FBI Arrests Denver Man as Plane Saboteur

To Spend Next 6 Weeks Convalescing; Mamie Marks 59th Birthday

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower left the White House in a limousine at 10:43 a.m. (EST), on the 85-mile trip. Special civic ceremonies will be held when they arrive in Gettysburg.

Eisenhower, rapidly recovering from the heart attack he suffered on Sept. 24, returned to his White House office this morning for the first time in three months.

He went to his office about 8:30 a.m. EST., the first time he has been there since he left Aug. 14 for a vacation in Colorado which was interrupted by his illness.

The trip will be an occasion for a double celebration. Not only will the President begin taking on more official duties, but Mrs. Eisenhower will mark her 59th birthday.

The grandchildren—David, seven, Barbara Ann, six, and Susan, four — were in the family group which celebrated the first lady's birthday last night.

Also at the White House for the quiet family observance of Mrs. Eisenhower's birthday were Maj. John Eisenhower and his wife Barbara. John is the only son of the President and first lady.

On arriving at his office this morning, the President conferred with Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr., Chief Presidential Assistant Sherman Adams and White House News Secretary James C. Hagerty.

From Hoover, the President received the latest reports from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the Big Four Foreign Ministers' Conference at Geneva.

Eisenhower authorized the sending of his plane, Columbine III, to Geneva to bring Dulles back to the U. S. where he will report almost immediately to the President at Gettysburg.

Hagerty said that the President's

HELD IN AIRLINER CRASH — The FBI announced the arrest of John Gilbert Graham, 23, of Denver early this morning. Agents said Graham will be charged with sabotage in the explosive crash of a United Air Lines plane near Longmont, Colo., on Nov. 1. The FBI said that Graham took out $37,000 worth of insurance on his mother, Mrs. Daisy King, while at the airport to put her aboard the plane for a trip to Alaska. Mrs. King and all 43 others aboard the plane were killed in the crash.

Lonardi Ousted During Bloodless Argentine Coup

Friends Vow Revenge as Anti-Peron General Aramburu Takes Office

Lonardi, the major general who led the September revolution against the dictatorship of Juan Peron, was pushed out of office in a bloodless coup yesterday.

Maj. Gen. Pedro Eugenio Aramburu, another general who took part in the anti-Peron movement seven weeks ago, was sworn in to succeed him.

The ringleaders of the coup said they did it to stamp out "totalitarian" influences in the Lonardi government and to make sure "true democracy" was built on the ruins of the Peron dictatorship. But Leonardi's friends called it a "treason" which would be punished.

From his exile in Panama, Peron said the changes in the Argentine government "were expected and will continue . . . There will be others shortly."

Aramburu, a 52-year-old professional soldier, commanded rebel army units in the uprising against Peron and was named army chief of staff when the revolutionary government took over in September.

Aramburu took the oath of office at Casa Rosada, the government house, late in the afternoon and immediately named a junta to help him rule the country.

The first announcement said the junta would be made up of the ministers of the army, navy and air force. Later it was expanded to include the vice president, Adm. Isaac Rojas, commander of naval operations.

Lonardi conferred at his home with some members of his ousted government. His only public comment was a statement to reporters denying he had resigned. It said: "This has come about exclusively by the decision of certain members of the armed forces."

Suspect Sought Insurance Gain on Mother's Life

'Bomb - Like' Explosions Caused Airliner Crash in Which 44 Died

DENVER (AP) — The arrest of a Denver man for sabotaging a United Air Lines plane in which his mother died was announced today by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

John Gilbert Graham, 23, whose most recent job was helping his mother operate a drive-in restaurant here will be arraigned this morning, the FBI said.

The FBI said Graham took out $37,000 worth of insurance on his mother, Mrs. Daisy King, at the Denver airport while there to place her aboard the plane en route to Alaska.

Forty-four persons died in the Nov. 1 crash of the UAL DC6B in a sugar beet field 32 miles north of here near Longmont, Colo.

Witnesses reported the airliner appeared to explode, and official investigators subsequently confirmed that something "foreign" aboard the ship was responsible for a "bomb-like" blast.

FORGED CHECKS

Graham had been working with his mother in a drive-in restaurant in Denver, helping to pay off the balance on $4,200 in checks the youth had forged against a Denver concern.

Mrs. King had paid $2,500 of the loss at the time young Graham received a five-year suspended sentence on conviction of the forgery in 1951.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said in Washington the formal charge in the case is violating a section of the federal code which makes it a crime to sabotage a national defense facility or materials. The code lists commercial airliners among such facilities.

TOOK OUT INSURANCE

Investigators, however, have reported that a cargo compartment of the crashed plane showed evidence of an explosion which they

Senate Continues Debate Over Hospital Legislation

LANSING (AP) — The running battle over providing facilities for Michigan's mentally retarded children bounced back to the Senate today, and it was anyone's guess whether a long deadlock would be broken.

Each faction was blaming the other for the lack of action, but there was some sign of compromise.

The Senate, meeting at 2 p.m., takes up a House bill calling for leasing of the Ft. Custer Army Hospital and for the purchase of the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium for two million dollars and the Children's Convalescent Hospital near Farmington for $750,000.

All told, this would provide 1,650 beds at a cost of $4,400,000 for the balance of the present fiscal year.

The Senate has approved the Ft. Custer deal, but a solid block of Republicans has blocked purchase of the two other facilities on the ground that they had not been appraised and may not fit into long range mental health plans.

A combination of Democrats and Republican "Young Turks" pushed the measure through the House Friday after nine days of deadlock between the House and Senate.

Sen. Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville), one of the leading opponents of the move to buy the two facilities, said following passage of the house bill: "We will consider the House bill seriously. I do not say we will adopt it."

The first sign of a break came yesterday when Sen. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak) said he would ask his colleagues to accept the House version.

Broomfield said he had opposed purchase of the Farmington facility because no appraisal had been made. But the former children's hospital has been appraised, he said, so he will recommend acceptance of the House bill.

In two special sessions the Senate has refused to consider purchase of any additional institutions.

The House was called to go back into session at 4 p.m. to see what the Senate has done on the bill.

Playwright Dies in Gotham at 59

NEW YORK (AP) — Playwright Robert E. Sherwood, 59, died today in New York Hospital.

He suffered a "moderate" heart attack early Saturday and after briefly rallying, had weakened steadily since noon yesterday.

Sherwood won three Pulitzer prizes for dramas and another for a biography "Roosevelt and Hopkins."

Sherwood received his first Pulitzer prize in 1936 for "Idiot's Delight," which told of approaching war.

His 1941 prize-winning "There Shall be No Night" was a protest against force and tyranny.

Although he preferred writing for the stage, he also did work for Hollywood. "The Best Years of our Lives," a film he wrote, won an Academy award as the best screen play of 1946.

Recently he had been adapting Tolstoy's "War and Peace" for motion pictures.

Born in New Rochelle, N.Y., April 4, 1896, Sherwood was married in 1922 to Mary Brandon. They had one daughter, Mary, who survives.

Apologetic Robber Gets $164 in Holdup

Apologetically, a handsome young man with a gun in his hand robbed a gas station of $164 early Sunday, police were told.

Attendant of the station at 440 N. Paddock St., Harold Werth, said the thief drove in and ordered a full tank of gas.

When he reached for his billfold, he pulled out an automatic, Werth said.

"I hate to do this," Werth quoted the thief as saying.

Fuel Explosion Kills 3 on Ship

2 Injured in Six-Hour Fire Aboard $4 Million Radar Ship in Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP)—Fire exploded a fuel tank aboard a Navy radar picket ship at dawn yesterday, killing three men and injuring two others. The fire was brought under control six hours later.

The stricken ship, the Searcher, was on station at sea 125 miles southeast of here. Navy and Coast Guard vessels rushed to her aid.

An amphibious plane flew three of the most severely injured men to New York City. One died on the way to the Naval Hospital at St. Albans, Queens.

The bodies of the two others killed in the blaze were "completely carbonized," the Navy said.

The Searcher had recently started a new tour of patrol duty off the Atlantic Coast east of Cape May, N. J.

The fire broke out in the starboard tank and roared with intense heat through the engine room on the second deck and the midship superstructure. The Navy called the damage moderate.

After the fire was extinguished, tugs began to tow the powerless 416-foot vessel to port. She was expected to reach New York by this afternoon.

Basement Noise Hippity-Hops Past Ready Deputies

Just after midnight Saturday, Mrs. Gayle Engle heard noises in the basement of her Clarkston house. She called the Sheriff's department.

A rabbit ran out.

"Because of the densely populated area, we could not kill the little intruder. However, Mrs. Engle seemed satisfied, and said she could now go to sleep peacefully," deputies said.

The case was declared closed.

Labor Leader Durkin Dies at 61

Ike's Former Secretary and Plumbers' Union Chief Ends Career

WASHINGTON (AP) — Martin P. Durkin, the Democrat who was President Eisenhower's first Secretary of Labor, died yesterday after a long illness.

The 61-year-old union leader—he was president of the AFL Plumbers Union—had been hospitalized much of the time since he was stricken with a brain tumor 14 months ago.

Durkin resigned from the Eisenhower Cabinet Sept. 10, 1953 after serving seven months.

He contended Eisenhower had violated a pledge to seek Taft-Hartley law changes which Durkin had recommended. The President replied that he never had broken a promise to anyone.

The late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio, an author of the labor law, had described Eisenhower's appointment of the lifelong Democrat as "incredible." The Senate, however, had confirmed his nomination by unanimous vote.

Durkin died at Georgetown University Hospital, where he had twice undergone brain surgery and been hospitalized three times during his illness. At his bedside were his widow, the former Anna H. McNicholas, and their three sons.

Detroit Seeking Missing Mother

Wife Takes 4 Children, Gun-Laden Car; Leaves Threatening Note

The husband, Jack O. Brooks, 44, an auto factory worker, told police his wife, Lillian, 40, who worked in another factory, left a note on the kitchen table saying:

"You have driven me crazy and I asked the kids if they wanted to go with me and they said yes. As you know, we have no insurance and you're going to have a big funeral bill. You can have the car when they find it, if there is anything left of it."

Missing, he said, were four shotguns, a 22-caliber automatic rifle and a box of shotgun shells.

* * *

Police qouted Brooks as saying he and his wife had quarreled Saturday because he spent a half hour and $1 of his $145 weekly take-home pay "having a few beers with the boys."

"I called our married daughter, Mrs. Carolyn Simpkens, in Waukegan, Ill.," Brooks said, "but she has not heard from her mother."

The Brooks have been married 23 years.

Police put out an alarm calling for any information on the Brooks car, a 1955 blue and white Buick hardtop with the license EL 5907.

The possibility of snow flurries was predicted for tonight, while temperatures are expected to reach a low of between 22 and 26 degrees. Northwesterly winds will reach 12-20 miles an hour today, becoming variable tonight.

The lowest thermometer reading preceding 8 a.m. was 45 degrees. The temperature in downtown Pontiac was 49 at 2 p.m.

Tongay Escapes Prison Officer

Jailed Father of Aquatot Case Flees His Guard After Auto Crash

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Police today hunted for Russell Tongay, the former swimming instructor who escaped from a Florida officer here last night while serving a 10-year manslaughter sentence in the death of his Aquatot daughter.

Tongay was brought from the Florida State Prison at Raiford, Fla., by transfer agent Jimmie Simmons, to undergo treatment for a lung ailment at the Marine Hospital.

After checking in at the hospital, the agent and his prisoner were en route to the parish (county) jail when they were involved in a minor automobile accident.

Tongay was taken to Charity Hospital for examination. Doctors said he apparently was uninjured. En route back to the jail Simmons and Tongay stopped at a downtown restaurant for supper.

OUT THE DOOR

As the agent was paying the check, police said, Tongay fled out the door. Simmons said he pursued him to a parking lot but lost him in the dark.

A statewide alarm was broadcast for Tongay, who made headlines in January 1954 when a Miami jury found him guilty of manslaughter in the death of his five-year-old daughter, Kathy, two years earlier.

Kathy died in a 33-foot dive into a Miami Beach hotel swimming pool. She and her brother, Bubba, 9, billed as "The Aquatots," received wide publicity when their father announced they would swim the English Channel. French and British authorities refused to allow the channel crossing.

'Why' of Deer Hunting? --Several Reasons

By JACK PATTERSON

By today deer hunters will be as scarce hereabouts as feathers on a boar.

This effort should be properly directed, then, to those stay-at-homes who are not hunters or who may be relatives of hunters but who, through accident of age or gender, would be liabilities in a deer camp.

PATTERSON

To these people, who annually see otherwise sensible citizens willingly sit for hours in a one mile per hour traffic jam, some word of explanation on "Why deer hunting, anyway?" seems called for.

Let's start right off by saying that there is no single explanation that will appear reasonable to everyone. In fact we wonder sometimes if there is an explanation that would appear reasonable to anyone.

Best bets, not necessarily listed in order of importance: First, save for bears, which are plentiful but not often encountered by the average bumble-foot hunter, the Virginia white tail is Michigan's only beast that qualifies as big game.

That in itself is excuse enough for several hundred thousand hunters. Second, the deer hunter has a chance to get away from normal routine and go native a bit (quite a bit in some cases). This is a good excuse, too.

Third, if we may poach a bit on the province of the head-shrinkers, there is probably some deep atavistic hangover present in most men, dating back to the days when hunting was for real, which grows apace with the falling of the leaves.

In any case deer hunting is more a state of mind than a thing to do. Bobby Burns hit his head on a nail when he wrote (or possibly sang) "My heart's in th' hi'lands, my heart is not here; my heart's in th' hi'lands a'chasin' th' deer."

Anyway, somewhere around half a million people will be beating the bush in the upper and northern part of the lower, and closer than you think around home before December appears. The younger hunters will be hell-bent to bag a buck.

The older ones, having been through all the work that the once desirable objective entails, hope equally fervently that they fail to do same.

But from deep in the heart of each will spring a prayer that the weather will turn bitter, bitter cold. For some reason bucks get more romantic as the thermometer slips, and roam around more, thereby enhancing their chances of being ambushed.

And above all it should snow. Why that is, aside from making deer somewhat easier to see and a great deal easier to track, we don't see. Snow also makes it much more likely for the hunter, unless he travels by helicopter, to get his machine bogged down real good.

Be that as it may, forecasts are for cold weather with snow, if that means anything. The deer herd is in good shape. Despite a mid-week opening, chances for a record number of opening day hunters appear good. Tomorrow we'll give a view on how some of your friends and neighbors on location prepared for the big day.

Vandals Attack Summer Cottage

Keego Harbor Dwelling Scene of Widespread Damage Friday

A summer home at Keego Harbor was broken into and ransacked by vandals in what police called an "orgy of destruction" Friday night.

The house, property of Sam Borin of 1820 Cass Lake Front, was entered through a basement window. Neighbors, who reported the crime to Keego Harbor police, said that they had heard "unusual sounds" between 11 p.m. and midnight.

According to Police Chief Calvin Baxter, the marauders slashed upholstery, emptied drawers and strewed their contents about, marked the walls with lipstick and destroyed several wall pictures.

Baxter stated that the evidence at the scene indicated that the intruders had been drinking alcoholic beverages.

The Borins, who live at 19551 Prest, Detroit, told police that the dwelling had been illegally entered twice before. Both said that they were unable to estimate the amount of damage.

PRINCE CHARLES IS SEVEN — Young Prince Charles wears a kilt of Balmoral tartan for this seventh birthday portrait made on the grounds of Balmoral Castle. The Balmoral tartan is restricted to members of the British royal family. Born Nov. 14, 1948, at Buckingham Palace, the Queen's son is throwing a party for friends there on his birthday today.

Britain's Prince Charles Celebrates 7th Birthday

* * *

The youngster awoke early at Windsor Castle, where he has been spending the weekend with his mother, Queen Elizabeth II, and his father, the Duke of Edinburgh, and began unwrapping presents after breakfast.

One present was a day off from school for the youngster with the infectious grin and shock of tousled blond hair. As usual, the royal family's gifts to Charles were not announced.

FLAGS UNFURLED

The prince's mother and father carefully kept their day free from royal engagements to spend their time with him and Princess Anne, his 5-year-old sister.

Flags flew from the nation's public buildings in honor of the event and small crowds gathered at vantage points to catch a glimpse of the young prince as he drove from Windsor Castle to Buckingham Palace for a birthday tea.

* * *

Twenty-five children — boys and girls who join Charles and Anne at their palace dancing classes and other friends from houses the royal children have visited — were invited.

LEARNING GAMES

Tomorrow things will be back to normal. Around the palace he is addressed by everyone as plain "Charles" and he is expected to show proper respect to his elders.

Outside the schoolroom, the prince is learning to swim, ride, play soccer and cricket.

Charles is losing interest in the fairy tales and animal stories and prefers the adventure stories common to his age group—cowboys and Indians and spaceman sagas.

Rebel Civil War Vet Chalking Up His 113th Birthday

He had his celebration yesterday.

* * *

* * *

It may be the last big celebration for Williams. Members of the family said the festivities were becoming too much of a strain on Williams and his 84-year-old wife, Ella Mae.

* * *

Toward the sole survivor of the Union Army, Alfred Woolson, 109, Duluth, Minn., Williams said he feels "No different." The other two living veterans, both Confederates, are William A. Lundy, 108, Laurel Hill, Fla., and John Salling, 108, Slant, Va.

automobile ride to Gettysburg would be "slow" in comparison to the normal speed on such trips and that he would be accompanied on the journey by Maj. Gen. Howard McC. Snyder, his personal physician.

At the town of Gettysburg, flags and banners were flying, and special ceremonies were set.

The President was expected to say a few words in reply. Then, Mr. and Mrs. Eisenhower were to proceed to the famous farm about three miles out of town.

Kills Wife, Sons, Then Shoots Self

Police Say Businessman Embezzled $60,000 Before Slaying Family

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — Police said today a business executive killed his wife and two young sons and then took his own life because of concern over admitted embezzlements and loss of his job.

* * *

Authorities said they have established that Allison R. Sanger, 47, shot his wife of 21 years, Winifred, and stabbed to death their two sons, Alison Jr., 14, and Russell, 9, before he shot himself to death.

Medical Examiner William A.R. Chapin said the deaths in the Sanger residence occurred between 9 p.m. and midnight Saturday night.

Sanger was vice president and general manager of the Brooks Co. Inc., a printing concern. He had been employed by the company for more than 25 years. His salary was listed as between $25,000 and $30,000 a year.

J. Loring Brooks, president of the company, said that last week Sanger admitted to him he embezzled about $60,000 from the company over the past five to 10 years.

Brooks said an "honest error" came up in the company's bookkeeping system and Sanger was questioned about it. "Obviously," Brooks said, "that led Sanger to believe we had uncovered his embezzlements.

65,638 Pribilof Fur-Seal Skins Taken This Year

WASHINGTON — Annual sealing operations conducted by the United States Fish and Wildlife Service on the Pribilof Islands in the Bering Sea netted 65,638 fur-seal skins this year.

The fur-seal herd has grown from a low of some 132,000 in 1910, when the U. S. Government took over its management and protection, to about 1,500,000 at present.

* * *

During this period the Government has taken in some $17,000,000 in revenue from the sale of seal skins, or more than twice the original price of Alaska.

About one ton of water is required to finish the woolen cloth for a three-piece suit.

MIRACULOUS MAKE-OVER — Joseph F. Sherman is a strip mine operator of New Bethlehem, Pa. His motto is "Take care of the land and it will take care of you." He is greatly interested in what can be done to reclaim worthless farm land and land scarred by strip mining. He knew of a beautiful valley near his home. It consisted of five farms, some so valueless they had been abandoned. Former pasture land was untended brush and weeds. Five years ago he bought the first farm of 160 acres and moved in some of his giant earth-moving equipment. He cleared the field, bulldozed the tree stumps and spread tons of lime and fertilizer. He now has 1000 acres on which he raises a herd of 200 purebred Aberdeen-Angus cattle for the beef market. The rich, pastoral scene he looks at above, through the picture window of the rambling ranch house he built, is the result of Sherman's unprecedented one-man reclamation project. Tethered on the lawn is Eileenmere Son of 1064, a prize bull. Cattle frequently roam over the lawn, so Sherman doesn't need a lawn mower.

