Johnson Ends All Attacks on N. Viet

Saigon, NLF to Join Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three years and nine months after he started the bombing of North Vietnam, President Johnson has ordered an end to all attacks against that country in the hope this will "lead to progress" in ending the war in Southeast Asia.

Announcing his decision last night, the President said he acted with the full support of his military chiefs and diplomatic officials, with the agreement of South Vietnam, and upon "confirmation" from North Vietnam of "the essential understanding" of U.S. terms for his action.

NEW PHASE

Johnson started the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965. At the heart of the deal he made to bring it to an end is an agreement that the Paris peace talks will enter a new phase next Wednesday.

At that time representatives of both the South Vietnamese government and its enemy, the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam take their places at the negotiating table.

★ ★ ★

The Johnson order injected a dramatic new element into the presidential election contest less than a week before the voters go to the polls.

Political observers said it could give a lift to Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey's campaign, although it might have come too late to make much difference in voter opinion.

NOTIFIED AT 6 P.M.

Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon, third party candidate George C. Wallace, and Humphrey all said after Johnson's television-radio broadcast they hoped the step would mean progress in the Paris peace talks.

Johnson had notified all of them of his decision about 6 p.m., two hours before he went on the air.

Johnson himself, obviously aware of speculation that he might time a bombing halt to help Humphrey, declared that the action was determined by responses from North Vietnam to his terms.

He said these began developing Sunday night and continued through Monday.

A round of consultations within the government and with South Vietnam followed, and he made the final decision to order that "all air, naval, and artillery bombardment of North Vietnam cease as of 8:00 a.m., Washington time, Friday morning."

Informants said North Vietnam was officially notified of the decision.

★ ★ ★

Johnson warned that his arrangements with North Vietnam are not foolproof and he held open by implication the possibility the bombing would be resumed if the North Vietnamese went on the offensive.

"We could be misled — and we are prepared for such a contingency," he said. "We pray to God it does not occur."

The President did not say specifically why he thought the North Vietnamese had finally decided to make terms on ending the bombing, but he suggested that they might have acted because they no longer saw a chance of victory in South Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

He said the Saigon government had "grown steadily stronger" that South Vietnam's army was increased to a million men, and that U.S. troops under Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, Jr., and his predecessor, Gen. William C. Westmoreland have "produced truly remarkable results."

'POSSIBLE FACTORS'

"Perhaps some, or all, of these factors, played a part in bringing about progress in the Paris talks," Johnson said.

Serious negotiations on the bombing issue began during the second week in October after the North Vietnamese in Paris began to ask direct and obviously interested questions about what Johnson had in mind.

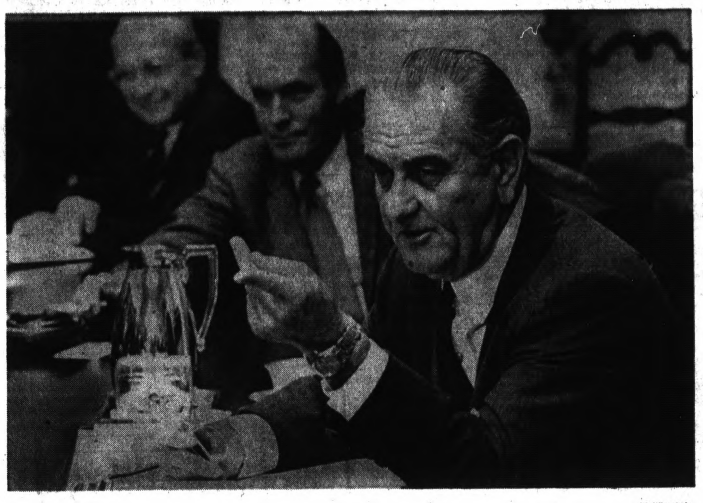

★ ★ ★

On at least two occasions — about Oct. 16 and again last week — there were worldwide expectations that a bombing halt was only hours away. They did not develop. Officials now say hard bargaining with Hanoi was then under way.

Johnson said he had reached his decision "in the belief that this action can lead to progress toward a peaceful settlement of the Vietnamese war." But again he tempered his hopes with warning.

"It should be clear to all of us that the new phase of negotiations which opens on Nov. 6th does not, repeat does not, mean that a stable peace has yet come to Southeast Asia.

LBJ ADVISERS GET WORD — President Johnson's advisers get word of his order to halt all attacks on North Vietnam at a meeting of the National Security Council last night in Washington. Doves Happy, Hawks Wary; Humphrey's Hopes Boosted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic and Republican strategists agreed, at least privately, today that the decision to halt bombing of North Vietnam gave Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign a lift.

But few were willing to hazard a guess on whether the lift was enough—or in time — to put Humphrey over the top Tuesday against Republican Richard M. Nixon.

★ ★ ★

The decision drew generally favorable reaction from doves, but was greeted with skepticism by some hawks.

Related Stories, Pages A-2, A-3, A-9, A-13

Among the three major presidential candidates, Republican Richard M. Nixon declined to comment beyond saying he hoped the action "may bring some progress" in the Paris peace talks.

'PEACE IS CLOSER' — HHH

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic candidate, said the action was "very meaningful, very hopeful" and added, "Peace is closer tonight — thank God!"

Third-party candidate George C. Wallace said, "I hope and pray" that the halt will bring an early and honorable peace in Southeast Asia "so we can bring the American servicemen home."

Congressional doves saw the halt as the opening of a path to peace while hawks questioned stopping the bombing without specific assurances on reciprocal action from North Vietnam.

Sen. John M. Stennis, D-Miss., ranking Democrat on the Senate Armed Services Committee, said, "We should be able to judge their good intentions within two days, and unless this is shown, I think we should resume and step up the bombing."

DEM DOVES HAPPY

On the other hand, three of the leading Democrats who had opposed administration Vietnam policy expressed pleasure over the move. Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas and George S. McGovern of South Dakota all said the halt probably would speed peace talks.

One thing appeared certain: Unless the North Vietnamese reject Johnson's test of "good faith" with a major military action before Tuesday, each voter will cast his ballot with the knowledge a glimmer of peace in Vietnam has been offered.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson coupled his announcement that he is stopping the limited bombing with the cautious report that "progress has come" at long last in the Paris peace talks.

There was a general feeling that Hanoi, having gained a bombing halt without any public commitment of reciprocity, would be careful not to upset before the Tuesday election the secret "confirmation of general understanding" that Johnson said had been reached.

No Sign That War Will Ease in South

SAIGON (AP) — American air, naval and artillery bombardment of all of North Vietnam ended tonight on President Johnson's orders, the U.S. Command announced, but it said there would be no letup in operations in South Vietnam.

The Vietcong showed no sign of de-escalation in the South.

In the 12 hours before President Johnson's broadcast announcing the bombing halt, an enemy mine blew holes in a U.S. Navy LST and killed 16 American sailors and a South Vietnamese, rocket attacks killed 33 Vietnamese civilians in Saigon and Hue, and 69 North Vietnamese and 12 Americans were killed in fighting north of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

★ ★ ★

American warplanes continued raids on North Vietnam's southern panhandle today but were ordered to quit the skies north of the demilitarized zone before 9 p.m., or 8 a.m. EST, the hour Johnson set for all attacks on North Vietnam to be halted.

Four hours before the President's broadcast, explosions tore open the side of the 384-foot LST Westchester County as she swung at anchor in the My Tho River 34 miles southwest of Saigon. The blasts ripped into the landing craft's sleeping compartment, killing or wounding most of the men as they slept.

In addition to the 17 known dead, 22 Americans were wounded, and seven Americans and one Vietnamese army interpreter were missing.

Little more than two hours before President Johnson's broadcast, Vietcong gunners slammed a 100-pound rocket into a small Roman Catholic Church in the Saigon dock area, killing 19 worshipers and wounding 64.

Firing from the southern outskirts of Saigon, the Vietcong shelled the capital three times last night and this morning, presumably as a gesture of contempt for South Vietnam's National Day observance today. Military spokesmen said 23 South Vietnamese civilians were killed and 78 wounded.

U.S. Command Muzzles Its GIs on Peace Move

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command in Vietnam muzzled its GIs today after President Johnson's bombing halt announcement, but the President's action aroused little enthusiasm.

The order went out from Gen. Creighton Abrams' headquarters to make no comment on the decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam. A spokesman said the order was issued in accordance with a directive barring members of the armed forces from voicing opinions on political matters or other things outside their competence. He said the bombing halt was a political matter, not military.

★ ★ ★

Before the directive was issued, however, newsmen gathered opinions from a number of soldiers. Much of the comment was adverse.

★ ★ ★

Many expressed fear that after seven years of fighting and 29,000 American dead, the United States might settle for a peace that would let the Communists take over Vietnam. None thought the pace of the war would slow down.

Greek Leader Dies in Athens

ATHENS (AP) — George Papandreou, a storm center in Greek politics for more than half a century and a leading foe of the present dictatorship, died early today at the age of 80. Despite his opposition to the military regime, it will give him a state funeral Saturday.

He had undergone emergency surgery yesterday morning for a perforated ulcer and came through satisfactorily. But shortly before 2 a.m. today he developed a brain clot and died 30 minutes later.

★ ★ ★

His son Andreas, the chief target of the military coup 18 months ago, is in exile in Stockholm.

The elder Papandreou formed the Democratic Socialist party in 1936 but was exiled a year later by dictator John Metaxas. After the general's death, he returned to Greece, only to be imprisoned by the invading Nazis.

★ ★ ★

Papandreou escaped in 1944 to Cairo where he set up a government in exile and returned to Greece to become the country's first postwar premier.

Papandreou formed the Center Union party in 1961 and in 1963 his party scored an upset victory but was forced out of office two years later.

★ ★ ★

Papandreou kept the political situation in turmoil and in the spring of 1967 it looked as if he had a good chance to return to power in elections scheduled for May. A junta of colonels overthrew the caretaker government in April to prevent this and arrested both George Papandreou and Andreas.

Romney Leery of Dem Motives

DETROIT (AP) —Gov. Romney today urged voters not to be "brainwashed" by the bombing halt in Vietnam and suggested it might be merely a Democratic campaign tactic.

"Why the bombing halt just before election?" Romney asked.

★ ★ ★

The Republican governor, who earlier drew criticism for saying he has been brainwashed on the Vietnam issue, also urged voters to ask themselves:

"Did the North Vietnamese make any reciprocal military commitments? Are the North Vietnamese trying to influence the election? Have they concluded they can do better fighting and bargaining with LBJ's pupil, Hubert Humphrey, than with Dwight Eisenhower's pupil, Dick Nixon?"

'WE DON'T KNOW'

"We don't know," Romney said, "so don't risk being brainwashed again." He added that in view of the bombing pause, "We don't know what the risk is to our boys."

Romney's statement was issued by his office in Lansing prior to a press conference, which the governor called in Detroit.

Summer Returns a Few More Days

November arrived at midnight with skies clear and the temperature a mild 47.

The U.S. Weather Bureau is giving us another fling at summer temperatures. Here is the official forecast for the weekend:

TODAY — Mostly sunny and warmer, the high 66 to 72. Partly cloudy tonight and mild with chance of showers. The low is expected to be 48 to 52.

TOMORROW — Partly cloudy and a little cooler, with an expected high of 58 to 64.

SUNDAY — Partly cloudy and cooler. Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: 10 today, 30 tonight and 20 tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

The thermometer registered a low of 47 prior to 8 a.m. today. By 2 p.m. the mercury climbed near 72.

South Viet's Presence at Talks Faces Delay

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman said today the South Vietnamese government may not be physically ready to join the expanded peace conference in Paris next week.

And, he added in a radio and television broadcast, "We cannot discuss the future of South Vietnam without (their) presence."

★ ★ ★

But the chief American delegate at the peace talks here expressed hope a representative of President Nguyen Van Thieu's government—which has displayed concern at the U.S. bomb halt—will in fact attend the scheduled Wednesday meeting here.

The American diplomat cautioned against expecting "too rapid results" in the new phase of the peace talks. These will include envoys of South Vietnam's Communist-led National Liberation Front—as well as the Americans and North Vietnamese.

DECIDE OWN FUTURE

Harriman said the extended conference will permit "the people of South Vietnam to decide on their own future without outside interference."

As he saw it, the first order of business would be problems of procedure, then of agenda.

★ ★ ★

It had been agreed, he said, that both sides would be free to raise "any question they wish" at the conference. This suggested the conference lineup would be the North Vietnamese and Vietcong on one side of the table and the United States and Saigon on the opposite side.

The matter of a cease-fire in South Vietnam, Harriman commented, would be "a final step" in the negotiations. He did not elaborate.

Chinese Reds Purge President

TOYKO (AP) — The Chinese Communist party has voted to expel President Liu Shao-chi from the party and "dismiss him from all his posts both inside and outside it" as well as "continue to settle accounts with him and his accomplices," a Peking report said today.

Hsinhua (New China) News Agency said the action was taken at an extraordinary meeting of the Communist party Central Committee that began Oct. 13 and ended yesterday.

★ ★ ★

This was the first meeting of the committee since the start of the cultural revolution, or purge, that party Chairman Mao Tse-tung launched in August 1966, against Liu and his supporters.

The conference officially singled out Liu by name for the first time in giving approval to Mao's policy, the agency said.

★ ★ ★

Mao presided over the session and made "a most important speech," followed by one by his heir apparent, Defense Minister Lin Piao, the agency added.

A conference communique, distributed by Hsinhua, denounced Liu as a "renegade, traitor and scab."

Navy Ponders Recovery of Scorpion's Fragments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy said today it is questionable whether an effort will be made to retrieve pieces of the nuclear submarine Scorpion it located Thursday two miles beneath the Atlantic about 400 miles south of the Azores.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chief of naval operations, announced yesterday the Navy oceanographic research ship Mizar had confirmed the Scorpion's location in more than 10,000 feet of water "by means of remotely controlled photography."

The discovery climaxed a massive sea search of more than five months since the submarine disappeared with its crew of 99 while heading home from a Mediterranean exercise.

The Navy said the Mizar would remain on the scene, trying to locate and photograph additional parts of the submarine's hull, and then return to port with its photographs. The pictures then will be flown to Norfolk, Va., and to Washington for study.

OVERDUE MAY 27

The Scorpion was reported overdue at Norfolk May 27, six days after its last message reporting its speed and position about 250 miles south of the Azores.

★ ★ ★

There was virtually no hope for the crew — 12 officers and 88 enlisted men — since the Scorpion would have been crushed like an eggshell long before sinking the two miles to where it is now believed to be.

★ ★ ★

The pressure at 10,000 feet is about 4,400 pounds per square inch, compared with 14.7 pounds at sea level.

Man Charged in Shotgunning

A Waterford Township man who allegedly shot at three high school girls he thought were going to bombard his house with eggs has been charged with assault with intent to murder.

Elwyn E. Tripp, 45, of 2551 Voorheis was arrested yesterday and arraigned before Justice Kenneth H. Hempstead. Tripp stood mute and was freed on a $5,000 personal bond. His preliminary examination is scheduled Dec. 12.

★ ★ ★

Five girls were approaching Tripp's house Wednesday night when they were surprised by a man with a gun who told them to stop, according to police.

The girls ran. Three jumped into a car which was then riddled with 16-guage shotgun pellets. None of the girls was hit.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

The car's rear and right side windows were shattered and the auto was struck in the front by the shots, police said.

Police said Tripp was possibly enraged because he said he had been "egged" and thought he was shooting at boys who did it. The shooting occurred "some distance from Tripp's house" police said.

Weather Cooled It

October Sunny and Dry

Twenty-eight days of sunshine warmed Oakland County residents in October leaving a month with more sunshine and less snow and rainfall than the previous year's October.

High mercury reading of 81 degrees was reached Oct. 14 and 15, five degrees cooler than the high of October '67. The thermometer slid to a brisk low of 28 on Oct. 30 to tie with the previous October's low.

★ ★ ★

Last month's mean temperature of 53.1 degrees was 3.1 degrees warmer than October '67. The U.S. Weather Bureau lists the area's average mean temperature for October at 53.8 degrees.

Total monthly rainfall of 1.2 inches compared to last October's soggy total of 3.75 inches and the month's average total of 1.63 inches.

7 RAINY DAYS

Rain chased sunshine away on seven days during the month with the greatest accumulation (.3 inch) falling Oct. 6. Snow flurries filled the skies the morning of Oct. 29 with the lacy flakes melting as soon as they hit the warm ground.

If October is any criterion, The Farmer's Almanac for 1969 may well be right with its prediction of a mild winter for the area.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Showers are forecast for tonight in eastern Texas and Louisiana. It will be cooler in the Mississippi Valley and warmer in the Atlantic Coast states.

New Bomb Halt Is 10th by U.S.

By The Associated Press

The U.S. bombing campaign against north Vietnam began on Feb. 7, 1965.

It had been halted or curtailed on 10 previous occasions —

- May 13 to May 17, 1965, in hope of a reciprocal move from North Vietnam. There was no such move.
- Dec. 24, 1965, the beginning of the usual Christmas truce, to Jan. 31, 1966.
- Dec. 24-25, 1966, Christmas truce.

- Dec. 31, 1966, Jan. 1, 1967, New Year's truce.
- Feb. 8-14, 1967, observance of Tet, Vietnam's lunar new year festival.
- May 23, 1967, observance of Buddha's birth anniversary.

- Dec. 25, 1967, Christmas truce.
- Dec. 31, 1967, Jan. 1, 1968, New Year's truce.
- Jan. 29, 1968, U.S. Command ordered 36-hour bombing pause for Tet. Pause canceled next morning because of Viet Cong attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

★ ★ ★

- March 31, 1968, President Johnson announced a bombing halt in an area north of the 20th parallel including "90 percent of North Vietnam's population and most of its territory." This curtailment was followed by the agreement for the Paris peace talks.
- April 7, 1968, U.S. military sources in Saigon said U.S. units had been ordered to bomb no further north than the 19th parallel.

$1-Million Offer to LBJ

NEW YORK (AP) — At least one publishing firm has offered President Johnson an advance in excess of $1 million for his memoirs, the New York Times reported today.

★ ★ ★

The offer was understood to be based on the condition that the first volume of the work deal with the major decisions in his administration, especially those concerning the Vietnam war, the Times said.

Birmingham Area

Architect Unit for Michigan Picks Director

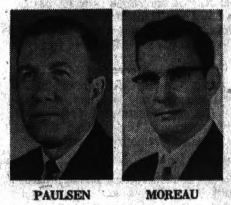

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Glen Paulsen, 24 Academy Way, has been elected to a two-year term as a director of the Michigan Society of Architects.

He is president of Cranbrook Academy of Art, heads the academy's architecture department, and has his own architectural firm, Glen Paulsen and Associates.

In 1965, Paulen's firm was named one of the six winning firms from throughout the country in Dow Chemical's architectural award competition for the Life Sciences Building at the University of Detroit.

Also in June, 1965, Paulsen was recipient of the award of merit in the honors award program of the Detroit Chapter, American Institute of Architects, for the completed Shapero Hall of Pharmacy at Wayne State University.

PAULSEN — MOREAU

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Victor A. Moreau, 510 Rolling Rock, has been appointed as branch service manager of Burroughs Corp.'s Detroit Central branch sales office.

As branch service manager, Moreau has full responsibility for all service activities within the branch.

Moreau formerly served as branch manager in Huntsville, Ala. and Boston, and has been product evaluation analyst, machine analyst, field project serviceman.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The First Congregational Church of Birmingham, 1000 Cranbrook, will sponsor a Red Cross Bloodmobile Monday from 3 - 9 p.m.

To maintain its commitment to 108 hospitals in the tricounty metropolitan area, it is necessary for the Red Cross to collect 350 to 400 units of blood each day of operation.

Appointments may be made by calling the church.

Bomb Halt Decision Hailed by Humphrey

DETROIT (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said President Johnson's decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam helps "the cause of peace. This is going to help people. I don't think it has much to do with candidates as such."

Humphrey had been asked Thursday night if the decision would help his Democratic presidential candidacy.

Later, arriving in Battle Creek for a rally, Humphrey said, "Tonight I feel more deeply serious about the nature of this campaign than ever before, because of developments that have taken place that your President announced."

Humphrey told newsmen he had decided himself not to take his place at the National Security Council meeting that preceded Johnson's announcement.

NO PARTIALITY

"I am a candidate," he said. "I didn't feel that it was appropriate for me when other candidates cannot be there . . . I want no political implications whatsoever."

Thus, Humphrey was informed of the decision in a conference telephone call from Johnson to an Elizabeth, N.J. hotel. Republican Richard M. Nixon and third-party candidate George C. Wallace listened from their stops along the campaign trail.

★ ★ ★

Humphrey sat wordlessly in his automobile at the Newark Airport, before boarding his campaign plane, listening to the President's announcement on the radio about an hour after the phone call.

Then he spoke to reporters from the ramp of the plane.

BACKS BOMBING HALT

"I fully support the action undertaken by the President, as I am sure the vast majority of the American people will support it . . . He has made a very prudent and, I think wise, decision."

Humphrey indicated the bombing pause would not affect his campaign style in the few days remaining before the election.

"I have not felt that I could contribute to the progress of negotiations, which are close to my heart, by partisan debate about Vietnam," he said. "I have had to take my fair share of abuse on this matter, but that's part of the job."

Humphrey received some of that abuse in Battle Creek several hours later, most of the crowd was made up of supporters who gave him an enthusiastic reception.

STUDENT HECKLERS

"Why do you kill Americans, you pig?" a 19-year-old student screamed as Humphrey was speaking.

The crowd shouted him down and someone grabbed him; but Humphrey raised a placating hand and said, "Let the young man speak. Let him be heard."

★ ★ ★

The student muttered something about the war and was led out of the auditorium.

"Every man is entitled to his point of view," Humphrey called after him. "But I just wish he'd address me by my right name, that's all."

Humphrey speaks at a Detroit suburban rally today, then flies to Illinois for rallies in Peoria and Rockford before a candlelight parade and stadium rally in Chicago.

Zolton Vows Shake-Up of Dem Ranks

LANSING (UPI) — The atmosphere of sweet reasonableness that has prevailed in the Michigan Democratic party since its state convention in early September was jolted Thursday — only four days before the election.

Zolton A. Ferency, former state chairman, loosened a blast against the party officialdom and vowed to try to shake up the structure at this winter's convention.

★ ★ ★

"We're going to have to reform the Democratic party," said Ferency in a surprise statement. "We need to ventilate it, open its ranks, let new people and new ideas in it."

Ferency, a Michigan leader of Sen. Eugene McCarthy's ill-fated presidential campaign, said his criticism was prompted by a request from party officials that he endorse Hubert H. Humphrey.

TURNED DOWN

He said he was asked to permit use of his name on campaign material backing Humphrey but that he turned the request down flat.

Strangely, Ferency is a presidential elector for Humphrey and may be forced to cast his electoral ballot for the vice president whether he likes it or not.

★ ★ ★

The McCarthyites had threatened a revolt at the September Democratic assembly in Grand Rapids but dropped the idea after the convention adopted a compromise Vietnam platform plank that satisfied much of the opposition to the regular party leadership.

Since that time, some of the main McCarthy backers in the state have given their endorsement to Humphrey, or his running mate, Sen. Edmund Muskie.

Lapeer County Neighbors Must Pick 5 Supervisors

Voters in neighboring portions of Lapeer County will choose five supervisors, a state representative and a Congressman in Tuesday's election.

* * *

Ervin Haskill (R), 2269 Haynes, opposes Donald Thwing (D), 3621 Bowers, for county supervisor in District 3, which includes Lapeer and Elba townships.

* * *

In District 4, the City of Lapeer, Richard J. Bahls (R), 930 N. Main, is unopposed.
In the supervisor's race in District 5, which includes Hadley Township, are Edgar Miteen (R), 5067 Brigham, and Gerald St. John (D), 2181 Hasler Lake.

UNOPPOSED

Donald Seigers (R), 7245 Imlay City, is unopposed for supervisor of District 6, which includes Imlay and Attica townships.
In District 7, which includes Almont, Dryden and Metamora townships, Paul Herpolsheimer Jr. (R), 6400 Hall, Dryden, is unopposed.

* * *

Democrat William R. Blue, Flint, opposes Republican Donald W. Riegle, Flint, for representative in the 7th congressional district, including all of Lapeer County and part of Flint.

*

Roy L. Spencer (R), Attica, is unopposed in the state representative race in the 78th District, including Lapeer County and part of Tuscola and Huron counties.

Macomb Voters Face Decision on Several Offices

Macomb County voters in neighboring districts will elect supervisors, state representatives and a national representative in Tuesday's election.
Max B. Harris Jr. (R) opposes James G. O'Hara (D) in the 12th Congressional district.

In the 17th district state representative race in Macomb County are Allen F. Rush (R) and Thomas Guastello (D).
In District 9, which includes the City of Utica and Shelby Township, Morton J. Kripke (R) opposes Joseph Plutter (D) for a two-year supervisor position.

* * *

Jerome E. Schoof (R) and James J. Johnstone (D) oppose each other for supervisor in District 10, including Washington, Bruce, Richland and Armada townships.

Thief Hits Oxford Firm

OXFORD — A thief broke a window at Kessler's Auto Sales, 10 N. Washington, early this morning and reportedly took $600 to $700 from a hiding place in the building. Police discovered the break-in at 4:50 a. m. and are continuing an investigation.

'M' Heart Patient Better

ANN ARBOR (AP) — Some six weeks after his historic heart transplant operation at University Hospital in Ann Arbor, 49-year-old Philip Barnum of Kalamazoo continues his recovery, but with no estimate of when he will leave the hospital.

Novi Twp. Thwarted in Fighting Cityhood

NOVI — The State Supreme Court has denied a Novi Township attempt to bypass the Court of Appeals in its effort to reverse an Oakland County Circuit Court decision made in December 1966.
The township's case, now pending before the State Court of Appeals, asks an injunction that, in effect, would throw out a successful cityhood vote last May.

* * *

The township claims the cityhood vote should not have been held because the petitions to hold the election were invalid.

YEAR-LONG FIGHT

The township's legal battle to thwart incorporation of the 32-square mile village of Novi into a home-rule city has been in progress for over a year.

* * *

Village voters approved incorporation in a May election by a margin of about 200 votes of a total of 1,192.

* * *

On the same ballot a nine-member city charter commission was elected to draft and submit a proposed charter for future voter approval.

* * *

The charter was completed last August but the commission is allowed two years before submitting it to a public vote. No election date has been set.

TWICE REJECTED

In the past, village residents twice rejected proposals for cityhood, the first time in 1959 and again in 1962. But now the process is in motion. Barring a decision by the state court of appeals reversing the decision of Circuit Judge William J. Beer denying the injunction, steps for cityhood will continue.

Variety of Propositions

Many Issues to Be Decided

A variety of ballot propositions will face Pontiac area voters when they go to the polls Tuesday in the general election.
The proposals include a road millage, open housing advisory question, civil service for selected employes and a millage for a police department.
The areas and the ballot proposals are:

* * *

TROY — An advisory vote askes whether voters here think the U.S. Constitution should be amended to establish a presidential primary and eliminate the electoral college.

* * *

COMMERCE TOWNSHIP — Two propositions are on the ballot here. The first asks voters to renew the 2-mill extra-voted levy for five years for road improvements, while the second question asks whether police and fire should come under the civil service.

* * *

HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP — Proposed is a one-mill levy for establishing, equipping and maintaining a township police department. The authorization would last for 10 years.

* * *

FARMINGTON — Voters will decide on an amendment to the city's charter proposing changes in pensions for police and firemen. The amendment will permit the increase of member's straight life pension by .2 per cent of final average salary times years of credited service; provide for voluntary retirement at age 55 and permit payment of deferred benefits at voluntary retirement age (62). The pension increase would also be extended to present retirants.

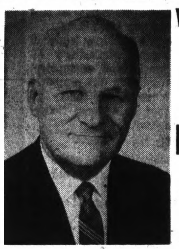

* * *

PONTIAC TOWNSHIP — A yes or no vote is asked on whether the annual township meeting should be abolished.

