and Space Administration. The latest 14 brings the American group to 30. The new astronauts are highly trained in scientific fields.

14 Astronauts Named

From Our News Wires
HOUSTON, Tex.—The nation has 14 new astronauts and their collegiate training broadens the capabilities of the U.S. space team.

College degrees practically broke even with advanced pilot training yesterday as the Manned Spacecraft Center boosted its moon shot manpower pool to 30 astronauts.

The 14 of them were jittery and not a little shaken yesterday as they sat behind a long table on a stage in their first public appearance as spacemen. But that was the easy part, listening as their names were read into history books.

Fame was theirs for simply having been picked as the cream of hundreds who went after the space jobs that came open last summer.

SHARE FORTUNE

Fortune? It came automatically. Mercury astronaut Donald K. (Deke) Slayton, whom they will come to know as almost a father, told them they will share in the more than $1 million that a private publications firm is paying for private stories of the astronauts.

And the dreams of challenge and adventure reflected from their youthful faces, dripped from their spirited words.

All 16 of the astronauts selected in 1959 and 1962 are experienced test pilots but only eight of the new 14 hold test pilot certificates.

The other six new trainees are experienced jet pilots who are specialists in such areas as physics, radiation effects, reliability engineering and stratospheric radiation. One of them is the program's first doctor of science.

COOPERATE IN SELECTION
The National Academy of Science and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration are cooperating in establishing criteria for astronaut selection.

Various scientific groups have encouraged NASA to permit a geologist or similar scientist to participate in the moon shots that are a U.S. objective by 1970.

"The new astronauts will be integrated into the rest of the group," said Maj. Slayton, the coordinator of astronaut affairs. "I wouldn't expect any of them to fly the first Gemini mission but they will be on other Gemini flights."

Warm Weather Will Continue

Summary weather will continue despite today's showers, says the weatherman. Mercuries will climb to a high of 75 tomorrow, following a dip to a low of 58 tonight. Partly cloudy skies are forecast.

Slightly cooler temperatures with mostly fair weather is expected Monday.

Winds today are south-southwest at 10 to 20 miles per hour.

The lowest temperature in downtown Pontiac prior to 8 a.m. was 63. At 2 p.m. the thermometer read 64.

group is only 30, compared to 32.5 for the 1962 group and 34.5 for his Mercury group.

Mom Cites Spaceman and Wife

DETROIT (U.)—The wife of a newly named astronaut shares her mother-in-law's praise for his success.

Mrs. Belle Bassett of Royal Oak, widow of mother of Air Force Capt. Charles A. Bassett III, 31, made sure of this. Commenting yesterday on her son's selection as one of the 14 new astronauts who might get to the moon, Mrs. Bassett spoke warmly both of the captain and his wife, Jean.

"Jean deserves tremendous credit," Mrs. Bassett said. "His accomplishment requires a lot of studying which can be demanding on family life."

HAVE CHILDREN

The younger Bassetts have two children, Karen, 5, and Peter, 2. Charles and Jean were childhood friends. Jean formerly lived in North Hollywood, Calif. A sister of Mrs. Bassett was a neighbor and the Bassetts often visited there.

Three other new astronauts have Michigan backgrounds. They are Air Force Capt. Theodore C. Freeman, 33, Delaware native, and David R. Scott, 38, a Californian, both of whom attended the University of Michigan, and Navy Lt. Roger B. Chaffee, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Chaffee of Grand Rapids.

The elder Chaffees were "very happy and very proud."

The father, a real estate broker, said "We knew all along that Roger would be an astronaut."

Olympics in Detroit 'Never Had Chance'

FROM OUR NEWS Wires
BADEN-BADEN, Germany — Delegates to the 60th session of the International Olympic Congress (IOC) agreed today that Mexico City had the 1968 Olympic Games sewn up "almost from the start" and that Detroit virtually never had a chance.

A "post-game" analysis of the massive vote that gave Mexico City Latin America's first Olympiad indicated that voters had made up their minds to "spread the Olympics around."

Mexico City got 30 of the 58 votes cast, Detroit 14, Lyon, France, 12, and Buenos Aires 2.

A high-ranking IOC official said, "There was a strong desire to spread the games around. Most of the delegates felt the Olympics should go to Latin America as they've never had them before and it was just a question as to whether Mexico City or Buenos Aires got them."

Mexico had the facilities, was more easily accessible and was an attractive bet all around. Despite Detroit's loss of the games, the big multimillion dollar State Fair Grounds development program will go ahead.

Construction of the stadium, along with other Olympic facilities, was a tentative part of the fairgrounds' master plan.

PLAN INTACT

Toby S. David, authority chairman, said the development plan will "remain intact." The plan contemplates vast remodeling and new construction.

A warm welcome was planned for the Michigan group's return home today.

The Adcraft Club arranged a Metropolitan Airport ceremony for the group, which includes Gov. George Romney and Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh at 1:30 p.m.

Cars Kill 4 Area Youths

Four Oakland County boys were killed last night in three separate auto accidents. All were pedestrians at the time of the accidents.

Dead are David Levering, 15, of 177 S. Jessie; Thomas Lipford, 18, 436 S. Broadway, Lake Orion; Ronald J. Church, 18, 21634 Albion, Farmington; and Carl B. Neely, 17, 43831 Grand River, Novi.

Levering was struck down as he attempted to cross Auburn west of Sanford. The driver of the car, Danny L. Farnsworth, 17, of 12 Gingell Court, told police he saw Levering standing in the center lane.

Farnsworth said he swerved but could not stop because of bad brakes, according to police. Officers said a manslaughter warrant will be sought today.

Levering was a Pontiac Press newswoman on his way to a carrier party sponsored by the Pontiac Boys Club.

Gambling Hit; 23 Men Guilty

Two Pontiac Houses Surprised by Police

Twenty-three men arrested by Pontiac police early this morning in raids on two gambling establishments pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court.

Four men charged with operating the games paid fines of $100 each.

Fines of $25 each were levied against men charged as helpers by Judge Maurice E. Finigan.

Fifteen persons were taken into custody at a home at 74 Baldwin at 3:30 a.m. and eight at the other address, a vacant store building, at 3:50 a.m.

Acting Police Chief William Hanger, Lt. Fred Goines, head of the vice squad, and Sgt. Robert C. Gaines, led seven other policemen in the raids.

Goines said that both places had been under investigation for about three months.

It was the second time this year that 74 Baldwin has been raided. Other raids have occurred there in the last few years, Goines said.

Drought Gets Worse Across State, Nation

FROM OUR NEWS Wires
A severe, multimillion dollar drought stretching from Maine to Texas worsened today with little hope for immediate relief.

Michigan's forest-fire fighters remained on call this weekend as the state faces continued hot weather and only scattered showers.

Most fire equipment in the Lower Peninsula is either in use or ready for action, said the State Conservation Department Fire Chief, Milton Bergman.

The growing concern over drought conditions in the state has prompted officials in at least three areas to ban hunting and State Conservation Department officials immediately challenged their right to do so.

Pavilion Township in Kalamazoo County issued the order yesterday. It was quickly followed by similar bans in Jackson County and in Wayne County's Sumpter Township.

The bans were imposed to restrict the fire hazard in the timber-dry southern portion of Michigan. The small game hunting season is due to open Monday and the Conservation Department has indicated it will begin on schedule despite Gov. George Romney's ban on campfires and smoking in the woods.

The State Conservation Department stationed two men at the scene to patrol against a further outbreak.

Flaming grass and trees were burned off a 100-acre area 10 miles northwest of Lapeer early yesterday. Farmers and firemen from Lapeer and Columbiaville brought the blaze under control.

The State Conservation Department stationed two men at the scene to patrol against a further outbreak.

Arrested 3
Sheriff's deputies arrested Edward Yarbrough, 17, of Pontiac Township, and two juvenile boys for allegedly setting a fire on North Lake Avenue road.

Yarbrough was apprehended after a mile chase. He denied setting the fire.

Arraigned before Pontiac Township Justice Robert Hodge, he pleaded not guilty to a charge of kindling a fire dangerously near to forest and/or grassland and leaving it unquenched.

He was released on $50 bond. Trial was set for Nov. 8.

Says Soviets Still Pursue Same Goals

15,000 Hear Speech on Foreign Policy at University of Maine

ORONO, Maine (AP) — President Kennedy said today "We still live in the shadow of war" despite new East-West agreements which he said offer opportunities which we cannot afford to miss.

Forecasting "further crises, large and small," Kennedy said the recent accords cannot be interpreted "as meaning that the Soviets are abandoning their basic aims and ambitions."

But he said the quest for peace must continue, with the United States doing everything reasonable to improve relations with the Soviet bloc.

An estimated 15,000 people jammed the University of Maine stadium as Kennedy delivered this major foreign policy pronouncement.

He said Americans should be satisfied in mind and heart that they are doing everything possible to avoid the terrors of nuclear war.

SPOKE TO BOTH

In a sense, Kennedy seemed to address himself both to leaders of the Soviet bloc and to American voters exposed to the foreign policy views of Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Aides Calm on Gromyko's Glum Words

MOSCOW — Western Diplomats in Moscow took a calm view today of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's grumpy comment about the big three talks on easing international tensions.

The prevailing reaction among veteran envoys here was mild surprise, mixed with skepticism about speculation that Gromyko's isolated remarks yesterday signaled a hardening of Moscow's foreign policy line.

"The Soviets do not announce changes in policy through remarks made by Gromyko on a misty airport in Scotland," one diplomat said. "It just isn't done that way."

Gromyko told airport newsmen at Prestwick, Scotland, on a flight home from New York: "To be frank, the state of affairs in our discussions is bad. We are making no progress whatever."

Gromyko said Western negotiators were dragging their feet on disarmament and underestimating the importance of the West Berlin issue.

Home Tells British 'Expect No Stunts'

LONDON (UPI)—Lord Home formally was appointed prime minister by Queen Elizabeth today, and a few hours later told the nation that it could expect only plain talk and action from his government.

In a brief, pre-recorded appearance on British television screens, Home said this evening:

"As you already know, I have today been appointed prime minister by the Queen and these are one or two things I would like to say to you at once."

"First, that my task is to serve the whole nation. Secondly, that no one need expect any stunts from me, merely plain, straight talking."

SHARE GOVERNMENT

"And then again, one of the difficulties of our modern times—when events move so fast and all the affairs of government are so complex—is that Whitehall may seem very remote from your homes. Well, I want to share all the government's thinking with you and want you to understand that the government is doing and why."

He concluded by paying tribute to his predecessor as prime minister, the ailing Harold Macmillan.

In the face of criticism from some portions of the press, his own party and the opposition, Home formed his government but decided not to disclose its makeup at least until tomorrow.

The 60-year-old Scottish peer reported he had succeeded in forming a government after meetings at No. 10 Downing St. with two of the men who had opposed his rise to Britain's highest political office—Deputy Prime Minister Richard A. Butler and Reginald Maudling, chancellor of the exchequer.

Home, the foreign secretary in the outgoing government of Harold Macmillan, declined to say whether Butler and Maudling had agreed to serve with him. But informants said well as Lord Hailsham, who stay on in their old posts.

The informants said Home would give up his title and go to Commons as Sir Alexander (or Alec) Douglas-Home. He retains the title "sir" because he is a knight of the Scottish order of the Thistle and will not let that rank down along with his earldom. He is an English of Scotland as well as English Baron Douglas.

Home's next step is to win a seat in the House of Commons through a special election as soon as possible. He would be assured of victory.

WIDE EXPERIENCE—Britain's new prime minister, Lord Home, has had dealings with many top officials in his capacity as foreign secretary. He conferred with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow (top), with U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk in Washington (middle) and with Japanese Prime Minister Hayato Ikeda in Tokyo.

45 Injured in Wreck of 2 Trains

WILLOW SPRINGS, Ill. (UPI)—The westbound Santa Fe freight train, carrying 40 passenger cars, derailed today, injuring at least 45 persons, police said.

Ten of the injured were reported in serious condition.

Art Schlaman of Willow Springs was one of the first on the scene. He said more than 20 ambulances arrived and 20 more pieces of emergency equipment including rescue units and fire equipment.

He estimated up to 50 persons injured, but said he saw no dead persons.

Five diesel units of the Los Angeles-bound streamliner overturned after leaving the track, police said. Five baggage cars and two Pullmans also left the track but remained upright.

Christ Community Hospital, Oak Lawn, Ill., reported it had "about 12" injured, none seriously hurt.

Little Company of Mary Hospital, Evergreen Park, Ill., said it had 14 of the injured, none badly hurt.

La Grange Community Hospital reported it was treating a dozen of the injured.

TROUBLE AT SITE

Rescue vehicles were having trouble reaching the site in a wooded area along the Des Plaines River, about four blocks from the nearest street. Witnesses said the freight train was leaving a siding and the speeding passenger train hit it. The railroad is double tracked at that point.

Guard Placed in Library to Check Teens

Pontiac police have been assigned to guard Pontiac's main public library against some of the people to whom it was dedicated just 2 1/2 years ago.

John F. Reineck, assistant city manager, announced late yesterday he had asked for police to be stationed in the library to curb vandalism.

"We'll have a man in there every evening from 6 p.m. to closing time," Reineck said.

"Occurrence of teenage vandalism has increased in the library during evening hours in recent weeks. Property has been defaced, and some furniture and fixtures have been broken," Reineck said.

"Appeals to the youths have failed to stop the destruction." City officials also mentioned some "rough conduct" and "scuffles between youths" in the library recently.

The library, at 60 E. Pike, opened late in 1960 and was dedicated in June 1961.

Woman Faces Attack Charge

Housewife Assaulted With Knife, Hammer

A 35-year-old divorcee was arraigned yesterday before Bloomfield Township Judge Alice Gilbert and pleaded not guilty to a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Mrs. Barbara Palposi, 35, of 2005 Crooks, Royal Oak, allegedly attacked a Bloomfield Township woman with a knife and hammer sometime yesterday morning.

Mrs. Palposi denied the charge. Bond was set at $15,000 and was not furnished.

According to police, the Royal Oak woman walked outside the home of Mrs. Edgar (Emily) Patrick, of 506 Tibbony, Bloomfield Township, until Patrick left for work about 6:30 a.m.

Mrs. Palposi, police said, entered the house carrying a hammer, and picked up a knife from a kitchen rack.

Mrs. Patrick was still in bed, but awoke when Mrs. Palposi began striking her with the hammer, police said. In the scuffle, Mrs. Patrick apparently tried to grab the knife, because both hands were severely cut.

STARBED IN BACK

Mrs. Patrick finally broke away and ran for the bathroom. She was stabbed in the back in the attempt.

Her attacker left the house. Police arrested Mrs. Palposi about noon.

At her arraignment, Mrs. Palposi demanded examination. It was set for next Friday. Mrs. Patrick was reported in fair condition in Woman's Hospital, Detroit.

Events Planned for Halloween Fun

BIRMINGHAM—Chamber of Commerce members are making plans for their annual program which keeps young goblins not only occupied but happily so on Halloween.

On the agenda are a costume parade and refreshments for the youngsters.

Three dances are planned for teen-agers, at Seaholm High School and Derby and Barnum junior high schools.

The parade will be organized at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 31 in parking lot No. 5, on Woodward north of Willets.

Between 4,000-5,000 children in scary and or funny costumes will wind through the downtown area accompanied by the high school bands. They will march according to their schools.

They will then return to parking lot No. 5 for hot dogs, doughnuts and cider. About 100 prizes will be awarded to the youngsters.

This is the 27th year the chamber has sponsored the program which annually keeps about 7,500 children and teen-agers entertained.

