

STAFF BULLETIN

ARCHIVES

May 26-June 1, 1969

Published weekly by University news service, 114 North Foundation
(ext. 2219). Deadline for submitting material is 5 p.m. Thursday.

VARNER IS CONFIRMED

Chancellor Varner's appointment by Governor Milliken as chairman of the Michigan Council of the Arts was confirmed by the Senate last week after an unsuccessful attempt by State Senator Robert Huber of Troy to block it. Huber objected to what he termed "permissiveness" on the part of Varner in regard to student activities, specifically citing the Elbinger nude poetry reading incident and the showing of films Huber considered pornographic during the Fine Arts Festival. His attack was countered by supporting comments by Senator Sander Levin of Oak Park.

EKLUND SPEAKS THRICE

Dean Lowell Eklund (Continuing Education) was the featured speaker last Thursday at the Birmingham PTA Council "Awards Dinner" at Berkshire Junior High School. He also will deliver commencement addresses to the graduating classes of Atherton Community Schools in Flint on June 4 and Seaholm High School in Birmingham on June 12. Assistant Dean Kenneth A. Meade spoke last Tuesday before the Parents Club of Detroit's Cooley High School on "The Importance of Continuing Education."

SUMMER SCHOOL SIGN-UP

Regular OU students will be given a five-day jump on guest students for Summer School registration, Dean Lewis N. Pino reports. Early registration will be held on Wednesday and Thursday, June 18-19. All other students will register on Monday, June 23, including regular OU students registering late.

2 SEEK SCHOOL POSTS

Two faculty members have announced their candidacies for positions on area boards of education. Harvey Burdick (psychology) is running for a post on the Pontiac school board and Roger Marz (political science) is running for a Bloomfield Hills school board seat.

CAFONE ADDRESSES GROUP

Hal Cafone (education) was a featured speaker and resource man at the 14th annual convention of the International Reading Association, held April 30-May 3 in Kansas City, Missouri. His topic was "Comprehension: The Art of Questioning."

CENTER HOURS CHANGE

For the rest of the spring session (through Saturday, June 21) the Oakland Center grill line will close at 9:45 p.m. every day. It was formerly open until 10:45 Sunday-Thursday and until 11:45 Friday and Saturday. The building itself will be closed each day at 11 p.m., one hour earlier than previously for Friday and Saturday nights. The Oakland Center also will be closed all day on Memorial Day (Friday, May 30), as well as the Saturday and Sunday of Memorial Day weekend.

SELF HEADS CENTER

Gerald Self, psychologist for the Continuum Center of Continuing Education since 1966, has been named director of the Center. He succeeds Mrs. Priscilla Jackson, who will continue work with experimental programs and creative offshoots of the Center's operation. Self will direct all phases of the Center's principal operation, the "Investigation Into Identity" program, which is designed (in the Center's words) "to expose the world of the American woman to herself."

TIMES FOR SALE

With the exception of holiday weekends during the spring and summer, the Sunday New York Times will be available for purchase on Sundays after 11:30 a.m. in the Sunset Room (grill) of the Oakland Center.

THIS WEEK ONLY

MSU Employees Credit Union members may buy up to $5,000 worth of travelers checks for a flat fee of $2 through a special offer good only through this Saturday.

CALENDAR

At Meadow Brook Theatre through June 22, Shaw's "St. Joan."

Performances Thursday through Saturday at 8:15 p.m.; Sunday at 6:30 p.m.; matinees Wednesday and Thursday at 2 p.m.