A CASE OF SINK OR SWIM — Caesar's Forum, a floating Miami Beach restaurant that sank in Indian Creek during a 1965 hurricane and was rehabilitated sometime later, is shown as it is being towed seven miles to a new location in the Miami River. The four-story building is passing through a Venetian Causeway drawbridge.

Bogus $1.5 Million Seized in County

Police raided a Rose Township home last night and seized $1.5 million in bogus bills. A home in Detroit and another in Redford Township were also raided.

The money was all in uncut $20 bills, and according to U. S. Secret Service agents who conducted the raid, "some of it was hot off the press."

James J. Burke, in charge of the U. S. Secret Service for the area, said it was the "largest seizure" ever in Southeastern Michigan and one of the largest in the Midwest.

He said that the homes had been under surveillence for three or four weeks, and that none of the bogus money was ever distributed.

Police said the printing press was operated in the home of William Kereluk Sr., located at 801 Little School Lot Lake, a dead-end street of lake front residences.

Kereluk, 56, his wife, Emma, 50, two sons, William, 28, of St. Clair Shores and John P., 25, of Detroit, were among the seven persons arrested at the home during the midnight raid.

3 OTHERS IDENTIFIED

The three others were identified by authorities as Glenn Brogan, 23, of Warren, a jockey at Detroit Race Course; Jerry Zimmerman, 30, of Detroit; and Fred McCord, 52, of Dearborn Heights.

★ ★ ★

In addition to the counterfeit money and printing press, police said they had confiscated a rifle, shotgun and three revolvers at Kereluk's home.

Kereluk, employed at Sutter Products in Holly, has lived at the Rose Township address for about two years, according to neighbors.

Four radio monitoring units—which can be used to listen in on police calls—were confiscated in Detroit and another unit was seized in the Redford Township home.

3 ARRESTED

Three persons were arrested in those raids.

They were identified as Judy Poteracki, 29, of 9653 Kinloch, Redford Township, and Christopher Glump, 32, and Doreen T. Carlisle, both of 9530 Carlin, Detroit.

★ ★ ★

All those arrested were charged with conspiracy to manufacture counterfeit money. State and Detroit police assisted in the raids.

They were arraigned this morning in Federal District Court and released on bonds ranging up to $15,000 pending further court hearings.

OU Aims for Independence

Oakland University appears to be on its way to independence from its mother institution, Michigan State University.

A study committee of the MSU Board of Trustees will be considering within the next 60 days a proposal that OU be granted independence.

★ ★ ★

Trustees yesterday unanimously accepted a resolution presented by OU Chancellor Durward B. Varner that the 10-year-old institution be granted its autonomy.

The resolution pointed out the growth and gains of the college in only a decade and added, "Michigan State University is now in the process of naming a new president, who will of necessity have demands on his time of greater priority than the problems and concerns of a rapidly expanding affiliate campus."

The resolution also expressed gratitude to the board of trustees and the MSU staff and faculty for their contributions to OU during its infancy.

The proposal of the five-member study committee is expected to be a major item of business at the trustees' December meeting, according to Troy Crowder, assistant to the chancellor.

Members of the study committee will be board Chairman Don Stevens, board member Frank Merriman, the board's legal counsel, Lee Carr, board Secretary Jack Breslin and Varner.

The resolution recommending that OU disassociate itself from MSU was prepared by a steering committee of the Oakland University Senate and was approved by the senate Thursday.

When the board of trustees accepts the independence of OU, as is expected by college officials, the proposal will be channeled through the Michigan Legislature and the State Board of Education.

An OU spokesman said the state board has been behind Oakland's autonomy for some time.

★ ★ ★

The MSU affiliate was founded in 1957 on the Meadow Brook Farm estate of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson who donated the 1,400 acres in Avon and and Pontiac townships to the MSU board, along with $2 million to assist in the foundation of a new university.

★ ★ ★

Oakland University opened in 1959 with 500 students and two buildings. It since has expanded to more than 5,000 students and 20 buildings.

Diet Sweetener Ban Ordered

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Robert H. Finch ordered today that all foods and drinks containing the artificial sweetener cyclamate be removed from grocery shelves by Feb. 1 because of new evidence the substance causes cancer in animals.

Finch emphasized, however, "We have no evidence at this point that cyclamates have indeed caused cancer in humans."

★ ★ ★

He said he would not recommend that families who now have cyclamate-containing foods and drinks in their homes throw them away or stop using them at the present time.

Cyclamates, which Finch estimated are a $1-billion annual industry, are found mainly in diet drinks and foods. They also are contained in a wide range of nondiet foods from bacon to canned fruits and children's vitamins.

CANCER IN RATS

Finch said he acted after two different laboratories presented evidence this week that cyclamates in very high doses produced bladder cancer in rats and mice.

The evidence was reviewed by government scientists and a panel of the National Academy of Science, which recommended the strong restrictions on cyclamates.

★ ★ ★

Finch said beginning immediately, no more cyclamates will be allowed in the production of general purpose foods and beverages.

★ ★ ★

He said beverages which contain the highest level of cyclamates must be removed from grocery shelves by Jan. 1. Other artificially sweetened foods, which he said contain lower levels of cyclamate and pose a "very minimal risk," must be removed by Feb. 1.

WILL BE AVAILABLE

Finch said cyclamate-containing foods and beverages will still be available to persons who require them for medical reasons on a prescription-type basis. These persons would include those with diabetes or obesity.

"My decision to remove cyclamates from the list of approved substances in no sense should be interpreted as a life-saving or 'emergency measure,'"

Finch said at a news conference. "I have acted under the provisions of law because it is imperative to follow a prudent course in all matters concerning public health."

BOLIVIAN TAKE-OVER — Bolivian armed forces chief Gen. Juan Jose Torres prevents an employe of the Bolivia Gulf Co. from leaving the company's office in La Paz yesterday. The employe was trying to leave the office with company documents when the Bolivian army moved in to take over. The army seized the Gulf Oil Corp. holdings because the government felt Bolivia wasn't getting enough of the profits.

Gas-Warfare Tests in the Air to Resume

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army, armed with a report to blunt congressional criticism, has decided to resume testing chemical warfare agents at two posts after a three-month suspension.

RESOR

Secretary Stanley R. Resor authorized resumption of open-air testing of chemical agents at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., and use of such gases in defensive training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., after a civilian report endorsed safety procedures at both bases.

Resor had ordered the suspension in mid-July when it was first disclosed that the Army was conducting open-air tests of chemical warfare agents.

That disclosure touched off a flurry of criticism in Congress, where some members already were highly concerned about chemical and biological warfare research.

Resor countered by naming a committee of civilian scientific experts to review safety procedure in the testing at Edgewood and training at McClellan.

The committee, headed by Dr. Ivan Loveridge Bennett, vice president of New York University, found that safety procedures at both posts are "adequate and effective."

Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, R-Md., who in July had called for suspension of testing of chemical warfare agents, said Friday night he had requested — but had not received — a copy of the scientists' report.

Mathias and others in Congress had called for full reports on poisonous chemical munitions when the Army disclosed the open air testing in July.

'WILL FOLLOW RECOMMENDATIONS'

Resor said the Army will follow the recommended restrictions in the report—such as intensive use of monitors, limitation of "munition dissemination" to heights below 75 feet, installation of additional fencing around the test site, and periodic ecological surveys for the area.

Meanwhile, Resor's boss, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has urged in a secret memorandum to the National Security Council that the United States stop producing biological warfare agents, the New York Times reported today.

North Koreans Kill Four Yanks

SEOUL (AP) — Four American soldiers were ambushed and killed by "an unprovoked attack" of North Korean Communists today near the southern boundary of the demilitarized zone, a U.S. spokesman said.

The spokesman said the men were returning in a Jeep to their units after performing equipment maintenance at a guard post when they were attacked by hand grenade and small arms fire.

★ ★ ★

Patrols began an immediate sweep of the area. The bodies were recovered from the truck.

Names of the dead were withheld until their relatives are notified.

60 INCIDENTS IN 69

Since January, one American has been killed and six wounded in a total of 60 incidents along the 18-mile-long American sector of the DMZ.

Grid Fans Cheer Today's Weather

The weather man must be a football fan as the forecast for this afternoon calls for partly sunny skies and brisk temperatures, ideal for players and spectators alike.

Tomorrow's outlook is mostly cloudy with a chance of showers and a little warmer with highs in the mid-50s. Monday will be partly cloudy and a little cooler.

There's a 60 per cent chance of rain tonight, dropping to 40 per cent tomorrow.

An over night low of 38 was recorded in downtown Pontiac at 7 this morning. At 2 p.m., the temperature was 58.

Boy-Girl Stanford Dorm Succeeds

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Young men and women at a Stanford University dormitory are living in adjacent single rooms in what officials call an experiment in advanced coeducational living.

"It's going quite well," says William Leland, associate dean of students.

★ ★ ★

Many of the students' parents approve. No parent has complained.

Joseph Katz, executive director of the school's Institute for the Study of Human Problems, said the 40 students' coeducational living may have led to a "partial moratorium on sex."

INITIATE CHANGE

Students initiated the change last spring by drafting a floor plan assigning names of men and women in next-door rooms at Roble Hall, previously an all-women's dorm and one of the oldest structures on campus.

★ ★ ★

Peter Bulkeley, a new dean visting Roble, saw the suggested plan on a wall and thought the assignments already had been approved.

★ ★ ★

"Sounds like a great idea," he said.

Assistant Prof. John Palmer and his wife, directors of the dormitory, understood Bulkeley's remark to mean official approval and men were moved into rooms assigned by the plan.

The Palmers say they have encountered no special problems so far in the experiment, which progresses beyond the now fairly common college coeducational housing with men and women on separate floors or corridors.

The bath-and-toilet problem was resolved by assigning one to men and one to women.

The program has brought approving comments from some parents.

"I approve 100 per cent," said Mrs. Anne Huston Gilliand of Corvallis, Ore., whose daughter Sue lives in the dorm. "When I went to Stanford 25 years ago, the boys were at one end of the campus and the girls at the other. Dates became too important. They created tension between boys and girls."

RELAXED ATTITUDE

Coed Monica Ploeser of Santa Clara, Calif., said she senses a more relaxed attitude toward women among men students.

Robert Blees of Los Angeles, a Dartmouth graduate whose son is in the group, said, "It's a fine idea. I'm not shocked at all."

Katz said the coeducational units avoid "over idealization" of the opposite sex and a good deal of the mutual teasing and destructive behavior characteristic of campus dating.

On a longer-range basis, Katz said, participants may develop attitudes that will lead them to stronger marriages.

Last 2 Cosmonauts Return to Earth Safely

From Our News Wires

MOSCOW — The Soviets today safely brought back to earth their Soyuz 8 spacecraft and its two-man crew, completing their biggest week in space, a period that saw seven cosmonauts orbiting simultaneously in three ships.

★ ★ ★

The Tass News Agency said Soyuz 8 ended its five-day flight in the Karangda recovery area in Central Asia, as had its sister ships, Soyuz 6 and 7 on Thursday and yesterday. The cosmonauts were reported in excellent condition.

The big Soyuz 8 spacecraft landed in the snow-blanketed fields of Soviet Kazakhstan, not far from the Baikonur launchpad.

The two unshaven spacemen — Col. Vladimir Shatlov and Alexei Yeliseyev — were met on touchdown by search and rescue helicopters and flown immediately to a receiving post in Karaganda.

A televised report from the nearby Cosmodrome said all seven cosmonauts involved in the eight-day mission "carried out their assignments excellently."

Prior to their return, Tass said the Soyuz 8 crewmen tested "new, extremely convenient ways of navigation."

The cosmonauts established communication with the flight control center through a communications vessel somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean, and the communication satellite Molniya 1, the agency said.

'SUCCESSFUL'

"The experiment was successful. Communications were stable," Tass said.

The agency also said Shatlov and Yeliseyev held a "space press conference," answering questions of Soviet journalists. The questions and answers were not reported.

Soyuz 7, with three cosmonauts on board, parachuted to a soft landing yesterday, a day after Soyuz 6 came down with its two cosmonauts. All are reported in good condition. Soyuz 6 went up last Saturday, Soyuz 7 on Sunday and Soyuz 8 on Monday.

According to official reports, the mission of the space troika had been accomplished "according to plan."

WELDING EXPERIMENTS

Among other things, the men carried out cold welding experiments, weather research and geological observations.

Western space experts say this week's flights left many questions unanswered — although it may be possible, they said, that the seven cosmonauts accomplished things that the Russians were not willing to disclose.

Some speculated that unexpected difficulties may have developed during the flight of the three Soyuz ships, precluding spectacular results.

The government newspaper Izvestia said last night the purpose of the three-craft flight had been to "bring closer the period of permanent orbital spaceships."

As Soyuz 7 was lowered gently onto Soviet ground yesterday, the Russians announced their fifth launching in a week. An unmanned research vehicle, Cosmos 302, was fired into orbit from the Baikonur Space Center.

Peace Corpsmen Irk White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is reported to be upset over public protests against the war in Vietnam by Peace Corps volunteers in at least six foreign countries.

In Turkey, Peace Corps members led a silent vigil outside the U.S. embassy. In the Dominican Republic, volunteers ran a newspaper advertisement branding the war as unjust.

Other protests took place in four South American countries, coinciding with mid-week Vietnam Moratorium protests throughout the United States.

Officially, the Peace Corps denied the White House flap. But inside sources reported Henry Kissinger, the President's foreign policy adviser, telephoned Peace Corps Director Joseph Blatchford to convey the displeasure.

SENSITIVE ISSUE

The Vietnam war is a sensitive issue for the Peace Corps in many emergin nations where the U.S. involvement is under attack.

In the Dominican Republic, one of the volunteers who signed the advertisement said, "For the first time, I think many people here have stopped looking on us as CIA agents."

★ ★ ★

The advertisement, signed by 38 members, called the war "unjust and irrational."

One volunteer in the Dominican Republic said the advertisement was published in Santo Domingo, the capital, rather in the United States because "we thought it would be more embarrassing to the Nixon administration to have our views known here . . ."

It apparently was. A Peace Corps source said, "You can imagine what the reaction was at the White House."

'SENSELESS, IMMORAL'

In Turkey, the war was condemned as "senseless and immoral" in a letter given to the U.S. ambassador by 30 demonstrators, most of them Peace Corps volunteers.

Peace Corps sources said volunteers gave other petitions to U.S. ambassadors in Bolivia, Colombia and Guyana and made a public statement against the war in Ecuador.

★ ★ ★

In Washington, about 200 members of the Peace Corps staff—a fourth of the total—took the day off Wednesday to stage a walk to the Capitol as part of the Moratorium protests after an antiwar rally at the Peace Corps headquarters.

Peace Corps officials said no punitive action would be taken against any of the volunteers who participated in the protests.

Thieu: We Fired on Soviet Ship

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu, contradicting his military spokesmen, said today a South Vietnamese gunboat did indeed fire on a Soviet trawler offshore yesterday.

The president told newsmen on a field trip to the Mekong Delta that there was "some shooting" and that the gunboat's salvo left "maybe one or two holes" in the Soviet vessel.

★ ★ ★

"I don't believe it will create any diplomatic incident," Thieu said.

Earlier, one of his military spokesmen in Saigon had said that a government naval vessel chased the Soviet ship from territorial waters but "there was no shooting."

Said Thieu: "I don't believe that before we chased it away that our navy knew whether it was Russian or not." The positive identification, he said, was made "afterwards."

Allied military sources had said a shell from a South Vietnamese naval vessel hit the Soviet trawler off the northern coast and sent it fleeing back into the international waters, smoke pouring from its bow.

As yet, no Soviet protest note has been filed with Washington or at the United Nations. Soviet trawlers constantly shadow U.S. warships off Vietnam and chart American air operations from the 7th Fleet carriers on "Yankee Station."

School Buses Guarded After 'Zodiac' Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Armed lawmen are riding shotgun on some San Francisco Bay area school buses after a killer boasted he might shoot the bus tires "and then pick off the kiddies as they come bouncing off."

★ ★ ★

The suspected killer of five persons is called Zodiac because of the astrological terms used in letters boasting of his slayings.

★ ★ ★

The latest was a letter to San Francisco police boasting of the murder of Paul Stine, 29, a cab-driver whose body was found Saturday night in the Presidio Heights section of San Francisco.

He sent along a swatch of blood-soaked cloth which police said appeared to come from Stine's shirt.

WHO'S NEXT?

The letter warned the killer might make schoolchildren his next victims.

★ ★ ★

In rural Napa County, officers rode on buses yesterday while in Sausalito, police cars followed buses. Drivers all over the Bay Area were drilled on procedures to follow should Zodiac attempt to make good his threat.

★ ★ ★

The drivers were under orders not to stop under any circumstances — to keep driving as fast as possible and as far as possible with headlights on and horns blowing to attract attention and assistance.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the state attorney general's office is heading a coordinated effort by the San Francisco and Vallejo Police Departments and the Napa and Solano County Sheriff's Offices to locate the killer fascinated with astrology.

★

The killings began last December near Vallejo, about 30 miles northeast of here. They have been woven together by the killer's morbid notes filled with astrological terms written to local newspapers and police departments boasting of his cleverness and threatening further bloodshed.

4 More Spy Ships Are Being Retired

WASHINGTON (AP) — The retirement of four more spy vessels by next June 30 will leave the Navy with just two non-combatant-type intelligence-gathering ships out of an original fleet of 10.

Only the Valdez and the Muller will remain once the Oxford, the Georgetown, the Jamestown and the Belmont are laid up.

The Navy, in announcing the new economy move yesterday, said the latest savings will be $43 million.

They are of the class of the Liberty ship which was shot up by the Israelis in the Mediterranean in 1967 and then retired.

That incident and the North Korean seizure of the Pueblo, in January 1968, called into question the value of unarmed or lightly armed intelligence ships.

The Navy announced last month that the two remaining ships of the Pueblo class—the Palm Beach and the Banner—would be placed in mothballs.

The intelligence jobs performed by these ships were mainly to intercept radio communications and monitor radar stations. The Pentagon decided these jobs could better be handled by reconnaissance aircraft and warships.

In all, 103 naval vessels are being laid up under the Pentagon's money-saving drive.

The new decision also includes disbanding seven Seabee battalions, releasing about 5,000 men from active duty, by mid-November. Their home bases are in Port Hueneme, Calif.; Davisville, R.I., and Gulfport, Miss.

A third phase of the latest economy move is a 30,000-man cut in the Navy's civilian work force which now totals more than 419,000 persons. This will be accomplished by attrition and some dismissals. Bases involved will be identified in the near future.

★ ★ ★

The campaign to cut an additional $3 billion from the defense budget includes previously announced plans to cut military manpower by 196,000 men. The total will reach about 220,000 by the end of this next fiscal year.

Woman Killed in Area Crash

One woman was killed and another critically injured in a two-car collision in Elba Township, Lapeer County, early this morning.

Susan L. Wheeler, 21, of Flint was killed in a car which reportedly crossed the center line of Oregon Road near Mapleleaf and struck a car head-on at the top of a hill at about 3:50 a.m., Lapeer County sheriff's deputies said.

★ ★ ★

The driver of the car in which the dead woman was a passenger was Larry Faught, 24, of 8325 Ridgefield, Davison, deputies said. He was treated for minor injuries at Lapeer County General Hospital and released.

Deputies said they would seek a charge of negligent homicide against Faught.

★ ★ ★

The driver of the other car, Mary Schroeder, 32, of 1862 Gray, Lapeer, is in critical condition at Hurley Hospital in Flint, according to a deputy.

NY Aid 'Excesses' Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ineligible families in New York City have received millions of dollars in welfare payments, says the General Accounting Office in a report to Congress.

The GAO supported most of the findings of a federal-state investigation last month into the program of aid to families with dependent children. The federal-state study determined about $66 million a year was being distributed in excess payments.

7 Bombs Exploded in Athens; No Injuries

ATHENS (UPI) — Seven bombs exploded in central Athens today, three of them along the route Premier George Papadopoulos was to take in leaving the city for the conutryside.

The right-wing National Resistance Movement (NRM) claimed credit for the bombings but said there was no attempt on the premier's life intended. Nobody was injured in the blasts.

"This is a rehearsal for what will happen Oct. 28," said the NRM spokesman, referring to the anniversary of the Italian invasion in 1940.

Ghetto Joblessness Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department reports growing unemployment among big city slum-dwelling Negroes. But improvements are noted in the job situation among poor whites.

The rate of unemployment for black workers averaged 7.5 per cent in the third quarter, up from 6.9 per cent during the matching period a year ago, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said yesterday.

Birmingham Bank Robbed of $1,125

A lone bandit held up a Birmingham bank and escaped with $1,125 yesterday afternoon, police said.

The holdup man took the money from a teller at the Wabeek Branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., 284 W. Maple, shortly after 2 p.m., according to police.

★ ★ ★

He reportedly told the teller he had a gun and demanded the money and fled on foot, police said.

★ ★ ★

Birmingham police and FBI agents said the suspect was white, 20 to 25 years old, 5 feet 10, 160 pounds, had light curly hair with sideburns and was clean-shaven and wearing a three-quarter-lenth jacket.

'Most Combat Units to Leave in 1970'

Viet-Pullout Speedup Seen

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — President Nixon has ordered the Pentagon to work out plans for withdrawing up to 300,000 U.S. troops from Vietnam in 1970, Newsday said today in a copyright story by columnist Flora Lewis.

The story from Washington said that, according to reliable informants, the President plans to announce the accelerated withdrawal program in his Nov. 3 television address.

★ ★ ★

While many details remain to be worked out, the initial outline of the plan calls for the removal of all American combat units except two, according to the story in Newsday, a Long Island afternoon newspaper.

The columnist said the units to be left behind are the most mobile — the 1st Air Cavalry Division and the 173rd Airborne Brigade. They total between 17,000 and 18,000 men.

"The rest of an American force of between 150,000 and 200,000 men scheduled to be in Vietnam at the end of next year will be air and support troops," the story said.

Miss Lewis said the speedup of troop withdrawals was the key decision made in Nixon's meeting with the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Oct. 8.

★ ★ ★

"It goes beyond the withdrawal schedule that the President planned last August and then dropped in the face of strong opposition from the military, substituting an even more modes program which he announced in September.

★ ★ ★

"The plan reflects a shift of influence in the administration to those civilian leaders who have been arguing that domestic troubles are too near the disaster point to permit the much more gradual 'Vietnamization' that the generals wanted," Miss Lewis wrote.

WILSON

It's been 11 years since his famous romance with Brigitte of the towels but most Americans remember him for that, and it's probable that he'll be answering questions about B.B. when he's 80.

His wife of seven years, Francine Breaud, a former French Olympic skier, doesn't mind — "she's above all that — after all, she's my wife and Bardot never was my wife," Distel said. "And anyway, Brigitte is now in love with another member of my family."

"Who? You have a brother?" we asked him hastily.

★ ★ ★

"My son Laurent. He's 5. He's very nice. She met him in an airport with me and fell in love with him. She sent him a box of candy."

People hearing Distel in his first New York singing engagement at the Plaza Persian Room often get confused and think he was married to Bardot.

"We were only engaged," he smiled, when we met at Gallagher's. "But," he repeated, "we didn't make it."

"I have a feeling that females in show business get to be masculine or at least almost like men. She really wanted to get married, and she always wants everything to happen in five minutes. I was always very slow about getting married. I deedn't want to get married to get divorced two years later."

And so they broke off back in the late '50s or '60s when he was considerably under 25 . . . and now at 34, he realizes that "some of the clubs that hired me probably wanted me because I was engaged to Bardot — but I was too young then to be conscious of that."

Chance for Smokers to Kick the Habit

DR. ROBERT A. WILLIAMS

Smokers who want to kick the cigarette habit have a chance, beginning tomorrow, to participate in a special five-day program at the Oakland County Courthouse Auditorium, 1200 N. Telegraph.

Cosponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the Pontiac Seventh-day Adventist Church, the free program runs Sunday through Thursday, from 7:30 to 9 a.m.

The clinic will be conducted by Dr. Raymond L. Mayor, M.D., and Dr. Robert A. Williams, director of guidance and measurements for Oakland County Schools.

Aiding in the nightly presentations will be Dr. Everette Gustafson of Pontiac, Dr. William Swatek, pathologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and Dr. Arthur Weaver of Veterans Memorial Hospital, Dearborn.

Movies showing physical effects of smoking will be shown each night of the clinic and pamphlets and personal guides with suggestions to overcome the smoking habit will be distributed, followed by discussion periods.

Dr. Williams is scheduled to discuss some of the psychological aspects of the smoking habit, while Dr. Myaor will discuss the medical aspects.

Health Project Coordinator Is Area Man

A former Oakland County social services director, George H. Williams of 2556 Red Arrow, Commerce Township, was this week named to the $18,000-a-year post of project coordinator on a seven-county health committee.

Williams, chairman of the Oakland County Homeowners and Taxpayers Association until his resignation last spring, said he will be responsible for developing a comprehensive health planning agency.

★ ★ ★

He was selected for his new job by the 27-member Areawide Health Operating Committee (AHOC). Composed of residents from Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Washtenaw, Livingston, St. Clair and Monroe counties, it is funded by the United Foundation and federal grants.

★ ★ ★

Williams said his job would be to develop a health agency in accordance with the comprehensive health planning survey undertaken by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, the Greater Detroit Hospital Council and the Metropolitan Fund. Much of the financing for both the survey and the agency is expected in the form of federal grants.

★ ★ ★

Williams said two planning associates and two secretaries would be added to his Detroit office staff. They will be dealing with health provisions, government responsibility and health usage, Williams said.

