2,000 Homeless, 22 Are Known Dead as Three Twisters Hit West Michigan

Twisters Leave at Least 45 Dead Across 10 States

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A series of tornadoes and destructive windstorms struck with unabated fury across 10 states in the mid-continent yesterday, killing at least 45 persons and injuring more than 300 others.

The violent spring storms, battering areas from the Midwest prairie lands southward into Mississippi, came in the wake of tornadic winds which raked the Southwest earlier yesterday and Monday night.

The casualty toll for the past two days of tornadoes was at least 55 dead and more than 325 injured. Property damage was estimated in the millions of dollars.

(See separate Michigan stories, pages 1 and 2)

Eight were killed and more than 50 injured in two Wisconsin communities.

The dusty fingers of the storms touched down on the Portage County hamlet of Bancroft, killing two persons, then moved on to Berlin, where six died.

At Berlin, a city of nearly 5,000 residents on the Green Lake-Waushara County line, an appalling casualty list was avoided by merest chance.

In Lexington, Tenn., a broad section of the town was gone with the wind today and the wonder is that so many lives were spared.

Temperatures ranged around 48 degrees but Wymer splashed around for 10 minutes. "It was mighty chilly but I won my $2," Wymer said.

Search Continues Today for Bodies Among Debris

Grand Rapids and Allegan, Traverse City Areas Total Damage in Millions

By EDWARD J. MARKAITY and GEORGE WALKER

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Savage spring tornadoes cut a wide swath of death and destruction across western Michigan last night.

State police said rescue workers had recovered 22 bodies. There could be a number of others under the debris of demolished homes and stores.

More than 200 were injured and property damage ran into the millions of dollars. Some 2,000 persons were left without homes.

The U. S. Weather Bureau here says at least three separate tornadoes struck Michigan last night. Many smaller tornado fingers were formed from the same air mass that built up the main twisters.

One tornado struck the Grand Rapids area; another hit to the southwest near Allegan, and a third ripped through the Traverse City area. The Traverse City tornado was accompanied by six tornado fingers.

Communities the bureau listed as severely damaged included Hudsonville, Grandville, Standale and Comstock Park. Damage was said to be less severe at Allegan, Fennville, Holland, Rockford, Sparta, Caledonia and Traverse City.

Weathermen said the tornadoes were triggered when a fast-moving cold front hit a thick moist air mass primed by high temperatures.

Hardest hit was the town of Hudsonville, a community of 1,300 in the heart of an onion and celery growing area 10 miles southwest of Grand Rapids. Scores of homes were demolished by the twister there and at least 17 persons were killed.

Four bodies were found in a trailer camp in Grand Rapids' northwest outskirts. A farm woman died in one of several tornadoes that swept through the Traverse City area, 100 miles north.

Nearly 1,000 National Guardsmen were mobilized to assist in rescue operations.

Firemen, state and local police and civil defense workers labored through the night, probing through wreckage in a search for the injured and dead. Others stood guard to prevent looting.

Communication and power facilities were knocked out, isolating several communities and leaving them in total darkness.

Hospitals in Grand Rapids, and nearby Zeeland and Holland were jammed to capacity and all available medical help was summoned.

It was Michigan's worst tornado since the disastrous June 8, 1953, twister that killed 130 in Flint.

STANDALE WIPED OUT

The storm literally wiped out the business district of Standale, eight miles west of here. Fifteen buildings lining State Highway 50, all less than 10 years old, were leveled within seconds. Damage was estimated at one million dollars.

Builders' Show Begins 5-Day Run

Despite gray skies, crowds at the Pontiac Builders' Show are expected to reach record opening-day proportions today as the annual event begins a five-day run at the Pontiac Armory.

More than 40 contractors, builders' supply, insurance and financial firms will depict various phases of house planning and construction in display booths located in the Armory's main hall.

The official opening was signaled today at 1 p. m. when show officials and local government leaders gathered to cut the ceremonial ribbon at the hall's entrance. The annual event, the third of its kind, is sponsored by the Pontiac Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Attendance is expected to reach its height this weekend, according to Chairmen Leslie Langford and Donald Weddle, who predict that the number of viewers will be the largest in the local history of the event.

Besides materials and financing advice, displays will contain floral and landscaping layouts, house models, insurance plans and the newest innovations in furnishings and equipment.

The show will be open from 4 to 10 p. m. today and tomorrow, from 1 to 10 p. m. Friday, 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. Saturday, and from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sunday.

Proceeds will be used to finance local Junior Chamber of Commerce community and youth projects, according to Langford.

Tornado Jitters Rampant as Area Hears Warning

Many Pontiac area residents suffered a case of nervous jitters last night after hearing of the tornado that struck the Grand Rapids area.

And when southern Michigan was alerted for a tornado until 12:30 a.m., the switchboards at local law enforcement agencies were buzzing constantly.

Oakland County Sheriff Dept., Pontiac State Police Post, and the Pontiac Police all reported a flood of calls.

The sheriff's office reported approximately 150 calls from worried citizens throughout the county as to what to do in case a tornado struck the area.

Many vividly remember the twister that killed 130 in Flint on June 8, 1953. Others can't forget the tornado that struck 18 days earlier in the Port Huron-Sarnia area.

The night watchman at the Municipal Airport was kept busy answering the phone for requests on wind speeds. There were gusts from 25 to 35 miles per hour reported with the highest being 40 m.p.h.

But jitters were about all that happened to area residents last night. The only damage was reported in Waterford Township, to a garage and car belonging to Donald Fraser of 4790 Hatchery road. Strong winds buckled the door against the car.

The Oakland County Red Cross chapter announced this morning that they were standing by to supply help to the stricken Grand Rapids area.

Fair Share Head Says 'Go Home'

Brengle Threatens New Picketing Action Unless Prices Are Hiked

The threat that Fair Share farmers will "fight again" unless current negotiations bring higher raw milk prices was voiced last night by Rolland M. Brengle, president of the insurgent group.

The leader told 700 members at a rally in Brighton last night to "go home, sell milk and wait for developments," hinting that the organization of rebel MMPA members will seek a higher price than the 59 cents a hundredweight won by the Michigan Milk Producers Ass'n.

Creameries in the area expect supplies to return to pre-strike levels tomorrow, crediting a flood of milk from out-state areas for bringing shipments back to necessary capacity.

The latter flow of milk was blamed by Fair Share leaders for compelling picketing farmers to call off the tieup yesterday. Shipments returned to normal Monday after court orders restrained Fair Sharers from mass picketing along state highways leading to the area.

Consumers are expected to pay retail price increases ranging from one to 1½ cents a quart for milk and corresponding hikes in other dairy products. Before the strike, milk sold generally for 22 cents in stores and 23 cents delivered.

No widespread boost in the cost-per-glass price of milk is foreseen by local restaurants.

City Periled by Factory Fire 50 Years Ago Today

Fifty years ago today Pontiac residents were awakened in the early morning hours to one of the most fierce fires in the city's history, — one that threatened to destroy the entire town.

Fire broke out at 3:25 a.m. at the R. D. Scott Co. carriage factory located where the Grand Trunk Railway freight house is today situated on Jackson street.

Before the inferno was put under control at 11 a.m., it had caused a $100,000 damage and had leveled seven homes, three barns, a pump house and repair shops.

Carried by high winds in the frosty morning, embers from the four-story factory had spread throughout a mile area to the south of the center of the city.

Mayor Harry Guillot put in a plea for help to Detroit, which rushed horses and fire equipment on a Grand Trunk train to the frightened city. It took one hour and 12 minutes for the train to arrive, but the apparatus wasn't needed and was never unloaded.

A retired Pontiac Fire Chief, Frank W. Kuhn, now living in Drayton Plains, remembers the fire well. "I was working for the factory as a carriage trimmer and I, like the rest of the city, got out of bed to watch the blaze," he said.

"I went to work for a Elkhart, Ind. carriage factory with two others forced out of work by the fire and then came back to Pontiac to join the fire department," he added.

It took but two hours for the brick building to do down in flames. Residents of Orchard Lake avenue homes and others scampered around in bed clothes to spray their houses with garden hoses to fight off hot sparks from the blaze.

The fire was discovered by a Grand Trunk brakeman aboard a train pulling into a siding near the factory. He gave an alarm with the train's whistle to awaken the city.

Fire Chief Fred Shaw was pulled out of bed by the long shrill of the whistle as thousands of other terrified town folk ran to their windows.

Shaw said the cause of the fire was of "incendiary origin."

The carriage plant was about to be sold to C. V. Taylor as the five trustees that had operated it since Scott's death in 1904 were running into financial difficulty because of the advent of the vehicle industry.

It housed 50 employes usually but when business was in its prime this was boosted to 150.

The only casualty was a cow on the John Smith place belonging to James Lamb. Another man received a cut wrist from falling glass.

The five trustees had $65,000 insurance on the building.

Taking advantage of the intense heat radiated by the fire, railroad workers attempted to straighten tracks which were still red hot.

Detroit Fire officials congratulated Shaw and the department for preventing the fire from spreading further than it did.

Even without spreading further than it did, the fire won a place in the history of Pontiac and the memory of old time city residents.

Arrest 3 Youths in City Breakin

Cut Wrist and Pennies Lead to Booking for Investigation

A cut wrist and blood on a broken window led to the arrest of three youths last night in the investigation of a gas station burglary earlier at 380 N. Saginaw St., Pontiac police said.

Stopped in their car for a traffic violation at the corner of W. Pike St. and Cass Ave. the trio, all minors, were taken to headquarters for alleged possession of beer.

Officers noticed blood on one boy's wrist and a quantity of pennies in another's pockets.

They were booked for questioning today in the theft of $1 in pennies from the cash register and an undetermined amount of dimes from a vending machine, which had been pried open with a crow bar, found at the station, police said.

The building apparently was entered through a corner window, police said, where blood was found on broken glass. The owner, Harry Miller, 380 N. Saginaw St., estimated the loss, they added.

struck. They scurried into basements and huddled against walls until the storm was over. Many were injured.

Donald Hatch, owner of a drug store, said he saw the black funnel bearing down and shouted to clerks and customers to "hit the floor."

"Everybody did," he said. "And then the tornado came with a roar that sounded like an express train. When it was all over there was only one wall left standing.

NOTHING TO GUARD

In Northern Michigan, an airman from nearby Empire Air Base ambled onto the road at nearby Cedar Run as dawn appeared this morning to see what he had been assigned to guard against looting last night.

"Will you look at that," he mumbled, "there ain't nothing here to guard."

He had been watching the remains of a general store in one of four places where a skipping twister raked everything in its path to the ground in this area within 45 minutes last night, killing one and injuring 18.

It first appeared at Thompsonville, 17 miles southwest of Traverse City near Lake Michigan, where Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Parks lived in a farm-home. Seconds later, the Parks home was no more and Mrs. Parks, 55, was dead, trapped as the home crumbled around them. Parks is in critical condition in a Traverse City hospital.

Then, moving in a straight line almost due north, it hit Lake Ann, where it touched for some 300 yards, injuring one.

Three miles and seconds later, the small community of Cedar Run felt the fury of the black funnel. Curiously, it leveled completely one side of the road, taking half the town, and left the other half across the street unharmed.

When it passed three homes, a general store and a barn on the ill-fated side of the road, were a mass of rubble and 12 persons were in the hospital.

The fourth place hit was Solon, 11 miles northwest of Traverse City. Two were injured there. It was last seen brushing an area near Suttons Bay, 7 miles north of Traverse City.

Volunteers Rush to Posts

Hospitals Quickly Become Front Line Aid Stations

(FROM AP and INS WIRE SERVICES)

GRAND RAPIDS (INS) — The hospitals of Grand Rapids changed from staid institutions to front-line dressing stations in a matter of moments last night after the tornado hit the area.

Butterworth Hospital handled most of the injured. It truly resembled a battlefield dressing station when doctors and nurses were forced to work by candlelight during a 30-minute power failure.

Blood donors arrived at Butterworth, St. Mary's and Blodgett hospitals within moments after the twister struck. Doctors from all over the city headed for the nearest hospital.

Physicians attending the Michigan Convention of the Academy of General Practice swarmed out of their hotels to give aid.

Off-duty nurses returned to their jobs unbidden.

Every ambulance in the city appeared to rush spontaneously to the stricken areas.

At several hospitals, convalescents and patients in for observation checked out voluntarily to make their beds available.

Wards at Butterworth were so crowded for a time that the nearby National Guard Armory was opened as a receiving station to free ambulances for more trips.

Rescue operations were aided by an unusually heavy contingent of available State Police. Many were troopers normally assigned to posts in the Upper Peninsula who had been brought down because of milk strike disorders and had not yet started home after the boycott's end yesterday.

Dull Evening Spawned Tornado

By EDWARD J. MARKAITY

From my back porch in Grand Rapids yesterday I watched a dull evening spawn a tornado.

An hour after the boiling sky stabbed its vicious funnel at the ground I joined firemen, police, civil defense and volunteer workers at ruined Standale, some eight miles west of Grand Rapids.

Standale, mainly a shopping center occupying about three-quarters of a mile on both sides of M50, was rubble.

About 20 stores comprising the center were reduced to debris spewed across the highway. Bulldozers were at work clearing paths for rescue vehicles.

Scores of searchers combed the area with hand lamps, seeking victims and attempting to estimate the extent of the damages. Harold Weemhoff, Godwin Heights fire chief of District No. 2, believed it would reach one million dollars.

Blood and plasma were sent to Grand Rapids by the Detroit and state health departments. Parke, Davis & Co. of Detroit dispatched a truckload of anti-tetanus serum to the stricken area and civil defense workers in Grand Rapids volunteered to give blood if it was needed.

Dies a Few Steps From Safety

Alfred Payne, 43, died in last night's tornado when the twister caught him as he stood at the head of his basement stairs marshaling his wife and six children to safety.

"Run to the basement, quick," Payne screamed through the roar of the tornado. They ran. He stayed behind to see that everyone got into the basement.

His body was pulled from the scattered wreckage of his house, 50 feet from its foundations.

Mrs. Payne escaped injury but the children all were hurt.

All of Michigan's lower peninsula was under a tornado warning Tuesday night. The first warning for Michigan was issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau about 3 p. m. The threatened area first was confined to a line south of Saginaw Bay but later was extended northward past Traverse City. Later the alert was lifted from an area west of a line from Traverse City to Jackson. The "all clear" for the rest of the danger area came at 12:30 a. m. today.

Caught With Garage Doors Down

Thomas E. Walsh, Kent County's civil defense director, was caught with his garage door down when disaster struck his ballwick last night.

For most people, a garage door is no problem at all. But Walsh, whose garage door is electrically operated, was almost immobilized.

"When we heard that the tornado had struck, I dashed out of the house," Walsh said. "My wife said, 'Where do you think you're going?' "

"She reminded me that the power was off, my car was behind the closed garage door and there was no way to get it open."

Walsh hustled to a phone, called sheriff's deputies and rode to the disaster scene with them.

The automatic garage doors, all the fashion in Walsh's neighborhood in Grand Rapids, can be operated from the car by radio. But when the car is in the garage they are controlled by a switch in the house.

100-Mile-An-Hour Wind in Detroit

DETROIT (INS) — The city of Detroit braced itself for a tornado of its own last night and winds of nearly 100 miles per hour finally slashed into the area, smashing windows, felling trees and snapping power lines.

The Weather Bureau issued a tornado warning for Detroit at 7:30 p.m. and the alert was lifted shortly after midnight today.

The Grosse Ile Naval Air Station measured winds at 98 miles an hour. The worst gusts on the island lasted 20 minutes but were strong enough to send huge waves crashing against the shoreline.

Flint Tornado Hit on June 8, 1953

DETROIT (INS) — Michigan's worst tornado slammed into the densely populated Flint area about 8:30 on the night of June 8, 1953.

It came from the northwest, a narrow black funnel, packing deadly winds of terrific force.

It bore down on the city with a roar that one man said was "like the sound of 20 freight trains."

Minutes later, it continued its westward course over Lake Huron. But in its wake were 115 dead in the Flint area alone. More than 900 were injured, many critically.

Damage was estimated at more than 10 million dollars . . . all within a matter of minutes.

Many were left homeless and ruined financially.

The next day another tornado roared down upon Worcester, Mass., with a death toll of 114.

Five were killed by another twister in the Port Huron-Sarnia area May 21, 1953.

The official count of known dead from Michigan tornadoes is 148 since 1916. There were 17 tornadoes in 1953 alone, the highest in the last 40 years. Ordinarily there are three or four a year in the state.

Wisconsin Percentages Favor President, but Show Dem Strength

MILWAUKEE (AP) — President Eisenhower captured 55 per cent of the total vote in the Wisconsin presidential primary yesterday but Democrats, rallying behind Sen. Estes Kefauver, claimed a 42 per cent share—the best spring primary showing by the party in recent years.

* * *

Eisenhower-pledged delegates—running against a favorite son slate which polled only three per cent of the vote—fell somewhat short of Republican delegate tickets of the past, 75 per cent in 1952 and 70 per cent in 1948.

Kefauver delegates, the only entry in the Democratic ballot, achieved a considerably bigger slice of the total than have other tickets, so much bigger that the Tennessee senator and his supporters saw in it considerable hope for the future, particularly in the farm belt.

The state elected 30 delegates pledged to President Eisenhower at the Republican National Convention and 56 Kefauver delegates—with half a vote each — to the Democratic convention.

POPULARITY CONTEST

As the Eisenhower slate had only token opposition and Kefauver's delegate candidates no opposition at all, the primary was considered a test of popularity between the chief executive and the lanky Tennessee Democrat. Such a test was possible because there is no party registration in Wisconsin and voters could vote any ballot they choose.

The Democrats made most of their gains in upstate rural areas where people have been hit hardest by lower milk, hog and beef prices.

The Eisenhower slate gained its advantage in cities, villages and prosperous farming communities of the southern area.

Earl Brown Wins Award: Top Boys Club Member

The outstanding Pontiac Boys Club member of the year has changed his mind.

A few minutes after he was named at an awards banquet last night, Earl Brown, 15, told executive director William V. Coulacos that maybe he wasn't making such a big sacrifice for the club anymore.

Coulacos had just told some 600 boys and fathers that Earl had "gone more out of his way to help where he was needed than any boy I've known."

"For example," Coulacos said, "A year ago I asked Earl to be staff assistant in the woodshop. I knew he really wanted to work in the front office—he had his heart set on that.

"But when Earl saw how much I needed him in the shop, he agreed. And he's never complained since."

Earl admits now that he likes the woodshop job best. "I only wanted to work in front because all the other boys wanted to," he said.

He has a talent for the wood job. About half of a current display at the Ford Rotunda in Dearborn is the product of Earl's hands, according to Coulacos.

The display commemorates the 50th anniversary of the Boys' Clubs of America, which the Pontiac group is celebrating this week.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown, 77 S. Midland Dr., Earl spends three hours, six days a week, helping the younger boys in their projects. His leadership and sympathy won him rounds of cheers as he accepted the top annual award from Coulacos.

Earl has been a club member three years, and plans to go to college to become an engineer.

Other boys awarded last night were: Richard DiCea, Richard Conabear, Allen Relaskie, Donald Cole, David Cartier, Bruce Norton, David Simmons, Andy Ramsey, Gordon Clayton and Truman Hammett.

Police Seeking Overtime Pay

Two Officers Appeal to City Commission in Dispute

Two Pontiac police officers appeared before the City Commission last night to appeal for 11 hours overtime pay which has reportedly been denied them by Police Chief Herbert W. Straley.

Officers Harold Hayden and Billy Jones claim they were given authorization to continue work on a felony case in February, necessitating working 11 hours overtime.

Hayden told the commissioners that they applied for the pay immediately. He added that Straley requested they accept "a few hours, and then five, and finally eight for the work."

"We either deserve 11 hours pay or not a cent," he said.

The pay was reportedly denied because of lack of "proper authority" to continue working according to Hayden.

Due to the length of the communication submitted to the commission. Commissioner John E. Carry moved that the matter be referred to the commission's informal meeting April 26.

Both Hayden and Jones were appealing before the commission under city personnel rules. Both Straley and City Manager Walter K. Willman had reviewed the case.

Planners Meeting to View Area's Recreation Needs

BIRMINGHAM — Recreational needs caused by increase of leisure time and growth in population will be discussed tonight by Oakland County city planners at the Birmingham Municipal Building.

The South Oakland Planning Council's meeting at 8 p.m. will study "Recreational Facilities, Both Present and Future," according to Herbert Herzberg, council chairman and Birmingham city planner.

Members of all the planning councils of SOC municipalities have been invited to the meeting with the hope of starting a "well-organized recreational program," Herzberg says.

"As the available land diminishes," he says, "the choice of future recreational areas will be indeed limited. Planning for future recreational areas should be considered seriously now."

So Many Hairdressers May Spoil the Coiffure

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I feel a little sorry for Grace Kelly having to hear a lot of weird stories. Cyd Charisse and I figured out on a basis of some rumors that Grace'd have her wedding coiffure done by five hairdressers.

★ ★ ★ ★

"Five hairdressers for one head!" Cyd said. "Isn't that rather crowded?"

It started out with a modest three.

Three French hairdressers Monte Carlo-bound assured Cyd in Miami recently that they had a corner on Grace's head.

"They were very chic in their short dinner jackets talking about 'Miss Kellee' and 'ze salon,'" reported Cyd, an Amarillo gal, herself very hot now because of "Meet Me In Las Vegas."

"If they work on Grace's hair, that'll be four, because Virginia Darcy, Grace's regular hairdresser, came in from Hollywood to go with her," said an MGM spokesman.

"Sidney Guilaroff, the studio hair stylist, who 'created' Grace's coiffures, is going. That makes five!" spoke up a spokeswoman.

CYD CHARISSE

I phoned Hollywood to get the whole matter straight.

"Grace hasn't engaged any foreign hairdresser," I was told. "Sidney Guilaroff is going strictly as a guest — he may be 'unable to keep his hands out of her hair,' as the saying goes, but Virginia Darcy is the only one assigned."

So there—and if you hear of Miss Kelly saying "Get all these people out of my hair," you'll admit she's justified.

Barbara Hutton'll divorce Baron von Cramm by November. She'll tell him so in Europe this summer but'll probably give him half-a-mill settlement.

A $1,000,000 giveaway—"20 Steps to a Million Dollars"—will be launched by Ed Wolfe, producer of "Break the Bank" and "Masquerade Party." Each contestant'll be able to win $1,000,000 in verbal battles with four other quizzes, running several weeks.

"I don't mind flying to Europe," M. Lincoln Schuster, the publisher, says, "but I can't stand that long ride to Idlewild Airport."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Jackie Gleason's sponsors won't allow him to switch to one-hour or to "live" shows next year. However "Stage Show" may be replaced by Jeanne Carson . . . Arthur Godfrey recently urged Frank Parker to leave his program and do his own show, Parker said he "isn't ready."

★ ★ ★ ★

Janette Davis of the Arthur Godfrey show now produces the revues at the Kenilworth Hotel in Miami . . . Gary Crosby will tour Australia with Louis Armstrong . . . Jack Entratter flew in from Las Vegas for eight hours, sold his house and flew back . . . Lee Segall, formerly with "Dr. I.Q.," is the new producer of the Guy Lumbardo TV'er.

Lady Hardwicke—actress Mary Scott—joins "Marquerade Party" when Ilka Chase visits Monaco . . . The booze habit may keep a famed entertainer from the lead in a B'way musical.

Cleveland Amory's book, "The Last Resort," becomes a B'way musical in the fall . . . Father Divine's hunting a new heaven in swank Bel Air.

