Pickets March
at City Office of Michigan Bell

Agreement Fails to Stop Demonstration;
Service to Continue

Local employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. picketed the Pontiac district office at 54 E. Huron today, despite an 11th hour agreement between Michigan Bell and the Communications Workers of America for extension on a day-to-day basis of a contract which would have expired mid-night yesterday.

The old contract covers some 17,000 telephone employees in Michigan.

Telephone service in the area will be continued, assured company officials, but operator-handled calls may require a longer time to place.

There were about 12 to 15 pickets outside the E. Huron building, according to company officials.

Said E. Eugene Russell, district manager for Michigan Bell:

"We are manning information and long distance boards with supervisory people as a result of this illegal work stoppage by our employees."

Russell said that although the contract between Michigan Bell and the CWA expired yesterday at midnight, there had been a prior agreement to extend the contract on a day-to-day basis.

Therefore, he said, the contract continues in effect.

"This contract contains a no-strike clause," he said. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

It May Be Sunny,
but Teeth Chatter

Don't let the sunny skies fool you.

Gradually falling temperatures hit a new low of 40 at 6 a.m. today, a new low for the season.

JOHN DIFENBAKER

GERDA MUNSINGER

Pearson Is Hit
Over Security

OTTAWA (AP)—Former Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker, accused of putting personal judgment ahead of national security in the Munsinger sex-and-security case, has charged that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson did the same thing in an earlier security case.

The accusation against Diefenbaker, 71-year-old Conservative leader, was made yesterday by Supreme Court Judge Wishart Spence in his report on the government-ordered hearings into the 1960 scandal.

The judge said Diefenbaker should have fired his then associate defense minister, Pierre Sevigny, who had a liaison with Gerda Munsinger, a longtime self-admitted Soviet espionage agent.

He said the liaison created a security risk and made Sevigny vulnerable to pressure from foreign agents of the Montreal underworld, where the affair was common knowledge and "known to Mrs. Munsinger's fellow prostitutes."

Diefenbaker, who was in Boston, Mass., when the report was issued, charged it was "simply a political hatchet job from start to finish."

He added that in an earlier security case Pearson did not put national security first.

ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY

As foreign secretary in charge of diplomatic service in 1915, Pearson accepted responsibility for keeping Herbert Norman in his department after a security check revealed Norman had had Communist associations in the 1930s.

In 1957 Pearson acknowledged Norman's prior Communist associations, but said he had abandoned them voluntarily by 1959 when he joined the Foreign Affairs department.

Norman committed suicide April 4, 1957, while serving as Canadian ambassador to Egypt, after a U.S. Senate committee revived charges of communism against him.

Cycle Race
Stirs Fears
in Imlay City

IMLAY CITY — The three-man police force here is apprehensive about an American Motorcycle Association sanctioned race slated for tonight at the Imlay City Fairgrounds.

Reports of up to 5,000 participants have startled area residents, despite the fact that Police Chief Lawrence Dougherty said only 89 cyclists, mostly local, are involved.

Dougherty said, "We are not anticipating any trouble. This whole thing has been blown out of proportion by the people in the area."

"Our department and the LaPeer County Sheriff's Department have been asked to stand by in case of trouble, but these cyclists are not the same people who have been involved in ruckuses in West Branch, Muskegon and Port Huron," he said.

Peace Bid Kept Open

Won't Give Up
Despite Latest
Hanoi Rebuff

Rusk, Gromyko Sate
More Private Talks
With Viet Key Topic

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States refused today to give up on its latest peace proposals to North Viet Nam despite Hanoi's assertion that they were a hypocritical cover for military escalation.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, who made the proposals in the U.N. General Assembly Thursday, told reporters he did not consider Hanoi's reaction "to be a considered reply. It is public propaganda."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, meanwhile, was to have a chance to follow up the proposals privately at a dinner tonight given by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

The talks between the two started Thursday when Gromyko was Rusk's dinner guest.

Neither side would say what they meant to discuss, but their subjects seemed likely to include Viet Nam, European security, disarmament, prevention of the spread of nuclear weapons and a treaty for peaceful exploration of outer space.

GROMYKO BLAST

The meeting was to be the first since Gromyko denounced Goldberg's proposals in the assembly's general debate yesterday.

Both Gromyko and Hanoi demanded yesterday that the United States stop bombing North Viet Nam and withdraw its troops from South Viet Nam.

Hanoi also suggested that the United States discuss a solution directly with the South Vietnamese. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 1)

Vandals Hit School
in Bloomfield Twp.

Vandals struck at East Hills Junior High School, 2800 Kensington, Bloomfield Township, this morning, causing an undetermined amount of damage.

Bloomfield Township police said the inside of the building and interior of six school buses stored in an outside enclosure were sprayed with fire extinguisher contents.

The intruders gained entry to the school by breaking a window, according to police.

Gas tanks of five buses were filled with carbon dioxide, contained in 18 fire extinguishers which had been removed from the vehicles.

Police had not determined whether any of the extinguishers had been stolen.

The vandals were unsuccessful in an attempt to gain entry to a maintenance building.

Red Rocket Tests to Start on Monday

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union will start a month-long series of rocket tests in the Pacific on Monday, the news agency Tass announced today.

Tass said the tests will be conducted in an empty area of the Pacific about midway between the Aleutian Islands and Midway Island. They will last from Sept. 26 to Oct. 25.

B52s Strike
N. Viet Again

Bombers Hit Near
Demilitarized Zone

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Waves of U.S. B52 bombers raided North Viet Nam today for the third time in four days.

The huge bombers, flying above the weather, struck again in the southern end of North Viet Nam just a few miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The bombers hit Communist infiltration routes, truck parks and storage deposits.

Smaller U.S. tactical bombers gave the once demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam a going over, pounding seven North Vietnamese storage areas in the zone.

In South Viet Nam, ground fighting was small and scattered.

OPERATION ENDED

The crack South Korean Tiger Division ended a six-month-old operation and promptly launched a new one.

Simultaneously, Australian troops terminated their current operation and the U.S. command announced that the recently arrived 196th Light Infantry was in action for the first time.

About the time they ended this operation yesterday, the division launched a multibattalion search and destroy sweep in the Phu Cat Mountains six miles north of Qui Nhon.

In the first day of the drive, the ROK troops reported killing 41 Viet Cong and capturing five while taking light casualties.

L'I'L ONES

"I didn't say you were fat, I just said 'what an awful lot of sugar 'n' spice.'"

LOOKING TOWARD FUTURE — Tentatively scheduled for completion in December 1967, the route of the Pontiac-Mount Clemens Freeway from the Opdyke interchange to Wide Track Drive in Pontiac (top center), is clearly defined in this aerial photograph.

A 4.5-mile section of the freeway (relocated M59) from Opdyke east to existing M59 near Rochester Road is to be opened to traffic Oct. 18. Pontiac's sewer treatment plant is in the left center of the photo.

Goldberg told the assembly Thursday that, as a first step toward unconditional negotiations, the United States was "prepared to order a cessation of all bombing of North Viet Nam the moment" it got assurance that North Viet Nam would respond by reducing or ending its military activities in South Viet Nam.

Hungary Says CIA Foiled

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP) — Hungarian authorities claimed today to have obtained top secret documents on American espionage activities directed by the Central Intelligence Agency against two Atlantic Treaty allies — France and West Germany — and neutral Austria.

Documents purportedly containing names of CIA agents assigned to these countries were shown during a news conference held to report on U.S. espionage attempts in Hungary allegedly foisted with the help of Hungarian recruits by the CIA.

Geza Nemenyi, head of the government press department, showed newsmen what he described as "registration cards" of CIA agents said to have been charged with collecting "as many details as possible on the armed forces of these countries," including names and locations of military units, number of staff personnel and technical equipment.

Nemenyi did not explain how his government had obtained the documents, nor did he explain what significance such information could have had for the U.S. government.

Eager Beavers Dam Fast

DAWSON SPRINGS, Ky. (AP) — Some of the world's best-trained engineers saved Uncle Sam the trouble of building a dam across the small trade water river in West Kentucky.

The engineers didn't wait for construction bids nor did they bother to get sanction for their work.

A colony of beavers packed mud, driftwood and assorted debris to divert the river from its usual course.

Water backed into creek, leaving the river bed dry below the dam. A lake was formed dam.

13 Free on $1.3-Million Bail

Grand Jury to Quiz Mafia Suspects

NEW YORK (AP) — Thirteen Cosa Nostra figures, warned not to stray far after their release in $1.3-million bail, have the weekend to decide what they will tell a grand jury delving into their crime syndicate activities.

The 13, representing Mafia control points around the country, are to be questioned by a Queens County panel Monday on the current distribution of syndicate power and changes within its hierarchy.

The grand jury heard two witnesses yesterday, one of them the owner of the Forest Hills, Queens, restaurant where police found the Mafia's meeting Thursday at a steak and lasagna banquet table. The identity of the second witness was not disclosed.

Chief Inspector Sanford Garelik, who directed the raid, said it was apparent from the importance of the 13 and the distances they had traveled, that "matters of national importance" to the crime syndicate were under discussion.

Garelik called the roundup the most important since state police broke up a Mafia convention involving 60 top hoodlums and their friends at Appalachian, N.Y., in 1957.

At the top of the current agenda, police sources speculated, was parcelling out the territory of Gaetano (Three Fingers) Brown Luchese, the ailing 66-year-old boss of the powerful New York Luchese "family."

Investigators were particularly interested in the absence of members of the Joseph (Joe Bonanno) Bonanno clan from the meeting. It controls major underworld enterprises in Arizona, Texas, Nevada, Florida, Wisconsin and California.

Queens Dist. Atty. Nat H. Hentel said the 13 were held in the high bail of $100,000 each because he was afraid they might not be available for questioning. Each was named as a material witness in the grand jury investigation of "major crimes" in Queens.

Nixon Asks Party to Shorten Viet War

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon contends that at the present rate, it will take the United States five more years to end the war in Viet Nam.

He says it is up to the Republicans to show the way to shorten the war without appeasement.

Speaking to about 1,000 persons at a dinner winding up the Nebraska Republican Convention last night, Nixon contended that five more years of war would also bring the nation more casualties than its fighting forces suffered in Korea.

Besides, he said, "Five years from now, Communist China will have nuclear weapons it can deliver in that area."

The result, he said, will be greatly increased danger of a third world war.

OFFERS VIEWS

To shorten the war, Nixon said this nation should: — Make more use of air and sea power against military targets in Viet Nam.

Establish an effective economic quarantine of North Viet Nam.

"Any nation that trades with an enemy of the United States should receive no foreign aid," he declared.

The 1966 Republican presidential candidate predicted that North Viet Nam "is not going to react favorably to any U. S. peace feelers until after the election."

NOTES RESECTION

He made the observation at a news conference preceding his convention address, noting that Hanoi had rejected peace proposals by Ambassador Arthur Goldberg before the United Nations.

Nixon is on a campaign swing through 34 states for GOP candidates.

Help Is Sought for Criminals

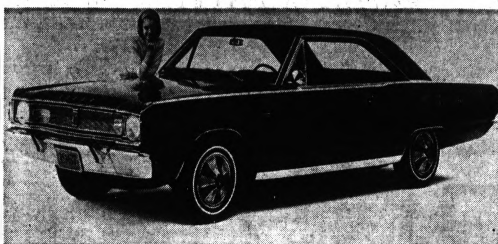

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's 600 municipal leaders to the new commission in crime is inviting community leaders to develop a volunteer program for criminal rehabilitation.

A day-long meeting in Lansing Nov. 10 will center around the Royal Oak Municipal Court program, which reportedly is able to offer $300,000 worth of rehabilitation and probation services on an annual budget of $25,000—thanks to citizen volunteers.

The commission has invited

"The idea of the conference will be to explore how to interest volunteers to help courts and the offenders — and how to sustain that interest," said Louis Rome, executive director of the commission.

The Royal Oak program was started by Municipal Judge Keith Leenhouts.

DODGE DART — Billed as "America's largest compact," the Dart was formally introduced today by Dodge Division. Recessed grille and concave backlight treatment are cited by company engineers as new features. Dart, offered in 12 models and four body styles, is headed by the two-door GT hardtop shown above.

Survey U.K. Wage-Price Freeze

It does not take any great analysis to realize that the British Labor Government is in for a hard time. The wage-price freeze is at issue. FRANK COUSINS, who heads the Transport and General Workers Union and who quit the cabinet post of Minister of Technology in protest over wage restraints, is certain to fight the freeze. The government's attitude is receiving good support from groups other than organized labor. The attitude is attractively reasonable. The selling point is that all Britons are asked to deny themselves for six months, or even 12, for their own benefit and that of their friends and neighbors. Finally, the inevitable court tests are bound to be slow and drawn out. The likelihood that the austerity program should be struck down by the judiciary before the six months elapse is very small. By the end of six months, so the thinking goes, higher productivity will change the whole economic horizon. We wonder? Americans will be interested to see whether Prime Minister Harold Wilson can make stick the kind of wage-price fix that Lyndon B. Johnson doesn't even want to talk out loud about.

