Joint Moon Shot Bid Wins Praise

JFK Proposal Welcomed as East-West Aid

Gromyko Reaction Is Noncommital, but Hope High for Accord

From Our News Wire

Kennedy's address Friday, following an unusually mild policy speech by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, heartened diplomats weary of bitter exchanges between the two big powers.

Gromyko welcomed the conciliatory nature of Kennedy's speech, but reserved comment on specific proposals, pending study.

He also conveyed to Kennedy the "warm personal greetings" of Premier Khrushchev at a reception after the President's speech.

Gromyko's remarks seemed to support the growing hope that the Soviets, seared by the Cuban crisis and differences with Peking, are more interested in East-West amity than in rocket-rattling.

Kennedy told the 111-nation assembly the world may have reached "a pause in the cold war." He set out basic U.S.-Soviet differences, but called for further steps in easing cold war tensions, specifically by pooling U.S. and Soviet space research and experience for a moon shot.

CALL ECHOED

Delegates praised the tenor of Kennedy's speech and echoed his call for peaceful settlement of East-West differences.

There was considerable speculation why Kennedy suggested the joint moon expedition. Some delegates expressed the belief that

By JIM DYGERT

Oakland County's Republican Congressman William S. Broomfield today defended foreign aid as necessary to thwart communism and vital to America's future even if there were no Communist threat.

Despite its failings, misuses and high cost, U.S. foreign aid has meant the impoverished people of the world "are turning to us" for leadership instead of to Russia, Broomfield said.

The congressman, whose influence in foreign affairs is rising fast, spoke before a large audience in the Gold Room at Oakland University's Oakland Center this morning for the opening session of the county's first bipartisan Citizens' Political Forum.

Democratic Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler also spoke this morning.

Staebler, speaking about President Kennedy's proposed tax cut, said the President's program is "essential to the future growth and vitality of the nation."

Staebler said expansion of the national economy as a direct result of the tax cut "will add some 3 million new jobs." He said the tax cut would primarily benefit families with incomes under $10,000 annually.

In his luncheon speech, Gov. George Romney said he did not feel that Detroit should be treated any differently than any other city in tax maters.

He added that the tax program "will be a big help to the metropolitan areas, in solving their problems."

Romney said he is going to recommend to the legislature that they implement county home rule provisions to enable Oakland and other counties to reorganize their government.

U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart and a host of other government leaders also were to speak today as the county wintnessed one of the big-

GOP Retaliates on Kennedy Bill

Asks Revenue Cuts Based on Spending

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Republicans have told the people that Congress would be "playing Russian roulette with our destiny" if it approves President Kennedy's tax cut bill without a brake on federal spending.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, chief GOP spokesman on tax matters, presented the argument Friday night, saying the tax bill "offers a clear opportunity to tie down" federal spending but that Congress can't rely alone on Kennedy's promise to hold spending down.

"It is time to judge the administration by what it does, more than what it says," Byrnes said over the ABC and CBS television and radio networks and the Mutual radio network.

The Republican reply to President Kennedy's appeal will be continued tonight when Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri speaks on NBC television and radio at 6 p.m. EST.

AMENDMENTS

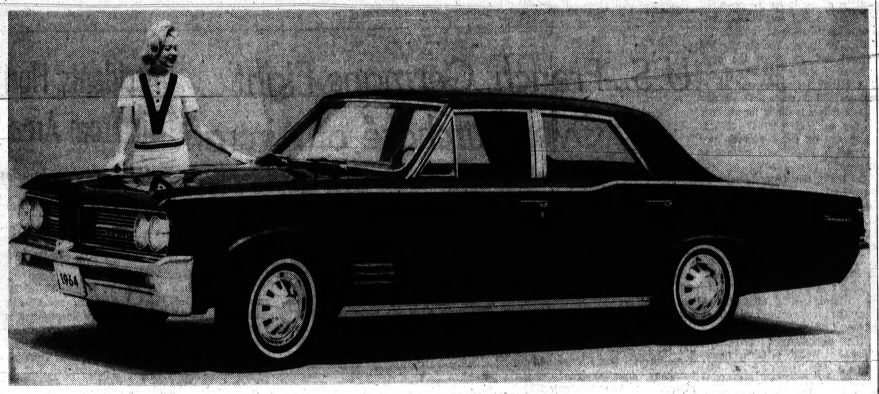
Byrnes, senior Republican on the tax-writing ways and means committee, is proposing an amendment making the tax cut inoperative unless the President submits, in January or earlier, spending estimates not above $97 billion for the fiscal year that began last July 1 and $98 billion for next year.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders were more optimistic today than ever about their chances for pushing the $11-billion tax cut through the House minus the crippling anti-spending amendment.

They rejected a fresh GOP appeal for Democratic support of Byrnes' "trigger" provision and pressed ahead with their drive to line up a solid party front against the amendment.

One key legislator said the leaders were "feeling better" about tax cut prospects after a partial nose-count of Democratic lawmakers.

They warned members that in voting for the Brynes proposal they were voting to hand the President the decision on whether or not to cut taxes.



1964 Tempest Custom Four-Door Sedan

New '64 Tempest: Bigger and Better

By JOHN J. CROWLEY
City Editor
The Pontiac Press

A bigger, almost completely changed Tempest — that's the most significant news out of Pontiac Motor Division for 1964.

Unveiled today, the Tempest series for 1964 represents the most extensive design change for a car in the division's 37-year history.

It's a different breed of cat — a younger brother who wanted to grow up and set about doing just that.

Smiling in anticipation of wide public acceptance, E.M. Estes, Pontiac general manager and General Motors Corp. vice president, pointed out that the 1964 Tempest has:

All-new styling.
New engines.
New frame.
New bodies.
And new interiors.

There's even a whole new series: the Custom.

The Tempest is 8.7 inches longer in 1964, settling its new perimeter frame on a 115-inch wheel base for an over-all length of 203 inches.

SALES POTENTIAL

"With their larger bodies of frame-type construction, high performing six and eight-cylinder engines and numerous other important advances in both engineering and styling," Estes said "the 1964 Tempest represents a significant development with tremendous sales potential."

The public will see them in dealer showrooms Oct. 3.

They'll find that nine models are offered in the Tempest, LeMans and Custom series.

The Tempest will be available in the two-door sports coupe, four-door sedan and four-door station wagon.

Tempest Custom will have two-door sports coupe, convertible coupe, four-door sedan and four-door station wagon models.

The LeMans will be available in two-door sports coupe and convertible models.

An entirely new in-line 215-cubic inch, six-cylinder overhead valve engine is standard equipment on all 1964 Tempest and LeMans models.

7 PCT. LIGHTER

Seven per cent lighter than previous Tempest engines, the Pontiac 215 has a single-barrel carburetor with automatic choke. Delivering 140 horsepower at 4,200 rpm, it is available with either synchromesh or automatic transmission.

Then there's the optional 326-cubic-inch V8 engine offered on all Tempest and LeMans models for those who desire the highest performance. The regular-fuel V8 with a two-barrel carburetor delivers 250 horsepower, and a high-output, premium-fuel version with a four-barrel carburetor produces 280 horsepower.

As for exterior styling:

The Tempest and Tempest Custom series have large, single tail lamps that follow the contours of the quarter panel and bumper ends. The new wide-face bumpers are "full size" and their wrap-around design is for both protection and good looks.

The LeMans series is quickly identified by its own distinctive grille treatment and rear-end design. To continue the sports car theme, LeMans tail lamps are integrated within a decorative rear end panel.

Doors are larger for increase entrance and exit room. Curved-door window glass permits a thinner door, thus allowing increased hip and shoulder room.

SUSPENSION SYSTEMS

Among the major engineering developments found in the 1964 Tempest are the new front and rear suspension systems that provide better stability, softer ride, easier handling and reduced maintenance.

An all-new front suspension geometry of "big car" design extends the wide track to a full 58 inches for increased stability.

Then there's the newly-designed air conditioning system that is patterned after the system introduced last year for the regular Pontiac line. The system combines the heater with the air conditioner to give complete year-round controlled humidity comfort regardless of outside temperature.

LeMans customers may choose from six interior color schemes, all in rich and lustrous expanded vinyl.

Bucket seats in the exclusive Pontiac contour design are standard in the LeMans convertible and sports coupe, along with a custom steering wheel of solid plastic and nylon-blend, loop pile carpeting from door to door.

4 INTERIORS

Four inferiors in strikingly new styling are offered in the standard Tempest four-door sedan and sports coupe. Cushion and back trim cloth is used in combination with Morrokide vinyl-coated fabrics in harmonizing tones.

Floor covering for these two body styles is solid vinyl and is installed over heavy jute padding for comfort and noise reduction.

And because Tempest buyers will want to get out and show off their purchase, the fuel tank capacity has been increased to 21.5 gallons.

Pontiac Retail Store, 65 Mt. Clemens; Keego Sales and Service, Inc., Keego Harbor; Jack W. Haupt Pontiac Sales, N. Main, Clarkston; Russ Johnson Motor Sales, 89 M24, Lake Orion; Shelton Pontiac-Buick, 223 Main, Rochester; Wilson Pontiac-Cadillac, Inc., 1350 N. Woodward, Birmingham; and Homer Hight Motors, Inc., 160 S. Washington, Oxford.

Can Romney Pull Miracle, Win Tax Program Support?

LANSING (AP) — The number one question on the capital scene these days is: "Will he or won't he?"

The question reflects a wonderment as to whether Gov. George Romney will be able to pull a political miracle out of the fire of legislative debate and come up with a tax reform program for which he can claim credit.

Some observers argue that suffering a defeat on the issue would cause grievous and perhaps fatal harm to his chances of becoming the 1964 Republican presidential nominee (an honor he repeatedly insists he is not seeking).

But if Romney manages to push across a program incorporating a state income tax, with additional local-option income taxes, many believe he will have succeeded in enhancing his national image even more than the polls show he did in his first six months in office.

Already his reputation has benefited by the fact that Michigan, once on the verge of bankruptcy, with a $95-million deficit, may soon be out of the red completely because of record auto sales and a booming economy.

An indication of the tough fight that lies ahead for Romney's "jobs and justice" fiscal reform program is seen in the fact that the public reaction to his tax message has been about evenly divided pro and con.

GOP OPPOSITION

In the legislature itself, there are many of his fellow Republicans who admit candidly that even though they might agree in principle with the purpose of the tax program, they won't be able to vote for a state income tax because to do so would be political suicide.

One of those who have disagreed openly with Romney's advocacy of a state income tax is Sen. Clyde Geerlings, chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee.

Geerlings has come up with his own fiscal reform program, pegged to a two-per cent optional county income tax.

In arguing for the local-level approach, Geerlings declared:

"It is not reasonable that legislators gathered in Lansing should detrmine that what applies in Oakland is valid in Ogemaw, that the people of Kent and Keewenaw see things alike; that Wayne and Wexford find the same solution acceptable.

SEAT OF KNOWLEDGE

"I believe that any program based on increased state aid has a basic flaw in that it would impose a tax generally throughout the state and distribute the proceeds as though Lansing were the seat of all knowledge."

A sure sign that Romney intends to fight for his program all the way — although willing to give and take a little — was his observation at a news conference that the Geerlings proposal was "ingenious and deserves consideration."

Then he proceeded to tear it to shreds, bit-by-bit and piece-by-piece, winding up with the observation that the Geerlings program provides neither tax relief for low income families nor tax equity for the business community.

Senate Closes N-Pact Debate

Goldwater Proposal One of Last Hurdles

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — The Senate has ended its general debate on the limited nuclear test-ban treaty and has one more hurdle before voting Tuesday on ratification.

On Monday, the action centers on attempts by critics and lukewarm supporters to attach reservations to the pact which would ban nuclear tests except underground.

Republican and Democratic leaders have expressed confidence they have enough votes to win ratification by a large margin and to turn back any reservations.

One of the reservations is a proposal by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to postpone the treaty's effectiveness until the Soviet Union removes its military base and any nuclear-capable weapons from Cuba.

Although only 15 senators have announced they will vote against the treaty, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., a treaty supporter, predicted Goldwater may muster as

Rusk to Begin Political Talks

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk is heading into 12 days of intense diplomatic activity in deep uncertainty over what can be harvested from the present pause in the cold war.

Starting with a dinner Saturday night for Laos' neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma, Rusk expects to meet with 60 or more government chiefs and foreign ministers here and in Washington in the course of the current U.N. General Assembly session. He plans to return to the capital in time to greet visiting Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie Oct. 3.

Rusk's most important talks here will be with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, beginning late next week. Britain's foreign secretary, Lord Home, will be sitting in on the sessions designed to find out: "After the limited test ban treaty—what?"

Smaller items of a strictly bilateral sort are given the best chance of speedy agreement.

A U.S.-Soviet agreement for a commercial air route between the two countries is ready for signing if the political weather proves clear enough. Other accords for promoting East-West exchanges are within quick reach.

On trade, the Kennedy administration has been spurred by the recent $500-million Soviet purchase of Canadian wheat to look anew at the sparsity of U.S.-Soviet commerce.

But the prospects for much of an increase soon are shadowed by legislative and policy barriers, little natural trading affinity between the two countries and a lack of Soviet offers.

The disarmament proposals generally would require more specific stipulations from the Russians and more agreement among the allies than have been achieved so far.

Police Probing 2 Safecrackings

1 Local Break-In Nets $3,100; $500 in Coins

Two safecrakings, one netting thieves $3,100 and a $500 coin collection, were under investigation today by Pontiac police detectives.

The Michigan Fluorescent Light Co., 393 Orchard Lake Ave., suffered the heaviest loss after thieves entered the building by breaking a rear basement window and then ripping the door off the safe.

In addition to the several thousand dollars, $300 in checks were stolen.

At the Rogers Tire and Battery Service, 304 N. Johnson, thieves carted away a small safe containing $50 to $60 in change and $25 in trading stamps.

Both break-ins were discovered this morning when employes arrived at work, according to police.

Clawson Man in Auto Crash

A 27-year-old Clawson man was in fair condition this morning at Royal Oak's William Beaumont Hospital, being treated for injuries he received in a Troy automobile accident early this morning.

Sidney D. Poole sustained a rib fracture and leg cut in the accident at Crooks and Big Beaver when his car collided with one driven by John D. Thompson, 30, of Detroit.

Ex-Premier Out to Form New Oslo Government

OSLO, Norway (AP)— Former Socialist Premier Einar Gerhardsen agreed today to try to form a new government after the fall of Norway's first non-Socialist government in 28 years.

Gerhardsen accepted the task from King Olav V. Gerhardsen headed the government toppled by a no-confidence vote in Parliament a month ago.

Deputies Nab Ionia Fugitive

A fugitive from Ionia State Prison was arrested early this morning by sheriff's deputies who found him and a girl parked in a car on Greenshield Road in Orion Township.

Being held in the county jail is William F. Graves, 22, of 27 S. Broadway, Lake Orion.

Graves, serving a term of one to 15 years for breaking and entering, walked away from Ionia Sept. 10, according to police.

Deputies Lyle Wilcox and John Hastie had been sent to the scene to investigate the parked car shortly after 3 a.m.

Wilcox had to fire a warning shot in the air when Graves tried to escape after getting out of the car to show his identification.

Police said the car belonged to girl's father.

U.S., French, Germans Fight Over Purchase of Aircraft

BONN (UPI) — Americans, Frenchmen and West Germans were engaged today in a business battle in which the sale of 100 large military cargo aircraft is the prize.

The row is over whether the West German Luftwaffe should buy the twin-engine "Transall" cargo aircraft that France and Germany have designed together, or the "Hercules," made by America's Lockheed.

Transall is in the prototype stage, but the Hercules has been used by the U. S. Air Force for several years.

Several German members of Parliament went to France a week ago to look over the Transall before deciding which plane the defense ministry ought to buy.

MORE SAVINGS

The French apparently want 50 of the transall planes. If the Germans buy 100 more of them, it will mean a considerable cost saving to Paris.

So far, according to the German Defense Ministry, only the Transall is even being considered.

But Lockheed representatives are scurrying around Germany trying to whip up enthusiasm for their Hercules.

They have mailed batches of printed material to parliamentary deputies, contacted a number of reporters, and placed large advertisements with most technical magazines.

So far, however, Lockhede has been unable to show its entry officially to either the Parliament or the Defense Ministry.

But the American company's activity has been enough to anger the French, according to stories appearing in some Paris newspapers.

The French already were peeved because the Germans decided to go along with the United States in the development of a battle tank. Paris argues that the French-Germany treaty of cooperation means Bonn should start switching military orders from the United States to France.

NLRB to Study Charges on Burroughs-UAW Vote

DETROIT (UPI) — The National Labor Relations Board plans to look into the United Auto Workers conduct in an election campaign in which it won the right to represent workers at Burroughs Corp.

Burroughs yesterday asked the NLRB to set aside the election last week on grounds the union publicized a false rumor that Burroughs planned a merger with the Ford Motor Co.

The company asked the NLRB to order a new election or to "order a formal hearing on the objections" to the last election.

Jerome H. Brooks, acting regional director of the NLRB, said the company claimed the union distributed pamphlets alleging the merger of the two firms; made radio and television broadcasts mentioning the rumor, and also made statements to Burroughs workers during the election.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Asker what the NLRB would do, "We will study, investigate and get all the evidence before taking action one way or another on ordering a hearing."

A UAW spokesman refused comment on the Burroughs charges.

The UAW won by a slim margin of 356 votes the right to represent Burroughs workers at the bargaining table at an election Sept. 13. The union had been attempting for 12 years to organize the workers and it was the third election.

The rumor of merger between Ford and Burroughs has been rampant here for most of the year. Both companies have repeatedly denied the rumor and four days after the UAW victory in the election the heads of the two companies issued a joint denial.

Ray Eppert, Burroughs president, and Henry Ford II, Ford board chairman, said in the statement they "emphatically denied that there were now, or ever had been, any merger or acquisition discussions between the two companies."

Accidents Hurt Six From Area

No Serious Injuries in Three Collisions

Auto collisions injured six persons in three area accidents yesterday.

George P. Hugill, 65, of 257 Perry, Lake Orion, and his wife Lillian, 62, were hospitalized in Lapeer County General Hospital after a 12:15 p.m. accident on Lapeer Road, near Drahner.

Both are listed in satisfactory condition with fractures.

The driver of the other car, Virgil M. Hodges, 61, of Detroit, was not seriously injured when he crashed in the rear of the Hugill's car, police said.

In St. Joseph Mercy Hospital are Anthony A. Lubinski, 31, of Griggs street in Rochester, and Lyndle R. Martin, 31, of 1212 Decker, Walled Lake.

BACKING UP

Witnesses told police it appeared that Lubinski was backing up his truck when the accident occurred at 1:15 p.m.

Sally Swett, 21, of 290 N. Paddock, is in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital in poor condition after she rammed the rear of a car on Oakland, just north of Inglewood, last night.

The baby's mother Pansy K. Day, 19, 454 Oakland, was treated and released.

The occupants of the other car, Nels Swanson, 51 of 1852 Birchcrest, and his wife Garnet, 48, also were treated and released.

Area Man Killed as Car Hits 3 Trees

A 25-year-old South Lyon man was killed last night just north of Ann Arbor when his car went off Pontiac Trail and struck three trees.

Fatally injured in the 8:40 p.m. accident was Dewey Hollon of 232 Lake.

Washtenaw County sheriff's deputies said Hollon, alone in the car, was just south of Dhu Varren Road when his car skidded a total of 345 feet along the shoulder and into a ditch before coming to a stop.

Joint Moon Shot Bid Is Hailed

Kennedy feels the United States cannot beat the Soviets to the moon on its own.

It was noted that U.S. space officials at Cape Canaveral voiced disappointment over this as an indication that the President seems ready to abandon the U.S. moon project.

His suggestion came at a time when public enthusiasm for the project apparently is waning, costs are spiraling and Congress no longer is rubber-stamping space agency money requests.

Director James E. Webb of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) was quick to deny yesterday that the proposal meant there would be a slowdown in project plans to put two Americans on the moon by 1970.

'U.S. WILL CONTINUE'

Webb told agency colleagues the United States would continue the Apollo man-on-the-moon program pending any substantive negotiations with Moscow for a joint probe.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans, associate NASA administrator, agreed, and added that Kennedy's proposal proved that this country's space effort was strong and right on schedule.

Diplomatic observers said the omission indicated the Kremlin either opposes the idea or wants to study it carefully before taking a stand.

QUOTE GENEROUSLY

The Moscow papers quoted generously from Kennedy's address before the U.N. General Assembly. They mentioned his call for cooperation in space, but said nothing about his specific suggestion of a joint moon expedition, as an example of such cooperation.

Soviet press reaction appeared favorable to Kennedy's statements urging an end to the cold war and peaceful competition between East and West.

The only negative note was sounded by Pravda, the party organ, which cited Kennedy's preference to "lack of freedom" under communism and his declaration that America intends to maintain its armed might for defense of the free world.

"That part of the speech," Pravda said, "is a continuation of the cold war which Kennedy calls for an end to."

Birmingham Area News

Longer Store Hours Are Urged By Chamber

BIRMINGHAM — Aiming at unification, the chamber of commerce is urging Birmingham businessmen to keep their stores open Thursday and Friday nights.

The nights were chosen on the basis of a survey taken by the board of directors of the chamber's retail division.

In a letter to members, Chamber President William E. Roberts said the group's board of directors had accepted the recommendation of the retailers "because Birmingham is a residential town, and its business area is a convenience-comparison shopping area . . . not a shopping center."