The chamber estimates its cost at $2,000 or 27 cents per child. But chamber members feel the cost is small for the benefits derived.

"It works too," commented Charles Mortensen, chamber manager.

Traffic Plan for Pontiac Unveiled

A seven-point plan to improve Pontiac's traffic safety record was urged yesterday following a review of the city's 1962 annual traffic inventory report.

Norman Olman, a National Safety Council regional representative commended some of the city's efforts last year, but said Pontiac probably ranks below comparable communities.

He told some 25 persons attending a special meeting of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce safety committee at Walden Hotel that three improvements could be made in police department activities.

These involve schooling for police, supervisory officers at a recognized traffic school, such as one operated at Northwestern University; more traffic training of uniformed division members, and increased enforcement to curb moving violators.

FEW CONVICTIONS

Olman also pointed out there appears to be a low conviction level in Municipal Court, particularly of persons charged with drunk driving. (The court, as in the past few years, did not submit statistics on its activities to be included in the report.)

Other areas in need of improvement, Olman claimed, are public school record-keeping of students involved in accidents, and the development of citizen support of traffic safety.

He said a key asset would be an established coordinating committee with members from the several city departments involved in traffic safety.

Fighting Fierce in Sahara War

ALGIERS (UPI)—The Algerian Defense Ministry said fierce fighting was underway today with Moroccan troops in disputed border area and ordered heavy troop reinforcements to the south Sahara and Tinnjoub, 250 miles southwest of Colomb Bechar, the center of the new clashes that erupted last Monday over the two nation's border quarrel.

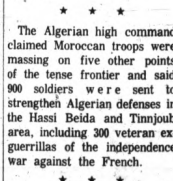

The Algerian high command claimed Moroccan troops were massing on five other points of the tense frontier and said 900 soldiers were sent to strengthen Algerian defenses in the Hassi Beida and Tinnjoub area, including 300 veteran ex-guerrillas of the independence war against the French.

Until Friday, the conflict was confined to a remote strip of the Sahara centered 900 miles southwest of Algiers, where the frontier has long been in dispute.

The fighting now seemed to be spreading northward even to regions where the line is clearly marked and has never been challenged by either side.

Soviets Balk at Wheat Hauling Cost

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The multimillion-dollar deal to sell American wheat to the Soviet Union may have struck a snag — the high cost of shipping the grain via U.S. vessels.

When President Kennedy approved the transaction Oct.

9 he said the surplus grain would be carried "in available American ships supplemented by ships of other countries as required."

The Commerce Department announced yesterday that this requirement would be a condition in the granting of export licenses to private U.S. traders, who will handle the deal with Russia and the Eastern European satellites.

The department also said that it would "establish guidelines for fair and reasonable rates" for the movement of the wheat to the Communist block in U.S. ships.

U.S. shipping rates are generally higher than those of foreign shippers, principally because of labor costs and other factors.

The Commerce Department said the Maritime Administration would establish the "guidelines" and they would be based on "Maritime experience in fixing such rates for the guidance of government agencies in moving government-sponsored cargoes."

THEY DIDN'T SAY
The department did not say whether this meant export licenses would be refused because of high shipping costs.

There were reports that preliminary negotiations for one of the deals allied to the huge Soviet-American transaction — a wheat sale to Hungary — had fallen through because of the high U.S. shipping rates.

These reports could not be confirmed immediately, but in a related development it was learned that a Soviet wheat-buying delegation, due to arrive here this week, had been delayed by the "illness" of its chairman.

A Soviet spokesman here said the delay might be a week or 10 days.

Administration officials were willing to accept the "illness" of the Soviet wheat team leader at face value. But there was some speculation that the Kremlin might be having second thoughts about the wheat deal, possibly because of the high cost of shipment in U.S. vessels.

U.S. Issues 2nd Denial to Charge of Aiding King

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — The long-range sparring between Washington and Gov. George Wallace continued yesterday with a 500-word Justice Department statement denying that it provided transportation for the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Wallace issued the charge Wednesday and said he had witnesses to prove that the integration leader traveled from Birmingham to Selma in a car rented by Justice Department official Kenneth McIntyre. King addressed a Negro mass rally in Selma Tuesday night.

"The reports that automobiles rented by the Department of Justice were used to furnish transportation for... King in Alabama are either a gross mistake or a deliberate attempt to mislead the people of Alabama," a department spokesman said in Washington's second denial of Wallace's charge.

While the governor and the Justice Department continued their controversy over a car, Birmingham's city-sponsored biracial committee held its third weekly meeting and a spokesman described it as "another rocking chair session."

STUDY ANGLES
The chairman, Bishop C. C. J. Carpenter, said the group took no official action "but we got many matters on the table." He said two subcommittees were appointed to "study certain angles of the work."

The committee last week adopted a resolution urging Mayor Albert Boutwell to promptly announce that the city would hire Negro policemen, an action which King and the Rev. F. L. Shuttlesworth said would restart the mass street demonstrations.

The mayor has taken no action on the resolution. Negroes have given him until Tuesday.

The latest Justice Department statement was issued by telephone from Washington to news media in Alabama. A department spokesman said it was intended to set "forth all the facts so that there can be no misunderstanding."

He said that Thelton Henderson, a Justice Department attorney, gave King a ride from the Gaston Motel in Birmingham to the New Pilgrim Church, a distance of a few blocks, so that he could interview the integration leader but that King rode nowhere else in a department automobile.

The department spokesman said that McIntyre spent the night at Craig Air Force Base in Selma and that neither he nor the car left the base during the night.

Newsboys Earn Praise for a Job Well Done

Today we salute all newsboys... past and present.

More than 11,000 daily and weekly newspapers coast to coast are honoring the American newspaperboy for his enterprise, energy and ambition.

We join others today in paying tribute to the 1,001 Pontiac Press carrier boys. It has been their work and diligence throughout the year that has completed our job by delivering the paper to your doorstep.

More than 700,000 young men, in nearly every community in the U.S., daily deliver almost 60 million newspapers. National Newspaper Boy Day is fittingly chosen as the final day of National Newspaper Week since the boys are the final link between the news and the people who read it.

Many presidents, civic leaders, industrialists and statesmen have found their first experience in free enterprise, and in dealing with people, on newspaper routes. This is true in the Pontiac area as well as across the Country.

We invite you to join with us in this annual tribute to your newspaper boy. He's one of the most enterprising boys in your neighborhood.

State Unemployment At Encouraging Level

Further evidence that Michigan has indeed turned the economic corner is shown by the latest unemployment figures released by the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Only 3.9 per cent of the State's labor force was unemployed as of Sept. 15, the best monthly rate since January 1956. It compares with the national unemployment rate of 5.6 per cent, which rose one-tenth per cent over the month previous.

The MESC's announcement pointed out that only 113,000 workers were jobless in the State, while 2.7 million are employed.

Significantly, Michigan's drop in unemployment, accounted for in large part by the surge of employment related to booming auto sales, is half the rate of idleness shown in the month earlier report.

Current automobile manufacturing employment hit 341,000 last month, up 9,000 from a year ago. Total factory employment, including automotive, reached 976,000, up 15,000 from 1962.

Those Jeremiahs who not long ago were observing a wake over the passing of Michigan as a prosperous and viable commonwealth may stanch their flow of tears. The corpse has arisen and sped off.

Hunters - Respect Property of Others

A seasonal word to hunters is in order on their responsibility toward the property of others on which they are permitted to hunt.

Although abuses of such privilege are certainly the exception and not the rule, disregard of owners' rights and carelessness in handling of firearms each year give rise to complaints from land owners.

A common source of irritation for proprietors are hunters who trespass on land in violation of "No Hunting" signs and in some instances even destroy the signs.

Another is the liberty sometimes taken with fruit and nut trees bordering highways adjacent to hunting grounds. It should be realized that ownership of rural lands extends to the middle of such roads and that the trees growing there are as much private property as though fence-enclosed.

Since comparatively few hunting preserves are privately owned, access by sportsmen to Michigan's unsurpassed game stocks is mainly dependent on the goodwill and tolerance of individual property owners. Hunters would do well to recognize the obligation implicit in the hunting privilege.

Wilson's Home Made Museum

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Beginning Monday, there'll be another shrine for Washington tourists: Woodrow Wilson's last home.

It's a handsome red brick house of Georgian design at 2440 S. Street in northwest Washington. There the World War I President lived from March 4, 1921 when he left the White House until he died Feb. 3, 1924. It is a memorial to a marriage as well as to a statesman.

Among the relics the visitors will see is the high-backed, leather-covered chair used by Wilson at White House Cabinet meetings. On the back is a card in Wilson's handwriting which reads:

"Presented to my dear wife whose inspiration meant so much while I occupied this chair, Woodrow Wilson."

She was Edith Bolling Galt Wilson, whose will on her death in 1961 gave the house to the National Trust for Historic Preservation to be a memorial in honor of her husband. The National Trust has now prepared it for the public.

Wilson bought the house sight unseen in 1920 as he was preparing to turn the White House over to Warren G. Harding. He knew Mrs. Wilson wanted it; she had found it while house-hunting. "The one house I felt would qualify in every particular," Mrs. Wilson wrote in her memoirs 15 years later.

"Bless his dear heart: I was overcome." She also told how, the first day they visited the house together, the President had a Secret Service man scoop up a small piece of sod "which, with a key to one of the doors, my husband presented to me — the sod representing the land, and the key the house."

It was an old Scotch custom, that the Scotch-descended Wilson remembered.

Mrs. Wilson, whom the President married in 1915 after the death of his first wife, described in her memoirs the suffering that Wilson went through after his paralytic stroke in 1919.

She stood guard at the White House between him and all the troubles she could, and some politicians jealously accused her of interfering in matters of state.

By her own account: "I studied every paper, sent from the different secretaries or senators, and tried to digest and present in tabloid form the things that, despite my vigilance, had to go to the President."

NEVER DECIDED

"I, myself, never made a single decision regarding the disposition of public affairs. The only decision that was mine was what was important and what was not, and the very important decision of when to present matters to my husband."

In the pleasant house on S Street there were no great matters of national urgency, but Mrs. Wilson maintained to the end a close watch over her beloved invalid.

One of the memories she treasured over the years was of their arrival in S Street just after Harding had been inaugurated, and the Wilson's days of glory were over.

A crowd of 20,000 people filled the street in front of their service home, full of affection and warmly cheering.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

The Power of Faith is expressed by many peoples in many ways, from the tops of mountains to the bottom of the sea.

At the bottom of the small bay off St. Fruttuoso de Camaghi, near Genoa, Italy, is a statue known as the "Christ of the Abysses." It was bought with donations from faithful seamen and water sportsmen around the world.

The eight-foot statue was dedicated and lowered into 52 feet of water, 500 yards from shore, in 1954. It serves as a memorial to sailors and all others who have perished in the oceans of the world. Part of the bronze in the statue came from propellers of sunken ships that were reclaimed from the sea.

The "Christ of the Abysses" also serves as a symbol of His protection: "Then He arose and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was great calm." Matthew 8:26.

Days of All Faiths:

Feast Commemorates Raphael

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Oct. 24 commemorates St. Raphael the Archangel. It is one of the newest of Christian festivals, having come into general observance only in 1922.

Raphael, whose name means "God has healed," is one of three archangels venerated by name in the Christian Church. The other two are Michael (Sept. 29) and Gabriel (Feb. 26).

The whole matter of archangels is a little confusing. There are said to be seven, but the part of the Bible accepted by the Protestants names only Michael and Gabriel, and the "apocryphal" books, recognized by Roman Catholics and Episcopalians, give the names of only two more: Raphael and Uriel.

However, it is definitely stated in Tobias xlii:15 that Raphael is one of seven who present the prayers of the saints. Lucifer is also named, in Isaiah xlvii:12, but he is a fallen archangel and certainly could not be one of the seven.

All we know about Raphael we get from this apocryphal book of Tobias, which tells of the archangel's healing of a blind man and of his guidance of a young man during a difficult journey. There is, also, though, a tradition that it was Raphael who at intervals stirred the healing waters of the pool of Bethesda. See St. John, chapter v.

ABOUT ANGELS IN GENERAL

Without going into all the complicated details of "angelology," there are some interesting things about angels that more people ought to know about.

One is that there is absolutely no basis anywhere for the widespread idea that people, or some people, especially children, become angels after they die. Wherever this notion came from, it is 100 per cent mistaken. Angels are considered a special order of creation; humanity is another — and there is no going back or forth across the line.

Another fact is that Mohammedans as well as Jews and Christians believe in angels. Actually, the Mohammedans are able to furnish more elaborate details than anyone else. They say God made the angels out of pure gems, instead of the base clay from which man was made.

The word "angel," a Greek word, meaning "messenger," and in the early Old Testament times that was how they were regarded — just "sons of God" and "messengers." Of course, the Jews did not have the word at that time in their history, but the point is that their idea of angels was a very simple one.

It was not until the Jews spent nearly a century in slavery in Persia (where the idea of angels was a much more sophisticated) that they began to think of them as having names and individuality and special assignments.

ANGELS ON A NEEDLE'S POINT

Christian scholars in medieval times used to spend hours arguing about whether or not an angel took up any space. One of their favorite questions for debate and intellectual exercise was "How many angels could stand on the point of a needle at the same time?"

They finally wore the question out. The decision they came to was that since angels are pure spirit they occupy no space at all and therefore every angel in the whole company of heaven could stand on the needle's point without taking up any room.

'Keep Immoral Films Out of Pontiac'

Every Christian has the right to do as he sees fit. We should keep trash and immoral films out of Pontiac, and get our children back in Sunday School on Sunday.

That is why there are so many children going wrong today. They don't have the right guidance. Anyone that defies God's law should read the Ten Commandments again, and keep them.

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Under

Secretary of State Averell

Harrison, commenting on his conversations with Russia's chairman Nikita Khrushchev, said, "He acts now like

This slip-

criticisms from the vice president's admirers. But Harrison got out of it neatly by saying: "Lyndon Johnson is the most effective political cam-

Ex-president Harry Truman was in the audience when Austrian Foreign Minister Bruno

Krisley made a speech before a luncheon club in Kansas City, discussing the problems of a neutral country in the cold war.

After it was over, H.S.T. came up to the microphone and said for everyone to hear, "That's the best — — — speech I've heard since 1945."

Senate minority leader Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., has a stock double-talk answer when asked about his views concerning the

job."

Los Alamos Scientific Laboratory has been trying to find a more docile and friendly monkey for research work in the U.S. space program.

The type they'd been using for space experiments, the Macaca

mulatta, had been a problem.

Handling him, said one scientist, was a "traumatic" experience for both. Laboratory men frequently ended up with nipped fingers.

A new monkey, the Macaca speciosa, reportedly displaying a "remarkable docility," is gradually being worked into the experiments.

A major furor in the Pentagon for the past year is over news management as practiced by Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs.

Sometimes this censorship and news management have been achieved by "classifying" embarrassing documents —marking them "secret" or

"confidential."

Now a Pentagon wag — high on Sylvester's own staff — has put two signs on the wall back

WHEN YOU MANAGE NEWS

DO IT ACCORDING TO THE RULES

CLASSIFY IT

State Department fan mail has its up and downs, but this is a high period. Excerpts from typical letters:

"We need a mental health program in the White House and State Department."

"It's clear Soviet appeasers are having a field day."

One of the persistent rumors:

there are thousands of Chinese Communist troops in Mexico, poised to attack the United States. Where this one started nobody knows, but it has spread by word of mouth to many parts of the country.

Every such letter gets a firm denial in reply.

