between them they gave the befuddled Swedes little to hit.

There was only one service break in each of the first two sets and two in the final set. But the second break in the third set came about in the final game after the Swedes had given up. Acutally, they played quite well against a markedly superior tandem.

In the final analysis, it was the Americans' ability to come back when they were behind that won it for them.

Otto Near Baugh Mark

CLEVELAND (AP) — If Otta Graham goes through with his rumored retirement, he's about to wind up one of professional football's most fabulous careers.

• • •

"Automatic Otto," the former Northwestern great, has engineered the Cleveland Browns to nine straight divisional titles, to four All-American Conference and one National League championships. He gets his chance Dec. 26, against Detroit's Lions, to make it two National League titles.

Usually, when professional forward-pass records are discussed, you are talking about Sammy Baugh, the former Washington Redskin who rewrote the book at the overhead game. Sammy was a big name pro for 16 years.

• • •

Graham, who tells friends that "I plan to make this my last year of football, but—", is in his ninth season.

But Otto, although seven years shy of the great Baugh's tenure, can grab one of the Texan's most coveted crowns in the next two games — both against the Lions. By averaging 119 yards through the air for two tilts, Graham can boost his total aerial gains to 22,086 to nose out Baugh by a yard.

Baugh completed 1,709 of 3,061 passes for a .566 percentage and 187 touchdowns. Graham has connected on 1,365 of 2,435 for a .560 mark and 159 touchdowns. Baugh averaged 12.9 yards per completion, Graham 16.

Of Baugh's 3,061 passes, 205 were intercepted. The foe has picked off 127 of Graham's 2,435.

The statistics prove Graham has been a more effective passer in the National League than he was in his first four years when the Browns dominated the now-defunct All-America loop s completely.

• • •

In 59 All-America games Otto completed 592 of 1,061 passes for 10,085 yards. That is a completion percentage of .557 and an average gain of 171 yards.

In 64 National League games he's completed 773 of 1,374 for 11,763 yards. That's a completion percentage of .562 and an average gain of 183 — both better than his All-American performances.

• • •

Graham said before last season he might retire, but came back for the best of his years. He said it again before the current campaign, but donned his uniform to lead the loop's passers in percentage of completions with .608.

Tennessee 5 Picked to Win B-G Tourney

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Powerful Tennessee meets Miami and Auburn takes on Washington and Lee here tonight in the opening round of the first annual Blue-Gray basketball tournament.

The unbeaten Volunteers are favored for top honors but it will take plenty of style to win out over Auburn and Miami and the dangerous Generals from Washington and Lee.

The four coaches whose teams are playing in the Blue-Gray tournament — Tennessee's Emmett Lowery, Bruce Hale of Miami, Joe Eaves of Aubur and Billy McCann of Washington and Lee — will conduct a basketball clinic Saturday for high school coaches.

Titans Face Tough Test Tonight Against Houston

DETROIT (INS) — University of Detroit's undefeated basketball squad faces its biggest challenge tonight when it meets another unbeaten foe, Houston, in the 1st of a two-game series marking Detroit's 1st Missouri Valley Conference action for 1955.

Titans will have to make a better showing tonight than they did in Wednesday's 68-61 win over a tough Buffalo five. Detroit won the game primarily because center Bob Decker had the best night of his college career, netting 25 points. In addition, Guy Sparrow, U of D's All-America candidate, pumped in 17 points.

Gopher Ace Signs With Canadian Club

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Minnesota's Bob McNamara Thursday sidestepped the great glitter of U. S. professional football for an iron-bound contract with Winnipeg of the Western Canadian League.

McNamara signed with the Canadians for two years at a reported $25,000, including slaray and bonus.

"I want to play professional ball for only two years," the Gopher backfield star said. "I'm working out my future carefully and I felt that the Winnipeg offer fits in best."

It's Time Out!

Niagara Quintet Is Pointing for Another Shot at Top-Rated LaSalle Club in NY Cage Festival

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Niagara University's Purple Eagles, rated No. 10 nationally in college basketball circles, headed into the Midwest today for a Saturday night date with Toledo, but it won't be until after Christmas that a definite line can be drawn on Coach Taps Gallagher's fine club.

* * *

The Eagles made it 5-1 for the young season last night by mauling Syracuse 99-74 at Niagara Falls, N.Y., and they have only the Toledo engagement before zooming into the Holiday Festival Tournament starting Dec. 27 at New York's Madison Square Garden.

