Cuban Rebel Leader Sought

KIDNAPERS' BOSS — His cigar and rifle pointed at a target, Cuban rebel leader Fidel Castro does a little practice shooting in his mountain hideout. Castro is being sought by U. S. Consul Park Wollam. In the past five days Castro forces have kidnaped 42 in Cuba, including 39 Americans. Wollam wants to negotiate with Castro for their release.

John Fox Tells Hush-Up Tale About Goldfine

Ex-Publisher Repeats in Detail Scene Between Adams and 'Friend'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ex-publisher John Fox swore today that Sherman Adams had tried to hush up Bernard Goldfine and prevent him from boasting that Adams had never let him down.

Fox thus flatly contradicted a denial by Adams, President Eisenhower's principal assistant, that Goldfine made such a statement in his presence.

This came after the House subcommittee hearing testimony by Fox for the third day clamped down on Fox, refusing to let him read a new statement in the probe of the Adams-Goldfine case.

Fox, stormy Boston financial figure, repeated with details his story of a conference in the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel here involving Adams and Goldfine and of Goldfine's subsequent boast to Adams.

Goldfine, wealthy Boston industrialist, was having difficulties at the time—May, 1955—with the Federal Trade Commission over labeling of some of his textile factory products.

GOLDFINE ON WEDNESDAY

The subcommittee granted Goldfine a one-day postponement—until Wednesday—for his first testimony before the group. He had been scheduled to testify tomorrow but his lawyers had asked for the delay to permit more time for a study of Fox's testimony.

After the conference with Adams, Fox said, Goldfine called Fox into the room for a drink and proposed a toast to Adams, who "never lets his friends down and isn't letting me down now."

Rep. Joseph O'Hara (R-Minn) asked Fox whether this was "a kidding remark."

Fox said he didn't know, but "Adams took Goldfine by the arm to a far corner of the room and quite obviously admonished him not to talk too much."

Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) interrupted to admonish Fox not

U. S. Demands Soviets Return 9 Fliers Downed in Armenia

MOSCOW (AP) — U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson Jr. today asked the Soviet Foreign Ministry for the immediate release of nine American airmen forced down inside Soviet Armenia.

Thompson was ordered from Washington to transmit his government's denial of Soviet charges that the plane, an unarmed DC6A Air Force transport, had deliberately trespassed into the Soviet air space.

The U. S. Defense Department suggested that the aircraft was flying above an overcast on instruments and strayed off course.

The ambassador also was expected to request that embassy representatives be permitted to visit the detained airmen.

The Soviets previously reported that the plane, forced down Friday by two Soviet jets, burned on landing but that the six officers and three airmen aboard were unharmed and are being well cared for.

Presumably the Americans set the plane afire to keep the Soviets from getting its classified equipment.

They are the second group of nine American military personnel held by the Communists.

The East German Reds have been holding nine U. S. Army men since their helicopter got lost in a thunderstorm June 7 and ran out of gas over East Germany. The United States has been trying to get the Soviets to secure release of the Army men, but the Soviets say it's a matter for negotiations between the United States and the East German regime.

The plane downed in Armenia was en route from Weisbaden, Germany, to Tehran and Karachi with cargo for U.S. military and diplomatic missions in Iran and Pakistan. The Soviets gave this version:

The plane was picked up by Soviet radar as it flew 105 miles inside Armenia.

Two jet fighters took off and intercepted the American craft, ordering it to follow them to the nearest airport.

★ ★ ★

"For awhile this foreign plane did not respond," a Soviet account said. "Then it turned sharply and began to fly south. Our fliers forced this intruding plane to make a landing. It landed and began to burn.

"Nine members of the crew who jumped out of the plane were detained."

The U.S. Defense Department said the plane was traveling the regular international civil airway route which passes within about 50 miles of the Soviet border.

★ ★ ★

"The weather was overcast," a Defense Department statement said. "Due to high mountains along the route, it is presumed that the aircraft was flying above the overcast on instruments and radio beacon guidance, and had no visual reference to ground checkpoints."

Bold Kidnapers Making Bid for World Attention

U.S. Consul in Contact With Castro's Forces Hoping to Negotiate

HAVANA (AP) — Rebels struck again today in their bold campaign of kidnaping Americans and other foreigners, seizing two plant officials in eastern Cuba.

The new stroke was announced by the U.S. Embassy as U.S. Consul Park Wollam negotiated with the rebels in the mountains for the release of 39 other kidnaped Americans and 2 Canadians.

Sherman Avery White, general manager of the big U. S.-built Nicaro nickel plant, and his assistant, J. Andrew Poll, were carried off by a band of eight rebels.

The swift seizure by rebels, who left no trace, was of the same pattern as the previous abductions last week.

All are believed designed to draw attention to rebel leader Fidel Castro's sputtering revolt against President Fulgencio Batista.

PARLEYS WITH REBELS

U. S. Embassy sources said Wollam still was in contact with the rebels in the mountains of Oriente province but there was no indication when the men would be released. They included 10 U. S. and 2 Canadian engineers, the first to be seized in the new campaign.

Of those held, 28 are U. S. servicemen who disappeared over the weekend, 27 of them on an overnight picnic excursion from the U. S. Navy Base at Guantanamo.

A spokesman at the base said the Navy knew nothing of reports published abroad that the men might be freed today. He said, however, the Navy does not expect the men to be held long.

10 SEIZED THURSDAY

After Castro's war of nerves fizzled three months ago, the rebels withdrew to the hills and remained relatively quiet. Cuba had begun returning to normal.

Then last Thursday night the rebels seized 10 American and two Canadian engineers at the isolated Moa Mining Co. on the northern coast of Oreinte.

Two sugar mill executives were carried off in separate kidnapings in Oriente.

Business as Usual Today as Straits Area Returns to Normal

MACKINAC BRIDGE (AP)—Straits area communities returned to "business as usual" today. But the mishaps and the triumphs, spectacle and drama, that sprang from three days of merrymaking will furnish fireside talk for many a long winter's evening when the straits are covered with ice and the last tourist has headed south.

All agreed the dedication festival of the new straits bridge was the biggest show the Northland ever saw.

Gov. Williams headed back to his desk at Lansing, but his likely opponent in the November election, Paul D. Bagwell, stayed behind to continue his handshaking tour of the north country in his 1908 Oldsmobile.

Rep. Donald E. Brown (R-Royal Oak), Bagwell's mate as Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, likewise remained.

Traffic returned to normal, summertime volume at St. Ignace and Mackinaw City though bridge traffic continued heavy. Bridge officials expect the 500,000th car to cross this week.

Street cleaners were busy cleaning up the litter and Army men were carting away military displays.

Burns Prove Fatal to Boy, 3, in Pontiac

A three-year-old boy died Saturday afternoon at Pontiac General Hospital of burns received when a jar of gasoline exploded in his backyard.

James Walker Jr., of 164 Franklin Rd., was admitted to the hospital Friday afternoon with third degree burns of the face, chest, hands and legs.

He was injured as he watched his brother, James Wesley, 11, and an uncle, Ronald Wims, 13, running a small gasoline motor.

A spark from the motor ignited the open jar of gasoline nearby, causing the explosion.

2 Area Residents Killed in Traffic

A Lake Orion National Guardsman and a Romeo housewife were killed in separate traffic mishaps this weekend outside Oakland County.

Dead are: Vern E. Williamson, 34, of 505 Heights Rd., Lake Orion, a father of five, and Mrs. Loreane Beamish, 36, of 80977 Holmes Rd., Romeo.

Williamson was killed early Sunday when his car veered across U.S. 27 on the north city limits of Grayling and smashed into a tractor-trailer driven by Donald Ramsay, 24, of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, Canada.

Williamson, a cook in the 125th Infantry Regiment, was spending the weekend with Pontiac's National Guard Company during its annual pre-camp range firing at Camp Grayling.

He was an employe at GM Truck and Coach Division. His body has been taken to Flumerfelt Funeral Home, Lake Orion.

Mrs. Beamish died Sunday in Yale Hospital of injuries received when she was crushed between her husband's truck and the family auto Saturday night on Donald Rd., southwest of Capac, in St. Clair County.

★ ★ ★

The truck and auto were parked without lights, deputies reported.

As she walked between them, the truck was struck from behind by a car driven by Tony Costillo, 18, of Imlay City, deputies said. Costillo was slightly injured.

Her husband, George, 53, and son, James Manning, 16, were also admitted to the hospital.

Thomson's 63 New British Open Low

ST. ANNE'S-ON-THE-SEA, England (AP)—Former champion Peter Thomson of Australia broke the course record and equalled the qualifying mark by shooting a brilliant 63 today in the first qualifying round for the British Open championship.

The 27-year-old three-time winner of this championship fired a 31-32—63 over the rugged, 6,635-yard, par 35-36—71 Lytham layout.

American hopes dimmed as Frank Stranahan, the top U. S. entry from Toledo, Ohio, showed up with a back injury. He was granted an hour and half delay in starting.

The millionaire pro said "I bent over in my hotel room last night and a muscle gave in my back. When I got up this morning I could hardly walk."

Cool Cats:. It's Time for Open Collar

Gentlemen, doff those ties and don those open-collar shirts.

With his finger pointing to the 85-degree spot on the thermometer, Paul Sparrow, champion of masculine summer comfort, has decreed it's too warm today for cuff and cravat formalities.

The mercury slipped past 85 at 10:45 this morning and was still headed upward as Sparrow, wiping a faint trace of perspiration from his brow, sounded the word for all who belong to his Male Emancipation League:

"Cool cats dress for comfort on hot summer days. If you dress otherwise, you not only are not a cool cat, you are not cool, period. You are hot and miserable."

This sage advice applies to every day it is 85 degrees or hotter. It will probably apply tomorrow, Sparrow says, so be prepared.

Glance at the thermometer before leaving for work in the morning. If it's around 70 - 75 then, you can be confident it will hit 85 later, Sparrow says.

Postman to Collect One Way or Other

WASHINGTON (AP) — Effective tomorrow, the Post Office Department will start collecting a 5-cent penalty charge for delivering mail on which postage is due.

"Short paid" mail will go through to the addressee without delay, and the addressee will be required to pay the shortage plus the 5-cent penalty. If he refuses to do this, the mail will be returned to the sender for the deficient postage and penalty.

Monroe Mob Runs Wild Swinging Bottles and Bats

MONROE (AP)—Three deputies were hurt while breaking up an hour-long melee last night in which some 40 persons flailed at each other with tire irons, beer bottles and baseball bats at Twin Lakes Beach.

Neither the deputies nor the brawlers were injured seriously.

Donald Geiman, an off-duty deputy working as a guard at the beach eight miles west of Monroe, called for help when he was unable to stop a fight. He said the brawl began between two small gangs and quickly spread.

★ ★ ★

"Everything broke loose all at once," Geiman said. "It seemed to start among four or five carloads of men. They were using ballbats, tire irons, hammers, bottles, anything they could get their hands on."

Geiman said he fired five shots over the heads of the rioters, but "It didn't faze them."

★ ★ ★

Six from the Detroit area were arrested. The rest were driven off by 10 Monroe County deputies and State Police.

They'll Bury Rock 'n' Roll

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Radio Station WJQS is giving away its 5,000 rock 'n' roll records and in the future will concentrate on "adult music." Manager Lew Heilbroner said the discs would be hauled to a department store in a coffin, signifying the death of rock 'n' roll, and given to teenagers.

Sea Lion Due for Return Trip to London Zoo

TOLEDO (AP) — Toledo Zoo director Phil Skeldon said today arrangements have been completed to send a fugitive sea lion back to Storybook Gardens Zoo in London, Ont., next Sunday.

The sea lion was captured Friday in a boathouse on Sandusky Bay after a long cruise into American waters.

★ ★ ★

At first Skeldon said he would keep the mammal for Toledo Zoo since he and his staff had made the capture.

But later he decided to send it back to London in the interest of international amity.

The sea lion will start the 180-mile trip back to London in a Toledo Zoo station wagon. Canadian officials will meet it at their end of the Ambassador Bridge between Detroit and Windsor.

Senate Resumes Debate Today

Alaska May Get Star by Midweek

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate enters a second week of debate on Alaskan statehood today with prospects of a vote by midweek to add the first star to the nation's flag since 1912.

With the Senate again meeting early, there was hope for a vote during the day on a constitutional point of order raised against the bill by Sen James O. Eastland (D-Miss).

Backers of the House-passed bill, heartened by two test vote victories, were confident the admission measure would be on its way to the White House not later than Wednesday. They forecast passage by a 2-1 Senate margin.

Delegate E. L. Bob Bartlett (D-Alaska), traditionally cautious in his statehood forecasts, said he would not be surprised to find 70 senators lining up for the bill on the final roll call. He said he looked for action by tomorrow night.

Similar forecasts were made during the weekend by Senate backers of the bill which would authorize the first new state since New Mexico and Arizona joined the Union 46 years ago.

From the beginning, statehood strategists have successfully opposed any alteration of the House-passed bill to avoid parliamentary troubles which might occur if the bill had to go back to the House for action on Senate amendments.

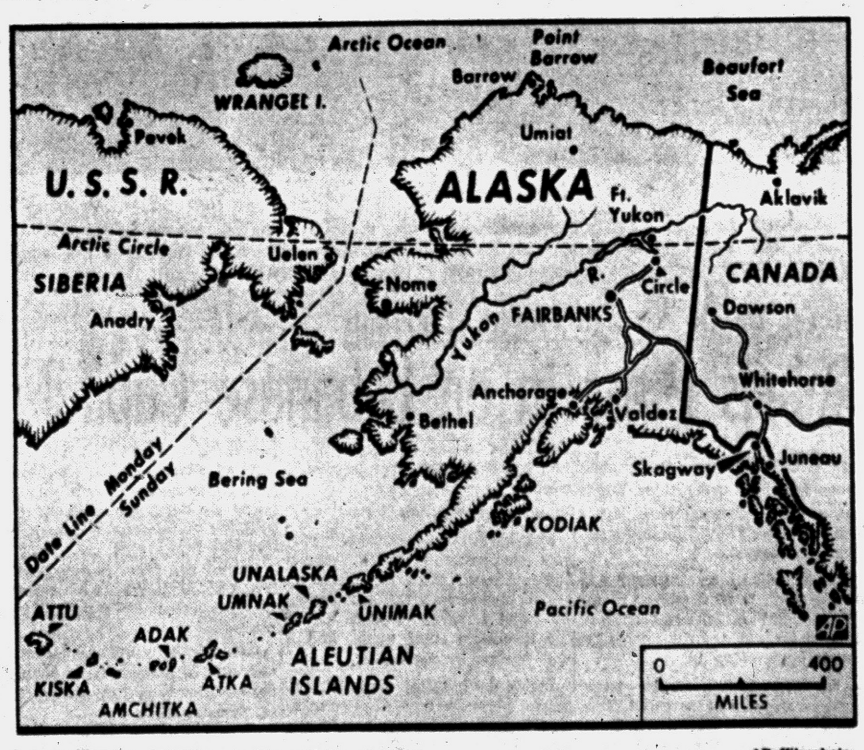

Two such efforts were rejected Friday when the Senate voted 50-29 against a proposal to substitute commonwealth status for statehood and beat back 53-28 the first of Eastland's three constitutional challenges.

CLOSE TO RUSSIA — America's possible 49th state, Alaska, has Russia as one of its closest neighbors. The territory, 2½ times the size of Texas, has 18,000 square miles of glaciers. Yet Anchorage, with weather comparable to Chicago's, had a heat wave last winter. Snow had to be imported for sled dog races. The southeastern Alaska Panhandle, an island-studded coastal area and one of the territory's great salmon fisheries, enjoys a climate much like the Pacific Northwest states.

Rain Predicted Tomorrow Won't Cool Us Much

Temperatures finally began to warm up for Pontiac area residents this past weekend. A sunny 85 degrees was Sunday's high and at 11 this morning the mercury was pushing the 86 degree line with an 88 high predicted by the weatherman.

Partly cloudy and warm is the forecast for tonight. The low will be around 68.

Tomorrow's outlook is partly cloudy with scattered thundershowers in the afternoon and evening. The high will be about 85 with the evening low expected to be 64.

The U. S. Weather Bureau's five-day Michigan weather forecast reports that temperatures will average near the normal 82 high and normal 62 low. Cooler temperatures are due Wednesday, but it will be warm again Friday. Scattered thunderstorms are predicted for Wednesday and again Friday.

The lowest temperature recorded in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 69. At 2 p.m. the temperature was 88.

NEW MESC BRANCH — The Michigan Employment Security Commission today opened this new branch office at 242 Oakland avenue. Containing about 9,000 square feet of office space, it is about a half again as large as the former Pontiac headquarters at 142 Wayne St., which closed down today. Paul Kimball, Pontiac branch manager, said that the temporary downtown office at 17 E. Lawrence St. will remain open indefinitely.

Alaska May Get Star by Midweek

most frequently, its climate.

A southern congressman, during the House debate on the Alaska statehood bill in May, said he doubted the territory would ever be settled by Americans because of the climate.

Alaska does have cold temperatures during the long winters, but the territory's weather — like virtually everything else about its 586,400 square miles — defies a blanket description.

You can't call Alaska a land of ice and snow — even though it has 18,000 square miles of glaciers. You can't very well say its wintertime temperatures are unliveable — because some 35,000 persons live in Fairbanks (where the mercury sinks more than 60 degrees below zero) and call their city the golden heart of Alaska.

The southeastern Alaska panhandle, an island-studded coastal area, enjoys a climate much like the Pacific Northwest states.

Anchorage, which has weather that compares with Chicago, was so hard-pressed by a heat wave last winter that snow had to be imported to stage dog sled races that are a feature of the annual fur rendezvous.

But beyond a universal love for land that has been a possession of the United States for 91 years, Alaskans often are at odds among themselves.

But Fox insisted.

"From the snatches of conversation I got and Mr. Adams' obvious concern" he knew he "was telling Mr. Goldfine to keep his mouth shut," he said.

Adams in a public statement Friday specifically denied that Goldfine made any such remark in his presence.

Adams has knowledged making an inquiry about the status of FTC cases involving Goldfine's mills, and passing on the resulting information to Goldfine, but insisted he asked for no special treatment for his friend.

Fox has pictured his business rival, Boston millionaire Bernard Goldfine, as getting favored treatment from federal agencies through friendship with Serman Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide.

Adams has issued angry denials; so have Goldfine's lawyers.

Goldfine flew in from Boston last night but was reported planning to stay clear of today's hearing. His lawyers said they wanted Goldfine to bone up on Fox's allegations so he will be ready for a scheduled appearance tomorrow.

Both the White House and Adams denounced as lies much of what Fox told the subcommittee last week.

But TV Doesn't Do Justice

3 Huzzas for Moiseyev Dancers!

By WILLIAM EWALD

NEW YORK (UPI) — I can't think of any recent show which so clearly defined the nature of the television beast as the TV debut last night of the Moiseyev Dance Company.

Ed Sullivan devoted his full TV hour to the Russia troupe and I must say at the start it was an hour shot through with a wonderful exuberance. It was a little like having a whirlwind in the living room. It was an hour full of swirl and whoop and good humor and stylish corn—I mean that in the best sense. I don't see how anyone could possibly fault the company.

But—ah, there he goes with his buts again—it aslo was a terribly frustrating show. Television is simply not suited to the dance. Dancing exists in space—the spacial relationships between dancer and dancer and between the dancer and the space around him. Without that feeling of space, you get a flat imitation of what's going on.

It was not the fault of the cameras. When a camera tried a long shot, the dancing was not too well defined. When it tried medium shots of individual dancers, the rest of the troup was lost. When it tried closeups of feet, torsos were snipped out. When it tried overhead shots, feet were blotted.

My minor carping aside, last night's Sullivan show was an enormous contribution to television. It demonstrated that dance companies can be—well, I hate to use the word, but—fun. The Moiseyev girls looked jolly and, unlike so many female dancers, amply proportioned. And the men, unlike most male dancers, looked like men.

One side note: There was one almost excruciatingly embarrassing moment at the tail of the show when the woman translating the words of impressario Moiseyev started to say: "I am delighted . . ." and a derisive hoot was heard from the audience.

Sullivan turned a withering glance toward the offender the likes of which I've not seen since Leo Durocher last looked at an umpire. It was a glance justly deserved.

Ike Signs Bill Repealing 3 Per Cent Freight Tax

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today signed a bill repealing the 3 per cent federal tax on freight shipments and extending for one year all other corporate and excise levies.

The measure also ended a tax of 4 cents a ton on transportation of coal and 4½ per cent on pipeline shipments of oil and gas.

Repeal of the freight levies will go into effect Aug. 1. It will cost the treasury an estimated 48 million dollars a year.

Mackay Only Yank Left in Net Singles

WIMBLEDON, England (UP)—Lanky Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, today crushed India's Ramanathan Krishnan but two other Americans, veterans Gardnar Mulloy and Budge Patty, were eliminated in the Wimbledon tennis championships.

Mackay, eighth-seeded, now is the only Yank left in the men's singles. He reached the quarterfinals with his 6-3, 11-9, 6-2, triumph over Krishnan.

Patty, 1950 Wimbledon winner from Los Angeles and Paris, was Sven Davidson, 6-4, 2-6, 4-6, 9-7, 6-4.

Third seeded Mervyn Rose of Australia trounced Mulloy, of Coral Gables, Fla., 6-2, 6-3, 6-1.

Apparently, Explorer III Is Dead, Experts Agree

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI)—Explorer III apparently is dead.

Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory scientists said last night there has been no confirmed sighting of the American satellite since 9:30 p.m. (EST) Friday at Memphis, Tenn. They discounted reported sightings since then in Connecticut, Arizona, and over the Atlantic Ocean.

A spokesman said, "Those objects probably were just fireballs."

Smithsonian experts had predicted Explorer III, launched last March 26, would burn up by last night.

Although the U. S. Embassy reported the men were forced from their bus and driven into the mountains, there was no public expression of fear for their safety or that of the other captives. Wollam was told by a reliable rebel source that the 12 engineers were in good shape.

In the past Castro's men have been studiously polite to their foreign captives, releasing them unharmed after the kidnaping made its desired publicity splash.

The current wave of kidnapings was preceded by a rebel charge that the United States was allowing Batista's air force to use the Guantanamo airstrip as a base from which to bomb Castro's mountain hideouts.

This was promptly denied by U. S. Ambassador Earl E. T. Smith.

Fierce Battle Also Reported at Tripoli

Rebels Press In on Lebanese Capital

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Rebels drove into hills overlooking Beirut today and security forces fought back with jet planes, artillery and armored cars.

The surprise thrust brought rebel mountain fighters closer to the capital and Beirut International Airport than at any time since the revolt began May 10.

Security forces struck back immediately and wrested two hills from the rebels near Hemlan Village, but the fighting continued.

Rebels and government forces fought the fiercest battle in Lebanon's civil war this weekend at Tripoli, but there were no reports today on whether the rebel attack had broadened into an offensive to capture the whole city.

U. S. HOSPITAL SHAKEN

The battle in the northern port city yesterday centered around the U.S. Presbyterian Hospital, which stands on a hill surrounded by rebel territory. Bullets nicked the hospital's outer walls, and it was shaken by explosions.

Inside the hospital were 25 Lebanese patients and 42 Lebanese staff members. They reported by telephone yesterday that their reinforced patrol of government guards was still there.

American personnel quit the hospital two weeks ago. The rebels were trying to capture the hospital for their own wounded.

Rebel strongholds in the Tripoli area were shelled by land and seaborne artillery. Government gunboats in the Mediterranean shelled the El Mena port area, staging point for the rebel attacks on the hospital. Armored cars continued blasting rebel strongpoints from land.

Casualty figures were uncertain, although 38 persons have been reported killed so far, at least 12 of them rebels.

Tripoli has been the scene of the heaviest fighting since the rebellion against President Camille Chamoun's pro-Western government broke out 52 days ago with riots that resulted in the burning of the U. S. Information Agency library.

The Day in Birmingham

Ten Injured, 4 Seriously, in Four Auto Accidents

BIRMINGHAM — Ten persons were injured, four seriously, in four auto accidents over the weekend in the Birmingham area.

A three-car crash at Woodward avenue and Long Lake road at 9 last night sent four persons to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac.

Dale Mangrum, 26, of Detroit, ran a red light, Bloomfield Hills Police said, and struck cars driven by John S. Coppin, 53, of 4301 Echo Rd., Bloomfield Township, and Fiery Zimmerman, 48, of 8439 Alhis Rd., Walled Lake.

Most seriously hurt was Coppin's son, Terry, 8, who suffered multiple head injuries. Doctors this morning described his condition as fair.

Also in fair condition is Mrs. Coppin, 41. She has a broken collar bone.

Coppin suffered head injuries and Mangrum, back and possible internal injuries.

At 10 p.m. Sunday, two Detroit women were injured when the driver lost control of her car and struck the large directional sign post at the Woodward avenue-Hunter boulevard crossover.

Kathleen Macks, 21, the driver, suffered head and chest injuries. A passenger in her car, Irene Myhren, 20, has a broken thigh, possible fractured skull and chest injuries. Both are in William Beaumont Hospital, Royal Oak.

