Storms Shake Area, Cut Power for 2,700

Severe thunderstorms late last night and early today downed numerous trees and wires in Oakland County causing a lapse in service to 2,700 telephone and electricity customers.

A fatal accident occurred at the height of the storm in Rose Township.

All available crews are working on the 1,200 affected telephones.

All damage is expected to be repaired by 5 p.m. today, according to a company representative.

The worst damage was reported in the Lake Orion and Oxford areas.

Pontiac's weather outlook is for mostly fair skies tonight with a low of 55 to 63.

Wednesday will be partly sunny with little change in temperature. The high will be 73 to 82.

Warner weather is forecast for Thursday with a chance of more showers.

'NEW RECORD'

Maybe you slept through it—but most people didn't.

Last night's thunder and lightning set a new record in Pontiac.

The noise was absolutely deafening and the bolts of lightning seemed to lay around your own individual bedroom for an extended period of time.

Little children, teenagers, adults and even dogs and cats were impressed, awed or terrified.

The rainfall measured 1.5 inches in Pontiac.

At one point in Bloomfield Hills the rain gauge measured

1.9 inches and hail pelted the area.

Several telephone cables were down in Clarkston, Rochester, Waterford Township and Avon Township.

Edison men worked from 11:55 p.m. yesterday to 3:30 a.m. today restoring service to 1,400 customers in the central part of Independence Township.

Lake Orion's volunteer fire department aided both electric and telephone company employees clear fallen trees all during the storm.

The Oakland County Road Commission received 30 calls on fallen trees and several were reported to the Pontiac Department of Public Works.

Pontiac's DPW, however, had only one flooded basement report.

An Akron, Ohio, youth was fatally injured at 12:35 a.m. today when the car in which he was a passenger smashed into a concrete bridge abutment a half mile north of Fenton Road.

HEAVY RAIN

Oakland County Sheriff's deputies said heavy rain virtually obscured North Millford Road when the car skidded across the highway.

4 Attacking U. S. Jets Evade N. Viet MIGs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two MIG7 fighters loosed 37mm cannon fire at four U.S. Navy A4 Skyhawks which were attacking a train 70 miles south of Hanoi today, but the heavily laden Skyhawks took evasive action and none was damaged, the U.S. Command announced.

The light attack bombers, from the carrier Oriskany, were reported to have damaged four boxcars of the train.

Though each is ordinarily armed with two 20mm cannon and various rockets, a spokesman said they did not fire back at the Soviet-built MIGs.

He said the 680-mile-an-hour Skyhawks are a shade slower and were in no position at the time for a successful fight.

The four were operating without the normal top cover by Phantoms or Thunderchiefs.

The encounter came the farthest south that enemy jets are known to have ventured in the war.

American pilots have reported the destruction of 17 MIGs. The enemy fighters have shot down five U.S. planes.

Most of the previous aerial battles with Communist MIGs have occurred north and northwest of Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital.

The dogfight followed a day of near-record pounding of targets in North Viet Nam by U.S. fighter-bombers.

July Tops for Personal Income Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income during July climbed to another record despite the airline machinists' strike and a shutdown of automobile plants for their annual model changeovers, the Commerce Department announced today.

The $2.5-billion rise boosted personal income to a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $59.7 billion during the month.

An increase of $2.8 billion in wages and salaries more than offset decreases in some other areas, the department added.

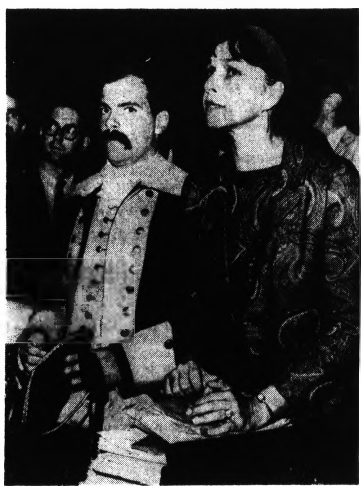

One limiting factor was the start of the Medicare program on July 1. Persons who enrolled in the supplementary insurance program started paying $2 a month to help them finance doctor and drug bills.

That increased contributions for social insurance by about $500 million, which the department said is counted as a reduction in personal income.

Partly offsetting this were increased benefits under the health care program for the elderly which the department estimated boosted personal income by $100 million.

The July gain in wages and salaries centered in distribution, services and government, with a pay raise for federal civilian employees and military personnel helping to swell the total.

Total wage and salary income during July was at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $39.3 billion.

DRESSED IN PROTEST—One of the witnesses before the House Un-American Activities Committee, Jerry Rubin of Berkeley, Calif., came to the hearing today dressed as a Revolutionary War soldier because, he said in a statement, "the present American government has become a traitor to the American Revolution of 1776." With him is his attorney, Beverly Axelrod of San Francisco.

Challenges, Protests Rock Anti-Viet War Hearings

WASHINGTON — Hearings into anti-Viet Nam war activities erupted today with loud challenges to the House Committee on Un-American Activities, and at least eight persons were carried and dragged from the hearing room.

Rep. Joe R. Pool, D-Tex., presiding at the hearing, ordered removal of persons who disrupted the session. The eight were hauled away after standing at various intervals and shouting denunciation of the committee and the first witness, Philip A. Luce of Washington.

Luce, a pullout from the pro-Communist Progressive Labor party, testified that group contacted the executive board of the May 2 movement, an organization established to organize protests against U.S. participation in the Viet Nam war.

"Let's stop this flak testimony," shouted Jeffrey Gordon, a member of the Progressive Labor party.

"This sure is a funny hearing," screamed another man. Both were carried out of the room which was packed with representatives of various peace groups, police, federal marshals, and reporters. Outside the room, hundreds more milled in the corridors, waiting for places in the room.

More protesters went the same route.

British Charge Man in Killing

LONDON (AP) — Under heavy police guard and handcuffed, John Edward Witney was sneaked into West London Court today and arraigned on a charge of murder in the slaying of three unarmed police detectives.

With a gray blanket covering his head, Witney, 36, was driven to the courthouse from Shepherd's Bush police station where he has been held since Friday — the day of the shootings.

The arraignment took only two minutes. Witney was ordered held without bail for a hearing Aug. 23.

With Witney in the cells, police pushed their hunt for two other suspects in the killings.

S. Viets Report Plot on Saigon

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese police reported today they had uncovered a Communist plot to infiltrate Viet Cong regulars into Saigon to disrupt the September election and eventually to seize the city.

Police said they had pieced together details of the plot from information gathered in the past month from various sources, including informants, captured documents and prisoners.

The initial plan, the police sources said, was to infiltrate two battalions of Viet Cong regulars into Saigon to interfere with the voting in the national elections, set for Sept. 11.

The ultimate goal of the hardcore guerrillas, they said, would be to seize key points in South Viet Nam's capital to prepare for occupation of the city by at least five additional battalions operating within 100 miles of Saigon.

The police sources scoffed at the threat to capture Saigon. They noted that, in addition to the national police and Vietnamese army security units in Saigon, about 20,000 American troops are billeted in the city or its immediate outskirts.

The Communists' immediate goal — to create havoc during the national elections — could achieve some degree of success, however, the police sources

Bipartisan Effort in Senate

Reserve Call-Up Plan Looms

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate faces a bipartisan effort today to give President Johnson authority to call into service for 18 months thousands of young men now in the Ready Reserve.

The move by Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., and Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., hounds as the key issue as the Senate takes up the $38-billion defense appropriation measure.

Russell is chairman of the Armed Services Committee, Saltonstall its ranking Republican member.

As the law is now, the President would have to declare a state of emergency before he could summon the Ready Reserve to active duty.

But Russell, manager of the appropriation measure, calls it a scandal that "men who have enough pull to get into Reserve or National Guard units are not being sent to fight, while the man across the street, who is drafted lands in Viet Nam."

SEEK AMENDMENT

Russell and Saltonstall plan to ask the Senate to include an amendment in the appropriation bill that would authorize the President — but not require him — to call up for "not more than 18 consecutive months" those ready reservists who have not served on active duty other than for a training stint.

One source estimated this would cover more than 500,000 men.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, with obvious backing of Johnson, has opposed any call-up of the civilian reservists for Viet Nam duty.

But as an indication of the support Russell and Saltonstall may draw for their amendment, the Appropriations Committee voted unanimously to include in its report a demand for greater use of the Reserves.

The committee said it would be "in the national interest to utilize a reasonable portion of the reserve forces of all the services" to fulfill commitments in Southeast Asia and elsewhere.

Workers Get Air Pact Facts

Contract OK Could End Strike on Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking mechanics receive today details of a tentative agreement aimed at ending by Friday the shutdown of five major airlines.

The idled airlines said they could resume some flights this weekend if the agreement is approved by the strikers at meetings across the nation Friday. The strike is now in its 40th day.

P. L. (Roy) Stiemler, president of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists, called the settlement, reached about dawn yesterday, "the best ever in one set of negotiations by any union."

Details of the contract were to remain secret until the 35,400 strikers received a letter from Stiemler in which he said he recommended ratification of the agreement reached with the airlines — Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World and United.

Informed sources said, however, the contract was a three-year package worth about $90 million — an estimated 8 percent increase for the machinists.

French Rescuers Fail to Find Pair

PRALOGNAN, France (UPI) — Rescuers today failed to find two young French climbers missing after lightning struck their party yesterday, killing a companion.

Three parties of guides set out at 3 a.m. to comb the slopes of the 10,170-foot Creux Noir (Black Hollow) mountain for Christian Destrumelle, 17, and Alain Blancy, 16. The two were missing yesterday when rescuers found the body of Father Henry Windelachmitt, leader of the group.

Red Tape No. 1 Strain

Medicare Effect Eyed

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the first of a two-part series on the effects of Medicare in the Pontiac area.)

By L. GARY THORNE
Medicare, the infant federal program to provide health care for the nation's over-65 population, has produced more red tape than it has patients at Pontiac's three general hospitals.

The strain has not been on hospital beds, but on the patience of hospital business office personnel.

"And this is what we expected," local hospital authorities comment.

Hospital officials point out that as an industrial town the bulk of Pontiac's elder citizens were being taken care of before Medicare took effect July 1.

Most Pontiac area senior citizens had some form of hospital insurance or qualified for state, county or federal welfare programs.

"No one was being turned away," explained Jack Whitlow, assistant administrator at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Meanwhile, Medicare has assumed some of the financial load formerly carried by welfare agencies.

For example, Harold B. Euler, Pontiac General Hospital Administrator, estimates the number of patients on county welfare has been cut in half.

Euler said this also was expected.

394 PATIENTS

During the first month of Medicare, local hospitals treated 394 Medicare patients.

Syria, Israel Poise for New Clashes

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — [for any new Israeli aggression.] Syria and Israel threatened to clash anew today after Monday's three-hour battle at the Sea of Galilee. The situation along their border was described as tense.

In Tel Aviv, the Israeli army chief of staff, Gen. Izhak Rabin, said Syria "will never again complain to the United Nations or be in a defensive position."

In Damascus, army and government spokesmen said Syrian forces were poised to hit beyond their armistice line "in retaliation for attacking planes."

Effect of Medicare Viewed

But what of the strain on the business office?

LONGER TIME

Euler said it takes five times as long to bill a Medicare patient as a patient covered by Blue Cross-Blue Shield or a private insurance carrier.

"We need to mechanize the billing procedure," said Euler.

He said that the hospital had added one clerk to help handle the increased clerical work.

Pontiac Osteopathic also reports adding a clerk because of Medicare, while St. Joseph Mercy Hospital has added the equivalent of one clerk through reassignment.

Hospital office workers also have a variety of forms to fill out and submit to Medicare authorities.

Bills have been submitted, but only one of the hospitals has yet to collect on Medicare.

"The biggest problem is processing the paper," said Bernard T. Resnowski, associate administrator of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

He said the government does not permit machine billing for Medicare patients.

Area Slaying Brings a Life Term for Teen

An 18-year-old sailor from Flint was sentenced yesterday to life imprisonment for the slaying of a Southfield businessman, a big scrap appeared to be shaping up, no contact had been reported since noon yesterday.

Air Force B52 bombers struck today at suspected Viet Cong storage sites and troop concentrations 75 miles northeast of Saigon in War Zone C near the Cambodian border.

In the dogfight, the Navy planes from the carrier Oriskany were attacking a North Vietnamese strike about 20 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa, where the MIGs pounced on them.

The spokesman said the Navy bombers damaged four boxcars before they left the scene.

He said the Navy planes did not fire on the MIGs. The encounter lasted only a few minutes.

The strikes approached the record of 139 missions flown against the north earlier this month.

In South Viet Nam, ground action dwindled to light and scattered fighting.

Even in the central highlands where a big scrap appeared to be shaping up, no contact had been reported since noon yesterday.

The department said the U.S. Embassy in Bogota advised by telegram that Dubois had been found dead in his hotel room.

The department said it had no details.

Dubois was in Bogota to report on a meeting of presidents of three Latin American nations on a general program of economic cooperation.

80 Feared Dead off Morocco

Ship Jammed With Vacationists Sinks

AGADIR, Morocco (UPI) — A fishing trawler jammed with women and children on a pleasure voyage sank off the coast of this Moroccan town yesterday. Officials said today more than 80 persons were feared dead.

Authorities said the victims were among women and children invited aboard the local trawler fleet for a vacation cruise celebrating the Roman Catholic feast of the assumption.

Too many turned out for the outing and were crammed aboard the trawlers almost shoulder to shoulder, police said.

The name of the trawler that sank was not known immediately, but authorities said "more than 100" persons were believed on board when it went down.

By early today, five bodies had been recovered and 14 persons had been rescued and were in a local hospital.

RESCUES HAMPERED

Rescue operations last night were hampered by the fact word of the sinking did not reach Agadir until after sundown.

Officials said the trawler appeared to have sunk from overloading rather than from any other cause.

Newspaper Shuts Down in New York

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Herald Tribune, heir to the journalistic legacy of Horace Greeley and James Gordon Bennett, is dead.

The end of the Herald Tribune, which has not published for a week, was announced Monday by the World Journal Tribune, Inc., the new publishing firm incorporating the Herald Tribune, the World-Telegram & Sun and the Journal-American.

Mat Meyer, president of the new company, said the publishers planned to go ahead with new afternoon and Sunday papers. Labor difficulties have kept all the planned new papers from being published since the merger was announced last April.

Westmoreland's directive followed a series of mistakes U.S. or allied bombings on Vietnamese villagers during the past week.

Since last Tuesday, three incidents of apparently mistaken attacks on villagers were reported.

Springfield Twp. Site Will Add to Network

A federal grant of $13,535 to Oakland County was approved today, matching the county's cost for the purchase of a 67-acre park site in Springfield Township.

Output of '66 Cars Is Below 1965 Record

DETROIT (AP) — The U.S. auto industry completed its 1966 model output last week and reported a total output second only to that of record 1965.

All told, 8,611,928 of the '66's were built compared with 8,649,022 in the previous model year.

A number of auto plants were already starting their 1967 production runs last week as '67 models accounted for 5,895 of the 10,771 automobiles built. These figures were down from 10,321 and 15,427 in the same week a year ago.

