U.N. Assembly Fails to Break Seat Deadlock

Sweden Is Pushed as Compromise Between Philippines, Yugoslavia

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—The U. N. Assembly failed in five attempts today to break the Philippine-Yugoslavia Security Council seat deadlock and called a recess to search for a solution.

Assembly President Jose Maza of Chile suspended the balloting and proceeded to final action on disarmament to enable key delegates to negotiate among themselves until resumption of the secret balloting at 3 p.m. (EST).

The alternatives open to the final session of the 76-nation global forum are withdrawal of either Yugoslavia or the Philippines or agreement on a "dark horse" candidate.

Sweden was being vigorously pushed by the British as the compromise choice.

The U.S.-backed Philippines kept the lead over its Balkan rival throughout the five secret ballots at the morning meeting, the sixth balloting session on the issue.

A total of 34 votes had been taken on the deadlock through the forenoon session.

The Security Council yesterday afternoon ran afoul of the 76th Soviet veto in 10 years on the remaining issue of the now broken membership deadlock.

Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev cast the veto to block a U. S. motion giving Japan entry into the U. N. at the 1956 Assembly session.

The council adjourned until next Wednesday to consider a British proposal to put the 11-nation group on record as considering Japan "fully qualified" for membership in the U. N.

Egyptian reprisal threats lent new urgency today to the council debate on Syria's charge of Israeli aggression.

As the 11 council members gathered to take up the Syrian protest, they had before them a letter from Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser asserting the Israeli attack was "positively considered as an aggression against Egypt" also.

Nasser pointed out that Egypt and Syria had concluded a mutual defense pact in October.

The council meeting was called to consider Syria's protest against a raid on her posts east of the Sea of Galilee Sunday night. Conflicting reports have put the death toll as high as 59.

Nasser's letter said Egypt must meet force with force and was "about to deal with the situation herself" with her land, air and naval forces.

MSU Float Fund Has Early Death, It's Not Needed

City commissioners showed last night that they didn't want Michigan State University to look cheap at the Rose Bowl parade, but MSU had already taken care of the project.

Commissioners at an informal meeting chipped in $1 each to build a float, when they heard the school would not have one in the traditional ceremonies before the game.

But when Chamber of Commerce president Ralph Norvell contacted Starr Kessler, director of MSU Alumni Relations, he was informed that surplus money from the MSU Centennial fund would be used, and construction of a float was under way.

James C. Allen Quits State Post

Resignation Submitted to Allow Area Man Return to Law Work

State Securities and Exchange Commissioner James C. Allen of Birmingham has resigned his post, and will re-enter private law practice.

The resignation is effective January 15, according to a spokesman in Gov. G. Mennen Williams' office. Allen has been commissioner since 1953, and was named a deputy commissioner in 19[illegible].

In announcing the resignation, it was pointed out that Allen had been seeking to return to law practice for some time, and his quitting was not a result of the controversial firing of Harold G. Groehn.

Groehn was a deputy commissioner in charge of the real estate divison, whom Allen fired n March for allegedly having outside business interests incompatable with his position.

A Civil Service board upheld Allen's firing, but the State Civil

Favor by 10-1 Joining Federal Pension Plan

Extra Income Would Supplement Present School Benefits

First reports from precincts in Pontiac and Oakland County in a statewide school employes election held yesterday and Wednesday indicates voting was 10 to 1 in favor of bringing school employes under the federal social security system.

An unofficial tally of Pontiac's 26 precincts showed 850 in favor and 99 against co-ordinating present state pension systems with federal social security.

In Pontiac, 949 of the estimated 955 eligible voters turned out at the polls.

Oakland County, with 86 of the 181 precincts reporting, had an unofficial count of 2,602 to 261 in favor of the federal retirement plan. With 95 precincts still to report, the 2,863 votes represent more than a third of the county's approximately 7,000 eligible voters.

Election officials throughout the county have until Dec. 23 before final official tallies must be turned in to Dr. William J. Emerson, county schools superintendent and head of the election board. Emerson, in turn, must file the official report in Lansing by Dec. 31.

Reports from other parts of the state were not yet available. However, Emerson said that election results in Pontiac and the county are "a good indicator of what is happening throughout the state."

In separate elections held Monday on a similar plan in Detroit, 78 per cent of Detroit public school employes and 82 per cent of Wayne University employes voted in favor of social security.

In the state election yesterday and Wednesday, some 61,000 public school employes and 2,200 employes of teacher colleges were eligible to vote.

If over half the school employes throughout the state approve the referendum, state retirement benefits under the current pension system will be supplemented by federal social security old age benefits.

Roughly, the federal benefits would give a school employe retiring at the age of 65 about $108.50 per month after continuous employment at an annual salary of $4,200, with additional benefits to married men or women with dependent husbands.

Employes with a lower annual wage would receive proportionately lower benefits.

Allotments here would total one per cent of the first $4,200 annual salary plus 1½ per cent of salary over $4,200, added together and multiplied by the number of years' employment, according to J. Cecil Cox, assistant superintendent of Pontiac Schools.

School employes in Saginaw also voted in favor of the integration plan, approving it 792-97 with 18 not voting. In rural Saginaw County incomplete returns showed a 5-1 margin in favor.

City Man Arrested on Smuggling Count

DETROIT (AP) — Charles Stears, Pontiac factory worker, was accused today of smuggling 500 bottles of Canadian whisky through the Windsor-Detroit tunnel.

Stears was arrested last night at the Detroit exit of the tunnel under the Detroit river.

Edward A. Gleasin, chief of the U. S. customs agency, said he had 88 bottles of whisky at the time, including one Canadian brand that never is exported.

Gleason said Stsars admitted five smuggling trips through the tunnel in November and seevn so far this month. He quoted Stears saying he sold the bottles for a dollar profit each.

Stears is charged with smuggling and evading federal alcohol tax. His 1953 station wagon was confiscated by the government.

There will be snow flurries this afternoon and the low tonight will be from 14 to 18 degrees.

Edison to Erect Office Building

Completion Date Set for June; Will Occupy Present Location

Plans to construct a new building to house Detroit Edison district headquarters and local customer service facilities were announced yesterday by Howard Canfield, manager of the firm's Oakland District.

The one-story structure will be located at the corner of W. Huron St. and Pine, and will replace a white frame building which the company has occupied for the past 26 years.

Construction is expected to begin in January and be completed in June, Canfield said.

The building will enclose three district offices, an appliance repair shop and an expanded customer service office. It will occupy 5,400 square feet of space. The designers, Canfield said, have made extensive use of glass and aluminum, interior lighting and photo murals.

A special feature will be five heat pumps—the first installed by a commercial establishment in Edison's 7,600 square-mile service area—which will be used to heat and cool the building.

Customer service offices have been transferred to a building at the rear of the future headquarters site. District offiers have been temporarily moved to the company's Service Center on Orchard Lake Rd.

The building will be the headquarters for operations which serve more than 550,000 residents of the Oakland District. The firm also operates 13 customer offices in the area.

The Coming of the King

V—Tidings of Great Joy

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

While Jesus was being born in the stable at Bethlehem, there were some shepherds on the nearby hills, watching their flocks through the night. Today, if you visit those hills and fields, you will still see the flocks grazing, and whiteclad shepherds, who might almost be the same shepherds, standing by to see that no sheep wander away and that no wolf or fox comes down from the hills to steal a lamb.

THE ADORATION OF THE SHEPHERDS

This one night several of them were talking together as they guarded their sheep. Suddenly, it seemed to them as though the very skies opened up and they saw a great choir of angels. The choir was singing and it was wonderfully beautiful music. They had never heard such music in all their lives. They listened and they heard the words the angels were singing: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

They were troubled about this miracle and couldn't understand it. Then an angel explained to them and comforted them: "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

Then the angel told them that they could easily recognize the baby. They would find Him wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger. So, after the angels left, the shepherds decided that they would go to Bethlehem and see for themselves this great thing the angel had told them about.

As fast as they could, they hurried to the inn at Bethlehem and there, just as the angel had said, they found the stable, the manger and the child.

And so these simple men from the countryside became the first people, other than Mary and Joseph, to look upon the face of Jesus.

Highland Resident Mrs. Eliza Taylor Marks 106th Birthday Very Quietly

By REBA HEINTZELMAN
Press Milford Correspondent

Michigan's oldest resident will take another birthday in stride today. Mrs. Eliza Beaumont Taylor is only 106.

No fancy celebrations are in order, and no trips will be made. Mrs. Taylor is staying right at home to receive a few friends in an unofficial open house in Highland.

Born during the gold rush in 1849, Mrs. Taylor was one of nine children who were raised in the White Lake area. Her father and mother settled in a log cabin near the lake and 'Liza' remembers well the oxen-drawn plow used by her father to till the land.

Every morning Mrs. Taylor gets up and dresses, with the help of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Keller, with whom she lives. She then walks around the house, without the aid of a cane. Weather permitting, she is helped outdoors in the spacious yard that surrounds the old house on Center street.

Longevity seems to run in the family. Mr. Taylor, who was a Civil war veteran, died in 1939 at the age of 90, after having celebrated his 69th wedding anniversary.

A daughter, Mrs. Keller, who is age. She is a neat trim little woman 86, takes care of her mother and an who bakes, sews and keeps her appearance, too, belies her the house in 'apple-pie-order'.

MRS. ELIZA BEAUMONT TAYLOR

. . . Merry Christmas!

Kefauver Climbs Into Ring for 1956 Dem Nomination

WASHINGTON (INS)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) announced today he is a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination and will challenge Adlai Stevenson directly in the California primary.

Kefauver told a news conference that he will conduct a "vigorous campaign" for the Democratic nomination and will enter a number of state primaries as well as the California race.

The 1952 pre-convention front-runner said he has not reached final decision on other primary contests but strongly indicated he would file in New Hampshire's March 13 primary.

Stevenson already has announced that he will enter the presidential primaries in Minnesota, Illinois, Florida, Pennsylvania and California.

Kefauver said he hopes again to have the support of his own state's delegation at the Democratic convention in Chicago.

He said he has "been assured" by most of the party leaders who will be in control of the convention that "they do not expect to put any hurdles in my path this time."

The Tennessean declared he does not believe there is a "stop Kefauver" movement under way for 1956 and that he expects to have "a fair shake at the convention if I have the strength to get it." He added that he believes he will have the strength.

In reply to questions, Kefauver said he has made no decisions yet on entering the presidential primaries in Florida, Pennsylvania, Minnesota, or Ohio.

Kefauver also said he hopes President Eisenhower regains his health so he can seek re-election if he is physically able but believes it will be "hard for him to pull along" the Republican party. He called the President "an outstanding world citizen."

MSU Rose Bowl Trip Tops Peacetime Rail Record

EAST LANSING (AP)—The largest peace-time, non-military, point to point mass movement by train in history:

That's how railroad officials describe plans to take some 2,700 Michigan State University students to the Rose Bowl football game and back again.

The six college trains making the trip will have a seating capacity of 2,764, including students and their adult chaperones.

The trains will chug out of Lansing Dec. 26 and arrive at Los Angeles Dec. 28. The return trek will start after the game on Jan. 2 and the undergrads will be back on the campus in time for registration Jan. 5.

It'll be a noisy trip, but the students are going to behave just fine, everybody concerned is convinced.

Each train will have seven adults aboard, including a minister and a registered nurse. The faculty people selected to make the trip are those who work with the students and know them best.

The college likes to call them advisers, rather than chaperones.

"The behavior business is mostly a student problem and we're relying on the student leaders to keep things under control," said Ellwood Vollner, assistant to the dean at MSU.

There will be six student advisers on each train and they are expected to set the example for good behavior.

Standard campus behavior rules will hold during the trip out and back and the stay on the coast. Drinking will not be allowed on the trains.

"If anybody sneaks a bottle aboard and gets obnoxious, we have the authority to put them off," said Vollner.

Coeds will outnumber male students making the trip. So how about the boy meets girl problem?

"There will be safety lights on in every car at night," said Vollner practically. "No one is going to make a spectacle of himself with 40 other people in the same car."

* * *

Planning for the trip was started—just in case—even before Ohio State beat Michigan to put Michigan State in the Rose Bowl.

FRANTIC—AT FIRST

It was a frantic business at first as double the number of students expected signed up for the jaunt. The most popular package is a deal that costs $170.80 and provides transportation from Lansing to Los Angeles and back and hotel accommodations on the Coast.

Eleven major railroads agreed to pool their equipment to provide modern, stream-lined, lightweight cars for the six trains. Each train will have 10 coach cars, two diners and two lounge cars or one lounge car and one dome car.

The cars will have reclining chair seats for comfortable sleeping at night.

Three of the six trains will stop at Las Vegas, Nev. and La Junta, Colo. en route. Two others will stop at La Junta and Gallup, N. M., and the sixth will stop at Gallup and El Paso, Tex.

ROOMS RESERVED

Rooms on the Coast have been reserved in eight downtown Los Angeles hotels. Coeds and male students will be quartered on separate floors.

Side trips are available to such interest points as Disneyland, Hollywood and Mexico at extra cost.

A student loan bureau, a lost and found department and an information center will be set up to help take care of any problems that might arise on the coast.

Students will pick up their game tickets when they get to Los Angeles—this to prevent any bartering on the hard-to-get seats for the game.

The musical end of MSU's Rose Bowl delegation — the 125-piece marching band — will begin its western journey Dec. 27, one day later.

* * *

The trip for the band was arranged through the courtesy of Oldsmobile Division of General Motors Corp.

* * *

In addition to featured appearances in the Jan. 2 Tournament of Roses Parade and the Rose Bowl game, the green and white-uniformed Spartans will parade and play at Denver, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Tucson, Dallas and St. Louis.

Judge to Rule on Sewer Suit

Waterford Plans Appeal of Court Decision on Drainage Hookup

Port Huron Circuit Judge Eugene F. Black today was expected to make final a decree preventing a planned shopping center at Elizabeth Lake and Telegraph Rds. in Waterford Township from hooking into the Pontiac sewer system.

The case will be immediately appealed to the State Supreme Court, said Waterford Attorney John W. Bell.

"Judge Black has informed me he will allow connection of a supermarket now under construction at the center, pending outcome of the appeal," Bell added.

Pontiac filed the suit Aug. 31 claiming Waterford's attempt to link the center with the city system violated a 1935 agreement establishing an area in the township which could send sewage through the city's treatment plant.

* * *

"If Judge Black's appeal favoring the city is upheld by the high court, the supermarket will have to disconnect its line and the center construct its own disposal system," Bell explained.

Attorneys for both sides traveled to Port Huron today for settlement of the decree drafted by City Attorney William A. Ewart to conform with the judge's opinion.

"We will not object to the decree as drafted," Bell stated, "and it will undoubtedly be approved setting up a permanent injunction against the connection of the center."

Suspected Slayer Is Declared Insane

Ray Goff, accused of murdering a pretty Flint mother of three, will be committed to the Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

Following a sanity hearing today, Oakland County Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick said he will sign a committment order on the basis of testimony by two psychiatrists who examined Goff after his attorneys filed notice of an insanity defense Oct. 24.

The 32-year-old former Flint factory worker is charged with the fatal shooting of Mrs. Rita M. Cummings, 27, in a car parked on M87 near Holly last Aug. 26.

They agreed that Goff is suffering from a "serious" mental illness which renders him emotionally unstable.

Two psychiatrists said in their opinion Goff was not accountable for his actions at time of the shooting.

James Allen Quits Position With State

Service Commission ordered him reinstated.

Allen said he had postponed his decision to resign to remain and clean up several problems, which he said "are now solved or rest with the courts for decision."

Gov. Williams accepted the resignation with "sincere regret," calling Allen a "devoted and effective public servant."

Shiny Tricycle Awaits Little Stevie Damman

EAST MEADOW, N. Y. (AP)—A shiny tricycle is waiting for a little Stevie Damman for Christmas—although he may never see it.

It was Stevie's third birthday yesterday—if he is still alive. His parents, Air Force Sgt. Jerry and Marilyn Damman, are observing their fourth wedding anniversary today.

Stevie, 3, disappeared from in front of a supermarket here last Oct. 31. A widespread search was unproductive. But his parents have not lost hope.

In addition to Christmas presents for their daughter Pamela, 7 months, they bought a new tricycle for Stevie, just in case.

Board Studying Alternate Plan

Hospital Officials Mull Microfilming Records at Night Meeting

Pontiac General Hospital is making alternate plans in case a proposed $3,000,000 expansion program costs more than the original estimate.

At a Board of Trustees meeting last night, Chairman William P. Babcock said that a meeting of executive and staff building committees discussed the problem.

"Let's be frank about it," Trustee Willis M. Brewer said. "We don't know right now if we can build what we want for $3,000,000.

"We won't know until we let out the bids," he explained.

Two other difficulties involving construction of the new addition turned up at last night's meeting.

Miss Lauretta Paul, hospital director, asked the board to make a decision on how 3,000,000 case histories are going to be microfilmed. The board referred the matter to a committee.

Trustee Harold B. Euler, recommended that the micro-filming be entrusted to a private firm to avoid any mix-up in the records.

But Miss Paul pointed out that facilities for micro-filming records were provided for in the new hospital addition.

The hospital plans to save all records from 1950 on, microfilm those from 1941 on, and throw away all others which the law does not require to be saved.

The board also must decide where to store present records, which must be moved when construction begins. Last night it sought a dry, weatherproof location, handy to the hospital, but couldn't find one.

Detroit Paper Strike Faces Fresh Threat

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit's three strike-closed metropolitan daily newspapers faced a new strike threat today.

AFL-CIO Teamsters Union members who drive the newspaper delivery trucks when they are rolling said their international union has sanctioned a strike, if they desire, but that no decision had been reached.

A walkout of AFL-CIO Stereotypers—the only unionists currently and officially on strike—closed the morning Free Press and the afternoon Times and News 16 days ago.

The Mailers Union, a branch of the AFL-CIO International Typographical Union, has asked for strike sanction by the parent union. So has the AFL-CIO Plate and Paper Handlers Union.

The mailers and Detroit Newspaper Publishers Assn., which bargains for all three papers, met four and a half hours last night. They reported progress, but said they still were apart on several issues and that no new meetings had been scheduled between them.

Boy, 4, Does It Himself

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The "do-it-yourself" craze apparently knows no bounds. When 4-year-old Billy Hawkins thought his father a little slow showing up with a promised Christmas tree the other day, Billy acted on his own. He took a small saw from his tool kit and cut down a young cedar tree in the backyard of the Hawkins' Columbus home.

The Day in Birmingham

Planning Council Studies Commuting Problems

BIRMINGHAM — Commuting problems of residents of Birmingham and towns to north and south are being put to careful study by the Southern Oakland Planning council, according to Birmingham City Planner Herbert Herzberg, chairman of the council.

New way of using small, self-motored cars that can detach from a chain to branch toward a different destination is a method being used successfully in other metropolitan areas, the council learned at its recent meeting in Hazel Park. The Grand Trunk, which carries 1,050 persons down and back to Detroit on an average day, claims to be operating at a loss. Train and crew have to remain in Detroit for the night return.

Herzberg is planning a meeting, open to the public, but expressly for representatives of suburban cities, in which Lynn D. Searcy, of the Regional Planning Commission's transportation unit and of a Detroit Tomorrow Committee's subcommittee, will give a slide and movie illustrated lecture on the small car commutor trains. Date has not been set.

"The commuting plan has merit," says Herzberg, whose group eyes all ways to relieve traffic congestion, "and commuting always saves that parking problem downtown, bad-weather driving, and time, and gives you time to read or even sleep."

Altrusans have received word from parents of the Australian boy whom the club sponsors. Little Werner Riedl has already received his gift package, his parents write, from "people in an unknown land who are so very kind to us." The club heard the letter at its recent meet at Mrs. George Oehm's home. Mrs. John Miller, former director of public school music here, directed special music and group singing.

Singer's Widow Dies of Cancer

Wife of the Late Italian Tenor Succumbs at 62 After Long Illness

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Park Benjamin Caruso, 62, widow and biographer of the great Italian tenor Enrico Caruso, died today at Union Memorial Hospital after a long cancer illness.

Mrs. Caruso had lived at "Spring Hill" in Riderwood, Baltimore County, since 1950. She had done much of her writing here.

Mrs. Caruso was born into a prominent New York family and educated in a convent school. She met Caruso in 1917 when he was already a legendary figure as one of the greatest singers of all time.

Despite her family's objections, they were married within a few months and the marriage proved to be an exceptionally happy one.

Caruso died in Naples from complications which followed a respiratory ailment only three years after their marriage at the height of his career.

Nearly a quarter century later in the biography of her husband Mrs. Caruso wrote that she remembered "every minute" of their life together.

Weather Balloon Takes Three Years to Land

WAYNESBURG, Pa. (AP) — What goes up must come down even if it takes several years.

W. A. Wilson, of nearby Graysville, found a weather balloon with its parachute still attached hanging from a tree.

Inscribed on the instrument box was a faded but still legible: "Lexington, Ky. Dispatched July 26, 1952."

Turncoat Mum About Return

Tenneson Back in U.S. but Won't Say Why He Left Red Chinese

SEATTLE (AP)—Richard R. Tenneson, 22-year-old Alden, Minn., turncoat, returned last night from Red China to the country he once renounced but he wouldn't say why he is back.

* * *

"I am not prepared to answer now," he said in an interview which followed a 90-minute travel through official red tape after he landed here on a trip from Tokyo.

Bewildered and ill at ease, the boyish looking repatriate landed shortly before midnight. He was released by the Red Chinese Tuesday at Hong Kong and landed Wednesday night in Tokyo.

He was home for the first time since 1949, the year he went to Korea and eventual capture by the Communist forces. Offered a chance to return to the United States, he and 21 other GIs refused repatriation.

* * *

Three others of the original 22, all of whom have been dishonorably discharged by the Army, returned several months ago. They were Otho Bell, Olympia, Wash.; William Cowart, Dalton, Ga.; and Lewis W. Griggs, Jacksonville, Tex. For them, Tenneson exhibited little respect.

They came back, he said, "because they couldn't lead the same easy life in China they had led in occupied Japan."

And, he said, "they came back and said things which were not true just to put themselves in a good light." He did not explain this but added:

"The men who are remaining feel like I do about the three."

He said he had seen all the other Americans who remained in China in the last month and expressed the belief they all would come back "someday." This, he did not explain.

* * *

Asked if his mother, Mrs. Portia Howe of Alden, played any part in getting him to return home, he replied:

"No, I wouldn't say that she did."

He repeatedly attempted to break off the interview, saying he was "dead on my feet. I have only had eight hours sleep since I reached Hong Kong."

Now, he said as he turned to the plane which flew him home, "I would like to be able to return to Minnesota and get back to farming and be left alone." He said he had operated a lathe in a paper mill in China.

Motor City Court Sets Condemnation Value

DETROIT (AP)—A Recorder's Court jury set a condemnation value of $1,275,158 on property to be acquired by the city for widening the Woodward Avenue approach to the new civic center.

The property is along the west side of Woodward between Fort and Congress. Woodward, now 120 feet wide, will be widened by 61 feet from Fort to Jefferson. The city plans to acquire a similar west side strip between Congress and Jefferson.

Most of the money allowed by the jury after a three-day hearing before Judge Paul E. Krause will go to the National Bank of Detroit.

Health, Accident Ads Draw FTC Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Trade Commission turned from prosecution to persuasion today in an effort to halt what it considers "deceptive and harmful" advertising of health and accident insurance.

It said yesterday it would convene "as soon as possible" a meeting of state insurance commissioners, industry representatives and others interested to seek a "uniform corrective solution" to the problem.

The agency has been studying the insurance field for nearly two years, and has charged 41 companies with using false and misleading advertising. Most of the companies have denied the charges and set out to fight them.

Obstinate Door Nips Attempted Burglary

Thieves who attempted a break-in at DeClerck's Market on Auburn road Wednesday night were unable to open the door, Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said today.

Although a pane of glass was smashed, the burglars couldn't reach heavy bolts at the top and bottom of the door.

Missouri Lawmaker Hits Franking Costs

It's a safe guess that Missouri constituents of Rep. Paul C. Jones soon will take new interest in any pronouncements he may make in the future.

The reason is easy to find. Mr. Jones has come out for the kind of economy the average taxpayer can understand. He wants to save money by limiting the use Members of Congress can make of the franking privilege. He also aims to reduce the Government's bill for printing the Appendix of the Congressional Record by limiting the space lawmakers can use in it.

★ ★ ★

The law permits members to mail officially printed matter free. Rep. Jones' idea is that this privilege should be restricted to the lawmaker's home district, except for personally signed correspondence. This would end the practice under which some lawmakers extend their franking privileges to various organizations.

★ ★ ★

Jones idea for economizing in the matter of the Appendix to the Congressional Record also should strike a nerve with any economy minded taxpayer. It happens that printing every page of the Appendix costs the Government $80. Hence every printed undelivered speech, extension of remarks and even poems written by constituents soon add up to a lot of money.

Still another Jones proposal deserves enthusiastic support. He would force lawmakers sponsoring identical bills to put them in the hopper jointly. Inasmuch as it costs $200 to print and process a Congressional bill the savings in a single session of Congress would be considerable.

★ ★ ★

Over the years there have been many similar plans for cutting Congressional expense and too often they have gotten nowhere. The fact remains, however, that legislation to implement such economy would have the unanimous support of the people.

Spotlight for Another Public Enemy

When Congress meets in January it is expected to give full attention to a major threat to our internal well-being: the traffic in dope.

Concept of the size of the narcotics trade is given by a federal estimate that addicts spend more than $330 million yearly for dope; that they steal property worth billions to satisfy their cravings; that those in prisons or hospitals as result of dope cost additional millions.

Even more staggering — and beyond evaluation — is the human cost: in healthy adults turned into physical wrecks; of young boys and girls trapped into hopeless addiction through supposedly 'harmless experimentation' for thrills.

Prominent in the coming debate will be consideration of penalties for dope peddling. Many claim they are now too light to have much effect.

Treatment of addicts also is due for some searching study. Experience at centers now available for voluntary treatment indicates that "voluntary" help may not be sufficient. Compulsory commitment of known addicts for treatment is advocated by many experts, both for their own good and the protection of society.