That's the one Niagara is waiting for, because it possibly will afford the Eagles another crack at LaSalle, currently rated No. 1 in the AP poll. Last Saturday LaSalle's NCAA champions edged Niagara 76-75 in the final six seconds of an overtime period.

Center Ed Fleming again was Niagara's big man last night with 26 points. He played less than half the game as the Eagles rolled up a 54-31 halftime lead.

There was little action on the college courts last night. At the Garden, the Temple Owls proved they will be tough. They upset St. John's of Brooklyn 77-69. Temple, with a 5-1 record, has only a 70-65 defeat by North Carolina State marring its record.

Western Kentucky outscored Colorado State 27-17 at the foul line for a 75-67 victory. Oklahoma City sent out five sophomores to down Texas Christian 63-44. It was OC's first victory in four starts.

Fordham ended a two-game losing streak by defeating Colgate 55-51, and Harvard's foul shooting beat Middlebury 54-51.

The NAIA Tipoff Tournament opened at Kansas City, and two former champions were knocked out. Arkansas Tech eliminated St. Benedict's of Kansas, 1954 champions, 87-58, while Springfield (Mo.) State, the 1952-53 tourney winners, got it from Tennessee A&I 77-57.

In other NAIA games Gustavus Adolphus (Minn.) defeated East Texas State 59-51, and Rockhurst won from Western Illinois 72-65.

More Pushing in NY Than on the Gridiron

SOUTH HAVEN (UP) — Art Walker, South Haven's contribution to college football, said he found "more crowding and pushing" in New York than he ever did on a football field.

Walker, who starred for the University of Michigan this year, went to New York to accept an award from a national magazine which named him to its All-America team.

Goode, Stits on Pro-Bowl 11s

Lions' Rookie Rounds Out Western Division All Stars

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17 (UP) — Selection of Bob Goode of the Washington Redskins for the East squad and Bill Stits of the Detroit Lions by the West today completed teams for the annual charity Pro-Bowl Game Jan. 16.

The coaches of the two National Football League squads were assigned an all-star team of 29 and given the chance to pick the 30th man.

Buck Shaw, the West mentor, picked Stits, a stellar rookie defensive halfback. Stits played at UCLA last year.

Lane Predicts Majors to Reach Coast in Year

NEW YORK (INS) — Chicago White Sox general manager Frank Lane predicts that major league baseball may reach the West Coast "within a year."

Lane told Harry Wismer on the INS telenews TV film, "This Week in Sports," yesterday that "the finger is pointing westward and it would not surprise me a bit if within a year the Pacific Coast league or at least the Pacific Coast were represented in the American League in the cities of Los Angeles and San Francisco."

Ben Lula Named to Monroe Club Pro Job

Monroe Golf and Country Club says Bernard (Ben) Lula, 29, of Tam O'Shanter, has signed a one-year contract to take over Jan. 1 as head pro at Monroe.

A former Detroit Publinx star, Lula, succeeds Joseph Stolarick who went to Monroe last season.

Movies Clear 'Bobo' of Butting Charges

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The final round in Carl (Bobo) Olson's successful defense of his middleweight crown against Pierre Langlois of France has been decided against Langlois' American agent, George Kanter.

• • •

Chairman Tony Entenza of the California Athletic Commission late Thursday rejected Kanter's contention the 15-round title fight, ending in a TKO of Langlois should be declared a draw.

He imposed a two-week suspension on Kanter and demanded a written apology from the New York agent because of the latter's charges the fight was stopped as a result of Langlois being butted so badly the Frenchman's eyelid was split open.

California's new "butt rule" reads that if a fighter is leading on points when a fight is stopped because of an injury caused by butting, he receives the decision; if he is strailing on points and butting causes an end to the fight he gets a draw.

• • •

The referee stopped the Olson-Langlois fight in 58 seconds of the 11th round because of a deep gash over Pierres left eyelid. Don Shields, former fight commission inspector, said movies showed Olson opened the cut with a long right hand punch in the 6th round.

Ringsiders agreed. Olson stoutly denied butting his opponent, a contention which Shields said was supported by movies.

After the hearing Thursday, profuse apologies came from Kanter and Jean Bretonnel, Laglois' French manager. They said they had been misquoted and that translation from French to English had been faulty.