Jet Flights to Circle Globe at Dizzying Pace

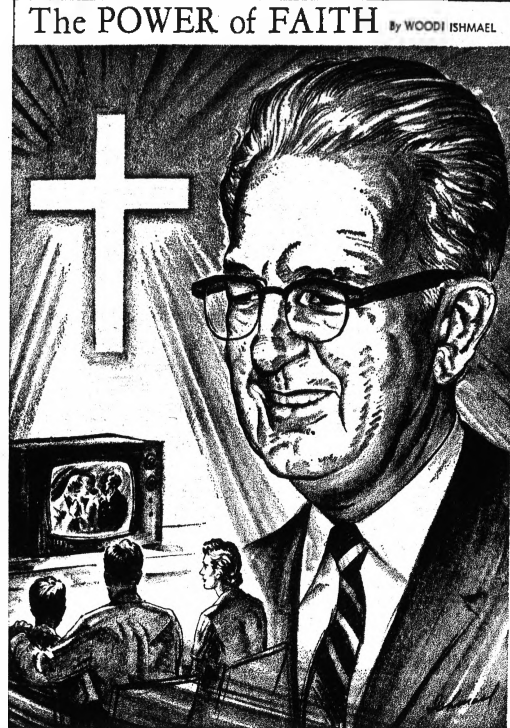

A revolution in travel is on the drafting boards that will make today's jets look like the Model T, or the first TV picture. By the beginning of the 1970s, the 1,450-m.p.h. Concorde supersonic jet will be flying, linking New York and Paris in 2 1/2 hours. Coming along a few years later will be the American SST jets clocking 1,800 m.p.h. In the 1980s, these jets will be competing with newly developed hypersonic transports capable of flying 1,500 to 2,000 m.p.h. The result will be more frequent flights and lower rates "to create a vastly broadened travel and air cargo market." So at least predicts Air France, which expects to put the Concorde into service in 1971. The airline envisions other changes the fast-flying planes will bring. Meals on board will be prepared instantly by electronic beams. Lightweight paper clothing will permit compact, completely disposable wardrobes. Passengers will relax in astronaut-type, self-sculpturing seats as the cabin atmosphere gradually changes to match that of the climate at the destination. Harried businessmen will be able to make telephone calls to any part of the world while in flight. Meanwhile, some editorial writer will casually note that 90 per cent of the world's people have never set foot in an airplane or traveled more than 100 miles from home.

LBJ Pulls Reins to Halt Inflationary Gallop

The threat of inflation is perhaps the most dangerous thing facing this country today. The recent veto by President Johnson of a bill to increase life insurance coverage for federal employees that would have cost the taxpayers $90 million dollars was a step in the right direction. It may be small but at least it is action rather than talk by the President. Figures showed that the bill could have led to the extension of equivalent benefits to workers in private industry that would have

Humphrey Still Kept Guessing

By JAMES MARLOW Associated Press News Analyst WASHINGTON—President Johnson plays it so close to the chest even the man he picked to be his closest aide, the president's Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, is left looking un-informed. This isn't the way President John F. Kennedy treated his vice president, Lyndon B. Johnson, who has made a career of secret keeping until he is ready for disclosures in his own good time, and for his own reasons. The way Johnson dismissed a question about Humphrey this week creates a new question: Will he repeat his 1964 performance of leaving Humphrey hanging on the hook till the last minute? In the 1964 election year, when the country had no vice president, Johnson kept an almost incredible silence about the man he wanted for his running mate. He gave the impression of agonizing over the decision. Humphrey, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and others were publicly talked about as likely prospects. Johnson said nothing. Then, shortly before the Democratic convention opened in August, Johnson eliminated Kennedy. He just simply announced no member

On Easter Sunday morning, 1939, the Rev. Herman W. Gockel resigned from his church in Evansville, Ind. Due to a throat affliction, it was the end of his parish ministry for him. To many it would seem it was the end of his career as a minister. But not to Dr. Gockel, for he was determined to put "religion into everyday words for everyday people." Dr. Gockel's life is a great lesson in faith and courage. Having always been interested in writing, he was soon in a new kind of ministry through newspaper columns, articles, books and hymns. He worked on the editorial staff of a number of Lutheran publications and helped found the St. Louis Lutheran newspaper in 1945. His zeal for reaching the people led him to TV. Since 1951 he has been the program director of the veteran TV religious dramatic series "This is the Life," now in its 15th year, produced by the Television Productions Board of The Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Dr. Gockel relinquished one congregation because he couldn't speak only to discover one of the world's largest congregations. Each week "This is the Life" under his spiritual guidance is seen on 375 stations throughout the United States and Canada. It reaches viewers in an increasing number of countries around the world and is carried on 22 overseas stations of the Armed Forces Radio and Television Service.

Confident Living: Seek Earth's Gift of Regeneration

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE One good thing about a vacation is the opportunity to commune with the wonders of the natural world. For many weeks I have been living among the Swiss people in the heart of the Alps. In this majestic environment my enthusiasm for life and my appreciation for the wonders of the world have been tremendously reactivated. As I write these words I am working on the balcony of a Swiss chalet high above the village of Grindelwald in the Berner Oberland. This fabulous retreat has been our inspiring home for a month during the closing days of late summer and early fall. But perhaps the Creator felt that the vastness of towering mountains is more than the individual mind can continuously endure; so, as a compensation, He made one of the loveliest things in the world—the Alpine meadow. There is nothing more peaceful on the face of the earth than an Alpine meadow bathed in the warm sun of afternoon. But always enormous forces are at work around our chalet. Just a moment ago a crash and roar like a hundred thunder claps came all at once from the Elger glacier as an incredible avalanche hurtled down the mountainside, pouring ice and snow in an enormous stream for all the world like a gigantic waterfall. The echo reverberated among the great peaks and finally died after roaring and shouting for several minutes. Then once again peace descended on the Alpine meadow, tinkling cowbells filled the air and fluttering butterflies lightly commingled with shy mountain flowers. I was made so enthusiastic by this glorious turbulent power and quiet beauty all packed into one great expression of the wonder of the world that a great satisfying thought came to mind. If I had only this one day, indeed only this one minute to live the answer to the riddle of life would be mine. One wonders how anyone living the marvelous and fascinating creation known as the physical world could be so impervious to it that he would actually exist on a glum, gloomy and negative basis. A few sour experiences, a setback or two and some difficult problems and for lots of people the wonder and excitement of life are washed out. I was walking one day with a friend on the long and difficult high trek from Mannelchen to Kleinschneidegg. As we trudged along under the lee of the snowy mountains he said, "I've had a rocky time of it lately. But most of the rockiness was in my own mind for I had become a soured, gripey man. I have so many things I should be thankful for but I was just downright unhappy. And then I developed a whole crop of ailments and complaints. Then we decided this trip to Switzerland and these mountains have gotten hold of

Voice of the People: Tells Teen of Number of Recreational Resources

I would ask "Disgusted Teen" how hard he has tried to find somewhere to go and something to do. Aside from several commercial ventures, there are the YMCA, public recreation, Boys Club, Boy Scouts, church, and a variety of school activities. I am sure there are more recreational resources available. Of course, none of these agencies or services will provide thrills — just good clean fun and wholesome recreation. DAVID LAWRENCE YMCA YOUTH DIRECTOR

'Liberal' and 'Conservative' Clearly Defined

Governor Romney's understanding of the English language must have become fuzzy. He expresses pleas for unity, saying conservatives and liberals are the same. I quote Mr. Romney "The genuine conservative cannot accomplish his objectives without putting the individual first. The genuine liberal cannot accomplish his objectives without drawing on proven experience and principles." Webster defines "Liberal" as: "not bound by orthodox tenets or established forms in political or religious philosophy; independent in opinion, not conservative." Webster defines "Conservative" as: "within safe bounds, moderate, designating/pertaining to existing institutions or forms of government." Mr. Romney, a true leader, does not confuse or compromise for expediency; he sets a true course by example. Mr. Romney, I quote Webster again: "expediency"—"useful, convenient, based on self-interest, means to an end." BRUCE E. DUKE FARMINGTON

'Nation's Fear Seen in Meteor Reaction'

I wonder if a man who looks at a meteor and thinks we are under attack should be trusted with affairs of state. The Governor, I'm afraid, is only one of the victims of the delusions that affect many Americans. The Chinese, only 27 years from feudalism, and the Vietnamese, inhabitants of a tiny undeveloped nation, are not threatening us. We are dropping bombs on them. Could it be that Mr. Romney feels guilty? JOANNE FIREMAN 1359 WHITTIER

Washington Notebook:

Vote-Tracking Computer Foiled By WASHINGTON STAFF Newspaper Enterprise Assn. WASHINGTON (NEA) — In Georgia, Rep. Howard (Bo) Callaway, GOP nominee for governor, has put together a Kennedy-style or organizational effort which is unique in southern politics. It includes reliance on a computer which is busy telling Callaway cohorts where favorable voters can be found. The other day a Callaway man tapped on a door in Atlanta. As the resident answered the knock, he noticed that his visitor was confidently riffling through a stack of punch cards as if to suggest that the old computer had really put him on the trail. The visitor spoke. "Mr. Hagan?" he inquired. "No," replied the home owner. "He died two years ago."

A HEAVY WORKLOAD He piled assignments and responsibilities on Humphrey. The vice president has been running up and down the country making speeches and is so loyal to Johnson that some of his liberal admirers have soured on him. But Robert F. Kennedy, now a U.S. senator from New York, has been running up and down making speeches and getting more enthusiastic receptions than Humphrey at a time when Johnson's standing in the public opinion polls has been falling.

THE SIGN OF ACTION

Jewish Faith throughout the world, are observing Yom Kippur, the most solemn of Jewish festivals. Services which began at sundown yesterday will conclude at sunset today with the traditional blowing of the shofar.

Jews Celebrate Holiest of Days

Temples and synagogues in the Pontiac area were filled to overflowing as Jews observed Yom Kippur, the holiest day of the Jewish calendar in services which began at sundown yesterday.

Evening rites opened with sermons and the most celebrated song in Jewish music, "Kol Nidre."

The blast of the shofar will end the day of fasting at sunset today.

Yom Kippur is a 24-hour period completely given over to the confession of sins and remorse over wrongdoing. It is a day of seeking pardon from a person whom one may have offended by word or deed.

From sunset to sunset Jews are expected to observe complete abstinence from food and drink, and to assemble in their houses of worship for prayer.

Yom Kippur culminates the 10-day repentance period.

Like all Jewish holidays Yom Kippur begins at sundown of the previous day.

Prior to the beginning of fasting, the entire family eats an elaborate and festive meal to indicate that the fasting is approached not in a spirit of doom, but with an eager anticipation of God's grace.

After the meal when parents

Kippur, is the most impressive service of the day.

The plaintive melody of the traditional prayer, with its echoes of the Crusades and numberless other calamities the Jews have suffered, infuses the worshiper with a sense of the solemnity of the occasion when man faces his Maker to ask forgiveness for past errors and for help in facing the future.

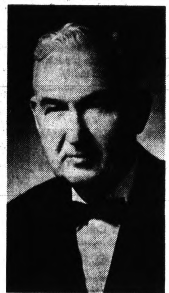

ASK FOR GOOD YEAR

They implore God that they might have a good year, and be able to serve Him with truth and integrity.

REV. RICHARD ADKINS

DR. ROY ALDRICH

Missionary From Kenya, College President Speak

Speaking at Trinity Methodist Church, 2001 Cass Lake, Keego Harbor tomorrow will be the Rev. Richard Adkins, missionary to Kenya, Africa.

The evening will begin with a dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by the program about 7:30.

Missionary Adkins will speak at 7 p.m. Tuesday at Elmwood Methodist Church, 2680 Rosedale.

Rev. Mr. Adkins, the son of missionary parents, has completed two terms of service in Kenya under the World Gospel Mission, an interdenominational missionary organization with some 240 missionaries serving in 16 areas of the world.

Growing up on the mission field, he learned to love the Kipsigis people and felt that some day he, too, would be a missionary to Kenya.

Rev. Mr. Adkins attended Vennard and Asbury colleges. He received his master's degree from the University of Michigan.

His work included serving as principal of the intermediate school in Tenwek and industrial work. During the past term Adkins and his wife opened and managed the new Christian Literature Center in Kericho.

They also engaged in literature production and distribution. A desperate need for trained teachers made it necessary for the Adkins to return to Tenwek where he taught in the high school.

AUBURN HEIGHTS U.P.

Church Purchases Six Acres

The congregation of First Wesleyan Methodist Church, 67 N. Lynn, not only has purchased six acres of land for a new church at the corner of Scott Lake and Watkins Lake, Waterford Township, but it has a new pastor as well.

The Rev. Glenn H. Marks of Indianapolis, Ind., has accepted the position as pastor of First Wesleyan Church. He arrived with his family this week.

A native of Michigan, Pastor Marks grew up in Cass County, Ind. Learning of several medical corps during World War II, who were looking for a II. Both the pastor and his wife pastor, the Rev. Mr. Marks then attended Fort Wayne Bible Institute and were graduated from a church.

For the past 18 years church extension has been the Rev. Mr. Marks' particular ministry. The reopening of a country church was the challenge of his first pastorate in Plymouth, Ind.

The second was building and worships in a stone church with a parsonage on 8½ acres of land. The Marks have four children.

Former pastor of the First Wesleyan Church, the Rev. Jay DeNeff was transferred to Sturgis.

Catholics Push Medical Equality

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Catholic Conference for Interracial Justice has launched a new project to push for equality for Negroes in all phases of medical care and public health.

Raymond M. Hilliard, conference chairman, said the new program aims to "bring an end to discrimination in the field of medicine."

Announce Activities

Operation Contact Reopens

According to the Rev. Jack H. C. Clark, Operation Contact, a service free to churches in the Pontiac area to give information daily concerning those entering the three local hospitals as patients, resumed Monday.

Churches have only to call the council office of Pontiac Area Council of Churches, give the name of their church and receive names of parishioners at Pontiac General, St. Joseph and Pontiac Osteopathic hospitals.