Whatever program comes out of the coming consideration in Congress, two things certainly will be needed to wipe out, or even hold in check, the dope traffic:

Widespread education so that all may fully know the enemy;

Full public support of law enforcement agencies in the battle against this most vicious underworld activity.

Edison Lab Becomes a U. S. Monument

The working laboratory of one of this Nation's outstanding citizens has been turned over to the Federal Government and will become a national monument. This is Thomas Alva Edison's laboratory at West Orange, N. J.

At the same time, the late inventor's home nearby will become a national historic site under non-governmental ownership.

This action insures that Edison's laboratory will be preserved to serve as an inspiration to millions of young Americans who will visit it in years to come.

Despite the mushrooming growth of our country's industrial development, new fields open up every year which establish new horizons for invention. There is no limit to the opportunities open to today's young people in this field.

Surely the memory of Edison, kept alive through establishment of his laboratory as a national monument, may well help to stimulate more young Americans to emulate his stirring example.

Prominent Detroit Doctor Still Resident of This Area

That the best deer hunting in Michigan is in Oakland County was proven by over 100 hunters from Holly, the most of whom got their bucks within a few miles of home. The largest was that of Ed Wells,
which weighed 164 pounds, with several others about as large.

So Subtle

David Lawrence Says:

U. N. May Lose Respect After Resorting to Underhand Politics With Package Deal

WASHINGTON—The United Nations has revealed itself as just another "log-rolling" organization, with less regard for principle and morality than for political expediency. It's a blow from which the organization may never recover for, once respect is lost, it is rarely regained.

The controversy over admitting new members was on the same low plane that one would find in Tammany Hall in New York City or in the "smoke-filled rooms" of political conventions where "deals" and "packages" are manipulated with all the artful barter and selfishness of the market place.

Nationalist China alone, by her veto of Outer Mongolia, stood out as the courageous champion of morality. Yet it is a sign of the decadence of the times that newspaper dispatches are telling already of the intention of some governments to punish the nationalist government next year and give her seat in the United Nations to unmoral Red China just because the nationalist delegate didn't bow to expediency.

The day that Red China goes in the U. N., the demand for America to step out will be resumed. For it was Red China's murderous commanders who in Korea helped to bring about the death of 33,000 American boys and the wounding of 110,000 others. The same U. N. which declared Red China an aggressor now is reported to be ready to take that regime unto its bosom.

ADHERENTS SUCCUMB

But the amazing thing is the way that supposed champions of virtue—those who extol the U. N. as the last word in international morality — are themselves surrendering principle and rejoicing that Soviet Russia did finally condescend to let 16 members come into the organization.

The cry is for "universality" at any cost, as if numbers rather than the qualifications of the members to carry out the obligations of the U. N. charter were the real criterion of effectiveness.

It was Sir Percy Spender, of Australia, president of the Security Council, who, with startling frankness, said the other day: "It is not principle with which we are concerned here but expediency — the expediency of inexorable political circumstances."

This then is the new doctrine of the U. N. which in all the schools and colleges of America has heretofore been praised as the paragon of international virtue and as the last great hope of civilization to settle its disputes.

Having failed to command universal support for armed intervention to repel the aggressor in Korea, the United Nations has since been compelled to rely primarily on moral force. But even this moral force now has deteriorated. For there can be no respect throughout the world for an organization that violates its own principles of law and order.

DISREGARDED COURT

The Court of International Justice, for example, in an advisory opinion sought by the U. N. itself, ruled in 1948 that "package deals" are illegal and that admission must be on individual merits of the member rather than dependent or conditioned on the acceptance of other members.

All this now has been brushed aside and the new slogan seems to be "Numbers for Numbers' Sake."

Under such circumstances, it is logical for the United States now to ask that all its 48 states be admitted to the U. N. It would augment the number of members considerably. After all, each of the 48 states is "sovereign" and, while the charter uses the term "sovereign equality," there is no inclination today in the U. N. to examine the qualifications of members too carefully.

Also it would solve the controversy here over the Bricker amendment, for if the various subsidiary bodies of the U. N. are to make treaties or agreements binding this country or certain domestic affairs, at least each of the 48 states would have some sort of opportunity to veto such legislation.

And so the game goes—the great hope of mankind for a union of peace-loving organizations with a devotion to idealism, instead of to materialism, has been crushed under an avalanche of brazen "deals" and "packages" set loose by unmoral politicians.

Doctor Urges Calcium Aid for New, Expectant Moms

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

From the centre of the goitre district, the Great Lakes Basin, a kind lady writes:

"I have read your column for years, not only for information but because it is interesting and amusing as well, but frankly I have not been at all concerned about health until now.

At 40 I'm beginning to feel constantly tired, even in the morning after a good night's rest.

I have just had my first baby, after years of prayer, so perhaps I work a little more. Incidentally his father was right there when he was born.

I put no more clothes on or over my baby than he likes, and I quote you when any one wonders if he doesn't need more."

DOCTOR REPLIES

To the best of my knowledge the hospitals in the lady's community are still following the nineteenth century practice of making a major operation out of every childbirth, so I assume she had her baby at home, the safest place to have a baby.

The lady does not state whether she nurses her baby. If she supplements natural feeding with artificial feeding, I hope she understands that throughout pregnancy her baby was a parasite, selecting from her blood stream whatever nutritional elements he needed for development and growth.

Since the baby's birth, if she nurses him, the baby has continued to take from mother's blood, by way of breast milk, whatever he needs — provided mother's blood and milk have not become depleted.

SHOULD SUPPLEMENT

It is easy for any expectant mother or nursing mother to maintain her own and the baby's nutritional well being by supplementing her diet with calcinatal tablets daily.

These tablets are food, not medicine, and they supply every essential vitamin and mineral in quantity sufficient to maintain health at top level during pregnancy and nursing.

But I imagine this lady in the Great Lakes Basin needs something in addition. I would urge her and any other lady of forty in the basin who feels tired all the time, to take a nutritional quanitity of iodine daily—far less than a medicinal quantity.

In Little Lesson 4, Preparing for Maternity, one chapter is titled Her First at Forty, in which I say:

"Records of childbirth in a large series of cases show that the healthy woman who bears her first child when she is approaching forty years of age may expect a normal delivery, especially if she has kept herself fit by regular exercise."

What kind of exercise? Walking, running, dancing, skating, swimming, tennis, skiing, bowling.

Or read the exercises described and illustrated in Helen Heardman's little book on Natural Childbirth.

For Little Lesson 4, Preparing for Maternity, and the pamphlet The Iodin Ration, send 35 cents and stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Voice of the People

Suggests Red Car License for Repeat Traffic Violator

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature

I think that if a person is convicted three times on a traffic violation, he should be made to surrender his driver's license and auto plates.

At his own expense, he should be required to secure from the State bright red driver's license and two bright red plates, one for the front and one for the back.

It would be a big aid for the police, pedestrians and other drivers on the road. This should hold good for three years.

Old Timer

Cites Magazine Article on Doctors for Nutrition

I was reading a magazine the other day and one particular article interested me.

It said that preventive medicine must work towards creating a separate division in the medical profession. The basis of this division would be the study of nutrition, with separate medical schools for nutrition M. D.s.

It went on to say that we have all kinds of specialists but none in nutrition. People who are not sick could go to that doctor for check-ups and dietary help.

Ordinary doctors are too busy with diseases such as cancer, heart trouble, etc., to give time to healthy people, even to help them remain healthy. In fact, they don't even have time to keep themselves healthy, because they are dying of heart disease much more frequently than others.

Bigness Doesn't Prevent Competition in Business

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

Continuing bigness in business is usually associated with uncanny skill in pleasing customers.

* * *

Despite demagogic assumptions to the contrary, mere size does not exempt an enterprise from exposure to continuous audit by outsiders.

As a biproduct of the hearings by the Senate anti-trust subcommittee, Harlow H. Curtice, president of the General Motors Corporation, extended to five years the duration of GM's present one-year contracts with its 17,000 dealers.

From a longer viewpoint, the GM action is significant in revealing the alertness of even a giant enterprise to public opinion.

OF CURRENT INTEREST

This is currently important, in the light of the effort by the administration critics to create the impression that businessmen are at present running the federal government.

* * *

The "no holds barred", Senate inquiry into the affairs of the biggest automobile company hardly squares with the allegation that businessmen are pulling the strings in Government.

Except in artificial monopolies created by law through charters or patents, bigness is no protection against competition.

* * *

In a free-choice economic society, the big lumbering companies are forever subject to inroads by venturesome and creative little fellows.

When the big ones get complacent, they're in trouble. This was demonstrated dramatically back in 1927 when the Ford Motor Co., up to then the virtually unchallenged leader in the motor industry, lost its position.

The head of the company was allergic to model changes in a highly dynamic situation. While the belated changeover from Model T to Model A saved the company, Ford in subsequent years rarely achieved first place in sales. Under the current new and aggressive management, the company is again putting on a battle for leadership in the low-priced field.

* * *

Similarly, prior to World War II, the late Edward R. Stettinius Jr., then chairman of the U.S. Steel Corp., told me in confidence that the company's next largest competitor took an order from right under its nose from one of its regular customers.

Instead of keeping the matter secret, lest some stockholder be critical of management, it would have been adroit public relations to have let the news out as evidence of continuing competition.

In a self-governing republic, any company must justify its policies before the bar of public opinion. Wise management will continue to be self-critical, and will forever try to be ahead of critics through a policy of trying to do the right thing voluntarily.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Dr. Crane Explains Way to Prevent Jealousy When Second Child Arrives

Gwen's case shows that love is not based on blood kinship. In fact, brotherhood in the Bible often spelled feuds and fratricide. So learn the secret tattoo which is vital to making the firstborn child fond of its younger brother or sister. This is a critical task which even many college parents fail to understand.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Q-323: Gwen, aged 4, has a sister Karen, aged two.

"But, Dr. Crane, there seems to be a lot of jealousy between our little girls," their mother ruefully complained.

"Gwen resents Karen and shows no affection for her. I had thought she would be delighted to have a baby sitter.

* * *

"For I was an 'only' child, myself, and always was hungry for a brother or sister.

"But from the very moment I brought Karen home from the hospital, Gwen has been jealous and somewhat hostile.

"I thought blood was thicker than water, as the old saying goes, but it doesn't seem that way in our household."

SPIRITUAL KINSHIP

True kinship is always of a spiritual sort. It has nothing to do with blood kinship.

As we psychologists have so often explained, the first pair of brothers in the Bible feuded because of Cain's jealousy for his brother Abel.

And the feud grew so hot that Cain finally slew his own blood brother!

And that feuding was typical of many famous Biblical families. Jacob thus deceived his father and stole his brother Esau's blessing.

And Joseph's brothers first planned to kill him, but finally sold him into slavery into Egypt.

David's sons feuded until Absalom killed Amnon, and Solomon had Adonijah slain.

So don't expect blood to be thicker than water, for it is definitely not true, in the psychological sense.

TATTOOED TODDLERS

At birth, Gwen was tattooed, as were all of us, with this invisible psychological brand:

"I want to feel important!"

* * *

So Gwen would naturally not like her baby sister Karen, unless Karen makes Gwen feel important.

But toddlers are literalists. If Mother gives 10 minutes to Karen and only five minutes to Gwen, then Gwen feels cheated and less important.

Most adults fail to realize this literalness of children. Instead, they figure the older child "should understand that I love her just as much even though the baby requires more of my attention."

But Gwen does not understand that fact, and neither do other youngsters.

If you wives are expecting a second baby, by all means let your firstborn know that fact immediately.

Don't shock that older child by suddenly crashing his entire little world by bringing a squalling intruder into his kingdom, and then devoting more time to the interloper.

BUILD BROTHERHOOD

If you wish to build real brotherhood, then show the firstborn the many ways in which he can feel more important because of the newcomer.

"You are such a big girl, you can help Mamma feed baby Karen," their mother should say, for this keeps Gwen feeling more important.

"Other girls in our block don't have a chance to push the perambulator but you may do so," their mother can again inflate Gwen's ego.

"You know so much you can be her teacher and show her how to handle her spoon," their mother can also slant her remarks to appeal to Gwen.

* * *

Excessive jealousy among children is often an indictment of the poor brand of psychology employed by the parents.

For further specific advice, send for my 200-point "Tests for Good Parents," enclosing a stamped, return envelope, plus 20 cents.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Lapps Are Exempt From Army in Peace

GOTHENBURG, Sweden—Sweden has more than 10,000 Lapps and Norway has twice that number. Finland has 2,500 of them and Russia about 1,800.

In Sweden they have more or less the same obligations and privileges as other citizens except that in peacetime they are exempt from military conscription.

The Swedish Lapps own some 200,000 reindeer, valued at about $2,000,000. These animals provide the Lapps with food, transportation, clothing and shelter.

The skins are used for clothing and for the nomads' tepeelike tents.

3-Wheeler Vehicle Aiding Meter Lookers

ATLANTA—A three-wheel motor vehicle for the meter readers to make their rounds in is being tested by the Atlanta waterworks.

Since more than 100,000 meters are read each month in Atlanta, with the total growing at the rate of 3,000 a year, meter readers have had a real problem, especially in the city's outlying sections, where the distances between meters were long.

The vehicles being tested cost about $1,000 each, sit on three wheels, and have enclosed cabs. They are powered by five-horsepower motors that are started by pumping a pedal on the side. The vehicle is said to get 50 miles to a gallon of gasoline.

Popped Nose Suspect

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP)—A woman told cops answering a prowler call they'd know for sure how to identify any suspect. He had his nose pressed against the window screen and she popped it with a camera tripod.

Gas Tax Collections Hike 25 Per Cent

LANSING (AP) — Sec. of State James M. Hare said today Michigan collected 25 per cent more in gas taxes during the first 11 months of 1955 than was collected during the same period last year.

Gross collections totaled more than 110 million dollars, compared with $87,524,727 in the first 11 months of 1954.

The state collected $8,720,293 for the motor vehicle highway fund during November, Hare said, and $2,870,716 for the special highway construction fund set up by the Legislature at its last regular session to finance an arterial highway program.

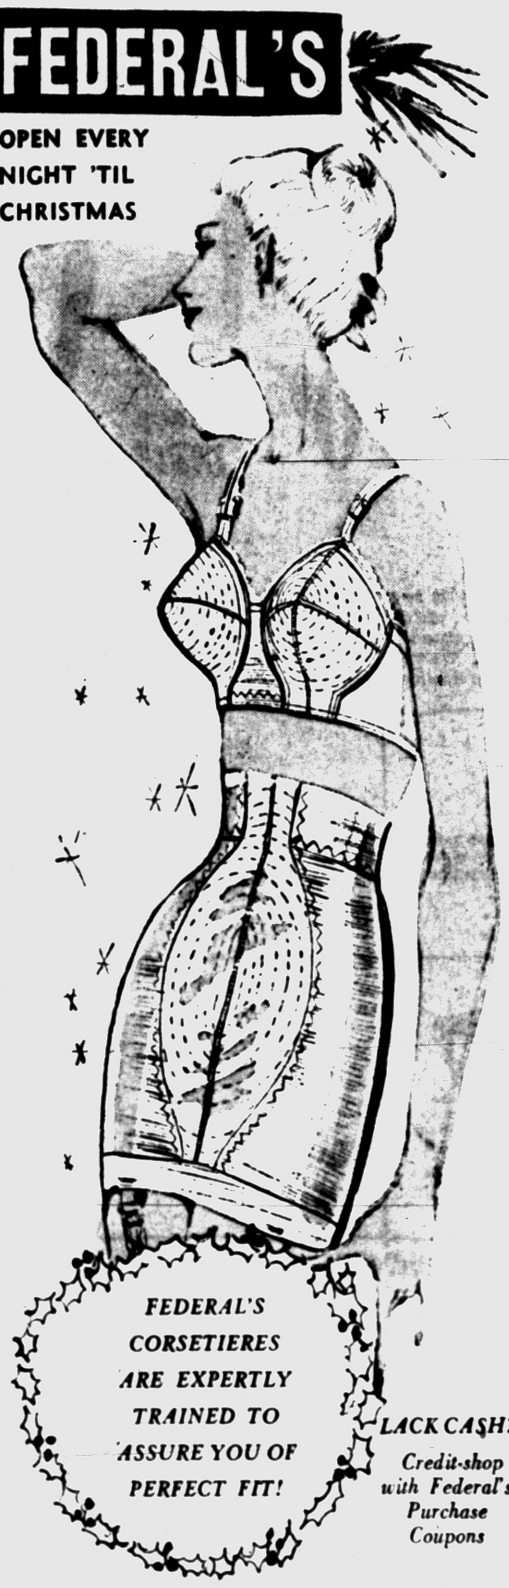

Hare said the special construction fund, financed by a one and a half cent gas tax increase, now totals $15,614,345.

JA Company of the Week

Loan Launches 'Postaba' in Area's JA Movement

(Editor's Note: The following article is the second in a series of accounts about outstanding Pontiac Junior Achievement companies.)

A bank loan, which headed off threatened failure when a materials shortage loomed, is the story behind the success of "Postaba," a Junior achievement firm sponsored by the Pontiac State Bank.

Postaba started in business by taking a regular commercial loan from its sponsor, even before it offered its stock, at 50 cents a share, to potential investors.

Tom Harding, 16, of 985 Myrtle, president of the firm, explains the loan this way:

"We had decided to make Christmas door chimes as a 'starter' product, and some of the boys and girls felt that we might run into a shortage of materials if we spent three weeks selling stock in our firm before we could buy the materials we would need."

The officers of Postaba—Tom, and Pete Clark, 17, of 173 S. Shirley, vice-president; Margaret Sefton, 18, of 3085 St. Claire Dr., treasurer and Carole Putnam, 16, of 74 Camley, secretary — approached officials of the bank and made arrangements for a $100 commercial loan.

"As it turned out," says treasurer Margaret, "it was a smart move. We couldn't find a certain plastic material we wanted to use in Pontiac. It took us more than a week to locate the material in Detroit, and even then we bought the last batch the supplier had on hand."

The loan has already been repaid, with interest. The Achievers went ahead since getting the loan and sold $101.50 stock in their firm to 69 investors. This was used to repay the loan, which had enabled them to buy their raw materials, and supplied the necessary capital for payroll, rent, utilities costs and machinery rental, so far.

Success seems assured for Postaba, too. The firm set a production-sales quota of 150 units on their Christmas chimes. They've already sold more than 100 of them, and grossed $128 in sales.

"Our biggest problem now," says Tom, "is meeting orders. We'll probably produce and sell more than our quota, providing the material holds out."

* * *

The Achievers are also exploring possibilities for a second product once the Christmas season has ended. "We might stay in plastic or go into something entirely different," says Tom. The company will be in business until next May, when, as with all JA firms, they will liquidate, report on their operations to their stockholders and issue dividend checks if they have been successful.

Working with the Achievers and advising them in their operations are three advisers from the sponsoring Pontiac State bank:

Davis R. Springer, of 191 W. Longfellow, business adviser; Mrs. Charles Stark, of 365 S. Marshall, sales adviser and Merle B. Bender, of 140 Norton, production adviser.

The Netherlands and Poland have signed an agreement calling for the exchange of $10,000,000 worth of goods per year.

Burke Sees Subs Firing Atomic Torpedoes in 'Near Future'

WASHINGTON (INS) — Adm. Arleigh A. Burke states that submarines of the "near future" will be able to launch high speed atomic torpedoes against enemy surface and undersea vessels.

* * *

The chief of Naval operations mentioned the new weapon in a speech contending that "navies are of increasing importance as nations make the revolutionary transition from oil to nuclear energy."

Addressing the National Press Club, Burke said in his prepared remarks that the nuclear-powered submarine Nautilus is the "most deadly in existence," has "demonstrated undersea supremacy," but is "only the preface to the Navy's book on atomic propulsion."

He continued: "Nuclear-powered submarines of the near future will be capable not only of making high speed atomic torpedo attacks on enemy convoys, but they will be capable of killing enemy submarines, and of providing early warning from enemy threats approaching by air and sea.

* * *

"They will be capable of fueling and supporting seaplanes, of landing marines on hostile shores, of launching guided missiles against targets at sea and on the enemy's homeland. All of them will have two or more capabilities. All will be multi-purpose."

TWO UNDERWATER

Only two underwater atomic explosions are known to have been set off in history.

The first, at Bikini in 1946, raised a column of water, 6,000-feet high and sank two battleships, an aircraft carrier and several smaller vessels that had been placed in a 2,000-yard circle for testing purposes.

The second, staged secretly off the coast of California last spring, could have been a test of a warhead for an atomic torpedo.

Burke also said:

1. The guided missile cruiser Boston is the first of "literally dozens of men-of-war that will mount guided missiles within the next few years—all kinds of missiles."

2. Russia's "bid for sea supremacy" is "the most significant development of Soviet grand strategy since World War II." He declared the Soviets seek to control all the seas around the Eurasian continent.

3. Except for the most critical items, surface transport is superior to air transport. He contended that "one ton of air transport to Korea requires that four tons of gasoline be surface-shipped in advance of each flight."

Cowman Fights for Land Rights

Claims Uranium Mining Operations Hurt Cattle Grazing Areas

TUCSON, Ariz. (INS)—A legal battle shaped up today between the century-old Arizona cattle industry and modern uranium hunters.

* * *

The test case, which will be determined by Arizona State Land Commissioner Roger Ernst, involves the 10,500 acres leased from the government by Rancher Joseph A. Moller.

Ernst has the delicate problem of determining whether Moller's ranch operations on the sun-baked land are more valuable than 640 acres of uranium claims filed by Dr. E. T. Anderson.

Moller entered the battle over surface and mineral rights when Dr. Anderson filed a complaint against three Tucson men—Bruce Thomas, Russell Grina, and Ray Hathaway. Dr. Anderson alleged "fraud" when the trio located three 20 acres claims of uranium rights on the sprawling Moller ranch lands.

LIKE A BATTLEFIELD

As State Land Commission Representative Ellis King accompanied the contesting miners over the disputed uranium claims, Moller charged into the scene declaring that his ranch "resembles a battlefield. He asserted uranium hunters damage surface land, road and gates and that they were not helping his cattle business.

The showdown battle, set for Dec. 23 at Phoenix, is whether the land should be maintained for the good of cattlemen or whether miners rights should prevail.

Dr. Anderson's attorney, Hale Tognoni, pointed out that the work of Charles Steen, "America's Uranium King," has "opened up economic benefits to inhabitants of Utah and offered employment to thousands."

Steen is drilling for Dr. Anderson on other uncontested claims on Moller's ranch.

IMPORTANCE OF CASE

Television cameras and newsmen followed the disputing parties as they tramped over the land.

Dr. Anderson summed up the importance of the case by declaring:

"This hearing is unprecedented. It will determine whether the very essence of mining developments and explorations are second to interests of cattlemen."

Dr. Anderson charged in his complaint against the three Tucson men that their uranium claims were never validly located and that they faile dto do legal location work.

* * *

In his request for a hearing to the land commissioner, he asserted the trio's "false statements constitute fraud and are grounds for lease cancellation."

Prison Officials Eye Area Lake Campsite

State Corrections Department officials now are considering building a second conservation-prison camp at Pontiac Lake in White Lake Township right beside the one now in operation.

The department had hoped to get Oakland County Supervisors' approval to locate a camp in Brandon Township, but apparently scuttled the plan when more than 400 township residents signed a petition of protest.

Chairman of the Board of Auditors Robert Y. Moore said the county has not been officially contacted about possible expansion of the Pontiac Lake camp.

Detroit Yule Mail Up

DETROIT (AP) — Postmaster Edward L. Baker says Detroiters mailed 36,673,107 letters—including Christmas cards—during the first 13 days of December for a 14.2 per cent increase over last year's period. Baker says receipts climbed 9.3 per cent over 1954, totalling $2,329,435 compared with $2,130,888 for the first 13 days last December. Outgoing parcel post rose 1.1 per cent from 2,153,515 to 2,178,923 pieces.

High School Band Praised at Convention in Detroit

Pontiac High School band won high praise at the third national convention of the American School Band Directors Association in Detroit yesterday.

The band, under the leadership of Dale C. Harris, appeared last night at a general session during a one and one half hour concert given in the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The expressed opinion voiced by the great majority of professional leaders, meeting in the three-day conference was that they had just listened to one of America's finest high school bands.

Dale C. Harris, in his two terms as the first president of the American School Band Directors Association, was instrumental in not only founding the organization three years ago with the help of other leaders, but also in setting it up on a permanent basis.

Harris is completing his 30th year in guiding the instrumental music program in the Pontiac public school system.

The Pontiac High School band appeared by the vote of the members of the ASBDA as the best representative of the class A schools in the state.

The selections chosen for the evening performance embraced standard literature, and a generous variety of contemporary offerings.

One of America's most recent contemporary composers, Ralph Hermann, Vice-President of the American Broadcasting System, presented acknowledgements to the group's fine work in the three movements of his Ballet Suite.

Glenn Cliff Bainum, now retired from band conducting at Northwestern University, conducted the band in the march, "Builders of America" by Dr. Edwin Franko Goldman. Dr. Goldman, scheduled to attend this convention as guest conductor, was unable to appear due to serious illness.

List $25,000 Fire Loss

FLINT (AP) — Fire destroyed a large two story frame home in nearby Goodrich Thursday, with an estimated loss of $25,000. Roy Hill, owner, estimated the loss. Ernest Cameron, 14, who lives with the Hills, was treated for lacerations on the head when flying glass struck him.

2 War Criminals Freed

TOKYO (AP) — Two more major war criminals of World War II were freed from Sugamo Prison today after serving 10 years. They are Marquis Koichi Kido, 66, wartime lord keeper of the privy seal, and Hiroshi Oshima, 60, wartime ambassador to Nazi Germany. Both were sentenced to life by the international military tribunal for conspiring to wage aggressive war.

No President of the U. S. has ever resigned.

State City Wins Fight for Title

St. Louis Will Dedicate Marker Selecting It as Geographic Center

ST. LOUIS, Mich. (AP)—A civic fight has been won to get St. Louis back officially in the middle of Michigan.

With pomp and ceremony Saturday this central Michigan community will dedicate a state highway department marker designating it as the exact geographic center of the Lower Peninsula.