George Bernard, 79, of the Fons Trailer Park on Southfield road, Southfield Township, is in the Beaumont Hospital with a broken hip after having fallen against a Great Lakes Suburban Lines bus yesterday afternoon at the Woodward avenue bus station in Birmingham.

Driver of the bus, Wesley Ratliff, told police Bernard had just stepped out of the bus, and that when he started to pull away from the curb, the man fell against the vehicle.

Three persons suffered cuts and bruises when a car driven by Charles R. Frendenberg, 21, of Detroit, collided with an auto driven by Mrs. Isabel D. Hagolund, 56, of 651 E. Maple St., Royal Oak, at 1 p.m. yesterday at the Hunter boulevard and Maple avenue intersection in Birmingham.

Frendenberg's car ran a red light, Birmingham Police said.

Both drivers and a passenger in Frendenberg's car, Wayne Schultz, 19, also of Royal Oak, all escaped serious injuries, police said.

Seven public hearings will be conducted by Birmingham City Commissioners tonight, six on the confirmation of special assessment districts.

ANCHORAGE—Alaskan salmon packers canned 2,800,000 cases of salmon in the 1957 season, a drop of 500,000 cases from the year before. The Alaskan pack ordinarily accounts for about four-fifths of the United States' canned salmon. In 1938 the U. S. salmon pack amounted to 8,900,000 cases.

Your Dollars May Shrink Further as U. S. Deficit Continues to Grow

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. government this midnight will rack up its 25th treasury deficit in 29 years, which means the purchasing power of the dollar in your pocket may shrink some more. The process is known as creeping inflation.

Twenty-nine years ago on this very day the people of the United States were about to learn that their federal government had been frugally administered through another year. The people were neither impressed nor much interested in those upcoming statistics of the fiscal year 1929.

Low taxes, treasury surpluses and substantial reductions of the national debt were what the voters long had demanded and received from their public servants. The thought that the government could and would thereafter over the years spend itself toward economic trouble in a scarcely interrpted series of treasury deficits—this thought would have been incredible in 1929.

The 25 deficit years of the past 29 would have been as unthinkable back there in the '20s as is incredible now the thought that enough more of the same may be in the works to do serious harm to the American way of life.

Maybe it can't happen here. But, it might! More precisely, it is beginning to happen now. Creeping! There will not, however, be much public interest in the splatter of 1958 fiscal year-end figures from the treasury. Fiscal '58 ends at midnight tonight. The citizens will be playing a cruel practical joke on themselves, however, if they continue to refuse to be interested in what takes place as this fiscal year ends and in the fiscal years to come.

There has been, of course, another round of inflationary deficit spending, the treasury going about 3 billion dollars in the red. The national debt has swollen about 260 billion dollars in 29 years. Perhaps another little 3 billion won't do us any harm. A deficit of 8 to 10 billion dollars is likely in the fiscal year which begins tomorrow. That will be fiscal '59.

The government has had to borrow despite collection of taxes in the multi-billion of dollars. For the total sum of those taxes there is no numerical comparison in this world, only in the astronomical statistics of outer space.

This is dull stuff. Not so dull is the explosive fact that such deficit spending could and may rattle the U. S. economy unless it is checked. Health of the U. S. economy is judged considerably in terms of the dollar which, as of now, is worth about 50 cents compared to 1939 purchasing power.

The U.S. government is a going concern right enough, but going where? On the record of the past 29 years it is going toward trouble if it continues to live beyond its income. The citizen's trouble will be with his pocket money and his cash in the bank.

Consider a citizen who put a dollar in the bank back there in 1939 and withdrew it today. This citizen lives, for example, in Washington, D. C., and needs the dollar for trolley fare. The 1939 buck he banked would buy then 10 rides to and from work. It would buy him only five rides today. The same goes for baby shoes, rent or whatever. Perhaps the citizen now is earning twice his 1939 salary. Lucky guy!

★ ★ ★

Maybe it can't happen here. It has been happening, however, for nearly 30 years. Inflation is a slow though deadly poison.

To Boost Wages of Steelworkers

Effect Probably to Be Felt by Other Persons Before Very Long

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Basic steelworkers receive a wage increase tomorrow that likely will be felt by most Americans before too long.

The increase is the final installment in a three-year contract.

The union estimates the package boost at 13.2 cents hourly, the companies at 16 cents. Steelworkers now earn about $2.77 hourly.

USW members will also receive a 4-cent hourly raise figured on a rise on the government's cost-of-living index.

Steelmakers, who had hoped the union would forego the final increase, estimate the boost will add up to 25 cents hourly to the cost of production.

All are agreed an increase in the price of steel will be necessary. None of the major producers has said just how much.

★ ★ ★

U.S. Steel Corp. normally sets the steel price pattern, but it has said it would make no decision until the economic situation clarifies. This was taken in many quarters to mean that Big Steel would wait for a business improvement before making price adjustments.

The present composite price of steel is estimated at $155 a ton.

Steel price increases often are followed by boosts in the costs of steel-made consumer goods, such as autos, appliances and even toys, nails and hairpins.

Close Parental Ties May Void Draft Call

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP) — Patrick Hallinan's close association with his parents may keep him from being drafted, his mother said yesterday.

Hallinan, 23, is the son of attorney Vincent Hallinan, a 1952 presidential candidate on the independent Progressive party slate.

Mrs. Hallinan said her son received a letter from Army headquarters in Washington last week warning that unless she can "refute the existence of a close and continuing association" with two persons identified with Communist-front groups his "eligibility to be drafted will be questioned."

★ ★ ★

She said the two persons are she and her husband. The letter, Mrs. Hallinan said, is a "dreadful and shocking thing" that implies there is something wrong in her son associating with his parents.

Trying to Show Mafia-Union Tie

Senate Rackets Probers Point to Infiltration of Labor by Underworld

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate rackets probers set out today to show that a powerful underworld syndicate is fattening on helpless businesses and labor unions.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) and counsel Robert F. Kennedy of the special investigating committee pictured the probe as aimed at unmasking schemes in which they said:

1. Organized racketeers, operating behind respectable fronts, infiltrate and make collusive labor contract deals with labor unions, thus gaining unfair advantage over legitimate competitors.

2. Racketeers quietly muscle in on businesses which they use as fronts, pouring into them profits from narcotics and gambling. The objectives here are to conceal unlawful sources of this income and to get a financial edge over competing firms.

Kennedy told a news conference: "There is no question that there is an underworld organization that has leadership, that has authority, and that takes action against those who challenge it. Some call it the Mafia, some call it the syndicate."

McClellan said the hearings will show a continuing tie between such a syndicate and gangster Charles (Lucky) Luciano, who was deported to Italy.

McClellan said it may take four months or more of hearings to showwhat new laws are needed to deal with what he called the American criminal syndicate. He said 100 witnesses have been subpoenaed.

The committee chose to launch the hearings with an effort to get at more facts about the alleged crime convention which drew some 65 racketeers, hoodlums and others to Apalachin, N.Y., last fall.

Grandpa Skips to Italy With Another Woman

LONDON (AP) — Lady Molly Huggins said today her husband, Sir John, former governor of Jamaica, has run off to Italy with another woman.

"If he will come home, I will forgive him," she told newsmen. "But if he stays away I am going to have to think of a divorce."

Lady Huggins said the other woman is Mrs. Margaret Hitchcock, owner of a dress shop near the Huggins home in Farnham, Surrey. Sir John is 66 and a grandfather.

Mrs. Hitchcock, whose husband works for a telegraph company, is in her 40s and has a daughter. "And I," said Lady Molly, "am 50. Isn't it awful?"

Lady Molly said Sir John and Mrs. Hitchcock have been traced to a hotel in Rapallo. To make matters worse, Italy is where he took Lady Molly on their honeymoon 29 years ago.

"He is being very silly," said Lady Huggins. "I don't think I shall follow him to Italy. I don't suppose he will be there long. He's a little old for that sort of thing."

Sir John and his wife have three grown daughters, one of whom has three children. Lady Molly said she had bought dresses from Mrs. Hitchcock and had entertained the woman and her husband at cocktail parties.

She said some of the Huggins' friends seemed to think that "Mrs. Hitchcock is not of the same class as us."

"But that's nonsense," said Lady Molly. "I don't care if she ran a shop or was a duchess, I don't care a damn. I'm no snob.

Hitchcock said he was bewildered. "My wife and I have been married for a long time and we have a young daughter," he said. "How can I explain this to her?"

Hurrah–June's Over, Brighter Days Ahead

This is the last day of June.

Glory be.

No June in the memory of the oldest inhabitant ever dawned so drearily, and dragged through thirty such dismal days.

We refer to the weather.

★ ★ ★

There were probably many happy bright occasions in your personal life but the weatherman made no important contributions. Rather, your joy was in spite of his foul tactics and diabolical plotting. Perhaps the rain fall will prove to be average for June, but it always fell at inopportune times. And, it threatened to rain most of the time when it actually didn't.

★ ★ ★

The days were always "below seasonal" in temperature. No one suffered from any cases of sunburn and no one tried to "dress for warm days." The Pontiac Press open shirt policy for "85 and more" was just a hollow laugh and a dismal groan. President Paul Sparrow threw his diamond studded crown in the ash can last week and he heaved his solid platinum scepter into the lake two days before.

★ ★ ★

The tourist trade is singing the blues. The boys and girls haven't started that golden trek that jingles the Wolverine cash registers. Everyone's afraid to go north without snow shoes and a dog team.

★ ★ ★

What stupid nit-wit said:

"What's so rare as a day in June."

Well, if he wants an answer, it's the days in July, August, September, October, November, December, January, February, March, April and May. Everyone of them's rarer than June of 1958.

But wait.

Joy's ahead.

JULY WILL BE MAGNIFICENT.

That's a promise.

Uniform Laws Urged for Control of Traffic

On July 1 New York State's new traffic regulations go into effect. Enacted by the State Legislature last year, these rules of the road are a part of a nationwide effort to make driving laws uniform.

The Uniform Vehicle Code was originally drafted by a committee appointed by the first national highway safety conference. From time to time it has been revised by the National Committee on Uniform Traffic Laws and Ordinances, a branch of the White House Conference on Highway Safety.

The New York law sets up standards of highway conduct to promote safety. Its lists of violations include riding the bumper of the car ahead, leaving keys in the ignition, hanging paraphernalia over rear view mirrors, tossing trash from cars and opening doors on the traffic side of a parked car.

New York has enacted almost all the recommendations of the Uniform Code as did Nevada last year, to a great extent, the State of Wisconsin. All but ten states have adopted a large part of the rules of the road recommendations.

Uniform traffic laws have long been advocated by the American Automobile Association (AAA), the National Safety Council, the Governors' Conference Committee on Highway Safety, the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Many specialists agree that in increased public respect for rules of safety and for traffic laws and their enforcement lie the answers to traffic accident problems. The American Bar Association has worked for many years on a program of improving the atmosphere of traffic courts to engender respect for the law.

In his study of the problem called "Uniformity; Greatest Need of Traffic Courts," ROGER ALTON PFAFF had this to say:

"The traffic courts of America have too long been judicial orphans, presided over by incompetent or indifferent judges who run their courts on a conveyor belt system for revenue purposes to bolster up the sagging finances of a municipality . . . No pro-tem or part time judges should ever be allowed" on traffic court benches.

Uniform traffic laws in all states, says Editorial Research, are widely regarded as necessary to win greater compliance and understanding of safety rules.

We are in complete agreement.

The Man About Town

The Cold Facts

Pontiac's Had Much Larger Crowds Than at the Bridge

1958: A year whose first half wasn't half as bad as the crepe hangers predicted at its start.

Now that "Mighty Mac" is dedicated, a little retrospect is interesting. I was there through it all, and have seen more visitors in Pontiac for our annual Christmas parade.

The weather provided a weak alibi, as most people were on their way before Thursday's storm struck, and both Friday and Saturday were ideal days.

Advance publicity about "the biggest crowd in Michigan's history" frightened many people, who canceled their reservation, rather than get caught in it. Nearly every motel and hotel in the area had vacancies.

The parade at St. Ignace Thursday was spoiled by the weather, but that at Mackinaw City Friday was a magnificent spectacle, and worthy of a far larger crowd than saw it. Saturday's "official dedication" was a political fiasco, holding up traffic on the bridge five times as long as was necessary.

But the bridge lived through it, a world renowned mechanical and engineering masterpiece, dedicated to and enduring for the ages. Built by men with the know-how, it will be with us long after current politicians are gone.

"What Shape Are You In for the Economic Race?"

David Lawrence Asks:

Any Favorites at White House?

WASHINGTON — Would a stranger receive the same treatment at the White House as a friend? Would a friend who gave gifts get better treatment than a friend who didn't?

LAWRENCE

These questions are considered pertinent by many readers who have written in about the Sherman Adams case. So this correspondent made inquiry a few days ago and obtained the following information from an official source:

Q. About how many letters are received at the White House in a typical month for the attention of the President or his aide, Sherman Adams, which are referred for action of some kind to governmental agencies?

A. About 8,937 were received in March, and for the first three weeks in June the total was 5,018. Most of them were referred to other governmental agencies without any memos along with them but all bore the stamped signature of Sherman Adams as authorizing the referral action.

Q. How many of these letters required some form of notation to be attached to the incoming letter of inquiry when it was referred to a governmental agency?

A. About 1,122 in March and 694 in the first three weeks of June were handled that way. These were requests that the agency take appropriate action and make a reply direct to the inquirer.

Q. How many got a letter of acknowledgment from Sherman Adams stating that the matter was being referred to another agency?

A. About 790 in March and 424 in June.

Q. How many memos were written by other members of the White House staff under their own signatures referring matters to other governmental agencies and requesting information?

A. About 200 during the month of June. This is approximately the same number as in other months.

Q. Out of the total number of inquiries that Adams himself acknowledged and referred to governmental agencies, how many came from individuals with whom he has had a personal acquaintance?

A. Not more than one per cent of the 790 in March and the 424 in June. And most of these came from persons in his home area—citizens who were his constituents when he was governor of New Hampshire or when he served in Congress.

The above information is entirely apart from the inquiries made by members of Congress who write to the White House in behalf of constituents desiring some action be taken by governmental agencies. The same source estimated that for the two typical months mentioned above, there were 143 such letters in March and 156 in the first three weeks in June.

The humane appeals—a transfer of a son in military service to duty in the U.S. because of severe illness of the father—are mixed in with those which request aid of a material nature. Citizens generally feel they have a constitutional right to appeal to the President or his aides to take action to help them in their business or personal relations with the government. Whether or not they are known personally to staff members at the White House, the requests are considered on their merits and the appropriate action is taken or information is requested from the governmental agencies concerned.

When Sherman Adams during a 15-year friendship with a New England businessman occasionally exchanged gifts—as do many persons in public life—he could not have known that the routine consideration he gave to two requests for information some day would be regarded as indiscreet.

Dr. William Brady Says:

So This Dentist Fellow Thinks I'm Half Right!

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The clipping to which Dr. Brady refers in the following article is one written by a Pontiac area dentist, and which appeared recently in Voice of the People section of The Pontiac Press.)

From Pennsylvania someone who is glad to hold my coat while I get in there and fight sends two clippings, from I don't know what newspaper, of letters signed by Stephen Sheffrey, D.D.S., one of them giving also a street address, 249 S. Williams Lake Rd., but not the name of the town where South Williams Lake road is.

DR. BRADY

One of Dr. Sheffrey's letters to the paper begins:

"Dr. Brady is at teeth again, blasting dentists with a little of the sarcasm he usually reserves for working members of his own profession. He is, as usual, half right . . ."

Dr. Sheffrey generously concedes that I am as usual half right. The trick specialists of St. Paul, Minn., or maybe it was Newark, N. J., or both places, defending the tonsillectomy atrocity against the truth I told about it, also conceded I was half right.

But such let's-call-it-quits argument doesn't make me pull my punches, whether we're fighting about tonsils or teeth.

Dr. Sheffrey speaks of the "proven fact" that sugar, candy and sweets favor decay of the teeth. Dentists have been telling us this for 40 years. But neither Dr. Sheffrey nor any other dentist tells who proved that sugar favors decay of the teeth, or how he or she proved it.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Group experiments conducted over the past 25 years by Dr. Phillip Jay of University of Michigan have substantiated earlier claims that there is a definite relationship between dental caries and the consumption of starches and sugar. In a number of experiments, groups of persons were divided and placed on high sugar diet, regular diet and low sugar diet. In every instance, there was a marked decrease in the ratio of tooth cavities in members of the group where sugar and starches were kept at a minimum, and a corresponding increase in dental caries among those where the diets included unrestricted amounts of candy, carbonated sweet drinks, ice cream, cake and pastry, and other carbohydrates.)

In the booklet Save Your Teeth (35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope) I cite Russell W. Bunting, D.D.Sc., professor of oral pathology in the University of Michigan School of Dentistry, pertaining to tooth decay:

"Except when carried to an extreme and impractical degree, these measures" (tooth brushing, etc.) "have failed to give any high degree of protection against the disease" (dental caries, cavity formation, tooth decay.)

"Clinical observations clearly indicate that the activity and extent of dental caries may be quite unrelated to the degree of mouth cleanliness. Relatively clean teeth may be extremely carious and filthy mouths may be wholly free from defect."

Let no reader infer that I would give children all the sugar, candy, or sweets they want. I don't, and in a piece to follow I'll tell you why.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Doctor Presents Views About Hospital Changes

The editorial which appeared in The Press on June 24 commending the Pontiac General Hospital Trustees was in order, for they have shown a willing and sincere effort to face what has seemed to be crisis after crisis. Payroll cuts, discharge of employes and closure of the Annex were spoken of as "positive actions" and equated with being for the public good.

★ ★ ★

Perhaps we should recall that the Annex was not opened with the thoughts of its being a financial success. It has been a success in the service it has provided for the many patients who have been hospitalized there.

★ ★ ★

Undoubtedly the efficiency of the hospital has been reduced during the current construction period and will continue to be during the transition period when old and new facilities are being interchanged. Undoubtedly it has been costly to maintain adequate service, but service to the community must not and need not be sacrificed to economic expediency.

★ ★ ★

We are in full agreement with the commendation given Harold Euler for his pinch-hitting during recent weeks. The suggestion of having a Board member act as hospital director, or the "pay-as-you-go" suggestion heard in the Voice of the People demonstrate a superficial and almost naive approach to the problem.

★ ★ ★

The management of a modern hospital is not something that can be assumed by a business man, a lawyer, a clergyman, or a physician, no matter how capable or talented he may be in his own field. By way of comparison, the Secretary of Defense would hardly attempt to command the operation of a battleship or aircraft carrier (at least not if there were any admirals around), nor would a chairman of the board of a national airline attempt to operate one of his company's multi-engined passenger airplanes. A top flight hospital director today has had a rich background based upon sound academic training and years of experience in the field of hospital management.

★ ★ ★

It is our fervent hope that all possible effort be expended toward obtaining a hospital director of this caliber. He will not be easy to find . . . he will be expensive . . . he will be worth it!

James W. Gell, M. D.

'We Don't Agree With the Gripers'

People are always expressing their complaints and grievances about hospitals and the cold, unconcerned treatment they receive while they are in one. My husband and I would like to contradict these statements and express sincere appreciation to Pontiac General Hospital for the efficiency, quickness of thought and wonderful care.

'Edison's Message Is Inspiration'

I ran across a quotation of Thomas A. Edison the other day:

"My message to you is to be courageous. I have lived a long time. I have seen history repeat itself again and again. I have seen many depressions in business. Always America has come out stronger and more prosperous. Be as brave as your fathers were before you—have faith—go forward."

Somehow this was very encouraging to me. Maybe it will be to others. The politicians would have us believe our country is going to the dogs. What a pity we don't have more men like Thomas Edison, with his faith in our country, in politics, today instead of the cheap politicians who would sacrifice their country for their political party.

Sick of Politicians

'Courthouse Fine; Now Rest Rooms'

I am glad they got around to clean up the Courthouse. It's about time. Now will someone take down the boarded windows and do something about the rest room. A city as large as Pontiac should not be without public rest rooms.

Old Timer

'Would This Plan Solve Economy?'

I don't pretend to be an economist or to ignore the many contributions of large corporations to our economy. However, we will not stop having depressions until we have a less helter-skelter economy with so many undistributed or unneeded surpluses.

Small neighborhoods or areas growing or making everything they need might be one way of keeping track of what is needed and what isn't. As soon as we had too much of any one thing, everyone could pitch in to give persons in that work temporary jobs of some other kind.

There would be drawbacks. Refrigerators, washing machines and other mass produced things would be much more expensive when made by small factories and would probably have to be made to last much longer, with less emphasis on style. Research would have to be publicly financed or by some kind of subscription. Universities, hospitals, medical laboratories and other organizations for which there is constant need would go on much as before. It would be interesting to hear what others would suggest.

'What's Relation Between Two?'

I can't see what relation smoking on the street has to do with street walking. It may not be in the best taste, but it certainly isn't deserving of this type of criticism. People who look for evil in small faults always find it, whether it's there or not.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Dr. Crane Endorses Church Camp

Opal's problem is far more acute than many adults realize. America needs trained idealists who will lead us onward toward permanent peace and world brotherhood. An investment of $20 to send a teen-ager to a church summer camp is cheap insurance for inspired leadership of your church in the future. So send a flock of teen-agers to camp!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-349: Opal B., aged 16, is a high school junior.

"Dr. Crane, my father objects to my attending our church summer camp for a week," she began. "He thinks it is a waste of good money, although it costs me only $18 for the entire week, and I am willing to use my own savings.

DR. CRANE

"A dozen of my friends in the Young People's Society at our church want to go to camp. We attend classes in the morning and then enjoy sports and games the rest of the day.

"But my father argues I ought to stay at home and help my mother. But she is on my side. So please give me some logical reasons to use on my father."

BRAVO—CHURCH CAMPS

It would be a great boon if EVERY young person could attend a church summer camp EVERY summer from the 7th grade on through senior high school.

★ ★ ★

And here are the specific reasons to justify my statement. First, the act of going away to camp helps wean the child away from mama's apron-strings.

And that is a necessary step in growing up! Each autumn tens of thousands of college freshmen flunk out because they cannot adjust to living away from their parents.

They grow so homesick that they can't study. Then they duck out on Friday night to drive home.

Later, they leave by Friday noon and may not return till Monday afternoon, thus cutting essential classes. So they are soon on probation and never catch up.

★ ★ ★

Thus, it is good insurance for your child's college education to send him to church camp.

SOUL TONICS

Second, the young people usually obtain greater "soul tonics" at the summer church camp than they do at home, for the leaders are specially trained to inspire young folks, and also have a homogeneous audience.

In your home church, you have just as talented clergymen, but the audience is not a unified, homogeneous sort.

No, it includes every age group from crying babies to the snoring great-grandparents.

That forces your local clergyman to offer a generalized appeal that cannot be slanted so definitely to stimulate teenagers.

★ ★ ★

Consequently, if you want to catch the natural idealism of youth and steer it onward to lofty vocational resolves, as in nursing, medicine, missionary pursuits, etc., then by all means send a delegation of young people to your church camp.

And if your own children are too young or too old to attend, contribute to a fund for sending other youngsters of suitable ages.

Our five Crane children attended Battle Ground Church Camp in Indiana every summer from the 7th grade through high school. And Judy went to Lake Geneva as a counsellor even after she was in college.

One week in a summer church camp will help your youngster mature almost as much as a term in college.

★ ★ ★

And the spiritual tonic to the soul of youth is so vital that you parents should sacrifice to help your child spend that week in a camp environment of religious idealism and wholesome fun.

The real spark plugs of your church 20 years hence will usually be the kids who now attend church camps.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 50c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

World Population Grows Too Fast, Experts Feel

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —a group of U. N. experts predict the world may have too many people within the next 100 years unless it starts working on ways to keep them from being born.

A report issued yesterday by the U. N. Bureau of Social Affairs said the world's population may hit six billion by the year 2000 and go as high as 10 to 25 billion in the 21st century.

Experts estimate the earth can support only 15 to 16 billion people.

There are now about 2½ billion people in the world, or about twice as many as there were 100 years ago.

"Never in the history of mankind have the numbers of the human species multiplied as rapidly as in the present century," the report said.

The study commended India and Communist China for their birth-control programs.

The second highest coal mine in the world and the highest in the U. S. is believed to be the Fioresta which is located nearby Crested Butte, Colorado.

Nixon at Odds With Knowland

Divided Opinion Over Adams Causing Rift in California Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Republican Sen. William F. Knowland apparently will have to campaign this fall from opposite sides of some major issues.

Knowland, who is running for governor of California, expects active help from the vice president. A Republican victory in California could have considerable bearing on Nixon's bid for the 1960 GOP presidential nomination.

★ ★ ★

But the vice president and the retiring Republican Senate leader haven't always been able to see eye to eye.

Their latest division of opinion has cropped up in the controversy over presidential assistant Sherman Adams.

