WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower has been advised that an increase in the federal gasoline tax of one or 1½ cents per gallon will be necessary next year to avoid adding materially to his deficit difficulties.

Highest Living Standard Promised by Khrushchev

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government today promised its people the highest living standards in the world by 1970.

The promise was made in a report on Premier Khrushchev's seven-year economic plan which was approved Wednesday by the Communist party Central Committee.

The plan for the years 1959-1965 calls for an 80 per cent increase in Russian industrial production.

Mental Health Meeting Called

Moore Sets Parley Nov. 25 to Draw Up Emergency Plans

Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore has called upon state mental health officials to meet and plan emergency measures to be placed before a proposed special session of the Legislature.

Judge Moore, chairman of the Probate Judges' Committee on Mental Hospitalization, announced the meeting is scheduled for Nov. 25 at the Michigan State University Union Bldg. in East Lansing.

Invited are Gov. Williams and the state administrative board, the Mental Health Commission, Michigan Society for Mental Health representatives, plus key members of the Legislature.

The latter include House Speaker Appropriations Committee, House George Van Fursem, the Senate Ways and Means Committee, and the chairmen of the House Mental Hospital Committee and the Senate Health and Welfare Committee.

Such a meeting could lay plans to whittle down the long list of mental patients waiting to get into the state's crowded mental institutions, Judge Moore said.

Gov. Williams has not yet indicated whether he would call a special December session of the Legislature to consider the problem. "Prompt emergency action is vital," Judge Moore believed.

"Only combined legislative action and administrative planning can solve the problem. It should be faced immediately," he told Gov. Williams in a letter.

"In fairness to everyone, it must be recognized that the major difficulty is unquestionably the shortage of state funds."

The judges' committee has a two point plan to open up bed space in state hospitals. It recommends: (1) The release back to local counties of approximately 500 mental patients whose primary need is custodial care rather than active psychiatric treatment.

"In exchange, an equal number of beds would thereby be made available for waiting list commitments," Judge Moore said.

(2) The use of approximately 1,000 vacant tuberculosis sanatoria beds for mentally ill patients, beginning with the transfer to sanatoria of mental patients with tuberculosis.

Elliott to Move Up

U. OF M. SHUFFLE — Chalmers (Bump) Elliott will replace University of Michigan coach Bennie Oosterbaan January 1, it was indicated today.

Leaves Football Post After 11 Years at Helm

Bump Elliott Will Step Into Top Wolverine Grid Job From Assistant's Position

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Bennie Oosterbaan resigned today as football coach at the University of Michigan after 11 seasons.

Chalmers (Bump) Elliott, Oosterbaan's top aide and backfield coach, will replace Oosterbaan on Jan. 1.

Both are former Michigan football stars.

Oosterbaan said in a statement: "As is generally known I have for the past three or four years been seriously considering retiring from the head coaching position."

"Last spring at my request this intention was made known to the Athletic Board, which subsequently offered me a fine opportunity to serve the university in another capacity."

"At that time I decided this would be my last year in the head coaching position, and so informed Fritz Crisler."

"There was not the slightest pressure on Bennie," said Crisler, director of athletics at Michigan. "It was up to him entirely. This is a reassignment within the athletic department."

"I think it was four years ago when Ben first suggested that he some day would like to be relieved of the coaching assignment. He said then he was looking forward to the day he could get out."

"It was an independent decision by him. This losing season is not a factor. There was no organized alumni faction against Ben and there was no campaigning for another coach."

Oosterbaan told newsmen: "I considered making the announcement at the opening of the season, but decided to withhold it until the season was over. In view of the recurring rumors, however, I'm making the statement now."

Elliott reportedly will receive an annual salary of $16,000. Oosterbaan's new job is expected to be as assistant athletic director under Crisler, his predecessor as football coach.

Oosterbaan reportedly made $19,000 a year as coach, but it was understood he would take a slight cut in his new job.

Last night in a closed session, a resolution was passed by the Athletic Board stating: "The Board of Control of Intercollegiate Athletics recommends that Chalmers W. Elliott assume the duties of head football coach as of Jan. 1, 1959, at a salary of $16,000 a year."

The board presented this recommendation to the University Board of Regents which has its meeting scheduled for today.

The Regents usually follow the course of action recommended by the Athletic Board, and the appointment of Elliott was expected to come out of today's meeting.

Oosterbaan was appointed head coach in 1948 and has been on the athletic staff since he was graduated from Michigan in 1928.

Oosterbaan will finish out the 1958 season as head coach. Michigan has two games remaining, with Indiana tomorrow and Ohio State the following Saturday.

Hunters to Dominate State Traffic Today

From Our News Wires

LANSING — Michigan traffic this weekend will be dominated by an estimated 300,000-plus deer hunters moving to their favorite spots, most of them getting ready for the 6 a.m. season opening tomorrow.

The Conservation Department estimated the Saturday opening would mean hunters would start their exodus from cities this afternoon and evening.

Actual hunting pressure wasn't expected to be much heavier Saturday than it was during Saturday, the second day of the season, last year.

No extra troopers were assigned by State Police, but a maximum patrol pattern used for all heavy traffic periods was to be in force.

The main routes bearing the brunt of the load of hunters were M66, U.S. 27 and U.S. 23.

The annual invitation by state police to hunters to register camp post was extended also.

One conservation expert said recent factory layoffs might cause traffic to be heavier this evening and tonight. He said many people might work up to the quitting time instead of cutting off work a day or so early.

The pheasant season opened on a day when a large Lansing factory resumed operations after a strike. Pressure in the Lansing area, he said, was considerably below expectations, largely because of the work resumption. Similar thoughts might keep people right on their jobs today instead of their quitting a day or so early.

City Girl Hit by Car in Critical Condition

A nine-year-old Pontiac girl was reported in critical condition today at Pontiac General Hospital after being hit by an automobile yesterday afternoon.

Delores Harris, 385 Branch St., was struck by a car driven by John L. Waldo, 2219 Crane St., Waterford Township. She suffered chest and internal injuries.

The accident occurred on Branch street north of Clove street. Waldo told Pontiac Police he was traveling south on Branch when the girl darted out from between parked cars into the path of his car. He said that he braked but was unable to avoid hitting the girl.