Most of the stores in downtown Birmingham are now open Thursday and-or Friday nights, according to Charles Mortensen, chamber general manager.

"A couple were thinking of adding Mondays" but now apparently have changed their plans, Mortensen said.

Earl West of Indianapolis, Ind., will be featured in a series of Bible lectures at the Birmingham Church of Christ next week.

The lectures will be given Monday through Sept. 29 at the church, 3737 W. Big Beaver. Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the exception of the one Sunday at 6 p.m.

West will also address the congregation at the regular 11 a.m. service Sunday.

The Birmingham Recreation Department is now accepting registrations for the Saturday morning children's swimming classes which will begin Sept. 28.

Application blanks have been distributed to the schools and will be accepted as long as there are vacancies. The recreation office is in the Municipal Building.

many as 30 votes for his reservation.

FEWER VOTES

Aiken, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said there may be fewer votes for a reservation by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to spell out that the United States has a right to use nuclear weapons to defend itself or any of its allies.

Reservations can be rejected by a majority vote, although ratification itself will require a two-thirds majority — 67 if all 100 senators are on hand.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., whose colleague, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., is leading the fight for the treaty, is one of three senators regarded as definitely uncommitted on the vote. The other two are Sens. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, and Edwin L. Mechem, R-N. M.

Broomfield Speaks

'LONG OVERDUE'

In a speech prepared for delivery this afternoon, Sen. Hart said "The revision of the tax structure is long overdue."

"Reduction in personal and corporate federal taxes is essential in heading off another recession and bringing into balance the receipts and incomes of the Federal government," he said.

Hart said Congress should act quickly on tax reduction.

"Every family, every business will benefit. The nation's economic growth will move up, responding to human needs that we all see if we just look around."

SOMEONE PAYS

Oakland County Board of Supervisors Chairman Delos Hamlin, speaking as one of five panelists on taxation, said "someone must pay" for increased public services demanded by "urban concentration, an industrial economy and the population explosion in the metropolitan area."

"Society must be able to serve all of its members, even though some may pay more because there are some who can only pay less," Hamlin said.

He concluded that funds for public services beyond what reasonable consumer and property taxes can finance "must come from individuals and corporations based on ability to pay through income."

Broomfield said the world's impoverished people "are rebelling by the millions against old social orders and antiquated political structures." They look for example to the American revolution, not the Russian version, he said.

The United States must help them, communism or no communism, Broomfield said, "because we are—whether we like it or not—the leader of the world."

"We have a corner on the world market in material goods, in freedom, in high living standards; yes, and in atom bombs."

RUSSIA BEHIND

Broomfield said Russia, "the only country that seriously challenges our leadership, still lags far behind us in providing the material comforts of life — and most important, the freedom which makes us the envy of the world."

He quoted the late U.S. Sen. Arthur Vandenburg: "The greatest nation on earth either justifies or surrenders its leadership."

While reminding the audience that unemployment was one of the nation's "most serious domestic issues," Broomfield said, "In a great many places on this earth, a man who has a steady job earns less in an entire year than an unemployed american receives in a single week in unemployment insurance."

"These people are our business. If they aren't our business, the Russians most certainly will make them theirs," Broomfield said. "Communism feeds on despair."

Broomfield said, "There are more ways of giving than simply donating dollars — and in most cases these other ways are more effective."

He was referring to the program he started in which Oakland County leaders visited Cali, Colombia, to help with direct local level-to-local level assistance.

LITTLE EXPERIENCE

They found, he said, that Colombians, in their dependence upon their central government, had little experience in solving their own problems despite rich resources.

Hearing Set for Sidewalks

A public hearing on a special assessment district for installing sidewalks along Bender Street will be held Monday between 7 and 9 p.m. in conjunction with the Waterford Township Board meeting.

In other business board members will consider accepting the resignation of board of review member Carlos Richardson.

Richardson will give up the township post to continue serving on the Oakland County Board of Canvassers.

Recent legislation prohibits members of the board of canvassers from holding an elective office. Richardson was elected to the township office last April.

Also slated for attention of the township board is a request to open a pool hall at 3127 W. Huron. Mrs. C. Norris Priestap, owner of the site, will appear before the board.

Rocks Float Here

Naknek Lake in southern Alaska is noted for rocks that float and wood that sinks. The rocks littering its shore are pumice and lighter than water. The wood is petrified and often beautifully marked.

Tito States East, West Not Rivals

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—The division of the world into east and west blocs is "already a thing of the past," visiting President Tito of Yugoslavia says.

Tito told newsmen yesterday both the Soviet Union and the United States are interested primarily in peace and the question of rival economic and social systems is secondary.

In his recent talks with Soviet Premier Khurshchev, Tito said, he found the Russians in favor of peaceful efforts to reach understanding with the United States.

"I know that on the American side there is an identical disposition," he added.

For this reason, Tito said, he hopes to exchange ideas with President Kennedy on his forthcoming trip to Washington.

Tito and President Joao Goulart signed a joint statement calling for complete disarmament and an end to colonialism and racial discrimination. They also signed a bilateral industrial cooperation pact.

Two Appointed to Oakland U.

Two new appointments to the Oakland University staff were approved yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees.

Dr. Gottfried Brieger, 28, of 394 Boyd, was named assistant professor of chemistry and Thomas Coppe, 31, of 61 Oneida, assistant librarian.

Dr. Breiger was assistnat professor of chemistry at the University of California.

A native of Berlin, he received his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin in 1961 and his bachelor of science degree at Harvard University in 1957.

Coppe is a native of St. Paul, Minn., where he was a biographical researcher for a private concern. He received a masters degree in library science from Columbia University in 1958.

Both Dr. Brieger and Coppe will fill new positions.

The highland country of New York and Vermont produces about two-thirds the nation's supply of maple syrup and other maple products.

Pakistan Needling Washington, Russ

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Pakistan appears to have embarked on a calculated program to needle Washington and Moscow in heartily endorsing a Red Chinese proposal for a world summit conference on disarmament and by increasing trade with the Peking camp.

The moves, announced Friday, seem certain to deepen Pakistan's worrisome quarrel with the United States, triggered by U. S. aid to India. They also appear certain to irritate the Soviet Union in Moscow's competition with Peking for Asian support.

President Mohammed Ayub Khan, who once described himself as the staunchest anti-Communist ally of the United States in Saia, is angry with Washington because of American aid in bolstering India's defenses against Red China.

WEAPONS THREAT

He believes American weapons in India pose more of a threat to Pakistan in the long and bitter quarrel over Kashmir.

Week-long firing by Pakistani and Indian forces in the disputed Lathitilla area on the Assam-East Pakistan front ended Friday with observance of a cease-fire on both sides, official sources in New Delhi said.

Ayub's government replied favorably Friday to an Aug. 2 letter from Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai calling for a world summit conference on disarmament and the destruction of nuclear weapons.

It suggested that an Asian-African meeting be called to start machinery to bring about the summit.

EXCLUDE CHINA

The reply declares that the exclusion of Red China from the United Nations deprives Peking of "the legitimate right...to participate in negotiations that are in progress" on disarmament in the world organization.

The support for Peking's proposal came one day after Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko proposed in the United Nations that the 18 nations on the U.N. Disarmament Commission hold a summit conference on the same problem. Red China is barred from the commission.

Pakistan announced a trade agreement with Albania, Peking's only European ally.

In terms of trade volume, the pact appears to have little significance. But its timing could be regarded as a calculated irritation, particularly against the background of a similar agreement signed with the Red Chinese two weeks ago.

2nd Step to Ease Tensions

Bonn Minister Urges Inspection Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder of West Germany has advised the United States to go ahead and see whether an inspection system can be arranged with the Soviet Union for preventing a surprise attack.

The exchange of East and West observation posts along the Iron Curtain was one of a series of Soviet proposals for easing tensions.

Schroeder was reported to have told administration officials yesterday that it probably is the only one the West can hope to win agreement on.

The foreign minister had conferences with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and presidential adviser McGeorge Bundy before flying to New York. He is to return for a meeting Tuesday with President Kennedy.

Sources close to the German foreign policy chief said Schroeder has the backing of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer to pursue a more flexible approach to a possible "second step" for easing East-West tensions. The limited test ban treaty is regarded as the first step.

As suggested by Soviet Premier Khrushchev, the inspection teams would report on troop concentrations and other signs of war preparations on each side of the Iron Curtain.

The Kennedy administration is reported to believe also that the inspection proposal has the best chance of being worked out.

Bonn is reported to feel that the Soviet suggestion for an East-West nonaggression agreement should be held up until other problems—such as Berlin and German reunification—are settled.

The various proposals for easing tensions are expected to be discussed next week in New York by Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Schroeder reportedly was told that Rusk has no plans for proposing any concrete "second steps" to the Soviets but is ready to discuss all the matters Kennedy and Gromyko raised in the speeches to the U.N. General Assembly.

Schroeder is reported to have cautioned U. S. officials that the West's position in Berlin may erode if the city's division becomes accepted as an unchangeable fact.

How Long Should You Study?

By THE READING LABORATORY
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Association

"I study five hours a night!"

Have you ever heard anyone make that complaint? Lots of students do "study" that long, too. Maybe you do yourself.

But notice the quotation marks around the word "study?"

It should be phrased: Lots of students think they study that long.

Sure you can point to the clock: "I sat down with my books at 7 o'clock, and I stayed there (except maybe for snacks) until midnight!"

But the fact is that five clock hours rarely add up to five hours of studying, because most students don't study in the right environment.

Check up on yourself the next time you study. For all the time you spend on your books, how much of it is really effective, concentrated studying?

We'll take a look at the study environment you should have. If it's not the kind of study environment you do have, you can be sure that much of your time is being wasted.

There are two kinds of environment — the external and the internal. First the external:

- Study in a quiet room by yourself. NO television, NO rock 'n' roll records and NO radio. (It's actually better to have a slight, regular background noise than none at all. A slight noise will make you raise your whole level of concentration).
- There should be a good light, at least 100-watt, coming over your shoulder. If it's in front of you, the glare will tire your eyes.
- Use a straight chair; a kitchen chair is perfect. In an easy chair, you'll relax too much and start daydreaming.
- Hold your book about 14 inches from your eyes and on a 45-degree angle from the table. (Your eyes will tire quickly if the book is laid flat, because then your eyes are closer to the bottom of the page than the top, and you'll be constantly changing your focus down the page).

The internal environment:

- If you have any problems or if anything's worrying you, get it off your chest before you start studying.

For example, if you're wondering whether so-and-so will go out with you Saturday night, call her up and find out!

There's no point in sitting down to study if you're going to think about something else the whole time.

- If it's not the kind of problem you can take care of with a phone call (you might be waiting for him to call you;, a good trick is to write down whatever is bothering you.

Once it's down in black and white, you'll usually be able to stop worrying about it. Besides problems rarely look very serious once they're written out.

- Or if you have a headache or if you're sleepy, take an aspirin or take a nap and hit the books later. Don't waste your time studying unless you're going to get something out of it.

The importance of study environment — external and internal —cannot be overemphasized. If a lot of your study time has been unproductive, your study environment has probably been at the root of the trouble.

(Tomorrow: How to budget your time.

Hart Opponent Finds Good GOP Support

LANSING (UPI) — State Sen. John W. Fitzgerald, R-Grand Ledge, said today he came away from the biennial fall Republican Conference encouraged in his ambition to seek the U.S. Senate seat of Democrat Philip A. Hart.

"I spent most of my time at the conference talking to the many delegates there from all over Michigan, and there seemed to be good support from all parts of the state," Fitzgerald said.

"I think it resolves itself down to this — I must by myself make the basic decision whether to go or not. Right now the chances are 60-40 I will."

Fitzgerald admitted the race against Hart would be tough, "but I think I would have a better chance of beating him than other people I've heard mentioned for the Republican nomination."

OTHERS NAMED

The others, Fitzgerald said, include Grand Haven businessman Edward Meany, Republican National Committeeman John B. Martin of Grand Rapids and, possibly, Richard Van Dusen, legal aide to Gov. George Romney.

Sen. Frederic Hilbert, R-Wayland, said in Lansing this week an informal poll he has been taking indicates Fitzgerald is one of the state GOP's best-known politicians, ranking even ahead of veteran office seeker Alvin Bentley, the one-time congressman and unsuccessful Senate and congressman-at-large candidate from Owosso.

Three other prominent Republicans who were also at the conference feeling out their chances for statewide office — namely lieutenant governor — were state Sen's. William Milliken of Traverse City and Stanley Thayer of Ann Arbor and House Speaker Allison Green of Kingston.

Milliken has previously indicated he is interested in the office. Thayer also admits he would not be adverse to running, and Green told United Press International he has been approached by friends who have encouraged him to get into the race.

Green said, "I would be available and I would be most anxious to serve if the governor thought I could help. But I have no great ambition to shift from my job as speaker. I like it here in the House."

Motorists Should Heed Accident-Saving Aids

With 43 million kids now making their way back to school, there are 43 million reasons for motorists to be extra-alert these days during the morning rush-hour traffic.

Younger children especially lack experience that would tell them automatically what to do in an unexpected situation.

Drivers are urged to contribute to the safety of the Nation's school folk by heeding these four suggestions:

- Remember that school yards, empty all summer, are now filling with shouting, racing children who do not always watch where they're going. Be prepared for a child to dash suddenly into the street.
- Be ready for the unexpected whenever you see a group of children near the street.
- Give yourself an even greater margin for safety in rainy or winter weather when streets are slick.

And whether school is on or not, keep your car in top mechanical condition. Be sure it will respond as it should to brake and throttle. It must for safe operation.

Royalty Wished Well

The stork, to whom all mankind pays obeisance and welcomes with delight and affection, will visit British royalty "in the new year."

As the fourth child to be born to Queen ELIZABETH, it will be third in line to the throne if a boy, and fourth if a girl.

Children are the great humanizing influence in families whether situated in majestic environment or among the generality. We believe it indisputable that the warm domestic pattern of life enjoyed in Buckingham Palace has played an important part in the regal growth and aptitude of the young Queen.

We speak for all Americans in offering felicitations to Britain's royal couple on the happy event soon to occur.

'Breakfast' Gatherings Are Significant Force

Unknown to many, a significant spiritual force has found its way across the Country. It in no manner abridges observance of formal religion, it complements it.

Last Wednesday, 500 persons from all walks of life and faiths participated in our state's Governor Prayer Breakfast in Lansing.

Initiated in 1935 by a Seattle group of 19 who felt the need of spiritual communion in facing the problems of daily living, the idea then born grew into the Presidential Prayer Breakfast inaugurated 11 years ago by the United States Senate and House of Representatives Christian Leaderships Groups.

A similar function is now held in 48 of the 50 states, and is becoming an annual event for the leadership of many cities throughout America.

The Breakfast is sponsored by a voluntary, nonsectarian movement of concerned laymen who have joined together to reaffirm their faith and, through encouragement and example, promote new spirit and hope in the hearts of men throughout the world.

Established in over forty countries, this worldwide movement offers a fellowship irrespective of party, denomination, creed or race.

With our world facing problems of a complexity unimaginable but a relatively short time ago, the spiritual unity symbolized by these gatherings could well be a significant force in the amelioration of international cleavage.

Total Arms Ban a Long Way Off

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — This country has spent over $500 billion on defense since the war, but year after year the outcome of disarmament talks with Russia could be predicted by a child: Nothing.

President Kennedy, who had watched those fruitless and expensive years go by, finally said on Jan. 11, 1962:

MARLOW

"This nation has the will and the faith to make a supreme effort to break the logjam on disarmament and nuclear tests, and we will persist until we prevail, until the rule of law has replaced the ever-dangerous use of force."

Premier Khrushchev followed this up Feb. 7, 1962 with a letter to Kennedy and British Prime Minister Macmillan, proposing that the heads of 18 nations have a summit meeting to start off the 1962 disarmament talks.

TURNED DOWN

Kennedy and Macmillan turned him down. Kennedy didn't close out the idea of such a summit altogether. He just said he didn't think it worthwhile until there had been some progress in disarmament talks on a lower level.

So there was no summit meeting, but representatives of 17 nations — France would take no part—met on and off during the year at Geneva to discuss disarmament. And the result was the same as in all the years before.

A ban on nuclear tests would be the sensible first point in any agreement on disarmament but the United States and Russia gagged on how to achieve that much accord. So everything broke down on that.

The nuclear test-ban agreement was achieved in a British-American-Russian meeting in Moscow, not at the Geneva conference.

Then Thursday in the United Nations in New York, one day before Kennedy was to address the organization, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko repeated the 1962 Khrushchev proposal which Kennedy had rejected.

He suggested an 18-nation summit meeting before next June 30 to discuss disarmament.

While the ban can be considered a big advance in American-Soviet relations, what has happened in this country over that agreement chills any hope for a general disarmament agreement for a long time.

It revealed a deep, perhaps in some people a pathological, suspicion of Russian intentions.

The President had a fight for weeks in an effort to get Senate approval of the test-ban, although now approval seems sure.

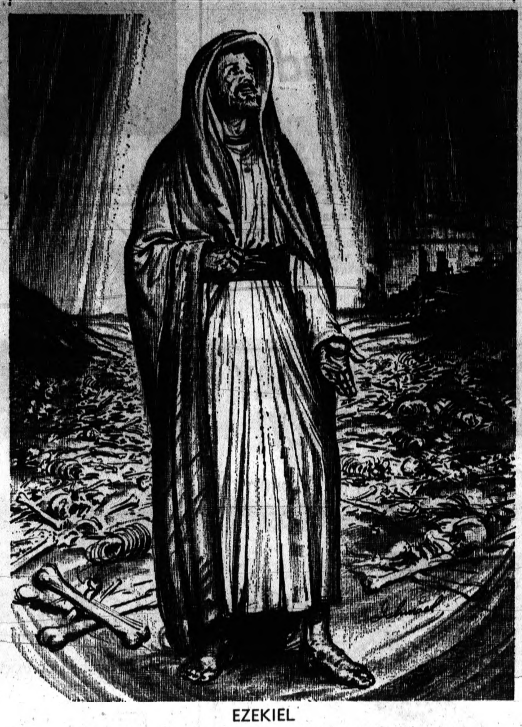
The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL



EZEKIEL

(This is the third in a series on the greater prophets)

Ezekiel, of all the prophets, had the most visions and spiritual manifestations of God. His description of God when he was called to be a prophet is the most awe inspiring of any of the Old Testament. Time and again he was seized by the hand of God.

God said to him, "Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth and give them warning from me."

This warning of doom he gave in his early prophecies. When Jerusalem was besieged and its temple destroyed, Ezekiel received the news as a liberation, for he felt the judgment of God had been carried out against the sins of the people. From that point on his faith led to a proclamation of hope for restoration of Israel.

In his famous vision of the Valley of the Dry Bones, he showed how, through the power of faith, despair and ruin can be turned to hope and fulfillment. "Oh ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord."

Days of All Faiths:

St. Phocas Beheaded by 'Guests'

By DR. HOWARD V. HARPER

Everyone has had his hospitality abused at one time or another, but the record for unpleasant guests must be held by St. Phocas the Gardener, who took some soldiers in for dinner and overnight, and ended up being beheaded by them.

Phocas was a small truckgardener outside the city of Sinope, on the Black Sea. His dates are not known, but he lived sometime during the first three Christian centuries, for that is the period of the persecutions and it was in one of the persecutions that he was martyred.

He was no great flashy saint, but just a quiet holy man, with a generous heart and a welcome for all who came by his house. A gardener's life is a good life for meditation, and a garden is a good place for it. Phocas lived alone, tilling the soil and thinking about God. He also kept a free hostel for travelers.

In one of the persecutions someone reported this kind and harmless man as a Christian, and a few soldiers were sent to bring him in. Without knowing it, they stopped at his house at the end of a day's journey and he received them with his usual gentle warmth.

During the conversation that evening the soldiers told their host what their errand was and asked where they could find this man Phocas. He told them not to worry but to get a good night's sleep and he would produce Phocas for them in the morning.

As soon as they had gone to bed he went outside and dug a grave, and then came in and put everything in order for his burial. The rest of the night he spent in prayer.

In the morning he said to his guests, "I am Phocas, whom you seek." It must be said for these soldiers that they did have the decency to feel pretty uncomfortable about the position they were in. But Phocas reassured them and persuaded them that by killing him for his faith they would be doing him the greatest possible favor. And so they lopped off his head and buried him in the grave he had dug.

YOM KIPPUR

Next Saturday, the tenth of Tishri, is Yom Kippur, Day of Atonement, Day of Judgment, Sabbath of Sabbaths. Most people pronounce it Yom Kipper. Yom Kip-poor would be closer to the Hebrew.

Yom Kippur is the climax of the High Holiday, the most solemn day of the entire year. It is a day of absolute, uncompromising fast — not a bite of food, not a drop of liquid. Also, of course, it is a day of complete rest. The Jewish calendar is so arranged that Yom Kippur never falls on Friday or Sunday, the day before or after the Sabbath, because this would make a double day of rest.

Last week we said that because of their ancient uncertainty about the moon phases, the Jews observe some of their festivals for two days in order to be sure that one of them is the right day. But it is not so with Yom Kippur. Right day or wrong day, one day of such extreme abstinence is all anyone could stand.

Although Rosh Hashanah was the annual Day of Judgment, man's destiny is not "sealed" until next Saturday. Yom Kippur is ordered in Leviticus XVI: 29-31, "In the seventh month, on the tenth day, ye shall afflict your souls . . . for on this day shall atonement be made for you." The phrase "afflict your souls" is interpreted as a command to fast.