Nixon made it clear in a television broadcast he is standing behind President Eisenhower's decision to retain Adams. Knowland has said Adams would best serve the Republican party by retiring.

★ ★ ★

Nixon left the way open, however, to change his mind if the continuing investigation by a House subcommittee turns up "other proof which might indicate some activities which have not come to light to date."

The Democratic Digest, official organ of that party, tried to point up some of the differences between Knowland and Nixon in discussion of what it termed the vice president's dilemma in supporting the senator.

The magazine said Knowland was "running on a flagrantly reactionary, antilabor program." On the other hand, it said, Nixon had been "working for years to gain coloration as an internationalist and economic moderate. . ."

Knowland took the lead in unsuccessful efforts to put more stringent amendments in a labor regulation bill the Senate passed recently. If he had been called on to break a tie, Nixon's friends doubt the vice president would have voted as Knowland advocated.

★ ★ ★

Knowland won a fight to deny Eisenhower authority to give assistance to Iron Curtain countries to promote their independence of Moscow.

Nixon did not go on record on the issue, but there seemed little doubt he favored giving the authority to the President.

Nixon is supporting Eisenhower's request for a five-year extension of the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act. Knowland has announced he will back a move to cut the renewal time to three years.

★ ★ ★

In his television appearance, Nixon labeled as "hogwash" reports that Eisenhower might retire before his term ends. Some Democrats have suggested that might be a way of insuring Nixon's 1960 nomination by the Republicans.

"I have never heard anything so ridiculous," he said.

Brother and Sister Die in Refrigerator

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A brother and sister suffocated in a refrigerator in the furnished house into which their family planned to move.

★ ★ ★

When the youngsters didn't return from play yesterday, their father Barton Manning, a used car salesman, began a search. He entered the unoccupied house near the Manning home and opened the refrigerator.

★ ★ ★

Inside were huddled the bodies of Barton Jr., 6, and Christi, 5.

The Mannings have no other children.

Usurping Owls Invade Home in Hollywood

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — "Dad's, there's something flying around my room and it looks like a bat."

So Jim Manask investigated and found himself staring into two big owl eyes peering out from under the bed of his son Arthur, 13.

★ ★ ★

to his own bedroom. "Helen," he whispered to his wife, "there's an owl under Arthur's bed."

"Well," came the voice from under the covers, "take the broom and shoo him out of here."

In the kitchen near the broom closet, Manask spotted another owl perched on the stove.

"Helen," he called, "the house is lousy with owls."

★ ★ ★

"Look at my living room," cried Mrs. Manask, who was up by now. "Feathers and soot all over the place."

The owls evidently had come down the chimney. Besides scattering soot, they had knocked over two vases of flowers and attacked a stuffed squirrel.

★ ★ ★

"Let's open all the doors and windows and try chasing them out by waving towels," Arthur suggested.

The Manasks began flapping towels and the owls finally took the hint.

Toughen Trapping Law

OSLO — Under a new Government decree, Norwegian trappers will need a permit to catch live polar bears and other arctic animals. Presentation of a certified contract for delivery of the animals to a recognized zoo is a requirement for getting a permit.

The Great Smoky mountains national park partly in North Carolina covers a vast area, estimated to be in excess of one-half million acres.

"Spark plug 'miss' can rob you of 20 to 30 horsepower. I can stop it and save you gasoline."

TCP adds Anti-Miss to anti-knock

YOU wouldn't take delivery on a new car if it was shy some of its power. Yet in as few as 2000 miles of driving, any car can lose 20 to 30 horsepower because of spark plug "miss." You notice it especially on hills and getaways.

This power loss is caused by harmful deposits that build up on your spark plugs and make them "miss." When this happens, you get no power from the fuel charge.

But Super Shell with TCP* corrects all this. Super Shell has higher octane, so that engine knock is no longer a problem. But today anti-knock alone is not enough. That's why there's TCP in Super Shell—to add anti-miss to anti-knock. TCP neutralizes "miss"-causing deposits—actually brings back 20 to 30 lost horsepower.

And Super Shell has a "power pack" of aviation fuel ingredients to provide extra combustion energy—energy that converts automatically to extra mileage at cruising speeds.

Try Super Shell with TCP additive and feel the difference in your car's performance.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research.

Boy's Space Rocket Makes Pentagon Blush

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — If there's anything a seasoned actor cannot bear without flinching, it is the presence of a seasoned child actor, hamming up stage center.

Many ordinary adults, excluding grandmothers, feel the same way about ordinary children when they are making like knowitalls.

There was good reason for invention of the maxim, "Children should be seen, not heard." It was to protect old folks, who ought to be smart, from being made to look like jerks.

★ ★ ★

Imagine, then, how the Defense Department felt when they received Jonathan (jump-grade) Crovitz's drafts of a space rocket to accommodate man.

Jonathan is 12 — possibly the toughest age for a scientist to stomach. In his spare time, away from the exigencies of 7th grade grammar and probably between sandlot games with the neighborhood kids, he tossed off four drawings of a man-enclosed rocket which was "sensible and logical" and had "all the elements of a workable system."

How the Defense Department must have chuckled—before they blushed.

Since little, chubby, askew-haired Crovitz has been acclaimed a more or less equal to an armed forces staff of hundreds, there have been a few sour grapes mutterings that sound like "young pluck." Or "dumb luck."

★ ★ ★

But most Americans were delighted and giddy at the news. It helped strengthen the optimistic contention that Russia did not, after all, discover smart and scientific-minded children.

I'd like to suggest that Jonathan be sent to Moscow—or at least, to Brussels—to show off. Obviously, he has a guileless charm and a great feeling for diplomacy. (His rocket system included the Air Force Atlas, the Navy Vanguard and the Army sergeant; everybody was buttered up.)

His presence might be a bigger propaganda pitch than Van Cliburn's.

And in case, his absence might make a lot of U.S. scientists feel safer in their jobs.

Like most American women, including Mrs. Eisenhower, I am a fool for supermarkets. (Mrs. Ike, on a recent visit to a supermarket, picked up six cans of pinto beans. They weren't absolutely necessary at the White House, but they were a bargain. And that is how it goes.)

But last week, a new "Safeway Market opened up near swanky Park Avenue in New York, and now I'm confused. The chief charm of the SM is its jam-packed feeling that here you get a lot of something for nothing. There is a psychological factor about seeing all that food: "They're so loaded," you think to yourself, "they can afford virtually to give it away."

The new Safeway is smaller and less raucous (good acoustics).

It has three-dimensional displays on the walls, and the atmosphere is described as "a scheme of easy elegance." In the meat department—which has a diffused lighting panel to cast subdued glamor on the carcasses—there are hanging such remnants of the open spaces as pheasant, wild turkey, grouse, quail and venison.

The exterior is marble and glass. The dairy department is the "country-sweet" room. And a lattice-framed sign points to produce in the "garden room." There are charge accounts too. To be entitled, you get a "Gourmet Club card."

But the problem is: Can I afford the mink that seems appropriate for such super marketing?

Of Florida's total area of 35 million acres, approximately 22 million acres or 63 per cent are forest land.

From its 279 Foreign Service posts abroad, the Department of State receives in an average day over 1150 telegrams and 5,000 pieces of mail sent by diplomatic pouch.

Hal Boyle Says:

More People Born in August, September

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't read his mail:

That if the next dairy cow you meet has tired circles under her eyes, this may be the reason: She makes an average of 41,600 jaw movements a day, of which 15,200 are to munch hay and grain, and 26,400 to chew her cud.

★ ★ ★

That if your heart pumped water instead of blood, it could fill a 7,000-ton lake in a year.

That more people have birthdays in August and September than in any other months of the year. This fact puzzles scientists. What is your theory?

That the English are trying to develop a radar instrument which will enable the blind to get along without guide dogs. The gadget sounds a warning buzz when it approaches an obstruction.

★ ★ ★ ★

That if you worry about how much candy to allow your children, here's a royal tip from abroad: Prince Charles, heir to the British throne, is rationed to half a pound of sweets a week.

That of America's 25 million anglers, 62 per cent are men, 23 per cent women, and 15 per cent minors.

That only four per cent of the nation's hunting licenses are issued to women. This proves what everyone already knows: A girl needs no license for what she hunts, and her prey knows no protected season.

That a pale complexion is no proof of anemia, and a florid complexion is no sure sign of high blood pressure.

That phony check writing is on the increase. Check swindles cost the country half a billion dollars a year now.

That if you've been wondering how tall Napoleon was, the answer is 5 feet 4.

That everybody remembers the Alamo, but few know it is a Spanish word for cottonwood.

That despite the outcry against Mickey Spillane's gruesome mysteries, 7 of them are among America's top 10 all-time fiction best sellers. Crime does pay—in print.

That Mitchell Mitsuhide Shirota of Hawaii is the only professional American jockey with a college degree.

That one of the most unheroic deaths in military history came to Henry Knox, one of George Washington's favorite generals in the Revolution and later first U.S. secretary of war. He died of a stomach inflammation caused by swallowing a chicken bone.

That it was Kin Hubbard who observed: "It's no disgrace to be poor, but it might as well be."

That most actors in the legitimate theater here have to live on hope. Their average professional income is only about $800 a year.

★ ★ ★

That in ancient Rome it was customary to grant freedom to a woman slave after she had borne three children. The only catch: She didn't get to keep the kids.

That it would want a hippopotamus to visit him twice a year. These animals have teeth that weigh up to seven pounds and reach a length of 30 inches.

That a survey showed wives in my neighborhood the figure is closer to 100 per cent.

That in an average day some 10,000 written communications from domestice sources. About half are letters from the public; the rest are from other agencies, the Congress, and foreign embassies in Washington.

Getting practice in putting up a tent are (from left, standing) Karen Fletcher, 3365 Mann Rd., Waterford Township, and Margaret White, 172 W. The girls, who will compete in scouting skills, will be selected for the roundup by a committee appointed by Mrs. Fred Bisballe, president of the Northern Oakland County Council.

Sandra Parrish Weds in Birmingham

TROY — The First Presbyterian Church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon of the marriage of Sandra Elsie Parrish to Walter R. Ebling. Performing the double-ring ceremony was Dr. W. Glen Harris.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen K. Parrish of 3560 Big Beaver Rd., Troy. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Walter H. Ebling of Madison, Wis.

MRS. WALTER R. EBLING

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of ivory silk taffeta with Alencon lace appliqued on the scoop neckline, bodice and skirt. The full skirt swept into a circular chapel train. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of taffeta and lace, and she carried a semi-cascade of white roses, stephanotis and chrysanthemums.

Miss Karen Parrish was maid of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Sonja Parrish, another sister; Mrs. M. John Guhl of Madison, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Kay Pomeroy and Miss Jane McDaniel, both of Birmingham; Miss Frances Harker of Peoria, Ill., and Miss Sandra Ade of Northfield, Ill. Flower girl was the bride's cousin, Deborah Bateman of Hinsdale, Ill.

The reception was held in the church social hall and a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents.

July 14 in Farmington

To Vote on School Tax Hike

FARMINGTON — Voters in the Farmington School District will be asked in a special election July 14 to approve a 5 mill tax increase for additional operating funds.

The money would be used for salaries of teachers, custodians, clerical staff personnel, bus drivers and to pay for teaching supplies, maintenance, light fuel and housekeeping, the Board of Education announced.

Despite increased costs of operation since 1955, the board stated, its allocated millage has decreased the past three years from 10.63 to 3.52 mills. The proposed increase would be partially offset by a decrease of 3.5 mills in debt service levy.

This would mean an increased cost of $1.50 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation for home owners, the board said.

★ ★ ★

Persons not registered may do so until 5 p.m. July 7 at the offices of the city or township clerks. Absentee ballots will be available at the Board of Education office, 33000 Thomas St. until 2 p.m. July 12.

Polls for precinct 1 will be a Farmington Junior High School and for precinct 2, O. E. Duncket Junior High.

RCA Whirlpool WASHER-DRYER COMBINATION!

OFFERS EXCITING NEW WASHING and DRYING IN ONE SPACE-SAVING MACHINE

WASH AND DRY ALL IN ONE CONTINUOUS OPERATION

Washday is gone. There are no more tiring laundry chores. With the RCA WHIRLPOOL washer-dryer, it's all automatic. And, it's so convenient because the entire wash-dry cycle is one continuous operation. You don't have to unload clothes from the washer and put them in the dryer. Instead, it's a full-size washer and a full-size dryer, both in one automatic appliance occupying a space only 33 inches wide. This is just about half the space of a separate washer and separate dryer.

Saves Gallons of Water

USES UP TO 60% LESS WATER THAN OTHER WASHER-DRYERS

No other washer-dryer is as thoughtful of your water bills as the RCA WHIRLPOOL combination. In this revolutionary new washer-dryer, total water used in the complete cycle is only 12 gallons plus the water absorbed in the clothes load. Thus, partial loads automatically need less water than big loads.

USE-TESTED by McCall's

FEATURING Filter Stream WASHING AND RINSING ACTION

New "Filter Stream" Washing gently circulates the clothes in a revolving cylinder and passes them through a filtered stream of sudsy water. The combined forces of moving clothes and water, flex the soaked clothes and sudsy water penetrates through every fiber to loosen, remove and flush soil away.

New "Filter Stream" Rinsing circulates the clothes through a powerful, filtered stream of clear water. At the end of one minute, rinse water is automatically pumped out and a spin-dry cycle follows. This rinsing action is repeated for a second and third time. A 5-minute spin-dry cycle follows.

TEMPERED-HEAT DRYING

Forced fresh air is channeled across the heater . . . then, before it enters the drying cylinder, the heated air is tempered. Once in the cylinder, the tempered air is directed through tumbling clothes in a controlled air circulation pattern for highest drying efficiency.

BUILT-IN WATER HEATER

Set the temperature dial and the built-in water heater automatically heats the water to the proper hot temperature before it allows the washing time cycle to begin.

LINT FILTER BUILT INTO WATER SYSTEM

Both the washing and rinsing cycles are constantly re-circulated through the lint filter to give extra assurance that you'll have the cleanest, brightest clothes ever!

COME IN . . . SEE IT DEMONSTRATED

You'll be amazed!

McCall's Says— We test a great variety of new appliances and products. We use them to wash and dry clothes, cook meals, clean rooms — just the way you do in your own home. That's why when we have tested a product and like it, we believe you'll like it too.

FEATURES WE ESPECIALLY LIKE:

WASH AND DRY IN ONE UNIT — entire job is done without coming back to transfer the clothes.

GIANT CAPACITY — easily handles even a ten-pound load.

SAVES ON WATER — new principle uses less water.

BUILT-IN-HEATER — keeps wash water really hot.

LINT FILTER — water is filtered as it circulates.

EXCELLENT WASHING AND RINSING — clothes really get clean.

CHOICE OF DRYING TEMPERATURES — fine for any fabric.

Oswalt-Axford Rite Performed

ROCHESTER — In a garden ceremony Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents, 4090 N. Rochester Rd., Helen E. Axford became the bride of Gordon F. Oswalt of Vicksburg. Performing the rite before a small altar banked with flowers was the Rev. E. John Yuells, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Rochester.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Axford. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Oswalt of Vicksburg.

For her wedding, the bride chose a gown of Italian silk with a bodice of Chantilly lace and tiny seed pearl trim.

Her finger-tip veil of imported Belgium Mantilla was attached to a skull cap of imported Italian silk, accentuated by Chantilly lace and seed pearls, and she carried a white basket of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry W. Axford Jr. of Rochester. Attendants were Miss Sherry Petty of Cumberland, Md., Mrs. Jerry Dahlmann of Mt. Pleasant and Miss Ellen Purdy of Rochester. Flower girl was Mary Jane Niles of Rochester.

MRS. GORDON F. OSWALT

William Oswalt of Vicksburg, the bridegroom's cousin, was best man. Ushers were John Oswalt, the bridegroom's brother; Henry Axford Jr. of Rochester, brother of the bride, and Roger Smith of Fowlerville.

The reception took place in the garden following the ceremony.

Upon returning from their honeymoon trip to northern Michigan, the couple will make their home near Vicksburg.

★ ★ ★

The bridegroom was graduated last fall from Michigan State University where he was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho. The bride, who will graduate from MSU in the fall, is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Many Strong Spots Throughout Country Giving Lie to the Recession

Editor's Note: There are signs that the recession has slowed up, perhaps bottomed out. There are still plenty of strong spots — and evidence that people are taking the recession in stride. In the following article, The Associated Press gives results of a nationwide survey showing the pulse of the nation's economy at midyear.

By WALTER R. BREEDE JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

W. J. Dannenberg, director of the Dodge City office of the Kansas State Employment Service, has a problem: too many jobs to fill.

Dannenberg's dilemma is by no means typical of the nationwide employment situation. In many of the great industrial centers, unemployment totals are at or near their post-World War II highs.

But the Dodge City labor shortage does point up the fact that the U. S. economy, midway through recession 1958, has pockets of prosperity that contribute mightily toward keeping business on an even keel.

These pockets of prosperity probably explain why America is taking the recession in stride.

To find out the mood of the nation at midyear, Associated Press reporters talked to hundreds of people — salesmen, stenographers, store executives, housewives, bankers, bartenders, economists and bus drivers—in a survey that ranged from coast to coast.

★ ★ ★

The reporters found some anxiety. They heard plenty of complaints. They encountered a good deal of dissatisfaction with the way the general trend of business is going. But—and this is what many businessmen consider significant—evidence of panic was just about nil.

Roy K. Erickson of J. L. Hudson & Co., Detroit's biggest department store, echoed the views of many U. S. businessmen when he said:

"We are not sliding off any further. Things are holding their own."

Here, broadly, is what the survey found:

Bankers and economists tend to share Erickson's view that the business downturn is running out of gas. Many say it's touching bottom. Few see signs of a real upturn now.

Many consumers are holding back. They have been scared by recession talk. Others say they're broke—that they spend every penny they get on food, housing, medical care and other basics of daily living.

Auto dealers are among the hardest hit of all major business groups.

Farmers are sitting pretty. Some have jobs for unemployed city folk.

★ ★ ★

Ask Dean R. Williams, controller of the big Zions Cooperative Department Store in Salt Lake City, how the economy is going and he'll tell you: "I rather feel the recession has bottomed out."

In Chicago, Earl Kribben, vice president of Marshall Field & Co., says: "Business has declined somewhat but State Street (hub of Chicago's retail and commercial district) is not at all discouraged."

When will the economy pick up again? Opinions vary.

Ben Schiffman, financial editor of the Kansas City Star, asserts: "Businessmen are feeling better. Retailers think the third quarter will be better than the first and second and the fourth will be best of all."

★ ★ ★

Miner Baker, economist for the First National Bank of Seattle, declares: "Businessmen expect the rest of the year to be bad. But they're not at all panicked by it."

Some of these views tie in closely with the latest government statistics on the nation's economic trend.

★ ★ ★

Mid-1958 finds gross national product, the government's measure of total business activity, ticking along at an annual pace of about 421 billion dollars. In the January - February - March quarter the rate was 422 billions a year. The average for all of 1957 was 434½ billions.

Unemployment, just below five million in May, is probably higher now because there are more job-hunting students in the labor market.

The Federal Reserve Board's index of industrial production, which measures output of the nation's factories and mines, stands at about 127 per cent of the 1947-49 average. Last month it stopped going downhill for the first time since August 1957.

Personal income of Americans moved up last month to a yearly rate of 344 1-3 billion dollars—and it was still climbign in June. Pay increases have gone out, or will soon be on the way, to hundreds of thousands of government workers.

Even so, many consumers are hanging on to their cash.

Savings deposits are on the increase almost everywhere you look. Why?

★ ★ ★

"The principal reason," says President Ralph N. Larson of the Morris Plan Co. of California, "seems to be uncertainty over the future."

Mrs. Jean Tentz, who works as a private secretary in Chicago, agrees. "I think," she says, "that the average person is confused and uncertain."

Consumer thrift is a sore point with businessmen all over the country. A Cheyenne, Wyo., barber bemoans the fact that penny-pinching customers are letting their hair grow longer. And a restaurant proprietor in St. Cloud, Minn., complains: "We didn't even have a good Mother's Day."

What's wrong with the auto business?

★ ★ ★

Go almost anywhere and you'll find new car sales down from last year. Down sharply in recession-ridden industrial centers like Cleveland, Pittsburgh and Detroit. Down moderately—but still down—in lush farm states like Iowa where other lines of business are booming.

Ed Hayward, executive manager of the Greater St. Louis Automotive Assn., says: "We've given up on 1958 being a year of profit. Right no wthe automobiel business is dead."

★ ★ ★

Explanations are many and varied. Carl Flora of Milwaukee's First Wisconsin National Bank says people are making the old car do and putting their extra spending dollars into trailers, boats and outboards.

Oran Hankins, Sacramento roofer, says the new cars "cost too damn much."

And a wealthy Denver retail executive — impressed by reports of sagging auto sales — gives this reason for not buying: "People would say I was crazy if I bought a new car now."

★ ★ ★

In Utah, Secretary of Agriculture Benson's home state, farmers refer to the recession as "that thing back East."

★ ★ ★

That's the attitude of farmers, too, in California, Texas, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Arkansas, Kansas, Iowa and Wisconsin.

Arkansas farmers are importing workers from Mexico.

Prospects for the wheat crop are generally excellent; cattle prices the highest in years.

Businessmen in Des Moines, Iowa, are reaping a bumper harvest of farmers' dollars. All major business indicators are up from a year ago, despite lagging sales of appliances and cars.

★ ★ ★

One reason for the farm boom is suggested by Charles Markert of Syracuse, N.Y., an office worker far as it will go.

"You can do without cars," he who is stretching his paycheck as says, "but eating is a habit."

Nab Baseball Fan for Not Wearing Boxing Gloves

CHICAGO (AP)—Edward Murphy, 71, went to the baseball game at Comiskey Park yesterday and because he wasn't wearing boxing gloves detectives took him to jail.

★ ★ ★

Hill said Murphy had been arrested in the White Sox ball park several times for picking pockets and is one of the nation's oldest and most skillful pickpockets.

The last time Murphy was arrested the detectives said they made a deal with him. He couldgo to the park — if he would wear boxing gloves.

★ ★ ★

"We told you," the detectives said reprovingly when they picked up Murphy.

"Yes, I know," said Murphy. "But when I wear boxing gloves I can't eat popcorn. I like to eat popcorn at baseball games."

He is held without charge.

Prized Whale Almost Makes It on Flight

NEW YORK (AP) — The great heart of Bertha, the only white whale in captivity, pumped every eight seconds, as a whale's heart should, as she neared Idlewild Airport yesterday.

★ ★ ★

It had been an exhausting 11-hour trip from Seattle for Bertha.

She started east with a healthy pearl gray complexion. On the way she was swathed in canvas and blankets, which were soaked with water every hour.

Dr. Carleton Ray, assistant director of the aquarium at Coney Island who made the trip with Bertha, said that although her skin gradually hardened and turned dark brown, she seemed in good health until 15 minutes out of Idlewild.

★ ★ ★

At that point, the 450-pound mammal died. An autopsy by aquarium staff physicians indicated a pulmonary injury had caused death.

Methodists to Compile

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N.C. (AP) —World Methodists soon will begin compiling an encyclopedia of Methodism. The project is expected to take several years. Dr. Elmer T. Clark of Lake Junaluska, executive secretary of the Assn. of Methodist Historical Societies, has announced he will direct the project in its early stages.

Holiday May Set Tragic Mark

410 Weekend Fatalities?

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today estimated 410 Americans may be killed in traffic accidents during the Fourth of July weekend.

★ ★ ★

If the toll goes that high, it will set a new record for a three-day observance of Independence Day. The high mark is 407, set in 1955.

The council also said there could be 12,000 disabling injuries during the 78-hour period—from 6 p.m. (local time) Thursday, July 3, to midnight Sunday, July 6.

It estimated 45 million cars will run up a total of 12 billion miles during the holiday period.

While predicting a heavy toll, the council stated:

"But it doesn't have to be that way. A sure-fire antidote for extra holiday danger is extra holiday care—and it's available without cost to every driver."

The council reported law enforcement agencies throughout the country will step up their activities during the holiday weekend.

Repeal of Prohibition Looms in Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Democratic and Republican nominations for Congress and the governor's office are at stake tomorrow in Oklahoma's general primary, and for the first time in 51 years repeal of prohibition is a solid campaign issue.

A runoff election July 22 between the two top vote getters is almost assured in the races for gubernatorial nominations.

For years, Oklahoma politicans have ignored repeal as an issue, just as many of the state's citizens have ignored prohibition as a law. But this year several candidates in both parties have embraced the issue with varying degrees of enthusiasm.

★ ★ ★

An overwhelming majority of the state's voters are registered Democrats. Republicans have never elected a governor but have come close in three of the last four general elections.

Steak-Fancying Thief Returns the Other Meat

OMAHA (AP) — An Omaha supermarket is missing a steak today, but that's nothing to what almost got away.

Butcher Roy Fast from behind a one-way glass saw a man pick up a steak and shove it under the bib of his overalls.