Don't Wait 'Til You're 65 to Retire

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Magazines today are full of articles on the evils of retirement. They're enough to frighten a man out of the desire to grow old. They make retirement sound more dangerous than Sunday driving.

Some people are always knocking a good thing, but we doubt that they'll ever make retirement really unpopular with the working classes. Or, for that matter, government employees.

The big peril seems to be that a fellow suddenly turns 65, is cut off the payroll, and doesn't know what to do with himself. He finds it hard to adjust to a new way of life.

SIMPLE ANSWER

The answer, of course, is simple. Start getting ready for retirement early in life, so when it does come it will find you ready.

Here are a few down-to-earth tips—the kind the magazines don't dare give you:

At 25 start borrowing money from your relatives and friends. If they are like most relatives and friends, it will take you at least 40 years of steady borrowing to build you up a really decent retirement fund.

Begin loafing on the job at 35, and loaf more each year. By the time you're 65 you'll be used to not working, and there'll be no sudden shock when you have to hang up the harness forever. If the boss objects, explain your program to him fully and honestly. He'll understand. He's probably doing the same thing himself.

Since most people spend most of their time making mountains out of molehills, be sure to lay in a good supply of molehills while you are young. You don't want to be caught short in your old age.

START NIPPING

'58 Just 2nd Losing Year for Bennie

Coach Bennie Oosterbaan, who resigned this morning, is completing his 11th season as head coach at the University of Michigan.

Since 1948 when he replaced Fritz Crisler, who assumed the athletic director's duties for the Wolverines, Oosterbaan's record shows 63 wins against 31 losses and four ties.

He will finish the season which has two more games against Indiana Saturday and Ohio State next week.

In his first year the Wolverines won the Big Ten championship with a perfect season. In 1949 Michigan tied for first with Ohio State, and in 1950 the Wolverines took the title and also won the Rose Bowl game against California, 14-6.

This is Oosterbaan's 11-year record at Michigan:

Twin Babies Die of Suffocation

Race With Death Fails to Save 2-Month-Olds at Mount Clemens

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — Policeman Edward Morissette lost out in a race with death Thursday.

On an errand of mercy he sped to a hospital with twin baby girls as passengers in his car.

Morissette drove with one hand. With his free arm, he clasped 2-month-old Wanda Cooper.

Alternately he squeezed his grip and relaxed it, trying to give Wanda artificial respiration. She had shown signs of life.

The other twin in the car was Rhonda. Morissette had taken both from their home.

But at the hospital both Wanda and Rhonda were dead.

The twins, children of Earl Cooper, 26, a Selfridge Air Force Base cook, and his wife, Cornelia, 24, had suffocated in their crib. The Coopers have another daughter, Kim, 18 months.

Prince Charles 10 Today

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Charles celebrated his 10th birthday today by sharing a large cake with his classmates at tea. The rest of the day was spent in class as usual. Charles, who someday will be crowned King of Britain, attended all his classes at the exclusive Cheam School in Berkshire. The tea-time cake was the only note given of his birthday.

Work Law War Cost Teamsters $800,000

NEW YORK (AP) — Harold J. Gibbons, Teamsters vice president, says his union pumped more than $800,000 into labor's battle against enactment of "right-to-work" laws in six states. Gibbons told the Economics Club of City College Thursday that Teamsters locals contributed at least $400,000 and the International union another $400,000 to the campaign. The laws would bar union membership as a condition of employment. Last election day the measures lost in Ohio, California, Colorado, Washington and Idaho and passed in Kansas.

Aunt Asks Paper to Help Cheer Dying Nephew

RICHMOND, Calif. (AP)—Mrs. William Silva has asked the Richmond Independent to help her with a pre-Christmas project—get cards and letters to her dying 4-year-old nephew.

Mrs. Silva wrote the Independent the boy is suffering from cancer and is not expected to live. She said he likes to look at cards and pictures and to greet the mailman.

"We don't expect little Mel to have a Christmas this year so cards and letters from friends would be greatly appreciated as sort of an early Christmas," she wrote.

Senator Says Integration Should Come Gradually

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) suggested today that Congress provide a gradual approach to racial integration of schools.

"So far court decisions and existing legislation have not solved the problems," Jackson said in an interview. "We must find a way so that social patterns can be changed gradually to conform with the law."

Commenting that "small children have few prejudices," he said the best approach might be to start integration in elementary schools.

"I am confident that men of honest intelligence and good will believe that integration is right and legal," Jackson said. He expressed hope that Congress can consider this and other civil rights problems "without the spirit of emotionalism that has caused controversy in some areas in the past year."

Election of 16 new senators,

Jackson said, increases the chance for a revision of Senate rules that now make it difficult to choke off extended debate or filibusters.

He said the new Congress also must find some method of protecting the voting rights of minority groups.

Jackson, re-elected to a new six-year term in the election landslide that boosted Democrats to 64 Senate seats against 32 for Republicans, said he believes all of this can be accomplished without a serious split in Democratic party ranks.

Jackson has supported efforts to loosen the Senate rule which now requires the affirmative vote of 64 senators to choke off debate and force a vote on controversial issues.

Sens. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) have said they will force a test on revision of Senate rules early in the new session which begins Jan. 7.

Ban on Contacts With Federal Regulators Is Congressman's Aim

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Charles A. Wolverton (R-NJ) said today Congress should ban contacts between members of federal regulatory commissions and persons interested in pending cases.

"Contact with members of such commissions should be on the same basis 'as with the courts,'" Wolverton said in an interview.

"No one would ever take a judge out to lunch to try to see how a court case is coming along, yet many persons contact agency and commission members to pry into important cases before them."

Wolverton voiced his opinion as the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee prepared to continue questioning an attorney about vague rumors of a $50,000 payoff solicitation in a television case before the Federal Communications Commission.

The New Jersey congressman is senior Republican on the subcommittee.

Recalled to the witness stand was George O. Sutton, Washington attorney, who had represented a corporation seeking FCC approval to operate TV channel 4 in Pittsburgh.