Visitor to Japan Saves U.S. Face With New Shoes

TOKYO (AP)—You go abroad and the first thing you know you are responsible for your country.

When A. Boyd Campbell, Jackson, Miss., president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce was here last May for an International Chamber of Commerce meeting, he met Miss Reiko Sakamoto, who had a beef.

The pretty 19-year-old student at Sacred Heart College told him she had received a pair of shoes from the United States, each of a different size.

Robbers Steal $9,000 by Using Owner's Jacks

SEEKONK, Mass. (AP) — Thieves used their victim's own truck and hydraulic lifting equipment in stealing a 1,000-pound safe containing $9,000 from Bove Motors garage yesterday.

Police said the thieves used a crane and two hydraulic jacks from the garage to lift the heavy safe onto a truck, also stolen from the garage.

House Probers See Favoritism

Commodity Credit Unit Cited for Negligence in Contract Awards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional investigators have turned over to the General Accounting Office reports of some Commodity Credit Corp. practices which they said "may have serious and possibly scandalous proportions."

The statement is contained in a 300-page report made by the staff of the House Appropriations Committee on major activities of the Agriculture Department.

The report, dated Dec. 29, 1954 and still locked up in committee files, hinted at what it called "favoritism" in awarding contracts and "culpable negligence" in purchasing supplies. It said there is sometimes an attitude in handling stored crop surpluses that since "only government-owned commodities and taxpayers' dollars are involved — why worry!"

Its major criticism was directed at the Commodity Credit Corp., the department's major agency to handle surprus crops, and the CCC's operating agency, the Commodity Stabilization Service.

In connection with CCC storage procurement practices, the investigators said that in July 1953 and April 1954, the CCC advertised for bids for the erection of storage facilities in Iowa and Illinois and did not give the entire contracts to the low bidder in each case. Had the low bidders been awarded the work, they said, the possible savings to the government would have been $620,831.

In March 1954, they said, 17 bids were received for the purchase of 300 ventilating fans for installation in mothball ships used for grain storage purposes. The bids were narrowed down to three from companies in Indianapolis, Chicago and Allentown, Pa., with the Allentown company indicated as the low bidder considering the quality of the product.

The investigators said an unidentified CCC official, referred to as "Mr. B.," contacted the Indianapolis bidder and permitted him to change his bid to bring it more in line with the Allentown offer. The Allentown bidder was not given an opportunity to revise his estimates, and the contract was awarded to the Indianapolis concern. The report did not name the firms or individuals involved.

As an example of what they called "culpable negligence" and "unorthodox procedure," the investigators said the CCC grain division authorized the purchase of 375,000 gallons of calking and coating material for storage bins.

Despite indications early in 1953 that the material was not satisfactory and had to be removed after being applied, they said, it still was being purchased as late as June 1954.

ACC's Order Revives Warren Airport Hopes

Once again hope has been revived for construction of a Detroit airport in Warren Township.

New breath of life was given the project by a recommendation of the President's Air Co-ordinating Committee (ACC) for the removal of the airlines from Willow Run to Wayne County Airport.

Immediately on the heels of that action came telephoned orders from Mayor Cobo at Phoenix, Ariz. These directed city attorneys to step up moves for the acquisition of a northeast airport site as the next major link in Detroit's metropolitan airport program.

At the same time Glenn C. Richards, Detroit's airport co-ordinator, was instructed to revive the old Detroit Metropolitan Airport Authority in line with ACC recommendations.

All this is big news for Oakland County patrons of the airlines. That is so because Warren airport site is only 18 miles from Pontiac while Willow Run is 40 miles distant and Wayne Co. airport is only 10 minutes driving time nearer.

Detroit bought the 74 acre Warren Airport site at Dequindre and 14 Mile road in 1954. The city then tried to acquire the surrounding two square mile area but was blocked when Warren Township filed condemnation suits against the property for playground purposes.

Action on these suits was held up pending a ruling by the ACC on the future of Willow Run. The way now is paved for a court decision on the suits.

Until the Warren site is available, this great metropolitan area will have to get along with air terminal facilities far inferior to what it should have.

Legislative Deadlock at Lansing Deplorable

The Michigan Legislature's deadlock over a program for the care of mentally retarded children is deplorable for two reasons.

First, it causes further delay in long overdue action to bring facilities for the care of these children more into line with the ever-growing need. Second, it reflects unfavorably on all members of the Legislature whether or not they have participated in the parliamentary maneuvering.

This newspaper isn't unduly concerned over the refusal of the Senate to consider purchase of the Children's Home at Farmington and the Oakland County Sanatorium. Use always will be found for them. Yet on the surface it would seem that these buildings could be remodeled to provide excellent quarters for the children.

★ ★ ★

It also would be to the advantage of the County to sell the sanatorium in which the ever-dwindling patient load has resulted in soaring costs per patient day. But sale of these buildings isn't the main issue. The great need is for immediate action to provide the beds required to take care of a long waiting list.

At present the House favors purchase of the two buildings and lease of the hospital at Fort Custer. The Senate's bill on the other hand would provide for leasing of the Fort Custer hospital, expansion of the family care program and placing of more children in private and county hospitals. This, it is claimed, would add 1,450 beds.

A Legislature meeting and recessing thrice weekly to prevent the call of another special session, isn't likely to solve this serious humanitarian problem. The need of the hour is for responsible action not petty politicking.

Bureaucrats Defended

Much criticized bureaucrats got some distinguished defense when Clarence B. Randall, chairman of Inland Steel and an adviser to President Eisenhower, took their critics to task.

Mr. Randall pointed out that while many businessmen wanted President Eisenhower elected, too few of them have supported his policies. Before the businessman condemns "the nitwit, the bureaucrat in Washington," the steel executive added, he should be sure he knows what he is talking about.

Declaring that he himself now is a bureaucrat and therefore is sensitive, he said he had "found more dedicated, selfless men among the bureaucrats than I know of in business."

During his remarks before the American Bankers' Association, Inland's chairman said businessmen should do their part at the local, state and national levels to make our republican form of government work.

Everybody can second that motion.

After all, an automobile is merely a means for getting from one place to another—if you don't get killed en route.

The Hog Caller

Ike Running as Bipartisan Candidate Would Not Disrupt Two-Party System

WASHINGTON — Based upon a widely held belief that the American people ought not to be deprived of the services of President Eisenhower in a world crisis, there have been all sorts of suggestions advanced as to how to arrange satisfactorily for presidential succession if, in the event of re-election, he may perhaps be unable to continue in office for a full term, or wishes to resign when the emergency is over.

* * *

The latest suggestion—which reflects what at one time was Eisenhower's own thinking—calls for his nomination for president on both the Democratic and the Republican tickets, with each party naming a different candidate for the vice presidency.

Thus if, for example, the Democratic ticket in 1956 were Eisenhower and Stevenson, and if the Republican ticket were Eisenhower and Nixon, the 2-party system would be preserved, because at the meeting of the electoral college, after the November election, the electors would cast their ballots for Eisenhower for president, and if the Democrats had won the national election, their own vice presidential nominee would be inaugurated.

Likewise the 2-party system would be maintained in the Congressional elections, which would in no way be affected by the presence of the same presidential nominee at the top of the two major party tickets.

IKE BROACHED IDEA

Although it has not been disclosed before, it was Dwight Eisenhower, himself, who first broached the idea of running as a nonpartisan nominee himself for the presidency. It happened in 1946, when, as Chief of Staff of the U.S. Army, he was visiting General MacArthur, then in Tokyo as the Supreme Commander of the Allied Forces in the Far East.

General MacArthur asked Ike if he intended to be a presidential candidate. General Eisenhower replied that he would be if he could be assured of the nomination on both the Republican and the Democratic tickets. General MacArthur argued that this wasn't practical under the 2-party system, but the two men were talking at that time about a normal situation.

Today the world crisis is such that precedents might readily be shattered. When, for example, in the middle of World War II, it seemed to the American people desirable to break with tradition and elect a president for a third and a fourth term, they did so.

PERFECTLY LEGAL

To name Eisenhower on both the Republican and Democratic tickets for a second term would violate no constitutional provision and would only deviate from a political habit. The latter would not in itself be a strong enough reason to overcome the public demand that the man who is the leader of world opinion at a critical time in world history should be permitted to serve as long as he is able.

The idea of naming Ike on both tickets is a simple solution, for it doesn't involve constitutional complications of any kind and meets a unique problem in the annals of history.

Since the vice presidency moreover, would be held by the man whose political party had won the national election, he would have been tested on the fundamental issues that separate the parties and he would be chosen with the full knowledge of the voters that some time during the second term the president might resign in his favor.

EACH COULD GAIN

The plan would present a challenge to both parties. There are, for instance, many Democratic leaders who are convinced that Stevenson could outrun Nixon. It is a chance for the Democrats to obtain all the advantages the Republicans would have in placing the popular Eisenhower at the top of the ticket without the disadvantage to the Democrats of trying to run a presidential nominee against Eisenhower.

Also, if the Republicans are so sure that "Peace and Prosperity" is a winning slogan for them, they should welcome the chance to fight the campaign on the vice presidential level. For if Ike should pledge himself to retire when the international emergency were over, the "number two" man would become president.

Urban Parents Denying Children Proper Play

By WILLIAM BRADY, M. D.

The facts of life are altogether too dull and drab for the children of low I. Q. parents.

No story the comic strip artist can dream up, no fantasy of fairyland, no morbid, grisly, hideous nightmare dredged from a psychopathic imagination, is too morbid for young children in Yankeeland.

The ultimate effects of such bad teaching are for psychologists and psychiatrists to consider. Here I am dealing with physical health, a field in which I make no bones of being an authority.

Now I think of all the fun we kids on Chapel Street in Canandaigua had during the long summer vacations, after school in the afternoons, and at recess on schooldays, without going anywhere or spending more than an occasional penny for a stick of candy or licorice.

And I feel sorry for the unfortunate, "under-privileged" children of well-to-do parents in urban communities today who are denied the greatest of all freedoms, the freedom to play.

The poor little namby-pamby kids today have to play vicariously if at all. They can imagine themselves Davy Crockett, Wild Bill What's-his-name, Two-Gun So-and-So or Space Commander at the movies.

They can squirm and scream themselves into hysteria and exhaustion in the cheering section at the high school "varsity" game. But when it comes to doing something themselves far too many of the (physically) uneducated young Americans today are sissies—they just haven't got what it takes.

NOT THEIR FAULT

It's not their fault that they can't chin themselves and many of them can't even do forward rolls (somersaults, as young Bill's p. e. instructor in college says I shouldn't call 'em.) We Chapel Street kids did such stunts with springboards, trapezes, stilts etc., and what we called airsprings (Webster says somersaults) on suitable lawns on our way to and from school.

The automobile, movies, radio, television, carbonated sweetened flavored soft drinks and the ruthless encroachment of beer, wine and hard liquor have doomed the present generation to vapid make-believe.

I deplore the weakness of the younger generation not just because I'm an old fuddy-duddy but because it portends the decline of America.

Deadline is only a vague suggestion—the right word for it is degeneration, and remember, please, I'm concerned with physical degeneration, as the term is defined by Webster and Stedman (medical dictionary.)

KEPT FROM EXERCISE

The automobile keeps many youngsters from getting the exercise youngsters formerly got walking and riding bicycle. The movies keep 'em sitting and dreaming of unwholesome things when they should be doing something.

The brief refreshment the youngster gets from his or her favorite colored, sweetened, flavored carbonated beverage is partly the stimulation of cerebrum, nerves, kidneys and heart by the caffeine-like drug in the beverage and partly the energy yielded by quickly assimilated and oxidized sugar in the drink.

Observe the spurts of activity or liveliness shown by youngsters after each drink of pop and the prompt recurrent of tiredness and languor when the sugar is burned up.

Signed letters, not more than one page or 100 words long, pertaining to personal health and hygiene, not to disease, diagnosis or treatment, will be answered by Dr. William Brady if a stamped, self-addressed envelope is sent to the Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Mich.

Voice of the People

Retarded Child's Parent Regards Situation Unjust

Letters will be condensed when necessary, name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests unless the letter is critical in its nature.

I am not against Ex-TB Patient's idea on the sale of the sanatorium, but I would like to say that if, for instance, a person does have TB or polio he doesn't have to beg for admission to a hospital for treatment or care.

They are given excellent care. This is all taken care of by collections from different agencies and the state. We give to all of these and we are also taxpayers.

I have kept my child at home for 18 years, but finally I could do it no longer. We filed papers for Lapeer three years ago and we are still waiting.

I went to my pastor, the prosecuting attorney, the out-patient clinic at the State Hospital and also a Family Service center, and believe me, I begged for some relief.

And what did they say? "We're sorry, but we can't help you at all."

I am certain that if these senators who are holding out were close to the problem, they would change their minds in a very big hurry. Why shouldn't we have a hospital close to home for these children, where we can go and see them and bring them home at times?

Is it asking too much for a retarded child and his parents? I just cannot see the justice or fairness of it at all.

Only Incorporated Areas Allowed to Make Laws

It is my understanding that in government all unincorporated areas come under the state code of laws only, and that no township can make a governing law and enforce it without first being incorporated.

And the incorporated area must have a separate set of officers for the separate government. Unincorporated areas are not law-making bodies, and areas incorporating as a city must pay a city tax in addition to school and county taxes, and they must abide by all the laws imposed by the state.

If I'm wrong, I invite correction by the legal profession.

Work of the Presidency Should Be Simplified

By MERRYLE S. RUKEYSER
INS Economic Commentator

The convalescence of President Eisenhower gives the nation the first dramatic opportunity to come to grips with revision of the institution of the Presidency.

Every competent observer has known that the Presidency had developed into a "man killing" job.

* * *

Accordingly, the question is not whether Eisenhower will recover sufficiently to endure another term, but how to modernize the setup at the White House so demands on any incumbent can be more reasonable.

The late Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg, Michigan Republican, in disclaiming any ambition for the Presidency to me at a time when his name was conspicuously mentioned, said that the Presidency should be simplified.

Vandenberg's suggestion was that the Vice President be yanked out of the Senate, where he presides, and be designated as Executive Vice President. In this new role, the Vice President would become the chief administrative officer; the President, the policy maker, ceremonial head and liaison between the Executive Department and Congress.

FOLLOWS BUSINESS TREND

This idea of Vandenberg's is in line with contemporary management trends in industry. Private business has recognized the necessity for expanding the responsible executive group to keep pace with increasing complexity in a company. President Eisenhower has gone further than any one else in bringing the White House more in line with contemporary organization charts.

But fundamentally, lethargy has prevented a fundamental solution. In election years, neither candidate would ordinarily raise the issue lest it be interpreted as a confession of personal inadequacy.

Such squeamishness is a childish approach to the world's most difficult management job. It is immature to assume that the human being chosen for the Presidency has superhuman endurance, energy and vitality. It is likewise a sad commentary that, prior to Eisenhower's illness, there was a tendency to sneer at his recreation, especially golf, and vacations.

IT'S IKE'S CHOICE

Accordingly, instead of bowing out of the picture for health reasons, it could perhaps be argued that Eisenhower, after a full healing, would render a long term historic service in running again, and in making his continuance in office an occasion for a thorough revamping of the Presidency.

This is said subject to my belief that, in light of the President's illness from which he is recovering, any future public service on his part should be volunteered and not drafted. No one but Eisenhower has the right to decide whether he should take the calculated risk of continuing in public life.

* * *

Whereas if he chooses to stay, a grateful people should demand that the requirements of the Presidency for all time be trimmed down more nearly in balance with one individual's physical capacity. And, as part of the restyling of the Presidency, the physically tiring and meaningless process of wholesale hand shaking at receptions should be dispensed with.

Smiles

Reports say that it has been a great season for corn in Iowa. TV programs have done okay, also.

Case Records of a Psychologist

Professional Groups or Local Teams Help to Raise Church Building Fund

Clem wants some psychological strategy for raising money quickly. And he has a very legitimate goal, for his little church is overcrowded until the children literally must overflow into neighboring homes for Sunday School. Scrapbook this case record.

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case P-391: Clem B., aged 35, asks a rather common question.

"Dr. Crane, we live in a new suburb of our city," he began. "It is full of new homes of average wage earners.

"But we don't have an adequate church building. Our Sunday school classes meet in the basement and must also overflow into the minister's home.

* * *

"So we'd like to raise funds to build a new and much larger church. But nobody wants to take the lead.

"Everybody nods assent to the general idea, but shuns taking an active role in raising the money.

CHURCH FINANCE

No, they make a down payment which may total 25 per cent to 30 per cent, and then pay off the balance by monthly installments.

Well, in building one of God's earthly houses (church), it is wise to follow a somewhat similar plan.

Many denominations insist that the local parish raise 50 per cent of the total sum in pledges or cash, before a formal OK is placed on the building project and a bank loan is authorized by the denominational officials.

* * *

There are also special money raising organizations whose business it is to come into a town and put on the complete campaign.

They charge a nominal fee for this service, but are usually quite talented and with the experience to make a success of the venture.

So you can either let a professional outfit handle the campaign, or else follow the local strategy outlined below.

PERSONALIZED CAMPAIGN.

Make a house-to-house campaign to get all members and friends out for group meetings. Then have your clergyman or an imported speaker give some inspiring addresses on the need for the new building.

Let the crowd personally tour the Sunday school and see with their own eyes the wonderful work that volunteer teachers are doing with the younsters in the present cramped quarters.

Then organize your total membership into teams, with talented leaders for each. And have a special committee of competent persons to call upon the prospective big donors who may be able to give you anywhere from $500 on upward.

Stress the fact that a church building is a dynamic memorial for carrying on the high idealism of past loved ones.

If a family lost a son or daughter in the last war, it is a perfect memorial to build a Sunday School room in honor of that departed loved one.

For in that new Sunday school room thousands of other youngsters will be trained to high resolves and noble ideals, like those of your son or daughter who made the supreme sacrifice for mankind.

Stress the fact that the Bible urges us to give 10 per cent (a tithe) of our income to the church. Uncle Sam has even increased the quota to 20 per cent, for income tax exemption.

An investment in human character now, when a church is urgently needed in a new, mushrooming residential area or trailer camp section, pays far greater dividends than a bequest in our will some 25 years hence.

Jesus reproved the man who hid his money, but praised the one who kept it circulating in good works. Idle money does not convert new Christians nor stop juvenile delinquency, nor offer teenagers a wholesome meeting place.

Man Can't Get Out, Police Can't Get In

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A youth explained to police he spent four hours tearing a hole in the roof of a securely locked building yesterday and dropped inside.

Then he couldn't get out.

Police, attracted by his banging on a door and the flashing of his light, couldn't get in. It took them an hour to locate an official of the firm with a set of keys.

The youth, who identified himself as Henry Rebeck, 19, was booked suspected of burglary.

Royalty Twirling About Globe on Scooter

NEW YORK (AP)—Three years ago Countess Dagmar von Bernstorff decided to become the first countess in history to go around the world on a motor scooter.

* * *

She and her first cousin, Diether Ebeler, who has acted as her bodyguard, escort and chauffeur, have scooted 63,000 miles — counting hitchhikes aboard ships — since they set out from Munich Sept. 22, 1952.

Their extraordinary journey had as its basic purpose the collection of folklore and folk music for educational and travel programs which the pair write and produce for a radio station in Baden-Baden.

In addition to a vast store of cultural material the countess and Herr Ebeler, who looks like a movie star, collected seven flat tires and one traffic ticket—for scooting on the wrong street in Rome. The countess also collected eight marriage proposals.

"Most of them were in Pakistan," she said, smiling. Visiting blondes are always popular in Pakistan.

* * *

Their vehicle, a two-wheeled, 4½ - horsepower Vespa scooter, pulls a single-wheeled trailer in which they keep their clothing and recording equipment.

The couple have had many exciting adventures during their trip which has carried them across 30 countries and 18 of the United States.

In southern Greece they were attacked by a pack of wild dogs.

"Because we were not allowed to carry guns," recalled Ebeler, "we had to ward off the dogs with a cake of soap wrapped in a stocking, which we swung like a blackjack."