★ ★ ★

Fast alerted storemanager Al J. Butler. He suggested to the clandestine shopper that he fork over the meat.

The man reached inside his overalls and produced a three-pound ham.

★ ★ ★

Surprised, but still looking for the steak, the manager suggested a bib emptying. Out came another three-pound ham, a pound of link sausages, two pounds of bacon, two pounds of ground beef.

Then, before Butler could summon police, the overalls-wearer brushed by and disappeared outside, presumably in a hurry to get home to a steak supper.

'Will See Ya'—He Hopes

REVERE, Mass. (AP)—Anthony E. Timpani said "I'm sure I'll be seeing 'Will See Ya' again." "Will See Ya," a 5-year-old gelding race horse owned by Timpani, disappeared from his stable at Suffolk Downs race track. A citizen reported he saw a man leading the thoroughbred down a Revere street about 3 a.m.

Llama's Not Grateful

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Anybody can get bitten by a dog. Eight-year-old Erin Moloney has been bitten by a llama, a kind of South American camel without the hump. At the Columbus Zoo with her parents, she tried to feed the llama some grass through the bars of its cage. It bit the hand that fed it.

They'll Kiss and Make Up—Abby

Fought at Their Golden Wedding

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: My brothers and sisters and I all got together and gave a big golden wedding party for our parents. The old folks got into a fight and my mother refused to pose in the same picture with my father. The photographer charged us $20 to come out here with all his equipment. He took some shots of some of the other guests but he never got one of the golden wedding couple. Do you think we have to pay him his full price? (P.S. Will you give Mom and Pop a little advice on how to get along together?)" WAITING TO HEAR

ABBY

DEAR WAITING: The photographer's time is money and there's no reason why he shouldn't be paid his full fee. When the old folks kiss and make up (and they will!) take them to the studio for a picture. (P. S. Any couple who has stayed married for 50 years doesn't need any advice from me.)

"DEAR ABBY: I read the letter where the woman said she wanted to get twin beds because her husband was big and fat and she couldn't get a night's sleep with him in the bed. I had the same problem. I bought twin beds and now I wish I had my regular double bed back because my husband gets lonesome and crawls in bed with me anyway. It was a lot more comfortable for two people in a full-sized bed than in one twin." S. R. T.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: Please print this for the woman who signed herself "TIRED." Madame: My husband weighs 100 pounds more than your husband. We suffered in a double bed for six years. I spent most of my nights on the sofa or playing leap-frog over all 350 pounds of him. Forget twin beds! Get yourself a king-sized bed if you have to beg, borrow or steal the money. You won't know what a good night's sleep is until you do." NOT TIRED

"DEAR ABBY: In your column you say that the adopted child was "wanted twice—first by its real mother, and again by its adopted mother." This in my estimation is ridiculous. The very fact that a mother would give away her own child proves she doesn't want it. In most cases, it is only in the way and she prefers going on living a life of sin.

"I would sooner marry a woman who is raising a child born out of wedlock than one who stooped so low as to give her own flesh and blood to strangers. Every child deserves his own blood parents. If this isn't possible, at least one of them." F. D. S.

DEAR F.D.S.: In my opinion every child is entitled to a home in which there are two parents who are happily married, love each other and want a child. Some "blood parents" are no more than a biological accident.

★ ★ ★

"DEAR ABBY: I am a very lonesome woman with a spare room in my house. Do you think it would be all right to rent it out to a man or do you think there would be gossip? There would be nothing wrong, but I don't want to take any chances." LONESOME

DEAR LONESOME: If the object is "company"—rent it to a woman.

"DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. It's about an illegitimate son of my husband's. I don't hold it against him because it all happened before I knew him, but the boy is 14 years old and his mother had the crust to name him after his real father, who is my husband. If we have a son, I would like to name him after my husband and want to know if you think I should demand that this woman change her son's name?" BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED: If you demanded that this woman change her 14-year-old son's name, you would be stirring up more trouble than you bargained for. Regard it as an unfortunate coincidence and forget it.

★ ★ ★

Nila Lea Tompkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Tompkins of Starr avenue, and James F. Rupert, son of Mrs. Ruth Nichols and Floyd M. Rupert, both of Saginaw, were married Saturday.

MRS. JAMES F. RUPERT

Nila Lea Tompkins Wed in First Christian Church

Nila Lea Tompkins wore a princess gown of French lace over silk for her marriage to James F. Rupert Saturday evening at First Christian Church. The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Elwood Dunn, was witnessed by 250 guests. The Rev. D. D. McColl officiated at the communion service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Tompkins of Starr avenue, and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Ruth Nichols and Floyd M. Rupert, both of Saginaw.

Iridescent pearl medallions accented the scoop neckline of the bridal gown. The chapel train was formed of alternating panels of nylon tulle and lace. A crown of iridescent seed pearls secured the bride's fingertip illusion veil, and she carried a white orchid and a stephanotis spray on her Bible. Her jewelry, a family heirloom, was a chipped diamond lavaliere.

Gretta Phipps, gowned in turquoise, attended as maid of honor, and Patricia Kelley, dressed in pink, was bridesmaid. Both attendants' gowns were of crystal taffeta with crushed cummerbunds of a deeper shade extending to form back panels on the bell skirts. Their shaped clip-hats were embellished with lilies of the valley. Each carried a miniature flower basket with shattered white daisies and pink roses.

Flower girls were twins Judy and Joanne Appleton, who wore white dresses with sashes of turquoise and pink and carried baskets of pink and white petals.

Best man was James Howell of Saginaw. Ushers were Ray Sundeck, also from Saginaw, Douglas McColl and Carl Borders.

COLOR PLAN

Color, as well as correct hair styling, is now being used to lend prettier proportioning to the face. New techniques can make a too round face look longer by lightening the hair from the forehead line to the crown but leaving the hair at the sides the natural, darker shade. Reverse the plan and make the face seem shorter. Color switching the tresses is doing wonders. Why not try it and see!

Know Why You Overeat--Then Control It

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

I don't know why people think that it would be so wonderful to "eat their cake and have it, too," or why they feel that this is impossible. We women eat our cake and then have it on our tummies, hips and waists!

We all know that we can cut our calorie count and lose pounds. However, there has been much research concerning the factors which control appetite and why some people eat so much.

It has been conceded that a small area of the brain controls our urge to eat. If one part of the brain of a mouse is injured, the animal eats until it becomes tremendously fat. If another part is injured, it may shun food altogether.

These experiments and the results are fascinating but they do not explain how the appetite center works. Several theories have been advanced.

One is that we eat for energy and when we have enough we stop. Another is correlated with the blood sugar. When the blood sugar is low we are hungry, when we increase it with food we lose our appetite. That is why the reducer should eat slowly.

In this way the blood sugar is raised earlier in the meal and the temptation to overeat is not so great. Another idea is that we eat to keep warm and feel satisfied when the body temperature is raised.

APPETITE CENTER

It seems that we have confused our appetite center by the messages we have sent it! It is a proven fact that many folks overeat when they are unhappy, emotionally upset or under some kind of strain or tension.

At the Endocrine Clinic in Boston City Hospital a study showed that more than half the obese patients were high strung and nervous. Their histories demonstrated the fact that when they were lonely, discouraged, bored or worried, they turned to food for comfort. They actually are compulsive eaters.

Another factor in overweight is social eating. The number of calories we consume in food and drink at luncheons, dinner parties, cocktail parties, teas and practically every social gathering, is staggering. So, between social life and times of tensions our appetite control has gotten out of hand.

In the past many reputable physicians have prescribed drugs for their overweight patients, not because the drugs would reduce them but because they made it easier since they inhibited the appetite. However, these had their drawbacks because they were too stimulating and sometimes led to irritability, nervousness and insomnia.

In a recent issue of the Journal of The American Medical Association a new appetite-killing drug was reported which seems to have none of these defects. I do not know how widely it will be accepted by the medical profession. Any drug must be taken under a doctor's supervision.

All most women need in order to reduce is incentive and a knowledge of self. Once you realize and admit to yourself that you are overeating because of unhappiness of frustration, you can control it.

The most powerful incentive is the wish to be attractive for someone, or personal vanity. However there is newer incentive. There can no longer be any doubt that we endanger our health and perhaps even our life with too many pounds.

The question of cholesterol is yet unsolved. Responsible nutritionists feel that much more research must be done before the average man and woman should begin cutting down drastically on fats in the diet.

As most of you know there has been evidence of a link between cholesterol blood levels and arteriosclerosis, the most serious form of hardening of the arteries. It is estimated that nine out of 10 coronary thrombosis, or heart attacks, are caused by this condition. Since circulatory ailments account for the greatest number of fatalities each year, this problem is of importance to all of us.

The fat intake in this country is extremely high anyway. Therefore many physicians feel that we would be wise to adopt a middle-of-the-road policy. In other words, perhaps we should cut down on our fat intake in a sensible way by eating lean meat, drinking skim milk or fat free powdered milk and cutting down on fried foods and butter.

There is some evidence that vegetable oils are not so damaging as animal fats and that some of them may even lessen the amount of cholesterol in the blood, although this is not conclusive. The whole question is extremely complicated. Solid fats may be worse for us and our bodies are capable of manufacturing cholesterol out of foods other than fats.

However, the fact remains that those who have extreme hardening of the arteries or have had a heart attack are kept on a low fat diet and that many more people are using vegetable oils in cooking than did before.

★ ★ ★

Considering the number of folks who are overweight from middle age on, most of us might profit by some reduction in our daily fat intake. If we only change over from whole milk to skim milk, cut the fat off our meat, avoid fried foods and cut down some on butter, we will have made quite a difference in our daily fat intake.

Second Cornice Falls in Downtown Detroit

DETROIT (UP) — For a second time within five days a heavy piece of cornice has fallen from a downtown Woodward avenue building.

A slab of decorative tile and stucco fell yesterday from a third floor. No one was injured. No pedestrians were passing at the time.

The scene was just about two blocks from the place where a seventh-floor cornice collapsed and killed a woman window shopper last week.

City building inspectors said owners of the second building had been given a ticket because of bad condition of masonry on the building face. Improvement work had been scheduled to start today.

Chief Inspector Charles E. Allen said the building is one of more than 100 from which cornices have been ordered removed.

Can you afford their services?

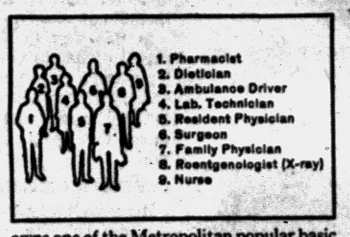

When you or your wife, or one of your youngsters is ill, you want the best care possible regardless of expense.

These days, sickness or accident might readily require the services of one or even all of the people shown above . . . and the cost of their services can add up.

The wise way to protect against the financial hardships of sickness and accident is through properly selected insurance policies designed to meet today's needs.

That is why Metropolitan is introducing two new policies which aim to help meet the heavy costs of major illnesses or accidents and apply to many items of expense not ordinarily covered.

The first of these new policies is intended for the individual or family who already owns one of the Metropolitan popular basic coverages for hospital and surgical expense.

It provides a larger maximum amount payable in case of major illness or accident, where costs may sometimes run into thousands of dollars.

It also provides the additional advantage of payments toward medical expenses incurred at home, including nurses' and doctors' visits.

The second new policy is designed for the individual or family not yet covered by one of the Metropolitan popular basic medical expense plans.

Like the first new policy, it is designed to help you obtain for your family the necessary medical care in those circumstances which are apt to impose a serious financial burden. It, too, provides payment towards "at home" medical expenses. The benefits provided by both these new Metropolitan plans are at a cost within the average budget.

There is an insurance expert near you—your Metropolitan Representative. Call him today. He will be glad to tell you in detail all the features of these two policies.

Low Flying Helps Earn Law Degree

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Swooping down out of the skies over Waterford Township to within three feet of the ground in his tiny Piper Cub airplane is no thrill for 24-year-old Paul Valentino of Pontiac. That's his business.

He has an aerial spraying outfit installed in his high-winged monoplane, and it is this equipment that is helping him to obtain a law degree at the University of Detroit, as well as supporting his wife and two children.

★ ★ ★

After concentrated study of contour maps, the day before, Valentino and his two ground crew members arise before dawn load one hundred gallons of specially-mixed poisonous insect chemicals together, then the young man takes off into the wild blue yonder on a mission of warfare all his own.

He is out to kill mosquitoes, corn borers, weevils, bugs, flies, cutworms, moths, beetles, potato bugs and other insects.

Valentino, a former United States Air Force jet pilot, can cover more than one hundred acres with a fine deadly insect spray in less than twenty minutes, and unconditionally guarantees the job. An effective job produces 97 drops to every square inch.

Golf courses, subdivision developments, small settlements as well as farm lands are part of his early morning work. Each job is given personal surveys both before and after the spraying operation.

When Valentino first enrolled at U. of D. he had an idea he would like to be an engineer, but after two years of study, decided to become a lawyer instead.

Some 47 credits were tossed aside and after an early release from the Air Force, he began the seven long years of studying law. Next September he will begin his fourth law course.

★ ★ ★

Realizing his need for a seasonal job, Valentino was attracted to the aerial spraying business. With more than 2,300 flying hours to his credit, he took a job in Northern Michigan to learn the intricate crop-spraying work.

Chemistry entered into the picture when Valentino found that commercially-mixed insect spray usually disappears with the first hard rain, so he began experimenting during the winter months.

Finally after he had many tests run at an organic laboratory, he came up with a secret formula which was the answer to the desired durability for spraying. This original formula is now in the process of being patented.

Two long spray-booms with 20 spiggots are suspended under each wing of the 125 h.p. plane.

A special control recirculates the fluid when the pilot turns it off, and in case of engine failure, Valentino can release the one-half ton load from two big emergency openings in a matter of seconds.

The pilot explained the importance of thorough uniform coverage, of a contracted area. He said, "If we miss one small 10-foot swath—that's where all the mosquitoes head for, and people entering that space really suffer."

The crew has a system which resembles a gigantic paint brush. Valentino flies in a complete right angle square, ending in the center of the designated area, and he expects to cover approximately 6,000 acres this season, for $3.75 an acre.

If and when this wonder-killed is perfected, Valentino won't have to worry about law school, chemistry, spraying operations or anything else, according to state conservation officials.

Pontiac Press Photos

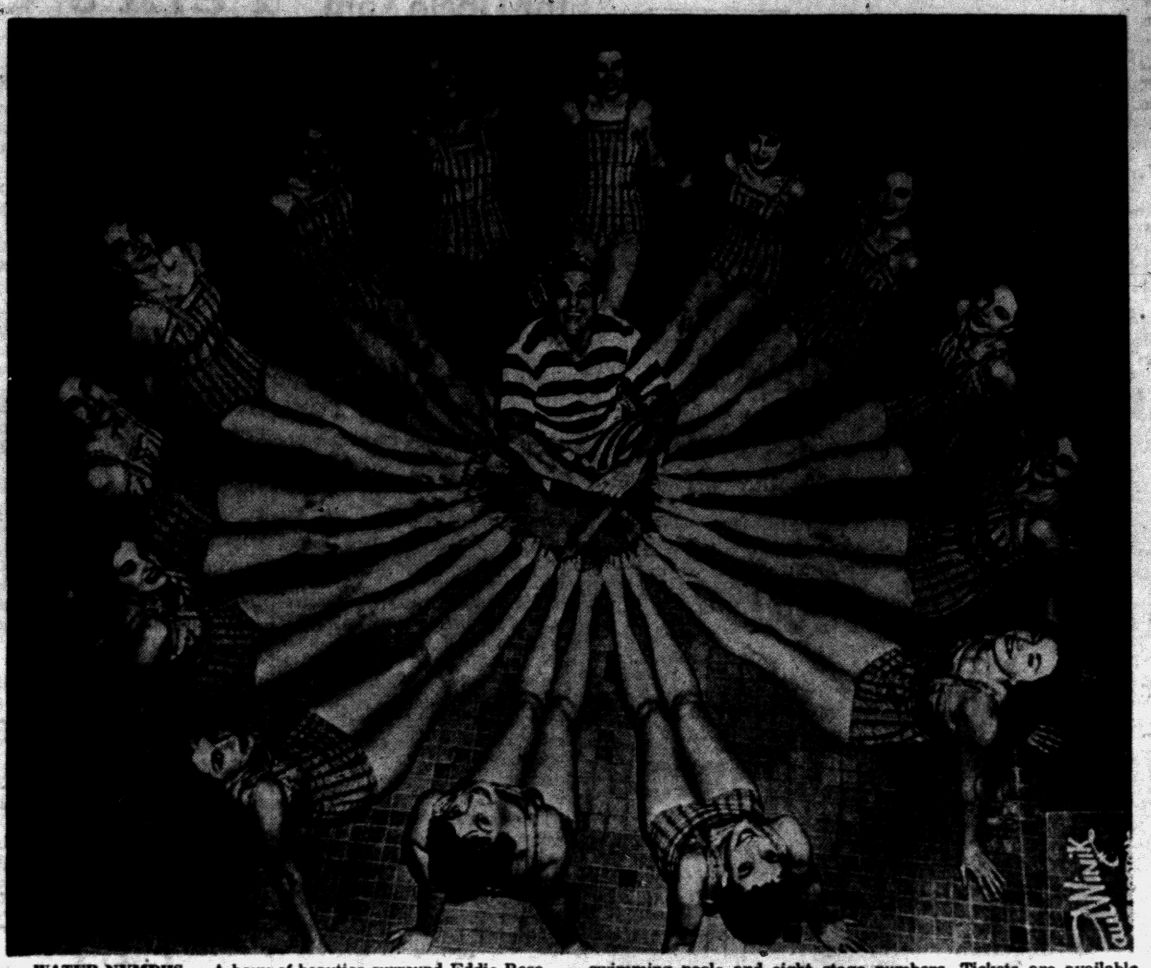

CROP DUSTER — Although he has abandoned jets in favor of a Piper Cub, Paul Valentino is still flying combat missions. Only now his enemies are insects that attack crops. The 24-year-old pilot is putting himself throough law school from the profits of his crop-dusting business.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED — The light plane piloted by Valentino, returns to its Waterford Township airport after a spray attack on voracious insects that destroy farmers' crops. The plane carries 100 gallons of special chemicals which when properly sprayed protects against a variety of insects. Valentino uses his own formula which, he says, gives the insecticide durability despite rain.

FINAL CHECK — Giving his spraying equipment a last examination, Valentino, a former Air Force pilot turned crop sprayer, prepares for another job. Uniform coverage by the spray is a "must" in his work, Valentino says.

WATER NYMPHS — A bevy of beauties surround Eddie Rose, diving comedian who will star in the Water Follies of 1958 which will appear in five performances at Wisner Stadium, July 11 through 13. Recently featured at the Brussels World's Fair, the show will feature 12 water scenes using huge portable diving and swimming pools and eight stage numbers. Tickets are available at Osmun's downtown and Tel-Huron stores, J. C. Penney Store, Miracle Mile, and at Lion Store, downtown. The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Water Follies.

Weed Cutters Ready to Act

Lot Owners Have Until Tomorrow to Do Job or City Does It at Cost

Lot owners in Pontiac have until tomorrow to cut weeds on their property or weed cutting crews from the Parks and Recreation Dept. will do the job for them — at cost.

Seymour M. Gold today announced July 1 as the deadline for lots to be cut.

A pre-deadline check, Gold said, shows the "large property owners to be cooperating quite well this year."

Gold and the city department are entering into the third summer of enforcing the city's 1955 weed cutting ordinance, which this year has become the basis for a law suit testing its constitutionality.

About 75 per cent of property owners in the city last year cut their own lots. The remainder were charged by the city for the work. There were 3,414 lots checked last year.

"May I remind property owners," Gold said, "that it is far cheaper to cut their weeds themselves than to violate the ordinance and have the city do it."

The city, which is not in the weed cutting business, Gold added, will charge $10 an hour for cutting lots this year. Last year the charge was based on lot frontage.

Gold defined a weed "as any non-woody plant growing where it is not wanted."

★ ★ ★

"We estimate that most lots will have to be cut at least twice during the growing season to keep growth below the 12-inch maximum," he said.

Citizens League to Meet County Hopefuls

65 Candidates' Interviews Set

The Oakland Citizens League has announced three meeting dates at which the 65 candidates for Oakland County offices this year will be interviewed as part of the League's election year program.

Interviews will be conducted by the League's Candidates Committee July 10 at the Urban League of Pontiac 29 Orchard Lake Ave., July 14 at the Ferndale Community House, and July 15 at the Birmingham Community House.

★ ★ ★

The League, by these interviews and questionnaires, selects what it believes is the best slate of candidates based on the nominee's education, experience, reputation, character, personality, adaptability and ability to think.

'ELECT QUALIFIED PERSON'

"We don't feel our system is perfect," said Larry Shaffner, co-chairman of the committee, "but if we can help the voters elect the most qualified person running on his party's ticket in the primary, we have accomplished our goal."

Each candidate is asked to fill out a questionnaire, supply three references, be interviewed at home and at the scheduled committee meetings.

Shaffner said, "Each candidate, regardless of party, is given ample opportunity to present his qualifications and platform."

United Fund Planning Its Budget Now for '59

Who decides how much money the Pontiac Area United Fund will attempt to raise this fall?

How does the UF decide the amount to be appropriated to its 55 member agencies?

The answers to these questions can be found in the Fund's budgeting process, which Robert S. Nelson, chairman of the Budget Steering Committee has described as "the cornerstone of federated fund raising."

The annual budget hearings for the Fund's 55 supported agencies are now in their most active stage. The process began in the early spring when the various community service agencies included in the UF drive were asked to submit written budgetary requests for their 1959 operating year.

During the past three weeks eight UF-Community Chest panels have been holding hearings, analyzing agency requests and recommending allocations to the eight-man Budget Steering Committee which operates on a year-round basis.

DIRECT PANELS

The Steering Committee is chairmaned by Nelson, vice president of Universal Oil Seal Company. Each of its members organize and direct one of the eight panels composed of 86 community leaders.

The panels are representative of the total community, with appointees from the AFL-CIO, Oakland County Bar Assn., Oakland County Medical Asn., Pontiac PTAs, Waterford PTAs and the Federation of Women's Clubs.

On a recent night the YMCA presented its budget request to a 12-member panel chaired by Andrew J. Wilson, president of GMC Local No. 594.

Before the YW representatives entered the meeting, the panel examined the budget requests in a line-by-line analysis. This preliminary review of the budget lasted an hour and ten minutes.

At this point the agency representatives were called in to present their case and answer any questions raised by panel members. Mrs. Reba Netzler, executive director of the YW, headed a delegation of seven agency representatives.

The YW has requested a 1959 budget allocation of $22,311.73 from the UF. This is an increase of $304.60 over the amount it is receiving for its ccrrent year's operation from the Fund.

IN 13TH YEAR

Pontiac's Y, now in its 13th year of operation, has as its primary function the leadership training of women and girls. It works with age groups ranging from 2½ years to above 90 years.

"We offer 28 weeks of classes, both day and evening, in as wide a variety of activities as we can arrange facilities for," Mrs. Netzler informed the panel.

"In connection with the classes, we provide nursery care for preschool age children of members for five hours a day, two days a week. We have Day Camp in the summer; work with Junior and Senior high school teenagers all during the school year; carry a major portion of USO activity in the area; work with a convalescent group from Pontiac State Hospital and have two active Golden Age groups with a membership over 90," stated Mrs. Netzler.

When all panel members' questions were answered and the agency's presentation was completed, panel chairman Wilson excused the agency representatives.

After the agency representatives left, the executive session of the hearing began with a final discussion of the YW's requests.

During this discussion period, decisions were reached on allowable budget requests. Specific recommendations will be included in the minutes of the panel meeting for consideration by the Budget Steering Committee.

1935 Pontiac Still Running Great

Three men from Brooklyn and a remarkable automobile paid a visit to Pontiac Motor Division recently, adding further proof to the Pontiac reputation of durability.

★ ★ ★

The Christiansen brothers, Carl and Anton Jr., and their Norwegian-born father, Anton Sr., driving an immaculate 1935 Pontiac four-door sedan, pulled into the Division's parking lot with a speedometer reading of 151,185 miles after a trouble-free jaunt across eastern turnpike routes.

TOUR ASSEMBLY LINE

En route to the General Motors Technical Center at Warren, the Christiansens stopped long enough to tour the Pontiac assembly line and chat about their "wonderful vehicle."

Anton, Jr., who serves as chauffeur and mechanic both at home and on the road, was quick to point out that their car of the famous Silver Streak line has not been a precious heirloom preserved through the years on garage blocks, but has served faithfully as the family's prime means of transportation day-in and day-out for the past 23 years.

Onlookers had difficulty believing it, viewing the shiny original paint and chrome finishes and the impeccable mohair interior showing wear only in the driver's seat.

Adding to this skepticism was the steady, barely audible beat of the outdated six-cylinder, 80 horsepower engine which operated on a diet of one gallon of gasoline for every 17 miles while powering the Christiansens 450 miles from Brooklyn to Cleveland in only 13 hours.