* * *

SHELBY TOWNSHIP — An advisory question asks voters whether the township should adopt a local fair housing ordinance. The issue was put on the ballot by the Township Board.

Tax Probe Thwarts Unit in Highland

HIGHLAND TOWNSHIP — The Highland Township Tax Association has found itself at least temporarily thwarted by the results of a tax probe it initiated here.

Prosecutor S. Jerome Bronson announced yesterday, "After evaluating the field investigation, conducted by Michigan State Police, claimed evidence, and the criminal law of the State of Michigan, we conclude that there is insufficient evidence to establish a violation of appropriate criminal statutes."

★ ★ ★

Max B. Johnson, chairman of the group, said however that the state attorney general's office had been approached on conducting another investigation and "indications are," he said "that something will be done."

The Oakland County prosecutor's office and the Michigan State Police have for the last 13 months had under investigation alleged inequitable assessing procedure — including charges that some property is not even carried on the tax rolls.

★ ★ ★

Supervisor Louis F. Oldenburg, assessing officer of the township, has contended throughout the investigation that there are no tax inequities. He has admitted however that lack of adequate personnel has prevented assessments from keeping up with all construction.

GETTING UP THERE—Ray Baber's mailbox at 95 Indianwood, Orion Township, towers over its neighbors. Baber has obviously complied with the new Lake Orion Post Office requirement to elevate mailboxes 5 feet, 7 inches from ground to top of box.

Troy Historical Museum Seeking Display Items

TROY — The City Historical Commission is soliciting items from citizens to add to the historical museum's collection.

★ ★ ★

A collection of Indian weapons and tools, loaned by Carl Schuelke, are on display.

Early records, documents, pictures, maps, magazines and books also contribute to the growing library.

The museum in the old city hall at 60 W. Wattles, is open Tuesdays and Thursdays from 1 to 4 p.m. Arrangements to open the museum at other times for group tours may be made by calling the museum chairman, Mrs. W. D. Bollinger.

New Heights Scaled

Mail Pickup Elevating

By JEAN SAILE

Mail collection in the Lake Orion postal system is elevating.

Getting right out of the reach of small people, it would seem.

★ ★ ★

Rural delivery mailbox poles are rising all across the nation, but it appears they've peaked out in the community to the north.

Five foot 7 inches from ground to top of the box is the directive there for people whose mail delivery is motorized.

HIGH NORM

Fifty inches appears to be the norm in such areas as Drayton Plains, Clarkston and Auburn Heights despite the fact that the Post Office manual requires boxes to be only three-and-a-half to four feet above the roadway.

Why the sudden upsurge in mailbox height?

★ ★ ★

Because the Postal Department — federal, that is — had built to specification some 6,000 step-up vans to replace 1960 models used by postal departments throughout the country.

And the step-up was way up — both in height and maintenance. And it's affected virtually every Post Office and rural mail patron in the United States.

BUSY GARAGE

Floyd W. Gilson, superintendent of the Pontiac motor vehicle maintenance facility admits the new vehicles are not the most practical for the job and that they are equipped with built-in mechanical and design defects. He said his garage has been pretty busy.

★ ★ ★

A mailbox position at 5 feet 7 inches allows the driver to reach directly out of his window to deposit mail in the receptacle, he said. Anything lower means a bend.

But with a 5 feet 7 inch mailbox, you're going to have to send a stepladder out with junior if you expect him to bring home the goods. If you live in the Lake Orion area — that is.

And at 5 feet 7 inches the postal department might have some trouble with its extended rearview mirror, thinks Clyde Smith, customer relations man with the Pontiac Post Office.

LOOKING BACKWARDS

That rearview mirror is important, for with the very small high window at the back of the van one of the big complaints is that a driver cannot possibly tell if a child is walking there.

★ ★ ★

The Orion Area Jaycees have dropped the problem into the hands of Congressman Jack McDonald.

Little hope is foreseen. As Gilson puts it, "We've got them and we're stuck with them (the new vans) and so is the rest of the country."

School Budget Hearing Monday

Pontiac Press Recommendations to Guide Oakland County Voters

Many voters have a few personal candidates in mind. Some have a fairly long list. But very few of us know all the office seekers.

Hence, The Pontiac Press has studied each of the following contests and essayed to come up with recommendations for those who want help or guidance.

We have no irons in the fire. We have no relatives running for office. If you want information from a source that has investigated, read the following. If you have firm convictions on each office, this won't interest you.

Confining our recommendations to office seekers identified with the Oakland County area and its citizenry, we lead off with Congressional candidates. In our opinion, incumbents William S. Broomfield (R) and Jack McDonald (R) have proved outstanding legislators and should be retained in office. Broomfield (18th District) is seeking his seventh term. McDonald (19th District) his second.

★ ★ ★

For the Michigan House of Representatives, our approval goes to:

Clifford H. Smart (R) incumbent, 60th District (Walled Lake).

Loren D. Anderson (R) incumbent, 61st District (Waterford Twp.).

Arthur J. Law (D), seeking sixth term, 62nd District. Law has served his Pontiac constituency capably and conscientiously, and well merits continuation in office.

Donald E. Bishop (R), incumbent, 63rd District (Avon Twp.). Bishop has strongly supported Oakland University's fiscal program, but has been equally forceful in opposing the County's progressive plan for development of the Oakland-Orion Airport. Rating him plus on his first position, minus on the second, we nonetheless support his bid for a second term.

William P. Hampton (R), incumbent, 65th District (Bloomfield Hills). He is one of the brightest young Representatives in the Legislature whose political star is in the ascendancy.

★ ★ ★

COUNTY OFFICES:

For CLERK-REGISTER OF DEEDS, we suggest Lynn D. Allen (R), a highly-regarded Pontiac professional man. His background and sound judgment well qualify him for this important office.

Our choice for TREASURER is C. Hugh Dohany (R). To other solid qualifications his experience as Treasurer of Southfield adds stature.

Daniel W. Barry (R) seeks his fourth term as DRAIN COMMISSIONER, and has well earned it. The experience he has gained and his excellent conduct of the office should weigh heavily with voters.

One of the most demanding County offices is that of SHERIFF. It has been admirably filled for six terms by Frank W. Irons (R) who stands for reelection. We strongly recommend it.

No County office ranks higher in importance than that of PROSECUTOR. One filling it should have a firm legal background, maturity of judgment, and broad community experience. Richard D. Kuhn (R) of Pontiac combines these qualifications, and The Press supports him wholeheartedly.

★ ★ ★

COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS:

Our preferences for the governing body of the County are:

Paul E. Kasper (R), District 3, (Bloomfield Twp.).

John H. Gilmore (D), District 4 (Birmingham).

Delos Hamlin (R), District 17 (Farmington). He has served as supervisor since 1942 and been elected board chairman for a record 13 terms. Hamlin is an outstanding public official whose services the community is fortunate to have.

Christian F. Powell (R), District 18 (West Bloomfield Twp.).

Jerome K. Barry (R), District 19 (Pontiac).

Leslie H. Dean (R), District 20 (Pontiac). He served as Pontiac postmaster for a number of years and is well grounded in public service.

Victor Woods (R), District 21 (Pontiac).

Mahlon A. Benson Jr. (R), District 24 (Waterford Twp.).

E. Frank Richardson (R), District 25 (Waterford Twp.).

William L. Mainland (D), District 26 (Milford Twp.). He is an incumbent who last year was elected chairman of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments (COG).

★ ★ ★

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION:

To fill two places on this important board, we endorse James Ten Brink (R) and Michael Deeb (D), both seeking first elective terms.

★ ★ ★

UNIVERSITY GOVERNING BOARDS:

For the University of Michigan, we support Republicans Fred C. Matthaei Jr. and Lawrence Lindemer; for Michigan State University, Republican Richard Ernst and Democrat Warren M. Huff, incumbent; and for Wayne State University, Republican Victor Raviolo and Democrat Augustus J. Calloway.

★ ★ ★

NONPARTISAN STATE SUPREME COURT JUSTICE:

Our choice is incumbent Michael D. O'Hara.

★ ★ ★

NONPARTISAN STATE COURT OF APPEALS JUDGE, SECOND DISTRICT:

We favor the candidacy of John F. Foley.

★ ★ ★

NONPARTISAN DISTRICT JUDGES:

The Press supports:

For District 48 (Bloomfield-West Bloomfield Twps.), Alice L. Gilbert and Gus Cifelli.

For District 50 (Pontiac), Cecil B. McCallum, for 14 years a judge of the Pontiac Municipal Court; and David E. Utley, a local practicing attorney for more than 30 years.

For District 51 (Waterford Twp.), Kenneth H. Hempstead or Robert Anderson. Both candidates are qualified, and voters would not go astray in marking their ballots for either.

★ ★ ★

STATE PROPOSALS:

No. 1—We suggest a "No" vote on the proposal to remove restriction on graduated State income tax.

No. 2—We are opposed to the continuation of Daylight Saving Time, and would again vote "No."

No. 3—We urge a "Yes" vote on the proposal to enable the State to borrow $335 million to fight pollution—one of the most insidious threats to community well-being.

No. 4—In view of our support of Proposal No. 3 and the large amount of indebtedness it entails, we reluctantly vote "No" on the proposal to borrow $100 million for recreational purposes.

No. 5—We suggest a "No" vote on the proposal to permit legislators to seek other state offices.

★ ★ ★

COUNTY PROPOSAL:

Because the office of County Coroner was structured for the horse-and-buggy days of the Country, The Press urges approval of the proposal to abolish it in favor of a modern, efficient County Medical Examiner setup.

★ ★ ★

We have submitted our choices of candidates for the various public offices that directly affect you as a citizen. Whether you vote for all, some or none of them is relatively unimportant.

But it is important that you VOTE. The upcoming election is perhaps one of the most crucial in the Nation's history. No good American will let his Country down by staying home on election day.

'Let's See, You Are Probably, Almost, Maybe, Just About, Approximately, So Many Pounds!'

David Lawrence Says:

Editors Sure of Nixon Landslide

WASHINGTON — Newspaper editors are certainly familiar with voter trends in their own communities and are in a good position to receive information from other parts of their own state about the probable outcome of a presidential election.

LAWRENCE

This correspondent sent letters to the managing editors of 1,623 daily newspapers throughout the country. Each one was asked to indicate whether his state was "certain" for or "leaning" toward Humphrey, Nixon or Wallace.

Assurance was given that the names of none of the newspapers or the managing editors would be used in the published tabulation.

A similar questionnaire was sent out in the last four presidential elections, and each proved to be an accurate prediction of the final result.

8.5 PER CENT

From the 1,623 letters mailed out to reach the managing editors on Oct. 21, replies were received by Oct. 31 from 1,373, or a return of 84.5 per cent.

This is unusually high for any questionnaire, though approximately the same percentage was registered in the four previous polls of managing editors.

★ ★ ★

From only five states was the return less than 75 per cent, and there was a 100 per cent return from six states.

In such populous states as Illinois, Massachusetts, Michigan, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Texas, at least 80 per cent of the editors replied.

EDITORS FEEL SURE

It is evident from the survey that the editors feel as sure of Nixon winning this time as they did of a Johnson victory in 1964.

Incidentally, the poll indicates almost the same number of electoral votes for Nixon — a Republican — as was predicted four years ago for Johnson — a Democrat.

★ ★ ★

In states with 304 electoral votes, editors almost unanimously said their state was "certain" for or "leaning" to Nixon. An additional 122 electoral votes are shown as likely to go to him, so editors seem reasonably sure that he will get a total of 426.

It is to be noted that in the Nixon vote, 517 managing editors indicated their states were "certain," and 525 marked the poll "leaning."

WALLACE TOTAL

The indicated total for Wallace is 66 electoral votes in seven states.

In Arkansas, North Carolina and South Carolina — where Wallace strength predominated — there were some predictions for Humphrey or Nixon.

★ ★ ★

Wallace also picked up a small minority in other states besides those listed above. None of these however, affected the over-all estimate given by the editors for each state.

Bob Considine Says:

Mideast Concerns HHH Far More Than Vietnam

WITH HUMPHREY — The vice president has not as yet stressed it in his campaign speeches but he told a friend at a recent dinner that he is more anxious over the powderkeg of the Middle East than he is over Vietnam.

CONSIDINE

"You know damned well that whoever is the next president will find some way of wrapping up the shooting war in Vietnam," he said.

A tougher situation, in Humphrey's opinion, is Russia's move into the Mediterranean and into the Arab-Israel situation.

There is no question now that the Soviets have gone far toward utilizing traditional Arab fears and hatred of Israel as tools to make the Arab world as subservient to the Kremlin as the Iron Curtain countries.

ARABS REARMED

The Russians have completely renovated the war-making prowess of all the Arab countries involved in last year's six-Day War except for the one Arab state of Jordon.

Those Arab nations have already surrendered to Russia their rights to go to war — all-out war — against Israel. In view of their last three futile attempts, which cost Russia a vast fortune in materiel, the Kremlin now is in charge of when and if they try again.

The Italians are gravely concerned by the growing menace in the Mediterranean.

Atlas, the magazine that combs through the journals of the world, has picked up a relevant article from Corriere Dela Sera, of Milan, by Alberto Cavallari. Excerpts:

"The key to the postwar months, since June of 1967, does not really lie in the artillery battles across the Jordan River or the Suez Canal. It lies in the confrontation between Israel and the U.S.S.R. and in the intense cold war that Moscow has initiated.

"Since the U.S.S.R. wishes to maintain and strengthen this Arab bloc, it has no interest in a peace that would reduce the Arab demand for arms and jeopardize the agreements on the bases. But the U.S.S.R. has three inhibitions:

"First, it wishes to avoid a war that would mean a direct confrontation with the United States. Second, it has no desire for irrational and unpredictable crises provoked by the Arabs, but only for well-thought-out ones capable of being manipulated to Moscow's advantage. Third, it is well aware of the high cost of continually rearming the Arabs, and therefore will not consent to a war until Moscow, and not the Arabs, decides it can be won."

Voice of the People:

Wife Expresses Pride in Police Officer's Work

I am the wife of a policeman and am proud that my husband has the guts and determination to do one of the hardest jobs there is. Don't look to the policeman as the cause of discontent and bitterness about our laws. Instead, look to yourselves, your civic leaders, your local officials and your representatives in government. Policemen can only back the laws that the people make. The public never seems to have any use for a policeman until there are riots, sit-ins, etc., and then he is the most important person around.

★ ★ ★

With nothing but complaints from the public and lack of interest, is it any wonder that there is no respect for law and order? This current generation has no respect for parents, God or our Country. Policemen get long hours, odd shifts, poor pay and disrespect from all ages, with little or no backing from the public.

Think hard next time you see a policeman and look beyond the uniform. He is a man doing his job; he has a family and only wants to provide the best he can for them. The public and local officials can never seem to spare money for a decent pay raise, but there is always an excess of money for other things. I am proud of my husband and stand beside him against any insults that come his way.

'Should Recognize Ninth Grade Students'

We have lived in the Huron Valley School District for five years and have always been proud of our school system and agreed with all it has tried to do. Last year they sent our students from Highland Junior High into the Muir Junior High for half-day sessions. This was fine because we knew that at mid-term they would be going back to Highland for the rest of the school year. This year they moved our ninth grade (the same group of students) into the Milford High School. For the year of 1968 and 1969 these boys and girls will be a group of students without a school. These students are having enough trouble trying to adjust to the change. Why shouldn't they be recognized as are the other grades? I am sure many parents feel the same way.

'Story of Handicapped Has Lesson for Many'

A recent article in The Pontiac Press about a handicapped minister is the kind of attitude and faith this nation needs to bring it back to its feet. This man had no arms but was determined not to be dependent upon anyone. He made a good life for himself in spite of his misfortune. Most people have lost pride and integrity. They want all the handouts they can get. Many are healthy, able-to-work men and women who have become too lazy to make a living. They have been made to think the world owes them a living. "Where there's a will, there's a way," is very true, but first there has to be the will to overcome our individual handicaps.

Question and Answer

I've been told if you vote "no" on State Proposal No. 2 (concerning daylight savings time) this would be a vote in favor of daylight savings. Is this true?

MRS. F.

REPLY

No. All state proposals are worded in such a way that a "yes" vote is a vote in favor and a "no" vote is a vote against the proposal.

Vote Carefully

Christianity Today

Americans are an angry people in 1968. They approach Election Day in an almost bitter mood. They see a nation in torment, drifting leftward into anarchy. A growing number of citizens are demanding radical changes to get the country out of its trouble.

As never before, Christians need to implore God to move the hearts of men to vote for the best candidate as God knows him, "for promotion cometh neither from the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But God is the judge; he putteth down one and setteth up another."

★ ★ ★

One big danger in this present upheaval is that on November 5 voters will respond emotionally rather than rationally. The results could be tragic. The crisis demands that Americans exercise the right of franchise, reasonably and responsibly.

These are the basic questions voters should ask before they act:

Who among the candidates will best perpetuate the Judeo-Christian principles upon which this nation was founded and under which it has prospered?

Who will provide the kind of leadership needed to inspire Americans to a new respect for constitutional processes and for laws that serve the interest of all the people and ensure equal rights and justice for majority and minority groups alike?

Who seems most likely to put an end to riots, lawlessness, and civic disorder, not playing on fear?

★ ★ ★

Who is able above the others to bring an early and honorable settlement to the tortuous problem of Vietnam?

Who will halt the inflationary wage - price spiral?

Who will inspire the people to more voluntary concern about one another?

Who offers the most constructive options for dealing with the great problems of urban overcrowding, air and water pollution, and conservation of national resources?

Who is best qualified to confront the Communist world in a way that will pervent nuclear holocaust and ensure at least a tenuous peace?

★ ★ ★

Who best comprehends the intricate political and economic problems of the underdeveloped countries and offers helpful and workable solutions?

Who will nominate Supreme Court justices who will close the doors to pornography and not coddle criminals?

Who will choose the most competent men in America, free of conflict-of-interest entanglements, to serve on his Cabinet?

Who will work best with Congress (and perhaps with a Congress dominated by an opposition party)?

Who by past actions has shown himself to be the most far-sighted in statesmanlike conduct and concern for national unity?

Who has shown the greatest degree of personal integrity and discipline, and who promises to look not to his own strength but to divine guidance?

Choose carefully. Judge the candidates not by the evasions and code words of campaign oratory but by their full record. You can help preserve the greatest land of all.

Tremors Reported in Flint, Port Huron

By the Associated Press

Reports of earth tremors in Michigan spanned at least 60 miles Thursday — from Flint to Port Huron—but no explanation could be given although several theories were advanced.

No injuries or damage was reported in either city.

* * *

Residents of Port Huron reported a tremor in the city Wednesday afternoon about the same time police in Flint began receiving calls.

Some officials suggested the disorder may have been caused by the sonic boom from jet aircraft but no one reported hearing any such sound.

UNRECORDED

Instruments of the Science and Technology Institute at Willow Run Airport showed no trace of earth tremors. Dr. David Willis, an official of the laboratories, affiliated with the University of Michigan, said reports of the tremor came from an area within 100 miles of Port Huron.

Such an earth tremor would have registered on the institute's instruments, he said.

"I think the only thing that it could have been was a sonic boom," said Willis. "An earthquake that would have been felt over 200 miles I'm sure we would have detected it here with our equipment."

Weather Bureau officials also advanced the theory of the sonic boom.

SPECULATION

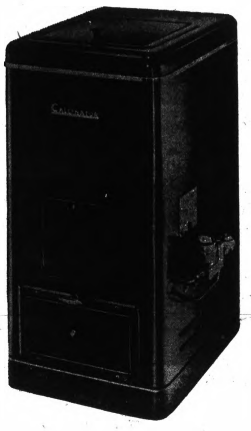

Some in the Port Huron area suggested the cause might be a cave-in at the old salt mines in the area. This, however, was not substantiated.

Wallace 'More Interested in Peace Than Presidency'

By JULES LOCH
Associated Press Writer

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — George C. Wallace, says, "I'm more interested in the war being concluded now than being president."

The third-party candidates declined to speculate on what effect President Johnson's order halting the bombing of North Vietnam would have on his candidacy, saying: "I do not care how any action that would bring peace, if it does, affects my campaign."

★ ★ ★

At a news conference Thursday night in Norfolk, after he and the other two presidential candidates were briefed by the President on the decision, Wallace said:

"I hope and pray that whatever the President, or whatever those in Paris, do is successful.

HONORABLE CONCLUSION

"I am more interested in the conclusion of this war honorably and the bringing of the American servicemen home than I am anything else I can think of."

★ ★ ★

Campaigning in Hagerstown, Md., earlier in the day, he had said, "It's unfortunate, probably, that it (Discussion of a bombing halt) comes right on the eve of the election. I wish it could have come months ago."

But he said later that when he made that statement, "I was not briefed and had no idea I would be briefed."

Wallace held his news conference after he spoke to about 12,000 persons— and 300 hecklers—at Foreman Field on the campus of Old Dominion College at Norfolk.

NIXON CHALLENGED

He criticized Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate, accusing him of inconsistencies and daring him again to a televised debate. Wallace said of his Democrat opponent, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey: "There's not much need to talk about Mr. Humphrey. He's out of the race."

At Hagerstown, a farming community just below the Mason-Dixon Line, Wallace spoke to 4,000 persons in a shopping center parking lot.

A group of hecklers in the front ranks berated him with jeers and, at one point, a miniature whisky bottle sailed from the crowd toward the candidate and hit a young woman.

A number of scuffles broke out and police hauled off a paddy wagon full of hecklers. They also took into custody two Wallace supporters, but turned them loose on the fringes of the crowd.

MORE VIOLENCE

In the closing days of the campaign, more than the usual amount of violence has occurred at Wallace rallies.

Asked whether his speeches encouraged violence, Wallace said: "I don't encourage anything, but when people spit in your face and the policemen's face and call them Fascist pigs, and when they shout four-letter words at people who come to hear a speaker, then sometimes that does get people riled up.

"They shout four-letter words and write them on signs and hold them up. It's insulting, degrading to the American election process, and it happens all over the country."

Wallace campaigns today in Asheville, N.C., at a courthouse rally, then flies to Chicago for an evening rally at the International Amphitheatre, site of the August Democratic National Convention.

JFK Letter Sold for $525

NEW YORK (AP) — A letter from the late President John F. Kennedy to a young man suffering a spinal disease similar to his own was sold Thursday night for $525.

In the letter the President told William J. Keane, 19, of Hackensack, N.J., "Medical science works wonders today and I shall be counting on you to keep your spirits up."

The letter was purchased by the Carnegie Book Shop at an auction by Charles Hamilton Galleries at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Ex-Governor of State Buried at Arlington

WASHINGTON (AP) —Former Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker was buried in Arlington National Cemetery Thursday with full military honors after services in nearby Ft. Myer Chapel.

The former "boy governor" of Michigan died Monday in Detroit at the age of 74. Death apparently was caused by a heart attack.

★ ★ ★

Brucker was secretary of the Army under President Dwight D. Eisenhower. He was elected governor of Michigan in 1930 when he was 36 years old, serving one 2-year term.

The flag-draped casket was carried from a hearse into the chapel by an eight-man honor guard. The service was conducted by retired Maj. Gen. Frank Tobey and the Rev. Edward L. R. Elson, pastor of National Presbyterian Church here.

Among those attending the service were his widow, their son, Wilber Jr., and his wife and two children; Sen. and Mrs. Robert P. Griffin, R-Mich., and two former Republican senators from Michigan, Charles Potter and Homer Ferguson.

Price of Records Rising in County

The price charged by the Oakland County Clerk's Office for certified copies of birth, death, marriage, divorce and adoption records will be doubled beginning Nov. 15.

★ ★ ★

The increase from $1 to $2 is in compliance with a new state law. It orders that fees charged by local registrars be the same as that charged by the Michigan director of public health.

★ ★ ★

If more than one copy of a record is ordered, a 50-cent fee for each additional copy will be charged.

Beverage Group to Elect Officers

The Oakland Licensed Beverage Association will elect officers at its annual meeting on Wednesday. The meeting starts at 2 p.m. at Morey's Golf Club, 2280 Union Lake, Commerce Township.

The group will study traffic safety measures for the holiday season. The meeting date was changed due to the national elections.

Waterford Speeders to Get It Coming and Going

By MEL NEWMAN

Remember the last time you were pushing the speed limit a bit and noticed a police radar car ahead?

Naturally you took evasive action, perhaps by turning into a convenient side street or simply by slowing as much as possible.

★ ★ ★

Well, if you happen to push the speed limit in Waterford Township these days the maneuvering won't work.

That's because the township police department has forsaken radar for an electronic device called VASCAR.

HARD TO FOOL

VASCAR stands for Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder and it can catch speeders coming and going. It can also determine unlawful speeds by a vehicle traveling behind the patrol car.

In fact, it can get you going left to right, right to left, around a curve and straight up, if your car can manage.

VASCAR operates on the principle that speed equals distance divided by time. An extreme example of how this works would be a car traveling a measured mile while being timed with a stopwatch.

If the vehicle makes it in a minute, it is clocked at 60 miles per hour average speed for the mile (one mile per minute times 60 minutes per hour).

COMPUTER DOES WORK

But the beauty of VASCAR is that first, the measured distance needn't even approach a mile and, second, the operator needn't have any idea what the distance actually is.

The computer, contained in the patrol car in a neat package, does the work.

To set VASCAR moving, the operator simply chooses one distance marker — say it's a puddle or a crosswalk lane — and pushes the first distance button on the control panel when his car makes a splash or crosses the lane.

★ ★ ★

He then chooses another spot, perhaps a bump in the road, as the second distance marker and pushes the second distance button when he passes over it.

The computer has now digested and recorded this distance.

All that remains is waiting for a suspect car, then pushing the first time button when the suspect car hits the first marker, and pushing the second time button when the suspect car hits the second marker.

The computer quickly figures the average speed and that speed, to the tenth of a mile per hour, appears on the VASCAR screen on the patrol car dashboard.

The screen, about 3-by-4 inches, looks like a tiny "fan-o-gram" from a major league baseball scoreboard.

The image remains until the unit is cleared for another run — simply by pushing another button.

Even if the patrol car is moving, the system works.

If a car is moving up fast from behind, the operator makes two distance spots while continuing along the road. Watching through the rear-view mirror, he pushes the time buttons when the suspect car goes over or by the same spots.

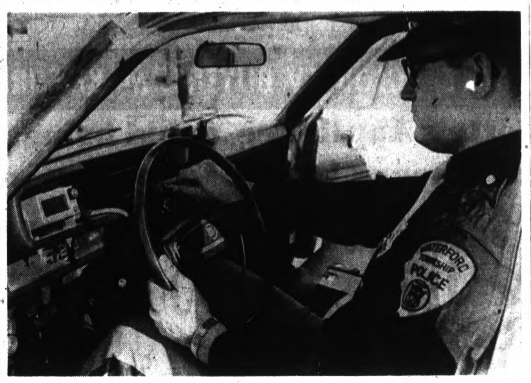

The operator can first mark two time spots for an oncoming car, then push the distance buttons when he passes the marks. The time-distance equation works either way.

Two VASCAR units were purchased by the township at a total cost of $1,700. Each is in a regularly marked patrol car, so that the public can't determine by looking which car might be VASCAR-equipped.

They've been in operation since last Friday, but so far, only warning tickets have been issued from their use.

Once the township citizenry is well aware of VASCAR, though, the tickets will cost.

Also, police add, the use of VASCAR in traffic arrests in 34 other states has so far led to 100 per cent convictions.

Pontiac Press Photo

2 Teens Are Held in Goody-Bag Theft

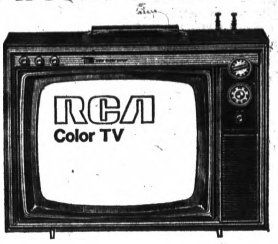

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tearful Danny Stevens ran home Thursday night to tell his mother that two teen-agers had stolen his bagful of trick-or-treat candy.