As Yom Kippur begins, the beautiful Kol Nidre prayer is sung. Kol Nidre means "all vows." The prayer is a petition for release from promises made impulsively in the heat of emotional stress or unwillingly under pressure during the past year.

The Almanac

By United Press International

Today is Saturday, Sept. 21, the 264th day of 1963 with 101 to follow.

The moon is approaching first quarter.

The morning star is Jupiter.

The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Those born today include English novelist and sociologist H. G. Wells, in 1866.

On this day in history:

In 1792, France was proclaimed a republic and the royal family was deposed.

In 1893, the first successful gasoline-operated motor car made in America — designed and built by Charles and Frank Duryea — appeared on the streets of Springfield, Mass.

In 1938, at least 450 persons were killed in a hurricane that battered the coasts of New England and New York.

Voice of the People:

'Youths Ransack Homes While Owners Shop'

Within the last four weeks when people are shopping, there have been break-ins and burglaries and homes ransacked by juveniles. Don't leave your home unattended or at least make sure the doors are secure. These punks know when you'll be gone and it takes just a few minutes for them to turn everything topsy-turvy.

Disgusted

Express Different Views on Race Issue

After watching "CBS Reports" I feel ashamed that I belong to the white race. I think Mr. Leander Perez is almost inhuman. How can he encourage such violence and speak such blasphemy and still walk free?

It is hard for some people of my race to understand that when the Negro environment is raised, the Negro will also rise. This means Negro children must be offered equal educations, their fathers offered equal jobs and the right to choose their own homes. I'm sick of hearing white people talking about Negro immorality. Negro crimes will go on unless these people are treated respectfully and equally.

I'm sick of hearing "The Negro is all right in his place." God have mercy on the souls of these white, selfish men.

Wish I Could Help

The Civil Rights Movement is making a mockery of our democratic ways. The Open Occupancy Ordinance is the biggest farce. When people have no choice as to whom they can rent or sell their homes, it is an infringement upon the rights our Constitution guarantees.

The first settlers earned their place through hard work—not by demonstrating whenever they pleased. I have yet to see a man who couldn't improve himself and gain respect through hard work and the desire to be a better citizen. Everyone was shocked by the deaths of the four innocent children in Birmingham, and yet the civil rights movement leaders will have to take the blame. They are pushing too hard and too fast.

The segregationists are warned about intermarriage. If God intended people to be one color, He would have created us that way. The latest farce is the picketing of police stations with signs reading "black and white in every squad car."

Disgusted Citizen

Many of the so-called Christians need a scapegoat. About 2,000 years the Jew was kicked from pillar to post. Now it's the colored man. These persecutors do not know what they do.

I. Roth

A "Waterford Mother" states she experienced two unpleasant incidents involving Negroes. She has every right to feel resentment at the obnoxious behavior but when she allows this to include the other members of this race she is biased and unfair. It isn't the American way to condemn all for the actions of a small minority. After Birmingham, we Caucasians should be more than happy to give the other fellow the benefit of any doubt.

City Commission Back in the Spotlight

The citizens of this city cannot do a great deal to affect the recent actions of the City Commission, but the commissioners (excluding Mr. William Taylor) should understand that in April the citizens get to act.

Citizens: Register now so you can vote in this "clean-up Pontiac Election"!

April

After hearing the Pontiac City Commission it occurred to me that this city is losing a large revenue by not holding these meetings on a national televised show. If the rest of this country heard these sessions there would be no difficulty in getting a sponsor.

Washington Notebook:

U. S. Soon to Pass 190 Million

By WASHINGTON STAFF

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Census Bureau officials are biting their nails trying to figure out when the population of the United States will hit 190 million.

They have planned a small shindig for the press and photographers sometime on Sept. 27 — their closest estimate at the present — in the Commerce Department's main lobby before the big electronic population indicator.

Every 7½ seconds a light flashes on the machine to show that a baby was born. Every 18½ seconds, another light shows that someone died. And every 11 seconds the total population figure at the top of the board clicks up one figure.

Idea of the celebration is for everyone to witness the big whirl of figures when the machine clicks from 189,999,999 to 190 million.

But the board is just like any other government statistic. It has to be seasonally adjusted. The final figures on summer immigration and emigration have to be released before the Census Bureau can figure the exact hour and minute of the big moment.

Says one official: "We're just praying it won't be at some wretched hour like 3 o'clock in the morning. That might spoil our party."

But this probably will be a tame affair compared to the hootenanny that will be held sometime in January, 1967 when the machine will click from 199,999,999 to 200 million.

Solicitor General Archibald Cox, making a Washington talk, got a little mixed up the other day on how many amendments there are to the U.S. Constitution.

"I'm not sure now," he said, "whether there are 21 or 22."

His host, Jacob Clayman of the AFL-CIO's Industrial Union Department, tried a few moments later to relieve Cox of his embarrassment:

"Let the record NOT show that Mr. Cox did not know whether the Constitution has 21 or 22 amendments."

What Mr. Clayman apparently didn't know either, is that the Constitution has 23 and may soon have a 24th.

George W. Ball, under secretary of state, was speaking to members of the American Foreign Service Assn. After a great deal of praise for the work of the Foreign Service, Ball hit them between the eyes with this:

"A principal source of my personal anguish comes from the documents that you ladies and gentlemen draft and which, after 87 clearances, find their way to my desk.

"I was taught to believe that the simple declarative sentence is one of the noblest achievements of man. But I have found in the State Department little sympathy for that particular article of faith.

"Sometimes I suspect that the elementary concept that a sentence should have a subject and a predicate — and in that order — is regarded in these parts, if not as subversive, then, at least, as outmoded."

Several times this year Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona is reported to have headed off drastic boycotts of New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller by intervening with state and local Republicans who might otherwise have stayed away from the governor's appearances.

Preserving party unity is one objective. Some of the senator's supporters have something more in mind: They don't want Rockefeller to gain the sympathy backing he might if he were subjected to a severe freeze-out or tagged with a tomato.

Says one man:

Christian Business Men Breakfast at Elks Temple

A Good-Will Ambassador team representing Christian Business Men's Committee International will hold a breakfast meeting Monday at 7 a. m. in the Elks Temple, 114 Orchard Lake.

CBMCI is an interdenominational organization representing more than 15,000 business and professional men in 550 local committees and 35 countries. "One of our objectives," declared Paul H. Johnson, Detroit building executive and CBMCI treasurer, "is to show that Christianity does work in business."

The CBMCI Crash Program, of which this week's effort in Michigan is a part, is intended to reach all 50 states and nine provinces in a three-year period of time. Already some 17 states have been covered with this mealtime program that shares personal experiences of business and professional men.

All men in the area are invited for the local meeting, and reservations may be made through William S. Blackstone.

Cities and towns included on the Michigan tour are Pontiac, Port Huron, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City, Midland, Owosso, Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Holland, Dowagiac, Kalamazoo, Coldwater, Albion, and Battle Creek.

Salathiel Plays Recital

New Organ to Be Dedicated

The new Casavant organ in First Presbyterian Church will be dedicated at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Lyndon Salathiel, Mus. B., organist and choirmaster, will present a recital, open to the public, with a reception in the dining room downstairs following the dedication.

"The organ," said Salathiel, "is designed for accompaniment of the congregation in the singing of hymns, for colorful accompaniment of choral works, and as a recital instrument for organ literature.

"It is composed of three manual divisions and pedal. The Swell, Great, and Pedal divisions are located in the L.H. Chancel loft; the positive division in the R.H. Chancel loft.

"All sections, except the Swell, are unenclosed, and its classic design incorporates many tonal features of the great Baroque organs of the 17th and 18th centuries."

He also said the organ contains 41 ranks (sets) of pipes, with a total of 2,270 pipes distributed throughout the four divisions.

Not included in this figure are 21 chime tubes and the 61-note Deagan harp. These are located back of the Swell Box in the L.H. Chancel loft. All are controlled from the three manual console.

The new instrument will be known as the Frank and Anna Boyd Memorial Organ, as a living memorial to these life-long members of the church. Mr. Boyd was a former elder, and music committee chairman.

PRESENTS RECITAL

Salathiel will present "Ich Ruf Zu Dir" by Buxetude, "Jesu, Jesu, Du Bist Mein" by J. S. Bach, "Choral No. 3 in A Minor" by Cesar Franck, and "Rhosymedre" Welsh arranged by Vaughn Williams.

His selections also include "Toccata in D. Minor" by Gordon Balch Nevin, "The Fountain" by Pery Fletcher, "The Model Trumpet" by Percy Fletcher, "The Fifers" by Francois d'-Andrieu and "Carillon de Westminister" by Louis Vierne.

"Moderato" by Franck will be the organ prelude. Salathiel will play "Trumpet Voluntary in D" by Purcell for the postlude.

Rev. Paul D. Cross, assistant pastor, will offer the invocation. Rev. Glen E. Hershey will conduct the service of dedication and pronounce the benediction.

The pastor will preach on "Most Neglected Virtue" at the Sunday morning services. Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Markham, and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Duffield will be coffee hour hosts.

Leslie P. Ellis will accompany the pastors as a commissioner to the meeting of Detroit Presbytery in Royal Oak Tuesday.

First Presbyterian Church installed its first organ in 1905. It was destroyed by fire in 1912.

The year 1924 marks the dedication of the present building and the installation of the recent Estey organ which served the congregation for 39 years.

NEW ORGAN — Lyndon Salathiel, organist and choirmaster of First Presbyterian Church, will be heard in recital at 4 p. m. Sunday when the new Casavant organ is dedicated. Following the service a reception will be held in the dining room downstairs.

Bible College Opens Term Monday

The fall term of Pontiac Bible College, 1245 Collier Road will open with a fellowship meeting at 7 p. m. Monday.

"This Bible School is fundamental in belief and teaching, and Pentecostal in experience. Courses are planned to give the student a solid systematic study of the Bible," said Rev. Frances L. Myers, president of the college.

At the Monday evening opening the scope of the school will be presented and the curriculum explained.

Rev. L. A. Hartman, missionary to the Philippine Islands, will speak and special music will be featured.

Grain Trade to Russ Hit by 2 Farm Units

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The American Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange, the nation's two largest farm organizations, said today they were opposed at present to exports of government-subsidized wheat to the Soviet Union.

Spokesmen for the two groups added, however, that the issue of possible wheat sales to Russia will be reviewed by farm bureau and grange members this fall.

Under present regulations, exports of subsidized crops to Russia is not permitted. And, at present, all wheat exports are subsidized with government payments covering the gap between the American support price and the lower world market price.

Russia's recent purchases of wheat from Canada and Australia have produced speculation about possible sales of American wheat to the Soviet Union.

Some congressmen from wheat states have called for a change in government policy to allow for such sales at the same subsidized export price used on all foreign sales of American wheat.

Administration farm officials said that no wheat sales proposals had been received from the Soviet Union. But there have been rumors of feelers in private trade circles.

POLAND INTERESTED

In a related development, the State Department disclosed yesterday that Poland has expressed interest in entering into a new agreement for purchase of U.S. wheat.

Last year Poland imported approximately 2.5 million tons of grain, about one million tons of it from the United States, and Polish sources have indicated the country's annual grain deficit is still about the same.

Poland and Yugoslavia are exempt from the U.S. wheat export restrictions that apply to other Soviet block nations.

Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, said today the time may come when the United States will be asked to sell wheat to the Russians.

If such a request is made, he said, the decision should be based on what is best for the nation's security.

Shuman said that at present the United States should continue its restrictions on government-financed exports to the Soviet bloc. In other words, there should be no sales of wheat to Russia at world prices as long as this means payment of an American export subsidy.

Shuman added, however, that "the entire issue is a key one to be reviewed by farm bureau members."

SIMILAR TERMS

A spokesman for Herschel Newsom, master of the National Grange, summed up his organization's position in similar terms.

Existing grange policy, adopted by the organization last fall, is opposed to subsidized exports of wheat to Russia. But grange leaders report that the question will be restudied at the national convention in November.

Shuman said that the Canadian and Australian wheat sales might help American producers by strengthening and improving world markets for American wheat.

Other farm bureau officials said this might lead some American farmers to gamble on increasing wheat acreage. The farm bureau has been predicting that in spite of the lack of mandatory controls on the 1964 crop acreage will not increase.

'China Doesn't Need Bombs'

By GEORGE SYVERTSEN

MOSCOW (AP) — The Kremlin claimed today that Red China's opposition to the limited nuclear test-ban treaty is based on its desire to acquire "the atomic bomb at any price."

The Soviet government told the Chinese to concentrate on economic development instead and suggested they be grateful to the Soviet Union for developing nuclear weapons "for the defense needs of the entire Socialist camp."

It said the Soviet Union holds superiority over the United States in weapons tested in the atmosphere, under water and in space. It noted that the nuclear treaty still permits the testing of weapons underground.

The Kremlin gave its view in a statement in response to a Chinese charge Sept. 1 that the Soviet Union had been placed at a disadvantage by the treaty.

FIRST STAGE

The statement was the first of a two-stage reply, the Soviet news agency Tass said. The second installment will be published Sunday, the agency said. The first part was published in Moscow newspapers and distributed by Tass today.

Moscow charged that the Chinese position amounts to "complete apostasy from the common, collectively formulated line of the Communist movement."

The document contended that the Chinese leaders are unable to prove they need nuclear weapons "in the itnerests of China and of the entire Socialist camp."

Because of the worldwide approval of the treaty, the Chinese by their opposition to it "have suffered a serious moral and political defeat," the Kremlin said.

CHAIN REACTION

It said the reason it is not helping China with development of nuclear weapons is that any increase in such weapons in Communist countries "would immediately cause a chain reaction in the imperialist camp, the atomic cancer would spread all over the globe, increasing the nuclear war danger manifold."

Moreover, the statement said, "it is known very well that China does not possess extra funds" to build atomic bombs.

Drought Strikes Crop; U.S.S.R. Imports Up

MOSCOW (UPI) — Drought has severely cut back this year's Soviet grain harvest, forcing Russia to import more wheat than at any time since World War II, Western farm experts said.

Even in the north Caucasus, where the Russians claim record harvests of grain, the crop did not measure up to expectations due to lack of rain in July and August.

Foreign newsmen who visited the Kuban River area of the North Caucasus reported last night that this traditionally rich farm area had a poor corn harvest and good but not outstanding wheat yields.

In the widely separated bread basket areas of the Ukraine and Kazakhstan, thaws added to the drought in cutting into the grain harvests.

Russia, with large grain export commitments, has found itself in the position of having to buy 7 million tons of grain from Canada and Australia to meet its requirements at home and abroad.

BREAD SHORTAGE?

Despite the grain shortage, there were no indications that the nation will experience a bread shortage or face rationing, although measures have been taken to conserve bread supplies and prevent its being used as fodder by feed-short cattlemen.

While the Soviet Union has contracted for seven million tons of foreign wheat, it is committed to export more than five million tons — most of it to Eastern Europe and Cuba.

Although Russia is normally an exporter of grain, it always imports some grain largely due to questions of economics and geography.

It is cheaper to pay the shipping costs of transporting grain across the Pacific to Siberia than to haul wheat by train thousands of miles across Russia.

It could be, they said, that Soviet authorities were attempting to replenish sagging grain reserves.

Pontiac to Host Housing Parley

Mayor Will Speak at Officials' Meeting

Pontiac will be host to nearly 100 public housing, planning, redevelopment and urban renewal officials Tuesday as the Great Lakes Chapter of the National Association of Housing and Redevelopment Officials (NAHRO) meets here.

In charge of making arrangements for the meeting are Stanley J. Kedzior, an urban renewal relocation officer, and R. Clayton Jones, a Pontiac Housing Commission aide.

The program will open the NAHRO's 1963-64 slate of meetings throughout Michigan and Northern Ohio.

Featured speaker will be Mayor Robert A. Landry.

TO BE INSTALLED

Chapter officers elected last spring will be officially installed. Among them are Kedzior, corresponding secretary, and Jones, who will take over as treasurer.

Other officers to be installed are Hildner Broker, Detroit senior urban renewal assistant, president; Thomas Jones, vice president; and Mrs. Denza Burke, recording secretary. Jones and Mrs. Burke are with the Detroit Housing Commission.

Members will get a good look at Pontiac's Lakeside Housing Project. Following a reception at 5 p.m., tours of Lakeside Homes and the city's urban renewal sites are slated.

A dinner-meeting at the Waldron Hotel is planned for 7:45. Following Landry's address, brief speeches will be made by James L. Bates, Pontiac planning and urban renewal director; Charles S. Cohen, city sanitarian; and Roy B. MacAfee, Pontiac housing director.

MacAfee is a national officer of NAHRO.

Iberian Neighbors Part Ways

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

LISBON — Spain and Portugal, the two nations which occupy the Iberian Peninsula, are going in opposite directions in Africa.

NEWSOM

The Spanish regime of Generalissimo Francisco Franco, moving cautiously toward greater participation in world affairs and seeking to soften its image as a dictatorship before the world, is acting to improve its relations with the new nations of Africa.

As such it is talking autonomy for Spanish Guinea.

In contrast is the embattled Portuguese regime of Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar, determined to retain its holdings as the largest remaining European power in Africa.

Salazar has dismissed as of minor consequence either trade or diplomatic boycott of Portugal by independent African nations.

He has declared instead that Portugal will fight to the last to retain its place in Africa.

Spain and Portugal have been bound in the Iberian Pact since 1939, but it pledges them to mutual defense only in the metropolitan areas of the two nations, and not in Africa.

Last May 14 and 15, Salazar and Franco met in a Spanish tourist inn in the town of Merida.

SECRET CONVERSATIONS

In Portugal the subject of their conversations has been kept a close secret.

But in Spain it was widely believed Franco urged upon Salazar African reforms considerably more far-reaching than those in the new work code placing Negroes upon an equal footing with Portuguese workers and in the organic law giving Angolans a greater voice in their own affairs.

In Spain there also is concern lest the sudden loss of Portuguese overseas territories create a crisis and perhaps upheaval at home which would pose a threat on Spain's own borders.

Whatever the subject of the meeting, it seemed scarcely coincidental that a new wave of arrests followed in Portugal, most of them labeled Communist.

DIFFERENT PROBLEMS

In any discussion of the Portuguese and Spanish attitudes toward Africa, the Portuguese are quick to point out that Portuguese problems are different.

And they are. Beyond Spanish Guinea, Spain also holds Ifni, a fishing enclave, the Spanish Sahara and the northern garrison towns of Ceuta and Melilla where 50,000 crack Spanish troops are stationed.

Spanish sources say Spain would fight to hold Ceuta and Melilla but otherwise has little interest.

For Portugal, the African overseas territories not only are a source of national pride. They also provide outlets for Portuguese exports and for Portugal's excess population. Through arrangements with Lisbon, they also are a source of foreign exchange.

And finally there is another worry. Said one Portuguese:

"To have 450,000 settlers thrown back on Portugal would mean chaos."

Campus Fight Leads to Death

ORONO, Maine (UPI) — A University of Maine campus policeman died last night of a heart attack after fighting, chasing and arresting a youth who was reported drinking beer outside a football weekend dance on the campus.

John Sutton, 31, a father of two, died in a police car while being driven to a hospital after he became ill and collapsed.

The student, Walter A. Sullivan, 19, of Waterville, a third classman at Maine Maritime Academy at Castine, was arrested on charges of assault on an officer and illegal possession of intoxicating liquor, police said.

He will be arraigned Monday in Bangor District Court.

The wild boar stands about 3 feet high, and is armed with four tusks and 44 teeth. They are now extinct in England but still flourish in parts of Europe and the Near East.

The musk ox is the most recent addition to man's list of domestic animals. Of the vast herds that once roamed across North America only a few thousand still survive.

Storm Lurking in Atlantic

MIAMI (UPI)—A hurricane hunter plane today was assigned to check out a "very suspicious" low-pressure area in the tropical Atlantic that forecasters say could develop into tropical storm Debra.

Weathermen were also keeping a sharp eye on a large low-pressure system streicking from Yucatan to Cape Hatteras, N. C., but said it showed little signs of developing into a tropical storm.

The disturbance in the tropical Atlantic was last located about 1,200 miles east-northeast of San Juan, Puerto Rico, and moving on a west-northwesterly course at about 15 miles an hour.

UPI Exec Dies at 67

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Requiem High Mass will be sung Monday morning for Fred J. Green, United Press International executive, who died at Ft. Miley Veterans Administration Hospital yesterday at the age of 67.

Green, who had been ill several weeks, had worked on newspapers in California and Hawaii and served as a naval officer during World War II.

At the time of his death he was UPI Pacific Division administrative officer with headquarters in San Francisco.

In the last 17 years the United States spent $97.5 billion on economic and military aid to foreign countries.

His Handkerchief Blamed for Death

The victim, Mrs. Emma Blaine of nearby Levittown, and her employer, James Rooney, 70, had driven to his home in this Long Island community after a shopping trip. Rooney waited in the car while Mrs. Blaine got out to open the garage door.

An instant later, Rooney dropped his handkerchief on the car floor and bent over to pick it up. As he did, police said, his foot slipped off the brake and the car lurched forward, crushing Mrs. Blaine against the garage's rear wall.

Look of Statue Fails to Please Opera Buffs

TORRE DE LAGO, Italy (UPI) —Some fans of the great opera composer Giacomo Puccini decided a bronze statue of him in his native village here did not do him justice. They pushed it over.

