

Barry Says Summit Planned With Ike, Nixon on Party's Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he plans to meet soon with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon for a "general discussion" of the Republican party's future course.

The defeated GOP presidential nominee said in an interview on his return to Washington from Phoenix, Ariz., that he doesn't know where the summit conference discussion will lead.

But he indicated he is willing to cooperate with the former president and the former vice president in trying to bring peace among the bickering factions of the Republican party.

Goldwater said the meeting originally had been scheduled for tomorrow at Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pa., but had to be delayed because of Nixon's trip to Japan.

He added, however, he hopes it can be fitted into the schedules of all three principals before his return to Arizona next week.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

Goldwater made it clear he would encourage the formation of the kind of advisory council suggested by some GOP governors and other party leaders to bring all factions into the formation of future party policy.

"I tried to get Milton Eisenhower's group to continue its work," he said. "I thought they were making some headway."

Eisenhower, brother of the former president and head of Johns Hopkins University, is chairman of the Republican Critical Issues Council.

The council, a panel of leading Republicans, issued GOP policy statements through special task forces during the recent presidential campaign.

WON'T YIELD

Goldwater remained adamant in his opposition to the replacement of Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, his personal choice for the job after the San Francisco nominating convention.

"They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

City Budget Called 'Standstill'

City officials emphasized last night that the proposed 1965 budget of $6.7 million is a "standstill" budget that will provide only minimum city services.

Although balanced without an income tax, it is "in all respects an austerity budget," said City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

According to Warren, a contingency of $35,900 is all that keeps the budget in balance.

He pointed out that the contingency was "practically nothing" with which to meet unexpected expenditures.

The proposed 1965 budget will require the same tax rate as in 1964. The city is already at the 10-mill tax limitation provided in the city charter.

The budget is higher than the current year by $887,095.

UTILITY FUNDS

Warren said that the three utility funds — water, sewage and parking — are budgeted to reimburse the general fund for overhead expenditures, such as general administration.

The budget also takes in the cost of operating new facilities in 1965, such as the Hayes Jones Community Center.

Also, fire department costs have risen by $147,438 over 1964 because of the new north end fire station and the shorter duty week.

Warren pointed out specifically that salaries had climbed by $128,830 to $1,080,614 for fire department personnel.

Another increase in the proposed 1965 budget is $17,900 for added payments to continue bus operation.

Commenting on possibilities of income tax revenue, Warren said any benefit in 1965 would be canceled by the promised 3-mill cut in the property tax.

Thus, even if an income tax levy is eventually approved and put into effect sometime next year, no benefits would be felt until 1966.

In his budget message, Warren said that the city budget is really seven separate budgets, each with earmarked revenues and expenditures.

GENERAL FUND

Largest of these, of course, is the general fund.

As proposed, the 1965 general fund budget anticipates an increase of one million in the city's equalized valuation, up to $265.6 million.

The largest increase—$240,000—in the general fund comes in providing employee pay raises under a recently adopted Michigan League study.

The fund also provides for an additional $115,111 for new police and fire pensions. The city's share for these pensions will total $399,551 in 1965.

ADDITIONAL COSTS

In addition, the proposed general fund includes $15,928 for increased costs of general city employee pensions next year.

The waste collection budget is set at $344,641 for 1965, up $6,138 over the current year. This fund is supported by its own special millage.

The capital improvement fund, supported through a special 1.5-mill levy, anticipates $551,500 next year, according to Warren.

He said that nearly half — $269,218 — of the capital improvement fund is committed (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Ex-Con Killed During Dispute at His Home

Youth Being Held; Preliminary Exam Is Set for 2 P. M. Today

An Independence Township man was shot and killed last night by his 16-year-old stepson during a family argument.

Dead is Jesse Lyons, 43, of 9905 M15, an ex-convict, who was released from Jackson Prison in December 1963 after serving a portion of a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

Juvenile authorities are holding Daniel F. Gosley in connection with the shooting.

Preliminary examination was scheduled for 2 p.m. today in Juvenile Court.

County Dems Pick Chairman

Pontiac attorney George A. Googasian last night was elected chairman of the Democratic party in Oakland County for the next two years.

The 28-year-old Googasian succeeds another attorney, Sander Levin of Berkley. Levin recently was elected state senator from the county's 15th District.

The Democratic Executive Committee elected Googasian, 165 E. Iroquois, and other party officers at a meeting in the Birmingham Unitarian Church.

Two of three vice chairmen were reelected.

OTHER OFFICERS

Other officers are Philip Mastin Jr., 526 E. Harry, Hazel Park, treasurer; Mrs. Morris Weiss, 2341 Parklawn, Oak Park, recording secretary; and Robert Newby, 244 Whittemore, corresponding secretary.

Googasian is active in both civic and political affairs. In 1962 he was president of the Democratic Club of Pontiac and is currently serving as a member of the 19th Congressional District's executive committee.

Hoover Says Klan Infiltrated

Meets With King, Vows Dixie Arrests

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover told Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. yesterday that the FBI has infiltrated the Ku Klux Klan and other racist groups much as it did the Communist party. It was learned after the two had chatted in the FBI director's office.

And, King told reporters after the 11-hour session, Hoover indicated arrests will be made in the next few days in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

King requested the meeting and Hoover agreed to it. There was no comment from the FBI director afterward, but King, a leader in the Negroes' drive for equal opportunities and rights, told newsmen: "I might say the discussion was quite amicable."

Hoover's disclosure of FBI infiltration into racist organizations is the first to this effect. His comment that arrests in the Philadelphia slayings will be made in the next few days follows an FBI announcement of last week that "we know who is responsible."

Heavy Snow Hits Maine, Clogs Roads

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Men and snow removal equipment in northern and eastern Maine labored today to clear highways of heavy drifted snow that stranded hundreds of travelers in a chaotic white nightmare.

The snow yesterday skipped past most of the coast but struck sections of Maine hard. Driven by winds which sometimes reached 60 miles an hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet.

At least two persons died in the blizzard which heaped nearly two feet of snow on Eastport and heavy amounts on other areas of Hancock, Washington and Aroostook counties.

Police said a snowplow operator, Elmer K. Stockpole, died at work south of Presque Isle. In Bangor, Helen Stoddard, 72, collapsed in her driveway after walking six blocks through wind-driven snow.

Baker Refuses to Hand Over Documents

WASHINGTON (AP) — Bobby Baker, former secretary of the Senate Democratic majority, refused today to turn over subpoenaed documents to senators investigating an alleged political payoff from a government contract. He pleaded they "might tend to incriminate me."

Insurance man Don B. Reynolds in sworn testimony yesterday pictured himself as the "bag man" for Baker and politician Matthew H. McCloskey in a deal to secretly funnel money from a stadium construction contract here into the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

The Senate Rules Committee had served Baker with a subpoena commanding him to bring to its hearing any documents which would shed light on the allegations.

In a strained voice, Baker testified that he had complied by bringing the documents to the hearing, but that he must "respectfully refuse" to surrender them.

Lyons' 52-year-old wife, Wilda, joined in the argument, the deputy said and during the dispute Lyons got a 22-caliber rifle from the bedroom.

STOPPED OUTSIDE

Jones said Gosley returned home shortly after 9 p.m. and was stopped outside by Matthews who told him of the argument between his mother and stepfather.

Matthews told Gosley that Lyons had a rifle, had hit Mrs. Lyons with it and had threatened to kill her, according to Jones.

U.N. Assembly Start Called Thant Victory

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The launching of the twice-delayed U.N. General Assembly without a head-on clash between the United States and the Soviet Union was seen today as a victory for Secretary General U Thant.

U. S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk scheduled a second meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today in an effort to win Soviet agreement to help pay for peace-keeping operations of the United Nations.

Delegates said Thant's patience and persistence brought the big powers together yesterday for one more try at getting the assembly under way without a blowup over the issue of the Soviet Union's unpaid peace-keeping dues and its assembly vote.

As diplomats sat in the General Assembly hall waiting for the 19th session to begin, representatives of the four big powers met in Thant's office and agreed to limit the opening weeks to general policy debate and noncontroversial issues.

During that time a 21-nation committee will try to reach some solution of the issue raised by Soviet refusal to pay any Congo or Middle East peace-keeping dues and the U.S. contention that it should lose its assembly vote as a financial delinquent.

Today's assembly agenda appeared noncontroversial enough with a parade of speakers slated to welcome Malawi, Malta and Zambia, which were admitted yesterday to bring the U.N. membership to 115.

Say CIA Chief to Retire Soon

NEW YORK (AP) — John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was reported today preparing to retire shortly from the post he has held three years.

He wants to return to private life and his extensive West Coast business interests, according to the report.

An active search was said to be under way within the administration of President Johnson for a successor.

Roswell L. Gilpatrick, former undersecretary of defense, was termed a possible successor to McCone. Gilpatrick was said to be looked upon with favor by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and McGeorge Bundy, special assistant to the President for national security.

Gilpatrick returned to his law practice here last January. The Washington report said Gilpatrick was not eager to return to government service, however.

Accumulating Snow to Keep On Falling

Light snow accumulating to 2 to 4 inches will blanket the Pontiac area tonight.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and there's a chance of more snow about Friday and possibly Sunday.

The U.S. Weather Bureau reports temperatures will average about 5 or 6 degrees below the normal high of 38 and normal low of 25.

The low recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. was 21. At 2 p.m. the reading was 29.

Do 'Homework' Before Yule Shopping

Get the Christmas spirit? If you haven't, you better hurry, because it's later than you think. There are only 19 more shopping days until Christmas.

Before you head for the nearest shopping center though, it will help if you do some ground work at home to save footwork in the stores.

Carry your last year's decorations, inside and out. Check for replacement musts such as tinsel, icicles and burned-out bulbs.

Add them to your gift list. Put on a pair of comfortable shoes and your sunniest smile, guaranteed to make shopping more pleasant for you and the people who serve you, and you're on your way as Santa's helper.

If your decorations are on the tired side and need brightening or you just want a change, Pontiac stores are ready for you.

Golden bells fill the air with the tinkling refrain of "Jingle Bells" when their clappers are pulled. And miniature lights in the shape of lanterns can be used inside or out.

What to do with Christmas cards, a bugaboo at your house? Santa's mailbox in bright red felt will keep all your cards in one place.

To brighten your doorway, there are flocked bells and trees in pastel colors as well as gay (Continued on Page 2, Col. 3) house, called the sheriff's office and reported the fight.

Then he, Matthews and a third companion, Rudy Bono, 19, of 93 Meiners, went into the house the officer said.

Gosley went straight to the bedroom where he got the 7mm rifle, which he had purchased less than two weeks ago according to deputies. He told Jones he was not aware the weapon was loaded.

GET OUT

Gosley said that when he came into the living room Lyons was seated at a table across the room.

Gosley told Lyons to leave his mother alone and to get out of the house, according to witnesses.

Jones said that Lyons apparently lunged from the chair at Gosley and either swung or threw the 22-caliber rifle at the youth.

The butt of the weapon hit Gosley in the right shoulder, witnesses told deputies, and the mother rifle the youth was holding discharged.

RAN OUT

Gosley told deputies he ran out of the house toward the garage after the shooting and called the sheriff's office again from a neighbor's house.

A patrol car was already en route to the one-story frame home in response to the earlier call.

Jones said that just prior to the shooting Mrs. Lyons called Don Chandler, told him her husband was drunk and asked that he come over to the house and get Lyons.

She was talking to Chandler when the fatal shot was fired.

NOT LOADED

Deputies said the 22-caliber rifle was not loaded when they arrived. Both weapons belonged to Gosley and he told Jones he had recently been deer hunting with the Mauser rifle.

Gosley is not presently attending school, deputies said. He has been working off and on as a service station attendant, but has no known juvenile police record, according to officers.

Taylor to Carry New Viet Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions could include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective action.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines along Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam.

The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

"The meeting reviewed the accumulating evidence of continuing and increased North Vietnamese support of the Viet Cong and of North Vietnamese forces in, and passing through, the territory of Laos in violation of the Geneva accords of 1954."

Clerk Gets Petitions on Pay Raises

The election-eve raises granted to three Farmington Township officials, already a Circuit Court issue, now appears to be on its way to a referendum election.

Petitions signed by nearly 1,700 township voters requesting the election were presented yesterday to Township Clerk Floyd A. Cairns.

One of the trio of officials whose raises are being challenged, Cairns said, was the first time in his memory that referendum petitions had been presented at the township hall.

If 1,430 of the signatures, representing 10 per cent of the electorate, are valid, the election probably will be set at the next meeting of the Township Board Dec. 14, Cairns said.

He estimated that the question would be taken to the polls in February or March, although he said he wasn't familiar with the laws governing such elections.

SPECIAL SESSION

The three full-time township officers received raises totaling $9,000 at a special session of the Township Board Nov. 2, the night before all were re-elected.

Supervisor Curtis H. Hall's salary was boosted from $11,200 to $15,000 a year, the clerk's from $9,000 to $11,500 and Treasurer Elsie Avery's from $8,300 to $11,000.

The three abstained from voting on their salary increases. Trustees have said they were acting on the advice of Township Attorney Joseph T. Brennan in setting the salaries at the last meeting before the election. The increases are to go into effect in fiscal 1965-66.

A suit against the three was filed by 11 residents Nov. 9 in Oakland County Circuit Court. Judge Philip J. Pratt has taken the matter under advisement and is expected to make a ruling early this month.

The proposed 1965 budget was formally presented to the City Commission last night by City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

Warren also pointed out that a means of borrowing money should be sought soon after the fiscal year begins in January.

He said $1.5 million would have to be borrowed in anticipation of tax receipts.

Borrowing is necessary because the fiscal year begins in January, but taxes don't start coming in until July.

The City Charter places a 10-mill limit on the city's taxing power for operating funds. Separate millages and revenues support six other funds besides the general operating fund.

In some instances — sanitation, hospital and sewage treatment — the millage is limited to cover the annual requirement.

HOSPITAL BONDS
For example, the city will levy .47-mill to retire Pontiac General Hospital bonds, which were voted several years ago to enlarge the hospital.

This millage will furnish $168,000 to pay 1965 installments on the bonds.

Commenting on the proposed 1965 operating budget of $6.7 million, City Commissioners last night emphasized that there was little leeway in the budget.

This fund levies .47 mills or $168,000 to pay installments on the hospital bond issue and .56 mills or $240,000 for payments on the sewage treatment bonds.

The water fund and sewage funds are supported through water collections and sewer service charges.

The parking fund, last of the seven budget funds, is divided into two systems — parking facilities at Pontiac General Hospital and the downtown area.

HAD DIFFICULTY
The latter system had difficulty in 1964 because of lots being closed due to construction and new and free lots being available, said Warren.

Property Tax Likely the Same

Pontiac Is at Limit
Allowed in Charter

City taxpayers will probably end up paying nearly the same amount of property taxes in 1965 as this year, according to proposed city budget figures.

Excluding the possibilities of an income tax, city officials have reached their taxing limit for operating purposes.

Thus, the $17.16 per $1,000 of assessed valuation will likely be the tax rate next year.

The proposed 1965 budget was formally presented to the City Commission last night by City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

Warren also pointed out that a means of borrowing money should be sought soon after the fiscal year begins in January.

Cuban Pilots Pound Rebels in Stanleyville

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — Cuban-piloted Congolese Air Force planes are pounding the left bank of Stanleyville with rocket fire, and rebel resistance in that "dead city" appears to be weakening, it was reported here today.

Canadian Embassy Charge d'Affaires Arthur Hicks, who just arrived from Stanleyville, said the government 728 planes, with Cuban exiles at the controls, destroyed the railway station and many of the largest buildings on the left bank of the former rebel capital.

"The planes are in the air all the time," Hicks said. "The 728s are throwing rockets into the left bank and into the bush along the Stanleyville airport. There is firing all the time."

Teacher Salary Schedule Again on Board Agenda

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Board of education members will again consider a proposed teachers' incentive salary schedule at their meeting tomorrow night.

Before them will be the schedule presented last month by the teacher salary study committee as the first step in preparation of a February millage proposal.

Cost of the schedule's first year of operation has been estimated at $568,730, but the figures are expected to be pared somewhat before being taken to the polls.

School board members have talked of a levy of 3 to 4.5 mills to support the program.

Also on the agenda for the 8 p.m. session tomorrow is discussion of a recreation commission request that a one-third mill levy be sought for recreational purposes.

ON SAME BALLOT
School trustees have voiced some doubts about placing both the "same ballot" and the Bloomfield Township Board has asked that the recreational millage not be sought until a joint study by the two units is completed.

Board members also plan to open construction bids on the second portion of the district's building program.

Projects will include an addition to Pine Lake Elementary School, expected to cost $137,000; another at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, $475,000.

Prior to tomorrow night's consideration of teachers' salaries, the study committee will hold a meeting at tonight to receive a preliminary evaluation schedule.

RATING TEACHERS
A subcommittee composed of principals and teachers has devised the method of rating teachers in view of the establishment of tenure and the proposed incentive pay schedule in the district.

The preliminary plan calls for a six-part evaluation, with each of the categories broken down further.

Main classifications would be personal qualifications, class management, teacher-pupil relationship, techniques of teaching, professional attitude and a summary paragraph containing Within these five phases will be 32 separate but related studies.

CURRENT PLANNING
Current planning work being done by county planning agencies and the City of Detroit will be incorporated into the study, which will cover sanitation, water, recreation, highways, economic activity, traffic generation and population growth and their interrelationships.

Alexander also served on the policy committee which did the groundwork for the proposed study.

He was working for Henry George of 5901 Dryden, owner of the farm at 2388 Bowman, south of Imlay City.

Lapeer County Sheriff's officers said that Melroy probably died instantly. His body was taken to Muir Brothers Funeral Home, Imlay City.

Educated Congo Rebel Stirs Anti-West Drive

By ANDREW BOROWICZ
NAIROBI, Kenya — In the safety of the Kenyan capital, the Congo's first college graduate is developing a widespread campaign against Western influence in his turbulent homeland.

Thomas Kanza, polite, suave "foreign minister" of the rebel regime of Christophe Gbenye, appears to have won the first round of his battle.

The special commission on the Congo of the Organization of African Unity has condemned American and Belgian intervention to save white hostages in rebel areas.
It called for a summit meeting of African chiefs of state on the Congo and proposed a series of steps which ultimately would limit the power of the Leopoldville government of Premier Moise Tshombe.

VOICE HEARD
At this stage, Kanza, is the only leader of the left-leaning nationalist revolt whose voice can be heard outside the war-torn jungle of the northeast Congo.

He has utilized it fully, playing on Africa's distrust of Tshombe, frequently described here as a "lackey of imperialism" and "tool of colonialists."

Against Tshombe's theory that order in the Congo can be restored only with the help of whites, Kanza presented his own — that African nationalism with Communist backing will sooner or later triumph.

Informal sources say his arguments fell on fertile ground among restive politicians of Africa.

TO 'GET EVEN'
Failure by the West to win any decisive victories in Africa has strengthened Kanza's arguments. Africa's susceptibility for extremism, its feeling of inferiority toward the former colonizers and desire to "get even" with them have further played into Kanza's hands.

What remains to be seen is whether the meeting of African leaders can launch an effective campaign against Tshombe's regime which is backed by the United States and Belgium.

Hitherto, this backing has seldom been total. The recent victory of Africa has shown that half measures seldom succeeded on this continent.

"If the Belgians and Americans want to win the war in the Congo, why don't they throw thousands of troops into the battle?" asked a Kenyan official. "In the eyes of independent Africa they would be just as guilty as for launching 600 paratroopers who have not won anything."

BLOW TO PRESTIGE
Most Africans fail to see the humanitarian aspect of the paratroop rescue operation. To them it was a case of "Western aggression" with the resulting blow to U.S. prestige.

Reports from the Congo's battle regions speak of continuing fighting between Tshombe's forces and rebel "simbas."

Any loss of ground by the central government's task force spearheaded by white mercenaries is bound to strengthen Kanza's position.

A graduate of Louvain University in Belgium in 1956, Kanza was the first Congolese to obtain a university degree. Later he studied at Brussels and Harvard universities.

HOSTILE TO BELGIUM
From the beginning, he has been hostile to Belgian influence in the Congo. Before independence, he said: "Without Belgians there would have been roads, schools and hospitals in the Congo. No one is indispensable in this world."

An associate of the late Patrice Lumumba, the Congo's first premier, Kanza served the Cyrille Adoula regime as an ambassador to London and to the United Nations.

After a bitter quarrel with Tshombe over the use of white mercenaries and advisers, Kanza joined the Stanleyville rebels and became their spokesman abroad.

At this stage, Kanza remains the most active enemy of Western presence in the Congo and the most effective advocate of the Congolese nationalist extremism.

Quiet Battle for Souls

Methodists vs. Reds in Algeria

By PRESTON GROVER

LES OUAHIA, Algeria (AP) — The Methodist Church and the Soviet Communist party are waging a quiet battle for souls in this little upland village in central Algeria.

The Russians have arrived in numbers, assisted by groups from satellite countries. Matched against them are the Rev. John Raoulin, from Cran-Ar AP Special Report.

Bury, N.J., and his wife, Marilyn. He has been a Methodist minister for 10 years, four of them in Algeria and the past 14 months in this village.

The Russians have started building a village for Algerians not far from here. The job started with considerable fanfare six months ago but has slowed down. Young Russians, Yugoslavs, Czechs, Bulgarians and Algerians are living in tents near a wooden headquarters which displays pictures of Alexei N. Kossygin, new premier of the Soviet Union, and Todor Zhivkov, premier of Bulgaria.

Young men come from the Soviet Union and satellites to work two to four months constructing the village. The aim is to build a model farm village with tile and brick apartment houses instead of the rock houses usual in this part of the country. They are running a small school, teaching French to Algerian teenagers who didn't write any language at all.

WORK FOR COMMUNISM
Signs in the headquarters urge everybody to work for communism and against corruption, capitalism and dishonesty. One of Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella's slogans urges Algerians to be ready to die for the country.

Raoulin has his home a short distance away, in the village. Russians have called on him and he has visited the Soviet camp but they don't see much of one another. He runs a library where he teaches French and English to Algerians. His wife teaches a kindergarten and primary class. In a little church he preaches in French and a translator converts it into Kabyle since this is Kabyle country — an old center of resistance against the French.

"I tell the stories from the Bible," he said. "They like the stories where the good people triumph over the bad."

Many of those Bible stories also are in the Koran, and they sound familiar to some of the 150 or so villagers who crowd into the church on Sunday.

Recently the League of Algerian Youth invited him to give English lessons in their clubhouse. The first night was a great success but when he came the second night it was clear they had not asked permission from the elders. Evidently orders had been handed down against it, for he was met by blank faces everywhere. He accepted it with good nature and dropped the project.

Young people come to his library located conveniently in a main street of the village. It is far better stocked than the library in the Soviet camp, but he would like more illustrated American magazines.

The Soviet camp will contain a small hospital. The Methodists have been running a hospital at Zeouli, also in the Kabyle country, for more than 30 years.

The Russians are expected to bring in machinery to show the villagers modern farming. That will make an impression, but so far the pastor is doing all right.

The minister's father, Anthony, a tool maker who was born in Italy, lives at Collingwood, N.J.

Living on $60 for a Week, Family Takes In 4 Orphans

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — A Salvation Army family of four, living on $60 a week, has taken four orphaned children into their home.

"We want to be able to give them the love they need and want," said Capt. Bill McFarland.

"Anyone would have done the same thing. It's something you don't have to think about. You just know what to do."

McFarland and his wife took the children after they found their 71-year-old father, a retired laborer, dead on Thanksgiving Day.

'CALLED ME'
"They didn't know who to call, so they called me," McFarland said.

"I was their pastor. And most often people turn to their pastors in a time of need. They had relatives here but they didn't know how to get in touch with them right away."

McFarland refused to name the children and would not allow them to be photographed. He would say only that the two boys were 11 and 14 years old and the girls were 15 and 16.

"We want them to understand that we took them because we love them and not for any glory," he said.

NO BURDEN
"It isn't a burden," Mrs. McFarland said. "Both girls help in the kitchen and even the youngest boy wants to help set the table."

"We all sat down and had a little talk," her husband said. "I said I was head of the family and I made the decisions."