Chairman Entenza said Kanter's two-week suspension would not be relayed to other states if he writes the California board, "apologizing for your mouthings to the press."

"I am partly impressed with the manager, Bretonnel, and the fighter, Langlois," Entenza told Kanter. "I am not so impressed with you."

Langlois was to leave for New York Friday and for Paris Dec. 22.

Illinois Quintet Looms as Power

Labeled as So-So Team Before Season, Illini Are Surprising

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois' 80-point averaging basketball team is fooling the experts just like the Illini football team did, but with a reverse twist.

The Illini gridders this season were ranked near the top nationally in all pre-season reckonings. They wound up with a dismal 1-8 record, defeating only Syracuse.

The Illinois cagers entered this season with a so-so tag, yet Saturday night will be seeking to stretch an unbeaten skein to five against invading Notre Dame. Only Illinois and Ohio State are undefeated in the Big Ten non-loop play, preliminary to the start of the league race next month.

• • •

Currently third-ranked in the weekly Associated Press poll, the Illini have bowled over Butler (88-34), Missouri (77-49), Oklahoma A&M (59-53) and Miami of Ohio (97-72).

Baker Can Gain Little by Beating Coley Wallace

NEW YORK (AP)—If Bob Baker, a 1-3 favorite, disposes of Coley Wallace tonight, the giant Pittsburgh Negro may find himself all dressed up with no place to go.

Ranked No. 4 among heavyweight challengers, Baker has everything to lose and little to gain against Wallace. Big Bob gave Wallace a decisive whipping at Cleveland Oct. 1, dropping him once and slamming him around the ring in the late rounds. They meet again in a 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden.

Baker, like all heavyweights, has his eye on a shot at Rocky Marciano's title, but he'll have to take his place at the end of the line.

Don Cockell, the British boxer, is a good bet to get the June match with Marciano, when and if Rocky decides to go back to work. Nino Valdes, the big Cuban who knocked out Hurricane Tommy Jackson, is N. 1 in most ratings. Cockell and Valdes look like the next two opponents for Rocky with both fighting to be first.

That leaves Baker on the outside looking in, although he holds a decision over Valdes, scored at Huntington, W. Va., May 21, 1953, the Cuban's last defeat.

After many disapointments since he whipped Wallace in the 1949 Golden Gloves, Baker finally has buckled down to work. Since he was stopped by Archie Moore in March, he has run up a five-fight winning streak against Joe Baksi, Embrel Davidson, Toxie Hall, Wallace and Jimmy Slade He has a 36-5-1 pro record.

Underdogs Prevail in NAIA Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Arkansas Tech emerged as the only surviving seeded team Thursday night in first-round play of the annual NAIA Tipoff Basketball Tournament.

The underdog prevailed in the eight-team meet as Springfield (Mo.) State, seeded No. 1, bowed to Tennessee A&I 77-57, second-seeded East Texas State was defeated by Gustavus Adolphus of St. Peter, Minn., and the third-ranked team, Western Illinois fell victim to Rockhurst College of Kansas City, 72-65.

Arkansas Tech disposed of St. Benedict's of Atchison, Kan., champions of the 1954 national NAIB tournament, 87-59.

Dixie Cage Classic Will Open Tonight

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Texas may surprise favored Alabama in the second annual Birmingham Classic basketball tournament beginning Friday night.

The Crimson Tide, Classic hampion, is a 12-point favorite over the Longhorns in the second game. Wake Forest and West Virginia open the first round at 7:30 p.m. (CST) with the Deacons a 6½-point choice. Wake Forest is ranked 17th in the nation.

Alabama needs to win both of its games in the two-day tourney to snap back into the national cage picture.

TV's Ultra-Smart Lassie Makes Lesser Dogs Sad

By MARGARET LATROBE

Bootsie has changed from a light-hearted, tail wagging dog into a saddened, anxious, insecure pup. All on account of Lassie, the movie and TV star from a long line of collies.

Maybe some of man's best friends are happy, not knowing they are dogs. But Bootsie always knew she was a dog, and was happy because of it. What she didn't know was that there was any dog bigger, better and smarter than she.

She may not even have realized that the other strange four-legged creatures with whom she frolicked were dogs. Probably thought they were platypuses or or giraffes—and not of the same breed as she. Bootsie was supreme as a personality, unique in appearance, special in her devotion to us who loved her.