Prospect Still 'Trying' Car's Radiator, Hoses

DETROIT (AP)—Used car salesman H. A. McFarland saw a man closely examining a late model trade-in. Anxious to make a deal, McFarland gave the man the car keys and told him to take the vehicle for a trial spin.

Hours later, McFarland found the car parked several blocks away, steam pouring out of its engine. Police are looking for the sales prospect and the car's radiator and hoses. Candle production in West Germany in 1957 rose 10 per cent to 10,000 tons. The value of the industry's production jumped 15 per cent to $7,000,000.

Probe in Royal Oak

Welfare Fraud Reported

ROYAL OAK TOWNSHIP—Many families in a low-rent housing development in Royal Oak Township are engaging in an alleged fraud by diverting social welfare grocery and milk orders for other than designated purchases, Chief Assistant Oakland County Prosecutor George F. Taylor disclosed yesterday.

Taylor said "in some instances" families are buying liquor and beer with the cash they are wrongfully receiving from these orders. He warned persons engaging in this practice that they are defrauding the county and are liable for criminal prosecution, which could mean 90 days in jail, a $100 fine, or both, if convicted.

George H. Burt, director of the county Social Welfare Dept., said this practice, "which has been going on for sometime," is not responsible for the record-heavy welfare load plaguing Oakland County this year. He estimated that only about one per cent of the 3,000 families receiving welfare assistance are participating in this illegal practice.

Besides the families, Taylor said several months of investigation in the township disclosed that a number of milkmen and grocery stores are conspiring in this practice in going along with the diversion of orders.

What happens, Taylor explained, is that a family with children is allotted 50 quarts of milk by the department, and given an order for this amount. Instead of taking this full quota, Taylor said, they will often take only 25 quarts and ask the milkman to either give them cash or credit for the other 25 quarts.

"Then they go out and use this money for a number of things other than what the order definitely states it is for," Taylor said. Burt said his department will refuse to reimburse the dairies or grocery firms which have employees engaging in these illegal acts.

"The orders spell out, without question, what they must be used for," Burt said. Taylor said so far his investigation shows this milk-food order fraud is centered only in this section of the county. He said they were continuing to investigate replacement elsewhere.

First to Host School Board

Gingellville Is Visited by Education Heads for Regular Meeting

ORION TOWNSHIP—Held away from the Lake Orion Community High School for the first time, the Lake Orion Board of Education meeting at Proper School was attended by about 50 area residents. The Gingellville school was the first of several district schools to host the board's monthly meeting, following a decision last month to make it more convenient for residents to learn how their Board operates.

Included in business covered in Wednesday night's session was the announcement that the district has secured a driver training automobile from Lake Orion Motor Sales.

The school system this week received $2,087.50 in state aid for its driver training program. This amounts to $12 per pupil, instead of the usual $25, the board said. The cutback was due to an increase of 37 per cent in student enrollment and a decrease of 32 per cent in reimbursement funds.

Action on purchase of liability insurance was tabled by the board, pending further study.

Announcement was made that the old Howarth and Eaton schools no longer being used, will be sold if voters approve the proposed sale in the school election next July.

It was reported books and magazines checked out of the high school library increased by 400 during October.

One-Day Bazaar Held by White Lake Church

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP—A pre-holiday bazaar opened at noon today at St. Patrick's Church, Hutchings and Union Lake roads. Closing hour has been set at 8 tonight with bazaar hours scheduled from noon until 8 p.m. on Sunday.

Sponsored by St. Patrick's Altar Society, the bazaar offers a host of gift articles, including plants, toys, jewelry, aprons, pillowcases, records, candy and books.

Proceeds will be turned over to the St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital expansion fund.

DIANNE DABLER

Romeo Official Reports:

School Finances Failing

ROMEO—The Romeo Community School District is in "bad financial shape as many other districts are," Supt. T. C. Filippula told Romeo Board of Education members at their regular meeting last night.

He blamed the current school crisis on Michigan legislators for failing to set up adequate financing of schools and for the inability to pay state aid to school districts on time.

After the Nov. 21 payroll of $26,000 is met only $3,000 in cash will remain in the bank, Filippula said.

With anticipated income between now and the first of the year to amount to some $55,000, an additional $55,000 is still needed to meet the three payrolls through Jan. 2, plus current bills, the superintendent said.

The Board voted to make application to the Michigan Municipal Finance Commission for approval to borrow $50,000 to tide the district over this lean period.

This is the third time in the past six months Romeo's school officials have had to borrow against future state aid to keep the schools open.

Comments Dr. Jones on Achievements

MSU President Is Keynote Speaker

Van Hoosen Jones of Rochester attended a "This Is Your Life" program Thursday evening at Kingsley Inn. Zonta Club of Pontiac sponsored the event.

Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, was keynote speaker, and Joe Haas of the Pontiac Press editorial staff was toastmaster. Alice D. Serrell conducted the "This Is Your Life" portion of the program.

Dr. Hannah told of the high esteem with which Dr. Jones has been regarded by fellow board members of the State Board of Agriculture at Michigan State University, and by the university as a whole.

Michigan's only master farmer, Dr. Jones was commended for her interest in humanity. In the interest of higher education, she has given her property to the university.

It had long been the intention of the family to give the property to Michigan State University at some future time. In 1956 Dr. Jones thought the time had come and presented the deed to the university.

Reader Needs to Lose

Best Looks Go With Ideal Weight

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN
(The Friday Question Box)
Q. "I know I am overweight. Will you please tell me how much? Older people tell me I am not fat but just look healthy. My husband also tells me this. I am 40 years old, 5 feet 6½ inches tall and weigh 163 pounds. My bust measures 41 inches, waist 32 and hips 43."

"Once I dieted and lost to 141 pounds. Everyone said I looked sick and much older. I am considered a good cook and just love eating what I cook. It worries me all the time even though others do not tell me I am fat. Shall I try to lose some weight and risk looking older just to please myself or be happy as I am? I have a medium large frame."

A. It is difficult to say just what your weight should be. If you have a medium frame, you should weigh about 142. If your frame is actually very large your ideal weight would be 158 to 160.

However, judging by your measurements and the fact that you say a "medium to large frame," I feel sure that you would not be classed as a large build and should lose some. You are some overweight, no matter what.