Mrs. McFarland said their own children, a girl, 7, and a boy, 3, loved having the four.

Asked how she felt about suddenly doubling the size of her family, Mrs. McFarland replied, "I'm used to it. I was raised in a large family."

3-BEDROOM HOUSE

The McFarlands live in a three-bedroom house provided by the Salvation Army. McFarland, 30, has charge of all the army's activities here.

The McFarlands said juvenile authorities had granted them temporary custody of the children and such custody could be continued indefinitely.

McFarland said there would be no financial problems because the children would receive Social Security benefits which would care for them until they finish school.

"The only thing I'm worried about is being equipped to handle teen-agers," he said, "especially teen-aged girls and their boyfriends."

Cites Savings in Job Training

LANSING (AP)—The nation's taxpayers spent $2,716 at a training center in Lansing to prepare two men for jobs, and stand to save about $7,000 a year as a result, the center's director says.

The $7,000 is what the two men would have been drawing in welfare payments if they hadn't attended the center, said John Gaffney.

The men were among 150 persons who ended up at the center because they were unemployable. Some could not read or write.

CUBAN REFUGEES

The two cited by Gaffney had been well-educated. But they were Cuban refugees who could not read or write English. One had been a pharmacist, the other a radio-television technician.

After five months at the center, Gaffney said, they read, wrote and spoke English, and both are earning more than $100 weekly in new jobs.

Officials of the center describe it as one of the nation's first anti-poverty projects. Funds come from the Department of Labor and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The Michigan Catholic Conference sponsors the center.

Few of the students or teachers are Catholic, though.

ABOUT HALF

"About half of the students progressed so rapidly they have already been placed in jobs or are taking vocational training," said Francis J. Coomes, executive director of the conference.

"The remaining students are attending basic education classes and will go into vocational training as soon as they complete this phase of the program," he said.

Among those who progressed rapidly from the basic phase, nine women have completed a four-week nurse's aide training course at Lansing's Sparrow Hospital. The hospital hired two of them.

Eighteen men are taking a 20-week auto mechanic course at a Lansing garage. Two auto dealers each have agreed to hire four men when they complete the course.

Fatal Meningitis Not Contagious

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Doctors reported yesterday that the death of a San Houston State Teachers College student resulted from a noncontagious type of meningitis.

The school's clinic had given about 500 students precautionary shots of penicillin, sulfanilamide or erythromycin earlier because physicians said it was a highly contagious form.

Rebecca Layne Thompson, 18, of Houston died Sunday while home for the Thanksgiving holiday. She left the campus here last Tuesday.

Her doctor in Houston said laborator tests established that it was not a contagious form of meningitis. A spokesman said the college was halting the preventive shots.

The changeover to decimal currency in Australia will take place in 1965.

Juan Peron Returns to South America

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Ex-dictator Juan D. Peron arrived in Rio de Janeiro today on the first stage of his return to Argentina, but the Brazilian government refused to let him continue his journey.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Former dictator Juan D. Peron flew back to South America today, but Argentina's defense minister said the armed forces would bar any attempt to put him back in power.

Spanish police confirmed that Peron—driven from Argentina in 1955—was aboard an Iberia airliner that left Madrid late Tuesday night for Montevideo, Uruguay. He was expected to transfer to a plane for Asuncion, Paraguay, to take up residence there until he feels the time is ripe for him to return to Argentina.

President Arturo Illia was awakened during the night for an urgent meeting with Defense Minister Leopoldo Suarez, Interior Minister Juan Palmero and top army and navy officers.

"The armed forces," said Suarez, "without doubt, are going to act if necessary to support the government in defense of the peace of our country."

STREET PATROL

Inspector General Roberto G. Schuler of the federal police placed infantry, mounted police and squad cars on street patrol in Buenos Aires.

Police were stationed at such strategic locations as power plants, communications facilities, newspapers and radio stations. The extra measures were to prevent uprisings or disturbances by Peron followers.

Palermo said, "We can no prevent Peron from returning since he is an Argentine but he will have to face the charges still pending in court against him."

"And this government is going to make doubly sure that no public disturbances take place."

Peron and his lieutenants presumably have their eyes on the election March 14 for half the Congress and provincial governors. Peron's followers, although divided, can muster an estimated 20-25 per cent of the vote.

The 69-year-old ex-dictator carries a Paraguayan passport. Gen. Alfredo Stroessner, Paraguay's dictator and an old friend of Peron, named him an honorary general several years ago.

Additional Loans, Grants Likely

1965 Alliance Budgets Exceed Available Resources

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The 1965 development budgets of the Alliance for Progress nations exceed the resources available from foreign sources by almost $1.8 billion.

The development programs of the 19 Latin American nations participating in the alliance call for foreign investments totaling $3,107,000,000 next year, the alliance's coordinating committee said in a recent report. But only $1,309,700,000 is available.

The committee said it was confident that the difference of $1,797,300,000 could be obtained through additional loans and grants from international lending agencies, private investment and some rescheduling of the nations' debt payments.

The figures were the key point in a lengthy report on alliance programming prepared by a coordinating committee.

The report praised over-all development during 1964, which it called a "hopeful" year. But it was critical of development and planning in the fields of agrarian reform and private investment. It did not name any countries in its criticism.

EXTERNAL AID

The amounts of external financial assistance needed next year ranged from Brazil's high of $861 million to Haiti's low of $7.4 million.

Argentina ranked second behind Brazil with a budget calling for $693 million in foreign assistance, and Chile was third with a requirement of $351 million. Only 30 per cent of the amount was assured for Argentina and Chile, while Brazil was assured of 40 per cent of its needs.

The report said Venezuela and Mexico were in the best financial and development positions within the alliance. Argentina, Brazil and Chile were still facing the most massive and expensive development programs.

Argentina's position was damaged primarily by debt payments totaling $696 million that come due next year, a figure topped only by Brazil's $725 million. Otherwise, Argentina is in a relatively favorable position, the report said.

LONG-TERM LOANS

The report stressed that the Latin American nations must hereafter avoid short-term financing programs and concentrate on longer-term programs.

The report recommended that 1965 serve as a transitional year for this changeover, in line with efforts made toward the long-term financing goal during the current year.

"If we can have another good year in 1965, then financing will be no problem," said Walter W. Rostow, the United States delegate to the group.

"And we now have governments that appear to be ready to deal with their problems with a new vigor."

KEY TO SUCCESS

The report was specific in noting that the nations themselves, not the external assistance programs, provided the key to the success of the Alliance for Progress.

"What the nations of Latin America can do with respect to self-help is dependent in part on the scale and continuity of the external support they will receive," it said. "Equally, it is true that what can be done for the nations of Latin America from outside depends on their domestic performance."

Speaker at EMU Slated

YPSILANTI (AP)—President J. Donald Phillips of Hillsdale College will be commencement speaker at Eastern Michigan University's graduation ceremonies next Jan. 24, EMU announced Tuesday.

Texas Suspect Held in State

LANSING (UPI)—Michigan authorities are holding a San Antonio, Tex., man apparently wanted for murder, pending extradition by Texas officials.

Andres Reyes Felan, 24, was arrested Sunday on a fugitive warrant for the alleged slaying July 11 of a San Antonio bar owner.

Police said Felan had been living here and working in nearby Fowlerville under an assumed name.

Municipal Judge Earl E. McDonald arraigned Felan on the warrant and ordered him held 30 days without bond to allow Texas officials time for obtaining an extradition warrant from Texas Gov. John Connally.

Injury Fatal to Detroit

DETROIT (AP)—Freda Beasley, 44, of Detroit, died Tuesday, apparently of injuries suffered July 13 when she was struck by a bus in Detroit.

The temperature increases about 90 degrees for each mile below the crust of the earth.

Postal Horse Emblem Headed to the Right

The Post Office Department has discovered that up to now the U.S. mailman has been going one way and his horse the other.

If you are under the impression that relatively few carriers deliver mail on horseback these days, it should be explained that the horse in this instance is the one on the insignie on the shoulder patch every mailman wears on his uniform.

To correct this equine anomaly, the department has ordered 200,000 new horse-in-the-right-direction shoulder patches for its uniformed personnel.

Couldn't the present shoulder patch merely be moved from the left to the right shoulder?

Well, yes. But this would have shattered two fine, old government traditions.

One is that the shoulder patch has always been worn on the mailman's left shoulder.

The other is that if there's a simple, inexpensive way to do anything, the government will figure out a different one.

Nation's High Court Shows High-Hand Rule

The "checks and balances" the Founding Fathers structured into the Federal Constitution made it one of the most enlightened and effective instruments of government known to history.

Under the Constitution, adopted in 1789, America has become the World's most progressive and democratic of nations.

One of the three branches of government thus provided, constituting the checks and balances, is the U. S. Supreme Court.

Conceived as a nonpartisan, non-political judicial body (members are appointed for life tenure) its functions are to protect the Republic against Congressional legislation drawn in disagreement with the expressed provisions of the Constitution, to arrest executive excess in interpretation and implementation of such legislation and to pass on the validity of decisions of lower courts.

The Supreme Court was never envisioned as a law-making, policy-making or law-enforcement tribunal.

But within the last decade — since the appointment of Earl Warren as Chief Justice — the high court of the land has regularly encroached on all three sectors of Federal administration.

Beginning with the notorious "prayer" decision, two and one-half years ago, and continuing through a melange of "liberal" — considered radical by many — decisions that seemed to favor Communists, the lawless and the extremist groups over the respectable body politic of America, the Court climaxed its spree of capriciousness with the stunning "one-man, one-vote" decision that reapportioned state legislatures. In effect, that decision made the various state bodies constitutionally inferior to the concept of the national Congress.

But, seemingly, the fourth element of democratic government — the people — is beginning to make its influence felt.

Staunch defenders of the Supreme Court, many with strong liberal orientation, have spoken out in protest against its arbitrary decisions. The tide of rebuke has grown so strong that the High Tribunal has come down from its lofty perch of reticence and indifference to public opinion to defend itself.

Noteworthy was a recent apology offered by Associate Justice ARTHUR J. GOLDBERG in the New York Times Magazine.

Though he made a good case for the Supreme Court as a collection of nine men dedicated to justice, the question arises as to why one of its own members should have to leap to his and his colleagues' defense in an influential metropolitan newspaper.

We think that the legal handwriting on the wall is plain — that the Court as a whole has become conscious of how far it has strayed from the path of judicial straightness during recent years.

And we think, moreover, that it is the patriotic duty of every American concerned over that trend to keep his voice raised until the Court mends its ways or Congress and the Legislatures mend them for it via one or more amendments to the Constitution.

LBJ Must Begin as World Leader

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — President Johnson, far more wrapped up in home problems than foreign ones, has had a year to prepare himself for asserting world leadership.

He has asserted very little of it yet in any truly visible way. Just because his foreign experience is limited, it remains to be seen how good he is in this field, or if he is good at all.

At this moment American foreign leadership is beginning to look a little beat up and battered. Two good examples: the disintegrating war in Viet Nam and this country's rickety NATO alliance with the West Europeans.

But he must prove himself soon, for time is running out on him.

Today two of his biggest immediate problems were in his lap, seeking solution: What to do about the Soviet Union in the United Nations and how to win the Viet-nam war or at least not lose it in total disaster.

Perhaps in his first year, when he had simply inherited the presidency, Johnson was reluctant to be pushy in foreign affairs, wondering if he could claim the full endorsement of the nation.

NO RELUCTANCE NOW
He can have no such reluctance now after the approval he got in his landslide election victory.

Johnson inherited a bad situation in Viet Nam, but it has steadily been getting worse. Just a few weeks before he took office, President Ngo Dinh Diem was assassinated and a new government took over. Since then, one regime after another has been toppled.

Meanwhile, the Communist guerrillas of North Viet Nam have been making hash of the resistance put up by American backed South Vietnamese, who at this minute seem to be falling apart.

FACING U.N. SHOWDOWN

At the United Nations, this country faces a showdown, unless an escape or some other solution is found. The reason: the Soviet Union's refusal to pay its share, $52.6 million, of the world organization's peace-keeping costs.

Under U.N. rules a member that doesn't pay its dues can't vote. And the Soviet Union has threatened to walk out if it can't vote. This could mean the smashup of the United Nations unless some way out is found.

Relations among the NATO allies are increasingly rocky. The United States isn't solving anything. Even its proposals to defend Europe with a 25-vehicle fleet armed with Polaris nuclear missiles has bogged down.

News Item: General Electric Co. introduced a device that plays narration of a children's story while pictures illustrating the story are shown on a television-like screen. The Show 'N' Tell Phonoviewer looks like a small TV set with a record turntable on top. To operate it, the child puts the Phonograph tone arm on a long-playing record, inserts a film cartridge in a slot of the set, then turns it on.

What's happened to times when children sat tight, close by mother's knee, as lamps routed night? And listened to story, quietly told, of princes and knights all brave and all bold; the Three Bears, and Alice, Little Boy Blue, the Three Little Pigs, Red Riding Hood too. Well, mother's old bowing, or on the first tea, or at the bridge club, or shopping, you see; the children are squinting by a machine that tells them a tale with record and screen.

If child has a question, that's just too bad; machines will not answer curious and. What queries he has he'll keep to himself, returning the gadget back to the shelf. Yet shed not a tear for the eager apprentice, but halt this new marvel, in loco parentis. Goodbye, inept parent, whose tale is no buff — make way for the voice any child can turn off.

Great Lakes Problem

Chicago's American

The United States' and Canada, prodded by a frightening decline in Great Lakes water levels have finally agreed on a step that has been needed for a long time. The two governments will set up a joint investigation of the problem, including a feasibility study of reversing the flow of certain Canadian rivers so, they will feed into the Great Lakes.

The state department made that announcement Friday as a Senate commerce subcommittee opened hearings on the water level problem.

The problem is getting acute. Average levels of all five Great Lakes are well below normal, and in Lakes Michigan and Huron have reached record lows, causing considerable loss to shippers, hydroelectric plants and other commercial water users. The situation particularly concerns Chicago, which is fighting attempts by six states to halt its diversion of lake water into the Illinois waterway.

For years, this newspaper has been advocating the solution now to be studied — making Canadian rivers that now empty uselessly into Hudson's bay replenish the Great Lakes instead. We're delighted to see this cooperative approach taking shape, and hope for impressive results.

Bob Considine Says:

Hearst Task Force Uses Good Questions, Patience

NEW YORK — "Dear sir," starts a letter which must have been misplaced in the dead letter office, because it hasn't yet been received. "I am a student in a journalism class and am interested in how the Hearst Task Force goes about the job of lining up its interviews and getting the stories back home."

Well, sir or madam, it takes a bit of doing at times, but at other times it comes easy. A splinter task force composed of Randolph Hearst and Frank Conniff arrived in Saigon one morning around 10 a.m. and by lunch time had obtained exclusive interviews by chance from Diem, his brother adviser and Mme. Nhu.

Other times, you sit and wait, despite elaborate preliminaries.

Most times there is a call eventually to appear at this or that chancellery or office at such and such an hour. But now and then there is only an abysmal silence from those you wish to interview. And after a week or so you take the hint and get the hell out.

By and large, interviews are planned in advance on the panel's arrival in a foreign capital.

ROUGH DRAFT

We generally compose a rough draft of questions in advance of an interview and split them according to the special knowledge of the reporters.

But when the questioning starts it is not like a White House news conference where the questions have as little relationship to one another as the letters in a bowl of alphabet soup. A subject is pressed and pursued to a conclusion, to a substantive piece of news or meaty quote, before the next item is taken up.

We all make notes in our particular forms of speed-writing, compare them later and sometimes type them all out in order to select that which should be the "lead" and the order in which the other revelations will follow.

If there's a "secret" to all this it is absurdly obvious. The secret is to ask good questions once you are past the door and to find a way to persuade the man to answer on the record.

IMPERISHABLE

The Hearst Task Force may wither on the vine of American journalism. But it is imperishable in one respect: It never quoted "a source close to the Balkans timberbox."

Voice of the People:

Public Should Not Allow J. Edgar Hoover Ouster

Recent newscasts indicate a purge is under way to oust FBI Chief Mr. J. Edgar Hoover. The only ones who could benefit by the removal of Mr. Hoover would be Communist fronts, racketeers, Mafia and other anti-American groups.

If the people of Oakland County sit idly by and allow the ouster, we had better be ready to accept our reward. It is our duty to voice our demands that the House and Senate keep Mr. Hoover in charge of our FBI. We should not allow another blunder like the dishonorable discharge of Billy Mitchell, the reprimand of Col. Lindbergh, or the firing of General Douglas MacArthur.

Readers' Comments Vary on Literature

There are no lewd pictures in the Bible. Reread the scriptures mentioned in Leviticus and find out it says "thou shalt not," twenty times. It tells what happens to people who break the laws and commandments. This is the purpose of it being written in the Bible.

MRS. JOHN PEARSON

Agreed, pornographic literature should not be published — but blame people for buying it.

Evil is in the eye of the beholder. You aren't forced to view these articles. Neither are you forced to read the Bible which could be interpreted as lewd because of the use of language foreign to us.

Lack of sales will put them out of business.

ONE WHO HAS TASTE

Listing sex headlines on newstands is nothing more than excerpts, which by Supreme Court standards is insufficient evidence to declare material obscene. The court rules a work must be judged in its entirety. The Bible tells of David's relationship with a woman that leaves nothing to the imagination.

And what's wrong with photos of the nude female figure? Great art paintings and statues show this, many done by the most famous artists in history. Just where does art end and pornography begin? This nonsense about the body of man being evil while the mind and spirit are good should seem preposterous. The same Creator was responsible for body, mind and spirit. All have a unique way of complementing one another.

The Supreme Court attempted a definition for obscenity in a split decision of seven to two; in the case of U.S. vs. Roth. The high court ruled that "a work is obscene when to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, the dominant theme of the material as a whole appeals to prurient interests."

But who is qualified to do the censoring? An ideal censor would be a Solomon who tried to make his decisions not to his own likes but to the Supreme Court's concept. Instead we use an arbitrarily selected officer of the police department, and a board composed of housewives with spotty educational and cultural backgrounds. In too many instances these are political appointees.

ONE WHO ALSO READS

The article by Prosecutor Condit was a dismal note in the campaign against indecent literature. As anyone knows who has gone roller skating or who works in a factory, one's ear adjusts to the increased noise. When one leaves he finds himself talking too loudly and for a time he cannot hear too well. This same accommodation to outside stimuli and resultant deadening of awareness obtains in the moral as well as in the physiological realm.

The "trend toward liberalization in morals in our society today" and the "more liberal attitude toward obscene material" are proof of the insidious character of this material. Deluged by a constant rain of sex and violence, it is little wonder that the senses of many are deadened to the existence and harmfulness of it.

I should prefer to avoid the noise and the pain which must inevitably precede it — and do something now to make our society the "great society."

Says Employees Fear Reprisal

State Dem Asks for Ionia, Hospital Probe

LANSING (AP) — A Democratic legislator has complained to the State Civil Service Commission that employees at the Ionia State Hospital are fearful of giving information to investigators.

There are allegations that these employees are being threatened with economic reprisals if they divulge information," Rep. Joseph Kowalski, D-Detroit, wrote Forrest Green, commission chairman. "State employees must be fully protected from reprisal," Kowalski said.

TOP CANDIDATE

Kowalski, leading candidate for speaker of the House when Democrats take control of the chamber in the next legislative session, meanwhile asked Rep. Allison Green, R-Kingsford, the present speaker, to appoint a legislative committee to investigate the hospital.

Kowalski cited the suicide there on Nov. 24 of John MacKewich, 27, of Detroit, a patient.

MacKewich had been kept in isolation for at least 40 days that he knew of, Kowalski said. Kowalski previously said the patient was denied a visit by his family while he was in isolation.

Kowalski also noted reports of more than 100 cases of venereal disease at the hospital. "Something must be radically wrong," he said.

URGED PROBE

He called for a committee to investigate the Ionia institution and other institutions to look at this problem and other problems in the management of the mental health program and then report back to the legislature so steps can be taken to correct the situation.

Kowalski said if Green did not act to ask the House Committee on Mental Health to conduct a probe, he would name an interim committee of Democrats to do the job.

In his letter to the Civil Service Commission, Kowalski said an earlier investigation of the Ionia hospital was passed on to the Mental Health Commission.

"This resulted in an investigation of the Mental Health Department by the Mental Health Department, which was not a very productive undertaking," he said.

Police Fight Gun Battle in Times Square

NEW YORK (AP) — Police and a man wanted for questioning in a slaying fought a gun battle in Times Square at 1 a.m. today.

No passerby was hit in the exchange of 10 shots, but the windows of one Broadway store were smashed and three bullets pierced the windows of a store next door.

The suspect ran from 10 policemen who attempted to surround him at Broadway and 48th Street. Officers fired eight shots at him as he fled south on Broadway, and he pegged two shots at them as he turned into 44th Street toward 6th Avenue.

Passersby had gathered by this time, and police held their fire. The officers saw their quarry run into the King Edward Hotel on 44th Street, and they sent in a call for reinforcements.

Within moments, the hotel was surrounded by 40 policemen in bullet-proof vests.

BLOCKED OFF

The side street was blocked off by police at Broadway and 8th Avenue, but about 100 spectators gathered around the hotel and others leaned from windows to watch.

Some of the police, carrying shotguns, searched the 17-story, 248-room hotel.

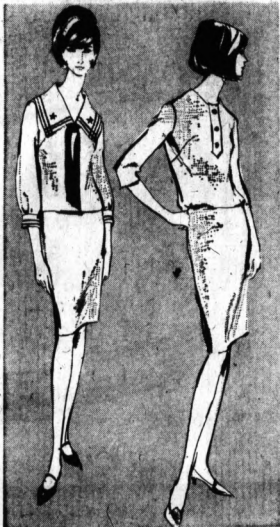

On the top floor, three of them found a door chained from the inside. They kicked in the door and arrested John David Thompson.

He was lying on a bed, with a loaded pistol beside him, but he offered no resistance, police said.

UF to Boost Future Use of Speakers

The speakers bureau of the Pontiac Area United Fund, organized as a pilot group to stimulate this year's campaign, has proven so successful it will be repeated on a larger scale in future drives, according to Donald Frey, executive director of the United Fund.

William L. Belaney, promotion director of GMTC Employees Federal Credit Union, who headed the group, said UF returns from seven of nine firms using speakers showed outstanding results directly attributed to the bureau's activity.

The speaker's bureau reached a total of 518 persons.

The group was started early in October with seven volunteer speakers with the objective of promoting better understanding of the United Fund and the 55 agencies which it supports.

In his report, Belaney cited increases in employee contributions as high as 148 per cent.

BIG INCREASES

Other firms, he said, had increases of 135.5 per cent, 40, 33 and 23 per cent.

"Telling the story has definitely made the difference," Don Frey commented. "It shows without a doubt the significance of volunteers telling other citizens of the work of our agencies and the importance of their individual support."

"Based on results of this year's experience, we will definitely expand the speaking program to reach many more groups next year," Frey added.

Speakers this year were Frank G. Andreoni, George A. Googasian, George Mantyla, E. W. Watchpocket, Dr. Dana Whitmer and Mrs. Frances Zalania.

17-Year Illness Fatal to Girl

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A mysterious disease struck Katherine Sue Groce when she was 18 months old, putting her to sleep. She died at her home Tuesday night after almost 18 years in a coma.

After two brothers and four sisters helped their widowed mother, Lillian Groce, take care of Katherine Sue at home.

Federal Charges Dropped for Two in NY Gem Theft

MIAMI (UPI) — Federal charges were dropped against two local beach boys yesterday in New York's "great jewel robbery" but the two still face charges of the actual burglary in New York.

The FBI had claimed here that Jack (Murphy) the Surf and Alvin (Kuhn) transported the jewels — taken from the American Museum of Natural History — to Miami.

Thus far, however, investigators have not come up with the famous Star of India sapphire, Delong ruby and 22 other jewels valued at $400,000 stolen Oct. 30.

A third man, Roger Clark, is charged with Kuhn and Murphy in New York. Clark was arrested in New York the day after the burglary, and Kuhn and Murphy were taken into custody here.