When Mrs. Stevens heard the 8-year-old's story, she called police and swore out a warrant.

★ ★ ★

As a result, Richmond County sheriff's deputies said, two boys, aged 16 and 18, were lodged in the county jail on a charge of robbing Danny of his Halloween candy.

God forgive us.

Next time you flush your toilet, remember this. It's probably going straight into a nearby lake or stream. The same lake or stream you'd like to swim in. Or fish in. Or boat in. But all too often you can't.

900 miles of Michigan streams already look and smell like open sewers. Fish are being poisoned by fetid filth. They're suffocating in oxygen-robbed water.

The very water you drink is bombarded by crud and waste minute after minute. Day after day. Lakes Erie and Michigan are dying.

We're in trouble. But it's not too late. The situation can be corrected now. Just remember. The longer we wait, the dirtier our water will get. The longer we wait, the more it will cost. Isn't it time you took a stand to make our water clean?

Think about it over a glass of water.

They don't make them like they used to.

They may still look like they used to, but that doesn't mean we still make them that way.

We used to have a tiny rear window.

Now there's a big one.

We used to have a plain old rear seat.

Now there's one that folds down.

Over the years, engine power has been increased by 76%.

A dual brake system has been added.

The heater is much improved.

Fact is, over the years, over 2,200 such improvements have been made. Yet, you have to be some sort of a car nut to tell a new one from an old one.

Which, of course, was the plan.

In 1949, when we decided not to out-date the bug, some of the big auto names making big, fancy changes were Kaiser, Hudson and Nash.

Not that we were right and they were wrong, but one thing's for sure:

They don't make them like they used to either.

'Retaliating' Israelis Attack Sites Deep in Egypt

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli commandos, retaliating against recent Egyptian attacks, crossed the Suez Canal and penetrated 125 miles into Egypt Thursday night to bomb two Nile bridges and a power station, the Israeli army announced.

★ ★ ★

The daring raid came five days after 15 Israeli troops were killed and 34 wounded in a battle across the canal which U.N observers reported was started by Egypt. Israel claimed that at one point Egyptian commandos crossed the canal and engaged the Israelis, and made vain attempts to cross at two other points.

★ ★ ★

The Egyptian army claimed that an Israeli plane had carried out the Nile raid and said one civilian was killed and two wounded. Israeli sources scoffed at the Egyptian explanation, saying President Gamal Abdel Nasser could not admit to his people that Israeli soldiers could make a raid so deep into Egypt.

★ ★ ★

In a communique announcing the raid, the Israeli army said: "The action aims to make it clear that the Israeli army is able to retaliate against the Egyptian aggression if fire is not ceased."

FIRST TIME?

It was believed the first time since the June 1967 war that Israeli troops crossed the canal that separates Egypt and Israeli-held territory.

The size of the raiding party was not disclosed.

★ ★ ★

The announcement said the targets included: The new Qena Bridge 28 miles south of Cairo, the Nag Hammadi Bridge 35 miles west of the Qena span, the Nag Hammadi transformer station near the bridge and a 500-kilowatt high tension line linking Cairo and Aswan.

It was not known how much damage was done.

TRUCE VIOLATION

"This action" said the Israeli army, "comes after the cease-fire was violated gravely and frequently in a series of aggressive military actions along the length of the Suez Canal, and after a series of acts of attack, mining and sabotage which were carried out inside territory under the Israeli army's control."

It said the acts were carried out "by regular units of the Egyptian army."

★ ★ ★

Meanwhile, Foreign Minister Abba Eban left for New York to hold new talks with U.N. peace envoy Gunnar V. Jarring.

Eban received new instructions at a day-long Cabinet meeting Thursday to continue efforts through the Swedish diplomat for peace with the Arabs. The government was reported determined to stand by its original demands for direct negotiations with the Arabs rather than through a third party.

Ex-Film Idol Found Slain

Ramon Novarro, 69, Murdered in Home

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ramon Novarro, the dashing Latin lover who was the first "Ben Hur" on the silent screen, has died violently—33 years after he quit movie stardom for a life of quiet luxury and occasional television character roles.

The nude, bludgeoned body of the 69-year-old actor was found Thursday on a bed in his $150,000 home.

Novarro, a life-long bachelor, lived alone in the Spanish-style white brick home. His death was reported by Edward Weber, 42, the actor's long-time secretary who had been helping Novarro recently with an autobiography.

Police said Novarro's head and upper body bore signs of a fierce beating, but that the death instrument had not been located. Investigators conceded they had few clues other than the evidence of a savage struggle in three rooms of the house.

BLOODY CLOTHING

They said bloody clothing, believed to have been Novarro's, was found in ivy bushes outside.

Weber told newsmen he came upon the death scene when he arrived at the house Thursday and—as was his custom—let himself in with a kitchen door key. He said he found no sign of forced entry, and that nothing was believed missing from the house.

★ ★ ★

Officers said they believed the slayer was a man. The blood stains were dry when police arrived, indicating the murder took place many hours earlier.

Novarro was one of a trio of handsome, Latin leading men who charmed millions in the 1920s. The others were Rudolph Valentino, who died at 31 in 1926, and Antonio Moreno, who was 80 at his death in 1967.

GIFT FOR COMEDY

Novarro had a gift for light comedy, occasionally played other than Latin characters and demonstrated considerable skill as a stunt man. He drove his own chariot in 1925 in "Ben Hur," the movie that made him a star.

★ ★ ★

Ten years later, his career reached what he called "the saturating point," and Novarro retired.

Nixon Unimpressed by Viet Bomb Halt

NEW YORK (AP)— Richard M. Nixon is trying to play down the significance of the North Vietnam bombing halt by likening it to earlier, and temporary, bombing pauses.

Addressing a nationally televised rally in Madison Square Garden Thursday night, the Republican presidential candidate said "I trust that this action may bring some progress" in the Paris peace talks.

★ ★ ★

But this followed a Nixon statement that, "As you are probably aware tonight, the President announced another bombing halt over Vietnam."

The reference to "another" halt obviously was calculated to suggest that, as of now, Johnson's new move was not extraordinary.

OFF LIMITS

Speaking at the $200,000 rally two hours after Johnson announced the move on nationwide television, the Republican nominee said "As a presidential candidate—and my vice presidential running mate joins me in this—neither he nor I will say anything that might destroy the chance to have peace. We want peace."

Then Nixon added, "My friends, while that subject is off limits because the interests of peace require it, let us make sure that we do not overlook the necessity for a new foreign policy to see to it that America is not involved in another Vietnam."

★ ★ ★

Nixon and his aides have been concerned for days about the possible political impact of a bombing halt and had sought in advance to defuse it as an election issue.

In a nationwide radio talk Monday, for example, Nixon said: "If the bombing can be ended in a way that will speed an honorable peace; if it can be ended in a way that will save American lives rather than costing American lives; and if the President determines that these conditions have been met by the North Vietnamese, then I will support his order to stop the bombing."

MIXED REACTIONS

Nixon's Madison Square Garden crowd booed louder than it cheered when he referred to Johnson's announcement of a bombing halt. The same thing had happened, before the TV cameras went on when Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., made a similar reference.

The Nixon crowd, screened in an effort to keep out hecklers, gave boos aplenty for Javits and New York City's Republican mayor, John V. Lindsay, now in the center of a school strike controversy, and boos were mingled with cheers when Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller was introduced.

The rally marked the first joint campaign appearance of Nixon and his running mate, Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland.

Agnew, feverish and ill, spoke so softly that many in the audience interrupted him with shouts of "louder."

Agnew Heading West for Final Campaign Swing

NEW YORK (AP) — Republican vice presidential nominee Sprio T. Agnew, fighting a respiratory infection and a slight fever, leaves for the West Coast today on the first leg of his final campaign swing.

Agnew appears at a rally in St. Joseph, Mo., this afternoon.

★ ★ ★

The Maryland governor said he had been advised by his physician not to attend a Thursday night rally at Madison Square Garden, but decided to make an appearance anyway.

★ ★ ★

He spent all day Thursday in bed, leaving only long enough to attend the New York rally.

Agnew travels to New Mexico and Texas Saturday and then on to Ohio and Michigan on Sunday.

Attacks on N. Viet Halted by President

There may well be very hard fighting ahead. Certainly there is going to be some very hard negotiating . . ."

He spoke of the nature of his arrangement with North Vietnam as an understanding without saying what precisely that means.

* * *

Johnson advisers said, however, they were convinced that Hanoi now knows fully what Johnson's terms are and that other governments have offered their assurance that North Vietnam will respect the terms. The Soviet Union and possibly France have reportedly given such word.

ENEMY TERROR

Apart from expanding the peace talks by adding the Saigon government and the National Liberation Front, the arrangement calls for reestablishing the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam and for a stop to enemy terror attacks on the cities and town of the South.

Restoration of the DMZ has long been advocated by the United States in the Paris peace talks as a means of de-escalating the war.

* * *

For several years enemy forces have struck from or through the zone at American and allied forces in the northern part of South Vietnam.

Other forces infiltrated into the South through the zone or, more heavily, through jungle trails in Laos.

TRAILS IN LAOS

U.S. bombers will continue to attack troops and supplies moving on the trails in Laos. U.S. commanders have orders to continue pressing the ground war in South Vietnam.

Officials also said Abrams has orders allowing him to retaliate quickly, without asking Washington, if the enemy attack from the DMZ or shell U.S. forces south of it.

* * *

Johnson said Thursday night that the decision to end the bombing was consistent with the requirements he had stated over the years.

An estimated 40,000 or more North Vietnamese have been pulled out of the South in recent weeks, and there has been a lull in enemy offensive operations.

Vandals Spoil Halloween Fun

Egg throwing and vandalism continued in Waterford Township last night resulting in at least one boy being hospitalized.

Michael Perry, 14, of 6300 Andersonville, is in satisfactory condition at Pontiac General Hospital after he was struck in the eye with an egg.

Police are searching for the car in which the egg-throwing suspect fled from the scene at Andersonville and Foley at 7:50 p.m. A witness gave a description of the auto to police.

In addition, several other Halloween incidents were reported to police.

Schweitzer's Clinic Is Going Modern

LAMBARENE, Gabon (AP) — "Le Grand Docteur," Albert Schweitzer, might have frowned and twitched his bushy mustache with disapproval. The strong-willed Schweitzer ruled out modernization at his jungle hospital to the day he died at the age of 90. But time is catching up.

The sick still paddle up the wide, jungle-fringed Ogooue River and dock their dugout canoes at the hospital's sandy landing. Others make the journey, as thousands before them, along the foot-worn paths winding through the lush rain forests of Gabon.

★ ★ ★

But underneath the simple exterior of the wood-framed buildings and corrugated iron roofs, shadowed by the green wall of jungle that surrounds the hospital on three sides, a minor revolution is under way.

Schweitzer, Nobel Prize winner, philosopher, author, musician and one of Africa's most legendary figures, refused to adopt reforms he thought would alienate his primitive-living patients.

INTO 20TH CENTURY

Today, more than three years after his death on Sept. 4, 1965, his daughter, Rhena Eckert, and Dr. Walter Munz, Schweitzer's handpicked successor, have pioneered an entry into 20th century medical practices.

A chugging generator has replaced the need for antique oil lanterns and candles in the rectangular, barrackslike hospital wards. Flourescent strips cast rays of lights between the rows of wooden bunks.

★ ★ ★

Thanks to the generator, electrification has been expanded to virtually the entire hospital complex, making possible refrigeration for medicines and food, as well as a telephone, radio and the lighting.

A small operating theater boasts the latest medical equipment available, although because of lack of air-conditioning Munz continues to perform hundreds of delicate operations in 86-degree temperature. Munz performs plastic surgery as well as ophthamlic, cardiac and orthopedic operations.

WATER PURIFICATION

A water-purification system which pumps the nearby Ogooue River has made possible flush toilets and showers. Although tropical conditions rule out a closed sewage system, the open sewers that run behind each ward have been cleared, repaired and extended.

Munz, 35, a tall, precise Swiss surgeon, leads a team of five European doctors, 13 European nurses and 40 Gabonese apprentice nurses.

★ ★ ★

"It is our wish to remain true to the spirit of dedication and the precious heritage of Dr. Schweitzer, and to adapt this hospital to the needs and possibilities of today," Munz says.

The ducks and goats Schweitzer loved to see wandering freely through the compounds have been banished to an outer perimeter, but an occasional maverick finds his way to the center of activity.

MATS REPLACED

The bug-infested Grass mats that patients lay on have been replaced by plastic-covered foam rubber mattresses.

Many sacred traditions, however, have been allowed to continue. That preserves an African flavor to the atmosphere, attracting many villagers who might otherwise hesitate to seek treatment at the hospital.

★ ★ ★

Families of the sick still cook food over small fires behind the wards. At night a dozen flickering fires light up the doorways that line the wards as the patient and his family enjoy a "home-cooked" meal.

Members of the European staff still wear pith hemlets which underline that, in spite of modern facilities, the hospital remains a relic of the day Dr. Schweitzer founded it in 1913.

LEPER COLONY

Lambarene is known as a leper colony because of the well publicized "Village of Light" Schweitzer built for 125 lepers in 1954 with the Nobel Prize money. But a vast general hospital with 70 buildings has grown out of the jungle in recent years. It houses 470 patients in 40 wards. The leper colony, adjoining the hospital, now cares for 150.

Since 1913, says Munz, more than 150,000 people, about a third of the population of Gabon today, have come to Lambarene for treatment. Some 3,000 to 5,000 patients find their way here each year from all corners of Gabon, testifying to the trust extended to the hospital after 55 years of service.

★ ★ ★

There were 1,650 surgical operations in 1967. Plans call for a second operating theater, several laboratories, an X-ray institute, an intensive care unit and expansion of the psychiatric ward.

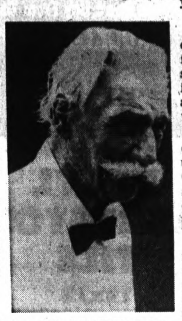

A dental clinic, now under construction, will be ready for use next April. Until now, Gabon, with a population of about half a million, has had only two dentists.

MEMORY WILL LIVE

No amount of change or modernization will ever erase the memory of Schweitzer. His picture hangs from the wall in the staff dining hall overlooking the long table. While Munz now finds himself seated at the head of this table, members of his staff discuss Schweitzer as a "cross between God and the whiplash."

His room is preserved as it was the day he died. Outside, a few steps down a steep gravel path, his body lies buried with those of his wife and two colleagues.

On his desk by a screened window are an open diary, several pens, two oil lamps and his book "The Teaching of Reverence for Life." The title speaks for the man.

Jean-Claude Killy talks shop... Chevrolet Sports Shop

(Freely translated from the French) . . . "I am a man who drives for sport . . . for fun, you know? This is why I am now telling you all about the brave new Chevrolet and its Sports Shop.

"Only in the Chevrolet Sports Shop do you find cars like the Camaro Z/28. Ah, yes, the Z/28. A Camaro with 302 V8, Holley 4-barrel carburetor, more muscular suspension and Hurst shifter. Is also one of two American cars which offer 4-wheel disc brakes. The other is also in the Chevrolet Sports Shop . . . Corvette, of course.

"Only the Chevrolet Sports Shop has sporting cars from two-seater all the way to five-seater. Beside the Z/28 and Corvette, there is Camaro SS, Chevelle SS 396, Nova SS and the big Impala SS 427.

"Will you come and see these cars very soon at your Chevrolet dealer?

"But of course."

He Wakes as Winner of Mystery Treat Bike

Danny Lucero, 8, a third grader at Alcott Elementary School went to bed last night a loser but he woke up a winner.

His brother, Johnny, 10, went to bed a loser and isn't a winner yet, but he hopes to be.

★ ★ ★

Danny was one of nine major winners in the Mystery Treat Halloween night contest sponsored by the city Department of Parks and Recreation, the Pontiac School District and Pontiac Area Jaycees. The bicycle he was awarded more than made up for the fact that he went to bed slightly disappointed.

Mrs. Aurello Lucero, mother of Danny, Johnny and Sammy, 6, said the boys had stayed up later than usual hoping to be called by the contest sponsors, but eventually went to bed thinking they would not be called.

THEN THE CALL CAME

Then about 10:10 p.m. a call came, for Danny. Mrs. Lucero said he was half asleep but got excited when informed he was one of the contest winners. The bicycle was brought out to the house about 11 p.m. and he went for a short ride.

Johnny and Sammy were a little disappointed that it wasn't their lucky night, but took solace in the fact that they might be able to ride their brother's new bike, now the only one in the family.

★ ★ ★

"They're all happy. The boys went for a ride this morning and Johnny now wants to start saving money for his own bicycle."

John had reason for disappointment. His full bag of Halloween treats, collected after an intensive begging campaign, was snatched from his hand by an inconsiderate teen-ager.

PARTIAL RELIEF

He went to bed with no swag but his disappointment was at least partially relieved when Jaycee Art Thomas gave him $2 to start his own bicycle fund.

The Mystery Treat contest was for Pontiac school children and youths who registered through the schools. The sponsors called youngsters to find prize winners, who had to be home at certain hours: 9 p.m. for elementary school children; 10 p.m. for junior high students, and 11 p.m. for high school youths.

Other prize winners were: Agnes Jackson, 13, sixth grade at McCarroll Elementary School, a radio; Chris Spear, 10, fifth grade at Wever Elementary School, $5.

Susan Hayes, 12, seventh grade at Jefferson Junior High, a wristwatch; Rita Bruce, 12, seventh grade at Lincoln Junior High School, a pen and pencil set; Michael Hollis, 12, seventh grade at Washington Junior High School, $5.

HIGH SCHOOL WINNERS

Chris Fraser, 16, 11th grade at Pontiac Catholic High School, a wristwatch; Adelfa Maldonado, 16, 10th grade at Oakland Christian School, pen and pencil set; Nick Dinkins, 17, 12th grade at Pontiac Northern High School, $5.

★ ★ ★

In addition three $1 winners were chosen from each school in the city. The bicycle was donated by Laird Scarlett, owner of Scarlett's Cyclery, 203 N. Perry. All other prizes were donated by the Jaycees.

Clashes Cancel Classes at School in Lancaster, Pa.

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Classes at McCaskey High School were canceled Thursday afternoon, officials said, after a series of Negro and white student confrontations in hallways and around the school.

★ ★ ★

After the school was closed, disorders spread into surrounding neighborhoods and all available policemen were rushed to the area. Three persons, including a policeman, suffered minor injuries.

★ ★ ★

John Ambright, school board president, said all Lancaster public schools would be closed today, but said teachers would report for meetings to work out the problem.

McCaskey has about 2,100 pupils, 180 of them Negro.

Detroit Zoo Set to End Good Year Sunday

The Detroit Zoological Park closes at 5 p.m. Sunday after a successful year. Total attendance equaled last year's figure of 1,700,000 despite a drop of attendance during August when the zoo was closed for several days after a heavy windstorm.

★ ★ ★

The major addition this year was the Penguinarium housing 32 penguins of 17 different species, which opened Oct. 1.

★ ★ ★

Major births this year included two polar bear cubs, a dromedary camel, an ellipsis waterbuck, two Grant's zebras, three Siberian tigers and two Himalayan tahrs.

Exam Delayed in Bribe Case

The preliminary examination of three men charged with attempting to bribe a Pontiac police officer was adjourned indefinitely yesterday in city Municipal Court.

A court spokesman said that no date for continuance will be set until after Tuesday's election.

Reason for the delay in the case against Carmon Green, 43, of 5 Pingree; William Moneler, 34, of 428 N. Perry; and Rod Murphy, 79, of 60 Marshall is because members of the prosecutor's staff have other commitments in Oakland County Circuit Court, authorities said.

★ ★ ★

The three allegedly attempted to bribe Officer Robert Rood in a gambling case involving Green last month.

Easy to Care For

Disappointed in your past green thumb potting abilities? Avoid failure. Select easy-to-care-for foliage plants such as Chinese evergreen or philodendron — both popular choices.

Whatever you choose make sure they're professionally grown in porous red clay pots.

Smell of Spring

Happy the gardener who plants hyacinth bulbs this fall because he will enjoy not only their symmetrical spikes of bloom but also their fragrance next spring. Hyacinths impart to the garden, alone of all the bulbous flowers, a sort of "primness" — another asset where this characteristic is needed.

In long, narrow plants such as on either side of a path to the front door or between the house wall and a walk around the house they give the effect of tidy school girls walking row by row.

(Political Advertisement)

Happiness Is a Blooming Hyacinth

From the top of a high wall they look down on the gardener below and delight him with their masses of color.

* * *

So, too, when they are used planted close together in areas in a perennial border or in beds by themselves.

BEDDING GRADE

For planting in the garden buy "bedding" grade bulbs. If, instead of planting outdoors, you wish to force bulbs indoors, then buy the larger "exhibition" grade.

* * *

The extra-large flower spikes of exhibition grade bulbs are so heavy that winds knock them over if they are grown outdoors.

* * *

Also for growing indoors in the North (although they are hardy outdoors in the Southern states) are the French Roman hyacinths with dainty, delicate single flowers more widely spaced on the stems than the tightly packed spikes of the Dutch hyacinths.

Started early in autumn in pots of soil or bowls of pebbles and water, these can be in bloom for Christmas.

FLOWER COLORS

There are flower colors in both types of hyacinths to fit almost any desired color scheme. French Roman hyacinths are available in white, pink or blue.

The large-flowered Dutch hyacinths come in many named varieties in the same 3 colors but with variations in lightness or depth of both blue and pink; pale blue to purple, pale pick to scarlet.

There also are unusually colored varieties such as Orange Boven, with apricot-salmon flowers, Prince Henry with lemon yellow blooms and two varities with cream yellow blossoms, City of Haarlem and Yellow Hammer.

Of course there also are varieties with double flowers.

WINTER AND SPRING — The well-filled symmetrical spikes of Dutch hyacinths will perfume the spring garden while they add masses of color to it. Old-fashioned open spikes of French Roman hyacinths grow outdoors in the South; are forced for indoor bloom in the North.

Lawn and Garden News

Queen Elizabeth Second

Peace Is Most Popular Rose

By EARL ARONSON
AP Newsfeatures

The most popular rose in America is Peace, according to the American Rose Society's National Rose Survey. In our garden, it also is one of the hardiest bushes, with luxuriant, glossy, deep green foliage.

* * *

The survey included only roses that have been available in this country for more than five years.

* * *

In the 40 years that the surveys have been conducted, no rose has attained a perfect rating of 10 points. Peace has the highest score, 9.6, received in 1953.

Since then, the creamy hybrid tea has dropped only two-tenths of a point to 9.4 and is more widely grown than any other rose in the United States, the society reports.

SECOND PLACE

In second place is Queen Elizabeth, a clear pink grandiflora that climbed from fifth place to second with a rating of 9.3.

We felt badly that Crimson Glory, an old-timer and our favorite for its deep color and delightful scent, had dropped from No. 2 to No. 11. Crimson Glory, a hybrid tea, scored 8.3.

* * *

Moving from No. 9 to No. 3 was Tiffany, a 10-year-old hybrid tea. Chrysler Imperial, a crimson hybrid tea, is fourth with 8.9. The dark red grandiflora Carrousel, dropped from third to ninth and the orange-red Montezuma came up five places to a tie for fifth.

* * *

The floribunda Fashion, long popular, slipped from seventh to 15th with 8.0. And another floribunda, Little Darling, a pink-yellow, moved from 15th to a fifth place tie with Montezuma at 8.6.

OTHERS

Others high in the ranks of roses are Betty Prior and Charlotte Armstrong, 8.5; Confidence, 8.4; Dainty Bess and Helen Traubel, 8.3; Circus and Fashion, 8.0; Blaze, 7.9; Sutter's Gold, 7.8; Burnaby, Frau Karl Druschki and Mojave, 7.6.

New Fungicide Is Successful

The New York Botanical Garden reports that a relatively new spray, tested during the rainy summer of 1967, effectively controls some fungus diseases of trees and ornamental plants.

The fungicide was applied to one side of a large horse chestnut tree. The treated side seemed to be free of symptoms of leaf blotch, which causes leaves to brown and die prematurely and which appeared on the untreated side of the tree. Similar results were noted on tulip trees.

* * *

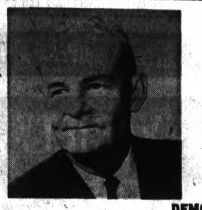

The manufacturer of the preparation (Fore, by Rohm and Haas) developed it primarily as a fungicide for turf and reports also that it controls blackspot of roses, botrytis petal spot of chrysanthemums and leaf and flower spots of gladiolas.

* * *

The Botanical Garden also reported the fungicide helped control purple spots on American hollies.

Care is necessary in handling the product.

Set lilly bulbs as soon as they are received in the mail or purchased at the nursery.

Proof of Pudding

Testing Proves Plant's Worth

How do you suppose the seedsman from whom you buy knows that the seeds he sells you will produce the fine vegetables you want? By testing, of course.

The top picture shows what happens on a seed ranch when carrots have grown to maturity. Row after row of the roots is carefully dug and the results spread out as you see them. These carrots are the "proof of the pudding." If the seedsman can, using seed from the identical batch sold you, produce this kind of a crop, you should be able to do so too. Right?

* * *

Careful notes are kept of the results of such tests — especially if a new variety is being tried — either to evaluate it for future offering to gardeners or to decide whether it produces enough more per foot of row than similar varieties to introduce it to gardeners as something new and better.

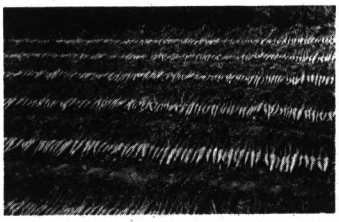

Carrots are evaluated for size, of course, but also for straightness and for uniformity of both size and shape, according to their variety. For eating quality too — this goes without saying.

HARVEST

The lower picture shows you the results every seedsman hopes for — every gardener too. Three roots of Royal Chantenay show the same size, straightness and shape — just as you, the gardener, ordered.

And, if you've ever wondered where the seedsman gets those perfect vegetables pictured in those enticing books, the seed catalogs, you now know.

He gets them from rows of crops grown just as you grow them, but, of course, selects the very best to show you what he — and you — can do from seed.

TESTING — In order to know how good a crop can be grown from the seeds he sells, the seedsman from whom you buy tests the results. Here carrots are dug and laid out for evaluation.

PERFECT — Three perfect specimens of Royal Chantenay carrot show what can be grown from seeds of this variety. If the seedsman can do it, using proper methods, you can do it too.

Mold and Mildew Check the Crowns

Mildew on leaves of plants could be caused by crowns so thick that they cut off air and light. On shrubs, the same thing can happen if there is poor ventilation due to planting too close together or too near a house or garage.

In hot, humid weather, the most common type of summer fungi is gray mold. On dogwoods, it dries up leaves and twigs.

* * *

Trees should be trimmed to permit light to filter through. Shrubs should be opened by pruning. Apply a fungicide to control mildew or mold.

Thinning crowns of trees also will permit winds to pass through and reduce the chance of blowdowns.

Sunflowers Good to Eat

If the birds give you a chance to harvest sunflower heads before they have eaten all of the seeds, place the heads on a table in a dry place where there is plenty of ventilation.

* * *

In about 2 weeks the heads will have cured and you can remove the seeds from them.

Roast the seeds in the oven and taste them. They're delicious! Perhaps you don't want to give all of your crop to the birds after all? Why not share with them, keeping at least a few of the seeds for yourself?

Plant the bottom of the tulip bulb six inches from the top of the soil.

Vermiculite Is Soil Conditioner

One part vermiculite mixed with two parts soil will give sufficient substance to sandy soils to enable them to hold water, while clay and hard-packed soils thus mixed are loosened and aerated.

Only a one-season effort, vermiculite, once in the soil, has the advantage of being a permanent conditioner.