National Board Designates 516

John Cotton, San Diego, president of the 87,000-member National Association of Real Estate Boards, announced the appointment of 516 persons who will serve as members of its committees this year.

★ ★ ★

He noted that they are from 49 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia, and emphasized that the work of these men and women is vital to the progress of organized real estate, since most of the continuing activity of the National Association is conducted through its committees.

Ohio Eyes Judiciary

The long, drawn-out controversy over the appointment of Judge CLEMENT F. HAYNSWORTH of South Carolina as associate justice of the Supreme Court has been not only an ordeal for the man himself and an embarrassment to the President but, like the FORTAS case, has done nothing to reassure the public about the ethical condition of the Nation's judiciary.

There is much to be said in favor of an appointee system of selecting judges, on all government levels, as well as in favor of a popular vote system. There is, also, much that can be said against both methods.

Many feel that it is undignified as well as time and energy-wasting for a judge to have to run for office, to have to ask for financial contributions and to curry political favor. It is democracy carried to an extreme. Popularity is no guarantee of competence.

On the other hand, the people must have some way of exercising recall power over these very essential functionaries of society.

A new merit system proposed as a constitutional amendment for the state of Ohio seems to combine the best of both methods while obviating some of their drawbacks.

Under the Ohio plan, the governor would establish a statewide nominating commission, which would fill court vacancies from this list of candidates. But a judge appointed in this way would serve only one term and would then run, unopposed, for re-election on his record.

If the voters rejected him, the governor again would fill the vacancy with another appointment. Otherwise a judge would serve as long as he won periodic approval of the electorate or until he resigned or retired.

★ ★ ★

Speaking in support of the Ohio plan recently, former U.S. Attorney General HERBERT BROWNELL said he was in favor of a merit system for both Federal and state courts. It was while BROWNELL headed the Justice Department during the EISENHOWER administration that Judge HAYNSWORTH was appointed to his first Federal judgeship.

At that time, screening of prospective judges did not include an investigation of their finances. "It was so rare for a judge to have money," says Brownell.

How times have changed.

California Updates Divorce

California Gov. RONALD REAGAN, an alleged "reactionary," has signed one of the most liberal pieces of legislation in its area — divorce law — ever to be placed on a governor's desk.

Gone, but for one exception, is the archaic concept of "grounds" (extreme cruelty, adultery, "indignities" and so on). Except for incurable insanity, the only ground in California will be irreconcilable differences — in other words, the recognition that some marriages simply have not worked and cannot be made to work and that there is not necessarily one wholly guilty party and one wholly innocent party to every marriage breakdown.

The very word divorce will be replaced on the records by "dissolution of marriage."

★ ★ ★

Alimony, one of the worst rackets fostered by divorce laws, will be determined by considering a woman's age, earning ability and the duration of the marriage.

Also gone will be a lucrative source of income for private investigators. Their reports will no longer be permitted as evidence.

America's divorce laws, as an outgrowth of the common law, are for the most part a reproach to a civilized nation. The adversary system, whereby plaintiff and defendant and their lawyers do verbal battle in court, with the truth the hoped-for winner, may be the best system for most types of litigation.

★ ★ ★

In divorce cases, however, it more often than not compounds the anguish and bitterness that already exist between the contending parties.

Most divorces, of course, do not go as far as a court trial. The battle takes place behind the closed doors of attorneys' offices, where they and their clients dicker over the terms of the settlement and over who shall be the "guilty" party and who the "innocent."

The court in most cases routinely ratifies the agreement reached and grants the divorce, while the law maintains the fiction that no agreement was made in consideration of a divorce.

★ ★ ★

California has the worst divorce rate of the 50 states. It now has one of the best divorce laws, which hopefully will affect its unenviable record of marriage failures.

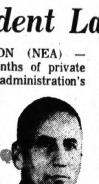
President Lacks Firm Grip on Reins

WASHINGTON (NEA) — After two months of private talks with the administration's "new" Republicans and "old" holdovers, one conclusion is inescapable:



CROMLEY

Thus far, President Nixon has been unable to get a firm grip on the reins of government.

His congressional forces are fragmented.

His patronage system had boggled.

Orders passed down from the White House are rejiggered in his own departments and agencies by men in basic disagreement with his policies.

Despite the great powers of the presidency, he has not been able to get able men loyal to him located up and down the line in enough of the key posts to bring the bureaucracy under control and insure that his policies will be carried out in the spirit in which they're issued.

MUST BELIEVE

It is essential that a man executing presidential orders be top flight in ability.

But he must, in addition, believe in the President's position. Otherwise, he may unconsciously sabotage the program in little ways.

★ ★ ★

This is why president Kennedy made a headlong effort to infiltrate his own men. This is why it is so difficult to understand why Nixon has not.

Kennedy and Johnson political appointees aside, a skilled and dedicated career bureaucracy has built up in Washington the past two decades.

★ ★ ★

These men are used to doing things in certain ways. They are somewhat suspicious of newcomers and White House "theorists."

Yet it is these men who know the labyrinths of government. They know each other. They control the channels of communication up and down. They know where to go to get things done. They know how to slow things down by strict adherence to regulations or directives. They know their rights.

★ ★ ★

But above all, they know how to gently enfold new ideas and new programs and softly smother them — so that by the time the new orders reach the field, they're indistinguishable from orders issued in 1965, 1966, 1967 or 1968.

Stairway To The Stars

Charles Bartlett

Nixon Faces Big Inflation Test

WASHINGTON — The stock market seems willing to make a risky bet that the Nixon administration will lose its nerve in the crunch of its struggle against inflation.

BARTLETT

The stock market is not usually accorded much attention in Washington. In fact recently the wife of one high Nixon appointee complained, "We've been dining out here for over eight months and I haven't heard anyone mention the stock market. We've lost so much that we can barely afford to stay here and yet nobody talks about it."

★ ★ ★

But the White House can no longer ignore the investors' doubts that the President really means to suffer the political pains and economic risks which a serious skirmish with inflation will entail.

He has seemed so cautious in his dealings on the economy that investors find it easy to believe that he will not be willing to brave the consequences of a strong stand.

TAKING STEPS

So Mr. Nixon is taking steps to make his intentions more credible. He has put aside the advice of Arthur Burns that he stand aloof from wage-price decisions in the marketplace.

He is injecting his influence, belatedly but emphatically, to restrain the upward spiral and signal that he really does mean business.

★ ★ ★

The President has not yet been tested rigorously enough in domestic or foreign policy to indicate whether he really has the courage to hew to his objectives against the popular pressures.

His economic aides talk as if they know what they need to do and intend to do it.

REASSURING

The lip music one hears privately from high sources is reassuring. But the test still lies ahead because the pains are only commencing.

No one in the administration has agreed to say how much unemployment is tolerable in the pursuit of price stability. This is a rational precaution against being tied to an inflexible figure.

★ ★ ★

But plainly there is no disposition to suffer the recurring recessions of the Eisenhower years. When the unemployment rate begins to climb over 4.5 per cent, the rescue operation is likely to begin.

Much will depend on Congress, which is the most dismal practitioner of the dismal science.

CHAOTIC SYSTEM

The present system is a chaos shaped only by political opportunities.

Chicago banker Gaylord Freedman made this point in describing the present stand against inflation as a significant test of whether a democracy can assume the discipline necessary to preserve the value of its currency.

★ ★ ★

The struggle is, as Freedman said, a test of moral strength. Accordingly the President will need to make the strength of his commitment unequivocally clear, so the nation can rally behind it.

Bob Considine

Baseball Owner Envies Church Attendance Rule

NEW YORK — Horace Stoneham left New York for San Francisco and took his Giants with him for a simple reason. Fans had quit going to the Polo Grounds to see them play. Even Willie Mays couldn't stem the tide of yawns.

CONSIDINE

Horace has been back in town, though in another borough of the far-flung city, during the World Series involving the Mets and Baltimore. It has given him a chance to be with his old friends, including Toots Shor, and it has given us a chance to remember a strange complaint he made about baseball, television and the Catholic church.

★ ★ ★

Some months after the close of what turned out to be the season-that-broke-the-Giants-back in New York, Horace was watching Midnight Mass on television. He was feeling very sorry for himself as he watched the tube. TV had more or less emptied his ball park.

At the conclusion of the program, the voice of a proper monsignor came on. It said, in effect, "Let us remind all Catholics who watched this telecast from St. Patrick's Cathedral tonight that this does not represent official and obligatory attendance at Mass on this Holy Day of Obligation. All Catholics are obliged to attend Mass in person later on this Christmas day."

★ ★ ★

It was too much for Horace.

"I wish the Giants had a gimmick like that," he groaned.

Dizzy Dean was in Shor's the other day, telling a long and entrancing story about a golf match he had played some time ago against someone he identified as Frank Lehigh.

It didn't seem to make much sense to Toots.

★ ★ ★

"I never heard of any bum named Lehigh," Toots said.

"That's strange," Dizzy said, surprised. "They tell me he was a great coach at Notre Dame."

After noting an AP photo of the SDS gang marching in Chicago, it might be appropriate to let our front line troops come home from Vietnam. 'Shoppers Abuse Privilege of Use of Carts'

If the people who holler about the shopping carts would put them back where they belong or in the space designated for them, there would be no trouble at any shopping center. Those who use carts just leave them wherever they get into their cars. At one store recently I came out to find four shopping carts against my car and three nice dents in the car. I'm all for charging a fee for them and then maybe users will show some respect for the privilege of having this convenience.

Teacher Answers Letter on Recent Institute

In answer to a letter signed "Former Pipsqueak," I gathered that the writer felt that he had been violated and "dehumanized" by the three-day human relations institute, not to mention the irreparable harm done to education in general. Obviously "Pipsqueak" missed the point of the program. While calling up various emotions on requests in order to examine their character and their effect on others is new and unusual for most teachers, I can hardly see how it is an irrational task.

The saddest commentary of all is the inability of "Pipsqueak" to associate human sensitivity and concern with education. They should be so closely related as to be indistinguishable from one another. "Former Pipsqueak" has demonstrated the continued need for this kind of program in our school system.

(A) Unless her parents approve, a girl living away from home can be brought back as a wayward minor until she's 19, whether or not she's making her own living.

Aussies Hunt British Escapee

MELBOURNE (AP) — In one of their biggest manhunts ever, Australian police today are looking for Ronald Arthur Biggs, the only participant in Britain's $7-million Great Train Robbery who is still at large.

Biggs, 39, narrowly avoided capture Friday night in a police raid on his fashionable home in Blackburn, a Melbourne suburb, where the police found his wife, Charmaine, 30, and sons Nicholas, 9, Christopher, 3, and Fairley, 2.

★ ★ ★

Police said they learned that Biggs, who escaped from London's Wandsworth jail in July 1965 after starting a 30-year sentence for his part in the 1963 robbery, fled the house only nine hours before the raid.

Police and the Royal Australian air force were checking movements of dozens of light aircraft. Charter companies were asked to provide information on all flights made in the last two days.

POINTED OUT

Police said Biggs apparently became anxious after his fellow workers at a jetport construction site near Melbourne pointed out how much he resembled a photograph of Biggs that Australian newspapers printed this week after reports he was in the country.

Mrs. Biggs made a brief appearance in a Melbourne court today on charges of violating the Immigration Act. She was returned to Fairlea Women's Prison and is expected to appear again before the court on Monday.

The three boys are being cared for by welfare authorities.

Biggs and his family had been living in the Blackburn suburb for several months under the name of Terry Cooke. Authorities said he also was known as Terry Lamb at his construction job.

For the past three days, there have been rumors that police were closing in on Biggs, who also has been hunted in Europe and Canada. He made his daring 1965 break from the London jail with another prisoner, Eric Flowers. They scaled a wall with rope ladders thrown by accomplices and jumped into an awaiting furniture van.

Flowers had been serving a 12-year sentence for a crime not connected with the train robbery. He also is still at large.

A few hours before the police announcement of the raid, a former radio announcer, Max Phillips, told a news conference that he was the man who informed police about Biggs' presence in Australia.

★ ★ ★

Phillips said Biggs and Flowers arrived in Adelaide in 1966 and moved in mid-1967. He said they had their families with them for some time.

New Evidence in Tate Killing

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police say they have new evidence in the two-month-old search for the killers of haron Tate and four other persons.

"If this particular piece of evidence can be traced, it will point us in the direction of the killers," Homicide Lt. Robert J. Helder told newsmen Friday.

★ ★ ★

He called it physical evidence but would not elaborate.

The 26-year-old actress and four acquaintances were murdered Aug. 9 at the rented Los Angeles home where she lived with her husband, director Roman Polanski. The other victims were coffee heiress Abigail Folger, hair stylist Jay Sebring, Polish writer Voityck Frokowski and 18-year-old Steven Parent, a friend of the caretaker.

BACKTRACKING

"We are in the process of backtracking everything we've done, everyone we've interviewed," said Assistant Chief Robert Houghton, "trying to pick up something we might have missed."

★ ★ ★

He said the investigation has included more than 400 interviews and the review of some 500 pieces of mail concerning the murders, which police described as apparent "ritualistic" slayings.

News-Bias Case Against CBS Dropped

WASHINGTON (AP) — News-slanting charges against the Columbia Broadcasting System in connection with a television documentary on "Hunger in America" have been dismissed by the Federal Communications Commission.

The FCC stressed Friday it would not play "national arbiter of the truth" in such cases. It said questions raised "serve the public interest" and urged broadcast license-holders to consider and benefit from such criticism.

★ ★ ★

It emphasized: "In this democracy, no government agency can authenticate the news, or should try to do so. We will therefore eschew the censor's role, including efforts to establish news distortion in situations where government intervention would constitute a worse danger than the possible rigging itself."

The CBS program, first broadcast on May 21, 1968, was investigated by the FCC after complaints including a letter from Rep. Henry B. Gonzales, D-Tex.

In spelling out its policy, the FCC said it would not defer action on license renewals under similar circumstances unless there was "extrinsic evidence of possible deliberate distortion or staging of the news."

What's in a Name? Asks Headlinewriter

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The other day I was looking over government manual SM56-7, titled "Occupations of Federal White - Collar Workers," and as I was looking over this manual, I was struck by an amusing thought.

WEST

Or at least I found it amusing. You might consider it bizarre, tedious, or even subversive.

★ ★ ★

I got to thinking that many of the family names in use today — the Cartwrights, Wheelwrights and Wainwrights among them, not to mention the Smiths — were originally occupational designations.

And then I got to thinking what it might be like if the custom of deriving surnames from job titles were still being followed.

Well, for one thing about half of the people who live in Washington would be named Papershuffler. The other half, or a goodly protion thereof, would be named Bureaucrat.

Pretty soon the Papershufflers and the Bureaucrats would begin intermarrying. And there would be a lot of confusion in the family tree. In order to retain some semblance of individual identity, each new generation would have to adopt a different surname. Which is where manual SM 56-7 would come in handy.

★ ★ ★

It lists about 550 government occupations, many of which would make dandy surnames. Some would be fairly simple, such as John Marshal, Fred Guard and Edward Guide. But most of the surnames derived from federal job titles would be highly destinctive.

Let us assume, for example, that Herbert L. Papershuffler married Penelope Bureaucrat. Judging from the frequency with which the job appears in the manuel, their first child would be named Betty Clerktypist.

BECOMES ENGAGED

Miss Clerktypist would perhaps become engaged to William Programanalyst and, after a suitable interval, would join him in wedlock. Their first child would be named Jimmy Cardpunchoperator.

I shall not attempt to trace this particular bloodline any further. However, you can see that genealogists would have a field day. Especially Raymond K. Genealogist and his descendants.

They would have no trouble determining that Willard Hearingexaminer was old Sam Judge's boy. But who would ever believe that a nice guy like Jim Accountingtechnician could possibly have raised a son as detestable as Percival Internnalreveueagent?

Eventually, the most common name in Washington would be John or Robert Digitalcomputeroperator.

Cause No. 25339

STATE OF MICHIGAN—In the Probate Court for the County of Oakland, Juvenile Division.

In the matter of the petition concerning Robert Eugene Wallace, Minor.

To Don Ray Wallace, father of said minor child.

Petition having been filed in this Court alleging that said child comes within the provisions of Chapter 712A of the Compiled Laws of 1948 as amended, in that the present whereabouts of the father of said minor child is unknown and said child has violated a law of the State, and that said child should be placed under the jurisdiction of this Court.

In the Name of the People of the State of Michigan, you are hereby notified that the hearing on said petition will be held at the Court House, Oakland County Service Center, in the City of Pontiac in said County, on the 27th day of October, A.D. 1969, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and you are hereby commanded to appear personally at said hearing.

It being impractical to make personal service hereof, this summons and notice shall be served by publication of a copy one week previous to said hearing in The Pontiac Press, a newspaper printed and circulated in said County.

Witness, the Honorable Eugene Arthur Moore, Judge of said Court, in the City of Pontiac in said County, this 15th day of October A.D. 1969.

Choice for Fed Is a Scholarly Economist

WASHINGTON (AP) — Scholarly, pipe-smoking Arthur Frank Burns, chosen by President Nixon yesterday to be chairman of the board that pulls the strings on the nation's credit, has a reputation for liking to take his time and think about things.

That could be because he has spent half his life as a professor and noted thinker about things economic.

★ ★ ★

As counselor to the President — the job Nixon created for him on taking office nine months ago — Burns rapidly became known as one who had the ear of the President whenever he wanted it.

"Arthur Burns," said one Cabinet agency official, "is the one man at the White House who can command complete silence and attention in a room just by clearing his throat to speak."

IN ON EVERYTHING

The 65-year-old native Austrian has been in on nearly every major White House discussion of economic policy. He has been described as occupying the most conservative end of a spectrum of domestic advisers extending, leftward, all the way to Urban Affairs specialist Daniel Patrick Moynihan.

Burns first came to Nixon's attention 16 years ago, when the young Nixon was vice president and Burns was chairman of President Dwight D. Eisenhower's Council of Economic Advisers.

★ ★ ★

As one of his earliest appointments to the White House staff after his election in 1968, Nixon chose Burns, who would, he said, be "coordinator of all my domestic programs and policies."

Burns is universally regarded as a foremost authority on the business cycle. With his reputation for thrift, he has functioned in the White House primarily as a budget-watcher, a cost-cutter, a reconciler of clashing economic alternatives.

PONDEROUS

Deliberate in speech, beetle-browed, gray-thatched, seen by some as ponderous, Burns did not develop a reputation as one of his colleagues' best-loved men. But he was invariably listened to by those colleagues, because they knew his views were respected by the man at the top.

Burns was born in 1904 in Stanislau, Austria, came with his family to the United States as a boy and grew up in Bayonne, N.J. He worked his way through Columbia and evenually taught at Columbia and Rutgers.

★ ★ ★

He became prominent in his field while working at the National Bureau of Economic Research, where he worked on the history of business cycles in the United States.

Burns was married in 1930 to the former Helen Bernstein and is the father of two grown sons, Joseph and David.

'Gill' May Enable Man to Breathe Under Water

LONDON (UPI) — An artificial membrane which eventually may be used as a gill to allow man to breathe underwater has been developed by a British medical team.

A spokesman for the Royal Postgraduate Medical School said Thursday the primary purpose of the silicone membrane, developed by Prof. Denis Melrose and his assistants, will be for open-heart surgery.

★ ★ ★

Experiments have been conducted with guinea pigs underwater to show it can work as a gill, the spokesman said.

Using a normal face mask, a man underwater would carry the gill packed on his back and extract oxygen from water and exhale carbon dioxide. No estimate was given when the gill would be a practical possibility.

★ ★ ★

In open heart surgery, the membrane would take the place of the lung section in artificial heart-lung machines now used in such operations, the spokesman said.

The advantage over present procedures was said to be reduction of the possibility of oxygen bubbles entering the bloodstream by eliminating direct contact between blood and oxygen.

Ancient Estate Is Found

OLYMPIA, Greece (AP) — Greek archeologists have uncovered what they believe to be a country estate where the ancient Greek historian and writer, Xenophon—c. 430-355 B.C.—is said to have spent 20 years of exile.

The discovery was made recently in an area south of ancient Olympia in the Peloponnesus peninsula.

★ ★ ★

According to the curator of antiquities of Olympia, G. Papathanasopoulos, digging in the area has brought to light part of a "luxurious country estate," believed to have been the home of Xenophon.

Historians say Xenophon, whose most noted works included "Anabasis," was banished by the Athenians for 20 years to a village near here at the beginning of the 4th century B.C., after their alliance with the Persians against Sparta.

MODERNIZATION

A Doll House for Adults

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

"You might say," said Mrs. Richard McElwee, "that our house is the doll house I always wanted when I was a little girl."

And the McElwee home is just that from the Dutch door entrance on through —each room reflecting the interest, care and creativity of its owners.

★ ★ ★

"It's been our hobby for 21 years," continued Mrs. McElwee. "We'd been married about one month when we bought the house. It was originally one of the tenant houses on the old Mercer estate and very tiny."

After much remodeling and a major addition in 1943, the three-bedroom home incorporates many novel ideas and decorating tips.

DISPLAY ANTIQUES

"In the spacious pine-paneled living room, situated across the back of the house, the McElwees house many of their antiques.

An old flour bin does double duty, providing newspaper and magazine storage while acting as a table to the high-backed chair in avocado green. Lighting the arrangement is an iron and brass scale made into a lamp by McElwee.

★ ★ ★

Colorful dried flowers fill the antique butter churn at the chair's base.

"That trunk near the fireplace is deceiving," said Mrs. McElwee.

"We have an air-conditioner in the window. And, since my husband and I didn't think it really went with our Early American furnishings, he cut out the back of his father's old trunk and placed it in front of the air-conditioner."

Because Mrs. McElwee is allergic to burning wood, the reclaimed brick fireplace holds gas logs.

★ ★ ★

"My husband electrified the Revere lantern above the fireplace so its candle wouldn't smoke the ceiling," said Mrs. McElwee.

Two steps lead to the pink geranium-trimmed kitchen, compact and convenient.

ADDITIONAL LIGHT

A skylight supplements the light available through the room's one window. And to make sure the McElwee children, Ann, 8, and Rick, 15, aren't late for meals, a rope directly above the oval oak table rings the dinner bell on the roof.

"The table belonged to my great-grandmother," she said.

★ ★ ★

During one of the remodeling sessions, McElwee took out a kitchen pantry and rerouted the basement stairway. Rather than waste the space, he built in a nap niche with storage beneath and above it.

"Our youngsters really liked it," said Mrs. McElwee, "when they were little and wanted to be close to me."

Ann's room is tiny but brimming with originality. The single bed is framed in rough-sawn pine with a cypress beam for accent. White priscillas cover privacy valances which repeat the pattern of the brown, white and aqua wallpaper.

Adding a sweet touch of color are the bright cardboard lollipops on the round window table. Made by Mrs. McElwee, they are in a bright yellow flower pot.

LOW ROOF LINES at rear are typical of authentic New England Saltbox, product of the 17th and 18th centuries in America. Wooden shingles, shutters on all windows and paneled entrance door are other Early American features on this two-story, four-bedroom house.

New England Type Has Rear-Roof Line of the Early American Colonial house has enabled it to maintain its popularity throughout the centuries.

It is getting even more attention these days as the rising cost of land forces the buying public to seek as much living space as possible within the dimensions of modest-sized lots.

★ ★ ★

One of the most interesting variations of the Colonial is the New England Saltbox.

It is distinguished from its sister-houses mainly because of its rear-roof lines, which extend downward much lower than the roof lines at the front of the house.

MODERN EXTERIOR LAYOUT

The Saltbox featured this week is completely authentic in its exterior styling, but the architect, William G. Chirgotis, has given it a modern exterior layout, with a center hall entrance, a practical room arrangement on the first floor and four bedrooms and two bathrooms upstairs.

Although it has four windows, the living room, to the left of the foyer, has plenty of wall space for imaginative decorating plus a brick-faced log-burning fireplace.

★ ★ ★

On the other side of the foyer is a wood paneled den.

And to the rear of the living room is a separate dining room, adjacent to the kitchen and with twin French glass doors that take full advantage of the view and provide access to the rear patio and lounge areas.

KITCHEN-FAMILY ROOM

A combined kitchen-family room affords enough space for informal meals and relaxation.

The appliance section is U-shaped to assist efficient operation.

A lavatory and a laundry room are close by.

★ ★ ★

And there are entrances from both the outside and the two-car garage.

CENTER HALL

An attractive center hall staircase leads from the entrance foyer to the bedrooms.

Three of the four bedrooms are close to the family bathroom, which has a clear plastic, sliding bathtub enclosure and a full-length mirrored double vanity.

★ ★ ★

The master bedroom has two sliding door closets with a total of 13 lineal feet of space, four windows and a full bath with a glass-enclosed tiled shower and full-length mirrored dressing vanity.

The garage wing is in harmony with the house itself, even to the long rear-roof lines.

WEATHERVANE

Its tall cupola is topped by a metal weathervane.

Although the plans show the garage doors at the side, they may be placed at the front or rear without altering the Colonial image.

Design S-15 delivers 2,328 square feet of living space — 1,250 square feet on the first floor, 1,078 on the second — yet the basic house is only 36' 6" by 34'.

In the case of a Saltbox, such as this one, the first floor gets added space because of the rear-roof modification of the regular Early American Colonial.

S-15 STATISTICS

Design S-15 has a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, den foyer, lavatory and laundry on the first floor, totaling 1,250 square feet. Upstairs, there are four bedrooms and two baths, totaling 1,078 square feet. The plans call for a two-car garage and a basement. Over-all dimensions, including the garage, are 60' 8" across the front and 34' deep.