Woman Seized Setting Fires in White House

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A middle-aged woman, who said she "had a lot of trash and just wanted to burn it," set a small fire in the White House yesterday and four more in executive offices across the street.

* * *

She was apprehended by a woman detective while setting the fifth fire, Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said.

None of the blazes caused any major damage. They were quickly smothered.

Guards said apparently none of the nearly 7,000 visitors who filed through the White House yesterday were aware of any disturbance.

Hagerty and Secret Service Chief U. E. Baughman described the woman as "not quite lucid." They said she had been sent to a hospital for oservation. The woman identified herself as Mrs. Julia M. Chase, 53, born in Hagerstown, Md.

Police Radios Conk Out

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Freak atmospheric conditions Monday evening disrupted Kent County's police radio communications for about 15 minutes. Harsh static drowned out communications with cars of the Grand Rapids Police Department, the Kent County Sheriff's Department and eight other county police departments until adjustments were completed.

Tourists visiting Ceylon will get temporary memberships to some clubs in Colombo.

Disabled Driver Jailed

LANSING (AP) — A one-armed Lansing driver, Duane Kroft, drew a stiff penalty in Meridian Township Justice Court for driving without the special steering knob required for amputees. Kroft was given five days in the county jail, had his license suspended for 60 days and was fined $112 when he was arrested for speeding after he had been warned not to drive without the special equipment. Justice Adrian Jaffe said he had two previous convictions for reckless driving.

Burglars Net Radiators

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Police reported Monday that week end burglaries netted 30 automobile radiators from an auto wrecking firm and $85 in cash from the clubroom of Alcoholics Anonymous.

REVIVAL SERVICES NIGHTLY — Oakwood Community Church, Baldwin Rd. near Oxford — Evangelist Art Pauley with Musical Evangelistes Bill Shelton and Bud Spriggs. Services at 8 p.m. every night through Sun., April 8th.

Mrs. Harry Sherman Was Headliner

Onetime Actress Serves Present Day Movie Crowd

MIDLAND (AP)—A onetime dramatic and vaudeville actress is selling popcorn now to theater goers of a younger generation.

* * *

White-haired Mrs. Harry Sherman philosophically recalls the magic of her stage days as she serves the young fry on their way to a nearby movie house.

"The paths of life are strange," she says.

(Mrs. Sherman and her husband, now deceased, made their home in Pontiac for a number of years and made many friends during their residence here. Mr. Sherman was connected with the Butterfield theaters here for a time.)

Mrs. Sherman and her singer-husband once toured the country, playing with leading stock companies on the road and filling in with vaudeville in the summer.

The billing of Harry and Violet Sherman was a familiar one in theaters of the pre-World War I days. Harry was a specialty man, headlining as a singer and whistler, Violet did dramatic roles.

Their friends included the greats of show business—Al Jolson, Sophie Tucker, Lyle Talbot, Faye Bainter and the Jordans—Fibber McGee and Molly.

SYMPATHETIC ROLES

Mrs. Sherman also had sympathetic roles, like "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" and "Apple Mary," which she played in three versions over a period of years.

Once she won plaudits by carrying on through a scene interrupted by a large rat that jumped onto the stage from a box seat railing. Said a local review:

"Did she stop telling the villain what she thought of him? No, she sat down in a chair, tucked her satin-clad tootsie-wootsies up off the floor and proceeded in louder tones to hold the attention of the audience until the curtain fell!"

Mrs. Sherman answered 21 curtain calls from the admiring audience for that performance.

* * *

Now her public is limited to the group around the popcorn machine. But, she says, "I learned a long time ago that it's true 'the show must go on.' That works in everyday living too."

No Tender Trap Here

Eligible bachelors in the United States, fearing the Leap Year's tender trap, would be wise to go to Japan. It seems that 1956 is the Year of the Saru, or Monkey, and Japanese girls are putting off marriage thoughts until 1957. Why? "Saru" also means "going away" and feminine logic reasons that any mates acquired this year might take the double meaning seriously and take off for parts unknown.

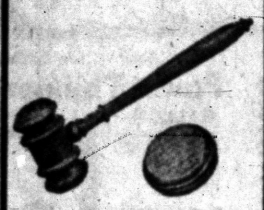

Japan Auto Death Rises

TOKYO (AP)—National police reported today Japan has the third highest annual automobile death rate in the world—70 for every 10,000 cars. Last year 6,380 Japanese were killed in auto smashups. The police report said only Egypt and Colombia have worse records. The U.S. rate was put at only 7 per 10,000 cars.

More than 400,000 Americans now living are proof that cancer can be cured. Guard your health by having regular health examinations, urges the American Cancer Society.

Ziegler Attacks Turnpike Again

Asks Legislature to Ban Competing Construction of State Highways

LANSING (AP)—Without saying it in so many words, Charls M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, has urged the legislature to kill off the Michigan Turnpike Authority.

In a letter to legislators Tuesday, Ziegler outlined stepped-up plans for construction of free roads in the future, and added:

"I am sure that you, as members of the Legislature, will take all of these facts into consideration when you make a decision as to whether or not there shall continue to be a competing highway construction agency within Michigan."

Ziegler said his department's 1956-57 program includes the completion and opening to traffic of 455 additional miles of 4-lane divided highway, and that similar progress could be expected in 1958-59.

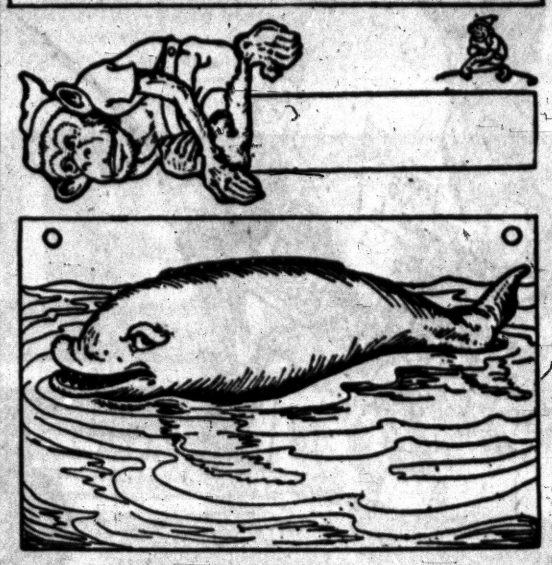

He noted the turnpike agency, after nearly three years existence, has "no construction in sight, no bonds sold and not even a definite location of a route established."

Ziegler, a Republican, was directing some of his fire at George N. Higgins of Ferndale, a former Republican state senator who became Turnpike Authority chairman last July and often has differed with Ziegler.

The Senate has passed, and the House is considering, a $150,000 housekeeping appropriation for the turnpike group, which has virtually exhausted available funds.

THE MONKEY AND THE DOLPHIN

A monkey and his master were sailing to Athens when a sudden storm capsized the boat and threw everyone into the water. All the passengers swam for shore. But the monkey, not much of a swimmer, was about to drown.

At this time a passing dolphin, thinking the monkey to be a man, told him to climb on his back for a ride to shore. As they neared Athens the dolphin asked the monkey if he were an Athenian. The monkey said he came from a distinguished family there. "Then you know our port well," said the dolphin. The monkey, believing this to be the name of a high government official, replied: "Oh, yes, he's a dear friend of mine."

Realizing the monkey was a pretender, the dolphin dived below the surface and left the monkey to sink or swim.

The moral: Don't tell fibs.

Color this picture with crayons and paste down on cardboard. Slit the dolphin's back where marked with dots. Punch out the two holes at the top so you can put a string through them and hang the picture up.

Now cut out the monkey with tab attached and slip the tab into the slot on the dolphin's back. Bring the monkey's hand and foot over the edge so they rest on the dolphin's back. To make the monkey drop into the water, slip off the hand and foot and pull down on the tab.

Tomorrow: The Donkey and the Lion's Skin.

Enters Innocent Plea to Shooting Charge

Arrested in the shooting of his wife during an alleged argument March 30, Dewey Spears, 58, of 280 Rapid St. yesterday pleaded innocent and was freed under $100 bond by Pontiac Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Police claim Spears wounded his wife, Nettie, 36, in the arm during a tussle with a shotgun, after first threatening her with a knife.

Spears' examination on a charge of felonious assault was scheduled for April 18.

Hare Urges Senate Group to Okay Motor Vehicle Bill

LANSING (AP) — Secretary of State James M. Hare has "strongly urged" the Senate Appropriations Committee to go to bat for a proposal which he says will save the taxpayers $100,000 by 1961, and up to $90,000 a year thereafter.

Involved is installation of a new mechanical system for processing motor vehicle titles and registrations.

In a letter Tuesday to Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), committee chairman, Hare said the new equipment will cost $200,000, but that it will pay for itself and save $100,000 in five years.

* * *

He said the present equipment is unreliable and "we have no assurance a sudden breakdown would not reduce our output to such an extent that the public would be seriously inconvenienced and motor vehicle sales almost brought to a halt."

Hare, a Democrat currently said since the new system was demonstrated Feb. 2 to the Senate Appropriations Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee.

It is apparent the latter group, he said, has "no real interest in saving the taxpayers money, or in providing better service."

Incumbents Returned to Commission Seats

In a regrettably light vote electors of Pontiac paid six incumbent City Commissioners the deserved tribute of re-election and elected a seventh new member.

Those returned to office were Mayor WILLIAM W. DONALDSON and Commissioners Dr. ROY V. COOLEY, PHILIP E. ROWSTON, FLOYD P. MILES, JOHN A. DUGAN and JOHN E. CARRY. The seventh winner was GILBERT W. LONG who was successful in his effort to win the seat formerly held by HARRY W. LUTZ, who didn't seek re-election.

In addition the voters approved a City Charter change which will become operative in the next city election April 1958. Its purpose is to lengthen the time for voter registration between the March primaries and the April elections.

The PRESS has no quarrel with the decisions by the voters. But we do feel that far more than the 8,669 voters, or about 24.5 per cent of those registered, should have taken the trouble to go to the polls.

Mr. Sloan's Resignation

When ALFRED P. SLOAN, Jr. resigned his post as chairman of the board of General Motors, it marked the end of an era for the world's largest corporation.

Although in his 81st year, the man who is internationally recognized as one of the world's greatest industrial and financial geniuses, isn't severing his connection with GM.

Mr. SLOAN is being succeeded in the chairmanship by ALBERT BRADLEY, former vice president, but he is remaining as honorary chairman, a post to which he has just been elected by GM directors. He also retains his directorship and the chairmanship of the bonus and salary committee.

The career of ALFRED P. SLOAN, Jr. is a true to life success story. A native of New Haven, Conn., he completed a four-year course at Massachusetts Institute of Technology in three years. From the start he displayed unusual organizing ability and five years after he joined GM in 1918, he was elected president and chief executive officer.

★ ★ ★

At that time GM was doing about 12 per cent of the Nation's car business. Today it produces and sells 53 per cent of the industry's total volume of cars and trucks. Mr. SLOAN has been chairman of the board since 1937 and was the corporation's chief executive officer for 23 years, first as president and then as chairman.

★ ★ ★

Not only is he one of the outstanding builders of modern industrial America, but is recognized as one of the country's great philanthropists. Richly deserved was the tribute paid him by GM President HARLOW W. CURTICE in commenting on the resignation.

"Of all the men ever associated with General Motors," he said, "none has looked forward so steadily as he. Always he has kept his eye on the future. His tireless energy, great courage, wise counsel and deep loyalty have been an inspiration."

Farm Bill Threatened by Stand of Conferees

Action of the farm bill conferees in postponing any further work on the measure until after the Easter recess, may be a straw in the Congressional wind.

Some observers believe the conferees have abandoned the idea of getting any real help to the farmers this year. Instead, the opinion in these circles is that the stage is being set for a big 1956 farm-belt political contest.

★ ★ ★

Certainly, as things stand now such a mess has been made of the original bill in conference that many believe the President will have no choice but to veto it. Moreover, the conferees have shown no inclination whatever to do anything about the most obvious defects in the bill.

These, dual parity and rigid price supports—the worst features of the House and Senate versions — have been incorporated into the conference version. In other words, the conferees are saying to the President that there isn't going to be any aid to farmers this year unless he is willing to abandon the principle of flexible price supports.

★ ★ ★

We hope he will refuse to do this and will fight to the last ditch for the sound principle of flexible price supports. But with the conferees apparently adamant in their stand for return to unsound high price supports, there now appears only one hope for farm aid this year.

That lies first, in a veto of the conference bill and second, adoption of the soil bank plan as originally proposed by the President.

David Lawrence Says:

'Do Nothing' Congresses Very Expensive; Good Legislation Lost in Party Politics

WASHINGTON — Someday there'll really be a "do nothing Congress" that everybody can cheer. Just now the Republicans are accusing the Democrats, who control both houses, of having conducted a "do nothing Congress," but the criticism seems to be that the Democrats haven't allowed enough legislation to pass.

The Democrats, on the other hand, reply with a box score giving the number of bills passed and comparing it with the record of other congresses.

Spokesmen of both political parties, however, miss the point. The country isn't interested in what the quantity of laws passed happens to be, but in the quality—the impact of the legislation on the people.

There are at each session of Congress just as many worthy bills that fail to be enacted as there are bills passed that never ought to be.

NO PARTY RESPONSIBILITY

The fundamental flaw today is that party responsibility has vanished from the scene and every individual can play his own game in Congress as he pleases—introducing bills that embarrass his colleagues, if they are forced to vote on them, or bills that cost the taxpayer more and more money but nevertheless get votes for the congressman or senator affected.

The work of the present Congress can be measured by many different kinds of yardsticks. The business man will measure it on what damage has been done or is threatened to the economic system as a whole.

It is, for example, good politics, certain senators and representatives believe, to seek appropriations that will put the government more and more into the electric-power business and will tend more and more to put private utilities on the auction block. But those tactics win votes in certain underdeveloped regions which want federal money to build them up at the expense of the rest of the country.

Another yardstick can be used to measure what is being done on the "welfare" side. In recent years the impression has developed that it is the function of the federal government to take care of the citizen not only in his old age but in middle age as well as in youth. Billions of dollars are spent nowadays for federal aid of various kinds which a half-century ago would have been frowned upon as "special privilege."

TOO MANY USELESS LAWS

Nobody in Congress has ever proposed an investigation into what has happened under the countless laws and appropriations passed in the last 50 years, many of which are still on the statute books. Nobody has, recently at least, started a movement to repeal useless laws —laws that merely keep bureaucrats in office doing things that could be dispensed with. The country would be benefited by such an inquiry.

But merely to mention conservation of the citizen's financial resources is to arouse cries of "conservatism" or lack of "progressivism." The modern concept of progressivism can lead to financial deterioration by increased spending, but it is today applauded as "popular" and a good way for ambitious individuals to get elected to public office.

It was Thomas Jefferson who first declared the doctrine of "equal rights for all, special privilege for none," but today he would be called a man without a heart and a reactionary who wants "to turn the clock back." Insolvency, however, is threatened when legislators in a democracy can spend taxpayers' money without restraint.

The pages of history are strewn with the wreckage caused by those in government who tried to spend more money than the taxpayers could pay.

Congress has earned the characterization of "do nothing," if by the opposite of that term is meant "doing something" for people. For Congress has spent more of the taxpayer' money than it should and has "done nothing" to relieve the taxpayer of the burden of high tax rates. Congress has "done nothing," moreover, to reduce the national debt. So, by the yardstick of fiscal soundness, maybe it has been a "do nothing" Congress. But by the yardstick of bills that have been kept from passage maybe Congress deserves a good deal of credit.

Stay Away From Carriers of Respiratory Infections

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

"I have great difficulty trying to teach people that one catches a cold from the person who has it, not from draft, change of weather or insufficient clothing. Of course my motive is selfish — I hope they won't insist on sharing whatever they have with my kids or me.

But, even if some acquaintances regard us as a little queer about this, we want you to know that we are sure we have saved thousands of dollars in doctor bills since we as a family adopted the teachings and advice given in Call it CRI . . . (T. C. H.)"

Your letter, Ma'am, gives me new inspiration. It helps me to forget many vexations associated with this job.

* * *

A business woman asks whether it is possible to "catch cold" by sitting underneath an open sky-light or by getting wet feet. She thinks one can catch a cold only "by inhaling germs in the air or by getting near enough to one with a cold to get the germ from him."

"But some of the girls in the office dispute this," she adds. "They insist that if a girl were to wash her hair or get her feet wet at a certain period" (after all, this is 1956, so we can say the time of menses or menstruation "she is very likely to develop tuberculosis or pneumonia or even lose her mind!"

Without calling names or revealing our low opinion of each other, I'd like to send each of the girls in the office, if she'll pay the freight, the pamphlet, Hygiene for Girls and Health for Women. Freight rate —a stamped envelope bearing your address. You are not obliged to believe everything or anything I say in the pamphlet, if you think you know more than I do about the subject. There are millions of women, educated by Doctors Pink, Pierceham and the village fishwives, who think they know more physiology, hygiene and pathology. But surely it can do no harm to read the pamphlet.

The business woman's conception of "inhaling germs in the air" implies that disease germs are generally present in the air, and particularly in the air near a person who has or is coming down with a cri (common respiratory infection), say coryza, tonsillitis or smallpox.

Germs may float about in the air, non-pathogenic (not disease-producing), but disease germs do not spread in that way. In surgery today the wound, exposed to the air, seldom becomes infected — it it does the assumption is that instruments, hands or wound dressings or the skin at the site of the operation were not sterilized or disinfected.

* * *

Germs of the respiratory infections come in little gobs or droplets of spray given off from nose or mouth or throat when the person coughs, sneezes or talks. The droplets of sneeze and cough spray are visable and palpable. The droplets of talk spray may be invisible and impalpable yet carry germs or virus. Polite conversation spray range is only 3 or 4 feet; cough or sneeze spray range is ten or 12 feet.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis, or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady, if a stamped self-addressed envelope is sent to The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan.

Dares Road Commissioner to Drive Into Oakley Park

Letters will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I dare the road commissioner to drive his car the one mile through the woods to Oakley Park. It's our only road out to a paved highway.

The road scraper grades it about every other day, and in three hours the chuck holes are just as big as man holes. How much does it cost us taxpayers to have this done every day over a period of 20 years?

Also, how much would it cost to have that one mile blacktopped? This God-forsaken road is a quarter mile from the million dollar high school in Walled Lake. This is the best way of throwing the taxpayers' money away that any genius has thought of yet.

Ever since the Indians beat a path to our lovely Commerce Lake, through the woods, and the white man came with the wagon, the road has been the same. I'd like to drive these big shots down in Ohio to some little burgs with less than 100 houses and 30 miles to any towns. Yet the roads are beautiful. Why do they have such better roads in Ohio than Michigan?

Of course, the road commissioner will pay no attention to this until someone gives him the shock of riding through the woods about 20 miles an hour, taking him through about 10 times. Then I'll assure you that you will get a decent road..

Hammarskjold Is Facing His Toughest Assignment

By JOHN H. MARTIN
INS Foreign Director

U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold's projected visit to the Middle East will be the toughest assignment of his career.

* * *

He has done well before, as for instance on his job of talking to the Chinese Communists about releasing Americans, but the Middle East is a kettle of various stews.

The United Nations is trying to prevent an outbreak of war between the Arabs and Israelis. Some diplomats feel that there is a 50-50 chance that war will erupt within 90 days.

This feeling is based on an assumption that the Israelis will hit the Arabs rather than watch indefinitely the flow of Soviet bloc arms into Egypt when they themselves are denied a counter-flow from the Western allies.

* * *

But Hammarskjold, if he gets the proper audience with the Israelis and Egyptians, will be handling only one segment of a very complicated situation.

INTENSE RIVALRIES

There are intense rivalries in the Middle East among the Arabs. These conflicts are nationalistic and dynastic, and they are very bitter ones.

* * *

For instance, Egypt is trying to get Iraq out of the Baghdad pact. This drive partly stems from Egyptian wishes to lead the Arab world. There also is an Egyptian feeling that the anti-Communist Baghdad pact eventually will benefit Israel.

Saudi Arabia's oil - wealthy leaders, who get their royalties from American-operated wells, are backing Egypt in this struggle with Iraq. So is Syria.

Both nations traditionally oppose the Iraqi leadership, but they are also determined to kick out British influence in the Middle East.

Nationalism is intense in the Middle East. There also are these ingredients in the pot—colonialism, feudalism, racialism and communism.

SEEMS INSOLUBLE

The Arab-Israeli dispute in itself seems insoluble without resort to force. But the danger of a war in that case opens up greater dangers.

The British naturally never would submit to any situation that exposed the oil fields that supply Britain and all of Western Europe. Britain soon would become bankrupt if that vital oil were denied her.

One fact stands out in the whole picture. That is that the Arab world is on the march, awakened and firm on the goal of getting a better economic break.

By playing both sides of the bazaar the Arab nations stand to get aid from both East and West in the world struggle. They know this, and therefore one can expect a lot of wooing by American, British and Soviet interests.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Talent for Lipreading Greatly Depends Upon Individual's Type of Personality

Once I knew a deaf man in Washington who was so expert at lipreading, he courted a hearing coed for two years. She never knew he was stone deaf until one day she tried to reach him by telephone. But expert lipreaders are rare and depend on the factors described below.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case R-321: Ethel G., aged 22, is deaf, but she is an expert lipreader.

"Dr. Crane, why does one deaf person become adept at reading the lips of his companions, while another of the same I.Q. may never be good at it?" asked a friend of Ethel's.

"Are some people just 'born' to be good lipreaders?"

LIPREADING STRATEGY

For five years I worked with the deaf, being stationed for three of those years in Washington, D.C. where the famous college for the deaf is located.

It is called Gallaudet College and probably the most unique institution of higher learning in the entire world.

In campus conversation, the sign language is the usual medium of communication. And the deaf students can talk almost as swiftly by signs as hearing people can converse orally.

On several occasions I addressed campus groups. The vice president of the college stood a few feet to my right and translated.

I would speak orally while he would convert my remarks into signs. He would lag a couple of sentences behind, as is usually true in case of interpreters, so he could get my ideas and phrase them in the correct signs.

In the classroom, however, the manual (finger-spelling) technique is the method of precise communication.

* * *

In the manual alphabet, the words are spelled on one hand. Letter by letter, so it is slow, though necessary in science classes, math courses, etc.

ORAL SCHOOLS

Some students at Gallaudet College were excellent lipreaders. Professor Teddy Hughes and his talented wife were among this group.

But in all my five years research with the deaf, including two years at "oral schools" where signs and manual alphabets are abhorred, I met very few skilled lipreaders.

"In my opinion, Dr. Crane," explained the vice president of Gallaudet College, "a good lipreader must be a person with a tendency to take a chance.

"For lipreaders must gamble a lot. Many words look exactly alike on the lips, such as 'mama' and 'papa'.

"A good lipreader thus skips over these difficult words and goes along with the speaker until he absorbs the general context. Then he fills in the blanks from his general comprehension.

"But a maticulous fellow with a scientific bent, who refuses to go forward until every previous step is fully understood, gets stalled at the difficult words and thus slips so far behind the speaker that he loses out."

HOW TO LIPREAD

After several years of scrutiny, I found that he had made a very shrewd observation.

* * *

Expert lipreading is not an invariable result of a high I.Q., but depends largely on a person's type of personality.

After examining many records, too, I found another factor that helps produce excellent lipreading skill.

Never did I meet an expert lipreader who had been born deaf! All the outstanding lipreaders had once possessed normal hearing and had learned to talk by normal speech sounds.