For some three quarters of a century a gray stone in the city park has proclaimed St. Louis, in Gratiot County, as the center of Lower Michigan. But in 1953 a centennial planning board ran into trouble when it asked for an official marker.

The State Highway Department said there was not enough evidence to support the St. Louis claim and denied the request for a sign.

Then Prof. Emeritus Robert W. Clack of Alma College furnished graphic proof. He showed by balancing a cardboard map of lower Michigan on a point that the center of gravity fell at St. Louis.

Presenting Clack's finding to Charles M. Ziegler, the centennial board said:

"You asked for proof of our claim. Here is our proof. Now do we get our sign?"

They did.

Thefts of Ornaments Bring Police Warning

Waterford Township Police Chief Frank VanAtta today warned juveniles who have been stealing lights from outdoor Christmas trees that "they can rest assured they'll be prosecuted to the limit of the law."

"We've had six cases of this vandalism already, and people have only started decorating their trees in the last two days," Chief VanAtta said.

A new human finger nail will usually grow in about 160 days.

Two Women Injured in Crash at Corner

Treated and released from Pontiac General Hospital after an accident at Watkins Lake and Scott Lake roads yesterday afternoon were Mary Lou Charboneau, 23, of Keego Harbor, and Bessie Karns, 23, of 134 Crescent Dr.

Waterford Township police said a car driven by Mrs. Charboneau collided with one driven by George L. Brode, 55, of 181 Seminole Ave.

William Howard Taft who weighed more than 300 pounds was the heaviest U.S. President.

Sheriff's Department Has Christmas Party

Seventy-five Sheriff's deputies and members of the staff attended the Oakland County Sheriff's department's annual Christmas party yesterday evening, Sheriff Frank Irons said today.

700 PHS Vocalists to Sing Sunday

By VICKY MICU

Senior Prom plans and the annual Christmas vocal concert share the spotlight as top news at Pontiac High School this week.

More than 700 PHS vocalists, including the school choruses, boys and girls glee clubs, a capella choir and senior girls ensemble, along with the MacDowell Male Chorus and Pontiac Women's Chorus, will gather for this 22nd annual concert. The program will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in the PHS boys gymnasium.

Seniors are hard at work on plans for the prom which will highlight the winter schedule of activities. Having completed final exams this week, the seniors are devoting much time to the dance, with tickets going on sale Wednesday.

Musical honors this week went to the Pontiac High School Band. With conductor Dale C. Harris, the band staged a concert performance Thursday night for the Detroit convention of the American School Band Directors Association. The PHS musicians represented the state in the Class A band division at the three-day convention. Harris, head of instrumental music for all Pontiac schools, is also president of the ASBDA which is represented in 42 states.

SEND CARE PACKAGES

Beliving giving is better than receiving, and joining in on the holiday mood, students and faculty members are contributing to CARE. Donations will send food and clothing overseas so that those less fortunate may also have a merry Christmas.

In the Christmas vein, members of the Y-Teens Club of Pontiac High will join Waterford's Y-Teens for a broadcast Sunday.

Barbara Kenny, Jo Ann Van Tassel and Carolyn Hawn, representing PHS, and Waterford members will present "A World Christmas Tree." The program will tell of the sisterhood of Y-Teens throughout the world, with the decorating of a Christmas tree in each country being depicted.

GET UF AWARD

For the work the PHS Radio Workshop has done in the past and this year in the United Fund Campaign, an "Award of Merit" has been given to the group by the UF Committee. Each year an original script written and directed by the workshop's own adviser, Vera Mae Adams, is presented, the theme of which is the United Fund.

Workshoppers are also awarding "Tadamy Awards" to various members voted the best actress, actor, sound and engineering man, and so forth. Originally started as a joke, these awards are now being given for outstanding work.

Four PHS senior boys, Anton Simpson, Terry Tollefson, John Hovis and Bruce Mumbrue, wrestled with a three-hour examination for Navy scholarships. Administering the exam were English department chairman, Robert Beauchamp and instructor Lewis Hayner.

All groups and activities were busy this week in the lull before the holiday storm. Students will have a Christmas party Thursday in all sixth hour classes, and be excused for the holidays Thursday at 3:15 p.m.

READY FOR CHRISTMAS CONCERT — Three Pontiac High School vocalists, left to right, Mary Marilyn Roehl, Sue Daly and Deanna Bradley, will be among singers in the PHS Vocal Department's 22nd annual Christmas Concert to be given at 3 p.m. Sunday in the boys' gymnasium. More than 700 in the massed chorus, boys and girls glee clubs, a capella choir and senior girls ensemble will take part in the concert. Director is George H. Putnam, assisted by Mrs. Doreen Voltmann and Merlin Asplin. Religious settings are by the PHS Art Department, under the supervision of John Allshouse.

DISPLAY YULE GIFTS—Eastern Junior High homemaking classes are displaying a wide variety of Christmas gifts they have made under the supervision of instructors Mrs. Thomas Walsh and Mrs. Arthur Van Ryzin. Above, Janice Huff decorates a trayful of rheindeer cookies while Ruth LaFountain looks on as she works to finish an embroidered cloth. More than 200 girls made a gift of food and another of handwork for the Christmas project.

Junior Highs Caught in Whirl of Parties, Programs

Junior high schools were caught in a whirl of parties, programs, dances, caroling and gift basket preparations this week—with the accent, of course, on Christmas.

AT EASTERN

At Eastern Junior High, homemaking classes of Mrs. Thomas Walsh and Mrs. Arthur Van Ryzin are displaying a range of homemade gifts that include fruit cakes, cookies, jellies, candies, frosted candies and decorations, and handsewn toys, clothing and novelties. More than 200 girls made gifts. The class then had a gift wrapping demonstration and the girls wrapped their items. There were prizes for the best looking packages.

Students are planning to attend the Teenage Dance from 7 to 9 tonight in the girls' gym. Monday the glee clubs will be caroling at noon in the Pontiac State Bank Building.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. the PTSA will see "Christmas in Many Lands," presented by the music department. Tableaus of Christmas will be accompanied by carols and Christmas music by the glee clubs and choirs. The program will be repeated as a double assembly for the students Thursday morning. Thursday afternoon each homeroom will have its Christmas party and tree.

AT LINCOLN

The Girls Service Club of Lincoln Junior High feted 150 of the 7B girls at a party Wednesday. The festive affair included group singing, games, a grand march and refreshments.

Seventh graders have been taking reading and mental maturity tests, along with other junior high students in Pontiac.

Forty-eight excited students boarded a bus at Lincoln Tuesday morning for a field trip in speech. Two classes taught by Mildred Wiersema toured a Pontiac radio station, then went on to tour the new city hall. At noon the group met in the Green Room of the Hotel Waldron for a luncheon and program, in which 10 members of the 9th grade speech class demonstrated their ability in after-dinner speaking.

AT WASHINGTON

Washington Junior High is looking forward to a Christmas program to be given next Thursday. The Boys and Girls Glee Clubs and the Ninth Grade Mixed Chorus will present the concert.

Sports minded students will be out Tuesday when the Varsity basketball team plays Eastern Junior High here. Washington hopes to add to the record of 10 straight victories. Booster Club members will sell candy at the game.

Home ec and boys shop classes are busy making holiday goodies and Christmas gifts.

AT JEFFERSON

A Christmas play, "The Vision of Chartres," will be given at Jefferson Junior High at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, with parents invited. Speech instructor Mrs. Ralph Ellsworth will direct the nativity play, which will include 175 speech and music students.

Thursday, each homeroom will have a party and gift exchange. A dance for all students in the gym and movies in the auditorium will close the holiday festivities.

Basketball won't be neglected, though. There will be a game with Lincoln on the Lincoln field.

AT WEVER

Wever Junior High will entertain needy children at its homeroom Christmas parties Wednesday. During the week, collections to fill baskets for two needy families also will be made, with students donating food, canned goods and money.

Christmas issue of the Smoke Signal will be out next week, with new color and plenty of holiday features.

Thursday there will be a Christmas program by the music department, and then school's out until next year!

St. Frederick Prepares Yule Festival

By ANN SCHACHERN

Starting yesterday and continuing until Christmas, classes at St. Frederick High School began adjourning at noon to allow students time for Christmas preparations. Glee Club members, however, have been spending the "free" afternoons rehearsing for the Christmas Festival, as well as for a program of carols the club will sing at 12:30 p.m. next Friday at Pontiac State Bank.

The Glee Club will provide all music for "Sing a Song of Christmas," the annual festival to be held at 8 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday. A matinee for grade school children, held yesterday, was a big success.

The program, a concert and pageant, will start out with religious numbers climaxed by a nativity tableau where "children from many lands" will bring gifts to the Infant King.

The second section will feature well-loved Christmas secular music. Highlight of the program will be the final Christmas cantata, "The Birth of Christ."

Dommic J. Kline will direct the chorus, with Mrs. Paul Miller as organist and Barbara Broadway as piano accompanist. Soloists are Marie Lewandowski, David Jones and Ingrid Soderberg.

After last nights' game with St. Rita's, the basketball team has called an adjournment until Jan. 6 when they will play St. Mary's at Royal Oak.

Tuesday the football team elected co-captains John Bradley and Wally Quarles. Dick Doyon was voted the most valuable player.

MANGER SCENE — Focal point for the St. Frederick School's Christmas festival, "Sing a Song of Christmas" will be this nativity tableau. Playing the part of Mary is Mary Kay Sclesky while Glenn Palmer portrays Joseph. The two "angels" kneeling in the foreground are Linda LaPonsie (left) ,and Patricia Vulasiñuez, both grade school pupils. The high school chorus will provide music for the program, scheduled for 8 p.m. tomorrow and Sunday.

Seniors Plan Caroling Tour

St. Michael's Students Also to Distribute Gifts at County Infirmary

By JANET ENGLISH

With Christmas just around the corner, the spirit of this season is reigning over many activities here at St. Michael High.

Seniors are planning an afternoon of caroling Sunday, during which time they intend to visit Menscola Convalescent Home near Lake Orion and the county Infirmary. At the latter, they will distribute individual Christmas packages prepared this week.

During the Children of Mary meeting Wednesday, the girls of the junior and senior classes set forth on a plan to provide a basket for some needy family. If the rapidly multiplying contributions of goods in Room 10 are any indication, this project is sure to be a success.

Half-day sessions went into effect Thursday to give ambitious students a chance to put in some extra working hours before Christmas.

Last Tuesday senior girls took the Betty Crocker Homemaking Test. All are now anxiously awaiting the results that will depict the winner.

Michaelite reporters were picking up little bits of this and that this week as they put finishing touches on their articles for the second issue. According to co-editors Fran Hayes and Colleen McEnery, the publication should reach the Shamrocks by Monday.

Perplexed expressions covered the faces of many Michaelites this week as they worked to discern the correct answers to the "Christmas Puzzles" contest put out by the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. Winners of this tricky test w be announced sometime next week.

JA to Hold Party for Underprivileged

Junior Achievement companies of Pontiac will hold a Christmas party for 13 underprivileged children at 3 p.m. Sunday in the Knights of Pythias Hall.

The young businessmen and women have arranged to have Santa there with gifts for the kiddies. Entertaining the youngsters will be the "Four Joes," Tony Thomas and his Melodeers and a magician.

'Fantasy in White' Dance Scheduled for Dec. 30

St. Frederick High School's Varsity Club is preparing its "Fantasy in White" dance, to be held from 9 p.m. to midnight Dec. 30.

Students in semi-formal dress will dance to the music of Russell Garcia and his orchestra at this pre-New Year's Eve affair. Tickets, available at the door, will be $2.50 a couple.

'Silver Bells' to Ring Out at Waterford

By JEAN LIIMATTA

"Silver Bells" will ring gayly at Waterford Township High School next Friday night as the senior class sponsors one of the most important dances of the year—the annual Christmas dance.

This dressy affair, to which the alumni are especially invited, will feature Bob Olsen's orchestra of U. of M. It will be held from 9-12, and tickets are $1.50 per couple.

More than 600 attended the A Capella Choir's Christmas concert Thursday night. The program drew wide praise for its fine singing, colorful pageantry, and the "mood" of the performance with which included both the gaiety and holiness of the Christmas season.

Practicing the instruction of WTHS speech classes for six weeks, under Miss Patty Looman, are two Central students, Marilyn Friday and Fred Goyette. Fred, a '52 graduate of WTHS, has been coaching the JV debaters, who took part in their first debate Monday at Farmington. Both of his teams were victorious.

Juniors met regularly this week to prepare the scrip for "Showboat TV," which will be held Jan. 19 and 21. The pep assembly this afternoon was also presented by the junior class to inspire the Skippers to a fourth victory tonight at Walled Lake.

WTHS seniors sold about 4,600 pounds of candy in their recent candy sale. Collecting $3,600 from the sales, the Trip Club made approximately $1200 profit. Under the sponsorship of Byron Merritt and Donald Arsen, the club conducts the campaign each year to help finance the senior trip.

Directory in the Making

The Waterford High Student Council is in the process of publishing a student directory with the names, addresses, grades, and telephone numbers of all students. Students feel this will be a great aid to them in contacting others for both academic and extra-curricular purposes.

Good Times Ahead at Area Highs

Plans for Christmas programs, dances and a debate tournament sparked activities at area high schools this week.

Bloomfield Hills High will present its annual Christmas program at 8:30 tonight. Clarence Luchtman will direct the vocal music and Bruce Warnock the instrumental sections.

Spotlighted will be vocal solos by Mary Lou Fuller and Janet Richards, and Arthur Plaxton and his trombone playing "O Holy Night." William Stouffer Jr. will narrate "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" with a choral background.

The girls triple trio, "The Jills" will sing, "Marshmallow World," "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" and "As Mary Walked Through Sunny Woods."

"Mistletoe Magic," annual Christmas dance sponsored by Phi Sigma Tau will take place on Thursday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. The formal dance will feature a five-piece orchestra and cost $3.50 per couple. The auditorium will be decorated with 3,000 balloons.

At Walled Lake High, some 250 students will have a part in "Carols for Christmas" a program to be given at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the new high school auditorium. The affair is being put on by the band, choruses and speech department.

With the second round of tournaments completed in the Inter-Lakes Debate League, three of the five schools competing have identical records of three wins and one loss.

Farmington, Southfield, and Walled Lake share first place; Waterford has one win and three losses; while Lincoln of Van Dyke has yet to get a favorable decision.

The teams will suspend operations until Jan. 9 when they will meet at Van Dyke.

SET FOR SNO-BALL

Students at Avondale High are rushing to prepare for "The Sno-Ball," a dance to be held from 9 p.m. to midnight Tuesday in the gym. There will be a well known orchestra, Christmas punch and cookies, and decorations in the holiday mood.

Avondale's cheering section will trek to Royal Oak Madison tonight for the season's first basketball game away from home. Having defeated Troy last Friday, the Yellow Jackets will be after their second consecutive league win against the highly touted Madison five.

West Bloomfield High seniors are planning their biggest dance of the year Wednesday night. There will be an orchestra for this Christmas affair, and a large crowd is expected.

At Emmanuel Christian High School, last minute rehearsals are under way for the three-act play, "Home for Christmas," to be given at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. The play shows how a soldier, a pair of red mittens and a small child and her family help an embittered girl find renewed faith in God, and send her home for Christmas.

ALWAYS the perfect gift—luggage. This leather overnighter will find its use among every member of the family. But there's a piece of luggage for everyone from a toilette kit to a steamer trunk. Pick for durability.

State Administrative Board Building Unit Approves Lease for Kalkaska Air Base

LANSING (AP)—The way now appears clear for approval of a lease between the state and the Air Force for the 8,000-acre Kalkaska jet base site.

The building committee of the State Administrative Board approved the lease after raising several questions about hunting and fishing rights, oil and mineral rights and payment of the so-called "swamp tax."

Aud. Gen. Victor Targonski, chairman of the building committee, said a final draft of the lease would probably be ready for submission to the Administrative Board at its meeting next Tuesday.

Targonski said he was satisfied all the "wrinkles" had been ironed out during a conference with Air Force officers Wednesday. "All that remains now is the wording of some of the provisions but I don't expect any trouble there," he said.

JEOPARDIZED RIGHTS

Targonski had objected earlier that the lease would allow the Air Force to run its own private hunting and fishing preserve in the reservation.

In its original form, he said, it might have jeopardized state oil and mineral rights by allowing private drillers to drill on neighboring land, thus draining off reserves under the air base itself.

In addition, he said, the original form of the lease was not clear on reclamation of the land if the state wants to recover the site.

He also objected that the state would receive $1 from the Air Force for a 99-year lease, but pay $800 a year in "swamp taxes" to Kalkaska County. The state pays the swamp tax on the basis of 10 cents an acre in lieu of local taxes.

WHY NOT BUY LAND

Committee members also pressed Air Force officers at the meeting for an explanation as to why the Air Force could not buy the land from the state at its market value.

Lt. Col. William R. Norton of the Air Force real estate division in Washington, D. C., said the Air Force policy is to obtain state lands by lease, although in some instances it buys private land.

Col. Morton said the Kalkaska base, which would cost an initial 25 million dollars, would be an economic blessing to the northern part of the state.

The state, he said, will receive an estimated $90,000 a year in sales taxes from base personnel. Eventually, the Air Force may spend another 50 million dollars developing the base, he added.

Col. Morton told the committee the federal government would finance construction of new schools made necessary by the influx of some 5,000 people into the area.

Spurned Lover Killed in Chase

Lawmen Track Down Youth, Who Slayed 3 and Wounded 2 Others

VANDERGRIFT, Pa. (AP) — A love-crazed youth who killed three persons and wounded two others died last night six hours after he was shot down in a gun fight with a posse that hunted him for 16 hours.

John Fallone, 17, died at nearby Armstrong County Memorial Hospital, where his would-be girl friend Gladys Small, 15, lay in critical condition from shots fired into her chest by the berserk boy.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Small, and her uncle, William Small, were shot by Fallone Wednesday night in this rural community.

Policeman Gus Zanos of Apollo, wounded by Fallone as the nearly 50-man posse closed in on the youth yesterday, was reported in satisfactory condition. He missed death by a fraction of an inch as a bullet hit him under the right eye and ranged upward to lodge under his skull.

YOUTH WELL ARMED

About 100 shots were fired before a sharpshooting state policeman picked off Fallone as he stuck his head out from behind a tree stump. Fallone was found with a .22-caliber automatic rifle and 500 rounds of ammunition by his side. He never regained consciousness.

He invaded the Small home Wednesday with a rifle and a package of dynamite. His efforts to explode the dynamite after the killings were unsuccessful.

Gladys said she had dated Fallone several months ago and that her parents had forbidden her to see him again.

She said after the date Fallone was so jealous he "wouldn't let me talk to other boys." Fallone had theatened "to get" the entire Small family, she said.

Today, relatives are caring for the five younger Small children. Fallone's father Ernest said: "He was going with her and then it broke up. He never seemed to get over it."

NILES (AP) — Accused in the shotgun wounding of her husband, Mrs. Margie May Milligan, 37, of Berrien Center is being held for Circuit Court trial on a charge of felonious assault with intent to commit murder. Her husband, Emanuel, 43, is reported in fair condition with a possible skull fracture and severe gunshot wounds in his head.

Westinghouse, CIO Talks Still Stymied

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Westinghouse Electric Corp. and its two biggest unions—locked in a strike that is costing both sides millions of dollars—appear as far apart today as when the first plants closed last Oct. 17.

Wages, time studies of workers jobs and length of contract are the big issues. Both sides agree that recent negotiations have made no progress toward agreement on the key issues.

Westinghouse says the dispute is costing some 55,000 striking employes $950,000 a day in wages. About 40,000 other employes are furloughed.

The company declines to comment on its own losses but sources close to the operation estimate production losses so far will exceed 150 million dollars. That doesn't include maintenance costs in the 40 struck plants.

Scientist Says TB Is Caused by Infected Germs

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Tuberculosis may be caused by TV germs that become ill with a virus infection, a Vanderbilt University medical researcher said today.

On the other hand, said Dr. Vernon Knight, director of George Hunter Laboratory for Infectious Diseases at Nashville, healthy tuberculosis germs may not be an important factor in the disease at all.

* * *

Knight has been studying tuberculosis for nine years. Before joining the Hunter Laboratory about a year ago, he studied the disease at Cornell University for eight years. He is an associate professor of medicine at Vanderbilt.

* * *

"It appears," Knight told the Chattanooga News - Free Press, "that the ability of the TB germ to cause disease may be related to small viruses which infect the TB germ itself.

If this theory is correct, Knight said, it could lead to new methods of tuberculosis control. The theory "is based on sound experimental evidence," the researcher reported.

How does the TB germ get sick?

"What happens is a theory, but it goes something like this: The viruses climb on the back of the TB germ like a flea and bite a hole in its back.

"If the TB organism is dividing rapidly, it may divide in such a way as to leave the viruses in one part and escape."

Dr. James T. Cheng, acting Medical Director of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium, said yesterday that Dr. Knight's theory is new to him and that he cannot make a comment on it.

Knight said research under the sick germ theory is going on in five different centers, including one in Atlanta.

Three Hit by Auto Near Local Factory

Three pedestrians were treated for injuries at Pontiac General Hospital last night, after being hit by a car near the Fisher Body factory where they work.

Mrs. Ann P. Strom, 874 Hollywood Ave.; Mrs. Margaret H. Karst, 2877 Adams Rd., and Francis O. Strom, 874 Baldwin Ave., were released after treatment.

The three were struck on Baldwin Ave. by Loy W. Limbaugh, 19, of 125 W. Princeton Ave., who told police he didn't see them until too late.

All three claimed they were standing near the center of the street, waiting for north-bound traffic to clear, when hit by Limbaugh who was going south. None of them said they saw the oncoming car.

Motorist Stocks Dash With Moonshine '55

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (AP)—Ola Mae Anderson has the newest thing in automobile dashboards—or at least she did until Sheriff Preston Hornsby found it.

He said the cafe owner was serving moonshine whisky on tap from the dashboard of her car. Here's the way it worked:

The tank was refilled through a hole in the floorboard.

Hornsby booked the woman on a charge of violating the prohibition law—Tuskegee is in a dry county—and released her under $500 bond.

Infiltration Hearings Ordered to Continue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Internal Security subcommittee today ordered further public hearings starting Jan. 4 in an inquiry into alleged Communist infiltration of the press, radio and television.

Chairman Eastland (D-Miss.), said in a statement that "numerous witnesses are to be called, most of whom already have been examined in executive sessions."

Eastland described the new hearings as "following up the information developed last summer in the questioning of Winston Burdett and other former members of the Communist cell in the Brooklyn Eagle during the late 1930s."

Burdett, a Columbia Broadcasting System newsman, testified that he had joined a Communist unit on the now-defunct Eagle in 1937. He named a dozen other former employes of the newspaper whom he said he had known then as fellow Communists.

Besides those on the Brooklyn Eagle, Burdett named 10 others he said he had known or believed to be Communists in the 1937-40 period.

The subcommittee questioned most of those he identified and the few still in newspaper work all swore that they are not now Communists.

William Lavender of London blamed his suicide attempt on the influx of neighbors to watch his television set.

2,000 Dolphin Give Japs Yule Harvest

ARARI, Japan (AP)—This sleepy fishing hamlet south of Tokyo was reaping an unexpected Christmas harvest today—a school of 2,000 dolphin.

Each dolphin is about five feet long and worth more than $5. The $10,000 marine bonanza is real riches to 2,600 fisher folk who normally wrest a meager living from the sea.

A lookout spotted the school Tuesday and aroused the villagers. Every able-bodied man, woman and child took to the boats.

They formed a school of big marine mammals, and, beating madly on empty tin cans, drove them into Arari Bay. Then they sealed the entrance with their tiny boats.

About 599 dolphin flopped onto the white sandy beach. Villagers rushed these to market.

The village headman ordered the others left to swim in the natural aquarium.

"We'll ruin the price if we take them out all at once," he cautioned.

Fishermen predict the school will last for weeks if harvested slowly.

2 Soviet Editors Frowning on U.S. Showgirl Gowns

LONDON (AP)—Two Soviet editors said today the girls in U. S. night club floor shows ought to wear more clothes.

Moscow radio broadcast the criticism by Anatoly Sofronov, editor of the magazine Ogonyok, and Alexei Adzhubei, editor of the newspaper Komsomolskaya Pravda. They returned recently from a tour of America.

Sofronov said they went to several night clubs and that the floor shows were "very interesting" — but those girls!

"The territory that was uncovered was much too great."

"Most American girls are very pretty," Adzhubei remarked. "We seemed to agree on that."

Men's Jewelry Articles Make Fine Yuletide Gifts

RING, watch and cuff-links. Men's jewelry is limited in use but worn with care.

NO MAN has enough cuff-links or tie clasps. Always a thoughtful and practical gift. These are in leather.

All that glitters is not gold. Nor is it all for the female side of the family. Not this Christmas.

* * *

Men's jewelry manufacturers predict an all-time sales record this year.

Watches, the heaviest revenue producers in this field, feature some unorthodox qualities.

One watch company has announced a new "no-hands" watch that indicates time by numeral. The time—hour and minute — may be seen by looking through a tiny V-shaped window crystal.

Departing drastically from traditional styling concepts, these watches incorporate improvements in movement and case design.

Another firm, keeping in step with modern homes, has an "indirect lighting" system. The undersides of the hands are luminous. The result is a softly diffused "silhouette" effect when the dial is viewed in darkness.

Precious gifts from the jewelry counter—lighters, cuff links, tie clasps, cigaret cases, watch and belt buckles—have always been strong favorites among the men.

For years these articles have been constructed solely of gold and silver. For a time, precious stones adorned the more expensive pieces.

Many of today's jewelry accessories feature leather initials on a plain metal surface.

A manufacturer recommends that this Christmas be flavored with coffee. Their newest matching set offers leather wallets, belts, and oversized stone cuff links and tie bar. All are done in a coffee-colored material.

Men always appreciate smoking accessories in jewelry. Cigaret and cigar lighters of standard makes may be supplemented by a new pipe lighter. This unique gadget sends a strong jet of flame down into the bowl of his pipe.