It made no difference that we were less blessed than she, who could run faster, bark louder, and loll comfortably in the car while someone kindly chauffeured where she wished to go. (Wherever we went, that is.) Her life was good. She was a dog—kind affectionate, beloved.

But that was before Lassie loomed on the television screen to destroy Bootsie's image of herself as the center of the household, protector of women and children, companion of menfolk, and guardian of the front yard.

The youngsters, formerly her slaves — who fed, bathed and brushed her fine black coat, discussed their problems, brought small wounds for her to lick, beside whose beds she paced regularly through the dark night —they have found a new love.

Lassie, a big awkward, long-haired beast, whose IQ is enough to give pause to man or dog, has stolen Bootsie's pedestal. With uncanny instinct, she sniffs smoke in the middle of the night, rousing help by her frantic barking just in time to save Grandpa from expiring in the flaming barn. Somebody falls down, breaks a leg—and who dashes for the doctor? You guessed it. Lassie does. And not even privately and modestly. Lassie has millions of kids watching these performances, comparing the brilliant collie with certain other familiar pets who never so much as sniffed a burned match!

It's enough to make a dog sad. It's enough to make a dog wonder if people really appreciate love and devotion. It's just a doggone shame, that's what it is.

Name Detroit Teacher to Manage State Fair

DETROIT (AP)—Donald L. Swanson, a 34-year-old Detroit high school instructor, today was appointed manager of the Michigan State Fair at a special fair board meeting.

Swanson, who lives in suburban Detroit with his wife and four children, was chosen by the board and endorsed by Gov. Williams to replace Democratic Secretary of State-elect James M. Hare.

He will take office Jan. 1 and serve until Feb. 1, 1956 under the present appointment.

Letter Carrier's Route Has Him Indoors All Day

BOSTON (AP)—The rain, the snow, the winter cold that harrass the average mail carrier in his appointed rounds are no problem to Letter Carrier Preston L. Slack. His route never takes him outdoors.

His task is to deliver some 3,000 letters and 400 other pieces of mail to the many government offices in the 21 story Boston Federal building each average day.

More than 700,000 U. S. families are broken each year by the death of the husband or wife.

Grain Buying Flurry Dies

CHICAGO (AP)—A brisk buying flurry at the start soon ran out of power in grains on the Board of Trade today. As a result cereals retreated after having made fair-sized gains in early dealings.

The upturn at the start appeared to be a continuation of the rally which got under way late yesterday. It was accompanied by a good volume of trade. Later, dealings fell back to a routine basis.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was ¼ to ⅞ higher, December $2.26⅝; corn ⅛ to ½ higher, December 1.53⅛; oats unchanged to ⅞ higher, December 80½; rye unchanged to 1 cent higher, December 1.11⅝; soybeans ⅝ lower to ¼ higher, January 2.83; and lard 8 to 17 cents a hundred pounds higher, December 13.52.

Milk Producers Demand Probe

250 Attend Protest, Ask Investigation of Ties With Creameries

ROMEO — Protesting association members have demanded a state or federal grand jury investigation of the relationships between the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. and Detroit creameries.

Approximately 250 attended a protest meeting at Romeo high school last night. They included association members from Oakland, Lapeer, Macomb and St. Clair counties.

A resolution adopted by the group charges there is evidence of "monopolistic price - fixing," "manipulation of marketing areas," and "possible collusion" between some persons connected with the association and certain companies "resulting in the growth of an illegal monopoly."

Also listed was "possible bribery" of certain persons, and "extortion and boycotting" of farmers who "dared to protest against monopolistic practices."

Protesting association members said they were angered because their milk revenues keep slipping while the profits of creameries and the incomes of deliverymen and wholesalers rise.

Norman Peterson, association membership director, told the meeting that "it may be legally right, but it is certainly morally wrong to make charges without proof and without naming names."

Protesting farmers contended they get only 7 cents a quart of milk that costs 22 cents delivered to Detroit homes. They insisted they were not getting production costs back.

Seeking to Condemn Land for School

A suit is continuing today in Oakland Cunty Circuit Court in which the Southfield Township School district is attempting to condemn 1.1 acres of land off Southfield road between 11 and 12 Mile roads in the city of Lathrup Village.

