FBI Hunts Killers of 2 PO Inspectors

CHICAGO (AP)—The FBI and police hunted today for three mail thieves who shot and killed two post office investigators in their car minutes after they trapped the robbers.

A half-dozen shots were fired into the bodies of the two inspectors by the three robbers, all Negroes, who fled after the shooting late Monday night on the southwest edge of the Loop.

The inspectors had seized the trio and several sacks of mail from their car and were about to drive them to a police station when the shooting broke out.

The inspectors apparently never looked guns the robbers had concealed and they had no chance to return the fire. Both men were armed with .38 caliber service revolvers but neither gun was fired.

The victims were Ben Spizzirri, 42, father of five young children, and John McAuliffe Jr., 36, father of two. McAuliffe, who was in the driver's seat, was shot in the right chest and shoulder. Spizzirri was killed by shots in the right jaw and head. Police recovered one .32 caliber bullet from Spizzirri's body.

Police said Winton Murray, 26, a truck driver whose car was halted at a traffic signal at the Roosevelt road-Clark street intersection, saw the slayings and described the scene. His wife, Emma, 22, was with him.

He said the inspectors stopped three Negroes in a car and drove with them to a second car parked nearby. One of the two inspectors removed several bags of mail from the trunk of the robbers' car.

Seconds after he stepped into the car with the robbers and the second inspector, a half-dozen shots rang out. Three men jumped from the car. Two got into the other car and their companion jumped on a bus.

Murray, a Negro, said he called police. They found both inspectors slumped over in the front seat of their car.

Jerome Williamson, chief postal inspector in Chicago, said both inspectors were former transfer clerks in the Postal Transport Service who had been assigned to work with postal inspectors four or five years ago. They were detailed to watch mail handling points where mail sacks were transferred from trains to trucks.

WORK OF ART — Last night's freezing temperatures turned the weekend's thaw into a work of art. The cold held melting ice and snow in its grip to form this shimmering cascade of sculpture on this stairway of a downtown Pontiac building. Though pretty to look at, police warn that such ice formations can be hazardous.

Russia Quickly Tags Arms Plan No Good

GENEVA (AP) — The Russians opened the 10-nation East-West disarmament conference today by tagging the West's plan as impractical. They called for total world disarmament as expounded by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

"I am deeply convinced that the day is not far off when the age-long dream of humanity will come true and the world will live without arms or wars," Khrushchev said in a message of greeting read by his representative, Valerian Zorin.

U. S. Ambassador Frederick M. Eaton sounded a strong call for the three-stage program worked out by the Western participants — the United States, Britain, France, Italy and Canada.

He urged the conference to take "immediate action to prevent an extension of the arms race into outer space." The problem of arms control in outer space has come to the fore since the collapse of the last previous disarmament negotiations in London in 1957.

Khrushchev's message to the conference in the Palace of Nations said the Soviet representatives have been instructed "to assist in every way in its fruitful work and to strive for the early drafting of an agreement on total and universal disarmament."

The Soviet government, he said, is ready to consider attentively all relevant proposals.

However, Zorin, a Soviet deputy foreign minister, made clear in his opening speech that he wants the conference to take up the Soviet proposal — which in Western eyes does not contain adequate control provisions — rather than the Western plan.

Area Election Results on Pages 2, 12

Political Changes Abound

A large turnout of voters sent the political scene topsy-turvy in several of the 14 area communities holding village and special elections yesterday.

★ ★ ★

A sticker candidate toppled the Lake Orion village president from office, newcomers made a clean sweep in Novi, a $140,000 sewer bond issue passed in Beverly Hills, while Franklin voters refused to allow construction of a sidewalk.

Senate OKs 2nd Oakland Judge Plan

The Senate last night, by a vote of 26 to 6, passed Sen. L. Harvey Lodge's bill which speeds up the machinery for the election of a second judge.

A similar bill, signed by three Oakland representatives and one Democrat, was scheduled for a third reading in the House this afternoon.

Lodge's bill, which now shifts from the Republican Senate to the more evenly split House, eliminates the question of whether a second jurist is needed. Supervisors had planned to place it on the ballot this November.

★ ★ ★

The bill, if it gets through the House and receives Gov. Williams' signature, will have this question decided by the Board of Supervisors. It would take a majority vote to call for the election.

Up for election this year also, is Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore. He was first elected on the nonpartisan ticket in 1938. He is a Republican.

★ ★ ★

Up in Lansing to follow the county's favored legislative measures, Norman R. Barnard, county corporation counsel, said he doubted, even if the bills got past their final hurdles, whether time would still permit a vote this fall.

"It's very doubtful, as matter of fact, it's practically impossible that it will be considered this year," Barnard said.

Barnard believed there was little likelihood of passage.

Voicing somewhat of a less definite opinion was Delos Hamlin, chairman of the Board of Supervisors. "If there is time I think the Board will probably put it on the ballot," he said.

But neither Barnard nor Hamlin are forgetting the political barriers still ahead for the two bills.

Judge Moore, 58, of Royal Oak, declined comment on the bills and on whether a second judge is needed. It's no secret, however, that the county's probate caseload handled solely by Moore has necessitated naming court referees to hear some of the cases.

Lodge's bill provides that counties now with one probate judge, and which have or will have a population of 250,000 but not more than 1,000,000 may call for the election of a second judge at the next biennial November election if a majority of county supervisors approve it.

They'd moved ahead for this question this November: Does Oak-

News Flashes

ATLANTA (UPI)—Groups of Negro students from Atlanta's Negro university system made a wholesale attempt at integration of cafeterias and lunch counters across the city today — including the state capitol. Most of them were promptly arrested. State troopers arrested seven negro men in the capitol lunchroom on personal orders of Gov. Ernest Vandiver.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer agreed today that any new accord on West Berlin's future must preserve the freedom of the people and give them the right of self-determination. They also pledged anew to continue efforts to unify all Germany in peace and freedom.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration plan for voting referees won the first test vote in the house today, 138-95. By that margin, the house refused to substitute for it a somewhat similar proposal which had been denounced by civil rights advocates as weak.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Riots, demonstrations, stabbings and charges of fraud marked the counting of ballots tonight in a national election in which President Syngman Rhee ran against a dead opponent. Hapdong News Agency said 10 men were killed and 43 injured.

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (UPI)—A Redstone ballistic missile carrying a "flying TV station" was fired today for the first time by Army troops at the White Sands missile range. The miniature TV station is to enable a ground commander miles away to see actual target damage inflicted by a missile impact.

Solons Won't Earmark Sum for University

Sen. Lodge Fights to No Avail as Measure Is Sent to House

A vigorous battle on the floor of the Michigan Senate to earmark funds for Michigan State University Oakland was unsuccessful as the upper chamber tossed the money-for-education issue into the House last night.

The roll call on Senate passage was 33-2, with the negative votes cast by Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County) and Sen. John P. Smeekens (R-Coldwater).

It was Lodge who fought an unsuccessful battle for MSUO which has asked for an appropriation of $1,065,000.

★ ★ ★

The Legislature does not appropriate a figure for MSUO. The new Oakland County university's money is included in a lump sum figure appropriated for Michigan State University, its sister university in East Lansing.

The MSU Board of Trustees, governing body of both schools, decides what share of the MSU budget should be given to MSUO.

'DID THEIR BEST'

Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), appropriations committee chairman, told the Senate his appropriations committee had done the best job it knew how with funds available in this year of steep debt and lean revenues.

★ ★ ★

"You could add 15 million dollars and still have complaints," Porter declared.

He told senators that while the bill fell short $4,123,000 of the governor's recommendations it exceeded the appropriation for the current fiscal year by close to $7,000,000.

Lodge was miffed by rejection of a request for an extra $185,785 for MSU—with the understanding that if it were granted $1,065,000 of the MSU total would be specifically earmarked for MSUO.

★ ★ ★

Civics Teacher Fights Ticket

Mrs. Klara Ross is a civics teacher who thinks all is not well with government in Keego Harbor.

That, says Mrs. Ross, is the reason why she is going before a jury tomorrow in an expensive attempt to prove a $1 parking ticket unwarranted.

"It's the principle of the thing," said Mrs. Ross, 29, who also teaches social studies, history, English and art at Waterford Township's John D. Pierce Junior High School.

"I have taught my pupils about their wonderful heritage of civil rights in this country. Now it looks as if it's going to cost me some money to fight for what I believe is the principle of the law."

Mrs. Ross' car was ticketed last Wednesday morning on Cass Lake Front just south of Cass Lake road in Keego Harbor.

It had broken down on her way to work, she said. Leaving it at the side of the road, she returned on foot to her nearby home, 1842 Cass Lake Front, called a garage and got a ride to school with a friend.

Before the wrecker arrived, James Sisk, Keego Harbor police chief happened by and ticketed the car for being parked in a no parking zone.

A mechanic at the garage handed Mrs. Ross the ticket that evening when she arrived to pick up her car. It had had a blocked gas line.

Mrs. Ross claimed she telephoned Sisk to explain the incident but was told she would have to go to court.

This led to further irritation, she said.

Arriving at the court of Justice James Southart in Keego Harbor at 7:30 last night, she found the magistrate present but not Sisk.

Mrs. Ross pleaded innocent to violating traffic regulations and was told to come back tomorrow at 10 a.m. for trial by jury.

"It's cost me a day's pay and attorney's fees, but it's worth it," she said. "You've got to stick up for your rights."

Ike Wants Sugar Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans to ask Congress today for discretionary authority to raise or lower sugar import quotas.

The President also plans to ask Congress shortly for immigration legislation which would approximately double the 154,000 immigrants allowed to enter the country annually.

Republican congressional leaders disclosed the administration programs for sugar and immigration after their regular weekly meeting with the chief executive. Both subjects probably will be covered in special messages to Congress.

The discretionary power to change sugar import quotas, said Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, would apply to all foreign countries except the Philippines. He declined to go so far as to say, however, that any provisions of the administration's new sugar legislation are specifically aimed at Cuba.

The proposed discretionary authority for the chief executive, he said, is not necessarily a result of the Cuban situation.

There has been considerable discussion, in and out of Congress, of the idea of cutting down Cuba's share of the U.S. sugar market in response to bitter attacks by the Fidel Castro regime against this country, and to the seizure of U.S.-owned properties.

The administration, however, has denied it is planning economic reprisals.

★ ★ ★

1. A four-year extension of the present sugar quota law.

2. Some legislative modifications in quotas.

3. Some reshuffling of deficits in quotas.

4. And the discretionary authority.

As for immigration, Dirksen said the intention is to preserve the national origins concept for allowing aliens to enter this country.

The combined quota of all countries now is roughly 154,000, he said, and "it was thought this could be doubled."

At the same time, he said, unused quota numbers could be thrown into a pool and reassigned on the basis of a formula to be presented in the forthcoming legislation.

Dirksen said the base year for determining immigration quotas would be changed from 1920 to 1960.

Wild County Dem Meeting Almost Brings Fistfight

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Election year fireworks were touched off prematurely at last night's Oakland County Democratic Committee meeting with a near fist fight, heated exchanges and a preliminary two-man bout for a little-known political job.

Fisticuffs threatened when two bitter union enemies exchanged profane insults as one sought the committee's endorsement for a position on the Michigan Employment Security Commission appeal board.

Saying that bringing the endorsement before the full committee was out of order, delegates told Scott to take his request to his local township club first.

Through the din of the angry words at smoked-filled Metropolitan Club Hall emerged the committee's endorsement of James M. Ginn, 31-year-old Farmington attorney, for county public administrator.

★ ★ ★

Some saw Ginn's 37-vote victory for the lesser of political appointment as the resurgence of a faction in the county party dissatisfied with its leadership.

A top member and state union leader last year said the organization was a "sorry excuse" for a Democratic party.

Quietly watching the eruption of tempers was Billie S. Farnum, newly appointed deputy state chairman. He had earlier warned the nearly 200 precinct delegates and alternates in attendance not to al-

Merchants Plan Dollar Days; to Begin Friday

The big sale — Friday and Saturday — is coordinated by the Downtown Merchants Assn., which also promotes the Downtown Pontiac Days in the spring and Festival Days in the fall.

Store hours will be from 9:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Saturday.

Cold Temperatures to Continue Here

Little change in temperatures is expected through Thursday in the Pontiac area.

The weatherman said the predicted high for Wednesday is 32 degrees and the low tonight near 20. Thursday's high temperatures will remain in the low 30s with a chance of a few snow flurries.

Morning five mile an hour winds northeasterly will become variable at 6 to 12 miles tonight.

Fourteen was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury climbed to 36 at 2 p.m.

low a split in the party because "we do not have the champ (Gov. Williams) on the ballot."

Ginn, whose only other try for political office came in 1958 when he ran unsuccessfully for Southfield justice of the peace, edged out Lawrence H. Best, 38, backed for the endorsement by the Royal Oak Township Democratic Club.

Best's campaign manager was John E. Kronenberg, second-time candidate for county clerk-register of deeds. Some party members saw Best's defeat in the little inner-party election as damage to Kronenberg's support this year.

Others, and all emphatically asked not to be quoted, saw Ginn's win as booming Mrs. Harriett Phillips, a seven-year Oakland member of the State Central Committee, as possible county chairman material.

Present chairman Carlos G. Richardson didn't attend. He was away on a Florida vacation. Chairman of the rough and tumble meeting was Frank J. Sierawski, Richardson's executive assistant.

Asked what the election meant to her, the Huntington Woods housewife smiled and said facetiously: "It means we have a new public administrator."

Ginn's endorsement by the committee — by a vote of 96 by 59 —now is forwarded to State Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams for confirmation. It's expected without question.

★ ★ ★

He will fill the vacancy left when former public administrator Jack Moskowitz, Hazel Park city attorney, was named by Williams to the MSBC Appeal Board in January. The opening was eagerly sought by four, the latter two withdrawing.

The public administrator, Oakland has two, the other being Pontiac attorney L. C. Burch, also a Democrat, handles estates of deceased county residents who have no apparent heirs. Pay is on a fee basis.

Climaxing the election of Ginn was Scott's asking the committee for its endorsement for another position on the appeal board. The executive committee, of which his wife is a member, had previously given Scott, 53, of Drayton Plains, its backing.

With Scott, who is partially crippled from a 1954 stroke, out of the room, Hammond rose in protest to the committee's endorsement of Scott.

Scott, a former vice president of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614, twice testified before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington against James R. Hoffa, international union president.

Hammond, 55, of 1210 Princeton Rd., Berkley, angrily accused Scott as being "anti-labor and unsympathetic to the labor movement." Hammond was once vice president of the old county CIO council.

Up jumped Mrs. Scott from the speaker's table. "We're sick and tired of your sniping behind our backs. It's about time someone had the courage to fight that Hoffa."

★ ★ ★

In stormed Scott to challenge Hammond sitting in the back of the room. He bitterly accused Hammond as being a "liar."

★ ★ ★

With most of the Democratic delegates already departed, Scott waving his cane said to his accuser, "I'm more of a union man than you'll ever be."

★ ★ ★

"Go away, you nut," Hammond retorted. As the remaining delegates stared in amazement Scott was pulled away from Hammond by a peacemaker.

But when Sierawski adjourned the meeting at midnight, Mrs. Scott flew from the front table to swing her purse at the excited Hammond. "You're nothing but a stooge for Hoffa," she shouted as Hammond warded off her swinging purse with his arm.

Two more peacemakers jumped in just as Scott took exception to Hammond's raising his clinched fist in front of Mrs. Scott's face. A shoving match ensued. Peace finally was restored as delegates left for home.

Hammond was a spectator in Circuit Court last year as Scott, a member of the State Board of Examiners of Barbers, successfully won his fight for reinstatement in the Barbers' Union.

Scott sued, saying he had been expelled because of his testimony against Hoffa.

The quarterly meeting of delegates got off to a roaring start as backers of Ginn and Best immediately started bartering for votes. Kronenberg, who's boss, Secretary of State James M. Hare, is bidding for the Democratic nomination for governor, questioned who had the right to vote on the endorsement.

Back-of-the-room campaigning in the meantime went on in the room jammed wall-to-wall. Available chairs were grabbed up immediately as county leaders expressed "fantastic surprise" at the large turnout.

Delegates shouted across the room at one another as the committee spent most of its time unsnarling rules of parliamentary order on who could vote.

One delegate accused another, who sought to bar alternates from having a vote, of being a one-time Republican. The accused resented the remark as Sierawski pounded his improvised gavel, a soda pop bottle, on the table for quiet.

The fire works overshadowed Farnum's talk on a coming census and membership drive for Democrats across Michigan.

Referring to the heated struggle for the endorsement, Farnum, a former Waterford Township resident, said: "What is happening here is no different than what is happening elsewhere."

He said he only wanted to "refresh the memories" of the delegates that the race was symbolic of the party's first platform that it stood for good government.

Arrest 3 Pickets at Troy Plant

Beating on Automobile Triggers More Action at Dynamic Factory

Three area men were arrested by Troy police early today for beating on a non-striking workers car as he tried to cross the picket line at Dynamic Manufacturers Inc., plant in Troy.

The three charged with disorderly conduct are Billy L. Perryman, 31, of 439 S. Saginaw St., Michael D. Gleeson, 22, of 3972 Elwood St., Berkley; and Emery M. Childers, 20, of 1468 Ruby St., Rochester.

They will be arraigned today before Troy Justice of the Peace Charles H. Losey.

Local police called for reinforcements from the Oakland County Sheriff's department and state police after the incident which occurred at 7:40 a.m. No further trouble was reported.

Extra police help also was summoned last night when the picket lines doubled. Only 20 are allowed to parade at the plant's entrance according to orders issued Feb. 26 by Circuit Judge Clark J. Adams.

The judge said today that he is prepared to listen to any evidence that his orders have been violated concerning the picketing.

Yesterday Judge Adams signed a new order postponing the show-cause hearing to 9 a.m. Thursday. The company is seeking a permanent injunction against the strikers, all members of Local 935, International Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers Union, AFL-CIO.

Legislature Gets 5-Year Forecast

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan's five-year general fund capital outlay requirement was set at $617,081,724 by Gov. G. Mennen Williams today in a special message to the Legislature.

The biggest requirement for the 1960-65 period is a $425,695,926 building program for education, Williams said.

Another $80,359,014 will be needed for construction at mental institutions, the governor said.

Additional requirements for highways and other restricted fund activities would bring the five-year total to $870,041,560, Williams said.

Says Nixon Gets Nod From Ike

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower endorsed Vice President Richard M. Nixon as his successor at the Gridiron Club dinner in Washington Saturday, columnist Doris Fleeson said today.

The President's remarks at the Gridiron Club dinner are usually not reported under a rule that "reporters are never present."

Miss Fleeson said Eisenhower "spoke up clearly if colloquially."

"The President sat on the right of the club president, John C. O'Brian of the Philadelphia Inquirer, and the vice president was on O'Brian's left," she reported in her United Features article.

"It would, said the President, save a lot of trouble and commotion if everybody at this table would just move two places for the future."

The columnist said "The President had not before precisely with-held such endorsement, but he had seemed on other occasions to qualify or to confuse it with his unique prose style."

The London Times also reported today that President Eisenhower openly endorsed Nixon.

Pontiac State Displaying Unusual Old-Type Banks

The 16 banks, some of which have as many as 31 separate pieces, were designed to teach children the habit of regular thrift by making saving fun.

The banks are made by pouring molten iron into sand molds and then assembling and painting them by hand.

Nearly all of them have some mechanical device which is activated by a lever or when deposits are made.

Each features some facet of American life.

In one bank, a Revolutionary War soldier actually shoots a coin into a tree trunk target. The coin drops into a receptacle in the tree.

The display will be at the main bank for about three weeks, followed by a showing in each of the four branches.

Pioneer Plunges Deep Into Space

Will Log First Million Miles Friday; Reports 75 Degree Heat Inside

WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's Pioneer V sun satellite plunged deeper into space today and was expected to log its first million miles some time Friday, a week from the day it was launched at Cape Canaveral, Fla.

The National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) calculated that the 94.8-pound satellite was 644,430 miles from the earth at noon.

By midnight, NASA calculated, Pioneer will be 713,894 miles above New Zealand and coasting on at a rate of 5,774 miles an hour. It eventually will slow to about 5,454.5 miles an hour and then gradually step up its pace as gravitational forces pull it nearer the sun. Its orbit around the sun lies between the paths of Earth and Venus.

Pioneer V reported to tracking stations yesterday that its internal temperature was 75 degrees Fahrenheit and the temperature on its solar cell vanes 30 degrees. Scientists said the solar cells were doing an "excellent" job of charging the transmitter batteries.

land County need a second probate judge?"

If they would have said "yes," Gov. Williams would have named an interim judge to take office Jan. 1, 1961. Under Lodge's bill the judge elected by the people would take office then. This is where Williams' and his party's opposition comes in.

★ ★ ★

They favored making the interim appointment, thus strengthening the appointee's chances to succeed himself in office with the power of the incumbent title under his name on the ballot.

Democrats saw this as their only chance to penetrate GOP-dominated Oakland County.

Under Lodge's bill, the new judge would be elected for two instead of the usual four-year term. This would provide for a staggering of the terms.

DETROIT (AP)—Atomic fueling of the Enrico Fermi power plant outside Monroe will not come until 1961.

★ ★ ★

Under the original schedule the atomic power plant was to have been fueled with uranium by Sept. 1. But the Power Reactor Development Co. has reported to Congress this will be delayed four to six months.

★ ★ ★

Trouble has developed, the company reported, in the fuel cores it planned to use and they now must be redesigned.

As first designed, the reactor fuel was to consist of pins of enriched uranium molybdenum alloy 30 inches long and about one-seventh of an inch in diameter.

Several pins were to be placed in a square, rod-like can of stainless steel and held in place by transverse wires. Each can would form a unit for handling purposes.

★ ★ ★

But under high temperatures, the company reported, the pins became distorted until they were not supported by the transverse wires.

Now, the company said, some better way of holding the pins must be found.

The report was signed by Walker Cisler, who is president of both Power Reactor Development Co. and The Detroit Edison Co. Edison plans to buy the atomic-made steam to operate a generating plant. It is building in conjunction with the reactor, Several utilities and other companies joined to form PRDC.

The total investment, counting Edison's 17 million dollar power plant, will approximate 80 million dollars.

House Group OKs School Building Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Education and Labor Committee approved a compromise $975,000,000 school construction bill today. The vote was 19 to 11.

The substitute bill, limited to aid for school construction only, was approved by a vote generally following party lines, with Democrats for.

Across Central Plains

Snow Cometh Again

By The Associated Press

Fading winter kicks up another snowstorm across broad areas in the midcontinent and parts of the Southeast today, five days before its official demise.

★ ★ ★

It was the fourth major snowstorm this month and came as may communities still were digging out from last week's heavy falls. Spring arrives Sunday morning at 9:43 a.m. EST.

★ ★ ★

The snow belt covered wide areas extending from northern sections of Alabama and Mississippi northwestward through the mid-Mississippi Valley and parts of the plains and Rockies.

★ ★ ★

Heaviest snowfall during the night was from the central plains eastward through Missouri and much of Tennessee and from Kansas into the Dakotas.

The fresh storm left a covering of more than 9 inches in parts of Kansas and warnings of falls ranging from 4 to 12 inches in Missouri were issued by the Weather Bureau. Heavy snow warnings also were posted for areas in Kentucky, Tennessee and southern Illinois and lesser amounts in parts of Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

He Wanted Evidence Against Nelle

Prosecutor, Slayers Made Deal

A deal was made with three murderers of Royal Oak car dealer Parvin (Bill) Lassiter so that their testimony could be obtained against Nelle Lassiter and Gordon Watson.

The existence of the deal has been admitted by Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen.

The trio, all from Chattanooga, Tenn., were permitted to plead guilty to reduced charges of second degree murder in the Lassiter killing so the state could use their testimony in prosecuting the dead man's glamorous widow and Watson, Lassiter's business associate with whom Mrs. Lassiter has admitted having an affair.

"They were permitted to plead guilty to second degree murder to prevent a miscarriage of justice," Olsen said.

"If that had not been done, the procurers of the crime might have gone free. It is conceivable that if we had gone on and convicted them of first degree murder, we might never have gotten the testimony we got at the examination."

The three men are awaiting sentence. They are Charles W. Nash, who admitted beating and shooting Lassiter; Roy C. Hicks, a salesman at Lassiter's used car lot in Royal Oak; and Richard Jones, a drive-away auto hauler for Lassiter.

Olsen said there was "nothing unusual" about such a deal.

They will be key state's witnesses in the forthcoming trial of Mrs. Lassiter and Watson.

At the same time, Olsen said that the state had not disclosed its complete case in what he calls the "sex and greed" killing.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Lassiter was scheduled to make another bid for freedom tomorrow pending trial. She and Watson are accused of first degree murder and conspiracy to commit murder.

But Wayne County Circuit Judge Chester P. O'Hara has delayed a hearing to free Mrs. Lassiter on bond until Monday.

The judge said he will not rule until he sees the complete transcript of the pretrial examination of the couple.

O'Hara also set a hearing at 2 p.m. next Monday on a motion by Ralph Goldsmith, Watson's attorney, to free Watson on a writ of habeas corpus.

Olsen said his office will fight all attempts to reduce the charges or free the couple.

Meanwhile, Circuit Court records revealed that Lassiter filed a divorce suit against his wife in 1943.

He accused her of cruel and inhuman treatment, said she repeatedly flew into rages, was mean and jealous, and accused him of associating with other women.

In her answer, Mrs. Lassiter denied the charges. She said she always "performed my wifely duties" but in return received cruel and inhuman treatment.

The couple was married in Dresden, Tenn., July 19, 1939. They separated March 29, 1943 and were reconciled Nov. 29, 1943.

Well-to-do at the time of his death, Lassiter said in 1943 that he was making only $66 a week as a factory worker and had only $323 to his name.

Schedule Public Hearing on Rezoning of 2 Parcels

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set June 13 for a public hearing on the rezoning of two parcels of land to allow construction of an 85-unit apartment.

★ ★ ★

The petition to rezone the property on west side of Woodward avenue, north of Oak Street and south of Colonial Terraces had been considered by the Commission but no action had been taken.

The City Planning Board has recommended denial of the request.

The apartment, proposed by the Wallace Newton Co., is planned as a three- or four-story luxury apartment. At the present the property is zoned for two-story structures only.

Newton has told the Commission that if the apartment is constructed now, only 60 units could be built.

★ ★ ★

"If this were done our architects feel that the building would be disoriented," Newton said, when he submitted his original petition for the zoning change last November.