FIRST METHODIST
Christian education Sunday will be observed through the Church School at 11 a.m. tomorrow in First Methodist Church, Judson at Saginaw. Each department will have its own program.

The Rev. Richard Lobb of Swartz Creek Methodist Church will be guest speaker at the 5:30 cooperative supper tomorrow afternoon. The program is sponsored by the commission on missions.

Young people will provide the music.

The new Methodist hymnals will be dedicated during morning worship tomorrow, and Lonne Boone will be presented the Boy Scout Eagle Award.

Pastor Clyde Smith will preach on "God's Guiding Hand," the final sermon in the series on the Lord's Prayer.

NEWMAN AVE.
The Rev. A. N. Reid and congregation of Newman A.M.E. Church will worship tomorrow in Indianapolis, Ind., with the Rev. J. Allen Parker at Bethel A.M.E. Church.

This is a return visit to the Rev. Mr. Parker, a former pastor of Newman Church.

Parishioners will go by bus with their pastor. The Senior, Adult and Youth choirs will sing during the morning service and present a musical program at 3:30 p.m.

Morning service will be held as usual at 11 a.m. in the local church under the supervision of the associate minister, Rev. Robert W. Hoover.

ORCHARD LAKE
Christian Koch, director of Christian education at the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian, will preach tomorrow.

He and Mrs. Koch visited his son, a national missions pastor in Anchorage, Alaska, during the summer and served as consultants to the church while there.

The Rev. Jean Dimond of the Michigan Civil Rights Commission and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Macdon of Detroit will be guests of the Orchard Lake Church for the family night buffet supper at 5 p.m. tomorrow.

A discussion, "On the Street Where You Live" will follow. Howard Hobart was chosen commissioner to the meeting of Detroit Presbytery in Milford Tuesday evening. Alternate is Hugh Freeman.

Others planning to attend include The Rev. and Mrs. Henry D. Jones, Carroll Appel, Charles Wright, William Duckwitz and Pastor Edward D. Auchard, currently serving as vice moderator.

Faithfulness and truth are the most sacred excellences and endowments of the human mind. — Cicero, Roman orator.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Evans of Sylvan Lake, he is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and Seabury-Western Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Mr. Evans spent two years in military service and two years with Parke-Davis & Co. in Chicago before entering seminary.

Sing at 7:30
The congregation of New Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church, 429 Central, is sponsoring a musicale at 7:30 p.m. tomorrow. Guests will be the Heart Teachers of Detroit, Ecclesiastes Aims of Detroit and several groups from Pontiac. Proceeds will benefit the building fund.

Pastor Speaks
"The Strength of My Life" will be the sermon theme of the Rev. Malcolm K. Burton at First Congregational Church at 10:30 a.m. tomorrow. The Chancel Choir will sing "Holy Art Thou" by Handel.

Music Festival
Set for Oct. 1-2

The Davenport Songsters of Toronto, Ont., will be featured during the Festival of Music Oct. 1 and 2 at the Salvation Army, 29 W. Lawrence.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. Saturday. The singers will perform at 3 p.m. Oct. 2. Major John Grindle said there is no admission charge.

Missionaries
Speak, Show
Slides Sunday

The Rev. and Mrs. Lawrence Dawson, missionaries for 15 years with the Un evangelized Fields Mission in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, will speak of their work at services tomorrow in Donelson Baptist Church, 1227 Elizabeth Lake, Waterford Township.

The Rev. Mr. Dawson will preach at the 11 a.m. worship hour and show slides at 7 p.m.

The Dawsons are both graduates of Moody Bible Institute. Mrs. Dawson also graduated from Michigan State University.

Besides organizing and serving a church in Santo Domingo, the Dawsons founded a Christian Day School as an effective medium of reaching a greater number of Dominican homes with the Gospel by including Bible study in the daily curriculum.

The Rev. Lee F. LaLone, pastor, said the public is invited to all services.

William Francis Naughtons

Bermuda Trip After Vows

Flying to Bermuda after their wedding reception today in the Bloomfield Open Hunt will be the junior William Francis Naughtons (Judy Kay Koch).

Vows were taken in St. Hugo of the Hills by the couple whose parents are the Nathan E. Kochs, Bloomfield Hills and the William F. Naughtons of Milton, Mass.

Six bridesmaids wearing bamboo chiffon preceded the bride who chose a designer gown of ivory silk alpaca and coachman's coat with re-embroidered Alcon lace applique.

An alpaca headpiece caught her imported illusion veil and her bouquet held miniature carnations, artificial white grapes and wheat.

With Peggy N. Koch, her sister's honor maid was another sister, Patricia, with bridesmaids Ann Wissink, Holland; Lynn McCarroll; St. Paul Minn.; Brenda Naughton; Mary Gregory, Franklin.

Sandra Koch was flower girl and Christopher F. Caudley, ring bearer.

Best man was James J. Koch with ushers David F. Cramd, Hilton, N.Y.; Dean B. Matheson, Westwood, N.J.; Arshag A. Casbarian, New Orleans, Donald R. Trice, Washington.

The bride is an alumna of Michigan State University where her husband earned his master's degree after graduation from Cornell University.

MRS. W. F. NAUGHTON JR.

Judy Kay Koch, daughter of the Nathan E. Kochs, Bloomfield Hills, and William Francis Naughton Jr., son of the William F. Naughtons of Milton, Mass., were married today in St. Hugo of the Hills Church.

Rochester AAUW Plans Miniature Workshop

"A Workshop in Miniature" Wednesday in the Avon Township Library, is slated for members of the Rochester Branch, American Association of University Women. The group will meet at 7:30 p.m.

The project is designed to acquaint members and guests with the structure and function of the AAUW.

A question and answer period will follow with Mrs. James Sponseller and Virginia Thrun participating.

Preceding the workshop, dessert will be served by the hostess committee, Mrs. Michael Myal, Mrs. Charles Dugan, Mrs. David Greenwall, Mrs. George Griebel, Mrs. Arthur Maynard, Mrs. Douglas Owen and Mrs. Sponseller.

NEW DUTIES

Taking new offices at this time will be Mrs. John Solverson, president; Mrs. John Skiff, first vice president; Mrs. Bernhard, Vislees second vice president; Mrs. Edward Goodwin and Mrs. Richard Jaffe, secretaries; and Mrs. William Busto, treasurer.

A number of Rochester branch members attended a state-wide workshop this past summer at Central Michigan University.

Next spring this branch will hostess an AAUW workshop for the southeastern branches of the state.

Slate Winter Vows

Early December vows are planned by Catherine Eileen Sheldon, daughter of the James Sheldons of Summer Avenue, Orion Township, and James Lee Jarrett, son of the George Jarretts of Leonard.

Dear Fat: It's Back to Doctor for His Advice, Treatment

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN
DEAR ABBY: I just have to lose weight, or I will go crazy. I have tried starving, dieting (with and without a doctor's supervision), exercise, pills, shots—nothing works.

I even started smoking INSTEAD of eating. I did lose weight, but I got so nervous I couldn't sleep at night, so I had a hypnotist treat me for smoking. He got me off cigarettes, but I started to drink like a fish. By the time he cured me of drinking I was my old fat self again.

Last evening was the payoff. My husband took me to a dress-up affair. I wore a giraffe pushed my spare tire UP, and a bra that pushed it DOWN. I was in agony until I went to the powder room and took everything off underneath. When I zipped my dress up, the zipper broke, the seams split, and, of course, we had to go home. PLEASE, PLEASE help me!

"FAT" DEAR "FAT." It's back to the doctor for you! And this time listen carefully, take his advice, and no cheating! And if HE sends you to a psychiatrist, go. What you put in your mouth is all in your head.

DEAR ABBY: Just one question: How does a mother part with her child when an institution for the incurably handicapped is the only answer?

A MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: She prays for the wisdom and strength to put aside all thoughts of herself, and to consider only what is best for her child.

DEAR ABBY: My sister sent us her 19-year-old daughter to get a job in this city. She has been here since the second of June and has gone job hunting only once. She claims she can't find anything. This girl is big and strong. She sleeps until noon because she's tired out from watching the late, late shows on TV.

She lies around the house all day reading trashy magazines and eating. She pays no room and board and won't even keep her own room clean. How much longer do we have to put up with her? I can't take much more of this.

HAD IT DEAR HAD IT: Give the girl some "required reading"—the WANT ADS. And tell her she has exactly one week in which to find a job and start working at it. Otherwise OUT!

Seven WNFGA Groups Ready Mall for Exhibit

The Pontiac Mall Flower Show "Accent on Elegance" will open Monday to run through Saturday at the Mall Shopping Center. Hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily.

Mrs. Earl Weston of Wing Lake Shores branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association and Mrs. Robert Alton of the Pontiac branch are chairman and cochairman respectively.

BRANCHES INVOLVED

The seven areas WNFGA branches responsible for the show are Pontiac, Holiday Farms, Lake Angelus, Lorraine Manor, Sylvan Lake, Waterford and Wing Lake Shores, also the Detroit chapter of Ikebana International.

For staging this exhibit, The Pontiac Mall is contributing $1,000 to the participating branches. This award will be given to the Drayton Plains Nature Center, Inc. to further develop this 140 acres of woods, fields, rivers and where a variety of plant and animal life will be maintained in their natural habitat.

Plans also call for a modest museum for a display of area wild life and natural resources, also a live museum which will feature native animals.

Some of the existing ponds will be used for displays and exhibits of fish.

Wooded nature trails, aquatic study areas, a weather station, group lectures and forums, canoe instruction, wildflower sanctuary, bird-feeding stations, casting instructions, displays and dioramas will offer something constraining to those who seek knowledge and enjoyment in the world of nature.

School children will benefit greatly from this project where Oakland County money will be used in Oakland County.

Demonstrations will be held three times daily at 11:30 a.m., 3:30 and 7:00 p.m.

On Monday, Mrs. Arthur Hyde will give three demonstrations of making Della Robbia wreaths, with Mrs. Arthur Stiller doing topiary trees, afternoon and evening only.

Mrs. N. A. Thureson will demonstrate dish gardens Tuesday morning and Mrs. W. F. McClellan, terrariums, afternoon and evening.

Wednesday offers three lessons on cone wreaths with Mrs. Gordon Parker.

Mrs. Richard Goodwin and Mrs. Glenn Bedell of Ikebana International will handle Thursday's instructions.

Friday will offer three lessons on corsage making with Mrs. William Sanderson. Mrs. Boris Osipjak will demonstrate dried arrangements on Saturday.

These demonstrations, varied in theme and materials will be presented by local garden-clubbers as a community service.

NANCY JEANNE SCHNEIDER

Chancel Vows Exchanged by George Howard Glovers

The chancel of Christ Church Cranbrook was the setting today for the noon vows of Mary Elizabeth Weber and George Howard Glover Jr.

After a wedding breakfast in the Orchard Lake Country Club the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in Mexico.

Their parents are the James M. Hamans and the George H. Glovers, all of Bloomfield Village.

MANTILLA

A mantilla of re-embroidered Alcon lace and imported illusion complemented the bride's gown and train of white silk peau de soie. She carried Phalaenopsis orchids and salal.

Mrs. Thomas Himes of Madison, Wis. was matron of honor.

Daniel A. Glover was his brother's best man and Robert E. Vince seated the guests.

The couple will reside in Birmingham.

MRS. GEORGE H. GLOVER JR.

DEAR ABBY: I don't know what your husband's line of work is, but I know he isn't a minister or you wouldn't tell everybody with a problem to go "talk to their minister."

My husband is a minister and there are not enough hours in his day to do all the things expected of him. He has the financial problems of the church, Sunday school, sermons, hospital calls, shut-in visits, welcoming newcomers to town, funerals, consoling their families, weddings, pre-marital counseling, patching up family fights, kids in trouble, christenings, communions, and this doesn't even touch on all the community meetings and projects he is asked to help on.

Tell me, Abby, who do I send my children to with their problems? And who will sit and listen to mine?

WEARY IN WEST VIRGINIA

CONFIDENTIAL TO

"READY, WILLING AND ABLE." Many people gamble on horses, why not gamble on people? For instance a man in your position could:

- Offer employment to someone who has served a prison term;
- Extend additional credit to someone who has suffered financial reverses;
- Believe in a person even after he has told an untruth;
- Be willing to forgive and forget after a bitter quarrel.

P.S. I am indebted to Rabbi Bernard S. Raskas for this priceless bit of wisdom.

Problems? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Winter vows are planned by Nancy Jeanne Schneider, daughter of the Donald W. Schneiders of Sedgfield Drive, and Charles W. Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Collins of Grand Rapids.

She is an alumna of University of Michigan where her fiance was a former student.

Dear Mrs. Post: Our daughter is 20, her boy friend is 24. Before he went overseas, she was pined with his fraternity pin. Just what does this mean and what are the obligations as far as she is concerned?

Also, as her parents, do we offer congratulations either to him or his parents?—Mrs. B.

Dear Mrs. B.: When young people are "pined" they are engaged to be engaged. But it is not an "official" status and therefore requires no action from you. Your daughter's obligations are settled between her and her boy friend.

Some couples agree not to go out with other boys or girls; others continue to do so until engagement is official.

TIERED TEABAGS

Dear Mrs. Post: When tea is served with the teabag in the cup, what do you do with the bag when the tea has been steeped enough?—Lenore.

Dear Lenore: The bag is lifted out by the string just high enough to clear the rim of the cup, and laid on the saucer. You may, in order that it not fill the saucer with liquid, press the bag gently against the inside top of the cup with your spoon, to extract as much tea as possible.