The land, in two sections, is located behind the Annie Lathrup School and is owned by Mrs. Louise L. Kelly. The school district contends the sites are needed to provide adequate play area plus room for building expansion.

The district would provide another 1.7 acres by closing Monterey street situated between the school and areas under condemnation.

The jury must decide if the land should be condemned and, if so, how much Mrs. Kelly will be paid.

Six witnesses called by the school district yesterday testified the land was needed and supplied information throwing light on its value. Attorneys for Mrs. Kelly, James G. Hartrick and George A. Cram, called two witnesses who also testified as to value.

Pontiac Man Faces Illegal Beer Charge

William J. Debolt, 23, of 912 Stanley Ave., charged with possession of open beer bottles in an auto, was scheduled for arraignment in Municipal Court today after he was arrested last night with four other youths who were released.

Pontiac Patrolmen Robert Rowland and William Young, who said they observed drinking in the car driven by Debolt, halted the auto at Oakland and Baldwin Aves. after Debolt ran a red light.

There are a number of meat-eating plants.

Thief Gets Rich on Rags

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP)—Police heard a new twist to the "rags to riches" story here.

George Withers, 40, was jailed after police said he admitted breaking into a vacant house on two occasions. He said he took rags which he sold to a junk dealer.

Stocks Continue Swing Forward

NEW YORK (AP) — The forward swing of the stock market continued today with considerable spirit.

Gains ran on out to around 4 points in key areas. Losses amounted to a point at the most. They were scattered.

Steels, railroads, and aircrafts were ourstanding in the rise. The coppers were higher, motors were unchanged to higher, and other divisions were mixed or quietly steady.

Bethlehem Steel, an outstanding gainer yesterday, opened today on 2,500 shares up ½ at 104½. It added 8 points in the past two days while Wall Street heard a wide variety of rumors for the cause of the strength. A company spokesman said: "No comment."

Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, which jumped ahead 7½ yesterday on news of a proposed three-for-one split, dropped back 7 points at 151 today in a delayed opening.

CONTAINERS USEFUL TOO—Gifts to make from glass are quick and easy, have practical uses when glass containers are empty. Individual casseroles (upper left) make containers for inexpensive gifts. We show here manicure set, lipstick and powder, pipe cleaners and tobacco and tiny toy soldiers. Flat glass baking dish (upper right) is made into sewing kit, has black-and-white cotton lining, darning egg decorated with Christmas motif. Casserole in basket (lower left) holds homemade cookies, has cooky cutter as cover trim. Glasses (lower right) are plain tumblers with festive air created from spiraling red-and-green tape. Glass containers are from the five-and-dime.

Try Inexpensive Glass Gifts

Christmas on a budget is the Christmas that most of us know well. Few of us can afford to spend lavishly; for the most part we must make some of our gifts, buy some and thus keep the ledger balanced.

This year, there are some smart gift ideas to be found in the glassware section of your five-and-ten-cent store.

Beginning with prosaic items that we all know and use (casseroles, baking dishes, water glasses), you can end up with presents you'll be proud to hand your best friend.

Your best friend will, in fact, welcome an individual glass casserole if it contains her favorite lipstick and powder.

Remove the hard cover from the powder box and set the box in the center of the casserole. (Transparent covering from the powder will prevent its spilling.)

Use shredded white crepe paper as anchoring around the box to hold it firmly in the center. Then fasten a jeweled lipstick case over the powder with tape.

This same idea can apply to tobacco and cleaners for a pipe smoker, manicuring equipment for a teen-ager, a toy soldier collection for a small boy.

A square glass baking dish can be turned into a decorative and useful sewing kit by lining it with black-and-white glazed chints (using glue to secure the edges) and filling it with sewing oddments.

If you've a specialty and making cookies at Christmas time, turn them into a gift. An inexpensive glass casserole and basket-ware set makes a showcase for the cookies and is useful for baking when the cookies are gone.

Loop the handles of the basket with satin ribbon and decorate the cover with a gilded cookie-cutter sprinkled with red stars, the kind that junior gets for brushing his teeth or not being a nuisance.

Officers Injured in Making Arrest

Conservation Men Hit by Bullet Believed Fired Accidentally

MARQUETTE (AP)—Two conservation officers were shot and wounded, one seriously, while arresting two youths last night for suspected out-of-season deer hunting and "shining" of deer.

One rifle shot was fired from the youths' car—apparently by accident, State Police said—and it struck both men, each in the face.