Then, may be at the age of eight or ten they lost their hearing as a complication of scarlet fever or some other disease.

But their facility at using spoken language prior to the onset of their deafness; then carried over and apparently helped them considerably at lipreading.

Steering the conversation is also a clever technique of talented lipreaders. That keeps the talk on familiar subjects so they can guess more shrewly at the meaning of lip movements.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac Michigan, enclosing a long 3c stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Draft Dilemma Confronts Bonn

Compromise Predicted in Debate of Mandatory Military Conscription

BONN, Germany (AP) — Powerful opposition to compulsory military service is building up in West Germany.

Some political groups want no conscription at all. Others want to keep the term of military service down to 12 months. The pressure has placed the government of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in this dilemma:

* * *

1. Bonn has promised to raise armed forces totaling about 500,000 men for the North Atlantic Alliance (NATO). This cannot be done without conscription. It would be too costly to induct that many men to serve voluntarily as professional soldiers.

* * *

2. There is a general election next year and conscription is no more popular here than it is in any other country. Party leaders shudder at the possible political effects of draft notices being issued to thousands of homes just before the vote.

COMPROMISE SEEN

The result will probably be a compromise.

The government cannot go back on its promise to NATO. But the electorate may well be appeased by parliament approving only 12 months of service.

* * *

First solid indication of this came when the conscription bill went before the Bundesrat (upper house). It voted to cut compulsory service from the government-planned 18 months to only 12 months. That would bring the West German term down to the shortest in NATO, along with Luxembourg.

* * *

The United States, Britain, Turkey and Greece have two years, France, Belgium, Italy, Holland and Portugal 18 months, Denmark and Norway 16 months. Canada has no draft and Iceland no armed forces.

* * *

The government will be faced with the draft issue again when it submits the bill to the Bundestag (lower house) within the next few weeks.

Opposition to the draft is spearheaded by Adenauer's chief political rivals, the Socialists.

The conscription bill would make all men between 18 and 45 liable for the draft. In peacetime only men reaching the age of 20 would be called up. World War II veterans would be liable to recall for short refresher training.

Taylor Sounds Warning Against Red Satellites

WASHINGTON (INS) — Army Chief of Staff Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor warns that the U. S. must be prepared for small conflicts with Communist nations even though the threat of all-out atomic war with Russia is diminishing.

Taylor noted in a speech to the National Press Club that the Kremlin has yet to renounce aggression. However, he added, the danger of atomic war between the two nations is decreasing because of nuclear warfare.

U.S.-Canada to Talk Detroit Area Pollution

WASHINGTON (AP)—The International Joint Commission of the United States and Canada discussed Columbia River problems at the opening of its annual spring meeting yesterday.

* * *

Thec ommission, which regulates use of boundary waters between the two countries, will continue the talks through Friday.

Today, it was announced, the commission has scheduled talks on the level of Lake Ontario and the St. Lawrence River, and the remedial works being built by both countries at Niagara Falls.

Thursday's agenda calls for a discussion of Lake Huron pollution between Sarnia, Ont., and Port Huron, Mich., and air pollution and abatement in the Detroit, Mich.-Windsor, Ont. area.

Only a doctor can diagnose cancer. But knowledge of cancer's seven danger signals can take you to the doctor in time for the best chance for cure, says the American Cancer Society.

March Weather Brought Everything

By JULIE HUTCHINS

Anyone who hoped the first day of March would etch the weather picture for the month apparently forgot they live in Michigan.

The month proved again Mother Nature's unpredictability — especially in the Wolverine state.

March 1 was a balmy, spring-like day. The mercury hit a comfortable high of 51.

Yet, the next 30 days brought the Pontiac area the full range of nature's follies — high winds, hail, torrential rains and snow.

The worst storms occurred on March 7, 12, 24, and 28.

On March 7, countless roads and basements were flooded, power lines were down, two families were forced out of their homes by floods and the Bell Telephone Co. reported 11 mail cable breaks in the county. Golf-ball size hail was also reported.

Near-hurricane winds swept over the area and tore shingles off of homes on March 12. The 75 mph winds also ripped and twisted signs. Up to 16 inches of snow was reported in Upper Michigan, with drifts up to six feet.

The fourth day of spring, March 24, dumped five inches of snow on the Pontiac area. Traffic was slowed considerable by these conditions.

March 28 brought vacation time for 10,800 students in the county, due to freezing rains. The streets were glazed with ice and vehicles slithered along. It was impossible for school buses to follow their routes.

On the same date, Detroit Edison reported lines down in Hazel Park, shutting power off in a commercial-industrial area. The Brandon Township Edison Station broke down cutting power to 500 homes.

On March 29, fog followed the sleet and freezing rain of the previous day. More Detroit Edison lines were reported down in White Lake and Waterford Townships.

The weather statistics show that the average high temperature for the month was 38 degrees, as compared with the average 25 for last year. In March 1955 the average low was only one-half degree higher than the 25 degree average for the same period this year.

The lowest temperature for the month was registered as 9 degrees on the 25th. The mercury rose to a monthly high of 51 degrees on the 1st. In March 1955 a low of 6 and a high of 63 were recorded on the 7th and 31st respectively.

* * *

March's precipitation of almost 4 inches was an inch and three-quarters less than the same period last year.

'Eisenhower Has Not Been Frank'

Truman Asserts Soviet Economic Strength Grows

NEW YORK (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman says the Eisenhower administration is misleading the nation when it claims recent shifts in Soviet tactics mean failure of Russian policy.

* * *

"I believe the Communist threat is more dangerous now than ever before," Truman said last night. "I believe recent changes in Soviet tactics are not signs of 'failure' but evidence of growing economic power."

CRITICIZES GOP

The former President called for a "bold, new program for foreign economic aid" to meet the Soviet threat.

Truman criticized Republican conduct of foreign affairs in a speech at the annual awards dinner of the Overseas Press Club.

One of the awards went to Clifton Daniel of the New York Times, who is to marry Truman's daughter Margaret later this month.

In a message sent to the dinner, President Eisenhower praised the awards as "sharply" demonstrating "the high standards which American men and women of the press keep before them."

IKE NOT FRANK

Truman said the Eisenhower administration has "not been frank with the American people" on foreign affairs and, instead, has been telling them "only what seems to be politically expedient at the moment."

"The American people will not support a vigorous foreign aid program if they do not understand the need for it," he said.

"But instead of explaining the need, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles tells us that Soviet policy has already failed and is bankrupt. The fact is that Communist policy has never been more aggressive than it is now—in its new form of economic and political penetration. Not since the end of the war has the Communist strategy been more effective and more dangerous.

But the administration can't expect us to understand this if it continues to insist that Soviet policy is beaten. The Eisenhower administration's premature claims of success may well be the bar that prevents the actual achievement of success . . .

"The fantasies of the secretary of state make it all the more necessary for others to see things through."

FBI Arrests Murder Suspect in Arkansas

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—A 36-year-old house painter, charged with murder in Indianapolis, and his brother were arrested by FBI agents here yesterday.

A. M. Bryant, special agent in charge of the Little Rock FBI Office, identified the men as Raymond Ray Patrick and Hubert Andrew Patrick, 32, both of North Little Rock.

The agent said Raymond is charged with murder in the slaying of Jack Nicholson at Indianapolis on Oct. 2, 1955. Hubert is wanted at Abington, Va., said Bryant, on a charge of burglary.

Both men were to be arraigned before a U. S. Commissioner today on charges of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

Bryant said the Patrick brothers and their families moved to North Little Rock two months ago, and had been working as paint contractors under the names of James and Frank Owkvens.

Good Intention Flops

VIENNA (INS)—Franz Lachgruber's girl friend wanted to please him by taking his broken watch to a jeweler's for repairs. The jeweler gave the watch one look and called police: It was a watch Lachgruber had stolen from the jeweler a year before. Lachgruber was arrested.

2 Sets of Names of Baby Satisfies Uncle for $140

OMAHA (AP)—The Thomas John Millikens were expecting a baby and Uncle Harvey E. Milliken told Thomas "name him Harvey Earl and I'll send along a check for $500."

* * *

The baby arrived Oct. 1, 1954, and Thomas sent uncle a notice:

"(Monday through Saturday)
"Thomas John Milliken, Jr."
"(Sundays and Holidays)
"Harvey Earl Milliken."

Uncle yesterday said he had it figured:

* * *

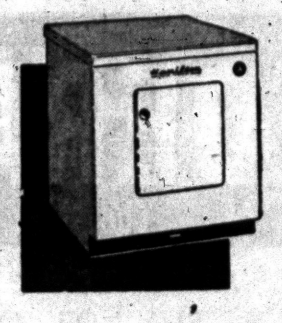

"For the first year I figured 52 Sundays, six paid holidays—that's fifty-eight three hundred and sixty-fifths—I think it comes to $140."

ARTHRITIS
PAINED SO FIERCE IT MADE ME CRY

"I'll recommend O-JIB-WA BITTERS as long as I live," says Mrs. Margaret Standridge, 2143 Schumacher Street, Flint, Michigan.

"I was crippled with arthritis since the Spring of 1950. It was in my right arm, shoulder and neck and you just can't imagine how much suffering I went through. There wasn't a night went by that I didn't go to bed with tears in my eyes. I'm telling you, I really suffered. My arm was stiff, and burned like someone was holding a torch under it. One day my husband was cutting wood up North, and the man he was working with had to be carried out of the woods due to a severe attack of arthritis. He was so bad that his wife had to turn him over in bed by pulling on his sheets. He used O-JIB-WA BITTERS and three weeks later, was better and back working. After his experience, I decided to try O-JIB-WA too, but after 5 days I gave up, as I foolishly expected immediate relief. Well, the pain just went on, and for a whole year I couldn't move my arm. My knuckles were swollen to twice their normal size, and I couldn't pick up a thing without dropping it. Why even my chest pained fiercely, so last December, I decided to give O-JIB-WA a fair trial this time. I followed directions carefully, and in just 10 days the pains suddenly stopped, and the swelling and stiffness began going away. I know it was the O-JIB-WA that did it, as I hadn't tried anything else for quite some time. I can use my arm again now and do my housework, painting and everything I couldn't do while suffering with arthritis. The pain, stiffness and swelling are all gone and have not returned. I'm so thankful for this wonderful medicine that I will never be without it. I'LL RECOMMEND O-JIB-WA BITTERS AS LONG AS I LIVE."

Set Court Date in MMPA Case

Romeo Local Seeking Change in Bylaws of Milk Association

The court case for interpretation and clarification of the bylaws of the Michigan Milk Producers Assn. has been ordered into Wayne County Circuit Court April 11 by presiding Judge Ira W. Jayne.

The case, in which the president of Romeo's MMPA local, Harold H. Fritz is the plaintiff, has been hanging fire for several months.

Jayne granted a motion by Fritz to advance the trial date of the suit against the present board of the MMPA.

Defendants in the case are Howard F. Simmons, secretary-manager of the MMPA, and its 14 directors.

Fritz said today "We are seeking to take away the MMPA's control of milk marketing policies by legal proceedings. The Fair Share Bargaining Assn. tried through picketing and similar methods, to gain the same end."

Fritz is not a Fair Share member.

Fritz and his followers have contended that the rank and file members of the MMPA have too little voice in control of the association, and the delegate system of representation of the membership at large is outdated.

MMPA directors defended the system, comparing it to the election of congressmen to represent districts in government.

The Romeo local, headed by Fritz, began its fight with a meeting of dairymen from 13 counties in Romeo in January 1955.

A federal investigation of what Fritz terms "virtual dictatorship" was called for, and is now under way in Detroit.

MMPA president Glenn Lake and two fellow directors of the association spoke to 60 dairymen and their wives at the annual meeting of the Romeo local last night.

Their position in the recent strike was explained, and Lake told reporters that the "Fair Share back is broken."

Dan'l Boone Monument Approved by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has signed a bill setting aside land in Kentucky for creation of a monument to Daniel Boone and other pioneers.

The seven acres at Boonesboro goes to the Pioneer National Monument Association. It plans to erect a historical marker near old Fort Boonesboro, named for the famous explorer and Indian fighter.

Employment Decline

GRAND HAVEN (AP) — Industrial employment, with 46 plants reporting in the March survey by the committee on economic development, stood at 4,991, a drop of 204 since the last report and the third month a decline was reported. March employment still was 310 higher than the same month in 1955.

Some 6,725,000 Americans are employed by the nation's truck-and-bus transportation industry—about a 10th of the country's employed persons.

Benny Carter Faces Ex-Wife's $50,000 Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The ex-wife of bandleader Benny Carter has filed suit for $50,000 damages, claiming Carter gave her a severe beating last March 23.

In the superior court assault and battery suit, Mrs. Laverne Carter, a singer, said she suffered severe head and spine injuries. Carter has been acting as his former wife's business manager since their divorce a year ago. She was visiting his home on a business matter when the dispute took place, the suit stated.

Socialist Mayor Cops 3rd Milwaukee Term

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Mayor Frank Zeidler, buffeted in a hot campaign because of his Socialist background, was voted a third four-year term yesterday, defeating Milton J. McGuire president of the Common Council.

* * *

With 519 of the city's 526 precincts reporting Zeidler polled 116,012 to 93,954 for McGuire.

* * *

The election was nonpartisan but Zeidler, a long-time Socialist, made his bid for the backing of labor and Democratic elements. McGuire, who described himself as a Democrat prior to his election to head the Council 12 years ago, was supported by Republican elements. However, neither candidate had the official backing of any party.

A total of 13,483 papers were handled last month by his office, Oakland County Register of Deeds Orrin McQuaid said yesterday. Fees totaled $19,967.15, as opposed to $23,051.50 in March, 1955.

First Woman Mayor in America Recalls Past

ARGONIA, Kan. (AP) — Sixty-nine years ago an election plot boomeranged in this tiny central Kansas town and presented the country with a startling political innovation.

On April 4, 1887, somewhat to its own astonishment, Argonia elected the nation's first woman mayor, 27-year-old Mrs. Susanna Madora Salter.

The local temperance leader and mother of two was the intended victim of several nontemperance men who secretly drew up a slate headed by Mrs. Salter. They expected to embarrass her by a humiliafingly low vote.

RECALLS TRIUMPH

At Norman, Okla., where she lives today—a hale and heart 96—Mrs. Salter recalled her triumph.

"I didn't know I was on the ballot until I went to the polls," she said. "I stopped my washing to see what all the fuss was about and found people were campaigning for me."

Suffragettes leaped for joy at her election. Men, discussing the Argonia revolution over their nickel beers, morosely predicted the collapse of civilization. Pros and cons of "petticoat rule" were widely debated. Eastern newspaper reporters thumbed through atlases and betook themselves to the mayor's tiny domain—then, as now, with a population of about 500.

STUCK TO OFFICE

Some newspapers predicted, wrongly, America's first lady mayor would weary of her job and quit, proving that "women's suffrage is its own cure." One paper headlined an account: "How Women Lost Self-Respect — Argonia Under Female Government."

* * *

"We have a few old-timers who proudly remember her," said Chris Jurgens, the town's present mayor. "She was a good mayor, and I think the only woman mayor we ever had."

A plaque in Argonia's public square commemorates her.

Mrs. Salter's recipe for getting along with her all-male council was simple and effective.

* * *

"First thing I did," she said, "was to make them think they were the finest men on earth. Never had any trouble after that."

Spring Springs 'Em

IONIA (AP) — The Hilltop News, inmate newspaper at the Ionia Reformatory, had a cheerful headline for a story about the parole of 36 inmates. It read: "Spring Has Sprung 36 Inmates" and continued — "Thirty-six inmates who came in like lions, are going out like lambs—we hope."

Mobile Mayor Greets Dixie Biracial Group

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A biracial committee to give "fairminded people . . . an in-between ground" to remedy racial problems before they become severe was announced last night.

* * *

Mayor Joseph Langan told the 30 members at their first meeting that he expects them to work on human relations in the areas of housing, recreation, education, employment and political rights.

* * *

"If any tensions exist, we want to try to relieve them," Langan said.

The committee, with 17 white and 13 Negro members, includes ministers, attorneys, businessmen, public service workers and other Mobile leaders.

Reds Revise Targets

HONG KONG (INS)—Following the complete conversion of trade and industry into joint state-private enterprises the Communist Chinese authorities immediately revised their 1956 production targets for the textile industry. This year, textile mills and factories will be expected to produce 22 per cent more cotton yarn, 25 per cent more cotton cloth, and 8.7 per cent more floral prints than in 1955.

"I suffered for weeks from muscle soreness..."

And then I tried Ben-Gay", writes Mrs. Henry Super of San Francisco, Cal.: "With one application and the aid of my heating pad, the pain and soreness were relieved. After the second application, I awoke the next morning with not a sign of pain or soreness. I feel I can't praise Ben-Gay enough. I'll keep it handy always."

Countless people, like Mrs. Super, rely on Ben-Gay for fast relief from muscle aches and pains — and for good reason! Ben-Gay is different from any other pain-relieving product. It contains up to two and one half times more of two famous pain-relieving agents than any of five other widely offered rub-ins! When you rub in Ben-Gay, two things happen. First, extra blood is brought coursing up through the affected area. Second, a pain-deadening action starts instantly to bring warm, soothing relief.

When sore, aching muscles trouble you, use Ben-Gay for sure, trustworthy relief. Rub in Ben-Gay . . . rub pain away!

Tulsa Sweeps Out GOP Administration

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tulsa's Republican administration of the past two years was swept aside by Democrats yesterday in a record-breaking vote for a city election.

* * *

All issues were of a local nature but they stirred up enough interest to bring out a vote of 47,533, the highest since 1952 when 44,938 ballots were counted.

It was the first time the Democats, who take office May 1, had made a clean sweep since 1942. It sent their candidates into six key positions.

* * *

George Norvell, a former district judge, unseated Mayor L. C. Clark, 28,795 to 18,738.

What an Anti-Climax!

HILLSGROVE, R. I. (AP) — An alarm quickly spread last night when flames lit the sky at the Hillsgrove airport. The Fire Department was among the agencies called. Callers were told the fire fighters themselves had set a gasoline fire on the airport grass to test new fire-fighting equipment.

Ike Advances Plan for Aged

Orders Creation of Federal Council for Older People in U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has ordered creation of a Federal Council on Aging to help provide greater opportunities for the nation's older people.

* * *

In a memorandum to heads of a dozen government agencies, the President called for designation of a representative from each of the agencies to handle the program.

Eisenhower said he wants to "establish on a broader and more permanent basis the present interdepartmental working group on aging."

* * *

He added:

"The marked rise in the number of older persons in our population has a continuing and fundamental impact on our society. Scientific advances in the field of health and the increased productivity of farms and factories have brought the blessings of long life and prosperity to the American people as a whole.

"The added years which most of our population can expect should be years of health, usefulness and contentment for the individual, and a source of strength to the nation."

* * *

The President said it will be the job of the new council "to review existing programs in the light of emerging needs, and make recommendations to the appropriate departments and agencies as to the emphases, priorities and provisions for unmet needs."

Eisenhower said initiation of new programs and activities, and changes in existing policies, will remain the responsibility of the heads of departments and agencies directly affected.

Author Evaluates the European 'Cads'

LONDON — To obtain material for a book "Ladies Prefer Cads," Frederick Peckham toured Europe investigating each country's cads and why women love them.

* * *

Back home he explained: "A cad is one who doesn't work and lives off his charm, personality and sex. The best exponent? Englishmen, easily." Peckman, 38, made a fortune, when younger, from an organization "Gentlemen For Hire," renting out charming gentlemen to lonely women as escorts.

He asseses European cads thus: Italians — most romantic, most unfaithful. Spanish — steadfast, keen on marriage, jealous. French — wonderful lovers but too interested in money. Germans — worst dancers, most stubborn, most efficient. Danish — most promiscuous, neatest, no thought for a girl's feelings.

* * *

Americans, he said, are always filled with remorse. They like to combine caddishness with visits to a psychiatrist.

Crude oil output in Iraq recently hit 3,000,000 tons a month, against 2,500,000 tons a month a year earlier.

YOU MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS AND NOT KNOW IT!

Fidgeting, nose-picking and a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms ... ugly parasites that medical experts say infest one out of every three persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

To get rid of Pin-Worms, these pests must not only be killed, but killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do ... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

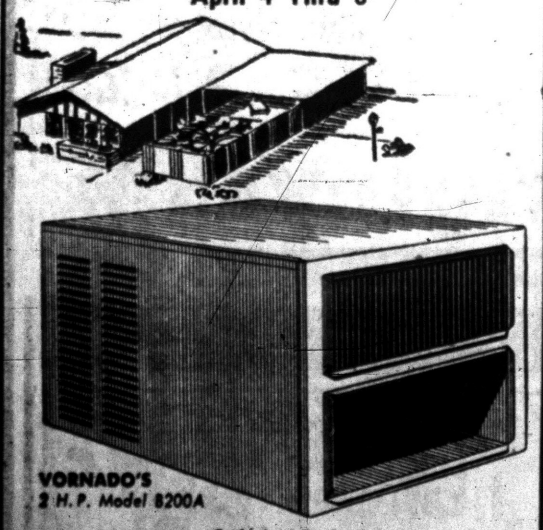

Don't take chances with this dangerous, highly contagious condition. At the first sign of Pin-Worms, ask your druggist for genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge ... the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by famous Dr. D. Jayne & Son, specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Some 500,000 new cancer cases will be reported this year in the U. S., while a total of 700,000 will be under medical care for cancer.

That means a loss of 3,500,000 man years of work and will cost the economy $12,000,000,000 in loss of goods and services.

One-third of all cancer deaths can be avoided by earlier detection and prompt treatment, the American Cancer Society says.

Public Improvement Jobs Discussed by Commission

The 1954-56 City Commission met last night for their last Tuesday night session and acted quickly on a 21-point agenda consisting mostly of public improvement projects for the city.

On Thursday night the same commissioners will meet to canvass Monday's election returns. The newly-elected commission, all incumbents but one, will meet next Monday for their first session.

In action last night, an agreement between the State Board of Alcoholism and the city for the establishment of the Alcoholism Information Center in the City Hall was approved by the commissioners.

Engineer's estimates were accepted on the following curb, gutter, grading, and related work projects with public hearings set for next week:

Prall street from State to Washington; Strathmore avenue from Baldwin to Carlisle; and for Bondale and Cedardale avenues from Earlmoor to Howland.

A hearing will also be held on a sanitary sewer for the southwest side of Oakland avenue from Cass to 518 feet southwest.

The city assessor was authorized to prepare special assessment rolls and report to the City Commission April 17 on two curb, gutter, and related work projects on which public hearings were conducted.

Confirmation was deferred after a hearing was held on a similar project for Yale street from Baldwin to University.

Upon the motion of Commissioner John A. Dugan, a proposed water main will be deleted from assessment rolls for Clara avenue from Joslyn to Fuller.

On the same roll, hearings, with confirmation deferred, were held to include Clara avenue to the east property line of lot 30 assessor's plat 102, Peacock avenue from Joslyn to Fuller, and for Fuller avenue from Peacock to Columbia.

The city assessor was granted an extension to April 17 to prepare special assessment rolls for projects for four city streets.

Confirmation was deferred after a public hearing was aired on a roll for curb, gutter, and related work for Hopkins street from Baldwin to University.

Further action last night included a warranty deed from David B. and Marguerite M. Scese for part of lot 25 in the Civic Center property being accepted.

An agreement was reached with the Newton Building Co. for crub, gutter, and related work for the Chambers-Bowen Subdivision.

The commission also authorized the mayor and city clerk to sign a contract between the city and the A & A Asphalt Paving Co. for blacktop paving in Pontiac this year.