In its place they left this note: "Scandal to esthetics, to music and, in particular, to the memory of Juccini . . ."

Police replaced the statue.

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI)—Dawn L. Pearsons, 17, of Grand Rapids was killed last night when her car spun out of control on a curve of the city expressway and smashed into a guard rail.

New Homes Open for Inspection

STORY BY REBA HEINTZELMAN
Pontiac Press Home Editor

As more and more new subdivisions are developed in Oakland County, the trend to "move out" becomes more attractive to home owners because of added extras provided by developers in keen competition.

New model homes feature sunken living rooms, sunken bathtubs, sunken kitchens and playrooms. Dishwashers, garbage disposals and even push-button plumbing are now playing a big part in wooing prospective buyers.

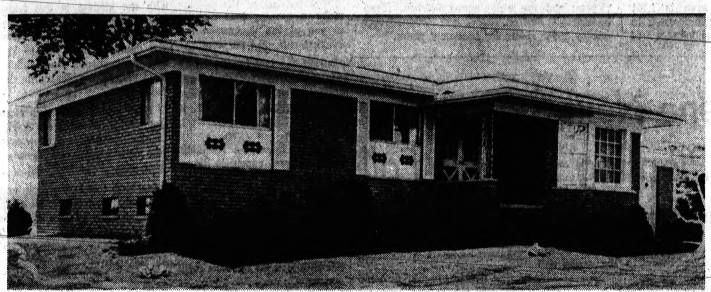
People like to see their future house already up, on larger lots and completely landscaped. The "on-your-lot" builder is finding that a house sells better if it is ready to move into, and they are building personalized houses for various individuals.

For instance, the Howard Keating company has five furnished models on Lahser and Quarton roads open for inspection. Each one symbolizes five different types of decor. Modern, Early American, Provincial, Italian and a mixture of maybe two periods have been designed and furnished accordingly.

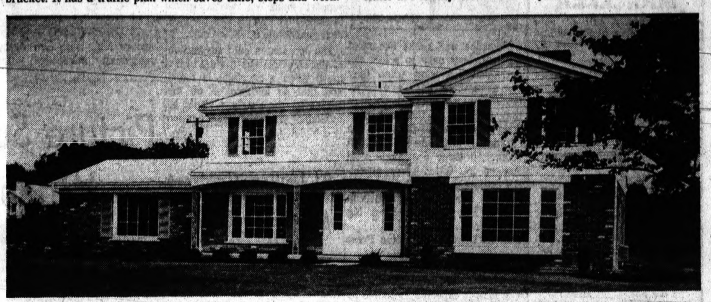
Many of the model homes on this page are completely furnished, and the lovely new colors of carpeting, draperies and furniture is well worth the effort of viewing, even though an individual is not ready to buy a new home.

CUSTOM BUILT LUXURY—Southern Colonial architecture is featured in this big $65,900 home built by the Galle Construction Co. Located at 3326 Quarton in Bloomfield Hills, it features three bedrooms upstairs and a master suite with a full bathroom and fireplace on the first floor. There are two stainless steel ovens in the kitchen along with all the other necessary cooking and working units. The living room is 31 feet in length and 18 feet wide. The front of the house is comprised of the living and dining rooms while the entire back has a mammoth family room with a raised hearth fireplace.

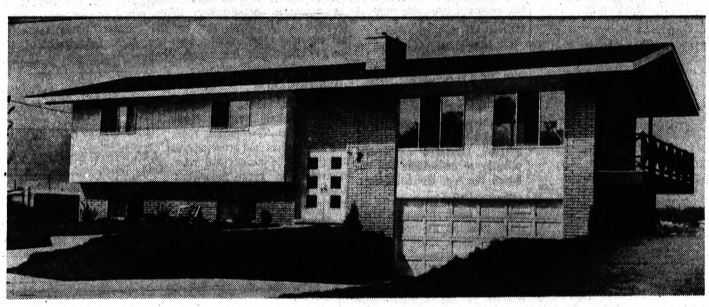
THE VICKSBURG — Among five newly furnished homes for sale by the Howard Keating company at Quarton and Lahser roads is this exciting four bedroom Colonial in the $25,900 bracket. It has a traffic plan which saves time, steps and work. It features a majestic foyer with a dramatic circular staircase. All necessary built-ins are provided with a formal living and dining area. This and the other four models can be duplicated either in Peabody Orchards or on your lot.



IN WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—This $25,500 furnished model home is located at 2902 Shawnee, on School House Lake and features a sunken living room. There is a large fireplace in the family room, and it has three bedrooms, two baths and a fully tiled floor in the basement. This ranch house has plate glass window-walls on the lakeside. All floors are clear oak. This model can be duplicated by the O'Neil Realty Company, of Beauty-Rite Homes, Inc.



WOODLAKE HILLS MODEL — For those seeking a large comfortable home, J. W. Jaikens & Sons present this model in the $51,000 bracket. It is located on three-quarters acre of ground at 1234 Lake Crescent, Bloomfield Township. The new Colonial features four bedrooms, two and one-half baths, plastered garage, full basement, paneled family room and the necessary kitchen built-ins. Gas heat pumps hot water through the aluminum baseboards. There is a separate dining room and the house boasts 2,990 square feet of living space. The yard is completely landscaped, and viewers may visit the model daily.

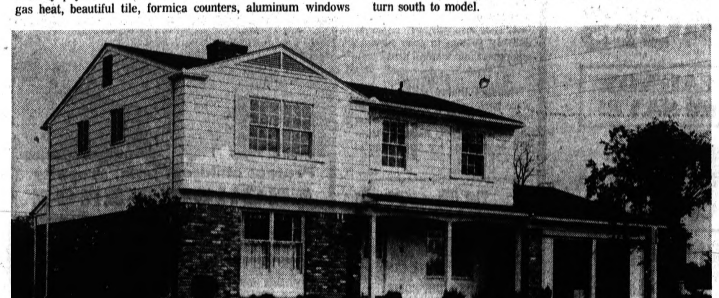


HOUSE PLUS LANDSCAPING—The Silver Lake Construction Company has this new $35,000 model open at 2908 Shawnee Lane, Jayno Heights subdivision. There is 2,500 square feet of finished living area situated on a sodded lot facing School House Lake. There are marble sink tops and brass fixtures in the master bathroom of the three-bedroomed house, and ornamental brass fixtures are featured throughout the house. A deluxe den with built-in formica tops and cabinets, a paneled family room with parquet floors and acoustical ceilings are a few of the many features in this model.

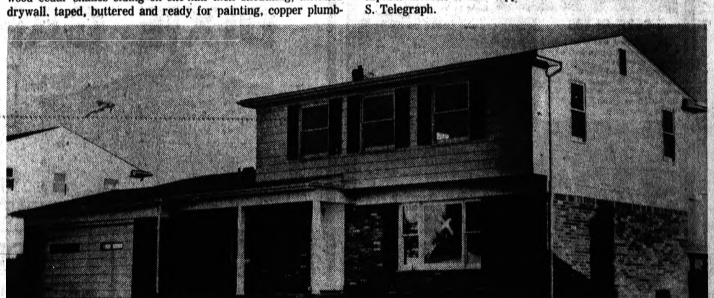
MUCH FOR LITTLE — This little ranch house would be a cinch for a handyman to construct on his own lot for a mere $9,360 pre-cut. Its 1,484 square feet of living area has a two-car garage, three bedrooms, two baths, large foyer, sliding glass doors to a backyard patio and solid oak flooring. Double sinks, cast iron and copper plumbing fixtures, an Armstrong or American Standard furnace, louvred bi-fold closet doors and beautiful lighting fixtures are all included with no money down and monthly payments of $54.91. It is featured by Caddie Homes, Inc., and models can be seen in Clarkston at 9700 Dixie.

THE "FOREVER HOUSE" — This house and lot are available for only $11,295, with a down payment of $95 and $81 monthly payments thereafter. It has natural wood cabinets, gas heat, beautiful tile, formica counters, aluminum windows and copper plumbing. If you do your own painting and cleaning up, Dlorah builders will pay for the closing costs. To see this house, take Oakland to Baldwin, go east to Maybee and turn south to model.

COMPACT BEAUTY — Anyone can have this little three-room beauty for only $5,990 on his lot. It is not a pre-cut home. Here's what the E-Con-O Built Homes company includes: Concrete slab exterior and interior erection, natural wood cedar shakes siding on one-half inch sheathing, installed drywall, taped, buttered and ready for painting, copper plumbing with bathroom fixtures installed, electric service and fixtures installed, birch cabinets, mahogany doors and bi-fold closet doors installed, gas heating system installed, all finish trim installed, ceiling insulation, installed hot water heater and asphalt tile and mastic supplied. A model can be seen at 2580 S. Telegraph.



"TARRY TOWN" — That's the name of this lovely model home that's loaded with extras. Located in a new $4.5 million development known as Adams Square at Squirrel and Square Lake roads, the Tarry Town is one of four furnished models open for public inspection. The $28,900, four-bedroomed house and lot features a sunken family room and sunken living room. There is a disposal, dishwasher and push-button plumbing, as well as the built-in oven and cooking unit.



WATKINS HILLS HOME — A formal dining room and a large roomy breakfast eating area are only a few attractions in this $25,950 four-bedroom home. It is located on Lorena Drive at Watkins Hills and is presented by Ross Homes, Inc. There is a full basement, and first floor utility room. The big family room has a Colonial fireplace and the kitchen has all Whirlpool built-ins. The house and two car garage is located on an 87 by 130 foot lot and is open from 2 to 5 p. m. daily.

Magazine wall racks are most efficient. It is easy to select the periodical you want when they are somewhere near eye level. One of the three racks shown here may be hung on the back of a door entirely out of the way. The smallest is just right for the bath room. Corn Shortage to Be Probed

128,000 Bushels Gone From State Elevator

CHICAGO (UPI) — The Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) said today an investigation will be made into a shortage of 128,000 bushels of corn missing from a grain elevator at Decatur, Mich.

A CCC spokesman said the elevator, owned by Edwin Koops, has been suspended and that all grain will be loaded out.

The spokesman denied a report that 1,000 bushels of the stored grain belonged to individual farmers. "All of the corn involved is CCC corn," he said.

The spokesman placed the shortage at approximately 128,000 bushels and said its value was "about $165,000." He said there would be no loss to the CCC "since the shortage is fully covered by the blanket insurance policy which went into effect July 1, 1963."

There was no shortage of wheat, also stored in the Koops elevator, the spokesman said. However, he said the wheat would be loaded out and price support loans on wheat given to some farmers and payable next year would be called now.

The spokesman said suspension of the elevator was a routine move when a shortage is found and that no information on the reason for the shortage would be available until the investigation is completed.

$1-Million Contract Awarded to U. of M.

ANN ARBOR (AP) — The U. S. Public Health Service has awarded a four-year $1-million contract to the University of Michigan for research on Lake Michigan.

The service's water supply and pollution control division said the grant was the largest ever given to a single research organization. The study will deal future management of the lake and preservation of its water quality.

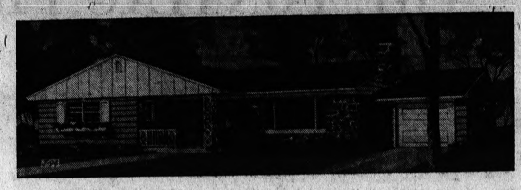
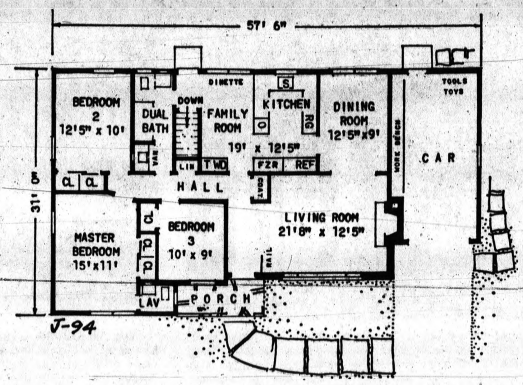
Michigan scientists will use research ships based at Charlevoix and Grand Haven.

A study of French families has shown that those living in homes with less than 72 to 92 square feet per person had double the number of social and physical disorders as those living in areas of 90 to 126 square feet per person.



COUNTRY GENTLEMAN — This handsome three-bedroom ranch is of the type for which eligible applicants can obtain a mortgage loan directly from the federal government at 4 per cent interest. The exterior features wood shingles and stone facing, a covered porch, and attractive small-paned living room windows.



FLOOR PLAN — Living area is 1,251 square feet. Note how every inch is used to maximum advantage; the abundance of closets; and the well-planned kitchen. If no basement is desired, heater and furnace would occupy space shown for basement stairs.

Design of New Home Fits Lower Incomes

By JULES LOH

There's another FHA in Washington, the Farmers Home Administration, whose aim is to help families have a home like today's House of the Week—persons who otherwise might never have the satisfaction of owning their own homes.

Unlike the better known FHA (Federal Housing Administration) which guarantees a private lender that you will pay off your mortage, the Farmers Home Administration also can make a housing loan directly to you at the uncommon low interest rate of 4 per cent.

J94 Statistics

A one story house containing living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, three bedrooms, 1½ baths, optional basement, attached garage. Living area is 1,251 square feet in over-all dimensions of 57 feet 6 inches wide by 31 feet deep.

Designed to conform to requirements of Farmers Home Administration for direct 4 per cent loan to either farm or rural nonfarm occupants.

During the last fiscal year the little known agency placed $796 million in loans, both those it made directly and those it insured.

Today's house, a delightful three-bedroom ranch is typical of the type for which Farmers Home makes direct loans to eligible buyers. It is design J94 in the weekly series.

The agency makes both farm and non-farm loans: the recipient simply must live in a rural community of 2,500 person or less. He also must be someone who can't obtain credit from conventional sources at prevailing rates in the community.

According to Howard Bertsch, the agency's administrator, its purpose is "to supplement and not supplant other credit." Last year about half the agency's loans went to non-farmers.

QUESTIONABLE

Though private lenders presumably conclude Farmers Home borrowers are questionable risks, the agency has had great success trusting in the honesty and industriousness of rural Americans. Last year it foreclosed only six mortages of 18,285 issued.

Loans average about $15,000 and the agency endeavors to limit them to homes of not more than 1,400 square feet.

Today's house contains only 1,251 square feet. The space is so expertly arranged that every inch is used to its fullest.

The house plainly would grace any neighborhood, rural or urban, and also would enhance a farm. Wood shingles and stone facing are used in the front. The covered porch and small-paned living room windows are nice accents.

The architect made use of standard lumber lengths and took other economy measures to save enough cost so he could include such other fine features as a living room fireplace, an abundance of large closets, and a well designed dual bath accessible both from the family room and the bedroom area.

Though the house doesn't have a seperate foyer—space is just too precious for that sort of thing — the front door is located so that visitors don't barge right into the living room. A neat railing gives the effect of a foyer, and what would be foyer space is used to extend the area of the already large living room.

NICE KITCHEN

Any housewife would be pleased with the kitchen in this house. The work area is designed to save steps, provide plenty of counter and cabinet space, and to keep curious husbands and children from underfoot while mama does the cooking.

Note also that there is room for both a freezer and a refrigerator, and that a window over the sink permits excellent supervision of the backyard.

In short, this is a superb home either for a small city lot or the wide open spaces of a farm, and it's available both to those who can borrow from a lending agency and—through the Farmers Home Administration — perhaps also those who can't.

A three-member local county committee of the Farmers Home agency determines eligibility of applicants. If you can't locate the office in your area, write to the Farmers Home Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

Picture Scene Next Spring When Planting Bulbs in Fall

This fall when you plant bulbs in your garden, consider them as a part of a small scene and you'll have a much prettier garden when spring rolls around.

Bulb flowers alone are beautiful, but when pansies or some other of the flowers that bloom at the same time are added, they complete the scene and also add contrast in form and, usually, in color.

Consider the little scene above. The vase in the background is a medium blue, the glaze not too shiny.

The double narcissi or daffodils are the softest primrose yellow you can imagine.

ADD HUES

By adding white pansies or deep yellow or purple pansies, a third hue and a stronger contrast are added to the blue and primrose scheme.

Furthermore the addition of pansies which grow lower than narcissi furnishes an underplanting to accentuate and enhance the big, double blooms.

Flowers other than pansies might be used. Blooming at the same time as the narcissi are English daisies, which have white or rose-pink flowers; primroses, flowering in reds, oranges, yellows and white; or violas, little cousins of the pansies, which bloom in all the usual pansy colors.

Pansies, violas and English daisies may be grown from seeds sown in mid-to late August in a bed of finely prepared soil in a shady corner of your garden.

Primrose seed usually is sown in a cold frame in May or June for flowers the spring of the following year.

Seeds are available for all of these from your favorite cataloger.

EASY TO BUILD—The clock shown is made of materials readily available at local dealers. It's a project anyone can undertake with success when he uses the easy-to-follow pattern. The pattern lists the needed materials along with easy to understand illustrations and directions. To obtain the grandmother's clock pattern number 320, send $1 by currency, check or money order to: Steve Ellingson, Pontiac Press Pattern Dept., P. O. Box 2383, Van Nuys, Calif.

Booklet Gives Project Tips

Sixty-six ideas on home improvements and other home handyman projects are offered along with profesional tips on working with hardboard panels in a new 16-page booklet, "Hints to the Handyman."

Projects for which plans are offered range from fences to vacation cabins and toy chests to train tables.

The booklet can be obtained free by writing to the Home Service Bureau, 29 N. Wacker Dr., Chicago 6, Illinois.

Planes Aid Astronauts Wherever They May Be

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Fifteen rescue versions of the huge C130 Hercules transport plane will be equipped by the Air Force to "recover astronauts from any spot on earth."

The Defense Department said yesterday that the planes will cruise at 350 miles per hour with a range of 5,750 miles at 35,000 feet. They also will have an aerial delivery system to drop survival equipment into a small area.

The fact that 4 million babies were born in the United States in 1962 is a pretty good indication that the current building boom will be with us for some time to come.

It Is the 'Real McCoy' for Actress Kathy Nolan

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Kathy Nolan and husband Richard Heckenkamp have named their son Spencer. The 7-pound, 5-ounce boy was born Thursday.

Miss Nolan is a former star of "The Real McCoys" television show.

Now Is the Time to Think of Buying Summer Home

The end of summer vacation is a good time to think about buying that summer or vacation home you have been wanting.

Your vacation experiences are still fresh in your mind as a dependable guide to what you and your family would enjoy most in years to come.

Whether you are buying or building, carefree summer living depends on the same sound construction features you would want in a year-round dwelling.

Since your vacation home will probably be standing vacant during many months of the years ahead, "minimum upkeep requirements are of first importance.

Among features that will reduce maintenance and repair costs, aluminum siding can eliminate the need for periodic painting and repair and provide sidewall insulation.

Aluminum siding can be used economically as a new building material or it can be applied over any type of old siding.

Among the many interesting colors available are green and redwood shades, which accent the rustic look. Vertical siding on the gables will create a board and batten effect, or it can be used over all to give a low house a feeling of height.

Further information on aluminum siding is available in a free booklet entitled "26 Straight Answers on Aluminum Siding." For a copy, write to Bridgeport Brass Co., Bridgeport 2, Conn.

Patio Ignores Cool Weather

You don't have to give up the outdoors and resign yourself to indoor living just because the weather is a little cool.

You can add weeks, perhaps months, in the fall and spring to your family's annual "outdoor life" by taking a few simple steps to modernize your patio, according to Leon Miller, patio specialist.

First, Miller suggests you consider the permanent installation of a custom aluminum cover and a set of recently developed sun 'n wind shades.

Together the cover and the shades will shelter the family's outdoor recreation center from wind and rain and ward off the chilly dampness that descends with the sun.

There is no more delightful time to enjoy the outdoors than during September and October — and even well into November in many parts of the country, Miller points out.

The warmth of a barbecue grill, which in summer can be oppressive, will alone cast a ruddy glow and some warmth over afternoon and early evening cookouts.

The pungent burning of wood or charcoal can be supplemented by a pair of small radiant heaters, and your covered patio will be comfortable with temperatures in the low 50s.

Window Shades Keep Baby Sleeping, Quiet

LOCAL MODEL—This is the kitchen in one of the furnished models of the new Adams Square development on Squirrel Lake and Square Lake road. It features push-button plumbing, attractive built-ins, garbage dispoal and dishwasher — all for $28,900 including the lot.

Arrangement Important

Picture Hanging an Art

All the emphasis on art in the home had made picture hanging an art in itself, points out an expert in the business, Ray Austrian.

They must be artistically arranged so that the collection of mass flatters the space, and in itself becomes an artistic pattern.

"Most people do not understand art, much less the arrangement of it, unless they've studied art," he explains. "Everyone seems to be looking for advice in this art renaissance."

Pictures provide built-in charm for walls, he says, not by size of pictures but by the shape and number of them.

The big painting over a couch or in back of the piano is passe. Ditto pictures arranged in step designs.

The art on walls in any room should look as if it has been collected, and you can frame anything from old family portraits to Civil War documents to achieve that look.

Valachi Quiz Is Reset

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Senate committee hearing on crime, featuring gangland stool pigeon Joseph Valachi, will open next Wednesday at 9:30 a.m. EST instead of Tuesday morning as originally scheduled.

The change was made to avoid conflict with Tuesday's scheduled Senate vote on the nuclear test-ban treaty.

A Simple Frame Home Will Provide Savings

If you must keep an eagle eye on your building budget, try this money-saving move — adopt for your new home simple frame construction in the shape of a rectangle.