The two youths, John Kroll, 20, and Richard Delvaux, 19, both of Wells, will be charged with "shining" deer and possibly also with careless use of firearms, police said.

Hunting of deer with an artificial light is a violation of the game laws.

The incident happened in southern Marquette County near Watson. Six conservation men had been sent to the area on reports of "shining."

Moore and Saviluoto said they saw Kroll and Delvaux shining deer and that a shot was fired from the youths' car as they approached it.

State police said Kroll told them he had his rifle in his lap and that it discharged as he picked it up.

Six Are Arraigned in Home Loan Fraud

DETROIT (UP) — Six former officers and salesmen of a home improvement company were free on $1,000 bond today after standing mute at their arraignment on charges of fraud in connection with FHA home improvement loans.

Three other officers of the firm — the Home Service and Construction Co. of Southfield Township — and eight homeowners also have been indicted on similar charges.

Those arraigned yesterday were Boyd Campbell, 39, president of the firm, Thayer L. Byerly, 31, secretary - treasurer; Bill R. Henderson, a salesman; Dennis Lowes, vice president; Frank Golab, a field representative, and Jacob Leneschmidt, 51, of Drayton Plains, a salesman.

Local Man Held for FBI on Auto Theft Charge

Howard W. Moore, 22, of 2339 Kingston Rd., is being held in Oakland County Jail for the FBI, which charges Moore with violation of the Dryer Act, which covers inter-state auto theft.

Moore, FBI agents said, is accused of taking a car at Vassar Oct. 2, and driving it to Bloomington, Ill., where it was found Oct. 6.

The agents said Moore would probably be taken into Detroit today for appearance in Federal court.

News in Brief

Travis Dishman Jr., 26, of 1387 Locke St., charged with unlawfully driving away an auto, waived examination and was bound over to Oakland County Circuit Court yesterday when he appeared before Pontiac Judge Cecil McCallum, who scheduled the hearing for today.

Joseph Clark, of 63 W. Lawrence St., assistant manager of the Pontiac Fruit House, reported today to Pontiac Police the theft of a tire, wheel and wheel from his truck while parked in front of the storage house.

Chickenpox, Mumps Cases Up in County

Chickenpox and mumps cases in the county continued to increase last week, according to a weekly summary report by the Oakland County Dept. of Health.

In Pontiac, however, chickenpox cases showed more than a 50 per cent decline, but the city's report shows that five cases of mumps were reported as compared with none the previous week.

Only two cases of polio were reported, one in Birmingham and another in White Lake Township.

	Past Week	Week Ending Dec. 4, '54	Dec. 12, '53
Chicken pox	107	103	31

Forestry Group Meets at Haven Hill Lodge

Haven Hill Lodge in the Highland Recreation Area was the scene today of the winter meeting of the Lower Michigan Chapter of the Society of American Foresters.

The group meets semi-annually in various sections of the state. Its membership is comprised of state foresters, forestry instructors and students.

County Plan Commission Has Economic Survey Unit

The Oakland County Planning Commission has set up an Economic Survey Committee to work toward maintaining and promoting prosperity and business stability in this area, according to Nolan R. Heiden of the commission's staff.

Composed of J. Robert Swanson, Ernest W. Seaholm and Richard A. Ware, the group states its purpose as "to devise the best possible ways of promoting Oakland county's economy and to advance on a sound footing the county standing in the industrial and commercial fields.

"The county," it declares, "must be prepared to claim its rightful share of this area's vast industrial and commercial potential."

To attain their objective the committee is planning surveys aimed at determining the relative importance of all county economic factors and hopes to assist other governmental units and private interests working toward similar ends.

"We're interested in all economic forces, including manufacturing, wholesaling, retailing and banking," said Heiden.

The group already has prepared a tentative industrial questionnaire to be sent to all manufacturing plants.

Queries will be made on number of employes, size of plant, source of materials, transportation facilities used and needed, property area and land needed plus adequacy of the present site.

"We want to discover what can be done to help manufacturer maintain their present position and what is needed to attract new industries," Heiden explained.

Plan Commission Director George N. Skrubb will survey the possibility of establishing planned industrial areas in the county to attract new industry.

The commission is trying to establish itself as a cource of data. "As a collection point for information, we could compile it and make it available to the public," said Heiden.