Franklin Defeats 3 Proposals

Beverly Hills OKs Bonds

A $140,000 bond proposal to expand the sanitary sewer system was overwhelmingly approved and four incumbent councilmen were re-elected in Beverly Hills yesterday.

Running in a field of six candidates, the four incumbents re-elected are Marvin B. Cline, Hugh G. Allerton Jr., John A. McClanathan and Leo J. Linsenmeyer.

Approval of the bond proposal, 1,304 to 194, authorizes the village to sell general obligation bonds for a sewer system that will tie into the Evergreen Interceptor.

It will affect an area bounded by 12½ Mile road on the south, Evergreen road on the east, 14 Mile road on the north and Bingham Farms on the west.

Tallying the highest number of votes was Cline with 1,091, followed by Allerton, 1,053; Linsenmeyer, 884; McClanathan, 849; Drazick, 736, and Shephard, 563.

6 IN BINGHAM FARMS

The six candidates for village posts in Bingham Farms were elected to office yesterday by a smaller turnout of voters than last year.

Each office-seeker polled 40 votes except John Gress, running for a Council vacancy, who garnered 39.

Incumbent Neil Warren was re-elected to the Council along with Henry Bleeker and Gress.

Treasurer James M. Washburne and Walter Gerick were re-elected treasurer and assessor respectively.

Mrs. James McGuire was elected clerk.

ELECT 5 IN WOOD CREEK

In Wood Creek Farms 2 two-year Council terms were won by John M. Ambrose and Roy W. Nelson.

The unopposed positions of clerk and treasurer were won by Mrs. Alice Billiu and Robert C. Day.

Mrs. Billiu garnered 77 votes and Day 90.

FRANKLIN ELECTS 7

Franklin voters yesterday defeated three questions regarding the Community Church and a proposed charter amendment. At the same time they re-elected four incumbents, two newcomers and a village president.

Seeking the president post, incumbent Councilman Calvert Thomas defeated Ralph Smith, 304 to 248.

Named to the 3 two-year Council posts open were incumbent Edwin Green, 362 votes; Robert Mitchell, 336, and William Kahn, 264.

Four other candidates who were seeking the Council posts were Eugene Kelly, 210; Fred Schwedt, 144; Otto Schubert, 144, and Charles Plank, 117.

★ ★ ★

Incumbent Clerk Elsie Garwood defeated Sylvia Fellows, 455 to 99.

Incumbent Treasurer Robert Winkel, opposed by Archie McCardell, poled 411 votes to 133.

Voters rejected the purchase of the old church for $25,000 by 463 to 82. It was to be used for a library and village hall.

The other two questions asking whether the village should assess up to $1.50 per $1,000 for the purchase of the church and whether the property should be rezoned from residential to professional were defeated 445 to 66 and 381 to 149, respectively.

A proposed charter amendment that would have allowed for the construction of sidewalk in the vicinity of the Franklin Elementary School was narrowly rejected, 272 to 266.

MSUO Money Bid Is Killed in Senate

MSUO, a figure he said would "strangle" the new university.

Not only was Lodge unsuccessful in raising what it appears will be the MSUO budget—he was also unsuccessful in getting any guaranteed sum for MSUO.

He agreed with the estimate of Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), who handled the bill on the floor. Beadle said MSU Trustees could apportion any fraction of their appropriation they chose to MSUO.

MSUO Chancellor D. B. Varner has warned that MSUO will have to limit enrollment and cut back on the planned size of faculty if MSUO's budget is not near the figure asked by university officials.

★ ★ ★

"We've always been honest with the Legislature. We've submitted a minimum, spartan budget," Varner said.

He expressed hopes that the Oakland County delegation in the House would take up the budget battle for MSUO.

"I fought hard, but it was no use." Lodge told The Pontiac Press today.

★ ★ ★

"I'm about as popular with my party as a 'possum in a preacher's hen house," said the senator, who split with his party because of MSUO.

"I may have antagonized them, but I'm fighting for a principle here," Lodge declared.

Lodge was hopeful that the MSU Board of Trustees would supply MSUO with necessary funds.

He noted that last year he wrung a gentleman's agreement from his fellow lawmakers that a certain amount of the MSU budget would be for MSUO. "I couldn't get even that this year," he complained.

★ ★ ★

Varner said the budget crisis will be "a lively part" of the MSU trustees' next meeting, scheduled for Thursday in East Lansing.

"I shall certainly make our position unmistakably clear," he said.

The chancellor expressed the hope that the House would rectify what he called the Senate's "tragic mistake."

"I'm sure the Senate didn't understand the effects of their action," he said. He praised Lodge for his battle on behalf of MSUO.

KILLED BY THIEVES — Two Chicago postal inspectors were slain last night by three thieves they had caught with several sacks of stolen mail. John McAuliffe, left, and Ben Spirizzirri were taking their prisoners to police when the three pulled guns that apparently had been overlooked by the inspectors. (See story, page one.)

Retired Circuit Judge Is Found Dead in Bed

The victim was Shirley Stewart, 77, who retired from the St. Clair County circuit bench in 1953. He was elected a circuit judge in 1940.

Stewart was instrumental in revising the Michigan criminal code during the terms in office of late Gov. Alexander Groesbeck in the early 1920s and also was an organizer on the State Bar of Michigan.

Says Danger Label Law Needs Updating

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration Monday urged Congress to bring up to date a 1927 federal law requiring informative labeling of hazardous household products.

Commissioner George P. Larrick told a House Commerce subcommittee the old law has become outmoded by the rapid number of chemical compounds available for household use. He said it does not apply to many poisonous or otherwise hazardous substances in common use.

★ ★ ★

"The need for legislation requiring proper labeling of these materials is amply demonstrated," Larrick said. "Behind the infant mortality statistics are many instances of accidental poisonings which would have been avoided had the parents been properly warned and had information for proper emergency treatment been readily available."

Larrick estimated that every year about 600,000 children swallow household aids left within their reach, and that about 500 children die annually as a result of such accidents.

Plan Ad Push to Sell Kent County Airport

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — "... 483 acres of level land in Michigan's second largest population center is offered in toto for development as an industrial park . . . priced for immediate sale."

With that description, Kent County's airport—the commercial air terminal for Grand Rapids—goes on the block. The airport board yesterday voted to set aside a maximum of $5,000 for publicity and advertising purposes on behalf of the sale.

★ ★ ★

The county proposes to advertise shortly in the Wall Street Journal to sell the present site for upwards of two million dollars with proceeds marked for the area share of a proposed new airport in Cascade some 10 miles southeast of Grand Rapids. The present field is five miles from the downtown district.

Oil Company Reports Record-Topping Sales

The Clark Oil and Refining Corp. entering its 28th year, has established new sales records in both quantity of refined products and dollar volume, according to found er and president of the company, Emory T. Clark.

In the annual statement to stockfor 1959, on a net basis after deholders, Clark reported that sales ducting gasoline taxes, were $87,366,414.

Government Charges Ulcer Cure Pills No Good

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Donald C. Sussman of Waterman Pharmacy and Waterman Drug Co. of Detroit has 30 days in which to answer a government charge that his ulcer "curing" tablets are no good.

★ ★ ★

The Federal Trade Commission said Sussman's advertising claims that "Cel-Ae Tablets" effectively treat and cure ulcers are false. FTC officials said the pills actually are an antacid.

They said the preparation is not a cure for the pain and discomfort of ulcers, nor for "ulcer worries" as claimed.

Agriculture Dept. Studies Changes in Beef Grading

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department's Livestock Division is looking into the possibility of revising the present grading system for beef. In effect, the revision would take some of the excess fat off beef sold at the retail meat counter.

The department, taking note of increasing consumer aversion to excess fat on meat, said a study is under way to help bring to market high-quality beef with a minimum of fat.

The Livestock Division conducts the government meat grading service which has provided food shoppers with a reliable guide to meat quality for years.

Beef of the higher grades—U. S. prime and U. S. choice—is the most tender and most flavorful but as a rule it also carries the most fat. Conversely, beef of the lower grades which is less tender and flavorful usually has less fat.

Feeding necessary to produce high quality beef often results in a heavy layer of external fat. Much of this fat now is trimmed away before the meat is offered to consumers, but this results in higher prices per pound.

Some cattle produce high quality meat with less external fat. The Livestock Division is studying methods of identifying these cattle so production can be encouraged.

The grading revision would continue to identify meat quality as at present, but would give a separate rating for yield of lean meat.

Such a revision undoubtedly please the meat industry as represented by the American Meat Institute. H. R. Davidson, institute president, said last week that the industry takes a dim view of the present grading system because it is based on an "outmoded" concept that the fattest animal is the best.

Doubts That Nike-Zeus Ever Can Outfox Decoy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A top Defense Department official has strong doubts that the Nike-Zeus antimissile missile system can ever be developed to distinguish between a real enemy weapon and a decoy.

Dr. Herbert F. York director of defense research and engineering, said Sunday night that "Many of us have considerable doubt that this decoy problem can be licked."

York said only more research "at a very high level" will be able to answer the problem. He said that radar can't tell the difference between a missile and a decoy.

The Mexican dinner hour is at 9 p. m. or later.

NEW YORK (UPI) — "New York," said millionaire Huntington Hartford, "seems to be lacking in a certain leisurely charm."

Recently Hartford sat down first with City Parks Commissioner Robert Moses, then with famed architect Edward D. Stone.

"I offered to contribute . . a sidewalk cafe in Central Park in the Paris tradition, gay, accessible, ornamental and within the means of the average family and tourist," the A & P heir said.

Hartford announced that the plan had been accepted by the city and he had agreed to put up a half million dollars.

Brightly colored parasol tables will cover 10,000 square feet at the southest corner of the park facing the Plaza Hotel. A lower level in back will contain a restaurant with a view of wild birds in the park's pond.

★ ★ ★

Hartford said it would take about a year to complete the cafe. He expressed the hope his plan would be imitated and that New York would have a string of sidewalk cafes like Paris or Rome.

MSU to Discriminate on Discrimination

EAST LANSING (UPI)—President A. Hannah of Michigan State University says approval of off-campus student rooming houses will be withdrawn from those houses which practice racial discrimination.

★ ★ ★

"We expect all householders who operate houses for student residents to abstain from practicing discrimination," Hannah said in a letter to the Michigan State News, the student newspaper.

Although no instances of discrimination have been reported, the MSU president said he wanted to make the university's position clear.

Hannah has served for the past year as chairman of the U.S. civil rights commission.

Be Unafraid, Even Like a Child

By WILL OURSLER
Chapter Twelve

A key factor in our quest for religious faith is our vast store of information. Yet often we find ourselves empty of the understanding without which faith becomes mere meaningless jargon.

It is in the seeking of knowledge that we gain wisdom and in the seeking of understanding that we gain faith.

"At the same time," St. Matthew records, "came the disciples unto Jesus saying, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

"And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them.

"And said, Verily, I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

In another instance Jesus said:

"Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

UNFETTERED, UNAFRAID

To the adult who is honest, little children are wonderful and exciting and—in varying degrees—creatures of savage impulses.

What did Jesus mean, then, precisely and expressly—by His repeated declaration of such is the kingdom of heaven?"

It is one with the clinging fingers of discovery and delight, the child unfettered and unafraid.

It is one with the trust and love that the child—the average, normal child—gives to the life around him, to parents, environment, home, to his world as he knows it.

For the bases of this belief in the instinctive wisdom of the infant, psychologists or sociologists may offer a variety of explanations: from prenatal consciousness to race memory, or evolutionary reflex action to primitive animalistic adjustment to environmental influence.

WE LOVE YOU!

I know a famous obstetrician who holds each child he brings into the world in his arms and informs the newborn infant, "Everyone here loves you. Welcome to the world!"

The child understands, accepts, expects.

Is not the faith of the child often misplaced or disappointed? Is it not true that the child must wake up to reality? Do we not use the phrase "growing up" to mean a coming to grip with reality on its own terms, rather than the fairy-tale terms of childhood?

We cannot avoid or evade this question, for it strikes to the heart of faith.

DISAPPOINTMENTS?

Yes, there are disappointments that the child encounters. Yes, his expectation is sometimes footless, his faith built on nothingness, his trust betrayed. That such things happen cannot be overlooked.

This, however, has an aspect entirely different from the meaning of the words of Jesus. He was using a symbolism: the faith of the child in relation to the parent; the faith of the adult man or woman in relation to God.

We must come to understand why this is so.

Testing Nerve Gas on British Soldiers

LONDON (AP)—Britian disclosed officially Monday it is carrying out experiments with nerve gases on human volunteers. A cautiously worded announcement from the War Office said the aim of the test is to devise antidotes.

It informed that service personnel had been used in the experiments, which thus far have been carried out in complete secrecy.

The announcement followed disclosures in the London Daily Mail that volunteers from all three armed services have been exposing themselves to nerve gas tests lasting between 7 and 14 days.

The Mail said the work was being conducted at the government's chemical defense experimental establishment at Porton on Bleak Salisbury Plain. Volunteers, it said, received special privileges, including extra leave and allowances.

"Some doses well within the safety limits are administered in carefully prescribed and controlled conditions," the War Office said, "with the object of discovering suitable antidotes for the effect of these materials."

Sen. Kefauver Withdraws From Oregon Primary

His withdrawal left five candidates on the party ballot, all U.S. senators. They are John Kennedy of Massachusetts, Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, Wayne Morse of Oregon, Stuart Symington of Missouri and Lyndon Johnson of Texas.

Morse was entered by petition. The others were placed on the ballot by Secretary of State Howell Appling Jr. under a new law that directs him to enter all nationally recognized candidates.

Those entered by Appling can withdraw by filing affidavits saying they are not candidates and do not intend to be.

Cut Sale of Luxury Items at Canal Zone Army PXs

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States has agreed to stop selling $500 watches, inlaid tables and rare oriental wood carvings in Army Post Exchanges in the Panama Canal Zone the Defense Department said today.

Beginning today there will be a $50 limit on luxury items that can be sold. Panamanian businessmen have complained to the State Department that the luxury item sales at greatly reduced prices were cutting into their profits.

Why Not a Spectacular of Our Own for May 16?

Pioneer V roared skyward last weekend and from all reports the 90 pound rocket is performing as planned.

Reports indicate that this giant bird carrying sun-charged batteries will be reporting radiation, magnetism, meteorites and other conditions in space between Earth and Venus for decades. That is, providing all goes well.

★ ★ ★

This is cheering news to most of us since it is everyone's guess just how far ahead the Russians are in space probes. This latest blastoff does bring to light one interesting point and that is, the Soviet has made no recent claims.

★ ★ ★

This brings up the point that maybe KHRUSHCHEV is saving some special shot for the summit conference, scheduled May 16. This would be typical of the Kremlin to play this sort of game to gain an advantage at the conference table.

If we are to fight fire with fire, it would seem logical for our own space wizards to come up with our own spectaculer to blast off around May 16 and grab off some of the propaganda play.

★ ★ ★

Mr. K. is a smart public relations counselor and we should play a card from his deck and not ballyhoo such a shot until it is a success. Why give propaganda-wise KHRUSHCHEV the edge in case we had to announce a failure? So many times advance bragging just blows up in your face.

Give Full Cooperation to Census Takers

Very soon now a Census taker will be calling at your house. The full cooperation by the public will make taking the Census an easy task.

For the 18th time in its history, the United States of America is about to count noses. For the first time the Census will cover 50 States, as a result of the recent admission to statehood of the former territories of Alaska and Hawaii.

During April approximately 160,000 enumerators for the United States Bureau of Census will visit about 60,000,000 urban and rural dwelling units to count an estimated 180,000,000 persons and list the social and economic characteristics of the population.

The 1960 Census will record the facts about the nation's population and its housing and its relationship to each other in sufficient detail and in such combinations that any user of Census statistics will find Census reports a treasure house of information.

These reports will comprise the largest compilation of social and economic data in the nation's history. Private enterprise, labor organizations and Government will have new statistics which will be basic to their operations for the next ten years.

Therefore, they must be as accurate and as complete as possible. This can be assured by the fullest cooperation between the Census takers and the individuals reporting to them in April.

It is expected that actual counting of noses will be accomplished within a period of from two to three weeks. Checkups afterwards will require a longer period.

For this Census all householders will be mailed an advance Census report form so they can, if they so desire, have it filled out to hand the enumerator.

Final total population figures for each state will be transmitted by the Secretary of Commerce to the President of the United States no later than Dec. 1, 1960. The State population totals will provide the basis for reapportionment of Congressmen among the various States.

This is an easy chance to be counted, since you don't have to leave home. Make the job easy for the Census taker, the information is for the benefit of us all.

"WORRY will kill a person," says a person. Maybe so, but it will probably take it a long time to do so, as many people who have been worrying considerably more than half a century are still alive and kicking.

A Chance for Elvis to Learn Something

David Lawrence Says:

Northern Press Does Poor Job

WASHINGTON—Much has been heard lately from the so-called "liberal" side about the need for "balanced programing" on television, but something happened the other day which indicates that maybe the broadcasters are doing better than the press in the "balancing" technique.

Just a week ago Sunday, for example, many persons heard a dramatic and informative debate on "Meet the Press" over the National Broadcasting Company's TV network and watched Sen. Herman Talmadge of Georgia, Democrat, do a masterful job in presenting his viewpoint on the "civil rights" issue.

LAWRENCE

But how much of it was printed in most metropolitan papers of the North? Virtually nothing.

The Georgia senator made some good points which still are news to many readers. What he said represents the "other side" of the controversy, and most Americans like to hear or read both sides. Asked what could be done to insure the right to vote, Sen. Talmadge held up a sheaf of papers and said in part:

"Now, in my own state we have approximately 175,000 to 185,000 Negroes who are registered and who do vote. They have elected officials within my state.

"Frequently they are the balance of power in mayor's races and local races of all kinds. The Negroes in Georgia do vote in very substantial numbers. In some counties in Georgia we have a greater percentage of Negroes registered than we have of the white population. In three counties in Georgia we have more Negroes registered and voting than there are white people. . . .

"All citizens who are qualified have been encouraged to vote. We can't help it if some citizens don't exercise that right."

The Georgia senator was then reminded that, according to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission, there were 22 Georgia counties where less than 5 per cent of the Negro population believed to be eligible was registered. He replied that there were adequate remedies, and added:

CAN GO TO COURT

"First, any citizen who thinks that he is being illegally deprived of the vote can go into the federal court, he can get an injunction, he can recover damages against the registrar.

"Second, there is a criminal law. He (the registrar) can be indicted, he can be convicted and sentenced to the federal penitentiary and fined.

"And, thirdly, there is the Civil Rights Act of 1957 that authorizes this group to have the attorney general of the United States of America file a suit in the name of the United States of America as their tax-paid private lawyer to enforce their rights. Now, if those remedies aren't sufficient, there are no laws on the face of the earth that will be."

Then why did the attorney general write a letter this week urging the House of Representatives to restore the section of the "civil rights" bill that was voted down by the Senate a few days ago? The answer is that politics is back of it all.

The attorney general, in his latest communication to Congress, writes that, while the right to vote is of fundamental importance to the Negro, "this thought should not lull anyone into forgetting that, meanwhile, the federal government has a responsibility in other civil rights matters, including the duty to enforce court orders in school desegregation cases."

Dr. William Brady Says:

We All Make Mistakes; Author Admits to Two

I have always admired and revered the late, great Abraham Jacobi, M.D., LL.D., father of pediatrics in America.

For many years I have recommended and still recommend as a practically instantaneous emetic in emergencies a solution of copper sulfate (formerly known as "Blue Vitriol") in water — one grain to the teaspoonful of water.

DR. BRADY

You will find this, with detailed instructions, in The Medicine Cupboard, for a copy of which send me 35 cents and a stamped envelope bearing your address.

Someone has said that if you tell a lie many times over a long period of time you'll come eventually to believe it yourself. Twice in the past week I have been constrained to admit that this is true.

Consulting half a dozen textbooks of pediatrics (diseases of children) that were standard at the turn of the century — when babies were subject to much maltreatment for "colic" — I found in Jacobi's book a bare mention of copper sulphate as an emetic. But in Fischer's Diseases of Infancy, published about 10 years after Jacobi's Therapeutics of Infancy and Childhood I found this statement:

★ ★ ★

My favorite emetic (for croup) is sulphate of copper, 1-grain doses, with ½ ounce (about a tablespoonful) of water. This usually produces an instantaneous effect.

★ ★ ★

At first I thought Fischer got the idea from Jacobi, but on further investigation I concluded, sadly, that Jacobi must have gotten it from Fischer, and so I should have been giving Fischer credit for it all these years. But this is a trifle.

PASTEUR TREATMENT?

The other day Young Bill quizzed me exhaustively about rabies (pronounced ray-bi-eze) and rabietic (not rabid) animals.

I assured him that I would not take so-called Pasteur treatment under any conceivable circumstances. Bill borrowed my rabies files and studied them for a day or two. On returning them he asked whether I had not formerly believed Pasteur treatment efficacious.

"Oh, no, never," I was saying, when he pulled out two clippings from my newspaper health column, in which I said that if a physician in whom I had confidence advised me to take Pasteur treatment I'd take it.

For a while, believe it or not, I was utterly discombobulated. But only for a while. You know me. After a proper interval I pulled myself together and observed "yahbut, that was away back — medicine is making great strides these days. I KNOW no more than any other doctor about ra-bi-es in man, but I believe now more than ever before, that, if it ever does occur in man it is so extremely rare that we are not justified in administering Pasteur treatment."

I believe that many of the fatalities ascribed to rabies are actually due to tetanus.

Today I wouldn't have confidence in a physician who would advise me to take Pasteur treatment, under any conceivable circumstance.

Pontiac Zonta Club wishes to go on record as protesting the leasing of any property in Pontiac to any "Beatnik" organization. We, along with other service organizations have given time and money to make Pontiac a decent place for our children.

'Omit Reference to Candidate's Faith'

All papers now carry articles about this candidate being a Catholic, another a Quaker and so on. Doesn't the Constitution state "no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States?"

Why don't we omit reference to a candidate's faith? Only a couple decades ago we fought the bloodiest, costliest war in history so all men could enjoy the Four Freedoms. Yet today there seems serious doubt that an American can profess any faith he desires and still be President.

We'll have genuine religious freedom when a candidate's faith causes no more concern than it does to the draft board or the Internal Revenue Service. This country will need the very best man it can find for President. Let's hope he's deeply religious, too.

Dog Owner Gripes About Loose Dogs

I'm in agreement with the complaints made about the dog problem in Waterford. Having three dogs which are always kept in our yard, I feel I, too, have a right to complain. If people would just "do unto others as you would have them do unto you," we could keep our area from becoming one big kennel. It seems unfair, after pains to keep our own dogs from running, that we should have our yard ruined by inconsideration of others.

Just call me "ninnie" because I'm the one who expressed my opinion of not liking Lawrence. In answer to Walled Lake Neighbor, I'm quite aware the paper has a comic section.

What I'd like to ask is where are the daily articles to defend the Democrat side? Most broad-minded people enjoy a paper which gives both sides of an issue for the people's different opinions. I'd also like to know why people sign a name such as One Who Knows instead of their real names.

I really like The Pontiac Press despite this letter. Thanks for the hours of pleasure I have had reading your paper. Keep up the good work.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Sterility Woes Prompt Her Affairs

Flora's excessive sex orgies might well be explained by the Kinsey view that women are sex gluttons. But women are comparatively frigid when you get the true medico-psychological facts. So look to the hidden emotional complex that goads such women into being nymphomaniacs. And send for the revealing booklet below for it will stabilize a lot of jealous homes.

★ ★ ★

By GEORGE W. CRANE, M.D.

"Dr. Crane," her angry husband exclaimed, "Flora is emotionally deranged.

DR. CRANE

"She has affairs with many men and though she cries and begs me to forgive her, within a month or so I find she has repeated the offense.

"So I am fed up with her. I think she is a psychopathic personality, for I have treated her swell, given her a car and plenty of money to run the house. Yet she stabs me in the back by having affairs even with my close friends!

"Is she crazy? I've excused her for several years because I thought she was a mental case."

IS SHE STERILE?

"Is Flora sterile?" I bluntly asked.

★ ★ ★

"Why, yes, she is," he replied, "but why did you ask?"

"Because I have never seen a nymphomaniac (sex-mad woman) who wasn't goaded into her many affairs by a sexual inferiority complex."

And that is true. Women are not passionate creatures, as measured by the usual male standard. They don't sit around, as many men do, telling risque stories and contemplating crass sexual behavior.

When women crave men, it is usually for companionship, dates and dancing, social "show-off" events and the assurance of having a dominant personality to lean on.

Flora later admitted to me her many indiscretions with men. Yet she had never had any significant sexual gratification from ANY of those men.

★ ★ ★

Like most prostitutes and "call" girls, she didn't even know what female sexual satisfaction involved.

But she said she felt low in spirits whenever she'd realize she couldn't have any children of her own.

"I just wonder if I am 'all there' as a woman," she expressed it.

"Don't you feel reassured because of your husband's devotion?" I inquired.

"No, Dr. Crane," she added, "for he is a good man and gallant so he'd make me think he cared, even if he really didn't.

"So I flirt with a stranger to see if I still have any feminine appeal. And then it just goes on to the affair stage so I can fell sure of my ability to charm a normal male.

★ ★ ★

"But I don't love these men. I just need them to bolster my wounded ego."

SEX DIFFERENCES

And that is the usual story of women who step out on their husbands or two-time their fiances.

For women's sex desire is largely an imaginative, poetical and conjuetic need to keep their ego bolstered with male attention.

Men, however, have a more intense and localized erotic drive. And this difference has caused untold jealousy, plus divorces and murders since the beginning of time.

"Dr. Crane," many college wives have admitted, "I am not half as ardent as my husband. But he gets angry if I don't ACT as eager as he is, so I just feign excitement to make him happy."

A lot of jealous middle-aged husbands also magnify the supposed erotic hunger of their mates, when they could banish such false ideas if they'd just get the true sex facts.

So send for the booklet "Sex Differences Between Men and Women," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 25 cents (non-profit).

Read the actual confessions therein of educated women, for men are often needlessly jealous.

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long self-addressed envelope and 25c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Judge Appears Likely Successor to Neuberger

SALEM, Ore. (AP)—The Oregon Statesman said today that Hall Stoner Lusk, 76, a state Supreme Court justice, will be named successor to the late Sen. Richard L. Neuberger.

The Statesman predicted Lusk's appointment to an interim term in the Senate by Gov. Mark Hatfield will be announced today.