Think Spring When Planting Fall Bulbs

While you are planting daffodils and tulips this autumn, consider the effect they'll make in your garden next spring. Wouldn't the picture be improved by planting a "companion" for each kind of bulb?

For instance, daffodil flowers are white, yellow or pale pink. If you scattered a packet of bachelor button seeds, over the planting of daffodil bulbs, you could have soft blue flowers to contrast with the daffodil trumpets. Or white, pink or rose blooms, since bachelor buttons have flowers in all these colors.

* * *

Tulips, too, can have a companion with blue flowers — the dainty forget-me-not. Seeds of the annual form of these pretty blossoms can be scattered over the tulip plantings just as the bachelor button seeds are over the daffodils.

It will help the seeds to sprout if you can rake them lightly into the soil or even press them to it with the palm of your hand. Then water with a fine spray.

Do not be surprised if, given a warm week, plants of bachelor button pop up. These are perfectly hardy in winter cold and will survive to bloom in spring.

Control powdery mildew with Actidione-Thiram.

Plant Food Facts...

Try Container Plants for Instant Dessert

Any ranch house patio, porch or terrace will look more authentically western with an "instant" dessert of container plants.

Since most patios are designed for sun worshippers, container plants that can take the sun are preferred. You'll find plenty of novel and dramatic sun-loving plants in the many-splendored cactus and succulent families.

★ ★ ★

Some, such as the orchid cactus, will reward you with a bright showing of flowers, or even tiny berries and fruits. Others will delight you with their vari-colored sizes and shapes. All are easy to care for in red clay pots, whose porous walls slowly release excess moisture and prevent harm from overwatering.

★ ★ ★

Cacti are highly resistant to the effects of sun and hot temperatures because they store their own water supply. However, they can and should be watered freely every day when under long exposure to full sinlight.

SOIL MIXTURE

Don't try to keep cacti or succulent plants in sand alone. The mixture in their clay pots should contain both soil and organic matter — and light fertilizer applications will help.

Succulents are members of the cacti family, but usually have no thorns and their stems and leaves are generally juicier.

Some popular succulents include the jade plant, century plants, sedum, aloe and echeveria.

Your florist or garden center can help you select from hundreds of varieties of cacti or succulent plants. Selections from both families are suitable indoors, too. Use them at floor level or for windowsill gardens, dish gardens or hanging baskets.

Automated Gardening in Future

Instant landscapes and a garden operated from a control panel are just around the corner, an expert on planets predicts.

Dr. Carl Hansen, garden and home research coordinator for Chevron Chemical Company's Ortho Division, says a new interest in bringing gardens to the cities is already evident.

★ ★ ★

High rise apartment buildings with patio and rooftop gardens will be the dominant feature of city life by the year 2,000, Hansen says.

Discussing the future of gardening, Hansen said: "Don't overlook rent-a-plant either, or disposable plants for that matter" as figuring largely in the home economy of the years ahead.

REALTY

"Instant landscaping, already a reality today, will become even bigger in the year 2,000," Hansen said.

"New suburbs will spring up almost overnight as our population intensifies, and pregrown transplantable lawns, plants, trees and everything else necessary for instant beautification will be part of the finished package.

"But that's not all. With it will be a pre-installed maintenance system to handle most of the less pleasant chores of gardening."

★ ★ ★

The chemist said the housewife will simply go to her garden control panel and start pushing buttons . . . red for a spray from the sprinkler system to stop bug, weed and fungus invasions; blue for the weekly watering; green for fertilizer."

It may even be easier than that, he said, with a small computer programmed with the various needs of the garden.

One Rose-Greens Make a Bouquet

Striking fresh-flower beauty at modest cost is possible with a handful of fresh greens and a single long-stemmed rose.

It's fun to seek out the right container for specific arrangements — and a starkly simple tall and slender vase is expecially beautiful for the single rose.

Accompany arrangements with short sprigs of baker fern or huckleberry leaves.

Evergreens should be planted before mid-October.

Waterford High Fired Up

By JANICE CRISP

Weeks of planning and preparation go up in smoke tonight. At 7, Waterford Township's homecoming festivities will be touched off with a blazing bonfire.

On hand to promote spirit will be varsity cheerleaders, Sue Allen, Peni Frish, Pat Hall, Mary Jergovich, Joyce Kent, Sue Steele, Debbie Szymanski, Barb Way and alternate Diane Russ.

★ ★ ★

To help students forget about the cold, there will also be a hootennany around the fire. Waterford's folk trio, Marsha Karnes, Claude Bauguess and John Davis, the Harbor Lights, and other entertainers will sing.

There are 18 decorated cars and floats for competitions at halftime. This year not only will there be a prize for the class with the outstanding float, but also the club with the best entry.

ENGRAVED PLAQUE

The award will be a plaque which will be kept at the school and engraved with the name of each year's winner.

After the game there will be a Sock Hop in the gym. No one will be admitted unless they are wearing socks, and tickets cost 25 cents.

The Coronation Ball with the theme "Magical Mystery Tour" will be tomorrow from 8 to 11 p.m. Tickets are $3 per couple, $1.50 stag. The dress is semiformal.

The names of the homecoming queen and king were announced at the pep assembly this afternoon. Junior class representatives are Barb Way and Steve Moffat. Representing the sophomore class are Sue Wilson and Don LeBlanc.

ROYAL PROMENADE

There will be a change in the coronation ceremonies this year. To add a more royal touch, after the queen is crowned, she will walk once around the gym to a grand march recorded by Waterford's band. She will then return to dance the first dance with the king.

IN MEMORIAM—Jeanne Atkins holds the walnut memorial as Rod McIlroy affixes the metal nameplate of a former Pontiac Northern High School student who gave his life in military service. The memorial will be permanently mounted in a central location in the high school. Names of former Pontiac Northern High School students who died in service may be submitted to Jeanne and the screening committe through the school's main office.

DAR's Citizen Picked at WBH

By SHARON CARR

West Bloomfield High School has announced Debbie Bayer as its representative for the Daughters of the American Revolution citizenship award.

Carol Casselman, Diana David and Debbie were the three finalists, chosen by the student body.

★ ★ ★

The teachers then cast the deciding votes and chose WBH's DAR representative.

The Chess Club hopes to form an official league this year. An invitation to form such a league was received by the sponsors; William Porter and Herman Markwart.

LEAGUE MEMBERS

Others in the league will be Oak Park, Birmingham Groves, Farmington and Seaholm.

The Chess Club is competing in a "round robin" tournament, which will find the club's best players.

Wednesday, students of the English Department attended Meadow Brook Theatre's "The Apple Cart," by G. B. Shaw.

Orders will be taken Nov. 7 for the senior graduation announcements.

Walled Lake Program

School and Work Linked

By JOANNE SANDERSON

"To bridge the gap between the world of school and the world of work is the goal of the co-op program," said John Xenos, director of the trade and industrial aspect of Walled Lake High School's co-op program.

To fulfill this goal, the program centers around activities which will give students experience in work as well as extra-curricular activities.

★ ★ ★

Started in 1963, under the direction of Lester Carlson Jr., now director of vocational education for Walled Lake, the program consisted of 25 girls, all in offices, and 10 employers.

Five years later, there are 150 students participating in four areas and 105 employers supporting the program.

COLLEGE PREP, TOO

These areas are open to the college prep student as well as those who want a business career. Students in the program take subjects related to their area of study.

The four areas and their directors are trade and industrial, Xenos; nurses' aides, Mrs. John Ashby; office, Mrs. Henry Shewach; and distributive education, Janet Johnson.

★ ★ ★

Officers for trade and industrial are Gary Proctor, president; Larry Spenger, vice president; Terry Driskill, secretary; and John Bubnes, treasurer.

Nurse's Aides officers are: Sue Carl, president; Nancy Adams, vice president; Kathy Snow, secretary; and Kathy Geeson, treasurer.

OFFICE OFFICERS

Chosen to lead the office are Linda Short, president; Michelle Sells and Mary Henry, vice presidents; Nancy Hays and Kathy Brooks, secretaries; and Pam Dobiesz, treasurer.

Distributive education leaders are Frank Newmeyer, president; Bob Thompson, vice president; Judy Benjamin, secretary; and Denise Tear, treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Selling pom-pons, victory bells, WL Viking bumper stickers, sponsoring dances and building floats are a few ways that co-op students take part in school spirit.

The co-op students also join activities related to their jobs. These activities are the delegates congress and state and national competition.

STATE MEETING

State officers for distributive education are to be elected today and tomorrow at Battle Creek. Representatives from Walled Lake are Frank Newmeyer and Ed Carlton.

The co-op students will sponsor a public dance Nov. 8 from 8-11 p.m.

Theme for the dance will be the "Inner World of Fred" and the dance will be completely "mod." The band is from Ohio and is called "Fred."

Admission is 75 cents stag and $1.25 drag.

PNH Honors War Dead

By LARRY HELTSLEY

Many brave individuals sacrifice their lives in order to preserve and protect freedoms granted to Americans through our Constitution. Pontiac Northern High School will pay tribute to those from Northern who have given their lives in military service.

A walnut board has been erected to provide a suitable memorial for the deceased.

Bronze eagles decorate the top of the board with space for 200 individual name plates underneath. The board measures 4- by 3-feet. Each name plate will have the full name, classification, date of birth and date of death of the former student engraved upon it.

To be eligible for the board, the individual must be an alumnus of PNHS. An alumnus is defined as an individual, male or female, who has completed one semester or more of academic work at Northern.

U.S. MILITARY

Any person whose name is submitted must have served in an active, honorable status as a member of one of the military components of the United States of America.

Death must have resulted from injuries caused directly or indirectly by the performance in military service.

Death resulting from accidental causes not related to the performance of their duty in service does not fall within the definition.

★ ★ ★

If the person named was not an active member of the armed forces at the time of death, he or she must have been honorably discharged and death must have resulted from causes of the performance of their duty.

Names for the memorial must be made in writing by surviving relatives or any interested party. A name campaign is in progress as few names have been submitted to the screening committee.

FIRST NAMED

Names may be submitted by contacting Jeanne Atkins through the PNH main office.

John A. Wood, David C. Moore, Gary D. Roerink and Patrick C. McIlroy are among the first names to be engraved on the plaque.

Others include Joseph A. McCurry, Ronald V. Hoyt and Thomas A. Barret.

A committee composed of a member of the school administrative staff, a member of the school faculty, and a member of the student body shall review and make final decisions on all names submitted for the memorial.

Novi Sophs Hold Spirit Day Dance

By THOM HOLMES

The sophomore class at Novi High School has declared today National Spirit Day.

Winners of the Spirit King and Queen contest will be announced at tonight's Spirit Dance. Students voted for the candidate of their choice by paying a penny a vote.

★ ★ ★

The Student Council will donate money to local organizations. Money will be given to the Novi Athletic Booster to help finance Novi's new scoreboard on the football field.

The Youth Protective Services of Novi will also receive a donation. This organization sends students to camp in the summer, and the money can be used to help expand that program.

STUDENT SHOW

The third annual Band Variety Show is coming up on Nov. 26. Keith Rolston, the band director, is looking for Novi students who would like to participate. Try-outs for the show are every Wednesday night until the week of the show.

Although the 1968 Olympic Games have now come to an end, a girl in Novi High School still has Olympic "fever."

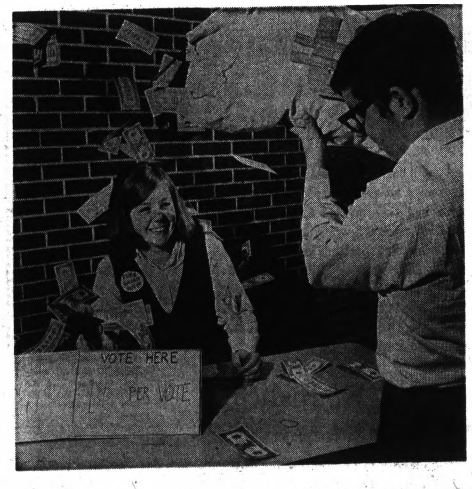

She is Marjorie Marque, senior, and she is looking forward to the Winter Olympic Games in 1972.

There is a good chance that Marjorie may represent the United States as a member on its figure skating team in four years.

GOLD MEDAL

She achieved her first gold medal last summer in the competition at Lake Placid. Marjorie is a very accomplished skater right now. She has been working on it for years, and is even able to perform some skating movements normally performed for men.

Aside from her bright future in skating, Marjorie is also a fine student. She is on the honor roll, and is a member of both the Novi Band and the Southfield Junior Symphony Orchestra.

Readies April Water Show

Groves Swimming Club Back

By BENITA ROSEN

Though there was no water ballet show last year at Wylie E. Groves High School because of the teachers' strike and lack of an adviser, this year the Synchronized Swimming Club is back.

★ ★ ★

Qualifying tryouts were held, and 45 of 60 who tired out were selected.

This year's club officers, advised by Mrs. Jack A. Waska, are Sue Lapp, president; Joan Mattice, vice president; Peggy Maass, secretary; Jann Rosen, treasurer; and Robin Greeson, historian.

★ ★ ★

The girls practice every Tuesday afternoon for their April water show.

Great Pumpkin Returns Tonight

By GAIL NELSON

"The Return of the Great Pumpkin" is tonight at Stevenson High School from 9:30 to 11.

The wandering gypsy, Mona Laroo, will be on hand to predict the good and bad in the future of Stevenson 'goblins and witches' attending the party.

Also featured at the party will be the "Rael," a muscial group together only one week. Each member formerly was affiliated with other bands.

The group consists of Stevenson students: Bill Prall, saxophone, harmonica, and lead singer; Bill Zwaski, drummer; Richard Currey, bass guitarist; Dominique Dresden, lead guitarist; and Rich Dalecki, rhythm guitarist.

OTHER ENTERTAINMENT

Other entertainment will include bobbing for apples, hay rides and a spook house.

Prizes will be given for costumes in three different categories including most original.

★ ★ ★

Ladders, haystacks and black cats in cages will create the spooky atmosphere for the evening.

The cost of the dance, sponsored by the senior class, is 50 cents with a costume and $1 dollar without.

VICTORY DANCE

The Rael also will play at the victory dance, given by the "Ambassador" staff, after the game tomorrow night.

Last Saturday was 'dads' night at the football game. Each player and cheerleader, and his or her father was introduced before the game. An annual 'dads night' ceremony was held after the game.

Homecoming activities came to a climax Saturday night at the annual Regalia Ball when Greg Wood and Melinda Rex were crowned king and queen.

Nine hours before they became the royal couple, the two seniors were ankle deep in cement, casting their footprints in the sidewalk of the mock set-up of Grauman's Chinese Theater.

★ ★ ★

The Chinese Theater, where footprints of the entire homecoming court were preserved, was only a part of "Premiere '68."

The girls on the homecoming court, Robin Greeson, Sharon Herrick, Jean Jacobsen, Beth Oberfelder, Melinda Rex and Linda Shahan, were ushered down the red carpet and onto the stage by AFS honorary court members Eduardo Colombo and Juerg Straub.

FLOWERS

Senior Class vice president Rob Karp presented each girl with a bouquet of red roses, and their mothers added the glittering "Homecoming '68" sashes.

Marc Bergeron, Jim Cameron, Larry Driver, Jon Otto, Mark Shada and Greg Wood received gold footballs from YFU student Christina Jannson, an honorary member of the court.

★ ★ ★

Student Corps President Marc Bergeron presented the Homecoming Barrel to Jim Cameron, senior class president, for the class' float competition victory the night before.

★ ★ ★

"Thanks to the other classes, the contest was fantastically close," Jim said. The theme of the senior float was "Make Thurston Ill-Eagle," as Groves challenged the Thurston Eagles. The float depicted a large bed with a sick eagle being attended to by a Groves Falcon doctor.

PC Pushes Cleanup Drive; Students Told of Ecumenism

By GERI KLINKHAMMER

The Student Council launched a cleanup campaign this week at Pontiac Catholic High School with the main object of the campaign the cafeteria and immediate area.

One of the council members said that the campaign would continue until the students "get the hint."

★ ★ ★

Monday, the second-hour religion classes heard the Rev. A. A. Lochmann, a Lutheran minister from Germany, give a speech on his work regarding ecumenism. After his speech a question-and-answer period was held.

Pastor Lochmann explained the liturgy of his religion and his hopes of a future union between Lutherans and the Roman Catholics. The Rev. Kreinhieter of St. Augustine's Monastery, Oxford, accompanied Pastor Lochmann and helped answer questions.

Tuesday the sophomores took the National Educational Development Test.

Varsity and junior varsity girl's basketball practice began this week under the direction of Mrs. J. Nickman, student adviser.

The Girls Athletic Association was organized this week under the direction of Cynthia Moloney, physical education instructor. Plans are being made for horseback riding.

Members of the senior and junior classes under the guidance of Sister Regina Curran SSJ, held their first official dialogue of the year at St. Basil's Novitiate.

CAST NAMED

Members of the cast of the one-act play to be put on by PCHS were announced by Howard Hoeflein, speech and drama instructor. They are Nancy Adams, Jill Vest, Tom Bleau and Toby Vanover.

Monday, the Senior Government Seminar announced the results of last Thursday and Friday's elections. Hubert Humphrey defeated Richard Nixon, 162-114. Third-party candidate George Wallace received 42 votes.

Wednesday, the freshmen took the Differential Aptitude Test.

Members of the Ski Club attended a racing clinic at Southfield High School Tuesday of this week.

The Student Council reported a profit of over $300 from the homecoming dance.

Orion Club Slates Dance

By CHERYL GRITZINGER

Following the home game with Madison tonight, a dance will be held in the Lake Orion High School cafeteria.

"The Pep Club is sponsoring this dance in celebration of the fine season the Dragons are having this year. The money will be used to buy booster badges and new pompons for the cheerleaders," club president Viki Dewis explained.

Music will be provided by a local band, the Blue Incense. Tickets will be 75 cents, single and $1.50 a couple. Dress is casual.

The third annual fall session of Parent-Teacher conferences were yesterday and today, giving Lake Orion students free days.

BUTTONS' CARE

Buttons, a girls' service club, has chosen its main project for the year. The girls are going to pick a high school in an underprivileged country to sponsor through CARE.

★ ★ ★

The Varsity "O" club recently elected Mike Bracken president; Bill Baker, vice president; Rick Toles, treasurer; and Paul Bailey, secretary.

The present activity of the Girls' Athletic Association is bowling. This year's officers are Vicki Doolin, president; Debbie Wingetf, secretary; and Leana Liepprandt, treasurer. GAA faculty sponsor is Aneeta Brandow.

The Debate team has only two debaters returning from last year. They are senior Jack Martin and junior Renee Johnson.

★ ★ ★

New debaters include Shela Fiori, Diane Martin and Gayle Rich, all sophomores.

Instructor and coach of the debate team is Mrs. Richard Krauss of the English and speech department.

Brandon

By MARJORIE WIDMAN

Tuesday Brandon High School held an election under the sponsorship of the senior government class for grades 9-12.

The requirements were few. All students took an eligibility test, the passing of which gave the individual the right to vote.

★ ★ ★

Kenneth Stubblefield is the government teacher.

Richard Nixon and Spiro Agnew won with 159 votes.

Second was George C. Wallace and Curtis LeMay, 109 votes.

Mott

By GEORGIA ROSEWALL

"Pillow Talk," the 1959 movie made famous by Doris Day and Rock Hudson will be produced as a play by the Waterford Mott Drama Society in early December.

Adapted from the screenplay by Stanley Shapiro and Maurice Fichlin, the production will feature Teri McCracken and Tom Cox in the leading roles of Jan and Brad.

★ ★ ★

Supporting roles of Jonathan and Alma will be played by Dick Racine and Jo Gibbens.

Other members of the cast are Connie Crawford, Bonnie Carlisle, Ken Dudley, Rick Chase, Sue Dotson, Laura Loomis, Cindy Kulczyski and Becky Kottmann.

OTHER PLAYERS

Continuing the list of performers are Jan Wooderson, Jane Schmdit, Bob Poe, Sue Owen, Nancy Parrot, Kathy Phipps, Kim Whitlow and Ron Ruple.

Heading the crews are Debbie Cox, scenery; Alice Hunt, props; Kendra Solberg, costumes; Debbie Graham, makeup; Jim Durnbaugh, lighting; and Cindy Harper, sound effects.

★ ★ ★

Sponsor of Drama Club Richard Williams, English teacher, is the faculty director of the play.

Pep Club members elected officers Tuesday. Lynn Gatz is president, Linda Talbot vice president, Marta Karwas secretary and Betsy Parker, treasurer.

Oakland Christian

By MELINDA THEMM

Class elections were held recently at Oakland Christian High School. Seniors elected Pam Baslock president, Jan Largent vice president, Melinda Themm treasurer and Ruth Dunlop secretary-chaplain.

The junior class chose Tom Molyneux president, Dan Allen vice president, June Murphy secretary, Yolanda Rodrigues treasurer and Randy Largent, chaplain.

★ ★ ★

The sophomore class selected Dave Gabert president, Dawn Twaddle vice president, Rhonda Gurley treasurer and Dave McClusky chaplain.

Tapped by freshmen were Jim Molyneux, president; Diane Gregory, secretary-treasurer, and Kathy Miles, chaplain and sergeant-at-arms.

The journalism class is holding a "name-change" contest for the school newspaper. Students are to put their title suggestions in a dropbox in room 301.

Troy

By LUANNE GREENSTEIN

Troy High School's National Honor Society (NHS) is a service organization started in 1951 by Miss A. A. Smith and Mrs. A. A. Perry. At the present, Mrs. A. A. Berthelson is the sponsor of the 32-member group.

The Society is involved in money-making projects. It gets 10 per cent of the profit from the books that it sells in the bookstore, adjacent to the library.

★ ★ ★

And, currently, NHS is selling Colt buttons and stickers and "Snoopy" victory pins.

The bagels for sale in the cafeteria every other Monday morning are being sold by the honor society. NHS also sells programs at all home football games.

From the money these students have made, they will give three scholarships, between $50-$75 each, to senior NHS members.

The organization will also give a citizenship award to one person in each class.

The National Honor Society consists of about 5 per cent of the junior class, and about 10 per cent of the senior class, with Troy's four exchange students acting as honorary members. To be selected, students must show leadership and have at least a B average.

Avondale

By KAREN SHELDON

Two delegates from Avondale High School will attend a Youth Leadership Conference on Birth Defects tomorrow. The conference sponsored by the National Foundation-March of Dimes and will last from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Tears and smiles were seen everywhere at last Wednesday's powder puff football game, when the juniors edged the seniors, 19-18.

★ ★ ★

Scoring the touchdowns for the juniors were Paula Sutton and Marny Kaufmann, while the seniors sent Carol Kieta and Geri Peplowski into the end zone.

The Drama Club is sponsoring a Halloween party for all club members tomorrow at 7 p.m. A bonfire is scheduled to prevent crisp November winds from dampening everyone's spirits.

Gov. George Romney spoke at Avondale last Friday.

Dominican

By ANDI BARNES

Strange creatures were seen on the campus of Dominican Academy Thursday. These "creatures" are known as freshies. Halloween day was the day seniors baptized the freshmen at Dominican.

Theme of the initiation was that of gods and goddesses, and the children of the gods. Seniors were dressed in Roman gods and goddesses costumes.

★ ★ ★

Freshies were attired in baby clothes, complete with bright-colored tights, bermudas, bibs, diapers and signs that read, "I'm the original Besty Westy."

The formal initiation, a sacred tradition at Dominican, was held in the school cafeteria. Freshmen were given stunts to perform in order to be worthy of baptism in to the school.

VARIETY OF STUNTS

Rolling grapes with the nose, singing songs, dancing the boo-ga-loo while lying on the floor and reciting love poetry to the seniors were a few of the challenges.

Freshmen are now an official part of Dominican Academy.

Tuesday night, the Christian Action Club visited the Lapeer State Home bringing Halloween candy and dancing and singing with the children.

Holly

By MARCIA CLARK

The homemaking girls at Holly High School, under the direction of teacher Mrs. Hubert Hartz, are planning a December fashion show. The girls will sew and model all the fashions.

The Future Teachers Association will visit Michigan State University Nov. 7.

★ ★ ★

Approximately 80 students with their sponsor, Richard Jacobson will attend.

The FTA also plans to visit other colleges including, Eastern Michigan University, University of Michigan, Ferris State, Wayne State and Oakland Community College.

This is the first time in many years that there has been a FTA at Holly High.

CHOIR TRIP TOMORROW

Tomorrow members of the HHS choir department will attend Honors Choir in East Lansing.

Tryouts for Honors Choir were held Wednesday by Darrell Burget, HHS's vocal music department, head.

The 1969 Tell Tale, the HHS yearbooks, are now on sale during homeroom and lunch periods. Total cost is $4.50, with $2.50 required as down payment. After Nov. 8, the price will go up to $5.50.

The Round-Up, (school newspaper), will soon appear for the first time this year. Members of the staff are soliciting advertisements from local merchants.

The $20 first-place pirze for the best homecoming float went to the sophomore float, "Holly's A Sure Bet."

Second place went to the junior float, "Steam on to Victory."

Third place went to the senior's, "Drive 'Em Loco," and the freshman float "Spook 'em." was fourth.

Whatever happened to the American Dream?

It's alive and well in the 63rd District*

The Dream hasn't vanished; it's just been obscured by headlines of protest and violence. You'll find the real America in the 63rd District—hard-working, tax-paying people who raise nice kids and build good schools. Their man in Lansing is a 35-year-old lawyer and political scientist who believes in clean water, fresh air and safe streets. Don Bishop has faith in the Dream. Do you?

Mutual Friend Is Best Bet for Introduction

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I see a certain man alone in church almost every Sunday and I'd like to speak to him because I am alone too, and I know it's not the happiest situation.

But may a woman speak to a man who is a fellow church-goer without being introduced? — Louise

★ ★ ★

Dear Louise: Since you both go to the same church and see him repeatedly, try saying "good morning" to him as you leave church. A week later you might venture on the weather, "It's a lovely morning, isn't it?" or "Wasn't Dr. Jones' sermon interesting today?"

★ ★ ★

What to say next — if anything — depends upon what and how he answers you. The best plan, of course, would be to ask a mutual friend to introduce him to you.

POSTPONED

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter was given a shower. After the shower, we were told that they are not going to get married on the date they had set and they have not set another date as yet. They are still engaged. Must she return the shower gifts? — Mrs. Allen

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Allen: No. Since she is still engaged, she may keep the gifts. Should the engagement be cancelled, she must make every effort to return them at once.

In the Basement

Maybe He's Happy 'Deep Down'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I can't understand my brother. He and I were brought up in the same house with the same mother and father, but we are as different as night and day. Dad drank a little, and he and Mom did their share of fighting, but I can't say we had a "bad" home life.

ABBY

My brother is married to a woman who treats him like a dog. They don't even live like man and wife. He sleeps in the BASEMENT and she sleeps upstairs. She keeps putting him down and he doesn't even try to defend himself. What on earth is the matter with that poor excuse for a man?

ROCHESTER

★ ★ ★

DEAR ROCHESTER: If your brother sleeps in the basement without a murmur, maybe he likes it. Or maybe he doesn't care where he sleeps as long as it's not with his wife.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a woman who has a 13-year-old daughter, and then goes ahead and has another baby? Don't you think a 35-year-old woman is a little too old to be having a baby?

★ ★ ★

When I come home from school I have a lot of things to do, including homework, so I don't see why I have to give up my time to watch a baby.

★ ★ ★

I can see where this baby-sitting bit is going to get worse in time, because I know my mother, and she is not about to hire a baby-sitter when she can get me to sit for nothing.

★ ★ ★

Is there anything I can do about this?

STUCK

★ ★ ★

(P.S. How old does a girl have to be in the state of Connecticut before she can leave home?)

★ ★ ★

DEAR STUCK: To answer your first question. A woman who is young enough to bear a child is not "too old" to have one. As for your second question: A girl who doesn't know how old she has to be to "leave home" is too young to try it.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have been a diabetic for years. Lately it was discovered that I also have high blood pressure. My doctor put me on a salt-free diet and now there are many things I am not allowed to eat.