Anton Jr., attributes "careful personal attention" to maintenance of the automobile as the key to its excellent condition and operation. He himself performs all oil changes (every 1,500 miles), lubrications, tuning, exterior waxing (twice a year) and other service functions.

★ ★ ★

Visits to service stations are for gas only. "In 1937 I went to a garage for a clutch adjustment," he relates, "but found nothing wrong and before I could get out the door they sold me a radio."

FEW REPLACEMENTS

Front springs, a clutch disc, a generator, and piston-rings comprise all of the replacements in the old Pontiac.

Such "modern innovations" as aluminum roof gutters, directional signals and backup lights also have been installed by Anton Jr., "to keep up with the times."

NO SHOWPIECE — This 1935 Pontiac which rolled up to the Pontiac plant recently is in top shape despite its years, and it's no showpiece that has been blocked up for years. It has been the main day-by-day transportation of the Carl Christiansen family of Brooklyn, N. Y., and has more than 150,000 miles on it, according to Christiansen, shown here.

Hoffa, Marine Unions Talk Seaway Pact

DETROIT (AP) — Teamsters' President James R. Hoffa says his union is trying to reach an agreement with four Marine unions on organizing workers along the St. Lawrence Seaway and Great Lakes.

"We are trying to write a seaway pact so we won't get tangled up in jurisdictional issues when the seaway opens next year," Hoffa said in a weekend interview. He identified the other unions as the International Longshoremen's Assn., the International Brotherhood of Longshoremen, the Seafarers International Union and the National Maritime Union.

Boater, 79, Son Found Safe in Saginaw Bay

BAY CITY (AP) — A 79-year-old father and his son, missing in a rowboat since yesterday on wind-tossed Saginaw Bay, were found safe today by a Coast Guard cruiser.

The coast guard located Robert Knowles and his son John, 26, in their 15-foot, flat-bottomed boat about 25 miles out in the Bay northeast of here. The piar was last reported seen in midafternoon yesterday. A yacht sighted them as high offshore winds kicked up the bay.

Kiwanians Initiate $1 Million Building

CHICAGO (AP) — Kiwanians, in Chicago for their annual convention, laid the cornerstone yesterday for their new $1,250,000 headquarters building.

Some 14,000 members of Kiwanis International and their families are here for the four-day meeting.

Harry Young, 77, of Detroit, last surviving founder of the 252,000-member service organization, inserted into a time capsule a copy of the original articles of the first Kiwanis Club, which was organized in Detroit in 1915.

H. Park Arnold of Glendale, Calif., Kiwanis International president, placed the capsule in the pillar of the new structure being erected on the site of the home of the late Mrs. Anita McCormick Blaine.

The capsule was sealed with a 14 karat gold trowell.

Businessmen's Reading Speed Only 250 Words

NEW YORK — It has been found that the average reading speed of most businessmen is about 250 words a minute, or about the standard of seventh-graders.

But many companies consider an executive handicapped unless he can take in newspaper items at 550 words a minute and desk correspondence at about 400 words a minute.

Special reading training can result in an average gain of 75 per cent in comprehended words per minute among those taking the training.

Navajo Indians to Get New Health Center

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Public Health Service announced today it has awarded a $302,777 contract for construction of a field health center and six staff housing units on the Navajo reservation at Chinle, Ariz.

The service said the new center would replace an outmoded structure and serve as both an outpatient clinic and a headquarters for field health services for some 10,500 of the reservation's 82,000 Navajos.

The contract was awarded to Sanders Construction Co., Ltd., of Farmington, N.M.

Mows Down Bandit as Crowd Watches

NORTH MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — "Don't say anything," Patrolman Ralph Rex cautioned his companions at a crowded restaurant. "I'll wait until he gets his hands on the trays."

★ ★ ★

Customers sat frozen in their chairs last night as a masked gunman scooped up cash register trays containing $800 and shouldered through the doors. Rex fired three shots into his back. The bandit fell dead.

Police Chief Karl Engle promoted Rex on the spot to sergeant. The bandit was not identified immediately.

New Year's Eve for Uncle Sam

He Won't Celebrate Tonight Though, Going Deeper Into Debt

By FRAN K CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP)—For Uncle Sam, tonight is New Year's Eve. He won't be celebrating, though, because the new fiscal year will carry him deeper into debt than ever before.

Red ink spending caused by the business recession and the Soviet scientific-military menace threatens a fiscal 1959 deficit of about 11 billion dollars — possibly closer to 12 billion. That is more than at any time since World War II.

The national debt is sure to push past its December 1955 record high of $280,821,000,000.

The legal debt limit now is 280 billion dollars. The Eisenhower administration soon will ask Congress to boost that ceiling, probably by about 10 billion dollars.

The 1958 bookkeeping year which ends today also will be marred by a hefty deficit . Officials predict spending will top income by 2¾ billion to 3-billion dollars.

The exact size of the 1958 deficit, which comes after two straight years of balanced budgets, won't be known for a couple of weeks.

Latest figures, as of the middle of last week, showed the national debt at close to 276 billion dollars. The government then had a cash balance of about 10 billion dollars, a seasonal bulge that will be reduced speedily.

★ ★ ★

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson is known to feel the government should always have enough cash available to pay its expenses for two or three weeks. At the present spending rate, that means a total of 3 to 4. billion dollars.

In addition, Anderson would like a few billion dollars to make it easier to refinance the debt, a more or less constant operation.

A National Cowboy Hall of Fame and Museum is being erected atop a hill near Oklahoma City. It will honor famous cowboys in much the same manner that the Baseball Hall of Fame honors noted ball players.

Officials There Think So

Peru's Crisis Our Fault?

By LARRY ALLEN

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Peru, the Andean Mountain land of the once powerful Incas, is facing financial crisis. Officials blame the United States.

They say there would be no economic troubles in this agricultural and minerals rich republic if the United States would just buy more of its products and lower tariffs on present imports.

★ ★ ★

Demand from the United States, arising out of the recession, has tapered off sharply in the last year or so.

Heartened by the recent visit here of Vice President Nixon, Peruvians are hoping things will be worked out.

Lower prices and the fall in exports, not only to the United States but other foreign countries, government will have to borrow have hit Peru so hard that the heavily from its own central bank, or the U.S. Export-Import Bank, to meet its 1958 budgeted expenditures.

★ ★ ★

The exports and imports balance sheet didn't look so good for 1957—and economists fear it's going to be worse by the end of this year.

Exports last year brought in 330 million dollars. Imports totaled 448 millions.

While a big chunk of the imports were for foreign companies operating in Peru, the government nevertheless had to use about 31 millions of its gold reserves for payments.

Peru already owes 140 million to the Export-Import Bank for economic assistance. U.S. investments here total 450 million.

The right-of-center government of conservative President Manuel Prado inherited debts from the previous administration estimated at 45 millions. Struggling for a balanced budget, Prado has tried to trim expenses to liquidate this sum.

★ ★ ★

Prado, long has been beset by agitation for wage increases for the nation's workers. Despite attempted price controls, costs of living have risen steadily.

To halt the wage boost demands, the government recently approved a general 15-20 per cent rise and then decreed there would be no more pay hikes for a year.

There are other problems facing the government of Peru — roughly shaped like California, but three times as big.

There is much unemployment. As in many Latin-American countries, no government official seems to know just how much. The per capita income is only $120 yearly.

★ ★ ★

Over half of Peru's 10 million people can neither read nor write. Poverty is widespread among the Incas and other Indians who make up more than 60 per cent of the population.

There's a deep feeling among many Peruvians that, while they blame the United States for financial and economic troubles, amends can easily be made.

They figure it out simply—all the United States has to do is to buy just about everything Peru wants to sell—and everybody here will be happy to clasp hands with Americans in warm friendship.

They contend that since the United States spends billions of dollars on foreign aid for Europe, Africa and Asia, South America should get more.

Points like these and all economic complaints imaginable provided the ammunition for the hostile anti-American demonstrations staged here by Peru's Communists against Nixon.

The Communist party technically is illegal in Peru, but it operates openly. Prado's government has shrugged aside the Communists as a threat to Peruvian democracy. Apparently that attitude is based on the fact that the Reds supposedly have only 6,000 members and 40,000 to 50,000 sympathizers.

★ ★ ★

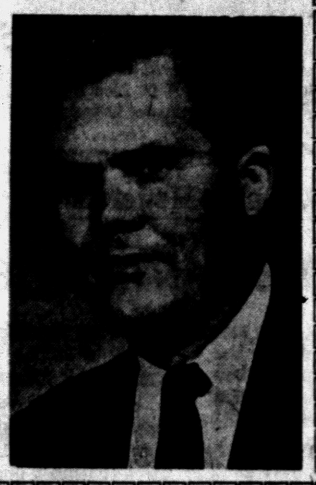

But they are wielding power and influence in labor unions, universities, student organizations, and among the peasants.

Many Peruvians believe the government should curb Communist activities.

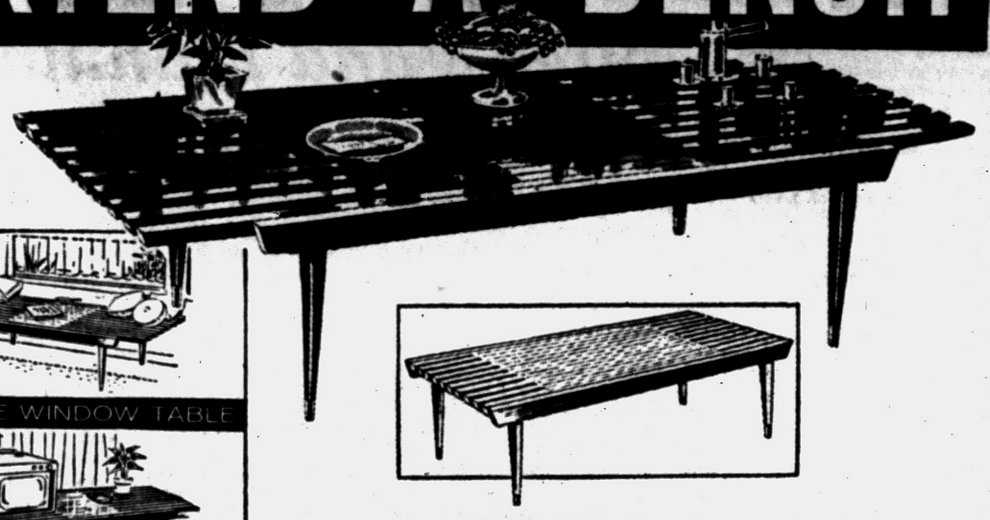

At the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, foreign students make up 30 per cent of the total enrollment in courses on the use of radioisotopes in research.

Economical Lamb Cut Makes Tempting Dish

The flavors of lamb and fruits complement each other deliciously in many dishes. A perfect example combines breast of lamb baked with canned apple slices. Spices add an extra note to the blending of flavors.

Here is a dish which proves that eye and appetite appealing foods need not be among the very expensive or consume hours of preparation time in the kitchen.

★ ★ ★

To fix breast of lamb another tempting way, use canned vegetable soup and add rosemary along with the salt and pepper as seasonings.

Breast of Lamb With Apples

½ pound break of lamb
1 teaspoon cloves
½ teaspoon nutmeg
1 tablespoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon onion salt
1 1-pound 4-ounce can sliced apples

Place lamb on rack in baking pan. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) 1 hour. Combine cloves, nutmeg, sugar, salt, pepper and onion salt; mix well. Spread over lamb. Top with apples. Bake 1 hour. Serves 4.

★ ★ ★

Lamb With Vegetable Sauce

2 breast of lamb (about 2½ pounds)
2 10¾-ounce cans condensed vegetable soup
1 teaspoon rosemary
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper

Place lamb on rack in shallow roasting pan. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees) 1¼ hours. Drain off drippings. Combine remaining ingredients. Pour over lamb. Bake 45 minutes. Serves 4.

Three to four tablespoons of instant minced onion may be used to replace a large fresh onion in a stew.

Shrimp Patties Go Into Buns

Summer brings the fun of eating in the open, and that means lots of buns to be split and filled with all sorts of delectable foods. When the picnic is in the backyard, some foods can be prepared in the kitchen, to be served hot on toasted buns and eaten out of doors. And for this, new filling ideas are always welcome.

Since shrimp is such a popular food, the Shrimp Association of the Americas has developed the recipe below for Shrimpburgers. Ingredients may be combined in advance, stored in the refrigerator — later to be shaped into patties, fried in a few minutes, and taken immediately to the backyard table, to be served with one or more relishes.

Shrimpburgers

1 (12 oz.) package frozen, peeled and deveined cooked shrimp
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 tablespoons flour
¾ cup milk
1 cup cooked rice
½ cup grated process cheese
2 tablespoons grated onion
1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Dash cayenne
½ teaspoon curry powder

Let shrimp thaw. Reserve six whole shrimp for garnishing. Cut the rest of the shrimp into small pieces.

Melt butter, remove from heat and stir in flour. Return to heat and gradually add milk, stirring constantly over moderate heat until thick. Combine with remaining ingredients. (If there is time, chill mixture for easier handling). Shape into patties.

Roll shrimpburgers in fine dry breadcrumbs. Fry in about ½ inch of hot fat in a skillet until browned on one side, about 2 minutes. Turn and brown other side. Serve in toasted hamburger buns with any desired relish or chutney. Makes 6 servings.

New Spy Scare Shakes Britain

But Hungary Refugees' Photos of A-Weapons Site Show Just Faces

SOUTHEND, England (AP) — Three Hungarian refugees who said they were just testing out a new camera—by focusing on the government's top-secret atomic weapons center—set off a weekend spy scarein Britain.

The Hungarians, all refugees who have been granted political asylum here, were seized by police at their rooming house after an anonymous telephone tip that they planned to leave the country.

The Hungarians agreed they had intended to take a one-day trip to France, a Sunday crossing that involves no passports, but insisted they had no idea they were in a restricted area when they tested their camera.

Police held them 18 hours for questioning while the films were developed, then let the men go when the pictures turned out to be ordinary snapshots showing just faces andno secrets.

Police said the background of the pictures was Foulness Island, the atomic weapons testing center in the Thames Estuary just off Southend. But it was just a distant haze on the snapshots.

Two of the Hungarians had been caught snapping pictures in the wrong places last year. This time allwere warned to watch their focus and were let go.

Cut Down Cooking Water

Cook potatoes in a small amount of water to save nutrients. You can boil two pounds of medium-sized white potatoes (halved) in as little as three-quarters cup of water. The vegetable will be cooked in 20 to 30 minutes.

Give Modern Start to Old-Fashioned Salad

Old-fashioned creamy potato salad now can be made in minutes instead of hours. In place of the tedious peeling, cooking, and dicing of the potatoes for this salad favorite, open a package of frozen French fries from your freezer.

The French fries come to you ready peeled, ready cut, partially cooked, and requiring only a quick hot water thawing and heating to be ready for chilling and combining with the salad ingredients.

Frozen French fries are a "must" on most grocery lists today for wonderful crisp-coated, mealy-centered potato sticks to dress up meals and snacks around the clock. In addition, this economical and convenient potato product is a versatile one, providing the basis for quick casseroles, meat dishes, soups, and creamy salads such as the traditional old-fashioned favorite.

Every family has a favorite variation for old-fashioned potato salad. Use the recipe below, or start with quickly heating the frozen French fries in hot water as directed in the recipe below, and add your own special touches.

You'll have the same wonderful salad for picnics and patio parties or for serving with meats the year around . . . and it's ready so quickly.

Old-Fashioned Potato Salad

2 9-oz. packages frozen french fries
⅔ cup coarsely grated or finely diced unpeeled cucumbers
⅔ cup sliced radishes
¼ cup sliced green onions
⅓ cup diced celery
2 tablespoons minced parsley
2 hard-cooked eggs, sliced
1 cup salad dressing
1½ teaspoons salt
Pepper and paprika, as desired

Pour 4 cups of water into a large covered skillet or saucepan, and bring to a rapid boil. Carefully drop frozen potatoes into water.

Drain potatoes immediately, and spread onto a tray covered with paper toweling and let cool. Combine remaining ingredients in mixing bowl, add potatoes and mix carefully. Serve immediately, or let season (and chill) in refrigerator, as desired.

If carrying to a picnic, cool thoroughly before packing into thermal bag. Yield: 4 cups salad, 4 to 6 servings.

Stuffed Tomato Salad

Try this for a new salad: Fill hollowed tomatoes with a mixture of cooked garden vegetables (green beans, peas, carrots, cauliflower) which have been chopped in small pieces then marinated in a dressing of 3 tablespoons olive oil, 1 tablespoon vinegar or lemon juice, 1 teaspoon tarragon and salt and pepper to taste. Save a little of the dressing to pour over the out side of the tomatoes.

Special Margarine Sold Only in Drug Stores

A new margarine, sold only through drug stores but not by presceiption, is directed at persons with heart disease or atherosclerosis (a form of hardening of the arteries) who are on low fat diets. The margarine is made chiefly from nonhydrogenated corn oil — an unsaturated fat that may be of value in lowering cholesterol levels.

Designed for cooking, as well as for a spread, the product may be used by a whole family. It includes the vitamin fortification now customary in standard margarine and requires refrigeration.

Small fry love cookies cut in star and half-moon shapes.

Tomatoes Wear Creamy Caps

Even the most dyed-in-the-wool meat and potatoes devotees will delight in this tasty tomato recipe. The tomatoes boast a crispy crust of bread crumbs and cheese and a topping of sour cream spiked with chives. Flavorful and handsome, too, White Cap Tomatoes will compliment almost any meat dish and win compliments for you, too.

White Cap Tomatoes

6 medium tomatoes, halved
¾ cup fine enriched yeast-raised bread crumbs
¼ cup grated cheese
2 teaspoons minced chives
½ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
¾ cup sour cream

Cut tomatoes in half crosswise. Slice a very thin slice off the tops and bottoms so they will stand easily. Place tomatoes on a rack in broiler pan.

Combine bread crumbs, cheese, salt and pepper and sprinkle over tomatoes. Dot with butter or margarine. Bake at 375 degrees about 10 minutes until tomatoes are nearly tender. Broil to brown the topping.

Combine sour cream and chives. Just before serving, spoon sour cream mixture on the broiled tomatoes. Makes 6 servings.

Tips for Grilling Spareribs Outdoors

If spareribs are to be grilled over the coals, do not cut the ribs into sections. Rather, weave a skewer through the whole cut of pork. Rotate over hot coals — a slow fire — for about 1½ hours, or until tender and brown. Baste with barbecue sauce during cooking.

To know if meat is done, cut a slit near the bone or in the center of the piece. No redness should remain. Good eating with the ribs are chunky servings of buttered French bread. Be sure to wrap it in heavy foil and warm on the grill.

Moves Bomb From Church

Negro Volunteer Acts Fast to Thwart Blast Set in Alabama

BIRMINGHAM (AP) — A volunteer guard saved the church of a Negro integration leader from destruction early yesterday when he moved a dynamite bomb away from the building moments before it exploded.

The Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth said the bomb would have demolished his Bethel Baptist Church had it not been for the "heroic deed" of Will Hall.

Hall, a 62-year-old retired coal miner, is one of six volunteers who have guarded the church each Saturday night since it and Shuttlesworth's adjoining home were heavily damaged by bombing Dec. 25, 1956.

The Negro minister said Hall, upon discovering a smoking can containing dynamite against a wall of the church, moved it to the edge of the street 30 feet away about a minute before the blast. A carload of white men reportedly was seen passing shortly before the bomb wasfound.

★ ★ ★

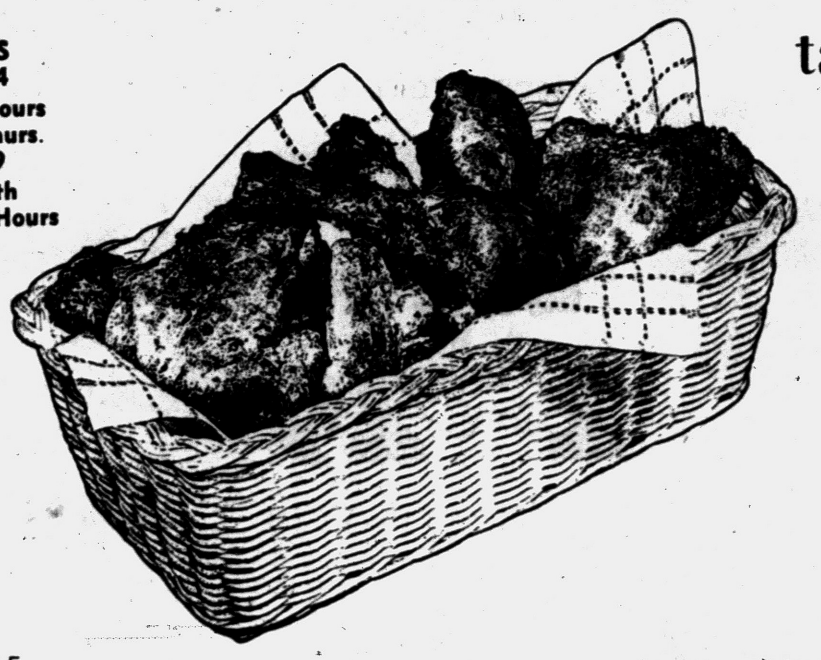

Despite the shattered windows and cracked plaster, Negroes gathered at the church for regular Sunday morningservices. After a sermon, Shuttlesworth declared: "Dastardly as this crime is, nobody here is angry. It's shown us the depth and seriousness of the job at hand. We're going to have to suffer on longer, but we'll hold up our heads."

★ ★ ★

Police said only clues uncovered so far were a few pieces of the metal can which contained the explosives and a vague description of the men seen driving past.

New Cooks Will Like Stuffed Beef Rolls

Many of our June brides will continue to work outside of their homes. This calls for systematic scheduling, careful budgeting and efficient, easy work accomplishment. It means a file of tried and well liked recipes too!

One of the dairy foods which will speed the new homemaker to culinary success is the versatile dairy sour cream. Everyone will enjoy the delightful flavor it adds to meat. It is convenient, ready-to-use and easily digested for dairy sour cream is made from sweet fresh cream. Following pasteurization and homogenization, a culture is added which adds a satin smooth thickness and a distinctive flavor.

★ ★ ★

Today's brides might like to add this Creamy Beef Roulade suggestion to their meager recipe files. Plan to try this recipe at least one time before serving it to guests. Thereafter, you will be equipped to confidently entertain at first dinners. Guests will be delighted with the savory cream sauce and you'll be grateful to lean about delicious dairy sour cream.

Beef Roulade With Savory Cream Sauce

6 slices (about 4x5-inch) round steak
1 (56-oz.) can sliced mushrooms
1 small onion, chopped
4 tablespoons butter
½ cup cooked rice
½ teaspoon celery salt
¼ teaspoon black pepper
Flour
Paprika
1 bouillon cube
⅓ cup stuffed olives, sliced
1 pint sour cream

Have butcher slice beef very thin and pound to flatten. Drain mushrooms, mince. Reserve mushroom liquor. Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter in skillet; saute onions and mushrooms in butter until tender. Stir in rice, celery salt and pepper. Spoon filling on end of each beef slice; roll up tightly, jelly-roll-fashion; secure with a toothpick or skewer. Dip beef rolls in flour.

In large skillet, brown beef in remaining butter; sprinkle generously with paprika. Combine mushroom liquor and bouillon cubes; pour over meat. Cover, Cook 45 minutes or until tender; add olives during last 15 minutes of cooking time.

Place beef rolls on serving platter; remove toothpicks or skewers. Add sour cream to skillet; stir, over low heat, only until thoroughly heated. Do not boil. Pour sauce over meat. Serves six.

Make Cheese Pretzels

Add ½ cup grated cheese to your favorite biscuit mix. Roll out to about ⅜" thick. Cut in strips 6" long, ½" wide, loop strips in "figure eights." Then sprinkle with salt. Brown in hot oven 12 to 15 minutes.

First Dominion Day July 1, 1867

Canada Celebrates 91st Year Tomorrow

TORONTO (AP) — Dominion Day—Canada's 91st birthday as a nation—will be signaled tomorrow by a tremendous explosion at 7 a.m. (EST) that will be heard on radio sets across the nation.

This isn't a special Dominion Day salute. It's the explosion of 30 tons of dynamite that will blast gaps in an earth dam, releasing a flood from the St. Lawrence that will create a new artificial lake to serve the Ontario-New York State Power Station being constructed along with the St. Lawrence Seaway.

This man-made lake will submerge an historic area, from which whole communities have been removed to higher ground, transforming the whole appearance of what is known as "seaway valley."

The big explosion, which will be seen later in the day on television sets, gives a special touch to this year's observance of the historic holiday.

PERMANENT DATE

Dominion Day is one of the few annual holidays that have not been changed to a Monday observance by statute. It came on Monday last year, because July 1 then fell on a Monday. In 1956, the holiday was also celebrated on Monday, since July 1 fell on Sunday. But this year it's Tuesday, and next year it will be a Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

The holiday also retains its historic name of "Dominion Day" in Canada by official statute, although the term "Canada Day" is used abroad and has been for some years.