She's Unsure About Phone Invitations

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: My fiance is in the armed forces and we are planning to be married when he gets out of boot camp. We don't want a large wedding and I was wondering if it would be proper etiquette to call the family and close friends and invite them for a small reception.

I am not sure when my fiance will get a furlough; therefore, I wouldn't know what date to put on the invitations if I were to have them engraved.—Anne Marie.

Dear Anne Marie: As soon as the date is set, you certainly may telephone. Your invitations and you might also write informal notes to out-of-town friends, or those you have difficulty reaching by phone. Good luck to you and your fiance!

Lansing Is Site for Convention of Auxiliaries

"Where the Action Is" will be the theme of the Oct. 10-11 convention of the Michigan Association of Hospital Auxiliaries.

The Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing will be the setting for this 18th annual event.

Speakers will include Donald E. Walchenback, H. Allen Barth, Patricia Sussmann, John MacLellan and Leigh Thomas.

Workshops have been planned not only to cover activities of the past but also to reveal future work plans.

PCHS Class Plans "Do"

The Pontiac Central High School June class of 1967 is planning its reunion. Interested persons may attend a planning session at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the school.

Further information on the event may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Michael Drake of North Anderson Street or Mrs. James Souden of Motorway Drive. The reunion is tentatively scheduled for June of 1967.

MRS. J. P. WILLIAMS

Miss Kaubisch
Selects White
Peau de Soie

Wearing a bouffant gown of white peau de soie and Chantilly lace styled with court train, DeLana Kaubisch became the bride of Jon Paul Williams, today in St. Michael Catholic Church.

Her veil was silk illusion and she carried white roses, carnations and Stephanotis.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Kaubisch of Gregory Road, Orion Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Williams of East Mansfield Avenue.

Bridal attendants included Nanna Reeves, honor maid with bridesmaids Diane Smith and Hontas Thurham. Debbie Kitchner was flower girl.

With best man Richard Bray, were the ushers Perry Buhl, Ed Johnson and David Woodmen.

After the reception in the American Legion Hall, Auburn Heights the couple left for a northern honeymoon.

Their Time,
Love Needed

It's back-to-school for grandpa and grandpa! Especially if they volunteer as "foster grandparents."

Elderly people with time on their hands — and love in their hearts — are being trained in many communities as part-time paid helpers in institutions for deprived or handicapped children, and in private homes where the mother is absent due to illness. Refresher courses include such basics as bathing a baby, and helping a toddler to wash hands and face before meals.

PTA Slates Tea

The Wilson School PTA will have a kindergarten tea Monday at 2:30 p.m. The school nurse, Mrs. Rocco Roncone will show a film.

MRS. R. A. PAVLINAC

Pair United
at Friday
Ceremonies

Vows were taken by Janet Marie Frazer and Robert Allen Pavlinac Friday evening in St. Michael Catholic Church.

After the reception in the Gingsville Community Center, the couple left for a wedding trip to Upper Michigan. Daughter of the Henry J. Frazers of Georgia Drive, Orion Township, the bride appeared in white silk organza over taffeta with tiered skirt trimmed with French lace.

Completing her ensemble were an illusion veil, lace tiera, and bouquet of white pompons, chrysanthemums, and a white orchid.

Bonnie Scholz attended as maid of honor and Mrs. Harry E. Stevens was bridesmaid.

James Pavlinac was best man for his brother. They are the sons of the Joseph Pavlinacs of Laird Street, Orion Township. Harry E. Stevens, Terry L. Pavlinac and Robert Frazer were ushers.

Line Those Wool Skirts

When making a fitted wool skirt, line it half way down the back with silk taffeta. This prevents stretch. Stitch the lining into the side seams and let the bottom hang loose with a pinked edge.

The same rule holds true for the skirts of certain type of crepe dresses. They have a more professional look when lined.

Pledge Vows Today in Lake Orion Rites

Leaving for a Pocono Mountain resort after an evening reception in the Knights of Columbus Hall, Lake Orion, will be the John Joseph Kents (Lynne Elizabeth Anderson). They were wed today in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Lake Orion. Parents are the William Andersons, Ostrum Drive, and the George Kents of Oxford.

MRS. J. J. KENT

With her floor-length gown of white peau de soie appliqued with Alencon lace, the bride wore a bouffant illusion veil with pouff headpiece of net. She carried long-stemmed white roses with greens. With Mary Kent, honor maid, were bridesmaids Mrs. Leonard Davidson, Mrs. Daniel Bright, Jane Bowles and Nancy Kent.

Frederick Kent stood as his brother's best man. Seating guests were Jake Miesner, Robert Trudell, Ronald Palmer and Ronald Hemerski. Jeffrey and Gerald Elliott carried the rings.

Boomfield Hills Shows W-O Power; Local O-A Teams All Suffer Setbacks

Barons Thump Wolves, 41-0, in W-O Debut

W. Bloomfield Downs Brighton; Northville, Clarenceville Triumph

Bloomfield Hills has quickly reestablished itself as the team to beat in the Wayne-Oakland League football race.

The defending champion Barons overpowered Clarkson quickly and thoroughly for a 41-0 triumph Friday afternoon.

Clarenceville surprised Milford, 21-13; West Bloomfield rallied past Brighton, 19-14; and Northville repelled Holly, 9-7.

Clarkson was expected to battle Hills for the W-O honors with Milford and Northville as darkhorse contenders; but only the Barons showed the necessary muscles in the opener.

They hit Clarkson for 21 rapid points in the first period. Dick Kraatz intercepted a Dad Fife flat pass with half of the first period elapsed and ran 18 yards for the initial touchdown. Doug Carnegie of Hills deflected the ball into Kraatz's hands.

After forcing Clarkson to punt, the home team tallied again with Kraatz. This time he broke through a big hole, got a key block from Tom Kuzma and raced 63 yards to score.

FUMBLES Clarkson then fumbled the ball away at its 33. Four plays and one penalty later, Bob Calhoun circled right end for an eighty-yard scoring punt.

The visiting Wolves then drove to the Hills' six only to have Steve Palanian intercept and bring the ball out to the 14. The visitors drove 86 yards in eight plays despite two penalties. Kraatz sped the finishing 17 yards for his third score.

A well-executed 58-yard pass run play from Calhoun to Kuzma made it 34-0 at intermission.

Three Bloomfield runners—Randy DeArment (100 in 13 runs), Kraatz (99 for four) and Palanian (94 for 12) covered almost 300 of the Barons' 356 rushing yards.

Milford twice led Clarenceville's Trojans, 6-0 after Mark Angler's 15-yard run, and 13-6 following a 69-yard scamper by Bob McFarland.

Pat Windy caught a two-yard aerial from Tim Brennan for the winning touchdown at Brighton. The play climaxed a 75-yard drive for West Bloomfield.

Northville led 3-0 on a 23-yard field goal by Dally Hill. Jeff Hayes put Holly in front, 7-3, with a six-yard scamper only to have the Mustangs jump a 14-7 lead of Liberty sweep with Jim Zayt running over for the 16 for the deciding points.

Rice Explodes on DeLaSalle

Brother Rice used explosive runs to score a 41-0 victory over Detroit DeLaSalle yesterday.

The first touchdown was the shortest, when Gre Pilette went two yards after a long drive

Utica Records 21-0 Victory

Utica evened its season record at 1-1 by scoring a 21-0 victory over Lakeshore in a Bi-County League game last night.

The Chiefs hit in the first period when Gordon Schwartz went five yards after Dark Dieters converted with a kick.

In the second period Jim Jeek ran 40 yards on a fumble and in the fourth quarter Schwartz went five yards after a couple runs by Gary Leiber of 28 and 10 yards in the drive.

Lakeshore managed to get to the Utica two in the second quarter. One Utica touchdown a 88-yard run of a fumble by Rob Dilday was called back.

OL St. Mary Travels to Farmington

The title hopes of one of the hopefuls will be dampened tomorrow when Orchard Lake St. Mary invades Farmington Or Lady of Sorrows for a North-West Parochial League game.

They're both 1-0 in league play and both are considered a threat to the title now held by Ferndale St. James.

While those two battle, St. Francis de Sales on the opponents' field and Highland Park St. Benedict will entertain Detroit St. Rita in another league outing. All games are set for 2:30 p.m.

In the Macomb Catholic League, Marine City Holy Cross has a 4 p.m. date at Detroit St. Rose and Anchor Bay Catholic will entertain Richmond St. Augustine at 2:30 p.m.

In games scheduled for tonight, Royal Oak St. Mary journeys to Utica (7:30) to meet Lawrence, Royal Oak Shrine entertains Detroit St. Ambrose, Millington visits Birch Run and Saginaw travels to Flint North.

SHARP EFFORT
The Eagles of Orchard Lake St. Mary put on a dazzling display of Liberty sweep with Jim Zayt running over for the 16 for the deciding points.

featuring by a 57 yard pass play from Bill Rose to Doug Keating.

Dan Parks went 45 yards in the 2nd quarter, Pilette scampered 41 yards in the third quarter followed by a 41 yard interception return by Lee Hari and a 67 yard run by Rose in the same quarter.

In the final stanza, Keating again was on the receiving end of a 34 yard touchdown pass from Rose. Bob Wollenberg kicked all the conversions.

Despite all the scoring, Brother Rice did not get a first down on a sustained march the second half until the final five minutes because all of the long scoring plays came on the first down.

In the second period Jim Jeek ran 40 yards on a fumble and in the fourth quarter Schwartz went five yards after a couple runs by Gary Leiber of 28 and 10 yards in the drive.

Lakeshore managed to get to the Utica two in the second quarter. One Utica touchdown a 88-yard run of a fumble by Rob Dilday was called back.

WOLFE ON THE LOOSE—Clarkson didn't have many good offensive moments yesterday at Bloomfield Hills, but halfback Mark Erickson (31) rambles for a first down on this first half play. The home team's fine pursuit is reflected by the two Barons pursuing the Clarkson runner.

In the second period Jim Jeek ran 40 yards on a fumble and in the fourth quarter Schwartz went five yards after a couple runs by Gary Leiber of 28 and 10 yards in the drive.

Lakeshore managed to get to the Utica two in the second quarter. One Utica touchdown a 88-yard run of a fumble by Rob Dilday was called back.

Blocked Kick Helps Groves Nip Cranes

Linebacker Jim Smith of Birmingham Groves broke through to block the kick for the tying point with one second to play as the Falcons held off Cranbrook, 19-18, Friday night.

Smith's heroics came moments after Jim Walker had grabbed a Groves' fumble and sped 30 yards to paydirt as the winners were attempting to run out the clock.

The Birmingham eleven led throughout the contest, holding a 19-6 advantage in the first period. But the Cranes' Jon Pavloff pulled in a Reed Statin four-yard scoring aerial to trim it to 19-12 and set up the final seconds' excitement.

Greg Wood scored for Groves, running six yards. John Kietel caught a Mike Rafferty pass for the conversion.

In the second period Jim Jeek ran 40 yards on a fumble and in the fourth quarter Schwartz went five yards after a couple runs by Gary Leiber of 28 and 10 yards in the drive.

Lakeshore managed to get to the Utica two in the second quarter. One Utica touchdown a 88-yard run of a fumble by Rob Dilday was called back.

son that later proved the deciding point in the game.

Rob Cornille drove from the one-yard-line for the second Falcon score.

Ed Randle's two-yard scoring run cut the Cranbrook deficit to 13-6. Groves' Gary Distefano then tallied in the fourth period on a two-yard run.

Other Northwest Suburban AA teams posting nonleague wins were Wayne Glenn, 20-13, over Livonia Stevenson; and Oak Park, 14-0, over Lamphere. Coach Tom Scullen of Oak Park enjoyed his first winning tilt after 18 straight defeats.

Discarded Yankee Sparks Dodgers

OUT OF REACH — Unidentified Water-For Our Lady defender (white pants) and St. Frederick pass receiver aren't close enough as aerial falls incomplete during Friday's Macomb Catholic League encounter at Wisner Stadium. Rams later did connect on 80-yard touchdown pass-and-run for the game's only scoring play.

The Tigers right-hander blew his opportunity Friday when he three innings to the Minnesota Twins.

The Twins knocked McLain off the mound and went on to a 12-4 victory over Detroit, closing to within one game of the Tigers' hold on second place in the American League.

Don Mincher smacked a grand-slam home run in the first inning.

The 370-foot homer in the right-field bleachers followed a double by Cesar Tovar, a field-er's choice that put Sandy Valdespino on base and a walk to Harmon Killebrew.

In the third inning, Tony

LA Downs Cubs Twice to Up Lead

By the Associated Press
It wasn't so many years ago that the New York Yankees made an almost annual excursion into the player market around Sept. 1 for some pennant insurance.

The Yankees are buried in the American League cellar this year, but they're still doing business at the same old standand the Los Angeles Dodgers certainly are glad.

New York wasn't shopping this year, but selling. It was two weeks ago today that the Dodgers purchased veteran utility man Dick Schofield from the Yankees. Los Angeles was in second place, one half game behind when the deal was made.

The Dodgers are first 2 1/2 games in front today and Schofield is a major reason.

The speedy infielder stroked four hits, drove in three runs and scored three as Los Angeles strengthened its grip on the National League lead with a 4-2 sweep over Chicago Friday.

Pittsburgh beat Atlanta 3-0 on Rob Veale's but lost a half game to the Dodgers despite the victory.

Schofield certainly did his part against the Cubs. In the first game he singled twice, driving in one run and scoring twice in Don Drysdale pitched an eight-hitter.

In the nightcap, he drove in the first two Dodgers runs with singles and then was hit by a pitch in the ninth inning just before John Roseboro walked a tie-breaking two-run homer.