Parolee Held in Thefts

HART (AP)—Police reported Tuesday that a 36-year-old Grand Rapids parolee, held on a burglary charge in Hart since Dec. 3, has admitted cracking seven safes in Grand Rapids and stealing more than $5,100 in cash and merchandise since last April. The man, identified as Albert Hallas, 36, was serving a prison term for burglary when he was paroled, police said.

Bob Considine Says:

Sure, and U.N. Will Meet Erin's Laddies

NEW YORK (INS) — Ireland in the United Nations? This is going to set a lot better with the pundits along Third avenue's better bistros.

* * *

Sure, and it will elevate the oratory at the nearby headquarters of the world organization, where the great winds blow in five languages.

The only thing that now remains to be seen is whether the Irish accept the invitation. They're a proud people and they read their newspapers and listen to their "raddio."

They won't be forgetting, man and boy what those haythun Rooshians have been saying about them through the years—whenever their name came up for membership.

* * *

"We will never permit Ireland to be a member of the United Nations," that blaggard Gromyko said years ago. "Ireland maintained diplomatic relations with Germany during the great war. It did not lift a hand to help the great Allies."

ANSWERS SLANDER

It was the representative from El Salvador, or some such, who would not let that slander pass unnoticed.

He rose with all the dignity of Daniel O'Connell, himself, and said, "You forget that Russia did more than maintain diplomatic relations with Hitler; that it was Hitler's partner in the conquest of our sister member Poland; that it maintained diplomatic relations with Japan until the last week of the war; that it never lifted a finger to help the Americans in their war against that country."

Gromyko fell into a five-language funk. He may have to apologize before representatives of the brave lads who populated armies from the Baltic to Dakar march in four abreast, a briefcase in one hand and a shillelagh in the other.

Can the chained of the world ever want again for a spokesman when the Irish take the floor in U.N.? Indeed, there's every reason to believe that the first move made by the Irish in U.N. will be a demand for the return, from perfidjous Albion, of the six counties of Ulster that constitute Northern Ireland.

The demand will not be made, you can be sure, by an Irish tenor. This one will rattle every window in the great Secretariat building on our East River—the same that Lord Beaverbrook viewed recently, ablaze in the middle of the night, and swore, "My God! What a waste of electricity."

'ISLAND IN ATLANTIC'

The World Almanac has perhaps the ablest brief account of "Poblacht Na H 'Eireann:

"Ireland, an island in the Atlantic Ocean near the European mainland, is a sovereign, independent republic reparated from Great Britain on the east by the Irish Sea and the North Channel and on the southeast by St. George's Channel."

You can say that again, Buster.

But before the galleries at U.N. are packed with professional Irish-Americans, who often are more vociferously Irish than the Irish, let them heed a note just observed in the centennial edition of "Bartlett's Familiar Quotations."

It goes: "Let every man honor and love the land of his birth and the race from which he springs and keep their memory green. It is a pious and honorable duty. But let us have done with British-Americans and Irish-Americans and German-Americans, and so on, and all be Americans . . .

"If a man is going to be an American at all let him be without any qualifying adjectives, and if he is going to be something else, let him drop the word American from his personal description."

That was said in a speech on Dec. 21, 1888, before the New England Society of Brooklyn. The speaker was Henry Cabot Lodge, grandfather of the present head of the U.S. delegation at U.N.

Navy Reveals Names of Two New A-Subs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has picked the names Skate and Swordfish for its third and fourth atomic-powered submarines.

The Skate is under construction at the Groton, Conn., yards of the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp. The Swordfish is being built at the U. S. Naval Shipyard at Portsmouth, N. H.

The world's first nuclear-powered vessel, the submarine Nautilus, has been operating with the Navy for many months. The second atomic submarine, Seawolf, is nearing completion at Groton.

Fire Call Reveals Bookie's Layout, Whisky Still

DETROIT (AP)—When a neighbor reported smoke coming from a home last night, investigating firemen and police found:

1. A 55 gallon still and three barrels of mash on fire.

2. Five "dream books" used for picking number bets and 18 pads of mutual slips.

While police were searching, six persons called to find out "today's lucky number."

Police are looking for the home owner, Roosevelt Williams, 30.

Jewish Women Train for Frontline Combat Duties

(Perhaps nowhere in the world do women play so important a role in a nation's armed forces as in Israel. In the following article, second of a series, a veteran INS correspondent gives a closeup view of Israeli's women at war.)

By MICAEHL CHINIGO

JERUSALEM (INS)—In the advent of full-scale war Israel's fighting forces will be 40 per cent female.

The popular saying here is: "As the women go, so goes Israel."

If it holds true, then Israel is going a long way militarily, because most of this young nation's young women have definitely gone soldier.

All single women are called up for two years' service—from 18 to 20. They learn nearly all the specialties of modern military tactics.

* * *

They can take up the infantry specialties — rifle, grenade, machinegun, bazooka—or the artillery, tank corps, navy, or air force.

MEET IRTH RON

Irith Ron, for example, is a girl paratrooper.

* * *

"I felt if the boys could do it, the girls ought to be able to do it, too," she explains. "It's all a matter of emancipation."

At first, she admits, she was plain scared.

"But when I jumped out the first time, my mind quickly turned to the problem of landing, which I did without a mishap. After that it was easy. And I got my wings in exactly the same period of time as the boys."

When asked about the physical effort required, the petite brunette said seriously:

"It is somewhat tough on a girl but then these are tough times. I still remember that part of my father's family was killed by the Nazis in Poland, though I myself was born in Israel."

GEDUDEI NO'AR

Some girls start training early—as early as 14—when they enter a co-ed paramilitary organization known as "GADNA." The name is a contraction for "Gedudei No'ar" or "Youth Units."

GADNA is fashioned along the lines of the "Balilas" of Mussolini's day. Like the Balilla, the GADNA is supervised by the ministry of education. Unlike the Balilla, the GADNA is voluntary.

Israeli parents are alive to their nation's defense needs and aware of the limited manpower. So they encourage their young daughters to participate in "GADNA" courses as the first step toward a lifetime national contribution.

IN RESERVES TILL 34

"After the "GADNA" training and a two-year hitch in the regular army women's corps—known as "Chail Nashim"—all women are eligible for the reserves up to the age of 34.

In time of emergency, there's almost no age limit.

Col. Shoshana Gershonovitz, commander of the women's corps, provided a first-hand authoritative picture of the women's role in the Israeli armed forces.

Col. Gershonovitz, who came to Israel from Russia in 1925, said she did not choose the army as a career "just to be in the Army."

"Rather, it was because I became convinced that women ought to take an active part in the security of this country."

Long before the state of Israel was born, she conceived the idea of organizing a women's corps in the "Hagana," which fought for Israeli independence. Looking back, she says that Israel's women wrote the wonderful pages in the story of their nation's early struggle.

Does she feel that women should be sholdiers, even under normal conditions? She had a ready reply:

"In my opinion, women should always be in the army, and especially in this country. While serving, a girl not only contributes to the security of the community as a whole, but also contributes to the national education. In the Army, everybody is equal—and this certainly cannot be said in some of the countries from which immigrants are arriving."

Col. Gershonovitz feels that the Army does a "tremendous job" for its girl members by "teaching them to look upon themselves as the equal of men, as free citizens."

The women's commander, herself a spinster, says that discipline in her corps is "uniformly good"—with the possible exception of some grumbling over short haircuts and wearing hats.

Male officers and enlisted men respect the courage the women have shown during the war of liberation and during the subsequent chain of frontier incidents.

If anything, they say, the women are more diligent than the male soldiers in the routine duties of a peacetime army and in times of stress.

Santa and the Dumdiddy

By Lucrece Hudgins Beale

SYNOPSIS

Beanie sees a candy decorated Christmas tree beside a farmhouse. He helps himself to the candy. The owner catches him and says he must pay for it by cleaning 50 lamps. The Dumdiddy gets the job done for Beanie. Then the farmer says Beanie must do another job.

Chapter 11

CLEANING THE BARN

"That's not fair," protested Beanie when the farmer told him he must do another job to pay for the candy.

"You'll do as I say," ordered the skinny man glaring at Beanie.

Beanie stared at him. For the first time he saw deep, deep into the man's eyes and what he saw was fire and chains and lightning. When he saw this he knew with horror that this wasn't a man but an ogre and that the Christmas tree in his yard was a trap the ogre set to catch boys like himself.

* * *

"I want you to clean this barn," said the ogre. "Stack the bags of grain. Pile the corn in the crib. Put the hay in the loft. Sweep the floor. Have it spotless by sundown. To be sure you get it done I will lock you in here until the sun goes down."

"But there are no brooms or pitchforks or anything to work with!" exclaimed Beanie.

"Use your hands," replied the ogre and he went out and locked the barn door.

Beanie stared in dismay at the dark and dirty barn. High up one side was the only window and it was tightly shuttered. The only light came from cracks in the sides of the barn. Still, it was light enough to see the awful mess.

* * *

"Well, I'll just have to get it cleaned," thought Beanie. "It's the only way I'll ever get away from this place."

He set to work. He threw the corn cobs into one bin. He loaded the hay on his back and carried it up the ladder to the loft. It took many, many tips for there was a great deal of hay and it was scattered all about the barn.

He scraped the grain together into an enormous pile. He found some empty sacks and filled them with the grain. Then he stacked them in the corner.

But when he had done all this work the floor was still covered with bits of hay and grain and corn and there was nowhere in the world for Beanie to sweep it even if he'd had a broom to sweep with.

It was nearly sundown. Beanie sat in a corner and buried his head in his hands. He had done the best he could but his best was not good enough. He thought he would never get away from the ogre now.

The Little Dumdiddy had watched Beanie working so hard without any help and now he thought, "It's time for me to help."

He began to climb up the wall of the barn. He put his feet in knot holes and clung to splinters and struggled and twisted and reached until he came to the window high up at the top of the barn.

* * *

He pushed open the shutters and perched on the window sill. Then he began to make strange soft noises. So soft that Beanie never even heard. But others heard because, in a few moments, there were answering noises from far beyond the barn and suddenly a flock of birds swooped through the open window.

Beanie dried his tears and gazed in astonishment as the birds flew down and began to eat up every last grain and corn kernel on the floor. When they had finished eating they picked up the scattered wisps of hay for their nests and flew away.

"Why, they've swept the barn clean!" cried Beanie joyfully. He was so busy admiring the floor that he never looked up and so he did not see the Dumdiddy climbing down from the window.

Just then the ogre came in. His eyes popped when he saw the spotless barn.

"I've done the job," said Beanie. "Now I will go."

"Oh, no," said the ogre, and the fire in his eyes was burning bright. "You are such a good worker I think I will keep you here for another job tomorrow."

And, with that, the ogre put a chain around Beanie's leg and locked him to the barn door.

(Next: The Dwarf of Gimme House)

"WHERE DID THEY COME FROM?"—The ogre ordered Beanie to have the barn cleaned by the time he came back. He locked Beanie inside and left. There were no brooms or pitch forks or anything to work with. After much work Beanie had finished all the work except the floor, which was still covered with bits of hay and grain and corn and there was nowhere in the world for Beanie to sweep it even if he'd had a broom to sweep with. Suddenly, to Beanie's surprise, a flock of birds swooped through the open window.

Chicago Editor Wins Zenger Press Award

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Basil L. Walters, vice president and executive editor of the Chicago Daily News, will be given the annual John Peter Zenger Freedom of the Press Award by the journalism department of the University of Arizona.

Walter is a past president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. He will receive the award at a meeting of the Arizona Newspaper Assn., which will co-sponsor his appearance at a luncheon during the annual convention in Phoenix, Jan. 15.

Following World War II Walters warned editors they must resist the growing tendency of government at all levels to withhold important information from the public, he said, "We are in grave danger of losing our freedom by default."

Stop Sign Stops Him

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—To ease a traffic hazard at the junction of U.S. 441-State Road 20, safety engineers erected a new stop sign. Thirty minutes later a truck driver saw the sign and applied the brakes. The brakes jammed and the truck overturned. He wasn't hurt.

Firm Votes Dividend

CHICAGO (INS) — The Bresler Ice Cream Co. of Chicago has been turned down by the board of health to pack a holiday liquor punch in its Christmas ice cream cones—even if they were intended to gifts to dealers.

The board of health reasoned that although the law does not state in so many words that liquor is prohibited in ice cream, it does not allow the hard drink to be mixed in, either. Ice cream, said the board, will be ice cream and nothing else.

Handicapped Tots Learn Joys of Christmas Giving

Giving is not limited to the affluent and the physically fit. Its joy is universal, and even a handicapped child — one with cerebral palsy, for instance, whose physical movements don't coordinate with the mind — can know the happiness of making and giving a simple Christmas present.

* * *

Tots in the pre-nursery cerebral palsy class of the Oakland County Society for Crippled Children demonstrated this at a Christmas party held for their parents this morning.

Although the youngsters cannot speak easily or move their hands and feet as others do, each had an attractive handmade gift for the parents. There were waste baskets for the dads, made of tall cans covered with contex paper. For the mothers, neatly pasted scrapbooks.

There was a play in which the children sang their parts and played small musical instruments in time with the piano, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Leon Skelley, and speech therapist Mrs. E. F. Lau.

* * *

Parents were often incredulous to see a child accomplish an unusual feat of speech or hand coordination — often something the school had worked months to teach.

Classes for the 3 to 6-year-old handicapped tots are held Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings in the center at 152 W. Lawrence St. They are paid for by the society's Easter seal fund drive and individual contributions.

Classes for the 6 to 12-year age group are held in the afternoons. Elizabeth Kirkby is executive secretary for the Oakland County society.

Talk on Israel Heard by Zonta Club

Mrs. Herman B. Stenbuck told of her visit to Israel and the Holy Land at the Thursday meeting of the Zonta Club of Pontiac.

* * *

The speaker told the group gathering at Hotel Waldron that the trip has become a very real part of her life, something she lives every day, for to her visiting Israel is a "living experience."

Explaining Hadassah, the organization dedicated to helping Israel, Mrs. Stenbuck told of its hospitals and education centers.

In Israel, the speaker said, you see a terrific past, but a wonderful present and a very thrilling potential for the future.

The people living in Israel, she explained, are a dedicated people. They fought for their land, and they knew for what purpose they were fighting. They fought for a tiny strip of land where they might know peace.

* * *

Entering this land, Mrs. Stenbuck said, the travelers asked themselves what had inspired these people, but as they traveled on their way, they knew the answer. Because from this little area comes the origin of the three major faiths, Christian, Moslem and Jewish.

Israel represented to them their right to freedom of worship and freedom to live in a democratic land without fear.

The speaker told of going down into Nazareth, the old, old city and of its primitive existence.

* * *

In closing Mrs. Stenbuck said, "There is a destiny that makes us brothers because no one can live by himself alone, and the help that we give to others always comes back to be our own."

Mrs. Thomas Horwitz introduced the speaker and Mrs. Fotis Takis conducted the business meeting.

Announcement was made that club member Sarah VanHoosen Jones will leave Jan. 20 for a trip around the world, returning May 7.

Pageant Viewed by Fellowship

A Christmas pageant, "Star of Glory," was presented for the Christian Women's Fellowship of First Christian Church when the group met Tuesday evening in the church parlors.

Participating in the pageant were Mrs. William Hoyt, Mrs. James DeVail, Mrs. Lowell Mount, Mrs. Maurice Cucksey, Mrs. Harold Aeschliman and Mrs. Eleanor Clark.

They were assisted by a girls' trio from the Junior Choir composed of Sharon Pardo, Wanda Sue Vaughn and Mary Alice Kissick. Mrs. James Vaughn accompanied the trio.

Games, toys and books were gathered for the children of the Mission to the Yakima Indians at White Swan, Wash. This mission is a part of the program of the Disciples of Christ in the United States.

Naomi Circle of the church served refreshments from tables decorated in the traditional Christmas motif.

Dietrich, Designer Agree That Beauty Is an Illusion

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK (INS) — Marlene Dietrich has been around for some time now—delighting men and igniting jealous women — and presumably she knows whereof she speaks when the subject is sex appeal.

What she says is, "You don't have to be beautiful to be beautiful."

It's the illusion you create that hits people. It's making people aware that you are with them through your vitality, your self-confidence and the pride of your bearing.

"If people are more aware of you than of anyone else in the room, then you are the most beautiful person there."

These are the words, not of Miss Dietrich, but of Elgee Bove, one of her greatest admirers and a fellow student of sex appeal. Elgee at the idealistic age of 20, is a nationally known fashion designer —probably the only designer of note who concedes that "clothes don't make the woman . . . women make the clothes."

'PICTURE FRAMES'

At the risk of losing business, he declares: "I have seen women wearing my gowns who might as soon have bought a dress for $8.95. Money plays no part in the art of being beautiful."

Elgee, an usher at the Palace Theater only six years ago, is now the designer for "Elfreda," a wholesale dress firm and also clothes some of the fanciest figures in the U. S., including Marilyn Monroe, Denise Darcel, Judy Garland and his chief inspiration, Marlene.

"And I have found that it's the 'projection' in the lady's own personality that makes her look well dressed," he sayd. "Clothes are simply the frame for a picture of a woman.

"The frame may be extravagant and spectacular or pure and simple, in its own right. But if the picture's a dud, nobody's going to look at it for long."

It's hard to describe this "projection" that young Bove talks about, except to say that it's a self - confidence that a woman "flings out, like waves of electricity. It hits people and warms them and makes them feel immensely stimulated to in her presence."

MIND AND MIRROR

These waves of personality are not something you're born with, Elgee believes, but something you develop. He suggests the easiest way to kindle your own personality is this:

"Maintain an open mind, and buy a full-length mirror.

"Look in the mirror and analyze your complete self.

"If there are characteristics you do not like, try to minimize them. Concentrate on the good points, both mentally and physically.

"See that your grooming is as perfect as it can be, and learn how to walk and stand in the most graceful and easy way possible.

"In other words," says Elgee, "get to know yourself thoroughly and intimately — as others see you."

* * *

Armed with the total knowledge of how you look, fortified by the mental buildup you have given to your good features, you will face the world with more poise and self-confidence and vitality.

"Like Marlene Dietrich," says Elgee, swooning youthfully.

"Then," says Elgee, "you will be the picture everybody looks at, no matter what kind of frame you're wearing."

(He adds, however, that Elgee Bove frames are slenderizing this season.)

4 New Members Welcomed by YTC

Four new members were enrolled in the Ethel E. Little Youth Temperance Council at the group's recent Christmas party and meeting at the Frank Deaver home on Cottage street. Enrolled were Eleanor Kent, Ronald Highlen, Ruth Ann and Gene Hargett.

* * *

Charles Baughey led the group in the singing of Christmas carols, and plans were made for a candlelight dedication service for members welcomed in the past three months. Gifts were exchanged by the group followed by the serving of refreshments.

Worldwide Dances Are Presented

An enthusiastic audience responded to curtain call after curtain call last night after the splendid performance of Carola Goya and Matteo in their "Dances of the World."

The concert in Crary Junior High School was the first of four to be presented this season by the Waterford Township Civic Association.

The program in the form of a lecture-recital was narrated for the most part by Matteo. A versatile performer, he has traveled extensively to make a close study of the dances of various lands, not only perfecting himself in their techniques but learning their origin, sources of inspiration, motivation and history.

He explained how the philosophy, religion and geographical location of a country are interwoven into that country's native dances.

* * *

With his partner, the lovely Carola Goya, a living journal of the customs and costumes of Spain, Italy, India, Scotland and Ceylon was projected last night.

Acclaimed "queen of the castanets" in Spain, Miss Goya's performance with these instruments was amazing. In the duet, too, the castanets literally "talked."

Outstanding among the dances presented were those from India. With the Mateo explanation of the gestures used, the audience made an excursion into the life of the Hindu, and the full wonder of the dance of that country was brought home when he performed to Joyce Kilmer's "Trees."

Climaxing the program was performance of the classic Spanish dance, El Amor Brujo, executed superbly by both dancers.

C. E. Wilsons to Entertain at Christmas Open House

Mrs. C. E. Wilson returned from Washington, D.C., to her home, "Longmeadow," in Bloomfield Hills Thursday. Secretary of Defense and Mrs. Wilson will entertain at their traditional open house at their home on Christmas morning.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson and sons, Stephen and Mark, arrived today by plane from their home in Los Angeles. They will spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Yeager of Hickory Grove road and Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Johnson of Detroit.

* * *

Mrs. William H. Cressy of Manchester, N. H., is visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiest of Woodland avenue. Mrs. Cressy will remain in the city until after the holidays.

* * *

Florida sunshine is nice, but Mrs. Maude Wagner of Cameron avenue says there is no place like Pontiac, according to word received while she is vacationing at Ocean Park, Fla.

Before returning to her home she will spend Christmas with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell, in Decatur, Ill.

Spending the holidays with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harbage of Lenox avenue, is Mrs. Frank Nelson of London, Ohio.

Trend to 'Companion Marriage' Sweeping America

(This is the last of five articles presenting the most-up-to-date opinions and tips from dozens of marriage experts on how to be happily married.)

By EDWIN DIAMOND
INS Science Writer

The social scientists say a new pattern of marriage and family life is emerging today in modern America. They call it the "companion marriage."

* * *

The experts have many ways of describing the companion marriage. But the best definition came recently from a 44-year-old housewife named Mrs. Lillian Korzen.

Mrs. Korzen caught the attention of the nation last May when her husband, Michael, 42, complained to a Chicago judge she was so fat he could hardly get his arms around her.

Judge Cornelius Harrington suggested she go on a diet to hold her husband.

When she began dieting Mrs. Korzen tipped the scales at a hefty 190. On Oct. 20, she walked into court 50 pounds lighter, with a new wardrobe and a new hairdo. And she didn't want her old husband back.

TIRED OF 'JUMPING'

Pirouetting like a little girl and patting her smart upswept coiffure, she told a newswoman: "I have a lot of new friends now and a job and I don't have to jump to attention like I used to.

* * *

"He is going to find a changed woman who wants a marriage on a 50-50 basis—I'll go along if he goes along."

For reasons of their own, the Korzens decided not to go along together. And even this is to be expected in the transition phase to companion marriages, according to the experts.

Behind Mrs. Korzen's words, they say, is the unmistakable pattern for a new form of married life for Americans:

The emergence of woman as a wage-earner, the decrease in male dominance and the 50-50 partnership marriage.

* * *

It is part of what Prof. Ernest W. Burgess, Chicago sociologist, calls the "trend to companionship with the emphasis on consensus (common goals), democratic relations and the personal happiness of the family members."

SOME ELEMENTS

Here are some of the elements of the companion marriage:

Who is boss?—Dr. George C. Chamis says:

"The question of who should be boss in the family is being answered today in a new way."

* * *

The old way was for father to be sole boss. Today we see more and more of the family council type of decision making. Authority for making decisions is shared; and, of course, responsibility for them has to be shared too.

"However, while male domination is decreasing in American marriages, power is not yet completely shared by the female. The majority of family home situations are not the companion type—yet."

The woman as breadwinner—according to the Women's Bureau, United States Department of Labor, at last count almost one out of every three married women was working. Almost 10,000,000 women or over half the the 19,000,000 women in the labor force are married.

Nelson Foote of the Family Study Center in Chicago reports husbands "frankly complain" to his interviewers that "working wives are harder to control." He adds:

BOLSTERS THE WIFE

"The greater work opportunities for the woman reduces the male advantages and strengthens the wife's position. The working woman can leave her husband with less fear of hardship since she also can bring home the bacon.

"She has also increased her social horizons through work and makes more contacts."

* * *

Foote foresees the further shortening of the work week and work day to accommodate women. Eventually, a four-hour, four-day work week for mothers might be mutually agreed upon by employer, husband and the working mother — to enable her to work without neglecting her home.

From authority to democracy in the home—Prof. Burgess believes the companion marriage is the key to understanding what is happening to American married life.

It is his notion that the family historically has been in transition from its older forms to a companionship form. In the past, he says, the unifying factors for the family were "formal, external and authoritarian" such as law, public opinion, tradition and ritual.

But in the "emerging form of the companion marriage," he adds, unity is achieved through affection, understanding and companionship.

Dr. Abraham Stone of New York makes a similar point:

"The greater need for marriage preparation today is due largely to our changed cultural attitudes.

"Marriage and the family can no longer be held together solely by the outer forces of law, religion and social pressures.

"It is no longer enough that the husband be a good provider and the wife a good homemaker.

MORE EXPECTED

"Young people expect more out of marriage than this. The emphasis today is on deep inner harmony."

If the trend is toward cooperation and the partnership marriage, what guarantee is there it will lead to more happiness?

Dr. Paul Popenoe of the American Institute of Family Relations made an informal check of marriage from the point of view of the 50-50 partnership idea. Here is what Dr. Popenoe found:

Close friends and relatives were asked to rate domination in a group of marriages. It was decided that 28 per cent of the marriages were dominated by the wife, 35 per cent by the husband and 37 per cent were described as genuine 50-50 partnerships in which each spouse had equal duties and rights.

When these same marriages were rated for happiness, this was decided: Where wife was boss, 47 per cent of the couples were judged happy; where husband was boss, 61 per cent were happy, but where there was a real partnership — "a marriage with two heads'—87 per cent of the couples were counted happy.

Listening Can Make You Popular

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Two interesting letters came to me in the past week. Both were from women with successful husbands. Their problems are basically similar but superficially different.

* * *

"I'm just a housewife," Elizabeth writes. "Every year, I dread my husband's company party. The president gives it at his home and invites all the executives and junior executives—that's my husband's category—and their wives.

GOOD IMPRESSION

"I always get a new dress and a permanent for the occasion, because it's important that I make a good impression. But I am always tongue-tied.

* * *

"Bob pretends that it doesn't matter, but I can see he is disappointed in me. I just can't talk shop because I have no shop to talk.

"I'm too busy at home with the kids to have read any of the right books or to learn the right kind of small talk.

"What can I do to correct this?"

On the other hand, here is a letter from Marie:

"Every year, my husband's firm gives a dinner party for the men and their wives.

* * *

"I am one of the few wives who have jobs of their own. I do commercial art and love it. My husband and I have no children—can't have any—but we are very happy together. We have an excellent maid and a smooth-running house.

CHILDREN, CHILDREN

"But when I get to this annual dinner, I always feel like a fish out of water. All the other wives—or most of them—are staying home raising families.