Production so far in August totaled 29,198, and output for the calendar year reached 5,412,633, compared with 5,067,507 at this point last year.

The industry, though lagging behind 1965 totals so far, plans a faster start in new-model output. Schedules call for manufacture of 787,000 of the '67's in August and September, compared with 565,000 of the 1966 models in the same two months last year.

Tentative plans call for production of 628,000 cars in September, compared with 495,655 in the year-ago month.

Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. grabbed a larger share of the market in the '66 run at the expense of General Motors and American Motors Corp.

GM dropped 0.55 per cent, but still accounted for 52.96 per cent of the 1966 autos produced. Ford rose 1.01 per cent to 23.34. Chrysler gained 0.53 to 15.94. AMC dropped 0.99 to 2.98.

Judgeship Tally Change Made

One change in the position of the six winning candidates for Circuit Court Judge was reported this morning by the Oakland County Board of Canvassers, but it didn't change the final outcome.

Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCullum moved up from the sixth to fifth spot with 12,601 votes, displacing Royal Oak attorney John N. O'Brien who received 12,519 votes.

Unofficial totals following the Aug. 2 primary had given McCullum 12,495 votes and O'Brien, 12,509.

Revisions also were announced in the votes of the four other circuit judge nominees.

According to the canvass, William Beasley received 27,944 votes, up 48; Farrell E. Roberts, 22,866, up 25; St. Jerome Bronson, 22,742, up 44; and Robert L. Templin, 15,341, down 112.

The results of the complete canvass were to be announced this afternoon.

Dirksen Plan Lifts Hopes for Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A compromise proposal by Sen. Everett M. Dirksen may break ground for Senate passage of the controversial civil rights bill.

Dirksen, the Senate Republican leader, put his staff to work today drafting a possible substitute for the open housing provision of the House-passed bill. He has contended this section, which bans racial discrimination in the sale or rental of housing but excludes home and small apartment owners, is unconstitutional.

Instead, Dirksen told reporters he thinks there should be a two-year study of what the federal government can do toward eliminating such discrimination without impinging on property rights.

"You don't hit on a solution overnight or off the top of your head in a matter as complicated as this," he said.

Fatal Flight Leads to Firing

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Air Force colonel has been fired from his post for approving a commercial picture-taking mission June 9 in which ace test pilot Joseph S. Walker and another flier were killed.

Secretary of the Air Force Harold Brown, announcing the disciplinary action Monday, also said written reprimands have been or will be given to three other officials involved in the mission resulting in the crash of the $400-million XB70 and an F104 chase plane in California. In a memorandum to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Brown said the photographic mission was of "questionable propriety" and did not follow the letter and spirit of existing guidelines.

Besides Walker, who was piloting the F104, Maj. Carl S. Cross, copilot of the XB70, also was killed. Walker was holder of the world's altitude and speed records.

RELIEVED OF DUTIES
Brown said Col. Albert W. Cate has been relieved of his duties as deputy for systems tests in the XB70 programs. An Air Force spokesman said Cate was reassigned to the Contract Management Division of the Air Force Systems Command at the Los Angeles Air Force Station.

Receiving the reprimands are Col. Joe Cotton, test force director; Col. James G. Smith, information director for the Air Force Flight Test Center at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., and John S. McCollom, director of research vehicles in the Air Force Systems Command at Wright Patterson AFB, Ohio. None was available for comment.

One purpose of the flight was to fulfill a picture-making request by General Electric, which made the engines of both the XB70 and the F104. Also in the formation were an Air Force T38 acting as a chase aircraft, a Navy F4 and an Air Force F5. The pictures were being taken by a Lear jet contracted by General Electric.

Brown said the flight was properly authorized, except for the photographic mission. He said the flight originally was to include air speed calibration runs and familiarization for Cross, a new copilot making his first XB70 flight.

"The most probable cause of the crash, Brown said, 'is that the pilot of the F104 inadvertently allowed his aircraft to move into a position relative to the XB70 from which recovery was virtually impossible.'"

BOUQUET OF BLUES—When Carol Heinzenberger leaped for the bridal bouquet at her brother's recent wedding, she got more than she bargained for. Flowers in hand, the 27-year-old Columbus, Ohio, schoolteacher fell and broke her foot. Earlier she had run out of gas on the drive to Buffalo, N.Y., for the ceremony. And two days after the mishap, Carol turned down a marriage proposal. "The whole thing appeared jinxed," she said.

Reuther Supports Bill Insuring Pension Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The president of the United Auto Workers Union is supporting a bill designed to make sure that benefits of private pension plans are paid even if a company goes out of business.

Walter P. Reuther told the Senate Finance Committee Monday that "with the tremendous expansion of private pension plans in America and their development as a flexible and significant secondary source of retirement income, the security of the pension promise which they represent to millions of wage earners has clearly become a matter of vital public concern."

CONSIDERING MEASURE

The finance committee is considering the bill introduced by Sen. Vance Harke, D-Ind. He said it was inspired by the loss of pension rights of many Studebaker Corp. employees when that company closed its South Bend, Ind., plants in 1964.

Harke's bill proposes to establish a self-supporting federal reinsurance program for private pension plans, somewhat similar to the government's bank deposit insurance.

Reuther said, the UAW "has had direct experience with 113 pension plan terminations."

Novi Gets Bid on Cityhood

Petition Certification Next; Action Is Slated

NOVI — The village council unanimously passed a resolution last night that new petitions for incorporation of a home rule city be filed with the village clerk for certification.

The council would act on the petitions at its regular meeting on Sept. 19.

C. A. Smith, representing the Committee for the City of Novi, presented the petitions, which will replace petitions already on file calling for incorporation of the village into a fourth-class city.

In delivering the new petitions, Smith said his committee had studied the previous petitions, which they had also sponsored and found that a fourth-class city was not advisable.

A fourth-class city does not provide for home rule or a city manager.

HOME RULE

The new petitions specify no city class but stipulate that the new city would have home rule.

Village Attorney Howard Bond, in advising the council to accept the resolution, said that a 30-day period is required for certification of the new petitions.

Bond also told the council that village land could not be annexed while the petitions are being examined.

If the village should incorporate, only the 2 per cent of the township's land area that is now separate from the village would remain outside city control.

PREVENTIVE ACTION

Smith has said that his committee is sponsoring the incorporation to prevent annexation of parts of the village by neighboring cities.

Last November, the committee filed petitions for a fifth-class city which would have home rule, but Oakland County Court Judge Arthur E. Moore ruled them illegal.

Moore said the village did not meet the state statute requiring that the area must contain at least 500 persons per square mile to qualify for home rule.

Slaying Exam in Second Day

The examination of a youth charged with murdering a 61-year-old Romeo woman continued into its second day today.

James Prince, 21, of 315 Chrysler, Bruce Township, has been charged by Macomb County Prosecutor George Paris with first-degree murder in the Aug. 4 stabbing of Mrs. John Riemann of 70790 Van Dyke, Romeo.

He is being examined in Mount Clemens Justice Court by Justice of the Peace Edmund Schmidt.

Prince was a former employee of Mrs. Riemann, co-owner of Riemann's Nursery.

Utica Firm Is Awarded Contract for Troy Sewer Construction

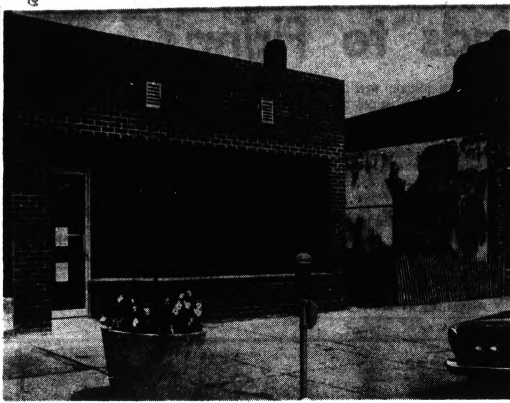

TROY — The City Commission last night awarded a contract for the construction of sanitary sewers along Beech Lane, Kirkton, Stephenson and Square Lake roads.

Ric-Man Construction, Inc., of Utica won the contract with a low bid of $91,864.

Work on the Square Lake Road sewer, said City Manager Paul York, will begin almost immediately.

He said the facility must be finished by early September because the Miles Elementary School would not be able to open without it.

The project will be financed by a bond issue to be paid for over a 10-year period by property

REBUILDING AGENCY — The Parrish Insurance Agency, one of five Oxford businesses wiped out in a disastrous fire Jan. 31, will soon be relocated in a new building on

Gravel Pit Discussion to Resume

WHITE LAKE TOWNSHIP — A discussion of the controversial Ormond Road gravel pit will continue tonight at the Township Board meeting.

Operations at the abandoned pit may resume soon if the board votes to grant a permit to an anonymous client represented by Attorney Joseph Kosik.

Plans are to work and improve the area and to build a subdivision on the property in the future.

Borings have been made in the area between the pit and White Lake to determine whether renewed mining operations at the pit would affect the lake level.

At tonight's meeting, the results of the study should be available and the permit request will be reviewed.

NOISE, DUST

Residents of the area are also concerned about the amount of noise, dust and traffic that the operation would produce.

The White Lake Citizens leads the strongest opposition to renewed operations of the pit. Arleigh Hess, president of the league, has said that the group would seek a court injunction if necessary to halt mining activity in the pit.

A township ordinance prohibits mining more than 10 acres of land at a time and specifies that it must be restored before operations continue.

Hess has maintained that this ordinance has not been complied with in the past and that there is no reason to suspect that future operators will pay any closer attention to it.

DOUBLE SIZE

If operations should be allowed to resume, Hess has said that the pit would no doubt double in size.

Kosik has said that his client is prepared to post a security bond large enough to cover any possible bankruptcy or failure to comply with the agreement.

The board's report on this activity should be available at tonight's meeting.

Township Supervisor Edward Cheyz said last week the board planned to visit other area gravel pits and inspect their operations.

The board's report on this activity should be available at tonight's meeting.

Teacher Pact Up for Vote

HOLLY — Members of the Holly Education Association will meet Saturday at Holly Elementary School for a ratification vote on their new fall contract.

Jerry Glenn, president of the teachers' group, said an agreement was reached between the negotiating teams representing the board and the teachers after an eight-hour bargaining session Friday night.

Both Glenn and Supt. Russell D. Haddon declined to give details of the agreement until the ratification vote is completed. Glenn said he was "very happy" with the results and believed it was a "good contract."

Both Glenn and Haddon said that the resulting agreement represented a compromise between the two sides.

Haddon said that although the teachers got their salary raises, the total agreement stayed within the approved budget.

ASK MEDIATION

At the end of July the teachers voted to seek labor mediation by a Michigan Education Association (MEA) consultant.

Glenn said the consultant, William Owens, and an MEA mediator, Stanley Deby, were present during the last negotiation sessions.

Haddon said the board is expected to take a ratification vote next Monday.

Included in the agreement are a new salary schedule and fringe benefits, such as hospitalization and terminal leave.

The present salary schedule includes a starting salary of $5,300 with a maximum of $7,500 after 10 years for teachers with bachelor's degrees.

Teachers with master's degrees now receive a starting salary of $5,600 with a maximum of $8,100 after 10 years.

3 Districts to Vote on Millage Hikes

Voters in three southern LaPeer County school districts on Sept. 26 will be asked to approve school board requests for millage hikes.

The 1m1ay City school board is seeking two additional mills for operating purposes for three years.

The proposed increase would be in addition to five extra mills already levied for the coming school year. The five-mill levy is due to expire next June.

An identical request was turned down by voters on the June 13 ballot by a 344-317 margin.

Since that time the board has decided to make a number of cutbacks to help balance the budget.

Items such as two extra teachers, a temporary classroom, purchase of one bus and camps, field trips and salaries for board of education members will be dropped from the budget.

Voters in the Almont school district will decide on two millage proposals:

- Five mills for three years starting in December, 1967.
- Two mills for two years starting in December 1967.

The proposals represent a net increase of four mills since a three mill levy now in effect will expire in December.

Schools Superintendent Walter Walborn said the funds will be used to operate the Almont Community School and staff its new $1-million addition, scheduled to open early next year.

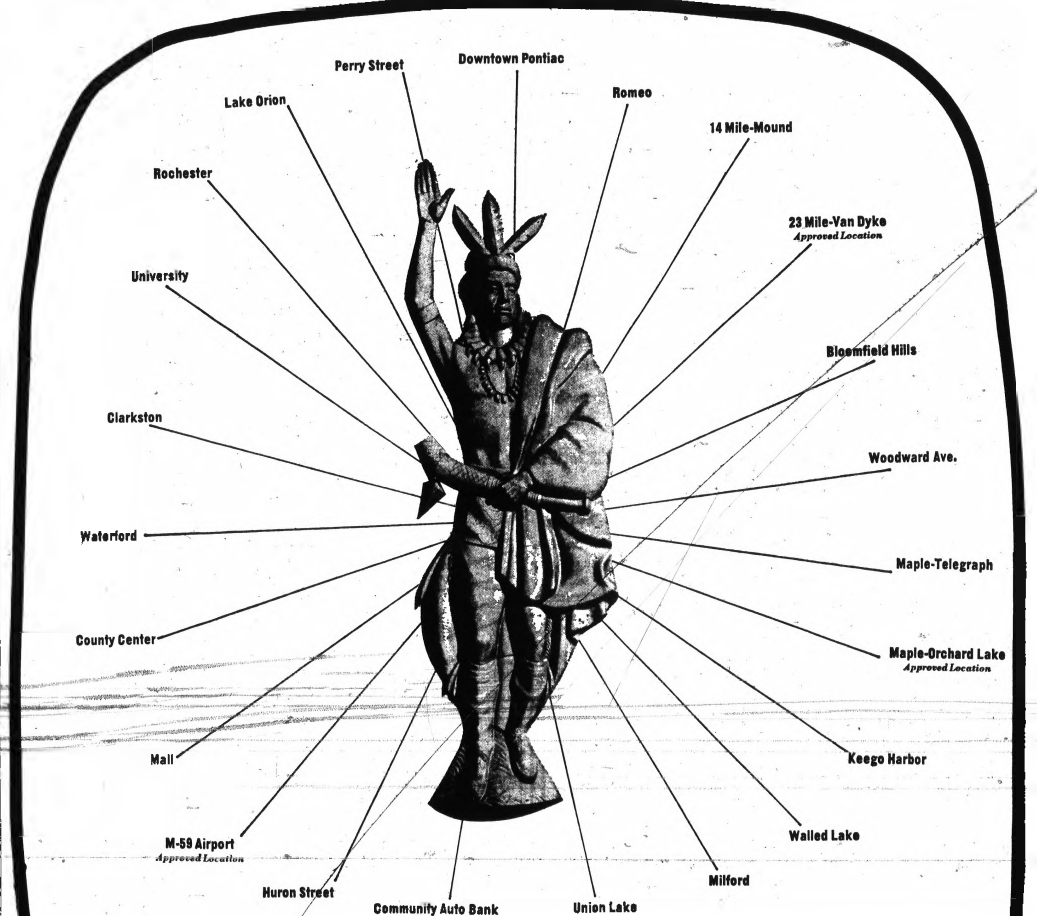

The Dryden school board is asking for 2.5 mills for one year to pay for the building and site of the new addition to the Dryden Community School. The addition has been open since fall of last year.