The law sponsored by Neuberger when he was in the state Senate, requires Hatfield to appoint a man of the same party as Neuberger, a Democrat. Hatfield is a Republican.

"THE GREATEST RESOURCE OF ANY REGION IS ITS HUMAN RESOURCE. OUR AREA POSSESSES A LARGE, SKILLED AND VERSATILE WORK FORCE."

This quotation, from Detroit Edison's Annual Report for 1959, sums up Michigan's present economic leadership and points the way toward even greater pioneering in research, scientific development and utilization of skills for a promising future. It highlights, too, Detroit Edison's endeavors to bring greater opportunities to the people and communities it serves in Southeastern Michigan.

The Annual Report also outlines many other phases of Detroit Edison's continuing record of service to its million and a quarter customers. For example, total investment in the service area is over $1.1 billion and its electrical generating capacity has grown to 3¼ million kilowatts.

Partners in this electric enterprise are nearly 106,000 Detroit Edison shareholders—70% of them in Michigan—who received dividends at the rate of $2.00 per share in 1959, and the Company employes, who again achieved outstanding leadership in electric industry operations.

The people in Michigan look to the future with confidence. Detroit Edison will continue to provide them with versatile electric energy and industrial leadership to better use both natural and human resources.

Rights Bill Legislators Push for Referee Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights advocates drove today for House approval of a voting referee plan to resolve the long wrangle over legislation against racial discrimination at the polls.

★ ★ ★

There were even some "anti-carpetbag" sweeteners in it for the Southerners, who were still fighting it vigorously. Members outside the South generally were supporting the revised proposal.

The major test vote was expected late today, paving the way for a final House vote on the bill about Thursday.

★ ★ ★

The GOP House leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, told newsmen he thinks the House could write "a fine law" by incorporating the revised administration plan for referees into the stripped-down bill before it.

Halleck said the Senate might well agree to such a bill and end the marathon hassle raging on that side of the Capitol for exactly a month.

The Senate continued battling over various provisions of its own civil rights legislation despite a general expectation it eventually will accept whatever the House passes.

Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, leader of the Democratic supporters of civil rights legislation, joined his Republican counterpart, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, in predicting approval by the House of the referee plan.

IN FINAL FORM

In its final form, the proposal retains the basic idea of court-appointed officers who could step in when state officials followed a pattern of discrimination against Negro or other minority would-be voters.

★ ★ ★

The proposal which has been revised requires that referees be local people, voters in the judicial district involved. Language authorizing the referees to follow the voting process right through the counting of the ballots was somewhat modified. However, spokesmen on both sides agreed that in extreme cases the referees could be sent in to oversee even the actual count.

★ ★ ★

The House in swift parliamentary moves Monday discarded two administration civil rights proposals that might have led to prolonged debate. Both were ruled out of order on grounds they were not closely enough related to the main bill.

They would have provided for:

A commission to safeguard Negro and other minority employment rights on government contracts.

Financial aid to school districts changing from segregated school systems.

Improvement Moves Tonight

Commission Is Set to Study 32 Neighborhood Projects, Other Plans

The 1960 public improvement program is scheduled to get started tonight before the City Commission.

Up for consideration are 32 neighborhood projects, 25 of them new.

These and other projects tentatively approved by commissioners during informal sessions since the first of the year will be the subject of preliminary hearings during the coming weeks.

All are to be financed, in part, through special assessments and gas and weight tax funds accumulated by the city.

More projects will be considered at future commission meetings.

Tonight, commissioners are scheduled to place 20 curb and gutter projects on the public improvement program, as well as a short sanitary sewer on the south side of Montcalm street and two blacktopping jobs.

In addition, they will consider costs for seven blacktopping projects approved last year but never carried out.

Of unusual interest tonight are proposals to recap Orchard Lake avenue and make curb repairs from the Clinton River bridge to Saginaw street and to widen and recap Edison street, Rundell to Montcalm.

Up for initial airing is an ordinance to rezone from residential to commercial three lots on the northeast corner of Oakland avenue and Blaine street for a used car lot.

★ ★ ★

Cost estimates are ready for one of the two big sanitary sewer projects this year — repairs to a 120-foot section of trunkline on the south side of north Perry street, between Gage and Paddock streets.

Rights Group Accused of Discrimination

WASHINGTON (AP) — An attorney who quit his job with the Civil Rights Commission today accused staff director Gordon Tiffany of discriminating against Negro employes of the commission.

★ ★ ★

John T. R. Godlewski called a news conference to air his grievances against Tiffany, a former attorney general of New Hampshire.

Godlewski, 42, an attorney with the commission since November 1958, said, "There have been numerous instances of discrimination against Negroes in the commission."

No Hope in State for Rights Laws This Year

LANSING (AP)—The last hope for enacting civil rights legislation this year in Michigan flickered out today.

Rep. George Edwards (D-Detroit), chief sponsor of the Democratic civil rights bills, said there would be no second attempt to force the House State Affairs Committee to release civil rights legislation it pigeonholed last week.

A Democratic move to bring one bill to the House floor for debate failed by three votes Friday.

Under tomorrow's deadline for passing House bills, Edwards pointed out a two-thirds favorable majority would be needed to suspend House rules and bring Civil Rights bills from the committee in time for passage.

School Milk Cost to Climb

Increase of Half-Cent a Half-Pint Effective on April 1

LANSING (UPI)—Milk for school children's lunches will go up a half-cent a half-pint to the children starting April 1, the Department of Public Instruction said today.

★ ★ ★

Norman E. Tellar, chief of the school lunch program, said a decrease in the amount of federal money available caused the change.

"More milk is being consumed in the schools and Michigan ranks about fourth or fifth among the states in consumption," Tellar said.

Michigan children will have consumed about 110 million half pints of milk at the end of the school year in June, he said. The federal appropriation was expected to be about $3,333,000 but the reduction will make it slightly lower.

The normal cost of a half pint of milk to schools is about 5 or 5½ cents, Tellar said.

The federal share of the cost before the reduction was 4 cents for schools serving all other type lunches. The new payment will be 3½ cents and 2½ cents, respectively.

O'Hara said that Bruff's resignation as district representative will become effective April 1.

Actors Strike Break Looms

Stars Might Resume Work Now in Return for Liberal Contract

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hopes for an early settlement of the strike of 3,000 Hollywood actors rose today as negotiators for the Screen Actors Guild considered a back-to-work plan.

★ ★ ★

Guild officials said they will decide by Thursday if actors will be allowed to go back to work on eight films which were in progress when the walkout halted shooting.

★ ★ ★

Mediators hoped that if the guild agrees to resume work the Assn. of Motion Picture Producers will match it with a concession opening the door to an early settlement of the dispute, which began March 7.

★ ★ ★

The SAG is seeking a pension and welfare plan, and wants the studios to use funds from the sale to TV of post-1948 films to augment the pension program. The producers have opposed the principle of any payments based on sales to TV.

Russia Orders Big Supply of British Dresses

LONDON (AP) — A British dress firm announced today it has received an order from the Soviet Union for $280,000 worth of summer frocks.

Wallace Austin, head of the firm, said it is the first Soviet order for women's clothing received by Britain since the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917.

"They were particularly interested in youthful, casual wear. The material they preferred was jersey. The favorite color was light gray," he said.

Connor Will Decide Plans in 48 Hours

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit councilman Edward D. Connor said today he "will make a definite statement one way or the other within 48 hours" on whether he will seek the Democratic nomination for governor.

Connor added, however, "there will be no announcement today." The Detroit Times reported from Lansing Connor "was poised today to enter" the race.

"An awful lot of people are hammering me to enter the race," Connor told newsmen. "And a surprising number of these calls are coming from outstate."

Fail to Locate 18 Trapped Miners; Rescue Team Tries for Last Area

LOGAN, W.Va. (AP) — Hope ebbed today for rescue of 18 trapped coal miners as rescue teams probed the areas where they might have taken refuge and found no one.

One area was found empty Monday night and another this morning. There were no signs of the men at the entrance to the third and final refuge where the men trapped since last Tuesday, may have gone.

★ ★ ★

"If they're up toward the slope, they're dead," said Paul Lingo, deputy state mines director.

Basic mine safety instructions call for trapped men to use chalk or other means to leave signs for rescuers.

The 18 were cut off about 8 a.m. last Tuesday when a small rock slide snapped an electric cable that ignited some timbers. The timbers in turn started a smoldering fire in the coal.

Communication was maintained with the miners for about four hours until that line, too, was broken, apparently burned through by the fire.

There are three honeycombed refuge areas, or "rooms," off the main passageway where the men might have barricaded themselves from the deadly fumes and smoke from the fire.

An alternative would have been to try to make it through the main passageway to an old mine entrance on the other side of the mountain. This way has been blocked for some time, and safety officials consider it the worst choice the men could have made.

T. N. Camicia, vice president in charge of mine operations, said rescue workers searched the second area sufficiently to establish there was nobody there before pulling back. All they found was a string of about 20 coal cars.

OFF TO 3rd AREA

The rescue team sent out to reach the third area—100 feet deeper in the mine—was told to check the barricade at its entrance for signs of the men but not to break any seal which might be protecting the trapped men from deadly fumes.

The rescue workers who checked the entrance to area three said they found the air good. They said they could have taken off the oxygen masks they wore.

★ ★ ★

Area three apparently is the last possible refuge spot where the miners chance of survival would be good.

"Elk Creek slope is not a good place to be. We just can't believe they're there," said J. L. Hamilton, executive vice president of the mining company.

★ ★ ★

United Mine Workers Union records in Washington show there have been several rescues of miners who have been sealed off underground by rock falls or fire for a week or more.

The most recent spectacular rescue was at Springhill, Nova Scotia, in October 1958, when falling rock cut off scores of mines.

Seventy-four men were killed outright, and 81 escaped at the outset. A dozen more miners were saved 6½ days later. Seven more dug out alive after spending 9 days underground.

Await Commission Meeting

Pigeonhole Beatnik Bids

Bids to open two beatnik-style night places in Pontiac were pigeonholed at City Hall today, awaiting the outcome of a special meeting of the City Commission.

Mayor Philip E. Rowston said that he had called the meeting for 4:30 p. m. today at the request of Donald Jacobs, manager of one of the upcoming spots.

"Mr. Jacobs wanted to meet with us because he heard that there was some local opposition to places of this sort," said Rowston.

Jacobs, 32, of Livonia, is the manager of "The Cave of the 9th Cat," scheduled to open soon at 18 S. Perry St., if a food license is issued.

It is the application for a food license that is bottled up in the city's Sanitation Department on orders from City Manager Walter K. Wilman.

"We want to know the Commission's policy on this matter before we process the license," explained Robert A. Stierer, assistant city manager.

★ ★ ★

Also pigeonholed is an application for a food license for another beatnik-style coffee house at 462 S. Saginaw St.

★ ★ ★

This one is sought by Gabriel Glantz, an Oak Park attorney, for a group called Oak Restaurants, Inc.

Charles Cohen, city sanitarian, said that neither place had complied yet with the minimum requirements for a food license.

He added, though, that compliance would be simple, since both places propose to serve only simple refreshments.

Civil Service Ideas Presented

Top Firefighter Tells Waterford Board About Retirement Plans

Simon Chappell, president of the Michigan State Firefighters Association, was present at last night's Waterford Township Board meeting to explain the merits of having civil service for township fire and policemen.

The Board had received a request from the township firemen to place the issue on the Aug. 2 primary.

At the present time, there is no compensation of any kind for retirement of either the township's firemen or policemen. They contend that their organizations are required to stay nonpolitical and that with a change in administration there is no assurance of retaining their jobs.

Chappell told the Board that the establishment of a three-member commission "would give a man on the job a chance to appeal an unfair decision." This would cover all paid men including the fire chief.

★ ★ ★

Following a long question and answer period, Chappell told the Board he would present copies of operations of civil service now being used in nearby communities at next week's meeting.

The first recorded use of coal in the United States was in 1702.

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Last week a group of women with whom I play cards each week went out to dinner and the theater. We had the money set aside, having put away a little each week. The day the group went out I came down with a virus and could not go with them. They went out anyway, which of course, I didn't object to, but they spent all the money that was in the kitty, including my share, which I did mind very much. I feel that my share of the money should have been returned to me. In fact, I told them so at our last meeting and they seemed quite surprised at my attitude. Don't you think, Mrs. Post, that they were wrong to spend my share of the money?

Answer: They most certainly should not have spent your share of the money. As you were unable to go with them, they should have put your share aside and returned it to you.

* * *

Dear Mrs. Post: We have new neighbors living next door to us who have a dog. Every morning, around six o'clock, they let the dog out. He races around the yard barking like mad. My husband does not have to get up until seven o'clock but this incessant barking awakens him at six and he cannot get back to sleep.

He works very hard and needs all the rest he can get. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully put an end to this situation without causing ill feelings?

Answer: Your husband's sleep is important and I think you will have to explain this to your new neighbors and ask them please not to let their dog out until seven o'clock in the morning.

It Misses!

OK for May, but on Mary---

The May Britt look has turned nearly half the teenster set into "long-hairs," and the only thing amiss is that there are not enough misses who can wear this starkly straight style. The typical teen ager, above center, achieves only a limp look in emulating the style, for her hair lacks natural body. The answer is to adapt the trend, not imitate it. At right is a modified version of Miss Britt's look, enhanced by a straight crown, smooth bangs and a fluff of curls to break severe straightness. A gentle end curl permanent gives the necessary body.

Will Hear of Pines

The Pine Lake Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn. will meet Thursday at the home of Mrs. Edna Keller on Pineview drive, West Bloomfield township.

Mrs. Wayne Siefert, Oakland County Agricultural Agent, will speak on the horticulture of pines.

Thursday, March 24, Mrs. Jerome Janis will hostess the third in a series of bridge-luncheons in her home on Pineview drive.

The second in the series of benefit parties was in the home of Mrs. Harold Schneider on Pine Ridge road, West Bloomfield township.

Find Out Why! Says Dear Abby

Take Problem Child to Doctor

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my 6-year-old daughter. She is always running away. I hate to keep her locked up all the time, but the minute I turn my back she runs away.

ABBY

The police have brought her back so many times I am ashamed.

I put her in a nursery school and she ran away from there yesterday. They told me not to send her any more as they couldn't be responsible. I can't blame them.

* * *

Saturday she ran away from home at 10:00 a.m. and the police didn't bring her home until 10:00 p.m. My husband is away with the Navy and worrying about this child keeps me on edge all the time. Everyone, even the police, says she must have an emotional disturbance. Can you, or anyone who has lived through this problem, help me, Abby?

NAVY WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If your daughter had a toothache, you wouldn't hesitate to take her to a dentist. An "emotional disturbance" usually can be cured and deserves as much attention. Talk this over with your family doctor. Running away is a symptom. I urge you to waste no time.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: Why don't we have marriage bureaus. Every city has employment agencies, both public and private, to assist people in finding jobs. But romance is left to sheer chance. If locating mates were done in a businesslike way, there would be fewer bachelors, maiden ladies and other unattached individuals. What do you think?

ORGANIZED

DEAR ORGANIZED: Cupid doesn't carry a compass. If I had to "locate" a man with the assistance of an IBM machine, I'd wonder what was wrong with him.

DEAR ABBY: My husband works for a large concern, and the switchboard girl is my problem. She's divorced, attractive and efficient. But she tells the men the filthiest jokes imaginable. Naturally she doesn't have to twist my husband's arm very hard to get him to listen.

She has the nerve to call my husband up at home in the evenings to tell him a new joke. Once we were in the middle of a bridge game and this trollop called, so he left the table and stood there laughing like a hyena while she told him a story.

At the company party, while I helped serve, she was off in a corner telling some of her jokes to a bunch of howling men.

Several other wives have complained about this. Do you think the opinions of eight wives would be sufficient to impress the personnel manager?

HAD ENOUGH

DEAR HAD: Possibly. Provided the personnel manager wasn't one of the "howling men" she had in a corner.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HOCK-TA CHINIK": That's what you have two ears for. Let it go into one, and out the other.

TIME MARCHES ON

From day to day you don't notice how fast your children are growing and changing. It only hits home when you try to squeeze junior into last year's coat, and you find the sleeves now barely reach his wrists.

How can you keep track of this growth? Notches in the kitchen door are one way. Movies are a bit better.

With your own home movies you can see a boy's first, faltering steps replaced by a head-long gallop. You can see a little girl play with a rattle one moment, see her take her first doll carriage for a stroll, the next.

With movies you see all the action that brings pleasant memories to life again, in brilliant color that makes it all so easy to remember.

But wonderful as new movie cameras are — one thing they can't do is take the movies you should have taken yesterday. So why not make the move up to movies this spring? You'll find it an easy step to take with a Brownie Movie Camera.

— At our counter you can take your choice of single-lens models priced low. Or a turret model that lets you shoot three kinds of scenes—normal, wide-angle, and telephoto—for only a little more! Or enjoy the convenience of electric-eye exposure control that's yours with the new Automatics.

Large Voter Turnout Results in Several Upsets

Sticker Candidate Defeats Lake Orion Village Head

A large voter turnout was reported in most of the area communities which held village elections yesterday. Following are the unofficial returns listed by community:

Lake Orion

Bidding for the post of Lake Orion village president in yesterday's election, sticker candidate Irvine J. Unger toppled incumbent William Shoup from office, 178 to 133 votes.

Shoup had served three terms on the Village Council, one as president.

Rochester

Two newcomers to the Rochester political scene captured village Council seats in yesterday's voting.

Don G. Pixley garnered 369 of the total 711 votes to secure one of the 3 two-year terms filled at this time. The other newcomer, Jay Eldred, was elected by 384 votes to a one-year post.

Incumbents Sidney Q. Ennis and Stowell Collins were re-elected by 488 and 465 votes respectively to the other two-year terms.

Novi

Three incumbent councilmen were defeated and the first village councilwoman was elected in Novi yesterday in the first regular election since incorporation two years ago.

Polling the third highest total votes, dark-horse Eugene Choquet was elected to a two-year term behind two newcomers, Joseph Grupi and Dean Lenheiser.

Losing to the newcomers were incumbents A. Russell Button, Dicron Tafralian and Dirk H. Groenberg. Button and Groenberg received the two lowest votes in the field of eight candidates seeking the three council posts.

* * *

Both Crupi and Lenheiser received four-year Council terms.

Other total votes were Donald W. Woodward, 240; Dicron Tafralian, 231; Ted H. Christenson, 224; Dirk Groenberg, 196, and A. Russell Button, 191.

Metamora

All Citizens Party candidates were elected to office in Metamora by large majorities except the two incumbent trustees running for re-election.

New trustees are George Townsend and William Day Jr., both of the Progressive Party, who received 35 and 39 votes respectively, and William Hobbins, Citizens Party, with 41.

Defeated in the close race were the two incumbents, Howard Ribble with 31 votes and Lawrence W. Smith with 28. The other Progressive Party candidate, Paige Stewart, polled 22 votes.

The two incumbents, Jay H. LaMar and Don Heim, received 110 and 107 votes respectively. The third Village Party candidate, W. Eugene Lane, polled 105 votes.

Milford Listens to Water Report

Council Orders Test Well After Survey's Recommendation

MILFORD—A 50-page engineering report on the village water distribution system, with recommendations for present and future improvements, was presented to the Council last night for study.

* * *

At the same time the Council authorized the engineer and author of the report, Robert F. McCauley, to take preliminary steps for drilling a test well.

In the report and survey, made at a cost of $1,600, McCauley, along with associate W. I. Kenerson, recommended that the village drill a 600-gallon-per-minute well on city-owned property.

"This, together with a main of adequate size from the well to the distribution system, is the most pressing need in the village at present," McCauley said in his report.

* * *

The report also recommends that a booster pump be installed to improve the water pressure condition in the Bonnie Highlands area on Commerce road, northeast of the village.

SURVEY AUTHORIZED

McCauley was authorized by the Council in December to make the survey of the water system after the State Health Department had refused to issue any further permits to extend water mains into new subdivisions until a new well was drilled.

At that time the State Health Department, in a letter to the Council, said that the village water supply last summer reached a "dangerously" low point when a pump on one of the wells was shut off for repairs.

Until a new well was drilled, the health department said it would halt further construction of new subdivisions in the village.

At present, the village is served by two wells, drilled in 1938 and 1939 and located on city-owned property, 201 N. Main.

TO COST $10,500

The McCauley report recommends that the new well be drilled on the same site. He estimated that the new well would cost $10,500.

"Milford is in an enviable position in regard to both the quality and availability of water," McCauley said in the report.

"The village owns the land where a new well can be situated and the iron content is low," McCauley said. He said that the village water iron content is almost nil.

"Since many communities in central and southern Michigan have high iron content in their water, Milford is particularly blessed."

The report strongly recommended that lined cast mains be used in future development, and that unlined cast iron and steel mains be prohibited.

'CLEAN OUT MAIN'

McCauley's report said that a further investigation should be made to determine the partial blockage of an eight-inch main running north on North Main street to Summit road.

* * *

The finale will be the coronation of the "Troy BPW Fashion Queen" picked from a field of 18 candidates. The four runners-up will form the queen's court.

Auburn PO Proposal Protested

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP—The Pontiac Township Board last night went on record as censuring and objecting to any action designed to change the Auburn Heights Post Office to a substation of Pontiac's postal system.

The Board, having learned that the U. S. Post Office Department intends to "discontinue the Auburn Heights Post Office under its present designation," unanimous l y passed a resolution protesting the proposed move.

According to Supervisor Leroy Davis, telegrams and letters to this effect have been sent to U. S. Sen.'s Phillip A. Hart and Patrick V. McNamara, U. S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland) and Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Board members say that for approximately 20 years a branch of the U. S. Post Office has existed in Auburn Heights and has grown three-fold due to the increase in population in that area.

* * *

"All kinds of complaints have been registered about this proposed change," Davis stated. "Citizens feel that by losing the designation of the Auburn Heights Post Office, Auburn Heights (an unincorporated village) loses its identity."

"The post office only has $3,-000 in business volume to go before becoming a first class post office that would furnish house-to-house delivery," other members pointed out.

Also cited as a major factor contributing to the desire of many citizens that the post office remain a branch is the trade it brings into the village.

Voicing sentiments favoring the move to substation status was former township trustee Steve Douglas. He said he would circulate petitions asking the substation in order to assure house-to-house delivery as soon as possible.

* * *

In other action last night, the Board decided to advertise for bids on both a new pickup and-or panel truck with or without a trade-in.

Action on hiring township engineers was tabled until the next meeting.

Record Ballot Recorded

OK School Tax in Romeo

ROMEO—A record number of 1,175 voters turned out in yesterday's special Romeo Community School district election to favor a four-mill operational tax levy for one year by a 100-vote majority.

The total tally was 633 yes to 533 no.

Leaflets explaining the proposition also were distributed house-to-house in the village and mailed to the rural electorate in the district Friday.

The millage hike was defeated in the other two precincts, Washington and Davis, by votes of 107 no to 88 yes and 72 no to 34 yes respectively.

The school district rejected a tax hike for four mills for 10 years for school operation Oct. 3 by a vote of 461 to 380.

According to the Board of Education, the money raised by the present millage increase will be used to pay this year's anticipated deficit of about $40,000 and to give the teachers salary boosts of $200 next year.

Despite the fact that there was no competition for village posts in Romeo's general election yesterday, a total of 471 voters cast their ballots, a record high in recent years.

For the three trustee posts, the top vote-getter was the only incumbent not defeated in the primary, Donald Payne, with 424 votes. Next was Tony Galan with 401 and then Jack McFadden with 388.

The other incumbents, all unchallenged for re-election, were Clerk Sidney J. White, who garnered 429 votes; Treasurer Mrs. Elaine Hosner, 446; Assessor Elgin Anger, 435; and Library Directors Mrs. Helen Stone and H. Dale Palmer, 413 and 388 respectively.

Assessment Refund on Troy Ballot

TROY—The Troy City Commission decided last night to place on the Aug. 2 ballot the charter amendment which would provide for refunding of surplus assessments.

It was first scheduled to be voted on in the April 4 election, but requested rewording was not completed in time, City Clerk J. L. Lockhart said today.

The proposed amendment would allow surplus assessments to be refunded to the property owners of record as of date of refund who were over-assessed.

It also would specify that the basis from the time of the over-refunds be made on a pro rata assessments.

The city engineer was instructed to draw plans and give costs estimates on construction of about a mile-long extension of the Evergreen Disposal System in the northwest section of the city.

A public hearing is set for April 11 on a request to rezone two lots on the corner of Wattles and Dequindre roads from residential to Commercial B3 classification.

The city agreed to construct the road and let bids for laying water mains to the new elementary school to be built between Livernois and Rochester roads, north of Wattles road.

* * *

The engineer also was instructed to draw plans and estimate cost of construction of sewers on the rear lot line easements in Pine Hills-Meadow Lane subdivision, on the corner of Adams and Wattles roads.

School Tax Hike Loses in Vote

HAZEL PARK — A four-mill school tax increase was defeated 1,715 to 1,079 in a special election here yesterday.

It was a light turnout for the school district which records 10,902 registered voters.

If approved, the increase in funds would have been used to cover operating expenses.

FAA Grounds Pilots at Age 60

Ban Goes Into Effect as Judge Refuses to Grant Injunction

NEW YORK (AP)—Commercial airline pilots 60 years of age or older were grounded today by a Federal Aviation Agency order.

The ban went into effect at midnight after federal Judge Alexander Bicks Monday denied a motion by the Air Line Pilots Assn. seeking a preliminary injunction against the ruling. Forty-seven Attorneys for the pilots argued that the order, issued last December, was arbitrary and unreasonable.

In his order, FAA Administrator E. R. Quesda, a retired Air Force general, cited the "progressive deterioration of both physiological and psychological functions which normally occur with age."

He maintained that to allow pilots 60 or over to fly passengers at speeds of 500 miles an hour would be a hazard to safety in air carrier operations.

In denying the injunction, Bicks said "any attempt to weigh the countervailing consideration of dollar loss" to the pilots "against the public safety in air carrier operations borders on vulgarity."

The pilots immediately appealed Bicks' decision. A hearing was set for April 8 before a three-judge appeals court.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID'S unequalled rebulking action helps restone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! Introductory size 43¢.

Appeal or New Probe Pending

Manhattan President Jack Free of Conspiracy Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack, free of an indictment charging him with violation of the city charter, resumes his $25,000-a-year job today.

The nation's highest Negro city official announced his return shortly after the two-month-old indictment was thrown out on a technicality Monday.