"All they talk about is children, children, children. I feel like a bump on a log and can't think of a thing to say. Usually, I don't have that trouble at all!"

* *

The answer for both these wives, of course, is, "Don't worry about talking. Just listen." And I don't mean pretend to listen, either. I mean really listen.

When a new book is mentioned, Elizabeth should say, quite frankly, that she hasn't had time to read it but would love to hear what those who have read it think of it.

She'll soon find that they'll all begin to talk at once and that she'll be the center of an animated group.

By making it an occasion to learn, really and sincerely, her problem will be over. Marie must do the same thing, in a different area.

When one of the wives begins to talk about the formula trouble she is having with her youngest, Marie must refuse to let herself be resentful or bored.

She should say, quite frankly, that she has no children, but that she loves them and is interested in hearing about them.

The subject of children, even other people's children, can be interesting if you ask the right questions.

If she does this, Marie will be the belle of the ball!

A devotional message, "Christmas Story," was read and the group joined in singing Christmas carols. Gifts were exchanged, with a special gift being presented to Mrs. Raymond Reeves, retiring president.

Scientists Lagging

Amateurish Methods Lead in Uranium Finds

CLEVELAND (INS) — Stuck-in-the-mud scientists were blamed today for hindering the free world's feverish uranium hunt with their old-fashioned methods.

H.S. Scott, a Canadian geologist who uses modern techniques for hunting radioactive ores, says retired old ladies and children armed with Geiger counters are "defeating the geologists on their own ground."

According to Scott, the geologists and man-makers are still "slogging along through the swamps, eating raw moose meat and being bitten by swarms of flies" as they chart mineral deposits.

But the amateur uranium hunters—"inefficiently, unscientifically and successfully"—are finding uranium strikes in areas where the geologist hasn't even touched, Scott said.

"This amateur prospecting for radioactive minerals has reached a world wide intensity probably unparalleled by any other mineral search in history.

"This search will not wait for the slower, traditional geological methods to catch up."

OFFERS AERIAL PHOTOGEOLOGY

Scott has a solution to help both the swamp-bound mappers and the amateur prospectors. He wants geologists to switch to aerial "photogeology"—a combination of airplane hedge hopping, geological know-how and nuclear physics.

Scott lists four methods for finding uranium and other valuable minerals from the air—photography, reconnaissance, mad (magnetic airborne detection) and radiometric surveys. Here is his explanation.

"In aerial photography you just take pictures of the terrain. In reconnaissance, you study the land from the air. The mad device—used during world war two for submarine detection—registers changes in the earth's magnetic fields.

"Radiometric surveys employ Geiger counters and scintillators to 'see through' lakes, trees, clay and soil cover down to a depth of 6,000 to 7,000 feet—and detect oil or mineral formations."

Scott a 35-year-old former (Hamilton, Ontario) college teacher, has conducted "photo-geology" metals surveys in Greenland, Cuba, Brazil, Pakistan, Portuguese West Africa and South Africa as well as Canada.

Although he has found uranium from the air, he lists an even greater accomplishment.

"Once we were charting a coast line in a country—shan't say which one—for a mining company and we detected an unusually perfectly round deposit indicating a very valuable metal—I shan't say which one.

"We told the company president about it. He checked—it turned out his foreman was hijacking some of this very hot stuff and storing it at a remote place.

"Remote, that is, for the swamp slogger."

New U. N. Members Add Administrative Problems

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Adding 16 countries to the United Nations brings up all sorts of administrative problems for the world organization. For instance, where do you seat them?

* * *

The huge modernistic General Assembly hall and the committee rooms have accommodation now for delegations from 70 countries, six less than the new total membership.

The U.N. will have to juggle some desks to get in all 76, and rip up the floors to put in conduits for the added sound equipment necessary for all to listen to the simultaneous translations.

Sixteen new flagpoles will have to go up on the roll of nation's flags in front of the U.N. Building. The U.N. already has flags on hand from Italy, Austria, Finland, Libya, Nepal, Albania, Bulgaria and Romania. They need them for Ireland, Ceylon, Jordan, Portugal, Spain.

NEW TRUSTEESHIP MEMBER

Italy automatically became a member of the U.N. Trusteeship Council because she administers the trust territory of Somaliland. That makes it necessary to enlarge the council from 12 to 14, because the Assembly has to pick a non-administrative member to keep balance in the council.

* * *

Enlargement of the 11-nation Security Council also looms, but this can be done only by amending the U.N. Charter. There is growing talk of holding a General Assembly session in the spring so this can be done.

There are many problems to. The United Nations estimates it will cost $163,000 to admit the 16 new member states to the organization.

Officials said $83,000 will have to be spent on expansion of present facilities in committee and council chambers.

* * *

An additional $80,000 will go for payment of travel expenses for the new diplomats to U.N. headquarters in New York.

The experts also said it will cost $250 to install each of 16 new flagpoles.

THE BERRYS By Carl Grubert

The U.S imports a great deal of its zinc supply even though it produces more than one-third of all zinc in the world, which is more than the output of any other country.

There were 110 chicken hatcheries in Kentucky under the National Poultry Improvement Plan in 1954-55 with a total capacity of 5,479,244 eggs and over 3 million chicks hatched.

"TO THE RESIDENTS OF PONTIAC AND DRAYTON PLAINS"

I made an appeal to Jehovah's Witnesses for reinstatement in this paper Dec 8, 1955 page D-15 but have heard no answer so this appeal must have been un-noticed therefore I would appreciate it very much if each one of you will kindly and lovingly bring this to the attention of Jehovah's Witnesses when they come to your door.

Like both Samuel and Zacchaeus I think this is the very appropriate occasion to give a summary of the things I have not done. Sam. 12:3. Luke 19:8 Like Job I can say I have not asked the life of another with a curse Job 31:29 '30 I have not gone to other congregations and meetings not approved of adultery by saying hush-hush I have not had part in bearing false witness by knowingly allow them to present something not in its true sense. I have not been lying for years, neither have I lied. Neither have I had the spirit of leviathan by casting down or out of the congregation like King Saul and Diotrephes Job 41:9 3 John 9 & 10. Neither have I murdered my neighbor's name by saying very cutting things then very quickly deliver myself with slipperiness by saying it was all in sport or fun." Pr 26:18, 19 Ecc 8:6 At Job 41:19 the "firebrands" is given as burning lamps and the original word for leap means self deliverance by slipperiness so this is also the spirit of leviathan which I have never practiced.

Therefore I will appreciate it if you residents of Pontiac and Drayton Plains will bring to the attention of Jehovah's Witnesses when they come to your door that I made an appeal to them. I would have kept silent if I were allowed to silently attend meetings Esther 7:4.

I thank you very much.

Second-String Shopper Hits Varsity Line

By JIM BINDER

Once upon a time there was a newspaper man who, each year as Christmas approached, would slip into a mantle of smugness and climb onto a tinseled perch from which he would gaze down in disdain upon the frenzied activity of gift-conscious human beings.

This individual "hated Christmas shopping," an attitude of which he was fiercely proud—it was a view over which he felt he could exchange a wink or two with other males, as when a woman driver makes a left turn from a right-hand lane.

My mantle is a sorry mess today, for it lies along a sidewalk somewhere in downtown Pontiac, trodden and crushed beneath the feet of countless shoppers.

Not a head turned as its wearer clutched it around his shoulders and inserted himself into the throng Thursday afternoon. Discouragingly, nobody seemed perturbed that an obvious Christmas Eve shopper type should suddenly take it into his head to buy presents a full week and a half ahead of time.

It was undoubtedly apparent to some, however, that here was a neophyte in the business of maneuvering. Two headlong charges into hurrying women and a terrifying encounter with one portly lady who almost bowled me into a bin of tree ornaments so unnerved me that I walked out the back door in the belief that I was heading for the basement to look at toys.

Subsequent studies revealed a startling phenomenon: Women seldom bump into each other in crowds although their eyes always seem to be on the counters and never on other passersby. A man, no matter how practiced a shopper he becomes, can ever hope to attain this degree of radar sensitivity.

Mantle askew, I moved from store to store past teeming counters of merchandise — vainly I sought inspiration from the display of goods. The variety of things man produces in the way of gifts is awesome.

It was then that I learned another lesson. Ill-equipped is he who goes forth to Christmas shop without a Basic Plan. Mine, if it could be called one consisted of a search for things which I would immediately "know" was just right for any of 20 people on a nebulous list.

Sooner or later every male finds himself in the lingerie department. My first experience came not by design but because I had stopped in a quiet aisle to catch my breath. It was only when I heard a voice at my shoulder that I realized I was staring intently at a mound of filmy "unmentionables."

"May I help you, sir?"

It dawned on me as I gazed in dismay at the face of the salesgirl that unless I moved on I would shortly be carrying on a conversation about the articles in front of me with a very pretty young lady. I beat a cowardly retreat after muttering something about waiting for someone.

Before I was out of earshot, however, I heard a male voice and turned furtively to see a fellow of about my age holding up a piece of apparel from the pile I had just left so hurriedly and discussing its size with a very professional sales-girl.

The man wasn't a rake. He belonged to a breed of male shopper the like of which I became used to seeing in my foray through Pontiac's downtown area. Taboos which for years have made men the butt of cartoonists and jokesters don't deter them. They buy not out of desperation but because they know what they want.

The package-laden husband who follows his wife in boredom while she makes her purchases is still with us. Some of them are unimaginative clods like myself who share the smug belief that shopping, like churning butter, is a job for the womenfolk.

My trip through the stores convinced me that it isn't, and that my masculine pride was sheer cowardice. I'm a chastened creature who doesn't intend to crawl back to his lofty niche.

In fact, I might just have another go at that lingerie department tomorrow.

$2 Million Heir Changes Name to Ease Job-Hunts

SEATTLE (AP) — John D. Spreckels III, who once inherited two million dollars, is plain John D. Smith, cabinet salesman, today.

* * *

He got the new name yesterday in Superior Court. He said the Spreckels name had been a handicap because it made it tough to get a job. Prospective employers looked upon him "as a financier or a playboy."

Spreckels inherited the two million dollars from his grandfather, sugar baron Adolph B. Spreckels, in 1930 at the age of 20. Most of it is gone now.

Spreckels has been married and divorced four times. Testimony in one of the divorces 10 years ago said he had gone through $100,000 in a three-month betting spree. Three years ago his fourth wife divorced him when he was a hotel night clerk. Wife No. 4 waived alimony, got $10 a month for support of their infant son.

Since then, he has taken a job as a salesman for his brother Adolph, who operates a custom cabinet shop here.

Asked if he had any debts, Spreckels said he owed the government some back income taxes.

"I'm paying $25 a month on that."

"Have you been involved in any other court actions?" Judge Lloyd Shorett asked.

"Nothing but divorce cases," Spreckels answered.

"Petition granted," the judge said.

But changing names doesn't come so easily. When a reporter called the furniture-making firm to check on family relationships, the new Mr. Smith answered the telephone: "This is John Spreckels."

House Witness Asks Immunity 1st Time

CHICAGO (AP) — For the first time in history a witness before the House Un-American Activities Committee has agreed to testify if granted immunity from prosecution.

Congress in 1954 passed legislation providing that courts could give immunity to witnesses before congressional committees. The idea was to encourage witnesses who in the past had pleaded the Fifth Amendment in declining to testify.

Until yesterday, however, no one had consented to testify after an offer of immunity.

Ellis G. Olim, 44, an official of the Chicago Land Clearance Commission who was named by a previous witness as a former Communist in the U. S. government, said he was willing if such immunity is granted.

He once was a stenographer for the Interstate Commerce Commission and the U. S. Public Housing Authority.

Find Bodies of 2 Men Buried in Pit Cave-In FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The bodies of two men buried alive when the walls of a deep excavation crumbled were recovered yesterday, ending a two-day search.

Lee Otis Sively, a Fort Smith fireman, and Donald Daggs, an 18-year-old construction worker from Hartford, Ark., died almost instantly when the pit caved in, said Coroner William H. Pope.

The pit was being dug beneath the floor of the Arkansas Waste Paper Co. to hold a concrete foundation for a heavy paper baler.

TODAY'S ASSIGNMENT FOR:

JUNIOR EDITORS

THE LITTLE DANCING CLASS

Carmencita Does a Spanish Fandango—5

The Spanish gypsies are noted for their wild, beautiful dances. Dressed in bright full skirts and gay flowered shawls, the girls whirl about, clicking their castenets. Castenets are two pieces of wood fastened together at one edge. The inner sides are hollowed and when the castenets are snapped together they make a sharp clicking that adds to the rhythm of the music.

Perhaps it would be fun to put a Spanish dance record on your phonograph now.

Paste this picture on cardboard and color with crayons. Make the skirt a brilliant red and the shawl yellow with blue flowers. The comb and earrings are gold, the castenets brown.

Cut out the parts carefully. Fasten the arms behind the shoulders with brass fasteners or bent pins through the indicated holes. Then Carmencita can lift her arms to click her castenets.

Fold back the ends of the base at the dotted lines and Carmencita will stand up.

Schoolboy Asks for Michigan Hall of Fame

GRAND HAVEN (AP)—Tom Parker, a Grand Haven ninth grader, thinks Michigan should have a hall of fame and his idea has brought encouraging replies from the governor's office.

• • •

Teacher Esther Dean Nyland asked students in a class exercise to nominate in a speech or composition someone to be listed in a Michigan hall of fame—if the state had such a shrine.

Tom asked why they couldn't write the Governor about starting one.

His teacher encouraged the proposal and Tom and eight classmates wrote letters on the matter to Gov. Williams. The letters were answered.

• • •

The Governor said the idea was challenging and contained a good deal of merit. He promised consideration of the move and reported the idea would be forwarded to Dr. Lewis Beeson, executive secretary of the Michigan Historical Commission for suggestions.

Goodfellows to Sell Saturday in 3 County Areas

Old Newsboys to Sell Again

Take Stands in Pontiac, Highland, White Lake Townships

Goodfellows in three Oakland County Areas, Highland, White Lake and Pontiac Townships will take their stations Saturday to sell the Pontiac Press—all in effort to help the less fortunate have a merry Christmas.

* * *

When the Goodfellow's Edition of the Pontiac Press goes on sale in Highland Saturday, it will just be an extension of hard work started by the Volunteer Fire Department in September.

Not only od the 25 businessmen expect to top last year's $350, selling 800 papers, but there will be loads of groceries and gifts collected by placing baskets in the various local stores for residents to make their contributions.

Investigation of needy families has been going on for months, according to George Volkert, head of this detail.

WIVES HELP

Wives of the firemen are in on the deal too. They will be serving hot coffee to the salesmen during the day, then at the end of the sale, there will be a hot chili dinner served at the fire hall for the men.

The women have been collecting and repairing clothing since last summer, and from now until Christmas, unfortunate families may go to the fire hall and select whatever is needed in the line of wearing apparel.

If a family is extra large, they will receive an extra large basket with two big chickens and a bushel of potatoes, Fire Chief Asa Smith said.

* * *

Elmer Sutton is supplying squash for all the food baskets, and Roy Eldridge of Clyde is contributing 10 bushels of potatoes. Both are farmers in the area.

Making original stocking-dolls has become a major project with the Taw-An-Ka (To Do Good) club. When they began making the dolls, 5 years ago, they did not have any money to buy dolls to dress—so the only thing to do, according to Mrs. Earl Glancy, president, was to make the dolls—to make the dresses for. They were so successful with their accomplishment, that it has become an annual project.

Seventy-one old Edgar Metting who is president of the Highland Volunteer Fire Department was one of the first members to join in 1941. Since that time, the company's prime objective is to provide protection and safety for residents of Highland Township.

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP

Men of Pontiac Township Fire Department and Metropolitan club will hold their Goodfellow paper sale on Saturday. Proceeds will be used to help needy families at Christmas time and throughout the year. Also, to help sponsor Christmas parties for the children of the township.

On Sunday there will be two parties held at the American Legion Hall on Churchill Road, given by Legion, Lions Club and firemen of Station one. First party to be for children up to six years old will begin at 1 p.m. The second party for ages 7 to 12 will begin at 3 p.m.

A party to be held at the township hall on Opdyke road given by firemen of Station two on Sunday will begin at 3 p.m. for children up to 12 years.

A party to be held at the fire station on Joslyn Road given by firemen of Station three on Sunday will begin at 1 p.m., for children in that area up to 12 years old.

This will be the 13th year the firemen here have been selling Goodfellow papers. Their goal is $1,000. The "newsboys" will be stationed at main intersections throughout the township.

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP

A goal of $700 is set for tomorrow's Goodfellow sale in White Lake Township.

Andrew Plano, chairman of the sale, says that sales will start in the morning and continue throughout the day.

Sponsoring the affair in White Lake are the Metropolitan Club and the fire department. Salesmen will be at all main corners in the township and at business places.

Proceeds from the sale will go to Christmas baskets and clothes for the needy through the next year.

ROMEO — Workers in the campaign for funds to build the new Community Hospital between Romeo and Almont were elated last night when announcement was made that they had exceeded their goal of $350,000.

Leon Bishop, of Almont, chairman of the Hospital Board, reported that $350,395 had been raised in the drive which ended yesterday.

At noon workers were $90,000 short of their goal but through a contribution of $20,000 from the Ford Motor Company and other valuable pledges, the quota was met.

Some 150 volunteer canvassers met at the Romeo Methodist church for the final report dinner last night.

Dean Rhoda Reddig of the U. of M. School of Nursing was the principal speaker.

150 Attend Oakland County Banquet

More than 150 people attended the annual Oakland County Dairymen's banquet held at the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Building last night.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of The Pontiac Press award to Francis R. Hill of Richmond as the outstanding dairyman of Oakland County for 1955. Press correspondent Reba Heitnzelman made the presentation.

Hill's outstanding record was made on a herd of 20 cows, all registered Holsteins. The herd has a five year average of 12,760 pounds of milk and nearly 440 pounds of butterfat.

The 1955 average was 12,843 pounds of milk and 441 pounds of butterfat.

DOUBLED CAPACITY

Speakers for the evening were Charles Stone from Michigan State University and N. P. Ralston, head of the dairy department of MSU.

Stone told the group that the September milk production for school children had doubled in capacity, rising from 4,000,000 to 8,000,000 bottles sold over last year's record.

Another important factor was stressed by Ralston. He told the group that doctors at Lansing have proved definitely that "of all the food used in weight-reducing programs, milk is the most important element because of its present high calcium and other vitamin contents.

Members of the Commerce OES prepared and served the banquet.

Judge Advocates Change in Township Government

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — Judge Arthur E. Moore of Pontiac appeared before the township board last week to advocate a change in the township's form of government to a charter township.

Judge Moore pointed out that section 31 of Act 359 re: Charter Townships provides for special assessments for — sewers, drains, water systems, and similar public improvements which may be originated by action of the township board after public hearing, etc., but without circulating of special assessment petitions.

Such special assessment bonds may be both the obligation of the special assessment district and the obligation of the township. In the case of the proposed water system, Judge Moore said that the special assessment should raise one-third of the cost, the remainder to be paid by revenue from the system.

Moore stated that he "would like to see the township board call a special election to allow the people to vote on a chartered township, however petitioning should run concurrently." Petitions are now being circulated in the dry area.

A. G. Leonard, township attorney, agreed that "some growth in the type of machinery with which we operate our government is advisable."

The board tabled the suggestions for further study.

Accept Master Township Plan

Farmington Committee Persuades Board to Approve

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP — The Planning Board here won a hard-fought battle to persuade Township Board members to adopt their master plan for the township, Wednesday, in special executive session in the township offices.

* * *

Thomas Cornell, chairman of the Planning Board, had pointed out the advantages of such plan and the chaos that can result from the unplanned expansion of a community growing as rapidly as Farmington Township.

Harry McCracken, township clerk, was unalterably opposed to the plan. E. V. Blanchard, township supervisor, and Ward Eagle and Thomas Pardy, trustees, held out for a compromise.

"There can be no compromise," Cornell said. "Unless the plan is adopted in its entirety, then the board has no workable plan and no need for a Planning Board."

After a corner-conference, Blanchard, McCracken, Pardy and Eagle returned to the conference table and Blanchard moved that the Township Board unanimously adopt the master plan as drawn up by the planners.

* * *

This was done and McCracken was instructed to notify the firm of Vilican-Leman and Associates, planning consultants, that the board has adopted all of the recommendations of the planning board.

Michigan Paper Mill Will Be Reopened

CHEBOYGAN (AP)—The Cheboygan Paper Mill, closed down since June 1953, soon will be humming again.

The new owners of the bankrupt Paper Corp. of America say they will begin rehabilitation of the mill immediately and should have it operating at full efficiency in four to six months.

James M. Conway, president of Charmin Paper Mill, Inc., of Green Bay, Wis., revealed plans for the Cheboygan mill yesterday. His company bought the corporation for $600,000 Tuesday in Federal Court in New York after the U. S. referee in Bankruptcy Irwin Jurtz approved the sale.

Charmin made a $60,000 down payment and agreed to pay a similar amount next week. The balance is to be paid in cash when the title is transferred.

Conway said the mill would manufacture paper towels, napkins, tissues and other household products. More than 200 persons once were employed by the company.

The Touro Synagogue at Newport, R.I., is the oldest Jewish house of worship in America. It was built in 1763.

Hal Boyle Says:

Aerial Photography Reveals Every Detail

NEW YORK (AP)—How effective is the military air camera today? Could you really detect a military buildup in another country through photo reconnaissance?

* * *

These questions have been raised by President Eisenhower's proposals at Geneva for the exchange of military blueprints and aerial inspection as "the gateway to a reduction in armaments."

The issue remains very much alive. Many government figures are privately hopeful the Russians will in time agree to the proposals, perhaps when supplemented by further suggestions on their part.

* * *

The President's "open skies for peace" plan is strikingly dramatized in an exhibit of aerial photography now on display in the Carnegie International Center here.

It shows concretely how effective the camera has become as an eyewitness from the air. The exhibit, planned by a U.S. government interdepartmental committee, has impressed many U.N. delegates and other visitors.

* * *

Just what can photo reconnaissance do? The most impressive single display is a single strip of film 200 feet long and nine inches wide. The strip maps an area of the United States 2,700 miles long and 490 miles wide from New York to Los Angeles.

The strip was filmed in 1948 from 40,000 feet—nearly eight miles up—in less than four hours. The same job could be done today by only two jet planes in less than two hours.

* * *

To the untrained spectator such a film reveals little. All he can pick out are mountains, cities, lakes, rivers and some roads.

But when sections of the film are enlarged and checked by trained photo interpretation experts with special instruments and new techniques, they reveal a very great deal.

Just how much?

"Suppose I lived in a house in that city," I said, pointing at the film. "What could you tell about it—from 40,000 feet up?"

"Many things," replied Lt. Col. Ralph Steakley, a photo recon staff officer and veteran flier. "We could tell pretty accurately the height of your house, what it was constructed of, and the relative age of your community.

* * *

"We could make a good guess on your own economic status. We could tell whether you used a rotary-type lawn mower to cut your grass, whether you had a telephone and an underground septic tank—and probably even describe the clothes hanging on the line in your back yard."

"What if I had three tanks around the house camouflaged by covering them with old tree branches?" I asked.

* * *

"We could spot them with camouflage film," he said. "The live green grass would show up red on the film. The dead tree branches would show up a dull gray-green, and they'd be easy to spot."

Isn't there any way to fool the aerial camera?

"You sometimes can fool a lens—that's true," acknowledge Col. Steakley. "But it isn't easy to fool a good photo interpretation expert.

* * *

"On a large scale it would be very hard to do. You might be able to hide a small building. Sure. But not a whole complex of buildings, or a really big buildup of troops and installations."

An example of the speed of the aerial camera: A jet plane flying 500 miles an hour at low level was able to photograph and identify the cards in a poker hand laid out on an airport runway.

* * *

How long would it take to photograph all of Russia from the air?

"Ambassador Lodge said the job could be done in less than six months," answered the officer. "All I can say is the Air Force stands ready and capable of carrying out any agreement that is reached."

Bowl Bound Spartans Get Royal Sendoff Today

It CAN Happen This Way!

By GRANTLAND RICE

He took his turn, half-heartedly, outlining an excuse.
He figured he was beaten — so he couldn't see the use.
But when he made his little play, it took a lucky swerve,
A sudden, unexpected hop — a title-winning curve —
And straightway they exclaimed about his "courage" and his "nerve."

He started in with bulldog jaw to make a winning fight.
He started in to see it through, as any stalwart might.
But when he cut in with his play, it took a hard luck bound,
And caromed as it shouldn't have on any sort of ground,
And so they rose and branded him a "quitter" and a "hound."

Yes, courage is a fancy word that gives us all a brace,
And yellow is another term we splash about the place.
But there are things behind the scenes that none of us can see,
An edict from the gods of chance, whoever they may be,
Who set the score — and laugh aloud at our philosophy.

Honduran Fighter Meets Dupas in Televised Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Ludwig Lightburn, an invader from British Honduras and a recent graduate of the prelim ranks, is a surprising 13-10 favorite to beat lightweight contender Ralph Dupas of New Orleans in Madison Square Garden tonight.

* * *

It marks the Garden main event debuts of both youngsters. The 10-rounder will be broadcast and telecast (NBC-TV, Radio, 10 p.m., EST) coast to coast.

The odds are strange because Dupas, a seasoned veteran of more than five years of pro battling at 20, figures to have too much experience for the promising, 21-year-old Lightburn.

* * *

Despite his youth, the fleet-footed clever Dupas has been a ranking fighter for several years. He has fought better fighters and is working on an unbeaten string of nine including victories over former lightweight king Paddy DeMarco, Frankie Ryff and Cisco Andrade. His over-all record is 57-6-5 with 10 knockouts.

* * *

Lightburn has come up fast this year. He has won four straight and has a 6-2 record for the year. The two losses were to heavier Ike Logart, now a welterweight contender. Ludwig's record all told is 35-6 with 13 knockouts.

* * *

A look-alike of Ray Robinson, Ludwig also has a style resembling Sugar Ray's. He has a fine jab and has fast hands. He throws plenty of punches in combinations. Dupas also features an excellent left hand. Lightburn moves in on an opponent while Dupas is essentially a counterpuncher.