CAUGHT IN EARTHQUAKE

In Turkey they were caught in an earthquake. In Iran they became lost in a snowstorm. In Indonesia they scooted straight through a camp of outlaws.

"The outlaws were so surprised to see us come riding out of the jungle on a scooter they left their guns at their sides," Ebeler said.

The couple started out with $700, have earned about $6,000 giving lectures or writing articles. They earned their passage across the Pacific on a Honduran freighter. The countess worked as a quartermaster, Ebeler as an ablebodied seaman.

Later this month the couple hope to work their way across the Atlantic on an Italian vessel, then scoot the last lap home. So far as they know no one before, countess or not, has ever girdled the globe on a motor scooter.

"We always thought New York City was in New Jersey.

"We had the wrong idea about the United States. We thought it would be noisy, with everybody honking his motor horn or whistling at girls on the street. It isn't that way at all. You have a quiet country.

"We found family life here much stronger than we expected.

"We are amazed to see how few houses have fences. It is quite thrilling to see so few fences.

"Your man in the street may not be too familiar with international affairs, but he seems to know everything there is to know about domestic politics.

"The churches — whether they are Protestant, Catholic or Jewish — have more influence with the people than churches do in Europe."

* * *

The countess was particularly impressed with the versatility of American women.

"They do everything for themselves," she said, adding with a note of awe in her voice:

Election Bet Loser, 18, Pays Off Coolie Style

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Stanley A. Buczkowski paid off an election bet by carrying Edward F. Cummings, 185 pounds, a mile and a half in a wheelbarrow.

"The worst thing about it," said Buczkowski, "is I couldn't even vote because I'm not old enough." He is 18.

Father Arrested for Trying to Kill Two Young Sons

Peter Ramsey Stitick, 39, was arrested yesterday and booked on suspicion of assault with intent to commit murder.

* * *

Police said Miss Clara Morgan, a friend of Stitick, visited his home Saturday night and found the boys, Thomas, 12, and Joseph, 10, unconscious in their bedroom. The boys were rushed to an emergency hospital where their stomachs were pumped. Doctors said they would recover.

Police said Stitick told them: "I gave them those pills, all right. I had no reason. For six years I've been father and mother to those kids."

Driverless Auto Pins Woman Against Pole

She ran in front of her car when it started to roll forward at her home near here Saturday and was pinned against a flagpole.

She was wedged between the car and pole for nearly an hour until the train came along and its crew rescued her.

Morse Favors Wide Open '56 Democratic Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Morse (D-Ore) said today he favors a "wide open" Democratic convention next year and will stay clear of any presidential primary fight that may develop in Oregon.

There have been some reports that Morse might be advanced as a "favorite son" candidate to avoid a possible Democratic split in his state. But the Oregon senator said he would not go along in any such move.

"I am running for the Senate and nothing else," he said in an interview.

Oregon's May 18 primary may find both Democratic and Republican aspirants listed on the ballot, some of them against their wills.

* * *

* * *

This might pose something of a problem for Gov. Averell Harriman of New York, who is to speak in Oregon Nov. 22 in behalf of Morse. Harriman expects to be New York's "favorite son" candidate but has said he will not enter any primaries.

There have been indications that Adlai E. Stevenson may elect to go into the primary. The name of Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee also is likely to be entered. Kefauver carried the state's 12 votes into the 1952 national convention, but lost the presidential nomination to Stevenson.

Kefauver told an ABC television audience yesterday he should know by mid-December whether he will seek the 1956 nomination, but said he was "not now a candidate at any rate."

Just after the network show, a panel member who asked Kefauver if he really intended to run reportedly was told "I think so." But the senator declined later to say whether he wants the nomination.

* * *

Stevenson is expected to announce for the nomination in Chicago Tuesday, two days before a meeting of the Democratic national committee. At that time, the committee will consider a proposed compromise for the "loyalty oath" by which some 1952 delegates wanted to bind all who participated to support the convention's nominee.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn), who was among those supporting the oath movement in 1952, said in an interview he regards the loyalty pledge as "dead."

Meantime Republicans arranged a meeting of their own national comittee in Chicago Dec. 1. Business will incude the official convention call, fixing the number of delegates for each state. Unofficial plans call for about 1,300 delegates, 94 more than in 1952.

Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland, who nominated President Eisenhower at the 1952 convention, said he would like to do the same next year and expressed hope "he might be our candidate." McKeldin indicated he would be quite willing to run for vice president.

How Trainees See New Reserve Act:

"Beats Draft All Hollow"

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
(First of 3 Articles)

FT. KNOX, Ky. (NEA) — Step right up, boys. Buy yourselves the biggest bargain Uncle Sam has ever offered in military service.

Do you think peace is here to stay? Do you want to go to college without the draft dogging your heels? Have you discovered that it's easier to get a good job with your military service completed?

If so, then "raffa" is your best bet.

"Raffa" is the nickname for the Reserve Force Act which creates a new six-months training program in the U. S. Army. It apparently has the draft, or enlisting, beat all hollow.

The reserve act was passed during the confusion at the end of the last session of Congress. Ike delayed signing it and the Army didn't get much time to publicize it before starting the program.

That explains why only 1,200 lads volunteered for the first group which began training Oct. 1. The original plan was to have the first class be a pilot group of 5,000 men, with a total number of 100,000 men per year being trained when the program is under full steam.

"But just wait until more guys know about this," insists Cletus Reble of Lima, Ohio, one of the first group. "They're going to have to turn 'em away from it when everyone realizes that it beats the draft, enlisting, or any other choice a man has for military service."

"Let's face it," says Harold G. Wills of Jackson Heights, N. Y. "A man wants to get active duty off his back as fast and as easy as possible and this is the answer." Harold is just out of high school, plans to go to Columbia University and doesn't want his college interrupted.

Then there's strapping Stell MacHowicz of Napoleon, Ohio, who just left a religious school to volunteer for "raffa." While in school he was offered an excellent chance to get in on the formation of a company making concrete silos. But he faced the draft if he left school.

"So I learned about this chance to get my service over in six months and took it," he explains.

All but a handful of the "raffa" lads say they would get in on it if they had it to do over, even now that they've had more than a month of the training.

* * *

Purpose of the new program is to bolster the nation's reserve force. After the men finish here they are subject to seven and one-half years of "ready reserve" duty. In this period they can be called up for active duty any time the President declares an emergency or Congress declares war.

* * *

Activities of a "ready reserve" unit include drill at least 48 nights and two weeks training in the field each year.

Members of the National Guard who take this six months training cut their commitment for service to eight years. They don't have to wait until they are 28 years old to complete their service, and with "raffa" training, they have a better chance for promotion in the guard.

Reports from the other Army posts around the country where "raffa" training is being carried on reveal about the same attitudes among their young men. Those posts include Ft. Jackson, S. C.; Camp Chaffee, Ar.; Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo.; Ft. Ord, Calif., and Ft. Bliss, Tex.

Another reason for taking "raffa"—which has the Army slightly alarmed—is revealed by Lawrence L. Elchert of Tiffin, Ohio.

"I always kind of wanted to get in the Army and make it a career," he admits. "But this six-month deal was the perfect chance to give it a try to see whether or not I really like it."

Larry does like it, he insists, and is going to enlist in the regular Army as soon as he finishes "Raffa." He can do this under the regulations, but what worries the Army is that this does not accomplish the basic goal of the program, which is strengthening the reserves.

"Training officers here, watching "raffa" closely, admit that this aspect of the plan is one which no one anticipated. It could become a major drain on the pool of men in the U. S. who would normally enlist for three years or more.

Most of the young men in the program believe that no war is in sight. They believe they will not be called to active duty within the next eight years. However, if war comes they will be the first ones called for duty.

They are gambling on the existence of peace. If they win, the prize is a year and a half more of civilian life than the lad who is drafted or fulfills his obligation of service some other way.

Next: Kids become soldiers.

Mistaken for Robber, Clerk Shot to Death

DETROIT (AP)—A young clerk in a suburban Allen Park haberdashery was shot to death as a prowler yesterday. It was his 22nd birthday.

Police said Robert Joseph Good, a former Marine, was shot in the heart and lung with a .22 caliber pistol.

Police said Kalman A. Heller, 38, fired the shots while investigating his 13-year-old daughter's report of a noise at the door.

"I saw a figure in a white trench coat," Heller said. "I yelled, 'Who's there.' This fellow came toward me. I fired three times. He shouted 'Stop, I've been hit." Then he tried to climb over a fence between my house and a neighbor's, but fell in the driveway."

Restaurant Loses Tone as Skunk Makes Debut

CHICAGO (AP) — The Imperial House lost some of its high-toned restaurant atmosphere when a skunk wandered into a dining room.

A squad of police headed by Officer Joseph Heinrich moved in to handle the situation. Heinrich shot the animal, but the restaurant refined its air by keeping its doors open all night.

British Up Production

LONDON — Britain's Austin automobile works has introduced the nation's nearest complete system of automation and is now producing 5,000 cars a week, most of them for export. As a result of such pushbutton production, 1954 auto exports rose 600 per cent over prewar totals.

Bigger Winter Recreation Program Opening at 16 Community Centers

An expanded winter recreation program began at 16 community centers today, the City Parks and Recreation Department has revealed.

"It's the most extensive program in our history," said Leonard T. Buzz, activities supervisor for the department.

The Board of Education is cooperating in the program by furnishing buildings for 15 of the 16 centers, Buzz said.

Financing, an activities program and the staff—mostly school teachers—are supplied by the city.

Such activities as games, basketball and dancing to "live" music are scheduled for the following junior high schools: Lincoln, Eastern, Jefferson, Washington. games are on the docket for Pontiac High School.

At the Lakeside Homes Community Center are scheduled games, arts and crafts, table tennis, dancing and a social night weekly for adults 21 and over.

Activities vary as to hour and day at the various centers and complete details may be obtained at each.

As an example of the expansion, Buzz pointed to a midget basketball program for 5th and 6th grade boys Saturday mornings.

The program will be conducted at Owen, Bagley and McConnell elementaries and Jefferson junior high and will teach the fundamentals of basketball.

Bob Considine Says:

Most Dems Will Bet 20-1, Ike Won't Run

NEW YORK (INS) — Not in more than a decade has there been as confident a gathering of the Democratic clan as that which will put heads together in Chicago this week. The general feeling is that they've got it made for '56 regardless of the fellow who'll carry the banner.

* * *

For some of the leaders, President Eisenhower looked ominously healthy stepping aboard the Columbine at Denver and getting out of it in Washington. But most of them would lay you 20-to-1 that he'll not run again and probably give you almost that much of a price the Republicans won't be able to budge Earl Warren. Beyond the Chief Justice they see nothing but political pushovers.

The Gallup Poll rated about as high as the Pittsburgh Pirates with the Democrats in 1948 when their man H. S. Truman nosed home in front in a big upset of Tom Dewey. The poll had given Truman about as much chance to win as Mao Tse Tung might now have of getting the GOP nomination. But now the poll says that if all Americans of voting age were ordered to register one way or another right now the figures would come out 54,300,000 Democrats, 34,300,000 Republicans and the residue undecided. That's a 20,000,000 spread, big enough, most Democratic leaders feel, to elect any of perhaps four or five potential nominees.

This will be Adlai Stevenson week at Chicago but if there appears to be wholesale support for him it will be as deceptive as winter sunshine. Mr. S. may very well wind up with the nomination. He certainly must be classed as favorite at this time. But if he does he will know he has been through a gruelling battle, to coin a phrase. What with all the confidence that almost any Democratic nominee can win, look for a fierce scrap.

TOM DEWEY MAY EMERGE

As for the other side of the political fence, the feeling grows not only that Eisenhower will bow out but also that he will refuse to designate a possible successor. A man wise to the way of the President told me the other day that if Ike felt he could in good conscience pick a man to carry on for him he'd go far afield from politics and choose Gen. Al Gruenther. The same man said Ike would pick no one.

From this distant outpost in time and space, it would not be surprising to see Tom Dewey emerge once again as the king maker of the GOP convention at San Francisco late next summer. Dewey overcame great bitterness and antagonism to knock Bob Taft out of the race and steer Eisenhower home in '52. There will be elements in the GOP inclined to go with him again.

The almost sure vehemence of the '56 pre-convention contests, the conventions themselves and the campaigns that lie beyond, will make very difficult what this reporter believes will be the task Eisenhower assigns to himself after he bows out of office.

CARDS ON THE TABLE

We believe that Eisenhower will devote a great deal of his time in the future, both in and out of the White House, to the heavy task of restoring the good feeling that existed among nations while he was robustly in charge at Geneva last summer.

He is said to feel that what once was achieved can be gained again; that the Russians and all the other doubters can be made to understand all over again that we mean well toward them and all the world. And that when he laid America's cards on the table at the Palais Des Nations he was not playing as an individual but speaking the mind and the heart of the biggest and most muscular nation on earth.

Unless all signs change, Eisenhower will be embarked on this task at a time when only a man with an extra lung will be able to make himself heard. He'll be forced to speak above the bellowing name-calling and glassy oratory of the liveliest political year in many many moons.

* * *

It is not going to be easy to tell the people behind the Iron Curtain that we are one big happy peace-loving family when one candidate is calling another a yellow-livered baboon and the name-caller is being referred to as a lineal descendant of a long line of lady canines. To millions overseas who cannot understand the processes of democracy, it will appear that anarchy is rife in the U. S. and that Appomattox was but a fragile armistice.

* * *

Tempting Coffee Shop

NEW YORK (INS) — The coffee in a Mid-Manhattan coffee shop was so good that two leather-jacketed men sipped their cupfulls very slowly. When the shop emptied, one of the men pulled out a gun, took $500 from the cashier and escaped.

Early Backer of Ike Says He's Fit to Run

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Barak T. Mattingly, one of the President's early political supporters, says he feels Eisenhower is physically fit to serve a second term and probably will seek re-election if world peace is in jeopardy.

Mattingly, former GOP state chairman and national committeeman, was a member of a small committee which urged Eisenhower in 1951, when he was a five-star general, to seek the Republican nomination.

"If world peace is in jeopardy, the President probably will run," Mattingly told newsmen yesterday. "If he feels his decision would have no effect on the situation, he will not run."

Egypt and Israel Charge Each Other for Recent Border Flareup

JERUSALEM (AP)— Four border violations were charged yesterday by Israel and her Arab neighbors.

* * *

An Israeli military spokesman said a patrol was fired on from an Egyptian position near Nahal Oz, an Israeli settlement opposite Egyptian-held Gaza. He said the patrol suffered casualties but did not return the fire.

An Egyptian spokesman in Gaza said an Israeli coast guard launch violated Egyptian territorial waters on the coast of the Gaza strip. He said shore batteries opened fire and forced the launch to withdraw.

Israel charged Jordan with two incidents.

An Israeli army spokesman said armed Jordanians attempted to blow up a house in Rosh Haayin village, four miles west of the Jordan border. He said some damage resulted, but there were no casualties.

* * *

Another Israeli spokesman said Jordan's soldiers entered Israeli territory in the "triangle area" farther north, looting a herd of goats and kidnaping a shepherd.

In Cairo, reliable sources said Egypt and Israel had disagreed on two points in the latest U.N. proposals to ease tension along their border. The two points involve Israeli police in the El Auja demilitarized zone and the marking of the zone's borders.

Israel was said to be willing to withdraw troops, as proposed by the U.N., but wants to keep police in the area.

* * *

The Egyptians were said to be insisting that police also be withdrawn. Egypt has charged that Israeli police in the zone were troops in disguise.

* * *

In Washington, diplomatic informants said Egypt is considering a protest against the fund-raiding drive being made in the United States by Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Sharett.

Rhee to Close Down Schools Taking Bribes

He said some schools are "taking advantage of the ill-balance between the number of applicants and the school capacity."

Aussie Pubs Serve Sunday Travelers

SYDNEY — Although Sunday drinking in "pubs" is restricted in Victoria, Australia, any person who travels 20 miles from his home is a "bona fide" traveler and can be served with drinks. As a result, Sundays are very lively in drinking places on the 20-mile fringe around Melbourne, the capital.

* * *

Traffic is bad, licensees keep the beer flowing as fast as possible and there are orchestras in every drinkery. Musicians, however, are frequently ordered to stop playing because "people are singing too much and not drinking enough."

The 20-mile limit was imposed in the horse and buggy days when 20 miles was a long journey. There is now a move afoot to change it to 100 miles—to make it tougher for thirsty motorists.

Home Typist Relies Upon Husband

By ANNE HEYWOOD

Dorothy Stripp, a housewife in East Orange, N. J., has a successful home typing business.

She is also proof of the fact that the woman who succeeds in this field must have real ability, perseverance, intelligence, good nature — and an exceptional husband!

* * *

Mrs. Stripp is 34 years old and the mother of four children—aged 1, 3, 5 and 7.

A GOOD SECRETARY

Before marriage, she had good secretarial jobs. Then, when her husband was in service, she traveled around with him, taking temporary jobs wherever she went.

* * *

Since 1948, when she decided to stay home and raise a family, she has been busily engaged in doing home typing.

"Some time ago, I discovered that many small business and professional men often have special work or big volume jobs which cannot be taken care of through regular channels, and that anyone offering part-time secretarial and office services was filling a need.

* * *

"The question was how to reach these people and tell them that I was able to give the service they needed.

ADS IN PAPERS

"I decided to try putting ads in our local paper in the 'Positions Wanted' column. After a few experiments, I composed an attractive ad which clearly stated my qualifications and the amount of time I could devote to the work.

* * *

"I had many replies but the filtering process is a long one. Some of the answers were from businessmen who were looking for a bargain.

"They thought a housewife would work for practically nothing, if she needs the money. However, by continuous effort, one can eventually acquire a substantial number of good accounts.

"We have converted the dining room into an office with a file, stationery cabinet, etc. This is really a necessity, for I have accumulated quite an amount of supplies from my accounts.

"Regarding my schedule for household duties—what a difficult thing that is to put down on paper! With four small children, it has to be pretty flexible. And a great deal depends upon the amount of business that comes in.

* * *

"I work best in the morning, so I usually do what I can after breakfast. I devote afternoons to necessary housework, then back to business in the evening again.

"I must confess that ironing piles up and things get pretty hectic when a large job comes in.

"But I could not do it at all without the cooperation of my husband, who helps with the children when necessary and even runs the mimeograph when the occasion demands it. And he can type, too!"

College Coed Needs Two Lipstick Shades

Two lipstick shades are Jane College's primary needs.

One lipstick shade should be pale and pretty: pink, coral or a light, clear red shade to wear to classes.

The other lipstick shade for late-day and after-dark wear with dresses, crinolined to the nines, or with jewel-rich velveteen jumpers needs to be a little deeper shade. It can be ruby red, which deepens without blackening lip color, resists the color-draining of night light.

IF Juneesque proportions—

Floating back panels suit your tall type and conceal large proportions. Floor length sheath flatters more than short bouffant.

Long and short evening fashions endorse back interest. Floating chiffon or nylon lace back skirt panels and shoulder stoles look wonderfully right if tall, though it would overpower a smaller figure.

Rosary Society Attends Dinner Before Meeting

Mrs. Joseph Spadafore, president, presided at the Thursday evening meeting of the Rosary Altar Society of St. Vincent dePaul Church.

Members of the Society were guests of St. Barbara Guild at a cooperative dinner preceding the meeting. Mrs. W. J. Hinds was chairman of the dinner.

Report was made of the final results of the membership drive which totaled 640 members. Mrs. Marshall Sprague reported on the card party and style show sponsored by the Society Nov. 2.

The sewing group will meet Wednesday morning in the church annex for their altar sewing. That evening at 8 p.m. the guild will make its final arrangements for the Dec. 3 Parish Bazaar.

Following the Altar Society meeting, members of the National Council of Catholic Women met with their president, Mrs. Harold Brady. Volunteer hours with the Red Cross, the Polio Fund and the UF and USO work at the Niki Base were reported by committee members.

Wear a Fragrance With Each Ensemble

Dispel that old-fashioned theory that perfume is something to be reserved for special occasions, only. American women, who always are discovering new roads to beauty, have decided that since perfume is such an asset to their "dress-up" appearance, it is a most practical all-day, every-day accessory.