U.S. Commissioner Edward P. Swan dismissed the transportation charges yesterday after the government asked for a fourth delay in the case.

One-Legged Fisherman Makes Rowboat His Home in Spain

ALICANTE, Spain (AP) — A one-legged fisherman aged 60 has spent nearly half his life aboard a 10-foot rowboat. "Here I will live until the Lord calls me," he says.

Jacinto Belda, lost his right leg in the sea years ago. The story says he lost it to a shark. The crippled fisherman smiles at this and tells inquirers: "Let the others speak about what they do not know. The truth I have decided never to leave my home please spend your money on anybody else who may need your help more than I do."

Following this mishap, says Jacinto, "I promised myself to live aboard my rowboat to the end of my days and I am well on my way to fulfill my promise."

"Many think I am crazy. I do not care. This may sound a stupid decision but aboard I feel completely independent and happy."

THOUGHTS AND GOD

"Here I live only with my thoughts and God. Nobody hurts me—the other way round everybody loves me—and in return I do not harm anybody. I am free of any prejudices."

Jacinto claims that during long years—"so many that I do not remember"—he has neither read a newspaper nor listened to a radio program.

Everybody in Alicante knows him and he waves back to everybody who shouts his name. When officials offered to buy him an orthopedic leg he politely scorned the offer, saying: "I do not need it aboard, and as I have decided never to leave my home please spend your money on anybody else who may need your help more than I do."

Cigarettes and now and then a bottle of wine are the only aid he welcomes.

APPEARED

"How or when" Jacinto appeared at the entrance of the harbor nobody knows for sure.

"We have always seen him aboard his boat," say people of between 25 and 30 years of age.

Jacinto's mother used to come and see him from his humble house in the outskirts of the town, but now says: "I gave up long ago to try and dissuade him. He is stubborn and I cannot go any further in my petitions."

"The sea left me disabled and it was the sea that should provide me with the necessary means to get along," says Jacinto. "And it has not failed to do so."

Jacinto used between six and eight hours every day catching small fish which he sells to fishermen as bait.

"Profits are low, but they permit me to live on my own effort. A broth, some fish or meat and cup of black coffee I cook myself with a small petroleum stove are all I need to survive," he says.

"In summer or spring weather I need nothing. In winter, when the weather cools down a bit, I take shelter in my tent (a tent he made himself with some sail-cloth)."

"Believe me I would not switch my humble rowboat for a palace. This has been my home for nearly half my life and I would like it to be my coffin when I pass away."

Fight Resumes Over Medicare

Sides Are Preparing for Battle in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The battle over health care for the aged under Social Security has been resumed at long range, even though Congress will not reconvene for a month.

In quick succession over the past two days, the president of the American Medical Association called on doctors to fight the legislation — warning them the odds were the stiffest in years — and a principal sponsor of the bill said it could be passed by Easter.

The optimistic forecast came from Sen. Clinton Anderson, D-N.M., who termed it "completely realistic."

Anderson and Rep. Cecil R. King, D-Calif., were coauthors of the bill that came closer to passage this year than any of its predecessors, winning for the first time the approval of the Senate.

STILL OPPOSED

But the measure, still facing flinty opposition by the majority of the House Ways and Means Committee, died in conference, taking down with it the legislation for increased Social Security pensions to which it was tied.

Anderson said in a statement Tuesday he and King would reintroduce a bill with the same basic ingredients — hospital and nursing care for the aged, financed through an increase in the Social Security payroll tax.

"I have no doubt that the House will pass the bill," Anderson said.

In Miami Beach Monday, F. Ward of Duquesne, Iowa, president of the AMA, conceded in a speech to his fellow doctors that "the possibility that a federal health care program financed from increased Social Security taxes will be rejected is considerably less than it was a few weeks ago."

He said "the hurricane that is about to hit us will be more furious than any we have weathered in the past." But he added that great issues are not decided by those who "draw back in the face of a storm."

OPTIMISM CAUSE

The cause of Anderson's optimism and Ward's warning are the same: the big pickup of Democratic strength in the House as a result of last month's election.

President Johnson, starting his first term won in his own right, will have a House with a more than 2-1 Democratic majority — 285 to 140 — to consider his proposals. This is a gain of nearly 40 Democratic seats.

Probe Begins on Loan Racket

Stealthy Invasion of Wall Street Cited

NEW YORK (AP) — Testimony about the nationwide loan shark racket reveals a stealthy invasion of Wall Street and desperate borrowers forced to stake their lives and businesses as collateral.

Witnesses at the opening of six days of public hearings before the State Commission of Investigation Tuesday also told of the part played by the Mafia crime syndicate in the high-interest loan racket.

Commission Chairman Jacob Grumet led off by saying New York State laws are weak and confusing on loan practices. He said the "most nefarious and vicious practices" permit the criminal underworld to pocket millions of dollars. Interest rates often are 2 to 5 per cent a week.

One small-business operator testified he had paid more than $1,000 in interest in six years on a loan of $200. Testimony also was read of a borrower who took out loans totaling $20,000 and was forced to pay interest of $25,000 and finally turned one of his business enterprises over to a loan shark company, which then bankrupted the business.

NEGOTIATED LOAN

Asst. Dist. Atty. Frank Rogers of Manhattan testified about an interview he had with a builder who had negotiated with a loan shark for a $1-million loan for a construction project. The borrower apologized for not having assets for collateral, Rogers said, and the loan shark replied: "Your body is your collateral."

Rogers told the four-man commission that loan sharks have infiltrated Wall Street. He said there are "steers and shills" at work within financial firms.

New Rulings on Insurance for Veterans

DETROIT (UPI)—Many thousands of Michigan war veterans are affected by new legislation increasing GI insurance benefits and relaxing old requirements, the Veterans Administration said yesterday.

Affected are about 56,000 Michigan veterans who did not retain their insurance after April, 1951, and an additional 86,000 veterans receiving disability pensions.

Robert M. Fitzgerald, VA regional manager, said the 56,000 may now reapply for GI insurance, or convert it into a "modified life policy" at a more favorable rate.

Those receiving disability pensions are eligible for increased benefits or for first benefits if they previously had been declared ineligible because their income was too great.

Regional VA offices have available general information sheets on the new insurance benefits, Fitzgerald said.

Charge Father in Fire Deaths

BALTIMORE (UPI)—A father faced arraignment today on charges of setting the fire in his home which killed seven of his 11 children.

Arnold Kennard Smith, 40, who was released on bail last week after spending three months in jail for another killing, was charged with homicide by arson in the deaths of the youngsters, ranging in age from 1 to 13.

The children were burned to death in their home which became an inferno when a gasoline can and a flaming paper torch were thrown through a front window. Two other gasoline cans were found in the dwelling.

The dead children's mother and four other teen-aged children survived.

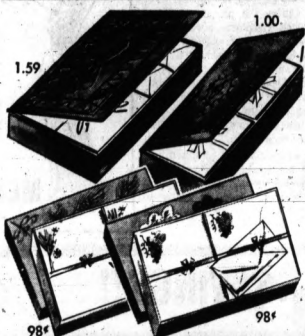

Five hours after the fire killed Smith's children, Emanuel Hoffman, a bartender, telephoned police to report Smith was in his tavern and wanted to surrender.

Smith kept mumbling, "If my wife only treated me like a man this wouldn't have happened," Hoffman said.

The victims were Vivian Smith, 13; Darlene, 8; Timothy, 7; Annette, 6; Kevin, 4; Gary, 2; and Janet, 1.

Lover of Latin Sees the Language Losing Ground in Schools

By ARTHUR EDSON
AP News Service Writer
WASHINGTON—Dr. John F. Latimer doesn't look like a Roman centurion.

Now 61, Latimer has been teaching classical languages and literatures at George Washington University since 1936 and president of the American Classical League since 1960. He is mild-mannered and addicted to such gentle expressions as "by doggies," or "my soul," or "jumping Jehoshaphat."

Yet no Roman centurion ever fought more valiantly for the Latin cause, and, by doggies, if he has his way Latin will be increasingly important in U.S. schools.

It's true that more students—1,200,000—take Latin in our high schools today than ever before. Yet ironically so many danger signs appear that Latin lovers everywhere—each fan cying himself a Horatius at the bridge—are springing to its defense.

ONLY ONE YEAR

Many high school Latin students last but one year; most quit after two, far too soon to acquire much proficiency. And, despite the impressive numbers, the percentage of students taking Latin is decreasing.

Latimer lists three reasons why Latin is in dire trouble:

1. A shortage of Latin teachers.
2. Competition from modern languages. French and Spanish are often offered in elementary and junior high schools.
3. The antipathy of school guidance people. "They can't see its practical value," Latimer says.

In this nation's early days, Latin, and Greek, too, were considered essential to education. A youngster hoping to enter college aimed for seven years of Latin and four or five of Greek. Classical references abound in the works of the nation's founding fathers, who reached for Latin phrases as naturally as a modern politician latches on to the trite and the hackneyed.

LATIN LANGUISHES

But over the years Latin has languished, and Greek quietly disappeared.

Latimer believes that the worst years were from 1935 to 1965.

"There was a feeling that languages, all languages didn't amount to much," he says sadly. And when recovery came, the emphasis was on modern spoken languages.

STUDY LATIN?

But why study Latin? "I think Latin has a combination of benefits no other subject has," Latimer said. "It combines linguistic training with cultural, historical and literary training."

If the subject is taught properly, Latimer contends one can understand a whole society, examine why it succeeded and where it failed and develop that sense of debt to those who worried and thought and dreamed so long ago.

-What can be done?

Latimer is heading a campaign to raise $100,000 so that Latin can hire an official full-time spokesman.

Already Latimer has won support from an impressive list of dignitaries, everyone from President Johnson to poet Og-

DIRKSEN QUOTES

Dirksen not only seems especially designed to wear a Roman toga; he is also one of the few eminent politicians who can, and does, quote Latin at the drop of a polysyllable.

Meantime, Latin keeps bobbing up in the most unexpected ways.

During the presidential campaign, there was a rumor that Cicero was the original source of Sen. Barry Goldwater's well known declaration: "I would remind you that extremism in defense of liberty is no vice. And let me remind you also that moderation in the pursuit of justice is no virtue."

Latimer and eight members of his Latin class patiently plowed through 24 volumes of everything Cicero is known to have written. "We simply could not spot it," Latimer said.

Sure to Be a Deficit

Conservatives Can Unite on Budget

By LYLE WILSON
United Press International

Conservatives of all parties will find an issue upon which they can agree when President Johnson in early January submits to Congress his 1966 fiscal year budget.

LBJ will budget for a deficit, as usual. Deficits have become a way of political life, especially for Democratic politicians. For example:

The four-year grand total of deficit of the Kennedy-Johnson administrations, 1961-64 inclusive, is an imposing $24.8 billion.

President Johnson will add $5.7 billion to the deficit accumulation at the end of the current 1965 fiscal year. That will lift the five-year deficit grand total to $30.5 billion. That is big-time spending of money, especially when you don't have it.

The budget has not been in surplus or balanced with income equal to outgo since fiscal 1960 which ended at midnight June 30 of that year.

NIGHTMARE DEFICIT

There was a surplus of $1.2 billion that year, an Eisenhower surplus. The previous year, however, like had a nightmare deficit of nearly $12.5 billion.

It is not the taxpayers who are falling in the effort—to balance the U. S. budget. Ten years ago, 1955, the taxpayers came up with $68.3 billion for federal expenses and government cost $64.2 billion.

Treasury income in the current fiscal year is expected to reach $91.5 billion, $31 billion more than 10 years ago. But it will not be enough.

The Johnson administration will spend nearly $6 billion more than that, making good on a Parkinson law: that expenditures in government must rise to overtake revenue.

ECONOMIZER

LBJ won for himself a year ago a reputation as an economizer by combing some spending out of the 1965 budget he had inherited from the late President Kennedy. That Kennedy budget was approaching its final form when LBJ took over.

The new President began turning off chandelier lights in the White House while his associates planted stories around Washington to the effect that the country was headed for a record-breaking $100 billion spending budget despite the struggle of economizer Johnson to hold the line.

But, presto, when the budget was published, spending was proposed at only $97.9 billion. Only???

It was made to seem that great economy had been won. That was the idea, that LBJ had performed an economy miracle. Moreover his spending figure was a half a billion under the previous Kennedy year.

So at Kennedy's expense, the image was projected of LBJ as a close man with the taxpayers' buck.

The administration announced last month that the spending figure had been reduced another $700 million to $97.2 billion. But the projected deficit was up nearly one billion from the originally projected figure.

Republicans challenged the economy claims of a year ago and will do so again in protest against the 1966 budget. Moreover, there was a Republican tendency a year ago to challenge the integrity of the Johnson budget as part of an over-all assault on the respectability of the entire Johnson administration.

The Republicans will be under great pressure again to make a big thing of that, linking alleged questionable budget practices with the Bobby Baker case and other items that figured, during the presidential campaign in Barry Goldwater's issue of morality in Washington.

On the issue of big-time spending, and big-time deficits, conservatives should be able to get together regardless of how they may react to the morality issue.

Stress Cuts Down Powers of Extrasensory Perception

By HARRY FERGUSON
United Press International

One day a Duke University student who usually scored well in tests for extrasensory powers began floundering and flunking.

A few questions brought forth the information that a certain girl had arrived in Durham, N.C., thereby diverting the student's mind from extrasensory matters to sensory ones.

If you wish to test yourself for unusual mental powers,

Plan Center for Theology

Detroit Eyed for Site by Protestant Group

DETROIT (AP)—A theological training and study center, possibly functioning along ecumenical lines in the future, is contemplated for Detroit.

A Protestant church group announced preliminary plans Tuesday for a "Michigan Center for Theological Studies" which they said ultimately may include Catholic and Jewish clergy training.

The center would offer basic courses in theology and religion, emphasizing continuing education for the clergy.

Degrees also would be granted, possibly in study programs coordinated with universities and seminaries, the announcement said.

RESEARCH

In addition, there would be research on "religion and society" and training programs "especially tailored to the needs of the laity."

The preliminary plans were announced by the Rev. Robert H. Whitaker, dean and director of the School of Theology of the Michigan Episcopal Diocese, and Dr. W. A. Harbison, vice president of Wayne State University.

Dr. Whitaker is chairman and Dr. Harbison vice chairman of an implementing commission for the contemplated center. The commission includes representatives of the Catholic and Jewish faiths.

The planning for the study center grew out of the work of a study group headed by Michigan Episcopal Bishop Richard S. Emrich and Dr. Samuel C. Weir, former executive of the Michigan synod of the United Presbyterian Church.

PROVIDE FUNDS

Dr. Whitaker said it was hoped that one of the major foundations could be interested in providing funds for the center. A site has yet to be chosen. The Episcopal leader said the school would not follow the pattern of standard Protestant theological seminaries.

"Interviews with hundreds of clergy, educators and laymen, both in Michigan and throughout the country, indicated that certain local conditions and needs called for something new and different," Dr. Whitaker said.

"We would hope," he said, "that in time the center would have Catholic and Jewish participation."

School Bus Crash Injures 3 Children

GRAND HAVEN (UPI)—Three youngsters suffered minor injuries late yesterday when a school bus carrying 22 children collided with a car six miles south of here.

The injured were Joan Brock, 11, Craig Brolick, 8, and Kurt Myers, 8, all of rural Grand Haven.

John E. Dreese Jr., 34, Grand Haven, was the driver of the car.

absolute concentration is the first order of business. Without it, you are bound to fail.

Coleman Cooper consistently showed promise in experiments in Dr. J. B. Rhine's laboratory at Duke. But one day he was called to the telephone and received startling news.

When he returned to the laboratory and attempted to identify each card in a pack, his average promptly fell to three out of 25. The laws of chance are that you can average five out of 25 without any extrasensory powers at all.

GO INTO TRAINING

It appears you must go into training if you are going to have success, both physically and mentally. George Zirkle was coming up with an average of 14 correct predictions out of 25 cards at Duke when he caught influenza.

He continued the experiments in the hospital and his average fell to eight. When he recovered, he was back at 14 again.

Rhine says age is not a factor. He has found extrasensory powers in persons ranging in age from 4 to 60. Nor is intelligence any help because students getting high grades at Duke did no better on the average than those receiving mediocre ones.

A group of 20 children at varying stages of retardation were tested. The most retarded did just as well as the least.

EITHER SEX

There is no difference between the performance level of men and women. Extroverts of either sex do a little better than introverts.

The one priceless ingredient that seems to characterize a person with unusual extrasensory powers is a feeling of complete confidence.

No doubt must ever cross his mind that he is going to perform well above the average.

Confidence, in turn, is helped by a relaxed environment and congenial persons who are putting the subject to the test.

The feeling of confidence mysteriously comes and goes as any professional golfer can tell you. On Monday, he gets a sudden conviction that he is going to sink long puts and he does. On Tuesday the feeling disappears and he starts missing three-footers.

CONTROLLING FACTOR

Obviously the mind is the controlling factor because he is using the same muscles to strike the ball with the same putter. Nobody has found even the smallest clue as to why this feeling comes and goes, but if you should stumble onto the solution, Arnold Palmer would appreciate hearing from you right away.

Whatever the reason, only about one person out of five has extrasensory powers.

One theory, interesting but unproved, attempts to explain why all of us don't have it by going all the way back to prehistoric man. It assumes that in the days of the cave man everybody was equipped with extrasensory powers as an added protection against their enemies.

Gradually the increased use of the five normal senses—sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell—resulted in less use of the sixth sense. It began to wither in a majority of mankind, but for some reason survived strongly in a minority of us.

THREE WAYS

If you are gifted with extrasensory perception, it can manifest itself in three ways.

You can be telepathic—able to receive messages from other minds. You can be clairvoyant—know things about an object, situation or event that is not known to any other person at that time. You can have precognition—the ability to visualize something that is still in the future.

Do you have to be close to the person or object—in the same room, for instance—or for telepathy to work? Not at all.

Rhine cleared that matter up many years ago with an experiment involving Miss Sara Ownbey and Miss May Frances Turner. He explains it this way in "New Frontiers of the Mind." Miss Ownbey sat in the laboratory of Duke University with 25 extrasensory perception cards in front of her. Miss Turner was 250 miles away. They synchronized their watches.

SEND THOUGHT

The idea was that they would test telepathy by having Miss Ownbey pick up a card, think about it and try to send her thought to Miss Turner. Miss Ownbey allowed a five-minute interval to elapse between picking up each card.

The laws of chance are that Miss Turner could guess five of the 25 cards correctly without any telepathy at all.

On the first test she got 19 and on the next two 17. Over an extended period of time, she averaged 10.1—twice what the law of averages dictates.

There is some evidence that telepathy is more effective at a distance than it is when the two persons occupy the same room.

Rhine's hypothesis is that the receiver of the messages can concentrate better because he is not distracted by the presence of another person in the room.

Foreign News Commentary

Congo Mercy Mission Follows Cold War Pattern

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

The agonies of those who died, of the fortunate ones who were saved and of those who have been left behind came forth all too clearly in the accounts of the joint U.S.-Belgian rescue mission to the Congo.

And it becomes the more unfortunate that this mercy mission now should fall into the old Cold War pattern.

NEWSOM

The same U.S. planes which airlifted the Belgian paratroopers into Stanleyville and Paulis in rebel-held Oriental Province ferried out nearly 1,700 hostages of the Simbas, or lions, as the rebels call themselves. For more than 80, including at least three Americans, rescue came too late.

Left behind when the rescue mission was declared concluded were an estimated 900 foreigners still in Simba hands, their position even more precarious now than before.

For the propagandists of Moscow and Peking, the operation was tailor-made. They ignored the lives at stake and denounced the mission as a pretext to reestablish Western imperialism in the Congo.

Communist regimes make short work of any demonstration against themselves, but mob action can also be an instrument of policy.

Therefore it was no surprise when mobs attacked the U.S. Embassy in Moscow, and U.S. legations in Prague and Sofia.

In Cairo, a mob made up mostly of African students burned the U.S. Embassy library. In Algeria, President Ahmed Ben Bella promised more arms for the Simbas and even volunteers.

But amid the general uproar which went up from black Africa, there were dissenting voices, and the protests themselves were based not so much on communism but upon black African nationalism.

A voice of powerful dissent came from Nigeria whose Foreign Minister Jaja Wachuku praised the U.S.-Belgian action and said that in a similar situation, Nigeria also would attempt to protect its citizens.

In the United States, there also were doubts. But the doubts were not concerned over the righteousness of the action but whether it had been stopped too soon.

Thus reaction fell into three categories — praise in the West, the cynical protest of Moscow and Peking each of whom sought to turn it to their own ends, and the indignation of Africa based mostly on a widespread hate of Congolese Premier Moïse Tshombe.

Tshombe, as president of an independent Katanga Province early in the history of the Congolese Republic, acquired the hatred of other African leaders for his use of white mercenaries, many of them drawn from the white supremacy areas of Southern Rhodesia and South Africa.

But It Still Will Be Governor's Show

Expect Biggest State Inaugural Due to New Offices

LANSING (AP) — Approximately 100,000 invitations soon will be mailed for what apparently is the biggest inauguration in Michigan history.

Gov. George Romney will be the featured out-taker at the Jan. 1 ceremonies. But the nine-member Court of Appeals and eight-member board of education —both new in Michigan government—will join the governor and other elected state administrators in taking office. The expanded roll call and consequent lengthening of the festivities qualify the inauguration as the state's biggest.

Otherwise, the noon program on the State Capitol steps will follow usual tradition, said Phil Pittenger, a Romney staff coordinator for the inauguration. The program includes a fly-over, 19-gun salute and band music from Michigan National Guard units, recitation of oaths and Romney's inaugural speech. The program is expected to run somewhat past the usual one-hour length.

"As usual, the platform is half as big as it should be," Pittenger said. "We have about 40 more people to get up there than in the past."

The invitations, which include the right to purchase inauguration ball tickets, go mostly to officeholders, Republican contributors, workers and delegates, and practically anyone else who asks for one. Approximately 70,000 were sent two years ago.

No ticket is needed to stand on the Capitol lawn to witness the oaths, nor are there any seats.

"The Democrats indicated they didn't want any invitations sent to their workers," said Pittenger. Though a majority of those taking oaths are Democrats, the inaugural is traditionally the governor's show.

Republicans hope the $5 ball tickets will pay for the program, which is underwritten by the party, not the state. Invitations alone will cost $7,000 to prepare and mail, said Pittenger.

Romney also will have luncheon and conduct an afternoon receiving line in his office. The line ran until 6:30 p.m. at Romney's first inauguration.

"We're hoping the reception won't be as large," said Pittenger, mainly because the Rose Bowl football game matching Michigan against Oregon State will be on television from 4 to 7 p.m.

First Negro Fireman Hired in Muskegon

MUSKEGON (AP)—A Negro fireman, the first in 90 years of Muskegon Fire Department history, was hired Tuesday. Fire Chief Dennis Ward named Harold Wilson, 27, of Idlewild, as one of three replacements. Wilson had been a volunteer fireman in Idlewild where he had worked for a tire company.

The tombs of three Lombard warriors have been discovered during excavation on a building site in downtown Verona. The tombs date back to the sixth century.

New TB Cases Show Rise in Wayne County

DETROIT (AP) — The Tuberculosis and Health Society reported today the number of new active cases of tuberculosis in Wayne County increased by 6.8 per cent in 1963 over 1962. The society said there were 183 deaths in a total case load of 1,429.

Sahara Mishap Kills 13

ALGIERS (U)—Thirteen Algerians were killed and 10 were injured yesterday when a dump truck in which they were riding plunged into a ravine.

Dropouts Anonymous

Undereducated Have Volunteer School

ROSEMEAD, Calif. (AP) — Students from 4 to 40 attend the unusual school founded by Mary and Lester Stewart.

One of the basic courses is learning how to read. They also get lots of advice, a good bit of philosophy and considerable personal attention.

The name of the school, housed in an 11-by-40-foot store building, is unusual, too. It's called "Dropouts Anonymous."

Dropouts Anonymous has processed nearly 1,000 persons. Some have gone on to barber or beauty colleges and some are being trained by Los Angeles County as landscape architects.

HELP CHILDREN

Some aren't dropouts at all. They are children who need special help.