Correction

It was incorrectly reported in yesterday's Pontiac Press that Mr. and Mrs. Russell O. Williams of 2885 Melvin, Avon Township, were killed in a Sunday auto accident in Wayne County.

The accident victims were Russell O. Williams Jr. and his wife, Gloria Jean, of 650 N. Rochester in Addison Township.

Frauds Fly Junior Achievement Flag

Many good causes offer a fertile field for racketeering.

One such that has come to light is the splendid Junior Achievement movement with the fine training it provides the youth of America in handicraft and the merchandising of the fruits of their labors.

Regrettably, the legitimate door-to-door sales program of Junior Achievement has been invaded by phonies who recruit youngsters with visions of sizable commissions for selling assorted items procured from sources other than those recognized by J.A.

Inevitably the hopeful salesmen and the cooperative purchasers share disillusionment when commissions fail to meet promises and the products prove inferior.

To protect well-disposed householders against this racket, it should be known that the Junior Achievement program is in operation from October to May only. Anyone posing as a J.A. representative during the interim is a counterfeit on the face of it.

Moreover, all Junior Achievement articles offered for sale bear a J.A. identification sticker and bona fide salespersons carry a J.A. credential—which they should be asked to show. As further protection to potential purchasers of ANY merchandise from door-to-door solicitors, a Pontiac ordinance requires them to have licenses approved by the police department.

If both goods and canvasser fail these simple tests, the prospect would do well to notify the area Junior Achievement headquarters, VE 8-4660, or the local police department.

David Lawrence Says:

Airline Union's Strike Paid Off

WASHINGTON—It certainly pays to strike. The National Machinists Union brushed aside the findings of a presidential board, voted down a contract agreed to by the union negotiators, and challenged Congress, which then became reluctant and afraid to pass remedial legislation.

LAWRENCE

The machinists came out better than if they had accepted any of the offers or contracts submitted to them during the long strike period. The presidential board gave its approval to a formula that would have cost the airlines approximately $67 million on a three-year schedule.

Then the labor-union representatives approved a settlement amounting to about $74 million on a three-year basis, but this was rejected by the members.

Now the union has obtained a settlement estimated to total $90 million for three years, or close to $100 million over a period of 3½ years.

It will be seen that the escalation during the strike went from around $67 million to approximately $100 million. This is only $14 million less than the original demands made by the labor side.

The union is inclined to play down the amount of the benefits to be received, and estimates the original demand was only about $89 million. But even this is far more than the labor leaders would have gotten if they had settled on the proposal made by the government or if the members had accepted the contract for $74 million voted down by a referendum on July 31.

Which ever way it is viewed, the union won more by ignoring the government's proposals and the pressure behind it than would have been the case if the union had yielded to the administration's appeals.

This will doubtless furnish a significant pattern to major unions which start big strikes and then are faced with government pressure to settle quickly "in the public interest."

The fact remains that the country has just witnessed a successful strike in which the machinists union won a big victory and obtained a large financial reward, even though it was indifferent to the public interest and carried on a strike that cost the companies involved a lot of money. (Copyright, 1966, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate)

Bob Considine Says:

Books on Assassination Stir Troubling Thoughts

NEW YORK — Lee Harvey Oswald was arrested Friday afternoon, Nov. 22, 1963, and was killed at midday Nov. 24. During much of the intervening time, he was questioned by Dallas police, the FBI and probably the Secret Service.

CONSIDINE

Aside from a now almost forgotten announcement that he had denied shooting President Kennedy there has never been any detailed account of what he was asked and what he answered.

Had Oswald lived and gone to trial it is questionable if even a Dallas court could have found him guilty on the same evidence that was employed to indict him as the murderer in the Warren Report.

As Warren Commission attorney Alfreda Sobey pointed out in her article, "A Lawyer's Notes on the Warren Commission's Report," printed in the American Bar Association Journal, the damaging testimony made to the commission by Oswald's widow would not have been admissible in a criminal case.

These troubling thoughts stir each time another book on the assassination appears. "Today we have 'Rush to Judgment,' by Mark Lane, a critique of the Warren Commission's inquiry into the murders of President John F. Kennedy, officer J. D. Tippit and Lee Harvey Oswald." It is published by Holt, Rinehart and Winston.

Lane testified twice before the Warren Commission and volunteered to serve as attorney for Oswald's mother.

Like two preceding books, "White Wash" by Harold Weisberg, privately printed, and Edward Jay Epstein's better known "Inquest" (Viking Press), Lane's thesis leans heavily on the contradiction between FBI and official Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital accounts of the autopsy, and on the all but incredible rapidity with which the assassin got off three shots at moving targets.

Lane has come forth with 460 pages of text, diagrams and documents to back up his contention that there is something wrong with the commission's report that one man, Oswald, did it, with one old gun and three bullets — one of which missed — fired in 2.3 seconds.

Mob Violence Slows Progress

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
WASHINGTON (NEA) — Signs multiply from coast to coast that both whites and Negroes are misreading the real prospects which confront them in this country.

On the Negro side, all too few leaders realize — and virtually none dares acknowledge publicly — that there is not going to be anything approaching "freedom now" for millions of deprived Negroes.

The better jobs, schools and housing they seek are going to come slowly. Open revolt may seem better and there is speed action but the calamitous events in the big cities since 1964 suggest it is more likely to impede it.

As for the majority whites, they are deluding themselves if they imagine that serious change on the racial front can be deferred past their lifetimes. Today's 20 million Negroes will soon be 25 million, and then 30 million. Their presence — and their problems — cannot be wished away with a wand.

Far too many Negro leaders have raised Negro expectations miles beyond the practical prospect for early fulfillment. They — and some of their sympathetic white friends — have left to a

A leather jacket wears a whole lot better than frail human skin. I am in favor of these items being worn.

However, I believe the state is overstepping its authority by making it mandatory. Why isn't there a law that seat belts must be fastened while automobiles are in motion?

I don't believe a traffic ticket for this sort of violation would stand up in court, if someone were to contest it. How can you fine a person for not wearing a particular type of apparel, even if it is for his own protection?

Computer's Slip Shows in Theater's Seat Goof

As we humans know, these are tough times for us.

We are being outsmarted, outperformed, outstutted and outdared by machines.

It is heartening, therefore, to read that a big smart aleck of a computer at Lincoln Center's Repertory Theater in New York fouled up the assignment of seats for the theater's almost 40,000 subscribers so thoroughly that it took human beings three months to unscramble the mess.

So the theater did a daring thing. It hired a young girl (at much less cost) to do the job the computer couldn't handle. And she's handling it!

Similar incidents have been reported by other organizations and companies.

Now, the computer isn't about to be discarded as incompetent. It's obviously here to stay — and, we suspect, to grow and grow and grow.

But we mere humans wouldn't be human if we didn't gloat a little. And that's another thing no stuffy old computer can do!

Fanaticism Dies Hard in China

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — The Red Chinese wrote a fairy tale over the weekend.

No group in history ever faced a more gruesome, gigantic or frustrating task than the Chinese Reds when they took over their country in 1949 and had to rush it and 700 million people out of antiquity in a hurry.

They have made tremendous progress, led by men like Mao Tse-tung, who for years were fanatic in their zeal to do what they finally had a chance to do.

Now they are old but still fanatic, for this was the only way of life they knew and it is too late for change. This has been the history of others, like Stalin.

Others in China realized rigidity is the condition of a corpse and change a condition of life: that in time through the evolutionary process political parties adjust to change like bananas, crocodiles and people.

Early this month the Chinese Communist party's Central Committee met for 12 days and then issued a communique which sounded in part like something from another world.

The fairy tale was in the euphoria about economic, agricultural and industrial successes. No doubt Red China was moving forward. But you would never guess it had any setbacks, made any mistakes. It had to have them, with its vast problems. It simply did not admit them.

There was one thing you would guess: it is being careful about trying a second "great leap forward." It tried a "great leap" in 1958 — under Mao's prodding, a radical collectivization of farm and factory — that turned into a great disaster.

The bitter break with the Soviet Union looks deeper than ever.

Yet, there was a pathetic sense of loneliness and reaction about the communique for more reasons than one:

• Red China built itself up as the leader of the world Communist movement, knowing as it did so, that one by one other countries were beginning to look on her dubiously or breaking away.

• The whole communique is a groveling, cringing, deification of a man, Mao, which makes an obscenity of all other intellects in China because, compared with his, all others look like trash.

In effect the Chinese people are being taken down the most reactionary of all roads. Instead of being urged to seek new values, insights and understandings they are being told the answers are all in and in all their history only three men have had them: Mao, Marx, and Lenin.

LANSING (AP) — Greater understanding of Michigan labor laws and better negotiation skills—not more legislation—are needed to settle teacher contract disputes, the State Educational Council said Monday.

The council is a legislation-oriented committee made up of representatives from educational organizations and sponsored by the State Department of Education.

The council said it believed that the recent rash of teacher strikes resulted from an unfamiliarity with the collective bargaining process, rather than a weakness in state labor laws.

"In the first year of negotiations under amended laws providing for collective bargaining in a majority of cases, school employee organizations and school boards have agreed on satisfactory contracts without great difficulty," said Ira Polley, state superintendent of public instruction.

Regional workshops, courses and seminars on bargaining procedures for employees and administrators this year are expected to help both sides, he said.

2 Legal Questions Raised

Wayne County Judges Approve Probe

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne County's circuit judges Monday approved creation of a grand jury to probe Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley's charges of corruption among public officials and violations of racing laws at the Detroit Race Course.

Twenty-one judges approved the jury after debating secretly for 2½ hours. Three other judges were absent, although two mailed in votes.

The judges also decided to seek Michigan Supreme Court rulings on two questions before a grand juror is considered.

One query will be whether the bench legally can order a grand jury to begin work Sept. 1. The term of a one-man grand jury headed by Judge Edward S. Piggins will expire Aug. 31.

FALSE REPORTS

The next question is whether Piggins can be named to conduct the new investigation for a new six-month term.

Kelley's petition charged that "certain persons, either as candidates or treasurers of political committees," filed false campaign expenses.

He said a number of public officials have been bribed to prevent enforcement of laws against gambling and prostitution.

Kelley charged that a number of public officials have accepted payoffs for favors, including appointments to jobs.

Kelley accused unidentified officers and employees of the Michigan Racing Commission and in races.

Trial Is Ordered for Buback and Chief Assistant

GROSSE POINTE (AP)—Wayne County Sheriff Peter Buback and his chief assistant will have to stand trial on charges of willful neglect of duty, Municipal Judge Douglas Lee Paterson ruled Monday.

Paterson, who conducted the preliminary hearing of Buback and Undersheriff James Bonmarito, said he found reason to believe there might be validity in four charges brought against the two by Circuit Judge Edward Piggins, sitting as a one-man grand juror.

Piggins charged the two defendants knew about traffic ticket fixing, appointment of honorary deputies with criminal records, and sale by deputies of lottery tickets and tickets to testimonial dinners for Buback.

Judge Joseph Sam Perry continued for 30 days a restraining order which the company obtained Aug. 7, a few hours after a sudden walkout.

Board Denies License for Junk Yard Operation

The Waterford Township Board last night unanimously denied a request for a scrap iron license for a junk yard operation at 2242 Edinburgh.

In moving to reject the license proposal, Clerk Elmer Fangbomer asserted the junk yard—reportedly already operating—is in violation of a township ordinance since it is located within 500 feet of residences.

Operators Cecil Cordell and Floyd Shear will be given 14 days to remove vehicles on the property and to cease operations, observed township officials.

Trustee Loren Anderson, who lives on Edinburgh, said residents were "very negative" toward the operation.

Previously, the township planning commission had given special approval for the business on the general industrial zoned property near Grand Trunk

Western Railroad tracks, but did not consider the license request.

STIPULATIONS

The commission's decision was based on whether the operator abided by stipulations prohibiting burning on the property, requiring installation of an eight-foot high fence around the operation and limiting the number of cars to 50 at any one time.

In other business, the board granted final plat approval for Whitehorse Lakes Estates Subdivision, located on Airport Road just south of Pontiac Lake Road.

The subdivision consists of 21 lots. Einal plat approval was recommended unanimously by the planning commission last week.

Also approved was a request to rezone from local business to single family residential a lot in Meniwaters Subdivision and 30 feet of vacated Moccasin Trail.

RECOMMENDED

The proposal prior to last night had been recommended for approval by the township commission and the Oakland County Coordinating Zoning and Planning Committee.

The board appointed four members of the township pension committee to join Treasurer James Schell who automatically became a member when the retirement system for township employees was adopted last week.

Named were township residents, Walter Lagerquist, who conducted a study on the plan, James E. Seeterlin, former township supervisor, and employees E. R. Lawson and Alfred E. Beanblossom.

The committee is vested with the authority to administer, manage and operate the retirement system.

TERM IN OFFICE

Lagerquist will serve a three-year term, Seeterlin and Lawson two years and Beanblossom one year.

The board approved a request by the police department for four officers to receive pay in lieu of vacation time.

Proposed because of a "pressing work load," the request eliminates a combined six weeks of vacation time.

Tabled until Aug. 29 was a request of the recreation and community school advisory board, asking the township to purchase school-owned property fronting on Loon Lake for development of a park.

LAKE FRONTAGE

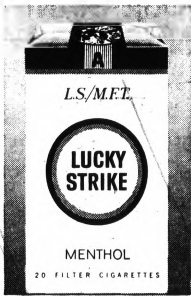

The 13-acre property includes 750 feet of lake frontage and lies behind Mason Junior High School off Walton Boulevard.

Cost of the property is about $30,000. The board of education has set up a Sept. 1 deadline for the township to buy the land.

The recreation and community school advisory board requested the issue be moved back to the Aug. 29 agenda.

At that time, a progress report will be made on efforts to solicit financial help from township organizations toward purchase of the land.

Railroad Asks Study of City Grade Project

A proposal to make a preliminary study of possible construction of a grade separation at Johnson and the Grand Trunk Western Railroad tracks tops the lengthy City Commission agenda tonight.

The commission is to receive a letter from Grand Trunk proposing that the city and railroad company split the cost of the study.

Estimated cost of the study is $22,500. The city's share would come from state gas and weight tax money for major streets.

The engineering firm of Harley, Ellington, Corwin and Strickland, Inc., of Detroit, is proposed to make the study.

In other business, the commission is to receive a lengthy list of rezoning recommendations from the City Planning Commission.

Most of the rezoning items were given denial recommendations at the last planning commission session.

County Board to Decide if 3 Issues Go on Ballot

The Oakland County Board of Supervisors tomorrow will determine whether a proposed election issue that would raise $13 million in the next 10 years for park development should be put to the people.

Board members also will decide if two proposals by the City of Farmington to annex 2,357 acres of Farmington Township land should be voted on Nov. 8.

The election proposal calling for 1/2 mill over 10 years for parks was recommended by the board of supervisors' ways and means committee.

Long-range plans, hinging on the millage proposal, call for development of 45 to 50 recreational centers throughout the county.