When my wife and I are invited to the home of a friend, would I be out of line to tell the hostess about my restricted diet? My wife says if she has to put a hostess to any extra work she would rather stay home.

MANNY

★ ★ ★

DEAR MANNY: I see nothing wrong in mentioning this to your hostess in advance. If she really wants your company she would not consider it an imposition to go to a little extra effort for a guest on a restricted diet.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a businessman should hire relatives when he needs more help in the place? We are going to start calling this place "THE FAMILY CIRCLE." A few of us have been here a long time, and it used to be that the new employes were folks like ourselves, but lately every time the boss hires someone new, it's COUSIN JOE or NEPHEW NATE. We "outsiders" don't appreciate being outnumbered by relatives of the boss. We'd like your comments.

OUTNUMBERED

★ ★ ★

DEAR OUTNUMBERED: Whom a businessman hires in his place of business is his own business.

★ ★ ★

'Make It With Wool'

Girls planning to enter the "Make It With Wool" contest may contact Mrs. Orrin Huntoon at the Huntoon Funeral Home on Oakland Avenue. The Huntoons have moved from Rochester to Pontiac.

The student cast for "Once Upon a Mattress," being presented at Oakland University by the Student Enterprise Theatre, strikes a medieval pose on the set. Opening performance is tonight at 8:30. Other performances in the Barn Theatre at the same time are Saturday and Nov. 8 and 9. Tom Aston is the director.

The engagement of their daughter, Bonnie Joy Lambert, to Bill Cross is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carry of Genes Street. Miss Lambert's fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cross of Holcomb, Mo. Early February vows are slated.

The engagement of their daughter, Rita Ann, to Joseph John Buda, is announced by Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Zidar of Keego Harbor. Early May vows are slated. The prospective bridegroom, a student at Lawrence Institute of Technology, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buda of Arline Street, West Bloomfield Township.

A late spring wedding is planned by Gayle Denise Seney and Richard D. Erickson. Parents of the bride elect are the Henry J. Seneys of Canterbury Drive. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Robert Erickson of Berwick Boulevard and the late Mr. Erickson.

Twins Arrive

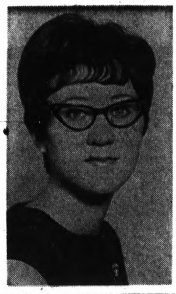

Twin boys were born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Lee R. Rogers Jr. (nee Carole Rider) of Pawgrove Court, White Lake Township.

Grandparents of the twins (named Geoffrey Alan and Michael Lee) are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rider of St. Joseph Street, West Bloomfield Township and the senior Lee R. Rogerses of Dearborn Heights.

Muster your egg poacher into service. It is an excellent timesaver for busy mothers. Just put the food for the baby's meal in the poacher, and the steam will keep it warm until feeding time.

A May wedding is planned by Oakland Community College students, Diane Barclay and Dan Bennett. Parents of the couple are the James Barclays of Ranveen Street and the Vernon J. Bennetts of Beachway Street both White Lake Township.

The engagement is announced of Connie Starkey of Hazel Street to David J. Woodman. Parents of the couple are the Henry Starkeys of Paris, Ohio and the James T. Woodmans of Dover Road. A June wedding is planned.

Karen J. Conlon Becomes Bride in MSU Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene G. Conlon of Brookdale Street announce the recent marriage of their daughter, Karen Jean, to David Patrick O'Malley.

Patricia M. Conlon attended her sister as maid of honor for the ceremony in Michigan State University's Alumni Memorial Chapel.

★ ★ ★

Best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. O'Malley of Battle Creek was Brian L. Doyle.

A reception at the Steinhaus feted the newlyweds who then departed for a honeymoon trip to the British West Indies.

Velcro Turban Protects Hairdo

Waking up with the same smooth, unruffled hairdo as was created by your beautician (or yourself) is as easy as putting on a meshlike turban. It's designed to protect a woman's hair style while sleeping and dressing.

★ ★ ★

This cool, flexible hair protector fits every head size comfortably. The wearer just wraps it around and presses the velcro tabs to fasten it securely.

OU Begins Fall Series

William Read, 1964 Munich International Harpsichord competition winner, will appear in recital Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. in Oakland University's new Dodge Hall Auditorium.

The performance will be the first in the intimate 350-seat hall and will open the 1968-'69 concert series.

The artist will present works by Jean-Philippe Rameau, Scarlatti, Bach, Byrd and John Bull.

Read has toured widely with the Krainis Baroque Trio and as soloist with Yehudi Menuhin's Bath Festival Orchestra.

A limited number of tickets are available through the Meadow Brook Festival office.

Minimize Work by Daily Chores

Organize your cleaning tasks into daily, weekly or monthly chores and you will reduce the chaos of seasonal cleaning. Make a list of the chores and be sure you have the proper tools and cleaning aids for everything. Keep all cleaning tools and aids in a convenient closet.

★ ★ ★

Daily chores would be dusting or light mopping. Weekly jobs are vacumming, silver polishing and floor washing. Monthly you can clean tiles in bath and polish metal objects

Iron Safety Rest

Ever bump the ironing table and have your iron fall over on the floor? A new feature to minimize this danger is a "Heel Rest" which is a three-inch "V" which provides a great deal of extra stability when the iron is sitting up and a wider surface when it is in upright position.

No Nod to Mod in British Show

LONDON (AP) — British fashion turned its back today on the far-out, kookie gear associated with Carnaby Street and King's Road.

★ ★ ★

Style swung back to the classic, with clean, neat lines and severe simplicity, as the Clothing Export Council showed British and overseas buyers coats and suits from more than 30 ready-to-wear manufacturers.

★ ★ ★

The lightly flared redingote and the slim box coat were co-favorites is the silhouette stakes. Also high in favor was the Marlene Dietrich style of military raincoat — belted, yoked and tabbed. It turned up in woolen coats as well as rainwear.

★ ★ ★

White, bright red and navy were top colors, with a comeback for green as seen in Wednesday's export council showing of dresses. With the exception of some small checks and some big bold plaids, materials were as plain as the styles. Jerseys, crimplenes, gaberdines, cotton canvas and smooth woolens are out in front.

★ ★ ★

Most hemlines are near the knee although Twiggy showed raincoats six inches above it.

DOWN ANYONE?

Miniskirts will be descending from their dizziest heights in Britain next spring. It looks as though the girls will be wearing headbands and kneesocks and showing their knees.

The silhouette is soft, and jerseys have never been more popular. There is no attempt to camouflage a girl's natural curves.

Trouser suits, usually bell-bottomed, and trousers-dresses are still going great, but culottes and shorts have left the fashion stage.

★ ★ ★

Evening dresses are coyly romatic, sometimes threaded with narrow satin or velvet ribbons. Designers go in for full sleeves and deep necklines.

The dresses shown range in price from $6 to $13.20 wholesale. As the prices go up, the skirts creep down. Many were just an inch or two above the knee.

An exception to the plain colors were Colin Glascoes' gypsy prints, which roused a cheer from the buyers.

The shirtwaister and the sheath are equally popular shapes. Narrow belts seem to be slightly more in evidence than wide ones.

Headbands range from little Indian-style ribbons to striped and printed scarves with long streamers from one side. They far outnumbered hats, which included berets, bretons and fedoras.

Kitchen Carpet Not Extravagant

Kitchen carpets aren't as extravagant as they seem. The new materials of poly-propylene olefin and nylon are very durable and easy to clean. The latex foam backings will last the life of the rug.

★ ★ ★

The rugs are closely packed so the dirt doesn't penetrate. Dirt can be vacuumed easily. They are non-absobrent, so spills can be blotted. Gone are black heel marks to scrub. In fact, gone is scrubbing!

AP Wirephoto

These creations were shown during two separate fashion shows in London earlier this week. Model at left wears a Mongolian lamb bolero and a leather maxi skirt split to the waist. The evening gown at right is worn with trousers in taupe organza. This was part of Austria '69 collection.

Why Grow Old?

By Josephine Lowman

There is no use pretending that puffs and lines around the eyes are not enemies of youthful appearance. While these cannot always be entirely prevented, much can be done to delay their appearance and to minimize them.

There are several factors to consider. In the first place, as far as the lines are concerned, it is so essential to keep the thin skin around the eyes soft and pliable. You can do this with regular lubrication and moisturization.

* * *

Besides your usual application of cream or oil, be sure to pat an eye cream around the eyes each night. Also, always use a moisturizer under makeup. Remember, to, that squinting can cause these lines. Be sure that you wear eye glasses if you need them and wear sunglasses when in bright sunlight.

Swelling or puffiness over or under the eyes may be due to some physical disability. A physical examination is in order. Allergy is also suspect. Poor health habits may play a part. It is important to investigate puffiness to discover the reason for it, because of health as well as good looks. Repeated swelling will stretch the skin and lead to wrinkles.

* * *

Most people's eyes are a little puffy after a long night of sleep. However, if your eyes are puffy only when you awaken in the morning and gradually return to normal during the day, you should seriously consider the possibility of being allergic to the feathers in your pillow or the detergents used when laundering your sheets or some other factor connected with bedtime. Perhaps your mattress is at fault.

You can have your sheets washed in mild soap flakes, and you can buy foam rubber pillows. You might try these two measures before seeing an allergist.

* * *

The real "bags" under the eyes come from fatty deposits. One does not have to be overweight to have these. Fortunately, they can be removed by plastic surgery.

Pam Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Heard of Charles Lane began her reign as Eastern Michigan University's Homecoming Queen Thursday night. Pam is a junior majoring in business administration.

Woell Exhibit Is Double One

J. Fred Woell's sculpture and jewelry will be exhibited at the Birmingham Gallery beginning with a preview Saturday from 5 to 8 p.m. and continuing through Nov. 27.

Woell's works, including graphics, have been shown in many important exhibitions throughout the country. He has recently been instructing in metal crafts at the Pontiac Creative Arts Center.

The Gallery is open Tuesday through Saturday from 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Friday evenings until 9.

Central School Will Hold Fair

Bossy Bows to Buxom Belles

LANSING (UPI) — Michigan State University girl watchers were surprised Thursday by the college version of the Wall Street bounce during a "Beat Francine" contest.

Some 1,000 students jammed a campus square to ogle buxomy coed contestants and were greeted instead by a pair of cows entered as a joke.

★ ★ ★

The cows were quickly disqualified and two young ladies — Cathy Depuydt, 19, Holland, and Gay Lynn, 21, Clarkston, — competed in the battle of the bust.

Miss Depuydt was awarded first prize when she stretched the tape to 43½. Miss Lynn measured 38½.

★ ★ ★

The contest, sponsored by the student newspaper, was inspired by Franchine Gottfried, the buxom gal whose strolls to work along New York's Wall Street drew thousands of spectators.

Moser-Hine Vows Said

Newlyweds the David F. Mosers (nee Alice Jean Hine) are honeymooning at Niagara Falls. Vows were spoken Saturday in New Hope Bible Church, Clarkston.

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride wore a day length sheath with reembroidered lace. She held a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses.

The bridegroom's sister, Ann Moser, was maid of honor with Paul Hine, brother of the bride, as best man.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hine of Dixie Highway, Springfield Township and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moser of Royal Oak.

A reception was held in the church parlors.

Human Lashes Used in Falsies

A leading cosmetic firm has just created two types of eye lashes that can be highly flattering to all. They are the "Natural Lash" and the "Glamour Lash." One reflecting the appealing image of youth and fresh naturalness, the other for more glamorous evening occasions.

★ ★ ★

Both are handmade of imported human hair lashes, undyed for a total natural-look effect and they are available at unbelievably reasonable prices — $2.99 and $3.50.

Miss Bahling, K. M. Worley Speak Vows

Grace Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Deborah Ann Bahling and Kip Michael Worley. Honor attendants for the evening vows were Joan Merriman and Patrick Worley.

Carrying a bouquet of white roses, the bride wore a traditionally - fashioned ensemble of satin and reembroidered lace. A chapel train completed her look.

Bridesmaids were Vicki Robiadek, Mrs. Ronald O'Neil and Mrs. William Thompson with Garry and Ronnie Bahling, James Stuckmeyer, Joseph Worlely and John Hunt as ushers.

* * *

The newlyweds were feted with a reception at the Holiday Inn before departing for a honeymoon trip to Tennessee.

Parents of the bride are the Arnold Bahlings of Holbrook Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Worley of Murray Road.

Mother and daughter can construct a completely furnished doll house with furniture built to scale. Instructions and ample illustrations are given in a new book by Melanie Kahane (left), "There's a Decorator in Your Doll House." Miss Kahane's book, published by Atheneum, is a how-to book on interior decoration and design for children.

Tranquilizers May Harm the Foetus

DETROIT (AP)—Use of tranquilizers by pregnant women may be creating sex behavior problems for their offspring, according to some physicians studying the results of experimental animal research.

If tranquilizers have the same effect on human embryos as they do on rats, their use may explain some of the "aberrant sex behavior we see in humans — boys wanting to be girls and girls wanting to be boys," said Dr. Tommy Evans, chairman of Wayne State University's department of gynecology and obstetrics.

Evans moderated a panel discussion on "Hormones and Sexual Behavior" Wednesday night at a symposium on the physiology and pathology of reproduction.

Declaring that the use of tranquilizers in pregnancy is an important area for future research, Evans said the type of drugs involved are the kind pregnant women take "by the bucketfull."

Dr. Jacques Gottlieb, chairman of the university's department of psychiatry and director of Lafayette Clinic, said he believes experimental work indicates there is no such thing as a drug that affects the central nervous system that doesn't have an effect on the recipient's subsequent behavior.

Panelists said their fears were based on research which shows that if a female rat is given certain tranquilizers during pregnancy her offspring may never mature sexually.

Separates make smart knitting for the new season. Directions for the slimming, vertically patterned sweater and skirt are available for sizes 10 to 16.

Separates Trend Is Boon to Fashionable Knitters

Knitters following the current fashion trends know that separates add up to great good looks.

Skirts have made an important comeback for fall and winter and you have your pick of styles. Easy A-lines, pleats of all kinds and straight skirts all share fashion's favor. Pair them with sweaters for a sporty look and with shirts for casual town wear.

To keep yourself truly in a with-it look, drape the shirt with chunky chain necklaces — up to three and four at a time. This year all that glitters is fashion gold.

The skirt featured today is one you'll want to knit and pair with any number of shirts, solid-color and prints, too. It is made in four easy-to- work panels with soft, flattering shaping. Knit it in and Wintuck sports yarn in any size from 10 to 16.

Knittin instructions for the skirt are available in a leaflet which also gives direction for making a turtleneck pullover. The trim, tailored design has a vertical pattern that slims you into sleek shape.

The pattern is featured on the front, back and down each sleeve, too, for fashiin dash. The sweater can be knitted for sizes 10 to 16.

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Canada defeated Australia in the Bridge Olympiad to finish fourth to Australia's fifth. A large part of the margin of victory came from today's hand, which typifies the free-wheeling style of bidding used by both Canada and Australia.

JACOBY

Many players would shudder at South's two heart overcall. We won't exactly shudder, but we doubt if we would have made it either.

★ ★ ★

We can't fault North's three heart call in the slightest, except from a result standpoint. Shorty Sheardown of Canada doubled. Bruce Elliott left in the double on the theory that Shorty could be depended on to know what he was doing. He opened the king of spades.

South took his ace and led a diamond to dummy's king and East's ace. East led a trump to dummy's ace. At this stage South decided to save what he could from the wreckage. He led a second diamond from dummy. East was in with the queen and knocked out dummy's last trump. South led a third diamond from dummy and ruffed it.

★ ★ ★

Then he played a club to West's queen. West led a spade. South ruffed this for his fifth trick and still had to make his jack of trumps to get off for down three against the 5-0 trump break, with all finesses going wrong.

The bidding proceeded the same way at the other table. Eric Murray, who likes to bid whenever it is his turn, also overcalled with two hearts. Sammy Kehela raised him to three and East doubled. Then came the save. West took out to three spades and played it there.

★ ★ ★

He did lose the two trump tricks, but because both the club and diamond finesses worked for him and since he was able to ruff out the ace and king of hearts to establish dummy's queen for a club discard, he made four odd but Australia still lost 630 points or 12 International Match Points on the hand.

♦♠CARD Sense♦♠

Q—The bidding has been:

You, South, bold:

♠AK76 ♥KQ94 ♦A ♣KQ107

What do you do now?

A—Bid either four spades or three no-trump but do not pass. We slightly favor three no-trump.

TODAY'S QUESTION

Instead of bidding three spades your partner bids four hearts over your three hearts. What do you do now?

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
For Saturday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology shows the way."

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Popularity increases. Those who claimed you were headstrong now sing your praises. You are inventive instead of stubborn. You get credit for being ingenious. Take advantage of high cycle.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Tendency is to talk about subjects which are not yet ripe. Means avoid being premature in conclusions. Statements today require verification. Avoid going out on limb. Message clear tonight.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Desires get a solid base. Means you can find ways of turning wishes into realities. Key is concentration, persistence. Realize many are ready to become allies. Extend hand of friendship.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Accent on ambitions. Your views may be revised. If circumstances change — so does your aim, goal. No need for confusion. Key is to think along creative lines. This is to think along creative lines. This means be flexible.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Stress on how you form ideas, basic philosophy. You need co-operation of family. This necessitates ability to explain and be diplomatic. Otherwise, opposition arises from those close to you.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Dig deep into what appears to be mystery. Answer is available. But you may be fearful of result. Know this and understand your own emotions. Money is involved. But over-all picture needs clarification.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Your ability to make intelligent compromise is spotlighted. Inner strength provides answer. Don't let pride inside meaningful relationship. Fight tendency of pride to hide true feelings.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Health and relations with work associates combine. Means how you get along with others affects how you feel today. Know this and avoid petty disputes. Finish major task. No more delay.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Romantic interests are accented. Emotions take play away from logic. You tend to act on impulse. Strive for the new. Obtain fresh viewpoint. Avoid one who broods about past.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23-Jan. 19): Practical issues dominate. Includes home repairs, investments. Key is desire to obtain greater sense of security. Be receptive. Avoid trying to force people to your views. Wait — others join.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Accent on short journey, dealings with close relatives. Numerous errands, requests occupy time. Not so good for concentration. But day is excellent for socializing, developing ideas.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): Stress on how much to save, spend. Key is to know what you are doing — and why. Be aware of facts, figures. Delineate possibilities, trends. Rely on keen observation to obtain truth.

IF SATURDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you tend to be moody. This quality is attractive to opposite sex. If controlled, you could be fine artist, performer. Otherwise, you make yourself unhappy. GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for ARIES, TAURUS, GEMINI. Special word to AQUARIUS: If versatile, you gain objective.

$15 Million to Make Film

2nd 'Battle of Britain' Is Costly

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

LONDON — The second Battle of Britain is lasting nine months at a cost of $15 million.

THOMAS

The first one took three months, with no estimate of the expense.

The logician for "The Battle of Britain," a film re-creation of the monumental air battle of 1940 that saved England from Nazi invasion, is Harry Saltzman. He is a curious figure to be conducting a full-scale war, being a chunky, show-wise Canadian most noted for master-minding the film fortunes of spies James Bond and Harry Palmer.

* * *

Saltzman has plunged into the project with scant regard for the hazards involved. In so doing, he showed more faith than Paramount Pictures, which dropped out of "The Battle of Britain" last year.

"Paramount got unhappy with the script," said the producer, "and decided not to go with me. That made me postpone the picture for eight and a half months, but it didn't stop me."

PLANES A PROBLEM

Saltzman's determination to film the epic battle helped win over United Artists, which is now sponsoring the picture.

Filming "The Battle of Britain" 28 years after the fact was no easy matter. "One of our biggest problems was locating the airplanes," said Saltzman.

* * *

"The German planes seemed impossible to find, yet we located some Messerschmitts and Heinkels that were still being used by the Spanish government. We acquired 40 in flying condition. The Hurricanes we found everywhere; we had six that would fly and 12 to taxi. Also 20-odd Spitfires—four or five from the British government, the rest from all over the world.

"In all, we had 110 planes flying and 400 models on the ground, at 100 per cent scale."

WARTIME CITIES

So much for the planes. But how to reproduce wartime London and Berlin? Bombed-out London was portrayed by sections of the city under demolition. The condemned St. Catherine docks provided another locale which was devastated by the movie munitions experts. San Sebastian in Spain doubled for Berlin—"German architects planned the city in the 1920s," said Saltzman.

The ground operation proved easier than the one in the air, thanks to one of the worst English summers in memory. Said Saltzman: "We got only 16½ days of shooting out of the first 92 days of production. With fliers and camera crews sitting around at $15,000 daily cost, that was rugged."

* * *

After two years of preparation, "The Battle of Britain" began filming last March. Saltzman hopes to conclude by Dec. 20—if he can get some blue sky.

The cast includes "every English star from Laurence Olivier on down," including Michael Caine, Rex Harrison, Ralph Richardson, Robert Shaw, Michael Redgrave and Trevor Howard.

* * *

Olivier portrays Lord Hugh Dowding, commander of the British Fighter Command. Filmgoers may be surprised to learn that Winston Churchill does not appear in the film.

Presidential Race to Influence Control of the Michigan House

LANSING (AP) — Control of Michigan's 110-member House of Representatives is up for grabs in the Nov. 5 election, and the presidential race at the top of the ballot probably will have a strong influence on the outcome.

When the 1967 - 68 Legislature was elected two years ago, Republicans and Democrats fought to a tie in the House, winning 55 seats each. Three deaths and one resignation since then kept the GOP in control of the chamber, usually by a one-vote margin.

* * *

The House is now adjourned, but if Gov. George Romney called it back into special session this year, Republicans would have a 55 - 54 edge with one seat vacant.

In 1964, the last presidential election year, Democrats won a thumping 73 House seats — just one short of a two-thirds majority. They lost 18 of them in the off-year 1966 election, and hope this time to win some of those 18 back.

GOP HOPES TO GAIN

Naturally the Republicans — who control the governor's office and have a slim majority in the Senate, would like to keep the House and to increase their slim margin of control.

Senators, with their new four-year terms, are not up for re-election this year.

* * *

Analysts trying to predict in advance which party will win control of the House assume the "coattails" effect of the presidential contest will make the difference in the vital "swing" districts where the two parties are fairly evenly matched.

If Republican Richard Nixon makes a strong showing in Michigan, they say, it could save the House for the GOP. If he runs well ahead of Democrat Hubert Humphrey, they add, Republicans could increase their House strength.

UNKNOWN FACTOR

An unknown factor—but probably a vital one in some districts—is the vote for third-party candidate George Wallace. Republicans believe, and some Democrats agree, that most of the Wallace vote will come from people who ordinarily vote Democratic.

Guessing about the House contests, therefore, involves guessing at how many votes Wallace will get in Michigan and — just as important—how many Wallace voters will "come back" and vote for major party candidates for lesser offices.

In short, if many ordinarily Democratic voters cast ballots only for Wallace and fail to vote for Democrats at the state and local levels, it could spell defeat for Democrats in several marginal districts.

* * *

Each party, meanwhile, feels itself vulnerable in some seats and considers the other vulnerable in others.

Most vulnerable of the 100 incumbents seeking reelection is probably Anthony Licata, R-Detroit, who last year won a special election for a seat vacated by the death of House Democratic Leader Joseph Kowalski. Kowalski carried the district in 1964 and 1966 with margins greater than 60 per cent.

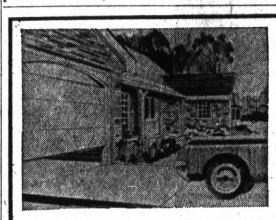

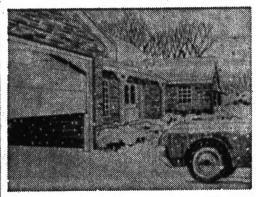

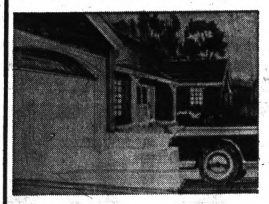

Democrats are also hopeful of knocking off GOP incumbents James Smith of Davison, Allen Rush of Lake Orion, Charles Varnum of Manistique, Philip Pittenger and Thomas Brown of Lansing, Louis Schmidt of Livonia and Dennis Cawthorne of Manistee.

* * *

Republicans, meanwhile, have their sights trained on seats now held by Democrats Albert Horgan of Flint, Jack Gingrass of Iron Mountain, Francis Beedon of Muskegon (who was defeated in the Aug. 6 (primary), James Tierney of Garden City, Josephine Hunsinger of Detroit, Edward Mahalak of Romulus and Richard Young of Dearborn Heights.

Waiting for Lions

Studstill Will Get Chance

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LOS ANGELES — When the Detroit Lions traded Pat Studstill in the Bill Munson deal, someone asked Studstill how he felt about it. "I'm gonna cry all the way to the bank," he said.

★ ★ ★

On Sunday, Studstill gets the chance he has been waiting for since that April trade was made — to play against his former teammates, for the Los Angeles Rams.

★ ★ ★

"There's a special feeling about playing against the team that traded you," he said. "Not that I hold any grudges, but I want to beat them real bad.

★ ★ ★

"It's the way you feel when you change teams. I guess Bill Munson feels the same way," he added.

Studstill brought some impressive credentials both as flanker and punter to Los Angeles with him.

In 1966 he caught 67 passes for 1,266 yards, best in the NFL that year. One pass from Karl Sweetan went for 99 yards, and this tied an all-time NFL record.

★ ★ ★

His 44.5 punting average in 1967 was tops in the league, but he lost the title on a technicality, when an injury left him six kicks shy of the number needed to win the honor.

Studstill's punts, which normally cover around 40 yards, are so high they very seldom are run back for any amount of distance.

★ ★ ★

Only two of his punts have ever been run back for touchdowns, one in 1965 when he first started kicking for Detroit with the retirement of Yale Lary. That was a 63-yard return by an Eagle in the game against the Lions.

The other punt was just three games ago when Tom Brown of Green Bay went 54 yards for a touchdown.

"It was long enough but too low," said Studstill. "They got some good blocks, Brown was gone, and I was petrified."

WANTS HEIGHT

Looking at his present punting statistics which has him averaging 40.2 yards in 41 punts in the NFL, Studstill says, "I'm not going for distance now as much as for height. If I keep my punts around 40 yards and get the height, they are not going to run back too many."

His longest this year has been 57 yards, but with the Lions his all time best was a 78-yarder against Green Bay in 1967, which was the longest of the year in the NFL that season.

"It covered about 70 yards in the air and bounced only once before going out of bounds. I had the wind with me, but I really got my foot into it," he said.

★ ★ ★

As far as Sunday's game with the Lions, Studstill feels the Rams will bounce back from the 27-10 loss last week to the Colts. However, he said, "The Lions are a better team than when I was with them. They have some great young players and it looks like Earl McCullouch will break my receiving records in Detroit in his first year."

Studstill says the old image of the Lions as a free-wheeling outfit is gone. "They weren't as bad as they were painted up to be," he commented. "People would see guys like Bobby Layne in a bar with a glass in his hand and they'd talk about his drinking, but what he was drinking was 7-up."

STORIES EXAGGERATED

He was also considered a free living individual while with the Lions, but Studstill merely commented, "Most of the stories about the players were often exaggerated in Detroit."

★ ★ ★

About the hamstring injury which sidelined him most of the 1967 season, Studstill said, "My speed and reactions are much better, I'm in the best shape of my career."

"It's more difficult to stay in condition back east because with the snow and wet fields there were weeks when we couldn't work out between games."

★ ★ ★

As it looks this year, Studstill has his hankerchief ready to "cry all the way to the bank."

The Rams are tied for first place with a 6-1 record in the Coastal Division, are 13-point favorites to defeat the Lions Sunday and are picked by many as the probable NFL champions.

OUT OF ACTION

Last night the Rams announced that veteran defensive end Lamar Lundy would be lost for the season after undergoing knee surgery.