Chief Tankers Sink Ypsilanti in '55 Opener

Visitors Take Only One First Place; PHS Margin 66-21

That long wait didn't hurt Pontiac High's swimming team too much, as far as results in the opening dual test went yesterday afternoon.

Coach Robert (Des) Boyce's crew of splashers smothered Ypsilanti Central in the wake of a 66-21 count. Coach Ron Gora (former U. of M. star) had just one winner, Dick Bishop. Bishop won the 100 free style event at 61.9 seconds. Chiefs took all the rest, eight firsts.

For the conditions that have kept the PHS squad at a low-period of training time, Boyce felt his squad did all right. He had hoped, however, for a much closer contest, in view of the SVC opener next week against Flint Central, here.

"Times were not too bad," Boyce reported. "Both Bob Keavy and Tom Cross were close to pool marks in their specialties, while other events produced pretty good times."

Keavy hit the 100-yard breaststroke in 1:04.9, just a half second off the pool mark. Cross turned the back stroke (100 yards) in exactly the same figures (1:04.9).

One new event had its premiere in the PHS pool. The 240-yard medley, which includes one "leg" in which the swimmer (Ken Bogard for PHS) swims under water all the way, created a lot of interest. Chiefs' quartet of Cross (backstroke), Bogard (underwater), Keavy (breaststroke, butterfly) and Wayne Ostrander (free styler), turned in a 2:26.1 mark.

The summary:

40-yard freestyle—Won by George Bergatrom (P); Bob House (P) 2nd; Lee Mikesell (Y) 3rd and Dick Borts (Y) 4th. Time 20 seconds.

100 yard breakstroke—Won by Keavy (P); Scovill (Y) 2nd; Jim Cornforth (P) 3rd; Robb (Y) 4th. Time 1:04.9.

200 yard freestyle—Won by Dennis Simonson (P); Ostrander (P) 2nd; Lucas (Y) 3rd; Edwards (Y) 4th. Time 2:21.0.

100 yard breaststroke—Won by Keavy Cross (P); Bogard (P) 2nd; Pat McCann (Y) 3rd; Eisenhart (Y) 4th. Time 1:04.9.

100 yard freestyle—Won by Bishop (Y); Ted Wiersema (P) 2nd; Fred Roeser (P) 3rd; Curtis (Y) 4th. Time 61.9 seconds.

120 yard indiv. medley—Won by Dennis Simonson (P); Bill Hampton (P) 2nd; McCann (Y) 3rd; Eisenhardt (Y) 4th. Time 1:20.9.

Diving—Won by Anton Simson (P); Gideon Roberge (P) 2nd; Bill Sorrell (Y) 3rd.

240 yard medley relay—Won by Pontiac (Time 2:26.1.

160 yard relay—Won by Pontiac (Borgstrom, Bob House, Bruce Membrue and Roeser). Time 1:22.1.

Lattimer Heads Coon Hunters for Next Year

With nearly 100 in attendance, Oakland County Coon Hunters association held its annual banquet and meeting recently, at Bald Eagle Lake's Pioneer Inn.

Ouslide an interesting program, top item of interest was the selection of officers for 1956. Ernest Lattimer of Drayton Plains is the new president.

Other officers include vice president Freeman Pace of Holly; secretary-treasurer Lewis M. Wrenn, Pontiac (re-elected); directors, James Berden, Pontiac, John Feldman, Lake Orion, Jack Hamilton, Ortonville, Carl Kennaday, Oakwood, Ernest Maxfield, Goodrich and Harold Smith, Pontiac.

The half dozen guests and 90 members enjoyed the excellent coon dinner, discussed the killing of hunting dogs in the Oakland area, and steps being taken to correct the situation, and and saw an itriguing motion picture on the "Missouri Cottontail". Howard Shelley told about his recent moose hunting trip into northern Canada.

Annual reports showed the association had taken 239 coons (by 14 hunters) during 1955, an average of 15.5 per hunter.

Injury Puts Flaman in Boston Hospital

BOSTON (AP) — Fernie Flaman, rugged defenseman of Boston's National Hockey League team, will remain hospitalized for 5 or 6 days and be out of action a minimum of two weeks following his injury in last night's game with Chicago.

Flaman was flattened when he collided with Black Hawk defenseman Al Stanley in the second period of the contest won by the Bruins 4-1.

St. Frederick All Set—Foe Doesn't Show

St. Rita Conspicuous by Its Absence; Game Now Scheduled Today

St. Frederick's basketball team was supposed to make its 1st home appearance of the 1955-56 season Thursday night against Hazel Park St. Rita in a Suburban Catholic League game.

But something went amiss! St. Rita forgot to show up! Obvious result—no game!

Through a misunderstanding in the schedule the Vikings from Hazel Park thought the contest was slated for today on their own court, despite the fact that several telephone calls here and there had apparently verified the fact that the game was in Pontiac.

So, being a compromising and understanding gentleman, coach Gene Wright agreed to take his Rams to Hazel Park this afternoon to meet the Vikings, then play the return game here later. In other words—reverse the schedule.

Game time today is 2 p.m. It might be wise for Gene to send a reminder to the Hazel Park school, announcing that the Rams WILL show up.

Eastern, Lincoln Win Loop Openers

Eastern and Lincoln junior high schools racked up easy triumphs Thursday afternoon as the 1955-56 Pontiac Junior High League basketball season began.

Eastern swamped visiting Jefferson, 49-24, as Bill Hayward meshed 15 points to show the way. Forward John Bandy tallied 18 points to spark Lincoln to a 47-22 decision over Wever on the latter's floor.

Jefferson's Junior Varsity saved some face for the Warriors by downing the Indian reserves, 30-13. Lincoln's reserves made a clean sweep by dumping Wever, 33-21.

Argos Trying to Lure Lion Draft Choice

Canadians Reported Making Overtures at Hopalong Cassady

TORONTO (AP)—The Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian National Football League were reported today seeking to sign Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, All-America Ohio State halfback selected by the Detroit Lions as their No. 1 draft choice.

The Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Western Interprovincial Football Union also have been reported to be interested in Cassady.

* * *

The Argonauts last year lured back Tom Dublinski across the border from Detroit. The Argos are not too certain that Dublinski will stick with them for another season, although he is signed to a two-year no-cut contract. Detroit reportedly has made overtures to Dublinski to return.

Toronto also is trying to sign Gary Glick, the Colorado A&M back picked by the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League two weeks ago as their bonus choice in the United States College draft.

The Argos reportedly have offered Glick $12,000 for the 1956 season. Glick said in an interview, however, he has no intention of signing a contract with the Argonauts, or any other team, at this time.

* * *

Glick arrived in Toronto to talk with Argonaut officials today.

Correlation in Comeback Race

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (AP)—Comeback-primed Correlation is scheduled for Saturday's $35,000 Tanforan Handicap despite his owners screams because of the impost.

* * *

Trainer Noble Threewit flew to Los Angeles Tuesday and convinced oilman-owner Robert S. Lytle to enter Correlation despite the 126 pounds.

The winner of two $100,000 races in 1954 is making his first stakes start in more than a year. The layoff was forced by a leg injury.

* * *

The 1⅛-mile handicap will end Tanforan's 42-day meeting.

Other horses expected to be entered include Bobby Brocato, 124 pounds; Bassanio, 112; Mintaka, 111; Author, 100, and War Tryst, 100.

Uclans Stress Aerial Drills

Emphasize Passing for Their Attack Against Michigan State

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The emphasis is on passing as UCLA continues its preparations for the Rose Bowl game against Michigan State.

Ronnie Knox, the Bruins' top passer, may see no action because of a broken ankle bone, but UCLA won't be without an aerial game. Sam Brown, a real threat on end sweeps and cutbacks, also can throw the ball very well. He aspires to be a professional baseball player.

The Michigan State squad arrives this afternoon. The Spartans will hold their workouts in the East Los Angeles Junior College Stadium, not far from their headquarters in Pasadena.

Jewelers, Stone Front Quintets Win City Loop Tests by Identical Counts

Stone Front's basketball squad trounced the Lakeside Royals, 74-57, in an American division game Thursday night at Pontiac High School gym.

Shaw's Jewelers trimmed Stadium Inn by the same count in the other half of last night's twin bill as Pontiac's city leagues wound up their 2nd full week of action.

Two cagers, Walter King of Lakeside and Don Williams of Stone Front, were ejected as the teams matched point totals in the 1st and 2nd quarters for a half-time 32-32 deadlock.

Stone Front wrapped up the victory with a 29-point outburst in the 3rd stanza while restricting Royals to just six. Winners merely coasted from them on.

Four Stone Front players hit double-figured scoring, led by Jerry Long with 24 points. Robert Rush duplicated Long's feat to spark the Lakeside.

Shaw's worked its victory over Stadium a little differently. The Jewelers started fast and buried Stadium under a 38-26 halftime deficit, then took it easy in the 2nd half. Their 23 points in the 1st quarter proved too much for Stadium to offset.

* * *

Dave Sebring paced Shaw's attack with 23 points while Sock Rollis led Stadium's losing effort with 17 markers.

City league play resumes next Monday night with four games, two at Pontiac High and two at Lincoln Junior High. In upper bracket American look contests at PHS, Keego Merchants face Booth Homes at 7 and Sun Life meets Stone Front at 8:30.

Calss D activity at Lincoln finds Central encountering Hot Shots in a National division game at 7 and Boys' Club tackling Lakers in an American division scrap at 8:30.

Haughton Establishes New Harness Earnings Record

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William R. (Billy) Haughton continued his virtual monopoly of harness racing driving honors by winning the national money and race winning crowns again this year, the U. S. Trotting Assn. announced today.

The 32-year-old Massapequa, N. Y., driver also established new all-time records. Haughton's 1955 earnings were $599,445. He won 168 races. The previous records, both set by Haughton last year, were $415,577 and 153 wins.

Joe O'Brien of Del Mar, Calif., who handled Horse of the Year Scott Frost, was runner-up in the money department with $421,660. Stanley Dancer of New Egypt, N. J., took second place in the race-winning category with 130.

* * *

This was the fourth straight year Haughton won the national money title and the third consecutive time he captured the race-winning crown. On each occasion he has bettered previous national records in each division.

* * *

Rounding out the top five drivers in the money division were Dancer with $368,00; John F. Simpson, Orlando, Fla., $264,393; and Jimmy Jordan, Orlando, $251,631.

In third through fifth place among the race winners were William D. Gilmour, Vernon, N. Y., 115; Howard Beissinger, Hamilton, Ohio, 114; and O'Brien, 111.

Reese First to Sign Contract

BROOKLYN (AP)—Pee Wee Reese, 36-year-old captain of Brooklyn's world champion Dodgers, has signed his 1956 contract but Vice President Buzzy Bavasi, for one, hopes he doesn't try to play every game.

Reese, first of the Dodgers to sign a new contract, reportedly received a boost of $1,000 to $36,000.

Bavasi said he told the little veteran shortstop that he'll not be expected to play the full season. He was in 142 regular season and seven World Series games this year.

"If he tries to play 150 games or so, he may break down in one more year," said Bavasi. "But if he plays, say 130, he'll be good for two or three more—and help us a lot more that way."

Some time next season, they'll stop a Brooklyn game and hand Reese a baseball. It will be for his 2,000th National League hit. He needs just 84.

Passes Up Nelson

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Manager Charley Dressen of the Senators says he turned down Montreal slugger Rocky Nelson in the annual draft because he believes Roy Sievers will be Washington's regular 1st baseman in 1956. "Sievers is a better fielder than Mickey Vernon," says Dressen. Vernon has been traded to Boston.

Wing Westward After Farewell Celebrations

Trip Is Second in Three Years for MSU Gridders

EAST LANSING (AP)—The Michigan State Spartans—surprise package of the 1955 football season—were winging their way to the West Coast today for a second Rose Bowl meeting with UCLA.

Michigan State will be the first Big Ten team to play in the Bowl twice in three years.

Leading the MSU delegation to California were "Coach-of-the-Year" Duffy Daugherty, who went last time as an assistant, and All-American Quarterback Earl Morrall of Muskegon, an untested sophomore his first trip.

* * *

Morrall caused the coaches some worry by coming down with a bad cold a few days ago but his condition improved as flight time arrived.

* * *

The 44-man traveling squad had a final workout yesterday afternoon in the confines of Jenison fieldhouse. A blanket of snow prevented any outdoor practice.

While the basketball team worked in the middle of the fieldhouse, the football squad was split into offensive and defensive groups working on opposite sides of the floor.

Today was "Michigan State Day" by proclamation of Gov. Williams and Lansing and East Lansing whooped it up in a farewell to the Spartans.

There was a parade in downtown Lansing with bands, a reviewing stand, the Spartans colors flying from staffs along the route and a farewell ceremony at the airport.

The 65-seat United Airlines Mainliner took off at 9:30 a.m. It will make one refueling stop at Chicago and then fly direct to Burbank, Calif. Time for arrival was 3:40 p.m. coast time.

At Pasadena, where the squad will stay at the Hotel Huntington, another big welcome was planned.

Rose Bowl officials, the Rose Bowl Queen and her court, a band primed to play the Spartan "fight song" and West Coast MSU rooters will welcome the returnees.

Daugherty called off original plans for a practice Friday afternoon and instead will stage a "press day" for photographers Saturday morning and the first coast workout Saturday afternoon.

Sunday will be a day of rest with a tour planned for the afternoon. The serious grind of preparing for the Jan. 2 game will start next week.

Advance Ticket Sale for NFL Title Game Booming

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The public doesn't get much chance at tickets for the Rose Bowl football game, but it is loading up for the pro championship contest to be held in the Memorial Coliseum Dec. 26 between the Cleveland Browns and the Los Angeles Rams.

* * *

The Ram management says the advance sale has been tremendous. There were $67,000 worth of tickets sold the first day the Ram office opened, and the rush is continuing. Given sunny skies, the champions of the Eastern and Western conferences of the National Football League may play before a crowd of more than 100,000. The Rams drew over 90,000 for last week's Western Conference title clincher against the Green Bay Packers.

Los Angeles drilled behind closed gates yesterday. Coach Sid Gillman worked long on offensive maneuvers, probably on the theory that if the Rams are going to win this big one they will have to do it on attack, not on the enemy's mistakes. The Rams won their division al title largely on a stout defense and opportunism that converted opposition mistakes into touchdowns.

Rain and cold are working against the Browns, who are training in Cleveland.

Dixie Player 1st Cager to Attain 3,000 Points

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Hopkins, 6-9 Grambling (La.) College center, is the first college basketball player in history to score 3,000 points.

The lanky scoring ace reached and passed the mark last week when he tallied 69 points in two games against Wiley to run his career total to 3,062 in 103 games according to figures released today by the NCAA Service Bureau. Hopkins supplanted Carl Hartman of Alderson-Broaddus as the record holder. Hartman, who finished his four years of competition last year, scored 2,959.

The Grambling ace is likely to be the record holder for some time since no other active player is even close to 3,000.

In five outings this season, Hopkins has a 33.6-point average on 168 points, including single outbursts of 36, 38, 25, 18 and 51 points.

* * *

Three other small college players are averaging better than 30 points. They are Chester Webb of Georgia Teachers, 31.8; Al Meyer of Illinois Normal, 31.3 and Joe Girlando of Case, 30.

* * *

Other early season individual leaders are Jerry Truax in field goal accuracy with a .636 per cent; Dick Ondecker of Akron and Frank Davis of Middle Tennessee, both of whom have missed only one of 17 free throws for a .941 mark, and Ralph Moore of Erskine in rebound recoveries with a rate of 24.8 a game.

MUSIAL WITH TROPHIES — Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals' star, reminisces with his trophies as a background on his 35th birthday, in St. Louis (Nov. 21). Six times the National League batting champ, he holds silver plate bat he received for 1951 title. The $80,000-a-year performer is confident he'll be able to reach the 3,000-hit milestone before he retires. He has 403 hits more to go before becoming the eighth player in game's history to equal the mark.

Wings Shut Out Leafs, 4-0

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings leap-frogged the Chicago Black Hawks again last night and regained 3rd place in the National Hockey League as Marty Pavelich's 1st goal of the season started Detroit to a 4-0 triumph over Toronto.

The Black Hawks, who have been switching 3rd place consistently with the Red Wings in recent weeks, lost to the Boston Bruins, 4-1. The league-leading Montreal Canadiens stretched their margin to a fat 12 points, whipping 2nd-place New York, 2-0.

Detroit's shutout of Toronto, the 6th for rookie Red Wing goalie Glenn Hall, pushed Toronto into the NHL cellar, a point behind Boston.

After Pavelich's unassisted goal, Dutch Reibel banged in two more, his 6th and 7th of the season, and Alex Delvecchio got his 11th to complete the scoring.

Toronto's Maple Leafs were dangerous only in the 1st period, when Hall made three fine stops. Hall ended with 20 saves to 28 for the veteran Harry Lumley, an ex-Red Wing tending Toronto's nets.

Reibel's two goals came as Detroit's famed "production line" got together again, due to an early-play injury suffered by defenseman Bucky Hollingworth. Elimination of Hollingworth led to a reshuffling of all Detroit forward and defensive units.

Reibel got assistance from both his "production line" partners—Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay—on his 1st goal, and Howe shot him a pass he banged in for his 2nd goal.

Red Wings recently split Howe and Lindsay in an effort to give Detroit more scoring punch on its other lines.

The defending seven-time champion Red Wings and the Maple Leafs drew only 9,839 to Olympia Stadium. Normally the two clubs draw 2,500 more. The Wings blamed a Detroit newspaper strike, which has shut down the cities dailies for 15 days, for the poor turnout. The temperature was a frigid 15-above last night.

New Record in NBA Cage Tilt

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was a new record for the National Basketball Assn. book today as the result of the Minneapolis Lakers 135-133 triumph in three overtime periods over the Syracuse Nationals.

* * *

The combined score of 268 points surpassed the old mark of 248 hung up by Syracuse and Anderson, Ind., in five overtimes in 1949. Syracuse won that one 125-123.

The only other game played last night was a defensive battle by comparison as the Philadelphia Warriors, Eastern Division leaders, turned back the Fort Wayne Pistons 80-73.

The 1954 Chicago Bears won six of their last seven games.

500 Youngsters Expected for OCSC's Yule Affair

Fourth annual Christmas party at Oakland County Sportsmen's Club is set for Sunday, in the clubhouse at Waterford, and about 500 youngsters are expected to take part.

OCSC's president, Bob White, and the club officers will get things moving at 2 p.m. and a full afternoon's program of Yule music, Christmas movies and many other interesting features is promised.

A big tree, loaded with gifts for the young guests will be a feature. Every child will receive a gift.

Monte Barnes will be at the electric organ. Bob Jones is in charge of the singing of Christmas carols and Jackie Rae Voorhees will have her class of young dancers on hand. Jackie will also appear in a baton twirling exhibition. She has won widespread recognition for her ability along this line.

The pictures are "Christmas in Sweden" and "Woody Woodpecker Plays Santa Claus."

Otto Graham played his tenth season with the Cleveland Browns.

Players Again to Make Terms

NEW YORK (AP)—Major league baseball club owners will get another chance to hear the players' proposals, which they rejected at their recent meeting in Chicago.

Commissioner Ford Frick yesterday promised the players' representatives, Robin Roberts of the Phillies and Bob Feller of the Indians, that he will see that the demands are resubmitted at a Feb. 4 meeting of the owners.

The two major items being pressed by the players are: Increase of minimum salary from $6,000 to $7,200 and the right to participate in the negotiations for a new TV contract, which expires after the 1956 World Series.

Under the present conditions, the commissioner has the exclusive right to renew the TV contracts. Sixty per cent of the money goes to the Player Pension Fund.

Keen Unable to Find Little Mat Prospect

ANN ARBOR — Cliff Keen, University of Michigan wrestling coach, although not poetically inclined, has an answer for the poet who asked "What is so rare as a day in June?"

Cliff's reply is: "A 115-pound wrestler."

Since the Big Ten has this season decided to add the 115 pound weight class to its meet schedule in accordance with Olympic rules, Keen has combed his squad and also the intramural group for a grappler who can make that weight — with no results.

In desperation he inserted a box in the Michigan Daily asking for students of that weight who have wrestling ambitions. Thus far—no takers.

"I'm hoping," sighed Cliff, "but I guess we grow 'em too big in Michigan these days."

Aragon in Welter Line After Winning

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Art Aragon may be over the hill for top-notch welterweights but he stood in line today for a non-title, big-money fight with lightweight champion Wallace (Bud) Smith, of Cincinnati, at the Olympic Auditorum here Jan. 12.

* * *

The 28-year-old Aragon, who is still a game and deadly puncher, earned a Smith fight with a unanimous decision last night at the Olympic over Don Jordan, also of Los Angeles.

Aragon, with a 5½-pound weight advantage at 147½, decked the 21-year-old Jordan with a solid left hook to the jaw for a nine-count in the first round and never was seriously in danger from then on.

382 Total Bases

Willie Mays Captures National League's Slugging Title for 2nd Straight Year

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Mays of the New York Giants, who was dethroned as National League batting champion last season, hit well enough to capture the circuit's slugging title for the second straight year.

The hard-hitting center fielder compiled 382 total bases in 580 times at bat for a slugging mark of .659, official averages released today showed.

Among Mays' extra base output were 18 doubles, 13 triples and 51 homers, the latter the league's top figure. Willie wound up second to Philadelphia's Richie Ashburn in the batting competition.

Duke Snider of Brooklyn was the runner-up to Mays in slugging, pounding out 338 total bases in 538 at bats for a .628 average. Snider was followed by Eddie Mathews of Milwaukee with .601, Ernie Banks of Chicago with .596, Ted Kluszewski of Cincinnati with .585 and Roy Campanella of the Dodgers, the league's Most Valuable Player, with .583.

Intentional bases on balls were compiled officially for the first time and the Redlegs' Kluszewski proved to be the most feared batter. The muscular first baseman received 25 intentional walks.

Mathews drew the most bases on balls, 109 while Wally Post of Cincinnati struck out the most times, 102 and Don Mueller of the Giants fanned the fewest times, 18.

These included most home runs in a season, 1,263 (league total); most home runs with bases filled—5 by Ernie Banks and most players making two or more home runs in one season—84.

Banks also eclipsed the home run record for major league shortstops. He walloped 44.

Heavy Card Tonight in All Prep Loops

Another heavy schedule of league games is on tap for tonight's prep cage action.

Birmingham (1-1) begins Eastern Michigan League play at home against Mt. Clemens, one of the top favorites for the title this year. The Bathers were runnerups to the Maples last year in the EML but got post season revenge by dumping Birmingham in the first round of the regional playoffs.

Coach John Petrakis uncovered a ray of light in the Cranbrook game last week in forward Don Haugh who moved into the lineup in place of Don Pieman and brought help to Birmingham's much needed board strength.

A crucial battle in the Inter-Lakes takes place tonight when unbeaten Waterford travels to Walled Lake. Both teams are 1-0 in loop play and the Skippers are resting on a three game victory streak.

It will be a battle of centers with Larry Hughes, Walled Lake's high scoring pivot matching baskets with 6-4 Chuck Gillis of Waterford.

Farmington with an upset win over Southfield is at Berkley and the Jays, who snapped a three game losing streak play at Van Dyke.

The hectic race in the Wayne-Oakland league again has a top card with Milford putting its 2-0 loop mark in jeopardy at Holly, a team which has lost two close decisions against league teams.

Brighton, nipped by Clarkston Tuesday, is host to Northville and West Bloomfield is home with Clarenceville. The Lakers paced by Frank Rogers have been involvd in two close games, losing 53-51 to Northville and edging Holly 52-51.

In Oakland B action Lake Orion is home with title conscious Fitzgerald and Avondale travels to Madison which has been picked as title favorite.

The Yellow Jackets started league play by downing Troy, but will have to put a stopper on high scoring Jim Simer of the Eagles in any thoughts of upset.

Clawson which has now lost 20 games since the start of last season will try again at home against Roseville.

South Central games have Ortonville playing at North Branch, and in the Southern Thumb Memphis is at Almont, New Haven at Capac and Dryden at Armada.

Unbeaten Lapeer is at Kearsley, Utica scraps with Romeo, and Imlay City's balanced scoring unit visits Brown City.

Detroit Stars Slip Behind in Bowling Meet

Hennessey and Lubanski Follow Wilman After 1st Day of Finals

CHICAGO (AP)—Veteran Joe Wilman, a former champion, and Anita Cantaline of Detroit, held the top spots after the first day's competition in the finals of the national All-Star Bowling Tournament.

* * *

Wilman, champion in 1945-46, continued his excellent sniping yesterday during the opening day's four four-game matches and held a 3.15 Petersen point lead over youthful Dick Weber of St. Louis. Wilman, of suburban Berwyn, moved into the top at the end of the third match, displacing Weber.

In marching to the front, Wilwan won 13 of the 16 games. He defeated Stan Thaden, Chicago; Harry Smith, Detroit; Weber, and Tom Hennessey, Detroit, in that order. He pulled up 79.34 points to Weber's 76.19.

* * *

Eddie Lubanski, of Detroit, ast season's runner-up, collected the most pins, 3,353, as he finished third. His pinnage was 19 more than Wilman.

* * *

Defending champion Steve Nagy of Detroit, plagued by an injured second finger on his throwing hand, won 8 games out of 16 for 72.14 points and 10th place, 7.20 points away from the top.

Former champions Don Carter of St. Louis, and Dick Hoover, Akron, Ohio, were in fifth and sixth places, respectively. Carter rolled the day's best series, a 908, as he blasted John Quinzi, of East Rochester, N. Y., in the day's third match. Carter's games were 173, 257, 267, 211.

* * *

Miss Cantaline, a bowling instructor, stole the thunder from the other 15 feminine contestants as she roared into the lead at the end of the first squad and held it through the first session. Her leading total was 39.05 points.

TOP SCORER—Chuck Gillis, Waterford's high scoring 6-4 center, gets stiff competition tonight when he meets Walled Lake's Larry Hughes, 6-2 center, who is Inter-Lake's League leading pointmaker. Hughes has a 17.6 average and Gillis is shooting 14.3 per game. This is considered the top game in the IL, tonight.

Jockeys Hurt in Tropical Park Spills

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (INS)—Jockeys Bennie Sorenson and Chris Rogers, victims of a spectacular four-horse spill at Tropical Park, were recovering today at Coral Gables' General Hospital.