The $13 million in local funds raised over 10 years would be used for land acquisition, development and operation. Matching federal and state funds would bring the total park fund to about $30 million.

2 PROPOSALS

Proposed by the City of Farmington are one election issue for annexation of 1,800 acres of township land and another to take over 457 township acres.

Both proposals were recommended yesterday by the supervisors' boundaries committee for the Nov. 8 election.

Also scheduled for board consideration tomorrow is a proposed lease agreement between the county and Oakland Schools.

It calls for a 99-year lease of a 20-acre parcel in the county service center to the school system in exchange for the present school district facility which the county will use.

Noted Musician Injured in Fall

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Orchestra conductor Otto Klemperer, 81, underwent hip surgery today after a fall on the steps of a St. Moritz hotel.

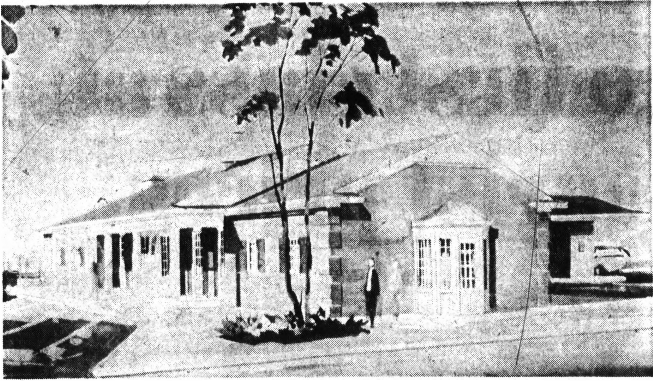

Doctors said the German-born conductor was in a satisfactory condition and is expected to leave his bed in two weeks.

Assault Exam Set for 4 Youths

Preliminary examination on $100 personal bond following a charge of felonious assault is scheduled for Aug. 24 for four youths accused of beating a police with assaulting Catherine Carpenter, 41, of 178 Chamberlain and Russell McLaughlin, 30, of 4983 Dixie, Waterford Township, about 2 a.m. in front of the Carpenter home.

The two, who said they were struck with clubs and beer bottles, were treated at St. Joseph (Iac) Township, were freed on Mercy Hospital and released.

Compositions Reflect Spanish Mood

By MADEIRA DOEREN
Spanish-born Carlos Surinach's "Melorhythmic Dramas" will have its world premiere performance with the Detroit Symphony at the Meadow Brook Festival concert in Baldwin Pavilion this evening.

Titles of the seven dramas which make up the work, played in 21 minutes without interruption are: (1) Fervid; (2) Festive; (3) Poignant; (4) Tragic; (5) Voluptuous; (6) Vehement and (7) Mournful.

"I write all music without dogma... not attached to any special school or tendency, but I use them all according to the needs of the impact on the audience," says the composer. "I write for the audience rather than pretending that the audience reaches me."

SPANISH INFLUENCE

Carlos Surinach has lived in New York City since 1951 but his music has continued to reflect a Spanish influence. He studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Berlin and composed works with a German technique and Spanish blood... a most unusual marriage he says.

His recordings for M-G-M in 1950 ran the gamut of chamber music, orchestral work and solos.

"To my great surprise," he said, "choreographers became interested in my work and ballets began to be born of my music that was not written for ballet."

"Some critics call my work 'optical music.' My next work will be for ballet with story, scenery and costumes by Salvador Dali, one of the founders of the surrealist school of painting."

"After conducting for the Barcelona Philharmonic, I moved to Paris in 1947 and from that time until I came to America, my appearances as a conductor of major European orchestras developed my memory. This is very important in composing and helps one to visualize the ultimate shape of the work at hand."

The preface to the score of the "Dramas" to be heard tonight reads "Through verse, prose, music, dance, or whatever may be, drama is a performed event involving intense conflict of forces.

"Effect, action, artifice and contrasts are part of it. To give a feeling of drama a theatrical trend is not compulsory. Pure melorhythmic music (and its orchestra technique) may have the power to express dramatic emotions without yielding to human deeds or stage situations."

Surinach who is a very personable bachelor, feels that American women are completely different psychologically from women in other lands. "American women speak with authority and on a high cultural level... with freedom and understanding," he says. "The foreign women, regardless of their work, are much less professional than the American fair sex."

When asked about his reaction as a member of the audience when his work is being performed, he admits no misgivings, especially when an extraordinary conductor like Sixten Ehrling wields the baton.

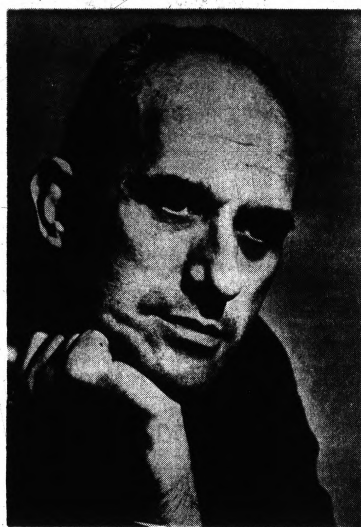

"How well the composition travels, so to speak, depends on the calculations, balances and achievement of vehicle in the score," he said.

Surinach says he is "an office man" in a sense, beginning his work six days a week about 10 a.m. There's a luncheon break and he calls it a day about 5 p.m.

He played basketball as a boy in Spain and swims whenever and wherever he can. The stage is his first love, after music, and he prefers American authors for theater. He is deeply interested in fine paintings.

He spends about five months a year in Europe visiting in Spain, Germany and England. He has recently been named visiting professor in music composition at the Carnegie Institute of Technology.

A symphonic essay "Markings" by Ulysses Kay, native of Tucson, Ariz., will also have its world premiere on Thursday evening and on Saturday night, Rogers Sessions' "Montezuma Suite" will be heard.

Women Find High Income in Insurance Agency Positions

By GAY PALLEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK — Opportunity knocks for women in insurance careers.

There are women agents making as high as $50,000 a year. There are those who work at it part-time to add a few extra thousand a year to family income.

"The rewards I get out of the business are in proportion to what I put into it," says Dorothy Bialosky of Cleveland, Ohio, an agent with Aetna Life & Casualty, headquartered in Hartford, Conn.

"My income is considerably higher than the average woman's and I have a freedom of operation that is unavailable to most business women."

Miss Bialosky in private life, Mrs. Manuel Eisner is one of the women who have worked to the top and is an eight-time winner of the insurance industry's National Quality Award.

Another firm, which didn't want its name used, bragged of one of its women agents whose annual earnings are $50,000 or more. For the last of each 10 consecutive years, she has sold $1 million or more in policies.

New York Life Insurance Co. spokesmen said the company has 28 women agents whose earnings each topped $10,000 a year. It has 57 women in the Women Leader's Round Table, an exclusive club whose members have sold $25,000 or more life insurance each year.

In all, there are 928 members of the round table, reported the Institute of Life Insurance. Some 278 of them have met the quota more than once.

The institute estimated there are 6,000 women insurance agents, most of them specializing in life insurance. The girls also have made their mark in the rarified company of actuaries — specialists in the complicated mathematics of the insurance business. The Society of Actuaries listed 56 women members, said the institute.

Mrs. Roger Smith, who will be matron of honor, will give a spinster to know at the home of her parents, the Robert Castells of East Iroquois Road.

On Friday evening the bride's parents will host an informal supper following the rehearsal at St. Vincent de Paul Church. Dennis William Day, the bride-elect's fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Day of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Miss Robinson Repeats Vows at Ceremony

For the ceremony performed by Rev. Henry S. Kreft, the bride wore a white silk organza and Chantilly lace gown featuring an Empire bodice. A double crown of crystal and pearls secured her veil and she carried a cascade of white roses.

Mrs. William Maxwell was matron of honor with bridesmaids Mrs. Michael Lewandowski and Barbara Robinson.

Average Person Desires Decent Mate for Nuptial Contract

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: My brother, who just came back from the Navy, told me that he and some of his buddies were talking around talking about what kind of girls they wanted to marry.

And out of 10 men said they wanted "nice, pure" girls. But what puzzles me is this: I just finished my sophomore year at college, and some of us girls were sitting around the sorority house talking about what kind of men we wanted for husbands, and almost all the girls said they wanted an "experienced" man. This doesn't add up. Or does it?

FRANKLY PUZZLED
DEAR PUZZLED: Regardless of what they say, in their hearts, decent men or women prefer other decent men or women when it comes to marriage. "Experience" can mean emotional maturity, proper motivation and sureness of purpose in a man, and not necessarily "skill through practice" in the art of lovemaking.

If it doesn't in this case, then your sorority sisters are talking clinical gibberish that would puzzle anybody. Including me. DEAR ABBY: My husband is a professional man and I know that he is attractive. I handle all the social arrangements. My problem is what to do about women who telephone my husband at his office on the pretense that they can't reach me at home.

My husband is a good, trustworthy man and when this happens he asks me to return the lady's call, and when I do she seems so crestfallen. I know that some women use this four-some get-together scheme to get next to somebody else's husband, but how does a wife combat it?

JUST THE WIFE
DEAR WIFE: She doesn't. She lets her husband field the wild ones. DEAR ABBY: How can I make my older sister realize that she is robbing herself and her husband of the joys of parenthood? They have been married for 11 years and are still childless, although I know they both love children.

I am sure the problem is my sister. She is so modest she won't even have a chest X-ray taken. W. E. Comstocks

Parents of the former Lilian Joy Young are Mrs. Edwin D. Jackson of Emerson Avenue and the late Charles R. Young.

The Elmer Comstocks of Cameron Street are the bridegroom's parents.

Shouldn't someone talk to her about it? She is 33 and her husband is 36 and they aren't getting any younger. She keeps saying, "One of these days I may go to a doctor." What do you think?

YOUNGER SISTER
DEAR SISTER: I think that when your sister becomes sufficiently concerned and eager to have a family, she will go to a doctor with no coaching from the sidelines.

DEAR ABBY: My mother says that you are the one I should write to because if you do, and I hope you do, of people might see it and change their ways.

I am 12 years old. My father is a waiter in a very well-known restaurant. He has always been a waiter. Could you please tell people that when they sneak out of a restaurant without paying their check the waiter who served them has to pay it.

My father has had to pay checks for people who walked off without paying while he was in the kitchen. I think this is just terrible. Some nights my father has had to work for nothing. Thank you for printing this, if you do, and I hope you do.

Teens Are Anxious to Know

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I am in high school and have often wondered what type of clothes to wear to what type of party. For example, what is the difference between casual and informal, white tie and black tie, etc.

Other girls must wonder what degree of formality each category requires. What should we wear when an invitation doesn't say anything about clothes? — Patricia O'Hara.

Dear Patricia: The terms vary according to locality, but I can give you a general idea. "Casual" means shorts or slacks or sports skirts. "Informal" means a short dress or shift, or a skirt. "Black tie" calls for a short or long evening dress, but it need not be very formal. It may, for instance, have sleeves and a high neck.

If it's "white tie" very narrow shoulder straps or a strapless. No indication is given on the invitation, it is wise to call the hostess and ask what clothes are in order.

Several weeks ago I printed a letter, and my answer, concerning people who take the conversational greeting, "How are you?" as a literal question and bore the listeners with a detailed account of exactly how they are.

Today, I'm following it up with a letter from a reader who objects to the question to start with. It needs no answer, really although I feel the writer should not take offense at the question, but accept it as it's intended, a casual form of greeting.

Dear Mrs. Post: I just read your thought on one asking "How are you?" as a greeting. I feel if they don't want to know of one's aches and pains, they shouldn't ask. Why can't they just say, "Well, hello, I am glad to see you!"

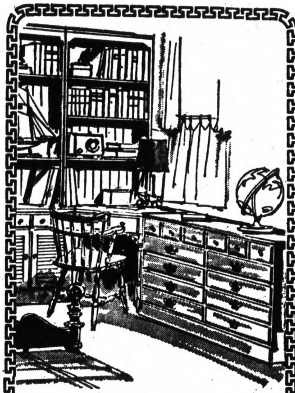

I am so sick of hearing people say "How are you?" or "How do you feel?" when I know they aren't interested. I tell them "I feel with my fingers."

In his third collection, Jean-Marie Armand displayed a four-layered woven fabric of "Orlon" acrylic and wool as seen here in purple and green. The medieval helmet repeats the purple color and angular look.

Maid of honor for the ceremony performed by Rev. Robert Shelton was Kathi Cross. Cheryl Dudley and Lindsey Griffeth were bridesmaids with flower girl Lori Jane Brinson.

Andy Pierucki was best man; ushers were Greg Russell and Dan VanBiariccom, all of Kalamazoo.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. After their honeymoon the bridegroom will enter college in Denver, Colo.

Christmas Shopping Money Gets Boost

By MARY FEELEY
Consultant in Money Management

Where is your Christmas shopping money going to come from this year? If you've been living right up to the hilt, with little more than good intentions, to put into savings, it's probably a question you'd rather duck for the time being.

But pull your head out of the money hole and consider this happy thought: those Social Security withholdings from your paycheck soon will be dropped for the rest of the year.

If, say, your annual income is $10,000, you've been contributing about $35 every month. You've completed your year's obligation this month. So next month's paycheck will be $34.99 faster — and so will those of October, November, and December.

Those with income of $8,000 will finish the year's Social Security withholdings in October, with two months "free." And the $12,000-income families have already been enjoying the financial easement since June. The maximum earning base of $6,600 for Social Security this year has meant that many families, making from $8,000 to $12,000, will have contributed $277.20 — or 4.2 per cent of income.

Now, with this tidy monthly increase about to come your way, be sure it does get lost in the shuffle of high living costs.

Label it specifically for your Christmas fund if you can. You've disciplined the family to live without this regular withholding, so just keep at it. Even a small monthly amount is not to be sneered at these days.

One way to make sure the extra money really counts is to start spending it now. And if that sounds like strange advice from me, there's a good reason for it: I talk to so many families who get off to a frazzled start at the first of a new year simply because they run up a mountain of Christmas bills — all due in January. Pay-as-you-go is a fine slogan to adopt for Christmas shopping.

Also, those of you who have already finished your Social Security contribution for the year can take advantage of August sales for holiday gifts — beautiful linens, accessories, clothing, etc.

Then there's the prime advantage of having more time to plan gifts if you start shopping early. It's the "hard-to-buy-for" friends and family members on your list that often cost the most, when you put off your shopping till the last minute. Few of us these days can afford to pay more and think less.

If you like to make gifts, you can't get at it too early. Start collecting your materials with that extra money in the paycheck. Given a little advance planning, a few dollars will go a lot farther.

Dear Miss Feeley: Could you tell me the approximate cost of running a chest freezer for a year? Is it cheaper to run if you use it more frequently. S. D. S., Rochester, N.Y.

Operating costs are included in these prices. Electricity, net depreciation, return on your investment, repairs, and packaging.

Dear S. D. S., The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates the cost of running a freezer as follows:

A 12-cubic-foot home freezer that can hold 350 pounds capacity can cost 39 cents per pound of food, if it has little or no turnover in a year's time. If the same freezer has a 50 per cent food turnover during the year, the cost would be 13½ cents per pound.