Similar action was granted between Pontiac and the Greenfield Construction Co. for building the Pontiac Creek storm drain.

Commissioner Dugan offered a resolution of public necessity for improvement work on First street from Joslyn to Highwood.

Another public necessity resolution was moved to be accepted by Commissioner Floyd P. Miles for work on East Colgate avenue from Baldwin to University.

Ike to Leave Monday for Brief Georgia Stay

WASHINGTON (INS) — The White House announced today that President Eisenhower will probably leave Washington Monday for a brief golfing vacation in Augusta, Ga.

The President expects to fly to Georgia and will return to the nation's capital in time to attend the season's opening baseball game Tuesday, April 17.

Lebanon now imposes quarantine sanitary requirements on all arriving and departing ships and aircraft, Beirut reports.

Bob Considine Says:

Vacation Club, Inc., Lures New Travelers

NEW YORK (INS) — When Grace Kelly was 6 months old, back in 1946 or so, I was wily enough to figure out that one day about now she'd marry a prince, so I started saving for the trip.

* * *

At the time, there was no agency to take my money; now, happily, there is. Thanks to it, I'm off presently for Tiflis, the nearest city to Monte Carlo that has a room available for the Kelly vs. Rainier twin-bill (and coo) scheduled for April 18-19.

The agency that struck my fancy, and purse, is something called Vacation Club, Inc. Over months or weeks you put aside a few bucks now and then and suddenly, bingo, you're playing bingo in Rio.

It's a new plan. For years I thought travel had reached its ultimate as an industry with the introduction of the time payment plan. You've read the ads, of course. You want to lunch in Timbuktu? Simple. You pay $9 down and off you go, and pay for the rest of the tab over the year, or years.

* * *

It's a wonderful idea that has resulted in much new business for the airlines. I know of no great legal cases rising out of defaults on such notes. I realize that a collection agency can repossess a car, a piano or a TV set.

TENNIS PARALLEL

But how could one take back a trip to Paris? Reminds me of a pro tennis player named Paul Heston who was retained years ago to teach the son of a Washington newspaper tycoon how to play the game.

* * *

The father was a character who might overpay a presented bill or not pay it at all, depending on his mood. In the case of Heston, he paid only in part. Heston asked me what he should do about it. Because I was working for the paper at the time, I chickened out.

"Take back the kid's backhand," I recommended.

Vacation Club, Inc., is aimed at the people who once (and probably still do) go in for Christmas savings funds. More conservative, better paying lot, I'd say, than the lucky fellow who espies a poster and, without thought of kith, kin or kale, takes off.

The new outfit insists that the traveler save in advance. It does the rest, including wholesale buying of tickets and hotel space which, it claims, results in savings up to 35 per cent.

* * *

Oh, such as a grand tour of Europe for $1,236, or a 15-day Caribbean cruise for $419.45 (the 45 cents may involve a dozen daiquiris, airport terminal strength) and an all-expense week in Miami for $128.80.

POOCH'S PRICE

Hope Hampton paid that much for room service for her dog at a Miami Beach hotel over the New Year's weekend. And, what's worse, the dog ordered a lot of the meals sent back.

* * *

Anyway, travel is being made easy for everybody, and as one broadened by it, I'd urge you to go — and also to go easy on the calories, else you'll really find it broadening.

When the Overseas Press Club set out to arrange a program for its annual Awards Dinner Tuesday night at the Astor in New York, it invited the two living ex-Presidents, Harry S. Truman and Herbert Hoover.

Truman accepted immediately. Hoover, though quite friendly with Truman, who brought him back into government as an adviser on how to streamline the executive branch, begged off because of a long-planned fishing trip to the Florida keys. The Republican National Committee would provide no one else.

So the former President had it all to himself, and made the most of it. The policy of the GOP may be to refrain as much as possible from entering into public debate.

The keepers of the murderer of Leon Trotsky, who has been jailed in Mexico for years, had better be on their guard. The assassin, long-time Soviet hero, is now in more danger than ever before.

After all, he sank an Alpine axe into the skull of a man who considered Stalin a villainous despot — which is what Khrushchev now admits he was. In the light of history, Jacson axed the wrong man.

Great Lakes Shipping May Get Federal Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans are under way to have Great Lakes ships and harbors ready when the St. Lawrence Seaway and connecting channel deepening is completed, Rep. Blatnik (D-Minn) said today.

* * *

One of the first steps, Blatnik said, will be to seek approval of legislation to give financial assistance in modernizing the Great Lakes shipping fleet, particularly the big ore boats.

A Senate commerce subcommittee will begin hearings about the middle of April on such legislation. It would put Great Lakes ships on a par with ocean going ships and thus make them eligible for federal aid in building new and modernizing old carriers.

Blatnik, chairman of a house public works subcommittee which handled the seaway and channel deepening measures, said in an interview a bill will be introduced next year for improvement of 18 to 22 Great Lakes harbors, estimated to cost about 100 million dollars.

* * *

27 FEET DEEP

The seaway, now under construction, will provide a channel 27 feet deep from Lake Erie to the Atlantic. In addition, President Eisenhower recently signed a bill authorizing deepening of the channels in the Great Lakes west of Lake Erie to the same 27 foot depths.

The seaway, estimated to cost up to 105 million dollars, is to be ready in 1959. The channel deepening, estimated to cost 110 million dollars, may be ready a year later.

Eisenhower in his budgget message to Congress early in the year recommended five million dollars be appropriated this year to get the channel work under way.

"More than half of the big carriers on the Great Lakes are more than 10 years old," Blatnik said. "In view of the deeper channels being provided, it is logical to have new, bigger and more efficient carriers in operation."

He said harbor improvements will be needed at many of the Great Lakes harbors to permit the deeper draft vessels which will be in use to operate efficiently in them.

* * *

In addition to the request to be made for federal funds to dredge and make other harbor improvements, Blatnik said, millions of dollars are expected to be spent by private, local interests on improving docking, terminal and other facilities.

Water Plan Costs Dip

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — The city's $2,480,000 water improvement program dropped $36 in costs Monday. Glamorgan Pipe & Foundry Co. of Chicago said it is donating an 18-foot section of six-inch watermain — part of the city's order for a mile of the pipe — because it is the 1,000,001st section manufactured by the firm since starting a number system on the sections in 1947.

Only one lung cancer case in 20 is cured today. Ten out of 20 could be saved if diagnosis were made early enough, the American Cancer Society says.

Anti-Discrimination Bill Waits Governor's Pen

LANSING (AP)—The Legislature today sent Gov. Williams a bill increasing penalties for racial discrimination practiced by tavern, hotel or motel owners.

The bill, which passed the house by a 73-24 vote Monday, increases penalties to a $100 fine or 90 days in jail.

It also allows the state to revoke the license of any tavern, motel or hotel owner practicing discrimination if such action is recommended by the court.

No Votes for Gobs

BENTON HARBOR (AP) — A pair of sailors aboard the USS Aucilla, an auxiliary oiler in Barcelona, Spain, have been thwarted in attempts to cast absentee ballots for the 1956 Blossom Queen. Contest officials said William Klusak not by popular voting.

and Robert Heatlie, wrote for blanks after viewing the field of Coloma entries in the Feb. 23 Benton Harbor News-Palladium. Officials emphasized, however, that Miss Blossomtime will be chosen April 23 by a panel of judges — not by popular voting.

Farmers Told How to Get Refund on Gasoline Tax

AP Wirephoto

REUNION AMID TRAGEDY — Mrs. Marinus DeWindt of Hudsonville holds her daughter and finds her nephews (foreground) in St. Mary's Hospital in Grand Rapids after they were brought in after last night's tornado. Whereabouts of the boys' parents was not known at the time.

TORNADO RUINS — Firewood is all that remains of homes on both sides of this road in Hudsonville following last night's devastating tornado.

U.S. to Return Two-Cent Levy

June 30 to Oct. 1 Given as Time to File Claims for Fuel Tax Rebate

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Internal Revenue Service today outlined procedures for farmers to follow in claiming refund of federal taxes paid on gasoline.

It also spelled out how the fuel is to be used to qualify for redemption of the two-cent-a-gallon excise levy.

The new law is designed to help relieve the cost-price squeeze on the farmer. Sixty million dollars a year will be refunded, an average of $12 for each of the five million farmers.

First payments will be made after June 30 on gasoline bought and used during the first six months of this year. In later years, refunds will be made for a 12-month period from July 1 to June 30.

FILE CLAIM

To get his refund, a farmer must file a claim between June 30 and October 1. Copies of Form 2240, on which the claim is to be made, will be available after June 1 from Internal Revenue offices, county farm agents and many banks and post offices.

The refunds must be listed as income on income tax returns the following year since the cost of the gasoline, including the tax, also may be claimed by the farmer as a business expense.

Refunds will be limited to gasoline used for these purposes:

1. By the farmer or any other person in connection with cultivating the soil, or raising or harvesting any farm commodity—including livestock and poultry—on a farmer's own land.

FOR OPERATION

2. By the farmer in the operation, management, conservation, improvement or maintenance on his farm or its tools and equipment.

3. By the farmer in handling, drying, packing, grading or storing any farm product in its unmanufactured state, but only if he produced more than one-half of the product.

4. By the farmer for cultivation and preparation of trees for market, other than in the form of lumber and only if the growing of trees in incidental to his farming operations.

LIST RESTRICTIONS

No refunds of tax are allowed on gasoline used off the farm, such as on the public highway in transporting family members or workmen, equipment, livestock, crops or feed.

Neither are funds permitted on gasoline used for anything beyond the initial handling that products normally receive on the farm.

The Internal Revenue Service said more detailed regulations will be available on the new law, which was signed by President Eisenhower only last month, before farmers file their first applications for the refunds.

In addition to gasoline, it applies to the two-cent federal tax on Diesel fuel and special motor fuels used for farming.

Internal Revenue warned that farmers who expect to file claims should keep sufficient records to enable agents to verify the accuracy of the amount claimed.

Townships Set Meetings in April Cancer Drive

Two townships, Commerce and Waterford, have announced plans to take part in the April crusade on cancer being conducted nationally by the American Cancer Society.

* * *

Special meetings and kick-off dinners are being scheduled in many communities in what the society hopes will be the "biggest assault on cancer" in its history.

Commerce Township

The Commerce Township American Cancer Society will hold a meeting at 8 p.m. at Stone Crest, the civic clubhouse in Walled Lake. Elmer Pleger, Harold Rogers, Ray Shurlow and Richard Zemmer, Mrs. Margaret Dennis has been named as general chairman of the township's Cancer Crusade during April and invites the public to attend this meeting and to help plan the campaign.

Needed are district chairman and volunteers who will carry the cancer control Crusade to at least fifteen homes in their neighborhoods, during the house-to-house canvass to be conducted on April 17, 18, 19.

The goal of the committee is to raise $22,000 to be used for research, education and service to patients. Sixty per cent of the donations are to be used statewide and locally; 25 per cent will be given to continue research and 15 per cent is sent to national headquarters. Posters, promoting the crusade, are being placed in local places.

Waterford Township

Newly formed, the Waterford Township branch of the American Cancer Society is preparing to participate in this month's national education crusade. The organization plans to establish a cancer service depot in the township to dispense dressings, bandages, and other equipment in the near future.

According to national figures, in a community of 40,000 such as Waterford is, an estimated 320 persons have cancer. Of these, 180 to 200 do not know they have it and approximately 65 will die of it. A three-point program — knowledge, understanding and motivation — is being pushed to conquer the disease.

The American Cancer Society is a United Fund agency but those in Waterford Township making direct contributions may now do so through the local branch.

Officers for the new organization are Mrs. Helen H. Reese, general chairman; Mrs. George Smith, educational chairman; Mrs. John Thompson, service chairman; Mrs. John Naz, crusade chairman, assisted by Mrs. Gerald Lewis.

The kick-off dinner for crusade month for the Northern Oakland District of the American Cancer society is slated for 6:15 p.m. April 12, at Devon Gables. Hon. H. Russell Holland, 1956 chairman, will preside and Dr. John Mara and Mrs. Edward Williams will appear on the program.

Under the auspices of the Waterford Branch a film explaining breast self-examination will be shown at 8:00 p.m., Monday, April 23, at the CAI building on Williams Lake road. A physician will be in attendance to lead the discussion following the film and to answer questions.

Feikens Renews Blasts at Dems

State GOP Chief Raps Opposition for Charge Made by Mrs. Thorpe

LANSING (AP) — Republican state chairman John Feikens today renewed charges against Democrats made in connection with the disappearance of Mrs. Anna Thorpe, branch manager of the St. Clair Shores secretary of state's office who took off with $74,000 in state funds.

"Democrats are yelling that I am playing politics to hide their own shortcomings," Feikens said. "I charge that the heads of the Democrat party are in the business of selling state jobs and are demanding tribute for their party.

"From wherever she is hiding, Mrs. Thorpe said she was required to contribute 10 per cent of her fees to the Democrat party. No one making around $6,000 a year—with income tax and office expenses to come out of that—can make a $400 cash political contribution unless it is made under duress," Feikens said.

Daily Worker Selling; Pays Part of Taxes

NEW YORK (AP)—The Communists have recovered the seized assets of their Daily Worker and their national headquarters offices by posting a total of $4,500 in cash toward income tax liens.

* * *

Possession of the padlocked newspaper offices and headquarters was regained last night, a week after they were seized by Internal Revenue Service agents.

* * *

The party and its newspaper got releases by signing an agreement with Donald R. Moysey, district director of internal revenue.

The Daily Worker, which had continued publishing through its separate printing plant, carried a headline in today's issue proclaiming "We're back. Free press scores victory."

* * *

Children Give $378 for Overseas Relief

DRAYTON PLAINS — The children of the Community United Presbytsrian Church have returned more than 350 of the banks distributed to them a month ago for an Overseas Church Relief offering.

According to Glenn Featherston, secretary-treasurer of the Bible School, their donations totaled $378.35.

An additional $186.30 from the adults brings the amount of this gift to $565.00.

The first successful sugar plantation in Hawaii was established in Koloa in 1835 by two Yankees.

MARK GOLDEN WEDDING — Honoring their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Emigh Henry Congdon will hold open house Sunday from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. at their home at 60 Pontiac St. in Oxford. She was the former Myrtle Boice of Lake Orion, where they were married on April 10, 1906. He then was publisher of the Oxford Leader, and they worked together in that business for nearly a half century, until they sold it last May.

Ike May Sign Farm Measure

Eisenhower Not Totally Satisfied but Over-All Effect Reason for OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower indicated today he might sign a farm bill containing some provisions objectionable to him.

Eisenhower declined to comment at his news conference on whether he would compromise with advocates of high, fixed farm price supports.

* * *

He said, however, he is not one to hold up a bill that contains some bad things if the over-all effect of the measure is good.

Questions put to Eisenhower on farm problems were pegged to the bill on which Senate-House conferees are now trying to hammer out a compromise.

* * *

The conferees are in general agreement on a soil bank plan which Eisenhower backs, but also have voted for high level, rigid supports on major crops. The administration opposes a return to that system and Secretary of Agriculture Benson has indicated he will recommend a veto for any such plan.

TOO LATE FOR FARMERS

Eisenhower said it is now too late for farmers to gain much practical benefit out of the soil bank program this year. He said spring planting already has started and it is difficult to take out of production acreage that already is planted.

But the President said certainly we will get a good farm program in operation before next fall.

Eisenhower said farmers have a right to be bewildered by declining prices for their products. He gave this answer to a question about the political effect of farm unrest.

* * *

Eisenhower said he believes that on the whole farmers are sensible men and that they recognize his administration is doing the best it can for the good of the whole country.

Mexican Police Bare Facts in Death of Detroit Couple

MEXICO CITY (INS) — Secret Service officers say Mrs. Everett Dennison of Detroit was shot down and killed when she pointed her light sporting rifle at her husband's slayer.

Victoria in northern Mexico. They were on a hunting vacation.

Shelton told police he stumbled

The Mexican police revealed details of the double murder after taking confessions from the two Americans arrested as they tried to slip across the border into Guatemala.

The suspects, William Shelton of Dallas, Texas, and Joseph O'Brien of New York City, were also accused of murdering Jose Cristobal Flores who served as a hunting guide for the Detroit couple.

The bodies of wealthy Everett Kennison, 58, and his wife, Pauline, 50, were found in the brush near during a hunting trip with the Kennisons and shot Kennison accidentally. He said he was so frightened he shot Mrs. Kennison twice with his shotgun.

However, Shelton's partner, O'Brien said Shelton went berserk and shot the Detroit industrialist and then blasted away at his wife when she turned her .22 caliber rifle at him.

The two Americans face death before a firing squad for the triple murder if convicted.

Wilson Will Inspect Canada Radar Sites

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Pentagon has announced that Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson will open a series of conferences this week with top Canadian military leaders on U.S. attack warning systems in Canada.

* * *

The announcement said Wilson, accompanied by high American defense officials will meet Canadian leaders in Ottawa Friday to begin a 4-day inspection of the Mid-Canada and distant early warning systems.

The Pentagon announcement, which was released simultaneously in Ottawa, said Wilson would be accompanied by U.S. Ambassador to Canada R. Douglas Stuart, Air Force Secretary Donald A. Quarles and Air Defense Commander Gen. Earl E. Partridge.

Canada will be represented by Defense Production Minister C. D. Howe, Defense Minister Ralph Campney, Northern Affairs Minister Jean Lesage, and Air Vice Marshal L. E. Wray, Canadian air defense chief.

Spain Welcomes Morocco Leader

Ben Youssef to Receive Grant of Independence From Franco

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Spain prepared a royal welcome today for Morocco's Sultan Mohammed ben Youssef, coming here to receive a grant of independence for the Spanish-ruled part of his North African empire.

A declaration ending Spain's protectorate over its 18,009-square-mile zone was approved by the government last night.

An announcement after a meeting of Generalissimo Francisco Franco with his Cabinet said the declaration recognized Morocco's independence and the unity of French and Spanish Morocco.

MILITARY BASES

It said the Cabinet also approved terms of reference for further negotiations with the Moroccans on putting the independence declaration into effect. It did not elaborate.

It was anticipated that one of Spain's chief objectives would be the right to maintain military bases in Morocco, major training ground for Spanish armed forces.

Mother Singers to Meet

Writes Note in Lipstick, Steps in Path of Train

ROYAL OAK—A woman, tentatively identified as Mrs. Celia Bell, 40, of 1325 E. 13 Mile, stepped in front of a train at 10-Mile and Harrison late last night, and was killed.

Police say Mrs. Bell had taken off her coat, folded it and placed it beside the track with her shoes on top. She wrote her address on her billfold with lipstick, then stepped in front of the west-bound train. Her body was thrown 165 feet.

Identification was made by means of her clothing. Police said she was rooming at the 13-Mile road address, but is believed to have a husband in California.

Science Develops New Tablet:

Relieves Painful Monthly Cramps For 3 out of 4 Women Tested! Gives Greater Relief Than Aspirin!

Boston, Mass. (Special)—New promise of relief for women who suffer tortures of monthly cramps and nervous tension is found in an amazing new tablet . . . developed especially to relieve this female discomfort. It offers greater relief than aspirin during that distressing period each month!

Doctors report remarkable results. For 3 out of 4 women tested, pain and cramps were stopped or strikingly relieved. Even on the first day, many had no nagging headaches, no backaches or other functionally-caused distress . . . were also less jittery the trying week before their period!

The new tablet contains not just one or two ingredients but a unique combination of special medicines. That's why this new discovery offers more relief than plain aspirin! Unlike such "general-purpose" remedies, it acts on the cause of distress. Has amazing power to calm uterine contractions, also works through a woman's sympathetic nervous system.

Called "Lydia Pinkham's Tablets," the formula was developed by the world's largest manufacturer devoted exclusively to relief of women's ailments! Easy-to-take new Pinkham's Tablets are now available at all drug stores without a prescription.

So don't suffer needlessly. Take Pinkham's Tablets yourself. See if you don't feel worlds better this very month. See if you don't escape much of the irritability and discomfort—both before and during those "difficult days." (For liquid form . . . ask for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.)

Hollywood Headlines:

Dempsey Clears the Way for Film Story of His Life

BY LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS)—A way has been found to lick the life story of Jack Dempsey. He told me when I met him in Palm Springs Easter that he had clearance from everyone but Jack Kearns, his first manager. "And that is no problem," said Jack, "because we won't have to use him in the story."

Roland Barker, who made arrangements for the Rocky Graziano story, "Somebody Up There Likes Me," for MGM, is handling the colorful story of the Manassa Mauler, former heavyweight champion.

Jack spent Easter with his two daughters, Joan and Barbara, and their husbands. He was with a party of friends when I saw him at the Racquet club.

I was sure that June Haver would turn down Universal-International's offer to play opposite her husband, Fred MacMurray, in "Gun for a Coward." She doesn't seem of a mind to resume her professional life.

But Fred gets Janice Rule, who left Hollywood, went to Broadway and made a success in "Picnic." This is the first picture Janice has made in five years. Her last was "Goodbye My Fancy."

In "Gun for a Coward", she plays a rancher's daughter who is engaged to Fred but falls in love with his younger brother Jeff Hunter.

I'd like to say Jeff is just terrific in the "The Searchers." And what a Western! It's also John Wayne at his best.

BROADWAY INVASION

Look for more and more Broadway players to invade Hollywood now that the major studios are keeping such slim contract lists. An important addition is Norma Crane, the redhead who made a hit on the stage in "Bus Stop," who has just been signed for "Tea and Sympathy" with Deborah Kerr, and Leif Erickson at MGM.

Norma got her chance when the MGM executives saw her on TV in an "Alfred Hitchcock Presents" show. In the movie she'll play a waitress who is a favorite of the college boys and whom John Kerr is goaded into dating.

I heard that "Tea and Sympathy" has been censor-proofed so thoroughly that it is now just the story of a youth's crush on a professor's wife.

Had such a good rest in Palm Spring despite the wind and rain. The air is so clear and I slept as I haven't slept in months.

Went to Jimmy Van Heusen's house to put my handprint and signature in cement. He has a walk around his house on the order of Grauman's Chinese Theater forecourt. Bing, Frank Sinatra, Doris Day, Mitch Miller and many others have left their imprint.

GRANDDAD FRED

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random: Fred Astaire's stepson, Peter Potter (not the TV emcee), will become a father in August. That makes Fred a grandfather.

Harry Richman undergoes plastic surgery on his face as a result of an automobile crash.

Deborah Kerr was with Brenda and Bill Holden and David Rose at the Jimmy Van Heusen Room at the Desert Inn in Palm Springs.

While John Wayne was waiting at St. Joseph Hospital for the birth of his daughter, instead of pacing the floor he went to the children's ward and entertained the delighted kiddies.

Vic Mature postcards from Cuba where he's making "Sharkfighters." His girl friend, Marion Collier, is not far away.

Don't miss "Come Next Spring." It's one of those pictures that will get people into the theaters. Ann Sheridan and Steve Cochran give star performances.

Navy Returns Target Location to Michigan

WASHINGTON (INS)—The Interior Department announced today the Navy has given up 2,513 acres of an aerial bombing range in northern Lake Michigan, which includes part of Hog Island.

* * *

Under-Secretary Clarence A. Davis said most of the land will go to Michigan for use in special game management studies, such as the creation of wilderness conditions.

In exchange, he said, the state will provide lands elsewhere which will be added to national forest areas.

The Navy has used the Lake Michigan range since June 1944. It has certified target areas have been adequately decontaminated although they still are not completely safe.