"We tell our students you should like your job better than eating," says Mrs. Stewart. "Because if you don't eat — if you diet — you probably won't get sick. But working at a job you don't like can make you desperately ill."

In 1939 Mrs. Stewart, now 43, left high school in her senior year. It was strictly a matter of money—the lack of it.

Since then she has undergone an intensive program of self-education. A housewife, she is the mother of three sons who have completed high school.

NO TROUBLE

Although their own children had no trouble staying in school, she and her husband, a machinist, became interested in the children of friends who did have trouble. So two years ago they founded Dropouts Anonymous.

The Stewarts don't honor education for education's sake alone.

"Education is learning, not just getting a diploma," says Mrs. Stewart, adding: "And education doesn't mean a thing if you haven't got something in the noodle to back it up."

Mrs. Stewart, a tall, blonde woman who admits to weighing 200 pounds, says she knows people "capable of most anything" who have but a third- or fourth-grade education.

POOR AT READING

Approximately 60 per cent of her students needed help with their reading skill when they entered the tuition-free school.

Classes are held five nights a week from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Friday evening is what Mrs. Stewart calls "true confession night."

"We discuss our goals and ambitions," says Mrs. Stewart. "We toss in an idea and see what happens."

SPECIAL CLASSES

Dropouts Anonymous also maintains classes: in the afternoons in a house trailer in nearby South El Monte, mostly for young school children needing special help.

What about faculty?

"Every student is a teacher and every teacher is a student," Mrs. Stewart explains. "You have a full lifetime of learning if you're a really happy individual."

Three adults regularly help the Stewarts with the program, including actress Ruth Warrick. The others are Cal Edinger and Doris Patterson.

HOPE FOR HELP

British Security Ousters Disclosed by Wilson

LONDON (U)—Prime Minister Harold Wilson has disclosed that 12 British nuclear scientists and government officials have been removed from their jobs for security reasons since 1960. Wilson told the House of Commons yesterday the men were removed because they were foreign-born, had relatives behind the Iron Curtain, or for both reasons.

Sixty-one per cent of the nation's families, classified as poor, are headed by persons who did not advance past the eighth grade in school.

Makes 'em Want to Turn In Whiskers

Remarks Store Santa's Tire of Hearing

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a department store Santa Claus gets tired of hearing:

"Last year I told you I want a bike and ya brought me a pair of roller skates, ya bum. This year I want ya to get it straight. Bring me a bike."

"Let me down! Let me down! I want my mama!"

"We like you to show enthusiasm, Roscoe, but don't you think you're overdoing it a bit? Just kiss the children — and let the mothers alone."

"Hey, fellow, I have to play Santa Claus for my kids on Christmas Eve. How about letting me in on a few secrets of the trade?"

GIVE A YANK

"Of course, they ain't real whiskers. When he takes you up on his lap, give them a big pull — and I betcha they'll come right off in your hands."

"No, Johnny. You mustn't punch Santa in the stomach. He's a nice man."

"Would you mind keeping an eye on my little boy while I go over to the lingerie department, Santa? I won't be gone more than a few moments."

"Whatever, you bring me, don't bring my little brother anything at all. He's been bad —and he pulled my hair, too." "Your 'Ho, ho, ho' sounds a little hollow this morning, Roscoe. I suggest you'd better practice up on it during your lunch hour."

"I know my little girl didn't mean to get her lollipop stuck in your whiskers, Santa. If we can just find a pair of scissors, I think I can cut it out."

"The kid next door told me that Santa Claus is really your father, but you sure don't look much like my old man to me."

"I'm the fire department inspector. It's my duty to check your beard to be sure it's fire-proof. Hold still. Quit squirming. Now where did I put those matches?"

RIP VAN WINKLE

"He's supposed to be Santa Claus, but frankly I think he looks more like Rip Van Winkle — or Robinson Crusoe."

"When he bends down to pick up the next little girl, Jimmy, you sneak up behind him and put this tack in his chair. I double-dog dare you."

"Hey, Mr. Whiskers, I have to write an animal essay for my high school biology class. Can you tell me what the gestation period is among reindeer?"

"You ought to have had better sense than to eat a garlic bread sandwich, Roscoe. I'm afraid I'll have to dock you half a day's pay. The kids won't come within a mile of you now."

"How are you fixed for blades, fatso?"

'Some Heart Trouble Mental'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Some heart disease may be imaginary — brought on by the patient's fears and his doctor's words or attitudes, a heart specialist said today.

The patients may have symptoms ranging from chest pains to dizziness, from fatigue to palpitations, explained Dr. John W. Keyes, of Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital.

"Once symptoms of this type have occurred, they of themselves can produce a vicious cycle of anxiety which convinces the patient that heart disease is actually present . . ." he said.

Doctors should take special measures with patients they know to have some emotional problems or those with a great fear of heart disease, Keyes told a scientific meeting of the American Medical Association. The physician must take time to reassure such patients, he said.

CLOSED DOORS

AMA committees worked behind closed doors yesterday on reports on two controversial subjects before the convention, the doctor's role in birth control and medical care for the aged.

A report encouraging doctors to take increased responsibility in prescribing birth control methods recommended "that the prescription of child-spacing measures should be made available to all patients who require them, consistent with their creed and mores, whether they obtain their medical care through private physicians or community - supported health services."

JOLLY GOODFELLOWS — Part of the fun of being a Goodfellow is in the wrapping of gifts, as demonstrated by Patrick Chaplow (left) and Commerce Fire Chief Clarence Kuttkuhn, second vice president of the Commerce Township Goodfellows. But the greater thrill will come when the gifts are distributed to needy children in the area. Funds for their work will be earned by the Commerce Goodfellows Saturday when they sell The Pontiac Press at major intersections in Walled Lake and Commerce Township, starting at 7 a.m.

Rotary Club Annual Paper Sale to Sell Papers Planned in 2 Areas

Clarkston Goodfellow Sale Friday, Saturday

CLARKSTON — Members of the Clarkston Rotary Club will be on the streets Friday and Saturday hawking newspapers in their annual Goodfellow sale to aid the area's needy youngsters.

Chairman Jess Berg said that the Rotarians have set a goal of $1,250 this year, the highest target yet.

Proceeds of the sale will be used to buy shoes for youngsters who otherwise might not have proper footwear for the holiday season.

The 42 Rotarians participating in the sale will split into two teams. Under ApMadoc will captain one team and Ernest Denne will lead the other.

Besides the Goodfellow sale, Rotarians raise funds for their various community activities by periodic pancake suppers and a fruit cake sale now in progress.

They contribute an annual check to the Crippled Children's Home and on Christmas Eve distribute flowers and cigars to the area's elderly citizens.

Constable Workshop

EAST LANSING (AP) — The Michigan Constables Association has planned a workshop on police work for its members Saturday and Sunday at Kellogg Center at Michigan State University.

Stopped as Speeders

3 Held in Holdup

TROY — Speeding led to the capture of three young Mount Clemens men suspected of participating in an armed robbery.

Policemen Quick to Answer Bank Burglary Alarm

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Detective William Beemer stopped in at an Old Kent Bank & Trust Co. branch here Tuesday to cash his paycheck.

His partner, Detective Dennis Booker, waited outside in the bank's patrol car. Suddenly its radio blurted: "Bank robbery alarm. Old Kent Bank." The address was the branch with Beemer inside.

Booker raced into the bank as Beemer came sauntering out. He, did you know this bank's being held up?" Booker asked.

"Huh?" Beemer replied. Inside they learned that a clerk's foot accidentally had touched a button which rings an alarm at police headquarters but is not heard at the bank.

Parade to Launch Yule Season

ROCHESTER—The sights and sounds of Christmas—Santa Claus, toys, clowns, sleigh bells, horns and drums—will signal the advent of the Yuletide season in Rochester Saturday afternoon.

The occasion will be the 13th annual Christmas parade sponsored by the Rochester Area Chamber of Commerce.

Featured in the line of march will be some 10 floats, entered by area service clubs, Girl Scout troops, organizations and business places.

Three girls' precision drill teams, the Taylor Maids from Royal Oak, the Rae-Vans from Pontiac and Grass Roots Organization of Women Voters from Utica, also will strut out along the parade route.

All will be vying for trophies in five categories—grand prize for the most outstanding float, best commercial float, best homemade float and first and second place marching units.

PROVIDING MUSIC
Providing the music to keep the marchers in step will be the Rochester senior and two junior high school bands.

Parade cochairmen are Joseph A. Watson Jr. and Harold Milton.

The parade will form at 2:30 p.m. at Woodward and Main under the direction of Rochester Councilman Roy Rebold, parade marshal.

the evening of the parade last year.

This event was postponed this year to give area girls more time to prepare a talent, necessary for the contest winner to go on to the Miss Michigan Pageant next spring.

Others to be riding in open convertibles will include Village President John O'Donnell and Cyril E. Miller, Avon Township supervisor.

SPECIAL ATTRACTION
A special attraction from Canada this year will be Winky, the clown, riding in a small imported truck.

In addition, the local YMCA

Commerce Twp. Father, Son 'Dairy Farmers of the Year'

One of Oakland County's youngest dairy farmers, 20-year-old Douglas Long, last night took home the trophy he and his father won for being tops in their field.

Because of a commitment to his church, G. Carlos Long missed his first county dairy banquet in the 26-year history of the event.

He and his son were named Oakland County Dairy Farmers of the Year for 1964.

Doug has joined his father in the operation of Long Haven at 3908 Sleeth, Commerce Township.

Their herd of 55 Holstein cows contains many classified as outstanding by the National Holstein Association. The record set this year is the result of a successful dairy program carried on for several years.

HERD PRODUCTION
The herd produced an average of 13,818 pounds of milk and 503 pounds of butterfat per cow.

Long Haven has been operated by the family for some 20 years. All members of the family have been active in dairy farming and farm-related activities in the county.

Doug has three sisters, Mrs. Gary McDowell, Brenda and Claudia. All have been or are members of the Milford 4-H Club.

Doug won an award for dairy showmanship at the State Black and White Show four years ago. The next year he was cited on the state level for efficient dairy production and two years ago he was a delegate to the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

of the top dairy farm besides the herd's high production are improvements made in farm management during the year and contributions to the county dairy program.

Judges for the award are Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA) directors. The long are members of DHIA No. 2.

OTHER AWARDS
Winner of the honorable mention for DHIA District No. 2 was Lyle Dunham of 270 Row-

Speed Limit on Coolidge Set by Troy

TROY — The City Commission has established a 35-mile-per-hour speed limit on Coolidge from Maple to Derby roads, in line with recommendations by the traffic and safety committee.

A recommendation from that committee to establish a speed limit of 40 miles per hour on Coolidge from Derby Road to South Boulevard has been referred back to the committee for further study.

And, although the committee favored establishment of a "no parking" zone along Coolidge from Maple to Derby, the City Commission has decided to take no action at present.

The speed limit set for Coolidge from Maple to Derby matches that established earlier from Maple to the south city limits, and the limit set by Royal Oak to the south.

Daivson Man Is Killed in Ontario Car Crash

WARWICK, Ont. (AP)—Frederick E. Duesberry, 47, of Davison, Mich., was killed and a Toronto man injured Tuesday when their cars collided 25 miles east of Sarnia, police said.

Injured was Dalton William Higgs, 56. The collision occurred on Highway 22, just west of here.

Canadians Dislike the Giant Shadow Cast Over Their Country by U.S.

(EDITOR'S NOTE — The United States cast a giant shadow over its neighbor to the north — and Canadians don't like it. "We're not just Americans who play hockey," Canadians declare. The following third of five articles explores just where American influence is greatest in Canada and areas of irritation.)

By MAX HARRELSON

OTTAWA (AP) — The border between the United States and Canada often has been described as the longest undefended frontier in the world. It also has been called "the unequal border."

Some Canadians think the latter is more meaningful, since it calls attention to the disparity in the size and influence of the two neighbors — a factor which has an important bearing on their relations.

It is not fear of a military attack that bothers Canadians; it is the constantly growing shadow of the giant south of the border.

There is a serious concern that Canada's identity may be blurred — or even destroyed — by a gradual and unconscious extension of U.S. influence and culture. There undoubtedly is national pride involved.

U.S. PENETRATION

Everywhere Canadians see evidence of creeping U.S. penetration — magazines, books, motion pictures, television shows, automobiles, even the same kinds of soap powders and cake mixes.

And in English-Canada they speak the same language even with a similar accent. This led one Canadian to ask sarcastically whether English-Canadians really exist or whether they are "just Americans who play hockey."

A U.S. official remarked:

"It is a popular notion that Canadians and Americans beam so warmly at each other across the boundary line that the Great Lakes never quite freeze solid. The truth is that these smiles sometimes resemble the twitching resulting from gas pains."

Canadians are generally friendly with visiting Americans and thousands cross into the United States daily. But they don't like to be told that Canadians and Americans are just alike, or that we don't consider them as foreigners.

FEELING EXPRESSED

This feeling was expressed with some warmth in an article by Ian Sclanders, former Washington correspondent of Maclean's magazine. Americans expect Canadians to feel flattered, he said, when you tell them they are just like Americans, and having convinced themselves that the United States and Canada are one, they feel they can take Canada for granted.

He added: "What I am positive of after four years in Washington is that Canada is a northerly extension of the United States, that Canadians are not just like Americans and don't wish to be, and that we should do more to impress the Americans that we do have a national character, a national identity, a national destiny."

But you find it hard, nevertheless, to separate Canadians from Americans when you mingle with them at airports and in hotels.

Millions of Canadians have lived in the United States or have relatives there. And there are tens of thousands of American citizens, or former American citizens, living in Canada.

ESTIMATED 30,000

In Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island alone there are an estimated 30,000 who were either American-born or born of American parents. Premier Robert Stanfield himself attended Harvard Law School before embarking on a political career in Nova Scotia.

In Calgary, Alberta, there is another huge American colony. The lieutenant governor of Alberta and the head of the Calgary Rotary Club were born in the United States. The publisher of the Calgary Herald, Frank Swanson, attended the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism.

This interchange is natural, since 90 per cent of Canada's population and all its largest cities are within 200 miles of the U.S. border.

One thing is apparent when you've spent some time in Canada and that is that the two countries are, perhaps, more closely linked through common interests and economic ties than any two countries in the world.

At the time of the U.S. presidential election, Canadians followed the results with the same interest that they would show in their own elections.

Toronto columnist Bruce West found that most Canadians were pro-Johnson — possibly, he said, because "Canadians traditionally 'vote Democratic' during U.S. elections."

He added: "If you are a strong Canadian nationalist, this tendency among Canadians can be quite distressing. Just when you think that we have the Canadian beaver smacking his tail disdainfully in the direction of the American eagle, something like a presidential election comes along to reveal that the fascinating pull of the great magnet south of the border is still as great as ever."

Swanson wrote a column in the Calgary Herald deploring what he said was the lack of understanding of Canada in the United States. He illustrated his point with a story about a girl crossing the border from the United States for her first visit to Canada.

TRAIN WINDOW

She stuck her head out of the train window and said: "Good-

By God, I'm going to Canada."

When the Toronto Board of Trade heard about this it decided to investigate. It found that she had uttered these words all right, but that the meaning had been altered in the telling. It was clear, the investigators concluded, that what the girl really said was: "Good, by God, I'm going to Canada."

Next: U.S.-Canadian ties.

Report by Treasurer

LANSING (AP)—Income into the State Treasury last week was $63 million, reports State Treasurer Sanford Brown. Expenditures came to $78 million, he said. The balance on hand in all funds was $134.76 million.

Two Step Limit Is Explained

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My problem is that I never learned to dance, except the old-fashioned two-step which I do only with my husband.

When I dance with anyone else I get tense and end up by stepping on my partner's toes.

When we go to banquets, dances, weddings, etc., how can I politely refuse those who ask me to dance without seeming rude or snobbish?

Would it be all right to say, "Thanks, but I don't dance," and still be able to dance with my husband?

A: In the situation you describe, it will be best to say frankly, "Thank you, but I never learned to dance and can barely manage to stumble around with my husband in an old-fashioned two-step."

You will then be able to dance with your husband without offending others by refusing to dance with them.

Q: How should I announce myself over the telephone when I have occasion to call my doctor or my son's school principal?

Would the fact that I am younger than either of these have anything to do with your answer?

A: No matter what your age, in business and professional situations you say, "This is Mrs. Blank."

To the principal of your son's school it might be more enlightening if you said, "I am John Blank's mother."

Q: My husband and I will be sailing to Europe shortly. I have been told that passengers do not dress for dinner the first night out.

Why is the first night any different from any other night aboard ship?

A: The first and also the last night, depending on the time the ship sails and docks, are different from the other nights because the passengers are usually too busy unpacking, or packing, to dress for dinner.

Details concerning the announcing and christening of a baby are described in the Emily Post Institute booklet entitled, "The New Baby."

It must have been a good story that Charles Primer (right) was telling his friends at the 16th annual Christmas party for the Pontiac Association of Plumbing Contractors and its Woman's

Area Unit Will Meet Tuesday

A hobby auction will provide fun when the North Woodward Alumnae group of Alpha Chi Omega sorority meets Tuesday.

Members from Pontiac, Birmingham and Royal Oak areas will gather at the Birmingham home of Mrs. Richard Souder at 8 p.m.

Auctioneer for the home-made Christmas items will be Mrs. John Hannett. Marian Hoag, Mrs. Robert Kline and Mrs. Robert Lund will serve dessert.

Ralph Mossman, representative of the Livonia Junior Chamber of Commerce, will give a short talk about work at the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

PLANS MADE

Plans are well under way for the Christmas Collegiate Coffee scheduled for Dec. 30 at 10 a.m. Alumni will entertain members of active chapters home for the holidays at the home of Mrs. Frank Perry in Birmingham. Mrs. Michael Kelly of Birmingham will take reservations.

Reservations for Tuesday's meeting may be made by calling Mrs. Hannett after 6 p.m. All area alumnae are invited to participate.

Christmas Is Celebrated

Members of the Pontiac Association of Plumbing Contractors and its Woman's Auxiliary met at Rotunda County Inn Tuesday evening for the 16th annual Christmas party.

Following a family-style dinner, members grouped around a Christmas tree for carolling. Mrs. Ezra Mason acted as general chairman for the affair. Decorations were under the chairmanship of Mrs. Curtis Thompson.

Guests attending in the Pinewood and Rotunda rooms of the Inn were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Thornton, the Elmer Conrads, and Mr. and Mrs. William Dorman.

MRS. W. K. BASINGER

Susan Brown Has Married Mr. Basinger

An afternoon ceremony and reception in the Central Methodist Church marked the recent vows of Susan Kay Brown and William Kay Basinger.

Their parents are the C. Emerson Browns of Middle Belt Road, West Bloomfield Township, and the Lyle M. Basingers of Clarkston.

The bride's A-line gown of white peau de sole was street-length and featured a beaded bodice with wrist-point sleeves. White roses and lace points fashioned a headpiece for her short illusion veil.

CORSAGE FROM BOUQUET
Leaving for a honeymoon at Shanty Creek Lodge, she removed a corsage of pink sweetheart roses from her cascade bouquet of carnations and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Roland Highstreet was matron of honor at the rite performed by Dr. Milton H. Bank.

Attending the brother were Lyle Basinger Jr. of Pontiac, best man, and Robert Basinger of Clarkston, who ushered along with Jerry Tiber.

The couple will reside in the Village Apartments Rochester while completing their studies at Oakland University.

Losing Husband to Dog

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a very dear friend whom I've had for many years. She recently lost her husband and lives alone with her small dog.

When my husband is on the road, I invite her to spend the night with me. We have a one-bedroom apartment with a large double bed.

This friend lets her dog sleep with her at home, so naturally when she's here she does the same. I fixed up a "bed" for the dog on the floor, but she wouldn't sleep there.

My bed has begun to take on a doggy smell and my husband is complaining.

My friend is very sensitive so I have to be careful not to say anything that might hurt her feelings. What can I do? I wouldn't give up her friendship for the world.

TRUE FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: If your friend enjoys sleeping with her dog, that's HER business. And if you don't mind sleeping with her AND her dog, that's your business.

But you owe your husband more than you owe your friend, and if you don't know that, you belong in the doghouse.

I admire your loyalty, but your husband's complaint is legitimate, so tell your friend she can't have her dog in YOUR bed, or you'll "lose" YOUR husband.

DEAR ABBY: Is there anything wrong with a girl going with a man who is LEGALLY separated from his wife?

I am almost 19 and my parents have told me that they do not want me to go out with this perfectly wonderful man (he is 27) because, as far as

Eight Guests Attend Dinner Held Tuesday

Eight guests attended the annual cooperative dinner held Tuesday by the Pontiac Opti-Mrs. Club.

Mrs. Carrie Reuch of Mishawaka, Ind. and Mrs. William Daniels, Mrs. Harry Geske and Mrs. Foster Boleu of Ferndale came from out of town.

The setting for the gathering was the West Iroquois Road home of Mrs. Tom Hruska. Cohostesses were Mrs. George Tusan, Mrs. Roland Smith, Mrs. Ray Brash and Mrs. Charles Crane.

Mrs. H. A. Miller and Mrs. Carl Ross presented the program.

Women Voters League Examines Welfare

Public welfare was the topic for discussion when the League of Women Voters of Pontiac met at the Sylvester Street home of Mrs. John Borsvold Monday evening.

Mrs. Francis McGinty, welfare chairman, Laura Belz and Mrs. E. C. Carlson participated in the presentation.

Residence requirements were discussed by Miss Belz who pointed out the differ-

SERVICES COVERED

Services to welfare receivers covered old age assistance, medical care for the aged, aid to the blind, the disabled and the aid to dependent children.

The added costs to the state of removing ceilings were discussed, as was the comparison of Michigan with the national average in number of persons aided, monthly payments and Michigan's rank among the states.

Legislative trends in program merger and trends in administrative merger were presented by Mrs. Carlson. Mrs. McGinty reviewed personnel standards and possible changes if mergers are effected.

Lillian Davidson, president of the group, announced that the finance drive is nearly completed.

MEET TODAY

The Chippewa Road home of Mrs. Charles Sturm was the site of a meeting this afternoon. Miss Belz and Mrs. McGinty led the discussion with the league members attending.

Any area women interested in the League of Women Voters are invited to attend meetings.

Churchwomen Will Meet

The Fellowship of Churchwomen of Waterford Township will meet Friday at 1:30 p.m. in the Stringham United Missionary Alliance Church on Elizabeth Lake Road.

Thomas Thompson of the Big Brother movement will be guest speaker. Election and installation of officers is also scheduled for this meeting.

A nursery will be provided.

The coming wedding of their daughter, Jerilyn R. Wooliever, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wooliever of North Paddock Street. A Feb. 12 date is set for her marriage to John B. Carlson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carlson of Oaknoll Road.

Cranbrook Unit Anticipates Yule With Program

The Episcopal Churchwomen of Christ Church Cranbrook will hold their Christmas program at a luncheon meeting Tuesday.

The morning segment of the meeting will be opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10 a.m. in St. Dunstan's Chapel, followed by sewing and knitting workshops.

Following a noon luncheon Robert Bates, organist and choir director of Christ Church, will conduct the program and present a guest soloist from the choir.

This program will conclude the group's meetings until Jan. 5.

Hold Exchange

Gifts were exchanged at the Christmas dinner party held Tuesday by the Alpha Lambda chapter of Alpha Delta Kappa. Mrs. Arthur Swartz was chairman of the event held in the Fox and Hounds restaurant.

Crepe and Lace Sheath Is the Bride's Choice

Kay Marie Hamilton wore a street-length sheath of white crepe with beige lace bodice for her recent wedding to A. Gerald Lewis.

A satin pillbox held her short veil. She carried a nosegay of white roses and carnations.

The daughter of the Kenneth M. Hamiltons, North Hilldale Drive, asked her sister, Ann, to attend her during the ceremony at First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Galen E. Hershey officiated. Robert J. Newman was best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip O. Lewis of Hatchery Road.

Following a reception at Airway Lanes, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis are graduates of Michigan State University and Central Michigan University respectively.