Veale won his 15th game, limiting the Braves to four hits.
The tall left-hander struck out 12.

Willie Stargel walked the 33rd homer with a man on in the first and Don Clemen hit his 26th with the bases empty in the sixth for all the Pirates runs.

The Braves played without Joe Torre and Felipe Alou has been out of action since last Sunday with an injured left hand.

The Reds scored six runs in the first inning against the Mets, and it was more than enough for Jim Maloney, who won his 15th. Maloney pitched a live-hitter and struck out 13.
Vada Pinson homered for Cincinnati.

4 while Laver topped Earl Buchholz of St. Louis 7-5, 6-1, 6-2 to gain the finals.

Crowd of 4,000 Expected

Arrows 3 Point Choice Tonight at Wisner

The largest crowd of the Midwest Football League season is expected tonight when the strong defensive Pontiac Arrows take on the offensive minded Lansing All-Stars at Wisner Stadium in a 7:30 p.m. kickoff.

A crowd of 4,000 is expected and the Arrows, despite their lackluster offensive showing in the 5-6 tie at Flint last week, have been installed as favorites by only three points.

Lansing has a strong passing attack in the NFL, with the No. 2 NFL quarterback in Sam Ely and the two top receivers in Jim Stewart and Dave Johnson.

Together, the trio make up the best passing combination although Dayton's Pete Mikolajewski is rated as the No. 1 passer. He does not have the caliber of receivers of Stewart and Johnson.

Pontiac may have to perk up its passing game to hold its top spot in the league. Arrows' receivers have been dropping the passes of Bill Harrington, Tom Myers and Jim Sykes.

Myers, ex-Detroit Lions' quarterback, was treated roughly by opposing defensive lines and he may get the starting nod for the first time tonight.

He has been entering the game behind Harrington or Sykes and playing the two middle quarters.

The Arrows are a marked team in the NFL, and as far as the title chase, they have the schedule against them.

After tonight's game, they play at home in the big Pontiac Preview night showing next Wednesday at Wisner against Flint and then they host the powerful Dayton Colts Saturday October 6th.

After that, they must go on the road for four straight games including the three toughest challengers, Ypsilanti, Lansing and Dayton.

Dayton has the advantage of the schedule, playing Pontiac, Ypsilanti and Lansing at home in the final weeks of the season.

Last year the Arrows only two losses were on the road and in another they just eked out a win at Lansing in the final minute.

In two seasons, the Arrows have never been knocked out of first place, but a loss to Dayton could even drop them as low as fourth, should Dayton and Ypsilanti both win.

Fans are reminded that game time is 7:30 p.m. and not 8:00 p.m. and gates will open at 6:00 p.m.

Lions Face 'Dedicated' Falcon

Tommy Nobis 'Mr. Football'

Ex-Lion Sam Williams in Atlanta Lineup

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

For a $600,000 contract any pro football player should be dedicated, but Bud Erickson, former Detroit Lions' publicity director who is now assistant to the President of the new Atlanta Falcons, says Tommy Nobis is "Mr. Football all the way."

Nobis, the All-America and No. 1 draft choice of the Falcons and the Houston Oilers, passed even Joe Namath when the bidding started last spring and when the bidding ended it was reported his contract was worth $200,000 more than the quarterback of the New York Jets.

He's one of the most dedicated football players I've ever seen," said Erickson.

Sunday at Tiger Stadium, the prize rookie will show his football dedication against the Detroit Lions, in a game both teams need to win to get back into the good graces of fans in their respective cities.

Nobis, however, may not be the one the Lions may have to be concerned with.

Former Lions' defensive end Sam Williams will hold the similar spot with the Falcons and having never been an admirer of Milt Plum, Williams may find pleasure in harassing the Lions' quarterback.

Atlanta has a stern defense up front in the line and with their linebackers, but the Falcons secondary may show inexperience.

Chuck Stenski of San Francisco, Karl Rubke of the 49ers, Bob Richards of the Eagles and Williams are the mainstays of the Atlanta defensive line.

It will be rookie quarterback Randy Johnson, whom coach Norb Hecker has touted will be the John Elway of the NFL in couple years, starting for the Falcons.

Plum is expected to start for the Lions but coach Harry Gilmer may make some changes in his receiving platoon.

Game time Sunday is 1:30 p.m. and advance ticket windows will open at 9:00 a.m.

South African Leads Tourney

GASTON, England (AP)—Gordon LeGrange of South Africa carried seven birdies Friday and held a two-stroke lead over Hugh Boyle of Ireland and a three-stroke edge over Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla., at the halfway point of a $36,500 pro golf tournament.

Ragan was one of four United States professionals who qualified for the two final rounds today.

LeGrange finished his first two rounds over the 6,538-yard Northumberland course in 67-66—133. Boyle had a two-round score of 67-68—135 while Ragan posted 69-67—136. Par is 72.

AP Pro Prognosticator Picks Green Bay, Lions

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Watch out for the flood! Your Fearless Pro AP Prognosticator hit the high water mark of his career when he lifted his batting average to .750 over all last week by hitting on eight of 11 selections.

Anyway here's a stab at this week's winners all games Sunday:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Green Bay 24, Los Angeles 17
—The Rams, who knocked off Chicago last week, lead the NFL in total offense, but there may not be a tougher team to pass against than the Packers.

Cleveland 28, St. Louis 21
—The Browns, who almost topped the Packers, should have the edge with the Cardinals taking to the road for the first time. Cleveland's Frank Ryan to Gary Collins battery is working well and Ernie Green and Leroy Kelly are providing ample yardage on the ground.

Dallas 42, Minnesota 31
—Both teams know how to score, but the Cowboys also play defense. Fleet Bob Hayes, the Dallas bullet, is becoming the toughest player in the league to handle.

Baltimore 35, San Francisco 21
—Ray Berry of the Colts will be out to break Bill Howton's alltime yardage mark for receivers. Berry needs 58 yards, and should get it. But the Colts had better watch Dave Parks, who grabbed nine passes for 321 yards at Baltimore last year.

Philadelphia 24, New York 21
—The Giants are having trouble putting pressure on the passer and that should let Norm Snead bring the Eagles home.

Seattle Open Mark Broken

Dean Refram Fires 64 in 2nd Round

EVERETT, Wash. (AP)—Proving once more that records were only made to be broken, Dean Refram charged down the 6,123-yard Everett Golf and Country Club course Friday in 64 to knock one more stroke off the course mark set only the day before by Bob Goaly.

Two other touring golf pros matched Goaly's first day effort and one of them—Homero Blancas—look over first place with a two-day total of 131. Jacky Cupit also booked a 65 that gave him second place.

Blancas had equalled the old record of 66 in his opening round. Don Bies of Seattle, carding a 66 Friday, moved into third place at 135.

Player	Score
Homero Blancas	66-65-131
Don Bies	66-65-131
Jacky Cupit	67-68-135
Dean Refram	67-68-135
Bob Goaly	68-69-137
Al C. Fitts	69-70-139

S. Lyon Falls

South Lyon fell to the passing of Russ Gartha and the running of McGorey to lose a 21-7 defeat to Lutheran West.

Gord Wood went 5 yards. Gartha passed 33 yards to Len Wildhauser and McGorey went 80 yards, 7 and 6.

Other winners included Susan Armitage of England, Elizabeth Khadwick of England and Anna Van Lanschoot of Holland.

Top Grid Clashes on Today's Menu

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—No. 1 ranked Michigan State matches its strong running attack against Penn State's defense today, hoping PSU will continue to be something of a luck charm.

The last three times MSU has played the Nittany Lions, it has won on an undefeated year—in 1951, 1952 and 1955.

Last Saturday, MSU's 360-yard running attack was the big factor in its 28-10 victory over North Carolina State, while Penn State's defense held Maryland to 44 yards rushing and scored three safeties in a 15-7 triumph.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Alabama, primed to go after a third straight national championship, unveils its 1966 football team and untested quarterback, Kenny Stabler, against pessimistic but determined Louisiana Tech tonight.

The nonconference battle has been billed as a mismatch.

At least all to disclaim it is Louisiana Tech Coach Joe Allet, who says he's far from optimistic but hopes his young squad will acquire itself well and make the Crimson Tide earn every point.

Golf Victory for Ex-Netter

GANTON, England (AP)—Catherine Lacoste of France, 21-year-old golfing daughter of a famed tennis family, reached the quarter-final round of the British women's amateur championship Friday with a 4 and 2 triumph over Bridget Jackson, member of Britain's Curtis cup team.

The last United States entrant, Pam Fox of Corvallis, Ore., was eliminated. She lost to Mrs. Belle Robinson of Scotland, 7 and 6.

Other winners included Susan Armitage of England, Elizabeth Khadwick of England and Anna Van Lanschoot of Holland.

Japan Winner in Gymnastics

DORTMUND, Germany (AP)—Japan easily defeated Russia and won its second consecutive World Gymnastics Men's Team Championship Friday with 575.15 points. Russia finished sixth with 559.40 points, behind East Germany 561.0, Czechoslovakia 551.20, and Poland 550.80. Mokoto Sakamoto of Los Angeles, the national collegiate champion from the University of Southern California, paced the United States team. He scored 112.15 points, 14th in individual all-around standings.

Carefully Maintained Friendship Garden With Oriental Accents Highlights Front Landscape Of The E. R. Pettengill's Home On Laneden, Holly Township

Raised Foyer Of White Marble Overlooking Formal Living Room Is Edged In White Wrought Iron

Dining Room's Oriental Rug Colors Repeated In Custom Painted Wall Mural Of Japanese Tea House

One-Story Colonial on Shangri-La Site

By JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

Reflecting the conviviality of its genial hosts, the one-story colonial of the E. R. Pettengill is located on a Shangri-La site in Holly Township.

Woods, a landscape punctuated with individual gardens and the picturesque Marl Lake insure the residents of an inviting view from each window of the house.

A pleasant blend of furniture periods furnishes the step-down living room.

The area rug centering the room's walnut parquet flooring repeats the coral of the dining room's oriental rug.

Draperies are in a lighter tone of the same coral.

Before the lakeside window wall, a marble-topped table serves matching double armless chairs covered in a floral print of coral, green and a hint of blue on beige.

Grouped about a Williamsburg candle table are armchairs and a rosewood sofa in pale coral cut-velvet.

The Victorian governor and lady's chairs in front of the antique fireplace are upholstered in Aubusson tapestry. Gold overlay adds decorator touches to the black coffee table separating the two pieces.

Mrs. Pettengill made the needlepoint scene on the fire shield.

"The fire shield," said Mrs. Pettengill, "alides up and down. It was used in early days to keep faces cool from the intense fireplace heat."

Discovered in Highpoint, N. C., the lazuline blue porcelain vases on the fireplace's white marble mantel date back to 1837.

Two steps lead to the oriental-influenced dining room. Standing before the wall mural is a folding screen featuring dried material and butterflies.

"The bleeding heart froinds in the screen," said Mrs. Pettengill, "were grown in our daughters garden."

FASHIONABLE SETTING — With leaded stainglass cabinet doors and gold-tail wallpaper, this laundry center bespeaks an elegance seldom found in such a necessary home work area. Heretofore, laundry appliances generally were relegated to the basement—out of sight, out of mind. Today, they are placed not only in sight, but in fashionable settings. Imaginative decorating schemes make household duties more enjoyable for today's new generation.

Today's homemakers are seeing the good sense of combining creative decorating, easy-to-maintain building materials and home furnishings, and versatile laundry appliances to make the laundry area one of the most efficient and attractive in the modern American home.

The new generation knows that dependable automatic washers and clothes dryers are ready to work any hour, any day of the week, making their location the key to convenience. Best locations, according to the Maytag Home Laundry center, which developed the ideas shown here, are near the bedroom-bath or kitchen areas.

All the more reason, then, to combine laundry with other home functions to make the most of valuable floorspace. Fortunately, choice of location is up to your imagination, now that clothes dryers do away with the necessity of a laundry convenient to the back yard.

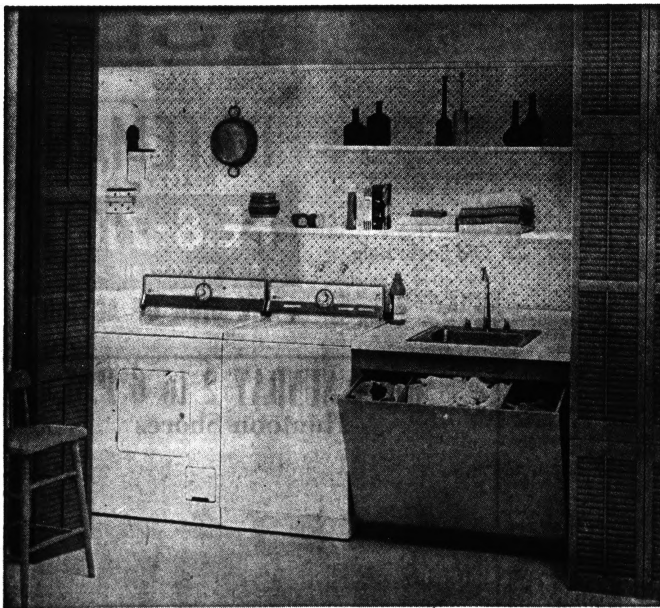

The secret of attractive decor is to complement the scheme of surrounding areas. To help your decorating plan, you can choose from shaded coppertone, turquoise, yellow or white appliances—or an exciting new Spanish avocado.

Whether the planning is done by the homemaker or a professional, attractive and serviceable materials are readily available to do the job—wallpaper or decorative wallboard, floor and ceiling tile, scrubbable carpet, plastic laminate surfaces, imaginative hardware, curtains and draperies.