And so, more and more women consider fragrance as much a part of their daily beauty routine as making up. And whether or not you own the very latest in fall fashions, you will feel and appear smart, attractive and chic, if you cultivate the habit of wearing fragrance with all your clothes.

Roll Cookies in 4X Sugar While Hot

Mrs. Alex Pittsley Bakes Nut Crisps for Special Treat

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Alex Pittsley gives us her recipe for crunchy little nut cookies that are always welcome on a cookie plate. The original recipe calls for pecans, but you may substitute other nuts if you wish. Remember these when you're planning your Christmas baking.

Mrs. Pittsley is still a fairly new homemaker and devotes most of her days to caring for her home and young daughter. She is a member of the New Sylvanites Club, serving as its program chairman.

PECAN CRISPS
By Mrs. Alex Pittsley

1 cup shortening
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped pecans or other nuts
Confectioners sugar

Cream shortening and sugar. Stir in vanilla, flour, salt and nutmeats. With hands, shape dough into small finger-like cookies. Place on greased cookie sheet about 1 inch apart. Bake in 350-degree oven for about 20 minutes until light brown. Remove from pan, roll in confectioners sugar while hot. Repeat when cool.

Don't Treat Your Tots as Equals

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A grandmother who's been visiting her son has returned home depressed by his children's "lawlessness."

She writes, "Everything their mother should tell them to do she begs them to do with explanations of why they should do it. I think she knows that her "reasoning" approach to her two little boys is a failure—and hangs on to it because she knows no other way to treat them . . ."

That's probably true. Why wouldn't it be?

How many young people today grow up experienced in relationship with children? Who is it that they "approach"? Their group—people of their own age; the older people—parents, teachers, employers. They know no children.

* * *

Today, our disconnected, small family, father-mother-two-children kinship group makes friendships with little boys and girls as rare a tennage experience as friendship with grandparents.

FEEL TERROR

So what happens when they become parents themselves is terror of their new authority relationship. Inevitably, they try to adapt it to the only "approaches" they know.

* * *

The young father will take toward his 3-year-old son the same half-teasing, half-joking, "pally" attitude he takes to friends of his own age. A young mother, used to explaining herself to her parents and office supervisor, will give a small daughter those reasoning "explanations" that are actually bids for the child's support.

No wonder these "approaches" fail. Missing from them is the element of leadership that distinguishes the adult-child relationship from other ones.

Young parents can have an awful time until this begins to dawn on them. They're used to their young friends' sympathy with all their problems. They're used to older people's advice on their decisions.

* * *

It comes as a shock to discover that their babies offer neither sympathy nor advice on any problem—and that if you want rubbers on a small son who doesn't want them on, the decision to put them on him is made alone without his approval, without his support.

* * *

Let me say this to young parents struggling with their new authority relationship: Don't underestimate the tremendous moral courage it takes to exert good authority over children. It takes time to discover that our lonely decisions of authority have expressed love for the child who couldn't make them for himself.

* * *

Let me add this: Little children only make us miserable when we fear to make their decisions for them. It's their way of saying, "Oh, please stop trying to make us your pals and parents—and let us be your babies."

Plaids Dominate Casual Clothes

The major use of plaids in the new relaxation clothes is in a clever garment, the shirt-jacket, and leisure shirts. The shirt jacket is made of soft wool shirting weight flannel and is cut on casual jacket lines. There is a generous notch collar, two upper and two lower patch pockets, and the sleeves fasten with storm tabs.

The informal cut, bright colors of the plaid pattern and pleasant warmth of the wool flannel make it ideal for such informal fun as a square dance, relaxation around a fire, or when the neighbors drop over to see a television "spectacular."

The new wool shirts for fall, in addition to being made of distinctive new plaid patterns, are cut with a new flair. The collars are cleaner in line and smaller and there are shallow vents at the side seams, permitting these square-bottonied shirts to be worn in or out.

The casual, or utility jacket has lost the styling that made people associate it with service uniforms or the lumberman's jacket. One such jacket has a simple flaring line from the shoulders to its hip length, with the shell in Black Watch wool plaid reversible to bright red cotton twill.

Coming Events

The executive board of Wisner School PTA will meet tonight at 7 p.m. in the school gym.

Cora M. Eves Tent-Hive 246 of the Maccabees will hold the annual Thanksgiving dinner Tuesday at 6:30 p.m. in the VFW Hall, 398 S. Saginaw St.

Pine Lake Cemetery Assn. will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green, 5401 Green Rd., Wednesday at 12:30 p.m. for a cooperative luncheon.

Ladies Auxiliary to Metropolitan Club Spirit 6 will meet with Mrs. John DeFauw, 905 Argyle Rd., Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Mother Allan and Buelah Holiness Prayer Bands will meet with Mrs. Frank Beals, 87 W. Tennyson Ave., Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Orange Social Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Florence Carter, 765 Cottage St., Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

Mother Allen Prayer Band will meet Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Carl Measell, 344 Whittemore St.

Westside Extension Club will meet Wednesday at 11 a.m. for a school girl luncheon at the home of Mrs. Don Milbourn on the State Hospital Grounds.

Brilliant jewel-tone silks in fashion harmonize with nature's own bright colors for the fall scene. For gala evenings, this subtly simple cocktail dress in ruby red chiffon taffeta was designed by John Moore of Talmack. The fabric has been intricately tucked for the sleeves and the top of the molded bodice. The full, gathered skirt falls from a small natural waistline.

Turks Know of Romance

Americans Gab Too Much

CHICAGO (INS) — Men don't harem girls in Turkey anymore, but it's still a land of romance.

* * *

So says Celal Inge, a handsome Turkish bachelor who is studying music during the day and singing at a top supper club in Chicago at night.

Inge (pronounced Inj-uh) comes from Istanbul where he has been an established star, singing American popular songs since 1950.

He credits these lyrics with bringing him to the United States because, he explains, "They taught me enough English to allow me to obtain a student's visa."

Inge is much impressed with how Americans look and dress. He said:

"I've never seen so many beautiful women and so many handsome men."

But what puzzles him is their reaction to each other. He said in an interview:

"In Turkey when a man and woman meet or go out together they pay attention to no one but each other. They don't talk much except with their eyes.

"Here a man and woman who like each other seldom look at one another. Either they are watching other people or they talk, talk, talk—about what they did during the day; who they saw and even what they ate at the last meal."

Inge said men in the U. S. "buy their wives everything money can buy." But, he added, "they forget that a woman needs something besides jewels, furs or a new car."

ROMANTIC APPROACH

The 32-year-old singer, who is billed as "Turkey's Frank Sinatra," said his own countrymen use a more romantic approach. He said:

"They always compliment a woman's looks, not the dress or hat she is wearing. Furthermore, they never ask her age.

"To a Turkish man in love, a woman is young, no matter what her real age is. And he always tells her she looks beautiful even if he knows that she is not. To him, a woman is like a flower. She needs compliments to keep blossoming, just like a plant needs water and sunshine."

And, said Inge, a Turkish man seldom goes to a woman empty-handed. He explained:

"He always brings her flowers, with the remark that she is more beautiful than they are and as a reminder of his affection."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Phipps of Center street announce the engagement of their daughter, Priscilla Ann, to Clifford Husereau. He is the son of Mrs. Bernadette Hall of Sudbury, Ont. A spring wedding is being planned.

"Smart gal, my Susie!"

▶ A lot of wives complain about housework, but not my Susie. She uses her head instead of her muscles. For example, some women spend a whole day just scrubbing and waxing wood floors. My Susie cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. It takes only half the time and a lot less work. Yet our beautiful wood floors are the envy of her friends. My hat's off to Susie and her Bruce Cleaning Wax for making a tough job so easy. And I can't help but feel proud of both of them.

Girl Runs Date Bureau for Steady's Buddy

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

"Dear Miss Woodward: I've been going with Bill for 15 months now, and everywhere we go Ted goes. Even if we stay home Ted is there. By the way, Ted is Bill's boy friend.

"If we want to go to the show we have to get a date for Ted, and I'm always elected to get the other girl. I never know whether he will like her or not, so I'm always nervous about that. And if I can't get Ted a date we just don't go anywhere.

"I've told Bill about it and he says they've always been friends and where one goes the other goes. It's about to throw me. I don't want to break up with Bill—but what else can I do?"

Answer: Ted has slipped into one of the laziest ruts known to man. It's so easy for him to sit back and have you rustle up his dates for him. He makes no effort, runs no risks—just takes your choice. And blithely keeps himself aloof from getting involved.

You've spoiled him considerably. You've let him get away with it for 15 long months. You're going to have to do some mighty teasing to break him of the habit.

'Cause it looks as though you're stuck with Ted, so long as you go with Bill. Those two are inseparable for the time being, no matter how you wish they weren't.

Bill won't heed your plea for solo dates with him. He needs Ted's company, stimulation and moral support. So you'll have to go about it another way.

Start teasing Ted. Announce that you and Bill will just have to get him fixed up permanently—this date bureau you've been running is about to go out of business.

Make an inventory of all the girl's you've produced as dates for him and list their ratings. See which one, if any, he liked best. Then, if she's not going with anyone special, enlist her help.

Have her on hand every time Ted comes over. Produce her for every date to go out. And encourage her to do her best to see Ted in between times.

Gradually she may cook up things for them to do alone without you and Bill. If she takes Ted off your hands, you'll have a vacation from running that date bureau.

"Dear Miss Woodward: My parents won't let me date unless it's double and with a girl they know. I have trouble getting a date for myself, let alone one for a girl friend. Have you any suggestions for me?"

Answer: Why not make friends with a girl who already has a boy friend? You wouldn't have the job of finding her a beau for the evening.

Make friends with her, bring her home so your family can know the girl — and the boy she goes with. And when you get a date which must be doubled, make it with her.

Guest Asks Who Takes First Plate

She Was Correct in Keeping the Dish for Herself

By EMILY POST

"Will you tell me about this situation and whether I did the right thing? The other evening at a dinner for eight, there were my husband and myself, two other men and their wives, and the host and hostess.

"I was seated at the right of the host. He carved and served the plates and he passed the first to me but did not tell me to keep it. But I did keep it. I wonder if I took too much for granted.

"I am not very well acquainted with these people—at least not with their serving habits—and I do not know whether his wife has herself served first or not. If she does, she certainly would have thought me rude.

"In other words, when a host does not ask a guest what she wants before he serves her, or does not tell her to keep the plate when he passes it to her, should she pass it on down and not keep it?"

Answer: Since you were seated on the right of the host, you were the proper one to be served first and therefore you were quite right.

However, if you are younger than another woman sitting beyond it would have been better then to ask the host, "Shall I pass this to Mrs. Jones?" He would then have said, "Yes" or "No, you keep it."

But when there is no other woman beyond you except the hostess, then correctly you would be right to keep the plate without any comment.

"Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter is going to a birthday party given by the family of her boy friend, for his brother. I would like to know whether she should take the brother a present. She has met him only twice and this is a family party."

Answer: While she is not obliged to take a present (not even if all the others do) she herself will probably feel happier with a package of something to hand him.

The "something" need be no more than a gadget of slight value. The important thing is to choose something his brother knows he likes.

Big Hailstones Shower Detroit

Baseball-Sized Pellets Dent Cars; Police Save Fog-Bound Hunters

DETROIT (AP) — King-sized hailstones were dumped on Detroit and Western Wayne County last night in a thunderstorm that rode into the area in the wake of spring-like temperatures.

* * *

Big as baseballs," witnesses reported.

The downpour, coupled with deafening thunderclaps terrified scores of householders. Rooftops were bombarded and autos dented by the freak hailstones.

No damage to window or store fronts were reported in the city. Dearborn Township police, however, reported damage at $8,000 in broken glass.

HUNTERS TALKED IN

The hailstorm lasted about four minutes.

The storm left drizzle and light fog in its wake.

Earlier, fog trapped five boatloads of duck hunters in the Detroit River. Suburban Ecorse policemen "talked" the hunters ashore using a loud speaker and red signal flashers.

The hunters, 15 men and five boys, were engulfed by the fast-forming fog near Grassy Island, a half mile from shore.

STRAGGLE IN

Broadcasting from a scout car equipped with a loudspeaker, police were able to make themselves heard by the hunters. The hunters rowed in the direction of the sound until they were close enough to shor to see the flashing red police light.

The boats straggled in one at a time. It took two hours work to bring them all safe ashore.

The hunters said they hadn't realized the density of the fog until the shoreline vanished in the dusk.

A 40-foot Coast Guard cutter was dispatced to the area but had to turn back in the fog.

He Wants to Fly Again

Sabre Jet Pilot Survives Supersonic Speed Jump

LOS ANGELES (AP)—That day 8½ months ago started ordinarily enough for George Smith. Before it was over he became—painfully—the first pilot to bail out of a plane traveling supersonically and live.

* * *

The whites of his eyes were left bloodshot solid red. He bled in all parts of his body as his parachute snapped open. It is estimated he was subjected to a decelerative force of 40 times the pull of gravity. The 40 G's increased Smith's weight from 215 pounds to the equivalent force of 8,000.

If he had bailed out just two seconds later—at the estimated 6,500 feet altitude—his parachute wouldn't have had time to open.

LIVER DAMAGED

And what does the 31-year-old North American Aviation Co. test pilot want to do next? Fly a plane 2,000 miles an hour.

He and the Air Force disclosed yesterday his historic jump from the super Sabre Jet last Feb. 26. The security classification secret had been removed after medical experts studied the case.

* * *

At 35,000 feet above the ocean, Smith said, the plane began to nose over. The control stick was jammed fast.

"I radioed the station my controls were locked, that I was going straight in," he told newsmen. "I shut off the engine, opened the speed brake, pulled my visor down over my eyes and yanked up the arm rest of the seat to automatically eject myself.

FISHED FROM SEA

"The last thing I remember was the meter in front of my face reading faster than sound. The next thing was waking up in the hospital five days later.

Smith was picked up by fishermen aboard a nearby cruiser. His shoes, socks, helmet and mask were gone. His clothes were in ribbons.

His arms had flailed so violently that his wrist watch, tightfitting gloves and a ring on his finger had shaken off. He was blind several days. Surgery was required on his intestine.

A more recent case of bailing out at supersonic speed was reported Saturday by the British war ministry in London. Flying Officer Henry Holland, 22, an RAF pilot, said his jet fighter went into a dive at 40,000 feet over the North sea and with his speed at 700 miles per hour he was unable to pull out. He said he parachuted at 10,000 feet and landed at sea four miles off the coast.

A target-towing tug rescued him. Attendants at Ipswich Hospital said he suffered fractures of the arm and pelvis and two black eyes.

You can vary a green salad by adding drained orange and grapefruit sections. Or, try grapefruit juice instead of vinegar in your favorite French dressing recipe.

Parrot Adopts Litter

MIAMI, Okla. (AP) — When the pointer dog belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Orville Watts, who live on a farm had six pups the family's 30-year-old parrot became an assiduous pup-sitter. Spending much of her time at the barn where the pups were kept, she nuzzled and talked to them constantly. "Whatsa matter?" she asked them when a bumbling, big-footed pup stepped on her or fell into her.

PENNY THE PIG

It's fun to save our pennies for something very special. And the best way to save them is to have a place to put them.

Little home banks are often called "piggy banks." Many of them are shaped like piggies, with slots on top to put the money through.

Here is a piggy bank you can make very easily. Find a small cardboard box that will fit between the sides of Penny the Pig. Fasten the box so it won't come open, then cut a slit in the top large enough to take a coin.

Paste this page on cereal box cardboard. Color it with crayons or poster paints. This is a Mexican piggy bank, and might be colored reddish tan to look like clay. Make the design various colors and make the grass piggy is standing on green.

Cut out the two halves. Paste one on each side of the box, being sure to have them exactly even so that Penny will stand level.

Fold the end tabs forward as an extra support. Drop coins in the box between the handles.

Health Officer to Check Water

Community Source Termed Unsafe by Dr. Joseph Gadbaw

FARMINGTON TOWNSHIP—Dr. Joseph J. Gadbaw, Township Health Officer, has requested that all shallow wells in the Farmington area be tested immediately, following the receipt of a letter from Judge Arthur E. Moore to the Farmington Township Board.

* * *

"It has come to my attention there may be some problem of a health menace involved," Judge Moore's letter said. "I would like to suggest that under Michigan statutes, township health officers should call on county and state health departments to check the safety of the water being used."

Dr. Gadbaw stated that there have been many reports in the area of polluted wells and requests all residents using shallow wells to have them tested now. Deep wells should be tested periodically. All shallow wells so far tested have proved unsafe, Dr. Gadbaw said.

Bottles to hold samples of water to be tested may be obtained at Dr. Gadbaw's office, 23611 Farmington Rd.

Dr. Gadbaw also stated that recent tests of the 80 feet deep community well on Flanders Street, which was cleaned and repaired by the Citizen's Water Committee less than a year ago, is no longer safe for drinking.

Russia Refuses U.N. Proposition

Soviet Demands Outer Mongolia Be Admitted to Communist Bloc

GENEVA (AP) — Russia has refused a 4 to 13 package deal on U.N. memberships, Western officials reported today.

V. M. Molotov is insisting that Outer Mongolia be included in Communist countries to be admitted to the world organization, making it a deal of five Soviet satellites for 13 Western-sponsored nations —18 in all, it was reported.

* * *

This would bring the U.N.'s roll to 78 members.

The Soviet position was reported to have been made clear in a two-hour talk yesterday between Molotov and U.S. Secretary Dulles.

The Western powers were reported divided on these lines:

1. The United States, Dulles told Molotov, is prepared to abstain from voting against the admittance of four Communist states—Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Albania. At first he strongly objected to including Albania, but finally gave way on that point.

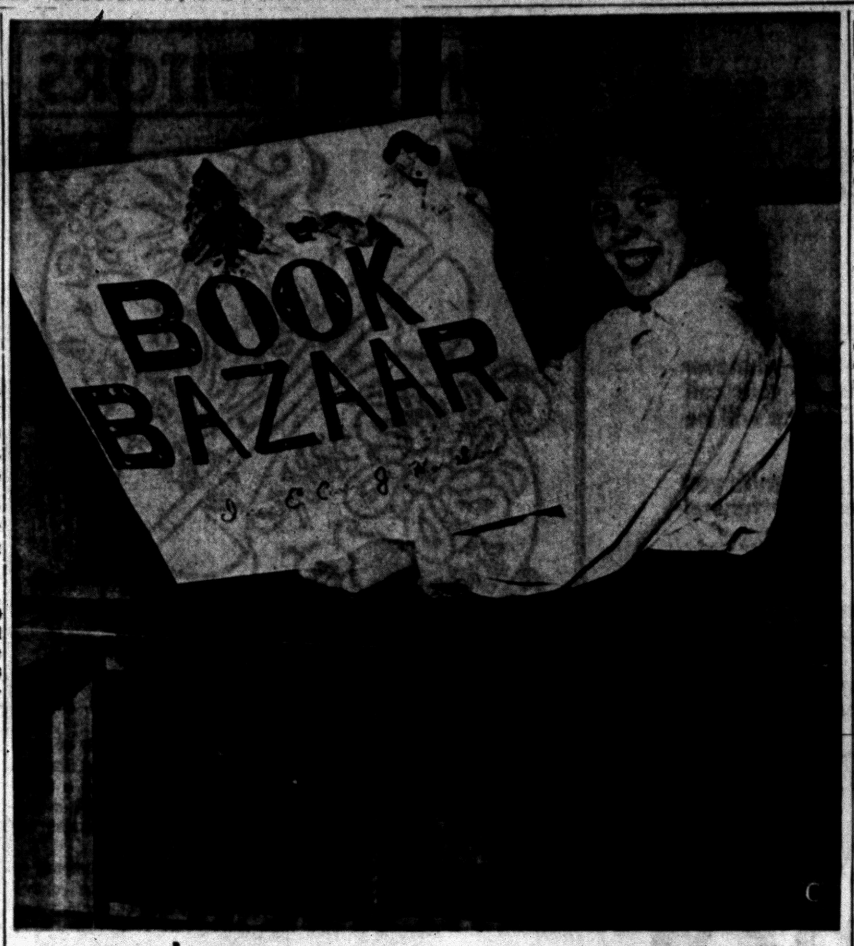

* * *

Speaking of Outer Mongolia, however, one American informant said "how can they expect us to accept as qualified for U.N. membership a country which doesn't seem to have an ambassador in Moscow?"