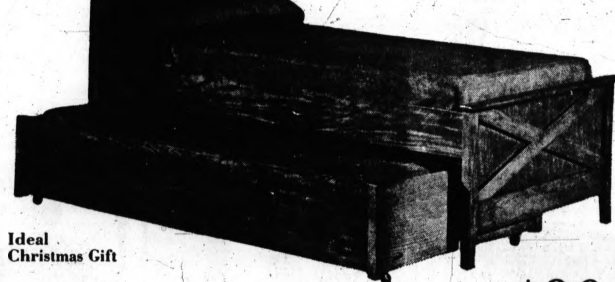

Kay Marie Hamilton, daughter of the Kenneth M. Hamiltons, North Hilldale Drive, and A. Gerald Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip A. Lewis, Hatchery Road, exchanged vows in a recent ceremony at First Presbyterian Church.

Insurance for Loss of Income Is Expensive

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Dear Miss Feeley: Is there a good and inexpensive insurance policy against sickness which would help me to get something if I get sick? I am a bachelor in the early 30s, and my take-home pay is $30 a week. T.Z., Rego Park, N.Y.

There are a plenty of good MARY policies, but FEELEY you might as well face it — insurance against loss of income isn't cheap. The amount of coverage you can buy is limited — usually 50 to 75 per cent of your earnings, or in your case from $40 to $60.

There isn't any one standard loss-of-income policy. Each is individually geared, depending on how much "waiting time" you specify between the time you get sick or disabled and the time the policy begins to pay off.

Naturally, the policy that doesn't begin to pay until after thirty days has a lower cost than a policy that would start paying in a week's time.

To give you a general idea, the annual premium on a sickness and accident noncancellable policy for a man 35 years old until age 65 (figuring your salary of $30 a week) could be $170 to $185. This would pay $250 a month — or approximately 75 per cent of an $80-a-week income — for total disability.

Incidentally, some policies which are spoken of as "noncancellable" actually means what it says — the policy cannot be cancelled under any circumstances, and the premium can not be raised after the policy is in effect.

If you are covered under Social Security benefits, you may at some point be entitled to a specified sum each week or month, as disability protection.

There are "ifs" "ands" and "buts" to such benefits, however. So for detailed information I suggest you ask about it at your local Social Security office.

Dear Mary Feeley: My wife and I have a relative living with us. She goes to business. She pays $7.50 a week for a large bedroom with two spacious closets, privilege of the apartment, lights and TV.

She gets a small lunch and full course supper, plus more than 35 cents worth of selected fruit a day, for $15 per week.

We would like your opinion of who profits most on the deal. And an estimate of how she would fare on her own. B. L., Jersey City, N.J.

From the money angle, I'd say it's a fair deal for all three of you. Actually, your relative could be fed for about $9 a week, on a moderate cost plan.

It would be more expensive for her, of course, if she tried to find comparable quarters and conveniences elsewhere. And she probably wouldn't have two closets! But she could make out for the same amount of money.

I suspect you're feeling underprivileged in the matter of closet space, rather than dollars and cents. Have you and your wife considered switching rooms with her?

Dear Miss Feeley: I would like your opinion on titling to one's church. I know you will probably say each family should work this out to their own satisfaction — but it concerns me that I find it impossible to save 10 per cent of our salary for the church. P.W., Miami

Many families feel conscience-stricken about not titling, and I sympathize sincerely. However, even a church board must be realistic about finances. When there are children to be fed and clothed and educated, income will only go so far.

The breadwinner is morally and legally obligated to take care of his own. So I see no other answer than to give what you can, after examining your budget and your conscience.

I believe that many of us could contribute valuable services to our churches, and give more freely than we do in time and effort.

Most churches need willing hands as well as funds. When you give freely of yourself, you can be more at peace in having to compromise where money is concerned.

Centerpieces to Highlight Holiday Bazaar

Santa Claus and angel centerpieces will star at the Saturday Christmas bazaar to be held from 1 to 7 p.m. in St. Stephens Lutheran Church.

Light refreshments and hot luncheons will vie with candy apples in teasing the appetites of visitors. Handmade Christmas decorations will be the featured items for sale.

Cochairmen of the holiday event are Mrs. Dan Leach and Mrs. John Sauter. Food chairmen are Mrs. Norman Pankner and Mrs. Neldren Paull.

Mrs. Dale Evanson, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. Ervin Miller and Mrs. Norman Thomas are among those serving as booth chairmen. Also working in that capacity are Mrs. William Marlow, Mrs. Richard Haines, Mrs. Mary Carlson and Mrs. Eugene Becker.

Completing the list are Mrs. Clayton Ross and Mrs. Fred Dyke.

The smells and sights of Christmas bring smiles to Mrs. Dan Leach of Mariner Street and Mrs. John Sauter of Angelus Drive, cochairmen of the Christmas Bazaar to be held from 1 to 7 p.m. Saturday at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church. Robert Doty attended his cousin as best man. Seating the guests at the ceremony performed by Rev. James L. Hayes were Lawrence Traynor, Michael Riharb and Gary Holland.

A wedding breakfast honoring the bridal party was served at the bride's home. In the evening, a reception was held at the American Legion Hall, Auburn Heights.

Following a northern honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Pontiac.

MRS. R. L. COVERT

Floor-Length Best
Floor-length formals are still best for gala evenings. Prim Sunday-school conservative jackets of quilted velvet or quilted cotton are making the top fabric scene.

Table linens that are starched resist soil and stains better.

Freeze and store extra ice cubes in plastic bags to keep them from sticking together.

Use an old toothbrush to apply paint remover to carved woodwork.

NO COMPARISON for cozy comfort!

Slip your foot into this warm fleece-lined slipper. Soft vinyl uppers for comfort around the house... durable soles for outside errands. You'll love it for all around. Choose Beige or Light Blue.

Resist Residue

To prevent egg nog residue from sticking to glasses and punch bowl, fill each empty container with water, add a teaspoon or so of baking soda and let sit until guests have left and you're ready for post party K.P.

Be Picture Pretty

When you choose at-home clothes, keep in mind the decor of the room in which you will be entertaining. You'll look your best if you remember that you are the picture and the room the frame.

Niblick Club Names Head

Chairmen for the coming year were announced Tuesday by Mrs. David Warrilow, president of the Niblick club.

Mrs. Donald Niederluecke, Mrs. Howard Grady, Mrs. Raymond Swaney, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. Manley Young, Mrs. Lewis Livingstone and Mrs. Edward Hawley will help guide the group's activities in the new year.

A total of 66,734,352 decks of cards were manufactured and sold in the United States last year.

MSU Students Are Active

By JANE BIGLER

A gala military coronation ball was recently held in the Kellogg Center at Michigan State University, sponsored by students in the Army and Air Force reserve training program.

During intermission, Susan

Jackson of Clinton Road was capped as an honorary corps sponsor for the Army.

Cadet 1st Lt. Charles R. Chadwick of Birmingham has been appointed director of security and law enforcement in his ROTC group.

Several area boys have recently been initiated into fraternities at Michigan State.

Jerry Johnson, Rochester sophomore, is now a member of Farmhouse fraternity.

ADDS TWO

Alpha Delta Epsilon, national advertising fraternity, has added Andrew Rogin and Robert and William Schanlee of Birmingham to its membership list.

An activities carnival sponsored by the All-University Student Government (AUSG) was held in the MSU union building.

Marilyn Morris of Billingsgate Court, Bloomfield Township, and Karen Bronoel of Pioneer Street were among the many students attending the event.

ONE INITIATED

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, recently initiated Elizabeth Benas, a junior from Birmingham.

Thirty-two MSU students from the Pontiac area are currently doing their required term of student teaching.

FROM THE CITY

From Pontiac are Mary Jo Whitfield of Oakwood Drive, Linda Cappel of Lanark Road, Carol Doyle of Baywood Drive, Barbara Everett of Market Street, Judith Graham of Sylvan Lake and Karen Pilzner of Warwick Drive.

Union Lake students include Nancy Gray, Ellen Ferguson, Mary Schulte and Alice Mondo.

Natalie Manogian and Helen Struthers are the student teachers from Rochester.

From Farmington are Julius Toth, Barbara Shepherd and Nancy Lawton. Those from Birmingham include Caron Kimball, Susan Kreis, Gretchen Kuschwa, Susan Lorimer, Teri McCurry and Margaret McLeod.

ADDED TO LIST

Others are William Mitchell, Christine Moehring, Margaret Black, Cecilia Corini and Sharon Stanley. Phyllis O'Connor and Margaret DuMague of Orchard Lake, Mary Pike, Clarkston, Dorothy Button, Walled Lake, and Vickie Ann Brenner and Laureen Pinkerman of Bloomfield Hills are also student teaching this term.

Furniture Cosmetic for 'Face-Lifting'

Furniture gets a face-lifting with "cosmetics" designed especially for the job—a liquid cleaner, wax remover and treated "stubborn stain remover" cloth.

Used together, these products eliminate the sticky buildup of old wax and polish and remove paint specks, nail polish, ink, etc. from fine wood finished.

SEW SIMPLE By Eunice Farmer

Dear Eunice:

I am one of those unfortunate individuals who can't wear wool or wool blends because of an allergy. Unfortunately, I will be moving to a fairly cold climate and wonder what kind of winter coat I could possibly make.

Dear Mrs. H. E.:

This could be a real problem if you are a "freezy" like I am. After much thought, I can't offer many suggestions, perhaps our readers can. The only thought I have is making a leather or suede coat, leather keeps the cold from penetrating even though it isn't very thick or heavy.

You could line the coat in various linings such as nylon or Orlon plus a thick fluffy type lining that always feels warm. You could also use an insulated type rayon satin or crepe. This type of lining is advertised to keep you warm in the winter and cool in warm weather. There are also quilted type rayon linings that have been very successful.

If wool bothers you only when it is touching your skin, you could make your coat of most any kind of fabric and interline it with a special type of lambswool manufactured expressly for this purpose. If any of our readers have any further ideas on the subject, please send them to me as soon as possible.

Dear Eunice Farmer:

Your column is the first thing I read in our paper, I just love it!

Everywhere I look, I see those beautiful "diagonal weave" fabrics. They look for a pattern, and so help me, almost every one of them say "not suitable for diagonal weave fabrics." Who is wrong, if they can be used in ready-to-wear, why can't they be used by us gals who make our clothes?

Mrs. B. B. P.

Dear Mrs. B. B. P.:

I think the diagonal type fabric scares most women—they just can't imagine how this type of fabric will ever work out. In the last two years I have seen many Designer type coats and suits made of diagonal woven fabrics, they cost anywhere from $200 to $700. Stores sell them, women look great in them so take your courage in your hands and make them yourself.

Once you have purchased this type of fabric, select a pattern with as few pieces as possible. There are only two parts of a garment that will NOT work out well, raglan sleeves and shawl collars.

Remember, all the diagonal lines in your garment will be running in ONE DIRECTION, from the left at the shoulder to the right at the hem. Don't try to get a chevron look with the fabric, this can only be done by using part of the fabric on the wrong side which, as you know, seldom works. Try it, you'll love the results—so very professional!

THIRD HAND

When a seam needs to be ripped, or you need to hold any part of your garment taut while working on it, place it under the presser foot of your sewing machine.

Mrs. Helen B. Haaland, Woodbury, Conn., is this week's Tailor Press pressing board winner with this suggestion.

Please send your own sewing tips and ideas to Sew Simple. Perhaps they are old to you, but may be new to others. I'd like to have every state in the Union represented in our list of persons who have won a Tailor Press pressing board. Send ideas to Sew Simple, in care of The Pontiac Press.

Dear Eunice: I have a good cashmere coat, still in style, with worn front edges, button holes, and the hem. I could shorten the coat if necessary, but can anything be done with the other worn places?

Mrs. M. K. P.

For a couple hours time and less than one dollar in supplies, you can not only add a few more years to the life of your coat, but also give it new "zip."

Buy a contrasting color wool braid and bind the edges of your coat, around the collar, front edges, and hem. Also, use the wool braid around the buttonholes, mitering each end to form a triangle. Don't apologize to your friends, but wear your new (old coat) with confidence.

If you desire a dressier effect, cut strips of dull satin in a matching shade and apply the same as braid. These strips must be cut on the bias and will take considerably more sewing know-how to apply than the finished brand.

BOOTH-STEWART

White velvet and rose point lace composed the bride's gown at the recent marriage of Nancy Jayne Stewart and Charles T. Booth. The bride's sister, Suzanne Stewart, was maid of honor and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Donald Kable, was bridesmaid. Richard Kamenski was best man and Charles Moore and Edward Burleson were ushers. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Muri Stewart of South Opdyke Road and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Booth of Detroit. The ceremony was held in St. John Bosco's Catholic Church, Livonia. After a Florida honeymoon the couple will live in Berkley.

Help Olive Growers Crop Is Enormous

Two kinds of cheese get together with onion and coarsely cut ripe olives for fast-to-fix "olive-cheese sandwich spread."

Olive-Cheese Sandwich Spread
 1/4 cup ripe olives
 1 cup cottage cheese
 1 cup crumbled Roquefort or blue cheese
 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
 1 teaspoon salt
 Pepper to taste
 2 teaspoons grated onion

Cut olives coarsely; mix thoroughly with remaining ingredients. Spread between bread or toast. Makes about 2 cups.

Can of Spaghetti Sauce Basting for Duck

This is the season for many a deliciously sauced duckling to be a menu's main attraction. Cut into quarters for easier serving, the duckling is sauced with a ready-to-use canned spaghetti mushroom sauce and baked until tender.

Serve it with a combination of wild and white rice, brussels sprouts and chestnuts, avocado and orange salad, and for dessert, meringues with ice cream. Here is a menu for the most festive of occasions or the happiest of family dinners.

Sauced Duckling

1 (4-1/2 lb.) duckling
 1 (15 1/2 oz.) can spaghetti sauce

with mushrooms
 2 teaspoons lemon juice
 1 envelope brown seasoning and broth
 1/4 cup hot water
 2 tablespoons orange juice
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 1 tablespoon brown sugar
 *Or 1 beef bouillon cube

If duckling is frozen, thaw. Wipe duckling with damp cloth. Cut into quarters. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Place duckling quarters in shallow 12"x3" baking pan skin side up. Bake uncovered for 1 1/2 hours. Meanwhile, mix together. After 1 1/2 hours, remove duckling from oven and pour off all fat.

Spread the duckling pieces generously with about one-half of the spaghetti sauce mixture. Return to oven and bake for 25 minutes. Again, baste generously with sauce and bake for 25 minutes longer.

Meanwhile, heat the remaining sauce to pass with the duckling. Remove duckling from oven and arrange on platter. Serve with rice garnished with mushrooms. Makes 4 servings.

Date Whip

Snip dates into pieces with kitchen scissors. Whip cream with a little brown sugar, ground cinnamon and instant coffee powder. Fold in dates. Serve on chocolate ice cream or fudge cake.

Open Freezer Some Foods

Soft foods, awkward to handle when first prepared such as stuffed peppers, hors d'oeuvres and whipped cream toppings, should first be frozen on a cookie sheet before packing for the freezer.

A method for freezing liquids that will save space in your freezer is suggested by home economists. First, line a square refrigerator dish with a plastic bag, fill with cooled liquid and freeze. After it is frozen remove from container, seal the top and stack with other foods in the freezer.

Bake, Freeze Yule Breads

By JANET ODELL

Pontiac Press Food Editor

December is here and oh! the days fly so fast. Christmas will be upon us before we know it.

Today, we want to give you our pet recipe for Christmas coffee cake. It's one you can make now and put in the freezer. Well wrapped in foil or plastic, this stollen will also keep for several weeks out of the freezer.

I was brought up in Milwaukee where there were hundreds of good German cooks who loved to bake. I can still smell the bake shops where we bought pfeffernusse. But Mother always made our stollen.

Stollen
8 cups flour
2 cups lukewarm milk
1 teaspoon salt
2 packages yeast
1 cup sugar
4 eggs
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 pound butter, softened
1/2 pound raisins
1/4 cup rum or wine
1/2 cup chopped almonds
Grated rind of 1 lemon
1/2 cup each orange peel and citron, cut fine

Mix yeast, milk and stir in 1 cup flour. Let rise. Cream butter with sugar, add eggs, one at a time and beat well. Add lemon rind and salt; combine the two mixtures, add flour and nutmeg. Knead until smooth and elastic.

Sprinkle flour over the dried fruits. Mix and add to the dough with nuts and rum or wine. Let rise until double. Toss on floured board and divide into three or more loaves. Roll out slightly, spread top with melted butter, press down center and fold over like a giant Parker House roll.

FROST AND TRIM

Brush melted butter over top, let rise until double again. Bake in 350 degree oven about 45 minutes. When slightly cool, cover with confectioners sugar icing and decorate with candied fruit.

Fruit Stuffing Fills Chops

Everyone likes surprises, especially when they're flavor treats.

The best candidate for this office is a pork chop stuffed with a spicy, fruit-filled bread crumb mixture. When neatly done, you'd never suspect these pork chops had such an extra, added attraction. How's it done?

Select pork rib chops for stuffing, advises meat expert, Reba Staggs, and be certain they are 1-inch thick. With a small sharp knife, cut a slit along the rib bone, parallel to cut surface of chop. Do not cut all the way to the outer fat edge.

Orange-Raisin Stuffed Pork Chops

6 pork rib chops, cut 1-inch thick
2 cups dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup raisins
1 cup diced orange pulp
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup orange juice
1/4 cup water
Make a pocket in each pork chop by cutting into chop along the bone. Combine bread crumbs, nutmeg, raisins and orange pulp and stuff each chop with the mixture.

Brown chops in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Season chops with salt and pepper. Add orange juice and water.

Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes to 1 hour or until done. 6 servings.

TAKE STUFFING — Yes, these pork chops stuffed with a delectable combination of orange pulp and raisins! It's a neat trick but easy-to-do if you know how.

"If you do not care for citron, substitute any candied fruit. I use cherries and pineapple with just a little citron."

Another holiday bread to be made now and frozen is Poteca — pronounced Po-tee-sa.

Poteca

2 packages yeast, compressed or dry
1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
1/4 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
5 cups sifted enriched flour (about)
2 eggs
Walnut Filling
Melted butter or margarine
Soften yeast in water. Heat milk and shortening until melted. (Do not boil.) Measure sugar and salt into large bowl. Add hot milk mixture and stir until dissolved. Cool to lukewarm.

Add about 1 1/2 cups flour and beat well. Add softened yeast and eggs. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead until smooth and satiny, about 5 to 8 minutes.

Shape into ball and place in greased bowl. Grease surface of dough lightly. Cover and let rise in warm place (80 degrees to 85 degrees) until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour and 15 minutes. Punch down.

LET DOUGH REST

Let rest 10 minutes. Divide dough into thirds. Roll out each portion to rectangle about 10x20 inches. (Dough will be very thin.) Spread with Walnut Filling.

Roll up like jelly roll, start with a narrow edge, sealing edges to underside. Place on greased baking sheets and brush lightly with melted butter or margarine. Let rise until doubled, about 30 minutes.

Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes, or until golden brown. Brush with melted butter or margarine. Makes 3 coffee cakes.

Walnut Filling

2 cups ground walnuts
1/4 cup milk
1/4 cup honey
1/4 cup sugar
Mix ingredients together in large heavy saucepan. Bring to boil and cook about 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat and cool. Spread on dough.

Some cooks prefer batter breads because they require no kneading. Here is a basic batter bread recipe with a Christmas coffee cake variation.

Basic Batter Bread

1 package yeast, compressed or dry
1/4 cup water (lukewarm for compressed yeast, warm for dry)
1 cup milk
1/4 cup shortening
1/4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
3 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour (about)*

Soften yeast in water. Heat milk and shortening until melted. (Do not boil.) Measure sugar and salt into large bowl. Add hot milk mixture and stir until dissolved. Cool to lukewarm. Add 2 cups flour to milk and mix until well blended, 150 strokes by hand or 1 minute on electric mixer.

Stir in softened yeast and eggs. Beat well. Add enough more flour to make a thick batter. Beat thoroughly until smooth and elastic, 300 strokes by hand or 5 minutes on electric mixer.

Cover and let rise in warm place (80 degrees to 85 degrees) until bubbly (about 1 hour). Stir down. Shape dough into desired shape and let rise in warm place for 30 minutes. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes or until golden brown.

*If self-rising flour is used omit salt.

Merry Christmas Coffee Cake has an intriguing streusel-topped Christmas tree shape that's a snap to make.

Follow Basic Recipe through stir down step. Combine 1/4 cup sifted enriched flour, 1/4 cup enriched bread crumbs, 1/4 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Cut or rub in 1/4 cup butter or margarine until mixture is crumbly.

Drop batter by tablespoonfuls into crumbly mixture and gently roll to form balls coated with crumbly mixture. Shape two coffee cakes by arranging balls 1-layer deep on greased baking sheet in shape of Christmas tree, using about 16 balls per tree.

Let rise and bake as for Basic Recipe. Decorate with confectioners' sugar icing made by beating together 1/2 cup confectioners' sugar and 1 to 2 teaspoons milk until smooth. Makes 2 coffee cakes.

OZARK PIE — Kin to a pudding recipe from the same general area of the country is this Ozark apple pie. The filling has a firm consistency. Use the same kind of nuts you put in the filling for a garnish on the whipped cream.

Bacon as Garnish

Crisp crumbled bacon is a perfect companion for many harvest vegetables. Creamed onions, scalloped corn, squash and baked potatoes acquire new glamour when bacon bits are added to them.

Apple Pie Is Different in the Ozarks

The special fancy touch-up given this delicious new apple pie is a garnish of either ice cream or whipped cream with chopped black walnuts added.

It's an Ozark recipe and the walnuts are plentiful in Ozark country.

Ozark Pie
1/4 cup sifted, enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 cup firmly-packed brown sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped walnuts
1 cup finely chopped apples
1 unbleached 8-inch pie shell

Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until light and lemon-colored; beat in sugar gradually, continuing to beat until creamy. Stir in flour mixture, vanilla, nuts and apples; mix well. Spoon into pie shell. Bake at 450 degrees for 45 minutes.

Lower heat to 350 degrees; bake 15 minutes longer or until filling is set. Let cool. Garnish with ice cream or whipped cream and chopped nuts.

Garlic Bread Cubes

Top Bean Casserole

Here's a dish that will bring pleasing compliments from your family on these chilly nights now and all through winter.

In saucepan, cook 1/4 cup chopped onion in 1 tablespoon butter until tender. Add 2 cans (1 pound each) beans & ground beef in barbecue sauce, 1/4 cup cubed mild process cheese, 1/2 teaspoon ginger, and 1/4 teaspoon dry mustard. Transfer to a 1 1/2-quart casserole. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes.

Meanwhile, in skillet, brown 1 slice white bread that has been cut into cubes in 2 tablespoons butter and a dash of garlic salt, stirring now and then. Sprinkle on beans and bake 5 minutes more. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Cream cheese frothed to lightness with sour cream, has chopped prunes mixed all through the blend. Easy way to "chop" prunes is simply to snip them away from the pits with scissors.

Making Candy at Home Is Activity in Which the Whole Family Can Participate

For a family activity there is no more fun than making and eating your own candy. Making candy at home is a wonderful project for the whole family, especially during the holiday season. Homemade candy also is a delightful way to impress and treat your friends when they come calling. Everyone likes candy.

Making your own candy is really easy, and in most cases it doesn't take any time at all to whip up a batch of delicious sweets. But be sure that the youngsters don't eat all the candy while they are helping you make it.

Coconut Chews

1/4 cup white corn syrup
1/4 cup molasses
1 tablespoon vinegar
2 tablespoons butter
2 cups moist shredded coconut

Popcorn Balls

1 cup molasses
1 cup corn syrup
1 teaspoon vinegar
3 tablespoons butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 quarts popped corn

shredded coconut and salt. Drop chews on waxed paper.

Keep popcorn hot and crisp in slow oven. Cook molasses, corn syrup and vinegar to 270 degrees or hard-boil stage. Stir in butter and salt. Pour slowly over popped corn and stir so that each kernel is coated.

Butter hands slightly and shape coated popcorn into 3-inch balls. Set on waxed paper to harden. Wrap balls in waxed paper.