Plastics Used for Insulating Easily Cleaned

Vinyls and other plastics are now being used as the finished surface for a wide variety of insulation board ceiling products, according to the Insulation Board Institute. The new finishes are fully scrubbable with most household cleaning products.

★ ★ ★

The new plastic finishes span the entire range of insulation board ceilings products. This includes plain, decorator and acoustical tile ceilings. Also 2x2 and 2x4 foot lay-in insulation board panels for suspended ceilings in plain, decorator and acoustical.

★ ★ ★

With the introduction of plastic-finished ceiling products, IBI suggests that insulation board ceilings are now suitable for rooms where frequent cleaning is usually necessary. A kitchen, for example, can have a noise reducing acoustical ceiling with a plastic finish now easily kept clean of grease and other grime.

Plant Thunbergia for Winter Bloom

If you would like colorful annual vines in your winter window garden, plant seeds of morning glories and black-eyed Susan vine (Thunbergia). Sow three seeds to a 4" pot.

★ ★ ★

If all three plants grow sturdily, you can thin them to leave only one in the pot.

Before frost threatens, bring them indoors and grow them in a sunny, south window close to the glass.

Good Homes Best Suited for Siding

The prime market for aluminum siding is not in homes that have been allowed to deteriorate, but homes in good condition where the homeowner seeks to reduce maintenance expenses and headaches.

★ ★ ★

That is the chief finding of the Flexalum division of Bridgeport Brass Company, in a survey of homeowners who have purchased aluminum siding.

★ ★ ★

According to Aldo Martin, a Flexalum siding specialist, homes that have bought aluminum siding are generally kept in good repair by their owners. The need for new siding was not always immediately evident.

Installation of the siding, Martin says, was due to the ease of maintenance of the aluminum product and the elimination of the need for repainting over the years.

ORINIGAL SIDING

Where original siding had been allowed to deteriorate, Jacobsen reports the owner usually was not willing or able to invest in new siding.

★ ★ ★

One exception to the above, according to the Flexalum specialist, is in older homes that have been repainted a number of times and are not able to "take" another coat of paint. Here aluminum siding makes more sense than scraping and repainting.

In Home Improving

Don't Overlook Roofing

If your home improvement plans for the year include an exterior face-lift, don't overlook the roof.

A house can have a spanking new paint job, a revamped entry and attractive new trim, but if the roof is shabby it detracts from the entire house.

* * *

Too often, homeowners wait until the roof springs a leak before they consider installing a new one. To do so can be poor judgment, both economically and esthetically.

In the first place, once a roof starts leaking expensive water damage to the house interior can result. And, if you have to put on a new roof in a hurry, you may not take the time to select one that will give you the most for your money.

VISUAL IMPACT

Also important is the undeniable visual impact of the roof. In most cases, it's the largest exterior surface of a house. Neglecting the roof's role in total house beauty is like topping an expensive new suit with a shabby old hat.

Today's quality roofing materials are designed for long-term, maintenance-free service and beauty — notably in the areas of color and texture. For instance, heavyweight asphalt shingles are available in a wide spectrum of decorator colors.

* * *

These include traditional blacks and whites, soft pastels, interesting blends, and the new "earth" and "forest" hues (shades of brown and green which allow effective color coordination of the house with its natural surroundings.) Deep shadow lines created by the thicker edges of heavyweight shingles give the roof surface a dramatic "textured" look.

Additionally, heavyweights offer maximum protection and minimal maintenance. They carry the U. L. label for fire-resistance. The self-sealing variety (with factory-applied adhesive that bonds each shingle to the one below) also carries a U. L. label for wind-resistance.

HEAVYWEIGHTS

The extra thickness of heavyweights (they weigh 290 or more pounds per 100 square feet of roof coverage) makes them extremely durable. They are designed by the manufacturers to last at least 20 to 25 years without service.

Considering the important jobs a good roof does in terms of beauty and protection, re-roofing is a comparatively low-cost item. Quality roofing like heavyweight asphalt shingles represents a small percentage of the total cost of an average home.

Ventless Range May Be Solution

If you are remodeling your kitchen, the ventless range hood may be the ideal solution to ventilation where duct installation to the outside is a problem. Ventless hoods have a combination of filters which trap smoke and grease-laden air drawn in by the built-in fan.

The ventless range hood-fan usually is lower in cost than the ducted type. It returns the purified air to the room while the ducted type delivers the smoke and grease-filled air to the outside.

Irregular Heat Develops Ills

Many wintertime ailments, such as colds, sinus conditions, some respiratory problems, an that all too common dry, itchy, scaly skin, are all aggravated by dry air — low relative humidity.

During this season most of us make a sincere attempt to obtain comfort in our homes and, invariably, when we have a chilly feeling, we turn up the thermostat believing that additional heat is required. Unfortunately, this only complicates the problem.

★ ★ ★

In recent years, heating and ventilating engineers have realized that true winter health and comfort in the home requires a balancing of heat and the amount of moisture in the air.

The Walton Institute — and many doctors—recommend that a relative humidity of between 35 and 40 per cent be maintained for optimum health. Since heated air found in homes during winter months is usually down to 15 per cent or less, this means that approximately one gallon of water must be added to the air for each room of your home, each day, to reach the level of health requirements.

NATURE CLEANER

Doctors know that nature has provided a constant house cleaning apparatus in our nasal passages to prevent the growth of bacteria which would lead to disease. A layer of mucus is located in our nose and travels toward the throat every ten or twenty minutes to carry bacteria, dust, dirt and other inhaled matter with it. This mucus carries the germs to the throat where they eventually are eliminated harmlessly.

However, nature never figured on the dryness of our modern over-heated homes. As a result, during the winter heating season, this mucus becomes dried out by heated air and ceases to function properly. It permits the bacteria which you inhale to remain in your nasal passages and incubate into the many persistent respiratory infections that occur in winter.

★ ★ ★

Leading physicians have recently commented in medical textbooks on the dangers or effects of dry air on our health. Here are quotes from four of them:

"One of the commonest causes of nasal symptoms leading to acute sinus infections and neuralgias is failure to provide humidity in the heat of the home and office during the winter months."

DRY NOSE

"A dry nose is at the root of most of the fall epidemics of coughs and colds."

"A lack of sufficient air moisture or relative humidity in our well heated homes and other indoor places during the colder months, is an important factor in the causation of prolonged asthmatic attacks."

★ ★ ★

"The importance of artificial humidification of heated apartments in the prevention of winter colds cannot be overestimated."

Naturally, if you could provide moisture in the air so that the planks to fit down over the beams, then toenail.

The spaced cedar 1x4s, 2x4s or 2x6s laid edge-up as roofing for a patio sunshade can be toenailed to beams.

But it's even better to notch

Outside Color Fashionable

"Fashion" is the new byword in home building products. Long important inside the house, new fashion colors and textures are becoming a big factor in exterior remodeling and in new homes.

The main reason for this revolution is the new techniques and products that have been developed to weather the elements while retaining their smart appearance.

★ ★ ★

In the aluminum siding industry the excitement centers around new chemical coatings which last longer and enable manufacturers to create exciting new patterns and surface textures.

★ ★ ★

They can also produce new, darker colors, which are resistant to fading and "weathering out" according to the Aluminum Siding Association.

NEWER COATINGS

Since many of the new coatlngs have a high polymer base, aluminum siding is now being offered in designs ranging from marble-like surfaces to those with highly grained wood textures. In fact, the average person can't tell the difference between wood and aluminum without feeling the surface.

Although white is still the most popular siding color, earth tones — gold, deep greens and blues — are gaining in favor with the buying public.

Window Wonder Gives New Look

Installing bigger windows is one of the most exciting ways to make an older home look newer without complete renovation. Besides adding more light, large windows give a feeling of spaciousness and importance. Ceramic tile on the window sills will protect them from inclement weather.

And, if carried through on patios or entryways outside the window, the ceramic tile gives an even more gracious appearance to the new setting.

Housing of SDS Youths Splits Chicago Area Church Members

CHICAGO (AP) — The militant Weatherman faction of the Students for a Democratic Society, which staged last week's violent demonstrations in an attempt to heal the split in SDS ranks, has divided the membership of the United Methodist Church in the Chicago area.

★ ★ ★

Four churches and a seminary in suburban Evanston housed 400 young radicals during the demonstrations which began Oct. 8 with a window-smashing spree on the North Side and ended Oct. 11 in a downtown confrontation with police.

At Emmanuel Methodist Church, SDS members discovered an undercover policeman and dragged him to a basement where he was beaten until the minister, the Rev. Harry Conner, intervened.

At Covenant United Methodist Church, 41 youths were arrested in a raid by 100 policemen who said they confiscated iron pipes, chains and cans of chemical spray.

Clergy and lay officials of the First United Methodist Church Temple, near the scene of the rampage Oct. 11, criticized the housing of young radicals and asked Bishop Thomas M. Pryor to discipline the ministers.

The bishop said he disapproved of the violent and revolutionary tactics of SDS, but he said, "I have seen no evidence of any intent on the part of ministers or churches of Evanston to encourage violence or to link those churches with the violence that did occur."

Lay organizations also voiced disapproval of the Evanston churches and some individuals said so at Sunday services.

The Rev. Dale Nelson, pastor of Covenant Methodist, said in a sermon that his decision to house 250 youths was based on Christian charity.

CRITICISM VOICED

A member of the church shouted, "Would you have opened the doors to the American Nazi party?"

An usher interrupted, "Take that sermon and read it to Richard Elrod!"

Elrod, 35, a lawyer for Chicago, was paralyzed Oct. 11 from a blow on the neck during the downtown demonstrations. Doctors said it might take two years for his rehabilitation.

The Rev. Mr. Conner asked members of the Emmanuel Methodist congregation to stand if they agreed with him. The majority did.

WORTH THE RISK?

In his Sunday sermon, the Rev. Mr. Conner said, "The SDS came to eat, sleep and plan their campaign . . . The opportunity was there to convey the word of God. Was it worth the risk? God only knows."

★ ★ ★

Laymen representing the United Methodists for Methodism charged Garrett Theological Seminary with "incompetence, negligence and complete lack of responsibility to the church."

★ ★ ★

Their statement said, "We are informed that individual Methodists throughout northern Illinois are canceling their church pledges as a result of this event."

★ ★ ★

Thirty persons stayed at the seminary, and school's trustees supported the housing of the radicals.

APPEAL TO CRITICS

Dr. Ernest Sanders, dean of the Garrett faculty, urged that critics not place the school on the defensive.

"Now that this thing has happened," he said, "we have to ask ourselves: What does a Christian do when he's caught in a crunch?"

★ ★ ★

The Rev. Dow Kirkpatrick, representing a committee of the Evanston Methodist churches, said the churches responded to the SDS request for housing because they thought it "essential to get the kids away from Lincoln Park and therefore lessen tensions."

He added that the involvement was "the greatest moment for Evanston Methodist churches in recent history—the fact that they were becoming involved in society rather than staying on the fringes."

Call Pair to Jury

SPARTANBURG, S.C. (AP) — The odds were decidedly against it, but both Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Cothran were selected for jury duty in Common Pleas Court the same week. There are about 60,000 names in the jury box.

Giant Condors 'Just Holding Their Own'

BAKERSFIELD, Calif. (AP) — "They're just holding their own," says one of the biologists assessing the annual count of the California condors to gauge the giant birds' fight against extinction.

Scores of observers trekked to remote condor country this week and reported more than 200 sightings of the black vultures.

Biologists from the California Department of Fish and Game evaluated the sightings to eliminate duplications and announced the result Friday.

★ ★ ★

The final figure was 53, one more than in the 1968 count, 15 more than in the first count four years ago.

★ ★ ★

The condor, once abundant and ranging majestically from southern Canada to northern Mexico, now lives only in rugged mountains rimming the San Joaquin Valley.

★ ★ ★

Officials will use the sighting findings to study population and nesting patterns and update ways of protecting the birds from extinction as civilization further shrinks their domain.

Led the Field as Career Woman

By JUNE ELERT

A pioneer among women in the field of real estate and insurance, Mrs. Carolyn Embree of Union Lake has been named "Woman of the Year" by Union Lake chapter, Business and Professional Women's Club.

As an observance of National Women in Business week, starting Sunday, members of the nine clubs of District 10, BPW, will attend 11:30 a.m. service at Kirk in the Hills.

At a joint luncheon in Devon Gables following the service, Mrs. Embree, along with each of the other clubs' representatives, will be presented to the gathering.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Embree narrowly missed a career as a journalist. Back in 1909-10, she was Milford correspondent for what was then the Press Gazette, predecessor of this newspaper. She was offered a job in the editorial department but her mother wouldn't allow her to board away from home.

At 16, Carolyn worked at a grain elevator, sorting navy beans. For this, she recalls, she was paid $3.50 a week; $2.50 was turned over to her mother.

"But then," she says, "a dollar went a good deal farther than it would today."

★ ★ ★

Carolyn married in 1911 and moved into Pontiac with her husband, where they stayed until 1927. During those years, Mrs. Embree worked for the old Oakland Motor Company and for Pontiac Commercial and Savings Bank, now Community National Bank.

In 1927, the couple made the exodus to Union Lake, building a year-round home on a peninsula containing only summer cottages, so that their neighbors disappeared with the coming of the first frost.

In order to keep her job in Pontiac, Carolyn purchased one of Ford's new Model A's and learned to drive. "That was a circus," she says.

FAMOUS CAR

"Mine was the only Model A in town except for the police chief's car, and every time I stopped anywhere, men and kids would swarm out of nowhere to gape at it."

Carolyn eventually got tired of rising at 5 a.m. to do her housework before the long drive into Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

She resigned her position and with the recommendation of "two substantial citizens and a personal bondsman," (all that was required in the days before the Michigan Securities Commission controls) the venturesome Carolyn became a real estate saleswoman.

★ ★ ★

"I think," she says, "that real estate is a very good career for a woman. You can get such good instruction, it would be very foolish not to start in from that angle. When I began, I just had to sort of feel my way through each new situation. Now, the "red book" (the Securities Commission regulations) is the broker's bible.

★ ★ ★

"There are a lot more women in real estate and insurance than there were when I started. I don't think there were any others around here. It was a long time before I met another woman real estate broker."

Carolyn maintained the business alone for five years after her husband's death in 1940 and then went into partnership with Lynn Gregg, eventually selling out her interest to him in 1958.

She maintains her license to sell and enjoys this semi-retirement, since, she says, "If I feel like working, I can work, and if I don't feel like it, I don't have to."

★ ★ ★

Carolyn will celebrate her 79th birthday Nov. 18.

"You must have marvelous health," I said, naively.

"Oh, no. I wouldn't say that. I've had arthritis of the spine since the early 30s. I get stiff when I sit down for very long — I guess that's what inspires me to be up and doing."

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Embree has seen a lot of changes in the Union Lake area over the years. "The old Morrison home just came down. That must have been over a hundred years old. There are new apartments and shopping centers all the time. But we seem to run a lot to gas stations around here," she commented.

★ ★ ★

Carolyn's leisure time is devoted to church work, BPW meetings, Eastern Star activities and a new project of getting a Union Lake Historical Society established.

The building was provided in the will of Charles R. Locklin and has a built-in history, having been used as a way-station to conceal escaping slaves on the underground railroad.

Didn't Write Abby Letter, but She Gets Blamed for It

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Something in your column sure stirred up a hornet's nest in our family, and I'll bet it did the same in hundreds of others across the country. It was the letter from the married woman who said she had a strong "physical attraction" for her husband's brother, and if she didn't get him alone just once she would lose her mind.

★ ★ ★

Well, last evening my husband's brother and his wife came over for a friendly visit. The first thing the wife said was, "Did you read Dear Abby today?" I said, "Yes, wasn't it a gas?" She said, "Yeah, it sure was." Naturally the men had to see it, too, so they dragged out the paper, and here was this "confession" from a married woman who was physically attracted to her brother-in-law, also married. By the time they left, my sister-in-law was barely speaking to me, and if looks could kill, her husband would be dead now.

That night when we went to bed my husband acted mad, but he didn't say anything.

★ ★ ★

Will you be kind enough to write and say which town, or at least which state she's from so the rest of the world can sleep in peace. Heaven help me if you say "Illinois."

NOT GUILTY

★ ★ ★

DEAR NOT GUILTY: You'll not need Heaven's help on this one. Illinois it wasn't.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: We are about to marry off our fourth daughter and we are certainly in a bind. We have skimped and saved for the last 15 years to be able to pay the bills for the weddings of our three older daughters. We have deprived ourselves of vacations and other luxuries, and now we find that the only way we can give our fourth daughter the same kind of wedding her older sisters had is to mortgage our home.

Prices for weddings today are fantastic! Not one of the grooms' parents ever offered to pay a dime toward the expense of the wedding. We think this is unfair. It should be a 50-50 deal.

Please put this in your column. Maybe it will soak in where it's needed.

MOTHER OF DAUGHTERS

★ ★ ★

DEAR MOTHER: Don't count on it. But you have only yourselves to blame if you go broke putting on a wedding that is beyond your means.

Identity Search Explains Choice

Some articulate black women are together in Detroit this week for the National Association of Media Women convention. A Women's Wear Daily reporter surveyed these word-oriented women on the question, "Would you rather be called black, negro, or colored?" ... "Black" was almost unanimous

Some reasons: Sara Slack, Education editor, N.Y. Amsterdam News: " 'Negro' is a corruption non-blacks have given blacks. 'Black' represents our new surge toward finding our own identity. We want to throw off anything that suggests the white master-black slave relationship."

Theresa Hooks, women's editor, Chicago Daily Defender: "If you can be white and be pink, I can be black and be brown. 'Black' is a name we have chosen ourselves."

Phy Stephens, publicity director, Carmen Cosmetics: "To differentiate is with today, with the modern pressure. Younger generations have forced us to identify, to be 'black.' "

Janet David, accountant, Amsterdam News: " 'Black' is like wearing an Afro — it's being yourself and doing your black thing."

Makeup All Her Own

Black Can Be More Beautiful

By LINDA CABRAL

The beautiful black women is what put Libra cosmetic line into business. A new makeup group is on the market, designed to let the black woman do what she wants to for her face.

"She can look any way she wants to with our makeup," said Mr. Otis, black beauty expert for Libra.

★ ★ ★

National Toiletrys, Libra's parent company, was founded in Chattanooga, Tenn. after the Civil War when a Yankee prisoner decided he liked the city, even from behind bars.

The name Libra means freedom, say company spokesmen. Their products, ranging from liquid make up, lipsticks, mascara and skin care preparations are designed to give black women representation in a white-oriented field.

ALL CAN USE

Chemically formulated to complement black skin, the makeup line can also be used as a summer cosmetic for lighter skin tones.

Eventually, Libra will gear their products to all olive skin shades, but primarily, it is geared to the black woman.

Plans are now being made to establish beauty clinics featuring Mr. Otis and black models, who will tour the country, offering advice on makeup application and use.

In Detroit recently on a publicity drive, Mr. Otis said, "after all, makeup has two goals: to cover skin imperfections and to enhance natural beauty. Every woman wants to do this, whether black, white or green."

Believing that there are manufacturers who have negelected to fill this need for black women, Libra is attempting to supply cosmetics to camouflage and enhance the black woman.

And heaven knows, we girls always like that, be we black, white, green or anything else.

Model Sandra Sanders wears the new makeup for black women; she is a cosmetic consultant.

Today's Working Wives Are Highly Motivated

By PATRICIA McCORMACK

NEW YORK (UPI) — Let's hear a cheer for working wives — the 15.3 million of them who juggle home and job duties in amazing ways.

The census Bureau figures that more than one out of three wives nationwide is doing this double duty—compared with one in five in 1952.

A cheer is due since a yen to help others, rather than puregreed, motivates most of them.

An informal survey of a cross-section of married, employed females in the New York area showed also a need for extra money—the women's husbands can't meet the double financial duties created by needy parents or alimony and child support payments.

HUSBAND DISABLED

Others among the women, like the middle-aged one who peddles papers by an automat near the United Nations, work because their husbands are disabled.

Almost envied by those working for funds to fill gaps were the occasional wives whose husbands can handle double or even triple financial duties.

★ ★ ★

One mother of three in this class always has had a housekeeper. She wants to be somebody rather than just earn money. "Like many in society, I am success-oriented," she said.

★ ★ ★

Most familiar in the fabric of American life were explanations from those working for the money. Some comments:

● "Money — first for my needy parents and then when they died, money to help my husband meet alimony and child support payments from a previous marriage."

HUSBAND'S ALIMONY

● "Half my salary goes to pay my husband's alimony to a woman who earns more than I do and almost as much as he does," said a disenchanted mother of a toddler. "The other half pays the housekeeper who takes care of of the baby in my absence."

● "Money," says a mother of three now looking for a job to help pay for needed dental work for one child. She has no training. At best she hopes to get a job as a checkout clerk in a supermarket.

★ ★ ★

Homes that aren't always in spic and span condition bother some working wives—who cut corners in the housekeeping.

But another attitude about this was best expressed by a wife who said:

"A little dust on the table is less of a worry to me than a lot of dust on the brain."

To Pediatrician Shortage

Supernurse May Be Answer

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A pediatrics professor at the University of Colorado Medical Center says training "supernurses" could provide great assistance in coping with a crisis in children's health care.

The "supernurses" or "pediatric nurse practitioners" are the central element of a plan on child health care that the professor, Dr. Henry K. Silver, presents today to the annual meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics in Chicago.

★ ★ ★

Dr. Silver said the "supernurses" could be trained in four months at a cost of $4,000 each, far less than the cost of training physicians.

After the specialized course, then nurses would handle about 75 per cent of the children coming to a health station, he said.

"They can give almost total care to well children," Dr. Silver said, "and can evaluate and manage a majority of the sick and injured children seen in an ambulatory office setting."

He said the 'supernurses" could be trained in groups of 20 a year at 100 training centers.

★ ★ ★

Forty-eight of the special nurses have been trained in a Colorado programs.

Silver said studies after those nurses began their practice showed:

● Nurses working alone in a low-income neighborhood were able to provide care without a doctor's help for 70 per cent of the children they saw. Another 11 per cent of the cases were handled after telephone consultation with a doctor.

● Nurse practitioners working in the office of pediatricians drew favorable response from 94 per cent of these parents who said they felt the care of their children improved after the nurse practitioner came.

● When nurse practioners and pediatricians saw a series of 180 patients independently, their findings differed significantly in only 1 per cent of the cases.

And, he said, pediatricians who employ nurse practitioners have found they are able to see at least one-third more patients than before.

"Rip Van Winkle" Is Puppet Show Now

Washington Irving's immortal classic, "Rip Van Winkle," is the first puppet show of the current Detroit Youth Theatre season in the Art Institute Theatre next Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Performed by the Melikin Puppets of Chicago, the early American legend transports boys and girls back to 1766, when Rip and his dog set out on a thrilling 21-year adventure.

★ ★ ★

The Melikin Puppeteers are well known for their adaptions of classic legends and fairytales. In the current production, young people are treated to a host of special effects, including a youthful "Rip" who ages 20 years before the eyes of his astonished audience.

★ ★ ★

Two performances of this "Something Every Saturday" event are scheduled at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Individual tickets are available at the Art Institute Ticket Office and all J. L. Hudson Ticket Centers.

Groppi Still in Jail as Lawyers Map Plans

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Rev. James E. Groppi remained in jail today while his lawyers prepared appeals contending that constitutional issues were not settled in the two latest court decisions against the civil rights activist.

The Wisconsin Supreme Court ruled Friday that the Roman Catholic priest's right to due process was not abridged when legislators jailed him for contempt without a hearing. Simultaneously, a Milwaukee County Court judge ordered him jailed six months for violations of probation.

* * *

The state assembly used an 1848 contempt statute that had never before been invoked to jail the 38-year-old Groppi Oct. 1 for actions stemming from his role as leader of welfare demonstrations at the state capitol in Madison.

The statute has no provision for trial, bail or a hearing and allows for up to six months in jail.

UNANIMOUS

The state supreme court ruled unanimously there was no question that Groppi's "acts were contemptuous" when he entered the Assembly chamber Sept. 29 with 2,000 followers, most of them University of Wisconsin students.

As to "whether he is entitled to a hearing," the court said: "What is there to hear? ... What need is there for witnesses to tell the assembly as a body what it witnessed?"

* * *

In Milwaukee County Court, Judge F. Ryan Duffy Jr. ruled that Groppi's activities in Madison violated terms of probation set last year when the priest was given a suspended six-month term for resisting arrest during a 1967 open-housing demonstration.

Groppi was ordered freed in $500 bond Oct. 11 on the contempt charge by U.S. Dist. Court Judge James E. Doyle, who did not rule on the constitutional questions but said the assembly had not given the priest "a hearing of any kind."

* * *

Groppi was immediately placed in custody then, however, by authorities who took him to Milwaukee, where he was held until his appearance Friday in County Court on the charge of violating his 1968 probation.

Among numerous litigations pending on Groppi's behalf is an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court of the 1968 conviction under which he was placed on probation.

Fraud Charged to Firm, Owner

DETROIT (AP) — Eugene M. Greene, president of Debt Aid-Inc., and his company were indicted on 12 counts of mail fraud by a U.S. grand jury Thursday.

Debt Aid was charged with collecting fees from 15 debtors to straighten out their credit problems when the company was unable to perform the service.

* * *

The grand jury said Debt Aid has branches at 10 W. Huron, Pontiac, and in Mount Clemens.

Maximum punishment for mail fraud is five years imprisonment and a $1,000 fine, with each count punishable as a separate offense.

The only hobby regulated by international treaty is amateur radio.