Air Force Jet Crashes at Baltimore; 2 Killed

BALTIMORE (INS)—Two men were killed last night when an Air Force jet trainer crashed in flames in a field five miles northwest of Baltimore's Friendship International Airport.

Anne Arundel County Police said the accident occurred shortly after the plane took off from the airport. Air Force officials withheld the names of the dead until next of kin are notified.

Hal Boyle Says:

For Island Home, Make Mine Manhattan!

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP)—Have you been putting off buying an island for one reason or another?

* * *

Frankly, like a lot of other people, I have.

But on a vacation visit to these "Isles of June" I decided to look into the matter.

There was a kind of urgency about it. Next year comes my 20th wedding anniversary, and I have been racking my brain over what kind of present to give my wife to celebrate the event.

But what can you give a woman who already has a vacuum cleaner, an air-conditioning machine, a TV set and an electric dishwasher? Obviously the only things left to give her is a kind word—or an island.

INSISTS ON TREE

"If you buy me an island," said Frances when I brought up the subject, "just be sure it has a big tree on it—so I can tie you to it and know where you are."

* * *

I went into the H. G. Christie real estate office here and a man named Ed Brownrigg filled me in on the situation—but fast.

Of the nearly 3,000 islands and rocky cays in the Bahamas he had some two score on the market at the moment. Unfortunately, my first choice, San Salvador—the first spot of land sighted by Christopher Columbus in 1492—wasn't for sale.

"There has been a greatly increased interest in island buying since the war, particularly among Americans," said Brownrigg. "What do you have in mind?"

* * *

"Oh, just something adequate—nothing ostentatious," I told him.

* * *

"Well, there's Darby Island," he said. "About 400 acres, good house, a coconut grove, fine harbor facilities. A really splendid buy—only $200,000."

A BIT SHOWY

"Thinking it over," I replied, "it sounds just a wee bit ostentatious."

"How about Pigeon Cay or Vigilant Cay? They're about three acres each, and priced around $4,500."

"Wonderful!" I murmured. "I could settle on an island like that and live off the fat of the land forever."

"Of course, you'd have to build a house first," said Brownrigg.

"I would?"

"And of course you'd have to have a yacht!"

"I would?"

* * *

"Oh, my yes. You can't just start from scratch, you know. It takes a bit of wealth."

"It does?"

DREAMS FADE

My dreams of owning an island paradise went glimmering. A yacht? And me with barely enough in the bank to make a down payment on a rowboat.

* * *

"What is the very cheapest island you have?" I asked desperately.

"Let me see, there's Cane Cay—it's a mere $1,800."

"Well, well, now we're really getting some place. How big is it?"

"It's about 200 by 300 feet."

"Did you say feet?"

"Yes, sir."

"Why there wouldn't be room to swing a cat around on an island that size."

* * *

"There aren't any cats there," said Brownrigg. "But it isn't too remote. You can have television."

That gave me the out I was looking for.

"My whole purpose in wanting an island was to get away from it all," I said, with great dignity. "I'm afraid you don't have quite what I had in mind."

If I have to live on an island that can be reached by television—well, make mine Manhattan.

Kiwanis Club Plans to View 'Colorama'

At a special meeting Thursday night in the Federal Savings and Loan Building on West Huron Street, Pontiac Kiwanians will view a "colorama" sponsored in cooperation with Pat Lally's "House of Color."

The display of color combinations is intended to stimulate interest in new color possibilities in interior decorating, the club said yesterday.

The exhibit will be co-sponsored by the downtown, north side and west side Kiwanis clubs.

Banish Those Springtime Blues With New Beauty

Girls Will Be in the Pink in Their Spring Makeup

There's a new makeup for every spring costume.

Red, pink, French toast and gray are the chic colors in fashions this season, and good clear makeup is said to be the makeup mode of the moment.

You've been hearing about the ladylike look for a few seasons now, and it has finally come to pass. The complexion has fallen into that look of quiet elegance too—making the gifts of nature a little more vivid perhaps by artificial means.

The makeup look is a rosy one. Pink makeup is especially complementary to new spring shades and the girl who wants just one makeup will find it flattering.

Her lipstick for spring is a torrero pink, a shade that is likely to go with anything in her wardrobe.

Pink may be worn by everyone except the girl with blemished skin. Sallow skins may be livened up with it. Youthful epidermis soaks up the color like a real blush.

Older women—white and gray-haired matrons especially — are flattered by it too.

SHADE SELECTION

Blondes and brunettes may wear pink, choosing the shade according to their depth of coloring. It is a good color for redheads.

* * *

"Can you wear it with many things?" a girl asked recently.

It will go with almost anything if you choose the right shade, not too much blue or a purple cast.

Good clear pink goes beautifully with red, and why shouldn't it being a shade of that color? The too-blue hues are likely to look garish with red however, so choose your pink to be an all-around accessory in your vanity case.

There are lovely vivid pinks to choose from — a torrero pink is of the shade of the lining of the bullfighter's cape.

A girl convinced that pink is not for her will find good clear reds ranging from scarlet to ruby. It's a good idea to skip heavy shades in the spring.

No matter what shade of lipstick you choose it should be bright hue to offset the clear tones of your pale powder.

There are a wide variety of textures in lipsticks.

If the indelible type is drying to your lips, switch to an oilier lipstick that will go on smoothly, although too oily lipstick will spread to the little skin pores above the lipline giving a messy appearance.

The flattering "Flower Toque" hairdo, pictured left, from the Robert Fiane Hair Design Institute of New York, features soft waves brushed away from the face, a light fluff at the nape of the neck. Brow is kept clear as many deep hats encircle the head, just skim the eyebrows. The chic simplicity of this coiffure makes it a perfect accompaniment for exaggerated millinery. On the right is pictured the "diadem" coiffure by Kenneth of Lilly Dache Beauty Salon. In setting, the hair is an even length all around, is brushed forward for smoothness and then top hair is separated and brushed back without a part. A small "kiss" curl is pulled out at each side.

Spring coiffure that draws hair back from brow into a swirling chignon at the back of head was inspired by Grace Kelly. This style, by Charles of the Ritz of New York, has a diamond bracelet around chignon and a curl going forward over each ear.

Spectacles No Handicap — If You Pick Right Style

Modern women — and men, too — have discarded the old notion that spectacles were a social handicap, the Better Vision Institute points out. For some time they have been discovering, in ever-increasing numbers, that glasses can be even more flattering than a pair of earrings or a well-chosen hat.

* * *

It is important for an eyeglass-wearer to select styles that suit his or her face type. For example, if a person has eye-circles, too large lenses would put a magnifying glass over them, but rightly placed lower rims would help to conceal them.

In choosing spectacle frames, the Institute advises trying on a number to see which ones look best, and also keeping a few basic rules in mind. A frame should be as wide as the widest part of the wearer's face, or it will give the face a pinched look. A slightly upward slant is apt to make glasses more becoming than downward lines. High temples (side-pieces) are preferred over those that are low enough to hide the eyes from the sides. Eyebrows should show a little above the frame, but not enough to give an impression of two sets of eyebrows.

* * *

There's no need to seek out inconspicuous glasses. It's quite fashionable to use eyewear as a beauty accent and to have it tally with the colors of one's wardrobe. And eye make-up is important to the woman who wears specs. Brows should be penciled, then brushed to give a natural look. At least one coat of mascara is recommended.

* * *

And eye shadow, applied from the center of the lids out past the corners of the eyes and slightly upward, can be beautifying. The eyes will look larger if it matches their color, but more brilliant if it contrasts.

New Sheaths Show Oriental Influence

The Oriental influence in fashion this season can be seen in the the sheath dresses, mandarin collars, slits on the side seams of a coat in a sheath ensemble, or in just the very slim straight-line cut coat. These side slits may reach up as far as the waistline.

This same Eastern influence, say clothing specialists at Michigan State University, is apparent in many of the print fabrics and in the lavish use of gold, bright orange, turquoise, Chinese red or primrose yellow.

Make Your Goal a Lovelier You

By JOAN RITTER

If you have the early spring blues so prevalent this time of year and if you're dissatisfied, it's time to start following a consistent beauty program with the emphasis on pampering yourself.

Besides resulting in a new fresh appearance, it will build your morale, which can be a source of personal goodwill and a new way of seeing the joy in living.

To combat this dreary feeling, if your budget doesn't allow a splurge of new clothes, splurge on the things that don't cost too much and that will serve as a refresher for your outlook and your appearance.

First of all, do you really think a concerted effort at home beauty treatment will help you? In order even to begin to take advantage of your assets, analyze your appearance.

* * *

First and foremost, cleanliness is a necessity. A clear, attractive complexion just doesn't happen, for beauty is not a happenstance. Your skin needs regular and intelligent care.

Simple rules for a glowing, clean look are: Keep your skin clean by nightly removing all makeup and the day's accumulation of grime; always wash hands before touching face, use a clean washcloth each time and wash face with lukewarm water, then rinse and dry thoroughly.

Besides cleanliness, personal attributes that figure in the attractiveness of a woman are her general appearance . . . neat besides being clean, her carriage . . . posture, the way she walks and the speed of her walk also must be considered, correct use of cosmetics, good hair styling, correct diet and becoming clothes.

But all the soap and water in the world won't clear up complexion problems if your diet is improper. A balanced diet includes regular meals at regular hours with emphasis on fruit juices for sparkling eyes. The proper amount of sleep is also vital.

Then comes the problem of cosmetics, Don't fall for every cosmetic product on the market. Nothing will help you more, if you aren't sure of a name brand, than talking to your friends, seeing the type of cosmetics they use and why.

* * *

But don't think all of Sally's beauty tricks and magic formulas are for you. Try out reputable brands and experiment with their application. Of course, if you can afford it, see a cosmetologist and learn the purpose of each cosmetic and how and when it should be applied.

HAIR STYLING

A study of your facial contours in relation to your present hairdo will help you decide if you need a hair styling. In choosing a hair style do not overlook your hair texture.

* * *

If a new coiffure looks fine but your hair will not hold the selected style, discard it.

Hair style plus careful consideration of hair texture will determine the suitability of new hair styles for you.

That windblown look isn't chic if the result is a messy appearance. Hair styles are running the gamut as evidenced by pictures on this page. The sleek Grace Kelly look is here, and so is the Beau Brummel look.

The page boy is coming back, too, and though some hair styles are still featuring forehead curls, new spring hats will make all your effort for naught, for they all sit foreward on the brow.

* * *

If you're following a balanced diet for enhancing your complexion you shouldn't be having too much trouble with weight problems. A doctor is your best bet when considering a diet. Better be safe than sorry.

RIGHT GARMENTS

The correct use of foundation garments is a must for comfort and health's sake.

* * *

Your carriage also is important for first impressions, and appearance and comfort too. If you walk straight and give room for correct breathing, you will avoid that out-of-breath and tight feeling in your chest after walking up just one flight of stairs.

Then to top off a happy you, take an inventory of your clothes. Decide what can be done with what you have and what you'll need to complete an ensemble.

Maybe all you need for a perky spring and summer outfit is a new skirt. Whatever you do, don't discount the use of mix-and-match ensembles. They are fashionable for parties or play.

(If certain basic rules are followed you will aways present a neat appearance. Then if you really turn out to be glamorous . . . Hooray for you!)

Empire Again Influences Springtime's Hair Styles

Even the Shortest New Hairdos Boast Strictly Feminine Appearance

Empire hair styles are supposed to be the topknot news for spring. It isn't the first time.

Each collection of new hairdos seems to include one that uses the empire period for inspiration. We've had psyche knots, pompadours, poodle cuts, upsweeps, cap coifs and what-have-you.

Emphasis will be on the more elegant coiffure arrangements this season, predicts one hairdressing group, Coiffures Americana, and these will suit every woman.

Cap of curls . . . Inspired by the Beau Brummels of Napoleonic period, it waves from crown to ears, gives the look of a cap.

True we never have found the era that tried to compete with Marie Antoinette. But we have gone in for hairdos of splendor from time to time.

Empire was a period of short and long hairdos, when a woman's hair was really glorified and Michalon, one of the great hairdressers of all time, was vied for by all the famous beauties of the era.

Hairdos suggested for this season are not quite so complicated, although imaginations have been given full reign and new coiffures are smoothed and shaped to today's casual living.

These hairdos are easy to care for, formal enough for important dates but easy to live with at home.

There are bow-knot curls that go to the nape of the neck from the crown, bangs and curl coils that whirl from brow to ears, waterfall arrangements that are very graceful.

The new hairdos, even the shortest, are strictly feminine.

Empire classic . . . Loose curls at the back give neo-classic look, ideal for season's fashions.

More Home Facials Are on the Market

More and more facials are being marketed for home use.

A new one is a pink product in a flattish jar. It is smoothed on the face and dries from a deep pink to a very light, pale one. It is kept on for about five minutes and is then rinsed off with cool water.

This facial application is designed to tighten the facial muscles and cause a tingling sensation after it is removed.

Good help for dry skin is a rich lubricating cream that's worked with the fingertips and is left on overnight.

Face Fuzz Apt to Upset Teenagers

Try Bleach Made With Peroxide and Soapflakes

During adolescence, the soft down that's on everyone's face may grow a little more vigorously.

This is typical of any time of glandular change. It is even typical of persons whose doctors prescibe drugs that are glandular extracts.

It doesn't bother blondes very much, but the darker-haired teenagers may find that they are developing a dark line of hair on their upper lips which they find unattractive.

First of all, be reassured that this will not continue to get darker at the rate it has in the past six months or a year. You may have exactly the same amount of this hair at 30 that you did at 18.

* * *

Dealing with this hair is tricky, since it's on the face, which is tender skin, and near the lips, which are extrasensitive. Do not shave it, under any circumstances.

TOO STRONG

Do not use any substance designed to remove hair from the legs, on the face. It will be much too strong.

There are depilatories designed for the face, but use them with the utmost care, after patch-testing on a small area.

Bleaching is probably the safest method for home use. A mixture of peroxide and mild soapflakes can be used.

Be sure to test this on some other part of the face first and wait for several days to see if anything untoward develops.

* * *

If this won't work and the problem really bothers you, have your doctor recommend a competent, certified, electrolysis office, if he feels it's warranted. This will not be cheap, but many teenagers may feel its worth it.

Here's How to Be Spry in Old Age

Everytime any well-known local woman passes her 100th birthday, much attention is paid to her formula for living so long and feeling so well.

* * *

The answers range from drinking a quart of home brew every day to rereading the Bible each year to never drinking milk at all.

The answers are as goofy as they are contradictory and most of them are less than no help to women seeking answers to advancing age.

For those who are really interested in this problem, doctors and geriatricians have found many things common to persons who live long, are active and keen and young-acting in their later years.

These seem far more realistic and consoling than the confusing formulae of centenarians.

* * *

Many of them had some kind of serious physical trouble or poor health in their middle years. At that time they discovered a routine that was good for them and they stuck to it.

They are normal or somewhat underweight.

They eat less food than others do, particularly of rich foods.

Their jobs or habits have made them physically active all of their lives, either at home or out of it.

* * *

Lubricating Cream Reconditions Skin

Toward the end of cold weather, many women find that their skins are languishing. Many who have extra-sensitive skins find that the simple repetition of soap and water and cold weather has caused peeling and drying.

Regular use of a rich lubricating cream helps many faced with this problem. It doesn't take hours of rubbing in and rubbing off, but rather daily use of the cream before going to bed at night. Don't expect that one frantic day of using cream after cream will do the job that daily lubrication can do.

To Apply Sachet

Body sachet is most effective when applied the same way as perfume, wherever there's a pulse beat — behind the ears, in the crook of the elbows, at the wrists, temple and base of the throat. In this way, the heat of your body intensifies the scent.

Like mother, sister is moved to pretty herself up when spring comes. Several new children's toiletries can help her to do the necessary jobs while offering some grownup tasks as a reward. Manicure tray (left) has pink polish, remover, lotion and other items. Carry-all (center) has a compact, colorless lipstick, powder and a comb. Toilet water (right) is sweet but light, and has its own atomizer.

Mom Can Make Game of Good Grooming

Little Sister's Vanity Will Be Aroused by Spring

When spring comes, little sister cleans out her playhouse, just as mother cleans out the entire home. Mom gets a permanent, Sis may want a new hair ribbon.

* * *

If a little girl has any impulse toward sissying herself up, spring is the time it will appear. A new bonnet may inspire her to great heights with soap and washcloth.

New shoes may impel her to have her toenails cut. A bonbon pretty dress may inspire her to borrow a squirt of mother's Gruesomely Dangerous perfume at three dollars a squirt.

If a child can possibly get a desire for grownup habits of grooming, spring is the time. Strike while the iron is tepid.

Let her have her own toilet water, since you can be sure this way that she will not be as aromatic as the town menace.

NAIL CARE KIT

A fingernail kit that includes small scissors, emery board and cuticle pusher, in addition to the coveted nail polish (in a pale shade), can be a help.

Don't make the mistake of thrusting the child off to her room to "polish her nails" if she complains of nothing to do. This will make it a task, not fun.

Let her do her grooming tasks when you do yours. She'll brush her hair more vigorously if she's allowed to do it in your room while you do, too.

Help her, show her and let her do it when it seems like fun. Good habits lie this way.

Passing Years Thin Hair

There's no question about the fact that as woman grows older, her hair gets thinner.

What used to be a luxuriant mop, so thick it couldn't hold a hat, eventually becomes more and more skimpy.

For women with coarse hair that tends to lie down properly and hold its shape anyway, this is scarcely a liability. The thinning-out of age may even make her look very slick and soignee.

But for women with fine hair, the problems of its fineness persist as the hair grows thin.

A woman who thinks, "Ah, now my hair is thin. I won't have to have it trimmed every week" is in for a surprise. It will frizz up just as it always has, perhaps worse as the hair grows drier.

* * *

And for hair lacking in natural thickness and natural oils, the aid of a beautician becomes even more important.

The stylist can trim and thin the hair so that what there is of it will lie down close to the head and cover it. It will also look thicker.

If you're accustomed to permanents, the professional salon can condition your hair so that the permanent won't dry it or cause it to frizz badly.

More Hand Lotions Feature Dispensers

Economy-sized bottles of hand lotion with attached dispensers are being offered by more and more companies.

The latest company to offer one has made a teardrop-shaped bottle for its lotion with a drop-by-drop dispenser thrown in.

Peanut butter may be varied as a sandwich filling if finely chopped apple, mashed banana or crumpled crisp bacon are added.

Ice cream may be kept longer, but it's best to plan purchases so that it is held for no more than two or three weeks.

Keep Clothes Budget

Have you ever figured out how much you spend each year on clothes? A clothes budget is a good idea. It keeps you from running wild at sales and winding up with items you'll never wear.

If Garment Is Sudsable, Then It Won't Shrink, Fade

Have you ever made a washable cotton dress, only to find that the binding faded or the snaps rusted? If so, you found out the hard way that everything that goes into a washable garment must be colorfast, rust-proof and generally sudsable.

Experts at your local sewing center offer some tips on selecting sewing accessories that will keep your garments in good shape after dozens of tubbings.

Be sure your thread is fast color, whether it is nylon, mercerized cotton or silk. Synthetics call for nylon or dacron thread; silk thread is used on silk fabrics; mercerized thread is best for cotton, rayon or linen.

Linings and interfacings must be washed the same way as the outside fabric, so if your fabric is nylon or dacron use the same kind of lining; for cotton fabric, use cotton lining, and so on.

For stiffening and shaping a garment, a new lining material called pellon is generally satisfactory, since it is washable and holds its shape. Other choices are permanently stiffened canvas and crisp nylon net.

* * *

Be sure your tapes and bindings are fast color. Cotton seam binding is sturdy and washable, and a non-puckering bias rayon seam binding is available in a color-fast version.

Hooks and eyes, snaps and grippers must be rustproof. Zippers, too, must be rustproof and should have color-fast tape.

If you use shoulder pads in your made-at-home clothes, try foam rubber snap-in pads. Cotton shoulder pads, though washable, have a tendency to lose their shape.

* * *

Self belts are smart, but often present a laundry problem. You can solve this by using a double-layer cotton backing which can be purchased in a package with a washable buckle. Single-layer backing is available by the yard, and nonrusting buckles also can be bought separately. Covered buttons must have rustproof backs.

Pearl, crystal and jet buttons are washable. Watch out for plastic buttons. Unless the package specifically says they are washable, they are likely to be damaged by hot water.

If you go to the trouble of making a dress, it pays to check all the details to be sure you get full use of it.

Comforting Excuses Will Sabotage Beauty

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Here are some of the things we say which lull us into a sense of false security:

1. "I am so sleepy tonight, I think I will just leave my make-up on even if I am having some trouble with those blackheads."

* * *

2. "I love chocolates and simply crave all kinds of sweets! I must need them since I crave them like I do."

3. "I'll just have dessert today and make up for it tomorrow, and a few of these salted nuts won't matter." (Life is made up of todays and it is those small items which count up to such a big total.)

4. "I am too tired to do my exercises today. I will start again tomorrow."

* * *

5. "Maybe, after all, this extra weight is becoming to me. I really think women look younger from middle age on with a few extra pounds." (There is a point at which every woman looks her best. Five or six pounds more than you liked a few years ago may be becoming but do not take it any further than that.)

FAMILY FAT

6. "There is simply no use to struggle! Fat runs in my family." (The glandular setup may be inherited so that you will have to be more careful than some in order to avoid obesity, but more likely your extra pounds are due to inherited eating habits.)

7. "Well, after all, I am the mother of two children. I can't expect to have a girlish figure." (If you take care of yourself after delivery you still will have your lovely figure.)

"I love chocolates and simply crave all kinds of sweets. I must need them since I crave them like I do." Saying this can lull you into a false sense of security.

All of these excuses we give ourselves are comforting for the moment but sabotage us in the long run. Even when our fatigue is from tensions rather than physical activity it is difficult to make ourselves exercise because we feel physically tired.

However, if we force ourselves over the hurdle we find ourselves refreshed. Even though we have a special craving for sweets this does not mean that we need what we crave.

We should have some sugar in our diet but the candy and dessert cravings are just habits. Once we do without these for a while we no longer wish for them.

Today is here. Don't keep putting off self-improvement until tomorrow if you wish to remain youthful for as long as possible

Tomorrow: "Here's Help in Preparing Waist for Spring Styles."

Neighbor's Invitations Unwelcome

Couple Advised to Keep on Pleading Previous Dates

By EMILY POST

Today's first letter asks: "Will you please tell me what I can do about a neighbor of ours who asks my husband and me every time she has a party (which I might add is quite often). We have gone to one or two of her parties but find we have nothing in common with either our hosts or their friends.

"The last two parties she invited us to we declined saying that we had previous engagements. She is having another party shortly to which we have been invited.

"Evidently our past refusals have not discouraged her, and it is becoming very embarrassing. Will you please tell me what I can do, without being rude, to get out of these invitations?"

Answer: There is nothing possible for you to do except continue to have previous engagements, and by and by she will most probably stop asking you.

"Dear Mrs. Post: I have been invited to a dinner-dance at a private club. I am going to wear a ballerina-length evening dress. Should regular gloves be worn, and if so is it proper to remove them at the table and put them back on again after dinner, or would it be proper to wear fingerless gloves and keep them on throughout the evening?"

Answer: Please do not wear fingerless gloves. You remove your gloves when you sit down at the table to have something to eat and put them back on again later for dancing.

"Dear Mrs. Post: If two young couples go into a restaurant and sit in a booth for four, it it best for the girls to sit on one side together and the men across, or for each girl on a side with her own friend next to her?"

Answer: It is better that the girls go in first and sit across from each other and that each man sit next to his own friend.