The Economic Survey Committee is contemplating surveys to pinpoint present and potential industrial sites, why local plants locate where they do and where people work within the county.

The committee also plans to work up information files containing facts pertaining to each city and township.

"Through this we might help local communities in their planning by supplying information and analyzing the over-all situation," Heiden explained.

Liquor Violation Brings Judge's Stiffest Sentence

Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum who yesterday fined James W. Brunson, 32, of 390 Harvey St., $100 and jailed him for 30 days, said the sentence was the stiffest he has yet issued for an illegal sale of liquor charge and warned that other severe penalties would be forthcoming.

"If that's the way violators want it, the sentence and fine are going to continue to go up," Judge McCallum said.

"I'm getting sick and tired of having young kids enticed by others into drinking and getting drunk," he declared.

Brunson was arrested by Pontiac Police after they found a partly consumed bottle of whisky in his auto Saturday. Three minors riding in the auto admitted they had been drunking from the bottle after they bought it from Brunson.

The three minors, who were charged with illegal possession of alcoholic beverages — Seymour Copley Jr., 19, of 115 W. Beverly St.; Roy D. Taylor, 18, of 1238 University St., and Donald K. Rosser, 18, of 1460½ Baldwin Ave.—paid fines of $25 each and were sentenced to four days in jail.

A 16-year-old boy also apprehended in the car was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Man Beaten and Robbed of $2,300 in Waterofrd

An elderly Waterford Township man was beaten and robbed last night by two men who took about $2,300, according to Waterford Township Police Chief Frank Van Atta.

The victim, Sam Minschoff, 78, of 1305 W. Huron St., was home alone when two men came to the front door and hit Minschoff in the face when he opened the door. One of the robbers wore a handkerchief over his face.

Minschoff described the bandits as about 35 and medium build. Before leaving, the pair locked Minschoff in the attic where he was found by his housekeeper, Mrs. Katharina Telemann, who was visiting relatives, Van Atta said.

Edison Revenues Up for 12-Month Period

Net earnings of the company were $21,586,128, or $2 per share on the 10,784,838 shares outstanding.

For the previous 12 months, net earnings were $21,334,258 or $2 per share on 10,649,343 shares.

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK OUR MANY friends for their kindness to us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our husband and father, Joseph E. Swift. Lola Swift and Joseph W. Swift.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Blanche Bulls who passed away 3 years ago today, Dec. 17.
In our hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day dear Mother,
That we do not think of You.
Sadly missed by Clarence Agnes & Boys.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MY mother, Mrs. Blanche Bulls, who passed away December 17, 1951.
No one knows the silent heartache,
Only those who lose can tell
The grief we bear in silence,
For the one we loved so well.
Some day, sometime our eyes shall see,
The face we keep in memory
And God will link the broken chain
Still closer when we meet again.
Sadly missed by her daughter, Adeline, and her family

IN LOVING MEMORY OF MINnie Sugden, who passed away 1 year ago Dec. 17.
Gone from our home
But not from our hearts
Sadly missed by her husband, Frank Sugden, children & grandchildren.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JOE Olsabeck, who passed away Dec 16, 1950. Sadly missed by the family and friends.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF OUR beloved mother, Pauline Crupi, who passed away 4 years ago today, Dec. 17, 1950.
Sadly missed by John, Elizabeth, Joe and Madeline

KNOW ALL THE DETAILS

about the purchase of a USED CAR. Surprising as it may seem, there are many little "items" that must have proper attention to fulfill a used car sale. An establishment of a "Franchised Dealer" is so organized to give you top quality merchandise at the right price! Plus the feeling of security that yours was a "Good Buy." You can't go wrong if you purchase your used car from—

Movie Decline Now Reversed

Newspapers Showed No Reaction Originally, Annual Survey Reveals

NEW YORK (AP)—Some of television's drastic effects on living habits and on other forms of entertainment are beginning to wear off, if viewers in New Brunswick, N.J., are typical.

The Cunningham & Walsh advertising agency here has been conducting annual surveys of New Brunswick homes the past five years and its report for 1954 shows a strong trend toward a return to pre-TV habits and activities.

The surveys in past years had shown nighttime radio listening the hardest hit of all by TV, but it's on the upswing again. Morning radio listening, at least in New Brunswick TV homes, never was affected and has steadily increased.

* * *

"Newspaper reading is the only form of mass communication in the home which showed no reaction when TV sets were purchased," says the report.