Per-Student Outlay Low in Waterford

Waterford Township's school system, third largest in the county, has less money to spend on each student than six other largest school districts in Oakland County, school officials reveal.

Waterford School District will be able to spend only about $602 for each student in the regular school program this school year, according to Waterford school figures.

* * *

But Waterford will be getting the largest state aid per pupil among the seven largest districts. Waterford's per pupil enrollment is up just 13 cents over last year.

The comparative per pupil figures for 1969-70:

District (Enrollment)	State Aid	Amt. Spent
Pontiac (24,470)	$217	$740
Royal Oak (19,596)	$271	$696
Waterford (18,501)	$321	$602
Birmingham (17,526)	$200	$902
Southfield (16,351)	$196	$776
Farmington (16,370)	$273	$722
Walled Lake (10,288)	$271	$700

* * *

Waterford's enrollment is up 263 pupils over last year.

Have Her Diamond Reset for Christmas

We Can Transform an Old Diamond Ring

Perhaps it seems early for Christmas, but it does take time to avoid the holiday rush. We do wonders with old diamonds by resetting and renewing the beauty and sparkling brilliance of each stone. Take the time to choose the design and express the thought you have in mind. Come in and plan now. Choose from the fancy cluster styles or let us help you design an original for you or your loved one!

What Wall Street Did

By WHAYNE EISENMAN
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — In spite of a general improvement in the municipal bond market this past week, New York Cith on a $160 million new issue encountered its highest interest cost in history — 6.43 per cent.

A syndicate managed by First National City Bank won the issue in competitive bidding and reoffered the bonds to an eager public at yields paying investors 5.75 per cent on 1971 maturities and 6.5 per cent for those due in 2005.

The mood in the municipal market, where bonds are sold to finance state and local projects, improved in the week along with the declininy costs to issuers.

On Oct. 9 the Senate Finance Committee in Washington voted to maintain the tax exempt status of revenues from municipals. The house had previously passed a tax reform bill to limit the tax exempt status, a move widely blamed for recent lack of buyer interest in such issues.

In general however, the week's slate of municipals was not so well received as the previous week, according to the investment firm of Salomon Bros. & Hhutzler.

Corporate bonds, though, enjoyed their larget rally since mid-April, with all sectors rising over a point in price.

As prices rise, yields decline and new issue corporate yields are now almost 25 basis points below their recent all-time highs. Next week's calendar is the largest since mid-September at $318 million.

Long term government bonds of over 20 year maturities added ⋆ths of a point to the advance since late September which now totals 2¾ points. Intermediate governments of 5 to 7 year maturities added about the same and are now almost 2 points above their recent laws.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market was gripped by peace fever the past week and spurted to a strong gain in heavy trading.

★ ★ ★

Investors also were encouraged by the market's ability to hold above the 1969 lows in a vital test late in the previous week.

★ ★ ★

Expectations of important developments in Vietnam peace talks encouraged investors to buy, and the market advanced sharply on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday.

★ ★ ★

"The 800-level on the Dow Jones industrial average is no longer a market factor, and the question now is not how low down but how high up," said Newton D. Zinder, analyst for the brokerage firm of E. F. Hutton & Co.

★ ★ ★

"An advance of the magnitude, breadth and volume that we have seen this week is not likely to be halted or reversed after just a few sessions. While the pace of the advance is obviously unsustainable, the market's main direction at the present time would seem to be quite clear-cut."

★ ★ ★

The market's surge was at its peak Tuesday, when the Dow Jones industrial average's gain of 13.13 was its biggest since April 30, and the advance by The Associated Press 60-stock average of 3.8 was its largest since Aug. 1.

★ ★ ★

On Tuesday, trading on the New York Stock Exchange soared to 19.95 million shares, the heaviest of the year and the sixth highest in Big Board history. Volume of 19.5 million on Thursday was the eighth highest.

Used to Think of Cops as 'Pigs'

Teen Thanks Officer Who Saved His Life

DENVER (UPI) — Frank Vigil 19, used to think of cops as "pigs." He nearly lost his life before he changed his mind.

The teen-ager's heart stopped beating Sept. 26 when a car in which he was riding was involved in an accident.

* * *

A rookie patrolman came to his aid and saved his life, touching off a rock-throwing demonstration in the process.

"I know people consider the police 'pigs,'" Vigil said in a letter to Patrolman Robert Mosier. "I now realize that the police are there to help us and are on our side, not against us."

Officer Mosier was the first on the scene last month when Virgil's car slammed into a parked auto.

The young patrolman straddled the fallen youth and began applying external heart massage to get the heart beating again.

A gathering crowd of youths thought Mosier was attacking the boy and tried to drag him off. Rocks began flying and police had to use tear gas to break up the crowd. Sixteen persons, including 13 police officers, were injured.

* * *

"I know it's kind of late to be saying thanks," Vigil wrote. "I found out the hard way. I almost lost my life . . . I wish in some way the people of the West Side and any other community could communicate with you and any other officer in a better way.

"Thank you."

Film Replica Sinks

Nessie Gets a Friend

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A replica of the fabled Loch Ness monster has vanished in the same misty waters where Scotsmen for centuries have reported seeing the sea beast.

A San Francisco insurance company received a $25,000 claim Friday for a monstrous stand-in that disappeared off the shadowy shore of the narrow lake in northern Scotland.

Something slipped as a Sherlock Holmes thriller was being filmed on location, and the downy, gray mechanical beast sank into the dark depths.

United Artists said the fiberglass monster could not be recovered from the bottom of the 754-foot-deep loch, and placed a claim with Fireman's Fund Insurance Co.

A Firemen's spokesman said the claim will be paid because the policy was not on the replica itself, but on the cost of any production delays.

United Artists said filming had to be removed to a studio, where a miniature lake and monster were built, a considerable distance away from legend-shrouded Loch Ness.

MONSTER DISAPPEARS — A $25,000 mechanical Loch Ness monster sends actors tumbling into the water in this scene from a United Artists' thriller which was being filmed in Scotland. The mechanical monster has disappeared into the 754-foot-deep loch, and a San Francisco insurance company says it is prepared to pay off. A spokesman for the firm says the monster itself isn't covered by insurance, but production costs because of the disappearance are insured.

LA Raid Death Ruled Criminal

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The death of a young father by stray police rifle fire during a chaotic narcotics raid was "occasioned by criminal means," a coroner's jury has ruled.

The ruling Friday followed two hours of deliberation after six days of testimony by about 30 witnesses.

Heyward H. Dyer, 22, standing in the middle of a room cradling his infant son, was killed instantly Oct. 3 by a shot fired from the apartment above. The bullet went through the ceiling and struck Dyer in the head.

* * *

He dropped 22-month-old Francis as he crumpled to the floor. The infant suffered minor cuts.

MAY PROSECUTE

The district attorney's office now will determine whether police Sgt. Frank E. Sweeney, 39, who fired the fatal shot, will be prosecuted, said Deputy Dist. Atty. Ralph Mayer, who presented the case to the grand jury. He did not say what the charge might be.

The jury's vote was 4-3 and came after Sweeney, final witness at the hearing, acknowledged that he had spent 2½ hours in a bar prior to the raid. The officer said he drank three beers and part of a fourth.

* * *

Sweeney was with six other officers who had mistakenly crashed into Dyer's mother-in-law's apartment. Armed with search warrants, they were making a predawn raid for marijuana and had burst into the wrong apartment.

Dyer, who lived upstairs in the same building, heard her screams from below and ran downstairs to her apartment.

WENT UPSTAIRS

Agents then went upstairs to the apartment listed on their warrant, while Dyer remained with his mother-in-law, Frances Meehan.

The apartment the agents raided was directly above Mrs. Meehan's.

* * *

Sweeney, a 15-year veteran, said the shot was fired accidentally as he was trying to engage the safety mechanism on his AR15 rifle.

Later, officers arrested a man who had no connection with Dyer for investigation of having dangerous drugs.

3 Pontiac Policemen Promoted

Promotions for three members of the Pontiac Police Department were announced today by Chief William K. Hanger.

Detective Robert A. Emery, 41, of 5347 Highland, Waterford Township, was promoted to sergeant and will become the department's new community relations officer.

Patrolmen Marvin Blum, 41, of 3919 Dill, Waterford Township, and Freeman Stalions, 6660 Manson, Waterford Township, both received promotions to the rank of detective.

Blum was assigned to the Detective Bureau, and Stalions will be the detective in charge of the department's Identification Bureau.

TOP OF LIST

In making the announcement, Hanger pointed out that all three men were at the top of the department's promotion list, based on test scores and other personal data.

Emery came to the department in 1950 and became a detective in 1955. He established the Bogus Check Section of the Detective Bureau in 1959. He also organized the Michigan Association of Check Investigators in 1959 and is a past president of that group.

A past president of the Pontiac Police Officers Association, Emery has studied police science at the University of Louisville and the University of Oklahoma.

Blum is an 18-year veteran of the department who worked with its Special Investigation Bureau from 1958-62.

He has received two departmental citations and was with the Patrol Division before his promotion.

Blum has attended the U.S. Treasury Department School on Narcotics in Washington, D.C., and has studied police science at Oakland University.

Stalions has been with the department since 1959 in both the Patrol Division and the Identification Bureau.

He is a graduate of the University of Louisville's Institute of Applied Science and the Eastman Kodak School of Photography. He is scheduled to graduate in April from Oakland Community College with an associate degree in law enforcement.

Flint at Wisner Tonight

Firebirds Favored by 14

Remembering the 33-19 slugfest in their first encounter this season, the Pontiac Firebirds are 14 point favorites to defeat the Flint Wildcats at Wisner Stadium.

Still clinging to hopes of a chance to meet the Lansing All-Stars in a playoff for the Central Division title, the Firebirds' biggest problem tonight might be over-confidence.

NEW QB

A new quarterback, however, Pat Brown will be calling signals and this may be enough to perk up the Firebirds who are still smarting from the loss to Lansing two weeks ago and the poor first half against the Detroit Cowboys last week.

★ ★ ★

Lansing is playing at Grand Rapids tonight, while the key game in the MFL is at Dayton where the Colts face Lackawanna in the showdown of the Lakes Division.

A win for Dayton would throw that division into a tie and then the Colts have the tough task of facing Lansing next week and the Firebirds in the finale in two weeks. weeks.

★ ★ ★

Flint gave Dayton a tough time last week on the Atwood Stadium Astroturf before losing 20-12.

The Wildcats have always been a strong late season team having made the Firebirds their victims last year.

Kickoff tonight is 7:30. Gates will open at 6:15 p.m.

Central's Rally Falls Short

CORNERED — Pontiac Central's Perry Humphrey tries to stay on his feet but finds the footing bad and his path blocked by a trio of Saginaw players who secured the tackle. Saginaw won a 29-20 SVC victory last night at Wisner Stadium.

Saginaw Pins 29-20 Setback on PCH Chiefs

The visiting Trojans of Saginaw ran up a 29-0 lead and then held on last night to defeat the Chiefs of Pontiac Central at Wisner Stadium, 29-20.

Calvin Hirsch scored twice and quarterback Perry Humphrey added the other PCH score in that sizzling fourth quarter but it came too late.

REACH SCOREBOARD

Humphrey put the Chiefs on the scoreboard with an 18-yard pitch to Hirsch, and Humphrey picked up the second tally moments later on an 11-yard un.

★ ★ ★

Don Russell picked up a Trojan fumble and ran it back to the Saginaw 15 to set up the final PCH score.

GOES OVER

A penalty moved the ball to the Saginaw seven and three plays later Hirsch bulled his way for the final yard.

★ ★ ★

That score came with just 2:00 left in the game and the Trojans took the ensuing kickoff and ran out the time.

SPURS TROJANS

Halfback Tom Slade was the big gun for the Trojans with two touchdowns and a 45-yard field goal.

★ ★ ★

Slade scored on runs of 9 and 4 yards and booted his long field goal in the second quarter.

Jim Nelson rambled one yard and Dan Evans scored on a six-yard dash as Saginaw opened up a 23-0 lead at intermission.

FIFTH LOSS

The loss was the fifth of the season for the Chiefs, while Saginaw is now 3-2-1.

★ ★ ★

In the showdown at Bay City Central, the host Wolves, ranked first in the state Class A poll, turned back No. 3 ranked Midland, 14-6, to assure themselves of at least another week in the top spot.

In other games last night in the Saginaw Valley Conference, Flint Central downed Flint Southwestern, 24-14, Bay City Handy whipped Flint Northern, 20-8, and Flint Northwestern went on a scoring rampage with a 66-20 verdict over Saginaw Arthur Hill.

Skippers End Slump

Whetstone Sharpens WTHS

By DON VOGEL

Waterford's Craig Whetstone spent a considerable amount of time in Farmington's backfield last night . . . on offense and defense.

The 190-pound senior scored three touchdowns and then made several key second half tackles as the Skippers held off Farmington, 19-8, in an Inter-Lakes League football game.

★ ★ ★

The victory snapped a four-game losing streak and enabled the Skippers to pull even with Farmington and Walled Lake Central in the I-L. All have 1-3 loop records. WTHS is 2-4 overall and Farmington 1-5.

Whetstone ran up the middle from the 15 for a first quarter touchdown and then scored twice in the last three minutes of the second quarter from the seven and four-yard lines. A pass interception and fumble recovery set up two of the touchdowns and a combination short punt and personal foul penalty against the Falcons put the Skippers in position for the other.

SHORT-LIVED JOY

Waterford's defense dominated Farmington in the first half and the 2,000 Waterford homecoming fans sat back to enjoy the final two quarters in the comfort of a 19-0 lead.

★ ★ ★

But third-string quarterback Dan Steimke and the Falcons had other ideas. They drove inside the waterford 15 three times but were thwarted twice when Whetstone threw the ball carrier for losses and stopped a third time by a pass interception.

★ ★ ★

The Falcons' only touchdown was a six-yard run by John Welling on the first play after Randy Rence blocked a Waterford punt with 4:30 left in the game.

Whetstone led the balanced Skipper running attack with 54 yards in nine tries. Don LaBlance posted 52 in 13 carries and Mike Shaw added 44 in 10 attempts. Welling was the workhorse for Farmington, lugging the ball 18 times for 51 yards.

POSITION SWITCH

Whetstone moved from fullback to defensive end and continually applied pressure to Farmington's passers. The falcons drove to the WTHS 10 in the third period, but Whetstone made a tackle for a two-yard loss. Farmington finally reached fourth and four only to have Whetstone drop Welling for a four-yard loss.

Farmington moved to the 13 early in the fourth period, but lost yardage on two straight plays with Whetstone making the tackles.

★ ★ ★

Guard Jim Main picked off a Farmington pass in the first quarter and returned 27 yards to the Falcon 33 to start the Skippers to their first TD. A 22-yard punt followed by the Farmington penalty and a 12-yard carry by LaBlanc paved the way for touchdown No. 2.

★ ★ ★

A minute later Shaw pounced on a Farmington fumble on the Falcon 46 and quarterback Carl Whetstone, a junior and Craig's brother, hit end Pat Jones with a 34-yard pass and the Skippers were on their way to another score.

Stevenson Nears Grid Title in I-L

The Spartans of Livonia Stevenson assured themselves of no worse than a tie for the championship in the Inter-Lakes League last night by blanking Southfield Lathrup.

The win gave the Spartans a 4-0 mark in I-L play with just one game to go — Farmington (1-5) — so they are almost certain to retain their title.

Quarterback Rusty Gregg scored on runs of seven and one yards in the first half as Stevenson built a 12-0 lead, and halfback Gene Walker put the lid on the scoring in the fourth stanza with a four-yard run. Walker also ran the two-point convesion.

Northern Halts W. Lake Central

An embarrassing losing streak has come to an end for the Huskies of Pontiac Northern.

Backed by a bone-jarring defense, the Huskies wiped away 10 years of frustration last night by slamming the door on Walled Lake Central, 39-0.

It marked Northern's first victory over the Vikings in 11 seasons, and it was a particularly sweet win for coach Dave Schmidt who was the loser the previous five times the two tangled.

★ ★ ★

"Yes, it felt good beating them," said Schmidt, "even though they aren't as strong as usual."

TALENT THIN

In the formation of a new high school in Walled Lake this fall — Western — the talent was divided between the two schools, and for Central, long a dominant figure in the football wars, it resulted in less talent than usual.

Schmidt lauded the defense of the Huskies. "I can't single out any one individual. It was a real team effort. They were just fantastic . . . there's no ifs, ands or buts about it."

Over-all, the Huskies held the Vikings to a total offense of 119 yards, while running up 246 of their own.

ENDS QUICKLY

And the score could have been worse. The Huskies, now 4-2 and 3-1 in Inter-Lakes competition, scored all of their points in the first half and Schmidt turned to the reserves in the second half.

The loss left Central with a 1-3 mark in I-L play and a 1-5 record over-all.

SPARKS OUTBURST

Al Nance sparked a 26-point first quarter for the Huskies by diving in from the four-yard line and running across from the seven.

Jack Dunn tallied on a five-yard run, Doug Talbott sneaked across from the one, Roger Holland picked up a fumble and raced 30 yards for a score, and Talbott ended the scoring late in the second with a 50-yard pass to Bruce Bennett.

Corsairs Flying High in Easy 31-0 Pasting of L. Churchill

The Corsairs of Waterford Mott checked in with their finest offensive performance of the season last night as they pinned a 31-0 setback on Livonia Churchill.

★ ★ ★

It was the highest output of the season for the Corsairs and the triumph evened their record at 3-3.

Pontiac Press Photo

TOP SKIPPER — Fullback Craig Whetstone scored all three of Waterford's touchdowns in a 19-8 victory over Farmington last night. Playing end on defense, he spent considerable time in Farmington's backfield and made several key tackles.

After building a 24-0 lead at intermission, the Corsairs coasted the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

Halfback Charles Dohner started the ball rolling in the first with a two-yard run and Randy Cooper took a pass from Jerry McNair for the two-point conversion.

TALLIES TWICE

Terry Ruffatto collected the next two Corsair scores. He zipped in one a one-yard run and went over from the five for his second tally. McNair ran for one two-point conversion and flipped a pass to Dohner for another.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Bill Ziem teamed with flanker Bob Poe on a 30-yard pass-and-run play for the final Corsair six-pointer in the fourth frame. McNair booted the final point.

ON TARGET

Ziem was on target with his passes, hitting on 9 of 10 for 139 yards.

★ ★ ★

And the Corsairs found another runner in fullback Don Bradford. The junior speedster carried the ball 14 times for 100 yards.

Bay City Central 11 Wins Valley Contest

MIDLAND (AP) — Bay City Central, top-ranked in Class A in the Associated Press poll, rolled on Friday by defeating Midland 14-6.

★ ★ ★

All scoring in the game came in the second period. Bay City opened the scoring with a 54-yard pass from Charles Rogers to Ray Smith in the end zone. Midland evened the score with a six-yard pass, but Bay City went ahead to stay on a 38-yarder from Rogers to Jerry Sisson.

Field Goal Spurs Lakers; Clarkston Falters, 31-10

By FLETCHER SPEARS

Senior Scott Wasmuth has proven he can earn his keep with the West Bloomfield football team.

A transfer from New Jersey, Washmuth moved onto the field for his first play of the season last night with just 1:03 left in the game and booted a 25-yard field goal to give the West Bloomfield Lakers a come-from-behind 17-14 victory over a fired-up Waterford Kettering squad.

'FIRST TIME'

"First time he ever played football," beamed Laker coach Art Paddy. "He played some soccer out east but this was his first play in football."

★ ★ ★

The triumph boosted the Lakers to 5-0 (5-1 over-all) in the Wayne-Oakland League and enabled them to remain atop the loop along with Bloomfield Hills Andover, a 54-0 winner over Brighton.

CLARKSTON FALLS

In other league games, Clarenceville and Milford played to a 14-14 standoff, while Northville pinned a 31-10 setback on Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

"That's the first field goal any team of mine has ever kicked," said Paddy who is in his 24th year of coaching. "I'm proud of them for the way they came back."

CAPTAINS LEAD

The outlook for the Lakers was less than rosy after the Captains, buoyed by the Homecoming crowd, pushed across a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter to take a 14-8 lead at intermission.

★ ★ ★

And the Captains did it convincingly. Fullback Bob Gratz, the Captains' power runner, took a pitchout from quarterback Paul Curry and scooted 15 yards around the left side for the initial Kettering score. Gratz also ran the two-point conversion.

PUNT BLOCKED

Moments later, after a blocked Laker punt, Curry, on a first-down play from the West Bloomfield 21-yard marker, tucked the ball under his arm and outraced the Laker defenders on the right side for the lead score.

KNOTS SCORE

Bullock knotted the score at 14 late in the third when he dashed through a hole on the right side of the Kettering defense and sped 65 yards for six points.

★ ★ ★

The Lakers launched that winning drive from their own 22 with just 4:59 left in the game. John Sopko had runs of 13 and 11 yards in the drive and end Jim Hull pulled in passes of 7 and 16 yards.

But that 11-yard run on third down by Sopko set up the field goal. From the 20, Bullock gave Sopko the ball and he zipped up the middle. The Lakers called time out with the situation fourth-and-seven at the Ket. tering nine. Enter center Kim Dehne, also a parttime player, and Washmuth. Dehune snapped the ball, bullock placed it at the 15 and Wasmuth's soccer-style boot was low but high enough to clear the crossbar.

TIE RECORD

Andover's Barons tied the school shutout mark — five in a season — with the blanking of Brighton. The Barons were up 24-0 at intermission and broke it open with 22 markers in the third.

★ ★ ★

Halfback Bob Reid, who collected 149 yards on nine trips with the ball, scored on runs of 68, 25 and 7 yards, while Chuck Palaian, back in action after recovering from a leg injury, picked up two six-pointers on runs of 6 and 1 yards. Defensively, the Barons held Brighton to a minus 30 yards rushing.

CATCHES TD TOSSES

Terry Mills hauled in touchdowns passes of 24 and 28 yards from Bob Adams and added a third score on a one-yard run to spark Northville past Clarkston.

★ ★ ★

Dan Hallman caught an eight-yard pass from Kurt Richardson for Clarkston's lone touchdown and the Wolves picked up two more points on a safety.

Milford spotted Clarenceville two quick scores and then came back with a pair in the second quarter to force a deadlock.

Rob Weller's 24-yard run and Bib Ridling's 18-yard scamper, along with Weller's two-point conversion, sent Clarenceville into a 14-0 lead, but Milford came back with Matt Partridge collected all 14 points in the second quarter.

He rompled over on a six-yard run for the first tally and hauled in a 10-yard pass from Mike Monnier for the second and then ran the two-point conversion.

Orion Blanks Avondale; Romeo Surprises Oxford

Utica upped its winning streak to six and remained atop the North Division of the Oakland A league by romping past Rochester Adams 54-6.

Lake Orion, a game behind Utica, shut out Avondale, 22-0, while Romeo handed Oxford its third league loss last night, 30-6.

SETS RECORD

Utica's Rich Redd contributed four touchdowns to his team's winning effort while establishing a school scoring record in the process.

★ ★ ★

Redd now has a total of 90 points in six games, four more than the 86 scored by Tom Orlowsky during the Chief's 1965 grid season.

A bad snap from center set up Utica's first scoring effort early in the first period. The Chieftains recovered the loose ball on the Adams nine and Redd carried two plays later for the score.

FUMBLE HELPS

Redd's second tally came after Adams had fumbled the ball on its own 44. Utica recovered and drove the remaining yardage in eight plays.

★ ★ ★

Redd added one more tally before the half ended on a two-yard dash and made his final contribution in the third period on a nine-yard scamper.

ENTER PICTURE

Bruce Harms, Gary Baginski, Rich Hall and Dave Scott scored Utica's other touchdowns on runs of 22, 22, 44 and 7 yards, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Mike Pellerito scored Adams lone tally midway through the final stanza after Bill Summerfelt had intercepted a Utica pass on the Highlanders' 46-yard line.

BLASTS OVER

Six plays later Pellerito blasted his way through the line from the three, preventing the Highlanders from absorbing their first shutout in six starts.

★ ★ ★

Lake Orion fought a hard battle against Avondale scoring just once in the first half, and then once in each of the final two periods.

RAMBLES WITH FUMBLE

Jerry Hollens scored Lake Orions first touchdown when he scooped up Bob Mutter's fumble, following a successful pass from Randy Cornell, and scampered 31 yards untouched into the end zone.

★ ★ ★

Shortly after the beginning of the second half Ron Schaller picked up the Dragons second touchdown on a one yard plunge.

CLOSES SCORING

Hollens put the capper on the Dragons scoring for the evening when he bolted through left tackle with 8:57 left in the game, and dashed 24 yards to the end zone.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Ed Kubilis connected on two conversion passes to Gary Roberts and Tom Perry for the winners.

SECOND WIN

Quarterback Pete Sweeney had a hand in all but one of Romeo's touchdowns as the Bulldogs recorded their second league victory in five stars.

★ ★ ★

Sweeney connected on a three yard pass play to Marvin Craft for one touchdown and scored two others on runs of four and six yards while teammate Fred Lebding scored the other and three two point conversion runs.

The Bulldogs spotted Oxford an early 6-0 lead in the first period when Wildcats quarterback Bill Biebuyzek climaxed a 70 yard drive with a one yard plunge up the middle.

★ ★ ★

The Bulldogs bounced back however, and scored once in each period although Sweeney did get dumped by a blitzing Wildcat defensive line late in the final period for a safety.

The Bulldogs dominated the rushing starts with a combined rushing-passing yardage of 254 yards, while limiting hapless Oxford to only 135 total.