Charges of conspiracy and violation of the city charter grew out of Jack's acceptance of a $4,400 remodeling job on his Harlem apartment from real estate operator Sidney Ungar. Ungar, Jack's one-time campaign manager, was seeking city approval at the time for a multimillion-dollar slum clearance project.

When he was indicted Jan. 12 Jack voluntarily gave up his job and salary pending a legal decision.

General Sessions Judge Gerald P. Culkin ruled that the indictment was not properly drawn. But he said the district attorney could start a new grand jury inquiry into the 52-year-old Jack's conduct.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan promptly announced that he would do that if necessary, but would first appeal Culkin's decision to the appellate division of the State Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

A copy of Culkin's decision is being sent to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who alone has power to remove a borough president from office.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's space chief Monday hit back at critics who, he said, are trying to make everybody believe "we are so far behind that we may never forge ahead" of Russia.

This view was expressed by Dr. T. Keith Glennan, director of the National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) in a statement asking the House Appropriations Committee to approve his agency's $915,000,000 budget for the year starting July 1.

Conceding Soviet superiority in rocket power, Glennan added: "I do not think they will maintain that superiority for long if we continue to build up our capability."

County Farm Wives Still Help With Chores

Pontiac Press Photos

VETERAN FARMER — When her husband died three years ago, Mrs. Iva Goodrich, 63, and her brother went right on operating her big farm on Dossin road near Milford. She is on the job at 5 a. m. daily and hand-milks 18 cows. Mrs. Goodrich is shown with one of her 50 sheep that is also part of her farming business.

Using Modern Equipment, They Pack Their Day Full

By REBA HEINTZELMAN

Although many modern conveniences and home luxuries have eased the work of farm wives, the women still continue to "put their shoulders to the wheel" in helping with chores on most of Oakland County farms.

This was revealed in a spot check made by the Pontiac Press in four different sections of the county. Reports showed that automatic dishwashers, deep freezers, garbage disposals, washers and dryers have not made "social butterflies" of farm women.

On the contrary, they actually get more work done and seem to get more enjoyment out of their day, which usually begins around 5 a.m.

Because of advanced working equipment, there is more time to spend with their children, as well as time for improving themselves physically and mentally.

* * *

However, driving a tractor, pitching hay or "slopping the pigs" has not become a lost art with these sturdy women who still bake their own bread.

And the women know too well the full meaning of farm parties, allotments, soil banks and other government control programs.

Take Mrs. Ellison Austin of Independence Township for instance. She thinks nothing of whipping up a batch of pancakes, frying sausages, cooking oatmeal and baking homemade rolls for breakfast around 5 a.m.

By the time her three children, Loren, 16, Duane, 13, and daughter Beryl, 10, have finished their breakfasts and chores, and have boarded the Clarkston school bus, Mrs. Austin goes down to the barn and cleans the milk house and takes care of her 500 chickens — all this before 8 a.m.

* * *

After the big milk room with its bulk stainless steel tank, milk pails, strainers and two milking machines have had a thorough scrubbing, she gathers eggs.

The big 180-acre Austin dairy farm is located about five miles north of Clarkston on Kier road. The house, which has been in the family for more than 100 years, is nestled in a scenic valley surrounded by huge maple and oak trees.

* * *

ON TIPSICO LAKE ROAD

About two miles south of Highland on Tipsico Lake road, Mrs. Frank Winterhalter is busy with her hundreds of temperamental white Queen Leghorn hens. She said, "They are anything but queens.

"If the weather is just right, if the place is kept quiet and if they are fed and watered constantly, these hens might produce one egg a day."

Because the breed is highly nervous, most of her 550 birds have been defighted and debeaked.

Each costs 45 cents when they are a day old, and plenty of back-breaking work goes into feeding the chicks for five months before they lay, Mrs. Winterhalter says.

Besides the chickens, the 35 head of Holstein dairy cattle on the farm have to be fed, watered, milked and taken care of twice daily. When there are such emergencies as the birth of a new calf or a cow caught in a fence, the first person on the spot is usually the farmer's wife.

ON STONEY CREEK ROAD

From a once small 50-acre farm just east of Lake Orion, the Keith Middletons' Stoney Creek road farm has been expanded to some 550 acres of well-cared-for rich soil.

Mrs. Middleton helps with the hay-making, milking, cleaning and othey chores, while looking after her five youngsters and keeping house.

Even though her four boys, William, 20, Larry, 18, Tom, 14, and Jack, 10, are a big help, Mrs. Middleton still takes part in many of the chores, "because she loves farming."

* * *

The energetic woman keeps records straight in the farm books, bakes hundreds of rolls and fresh pies to store in the freezer, and is "up to her neck in" 4-H activities. Her son, Larry, was named Michigan's Champion Holstein 4-H boy for 1959, which is well worth all of the effort, she said.

Although the Middletons now have two farms (the family has just purchased one of Charles E. Wilson's farms) they have never been subsidized by the government, or even considered entering the soil bank program.

"We need every bit of grain that we can raise, and do not raise wheat because of the involved allotment restrictions," Mrs. Middleton said.

From the break of dawn until late at night, the entire family works. The latest adventure, skiing —and this includes mother—has prompted evening chores to be done "on the double" so that they can all take off for nearby Mt. Grampion.

ON DOSSIN ROAD

One of the most amazing and older farmer's wives in the county lives on Dossin road between New Hudson and Milford. Three years ago when Mrs. Iva Goodrich's husband died everyone thought she would give up farming. She was 63 years old, but farming was in her blood, and she continued.

The next year all of her big barns burned to the ground and, to make matters worse, one of her favorite cows kicked her in the leg, leaving her partially lame.

* * *

All this has not dampened the sprightly little woman's zest for life. With the burned barns went three electric milking machines, and since that time, Mrs. Goodrich has been milking 18 cows by hand twice daily.

Two boys from a vocational school do the hardest work, but the little lady says that her cows know her, and she insists that she can get more milk than any machine ever could.

In the back room of the kitchen in the big 12-room house, is a freezer stored with fresh food. Television set has brought the world in to the little farm woman, and as far as the government farm program is concerned—Mrs. Goodrich says "that's for the birds."

* * *

Whether old or young, Oakland County's farm wives today are busy, intelligent hardworking women that neither time or automatic working equipment will ever be able to change.

PART OF HER JOB — Mrs. Frank Winterhalter takes care of 550 white leghorn chickens on her farm near Highland. When her help is needed in the barn, she is right there in a hurry. She and her husband have been farming in this area for more than 20 years.

PITCHES IN — Feeding some of the 45 Holstein cattle is like eating duck soup to Mrs. Ellison Austin of 6805 Kier Rd., north of Clarkston. She is one of the many Oakland County farm wives who assist their husbands with farm chores when help is needed.

Over Half Prefer Michigan Schools

'Thinking' About Colleges

ANN ARBOR (AP)—More than half the parents in Michigan are thinking about higher education for their children, and 36 per cent says it almost certainly will send a child to college, a statewide survey show.

The study, made by the University of Michigan's Survey Research Center, was conducted for use by the Association of Governing Boards and Presidents of State Universities and Colleges in the State.

Only one in six families expressed uncertainty about higher education for their children, saying the decision would depend greatly upon its circumstances when their children reach college age.

Use of tax money to finance expansion of higher education was favored by 44 per cent of those interviewed, while 33 per cent felt the cost should be borne by college students and their families. Others favored use of both methods.

LIKE STATE SCHOOLS

Among those thinking about sending their children to college, 40 per cent have a fairly good idea where their children will go. Well over half chose state-supported colleges and universities.

Michigan, Michigan State and Wayne State Universities were named as the choices by nearly all of those who favored sending their children to state-supported schools.

Reputation and proximity to home were the reasons which most frequently determine the final choice of a college. Cost factors and the school's affiliation with a preferred religious denomination were next in line.

Attending college in Michigan is favored by a nine-to-one margin over going to college outside the state.

Concerning primary and secondary schools, about one adult in two advocates some changes in their programs, although many were not clear about specific changes.

"The major idea is reducible to a more down-to-earth, more demanding curriculum and teaching methods," the report said.

Doesn't Take Bees Long to Find Vacant Hives

ZIONSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — M. L. Barrett ran a classified ad in the Zionsville Times, seeking swarms of bees for four vacant hives he had. One morning he checked the hives and found a swarm of bees had moved into one of them. They didn't say whether they had read the ad.

HELPS IN THE BARN — One of the most likely places to find Mrs. Keith Middleton on her 550 acre farm near Lake Orion is down in the calf barn where she takes special pride in helping a cow give birth to its young. With 153 head of registered Holstein cattle to be kept "fresh," Mrs. Middleton is a regular visitor to the cow barns.

Champagne Invading Stronghold of Beer

FRANKFORT, Germany (UPI)—Beer is still the national drink in Germany, but champagne is doing a good job of catching up with it.

The federal statistical office said over the weekend that in 1959 champagne consumption reached nearly 59 million bottles, or an increase of 18 per cent over 1958.

Pecho Calls Her a Suicide

State to Recheck Wife-Slayer Case

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has called for a thorough probe of the case of a former Lansing man who has served five years in prison in the slaying of his wife whom he claims killed herself.

* * *

The contention of 41-year-old Walter A. Pecho that he is innocent will be looked into by a special investigator for the State Parole Board.

Pecho has asked for a pardon from the 15 to 20 year sentence he is serving at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson for second degree murder

"We have ordered that the case be expedited and we certainly intend to give it prompt consideration," said Roy H. Nelson, chairman of the parole board.

* * *

Pecho's wife, Eleanor, was shot to death in 1954 in the couple's Lansing home. She died of a chest wound. Her body was found seated in a chair. A shotgun was leaning against the chair between her legs.

At his trial, Pecho said his wife committed suicide while he was in the room with her.

However, a Lansing pathologist, Dr. Charles E. Black, testified she couldn't have killed herself. He ruled out suicide because of the angle of the wound in the victim's chest, the position of her body and the location of the shotgun between her legs.

State Sen. Paul A. Younger, then Ingham County prosecutor, based his case on circumstantial evidence and the testimony of Black as an expert.

Pecho's blind attorney, C. LaVerne Roberts, failed to call any expert witnesses for the defense. This has continued to puzzle lawyers who examined the trial transcript.

* * *

Black used photographs taken at the scene to reach his conclusion. The photographs played an important part, but Roberts does not think his blindness handicapped him in the defense.

At the hearing, Dr. Richard E. Olsen, a Pontiac pathologist, testified he could find nothing to indicate Mrs. Pecho was murdered, but plenty to show suicide.

Olsen is considered a top man in his field by State Police and was asked to look into the case by Pecho's lawyer.

In reaching his conclusion, Olsen studied the same evidence as pathologist Black — angle of the wound, position of the body and location of the gun.

But Judge Coash said, "This court cannot find from the testimony of Dr. Olsen that there is any new evidence."

Traffic Safety Campaign Weeds Out 2 Policemen

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP)—The city's new traffic safety campaign roared off to a fast start—with suspension of two policemen.

Police Chief James Carey ordered two of his patrolmen suspended for three days without pay after they were involved in minor traffic collisions.

Chiefs Face 'Man-Sized' Cage Battle Wednesday

Taylor Center Height Poses Task for PCH

By BILL CORNWELL

A real "man-sized" battle for control of the backboards is in the offing Wednesday night at University of Detroit Memorial Building when Pontiac Central clashes with towering Taylor Center at 8:30 in the quarter-finals of the state Class A high scohol basketball tournament.

—Averaging 6 feet 6 inches on their front line and boasting a 6-footer in the back court, the Taylor Center cagers will pose the stiffest board challenge yet encountered by the Saginaw Valley Conference champions.

Thus far, coach Art Van Ryzin's warriors have met the rebounding challenge head-on and more than held their own, but they've never had to fight the height that will be pitted against them tomorrow.

Leading the Rams' brigade of schoolboy skyscrapers is all-state center Fred Thomann, a 6-foot-8 hook shot artist who scored 351 points during the regular season schedule as they posted an impressive 14-1 record.

Right behind Thomann — and not very far back, either — is Russ Stroud, a 6-6 forward who does a yeoman-share of the club's rebounding. Next comes 6-2 forward Spencer Hammons, the team's No. 3 scorer with 224 points.

Wayne Thweatt, 6-0 guard, is the principal back court threat. Thweatt is the Ram's floor general and playmaker besides being their 2nd top point-getter with 232.

Completing their starting line-up will be 5-8 guard Barney Korody, a southpaw shooter who, until last week's regional action at Trenton, was playing 2nd fiddle to Joe Miller. Korody started against Fordson Saturday and now seems to own the job.

Once again, Van Ryzin will call on leaping George Fed and big Bill Pritchett to answer this imposing array of backboard strength.. The 6-3 Fed and the 6-4 Pritchett have risen to great heights in crucial rebounding situations for the Chiefs during the 1959-60 campaign and Wednesday's struggle definitely will demand some more of the same.

★ ★ ★

Van Ryzin also hopes that Booker Hurner will continue his blazing scoring pace. Using a variety of shots, Hurner has swished 100 points in Central's four tourney games following a late-season slump.

Backboard control and defense will in all likelihood play key roles in the Chiefs' chances for victory and a berth in the state semifinals Friday at East Lansing.

Van Ryzin, a stickler for sound defensive work, contends that a well-executed defense often wins tournament games when the shooting turns sour. The Chiefs' cold shooting performance against Livonia Bentley would seem to bear him out.

Taylor Center and Inkster Roosevelt shared the Mid-Wayne League championship with 9-1 records after beating each other once in the loop race. Taylor Center is coached by Bob Sclater, now in his 5th year as the Rams' head cage mentor.

Including tourney warfare, Taylor Center will enter the "quarters" with a 17-1 mark compared to Pontiac's 17-2. The Chiefs are riding a 10-game winning streak.

The Pontiac Central-Taylor Center duel will be part of a Class A doubleheader at U. of D. Fieldhouse. Austin Catholic and Highland Park collide in tomorrow's opener at 7 p.m. The two winners qualify for a weekend trip to East Lansing where they will meet each other in Friday evening's semifinals.

BIG CHALLENGE — Pontiac Central's two strong backboard artists, 6-foot-4 Bill Pritchett (left) and 6-3 George Fed, will face the greatest rebounding challenge of their prep basketball careers Wednesday night at the U-D Fieldhouse when the Chiefs tackle a tall Taylor Center quintet at 8:30 in a state tourney quarter-final game.

Wings Host to Hawks Tonight in Key Game

DETROIT (AP) — The Detroit Red Wings have another golden opportunity tonight to do something for themselves in the way of insuring a National Hockey League playoff spot.

The slipping Wings meet the Chicago Black Hawks at Olympia Stadium. Detroit and Chicago are in the driver's seat in the three-way battle for the final two Stanley Cup berths.

But they're beginning to feel the pressure while Boston, seemingly out of it last weekend, is starting to catch up. The Hawks are third, a point ahead of Detroit. Boston is four points behind the Red Wings.

The Wings had a wonderful chance Saturday to sew up the playoff spot they blew last year for the first time in 21 seasons. All they had to do was beat Boston. They lost, tied at Chicago Sunday and now need three points — a victory and a tie — in their remaining three games to assure themselves of postseason action.

★ ★ ★

By beating the Hawks tonight, the Wings will climb back into third place. By losing, the Hawks will tie up a playoff berth and Detroit can just about kiss its hopes for a third-place finish goodbye.

While the Wings are trying to get back in winning stride, Gordie Howe will be attempting to relocate the net. Howe has been held scoreless in Detroit's last seven games and hasn't even assisted on a goal in three.

The Wings' big producer is shooting for the 30 mark again this season, a peak he's reached for the last four years. Howe now has 27 goals and needs to average a goal a game to hit his personal target.

Two of the Black Hawks come to Detroit with hopes of also hitting targets. Blond Bobby Hull has fallen a point behind Boston's Bronco Horvath in the individual scoring race. Goalie Glenn Hall is involved in a heated battle with Montreal's Jacques Plante for the Vezina trophy, awarded to the NHL's top netminder on a goals-allowed basis. Hull and Hall would win $1,000 for hitting target.

Horvath Takes Over NHL Lead

MONTREAL (AP) — An apparently rejuvenated Bronco Horvath has taken over the scoring lead from Bobby Hull by one point, National Hockey League statistics showed today.

Boston's Horvath scored four points in three games last week for a season total of 79, while Hull, of Chicago, who had zoomed up from the middle of the pack over the last two months, picked up only one. Both have three games to play.

Colts vs. Bendle Wednesday at PNH

Troy's Acton Ailing

By CHUCK ABAIR

A big question mark loomed in the Troy camp today as the Colts completed drills for Wednesday's quarterfinal contest against Flint Bendle at the Pontiac Northern gym at 7:3' p.m.

The big problem concerns the availability of star center Bud Acton. He will likely start the game but how long he can go will depend upon how an ailing ankle holds up.

Acton took a hard fall in the regional final against Clarkston Friday at PCH but did not feel the injury until the next day. A Berkley specialist said yesterday he could try to play in the game.

"Bud is faring to go despite the ankle but we don't know how much he will play," said Goodwin today.

Acton averaged 29 points per game in tourney play, boosting his season mark to 23 in an 18-3 record.

Troy will need another topnotch performance to stay in the running for state honors with Bendle also fresh from some good tourney play.

The Genesee County champs are led by 6-3 Paul Krause, who has averaged 23 points and 22.6 rebounds a game. A strong finish by 6-5 center Jerry Drews has improved the Flint gang considerably.

Bendle has compiled a 14-6 record featuring a pattern-type offense. One of its victories cut down Holly in the regional semifinals.

Tickets for the Troy-Bendle duel will all be sold before the game at Northern at a cost of 75 cents for everyone. No sales are being conducted at either school.

All the other state quarterfinals are on tap tonight.

The "B" bracket contest opposite Troy will match Detroit Holy Redeemer and Willow Run, conqueror of South Lyon, at Trenton. Ludington vs. Escanaba at Traverse City and Grand Rapids Godwin Heights plays Jackson St. John at Lansing in the other pair.

In Class C, powerful Flint Atherton vs. Detroit St. Thomas at Fenton and Grand Rapids Lee faces Croumna at Ionia in the upper group. The other action will have Bangor vs. Wyandotte St. Patrick at Albion College and Frankfort against Gwinn at Grayling High. Atherton ousted Ortonville early and St. Thomas cut down Armada last week.

Cinderella fives Newaygo and Bridgman are "D" foes at Zeeland in a bracket which also has 1959 winner Maple City Glen Lake against Baraga at Petoskey High. Newaygo has a 6-13 record after playing mostly bigger schools. Bridgman has been on an upset binge in tourney play. Bath, which beat Memphis, vs. Mendon and Flint Hoover plays Fowler in the others.

All-Star Pin Points

USE SHUFFLE STEP

By Billy Sixty

I find in teaching that the natural tendency of all pupils is to rush into stride. The impulse is to get to the foul line and throw the ball. That's the sure way to mediocrity. The opposite of what good form demands. Timing is the important thing, and timing begins with a slow first step. A mere shuffle is what it amounts to, as sketch shows. As you shuffle forward, you use the push-away — push the ball outward, away from the body, smoothly and slowly.

In four-step (standard) footwork you begin with the right foot step. Be relaxed, so that at the end of the push-away the ball will drop easily into the backswing, pulling your shoulders down into a comfortable break at the waist. As the ball swings, you merely keep right on going to the foul line. The swinging ball, gaining momentum in its downward path, will take you smoothly into your finishing step (fourth, with left foot) and slide.

SHORT, SHUFFLING FIRST STEP FOR SOUND FOOTWORK AND EASY TIMING

Garcia Sharp in 3rd Win; Hoeft Impressive

Chisox High on Long Shot

United Press International

Rival managers may think Lopez is dreaming but perhaps that's the right of a manager who's seen his team chalk up three straight Grapefruit League wins.

"We think Mike has a lot left in him," said Lopez after the 35-year-old "Bear" spun three scoreless innings in an 8-4 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday. "And his first real outing of the spring certainly didn't do anything to discourage us."

Garcia's performance was especially impressive because it came after 22-game winner Early Wynn was racked up in a three-run third-inning rally and 14-game winner Billy Pierce also was roughed up by the Cardinals. Big Mike took over with the score 7-4 and slammed down the lid on the Cardinals the remainder of the distance.

★ ★ ★

"Go Go" boys Luis Aparicio and Jim Landis both scored on an outfield fly in the first inning to put the White Sox in front, 2-0. Al Smith also starred for the American League champions, driving in four runs with a triple and a single.

The Cardinals, who have lost two of their three exhibition games, had something to cheer about when Stan Musial doubled off Pierce in the sixth inning to drive in St. Louis' last run.

Garcia had only a 3-6 record for the Indians last season but Lopez says the one-time 20-game winning right-hander could be an important addition to his bullpen corps. The White Sox already have the strongest relief corps in the league in Gerry Staley and Turk Lown.

The Baltimore Orioles also chalked up their third straight Grapefruit League triumph when they beat the Cincinnati Reds, 9-4, the Washington Senators downed the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers, 7-4, the Kansas City Athletics beat the Milwaukee Braves 7-5; the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-1, and the Detroit Tigers topped the New York Yankees, 4-2, in Monday's other exhibition activity.

Billy Hoeft, ex-Detroit southpaw attempting a comeback, struck out six in four innings and would have blanked the Reds except for faulty support. John Powell, 18-year-old rookie first-baseman, led the Orioles' 15-hit attack with a single, double and triple.

Russ Kemmerer and Hal Woodeschick shut out the Dodgers over the last six innings in the Senators' victory over the Dodgers. Dodger rookie Tom Davis, Pacific Coast League batting champion last season, homered in the second inning off 13-game winner Pedro Ramos.

Norm Siebern hit a three-run homer and Jerry Lumpe a solo homer as the A's rocked 15-game winner Bob Buhl of the Braves for four runs in the third inning. The Braves rallied with the help of a key single by Hank Aaron in the ninth inning but Al Grunwald struck out Stan Lopata on three pitches to end the threat.

Rookie Tom Curry's bases-filled triple highlighted a four-run rally in the ninth inning as the Phillies pulled out a victory over the Pirates. The Phillies had been blanked until the ninth by George Witt, Don Williams and Ed Bauta. It was the Pirates' third straight loss.

The San Francisco Giants, Chicago Cubs, Boston Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians were idle Monday.

Bradley Meets Dayton, St. John's vs. Bonnies

NEW YORK (AP) — Top-seeded Bradley plays tough Dayton and defending champion St. John's takes on even tougher St. Bonaventure tonight in the last quarter-final competition of the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Bradley (24-2) is a five-point favorite over the Flyers, who easily handled Temple 72-51 in a first-round game. St. Bonaventure (20-3) is given a one-point nod over the Redmen (17-7) after eliminating Holy Cross 94-81 for its 17th consecutive victory in a first-round contest.

"We never do the same thing twice," Braves' Coach Chuck Orsborn admitted. The Braves, who lost to St. John's 75-71 in overtime for last year's title, are noted for using two or three types of offenses or defenses, all with variations almost as a matter of course.

"After all, they've beaten the Big O (Oscar Robertson and Cincinnati, 91-90). In our section of the country, if you've beaten the Big O, you've got it," Blackburn, who has led the Flyers into five NIT finals and never emerged a winner, said.

The two will match good sophomores. Chet Walker, who averaged 22 points, is Bradley's big gun, while Garry Roggenburk showed plenty in helping eliminate Temple.

St. John's Coach Joe Lapchick is worried mostly about his fourth-seeded team's lack of activity the past 12 days and still has the spectre before him of a sound 95-78 lacing by the Bonnies in December's Holiday Festival.

"It's going to be a question of how sharp we'll be," Lapchick said. "We haven't had a game in 12 days and our practice facilities are inadequate. They beat us by 17 points earlier and since then we've won 11 of 13. But I've never seen as nervous a defense as they play."

★ ★ ★

The game shapes up as a battle between St. John's All-American Tony Jackson and high-scoring Tom Stith of the Bonnies. Stith, who was second nationally in scoring with a 32.5 average, combined with brother Sam for 52 points in last Saturday's victory over Holy Cross.

★ ★ ★

The winners tonight will meet in Thursday night's first semifinal game and Providence and Utah State will play in the other. The final is Saturday afternoon over national television.

Wilt Tallies 53 in Philly Win

Warriors Oust Nats, Start Eastern Finals Tomorrow

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—What a difference a year—and a man—has made in the Philadelphia Warriors, now heading into the National Basketball Assn.'s Eastern Division final playoffs.

The man is Wilt Chamberlain, who set still another record last night in leading the Warriors to a 132-112 trouncing of the Syracuse Nats in the decisive finale in their three-game preliminary series.

Wilt, known as the Stilt because of his 7-1 height, hit for 53 points, three more than the old playoff record held jointly by Bob Pettit of St. Louis and Bob Cousy of Eastern Division winner Boston, whom the Warriors meet tomorrow night in the Beantown.

It was the ninth record Wilt set in his one-year NBA career. He had 16 points at the quarter and 10 in the second period when the Warriors wrapped up the game by taking a 14-point lead.

He added 12 in the third and the other 15 in the final period when the Warriors, heeding the pleas from the 9,428 fans in Convention Hall, fed the ball to him more often than usual.

Teammate Paul Arizin, in his sixth playoff series with the Warriors, said "We were at our best and that's the way we'll have to be to beat Boston" in their best-of-7 series.

In County Meet 35 Years Ago

Tired Miler Sat Down to Rest, but Still Won

Most schoolboy distance runners at times probably have felt just like the miler about whom this story is related. It's true, too, because the one who recalled it was a schoolmate of the "pooped" athlete, a miler who sat down to rest, 100 yards from the finish!

If John Lindgren, a St. Frederick High trackman of 35 years ago, had not mentioned his participation in an all-county meet in 1925, schoolmate Bill Brown, 96 Oliver, might not have recalled the incident.

When a story appeared recently regarding the All-Oakland County prep meet, June 4, at Southfield HS field, John told The Press he ran, and won, the mile away back in 1925, in a similar meet.

Lindgren won the mile. But the way he won it was one for the books, Brown recalls.

Other St. Frederick trackmen in that meet also included Bill Dean, Dr. J. K. Schachern and Bob Grange.

The way it happened, says Bill, "was that John had had somewhat limited training for the event, and when the race started he was off like a sprinter. To everyone's amazement he continued the fast pace — until all runners were far behind.

"All went well until John was 100 yards from the finish. Then he suddenly slowed down, stopped and sat down — exhausted, all out of gas.

"Coach Tom Barber, former Notre Dame track star, sensing what was happening, yelled at John to get going. Then he picked up a big stick and headed for his star miler. No one ever knew whether the waving stick, or the coach running toward him put John on his feet, but get up he did, and scrambled to the finish, the winner."