One woman correspondent, worried about the Viet Nam situation, closed her letter with the admission, "I realize that if I were living in a Com-

Building in Pontiac Decreases Slightly

New construction in Pontiac dropped somewhat last month from building activity reported in August, according to Carl F. Alt, city building inspector.

However, construction activity remained ahead of the same month a year ago.

There were 134 building permits issued last month compared to 157 in August and 119 in September 1962.

The estimated value of new construction was $501,241 in September, up from the $454,074 valuation posted in August when more permits were issued.

The difference was that September permits were for more costly individual projects.

In September a year ago, new construction was valued at $507,709.

Permits for new family dwellings totaled 15 last month compared to 38 in August. The value of new homes in August was $250,850 compared to $103,500 last month.

In September a year ago, there were 12 permits issued for new homes valued at $105,220.

September building figures brought the total to 1,283 permits issued for $10,240,293 in new construction for the first nine months of 1963.

Debbie Needs Help - Calls Old Friend

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—When a cold and sore throat sent singer Andy Williams to bed Friday, the Thailians were left in a bind.

He was the star attraction of Friday night's fund-raising benefit sponsored by the group of charity-minded actresses and socialists.

Thalian president, actress Debbie Reynolds, made a quick call to another popular singer she knew, and the show went on.

The replacement? Eddie Fisher—Debbie's former husband.

Hope Lange Set to Marry

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actress Hope Lange is to wed producer Alan J. Pakula Saturday night in a formal Jewish ceremony at the Bel Air home of producer Martin Manulis.

It will be the second marriage for Miss Lange, 28, the first for Pakula, 35. The blonde actress is divorced from actor Don Murray. They had two children. Pakula produced the Academy Award-winning "To Kill A Mockingbird" last year.

Fed Up East Germans Flee to Western Zone

LUDWIGSTADT, Germany (UPI)—Two East Germans worked their way through the Iron Curtain into the West yesterday, Bavarian border police said.

The two men, a 30-year-old unskilled worker and a 27-year-old coal miner, told police they were fed up with the life in the Soviet zone.

Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson is Honored at Parties

Pontiac Press Photos

Surprise! Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson registers the surprise she felt when greeted by several hundred members of the Village Woman's Club Friday afternoon. This was the first of her birthday celebrations.

Carefully Mrs. Wilson cuts her birthday cake. In addition to a congratulatory message inscribed on the frosting, there were three candles.

By JANET ODELL

Today is Mrs. Alfred G. Wilson's 80th birthday. But the festivities started yesterday.

Mrs. Wilson thought she was invited out for luncheon and a game of bridge at the home of Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble. The luncheon went off as expected, but in the middle of the afternoon a telephone call came from the Village Woman's Club (VWC).

Mrs. Jean C. Turnage, the club manager, was having problems. Could Mrs. Noble help her out right away?

Mrs. Noble is currently working with Mrs. Wilson who's president of VWC. What could be more natural than to have her go to the club too? This was all part of a carefully conceived plan to get Mrs. Wilson to the club where several hundred members were waiting to honor her on her birthday.

SURPRISE

She did look surprised as she walked in. And she certainly doesn't look 80 years old. She's living proof that being vitally interested in life keeps one youthful.

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen, general chairman of the tea, stood in the receiving line. The assisting hostesses, Mrs. F. R. Chapman, Mrs. G. J. Graham and Mrs. W. O. Vogt, circulated among the guests.

Before Mrs. Wilson cut her cake, Mrs. Harvay Kregge Jr., immediate past president of VWC, presented her with the club's gift: an exquisite little gold book charm.

On the cover a "W" is inscribed; a tintype of the doorway to the clubhouse is engraved on the inside page and on the back the date of this birthday.

OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

Oakland University took up where VWC left off. At midnight Friday, Mrs. Wilson was presented with another cake and more gifts.

The students danced all evening at a birthday ball with Stan Kenton's orchestra playing. In the Gold Room of Oakland Center, background music was furnished by piano, cello and violin and students came in for punch.

At the Cinderella hour Edwin Goodwin, director of food services, rolled in his latest masterpiece — a gum paste replica of Meadowbrook Hall — Mrs. Wilson's second birthday cake of the day.

Goodwin took dozens of snapshots of the hall for reference before he started working on the sugar building. He spent over 150 hours carefully constructing every detail.

CAKE SECTION

The finished cake is 64 inches long, 40 inches wide and 12 inches high. One section was temporarily replaced with a cake section for Mrs. Wilson to cut.

Chancellor D. B. Varner presented Mrs. Wilson with the traditional gift of roses from OU — one for each year of her life, minus 50.

In addition she received two aerial views of the campus; the first was taken when there were only two buildings, the second shows the present campus.

Tonight Mrs. Wilson's family gathers at Meadowbrook Hall for their celebration of her 80th birthday.

Happy Birthday, Mrs. Wilson!

Church Unit Holds Bazaar and Dinner

A "Hurry the Holidays" bazaar and turkey dinner will be sponsored Thursday from 12 to 8 p.m. by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the St. Paul Methodist Church.

There will be items for Halloween trick or treat, decorations for Thanksgiving tables as well as Christmas gift items and baked goods.

CHILDREN SHOPPERS

A special room for children shoppers only will be featured with no items over one dollar. Mrs. Clara Guthrie, president of the WSCS is general chairman. Mrs. Eldon Parrott is bazaar chairman.

Her committee chairmen include Mrs. Howard Ward, Mrs. Gerald Augsburgers, Mrs. Edward Uhler, Mrs. B. B. Johnson, Mrs. Ronald McGraw, Mrs. Martin Streby, Mrs. Kendall Anderson, Mrs. Lillian Binning, Mrs. William Gregory and Mrs. H. M. Nelson.

DINNER CHAIRMAN

Chairman for the turkey dinner, which will be served family style from 4:30 to 7 p.m., is Mrs. Dewey Milliron. Dining room chairmen are Mrs. Charles Robinson and Mrs. E. E. Flanagan. Light luncheon will be served from noon to mid-afternoon.

Cleaning 'Caddy Adds Efficiency

Housecleaning is a lot more speedy and efficient when you carry supplies and equipment as you go from room to room — so you will have sponge and suds right at hand to wash a sticky door knob or switch plate.

A new compartmented cleaning caddy with handle — made of soft plastic which won't scratch furniture — can be purchased to hold all keep-clean supplies conveniently.

Wigs Need Blocks

Keep wigs on wig blocks to preserve shape.

JOANN BARBARA HILL

The William A. Hills of Tilmor Drive announce the engagement of their daughter JoAnn Barbara to Robert Hamilton Osmun, son of the Monroe M. Osmuns of Ogemaw Road. Her fiance attended Ferris State College. February vows are planned.

Ninth Hi-Fever Follies Opens on Fashion Note

Americans have never lost their love for the amateur show. And amateurs will perform whenever they get the chance.

For the ninth consecutive year the Women's Auxiliary to Pontiac General Hospital presents its Hi-Fever Follies. Proceeds from this show buy life saving hospital equipment that cannot be covered by the regular budget.

Opening night was Friday.

AFTER FIVE FASHIONS

Nine models, wearing after-five clothes from Arthur's, set the scene for glamour. Mrs. George Morrow, herself gowned in brocade and mink, did the commentary.

Providing continuity were the Mistresses of Entertainment, Mrs. Edward Dalton, Margaret Ann Beatrice and Mrs. Michael Siano.

Solos were sung by Dee Fisher in a scene from Denver in its early days; Debbie Irish who gave away the secret of Hernando's Hideaway; Lynn Walker in a French skit; Mrs. Pierce A. Rydman; Charlene Strickland; and Dave Cliffe.

Performing professional artists, familiar to Pontiac residents, were Victor and Mary Louise Lindquist; and Jackie Rae Voorhees and Hugh Stevenson.

UNUSUAL DANCE

The only advertising skit in the show was amusingly done by Jack McVay, Ralph Merkovitz, Dutch Morris, Shelby Baylis and Mrs. Donald Erickson.

The male chorus line that gave Shakespearean advice won hearty applause from the first-night audience.

Music was provided by a trio comprised of Fran Mc-Callum, Alex Sekles and Frank Merwin.

Stage manager was Lee Hathaway.

With Rita Milliken of Kakaska, maid of honor, were Barbara and Betty Nash, their sister's bridesmaids.

David Halter served as best man. Groomsmen were Ronald McDougall of Pontiac, Ill., and Charles Miller, Williamston. Gordon Taylor of Steamboatrock, Iowa and Benjamin Bond of Marlette ushered.

Teen Blames Moral Loss on Indifference of Parents

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: If people wonder where the teen-age morals have gone, all they have to do is look at what they have given us to go by.

What are we supposed to think when all the advertising reeks of sex, and mothers dress their daughters like little Lollitas? Who do you think are the "heroes" around town now?

I'll tell you — Richard Burton, Christine Keeler and Mandy Rice-Davis.

I assure you I am no prude, but I'm glad my parents equipped me with some decent morals.

SEVENTEEN
IN BELFAST, MAINE
DEAR SEVENTEEN: And to your fine letter, may I add a hearty AMEN!

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a man who has been married four years, wears the wedding band I bought for him but who covers it up completely with another ring?

SUSPICIOUS WIFE
DEAR SUSPICIOUS: I think he's probably covering up more than a wedding ring.

DEAR ABBY: I am puzzled as to how a lady can presume to give advice on shaving. I will be 55 on my next birthday and have been shaving since I was 17.

In the past 38 years I shaved once a day, and if I had to shave a second time I would need to call an anesthetist.

I believe you are about as qualified to give advice on shaving as was my youngest son when he was 17.

When I asked him if he'd started to shave yet, he replied, "Gee, Dad, I've been shaving for two years now and I cut myself both times."

Respectfully,
J. L. L.

Soapy Shake Cleans Jugs

To clean a vacuum bottle or jug with a narrow opening, half fill it with hot soap or detergent suds and let it soak a few minutes. Then put the stopper on and shake the container. Rinse, fill with fresh suds, and shake again.

After a final hot rinse, let the container and stopper or cap air thoroughly before fitting them together again. Always cap the container loosely when you store it, even if only for overnight. This prevents any stale odor.

30 Days to Better Grades—XXX

It's Work, but You Can Do It

By THE READING LABORATORY
Enterprise Association

This is the last article in our series on the best ways to study, so we'll sum up everything we've talked about.

The first thing you must do when you start a course, any course, is to find the point of view of the course. See what the course is getting at, what it's supposed to do, what you're supposed to learn and why you're supposed to learn it.

Then start to study your teacher—see what he likes best in the course and what he doesn't like. See whether he likes class discussions.

Find out what kind of tests he gives and when he gives them. See if he likes small details or if he is satisfied with a good understanding of the main idea of the course.

For your part, evaluate the relative importance of each of your courses and plan a study schedule accordingly. Find the right study environment—good light, no noise, hard chair and a desk.

STUDY IN SPURTS

When you do begin to study, study in spurts. Don't try to hit a single subject for a couple of hours straight. Study in half-hour stretches to keep your mind fresh.

Before you begin to study a textbook, overview the whole book.

Use the table of contents, unit summaries, time charts, and so forth to get a good picture of the total context of the subject. (This doesn't apply to math or foreign language courses—they're step-by-step processes.)

When you study the individual chapters, use the "survey and resurvey" method. Survey the bold print, maps, graphs, picture captions and chapter summaries to get the main idea.

Then read the first sentence of each paragraph to strengthen your grasp of the main idea; skim through the body of the text to pick out the important secondary ideas—check off the ones that are important.

Finally, skim through again to get the important details. Don't try to memorize them—check them off so you'll be able to find them later.

When you do memorize the details, remember that memory is the easiest to memorize. Be sure you understand the main idea before you take a stab at memorization.

Before you attend a lecture, survey the textbook chapter that pertains. Take lecture notes only on what is not in the text. When you listen to a lecture, listen for the main idea.

Don't scribble down everything that is said—just write a short summary of each major point. Spend most of your time listening.

That night, after lecture, apply the "survey and resurvey" method to your textbook, and then make a short general outline in your notebook that combines the lecture with the ideas in the text.

Don't put a lot of details in your outline. Just make a note as to where they can be found. When you prepare for a test, you'll do most of your studying from your notebook. It saves a lot of time and reading.

Remember when you study history you must overview to find the pattern, the flows of historical movement.

In sociology, psychology, political science and economics look for the general concepts that bring order to the subject on which everything else is based.

Physics and chemistry are based on just a few general laws. Find out what they are and understand them before you start to memorize formulas.

Take it slow in math; go step by step. Understand each rule before you try to go on to the next one.

That's all there is to it. It's work, but it works! Good luck!

You Ordered It,
Andre, Drink It

PARIS (AP) — The unbelievable happened Friday in the National Assembly—a Frenchman had to be ejected into drinking a glass of wine.

Normally an usher resplendent with silver chain places a glass of water besides deputies as they speak. Pierre Mendes-France, elected from a dairy district, used to insist on milk.

Friday, Bordeaux Deputy Andre Lauthiere called for wine while arguing for aid to his weather-damaged grape district. He left the rostrum without touching it, but the assembly set up such an outcry he had to go back and finish every drop.

CHURCH OF CHRIST — The first unit of a building program of Waterford Township Church of Christ, 4991 Williams Lake Road will be dedicated Sunday. The brick veneer edifice of contemporary architecture is completely air conditioned. A 26-foot steeple rises above the roof line. Robert M. Cross is the minister.

To Dedicate Church of Christ

Eugene Peden, pastor of the Lawrence Avenue Church of Christ, Nashville, Tenn. will be guest speaker at the dedication of the Waterford Township Church of Christ, 4991 Williams Lake Road Sunday. The dedication and open house are scheduled for 3 p.m.

It was just five years ago that the congregation met for the first time in the Schoolcraft School for worship services. Later members moved to the 100-year-old Community Church building in Waterford.

In January plans were completed for constructing their own building. About five and a half acres of land was purchased in 1960.

When the first unit is completely furnished the cost is estimated to be near $65,000.

This includes pews, classroom furniture, carpeting and parking facilities. The total value of property and building is $115,000.

Peden Construction Co. of Cleburne, Tex. was the builder. The architect was Edward Korber of Bala Cynwyd, Pa.

The auditorium will seat 334. There are 19 classrooms and two offices. Folding doors in some classrooms allow additional space for fellowship activities. Nursery facilities, kitchen, two dressing rooms and rest rooms are also a part of the new building.

This is the first phase of a building program that includes an auditorium seating approximately 800 and 25 additional classrooms.

Membership now stands at 126. Attendance records are 171 at Bible School and 265 at morning worship.

Robert M. Cross, minister, was assisted in the building program by Fred Furr, Glenn Sherman, Edward Milam, Donald Niver, Jesse and Joe Whit-

Pastor Peden will conduct a series of meetings which start tomorrow through Oct. 27.

The guest pastor received his education at Freed-Hardeman College, University of Chattanooga and Centre College. After preaching in Nigeria, Africa he was sent to teach at Michigan Christian College before his present pastorate in Nashville.

Pastor Gray at Pine Hill

Executive Secretary at Church Sessions

"The Power of Words" will be the theme of Dr. Alfred Gray's sermon when he preaches on the third anniversary of the signing of the covenant at Pine Hill Congregational Church tomorrow.

Rev. Neil Swanson, executive secretary of the National Association of Congregational Churches, will be present at 8 p.m. Thursday at the meeting of Pine Hill boards in the home of Rev. Harry Clark, 724 Cotwood Knoll, Birmingham.

Pastor Swanson has just completed a trip covering missions sponsored by the church. He will report to the group on various needs.