Vinegar Candy

2 tablespoons butter

2 cups sugar

1/4 cup vinegar
Melt butter in heavy pan, add sugar and vinegar. Stir until sugar dissolves; wash down sides of pan with pastry brush dipped in cold water. Boil mixture to brittle stage, 256 degrees.

No Sticky Hands

When making popcorn balls, use plastic bags as disposable gloves. After the corn is popped and the syrup mixed in, pull a pair of bags on your hands like a pair of mittens. Mold popcorn together quickly and gently. Plastic protects your hands from the sticky candy, and the popcorn balls roll smoothly.

Pull and cut into small pieces with scissors or sharp knife. Arrange pieces on slightly buttered plates to cool.

Creole Pralines

3 cups sugar
1 cup water
1 teaspoon vinegar
1 tablespoon margarine
3 cups pecans

Combine sugar, water and vinegar. Cook to soft-ball stage, about 236 degrees. Add margarine and nuts. Remove from heat and beat until mixture starts to thicken. Drop from teaspoon onto waxed paper. Cool.

Divinity Fudge

1 1/2 cups light brown sugar
1/4 cup cold water
1 teaspoon vinegar
1 egg white, beaten until stiff

1/4 cup chopped nuts

Combine brown sugar, water and vinegar, and boil to 240 degrees, or until mixture forms firm ball when tested in cold water. Pour mixture slowly on egg white, beating until creamy. Add nuts and vanilla. Use a teaspoon to drop onto waxed paper or spread in buttered pan and cut into squares.

Tiny Fruit Cakes

Fruit cake batter may be baked in muffin pans lined with paper cups if you prefer to have individual fruit cakes on hand throughout the holiday season, rather than serving one large cake all at once. Baking time for individual fruit cakes is 35 minutes in 350-degree oven.

Go on! Splurge! Dip's Fabulous!

This delightful flavor combination of sour cream and lobster makes an unusual dip.

Lobster Party Dip

1 cup real mayonnaise
1/4 cup dairy sour cream
1 (5-ounce) can lobster, drained cleaned and chopped, (about 1 cup cooked lobster meat)
1 tablespoon sherry
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Salt
Pepper

Combine all ingredients. Chill at least 2 hours before serving. Makes 1 1/2 cups.

Olive Wedges Skillet Glazed With Carrots

For appetizing "Glazed Carrots Olive," glazed carrots are served with ripe olive wedges and chopped onion in an interesting variation on a carrot theme.

Dark and handsome ripe olives provide flair and delightful flavor in a number of vegetable dishes.

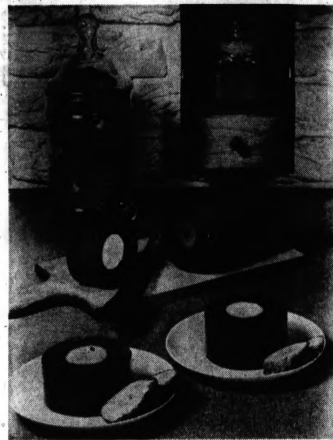

Glazed Carrots Olive

1/4 cup ripe olives
1 lb. carrots
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar

Cut olives into wedges. Cook carrots in boiling salted water until tender, about 15 minutes. Melt butter in skillet; add onion, salt and sugar. Cook over very low heat, stirring constantly until onion is pale gold.

Drain hot carrots; add with olives to skillet mixture, turning carrots until glazed. Makes 6 servings.

Studies of the newest birth control device, a plastic loop or spiral, indicated it is both safe and effective.

BANANA MOLD — Ruby red, fruit flavor gelatin and bananas taste better than ever when presented in a new fashion. Molded in an empty can, this popular dessert combination is served here with banana slices rolled in nutmeg.

Each Little Juice Can Holds Banana-Centered Gelatin

A different shape or a new twist with a favorite dessert is sure to make family meals more appealing. Simple innovations with versatile fruit flavor gelatin delight children and spark a note of approval from the sophisticated young adult set.

The combination of eye appeal with light and refreshing fruit flavor gelatin makes an everyday dessert more festive.

Choose a favorite flavor, probably one of the red gelatins, and create desserts that shimmer in a slightly different way. That marvelous team, fruit flavor gelatin and mellow bananas is not new, but molded in an empty can with a medium-size banana hidden in the center, this will make youngsters sit up and take notice.

Each serving can be garnished with additional banana slices or made into a fancy creation with a piping of prepared whipped topping mix.

Banana Mold
1 package (3 oz.) any fruit flavor gelatin

1 cup boiling water
1/4 cup cold water
2 to 4 medium bananas, peeled
2 tall 10 1/2-oz. or four 6-oz. empty cans

Dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Add cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Place 1 tablespoon of prepared gelatin in bottom of each can. Center banana. Then fill cans with remaining gelatin. Chill until firm.

To unmold, run spatula or knife around inside edge of can. Dip cans just to the rim in warm water. Shake slightly to loosen. Cover with plate and turn plate and can together, or carefully slide out onto plate. Lift off can.

To serve, cut each 10 1/2-oz. mold into 4 or 6 slices, and each 6-oz. mold into 4 slices. Serve with additional banana slices (rolled in nutmeg) or garnish with prepared whipped topping mix, if desired.

A radio transmitter only slightly larger than a pack of cigarettes yet capable of sending signals across the U.S. has been developed.

SAFFLOWER MARGARINE FOR WHITE SAUCE

Everyone has at some time in life known a really superb cook. If you know more than one, you are indeed fortunate; and it just might be that you are one of those people that cooks perform their magic with the simplest of ingredients and plenty of imagination. One kitchen magician I know says she starts off with a white sauce and continues from there.

A good basic white sauce can go on to be cream soup or a base for the casserole. It can be gravy or the difference between plain green beans and Green Beans Parisienne. Let's start with the white sauce itself, remembering that the magic is in the choice of ingredients. You use Shedd's Safflower Margarine as a spread and use it for baking. Make the white sauce with Shedd's Safflower Margarine, too!

Melt 1/4 cup Shedd's Safflower Margarine in saucepan over low heat.

Blend in 1/4 cup flour. Gradually add 2 cups milk. Always use low heat or make the sauce in a double boiler to keep the delicate flavor. Use a large spoon for blending the flour and keep stirring as you add the milk. When thickened, keep the sauce hot over boiling water. Add salt and pepper as needed, of course. 2 cups cooked, diced potatoes, 1 tbsp. chopped chives and a little more milk makes potato soup. Slice up some sharp chives in the sauce and pour over cooked macaroni for a casserole. For gravy, simply add the basic sauce to the pan drippings after the roast has been removed. Put a little curry powder in the sauce and serve on left-over lamb curry. Those beans?

The white sauce, plus 1/2 cup chopped onion and a small can of drained mushrooms with cooked green beans. The white sauce must be smooth which means stirring constantly and you must start with the best ingredients, which simply means Shedd's Safflower Margarine.

BETTER FOR YOU better tasting, too

Now you can get even the fussiest members of your family to eat all those vitamin packed vegetables. Use Shedd's Safflower Margarine to add fine flavor to everything you cook and bake. And Shedd's Safflower Margarine is GUARANTEED lower in saturated fats than any margarine available in grocery stores.

SAVE 8¢ on Shedd's SAFFLOWER MARGARINE

This coupon presented to your grocer is good for 8¢ toward the purchase of one pound of Shedd's SAFFLOWER MARGARINE.

Appeal Judges Will Be Ready

New State Court Set to Start in January

LANSING (AP) — The nine judges of Michigan's new Court of Appeals will be ready to hear cases the second week of January, if there are any to be heard, says Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski.

Judges-elect of the appeals court met Tuesday night to discuss administrative questions, including a budget for their first six months of operation.

Specific details could not be disclosed until the court presented its plans to the Michigan Supreme Court later today, said Lesinski who informally has been designated chief judge of the court.

The judges, Lesinski said, discussed such questions as prospective facilities in Grand Rapids and Detroit. Headquarters are in Lansing.

NO DETAILS

"We can't release any details until we submit this to the justices of the Supreme Court," Lesinski said. "It's a matter of protocol."

The Appeals Court, served by nine judges elected from three districts, was established by the new Michigan Constitution.

An anticipated overload of cases could result from a right of appeal granted by the Constitution in virtually all cases heard by lower Michigan courts. The new justices were elected in the Nov. 3 election.

Show Works of Eight Area Art Directors

The Art Directors Club of New York City will display the work of eight area men, all art directors of MacManus, John & Adams, Bloomfield Hills advertising agency, at a public showing this week.

The collection of paintings and sculpture represents the creations of art directors working in the agency's various offices throughout the country.

Among the Pontiac area men whose work will be exhibited are Edward Kucera, 770 Lakeville, Oxford Township; Dick Salyer, 844 W. Long Lake, Bloomfield Hills; Robert Ryerson, 99 Chippewa, Pontiac; and William Gilmore, 2516 Garland, Sylvan Lake.

Others are Richard Hirm, 1641 Fairford, Bloomfield Township; Hubert Volkman, 1223 Bird, Birmingham; Dick Zayac, 1564 Pembroke, Troy, and Fred Simper, 3075 Spring, West Bloomfield Township. George Sparks of Royal Oak is also an exhibitor.

John Borgzinner, editor of Time Magazine, will judge the entries and select the winner of the Ernest A. Jones award, which is given annually by Jones of 990 Cranbrook, Bloomfield Hills, president of the agency.

Furnace Said Cause of Fire

Waterford firemen were called to the home of Harry Saterlee, 6407 Lotus, early this morning to extinguish a blaze in a first floor room of the tri-level structure.

Firemen said the fire was apparently caused by a faulty furnace. The blaze was contained in the furnace room, but there was extensive smoke damage throughout the house.

Fire officials have not yet estimated the cost of the damage from the blaze.

Sales Up for Clothing, Appliances, Furniture

CHICAGO (AP)—Retail sales of appliances, furniture and clothing in the Detroit area were 16 to 27 per cent higher during October than in the same month last year, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago announced Monday.

Pontiac City Affairs

Okay Court Action Against Scrap Yard

After nearly six months of "arbitration," court action was authorized last night by the City Commission against Sam Allen & Son, Inc., 22 Congress.

Complaints over smoke and noise from the Allen scrap yard have marked commission meetings in recent months.

Residents of the area had sought the commission's help in abating noise from a metal crushing machine installed at the yard last May.

Previously, the commission had ordered legal papers prepared to take the scrap firm into Circuit Court, but tabled the action pending efforts to stop the noise and smoke.

Harold Allen, president of the scrap firm, detailed efforts to abate the noise. He said over $22,000 had been spent to quiet the machine in recent weeks.

Residents of the area again complained to the commission last night and urged legal action.

Mayor William H. Taylor Jr. said that the commission had tried to act as judge and arbitrator the problem.

In offering the motion to direct legal action, Commissioner Warren Fowler, said that he did not think the commission could ever solve the problem.

In other business last night, City Manager Joseph A. Warren said that efforts were under way to partially drain Osman Lake in order to rid that area of septic odor.

RUN FROM LAKE

A 250-foot sewer will be run from the lake to the city's sewage treatment plant.

Warren said it would take two and a half years to drain polluted water from Osman and process it through the treatment plant.

He said that state water and health officials had visited the area and could not recommend any further steps.

"We're doing everything possible," added Warren.

FRESH WATER

After the polluted water is taken off, fresh water will be allowed to flow in from Terry Lake.

"We're hopeful this will clear things up," he concluded.

City Engineer Joseph E. Nelpling presented a report last night on the development of sewer services for the extreme southeast corner of the city.

Nelpling estimated that it would cost $600,000 to run a sewer line from the Auburn Sewage Treatment Plant down Opdyke to Square Lake Road.

He said the sanitary sewer services are needed for the proposed osteopathic college in the area and a projected large housing development.

Said Nelpling, "It will be advantageous for the city to be able to establish a firm date for delivery of sanitary sewer services to the area."

Nelpling recommended that Jones, Henry & Williams, of Toledo, consulting engineers, be requested to submit a proposal on the sewer project.

He said this would cost the city about $20,000 over the next four to five months. The monies could be advanced from the sewage disposal system fund pending final determination on the method of financing.

COMMISSION VOTES

The commission voted to have the sewer construction plans prepared.

In still other business, a plan to set zoning regulations for off-street parking was referred to the city legal department.

Drafted at the request of the City Planning Commission, the regulations would permit expansion of parking for commercial development.

Last night the commission appointed Wesley J. Wood, District 6 commissioner, to the City Employees Pension Board.

PROPOSAL

Also last night, the commission took under study a proposal from the newly-appointed Civic Improvement Advisory Committee.

The new committee suggested that its 21 members be appointed to overlapping terms of one, two and three years.

Renowned Biologist

Dies at India Home

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Prof. John Burdon Sanderson Haldane, world-famous biologist, who made headlines with his experiments and politics, died Tuesday at his home in Bhubaneswar in eastern Orissa State.

Haldane, considered a top thinker and writer on genetics and evolution had been suffering from cancer.

Immigrant Helps 150 Get 'Last Chance at Jobs'

By AL SANDNER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING — Ubaldo Patino, a Mexican immigrant, is spending his own time and money to keep 150 unemployed — and for the most part unemployable — workers from throwing away "their last chance."

Patino, who works nights as a press operator in a drop forge plant, spends his days as a combination truant officer-counselor to adult students at Lansing's Job Training Center, a federally supported training school sponsored by the Michigan Catholic Conference.

"These people — average age 34 and average annual income under $700 — have been kicked around a long time," he said. "They have been called names they now believe themselves." "They tell you 'I'm no good.' We've got to get them to take one step by themselves. Once they get that self-confidence, they're all right," he added. "We have to give them back their pride."

LAST CHANCE

The trainees — Mexicans who have dropped out of the migratory labor stream, Cuban refugees and native American school dropouts — "are getting their last chance. If they don't get anything here, they will be in bad shape the rest of their lives," he said.

Patino is trying to fight one of the more vexing problems that face such programs — dropouts and absenteeism.

"It's no problem to get 150 people into a school," he said. "The problem is keeping them here."

"They come here with so many problems, and a person with an empty stomach or family problems can't concentrate," he added.

FATHER OF NINE

Patino, 43, is the father of nine children, ranging in age from three months to 21 years. Of medium height and balding, the one-time self-appointed truant officer shows up neatly dressed in a dark suit, white shirt and tie every morning at eight.

Patino, who speaks with a Mexican accent, can understand many of the problems faced by the students — especially language problems. He came to the United States "in search of a better life" at the age of 22. Although he had the equivalent of a high school education, he spoke no English.

"I got a job at the forging plant and had a foreman who talked with his hands," he said.

Thief Takes Man's Knitting

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Clive Manley dropped a whole row of stitches — mentally, that is — when he returned to his parked car.

Someone had stolen his knitting needles, three sweaters and a pattern book from the unlocked vehicle, he told police Tuesday.

The sweaters were going to be a Christmas present "for my old gray-haired mother," Manley said sadly. "There's nothing to do but to start all over again. But I sure will miss that old pattern book. It can't be replaced."

WAR PRISONER

Manley learned to knit more than 20 years ago, while a World War II prisoner of the Japanese. He weathered the ridicule of his fellow Navy officers and he never gave up his hobby.

STAY IN SCHOOL

After getting the students in, he started working to keep them in the school, usually visiting the homes of those who failed to show up that day. He worked as a volunteer until recently when he started receiving a small salary for his work. But even some of that goes back to the students.

The absentees may be broke although most of them receive some kind of allowance, depending on their financial need or hungry, or without the proper clothing — or just plain discouraged. Sometimes it's a family problem, such as illness.

He has even helped get people out of jail, but he usually manages to get them back to class. Sometimes he calls a charitable agency for assistance. Sometimes, the money comes out of his pocket.

THROW MONEY AWAY

"I used to throw my money away on unimportant things," he said. "But even if I give money, it is nothing. It is the giving of yourself that counts."

But, he added, he is receiving much more than he is giving. "I am robbing the poor people; I'm gaining strength," he said. "After I see their problems, when I get home, I find that by comparison I have none."

The center with classes ranging from basic writing, English and mathematics to simple job skills is financed by the Office of Manpower, Automation and Training of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Still in its experimental stages, it is one of 25 pilot projects around the country.

SWEEEPING CHANGES — Mrs. Mary Ann Fischer, mother of Aberdeen's famed quintuplets, uses a janitor's broom to sweep out the entry way to the new Fischer home southwest of Aberdeen. The family moved yesterday, a cold, blustery day with snow on the ground. The new 20-room, two-story home is the Fischers' second residence since the quintuplets were born.

FINDS FAMILY MOURNING — Belgian paratrooper Didier Welaert, shown surrounded by comrades on his arrival in Brussels yesterday from the Congo, found none of his family on hand to greet him. They had been told he was dead. A mix-up in official records involving two paratroopers named Welaert was blamed.

Scientists Take Look at N-Power Future

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Nuclear-powered rockets to Mars and beyond, yes. Nuclear-powered ships and submarines, yes. Nuclear-powered planes, no. And nuclear plants to "make the deserts bloom" with desalinated water, probably not.

Two veteran industrialist leaders in the atomic energy field agreed today on these points.

They are William E. Shoupp, president of the American Nuclear Society, and Louis H. Roddis, president of the Atomic Industrial Forum.

Dr. Shoupp is technical director of Westinghouse Electric's atomic power department. Roddis is president of the Pennsylvania Electric Co.

Both said in an interview they believed a new idea will be required for large-scale desalting of sea and brackish water.

NOT THE ANSWER

"I doubt that brute force distillation will be the answer," Roddis said. Other speakers at concurrent meetings of the society and forum have advocated dual purpose nuclear plants to desalinate water and supply electrical power. These include Dr. Glenn Seaborg, chairman of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Discounting the feasibility of nuclear-powered planes, Roddis said, "I can see no purpose even in supersonic passenger planes." He suggested instead that rapid-transit services to airports be established.

The men pointed out that nuclear power is conventional now for new U.S. submarines. But they suggested that both naval and commercial ship builders are lagging in the exploitation of atomic energy.

"Other maritime nations of the world are struggling hard to get into the nuclear-powered ship business," Roddis said, listing Russia, Germany, Italy and Japan.

ONLY WAY
For long space missions, nuclear fission systems will combine the required low weight with high energy per pound, Dr. Shoupp said. He added that the energy source provides "the only way of accomplishing long manned missions — Mars and beyond."

Controlled fusion, elusive goal of massive research, is still at the "dream stage," the two agreed.

"It may be between 10 and 20 years before controlled fusion power is achieved," Dr. Shoupp said, "but it's there."

The nuclear physicists, each with more than 20 years in the field, were pleased with U.S. progress in developing the new power source for generating electricity. And they predicted even more rapid future progress with private enterprise taking a growing role.

The United States leads the world in nuclear technology, they said. "But don't forget that the British have generated about five times as many nuclear kilowatt-hours as this nation," Roddis warned.

"The Russians have no really significant position in atomic power," he said, "but on technology their position is similar to ours."

Romney to Fly to Denver Early

Governors Will Talk of Rebuilding GOP

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney will fly to Denver for an informal meeting of Republican governors Thursday night in advance of their announced two-day session.

The 17 governors have as their target the rebuilding of the nationally trounced Republican Party.

Romney, as governor of a major state and one of the few impressive GOP winners in the November election, is expected to play an influential role at the meeting.

A Romney aide said the governors would try to set up an agenda and possibly frame certain statements at the Thursday session.

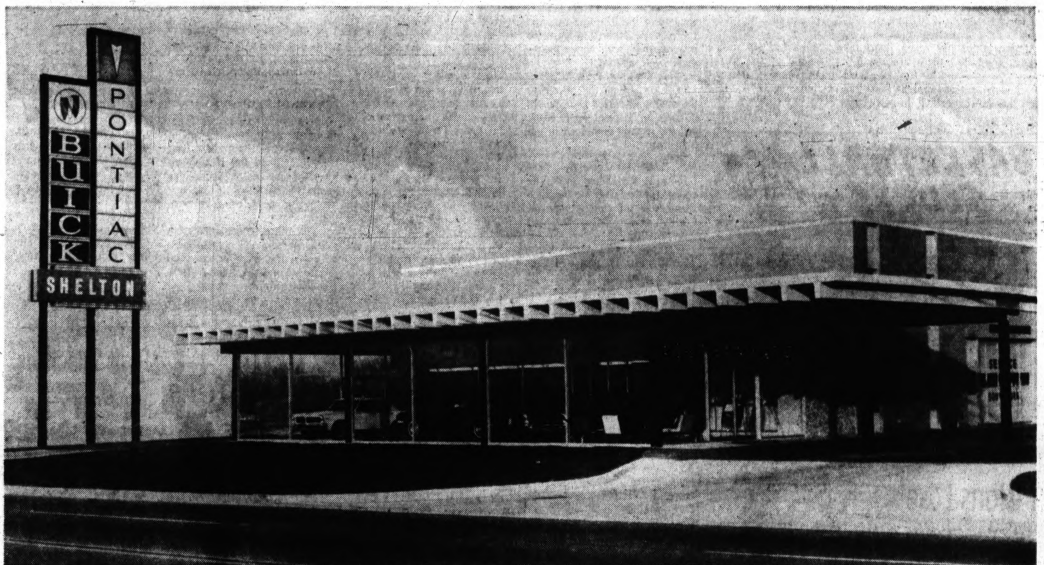

ISSUES CLOUDY

Thus far, he said, it's been difficult to determine just what specifics will be discussed. Romney will propose a national GOP convention or policy meeting for some time in advance of the 1968 nominating convention.

Since the election, Romney has refrained from attacking any segment of the party. He has been rebuffed, however, by some conservatives because he did not support Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Romney has called "preliminary" the suggestion by some Republicans that Goldwater-picked national chairman Dean Burch be replaced.

Bloomfield Hills, Oxford Win Cage Openers

The Barons of Bloomfield Hills overcame a shaky start and went on to post a 65-45 decision over Oak Park last night in the 1964-65 basketball opener for both squads.

In two other debuts, Oxford squeaked by Orionville, 64-63, and Marysville turned in a 76-61 triumph over Romeo's Bulldogs.

Imlay, South Lyon Win First Games

Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows came from behind in the second half last night to pin a 64-54 defeat on Royal Oak St. Mary, the defending Northwest Parochial League champion.

In other games, Cranbrook dropped a 57-47 decision to Madison, South Lyon routed Pinkney, 74-43, Hazel Park downed Fitzgerald, 56-46, Howell trimmed Brighton, 65-48, and Imlay City turned back Almont, 62-57.

Miles Kearney, with 22 points, and Brian Benner with 21, led FOLS to victory. ROSM's Bill Dorr collected 21.

Leading Madison's attack were Jim Combs (13), Bill Tioch (11) and Roger Pelham (11). Cranbrook's Jim Bailey grabbed scoring honors with 16 points.

Junior John Canine tossed in 25 points and teammate Bob Clark added 14 to pace the Hazel Park offense.

OFFENSE SHARP
South Lyon's offense came to life early, led by Tom Duncan (20), Bob Raths (14) and Rick Duncan (11).

Roger Benham and Dale Goodrich tossed in 17 points apiece to lead Imlay City to its third win of the season. Ken Schulte led Almont with 24 markers.

had trouble finding the range in the opening half. Hills held a 24-22 advantage at intermission.

The second half was a different story.

The Barons warmed up in the third stanza and poured 21 points through the hoop to turn the game into a rout. The surge gave Hills a 45-29 lead going into the final frame, and the team completed the romp with 20 points in the fourth quarter.

Eleven players dented the scoring column for the Hills' squad.

Mike Righter led the way with 13 markers, followed by Joe Menger and Greg Anderson with 10 apiece.

Fred Bradley topped Oak Park with nine points.

Oxford knocked off Orionville at the charity line.

The Wildcats made good on 20 of 31 attempts while Orionville collected only 11 of 21.

The Wildcats grabbed a 29-28 lead at halftime and raised the margin to 46-37 at the end of three quarters.

Handicap Singles Extended

Late Revision for Bowlerama

A late revision in the eighth annual Pontiac Bowlerama will give Oakland County bowlers a chance Sunday to compete in three of the tournament's four events.