Sorenson, the more seriously injured, may have to stay in the hospital for "a week to ten days" because of a blow on the head.

He was knocked out by his fall and did not regain consciousness until he was taken to the hospital. X-rays showed no fractures of the neck or skull.

Physicians said Rogers' knee is swollen and that he will probably be hospitalized "for a few days."

Sorenson was riding Some Crown in yesterday's 5th race when his mount stumbled and fell. The other horses fell over Some Crown.

Also involved in the spill were jockeys Don Wagner and Bob Ussery.

Two Pacers Named Best by Writers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Belle Acton, Quick Chief and Adios Harry have been named the year's best pacers in their divisions—2-year-old, 3-year-old and aged pacers, respectively.

Scott Frost, Saboteur and Kimberly Kid won similar honors for trotters.

The selections were made by sports writers in the annual U.S. Trotting Assn. poll, in results announced yesterday.

Slim Audience Sees White Defeat Jasper

SAGINAW (AP)—Gene White, 196, St. Paul, Minn., won an unanimous decision last night over Don Jasper, 192, Duluth, Minn., in one of three eight-round features on a fight card that drew a meager 516 in 12-degree weather. The gross gate was $1,446.

Yama Bahama, 150, Detroit, won on a technical knockout over Howard Calloway, 158, Muskegon, Mich., in the 3rd of a scheduled eight-rounder. Calloway was a last-minute substitute for Leffie Walker, of Saginaw, injured in a car-train collision last night.

Joe Gray, 160, Dearborn, Mich., outpointed Bill London, 159, Detroit, 8.

Mickie Crawford, 145, Saginaw, outpointed Leo Desjardins, 146, Windsor, Ont., 4.

Chuck Taylor, 137, Detroit, outpointed Chet Wiley, 140, Detroit, 4.

Glick Ready to Talk but Not Sign Contract

TORONTO (AP)—Gary Glick, star halfback of Colorado A&M arrived by plane early today to talk contract terms with the Toronto Argonauts of the Big Four Football Union.

* * *

The much-sought-after Glick, met by team officials and newspaper men at nearby Malton Airport, said in an interview that he has no intention of signing a contract with the Argonauts, or any other team, at this time.

* * *

"Pittsburgh made me a pretty good offer," Glick said. However, he said it had not approached the figure mentioned to him by Argo team manager Harry Sonshine.

Gains Through Air

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Pitt's 1955 football team, compiling a 7-3 record before going to the Sugar Bowl, was known as a running team because it picked up 113 1st downs and 2045 yards rushing and only 17 1st downs and 510 yards passing. But, oddly enough, exactly one-third of Pitt's 27 touchdowns came via passes.

Peirson Back as Goal-Getter With Boston

Leads Bruins to 4-1 Victory Over Hawks in Comeback

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Johnny Peirson has resumed his National Hockey League career just where he left it 20 months ago—as a dependable goal-getter for the Boston Bruins.

* * *

"It felt like old times," the 30-year-old right winger said after ringing up a goal and an assist in the first game of his comeback last night. Boston beat Chicago 4-1.

In other games Montreal defeated New York 2-0 and Detroit blanked Toronto 4-0 as goalies Jacques Plante and Glenn Hall both posted their sixth NHL shutouts of the season.

Peirson, a 20-game scorer for six seasons following World War II, retired to go into the furniture business after the 1953-54 season. But somehow Johnny just couldn't keep off skates and the urge was worse this year than last to get back into uniform.

General Manager Lynn Patrick and Coach Milt Schmidt of the Bruins hopefully noticed these signs of unrest in the man who had been Boston's most prolific scorer in the post-war years. Boston needed scoring punch and has been riddled by injuries. Only 10 days ago Peirson announced he would return.

"I got tired midway in the second period," Peirson admitted but proved to the 5,549 Boston Garden fans he had lost neither his finesse nor his aim.

In the second period Peirson and Chicago's Nick Mickoski went after the puck in front of the Black Hawk nets but Mickoski got his stick on the disc. Johnny gave stick, puck and all a whack and had a goal.

Snead Fires 64 at Sanford

SANFORD, Fla. (AP)—Sam Snead is like wine; he seems to get better with age.

* * *

The Slamer from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., is 43 years old—and for a professional golfer that's up in years. But Sam isn't conceding Father Time a thing. He's looking, feeling and playing as well or better than ever.

* * *

In successive comeptitive rounds, Snead has turned in two record performances. As a result of his latest record-smashing effort, The Slammer started today's second round in the $15,000 Sanford Open golf tournament with a two-stroke lead over his nearest competitors.

Snead's opening round 33-31—64, a six under par effort, wiped out the old mark of 65 for the Mayfair Inn Country Club Course set in the late 1930s by amateur Jim Spencer of Sanford and since equalled several times.

It put him two strokes ahead of Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, one of the younger pros, and veteran Ted Kroll of Bethesda, Md.

* * *

Seven others deadlocked for fourth spot with 67s as 37 of the huge field shattered par and nine others matched it in the opening round. Par for the 6,205-yard course is 36-34—70.

Mike Souchak, former Duke football star who registers out of Grossinger's, N. Y., was one of those with a 67.

* * *

A birdie putt of 4½ feet — a length he hates — on the final hole gave Snead his record 64, but his most sensational shot of the round came at No. 17.

Snead poked a drive about 265 yards down the fairway and used a seven-iron for his 135-yard second shot. The ball hit the pin and stopped 10 inches from the cup for an easy birdie. He got his other birdies with putts of 20, 12, 8 and 5 feet.

* * *

Sunday, Snead won the Miami Open after firing a record six-under-par 29 on the back nine of the Miami Springs Course. He beat Tommy Bolt of Chattanooga in a sudden death playoff. Bolt carded a 68 in his first round here.

Oklahoma Will Receive Trophy Tonight as Nation's Number 1 Football Team

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—For the second time in the past six years, Oklahoma tonight receives the Rev. J. Hugh O'Donnell Memorial Trophy, emblem of the national football championship based on The Associated Press annual poll.

The presentation will be made at an award banquet before an expected crowd of 500 persons.

Joe Abbott of Patterson, N. J., president of the Notre Dame Monogram Club which offers the trophy, will present it to Oklahoma's tri-captains, Bo Bolinger, Cecil Morris and Eldon Loughridge.

* * *

Ted Smits, New York, general sports editor of The Associated Press, will be principal speaker. Edward (Moose) Krause, Notre Dame athletic director, and Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma athletic director and head football coach, also will speak.

Wilbur Martin, Associated Press chief of bureau in Oklahoma City, will present All-America certificates to halfback Tommy McDonald, who made the first team, and to guard Bo Bolinger, who earned a second-team berth.

* * *

The Sooners, riding the nation's streak of 29 games, are preparing for the Orange Bowl game with Maryland Jan. 2 at Miami.

* * *

Wilkinson's Sooners won the mythical title on the strength of their second straight undefeated campaign in which they captured their eighth consecutive undisputed Big 7 conference championship.

The Sooners are the only team to twice win the O'Donnell Trophy, named for the late Notre Dame president. The 1950 Oklahoma eleven also was chosen national kings. Other O'Donnell winners are Ohio State in 1954, Maryland in 1953, Michigan State in 1952, Tennessee in 1951, Notre Dame in 1949 and Michigan in 1948.

Trabert Resumes Tennis Rivalry Against Pancho

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Tony Trabert and Richard (Pancho) Gonzales resume their professional tennis rivalry tonight, with veteran Gonzales holding a 2-0 lead in the newly launched national tour.

Big Pancho of Los Angeles set the recently turned professional Trabert down in the opening match in New York and repeated it in straight sets in Tony's hometown of Cincinnati.

Two onetime U.S. Davis Cup stars, Ted Schroeder and Gene Mako, were named head umpires for the local duels tonight and tomorrow night at Pan-Pacific Auditorium.

Trabert and Gonzales were agreed on one point at this stage of hostilities: Each found the other a better player than anticipated.

As amateurs, when Tony was just out of the junior class, Pancho won in their only meeting.

Robin Roberts of the Phils has led the National League in total innings pitched for five years.

Aches and Pains

BOSTON (AP)—Bob Cousy, basketball ace of the Boston Celtics who has added a chest cold to his shoulder, arm and hip bruises, has been ordered to bed until tomorrow night's game with Syracuse.

Duke's first undefeated football team in the season of 1891 buried Furman under a whopping 96-0 score.

Santee Plans Active Season

Runs Second Fastest Indoor Mile in AAU Development Meet

NEW YORK (AP) — Wes Santee, America's fastest miler, is planning an active indoor campaign after running the second fastest mile ever on a flat track.

The 23-year-old Marine lieutenant stationed at Quantico, Va., was clocked in 4:10.2 last night as he won the handicap mile in a metropolitan AAU development meet. Only Don Gehrmann of Wisconsin ever turned in a faster time on flat boards. His time was 4:09.1.

"I plan a full campaign during the coming indoor season and already have entered several races," Santee said. "My next race probably will be in a special mile at the Orange Bowl football game in Miami Jan. 2. I also have been invited to compete in the Sugar Bowl mile at New Orleans but will pass that up in favor of the Orange Bowl if I run at all." Santee won the Sugar Bowl event last year.

Newsmen Fly

Hialeah Plans Royal Welcome for Nashua

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Elaborate plans are being made to welcome Nashua, sold yesterday for $1,251,200, when he returns to Hialeah Park to resume his racing career.

Hialeah plans to fly newsmen to Lexington, Ky., to accompany the great thoroughbred when he leaves Kentucky for Florida on Dec. 22. Another party of newsmen is expected to meet the train at Jacksonville and accompany Nashua on the final leg to Miami, arriving here Dec. 24.

Nashua will be included in a carload of what is probably the most expensive shipment of thoroughbreds on record. In addition to the big bay colt, the car will contain Wheatley Stable's Misty Morn and High Voltage, best 3-year-old fillies in different 1955 polls, and Claiborne Farm's Doubledogdare, 2-year-old filly champion.

Bowling Clinic

By BILLY SIXTY

ROLLER VS. SPINNER — A change in ball action has lowered the average of John Mattia of Philadelphia from 190 to 160 in one season. "For nine years my hook left a line on the ball well to the right of the thumb-hole (sketch 1), but now it sort of rolls over lazily, and almost straight, with the line just on the outside of the thumb and finger-hole. What happened?"

The old, pin-producing action can be restored by applying two things: (1) Turn the thumb slightly more to the left of ball-center at the start, with the ball well in the palm of the hand, and the hand in back of and under the ball. (2)—Spread the index finger until you feel pressure from the stretch. Keep these positions throughout the swing, back and forward.

As you release the ball, bring the arm upward in an easy—not forced—lift, and I'm sure you'll feel the fingers apply effective spin for a short hook break that has spilling power. A rotating ball that fails to revolve into hook-turn near the pins comes from pushing the ball at release, the thumb pointed forward. Complete the swing; get the ball over the foul line, and finger-spin with arm-lift will be the pleasant result.

Navy scored 442 points in eight football games in 1917.

Syndicate Bids Fantastic Sum for Champ Colt

Total of 62 Horses of Woodward Estate Brings $1,866,200

NEW YORK (AP)—Mighty Nashua will be shipped to Florida next week to continue his sensational racing career after a fabulous transaction that saw a new ownership take over the champion colt for a fantastic world record price of $1,251,200.

* * *

In a Wall Street setting that befitted such a gilt edged deal, executers of the estate of the late William Woodward, Jr., yesterday sold Nashua to a syndicate headed by Leslie Combs II of Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, Ky.

* * *

This was the greatest single horse trade ever concluded, involving an unprecedented sale of a great colt still at the peak of his racing career. Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons, 81-year-old trainer of Nashua, will take charge of the big 3-year-old again, late next week.

Nashua, of course, was the big news in the dollars and cents part of the bargain. But for the sentimentalists the clink of hard cold cash was no compensation for the fact that fate at the same time decreed the passing of the famous Belair Stud—one of racing's greatest stables, founded 45 years ago by William Woodward Sr.

* * *

A total of 62 horses, including Nashua, sold under sealed bids for a grand total of $1,866,200. Combs said Nashua would be sent from Kentucky to Hialeah Park in Miami to begin training for the $100,000-added Widener Handicap Feb. 18.

* * *

Nine other race horses and 12 yearlings went to John Kroese, Teaneck, N. J., electrical supply man who owns a racing stable for $205,000. Miss Mildred W. Woolwine of White Oaks Farm, Lexington, Ky., breeder of Helioscope, a top 1955 handicap horse, paid $410,000 for 21 Belair broodmares and 16 weanlings.

* * *

Combs, who has figured in many great horse deals, said he would go to Miami soon after Jan. 1 to confer with Fitzsimons on Nashua's racing campaign.

* * *

Nashua, with $945,415 in the bank, is the second greatest money winning horse in the world. All he needs is one big victory like the Widener, and he'll surpass Citation, who retired in 1951 as the turf's only millionaire with $1,085,760. This year alone, Nashua won seven $100,000 races and earned $752,550, surpassing Citation's 1948 record of $709,470 for one season of racing.

Nashua Price Tops but Not Most Expensive

Aga Khan's Tulyar Brings More Money in Two Deals

NEW YORK (AP)—Nashua may be the highest priced horse ever sold but he's not the most expensive bit of horse flesh around.

If this sounds contradictory here's the explanation:

Nashua was sold for $1,251,200 yesterday.

Tulyar brought $1,372,000 in two transactions. His breeder, the Aga Khan, sold the 1952 Epsom Derby winner to the Irish National Stud for $700,000. A couple of months ago the Irish Stud sold him to an American syndicate for $672,000.

Saddler to Defend Title on January 18

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Sandy Saddler will defend his world featherweight crown here Jan. 18 against the man who outpointed him last June in a nontitle overweight bout—Flash Elorde of the Philippines.

The two signed yesterday for the 15-rounder at the Cow Palace. The match will be broadcast by radio and television except in the San Francisco area.

Chiefs Hope to Keep Cage Slate Clean

Shoot for 3rd Straight Victory Tonight at Flint

Van Ryzin's 5 Aims to Keep Place Among Valley Leaders

By H. GUY MOATS

With two clear-cut victories already on the record book for the young basketball season, Pontiac's High school Chiefs tonight face an old, respected opponent in Flint Central, at Flint. Art Van Ryzin's club hopes to keep its slate clean, and retain its place among the unbeaten Saginaw Valley quintets, in this, its 2nd league encounter.

Chiefs handed defending Valley champion Arthur Hill, a 53-44 defeat last Friday, in the spacious PHS gymnasium. They share the Valley lead at one win, no loss, with Central and Northern. Northern is mentioned, along with Pontiac, as a top Valley title threat.

Discussing his squad makeup yesterday, Indian mentor Joe Dowdy thought the team play was still a little rough. "We've still got a lot of football in us yet," he said, "and it probably will take some time to work it out."

Dowdy planned to start a team tonight, that will average close to six feet in height. That will top Pontiac a bt, with little Larry Peet at guard reaching only about 5-6 Indians' starters will include 6-1 Don Van Ordan and Jim McCue at 6 feet, at forwards. Tom Owen, the "big man" of the Central squad (6-5) will be at center, with Dale Kingsbury (6 feet), and Ed Nyberg (5-11) at guards.

His alternates will have 6-foot Bill Thompson, a junior, at forward, Bill Allen, junior, at center, Gene Fields, either a forward or guard, and Chuck Johnson, a guard, Johnson, at 5-8 is the smallest Indian.

Van Ryzin's starting crew will have smooth Willie Dewalt and Rod Treais at forwards, a fine combination off the performances they gave in the Chiefs' two games. Diehm, fast, good ball handler and an accurate shot from anywhere around the hoop area and slick-moving, fine defensive player Larry Peet and either Hudson Ray or Jim Skinner at center complete the starters. All can score, and have done a sharp job of balancing the teams totals in each contest.

Ex-Oriole Prospect Signs With Yanks

NEW YORK (INS)—Jim Pignatello, a Baltimore hurler who didn't get a chance to throw one pitch for the Orioles last season, has been signed to a contract with the New York Yankees.

The 19-year-old righthander first was signed by the Orioles after he finished at Montclair, N. J. high school last June but was cut loose as a free agent Aug. 1 when commissioner Ford Frick charged the Orioles had signed him illegally.

Pignatello, who fanned 204 in 100 innings in his senior year, did not sign a bonus contract and will go to spring training at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Six Games Over 200

CINCINNATI (AP) — Jimmy Gray of Cincinnati rolled one of the highest six-game totals in ABC sanctioned play when he totaled 1424 pins in the Greater Cincinnati match game tournament. He averaged 237 on games of 202, 237, 225, 257, 278 and 225.

Frisco Favored

DePaul Tourney Pits Marquette With Dons

CHICAGO (AP) — The San Francisco Dons, the nation's top-ranked basketball team, aim for their 30th straight victory tonight in the opening round of the four-team DePaul tourney — a rugged early season testing ground.

The Chicago Stadium attraction pits the Dons against unbeaten but unranked Marquette after the first game between the scrappy host school, DePaul, and Duquesne, No. 6 in the national Associated Press poll.

Winners will meet in the title showdown tomorrow night while the losers play for consolation honors. If the favorites emerge, it will be a belated battle between San Francisco, the 1955 NCAA champion, and Duquesne, the National Invitational titlist.

But the first round will be a sturdy test for each.

The Dons' top man is All America Bill Russell, a 6-10 phenom rated as one of the greatest goal tenders the game has produced. In addition to being great defensively, Russell is terrific in ramming shots through the nets.

K. C. Jones of the Dons is another defensive genius who all but immobilized La Salle's noted Tom Gola in the NCAA finale last season.

Marquette, undefeated in four starts this campaign, has the height to give the Dons trouble. Terry Rand, the Warriors' tallest, is 6-9 and their shortest player is Bob Walczak at 6 feet. The smallest San Francisco man is Harold Perry, 5-10½.

Map Plans for International Sports Center

Stadium, Fieldhouse Included in Project Near Denver

DENVER (AP)—Plans for a 26-million international sports center near Denver were outlined yesterday.

Included would be a stadium seating 75,000, a fieldhouse to hold 30,000, a four-mile auto speedway, an airport equipped to handle 500 planes, a 450-room hotel, youth center and facilities for such sports events as handball, boating, swimming and even the Olympic games.

C. A. Doolittle Jr., Wichita, Kan., president of United Construction Co. Inc., which would build the center, said construction will start on or about May 10, 1956 with completion by October, 1958.

Al Larry, who will get a spring trial with the Chicago Cubs, caught 35 passes for 756 yards with Alabama gridmen in 1950. The number of passes and yards gained are school records.

Raschi Learns Some Are Not Baseball Fans

Ex-Yankee Ace Loses Bonds and Has Name Misspelled by Police

ROCHESTER N.Y. (AP) — Vic Raschi, former New York Yankee pitching ace, lost $40,000 worth of non-negotiable bonds here yesterday and also discovered that not everyone is a baseball fan.

* * *

Raschi reported his loss to the police and was written up on the police blotter as "Bic Radhsci."

* * *

Raschi said the bonds could not be cashed as he had not endorsed them. He said he was on his way to a bank from his home in Conesus, 30 miles south, when he lost the bonds.

Ambidextrous Athlete

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y. (AP)—Jack Vaughan says he's a natural southpaw but in football and baseball he can throw with either hand. The six foot one 165-pound North High freshman led his team to four victories in as many games on the gridiron this fall.

Confesses Stealing Licenses in Church

A 29-year-old Dearborn mother of two has admitted stealing driver's licenses from the purses of women attending church to use as identification in cashing worthless checks, Dearborn police said today.

Mrs. June K. Smith told officers that she cashed checks in Pontiac and other Oakland County areas, Ann Arbor and Grosse Pointe. She said that she had netted between $1,500 and $2,000 in the past two years.

Mrs. Smith was arrested after she cashed a check in a Farmington supermarket using the license of a Garden City woman who said it had been stolen from her in a Dearborn church nursery school.

Police found Mrs. Smith caring for children in the nursery. She faces a Jan. 9 hearing in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Bus Passenger Helps Victims, Then Falters

LONGVIEW, Wash. (AP) — A bus stopped at a highway accident scene near here yesterday. The driver and passengers helped or carried aboard the four persons who appeared to have been injured.

One was unconscious. He was carried carefully into a hospital here. As he was placed on the examining table, he opened his eyes and started to get up.

"Lie still," the doctor cautioned. "You may have serious internal injuries."

"I'm not hurt," the man replied. "I got off the bus to help at the accident and fainted when I saw the blood."

None of the other three was hurt seriously either.

Publishers See Indication of Future Newsprint Ration

NEW YORK (AP)—U.S. newsprint consumption during November soared to a new high, almost 10 per cent over November, 1954, the American Newspaper Publishers Assn. reports.

* * *

Stocks of newsprint in the hands of U.S. publishers remained at the lowest level since June, 1933, at the height of the Christmas advertising season when consumption is at its peak.

Total consumption for November rose to 607,693 tons, 9.9 per cent over the 553,187 tons in the same month last year. For the first 11 months of the year, consumption totaled a record 6,086,546 tons, 8.2 per cent over the 5,625,945 tons for the same period of 1954. These are totals for all kinds of uses of newsprint.

The ANPA said stocks of newsprint on hand and in transit at the end of November were 27 days supply for the average of all daily newspapers reporting to the association, the same as on Oct. 31. There were 37 days' supply at the end of November last year and 39 days' supply at the same time two years ago.

* * *

8.3 PER CENT RISE

North American production of newsprint in November amounted to 681,996 tons, 8.3 per cent over the 629,682 tons in the same month last year, a record output for any month in the industry's history.

For the year to date, production in the U.S. and Canada combined rose to a record 7,071,913, which was 7.4 per cent over the total for the like period a year ago.

The Newsprint Assn. of Canada, where 80 per cent of the newsprint used in the U.S. is produced, has said the booming demand for the printing paper has outstripped production.

"Current demand appears to exceed supply available from all sources, and this situation seems likely to prevail until capacity expansions now under way come into production," the association said.

The ANPA has reported: "Many publishers are having difficulty in getting all of their contract tonnage from their suppliers. There is no indication the situation will improve during the early part of 1956."

International Paper Co. recently advised its customers deliveries will be cut 7½ per cent beginning in January and continuing through April 1956. The company, like other newsprint makers, has been running behind in deliveries to newspapers.

Clarkston Driver Hurt as Car Skids on Ice

Eva N. Cunningham, 41, of Clarkston, is in "good" condition this morning at Pontiac General Hospital after an accident yesterday morning at Sashabaw, near Walton Road, in which she suffered severe bruises and lacerations.

Her daughter, Joan, 12, and Sharon Rose Herald, 13, also of Clarkston, were treated for bruises and released from the hospital. Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said Mrs. Cunningham skidded on an icy area and ran her car off the road.

The Alaska highway from Fairbanks, Alaska, to Dawson Creek, British Columbia, was opened to tourist travel during the summer of 1948.

FPC Will Consider Gas Firms' Request

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Power Commission (FPC) has under consideration a request that three applications to supply natural gas to the upper midwest area be consolidated for joint hearing.

The petition for the consolidation was filed by Midwestern Gas Transmission Co. which previously applied for authority to supply some 400 million cubic feet daily to Minnesota, Michigan, North Dakota and Wisconsin.

The FPC recently set Jan. 23 for hearing the application of Northern Natural Gas Co. of Omaha to construct 654 miles of pipeline to supply new and existing customers in Minnesota, Wisconsin, South Dakota and Iowa. This would cost an estimated 32 million dollars and supply nearly 94 million cubic feet of gas daily.

Cyril Patterson of London killed himself accidentally by inhaling gas he turned on to kill a stray cat.

Folks Give Huge Vote to Keep Whistle Blowing

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Folks living near a tannery here have cast an overwhelming vote to keep the firm's whistle blowing.

Several months ago Board Chairman Charles Vogel got the idea that some of the company's neighbors might not like the whistle. He sent out 215 self-addressed post cards asking two questions:

Keep Blowing?

Stop Blowing?

The results: 138 keep blowing, 4 stop blowing.

The whistle sounded at the appointed hours today.

Port Huron Man Dies During Nose Surgery

PORT HURON (AP)—John Peacock, 34, of Port Huron, died on a hospital operating table yesterday while undergoing surgery for a broken nose. An autopsy was scheduled today to determine whether he died of injuries suffered in a Saturday night fight or something else.

Peacock didn't find out he had a broken nose until he went to a physician Wednesday. And before going to the hospital to have the nose mended, he swore out an assault and battery warrant against James Cranshaw, also of Port Huron.

Peacock told authorities he and Cranshaw had a fight last Saturday night and that his nose was damaged in it.

Coroner Arthur Smith ordered an autopsy to fix the cause of Peacock's death and ordered Cranshaw held until results of it are known.

Medical Probe Ordered in Dearborn Twp. Death

DETROIT (AP) — A medical examiner's hearing was ordered today in the death of Arthur C. Keim, 62, of suburban Dearborn Township.

Keim was found dead in his car which witnesses said went out of control and struck an overpass abutment in Detroit.

Police said Keim may have suffered a heart attack.

Record crowds are reported at the ski centers in Chile.

PRESIDENT STEPS DOWN—Bruce J. Annett of 2799 Sylvan Shores (left), retiring president of the Michigan Real Estate Association, turns over his gavel of office to his successor, Stewart E. Butts of Ann Arbor, during recent inauguration ceremonies in Lansing. Among realtors from 25 Michigan cities were several from the Pontiac area who made up a delegation headed by P. T. Smith of Rochester and Vern K. Archer of Pontiac. Smith completed a term as president of the Pontiac Real Estate Board while Archer is the president-elect.

Long Beach Loses $9 to Money 'Decorator'

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Among those traffic violators who paid fines yesterday at the Police Traffic Division there lurks a swindler. He gypped the city out of $9 right under the eyes of the law.

Clerk A. A. Williams, counting the receipts from fines, came across a $1 bill among the $10 bills. He hadn't spotted it right away because, at the corners, it looked like a 10-spot.

The culprit, said Williams, had snipped one corner off of four $10 bills and pasted them on corresponding corners of the $1 bill.