Cal Coach Figures Cincy Is Stronger

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Rene Herrerias, California's present assistant basketball coach and the head coach-to-be, figures Friday's NCAA semifinal against Cincinnati at just about a standoff.

"We're tougher than we were a year ago," Herrerias declared after scouting Cincinnati in the Midwest Regionals, "but Cincinnati is definitely stronger."

The little coach, who moves up to the head job when Pete Newell takes over the Cal athletic directorship, said California, defending NCAA champion, won't have the advantage of surprise as they did last year.

The Bears went into the tournament at Louisville unheralded stopped Oscar Robertson and Cincinnati 64-58, then beat WestVirginia 71-70 for the title.

Friday the two teams meet in the Cow Palace after Ohio State, Big 10 champion, meets New York University. The Buckeyes, led by All-America sophomore Jerry Lucas, have a 23-3 record. NYU, surprise of the tournament, is 22-3.

All Tigers Get Chance to Show Stuff

Flint's Boros Leads Bengals Over Yankees

Detroit Wins Second Grapefruit Contest by 4-2 Count

LAKELAND, Fla. — None of the players on the Detroit Tigers' roster will be able to leave Florida saying manager Jimmie Dykes did not give him a chance to show his stuff.

The Tigers skipper is platooning down the line in an effort to field the best possible team once the club comes north. Dykes is cagey in not promising that it will be a better-record team than the one that produced a 78-76 mark in 1959.

But this is his first real look at many of the fringe players, at the top farmhands and some of the newer faces. Dykes is making the most of it.

He let young Steve Demeter fill in for nine innings at third base yesterday for Eddie Yost. Rocky Bridges and Casey Wise were at shortstop, spelling Chico Fernandez. Johnny Groth took Al Kaline's center field spot, Gail Harris and Larry Osborne supplanted Steve Bilko at first base and Red Wilson did the catching.

It is not necessarily a second line club in the strictest sense of the term and Dykes is not changing his lineup merely to let the frontliners rest.

★ ★ ★

"I'm not too old to learn," said Dykes. "And of course, the players aren't either."

Dykes' reasoning is this: He pretty well knows what to expect of many of his players. Other, younger players should be improving. Still others perhaps cannot be counted upon for as strong an output.

He will see all of them, and as frequently as possible. And in the meantime, he's doing his best to ignore — and to get his players and the Tiger fans to ignore — the various predictions that again are designed to balloon Tiger hopes.

The Tigers beat the Yanks yesterday, 4-2, making it two out of three on the Grapefruit League circuit. They meet the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers here today with Jim Bunning, Hank Aguirre and Pete Burnside—the same trio that worked Saturday's opener — scheduled for mound duty.

Flint's Steve Boros was the hitting star of yesterday's triumph at St. Petersburgh. The ex-Michigan State athlete tripled in the second and set off a three-run splurge. He singled in the third and kept another rally going; then stole a base after being hit by a pitch in the sixth.

Bruce doubled home a pair of runs himself and yielded both Yankee runs in the first three innings. Smith and Ray Narleski blanked the fallen champions on one single the rest of the way.

Zach Monroe, Mark Freeman and Eli Grba pitched for the Yankees, who got only three runners on base after the second inning. Smith yielded one hit in the middle three innings and Narleski, working hard toward a comeback after such a disappointing showing last season, mowed 'em down in order in the seventh, eighth and ninth.

Jerry Reichow, who was a good college cager at Iowa, Darris McCord and Bud Erickson will complete the Lion squad. Erickson serves as a player-coach. He is Assistant General Manager and Public Relations Director for the football team.

Huskie coaches Dick Hall, Joe Duby, John Backman and Jack Fear, Dick Ayling and Rod Treais of Central will be among the Pontiac performers.

Also on the home squad will be Ralph Allen of Eastern, Washington's Don Kelly, Dick Craig of Jefferson, Pat May of Lincoln and Madison duo Bud Johnson and Ralph Springfield.

Forfeit Puts Police in City 'C' Finals

The Pontiac Police moved into the finals of the Class C City League basketball playoffs Monday night at Pontiac Central and they didn't even have to lift a finger to do it.

★ ★ ★

Their scheduled semifinal opponent, Field's Landscape, failed to put a team on the floor so the Policemen gained a 2-0 forfeit victory and a spot in the championship round of the double elimination event.

★ ★ ★

Unbeaten Town & Country and the once-beaten Police tangle tonight at 7 o'clock on the PCH court for the city Class C title. If the Police win and a 2nd game is required, it will be played Wednesday at 7 p.m., also at PCH.

Last Holdout Signs Up

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—Infielder Ted Lepcio, who had been the Philadelphia Phillies' lone holdout, Monday signed his 1960 contract after conferring with General Manager John Quinn. Terms were not disclosed.

Two Former Eastern Stars Ink Pro Pacts

YPSILANTI (AP) — Two former Eastern Michigan University football players have been signed by teams in the new American Football League.

Charles Shonta, now a Northville school teacher, was signed by the Boston Patriot. He was an eastern Michigan end in 1957-58.

Al Day, a former end and fullback, was signed by the Denver Bears. A 1958-59 varsity player, Day will be graduated from Eastern next June.

Buffalo Inks Tackle

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—George Tranditi, a 240-pound, 6-2 tackle from St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kan., has signed with Buffalo of the American Football League.

Pfeiffers 7th in ABC

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Another big-name bowling team, Budweiser Beer of St. Louis, takes to the alleys tonight in the American Bowling Congress tourney which last night saw the defending champions fade away.

The Detroit Pfeiffers, who set an all-time record in winning last year's 56th ABC competition with 3,243, tallied 2,930 pins last night on games of 984, 922 and 1,024. That effort, led by Capt. Ed Lubanski's 610, gives the Pfeiffers a temporary hold on seventh place in the open team division.

The St. Louis Budweisers, third last year and fourth the year before, will send these stars to the hardwood tonight: Don Carter, winner of the world's individual match-game championship in Chicago last December; his current partner as national doubles champions, Tom Hennessy; Dick Weber, biggest money winner and professional Bowlers Assn. "Bowler of the Year" in the 1958-59 season; Ray Bluth, who won the ABC Masters championship last May; and Bill Lillard, first man to win in three ABC championship events when he figured in the 1956 team, doubles and singles titles.

Last night's best team performance, before a capacity crowd of 2,300, was a 950-977-986—2,933 by Wilkof Structural Steel of Canton, Ohio. It was good for fifth place. The Canton team, bowling together 989 in two Canton leagues, was paced by Joe Monastra's 654. Lawrence Fasano, a substitute for team captain Albert Milano, who died March 4, was low man with 553.

Checking Finch Jury Room Wildness

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Finch case jury room may have been as full of sound and fury as the courtroom, according to reports reaching Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson.

McKesson, prompted by tales told by two jurors, wants to find out just what happened behind the locked door as the jury argued itself into a bitter deadlock.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

McKesson said he was specifically interested in the report that one male juror threatened to throw a woman juror out of a second-story window.

The state is now pressing for an immediate second trial for Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his mistress, Carole Tregoff, who are accused of slaying Finch's wife last July 18. A new date will be set Thursday.

★ ★ ★

McKesson said he will fight any moves to free the defendants on bail pending the second trial, which he said he would ask to be conducted just like the first — except for different prosecutors.

★ ★ ★

He said Clifford Crail was stepping aside because of his health and that Fred N. Whichello wouldn't be able to handle the case again because of a crowded calendar at his regular assignment in a suburban court.

McKesson said his investigators have been ordered to check two women jurors' reports that a male juror sent them notes proposing after-hours trysts in their hotel rooms. The jury was locked up for 22 days in a downtown hotel.

★ ★ ★

"If this is true," said McKesson, "we want to learn what the bailiffs were doing during this time."

Hits Indifference to Road Setback

Mackie Charges Auto Industry Giving Little Attention to Troubles

FLINT (AP)—Michigan's auto industry has exhibited a "seeming indifference" to recent legislative setbacks to the state's road program, Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said last night.

"Unless we continue to accelerate our road construction program, the auto market will be critically impaired," the commissioner told a meeting of the American Society of Automotive Engineers.

He noted that the auto industry had backed the 1956 federal highway bill as well as needed road legislation during the 1950s.

"But once this legislation was passed," Mackie said, "They turned their attention to other matters."

He cited a 1959 state law which levies a use tax on materials used in building state highways. He termed the levy a subterfuge to divert earmarked taxes from road purposes and said it would cost the state's road program over 3½ million dollars this year.

★ ★ ★

The commissioner also complained of a legislative ban against his department setting up a radio communications system with projects in the field. Lack of the system, he added, is costing time and money.

Legislative proposals of the past two years to divert highway money to pay the State Police for road patrol were termed a continuing threat by Mackie.

Another setback, he continued, occured last year when Michigan suffered a 20 million dollar cut in federal highway aid because congress and the administration could not agree on a method of keeping aid on schedule.

★ ★ ★

Parolee Gets 2-4 Year Term in Sweater Theft

Headed for a 2- to 4-year Jackson Prison term is John F. Marlin, 29-year-old Florida prison parolee, caught with a carload of stolen merchandise from several Michigan cities.

Marlin, late of Chicago, pleaded guilty March 2 to stealing sweaters from Danby's Store for Men, 122 W. Maple Rd., Birmingham.

Before his sentencing yesterday by Judge Clark J. Adams, Marlin admitted on his trip through Michigan he stole similar merchandise from stores in Grand Rapids, Battle Creek, Owosso and Flint.

"But I haven't been in any serious trouble the last five years," Marlin said in attempting to explain his many scrapes with the law.

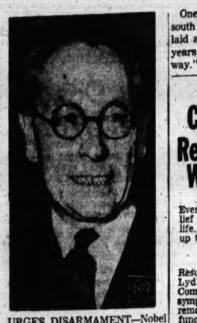
Asks Interest Ceiling Be Taken Off Bonds

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Eisenhower administration renewed its plea to Congress today to eliminate the interest ceiling on government bonds.

But Democrats were lining up in an effort to force government financing "reforms" and to fight the interest rate appeal.

Undersecretary of Treasury Fred Scribner made the new request to remove the 4¼ per cent interest limit in a record radio-TV interview with Sen. Karl Mundt (R-SD) Scribner said elimination of the ceiling would tend to cut the cost of financing the national debt.

Twenty-one Democratic senators urged the Federal Reserve System to adopt reforms which they said would make long-term government bonds more attractive to investors and end the interest rate controversy.



URGES DISARMAMENT—Nobel peace prize winner Philip Noel-Baker, above, urged in London, England, that the West accept Russian disarmament proposals because "the Russians are so far ahead of us" in missile development. He said he would not be surprised to see 12 or 15 more nations in the atomic club within a decade.

One of the first paved highways south of Little Rock, Ark., was laid at a cost of $1 per yard. For years it was called the "Dollar-way."

Gee, Boss, You're Peachy Keen

Spread That Butter Thick

By HAL BOYLE

But it is amazing how few people are really expert at it.

"I don't want to be surrounded by yes men," a boss may say.

BOYLE

"I need someone around here who can tell me when I am wrong."

★ ★ ★

But he doesn't really mean it. His wife will tell him, when he is wrong. So will the chairman of the board.

What he really needs is someone who will build up his confidence by making him feel right—whether what he has done is right or wrong.

This takes a skilled "yes man," and it is surprising how few there are around.

LAY IT ON

The mistake most amateurs make is that they butter up the boss on only one side—as if he were a mere piece of breakfast toast. This won't do at all.

If you're going to butter the boss at all, butter him all over.

"But if I lay it on with a trowel," the beginner may object, "he'll know what I am doing."

Of course he will. But a modern boss today has so many people picking on him he has to count on at least one staff man who will admire him utterly, who will anoint him with boss slave endlessly—and put it on in thick, comfortable layers to soothe his ego.

★ ★ ★

Being a really successful yes man is no job for a shirker. It's hard work. The pay is good, but the hours are long.

The main thing to remember: No matter what happens, have a comforting phrase ready to make the boss feel better in every situation.

SUCCESSFUL REMARKS

1. "Golf was made for you, J.B. It weren't for that pebble in front of your tee, you'd have had a hole in one for sure."

2. "You're absolutely right, J.B. You had to take the bit in your teeth on that one."

3. "I'm not trying to flatter you, chief, but I'll bet there aren't five men in U.S. industry who could have come up with a solution like that."

★ ★ ★

4. "So what if we did drop half a million, J.B.? Even Babe Ruth never knocked them all over the fence."

5. "No, J.B., it's just your imagination. I can't see it's getting any thinner on top."

6. "Some days, J.B., it just doesn't pay to be nice to people. You gave him a $2.50 raise. What did he expect—the U.S. mint?"

7. "That last memo of yours on how the office is wasting too many paper clips was a model of executive tact, chief. It needed to be said, and no one else could have said it as well."

MENTION HIS DRIVE

8. "You never looked better, J.B. You've got twice as much drive as most guys half your age."

9. "I really mean it, J.B. The world wouldn't be the same without you."

10. "I suppose you've been too busy to notice it, J.B. but morale sure has picked up since you made that little pep talk at the annual dinner of the 25-year men."

11. "Have you ever noticed, J.B., that the young fellows coming up don't have the same spark and team loyalty as the old-timers?"

12. "They'll never have to erect a monument to you, J.B. This firm will always be your monument, and you built it all by yourself."

Breathes there a boss with ego so dead he will fail to appreciate such a wonderful one-man cheering squad? No indeed.

You'll Get to Know the Avocado Better

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department classifies the avocado as a "different" fruit "since many people are not familiar with it." The classification was made for that reason despite the fact the avocado is centuries old.

In 1929, only 820 tons of avocados were produced in the United States. Nine years later production jumped to 17,000 tons. In 1957, production was 61,100 tons. Based on the December 1959 estimate, it appears that the crop now being harvested will set a record of 73,300 tons.

The department said that in view of the steady uptrend in production "more and more people will come to know the avocado"—especially in their salads.

Four Industries Chalk Up Gains

NEW YORK (AP)—Steels, motors, chemicals and electronics did well as the stock market widened initial gains in moderately active trading early this afternoon.

Advances of from fractions to well over a point were scattered throughout the list of pivotal stocks. Some of the higher-priced or more speculative issues did even better.

The market was up irregularly at the start and caution was apparent. Late in the morning the steels moved ahead solidly and the rest of the list followed along.

Hope that the end of bad weather would boom auto sales gaves rise to talk of a spring rally. The four-day consecutive rise of the rail average also was encouraging. There was some gossip to the effect that mutual funds were doing some buying.

The general business news background was spotty, including a drop in the steel industry operating rate.

Polaroid, which rose 4½ yesterday, added about 2 at the opening then slid off to a loss of more than a point. The movement of the stock followed lack of confirmation that the company might have a stock split.

Motorola gained more than 2 and International Business Machines about 3.

Up more than a point were Wheeling Steel, Jones & Laughlin and Republic Steel. U.S. Steel rose about a point and Bethlehem a fraction.

Universal Oil products and Deere were active and around a point higher. International Paper rose about 2.

Ford and Chrysler, up close to a point each, were the best of the motors. General Motors was firm while American Motors added a fraction.

New York Central rose around a point in an irregularly higher rail section. Chesapeake & Ohio was off slightly. Fractional gains were made by other leading carriers.

Grain Futures Mart Showing Weakness

CHICAGO (AP)—The grain futures market turned toward weakness today on scattered selling following the broad general advance of the previous session.

Old crop wheat contracts were firm in early transactions, however, and the May delivery traded at a new high for the season on a small fractional gain.

Soybeans were under stiffest pressure and were down major fractions of a cent in spots.

891-Mile Walk Pays Her Double

Hardy Housewife, 31, Finishes 2nd in British Race, but Gets Bonus

LAND'S END, England (AP)—A plucky, 31-year-old housewife limped into Land's End today more than eight hours behind champion walker Wendy Lewis, but she got just as much prize money for the 891-mile race.

Instead of 500 pounds—$1,400—offered for second place in the mass trek for women down the length of Britain, sponsor Billy Butlin handed Mrs. Beryl Randle of Walsall a check for twice that sum.

"I decided to give her a private bonus of 500 pounds because I admire her courage," said Butlin.

Mrs. Randle had led up to the last 40 miles of the grueling hike from John O'Groats, at the northern tip of Scotland.

PRETTY HAIRDRESSER

Wendy, a pretty, 19-year-old Liverpool hairdresser, staggered in 8 hours and 8 minutes earlier to the cheers of thousands who lined the sidewalks to welcome her.

Despite badly swollen legs, she averaged 5 miles an hour and completed the hike in just over 17 days. This slashed four days off the time recorded last month by Dr. Barbara Moore, the 56-year-old vegetarian.

To Drill 4th Well in Waterford

Board OKs Payment for Project in Area of Huron Gardens

The Waterford Township Board last night authorized payment of an additional $3,716 to township engineers Johnson & Anderson to drill a fourth well in the Huron Gardens area.

The firm has been paid $5,717 for construction of three test wells on several township owned lots in the Sunny Slope subdivision. It has been successful in pumping 220 gallons a minute from only one of the wells.

According to township Clerk James Secterlin, all test wells will eventually be used as production wells when one large vein of water has been reached. Four separate pumps will also be installed on each test well.

In other business, seven bids for comprehensive liability insurance for township employes were submitted. The bids averaged in the $1,300 bracket for a one-year period. The lowest bid, submitted by the Wilkinson Insurance Co. was $1,003. All were tabled for the Board's consideration.

A public hearing for blacktopping one block of LaSalle street, resulted in no objections from residents living on the street. However, the Board did not establish a special assessment district, pending a correct legal resolution on the project, to be submitted next week.

The Board authorized Secterlin to purchase a ½ ton Ford pickup truck for the water department from low bidder, the Beattie Motor Sales ($1,527), and a new Plymouth pursuit police car from the Clarkston Motor Sales ($2,029).

A request from the fire department to purchase two pieces of equipment for boosting water pressure at the scene of fires was tabled for consideration. The equipment would cost $222.

Lathrup Citizens to Petition

State Presents Case on Water System

LATHRUP VILLAGE—The state presented its case yesterday before Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland as to why it feels the city of Lathrup Village must build a separate storm water system.

★ ★ ★

No decision in the case was reached, however, as the judge adjourned it without date to allow two attorneys for new Lathrup citizens to petition formally for the right to intervene.

The Michigan Water Resources Commission is asking the court to order the city to issue $700,000 in bonds to build the system. The state contends that without it the city is violating a four-year-old court order to stop pollution of the Rouge River.

Donald M. Pierce, sanitary engineer for the Michigan Health Dept., testified yesterday that the state contends, as the result of a survey, that the city must separate its storm and sanitary sewage to stop the existing health hazards.

The city argues, through its attorney Everett Hayes, that the state cannot compel the city to build a storm system. "This is a prerogative of the people," Hayes insisted.

★ ★ ★

Hayes attempted to bring out in his cross-examination of Raymond J. Alexander, county Department of Public Works director, that other communities going to benefit from the huge Evergreen sanitary sewer aren't being ordered to build separate storm systems.

"But I must point out," Alexander answered, "that, in the case of Lathrup, your's is a result of a conversion from a combined system while the others are new systems."

Hayes contends further that the city indicated in a letter to the State Health Dept. that should city voters reject the bond issue the city would be "bound to re-evaluate our complete (sewer) program."

Judge Holland set March 28 to hear whether the proposed interveners will be allowed to enter the suit.

Moon Flatter Than Believed

Scientists Don't Expect Jagged Mountains or Deep Craters

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—Spacemen landing on the moon won't find a land weirdly scarred with jagged mountains and deep craters; it will be less rugged than previously thought, and flatter, scientists reported today.

★ ★ ★

These conclusions, disclosed by the Cambridge research center of the Air Research and Development Command, are based on a new technical study of the moon's surface in which British, French and American scientists are taking part.

★ ★ ★

The conclusions are based upon measurements of shadows of lunar prominences as the shadows creep forward, or recede, across the moon's surface.

Knowing the relative positions of earth, moon and sun, it is then possible to compute heights of prominences rising above the surrounding lunar terrain and determine the profile of the surrounding surface.

This is described as the first mapping of the face of the moon to show how it will appear to a traveler on its surface.

The Air Force scientists say the study shows there is an apparent lack of steep slopes or towering rock faces. In fact, the absence of pronounced landmarks may give the moon traveler difficulty in identifying his position.

Unionists Fight Red Conviction

Mine, Mill to Appeal the Sentencing of 9 Officials and Ex-Officers

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The sentencing Monday of nine present and former officials of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers on Communist charges will be appealed, union officials said.

★ ★ ★

The nine were convicted in U.S. District Court last Dec. 17 of conspiring to defraud the federal government by swearing they were not members of the Communist party. Their oaths were in non-Communist affidavits filed with the National Labor Relations Board.

PROVISION REPEALED

The affidavits entitled the union, ousted from the CIO in 1950 on charges it was Communist-dominated, to use the services of the NLRB. The Taft-Hartley Act formerly required all union officers using services of the NLRB to swear they were not Communists. This provision was repealed last September by the Landrum-Griffin Act.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Judge Alfred A. Arraj sentenced the men Monday after denying motions for dismissal and for a new trial. Telford Taylor, union attorney, said the verdict and sentences will be appealed to the U. S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Seven defendants were sentenced to three years imprisonment and fined $2,000 each. Two received terms of 18 months in jail and $1,500 fines each.

De Gaulle Due April 22 for Eight-Day U.S. Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle of France will arrive April 22 for an eight-day visit to the United States, and talks with President Eisenhower.

The White House, in making public the schedule of the French leader's long-waited trip, said he would also visit New York, San Francisco and New Orleans.

De Gaulle, accompanied by his wife and Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, will spend four days in Washington, arriving at noon (EST) April 22 from Canada.

Plant Payrolls Above '59

February's totals were about $3,300,000 over the same period in 1959. A slight drop from January was attributed to the fewer number of days in February.

Southfield Council OKs Proposed Xway Route

Climaxing a two-year struggle with Southfield over alignment of an east - west expressway route, the State Highway Department is now free to complete its Five-Year Metropolitan Expressway program east of Grand River.

Announcement was made today by State Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie's executive assistant, proposed Irving J. Rubin, following the Southfield Council's approval of a proposed leg of the route last night.

The way was eased for the City Council when the highway department came up with complete proposed alignment of the expressway through Southfield.

The Council could not agree on okaying the department's proposal before knowing where the expressway from Inkster road to Greenfield road would cut through once it passed Lahser road.

They received final word on this just in time for last night's Council meeting, and approved the route even though the issue was not on the regular agenda.

Their action came in time to save the city $250,000. If no decision had been reached by April 1 the city would have had to pay that sum toward the multibillion dollar expressway project.

The reason for this is that the April census is expected to put Southfield well over the 30,000 population line for the first time. Cities with populations under 30,000 are exempt from paying toward state highway construction.

The expressway, to be known as Interstate 696, will cut across Southfield along 10½-Mile road.

This relatively small sector of the over-all route is expected to cost approximately $22 million, Rubin said.

When completed, Interstate 696 will connect with the Farmington-Brighton expressway near Hagerty road and with the Edsel Ford expressway in Macomb County.

By June 1962, the Highway Department expects to have all-expressway routes connecting Detroit with Lansing, Grand Rapids, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, the Mackinac Bridge and Sault Ste. Marie.

Jane Succumbs to Dancing Bug for TV Special

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Jane Wyman's career has come full cycle, from chorus girl to ingenue, to Oscar-winning dramatic actress, to TV series star and back to being a hoofer again.

For those who missed Jane's shapely gams back in 1937 or thereabouts, the button-nosed, wide-eyed actress will kick the gong around tonight on a Startime (Ch. 4) spectaular.

In a television salute to the Academy Awards, Jane and company will gambol through the top Oscar songs dating back to 1934.

The first Academy Award winner was "The Continental" which will provide the rhythm for Jane's return to dancing. After that Kay Starr, Charles Laughton, Nat King Cole, Elsa Lanchester, the Four Aces and Tex Ritter will swing down through the years of Oscar favorites.

Laughton and Lanchester will cut up in "Baby, It's Cold Outside."

Others on the agenda are "Three Coins in the Fountain," "The Way You Look Tonight," "You'll Never Know," "Mona Liza," "Lullaby of Broadway," "Swinging on a Star" and "The Last Time I saw Paris."

Sukarno Takes Step Toward Dictatorship

TOKYO (UPI)—The official Radio Indonesia said Monday night that President Sukarno had assumed the post of Indonesian "supreme war administrator" in the wake of a reported plot to assassinate him.

The move, as reported by the Jakarta government broadcast monitered here, bolstered Sukarno's already near-dictatorial powers.

Top-Level Department on Housing Proposed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two congressmen called today for creation of a new Cabinet-level department to deal with housing and other mounting problems of city life.

Appointment of an urban affairs or housing secretary was proposed by Reps. Albert Rains (D-Ala) and John C. Lindsay (R-NY) in speeches at the 29th annual meeting of the National Housing Conference.

KING-SIZE SHOOTER — A Marine gun crew checks out the XM70, a new field artillery weapon which can fire six 115 millimeter shells in 2½ seconds to a range of 10 miles. The long-barreled gun was developed for the Marine Corps by the Army. It is fed from a rotating cluster of chambers, similar to those on a revolver. The ammunition is a combination artillery shell and rocket. The gun weighs 3,000 pounds and can be transported by helicopter or towed on its own mount by truck. AP Photofax

Police Found Them Stripped

Party Just 'Sociable Gathering'

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Singer Lola DeWitt says it was just a "compatible group having a sociable gathering" the night police raided a Hollywood party and arrested her, TV actor William Talman, and six others.

Officers said the merrymakers had no clothes on.

Miss DeWitt, 31, Monday pleaded innocent to a morals charge. Talman—the district attorney on the Perry Mason TV series—will enter his plea Thursday, along with the other defendants.

All are charged with lewd vagrancy. In addition, the party's host, Richard Riebold, 31, faces a narcotics charge. Detectives said all were frolicking naked when the raid occurred. They said marijuana cigarettes were found in Riebold's apartment.

★ ★ ★

Newsmen asked Miss DeWitt if, as charged, everyone was stripped. Replied Miss DeWitt: "We were comfortable."

She added: "We were a compatible group, very friendly, having a sociable gathering. In our business people have to relax, you know."

Talman, 45, has played the hard-luck district attorney in the Mason series for three years.

Gail Patrick Jackson, executive producer of the series, said he couldn't say what will happen to Talman's job until after she talks to him—and his case is decided in court.