★ ★ ★

The 33-year-old defensive captain of the Rams is the only player on the team who has seen 12 years of continuous service.

From the Press Box

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

LOS ANGELES—The proposed domed stadium for the Lions and Tigers received a lot of attention in Los Angeles press circles yesterday and the feeling was that the site proposed in Pontiac with its expressways and available area for building would be comparable to that of Anaheim which many regard as the ideal stadium setup.

Many of the LA writers were making comparative studies of the Anaheim site and the proposed Pontiac site and all of them felt that the trend is away from downtown areas and a location in downtown Detroit would lead to chaotic congestion within a few years.

★ ★ ★

The consensus here is that it was the smartest move ever made putting the stadium in Anaheim, a strong arterial center 30 miles away.

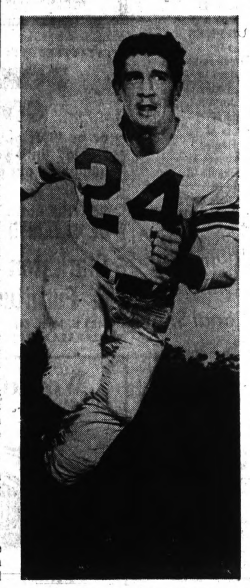

There were some comments made about the slanted interview story in a Detroit paper yesterday indicating that suburban people favored a downtown Detroit site for the stadium.

The comments made were, "unwise" and "foolish" or "take a lesson from Anaheim" before talking about building in a downtown area.

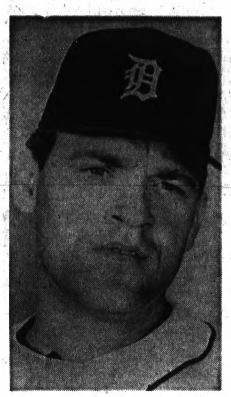

POLITICAL ISSUE

The comments were made that the unfortunate thing about the Michigan site location is why the governor and the mayor of Detroit would make a political issue out of it.

The common sense thing would be to let people who know more about sports and those on the stadium committee studying site feasibility make the site decision.

KICKS COMING — Former Lion Pat Studstill will be doing the punting Sunday for Los Angeles when the Rams take on Detroit in a National Football League game. Studstill was traded to the Rams last spring.

DENNY McLAIN

Tiger Unanimous Cy Young Winner

NEW YORK (AP) — Denny McLain, Detroit's 31-game winner, was unanimously selected today the American League's Cy Young Award winner for 1968.

McLain, 24, is the second youngest winner of the award as the league's top pitcher and the first American Leaguer ever to win it unanimously. Only two other pitchers — Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals, named National League Cy Young winner earlier this week, and Sandy Koufax, who won it in 1963, 1965 and 1966—were unanimous choices.

★ ★ ★

The Tiger ace was the choice on all 20 ballots—two from each league city—in the annual Baseball Writer's Association of America vote. Only Dean Chance, who was 23 when he won the Young Award in 1964, was a younger winner than McLain.

McLain, who succeeds Boston's Jim Lonborg as the Al's Young winner, beat every team in the league at least twice and became the first 30-game winner in the major leagues in 34 years. Dizzy Dean, who won 30 for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was the last man to reach that plateau.

FIRST BENGAL WINNER

McLain, an accomplished organ player who is making a series of night club and concert appearances during the off-season, is only the second Tiger pitcher ever to earn any votes in the Cy Young balloting. Frank Lary picked up two votes in 1961.

The ballots were sent in before the World Series and did not consider Series performances. McLain lost his first two Series starts but won the vital sixth game, tying the classic against the Cardinals at three games apiece. Mickey Lolich, who won three Series games, beat St. Louis as Detroit took the title in the seventh game.

McLain made 41 starts and pitched 28 complete games. He was 17-2 on the road and 14-4 at home and had winning streaks of five, four, nine, seven and six games during the season. He struck out 280, walked 63 and pitched six shutouts. He had a 1.96 earned run average, fourth best in the league.

The young right-hander is a product of the Chicago White Sox organization. He was drafted by the Tigers in 1963 for $3,000 on the first year waiver rule when the White Sox decided to protect another young pitcher, Bruce Howard, instead.

Mahovlich, Howe Lead Red Wings

DETROIT (UPI) — President Johnson may have been able to order a halt to the bombing of North Vietnam, but he sure couldn't do anything about the way Frank Mahovlich bombarded the net.

"The Big M" bagged a hat trick Thursday night, and his second two goals netted Detroit a 7-5 National Hockey League victory over the Boston Bruins after the Red Wings had blown a 5-2 lead.

Included in the game, which started as a Red Wings' romp but was turned into a scary Halloween win by some playful goblins, were three milestone assists by Gordie Howe, his 900th, 901st and 902nd in NHL regular season play.

In the other scheduled game, New York squeezed by the Philadelphia Flyers, 2-1, on a goal early in the third period by the Rangers' Don Marshall.

HURT IN WARMUP

Detroit carried the play through the first two periods, outshooting Boston 28-17, to build up a 4-2 lead against the Bruins and goalie Gerry Cheevers, who started the game when regular Ed Johnston was knocked out when a puck hit him in the temple during warmups.

Pete Stemkowski rammed in a shot in front of the net at the 3:04 mark of the final period to boost the lead to 5-2 before the goblins nearly turned the Red Wings' treat into a trick

John Bucyk slid a goal under Roger Crozier's pads 64 seconds after Stemkowski's second goal of the night then Phil Esposito rifled a slap shot in at the 10:00 mark and Ken Hodge's second marker of the game, with Detroit a man short, knotted the score.

Then the elder of the two Mahovlich brothers who perform for the Red Wings went to work doing his "trick or treating."

★ ★ ★

Frank turned a Howe pass into a goal just 23 seconds after Hodge had tied the game then, when Boston pulled Cheevers in favor of an extra forward with 63 seconds to play, the elder Mahovlich got the puck on a pass from Alex Delvecchio and outmaneuvered two Bruins' defenders to bag his third goal and fifth of the season.

"He could have had a couple more," said coach Bill Gadsby after the game, "several shots just barely missed. He rang one off the post in the second period."

He rang one in the nets in the first period with just 1:08 to go after Delvecchio had put in one of Mahovlich's shots to offset an unassisted similar power play goal by the Bruins' Bobby Orr.

Spartan Kickers Eye NCAA Invitation

EAST LANSING (UPI) — Michigan State soccer coach Gene Kenney says Saturday's home match with Ohio University may determine if the Spartans land in the National Collegiate Athletic Association playoffs this year.

"Our tie with St. Louis last week put us back in the picture for a Midwest spot in the tourney," he said. "Another loss or tie, however, could knock us out.

The MSU-Ohio contest starts at 1:30 p.m. It will be the final regular season action for the Spartans.

Big Edge Seen for Michigan

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP) — Michigan, climbing to No. 9 ranking after five straight victories, is favored by two touchdowns to spoil Northwestern's homecoming Saturday.

The Wolverines share the Big Ten football lead with Ohio State with 3-0 records. After losing to California in the season opener, Michigan has strung out victories over Duke, Navy, Michigan State, Indiana and Minnesota.

★ ★ ★

Northwestern dropped its first five games to Miami, Southern California, Purdue, Notre Dame and Ohio State before downing winless Wisconsin 13-10 last week.

Denny Brown and Ron Johnson give the Wolverines a powerful 1-2 punch. Brown has hit on 67 passes in 137 attempts for 934 yards and nine touchdowns. Jim Mandich has caught 26 and Jerry Imsland 16.

NEAR-RECORD

Brown has netted 184 yards on 72 runs. Johnson has compiled 773 in 160 attempts. He now has a career total of 392 carries and needs only 15 more to pass Tom Harmon's Michigan record.

Guiding Northwestern is rookie quarterback Dave Shelbourne, who has hit on 68 passes in 150 tries for 781 yards and five touchdowns. He also had added 76 yards rushing, a department headed by Bob Olson with 296 in 75 carries and Chico Kurzawski with 195 in 64.

Bruce Hubbard and Pat Harrington have combined for 36 catches. Kurzawski, Mike Adamle and Craig Smeeton each have nine.

Spartans, Again, Shoot for Upset at Ohio State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rugged Michigan State shoots for its second straight upset Saturday when the Spartans challenge second-ranked Ohio State in a Big Ten headliner.

Coach Duffy Daugherty's club stunned powerful Notre Dame 21-17 last week while unbeaten Ohio was having its closest call of the season in a 31-24 victory over winless Illinois.

★ ★ ★

The oddsmakers have installed the Bucks a seven-point favorite to make the Spartans their sixth straight victim.

Ohio and Michigan share the conference lead with 3-0 records while Michigan State is 1-2 in the league and 4-2 over-all.

FULL HOUSE

An estimated 84,000 fans are expected to watch Coach Woody Hayes' sophomore-laden club against a Spartan team that boasts some super sophs of their own.

Defense could be the key and the Buckeyes are hurting in this vital department. A half dozen stalwarts are nursing injuries.

Linebacker Dirk Worden and halfback Tim Anderson are listed as very doubtful.

Quarterback Rex Kern, who has scored four touchdowns and passed for four more, leads the Buckeye attack that features such crunching runners as fullback Jim Otis, the top rusher with 429 yards.

3 Hope Marks May Fall; Chippewas Seeking Title

By the Associated Press

There's nothing left at stake in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association except individual records as the league's football season ends Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Alma has already wrapped up the MIAA crown with a 4-0 league record and 7-0 mark overall. The Scots take on Kalamazoo (2-3) Saturday at home.

★ ★ ★

Hope (4-3) is at Albion (4-3) for a game which may see several alltime Hope records shattered. Dutchmen sophomore quarterback Groy Kaper has completed 62 of 113 passes this year, nine of them for touchdowns. The Hope record for completions goes back to 1951 when Ron Schipper completed 70 of the 142 attempts. Kaper can also surpass Harlan Hyink's touchdown pass mark of 11 set in 1963.

AFTER RECORD

Meanwhile, junior end Bill Bekkering will be after the single season standard for pass catches. That mark is 31 set in 1962 by Jon Schoon. Bekkering, who has scored 40 points this season, has 29 receptions.

★ ★ ★

The other MIAA game Saturday pits Adrian (1-6) at Olivet (1-5).

Central Michigan, the only Michigan team in the Interstate Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, can clinch sole possession of first place in the league at Normal, Ill., when it takes on last place Western Illinois. The Chippewas 2-0 in league play and 6-1 overall, assured themselves of at least a share of their ninth IIAC title in 19 seasons by beating Illinois State 19-16 last week.

★ ★ ★

In the Mid-American Conference Ohio University (6-0) is at Western Michigan (3-4). A victory for WMU would be a big upset. Ohio U. is ranked 19th among major colleges in the nation by the Associated Press.

4 Linemen Left, Cheyney State Calls It Quits

CHEYNEY, Pa. (AP) — Cheyney State College canceled its two remaining football games Thursday because the team has only 14 able-bodied players.

Harold Blitman, athletic director for the college, said he regreted having to make that decision. He said illness and heavy injuries in earlier games cut his squad from 30 to the present 14.

★ ★ ★

Of the remaining players, he added, 10 are backs and four are linemen.

"You just can't expect 14 men to compete against other teams with 40 or 50 players," said Blitman.

LEAGUE RULE

Cheyney has 850 students and Blitman said NCAA rules would allow Cheyney to use freshmen on the team.

But, he said, the school also belongs to the Pennsylvania State College Athletic Conference which does not allow freshmen to play unless the school has fewer than 750 students.

Cheyney was scheduled to play Millersburg College Saturday and West Chester College Nov. 9.

Moffat Breaks Mark as Skippers Win Over Kettering Team

Steve Moffat set a Waterford course record and the Skippers piled up a 100-point lead in the All-Sports trophy chase yesterday as Kettering was defeated in cross country, 20-41.

Each sport counts 100 points and this was the first meeting in dual competition this school year between the schools. Football will be next.

★ ★ ★

Moffat was clocked in 10:21 to eclipse the mark of 10:42 set in September by Farmington's Larry Williams. DeWayne Russell of the Skippers was second and Kevin Reabe of Kettering third.

Waterford's Mike Daly was fourth. Then came Dave Meyerhofer of Kettering. Jeff West and Milt Knight placed sixth and seventh for the Skippers.

Third-Place Finish Likely

Firebirds to Close at Home

With their club president Harold Cousins and general manager Paul Parks, both recuperating in St. Joseph Hospital after recent illnesses, the Pontiac Firebirds hope to close their 1968 season the way they opened it — with a victory.

What happened in between however was a bit disappointing to head coach Tom Tracy and the Firebirds, but Saturday night at Wisner Stadium they hope to end it on a winning note against the Fort Wayne Tigers.

★ ★ ★ ★

A 7-5 record, with a victory, would put Pontiac into a third-place tie with the Flint Wildcats.

LOSE TO LEADERS

League-leading Dayton and second-place Lackawanna both whipped the Firebirds twice this year. The other loss came at the hands of the Wildcats on Flint's Astroturf.

Five players on the Pontiac team, all from the defensive unit, were picked to the all-league team.

Defensive ends Dan LaRose and Willie Washington, linebackers Jon Izer and Steve Szabo and defensive back Chuck Stein are the all-MFL players.

They, plus four offensive players Tom Eifert, Mickey Blazitz, Ron Bemis and Don Barrick, have been selected to play in the annual All-Star game.

The All-Stars from the six league teams will meet the MFL champion Dayton Colts in Dayton next week.

Cousins, who may be released from the hospital this weekend, said, "I know our record has been disappointing to many, but I hope Pontiac area football fans don't give up on us. We're going to do everything we can to bring back a winner to Pontiac for next season.

'DON'T GIVE UP'

"This is an interesting brand of football and certainly good entertainment for area football fans," added the football club president," but we can't be successful if the fans give up on team."

According to league reports, the Ypsilanti franchise may be revoked, and two or three other cities may be admitted into the MFL in 1969.

★ ★ ★

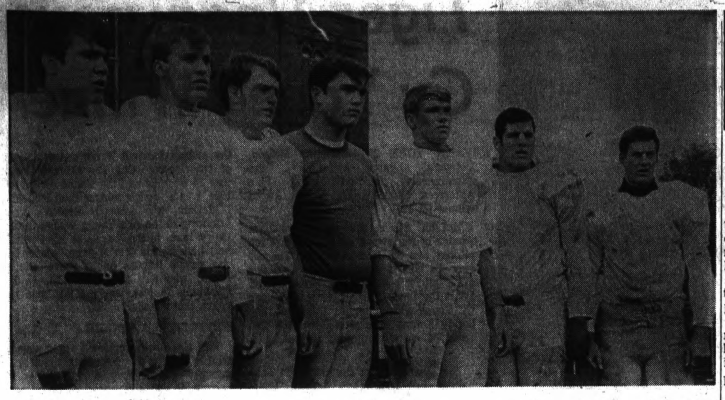

Saturday night, the Firebirds face a team which has failed to win in 11 starts. However, the Fort Wayne franchise is optimistically looking ahead to the 1969 season.

★ ★ ★

John Abel, Commissioner of the MFL noted that, "Dayton, Lackawanna, Pontiac, Flint, Hamtramck and Fort Wayne give the league its best financial stability in years."

For the first time in three years, Pontiac has not led the league in attendance, finishing fourth behind Dayton, Lackawanna and Hamtramck.

Kickoff for the season finale Saturday is 7:30 p.m. Ticket windows will open at 6:30.

NAMES TO LIVE UP TO—When the University of Michigan sends its freshman team against Bowling Green in the first of their two games this fall, several prospects will be burdened with the famous gridiron deeds of relatives. The Wolverine plebes include (left to right) Chuck Fonde, Paul Rosema, Mike Smith, Lee Hart, Paul Seymour, Jim Brandstatter and Bruce Elliott. Rosema is the brother of recent U. of M. three-year regular Rocky, and Seymour (of Berkley) is the brother of Notre Dame's record-setting end Jim and a cousin of current Wolverine defensive starter Phil. The other frosh are the offspring of gridiron stars: Hank Fonde was a 1947 Wolverine player and is a Wolverine assistant coach; Dick Smith played at Michigan State and coaches Grand Rapids Junior College; Leon Hart of Birmingham was a Notre Dame All-American and Detroit Lions star; Art Brandstatter Sr. was an MSU star; while Pete Elliott a former U. of M. All-American, is the brother of Michigan mentor "Bump," and coached Illinois.

At State Cross-Country Run

Northern's Runners Hopeful

Pontiac Northern's cross-country team, which pulled a surprise by taking the regional championship, will be trying to pull another upset in the state final tomorrow at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies took the regional title in a run at West Hills Junior High last Saturday, but they rate no more than a darkhorse role in the finals at EMU.

RAN SECOND

Birmingham Brother Rice, second to PNH in the Class A run, will also be on hand at EMU along with Royal Oak Kinball. Oxford will represent the county in the Class B part of the competition.

★ ★ ★

The Class C-D event is slated for 10:30 a.m. at EMU, followed by the 'B' individual race, the 'B' team race, 'A' individual and closing with the 'A' team race.

PNH RUNNERS

Butch Shelton, Tom Knibbs, Andy Libby, George Pickering and Mike Taylor picked up the points that brought the regional crown to PNH last week. A team may enter as many as seven runners so coach John Osler will likely add a couple to those top five.

★ ★ ★

Oxford, second to Fenton in the 'B' regional, will send Jim Goodfellow, Dennis Clack, Jim Acheson, Lee Royer and Dave Gemmel.

FOUR TO RUN

Bloomfield Hills Lahser, third in the 'B' regional at Royal Oak Kimball, didn't qualify as a team but four Knights will be on hand for the 'B' individual race — Jim Stewart, Rich Craig, Jeff Shanks and Steve Young.

★ ★ ★

Probable representatives for Brother Rice are Lou Ciavarella, Chuck Hotaling, Bob Bennett, James Keating and Bob Shriner.

★ ★ ★

Some of the other area runners who'll be on hand for the individual Class A race are Larry and Gary Williams of Farmington; Rick Randall of North Farmington; Keith Wattles of Rochester; Jon Costello of Pontiac Central; Dave Mills and Craig Huber of Birmingham Groves; Fred Seyler of Clarkston; Steve Napier of Birmingham Seaholm; and Steve Moffat of Waterford.

Pistons Defeated, 134-118

Bucks Coach Almost Satisfied

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Larry Costello was satisfied—almost—Thursday night.

The Milwaukee Bucks' coach watched as his team riddled the Detroit Pistons 134-118 for not only the expansion club's first victory, but also his first as a coach.

★ ★ ★

"These are happier moments for a change," Costello said.

The Bucks had an 0-5 record going into Thursday's game.

"We had more consistency. It was our best four quarters of any game we've played," he said.

TECHNICALS CALLED

The 6,694 fans at Milwaukee Arena were mystified in the second period when officials Don Murphy and Ed Rush called technical fouls on first Detroit, then Milwaukee within five seconds of each other.

The Pistons' bench drew a technical when Coach Donnis Butcher jumped out of his chair and hollered at the officials.

★ ★ ★

After Guy Rodgers sank a free throw for the Bucks, Detroit took the ball out of bounds and a technical was immediately called on Milwaukee's Wayne Embry.

The officials charged Embry was playing a zone and had previously warned the club about the illegal tactics.

★ ★ ★

"He was standing under the basket, that's all," Costello said. "When Otto Moore (Detroit center) is standing around the free throw line with the ball, we're going to let him shoot. We don't think it's worth putting a man on him."

"Chamberlain (Wilt) does it," Costello said. "So does (Bill) Russell of Boston. It's not a zone defense."

LACK OF TIME

Despite the victory, Costello wasn't completely satisfied.

"We've got to work on defense," he said. "We're progressing, but this is not like high school or college ball where you have time to work on things in the gym."

★ ★ ★

"We played tonight (Thursday). We'll be in Cincinnati tomorrow night (Friday), then back here again for another game Saturday night. But we've got to have time to practice and work on our defense."

★ ★ ★

The Bucks, ahead by three points after the first quarter, jumped out to a 20-point advantage by halftime, 64-44. Detroit was only able to shave four points off that margin in the last two periods.

"They tried to press us when we were ahead," Costello said.

"That helped us. I was happy to see them press. We were ready for it."

He also was ready for the team's first victory.

Barry Passes Oaks to Win

By the Associated Press

Rick Barry, star of the Oakland Oaks in the American Basketball Association, is noted more for his shooting than his passing.

He threw in 29 points in leading the Oaks to a 143-127 victory over the Los Angeles Stars Thursday night but, actually, he passed off more than he shot. This more than offset the 40 points Steve Chubin scored for the Stars.

★ ★ ★

The victory moved the Oaks back into first place in the Western Division, half a game ahead of New Orleans. It was the Oaks' home opener, but only 1,623 turned out.

The Stars stayed close in the first half, but the Oaks broke a 56-56 tie to lead 79-63 at halftime and stayed in front.

★ ★ ★

Houston beat Dallas 108-90 and Indiana took Denver 122-100 in the other two ABA games scheduled.

Willie Somerset's 23 points led Houston while John Beasley was high for Dallas with 19. Roger Brown paced Indiana with 25. Billy McGill's 26 for Denver was high for the game.

Major Really Gloating, Has Subs Forecasting

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Father of the Forward Pass

Egad, friends, you're in for a special treat this week.

By popular request, I am turning over my forecasting chore to my football-wise nephews Alvin and Leander — hak-kaff!

And in true Hoople tradition the boys have some startling picks for you—umkumph!

Since Alvin is the senior member of the duo, we will let him give his choices first. This is what he has to say:

HIP ,HIP, RAH

"Here's one for you, Uncle Amos, that'll shake the whole state of Ohio. I, Alvin (The Wise) Hoople, predict the Michigan State Spartans will stay in high gear and topple undefeated Ohio State, 28-14, in the top Big Ten game.

★ ★ ★

"And here's another pip for you. Watch the Colorado Buffaloes knock the Kansas Jayhawks off their lofty perch, 19-13, Haw!"

Jove, Alvin, you are indeed a brave lad. I don't know what Leander can do to top those. Let's hear from him.

★ ★ ★

"Thanks, Uncle Bulgy — er — I mean, Amos, for givin' me a chance to pick against Alvin and also for the opportunity to make up to the readers for some of the bum selections you've been givin' 'em! Like last week, when you wouldn't listen to me when I picked Michigan State to whip Notre Dame.

"But that's ancient history, so let's look at this Saturday.

★ ★ ★

"How about Army to bop Penn State? The Lions are higher-rated but Army is gettin' tougher every week. I give it to the Cadets, 21-14.

"And I got another doozy for you. Rice, the club that hasn't won a game all year, will clip Texas Tech, 19-12."

Well, Leander, I must say you earned at least a draw with Alvin in the department of audacity. Your selections are equally as startling as his.

★ ★ ★

And there, dear readers, you have an insight into how the younger generation thinks these days — harrumph.

Now go on with the forecast.

U.S. Equestrian Team Unbeaten in National Show

WASHINGTON (AP)— Miss Gay Wiles kept the U.S. equestrian team undefeated after four nights at the Washington International Horse Show Thursday by winning the Ringmaster Challenge Trophy at the National Guard Armory.

The 21-year-old equestrianne from Alexandria, Va., took Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andres Jr.'s Senator over the twisting course in the fastest time posted by the 13 finalists in the international-open jumping contest.

Twenty-three riders, including the leading rider of the show, Neal Shapiro of Glen Head, N.Y., and Kathy Kusner of Monkton, Md., who had won this event in 1966, faulted out in the first round.

In Golf Tournament

Archer and Miller Tied

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Towering George Archer and balding, bespectacled Miller Barber led a par-breaking barrage in the first round of the $100,000 Lucky International Open Golf Tournament Thursday, tying for the lead with five under par-66s.

No fewer than 44 golfers cracked the par-71 over the 6,777-yard Harding Park course on a sunny but cool day as many of the country's top golfers fought for the $20,000 first prize in the four-day tournament.

Tied behind Archer, who learned much of his golf on this course, and Barber of Sherman, Tex., with rounds of 67 were Doug Sanders, Jack Fleck, Dave Stockton and Frank Boynton.

Billy Casper, the pro golf tour's leading money winner who can clear the $200,000 mark by winning the tournament, was tied at 68 with eight others, including Don Massengale, Bruce Crampton, Bob Rosburg and Dow Finsterwald.

U.S. Open winner Lee Trevino shot a 70 and was in a long list of golfers who had that score, including Chi Chi Rodriguez and Bob Lunn.

SKY HIGH

Rosburg blew a chance for the early lead when he followed a front-nine score of 32 with a 36 and Kermit Zarley blew sky high after starting with a nine-hole score of 31, following it with a 39 for a 70.

* * *

Archer, fifth leading money winner on the tour, said he had been troubled with flu attacks for the last three months and that he had spent four days in bed last week before competing in a Southern California tournament.

* * *

"I feel pretty good now," said Archer, who at 6-foot-6 is the tallest golfer on the pro tour. "I just get tired easily. I'm tired right now and usually 18 holes doesn't tire me out."

Archer shot consecutive birdies on the seventh, eighth, ninth and 10th holes and then after taking two bogeys, birdied the last three holes.

FISH STORY

"It sounds like a fish story," said the 29-year-old resident of Gilroy, Calif., who played this course hundreds of times decade ago when his parents lived in San Francisco. "Some days you pull them in and some days you get skunked."

Barber, winner of one tournament this year and 12th on the money list, said, "I drove exceptionally well. "I didn't miss the fairway all day. I've always played this golf course well for some reason."

Casper, who has won five tournaments and $183,389 this year, said, "I'm very content with my round. The golf course is in very good shape. I'm sure that's the reason the scoring is so low."

Fishing Prospects Fair

By United Press International

Fishing prospects across Michigan will rate only fair this weekend as poor weather and rough waters continue to plague anglers in both the Upper and Lower Peninsula.

With the exception of some nice steelhead catches in the northwestern regions of lower Michigan and good perch fishing in Saginaw Bay, fishing pressure has been light.

* * *

In the Traverse City area, there were good catches of steelhead in the Bay, especially near the mouth of the Boardman River. Those fish were also biting in the Jordan River near the bridge in East Jordan using large minnows for bait.

Steelhead biting continued in the Manistee River with Coho catches picking up there, too.

A few chinook were being taken in at the south end of Manistee Lake. Also, pike were biting in Manistee Lake.

Anglers were hauling in nice catches of perch and pike in Mullett Lake with deep water fishing providing the best results.

In southeastern Michigan, perch in Saginaw Bay will offer the top attraction over the weekend if weather conditions improve.

Tanzania Affirms Ban

DAR-ES-SALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — Tanzania confirmed its ban Thursday on the East African safari motor car rally next year. The ban is because the Kenya Organizing Committee refused to rotate the start of the races among the capitals of the three countries it runs through.

Palmer Plans to Drop Golf

Arnie Not Enjoying Game, Wants Break

MELBOURNE (AP) — A weary Arnold Palmer walked off the last green of the Metropolitan golf course today and announced: "I've had it. I need a break."

Palmer had just added 77 to his first-round 70 in the Australian professional Golfers Association championship, and he was trailing today's early leader Kel Nagle of Australia by 11 strokes.

* * *

As he sat down with a cold beer, Palmer, of Latrobe, Pa., said, "I am going to give the game away for two or three months. I am not enjoying it. When putts go close by but not in, it drags the rest of my game down.

* * *

"I might even stay out longer than a couple of months . . . I just don't know . . . I just need to start enjoying the game again."

Palmer said he would play a tournament in Honolulu on his way home but after that he would lock himself up in his farm in Pennsylvania for awhile. He also intends to do some hunting and fishing.

O. J. Simpson Challenges Oregon's Strong Defense

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Southern California's O. J. Simpson, the nation's leading scorer and rusher, plays this Saturday against Oregon, a team which last year held him to 63 yards in 23 carries.

Southern Cal, top-ranked nationally, is heavily favored over Oregon, which was picked to finish last in the Pacific-8 this year.