"In 1951 reading of newspapers among adults in the panel of identical families was up 9 per cent during the first year of TV in the home. This same group of buyers in 1951 showed an increase of 20 per cent in 1952 and an added 12 per cent increase in 1953. This year's survey shows that newspaper reading has remained at its 1953 peak."

* * *

Movie attendance from TV homes, after declining steadily through 1952, showed a substantial increase in 1954. Magazine reading, after a 53 per cent drop, showed a 70 per cent increase this year on top of a 5 per cent gain last year.

While those findings, based on a "guinea pig" study of a city of just under 40,000 population, might vary in degree from national averages reports from other independent sources indicate they accurately measure the general trends.

SEA-DOOMED—Hotel on the island of Sylt, off North German coast, has been ordered demolished because pounding of waves against shore is eating away ground on which it stands.

Solon Favors Trade With Red Countries

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stennis (D-Miss) said today he favors efforts to develop trade in nonstrategic goods with Russia and her satellites.

He made the statement in commenting on the announcement by Secretary of Agriculture Benson that the administration is considering the sale of butter and other surplus farm products to the Reds.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the question of trade with Russia is "of such serious proportions" that Benson might well present his findings to Congress or consult congressional leaders before taking any final action.

YWCA Worker Retires

JACKSON (AP)—Mrs. May Scott has retired as director of good service at the Jackson YWCA, a post she held for the last 27 years. She was at one time private secretary to the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg when he was publisher of the Grand Rapids Herald.

Billy Graham Honored at Salvation Army Fete

NEW YORK (INS)—Evangelist Billy Graham was awarded the seventh annual citation of the Salvation army Assn. of New York Thursday for leading "untold thousands into a new and deeper understanding of God."

The noted preacher from North Carolina staged a two-month spiritual crusade in Britain earlier this year and recently completed a tour of the United States. He was honored in the presence of Commissioner Norman S. Marshall, eastern territorial commander of the Salvation Army, and Thomas J. Watson, last year's winner, as well as an audience of society and business leaders.

Morse Guilty of Killing Wife

Judge Delays Sentence of Detroit Area Farmer Pending Plea

DETROIT (AP)—A Circuit Court jury of seven men and five women yesterday found Claude W. Morse, suburban Canton Township farmer, guilty of first degree murder in the strangulation death of his first wife.

Judge Chester P. O'Hara deferred imposing the mandatory life sentence until today following Morse's plea for a chance to "tell my story" to the judge.

The state charged Morse, 44, killed his wife, Verley, 47, last Aug. 8, then took the woman's 200-pound body to Kentucky and abandoned it in a roadside ditch near London.

Morse protested he could recall nothing but at the same time insisted he was innocent.

"As God is my witness, I'm not guilty," Morse said yesterday after the jury returned its verdict. "But only God and I know I didn't kill Verley."

Morse married a 15-year-old Tennessee school girl while supposedly looking for his first wife shortly after she vanished. The girl, Eudena Foster, was returned to her parents' home after Morse's arrest.

No relative of Morse was in court for the verdict.

New State Appointment Justifies Disturbances

MARTINSVILLE, Va. (AP)—Boy Scout officials were at a dinner and the dining room was crowded. So much so that those at the speaker's table were jammed against a wall. Just as things got started Chairman S. S. Flythe got a phone call and everybody at the table had to get up to let him out. This kept up until those at the table had gotten up and sat down ten times.

Flythe finally let them in on the secret. The first call was from Governor Thomas B. Stanley who named Flythe to the State Highway Commission. Others were from friends who had urged the governor to name him.

Indians Invading Detroit at Rate of 100 Per Year

DETROIT (AP) — Chief Chester Swallow, president of the North American Indian Club of Detroit, says there are more Indians living in Detroit and its suburbs than were there when Antoine Cadillac founded the city 250 years ago.

Swallow, a Cherokee, estimates the Detroit and suburban Indian population at 1,500. They represent 14 tribes, he said, and are arriving at the rate of at least 100 a year.

School May Be Named After Safety Patrol Boy

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A proposal to name a school for John Minadeo, a 15 year old safety patrol captain, is being considered.

Minadeo, who came here from Italy four years ago, and another student were killed and four injured by an auto which went out of control descending a hill.

Minadeo was pushing his companions toward safety when he was hit.