If neighboring structures are the same shape and construction, variety can be obtained by landscaping with various shrubs and plants, adding a quarry tiled terrace and attaching a breezeway and carport.

JFK Junket a Patching Tour

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON—President Kennedy, who takes off next Tuesday on a "non-political" swing through ten Western States, has also figured out a way to do some "non-political" fence-mending in the Deep South.

RUTH MONTGOMERY

Although Sen. John McClellan and Rep. Wilbur Mills had originally been scheduled to dedicate the Greer's Ferry Dam at Heber Springs, Ark. Oct. 3, the President decided to do the honors himself.

An informed source said the White House asked Arkansas officials to invite JFK to make the dedicatory address, and that although Governor Orval Faubus was "something less than thrilled at the idea, he saw no way to refuse."

Dr. J. C. Barnett, president of the Heber Springs Chamber of Commerce, is in charge of the festivities and will share the platform with Kennedy and Faubus.

McClellan and Mills have been invited to attend as official guests, but as yet have not been invited to fly down with JFK in the presidential plane.

Clarence Thornborough, executive secretary to Gov. Faubus, said he understands President Kennedy also plans to "make a little talk" at the Arkansas State Livestock Show in Little Rock that same afternoon, and visit one of the sixteen missile sites which ring the city.

CHANGE DATE

"The dedication of the dam was originally scheduled for Sept. 25," he said, "but I guess the President's Western tour got in the way. Anyway, he asked them to change the date down here to Oct. 3."

White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger confirmed that JFK had asked his Arkansas "hosts" to switch dates, but said he knows of no Dixie engagements other than the dam dedication.

President Kennedy has made no secret of the fact that he is fearful of "losing the South" in his '64 re-election bid.

This will be his first visit to the heart of Dixie since the ugly race rioting in Birmingham and other Southern communities over the integration of schools this fall.

LAYS GROUND WORK

Although JFK will ostensibly be inspecting conservation projects during his ten-state Western tour, it is also an accepted fact that he will be laying the groundwork for next year's campaign.

Running against Richard M. Nixon in 1960, Kennedy lost all the Western states except Nevada and New Mexico.

There is nothing new about presidents making patently political tours and labeling them "nonpolitical."

By so doing, they can charge off the cost to the taxpayers, instead of to the national committee of their own party.

In 1944, President Roosevelt announced that because of the war he would not actively campaign for fourth term re-election, but he nonetheless took a leisurely "nonpolitical inspection trip" cross-country by train to the West Coast.

OTHERS, TOO

Presidents Truman and Eisenhower also made use of the strategy to seek voter-exposure in off election years.

Political prognosticators will be watching with keen interest to see the kind of reception JFK receives in Arkansas.

There is no love lost between Kennedy and Faubus, for although JFK carried the state against Nixon in '60, Gov. Faubus cut into his victory by nearly 29,000 votes as the candidate of the National States Rights party.

Nixon made a surprisingly strong showing in Arkansas, despite the fact that white segregationists were still smarting over President Eisenhower's use of federal troops to enforce school integration in Little Rock three years before.

Since then, Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy has personally taken charge of the integration drive in the South, and feelings there are running so high that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson has said:

"If the election were held tomorrow, Barry Goldwater could carry every state in the South for the Republicans, including my own state of Texas."

President Kennedy, by inviting himself to Arkansas, now gives the impression that he has "just begun to fight" back.

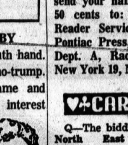
By OSWALD JACOBY

Take a look at the South hand. Your partner opens one no-trump. You want to be in game and have considerable slam interest provided that your partner has good spades for you, at least two aces and better than a minimum no-trump.



JACOBY

You also note that there is no reason to use a transfer bid because no lead can hurt you as declarer. What do you do in the Jacoby system?

You respond three spades. This tells your partner all these things and asks him to bid three no-trump with poor spades; four spades with good spades and a minimum 15-point no-trump or four of some other suit with good spades and a maximum 17-point no-trump.

Hence, North's four diamond rebid does not indicate that he wants to play diamonds, but confirms a near maximum no-trump with good spades.

This leaves South no problems at all. He uses Blackwood to check for aces and bids six spades after North shows two of those nice cards.

When South bids six spades he is not certain that the slam will be a laydown, but South knows definitely that at worst the slam will depend on a finesse and there is no reason to refuse to bid a slam under those circumstances.

Naknek Lake in southern Alaska is noted for rocks that float and wood that sinks. The rocks littering its shore are pumice and lighter than water. The wood is petrified and often beautifully marked.

Cuba Frees Plane Riders, Holds Pilot for 'Plotting'

HAVANA (AP)—The Cuban government has freed four passengers held since their private plane was forced down on the southern coast by antiaircraft fire last week, Havana newspapers said today.

But the pilot, the 36-year-old son of a former Costa Rican president, was charged with plotting against the Fidel Castro regime and held.

Havana radio, which broadcast the government announcement, said that the pilot, Teodoro Picado Jr., was flying on a mission related to "counterrevolutionary activity" when his plane was forced off course and down at Cienfuegos Sept. 11.

The four passengers—including his American-born wife, Susan—were apparently innocent of the pilot's intentions, according to the broadcast, which was monitored in Miami.

BITTER FOE

The twin-engine plane — which belonged to Gen. Anastasio Somoza, head of the Nicaraguan armed forces and bitter foe of Castro — was confiscated, the radio said.

The charges against Picado were not specific. They said the airplane trip, which was on its way to Miami, was connected with carrying arms for a new invasion of Cuba from Central America.

Besides Picado's wife, the Cuban government said it was releasing Mrs. Emilia Bonilla Valle, Vernor Hine, 22, a concert pianist; and Jacinto Herrero Cordova, 32, a Costa Rican guitarist.

The Castro government has been harassed recently by sneak air attacks. Its radio has charged they take off from bases in Central America.

NEW BASES

Various Cuban exile groups in Miami have announced recently they were leaving to set up new bases for action against Castro in Central America and the Caribbean.

Havana radio said the plane was confiscated as indemnification for the Bay of Pigs invasion, which was launched from Nicaragua.

Police 'Bums' Halt Dope Ring

Live Among Addicts to Get Information

DETROIT (UPI) — The story of how two Detroit policemen posed as bums, in the best cloak and dagger tradition, to help break up a narcotics ring was revealed yesterday.

Detective Marcel Cox and patrolman Maurice Hissong were the two officers who became "bums" for 28 days.

They lived and acted like bums among narcotics addicts and peddlers in Detroit, accumulating information that culminated in 30 raids on apartments and flats around the city.

Taken into custody were some 40 persons, along with huge amounts of heroin and marijuana, guns, stolen goods and more than $4,000 in cash.

Police Commissioner George Edwards praised Hissong and Cox for their work which he termed was "painstaking and diligent."

STOOL PIGEON

The undercover work began Aug. 22 after a police informant said he could "put the make" on the biggest pushers in town. Cox and Hissong drew the assignments of working with the informant.

After watching the informant buying dope for more than four weeks, the two 14-year veterans of the police force relayed the information back to Detective Inspector Joseph Brown, officer in charge of the Narcotics Bureau. Brown called for the raids to begin.

Yesterday, the masquerade over, Hissong and Cox helped to take those arrested through Recorder's Court where bonds ranging from $2,500 to $5,000 were set.

3 Youths Stabbed in Post Game Fight

DETROIT (UPI) — Three youths suffered stab wounds and a man was beaten in disorders following two high school football games last night.

Twenty policemen, including two mounted officers, were required to restore order after a game at Mack Field between Eastern and Southeastern high schools. A series of fights broke out after the game.

There also was disorder after a game between Central and Northern high schools.

Police Arrest 8 in Jackson

Roundup Continues After Racial Dispute

Eight white youths were picked up for investigation of disorderly conduct. Police said the boys, aged 16 to 18, ran from a street corner when officers tried to disperse them.

The students had congregated about a mile from Parkside. Two of the students, police said, were involved in a fight with five Negroes in a school corridor Wednesday morning.

School officials have said that the fight apparently helped trigger the disorder later that day.

Sheriff's deputies picked up three other Parkside students — all whites — because they were carrying a horsewhip near the school Friday. The youths, released to their parents, said they had the whip because they were "afraid of Negroes."

Police said a total of 37 youths — 27 of them white — have been picked up for questioning or booked for disorderly conduct since Wednesday.

Dope Stolen From Store

An undetermined amount of narcotics and about $400 in cash were among the items stolen during a break-in at the Walled Lake Pharmacy yesterday, according to police.

They said a camera and money order blanks were also taken but the latter were worthless without the machine which registers them.

Narcotics stolen were opium derivatives, according to store owner Robert Jones.

The drugs were removed from two drawers which were pried open after entry had been gained by forcing the lock on the rear door, Walled Lake police said.

The break-in at the pharmacy, 238 E. Lake Drive, reportedly occurred between 3:15 and 9:15 a.m.

Chief James A. Decker said today that the increase in breaking and burglary attempts in the area warrant more concentrated surveillance. An unmarked automobile will now be used periodically with the police car on night patrol, he promised.

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) — It's "K O Polio Day" in Kent County, and Health Director W. B. Protho hoped that all 371,000 residents would turn out for oral vaccine immunization.

The oral vaccine was flown in from federal stockpiles in Georgia this week after the Grand Rapids area was declared eligible for emergency treatment.

Before this summer the county had found only one paralytic polio case in the last two years.

Longer Terms Sought

LANSING (UPI) — An interim legislative committee on constitutional implementation has decided to recommend that elected county officials be kept in office an extra two years and that the terms of elected township officials be increased from two years to four.

Both decisions came yesterday as the 18-man committee neared the end of discussion on new election procedures needed to put the new constitution into effect.

The proposals will be submitted to the legislature when the special fall session turns its attention to the vast job of implementing the new document.

The new constitution provided that township officials could be elected for not less than two nor more than four years.

As proposed by the committee, they will run on the November ballot in presidential years, while county officials, also serving four-year terms, would run in off-year November elections.

Because the new constitution abolishes the spring election, all candidates for public office will have to run in general fall elections.

UNTIL TRANSFER

The committee proposal would provide that township officials last elected in April 1963, will serve until April 1965, when the offices would transfer to those elected in November 1964.

The latter persons then would serve until Nov. 30, 1968 — a term of three years and eight months. Those elected in November 1968, would be the first to serve full four-year terms.

Justice posts eventually will be wiped out by the new constitution, however.

If the legislature approves the recommendation on county officials, those leected last year for two-year terms would serve until 1966.

This would include prosecutors, sheriffs, treasurers, clerks registers of deeds, drain commissioners, surveyors and, in some cases, coroners, auditors, circuit court commissioners and road commissioners.

The committee earlier approved a recommendation that incumbent Circuit Court judges' terms be extended one year, so they can be elected on the November 1966 ballot.

The judges were last elected for six-year terms in 1959 and will serve until 1967 if the recommendation is adopted by lawmakers this fall.

In multijudge districts, the first candidates for Circuit Court posts would run for staggered six, eight, and 10-year terms.

The interim committee also has approved recommendations that bipartisan county canvassing boards canvass all elections, including nonpartisan local races and prohibit "write-in" votes for all except precinct delegate in primary elections.

Leimena said it was also decided to stop using Malayan dollars in the Rau Archipelago, Indonesian islands just off Singapore.

Freak Accident Pushes Traffic Deaths to Four

By United Press International

A woman car passenger was killed and a man was injured while sleeping in his home in a freak accident in Detroit last night as state police counted four dead on Michigan highways in early weekend traffic.

Detroit police tentatively identified the dead woman as Bobbie Williams of Detroit, who was a passenger in a car driven by Emanuel Waldon, 32, also of Detroit.

Waldon's car failed to make a curve at the intersection of Forest and St. Antoine and crashed into a brick apartment building at 4716 St. Antoine. The front of the auto smashed partially into a bedroom, knocking John Glanton, 55, from his bed.

Waldon, another passenger in his car, 38-year-old Richard Bonner, also of Detroit, and Glanton were all injured seriously.

In another Detroit accident late last night, Edwin Kwiechinski, Detroit, was killed in a two-car head-on at the intersection of Hancock and Grandy.

Police said the driver of the other car, Gloria Brown, 20, Detroit, was taken to receiving hospital with serious injuries. Miss Brown, police said, was speeding and ran a stop sign at the junction when the accident occurred.

Dennis Hollin, 25, South Lyon, was killed last night when his car went out of control on Pontiac Trail, near Ann Arbor, and struck two trees.

Ronald Chris Gangler, 24, rural Unionville, died in a high speed crash of his car early today on M25 near Unionville in Tuscola County.

County Sheriff's officers said Gangler, traveling alone, lost control of his car and skidded more than 700 feet into a tree. The impact snapped Gangler's seat belt and he was thrown from the car. Authorities said wreckage was scattered for 100 yards.

Reflections

J. L. VOORHEES
COMPATIBILITY
One of the most essential lessons ever taught our youth is compatibility, the ability to get along with people. Youth Organizations teach compatibility as a social science in sports, group meetings, in camps and community projects. A sand lot baseball team would be a bowling mob of enemies, without simple rules of compatibility as guides.
The most heavenly institutions ever conceived is a marriage, or it can be a horrible battlefield; compatibility is the key. Neighbors can be battle-scarred or human beings who exercise harmonious relations; compatibility brings rich rewards of mutual respect. We've read the history of ancient Empires — Egypt, Mesopotamia, Ur, Asia, Roman and found perfect examples of INcompatibility. In each instance corrosive appetites for boundless power was evident; it is a revolting part of the musty pages of history. Witchcraft! Thousands of people were tortured and put to death in the name of this demonological cult; compatibility stopped it.
I've never heard of a minister advocating belligerency to resolve anything — it can't; compatibility will. Compatibility is acquired; when we learn to Get Along With People we learn the first lesson to immortality.

Captains Hold Lead Twice Before 3,000

M. Samuilow Scores 2 Touchdowns for PNH; Second Victory

By DON VOGEL

"It's a very good sign when a team can come from behind twice to win a game."

Pontiac Northern football coach Bob Dingman made this observation after the Huskies had rallied twice last night to defeat stubborn Kettering 21-13 before a standing room only crowd of 3,000 at Waterford Township High's field.

PNH had to struggle much harder against the Captains than it did in the opening game win over Troy last week.

Kettering gained 7-0 and 13-7 advantages before the Huskies finally took command late in the third period.

Northern halfback Mike Samuilow outraced the Kettering safety man to gather in a 43-yard pass from quarterback Jim Kimmel for the touchdown that put PNH back in the game.

Kettering had scored earlier in the second quarter after guard Chuck Haviland, who played an outstanding defensive game, pounced on a fumbled punt by PNH's Don Weyer.

Key passes from quarterback Mel Patterson to wingback Earl Hook and a 15-yard penalty against Northern helped in the 47-yard drive. Patterson switched to tailback for two single wing plays and finally plowed over right tackle on two tried from eight yards out. Hook kicked the point.

SECOND FUMBLE

Weyer bobbled another punt in the opening minutes of the third quarter and Chuck Haviland was there ot recover the ball on the PNH 39.

A 17-yard aerial from Patterson to end Steve McCallum helped Kettering reach the seven. Jim Haviland slammed to the one. Three plays later, Patterson finally managed to get the necessary 36 inches. Hook's kick was wide.

Northern took the kickoff and marched 75 yards in eight plays to take the lead. Fullback Steve Daniels blasted 38 yards up the middle to the Kettering three and then carried over on the next play. Dean Souden kicked the second of his three conversions and PNH led, 14-13.

Jim DeFlorio intercepted a Patterson pass on the second play of the fourth quarter and Northern marched 29 yards in eight plays for the clincher.

Weyer, who sparkled on offense and as middle linebacker, started the charge with a 23-yard jaunt. Mike Samuilow finished it by sweeping end from the five.

Chiefs Take Grid Lesson From Arthur Hill, 34-0

By JERRE CRAIG

The team that makes the crucial third down plays consistently will usually be a winner and that is what host Arthur Hill did in pounding the Chiefs, 34-0.

Halfback Dan Jones scored three times for the home team, but he was only one of several hard-running backs who almost always got the yardage they needed for the first down on the big third down plays.

Jones plunged one yard after 17 minutes of playing time had elapsed for the first score, and he drove ahead six yards to tally with 3:08 left in the first half as the Lumberjacks took a 14-0 halftime advantage.

Four plays after Terry Hackett plunged two yards to make it 20-0 in the third period, Jones grabbed loose ball from a PCH runner and rambled 29 yards to paydirt.

Hi Becker, son of the winners' coach, kicked the extra points after the first four touchdowns — although the failure to convert one boot last week cost Arthur Hill a 7-6 defeat to crosstown rival Saginaw.

LATE SCORE

With 44 seconds showing on the fourth period clock, third-string quarterback Bob Andrezejewski tossed a 27-yard pass to halfback John Propp to conclude the scoring.

Central had one good drive. The second time it had the football, PCH moved from its own 18-yard line to the 17 of the home team. But two runs and two incomplete passes netted only two yards and much frustration for the losers — scoreless in two starts now.

The first time Arthur Hill had the ball, it gained one first down but had to punt on the next series of downs. That was the last time all night.

From then on the first downs came steadily, until 20 were amassed. The winners drove 86 yards the next time, making two crucial first downs on third down situations, en route to the first score.

A pass interception set up the next score, a 50-yard drive in five plays. Penalties stalled a third push as time ran out in the opening half.

The third-down play was important in a drive that consumed the first 12 minutes of the third quarter. The drive went 73 years with three big gains on third down included before Hackett went over.

Another 86-yard drive finished the Lumberjacks' scoring. Three times they made their first down with the necessary yardage on third down. Not once, though, did they go into paydirt on third down.

One bright note in the defeat was the first appearance of sophomore Jerry Murphy at quarterback. After Bob Wiggins was hurt on defense, Murphy ran the team the final 26 minutes of playing time.

He showed enough to warrant frequent use in upcoming games, as did, also, runner Jim Mitchell and linemen Leroy Jackson and Tom Jenkins.

The win was the first in the Saginaw Valley Conference for the Lumberjacks. Saginaw beat Midland, 27-12, and Bay City Central topped Flint Southwestern, 21-0, to stay atop the standings with two wins, while Flint Central bombed Bay City Handy, 44-9, to win its opening game in the loop.

Groves Downs Cranes, 27-2

Birmingham Groves capitalized on opening-game jitters by Cranbrook's Cranes and rolled to an easy 27-2 win yesterday at Cranbrook.

The Cranes lost two fumbles and the Falcons converted both into touchdowns.

The Falcons moved into the end zone six plays later with quarterback Bill Stephenson bulling his way for the final yard. The big signal caller scored two touchdowns in guiding his squad to a 13-2 halftime lead.

The Cranes picked up their two points midway in the second period when defensive end Bob Parson broke through to block an attempted quick kick by halfback Tom Shepphberd.

Groves' second score followed a recovery of Arch Copeland's fumble at Cranbrook's 26-yard line. The Falcons covered the distance with Stephenson picking up the six points on a one-yard sneak.

He masterminded a 63-yard drive in the third period, rolling around left end for the final 10 yards.

The Falcons defense kept the Cranes bottled up throughout most of the game. The forward wall held the Cranes to two first downs and 28 yards rushing. The Cranes deepest thrust reached the Falcons 34-yard line late in the game.

The defense produced the final touchdown when halfback picked off a Crane pass and scampered 60 yards down the sidelines.

Close Call for West Bloomfield

Clarkston 11 Downs B. Hills

A red-hot passing combination carried Clarkston's Wolves to a 12-7 upset victory over Bloomfield Hills last night in a Wayne-Oakland League opener before some 2,000 fans.

The Wolves jolted the defending league co-champions with touchdown early in the first quarter and applied the clincher with only 55 seconds remaining in the first half.

The Wolves' winning touchdown came on a picture play with quarterback Dan Craven firing a 42-yard pass to end Ken Miskin. Miskin grabbed the pass near the Barons' 20-yard line and brushed off two defenders to pick up the six points.

Both teams threw away numerous scoring opportunities as they traded fumbles and punts in a scoreless second half.

Clarkston's hard-running halfback John Williams put the Wolves in scoring position on the opening kickoff with a 50-yard weaving run that carried to the Barons' 39-yard line.

Milford 11 Impresses

Milford raced to an impressive 45-6 win over Brighton; and Northville downed Clarenceville 14-6, in Wayne-Oakland League openers Friday night.

A 20-point performance by Milford's quarterback Skip Miller carried the Redskins to their second straight win.

Miller took a screen pass from Mike Yeager the first time the Skins had the ball and sprinted 45 yards for a touchdown. He later added scoring runs of 10 and 35 yards and picked off two passes for extra points.

TD PASS

Halfback Jim Ward moved into the scoring act by taking a 40-yard scoring pass from Miller and plunging five yards for another six pointer. Ward also booted an extra point.

The Redskins other markers came on five-yard scoring dives by Dwight Holden and Chuck Andrews.

Brighton's tally was recorded by Phil Stine who turned right end for 10 yards to cap a 65-yard drive.

Northville jumped off to a 14-0 halftime lead against Clarenceville and held on for its win.

Ron Rice scored all 14 points for the Mustangs on touchdown runs of one and 15 yards. The 100-yards rushing.

Clarenceville's lone tally came in the third period on a 10-yard jaunt by Jim Benson. Clarenceville reached Northville's 15-yard line in the fourth period before bogging down.