* * *

But Oregon has won its last three games, mostly on the strength of its defense, and is 3-3.

Simpson carries the ball almost 40 times a game and has averaged almost 200 yards in each contest. But the Oregon defense will also have to watch quarterback Steve Sogge, who has completed more than 60 per cent of his passes and leads the Pacific-8 in that category.

Coach John McKay of USC, a cormer star and assistant coach at Oregon, had high praise for Oregon's defense, pointing out that Ohio State scored only two touchdowns from scrimmage against the Ducks.

McKay said, "we must play better this week than we did in our last two games or we'll be in big trouble."

CLOSE VICTORIES

USC barely edged Washington and Stanford.

The Oregon offense has been virtually impotent this year, having scored more than one touchdown from scrimmage only against Idaho.

But John Harrington, the junior quarterback who guided the team to its three successive wins, has presented a balanced attack.

* * *

Claxton Welch is the Ducks' leading rusher and sophomore ends Bob Newland and Greg Lindsey have been the top receivers this season.

A major factor in the game will be the weather. Rai started in Oregon Monday and is expected to continue.

Oxford, Mott Travel Tonight

St. Clair Gridmen Provide Opposition

Oxford's Wildcats and the Corsairs of Waterford Mott don travel uniforms tonight for contests with the top and bottom of the St. Clair Area League.

The outlook for both is a bit on the bleak side, however.

OLD FRIEND

The Wildcats (0-6-1) of Oxford will be meeting an old friend in former coach Walter Braun in their trip to Marysville (6-1), which has already locked up the St. Clair Area League championship.

★ ★ ★

Mott, meanwhile, with a 1-4-2 mark, faces a Marine City squad that is 1-6 but not as bad as the record might indicate. The Marine City outfit dropped a 22-19 decision to Marysville last week.

DEFENSE IMPROVES

Oxford has found steady improvement in its defense but the 'Cats have been unable to generate an offense. They tied Harper Woods in their latest outing, 6-6.

★ ★ ★

Mott, also, bagged a tie in its latest outing a 7-7 bit of work against Bloomfield Hills Lahser.

A key performer for the Mott squad is halfback Terry Ruffato, who has tallied 49 points to spark the Corsairs.

Pontiac Press Photo

NO. 1 CRANE—Doing the signal calling for Cranbrook's high-flying Cranes is senior passer Dirk Dieters, a 5-10 170-pounder who has generated a potent scoring punch for the coleaders of the Inter-State Prep League. He has notched 15 extra points as a bonus for the offense.

Net Rankings Honor Laver, Billy Jean

NEW YORK (AP) — Rod Laver of Australia was voted to the No. 1 spot in the men's division and Billie Jean King of Long Beach, Calif., was voted to the No. 1 spot in the women's division Friday in the 44th annual World Tennis Rankings.

Each of the 10 men and women ranked, representing six different countries, will receive Seagram World Ranking tennis trophies.

The top 10 men were:

Laver; Arthur Ashe, Richmond, Va.; Tom Okker, Netherlands; Ken Rosewall, Australia; John Newcombe, Australia; Tony Roche, Australia; Clark Graebner, New York City; Cliff Drysdale, South Africa; Pancho Gonzalez, Los Angeles; Dennis Ralston, Bakersfield, Calif.

★ ★ ★

The top 10 women were:

Mrs. King; Nancy Richey, San Angelo, Tex.; Margaret Court, Australia; Virginia Wade, England; Ann Jones, England; Judy Tegart, Australia; Maria Bueno, Brazil; Annette du Plecy, South Africa; Lesley Bowrey, Asstrralia; Lesley Bowrey, Australia; Rosemary Casals, San Francisco.

Tour Roster Amended

NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Pomfrey, sprinter now in the Air Force at Sacramento, Calif., has replaced Tom White of Los Angeles on the roster of the track and field athletes who will leave Monday for a tour of South Africa.

Cranbrook Awaiting Stern League Test

Once-beaten Cranbrook can take a giant step toward regaining the Inter-State Prep League football crown it lost last season to Nichols School of Buffalo when the New Yorkers visit the Bloomfield Hills boys' school campus tomorrow morning.

★ ★ ★

The 11:30 a.m. meeting will find both teams owning 3-0 league marks this fall and Nichols will risk a two-year victory surge and a 24-1 mark since the start of the 1966 campaign.

The Cranes administered the only blemish on that record with their 28-0 victory during their 1966 title drive. Last year the New Yorkers avenged that defeat with a 32-0 victory.

That, incidentally, was the lowest point total of the year for the Buffalo boys. They set a record for the western New York region by averaging approximately 35 points a game in 1967.

★ ★ ★

Nichols features the rare single wing offense with a pair of 200-pound backfield mates to lead the power sweeps for talented tailback Tom Jerge.

But Cranbrook has one of its better units, too, with seniors Dirk Dieters, the quarterback, and Craig Tuohy, a rangy tailback, setting the pace. Fullback John Wallace and wingback Tony Thomas round out the running corps.

Up front 210-pounder Denny Harris has been a two-way standout at tackle. Ed Perrin also rates coach Del Walden's praise for his play at defensive end.

Cranbrook's only loss was at Mount Pleasant, 28-14, in the lone game in which it hasn't scored at least four touchdowns. Country Day and Birmingham Groves were the Cranes' wins over nonleague foes.

★ ★ ★

Both Nichols and the Cranes have one league contest left after their meeting, so the winner will clinch a share of the title tomorrow.

CHASING LEADER—Halfback Paul Adamian of North Farmington will continue his pursuit of Oakland County scoring leader Terry Conley this afternoon in a game at Livonia Stevenson. Adamian has scored 72 points in seven games, putting him in a tie with Jim Thomas of Ferndale for the No. 2 spot. Conley is way out in front with 114.

Conley Has 19 TD's

Laker Ace Nears Scoring Title

Terry Conley's bid for the Oakland County football scoring championship will come to a close this evening when he and his West Bloomfield teammates entertain the Barons of Bloomfield Hills Andover.

Actually, two championships are likely to come out of the Wayne-Oakland League contest.

★ ★ ★

West Bloomfield is favored to win, and should the Lakers do so, it would give them the Wayne-Oakland League title. And Conley so far ahead of the pack at this point to make the race one of almost no-contest proportions.

In the past seven games, Conley has scored 19 touchdowns in leading the Lakers to a 6-1 record, 6-0 in league play.

The closest challenger to Conley is Jon VanWagner of Novi with 75 points and he was blanked last week.

IN THIRD SPOT

Sharing the No. 3 spot with 72 points apiece are Jim Thomas of Ferndale and Paul Adamian of North Farmington.

Pontiac Central's Chiefs will get a look at one of the top scorers in the Saginaw Valley Conference when they visit Bay City Central tonight.

He's Russ Davis, a speedy halfback, who has scored 42 points for the Wolves and shares the third position on the scoring ladder behind Joe Dissette (55) of Midland and quarterback Rollie Garcia (48) of Pontiac Central.

The Chiefs and Wolves also share the No. 3 spot in the SVC race with 4-2 marks.

Running almost alone in the area scoring race is Ron Thrushman of Port Huron Northern with 119 points.

Almont 'Visits' Dryden

Thumb Rivals Resume Series

The Southern Thumb League championship will be decided this evening but the biggest crowd could be at Almont where neither the Raiders nor "visiting" Dryden are in contention.

★ ★ ★

The throne seems likely to hold New Haven who only has to beat struggling Memphis on the 5-1 Rockets' gridiron.

But Anchor Bay also is 5-1 and has hopes of at least sharing the title seat despite a trip to dangerous Richmond (4-2). The Tigers of Armada are 4-2, too, and heavily favored to handle invading Capac.

A four-way tie for the top spot is possible but only if New Haven and Anchor Bay both are defeated.

VISITING HOST

Meanwhile at Almont, Dryden will be host to the hometown Raiders since its field doesn't have lights. The Cardinals are 2-4 in the league and gunning for a tie with Almont (3-3) in fifth place.

Dryden, though, hasn't beaten the Raiders in five years after rolling up lopsided victories in the 1962-63 games. The big rivalry will lure a good crowd since it is Parents' Night for Almont, and Dads' Night for Dryden.

★ ★ ★

The Cardinals will only dress 17 players for the game, and have just 13 players who see extensive duty. Quarterback Jack West, a junior, and senior halfbacks Gary Hebert and Gary Winslow bear the brunt of the offensive workload.

★ ★ ★

Almont is a bit deeper, having 16 regulars among its 24 players in uniform. The Bacholzky brothers, John and Frank, feature the attack.

By JERE CRAIG

"You know, it's funny. I'll bet one-fourth to one-third of our sanction requests this season have been brought in rather than sent by mail. I can't figure it out . . . unless the girls just want to see the office."

Secretary-treasurer Gen Bradley of the Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association chuckled at the thought in her attractive new surroundings on the ground floor of the Pontiac State Bank Building.

This year for the first time the still growing PWBA, now the third largest women's bowling association in the state, has its own offices—two of them to be exact.

"The offices were'nt here," Gen explained. The building people just told us, 'there's the space, you can build your office.' We spent $2,500 putting in the two rooms and another $2,000 for the equipment and furniture.

"The members are paying for this through the 25-cent raise in dues for one year."

★ ★ ★

The attractively wood paneled offices measure 7 x 13 and 13 x 20. As she describes them, they "provide the breathing room we didn't have before;" but how long they will suffice is uncertain. The association is expected to hit the 13,000-member mark this fall.

Since she assumed the vital duties from the ailing, late Peggy Bender in 1966, the enrollment has jumped by more than 3,500.

'HOME OFFICE'

At that time Peggy, with some occasional help from her daughter Doris, was handling the PWBA business at her home. Gen took over while still the city women's president and moved into the family's Bradley Window Cleaning offices adjacent to the pressnt PWBA location.

★ ★ ★

Last year Betty Smiley joined Gen as a parttime assistane just in time for the association's annual city tournament. Now she is almost a 52-week worker as is the secretary-treasurer.

★ ★ ★

In addition, Ruby Keller and Carol Arnold help out during the heavy workload periods. Gen's duties keep her occupied 38 hours a week at a $3600 annual salary. As she says, it's a job "that seeks the woman" and not the other way around.

★ ★ ★

Basically, the local association acts as the intermediary between the woman bowler and the governing Woman's International Bowling Congress. It's a busy but much needed operation, one that would benefit local men, too, were they so organized. They, instead, are represented by the Greater Detroit BA.

★ ★ ★

Gen is ideal for her duties, having the experience, desire and energy to do a good job. But she has one regret:

"Since I took this job, my bowling has gone to pot!"

SPARE PINS

Entry blanks for the PWBA's city tournament are due back from the printer today and will be in the mail to all league secretaries and to those team captains who participated last year. They will also be distributed to the various area establishments.

This year's competition will begin Mar. 1 - 2 at Orchard Lanes.

★ ★ ★

Similarly, the houses will be receiving the entry blanks shortly for the annual Pontiac Open Mixed Handicap Singles Championship.

Cosponsored by The Press, the Proprietors' Association of North Oakland County and the city Parks and Recreation Department, it will begin qualifying Nov. 24 at 10 local establishments.

★ ★ ★

The Dublin Community Center, which each winter sponsors its Doubles Tournament at Cooley Lanes, has used some of the proceeds from that competition to defray the educational costs of Roger Cleaver, record-setting cross country runner at the Highland Lakes campus of Oakland Community College.

MORE ROOM — Pontiac Woman's Bowling Association secretary-treasurer Gen Bradley has more room and help but is still kept hopping in the association's impressive new facilities at the Pontiac State Bank Building. She is starting her third year in the position after several terms as PWBA president.

Kansas Mentor Has Right Background

By DUFFY DAUGHERTY
Head Football Coach
Michigan State University

Those of us in the coaching fraternity are not surprised to see the Kansas Jayhawks ranked third among the nation's college football teams. Few men in football have the fabulous credentials of their coach, Franklin "Pepper" Rodgers. He is an advocate of wide open offensive football.

This is the same Pepper Rodgers who played three years at quarterback for Bobby Dodd at Georgia Tech and during that time the Yellowjackets had two unbeaten teams and a 30-2-1 record.

It was Rodgers who starred in three bowl victories for Georgia Tech. As a sophomore his field goal beat Baylor, 17-14, in the 1952 Orange Bowl. The next year in the Sugar Bowl he figured in half his team's points in a 24-7 victory over Mississippi.

And the next year against West Virginia he helped put 25 points on the board in a 42-19 Sugar Bowl rout. Rodgers was voted the outstanding player of that game. The next year he joined Dodd's coaching staff.

Rodgers uses the multiple T attack and right now he has the most feared team in the Big Eight Conference, a section once ruled over by Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma teams and more lately by Nebraska under Bob Devaney. Another thing to remember about Pepper is that this is only his second season as a head coach and he's only 37.

Rodgers not only was schooled under Dodd but he also put in nine years as a backfield coach — two for Tommy Prothro at UCLA, two with Ben Martin at the Air Force Academy and five with Ray Graves of Florida

Combined, these three men have 36 seasons of head coaching experience.

It was Rodgers who helped develop successive Heisman Trophy winners Steve Spurrier at Florida and Gary Beban at UCLA. Two other famed backs he coached were Mel Farr and Rich Mayo.

★ ★ ★

Thus, it is not surprising that Kanasa leads the nation in scoring. For six games the Jayhawks have a 45.2 point average. Twenty-four of their 34 touchdowns have come on ground plays.

His present quarterback is a sure-handed passer named Bob Douglass. He has made 95 straight throws without an interception, a Big Eight record.

Pepper Rodgers creates great enthusiasm because he is a bubbling personality. He has a fine propensity for tying in the great philosophy of life with football. I'm sure his players are having fun playing for him.

★ ★ ★

When Rodgers took over last year his Kansas team lost the first three games. But then he and his new staff diagnosed the defeats and the team won five of its last seven games, losing both times by four points.

The 5-2 league record for a second-place Big Eight tie was unprecedented for a team that had failed to win in its league the previous year.

Big Ten coaches know how big and strong Kansas is this season. The Jayhawks started out beating Illinois 47-7 and Indiana 38-20 and now they appear headed for a bowl game

Clubmen Fall in PTTA Play

The top seat continues to be a hot seat in the National division of the Pontiac Table Tennis Association League.

Club 99 is the latest team to fail to hold onto the No. 1 rung when it suffered a blanking Thursday night by West Side Mobil in the girls' gymnasium at Pontiac Central High School.

★ ★ ★

The 6-0 victory shot West Side into a two-point lead over Mr. Steak, a 5-1 winner over Arby's Drive-In, while the clubmen tumbled all the way to fifth place.

China City's 4-2 conquest of Elliott Engineering boosted its American division cushion to three points.

Colts Activate Receiver Alley

BALTIMORE (AP) — Baltimore Colt receiver Don Alley was activated by the National Football League club Thursday as Alex Hawkins was cleared on injured waivers.

Hawkins, operated on Sunday night for a torn buttock muscle, was injured in the clash with the Los Angeles Rams which the Colts won 27-10 last Sunday.

LA Pro Kegler Top Qualifier

Harry Johnson Leads Field at Green Bay

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Harry Johnson of Los Angeles rolled a six-game total of 1,295 Thursday and moved into first place going into the finals of the Professional Bowlers Association $30,000 Green Bay Open.

Johnson had 5,229 total pinfall, moving ahead of Skee Foremsky, El Paso, Tex., who led after 18 games. Foremsky scored 5,211 for 24 games.

★ ★ ★

The 16-man field will bowl 16 more games in Friday's finals with $3,000 going to the winner based on total pinfall.

Defending champion Dave Davis, Phoenix, Ariz., finished far out of the money at 4,690, and the tour's leading money winner, Jim Stefanich, Joliet, Ill., missed the money by one pin. He totaled 4,864 to finish 35th.

The 16 finalists:
1. Harry Johnson, Los Angeles, 5,229.
2. Skee Foremsky, El Paso, Tex., 5,211.
3. Mike McGrath, El Cerrito, Cal., 5,180.

PGA Troubles Grow; Annual Meet Clouded

By the Associated Press

The troubled Professional Golfers Association has run into two more stumbling blocks.

Officials of the Memphis Open announced Thursday night they will go with the new American Professional Golfers in next year's tournament, and the Dayton, Ohio, Area Chamber of Commerce threatened to cancel its contract to host next season's PGA Championship.

★ ★ ★

The Dayton chamber said it wanted assurance top name golfers would appear at the tournament next August. It said it has invited representatives of both the PGA and APG to attend a meeting in Dayton next Monday to discuss the situation.

"Unless such a meeting is held and produces unequivical assurances of full and unqualified participation and cooperation in the staging of said tournament by the APG and PGA, we shall be obliged to cancel our tournament contract with the PGA," the chamber said in a statement.

Officials said both groups had agreed to send representatives to the meeting.

BEFORE BREAK-UP

The chamber signed a contract with the PGA to host the 51st annual tournament on Dayton's Country Club course Aug. 14-17 before the APG was formed by many of the top touring pros. They broke away from the PGA because they felt they weren't given enough say in determining tour policies.

Meanwhile at Memphis, Vernon Bell, general chairman of the Memphis Open, and Billy Booe, APG tournament administrator, announced the lineup for the tournament scheduled May 29-June 1.

Joins Soccer Rangers

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — The Glasgow soccer Rangers purchased center forward Colin Stein from the Hibernian Club for $240,000 Thursday night.

BOWLING

The Huron Bowl Classic has recorded some more excellent team scores and another 700 series, while a woman from the Monday 300 Bowl Fisher Body League has been added to the current High Score List.

Pontiac Janitor Supply soared to a 3140 actual last Friday in the Huron Classic with Dick Beamer leading the way, rolling a 242-236—695.

★ ★ ★

Three other teams—Autobahn Motors, Oxford Merchants and Moose Lodge No. 182—were between 3022 and 3044.

The top individual was a West Side Lanes entry, though, Ed Jostock pounded the Huron pins for 245-255-212 and 712. The high game was a 277 by Herks Auto Supply's Bud Mulholland (679.) Herks holds a 12-point lead in the team race.

TIES FOR SECOND

Arlene Lovett's 231-234 — 625 series ties her for second place among the high actual women's scores reported locally this fall. Laura Chenoweth's 638 is tops.

★ ★ ★

At Lakewood Lanes Sunday, Jim Rizzuto offset a split and nine-count in the opening frame by stringing 11 strikes to finish with a 279 and 614 series in the St. Benedict's Mixed loop.

★ ★ ★

The Wednesday Men's Classic at Cooley Lanes had a 237-233—698 by Chamberlain and a 223-213—641 by his teammate Jim Goodale as Sportsman's Bar posted 1001-1013-1066—3080 figures.

★ ★ ★

Chandler Heating responded with 1010-1000—3005. Bob Garrett hit 202-269—662 and Larry Angott 246-245 — 683 to feature the other pinspilling.

Montreal Starts Lighting Diamond

MONTREAL (AP) — Gerry Snyder, vice-chairman of Montreal's executive committee, said Thursday that contracts have been granted for lighting and bleacher construction at Jarry Park, home of Montreal Expos of baseball's National League.

The lighting work, which will cost $617,225.75, will get under way today at the park, located in the north end of the city.

It was not announced when the bleacher construction, totaling $762,000, will get under way.

Completion date for the 32,000-seat stadium has been set for next spring. The Expos are scheduled to play their first NL home game April 14.

Cage Star Lost

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. (AP) — Ken Riley, star rebounder in the Ohio Valley Conference, will not be able to play for Middle Tennessee State during the coming college basketball season. He underwent surgery for an injured knee and will be out for the season.

What if Presidential Race Is Deadlocked?

The importance of the popular vote next Tuesday looms larger than ever with the reported possibility of an electoral stalemate.

A majority, or at least 270 electoral votes are needed for election and if neither Hubert Humphrey, Richard Nixon nor George Wallace receives that number, the next president must be chosen in a fashion provided for in the Constitution.

* * *

Nothing could be done officially to break the deadlock until Dec. 16 when the electors, chosen by the voters of each state and the District of Columbia, meet in their respective jurisdictions to vote for the next president and vice president.

Presumably, each of the electors will vote for the same candidate who carried his state in the national election, although they are not required to do so by law in 34 states.

UNOFFICIAL EFFORTS

Unofficially, attempts might be made to change the vote contrary to popular wishes expressed at the polls.

The sealed votes are officially reported at a joint session of Congress on Jan. 6.

* * *

If no candidate receives the 270 needed votes, the Senate would elect a vice president from the two candidates with the highest number of electoral votes. Two-thirds of the Senate would constitute a quorum with 51 votes required for election.

The House would ballot to elect a president from the three candidates having the highest number of electoral votes.

* * *

Each state, regardless of size or number of representatives, has one vote per ballot. Two-thirds of the states would have to be represented to constitute a quorum and the votes of 26 would be required for election.

DECIDED IN CAUCUS

The vote per state in the House would be determined by a caucus of the state's House delegation, with the majority ruling. If evenly divided, that state will cast no ballot.

Thus, it is possible that 26 states with a population of 31 million people could outvote 24 states with 149 million people.

* * *

The balloting continues, without interruption by other business, until choices are made. The House in 1801 cast 36 ballots before electing Thomas Jefferson. In 1825, John Quincy Adams was elected on the first ballot over Andrew Jackson, who had received the greater popular and electoral vote.

The choice of president and vice president by this method would make it possible for each to be of different political parties, depending on the political makeup of the Senate and House.

If no president has been chosen by Jan. 20, inauguration day, the vice president chosen by the Senate will become "acting president" until one is elected.

Annual earnings of Al Capone from bootlegging operations during prohibition have been estimated at $60 million, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Election Looks Easy ...It's in the Cards!

By DICK SAUNDERS

It was time Wednesday for my second sojurn this year to Mabel's place. Mabel, being the inimitable Mabel Child, Oakland County election clerk.

It was hectic preelection madness as usual.

I walked in. She was dealing five card stud to her assistant, Janet MacIntosh. The scene went something like this:

SAUNDERS

Each player had two cards, one down; one up. Janet had an ace showing; Mabel a lowly four of hearts.

* * *

"I'll bet a 4 a.m. finish election night," said Janet.

"I'll raise that one hour — a 3 a.m. finish," said Mabel. There was a pause. The cards were dealt.

SIX OF HEARTS

A king to the assistant. Mabel drew a six of hearts.

"Check," said the assistant.

"Check," Mabel agreed.

Another ace went to Janet. Mabel plucked an eight of hearts. The bets on this round were classic.

"Better roads," offered Janet.

* * *

"I'll see better roads and raise you airport expansion with overnight facilities for supervisors from South Oakland," chortled Mabel.

"I'll match airport expansion and raise you a multi-million dollar County jail complete with game room for the sheriff, jogging track for the inmates and a Playboy Penthouse for the trusties," retorted the assistant.

DOMED STADIUM?

There was a third raise left. Mabel looked at her down card and replied:

* * *

"I'll see your raise and raise you a domed stadium built with county surplus on Oakland County Service Center property for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to hold public hearings on their annual budgets."

The pot was right. Mabel dealt the last cards.

The assistant drew another bullet (ace). Not bad. Three aces and a king showing.

Mabel slipped a seven of hearts off the top. A four, six, seven and eight of hearts showing. That's what we call a "possible."

MOVES FAST

Janet, high on the board, was fast to move.

"I'll bet Dan Murphy," she asserted with a smugness saved for moments such as this.

"I'll raise you Delos Hamlin," Mabel countered.

* * *

"I'll see that and raise you Dave Levinson and the whole ways and means committee," Janet chuckled.

One raise left.

Mabel countered: "I'll raise you a five-story marble structure to house the Oakland County Animal Shelter." She slyly peeked at her down card.

HOLE CARD

Janet turned up a king in the hole. That gave her a full boat, aces over kings.

Mabel nonchalantly flipped over her hole card — a five of hearts. A straight flush.

* * *

At this point, I kind of got the feeling that Tuesday's election is going to run smoothly. That kind of thing leaves me with a foreboding. It's the ones you expect to go well, that always end up in a state of chaos.

If it helps any, the odds against a player being dealt a straight flush in poker are 64,974 to 1.

Those are also about the right odds against us ever having an election without any problems, or walking in on a fantasy such as the one described above.

State Border Divides Town's Morality

WENDOVER, Utah (AP) — Wendover, age 61, is a strange little community—population 750—with a strange history. And it sits on the edge of some of the strangest countryside in the world, a sheet of snowy-white salt.

Split down the middle by the Utah-Nevada line, the town has one-half observing the conservative laws inspired by Utah's Mormon Church. The other half is an around-the-clock miniature Las Vegas, replete with flashing neon, gamblin, liquor and go-go girls.

★ ★ ★

One of the two casinos on the Nevada side is just inches over the line. A sign outside proclaims "This is the Place," a not-too-subtle play on Brigham Young's declaration to his pioneer Mormons when they arrived to settle Salt Lake City, 120 miles east of Wendover.

Despite the casinos, there is no bank. And no cemetery; those who die are buried in Tooele, 75 miles east, the county seat on the Utah side, or Elko, 110 miles west, the county seat in Nevada

SPECIALIZATION

Deputy Sheriff Marion Carter enforces the Utah law, while Deputy Earl Lacey handles the Nevada trade. And each has his own jail.

Wendover is a watering hole for the American tourist, who doesn't find much to tour within a hundred miles. Another sign says "Where the West Begins" —a roadside refrain found at dozens of towns from the Mississippi to the Pacific.

★ ★ ★

Most of Wendover's residents are salt miners, railroaders, or employes of one of the casinos, two hotels, seven motels, four restaurants, 13 service stations and two garages.

Adjoining Wendover is an abandoned airfield, where, 23 years ago, a solemn group of Army Air Force volunteers practiced again and again the atomic bomb missions that destroyed Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and brought an end to World War II.

SALT FLATS

More than 17,000 men once were stationed at the base.

Within an airhorn blast of the trucks that roar down U.S. 40 through Wendover are the Bonneville Salt Flats, a 200-square-mile section where the salt is at its purest and lies perfectly level.

★ ★ ★

It's the world's best racing surface. Late each summer men with sleek, high-powered machines and a platoon of mechanics put up at Wendover for a few days of speed on wheels.

The story of the salt is the story of Wendover. It begins millions of years ago, when the entire West, from California to the Rockies, was undersea.

BEDS FAULTED

Limestone beds of the sea floor were faulted and cracked, producing mountains and valleys.

In western Utah, the mountains formed a closed circle and glaciers flowed down the peaks to create prehistoric Lake Bonneville, once as big as Lake Michigan.

★ ★ ★

The effect, as one geologist explains, was "a giant bathtub —a tub without a drain"

Most of Lake Bonneville evaporated over time. What's left is the Great Salt Lake—itself 25 per cent salt—and the one-half billion tons of salt on the flats.

SALT BARRIER

To the pioneers, the salt was a barrier worse than any mountain.

In 1846, George Donner led a party across the salt to Pilot Peak, just north of Wendover. Scores of oxen and other animals died in the horrible journey. Tracks of the surviving wagons are still etched in the salt.

★ ★ ★

By 1900, the need for a direct route to the West Coast was still unfulfilled, and the Western Pacific Railroad determined to cross the flats.

With great difficulty, the road bed was pushed across. And to provide water and service for the steam engines, the railroad built Wendover in 1907. Water was piped by gravity from a spring on Pilot Peak.

LATE SERVICE

About 100 rail workers lived in Wendover for nearly a half-century. The town and its water yielded to the diesel, and the railroad work force was cut to 25.

While fast transportation had finally conquered the flats, fast communication had not—until the first coast-to-coast telephone line was joined at Wendover on July 28, 1914.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-eight years later, the first tanscontinental all-weather buried cable was completed at Wendover.

Wendover lives on one industry besides racing, and it too depends on the salt. The Kaiser Aluminum Co., with a system both imaginative and ridiculously simple, sends trainloads of potash fertilizer from Wendover each year.