Colin Kelly III Given Eagle Scout Award

CONCORDVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A tall, red-haired boy with a ready grin accepted his own hour of tribute last night with a becoming shyness that would have warmed his father's heart.

Colin P. Kelly III, son of the United States' first hero of World War II, received his Eagle Scout award in a solemn ceremony before a group of neighbors and friends in a church hall in this tiny Philadelphia suburb.

For "Corky" Kelly it was an important event. It represented nearly four years of community and camping enterprises that totaled 21 hard-earned merit badges. Only an average of two scouts in every hundred reach this goal.

The slim, erect 15-year-old, who looks strikingly like his late father, was so engrossed with "scout talk" with friends that he paid scant attention to the cameramen and reporters on hand to cover the event.

Hall Believes Florida Will Join GOP Ranks

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Leonard W. Hall, Republican national chairman, today expressed optimism over GOP chances of winning Florida again in 1956.

Hall, who arrived last night from Washington for a vacation of several days, brushed aside questions concerning President Eisenhower's future status but spoke confidently of Republican prospects next year.

"I believe Florida will be the first Southern state to join the Republican ranks permanently," he predicted.

Charity Replaces Fun

IONIA (AP)—The 300 office employes of the Ionia Manufacturing Co. voted to dispense with their annual Christmas party and give the money to the Junior Chamber of Commerce program to aid needy children. The office staff turned over a check for $1,000 to the Jaycees.

Dewey Confers With GOP Men

Ex-Governor Insisting Talk With 7 State Chiefs Was 'Strictly Social'

NEW YORK (AP) — Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey met last night with seven state REpublican leaders. He insisted, however, that he has no political aspirations and a spokesman for the party leaders said the meeting was "strictly social."

• • •

"There is no news tonight. I have nothing today," Dewey told newsmen.

William MacKenzie of Belmont, N. Y., chairman of the State Assembly Ways and Means Committee, sai dof Dewey, "In my book he can have any political job he aspires to."

"I don't want any, now or any time," Dewey, twice Republican presidential candidate, replied. "I am completely happy."

Dewey is practicing law here. The meeting with state Republican leaders yesterday was Dewey's first since he left office as governor after three terms.

Gannett Newspapers Elect 2 New Officials

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Cyril Williams has been elected treasurer of the Gannett Co., Inc., and of the Frank E. Gannett Newspaper Foundation, Inc.

The Gannett Co. controls a group of 23 newspapers, three radio stations and two television stations in four states. The foundation is a philanthropic corporation created by Gannett to perpetuate ownership of the newspaper group.

Williams will succeed Herbert W. Cruickshank, who retired as treasurer after retiring as general manager earlier this year.

The election of Williams was announced yesterday at meetings of the boards of directors of both corporations.

Michigan Man Killed Missouri Jury Rules

WAYNESVILLE, Mo. (AP) — A coroner's jury has decided that a Flint man whose body was found near Waynesville was killed by skull fractures inflicted by a blunt instrument.

But the jury said it did not know who inflicted the wounds on Dalton Pozey Kelley, 27, of Flint, last seen in his home town Aug. 13.

Kelley's decomposed body was found recently near Waynesville. A Flint dentist said the teeth were those of Kelley.

Special Stamp Going on Sale on January 17

A special three-cent postage stamp commemorating the 250th anniversary of Benjamin Franklin's birthday will be placed on sale Jan. 17, Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield announced this week.

The central subject of the stamp is a reproduction of a painting entitled "Franklin Taking Electricity from the Sky." A panel at the bottom will bear the words "Benjamin Franklin 250th Anniversary."

Although its color has not been made public, Summerfield stated that it will have a vertical shape and be printed in sheets of 50.

Predicts Americas to Outgrow the Orient

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The population of the combined North and Latin American countries in time will dwarf the manpower boast of Asiatic countries, says Luis Quintanilla, ambassador of Mexico to the Organization of American States.

He forecasts that by the end of the century there will be a population total of about 800 million, 250 millions in North America, 500 million in Latin America.

"Asia cannot boast of its huge population then," Quintanilla said yesterday in an interview. "I figure on the percentage of the present rate of growth. Asia has reached stagnancy in population increases. We have room, plenty of room, to expand."

To Tell Exam Results

DETROIT (AP)—The State Board of Law Examiners said Friday the results of bar examinations taken last September by 323 Michigan law school graduates will be announced sometime in mid-January. Joseph F. Deeb of Grand Rapids, board chairman, said results normally are announced between Christmas and New Year's but a recent investigation into allegations of cheating in the exam have caused the delay.

Expects Big Mail Load

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department estimated today it will handle something more than 17 billion pieces of mail in the final quarter of this year. The figure, about a billion pieces higher than that for the last three, or than that for the last three months of 1954, amounts to an average of more than 300 pieces for every family in America.

Jury Clears Doctor in Death of Woman

After hearing four hours of testimony yesterday and deliberating 15 minutes, a coroner's jury found a Royal Oak osteopath innocent of any blame in the death of a Southfield Township woman in his office Nov. 11.

Mrs. D. W. Campbell, 33, of 17325 W. Fourteen Mile Rd. died shortly after she entered the doctor's office for the second time within an hour. She suffered a reaction from a shot of antibiotic drug.

The jury, meeting in Oakland County Probate Court, ruled the doctor was not guilty of negligence, did all that could be done, and that the death was beyond his control.

GI Home Loans Hike Seen by VA

Officials Forecast Boost in Guaranty Business Despite Tight Credits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Veterans Administration officials today optimistically forecast that the GI home loan guaranty business will continue at a near-record level of 650,000 applications in 1956.

* * *

They drew that picture despite administration moves in some fields to tighten credit but with encouragement from a slight easing this week in the Federal Home Loan Bank's limitations on loans to savings and loan associations.

* * *

Last July what are described as "moderate" restrictions were placed on both VA and Federal Housing Administration housing credit. There are indications these may soon be modified too by again allowing 30-year maturity loans. The maximum term of such loans was cut to 25 years July 30.

REDISCOUNT RATE BOOSTED

But there has been no indication of any easing in the federal reserve rediscount rate, which has been boosted four times this year until at 2½ per cent it is at the highest level in 20 years.

Thomas J. Sweeney, director of VA's loan guaranty service, said VA is expecting some 650,000 GI home loan applications next year. Such applications are filed after a private lender has entered into a commitment to make a loan with VA guaranty of a portion.

* * *

Such a volume in 1956 would equal the record 650,000 estimated for this full year. It would compare with a previous top of 630,000 in 1950 and 528,000 in 1954.

* * *

VA's home loan guaranty business began booming in April 1954. Officials attributed the boom to a May 1953 ruling raising from 4 to 4½ per cent the maximum permissible interest rate on GI home loans.

They conceded the increase has meant that some 950,000 veterans have committed themselves to pay as much as 551 million dollars more in increased interest costs than if the rate had been 4 per cent. But they said that without it few loans — or houses—would have been available to veterans.

36 Children Give Party for Young Polio Patient

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Thirty-six healthy youngsters were admitted to Children's Hospital yesterday, but all of them had a good time. They went to throw a Christmas-farewell party for Eugene Jackson, 14, a polio patient.

The fifth-graders "adopted" the Jackson boy earlier this year when they spotted him sitting in his wheel chair from their school across the street. Since then they've made a practice of waving to him every day.

The boy is almost completely paralyzed. He left for Taylorsville, Ky., today, where he will spend his first Christmas at home in four years.

Shipwreck Date Commemorated

Rouse Simmons, Noted Christmas Tree Vessel Sank 43 Years Ago

LUDINGTON (AP) — This yule season marks the 43rd anniversary of the loss of Michigan's ill-fated "Christmas tree" ship — the schooner Rouse Simmons.

The oldtime sailing vessel foundered in a raging Lake Michigan storm while heading for Chicago with a cargo of pine trees from the Upper Peninsula.

Christmas trees washed up months later on the Ludington beach told the schooner's tragic fate.

It was Nov. 25, 1912 that the Rouse Simmons, a three-masted vessel, left Thompson, near Manistique, with a load of Christmas trees valued at $75,000. The ship was owned by the Hackley & Hume Lumber Co. of Muskegon.

Heading into Lake Michigan, the vessel ran into a vicious gale. She struggled through the night and into the next day, then disappeared Nov. 26 near Kewalnee, Wis., with all hands.

Twelve years later the wallet of a crew member, Herman Scheuenemann, was washed up on the beach at Two Rivers, Wis. Three years after that a note in a bottle was found on the Lake Michigan shore, signed by another crewman, Charles Nelson.

The note read these lines: "Schooner R. S. ready to go down about two miles southeast of Two Rivers point between 15 and 20 miles offshore. All hands lashed to one line. Goodbye."

Blind Man, Kin Held in Bombing Scheme

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A blind man and his sister-in law were charged early today with bombing the big Meier and Frank Co. department store in a $50,000 extortion plot eight months ago.

William B. Browne, detective captain, said William Clarence Peddicord admitted planting the bomb, assisted by his sister-in-law Mrs. Joyce Keller, 28.

Browne said they were charged with injuring persons and property by explosives. Bond was set at $75,000 each.

The bomb exploded in a men's washroom in the 12-story store, Portland's largest, April 15. A few persons were hit by flying debris, but no serious injuries were reported.

A note demanded $50,000 on threat of another bombing the next day. Police said the payoff attempt failed. The store was closed the next day but no bomb was found and it reopened without further incident.

Big Microscope Can Measure Tiny Atom Parts

BALTIMORE (AP) — The world's largest nuclear microscope capable of measuring parts of an atom "with an accuracy of four-thousandths of a trillionth of an inch," was introduced yesterday by the Air Force.

* * *

Air Research and Development Command headquarters here said the instrument, with an "eyepiece" weighing 55 tons, had been developed by Stanford University scientists under contract to ARDC.

* * *

"Stanford physicists believe the instrument eventually will be able to measure protons, the smallest matter within the nucleus of an atom," said the statement.

Prof. Robert Hofstadter, director of the nuclear research program at Stanford, spent three years designing and building it.

5 Men Await Sentences on Duplexes Fraud

DETROIT (AP)—Arthur P. Schwenter, 69, collapsed and died of a heart attack after reporting for work at his job in his brother Nicholas' sheet metal shop. Employes informed Nicholas, 72, who rushed from home to the shop. Returning home, Nicholas collapsed and died of a heart attack, too.

Hollywood Headlines:

Joan Crawford to Spend Christmas in Switzerland

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — Joan Crawford was plenty busy packing up her four children and herself for their trip to New York and then Switzerland for the Christmas holidays. But, not so busy that she didn't have time to agree to star in "Storm in the Sun" for Robert Aldrich.

She's very intrigued with this story about a woman lawyer who defends a school teacher accused of attacking one of his pupils, and she believes it will make a strong movie.

But all Joan can think about now is her vacation. She and the children checked into the Hampshire House for their two-day stay in New York because there wasn't room for her brood in Al Steere's apartment.

However, Al takes off with them when they sail for Europe Saturday.

Aldrich brought Joan's last picture "The Way We Are" to Columbia and he'll package "Storm in the Sun" the same way—to which studio hasn't been decided.

ROLE FOR BLONDELL

Now look who comes up with the role of the sophisticated, wisecracking Edith in "The Opposite Sex." None other than our sophisticated, wisecracking girl friend, Joan Blondell, which is quite interesting casting in more ways than one.

What I mean is, June Allyson plays the heroine in this remake of "The Women," and in case it's slipped your mind, June is the present Mrs. Dick Powell and Joan was Mrs. Powell No. 2.

I don't foresee any strained relations when they meet, however. Dick and his former wife have always maintained friendly relations, particularly about their children.

At luncheon, George Sanders, who will star in "Death of a Scoundrel" for Charles Martin, was asked if he knew someone who could play his brother in the picture.

"Certainly," said George, "my own brother, Tom Conway."

No sooner said than a long distance telephone call was put in for Tom in London, and now he arrives here right after the holidays to play George's brother. Tom is a very good actor.

The top woman's role is Zsa Zsa Gabor's, and, incidentally Zsa Zsa turned down "The Opposite Sex" because she said the role called for a four-time divorced woman!

DENIAL BY LIBERACE

Liberace took time out from admiring the Santa Claus atop his house to tell me that there's no truth in the rumor that he's feuding with Jerry Lewis.

Says Lee: "I consider Jerry Lewis one of the funniest comedians in show business, and I feel it's a wonderful compliment to me for him to mention my name in his routines, which, in my opinion, are in the best of taste."

A friend of mine passed Liberace's house at 11 the night Santa Claus, seated at a piano replete with candelabra, was installed on the roof.

Lee, in shirtsleeves, was working hard to get the music going. He's entertained every child from miles around, not to mention the traffic jam in front of his home!

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: No more than a couple of syllables in fine print stand between Marilyn Monroe's agent and 20th on her new contract with them.

The Marisa Pavan-Tom Tyron duo which started as a publicity twosome is the real McCoy now.

Kim Novak was trimming a Christmas tree in Chicago when she received word of the splendiferous new contract which gives her the Rita Hayworth roles at Columbia.

Jack Benny has been called upon to save Carnegie Hall by fiddling there with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, Alfred Wallenstein conducting, next October.

British Labor Leader Disclaimed Early Life With Aristocracy

LONDON (AP) — The leadership of Britain's Labor party has gone to a dapper Socialist who used to wear a derby and carry a cane.

The three-cornered race for the job of succeeding Clement R. Attlee is over. Hugh Todd Nylor Gaitskell, 49, bettered Herbert Stanley Morrison and Aneurin Bevan to take the party helm.

DERBY AT 12

Gaitskell was 12 when he wore the derby and carried the stick — the uniform of Winchester, one of Britain's most exclusive schools for the monied classes. He decided a long time ago, however, that his future lay with promoting socialism.

While Gaitskell swerved to the left, he didn't swing all the way. He found his niche somewhere between the right wing and the center of the Labor party.

Auto Output Drops; Slowdowns Blamed

DETROIT (INS)—Slowdowns at several Chrysler divisions and the ending of Saturday operations at some General Motors plants dropped U. S. auto output to an estimated 168,467 units this week.

Automotive News, the industry's trade paper, estimated this week's output will be nearly 6 per cent below last week's total of 178,409 cars. However, the figure would be almost 10 per cent higher than the average week this year.

Slowdown of operations at Packard and two Chrysler units was caused by a parts shortage brought on by a strike at the Budd Co. of Detroit.

Truck output this week was estimated at 26,573, as compared with a total of 27,757 last week.

Canadian plants will produce more cars and trucks this week than the 7,281 turned out a week ago.

Grains Starting Holiday Slump

CHICAGO (AP) — Grains gave every indication of going into their usual holiday period lethargy on the Board of Trade today. Dealings were slow and price changes small.

Wheat and soybeans firmed. The upturn in wheat was led by the December contract, in which there was considerable short covering. Trading in all December futures ends next Tuesday.

Corn tilted a little lower while oats showed small gains and losses. Cash corn receipts totaled 104 cars. Rye scored fairly good gains in sympathy with the wheat upturn.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was 3/8 to 3/4 higher, December $2.10 1/8; corn unchanged to 3/8 lower, December $1.24 1/4; oats 1/8 lower to 1/2 higher, December 63 3/4; rye 1 to 1 1/2 higher, December $1.15 3/4; soybeans 1/4 to 1 cent higher, January $2.36 3/4, and lard 2 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower, December $10.50.

Ike Returning Hospitality Today to Colorado Pal

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)— President Eisenhower pays back some Colorado hospitality today, showing his old friend and fishing companion Aksel Nielsen around the Eisenhower farm.

Nielsen, Denver mortgage banker who owns the Rocky Mountain fishing lodge where the President has often stayed, was the second old friend to drop in in two days.

Eisenhower had lunch yesterday with Clifford Roberts, the New York investment broker who was on his way where the President would be going now but for his heart attack—to Augusta Ga. National Golf Club. Roberts is board chairman of Augusta National.

The President's brother Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower also visited the farm yesterday and stayed overnight.

* * *

He is president of Pennsylvania State University. Several White House staff members also were dinner guests of the Chief Executive.

Business Notes

The election of Roy Abernethy to the newly-created position of vice president in charge of automotive distribution and marketing was announced yesterday by American Motors President Roy Abernethy.

In his new post, Abernethy will coordinate the sales programs of all American Motors cars, a function carried out personally by Romney during the reorganization period following the merger of Nash-Kelvinator and Hudson 19 months ago.

Abernethy formerly served as vice president in charge of Nash Motors Division sales.

Stocks Break 5-Day Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — General improvement in early dealings in the stock market today capped a five-day decline.

Prices weren't up very much and the move ahead wasn't very vigorous, but prices as a whole were definitely higher.

* * *

Gains and losses spread over a range of around a point with gainers holding the upper hand.

General Motors, yesterday's second most active issue up 1/8, opened today on 10,000 shares off 1/2 at 46 1/2. The stock continued active at a small loss.

* * *

Glenn Martin, yesterday's eighth most active issue up 1 1/4, opened today on 5,000 shares up 5/8 at 38 5/8.

Among advancing stocks were Schering, Climax Molybdenum, U.S. Steel, Chrysler, Seiberling Rubber, Boeing, Kennecott Copper, Du Pont, General Electric, American Tobacco, and RKO Pictures.

Goodrich was depressed, and also lower were American Cyanamid, 20th Century-Fox, and Canadian Pacific Railroad.

* * *

The market has declined in an irregular manner for the past five days. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks yesterday lost 20 cents at $178.20. That's not too far away from the record high of $181.50 first reached Sept. 23 and matched a week ago last Monday.

Car Sales Need Boost in 1956

Foresees No Records Unless Current Rate Is Increased

By DAVID J. WILKIE
Associated Press Automotive Editor

DETROIT (AP)—New car sales will need a sharp boost if the year ahead is to bring additional records to the auto industry.

Retail deliveries this year through November are estimated at 6,550,000 units. That tops the total of any full year in industry records. Nevertheless surveys indicate the 1956 model year was ushered in with a drop in retail sales.

Registration figures have been tabulated for October. They show 576,045 new cars were licensed by the various states during that month. The total marked the first drop below the 600,000 mark in eight months.

Automotive News reports indications are the November sales total will amount to about 515,000.

Ford and Chrysler had 1956 models on sale during October. General Motors had all its new models in dealers' hands early in November. It must be noted, too, that the October registrations include a substantial number of 1955 models pushed by the retailers in their outgoing model clean-up drives.

Obviously the first half of 1956 will bring several months with sales well above current levels. Demand for new cars always rises toward the end of the year's first quarter and continues at high levels through July.

Even if the monthly average for 1956 should not exceed 576,000 the over-all total would rank second only to this year's indicated deliveries of around 7½ million units.

The industry built more than 745,000 cars in November. If the estimate of retail deliveries for the month is approximately correct, dealer inventories now should be around the 800,000 unit mark. They stood at 575,266 cars Nov. 1.

Surveys at the factory level a month ago indicated all the carmakers were scheduling record December output. Now the word is getting around that some of them have revised their schedules downward.

Even if December production should fall short of original projections the prospect still is good the year's total car assemblies will hit the oft-estimated eight million mark. The production count passed the 7½ million mark last week. Another 180,000 completions this week would push the total above the 7,700,000 unit mark.

Most of the carmakers brought out their new models a month earlier than has been their custom since World War II. Whether the pressure to clean up stocks of outgoing models cut into early sales of the 1956 models is being debated widely in industry quarters.

Dulles Debating NATO Troubles

Fighting in Middle East Heaping New Worries on Ministers in Paris

PARIS (INS) — The foreign ministers of the 15 North Atlantic Treaty nations met in restricted session today with the growing threat of Middle East war presumably high on the agenda.

The ministers, with only two assistants present, began their general discussions of the international situation as a report came from Damascus of another Syrian-Israeli border clash.

Syrian military patrols fought for a half-hour with Israeli forces today near the scene of last Sunday's bloody fighting.

Last night, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, Britain's Harold Macmillan and France's Antoine Pinay decided the Western Big Three must coordinate their policies in the Middle East.

The rising tension in the Holy Land is regarded as a direct result of Soviet intervention in the area, which Dulles has described as a "new front" in the cold war.

Today's session was to pursue discussion started at the opening sessions of the three-day Atlantic Council meeting on Soviet military capabilities and political intentions.

There was no fixed agenda. Each minister could bring up whatever he regarded as vital to the security of the alliance.

Communist arms shipments have poured into Egypt in recent months. Reliable quarters in Paris estimated their value at $80,000,000.

Actress Bests Serious Illness

Cuts Down on Work to Safeguard Her Health and Vitality

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Loretta Young will have a special joy this Christmas. She'll return to her TV show Christmas night.

* * *

The actress was stricken April 10 with peritonitis. For months she was hospitalized, and Hollywood was concerned for her life. Now she has completed the long road back to health and is once again making films for her popular Sunday night show. But there's a difference.

"This time I'm appearing only every other week," she reported in her dressing room on the Goldwyn lot.

* * *

But she denied that the stiff filming schedule of her previous two years caused her illness.

"It could have happened to anyone," she remarked. "While I was in the hospital, two other women were admitted with the same thing; theirs had not been caused by overwork. But it's true that I was run down and didn't bounce back with the vigor that I might have."

* * *

Her weight dwindled to around 90 pounds during the illness. Now she's up to a healthy 117 and is mighty proud of herself.

"I never thought I could do it," she said. "Why, I never weighed that much in my life. I always averaged around 110 pounds.

"I'd like to get up to 120, but I don't know if I can make it. It's hard for me; I've never been much interested in food."

How did she accomplish her weight gain? By hourly malted milks and other "forced feedings." And by giving up cigarettes.

"That was the hardest thing of all," she remarked. "I've always loved to smoke, and I had to ask God for the willpower to give it up. Someone remarked that my illness had been providential, and I'm inclined to agree. If it hadn't happened, I never would have given up smoking, and I never would have stopped working so hard."

Detroit Patrolman Quits Force to Avoid Trial

DETROIT (AP) — Patrolman Eugene N. Kujawa has resigned rather than face a police trial board on charges of having a second job and stealing wallets from a downtown department store.

Kujawa, father of two children, had a part-time holiday job in the small package wrapping department of the store. He became a policeman in 1952.

Inspector Peter Sonerant, who suspended Kujawa Wednesday, said store officials refused to prosecute him on a charge of taking wallets from packages he was wrapping.

Houses Selling for Lowest Rates; 25 Years to Pay

SPARTA, Wis. (AP) — Two bedroom houses are selling here for $150 down and payments of $16 a month for 25 years.

The homes were part of a Federal Housing Administration project erected by private ownership when nearby Camp McCoy was operating at capacity during the Korean War. When the camp was deactivated, the private ownership failed. FHA, which had insured the loans, took over. It is now disposing of them.

A two-bedroom, no-basement model sells for $3,000 on a down payment of $150 and payments of $16 monthly on 25-year mortgages. Duplexes, also without basements and with two bedrooms in each living unit, sell for $6,000 with $300 down and $32 a month.

The only stipulation is that the buyers live in them. Then cannot be sold to investors for resale or rental. There are 55 structures being sold and all have been "spoken for," an FHA agent said.

Airline Purchases 12 New Viscounts

NEW YORK (INS)—Continental Air Lines, Inc. has announced the purchase of 12 of the latest and fastest Viscount turbo-prop planes from Vickers-Armstrongs, Ltd. of England for $18,100,000, including spare parts, ground equipment and pre-operating costs.

Earlier this week, Continental disclosed the purchase of four Boeing jet airliners for $21,300,000, and five Douglas DC-7B piston-powered planes for $12,300,000.

Continental Viscounts will be the first turbo-prop planes operating in the Western states and into Los Angeles.

Indian Gives Policemen Bizehozos Rewards

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two members of the police robbery squad were given rewards of bizehozos yesterday.

Bizehozos, in case you didn't know, resemble beaded necklaces with medallions on them. They were presented to Sgt. Tom Buckley and officer Robert Peinado by Chief Wah Nee Ota, who says he is of the Creek Indian tribe.

The chief wanted to show his appreciation to the officers. It seems they arrested a robbery suspect who previously had struck up an acquaintance with the chief. Now Wah Nee Ota believes he would have been next on the man's list of possible victims.

Iran has a population of about 17 million in an area of 628,000 square miles. Canada is six times larger in area and has about 14 million people.

U.S. Scientist Shortage May Lose H-Power Race

By FRANK CAREY
AP Science Reporter

CLEVELAND (AP)—The "race" to tame the H-bomb reaction for peacetime power could be lost to Russia or some other nation unless the United States overcomes a "mounting shortage" of manpower in every field of science and engineering, says the chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

* * *

In fact, declared Lewis L. Strfauss this week, the shortage has become so "grim" that "all of our blessings, even our freedom, would be endangered."

Citing the quest to harness hydrogen-bomb energy as only one example of an American effort that might be jeopardized, Strauss told the Nuclear Science and Engineering Congress:

"I am confident that the day will come, although probably not for years, when the way will be found to produce nuclear power by harnessing the same energy release that we assume is taking place in the sun—the process of the controlled fusion of light nuclei (the bomb nuclei).

* * *

"Scientists in the commission's laboratories are at work on the problem, searching for the key—the elusive 'big idea' that could revolutionize the atomic art.

"But our people are not the only ones. Competent scientists in other countries are equally hard at work, trying to find the same 'big idea.'"

"Unless we have scientists and engineers, in quality and numbers, we could lose this race.

* * *

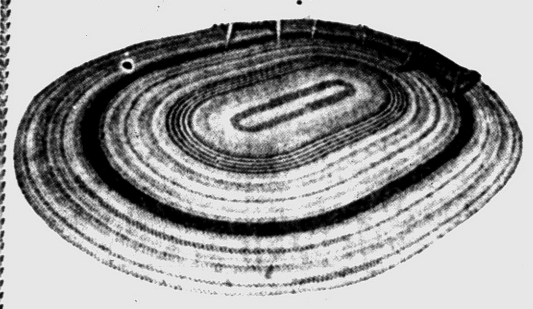

The AEC chief said that while American colleges are turning out less than half the number of scientists and engineers required in all fields—the shortage "will become worse before we can possibly correct it"—Soviet Russia is educating twice as many such technicians as this nation is.

One-half of the world's trucks and trailers are operated in the U.S.