He Knows His Princesses

Rita and Grace Compared

By JOAN HANAUER

NEW YORK (INS)—Charles Vidor, who directed ex-Princess Rita Hayworth and Princess-to-be Grace Kelly in the movies they made directly before their royal marriages, claims:

"If you want to marry a prince, make a picture with me."

The Hungarian-born director, who speaks with a charming trace of continental accent and looks like Claude Rains, explained some basic differences between Rita and Grace.

"I couldn't say some things about Miss Kelly because I just don't know," he explained, "but I more or less lived through Rita's romance with Aly with her.

"I not only went to the wedding, but my wife and I spent part of their honeymoon with them. Rita loved this guy very much.

"I think Miss Kelly can be very affectionate but unlike Rita I don't think she's impulsive. If Miss Kelly likes the idea of this marriage, she'll be tailor-made for the part of princess.

* * *

"If we like something we can become great experts at it. Rita liked everything about Aly except his being a prince. I think that's one reason why they split up. She's retiring—she likes to sit in the backyard in blue jeans, instead of attending three social events each and every day."

AMBITIOUS GIRL

Vidor who directed Rita Hayworth in "Gilda" and "Carmen" and Grace in "The Swan," a tale of royal romance, added:

"I think Grace is a very ambitious girl. She's the kind of girl who wants to do the best possible job on everything she tackles. She's a woman with single purposeness. And she's much more social-minded than Rita."

Another beauty Vidor has had to handle in his directorial day is Elizabeth Taylor, who presented him with one of his worst problems.

Miss Taylor had a baby shortly before the scheduled filming of "Rhapsody," and she had put on a great deal of weight. She didn't want to diet and the studio suspended her until she was down to her "fighting weight."

Reluctantly Miss Taylor took off the necessary pounds, and a meeting was called in the studio commissary.

"She looked up at me with those violet eyes from under those long, black lashes," Vidor recalls, "and said violently, 'I hate this studio'.

"She made it very clear she didn't want to do the film. She was like an emotionally wrought up child—which she was, she was only 20 at the time.

"At first she wouldn't cooperate and walked through her part like a somnambulist. But she soon realized I wasn't the studio and I hadn't suspended her, and she became very gay on the set. She would go around squirting everyone with water pistols."

The tables were turned on Miss Taylor, though, when the last shot—of Miss Taylor in bed in a nightgown—was filmed. Vidor told her he wanted one more take, this time with her back to the camera.

Elizabeth Taylor cooperatively turned around and men stationed on scaffolding dumped pails of water on her.

Some weeks later Vidor gave a party for the cast and had a policeman stationed at the door to frisk the screen star.

An arsenal of five water pistols was concealed on her person.

Are You Willing to Pay the Price?

By ANNE HEYWOOD

There is an old saying that goes, "What will you have?" quoth God. "Take it and pay for it."

* * *

Yet too often, it seems to me, we want to take it without paying for it.

We decide on such and such a career, or such and such a destiny, but we forget that there's a price we must pay if we want it.

To Marie F., for example, having her own business seems like just plain heaven, but she's forgetting that little matter of the price.

* * *

"I'm sick and tired of working for big companies," she writes. "You have to take so much and work for peanuts.

ALL THE GRAVY

"I'm in the decorating field, have been for years. I'm sure I know as much about it as the owner of the firm, but he gets all the gravy.

* * *

"I want advice on how to set up my own decorating business. None of this slaving for other people for me!".

There is a time when I would have advised Marie on how to do it and sent her a list of good books on setting up a business of your own.

But that was many years ago. I've learned a lot since then. I've learned that the how-to part of a business is the easiest, really, and that the personality and temperament part is the hard part.

Obviously, Marie is considering a business of her own for all the wrong reasons.

RESENTS DISCIPLINE

She resents discipline. Yet she doesn't realize that in a business of your own you get more self-discipline of a tougher variety than you ever got from any employer in your life.

* * *

She resents her salary and wants to make the profits. But she forgets that her salary gets paid when she's sick and when business is poor. When's she's on her own, that won't be the case.

She resents working so hard and such long hours for her present employer. But when she's on her own, she'll work twice as hard and twice as many hours.

It's true that being on your own gives you freedom, challenge, and an opportunity to make a large income.

But the price you pay is lack of security, long, tedious hours and the chance of failing entirely.

* * *

You have to be very sure that the thing you want is worth the price. Also, that you're willing to pay the price!

Ellen Van Matre Speaks Her Vows in Rotunda Inn

A ballerina-length gown of lace and tulle was chosen by Ellen Maye Van Matre for her wedding Friday evening to William L. Kellogg.

* * *

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fred Tiffany of Bethany Baptist Church in the Rotunda Room at Rotunda Inn in the presence of 75 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Van Matre of West Huron street. The Marion Kelloggs of Washington street are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bridal gown featured a bodice of lace with long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists and a jewel neckline. Her skirt was of tulle. A short veil of tulle and lace was beaded with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Madeline Van Matre, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was gowned in ballerina-length white organdy with green flowers and a matching headpiece of green, and she carried green-tinted carnations.

Roger Kellogg, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were Harry Van Matre and Robert House.

Mrs. Van Matre greeted her guests at the reception wearing a dress of navy blue lace with pink accessories and pink carnations. Mrs. Kellogg chose a beige silk dress with yellow accessories and yellow tearoses.

Grace Kelly, Party of 80 Leave for Monaco Today

NEW YORK (AP) — Altar-bound Grace Kelly sails for Monaco today accompanied by an entourage of 80 and with 60 pieces of luggage and a trousseau befitting a princess.

* * *

The movie star had one of the most luxurious suites on the American Export liner Constitution—two rooms and an outside veranda.

PARENTS ALONG

Quartered in suites and staterooms nearby were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia; other members of the family, friends and business associates.

* * *

Even Miss Kelly's black French poodle Oliver was scheduled to go along.

Miss Kelly's husband-to-be, Prince Rainier III of Monaco, will meet the wedding party April 12 aboard his yacht in the Mediterranean off Monte Carlo.

* * *

The ruler of the tiny principality on the Riviera and the beautiful American blonde will be united in a civil ceremony April 18 and in a Roman Catholic wedding the next day.

PHONE CHATS

The couple haven't seen each other since mid-March, when the Prince left Hollywood and sailed for home from New York. But they have talked by telephone frequently since then.

* * *

Miss Kelly spent yesterday at her apartment here finishing the last details of packing and winding up business affairs with her agent and her lawyers.

Among the items listed in her luggage were unopened wedding presents, a crated Queen Anne desk and trunks and boxes holding her wedding gown and the trousseau for her honeymoon.

* * *

Miss Kelly said one of the big surprise wedding gifts was from her friends and neighbors in Philadelphia, who sent a $14,000 movie projection outfit for the palace in Monaco.

Shirtwaist Is Ideal for Spectator Look

The spectator look is one close to the costume consciousness of future sportswear styles. Started in resort collections, it encompasses classics, such as shirtwaist dresses and sweaters and skirts carefully inegrated.

It's a quiet casual look that veers away from the boldness of Italian-inspired casuals, or the exoticism of Oriental inspired fashions. These latter trends continue and will added to the profusion of themes available in the next year.

Co-ordinate Spring Wardrobe

Key Clothes to Create Total Effect

Fashion experts agree—the truly smart, well-dressed woman is the one who doesn't dash out and buy the first flower-strewn bonnet she falls in love with. She's more apt to calculate a bit and choose her new clothes and accessories with a careful (and economical) eye to the over-all effect.

* * *

Every single thing she considers, from the shade of her stockings to the fluttering edge of her petticoat, is keyed to the total effect that she wants. And so is the finishing touch, the right jewelry.

She might choose a pair of pure white flower earrings to complement gleaming white accessories, or pale, luminous stones to harmonize with beige, one of the popular neutrals this Spring.

If she's wearing navy, a more vivid jeweled accent is in order, such as bright turquoise, citron or coral. Pearls, too, are favorites with navy, as with all colors and all seasons. With greens, browns and textured tweeds, tailored gold metal jewelry may be her choice, and with light blue, blue-green and lavender, silvery jewelry is a flattering choice.

Black for Spring? Some maintain it is the smartest of all, varied and brightened with jewelry changes and sparked for evening with rhinestones.

In its preview of new Spring fashion jewelry, the Jewelry Industry Council reports that the right jewelry will be easy to find and fun to wear. Look for interesting use of color — and lots of it — as one headliner.

Another is the use of flower motifs and, depending on your mood, you can be as bright as a daisy, demure as a forget-me-not, or classic as a rose.

Tailored jewelry for Spring is often stone-set, with smooth pastel stones framed in gold metal. For lighthearted profusion of color, there are interesting multiple-strand beaded necklaces, some combining rhinestones with colored beads and links of golden metal.

Earrings, notes the Council, are most often round button style for daytime wear. For more formal occasions, the sky's the limit — chandelier, shower, cluster, contour, stringbean and hoop.

Bracelets are as numerous as ever. The collections you began last Fall will stand you in good stead come Spring, for a wristful of silver or gold colored metal, dangling with discs and charms, has becme a year-round favorite.

* * *

Pins promise to be larger for the new season, an eye-filling focal point for collar, cuff or pocket flap. Among the new designs — a handsome Maltese cross studded with rose and lavender stones, pseudo-pearl peas in a golden pod, bejeweled starfish and leaves sparkling with rhinestone dewdrops.

Sachet Is Perfume in Powder Form

Body sachet is actually perfume in powder form. Made in almost the same way as perfume . . . with the same essential oils . . . body sachet is two to three times stronger than toilet water.

Its greatest advantage, however, is the long-lasting quality "a little goes a long way."

Use cookie sheets as lap trays for children when making long trips by car. Crayons and pencils won't slip off it if it has all-around raised edges.

The little black dress draped through the midriff makes size 20 seem sizes smaller.

Leave wild colors for the "Pint Size." Correct for many occasions, the basic black crepe dress is not the uniform some fear, but a new frame-work of individuality. A change away from a casual to elegant look.

Don't Give Choice if There Is None

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

When Phyllis, a young teacher friend of ours, was about 16 she got herself a Saturday job at her local neighborhood house acting as helper with children's recreation.

* * *

It taught her a dramatic lesson about using the question "OK?" to children.

The group she had been assigned to was composed of tough, sharp-eyed little realists—as swift to pounce on any weakness in authority as they were to dive at the gleam of a lost dime in the gutter.

Their leader was Jaimie, aged 6. The first Saturday, Phyllis had approached him as he was assembling a jigsaw puzzle. Informing him that it was time for washing hands and eating lunch, Phyllis said in her innocence, "Let's put the puzzle away now, Jaimie. OK?"

* * *

You can imagine the small pause as Jaimie took in the implications of that "OK?", testing them against his experience of adult weakness just as young animals will test new ice before venturing upon it.

FEELS TRIUMPH

You can almost feel his triumph as he realized his new counselor had asked his opinion of her proposal—and the eagerness of his rush to veto it.

And how he made the following month of Saturdays the most miserable of Phyllis' life as he exerted his right to grant or withhold his agreement to all her proposals.

Yet, throughout that bad time, it never once occurred to her that she herself had given Jaimie that right.

It wasn't until her supervisor pointed out the mistake that Phyllis began to understand why Jaimie and his friends didn't trust her. Her placative "OK?" had been offering them choices they knew they did not have.

Jaimie knew he had to stop playing at lunchtime—and felt only rage for the counselor who'd tried to cajole acceptance of herself by pretending this was not so.

REAL CHOICES

Realizing this, Phyllis set herself to winning the children's respect by offering them choices only when they really existed—choices between stories and other matters not affecting their health, training and routine.

* * *

As psychiatrist Dr. Hilde Bruch writes, "Much that goes under the name of permissiveness is simply avoidance of taking necessary responsibility and putting sensible limits on the child's behavior."

First Philathea Unit Gathers at Church

The Educational Building of First Baptist Church was the scene of the Tuesday meeting of the First Philathea Class. Mrs. Harry Newhouse led the opening prayer.

Pictures intitled "Down Memory Trails in Europe" were shown by Albert Barnett. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joe Haviland and her committee.

MRS. NORMAN D. DeVECHT

Jane Merker Hohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Hohn of Wellington drive, became the bride of Norman Dale DeVecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert DeVecht of Grand Haven, Monday at her home. After a honeymoon in Florida, the newlyweds will make their home in Grand Haven.

Fete Patrice Zimmerman

Patrice Ann Zimmerman was the honoree at a linen shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. James F. Peters of Maceday Lake. Agnes Mazza served as cohostess.

* * *

Patrice, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zimmerman of Whittemore street, is the bride-elect of Tom Manion, son of Henry Manion of South Sanford street. The couple plans a May 5 wedding in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

She took this occasion to announce members of her bridal party. Mrs. Gerald Grubb will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Katherine Zimmerman and Mrs. Peters.

Shower guests were Mrs. Zimmerman, Mrs. Thomas Thornberry, Mrs. Carl Mauro, Mrs. Grubb, Mrs. Wesley McCann, Mrs. Pierce A. Rydman, Mrs. Eddie W. O'Brien, Mrs. Elsa McGuire and Mrs. Wilfred Smith.

Mrs. Arnold Souter, Mrs. Robert Cauley of Flint, Mrs. Henry St Dennis, Mrs. James Sennelly, Mrs. William Almas, Mrs. Robert Budnik, Mrs. E. J. Yenor, Mrs. John C. Balley and Katherine Zimmerman completed the guest list.

KAREN LYNN KING

The Louie Kings of Pioneer drive announce the engagement of their daughter, Karen Lynn, to Milton W. McDowell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William McDowell of White Lake. No date has been set for the wedding.

Spring Means Cleaning

Spring cleaning brightens the appearance of the home.

But it certainly does nothing for a woman's looks.

The dust and dirt settles in her hair. The dust gets up her nose and makes her sneeze. Her hands get covered with wax and cleaning compounds. Dirt gets under her fingernails. Her whole skin finally feels as dusty and itchy as those draperies she took down.

Spring cleaning is undeniably good for the soul and for the home. There's no way of escaping all of the penalties, as far as beauty is concerned. Many of them, however, can be considerably lessened.

* * *

A scarf should be tied firmly around the head during all spring cleaning. A good shampoo when the whole seige of work is over is a help besides being a morale-booster.

* * *

Long pants, either slacks or work pants, protect the legs and knees and they can be dumped in the laundry when the work is finished.

If the weather is fair, open windows can keep the dust from becoming unbearable.

Work gloves for each of the several kinds of work keep the hands from turning raw. Rubber gloves for work in water, gardening gloves, flexible gloves with a good grip for handling belongings and old dress gloves for polishing silver are all wise.

Joyce Armstrong Weds in Candlelight Ceremony

Bethany Baptist Church was the scene of the candlelight wedding of Joyce Jean Armstrong and Robert Eugene Martin. The couple was married Saturday evening by the Rev. Fred R. Tiffany in the presence of 175 guests.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. James Glenn Armstrong of Monroe street are parents of the bride. Robert is the son of Mrs. Omer Mason of Compton, Calif., and James K. Martin of Raeburn street.

For her wedding Joyce chose a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace with a bodice featuring a scoop neckline with an insert of illusion and long sleeves that tapered to points at the wrists.

The bouffant skirt of tulle had an overskirt of Chantilly lace. A heart-shaped headpiece of lace secured her fingertip veil of French illusion.

* * *

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and orchids with ivy in a cascade arrangement.

ATTEND BRIDE

Dorothy Cadieux was her maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Margaret Duyck of Romeo, Phyllis Harvey and Sally DeVar. Joyce May Bixler and Jeanne Kay Bixler of Elkton, twin nieces of the bride, served as flower girls.

* * *

Their ballerina - length gowns were identically fashioned in nylon silk with scoop necklines and fitted bodices in long torso style. The maid of honor wore aqua, the bridal attendants wore violet and the flower girls were gowned in frocks of yellow.

Robert Brown served as best man. Seating the guests were Edgar Gillies, Charles Furlong and Charles Wiseman of Allen Park.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony.

* * *

When the couple left on a honeymoon trip to the Smoky Mountains, the new Mrs. Martin had changed to a brown print dress with tan accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. On their return they will reside in Pontiac.

YWCA Will Offer Swimming and Exercise Classes

For the first time, the Pontiac YWCA will be able to offer swimming and exercise classes for women.

The classes, to start Wednesday, April 11, will be held in the YMCA pool and gym, between 9:30 and 11:15 a.m., enabling the girls to leave their small fry in the nursery at the YWCA, go on to their classes, and return to pick up the tots before nap time.

Instructors for the six-week term, which is being undertaken by the YMCA and the YWCA as a mutual experiment, will be Annette Buzz, for swimming, and Mrs. John Streit, for exercise.

Both not only are experienced instructors in their fields, but also have been members of the Ladies Day Out groups in past terms.

* * *

Enrollees may take either swimming or exercise first, or if they already are experienced swimmers, they can have their workout in the gym and follow with a plunge in the pool.

But, the YWCA warns, classes must be limited in size, so registrations will be accepted on a "first come, first served" basis.

All other activities in the spring term will also begin next week. Crafts and sewing will be offered on Wednesday mornings, as well as on Thursday evenings.

Supervised bridge play is included in the Wednesday Ladies Day Out program, but no new bridge classes are scheduled.

Both French and Spanish classes will accept new students, having decided to stick to the customary 10-week term.

Full information and folders about the spring term are available by calling or stopping in at the YWCA.

Montreal Tornado Hits Red Wings, 5-1

MONTREAL (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings, stripped of their recuperative powers, stumbled back to the friendly ice at the Olympic today.

Trailing 2-0 in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup hockey classic, the Wings were hopeful that the mysterious jinx that allies itself with visiting clubs would continue.

Last night the Detroit Club showed none of the comeback ability that struck for all the victories in the cup semi-final round against Toronto.

The Red Wings made a poor show of an expected comeback last night and the power-laden Montreal team rolled comfortably along to a 5-1 win in comparatively easy fashion.

* * *

If the Canadiens can win either of the next two games—scheduled for Thursday and Sunday in Detroit—they will set something of a precedent. Finalists in the last three cup series, the Canadiens and the Wings have tried unsuccessfully to win on foreign ice since the midst of their 1953 meetings and the unbroken string now has reached 11 games.

The National Hockey League champions were never particularly hard pressed last night; compared with Saturday's series opener when they had to stage a four-goal uprising to win 6-4.

The game lacked the drama and thrills of the opener, but the Canadiens nevertheless played sound hockey and cut loose with enough power to keep command of the game all the way and satisfy the 13,850 happy hometown fans.

Five Montrealers shared in the goal production—Don Marshall, Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard, Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion, Jean Beliveau and Maurice (Rocket) Richard.

Norm Ullman, rookie center sent in to team up with Gordie Howe and Ted Lindsay on Detroit's big line, was the only Red Wing able to fire his shots with consistent accuracy and scored Detroit's single goal.

Coach Jimmy Skinner not only tried out different line changes, but had six defensemen dressed and finally, in an effort to get badly needed goals, sent rearguard Red Kelly up on the forward line.

Al Arbour, bespectacled defenseman who arrived only yesterday after finishing the season with Edmonton Flyers of the Western Hockey League, saw considerable action.

Metro Prystai, checking-line forward and general handyman, joined the Red Wings' list of injured when struck on the knee by a puck in the second period. He is expected to be ready for Thursday's game.

The Canadiens took a 1-0 lead in the first period last night, added two more goals in the second and struck back with two more in the third period after Ullman had given the Wings a spark of hope that was quickly snuffed out.

TRAFFIC JAM — Richie Ashburn (1) Philadelphia Philly runner is trapped between 3rd and home as teammate Bobby Morgan (background) jams 3rd base after a grounder by Granny Hamner. Harvey Kuenn, arms stretched, and Tiger catcher Frank House (2) had Ashburn in the trap but the speedy Philly managed to get back to 3rd. Morgan was then tagged trying to get back to second. Philadelphia won 3-1.

Big Ten Football Games to Be Televised by Film

CHICAGO (AP) — Big Ten football partisans, cut short by the NCAA television program for 1956, will get their fill by way of televised films.

* * *

Commissioner K. L. (Tug) Wilson made the announcement yesterday.

"Big Ten teams will be seen on live television on only six dates this fall under restrictions of the NCAA TV plan," Wilson said.

"We naturally are disappointed in this cut-back from eight appearances last year. Therefore, we hope to be able to present the best in conference football action on television through the medium of film."

Big Ten teams were in three national telecasts last fall and appeared five times regionally. This year they have five regional games but appear only once nationally.

Wilson said the film program will consist of weekly highlights running 30 minutes and featuring outstanding plays from four or five games of the previous Saturday.

"We hope to develop sponsorship interest in regional network release of the program for as early as the day following the playing of the game," Wilson said.

Seminick Hits 2 Homers

Phils Jump on Garver, 3-1

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — The Detroit Tigers are preparing for a barnstorming tour that will wind up the spring training season.

Today's game with the Boston Red Sox was the club's last Florida meeting. Saturday the Tigers start north with a game at Houston, Tex.

Al Kaline and Ray Boone were out of the lineup yesterday as the Tigers absorbed a 3-1 defeat from the Philadelphia Phillies. Detroit got only four hits against eight for the Phillies and the single run the Tigers scored was unearned.

Catcher Andy Seminick's two home runs, both with bases empty, was margin enough for the Phillies. Their other run came in the 5th inning.

Seminick's homers came in the second inning — off starter and loser Ned Garver—and in the 8th—off Paul Foytack.

The single Tiger tally came in the 7th off former Detroiter pitcher Saul Rogovin. It was the first run given up by Rogovin in 13 innings of spring pitching.

A two-base fielding error by Granny Hamner, a hit batsman and a short single by Frank House filled the bases for the Tigers in the 7th. The run came across while Reno Bertoia was being thrown out.

All the Tiger hits were singles, two by Harvey Kuenn and one by Fred Hatfield off Wehmeier, and House's safety off Rogovin.

Detroit raised a ruckus over Philadelphia's 5th inning run but got nowhere. With runners on second and 3rd Hamner tapped to Kuenn at shortstop. Kuenn threw home and Richie Ashburn scrambled back to 3rd where he apparently was tagged by 3rd sacker Hatfield. Then Bobby Morgan was run down between second and third for what appeared to be a double play. However, Ashburn scooted home and claimed the tag had missed him.

Rookie umpire Joe Linsallata agreed despite the loud arguments from the entire Tiger squad.

Garver, pitching for the first time since March 21, was charged with seven hits and three walks in his 6-inning job. Herman Wehmeier was credited with the victory.

Take 2-1- Edge

Warriors Defeat Pistons

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The National Basketball Assn. playoffs headed back to Fort Wayne, Ind., today with some fans wondering if perhaps they weren't watching a tennis match.

* * *

The Philadelphia Warriors took a 2-1 edge in the final best 4-of-7 playoff series here last night by defeating the Fort Wayne Pistons, 100-96. The Warriors' win was almost expected. After all, it was Philadelphia's service.

* * *

With one exception, all NBA playoff games this year have been won by the home teams. The question seems to be, who will break service—or rather home-court supremacy?

The fourth game is at Fort Wayne tomorrow night, with No. 5 in the set scheduled for Philadelphia Saturday night. Unless the Warriors win their first game in Fort Wayne in four years, the series will be all even this weekend and the pattern will be preserved.

The first half of last night's game, witnessed by a record home crowd of 11,698, was a tight-fisted battle with the Pistons holding a 51-48 halftime edge.