Since your husband likes you as you are, why not take the ideal weight half way between medium and large and lose enough to reach that. This would be about 154 pounds. You may find that you look your best at 150 pounds. It is true that women look more youthful as they grow older with a little more weight than when younger.

Remember that your older appearance may have come from an incorrect reducing diet and by trying to lose a lot of weight too fast. It is important to health as well as to your own happiness to lose some. Every woman has her ideal weight when her figure is good, her health unimpaired and her face most youthful looking.

Every woman has her ideal weight when her figure is good, her health unimpaired and her face most youthful looking.

Q. "I am 13 years old and wonder if I am old enough to wear a medium high heeled shoe?"

A. That seems pushing it a little. However, if you mean the low but shaped heel it seems to me that this would be appropriate for special occasions.

Q. "I have some dark hairs on my face. What is causing that? Please answer as fast as possible. What can I do about it? Please hurry."

A. Tweeze them or have them removed by electrolysis.

Q. "Please tell me what to do for the dark spots on my face which occurred during my last pregnancy."

A. I do not know of anything one can do for these except give them time. They usually fade out, at least to a great extent. You can use a make-up base to hide them if you wish.

Bob Considine Says:

USO Is Far From Being Out of Business

NEW YORK—Well, what are you doing about USO Pal Day? It's Nov. 19.

We've got 2,500,000 men and women in uniform today, about half of them overseas, half of them under 25, half of them making their first trip away from home.

The USO is one organization that consistently tries to befriend them, amuse them, keep them out of trouble. It needs you.

Lots of people probably think USO went out of business on V-J Day. It's almost as busy as ever, and just as badly needed and in need.

The government doesn't provide it with a quarter. Its funds come from the six national agencies on which its services rest—the YMCA, National Catholic Community Service, National Jewish Welfare Board, YWCA and National Travelers Aid Assn.

Mary Martin was in Alaska for USO last month: Red Barber is somewhere in the South Pacific now, showing clips from the last World Series.

Bob Hope and Hedda Hopper will be on the road to some foreign spot at Christmas time. There are now 245 clubs and centers in the U. S. and Korea, Japan, Alaska, Panama Canal Zone, Hawaii, the Philippines, Greece, Turkey, Italy, France, North Africa and on Guam.

There is a crying need for facilities on Okinawa and in Puerto Rico.

But a lot of good can be done here, too. USO headquarters at 237 East 52nd St., New York 22, N. Y., will tell you what you can do to help with a job which Uncle Sam, for some inscrutable reason, has shirked.

The 80th anniversary edition of the New York City Telephone Co.'s Manhattan Classified Directory requires a certain amount of muscle to read.

It has 2,000 pages, 340,000 listings. The first of the series, issued a year after Alexander Bell first demonstrated the strange gadget that talks, was a single sheet of paper listing 271 subscribers.

There were several deals in "segars" and "passe parous." Forty of the original firms are still in business, several still at the same address.

The "Yellow Pages" spell out the meandering course of man's interests.

Air condition and plastics listings have doubled since 1948; television listings have leaped from two to 16 pages. "Segars," "passe parous" and "buggy whips" seem to be on the wane.

The greatest hot air machine since the invention of the columnist has been created by the Boeing Airplane Company for United Air Lines.

It is a compact 205 horsepower "turbo-starter," a small jet engine to be used to blow life into the great jet engines which will lift United's Douglas DC3s. The gadgets also will be used to "windmill" these engines during maintenance checks; can also blow ice and snow from frozen aircraft.

Careful, United, it might run for Congress.

The government's change of heart in showing material gratitude toward its benefactors is a notable development, it seems to me.

On Dec. 2, the 16th anniversary of the start-up of the world's first nuclear reactor, the Atomic Energy Commission will present Dr. Eugene P. Wigner with a medal and a check for $50,000.

Dr. Wigner's contributions to the release of atomic energy, the development of the A-bomb and the H-bomb, and the perfection of this titanic power for peaceful purposes cannot be said to be paid for by a medal or the check.

But at least a grateful government has taken note of what this Budapest born physicist has achieved in behalf of his adopted land.

The British do it a bit better.

Frank Whittle, who developed the jet engine, was granted $300,000, for example. But at least we're coming around to an acceptance of the fact that some of our people deserve more than a round of applause.

Before he died, just short of 84, James Michael Curley had BE-COME Frank Skeffington, the central figure in "The Last Hurrah."

When that great book first appeared, Curley threatened to sue. But the enthusiasm with which old cronies greeted the word picture of a colorful and heroic Boston politician caused him to change his mind to such a degree that he began speaking and even writing with a Skeffingtonian flare.

He must have died as nobly. God bless him.

Jarrets Claim Record

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Five Jarrett brothers here think they have a railroading record. Collectively, the brothers Curtis, Lyman, Ray, Henry and W. J., are 300 years old and they have spent 230 of those years working for the Seaboard Air Line Railroad.

Dares Argentina to Impeach Him

Official Accused of Plot Says Such an Attempt Would Be 'Hilarious'

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Vice President Alejandro Gomez, accused of plotting an unsuccessful coup d'etat, has practically dared Argentina's leaders to impeach him.

Any impeachment proceedings against him "will be really hilarious," he told newsmen late Thursday night.

Early today the Executive Council of the ruling Intransigent Radical party, to which both Gomez and President Arturo Frondizi belong, decided to expel Gomez from the party and ask him to resign from the government.

Leaders of the government charged Gomez attempted to engineer the ouster of Frondizi by claiming he had military support for a program that included Frondizi's resignation. The president put down the attempt Wednesday night with the backing of the military and members of his Cabinet.

Party members and government leaders appeared to be cooling off toward impeaching Gomez.

Congress would air many government secrets known by Gomez.

The government reported that there have been no arrests as a result of the Gomez affair.

The country is still under the state of siege proclaimed by Frondizi to cope with a threatened nationwide strike of oilworkers.

The oil workers are protesting government plans to bring in foreign capital to develop Argentina's nationalized oil industry.

Scheduled to begin Thursday, the 48-hour strike was postponed for 96 hours after the government report of the attempted coup.

