

Thursday, January 18, 2001

Students learn to create online portfolios

Students will learn how to create their own online portfolio during a workshop at the Oakland University Career Prep Week, hosted by the Placement and Career Services Department.

The workshop will be held on Monday, January 22, from 5-6 p.m. in Room 127 in the Oakland Center on the university's campus.

"This workshop is geared toward students who have their resume online and would like to include work samples for potential employers to view," said Vicki McNiff, assistant director of Career Development.

The portfolio workshop is part of Career and Placement Services Career Prep Week, which runs January 22 through 16. For more information, call (248) 370-3250.

Oakland University is a comprehensive state-supported institution of higher education located in Oakland County, Michigan. The university has 110 bachelor's degree programs and 63 graduate degree and certificate programs. Dedicated to preparing learners for the 21st century workplace and society, Oakland University is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences and the Schools of Business Administration, Education and Human Services, Engineering and Computer Science, Health Sciences, Nursing; and the Honors College.

SUMMARY

Students will learn how to create their own online portfolio during a workshop at the Oakland University Career Prep Week, hosted by the Placement and Career Services Department.

Created by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, January 18, 2001

Modified by CareTech Administrator (webservices@caretechsolutions.com) on Thursday, January 18, 2001

Article Start Date: Tuesday, November 25, 2003