Request Raise of Game Fees

State Deputy Director Recommends Raise for License Payment

ST. JOSEPH (AP) — The state's game protection fund will be operating at a deficit in the next fiscal year unless services are cut or hunting and fishing license fees are raised, Wayland Osgood, deputy director of the State Conservation Department, said last night.

* * *

Osgood, speaking before the Berrien County Sportsmen's Club, pointed out there had been no increase in license fees since 1947. It has been recommended that the cost of resident fishing licenses be raised from $1.50 to $2, resident small game fees from $2 to $3 and deer licenses from $3.50 to $4.50.

* * *

The state now issues some three million resident and non-resident fishing and hunting licenses annually.

* * *

Donald Chaney, undersecretary of the Department of Interior, was to have addressed the meeting but his train was halted at New Buffalo because of tornado warnings and he was unable to appear.

Sixteen youthful boxers will vie for eight titles tonight at the Pontiac Boys Club gymnasium as the local organization celebrates the Golden Anniversary of Boys Clubs of America.

* * *

The annual boxing tournament determines the city's Boys Club champions. Boys weighing from 80 to 165 pounds will match their ring skills for the eight divisional crowns.

Pastrano Spots Foe 35 Pounds Tonight

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Willie Pastrano of New Orleans, rated the No. 7 challenger for Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title, spots South African Johnny Arthur 35 pounds tonight in their 10-round bout as Willie tries to prove he can handle the real big boys.

The 20-year-old Pastrano, an accomplished master in the art of hit-and-run, recently graduated to the heavyweight ranks. He turned in convincing decisions over former light-heavy king Joey Maxim and heavyweight Rex Layne, but Arthur is by far the biggest man he's faced.

Pastrano is expected to weigh in around 185 while Arthur probably will hit 220 or better.

GMTC Trimmed by Gails in Sachs Cage Tourney

The Coachers of GMTC have one more chance to stay alive in the Cincy Sachs Open Amateur basketball tournament after Tuesday night's catastrophe at Cathedral Central gymnasium.

Pontiac's representatives in the 9th annual double-elimination tournament were trounced, 96-58, by a smooth-working Gails quintet from Wyandotte. GMTC now moves to Hazel Park High School for tonight's action at 8 o'clock.

Baseball Drills Slated

Oliver Buick will hold Class A baseball practices today and Thursday at the tennis courts on E. Montcalm St. starting at 5:15 p.m. All players are welcome to try out for the team. For further information call George Shanks, FEderal 3-7319.

EASY NOW FELLERS — Bobby Mosher (left) and Danny Roberts, both age 12, throw some leather at each other in the practice rounds preparing for the annual Boys' Club tourney which takes place tonight at the Pontiac club, 530 E. Pike street.

$4,000,000 Approved

Squaw Valley Gets Okay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—It's official. The 1960 winter Olympic Games will be staged at Squaw Valley, Calif.

The state Senate yesterday approved 4 million dollars for the games, completing legislative action. Another million was voted last year.

* * *

The International Olympic Committee had warned that unless the money was raised by April 3, the games would be awarded to Innsbruck, Austria.

Avery Brundage, chairman of the IOC, confirmed by telephone from Chicago that the games officially belong to California.

"Those in charge are fine businessmen," Brundage said, "and they recognize the mighty task ahead. I am confident they can do a wonderful job."

* * *

Prentice C. Hale, San Francisco business and civic leader and president of the organizing committee, said:

* * *

"To stage the Winter Olympics better than they have ever been staged—that will be our sole objective from now on."

Packers Given Approval for New Stadium

GREEN BAY, Wis. (INS)—The Green Bay Packers professional football team can look forward today to remaining in the city that has been their home for 37 years and to playing in a new stadium.

Citizens of Green Bay voted in effect to keep the Packers by approving in a referendum yesterday a bond issue of $960,000 for a new stadium to replace antiquated City Stadium.

Orioles Hope for Deal With Yankees

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles may well be getting ready for a player deal.

Rookie pitcher Bob Harrison, who set a Western League strikeout record of 270 last season, was optioned yesterday to Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League on a 24-hour recall basis.

That cut the Bird roster to 26, just one above the May 16 cutdown limit and an extremely low number for this time of year. Manager Paul Richards may have a two or three-for-one transaction in mind or lined up.

The Chicago White Sox and the New York Yankees have shown interest in pitchers Jim Wilson, Ray Moore and Bill Wight, while the Cleveland Indians have cast covetous eyes at catcher Hal Smith and first baseman-catcher Gus Triandos.

Tripleheader Slated for Donkey Basketball

A triple header in donkey basketball is on tap at Avondale high school gym tonight.

The first game starting at 7:30 p.m. will feature the girls teams, followed by the feature attraction game which pits the Avondale faculty against Southfield faculty.

In the 3rd game of the evening the junior boys of the school will meet the seniors.

Joe Coleman, veteran righthander acquired from Baltimore, was put on the waiver list for outright release.

Martinez Faces Cuban Champ

Vince Battles Diaz in TV Bout Tonight; Seeks Fight With Saxton

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Vince Martinez' manager expects his fourth-ranking welterweight contender to knock out Miguel Diaz, recent winner of the Cuban title, in their 10-round televised bout in the City Auditorium tonight.

* * *

"We're now ready to offer Johnny Saxton a $100,000 guarantee for a title match," said Bill Day, Martinez' manager. "If we first have to fight Basilio (Carmen Basilio, who recently lost his title to Saxton) we'll do it.

* * *

"We're at the crossroads now and this bout and future ones are all dangerous," Daly added.

Martinez is a solid 2½-1 favorite to trim Diaz, and the Paterson, N.J., welterweight will be going after his 22nd consecutive triumph. Diaz will be seeking his ninth in a row.

Martinez has won 47 out of 50, scoring 25 knockouts. He has not been beaten since losing to Danny Giovanelli in March, 1953. Among Martinez' victims have been Chico Varona, Pete Muller, Chico Vejar, Carmine Fiore, Al Andrews, Art Aragon and Chuck Davey.

THE POWERHOUSE By Jimmy Powers

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—You go from the quiet of a tropical golf course to the whoop and holler of a baseball park and you are immediately struck by the difference in the atmosphere.

At Connie Mack Field girls were in the stands squealing at some of the antics of the players. Soft drink vendors were shouting their wares. Fans were yelling good naturedly at a cluster of umpires.

A sport plane puttered overhead. There was a clank and clutter from the cars in the adjoining parking lot. There was noise and action everywhere, yells of encouragement, yips from peppery infielders.

Joe Bannon, the royal blood of Ireland, said: "Byron Nelson always envied baseball players. They perform in such a comforting atmosphere of noise.

The fans screaming steams them up.

To Byron, as a golfer, the toughest thing was the unnatural calm surrounding golf. He would walk up to a 20-foot putt and could hear the applause which greeted somebody ahead of him who sank one like it. But, the minute he lined up his putt, everyone clammed tight.

"The only sounds Byron could hear would be a loud 'sssshhh' or two, then a lot of hard breathing. He said he often felt the impulse to turn around and tell everyone to start talking and acting natural."

★ ★ ★ ★

Lou Boudreau took a dugout rest chatting with reporters and posing for photographers with that famed Boudreau grin. He grew serious when asked: "As a manager is there any such thing as a success formula?"

IT DOESN'T MAKE TOO MUCH DIFFERENCE

Lou shook his head. "I don't think it makes much difference who manages a team. Please don't let this get around or I'll be thrown out of the manager's union, and the living here is good. I like it. Let me amend that success formula for you. I say it doesn't make too much of a difference who manages a team—from a personality standpoint.

"I know what you're going to say. Some managers might get a little more out of the men than others. Maybe more guys on a club will like one manager more than another. But the really good ballplayers don't care who calls the shots."

"They play their positions, hit their .310 or .350 and give the boss 100 per cent all the time, on and off the field. They go about their work like engineers or plumbers, doctors or lawyers. They are out to do their best.

"If there is any grumbling or dislike for a manager, it's usually from fellows who can't play anyway and need excuses for themselves. This goes for a factory, business office or bank as well as a baseball dugout."

To Seat 110,000

Plan Huge Stadium

NEW YORK (AP)—The Borough of Manhattan, hoping to lure future Olympic Games and other major sport events while retaining its National League baseball franchise, today unveiled plans for a triple-decked enclosed stadium with a seating capacity of 110,000.

* * *

If the stadium becomes a reality, it would enable Manhattan to match sports strides with Brooklyn, recently granted legislative approval to create a sports authority to finance a dome-covered arena for its world champion baseball Dodgers.

* * *

Borough President Hulan Jack, in a speech prepared for delivery before a luncheon of the Sports Broadcasters Assn., said the proposed Manhattan Stadium would be large enough to hold the Olympics, such as the 1964 games, and would serve as a new Polo Grounds for the New York Giants.

* * *

He added that the stadium, which would be the largest in the United States, also could accommodate such huge crowd-attracting events as the Army-Navy football game.

The stadium, still in the planning stage, would be built on a 2-million square foot area over the present open track area of the New York Central Railroad from West 60th to West 72nd streets and from West End avenue to the West Side Highway.

* * *

Jack, who said the Stadium would be financed by private capital with no state aid, explained that the idea for the new Polo Grounds followed reports that the Giants weren't happy with the present Polo Grounds, which seats 52,000 and like most everything else in New York lacks adequate

While the Giants' front office never has flatly said the team would leave New York, there was much ado about the Dodgers' new home and city officials began looking for a way to improve the Giants' facilities. The Giants' lease on the present Polo Grounds expires in 1962.

* * *

The proposed stadium would provide indoor parking facilities for 20,000 cars and would include escalators.

Grandma Skis With Best

HART, Mich. (INS) — The U. S. Olympic ski team probably missed a good bet this year when they overlooked Mrs. Johanna Fuehring of Crystal Lake, Mich.

There's only one thing wrong with Mrs. Fuehring — she's 80 years old and a grandmother of four.

Despite her age, Mrs. Fuehring still gets her exercise almost daily by skiing five miles or more.

She learned to ski in her native Austria at the age of seven and has been frolicking on her "hickories" ever since. Five years ago she returned to her homeland and tried out the slopes where she first learned to ski.

* * *

Her son, Rudolph explains proudly that his mother is a phenomenon. Her "hair is still blond, although streaks of gray are beginning to appear," he says.

* * *

Rudolph added that aside from slightly dimmed vision (corrected by glasses) she still maintains a youthful spirit.

Top Pros Primed for Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A year ago all Don Fairfield knew about the Masters Golf Tournament was what he read in the papers about Cary Middlecoff's stirring victory.

Tomorrow Fairfield, a slim 27-year-old from Casey, Ill., will occupy a fairly prominent position as he starts play in his first Masters on the 6,800-yard Augusta National course.

Don still will be an "unknown" to most of the spectators, but he's one of the standard-bearers for the younger group of pros who hope to break through this year.

Don's rise was the quickest of any of the hungry, hopeful youngsters who follow golf's tournament trail. He qualified for his Masters invitation by a series of matches that took him to the quarter-finals of the PGA championship last summer. He won his first tournament on the circuit last month at Pensacola, Fla.

* * *

Yesterday Fairfield went around the rolling Augusta National course in 68, four under par and one of the best practice scores reported this week.

While practice scores don't mean much, Fairfield already has shown he's a sound golfer. He's been a pro since he was 17. He put in four years in the Air Force and when he shed his uniform two years ago, he went to work at a little southern Illinois course.

Don didn't get much time for playing until his success in the PGA tournament encouraged him to join the tour last August. Before the 1955 season ended, he had finished second in two tournaments. On the winter tour that's just ending, he has been in the money six times.

He's the only player here who's living in a trailer.

* * *

Bracketed with Fairfield among the young hopefuls are Dow Finsterwald, another ex-service man who has made quite a splash on the winter tour; Lionel Hebert who, like Finsterwald, earned his invitation through his winter performances, and first-timers Bob Harris, Walker Inman Jr., and Ernie Vossler.

There will be plenty of contention from the old guard.

Three-time winner Sammy Snead appears to be playing the Augusta National as well as ever. He hasn't been over par yet in practice and yesterday went around in 66.

Middlecoff, who shot a sub-par 70 yesterday, has also been playing a lot of good golf. So has Ben Hogan.

* * *

A lot of other veterans also are rated among the contenders.

They include Lloyd Mangrum, Jackie Burke, PGA champion Doug Ford, "World" champion Jim Boros, and two top foreign players, England's Henry Cotton and Argentina's Roberto de Vicenzo. Jack Fleck, the U.S. Open champion, is just another newcomer here.

Cranes Drop 6-5 Decision

Cranbrook went on its biggest hitting spree of the spring traning tour, but it was to no avail as the Cranes lost a 6-5 decision to Hillsboro, N.C. High School yesterday.

The Cranes held the lead three times in the game but a two-run 5th inning by Hillsboro ended the scoring in the game. It started when catcher Garland Stengler got on base on an error and scored all the way from first on a double by Ron Gattis.

* * *

Gattis then came all the way home on a bunt by Ben Freeland.

Jim Grube led the Cranbrook attack with three hits, including a triple, in four trips to the plate. Bob Pierson collected a single and double.

The Cranes now stand 1-3 on the Southern trip and today meet Danvill, Va., High School, the state champs in 1953 and 1954.

Prep Track Star Sets New Record

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—For the second time in a week, Ron Larrieu of the Palo Alto High School track team has bettered the national inter-scholastic record for the 2-mile run.

Running on his own school track yesterday, Ron turned in the best time of his career, 9:39, in a dual meet with Mountain View High School.

Last week at Burlingame, Ron won his specialty in 9:39.3.

The record, set in 1925 by Bill Cox of Edison Tech, Rochester, N.Y., is 9:44.3.

Scribes Pick Tigers for Fifth Place

DETROIT (AP)—The men who follow every pitch from March to October believe the Detroit Tigers are destined for another 5th-place finish in the American League baseball race in 1956.

An Associated Press poll of Michigan sports writers and sports broadcasters shows that an overwhelming majority of the participants feel the Detroit club did not improve itself during the off-season and will have a big struggle on its hands to improve on its 79-75 record of 1955.

The majority of the writers and broadcasters picked the Tigers for 5th place. Only four picked them as high as 3rd and a half-dozen marked them down for 6th place.

The same problems that manager Bucky Harris and General Manager Herold (Muddy) Ruel have been trying to correct popped up in the responses to the poll: second base, left field, long-ball power and relief pitching.

* * *

There was unanimous agreement that few major league clubs can match the left side of the Detroit infield, two-thirds of the outfield and its pitching potential among starters.

Here's a resume of the thinking of the state's sports writers and broadcasters:

The club has—in Billy Hoeft, Frank Lary, Ned Garver, Virgil Trucks, Bob Miller, Steve Gromek and a few second-year men—a potentially great pitching staff. But the Tigers need two ingredients to go with that staff to turn the club from an in-and-out performer to a first division ball team. The ingredients: a couple of relief artists who can be depended on in the late innings, and more long-ball hitting.

The Tigers must remedy the second base situation. The good field-no hit phrases coined by Mike Gonzalez hits home in the Tiger camp and could mean the difference in a fifth and fourth place finish.

* * *

Even with two sparkling outfielders in Al Kaline, the Major League batting champion, and dependable Bill Tuttle, the team needs a left fielder who can supply some punch to the batting order.

Career Boy Opens Season Today at Jamaica Track

NEW YORK (AP)—C. V. (Sonny) Whitney's Career Boy, one of the leading 2-year-olds of 1955, is scheduled to make his first appearance of the season today in the $6,000 Olympia Purse at Jamaica race course.

It will be an unveiling of more than usual importance, for the flashy black son of Phalanx hasn't raced in five months, while his stablemate Head Man has been getting into the headlines.

Both are prime candidates for the Kentucky Derby four weeks from next Saturday, and Career Boy gets a chance in the 6-furlong Olympia to prove he's as good or better than Head Man.

Head Man made his 1956 debut at Bowie, Md., March 26, winning easily, then scored an impressive victory Monday over Nail, the 1955 champion 2-year-old in the Experimental Handicap at Jamaica.

Career Boy hasn't got the same caliber of opposition in today's race, but he must pack 126 pounds compared with only 114 on six rival 3-year-olds.

Both Head Man and Career Boy wintered at Camden, S. C., and trainer Syl Veitch reports both have grown considerably.

Grand Prix Jumping Team Begins Workouts in Hamburg, Germany

HAMBURG (INS) — The U. S. Olympic Grand Prix Jumping Team began preparations today in Hamburg for the Olympic Equestrian events at Stockholm, June 10-17.

The team of Captain William Steinkraus, Hugh Wiley, Frank Chapot, Warren Wofford and coach Bert De Nemethy left New York by plane yesterday with ten horses and grooms.

The group also will fly to the International Horse Shows at Copenhagen, Aachen (Germany), London and Dublin before returning to the U. S. in mid-August.

Racing Star Buried

SOUTH PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Final respects were paid yesterday to all time auto racing star Ralph DePalma, who died last Saturday of cancer. Services were held at the Holy Family Church near his home and he was buried in Holy Cross Cemetery. He was 73.

Highland Golf Club Will Open Saturday

The Highland Golf and Country Club, a semi-public course near Duck Lake, will open for play this Saturday, co-owners Carl C. Walter and Frank Dursek have announced.

Several major improvements have been made to the 18-hole layout since the end of last season, according to Dursek who manages the course.

All new tees have been constructed, fairways have been widened, and low spots and other marshy areas have been tiled, removing previously soggy places, Dursek said. New facilities have also been added to showers and locker rooms.

Jenkins Says Athletes Need More Expenses to Compete in Games

BOSTON (AP)—World and Olympic men's figure skating champion Hayes Alan Jenkins believes America is losing topflight Olympic prospects who "just can't afford" to compete under the nation's "unrealistic" attitude toward amateur athletes.

Jenkins, drawing on his own experiences, says the costs to a skater in competition run well beyond the expense accounts allowed under the amateur code.

Jenkins made the statement yesterday while preparing for the ice chips show of the Boston Skating Club. Jenkins, also National and North American champion, recently announced he would not compete as an amateur again and would enter Harvard law school next year.

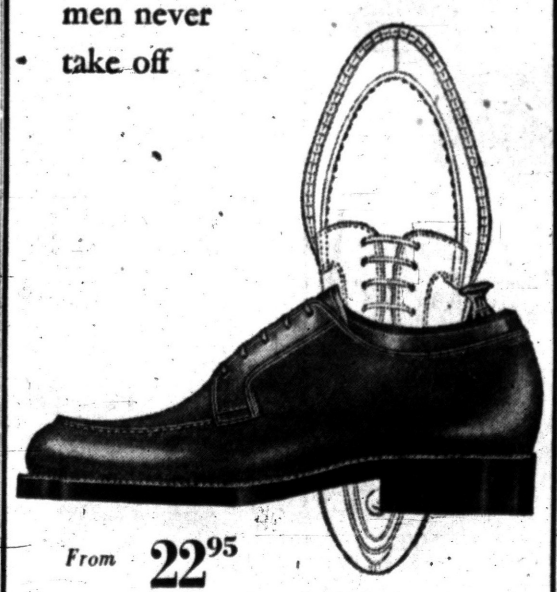

* * *

In Chicago, International Olympic Committee president Avery Brundage said he had "no comment at this time" on Jenkins' charge of insufficient expenses for Olympic competitors. However, he said he would release a statement on this "general subject" this weekend.

Southern California's great halfback, Jon Arnett, is also a broad jumping star for the Trojan track team.

'Bama Coach Resigns Post

Head Basketball Pilot Johnny Dee Quits to Enter Business

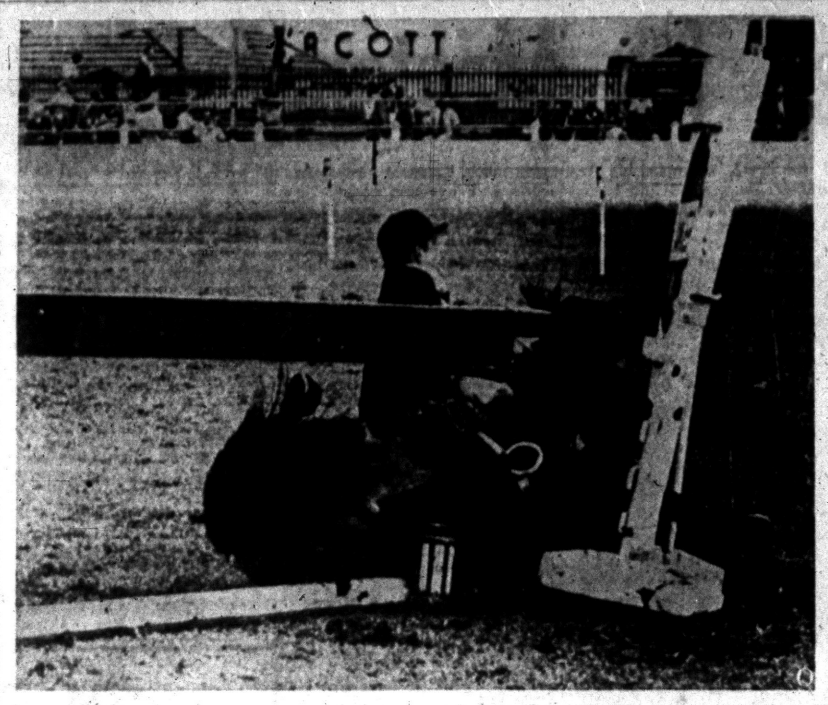

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—The University of Alabama began its quest for a new head basketball coach today, following the resignation of Johnny Dee.

Athletic Director Henry G. Crisp said he has no one in mind to replace Dee, whose unexpected announcement came yesterday.

Crisp said "Dee has put basketball on a high plain at the university, and we are anxious to find someone who will keep it there."

Dee resigned to enter private business. The 32-year-old coach said he hasn't decided what he will do, but he wants a job that will keep him in Alabama.

Preston Brown, freshman basketball coach at the university, and an Alabama alumnus, has been mentioned as a possible successor to Dee.

Chief Trackmen Bid for Further Honors

By BILL CORNWELL

Pontiac High's star-studded track team bids for further honors Friday night in the Saginaw-Saginaw Arthur Hill Invitational Relays at Central Michigan College in Mt. Pleasant.

* * *

Wally Schloerke's talented thinclads will once again occupy the favorite's role, particularly in view of their runaway triumph in the Huron Relays March 24 at Ypsilanti.

The Chiefs will be competing against 11 other Class A high schools. All six members of the Saginaw Valley Conference will be represented in addition to Alpena, Lansing Eastern, Dearborn Fordson, Midland, Traverse City, and Muskegon.

The defending state champions will enter 11 of the 12 events scheduled, the pole vault being the lone exception.

Hayes Jones, who ran brilliantly in the Ypsi meet, will be on the line again in the 65-yard high and low hurdles, along with Jim Taylor and either Jim Mathis or Lessie Watkins.

* * *

Freeman Watkins, Charles Spann and Joe Hill will run the 60-yard dash; Gene Cretal, Archie Brooks, Larry Beamer and Spann are slated for action in the medley relay; and Perry Williams, Pete Cox and Roger Coates will go in the mile run.

Jim Shorter, Charley Robinson, Watkins and Spann comprise the speed relay team; Robinson will run the open 440; and Bill Douglas is ready for duty in the open half mile.

Mike Hardiman, Clayton Cocking and Spann will put the 12-pound shot and Jones, Watkins and Douglas will compete in the broad jump. Alex Barge, Taylor, and Hudson Ray, who is making his first appearance of the seaon on the cinders, will see action in the high jump.

The Chiefs won the indoor invitational last year with a resounding 69½ points to runner-up Flint Northern's 30. Friday night's events get under way at 6 o'clock.