★ ★ ★

"After all," she said, "in our society a person is presumed innocent until proven guilty."

Dep. Dist. Atty. John W. Loucks said all eight originally were booked on suspicion of possession of marijuana. But he said evidence indicated the marijuana was all property of the host.

"There was nothing to indicate that any marijuana had been smoked," said Loucks. "The cigarettes were placed around the room the way a host places regular cigarettes out for his guests."

He said the guests had no marijauna in their clothes. "But, of course," said Loucks, "none of the guests had their clothes on when they were arrested."

Says He Dodged Wife's Bank Bid

Commissioner Tells of Passing It Down to His Subordinates for Study

LANSING (AP)—State Banking Commissioner Alonzo L. Wilson says he took great pains to avoid involvement in the proposed move of a bank in which his wife owns a large block of stock.

"I was in a very peculiar position," the 70-year-old commissioner testified yesterday at a court fight among three northwestern Michigan banks.

Wilson said he turned over to his deputies an application by the Empire State Bank to transfer its main office from Empire to a site 200 feet outside the Traverse City limits.

"It's your problem," he said he told them. "I don't want anything to do with it."

After an investigation, the Banking Department approved the application over the objections of the Traverse City State Bank and the First People's State Bank, both of Traverse City. They said a third bank was not needed and would jeopardize their operations.

The Empire State Bank opened at the new location last August, but was closed five days later by a court order. The plaintiff banks want to make it permanent.

Because of Wilson's involvement, Gov. Williams last fall demanded his resignation. The commissioner said he would quit the $10,500-a-year post after the trial. He and the Empire banks are defendants.

Wilson, who testified more than three hours yesterday before Circuit Judge Marvin J. Salmon, said his wife borrowed money to buy 200 shares of stock in the Traverse City State Bank, now worth $80,000. She also owns 1,641 shares in the Empire Bank, worth $23,856, and 50 shares in First People's, worth $7,000.

Wilson was president of the Traverse City State Bank until Gov. Williams appointed him commissioner in 1957. He said his wife registered some of the bank's stock in his name to qualify him as a director. It reverted to her when he became commissioner, he said.

Rau Named Deputy Tax Commissioner

LANSING (AP)—Promotion of Donovan J. Rau of Lansing to deputy state revenue commissioner was announced Monday by Commissioner Clarence W. Lock.

Rau, who has headed the Revenue Department's Business Activities Tax Division, fills a vacancy created when Lock moved up to the top spot with the retirement of Louis M. Nims. He will be one of three deputies. He joined the department in 1940.

Tony's Records Lousy, Says Reliable Witness

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — I slid down beside young Tony Perkins around midnight and asked why he was so hell-bent on singing in his new Broadway show, "Greenwillow."

★ ★ ★

"I felt I was a singer of very poor records." He spoke with frankness that made others at the table lift their eyebrows.

WILSON

"When you've made albums of not very good quality, you want to deny the bad reputation your voice has received."

"Were your records really that bad?" I asked Tony, who, I thought, sang well in the show.

("Oh, no, no, they weren't!" murmured the others, including Jack Benny's daughter, Joan, who began loudly ordering food, maybe to drown out Tony's self-denunciation.)

"YES THEY WERE!" Tony raised his voice. "When I told people I was going to sing in the show, they said, 'You ARE?'—with astonishment.

★ ★ ★

"You see, I practiced singing while walking. I got to the studio breathless and tired. I sang low. They'd turn up the volume. You kind of hide behind that and think it's all right—but it isn't!"

Tony found out while working with Composer Frank Loesser that "singing is just loud speaking in tempo" and he became a "belter"—indeed, he wants to play the colorful life story of Hank Williams, the country singer, eventually, in Hollywood for Joe Pasternak.

"One more question, Tony. What did you do with your records you didn't like? Smash them?"

★ ★ ★

"I assure you I didn't listen to them. And I didn't give them to friends. When my friends asked why I didn't give them my records, I told them, 'But that is the greatest compliment I can pay you—not giving you my records!'"

Rep. Powell's Attorney Arguing for Mistrial

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal court jury hearing the income tax evasion case of Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-NY) is excused today while the defense argues for a mistrial.

Judge Frederick vanPelt Bryan Monday told the jury it need not report back until Wednesday.

★ ★ ★

Powell's attorney, Edward Bennett Williams of Washington, made the mistrial motion on grounds that the prosecution was trying to show fraud beyond that alleged in the indictment.

Steve Allen Takeoff Television Bright Spot

By FRED DANZIG

★ ★ ★

The spoofing lasted 15 minutes and was so successful that I think perhaps Steve's regular NBC-TV hour might benefit from the same time limitation.

During the satire, Steve was portrayed by Mort Sahl who was portrayed by Don Knotts. Sahl, as Steve, kidded the show's ritual: He plugged books with such wild titles as, "Is There TV After Death?"

He made light of Allen's many record albums and inexhaustible supply of original compositions. The billboard girl took a beating. The audience interview segment, with Louis Nye as a tourist, was built into a laugh.

★ ★ ★

Another funny spot came when Tony Martin was introduced. After dropping a number of plugs, Tony was asked to name the song he would sing. He replied, "I don't sing any more, Steve. I just come on and do my plugs."

Once the satire ended, about 40 minutes more had to be filled. It was. Badly. Juliet Prowse, in her third TV at-bat, struck out as she bounced and bumped through a floozy dance in the scantiest of costumes. It was an embarrassing dance.

In any event, this was the most inane and uninteresting of a long line of inane and uninteresting televised premieres.

At one point, Mrs. Tony Randall left Steve's microphone and headed for the movie, saying, "We'll all have fun now." I hope it worked out that way for her.

And Tony Martin did sing his song, thereby proving that he should have quit a half-hour sooner, when he was ahead.

Mort Sahl also came back for his rephrased monolog about a bank robbery. Through his night club appearances, record albums and newspaper interviews, I have come to regard Sahl as one of the finest ego-deflators and bubble-busters our country has ever had. His wit is needed.

Yet, if Sahl's reputation for bite and penetration depended solely on his TV exposure, he'd be considered a mere filler-top Bob Hope. And man, that's pretty mild.

I just wonder how much of this is caused by TV's peculiar requirements and how much by Sahl's own self-censorship. Is he trying to live down his reputation as an "iconoclast"? Or, as Sahl might put it, is there a basic inability to relate his perception to the mass media?

★ ★ ★

THE CHANNEL SWIM: Both NBC and CBS are planning new hour-long action-adventure series. Rory Calhoun will coproduce and star in the still-untitled series for CBS-TV, scheduled for a fall time slot. Calhoun, now riding a horse as "The Texan," will move into the current era for this one.

The NBC-TV series, projected for 1961-62 viewing, would be set among the islands of the Caribbean Sea. No title or cast as yet. . . . Art Carney stars in an adaptation of Joseph Conrad's novel. "Victory" on NBC-TV Friday, April 8.

West Wins Out in Pass Wording

Russia Gives In, OKs Phrase 'Soviet Zone of Germany'

BERLIN (AP) — A stubborn West Monday night won its battle with the Soviet Union over new travel passes for Western military missions in East Germany. Wording of the passes implied recognition of the Soviet puppet regime.

The Soviets discarded the passes after month-long Western refusal to accept them and retaliation against Soviet missions in West Germany.

The passes would have authorized the United States, British and French military missions stationed at Potsdam, East Germany, to travel in the "German Democratic Republic." The old passes, now back in effect, authorize travel in "the Soviet zone of Germany."

★ ★ ★

The Western Allies contended use of the passes would imply recognition of the East German regime which they contend is an illegal, unrepresentative government.

★ ★ ★

The Soviets' surprising about-face came at a meeting of the heads of the Western missions with the Soviet chief of staff in East Germany, Lt. Gen. G. V. Voronzov.

★ ★ ★

The official East German news agency ADN said Voronzov told the Western representatives: "guided by the desire not to worsen relations among the great powers, especially in view of the forthcoming summit conference, the Soviet government has authorized the supreme commander to make no changes until further notice in the passes issued previously."

Okinawa Mayors Nix U.S. Missiles

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—Mayors of central Okinawa towns resolved today to oppose land leasing by the U. S. forces to establish sites for missiles in their districts.

Ten of the area's 14 mayors were present at the meeting. They said they were not opposed to the missiles, but to further military acquisition of land.

Several mayors said the United States should put the missile sites on areas already leased by the military.

Army Takes Over Argentine Provinces

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — The Argentine armed forces today took control of the police in Argentina's 22 provinces as part of the government's campaign against terrorist followers of ex-dictator Juan D. Peron.

★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★

Frondizi put into effect a "Plan Conintes" — increasing military control almost to the point of martial law — after a series of explosions blamed on followers of Peron. The Frondizi government has been operating under a state of siege, or modified martial law, for about 18 months.

Survived 7 Weeks Adrift at Sea

Soviet Sailors Arrive in U.S.

ABOARD USS KEARSARGE (AP)—Four village-reared Soviet sailors, who survived seven weeks adrift on the stormy Pacific Ocean, step ashore today in the United States, a strange and distant land for them.

They had some apprehensions about the future until Soviet Embassy officials told them—by shore-to-ship telephone—they were being proclaimed as heroes throughout their homeland.

The four, tossed about in the Pacific in a 50-foot landing craft from Jan. 17 until rescued by this 41,000-ton carrier March 7, are landing at San Francisco's Marina Green.

The young seamen are Victor Ziganshin, 22, of the lower Volga region; Motor Machinist Philip G. Poplavsky, 20, reared in a Ukraine village; Ivan Y. Fedotov, 21, from a Siberian town on the Amur River; and Motor Machinist Anatole V. Kruchovski, 20, also from the Ukraine.

After two days in San Francisco, the sailors will go to New York by jet airliner and probably will remain under hospital observation there two weeks.

They still are lean and weak physically, nine days after Kearsarge fliers spotted their battered and listing landing craft more than 1,000 miles southeast of the sailors' Kurile Island base. They had been swept to sea by a sudden storm during a training exercise.

"They were just about at the threshhold of what a human can stand when we picked them up," said Lt. Cmdr. F. D. Beckwith, La Jolla, Calif., the carrier's medical officer.

Beckwith said he had advised Soviet embassy officers that the men should be kept under hospital observation because their ordeal could cause lasting organic damage.

The two pounds of tinned meat aboard the landing craft lasted the four men 16 days. Thereafter they survived on sternly rationed servings of soup made from a 15-pound bag of potatoes.

★ ★ ★

Poof! There Goes Rating

TV Flees Deodorant

BAYSHORE, N.Y. (UPI) — It was just a can of spray deodorant, but to hospitalized Edward McBride it was a secret weapon against TV boredom.

★ ★ ★

McBride, 51, recovering from an appendectomy at Southside Hospital, was using the deodorant recently when he noticed that the channel on his rented TV set changed at the exact moment he depressed the release button on the deodorant container.

"He pressed the button a second time and—zingo—he got another program on TV. He was soon amazing his doctor and nurses by demonstrating how he could change stations without getting out of bed to touch the TV set's dial.

A TV repair man was called to find the cause of the phenomenon. He said he believed the hissing sound made by the deodorant can was attuned to the high frequency device in the remote control set that operates the channel changing mechanism.

★ ★ ★

Hospital officials, in a spirit of scientific investigation, roamed the hospital testing McBrde's deodorant can on every available TV set. It worked on 10 and failed on five. They tried another brand of spray deodorant, but it didn't work.

MSUO Money Bid Fails

Lodge Fights Losing Battle for University

Senators OK Allocation of $107,931,000 for Higher Education

A vigorous battle on the floor of the Michigan Senate to earmark funds for Michigan State University Oakland was unsuccessful as the upper chamber tossed the money-for-education issue into the House last night.

State senators approved an allocation of $107,931,000 for Michigan's colleges and universities, boosting the original Senate Appropriations Committee figure $657,640.

The roll call on Senate passage was 32-2, with the negative votes cast by Sen. L. Harvey Lodge (R-Oakland County) and Sen. John F. Smeekens (R-Coldwater).

It was Lodge who fought an unsuccessful battle for MSUO which has asked for an appropriation of $1,065,000.

★ ★ ★

The Legislature does not appropriate a figure for MSUO. The new Oakland County university's money is included in a lump sum figure appropriated for Michigan State University, its sister university in East Lansing.

The MSU Board of Trustees, governing body of both schools, decides what share of the MSU budget should be given to MSUO.

'DID THEIR BEST'

Sen. Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield), appropriations committee chairman, told the Senate his appropriations committee had done the best job it knew how with funds available in this year of steep debt and lean revenues.

"You could add 15 million dollars and still have complaints," Porter declared.

He told senators that while the

'Must Prevent Arms Race in Outer Space'

This Is Message of U.S. Ambassador to Disarmament Parley

GENEVA (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Frederick M. Eaton today told the opening session of the 10-nation disarmament conference that it "must take immediate action to prevent the extension of the arms race into outer space."

This problem has arisen since the collapse of the last previous negotiations on disarmament in London in 1957.

Eaton stressed that arrangements to cut back forces and weapons must be subject to foolproof controls. He added that "the initial steps must not be overly ambitious."

Both Eaton and British Minister of State David Ormsby-Gore stressed that the control problem would need to be carefully worked out. The American delegation leader said:

"It has been said that there must be no inspection without commensurate disarmament. Conversely, the security of the world requires that there be no disarmament without commensurate inspection. We must patiently find our way through this difficulty.

★ ★ ★

"Our speed will be determined by the willingness of states to permit verification of fulfillment of their commitments."

The West's plan calls for creation of an international disarmament organization with ultimate power to enforce disarmament. The Eastern plan is based on Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's call for total disarmament within four years. He first unveiled it in a speech to the U. N. General Assembly last Sept. 18.

The conference likely will set up several study groups and committees of experts which may deliberate for months or even years.

U. S. negotiators were told to expect to stay in Geneva at least a year. But a Soviet commentator in Moscow called for speedy action.

For the first time in more than a decade of arms talks, East and West were meeting on an equal numerical basis. On the Western side were the United States, Britain, France, Italy and Canada. Representing the Communist bloc were the Soviet Union, Poland, Romania, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria.

8,000 Unionists Cheer Him On

Hoffa Pounces on Critics

NEW YORK (AP) — Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa hurled criticism at most of his adversaries Monday night at a Madison Square Garden rally.

An estimated 8,000 cheering Teamsters and members of their families half-filled the garden.

The Teamsters president had angry words for recent labor legislation, Sen. John F. Kennedy D-Mass, his brother, "little Bobby Kennedy," AFL-CIO President George Meany, Auto Workers President Walter Reuther, the press, radio, and television.

Sen. Kennedy, who helped write the new labor law, was a member of the Senate committee which investigated union and management rackets. His brother, Robert F. Kennedy, was chief counsel of the committee.

ATTACKS PRESS

His audience enthusiastically whistled and cheered as Hoffa turned to reporters covering the rally and said: "There is no use talking to reporters. Distortion is what you can expect from the press. Editors are controlled by big business."

★ ★ ★

Hoffa gave a point-by-point analysis of the new Landrum-Griffin labor reform law, seeking to convince his audience that it was designed to destroy the Teamsters and turn them into strikebreakers.

He said he plans to build a web of union alliances covering millions of workers as an answer to the law. He would have all unions arrange common expiration dates for their contracts. Thus, he said, unions could circumvent the law's ban on secondary boycotts.

The Teamsters—there are 150,000 of them in the metropolitan district—had made special pleas to the city's unorganized cab drivers to park their vehicles and come to hear Hoffa. There was no indication the cab drivers responded in any great numbers.

At a news conference after his speech, Hoffa denied printed reports that he has a purge list and is actively opposing Sen. Kennedy's candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination as well as re-election of congressmen who are supporting Kennedy.

Wild County Dem Meeting Almost Brings Fistfight

By GEORGE T. TRUMBULL JR.

Election year fireworks were touched off prematurely at last night's Oakland County Democratic Committee meeting with a near fist fight, heated exchanges and a preliminary two-man bout for a little-known political job.

Fisticuffs threatened when two bitter union enemies exchanged profane insults as one sought the committee's endorsement for a position on the Michigan Employment Security Commission appeal board.

Saying that bringing the endorsement before the full committee was out of order, delegates told Scott to take his request to his local township club first.

Through the din of the angry words at smoked-filled Metropolitan Club Hall emerged the committee's endorsement of James M. Ginn, 1-yea3r-old Farmington attorney, for county public administrator.

★ ★ ★

Some saw Ginn's 37-vote victory for the lesser of political appointment as the resurgence of a faction in the county party dissatisfied with its leadership.

A top member and state union leader last year said the organization was a "sorry excuse" for a Democratic party.

Quietly watching the eruption of tempers was Billie S. Farnum, newly appointed deputy state chairman. He had earlier warned the nearly 300 precinct delegates and alternates in attendance not to al-

FBI Hunts Killers of 2 PO Inspectors

CHICAGO (AP)—The FBI and police hunted today for three mail thieves who shot and killed two post office investigators in their car minutes after they trapped the robbers.

A half-dozen shots were fired into the bodies of the two inspectors by the three robbers, all Negroes, who fled after the shooting late Monday night on the southwest edge of the Loop.

The inspectors had seized the trio and several sacks of mail from their car and were about to drive them to a police station when the shooting broke out.

The inspectors apparently overlooked guns the robbers had concealed and they had no chance to return the fire. Both men were armed with .38 caliber service revolvers but neither gun was fired.

The victims were Ben Spizzirri, 42, father of five young children, and John McAuliffe Jr., 36, father of two. McAuliffe, who was in the driver's seat, was shot in the right chest and shoulder. Spizzirri was killed by shots in the right jaw and head. Police recovered one .32 caliber bullet from Spizzirri's body.

Police said Winton Murray, 36, a truck driver whose car was halted at a traffic signal at the Roosevelt road-Clark street intersection, saw the slayings and described the scene. His wife, Emma, 22, was with him.

He said the inspectors stopped three Negroes in a car and drove with them to a second car parked nearby. One of the two inspectors removed several bags of mail from the trunk of the robbers' car.

Seconds after he stepped into the car with the robbers and the second inspector, a half-dozen shots rang out. Three men jumped from the car. Two got into the other car and their companion jumped on a bus.

Murray, a Negro, said he called police. They found both inspectors slumped over in the front seat of their car.

★ ★ ★

Jerome Williamson, chief postal inspector in Chicago, said both inspectors were former transfer clerks in the Postal Transport Service who had been assigned to work with postal inspectors four or five years ago. They were detailed to watch mail handling points where mail sacks were transferred from trains to trucks.

Eye Completion of City Hospital

Minor Jobs Remain for Few Workmen, Says Administrator Euler

The five-year Pontiac General Hospital expansion program is in its last week.

A handful of contractor employes remain today, completing cleanup and tag-ends of work, Harold B. Euler, hospital administrator, said.

He expected the last of the crewmen to leave later in the week.

This is not counting a subcontractor's crew that will probably continue at work in the basement laboratory for another two weeks.

Nor does it include another crew preparing a medical library for the doctors, a project that is being paid for by the doctors themselves, not the city.

And another, important undertaking that will still be in the works for a few days more is the Cobalt 60 therapy room.

The machine will be installed Monday and its radio-active source will be delivered the same day, Euler said.

Partially financed through donations by doctors and service clubs, the machine is scheduled to be ready for use in two weeks, Euler said.

Asylum Rights Proposal Goes to U.N. Assembly

The declaration on the right of asylum, approved for submission to the U. N. General Assembly, said asylum should be denied to such refugees only "for overriding reasons of national security or safeguarding of the population."

Endorses Sen. Morse

Civics Teacher Fights Ticket

Mrs. Klara Ross is a civics teacher who thinks all is not well with government in Keego Harbor.

That, says Mrs. Ross, is the reason why she is going before a jury tomorrow in an expensive attempt to prove a $1 parking ticket unwarranted.

★ ★ ★

"It's the principle of the thing," said Mrs. Ross, 29, who also teaches social studies, history, English and art at Waterford Township's John D. Pierce Junior High School.

"I have taught my pupils about their wonderful heritage of civil rights in this country. Now it looks as if it's going to cost me some money to fight for what I believe is the principle of the law."

Mrs. Ross' car was ticketed last Wednesday morning on Cass Lake Front just south of Cass Lake road in Keego Harbor.

It had broken down on her way to work, she said. Leaving it at the side of the road, she returned on foot to her nearby home, 1842 Cass Lake Front, called a garage and got a ride to school with a friend.

Before the wrecker arrived, James Sisk, Keego Harbor police chief happened by and ticketed the car for being parked in a no parking zone.

A mechanic at the garage handed Mrs. Ross the ticket that evening when she arrived to pick up her car. It had had a blocked gas line.

Mrs. Ross claimed she telephoned Sisk to explain the incident but was told she would have to go to court.

This led to further irritation, she said.

Arriving at the court of Justice James Southart in Keego Harbor at 7:30 last night, she found the magistrate present but not Sisk.

Mrs. Ross pleaded innocent to violating traffic regulations and was told to come back tomorrow at 10 a.m. for trial by jury.

"It's cost me a day's pay and attorney's fees, but it's worth it," she said. "You've got to stick up for your rights."

Cold Temperatures to Continue Here

Little change in temperatures is expected through Thursday in the Pontiac area.

The weatherman said the predicted high for Wednesday is 32 degrees and the low tonight near 20. Thursday's high temperatures will remain in the low 30s with a chance of a few snow flurries.

Morning five mile an hour winds northeasterly will become variable at 6 to 12 miles tonight.

Fourteen was the lowest recording in downtown Pontiac preceding 8 a.m. The mercury climbed to 35 at 1 p.m.

Dem Tempers Flare at County Meeting

Ginn, whose only other try for political office came in 1958 when he ran unsuccessfully for Southfield justice of the peace, edged out Lawrence H. Best, 38, backed for the endorsement by the Royal Oak Township Democratic Club.

Best's campaign manager was John E. Kronenberg, second-time candidate for county clerk-register of deeds. Some party members saw Best's defeat in the little inner-party election as damage to Kronenberg's support this year.

Others, and all emphatically asked not to be quoted, saw Ginn's win as booming Mrs. Harriett Phillips, a seven-year Oakland member of the State Central Committee, as possible county chairman material.

Present chairman Carlos G. Richardson didn't attend. He was away on a Florida vacation. Chairman of the rough and tumble meeting was Frank J. Sierawski, Richardson's executive assistant.

Asked what the election meant to her, the Huntington Woods housewife smiled and said facetiously: "It means we have a new public administrator."

★ ★ ★

Ginn's endorsement by the committee — by a vote of 96 by 59 —now is forwarded to State Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams for confirmation. It's expected without question.

★ ★ ★

He will fill the vacancy left when former public administrator Jack Moskowitz, Hazel Park city attorney, was named by Williams to the MESC Appeal Board in January. The opening was eagerly sought by four, the latter two withdrawing.

The public administrator, Oakland has two, the other being Pontiac attorney L. C. Burch, also a Democrat, handles estates of deceased county residents tho have no apparent heirs. Pay is on a fee basis.

Climaxing the election of Ginn was Scott's asking the committee for its endorsement for another position on the appeal board. The executive committee, of which his wife is a member, had previously given Scott, 53, of Drayton Plains, its backing.

With Scott, who is partially crippled from a 1954 stroke, out of the room, Hammond rose in protest to the committee's endorsement of Scott.

Scott, a former vice president of Pontiac Teamsters Local 614, twice testified before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington against James R. Hoffa, international union president.

Hammond, 55, of 1210 Princeton Rd., Berkley, angrily accused Scott as being "anti-labor and unsympathetic to the labor movement." Hammond was once vice president of the old county CIO council.

Up jumped Mrs. Scott from the speaker's table. "We're sick and tired of your sniping behind our backs. It's about time someone had the courage to fight that Hoffa."

★ ★ ★

In stormed Scott to challenge Hammond sitting in the back of the room. He bitterly accused Hammond as being a "——liar."

★ ★ ★

With most of the Democratic delegates already departed, Scott, waving his cane said to his accuser, "I'm more of a union man than you'll ever be."

"Go away, you nut," Hammond retorted. As the remaining delegates stared in amazement Scott was pulled away from Hammond by a peacemaker.

Rights Bill Legislators Push for Referee Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Civil rights advocates drove today for House approval of a voting referee plan to resolve the long wrangle over legislation against racial discrimination at the polls.

★ ★ ★

There were even some "anti-carpetbag" sweeteners in it for the Southerners, who were still fighting it vigorously. Members outside the South generally were supporting the revised proposal.

The major test vote was expected late today, paving the way for a final House vote on the bill about Thursday.

The GOP House leader, Rep. Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, told newsmen he thinks the House could write "a fine law" by incorporating the revised administration plan for referees into the stripped-down bill before it.

Halleck said the Senate might well agree to such a bill and end the marathon hassle raging on that side of the Capitol for exactly a month.

The Senate continued battling over various provisions of its own civil rights legislation despite a general expectation it eventually will accept whatever the House passes.

Rep. Emanuel Celler of New York, leader of the Democratic supporters of civil rights legislation, joined his Republican counterpart, Rep. William M. McCulloch of Ohio, in predicting approval by the House of the referee plan.

IN FINAL FORM

In its final form, the proposal retains the basic idea of court-appointed officers who could step in when state officials followed a pattern of discrimination against Negro or other minority would-be voters.

★ ★ ★

The proposal which has been revised requires that referees be local people, voters in the judicial district involved. Language authorizing the referees to follow the voting process right through the counting of the ballots was somewhat modified. However, spokesmen on both sides agreed that in extreme cases the referees could be sent in to oversee even the actual count.

The House in swift parliamentary moves Monday discarded two administration civil rights proposals that might have led to prolonged debate. Both were ruled out of order on grounds they were not closely enough related to the main bill.

They would have provided for: A commission to safeguard Negro and other minority employment rights on government contracts.

Across Central Plains

Snow Cometh Again

By The Associated Press

Fading winter kicks up another snowstorm across broad areas in the midcontinent and parts of the Southeast today, five days before its official demise.

It was the fourth major snowstorm this month and came as may communities still were digging out from last week's heavy falls. Spring arrives Sunday morning at 9:43 a.m. EST.

★ ★ ★

The snow belt covered wide areas extending from northern sections of Alabama and Mississippi northwestward through the mid-Mississippi Valley and parts of the plains and Rockies.

★ ★ ★

Schools in some parts of the snow belt were closed.

Heaviest snowfall during the night was from the central plains eastward through Missouri and much of Tennessee and from Kansas into the Dakotas.