The government could mobilize workers and make them subject to military orders under the provisions of the state of siege.

Ex-President Hoover Gets Service Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover is the first individual to be honored twice by the National Institute of Social Sciences for "distinguished service to humanity."

He received his second award Thursday night. The first was presented to him in 1918.

Also honored for 1958 were James R. Killian Jr., special assistant to President Eisenhower for science and technology; singular Marian Anderson, and Robert B. Anderson, secretary of the treasury.

Ike Silent on Choice of Senate Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is keeping hands off selection of a successor to Sen. William F. Knowland of California as Senate Republican leader, the White House said today.

Press secretary James G. Hagerly labeled as untrue a published report that Eisenhower had passed word that he would like Knowland's job to go to Sen. Styles Bridges (R-NH). Knowland gave up his Senate seat to run for governor of California and was defeated by Democrat Edmund G. Brown.

"That choice is up to Republican members of the Senate," Hagerly said.

Ike's Speeches Take Effort

Moos Says Eisenhower Outlines Draft, Revises First Version

Eisenhower does a lot of work on his speeches, says the man who turns out the finished product.

Malcolm C. Moos only laughed when asked whether it was he who had suggested the new campaign approach which Eisenhower used last month. Eisenhower hit harder than usual then at Democrats, using such terms as spendthrift government and left-wing radicals.

Moos said he had no comment, but quickly added that Eisenhower "knows what he is doing. One should never underestimate him."

He brushed aside the notion that he was a ghost writer in the popular sense for Eisenhower. He first gets from the President himself the rough outline for a presidential speech, and then goes to work to whip it into shape.

"But," Moos said, "the President works over his speeches intensively after he gets the rough draft. He dictates great sections of it at times. He puts himself into it."

Moos said Eisenhower is extremely talented in the organizational structure of his speeches.

"He throws off a lot of sparks on ideas, how he wants to approach a subject, what he wants to say, the kind of research needed and the structure," Moos said.

Moos is new at his job. A professor of political science at Johns Hopkins University, he began his present duties in September.

Moos, 42 and a native of St. Paul, Minn., earned his Ph. D. at the University of California after taking bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of Minnesota.

Seven Member Board Governs Hospital

A seven-member board of directors governs Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Headed by a Detroit businessman, Harry B. Park, the directors are appointed by another board which incorporated the hospital as a non-profit institution in 1933.

The incorporators, all osteopathic doctors, as such do not play a direct role in the operation of the hospital, although several are members of the board of directors.

The hospital's administrator, Harry H. Whitlow, is also appointed by the board of incorporators. The medical director, Dr. LeRoy C. Johnson, is a member of the board of incorporators and was appointed to his job by the board of directors.

Serving with Park on the board of directors are three osteopathic doctors and three other laymen.

Beside Park, the board consists of Drs. Donald E. Fraser, Merton C. Worster and Benjamin F. Dickinson; David C. Pence, E. Verne Todd and Harold W. Kruger. Kruger is vice president of the board.

Park, a graduate of Wayne State University Law School, has been president of the Harno International Corp. in Detroit 15 years. The corporation runs the Harno Tire and Rubber Corp. and the Allied Rubber Products Corp. both Detroit concerns.

Pence is a member of the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons.

In 1934 he joined the hospital's board of incorporators. Dr. Dickinson, his wife and three children live at 2198 Vinsetta Blvd., Royal Oak.

Pence, a Pontiac attorney, has served on the board since 1933 and advises it in legal matters. A graduate of University of Michigan Law School, Pence has been practicing in Oakland County 35 years.

Todd has served on the board since 1934. A businessman, he operates Todd's Shoe Store at 20 W. Huron St. and the Todd Insurance Agency at the same address.

Vice president of the Michigan Shoe Retailers Assn., Todd lives at 190 Cherokee Rd.

Kruger, 47, a Waterford Township insurance agent, has been on the board since it was formed. A native of Ohio, Kruger was once a salesman and has been in the insurance business 17 years. A past member of the Community Activities, Inc., board in Waterford, Kruger has won state and national honors in the insurance business. Married with three daughters, he lives at 4180 Midland St., Drayton Plains.

Congratulations to The Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital on its Grand Opening. Here is a truly "up-to-date" Hospital that will serve its area with conscience.

BEFORE

and Not a Meal Was Lost!

On Sept. 17, 1938, with the cooperation of the hospital, the kitchen personnel on all three shifts reported at one time for a demonstration by factory representatives. Each representative explained in detail the various uses for the piece of equipment his factory had manufactured. This enabled the hospital to utilize each piece to the full efficiency that the manufacturer had built into it.

Mr. Schallman, the consultant in conjunction with Ted Stone, owner of the Auto-City Soap and Chemical Co. is to be commended for their special compound formula which overcame the hard water and other conditions which existed in the dish-washing department.

BEFORE

and Not a Meal Was Lost!

Even with all the planning the goal of uninterrupted service could not have been reached without the wonderful cooperation of Mr. Harry Whitlow, Hospital Administrator, his staff and Mr. William Sternfels of Medical Supply Corp.

Harry Altman and Sons offers its consulting and supervisory services to hotels, clubs and institutions.

- STERLING METAL WEAR CORP.—A Masterful Job of Stainless Steel Construction.

NOT A MEAL WAS LOST

The Impossible was Accomplished when Harry Altman & Sons of Detroit, Michigan, completed the renovation of the entire kitchen without causing an interruption to existing services or the delay or loss of a single meal. This was done by the constant attention and perseverance of the staff of Harry Altman & Sons directed by Mr. Ted Schallman, food consultant, in conjunction with Mr. Allan Rosenberg.

The main kitchen 30'x35' total size overall services an average of 110 patients with centralized service plus a cafeteria for the full hospital staff. The kitchen reminiscent of a resort hotel in the roaring 20's was transformed into the modern and efficient centralized hospital kitchen of today, with unlimited years of useability.

MR. TED SCHALLMAN

Vulcan heavy duty equipment was selected to fill the needs of the hospital because of their excellent reputation for producing quality merchandise as well as having a factory trained service organization available at all times. It was through the use of Vulcan electric cooking equipment that it was possible to reduce the average kitchen temperature better than 30°.