* * *

2. Britain is willing to accept all five of the Soviet candidates.

3. France considers the whole deal should be put on the shelf as long as the Algerian item is still on the U.N. General Assembly's agenda. She walked out of the Assembly when the item was voted onto the agenda.

Police Hold Father on Cruelty Charges

DETROIT (AP)—Police held for investigation of cruelty today a gasoline station attendant whose 9-year-old boy was burned seriously when left alone with three younger children in an upstairs flat.

Police said Robert L. McCoy, eldest son of Russell McCoy, 46, of Detroit, burned himself when papers with which he was playing brushed against an electric hot plate and ignited.

Robert ran downstairs and a neighbor extinguished the flames by rolling the boy in a blanket. The boy suffered third degree burns over more than half his body.

Police said the older McCoy left the children with no food except a package of dry noodles.

Their mother was visiting relatives in Mississippi, police said.

Announce New Way To Shrink Painful Piles

Science Finds Healing Substance That Does Both—Relieves Pain—Shrinks Hemorrhoids

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H.® Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H suppositories or Preparation H ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drugstores. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

IMPORTANT Medical Facts For Every Man Who Has Passed His 40th Birthday

Men, Too, Go Thru "Change of Life"

DOCTORS CALL IT "MALE CLIMACTERIC"

How Safe Discovery Compounded For Counteracting Effect on Body and Blood Changes Due To Usual Deficiencies That Often Occur During Middle Age.

Doctors, employers and scientists all agree that after the first 40 years, the human body undergoes important normal changes. This change occurs in MEN as well as WOMEN! Men, if you are over 40, in good health . . . but feel nervous, physically weak in legs, back and arms, can't sleep, find it difficult to make decisions . . . are quick-tempered, always tired and suffer from that terrible "what's the use" feeling . . . chances are you are going through "change of life," or as doctors call it, MALE CLIMACTERIC. And at this time it's more important than ever that your system isn't deficient in the very vitamins and minerals nature created to counteract and offset the distressing symptoms of these "after 40" body and blood changes. Amazing new power-packed capsules called AFTER 40 CAPSULES, have been created especially for men and women over forty . . . each hospital recognized ingredient carefully chosen and carefully compounded for its benefit on every man and woman . . . Yes, one potent AFTER 40 CAPSULE daily feeds your system a special and particular combination of Vitamins and Minerals to supply your blood, body organs, glands and nerves, including blood-building and Vitamin B-12, the vitamin Germ of Wheat E, stimulating B-1, Iron, Calcium, Phosphorous, Iodine and other potent Vitamins and Minerals. Don't be deprived of life's pleasures by these nutritional deficiencies when science has given you a second chance to recharge body and blood this new easy way.

Don't Surrender to Old Age Until You've Made This Test

WHAT IS CLIMACTERIC?
Medical dictionaries tell us "climacteric" is the time of life when the body undergoes a radical change. The first obvious, when boys become men and girls become women, is usually between the ages of 12-17—another change again comes usually between 40 and 50.

WHO DOES IT AFFECT?
Both men and women, in varying degrees, but this is usually referred to as "change of life" in men, "climacteric men" or "male climacteric."

WHAT ARE THE COMMON SYMPTOMS?
Because the body and blood are undergoing important normal changes during climacteric, the entire system may become upset and sympathetic nerves rebel. Often are easily irritable, feel weak in arms, legs and back and often are very nervous. Often there are "hot flashes" accompanied by that "what's the use" feeling. And very often a special supplementary source of certain vitamins and minerals is needed such as you find in this American discovery called AFTER 40 CAPSULES.

WHAT CAN BE DONE?
Medical science has discovered many medicines that can help you over the difficult "change of life" period. Today, try the new capsule called "AFTER 40" that supplies the body with an unusual combination of vitamins and minerals so often needed during this period. Full month's supply only $1.00 . . . to absolutely delighted with results or absurd, unquestioned refund.

"DON'T FEED THE A-BUG" — That's the slogan at the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co. of Canada's plant in Kimberley, British Columbia. And this is the A-Bug, the "A" standing for accident. It has three red plaster-of-Paris eyes, the third underneath the chin to warn of ground hazards. Saw-toothed upper lip represents stabbing and cutting dangers. Hooked lower lip reminds workers to beware of clothes-catching dangers. And a "helicopter" propeller on a pole sticks from its back, emphasizing that the accident bug lands easily anywhere. Body is made of plywood, neck of rubber hose and the whole works is wrapped in painted gunny sacking. At left is Frank Barraclough, the creature's creator.

Prime Minister Nehru 66 Today

India's Leader Greeted by School Children; Awaits Bulganin Visit

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru is 66 today. Fifty thousand New Delhi school children were marshaled to supply a birthday ovation to their "Uncle Nehru."

But that celebration will be overshadowed four days from now by the arrival of Soviet Prime Minister Bulganin and the elite of Russian leadership, on a three-week state visit.

At home an almost complete absence of political opposition attests to the power of Nehru's leadership as he enters his 67th year.

Indian Communists who once formed the most vocal of Nehru's opposition have been virtually silenced by strong Moscow support of the prime minister and his policies.

He remains almost a one man government, making all major decisions guilding this country's policies at home and abroad. He appears to thrive on it.

* * *

He still opens his day with yogi exercises, then leaps into a work schedule which frequently extends through 18 hours. When he tires, a visit to Indian crowds invariably serves as a tonic.

He still faces a host of unsolved problems: Improvement in living conditions for his people, education, growing unemployment resulting in part from a never-ending climb in population.

* * *

The lack of a political challenge to his leadership has been accompanied by a lack of aspiring candidates for the top job he holds.

If the lack of an apparent successor worries Nehru he keeps it hidden. Associates say he aims at at least 10 years more of active political life.

Adenauer, Pinay to Discuss Saar

Anti-Europeanization Vote Presents Problem of Cooperation

BONN, Germany (AP) — France and West Germany have agreed to seek a new solution for the Saar problem.

French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer announced in a joint communique yesterday they would tackle the problem in cooperation with the new Saar government to be elected Dec. 18.

They said the solution would be sought in the light of the referendum of Oct. 23 in which Saarlanders voted two to one against "Europeanization" of their rich borderland.

This anti-Europeanization vote is now accepted by the French as showing clearly that the Saarlanders want eventually to return to their German fatherland.

The French and German governments, in seeking a new solution, hope to eliminate the coal and steel basin as a cause of friction in their goal toward European unity.

Pinay had a three-hour talk with the 79-year-old Adenauer. It was the first major conference for the chancellor since he became ill on Oct. 7.

No hint of the probable nature of the new solution was given.

In the negotiations which led to the rearmament of West Germany in alliance with NATO, France and Germany agreed to "Europeanization" of the Saar. A commissioner appointed by seven West European allies was to be placed over the Saar which would have its own internal government. France would retain its economic hegemony over the area in lieu of World War II reparations, and to balance her coal and steel production against Germany's in the European coal and steel pool.

Jennifer Jones Selected for New Selznick Film

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — It isn't surprising that David Selznick is giving the strong emoting role of the heroine in Ernest Hemingway's "A Farewell to Arms" to Jennifer Jones. She's Mrs. S. in private life. But, seriously, even if she weren't, David couldn't find a better actress than Jennifer to follow Helen Hayes' original portryal of the herone of this love story.

* * *

I'm sure David isn't going to let any grass grow under his feet getting his first independently produced film started now that he's decided on his story.

Getting back to Jennifer, she's had a big year with "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing," and "Good Morning, Miss Dove" getting good reviews.

Now David, who gets the male lead—the part Gary Cooper made immortal in those scenes with Helen Hayes?

* * *

America at last gets Fernandel, the great French comic, and Betsy Blair (Mrs. Gene Kelly in private life) is the lucky lady who co-stars with him in "The Milkman's Mistress." Betsy returns from Europe where she's been making "Return to Paris," in time to start work in January.

FRENCHMAN STARS

Fernandel plays a dual role, both the milkman and Betsy's husband. He wrote the original story, and he is being brought here by French producer Gilbert DeRothschild. The French comedian's last picture, "The Sheep With Five Legs," has been a smash wherever its been shown—if we can understand each other in his bad English and my worse French.

Debbie Reynolds stayed just one day with her mother, who hasn't been well. Mrs. Reynolds told me she has looked and looked for houses for the newlyweds. Finally, one was located of which Debbie gave her approval. It's in the Pacific palisades, has four acres close to the Will Rogers ranch, and plenty of room for horses. She and Eddie will build later.

I missed Debbie who telephoned. Mrs. Reynolds, who has never been sick, told Debbie there was nothing seriously wrong, but Debbie had to see for herself. She and Eddie will be back here possibly sooner than December 1.

Elizabeth Taylor changed her mind at the last minute and planed out for London last night via TWA with Mike Wilding. Liz is feeling much better and now that Mike's father is living at their house, he'll keep an eye on the children.

Mike, as I told you last week, goes to London where he'll catch up with Victor Mature, the star, and then the whole "Zarak Khan" company takes off for a long location in Spanish Morocco.

* * *

But before that, the Wildings will take a hurried two days and be Ava Gardner's first houseguests in her home outside Madrid.

HOPE'S TV FINALE

Tuesday night is Bob Hope's last television show before he takes off for London. He leaves Dec. 1 to co-star with Katharine Hepburn in "Not For the Money."

Bob, who can be very persuasive, talked his way into getting "Sorrowful Jones" from Paramount for his first TV show on his return. That's scheduled for next March, because Bob not only has his picture with Hepburn in London but several TV shows to do in Europe as well.

He was lunching with Harry Richman a few days ago, which led to the rumor that he was considering Richman's life story. But right now he is so backed up with plans that anything other than the Hepburn picture and his TV show is merely speculative.

Snaps: Michael Rennie read that he had taken Zsa Zsa Gabor out, so it gave him an idea and he called her for a date at Ciro's.

* * *

* * *

Tuesday, according to a letter Adlai Stevenson wrote Mrs. Leo Spitz, he'll announce whether he plans to run on the Democratic ticket. He wrote her in answer to her complimentary letter.

That's all today. See you tomorrow.

UAW Suggests Ford Give Stock as Yule Gifts

DETROIT (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers' big Ford local says its members would be happy to accept Ford stock as a Christmas bonus, if it was offered by the the company.

* * *

The local's 190-member general council adopted a motion yesterday suggesting local officers relay the information to the company.

"This is not a case of begging," said Carl Stellato, local president.

"In keeping with the spirit of Christmas, our local union, as an employer, gives gifts to our girl office employes. Many companies give bonuses. This is a case of suggesting that they (Ford) put in practice the idea that we're one big team at Ford's," Stellato said.

NONE WOULD REFUSE

"If they want to give us a share of stock instead of a bonus, I'm sure no one will refuse it," he added.

The suggestion had nothing to do with the local's request last week that production workers be allowed to buy Ford stock at half price when it goes on the market.

The company offered such a plan in new contract negotiations last June but it was turned down by the international UAW in favor of a layoff pay plan.

Hemingway Has 3 Books Now Waiting 'in Bank'

By EARL WILSON

HAVANA—The Ernest Hemingway news is: "Papa is feeling good—and writing good—and about to put another book in the the bank."

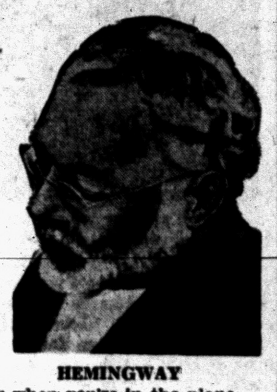

His wife Mary Welsh (Miss Mary" to him) dispelled scary rumors about his health when I visited their farm at San Francisco de Paula. Then he took me to "dinner in town"—a perilous adventure to people lacking his vitality.

"I haven't been off the reservation in a week," he said restlessly, his beard looking picturesque.

"Sure, when you're 56, had your back broken, and skull fractured, and kidneys and bladder smashed, you're not your best—but I'm fine. I finished page 667 today. By February maybe I'll have her done and in the bank."

"In the bank?" I asked.

"I've got three unpublished ones in the bank. This'll be the fourth. I put 'em away and let 'em ripen."

HEMINGWAY

He can always take a book out and cash it. It's Hemingway-type insurance. He hunts wars, sleeps with a gun near his bed and battles half-ton fish —so he'll never be an insurance company pet.

"I was sorry we got people so spooked about our two crashes in Africa," he said. "'Miss Mary' had never seen a plane burn up before. That's a very impressive sight—especially when you're in the plane.

He remembered an English doctor pouring some gin into the crack in his skull and saying, "Laddie, gin is as good for you on the outside as it is on the inside."

About March 1—probably after a trip to Europe—he'll fish off South America for the giant marlin for "The Old Man and The Sea" movie.

"This has to be the fish to end all fish," he said. I asked how big. "Fifteen hundred to 2,000 pounds," he answered.

When we drove into Havana he waved happily to farmers and tradespeople. A man I thought to be a beggar came up. I gave him a quarter. Hemingway thrust it back and gave him a bill.

Inside, I commented how kindly he gave autographs.

Wine Theft in 1576 Means Profits Now

JEREZ DE LA FRONTERA, Spain — One of the earliest highjackers was Sir Francis Drake, who in 1576 raided a fleet of Spanish merchant ships and made off with 2,900 barrels of fine sherry. This nearly bankrupted the wine growers of Jerez, birthplace of the wine.

But it turned out that Sir Francis actually helped the wine growers to prosperity. The sherry he stole and took home won such popularity that England has been a leading buyer of the wine ever since.

Necessities Cost More

WASHINGTON — The American people spent a record 148 billion dollars for food, clothing, and shelter in 1954, about 80 per cent above the total 10 years before and nearly three times that spent for such purposes in 1929.

Seek Way to Thwart Gulls Off Runways

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Got any surefire ideas for keeping seagulls away from airport runways? If you have, the Air Force would be glad to listen.

A primary cause of a recent accident at Logan Airport, Boston, the Air Force had decided, was an airplane-seagull collision.

Finding that the Royal Air Force of Great Britain uses mothballs scattered on runways to drive off the pesky gulls, the U.S. Air Force is considering adopting the same method.

But surely, the Air Force says, there must be a better way.

ITCH (Scabies) is highly contagious and will continue for life if not stopped. Its sole cause is the itch-mite which is immune to ordinary treatment. EXSORA kills the itch-mite almost instantly. Only three days' EXSORA treatment is required.

OSU's Win Leaves MSU, UM Rose Bowl Prospects

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State and Michigan will be battling for the Big Ten title Saturday at Ann Arbor with Michigan State the most interested bystander.

Michigan State will be playing Marquette in a non-conference game and nobody will blame the Spartans if they do a lot of wishing for an Ohio State victory.

If Ohio State wins, the Buckeyes take the title but Michigan State goes to the Rose Bowl.

If Michigan wins, the Wolverines take the title and the trip.

The situation was clarified Saturday with Ohio State beating Iowa, 20-10; Michigan downing Indiana, 30-0, and Michigan State rolling over Minnesota 42-14.

This gave Ohio State a 5-0 conference record, and left Michigan and Michigan State 5-1 marks. Of the three, only Michigan plays a seven-game schedule which, considering Michigan's one loss, is a blessing. OSU is ineligible for the bowl bid, having appeared last New Year's day.

Illinois moved into position for a 1st divsion finish by edging Wisconsin, 17-14, and Purdue blasted hapless Northwestern, 46-8. The triumph put the Boilermakers in 4th place with a 3-2-1 record and Illinois pulled into a 5th place tie with Wisconsin, each splitting even in six games.

Illinois is at Northwestern Saturday and Wisconsin plays Minnesota. Purdue is at Indiana in the battle for the old oaken bucket and Iowa and Notre Dame meet in a traditional game.

That'll end the 1955 season for all except the Rose Bowl representative.

Should Michigan State make the trip, it'll be only the 2nd time since the Big Ten-Pacific Coast Rose Bowl pact that a 2nd place Big Ten team will be playing in the bowl.

Northwestern finished 2nd in 1948 and defeated California, 20-14.

Dodgers Get 2 on All-Stars

NEW YORK (AP)—Ted Kluszewski Willie Mays and Duke Snider were the only repeaters on the 1955 major league all-star team selected for the Associated Press by members of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Only club with more than one representative was the world champion Brooklyn Dodgers. In addition to Snider, Roy Campanella was voted the top catcher, nosing out the Yankees' Yogi Berra. Of the players named, seven are National Leaguers.

Ted Williams, absent several years because of injuries and service duty since the AP roll originated in 1946 completed the stellar outfield with Mays and Snider.

The infield, besides Kluszewski at first, included Nellie Fox at second, Eddie Mathews at third and Ernie Banks at shortstop. Two pitchers were chosen. Robin Roberts won the righthanded honors by a landslide vote and Whitey Ford beat out Billy Pierce for lefthanded honors.

Right field—Duke Snider, Brooklyn Dodgers (.309).

Catcher — Roy Campanella, Brooklyn Dodgers (.318).

The powerful squad, led by Williams' .356 batting average and Mays' 51 home runs, boasts six players hitting over .300, five sluggers with 40 or more homers and six with more than 100 runs batted in.

A tipoff on the strength of the squad is that the two batting champions, Al Kaline of Detroit and Richie Ashburn of Philadelphia, failed to make the squad as did Mickey Mantle, the American League home run king.

Roberts received the most votes, bagging 92 of the 99 votes cast, to easily outdistance four righthanded pitching rivals.

Ford, whose 18 victories were tops among lefthanders, received 55 votes to 37 for Pierce.

TOUCHDOWN — Dave Hill, University of Michigan's fullback, just tramps over a piled-up mass of football players to make the final TD in Saturday's game at Ann Arbor against Indiana. The action was in the 3rd period of the 30-0 win for the Wolverines. Other players are unidentified.

Aggies' Surge No Surprise to Bear Bryant

Turkey Day Contest Probably Decide SW Title for Texas A & M

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — The Texas Aggies, who were picked to finish last in the Southwest Conference football race, are expected to win the championship Thanksgiving Day. It's no surprise to Coach Paul Bryant, however.

"This stuff about A&M being a year ahead of time puzzles me," said the Aggie coach." Why, we're a year late. I expected to win it last year."

* * *

Bryant came to A&M last season from Kentucky under a six-year contract charged with the responsibility of rebuilding Aggie football fortunes. A&M hasn't won a conference championship since 1941.

Last season the Aggies gave all but wound up without a victory.

But A&M virtually sewed up the title Saturday when it beat Rice 20-12 with one of the greatest come-from-behind surges in conference history.

A&M scored three touchdowns in the final three minutes. Twenty points in 129 seconds, is the way the Aggies put it. Lloyd Taylor, who made the first two touchdowns, got 14 points in 46 seconds. He kicked the extra points, too.

Everybody around here still was a little dazed today. They just never had seen anything like that before.

Cassady Wraps Up Point Title

Spartans' Planutis Followed in Line by Ron Kramer

CHICAGO (AP)—All-America Halfback Howard Cassady of Ohio State all but wrapped up the Big Ten scoring title with his three-touchdown outburst against Iowa Saturday.

The scores gave Cassady a total of 14 touchdowns for the season and 84 points, putting the red-haired Buckeye 41 points ahead of Jerry Planutis of Michigan State.

Tied for 3rd place were Ron Kramer of Michigan and Charles Thomas of Wisconsin with 36 points each.

Six other players were tied for 5th place with 30 points each.

Courageous Horse Comes Back to Win

YONKERS, N. Y.—Few, if any, harness horses have experienced the ailments that Gene Mac has suffered and recovered as he has, not only to race but to compete with the top free-for-all trotters.

All four legs, plus a shoulder, have been the subject of medical treatment for a good part of the last three years. But Pat Tuccio's seven-year-old black gelding has come out of it sound enough to win seven of 20 races and more than $50,000 this year and twice that in his lifetime.

State Finishes Big 10 Season With 42-14 Win

Three Signal Callers Among the 45 Men Used Against Minnesota

EAST LANSING (AP) — Michigan State has to play its toughest game of the football season this week—a game of watchful waiting.