The fresh storm left a covering of more than 9 inches in parts of Kansas and warnings of falls ranging from 4 to 12 inches in Missouri were issued by the Weather Bureau. Heavy sow warnings also were posted for areas in Kentucky, Tennessee and southern Illinois and lesser amounts in parts of Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

NAACP Raps 'Sneaky' Solons

Scores Chopping Away of Civil Rights Bill to Meaningless Shell

NEW YORK (AP)—The board of directors of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People issued this statement Monday on the handling of civil rights legislation in Congress:

"It is apparent that despite the true friends of civil rights in both parties and in both houses of Congress, a Republican-Democratic coalition is tearing the pending bill to pieces.

"At the present rate of sneaky ditching, dumping, chopping and trimming, nothing will be left worthy of the support of the civil rights supporters in and out of Congress.

"In the House some members made speeches for the printed record and then voted in opposition to their own speeches because the vote was not on roll call.

"Those who are cynically betraying the civil rights cause cannot expect that their roles as individuals and as party leaders and functionaries will be forgotten."

No Hope in State for Rights Laws This Year

LANSING (AP)—The last hope for enacting civil rights legislation this year in Michigan flickered out today.

★ ★ ★

Rep. George Edwards (D-Detroit), chief sponsor of the Democratic civil rights bills, said there would be no second attempt to force the House State Affairs Committee to release civil rights legislation it pigeonholed last week.

★ ★ ★

A Democratic move to bring one bill to the House floor for debate failed by three votes Friday.

★ ★ ★

Under tomorrow's deadline for passing House bills, Edwards pointed out a two-thirds favorable majority would be needed to suspend House rules and bring Civil Rights bills from the committee in time for passage.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—On Aug. 8, 1940, a 16-year-old high school girl married a boy of 18 with dark, curly hair and a bad reputation. His name: Caryl Chessman.

"Like all women," said the attractive housewife who was once that girl, "I thought, 'I'll change him.' But he's not to be changed."

The former Mrs. Chessman remarried and is a mother. The early part of her life is so completely closed she agreed to talk to newsmen who traced her only if they would promise not to use her name.

She told a story of a brief marriage that was happy except for one thing: Her young husband wanted to make money the easy way.

"I began to have suspicions when I looked in his drawer and found it loaded with all kinds of artillery—from the biggest to the littlest. Then in 1941 he came home one night and dumped a sackful of money on the bed," she said.

"The bed was just covered with money. I fussed and got mad, but it didn't do any good. He just laughed."

Chessman is awaiting execution. The death date—his eighth—is May 2. Newsmen asked the woman if she thought he would escape death this time, as he had the previous seven, through legal maneuvers or action by the governor.

"I think he will be executed," she said.

She said she thinks he is innocent of charges of kidnaping and sex perversion.

★ ★ ★

"There was nothing abnormal about him, whatsoever," said the former Mrs. Chessman. "Even when we were going together as high school kids he always respected 'no.' He was never one to use force."

She said their marriage ended just two weeks after he bought home the sack of money. She obtained a divorce.

May Authorize Jitney Fleet

Expect Bus Committee Will Suggest Action to Commission Today

The mayor's special bus committee is expected to recommend today that a special jitney fleet be authorized to provide public transportation for the duration of the bus strike.

★ ★ ★

If so, the recommendation will go to the City Commission for emergency action tonight.

City Commissioner Floyd P. Miles, chairman of the committee, said his group was ready today to study a proposed emergency ordinance which, yesterday, it asked City Attorney William A. Ewart to prepare.

The ordinance would legalize the "courtesy ride" service provided by bus drivers since the strike began last Dec. 5 and open the door for as many additional jitney drivers as public demand calls for.

★ ★ ★

Miles' 14-member committee was to meet at 11 a. m. at the Waldron Hotel.

★ ★ ★

The jitney idea came up yesterday after the drivers and mechanics turned down a settlement under which the committee proposed that the city subsidize drivers' pay by 10-cents an hour during a six-month period.

To Fuel A-Plant at Monroe in '61

Trouble Reported in Design; Original Date Was Sept. 1

DETROIT (AP)—Atomic fueling of the Enrico Fermi power plant outside Monroe will not come until 1961.

Under the original schedule the atomic power plant was to have been fueled with uranium by Sept. 1. But the Power Reactor Development Co. has reported to Congress this will be delayed four to six months.

Trouble has developed, the company reported, in the fuel cores it planned to use and they now must be redesigned.

As first designed, the reactor fuel was to consist of pins of enriched uranium molybdenum alloy 30 inches long and about one-seventh of an inch in diameter.

Several pins were to be placed in a square, rod-like can of stainless steel and held in place by transverse wires. Each can would form a unit for handling purposes.

But under high temperatures, the company reported, the pins became distorted until they were not supported by the transverse wires.

Now, the company said, some better way of holding the pins must be found.

The report was signed by Walker Cisler, who is president of both the Detroit Edison Co. Edison plans to buy the atomic-made steam to operate a generating plant it is building in conjunction with the reactor. Several utilities and other companies joined to form PRDC.

The total investment, counting Edison's 17 million dollar power plant, will approximate 80 million dollars.

Russia Orders Big Supply of British Dresses

LONDON (AP) — A British dress firm announced today it has received an order from the Soviet Union for $280,000 worth of summer frocks.

Wallace Austin, head of the firm, said it is the first Soviet order for women's clothing received by Britain since the Bolshevik Revolution in 1917.

"They were particularly interested in youthful, casual wear. The material they preferred was jersey. The favorite color was light gray," he said.

Fail to Locate 18 Trapped Miners; Rescue Team Tries for Last Area

LOGAN, W.Va. (AP) — Hope ebbed today for rescue of 18 trapped coal miners as rescue teams probed the areas where they might have taken refuge and found no one.

One area was found empty Monday night and another this morning. There were no signs of the men at the entrance to the third and final refuge where the men, trapped since last Tuesday, may have gone.

★ ★ ★

"If they're up toward the slope, they're dead," said Paul Lingo, deputy state mines director.

★ ★ ★

Basic mine safety instructions call for trapped men to use chalk or other means to leave signs for rescuers.

The 18 were cut off about 8 a.m. last Tuesday when a small rock slide snapped an electric cable that ignited some timbers. The timbers in turn started a smoldering fire in the coal.

Communication was maintained with the miners for about four hours until that line, too, was broken, apparently burned through by the fire.

There are three honeycombed refuge areas, or "rooms," off the main passageway where the men might have barricaded themselves from the deadly fumes and smoke from the fire.

An alternative would have been to try to make it through the main passageway to an old mine entrance on the other side of the mountain. This way has been blocked for some time, and safety officials consider it the worst choice the men could have made.

T. N. Camicia, vice president in charge of mine operations, said rescue workers searched the second area sufficiently to establish there was nobody there before pulling back. All they found was a string of about 20 coal cars.

OFF TO 3rd AREA

The rescue team sent out to reach the third area—100 feet deeper in the mine—was told to check the barricade at its entrance for signs of the men but not to break any seal which might be protecting the trapped men from deadly fumes.

The rescue workers who checked the entrance to area three said they found the air good. They said they could have taken off the oxygen masks they wore.

★ ★ ★

Area three apparently is the last possible refuge spot where the miners chance of survival would be good.

"Elk Creek slope is not a good place to be. We just can't believe they're there," said J. L. Hamilton, executive vice president of the mining company.

★ ★ ★

United Mine Workers Union records in Washington show there have been several rescues of miners who have been sealed off underground by rock falls or fire for a week or more.

The most recent spectacular rescue was at Springhill, Nova Scotia, in October 1958, when falling rock cut off scores of mines.

Seventy-four men were killed outright, and 88 escaped at the outset. A dozen more miners were saved 6½ days later. Seven more dug out alive after spending 9 days underground.

Schedule Public Hearing on Rezoning of 2 Parcels

BIRMINGHAM — The City Commission last night set June 13 for a public hearing on the rezoning of two parcels of land to allow construction of an 85-unit apartment.

★ ★ ★

The petition to rezone the property on west side of Woodward avenue, north of Oak Street and south of Colonial Terraces had been considered by the Commission but no action had been taken.

The City Planning Board has recommended denial of the request.

★ ★ ★

The apartment, proposed by the Wallace Newton Co., is planned as a three- or four-story luxury apartment. At the present the property is zoned for two-story structures only.

★ ★ ★

Newton has told the Commission that if the apartment is constructed now, only 60 units could be built.

★ ★ ★

"If this were done our architects feel that the building would be disoriented," Newton said, when he submitted his original petition for the zoning change last November.

Franklin Defeats 3 Proposals

Beverly Hills OKs Bonds

A $140,000 bond proposal to expand the sanitary sewer system was overwhelmingly approved and four incumbent councilmen were re-elected in Beverly Hills yesterday.

Running in a field of six candidates, the four incumbents re-elected are Marvin B. Cline, Hugh G. Allerton Jr., John A. McClanathan and Leo J. Linsenmeyer.

The two newcomers defeated were Claude Shephard and Herman Drazick.

Mrs. Milton Adams, government veteran, defeated Mrs. Betty Chinn for the clerk's post, 1,094 to 300.

Approval of the bond proposal, 1,204 to 194, authorizes the village to sell general obligation bonds for a sewer system that will tie into the Evergreen Interceptor.

It will affect an area bounded by 12½ Mile road on the south, Evergreen road on the east, 14 Mile road on the north and Bingham Farms on the west.

Tallying the highest number of votes was Cline with 1,091, followed by Allerton, 1,055; Linsenmeyer, 884; McClanathan, 849; Drazick, 736, and Shephard, 563.

6 IN BINGHAM FARMS

The six candidates for village posts in Bingham Farms were elected to office yesterday by a smaller turnout of voters than last year.

Each office-seeker polled 40 votes except John Gress, running for a Council vacancy, who garnered 39.

Incumbent Neil Warren was re-elected to the Council along with Henry Bleeker and Gress.

Treasurer James M. Washburne and Walter Gerick were re-elected treasurer and assessor respectively.

Mrs. James McGuire was elected clerk.

ELECT 5 IN WOOD CREEK

In Wood Creek Farms 2 two-year Council terms were won by John M. Ambrose and Roy W. Nelson.

The unopposed positions of clerk and treasurer were won by Mrs. Alice Billiu and Robert C. Day.

Mrs. Billiu garnered 77 votes and Day 90.

FRANKLIN ELECTS 7

Franklin voters yesterday defeated three questions regarding the Community Church and a proposed charter amendment. At the same time they re-elected four incumbents, two newcomers and a village president.

Named to the 3 two-year Council posts open were incumbent Edward Green, 362 votes; Robert Mitchell, 336, and William Kahn, 264.

Four other candidates who were seeking the Council posts were Eugene Kelly, 210; Fred Schwedt, 144; Otto Schubert, 141, and Charles Plank, 117.

Incumbent Clerk Elsie Garwood defeated Sylvia Fellows, 455 to 99.

Incumbent Treasurer Robert Winkel, opposed by Archie McCardell, polled 411 votes to 133.

Voters rejected the purchase of the old church for $35,000 by 468 to 82. It was to be used for a library and village hall.

The other two questions asking whether the village should assess up to $1.50 per $1,000 for the purchase of the church and whether the property should be removed from residential to professional were defeated 445 to 66 and 381 to 149, respectively.

A proposed charter amendment that would have allowed for the construction of sidewalk in the vicinity of the Franklin Elementary School was narrowly rejected, 272 to 266.

bill fell short $4,123,000 of the governor's recommendation, it exceeded the appropriation for the current fiscal year by close to $7,000,000.

Lodge was miffed by rejection of a request for an extra $185,785 for MSU—with the understanding that if it were granted $1,065,000 of the MSU total would be specifically earmarked for MSUO.

★ ★ ★

As Lodge analyzed the MSU allotment, $879,000 would be for MSUO, a figure he said would "strangle" the new university.

Not only was Lodge unsuccessful in raising what it appears will be the MSUO budget—he was also unsuccessful in getting any guaranteed sum for MSUO.

He agreed with the estimate of Sen. Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair), who handled the bill on the floor. Beadle said MSU Trustees could apportion any fraction of their appropriation they chose to MSUO.

MSUO Chancellor D. B. Varner has warned that MSUO will have to limit enrollment and cut back on the planned size of faculty if MSUO's budget is not near the figure asked by university officials.

★ ★ ★

"We've always been honest with the Legislature. We've submitted a minimum, spartan budget," Varner said.

He expressed hopes that the Oakland County delegation in the House would take up the budget battle for MSUO.

"I fought hard, but it was no use," Lodge told The Pontiac Press today.

★ ★ ★

"I'm about as popular with my party as a 'possum in a preacher's hen house," said the senator, who split with his party because of MSUO.

★ ★ ★

"I may have antagonized them, but I'm fighting for a principle here," Lodge declared.

Lodge was hopeful that the MSU Board of Trustees would supply MSUO with necessary funds.

He noted that last year he wrung a gentleman's agreement from his fellow lawmakers that a certain amount of the MSU budget would be for MSUO. "I couldn't get even that this year," he complained.

★ ★ ★

Varner said the budget crisis will be "a lively part" of the MSU trustees' next meeting, scheduled for Thursday in East Lansing.

"I shall certainly make our position unmistakably clear," he said.

The chancellor expressed the hope that the House would rectify what he called the Senate's "tragic mistake."

"I'm sure the Senate didn't understand the effects of their action," he said. He praised Lodge for his battle on behalf of MSUO.

KILLED BY THIEVES — Two Chicago postal inspectors were slain last night by three thieves they had caught with several sacks of stolen mail. John McAuliffe, left, and Ben Spirizzirri were taking their prisoners to police when the three pulled guns that apparently had been overlooked by the inspectors. (See story, page one.)

Retired Circuit Judge Is Found Dead in Bed

The victim was Shirley Stewart, 77, who retired from the St. Clair County circuit bench in 1933. He was elected a circuit judge in 1940.

★ ★ ★

Stewart was instrumental in revising the Michigan criminal code during the terms in office of late Gov. Alexander Groesbeck in the early 1920s and also was an organizer on the State Bar of Michigan.

★ ★ ★

Authorities here said Shirley apparently died in his sleep.

Says Danger Label Law Needs Updating

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Food and Drug Administration Monday urged Congress to bring up to date a 1927 federal law requiring informative labeling of hazardous household products.

Commissioner George P. Larrick told a House Commerce subcommittee the old law has become outmoded by the rapid number of chemical compounds available for household use. He said it does not apply to many poisonous or otherwise hazardous substances in common use.

★ ★ ★

"The need for legislation requiring proper labeling of these materials is amply demonstrated," Larrick said. "Behind the infant mortality statistics are many instances of accidental poisonings which would have been avoided had the parents been properly warned and had information for proper emergency treatment been readily available."

Larrick estimated that every year about 600,000 children swallow household aids left within their reach, and that about 500 children die annually as a result of such accidents.

Government Charges Ulcer Cure Pills No Good

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Donald C. Sussman of Waterman Pharmacy and Waterman Drug Co. of Detroit has 30 days in which to answer a government charge that his ulcer "curing" tablets are no good.

★ ★ ★

The Federal Trade Commission said Sussman's advertising claims that "Cel-Ae Tablets" effectively treat and cure ulcers are false. FTC officials said the pills actually are an antacid.

★ ★ ★

They said the preparation is not a cure for the pain and discomfort of ulcers, nor for "ulcer worries" as claimed.

Would Put Stress on Lean Meat

Agriculture Dept. Studies Changes in Beef Grading

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Agriculture Department's Livestock Division is looking into the possibility of revising the present grading system for beef. In effect, the revision would take some of the excess fat off beef sold at the retail meat counter.

The department, taking note of increasing consumer aversion to excess fat on meat, said a study is under way to help bring to market high-quality beef with a minimum of fat.

The Livestock Division conducts the government meat grading service which has provided food shoppers with a reliable guide to meat quality for years.

Beef of the higher grades—U. S. prime and U. S. choice—is the most tender and most flavorful but as a rule it also carries the most fat. Conversely, beef of the lower grades which is less tender and flavorful usually has less fat.

Feeding necessary to produce high quality beef often results in a heavy layer of external fat. Much of this fat now is trimmed away before the meat is offered to consumers, but this results in higher prices per pound.

The grading revision would continue to identify meat quality as at present, but would give a separate rating for yield of lean meat.

Such a revision undoubtedly please the meat industry as represented by the American Meat Institute. H. R. Davidson, institute president, said last week that the industry takes a dim view of the present grading system because it is based on an "outmoded" concept that the fattest animal is the best.

The Road to Faith by Will Oursler

By WILL OURSLER
Chapter Twelve

A key factor in our quest for religious faith is our vast store of information. Yet often we find ourselves empty of the understanding without which faith becomes mere meaningless jargon.

It is in the seeking of knowledge that we gain wisdom and in the seeking of understanding that we gain faith.

"At the same time," St. Matthew records, "came the disciples unto Jesus saying, who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?

"And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them.

"And said, Verily, I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

In another instance Jesus said:

UNFETTERED, UNAFRAID

To the adult who is honest, little children are wonderful and exciting and—in varying degrees—creatures of savage impulses.

What did Jesus mean, then, precisely and expressly—by His repeated declaration "of such is the kingdom of heaven?"

It is one with the trust and love that the child—the average, normal child—gives to the life around him, to parents, environment, home, to his world as he knows it.

For the bases of this belief in the instinctive wisdom of the infant, psychologists or sociologists may offer a variety of explanations: from prenatal consciousness to race memory, or evolutionary reflex action to primitive animalistic adjustment to environmental influence.

WE LOVE YOU!

I know a famous obstetrician who holds each child he brings into the world in his arms and informs the newborn infant, "Everyone here loves you. Welcome to the world!"

Is not the faith of the child often misplaced or disappointed? Is it not true that the child must wake up to reality? Do we not use the phrase "growing up" to mean a coming to grip with reality on its own terms, rather than the fairy-tale terms of childhood?

We cannot avoid or evade this question, for it strikes to the heart of faith.

DISAPPOINTMENTS?

Yes, there are disappointments that the child encounters. Yes, his expectation is sometimes footless, his faith built on nothingness, his trust betrayed. That such things happen cannot be overlooked.

This, however, has an aspect entirely different from the meaning of the words of Jesus. He was using a symbolism: the faith of the child in relation to the parent; the faith of the adult man or woman in relation to God.

We must come to understand why this is so.

Testing Nerve Gas on British Soldiers

LONDON (AP)—Britian disclosed officially Monday it is carrying out experiments with nerve gases on human volunteers. A cautiously worded announcement from the War Office said the aim of the test is to devise antidotes.

It informed that service personnel had been used in the experiments, which thus far have been carried out in complete secrecy.

The announcement followed disclosures in the London Daily Mail that volunteers from all three armed services have been exposing themselves to nerve gas tests lasting between 7 and 14 days.

The Mail said the work was being conducted at the government's chemical defense experimental establishment at Porton on Bleak Salisbury Plain. Volunteers, it said, received special privileges, including extra leave and allowances.

"Some doses well within the safety limits are administered in carefully prescribed and controlled conditions," the War Office said, "with the object of discovering suitable antidotes for the effect of these materials."

Sen. Kefauver Withdraws From Oregon Primary

Morse was entered by petition. The others were placed on the ballot by Secretary of State Howell Appling Jr. under a new law that directs him to enter all nationally recognized candidates.

Cut Sale of Luxury Items at Canal Zone Army PXs

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States has agreed to stop selling $500 watches, inlaid tables and rare oriental wood carvings in Army Post Exchanges in the Panama Canal Zone the Defense Department said today.

Beginning today there will be a $50 limit on luxury items that can be sold. Panamanian businessmen have complained to the State Department that the luxury item sales at greatly reduced prices were cutting into their profits.

Race Sitdowns Seem Fewer

Law Is Firm Toward Both Negroes, Whites; Two More Cities Hit

By The Associated Press

Negro sitdown demonstrations appeared to be diminishing in the South today in the face of mass convictions and firm police action but new racial violence was reported in two cities.

★ ★ ★

Negro students at Florida A.&M. University called off their sitdowns protesting segregate eating facilities at Tallahassee, Montgomery, Ala., was quiet. There was one small demonstration in South Carolina.

BOTH NEGROES, WHITES

Courts in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina handed down a series of convictions Monday in connection with sitdown troubles. Both Negroes and white persons were involved.

★ ★ ★

At Charleston, S. C., Grady McMakin, 24, a white service station attendant, told police six Negro youths carved crude "KKK" initials in his back, beat him up and robbed him of $40.

The decision to halt demonstrations at Tallahassee was announced by Ira C. Robinson, president of the Student Government Assn. at Florida A.&M. University. He said agreement was reached after Saturday's near riot in downtown Tallahassee and the turning back of a Negro march by tear gas.

FIRE POWER — Oil for the lamps of China will produce not only light but electricity these days. This is a Russian-built thermoelectric generator, used to convert heat from a kerosene lamp into electricity for radios in remote Asian areas. A series of thermo-couples is arranged around the top of the 20-pound device. As they are heated, a small amount of current is generated. Metal fins remove the excess heat.

Violence Mars Korean Election

Wide Fraud Charged as Rhee Makes Bid for His Fourth Term

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Ten million Koreans voted for president and vice president today in an election marred by tension, violence and charges by Democrats of widespread fraud.

The 84 - year - old incumbent, Syngman Rhee, a Liberal, opposed only by a dead man, needed the votes of one-third — 3,732,164 — of the 11,196,490 registered electors to clinch his fourth term as South Korea's only president. He was expected to hit this mark early Wednesday in the laborious manual count which began tonight.

VICE PRESIDENCY CRUCIAL

Anti-Rhee Vice President John M. Chang of the Democrats was in a battle for his political life against the same candidate he whipped four years ago—Rhee protegee Lee Ki-poong. This time Lee was favored because of an apparent upsurge of Liberal strength and the government's tight control of the election machinery.

The vice presidency is of crucial importance because of Rhee's advanced age and the possibility he may not live out his four-year term. The president and vice president are elected separately in South Korea and can come from different parties.

Graham Having Tel Aviv Worry

Will Preach 4 Times in Israel, but 2 Halls Are Withdrawn in Ctiy

JERUSALEM (AP) — Billy Graham will preach four times in Israel this weekend, but residents of the Jewish nation's biggest city may have to go next door to hear him.

★ ★ ★

Graham, now visiting neighboring Jordan and the holy places there, is scheduled to preach at a church in Haifa Saturday night, at an open air meeting in Nazareth Sunday morning, at the YMCA in the Israeli sector of Jerusalem Sunday night and on Monday at St. Peter's church in Jaffa.

★ ★ ★

Jaffa is the partly Arab, partly Jewish twin city of Tel Aviv, Israel's largest city and chief port.

A spokesman for the Christian Church Council in Israel, which is organizing Graham's meetings, said originally the U.S. evangelist was to have spoken in Tel Aviv, in the 3,000-seat Frederik R. Mann Auditorium or in the auditorium of the Zionist Organization of America.

Managers of the two halls, the spokesman said, first consented to make them available, then withdrew their offers. No reasons were given.

An Israeli government official said the possibility of the Mann Auditorium —the city's cultural center — or some such hall in Tel Aviv being made available to Graham is still under consideration.

He said Graham's appearance involved Jewish religious feelings.

Plan to Construct City-Size Project Near Brooklyn

NEW YORK (UPI)—Plans were announced Monday for a private residential development which would set a new community the size of Des Moines, Iowa, within the New York city limits.

The developers, who purchased the area, also known as Rockaway Point, for 17.5 million dollars, said residents of about 2,900 summer homes now occupying some land on leases will be able to remain for a number of years while construction proceeds on the third of the area which is already vacant.

John E. Marquesee, president of Northern Properties, Inc., said the development will include 12 self-contained neighborhoods complete with schools, churches and cultural centers and modern apartment building housing for 60,000 families, or an estimated 220,000 persons.

If incorporated outside city limits, Marquesee said, the community would rank as the 47th largest city in the nation, larger than Syracuse or Albany, N. Y., Salt Lake City, Hartford, Conn., or Sacramento, Calif.

Plans invision development of a marina for boating along the Rockaway inlet shore and beaches along the Atlantic shore.

1st Treasury Bond Issue Snapped Up by Peruvians

LIMA, Peru (UPI)—Premier and Finance Minister Pedro Beltran announced happily Monday that the first treasury bond issue in Peru's history has been snapped up at a rate that left it 63 per cent oversubscribed in just one week.

★ ★ ★

The government a week ago asked investors to meet a subscription goal of 250 million soles (about $8,928,000) to spur an intense campaign to stabilize the economy.

★ ★ ★

Detroit Democrat Urges Air Pollution Committee

LANSING (AP)—Devices controlling air pollution from motor vehicles would be studied by a special committee under a resolution filed by a Detroit Democrat.

★ ★ ★

Rep. Adam Sumeracki noted that Michigan auto makers are being blamed for not taking action to install air pollution control devices.

He suggested a five-man House committee to study the problem in order "to safeguard an important state industry."

Roses require more than normal moisture. Overhead sprinkling in the morning hours is most satisfactory.

Ponders Appeal in 10-Cent Theft

Lansing Woman Faces Four Years in Prison; Gets Sympathy

LANSING—It was still uncertain today whether an appeal will be taken by the Lansing housewife facing up to four years in prison for stealing a 10-cent greeting card.

★ ★ ★

"It will cost a minimum of $500 to take the case to the Supreme Court," said Alvin A. Neller, attorney for Mrs. Mary K. Siegrist. "This is a hard decision."

"In a way, I'd like to get it over with. But there's a lot of sympathy for her (Mrs. Siegrist). I've had about 25 telephone calls from people wanting to help."

Neller's client, toting $60 in paid-for merchandise in a shopping bag at the time, was accosted by a private detective last December in the J. W. Knapp Co. department store in downtown Lansing.

She was accused of taking the card. Amid sputtered protests, she was hustled off first to a store office, and from there to the City Jail for 18 hours.

A city detective was called to the store after the accused refused demands to sign a statement acknowledging the card theft and berated those who detained her. The detective arrested her for investigation of a felony—larceny from a building.

★ ★ ★

Under this charge, a prison offense, it is not necessary to prove that merchandise was removed from the store premises—only that it was taken to another place within the store. Value is no criterion.

Socialite Not Joining Billy Graham's Staff

CAIRO (UPI) — Mrs. Eleanor Searle Whitney, socialite supporter of Billy Graham, said today she was not qualified to join the Graham Crusade for Christ as a staff member.

★ ★ ★

Her attendance at Graham's rally here last night was the only occasion that their paths have crossed in Africa.