X-RAY CONTROL AND READING ROOM, PONTIAC OSTEOPATHIC HOSPITAL

Of the many applications of science's discovery and use of the X-Ray its use in hospitals and clinics is still the greater. For here it serves the doctor in diagnosis, the patient in treatment of deep disease, the technician in research. But many, many other uses are being made of the X-Ray today, too, in industry. May we help if X-Ray equipment is needed or planned?

Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital Is X-Ray Equipped . . .

completely ready for every type of hospital and clinical work. The new X-Ray Department will thoroughly satisfy the doctor's request for diagnostic plates or treatment.

When X-Ray is prescribed Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital is equipped and staffed to handle the case.

Furnishing and installation of this equipment was our privilege

Recommendation to University Regents Made Last Night

'M' Athletic Board Names Elliott as Coach

Oosterbaan Has No Comment on His Successor

Expect Backfield Aide to Assume Grid Duties January 1st

By JERRY GREEN

ANN ARBOR (U) — Chalmers (Bump) Elliott will become Michigan's head football coach Jan. 1 when Bennie Oosterbaan steps down after 11 seasons.

The Associated Press learned Michigan's athletic board last night recommended Elliott, Oosterbaan's top aide, for the job at an annual salary of $16,000.

The board's resolution was sent to the university's regents, who hold their monthly meeting today.

A university spokesman indicated the regents would discuss the recommendation today although it isn't on their scheduled agenda. The regents traditionally uphold requests from University boards.

"I have no comment," said Oosterbaan last night, when informed of the athletic board's move at a secret meeting.

Som statement was expected from the likeable coach later today. Athletic Director Fritz Crisler, Oosterbaan's predecessor as coach, and several other board members declined comment.

It is known Oosterbaan has been considering his retirement for some time. He was appointed head coach in 1948 and has been on the athletic staff since he was graduated from Michigan in 1928.

Oosterbaan is 52, second oldest Big Ten coach. He was ranked as one of Michigan's greatest all-around athletes in his own football, basketball and baseball playing days. Twice he made the All-America football team as an end.

Elliott, 33, has been Oosterbaan's backfield coach for two seasons. He left a similar post at Iowa to return to Michigan, where he immediately was dubbed Oosterbaan's heir-apparent.

He was a star back on Michigan's unbeaten Big Ten and Rose Bowl champions of 1947. Crisler's final season as coach.

Oosterbaan duplicated Crisler's unbeaten record in 1948 winning the Big Ten title. He coached the Wolverines to a conference championship in 1949 and won it outright along with another Rose Bowl title in 1950.

Over one stretch, Crisler and Oosterbaan combined to coach Michigan to 24 straight victories. The streak was ended by Army in 1950.

Since 1950 Michigan has been unable to win another Big Ten championship.

This season is Michigan's worst since 1936 when Harry Kipke was coach.

The Wolverines, who have games left tomorrow with Indiana and Nov. 22 with Ohio State, have won only twice. Each victory was by a single point as the Wolverines slumped to eighth place in the Big Ten. They've lost four times and tied Michigan State.

After Northwestern trounced Michigan 55-24, its worst 20th century beating, Oosterbaan was hanged in effigy on campus. This was the first outward sign of aggression against the coach who is a legendary campus figure. There were some alumni grumblings about a need for a younger man.

Oosterbaan's players vowed to win the next game for him and they did, edging Minnesota 20-19. The Wolverines haven't won since, losing to Iowa and Illinois.

The Illinois defeat ignited annual speculation that Oosterbaan would retire at the end of this season.

He is expected to announce his resignation after the Ohio State game next week. He'll probably remain in Michigan's athletic administration as Crisler's assistant, taking a slight cut from his estimated $19,000-a-year salary.

Elliott, it was learned, was the only man ever considered as Oosterbaan's successor. There had been repeated reports that the next coach was to be Iowa coach Forest Evashevski or Wisconsin athletic director Ivy Williamson. Both played football for Michigan.

The blond Elliott coached backfield at Oregon State before moving to Iowa in 1952 to serve under Evashevski.

Elliott is an excellent recruiter. Inefficient recruiting has been blamed for Michigan's decline in recent seasons.

THURSDAY'S FIGHTS
LOS ANGELES—Mario Delmon, 110½, KO'd, disappointed Abe Villa, 140, Los Angeles, 10.
BOISE, Idaho—Glen Burgess, 150, Meridian, Idaho, and Dick Goldstein, 146, Seattle, drew, 10.

FAMOUS WOLVERINES — Two of the most outstanding players in University of Michigan football are in the headlines again today in regard to the Wolverine coaching picture. Coach Benny Oosterbaan (right) was last night removed from the head coaching job, and Chalmers (Bump) Elliott was recommended as his successor. This was a picture of the two during the recent rumors circulating about the change.

HEADING NORTH — Two Pontiac devotees of the hunt, Ralph Norvell (left), and Jim Jenkins, neighbors on Wenonah Drive, were caught by The Press cameraman stowing deer hunting gear at the Norvell home, 46 Wenonah. They left Thursday afternoon for Camp 24, at Curran. The scene was typical of hundreds of area homes where hunters prepared for the annual deer season, starting Saturday, ending Nov. 30.

15 PCH Seniors in Grid Farewell

Fifteen Pontiac Central grid-ders will be playing their final high school football game tonight when the Chiefs close out their 1958 season against Flint Central in a Saginaw Valley Conference tussle at Wiser Stadium.

EMC Runners Rated Tops for NCAA Race

WHEATON, Ill. (U) — A field of 21 teams and 152 runners from 11 states will compete in the first NCAA college division cross country meet tomorrow.

A four-mile course is mapped out on the Chicago Golf Club.

Eastern Michigan College has been installed the favorite with top contenders being Roanoke College of Salem, Va., Northern Illinois University, Wabash College of Crawfordsville, Ind., South Dakota State, Wheaton, and Kansas State of Emporia.

Conference Championships Also on Line

May Complete Bowl List Saturday

By United Press International

Conference championships and bowl berths dominate Saturday's college football program with top-ranked Louisiana State and Oklahoma heavy favorites to land the lucrative New Year's day assignments in the Sugar and Orange Bowls.