Want to give a lift to your laundry job?

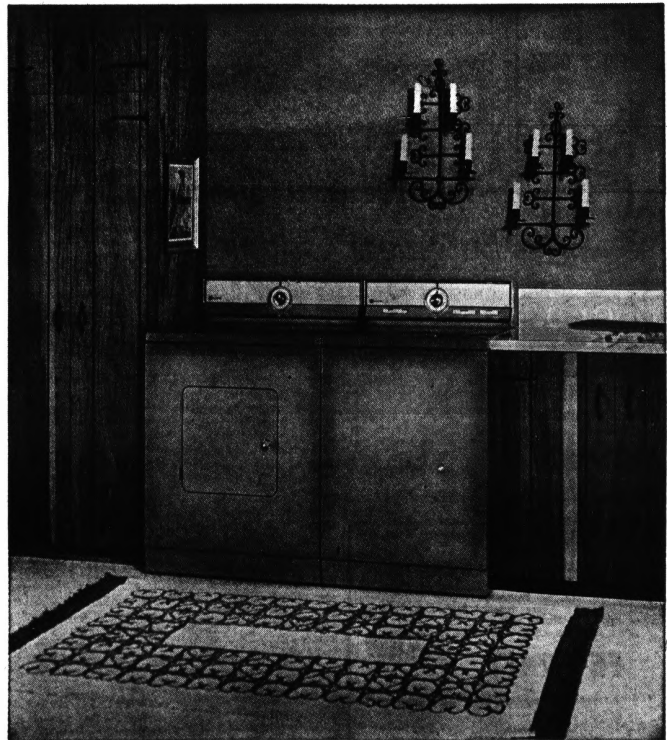

Then, lift your laundry out of the basement or some other dark corner. Bring it upstairs, equip it with a versatile washer and dryer designed to suit all your laundering needs, and decorate your new laundry room in a tasteful, cheery way.

Today's Laundry Elegance Wins Homemakers' Hearty Approval for Exciting Approach to Drudgery

CONVENIENCE AND BEAUTY — A laundry center so compact and attractive deserves to be right in the swim of things, and this one is. It's at one end of the family room, where you not only do the wash, but also join in family fun while the automatic washer and dryer handle the work. A tilt-out sorting bin provides soiled clothes storage beneath a handy sink. Shelves for storage of laundering aids and clean linens are suspended from perforated hardboard. When washing and drying are done, just pull shut the folding louvered doors to conceal the laundry area.

ACCENT ON COLOR — Like the Mediterranean flavor? It's simple to achieve with a Spanish avocado washer and dryer—the newest color hit for appliances. Avocado and orange are combined with redwood plywood cabinets and wrought iron accents for a modern easy-to-care look.

Manufacturer Seeks Basement Oddities

A Baltimore woman has offered a stuffed pig to a New Haven manufacturer in exchange for one of the company's steel basement entry doors. A Toledo man would like to exchange a pair of woman's high button shoes for the same kind of door.

And a Boston woman has a harp, without strings, that she is willing to give up for one of the manufacturer's doors. These are three unusual items that the Bilco Company has been offered in recent weeks in response to a company announcement that it was seeking strange items that some people keep in their basements. To obtain the items, Bilco said it would give one of its steel basement entry doors for every odd thing it accepted.

The company wants to use the items for displays for lumber yard dealers. The offer still is in effect.

"We have received many letters from home owners around the country," John Lyons, president, said today. "But most of the items we don't want. We've been offered old vacuum cleaners, snow shovels, hip boots, broken air conditioners and washing machines."

"What we want are unusual items that some people hold onto in their basements. The stuffed pig, shoes and harp appear interesting and we're asking the owners to send us snapshots—to give us an idea of their condition. If they look good, we'll swap one of our doors for each item."

Got anything you're not using, and is only gathering dust in the basement? Send a photo, or rough sketch to the Bilco Company on Water Street, New Haven, Conn. You might be opening a new way to your basement with one of the company's modern doors.

FRENCH PROVINCIAL: This type of house style, derived from a native French design, has held its popularity throughout the years because it has a special kind of elegance about it; the mansard roof design permits more spacious sleeping accommodations upstairs.

G-55 STATISTICS

Design G-55 has a parlor, dining room, kitchen, family room, foyer, den or bedroom, laundry area and lavatory on first floor, with habitable space of 1229 square feet. There are 729 square feet on the second floor, which includes three bedrooms and two baths. The plans call for a spacious one-car garage with plenty of storage space. Overall dimensions are 54'4" by 31'3".

Dishwashers Aren't Human

Just because your modern dishwasher is a very efficient household appliance, don't expect it to handle everything you may want it to safely, warns a powder and detergent manufacturer.

There are quite a few items which you should not attempt to wash in an automatic dishwasher. Such as unfinished wooden bowls and utensils, which can warp, fine crystal which can chip and cloud, and kitchen knives with cemented handles—the handles will surely break off.

Then there are many plastics that tend to melt or turn yellow, cast iron items which lose their protective oils and thus tend to rust, and worn silver-plate which may turn "brassy."

In particular, your dishwasher wasn't made to handle chinaware. These pieces cannot withstand the spray impingement of very hot water or the powerful dishwashing compounds necessary to automatic washing.

This combination can crack the glaze, fade the patterns on the chinaware, or corrode metallic decorations.

So if you aren't sure of what your dishwasher will and won't do—wash the items by hand.

Pine Serves in War-Peace

Southern Pine has served this nation well in war as well as peacetime.

One of the first and most famous uses was for masts and decks of the early fleet of fighting frigates.

The species is successively served in the War of the American Revolution, the War of 1812, the War between the States, the Spanish-American War, World Wars I and II, Korea—and now Viet Nam.

During World War II, an amazing 20 billion board feet of Southern Pine lumber were moved to the armed forces. Timbers, heavy planking and decking went into the construction of ships, barges and PT boats. Dunnage requirements were enormous as was the demand to the outdoor dining and lounging terrace.

French Provincial Has Elegant Parlor

A newspaper editor suggested to architect Herman H. York that, since the parlor is again becoming a focal point in some American homes, he should consider the design of a house incorporating one.

Such a room should be smaller than a conventional living room. It should be warm, intimate and have the appearance of having been "lived in."

It should be furnished with any heirloom furnishings or paintings in which the owner may take particular pride. It should, in short, be a room in which to entertain guests who may be visiting the house for the first time, and who may be regarded as one step removed from the circle of family friends.

The parlor, because of its formal, elegant appearance, flatters such guests because it gives them the feeling of being received in "the best room in the house."

3-BEDROOM
In this three-bedroom, two-story French Provincial, York has incorporated such a room, smaller than the conventional family room and designed to include those architectural devices which contribute to the kind of entertaining described above.

Here we find a small, paneled room with a direct sight line from the foyer. At the opening of this foyer are two louvered doors.

Between the parlor and the dining room is a heavy arched opening framed in wood. The window seat is crowned by a valance on which to hang both curtains and drapes.

One refinement can be seen in the rounded corners of the room, giving added character in traditional detail.

Applied wood moldings can be used on the walls to resemble the style so prevalent in earlier days.

The balance of the house has a well-planned circulation pattern. From the covered front entrance portico, the foyer presents two coat closets and an open stair rail to the second floor.

Somewhat unusual is the lavatory which serves both the front hall, den or family room, thus providing for visitors, overnight guests or family.

CONTROL CENTER
To the rear, the kitchen is the control center, serving the dining room, family room, living room and rear private terrace.

A bow window provides a pleasant view from the eating table space to the rear yard. The kitchen is in an open-plan arrangement with the family room, yet kept separate by a wrought iron railing. An over-all length of 31' makes for an air of spaciousness. Sliding glass doors in the Dunnage requirements were enormous as was the demand to the outdoor dining and lounging terrace.

The laundry and the mud closet are between the service area and the garage. An exterior rear door makes for convenient outdoor drying of clothes when desired.

There are three bedrooms and two baths upstairs, making a total possibility of four separate sleeping quarters if the downstairs den is utilized.

Interesting window seats are in all upstairs bedrooms, made possible by the mansard roof of the French Provincial exterior design.

SLANTED WALLS
This type of roof eliminates the highly-slanted walls that characterize and cut down space in many upstairs bedrooms.

In addition to the mansard roof, there are other subtle design elements contributing to the exterior appearance of the house, among them the French dormer, continuous dentil moulding around the eave of the roof and the curved head on the garage door.

The house is sheathed in brick and wood shingles. Where space provides, a two-car rather than a one-car garage can be constructed without endangering the lines of the house.

Even including the garage shown in the plans, the overall dimensions are only 54'4" by 31'3", very modest considering that there are 1,958 square feet of living space within the house.

Remodel Attic Into Dormitory

According to the Southern Pine Association, attic remodeling can be a practical pastime during fall and winter months.

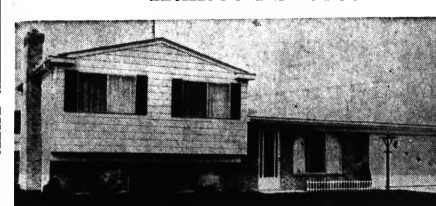

Transformation of dingy attics into bright "dormitories" for school age children can relieve the pressure of overcrowded homes. Such conversions can often be accomplished by the application of finishing materials, such as wood paneling, to existing structure or surfaces.

The Movable Mr. Beatty as Uncatchable as Ever

By EARL WILSON
 NEW YORK — The often unmarried Warren Beatty was accused of being selfish . . . not to be confused, with 'being selfish' . . . when we met the other day and discussed the fact that more and more girls think he's Mr. Slippery . . . the Uncatchable Man.
 "Ask him what his peeve is against women," my secretary Barbara Bergstrom flung at me as I tape-recorded off for the interview.
 "It's not true . . . I deny it!" he was bawling a hamburger sandwich at the Hilton's Bourbon Steak House. "Let's table it," he suggested.
 "Will you ever be married?" I asked immediately thereafter.

"Will I ever be married?" Warren Beatty held his head as though in pain, as though he wished he were anywhere else. He had been up early to do the "Today" show and now he was in the hands of a maniac with some questions his secretary would love to have answered. "I would say yes," he said.
 "Go ahead and say yes then," I jeered.
 "No," he laughed, not without bitterness.
 "Can you mention 'Kaleidoscope' somewhere in the interview?" I inquired a movie press agent supplied with the check.

"'Kaleidoscope' sort of describes your life," I said to Beatty. "A series of slides . . . with you sliding away from this one and that one . . . all the girls you were going to marry."
 "Say that if it makes you happy," Beatty was nodding in his hamburger.

"But all the girls you slid away from in your kaleidoscope life were very beautiful . . . I never saw one that wasn't," I said.
 "You were going to marry this one" — I thought of Natalie Wood, Leslie Caron, four beauties who have since been married, three of whom have since been divorced — "that one . . . I think you're selfish."

"I think you had led for dinner last night . . ."
 Warren was about as slippery in the interview as he is with girls, for he said that he and his sister Shirley MacLaine had never had any feud, differences of opinion nor silent periods, and any statements to the contrary were "a lot of baloney."
 A gal who came to the table and got his autograph under the pretense of wanting to study his handwriting claimed that his "y" was very recalcitrant and so retorting that it seemed to represent "a pulling back so that he doesn't want anybody to understand him, to know him."
 Well, she was getting close.

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Lee Marvin discussed his "Dirty Dozen co-worker, Jimmy Brown: 'He's not ready for 'Othello' yet — but he'd do better at that than Laurence Olivier would do in the Cleveland Browns' backfield." . . . Paramount Pictures'll show the "Bolshoi Ballet" film here for two years; then it must be returned to the Russians . . . Bistrot Boss Billy Reed will be in Jane Russell's "Magnificent Fraud" film — playing a bar manager . . . Julie Newmar had to leave "Don't Make Waves" because she couldn't lift Tony Curtis as required — bad back. (A later script change had Tony lifting the girl).

Comic Mickey Freeman, who co-authored a "McHale's Navy" sequence, just got his residuals check from Australian TV: 40 cents. He says it cost him $1 to cash it: "I went to the grocery — and you can't walk in without buying something." . . . Insiders say Marion Brando's percentage deal on "The Appaloosa" makes him "practically a partner of Universal." . . . Hot romance on ice: Skate star Janie Morris of "Holiday on Ice" and the show's manager, Tommy Collins, will wed after its run here.

EARL'S FEARS: Sign over the bar at Harlow's: "The man who gives up wine and women doesn't have much to sing about." Larry Matthews tells of the two blond men who cleaned out a bank thoroughly. In fact, a hidden camera took their picture — but there was no money left to develop the film. . . . That's our brother.

quality & economy with Stran-Steel buildings

You get economy with Stran-Steel buildings because economy is literally designed and built into every steel component. It is the natural result of quality planned, mass production techniques that are not only better, but also economical. The savings are passed along to you.

Before you build any building, discover why a Stran-Steel building is a better investment. Find out why Stran-Steel is able to offer written guarantees to back-up the performance of the steel components. Lower heating and cooling bills are the direct result of exclusive insulated wall systems. Faster construction, often 60 to 90 days, will get you in business sooner.

Call us for a free estimate or a copy of our brochure "10 Costly Mistakes To Avoid Before You Build." We are able to handle your complete turnkey project. Arrangements can be made for financing.

Two Policemen Are Innocent

DETROIT (AP) — Two policemen, charged with "conspiring with gamblers," were found innocent Friday by a Detroit police trial board.

Detective Richard Davies, 32, and Patrolman Michael Yarema, 26, were ordered reinstated to duty with back pay.