The Lakers trailed 19-6 at halftime in the Wayne-Oakland game, but they pushed across two touchdowns in the third period to pull within one point of the Broncos and put the game away with two markers in the final quarter.

Quarterback Dan Greig turned the tide in favor of the Lakers, Michigan's No. 2 Class B team, when he grabbed the second-half kickoff and raced 70 yards for a touchdown.

The Broncos bobbled the ball moments later and end Rich Hacht picked off the fumbler and rambled 50 yards for six points. Hacht's dash narrowed the deficit to one point, 19-18.

Only two minutes went by and Ken Heft intercepted a pass at midfield and raced 50 yards for the score. Heft tried the point and failed.

Still in the first quarter, Kimball tallied when John Bauman went 33 yards to make it 19-6.

In the 2nd period, Miles passed 16 yards to Andy Crawford and he also flipped to Crawford for the PAT to make it 19-13. Few minutes later Miles hit Andy Stubl with a 20 yard pass and again he passed to Stubl for the point and Kimball took the lead, 20-19.

MAPLE WARMS UP

In the early part of the third quarter Swaney passed to Jacobsen again and it was 32-20. Kimball struck back with halfback Bauman passing to Dick Sanderson 12 yards. Sanderson's PAT made it 32-27.

In Oakland A League action, Clawson continued to run over the 1963 crop of gridiron opponents by trimming Warren Cousino, 45 to 6. Troy dumped Lake Orion, 37-12, and Fitzgerald topped Madison in a squeaker, 7-6. Rochester plays Waterford Township High School tonight at Waterford.

Acker scored the first touchdown for Avondale on a one-yard plunge to end a 76-yard march, and Dave Marchewka added the all-important extra point.

Lamphere's Ed Lonero took a handoff and scampered 30 yards for a first quarter score, and John Stevens tossed a 15-yard pass to Steve Zdon for another score in the second period. Zdon's catch gave Lamphere a 12-7 halftime lead.

Acker began his winning 55-yard dash on a drive through the middle. He was hit by three defenders but bowled them over and made his way into the end zone.

Clawson's powerful machine led by Brodie Burton gave indication of things to come in the Oakland A.

Burton went five, six and nine yards on scoring runs, and he scooted 23 yards with an intercepted pass for a 4th touchdown.

The 175-pound senior finished with 27 points for the night as he also added three extra points for Clawson.

The other Clawson scores were made by Bill Kerr on 24- and 39-yard runs and Larry Sickle on a 57-yard pass play from Paul Kedrow.

Cousino scored in the second quarter when Drew Pischa passed 25 yards to Tony Vitale. Clawson led 24-6 at halftime adding 14 in the third and seven more in the 4th periods.

Fitzgerald scored in the second quarter on a quarterback sneak by Glen Cherup from the one and he also ran the big point.

Madison's Tom Heger scampered 18 yards in the third quarter and when the pass from center for the extra point went over the kicker's head, the run failed and the point was decisive.

Troy was victimized twice by Jon Cucksey on a 93-yard run with an interception and a 60-yard pass play, but overcame his efforts with a balanced scoring attack.

The Colts' quarterback Don Armstrong passed 30 yards to Ken Holder for a six-pointer, ran 43 for another payoff, and helped teammates Holder (18), Jeff Quandt (2) and Gaylord Goodwin (2) tally on runs.

Falcons Play at Waterford

St. Fred Entertains FOLS on Wisner Turf

The once-victorious Falcons will invade Waterford's once-beaten Skippers for an 8 p. m. contest; while St. Frederick will be taking the Wisner Stadium turf for the kickoff with Farmington Our Lady of Sorrows at the same time.

This afternoon Emmanuel Christian is risking its success string of six games without a defeat at Class A Clintondale. Another afternoon contest has Webberville at Detroit Country Day in Birmingham.

It is the season opener for the latter eleven.

At North Farmington, Riverside is visiting the unscored upon Raiders. Night games involving area schools have Armada playing Memphis at Richmond and Detroit St. Anthony helping Royal Oak Shrine open its season at Dondero's stadium.

L'Anse Creuse has an afternoon contest with visiting Harper Woods.

The Northwest Catholic League will augment tonight's Wisner Stadium clash with two more games tomorrow.

St. Michael will use the Wisner Stadium turf for a 2:30 p.m. meeting with talented Orchard Lake St. Mary. Waterford Our Lady of Lakes will travel to Detroit St. Agatha.

Birmingham Brother Rice will open at home against Detroit Cathedral in the Motor City's Catholic League, while Immaculate Conception has a non-league encounter at Royal Oak St. Mary, a surprise loser last Sunday in the Northwest Catholic circuit.

The visiting teams will be favored in both of the local contests tonight, and in the NCL clashes tomorrow. North Farmington, Shrine, ROSM and Brother Rice have good opportunities to post wins; but Emmanuel Christian and Country Day will probably need top efforts to emerge vistorious.

The game at Waterford tonight will see two of the county's better runners in action. Rochester's Carl Stefanski and the Skippers' Lee Kaiser both have demonstrated the ability to break loose from any part of the gridiron.

Lions Must Give Packers 'L

Defense Unit With Four L's to Be Tested

Green Bay Is Favored to Avenge Assault of Last Thanksgiving

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

MILWAUKEE, Wis — Give the Packers 'L! In fact Lions give them four L's Sunday — Larry, Lowe, Lane and LeBeau.

This is the Lion's defensive secondary unit which will probably take the wrath of the Green Bay Packers after the world champions were bottled up by the Chicago Bears last week.

Currenly, after only one game the Detroit and Chicago secondary is tied for honors in the league with four interceptions. Of course the Bears secondary had the more difficult assignment in its first game against the Packers than the Lions did against a weak Los Angeles passing attack.

It was the 70 yard interception by Dick LeBeau returned for a touchdown and two other steals by Dick Lane which broke the game wide open in favor of the Lions.

Gary Lowe played one of his best games against the Rams both on pass defense and as tackler. He also had the job of shooting the gap against Ram quarterbacks.

PACKERS FAVORED

Oddsmakers have raised the odds to 6½ points in favor of the Packers and it is figured to be a strong defensive showing on the part of both teams.

Some observers are now contending that the Packers were really looking ahead to Detroit when they absorbed the loss at the hands of the Bears last Sunday.

There are bad memories in the Badger state from the Thanksgiving Day assault and even though they finished second for the third time in as many years, the Lions considered themselves the uncrowned champions.

Now the Lions must prove their claims.

The task may be more difficult than it was Thanksgiving Day, primarily because the Packers knew then that the loss wouldn't hurt them. A loss this week however would make it tough for Green Bay in view of the fact they must play the rugged Baltimore Colts next week faced possibly with an 0-2 mark.

Green Bay considers its secondary stronger with the addition of 10 year veteran Jerry Norton from Dallas. Norton has 8-year veteran Hank Gremminger, 3-year veteran Herb Adderly and 8-year veteran Jesse Whittenton in the secondary with him.

Lions well remember Gremminger and Adderly from the 9-7 shocker in the final seconds last year. Gremminger was on defense against Terry Barr who fell in the mud when Milt Plum threw the pass and Adderly came up to intercept and set up the winning field goal by Paul Hornung.

The Lions and the Packers have met 59 times. Green Bay has won 33, Detroit 25 and two have ended in ties.

This will be the 4th time they will have played in Milwaukee. The Lions lost 38-7 in 1942 and 57-21 in 1945. In 1961 Detroit won, 17-13.

Dodgers 'Steal' Closer to Pennant

By The Associated Press

The Los Angeles Dodgers have stolen several steps closer to a National League pennant-clinching, and things are going so smoothly even a right-handed pitcher can win.

Aided by a quick-stepping supporting cast that stole five bases, Don Drysdale reduced the Dodgers' magic number to three Friday night with a seven-hit, 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh that made him the first Los Angeles right-hander to break into the victory column in 14 games.

The Dodgers' 15th victory in 20 games, coupled with a 1-0 loss by second-place St. Louis at Cincinnati, increased Los Angeles' lead to five games. Any combination of Dodger victories and Cardinal losses totaling three will clinch the pennant.

Drysdale, who hadn't won since Aug. 30, brought his record to 18-17 with a strong performance in which he struck out three, walked none and did not permit a Pittsburgh runner past second base.

Tommy Davis scored the Dodgers first run, sliding home in the second inning on the front end of a triple steal. Maury Wills also stole a base that led to a run, pilfering third in the fifth and racing home on a wild throw by catcher Smoky Burgess.

The steal was the 37th for Wills and the 233rd of his career, breaking the Dodger club record held by Pee Wee Reese. Reese stole 232.

At Cincinnati, the Cardinals were held to three singles by John Tsitouris and lost their fourth straight.

HOMERS COUNT

Dick Ellsworth's three-hit pitching and an eight-inning homer by Andre Rodgers gave the Chicago Cubs a 1-0 victory over Milwaukee; and Houston beat Philadelphia 3-2 on a three-run homer by Carl Warwick.

New York's American League champion Yankees divided their doubleheader with Kansas City winning the opener 5-4 on a bases loaded walk in the 13th inning before losing the second game 4-3.

Also in the AL, rookie Sam Bowens' two-run triple in the seventh inning gave Baltimore a 7-6 decision over Washington. Minnesota at Boston and Los Angeles at Cleveland were rained out.

Braves' Move to Atlanta Seems Certain

CINCINNATI (AP)—Unless Milwaukee civic and government officials guarantee a new radio and television contract that would at least double the current $600,000 annual revenue to the club, the once-fabulous Braves franchise is a virtual certainty to be transferred to Atlanta before the start of the 1964 baseball season.

A source close to the Braves' inner sanctum said this to The Associated Press Friday:

"While no definite commitment has been made to the Atlanta delegation, only a complete change of heart, which is very unlikely at the moment, will keep the Braves from moving to Atlanta for next season."

In addition to the fact that the Braves officials have been sold on the idea that Atlanta is the fastest growing metropolis in the country, the big lure is a radio and television network deal involving 32 states that would provide the club with a revenue of $1.5 million annually for the first five years.

Quiet Tigers Knuckle Under

DETROIT (AP) — Sssh, quiet, not many people know about it. If those eyewitnesses didn't blab it around you're about to be let in on a secret.

Knuckleballers Eddie Fisher and Hoyt Wilhelm retired the Tigers with ease and pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 2-0 victory.

Only 603 people saw it happen. And not all those diehards could stand the cold, wet torture of watching the Tigers succumb to the whisper-soft pitching on only two far-separated singles.

At game time there were five fans sitting in the rain in the bleachers. By the sixth inning, three had left.

The two survivors were cut in half by the eighth. The lone, remaining, shivering spectator stayed until the bitter end.

The Sox, pressing to hold onto second place, pushed over an unearned run in the first and their other run in the ninth for their seventh straight victory. Dick McAuliffe's error on Mike Hershberger's leadoff grounder opened the way to the first run. Hershberger scored on Dave Nicholson's fly.

That was the only run off Mickey Lolich, suffering another hard-luck loss. The Sox tallied again in the ninth off reliever Bill Faul on a walk, a sacrifice and Al Weis single.

LONESOME HITS

Don Wert singled in the second and Willie Horton in the sixth for the lone Tiger hits. Both came off Fisher. Wilhelm took over in the eighth and retired the last six Tigers in order, four on strike outs.

Not a Tiger advanced beyond second base.

Those were the hidden details and afterwards Dressen himself let another secret out of the bag. He divulged it at a postgame birthday party in the press room where he was given a pepper mill, a cake and a picture of umpire Ed Hurley.

"Might as well announce right now," said the Tiger manager, "my entire coaching staff will be back with me next year."

That gave Dressen, Bob Swift, Pat Mullin, Stubby Overmire and Wayne Blackburn jobs for 1964.

The crowd of 603 was the lowest this season at Tiger Stadium, but 34 above the all-time low record set in 1953.

Rozelle Is at It Again Making Gambling Probe

NEW YORK (AP) — Commissioner Pete Rozelle's office is "assembling all the facts" on several checks written by Maurice L. Lewis, Memphis developer, and cashed by Charles (Chuck) Conerly, former star quarterback of the New York Giants, a member of the National Football League.

Lewis was indicted Jan. 8 by the Shelby County (Tennessee) grand jury on football gambling charges and is awaiting trial.

The Memphis Press-Scimitar, in a copyright story written by James J. White, revealed Friday that five checks endorsed by Conerly and totaling $9,575, were produced at Lewis' recent bankruptcy hearing. It said one of the checks for $3,500 was dated Nov. 6, 1961, while Conerly still was with the Giants.

RETIRED IN 1962

Conerly retired in February, 1962 after playing his last game for the Giants Dec. 31, 1961 in the title game at Green Bay. He had been with the club 14 years after he left the University of Mississippi.

Lewis testified the checks represented repayment of loans made to him by Conerly. He said he and Conerly had been friends for "many, many years . . . as far back as 1946."

Jack Mara, president of the Giants, received a phone call from Conerly in Clarksdale, Miss., after the story was published. Conerly, reportedly very much upset, told Mara that Lewis was a friend of his to whom he loaned money, that he didn't know he was a gambler.

"Charley told me to tell the football players that he never did anything wrong," said Mara. "He was very much upset after reading the papers."

Conerly's only connection with the Giants at present is an occasional scouting job.

Asked for comment about the report, Commissioner Rozelle said, "We became aware of it yesterday (Thursday) and Mr. Hamilton (Jim Hamilton, special assistant to Rozelle) is assembling all the facts."

PETERSBORO, Ont. (UPI) — The Detroit Red Wings blasted the Toronto Maple Leafs, 6-1, here Friday night to keep their exhibition slate unmarred.

It was the Wings' second outing and second straight against Toronto, the defending National Hockey League Stanley Cup champions. The two clubs tied, 6-6, Thursday night.

Top Sports Cars in Big Title Race

By JIM BRYANT

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP)—With the National Road Racing Championship already in the bag, Cobra cars piloted by some of the nation's top sports car drivers compete Sunday at Mid-Ohio sports car course in the last title race of the year.

To use an old phase, the Cobra is a wolf in sheep's clothing. The car itself is an AC Bristol, a rather old-fashioned British sports car that has never set the racing world afire.

But the engine that powers the hybrid is a big, powerful Ford Fairlane power plant that zooms the car along racing tracks at more than 150 miles per hour. Result: the first special in history to win the top national manufacturer's crown.

RETIRED RACER

The Cobra is the brainchild of Carroll Shelby, a millionaire Texan whose doctor insisted that he retire from racing. Shelby then turned his considerable talents in racing to perfecting a car that would win the world manufacturer's championship.

The task was a formidable one. For years, Italian Ferraris have swept international sports car racing. Even when international rules were changed to require that the cars be regular sports cars produced in quantity rather than highly modified specials, Ferrari seemed a sure bet to maintain its superiority.

The Cobras, most racing experts figured, were fast, but brittle—not tough enough to finish the long endurance races on the international calendar.

The Cobras were brittle, at least early in the 1963 racing season, and failed to match the Ferraris in the long endurance races. Then, as Shelby turned his attention toward the shorter American national races, the picture changed.

In seven national races across the country this summer, the Cobras have trounced not only the fastest Ferraris, but also Corvettes, Jaguars and all other grand touring cars in sight.

Shelby's factory team has competed in all of the national races, but a host of privately entered Cobras have given them some tough competition. Team drivers are Ken Miles of Hollywood, Calif. Bob Holbert of Warrington, Pa., and Dave MacDonald of El Monte, Calif.

The top private driver, Bob Johnson of Columbus, Ohio, will drive his Cobra this weekend for the first time before the home folks at the twisting 2.4-mile Mid-Ohio course, located six miles southwest of Mansfield.

After dicing it out in a 70-lap race Sunday morning with a field of Ferraris and Corvette Sting Rays, the Cobras will vie in a 70-lap afternoon event with the modified cars. Between the two big events will be a 60-mile race for formula juniors.

More than 100 drivers from the United States and Canada will compete for $10,000 in prize and accessory money in Sunday's races.

CHECK FIRST

The Business Ethics Board continues to receive inquiries from persons who first subscribe to an unknown encyclopedia and THEN check on it. Many such inquiries are prompted by high pressure tactics of a small percentage of salesmen offering such works. Here are a few general words of advice on the subject:

If you are buying an encyclopedia or reference book

1. Visit your city library or write to the American Library Association in Chicago, Ill., for information on the quality of the publications.
2. Discuss the purchase with the principal or teacher of the school your child is attending if it is to be a student reference book.
3. Be especially cautious if the salesman indicates you have been selected for a special offer—that you are getting the first book FREE, at a discount, or at "half price."
4. Thoroughly read and understand what you are signing before you affix your signature or pay any money.

TV's Handsome 'Lawyer' Is Cowboy in Real Life

By EARL WILSON

There was a sleek, good-looking young guy, in a tailored sports jacket, ensconced at the best table at "The Sign of the Dove." An adoring brunette at his elbow: he reeked of chic.

THIS was an Okie?

Robert Reed, co-star of "The Defenders" TV show — "Ken Preston" on the program — says a "So long now" about every five weeks to E. G. Marshall and cast, locks up his East End Apartment — and whips out to Oklahomaland to visit his cattle and his money.

"I have a small herd of Aberdeen Angus . . . about 200," he said, "and I like to get back for the branding and the auctions.

"My father's a big dealer in cattle and turkeys between Portsmouth, Ark., and Sallisaw, Okla. (He paused momentarily to ask the guests, "Would you care for some wine?") "I use some of my dad's land, but I had such a big calf crop this year, I had to get some more . . ."

What I mean to say was that you never can tell these days, from a TV characterization, what a guy's really like.

Reed played a young lawyer in a "Father Knows Best" episode — and somebody remembering that cast him in "The Defenders."

What will happen when "The Defenders" runs its course? Maybe he could play in a western! After all, he is a cattle man! Why not?

"No chance," he said. "My first days in Hollywood, I played half a dozen cowboys. Do you know why I quit? I tried out for a part and didn't get it. I can remember that casting director at Warner's yet. As I left, he said, 'You see, you don't even walk like a cowboy.' I have only been a cowboy all my life."

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: A hotel guest phoned the desk that he was cold, and the female operator said, "I'm so sorry — but I can't leave my desk."

A movie fan who'd just seen "Cleopatra" said, "It's easy to see why Liz Taylor gets the best parts — it's because she has the best parts." That's earl, brother.

Richard Boone Hurt in Crash; Condition OK

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) —Actor Richard Boone, quotation-spouting gentleman-gunslinger of the "Have Gun, Will Travel" television series, was reported in "very good" condition today in St. John's Hospital.

Boone, 47, was hospitalized yesterday after his powerful, expensive foreign car slammed into a parked car near his Pacific Palisades home.

Attendants said the craggy-faced actor received scratches and multiple cuts of the face and torn rib cartillage in the smashup. The injuries were described as extremely painful.

Doctors expected the onetime oilfield worker to be released Monday or Tuesday. He was placed under heavy sedation following the mishap, but last night attendants reported he appeared to be coming out of the drug-induced sleep.

ETERNAL LIFE

Our Choice . . . Not Chance

● "I have set before you life and death, therefore choose life." Deut. 30:19

● He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." John 3:36

God says . . . choose life. The choice is up to every person, your destination is in your own hands. You will either wind up with ETERNAL LIFE in Heaven or ETERNAL DEATH in Hell to be tormented forever. Jesus Christ says that if you wind up in Hell "that it would have been much better if you had been born". Read it yourself in Mark 14:21.

God has made salvation so simple for you and I, It is very foolish to wind up in Hell.

AFTERMATH OF ATTACK—Black smoke billows from the DuPont Company's paint warehouse in Caracas, Venezuela, after a terrorist gang attacked and set fire to the building. Seven men armed with submachine guns and shouting pro-Castro slogans overpowered two guards and six employes to enter the building and ignite gasoline bombs.

They're Kicking, Squalling

Quints Celebrate First Week

ABERDEEN, S.D. (AP) — The Fischer quintuplets — all 15 pounds, 10 ounces of them — observed their first week's birthday today with their weights on record for the first time.

"Lively, squalling and kicking" was the word from St. Luke's Hospital where the four girls and a boy have been since their arrival.

Tiny scales pushed through plastic cuffs of the incubators showed that James Andrew, as expected, was the heaviest at 3 pounds, 13 ounces. The smallest is Mary Ann, first born and named after her mother, who weighed in at 2½ pounds.

The second and third arrivals, Mary Magdalene and Mary Catherine, weigh 3 pounds each and Mary Margaret, last after James Andrew, weigh 3 pounds, 5 ounces.

SCALED FEED

Dr. James Berbos said feedings are scaled according to weight, with the boy getting 12 cubic centimeters of artificial milk formula every two hours, three of the girls 9 ccs apiece and Mary Margaret 8. An ounce of sterile water is added at the end of each feeding to clear the plastic pipes through which they take their food.

Berbos said that Mrs. Andrew Fischer is scheduled to leave the hospital Monday. He said she can do some housework but probably will require assistance in caring for her other five children—also four girls and a boy.

Fischer himself was reported conferring with attorneys on new offers for the world-famed newcomers, already the recipients of an estimated $250,000 cash and gifts.

A calendar publishing firm is seeking rights to color pictures of the babies and a large soap company reportedly seeks a deal.

A weekend highlight will be the induction of the quints into the Sioux Indian tribe. The tribal council said the rites will include a dance of braves in full regalia.

Pentagon to Clear Up Bias Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department is rewriting an antidiscrimination directive to make clear it does not apply to the National Guard while under state control, it was learned today.