ONE MORE YARD TO GO — Lahser's Bernie McPheely (43) has two Troy defenders hanging on his back but still managed to bull his way one more yard across the goal line for the Knights first touchdown. Troy eventually fell to the Knights, 30-18.

CORRALLED — Halfback Dan Pillow of Kettering gets a lot of attention from this West Bloomfield defensive threesome on a running play last night. Making the stop on Pillow are Ron Thorin (95) and Bill Bullock (15) with help from an unidentified teammate (background).

Lahser Rolls to 30-18 Win

Bloomfield Hills Lahser, once again behind the explosive running of halfback Mike Atkins, maintained its share of the lead in the South Division of the Oakland A league by storming past Troy, 30-18.

Co-leader Clawson kept pace with the Knights 4-1 league record by whipping Lamphere 20-3 while Madison dropped Rochester to last place by defeating the Falcons, 12-6.

Atkins, who scored three of his team's four touchdowns, accounted for 209 of the Knights 344 total offensive yardage against the Colts.

Bernie McPheely kicked off the scoring midway through the first period when he shot through right guard from six yards out for the touchdown.

Tom Kretschmer's run for the conversion, his first of three for the afternoon, was good giving Lahser a 8-0 lead.

Atkins picked up his first touchdown early in the second period when he scampered around right end, with a key block by Tom Kretschmer, 53 yards to paydirt.

Atkins second touchdown outshone his first when he dashed 72 yards in a spectacular run the first play from scrimmage following the second half kickoff for the tally.

Lahser's final tally came on a 13 yarder by Atkins late in the final period to put the game away for the Knights.

Terry Killing and Rick Stewart scored the losers' touchdowns on runs of two and one yards, each.

Pete Trail set up Clawson's first touchdown when he shot through the Lamphere line and galloped to the Rams one yard line before he was dropped.

Joe Heppner plunged over on the next play to give the Trojans a 6-0 lead which was cut to three when Lamphere managed a field goal before the half ended.

After a scoreless third period, Clawson came alive and scored twice in the final period with Hans Peterson doing the honors each time.

Peterson capped two Trojan drives, 66 and 58 yards, with dives of two and three yards each while Randy Stone caught one conversion pass for Clawson.

A stiff Madison defensive unit combined with untimely Rochester penalties gave the Eagles their second league victory.

Twice in the final period Rochester drove to within the Madison 10 yard line only to have its scoring drives thwarted due to penalties.

Defensive backs Kenny King and Johnny Angelo also contributed to stopping Rochester's last ditch drives by intercepting key passes in the fourth quarter.

Jeff Miller scored each of Madison's touchdowns, once in the first period on a one yard run and late in the second on a 19 yard dash up the middle.

Steve Blair scored Rochester's only touchdown in the second period on a 38 yard pass play.

Ferndale Wins Kimball Nearing Title in SEMA

The Knights of Royal Oak Kimball are just a step away from the championship in the Southeastern Michigan Association.

The Knights waltzed past Berkley last night, 40-6, to clinch at least a tie for the crown, and a win over Southfield next week will sew it up.

SEAHOLM LOSES

While Kimball, second ranked among the state's class A teams, was having a ball, Ferndale, last year's SEMA champion, was disposing of Southfield, 28-14, and Hazel Park was doing in Birmingham Seaholm, 26-16.

★ ★ ★

The nod over Berkley raised Kimball's record in league play to 4-0 and 6-0 over-all.

Halfbacks Rick Campbell and Rick Knox set the offensive pace for Kimball.

★ ★ ★

Campbell scored twice on runs of 14 and 11 yards and he led the ball-toters with 91 yards in 13 trips with the ball.

TALLIES TRIO

Knox checked in with three six-pointers on runs of 1, 11 and 16 yards, while the other Kimball touchdown came on a 45-yard pass from quarterback Jim Cole to All-State candidate Tom Brown.

★ ★ ★

For the evening, the Knights piled up 231 yards on the ground and Cole hit on two of five tosses for 51 yards.

Ferndale, a 6-0 loser to Kimball last week, rebounded with a hard-fought decision over fired-up Southfield.

LATE SCORES

The Eagles, now 5-1, shoved across a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns to sew up the decision.

Chuck Petrilla's 85-yard kickoff return at the onset of the game put Southfield ahead 8-0 after Doug Digue added the conversion. Ferndale came back to close the gap at 8-6 on a two-yard run by Craig Fahoome.

TAKE LEAD

The Eagles led for the first time in the third when Peter Pelloski raced over from eight yards out and Bill Screws ran the conversion. Southfield knotted it at 14 when Petrilla hauled in a five-yard pass from Dave Hoffman.

That set the stage for Ferndale in the fourth. Pelloski tallied the go-ahead six-pointer on a six-yard run and John Ownes capped the scoring with a two-yard jaunt.

Makes Coaching Debut Cousy Glows in Victory

Bob Cousy got the big one he wanted.

Cousy, former star of the Boston Celtics, returned to the scene of his Celtic glory days in Boston Garden as coach of the Cincinnati Royals Friday night and glowed as his players whipped the Celtics 110-108.

"I really wanted this one, it was a big one," Causy said after the Royals had wiped out a 12-point deficit in the last quarter to beat the defending champions of the National Basketball Association.

Philadelphia downed the Los Angeles Lakers 131-126 and the New York Knicks made it three in a row by whipping Chicago 116-87 in the other NBA games.

The rival American Basketball Association opened its season with Indiana beating Miami 126-116, Dallas tripping New Orleans 117-109 and the Los Angeles Stars taking the New York Nets 109-95.

Boston led Cincinnati 89-77 before the Royals caught fire to hand the Celtics their first opening-game loss in 11 years.

Big Bill Russell was not in the Celtic lineup for the first time in 13 years. He rtired as player-coach after last season after leading the Celtics to 11 NBA titles in that span.

Veteran Oscar Robertson, with 25 points, paced the Royals. Larry Siegfried was high for the Celtics with 22.

Hal Greer threw in 40 points to lead the 76ers over Los Angeles. Jerry West got 39 and Wilt Chamberlain 35 for the Lakers, the defending champs in the NBA West.

Walt Frazier, with 20 points, was high for the Knicks as they routed Chicago. Chet Walker had 27 for the Bulls.

Sand Creek Drubs Novi

Novi's Wildcats took it on the chin (1-4) for the fourth time last night as they dropped a 46-20 decision to Sand Creek.

Tom Boyer scored twice for the Wildcats and John Davey added the other tally.

Paul Bailey scored three times for Sand Creek and passed for two other six-pointers.

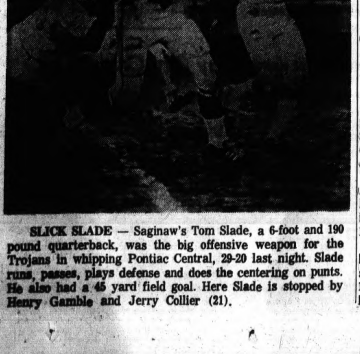
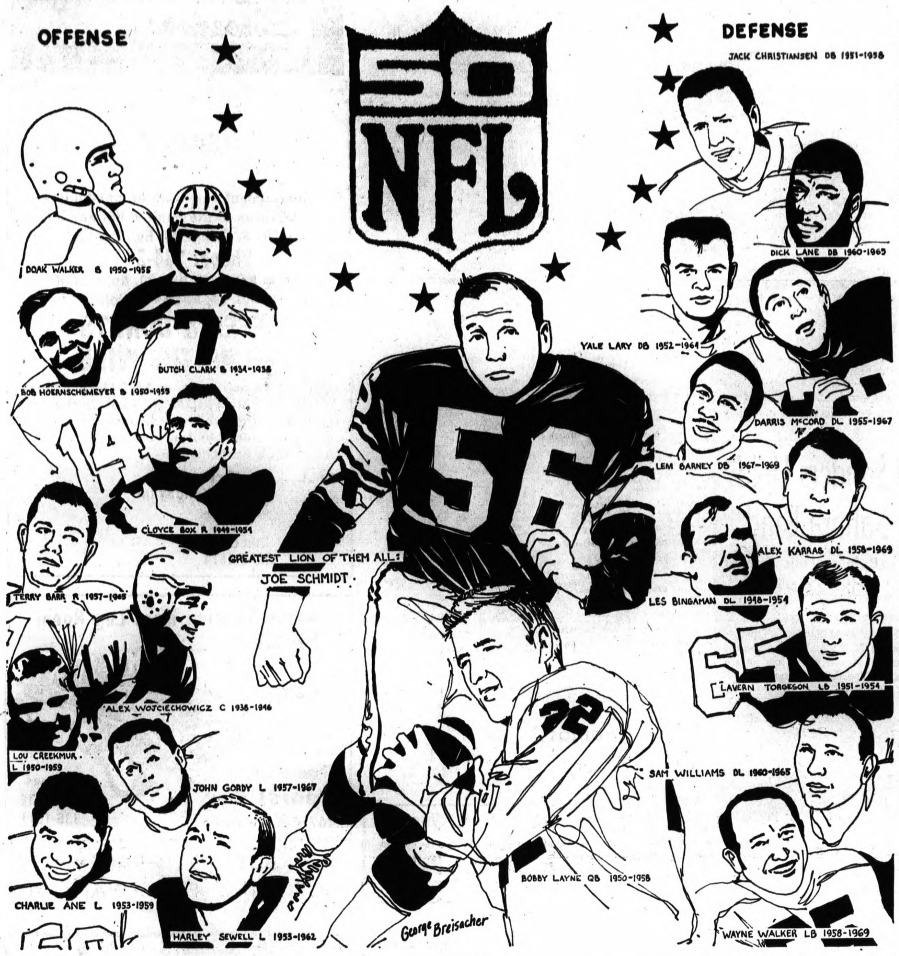
Ex-Star Recuperates

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Former Alabama football star Millard F. "Dixie" Howell said Friday he is "getting along as well as might be expected" following removal of a malignant stomach tumor Oct. 2.



SLICK SLADE — Saginaw's Tom Slade, a 6-foot and 190 pound quarterback, was the big offensive weapon for the Trojans in whipping Pontiac Central, 29-20 last night. Slade runs, passes, plays defense and does the centering on punts. He also had a 45 yard field goal. Here Slade is stopped by Henry Gamble and Jerry Collier (21).

The All-Time Lions



Schmidt Tops Vote as Greatest Lion

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

A parallel to the adage "never judge a book by its cover," would be the pro football story of Joe Schmidt.

When Schmidt entered Detroit Lions' camp as a rookie in 1953 it was picture day at Ypsilanti and not a single photo was taken of the relatively small blonde just graduated from the University of Pittsburgh.

No one knew or cared who No. 56 was. At 220 pounds he was too small to even look like a pro football player. Yet he was the 7th draft choice of the Lions.

Today, jersey No. 56 has "unofficially" been retired and in the recent voting of the fans for picking the ALL Time Lions' team, Schmidt was chosen as the "Greatest Lion Ever."

From that great decade of the 1950's come the majority of the players picked by the fans to the All-Time Lions' team.

Bobby Layne, who helped the Lions to four divisional and three NFL championships ran away with the voting at quarterback and was runnerup to Schmidt in the "Greatest Ever" balloting.

Among the other players on the teams from 1950 to 1960 who won berth on the All-Time teams were receivers Cloyce Box (1949-54) and Terry Barr (1957-65); offensive guards John Gordy (1957-67) and Harley Sewell (1953-62); offensive tackles Lou Creekmur (1950-59) and Charley Ane (1953-59) and running backs Doak Walker (1950-55) and Bob Hoernschmeyer, (1950-55).

On the defensive unit, the stars of the '50's include defensive ends Darris McCord (1955-67) and Sam Williams (1960-65); defensive tackles Alex Karras (1958-69) and Les Bingaman (1948-54); linebackers Schmidt (1953-65), Wayne Walker (1958-69) and LaVern Torgeson (1951-54); secondary backs Jack Christiansen (1951-58) and Yale Lary (1952-64).

Three current players Karras, Walker and Lem Barney made the breakthrough on the team and ironically Barney pushed out his current defensive backfield coach Jimmy David, who he led the early balloting.

Dick "Night Train" Lane, who came to the Lions in 1960 after a great career with the St. Louis Cardinals, was recently named to the all-NFL secondary of the 50th Anniversary team, and was also among the four defensive backs picked by Lions' fans.

Oldest All-Time Lion picked was Earl "Dutch" Clark who as a halfback called the signals and guided the Lions to the 1935 championship.

Clark, along with Alex Wojciechowicz (1938-46) who was the top vote getter at center, are among the Lions in the MFL Hall of Fame.

A close for the running back spot behind Doak Walker and Clark developed between Bob Hoernschmeyer and Bullet Bill Dudley and apparently the fans r e membered Hoernschmeyer from the championship years and gave him the edge over Dudley, who is a Lions' Hall of Famer.

For Schmidt, the honor as the "Greatest Lion Ever" came as somewhat of a surprise.

"I'm certainly honored by the voting of the fans," said Schmidt, "there and others who deserve the honor."

Schmidt's pro career started fast and when they talk about middle linebackers in pro football, Schmidt would almost have to be called the inventor of the position.

After just two games of the exhibition season in 1953, when linebacker Dick Flanagan was injured, Schmidt received the starting assignment and never relinquished it until his retirement in 1965.

He was recently picked as one of the three all-Time NFL linebackers, finishing just a shade behind Ray Nitschke as No. 1, a vote which iLons' fans could say was a distortion of justice.

Schmidt was picked to the all-pro team nine times, more than any Lion player in history, and four times he was selected as the team's most valuable player.

The Lions became the most vaunted defensive unit in pro football under captain Joe Schmidt winning the divisional titles in 1953-54 and 1957 and the NFL crown in 1953-57. The Lions also won in 1952.

In the 17-16 victory over the Browns in 1953 when Schmidt knocked the ball out of Otto Graham's hand leading to the first Lions' touchdown.

Two serious shoulder injuries helped bring his playing career to a close in 1965 after which he became an assistant coach, and now the head coach of the Lions.

This is the balloting for the All-Time Lions' team:

Voter Earns 2 Lions' Tickets

C. W. Williams of Pine Street, Birmingham, received a couple tickets to tomorrow's Lions - Bears game as a guest of the sports department.

Williams' ballot was picked at random from the many voters who participated in picking the All-Time Lions' team.

The voting was held in conjunction with the 50th anniversary of the NFL, and the Bears are the oldest rival on the Lions' schedule.

N. Farmington Rolls; Groves Springs Upset

Powerful North Farmington, rebounding after a 20-18 loss to Detroit Thurston last week, flexed its muscles yesterday at Oak Park in extracting a 30-0 triumph.

The victory gave the Raiders a 3-1 record in the Northwest Suburban League, leaving them a half game behind pacesetting Thurston and Franklin (both 3-0) who collide today.

STREAK ENDS

Elsewhere, Groves ended a 13-game losing streak with a 25-22 upset decision over Westland John Glenn. The Falcons had dropped eight straight heading into this season and they were saddled with five more until last night.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Steve White hit on 16 of 20 passes for 297 yards and he scored once in leading the North Farmington attack.

SCORES TWICE

Halfback Bob Hughes, picking up 105 yards on just 10 carries, tallied twice on two-yard runs, while Dave McCoy hauled in a seven-yard pass from White for the other score.

★ ★ ★

Quarterback Tom Rex scored twice on short runs and passed for two more touchdowns as Groves broke into the winning column.

TWO STRIKES

Along with his scoring jaunts, Rex hit Mike McLean with a 28-yard scoring pitch and tossed a 35-yarder to Scott Chenet.

★ ★ ★

Groves was ahead at halftime, 13-6, and raised the count to 19-6, before Glenn (3-3) stormed back to close the gap with a touchdown and a safety.

Over-all, the Falcons wound up with an offense — rushing and passing — of 466 yards.

First Loss for Western

A well-oiled Lincoln Park offense piled up 377 yards rushing last night in handing Walled Lake Western a 48-20 setback.

It was the first loss in six outings for coach Leo Folsom and the new Western Warriors.

LEAD FADES

Dennis Morenz' two touchdowns and Paul Christian's two-point conversion run boosted the Warriors into an early 14-13 lead, but the host Parkers pushed across a pair of six-pointers in the second frame to open up a 27-14 lead at intermission.

Jose Napoles Gets Decision

Mexican Holds Welter Boxing Crown

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jose "Mantequilla" Napoles of Mexico City is still the welterweight champion of the world today, but Emile Griffith of New York, turned back in his bid to win the crown for the fourth time, is far from through as a ring attraction.

★ ★ ★

The 29-year-old Napoles succeeded in his second defense of the 147-pound division title by a unanimous 15-round decision over the remarkable challenger.

Promoter George Parnessus' show attracted 15,461 to the fashionable Forum in suburban Inglewood, with gate receipts of $194,315.

★ ★ ★

Napoles decked the seldom-floored Griffith in the third round with a right that is a combination uppercut and bolo punch. Griffth was up quickly but Napoles, holding off a follow-up rally, retained command of the battle until the end.

Napoles weighed 144¾, Griffith 144½.

FOLS, 5-0, vs. St. James, 5-0

Parochials Collide in Showdown Tilt

The decision on who wears the 1969 Northwest Catholic League football crown comes Sunday with a collision between the two pacesetters.

Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows (5-0) and Ferndale St. James (5-0) collide on the FOLS field at 2:30 with the winner virtually assured of the Northwest championship. Both have what would be regarded as a breather in the league finale a week hence.

LAKERS HOME

While that clash is in progress, the Lakers of Waterford Our Lady of Lakes (3-2) will be hoping to get the Lakers back in high gear against the visiting Mustangs.

SETTING PACE

Setting the pace for the Lakers in the scoring column this season have been Mike Webster, with 48 points, and Jim Tracey, with 42.

★ ★ ★

St. Lawrence won its opener trying to provide a happy homecoming for WOLL graduates in a game against Utica St. Lawrence.

The WOLL contest is slated for 2:30 on the Waterford Township field.

OTHER GAMES

Two other Northwest games are on tap tonight with St. Florian at St. Rita and Orchard Lake St. Mary at Royal Oak St. Mary.

★ ★ ★

Other important Saturday games find De La Salle at Brother Rice, while Cranbrook was at University School in Cleveland for a morning game.

Livonia Franklin was at Detroit Thurston for an afternoon game today, while Royal Oak Shrine was playing host to Divine Child this evening.

★ ★ ★

WOLL's Lakers have lost to both Farmington OLS (16-6) and St. James (28-6) on successive weekends, but they broke out of that rut last week with a 14-8 decision over improved Orchard Lake St. Mary.

Coach Joe Sharpe will be over St. Florian, but has since dropped four straight.

The Eaglets of Orchard Lake St. Mary (2-3) have lost their last two games to FOLS (8-0) and WOLL (14-8) and they'll be facing a high-scoring team in RO St. Mary.

ROSM has a 3-2 record, the losses coming at the hands of FOLS (16-8) and St. James (40-0).

Cranbrook, one of the state's better Class B clubs, is 3-1, losing to Mount Pleasant 8-6.

The Warriors of Brother Rice are 4-1 — the loss a 14-0 demise at the hands of Catholic Central—and the team owns one of the area's most explosive runners in Steve Jones, a fleet 160-pounder who has nine touchdowns.

Dondero Evens Record at 3-3 With 22-0 Win

Joe Krakker scored a pair of touchdowns on short runs in the second half last night to lead Royal Oak Dondero (3-3) to a 22-0 victory over Wyandotte.

★ ★ ★

John Fratt had given the Oaks a 6-0 lead with a 42-yard dash in the second period, and Krakker came back with runs of 2 and 1 yards in the third and fourth periods. John Adamski ran both two-point conversions.

The win left Dondero with a 3-1 record in the Border-Cities League and a share of first along with Grosse Pointe and Monroe.

Highland Sets Harrier Standard

John Nadoni of Highland Lakes set a home course record in cross country yesterday in leading Highland Lakes Community College to 15-44 victory over Schoolcraft Community College.

★ ★ ★

With a clocking of 21:22 Nadoni led four teammates in grabbing the top five spots. Julin Gloomis was second followed by Ron Beegle, Scott VanNorwick and Randy Lyons.

Wayne State University began cross-country in 1949 and has posted a 156-105 record in dual meets in 37 years of competition.

Titans Win, 7-6

Defense Saves Day for Pontiac Catholic

The defensive unit saved the day for the Pontiac Catholic Titans who returned home last night with a 7-6 triumph over Gabriel Richard.

The victory was only the second of the season for the Titans who have lost three and tied one.

TALLIES IN SECOND

After Richard went ahead 6-0 in the first quarter, Pontiac Catholic won it with a touchdown and a PAT kick in the second frame.

★ ★ ★

The Titans, who had trouble moving the ball, got a break in the second when Richard bobbled the ball and PC recovered on the losers' five-yard stripe.

BIG PLAY

On the first play, halfback Mike Albreck bulled his way over for the six points and Joe Guillean picked up the seventh point with his boot.

Albreck was the workhorse for the Titans. He lugged the ball 21 times for 72 of the club's 93 yards.

★ ★ ★

Defensively, Kellie Dean, Gerard Holland and David Boyer spearheaded the attack and that trio came up with nine solo tackles each.

Hodges Picked Top Manager

NEW YORK (AP) — Gil Hodges, the soft-spoken miracle worker who molded the New York Mets into baseball's greatest success story, has been selected the National League Manager of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll.

The 45-year-old former Dodger great captured the honor Friday by one of the greatest margins ever when he polled 267 votes to only 10 for second-place Luman Harris of the Atlanta Braves.

Although the amazing Mets completed their fairy tale rise from bungling bumpkins to baseball's best Thursday by winning the World Series, Hodges carried the day on the strength of their stunning stretch run to the National League pennant. The balloting among sportswriters and broadcasters throughout the country was taken before the Series began.

OTHER VOTES

The only other managers to receive votes were Clyde King of San Francisco and Leo Durocher of the Chicago Cubs with three each and Harry Walker of Houston with one.

When Hodges took over the Mets, before the 1968 season, they were nothing but a bunch of ragamuffins who lost 101 games the year before and had finished last five times and ninth the other time in their six years of existence.

* * *

He took them to ninth place and 73 victories, their best record, in 1968 and then surpassed even his own goal of 85 victories in 1969, winning 100 games and the Eastern Division title by overcoming a 9½-game Chicago lead in the final two months to win by eight games.

Then came a three-game sweep of the Braves in the playoffs for the pennant, and finally they to wiped out the favored Baltimore Orioles in five games in the Series.

But as amazing as was the Mets' rise from defeat to victory, Hodges' own recovery from a heart attack suffered toward the end of last season was just as amazing.

Hodges was stricken Sept. 24 during a series in Atlanta and was hospitalized there until Oct. 20. He spent the entire winter recuperating before doctors told him he could resume managing in 1969.

Sanders Holds Sahara Lead

Palmer Falls Behind With 144 Total

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Flashy Doug Sanders slipped to a par 71 Friday but retained the early second round lead in the $100,000 Sahara Invitational golf tournament.

Sanders, 36 and suffering his most frustrating season on the pro tour, had a 36-hole total of 136, six under par for two trips over the 6,751 yard, par 71 Sahara-Nevada Country Club course.

Jack Nicklaus and defending champion Chi Chi Rodriguez barged into contention, each with a 68 for 137, just one stroke behind the first round leader. They were tied with Terry Dill, 66, and Steve Spray, 70, also at 137.

Arnold Palmer made the cut with a 69-75-144.

Local pro Bill Panasiuk did not make the cut by one stroke as he fired 73-74-146.

Ted Lindsay in Line Says Toronto Paper

TORONTO (AP) — The Toronto Globe and Mail says Ted Lindsay may succeed Bill Gadsby as coach of the National Hockey League's Detroit Red Wings.

The newspaper quotes a source close to the Detroit hockey club as saying Lindsay, a former left-winger with the Wings, is favored for the job by club President Bruce Norris.

Lindsay was a member of Detroit's famous Production Line with Gordie Howe and Sid Abel who now is manager of the Red Wings and acting coach after Gadsby was fired Thursday night.

Lindsay was dismissed from the Red Wings for his involvement in the NHL Players' Association. He went to Chicago Black Hawks, later retired, then came out of retirement to rejoin the Red Wings. He again retired from the Detroit club two years ago.

Barney May Miss Contest With Bears

All-Pro cornerback Lem Barney has a charlie horse that will likely prevent him from playing for Detroit Sunday when the Lions host the winless Chicago Bears the club said Friday.

The injury in Barney's upper left thigh will likely put Bobby Williams, obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals last season, into his first game for Detroit at that position.

End Bill Malinchak will handle the punting if the injury prevents Barney from that.

Armada Romps to First Victory

Armada stepped out of Southern Thumb competition last night to record its first victory of the season, a 30-6 nod over Harper Woods.

* * *

Don Chilcotte scored three six-pointers on passes of 15, 12 and 13 yards, while Joe Blake picked up the other on a seven-yard run. Blake collected 102 yards on the grounds. Chilcotte hauled in passes good for 188 yards.

At Wisner Sunday

Midget Gridders Play

The younger set gets its chance on the football field Sunday afternoon when the local midget grid program puts the wraps on the '69 season.

There are 15 games on tap starting at 1 p.m. and running through 6 p.m.

Two games will be in progress at the same time on the Wisner field. All games will consist of two, 12-minute periods.

Starting the day of activity will be 1 p.m. games between Bagley-Mark Twain and Wisner-Forst.

The midget program is sponsored by the Pontiac Parks and Recreation Department along with the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce. Admission of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children will be charged with proceeds going to the Jaycees for youth work in the city.