(For Mary Feeley's leaflet on "Finances For Newlyweds," send 10 cents and long stamped envelope to her in care of The Pontiac Press.)

Advance Force From Philippines Arrives in Viet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—A 100-man advance party of a Philippines army contingent due here next month arrived in Saigon today.

The 2,000-man contingent, made up of engineers and security forces, will be based in Tay Ninh Province, operating as a civil action group.

The Filipinos will work closely with the U.S. 196th Light Infantry Brigade, which arrived in Viet Nam over the weekend. While the Americans work to keep the area clear of Communist forces, the Filipinos will build refugee villages, schools and similar facilities to help win the support of the local population for the allies.

The assignment for the Filipinos and the U.S. brigade was worked out in joint conferences of representatives of the Philippines, the United States and South Viet Nam.

PRESIDENTIAL SECURITY — An Air Force corporal, armed with an automatic rifle, waits in a patrol truck after serving as part of a security guard last night for the arrival of President Johnson at Andrews Air Force Base near Washington, D.C. In the background is the presidential jet. The President returned from a weekend in Texas.

The cost of recovery, a spokesman said, included billing for the special equipment that was used and other "out-of-pocket expenses." But not figured in was the cost of normal operation of 15 or so naval ships nor salaries for scores of naval personnel who participated in the sea hunt.

AF Pays Navy for Reeling In H-Bomb

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has paid off the Navy for that splendid bit of fishing for a hydrogen bomb off Spain last April.

A Pentagon spokesman said today the settlement came to $5.34 million, which the Air Force paid the Navy by check.

This may be a decent wage for hauling up a supervaluable hydrogen bomb from 2,500 feet deep in the Mediterranean Sea. It comes out to around $65,000 a day, considering that the nuclear device was missing for 80 days after it was dropped from a disintegrating B-52.

POSTED CLAIM — The approved billing isn't a great deal more than the $5 million claim posted against the United States government by lawyers for Spanish fisherman Simo Orts, case.

Orts saws the parachute floating the bomb after the B-52 and a KC-135 tanker collided. He told authorities it went thataway.

By joint service agreement, the Air Force was obliged to pay for the cost of recovery. After all, it was an Air Force bomb, signed for by the pilot of the B-52 before he took off on what the United States called a training flight.

MICHIGAN CITY, Ind. (AP)—James B. McCahey Jr., was named president of the Chicago South Shore and South Bend Railroad Monday to succeed William P. Colton.

McCahey, 46, joined the South Shore as vice president, general manager and a director May 1, 1965. Colton, 46, who recently announced his resignation, will become vice president-sales of the Western Maryland Railway. Both changes will be effective Sept. 1.

Dem Spending Blasted by Elly

Says Primary Outlay Tops GOP Allotment

LANSING (UPI) — Republican State Chairman Elly M. Peterson today lashed out at "big spenders" in the Democratic party who laid out close to $700,000 in the recent two-way primary contest for the U.S. Senate.

"The sums spent by those two Democrats in just the primary is almost as much as the Republican party has allotted for every congressional and state-wide contest for the whole year," Mrs. Peterson said, "and that includes Sen. Robert P. Griffin's campaign, too."

Campaign expense figures filed with the state last Friday showed victorious Democratic candidate G. Mennen Williams spent $278,786, while Detroit Mayor Jerome P. Cavanagh shelled out $420,051 in his losing campaign.

"I trust that I will hear no more about Republicans being the 'big spenders' on political offices," Mrs. Peterson said.

Prepares for Pictures

Orbiter Scans Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—America's camera circling the moon—Lunar Orbiter—was scanning swiftly over the pockmarked lunar surface today as scientists prepared for the main payoff—pictures.

"We're just waiting now, planning to being the picture sequence Thursday," scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said.

The first pictures, taken by the craft's precision camera package and relayed to earth by radio, probably will be televised as they are received, said spokesmen for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

First target for the cameras will be the east edge of the moon, an area never seen by earth-based telescopes. Engineers expected the pictures to be televised first between 4:18 and 5:03 p.m. EST, with later showings planned.

LOWER ORBIT
After the first series of pictures, Orbiter will be dropped into a lower orbit of the moon—perfect, allowing them to put Orbiter precisely on target.

In a test of the photo relay system Monday, the spacecraft radioed back good pictures of photo test patterns stored aboard.

Goods bought from Iron Curtain countries reached a total of $137.5 million, a rise of more than a third from the previous bit, scientists said, is just about year.

Add up all the victims of blindness, paralytic polio, cerebral palsy, rheumatic heart disease.

Twice that total are mentally retarded. What are you going to do about it?

Junior Editors Quiz on CAMELS

QUESTION: How is it possible for a camel to go without water for long periods?

ANSWER: Camels have worked for man longer than any other animal and have been of inestimable value to him. Without them, men could not have lived in the dry desert country of the Near East — and it was here, remember, that the first civilization started.

Camels have the ability to go without water, and also without food, for considerable lengths of time. They can survive severe desert conditions which would destroy other creatures.

Many people believe that the camel carries a reserve of water in his hump, but this is not true. The camel has reserves of fat stored in his hump, and this acts as nourishment when he can't get anything to eat.

Camels can go for long periods of time without water but will drink a great deal when they have a chance. Unlike most animals, they do not sweat — so their water supply lasts longer.

FOR YOU TO DO: Ask a friend if he knows where camels live. He'll probably say Arabia and the Near East. He'll be right about one kind of camel; but you can tell him about the Bactrian Camel, which lives in north central Asia in such places as the Gobi Desert. This is the kind of camel with two humps.

Report Issued on Leasing of State Property

LANSING (AP) — The automobile dealer who leased 12 acres of state land for $75 a month apparently was the only person getting a good deal at state expense, an auditor general's report showed Monday.

A Lansing dealer rents a large field behind a National Guard Armory for the storing of automobiles. The dealer has conducted sales on this land, attracting attention of legislators, who complained of the low lease price.

Sen. Edward Robinson, D-Deerborn, asked Aud. Gen. Albert Lee to investigate leasing practices at all National Guard armories. The report, Robinson said, "indicates at first glance that there is no need to pursue the matter further."

He said he planned to study the report more closely, "and have some other people look at it, to give me some idea as to whether any of the practices outlined might be irregular — although they don't appear to be."

Lee said his department, simply compiled the statistical material — leaving any judgment to Robinson's safety and defense subcommittee.

The leased land is assessed by the city at $45,000. Since state land is taxable when it is leased, the dealer pays $235 a month in taxes.

Pickets Greet Envoy to Japan at Farewell Fete

TOKYO (AP) — U.S. Ambassador and Mrs. Edwin O. Reischauer walked through American and Japanese pickets Monday night as they arrived for a farewell party at the Foreign Correspondents' Club.

The pickets, representatives of a U.S.-Japan citizens conference here, lined up on either side of the club entrance, carrying signs in English protesting American actions in Viet Nam.

Prof. Howard Zinn of Boston University, a member of the group, handed the ambassador a copy of a "U.S.-Japan citizens treaty against war and for peace" and a lapel button calling for assistance to victims of American "aggression."

Reischauer put them in his pocket and walked into the building.

Beatles Capital in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Steering steadily clear of amateur theology, the Beatles resume their American tour today, having sent thousands of the capital's teen-agers into cheering fits.

Under elaborate police guard the unshorn quartet performed Monday night in D.C. Stadium. The tunes elicited a total of 32,164 and the affair went off practically without incident.

Five Ku Kluxers, proclaiming their objection to Beatle John Lennon's remarks about Christianity, picketed the stadium. But the nearest thing to violence was when a 16-year-old youth eluded the police cordon at third base, streaked to the bandstand at second base and laid a hand on three Beatles before being collared. He explained that he just wanted to ing, other with hands to their faces, and some crying — made up a major part of the audience that watched the British performers.

Rights Leaders: Marches in Chicago Will Continue

CHICAGO (AP) — Civil rights leaders say the marches into white neighborhoods of Chicago will be expanded and "will continue until Negroes can move into housing wherever they choose."

The promised continuation of the demonstrations came from Albert A. Raby, convenor of the Coordinating Council of Community Organizations, at a rally last night.

Eight groups of marchers are to go into previously picketed areas today — three going to Jefferson Park, a Northwest Side neighborhood, and five going to downtown locations including the Chicago Real Estate Board.

Planning continued for a summit meeting on housing tomorrow. The Rt. Rev. James W. Montgomery, bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, said the conference was called to discuss open housing — not to seek an end to the marches which have led to violence on many occasions.

"Almost everybody is asking us to stop the neighborhood marches now," the Rev. Andrew Young, an aide to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said Monday. "But we have no plans to do this."

GROUP TO MEET

King, chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, is expected to attend the meeting with Real Estate Board executives and political, civic, religious and labor representatives.

Young said he was not hopeful of any immediate major concessions to open housing.

"Our experience in other cities has been that it takes a month to 45 days until the power structure realizes that its vested interest is threatened," he said.

Sea Resources
'Exhaustible'Rate of Exploitation
Brings a Warning

By Science Service

MOSCOW — Man is capable of using up the resources of the ocean just as he is those of the land, and if he is going to exploit them intelligently, he has a lot to learn.

A rough picture of one marine food chain shows that 10,000 pounds of microscopic plants (phytoplankton) are converted into 1,000 pounds of small drifting animal life (zooplankton).

They continue the chain by becoming 100 pounds of herring, which become 10 pounds of baby tuna, which finally become a single pound of adult tuna.

The efficiency ratio of this process is 10,000 to one. Other than that, knowledge is sketchy, and although we know the quantities of plant life and the resulting amount of fish, there is much that needs to be filled in about the stages in between.

The old descriptive methods are insufficient for studying the biological resources of the ocean," said Soviet biologist Dr. M. E. Fiangorov of the Institute of Oceanology in Moscow.

NOT COMPLETE

The kind of information presently available is simply not complete enough to guide economical utilization of the ocean, but newer mathematical research techniques are already in use in the U.S.S.R., he told the Second International Oceanographic Congress here.

The general outlook at the moment is pessimistic. The world's annual fish catch went up from 23 million to 44 million tons between 1953 and 1963 and is now estimated at 50 million tons, but scientists do not expect it to double every decade indefinitely.

Catches will probably level off by the turn of the century. The population will not.

Most of today's principal fishing grounds are set at top capacity and future increases will have to come from the exploitation of newly studied upwelling areas where nutrients are brought to the surface in vast quantities.

The Negro and Black Power — 2

Militants Hold Neurotic Contempt for 'Whitey'

By TOM TIEDE
NEW YORK (NEA) — For years, the National Memorial African Bookstore off 125th Street and Seventh Avenue in Harlem carried an imposing sign in its window which read: "God Damn White Man."

Today, the sign is gone. But its implications of hate remain.

In Chicago and Cleveland, Los Angeles and St. Louis, wherever the Negro population is divided into factions which include militant extremists, there are now and always have been colored Americans with an almost neurotic contempt for "Whitey."

Lewis Michaux is an example. He owns the 125th Street bookstore and for most of his 72 years of life, has preached the "ghetto gospel" that white America has "raped our women and thrown the bastard children into the Mississippi River."

And for this, he predicts: "You crackers will burn."

Michaux, for all of his brimstone banter, is in person a pleasant, gnome-size man who carried on a conversation with a white reporter like the pan-ster in a two-man comedy act. "Where were you born?"

"In hell, down South."

"Have you ever met a white man you liked?"

"Only in graveyards."

"Do you believe in racial violence?"

"I believe in striking down the devil."

"What do you think force will accomplish?"

"The white man will either humble, or crumble."

Michaux voiced these sentiments amid the "all black" decoration of his musty, 210,000-volume store. Pictures of Negro heroes line the walls.

George Washington Carver, distinguished educator, hangs alongside Patrice Lumumba, late of the Congo, and Malcolm X, founder of the Black Nationalist movement.

Small flags of new African nations crowd the shelves. Negro-oriented brochures are piled knee-high on the floors.

"That picture there is Crispus Attucks," he points out on a tour. "He was the first man wounded in the War of Independence; black fellow, of course."

These here are beads from the Congo; black-made, naturally. And up over there we got a photograph of Dwight Eisenhower."

Michaux made the astonishing statement that Ike was in his gallery because he has Negro blood.

The fact is that Ike hangs in a spot once occupied by a picture of Abraham Lincoln, who is no longer a black hero.

Not surprisingly, the shopkeeper allows no white books, magazines, pictures (other than like), or historic items in what he calls his "Black Museum."

A drawing of Santa Claus is brown-faced, and so are several statues and likenesses of heavenly angels. One is claimed to be an actual photograph of Pope Pius XII kneeling at the altar of "Our Lady of Czestochowa," the so-called Black Madonna. Jesus Christ is also portrayed as a Negro.

And on this Michaux was especially insistent: "The Bible says that one drop of Christ's blood wiped away all of the sins in the world. Now that got to be a powerful drop of blood. Therefore, it had to be black blood."

Anyway, he added with a sardonic, raised eyebrow, "The fact that they crucified Jesus proves he was black. White men don't crucify whites only blacks."

Michaux's shop had long been the meeting place for militant Negroes and has more recently become the cultural center for black nationalism and the earthy (violent) translation of the term "Black Power."

He did not disguise the intent: "We advocate violence to overthrow evil." He was not interested in compromises: "While we talk right now, Negroes are begging for subsistence from white welfare agencies."

And he has run out of time: "I'm old and don't care no more how we get what we want. I just want it. Now!"

There's a new sign in Michaux's store which sums up his views, and the views of a faction among U.S. Negroes. It reads: "Move on over, white man, or we'll move on over you!"

(NEXT: The Black Madonna.)

Big Bats in Action

'Colorful' Developments in NL

By the Associated Press
Ed Mathews struck purple.
Derot Johnson saw red and Bill White battered Chicago black and blue.

Those developments occurred Monday night as Mathews powered Atlanta past Houston 4-2. Los Angeles edged Cincinnati 4-3 with Johnson's help and Philadelphia whipped Chicago 11-5 behind White's big bat.

Mathews, whose home run won the Braves' first game under Billy Hitchcock last Tuesday, did it again against the Astros by hitting a two-run homer in the seventh inning. The homer was a towering shot, landing in the purple seats at the Astrodome. The seats, located on the fourth level, seldom have been reached in the stadium's two-year history.

Johnson, on the other hand, didn't do much hitting at all, and that had him seething red.

The Reds' slugger, who has 57 runs batted in this season compared with his major league-leading total of 130 last year, came to bat in the seventh inning with two runs in, two tying runs on base and two out.

Bob Miller replaced starter Claude Osteen and got Johnson to fly out.

REAGAN SHINES
A similar situation cropped up in the ninth. The Reds scored one run, cutting the Dodgers lead to 4-3, and had two men on and again with two out. This time Phil Regan replaced Miller, and Johnson struck out.

White didn't hit any mammoth homers, but he didn't kill any rallies either. Instead, he lashed three singles and drove in five runs. He singled home two in the first inning, two in the second and one in the eighth.

The output raised his runs batted in total to 79, six more than he had all of last season.

There was no output from Pittsburgh and San Francisco, the top two teams in the league, Monday night. They had a day of rest, so the Pirates maintained their 14-game lead over the Giants. The Dodgers are three games back.