There are men's handicap doubles squads scheduled Saturday at Howe's Lanes and 300 Bowl; and those two houses plus Airway Lanes, Huron Bowl, Montcalm Bowling Centre, North Hill Lanes and Lakewood Lanes will have qualifying Sunday.

The handicap doubles events will be bowled only at Howe's and "300," and handicap team competition will be only on the North Hill and Lakewood Lanes. The handicap singles action was slated to end last weekend at Airway, Huron and Montcalm; and, indeed, qualifiers have been selected at those sites.

But slow developing interest in this year's tournament has forced the sponsors to request and receive an extension of the time allowed for the handicap singles.

Thus, bowlers may make a new attempt to qualify for the handicap singles finals by entering on a squad at Airway, Huron, Montcalm, Howe's or "300" this Sunday or the coming Sunday.

There is a deadline of midnight today for entrants in the team and doubles action; but new handicap singles entries will be taken through Sunday afternoon.

No singles squads are planned at either North Hill or Lakewood since both establishments have tight schedules due to the length of the team event bowling.

The entry fee for each event is $6. Bowlers use a 70-per-cent-of-200 handicap. One out of every 10 entries will qualify for the finals. The top guaranteed prize on the handicap singles list is $500.

MISTAKE

Due to the accidental intermingling of score sheets from two sites last weekend, the qualifying lists published Monday were not complete.

The list for Huron Bowl is correct; but Airway and Montcalm qualifiers need clarification.

The nine Airway qualifiers were John Mayer, Dave Weitz, Fred Preston, Irv Gray, Ray Thompson, Richard Thompson, Gary Wright, Ernie Kulaszewski and Bill Carter. The alternates are E. A. Pile and Minton.

Reaching the finals from Montcalm were Bill Nicholas, Dave Lamson, Hayes Smith, Walt Maule, Don O'Toole and Warren Waldbilling. Tom Gallner and Marv Ford are alternates.

Saturday and Sunday are the next to the last scheduled weekend for this year's Pontiac Bowlerama. No additional extension beyond Dec. 13th is likely if the finals are to precede Christmas.

Nationals Ace No. 2 Scorer

Hughes' Averaging 26.3 in NABL Action

Fans attending Saturday's North American Basketball League game between Chicago and Pontiac saw a duel between the No. 1 and No. 2 scorers in the league.

Official statistics from the NABL office in Muskegon Heights show that the 33-point scoring spree of Chicago's Porter Merrivether kept him atop the circuit with a 31 ppg average.

Henry Hughes of the Pontiac Nationals, meanwhile, hit for 31 against the Bombers and had 23 in Muskegon Thanksgiving night to climb into second place in the individual standings. He has a 26.3 average.

The popular, 6-3 forward also is connecting at a 515 tempo from the floor for one of the top NABL marks. All last year at Holland Hughes averaged less than 13 ppg.

Charlie North, Hughes' running mate at forward, fell from third to ninth in scoring and Willie Merrivether is eighth, both hitting at better than 20 ppg.

North did maintain first place in the rebounding statistics. Hughes is fourth. Both are averaging at least 14 a game, although the latter has played one less contest.

Pontiac will visit Grand Rapids Saturday night in a bid to take over second place. The other tilt has Benton Harbor at Muskegon.

Cass Lake Stocked With 25,000 Splake

Hybrid Trout Become Legal Next Spring

Cass Lake, long noted as one of the top fishing waters in southern Michigan, now contains a new species of fish that should attract more anglers next spring.

The Conservation Department completed stocking the lake today with 25,000 splake.

The fish, a cross between brook and lake trout, are 10 to 12 inches long and were transported to the lake by truck from the Harrietta fish hatchery.

Mature splake weigh four to seven pounds.

A number of Upper Peninsula lakes now contain splake, but only a handful below the Straits. Cass Lake is the first in southern Michigan to receive the species.

"The lake is large enough and has water conditions suitable for stocking splake," said Bill Mason, Conservation Department fish biologist, of Imlay City.

"It will be strictly a put and take proposition," he pointed out. "We doubt if there will be sufficient reproduction to maintain a fishable population without restocking support."

NEXT SPRING

Splake fall under brook trout regulations. This means that the season will not open on Cass Lake until next spring when the regular trout season starts.

Although one of the best lakes for the production of fish, Cass is not fished as heavily as other area lakes. The numerous power boats and water skiers on the lake are blamed by anglers for keeping them from fishing there.

The lake is considered one of the best smallmouth waters in Michigan and also has a fishable supply of walleyes and lake trout. Rainbow and brown trout, although not numerous, also are taken.

Fishing—particularly for bluegills and calicoes—is rated very high.

Two Archery Loops Planned by OCSC

Morning and evening Denver round archery leagues are being formed at the Oakland County Sportsmen's Club.

Open to the public, these leagues are designed for family participation.

Registration for the evening league will be Friday at 7:30 p.m. The morning shoot registration will be Thursday at 10 o'clock. Additional information can be obtained by contacting the sportsmen's club.

SEASON REOPENS—Southern Michigan's grouse population was just getting settled down to a long winter of peace when the hunting season on the "thunder birds" was reopened yesterday. The season was closed during deer hunting. Grouse will be legal targets in the southern half of the Lower Peninsula (Zone 3) through Dec. 31. The season is closed in the remainder of the state.

Away From Cars

Deer Being 'Reflected'

The State Highway and Conservation Departments are experimenting with mirrors in an effort to keep deer off highways to reduce car-deer accidents.

For a long time, game experts have known that a little light reflected into a deer's eyes makes him stand still.

Solunar Tables

The schedule of Solunar Periods, as printed below, has been taken from John Alden Knight's Solunar Tables. Plan your days so that you will be fishing in good territory or hunting in good cover during these times.

11 Deer Hunters Fatally Wounded

By The Associated Press

Eleven hunters were killed by gunshots, 18 died of heart attacks and 48 were wounded in Michigan's 16-day deer hunting season which ended Monday, state police said.

An estimated 115,000-125,000 deer were bagged by hunters.

Work-Training Program Eyed in Conservation

A statewide plan to set up a $2.4 million conservation work-training program for young unemployed men and women was submitted last week to the Michigan Office of Economic Opportunity by the Conservation Department.

The department's package of proposals, filed under terms of the new Economic Opportunity Act or Anti-Poverty Program, calls for approval to establish some 200 conservation work stations.

As recommended, these stations would be located in 115 local communities.

If approved under the Anti-Poverty Program, which is scheduled to shift into high gear during 1965, the department's list of local projects will provide a wide range of jobs in offices and out of doors for unemployed men and women 16-21.

Elk Season Opens Saturday in State

There will be 16 fewer elk available when the only season on these big animals east of the Mississippi River opens Saturday in Northern Michigan.

Twenty-five of the 300 hunters who received permits for the 10-day season are from Oakland County.

The herd declined by at least 16 elk during deer season. Nimrods who shot the elk claimed they mistook them for the much smaller whitetails.

Conservation Department officials said the illegal kill was "about normal."

The estimated herd size is 3,500 with the majority located in the 600-square miles open to hunting. The center of the gunning area is near where Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Otsego and Montmorency counties come together—12 miles north-east of Vanderbilt.

The Conservation Department is hoping hunters will crop 200 elk from the herd. The season ends Dec. 13.

Five areas are open with the taking of "any elk" legal in four. Only antlerless elk can be shot in zone 2, or the middle area.

Bulls are being protected in this area to serve as a tourist attraction.

The five areas open to elk hunting will also remain open to hunting of other game still in season. But, the Conservation Department warns, only shotguns and birdshot ammunition will be allowed for hunters not having elk permits.

CLOSE TO IDEAL

Hunting and travel conditions for the state's first elk hunt are shaping up "as close to ideal as we could hope for," the department reports.

There was less than 6 inches of snow on the ground yesterday and cars with snow tires can go anywhere in the elk-hunting area of the Pigeon River State Forest.

Temperatures range from near zero at night to a daytime high in the low 30s.

Department personnel flew over the area last week and spotted more than 200 of the animals—including several large trophy bulls.

But, the department said, "December weather in the elk area can change in a hurry. This is deep snow country, and by Saturday you could need snowshoes."

Lack of Logic Cited

Are Movies Going to Pieces?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD—"Are movies going to pieces?" asks an article in the Atlantic Monthly by Pauline Kael, who proceeds to answer, "yes."
Miss Kael, who is billed as an author, lecturer and authority on films, criticizes the growing lack of logic in movies, even the most expensive ones. She cites the swift and unexplained ending of "Bridge on the River Kwai"; the garbled plot of "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane?"; the utter confusion of "55 Days at Peking"; the sudden clairvoyance of Cleopatra in the film of that name; the puzzling story turns of "The Cardinal."

THOMAS

"Audiences used to have an almost rational passion for getting the story straight," writes the critic. "Although the movies might be banal or vulgar, they were rarely incoherent. A movie had to tell some story that held together; a plot had to parse." She concludes: "Movies are going to pieces; they are disintegrating, and the something called cinema is not movies raised to an art but rather movies diminished, movies that look 'artistic.' Movies are being stripped of all the 'nonessentials'—that is to say, faces, action, details, stories, places, everything that makes them entertaining and joyful."

SHE'S RIGHT
She's right, you know. The one thing that impresses a reviewer who sees the major output of the studios is the sloppiness of the product. Today's films are filled with incongruities, pointless jokes, technical errors, and anachronisms that any bright 11th-grade English student could correct in the script.
Why is this so?
The answer seems to lie in the abdication of authority by the major studios. Bosses like Louis

B. Mayer and Harry Cohn were despotic and crude, but they did control things. They and their deputies insisted that a script be finished before shooting started, that the story should be understandable and the casting apt, and that the schedule proceed in a businesslike manner.
"Today, people in Hollywood are more interested in making deals than in making movies," said a top executive.

WHEELER-DEALERS
The wheeler-dealers have moved into the industry, setting up packages to find a buyer, then moving on to the next deal. The film makers are left to their own devices, with no steady hand to guide them.
The influence of European film makers has been chaotic. Working on scant budgets, Italian and French directors have been able to indulge their own whimsies. The results are often incomprehensible to the general public, but hailed by highbrow critics. Hungry for praise, American directors have sought to emulate the Europeans, with dismal results.

Just Another Job Rumor

Keating to Hollywood?

WASHINGTON (AP)—Will Sen. Kenneth B. Keating go to Hollywood next year and become a movie actor?
That's one of the jobs rumored for the 64-year-old New York Republican since he was defeated for reelection Nov. 3 by Robert F. Kennedy.
But all the affable silver-haired senator will say is that he has had no direct contact with anyone from Hollywood.
"Of course," he mused with tongue in cheek, "there's a dearth of mature stars in Hollywood now."
Keating, a smile on his lips, wouldn't dash any cold water on the idea of his becoming a movie actor and even cited some previous experience he's had in the field.

Job, Keating has also been rumored for baseball commissioner, ambassador to Israel and an unspecified post with the Johnson administration.
He said, however, that no one has ever approached him about the baseball commissioner's job and no one in the administration has contacted him directly or indirectly about a government assignment.
Keating admitted in an interview in his Washington office yesterday that he had some job offers in the legal, banking and insurance fields but had not yet made up his mind what to do after he leaves the Senate in January.
He declined to say who made the offers.

Miss Kael predicts gloomily: "Cinema, I suspect, is going to become so rarified, so private in meaning, and so lacking in audience appeal that in a few years the foundations will be desperately and hopelessly trying to bring it back to life, as they are now doing with the theater."
The future may not be entirely that bleak. But it is true that the movies—as opposed to the cinema—need to be returned to the audiences with devotion and enthusiasm made them great.

Ringo Starr Has Tonsils Removed; Said Satisfactory
LONDON (AP)—Ringo Starr, the Beatles' drummer, had his tonsils removed today. A hospital spokesman said his condition was satisfactory.
Hundreds of fans of the 24-year-old mophead telephoned a special number—Covent Garden 2332—for news of their favorite. The recorded voice of Anne Collingham, an employee of the Beatles' manager, told them the good news.
Ringo expects to be in the hospital about 10 days. He took with him red pajamas, a pink toothbrush, 20 long-playing records, a pack of playing cards and a science-fiction novel.
"One thing is certain," he said. "Nobody is getting my tonsils as a souvenir. Believe me, I'm going to have them burned."

Europe Confab Backs N-Force

PARIS (AP) — Legislators from seven European countries endorsed today the principle of a North Atlantic multilateral nuclear force.

The legislators, members of the Western European Union assembly, voted 37-9 with 15 abstentions.

French representatives were among those voting against the resolution endorsing the principle of a multilateral nuclear force (MLF) which the United States and West Germany want the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) to form.

The resolution said such a force should be placed under strong political control of the participating countries and should prevent any spread of nuclear weapons to countries that do not possess them.

It urged the member governments of the Western European Union — Britain, France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg — to join in formation of the force.

25 VESSELS

The United States has proposed a force of 25 surface vessels, each armed with eight Polaris missiles and manned by crews drawn from the participating countries. French President de Gaulle is opposed to the whole idea and Britain's Labor government wants to modify the proposed plan.

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Texas has its tall tales . . . but so does New York . . . and you nick them up in the most unexpected places. It was the big-game season in Colorado. Some hunters start around a campfire at night. A man named Leiber from California spoke about as follows:

"There was this photographer named Charlie who lived in a New York apartment building.

"These New York photographers are often eccentrics, you know, individualists. Charlie liked the daylight for his work, and he was, as they say around Broadway, 'an early-beder.'"

"In this same apartment building was a playboy, a kind of celebrity-buff, who hauled himself out of bed about 3 p.m., if he could make it, and gave parties till 8 a.m."

"The playboy had well-to-do parents in the middlewest who had their own bank. They couldn't let him come home. He was instant trouble. He was known around, and behind his back, as Nutty Phil. A typical day's work for him was signing a few checks."

"Charlie the Photographer was always screaming at Nutty Phil to quiet down up there in the penthouse."

"The rest of us to sleep!" Charlie would blast at him.

"Nutty Phil would be stoned by this time. He'd call the girls and the combo out on the terrace and they'd played louder and dance faster."

"Charlie got Nutty Phil on the house phone and yelled at him. 'You moron, don't you know your guests just come to drink your booze and eat your food?'"

"I'll fix you for that crack!" Nutty Phil told him.

"And so one day Charlie the Photographer got a note from playboy Phil saying, 'I am avenging you one month from today, I bought the building to get rid of you.'"

THE MIDNIGHT EARL
Composer Richard Adler, JFK's favorite producer, and husband of Sally Ann Hawes, will carry on and produce the big Monday night pre-Inaugural Gala for LBJ at the Washington Armory. (The Inaugural's Wednesday, Jan. 20). "Hello Dolly!"

Lyndon's for Carol Channing. "The Wash'n Board of Trade may light up Pennsylvania Ave. like Christmas, give light-turner off LBJ the greatest wattage in history."

Isn't the pendulum starting to swing back against nudity — instead of for it? For the first time, we hear Show Biz people rapping girls who pose naked (especially some who don't look good naked) . . . Edward Blinn, a birthright Quaker, plays a Naval Officer in "The Americanization of Emily," and in "Pail Safe" his plane drops the bomb . . . The Andy Williams project their 2d in April.

EARL'S PEARLS: "What we have in America now is a 1½ party system" (Larry Gore).

REMEMBERED QUOTES: "Francoise was such a dumb blonde she thought rubbush was a French street" — Joey Adams.

"Hereidty" says Peter Calomiris, Washington, D.C. "is what the mother and father of teen-agers wonder a little about each other" . . . That's earl, brother.

Michigan Will Go Even Deeper in Black Than Expected, Says Controller

LANSING (AP) — Michigan will go even deeper into the black by the end of this fiscal year, says State Controller Glenn S. Allen Jr.

Pontiff Flies to Visit India

Record Trip for Pope Is 'Peace Mission'

BOMBAY, India (AP) — Pope Paul VI flew east to India today on a 4,000-mile personal mission he called "a trip of peace and of love" for the people of Asia and all the world.

In a statement distributed as he left Rome on the longest papal journey in history, the Roman Catholic pontiff asked those who sympathized with his mission to pray for his success. With poverty-stricken Asia as his destination, he appealed to the rich countries of the world to lend economic support to relieve the poverty of underdeveloped nations.

The Pope's Air India jetliner took off before dawn from Rome in a driving rain, and only a small crowd saw the pontiff off. Because of the rain, he canceled the departure speech he was to have made. Copies were distributed to newsmen instead.

In it the Pope said his trip "seeks to unite all peoples in closer bonds of mutual understanding and friendship, making them ever more conscious of the inescapable duty of knowing one another, of loving one another from the heart, of helping one another effectively according to the goods received from God in varying measure, not meant for a few nations but created for all the human family."

PAPAL PARTY

The Pope's plane carried 88 persons — the papal party of 20, 28 nuns, 30 priests, and laymen and a crew of 12. The Pope's party filled the first-class compartment, and part of it was partitioned off for the pontiff.

En route the plane made one stop, for an hour, at the international airport outside Beirut, the capital of Lebanon. In contrast to Rome's rain, the weather there was sunny and the temperature 66 degrees.

Lebanon's Christian president, Charles Helou, and its Moslem premier, Hussein Ownei, headed the welcoming party. Correspondents estimated about 11,000 persons were at the airport.

Cannon Is Ahead in Nevada Recount

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Sen. Howard W. Cannon, D-Nev., held an unofficial 88-vote lead today with a recount of Nevada's contested U.S. Senate election virtually wrapped up.

Recount boards in five of Nevada's 17 counties worked against a deadline of midnight tonight to complete the new tally in Cannon's race with Lt. Gov. Paul Laxalt, 42, a Carson City attorney.

Each side was geared to protest, if necessary, recount results in some counties.

Cannon went into the recount, which started in two counties on Saturday, with an official 48-vote lead, but he had not yet received a certificate of election.

June 30, 1961, to a $57-million surplus this year, will see some increase in the surplus by next June 30, Allen said in an interview.

"We had planned to spend $2 million of the surplus this year," he said, "but there will be even more income than we anticipated... in revenues all across the board."

Allen and his staff members have met with financial experts and trend analysts from the University of Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State Universities, and with business analysts of major Michigan corporations.

STILL STRONG

"The general feeling," he said, "is that the economy will remain strong in the coming calendar year—not as strong as in the past 12 months, but still strong."

Wrong guesses on anticipated income frequently have had a happy result for state financial planners ever since the 1962-63 fiscal year, when a package of nuisance taxes went into effect in an attempt to pull the state out of its deep economic troubles. Income frequently has been higher anticipated.

As recently as last May, the anticipated surplus was $37.1 million.

The state, long plagued with deficit spending problems, has since had surplus spending problems—all of them minor.

SOME QUESTION

There was some question, Allen said, as to whether under the balanced budget provisions of the new State Constitution, the state could spend its surplus or could spend only current revenues.

All said the state could spend current revenues plus any part of the surplus it thought necessary, a position backed up by the attorney general's office.

The entire surplus, however, cannot be pumped into the state spending program in any one year, he said.

"We would be in trouble in the coming year (the budget for which is now being prepared) if we had spent the entire surplus this year," Allen said.

"By adding large sums to the budget, you build up programs that will not decrease in the coming years; you build up repetitive demands," he added. "So, if you do not carry over some surplus from one year to the next, you have to increase revenues."

Barry Says Summit Planned With Ike, Nixon on Party's Future

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he plans to meet soon with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon for a "general discussion" of the Republican party's future course.

The defeated GOP presidential nominee said in an interview from Phoenix, Ariz., that he doesn't know where the summit conference discussion will lead.

But he indicated he is willing to cooperate with the former president and the former vice president in trying to bring peace among the bickering factions of the Republican party.

Goldwater said the meeting originally had been scheduled for tomorrow at Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pa., but had to be delayed because of Nixon's trip to Japan.

He added, however, he hopes it can be fitted into the schedules of all three principals before his return to Arizona next week.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

Goldwater made it clear he would encourage the formation of the kind of advisory council suggested by some GOP governors and other party leaders to bring all factions into the formation of future party policy.

"I tried to get Milton Eisenhower's group to continue its work," he said. "I thought they were making some headway."

Eisenhower, brother of the former president and head of Johns Hopkins University, is chairman of the Republican Critical Issues Council.

The council, a panel of leading Republicans, issued GOP policy statements through special task forces during the recent presidential campaign.

WON'T YIELD

Goldwater remained adamant in his opposition to the replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

San Francisco nominating convention.

"They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

Goldwater said he regards himself now as "a free man" able to speak out on issues of paramount interest to the nation.

NO RESTRAINTS

He indicated he no longer feels any of the restraints he implied had been placed on him as a presidential candidate in dealing with intergroupal issues.

Goldwater indicated his criticism may center on President Johnson's course in the South Viet Nam hostilities.

"We're in war there and it's time that the American people found out just how deeply we are involved," he said. "I pointed that out in the campaign and I am going to speak out on it some more."

U.N. Assembly Launching Seen as Victory for U Thant

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The launching of the twice-delayed U.N. General Assembly without a head-on clash between the United States and the Soviet Union was seen today as a victory for Secretary General U Thant.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk scheduled a second meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko today in an effort to win Soviet agreement to help pay for U.N. peacekeeping operations of the United Nations.

Delegates said Thant's patience and persistence brought the big powers together yesterday for one more try at getting the assembly under way without a blowup over the issue of the Soviet Union's unpaid peace-keeping dues and its assembly vote.

As diplomats sat in the General Assembly hall waiting for the 19th session to begin, representatives of the four big powers met in Thant's office and agreed to limit the opening words to general policy debate and noncontroversial issues.

During that time a 21-nation committee will try to reach some solution of the issue raised by Soviet refusal to pay any Congo or Middle East peace-keeping dues and the U.S. contention that it should lose its assembly vote as a financial delinquent.

TODAY'S AGENDA

Today's assembly agenda appeared noncontroversial enough with a parade of speakers slated to welcome Malawi, Malta and Zambia, which were admitted Tuesday to bring the U.N. membership to 115.

Officials Call Budget for City a 'Standstill'

'Austerity' Figure Is Said to Provide Only Minimum of Service

City officials emphasized last night that the proposed 1965 budget of $6.7 million is a "stand still" budget that will provide only minimum city services.

Although balanced without an income tax, it is "in all respects an austerity budget," said City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

Ex-Con Killed During Dispute at His Home

Youth Being Held; Preliminary Exam Is Set for 2 P.M. Today

An Independence Township man was shot and killed last night by his 16-year-old stepson during a family argument.

Dead is Jesse Lyons, 43, of 9905 M15, an ex-convict, who was released from Jackson Prison in December 1963 after serving a portion of a 20-year sentence for armed robbery.

JESSE LYONS

Juvenile authorities are holding Daniel F. Gosley in connection with the shooting.

Preliminary examination was scheduled for 2 p.m. today in Juvenile Court.

Clerk Gets Petitions on Pay Raises

The election-eve raises granted to three Farmington Township officials, already a Circuit Court issue, now appears to be on its way to a referendum election.

Petitions signed by nearly 1,700 township voters requesting the election were presented yesterday to Township Clerk Floyd A. Cairns.

County Dems Pick Chairman

GEORGE A. GOOGASIAN

The 28-year-old Googasian succeeds another attorney, Sander Levin of Berkley. Levin recently was elected state senator from the county's 15th District.

The Democratic Executive Committee elected Googasian, 195 E. Ironquois, and other party officers at a meeting in the Birmingham Unitarian Church.

Two of three vice chairmen were reelected.

OTHER OFFICERS

Other officers are Philip Mastin Jr., 526 E. Harry, Hazel Park, treasurer; Mrs. Morris Weiss, 23141 Parklawn, Oak Park, recording secretary; and Robert Newberry, 244 Whittemore, corresponding secretary.

Googasian is active in both civic and political affairs. In 1962 he was president of the Democratic Club of Pontiac and is currently serving as a member of the 19th Congressional District's executive committee.

Accumulating Snow to Keep On Falling

Light snow accumulating to 2 to 4 inches will blanket the Pontiac area tonight.

Tomorrow will be partly cloudy and there's a chance of more snow about Friday and possibly Sunday.

Snow Storm Hits Atlantic Coast Area

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — The first major snow storm of the season along the Atlantic Coast has virtually paralyzed parts of Maine with up to two feet of snow. It battered shipping from New Jersey to Nova Scotia and endangered many lives.