In Newfoundland however, it's still known as "Discovery Day," the islanders celebrating like other Canadians but primarily in observance of the date 461 years ago when John Cabot is recorded as making his first landfall in Newfoundland.

Prime Minister Diefenbaker will take part in, a special 90-minute salute to the opening of connected television facilities from coast-to-coast when he appears in the program "Memo to Champlain," on the combined English-French television network of the CBC at 4:30 p.m.

RECALL PIONEERS

The prime minister is expected to speak from the Western Development Museum at Saskatoon, just after opening the 1958 "pion-era," an exhibition of historical farm equipment.

The pioneers will be recalled in many other communities. Church services, sports events and outdoors celebrations will be held at many places, some of them perhaps uninhabited spots when Confederation came into effect on July 1, 1867.

On that date, Confederation united the Provinces of Upper and Lower Canada (Ontario and Quebec) with Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. Manitoba came in as a new province in 1870. British Columbia joined in 1871, Prince Edward Island in 1873, Alberta and Saskatchewan, new provinces in 1905, and Newfoundland—the oldest British colony—joined in 1949.

At Confederation the Canadian population was below 4,000,000. At last count, in 1957, it was 16,589,000.

Cream Cheese Pastry

For the very best pastry you've ever tasted, mix 3 3-oz. packages of cream cheese with 1 stick (½ cup), of butter. Using a pastry blender, cut this mixture into 1½ cups flour and shape to form a ball. Wrap in waxed paper, chill, and then roll out as you would any pastry.

Juice Flavors Cake

Next time you bake a chocolate cake from a mix, add finely chopped walnuts to the batter. Then as soon as the cake comes from the oven, pour an orange syrup over it. Make the syrup from grated orange rind and orange juice.

Low Cost Tuna Good in Barbecue Sauce

Tuna enjoys a top spot among food favorites regardless of season. During cold weather, tuna casseroles, soups and hot sandwiches, to mention but a few examples, take priority in menu planning. Salads, skillet specialties and sandwich spreads take over as warmer days approach.

Among the reasons for the wide use of canned tuna are ease of use, nutritive value, flavor, versatility and, especially important these days, economy. A consideration of great interest to budget-conscious homemakers is that despite the rising costs of food, canned tuna is now selling at prices 5 per cent lower than those of December 1952.

Undoubedly, the fact that canned tuna costs less than it did five and a half years ago is a prime reason why tuna sales were up 20 per cent during the first quarter of 1958.

Take advantage of economical canned tuna for outdoor meals enjoyed throughout the summer. Barbecued Tuna Buns is a good recipe to start with.

Barbecued Tuna Buns

2 7-ounce cans solid-pack tuna
⅓ cup sliced scallions
¼ pound mushrooms, sliced
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon celery salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 medium-sized lemon, sliced
2 tablespoons French dressing
½ cup catchup
¼ cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons brown sugar
8 hamburger buns, split in half

Drain tuna; reserve 2 tablespoons of oil. Heat tuna oil. Add scallions, mushrooms, salt, celery salt and pepper. Cook until browned. Add tuna and lemon and cook 5 minutes.

Combine French dressing, catchup, chili sauce and brown sugar; mix well. Heat to serving temperature. Meanwhile, toast buns. Remove lemon from tuna mixture. Arrange tuna mixture on toasted buns. Top with tomato mixture. Makes 8 servings.

Sugar and Stuff Dress Up Rolls

Here is one of the most pleasant ways to enjoy breakfast — piping hot Almond-Raisin Rolls.

To make: Blend 1-3 cup soft butter, 1-3 cup brown sugar, ¼ cup raisins and ¼ cup slivered almonds. In ungreased muffin tins, place 2 teaspoons of almond-raisin mixture in each cup. Cut Brown 'n Serve dinner rolls in half, horizontally. Place top half, topside down, on mixture. Cover with a teaspoon of the mixture and top with remaining half of roll.

★ ★ ★

Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees) for 10 minutes. Allow to stand in pan 5 minutes after removing from oven. Invert pan, serve rolls right side up with their buttery raisin-almond topping.

Peanut Butter Flavors Cake for Picnic

Big cakes baked in loaf pans, many with easy broiled frostings, are picnic perfect. This Peanut Butter Cake is easy to carry in the covered pan to the patio or park along with the franks, buns, and potato salad.

Peanut Butter Cake

⅔ cup shortening
⅔ cup peanut butter
2¼ cups brown sugar
1½ teaspoons vanilla
3 eggs
2¼ cups sifted cake flour
¾ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup milk

Cream shortening, peanut butter, and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat well. Sift flour with salt and baking powder. Add alternately with milk, adding the dry ingredients first and last. Pour batter into 13x9x2-inch pan (bottom rubbed with shortening). Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 50 minutes.

Peanut Butter Broiled Frosting

Cream 6 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup brown sugar, and 2/3 cup peanut butter. Add ¼ cup milk and stir well. Then add 2/3 cup chopped peanuts and spread over warm cake. Place under broiler about 4 inches from the heat source. Broil a few seconds or until topping starts to bubble. Watch carefully to avoid scorching.

Big Bus Is Gone! Nobody Knows Where

NEW YORK(AP)—If you spot a suspicious looking 41-passenger bus, report it to police.

★ ★ ★

The $10,000 vehicle disappeared yesterday from the Port Authority bus terminal parking lot on Manhattan's West Side.

It was loaded with enough fuel to take the driver 600 miles. Carlos Callier discovered the loss when he went to pick up the bus for a run to Greenville, N. Y.

★ ★ ★

The bus is red and gray, air-conditioned and has picture windows.

'Girl Should Be Silently Stronger' —Beauty Queen

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — None of this mailed fist stuff for Miss California of 1958.

More the velvet glove type is 18-year-old Sandra Lee Jennings of Riverside. Her blue eyes, brown hair, 35-24-35 measurements and piano playing talent won her the beauty contest title over 24 other finalists. She was crowned yesterday before 30,000 spectators.

"What do you look for in a husband?" asked a reporter.

"He should be head of the house, definitely," she said. "He should be overpowering and make a girl feel weak."

★ ★ ★

As reporters quietly flexed their muscles, Miss Jennings added softly:

"But the girl must really be stronger than he is. She must never let him realize it, though."

Spacecraft Believers Spot Tricky Object

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Mo. (AP)—"Through binoculars the object looked white-orangey," Mrs. David McClure said.

She was reporting yesterday to a weekend convention of fellow believers in spacecraft.

"It couldn't have been a satellite," she said. "Did you ever see a satellite dip, hover and manuver?"

★ ★ ★

The McClures, from Tulsa, Okla. said they sighted the mysterious flying object after leaving Saturday night's convention session. The two-day meeting was held on an Ozark mountaintop near here. Its host, Buck Nelson, says his farm is a rallying-point for the mysterious space ships.

★ ★ ★

Soon after the McClures stopped their automobile for a closer look, the "large, white object in the sky vanished" they said—but not before they had pointed it out to two other cars of delegates following them.

"Good thing we had witnesses along," Mrs. McClure commented. "Otherwise, people might not believe us."

French Bread Best Hot

Wrap a loaf of French bread in aluminum foil and heat in a moderate oven for about 15 minutes. Good when you're having a casserole for a main dish. Instead of using foil, you can place the bread in a brown paper bag, twisting the ends closed, before heating.

Braves Boost Lead but Not Over Giants

By The Associated Press

Looks as if all Henry Aaron needed to start hammerin' away in the Aaron manner was a vote of confidence from the players, managers and coaches who've watched him tear apart National League fences year after year.

The lithe Milwaukee Braves' outfielder, 1957 NL most valuable player but a batting bust for most of '58, was hitting .258 Friday when he won his league's right field job for the All-Star Game July 8.

Since then, he's 9-for-11, while driving in seven runs, boosting his home runs by three to 14 and upping his average to a much more respectable .282.

The climax to his 72-hour spree came yesterday as Aaron rapped a grand slam homer and three singles and drove in five runs in a four-for-five show that led the Braves to a 10-6 victory over Los Angeles.

★ ★ ★

The triumph, Bob Rush's sixth despite a four-homer Dodger barrage, lifted the Braves into a 2½ game lead over St. Louis, in second place by a scant percentage point, and San Francisco.

★ ★ ★

The Cardinals lost the opener of a doubleheader to the Philadelphia Phillies, and led 5-4 as the second game was suspended with the Phils batting in the eighth.

★ ★ ★

San Francisco blanked Cincinnati 2-0 behind Al Worthington's four-hitter, while Chicago and Pittsburgh split. The Cubs, with Dale Long driving in for runs, won the second 8-3 after Frank Thomas' 22nd homer had helped the Pirates to a 4-3 first game victory.

★ ★ ★

Harry Anderson's two-out double, scoring Solly Hemus, won the first game for the Phils as reliever Jack Meyer (1-1) picked up his first victory after nine straight losses since Aug. 10, 1956. The Phils, trailing St. Louis 4-2, had one run in and runners on first and third and none out when the state 7 p.m. curfew rang in the bottom of the nightcap eighth. It'll be completed July 29. The opener was the Phils' third extra-inning triumph in five days and their second over the Cards in 48 hours.

Rodgers College Golf Champion

Houston Star Defeats Purdue's Konsek; Sets Sights on Amateur

Associated Press Sports Writer

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — Chunky Phil Rodgers, newly-crowned collegiate golf champion as a sophomore is setting his sights on the National Amateur.

The University of Houston phenom from La Jolla, Calif., demonstrated skill beyond 20 years yesterday as he defeated Purde's John Konsek 8 and 7 for the NCAA title.

★ ★ ★

"I am planning to try to qualify for the National Amateur in Septemberr," Rodgers said after his triumph. "I have no other immediate plans. I'm going to be aiming for the amateur qualifying all summer."

The match ended on the 29th hole when Rodgers ndged a 33-foot putt up to within three inches of the cup and Konsek missed a two footer which would have given him a halve.

★ ★ ★

Konsek, an 18-year-old sophomore pre-medical student, had been outstanding in earlier matches but was not equal to Rodgers' ease and accuracy in the 36-hole final.

Dennehy Wins Jumper Title

By H. GUY MOATS

Annual Detroit Horse Show, at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, Sunday night wound up a week of fine competition, with a capacity gallery witnessing the final determination of championships for which horses and riders had been battling for almost a week.

The top title, the jumper championship, went to slim, capable Charles Dennehy Jr., of Wadsworth, Ill. Dennehy rode his 16-hands tall chestnut gelding Pill Box to six wins in eight jumping events, to clinch the honor. Max Bonham of Battle Creek, riding Mrs. William Wright's (Hamilton, Ont.) Blaney Castle, was reserve.

Dennehy was the 1957 jumper king here, on Pill Box. He will be back for a third try, next year, he said Sunday night. His next show riding will be in Milwaukee, this week. Dennehy won the BOH final event Sunday, the $1,000 bonus point jumper stake, to make his show point total a rousing 39 points.

Other top championships included:

Regular working hunters (Elliott S. Nichols trophy) — champion, Modoc (George W. Jayne, Chicago); reserve — Borealis (Mrs. Robert Haass, Northville).

Jayne) for the midwest area USET challenge; Duke of Paeonian in the Corinthian event (Brambles trophy); several victories for the Pettibone entries; professional horseman's class by Pill Box (Dennehy).

Don Marzano's stake win (green hunter stake) for Chicago's Ten Pin Farms' first stake victory in three BOH shows was an applauded ride. Don is the 17-year-old son of Ted Marzano, Ten Pin owner, and rode an 8-year-old gelding, DareMe.

JUST IN TIME — Charley Maxwell hits the dirt just in time to slide in safely at third base as Frank Malzone, Red Sox third baseman waits for the throw. Maxwell later scored the Tigers' third run on Paul Foytack's hit, but Boston still won the game, 10-7.

Red Sox Homer Barrage Sinks Bengals, 10-7

Last Year's Squad Showed Better Mark for Same Period

DETROIT (AP) — Any way you look at it, the Detroit Tigers are in worse shape right now than they were at this same time last season.

After 67 games, the Tigers are in fourth place, 10½ games behind the New York Yankees. They have won 33 and lost 34 for a .493 percentage.

After 67 games in 1957, the Tigers had a 35-32 record, the were six games out of first place.

The Boston Red Sox tumbled the Tigers below the .500 mark yesterday at Briggs Stadium by a 10-7 score. The game, that brought about the first loss of a series since Bill Norman took over as manager about three weeks ago, was marked by shoddy pitching.

The Red Sox generated the excitement as Ted Williams, more warmly received here than in his own park, and Jackie Jensen belted three-run homers. On an earlier trip to Detroit this season, Williams lifted a high fly that fell just inside the lower right field seats.

The blast Williams turned loose yesterday proves that baseball is not always a game of inches — it was more like a game of miles when he pumped one of Bill Fischer's pitches of fthe stadium roof in right center field.

Fischer had not given up a home run in a stretch of more than 100 innings last season with Chicago.

Williams' home run, his 11th, highlighted a four-run splurge that dissolved a 5-5 tie in the eighth inning. Pete Runnels' single had brought across the tie-breaking run and Williams provided the insurance that came in handy when the Tigers rallied themselves for two runs in the ninth.

Jensen cracked his 3rd home run in the sixth inning and concluded a brief good-hit, no-pitch performance by Paul Foytack. Jensen's blast was a wrong-field affair that gave him four round-trippers in the three-game series and pulled the Sox up to a 5-5 tie.

Mainly on Foytack's hitting the Tigers had managed a 5-2 lead through the first five innings. He singled and scored a run in the third inning and drove in two more with a bases-loaded single in the fourth.

Charlie Maxwell, with three hits pulling him out of a prolonged slump, doubled home the team's first run in the second inning. In the ninth, he tripled and scored on an infield out. The Tigers got another run in the ninth when Boston catcher picked up Red Wilson's dribbling base hit and threw it into right field for a two-base error. Wilson scored on a pinch single by Bob Hazle.

Yanks Beaten, Orioles Win Pair

Hitters Have 'Ball' in AL

By The Associated Press

If pitching is 75 per cent of baseball, as Connie Mack used to say, Sunday's American League fans should ask for their money back.

They saw only 25 per cent of the grand, national pastime.

No fewer than 156 hits producing 94 runs rattled off the offerings of 43 pitchers in a slam-bang six-game program that finally ended under the lights at Chicago's Comiskey Park.

There were 35 runs and 54 hits in Chicago, where the White Sox went 11 innings, and three hours and 50 minutes to nip Washington 12-11 after the Senators had won the opener 12-0.

There were 24 runs and 40 hits at Cleveland, where "weak-hitting" Baltimore swept a doubleheader 11-6 and 5-2.

Two single games were no less productive, Kansas City rapping 15 hits to New York's 11 in the A's 12-6 victory at Kansas City, and Boston collecting 14 safeties and Detroit 12 in a 10-7 Red Sox triumph over the Tigers at Detroit.

It averaged out to 15 runs, 26 hits and 7 battered pitchers per game.

Roger Maris had a home run and three singles, scored 3 runs and drove in 2 and Harry Simpson drove in 3 with three singles as Kansas City overcame a 5-0 deficit and cut the Yankee lead to 8½ games. Dick Tomanek, the A's new relief ace with two victories and one save since he was obtained from Cleveland two weeks ago, won over Art Ditmar, third of six New York pitchers.

Jim Lemon, driving in nine runs with a double, triple and two homers, led the Senators 28-hit attack that produced only a split against the White Sox despite seven-run innings in each game.

The Senators' Pete Ramos coasted to a five-hit shutout, his second, in the opener while Lemon drove in five runs and Rocky Bridges, Faye Throneberry and Norm Zauchin hit home runs.

Lemon, Throneberry and Roy Sievers also hit home runs in the second game but the White Sox overbalanced them with a 21-hit barrage, winning on Jim Rivera's one-out double in the eleventh. Ray Moore, beaten starter in the opener, came back and won the nightcap with three hitless relief innings.

Car Flips, Driver Jim Davis Killed at Ohio Track

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (AP) — Auto racer Jim Davis of Indianapolis was fatally injured yesterday when his racer and one driven by Ed Elisian of Oakland, Calif., flipped over.

Davis, 25, died at Memorial Hospital in nearby St. Marys where Elisian was treated for head cuts and bruises and released.

Frank Dicke, promoter for nearby New Bremen Speedway, said Davis tried to pass Elisian and ran over one wheel of Elisian's sprintcar. Both flipped over and slid down the half-mile track, but neither was hit by other cars.

★ ★ ★

Elisian escaped injury a month ago when a spectacular pileup marked the opening laps of the Indianapolis 500 auto race.

Yesterday's race was a preliminary before the feature won by Don Branson of Champaign, Ill.

American Sets Monza Record

MONZA, Italy (AP)—A record 166-m.p.h. victory in the Monzoa 500-miler gave the racing world a target to shoot at today as it entered a new era of high speed.

Jim Rathmann, a boyish blond from Miami, Fla., took the Monza race yesterday, becoming the first man in the world to ever drive a 500-mile auto race in less than three hours.

★ ★ ★

The 29-year-old Rathmann—who never has won at Indianapolis but placed second in 1957—drove a Zink Leader Card Special in yesterday's race. His time for the 500 miles was 2:59:37.3—about 23 seconds under three hours. His average was 166.788 m.p.h.

That speed beat the old 162-m.p.h. world record, which German Hermann Lang set in a Mercedes 20 years ago on a track near Berlin.

★ ★ ★

It also beat Jimmy Bryan, winner of last year's Monza race and this year's Indianapolis contest.

Bryan, driving the Belond AP Special he piloted to victory at Indianapolis, finished the 500 miles in 3:01:09.6, taking second place. Bryan's winning speed a year ago was 160 m.p.h.

Gusty Winds Raise Hob With WLYA Sailboats

Two craft went aground and another capsized in Sunday's hectic day of racing for Watkins Lake Yachting Association. Both boats hit shoal water and were damaged. The overturned boat was righted and finished the race—a little late.

Glenn Fries' lightning, Jo-Dee, skippered by Frank Fleck in the 2nd race went out of control when a spinnaker fouled. The craft's steering gear was damaged. Gusty winds caused the mishap, and also were responsible for a similar accident to Ray Frankel's snipe. Frankel lost his tiller and was driven ashore.

Chuck and Carol Morris, sailing a morning race in Bye-Aes, overturned when a wind shift backhauled the boat's sail. The two swam ashore, later righted the Bye-Aes and finished the race.

Winners were:

Thistles — Don Zannoth, Phyllis Seebald; Jim Parshall, Harm Gillem, Paul Saghy, 2nd; lightnings — Dave Green, Jo Green won; 2nd John Noble, his son, Hal Roice and Keith Martin; 3rd Bruce Brede, Fred Brede Sr., Fred, Jr.; snipes won by Guy and Nancy Duffield; 2nd, Don and Bob Newman; 3rd, Shell Covert, Jerry Vickers.

Afternoon — Morris's (snipes); Frede Brede and Art Hoover, lightnings.

Don Zannoth won the Saturday night race with Norm Ledwin 2nd.

Mackay in Quarter-Final

WIMBLEDON, England (UPI) — Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, America's leading contender for the Wimbledon men's singles championship, advanced to the tournament quarterfinal today with a 6-3, 11-9, 6-2 victory over Ramananthan Krishnan of India.

Win at Blythefield

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Jerry Berles, who sank an 18-foot putt on the 18th green, and partner Tom Kolenda won the 16th annual Blythefield invitational golf tournament 1-up yesterday over Cliff Taylow of Spring Lake and Jack Sharp.

Speedway Opens '58 Slate

The Pontiac Speedway held its grand opening Sunday with Don McCoven of Royal Oak taking a lion's share of honors in the combination old model-intermediate-hardtop show.

McCoven won the 25-lap feature with his modified hardtop, finishing ahead of Dick Burns of Durand and Ed Lorraine. He also took the 15-lap semifinal, beating Norm Hughes and Burns.

Bud Wells of Pontiac was the four-car dash winner and Hughes won the old model race with Leo Terry running 2nd. Don Irish won the race for intermediate cars, followed across the finish line by Terry Kelly.

Mickey Katlin of Howell captured the pursuit race, with Wells runnerup, and Katlin set a new record at the M59 oval in the qualifiers by streaking around the banked quarter-mile track in the time of :16.54.

The Speedway will hold its second racing program of the season this Friday, the Fourth of July, with time trials starting at 12:30 p.m. and the first race at 2 o'clock.

Takes Two-Ball Golf Tourney

Savage-DeBolt Team Wins

The team of Stan Savage and Mrs. Zadah DeBolt won the city's annual Mixed Two-Ball Foursome golf tournament Saturday afternoon at Pontiac Municipal course with an 18-hole score of 81, a dozen strokes above par.

Savage and Mrs. DeBolt toured Municipal's par 34-35—69 layout in 41-40 to nose out the teams of Wally Smith-Eve Miller and Glen Harding-Chris Tate by one stroke in the alternate shot tourney.

The Smith-Miller tandem shot 43-39—82 while the Harding-Tate team carded 41-41—82. Second place was awarded to Wally and Mrs. Miller when Harding and Mrs. Tate were unable to stay for a playoff.

Jim and Bobbi Miller took 4th place with a score of 44-40—84. Del and Jewell Hammett and Jack Aldred and Betty Pierce shared 5th spot with 85s.

Trophies were presented to the winners and runnersup while merchandise prizes went to the 3rd and 4th place teams. Twenty-five teams, the largest field in 10 years, played in the tournament, sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department.

FINAL SCORES

Doctoring Your Golf

By DR. CARY MIDDLECOFF

PATIENT'S COMPLAINT: Soaring Scores.

DIAGNOSIS: Your Mental Approach Is Faulty.

TREATMENT: One important step in hitting a good golf shot is picturing a good golf shot in your mind. This means concentrating on the kind of shot you want—not on the several kinds of bad shots you want to avoid.

I'm advocating here a singleness of purpose as you prepare to play the shot.

In all golf shots problems, you'll find trouble to the right, trouble to the left, trouble short, trouble long. Of course, there may be greater trouble to the right than the left, or vice versa; and there may be bigger trouble over the green than short of it, or vice versa.

So you'd want to favor the possibility that offers the least amount of trouble, wouldn't you? But the point is that you MUST THINK IN TERMS OF THE KIND OF SHOT YOU NEED.

I guarantee that you'll find this practice rewarding. Also, the duffer can practice it just the same as the expert can. Try it next time out.

Mickey Wright—New Queen of Golf

By BILL CORNWELL

There's no doubt about it now. Mickey Wright is the new queen of the golfing world for 1958.

★ ★ ★

The long-legged blonde from Chula Vista, Calif., who began national competition as an amateur at the age of 15, last weekend cemented her claim as the No. 1 star of women's professional golf.

Three weeks ago yesterday the friendly and likeable slugger took her first step towards the throne by winning the LPGA crown at Churchill Valley Country Club in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mickey took the final step last Saturday and did it convincingly. She spread-eagled the 41-player field at Forest Lake Country Club to win the 6th annual U.S.G.A. Women's Open golf championship by five strokes.

★ ★ ★

Not yet 24 years old, Mickey has captured the two leading "prestige" tournaments on the ladies' tour in a three-week span. That's monarchy.

She left no stone unturned at Forest Lake to prove her superiority. Playing consistently excellent golf, Mickey put together rounds of 74-72-70-74 for a 72-hole total of 290, two under women's par.

Her victorious score also set a new record for the National Open, topping the 291 fired by the late Babe Didrikson Zaharias in 1954 when she won the title at Salem County Club in Peabody, Mass.

★ ★ ★

Miss Wright, an ambitious amateur of 19 that year, tied for 4th place and was the best "simon pure" in the tournament. Ironically, it was her lowest finish until this summer.

The U.S. Open had been considered something of a jinx for Mickey, who never came close to winning it and twice finished completely out of the money after turning pro four years ago.

Soft-spoken Mickey let her clubs do the talking at Forest Lake as she smashed the hex with authority, performing the unusual feat of taking the lead at the start and holding it all the way.

Any thoughts of a possible title playoff on Sunday were squelched by Mickey in the opening round of Saturday's 36-hole finale.

Leading Uruguay's talented and colorful Fay Crocker by only one shot and little Louise Suggs by just three, Miss Wright blazed around Forest Lake's 6,240 yards in 70 strokes while Fay needed 76 and Louise slipped to 75.

When the final 18-hole round started, Mickey held a commanding seven-stroke bulge over Fay while Louise trailed by eight. Mickey finished with a steady, conservative 74 to seize the crown.

Miss Suggs closed with 37-34—71, her finest round of the tourney, to grab 2nd place at 295. Miss Crocker shot 74 at the finish to take 3rd spot with 297.

The facts and figures reveal Mickey's remarkable steadiness. In four trips over Forest Lake's par 37-36—73 course, Mickey had nothing higher than a five on her card.

She fired 14 birdies, 47 pars, 10 bogies and one-double-bogey. She one-putted 28 greens and required 118 putts altogether, slightly below 30 per round.

★ ★ ★

Mickey's first U.S.G.A. Open championship enriched her by $1,800 and boosted her 1958 earnings to $7,624, tops on the circuit. It was her largest single jackpot since she became a pro.