FIRST RUN

Mathews' home run, following the first of two singles by pitcher Tony Cloninger, boosted the Braves into their first run in the first inning. Cloninger allowed just five hits, none better than the third and the eighth innings.

The Dodgers scored all four of their runs in the fourth inning. Jim Gilliam singled and Lou Johnson homered for the first, two, and Wes Parker and John Roseboro singled in the others.

Atlanta's home run, following the first of two singles by pitcher Tony Cloninger, boosted the Braves into their first run in the first inning. Cloninger allowed just five hits, none better than the third and the eighth innings.

FOP 9 Again in Semifinal

The Fraternal Order of Police Yankees once again have reached the state Recreation Association junior baseball semifinal playoff round.

The Pontiac nine trounced Saginaw 8-0, Monday morning at Jaycee Park as Rob Clancy yielded a lone first-inning single.

The Roseville Tigers thumped the Saginaw Colts, 8-3, in the Class F regional also played at Jaycee Park.

The Pontiac F. O. P. Yankees now have reached the Class F semifinal berth that eluded them last year after they'd finished second in the 1964 state Class F tournament.

The Yankees fell in the regional last summer, as did the Pontiac Class D and F teams, also.

The Pontiac Police Officers' Association Class D contender will play its regional engagement 5 p.m. Thursday at Wayne.

All the state semifinals and finals will be Monday at Jackson's Ella Sharp Park.

FAST START

Billy Howell, Clyde Duncan, Stan Babluk and Victor Quince each singled as the "E" hopefuls posted three fast runs in the first inning. Howell singled and Babluk doubled as the lead grew to 5-0 in the second frame.

Duncan added a double while the Yankees scored once more in the third. The winners scored in each of the first five innings while backing Clancy with fine defensive support.

Second baseman Howell pulled the game's most unusual defensive gem when he retired a batter unassisted at first base, then got off the ground to complete a double play throw to the plate as Saginaw attempted to cut into Pontiac's 3-0 lead in the second frame.

CLASS B BOYS PLAYOFF
Saginaw 8-0, Roseville 3-0, Wayne 2-0, Pontiac 1-0.

Redskins Trade Flanker to Colts

CARLISLE, Pa. (UPI) — The Washington Redskins Monday dealt flanker Bill Hunter to the Baltimore Colts in exchange for Dave Hayes, a fullback, and purchased defensive back Brig Owens from the Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft choice.

The Redskins also announced the release of linebackers Jerry Fishman and Ron Corbett and end Dave Wells.

in their title fight at Las Vegas last night. Torres won the 15-round event on a decision.

Jeered Torres Holds Light-Heavy Crown

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — The cheers went to Eddie Cotton, a tough old battler from Seattle, and the jeers fell to the light-heavyweight champion Jose Torres.

But it was Torres who headed home to Brooklyn today with his world title intact, after winning a unanimous 15-round decision over 40-year-old Cotton in the Las Vegas Convention Center Monday night.

Ancient Eddie was the sentimental favorite, but a 7-2 underdog, and most of the crowd — it was announced as 4,300 but appeared to be more like 3,300 — thought he had won the championship.

In the dressing room, after Cotton was the picture of dejection and frustration, the latter a characteristic that has been his life of almost 20 years in the fight game.

"I won the fight," said Cotton. "I know I won the fight. There's no doubt in my mind about it. Certainly I'd like to fight him again if he will give me the chance."

Ring officials disagreed with Cotton over the outcome. Referee Nate Morgan had it 70-67, and judges Ron Amos and Mike Petrich had it 69-67 and 68-67, respectively. Associated Press scored it a draw, 69-69.

Torres, at 30, no youngster himself, was less than happy about his performance in a fight which was serious in spots but in which neither inflicted any terrible damage.

"After the second or third round I told my trainer, Johnny Mazzanti, 'Don't worry. I'll take this fellow out,'" Torres said.

"But I don't know. I was tired. I went back in and couldn't throw punches. Maybe I wasn't concentrating."

ACE SCORED in Pro-Am Weekly Play

Jesse Kukes, 19-year-old member of Franklin Hills, scored a hole in one in the weekly pro-am tournament at Farmington yesterday, playing with Franklin Hills assistant pro Paul Thomas, but it wasn't enough to gain a spot among the five leading teams tied at 65 in best ball play.

Kukes used a 7-iron and dropped his 145-yard shot on the 17th hole. He and Thomas finished with a 72.

The Alex Redmond-Ray Bonham team was among the five tied at 65 but Redmond, assistant at Lochmore, had a four-under par 68 on his own ball and he teamed with Vic Jubala in the pro-pro match to win the bulk of the honors and $340 all together.

Redmond fired five birdies, the longest being 30 feet, and bogeyed only the second hole.

State Netters Impressive in Junior Tourney

HIGHLAND PARK, Ill. (AP) — Teen-age tennis stars from Michigan, particularly Kalamazoo, were impressive Monday in the week long Illinois Junior Tennis Championships.

Cherie Carlson of Kalamazoo drew a bye as the top seed in the girls' 16-and-under group, six of the top eight seeds survived opening day competition. Among the victims was eighth-seeded Gordy Weil of Cincinnati who was ousted by Jim Mansfield of Niles, Mich., 6-2, 6-3.

Jim Symington of Detroit, the top seeded in the boys' 16-and-under class won his first two tests while Kathy Dombo of Kalamazoo, the No. 1 seed in the girls' 16-and-under division, battled her way into the quarter-finals.

More than 150 junior players from Illinois, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin are competing in the championships which end Friday.

Leads With 75

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Kathleen Ahern of Dallas, Tex., shot a two over par 75 to take the first round qualifying lead in the 18th annual USGA Junior Women's Golf Tournament.

Olympic Ace on Card

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Don Schollander, Olympic world record swimmer, said Monday he will compete in the freestyle events at the National AAU swimming and diving championships here Aug. 18-21.

The Black Maxers

Bucs 'Hang-in-There'

PITTSBURGH (NEA) — You can't do it every day. But the Pittsburgh Pirates know that if they stick with 'em and hang in there, probably they'll get 'em next time.

Can't do it every day, stick-with-em, hang-in-there and get-em-next-time are the verbal pats on the back the Pirates award one another to alleviate gloom.

Thus pitcher Steve Blass, who has lost four games this season and has not gone the distance in 20 starts, sums up his record as "four stick-with-em and 20 straight can't-do-it-every-days."

First baseman Donn Cendenon leads the Pirates in get-em-next-times with 95. "One for each strikeout," he says.

A hard line drive into the waiting hands of an infielder or outfielder is only a time at bat in the box score, but it merits a fervent hang-in-there.

Blass and Cendenon belong to the Black Maxers, hence the bookkeeping. The Black Maxers are an in-group among the Pirates and to maintain his membership each of the Maxers must get at least one citation a week.

It is all part of the high jinks the Pirates are going in for this year — a burlesque not only on baseball clichés but on a current motion picture called "The Blue Max." Itself an unconscious burlesque on every bad World War I movie Hollywood ever made.

Steve Blass toured Chicago's loop in a taxicab, rummaging through novelty stores. He had to settle for 12 black surfer's medals and the would-be Blue Maxers changed their color scheme.

Surfers' medals are replicas actually, of the German Iron Cross, a military award that goes back to 1813, when William of Prussia conceived it.

NO HISTORY The Black Maxers pretend to no history of culture at all but are representative of the Pirates' flakiness. Manager Harry Walker, Bronze Star winner in World War II (he captured a whole truckload of Germans) approves.

"This is a colorful team," Walker says. "Baseball needs color. Those guys are serious on the field and this is their way of staying loose. You'll notice the only time they clown around is when they win."

When the Pirates don't win, they're melancholy as any other team. When they win, they hurry into the clubhouse.

Playoff Form Reversed in Class 'A' Action

The reversal of form continued last night in the sudden death eliminations to determine the city's baseball championship finals at Jaycee Park.

M. G. Collision eliminated Cranbrook, 3-2, on Dick Barrett's two-out single in the bottom of the seventh inning, culminating a two-run rally.

The victory pits M. G. against Booth Homes at 8 p.m. tomorrow for the berth in the finals. The two finished fourth and fifth during the season but quickly ousted the runner-up R. T. Clippers and third-place Cranbrook in the playoffs.

Last night's contest was a pitchers' duel between Jack McCloud of the winners and Cranbrook's Mike Burkhoff.

M. G. led, 1-0, after four innings. Denny McDonald singled with one out in the second, and tallied when Cranbrook's Burk-low and Al Levy committed errors.

UNEARNED RUN In the fifth, Bruce McDonald's misplay enabled Levy to reach base with one out. Chuck Heavenrich advanced him to third with a safety and a passed ball let in the tying marker.

The losers' second and final hit was Burkhoff's single leading off the seventh. It brought Bob Tuck in to pitch.

Peaches in Defense of Girls' Crown

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Peaches Bartkowicz, Hamtramck, Mich., began her defense of the U.S. Girls' Grass Court Tennis Championship Monday by defeating J. J. Schuffman, Riverdale, N.Y., 6-1, 6-0, in the second round at the Philadelphia Cricket Club. The players had byes in the first round.

Rosemary Casals, San Francisco and seeded second to Miss Bartkowicz, won from Jane Coulter, Golf, Ill., 6-1, 6-1. The third and fourth-seeded contenders, Lynne Abbes, Orinda, Calif., and Patti Hogan, La Jolla, Calif., also progressed. Miss Abbes defeated Kathleen Kraft, Tulsa, Okla., 6-1, 6-1, and Miss Hogan whipped Robin Lewis, Flourtown, Pa., 6-1, 6-0.

McCloud moved to first base and promptly errored to put two runners on base. Levy's sacrifice and Burkhoff's wild pitch scored Burkhoff with the go-ahead marker.

But the Cranbrook pitcher walked Darrell Lovell in the second time and Denny McDonald singled for the second time as M. G.'s first two batters in the last of the inning.

Ron King squeezed home the tying tally with one out, and Barrett then pinch-hit for Tuck. His single plated McDonald with the game-ending run.

Cranbrook shut out the collision nine twice during the season and lost in extra innings the other time. Burkhoff, the Class A loop's top winner, suffered his fourth loss in 12 decisions.

West's opening club bid is what is sometimes called "gulpic." The name is due to the fact that a player who makes that type of bid is apt to gulp a trifle.

North chose to double rather than overcall with one trump or make a trap pass. East's diamond bid was normal expert procedure.

Lansing Sees Racial Unity

LANSING (AP)—Some of the energy that exploded in a race riot in this capital city last week is being channeled into a program of racial cooperation today.

The city experienced an uneventful weekend after two days of violence and two days of uneasy truce.

Officials, Negro and white teen-agers and their adult advisers have been meeting virtually since the first rock in the heavily Negro southwest side.

"We've made real, tangible, substantial gains since then," said Joel Ferguson, assistant director of the Lansing Job Training Center, a federally sponsored program run by the Michigan Catholic Conference. He is one of the chief spokesmen for troubled Negro teen-agers.

RECREATION PROGRAM

"A lot of good will have been generated since we started talking with the city leaders," he said, "and it appears that an adequate recreation program for our youngsters will come of it."

Some observers said they felt it was a good idea to put on record in which the benefits appeared to outweigh the liabilities. Four persons were shot but none of them seriously wounded. None of the reported injuries were serious and property damage was limited.

"While we—and I include all responsible persons of any age—abhor the violence that flared last week," Mayor Max Murnighan said in answer to questions, "I must admit that we have activities going that we didn't have before."

Snake Show Owner Burns in Collision

MILAN (AP)—An elderly carnival snake show owner was burned to death Monday in a crash involving two semitrailer trucks and a car.

The crash occurred in the southbound lane of U.S. 23 about three miles north of Milan in Washtenaw County.

Dead is R. M. (Bull) Martin, about 70, of Stuart, Fla. The driver of the car in which Martin was riding, Thomas Aston Jr., 48, of Salem, Ohio, was injured.

Also injured was Sidney Rodgers, 31, Wilmington, N.C. Rodgers was driving a refrigerated fruit truck. Fred Sharp, 30, of Tampa, Fla., driver of a carnival truck owned by Martin and carrying live snakes, received minor injuries.

State Police at Ypsilanti believe the refrigerated truck struck the rear of the car which was traveling between the two trucks. After the collision, all three vehicles ran off the road into a field.

Tragic but Brilliant Career

Cliff Film Portrayals Recalled

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD — Memories of Montgomery Cliff — It was saddening to read while on a Hawaiian vacation that Montgomery Cliff had died of a heart ailment at 46. It was poignant, too, since Hawaii had been the locale for one of the actor's greatest portrayals, Pruitt in "From Here to Eternity."

Cliff grew more elusive and eccentric. He became more difficult to manage on a film set. In 1963, he and Universal argued over the delays in filming "Freud" in Munich. He claimed the problem was his eye trouble; the film company contended it was his "anxiety complexes" that caused him to forget lines.

Cliff was to star this fall in "Reflections in a Golden Eye" with Elizabeth Taylor, who had remained a sympathetic friend. But his death brought an end to a career that was both brilliant and tragic.

The untimely death seemed to follow the same pattern of other Hollywood figures — Marilyn Monroe, Mario Lanza, etc., whose personal terrors impaired their professional careers.

No one, except perhaps a few close friends, knew what it was that bedeviled Cliff. Whatever the cause, he suffered periods of neurotic and unpredictable behavior. In the end, he became almost unemployable by film companies.

Yet he was also capable of immense personal charm. And his appeal and talent as an actor were undeniable. BROADWAY NAME Like his friend Marlon Brando, Cliff was a Broadway name who became a star with his first film, "The Search" did it for Cliff, but it was "Red River" that firmly established him as a screen personality. His sensitive but masculine cowpoke was a perfect counterpart to John Wayne's bluster. From then he had his pick of roles, and he chose with care: "The Heiress," "The Big Lift," "A Place in the Sun." He barely made "From Here to Eternity." Columbia boss Harry Cohn wanted Aldo Ray for the role of the boxer-bugler; Fred Zinnemann, who had directed "The Search," held out for Cliff.

The actor made one more film in Munich early this year, "The Defector." He was reported to have come through it well and even plunged into the frigid Danube for a scene. Efforts were made to arrange an interview in Paris after the filming. But a secretary called me with the expected answer, "Mr. Cliff is too exhausted," he said.

2 of Texas Sniper's Victims Will Be Married Next Week

GARLAND, Tex. (AP) — lives she hasn't heard from in years have called to see how she is. After their marriage, Janet and Abdul will live in Austin while she completes her senior year in history and he finishes writing his dissertation for a doctorate in organic chemistry.

Janet, 20, and Abdul Kashab, 26, of Baghdad, Iraq, postponed the wedding from Aug. 20 until Aug. 27, but they'll walk down the aisle without assistance and with no bandages showing. The couple was walking toward a snack shop on Austin's main street by the University of Texas Aug. 1 when they were knocked down by Charles Whitman's bullets from the tower. "We were some of the lucky ones," Janet said, adding that neither her left shoulder or her fiancé's right elbow would be permanently impaired by the bullet wounds. Janet was hospitalized 10 days and her fiancé 11 days. Since her return home last Wednesday, Janet says she has been running around taking care on details for what she hopes will be a quiet, simple wedding in Dallas' First Unitarian church.