NBA Asks Early-Rematch Between Saxton, Basilio

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The National Boxing Assn. today urged an early rematch between welterweight champion Johnny Saxton and former champion Carmen Basilio, whom the NBA listed as the only logical contender.

The listing was a part of the NBA's quarterly ratings, issued this afternoon.

Saxton won the title from Basilio on a 15-round decision in Chicago. Fred J. Saddy, Milwaukee, chairman of the NBA's championship rating committee, said Basilio rates a rematch because of the closeness of the Chicago fight.

The NBA said there is no logical contender for heavyweight champion Rocky Marciano's title and said the lack of competition is more obvious now than at any time since he became champion.

Floyd Patterson was listed as top contender for Archie Moore's light-heavyweight title, but Chuck Spieser and Germany's Gerhard Hecht were ranked close behind him as logical contenders.

The NBA suggested the bantamweight situation be cleared up by a match between Raton Macias of Mexico, whom the NBA recognized as champion, and Robert Cohn of France, regarded in Europe as world champion. The NBA ranked Cohn behind Mario d'Agata of Italy as logical contender for the title.

GRAPEFRUIT League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Washington Senators decided it was time for a change in the nation's capital this season and that could mean trouble for the other American League ball clubs.

The guy nominated to do the most damage is Roy Sievers. He is being boomed as most likely to take advantage of the shortened fences in Griffith Stadium, the Senators' home ball yard.

* * *

Why Sievers?

For one thing, Roy walloped 25 of Washington's 80 homers last season for a club record. For another, most of his power is to left field and it'll be only 350 feet to home-run territory compared to 388 feet in 1955. Sievers, a right-handed batter, hit only seven home runs in Washington last year.

The Griffith Stadium fences also were cut down from 426 feet to 408 in center field and from 328 to 320 in right field.

* * *

And Sievers is warming to his task as the Senators move northward along the exhibition trail. Yesterday, the 29-year-old first baseman walloped two homers to lead Washington to a 4-1 victory over the Cincinnati Redlegs.

* * *

The New York Giants and Cleveland Indians tore into each other, pounding out six homers in a wild and woolly game, won by the Giants 14-13. Gene Woodling, Sam Mele and Earl Averill homered for the Indians while Ruben Gomez, Dusty Rhodes and Ed Bressoud connected for the winners.

* * *

The St. Louis Cards, showing surprising strength this spring, won another one, knocking off the Chicago White Sox 7-5. The Cards got a three-run homer from Rip Repulski, a triple from Bill Virdon and doubles from rookies Jackie Brandt and Hal Smith. Luis Aparicio, another first-year man, homered for the Sox.

* * *

Don Drysdale, a 19-year-old righthander up from Montreal, turned in a versatile job for the champion Brooklyn Dodgers. He limited Milwaukee to two runs on three hits in six innings and hit a homer as the Brooks won 6-3.

The Boston Red Sox ended Rip Coleman's scoreless exhibition skein at 12 innings and went on to edge the New York Yankees 5-3. Tom Brewer pitched seven scoreless frames for the Bosox, who were paced by Jackie Jensen's three runs batted in.

* * *

Ronnie Kline of Pittsburgh gave up only two singles in nine innings as the Pirates beat the Kansas City As in a 10-inning night game. Curt Roberts' single accounted for the Bucs' winning run. Elroy Face picked up the victory and Tom LaSorda was charged with the loss.

Olympic Court Finalists Meet

All-Stars Tangle With Oilers to Settle Issue Tonight

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Only two teams, the College All-Stars and the Bartlesville Oilers, can win the Olympic basketball playoffs.

And they settle the issue head-on (8:30 p.m. EST) tonight.

* * *

Undefeated going into the third night of the round-robin playoffs, Coach Frank "Bucky" O'Connor's College All-Star squad faced a tough fight.

* * *

The once-defeated Oilers bounced back into title consideration last night, rallying in the second half to win from the National AAU champion Seattle Bakers 72-64. The loss pasted the second-straight defeat on Seattle and eliminated the club from the title picture.

* * *

The College All-Stars scored their second-straight victory with another second-half rally, coming from five points behind, the Armed Forces team at the half to win 82-74. That loss, although their first, also eliminated the Armed Forces.

Racing Commission Must Explain Act

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Maryland Racing Commisston has been given 15 days to explain why it should not be required to reinstate trainer Jimmy McGee, whose license was suspended for six months last Saturday.

* * *

Caffeine was found in a routine chemical test of Morning After, a McGee-trained horse, after it won the sixth race at Bowie March 16. The commission also banned horses owned by McGee or his wife from racing in Maryland for six months.

The Holmdel, N.J., horseman and his wife asked the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City to declare the commission's suspensions void.

At a hearing last week, the commission acknowledged it had no evidence to show McGee administered caffeine or permitted anyone else to do it.

Lake Trout Still Providing Sport

LANSING — Lake trout have been made virtually extinct by sea lamphrey depredations in most of the Great Lakes, but still provide plenty of sport for Lake Superior fishermen.

Reports from the upper peninsula indicate a great number of fishermen are bobbing for lake trout on Lake Superior, west of Brimley.

Several fishermen have taken as many as 30 trout per day, averaging about two pounds per fish. Fishing is done in 100-150 feet of water on about six inches of ice.

23 Violations Are Reported

LANSING — Violations of state fishing regulations resulted in financial penalties for 23 persons in Conservation law convictions reported last week.

The convictions report listed a total 36 violators who were assessed $821 in fines and court costs.

Included in the violations list were 11 persons convicted of illegal killing or possession of game species. Two others violated firearm transport laws.

OCSC Hosts Beagle Trials This Weekend

Sashabaw Ranch, the running grounds of the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club Beagle enthusiasts, will be the rabbit hound capitol of Michigan this Saturday and Sunday during the Northern Association Spring Derby.

Upwards of 150 of the finest young hounds from Michigan, Ontario, Ohio and Indiana will be entered in this stellar event for one-year-old hounds.

Initial activity will get under way at the OCSC Clubhouse, 7:30 Saturday morning with the official measuring of all dogs, and their being placed in the 13 inch and 15 inch groups.

The drawing will follow immediately, and thereafter the running at Sashabaw Ranch.

* * *

Official judges for the two day beagle event will be Bob Serre, Cliff Knabe, and Roy Montgomery of Ohio, and Pat Moffett of Iowa.

William Lynch, Dearborn, is the president of the Northern Association.

Field marshals for the two day trial will be Jerry Rustem, Charley Chapman, Dick Ziehmer, and L. T. Thwing.

Trophies wil be awarded to the winning dogs, and ribbons will go to all place hounds.

In addition the G. G. Black trophy will be awarded to the fastest hound during the trial, and the Secretary's Trophy will go to the slowest hound.

The following 15 Northern Association Clubs will have dogs participating: Saginaw Valley, Flint; Grand Valley, Ionia; Central Michigan, Alto; Wolverine, Lansing; West Michigan, Grandville; Ottawa River, Defiance, Ohio; Southern Michigan, Ann Arbor; Sturgeon Creek, Midland; Motor State, Jackson; Holland, Holland; Port City, Muskegon; Border Beagle Club, Detroit; Cherryland, Traverse City; Detroit, Dearborn; and the Oakland County Sportsmen's Beagle Club.

In addition to the two day field trial, the Annual Northern Association Banquet and Dance will be held at the OCSC Clubhouse on Saturday evening, with the local Beagle Club as host for the occasion.

Sashabaw Ranch lies 5 miles northeast of the clubhouse, and an invitation is extended to the public to attend both days of the trial.

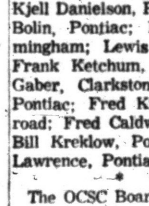

Early Spring Start in Smelt Dipping Expected

By JACK PATTERSON

Hold your breath and keep your fingers crossed. It begins to look as though we might be out of the woods—the winter woods, that is. This stuff we've been having the last couple of days can't be anything but Spring, can it?

If it holds, smelt dipping, which has got off to a pokey start, will catch up in a hurry. We haven't heard of any major activity yet but the first week in April is traditionally the time. The warm weather early in the week should do something.

The early-season rainbow fisherman should find a more normal situation when the season opens a week from Saturday.

The unusually warm spring last year apparently made an impression on the fish and by the time the season opened a good part of the run had already passed by the open portions of legal streams. The timing should be better this year.

Water conditions may be something else again. The Upper Peninsula's Huron river is generally considered to be about tops for early rainbow work.

We have often wondered whether this is primarily due to a heavier run of fish or to the fact that water conditions are generally dependable.

There is still frost in the ground in the U.P. in mid-April and streams, though high, usually are fairly clear. At least they don't look like the Mississippi at flood stage.

By way of contrast take a look at the east branch of the Au Gres, typical of the closer to home open rainbow streams.

Water conditions simply cannot be predicted in advance, except that unless we get more than our share of warm dry weather from now on it will be muddy.

The Au Gres drains an area that is largely denuded of natural ground cover.

The only muddier stretch than the Au Gres when it is muddy that we know of is its offshoot, the Whitney drain.

As its name implies this rather unimpressive waterway is a drainage ditch, neither more nor less, that shoots off due east from the Au Gres until it hits Lake Huron.

It's always muddy on opening day and looks unfit for anything but catfish and yet some very large rainbows are taken from it every year.

Sibley New OCSC Prexy

The Oakland County Sportsmen's Club held their annual election recently, at which time Lloyd Sibley, Clarkston, was elected president for the 1956 fiscal year. Bob White, Waterford, is the retiring president.

Sibley has long been active in club affairs, and previously had served as first and second vice president, as well as secretary of the club.

Robert Gubbins of Birmingham is the new First Vice President, while Pat Metzdorf, Pontiac was chosen as Second Vice President.

LLOYD SIBLEY

Ray Newman was elected to the office of Secretary, while Walter Barrows of Clarkston will now serve as club treasurer.

* * *

Frank Foster, the retiring chairman of the Board of Directors was elected to the post of trustee for a three year period of time.

* * *

Melvin Jurva will serve as Sergeant-at-arms for the oncoming year.

* * *

The following fifteen men were elected for two year terms on the Board of Directors: Bill Vance, Loon Lake; Ed Baker, Jr., Drayton Plains; Charley Mills, Holly; Howard Grovestein, Ortonville, Kjell Danielson, Pontiac; Terrance Bolin, Pontiac; Roy Lewis, Birmingham; Lewis Borer, Pontiac; Frank Ketchum, Pontiac; Paul Gaber, Clarkston; Lewis Wrenn, Pontiac; Fred Kraus, Eight Mile road; Fred Caldwell, Lake Orion; Bill Kreklow, Pontiac; and Fred Lawrence, Pontiac.

* * *

The OCSC Board of Directors in a subsequent meeting elected Bob White, the club's retiring president to serve as Chairman of the Board for the ensuing year, with Lewis Borer chosen as board secretary.

In all-time football records, Michigan, Minnesota and Ohio State, in that order, lead the Big 10 conference in wins, according to league statisticians.

Old King in Africa Tangled Concessions

LONDON — For over 50 years the administration of Swaziland (British Protectorate) has been trying to unscramble the crossword puzzle of mining concessions left in the 1880's by King Mbandenzeni.

Often for trivial considerations — money, liquor, firearms, or greyhounds, for which he had a passion — he granted all kinds of concessions to Europeans, many of whom were adventurers, Mbabane reports.

He bartered away mineral rights, surface rights, and the sole right to levy customs duties. Sometimes one man would get the mineral rights and another the surface rights.

Dr. H. J. R. Way, director of the Geological Survey Department, has found that some of the old king's concessions were "forever". Many of them were never used.

Market Prices Fall Moderately

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market sagged today with prices down moderately in the early afternoon.

* * *

Losses usually were small but went to around 2 points while gains of a point or a little more were found in the list.

Trading dwindled as prices retreated. Brokers considered that type of action as an indication of basic strength in the market. The pace was around 2,500,000 shares for the day as compared with 2,760,000 shares traded yesterday when the market was lower and more than 3,000,000 shares Monday when the market advanced to a new record high mark.

* * *

Major divisions going lower included the motors, radio-televisions, coppers, railroads and the airlines, which are facing recommendations for a major reorganization of East Coast routes.

The aircrafts, which has been backward lately, were higher today, and building materials also went up.

* * *

At noon the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 20 cents at $190.20.

* * *

Yesterday's market was thoroughly mixed most of the time. Late in the session some buying appeared, and for a time it looked as though a rally were in progress. But the tide quickly turned, and selling just before the close sent the market down.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 50 cents on the day at $190.40.

* * *

The market has been going up consistently for many weeks, and brokers are hoisting caution signals. They think a quick consolidating reaction could cut prices back sharply at any time.

WHERE TORNADO HIT — Path of tornado which hit the Grand Rapids area last night can be traced in this airview made near Standale. Destruction followed a path across the center of the picture.

10-State Tornadoes Kill 45, Injure 300

this city of 3,500 and looking out along the tornado trail marvels that only two are dead.

The tornado struck near the center of town and mowed straight down Boswell avenue, one of the city's prettiest residential sections.

First, the twister dipped down three miles south of Lexington.

"I heard it coming," said Earl Martin, 53. "It sounded like a couple of railroad engines or four or five big airplanes.

"I went to the back door to take a look and as I did the back porch flew away. I jumped back into the house, grabbed my wife and we lay on the floor."

In Indianapolis, tornadoes twisting through Washington County south and east of Salem smashed several homes and injured 22 persons, and other storms lashed scattered areas.

The area hit hardest is in south-central Indiana, about 35 miles northwest of New Albany.

The storms smashed buildings and knocked down trees and power lines. The power was off for 30 minutes at the hospital at Salem.

Connersville had 5 inches of rain in an hour and a half and the industrial district was flooded.

Assistance came from all quarters today as Drumright and other Oklahoma towns began fighting back from the brutal attack of Monday night tornadoes which killed five and injured about 50 others.

Tornado warnings for the Midwest and south were lifted late last night.

The stormy weather appeared headed into the Northeast. The Boston Weather Bureau forecast severe thunderstorms for New England late tonight.

Discover Juvenile Hiding in Gas Station

A 16-year-old boy, who officers say was discovered hidding in a rear storage room during investigation of a gas station breakin last night, was charged with breaking and entering and turned over to Oakland County Juvenile Home, according to Pontiac police.

They said he apparently pried open two vending machines and ransacked the office, although no money was reported missing by the owner, Thomas F. Bush, 1111 Hospital Rd.

Police said the car used in the burglary had been reported stolen Monday afternooon from a factory parking lot.

GM Sets Pace in Arms Output

Corporation Heads List of Military Production Firms for 5 Years

WASHINGTON (AP) — General Motors Corp. was among 10 companies heading the military contract list in the five years ending with the month of June, 1955, a Defense Department report showed today.

GM topped the list with a percentage of 5.6 per cent. Boeing Airplane Co. was second with 4.5 per cent followed by other aircraft firms with percentages ranging from 1.8 per cent to 3.4.

For the five years, which included the Korean War period, the department reported it awarded a total of $123,360,000,000 in prime contracts.

GM was No. 21 on the contract list with less than one per cent during last two years of the five-year period.

After the Korea fighting ceased, the Pentagon cut back or canceled huge programs for tank and automobile production and the basic trend was for more spending on aviation.

GM climbed back to No. 7 position, with 2.7 per cent of the total, in the first six months of last year. The rise reflected its activity in jet engines.

Ford was No. 13 on the five-year list with 1.4 per cent of the total value of contracts, Ford dropped to No. 16, with less than one per cent in the two years after Korea but in the first six months of 1955 climbed to No. 10 position with 2.2 per cent of the contract value.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Val Peterson, Federal Civil Defense Administrator, says he is "getting along fine" after a minor operation yesterday.

He explained he apparently strained his back last week and had it heavily taped with surgical bandage.

Exercise-Worn Tennis Players Get Their Wish

CORAL GABLES, Fla. (AP)—Tired tennis players won a $1,000 victory at the City Commission meeting yesterday.

A. M. Franklin asked the commission to pave a car parking strip for players adjoining the court area.

Mayor Fred B. Hartnett commented that it's only about 700 feet from the regular country club parking lot, and asked:

"You mean these people go there for exercise and can't walk that much farther?"

"You go there for exercise," Franklin replied, "but when you've had it, you've had it."

The commission voted 3-2 to pave the area immediately adjacent to the courts. Hartnett estimated it would cost taxpayers about $1,000.

In Memoriam 2

IN BELOVED MEMORY OF MY husband, Phillip Worth, who passed away one year ago March 31, 1955.
His path he walked with truth and grace,
Ever gentle, good and kind;
And his certainty of heaven
Comforted those he left behind.
Sadly missed by his wife, Mae A. Worth.

IN BELOVED MEMORY OF FRED Anderson, who was laid to rest April 4, 1955.
In death as in life, your remembrance shines forth as a beacon and Comforting light.
Lovingly remembered by Minerva Metcalf, Port Huron, Michigan.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF JACK Wells, who passed away 4 April, 1938.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance, dear of you.
Sadly missed by his wife, Dolly.

Vacation of 'Omnibus' Leaves Void in Creative Video

He Ought to Know— He Was Right There

WESTPORT, Mass. (AP)—Rene J. Ouellette claims he got little attention from a majority of the Westport town assessors on his application for abatement on his 1955 real estate taxes.

* * *

He appealed to the Bristol County commissioners yesterday after declaring: "I feel I have been slighted."

Two members of the Town Assessment Board declined to comment.

* * *

Ouellette is the third member of that board.

Show Refuses to Fit Category

Presents Many Topics of Interest With Rare Penetration

By CHARLES MERCER

NEW YORK (AP)—Omnibus (CBS-TV) concluded its fourth season Sunday with a dramatization of the court-martial of Col. Billy Mitchell and a filmed study of the life of a jet test pilot. The home screen will be less enjoyable until this distinguished weekly 90-minute program returns in October.

* * *

A review of its programs in the past six months reveals an amazing range of subjects combined with a penetration of treatment that has not yet been matched on TV. The usual categorical thinking in TV programing runs something like: comedy, drama, variety, music. Omnibus annually ranges much farther and digs deeper.

DIFFERENT HANDLING

Quite apart from the distinguished performances of many fine actors and the appearances of other nontheatrical persons who normally would avoid TV, the subjects taken up by Omnibus in 1955-56 included comedy, drama, variety, music — yes, but with a difference. Robert Saudek, director of the Ford Foundation's TV-Radio Workshop, and his inspired company of co-workers do not think categorically.

* * *

They took up such subjects as history (the Renaissance, a three-part study of the Constitution, Abraham Lincoln), the ballet, swimming, skiing, boxing. Their offerings in music, thanks chiefly to the appearance of Leonard Bernstein, were among the season's best. Their study of Harvard and the role of a great university in our time was superior to anything that has been done in TV on American higher education. It is not surprising that Omnibus has received 37 major awards since its inception.

CONCEPT, EXECUTION

There are, of course, two things necessary to any first-rate creative effort: concept and execution. The entire TV industry could learn much from the Workshop's approach to both. Its high level of production — or execution — is accomplished on the relatively small budget of $65,000 a week. So it demonstrates that a big outlay of money does not necessarily make a good TV program.

* * *

But it's in the realm of concept that Omnibus points up its greatest lesson. In the Workshop a group of people doesn't sit around a table and try to "think up" programs. Nobody says "Let's give 'em this" or "Let's give 'em that." Rather, someone—perhaps a person not connected with the Workshop — comes in and expresses his fascination with a specific subject.

* * *

There are many rejections and many changes, but each subject begins with a burning interest on the part of someone. This is the manner of all significant creation in all the world's art forms. Unfortunately too many of the programing ideas which come to view on the home screen are the result of uninspired categorical thoughts because somebody wanted to make a quick buck or fill an empty hour.

Negro Leads Field of 4 in Riviera Beach, Fla.

RIVIERA BEACH, Fla. (AP)—E.H. Cunningham, Negro attorney, led three white opponents in a race for city conclimen in an election yesterday.

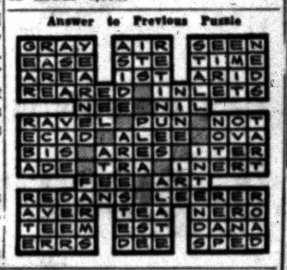

* * *

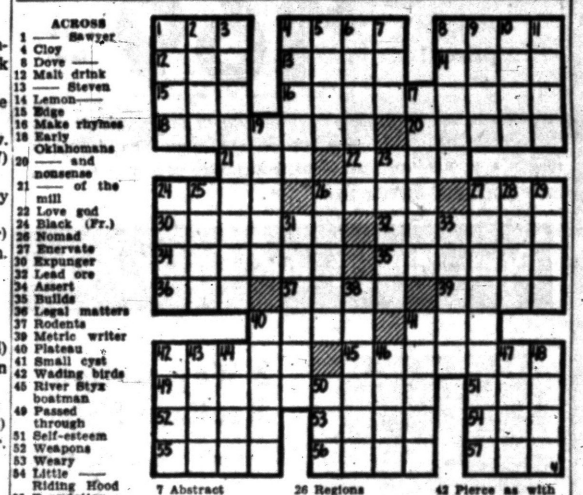

Cunningham received 710 votes, 634 of which were cast by Negroes. He faces a runoff April 17 with Bruce Caddy and if elected will be the first Negro city official in this area. Caddy received 510.

Incumbent Sam Odham ran third. In the town's one white precinct, Cunningham received 76 votes to 1,076 for his three white opponents.

Riviera Beach has a population of about 4,000.

BISHOP ALEX. M. ZALESKI

Catholic Bishop Is Transferred

Parish Members Plan Party for Pastor Leaving St. Vincent de Paul

The transfer of Auxiliary Bishop Alexander M. Zaleski from the pastorate of St. Vincent De Paul Roman Catholic Church to become pastor of St. Alphonsus parish in Dearborn has recently been announced by Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of the Detroit Archdiocese. The transfer will be effective Friday.

Bishop Zaleski has been pastor at St. Vincent De Paul for six and one half years, having been transferred here from the archdiocesan chancery office in October 1949.

He is a native of Laurel, N.Y. and a graduate of the American College of Louvain, Belgium. He was ordained to the priesthood on July 12, 1931.

During his pastorate at St. Vincent De Paul, Bishop Zaleski was consecrated Bishop of Lybre and Auxiliary Bishop of the Detroit Archdiocese on May 23, 1950.

Members of the parish are tendering him a farewell party in their parish hall Thursday evening.

Bomber Racks Tower; 1 Killed

Superfort Crashes as It Misses Emergency Spot for Landing

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) —A Superfort, its power failing and desperately short on altitude, smacked into a 410-foot radio transmission tower yesterday, then careened half a mile before crashing. One man was killed.

Six crewmen walked away from the plane shortly before it exploded and burned.

The B29 from nearby Randolph Air Force Base was on a routine training flight. It had just taken off from the base when it radioed that its power was failing and it was crash-landing.

Before it could reach the emergency spot the pilot had picked—a corn field—it hit the tower.

Killed was A.1.C. S. B. Gibbons, engineer, Muldrow, Okla.

Postal Official Asks Warning on Pilfering

With Oakland County Sheriff's deputies estimating they have received "more than 50" complaints of mailbox pilfering during the past six months, Pontiac Acting Postmaster Leslie H. Dean, Sr., today asked parents to warn their children not to tamper with mail.

"Some parents send their young children out to get the mail, and not knowing any better they get mail from all the boxes they can reach. This causes delay in some instances.

"We have also received complaints that children have been removing mail from boxes and destroying it or throwing it away," Dean said.