Spartans wound up their part of the Western Conference program Saturday by bombing Minnesota with six touchdowns and a 42-14 defeat.

Non-conference opponent Marquette will close out the season at Macklin Stadium, a mis-match that figures to be a Michigan State runaway.

State and Michigan are tied now as the Pasadena prospects with 5-1 conference records, since Big Ten leader Ohio State can't repeat.

So Michigan State will have to sweat out its Rose Bowl hopes until the final word comes from Ann Arbor on whether Ohio State is able to do a hatchet job on Michigan.

The show the Spartans put on against Minnesota was one of those games where you couldn't tell the performers without a program.

A half dozen players shared in the Michigan State scoring, three quarterbacks took turns running the versatile, multiple offense and coach Duffy Daugherty used 45 men before the afternoon was over.

It only looked like a contest in the 1st quarter when Minnesota countered to tie things 7-7 after Michigan State scored first, thanks to a punt blocked by fullback Jerry Planutis. End Dave Kaiser scooped up the loose ball and ran it in nine yards for the opening touchdown.

The MSU lead was 23-7 by the half, quarterback Earl Morral and halfback Walt Kowalcyzk pushed the last few yards to score after long drives and a two-point safety added up to the odd figures.

Stage poured on three touchdowns in a busy third period. Among those scoring were Pat Wilson, on a one yard sneak; Tony Kolodziej, with a 13-yard end run, and Jim Hinesly, on an end zone pass from sophomore quarterback Jim Ninowski.

Reserve halfback Dennis Mendyk contributed the longest run of return to the Minnesota goal line, but his effort was called back by a penalty.

OUT-OF-BOUNDS — Michigan State end Dave Kaiser heads towards the Gopher goal line after catching a nine-yard pass from Spartan quarterback Earl Morrall. Kaiser was tackled on the six-yard line for a 23-yard gain. Spartans crushed the Gophers, 42-14.

Michigan, MSU Still Near Top

NEW YORK (INS)—Here are the country's top ten college football teams, with won-lost records in parenthesis, as voted this week by the International News Service panel of experts:

1—Oklahoma (8-0)
2—Maryland (9-0)
3—Michigan (7-1)
4—Michigan State (7-1)
5—UCLA (8-1)
6—Notre Dame (7-1)
7—Texas A & M (7-1-1)
8—Texas Christian (7-1)
9—Navy (7-1-1)
10—Georgia Tech (7-1-1)

Wings Finally Flutter Out of NHL Cellar

Scoreless Tie With Bruins Puts Detroit Ahead of Leafs

BOSTON (AP)—The Detroit Red Wings finally have made it out of the National Hockey League cellar.

They climbed out on a 0-0 tie with the Boston Bruins last night, while the New York Rangers were whipping the Toronto Maple Leafs 4-1. With 3 victories, 7 losses and 7 ties, the Red Wings now have 13 points, compared with Toronto's 12 on a 5-10-2 record.

The Red Wings, winners of seven straight NHL championships started the 1955 season miserably and have been mired deep since the 1st puck was faced off.

Despite the 0-0 deadlock, last night's game had almost everything but a score. Red Wing goalie Glenn Hall had a penalty called against him and Detroit's captain Ted Lindsay had a double misconduct penalty slapped on him.

Hall's penalty was meted because he held Leo Boivin's shot more than three seconds, Lindsay and Red Kelly charged referee Frank Udvari and put up such a squawk Lindsay was handed a 10-minute misconduct and then a game misconduct worth $75 in automatic fines.

It was the 2nd meeting between goalies Terry Sawchuk, traded to the Bruins by Detroit in the off-season, and Hall, called up from the Detroit farm system, and the 2nd scoreless tie between their teams. In their only other meeting at Detroit Oct. 22, neither scored.

Sawchuck held a slight edge last night, registering 31 saves to 29 for Hall.

A's Farm Team Plus Expenses Offered Free

Any Person, Group Can Have Red Roses Outfit of Piedmont Loop

LANCASTER, Pa. (INS — The Kansas City Athletics have offered to give their franchise on the Lancaster Red Roses free of charge to any local person or group willing to assume the expenses of operating the Piedmont League club.

The plan, made in conjunction with a radical change of policy by Kansas City which reportedly will apply to all its minor league clubs, was revealed in a letter received by Lancaster business manager Frank Spair from Henry Peters, Kansas City farm director.

Under the proposal, the new owners would assume operating expenses, pay player salaries, provide equipment and pay the rental on the home stadium. The local interest would keep the season's gate receipts.

In return, Kansas City would furnish full-time working agreement to supply all local players with a promise to send its best Class B players to Lancaster.

In addition, the parent club would pay the new owner the amount of money that baseball regulations require a major league team to pay in the working agreement.

Dartmouth Coaches Check Grid Scores

Head Coach Bob Blackman and Jack Musick of Southern California ask for Pacific coast results. Wilmer Volz played for Missouri. Elmer Lampe, who played for Chicago, is interested in the Big Ten. Earl Hamilton played for Wichita, Doggie Julian at Bucknell and Ray Truncellito wore Dartmouth livery.

Reunion of Karras Boys Not Sociable

IOWA CITY — When Iowa defeated Indiana, 20-6, the contest marked an unsociable reunion of the Karras family.

Default of Back Taxes

'Uncle Sam' Ready to Sell Richmond to Top Bidder in Unprecedented Step

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—The never-dull sage of Richmond and International League baseball reached another stirring climax today. In a move unprecedented in baseball history, the government made ready to sell the ball club to the highest bidder in default of payment of back taxes.

* * *

In keeping with the uncertainty that has surrounded the Virginians ever since they entered the triple-A league in 1954, nobody was quite sure this morning whether the auction ever would come off.

The tax lien was $79,218.68 and if Richmond owner Harry Seibold could plunk down the money before 2 p.m., EST, there would be no sale.

* * *

Seibold, though, had given no indication he had raised the necessary cash. As a result, the best guess appeared to be that the high bidders would be a syndicate of six wealthy Richmond business men who said they had the money in the bank to buy the team.

On the auction block were the team's International League franchise, the contracts of 20 players, and all other assets of the club—including such items as a whirlpool bath, a pitching machine and a big electric scoreboard. Tax Collector C. W. Glotzbach said they'd be sold as a "package."

* * *

Should Seibold make the tax payment before the time set for the sale, he would keep the club but still would face additional claims totaling more than $31,000. One of these is for $16,000 which he allegedly owes in back rent for Parker Field, home base of the Virginians.

The six-man syndicate, which included aluminum magnate Richard S. Reynolds Jr., has announced it would assume all obligations of the team if it submitted the high bid and gained ownership.

* *

Richmond's two-year tenure in the International has been fraught with peril nearly every month of the way. In 1954, when the Virginians finished seventh, Seibold indicated unless attendance (232,000) picked up, he might move the franchise elsewhere. He didn't though, and this year attendance fell below 200,000 as the team finished last.

Football Hero

Fan Who Braved Snow, Cold Deserves Refund

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—They sold only one grandstand ticket at the gate Saturday and if that frosted fan ever thaws out and come forward, he may join the football immortals at Washington State College.

* * *

"I'll write him a letter of commendation and refund his $3 if we find him," said Bob Smawley, the WSC ticket manager.

"A fan like that should have his picture up with other football heroes," said Don Faris, the athletic news director.

Whoever he was, he joined the frozen little family of 424 other paying customers who bought reserved tickets in advance and showed up in the 22,000-seat stadium to see WSC tie San Jose State of California 13-13 in snow and record cold.

* * *

It was 5 above zero, the coldest Nov. 12 in 75 years of Weather Bureau history. The slide trombones froze up in the band, the press box coffee turned to slush and there was ice in the water buckets on the field.

Four out of five WSC students on the campus wouldn't even walk across the street to the stadium to see the game. The 1,000 or so who did, sat huddled together, cheered quit a bit, sang "jingle bells" and tossed snowballs at the half.

* * *

The 100-piece WSC band was only at half strength for the national anthem, one of the first and last selections of the day. The woodwinds had been told to stay home; the brass froze up before the half.

Braves and Mentor See Michigan Win

Coach Em Ghianni accompanied his young gridders, who are unbeaten in their last 19 games over a span of four seasons. Ralph Allen and eight other adults were also in the party, which numbered 52. Michigan won, 30-0.

Pitt Concedes Point With Goal Posts Gone; Army-Navy Set for Clash After Shutout Wins

Exuberant fans at the Pitt-West Virginia game in Pittsburgh poured out on the field and ran off with the goal posts before the end of the game. . . . So when West Virginia scored its lone TD with no time left on the clock, there were no uprights at which to shoot for the extra point . . . Officials went into a harried huddle. . . . Finally, Pitt, already 26 points ahead, said, "Aw, go ahead and take the point" and the situation eased. . . . But what would have happened if the score had been 6-0 or 7-0 and the game hinged on the point. . . . One official said Pitt would have had to concede it anyhow since Pitt, as host team, was responsible for the crowd and field. . . . Other suggestions were that the posts would have to be rebuilt or that the teams would have to retire to another field to make the try. . . . "Never saw anything like it," said Admiral Tom Hamilton, Pitt athletic director. "The nearest to it I've seen was in the Army-Navy game at Philadelphia in 1946 when the crowd ringed the field so tightly Navy couldn't run the ball out of bounds and stop the clock in the final seconds". . . . Army won 21-18.

Army and Navy, pointing for their service clash at Philadelphia Nov. 26, must have been trying to outdo each other against impotent Ivy League rivals. . . . It was Navy 47-0 over Columbia, Army 40-0 over Penn. . . . Navy's George Welsh set an Annapolis passing record when he completed 11 of 16 for 176 yards, making a total of 1,143 air yards for the year. . . . It wiped out the old mark set by Navy's Bob Zastrow in 1950. . . . But Texas Christian's Jim Swink apparently feels the ground offers the shortest distance between two points. . . . The TCU ace had four touchdown runs of 62, 57, 34 and a single yard to smash Texas 47-20. . . . He had a total of 235 yards. . . . Not far behind was Ohio State's Howard (Hopalong) Cassady, who ran up 169 yards against Iowa, just two less than the entire Iowa team. . . .

He was able to finish his home gridiron career just as he had started it three years before as a freshman—with three touchdowns.

* * *

Football is not a game for the timid or the weak-hearted. . . . UCLA's passing star, Ronnie Knox, suffered a broken leg against Washington. . . . West Virginia's ball-handling Houdini, Fredy Wyant, was sent to the sidelines with a leg ailment in the bone-rattling Pitt game along with the two first-line Mountaineer guards, Chuck Howley and Gene Lathey. . . . Pitt's quarterback Pete Neft got his nose cracked but the trainer snapped it back in place and he kept playing. . . . But with all this savagery there is room for sentiment. . . . Kentucky's little Centre College completed a perfect season by beating Washington & Jefferson 40-7. . . . This recalled the days of Charley Moran, the old baseball umpire who was coach and Bob McMillen, who was a player, on the famous Praying Colonels who beat Harvard back in the Jazz Age. . . . The last Centre perfect season was 1921.

U M Ready for Bucks in Big 10, Bowl Battle

ANN ARBOR — University of Michigan's revitalized football team Saturday afternoon, in the big Wolverine stadium, demonstrated it was ready for the big, final round in the battle for the Big Ten title and a trip to the Rose Bowl come New Year's day.

Now the Maize and Blue is ready and willing to go against the unbeaten Buckeyes this weekend at Ann Arbor. The victory was a magnificent salve for the hurts incurred at Champaign, against Illinois.

Victory will give Michigan the Big Ten title. It probably will also send the Rose Bowl invitation to the Wolverines.

* * *

On the other hand, if the Bucks are victors, they will grab the title and Michigan State would get the coast trip bid.

If Michigan can play the kind of football that subdued Indiana, it should have no worries with Ohio State. Hoosiers were barely in the game.

Indiana had lost to Ohio State and Michigan State by one touchdown margins. But against Michigan they were completely inept. The Wolverines put on the season's strongest defensive show.

The Hoosiers never crossed midfield under their own power. When they finally did pass the 50, it was with the aid of a penalty in the final two minutes and they stalled immediately.

Their longest drive was stymied on their own 40.

Hoosier quarterback, Eugene (Chick) Cichowski was the Big Ten's leading passer with a .608 completion average. He threw six passes against Michigan and completed only one.

Cichowski called his own signal 21 of 29 times in the 1st half and the Hoosiers ended up with a minus 18 yards at intermission. Over the whole game they gained only 61 yards, 32 rushing and 29 passing.

Michigan's Terry Barr returned the opening kickoff 25 yards. Then the Wolverines, sparked by Tony Branoff's 41-yard sprint, powered 69 yards in eight plays with Barr scoring from the three.

* * *

In the 2nd half, Indiana gambled for one yard on 4th down and failed, ending their longest drive of the day and giving Michigan the ball on the Hoosier 40. Eight plays later Lou Baldacci cracked one yard for the Michigan touchdown.

Minutes later, Michigan, powered by Baldacci's 23-yard run, moved 59 yards in eight plays with Dave Hill scoring from the two.

Besides these successful drives, Michigan drove to the Indiana 14, 13 and 3, only to be stopped by fumbles and intercepted pass. Michigan totaled 373 yards, only 71 of them in the air.

Browns Are Human Too; Eagles Dump Them, 33-17

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the National Football League season two-thirds over, the Cleveland Browns have finally showed that they're human after all. They have a weakness, too. They can't protect a 17-0 ead.

Cleveland, boasting a proud record of nine conference titles in nine years, seemed headed for its seventh consecutive victory yesterday when Otto Graham and his mates ran up 17 points in the first 12 minutes against Philadelphia.

* * *

But the Eagles pre-season choices to win the Eastern Conference title, suddenly lived up to their advance billing. The Philadelphia line stoppped the Browns cold and Adrian Burk set the pace as the Eagles' offensive unit ran up 33 points. This sudden form reversal, coupled with Washington' 7-0 victory over San Francisco in a bruising defensive battle, left Cleveland only a game ahead with a 6-2 mark to Washington's 5-3.

* * *

The Western Conference, meanwhile, was thrown into a deadlock as the Chicago Bears mauled Los Angeles 24-3 to pull even with the Pacific Coast entry at 5 wins and 3 losses. It could have been a three-way tie, too, if the Baltimore Colts had not been upset by New York 17-7. Because of the loss, the Colts now find themselves tied for third instead of first, for Green Bay also boasted a 4-4 record after clouting the Chicago Cardinals 31-14 behind Tobin Rote's three touchdown passes.

The rejuvenated Detroit Lions, who stunned their loyal fans by dropping their first six games, won their second in succession, a 31-28 victory over Pittsburgh.

Braves Ready to Move Farm

Miami Is Considered as Home for Floating Toledo Franchise

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves' "floating" Toledo franchise may come to earth in Miami next spring and result in a realignment of the International League and the American Assn.

"There's a good possibility we will operate in Miami next spring," Joseph F. Cairnes, the Braves' executive vice president, disclosed last night.

* * *

Cairnes, whose recent quest for a home for Toledo on the West Coast ended on a sour note, dropped the surprise announcement about Miami at a club press party.

Cairnes said he planned to fly down to Florida Tuesday and consult with city officials about locating the Braves' American Assn. farm club there.

* * *

He said he expected to know one way or the other within a week, but that the deal looked promising.

If the Toledo franchise is shifted to Miami, Cairnes said, there might be an exchange of franchises between the International League and the American Assn. to cut down distances between member cities in the two triple-A loops.

Horse Travels Reverse Route, Takes 2nd Trip

* * *

Three — Roamer, Virile and Spearhead—were named for the Belmont Park Autumn Weight-for-Age Handicap in September of 1914. The last two named were scratched and under the rules, Roamer had to be mounted under his correct weight and, with colors and number displayed, gallop around the course to collect the purse.

* * *

Roamer's jockey, Butwell, who long has been associated wtih race track staffs, took his mount over the strip, only to be ordered around once more.

Butwell had gone the wrong way —counterclockwise on the then clockwise Belmont Park track.

Gonzales Retains Hardcourt Crown

* * *

He retained the title yesterday by finally turning back Francisco (Pancho) Segura of Ecuador, 21-19, 6-3, 6-4, in the final round of the national championships.

* * *

The match lasted the entire afternoon and the 1st set took an hour and 40 minutes to play. There were only three service breaks in the 40 games of the first set. Gonzales finally broke through in the last game to take the set.

Swink Compared to Doak Walker by TCU Coach

FORT WORTH — Jim Swink of Texas Christian is being compared with the great Doak Walker, who went from Southern Methodist to the Detroit Lions.

"I can't recall a back who was such a carbon copy of Walker," says Dutch Meyer, the long-time Horned Frog coach who is now athletic director. "Swink is the same type of runner, having the knack of finding small holes which break him loose in the secondary. Like Walker, Swink is not exceptionally fast, but both can go all the way when they see daylight."

NY Wins 4-1; Fail to Gain

Canadiens Hold Lead, Blank Hawks to Stay 5 Points in Front

By THE ASOCIATED PRESS

New York's forward line of Larry Popein, Dean Prentice and Andy Bathgate, used largely as a defensive unit last season, is proving to be a prolific offensive trio this year. But good as they are, the Rangers can't seem to gain any ground on the pace-setting Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League.

* * *

While the Rangers were turning back the injury-riddled Toronto Maple Leafs last night, 4-1, with the line of Popein, Prentice and Bathgate producing three of the goals, the Canadiens defeated the Chicago Black Hawks 2-0 to remain 5 points in front.

The Boston Bruins lost a chance to keep pace with the Rangers when they had to settle for a scoreless tie with the Detroit Red Wings. The tie, however, lifted the Wings out of last place. They were replaced by Toronto.

Orange Bowl Only Positive Post-Season Card

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Out of the welter of confusion that made up the college football picture today there emerged one solid fact—the Orange Bowl is going to present the four-star, gilt-edged attraction on Jan. 2, Oklahoma vs. Maryland.

The picture still is clouded in the other three major bowls with perhaps a dozen assorted teams still in the running for berths. If they all demanded undefeated teams, they wouldn't operate because Oklahoma and Maryland are the only major clubs in the country that haven't been whipped.

ROSE — UCLA has the inside track, but Oregon State also has a chance as the Pacific Coast Conference representative. Michigan can get the Big 10 nod if it defeats Ohio State Saturday. If Ohio State wins, then Michigan State will make the trip to Pasadena.

SUGAR—All is confusion, following Pitt's 26-7 victory over a West Virginia team that had won 11 games in a row over a two-year span. The Southeastern Conference winner usually is the host team, buy any of five schools still can take the league title.

COTTON — Texas Christian, which by the form chart, should wind up operations as runner-up to Texas A&M in the Southwest Conference, should be nominated host. Officials say Navy, Auburn, Georgia Tech and Mississippi all are in the running for the visiting bid.

If things work out as the Tournament of Roses officials hope, the Rose Bowl should put on a good attraction. UCLA must get past Southern California this week to clinch the Pacific Coast Conference title, and do it without Ronnie Knox who suffered a broken leg in last Saturday's 19-17 squeaker over Washington.

If Southern Cal wins, however, and Oregon State, the surprise team in the league, beats Oregon, there will be fireworks for sure. That woud leave Oregon State with a 6-1 record and UCLA with 5-1. State would have a talking point, although its 38-0 early-season pasting at the hands of UCLA would count against it.

As for the Sugar Bowl, two scouts from New Orleans were in the stands when Pitt clubbed the Mountaineers 26-7. They were all set to get out their pens and sign up Pappy Lewis and his team. Now, they say, they'll have to take a wait-and-see attitude. They spent quite a while in the Pitt dressing room after the game.

Actually, the fact that West Virginia was beaten does not eliminate it from consideration, and if it makes a good showing against Syracuse Saturday, it will be right back in contention. If the Mountaineers lose to Syracuse, though, critics of their schedule will have "I told you so" gleams in their eyes. The Mountaineers haven't had many tough foes.

As if the sudden turn of events in the Pitt-West Virginia game were not enough, the Sugar Bowl folks still must look around for a host team. They usually take the Southeastern Conference winner and there still are five teams—Mississippi, Auburn, Georgia Tech, Tennessee and Vanderbilt—in the running.