'SLAVING' FOR RETREAT — Members of the Waterford Trinity United Methodist Youth Fellowship held a "slave day" recently to raise money for the group's retreat at Franklin Settlement Camp, Lake Orion, this weekend. The junior high youths were hired out to baby-sit, clean garages, wash cars, etc. Window-washing slaves are Linda Hosler, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Hosler, of 3520 Waringham, Waterford Township, and Bill Banks, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Banks, 3629 Percy King, Waterford Township.

Plans Made for UNICEF Trick or Treat

The Pontiac Ad Hoc Committee on UNICEF will again conduct their annual Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF collection Halloween evening, Oct. 31.

★ ★ ★

Money collected by area young people will be sent to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund to be used for food, clothing and medical care for children throughout the world who suffer from war and natural disasters.

★ ★ ★

The Ad Hoc Committee is inviting all area churches and synagogues to participate on a cooperative and community-wide basis. The hours suggested for collection are 4 - 7 p.m.

★ ★ ★

A dance will be held for participants from 7 to 10 p.m. at Central United Methodist Church, 3882 Highland, Waterford Township. Music will be provided by the Syrup.

★ ★ ★

All churches and groups interested in participating may obtain materials by contacting the Rev. Larry Bobbitt at First Christian Church, 858 W. Huron, or the Rev. Ron Tallman at Central.

Teacher to Tell of Kibbutz Life

A prominent Pontiac educator will describe her experiences in an Israeli kibbutz at an open B'nai B'rith meeting Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ruth Mairy Scribner, for many years an instructor in Pontiac High schools, will discuss her trips to Israel at 8:30 p.m. at the B'nai Israel Synagogue, Oneida and Menominee, Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Scribner, who also has traveled extensively in Europe and the Far East, spent the entire summer of 1965 at Kibbutz Dahlia, where she worked on the farm, in the laundry, the kitchen and nursery.

★ ★ ★

A non-Jew, she returned to the Holy Land this past summer to witness the progress of the land and people since the June, 1967 war. While there, Mrs. Scribner spent another week at Kibbutz Dahlia.

★ ★ ★

There will be an informal question-and-answer session following Mrs. Scribner's talk, which is being sponsored by the Pontiac Lodge No. 850 of B'nai B'rith.

Salad lovers are in for a special treat Wednesday when St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Women hold their annual salad Taster's Luncheon. The menu will feature chicken salad with an array of fruit and vegetable salads. The luncheon will be at the church, 5301 Hatchery, Waterford Township, with guests being seated at 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Card games will be featured after the luncheon. At left, Mrs. Grady Robertson of 489 Berrypatch, White Lake Township, puts some dressing on a salad Mrs. Richard Daubner has made. Mrs. Daubner of 6335 Grace K, Waterford Township, is testing a new recipe for use at the luncheon.

SHUCKING THE CORN — Three young members of First United Methodist Church gather decorations for the church's annual Harvest Home banquet Friday night. They are Dan Arnold of 340 Rivera, Nancy Hevel of 741 Otter and Wally Boone of 3091 Edgefield, all of Waterford Township.

1st Methodist Harvest Fete Friday Night

A noted story teller will be the guest speaker at First United Methodist's Harvest Home banquet Friday night.

★ ★ ★

The program, to be held at the church, 14 Judson, Pontiac, at 6:30 p.m., will also feature a skit, 'Shucking of the Corn" and music by the Davis Trio, composed of Mrs. Eleanor Keller, Mrs. Virginia Neimisto and Mrs. Miriam Powell.

★ ★ ★

The featured speaker is Mrs. Howard W. Burden who has been in the ministry with her husband for 43 years. The couple's first ministry was St. James Methodist Church of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Burden and her husband were recently on the staff of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Flint, but they retired in June.

★ ★ ★

Often called "one of the best story tellers in the world," Mrs. Burden has been a member of the National Story League since 1942. She has served as secretary of the National Story League and president of the Central District of the National Story League.

★ ★ ★

An honorary member of the Detroit Story League, she has organized two leagues in Saginaw, one of which has honored her by calling itself the Silvia Burden Story League.

At Waterford Community Church

Centennial Celebration Near

Beards are sprouting and hemlines are brushing the floor at Waterford Community Church as the congregation makes final preparations for the church's centennial celebration.

Members of the church will don 1869 styles to welcome former members to the three-day homecoming and birthday festivities that begin next Friday night at 7. All activities will be held at the church, 5995 Olympic Parkway, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

A slide presentation reviewing a history of the church and showing many former members participating in past church affairs will highlight the Friday night program.

Saturday night at 7, Rev. Charles Shock, who served Waterford Community Church from 1940-1942, will be the principal speaker. It was during Rev. Shock's ministry that the church joined the Independent Fundamental Churches of America.

MUSIC, SKITS

Saturday's program also will include special music and skits by members of the congregation. More historical slides will be shown.

Regular worship services Sunday will call attention to the Centennial starting with the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School.

Rev. Robert D. Winne, the most recent pastor of Waterford Community, will be the featured speaker at the 11 a.m. service conducted by Rev. Ken Orr, interim pastor.

Rev. Winne served the church from 1957 until his retirement this summer. The Winnes are now residing in Phoenix, Ariz.

Climaxing the centennial observation will be a 7 p.m. service with Rev. Wright Van Plew as guest speaker. Rev. Van Plew was pastor at Waterford Community from August 1944 through April 1956. During that time a new Sunday School annex was built behind the church auditorium.

CHURCH HISTORY

According to the best records available on Waterford Community, it got its start in the middle 1860s when a Mr. Grow and a Mr. Fifield went around the community of Waterford getting pledges in order to erect a church.

The church auditorium was built in 1869 on Andersonville Road and the membership adopted the name of First Baptist Church and Society of Waterford. Rev. Charles Sherwood was the first pastor.

In 1897 Society was dropped from the name and in 1933 the name was changed once again, this time to the present name.

In 1959, the congregation voted to build a new church and since there was too little property available at the Andersonville Road site, new property was purchased on the corner of Airport Road and Olympic Parkway.

NEW WING

The main building was occupied in 1961, and the new educational wing was built in 1966.

Rev. Orr came to Waterford Community Church in 1964 as youth director. He was later named associate pastor and, when Rev. Winne retired, he became interim pastor.

The church has grown from a membership of 33 in 1897 to approximately 400. The Sunday school attendance 50 years ago was around 35; today it averages 575.

Three Area Congregations to Observe Anniversaries

Three Pontiac area churches will be observing anniversaries tomorrow.

Cedar Crest Lutheran of 485 Farnsworth, White Lake Township, will note its 35th year in a special worship service at 4 p.m.

The 19th anniversary of First Social Brethren Church, 316 Baldwin, Pontiac, will be celebrated at the regular 11 a.m. service.

And Pine Hill Congregational Church of 4160 Middlebelt, West Bloomfield Township, will observe its ninth year by installing a new minister at 10:30 a.m.

CEDAR CREST

Featured speaker at Cedar Crest's special worship service will be the Rev. Richard Schlecht, president of the Michigan District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

He will be assisted by the Rev. Richard Feucht, parish education counselor of the English district, and the Rev. David Ludwig, associate pastor of the Peace Lutheran Church of Detroit.

The choir of St. Matthews Lutheran Church, Walled Lake, will furnish special music for the service, which will be followed by an anniversary dinner given by the Mary-Martha Guild of the church.

SOCIAL BRETHREN

At First Social Brethren, Rev. Clifford Potter of the Union Association in Illinois will give the homecoming message.

The service will be followed by a basket lunch in the basement of the church. Special congregational singing will be featured in the afternoon.

PINE HILL

The Rev. Albert L. Goddard will be installed as minister of Pine Hill with Dr. Alfred D. Grey, minister emeritus, officiating.

Rev. Goddard and his wife come to Pine Hill from the pastorate at the Federated Church at Skowhegan, Maine. He replaces the Rev. Harry W. Clark who resigned in August to accept a call to the North Shore Church (Congregational) in Milwaukee, Wis.

Pine Hill Church was organized in 1960 under the ministry of Dr. Grey who served until ill health forced him to retire in 1962.

★ ★ ★

Worship services were first held at the Pine Lake School, but in November 1964, the building on Middlebelt Road was completed.

City Choir Union Banquet Tonight

The City Wide Choir Union of Pontiac will hold its annual scholarship banquet at the Sveden House at 8:30 tonight. Guest speaker will be Dr. J. Allen Parker, former pastor of the Newman AME Church.

★ ★ ★

Toastmaster for the evening is Booker Yancey, principal of the Whittier Elementary School. Miss Sylvia Blake is guest soloist.

The banquet is open to the public for a donation of $5 per person.

Bazaar Is Nov. 1 at Faith Lutheran

The Ladies Guild of Faith Lutheran Church, 3501 E. Highland (M-59), Highland Township, will hold a bazaar Nov. 1 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Booths will include cards, books, white elephants, baked goods and Christmas gifts, including many handmade items.

Brazil Visitor to Speak at New Temple

Dr. Stanley Kirschner, recently returned from a five-month stay in Sao Paulo, Brazil, will discuss his experiences in that country at the next regular Friday night service of the New Temple, at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, Lone Pine at Woodward.

Dr. Kirschner is a professor of chemistry at Wayne State University. His mission in Brazil was sponsored by the Ford Foundation and Sao Paulo University. Among his objectives were the construction of an instrument for measuring optical rotation and initiating a reserach program in that field at the university.

* * *

Friday night Dr. Kirschner will discuss the socioeconomic turmoil in Brazil and show his collection of slides. Among them are pictures of two synagogues and the "Hebraica," "a beautiful, well-developed facility similar to our Jewish center," according to Dr. Kirschner.

While in Sao Paulo, the Kirschner family heard David Ben Gurian, former premier of Israel, address a large audience there in Yiddish. Ben Gurian chose this language for his public address because he felt that, of all the languages he knew, more of his audience would understand Yiddish.

* * *

Dr. Kirschner, who lives in Huntington Woods, was accompanied to Brazil by his wife Esther and children, Susan and Daniel.

Rabbi Ernst J. Conrad will conduct worship services at 8:30 before Dr. Kirschner speaks.

2 More Part-Time Directors

Lifeline Seeking Bigger Staff

Do the Waterford and Pontiac areas need full-time Lifeline directors?

Rev. William B. Ballard, who is now directing the Lifeline program throughout the country, believes these two areas definitely need separate directors. He cited the rapid growth of the Youth for Christ program which helps troubled teens.

* * *

Area residents will have an opportunity to voice their support of such a plan at two meetings this week.

Monday night a meeting will be held at 7 at the CAI building, on Williams Lake Road in Waterford Township.

GUESTS SCHEDULED

Pontiac area residents will meet at 7:30 next Friday evening at the First Baptist Church, 34 Oakland, Pontiac. Judge Norman Bernard, Oakland County director of juvenile courts, is tentatively scheduled to discuss the program at this meeting.

Guests at the Waterford session will be Isaac Privette, county juvenile referee; G. A. Fredricson, an executive of General Motors Corp. who as a concerned citizen is interested in promoting the Lifeline program; and Lt. Dave W. Putnam, juvenile director for the Waterford Police.

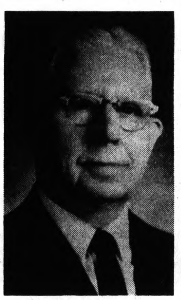
* * *

Rev. Ballard urges all residents interested in helping troubled teens through the Lifeline program to attend either of the meetings.

Why I Go to Church

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the 15th in a series of articles written by Pontiac area citizens.)

By C. BRYAN KINNEY
Pontiac Attorney



C. BRYAN KINNEY

I am convinced that the Creator of the Universe intended all men, His children, to be happy and healthy, free from tension and anxiety. The reverse of that situation exists today. You see few happy faces on the people you meet every day.

I believe the reason for our plight is, the failure to follow His judgments and His laws. I firmly believe that Christianity, if seriously tried, would cure today's ills, that wars would cease, that crime would be abated, that there would be no more corruption in government and that racism would cease to exist.

I believe that Christian churches — Protestant and Catholic — are God's agencies on this earth, that they are the link between God and man.

Why do I go to church? For the same reason that I vote, pay my taxes and try to obey the laws of the land. I go to church because I must support the principles in which I believe.

Ground Broken for New Church

Ground has been broken for the new Saint Anastasia Worship Center to serve Catholic families living east of Rochester Road in Troy.

Site for the new 8,000-square-foot parish center is between Wattles and Long Lake Roads off John R in Troy.

* * *

The center will be used for worship, educational programs and social affairs. The pastor is the Rev. William B. Davidson.

* * *

Architect for the $300,000 facility is Richard Happley of Dearborn; J. S. Vig Construction Co. of Lincoln Park is the general contractor.

* * *

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held Oct. 4.

Priests Needed

MANILA (UPI) — The Philippines, the only Roman Catholic country in Asia, needs more priests. Official figures show there are only about 5,557 priests — half of them foreigners — in the Philippines, or about one priest for every 5,000 Catholics in the country.

Senate Chaplain Is Presbyterian

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Rev. Edward L. R. Elson, pastor of the National Presbyterian Church in Washington, is the 59th Chaplain of the United States Senate.

He is the 10th Presbyterian and the fifth pastor of the National Presbyterian Church (dating from 1794) to be elected to the Senate chaplaincy.

5 Missionaries at Area Parley

Five Baptist missionaries will participate in the 28th annual missionary conference of the First Baptist Church of Romeo which starts tomorrow.

* * *

The conference will run through Wednesday with most meetings to be held at the church, 7800 W. 32 Mile Road Rd., Romeo.

* * *

Conference speakers will be:

- Rev. and Mrs. Roger Fox, missionaries to Japan under the Far Eastern Gospel Crusade Mission for the last 18 years.
- Rev. King A. Butler, a Negro pastor of the Bible Baptist Church of Kalamazoo. Rev. Butler has worked in the Inner City Program of the American Sunday School Union and will speak on the church's responsibility to the inner city.

* * *

- Miss Dora Hunt, a missionary for 39 years in Nigeria under the Sudan Interior Mission.
- Miss Carolyn Renner who has worked in the Los Angeles Hebrew Mission and is now working in the Hebrew and Christian Society in Cleveland under Baptist Mid-Missions.

Campus Minister Gets New Post

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (UPI) — The Rev. Donald H. Lee, Lutheran campus minister at Massachusetts Institute of Technology has been appointed to the faculty of Harvard Divinity School to assist in the supervision of student field work programs.

Lee, 41, will continue to represent the National Lutheran Campus Ministry at MIT and to serve as associate pastor at the University Lutheran Church in Cambridge.

The secret of happiness is not in doing what one likes, but in liking what one has to do.—James M. Barrie, English dramatist.

Revival Campaigns in Area

Bloomfield Hills Baptist

Special "services of living faith" are being held at the Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church, 3600 Telegraph.

Tonight's service will begin at 7:30 with services at 8 a.m., 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. tomorrow.

* * *

Guest speaker for the three-day revival which began yesterday is the Rev. Fred Renich, general director of Missionary Internship Inc., of Detroit, an inter-mission organization engaged in counseling, evaluating and screening candidates who are provisionally accepted by various mission boards.

Nationally known song evangelist Howard Correll also will participate in the services. Correll, a recording artist, live in Moorhead, Minn., and is a member of the Methodist Church. He is executive director of Arrowhead Music Camp, Barnum, Minn.

Salvation Army

A series of revival meetings will be held at the Salvation Army, 29 W. Lawrence, Oct. 21-26 at 7 p.m., according to Brigadier Clarence E. Critzer, commanding officer.

Conducting the nightly meetings will be Brigadier and Mrs. H. Bernard Lodge, territorial evangelists for the 11 midwestern states. Former professional musicians, the Lodges will also provide musical selections using a variety of instruments.

LODGE MRS. LODGE

* * *

The Lodges also will conduct special services at area nursing homes during their week here.

Ortonville Baptist

"Music and messages that can change your life" is the theme of a seven-day revival campaign starting Monday at Ortonville Baptist Church, 173 Church St., Ortonville.

Conducting the revival services will be Evangelist Robert L. Sumner of Indianapolis, director of Biblical Evangelism, an independent Baptist evangelistic association, and editor of the Biblical Evangelist, an evangelistic monthly.

SUMNER

The revival services which start at 7:30 each evening will run through Oct. 26. Sunday evening's service will be at 7. The meetings are open to the public, according to the Rev. Gerald Mitchell, pastor of Ortonville Baptist Church.

Pontiac Hillcrest

Revival services start Tuesday night at the Pontiac Hillcrest Church of the Nazarene, 520 W. Walton.

The Rev. Charles H. Lipker of Findlay, Ohio, will conduct the services which will be held nightly through Oct. 26. Meetings start at 7:30.

* * *

Rev. Lipker, a noted evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene, has been in the active ministry since 1930. He served pastorates in his native state of Ohio for 16 years before going into the field of evangelism.

MISSION BOUND — Rev. and Mrs. Terry R. Martin will leave Tuesday for their first term of missionary service on the island of Grenada, West Indies. They are serving under the Berean Mission Board of St. Louis, Mo. Rev. Martin is the son of Rev. and Mrs. V. L. Martin of Sunnyvale Chapel, Waterford Township. Terry and Dana are both graduates of Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. They spent the summer of 1968 as missionaries in Trinidad and Terry spent the previous summer helping to build a church in St. George's Grenada. The Martins have one son, 2-month-old Daniel John. The couple will be showing slides of Grenada at Sunnyvale's evening service tomorrow at 7.

Social Brethren

Rev. John Bailey of Glendale, Ill., will conduct revival services at First Social Brethren Church, 316 Baldwin, starting tomorrow.

BAILEY

Evangelistic services will be held nightly at 7:30 through Oct. 26, according to Pastor Harry Carr.

North Perry Baptist

Evangelist Frank Gonzales will conclude his revival campaign at North Perry Baptist Church, 1180 N. Perry, tomorrow night.

Revival services have been held nightly since Monday. Tonight and tomorrow night, services will begin at 7. Special services also will be held tomorrow morning at 10 and 11.

Youth Rally Tonight in Waterford Twp.

"Dope, Friend or Foe?" is the theme of a youth rally tonight at Faith Baptist Church, 3411 Airport, Waterford Township.

The program will consist of a film supplied by the Pontiac Police Department, a question-and-answer period with members of the police department answering questions relating to the narcotics problem. There will be a narcotics display on exhibit.

Church News Briefs

Bible Way Baptist

Rev. E. R. Williams and the congregation of Hale Tabernacle Baptist Church, Detroit, will be guests at Bible Way Baptist Church, 188 E. Blvd., tomorrow.

The Youth Department at Bible Way is in charge of the exchange program which begins at 3:30 p.m. Rev. Charles Warren is host pastor.

Calvary Baptist

Christmas comes early at Calvary Baptist Church.

Tomorrow will be Missionary Christmas Day at the church at 3750 Pontiac Lake Road, Waterford Township. Individual Sunday School classes will give gifts to each missionary family. A Christmas tree and gifts will be on display throughout the day.

* * *

Guest speaker for the day will be Rev. Stewart Cuthbertson of the Sudan Interior Mission. The Cuthbertsons have been missionaries in Nigeria for 13 years.

Having worked primarily in education, the couple's most recent ministry has been in the Kagoro Bible College in the North Central State of northern Nigeria.

Rev. Cuthbertson will speak on "The Great Commission Illustrated" at the 11 a.m. service and at the 7 p.m. he will speak and show slides on "Basic Missionary Ministries," drawing on his own experiences in Nigeria. He also will address the teens at their 5:30 p.m. meeting.

Memorial Baptist

Rev. Bob Hart, missionary to Ecuador, will speak at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. services tomorrow at Memorial Baptist Church, 599 Michigan, Pontiac. A social, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Hart, will be held following the evening service.

Friendship Baptist

Matrons of the Friendship Baptist Church will present a special program tomorrow at 3:30 p.m., with the Rev. Fred Spann of Mount Calvary Baptist Church as guest speaker.

St. James Methodist

A bazaar and turkey dinner will be held at St. James United Methodist Church, 427 W. Kennett, Oct. 25.

The bazaar opens at 11 a.m. Dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m.

Radio Personality Due in Davisburg

"Mr. Charlie" Vander Meer, assistant director of the radio ministry of the Children's Bible Hour of Grand Rapids, will be featured tomorrow morning at First Baptist Church, 12881 Andersonville, Davisburg.

At the 9:45 a.m. service "Mr. Charlie" will give a fully dramatized story, in which he portrays various characters through the use of rapid voice changes. Augmenting the live characterizations will be taped sound effects and musical transitions.

Senate Unit Acts to Curb Medical-Aid Abuse

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee has decided the tax-reform bill may provide a cure for a billion-dollar-a-year abuse of the government health insurance programs.

A surprise provision inserted in the bill by the committee would require carriers of Medicaid and Medicare to report to the federal government all payments to an individual doctor, nursing home, hospital and drugstore exceeding $600 a year.

* * *

Reports would be under the Social Security or tax number of the doctor or owner.

Senate hearings earlier this year showed abuses in Medicare, health insurance for the aged, and in Medicaid, the companion program for the needy. Finance Chairman Russell B. Long, D-La., said Friday the abuses could run to a billion dollars annually.

Long said there is no way to figure the additional revenue which would be produced by the new provision but it would be a "great deal of money."

He said it would produce a savings to taxpayers through lower charges by doctors and nursing facilities. Currently, most of these fees are not open to routine federal scrutiny.

Another key revision by the Senate panel simplified and changed the emphasis of provisions in the House version of the tax-reform plan dealing with farm owners who use losses on the farm to offset or lower taxes on other income.

Opponents of the House plan maintained it would put a bookkeeping burden on bona fide farmers. Aides said the Senate version would not ask a taxpayer to keep records that go against him and would presume that a farmer making a profit in two out of five years was not in farming as a tax dodge.

* * *

Long said the Senate panel is trying to meet an Oct. 31 deadline for reporting the measure to the floor, but staff work on technical language may delay the finished version for some weeks.

DAVID COUTURE

Teen of Week Is A-Average PNH Senior

David Couture, a Pontiac Northern High School senior, has been selected as this week's Teen of the Week.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Couture of 1116 Cloverlawn, Bloomfield Township, David maintains an A average.

He is treasurer of the French Club, and has been selected to go to Chicago for the National Youth Conference on the Atom at the end of this month. His selection was based on outstanding achievements in mathematics and science.

After graduation from Northern, David plans to attend college to become a teacher.

David said of today's world problems: "I believe the only solution to today's troubled world is to completely yield to God and His will."

A Late Meeting

LOS ANGELES (AP) — When two gunmen robbed a teller of $900 at the Santa Barbara Savings and Loan Association Friday, the manager, John Glans, wasn't there. He had gone to a meeting on how to prevent holdups.

3 Police Pranksters Given Extra Duty

WARREN, R.I. (AP) — Three Warren policemen are under orders to perform extra duty for three days, without pay, as a punishment for a prank their superiors didn't think was funny.

* * *

A straw dummy was placed in the police chief's chair Wednesday night, and someone put a wine bottle on the table and a glass in the dummy's hand.

* * *

Police Chief Henry E. Pratte brought charges of conduct unbecoming a police officer and breach of discipline. The town council imposed the penalties after a hearing.

SURVEY or ? SALES PITCH

Public opinion surveys are important. They lead to better products, better distribution and a better understanding of the public viewpoint.

However, for every legitimate survey interviewer, you may be approached by as many as 5 to 10 sales people with an innocent sounding pitch that begins with "I'm making a survey Would you mind answering a few simple questions?"

How can you tell the difference between a real survey and a trick sales pitch? There is one sure way. Real interviewers do not ask you to buy anything . . . do not ask you for money and do not ask you to sign anything.

Bridge Tricks From Jacobys

By OSWALD & JAMES JACOBY

The slow player is a menace to everyone at the table. Not that he wins from them, but rather that he spoils the game.

Strangely enough, you can speed up your own play materially if you will learn to stop and think when it is important to do so and the most important time for declarer to think is before playing to the first trick.

Today's hand is a good example. South played the jack of spades from dummy without a moment's hesitation. It held the trick and, all of a sudden, South realized he had problems.

★ ★ ★

Ten minutes later, he had solved all his problems unsuccessfully and East and West had entered a plus score of 200, representing the penalty for down-two vulnerable.

If South had just bothered to think for a few seconds before putting his hand on the jack of spades, he would have played the seven-spot. East's nine would have forced South's ace but South would have been off and running. He would have gone right after the diamond suit.

He had done that anyway but there was a great difference what happened. With the ace of spades played at trick one and the queen and jack left in dummy, there was no way for East and West to keep South from getting into dummy to win three more diamond tricks and he would have wound up with game, rubber and, probably, an overtrick.

★ ★ ★

South also could have saved himself if he had thought before completing the first play. In that case, he could have overtaken dummy's jack of spades with his ace and brought home the contract in spite of the first mistake.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR

For Sunday

RECREATION HINT: Flying, scientific pursuits are favored. The unusual becomes commonplace. Investigate areas of doubt. Clash of ideas proves far more exciting than clash of physical weapons.