LSU, one of only two major perfect record teams in the country, is a solid 15-point favorite to whip Mississippi State in a night game at Jackson, Miss., while Oklahoma, ranked sixth, is a 16-point favorite to whip Missouri at Norman, Okla.

Victory over Mississippi State would all but clinch a Sugar Bowl berth for the Bayou Bengals since their chief rivals for the Southeastern Conference title—Auburn and Mississippi—are either out of the running or about to be. Auburn is ineligible for bowl competition and Mississippi already has lost to LSU.

Oklahoma and Missouri are tied (4-0) for first place in the Big Eight and Saturday's meeting will resolve that race. The Sooners, 6-1 overall, will be shooting for their 70th straight conference victory in this one. Missouri is 5-3 overall.

Clemson, another team with an eye on a bowl berth, is in a strong position to land the assignment alongside of Oklahoma if it beats North Carolina State, while California, which has the inside track to the Rose Bowl berth against Iowa, can begin getting ready for the New Year's day festivities if it defeats Washington.

Coach Frank Howard's Clemson Tigers are only seven-point favorites over N.C. State, a team which lost to Mississippi Southern, the nation's top-ranked small college team, in a tradition-laden game at Raleigh, N.C. Clemson is 5-3 overall, while State is 2-5. If Clemson loses then the race for the conference title won't be resolved until next week pending how North Carolina fares against Duke and the Tigers against Furman.

California (4-1) is favored over Washington in their Pacific Coast game at Seattle, while Washington State (5-2) and Oregon State (4-2) are in contending positions if the Golden Bears falter. State plays outside opponent College of Pacific, while Oregon State meets Stanford.

The situation in the Southwest Conference and Ivy League is somewhat muddled, but only the Southwest race involves a bowl berth.

Texas Christian and Rice are tied for first place with 3-0 records and more than likely will still be there when they meet next Saturday. Tomorrow TCU plays Texas and Rice meets Texas A&M.

In the Ivy, where they play for berths rather than post-season games, Dartmouth (4-1) and Cornell (4-1) meet in the day's top game. However, Princeton (also 4-1) meets a soft touch in Yale, so it may be another week before this championship is resolved.

Among the top prospects:

Gary Ballman, 197-pound all-stater from East Detroit; all-state Larry Hudus, 195 pounds, Detroit; Tony Kumiega, 205 pounds, Chicago, Mass.; and Ed Ryan, 200 pounds, Chicago.

MSU Eyes Its Freshman

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Michigan State's freshman football team holds the second of a three-game series of intra-squad contests today.

Out of the series is expected to come the prospects to get the Spartan varsity back on winning ways next year.

Already there are indications the freshman squad holds the solution to MSU's primary weakness—a lack of power backs.

Indiana Home Finale for Oosterbaan

11 Years for Bennie

ANN ARBOR (U) — Bennie Oosterbaan enters Michigan Stadium for the last time in an active capacity tomorrow when his Michigan team meets Indiana.

The Wolverine coach will retire following next week's finale against Ohio State at Columbus after 11 seasons as head man.

Oosterbaan is favored by six points to coach his beloved Wolverines to victory in his Michigan Stadium swan song. He starred on the same gridiron for Michigan as an All-America end in 1927, the season the stadium opened.

The gentle veteran has coached there ever since, first as an assistant, and since 1948 as head coach.

Only 47,000 fans are expected, which would be the 101,001-seat bowl's smallest crowd since 1953.

Michigan has lost its last two games and has won only two one-point victories in seven starts in its worst campaign since 1936. Oosterbaan's squad is entrenched in eighth place, lowest since he became coach.

Tomorrow Oosterbaan will be minus his best runner, left half-back Darrell Harper, who has a leg injury. The Wolverine captain, John Herrstein, has been shelved for the season.

TO START — Tommy Wilson sophomore from Lapeer, was named by coach Duffy Daugherty to start at quarterback for Michigan State Saturday when the Spartans play Minnesota in the final Big Ten game.

Herrstein's knee injury in the third game began a series of setbacks that have hounded Oosterbaan all season. Michigan has 2-4-1 record.

Michigan's hopes are built around quarterback Bob Ptacek, the last outstanding player developed in the Oosterbaan regime. Ptacek has been playing about 50 minutes a game in an almost one-man effort to offset Michigan's rapid decline.

Indiana, a perennial tallender, has climbed to seventh place in Phil Dickens' first year as coach.

The Hoosiers are riding their greatest victory surge since their Big Ten championship season of 1945. Winners only once last year, they have a three-game victory streak.

Indiana has yielded but a single touchdown in those three games. The last two were duplicate 6-0 conference victories over Minnesota and Michigan State.

Reds vs. 'M' in Hockey

NEW YORK (U) — A Russian hockey team is going to play in seven U.S. cities in January on a tour of this country. The Russians will play against an American team composed of college players and amateurs in the armed forces.

One of the games will be at Detroit Jan. 6. The Russians at that time will meet the University of Michigan team.

New York Starts Wheels Turning to Add Loop

To Diamond Officials Skeptical Due to Present Problems

NEW YORK (U) — For the first time since the Federal League era nearly half a century ago organized baseball was confronted today with the threat of an independent third major league.

New York City, virtually abandoning hopes of obtaining a National League franchise, set in motion the drive for the new league.

Baseball officials, already faced with such problems as controlling television, antitrust inquiries and collapsing minor leagues, met the surprise move with generally skeptical comments. Even baseball minded people in major-league minor league cities viewed the proposal warily.

Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick said, "Baseball is not going to be sledge-hammered."

Frank Lane, general manager of the Cleveland Indians, quipped, "First I think they have to catch one team before they can catch eight."

But it was this inability of the nation's largest city to catch a team to replace the Giants and Dodgers that touched off the latest bomb in baseball's already simmering hot stove.

Yesterday, William Shea, chairman of Mayor Robert Wagner's committee on baseball, announced at a press conference that it is getting nowhere in its bid to land a National League franchise, would start negotiations for a third major league with an unnamed National League executive.