Defending champion Betsy Rawls shot a brilliant 70 on the closing round to claim 6th place with a 304 total. Anne Quast gained low amateur honors and a three-way tie for 9th with a score of 307.

Michigan's best was professional Wiffi Smith of St. Clair, who finished 7th at 305.

Here she does some putting on the 18th green for the benefit of motion picture photographers at the conclusion of the 72-hole tournament. Waterford Nine Pulls Triple Play

But Loses in Legion Game to Birmingham; Milford, Clawson Win

Milford defeated Royal Oak 4-3 in 10 innings, two Clawson pitchers combined for a two-hitter to blank Berkley 4-0 and Waterford remained winless bowing to Birmingham 6-3 in Jr. Legion play yesterday.

An unearned run with two out in the 10th gave Milford its 2nd triumph against two losses and a tie. Terry Anderson hurled a three-hitter but was hindered by six errors behind him. He fanned nine.

Dave Boenning, who went six innings, and Dave Lequier were the Clawson hurlers. John Wiesen tripled in two runs in the 1st and scored on a sacrifice fly to decide the outcome early. Lee Stritmatter had three hits for the victors. Clawson is now 3-1.

Waterford led early 1-0 and pulled a triple play bt still could not dent the win column. Relief worker Max Evans was the loser. Johnson was the victor.

First baseman Jim Tashky and shortstop Dave Parker were the key men in the triple play. Birmingham had runners at 1st and at 2nd when Tashky caught a line drive and stepped on 1st. He then fired to Parker who bobbled the ball but recovered in time to throw a man out trying to reach 3rd.

Trotters and Pacers Move to Northville

DETROIT (AP) — Harness racing, after a record-setting stand at Hazel Park Raceway, moved into suburban Northville Downs tonight for a six-week stand.

Trotters and pacers bowed out at Hazel Park Saturday night ending a 42-night stand which proved to be the biggest meet yet in Michigan.

Crowds totaling 293,602 passed $14,959,211 through the pari-mutuel windows during the Hazel Park meet. Track officials said betting this year was up 31 per cent over last year.

The $10,000 Trans-America pace, one of the big stake races at Northville, will be run Fourth of July night.

Waterford May Quit Junior Legion League

A special practice session called for Tuesday night at 6:30 may determine whether or not Waterford remains in the district Jr. Legion Baseball League.

All members of the team and any other township residents interested in playing ball are welcome to attend the workout. A small response may result in withdrawing the team from the loop, Legion officials said today.

GENOA, Italy—Ted Wright, Detroit, stopped Michel Francois, Paris, 6 (weights unavailable).

One-Sided Tilts in City Softball

Lopsided contests were the rule Sunday in a six-game City League softball program at Beaudette and North Side parks.

Four games were played in the men's leagues, with Eugene Mayer's shutout for Blue Star Drive-In the best example of first-rate pitching. Mayer blanked Stadium Inn on six hits as Blue Star gained a 3-0 decision.

The Lakeside Royals trounced Borden's, 9-2; Franklin Products walloped State Hospital, 10-4, and the Pontiac Police drubbed O'Neil Realty, 11-6, to round out the men's slate.

In Women's League action, Katy Boykins twirled a five-inning one-hit whitewash and Effie Seay and Marlene Sternberger each clouted a two-run homer as the All-Stars crushed Pursley Ambulance, 22-0. Michigan Bell handed Costello Trucking a 7-4 setback in the other women's contest.

Jacobson Finishes 8th

Russ Jacobson of Pontiac won the first heat in the feature qualifying at the Mt. Clemens Speedway yesterday, but finished 8th in the main event after breaking an axle. Winner was Jim Schaffer of New Castle, Penna.

Aussie Thomson 4 to 1 Favorite

Stranahan Tops Among 12 U.S. Entries; Play Starts Today

ST. ANNE'S-ON-THE-SEA, England (UPI) — Australia's Peter Thomson was rated the 4 to 1 title favorite in the opening qualifying round of the British Open golf championship today while Frank Stranahan, a 20 to 1 shot, led a weak 12-man American delegation into action.

A grand total of 340 golfers from 17 nations was slated to tee off today in search of the crown won last year by South Africa's Bobby Locke for the fourth time.

Thomson, a three-time winner of the title, was picked by the oddsmen as the favorite over Gary Player of South Africa, who came close recently to winning the U.S. Open championship and is rated at 6 to 1 here, Locke at 7 to 1, and Harold Henning of Britain, also 7 to 1.

Stranahan, the handsome blond sparkplug heir from Toledo, Ohio, was the only American on whom the bookmakers bothered to quote odds, a sure tipoff that the American group here—like the U. S. entries in the tennis championships now going on at Wimbledon—is figured as the weakest in many years.

In addition to Stranahan, the Americans entered here were pros: 1932 British Open champion Gene Sarazen of Germantown, N.Y.; Vic Ghezzi of New York; Errie Ball of Oak Park, Ill.; and Jim Ferrier of San Francisco; and amateurs Tim Holland of Rockville Centre, N.Y.; Clarke Hardwick of Los Angeles, E. Fred Brown of Los Angeles; Otto Prochazka of Arcsley-on-Hudson, N.Y.; and military servicemen Monte Bradley of Hillsboro, Tex.; Charles Jennings of Medford, N.J.; and Ed Kotlarczyk of Holland, Ohio.

Palmer Wins Long Island Tourney

EAST NORWICH, N.Y. (AP)—It's getting to be old stuff for Arnold Palmer, this collecting top money in golf tournaments.

The $50,000 Long Island Open which he won yesterday was his third victory of the year, and the 11th since he turned pro in 1955, and although he isn't sneering at the $9,000 he picked up here it still isn't the biggest check he has collected.

That was for $11,200, earned at a Masters this year by the young man from Latrobe, Pa., who is top money winner on the pro circuit with $37,564.

Three players who didn't win yesterday, however, were more than ordinarily happy. They are Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., Jay Hebert, of Sanford, Fla., and Al Mengert, of Westfield, N.J.

Fairfield got $3,000 for his third place finish, Hebert $4,600 for finishing second, and Mengert $1,675 for tieing for seventh.

They were the largest checks the three ever earned in a tournament.

Plutocrat Palmer won practically as he pleased in the 72 hole event. He took the lead with a record-setting 66 the first day, increased it the next two days, and held his own with a par 71 yesterday to finish with 273, five strokes ahead of Hebert.

It was the biggest winning margin of the year on the pro tour and the only tournament except the National Open in which the first round leader has held his lead without being tied.

Palmer, who says he is perfecting a new putting stance, was on his way to winning by an even larger margin until he ran into trouble on the 15th and 17th yesterday. Until then he was two under par for the round.

The tournament, like the American League race, turned into a battle for runner-up honors. First it was George Bernardin of Miami Springs, Fla., and E. J. "Dutch" Harrison of St. Louis who shared that spot at the end of the first day.

Gas Stations, Taverns, Grocery Stores Their Favorite Targets Here

Burglars and thieves were active over the weekend with gas stations, taverns and grocery stores their favorite targets.

Burglars broke into the Cities Service Station, 842 N. Perry St. and took change from coin machines and a battery valued at $12.

Pierre Gulf Service, 684 East Blvd., also reported a burglary in which spark plugs valued at $75 were taken and a telephone coin box looted.

George's Market, 462 S. Saginaw St., was the intended victim of two burglars but they were apprehended in the building. Arrested were Clarence Reed, 17, of 217 Orchard Lake Ave., and a juvenile.

★ ★ ★

A salesman for Liggitt and Myers Tobacco Co., Robert G. Hamilton, of Royal Oak, told police thieves broke into his truck and took 60 cartons of cigarettes valued at $136. The truck was parked at Turk and S. Saginaw Sts. Saturday when the burglary occurred.

Orchard Lake Tavern, 404 Orchard Lake Ave., was burglarized Sunday and about $30 taken from three coin machines.

Thefts reported included that of $230 in cash and a $30 check from a cash register in the women's wear department of the J. C. Penny Store, 17 S. Saginaw St.

Mrs. Fred Scribner, of 126 Mark St., told police that as she and her husband were watching television, she saw a man in her kitchen. The thief grabbed her purse containing $14 in cash, and fled through a side door.

Bob Considine Reports:

British Traitor Dr. Fuchs to Be Set Free

LONDON — Dr. Klaus Fuchs, the physicist whose delivery of A-bomb and H-bomb secrets to the Soviet Union helped to alter world history, will leave Wakefield Jail later this year. The British have offered him several inducements to stay in Britain. There is some reason to believe that there have been calculated overtures from America, too.

★ ★ ★

But indications now are that the master traitor, who was stripped of his British citizenship in 1951, will go directly to Leipzig in Communist East Germany to visit his father — after which it seems probable that he will offer his rare genius to Russia.

Fuchs' defection over a period stretching between 1942 and 1949 is credited with delivering to Russian and captured German physicists an immense store of research and development. It unquestionably aided them in their remarkably fast demolition of America's atomic bomb monopoly. Had Fuchs been an American he would have met the fate of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, death in the electric chair at Sing Sing.

But in today's world, where the balance of power between the west and the communist world is so sensitized, physical possession of a physicist of Fuchs' stature can override moral revulsion.

It hardy sleems likely that the British offers to him have come from Harwell, the British Los Alamos where Fuchs once headed the theoretical physics division. Private atomic industries in Britain, sensitive to what Fuchs might now be able to tell the Russians after eight years of theorizing and study in prison, would consider the spy's retention a ten strike. A source close to Scotland Yard insists that several American firms feel much the same way and have informally got the word to Fuchs.

Fuchs' sentence for his crime against humanity was modest compared to those meted out to American members of the communist apparatus. In addition to the executed Rosenbergs, Harry Gold, a messenger boy in the intrigue, and later principal government witness, was given a 30-year term. Sgt. David Greenglass, who betrayed plans for the intricate triggering mechanism of the A-bomb, and later helped send his sister Mrs. Rosenberg to the chair, drew a 15-year sentence.

Fuchs, who confessed to telling all he knew, was given 14 years, the maximum permitted by the British Official Secrets Act, under which he was tried. He has been a placid and studious prisoner and therefore is eligible for parole this fall.

Dr. Alan Nunn May, who while working in Canada sold much valuable information and even a sample of uranium-235 for $750 and two bottles of scotch, was given a 10-year sentence. He was released last year, and authorized a statement to the effect that if he had his life to live over he'd do exactly as he did.

18 Reserves Join City Police

Private Citizens Offer Spare Time to Assist Regulars at No Pay

Eighteen new members were sworn into the Pontiac police reserves Saturday at the group's annual banquet held in the American Legion Hall, Auburn Heights.

The reserves are made up of private citizens who devote spare time to doing emergency police work for the Pontiac Police Dept. They buy their own uniforms and equipment and work without pay.

The new men were sworn in by Chief Herbert W. Straley and presented their certificates of completion of training by City Manager Walter K. Willman.

Mayor William W. Donaldson presented trophies for marksmanship to Reserve Chief John Grahan, Capt. Glenn Weiler and Officer Bryan Mathews.

Featured speaker was Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland who discussed the need for more active participation in public affairs.

Judge Holland recounted the ultimate fates of six of the signers of Declaration of Independence to point out that the Founding Fathers suffered great personal and material losses to achieve a free country.

Pat Boone Sparks Church Youth Rally

DALLAS (AP) — About 16,000 persons, most of them teen-agers, filled Dallas Memorial Auditorium yesterday to hear singer Pat Boone and star athletes at a Church of Christ youth rally.

★ ★ ★

Another 2,000 persons were turned away from the rally, which its sponsors said was the largest of its kind in the denomination's history.

When Boone walked onto the stage, he clutched a blue hymnal. Several hundred teen-agers were hanging on the edge of the stage. Boone paused briefly, smiled and said "Let's sing."

★ ★ ★

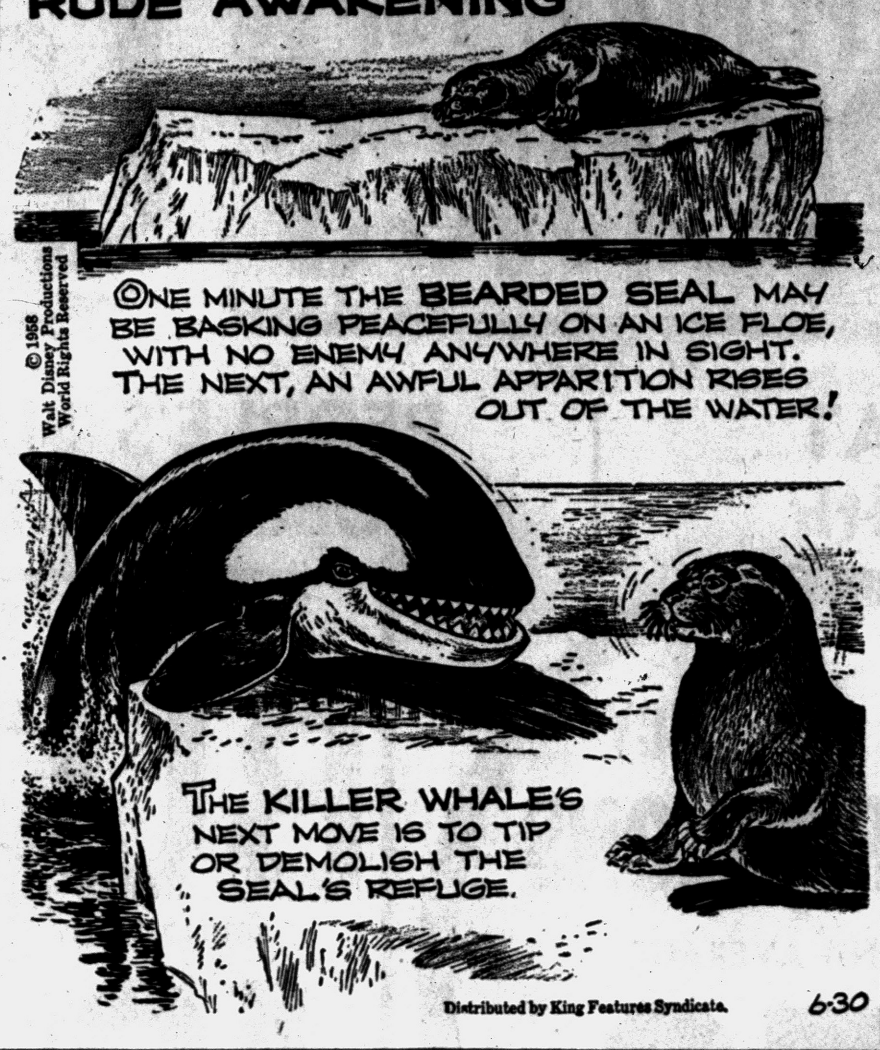

The audience joined him as he sang "On Jordan's Stormy Banks I Stand."

After the rally he told reporters, "I believe the best way to make Christians out of young people and keep them Christians is to get them inside a church."

The game, rummy, gets it name from the British word, "rum," which means odd or queer.

Lana Turner Will Star in Race Relations Film

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lana Turner's return to the screen will show her as a glamorous, trouble-haunted actress.

★ ★ ★

Her first film since her daughter's slaying of John Stompanato will be "Imitation of Life." It's a remake of the 1934 Claudette Colbert starter which was a sensation in its time.

"Actually, it was before its time," said producer Ross Hunter. "Its treatment of race relations was too advanced for that era. Today, I think the story will be more readily accepted."

★ ★ ★

The story concerns a widow (Lana) who moves her daughter from a small town to New York. The only work she has done is in her late husband's little theaetr, so she tries to get work as an actress. She hires as housekeeper a Negro woman who also has a daughter, a girl of light skin.

The relationship between the two mothers becomes strong, and tragedy occurs when the light-skinned daughter rejects the Negro woman.

★ ★ ★

"It's a real tearjerker," Ross admitted, "but I think it can be very effective — not as obvious as 'Magnificent Obsession' (which he also re-produced).

"And I think Lana can do a great job in it."

He conceded he had a hard time persuading her to do the role. She turned down the script but agreed to talk to him about it. Hunter went to her house, script under arm.

"I read the whole script to her, acting out all the roles," the producer said. "I'm a lousy actor, but by the end of the script, we were both in tears. She was sold."

★ ★ ★

Still unsettled is Lana's acceptability at the box office. "Peyton Place," which was in release at the time of the tragedy, did blockbuster business. But "Another Time, Another Place" did poorly.

"I think that was because of poor planning," Hunter observed. "It wasn't a bad picture. But they threw it out into release without any advance publicity, hoping the headlines would help sell it. That never works."

Two AF Jet Tankers Crack East-West Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — Two Air Force jet tankers beat the east-west speed record between London and New York City yesterday.

Alpha, the first of the two U.S. planes, flashed over Idlewild Airport at 2:20 p.m. It had made the 3,460 miles nonstop flight from London in 5 hours 51 minutes 24.8 seconds.

The plane landed minutes later at Floyd Bennett Field in Brooklyn.

Right behind Alpha streaked its sister ship Bravo, which took 5 hours 53 minutes 21 seconds. It landed at Westover Air Force Base, Mass., its home base.

Swept from the record books was British Capt. J. W. Hackett's mark of 7 hours 29 minutes established Aug. 23, 1955.

★ ★ ★

The U.S. planes, four-engine KC135s of the Strategic Air Command, set new marks of less than 5½ hours for the New York-London flight last Friday. A third jet tanker crashed just after takeoff Friday at Westover. Fifteen men were killed, six newsmen among them.

Memorial services for the victims were held at Westover yesterday.

★ ★ ★

Col. Harry Burrell of Omaha, Neb., 40-year-old commander of the flight, described the return trip as smooth.

Alpha's pilot, Maj. Burl Davenport of San Antonio, Tex., maintained an average speed just under 588 miles an hour. The plane's top speed was 630 miles an hour.

British-French Talks Continue

Macmillan, De Gaulle Reportedly Split Over A-Weapons, Free Trade

PARIS (AP) — French Premier de Gaulle and British Prime Minister Macmillan continued a speedy survey of international problems today in a flurry of good will but with no definite agreements on major questions between them.

Macmillan continued his talks with De Gaulle, while British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd talked with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

Informed sources said the two government chiefs were still far apart on De Gaulle's determination to make France an atomic weapon power and Macmillan's desire for the formation of a 17-nationa Eropean free trade zone.

★ ★ ★

They did agree in lengthy talks over the dinner table and under the elms of the French Premier's garden that it was vital to preserve the independence of Lebanon and prevent infiltration of outside Arab and Communist influences into that Middle East country.

Macmillan arrived by plane yesterday for the brief visit. Sources close to the Briton said the talks went very well.

★ ★ ★

De Galle, it was learned, stressed France's desire to join the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union as an atomic power. Macmillan reportedly replied that the British thoroughly appreciated this desire, but added the British consider it "preferable to keep th atomic club as small as possible."

Macmillan went on to say there were dangers in excessive testing of nuclear weapons.

British sources stressed both Macmillan and De Gaulle agreed the best solution would be an international agreemnt for banning both the testing and production of nuclear weapons.

In the talks on a European Common Market, the British urged it as necessary to maintain the unity of Europe. De Gaulle facing France.

The two men also agreed on the necessity of trying to get an East-West summit meeting going, the importance of the Geneva talks on the detection of atomic tests and the vitality of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

★ ★ ★

British sources said they were delighted to find De Gaulle shared their doubts about Soviet intentions and had no intention of following an independent policy toward the Soviet Union rather than the present system of full consultations with France's allies.

Terror Reigns Still on Cyprus

Greek Insurgent Leader Threatens to Renew Attacks on British

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Terrorist violence continued on Cyprus today and the leader of the Greek Cypriot underground threatened to renew attacks on the British unless they negotiate with Archbishop Makarios on independence for the island.

An unidentified gunman in the southern port of Limassol killed a Turk Cypriot as he bicycled to work at his barbershop in the Greek quarter this morning. Masked terrorists in the western Famagusta district attacked a group of Greek Cypriots last night.

The threat to open "the door admitting the god of war" was contained in leaflets signed by Dighenis, underground name of EOKA leader Col. George Grivas. The leaflets said diplomacy would not longer be possible unless Britain confers with Makarios, the Greek Cypriot leader now in exile at Athens.

★ ★ ★

EOKA's terror campaign has been directed at forcing out the British so the island can unite with Greece. The Turkish Cypriot minority opposes this for fear it will get second-class status. Neither side has shown much interest in Britain's plan for all three groups to share the island's administration.

The terrorists attacked a group of left-wingers near the village of Akhna after they left a stormy town meeting during which the left and right tried to patch up their differences. One left-winger was seriously wounded and nine others were beaten up.

Violence also flared between Greek and Turkish Cypriots in the western Pahpos district after a Greek Cypriot butcher was found shot to death on a mountain road.

Armed with sticks and homemade weapons, the slain man's friends entered Greek village areas. British troops stopped the rioting that followed by clamping on a curfew. The clashes injured two persons.

Traffic in Waterford Drops Off Slightly

Truck traffic on Dixie Highway in Waterford Township, is down eleven per cent for the first half of this year, as compared to 1957, and car traffic has decreased about seven per cent, according to Michigan State Highway reports.

Records show that approximately 1,600 trucks pass over the state weighing scales in Drayton Plains during a 24-hour period, as compared to last yer's 1,800 daily "weighing-in" operations.

The traffic hazard of southbound trucks making a left turn from Dixie Highway to the Drayton Plains weighing station, will be eliminated when the U.S. 10 Okland County Expressway has been constructed, according to Ralph Swan of the highway dept.

Plans are being made for a new weighing station to be located on each side of the new highway in Oakland County, and the present station will be abandoned, Swar said.

Japan derives 60 per cent of its power for industry from coal and about 28 per cent from water power. The remainder is derived from natural gas and petroleum sources.

Scientists Meeting at Geneva to Discuss Nuclear Test Ban

GENEVA (AP) — Top-ranking Western scientists planned a meeting here today to work out their strategy for the monthlong conference on ways to insure compliance with a ban on tests explosions of nuclear weapons.

Although the United States still refused to agree that a test ban itself would be the chief aim of the conference opening tomorrow, there was every expectation that scientists from the Soviet bloc would participate.

★ ★ ★

Meeting today to plan joint policy for the talks were the four chief Western delegates: Dr. James B. Fisk of the United States, Sir John Cockcroft of Britain, Prof. Yves Andre Rochard of France and Dr. Ormond Solandt of Canada.

A seven-member Soviet advance party arrived last night. It included the delegation chief, Prof. Yevgeni K. Fedorov.

Eleven more scientists and aides were expected from Prague today. Presumably they were to include delegates from Czechoslovakia, Poland and Romania, rounding out the Communist group.

Arrival of the Russians raised Western hopes that Moscow would not carry out its threat to boycott the conference unless the United States in effect committed itself in advance to a suspension of nuclear weapon tests. But Fedorov, asked whether his group would take part in the conference, would only say, "we will wait and see. Please be patient."

★ ★ ★

The United States has maintained all along that the conference must be concerned only with the technicalities of enforcing any test ban and not with the political issue of the ban itself.

Someone suggested the government should get closer to the people, and one taxpayer moaned, "Closer? They already have a hand in my pocket!" . . . You may be able to fool your friends about your age, but don't try it on a salami sandwich at bedtime. —Earl Wilson.

Wheat Futures Break Sharply

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures prices broke rather sharply in early dealings today on the Board of Trade. Within the first few minutes the setback had run to as much as 1½ cents a bushel.

Dealers said there was a moderate volume of hedging in both wheat and corn along with liquidation by some speculative interests.

Near the end of the first hour wheat was ¾ to 1 15/8 cent a bushel lower, July $1.83¾; corn ⅜ to 1 cent lower, July $1.33⅛; oats unchanged to ⅛ lower, July 63¾; rye ¼ to ½ lower, July $1.26½; soybeans ⅜ to ⅞ lower, July $2.23⅞; lard unchanged to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $12.20.

2 Unions Agree to Wage Cuts

Join in Bolstering Firm at Detroit Threatened With Extinction

DETROIT (AP) — Two Detroit unions have agreed to accept a 12½ per cent wage cut for members working at Douglas & Lomason Co. in an effort to put the plating company in a better competitive position.

Charles E. Little, president of Local 669, Allied Industrial Workers, said yesterday the decision was reached unanimously at a joint meeting of his local with Local 1, Metal Polishers and Platers Union.

Little said the pay cut will range between 30 and 45 cents an hour for the company's 342 employes. The average wage for men at the plant is $2.72 an hour, and, for women, $2.37.

Union negotiation committee members will meet with company representatives today to sign a new two-year contract encompassing the paycut.

Douglas & Lomason, at one time, employed 1,055 workers. Little said some 300 employes have been laid off recently and another 400 dropped from employment rolls because of long unemployment.

"For the last six months, the company has been in a bad position and unable to compete because its wage rates are considerably higher than those of its competitors," Little said.

★ ★ ★

"We realize something had to be done, so the union went all out to help the company and preserve the jobs of its members.