Dr. Alan Jenkins, minister of the First Congregational Church of the Royal Oak, will entertain members and friends at a cooperative dinner Oct. 27. He will give his well known impersonation of Carl Sandburg at the time.

The dinner will be held at the Episcopal Church of the Advent, 325 Middlebelt at 5 p.m.

The first meeting of the study group is set for Wednesday with Pastor Clark, the instructor.

Laymen Lead Worship Hour

OAKLAND PARK

The annual observance of Laymen's Sunday will be observed at 10 a.m. tomorrow in the Oakland Park Methodist Church with Frank Martin conducting the service. Assisting will be Glen Barker and Cecil McFarland.

Guest speaker will be Robert Moore of Detroit, a layman who is the Detroit Conference director of lay speaking for the Methodist Church.

Mr. Moore's responsibility is to set up training programs throughout the conference so laymen can assume more active work in speaking and witnessing for the church. Lay speakers are often called to supply pulpits in the absence of the minister. Pastor James W. Deeg said.

"The Changing City Challenges the Church" will be the theme of the annual School of Missions starting at 7 p.m. tomorrow. Classes will be held at the same hour Tuesday, Oct. 27, and 28; and Nov. 3 and 4.

Teachers for the courses include Mr. and Mrs. James Mood, adults; Mrs. Fay Magner and Mrs. Lyle Dusenbury, juniors; Mrs. Gerald Wright, Mrs. William Council, Mrs. Walter Dempsey, Virgil Allison and Glen Barker, youth group; and Mrs. Jack Westby and Mrs. Donald Fribe, primary.

Tomorrow night a film entitled "The Newcomers" will be shown. The school is under the direction of Caroline Waldron.

ST. PAUL METHODIST

Serving on the executive committee of the building program of St. Paul Methodist Church with Eldon Parrott, general chairman, are Donald A. Tews, Bruce Smith, Kenneth Healy, Howard Nelson, Mike Harabedian and Rev. James A. McClung, pastor.

The group is planning a building campaign known as "The Crusade for Progress." Members hope to break ground in the spring for the new $225,000 first unit of a new church.

AUBURN HEIGHTS U.P.

"Are We Really in Such Bad Shape" will be the subject of the Laymen's Sunday message at the United Presbyterian Church in Auburn Heights tomorrow.

background for LIVING

SPACIOUSNESS—This is the first view a visitor gets when he steps into the entrance hall of the lovely William Selmeier home on Island Lake. Works of art are tastefully scattered throughout the house, lending beauty to the beige carpeted home. The sofa and chair are a creamy beige that blend with the huge brass tray from India. The linen draperies are printed with various colored "stick men" marching in straight rows across the material. A brown chair in one corner of the living room is inviting. This room is seven carpeted steps down and is so contoured to the land that there is a feeling of being on a high hill, with the lake below.

A HAPPY PLACE—This little room above the piano and built-in bookcase is really a den-office area but can be converted to an extra bedroom by folding wooden doors on each side of Mrs. Selmeier. Rather than a door, there is a wide archway that also has larger folding doors for a guest's privacy.

Architects and builders have learned that by raising the roof, opening up walls and using floor-to-ceiling plate glass, smaller houses look much bigger than they really are. Although today's home is by no mean small, it looks almost twice its size due to the subtle design of the rooms.

Pontiac Press Home Editor

The William Selmeier home beside beautiful Island Lake is a house that was built around a view.

Almost hidden from the road, the house dips and angles around huge trees so that the magnificent views from every window seem like giant oil paintings.

Inside, there are touches of India, China and Sweden all blending together in a melting pot of artistic color and interest.

From the entrance hall, you can see north, east, south and west views. Looking toward the lake, one has the feeling of being suspended in trees because of the immediate drop in the land contour from the house.

Every one of the paintings and art objects seems to have some fascinating story behind it. A little alabaster owl sits coily on the grand piano—his eyes seeming to survey all the goings-on. He was sculptured out of marble by the Selmeiers' friend Homer G. Bowland, a retired Birmingham businessman.

Colored etchings from Cranbrook, ceramics and many imported oil paintings have individual backgrounds, and vivacious Mrs. Selmeier can provide names, places and dates with the ease of a college professor.

Mrs. Selmeier's love of blue is most obvious in the master bedroom. Here the walls are a dull Swedish blue topped by a stark white ceiling. For contrast, the avocado green quilted bedspread flows down to a rich gold carpet.

The free-standing divider between the kitchen and dining room has a brass planter filled with healthy greenery across the top. On the kitchen side, Williamsburg blue formica counters and side walls are accentuated by light birch cabinets. There's personality everywhere.

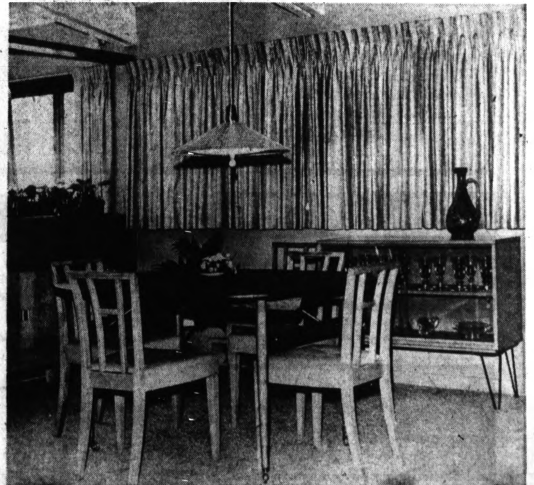

DEN'S NEAT—There's no clutter in this neat room that can be converted to an extra guest room by closing wooden shutters. The focal point is "Just Us Cats"—a plaque over the desk with blue and green ceramic cats applied on stone agate. The artistic work was done by local sculptress, Mrs. Grant Valpey.

WELCOME ENTRANCE—The Selmeiers' glass and brick contemporary home is so wedded to the land and lovely trees that it was almost impossible to photograph as a whole. This shows the wide entranceway that leads to the street-side double doors. In the spring, the entire house is surrounded by pink and white apple blossoms from what was once an orchard.

COOL, LOVELY—When the beige draperies are pulled back, the view from this dining area is breathtaking. To the right of the picture are French doors leading to an extra-large covered porch. The custom-designed furniture is a combination of teakwood and birch. A long brass planter divides the kitchen and dining areas.

UNUSUAL BREEZEWAY—This delightful area connecting the house and garage is reminiscent of a small French garden. The old bricks beckon one to wander out into the heavily wooded area beyond. The breeze-way's unique effect of being both open and closed was achieved by the big redwood beams overhead.

FLOOR PLANS — The house proper is 1,200 square feet; the breezeway and garage increase the overall ground cover 240 square feet and 473 square feet respectively. Overall dimensions are 63 feet 10 inches by 25 feet. House is almost a perfect rectangle, simplifying construction.

Charming New Home Has Low Silhouette

Any number of devices are used nowadays to make a house look longer, to give it the low silhouette of suburbia.

But there's nothing artificial about the look of today's House of the Week. It is longer — and its added length, produced in a most inexpensive way, brings benefits far more valuable and practical than mere exterior attractiveness, however important that is.

The secret is a delightful breezeway between the house proper and the garage, a 14-foot 2 inches by 17 feet "outdoor room" which can be screened or glassed later, if you like, or left open as a sheltered terrace for fair weather relaxation.

The breezeway, in effect, does the work of a family room but obviously it costs far less to build. It enables the basic house — three bedrooms, bath, living room, dining room and kitchen — to contain only 1,200 square feet. Yet it both appears and functions as a considerably larger home.

Architect Herbert C. Strupp

mann, a specialist in designing homes for families of modest incomes, produced the house as model J-88 in the House of the Week series.

The house is 25 feet deep by 63 feet 10 inches long including the breezeway and garage. The length of the house proper is only 48 feet. The garage adds 473 square feet and the breezeway 240 square feet.

FEATURES BRICK

The exterior features brick and stone in pleasing contrast with vertical siding. In shape it is almost a perfect rectangle, the most economical form of construction, and a handsome gable above the living room bay window eliminates any monotony sometimes associated with such an uncomplicated design.

Because of its versatility, the breezeway is the sort of adjunct that assures more house for the dollar in the long run.

As an added feature it contains a barbecue fireplace which uses the same chimney as the living room fireplace — another example of architect Struppman's skill in providing luxury touches at minimum cost.

The interior also reflects his knack of getting the most out of every square inch.

MINIMUM HALL

There is a minimum of hall space, yet the layout is clearly uncluttered. Struppman also uses dividers instead of enclosing walls in the living room, dining room and foyer, thus providing a sense of openness while at the same time assuring clear division of rooms.

The living room is ideally situated as a dead end; no traffic passes through on the way to another room. It is spacious, nicely proportioned, has plenty of wall space plus a handsome fireplace and bay window which offer excellent opportunity for imaginative furniture arrangements.

The kitchen is a perfect square with the work area efficiently arranged to save steps. A window over the sink affords good backyard supervision.

A nine-pane window overlooking the rear yard (an ideal spot for a garden) graces the dining room and complements the multipaned living room window. The two rooms together, with a dramatic planter between, offer an elegant entertaining area.

A roomy bath is well placed to serve the living area as well as the bedrooms. The bath has a linen closet inside rather than out in the hall and, like all the other closets in the house (including the broom closet in the kitchen), it's large enough to do the job.

The basement stairs are ideally located at the rear service entry. The laundry is in the basement, a commodious room with plenty of space for shelves. Also downstairs is a cedar storage room, more than 50 square feet, and there is additional storage space in the 80-square-foot heater room.

But the real attraction in the basement is a huge recreation room — 667 square feet not counting the large built-in bar. As with the rest of the house, the architect took pains to make the entire basement a well-ordered area, both functional and fun to live in.

DECEPTIVELY ECONOMICAL: A 14'2" wide breezeway adds attractive length to this three-bedroom ranch and provides it with an inexpensive "outdoor room" which can be screened or glassed if desired. Brick and stone and vertical board siding are well blended into a traditional facade.

J98 Statistics

A three-bedroom ranch with living room, dining room, kitchen, bath. Basement contains recreation room, laundry, and heater rooms. House proper is 1,200 square feet; attached breezeway and two-car garage add 240 square feet and 473 square feet respectively to ground cover. Overall dimensions are 63 feet 10 inches by 25 feet; without garage the house is 48 feet by 25 feet.

There's More to It Than Hammering

Make Sure to Drive That Nail Straight

The most biting comment that can be made about the unhandyman ability of someone is: "He can't even drive a nail straight."

Generally used as an exaggeration, the statement sometimes is true. Not everyone can drive a nail straight. Occasionally, it is due to the penetrating resistance of the particular kind of wood or the type of nail being used.

But more often than not it is because the nail was struck improperly—at an angle, instead of with the axis of the hammer head in line with the nail.

There's a lot more to the use of nails than the matter of straight nailing.

The following tips may help you to do a better job:

When doing rough work, where extra holding strength is necessary, clinching is often used.

This consists of driving a long nail through two boards and then bending the excess of the nail into the wood.

When a nail is clinched in the direction of the grain, it is easier and neater. However, when it is clinched against the grain, which requires heavier hammer blows, it will be stronger.

You will get better results when driving a nail by using a number of moderate hammer blows rather than a few strong blows.

Wood can be prevented from splitting by drilling a guide hole for the nail.

In the absence of a drill, use a small nail first, driving it in part way. Carefully ex-

Timely Item on Increase in Popularity

The expression, "all in good time," appears to be more than an adage in the market place of the '60's. If consumer spending is any indication, the newer motto is "it's a good time to buy clocks."

Spurred by a variety of factors, among them the trend toward home furnishing schemes that are quietly and comfortably subordinated to a major decoration, such as a floor clock, plus the design innovations being promoted by American clock manufacturers, store sales are increasing in both unit and dollar volume.

Department stores, which enjoy a general 1963 sales advance of more than 4 per cent over 1961, report that their clock departments showed a like growth for the same period. The outlook for 1963, according to informed sources, is for a further increase in clock sales.

tract it and drive the larger nail into the same hole.

Where hammer dents may spoil a project, use finishing nails, driving them to within a fraction of an inch of the surface and then using a nailset to push them below the surface.

Wood putty or plastic wood can be used to fill the indentation.

If space is at a premium, a nail can be started by striking it with the flat of the hammer head rather than the face.

A nail driven into hardwood is often difficult to extract. If you can get the nail started on its way out, place a block of wood between the hammer and the board and then renew the effort with a claw hammer.

The added leverage will do the job that sheer strength could not.

When you have to do a considerable amount of repetitious nailing, use one of the nail aprons that can be purchased cheaply or obtained without cost from some lumber dealers and hardware stores.

Tile Installed Up to Ceiling

A new trend in quality home construction is extension of ceramic tile bathroom wainscoting several inches higher than has been customary — in many cases, all the way to the ceiling.

The two principal reasons for this: First, ceramic tile is steamproof as well as waterproof.

Steam from showers and baths can cause paint and other materials to deteriorate, they can't hurt real tile.

Second, the 250 different colors, the many sizes and shapes, inspire handsome bathroom design.

Central Spain is a table land mostly without trees.

Mme. Nhu Continues Blast

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Mme. Ngo Linh Nhu, the beautiful but controversial first lady of South Vietnam, today continued her nonstop criticism of U. S. policies.

She was scheduled to speak at Georgetown University this afternoon, and probably would seek to answer critics of the South Vietnamese government and its actions towards Buddhist monks and U. S. newsmen.

Her major appearance yesterday was before the National Press Club where she charged that some U. S. State Department officials were guilty of "treason" because some economic aid to South Vietnam has been frozen. The action, she said, was a "childish gesture."

The United States recently ordered a stoppage of funds to finance Viet Nam's commercial imports.

"THEY ARE GUILTY"
"I don't know precisely who is guilty of treason," she said, "but whoever hampers economic aid, I think they are guilty."

Few U. S. officials directly concerned with South Viet Nam see any hope of a reconciliation in the immediate future with the nation's regime headed by President Ngo Dinh Diem. Mme. Nhu's brother-in-law.

For her part, the outspoken Vietnamese first lady has described her appearances in the United States as "walking on a tightrope without a net."

Despite an obvious boycott by U. S. government officials, Mme. Nhu has continued to maintain a strenuous speaking schedule.

COMMITTS TREASON
In a speech to the National Press Club here yesterday, she accused officials of the Kennedy administration—"I do not know precisely who"—of committing "treason" by cutting off fuel and milk supplies to her country in the midst of its war against pro-Communist guerrillas.

"Tell us what we have done wrong," she pleaded, "but do not do so by insulting us, beating us or stabbing us in the back."

Officials here, asked about the charges, said a foreign aid directive issued last July told countries receiving U. S. assistance they would have to buy petroleum supplies with their own resources.

As a result, about $10 million in petroleum, particularly gasoline for commercial uses, is no longer included in U. S. aid to South Vietnam.

OIL STILL FLOWING
However, the officials added that gasoline and oil and other lubricants needed for military purposes are still flowing to Viet Nam and have not been stopped.

Officials said further that more U. S. aid suspensions are being actively considered and may be put into effect in the near future.

Mme. Nhu also accused "handful of people who are angry because they wanted to topple the (Diem) government" of being "committed to hamper the war effort by cutting economic aid to South Viet Nam."

"This is only a childish gesture from bad losers," said the first lady, who appeared before the press club in a brilliant jade green silk gown. She was accompanied as usual by her daughter, 18-year-old Le Thu. Except for their boycott of Mme. Nhu's appearances, U. S. officials have given no direct indication of their feelings about her United States visit.

Officials said that U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge remained under orders to maintain an attitude of aloof correctness with President Diem's regime.