Shea insisted that the committee would like to see the league formed with the cooperation of the current majors, but added that he felt New York had run into a blind alley in efforts to acquire an existing National League franchise or gain one through NL expansion. He accused NL President Warren Giles of evasive action in New York's bid.

The concept of a third major league is not new. Frick is for it. Most of the club owners favor it. But the general feeling is that the time is not ripe and there are not sufficient players or adequate playing sites available.

Giles said last night, "I fully appreciate the desire of New York for a National League franchise and have felt that would come about in the foreseeable future."

But it will not be accomplished by threats . . . forming a third major league in or out of the present baseball structure is easier to accomplish through a press release than actually getting the cities, parks and players."

Yet Shea said the impetus for the third league movement came from within the National League. She said these groups of interested persons were in Houston, Dallas-Fort Worth, Atlanta, Toronto, Denver, Miami, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Detroit and several other cities on the West Coast.

Wings' Big Line Does Scoring in 3-1 Victory

BOSTON (U) — One of the major problems the Boston Bruins face is how to halt Detroit's Norm Ullman-Gordie Howe-Alex Delvecchio line.

The big forwards continued to haunt the Bruins and prevented them from moving into the National Hockey League's top berth last night in a 3-1 Red Wing verdict at the Garden.

Each of the three scored a goal. Ullman had two assists while his mates contributed one each.

Detroit leads the series between the clubs two games to one. In those contests the Ullman-Howe-Delvecchio combine has accounted for five of the seven Red Wing goals and 12 of the 17 points.

Oddly enough the score of each game was 3-1.

The outcome left the Bruins with 17 points behind, idle Montreal's 15, Detroit tied Chicago for third place at 14 points each.

Boston's only score was so hotly contested by goalie Terry Sawchuk that he drew a 10 minute misconduct and narrowly missed a game misconduct.

Don McKenney crossed in front of the goal and fired in a pass from Johnny Buick. The puck came out as fast as it had gone in and Sawchuk made no effort on it. He apparently thought the shot had hit the inside of the post and bounded out.

Sawchuk twice charged referee Dalton McArthur—the first time he slammed his stick on the ice and drew a misconduct. The second time, when the penalty was announced, he bumped into the referee hard but no added penalty was called.

PGA Changes Rules on Pros

Apprenticeship Period Reduced, Add Training Course

CLEARWATER, Fla. (U) — The Professional Golfers' Assn. of America Thursday changed the apprenticeship period of a pro golfer from five playing years to four playing years plus a year at a training school.

The new ruling, adopted at the PGA's annual meeting, applies to both tournament and teaching pros. The one-year training will be taken at one of two PGA assistant training schools.

One school already is operating in Clearwater. The other will open in January at Alameda, Calif.

The PGA members also voted to have the tournament committee composed of the PGA president, secretary and treasurer and four tournament players. This new setup, effective next August, eliminates a member-at-large.

The meeting also approved a resolution, effective immediately, to seek to arrange a sponsor and a site for a match play tournament for all PGA members. This resolution in no way affects the annual PGA championship tourney.

Detroit Won Last Night, 119-110

Pistons Host Nats Tonight

DETROIT (UPI) — The Detroit Pistons, riding a two-game win streak and only a game out of first place in the NBA's Western Division, meet the Syracuse Nats tonight in the University of Detroit Memorial Building.

The Pistons moved up to the 500 mark — exactly where they were this time last season — with a 119-110 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers in New York last night.

The game was a battle for second place in the Western Division and the victory gave Detroit a 5-5 season record. The leading St. Louis Hawks are 4-3.

Gene Shue scored half of his 32 points in the fourth quarter to lead the Pistons.

Minneapolis, trailing all the way, came within four points at the start of the last quarter but quick baskets by Phil Jordan and Shue gave the Pistons a 93-86 edge and they never were headed.

George Yardley, the league's leading scorer, sat out most of the last period but wound up with 32 points and 19 rebounds to lead the losers.

Two Waterford hockey players, Tom Reynolds and John Sanderson who played with a team in the Birmingham Hockey League last year, found out what a small world this is. Reynolds, now playing with the Phoenix Apaches in the California hockey league, bumped into a player on the ice playing for the Pomona Panthers. It was Sanderson.

The Oakland B Conference will hold its annual league meeting Monday night at the La Honda on M59 toward Ulica near Mound road. The All-League team will be selected that night.

Avondale's Oakland-B football champions were feted to dinner by Auburn Heights businessman Carl Pike this week.

Next Tuesday night at the Inter-Lakes Conference meeting at Southfield a basketball exhibition will be held with three officials being used in the game. The Inter-Lakes may try the setup of using three officials in their games this season.

Bob Minewasser, ex-St. Mike football and basketball coach, is back in the coaching ranks. He will coach a team of Pontiac Northern students in the Class D city recreation league.

Walt Beach of Pontiac needs 144 yards in the final game against Western Illinois Saturday to set an unprecedented mark at Central Michigan of going two straight seasons with more than 1,000 yards gained rushing.

Two Central Michigan baseball players signed pro contracts recently. Freshman pitcher Jack Erwin of Ann Arbor signed with a Redleg farm, and infielder Jack Hoffman with a Giants' farm.

A total of $295,000,000 was spent on golfing equipment this past season, but because the pros shops get only $48,000,000 of the total, Bob Toke has started a movement to promote pro-shop sales.

Jerry Taylor of Walled Lake and Doug Hales of Waterford were among the 12 Hillsdale players dropped from the football team yesterday by coach Muddy Waters as disciplinary measures.

Three Table Tennis Teams Post Shutouts

Newberry, A & W Root Beer and Pankey's scored 6-0 shutouts and league-leading Nutrilite won 5-1 to feature play in the Pontiac Table Tennis Association loop last night. L. H. Cole Oil took the other match.

Bill Wettlaufer edged John Willis 21-19, 17-21, and 21-19 in the outstanding men's division battle of the program.

The standings:

Pts.	Team	Pts.
31	Arnold Sign	19
29	Newberry Mkt.	14
28	A & W Root Br.	14
27	Dorris & Son	13
26	Capital Barber	12
25	Huron Cleaners	4
18	L. H. Cole Oil	18
17	Phoebe Hardware