Her mother has been screening most of her telephone calls, but Janet says friends and relatives

Mart Hits New Lows for Year

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market plunged to new lows for the year in fairly heavy trading early this afternoon.

The market sank from the start as discouraged selling mainly in small lots — broke down prices in most major sections of the list.

No immediate news was linked with the decline. Brokers said many investors were discouraged by unfavorable projections of economists, added to the increasing concern about high interest rates and the state of affairs in Vietnam.

Early in the session the Dow

Jones industrial average broke below its 1966 closing low of $237.50 on Aug. 2. This triggered additional selling.

Now a Top Nightclub Singer

Kaye Stevens Started Out Selling Cemetery Lots

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Kaye Stevens, red-haired bombshell of the nightclubs, had an earlier career as probably the nation's most successful teen-age cemetery plot salesman.

"I got used to money at a very early age," remarked the young, singing comedienne. "I was just turning 7 when I won $750 in an amateur contest — and I gave it all to the church."

When she was 14 her father, a Cleveland, Ohio, mechanic, died, and she had to go to work in earnest. Kay, a self-taught singer who also plays bass drums and the guitar, soon was making $150 a week.

But the girl is a hard worker. On graduating at 16 from high school, she wanted to find something to occupy her days. She answered an ad requiring an "ability to meet people."

CEMETERY PLOTS

"The job was selling cemetery plots, and I loved it," said big band — and, as the show

Kaye. "I wore a black dress and black-rimmed glasses and made myself up to look a mature 22."

"I made a minimum of $500 a week. Whatever you do, be good at it — that's my motto. 'It lasted a year and a half. Then I quit it for a job singing in Buffalo for $125 a week. That doesn't sound like good business, but it was a minimum of $500 a week. Besides, we had sold all the lots in that cemetery, and I'd have to find another one.'"

There followed several years in which she toured the country with a lounge trio and had a brief fling at the movies.

Miss Stevens got her big break when she responded to an urgent call to replace ailing Debbie Reynolds in a Las Vegas spot. She chartered a small plane and flew through a storm to fill the engagement.

QUICK TRIP

The trip was so hurried that her hairdresser was still combing out her long red hair when she stepped out on stage. "Put on a Happy Face."

Alerted to her race against time, the audience gave her a very big hand — and, as the show

New Anesthetic Is Tested for Minor Surgical Work

ANN ARBOR (AP) — A new anesthetic that puts patients to sleep with their eyes open may make minor surgery a pleasant pastime.

Doctors at the University of Michigan Medical Center report the new anesthetic, called CI-501, is of short duration, has very few side effects, creates the desired pain relief and usually is well-liked by patients.

Dr. Robert B. Sweet, chairman of the medical school's Department of Anesthesia, said the drug has been used experimentally in more than 600 surgical and diagnostic cases at the Medical Center.

He said the drug is characterized by rapid involuntary movement of the eyeball, putting the patient in an apparent "state of unresponsiveness" or "suspended animation."

Recovery from the anesthetic is "smooth and uncomplicated," he said, adding: "Nausea and vomiting are virtually absent."

The only detrimental side effects, researchers report, are brief hallucinations which 17 patients suffered while the drug was wearing off, a 15 to 30-minute process.

Dr. Gunter Cossen, professor of anesthesiology, said the apparent safety and ease of administering the new drug promises that it will be good for simple office surgery. However, he cautioned that widespread use of the new drug should await more clinical testing.

Say Mint Man Sold Bad Coins

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Everett Shaw, 26, an assistant foreman of the U.S. Mint here, has been accused of selling faulty coins to coin collectors.

Shaw, a four-year employee of the mint, was allowed to sign his own $1,000 bail Monday after a hearing before U.S. Commissioner Tullio G. Leomporra.

Secret Service agents testified at the hearing that they began an investigation after getting complaints from coin collectors that the market was being flooded with mis-stamped coins from the Philadelphia Mint.

Normally such coins are destroyed. As a result, many reaching collectors command high prices.

Exam Is Asked on Kidnaping

Girl Said Taken From Highland Twp. Home

A Highland Township man is held in the Oakland County Jail on $10,000 bond following his arraignment yesterday on a charge of kidnaping.

Robert L. Adams, 21, of 2764 Davista demanded a preliminary examination at his appearance before Highland Township Justice Stephen Garrard.

Date of the hearing was not immediately set.

Adams is accused of abducting 13-year-old Connie Coleman of 2153 Dean, Highland Township early Sunday and holding her captive for three hours.

The girl was allegedly dragged from the bedroom of a Highland Township home where she had been staying with her grandmother.

DEMANDED MONEY

Carl Thomas of 2453 Davista told deputies Adams came to the door of his house about 2 a.m., demanded money, then forced his way into the bedroom and took the girl with him.

Deputies said Connie was taken to the rear of a church on Duck Lake Road, but managed to escape, when Adams, who had apparently been drinking, fell asleep.

Adams was arrested in his car by deputies about 5 a.m.

"This gives a long way toward confirming the hypothesis that the army and Lin Piao personally have come to the fore 'in the wake of the current interparty purges under way in China, the dispatch said yesterday."

Tanjung said "reports" circulating in the Chinese capital had Lin taking over the post of chairman of the military commission of the party's ruling Central Committee, which had belonged to Mao for the past 30 years, and the post of first deputy chairman of the Central Committee, hitherto filled by President Liu Shaochi.

If the reports of the new party posts for Lin Piao prove correct, the Tanjung correspondent in Peking said, "then there is no doubt at all who at the moment represents the main decisive driving force in China."

Wilson Finds 'In' Words

International In-cidents

By EARL WILSON

LONDON — You've heard about Franglaise, the allegedly horrible mixture of French and English that gets spoken now... but what this word really needs is a whole new dictionary of "Ameng," which, as any dunce could detect, would enable the Americans, to understand the Engls, the English.

"Treacle" is a word that you can hardly get along without in England now especially. If you ever talk about girls, and if you don't, skip this, as you'll probably not be needing any language very long, anyway.

"Treacle" is from honey and girls are from honey, too, or should be, although I hear some doubt.

The word "Bird" for girl is getting a little frayed in England but still may be dropped into the conversation by an American who just found out about it provided he doesn't employ it more than twice in one sentence.

"Birds" don't seem to be any particular kind of girl. Lawrence Harvey, telling me about a movie he intends to do in New York, described his character: "He goes around knocking off these birds all over town." He was talking about murdering girls.

Fretty girls are said to be "ditsy bird." The word bird has had quite a voyage in our English language.

Once upon a time we said "Some bird ran into me." A few years ago, George Gobel used to throw the populace into quakes of laughter by saying, "Well, I'll be a dirty bird." I never knew what he meant, and there was never any evidence that he did. And now a bird is a girl, and I suppose a dirty bird is a dirty girl.

"Gear" is a word that we've got to have in the Ameng dictionary. Trim Lopez told me he "bought a lot of new gear." As I get it, "gear" is men's suits, shoes, and haberdashery, and is the same as American men's suits, shoes and haberdashery, except that it costs more.

Ginger Rogers refused to extend her "Hello Dolly!" contract — she leaves in February. — The Eddie Fisher-Connie Stevens "friendship" isn't serious yet — but she's using his limousine.

Lynda Bird Johnson's hectic evening (with George Hamilton again): "Man of La Mancha," then dancing at Trude Heller's and Arthur, a visit to romantic Checco Vito and hot dogs at the Coney Island Pub.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Definition of a minor ailment: One that doesn't hurt your doctor — Henna Arnold Zacks

EARL'S PEARLS: Shelby Friedman described a fat neighbor of his: "Her shadow leaves marks."

Bob Crews claims that job titles are getting fancier all the time. For instance, a "TV archaeologist" turns out to be a guy who digs up old movies for the Late Show. . . . That's earl, brother.

New Hope for 2 Wyoming and Montana Pick Candidates in Primaries Today on Death Row

Convictions Reversed for Dixie Negroes

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — After 13 years in solitary on death row at Angola State Prison, two Negroes convicted of rape had new hope of freedom today.

In one of its landmark decisions on Southern jury selection, the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the convictions of Edgar Labat, 43, and Clifton A. Poret, 37, both of New Orleans.

They did not get a fair trial because Negroes were excluded from the grand jury and the trial jury, the court ruled Monday.

The case was remanded with instructions to free the men — subject to immediate rearrest, reincarceration and retrial.

REEVALUATION

Acting Dist. Atty. Alvin Oser said everything possible would be done "to bring these individuals to justice." However, he said, the case is 16 years old and will have to be reevaluated in the light of available witnesses and evidence.

Two witnesses are dead.

Labat and Poret were convicted March 23, 1953, of raping a white woman. The rape, police said, occurred Nov. 12, 1950.

In addition to upholding the claim that Negroes were excluded from the jury, the decision said the Orleans Parish practice of excluding daily wage earners was illegal.

Two of the judges, citing the long series of appeals for Labat, also said the court must tighten up appeal procedures.

Cave-In Kills Boy in State

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — A bank at an excavation site caved in Monday, burying and killing 9-year-old Michael Craig of Battle Creek.

State Police said the boy's body was found hours after the accident, when a searcher saw the lad's arm extending from the dirt.

The search began after the boy failed to return home from play. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Craig.

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education. Former Rep. William Henry Harrison, defeated by Roncalio two years ago, is seeking the Republican nomination but has opposition from Roy Peck, River-

Five candidates are seeking the Democratic nomination for governor of Wyoming. Three regarded as the chief contenders are Ernest Wilkerson and Ray Whitaker, Casper attorneys, and Jack Gage, a former secretary of state.

Bidding for the Republican nomination are Stan Hathaway, Torrington attorney; M. Joseph Burke, Casper sheep rancher, and Arthur Linde, Laramie sports store operator and a political unknown.

Wyoming Gov. Cliff Hansen is expected to gain the Republican nomination for the Senate over I. W. Kinney, who has offered himself for various offices in the past, including the presidency as candidate of the Benjamin Franklin party which he established.

Rep. Teno Roncalio is unopposed for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Four candidates are bidding for the Democratic nomination to the House seat Roncalio is giving up. Regarded as front runners are Mayne Miller, a Casper attorney, and Al Christian, once state director of the Senators Act to Give LBJ Reserve Call-Up Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate faces a bipartisan effort today to give President Johnson authority to call into service for 18 months thousands of young men now in the Ready Reserve.

The move by Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., and Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., joins as the key issue as the Senate takes up the $56-billion defense appropriation measure.

Russell is chairman of the Armed Services Committee, Saltonstall its ranking Republican member.

As the law is now, the President would have to declare a state of emergency before he could summon the Ready Reserve to active duty.

But Russell, manager of the appropriation measure, calls it a scandal that "men who have enough pull to get into Reserve or National Guard units are not being sent to fight, while the man across the street who is drafted lands in Viet Nam."

SEEK AMENDMENT

Russell and Saltonstall plan to ask the Senate to include an amendment in the appropriation bill that would authorize the President — but not require him — to call up for "not more than 18 consecutive months" those ready reservists who have not served on active duty other than for a training stint.

One source estimated this would cover more than 500,000 men.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, with obvious backing of Johnson, has opposed any call-up of the civilian reservists for Viet Nam duty.

But as an indication of the support Russell and Saltonstall may draw for their amendment, the Appropriations Committee voted unanimously to include in its report a demand for greater use of the Reserves.

The committee said it would be "in the national interest to utilize a reasonable portion of the reserve forces of all the services" to fulfill commitments in Southeast Asia and elsewhere.

Navy Bombers Escape Attack by Viet MIGs

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two MIG-17 fighters loosed 37mm cannon fire at four U.S. Navy A4 Skyhawks which were attacking a train 70 miles south of Hanoi today, but the heavily laden Skyhawks took evasive action and none were damaged, the U.S. Command announced.

The light attack bombers, from the carrier Oriskany, were reported to have damaged four boxcars of the train.

Though each is ordinarily armed with two 20mm cannon and various rockets, a spokesman said they did not fire back at the Soviet-built MIGs.

He said the 680-mile-an-hour Skyhawks are a shade slower and were in no position at the time for a successful fight.

Four were operating with out the normal top cover by Phantoms or Thunderchiefs.

DEEPEST VENTURE

The encounter came the farthest south that enemy jets are known to have ventured in the war.

American pilots have reported the destruction of 17 MIGs. The enemy fighters have shot down five U.S. planes.

Most of the previous aerial battles with Communist MIGs have occurred north and northwest of Hanoi, the North Vietnamese capital.

The dogfight followed a day of near-record pounding of targets in North Viet Nam by U.S. fighter-bombers.

Plot to Snarl Vote, Seize Saigon Is Told

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese police reported today they had uncovered a Communist plot to infiltrate Viet Cong regulars into Saigon to disrupt the September election and eventually to seize the city.

Police said they had pieced together details of the plot from information gathered in the past month from various sources, including informants, captured documents and prisoners.

The initial plan, the police sources said, was to infiltrate two battalions of Viet Cong regulars into Saigon to interfere with the voting in the national elections, set for Sept. 11.

The ultimate goal of the hardcore guerrillas, they said, would be to seize key points in South Viet Nam's capital to prepare for occupation of the city by at least five additional battalions operating within 100 miles of Saigon.

The police sources scoffed at the threat to capture Saigon.

They noted that, in addition to the national police and Vietnamese army security units in Saigon, about 30,000 American troops are billeted in the city or its immediate outskirts.

The Communists' immediate goal — to create havoc during the national elections — could achieve some degree of success, however, the police sources said.

FALLEN COMRADE — Men of the 1st Battalion, 5th Marines, carry the body of a dead comrade to an evacuation helicopter after he was killed by Viet Cong in a battle 40 miles southwest of Da Nang near Tam Ky in South Viet Nam. The battalion fought an estimated regiment of Viet Cong, but suffered only moderate casualties.

Uproar Surrounds Start of Anti-Viet War Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities opened its hearing on anti-Viet Nam war activities today in the midst of uproar in the chamber and a continuing threat of court action to bar the proceedings.

Only seconds before the start of the session a special three-judge federal court threw out a temporary restraining order granted yesterday by a district judge in an action brought by the American Civil Liberties Union on behalf of two of the subpoenaed witnesses.

But the three-judge panel offered to hold a hearing on the constitutional issues at any time and the plaintiffs promptly took up the offer.

As the hearing at the Capitol got under way it was announced the tribunal will hold a hearing tomorrow afternoon on the challenge to the mandate setting up the committee.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Joseph M. Hanson said the issue will be a request for a temporary injunction, a step beyond the restraining order voided today. A restraining order is good for 10 days but is renewable. A temporary injunction remains in force until further order of the court.

DRAGGED TO SEATS

At the start of the hearing two witnesses were dragged to seats by marshals when they tried to make speeches as they were being handed copies of the committee statement on the reason for the hearings.

The statement from acting chairman Joe R. Pool, D-Tex., denied the inquiry represents any infringement on the first amendment right of free speech or the right of dissent.