Coast Guard Takes 2 From Crippled Ship

NEW YORK (AP) — A Coast Guard cutter arrived last night in Bermuda with two injured crewmen from the disabled Norwegian tanker Vestforn, authorities here said.

A spokesman at the Coast Guard Search and Rescue Center said the 13,409-ton tanker was without power about 65 miles south-southwest of Bermuda, but was in no danger.

The ship's captain, the spokesman said, told Coast Guard officials he would make necessary engine repairs and be able to proceed to his destination of Corpus Christi, Tex., tonight or early tomorrow.

The ship requested no assistance.

WAS DISABLED
The 500-foot Vestforn, whose home port is Stavanger, Norway, radioed the Coast Guard yesterday that it was disabled and that three crewmen had been burned by steam and hot oil. The Spencer, a 327-foot craft, and a search plane were dispatched.

Only two of the three men were seriously hurt, the spokesman said. Both were taken to King Edward Hospital.

Rome is farther north than New York City. Rome is just south of the 42nd parallel, while New York is just south of the 41st.

Dangerous Fun

Playing in Leaves

Don't let your children play in leaf piles along city curbs!

This urgent warning to parents came from Clyde Christian, department of public works superintendent, late yesterday.

A little Pontiac girl came split-second close to almost sure death in an innocent looking pile of leaves yesterday.

The incident left a tractor-sweeper driver frightened to the point of speech loss, said Christian.

SWEET LEAVES
"He had swept leaves along the gutter to the middle of a block on East Tropic," Christian related. "Then he drove the big tractor with its steel blade broom to the other end and started back toward the middle."

"Just as he reached the first pile, the little girl's head popped out of the leaves. He stopped just in time."

The child had evidently spotted the leaves and burrowed in, burying herself in the pile, according to Christian.

"The driver came a split second from running over the child. He just turned around and drove back to the DPW yard. He was so shaken he couldn't talk for a while."

Both the girl's and the driver's names were withheld because no injury resulted.

Christian urged parents to warn their children against playing in piles of leaves in streets and along curbs.

Piling is common procedure preparatory to leaf pickup by suction equipment.

Felony Warrants

Ordered for 24 Arrested in Raid

Orders were issued yesterday by the county prosecutor for felony warrants against 24 men arrested recently in a gambling raid in Madison Heights.

Asst. County Prosecutor Robert Templin said State Attorney General Frank J. Kelley okayed the orders.

Templin said his orders charge the 24 men with three counts of conspiracy to operate a gambling establishment and three high misdemeanor gambling counts.

Two of the gambling suspects have been named before a Senate committee as Cosa Nostra, or Mafia, members. They are Eddie Guarella, 45, of St. Clair Shores and Joseph Brooklier, 50, of Mt. Clemens.

AMONG 45 NABBED

They were among 45 persons arrested in a raid at the Steren Assembly Club in Madison Heights by state and local police.

Others arrested in the raid were charged with the misdemeanor of frequenting a gambling place. They are awaiting examination in Farmington Township Justice Court Nov. 5.

The 24 men facing felony charges were released Monday pending the outcome of a writ of habeas corpus, which is demand to know the charges they will face in court.

BRIMFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas House were more than mildly startled when they awakened Friday and found their yard crammed with uninvited guests.

"There were pigs everywhere," Mrs. House said. "More than a hundred of them."

Police determined the porkers had broken out of a pen on the nearby farm of Harold Gilles. Gilles came and rounded up his pigs.

Red Skelton Enjoys Easy Life

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer HOLLYWOOD — The television world is supposed to be fierce and frantic, a spawner of ulcers and nervous breakdowns. So how come Red Skelton is so happy?

The raucous redhead is starting his 14th year in television, his second season with a full hour, and he's never been so content. The reason is that he has discovered a way of life that suits him.

Red has joined the Hollywood celebrities who live in Palm Springs. He spends five days a week at his desert home, comes to town on Wednesday and Thursday to rehearse and tape his show.

"As soon as I get to the Los Angeles city limits and see the wall of smog," said he, "I shut off my lungs."

Desert air breathes better for many reasons, he said.

"Living down there gets me away from the telephone and all the other distractions," Red remarked. "We can live as a family and have dinner together; Valentina can have her friends in."

"It's a healthy life. Little Red, my wife Georgia and I are up at dawn and busy all day. I'm now at 190 pounds, down from 229, and Little Red, who was 160, is now at 120."

"I do my work there; I come to the studio with a notebook full of gags. And I have my hobbies, adding a new one each year."

Guerillas Kill 23 Persons in Viet Nam Raids

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communist guerrillas killed 26 persons and wounded 11 others in raids in the Mekong Delta yesterday, government sources reported today.

The losses occurred in four separate Viet Cong attacks, the nearest 30 miles from Saigon. Meanwhile, the government said its forces killed eight guerrillas and wounded 12 others in a mop-up operation in the highland province of Darlac, 160 miles northeast of Saigon. The government losses were put at one dead and six wounded.

Walled Lake Whips PNH, Rolls to Inter-Lakes Crown

Huskies Fail in First Half Goal Chances

Vikings Prevail, 27-6 and Capture Title as Berkley Loses

INTER-LAKES
Walled Lake
Pontiac Northern

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press
The battle for football supremacy of the Inter-Lakes Conference is all over.

Walled Lake won its 5th championship in a row, including a 1961 tie with Southfield, by whipping Pontiac Northern 27-6, while Berkley, the only other contender was dismantled by Farmington, 25-18.

Northern had its opportunities early, played inspired football for a half, and then collapsed completely as the Vikings, led by the running and passing of quarterback John Thomas, moved the ball at will.

The Huskies had the first break in the opening seconds when on the first play from scrimmage Thomas' pass was intercepted by John Colcar on the Northern 35 and he ran it down to the Walled Lake 12.

Don Weyer picked up a yard and then Walled Lake was penalized half the distance for personal foul to the six. The down situation, however changed as Steve Daniels got a yard. On 4th down a field goal attempt from Dean Souden was wide.

FIRST PERIOD
PNH had control for most of the period and reached the Walled Lake two yard line as the quarter ended. It was a first down but a motion penalty moved it back to the eight and four cracks at the Viking defense failed to give ground and Walled Lake took over on its own three.

On third down on the four, Thomas rolled out and raced 29 yards to the Walled Lake 43. This gave the Vikings the momentum and seven plays later, Pete Woodward bucked over the four. Pass attempt for the point was no good and with 4:17 left Walled Lake led, 6-0.

Northern started the second half with a shocker. Quarterback Jim Kimmel, passing from his own 39, connected beautifully with end Tom Nichols who got by defender George Bullock and went into the end zone for a 61 yard scoring play.

Souden's point try was low and wide and it was 6-6.

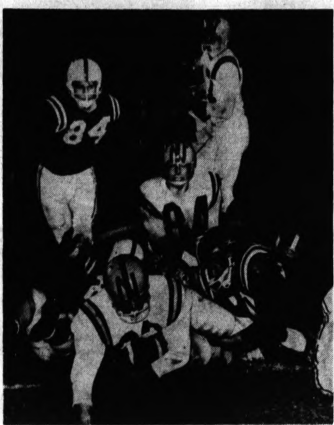

This was the end to Northern's scoring as Walled Lake took the ensuing kickoff and went 34 yards in 11 plays. A pass from Thomas to end Dave Pagarie from the six made it 12-6 and a putoff to Pat Godfrey for the point made it 13-6.

LAST CHANCE

The Huskies had one chance to tie in the series that followed. Kimmel passing from his own 28, hit Nichols on the five but the ball was dropped.

Little Comfort for PCH, 18-0

SPECIAL TO THE PONTIAC PRESS
SAGINAW — Pontiac Central football coach Paul Dellerba and his assistants are going to take another look at the Saginaw High team that defeated the Chiefs 18-0 here last night.

The PCH mentor will take along a notebook and sit in the stands, instead of directing play on the field, next Friday when Saginaw journeys to Flint Southwestern. The Flint Colts are next on PCH's schedule.

It will be a showdown game Nov. 1, but not the kind most teams like to be playing. Last place in the Saginaw Valley Conference will go to the loser.

While Pontiac Central was losing last night, Southwestern pulled even with the Chiefs by holding Bay City Handy to a scoreless deadlock.

Both teams are 0-5-1 for the season. The Chiefs, who tied Handy 6-6 last week, are idle next week.

The Trojans' big line successfully contained the PCH running attack, holding the Chiefs to 72 yards. Central picked up 27 more through the air for a 99-yard total offense.

Meanwhile, the Trojans were grinding out yardage in short bursts, mostly around end with an occasional thrust up the middle.

IN CONTENTION

Although Saginaw controlled the ball and the game, the Chiefs were still very much in contention until early in the fourth quarter. Then Joe Miller raced 36 yards with a putoff to give the Trojans a 12-0 cushion.

Until the last period, Central's defense — led by Art Niggins, Leroy Jackson and John Smith — allowed the Trojans only a first period score. Bob Martin got the TD on a 16-yard putoff play.

The Chiefs threatened to tie the score in the third quarter when they marched to the Saginaw 14 after Jackson had recovered a fumble on the PCH 44.

With a fourth and sixth situation, quarterback Jerry Murphy completed a pass good for a first down, but the play was set back five yards because of a penalty. The Chiefs yielded the ball after the next play.

W-O Race in Three-Way Tie

Wins for Milford, Clarkston, Holly

Redskins Zip Past Barons

Bloomfield Hills committed a few offensive miscues Friday afternoon and paid the toll price — defeat.

The Barons gave the ball away five times — two interceptions and a fumble — and Milford's Redskins cashed in on four of the bobbles in trimming the Hills squad, 31-20.

The loss was No. 4 in loop play for the Barons, 1962 league co-champions, while the win upped Milford's mark in conference action to 3-2.

The Barons made a game of it with a 20-point comeback in a wild fourth quarter, but the flurry came too little and too late to offset their giveaway tactics in the first three quarters.

BREAK ICE

The Redskins broke the scoring ice with a 19-point uprising in the second quarter and added single scores in the final two periods to lock up the decision.

Skip Miller notched Milford's first score on a two-yard run that ended an 82-yard run. The senior halfback, running on a tender ankle, picked up 13 points in the game to up his six-game scoring total to 72 points.

Interceptions set up the Skins' next two six-points.

Defensive halfback Mike Yeager, the Skins' signal caller, picked off a Hugh Carney pass midway in the second period and returned the ball 30 yards to the Hills' 40, and fullback Chuck Andrews bucked over from the four-yard line 10 plays later for a 13-0 Milford lead.

TWO STEALS

Milford's Jim McFarland came up with his first of two pass thefts with only 50 seconds remaining in the half, and the Skins turned it into a touchdown by sending Miller over on a 78-yard run.

End Jim Mendham came up with a third-quarter fumble by halfback Dick Janz at the Barons' 35-yard line to set up the fourth Milford score.

Miller ate up the 35 yards in five plays with Dave Meagher turning left end for the final 22 yards.

Jim Ward closed the Redskins scoring early in the fourth quarter with a 94-yard dash after McFarland had intercepted a Carney pass at the six-yard line.

The Barons made the scoreboard click for the first time with nine minutes remaining in the game.

Carney maneuvered the team on a 51-yard march with the payoff coming on a 27-yard pass from Dick Janz to end Gerry Appleby, who made a circus catch in the end zone.

FLY PIGSKIN — Milford quarterback Mike Yeager used the airlines sparingly in the Redskins 31-20 win over Bloomfield Hills. One of the reasons for withholding the aerial bombs was the pressure of the Barons' defense. Yeager got the pass away just as he was racked by an unidentified Baron.

Clarkston West Bloomfield Northville Southfield Bloomfield Hills Clarkstonville

By JERE CRAIG
It was a happy homecoming for Holly and Clarkston high schools last night in the Wayne-Oakland football race.

The Wolves feasted on Brighton's Bulldogs for a 38-0 victory while Holly topped winless Clarkstonville, 19-6.

For Clarkston it was a particularly enjoyable evening and not even an all-too brief rain shower could spoil the festivities.

The Wolves received a big helping hand on their celebration when West Bloomfield upset Northville and let Clarkston regain a share of the league lead.

The two receptions by Miskin climaxed 66 and 75-yard scoring drives for the winners. His second came at the beginning of the third quarter.

REDSKIN RIDES — Milford's Skip Miller gave his tender ankle a thorough workout on this 78-yard scoring run against Bloomfield Hills Friday afternoon. Miller turned the corner at his own 22-yard marker and reached paydirt untouched. Making a late bid to catch the flying Redskins are John Thornburgh (No. 12), Sandy Eynon (No. 47), Rusty Speirn (No. 30) and Gerry Appleby (No. 32). Milford won, 31-20.

New Haven Drops Bomb on Memphis

New Haven's Rockets survived some early countdown failures and exploded for four touchdowns in the second half to knock off Memphis, 24-0 and remain on top in the Southern Thumb League race.

In other Thumb contests, Anchor Bay staved one game back of New Haven with a 32-12 win over Brown City. Dryden downed Almont, 39-6, and Armada pulled out a 34-21 win over Capac.

Halfback Dwight Lee ran for two scores and passed for another in guiding the Rockets to their sixth straight victory. New Haven broke a scoreless deadlock in the third period when Lee passed to his brother, Gordie, for a 45-yard touchdown.

The rockets wrapped up the decision in the fourth stanza on a one-yard dive by John Mack and scoring runs of eight and 46 yards by Lee.

Lee's two TDs gives him 93 points for the season, tops among area scorers.

Anchor Bay capitalized on two fumbles and two interceptions in the third quarter to score 26 points and rout Brown City.

EARLY SCORE

At Godin put the Tars in front in the first stanza on a two-yard plunge, but Brown City's Larry Dougherty knotted it 6-6 with an 81-yard run late in the second.

The Tars broke the game open in the third when Buster Lettine hit Stan Shepherd and Gary Moss with scoring

W. Bloomfield Sets Northville Down, 25-13

Lakers Hand Leaders First League Defeat to Cause Scramble

By DON VOGEL

The Wayne-Oakland League football race is going to be one showdown after another from now until the end of the season.

West Bloomfield threw the loop into a three-way tie for first place by defeating Northville, 25-13, last night in the first key battle on the agenda. There will be one, and possibly two more big games.

West Bloomfield, Clarkston and Northville are jammed at the top with 4-1 records.

"We can't rest," said West Bloomfield coach Art Paddy. "Clarkston comes next week and the game will be a real dog fight. You can count on that."

After Clarkston plays West Bloomfield, the Wolves will travel to Northville for the finale that should decide which school, or schools, will be at the top.

The Lakers and Northville waged an offensive battle before more than 2,500 fans at Keego Harbort.

The Mustangs took home a statistical victory, but West Bloomfield also sent along their first loss in league and play.

West Bloomfield, aided by a costly Northville fumble, withstood a strong Mustang ground attack in the first half and then survived a blistering overhead assault in the final two quarters.

29 FIRST DOWNS

But all Northville could manage, besides 20 first downs and 344 total yards, were touchdowns in the second and fourth quarters.

The defensive line play of tackle Mike Cady and second string ends Ives Randall and Greg Hahnford, particularly in the second half, helped keep the Mustangs at bay.

The Lakers, with backs John Nemeyer, Tim Ruen, Jay Williams and Vaughn McGraw chewing up yardage in large chunks, moved the ball almost at will against Northville.

A long pass from quarterback Myer Grier to end Rick Hacht for 42 yards caught the Mustangs flat-footed the first time the Lakers had the ball and started the win.