★ ★ ★

ARIES (March 21-April 19): In entertaining, highlight truth and quality. Don't overspend. Avoid any display of ostentatiousness. Be receptive to ideas, no matter how farfetched they may appear.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): You may find that some freedoms are restricted. Maintain good humor. Person who needs your time, aid today probably deserves it. Being a grouch won't help matters.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Light touch accomplishes major goal. Be open to suggestions. Study ARIES message. Be active in fraternal organization. Look behind the scenes.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Mixing money and friendship could prove costly. Stick to facts. Be fair, but firm. Show gratitude for past favors. But avoid being maudlin. The truth is your strongest weapon.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Best to keep within rules, regulations. Temptation is for quick change. Wise course is to go slowly, but surely. Accent on partnerships, special agreements, added legal information.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Pleasant visit should not be marred by senseless dispute. Make concessions to relatives. And don't be bossy. Others also have ideas about vitamins and health.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Money expended for pleasure of youngster is well spent. You will not regret bringing joy to life of young person. Act accordingly. You are made to feel needed—it is a good feeling.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Pace is apt to be slow. Accent is on attending to neglected duties. The fun and games should wait for another day. You may have to mix business with Sunday relaxation.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Avoid basing decisions on impulse. You have yet to perfect a technique. You must complete project before you start another. One you aid today actually will help your cause.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): You can come up with idea which ultimately results in gain. Key is to have confidence. Stress originality and in dependence. Shake off tendency toward self-doubt.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): You can successfully put together puzzle pieces. What was missing reappears. Key is to be perceptive and receptive. Cycle is high. You look like a winner.

PISCES (Feb 19-March 20): News received today may give you cause for quiet reflection. Know that what might appear gloomy is not hopeless. You do rebound. And your cycle is due for improvement.

IF SUNDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are finishing one phase of activity—and will begin a new, exciting and challenging period. Stress your originality and natural talent.

For Monday

MENU TIP: Sauteed Veal Kidneys fill the bill with the moon entering Pisces. Tender-loving care is most important ingredient tonight. Key is to be gentle with friends, guests and loved ones.

★ ★ ★

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Avoid trying to force your views on others. Subtle approach today proves a winning one. Co-operation with groups, special organizations—especially those devoted to charity.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Unusual Monday in that you socialize, probably dine out and make new friends. Be receptive and display sense of humor. Some important questions can be answered if alert.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Accent on getting significant assignment done the right way. Takes concentration combined with confidence. You must check and double check. Superiors will be properly impressed.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Good lunar aspect today coincides with chance to expand views, to bring your talents to attention of important persons. Your own philosophy is put to test. Stand fair.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): You may be called upon to make money decisions. Key is to have facts at hand. You could obtain genuine bargain in luxury item. Strive for comfort minus needless extravagance.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Day to play waiting game. Listen and learn. Your opinions are subject to revision. Make intelligent concessions. You succeed with aid of expert legal advice.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): No substitute for digging in with hard work. Your efforts may dismay friends. You can also establish better relations with co-workers, associates and neighbors. Be factual—and charming.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Creative urge comes to fore. You express feelings in definite manner. Be open. Don't attempt to suppress emotions. Young person expresses admiration. Your influence spreads.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): New approach overcomes roadblock. Know this, and push ahead. Information concerning property and basic values enhances sense of security. Be available for unusual mission.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Messages, calls demand attention. Family matter could be involved. Avoid scattering forces. Know where you want to go and how to get there. Versatile approach is positive aid.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Financial gain indicated. You can add to possessions. Key is willingness to expand. Standing still could permit opportunity to escape. Shop. Price various products. Bargain is available.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): You can now be more independent in thought, action. Direct approach fills the bill. Say what you mean—mean what you say. Greater personal recognition due if you take initiative.

★ ★ ★

IF MONDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you have sense of rhythm. Your ability to improvise is admirable. A project started this year is due to grow and bring benefits.

Parents Are Told Birth No Reason for a Lawsuit

MILWAUKEE (AP) — A $250,000 damage suit filed by a woman who said a drug store erroneously gave her cold tablets instead of birth control pills was dismissed Friday by a judge who declared the result to be "a joyous event."

★ ★ ★

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Szczerbiak, parents of a baby girl, charged in their Circuit Court suit that the druggist gave them the wrong pills under a birth control prescription, and that they had not wanted more children.

★ ★ ★

Judge Ronald A. Drechsler dismissed the suit, saying: "The natural birth of a healthy child, with no injury to the mother, is universally considered as a joyous event."

Drechsler said he could find no precedent for his ruling, and added that preliminary testimony indicated "The child certainly is not unloved."

Police Nearly Meet Match

KALISPELL, Mont. (AP) — James Petersen told police his pickup truck was stolen from a city parking lot.

★ ★ ★

Police stopped a truck of the same make, the same year and model and the same color. The truck even carried an unpainted wooden stock rack Petersen said he had just installed.

★ ★ ★

The coincidence fell four numbers short of a match. Petersen's license number is 7-T-8535. The other truck's license is 7-T-8531.

Loser of Bet Isn't as Sore as Winner

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — He collected a $12 World Series bet, Gerald Franklin Long, 40, told police Friday, and then his troubles began.

★ ★ ★

Long said the loser, whom he did not know by name, beat him up and took back the $12.

★ ★ ★

Long said the incident took place in a private club, and the loser of the bet drove away. Long was treated at Bethany Hospital for minor injuries.

WHEN SHOULD A FUNERAL DIRECTOR BE SELECTED?

J. L. Voorhees

Many people put this decision off until forced to. The wisest and best time to select a funeral director is far in advance of need. To do this is not morbid—merely good foresight and common sense.

So often, we see people who are forced to make these decisions under emotions and strain. How often do we hear, "I hope I did right as we never discussed this before."

M. E. SIPLE

To choose, and plan ahead, does not hurry death nor does it delay it. If you sit down in the quiet of your own home, and discuss this with your loved ones you will know a peace of mind you have never known before.

In your planning and discussions, if there are any questions unanswered, remember, our doors are always open—and we are as close as your telephone.

Man Sentenced for Killing Son of Ex-Girlfriend

MIAMI (AP) — A 33-year-old handyman was sentenced to death Friday for murdering the 8-year-old son of his former girlfriend by pouring acid down the child's throat.

★ ★ ★

The death penalty was mandatory because the jury, after deliberating four hours, did not recommend mercy in convicting Joseph Nathan Clowers.

★ ★ ★

Clowers was "bent on revenge and death," Assistant State Attorney Al Sepe told the jury, "revenge against Tracy's mother through her children."

A passerby found Trazy Zellner dying in a vacant lot March 4.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARINGS AND PROPOSALS TO SELL URBAN RENEWAL PROPERTY
City of Pontiac, Department of Planning and Urban Renewal, City Hall, 450 Wide Track Drive, East, Pontiac, Michigan.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the City of Pontiac, as the Local Public Agency, proposes to sell certain property located in CBD Fringe No. 2, Urban Renewal Project R-44, and CBD Fringe No. 1, Urban Renewal Project Michigan R-20, to the Michigan State Highway Commission of the State of Michigan and to the School District of the City of Pontiac. Said Urban Renewal Projects are located in the area located generally South of Pike Street, West of Paddock Street, North of Osmun Street and East of the Grand Trunk Western Railroad right-of-way in the City of Pontiac. The City has proposals from said public agencies to purchase property in said projects, and proposes to consider entering into an agreement for the sale to said agencies on or after October 28, 1969.
NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN, that public hearings in regard to said proposed sales will be held at the regular meeting of the City Commission of the City of Pontiac, to be held on Tuesday, October 28, 1969, at the City Commission Chambers, City Hall, 450 Wide Track Drive, East, Pontiac, Michigan, at 8:00 P.M. The proposed purchasers, as governmental agencies, are not required to file Statements for Public Disclosure, but specific descriptions of the property proposed to be sold, as well as copies of the proposals of the agencies and proposed agreements and deeds to be used in said transactions are available and may be examined at the Offices of the Department of Planning and Urban Renewal at the above address, between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Said information and documents will also be available at the public hearings, which will be open to the public, and provide an opportunity for any person to be heard in regard to the proposed sales.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF our dear Father, James S. Hicks, who passed away a year ago today:
You're not forgotten Father Dear,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory lasts,
We shall remember Thee.
The Hicks family.

In Memoriam 2

IN FOND MEMORY OF Bessie P. Holtz who passed away Oct. 18, 1960. Sadly missed by parents, brother, sister, daughter (Betty Bell) and granddaughter (Christine Bell).

IN LOVING MEMORY of George Dodman, who passed away Oct. 19, 1965.
We morn for him in silence, no one can see us weep,
But many a silent tear is shed, while others are asleep.
SAdly missed by wife and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF my dear husband, Nathaniel Moore who passed away 2 years ago Oct. 18, 1967.
His smiling way and pleasant face,
Are a pleasure to recall
He had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Someday we hope to meet him
Someday we know not when
To clasp his hand in the Blessed Land
Never to part again.
Sadly missed by his wife, Pearl and family.

IN LOVING MEMORY of James S. Morris who passed away October 18, 1967.
Two years ago in the lovely fall,
The Master called your name.
Oh, brother Jib, though life goes on
It will never be the same.
The hours, the days, the months and years have seemed so quick to pass
But the ache and the hurt of losing you seem endlessly to last.
The beautiful autumn surrounded the trees
As we helplessly watched you die—
I held your hand, though life was gone
I hold it now in memory and search God's reason why!
I can't see you now, or touch your hair or kiss your fading lips so dry
You can't hear me and I can't hear you though I reach out so hard and try.
Now, all I can do is shuffle through leaves on the ground above your head
As my fingers cross your name on the stone marking the place you lie dead.
I can't stop the tears that silently swell and I wonder where you'll be
When God calls out to me one day.
Jib, hold out your hand to me!
Loved and missed by Mike Zeke, Char & Col.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF Michael Sweat, who left us Oct. 18, 1964.
Love is a memory time cannot kill.
But first and last, time present, time future, time past.
Beginning and ending for ever new love is you.
Sadly missed by family and loved ones.

B52s Hit N. Viet Camps

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers renewed their raids today on North Vietnamese base camps near the Cambodian border north of Saigon. Intelligence analysts say four enemy divisions are reorganizing there.

Despite little battlefield action, up to 20 of the bombers attacked staging areas ranging from 3 to 25 miles from the border. They also hit other enemy base camps 29 miles east of Saigon.

* * *

American infantry and helicopter reconnaissance patrols using searchlights in some cases killed 26 enemy soldiers during the past 24 hours in clashes ranging from 18 miles south of Saigon to 40 miles northwest of the capital, U.S. headquarters said.

* * *

20 REDS KILLED

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that its militia forces killed 20 enemy soldiers in an ambush Friday night about 90 miles south of Da Nang. Four government soldiers were reported wounded.

The U.S. Command said there were eight enemy rocket and mortar attacks overnight, but that only three of them caused casualties or damage.

* * *

The U.S. Command also said that the 3rd Marine Division has abandoned its sprawling Vandegrift combat base near the demilitarized zone.

The base, 14 miles south of the DMZ and 30 miles west of the coast, was the headquarters for the division's 4th Regiment.

* * *

About 15,000 Marines of the 3rd Division already have been withdrawn from South Vietnam. The remaining 12,000 are to be pulled out by Dec. 15 under President Nixon's orders to reduce troop strength by 60,000.

* * *

The Marines had established Vandegrift as their principal western supply point after the Khe Sanh base was vacated. Khe Sanh is six miles west of Vandegrift and was under siege for 2½ months in early 1968.

Of every 100 people who die in Latin America, 45 are children below 5 years of age.

Detroit NAACP Asks Schools to Be Firm

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit branch of the NAACP has called for firmer enforcement of rules by Detroit school officials.

In a position paper issued just three weeks after outbreaks of racial violence disrupted Detroit schools and caused the temporary closing of three others, the NAACP said steps must be taken to eliminate alienation between teachers and administrators and between students and community residents.

* * *

The civil - right organization also called for "real decision-making powers" to be given to the students in the establishment and enforcement of school rules.

The report contained eight specific major recommendations for administrative reform and improved student discipline, but an NAACP spokesman said the report was intended neither to precipitate acrackdown on students nor as a condemnation of the Detroit school board.

The spokesman said the NAACP has "no plans at this time" to bring any action against the school board to force enactment of the report's recommendations.

'G' Films Tops

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — A tally based on reports sent to the Motion Picture Herald by film bookers shows that during the summer months of June, July and August, the top income producers were films rated "G" for general or family audiences.

Special to Chronicle Century of Football

Jim Thorpe, Knute Rockne, Amos Alonzo Stagg, and Walter Camp had their heyday before television came along.

However TV tribute will be paid to these giants of football and others when "100 Years Old and Still Kicking" tells the story of football Tuesday at 10 p.m. on Channel 2.

★ ★ ★

THORPE

ROCKNE

Charles Kuralt will narrate as films chronicle the sport's first 100 years. Red Grange, Sammy Baugh, Don Hutson, Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis are others who will flash before viewers eyes.

The historical special seems to signal completion of football's seasonal takeover from baseball on the televised sports scene. Baseball's finale was to be Sunday if a seventh game of the World Series were necessary, Saturday if only a sixth game were needed.

GRID TELECASTS

Live telecasts of football will begin for the week with UCLA meeting California at Los Angeles today at 3:15 p.m. on Channel 7. Sunday in the National Football League the Green Bay Packers take on the Rams at Los Angeles at 3 p.m. on Channel 2.

American Football League action sends the Denver Broncos against the Bengals at Cincinnati at 12:30 on Channel 4 (unless the World Series is on) and the Buffalo Bills against the Raiders at Oakland at 3 p.m.

FRANK SINATRA JR.

Among other specials this week will be "Goodby, City Hall," a look at the office of mayor in Pittsburgh, Detroit, Minneapolis, Boston and Jackson, Miss., Wednesday at 9 p.m. and Thursday at 2 p.m. on Channel 56. Two outgoing mayors, including Detroit's Jerome Cavanagh, and three former mayors will appear on the show.

Frank Sinatra Jr. stars in his first television special Sunday at 9 p.m. on Cannel 2, and his guests will include Sammy Davis Jr., Jack Benny, Frank Sr. and Nancy, with Las Vegas as the stage.

This Week's Cover

The "Big Sister" on the cover of The Pontiac Press TV Schedule this week is Nancy Sinatra who will appear with brother Frank Jr. as he hosts his first TV special Sunday at 9 p.m. on Channel 2.

Diana Ross (center) will star as hostess and will offer her own special brand of singing on "Hollywood Palace" tonight at 9:30 on Channel 7.

Private investigator Lee Gordon (Harry Guardino, left) quizzes the estranged wife (Dina Merrill) of a tycoon and her boyfriend (Troy Donahue) about a murder in the TV premiere of "The Lonely Profession" on Tuesday Night at the Movies at 9 on Channel 4.

A CASE OF SINK OR SWIM — Caesar's Forum, a floating Miami Beach restaurant that sank in Indian Creek during a 1965 hurricane and was rehabilitated sometime later, is shown as it is being towed seven miles to a new location in the Miami River. The four-story building is passing through a Venetian Causeway drawbridge.

Finch Orders Ban on Diet Sweetener

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Welfare Robert H. Finch ordered today that all foods and drinks containing the artificial sweetener cyclamate be removed from grocery shelves by Feb. 1 because of new evidence the substance causes cancer in animals.

Finch emphasized, however, "We have no evidence at this point that cyclamates have indeed caused cancer in humans."

★ ★ ★

He said he would not recommend that families who now have cyclamate-containing foods and drinks in their homes throw them away or stop using them at the present time.

Cyclamates, which Finch estimated are a $1-billion annual industry, are found mainly in diet drinks and foods. They also are contained in a wide range of nondiet foods from bacon to canned fruits and children's vitamins.

CANCER IN RATS

Finch said he acted after two different laboratories presented evidence this week that cyclamates in very high doses produced bladder cancer in rats and mice.

The evidence was reviewed by government scientists and a panel of the National Academy of Science, which recommended the strong restrictions on cyclamates.

Finch said beginning immediately, no more cyclamates will be allowed in the production of general purpose foods and beverages.

He said beverages which contain the highest level of cyclamates must be removed from grocery shelves by Jan. 1. Other artificially sweetened foods, which he said contain lower levels of cyclamate and pose a "very minimal risk," must be removed by Feb. 1.

WILL BE AVAILABLE

Finch said cyclamate-containing foods and beverages will still be available to persons who require them for medical reasons on a prescription-type basis. These persons would include those with diabetes or obesity.

'My decision to remove cyclamates from the list of approved substances in no sense should be interpreted as a life-saving or emergency measure," Finch said at a news conference. "I have acted under the provisions of law because it is imperative to follow a prudent course in all matters concerning public health."

★ ★ ★

He said the law requires that "any food additive must be removed from the market if it has been shown to cause cancer when fed to humans or animals."

Finch said he will hold consultations today with representatives of the affected industries and consumer groups to determine the best way of offering cyclamate compounds on a restricted basis and on development of "new and safe formulations without cyclamates."

★ ★ ★

Several government scientists reinforced Finch's statement that at the present time there is no reason to believe cyclamates cause cancer in man.

Dr. Jesse L. Steinfeld, a deputy assistant secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, noted that the level of cyclamates that cause tumors in rats "is 50 times the maximum amount previously proposed for adult human consumption or ingestion."

OU Aims for Independence

Oakland University appears to be on its way to independence from its mother institution, Michigan State University.

A study committee of the MSU Board of Trustees will be considering within the next 60 days a proposal that OU be granted independence.

★ ★ ★

Trustees yesterday unanimously accepted a resolution presented by OU Chancellor Durward B. Varner that the 10-year-old institution be granted its autonomy.

The resolution pointed out the growth and gains of the college in only a decade and added, "Michigan State University is now in the process of naming a new president, who will of necessity have demands on his time of greater priority than the problems and concerns of a rapidly expanding affiliate campus."

The resolution also expressed gratitude to the board of trustees and the MSU staff and faculty for their contributions to OU during its infancy.

The proposal of the five-member study committee is expected to be a major item of business at the trustees' December meeting, according to Troy Crowder, assistant to the chancellor.

Members of the study committee will be board Chairman Don Stevens, board member Frank Merriman, the board's legal counsel, Lee Carr, board Secretary Jack Breslin and Varner.

The resolution recommending that OU disassociate itself from MSU was prepared by a steering committee of the Oakland University Senate and was approved by the senate Thursday.

When the board of trustees accepts the independence of OU, as is expected by college officials, the proposal will be channeled through the Michigan Legislature and the State Board of Education.

An OU spokesman said the state board has been behind Oakland's autonomy for some time.

★ ★ ★

The MSU affiliate was founded in 1957 on the Meadow Brook Farm estate of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson who donated the 1,400 acres in Avon and and Pontiac townships to the MSU board, along with $2 million to assist in the foundation of a new university.

★ ★ ★

Oakland University opened in 1959 with 500 students and two buildings. It since has expanded to more than 5,000 students and 20 buildings.

Bolivia Nationalizes Gulf Oil

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP)— Gen. Alfredo Ovando Candia says his military government seized the Gulf Oil Corp. holdings in Bolivia because his country wasn't getting enough of the profits.

In a speech last night, Ovando said he was not satisfied with 'the large profits it (Gulf) made compared to the modest fiscal share received by the government."

Ovando presided over the secret cabinet meeting that issued an official decree announcing the seizure and nationalization yesterday. The decree said a commission will be set up to determine compensation.

Police and army troops occupied the La Paz offices of the Bolivian Gulf Co., and the oil fields in Santa Cruz. The office of an Oklahoma drilling company also was reported seized. Employees were allowed to leave the properties and no incidents were reported.

GULF EMPLOYE STOPPED — Bolivian armed forces chief Gen. Juan Jose Torres prevents an employe of the Bolivia Gulf Co. from leaving the company's office in La Paz yesterday. The employe was trying to leave the office with company documents when the Bolivian army moved in to take over.

'NO WARNING'

"We received no warning of the take-over," a Gulf spokesman said in La Paz. "The police walked directly into the office and there was nothing we could do but leave."

Pipeline operations between Santa Cruz and the Chilean port of Arica, which move 33,000 barrels of crude oil daily for shipment to U.S. ports, were not affected.

★ ★ ★

The takeover came a year and eight days after the military government in neighboring Peru nationalized International Petroleum Co., a subsidiary of Standard Oil of New Jersey.

North Koreans Kill Four Yanks

SEOUL (AP) — Four American soldiers were ambushed and killed by "an unprovoked attack" of North Korean Communists today near the southern boundary of the demilitarized zone, a U.S. spokesman said.

The spokesman said the men were returning in a Jeep to their units after performing equipment maintenance at a guard post when they were attacked by hand grenade and small arms fire.

★ ★ ★

Patrols began an immediate sweep of the area. The bodies were recovered from the truck.

Names of the dead were withheld until their relatives are notified.

60 INCIDENTS IN 69

Since January, one American has been killed and six wounded in a total of 60 incidents along the 18-mile-long American sector of the DMZ.

Gas-Warfare Tests in the Air to Resume

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army, armed with a report to blunt congressional criticism, has decided to resume testing chemical warfare agents at two posts after a three-month suspension.

RESOR

Secretary Stanley R. Resor authorized resumption of open-air testing of chemical agents at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., and use of such gases in defensive training at Ft. McClellan, Ala., after a civilian report endorsed safety procedures at both bases.

Resor had ordered the suspension in mid-July when it was first disclosed that the Army was conducting open-air tests of chemical warfare agents.

That disclosure touched off a flurry of criticism in Congress, where some members already were highly concerned about chemical and biological warfare research.

Resor countered by naming a committee of civilian scientific experts to review safety procedure in the testing at Edgewood and training at McClellan.

The committee, headed by Dr. Ivan Loveridge Bennett, vice president of New York University, found that safety procedures at both posts are "adequate and effective."

Sen. Charles McC. Mathias, R-Md., who in July had called for suspension of testing of chemical warfare agents, said Friday night he had requested — but had not received — a copy of the scientists' report.

Mathias and others in Congress had called for full reports on poisonous chemical munitions when the Army disclosed the open air testing in July.

'WILL FOLLOW RECOMMENDATIONS'

Resor said the Army will follow the recommended restrictions in the report—such as intensive use of monitors, limitation of "munition dissemination" to heights below 75 feet, installation of additional fencing around the test site, and periodic ecological surveys for the area.

Meanwhile, Resor's boss, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird has urged in a secret memorandum to the National Security Council that the United States stop producing biological warfare agents, the New York Times reported today.

Grid Fans Cheer Today's Weather

The weather man must be a football fan as the forecast for this afternoon calls for partly sunny skies and brisk temperatures, ideal for players and spectators alike.

Tomorrow's outlook is mostly cloudy with a chance of showers and a little warmer with highs in the mid-50s. Monday will be partly cloudy and a little cooler.

There's a 60 per cent chance of rain tonight, dropping to 40 per cent tomorrow.

An over night low of 38 was recorded in downtown Pontiac at 7 this morning. At 12:30, the temperature was 53.

Boy-Girl Stanford Dorm Succeeds

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Young men and women at a Stanford University dormitory are living in adjacent single rooms in what officials call an experiment in advanced coeducational living.

"It's going quite well," says William Leland, associate dean of students.

★ ★

Many of the students' parents approve. No parent has complained.

Joseph Katz, executive director of the school's Institute for the Study of Human Problems, said the 40 students' coeducational living may have led to a "partial moratorium on sex."

INITIATE CHANGE

Students initiated the change last spring by drafting a floor plan assigning names of men and women in next-door rooms at Roble Hall, previously an all-women's dorm and one of the oldest structures on campus.

★ ★ ★

Peter Bulkeley, a new dean visting Roble, saw the suggested plan on a wall and thought the assignments already had been approved.

★ ★

"Sounds like a great idea," he said.

Assistant Prof. John Palmer and his wife, directors of the dormitory, understood Bulkeley's remark to mean official approval and men were moved into rooms assigned by the plan.

The Palmers say they have encountered no special problems so far in the experiment, which progresses beyond the now fairly common college coeducational housing with men and women on separate floors or corridors.

The bath-and-toilet problem was resolved by assigning one to men and one to women.

The program has brought approving comments from some parents.

"I approve 100 per cent," said Mrs. Anne Huston Gilliand of Corvallis, Ore., whose daughter Sue lives in the dorm. "When I went to Stanford 25 years ago, the boys were at one end of the campus and the girls at the other. Dates became too important. They created tension between boys and girls."

RELAXED ATTITUDE

Coed Monica Ploeser of Santa Clara, Calif., said she senses a more relaxed attitude toward women among men students.

Robert Blees of Los Angeles, a Dartmouth graduate whose son is in the group, said, "It's a fine idea. I'm not shocked at all."

Katz said the coeducational units avoid "over idealization" of the opposite sex and a good deal of the mutual teasing and destructive behavior characteristic of campus dating.

On a longer-range basis, Katz said, participants may develop attitudes that will lead them to stronger marriages.

Last 2 Cosmonauts Return to Earth Safely

From Our News Wires

MOSCOW — The Soviets today safely brought back to earth their Soyuz 8 spacecraft and its two-man crew, completing their biggest week in space, a period that saw seven cosmonauts orbiting simultaneously in three ships.

★ ★ ★

The Tass News Agency said Soyuz 8 ended its five-day flight in the Karangda recovery area in Central Asia, as had its sister ships, Soyuz 6 and 7 on Thursday and yesterday. The cosmonauts were reported in excellent condition.

The big Soyuz 8 spacecraft landed in the snow-blanketed fields of Soviet Kazakhstan, not far from the Baikonur launchpad.

The two unshaven spacemen — Col. Vladimir Shatlov and Alexei Yeliseyev — were met on touchdown by search and rescue helicopters and flown immediately to a receiving post in Karaganda.

A televised report from the nearby Cosmodrome said all seven cosmonauts involved in the eight-day mission "carried out their assignments excellently."

Prior to their return, Tass said the Soyuz 8 crewmen tested "new, extremely convenient ways of navigation."