They were suspended July 13 after a one-man grand juror, Judge Edward S. Piggins, accused them of being seen with two men who were under surveillance by Internal Revenue Service agents.

2 Series Shows for Pontiac Div.

Pontiac Motor Division has purchased sponsorship in two NBC-TV nighttime color series. The programs are "Star Trek" and "Laredo." The Pontiac order was placed through MacManus, John & Adams, Inc.

LBJ Viet Cost Estimate Called Too Low

PISTOL-PACKING MAMA—That side-arm is no ornament. Mrs. Betty Flood, who has been constable of the town of Half Moon, N.Y., for 12 years, says she can handle a pistol and a rifle as well as any man. She's holding Crybaby, one of her three raccoons.

The Paper Star With Clusters

BY DICK WEST

United Press International—At a dinner here the week the administrative management society will honor six government employees for val- or above and beyond the call of duty in stamping out paperwork.

I am not ordinarily a great believer in testimonial dinners, but this is one time when I would like to have a hand in planning the affair.

If I were in charge of arrangements, I would hang a huge banner on the wall behind the head table. In block letters it would say: "They also serve who throw away."

The six heroes would be presented with a decoration called the paperwork medal of honor. Its heraldic emblem would be a mimeograph.

machine rampant on a field of overflowing wastebaskets.

At the present time it is difficult to pin down just how much paperwork the federal government does.

Rep. Edward P. Boland, D-Mass., a veteran explorer in the carbon paper jungle, said last May that paperwork "takes about 7 per cent of the federal budget, or roughly $7 billion this year."

BIGGER GUESS—On the other hand, Robert C. Walker, executive director of the Administrative Management Society, estimates the cost at more than $8 billion a year.

Since nobody knows for sure just how much paperwork is produced nobody can tell for certain how much good, if any, the anti-paperwork campaign is doing.

We do know, however, that the government now has about 28,000,000 cubic feet of paperwork on file.

We also know that the average filing cabinet occupies five square feet of office space, valued at an average of $3.27 per square foot.

LOTS OF SPACE—Last January it was estimated that the Agriculture Department alone had 155,000 filing cabinets.

If you take Agriculture Secretary Orville L. Freeman and multiply him by 10, which is the number of other cabinet members, it will give you some idea of the total magnitude.

Roland said the General Services Administration saved $17 million through paperwork reduction last year. He did not say, however, what happened to the money.

I thought about writing to GSA and asking where the money went, but then I learned that it costs $2.82 every time the government answers a letter.

At those prices, some things are better left unsaid.

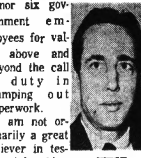

Press Service to Meet in Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — The 50th anniversary of the establishment of United Press International service to newspapers in Latin America will be observed here next week as newspaper executives from throughout North America convene for the seventh annual conference of UPI editors and publishers.

President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz of Mexico will inaugurate the conference on Monday with an address to the more than 300 newspapermen attending in this capital city.

The first lady of Mexico, Mrs. Diaz Ordaz, will receive the wives of the delegates at a tea.

Lincoln Gordon, U.S. assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs, will be the director of an adolescent training program for the State of one of the four business men New York, Johnson will start work Monday, succeeding Norman Catlett, whose leave from a training school job expired.

Teen of Week Gavel Wielder

The gal who wields the gavel at St. Frederick High School's Student Council meetings calls to order this year's Teen of the Week series.

Jeanne Tarchalski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tarchalski, 990 Berwick, has attended St. Frederick for 12 years and has been active in many school functions.

Having been captain of both the cheerleading squad and girls' basketball team, Jeanne also devotes time to the Pep Club, Future Nurses Club, Girls' Athletic Association, Varsity Club, Teen Club and Latin Club.

Her three-year membership in the Student Council resulted in her election as president for her senior year.

The Pontiac Citizens' Committee on Youth presented her with a Salute to Youth award for creative writing in 1964 and another for leadership this year.

Last June, Jeanne attended the Girls' State session at the University of Michigan.

Carrying a 3.5 scholastic average, Jeanne plans to further her education in nursing after graduation from high school.

Job Corps Post to New York

BATTLE CREEK (AP) — The "Custer Job Corps Center" near Battle Creek has named a 33-year-old York man as director of corpsmen development. He is Gordon Johnson, who has been the director of an adolescent training program for the State of one of the four business men New York, Johnson will start work Monday, succeeding Norman Catlett, whose leave from a training school job expired.

Rezoning Will Highlight Waterford Board Meeting

Rezoning will highlight Monday night's Waterford Township Board meeting with three zoning changes slated for board attention and first notices of five other changes to be ready.

Scheduled for board consideration is a proposed zoning change from single family residential to multiple dwelling for land on Elizabeth Lake Road near Williams Lake Road.

Also for board attention is a requested change from residential to commercial on Boston near Thide and the other for land at Tubbs and Crescent Lake Road.

One is for a parcel at Clintonville and Walton and the other for land at Tubbs and Crescent Lake Road.

COMMERCIAL ZONING
Two other seek commercial zoning for land at M59 and Thide and for property at Sashabaw and Island Park where a service station is proposed.

The other first notice is for five proposed rezoning of land at Scott Lake Road and Alliance from manufacturing to trailer park development.

In other business Monday, the board will open bids on sewer service for the Jeffrey Manor subdivision on Scott Lake Road near Elizabeth Lake Road.

The board will also discuss a proposed special assessment lighting district for Landsdowne.

Erhard Flies for U.S. Talk

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Ludwig Erhard of West Germany left by air for the United States today, warning that problems between the two countries will not be solved in a few hours.

But he added that they do not seem to be insoluble. "I know I have a hard job to do," he said before taking off from Wahn Airport, "but I go with good courage."

With Erhard went his wife and two top members of his troubled government: Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder and Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel. They will be in the United States for three days. Erhard is scheduled to have two talks with President Johnson.

Name Was Incentive for Entry Into TV

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — Why did a successful movie director like Richard Quine become a television producer?

"All they did was drop that name in front of me, and I fell to my knees. I had never known anybody that didn't love her on the screen, and I was a long-time fan myself."

The results on "The Jean Arthur Show" are not in yet. The reviews are what you might call mixed, some critics applauding the actress's return, some reporting that the vehicle was not up to her talents.

"I can understand how some of them felt. If I had been merely watching the show at home, I might have been of the same opinion," said Quine. "But they were comparing her with the Jean who played opposite Gary Cooper, Jimmy Stewart and Ronald Colman."

Quine is a former MGM juvenile who still looks youthful in his mid-40s despite a recession of his blood locks. He retains a boyish enthusiasm for his work, but he admitted that he didn't know what he was getting into when he tackled television.

"It is a terrifying kind of involvement," he remarked. "It takes me a year to make a movie, from the start of the script to the final cutting and scoring. But, in television, we put out 23 minutes and 30 seconds of entertainment every week."

"I think we've done rather well. You can't accomplish what you can in features, but we have tried to maintain a standard. The only way to do it is by total dedication, and that is an exhausting process of belaboring the writers to get them to provide the material we need."

Quine recently finished the multistart "Hotel" and has other movie projects under way.

Pollution Peril to Be Aired

LANSING (AP) — Canadian and American officials will meet next week to see what can be done to take natural gas out from under the St. Clair River without polluting downstream waters.

Gov. George Romney said Friday he was informed of the meetings by Ontario Prime Minister John Roberts and Matthew Welsh, chairman of the United States section of the International Joint Commission.

The Ontario Department of Energy and Resources Management has granted a permit to private concerns to drill for natural gas on Prawn Island, opposite Marine City.

OBJECTIONS
Michigan officials have objected because of the danger of polluting Lake St. Clair into which the river empties. Romney said he has been in personal contact with Roberts and Welsh on the problem.

Roberts told Romney in a telegram that two Ontario cabinet ministers will meet next Friday with representatives of the Canadian-American Committee on Water Pollution "for full discussion."

Welsh wrote the governor that the question had been discussed with the Canadian section of the commission and that the commission will take up the problem at its Oct. 3 meeting.

"You may be sure of our continued effort to be of assistance in this matter," Welsh told Romney.

Greater Sharing of N-Defense Plans Okayed

ROME (AP) — Defense ministers of five North Atlantic Treaty Organization countries have given tentative approval to a proposal for greater sharing of nuclear defense plans.

Details of the agreement, reached yesterday by the United States, Great Britain, West Germany, Turkey and Italy, were not revealed, but they were understood to include plans for a chain of nuclear weapons command posts across Western Europe.

The United States has been trying to broaden participation in NATO's nuclear planning without yielding its final responsibility for the actual firing of the weapons.

Sources said U.S. Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara was highly pleased with the results of the agreement, whittled through during the first day of a scheduled two-day meeting.

Pickets March at City Office of Michigan Bell

Agreement Fails to Stop Demonstration; Service to Continue

Local employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. picketed the Pontiac district office at 54 E. Huron today, despite an 11th hour agreement between Michigan Bell and the Communications Workers of America for extension on a day-to-day basis of a contract which would have expired midnight yesterday.

The old contract covers some 17,000 telephone employees in Michigan.

Telephone service in the area will be continued, assured company officials, but operator-handled calls may require a longer time to place.

There were about 12 to 15 pickets outside the E. Huron building, according to company officials.

Said E. Eugene Russell, district manager for Michigan Bell.

"We are manning information and long distance boards with supervisory people as a result of this illegal work stoppage by our employees."

Russell said that although the contract between Michigan Bell and the CWA expired yesterday at midnight, there had been a prior agreement to extend the contract on a day-to-day basis.

Therefore, he said, the contract continues in effect.

"This contract contains a no- (Continued on Page 2, Col. 6)

JOHN DIEFENBAKER

Pearson Is Hit Over Security

OTTAWA (AP)—Former Canadian Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker, accused of putting personal judgment ahead of national security in the Munsinger sex-and-security case, has charged that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson did the same thing in an earlier security case.

The accusation against Diefenbaker, 71-year-old Conservative leader, was made yesterday by Supreme Court Judge Wishart Spence in his report on the government-ordered hearings into the 1960 scandal.

The judge said Diefenbaker should have fired his then assistant defense minister, Pierre Sevigny, who had a liaison with Gerda Munsinger, a longtime self-admitted Soviet espionage agent.

He said the liaison created a security risk and made Sevigny vulnerable to pressure from foreign agents of the Montreal underworld, where the affair was common knowledge and "known to Mrs. Munsinger's fellow prostitutes."

Diefenbaker, who was in Boston, Mass., when the report was issued, charged it was "simply a political hatchet job from start to finish."

He added that in an earlier security case Pearson did not put national security first.

ACCEPTS RESPONSIBILITY

As foreign secretary in charge of diplomatic service in 1955, Pearson accepted responsibility for keeping Herbert Norman in his department after a security check revealed Norman had had Communist associations in the 1930s.

In 1957 Pearson acknowledged Norman's prior Communist associations, but said he had abandoned them voluntarily by 1959 when he joined the Foreign Affairs department.

Norman committed suicide April 4, 1957, while serving as Canadian ambassador to Egypt, after a U.S. Senate committee revived charges of communism against him.

Cycle Race Stirs Fears in Imlay City

IMLAY CITY — The three-man police force here is apprehensive about an American Motorcycle Association sanctioned race slated for tonight at the Imlay City Fairgrounds.

Reports of up to 5,000 participants have startled area residents, despite the fact that Police Chief Lawrence Dougherty said only 80 cyclists, mostly local, are involved.

Dougherty said, "We are not anticipating any trouble. This whole thing has been blown out of proportion by the people in the area."

"Our department and the LaPeer County Sheriff's Department have been asked to stand by in case of trouble, but these cyclists are not the same people who have been involved in ruckuses in West Branch, Muskegon and Port Huron," he said.

Peace Bid Kept Open

Won't Give Up Despite Latest Hanoi Rebuff

Rusk, Gromyko Sate More Private Talks With Viet Key Topic

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The United States refused today to give up on its latest peace proposals to North Viet Nam despite Hanoi's assertion that they were a hypocritical coverup for military escalation.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg, who made the proposals in the U.N. General Assembly Thursday, told reporters he did not consider Hanoi's reaction "to be a considered reply. It is public propaganda."

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, meanwhile, was to have a chance to follow up the proposals privately at a dinner tonight given by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

The talks between the two started Thursday when Gromyko was Rusk's dinner guest.

Neither side would say what they meant to discuss, but their subjects seemed likely to include Viet Nam, European security, disarmament, prevention of the spread of nuclear weapons and a treaty for peaceful exploration of outer space.

GROMYKO BLAST

The meeting was to be the first since Gromyko denounced Goldberg's proposals in the assembly's general debate yesterday.

Both Gromyko and Hanoi demanded yesterday that the United States stop bombing North Viet Nam and withdraw its troops from South Viet Nam.

Hanoi also suggested that the United States discuss a solution directly with the South Vietnamese.

FLOODING HITS DELTA — South Vietnamese civilians move through the flooded streets of a Mekong Delta town in Chau Dox Province, near the Cambodian border. Floodwaters from heavy monsoon rains have left thousands homeless and destroyed rice and sugar crops in the western provinces of South Viet Nam this week.

Most Strikers Back on the Job at OCC

Most Oakland Community College maintenance and custodial employees went back to work after apparently ratifying the strike settlement reached yesterday.

The details of the settlement, reached during a session with a state mediator, will not be released until both the union membership and the college have ratified it.

Although there was no official word after the union membership met yesterday afternoon, many of the Highland campus and administration building employees went back to work last night.

Most of the Auburn Hills campus employees went back today.