★ ★ ★

"As were many of his other friends, I was invited to attend some of his African meetings. In view of this unfortunate publicity I attended only the meeting here."

Chance Fades for Top Job

Some Dems See Adlai as Secretary of State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Many Democrats here consider Adlai E. Stevenson as a likely choice for secretary of state but not for the party's presidential nomination.

Stevenson, twice the party's nominee, has long disavowed any intention of making a third race for the office. But speculation was renewed Monday that he might make a soft-sell campaign and the Wall Street Journal said that "well-heeled Eastern Democratic liberals stand ready to finance this off-beat campaign."

★ ★ ★

"I can't say anything about chances when I do not even know whether I'll be a candidate," he replied.

There is a growing belief among influential Democrats here — and they include some of Stevenson's best friends — that the former Illinois governor is fading out of the nomination picture.

Generally, they think Stevenson has waited too long to make any move to change his position that he isn't a candidate. He has said he would become one only as a result of a draft he doesn't believe will take place.

There is recognition, too, of the progress Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) now is making toward the elimination of any deadlock in the balloting at the Los Angeles convention in July.

According to Ernest R. Crawford, Orion Republican Club chairman, the dinner is open to the public, but because accommodations are limited to 200, reservations are necessary.

People wishing to attend may contact Crawford or Mrs. Margaret Stephen, 83 North Shore Dr.

Proceeds from the affair will be turned over to the Oakland County Republican Committee for the 1960 campaign fund.

High-Speed Computer Introduced by Bendix

DETROIT (AP)—Bendix Aviation Corp. introduced a compact transistor data-processing computer system designed for high-speed scientific, business and industrial use.

Designated the G20, the system is capable of 45,000 floating point operations per second, meaning that the machine keeps track of decimal points for the operator and does this very rapidly, the company said.

Says Water Diversion Would Life Power Cost

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—The general counsel of New York's power authority says power rates will go up in his state if Chicago increases the diversion of Lake Michigan water.

★ ★ ★

Thomas F. Moore Jr., testifying at a public hearing said the diversion "would directly reduce the firm power" contracted for sale from the St. Lawrence power project. He said additional power would have to be produced by new steam sources.

★ ★ ★

New York and five other states are seeking to halt a bid for additional water diversion by Chicago and several Illinois communities.

By EMILY POST

Dear Mrs. Post: Last week a group of women with whom I play cards each week went out to dinner and the theater. We had the money set aside, having put away a little each week. The day the group went out I came down with a virus and could not go with them. They went out anyway, which of course, I didn't object to, but they spent all the money that was in the kitty, including my share, which I did mind very much. I feel that my share of the money should have been returned to me. In fact, I told them so at our last meeting and they seemed quite surprised at my attitude. Don't you think, Mrs. Post, that they were wrong to spend my share of the money?

Answer: They most certainly should not have spent your share of the money. As you were unable to go with them, they should have put your share aside and returned it to you.

Dear Mrs. Post: We have new neighbors living next door to us who have a dog. Every morning, around six o'clock, they let the dog out. He races around the yard barking like mad. My husband does not have to get up until seven o'clock but this incessant barking awakens him at six and he cannot get back to sleep.

He works very hard and needs all the rest he can get. Will you please tell me how I can tactfully put an end to this situation without causing ill feelings?

Answer: Your husband's sleep is important and I think you will have to explain this to your new neighbors and ask them please not to let their dog out until seven o'clock in the morning.

It Misses!

OK for May, but on Mary---

The May Britt look has turned nearly half the teenster set into "long-hairs," and the only thing amiss is that there are not enough misses who can wear this starkly straight style. The typical teen ager, above center, achieves only a limp look in emulating the style, for her hair lacks natural body. The answer is to adapt the trend, not imitate it. At right is a modified version of Miss Britt's look, enhanced by a straight crown, smooth bangs and a fluff of curls to break severe straightness. A gentle end curl permanent gives the necessary body.

Find Out Why! Says Dear Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my 6-year-old daughter. She is always running away. I hate to keep her locked up all the time, but the minute I turn my back she runs away.

The police have brought her back so many times I am ashamed.

I put her in a nursery school and she ran away from there yesterday. They told me not to send her any more as they couldn't be responsible. I can't blame them.

Saturday she ran away from home at 10:00 a.m. and the police didn't bring her home until 10:00 p.m. My husband is away with the Navy and worrying about this child keeps me on edge all the time. Everyone, even the police, says she must have an emotional disturbance. Can you, or anyone who has lived through this problem, help me, Abby?

NAVY WIFE

DEAR WIFE: If your daughter had a toothache, you wouldn't hesitate to take her to a dentist. An "emotional disturbance" usually can be cured and deserves as much attention. Talk this over with your family doctor. Running away is a symptom. I urge you to waste no time.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Why don't we have marriage bureaus. Every city has employment agencies, both public and private, to assist people in finding jobs. But romance is left to sheer chance. If locating mates were done in a businesslike way, there would be fewer bachelors, maiden ladies and other unattached individuals. What do you think?

ORGANIZED

DEAR ORGANIZED: Cupid doesn't carry a compass. If I had to "locate" a man with the assistance of an IBM machine, I'd wonder what was wrong with him.

DEAR ABBY: My husband works for a large concern, and the switchboard girl is my problem. She's divorced, attractive and efficient. But she tells the men the filthiest jokes imaginable. Naturally she doesn't have to twist my husband's arm very hard to get him to listen.

She has the nerve to call my husband up at home in the evenings to tell him a new joke. Once we were in the middle of a bridge game and this trollop called, so he left the table and stood there laughing like a hyena while she told him a story.

At the company party, while I helped serve, she was off in a corner telling some of her jokes to a bunch of howling men.

Several other wives have complained about this. Do you think the opinions of eight wives would be sufficient to impress the personnel manager?

HAD ENOUGH

DEAR HAD: Possibly. Provided the personnel manager wasn't one of the "howling men" she had in a corner.

★ ★ ★

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HOCKTA CHINIK": That's what you have two ears for. Let it go into one, and out the other.

★ ★ ★

"What's your problem?" For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

★ ★ ★

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Every Teen-ager Wants to Know," send 25c and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.

Shoup had served three terms on the Village Council, one as president.

Unopposed for re-election, Clerk Mary Parkinson received 313 votes, Treasurer Geraldine Campbell, 309, and Assessor Geraldine Storey, 292.

★ ★ ★

Almont

About a quarter of the registered voters in Almont went to the polls yesterday to sweep the Village Party candidates into office in the only race for three trustee posts open this year.

The two incumbents, Jay H. LaMar and Don Heim, received 110 and 107 votes respectively. The third Village Party candidate, W. Eugene Lane, polled 106 votes.

There were no contests for the other village posts, the incumbents being returned to office for another year.

Milford Listens to Water Report

Council Orders Test Well After Survey's Recommendation

MILFORD—A 50-page engineering report on the village water distribution system, with recommendations for present and future improvements, was presented to the Council last night for study.

★ ★ ★

At the same time the Council authorized the engineer and author of the report, Robert F. McCauley, to take preliminary steps for drilling a test well.

In the report and survey, made at a cost of $1,000, McCauley, along with associate W. I. Kenerson, recommended that the village drill a 600-gallon-per-minute well on city-owned property.

"This, together with a main of adequate size from the well to the distribution system, is the most pressing need in the village at present," McCauley said in his report.

★ ★ ★

The report also recommends that a booster pump be installed to improve the water pressure condition in the Bonnie Highlands area on Commerce road, northeast of the village.

SURVEY AUTHORIZED

McCauley was authorized by the Council in December to make the survey of the water system after the State Health Department had refused to issue any further permits to extend water mains into new subdivisions until a new well was drilled.

At that time the State Health Department, in a letter to the Council, said that the village water supply last summer reached a "dangerously" low point when a pump on one of the wells was shut off for repairs.

Until a new well was drilled, the health department said it would halt further construction of new subdivisions in the village.

At present, the village is served by two wells, drilled in 1938 and 1939 and located on city-owned property, 201 N. Main.

TO COST $10,500

The McCauley report recommends that the new well be drilled on the same site. He estimated that the new well would cost $10,500.

"Milford is in an enviable position in regard to both the quality and availability of water," McCauley said in the report.

"The village owns the land where a new well can be situated and the iron content is low," McCauley said. He said that the village water iron content is almost nil.

"Since many communities in central and southern Michigan have high iron content in their water, Milford is particularly blessed."

The report strongly recommended that lined cast mains be used in future development, and that unlined cast iron and steel mains be prohibitted.

'CLEAN OUT MAIN'

McCauley's report said that a further investigation should be made to determine the partial blockage of an eight-inch main running north on North Main street to Summit road.

Auburn PO Proposal Protested

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP—The Pontiac Township Board last night went on record as censuring and objecting to any action designed to change the Auburn Heights Post Office to a substation of Pontiac's postal system.

The Board, having learned that the U. S. Post Office Department intends to "discontinue the Auburn Heights Post Office under its present designation," unanimous l y passed a resolution protesting the proposed move.

According to Supervisor Leroy Davis, telegrams and letters to this effect have been sent to U. S. Sen.'s Phillip A. Hart and Patrick V. McNamara, U. S. Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Oakland) and Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield.

Board members say that for approximately 20 years a branch of the U. S. Post Office has existed in Auburn Heights and has grown three-fold due to the increase in population in that area.

★ ★ ★

"All kinds of complaints have been registered about this proposed change," Davis stated. "Citizens feel that by losing the designation of the Auburn Heights Post Office, Auburn Heights (an unincorporated village) loses its identity."

"The post office only has $3,-000 in business volume to go before becoming a first class post office that would furnish house-to-house delivery," other members pointed out.

Also cited as a major factor contributing to the desire of many citizens that the post office remain a branch is the trade it brings into the village.

Voicing sentiments favoring the move to substation status was former township trustee Steve Douglas. He said he would circulate petitions asking the substation in order to assure house-to-house delivery as soon as possible.

★ ★ ★

In other action last night, the Board decided to advertise for bids on both a new pickup and-or panel truck with or without a trade-in.

Action on hiring township engineers was tabled until the next meeting.

Record Ballot Recorded

OK School Tax in Romeo

ROMEO—A record number of 1,175 voters turned out in yesterday's special Romeo Community School district to favor a four-mill operational tax levy for one year by a 100-vote majority.

The total tally was 633 yes to 533 no.

Leaflets explaining the proposition also were distributed house-to-house in the village and mailed to the rural electorate in the district Friday.

The millage hike was defeated in the other two precincts, Washington and Davis, by votes of 107 no to 88 yes and 72 no to 34 yes respectively.

The school district rejected a tax hike for four mills for 10 years for school operation Oct. 3 by a vote of 461 to 380.

According to the Board of Education, the money raised by the present millage increase will be used to pay this year's anticipated deficit of about $40,000 and to give the teachers salary boosts of $200 next year.

Despite the fact that there was no competition for village posts in Romeo's general election yesterday, a total of 471 voters cast their ballots, a record high in recent years.

For the three trustee posts, the top vote-getter was the only incumbent not defeated in the primary, Donald Payne, with 424 votes. Next was Tony Galan with 401 and then Jack McFadden with 388.

The other incumbents, all unchallenged for re-election, were Clerk Sidney J. White, who garnered 429 votes; Treasurer Mrs. Elaine Hosner, 446; Assessor Elgin Anger, 435; and Library Directors Mrs. Helen Stone and H. Dale Palmer, 413 and 388 respectively.

Assessment Refund on Troy Ballot

TROY—The Troy City Commission decided last night to place on the Aug. 2 ballot the charter amendment which would provide for refunding of surplus assessments.

It was first scheduled to be voted on in the April 4 election, but requested rewording was not completed in time, City Clerk J. L. Lockhart said today.

The proposed amendment would allow surplus assessments to be refunded to the property owners of record as of date of refund who were over-assessed.

It also would specify that the basis from the time of the over-refunds be made on a pro rata assessments.

The city engineer was instructed to draw plans and give costs estimates on construction of about a mile-long extension of the Evergreen Disposal System in the northwest section of the city.

A public hearing is set for April 11 on a request to rezone two lots on the corner of Wattles and Dequindre roads from residential to Commercial B3 classification.

The city agreed to construct the road and let bids for laying water mains to the new elementary school to be built between Livernois and Rochester roads, north of Wattles road.

★ ★ ★

The engineer also was instructed to draw plans and estimate cost of construction of sewers on the rear lot line easements in Pine Hills-Meadow Lane subdivision, on the corner of Adams and Wattles roads.

School Tax Hike Loses in Vote

HAZEL PARK — A four-mill school tax increase was defeated 1,715 to 1,079 in a special election here yesterday.

It was a light turnout for the school district which records 10,902 registered voters.

If approved, the increase in funds would have been used to cover operating expenses.

FAA Grounds Pilots at Age 60

Ban Goes Into Effect as Judge Refuses to Grant Injunction

NEW YORK (AP)—Commercial airline pilots 60 years of age or older were grounded today by a Federal Aviation Agency order.

The ban went into effect at midnight after federal Judge Alexander Bicks Monday denied a motion by the Air Line Pilots Assn. seeking a preliminary injunction against the ruling. Forty-seven Attorneys for the pilots argued that the order, issued last December, was arbitrary and unreasonable.

★ ★ ★

In his order, FAA Administrator E. R. Quesda, a retired Air Force general, cited the "progressive deterioration of both physiological and psychological functions which normally occur with age."

He maintained that to allow pilots 60 or over to fly passengers at speeds of 500 miles an hour would be a hazard to safety in air carrier operations.

In denying the injunction, Bicks said "any attempt to weigh the countervailing consideration of dollar loss" to the pilots "against the public safety in air carrier operations borders on vulgarity."

The pilots immediately appealed Bicks' decision. A hearing was set for April 8 before a three-judge appeals court.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) COLONAID moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) COLONAID's unequalled rebulking action helps restone flabby colon muscles. (3) And COLONAID acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And COLONAID won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get COLONAID today! Introductory size 43¢.

Manhattan Borough President Jack Free of Conspiracy Charge

The nation's highest Negro city official announced his return shortly after the two-month-old indictment was thrown out on a technicality Monday.

Charges of conspiracy and violation of the city charter grew out of Jack's acceptance of a $4,400 remodeling job on his Harlem apartment from real estate operator Sidney Ungar. Ungar, Jack's one-time campaign manager, was seeking city approval at the time for a multimillion-dollar slum clearance project.

When he was indicted Jan. 12 Jack voluntarily gave up his job and salary pending a legal decision.

★ ★ ★

General Sessions Judge Gerald P. Culkin ruled that the indictment was not properly drawn. But he said the district attorney could start a new grand jury inquiry into the 52-year-old Jack's conduct.

Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan promptly announced that he would do that if necessary, but would first appeal Culkin's decision to the appellate division of the State Supreme Court.

★ ★ ★

A copy of Culkin's decision is being sent to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who alone has power to remove a borough president office.

U.S. Space Chief Raps Defense Critics

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's space chief Monday hit back at critics who, he said, are trying to make everybody believe "we are so far behind that we may never forge ahead" of Russia.

★ ★ ★

This view was expressed by Dr. T. Keith Glennan, director of the National Aeronautics & Space Administration (NASA) in a statement asking the House Appropriations Committee to approve his agency's $915,000,000 budget for the year starting July 1.

"I do not think they will maintain that superiority for long if we continue to build up our capability."

Gee, Boss, You're Peachy Keen

Spread That Butter Thick

By HAL BOYLE

But it is amazing how few people are really expert at it.

BOYLE

"I need someone around here who can tell me when I am wrong."

★ ★ ★

But he doesn't really mean it. His wife will tell him when he is wrong. So will the chairman of the board.

What he really needs is someone who will build up his confidence by making him feel right—whether what he has done is right or wrong.

LAY IT ON

The mistake most amateurs make is that they butter up the boss on only one side—as if he were a mere piece of breakfast toast. This won't do at all.

If you're going to butter the boss at all, butter him all over.

"But if I lay it on with a trowel," the beginner may object, "he'll know what I am doing."

Of course he will. But a modern boss today has so many people picking on him he has to count on at least one staff man who will admire him utterly, who will anoint him with boss slave endlessly—and put it on in thick, comfortable layers to soothe his ego.

★ ★ ★

Being a really successful yes man is no job for a shirker. It's hard work. The pay is good, but the hours are long.

The main thing to remember: No matter what happens, have a comforting phrase ready to make the boss feel better in every situation.

SUCCESSFUL REMARKS

1. "Golf was made for you, J.B. If it weren't for that pebble in front of your tee, you'd have had a hole in one for sure."

2. "You're absolutely right, J.B. You had to take the bit in your teeth on that one."

3. "I'm not trying to flatter you, chief, but I'll bet there aren't five men in U.S. industry who could have come up with a solution like that."

★ ★ ★

4. "So what if we did drop half a million, J.B.? Even Babe Ruth never knocked them all over the fence."

5. "No, J.B., it's just your imagination. I can't see it's getting any thinner on top."

6. "Some days, J.B., it just doesn't pay to be nice to people. You gave him a $2.50 raise. What did he expect—the U.S. mint?"

7. "That last memo of yours on how the office is wasting too many paper clips was a model of executive tact, chief. It needed to be said, and no one else could have said it as well."

MENTION HIS DRIVE

8. "You never looked better, J.B. You've got twice as much drive as most guys half your age."

9. "I really mean it, J.B. The world wouldn't be the same without you."

10. "I suppose you've been too busy to notice it, J.B. but morale sure has picked up since you made that little pep talk at the annual dinner of the 25-year men."

11. "Have you ever noticed, J.B., that the young fellows coming up don't have the same spark and team loyalty as the old-timers?"

12. "They'll never have to erect a monument to you, J.B. This firm will always be your monument, and you built it all by yourself."

Breathes there a boss with ego so dead he will fail to appreciate such a wonderful one-man cheering squad? No indeed.

You'll Get to Know the Avocado Better

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department classifies the avocado as a "different" fruit "since many people are not familiar with it." The classification was made for that reason despite the fact the avocado is centuries old.

★ ★ ★

In 1929, only 820 tons of avocados were produced in the United States. Nine years later production jumped to 17,000 tons. In 1957, production was 61,100 tons. Based on the December 1959 estimate, it appears that the crop now being harvested will set a record of 73,300 tons.

The department said that in view of the steady uptrend in production "more and more people will come to know the avocada"—especially in their salads.

Actors Strike Break Looms

Stars Might Resume Work Now in Return for Liberal Contract

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hopes for an early settlement of the strike of 3,000 Hollywood actors rose today as negotiators for the Screen Actors Guild considered a back-to-work plan.

Guild officials said they will decide by Thursday if actors will be allowed to go back to work on eight films which were in progress when the walkout halted shooting.

Mediators hoped that if the guild agrees to resume work the Assn. of Motion Picture Producers will match it with a concession opening the door to an early settlement of the dispute, which began March 7.

The SAG is seeking a pension and welfare plan, and wants the studios to use funds from the sale to TV of post-1948 films to augment the pension program. The producers have opposed the principle of any payments based on sales to TV.

Says Racketeer Backs Kennedy

Senator's Headquarters Calls Published Charge Pure Desperation

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Republican campaign publication says a man named in Senate rackets committee testimony in connection with an Indiana pinball operation is now supporting Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) for president.

Kennedy's campaign headquarters said the move indicated "pure desperation" on the part of the Republicans, and said Kennedy doesn't know the man.

The publication, Battle Line, named the man as Jack Slaboski, East Chicago, Ind., and identified him as a justice of the peace and former town councilman.

It sought to link Slaboski with Kennedy's campaign by publishing a group picture including Kennedy, Slaboski and six other men taken, it said, at a Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner in Lake County, Ind., early this month.

★ ★ ★

Richard G. Sinclair, a rackets committee investigator, testified last June 9 that a justice of the peace named Slaboski was a silent partner in pinball operations run by Ted Peters of East Chicago.

Peters, pleading the Fifth Amendment, said it might incriminate him to answer any questions about his relations with Slaboski.

Relating this testimony, Battle Line said also that Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) ordered Slaboski subpoenaed after committee counsel Robert F. Kennedy, a brother of the senator, said Slaboski had failed to show up voluntarily. Slaboski did not appear as a witness.

★ ★ ★

"Some men who defied the McClellan committee have been indicted for contempt, with Bobby Kennedy pressing prosecution," Battle Line said. "But they apparently were not backers of the senator's candidacy, like Mr. Slaboski."

Predicts Sales Mark for Metals Concern

NEW YORK (AP) — H. Y. Bassett, president of Calumet & Hecla Inc., said today the company and its operating subsidiaries are expected to reach the 100-million-dollar sales mark this year.

Subsidiaries include the newly acquired Flexonics Inc.

In a speech prepared for the New York Society of Security Analysts, Bassett disclosed that the company's Wolverine Tube Division is making plans for an exotic metal production facility and a semiworks production unit for strip tubing.

The division plans to establish these two facilities in the Flexonics plant at Inkster which is not presently in use. It is 10 miles from Allen Park, where Wolverine has its new products division.

Bassett said all of Flexonics' facilities will be centralized in a new plant which will be built this year near Chicago.

To Drill 4th Well in Waterford

Board OKs Payment for Project in Area of Huron Gardens

The Waterford Township Board last night authorized payment of an additional $3,716 to township engineers Johnson & Anderson to drill a fourth well in the Huron Gardens area.

The firm has been paid $5,717 for construction of three test wells on several township owned lots in the Sunny Slope subdivision. It has been successful in pumping 220 gallons a minute from only one of the wells.

According to township Clerk James Seeterlin, all test wells will eventually be used as production wells when one large vein of water has been reached. Four separate pumps will also be installed on each test well.

In other business, seven bids for comprehensive liability insurance for township employees were submitted. The bids averaged in the $1,300 bracket for a one-year period. The lowest bid, submitted by the Wilkinson Insurance Co. was $1,003. All were tabled for the Board's consideration.

A public hearing for blacktopping one block of LaSalle street, resulted in no objections from residents living on the street. However, the Board did not establish a special assessment district, pending a correct legal resolution on the project, to be submitted next week.

The Board authorized Seeterlin to purchase a ½ ton Ford pickup truck for the water department from low bidder, the Beattie Motor Sales ($1,527); and a new Plymouth pursuit police car from the Clarkston Motor Sales ($2,029).

A request from the fire department to purchase two pieces of equipment for boosting water pressure at the scene of fires was tabled for consideration. The equipment would cost $222.

Soviet War Hero Dies; Was Armored Chief

MOSCOW (AP) — The death of Marshal Semyon Ilyich Bogdanov, 65, World War II hero and commander of Soviet armored forces from 1948 to 1955, was announced today.

The obituary, published in Moscow newspapers, was signed by Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Soviet military leaders. It said Bogdanov died unexpectedly Saturday but gave no details.

Hesitant Mart Up Irregularly

NEW YORK (AP) — Steels and electronics made progress as the stock market continued an irregular improvement in moderate trading early today.

Gains of fractions to about a point outnumbered losers among key stocks.

U.S. Steel, Republic Steel, Wheeling and Jones & Laughlin rose around a point each following talk of the likelihood of a price increase for steel. Trading in this group was quite active.

Progress in the rest of the market was spotty and the general slackness of trading reflected a continuation of the "watchful waiting" mood the market seemed to adopt yesterday as it nudged ahead on the smallest volume in a month.

American Telephone, Standard Oil (New Jersey), Anaconda, Kennecott, American Tobacco and American Motors were among stocks which showed little or no change.

Benguet was off ¼ at 1¼ on a block of 20,000 shares. Opening blocks included: Pittston Co., off ⅝ at 61¼ on 8,600 shares; Crowell-Collier up ¼ at 19⅝ on 3,000; and Brunswick-Balke up ⅝ at 54 on 4,300.

Civil Service Ideas Presented

Top Firefighter Tells Waterford Board About Retirement Plans

Simon Chappell, president of the Michigan State Firefighters Association, was present at last night's Waterford Township Board meeting to explain the merits of having civil service for township fire and policemen.

The Board had received a request from the township firemen to place the issue on the Aug. 2 primary.

"At the present time, there is no compensation of any kind for retirement of either the township's firemen or policemen. They contend that their organizations are required to stay nonpolitical and that with a change in administration there is no assurance of retaining their jobs.

Chappell told the Board that the establishment of a three-member commission "would give a man on the job a chance to appeal an unfair decision." This would cover all paid men including the fire chief.

Following a long question and answer period, Chappell told the Board he would present copies of operations of civil service now being used in nearby communities at next week's meeting.

February's totals were about $3,300,000 over the same period in 1959. A slight drop from January was attributed to the fewer number of days in February.

Moon Flatter Than Believed

Scientists Don't Expect Jagged Mountains or Deep Craters

BEDFORD, Mass. (AP)—Spacemen landing on the moon won't find a land weirdly scarred with jagged mountains and deep craters; it will be less rugged than previously thought, and flatter, scientists reported today.

★ ★ ★

These conclusions, disclosed by the Cambridge research center of the Air Research and Development Command, are based on a new technical study of the moon's surface in which British, French and American scientists are taking part.

The conclusions are based upon measurements of shadows of lunar prominences as the shadows creep forward, or recede, across the moon's surface.

Knowing the relative positions of earth, moon and sun, it is then possible to compute heights of prominences rising above the surrounding lunar terrain and determine the profile of the surrounding surface.

This is described as the first mapping of the face of the moon to show how it will appear to a traveler on its surface.

The Air Force scientists say the study shows there is an apparent lack of steep slopes or towering rock faces. In fact, the absence of pronounced landmarks may give the moon traveler difficulty in identifying his position.

Unionists Fight Red Conviction

Mine, Mill to Appeal the Sentencing of 9 Officials and Ex-Officers

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—The sentencing Monday of nine present and former officials of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers on Communist charges will be appealed, union officials said.

★ ★ ★

The nine were convicted in U.S. District Court last Dec. 17 of conspiring to defraud the federal government by swearing they were not members of the Communist party. Their oaths were in non-Communist affidavits filed with the National Labor Relations Board.

PROVISION REPEALED

The affidavits entitled the union, ousted from the CIO in 1950 on charges it was Communist-dominated, to use the services of the NLRB. The Taft-Hartley Act formerly required all union officers using services of the NLRB to swear they were not Communists. This provision was repealed last September by the Landrum-Griffin Act.

★ ★ ★

Dist. Judge Alfred A. Arraj sentenced the men Monday after denying motions for dismissal and for a new trial. Telford Taylor, union attorney, said the verdict and sentences will be appealed to the U. S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals.

Seven defendants were sentenced to three years imprisonment and fined $2,000 each. Two received terms of 18 months in jail and $1,500 fines each.