The Cotton Bowl is going to have to take the second-best in the Southwest Conference as its host team. Texas A&M, which is on probation, can look up the title by burying floundering Texas Thanksgiving Day. The Aggies are prohibited from playing post-season games this year for violating recruiting practices.

Therefore, Texas Christian, if it gets by oft-beaten Rice this week, will clinch second place and the bid.

* * *

The way thinking runs as of today—subject to sudden change—Auburn seems to have the best chance of heading for Dallas Jan. 2. The Plainsmen are bowl-minded, have had a good season, and should draw.

Bears' 24-3 Win Over LA Was 'Must' Says Halas

CHICAGO (AP)—"This is when it gets real tough," said owner-coach George Halas after his Chicago Bears had romped to a 24-3 victory over Los Angeles to move into a first-place tie with the Rams.

"This was the 'must' game," Hallas said, "but from now on they're going to get tougher."

* * *

"It's hard to believe," said the happy Halas before changing his tune and looking ahead. "The schedule is against us. We play Detroit twice and it's just our luck to catch them when they're on the upgrade."

After viewing the Bears' last two triumphs, it doesn't seem that Halas has too much to worry about. Last week the Bears ruined Green Bay, 52-31, after piling up a 45-3 lead.

* * *

Except for a couple of runs by Tank Younger and an occasional completed pass by Norm Van Brocklin and Bill Wade, the Rams didn't show much offense.

* * *

MSU Pair Pick in IC4-A Run

Duo Makes Spartans Favorite for Title in NY Meet

NEW YORK (AP)—Henry Kennedy and Selwyn Jones, a couple of sophomores from Michigan State, ruled the favorites to capture the individual championship in the IC4-A cross-country run today.

The pair also make the Spartans favorites to capture the team title, won last year by Manhattan. Coach Carl Schlademan thinks he has a strong team, but fears a weak fifth man may hurt his chances.

* * *

Pitt, Villanova, New York University and Cornell also figured to place high in the team race.

George Terry of Boston University, who toured the 5-mile Van Cortlandt Park course in 24:36.4 last year, will be back for another try, as will George King of NYU, the runner-up.

* * *

Other serious threats included Arnie Sowell, Pitt's Olympian; Ron Delany and Alex Breckenridge of Villanova; Dave Eckel and Mike Midler of Cornell; Bob Sbarra of Manhattan and Bob Townsend of St. John's.

Loop Practice Slated

Griffs Grill's Class B basketball team will hold a practice session Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Pontiac High gymnasium. All persons interested in joining the team are urged to contact Don Harding at the time of the practice.

Pimlico Names 3 to Riders' Hall of Fame

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pimlico race track has announced selection of three riders to its newly-established Jockeys' Hall of Fame—Eddie Arcaro, Earl Sande and the late George Woolf.

Arcaro was the only active rider to be chosen. He polled 443 votes to 174 for Johnny Longden and 40 for Ted Atkinson. Sports writers and radio and TV sportscasters did the voting.

* * *

Sande garnered 571 votes in the inactive division, Woolf 280, Isaac Murphy 144, Tod Sloan 129, Walter Miller 82, Raymond (Sonny) Workman 71 and Laverne Fator, 34.

ILLUSION OF TURN—Watching stars like Steve Nagy, current world match champion, and Ned Day and Buddy Bomar, former champions, may create the illusion they are spinning the ball with wrist action. Stand behind them and it actually looks as if that's what they are doing. They are not. They are spinning the ball by arm action and finger lift—lifting spin imparted by the middle, third, and little fingers at ball release.

The arm is in a line, straight out, between the right shoulder and the right eye at the finish of the swing. The elbow breaks upward only after the release of the ball. This follow-through is very important, but it can also be deceptive, especially from a rear view.

Lions Edge Steelers, 31-28 by Inches

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP) — Detroit Lions won by inches and seconds over the Pittsburgh Steelers in a National Football League game Sunday, although the scoreboard showed Detroit the victor, 31-28.

With only seven seconds to go, Pittsburgh quarterback Jimmy Finks hit Sid Watson with a 19-yard pass. Referee Tommy Timlin ruled Watson was stopped six inches short of the goal line, and time ran out before the Steelers could get a play going.

Steeler coach Walt Kiesling said he couldn't see whether Watson went over, but added: "Watson and the rest of the boys out there said he did."

The controversial last-seconds play came on the heels of a 21-point 4th-period splurge by the Steelers, who for that part of the game at least made the Lions look like the bumling defensive outfit that dropped its 1st six games in a row.

The loss was Pittsburgh's 3rd straight, but they dominated with 26 first downs to 12 and 451 net yards to 234. Steelers completed 28 of 47 passes, compared with 13 completions in 23 tries by Detroit.

Quarterbacks Bobby Layne and Harry Gilmer and halfback Bill Stits each tossed scoring passes for Detroit. Stits ran seven yards with an intercepted pass for another touchdown. A field goal by Doak Walker and four extra points by him accounted for the other seven Lion points.

Lions scored twice within two minutes in the 2nd period. Layne hit Dave Middleton with a 30-yard touchdown pass and Gilmer flipped 34 yards to Lew Carpenter.

The 1st score came after an 8-yard drive, and the 2nd one after Detroit's Jim Martin fell on an onside kick on the Pittsburgh's 44.

Lynn Chandnois scored the 1st of the Steelers' three final period touchdowns on a one-yard plunge. Ted Marchibroda rambled eight yards after a fumble recover for the 2nd, and Ray Mathews took a 46-yard pass from Marchibroda for the other.

Marchibroda, former University of Detroit star, got the Pittsburgh drive that fell short under way, with Finks coming in to make the final desperation heave that reached Watson six inches short of the goal line.

Detroit	0	14	10	7	—31

Detroit scoring—Touchdowns: Middleton (30, pass from Layne), Carpenter (34, pass from Gilmer), Walker 21, pass from Stits), Stits (7, pass interception). Field goal: Walker. Conversions: Walker 4.

Pittsburgh scoring — Touchdowns: O'Brien (6, pass from Finks), Chandnois (1, plunge), Marchibroda (8, run), Mathews (47, pass from Marchibroda). Conversions: Weed 4.

Finish Perfect Season

Eaglets Forced to Come From Behind to Edge St. Florian in Finale, 14-12

Orchard Lake St. Mary, newly-crowned Suburban Catholic League football champion, was hard-pressed Sunday afternoon at Hamtramck, but still managed to win and complete a perfect 1955 season.

Rev. John Rakoczy's Eaglets encountered their stiffest opposition of the season at Keyworth Stadium in their traditional wind-up battle with St. Florian. The Eaglets spotted the host club a 12-0 advantage, then fought back to triumph by the margin of two extra points, 14-12.

St. Florian scored its 1st touchdown in the opening quarter on a six yard plunge by halfback Ron Latanski. Stan Majewski and Stan Smolinski converged to block the kick for point.

In the 2nd period St. Florian hit pay-dirt again, this time with a 12-yard pass from quarterback Marvin Jurek to end Ken Walszy. Smolinski again barged in to block the conversion attempt.

Then St. Mary came to life and started its uphill climb. The Eaglets drove 69 yards in five plays with halfback Len Mallat ramming over from six yards out. Paul Franckowiak converted from placement and the deficit was reduced to 12-7 at halftime.

Orchard Lake gridders tallied the clincher in the 3rd period. Quarterback Ted Kopacki passed to Majewski for a touchdown, the play covering 45 yards. Franckowiak pitched to Pete Madelans for the extra point.

Both teams threatened in the last quarter. St. Florian drove to the Eaglet nine before losing the ball on downs and St. Mary marched to the enemy's 13 where a pass interception called a halt. Yesterday's victory gave Eaglets a flawless 8-0 record.

Ez Charles Meets Rocky's Sparring Partner Tonight

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

* * *

Charles has been losing almost as often as he has been winning this year, bowing twice to Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, who recently was deflated again by Jimmy Slade. Although Charles has slipped considerably from the days when he held the world heavyweight championship, he will be heavily favored over Hall, who once floored Marciano in a sparring session. Charles still is the No. 7 contender and Hall is unranked.

* * *

The biggest, if not the best, heavyweight will be in action Tuesday in London when Ewart Potgieter, the South African giant who stands 7-2 and weighs 320 pounds, meets James J. Parker, a "midget" of 6-3 and 210 pounds from Toronto.

* * *

It's the first test for the Goliath, who has been fattening up on obscure opposition. Parker once was in the top 10 although he hasn't been doing much recently.

Four Teams Get Attention From 'Cotton' Prexy

Navy Bid Is Pending on Turkey Day Clash With Cadets

DALLAS (AP)—Mississippi, Navy, Auburn and Georgia Tech were getting the eye of the Cotton Bowl today although selection time still is two weeks away.

Cotton Bowl President Felix McKnight said these teams were attracting a "whole lot of attention" of his group but that it would be Nov. 26 before an invitation would be issued.

* * *

The Southwest Conference representative will be known Saturday if Texas Christian beats Rice at Fort Worth, as it is favored to do. That would give TCU the host spot although Texas A&M may win the conference championship. A&M can't play in the bowl, however, because it is on probation for violating the recruiting rules.

* * *

McKnight pointed out that no team would be invited to the bowl until the Saturday of Thanksgiving Week because of an agreement with the Sugar Bowl and because the Army-Navy game isn't played until that date.

* * *

The two bowls have agreed not to invite anybody from the Southeastern Conference, which usually furnishes teams in both bowls, until Nov. 26. Navy could be invited but the Cotton Bowl won't issue such an invitation until Navy has played Army, McKnight said.

For that matter, the Cotton Bowl prexy reminded, some of the biggest games of the season—games that will be vital in determining which team is to be invited—are scheduled Nov. 26. Mississippi plays Mississippi State, Auburn engages Alabama and Georgia Tech meets Georgia.

Duo Shoots Knicks Into NBA Top Spot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The foul-line sharpshooting of Ray Felix and Carl Braun has the New York Knickerbockers in first place in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Assn. with an unblemished record.

The Knicks downed the Rochester Royals 94-91 in the first half of a doubleheader at Fort Wayne last night. The Pistons grabbed their first victory of the young season, 93-79 over Syracuse in the nightcap after suffering three straight setbacks.

Wismer Says Tatum Will Quit Maryland

NEW YORK (INS)—Sportscaster Harry Wismer predicted on his Mutual "All-Star Sports Time" radio show last night that Jim Tatum will quit Maryland to coach North Carolina's football team in 1956.

Wismer, football broadcaster and International News Service columnist, quoted a "highly reliable source" as saying that Tatum would leave the unbeaten, second-ranking Terrapins to rebuild the Tar Heels, who have won only two of eight games this season.

Unwanted PCL Seals Going for $90,000

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — The forfeited San Francisco Seals franchise of the Pacific Coast League was still up for sale today. The rock bottom price: $90,000.

In addition, said league President Claire Goodwin, any buyer must also take over the club's more than $200,000 debts.

Former Employe Arrested in Restaurant Breakin

Police said that a window was broken and the office ransacked while the owner was waiting on customers.

GOOD ONE!—Jim Pace (with ball) makes good on this neat, ballet-stepping run, one of the few times he has performed a "spectacular and not had it called back. The dash was made in the final period of Saturday's fine, 30-0 victory over an inept Indiana team. It was a punt return and the Hoosier coming up behind is Felinger.

Norwegian Captures Junior AAU Event

Eckhoff, who represented the New York City Athletic Club, finished in 31 minutes and 59 seconds, 20 yards ahead of Lt. Ed Shea of Ft. Monmouth, an unofficial entry. Shea is disqualified from a junior national event because of his 2-mile IC4A title two years ago for Northeastern University.

Detroit Starts Tests to Detect Diabetes

DETROIT (AP)—Health authorities will set out this week in search of thousands of hidden cases of diabetes, fifth leading killer in Michigan.

* * *

The Wayne County Medical Society and the Michigan State Diabetes Society will cooperate in the venture by offering free tests.

Twenty thousand dreypaks will be distributed in Detroit starting Monday. These are labeled filter papers so that dried specimens may be placed in an envelope and mailed to diabetes headquarters for free laboratory tests.

* * *

9-Month Report Shows Increase

Boost in Construction Tapered Slightly by Third Quarter Dip

In Oakland County, the city ranked second behind Waterford Township in total permits issued, according to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

The area covered in the report includes Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties plus four townships in Washtenaw County.

The total number of home-building permits in the region was 32,289, compared to 31,441 for the same period of 1954, a 2.7 per cent increase.

The last three months reported on, July, August and September, show a slight decrease when contrasted with last year in each of the counties.

"If the third quarter decline continues in the fourth quarter of 1955, it is possible that the annual total will fall below 1954's high of 46,953," the commission states.

Baby Adoption Probe May Rock Hollywood

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Public hearings intended to air the interstate traffic in baby adoptions were opened today by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), chairman of the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency.

Testimony concerning adoption activities in some 15 states will be heard.

A spokesman said the committee hopes to show the movement of babies from the southeast to many western states. The testimony, he said, could "hit the movie colony hard."

The committee spokesman said hearings are aimed at securing more legal safeguards for the some 45,000 babies adopted yearly in the country.

Harbor Unit Leader Opposes Lake Tolls

MILWAUKEE (AP)—John C. Beukema, Muskegon, Mich., president of the Great Lakes Harbors Assn., said yesterday his personal opinion is that there should be no tolls levied on Great Lakes shipping.

Beukema, here to preside today at the association's annual meeting, said in an interview that he was speaking as an individual and not as president of the association.

"We built our maritime commerce in this country on a program of free waterways ever since they were first improved 130 years ago," Beukema said.

"The fact that we are participating with Canada in a plan of locks and dams in the St. Lawrence River in no way violates the ancient principle of free waterways."

* * *

Tolls are recommended by a task force of the second Hoover Commission to finance federal improvements on harbors and connecting channels between the Great Lakes.

PARIS (INS) — Czechoslovakian exile circles in Paris say Czechoslovakia is suffering a rapidly growing labor shortage. It is estimated the country lacks 500,000 workers in industry and agriculture.

Flint UAW Local Asks Anti-Lynch Law

FLINT (INS)—An "Emmett Till" rally of 5,000 persons in Flint yesterday passed a resolution urging CIO President Walter Reuther to press Congress for an anti-lynching law.

* * *

The throng in the union hall of Buick Local 599 (UAW-CIO) was told by Brendon Sexton, the union's education director:

"Officials of the state of Mississippi failed to uphold the law and disregarded the Constitution."

He explained that under an anti-lynch law, such cases as the murder of the 14-year-old Chicago boy would be taken out of the hands of state authorities and given to federal juries.

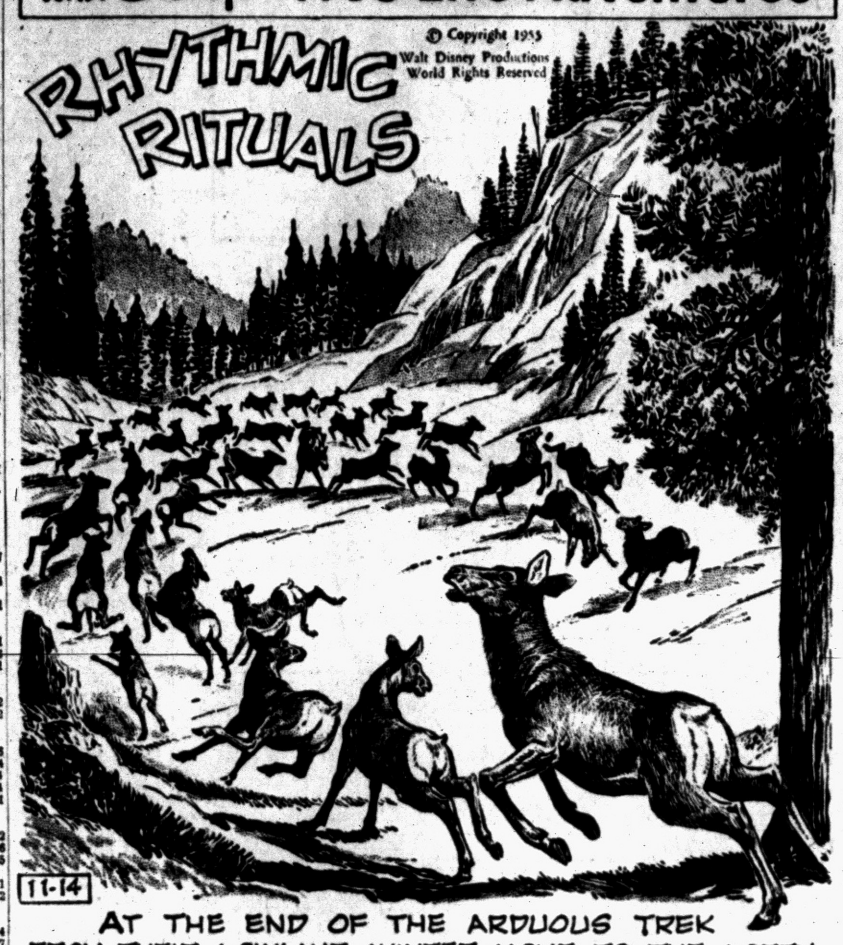

The Till boy's mother, Mrs. Mamie Bradley, was given a collection of $1,300 to continue her speaking tour.

'Pressure' May Force $12 Boost in Price of Steel

Higher wages, more costly plant construction and pressure from stockholders for more return on their money were cited by the metalworking weekly as the factors that will bring about the boost.

The increases won't come in all at once, the magazine said. They may start this year and continue through the first half of 1956, coming to a climax when steel wage settlements have to be paid for beginning next July.

The article pointed out that while prices have increased by 126 per cent since 1940, wage costs have gone up by 206 per cent and plant construction by 178 per cent during the same period.

Companies in the industry are made to look more profitable than they are by the Federal government's "antiquated" policy on depreciation, Steel declared. The book value today of a ton of steel ingot capacity averages $60, said the weekly.

After taxes, the magazine went on, producers do not have enough money left over to satisfy reinvestment needs and make dividends attractive to investors. The government took over 556 million dollars from 33 steel companies last year, leaving them $605,600,000 to split between stockholders and reinvestment.

Increased demand for railway freight cars, pipelines and Army tanks has kept steelmen working at or near capacity levels for the last three weeks, the magazine said.

In the week ending November 13, production of ingots and castings rose 1 per cent to 99 per cent of capacity, bringing the production rate to the equivalent of 2,390,000 net tons.

"Steel's arithmetical price composite remains unchanged at $128.14 a net ton," the article concluded, "but its steelmaking scrap price composite rose for the second consecutive week.

"It's now $45.33 a gross ton and reflects a strong demand for steel, export demand for scrap and the approach of winter."

Nicolet Watches Cathedral Teeter

150-Year-Old Building Now at Brink of Crater Where Three Died

NICOLET, Que. (AP)—The 150-year old cathedral of St. Jean Baptiste teetered today on the brink of a giant crater where at least three persons were carried to their death in a landslide.

* * *

All but one of the buildings was crushed and buried in a mass of sand and clay.

BURIED IN RUBBLE

Two of the victims died in l'Academie de la Salle. The body of Mrs. Alphonse Boisvert, 60, cook for the Christian Brothers, was recovered shortly after the slide.

Brother Hermenegilde, 65, a leader in the 4-H club movement, was buried in the rubble and his body could not be found immediately.

* * *

Six-month-old Guy Lessard died in his father's home as it toppled down the embankment. His body was recovered.

Six other persons were injured, one seriously.

5 MILLION LOSS

More than 30 other persons—among them Msgr. Albertus Martin, Roman Catholic bishop of Nicolet—narrowly escaped being engulfed in the slide. Some had to leap crevices in the ground to reach safety.

* * *

Some 2,000 persons had to be evacuated from a convent, a hostel for the aged, and other buildings in the danger area.

* * *

Boisvret said he thought seeping water had washed out the clay from under a 30-to-40 foot layer of sand and allowed the buildings to sink.

Youth Admits to Kidnap Hoax

Boy Scout Tells Police He Tried to Give 'Hope' to Mrs. Schuessler

CHICAGO (AP)—A Boy Scout admitted to police early today his story of being slugged and abducted was a hoax concocted to "give some hope" to the mother of two slain boys.