Pool said the aim is to develop legislation to cut off "overt acts" such as interference with troop and supply movements, and actions damaging to troop morale in a wartime situation.

Red Tape No. 1 Strain

Medicare Effect Eyed

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This is the first of a two-part series on the effects of Medicare in the Pontiac area.)

By L. GARY THORNE

Medicare, the infant federal program to provide health care for the nation's over-65 population, has produced more red tape than has patients at Pontiac's three general hospitals.

The strain has not been on hospital beds, but on the patience of hospital business office personnel.

"And this is what we expected," local hospital authorities comment.

Hospital officials point out that as an industrial town the bulk of Pontiac's elder citizens were being taken care of before Medicare took effect July 1.

Most Pontiac area senior citizens had some form of hospital insurance or qualified for state, county or federal welfare programs.

FINANCIAL LOAD

"No one was being turned away," explained Jack Whitlow, assistant administrator at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital.

Meantime, Medicare has assumed some of the financial STORM DAMAGE—High winds slashed through the east side of Lake Orion in the wake of last night's storm, doing considerable damage to trees and utility poles in the area. Silhouetted in the morning sun, Michigan Bell Telephone repair crew clear away the wreckage and set new poles on Slater near Shadblot.

Rose Twp. Crash Fatal

Thunderstorms Cut Power to 2,700 in Area

Severe thunderstorms late last night and early today downed numerous trees and wires in Oakland County causing a lapse in service to 2,700 telephone and electricity customers.

A fatal accident occurred at the height of the storm in Rose Township.

All available crews are working on the 1,200 affected telephones.

All damage is expected to be repaired by 5 p.m. today, according to a company representative.

The worst damage was reported in the Lake Orion and Oxford areas.

'NEW RECORD'

Maybe you slept through it — but most people didn't.

Last night's thunder and lightning set a new record in Pontiac.

The noise was absolutely deafening and the bolts of lightning seemed to play around your own individual bedroom for an extended period of time.

Little children, teen-agers, adults and even dogs and cats were impressed, awed or terrified.

AMOUNT OF RAIN

The rainfall measured 1.5 inches in Pontiac.

At one point in Bloomfield Hills the rain gauge measured 1.9 inches.

Several telephone cables were down in Clarkston, Rochester, Waterford Township and Avon Township.

Edison men worked from 11:55 p.m. yesterday to 3:30 a.m. today restoring service to 1,600 customers in the central part of Independence Township.

VOLUNTEER HELP

Lake Orion's volunteer fire department aided both electric and telephone company employees clear fallen trees all during the storm.

The Oakland County Road Commission received 30 calls on fallen trees and several were reported to the Pontiac Department of Public Works.

Pontiac's DPW, however, had only one flooded basement report.

Airline Workers Get Details of Pact Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking mechanics receive today details of a tentative agreement aimed at ending by Friday the shutdown of five major airlines.

The idled airlines said they could resume some flights this weekend if the agreement is approved by the strikers at meetings across the nation Friday. The strike is now in its 40th day.

P. L. (Roy) Stiemler, president of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists, called the settlement, reached about dawn yesterday, "the best ever in one set of negotiations by any union."

Details of the contract were to remain secret until the 35,000 strikers received a letter from Stiemler in which he said he recommended ratification of the agreement reached with the airlines — Eastern, National, Northwest, Trans World and United.

Informed sources said, however, the contract was a three-year package worth about $90 million — an estimated 8 percent increase for the machinists.

With a gray blanket covering his head, Witney, 36, was driven to the courthouse from Shepherd's Bush police station where he has been held since Friday — the day of the shootings.

The arraignment took only two minutes. Witney was ordered held without bail for a hearing Aug. 23.

With Witney in the cells, police pushed their hunt for two other suspects in the killings.

They were reliably reported to be hardened convicts, on the run after escaping from prison early this year.

Syria, Israel Poise for New Clashes

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Syria and Israel threatened to clash anew today after Monday's three-hour battle at the Sea of Galilee. The situation along their border was described as tense.

In Damascus, army and government spokesmen said Syrian forces were poised to hit beyond the armistice line "in retaliation for any new Israeli aggression."

An government announcement said Syria "will never again complain to the United Nations or be in a defensive position."

In Tel Aviv, the Israeli army chief of staff, Gen. Izhak Rabin, already had declared "the border will not act as a protective wall for attacking planes."

Effect of Medicare Viewed

But what of the strain on the business office?

LONGER TIME

Euler said it takes five times as long to bill a Medicare patient as a patient covered by Blue Cross-Blue Shield or a private insurance carrier.

"We need to mechanize the billing procedure," said Euler.

He said that the hospital had added one clerk to help handle the increased clerical work.

PATIENTS OVER AGE 65

Between 13 and 17 per cent of the total number of patients per month, the spokesman added.

MAY CHANGE

"We didn't feel we were going to get a big demand for beds," commented Euler. "This may change with the winter months, but the surgical schedule (made up five weeks in advance) still doesn't reflect Medicare."

Elderly citizens generally are more apt to sustain injury or sickness in the winter.

The Pontiac General administrator said that so far Medicare patients have required more medical than surgical treatments.

Spacecraft Set to Orbit Sun, Probe 'Winds'

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Pioneer 7 is scheduled to be launched Wednesday into orbit around the sun to investigate "solar wind" — radiation that sweeps through interplanetary space posing a potential threat to astronauts.

The 140-pound spacecraft is to be hurled aloft at 10:18 a.m. EST by a Delta rocket. It is to cruise around the sun on a path between the earth and Mars, investigating a vast expanse of the solar system.

Pioneer 7 is to circle the sun at distances ranging from 92 million to 102 million miles, taking 400 days to complete one orbit.

them in the Hai Phong area and the southern, panhandle.

The strikes against the record of 139 missions flown against the north earlier this month.

In South Viet Nam, ground action dwindled to light and scattered fighting.

Even in the central highlands where a big scrap appeared to be shaping up, no contact had been reported since noon yesterday.

Air Force B-52 bombers struck today at suspected Viet Cong storage sites and troop concentrations 75 miles northwest of Saigon in War Zone C near the Cambodian border.

In the dogfight, the Navy planes from the carrier Oriskany were attacking a North Vietnamese train about 20 miles northeast of Thanh Hoa when the MIGs pounced on them.

The spokesman said the Navy bombers destroyed four boxcars before they left the scene.

He said the Navy planes did not fire on the MIGs. The encounter lasted only a few minutes.

OIL DUMPS HIT

Yesterday's raids the spokesman said, Navy planes scored destructive hits on two oil dumps and damaged others.

Skyhawks from the Oriskany hit the Tuc Tranh petroleum area three miles southeast of Thanh Hoa.

The Navy said pilots scored direct hits with 500-pound and 1,000-pound bombs. Flares jumped 200 feet, and a heavy black smoke rose 6,000 feet and was visible for 30 miles, pilots reported.

Another flight of Skyhawks from the Oriskany struck a fuel storage area northwest of Hai Phong.

FIREBALL

Photographers reported the fireball produced a large orange fireball that rose 1,500 feet and a ball of dark gray smoke covered the area.

Over-all in the raids yesterday, pilots reported they destroyed or damaged 39 barges, 13 bridges, 65 military storage buildings, 19 trucks and four anti-aircraft gun positions.

In addition to the two oil dumps heavily hit, several others were damaged, but smoke and dust prevented an accurate damage assessment, a spokesman said.

He said, however, numerous secondary fires and explosions were observed.

CIVILIAN CASUALTIES

In another development, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, American military commander in Viet Nam, ordered all his troops to take all possible steps to cut Vietnamese civilian casualties to a minimum.

Westmoreland's directive followed a series of mistakes U.S. or allied bombings on Vietnamese villages during the past week.

Since last Tuesday, three incidents of apparently mistaken attacks on villagers were reported.

Meyer said the long delay has caused a loss of "talent in all creative departments of the Herald Tribune."

'CONSOLIDATING'

"It now has reached the point where we cannot bring the public the kind of morning newspaper he hoped for. We are unwilling to settle for less," he said.

"We are therefore consolidating our talent and resources into an afternoon and a Sunday newspaper, to be known as the World Journal Tribune in both instances," Meyer said.

80 Feared Dead off Morocco

Ship Jammed With Vacationists Sinks

AGADIR, Morocco (UPI) — A fishing trawler jammed with women and children on a pleasure voyage sank off the coast of this Moroccan town yesterday. Officials said today more than 80 persons were feared dead.

Authorities said the victims were among women and children invited aboard the local trawler fleet for a vacation cruise celebrating the Roman Catholic feast of the assumption.

Too many turned out for the outing and were crammed aboard the trawlers almost shoulder to shoulder, police said.

The name of the trawler that sank was not known immediately, but authorities said "more than 100" persons were believed on board when it went down.

By early today, five bodies had been recovered and 14 persons had been rescued and were in a local hospital.

RESCUES HAMPERED

Rescue operations last night were hampered by the fact word of the sinking did not reach Agadir until after sundown.

Officials said the trawler appeared to have sunk from overloading rather than from any other cause.

Agadir, a port city about 200 miles southwest of Casablanca, was the scene of a severe earthquake in 1959 in which several thousand persons died.

Heart Attack Claims Tenor Jan Kiepusa

RYE, N.Y. (AP) — Metropolitan Opera tenor Jan Kiepusa died Monday of a heart attack at his home here. He was 62 years old.

His widow is soprano Marta Eggerth, with whom he sang operatic, concert, operetta and musical-comedy roles for many years.

A native of Sosnowiec, Poland, Kiepusa earned a law degree at the University of Warsaw. His clients few and far between, Kiepusa earned a living by singing at Polish film theaters.

He studied singing at Milan, and later sang at city's La Scala Opera House as well as in Vienna, Paris, Brussels, Berlin and London.

Road Toll Up

EAST LANSING (UPI) — State Police provisional traffic figures showed today that 1,320 persons have lost their lives on Michigan's streets and highways so far this year, compared with 1,215 for the same period in 1965.

Westmoreland's directive followed a series of mistakes U.S. or allied bombings on Vietnamese villages during the past week.

Since last Tuesday, three incidents of apparently mistaken attacks on villagers were reported.

Meyer said the long delay has caused a loss of "talent in all creative departments of the Herald Tribune."

"We are therefore consolidating our talent and resources into an afternoon and a Sunday newspaper, to be known as the World Journal Tribune in both instances," Meyer said.

Originally the company had planned to publish the Herald Tribune in the morning, the World Journal in the afternoon and the World Journal Tribune on Sunday.

The loss of the Herald Tribune left Manhattan with four major dailies, including the World Journal Tribune. The others are the morning New York Times and Daily News and the afternoon Post, Manhattan had six major dailies before the merger. Thirty-five years ago there were 12.

Japanese Little Leaguers to Be Guests of Jaycees

Three interpreters from Birmingham Overseas, Inc., will accompany the Jaycees and their guests. The team will be housed in Jaycee homes in the Birmingham-Bloomfield area.

During their week-end visit the Japanese guests will visit Greenfield Village, be the guests of the Detroit Tigers for the Tiger-Orlando game at Tiger Stadium, and attend a cookout at Springfield Park in Birmingham.

Judgeship Tally Change Made

One change in the position of the six winning candidates for Circuit Court judge was reported this morning by the Oakland County Board of Canvassers, but it didn't change the final outcome.

Pontiac Municipal Judge Cecil McCallum moved up from sixth to fifth spot with 12,601 votes, displacing Royal Oak attorney John N. O'Brien who received 12,519 votes.

Unofficial totals following the Aug. 2 primary had given McCallum 12,485 votes and O'Brien, 12,509.

Revisions also were announced in the votes of the four other circuit judge nominees.

According to the canvass, William Beasley received 27,944 votes, up 48; Farrell E. Roberts, 22,869, up 26; S. Jerome Bronson, 22,742, up 44; and Robert L. Templin, 16,241, down 112.

The results of the complete canvass were to be announced this afternoon.

3 Youngsters Die in Freezer

WEISSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Three children suffocated Monday when they crawled into an open freezer and shut the door, police said.

The bodies of Arlene Moyer, 4, her 2-year-old sister, Bonnie Marie, and a playmate, John Dreher, 3, were found by the eldest of the Moyer children, Arland Jr., 14.

Police said the three apparently were playing in a basement recreation room when they decided to search the freezer, which had been cleaned and left open in another basement room.

A chair was found near the freezer, which opens from the top, indicating the children used it to climb inside, police said.

There are five other children in the Moyer family. The Dreher also have five other children.

Cheryl was hospitalized a year ago with a tumor on her spine and was unable to walk until she underwent four critical operations earlier this year.

Fatal Flight Leads to Firing

WASHINGTON (AP)—An Air Force colonel has been fired from his post for approving a commercial picture-taking mission June 8 in which ace test pilot Joseph S. Walker and another pilot were killed.

Secretary of the Air Force Harold Brown, announcing the disciplinary action Monday, also said written reprimands have been or will be given to three other officials involved in the mission resulting in the crash of the $600-million XB70 and an F104 chase plane in California.

In a memorandum to Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Brown said the photographic mission was of "questionable propriety" and did not follow the letter and spirit of existing guidelines.

Besides Walker, who was piloting the F104, Maj. Carl S. Cross, copilot of the XB70, also was killed. Walker was holder of the world's altitude and speed records.

RELIEVED OF DUTIES
Brown said Col. Albert W. Cate has been relieved of his duties as deputy for systems tests in the XB70 programs. An Air Force spokesman said Cate was reassigned to the Contract Management Division of the Air Force Systems Command at the Los Angeles Air Force Station.

Receiving the reprimands are Col. Joe Cotton, test force director; Col. James G. Smith, information director for the Air Force Flight Test Center at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. Force F5. The pictures were being taken by a Lear jet contracted by General Electric.

Brown said the flight was properly authorized, except for the photographic mission. He said the flight originally was to include air speed calibration runs and familiarization for Cross, a new copilot making his first XB70 flight.

"The most probable cause" of the crash, Brown said, "is that the pilot of the F104 inadvertently allowed his aircraft to move into a position relative to the XB70 from which recovery was virtually impossible."

BOUQUET OF BLUES — When Carol Heinzenberger leaped for the bridal bouquet at her brother's recent wedding, she got more than she bargained for. And two days after the mishap, Carole turned down a marriage proposal. "The whole thing appeared jinxed," she said.

Reuther Supports Bill Insuring Pension Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The president of the United Auto Workers Union is supporting a bill designed to make sure that benefits of private pension plans are paid even if a company goes out of business.

Walter P. Reuther told the Senate Finance Committee Monday that "with the tremendous expansion of private pension plans in America and their development as a flexible and significant secondary source of retirement income, the security of the pension promise which they represent to millions of wage earners has clearly become a matter of vital public concern."

CONSIDERING MEASURE
The finance committee is considering the bill introduced by Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind. He said it was inspired by the loss of pension rights of many Studebaker Corp. employees when that company closed its South Bend, Ind., plants in 1964.

Hartke's bill proposes to establish a self-supporting federal reinsurance program for private pension plans, somewhat similar to the government's bank deposit insurance.

Including the Studebaker case, Reuther said, the UAW "has had direct experience with 113 pension plan terminations."