The Pentagon thus probably will avoid a clash with Southern governors and head off more difficulties with Southern congressmen already on the warpath against Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's efforts to ease discrimination against Negro servicemen.

Earlier this week, it was disclosed that the Air Force, Army, Navy and Marines had acted to bar participation by any of their units or equipment in public events where admission, seating or other accommodations are racially segregated.

Officials said these actions stemmed from a paragraph McNamara inserted in an eight-year-old directive broadly covering armed forces participation in ceremonies, exhibitions and other public events.

Later, it was noted that the overall directive, issued originally by then Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson, mentioned National Guard equipment provided and maintained out of federal funds.

INTERPRETATION

The Pentagon was asked whether the amendment concerning discrimination thus could be interpreted as applying to the guard. It replied: "Any ambiguity on this point will be eliminated on republication of the directive, which is currently being rewritten and up-military departments."

Service of Baptism at Trinity Methodist

"The Thrust of Faith" is the topic of tomorrow's 10:30 a.m. sermon at the worship service of Trinity Methodist Church, Waterford. A service of baptism is planned. The congregation currently meets at Schoolcraft School.

The first official board meeting of the fall will be held Thursday at 8 p.m. at the parsonage.

UNINVITED — Mrs. Elizabeth Claytor, 69, sits amid the wreckage of her store-front East Baltimore home after a car plowed into it. Mrs. Claytor, who is legless, was uninjured. Her chair, which is on casters, was pushed out of the car's path when the vehicle hit the building. Two persons in the car received minor injuries.

Setup Discussed

Traffic Crackdown?

LANSING (AP) — A group of state and local officials reached "substantial agreement" Friday on a series of proposals which would stiffen Michigan's traffic laws and perhaps cut the highway accident rate.

Some 13 persons, including judges, prosecutors and police officials, met for two hours with Gov. George Romney to discuss the stepped-up enforcement program and several long-range proposals.

They backed several suggestions designed to put more teeth into laws concerning traffic violators, including stricter penalties for persons driving under license suspension.

The group also supported proposals which would:

- Seek more uniform, constructive treatment of violators in the courts.
- Make driver training mandatory.
- Give the state greater authority to call in delinquent drivers before they have acquired 12 points.
- Set up a police training academy to help train local police officers.
- Seek legislative action to implement the public act requiring a picture on drivers' licenses.

Romney agreed to call another meeting in early December of law-enforcement officials from all over the state, as a means of ironing out mutual problems in the traffic safety field.

These would include the courts, county and township officials, prosecutors and police officials at all state and local levels.

Sino Threats Hit Japanese Embassy

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—The Japanese Embassy has received at least two anonymous bomb threats from "patriotic Chinese youths" in the past two days, diplomatic sources said today.

The sources said Ambassador Hiroshigi Kimura has ordered his staff to cancel all social contacts with Chinese here for the duration of the current crisis in relations.

The bomb threats added new tension to the already troubled situation here, in which Kimura's house and the Japan Airlines office have been stoned.

The sending of a Japanese trade delegation to Peking and a statement by Japanese premier Hayato Ikeda saying the oft-stated Nationalist Chinese threat to return to the mainland was wishful thinking added fuel to the fire.

HOME FOR TALKS

Provincial police commissioner Chang Kuo-Chiang issued a formal warning yesterday against any more violence against Japanese here. He threatened to deal "severely" with anyone caught in such acts.

5 College Students Die in Car Crash

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — A car rammed into a group of Louisiana State University students pushing a stalled auto near the campus last night, killing five of them and injuring at least six other persons.

State police identified the dead as John W. Olvey, Gordon Johnson Jr., Buddy Burge, Willie Rambin and Alexandria King. Olvey was reported to be from Shreveport, La. and Miss King from New Orleans.

The names of the injured and hometowns of the other victims was not immediately available.

Highway patrolmen said the driver of the car apparently did not see the students in time. There were no lights on the stalled vehicle, an old model station wagon.

Navy Plans to Rebuild

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Navy is planning a multimillion-dollar project on the Pacific island of Guam to restore or rebuild facilities damaged by Typhoon Karen last November.

Officials of the bureau of yards and docks said yesterday the cost of the project would be "in the neighborhood of $20 million."

The Longest River

From its source to its junction with the Mississippi, the Missouri river is 2,945 miles long. Their combined length of 4,200 miles is said to exceed that of any other river system.

Boa Tied Up in Frat House

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Boas will be boas at the University of Minnesota chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. The boys have acquired a 10-foot boa constrictor from Peru as a mascot.

The snake's owners, Ed Carpenter, 20 of Des Moines, Iowa, and Don Estes, 20, of Chevy Chase, Md., say they bought it as "a passing fancy."

They plan to take the reptile with them to football games and rush parties in its portable cage, which is six feet long. Its fraternity quarters are in the boiler room. They will feed it mice and rats, Estes said.

Cat Learns to Play Hot Ping Pong Game

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Lewis, a large orange-colored Persian tomcat, has been taught by his mistress to play ping-pong.

As she bats a ball over the net to him, he chases it from one end of the table to the other and returns it. He can keep up quite a creditable volley, but so far refuses to retreive any balls from the floor.

French Protestants known as Hugenots were martyred as early as 1525. Not until the late 1800s were they free to worship without persecution.

$2 Million Hoard

Stolen Art Uncovered

PARIS (UPI) — A $2 million hoard of stolen paintings, rare books and other art treasures has been found in the Right Bank apartment of a Yugoslav house painter, police said today.

"It was like the legendary cave of Ali Baba," one officer said after police searched the rooms of Nikola Franusic, 26, just off the Champs Elysee, yesterday.

Police said included in the loot were eight Impressionist paintings by Monet, Pissarro, Renoir and Corot; four valuable silver platters; 67 minor but valuable paintings; "several hundred" ancient books; five expensive tapestries and about 100 valuable stamps.

Police put the initial value of the works of art at between eight and 10 million francs ($1.6 million and $2 million).

Coffee and bananas led Costa Rica's exports.

Joint Moon Shot Bid Wins Praise

New '64 Tempest: Bigger and Better

By JOHN J. CROWLEY
City Editor
The Pontiac Press

A bigger, almost completely changed Tempest — that's the most significant news out of Pontiac Motor Division for 1964.

Unveiled today, the Tempest series for 1964 represents the most extensive design change for a car in the division's 37-year history.

It's a different breed of cat — a younger brother who wanted to grow up and set about doing just that.

Smiling in anticipation of wide public acceptance, E.M. Estes, Pontiac general manager and General Motors Corp. vice president, pointed out that the 1964 Tempest has:

All-new styling.
New engines.
New frame.
New bodies.
And new interiors.

There's even a whole new series: the Custom.

The Tempest is 8.7 inches longer in 1964, settling its new perimeter frame on a 115-inch wheel base for an over-all length of 203 inches.

SALES POTENTIAL

"With their larger bodies of frame-type construction, high performing six and eight-cylinder engines and numerous other important advances in both engineering and styling," Estes said "the 1964 Tempest represents a significant development with tremendous sales potential."

The public will see them in dealer showrooms Oct. 3.

They'll find that nine models are offered in the Tempest, LeMans and Custom series.

The Tempest will be available in the two-door sports coupe, four-door sedan and four-door station wagon.

Tempest Custom will have two-door sports coupe, convertible coupe, four-door sedan and four-door station wagon models.

The LeMans will be available in two-door sports coupe and convertible models.

An entirely new in-line 215-cubic inch, six-cylinder overhead valve engine is standard equipment on all 1964 Tempest and LeMans models.

7 PCT. LIGHTER

Seven per cent lighter than previous Tempest engines, the Pontiac 215 has a single-barrel carburetor with automatic choke. Delivering 140 horsepower at 4,200 rpm, it is available with either synchromesh or automatic transmission.

Then there's the optional 326-cubic-inch V8 engine offered on all Tempest and LeMans models for those who desire the highest performance. The regular-fuel V8 with a two-barrel carburetor delivers 250 horsepower, and a high-output, premium-fuel version with a four-barrel carburetor produces 280 horsepower.

As for exterior styling:

The Tempest and Tempest Custom series have large, single tail lamps that follow the contours of the quarter panel and bumper ends. The new wide-face bumpers are "full size" and their wrap-around design is for both protection and good looks.

The LeMans series is quickly identified by its own distinctive grille treatment and rear-end design. To continue the sports car theme, LeMans tail lamps are integrated within a decorative rear end panel.

Doors are larger for increase entrance and exit room. Curved-door window glass permits a thinner door, thus allowing increased hip and shoulder room.

SUSPENSION SYSTEMS

Among the major engineering developments found in the 1964 Tempest are the new front and rear suspension systems that provide better stability, softer ride, easier handling and reduced maintenance.

An all-new front suspension geometry of "big car" design extends the wide track to a full 58 inches for increased stability.

Then there's the newly-designed air conditioning system that is patterned after the system introduced last year for the regular Pontiac line. The system combines the heater with the air conditioner to give complete year-round controlled humidity comfort regardless of outside temperature.

LeMans customers may choose from six interior color schemes, all in rich and lustrous expanded vinyl.

Bucket seats in the exclusive Pontiac contour design are standard in the LeMans convertible and sports coupe, along with a custom steering wheel of solid plastic and nylon-blend, loop pile carpeting from door to door.

4 INTERIORS

Four interiors in strikingly new styling are offered in the standard Tempest four-door sedan and sports coupe. Cushion and back trim cloth is used in combination with Morrokide vinyl-coated fabrics in harmonizing tones.

Floor covering for these two body styles is solid vinyl and is installed over heavy jute padding for comfort and noise reduction.

And because Tempest buyers will want to get out and show off their purchase, the fuel tank capacity has been increased to 21.5 gallons.

By JIM DYGERT

Oakland County's Republican Congressman William S. Broomfield today defended foreign aid as necessary to thwart communism and vital to America's future even if there were no Communist threat.

Despite its failings, misuses and high cost, U.S. foreign aid has meant the impoverished people of the world "are turning to us" for leadership instead of to Russia, Broomfield said.

The congressman, whose influence in foreign affairs is rising fast, spoke before a large audience in the Gold Room at Oakland University's Oakland Center this morning for the opening session of the county's first bipartisan Citizens' Political Forum.

Democratic Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler also spoke this morning.

Staebler, speaking about President Kennedy's proposed tax cut, said the President's program is "essential to the future growth and vitality of the nation."

Staebler said expansion of the national economy as a direct result of the tax cut "will add some 3 million new jobs." He said the tax cut would primarily benefit families with incomes under $10,000 annually.

Gov. George Romney was scheduled to talk about his proposed tax reform program at the forum's 1 p.m. luncheon.

U.S. Sen. Philip A. Hart and a host of other government leaders also were to speak today as the county witnessed the biggest gathering of political headliners in its history.

SOMEONE PAYS

Oakland County Board of Supervisors Chairman Delos Hamlin, speaking as one of five panelists on taxation, said "someone must pay" for increased public services demanded by "urban concentration, an industrial economy and the population explosion in the metropolitan area."

"Society must be able to serve all of its members, even though some may pay more be-

GOP Retaliates on Kennedy Bill

Asks Revenue Cuts Based on Spending

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Republicans have told the people that Congress would be "playing Russian roulette with our destiny" if it approves President Kennedy's tax cut bill without a brake on federal spending.

Rep. John W. Byrnes, chief GOP spokesman on tax matters, presented the argument Friday night, saying the tax bill "offers a clear opportunity to tie down" federal spending but that Congress can't rely alone on Kennedy's promise to hold spending down.

"It is time to judge the administration by what it does, more than what it says," Byrnes said over the ABC and CBS television and radio networks and the Mutual radio network.

The Republican reply to President Kennedy's appeal will be continued tonight when Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri speaks on NBC television and radio at 6 p.m. EST.

AMENDMENTS

Byrnes, senior Republican on the tax-writing ways and means committee, is proposing an amendment making the tax cut inoperative unless the President submits, in January or earlier, spending estimates not above $97 billion for the fiscal year that began last July 1 and $98 billion for next year.

Nevertheless, Democratic leaders were more optimistic today than ever about their chances for pushing the $11-billion tax cut through the House minus the crippling anti-spending amendment.

They rejected a fresh GOP appeal for Democratic support of Byrnes' "trigger" provision and pressed ahead with their drive to line up a solid party front against the amendment.

One key legislator said the leaders were "feeling better" about tax cut prospects after a partial nose-count of Democratic lawmakers.

They warned members that in voting for the Brynes proposal they were voting to hand the President the decision on whether or not to cut taxes.

Can Romney Pull Miracle, Win Tax Program Support?

LANSING (AP) — The number one question on the capitol scene these days is : "Will he or won't he?"

The question reflects a wonderment as to whether Gov. George Romney will be able to pull a political miracle out of the fire of legislative debate and come up with a tax reform program for which he can claim credit.

Some observers argue that suffering a defeat on the issue would cause grievous and perhaps fatal harm to his chances of becoming the 1964 Republican presidential nominee (an honor he repeatedly insists he is not seeking).

But if Romney manager to push across a program incorporating a state income tax, with additional local-option income taxes, many believe he will have succeeded in enhancing his national image even more than the polls show he did in his first six months in office.

Already his reputation has benefited by the fact that Michigan, once on the verge of bankruptcy, with a $95-million deficit, may soon be out of the red completely because of record auto sales and a booming economy.

An indication of the tough fight that lies ahead for Romney's "jobs and justice" fiscal reform program is seen in the fact that the public reaction to his tax message has been about evenly divided pro and con.

GOP OPPOSITION

In the legislature itself, there are many of his fellow Republicans who admit candidly that even though they might agree in principle with the purpose of the tax program, they won't be able to vote for a state income tax because to do so would be political suicide.

One of those who have disagreed openly with Romney's advocacy of a state income tax is Sen. Clyde Geerlings, chairman of the Senate Taxation Committee.

Geerlings has come up with his own fiscal reform program, pegged to a two-per cent optional county income tax.

In arguing for the local-level approach, Geerlings declared:

"It is not reasonable that legislators gathered in Lansing should detrmine that what applies in Oakland is valid in Ogemaw, that the people of Kent and Keewenaw see things alike; that Wayne and Wexford find the same solution acceptable.

SEAT OF KNOWLEDGE

"I believe that any program based on increased state aid has a basic flaw in that it would impose a tax generally throughout the state and distribute the proceeds as though Lansing were the seat of all knowledge."

A sure sign that Romney intends to fight for his program all the way — although willing to give and take a little — was his observation at a news conference that the Geerlings proposal was "ingenious and deserves consideration."

Then he proceeded to tear it to shreds, bit-by-bit and piece-by-piece, winding up with the observation that the Geerlings program provides neither tax relief for low income families nor tax equity for the business community.

JFK Proposal Welcomed as East-West Aid

Gromyko Reaction Is Noncommital, but Hope High for Accord

From Our News Wire

Kennedy's address Friday, following an unusually mild policy speech by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, heartened diplomats weary of bitter exchanges between the two big powers.

Gromyko welcomed the conciliatory nature of Kennedy's speech, but reserved comment on specific proposals, pending study.

He also conveyed to Kennedy the "warm personal greetings" of Premier Khrushchev at a reception after the President's speech.

Gromyko's remarks seemed to support the growing hope that the Soviets, seared by the Cuban crisis and differences with Peking, are more interested in East-West amity than in rocket-rattling.

Kennedy told the 111-nation assembly the world may have reached "a pause in the cold war." He set out basic U.S.-Soviet differences, but called for further steps in easing cold war tensions, specifically by pooling U.S. and Soviet space research and experience for a moon shot.

CALL ECHOED

Delegates praised the tenor of Kennedy's speech and echoed his call for peaceful settlement of East-West differences.

There was considerable speculation why Kennedy suggested the joint moon expedition. Some delegates expressed the belief that

Senate Closes N-Pact Debate

Goldwater Proposal One of Last Hurdles

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — The Senate has ended its general debate on the limited nuclear test-ban treaty and has one more hurdle before voting Tuesday on ratification.

On Monday, the action centers on attempts by critics and luke-warm supporters to attach reservations to the pact which would ban nuclear tests except underground.

Republican and Democratic leaders have expressed confidence they have enough votes to win ratification by a large margin and to turn back any reservations.

One of the reservations is a proposal by Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., to postpone the treaty's effectiveness until the Soviet Union removes its military base and any nuclear-capable weapons from Cuba.

Although only 15 senators have announced they will vote against the treaty, Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., a treaty supporter, predicted Goldwater may muster as

Tension Eases in Birmingham

By The Associated Press

Tension eased in Birmingham, Ala., as investigators sought a lead to Sunday's church bombing, while in New York mounted police were used twice to keep demonstrators behind boundaries.

Birmingham remained under tight patrol by a large force of state and local police. About 800 national guardsmen were on standby duty.

U.S. Atty. Macon L. Weaver said Friday that investigators concluded the bomb which killed four Negro girls was placed under the basement rear entrance to the church.

Beyond that there was nothing else to report, Weaver said.

Two white teen-agers were bound over to a grand jury without bond on charges of murder in the shooting of a Negro boy last Sunday. The slaying came in the wake of the church dynamiting.

CAN'T UNDERSTAND

At Mobile, Archbishop Thomas J. Toolen said in a pastoral letter that "it is difficult to understand how a civilized human being could have in his heart such hatred for a fellow human being as to desire or want to destroy life because a man's color is different from his own."

The letter is to be read Sunday from Catholic pulpits in the diocese, which comprises Alabama and Northwest Florida.

At Montgomery, Gov. George C. Wallace sent a telegram to Mayor Richard Lee of New Haven, Conn., in which he said that he is "certain that your political purposes have been well served" by causing Yale University to cancel Wallace's speaking engagement. Wallace had been scheduled to speak at the Yale Political Union, a student debating society, Nov. 4.

Mounted police and patrolmen on foot broke up a sit-down demonstration in front of a police station in New York. Two Negroes were arrested on charges of assault and disorderly conduct.

PROTEST ARREST

The demonstrators said they were protesting the arrest earlier of a Negro picket who police said punched an officer during a noisy demonstration near the United Nations headquarters.

LEMANS CONVERTIBLE—Emerging as a new and different car is Pontiac's 1964 LeMans convertible. LeMans models have all new styling and are quickly identified by distinctive grille treatment and rear-end design. A six-cylinder engine is standard in the 1964 models along with bucket seats, a custom steering wheel of solid plastic and door-to-door carpeting of nylon blend loop pile.

Plastic Bomb Perils Yanks

Blast Fails to Hurt Americans in Theater

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)— A powerful bomb explosion rocked an exclusively American movie theater in Saigon today and virtually demolished three small Vietnamese homes behind it.

Several Vietnamese were believed buried in the wreckage of their homes but no Americans were reported hurt, although more than 200 American men and women were in the theater at the time of the explosion.

American munitions experts identified the explosive charge as plastic and said it apparently had been planted in the alley behind the Capital Kindo Theater, used exclusively by the American community.

Combat police and firemen rushed to the scene after the 7 p.m. explosion, which was heard all over Saigon.

Americans were moved out of the theater. The concrete wall was not pierced.

One American said "There was near panic inside that theater when we heard the explosion and smelled smoke."

Deputies Nab Ionia Fugitive

A fugitive from Ionia State Prison was arrested early this morning by sheriff's deputies who found him and a girl parked in a car on Greenshield Road in Orion Township.

Graves, serving a term of one to 15 years for breaking and entering, walked away from Ionia Sept. 10, according to police.

Deputies Lyle Wilcox and John Hastie had been sent to the scene to investigate the parked car shortly after 3 a.m.

Wilcox had to fire a warning shot in the air when Graves tried to escape after getting out of the car to show his identification.

Police said the car belonged to girl's father.

Woman Shot, Killed in Mount Clemens

MOUNT CLEMENS (AP) — A woman was shot and killed today in what Macomb County deputies called an apparent family fight.

Mrs. Mae Brown, 44, of Clinton Township, was shot in the back with a 12-gauge shotgun. She died in St. Joseph Hospital here.

U.S., French, Germans Fight Over Purchase of Aircraft

BONN (UPI) — Americans, Frenchmen and West Germans were engaged today in a business battle in which the sale of 100 large military cargo aircraft is the prize.

The row is over whether the West German Luftwaffe should buy the twin-engine "Transall" cargo aircraft that France and Germany have designed together, or the "Hercules," made by America's Lockheed.

Transall is in the prototype stage, but the Hercules has been used by the U. S. Air Force for several years.

Several German members of Parliament went to France a week ago to look over the Transall before deciding which plane the defense ministry ought to buy.

MORE SAVINGS

The French apparently want 50 of the transall planes. If the Germans buy 100 more of them, it will mean a considerable cost saving to Paris.

So far, according to the German Defense Ministry, only the Transall is even being considered.

They have mailed batches of printed material to parliamentary deputies, contacted a number of reporters, and placed large advertisements with most technical magazines.

So far, however, Lockhede has been unable to show its entry officially to either the Parliament or the Defense Ministry.

But the American company's activity has been enough to anger the French, according to stories appearing in some Paris newspapers.

The French already were peeved because the Germans decided to go along with the United States in the development of a battle tank. Paris argues that the French-Germany treaty of cooperation means Bonn should start switching military orders from the United States to France.

Ex-Premier Out to Form New Oslo Government

OSLO, Norway (AP)— Former Socialist Premier Einar Gerhardsen agreed today to try to form a new government after the fall of Norway's first non-Socialist government in 28 years.