After Jerry French tied the game, 6-6, for Northville on a five-yard slant in the second period, West Bloomfield marched 53 yards to take a 13-7 halftime lead. Nemeyer went the final yard to break the tie.

West Bloomfield struck for two quick touchdowns in the third quarter and then held off a fourth period surge by the Mustangs.

Rochester	8-2	9-2
Madison	7-3	8-3
Avondale	6-4	7-4
Lake Orion	5-5	6-5
Warren	4-6	5-6

As the only unbeaten team left in the Oakland A Conference, Fitzgerald apparently has only to be wary of the fickle fortunes of football during the remainder of the championship trail.

The Spartans, crushed Troy, 27-7, last night for their fifth straight, and now each of the top three contenders has fallen under the weight of their grinding attack.

Troy and Clawson, tied for second at 4-1, meet next Friday with the loser almost certain to be eliminated. Fitzgerald has weaker opponents remaining at home in Avondale and Warren Cousino.

Avondale (14-1) fell to Madison, 14-0, last night, and Cousino (8-5) dropped a wild 26-19 affair to Lake Orion.

Only once did the Colts threaten to derail the strong title-bound Spartan express. With 58 seconds left in the first half, Don Armstrong pitched a 14-yard touchdown pass to end Gary Hrabon and Ken Holder converted to put Troy up to 13-7.

But that was merely a final gasp by the Colts as Fitzgerald stormed back with two quick, killing TDs in the third quarter.

Glen Cherup rambled 40 yards to score on the third play of the half. Troy was forced to punt on the next series, and on the fourth play sophomore Tom White sprinted 24 yards for the final tally.

Fitzgerald had to make two stabs for its first touchdown in the opening period. Mickey Sulborski intercepted an Armstrong pass at the Troy 32 and the Spartans drove to a first down on the six.

The Colts dug in to halt the drive at the four, but fumbled the ball back at the eight. This time the Spartans were not to be denied and Randy Chaffin scored from two yards out on the second play.

Fitzgerald started a 76-yard drive in the first period and was rewarded with a touchdown in the second. It took nine plays before halfback Ken Davis hammered over from the two.

AVON BURT

Avondale lost the services of quarterback Lynn Thorpe early in the first period and couldn't mount an offense thereafter. Madison scored in the second on Howard Wandell's 25-yard run, and again in the fourth on a one-yard drive by Jim Bowman to register its first win in the loop.

Lake Orion went to 2-3 in its free-score contest. Jon Cucksey ran 41 yards for a touchdown and later passed 35 yards to Ron Stallings for another as the Dragons took a 13-0 first quarter lead.

Cousino broke the ice on a one-yard plunge by Jess Moore in the second and then both teams came up with sparkling scoring plays. Cucksey passed to John Albans and a 48-yard ball stinger, and Maria Couture rammed over with a 23-yard jaunt for Cousino.

Things cooled off until the fourth when Cucksey hooked up with Stallings again for a 30-yard TD aerial and Cousino's Drew Plaha flipped a 22-yard payoff pitch to Jeff Laflata.

Lapeer Hands Kettering Tri-County Shock 13-12

By L. GAR THORNE

Despite a 12-point fourth quarter, Waterford Kettering came out on the short end of a 13-12 tussle with Lapeer last night.

The loss dropped the Captains from first place (2-1) in the Tri-County League.

A slow start, an unsuccessful kick and a successful PAT provided the Panthers Lapeer all the edge they needed to pull down their first league victory. Kettering fell behind in the first half when they were only able to move the ball 11 times for 36 yards.

Marching 74 yards, the visitors tallied on a 5-yard pitchout in the first quarter. Dave Rice, who spelled Pete Hanson at quarterback, tossed to Dave Yeich for the TD.

20-yard screen pass from Rice to Rod Montgomery.

The Panthers struck again with just 20 seconds left in the half. Quarterback Hanson plunged across from the 1-yard line.

Again, passes paved the way. Rice hit on 35 and 12 yard passes to set the stage for Hanson's TD plunge. Yeich ran for what proved to be the deciding point.

The Captains massed a threat at the Lapeer 5-yard line by the end of the third period.

After the teams switched directions for the final quarter, the Waterford school's quarterback, Mel Patterson, pushed the drive from the 50-yard marker and plunged 1-yard for a 13-12 ballgame.

Three plays later, Lapeer fumbled and Kettering took possession. Patterson directed the drive from the 50-yard marker and plunged 1-yard for a 13-12 ballgame.

Earl Hook was selected by Coach James Larkin to attempt the PAT. Hook's kick was good, but was disallowed on a penalty against Kettering.

The reserves took over then. Brighton's only relief came during the second half rain. After it stopped, diminutive quarterback Richie Palladino took Clarkson 88 yards for the final tally.

The 130-pounder hit on a 41-yard pass play and glimpsed the final yard on a quarterback sneak. Wilson booted the last point-after.

A 17-yard run by Mark Seah also aided the drive.

Brighton threatened late in the contest but was stopped at the winners' 12-yard stripe. The Bulldogs showed little on offense, gaining only 52 yards in the game.

PAYOFF DRIVES

Scoring drives of 70 and 60 yards in the second game gave Holly all the points it needed for a happy homecoming at Clarencville's expense.

Hurt Utica, 25-16

Fraser scored two touchdowns in each of the second and fourth quarters last night to down Utica, 25-16, in a Bi-County League football game.

The Chiefs hustled to a 6-0 lead in the opening stanza on Paul Schaffer's six-yard run. Utica fell behind 13-7 at the half, but picked up a safety in the third period when Mike Mays tackled the Fraser punter in the end zone.

The last Utica touchdown came in the fourth quarter on an eight-yard pass from Ron Paschal to Herb Wiles. The two conversions were run by Wiles. Utica is now 2-4 for the season.

From this point until the end of the game, West Bloomfield's pass defense was given a stiff workout. Northville quarterback Gary Stobbe was passing two out of three plays and coming with impressive consistency.

He completed aerials of 18 and 13 yards to get the Mustangs to the Lakers' nine early in the fourth quarter and two plays later passed five yards to French for the touchdown.

Later in the period the Mustangs rode Stobbe's arm to the long list of seasonal injuries. Both suffered injured legs. Tom Thompson was taken off defense when he suffered a bruised leg, but continued at offensive center.

Rice picked up 60 yards in 10 carries, but was not effective after being stunned late in the first half. McGraw gained 72 in nine tries and Nemyer had 69 in 10 carries for the Lakers.

"It was a good game to win and a bad one to lose," said Paddy.

Bob Hush and Jim Berland punched across TDs for Hazel Park.

George Morey and Joann Anstey came up with two touchdowns each in Ferndale's easy decision over the Big Reds.

Luck isn't the only trademark of a successful football team, but a lack of it is often the difference between a mediocre squad and a winning one.

And luck is an ingredient Waterford Township's Skippers will have to inject into their lineup tonight to avoid the embarrassing cellar-dwelling position in the Inter-Lakes League.

clash for the fifth spot on the 1-L ladder.

In afternoon games, Lutheran West at Detroit Thurston, North Farmington at Livonia Franklin, Maumee at Country Day, Harper Woods at Lamphere and Cranbrook at Cleveland University School.

The Skippers have uncovered a strong defensive unit in their last outings but the offense hasn't kept pace. The team has scored only 47 points in five contests.

HOLD OPPONENTS

The defensive squad, manned by Bill Hunt, Andy Straka, Tom Taffe, Dale Jones, Bill Powell and Mike Redish, has given up 15 points in the last two tilts, with the Skippers tying one and losing the second.

But the Skippers will need some luck along with some offensive punch to halt the Blue Jays, a team that is separated from a 5-0 record by a total of 11 points.

The Blue Jays have been short on luck. They knocked off their first two foes and then dropped three league tilts by a total of 11 points.

Emmanuel Christian's injury-riddled eleven dropped a 20-18 decision to Grosse Pointe University School last week.

Coach John Malone said the wounds have healed and his lineup will be in good physical shape for the 8 p.m. bout with Whitmore Lake.

RO St. Mary vs. Sorrows

A title scrap in the Northwest Catholic League Sunday will pit the league's top offensive club against the loop's best defensive unit.

Royal Oak St. Mary, leading the league with 132 points in five games, will entertain Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows, whose defensive squad has been touted for only 13 points in five contests.

Other games on the parochial schedule have St. Agatha at St. Michael and St. Frederick at Waterford Our Lady of Lakes. Orchard Lake St. Mary is idle.

Non-conference games have Royal Oak Shrine at Redford St. Mary, Brother Rice at Detroit Salsman and Detroit St. Rita at Ferndale St. James.

A win Sunday for ROSM would create a two-way deadlock in the race.

FOLS leads the pack with a 4-0 record with ROSM second at 2-1. A loss for St. Mary would drop the team into a tie with Orchard Lake and give FOLS an easy run at the title.

Pacing the ROSM offense might be halfback Don Wells who leads county scorers with 12 touchdowns and ranks third in the scoring race.

The speedy halfback scored 20 points in the 48-0 rout of St. Frederick last Sunday.

And the ROSM defense is no pushover. The Irish gave up 20 points in their season-opening loss to Orchard Lake St. Mary and whitewashed their next four opponents.

FOUR SHUTOUTS

FOLS, in fashioning a 5-0 record, has shut out four opponents and permitted only two touchdowns.

The Lakers well - aided offense is built around Kelly Burke, Mike Kearney and Stan Seckley, who have accounted for 57 of the team's 90 points.

St. Agatha can advance in the league standings with a win over St. Michael and jump into second place if ROSM loses.

St. Michael, winless in five starts, could surprise the Lakers. The Shamrocks have Waterford OLL a scare before falling 18-14 last Sunday.

St. Frederick will have an eye on fifth place in the collision with WOLL's Lakers. Both teams sport 1-3-0 records.

Lions Wary of Ghost Visitor

Ex-NBA Head Confirms Levy of $25,000 Fine

Story Claims Illegal Dealing Between Bullets, Lakers

NEW YORK (AP)—Maurice Podoloff has confirmed that he slapped a $25,000 fine on the Baltimore Bullets before he retired as president of the National Basketball Association.

The fine, believed to be the highest ever levied in any sport, was disclosed Friday by the New York Post.

Podoloff, contacted in Hartford, Conn. by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, did not give any reason for the fine, but the Post story, bylined by Leonard Lewis, said it was "for attempting to sneak 6-11 Walt Bellamy under the table to the Los Angeles Lakers."

J. Walter Kennedy, who succeeded Podoloff, said he had not been advised by Podoloff of "any such action that may have been taken by him before I took over the presidency."

The fine is listed by the NBA as unpaid, the Post story said. The incident involving Bellamy, former star for Indiana University, occurred while the Chicago Zephyrs franchise was in the process of being shifted to Baltimore last spring.

The Post said: "Key figures in the intriguing affair were Dave Trager, head of the Chicago syndicate and still involved in Baltimore; Bob Short, the owner of the Los Angeles club, and Lou Mohr, the Lakers general manager. All the details of the deal could not be determined. But this much is known: Mohr was supposed to become general manager in Baltimore and then ship Bellamy to Los Angeles."

"It may have been all tied in with the report that Short was going to sell out in LA to Gene Autry and form a group to buy into Baltimore. In that way, Bellamy could've been part of the selling price to Autry, who obviously is trying to tie up coast pro franchises with pay-television, seeking around the corner. Gene now owns the Los Angeles Rams and a good hunk of the Los Angeles Rams."

Milford Tops W-O Harriers

The Redskins had 21 points to finish 31 in front of runner-up Bloomfield Hills. It marks the fifth year in a row that Milford has taken the league meet.

Bob Richards was ten seconds over his course mark but finished first in the meet. The Bloomfield Hills speedster had a 10:11.8 timing.

Milford runners, led by Bill Nelson, finished second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth and ninth.

Mike Turek in 12th place was fourth place Clarkston's first finisher. Mike Grulke led fifth place West Bloomfield by carpeting 14th, and 19th finisher Dave Zauel led Holly, the sixth team.

Flint Central won the Saginaw Valley Conference cross country meet Thursday finishing far ahead of Flint Southwestern for the honor.

Flint Central had 33 points, Southwestern 54, Pontiac Central and Flint Northern tied at 89, followed by Saginaw 114, Midland 146 and Arthur Hill 157.

George Carlisle of Southwestern won individual honors in a time of 10:01 followed by Dick Potter of Flint Central and Steve Thompson of Flint Northern.

Fear Martin May Be Colts' Game Factor

Both Teams in Search of Victory to Reach .500 Mark

By BRUNO L. KEARNS

Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

After Sunday is over, the Detroit Lions may seriously believe in ghosts. They have every right to fear of being haunted when the Baltimore Colts visit Tiger Stadium tomorrow.

Both the Lions and Colts are shooting for the .500 mark as they stand 2-3 for the season, and if prognosticators who make Baltimore a one point favorite are correct, then it must be figured that the Lion-hunter will be Jim Martin.

For many years Martin ruined Baltimore with his field goal kicking.

The longest of his career, 52, 50 and 49 were all against the Colts. When he made his comeback this season and failed in seven pre-season tries, the Lions panicked him to Baltimore and former Detroit assistant Don Shula, now head coach of the Colts.

In five games the 26-year-old Martin has booted seven of 10 field goal tries.

The Lions meanwhile decided to stick with Wayne Walker as their kicker, realizing that he has many good years ahead of him. Walker has five for 13 to his credit to date.

Shula, who helped build the Lions' defensive secondary as one of the best in the league, will now look for ways to have Johnny Unitas tear it apart with his passing.

To help his injured pass receiving corps, Shula announced that R. C. Owens, the former alley-oop star of the 49ers, is back on the active list and will play in the game.

'Dondero Mums' Foe

Royal Oak Dondero got into non-league action last night and scored a 12-6 victory over Mumford of the Detroit city league.

Bruce Kazianer passed 15 yards to Bill Sevald in the final quarter for the winning TD. In the first quarter Reggie Miles went over from the one after a short punt gave the Oaks the ball on the Mumford 30.

South Central Leader Is Now North Branch

North Branch moved into the lead in the South Central League with a 13-4 decision over Millington Friday evening.

Unbeaten Deckerville raced to its fifth straight win by trouncing Harbor Beach, 20-0, while Imlay City was losing to Romeo, 28-0, in non-conference action.

Dennis Smith scored on a six-yard run in the first period and a 65-yard pass play in the second to lead North Branch to a 2-0 league mark.

Seattle Fans Back Slippery Rock 11

SEATTLE (AP)—Miss Nancy Gilson may have to give up the school-teaching game and go into full-time selling of sweat shirts from Slippery Rock, Pa. to football fans of Seattle, Wash.

There is no doubt in Miss Gilson's mind that Slippery Rock State College has more boosters here than it does in Slippery Rock, which she described proudly as a "two-stoplight town."

Regarded as a necessity each Saturday at the University of Washington Stadium is the announcement of Slippery Rock's score for the day. When the Rockets win, 55,000 people cheer. They also cheer if Slippery Rock loses—just to register their support.

Miss Gilson and another teacher, Mrs. Jean G. O'Gieblyn, arrived in Seattle two years ago—on a Saturday—with a Slippery Rock sticker on their car.

VICTORY HEARD

"It seemed like hundreds of motorists shouted at us to roll down the window," recalled Miss Gilson. "Then told us the Rockets had won their game that day."

Everybody in Seattle, she said, seems to have his or her heart set on owning a Slippery Rock sweat shirt, and she has become the unintentional, unpaid middleman.

"Dozens of people have asked me to order them from a store in Slippery Rock," she said. "I'm going home for Christmas and that's becoming my biggest shopping list."