James W. Hobson, OCC treasurer, said the college board might meet next week.

The strike began Sept. 16, following a breakdown in contact negotiations the previous day.

Marine Killed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Marine Pfc. James J. Heather II of Ada, Mich., was killed in action in Viet Nam, the Defense Department said Friday. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Heather of Ada.

B52s Strike N. Viet Again

Bombers Hit Near Demilitarized Zone

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Waves of U.S. B52 bombers raided North Viet Nam today for the third time in four days.

The huge bombers, flying above the weather, struck again in the southern end of North Viet Nam just a few miles north of the demilitarized zone.

The bombers hit Communist infiltration routes, truck parks and storage depots.

Smaller U.S. tactical bombers gave the once demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam a going over, pounding seven North Vietnamese storage areas in the zone.

In South Viet Nam, ground fighting was small and scattered.

The crack South Korean Tiger Division ended a six-month-old operation and promptly launched a new one.

Simultaneously, Australian troops terminated their current operation and the U.S. command announced that the recently arrived 196th Light Infantry was in action for the first time.

About the time they ended this operation yesterday, the division launched a multibattalion search and destroy sweep in the Phu Cat Mountains six miles north of Qui Nhon.

In the first day of the drive, the ROK troops reported killing 41 Viet Cong and capturing five while taking light casualties.

LOOKING TOWARD FUTURE — Tentatively scheduled for completion in December 1967, the route of the Pontiac-Mount Clemens Freeway from the Opyde interchange to Wide Track Drive in Pontiac (top center), is clearly defined in this aerial photograph.

A 4.5-mile section of the freeway (relocated M59) from Opyde east to existing M59 near Rochester Road is to be opened to traffic Oct. 18. Pontiac's sewer treatment plant is in the left center of the photo.

Viet Peace Bid Is Kept Open

ese rebels' National Liberation Front.

Goldberg told the assembly Thursday that, as a first step toward unconditional negotiations, the United States was "prepared to order a cessation of all bombing of North Viet Nam the moment" it got assurance that North Viet Nam would respond by reducing or ending its military activities in South Viet Nam.

He asked if North Viet Nam would agree to "a phased withdrawal" of all foreign troops from South Viet Nam, including American and North Vietnamese.

The proposals seemed in line with the first two points of U.N. Secretary-General U Thant's three-point peace plan: cessation of the bombing of the north and scaling down of all military operations in the south.

Thant's third point is a willingness of all parties to negotiate with those "actually fighting" and Goldberg said this Viet Cong, as a combatant force, should take part in the negotiations.

Hanoi's official Viet Nam News Agency denounced Goldberg's proposals and said they were designed "to cover up the U.S. scheme to expand and prolong its aggression in South Viet Nam" and "to get the United Nations to interfere in the Viet Nam issue."

Working hand in glove, the two partners think that they are putting across a clever trick," Peking's official New China News Agency said, "but in fact their maneuver only shows they are in a stretched position."

U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg told the General Assembly Thursday that the United States was prepared to cease bombing of North Viet Nam as it received assurance North Viet Nam would respond by reducing its military activities in the south. He said such a step could lead toward unconditional negotiations.

Peking, commenting on the proposals in the Peoples Daily, said the proposals indicated the United States and the Soviet Union had taken "a further step in their collusion" on the Viet Nam issue.

Eager Beavers Dam Fast

DAWSON SPRINGS, Ky. (AP) — Some of the world's best dam train engineers saved Uncle Sam the trouble of building a dam across the small Trade-water river in west Kentucky. The engineers didn't wait for construction bids nor did they bother to get sanction for their work.

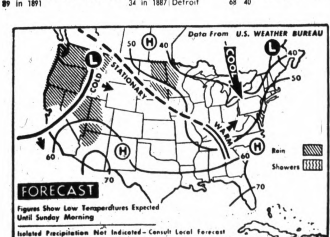

A colony of beavers packed mud, drivewood and assorted debris to divert the river from its usual course.

Water backed into a creek, leaving the river bed dry below the dam. A lake was formed.

Brief Items in the News

DETROIT (UPI) — Police Sgt. John Darnell, Mayor Jerome Cavanagh's former bodyguard, was suspended yesterday for his alleged connections with a man accused of police bribery, Police Supt. Eugene A. Reuter said Darnell, who left the bodyguard position several months ago, will remain off the force until he comes before the police trial board on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer. Darnell's name and unlisted home telephone number were allegedly found in one of several notebooks confiscated during a raid on the Grecian Gardens restaurant.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department has suspended a proposed research project into how people react when they see — or do not see — classified data and military secrets. The suspension followed a protest by Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., chairman of the House Government Information Subcommittee. Moss said several newspaper articles suggested the study would contribute to mass management.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Georgetown University has lifted its ban on drinking in men's dormitories in what officials described as a move to develop greater responsibility among students. Rev. Anthony J. Zeis, director of student personnel at the Catholic-sponsored institution with an enrollment of 6,700, said all male students would be allowed to keep and drink beer and hard liquor in their dormitory rooms.

DETROIT (AP) — E. Ray Scott of Detroit has been appointed to the $15,000-a-year job of executive director of the Michigan State Council for the Arts. The council announced the appointment yesterday. Scott has been serving since July 1 under interim appointment of Gov. George Romney.

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay, taking an increasingly active hand in the dispute involving the $15 million Intermediate School 201, says his administration intends to enlarge its role in the city's school affairs. Lindsay, in the wake of a third day of picketing — and 11 arrests for disorderly conduct — charged yesterday that the Board of Education has cut itself off from the community. "The Board of Education in too many cases has built a wall of isolation around it," Lindsay said.

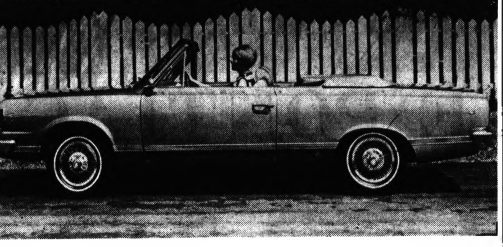

JOHN CITY, Tex. (AP) — Luci and Patrick J. Nugent are the stars in a new White House color film given a special "world premiere" in an airplane hangar at the LBJ Ranch. The hour-long documentary, entitled "The Golden Chance," depicts their wedding last Aug. 6. It includes everything from the walk down the aisle to Lady Southard in her wedding gown at the White House reception.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — A stronger nose covering will fly on future Air Force Titan 3 rockets to help prevent a recurrence of the failure which caused a Titan 3 to explode in flight Aug. 26.

The Air Force is still switching from a fiberglass to an all-metal nose covering because it is stronger and "will allow us to use inspection and test techniques which we cannot use on fiberglass," says a spokesman.

DETROIT (UPI) — The Michigan Court of Appeals yesterday granted a motion for a hearing to State Sen. Edward J. Robinson in his effort to remove Gov. George Romney's picture from the Republican vignette. Robinson lost a decision in Wayne County Circuit Court when he claimed Romney's picture on the Nov. 8 ballot would be the violation of the election laws.

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP) — A multicolored cloud spread several hundred miles today along the Atlantic Coast early today after a barium and copper oxide payload was ejected from a four-stage rocket. The clouds illuminated the sun 310 and 570 miles above earth, first appeared light green with a red line. Then they turned blue forming elongated patterns that, when photographed, could be seen for several hundred miles inland.

ROGUE — Top-of-the-line hardtop in the American line, the Rogue was introduced today by Americans Motors Corp. An energy-absorbing steering column is one of several new safety features in the compact American series. Other model lines include station wagons and convertibles.

Rambler American Young, Trim

"Trim, youthful lines" and compact dimensions highlight the 1967 Rambler American line introduced today by American Motors Corp. The new models are scheduled to go on sale Oct. 6 at the following Pontiac area dealers:

Rose Rambler, 8145 Commerce, Commerce Township; Russ Johnson Motor Sales, 89 Park, Lake Orion; and Village Rambler, 666 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

Wheelbase on all models is 106 inches and over-all length is 181 inches.

Heading the American series for 1967 is the Rogue hardtop which features a unique two-tone trim. The secondary color covers the hood and trunk, as well as the roof panel. This, combined with the wide lower trim line on the body, provides a "customized" appearance.

SPORTS CAR MOTIF — The new instrument panel has a sports car motif, with five circular dials mounted in front of the driver.

The panel is finished in engine-turned metal with a vinyl trim. A three-spoke steering wheel is standard, with a wood finish model optional.

High-back reclining bucket seats are standard on the Rogue hardtop and optional on other models. These high-back seats, also available on the other series, can be obtained with "wrap-around" headrests.

The American has a 128-horsepower, 199 cubic-inch six-cylinder engine as standard. Power options include 145 and 155 horsepower 232 cubic-inch sixes, and 200- and 225-horsepower V8s.

Some members also contend that hearings on the legislation, during which most witnesses ascribed to support a favorable committee report.

While there is some talk among staff members of committee action, members consider it extremely unlikely.

Specific Aim — The legislation, titled the "Organizational Conspiracy Act of 1966," was directed generally at clandestine organizations which engage in criminal conspiracies.

Among the offenses included are: wilful kidnapping or assaulting persons in interstate commerce; use of interstate commerce facilities to commit crimes or promote them; misappropriation of organizational assets; use of radio or television to commit or conceal offenses; and teaching or advocating force to deprive persons of their rights.

Some committee members singled out the last provision for criticism, arguing it violated First Amendment rights of freedom of speech.

The committee held three days of legislative hearings. This was in contrast with the months of investigative hearings in which numerous witnesses, including clergymen and clergies, were confronted with charges that they had engaged in various violent Klan activities.

Most declined to answer questions.

IN OPPOSITION — Opposition to the legislation came from civil rights and civil liberties groups, including the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Americans for Democratic Action and the American Civil Liberties Union.

Lawrence Speiser, speaking for the ACLU, summed up the opposition when he told the committee:

"The Mexican government said that to allow delivery of the goods would imply that Mexico is not able to care for its own people.

Mexico, which has accepted donations of this type before when earthquakes, hurricanes or other disasters occurred, has several public agencies to aid Indians and other groups.

Man Is Injured in Area Crash — A 55-year-old Independence Township man was injured yesterday morning in a car-truck accident at Walton near Squirrel Road in Pontiac Township.

Listed in fair condition in Pontiac General Hospital with head injuries is Floyd F. Suckney, 6088 Pine Knob, driver of the truck.

Susan L. Santilli 18, of Southfield was the driver of the car, according to sheriff's deputies. Miss Santilli and two passengers, Mrs. Thomas and Les Pratt, both 18 of Southfield, were treated at the hospital and released.

WORD OF WARNING — Drie, a Missouri black cat, appears to be giving Baby, a six-month-old raccoon, a word of warning about her playfulness, but the pets, normally mortal enemies, are the best of pals. The animals are the pets of caretakers of a girls' camp near Kansas.

Voter League Backs Bond Issue and Taxes

BIRMINGHAM — The Birmingham-Bloomfield League of Women Voters has announced its support of the $9.8-million bond issue and tax proposals which will be put to a vote Oct. 6 in the Birmingham School District.

On the ballot will be a proposal for 13.9 mills, which includes renewal of an 11-mill levy that expires this year and an additional 2.9 mills for operational expenses.

The bonding proposal, if passed, will permit construction of new junior high and elementary schools, additions to existing junior and senior high and elementary schools and construction of a new administration building.

Debt retirement millage will be raised from 5 mills to 5.6 mills to support the bond issue.

In a special meeting of the league's board of directors this week, a plan for action was drawn up which included:

• A donation for the Citizens for Birmingham Schools Committee, which is also supporting the proposals.

• Active campaigning by the league members for a "yes" vote.

• Publicizing the league's stand on the issue.

Mrs. William Reddig, president of the league, said, "A substantial number of members, representative of the membership as a whole, feel that the league should support the two proposals.

"The league has a local continuing responsibility—a position based on past study, which enables us to review the bonding and millage proposals and to take a stand on them."

Several first aid classes will be held by the American Red Cross in area schools including Bloomfield Hills High School and Seaholm High School, Birmingham.

A standard first aid class will be held at Bloomfield Hills High School for five weeks beginning Monday. Class meets from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

A class at Seaholm High School will start Wednesday and will meet for five weeks from 8 to 10 p.m.

An advanced class meeting from 7:30 to 10 p.m. starting Nov. 7 at Bloomfield Hills High School.

Mercy Train Rolls Despite Uncertain Fate

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Across the plains and mountains of West Texas, a 10-car mercy train clanked toward El Paso today.

The train, dispatched from Lafayette, La., to an Indian village south of Chihuahua City, Mexico, left here Friday night at 8:15 p.m. on what railroad spokesmen called a 19-hour journey to El Paso.

What happens in El Paso to the 10 boxcars loaded with foodstuffs and farming implements remained somewhat in doubt.

A Southern Pacific Railroad official in El Paso said the general auditor of the Chihuahua & Pacific Railroad was trying to get permits to take the 10 cars across the border. He said if Mexican officials permit the cars to enter Mexico, it may be Monday before they can cross the border.

'NOT PERMITTED' — But in Mexico, a spokesman for the Treasury Ministry said the train "will not be permitted to enter Mexico."

The foodstuffs and farm implements were donated by Louisiana residents after a Catholic priest of the Jesuit order said at least 100 Tarahumaras Indians were dying of hunger daily. Many of them were children, the Rev. Luis Verplancken said.

The Mexican government said that to allow delivery of the goods would imply that Mexico is not able to care for its own people.

Mexico, which has accepted donations of this type before when earthquakes, hurricanes or other disasters occurred, has several public agencies to aid Indians and other groups.