The cosmonauts established communication with the flight control center through a communications vessel somewhere in the Atlantic Ocean, and the communication satellite Molniya 1, the agency said.

'SUCCESSFUL'

"The experiment was successful. Communications were stable," Tass said.

The agency also said Shatlov and Yeliseyev held a "space press conference," answering questions of Soviet journalists. The questions and answers were not reported.

★ ★ ★

Soyuz 7, with three cosmonauts on board, parachuted to a soft landing yesterday, a day after Soyuz 6 came down with its two cosmonauts. All are reported in good condition. Soyuz 6 went up last Saturday, Soyuz 7 on Sunday and Soyuz 8 on Monday.

According to official reports, the mission of the space troika had been accomplished "according to plan."

WELDING EXPERIMENTS

Among other things, the men carried out cold welding experiments, weather research and geological observations.

Western space experts say this week's flights left many questions unanswered — although it may be possible, they said, that the seven cosmonauts accomplished things that the Russians were not willing to disclose.

Some speculated that unexpected difficulties may have developed during the flight of the three Soyuz ships, precluding spectacular results.

The government newspaper Izvestia said last night the purpose of the three-craft flight had been to "bring closer the period of permanent orbital spaceships."

As Soyuz 7 was lowered gently onto Soviet ground yesterday, the Russians announced their fifth launching in a week. An unmanned research vehicle, Cosmos 302, was fired into orbit from the Baikonur Space Center.

Peace Corpsmen Irk White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House is reported to be upset over public protests against the war in Vietnam by Peace Corps volunteers in at least six foreign countries.

In Turkey, Peace Corps members led a silent vigil outside the U.S. embassy. In the Dominican Republic, volunteers ran a newspaper advertisement branding the war as unjust.

Other protests took place in four South American countries, coinciding with mid-week Vietnam Moratorium protests throughout the United States.

Officially, the Peace Corps denied the White House flap. But inside sources reported Henry Kissinger, the President's foreign policy adviser, telephoned Peace Corps Director Joseph Blatchford to convey the displeasure.

SENSITIVE ISSUE

The Vietnam war is a sensitive issue for the Peace Corps in many emergin nations where the U.S. involvement is under attack.

In the Dominican Republic, one of the volunteers who signed the advertisement said, "For the first time, I think many people here have stopped looking on us as CIA agents."

★ ★ ★

The advertisement, signed by 38 members, called the war "unjust and irrational."

One volunteer in the Dominican Republic said the advertisement was published in Santo Domingo, the capital, rather in the United States because "we thought it would be more embarrassing to the Nixon administration to have our views known here . . ."

It apparently was. A Peace Corps source said, "You can imagine what the reaction was at the White House."

'SENSELESS, IMMORAL'

In Turkey, the war was condemned as "senseless and immoral" in a letter given to the U.S. ambassador by 30 demonstrators, most of them Peace Corps volunteers.

Peace Corps sources said volunteers gave other petitions to U.S. ambassadors in Bolivia, Colombia and Guyana and made a public statement against the war in Ecuador.

★ ★ ★

In Washington, about 200 members of the Peace Corps staff—a fourth of the total—took the day off Wednesday to stage a walk to the Capitol as part of the Moratorium protests after an antiwar rally at the Peace Corps headquarters.

Peace Corps officials said no punitive action would be taken against any of the volunteers who participated in the protests.

Thieu: We Fired on Soviet Ship

SAIGON (UPI) — President Nguyen Van Thieu, contradicting his military spokesmen, said today a South Vietnamese gunboat did indeed fire on a Soviet trawler offshore yesterday.

The president told newsmen on a field trip to the Mekong Delta that there was "some shooting" and that the gunboat's salvo left "maybe one or two holes" in the Soviet vessel.

★ ★ ★

"I don't believe it will create any diplomatic incident," Thieu said.

Earlier, one of his military spokesmen in Saigon had said that a government naval vessel chased the Soviet ship from territorial waters but "there was no shooting."

Said Thieu: "I don't believe that before we chased it away that our navy knew whether it was Russian or not." The positive identification, he said, was made "afterwards."

Allied military sources had said a shell from a South Vietnamese naval vessel hit the Soviet trawler off the northern coast and sent it fleeing back into the international waters, smoke pouring from its bow.

As yet, no Soviet protest note has been filed with Washington or at the United Nations. Soviet trawlers constantly shadow U.S. warships off Vietnam and chart American air operations from the 7th Fleet carriers on "Yankee Station."

School Buses Guarded After 'Zodiac' Threat

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Armed lawmen are riding shotgun on some San Francisco Bay area school buses after a killer boasted he might shoot the bus tires "and then pick off the kiddies as they come bouncing off."

★ ★ ★

The suspected killer of five persons is called Zodiac because of the astrological terms used in letters boasting of his slayings.

★ ★ ★

The latest was a letter to San Francisco police boasting of the murder of Paul Stine, 29, a cab-driver whose body was found Saturday night in the Presidio Heights section of San Francisco.

He sent along a swatch of blood-soaked cloth which police said appeared to come from Stine's shirt.

WHO'S NEXT?

The letter warned the killer might make schoolchildren his next victims.

★ ★ ★

In rural Napa County, officers rode on buses yesterday while in Sausalito, police cars followed buses. Drivers all over the Bay Area were drilled on procedures to follow should Zodiac attempt to make good his threat.

★ ★ ★

The drivers were under orders not to stop under any circumstances — to keep driving as fast as possible and as far as possible with headlights on and horns blowing to attract attention and assistance.

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, the state attorney general's office is heading a coordinated effort by the San Francisco and Vallejo Police Departments and the Napa and Solano County Sheriff's Offices to locate the killer fascinated with astrology.

★ ★ ★

The killings began last December near Vallejo, about 30 miles northeast of here. They have been woven together by the killer's morbid notes filled with astrological terms written to local newspapers and police departments boasting of his cleverness and threatening further bloodshed.

4 More Spy Ships Are Being Retired

WASHINGTON (AP) — The retirement of four more spy vessels by next June 30 will leave the Navy with just two non-combatant-type intelligence-gathering ships out of an original fleet of 10.

Only the Valdez and the Muller will remain once the Oxford, the Georgetown, the Jamestown and the Belmont are laid up.

The Navy, in announcing the new economy move yesterday, said the latest savings will be $43 million.

They are of the class of the Liberty ship which was shot up by the Israelis in the Mediterranean in 1967 and then retired.

That incident and the North Korean seizure of the Pueblo, in January 1968, called into question the value of unarmed or lightly armed intelligence ships.

The Navy announced last month that the two remaining ships of the Pueblo class—the Palm Beach and the Banner—would be placed in mothballs.

The intelligence jobs performed by these ships were mainly to intercept radio communications and monitor radar stations. The Pentagon decided these jobs could better be handled by reconnaissance aircraft and warships.

In all, 103 naval vessels are being laid up under the Pentagon's money-saving drive.

The new decision also includes disbanding seven Seabee battalions, releasing about 5,000 men from active duty, by mid-November. Their home bases are in Port Hueneme, Calif.; Davisville, R.I., and Gulfport, Miss.

A third phase of the latest economy move is a 30,000-man cut in the Navy's civilian work force which now totals more than 419,000 persons. This will be accomplished by attrition and some dismissals. Bases involved will be identified in the near future.

★ ★ ★

The campaign to cut an additional $3 billion from the defense budget includes previously announced plans to cut military manpower by 196,000 men. The total will reach about 220,000 by the end of this next fiscal year.

Woman Killed in Area Crash

One woman was killed and another critically injured in a two-car collision in Elba Township, Lapeer County, early this morning.

Susan L. Wheeler, 21, of Flint was killed in a car which reportedly crossed the center line of Oregon Road near Mapleleaf and struck a car head-on at the top of a hill at about 3:50 a.m., Lapeer County sheriff's deputies said.

★ ★ ★

The driver of the car in which the dead woman was a passenger was Larry Faught, 24, of 8325 Ridgefield, Davison, deputies said. He was treated for minor injuries at Lapeer County General Hospital and released.

Deputies said they would seek a charge of negligent homicide against Faught.

★ ★ ★

The driver of the other car, Mary Schroeder, 32, of 1862 Gray, Lapeer, is in critical condition at Hurley Hospital in Flint, according to a deputy.

NY Aid 'Excesses' Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ineligible families in New York City have received millions of dollars in welfare payments, says the General Accounting Office in a report to Congress.

The GAO supported most of the findings of a federal-state investigation last month into the program of aid to families with dependent children. The federal-state study determined about $66 million a year was being distributed in excess payments.

Birmingham Bank Robbed of $1,125

A lone bandit held up a Birmingham bank and escaped with $1,125 yesterday afternoon, police said.

The holdup man took the money from a teller at the Wabeek Branch of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., 284 W. Maple, shortly after 2 p.m., according to police.

★ ★ ★

He reportedly told the teller he had a gun and demanded the money and fled on foot, police said.

★ ★ ★

Birmingham police and FBI agents said the suspect was white, 20 to 25 years old, 5 feet 10, 160 pounds, had light curly hair with sideburns and was clean-shaven and wearing a three-quarter-lenth jacket.

'Most Combat Units to Leave in 1970'

Viet-Pullout Speedup Seen

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP) — President Nixon has ordered the Pentagon to work out plans for withdrawing up to 300,000 U.S. troops from Vietnam in 1970, Newsday said today in a copyright story by columnist Flora Lewis.

The story from Washington said that, according to reliable informants, the President plans to announce the accelerated withdrawal program in his Nov. 3 television address.

★ ★ ★

While many details remain to be worked out, the initial outline of the plan calls for the removal of all American combat units except two, according to the story in Newsday, a Long Island afternoon newspaper.

The columnist said the units to be left behind are the most mobile — the 1st Air Cavalry Division and the 173rd Airborne Brigade. They total between 17,000 and 18,000 men.

"The rest of an American force of between 150,000 and 200,000 men scheduled to be in Vietnam at the end of next year will be air and support troops," the story said.

Miss Lewis said the speedup of troop withdrawals was the key decision made in Nixon's meeting with the Joint Chiefs of Staff on Oct. 8.

★ ★ ★

"It goes beyond the withdrawal schedule that the President planned last August and then dropped in the face of strong opposition from the military, substituting an even more modest program which he announced in September.

★ ★ ★

"The plan reflects a shift of influence in the administration to those civilian leaders who have been arguing that domestic troubles are too near the disaster point to permit the much more gradual 'Vietnamization' that the generals wanted," Miss Lewis wrote.

7 Bombs Exploded in Athens; No Injuries

ATHENS (UPI)) — Seven bombs exploded in central Athens today, three of them along the route Premier George Papadopoulos was to take in leaving the city for the conutryside.

The right-wing National Resistance Movement (NRM) claimed credit for the bombings but said there was no attempt on the premier's life intended. Nobody was injured in the blasts.

"This is a rehearsal for what will happen Oct. 28," said the NRM spokesman, referring to the anniversary of the Italian invasion in 1940.

Ghetto Joblessness Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department reports growing unemployment among big city slum-dwelling Negroes. But improvements are noted in the job situation among poor whites.

The rate of unemployment for black workers averaged 7.5 per cent in the third quarter, up from 6.9 per cent during the matching period a year ago, the Bureau of Labor Statistics said yesterday.

Sacha Distel Didn't Want to Become 'Mr. Bardot'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — "I deedn't want to be Mr. Bardot," Sacha Distel said.

"And I never deed become Mr. Bardot. That might be one of the reasons we didn't make it."

His wife of seven years, Francine Breaud, a former French Olympic skier, doesn't mind — "she's above all that — after all, she's my wife and Bardot never was my wife," Distel said. "And anyway, Brigitte is now in love with another member of my family."

"Who? You have a brother?" we asked him hastily.

★ ★ ★

"My son Laurent. He's 5. He's very nice. She met him in an airport with me and fell in love with him. She sent him a box of candy."

People hearing Distel in his first New York singing engagement at the Plaza Persian Room often get confused and think he was married to Bardot.

"We were only engaged," he smiled, when we met at Gallagher's. "But," he repeated, "we didn't make it."

★ ★ ★

"I have a feeling that females in show business get to be masculine or at least almost like men. She really wanted to get married, and she always wants everything to happen in five minutes. I was always very slow about getting married. I deedn't want to get married to get divorced two years later."

And so they broke off back in the late '50s or '60s when he was considerably under 25 . . . and now at 34, he realizes that "some of the clubs that hired me probably wanted me because I was engaged to Bardot — but I was too young then to be conscious of that."

Chance for Smokers to Kick the Habit

MAKE OVER PAGES

Smokers who want to kick the cigarette habit have a chance, beginning tomorrow, to participate in a special five-day program at the Oakland County Courthouse Auditorium, 1200 N. Telegraph.

Cosponsored by the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the Pontiac Seventh-day Adventist Church, the free program runs Sunday through Thursday, from 7:30 to 9 a.m.

The clinic will be conducted by Dr. Raymond L. Mayor, M.D., and Dr. Robert A. Williams, director of guidance and measurements for Oakland County Schools.

Aiding in the nightly presentations will be Dr. Everette Gustafson of Pontiac, Dr. William Swatek, pathologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, and Dr. Arthur Weaver of Veterans Memorial Hospital, Dearborn.

Movies showing physical effects of smoking will be shown each night of the clinic and pamphlets and personal guides with suggestions to overcome the smoking habit will be distributed, followed by discussion periods.

Dr. Williams is scheduled to discuss some of the psychological aspects of the smoking habit, while Dr. Myaor will discuss the medical aspects.

Health Project Coordinator Is Area Man

A former Oakland County social services director, George H. Williams of 2556 Red Arrow, Commerce Township, was this week named to the $18,000-a-year post of project coordinator on a seven-county health committee.

Williams, chairman of the Oakland County Homeowners and Taxpayers Association until his resignation last spring, said he will be responsible for developing a comprehensive health planning agency.

★ ★ ★

He was selected for his new job by the 27-member Areawide Health Operating Committee (AHOC). Composed of residents from Oakland, Wayne, Macomb, Washtenaw, Livingston, St. Clair and Monroe counties, it is funded by the United Foundation and federal grants.

★ ★ ★

Williams said his job would be to develop a health agency in accordance with the comprehensive health planning survey undertaken by the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, the Greater Detroit Hospital Council and the Metropolitan Fund. Much of the financing for both the survey and the agency is expected in the form of federal grants.

★ ★ ★

Williams said two planning associates and two secretaries would be added to his Detroit office staff. They will be dealing with health provisions, government responsibility and health usage, Williams said.

National Board Designates 516

John Cotton, San Diego, president of the 87,000-member National Association of Real Estate Boards, announced the appointment of 516 persons who will serve as members of its committees this year.

★ ★ ★

He noted that they are from 49 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia, and emphasized that the work of these men and women is vital to the progress of organized real estate, since most of the continuing activity of the National Association is conducted through its committees.

'SLAVING' FOR RETREAT — Members of the Waterford Trinity United Methodist Youth Fellowship held a "slave day" recently to raise money for the group's retreat at Franklin Settlement Camp, Lake Orion, this weekend. The junior high youths were hired out to baby-sit, clean garages, wash cars, etc. Window-washing slaves are Linda Hosler, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Hosler, of 3520 Waringham, Waterford Township, and Bill Banks, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Banks, 3629 Percy King, Waterford Township.

Plans Made for UNICEF Trick or Treat

The Pontiac Ad Hoc Committee on UNICEF will again conduct their annual Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF collection Halloween evening, Oct. 31.

★ ★ ★

Money collected by area young people will be sent to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund to be used for food, clothing and medical care for children throughout the world who suffer from war and natural disasters.

★ ★ ★

The Ad Hoc Committee is inviting all area churches and synagogues to participate on a cooperative and community-wide basis. The hours suggested for collection are 4 - 7 p.m.

★ ★ ★

A dance will be held for participants from 7 to 10 p.m. at Central United Methodist Church, 3882 Highland, Waterford Township. Music will be provided by the Syrup.

★ ★ ★

All churches and groups interested in participating may obtain materials by contacting the Rev. Larry Bobbitt at First Christian Church, 858 W. Huron, or the Rev. Ron Tallman at Central.

Teacher to Tell of Kibutz Life

A prominent Pontiac educator will describe her experiences in an Israeli kibutz at an open B'nai B'rith meeting Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Ruth Mairy Scribner, for many years an instructor in Pontiac High schools, will discuss her trips to Israel at 8:30 p.m. at the B'nai Israel Synagogue, Oneida and Menominee, Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Scribner, who also has traveled extensively in Europe and the Far East, spent the entire summer of 1965 at Kibutz Dahlia, where she worked on the farm, in the laundry, the kitchen and nursery.

★ ★ ★

A non-Jew, she returned to the Holy Land this past summer to witness the progress of the land and people since the June, 1967 war. While there, Mrs. Scribner spent another week at Kibutz Dahlia.

★ ★ ★

There will be an informal question-and-answer session following Mrs. Scribner's talk, which is being sponsored by the Pontiac Lodge No. 850 of B'nai B'rith.

Salad lovers are in for a special treat Wednesday when St. Andrew's Episcopal Church Women hold their annual salad Taster's Luncheon. The menu will feature chicken salad with an array of fruit and vegetable salads. The luncheon will be at the church, 5301 Hatchery, Waterford Township, with guests being seated at 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Card games will be featured after the luncheon. At left, Mrs. Grady Robertson of 489 Berrypatch, White Lake Township, puts some dressing on a salad Mrs. Richard Daubner has made. Mrs. Daubner of 6335 Grace K, Waterford Township, is testing a new recipe for use at the luncheon.

At Waterford Community

Centennial Celebration Near

Beards are sprouting and hemlines are brushing the floor at Waterford Community Church as the congregation makes final preparations for the church's centennial celebration.

Members of the church will don 1869 styles to welcome former members to the three-day homecoming and birthday festivities that begin next Friday night at 7. All activities will be held at the church, 5995 Olympic Parkway, Waterford Township.

★ ★ ★

A slide presentation reviewing a history of the church and showing many former members participating in past church affairs will highlight the Friday night program.

Saturday night at 7, Rev. Charles Shock, who served Waterford Community Church from 1940-1942, will be the principal speaker. It was during Rev. Shock's ministry that the church joined the Independent Fundamental Churches of America.

Area Church News

MUSIC, SKITS

Saturday's program also will include special music and skits by members of the congregation. More historical slides will be shown.

Regular worship services Sunday will call attention to the Centennial starting with the 9:45 a.m. Sunday School.

Rev. Robert D. Winne, the most recent pastor of Waterford Community, will be the featured speaker at the 11 a.m. service conducted by Rev. Ken Orr, interim pastor.

Rev. Winne served the church from 1957 until his retirement this summer. The Winnes are now residing in Phoenix, Ariz.

Climaxing the centennial observation will be a 7 p.m. service with Rev. Wright Van Plew as guest speaker. Rev. Van Plew was pastor at Waterford Community from August 1944 through April 1956. During that time a new Sunday School annex was built behind the church auditorium.

CHURCH HISTORY

According to the best records available on Waterford Community, it got its start in the middle 1860s when a Mr. Grow and a Mr. Fifield went around the community of Waterford getting pledges in order to erect a church.

The church auditorium was built in 1869 on Andersonville Road and the membership adopted the name of First Baptist Church and Society of Waterford. Rev. Charles Sherwood was the first pastor.

In 1897 Society was dropped from the name and in 1933 the name was changed once again, this time to the present name.

In 1959, the congregation voted to build a new church and since there was too little property available at the Andersonville Road site, new property was purchased on the corner of Airport Road and Olympic Parkway.

NEW WING

The main building was occupied in 1961, and the new educational wing was built in 1966.

Rev. Orr came to Waterford Community Church in 1964 as youth director. He was later named associate pastor and, when Rev. Winne retired, he became interim pastor.

The church has grown from a membership of 33 in 1897 to approximately 400. The Sunday school attendance 50 years ago was around 35; today it averages 575.

NINETEENTH-CENTURY MAXIS — Mrs. David Mehlberg of 3269 Sashabaw, Waterford Township, marks the hem of daughter Linda's nineteenth-century-style gown she will wear at the centennial festivities at Waterford Community Church next weekend. Linda's grandmother, Mrs. Helen Mehlberg of 5938 Andersonville, Waterford Township, lends a helping hand.

Three Area Congregations to Observe Anniversaries

Three Pontiac area churches will be observing anniversaries tomorrow.

Cedar Crest Lutheran of 485 Farnsworth, White Lake Township, will note its 35th year in a special worship service at 4 p.m.

The 19th anniversary of First Social Brethren Church, 316 Baldwin, Pontiac, will be celebrated at the regular 11 a.m. service.

And Pine Hill Congregational Church of 4160 Middlebelt, West Bloomfield Township, will observe its ninth year by installing a new minister at 10:30 a.m.

CEDAR CREST

Featured speaker at Cedar Crest's special worship service will be the Rev. Richard Schlecht, president of the Michigan District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

He will be assisted by the Rev. Richard Feucht, parish education counselor of the English district, and the Rev. David Ludwig, associate pastor of the Peace Lutheran Church of Detroit.

The choir of St. Matthews Lutheran Church, Walled Lake, will furnish special music for the service, which will be followed by an anniversary dinner given by the Mary-Martha Guild of the church.

SOCIAL BRETHREN

At First Social Brethren, Rev. Clifford Potter of the Union Association in Illinois will give the homecoming message.

The service will be followed by a basket lunch in the basement of the church. Special congregational singing will be featured in the afternoon.

PINE HILL

The Rev. Albert L. Goddard will be installed as minister of Pine Hill with Dr. Alfred D. Grey, minister emeritus, officiating.

Rev. Goddard and his wife come to Pine Hill from the pastorate at the Federated Church at Skowhegan, Maine. He replaces the Rev. Harry W. Clark who resigned in August to accept a call to the North Shore Church (Congregational) in Milwaukee, Wis.

Pine Hill Church was organized in 1960 under the ministry of Dr. Grey who served until ill health forced him to retire in 1962.

★ ★ ★

Worship services were first held at the Pine Lake School, but in November 1964, the building on Middlebelt Road was completed.

Bazaar Is Nov. 1 at Faith Lutheran

The Ladies Guild of Faith Lutheran Church, 3501 E. Highland (M-59), Highland Township, will hold a bazaar Nov. 1 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Booths will include cards, books, white elephants, baked goods and Christmas gifts, including many handmade items.

SHUCKING THE CORN — Three young members of First United Methodist Church gather decorations for the church's annual Harvest Home banquet Friday night. They are Dan Arnold of 340 Rivera, Nancy Hevel of 741 Otter and Wally Boone of 3091 Edgefield, all of Waterford Township.

1st Methodist Harvest Fete Friday Night

A noted story teller will be the guest speaker at First United Methodist's Harvest Home banquet Friday night.

★ ★ ★

The program, to be held at the church, 14 Judson, Pontiac, at 6:30 p.m., will also feature a skit, 'Shucking of the Corn" and music by the Davis Trio, composed of Mrs. Eleanor Keller, Mrs. Virginia Neimisto and Mrs. Miriam Powell.

★ ★ ★

The featured speaker is Mrs. Howard W. Burden who has been in the ministry with her husband for 43 years. The couple's first ministry was St. James Methodist Church of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Burden and her husband were recently on the staff of the Trinity United Methodist Church in Flint, but they retired in June.

★ ★ ★

Often called "one of the best story tellers in the world," Mrs. Burden has been a member of the National Story League since 1942. She has served as secretary of the National Story League and president of the Central District of the National Story League.

★ ★ ★

An honorary member of the Detroit Story League, she has organized two leagues in Saginaw, one of which has honored her by calling itself the Silvia Burden Story League.

City Choir Union Banquet Tonight

The City Wide Choir Union of Pontiac will hold its annual scholarship banquet at the Sveden House at 8:30 tonight. Guest speaker will be Dr. J. Allen Parker, former pastor of the Newman AME Church.

★ ★ ★

Toastmaster for the evening is Booker Yancey, principal of the Whittier Elementary School. Miss Sylvia Blake is guest soloist.

The banquet is open to the public for a donation of $5 per person.

N. Viet Hit by B52s

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. B52 bombers renewed their raids today on North Vietnamese base camps near the Cambodian border north of Saigon. Intelligence analysts say four enemy divisions are reorganizing there.

Despite little battlefield action, up to 20 of the bombers attacked staging areas ranging from 3 to 25 miles from the border. They also hit other enemy base camps 29 miles east of Saigon.

* * *

American infantry and helicopter reconnaissance patrols using searchlights in some cases killed 26 enemy soldiers during the past 24 hours in clashes ranging from 18 miles south of Saigon to 40 miles northwest of the capital, U.S. headquarters said.

* * *

20 REDS KILLED

South Vietnamese headquarters reported that its militia forces killed 20 enemy soldiers in an ambush Friday nigh about 90 miles south of Da Nang. Four government soldiers were reported wounded.

The U.S. Command said there were eight enemy rocket and mortar attacks overnight, but that only three of them caused casualties or damage.

* * *

The U.S. Command also said that the 3rd Marine Division has abandoned its sprawling Vandegrift combat base near the demilitarized zone.

The base, 14 miles south of the DMZ and 30 miles west of the coast, was the headquarters for the division's 4th Regiment.

* * *

About 15,000 Marines of the 3rd Division already have been withdrawn from South Vietnam. The remaining 12,000 are to be pulled out by Dec. 15 under President Nixon's orders to reduce troop strength by 60,000.

* * *

The Marines had established Vandegrift as their principal western supply point after the Khe Sanh base was vacated. Khe Sanh is six miles west of Vandegrift and was under siege for 2½ months in early 1968.

Of every 100 people who die in Latin America, 45 are children below 5 years of age.