Seattle's love affair with Slippery Rock may have begun a few years ago when Wendell Broyles, public address system announcer at Washington's home games, included the Slippery Rock score in a list of major college results.

It drew the biggest cheer, and Broyles never fails to give the Slippery Rock report.

After a PNH fumble on the 44, Walled Lake needed only five plays to make it 27-6 with Thomas again running the point after Wayne Mervis ran 19 yards for the TD.

FARMINGTON WINS

It was homecoming at Farmington and the Falcons celebrated by holding a 19-0 halftime lead over Berkley.

Bruce Charles was the leg man for Farmington. He took a first period punt and went 50 yards for a TD. In the second quarter he went 79 yards on an end sweep. Roy Leach who booted one point, ran seven yards for the third score of the half.

Skip Smith put Berkley into the scoring column with a 5 yard dash, but Charles made it 25-0 on an 83 yard run. Jim Prince's 1-yarder and Rick Krumm's pass to Jerry Boreland for four yards close the gap for Berkley.

Dick Janson, upland game specialist for the department, said he expects around 500,000 sportsmen will get in some pheasant hunting during the 21-day season.

"But perhaps dry weather will discourage some of these on opening day," Janson said. "The dogs have a hard time getting the aceny with the birds during dry weather."

Department officials also warned hunters that smoking in the field was banned earlier this week by Gov. George Romney's proclamation.

Deckerville's Doug Bowerman scored 14 points to pace the Eagles' attack and run his six-game scoring total to 73 points. Quarterback Bob Parrott teamed up with Carl Wardenzsky on a 29-yard scoring pitch for the Eagles final TD.

The Eagles are 1-0 in league competition and they will entertain North Branch next week in a battle for the SCL lead.

NFL's 2nd Place Teams Clash

By The Associated Press

The Cards say Green Bay should be a winner Sunday afternoon. Of course, the Cards say differently.

The defending champion

Milford Tops W-O Harriers

Milford continued to have its own way in the annual Wayne-Oakland League cross-country meet by winning yesterday's run on its home course.

The Redskins had 21 points to finish 31 in front of runner-up Bloomfield Hills. It marks the fifth year in a row that Milford has taken the league meet.

Bob Richards was ten seconds over his course mark but finished first in the meet. The Bloomfield Hills speedster had a 10:11.8 timing.

Milford runners, led by Bill Nelson, finished second, third, fourth, fifth, seventh, eighth and ninth.

Mike Turek in 12th place was fourth place Clarkston's first finisher. Mike Grulke led fifth place West Bloomfield by carpeting 14th, and 19th finisher Dave Zauel led Holly, the sixth team.

Flint Central won the Saginaw Valley Conference cross country meet Thursday finishing far ahead of Flint Southwestern for the honor.

Flint Central had 33 points, Southwestern 54, Pontiac Central and Flint Northern tied at 89, followed by Saginaw 114, Midland 146 and Arthur Hill 157.

George Carlisle of Southwestern won individual honors in a time of 10:01 followed by Dick Potter of Flint Central and Steve Thompson of Flint Northern.

Foreign Central finishers were led by Mike Mumby who finished eighth. Other scorers were Bob Lawrence, Bill Hollis, Mark Acosta and Walt Frazier.

Church Has Space for Youth to Study

AKRON, Ohio (U) — Wooster Avenue Christian Church provides attractively decorated rooms where youngsters may bring their school books and study.

This is part of the program the church has been developing since the neighborhood where it has been for 75 years became predominantly Negro, the Rev. Earl C. Mohler says.

The church's all-white congregation decided a year and a half ago to keep the church where it is, and participation now is about 80 per cent nonwhite.

"We are feeling our way along, to be sure, but I feel it's the right way," the pastor says.

Church Urged to 'Give'

EVANSTON, Ill. (U) — "The church that seeks to save its life will lose it," the Rev. Dr. Elliott L. Fisher, a Methodist official, told a meeting here. He urged church members "to give as much for others as for self."

JFK Hails Bible Week

NEW YORK — Heading the large list of greetings sent to the Laymen's National Committee, Inc., on behalf of the forthcoming National Bible Week observance is an official message from President John F. Kennedy.

Kennedy's letter was addressed to Frank M. Folsom, national chairman for the annual all-faith event, which is to be Oct. 21-27.

The 23rd annual Bible week, to be held during the week of October 21st, has chosen for its theme "The Bible — Symbol of Unity."

"One of America's greatest strengths is the unity we achieve through diversity. The Bible has served as a symbol of this unity by virtue of its appeal to Americans of every faith, creed and color; for, in perusing its sacred pages, we are constantly reminded of our common bonds."

"In a world where religious convictions are being challenged as never before, we should be profoundly grateful for our national commitment to preserve religious rights along with other basic rights."

"The spiritual values presented in the Holy Scriptures can be invaluable guidesposts in keeping America the shining example and symbol of human liberty and social justice."

Benjamin Green, 50, a roomer in the house was injured when he jumped from a second story window to escape the flames. Fireman Windchase Hunt suffered lacerations of both forearms from breaking glass.

Police said three roomers escaped the house. They said they were told the infant's mother had left the house a short time before the fire.

NEW Berlin Pressure Feared as Gromyko Visits in City
BERLIN (UPI) — Western officials today were concerned that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko's visit to East Berlin might result in new pressure against allied rights in the city.

Gromyko flew here last night on his way back to Moscow from the United Nations and immediately conferred with East German Communist chief Walter Ulbricht.

The East German news agency said their talks included "regulation of the West Berlin question," which means Communist demands for a demilitarized "free city" of West Berlin and the withdrawal of western troops.

These demands are not new, but Western officials were worried because it is the first time they have been revived since the East-West talks that began with last summer's nuclear test-ban agreement.

TROOP CONVOYS
There was also concern over the Soviet harassment of Allied troop convoys between Berlin and West Germany in the past two weeks.

Observers here believe Gromyko's remarks indicate that the convoys incidents were not accidental or low-level mix-ups, as many had hoped.

Gromyko stressed the same theme last night in a stopover in Prestwick, Scotland, before flying to East Berlin.

"The status of West Berlin should be abolished, and a free state established," he said, "We will continue to stress the importance of this despite the fact some Western states underestimate the importance of this issue."

Gromyko also told newsmen at Prestwick that the progress in East-West talks "could not be worse."

"To be frank, the state of affairs in our discussions is bad," he said. "We make no progress whatsoever."

Gromyko, who conferred in New York with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Lord

Home, British foreign secretary, now prime minister, said the Soviets "have been carrying the whole burden of disarmament on our shoulders."

"But whether we shall be able to convince our partners in negotiations or not is another matter," he added. "We have proposed certain steps towards the lessening of tension, steps similar to the Moscow (nuclear) treaty."

Ulbricht told a factory committee meeting last night that "a solution of the West Berlin problem must and will be found."

He called for talks between the East and West German governments and the two city governments of Berlin.

The Soviet solution for Berlin, first proposed by Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, in 1958, calls for an end to the Allied occupation of the Western sectors of the city and provides for the Soviet relinquish control of the 110-mile highway link between Berlin and the West to the East German Communists.

Khrushchev first demanded that his Berlin plan be put into effect in six months, but deadlines later were dropped and neither Ulbricht nor Gromyko mentioned any last night.

Observers said it appears that the holdups of a U.S. Army convoy last week and a British convoy this week were "provoked" operations by the Communists.

Foreign Aid Fight
By ERNEST B. VACCARO
WASHINGTON (AP) — The stage has been set for a lively Senate floor fight over foreign aid.

The foreign relations committee Friday assured a battle by voting to restore $700,200,000 of $1 billion the House had slashed from President Kennedy's program.

After weeks of consideration the committee approved a bill carrying authority for $4,300,000,000 for military and economic assistance abroad this budget year—only $327,250,000 less than the White House asked for.

The storm signals were unfurled immediately.

Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen, who contends that the congressional and public temper is running against the aid program, predicted deep reductions when the Senate begins debate on the measure a week from next Monday.

FIGHT TO CUT
Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La., told reporters he will make a fight to cut the bill back to the $3,500,000,000 voted by the House.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., in Oregon when the bill was reported, authorized a proxy vote against it as a prelude to offering a series of proposed amendments after the debate starts.

Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., the foreign relations committee chairman, said the committee fight was closely in line with the recommendations of a presidential committee headed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay which called for a tightening of the aid program.

The committee wrote into the bill a 2 per cent interest rate on all loans abroad, to become effective after the fifth year of each loan.

Under the provision, the government must charge not less than three-fourths of 1 per cent a year for the first five years. A House provision requires a 2 per cent floor for all the way. The Senate provision also requires repayment in 35 years.

Under the provision, the government must charge not less than three-fourths of 1 per cent for 40 years.

The committee modified an amendment that would disqualify any government seizing power through overthrow of freely-elected regimes unless the President determined continued aid would be in the national interest. The language was changed to apply the ban only to Latin American governments.

The committee went along with the administration in voting its entire request of $500 million for the Alliance for America, but cut the Latin American Development Social Progress Trust Fund from $200 million to $175 million, $25 million below the House figure.

CREAM OF THE CROP — The newest group of U.S. astronauts assembled in Houston, Tex., yesterday following a news conference. The men were selected after rigorous screening by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The latest 14 brings the American group to 30. The new astronauts are highly trained in scientific fields.

14 Astronauts Named

From Our News Wires
HOUSTON, Tex.—The nation has 14 new astronauts and their colleagues training yesterday at the Manned Spacecraft Center boosted its moon shot manpower pool to 30 astronauts.

The 14 of them were jittery and not a little shaken yesterday as they sat behind a long table on a stage in their first public appearance as spacemen-elect. But that was the easy part, listening as their names were read into history books.

Fame was theirs for simply having been picked as the cream of hundreds who went after the space jobs that came open last summer.

Various scientific groups have encouraged NASA to permit a geologist or similar scientist to participate in the moon shots that are a U.S. objective by 1970.

"The new astronauts will be integrated into the rest of the group," said Maj. Donald K.

And the dreams of challenge and adventure reflected from their youthful faces, dripped from their spirited words.

All 16 of the astronauts selected in 1959 and 1962 are experienced test pilots but only eight of the new 14 hold test pilot certificates.

The other six new trainees are experienced jet pilots who are specialists in such areas as physics, radiation effects, reliability engineering and atmospheric science. One of them is the program's first doctor of science.

COOPERATE IN SELECTION
The National Academy of Science and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration are cooperating in establishing criteria for astronaut scientists.

Between East, West JFK Predicts Further Crises

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES
BADEN-BADEN, Germany — Delegates to the 60th session of the International Olympic Congress (IOC) agreed today that Mexico City had the 1968 Olympic Games sewn up "almost from the start" and that Detroit virtually never had a chance.

A "post-game" analysis of the massive vote that gave Mexico City Latin America's first Olympiad indicated that voters had made up their minds to "spread the Olympics around."

Mexico City got 30 of the 58 votes cast, Detroit 14, Lyon, France, 12, and Buenos Aires 2.

A high-ranking IOC official said, "There was a strong desire to spread the games around. Most of the delegates felt the Olympics should go to Latin America as they've never had them before and it was just a question as to whether Mexico City or Buenos Aires got them. Mexico had the facilities, was more easily accessible and was an attractive bet all around."

Despite Detroit's loss of the games, the multi-million dollar State Fair Grounds development program will go ahead.

Gambling Raid Nabs 23 Men

Two Buildings Hit in Suspect Roundup
Twenty-three men arrested by Pontiac police early this morning in raids on two gambling establishments pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court.

Four men charged with operating the games paid fines of $100 each.

Fines of $25 each were levied against men charged as loaders by Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Fifteen persons were taken into custody at a home at 74 Baldwin at 3:30 a.m. and eight at the other address, a vacant store building, at 3:50 a.m.

Acting Police Chief William Hanger, Lt. Fred Goines, head of the vice squad, and Sgt. Robert C. Gaines, led seven other policemen in the raids.

Goines said that both places had been under investigation for about three months.

It was the second time this year that 74 Baldwin has been raided. Other raids have occurred there in the last few years, Goines said.

Four Oakland County boys were killed last night in three separate auto accidents. All were pedestrians at the time of the accidents.

Dead are David Leveris, 15, of 177 S. Jessie; Thomas Lipford, 18, 436 S. Broadway, Lake Orion; Ronald J. Church, 18, 21634 Albion, Farmington; and Carl B. Neely, 17, 43831 Grand River, Novi.

Leveris was struck down as he attempted to cross Auburn west of Sanford. The driver of the car, Danny L. Farnsworth, 17, of 12 Ginnell Court, told police he saw Leveris standing in the center lane.

Farnsworth said he swerved but could not stop because of bad brakes, according to police. Officers said a manslaughter warrant will be sought today.

Leveris was a Pontiac Press newsboy on his way to a carrier party sponsored by the Pontiac Boys Club.

Drought Gets Worse Across State, Nation

FROM OUR NEWS WIRES
A severe, multi-million dollar drought stretching from Maine to Texas worsened today with little hope for immediate relief.

Michigan's forest-fire fighters remained on call this weekend as the state faces continued hot weather and only scattered showers.

Most fire equipment in the Lower Peninsula is either in use or ready for action, said the State Conservation Department Fire Chief, Milton Bergman.

Sheriff Quincy Hoffman of Sanilac County, telegraphed the State Conservation Department a request that the small game season be postponed until after a good rainfall.

Hoffman described conditions as extremely dry in what he called "the heart of the pheasant country" in Michigan's Thumb. He said he acted in behalf of farmers.

A three-acre fire flared up yesterday in a woods off Beck Road south of Nine Mile Road in Novi.

Firemen from the Novi Fire Department were first called at 4:30 p.m. by Mrs. J. P. Malley, 21633 Beck Road, Novi, and fought the blaze for two hours before bringing it under control.

Flaming grass and trees were burned off a 100-acre area 10 miles northwest of Lapeer early yesterday. Farmers and firemen from Lapeer and Columbiaville brought the blaze under control.

The State Conservation Department stationed two men at the scene to patrol against a further outbreak.

Sheriff's deputies arrested Edward Yarbrough, 17, of Pontiac Township, and two juvenile boys for allegedly setting a fire on North Lake Angus Road.

Yarbrough was apprehended after a mile chase. He denied setting the fire.

Arraigned before Pontiac Township Justice Robert Hodge, he pleaded not guilty to a charge of kindling a fire dangerously near to forest and or grassland and leaving it unquenched.

He was released on $50 bond. Trial was set for Nov. 8.

Fire Flares Up Twice in Novi

While a brush fire that consumed a section of the Lapeer State Game area yesterday was brought under control, a blaze broke out twice in Novi and Oakland County Sheriff's deputies made the first arrest for violation of a state ban on fires in woodland areas.

Hundreds of fires broke out across the nation.

TEMPORARY AID
Scattered rain fell in some places, but for the most part it only delayed the danger of fires for a few hours. The heaviest fall was 1.39 inches in Des Moines, Iowa, just on the line between the severe and moderate areas.

The Weather Bureau said "severe" conditions stretched in a triangular shape from Maine through Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas. To the north, from Michigan to the Dakotas lay a "moderate" drought area.

Woodlands were closed to the public in Pennsylvania, New Virginia, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Kentucky.

Hunting and fishing were banned in Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Vermont, and was curtailed in Minnesota and Tennessee.

The Agriculture Department permitted farmers in Missouri to graze and take hay from soil bank acres. Fourteen fires burned 225 acres in Arkansas, and state forester Fred Lang said a wind "could put us in real trouble."

Says Soviets Still Pursue Same Goals

15,000 Hear Speech on Foreign Policy at University of Maine
ORONO, Maine (AP) — President Kennedy said today "We still live in the shadow of war" despite new East-West agreements which he said offer opportunities which we cannot afford to miss.