* * *

"I got the idea watching a television crime show," said 14-year, old Tom Fijak. Sheriff Joseph Lohman said Fijak broke down after several hours of questioning.

Fijak was a friend of John, 13, and Anton Schuessler, 11, who were found brutally slain with Robert Peterson, 14, nearly a month ago. He served as a pallbearer at the brothers' funeral.

Fijak told police he hit himself on the head with a brick to add realism to his kidnap-slugging yarn. A hospital examination failed to disclose any bumps or lacerations.

Lohman said Fijak told him he faked the entire incident because he thought his story "might give her (Mrs. Eleanor Schuessler) some hope."

Lohman said presumably meant that he wanted to reassure Mrs. Schuessler that the triple slaying still would be solved.

Fijak, a high school freshman, said he was home alone watching a television program when the idea came to him.

It was a movie, he said, starring the "Dead End Kids" and it depicted a crime similar to the slaying of the three boys.

Lohman said he turned the boy over to his parents with the stipulation the lad be questioned again by juvenile authorities. He indicated no charges would be filed.

Detroit Starts Tests to Detect Diabetes

DETROIT (AP)—Health authorities will set out this week in search of thousands of hidden cases of diabetes, fifth leading killer in Michigan.

* * *

The Wayne County Medical Society and the Michigan State Diabetes Society will cooperate in the venture by offering free tests.

Twenty thousand dreypaks will be distributed in Detroit starting Monday. These are labeled filter papers so that dried specimens may be placed in an envelope and mailed to diabetes headquarters for free laboratory tests.

* * *

9-Month Report Shows Increase

Boost in Construction Tapered Slightly by Third Quarter Dip

In Oakland County, the city ranked second behind Waterford Township in total permits issued, according to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

The area covered in the report includes Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties plus four townships in Washtenaw County.

At the county level, Wayne issued 14,976; Oakland, 8,973 and Macomb, 7,812.

The total number of home-building permits in the region was 32,289, compared to 31,441 for the same period of 1954, a 2.7 per cent increase.

The last three months reported on, July, August and September, show a slight decrease when contrasted with last year in each of the counties.

"If the third quarter decline continues in the fourth quarter of 1955, it is possible that the annual total will fall below 1954's high of 40,953," the commission states.

Although Oakland's nine-month total dropped by 810 this year, nine county communities issued more than 400 permits this year, contrasted with eight last year.

Baby Adoption Probe May Rock Hollywood

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Public hearings intended to air the interstate traffic in baby adoptions were opened today by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn), chairman of the U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency.

Testimony concerning adoption activities in some 15 states will be heard.

A spokesman said the committee hopes to show the movement of babies from the southeast to many western states. The testimony, he said, could "hit the movie colony hard."

Some of the witnesses subpoenaed include John Patterson, the attorney general of Alabama who helped clean up Phenix City, news reporters from Birmingham and Wichita, Kan., and juvenile court officials from Augusta, Ga.

The committee spokesman said hearings are aimed at securing more legal safeguards for the some 45,000 babies adopted yearly in the country.

Harbor Unit Leader Opposes Lake Tolls

MILWAUKEE (AP)—John C. Beukema, Muskegon, Mich., president of the Great Lakes Harbors Assn., said yesterday his personal opinion is that there should be no tolls levied on Great Lakes shipping.

Beukema, here to preside today at the association's annual meeting, said in an interview that he was speaking as an individual and not as president of the association.

"We built our maritime commerce in this country on a program of free waterways ever since they were first improved 130 years ago," Beukema said.

"The fact that we are participating with Canada in a plan of locks and dams in the St. Lawrence River in no way violates the ancient principle of free waterways."

Tolls are recommended by a task force of the second Hoover Commission to finance federal improvements on harbors and connecting channels between the Great Lakes.

PARIS (INS) — Czechoslovakian exile circles in Paris say Czechoslovakia is suffering a rapidly growing labor shortage. It is estimated the country lacks 500,000 workers in industry and agriculture.

Flint UAW Local Asks Anti-Lynch Law

FLINT (INS)—An "Emmett Till" rally of 5,000 persons in Flint yesterday passed a resolution urging CIO President Walter Reuther to press Congress for an anti-lynching law.

* * *

The throng in the union hall of Buick Local 599 (UAW-CIO) was told by Brendon Sexton, the union's education director:

"Officials of the state of Mississippi failed to uphold the law and disregarded the Constitution."

He explained that under an anti-lynch law, such cases as the murder of the 14-year-old Chicago boy would be taken out of the hands of state authorities and given to federal juries.

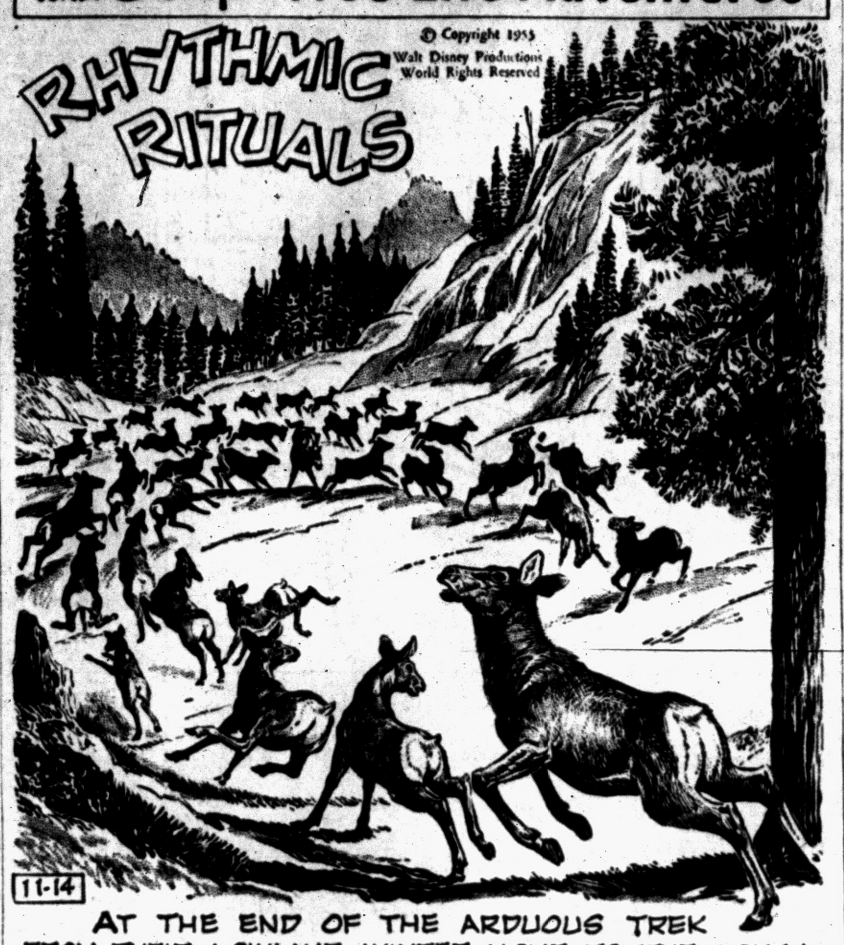

The Till boy's mother, Mrs. Mamie Bradley, was given a collection of $1,300 to continue her speaking tour.

'Pressure' May Force $12 Boost in Price of Steel

Economic "pressures" may force steel producers to raise their prices up to $12 a ton by next July, Steel magazine said today.

Higher wages, more costly plant construction and pressure from stockholders for more return on their money were cited by the metalworking weekly as the factors that will bring about the boost.

The increases won't come in all at once, the magazine said. They may start this year and continue through the first half of 1956, coming to a climax when steel wage settlements have to be paid for beginning next July.

The article pointed out that while prices have increased by 126 per cent since 1940, wage costs have gone up by 206 per cent and plant construction by 178 per cent during the same period.

Companies in the industry are made to look more profitable than they are by the Federal government's "antiquated" policy on depreciation, Steel declared. The book value today of a ton of steel ingot capacity averages $60, said the weekly.

To build capacity, it said, a firm must spend about $300 a ton.

After taxes, the magazine went on, producers do not have enough money left over to satisfy reinvestment needs and make dividends attractive to investors. The government took over 556 million dollars from 33 steel companies last year, leaving them $605,600,000 to split between stockholders and reinvestment.

Increased demand for railway freight cars, pipelines and Army tanks has kept steelmen working at or near capacity levels for the last three weeks, the magazine said.

In the week ending November 13, production of ingots and castings rose 1 per cent to 99 per cent of capacity, bringing the production rate to the equivalent of 2,390,000 net tons.

"Steel's arithmetical price composite remains unchanged at $128.14 a net ton," the article concluded, "but its steelmaking scrap price composite rose for the second consecutive week.

"It's now $45.33 a gross ton and reflects a strong demand for steel, export demand for scrap and the approach of winter."

Nicolet Watches Cathedral Teeter

150-Year-Old Building Now at Brink of Crater Where Three Died

NICOLET, Que. (AP)—The 150-year old cathedral of St. Jean Baptiste teetered today on the brink of a giant crater where at least three persons were carried to their death in a landslide.

* * *

The landslide sent six buildings, including the bishop's palace and a commercial academy, toppling down a 70-foot embankment bordering the narrow Nicolet River Saturday.

All but one of the buildings was crushed and buried in a mass of sand and clay.

BURIED IN RUBBLE

Two of the victims died in l'Academie de la Salle. The body of Mrs. Alphonse Boisvert, 60, cook for the Christian Brothers, was recovered shortly after the slide.

Brother Hermenegilde, 65, a leader in the 4-H club movement, was buried in the rubble and his body could not be found immediately.

* * *

Six-month-old Guy Lessard died in his father's home as it toppled down the embankment. His body was recovered.

Six other persons were injured, one seriously.

$ MILLION LOSS

More than 30 other persons—among them Msgr. Albertus Martin, Roman Catholic bishop of Nicolet—narrowly escaped being engulfed in the slide. Some had to leap crevices in the ground to reach safety.

* * *

Some 2,000 persons had to be evacuated from a convent, a hostel for the aged, and other buildings in the danger area.

* * *

The roof of the 150-year-old cathedral building had swayed inward and walls were cracked.

Boisvret said he thought seeping water had washed out the clay from under a 30-to-40 foot layer of sand and allowed the buildings to sink.

Youth Admits to Kidnap Hoax

Boy Scout Tells Police He Tried to Give 'Hope' to Mrs. Schuessler

CHICAGO (AP)—A Boy Scout admitted to police early today his story of being slugged and abducted was a hoax concocted to "give some hope" to the mother of two slain boys.

* * *

"I got the idea watching a television crime show," said 14-year-old Tom Fijak. Sheriff Joseph Lohman said Fijak broke down after several hours of questioning.

Fijak was a friend of John, 13, and Anton Schuessler, 11, who were found brutally slain with Robert Peterson, 14, nearly a month ago. He served as a pallbearer at the brothers' funeral.

Fijak told police he hit himself on the head with a brick to add realism to his kidnap-slugging yarn. A hospital examination failed to disclose any bumps or lacerations.

Lohman said Fijak told him he faked the entire incident because he thought his story "might give her (Mrs. Eleanor Schuessler) some hope."

Lohman said presumably meant that he wanted to reassure Mrs. Schuessler that the triple slaying still would be solved.

The admission came several hours after he appeared apparently injured and crying at a police station several miles from his northwest side home.

Fijak, a high school freshman, said he was home alone watching a television program when the idea came to him.

It was a movie, he said, starring the "Dead End Kids" and it depicted a crime similar to the slaying of the three boys.

Lohman said he turned the boy over to his parents with the stipulation the lad be questioned again by juvenile authorities. He indicated no charges would be filed.

$40,000 Lapeer Fire Caused by Lightning

LAPEER — Lightning caused a $40,000 fire last night when it struck a barn on the Neal Frentheway farm, 3651 Merwin Rd. Lapeer, Metamora, and Hadley fire departments fought the blaze.

An auction sale several weeks previously had cleared the barn of all contents except 60 tons of chopped hay that had been sold but not removed.

Contestant Cries When She Wins New Car a Year

* * *

Mrs. John Anderson, 31, Fort Worth, wept when she was announced as winner of a quiz on the Lawrence Welk show over ABC-TV Saturday night.

The show is sponsored by an automobile manufacturer (Dodge) which will give her a new car annually.

Mrs. Anderson and contestants Gaetano Binenti, a Bronx, N.Y., freight handler, and Jesse A. Likeness, Davenport, Iowa, were in a car that was in a minor collision while en route to the program.

* * *

They walked the last six blocks to the studio. Binenti and Likeness each won a consolation prize—a 1956 car.

Deaf Mute Badly Burned in Cigarette Accident

DETROIT (AP)—A deaf mute confined to his wheel chair was burned critically yesterday when he set his clothing afire while smoking.

Clarence Stibich, 48, of Detroit, suffered second and third degree burns over half his body.

Hillbilly Comic Will Be Kissed

Pigtails, Army Shoes and Sacklike Dresses Are Shelved

By EMILY BELSER

HOLLYWOOD (INS) — After 20 years as a top comedienne, Judy Canova — the hotshot hog caller from radio—will hit the television screen as a dramatic actress.

* * *

Judy, who has all the private life instincts of a female Pagliacci, will portray just that when she stars tomorrow on NBC's Matinee Theater.

She'll also get the first kiss of theatrical life from handsome Douglas Kennedy, her romantic lead on the show.

"In all my years in show business," Judy admitted, "I've never been kissed by anything but a horse. I think it's time to change all that. I want to be something different.

* * *

"I confess I always wanted to do serious drama. Why, once I even wanted to be a tragedienne after I saw Luise Rainer do that great emotional telephone scene in 'The Great Ziegfeld.'"

HAS A GRIPE

For an actress who has played in the same movies and on the same bills with such heart-throbs as Cesar Romero and Cary Grant Judy feels she has something to squawk about.

* * *

Asked if NBC intends to glamorize her for her exciting new role, the raucous-voiced comic shook her head sadly and said:

"How much can they do to glamorize a mug like this. You know there are two things I'll never have to worry about—getting old or the way I look."

* * *

"This will be the first time since I was a kid," she recalled, "that I've appeared without my good luck shoes and my braids. I'm so excited I'll probably forget my lines."

FLORIDA 'HILLBILLY'

Although Judy, her sister, Annie, and brother, Zeke, hail from so civilized a spot as Jacksonville, Fla., the rustic comic has been grinding out the backwoods dialect ever since she was 10.

* * *

"When I was a kid," she related, "My folks always spent their summer vacation in North Carolina. I met some real billies up there. I picked up their songs and their lingo and used them on my first radio show.

"One night at a theater in Miami I wanted to look older, so I put on a lot of white powder and an old straw hat and sang 'I Wish I Was Single Agin.' I looked so old that a producer came backstage afterwards and offered me the leading character role in his new show.

"I finally explained to him," Judy grinned, "that I was only 14 years old."

* * *

Now that she's on her way to becoming another Bette Davis or Jennifer Jones (her favorite actresses), Judy can forget the guy who wrote her that fan letter from Topeka, Kan.

"I've been watching you for years," the man wrote, "you must be pretty tired by now. Will you marry me? I'm tired, too!"

'Ataturk' Film Biography Labeled 'Greatest Story'

By BOB THOMAS

* * *

If Rosenberg's scalp line wasn't so skimpy, he would be the fair-haired boy of Universal-International. In the last year he has turned out the two biggest money-makers in the company's 43-year history.

No. 1 MOVIE NOW

The first was "The Glenn Miller Story," which U-I expects to draw 10 million dollars throughout the world. The No. 1 film in the country now is "To Hell and Back," the Audie Murphy story which the studio says will exceed that figure by a million. And Rosenberg has "The Benny Goodman Story" warming up in the bull pen.

The heavy-set producer, who was a smashing guard at U.S.C. in the early '30s, is not the kind to relax on his laurels. In Turkey he plans to film the life story of Kemal Ataturk, the founder of modern Turkey.

* * *

"But this is the greatest story of all," Rosenberg enthused. "I think a good picture should be the story of a man with a purpose. Here is a man who had a tremendous challenge. He had to fight the traditions of thousands of years, plus the sultan and the church in order to modernize his country.

SIGNIFICANT FILM

"The story has great significance today. Turkey is a strategic nation, being next to Russia. Its friendliness to the West is due to Ataturk. He felt that Western civilization was on the ascendancy in the world and he believed Turkey should westernize itself."

Rosenberg admitted he was also attracted to the story because "Ataturk was a very attractive man and loved women." He said that Turkish officials are anxious to have him portray their leader as a human being and not a god.

* * *

"That's important," he remarked, giving insight on the success of his films. "You can't have a hero in pictures who is all-good. Then there is no believability."

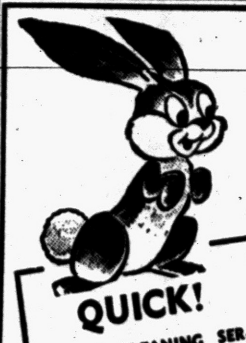

The producer is going to Turkey this time largely for research. Next summer he hopes to make the picture in Ankara, Istanbul and other locales. He said the government has promised full co-operation.

What about a star for "Ataturk"?

"Any strong leading man would be good," he replied. "Marlon Brando would be ideal, so would Kirk Douglas. It could be a great role for John Wayne."

Pizza Served in Mussolini's Love Palace

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

ROME (INS)—It is a funereal night, black and thick with rain. But I am splendidly secure, sipping wine and eating pizzas in the one-time love palace of Benito Mussolini.

A macabre idea, perhaps.

* * *

It's a restaurant now, this great villa which the squat, pig-eyed Il Duce built for the woman he died with, Claretta Petacci.

25 CENTS IN U. S.

In America, we sometimes perpetuate the homes of departed noble or notorious citizens by labeling them, "25c admission," and allowing tourists to roam through the past.

* * *

In Italy, obviously, it costs much more. The least costly meal one can order at Mussolini's expense (figuratively speaking) in this romantic emporium is the cost of a dinner at the Waldorf. But no one objects; the food and legends are so satisfying to stomach and curiosity.

Marajen Chinigo, the sparkling wife of INS's Rome manager Mike Chinigo, points out that of all Mussolini's reported mistresses, Claretta was the only "other woman" that even the Duce's wife, Donna Rachele, conceded to be his great love.

"And though most Italians would condemn illicit relationships," she says, "Claretta earned a measure of respect because she died with Benito. She apparently loved him above everything."

In return, for the few final years of their love affair, she and her immediate family, father, mother and sister, were given this modernistic marble mansion high on a hill over Rome. After Claretta and her benefactor died in disgrace, the family leased the villa to established restaurateurs.

DINE IN BOUDOIR

Besides the elaborate dining room on the first floor of the two-story building, there is a downstairs "main salon" which resembles a Hilton hotel lobby more than classic Roman architecture.

Outside this Mussolini - made grandeur, is some heaven-made splendor: Fields full of flowers, closed now for the winter, and a forest of cypress trees whistling and bowing in the wind.

Amid all these, a white marble staircase rises starkly from the ground to the darkened privacy of the upper floor. It was this private stairway that Benito used when he wanted to visit his love alone.

State Police Give 35 Applications to Fill Vacancies

Pontiac State Police Post recruiters, interviewing applicants this month for the 200 vacancies in State Police ranks recently created by the legislature, said today they had issued 35 applications to area men who met preliminary qualifications.

The trooper increase was approved at a special session of the Legislature, following okay of a salary boost by the State Civil Service Commission. Troopers, under the new measure, earn a maximum of $192 every two weeks.

Candidates must be between 21 and 29 years of age; not less than five feet, nine inches in height, and have high school educations. Both married and single men will be accepted.

Deadline for applications is Nov. 30. Successful applicants will be trained upon appointment and later assigned to permanent duty.

Cameron Mitchell, Wife Reconcile at Son's Party

The Mitchells, wed 15 years, separated six weeks ago. Saturday was their son Chipper's fourth birthday. Both mother and father attended the party.

"We talked about things and now I am very, very happy," Mrs. Cameron said afterward. The Mitchells' other children are Bobby, 14; Freddy, 8, and Camille, 18 months.