"There has been good relations between union and management here since 1955. Our decision to help them was unanimous."

2,700 Workers Idled at 2 Plants

Plymouth and Chrysler Closed Today in Repeat Labor Dispute

DETROIT (AP) — Plymouth body and assembly plants of Chrysler Corp. in Detroit were closed today shortly after the start of the day shift, idling 2,700 workers in a recurrence of a dispute which shut the plants last Friday.

★ ★ ★

The company said some trim department workers again refused to do work assigned them. About 1,500 other employes were sent home.

A body shortage resulted at the assembly plant, making it necessary to lay off 1,200 employes there, the company said.

Union officials had no immediate comment. Last week they accused the company of a speedup.

United Auto Workers bargaining teams, supported by a 14-to-1 membership vote to strike if necessary, resumed new contract talks with the Big Three.

Strike votes at UAW locals at General Motors, Ford and Chrysler plants throughout the country were asked by UAW President Walter P. Reuther to support negotiators.

Tricky Month as Statistics Go

To Need Scorecard for Business in July

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — You can't tell the business players in July without a scorecard. If you accept the news on face value you could run up a lot of errors.

★ ★ ★

It's a tricky month as far as the statistics go. This year there are some added confusions.

Persons anxious to believe the recession is over and recovery underway and those fearful that the more cheerful news of late is a flash in the pan signifying little could be fooled by July.

Here are some of the things likely to happen that the wary should take as cause neither for panic nor over evaluation:

The rise in steel production is one of the chief factors cited by those thinking the recession is over. But steel production is sliding again and the weekly figures in July may seem sad.

The growing custom of plant shutdowns for vacations in industries using steel may be more widespread and last longer this year than usual. The burst of steel orders for June delivery to beat any price rise may have borrowed quite a bit of what would have been normal July ordering.

★ ★ ★

So a cutback in steel output in July, even if more than usual, shouldn't lead you to the conclusion that the general economy is turning down again. Watch August and September orders before making up your mind.

In the allied metals of copper, zinc, lead and aluminum, price and output confusion cfould last well into July. Politics adds much of the uncertainty as various proposals to aid the industries are kicked around in Congress.

But there is also a labor factor. Aluminum wages go up automatically August 1, just as steel's do tomorrow. And copper and steel users will be taking plant vacations, so July statistics on orders may give little clue to the fall outlook.

Textiles will look bad for several weeks as mills close for various vacation periods. Some are taking extended ones this year. The hope is that inventories will be corrected and the industry ready for an advance — you'll know later in the year.

The industrial output index, which took a comforting rise as a result of the flurry in steel, may be off more than usal this July. Earlier changeover to auto factories along with slack production of 1958 models while dealers wrestle with stocks could make the index drop more than usual in July.

Also, this would be reflecting past troubles more than it would be forecasting fall events.

In a few days you will get the government's figures on unemployment in June. If the figures jump from May, remember that added to the unpleasant total of those now jobless will be the newly graduated and other students looking for work.

Personal income figures, on the other hand, are due to rise. That doesn't mean that yours will necessarily, or that most folk will be better off. It means that some workers are getting automatic wage scale boosts. But most of the jump will come from the 10 per cent rise for government employes, with a sizable sum of retroactive pay being handed out.

★ ★ ★

July figures, in other words, may seem to mean more or less than they really do, unless you read them calmly with the background in mind.

Her $200,000 Fling Over, Minister, Wife Try Again

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — The Rev. James A. Doubleday began a month's leave of absence today in an effort to salvage his marriage and the $200,000 inheritance his wife lost in a romantic fling with a cowboy.

The Rev. Mr. Doubleday did not conduct yesterday's three services in Grace Episcopal Church in suburban Kirkwood, although his church vestrymen previously had given him a vote of confidence.

It later was revealed the vestrymen had given the Rev. Mr. Doubleday a month's leave of absence so he could take his family on a vacation. The church services yesterday were conducted by Dean Charles Rakoff, dean of Christ Cathedral in St. Lois.

The vestrymen also stood by the minister last April when his wife, Barbara, 33, left him and their two sons, Michael, 8, and David, 6, to go to Reno, Nev., to seek a divorce. She took her $200,000 inheritance, in the form of cash and bonds, along with her.

Although members of the minister's congregation appeared divided on whether to retain him, neither the Rev. Mr. Doubleday nor his wife was available for comment.

★ ★ ★

The minister last week said he would take his wife back and there would be no divorce. The couple rejected other questions about their future as too "personal."

Still a mystery is what happened to the bulk of Mrs. Doubleday's inheritance.

The FBI has charged the money was stolen by Raymond Lewis Headspeth, 27, a dashing cowboy who shared a motel with her at Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Doubleday said the inheritance was in her car when Headspeth drove off and deserted her. However, only $2,000 was found in the car when it was located in Phoenix.

★ ★ ★

Headspeth, who was arrested in Miami, Fla., Friday has insisted Mrs. Doubleday "gave" the money to him.

Shoots Old Friend for Striking Wife

BAD AXE (AP) — A reunion of two friends ended in the fatal shooting of one at a farm home yesterday.

State Police Cpl. Carl Harrison said that Harvey Deer Jr., 33, a farmer, told him he shot and killed Earl E. Myers, 49, Detroit truck driver, when the latter struck Mrs. Myers, 44.

The group had just returned from a tavern visit and the Myers couple got into an argument, Deer was quoted as saying.

Deer and Myers had been friends for years and the Myers were making a weekend visit at the Deer farm. Deer is being held for investigation of murder, State Police said.

Myers was shot with a shotgun. After the shooting Deer called police and surrendered at a relative's home.

Two Boys Burn in Family Car

Play With Matches While Awaiting Family; Their Condition Critical

DETROIT (AP) — Two little Kentucky brothers were critically burned yesterday while playing with matches inside the family automobile where they had been put to keep them from mischief.

Jerry Johnson, 5, was hospitalized with first, second and third degree burns over his entire body. His 3-year-old brother Bill suffered 80 per cent burns.

The youngsters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Johnson of Hihat, Ky., were inside a nearby house visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bush. The parents were getting ready to load the car for the return trip to Kentucky when Mrs. Johnson cried that the car was on fire.

The boys had been put in the automobile a few minutes earlier to keep them out of mischief while their parents packed. A third son, Daniel, 17, was in the house.

Johnson, Bush and the children's grandfather, Martin Hall also of Hihat, rushed to the car. When they opened the doors they we re meet by tongues of flame and breaking glass. The interior of the auto was burned out.

The boys were dragged unconscious from the front seat.

At the hospital a book of matches was discovered in the pocket of Bill's seared blue short pants.

Give Pigs Iron Shots, Livestock Expert Says

CHICAGO (UPI) — A livestock specialist at the University of Illinois advises swine raisers to prevent anemia in their pigs by giving them routine iron injections.

G. R. Carlisle said winter-farrowed pigs haven't cornered the market on anemia. It can happen any time pigs spend the first few weeks on concrete or wooden floors away from dirt.

Pigs with dirty feet aren't so bad. Carlisle pointed out that all pigs not having access to dirt are subject to anemia until they start eating feed.

People Sickened by Rebellion

Brother Against Brother in Lebanon

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

TRIPOLI, Lebanon (AP) — In this normally quiet little city of northern Lebanon people are getting sick of their nation's drawn-out crisis.

They don't even know what to call it, but whatever it is they have been hurt cruelly.

★ ★ ★

"Call it a fight, call it a national sickness if you like," one young officer said sadly, "but don.t call it war. They are our brothers up there in the hills and we don't make war on our brothers."

Whatever it is, this thing has been torturing the people of the Tripoli area. Christian fights against Christian, Moslem against Moslem — and Christians and Moslems fight together against the government. It's not a conventional war up here at all — it's all mixed up.

★ ★ ★

This area is one of the main sources of Christian opposition which is insisting that President Camille Chamoun, himself a Christian, resign under fire. Tripoli is predominantly a Moslem town with many people akin to the neighboring Syrians, but the dominating factor has always been a sort of Christian aristocracy.

It is here, if anywhere, that the rebels must hit hardest if they are to have any hopes of success, and people here realize this.

★ ★ ★

Day after day people stay in their homes while bullets whistle through the city and shellfire thunders in the hills. Most of the city's shops are closed. Only a few grocery stores remain open in the old part of the city. The streets are deserted except for a few stray pedestrians and a trickle of automobile traffic.

Entrenched rebels are able to fire down from the city's hillsides into the security force positions in the streets. Spokesmen for the security forces give this picture of the rebels:

★ ★ ★

Inside the city proper there are 350 rebels. About 150 serve directly under rebel leader Raschid Karami. Another 100 Syrians and Lebanese are members of the Syrian Arab Socialist Resurrection party. The rest are members of the Palestinian Refugee Organization and violent partisans of President Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

★ ★ ★

Ten to 15 miles north of Tripoli the army is holding a long line against determined hit-and-run attacks by rebel forces who may number in the thousands. There is no way of determining the strength of these forces since they wear civilian clothing and use guerrilla tactics.

★ ★ ★

Spokesmen for the security forces say the rebels are amply supplied since they control all the northern Akkar area and therefore the routes from Syria.

Government partisans here insist there is an uninterrupted flow of supplies from Syria, which is part of Nasser's republic. But they also say they suspect the ardor for the rebellion has passed its peak and is beginning to decline.

They admit the security forces are not attacking or counterattacking in full strength but they say this is because the government does not want to turn the fighting into an all-out war.

Whatever the conflict is, people are taking a beating and their nerves are badly frayed. Those who can afford it have fled to the mountains, hoping to wait out the fighting. But most of the people here are condemned to stick it out under fire.

REGISTRATION NOTICE — For General Primary Election, Tuesday, August 5, 1958.

To the Qualified Electors of City of Pontiac, County of Oakland, State of Michigan.

Notice is hereby given that in conformity with the "Michigan Election Law," I, the undersigned Clerk, will, upon any day, except Sunday and a legal holiday, the day of any regular or special election or primary election, receive for registration the name of any legal voter in said Township, City or Village not already registered who may apply to me personally for such registration Provided, however, that I can receive no names for registration during the time intervening between the thirtieth day before any regular, special or official primary election and the day of such election.

Notice is hereby given that I will be at my office Monday, July 7, 1958, last day the thirtieth day preceding said election as provided by Section 498, Act No. 116, Public Acts of 1954, from 8 o'clock a.m. until 8 o'clock p.m. on said day for the purpose of reviewing the registration and registering such of the qualified electors in said Township, City or Village as shall properly apply therefor.

The name of no person but an actual resident of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the Constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

Elector unable to make personal application, procedure.

Sec. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located, may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

Unregistered persons not entitled to vote.

Sec. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this state, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P.A. 1954.)

Transfer of registration, application, time.

Sec. 506. Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the 30 days next preceding any election or primary election, (unless such 30th day shall fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he had not resided (30) days next preceding any election or primary election.

Transfer of registration election day.

Sec. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

In Memoriam 2

IN MEMORY OF OUR LOVING mother, Mrs. Lena Vera Blackburn, who passed away one year ago today June 30, 1957.
Dear Mother, you are not forgotten,
Though on earth you are no more;
Still in memory you are with us,
As you always were before.
You're not forgotten Mother dear,
Nor ever shall you be;
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
Sadly missed by her four sons,
Howard, Sam Bob and Wayne.
Two daughters, Betty and Vera.

In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, E. Jennie Hall, who passed away one year ago today, June 30, 1957.
One precious to our hearts has gone,
The voice we loved is stilled;
The place made vacant in our home,
Can never more be filled.
Our Father in Heaven called our Mother,
And though on earth her body lies;
Her Soul is safe in Heaven,
Sadly missed by her daughters,
Julia and Jessie and her grandchildren.

Groucho's Aide Given Program

Home Viewers Able to Compete for Prize of $10,000

Editor's Note-The writer of this column is master of ceremonies on ABC-TV's new "Anybody Can Play" program, which bows July 6.

By GEORGE FENNEMAN

NEW YORK (AP) — For years, Groucho Marx has kiddingly challenged me by declaring, "Fenneman, if you're so smart, why don't you get your own show?"

★ ★ ★

And so when television producer John Guedel, who's been my boss on Groucho's "You Bet Your Life" program since 1947, recently offered me the chance to emcee his new show, "Anybody Can Play," I jumped at the opportunity.

Groucho, when he heard the news, told me: "George, I'm glad you have your own TV show — I'm going right out and buy a radio."

When I take over as the Anybody Can Play emcee Sunday, July 6, on ABC-TV, I will be returning to the network that gave me one of my first jobs in radio—as a staff announcer on station KGO, in San Francisco in 1942.

Despite my elation that with my own show I can now take Groucho at his word, there is a far more serious reason as to why I am delighted with it.

Anybody Can Play is an audience participation show which has been especially tailored for the all-too-often neglected home viewer. Guedel, who invented the singing commercial as well as the audience participation show, has crammed a series of amusing and unusual games into the format.

Now all those arm-chair quiz masters at home can join in the fun — and win prizes too. Also the prizes that will be offered to the viewers at home far outdistance those that will go to the four contestants on the show.

Home viewers can compete for the $10,000 first prize. They also can win other cash prizes, convertibles, kitchens and condiments. Yes, "Anybody Can Play" — even Groucho.

With that kind of programming idea, I think you can't help but come out ahead.

It has always seemed to me that too many of our TV game and audience participation shows have quickly lost their excitement and interest because they confined themselves solely to the playing of one game over and over, and because it was forgotten that above all any show's primary reason for existence is to entertain.

The secret of a popular and lasting show, I believe, is a simple basic format which can be presented in a different way each week.

I think the audience participation show is going to be with us for a long time because the viewing audience enjoys watching people under the pressure of answering questions.

I know they will also delight in the chance to pit their own knowledge against that of the show's contestants.

When, in addition, the package is attractively wrapped and presented, there is a payoff in fun and prizes for everyone. That has been the secret of success of TV shows featuring stars like Groucho Marx and Art Linkletter. I hope, too, it bodes well for the success of Anybody Can Play.

I know Groucho will be watching — even if it's only to look at a pretty girl or to see if I steal any of his jokes.

Claims Need for Skid Rows

Professor Says Areas Emerged to Give Home to Many Alcoholics

LOS ANGELES (INS) — A University of Southern California professor has defended the "need" for Skid Rows.

Dr. Wilbert L. Hindman, a professor of business administration at the Los Angeles school, says that there will be a need for Skid Rows in progressive cities as long as there are Skid Row "personalities."

★ ★ ★

"We must recognize," Dr. Hindman says, "that Skid Row represents a spontaneously unplanned institutional pattern that emerged to fill a need for thousands of homeless alcoholics."

Dr. Hindman says to eliminate the most obnoxious "physical effects" of the Skid Row area is "attacking the problem from the wrong point of view."

The professor, who is a member of the National Committee on the Homeless Alcoholic, believes that an institutional way of rehabilitating the "defeated" Skid Row products is necessary.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Hindman says that more often than not, Skid Row demolition programs have little effect because adequate housing is not made available elsewhere for the residents.

He also called for the abolishment of the current "revolving door" police treatment whereby drunks are arrested and held in jails without vocational training or psychological treatment.

MAN BEHIND THE MONEY — George Fenneman will be the MC on ABC-TV's new quiz program, Anybody Can Play, which makes its debut Sunday, July 6. Dolores Reed is his assistant.

Here's Tip on Giving Fido His First Bath

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Giving your dog a bath the right way the first time can make succeeding baths a simple job.

Be sure to keep soap out of his eyes and water out of his ears. Don't have the water too deep, or too hot or cold.

Another good tip is to put a rubber mat in the bottom of the tub so your dog can keep a good footing while you wash him. Rinse him well and make sure he is completely dry before going outdoors.

★ ★ ★

Neither dogs or cats should be bathed until they are fully grown. Cats usually don't need baths if they get a daily brushing.

And just one more hint that will help you especially. Put a bag of steel wool in the bathtub drain. It will catch loose hair and prevent clogging.

Wives Spur Car Sales

NEW YORK—A study shows that 26.2 per cent of persons planning to buy a second automobile wanted it for the wife to use at home. The next largest group wanted a second car because the family lives in the suburbs, and the third-ranking group listed shopping as the reason for buying.

The harvests of birds' nests off the coast of South Viet Nam was excellent this year.

★ ★ ★

The nests, much sought after as the prime ingredient in bird's nest soup, were both plentiful and of high quality.

Vietnamese traveling in small boats completed the harvest at scores of small islands along the coast of Viet Nam.

Some of the most sought-after nests come from the islands off Nha Trang, about 300 kilometers north of Saigon.

★ ★ ★

The quality of the nests from Nha Trang is recognized as superior to all others, and they generally find their way to the tables of fussy gourmets in Hong Kong and Cholon.

VARIED COLORS

Nests also are found sometimes in the Philippines, at the Isles de la Sonde in France and in the mountains of Yunnan in Communist China. But, the coast of Viet Nam always has been recognized as the primary source of the nests.

The nests are built by small birds known to the Vietnamese as chim en bien, and they consist mostly of spittle from the birds.

Construction of the nests begins the end of January and continues through the end of March in the rocky cliffs and caves of the offshore islands.

★ ★ ★

The nests vary in color, depending on the color of the surrounding area. Nests built near the water generally are blue, those in black volcanic rock are grey-black.

The most sought-after nests are the red ones. It is said that the red nests are made by birds just before they die and contain blood.

The exact life span of the birds is not known.

TWO HARVESTS

The chim en bien usually lays two eggs in each nest. Collectors are careful to remove the eggs and lay them on the rocky ledges when taking the nests, then the parent birds return and start rebuilding nests for the eggs.

The rebuilding process generally continues until August, when a second collection is made. Nests taken during the second collection generally are of poorer quality than the first.

The nests are packed and shipped all over the world. A kilo (2.2046 pounds) of birds' nests (about 80 nests) this year will bring between 8,000 and 10,000 piastres ($100-$150).

★ ★ ★

Total annual collection off the coast of South Viet Nam is estimated at about 2,205 pounds with 550 pounds a year coming from the Nha Trang area.

In case you find some in the local market and want to know how to cook them, the nests should be washed in cold water, then cooked with vegetables and meat. The cooked nests look like masses of thin, white string and have a delicate flavor.

Dew Found Vital to Plant Life

It Occurs in Same Way That Water Forms on Pitcher of Iced Tea

WASHINGTON — Hard-headed scientists are elbowing poets aside to admire the dew.

Glistening droplets on grass and leaves, it has been learned, make up an important cog in nature's machinery. In some semi-arid places, dew is vital to plant life.

Dew does not fall from "the wings of clouds,' as Shelly put it. It does not fall at all. It is formed in the same way that water films a pitcher of iced tea, the National Geographic Society say.

When the sun goes down, the air cools and can no longer hold as much water vapor as it did during the day. The moisture condenses on leaves and other objects. When the temperature drops below freezing, dew becomes frost.

Dew is formed most heavily on clear nights of fall, when there are few clouds to interfere with the radiation of heat from the earth's surface. Muggy or windy nights also hamper dew formation.

Ancient peoples were wise in the uses of dew. Significant current experiments were inspired by the repeated use of dew in the imagery of the Old Testament.

"I will be as the dew to Israel," promised the Lord in Hosea 14:5. Moses, just before his death, blessed the tribe of Joseph with the words, "Blessed be his land for the precious things of heaven, for the dew. . ."

Pondering such statements, modern Israel has set up a network of dew-measuring stations. Experiments there show that some plants grow twice as fast with dew as without it.

State Excise Taxes at New High in '57

CHICAGO (UPI) — Americans are buying, smoking and driving more than ever, if the taxes they pay are any indication.

The Federation of Tax Administrators revealed that state excise tax collections for 1957 increased substantially over those of 1956. The figures increased for the year in spite of a turndown in business in the last quarter of 1957.

The federation said sales tax collections rose 8.3 per cent in 1957, to a total of $3,400,000,000.

Only three of the 33 states which collect general sales tax took in less than the year before, but all these were due to lowered rates.

Revenue from motor fuel taxes — in effect in all 48 states — rose 4.5 per cent to $2,900,000,000. Receipts from motor fuel taxes were lower in only five states.

Smoker-taxpayers in 42 states paid $608,000,000, up 7.4 per cent from 1956.

Ancient Papyrus May Come Back

Could Cause Reversion to Substitute

WASHINGTON — The human race may go back to writing on papyrus, the paper of ancient Egypt.

With whole forests disappearing into paper mills, scientists are hunting possible substitutes for wood pulp.

Paper can be made from a variety of plants, says the National Geographic Society. In the southeastern United States, paper is made from sugar cane whose juice has been extracted. Abroad, it is marsh plants such as the closely related papyrus and bulrush that are being tested.

Israel began envisaging a papyrus paper mill while reclaiming the Hule swamps north of the Sea of Galilee. If the plan is realized, papyrus will again prove a boon to the Jewish peope. Scholars believe that Moses's mother used papyrus for the "basket of bulrushes" in which she placed her child.

West German scientists have reported a new process for making paper from bulrushes.

The Max Planck Society's Hydro-Biological Institute at Plon, Germany, has had large quantities of bulrushes planted along the North Sea and Baltic Coasts. Requests for plants have come from Korea, Finland, Sweden, and Holland.

Papyrus paper was invented about 4,000 years ago and gradually replaced the clumsy clay tablets then in use. The paper was made by pressing and pounding together thin slices of papyrus pith.

The paper was good enough to last 2,000 years in a desert climate. To make books, papyrus sheets were glued end to end, forming a schroll many feet long.

Papyrus later gave way to paper made from animal skins — parchment from sheep and goats, and vellum from kids, ambs, and calves. But papyrus left an indelible mark on civilization: the word "paper" is an obvious corruption of "papyrus."

Ancients also made boats, sails, and awnings with papyrus. They ate papyrus, raw or boiled, and dried out the roots for fuel.

Lower Egypt's vast papyrus beds where a Pharaoh's daughter found the infant Moses have disappeared due to drainage. But the plant persists in the reaches of the Upper Nile. Israel's Lake Hule has almost impenetrable fields of papyrus growing higher than a man's head.

Two centuries ago a craftsman in Sicily rediscovered the method of making papyrus paper, and it is still being produced there on a small scale.

Cugat Wins $16,000, Keeps Lead in Quiz

NEW YORK (UPI) — Bandleader Xavier Cugat ran his television quiz earnings to $16,000 last night by correctly answerign questions about popular music on CBS' "The $64,000 Challenge."

In doing so, he defeated singer Lillian Roth, who was unable to answer her questions in the "Tin Pan Alley" category.

Cugat, who will return next week to try to increase his prize money, has said he will donate his winnings to a Spanish orphanage.

In another contest last night, Teddy Nadler of St. Louis tied at the $8,000 level with Dr. Richard Taylor Gore, a music professor at Wooster (Ohio) College, in the "Classical music" category.

It's unfair to say that kids have it easier nowadays. It's not easy driving to school through all that traffic . . . The way it sounds, a lot of people with bad coughs don't go to the doctor — they go to the theater. —Earl Wilson.

Public Must Exert More Care in Parks

CHICAGO (UPI) — Many Americans are scarring the beauty of national and state parks preserved for their pleasure.

Vandalism in the parks totals more than 12 million dollars annually, according to Howard Weaver, professor of recreation at the University of Illinois.

Millions of Americans are taking to the open road for fun and adventure, Weaver said, but these same persons have the potential of spoiling the very thing they seek to enjoy.

Money that goes down "rat holes" correcting vandalism could be used to acquire additional park areas and improve facilities.

Weaver set down some "good camping" manners which, if used, would cut down on park destruction: know and observe park or forest rules, place trash in containers, where containers are not available, burn all trash that will burn and bury the rest, never leave a campfire unattended, if necessary, dig a latrine to get rid of all body wastes and pick up all bits of trash before leaving campsite.

Fire Ravages Home in Independence Sunday

A vacant house owned by George Tompkins, of 5895 Mill St., Independence Township caught fire Sunday afternoon causing $1,500 damage.

Tompkins told Waterford Township firemen that plumbers had been feathering pipes and sparks flew up between inner wall partitions of the $12,500 building.

Damage Forest Trees

WASHINGTON — The United States Forest Service says porcupines cause more than $1,500,000 worth of damage a year to forest trees in the Pacific Northwest alone. Other estimates place at $6,000 the damage to trees and other property a porcupine will cause during his lifetime.

New York City has about 550 miles of developed waterfront and employs an estimated 250,000 persons in the export and import business.

Rossellini, Ingrid to Get Final Score on Marriage

ROME (AP)—Formal hearings were completed today in Roberto Rossellini's suit for annulment of his Mexican proxy marriage to Ingrid Bergman.

Judge Mario Elia Saud said the court would give its decision within 10 days to a month.

Rossellini claimed that the marriage May 24, 1950, never existed. Because neither Italian nor Swedish law recognized Miss Bergman's Mexican divorce from Dr. Peter Lindstrom.

Miss Bergman, recently in Paris where she has been seen with Lars Schmidt, a wealthy Swede, is not contesting the suit. Rossellini's name has been linked with the wife of an Indianfilm man who followed him to Europe.