The snow yesterday skipped past most of the coast, but struck northern and eastern Maine hard. Driven by winds which sometimes reached 60 miles per hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet in some sections.

Hoover Tells Rev. King KKK Infiltrated by FBI

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover told Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. yesterday that the FBI has infiltrated the Ku Klux Klan and other racist groups much as it did the Communist party, it was learned after the two had chatted in the FBI director's office.

"And, King told reporters after the 1 1/4-hour session, Hoover indicated arrests will be made in the next few days in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

STOPPED OUTSIDE

Jones said Gosley returned home shortly after 9 p.m. and was stopped outside by Matthews who told him of the argument between his mother and stepfather.

Matthews told Gosley that Lyons had a rifle, had hit Mrs. Lyons with it and had threatened to kill her, according to Jones.

He estimated that the question would be taken to the polls in February or March, although he said he wasn't familiar with the laws governing such elections.

If 1,430 of the signatures, representing 10 per cent of the electorate, are valid, the election probably will be set at the next meeting of the Township Board Dec. 14, Cairns said.

SPECIAL SESSION

The three full-time township officers received raises totaling $9,000 at a special session of the Township Board Nov. 2, the night before all were reelected.

Supervisor Curtis H. Hall's salary was boosted from $11,200 to $15,000 a year, the clerk's from $9,000 to $11,500 and Treasurer Elise Avery's from $8,300 to $11,000.

The three abstained from voting on their salary increases.

Then he, Matthews and a third companion, Rudy Bone, 19, of 93 Maines, went into the house the officer said.

Gosley went straight to the bedroom where he got the 7mm rifle, which he had purchased less than two weeks ago according to deputies. He told Jones he was not aware the weapon was loaded.

'GET OUT'

Gosley said that when he came into the living room Lyons was seated at a table across the room.

Gosley told Lyons to leave his mother alone and to get out of the house, according to witnesses.

Jones said that Lyons apparently lunged from the chair at Gosley and either swung or threw the 22-caliber rifle at the youth.

The butt of the weapon hit Gosley in the right shoulder, witnesses told deputies, and the Manner rifle the youth was holding discharged.

RAM OUT

Gosley told deputies he ran out of the house toward the garage after the shooting and called the sheriff's office again from a neighbor's house.

A patrol car was already en route to the one-story frame home in response to the earlier call.

Jones said that just prior to the shooting Mrs. Lyons called Don Chandler, told him her husband was drunk and asked that he come over to the house and get Lyons.

She was talking to Chandler when the fatal shot was fired.

NOT LOADED

Deputies said the 22-caliber rifle was not loaded when they arrived. Both weapons belonged to Gosley and he told Jones he had recently been heard hunting with the Manner rifle.

Daley is not presently attending school, deputies said. He has been working off and on as a service station attendant, but has no known juvenile police record, according to officers.

Taylor to Carry
New Viet Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions could include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective actions.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines through Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam. The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

SUMMARY

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

"The meeting reviewed the accumulating evidence of continuing and increased North Vietnamese support of the Viet Cong and of North Vietnamese forces in, and passing through, the territory of Laos in violation of the Geneva accords of 1962.

"The President instructed Ambassador Taylor to consult urgently with the South Vietnamese government as to measures that should be taken to improve the situation in all its aspects.

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them."

Baker to Face
Alleged Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators call Bobby Baker to the witness stand today to question him about an alleged $25,000 political payoff in which he has been cited as the man who gave the orders.

There was no advance indication as to whether Baker would testify. In an earlier Senate probe of his activities, he invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions.

Don B. Reynolds, a local insurance man, opened the Senate Rules Committee's hearings Tuesday by swearing he was the "big man" in the alleged kick-back deal and Baker was the one who "gave me all my orders."

For some four hours Reynolds detailed the arrangements he said were made between Baker and Democratic politician Matthew H. McCloskey to funnel $25,000 from a government contract for construction of the District of Columbia Stadium into the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Baker was scheduled to be called today following William N. McGee, former chief of the House District Committee. McGee was to be questioned about his role in getting congressional approval for a bill calling for construction of the stadium.

Reynolds testified that he knew McGee and told him, "It's time I shared with you."

Can Reserve
Choice Lots

The developer of a $250-million community in the first stages of construction in Orion Township is accepting deposits on choice lots in the first phase of subdivision.

The home sites now being reserved include 145 lots in the 3,200-acre corner of the planned 32,000-acre community called "Keatington," at Baldwin and Walden roads.

Although the first seven models will not be ready for official opening until early 1965, community utilities will be completed shortly.

Viet Cong Seize Arms Supply in Successful Raid

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—The Viet Cong wiped out a government district headquarters Tuesday, seizing enough weapons to arm a reinforced guerrilla company.

About 300 Viet Cong smashed their way into the town of Thien Gio, 100 miles northeast of Saigon, and killed the district chief and 13 of his men. The Communists escaped with 113 weapons, including 33 machine guns.

Thirty defenders were wounded and six were missing. Two Viet Cong were reported killed in the fight.

RADIOED FOR HELP

The force at Thien Gio radioed the military headquarters at the coastal town of Phan Thiet for reinforcements. Flares dropping planes and fighters arrived within an hour. Two companies of ground troops also were dispatched.

By the time the ground troops arrived a little before dawn, the Viet Cong had left with their booty. They also carried off two radios and destroyed the district headquarters' building and a munitions dump.

Property Tax

Pontiac Is at Limit
Allowed in Charter

City taxpayers will probably end up paying nearly the same amount of property taxes in 1965 as this year, according to proposed city budget figures.

Excluding the possibilities of an income tax, city officials have reached their taxing limit for operating purposes.

Thus, the $17.16 per $1,000 of assessed valuation will likely be the tax rate next year.

The proposed 1965 budget was formally presented to the City Commission last night by City Manager Joseph A. Warren.

Warren also pointed out that a means of borrowing money should be sought soon after the fiscal year begins in January.

BORROWING NEEDED

He said $1.5 million would have to be borrowed in anticipation of tax receipts.

Borrowing is necessary because the fiscal year begins in January, but taxes don't start coming in until July.

The City Charter places a 10-mill limit on the city's taxing power for operating funds. Separate millages and revenues support six other funds besides the general operating fund.

In some instances—waste sanitation, hospital and sewerage treatment—the millage is limited to cover the annual requirement.

HOSPITAL BONDS

For example, the city will levy 47-mill to retire Pontiac General Hospital bonds, which were voted several years ago to enlarge the hospital.

This millage will furnish $168,000 to pay 1965 installments on the bonds.

Commenting on the proposed 1965 operating budget of $6.7 million, City Commissioners last night emphasized that there was little leeway in the budget.

UPPER PENINSULA SNOW—The residents of Calumet have a job to do this morning digging out from under more than 50 inches of snow. It was still snowing this morning in the Upper Peninsula town near Lake Superior, and it was reported coming down "in buckets."

posed 1965 budget is $17,900 for added payments to continue bus operation.

Commenting on possibilities of income tax revenue, Warren said any benefit in 1965 would be canceled by the promised 5-mill cut in the property tax.

Thus, even if an income tax levy is eventually approved and put into effect sometime next year, no benefits would be felt until 1966.

In his budget message, Warren said that the city budget is really seven separate budgets, each with earmarked revenues and expenditures.

GENERAL FUND

Largest of these, of course, is the general fund.

As proposed, the 1965 general fund budget anticipates an increase of one million in the city's equalized valuation, up to $265.5 million.

The largest increase—$240,000

Pound Rebels
in Stanleyville

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—Cuban-piloted Congolese Air Force planes are pounding the left bank of Stanleyville with rocket fire, and rebel resistance in that "dead city" appears to be weakening, it was reported here today.

Canadian Embassy Charge d'Affaires Arthur Hicks, who just arrived from Stanleyville, said the government T26 planes, with Cuban exiles at the controls, destroyed the railway station and many of the largest buildings on the left bank of the former rebel capital.

"The planes are in the air all the time," Hicks said. "The T26s are throwing rockets into the left bank and into the bush along the Stanleyville airport. There is firing all the time."

"From what I could find out, the Simbas (rebels) seem to be weakening," the Canadian diplomat said. "In one or two African sections, there is still hostility but elsewhere I couldn't find anyone who could say for sure that rebels are still in any part of the city."

But he added it was possible that rebel forces still hold Stanleyville's left bank.

"Stanleyville is a dead city," the diplomat said.

Chances 'Excellent'

Eyes Speaker Post

Pontiac's State Rep. Arthur J. Law said yesterday that it appears his chances are "excellent" that he may become the Speaker of the House.

The decision may be made Friday when Democratic representatives caucus in Lansing for the first time since the Nov. 3 election.

Law, who was elected to a fourth term at that time, is one of four men who have indicated a strong interest in the important post.

The job will be held by a Democrat since the party is in the majority for the first time since the 1930s.

There is a possibility, however, said Law, that the selection of the speaker may be deferred to a later date because of the large number of new Democratic representatives who will first have to be briefed because of their unfamiliarity with the procedure.

Though the speaker is named at the caucus, he is not elected until the House members hold their organizational meeting in mid-January, and then the minority party usually votes to make the decision unanimous.

When the House convenes, 72 Democrats and 38 Republicans will be seated. In the last session, there were 58 Republicans and 32 Democrats.

Law, 58, of 27 Miami said that he has become an active candidate for the speaker's post on the urging of many incumbent legislators who know his background in labor and business.

Teacher Salary Schedule
Again on Board Agenda

BLOOMFIELD HILLS

Board of education members will again consider a proposed teachers' incentive salary schedule at their meeting tomorrow night.

Before them will be the schedule presented last month by the teacher salary study committee as the first step in preparation of a February millage proposal.

Cost of the schedule's first year of operation has been estimated at $568,720, but the figures are expected to be pared somewhat before being taken to the polls.

School board members have talked of a levy of 3 to 4.5 mills to support the program.

Also on the agenda for the 8 p.m. session tomorrow is discussion of a recreation commission request that a one-third mill levy be sought for recreational purposes.

ON SAME BALLOT

School trustees have voiced some doubts about placing both questions on the same ballot, and the Bloomfield Township Board has asked that the recreational millage not be sought until a joint study by the two units is completed.

Board members also plan to open construction bids on the second portion of the district's building program.

Projects will include an addition to Pine Lake Elementary School, expected to cost $137,000; another at Bloomfield Hills Junior High School, $475,000.

Prior to tomorrow night's consideration of teachers' salaries, the study committee will hold a meeting at 8 tonight to receive a preliminary evaluation schedule.

RATING TEACHERS

A subcommittee composed of principals and teachers has devised the method of rating teachers in view of the establishment of tenure and the proposed incentive pay schedule in the district.

The preliminary plan calls for a six-part evaluation, with each of the categories broken down further.

Main classifications would be personal qualifications, class management, teacher-pupil relationship, techniques of teaching, professional attitude and a summary paragraph containing recommendations on a teacher's status.

A six-step rating would be given for each item after the teacher had been observed in the classroom and interviewed by the principal. The teacher's approval would be required on the final form.

for Area Plan

Report Will Cover
Six-County Region

Plans for a major transportation and land use planning study for Oakland and five other counties and the city of Detroit were to be announced this afternoon at the 14th annual conference of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

Scheduled to outline the study was R. J. Alexander, commission chairman and director of the Oakland County Department of Public Works.

The proposed planning program has been developed by the commission over the past six months in cooperation with the Michigan State Highway Department, the City of Detroit, the Supervisors Inter-County Committee and the Metropolitan Fund, Inc.

Besides Detroit, Oakland and Wayne counties, the study will cover Macomb, St. Clair, Washtenaw and Monroe counties. It is scheduled to begin early in 1965.

Paul M. Reid, executive director of the commission and interim project director, estimates the program will require 3 1/2 years for completion at a cost of over $3.6 million.

STUDY DIFFERS

According to Reid, the proposed study differs in many respects from several other studies made in this area in recent years.

It will constitute a more broadly based and comprehensive approach to the problems and needs of the region than has been possible before, Reid says.

It will be divided into five major phases — data collection, analysis, plan formulation and testing, plan review and adoption and plan implementation.

Within these five phases will be 32 separate but related studies.

Farm Mishap
Fatal to Man

A 34-year-old Dryden man was fatally injured yesterday in a farming accident.

He was killed when he apparently fell into the hopper of a grain-mixing machine and was dragged into the machine head-first.

He was working for Henry George of 5801 Dryden, owner of the farm at 2388 Bowman, south of Imlay City.

Lapeer County Sheriff's officers said that Melroy probably died instantly. His body was taken to Muir Brothers Funeral Home, Imlay City.

UF to Boost Future Use of Speakers

The speakers bureau of the Pontiac Area United Fund, organized as a pilot group to stimulate this year's campaign, has proven so successful it will be repeated on a larger scale in future drives, according to Donald Frey, executive director of the United Fund.

William L. Belaney, promotion director of GMTC Employees Federal Credit Union, who headed the group, said UF returns from seven of nine firms using speakers showed outstanding results directly attributed to the bureau's activity.

The speaker's bureau reached a total of 518 persons.

The group was started early in October with seven volunteer speakers with the objective of promoting better understanding of the United Fund and the 55 agencies which it supports.

In his report, Belaney cited increases in employee contributions as high as 148 per cent.

BIG INCREASES

Other firms, he said, had increases of 135.5 per cent, 40, 33 and 23 per cent.

"Telling the story has definitely made the difference," Don Frey commented. "It shows without a doubt the significance of volunteers telling other citizens of the work of our agencies and the importance of their individual support."

"Based on results of this year's experience, we will definitely expand the speaking program to reach many more groups next year," Frey added.

Speakers this year were Frank G. Andreoni, George A. Googasian, George Mantyla, E. W. Watchpocket, Dr. Dana Whitmer and Mrs. Frances Zalanta.

17-Year Illness Fatal to Girl

ST. JOSEPH, Mo. (AP) — A mysterious disease struck Katherine Sue Groce when she was 18 months old, putting her to sleep. She died at her home Tuesday night after almost 18 years in a coma.

Doctors never determined exactly what the illness was but presumed it was a form of encephalitis or sleeping sickness. Katherine Sue had been to the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., and other medical centers.

Her two brothers and four sisters helped their widowed mother, Lillian Groce, take care of Katherine Sue at home.

Federal Charges Dropped for Two in NY Gem Theft

MIAMI (UPI) — Federal charges were dropped against two local beach boys yesterday in New York's "great jewel robbery" but the two still face charges of the actual burglary in New York.

The FBI had claimed here that Jack (Murphy the Surf) Murphy and Alan Kuhn transported the jewels — taken from the American Museum of Natural History — to Miami.

Thus far, however, investigators have not come up with the famous Star of India sapphire, Delong ruby and 22 other jewels valued at $400,000 stolen Oct. 30.

A third man, Roger Clark, is charged with Kuhn and Murphy in New York. Clark was arrested in New York the day after the burglary and Kuhn and Murphy were taken into custody here.

U.S. Commissioner Edward P. Swan dismissed the transportation charges yesterday after the government asked for a fourth hearing in the case.

British Gurkha Patrol Kills 6 Indonesians

KUCHING, Malaysia (U-P) — A British Gurkha patrol killed six Indonesian guerrillas in a jungle clash in Malaysia's Borneo state of Sarawak, a military spokesman said today.

One Gurkha was slightly wounded in the exchange of fire Monday, the spokesman said.

Immigrant Helps 150 Get 'Last Chance at Jobs

By AL SANDNER
Associated Press Writer
LANSING — Ubaldo Patino, a Mexican immigrant, is spending his own time and money to keep 150 unemployed — and for the most part unemployable — workers from throwing away "their last chance."

Patino, who works nights as a press operator in a drop forge plant, spends his days as a combination truant officer-counselor to adult students at Lansing's Job Training Center, a federally supported training school sponsored by the Michigan Catholic Conference.

"These people — average age 34 and average annual income under $700 — have been kicked around a long time," he said. "They have been called names. They now believe themselves. 'They tell you 'I'm no good.' We've got to get them to take one step by themselves. Once they get that self-confidence, they're all right," he added. "We have to give them back their pride."

LAST CHANCE

The trainees — Mexicans who have dropped out of the migratory labor stream, Cuban refugees and native American school dropouts — "are getting their last chance. If they don't get anything here, they will be in bad shape the rest of their lives," he said.

Patino is trying to tinge one of the more vexing problems that face such programs — dropouts and absenteeism.

"It's no problem to get 150 people into a school," he said. "The problem is keeping them here."

"They come here with so many problems, and a person with an empty stomach or family problems can't concentrate," he added.

FATHER OF NINE

Patino, 43, is the father of nine children, ranging in age from three months to 21 years. Of medium height and balding, the one-time self-appointed truant officer shows up neatly dressed in a dark suit, white shirt and tie every morning at eight.

Patino, who speaks with a Mexican accent, can understand many of the problems faced by the students — especially language problems. He came to the United States "in search of a better life" at the age of 22. Although he had the equivalent of a high school education, he spoke no English.

"I got a job at the forging plant and had a foreman who talked with his hands," he said.

He had been working with a pastor of a Roman Catholic Church for the Spanish-speaking when Francis Coomes, executive director for the Michigan Catholic Conference "asked me to get 10 Mexicans for the school."

STAY IN SCHOOL

After getting the students in the school, usually visiting the homes of those who failed to show up that day. He worked as a volunteer until recently when he started receiving a small salary for his work. But even some of that goes back to the students.

The absentees may be broke although most of them receive some kind of allowance, depending on their financial need or hungry, or without the proper clothing — or just plain discouraged. Sometimes it's a family problem, such as illness.

He has even helped get people out of jail, but he usually manages to get them back to class. Sometimes he calls a charitable agency for assistance. Sometimes, the money comes out of his pocket.

THROW MONEY AWAY

"I used to throw my money away on unimportant things," he said. "But even if I give money, it is nothing. It is the giving of yourself that counts."

But, he added, he is receiving much more than he is giving.

"I am robbing the poor people; I'm gaining strength," he said. "After I see their problems, when I get home, I find that by comparison I have none."

The center with classes ranging from basic writing, English and mathematics to simple job skills, is financed by the Office of Manpower, Automation and Training of the U. S. Department of Labor.

Still in its experimental stages, it is one of 25 pilot projects around the country.

Theft Victim Got Cab Fare

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — Clive Manley dropped a whole row of stitches — mentally, that is — when he returned to his parked car.

Someone had stolen his knitting needles, three sweaters and a pattern book from the unlocked vehicle, he told police Tuesday.

The sweaters were going to be a Christmas present "for my old gray-haired mother," Manley said sadly. "There's nothing to do but to start all over again. But I sure will miss that old pattern book. It can't be replaced."

WAR PRISONER

Manley learned to knit more than 20 years ago, while a World War II prisoner of the Japanese. He weathered the ridicule of his fellow Navy officers and he never gave up his hobby.

The retired Brookings, Ore., real estate salesman, visiting relatives here, says he'll mind his knitting from now on.

State Police Arrests

EAST LANSING (AP)—State police report they made 19,468 arrests in October, 17,795 for traffic offenses and 1,673 on criminal complaints. Police cars traveled 1.8 million miles during the month.

Scientists Take Look at N-Power Future

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Nuclear-powered rockets to Mars and beyond, yes. Nuclear-powered ships and submarines, yes. Nuclear — powered planes, no. And nuclear plants to "make the deserts bloom" with desalting water, probably not.

Two veteran industrialist leaders in the atomic energy field agreed today on these points.

They are William E. Shoupp, president of the American Nuclear Society, and Louis H. Roddis, president of the Atomic Industrial Forum.

Dr. Shoupp is technical director of Westinghouse Electric's atomic power department. Roddis is president of the Pennsylvania Electric Co.

Both said in an interview they believed a new idea will be required for large-scale desalting of sea and brackish water.

NOT THE ANSWER

"I doubt that brute force distillation will be the answer," Roddis said. Other speakers at concurrent meetings of the society and forum have advocated dual purpose nuclear plants to desalt water and supply electrical power. These include Dr. Glenn Seaborg, chairman of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission.

Discounting the feasibility of nuclear-powered planes, Roddis said, "I can see no purpose even in supersonic passenger planes." He suggested instead that rapid-transit services to airports be established.

The men pointed out that nuclear power is conventional now for new U. S. submarines. But they suggested that both naval and commercial ship builders are lagging in the exploitation of atomic energy.

"Other maritime nations of the world are struggling hard to get into the nuclear-powered ship business," Roddis said, listing Russia, Germany, Italy and Japan.

ONLY WAY

For long space missions, nuclear fission systems will combine the required low weight with high energy per pound, Dr. Shoupp said. He added that the energy source provides "the only way of accomplishing long manned missions — Mars and beyond."

Controlled fusion, elusive goal of massive research, is still at the "dream stage," the two agreed.

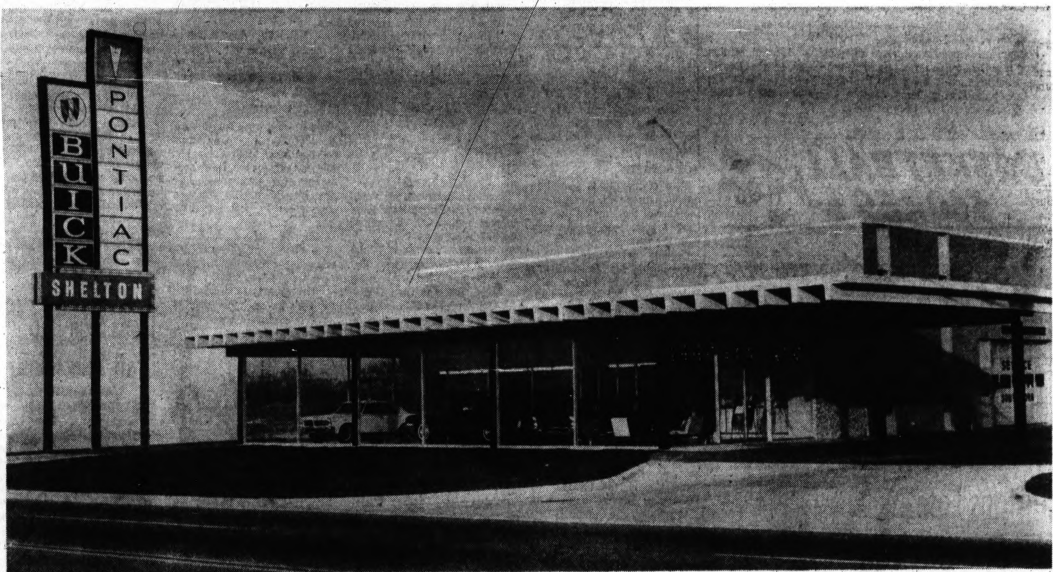

"It may be between 10 and 20 years before controlled fusion power is achieved," Dr. Shoupp said, "but it's there."

The nuclear physicists, each with more than 20 years in the field, were pleased with U. S. progress in developing the new power source for generating electricity. And they predicted even more rapid future progress with private enterprise taking a growing role.

The United States leads the world in nuclear technology, they said. "But don't forget that the British have generated about five times as many nuclear kilowatt-hours as this nation," Roddis warned.

"The Russians have no really significant position in atomic power," he said, "but on technology their position is similar to ours."

Romney to Fly to Denver Early

Governors Will Talk of Rebuilding GOP

LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney will fly to Denver for an informal meeting of Republican governors Thursday night in advance of their announced two-day session.

The 17 governors have as their target the rebuilding of the nationally trounced Republican Party.

Romney, as governor of a major state and one of the few impressive GOP winners in the November election, is expected to play an influential role at the meeting.

A Romney aide said the governors would try to set up an agenda and possibly frame certain statements at the Thursday session.

ISSUES CLOUDY

Thus far, he said, it's been difficult to determine just what specifics will be discussed.

Romney will propose a national GOP convention or policy meeting for some time in advance of the 1968 nominating convention.

Since the election, Romney has refrained from attacking any segment of the party. He has been rebuked, however, by some conservatives because he did not support Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

Romney has called "premature" the suggestion by some Republicans that Goldwater-picked national chairman Dean Burch be replaced.
