FRIENDS ROADSHOW PERFORMS APRIL 1

Friends Roadshow, the international touring company offering a multi-media vaudeville review, will perform free at Oakland University Wednesday, April 2.

The company will present roving shows between noon and 3 p.m. in the Oakland Center, Vandenberg Cafeteria, and in the lobbies of classroom buildings. A 4 p.m. stage performance in the South Cafeteria of the Oakland Center will conclude the day's program.

Friends Roadshow is a professional company based in Ann Arbor. The performances feature mime, juggling, acrobatics, dance, acting, music, and comedy.

The program is offered by the Concert/Lecture Board of the University Congress.

TWO OU STUDENTS WIN $3,600 NSF FELLOWSHIPS

Two Oakland University seniors are winners of National Science Foundation Graduate Fellowships. The prestigious awards give each winner $3,600 per year for three full years of graduate study.

The OU winners are Irene Gennick, a chemistry major who resides at 4316 Bernice in Warren, and Gregory Chilenski, a psychology major who resides at 1395 Gambrell in Pontiac.

Gennick plans to do graduate study in organic chemistry at the University of Wisconsin. Chilenski plans to study social-psychology at the State University of New York at Albany.

More than 5,770 students from throughout the United States competed for the 550 NSF fellowships. Winners were chosen on the basis of outstanding ability in sciences, mathematics, and engineering.

Each recipient may take up to five years to use the funds so that time-off may be taken for significant teaching or research assistantship opportunities.

CHERYL SAVAGE SINGS GERMAN SONGS

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures is presenting a recital of German song by Cheryl Savage, departmental secretary. The program will be held Saturday April 5, at 8:15 p.m. in the Clubhouse near Meadow Brook Hall.

Tickets at $3 each may be obtained by calling 377-2060.

The soloist is featured with the Cantata Academy of Metropolitan Detroit and director of music at St. John Fisher Chapel. Her program will consist of a number of songs by Ludwig Spohr, the song cycle "Die Frauenliebe und Leben" by Robert Schumann, and a number of songs by Franz Schubert, including the chamber piece, "Der Hirt auf dem Felsen." Accompanying artists will be Beverly Labuta, piano, and Robert Davis, clarinet.

Refreshments will be served after the concert. Because of limited seating arrangements in the Clubhouse, only 100 tickets will be sold.

FOUR STUDENTS GIVE PSYCHOLOGY PAPERS

Four Oakland undergraduate students have had research papers accepted for presentation at the Grand Valley State College Undergraduate Research Conference on April 12.

Working under the supervision of Virginia O'Leary, psychology, are Judy Pearson, whose topic is "Differentiation of Skill Versus Luck Attributions Among Females," and James Donoghue, whose is "The Effect of Sex Typing of Traits and Role Orientation on the Perception of Men."

The two students who have worked with Amos Spector, psychology, are Kevin E. Brown and Ronald D. Lyons. Brown's topic is "Difficulties in Perceiving Dichotically Presented Information." Lyons will speak on "Probability of Arbitrary Versus Nonarbitrary Stimulus Response Pairing in Choice Reaction Time."

HUNGER FORUM
SET FOR APRIL 7

"World Hunger/Detroit Hunger!" is the title of an Oakland University forum to be held from noon to 1 p.m. on Monday, April 7.

The free program in the Gold Room of the Oakland Center will feature Charles Grenville, food center director for Detroit's Focus: Hope.

The forum is sponsored by the OU chapter of the World Hunger Group. The sponsors ask that members of the OU community give up lunch on April 7 as a demonstration of their concern for the world hunger problem.

DOW NAMED ASSOCIATION FELLOW

James Dow, sociology and anthropology, has been elected to the status of Fellow of the American Anthropological Association.

PITTS TO SPEAK AT SOCIOLOGY MEETING

Jesse R. Pitts, sociology and anthropology, will be the discussant of the section on "Perspectives of Professionals" for the Midwest Sociological Society meetings in Ann Arbor on Friday, April 11.

O'LEARY, HAMMACK ARTICLE ACCEPTED FOR PUBLICATION

An article by Virginia O'Leary, psychology, and Barbara Hammack, a recent graduate of the master's degree program in clinical psychology, has been accepted for publication by the Journal of Sex Roles. The article is entitled, "Sex-role Orientation and Achievement Context as Determinants of the Motive to Avoid Success."

STONE HAS ARTICLE ON JOBS PUBLISHED

Eugene F. Stone, management, is the author of an article entitled "Job Scope, Job Satisfaction, and the Protestant Ethic." The article has been accepted for publication in the Journal of Vocational Behavior. The article reports the results of empirical research involving a sample of enlisted men in the United States Navy.

BROWN, SACKS CHAIR ANTHROPOLOGY WORKSHOP

Judith K. Brown and Karen Sacks, anthropology, will be chairpersons for a workshop on the teaching of anthropological approaches to sex roles. The program will be held at the April 3-5 meeting in Detroit of the Central States Anthropological Society.

AKERS SPEAKS

Charles Akers, history, spoke March 11 to an assembly of grades nine through eleven at Pontiac Catholic High School on "The Bicentennial: Why and How High School Students Should Get Involved."

WEINSTEIN'S PAPER RECEIVES RECOGNITION

Alan G. Weinstein, economics and management, has authored a paper which has been selected as one of thirty outstanding articles demonstrating the growth of knowledge about the nature of public opinion, public opinion change, its influences on behavior, and its historical roots.

Weinstein's paper entitled "Predicting Behavior from Attitudes," originally published in 1972, will be included in an anthology on public opinion to be published in 1975 by Public Opinion Quarterly.

OU IS FOURTH IN NCAA;
TWELVE SCHOOL RECORDS SET

The Oakland University swimming team gathered 14 individual and three relay All-American awards. In addition, 12 school records were set by 11 different swimmers at the NCAA division II Swimming and Diving Championships held last weekend.

OU finished fourth in the meet behind winner California State University Northridge, California State University at Irvine, and Eastern Illinois University. The Illinois school edged OU out of third place by three points.

Sophomore Rod Mitchell collected medals for his second place finish in the 100 freestyle in 46.9 and third place in the 200 individual medley in 1:58.3. Sophomore Paul Karas placed third in the 200 and 500 yard freestyles with times of 1:44.3 and 4:41.3. All four times were new Oakland school records.

Three freshmen won medals for placing in the top six. Dale Swezene was third in the 50 yard freestyle in 21.4, Jim Hanson finished fourth in the 100 butterfly at 52.4, and Dale Kelley placed sixth in the 100 backstroke clocked at 56.0.

Oakland's 400 medley relay of Gary Lauinger, Jim Hanson, Tim Brooks, and Rod Mitchell finished fifth in 3:37.4, and the 400 freestyle relay with Mitchell, Dale Swezene, Tom Boyd, and Paul Karas placed third in 3:11.1.