Forecasting "further crises, large and small," Kennedy said the recent accords cannot be interpreted "as meaning that the Soviets are abandoning their basic aims and ambitions."

But he said the quest for peace must continue, with the United States doing everything reasonable to improve relations with the Soviet bloc.

An estimated 15,000 people jammed the University of Maine stadium when Kennedy delivered his major foreign policy pronouncement.

He said Americans should be satisfied in mind and heart that they are doing everything possible to avoid the terrors of nuclear war.

SPOKE TO BOTH
In a sense, Kennedy seemed to address himself both to leaders of the Soviet bloc and to American voters exposed to the foreign policy views of Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Aides Calm on Gromyko's Glum Words

MOSCOW — Western Diplomats in Moscow took a calm view today of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko's grumpy comment about the big three talks on easing international tensions.

The prevailing reaction among veteran envoys here was mild surprise, mixed with skepticism about speculation that Gromyko's isolated remarks yesterday signaled a hardening of Moscow's foreign policy line.

"The Soviets do not announce changes in policy through remarks made by Gromyko on a misty airport in Scotland," one diplomat said. "It just isn't done that way."

Gromyko told airport newsmen at Prestwick, Scotland, on a flight home from New York: "To be frank, the state of affairs in our discussions is bad. We are making no progress whatever."

Gromyko said Western negotiators were dragging their feet on disarmament and underestimating the importance of the West Berlin issue.

New British Leader MAKE OVER-PAGES cabinet

LONDON (AP) — Overriding opposition in his own party, Lord Home formed a new Conservative Cabinet today and became Britain's prime minister. He sealed his appointment by kissing the hands of Queen Elizabeth II in the traditional act of homage.

The 60-year-old Scottish peer reported he had succeeded in forming a government after meetings at No. 10 Downing St. with two of the men who had opposed his rise to Britain's highest political office — Deputy Prime Minister Richard A. Butler and Reginald Maudling, chancellor of the exchequer.

Home, the foreign secretary in the outgoing government of Harold Macmillan, declined to discuss whether Butler and Maudling had agreed to serve with him. But informants said chances are good that they, as well as Lord Hailsham, will stay on in their old posts.

Home's next step is to win a seat in the House of Commons through a special election as soon as possible. He would be assured of victory. He is expected to have an early meeting with Harold Wilson, leader of the Opposition Labor party, to discuss postponing Parliament's reopening until Home could be elected. Parliament is scheduled to open Oct. 29 after the summer recess.

Lord Home is no stranger to the House of Commons. He was a member at various times between 1951 and 1951, when he was elevated to the House of Lords upon the death of his father.

Once settled into office, Lord Home's biggest task will be to lead his scandal-ridden Conservatives into a fight against Labor in a general election that must be called before November 1964.

Butler was closeted with Home for just over an hour. When he left, he declined to say whether Home had succeeded in winning over the opposition of Butler and Maudling's support.

Minutes later Home emerged and told waiting newsmen, "No comment until I have seen the queen. I am going to see her now."

An official announcement from the palace at noon said:

"The queen this morning received in audience the Earl of Home, who kissed her hands on his appointment as prime minister and first lord of the treasury."

Home is the first member of the peerage to become prime minister since the Marquess of Salisbury in 1895.

Borneo Kills 2 Indonesians

Malaysia Puts Blame on Indonesian Policy

Jesselton, Malaysia (UPI) — North Borneo police killed two armed Indonesians Thursday in a border skirmish, it was announced today.

A police party went to the area, on the west coast of Sabah Island, after the Indonesians had looted a house and burned another.

Police said more than 80 Indonesian infiltrators were operating in the area. Indonesian bands have been crossing the border for several weeks.

Malaysian authorities charge that the incidents are part of Indonesia's "policy of confrontation" against their nation.

In Jakarta, Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio said in a speech made public today that Indonesia will be destroyed by Malaysia "if we are not the first to destroy them."

Subandrio's speech, made Thursday in Pakenburg on the island of Sumatra, was reported by the official Antara News Agency today.

PLANS ANNEX — He charged that the premier of the British Commonwealth Federation, Tunku Abdul Rahman, plans to annex parts of Indonesia to Malaysian territory.

He said Indonesia's present policy toward Malaysia — which has led to a diplomatic break and exchanges of charges — would become one of physical confrontation if necessary.

He charged that Malaysia developed its parts of Borneo "at a greater pace than in Indonesia Borneo with the expectation that the Indonesian Borneo would revolt and go to Malaysia."

Pathet Downs Plane; 2 Americans Killed

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Two Americans died when Pathet Lao troops shot down an Air America cargo plane in southern Laos Sept. 5, but another American on board survived, and is being held prisoner, a Pathet Lao spokesman said today.

The four other crewmen on board, three Thais and a Chinese, also survived and are in captivity, the spokesman added.

Air America has been given the names of the prisoners through the American Embassy but the company declined to disclose names until next of kin are notified.

A Birmingham man, Dr. Robert N. Hollyer Jr., has been appointed assistant head of General Motors Research Laboratories Physics Department, it was announced today.

He received his B.S. degree in physics from Wayne State University in 1942. He was a radar officer during World War II and was attached to the British Army. Later he served as a specialist in guided missiles.

ALGERIA (AP) — Algerian authorities halted air, train and highway traffic between Algeria and Morocco today as the frontier conflict between the two nations worsened.

The stoppage was not officialy announced. But passengers inquiring about transportation to Morocco were told all services were interrupted.

Asked when they would be resumed, clerks replied, "There is no information on that subject."

Telephone and telegraph communications were still functioning.

Diplomatic relations have not been formally broken off. There was no sign of activity at the Moroccan Embassy in Algiers, however, and telephone calls remained unanswered.

CONFLICT SPREADS — Until Friday, the conflict was confined to a remote strip of the Sahara centered 900 miles southwest of Algiers, where the frontier has long been in dispute.

The fighting now seemed to be spreading northeastward even to regions where the line is clearly marked and has never been challenged by either side.

In Marrakech, King Hassan II of Morocco accused Algeria of trying to promote a full-scale war by attacking two outposts outside the contested Sahara zone.

The Algerian attacks were staged at Ich and Timar, 600 miles northeast of the disputed Sahara area in which most of the fighting has taken place, the King said Friday.

Hassan said 25 Moroccan were killed in Ich.

He charged that the fighting was a deliberate effort on the part of the Algerians "to transform the frontier incidents into a generalized conflict."

Guard Placed in Library to Check Teens

Pontiac police have assigned to guard Pontiac's main public library against some of the people to whom it was dedicated just 2 1/2 years ago.

John F. Reineck, assistant city manager, announced late yesterday he had asked for police to be stationed in the library to curb vandalism.

HAS INCREASED — "Occurrence of teenage vandalism has increased in the library during evening hours in recent weeks. Property has been defaced, and some furniture and fixtures have been broken," Reineck said.

"Appeals to the youths have failed to stop the destruction."

City officials also mentioned some "rough conduct" and "scuffles between youths" in the library recently.

This is the 27th year the chamber has sponsored the program which annually keeps about 7,500 children and teen-agers entertained.

IT'S WORTH IT — The chamber estimates its cost at $2,000 or 27 cents per child. But chamber members feel the cost is small for the benefits derived.

"It works too," commented Charles Mortensen, chamber manager.

Area Physicist Gets GM Post

A Birmingham man, Dr. Robert N. Hollyer Jr., has been appointed assistant head of General Motors Research Laboratories Physics Department, it was announced today.

Dr. Hollyer, of 3828 Middle-bury, Birmingham, joined GM Research Laboratories in 1956 as a senior research physicist. He is a native of Detroit.

He received his B.S. degree in physics from Wayne State University in 1942. He was a radar officer during World War II and was attached to the British Army. Later he served as a specialist in guided missiles.

Dr. Hollyer is a member of the American Physical Society, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and several other professional organizations.

ALGERIA (AP) — Algerian authorities halted air, train and highway traffic between Algeria and Morocco today as the frontier conflict between the two nations worsened.

The stoppage was not officialy announced. But passengers inquiring about transportation to Morocco were told all services were interrupted.

Asked when they would be resumed, clerks replied, "There is no information on that subject."

Telephone and telegraph communications were still functioning.

Diplomatic relations have not been formally broken off. There was no sign of activity at the Moroccan Embassy in Algiers, however, and telephone calls remained unanswered.

CONFLICT SPREADS — Until Friday, the conflict was confined to a remote strip of the Sahara centered 900 miles southwest of Algiers, where the frontier has long been in dispute.

The fighting now seemed to be spreading northeastward even to regions where the line is clearly marked and has never been challenged by either side.

In Marrakech, King Hassan II of Morocco accused Algeria of trying to promote a full-scale war by attacking two outposts outside the contested Sahara zone.

The Algerian attacks were staged at Ich and Timar, 600 miles northeast of the disputed Sahara area in which most of the fighting has taken place, the King said Friday.

Hassan said 25 Moroccan were killed in Ich.

He charged that the fighting was a deliberate effort on the part of the Algerians "to transform the frontier incidents into a generalized conflict."

JFK Sees More Crises Despite Cold War Thaw

But he never mentioned Goldwater, even indirectly. In flying to New England, Kennedy was dodging Goldwater's footsteps. Three days ago, the senator sharply criticized the President's foreign and domestic policies in a speech at Boston, where Kennedy will address a Democratic fund-raising dinner tonight.

The President, in his campus address, called attention to the timing of his remarks — one week before the first anniversary of the grave crisis that followed the discovery of Soviet missiles in Cuba.

And he said the recent "pause in the Cold War" was achieved "by the firmness we displayed a year ago as well as by our restraint — by our efforts for defense over the last two years as well as our efforts for peace."

Although Kennedy used strong language to emphasize the dangers inherent in East-West differences, his principal theme was more moderate: ALWAYS READY

"While maintaining our readiness for war, let us exhaust every avenue of peace. Let us always make clear both our willingness to talk, if talk will help, and our readiness to fight, if fight we must."

One thought recurred in Kennedy's text: that whatever happens in future, the United States should not regret recent East-West accords, described as "slight progress on a long journey."

Kennedy said even a Soviet violation of the limited nuclear test ban, or a sudden Communist bloc refusal to buy American wheat, would provide no reason for regrets.

Referring to the test ban treaty, the proposed wheat deal and an agreement to ban nuclear weapons from outer space, Kennedy said:

"We have concluded with the Soviets a few limited, enforceable agreements or arrangements of mutual benefit to both sides and the world."

These involve schooling for police supervisory officers at a recognized traffic school, such as one operated at Northwestern University; more traffic training of uniformed division members, and increased enforcement to curb moving violations.

FEW CONVICTIONS — Olman also pointed out there appears to be a low conviction level in Municipal Court, particularly of persons charged with drunk driving. (The court, as in the past few years, did not submit statistics on its activities to be included in the report.)

Other areas in need of improvement, Olman claimed, are public school record-keeping of students involved in accidents, and the development of citizen support of traffic safety.

Huskies Fail in First Half Goal Chances

Vikings Prevail, 27-6 and Capture Title as Berkley Loses

FINAL — Wayne Mervis does the finale for the Walled Lake Vikings in the 4th period when he scoots into the end zone for a 19 yard touchdown against Pontiac Northern. Northern's Jim Bland (84) and Walled Lake's Dennis Doss (84) watch Huskie Roger Coleman try to stop the TD in vain.

Little Comfort for PCH, 18-0

SAGINAW — Pontiac Central football coach Paul Dellerba and his assistants are going to take another look at the Saginaw High team that defeated the Vikings 18-0 here last night.

The PCH mentor will take along a notebook and sit in the stands, instead of directing play on the field, next Friday when Saginaw journeys to Flint Southwestern. The Flint Colts are next on PCH's schedule.

Romeo Mars Upset Plan of Spartans

Imlay City's football team journeyed to Romeo last night armed with a shotgun offense, but the Spartans' upset hopes were turned into rumble by aerial bombs.

Quarterback Buzz Smiles was the bombardier for Romeo. He connected on three long scoring passes as the Bulldogs handed winless Imlay its sixth setback, 28-0.

Al Ruby was the tailback in the Spartans' version of the shotgun or spread offense. He pulled the trigger 26 times and had only three interceptions.

Unfortunately, six of the passes fell into enemy hands. Tom Zavislak picked one off in the last quarter and rammed 50 yards for Romeo's final touchdown.

But the Imlay sparkplug did connect on 17 of the tosses for 98 yards.

Smiles passed 50 and 30 yards to Mike Semmick for TDs around a safety posted by Don Kaufman who tackled a ball carrier in the end zone. Smiles switched to Keith Semmick for the other touchdown, a 31-yard pass.

Imlay's lone threat was a march to the nine yard line of the Bulldogs in the fourth quarter.

Redskins Zip Past Barons

Bloomfield Hills committed a few offensive miscues Friday afternoon and paid the price — defeat.

The Barons gave the ball away five times—four interceptions and a fumble—and Milford's Redskins cashed in on four of the bobbles in trimming the Hills squard, 31-20.

The loss was No. 4 in loop play for the Barons, 1962 league co-champions, while the win upped Milford's mark in conference action to 3-2.

The Barons made a game of it with a 20-point comeback in a wild fourth quarter, but the flurry came too little and too late to offset their giveaway tactics in the first three stanzas.

BREAK ICE The Redskins broke the scoring ice with a 19-point uprising in the second quarter and added single scores in the final two periods to lock up the decision.

Skip Miller notched Milford's first score on a two-yard run that ended an 83-yard drive. The senior halfback, running on a tender ankle, picked up 13 points in the game to tie his six-game scoring total to 72 points.

Interceptions set up the Skins' next two six-pointers.

Defensive halfback Mike Yeager, the Skins' signal caller, picked off a Hugh Garney pass midway in the second period and returned the ball 30 yards to the Hills' 40, and fullback Chuck Andrews bucked over from the four-yard line 10 plays later for a 13-0 Milford lead.

Milford's Jim McFarland came up with his first of two pass thefts with only 50 seconds remaining in the half, and the Skins turned it into a touchdown by sending Miller over on a 78-yard run.

Milford ate up the 35 yards in five plays with Dave Meagher turning left end for the final 22 yards.

Jim Ward closed the Redskins scoring early in the fourth quarter with a 94-yard dash after McFarland had intercepted a Garney pass at the six-yard line.

The Barons made the scoreboard click for the first time with nine minutes remaining in the game.

Carney maneuvered the team on a 51-yard march with the payoff coming on a 27-yard pass from Dick Jantz to end Gerry Appleby, who made a circus catch in the end zone.

With a fourth and sixth situation, quarterback Jerry Murphy completed a pass good for a first down, but the play was set back five yards because of a penalty. The Chiefs yielded the ball after the next play.

Redskins 31-20 Barons

Wayne-Oakland

FLY PIGSKIN — Milford quarterback Mike Yeager used the airplanes sparingly in the Redskins 31-20 win over Bloomfield Hills. One of the reasons for withholding the aerial bombs was the pressure of the Barons' defense.

Yeager got the pass away just as he was cracked by an unidentified Barons.

REDSKIN RIDES — Milford's Skip Miller gave his tender ankle a thorough workout on this 78-yard scoring run against Bloomfield Hills Friday afternoon. Miller turned the corner at his own 22-yard marker and reached paydirt untouched. Making a late bid to catch the flying Redskin are John Thornburgh (No. 12), Sandy Eynon (No. 47), Rusty Spehn (No. 30) and Gerry Appleby (No. 32). Milford won, 31-20.