Gerhardsen accepted the task from King Olav V. Gerhardsen headed the government toppled by a no-confidence vote in Parliament a month ago.

NLRB to Study Charges on Burroughs-UAW Vote

DETROIT (UPI) — The National Labor Relations Board plans to look into the United Auto Workers conduct in an election campaign in which it won the right to represent workers at Burroughs Corp.

Burroughs yesterday asked the NLRB to set aside the election last week on grounds the union publicized a false rumor that Burroughs planned a merger with the Ford Motor Co.

The company asked the NLRB to order a new election or to "order a formal hearing on the objections" to the last election.

Jerome H. Brooks, acting regional director of the NLRB, said the company claimed the union distributed pamphlets alleging the merger of the two firms; made radio and television broadcasts mentioning the rumor, and also made statements to Burroughs workers during the election.

WILL INVESTIGATE

Asker what the NLRB would do, "We will study, investigate and get all the evidence before taking action one way or another on ordering a hearing."

A UAW spokesman refused comment on the Burroughs charges.

The UAW won by a slim margin of 356 votes the right to represent Burroughs workers at the bargaining table at an election Sept. 13. The union had been attempting for 12 years to organize the workers and it was the third election.

The rumor of merger between Ford and Burroughs has been rampant here for most of the year. Both companies have repeatedly denied the rumor and four days after the UAW victory in the election the heads of the two companies issued a joint denial.

Ray Eppert, Burroughs president, and Henry Ford II, Ford board chairman, said in the statement they "emphatically denied that there were now, or ever had been, any merger or acquisition discussions between the two companies."

Accidents Hurt Six From Area

No Serious Injuries in Three Collisions

Auto collisions injured six persons in three area accidents yesterday.

George P. Hugill, 55, of 257 Perry, Lake Orion, and his wife Lillian, 62, were hospitalized in Lapeer County General Hospital after a 12:15 p.m. accident on Lapeer Road, near Drahner.

Both are listed in satisfactory condition with fractures.

The driver of the other car, Virgil M. Hodges, 61, of Detroit, was not seriously injured when he crashed in the rear of the Hugill's car, police said.

BACKING UP

Witnesses told police it appeared that Lubinski was backing up his truck when the accident occurred at 1:15 p.m.

Sally Swett, 21, of 290 N. Paddock, is in Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital in poor condition after she rammed the rear of a car on Oakland, just north of Inglewood, last night.

The baby's mother Pansy K. Day, 19, 454 Oakland, was treated and released.

The occupants of the other car, Nels Swanson, 51 of 1852 Birchcrest, and his wife Garnet, 48, also were treated and released.

Birmingham Area News

Longer Store Hours Are Urged By Chamber

BIRMINGHAM — Aiming at unification, the chamber of commerce is urging Birmingham businessmen to keep their stores open Thursday and Friday nights.

The nights were chosen on the basis of a survey taken by the board of directors of the chamber's retail division.

In a letter to members, Chamber President William E. Roberts said the group's board of directors had accepted the recommendation of the retailers "because Birmingham is a residential town, and its business area is a convenience - comparison shopping area . . . not a shopping center."

Most of the stores in downtown Birmingham are now open Thursday and-or Friday nights, according to Charles Mortensen, chamber general manager.

"A couple were thinking of adding Mondays" but now apparently have changed their plans, Mortensen said.

Earl West of Indianapolis, Ind., will be featured in a series of Bible lectures at the Birmingham Church of Christ next week.

The lectures will be given Monday through Sept. 29 at the church, 3737 W. Big Beaver. Services will begin at 7:30 p.m. with the exception of the one Sunday at 6 p.m.

West will also address the congregation at the regular 11 a.m. service Sunday.

The Birmingham Recreation Department is now accepting registrations for the Saturday morning children's swimming classes which will begin Sept. 28.

Application blanks have been distributed to the schools and will be accepted as long as there are vacancies. The recreation office is in the Municipal Building.

many as 30 votes for his reservation.

FEWER VOTES

Aiken, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said there may be fewer votes for a reservation by Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., to spell out that the United States has a right to use nuclear weapons to defend itself or any of its allies.

Reservations can be rejected by a majority vote, although ratification itself will require a two-thirds majority — 67 if all 100 senators are on hand.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., whose colleague, Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., is leading the fight for the treaty, is one of three senators regarded as definitely uncommitted on the vote. The other two are Sens. Margaret Chase Smith, R-Maine, and Edwin L. Mechem, R-N. M.

PRESENT VOTE 11-7

The opposing Southerners are led by Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Armed Services Committee and nominal commander of the Southerners when they join together to resist civil rights legislation.

cause there are some who can only pay less," Hamlin said.

He concluded that funds for public services beyond what reasonable consumer and property taxes can finance "must come from individuals and corporations based on ability to pay through income."

Broomfield said the world's impoverished people "are rebelling by the millions against old social orders and antiquated political structures." They look for example to the American revolution, not the Russian version, he said.

The United States must help them, communism or no communism, Broomfield said, "because we are—whether we like it or not—the leader of the world."

"We have a corner on the world market in material goods, in freedom, in high living standards; yes, and in atom bombs."

RUSSIA BEHIND

Broomfield said Russia, "the only country that seriously challenges our leadership, still lags far behind us in providing the material comforts of life — and most important, the freedom which makes us the envy of the world."

He quoted the late U.S. Sen. Arthur Vandenburg: "The greatest nation on earth either justifies or surrenders its leadership."

While reminding the audience that unemployment was one of the nation's "most serious domestic issues," Broomfield said, "In a great many places on this earth, a man who has a steady job earns less in an entire year than an unemployed american receives in a single week in unemployment insurance."

"These people are our business. If they aren't our business, the Russians most certainly will make them theirs," Broomfield said. "Communism feeds on despair."

Broomfield said, "There are more ways of giving than simply donating dollars — and in most cases these other ways are more effective."

He was referring to the program he started in which Oakland County leaders visited Cali, Colombia, to help with direct local level-to-local level assistance.

LITTLE EXPERIENCE

They found, he said, that Colombians, in their dependence upon their central government, had little experience in solving their own problems despite rich resources.

Broomfield predicted this new approach to foreign aid will mean greater results for fewer tax dollars.

He said it already has excited the interest of David Bell, head of the Agency for International Development, and could "become an important contribution in our efforts to help others to help themselves."

Six Colombians from Cali will visit Oakland County next week to view how the county has coped with its growth problems.

Kennedy feels the United States cannot beat the Soviets to the moon on its own.

It was noted that U.S. space officials at Cape Canaveral voiced disappointment over this as an indication that the President seems ready to abandon the U.S. moon project.

His suggestion came at a time when public enthusiasm for the project apparently is waning, costs are spiraling and Congress no longer is rubber - stamping space agency money requests.

Director James E. Webb of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) was quick to deny yesterday that the proposal meant there would be a slowdown in project plans to put two Americans on the moon by 1970.

'U.S. 'WILL CONTINUE'

Webb told agency colleagues the United States would continue the Apollo man-on-the-moon program pending any substantive negotiations with Moscow for a joint probe.

Dr. Robert C. Seamans, associate NASA administrator, agreed, and added that Kennedy's proposal proved that this country's space effort was strong and right on schedule.

Diplomatic observers said the omission indicated the Kremlin either opposes the idea or wants to study it carefully before taking a stand.

QUOTE GENEROUSLY

The Moscow papers quoted generously from Kennedy's address before the U.N. General Assembly. They mentioned his call for cooperation in space, but said nothing about his specific suggestion of a joint moon expedition, as an example of such cooperation.

Soviet press reaction appeared favorable to Kennedy's statements urging an end to the cold war and peaceful competition between East and West.

The only negative note was sounded by Pravda, the party organ, which cited Kennedy's preference to "lack of freedom" under communism and his declaration that America intends to maintain its armed might for defense of the free world.

"That part of the speech," Pravda said, "is a continuation of the cold war which Kennedy calls for an end to."

6 Teen-Agers Die in Crash

LOWELL, Ind. (AP)—Five teenagers homeward bound after a hayride and a girl driving home alone after a date died today when two cars crashed head-on.

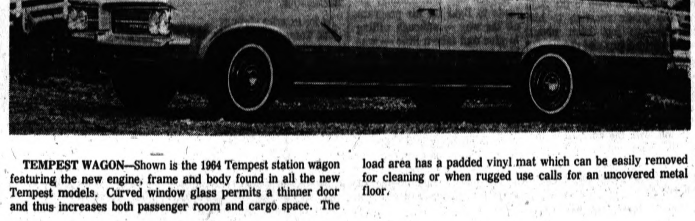
The cars, driven by Carol Jean Wilson, 18, of Hebron, Ind., and Tod L. Belshaw, 17, of Lowell, crashed at one minute past midnight. Killed were both drivers and Belshaw's passengers—Gerald Griesmer, 15, Leonard J. Austgen, 16, and Robert Felder, 17, all of Lowell, and Gwen Stack, 16, Cedar Lake, Ind.



TEMPEST WAGON—Shown is the 1964 Tempest station wagon featuring the new engine, frame and body found in all the new Tempest models. Curved window glass permits a thinner door and thus increases both passenger room and cargo space. The load area has a padded vinyl mat which can be easily removed for cleaning or when rugged use calls for an uncovered metal floor.

Hearing Set for Sidewalks

A public hearing on a special assessment district for installing sidewalks along Bender Street will be held Monday between 7 and 9 p.m. in conjunction with the Waterford Township Board meeting.

In other business board members will consider accepting the resignation of board of review member Carlos Richardson.

Richardson will give up the township post to continue serving on the Oakland County Board of Canvassers.

Recent legislation prohibits members of the board of canvassers from holding an elective office. Richardson was elected to the township office last April.

Also slated for attention of the township board is a request to open a pool hall at 3127 W. Huron. Mrs. C. Norris Priestap, owner of the site, will appear before the board.

Rocks Float Here

Naknek Lake in southern Alaska is noted for rocks that float and wood that sinks. The rocks littering its shore are pumice and lighter than water. The wood is petrified and often beautifully marked.

Tito States East, West Not Rivals

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—The division of the world into east and west blocs is "already a thing of the past," visiting President Tito of Yugoslavia says.

Tito told newsmen yesterday both the Soviet Union and the United States are interested primarily in peace and the question of rival economic and social systems is secondary.

In his recent talks with Soviet Premier Khurshchev, Tito said, he found the Russians in favor of peaceful efforts to reach understanding with the United States.

"I know that on the American side there is an identical disposition," he added.

For this reason, Tito said, he plans to exchange ideas with President Kennedy on his forthcoming trip to Washington.

Tito and President Joao Goulart signed a joint statement calling for complete disarmament and an end to colonialism and racial discrimination. They also signed a bilateral industrial cooperation pact.

Two Appointed to Oakland U.

Two new appointments to the Oakland University staff were approved yesterday by the Michigan State University Board of Trustees.

Dr. Gottfried Brieger, 28, of 394 Boyd, was named assistant professor of chemistry and Thomas Coppe, 31, of 61 Oneida, assistant librarian

Dr. Breiger was assistnat professor of chemistry at the University of California.

A native of Berlin, he received his doctorate at the University of Wisconsin in 1961 and his bachelor of science degree at Harvard University in 1957.

Coppe is a native of St. Paul, Minn., where he was a biographical researcher for a private concern. He received a masters degree in library science from Columbia University in 1958.

Both Dr. Brieger and Coppe will fill new positions.

The highland country of New York and Vermont produces about two-thirds the nation's supply of maple syrup and other maple products.

Pakistan Needling Washington, Russ

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP) — Pakistan appears to have embarked on a calculated program to needle Washington and Moscow in heartily endorsing a Red Chinese proposal for a world summit conference on disarmament and by increasing trade with the Peking camp.

The moves, announced Friday, seem certain to deepen Pakistan's worrisome quarrel with the United States, triggered by U. S. aid to India. They also appear certain to irritate the Soviet Union in Moscow's competition with Peking for Asian support.

President Mohammed Ayub Khan, who once described himself as the staunchest anti-Communist ally of the United States in Saia, is angry with Washington because of American aid in bolstering India's defenses against Red China.

WEAPONS THREAT

He believes American weapons in India pose more of a threat to Pakistan in the long and bitter quarrel over Kashmir.

Week-long firing by Pakistani and Indian forces in the disputed Lathitilla area on the Assam-East Pakistan front ended Friday with observance of a cease-fire on both sides, official sources in New Delhi said.

Ayub's government replied favorably Friday to an Aug. 2 letter from Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai calling for a world summit conference on disarmament and the destruction of nuclear weapons.

It suggested that an Asian-African meeting be called to start machinery to bring about the summit.

EXCLUDE CHINA

The reply declares that the exclusion of Red China from the United Nations deprives Peking of "the legitimate right. . .to participate in negotiations that are in progress" on disarmament in the world organization.

The support for Peking's proposal came one day after Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko proposed in the United Nations that the 18 nations on the U.N. Disarmament Commission hold a summit conference on the same problem. Red China is barred from the commission.

In terms of trade volume, the pact appears to have little significance. But its timing could be regarded as a calculated irritation, particularly against the background of a similar agreement signed with the Red Chinese two weeks ago.

New in the Subdivisions

New Homes Open for Inspection

STORY BY REBA HEINTZELMAN
Pontiac Press Home Editor

As more and more new subdivisions are developed in Oakland County, the trend to "move out" becomes more attractive to home owners because of added extras provided by developers in keen competition.

New model homes feature sunken living rooms, sunken bathtubs, sunken kitchens and playrooms. Dishwashers, garbage disposals and even push-button plumbing are now playing a big part in wooing prospective buyers.

People like to see their future house already up, on larger lots and completely landscaped. The "on-your-lot" builder is finding that a house sells better if it is ready to move into, and they are building personalized houses for various individuals.

For instance, the Howard Keating company has five furnished models on Lahser and Quarton roads open for inspection. Each one symbolizes five different types of decor. Modern, Early American, Provincial, Italian and a mixture of maybe two periods have been designed and furnished accordingly.

Many of the model homes on this page are completely furnished, and the lovely new colors of carpeting, draperies and furniture is well worth the effort of viewing, even though an individual is not ready to buy a new home.

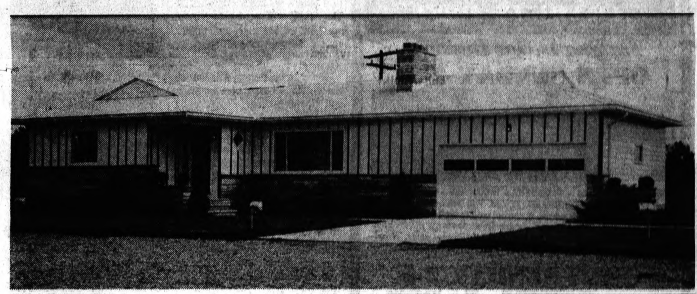
CUSTOM BUILT LUXURY—Southern Colonial architecture is featured in this big $65,900 home built by the Galle Construction Co. Located at 3326 Quarton in Bloomfield Hills, it features three bedrooms upstairs and a master suite with a full bathroom and fireplace on the first floor. There are two stainless steel ovens in the kitchen along with all the other necessary cooking and working units. The living room is 31 feet in length and 18 feet wide. The front of the house is comprised of the living and dining rooms while the entire back has a mammoth family room with a raised hearth fireplace.

THE VICKSBURG — Among five newly furnished homes for sale by the Howard Keating company at Quarton and Lahser roads is this exciting four bedroom Colonial in the $25,900 bracket. It has a traffic plan which saves time, steps and work. It features a majestic foyer with a dramatic circular staircase. All necessary built-ins are provided with a formal living and dining area. This and the other four models can be duplicated either in Peabody Orchards or on your lot.

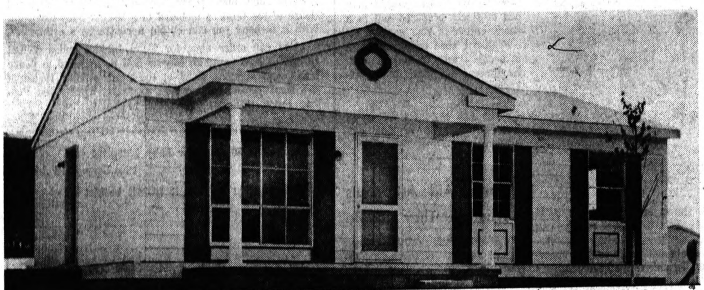
IN WATERFORD TOWNSHIP—This $25,500 furnished model home is located at 2902 Shawnee, on School House Lake and features a sunken living room. There is a large fireplace in the family room, and it has three bedrooms, two baths and a fully tiled floor in the basement. This ranch house has plate glass window-walls on the lakeside. All floors are clear oak. This model can be duplicated by the O'Neil Realty Company, of Beauty-Rite Homes, Inc.

WOODLAKE HILLS MODEL — For those seeking a large comfortable home, J. W. Jaikens & Sons present this model in the $51,000 bracket. It is located on three-quarters acre of ground at 1234 Lake Crescent, Bloomfield Township. The new Colonial features four bedrooms, two and one-half baths, plastered garage, full basement, paneled family room and the necessary kitchen built-ins. Gas heat pumps hot water through the aluminum baseboards. There is a separate dining room and the house boasts 2,990 square feet of living space. The yard is completely landscaped, and viewers may visit the model daily.

HOUSE PLUS LANDSCAPING—The Silver Lake Construction Company has this new $35,000 model open at 2908 Shawnee Lane, Jayno Heights subdivision. There is 2,500 square feet of finished living area situated on a sodded lot facing School House Lake. There are marble sink tops and brass fixtures in the master bathroom of the three-bedroomed house, and ornamental brass fixtures are featured throughout the house. A deluxe den with built-in formica tops and cabinets, a paneled family room with parquet floors and acoustical ceilings are a few of the many features in this model.

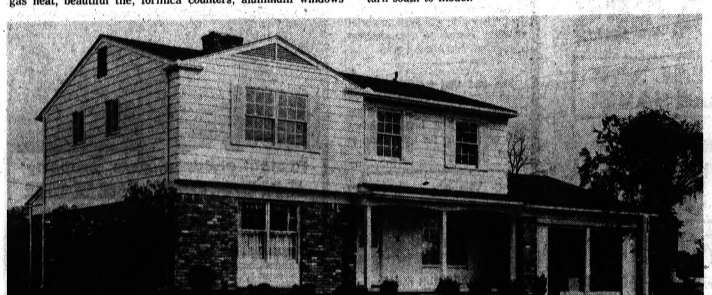


MUCH FOR LITTLE — This little ranch house would be a cinch for a handyman to construct on his own lot for a mere $9,360 pre-cut. Its 1,484 square feet of living area has a two-car garage, three bedrooms, two baths, large foyer, sliding glass doors to a backyard patio and solid oak flooring. Double sinks, cast iron and copper plumbing fixtures, an Armstrong or American Standard furnace, louvred bi-fold closet doors and beautiful lighting fixtures are all included with no money down and monthly payments of $54.91. It is featured by Caddie Homes, Inc., and models can be seen in Clarkston at 9700 Dixie.

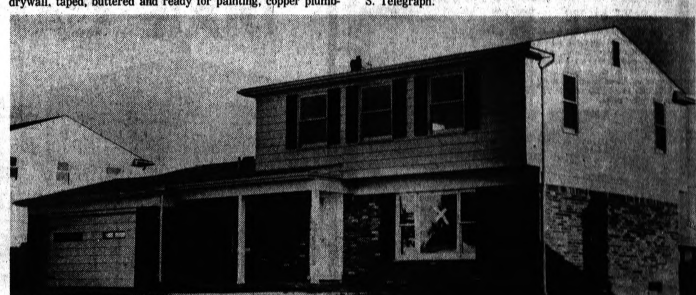


THE "FOREVER HOUSE" — This house and lot are available for only $11,295, with a down payment of $95 and $81 monthly payments thereafter. It has natural wood cabinets, gas heat, beautiful tile, formica counters, aluminum windows and copper plumbing. If you do your own painting and cleaning up, Dlorah builders will pay for the closing costs. To see this house, take Oakland to Baldwin, go east to Maybee and turn south to model.

COMPACT BEAUTY — Anyone can have this little three-room beauty for only $5,990 on his lot. It is not a pre-cut home. Here's what the E-Con-O Built Homes company includes: Concrete slab exterior and interior erection, natural wood cedar shakes siding on one-half inch sheathing, installed drywall, taped, buttered and ready for painting, copper plumbing with bathroom fixtures installed, electric service and fixtures installed, birch cabinets, mahogany doors and bi-fold closet doors installed, gas heating system installed, all finish trim installed, ceiling insulation, installed hot water heater and asphalt tile and mastic supplied. A model can be seen at 2580 S. Telegraph.



"TARRY TOWN" — That's the name of this lovely model home that's loaded with extras. Located in a new $4.5 million development known as Adams Square at Squirrel and Square Lake roads, the Tarry Town is one of four furnished models open for public inspection. The $28,900, four-bedroomed house and lot features a sunken family room and sunken living room. There is a disposal, dishwasher and push-button plumbing, as well as the built-in oven and cooking unit.



WATKINS HILLS HOME — A formal dining room and a large roomy breakfast eating area are only a few attractions in this $25,950 four-bedroom home. It is located on Lorena Drive at Watkins Hills and is presented by Ross Homes, Inc. There is a full basement, and first floor utility room. The big family room has a Colonial fireplace and the kitchen has all Whirlpool built-ins. The house and two car garage is located on an 87 by 130 foot lot and is open from 2 to 5 p. m. daily.