VALUABLE DEPOSITS

A ditch 54 miles long, cut into the salt in a centrifugal pattern, collects brine and empties it into evaporating ponds. The liquid contains potassium chloride, easily milled into potash.

"The potash plant has taken up the slack for the railroad," says Mayor John Susich, 52, operator of the Western Motel and Cafe and the Texaco station.

★ ★ ★

"Wendover is a growing town. And it's a good little town, with good people."

The Gourmet Adventures of Jayson's

The Pub, or "the local," as it is called by its dedicated habitues, is the most revered of Britain's hearty held institutions. Pubs are seriously regarded by the British, as well they should be. Many of the establishments are landmarks with long and fascinating histories that parallel the fortunes of Britain itself. With very few exceptions, these pubs are not for dinner. Luncheon is their main meal. Simple food of a sort that has come to be known as typical pub fare . . . veal-and ham and steak-and-kidney pies, meat and fish pasties, sometimes steaks and chops and almost bangers and mash. Beer, of course, is the mainstay of the pubs. It is beer British style, called "bitter," and it is ordered by the pint, if you are the man you think you are, or the half pint, if you are timid.

You will find the atmosphere at JAYSON'S, 4195 Dixie Hwy. at Hatchery Rd., Drayton Plains, is as warm and friendly as any local pub. And like a pub, we have congenial [illegible]'s lunch-eons. For reservations call 673-7900, where dining pleasure and hospitality go hand in hand. Enjoy the J. C. HEARD TRIO, Mon. thru Sat.

Ex-Brazilian Boom Town Is Thriving Once Again

WASHINGTON — Almost 60 years ago, Manaus, Brazil, soared to heights of prosperity on a spiraling rubber industry. Then the industry collapsed like a punctured balloon, and the city faded.

The Amazon Valley river port now enjoys its second boom — not nearly as frenzied as the first but more solidly based.

★ ★ ★

Center of a thriving free-trade zone, Manaus imports $2 million worth of goods each month for processing and export around the world, the National Geographic Society says.

Like the gold rushes of Alaska and California, the Manaus rubber boom—created by the growing demands of automobile makers—produced millionaries overnight. As many as 5,000 fortune hunters a week flocked into the bustling city.

HELD MONOPOLY

Once a sleepy village in the midst of rich rubber tree forests, the city on the Rio Negro held a virtual monopoly in the crude rubber market. "Planters in the jungle lived like Indian princes," a resident recalled years later.

In Manaus, rubber magnates built palace-homes of choice marbles imported from Italy. Furnishings came from France. An ornate fountain in the entrance hall of one mansion spouted champagne.

★ ★ ★

Wives imported frocks from Paris. Husbands sent their shirts to Lisbon to be laundered. Children attended Europe's finest schools.

Manaus' pride, the 1,600-seat Teatro Amazonas, glittered in richness. Opened in 1896 at a cost estimated at between $2 million and $10 million, the opera house contained iron framework from Glasgow, cupola tiles from Alsace-Lorraine, and chandeliers from Venice.

The boom reached its apex in 1910. Then prices fell in the wake of competition from new rubber plantations in the East Indies.

Manaus planters, caught in a web of unlimited credit, plunged into bankruptcy. Many fled to Europe. Some found new employment in Manaus. A few committed suicide.

Skeptical on Peace Prospects

Stock Mart Erases Early Gain

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market staged a brief celebration of President Johnson's Vietnam bombing halt but erased the gain long before the morning was over and showed a loss on average early in the afternoon.

Trading was fairly active—nothing like the near-record pace of the last big "peace rally" session of Oct. 27.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 3.24 at 949 15, after showing a maximum rise of 3.48 in the first hour—a backward movement of 6.72 points, which is sizable.

Plainly, Wall Street was showing skepticism about immediate prospects for peace on the basis of President Johnson's announcement.

* * *

Some analysts recommended before the market opened that clients make use of any temporary upsurge to "upgrade their portfolios"—that is, sell more speculative stocks and take refuge in steadier blue chips.

From an early ratio of 7 to 2 in favor of gains over losses, the avalon e-decline situation was reduced to very little—with about 75 more plusses than minuses in some 1,440 issues traded.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down .7 at 351.5 with industrials off 1.5, rails off .3 and utilities up .1.

After an early rise, prices were scrambled on the American Stock Exchange. Levin-Townsend Computer paced the list, dropping about 2½.

Mood Drugs' Popularity Eyed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sociology, one of the sciences which studies people, is trying to find out why so many Americans are using psychotropic (mind-turning) drugs.

Its base calculation is that one-quarter of the adult population now takes them to sleep better or to stay awake more reliably or to achieve some semblance of inner peace.

★ ★ ★

The psychotropes are one group of mood-changing drugs. Another is the "hard" narcotics — heroin, cocaine, morphine. The psychedelics, LSD, Marijuana, and the like, form a third.

The "hard" mood changers are associated with "urban slums, depressed minorities and organized crime," said Dr. Hugh J. Perry of George Washington University, Washington, D.C. The psychedelics go with "avantgardism, alienation and the revolt of youth."

NO CLASSIFICATION

As of now sociology can't classify psychotropic users. Sociology has been too busy studying the other groups because they "can be made to appear more exciting, glamorous and dangerous or as representing a greater social problem," Perry said in a publication of the U.S. Public Health Service.

★ ★ ★

But that isn't necessarily so. Perry is director of a four-year nationwide study to establish whether it is or isn't. The preliminary returns indicate that about one half the adult population now has had personal experience with the mind-turners, and a quarter use them regularly.

★ ★ ★

The drugs intended to produce inner peace by tranquilizing the mind are most popular. In 10 years their use has spread from 7 per cent of the population to 27 per cent. Sleep-producing drugs are next and least used of the psychotropes are the mind-stimulants.

HEIST AT STATION—The Pontiac police headquarters front desk, usually the scene of less-lighthearted visits, was a productive stopping place for these youthful trick-or-treaters last night. Sgt. Leland Gormley (left), Patrolmen Pat Duggan (center) and James Batchelor handed over the goods as part of the department's "Blue Pumpkin" program. Patrol cars also dispensed candy, donated by the Pontiac Police Officers Association (PPOA).

Man Behind TV Nudie Bares His Big Mistake

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The man who gave this desert resort area a nudie show via home television says he was confident at the time that he was the only viewer of the racy film.

Robert Allen Veatch, 25, of San Bernardino was arrested Wednesday by police who quoted him as saying the showing was accidental and that he was "solely responsible."

The stag film was carried throughout the Coachella Valley early Sunday morning by cable television. Viewers tuned in after regular telecasting and saw nude men and women cavorting across their screens.

Station KPLM-TV's program director, Mike Rollins, told Police Chief Robert B. White that, to the best of his knowledge, Veatch, a control technician at the station, was looking at the film alone in the studio after hours.

Veatch believed, said Rollins, that he had cut off all cable transmission and had switched the film to a single TV set.

Instead, it was seen in the communities of Palm Springs, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage and Indian Wells.

White said Veatch soon realized what had happened and quickly destroyed the videotape. The tape, White said, was Veatch's personal property. He said Veatch has been a part of the staff about two months.

Veatch was booked on suspicion of broadcasting obscene matter.

The police chief said final disposition of the case awaits a study to determine whether it falls under local or federal jurisdiction.

Pontiac Man Is Walkaway at Prison Camp

A Pontiac man, serving a two-to-five-year prison sentence for a hit-and-run traffic death, was one of two men who reportedly walked away from a prison camp near Manistee last night.

He was identified by authorities as Gary Gillespie, 23. The other missing prisoner is Alan Guest, 21, who was sentenced in Genesee County for larceny from an auto.

★ ★ ★

The two had only arrived at Camp on Tuesday.

Gillespie was sentenced Sept. 10 by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

★ ★ ★

The prison term was ordered after Gillespie pleaded guilty to negligent homicide in the death of Sherry Ann Knight, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane E. Knight of 203 S. Center, Highland Township.

Miss Knight and her escort were run down from behind while walking on the shoulder of Milford Road near Highland on Jan. 1, 1968.

Huron Valley Board to Ink Teacher Pact

The Huron Valley Board of Education will hold a special meeting to approve the 1968-69 teachers contract Monday at 9:30 p.m.

Details have not been disclosed pending ratification by both sides. Teachers voted earlier this week on the pact.

A tentative agreement was reached by the board and the district's teachers last week.

Absentee Ballot Deadline Is Near

Voters wishing to vote by absentee ballot in Tuesday's election must pick up their ballots by 2 p.m. tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

State law dictates that absentee ballots cannot be given out after that time. City and township offices are to be open until 2 p.m. to dispense the ballots.

★ ★ ★

Completed ballots must be returned to local city and township clerks by the close of polls Tuesday to be counted.

AMENDMENT TO ORDINANCE No. 55
The Charter Township of Waterford ordains the following amendment to Ordinance No. 55, to-wit:
That Section 3.01 of said Ordinance No. 55 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

A lot of homes will.

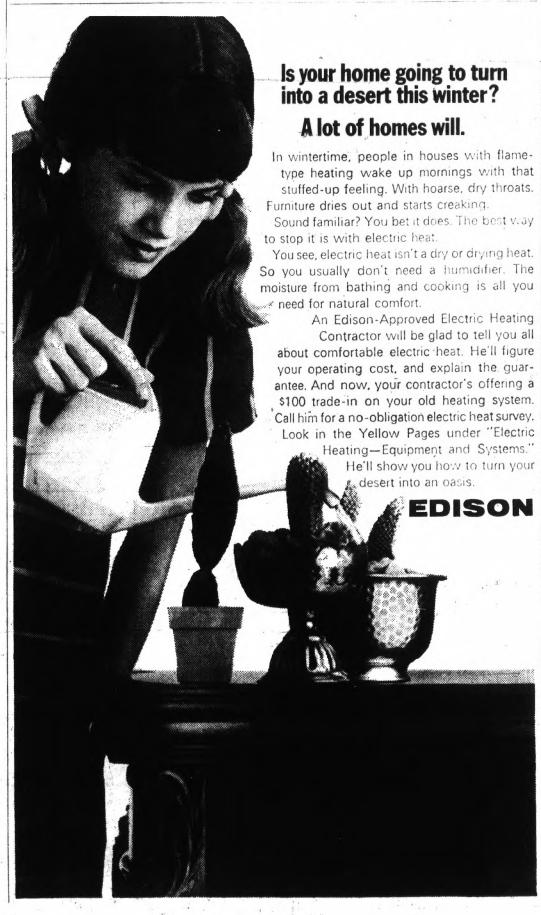

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat.

You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat. So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and explain the guarantee. And now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for a no-obligation electric heat survey. Look in the Yellow Pages under "Electric Heating—Equipment and Systems." He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

Car Insurance Plan Passage to Be Urged

DETROIT (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner David J. Dykhouse says he plans to ask the State Legislature to implement a three-point program designed to solve automobile insurance problems.

Dykhouse said one proposal would compel all auto insurance companies in the state to pool their resources to make insurance available to marginal drivers. All companies would share the risk.

Another suggestion would require all companies to pool resources to protect the public by paying the liabilities of insurance companies that become bankrupt.

A third would do away with the present rigid rates on insurance and would give companies a free hand to set their own rates for all except marginal drivers.

Dykhouse outlined his proposals Wednesday before the Greater Detroit Chapter of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters in Detroit.

We Always Knew We Would And Now We've Found One—

IN HOLLY

We saw roses growing within the whitefence surrounding the little door-step garden and there's a front porch 4 ft. by 21 ft. long. 2 blue spruce trees grow on this corner lot and the colonial 1968 frame bungalow is within walking distance of shopping and has an easy go to churches, clubs. Holly area schools, everything you need including a reasonable tax rate. Even lake privileges on nearby Seven Lake. The "Home" was built in 1950 is perched on a lot with 114 ft. front and runs back 189 ft. on the sides. Built the long way of the lot. Approximately 1800 sq. ft. in size. Has 1½ car attached garage, no basement, as yet, instant heating gas hot water heater. Gas furnace (costs approximately $35 month to heat). Taxes $300.

INSIDE:

The only words for it are a livable, roomy, comfortable dollhouse. Pegged hardwood floors throughout, except kitchen and laundry room. They have the new carpet tone vinyl brick floors. Featured in current magazines as the ultimate in easy care, walking comfort and muffled quiet. Cost approximately $500 to lay. Beautiful brick fireplace in the 15x15 family room with knotty pine walls. Lovely kitchen 12x15 with electric range, master bedroom, 14x14. Two others, 10x12. Utility room, 10x12 with laundry. Another full bath in sleeping area. Living room 20x30. (All curtains and some custom made) 12/pair inside shutters go with house. 5 aluminum awnings, storms and screens for most windows. Center of living room window is Thermopane. On sewer and city water. A good buy for $22,500. $5,500 down.

As one enters the feeling of the house is delightful privacy, comfortable with room to breathe. Roomy but not a burden to care for. We should charge you admission to see it, but we won't. Shown after 3 p.m. by appointment only.

A Look at TV

Politics Snarls Viewing

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK — Television's half-hour programs have been bearing the pre-emption burden of the presidential campaign. The hour-long and longer programs are great most of the time, but they are difficult to handle in an emergency.

President Johnson's announcement of the bombing halt came at 8 p.m. EDT Thursday night, at the end of the first half of NBC's "Daniel Boone." The fans probably will not know, until next summer's re-runs, whether Jimmy Dean ever found the missing man he was hunting.

* * *

CBS, with hour-long "Hawaii Five-O" scheduled at that time, just dropped the episode. After the President had finished, it filled the rest of the hour with an electronic roundtable discussion from New York and Washington, with newsmen chatting about what the President said and guesses about what it all meant.

ABC, best situated because it had two half-hour situation comedies scheduled between 8 and 9, pre-empted "The Flying Nun" on short notice, then skipped "Bewitched," also in favor of a discussion of the announcement.

NETWORKS' ANALYSES

During the discussions, both ABC and CBS staff men immediately raised — and by consensus rejected — any thought on the part of viewers that the President's action was politically motivated. The chief executive's own announcement carried the same strong—but less direct—implication.

After the speech, NBC moved directly into "Ironside." The program was standard police melodrama about a man threatened with violent death, but it was a particularly interesting treatment for one reason. Milton Berle, co-author of the script, played the part of a rude, ruthless host on a television talk show. He played it to the hilt and, as on previous occasions when he was not making like a comedian, demonstrated an impressive acting ability.

The weekend schedules, which are already pretty well loaded with paid political programs will probably have some additions on short notice. CBS's "Hogan's Heroes" will have a Saturday night off and NBC will delay the start of its movie a half hour to accommodate stations on short notice. CBS's "Gentle Ben" and NBC's "The Mothers-in-Law" will be bumped for politicking. However, most of the hour-long shows and two-hour movie blocks will remain as usual. And, of course, there are the usual football games—no candidates would dare tamper with those events for fear of losing the football fan vote.

C. of C. Urges Voter Turnout

The Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce urges everyone to get out and vote. They point out that the importance and value of each vote cannot be overemphasized.

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce is on record as urging Congress to act on election reform to guarantee that the uncertainities of the current presidential election do not again develop or threaten.

The national chamber wants Congress to amend the Constitution to abolish the Electoral College, and provide for the election of the vice president by one of two methods: nationwide popular vote or by a district method.

Key to Long Life Is Rest, Says 'The Judge' Creator

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK—"Man, that chicken liver's good!" Pigmeat Markham, who was born Dewey Markham, said at a front table in Lindy's. "I have been eatin' Jewish food for 40 years.

WILSON

"This thing happened to me rather late in life," he said, "and I'm kinda tired. I'm 65 now—will be in April, and one thing I learn is that home's the place to go to after work. Get to that bed and get some rest. That's the key to bein' an old man: rest.

"Vacation? I don't see no spot for any.

"Because 'the Judge' is pretty hot right now. I wrote "Here come the judge' in 1928 when I was doin' stock at the Alhambra. We kicked it around through burlesque.

"I did the judge on the Ed Sullivan show in 1947 when he had his program at Maxim's Theater, 39th & 7th. Ed didn't have a sponsor then and didn't pay much money, about $400 for five of us.

* * *

"Ed come to Harlem lookin' for me. I was in a hospital.

"I had a sketch, I'd see a ghost, and yell 'WOW' and go right through the roof on a piano wire. The piano wire broke and I broke both my legs.

"I did the judge a lot of times for Ed. Sammy Davis saw me do it at the Apollo. Sammy tells me one night he run out of words on TV and so he says 'Here come duh judge.' The kids grabbed it and we had 18 weeks on Rowan & Martin, and Ed brought me back. I got 18 albums and they got me bringin' a book out.

* * *

"I come here from Durham, N.C., off a little truck show. Now I live in the Bronx with my wife and two children I'm trying to get through college so I keep to the grindstone."

* * *

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

Onassis' daughter Christina, 18, is in N.Y. to take her first job—in her father's offices here. (Marlene Dietrich, who knows Onassis, said at the SeaFare of the Aegean that Jackie will be a very happy woman, marrying "such an erudite, courtly gentleman.")

Marty Allen and Steve Rossi ended their partnership amicably, with a celebration at the Riviera . . . Bobby Darin abruptly terminated his engagement at the Las Vegas Frontier; Eddie Fisher was rushed in a day early.

* * *

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Dan Yudien says his wife and Jackie Onassis have something in common: "They both act like they're married to millionaires."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Jesse Kaplan described a penny-pinching character: "He's so cheap that even if he was in a canoe he wouldn't tip."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Advertising is something that makes you think you've longed all your life for something you never heard of before."

EARL'S PEARLS: You can't blame a politician for being concerned about the rising rate of unemployment, claims Jay Marr—he might be next.

Frank D'Rone, the talented and personable singer at the Living Room, told his audience, "Relax and act as if this was your own living room. For instance, walk out without paying your check." . . . That's earl, brother.

A Summary of Races, Issues

Though most of the attention in Tuesday's election is focused on the race for the White House, it is equally important that careful consideration be given to the multitude of candidates and issues on the state and local scene.

It is in this hope that The Pontiac Press offers this special section to the more than 400,000 voters registered in Oakland County.

The following is intended only as a supplement to the more detailed information, statements and maps to be found in this section.

PROPOSITIONS

Six questions will be put to all county voters — five proposed on a statewide basis and one affecting only Oakland County. In several instances additional proposals will be decided by voters in certain municipalities and townships.

In the case of the state and countywide propositions, there is no wording that would mislead a voter to reverse his intention. A "YES" vote, for example, means that the voter approves of the issue.

CONGRESS

Two U.S. representatives will be elected to two-year terms in Oakland County, one each in the 18th and 19th Congressional Districts.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Oakland County has 10 representatives in the Michigan Legislature, and all are running for reelection for two-year terms. Republicans have a 6 to 4 edge over Democrats in the number of seats presently held.

COUNTY OFFICES

Five offices at the top county level are to be filled. They are county clerk-register of deeds, treasurer, prosecutor, sheriff and drain commissioner.

Three of the offices are now held by Democrats.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

The legislative arm of county government, the board of supervisors will be reduced next year from 87 to 27 members as a result of reapportionment action.

There are 54 candidates, one Democrat and one Republican from each of the 27 Districts in the county, running for the two-year posts.

DISTRICT JUDGES

This position is brand new to the state. The judges, who will replace justices of the peace the first of the year, will have jurisdiction in civil cases involving clams of up to $3,000. They also will preside over arraignments and preliminary hearings in criminal cases.

Judges will be elected to serve in this capacity in nine districts in the county. One judge will be elected in six of the districts, while electors will vote for two judges in districts 46, 48 and 50.

STATE APPEALS COURT

While three new judges will be added to this, the second highest state court, voters in Oakland County will be electing only the one for the district which serves this area. Voters will choose from only two candidates.

MICHIGAN SUPREME COURT

Two candidates are vying for this position. One is seeking reelection. The other is presently a judge on the state court of appeals.

EDUCATION

Eight Democrats and Eight Republicans are running for various offices in the field of education on the state level. Two from each party are seeking positions on the board of education, the Michigan State University Board of Trustees, the Wayne State Board of Governors, and the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

WATERFORD TOWNSHIP

Two four-year terms on the township board are being sought by two Republicans and two Democrats.

SYLVAN LAKE

To be decided are two city council positions which are being sought by three candidates. There is also one upopposed candidate on the ballot for the office of constable.

Further information concerning local candidates and issues in all area communities can be found on page A-4 of today's Pontiac Press.

Five State Issues Listed on Ballot

Six ballot propositions, including the controversial Daylight Savings Time question, will confront Oakland County voters when they enter the polling booths Tuesday.

Five of the six are state propositions. The sixth, an Oakland County proposition, is explained on page 7 of this section.

In all cases, a "Yes" vote is a vote in favor of whatever the proposition proposes; a "No" vote is a vote against the proposal.

★ ★ ★

In order of their appearance on the ballot, the state propositions are (not verbatim):

1. Shall the State Constitution be amended to remove the present restriction against adoption of a graduated income tax, thereby allowing the state or any of its subdivisions to impose a graduated income tax?
2. Shall the State of Michigan observe Daylight Savings Time?
3. Shall the state borrow $335 million by issuing general obligation bonds to plan, acquire and construct facilities for prevention and abatement of water pollution, and to make grants and loans to its political subdivisions for the same purposes?
4. Shall the state borrow $100 million by issuing general obligation bonds for forest and wildlife areas, fisheries and other facilities for recreation and to make grants and loans to its subdivisions for the same purposes?
5. Shall the State Constitution be amended to permit the election of state legislators to other state offices during an elected term of office?

BUILT-IN PROHIBITION

Michigan is the only state which has a built-in prohibition against a graduated income tax. It was written into the State Constitution.

Passage of Proposal No. 1 would not mean that the state would automatically have a graduated income tax. According to a recent ruling by Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelly, the Legislature would have to pass specific legislation before a graduated rate could be imposed statewide or locally.

With regard to Proposal No. 2, a "Yes" vote would continue summertime observation of Daylight Savings Time in Michigan; a "No" vote would return the state to Eastern Standard Time yearround.

Daylight Savings Time was observed this year and last. Generally it lengthens by an hour the daylight hours from April to October.

FEDERAL TIME ACT

The Federal Uniform Time Act of 1966 requires all states to observe Daylight Savings Time for a uniform six-month period. The law, however, provides that any state can exempt itself from this act by action of the state legislature.

★ ★ ★

Michigan's Legislature last year tried to take advantage of the exemption, but a petition drive asking for a vote on the question stopped the exemption until voters could approve or disapprove Daylight Savings Time on the Tuesday ballot.

★ ★ ★

The two bonding proposals, for recreation and water pollution funds, are being backed by a number of individuals and organizations, including the state Chamber of Commerce and Gov. George Romney.

The $335 million for water pollution facilities would finance a 10-year attack on water pollution both statewide and locally. State sources say that it will mean no increase in taxes.

COUNTY SEEN BENEFITTING

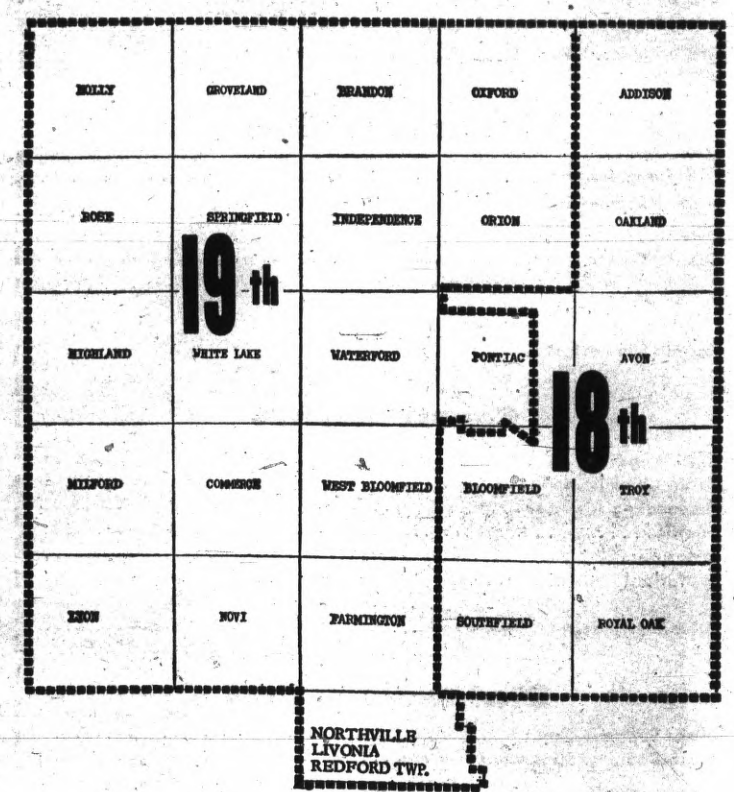

Northern Oakland County will likely be one of the chief beneficiaries of the funds.

Approval of proposition No. 4 would result in $100 million in state funds, to be combined with federal aid and local contributions for a $168 million total recreation program.

★ ★ ★

Proposition No. 5 was initiated by State Rep. Melvin De Stigter, R-Hudsonville, who last year attempted to run for a state elective office while serving his second term as a state legislator.

This was ruled out by Kelley's interpretation of the constitution. The amendment would allow legislators to run for other offices without resigning their legislative posts.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS — Oakland County is divided into two congressional districts. The 18th includes the cities of Rochester, Southfield, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Royal Oak, Berkley, Oak Park, Pleasant Ridge, Ferndale, Hazel Park, Madison Heights, Clawson and Troy. The 19th includes Pontiac and crosses county lines to include Redford Township, Northville and Livonia in Wayne County.

CONGRESS

18th District

WILLIAM S. BROOMFIELD

A U.S. congressman since 1956, William S. Broomfield believes the great task of Congress and of government generally in the years ahead is to restore peace and stability to our domestic life and to our relations with the rest of the world.

"The great challenge is to accomplish that task without sacrificing our freedoms or those of other nations and without diminishing efforts to resolve our social, racial, and economic problems," said Broomfield, who last year was appointed by the President to serve as a U.S. ambassador to the 22nd United Nations General Assembly.

Broomfield, who is serving his sixth term in Congress, says that the success of these goals will require new ideas and new approaches.

"We cannot continue business as usual in this time of crisis and unusual need, added Broomfield.

"The war in Vietnam, the problems of the cities and of the poor are costly and urgent obligations," he said.

As long at the nation is faced with these problems, Broomfield said, "we must establish a system of national priorities and deal with them in an orderly and fiscally responsible manner."

Many nonessential projects such as farm subsidies, the beautification program and many other public works projects must be deferred until priority needs are met, according to Broomfield.

A native of Royal Oak, Broomfield, 46, was a state legislator before going to Congress.

WON FIRST POST AT 24

He was first elected to the Michigan House of Representatives in 1948, at the

Republican

the age of 24. He served three terms in the House and in 1953 was elected speaker pro tem. The following year he was elected to the Michigan Senate.

In Congress, Broomfield is a member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, and is the ranking Republican on the Asian and Pacific Affairs subcommittee.

He also serves on the National Security subcommittee and the Africa subcommittee.

WILLIAM S. BROOMFIELD

ALLEN ZEMMOL

The most critical problem facing America is race, "even more critical than Vietnam," says Allen Zemmol, an attorney from Beverly Hills who has been active in the civil rights movement.

Zemmol, 38, believes Congress should enact the recommendations of the Kerner Report.

"The continuation of an expanding economy, with more jobs and rising production, will also go far to help unify our society and eliminate institutionalized racism," said Zemmol.

It's Zemmol's position that the present administration's economic policy of using taxes and fiscal powers to promote stability and reduce unemployment has proven its value.

"Unemployment has been cut in half since 1960," Zemmol emphasized.

A graduate of Wayne State University and the University of Michigan Law School, Zemmol is a law partner with Congressman John Dingell of Detroit.

In 1964, Zemmol served as a volunteer lawyer in the civil rights movement in Mississippi. A year later, he was named Man of the Year by the Jaycees in Oak Park where he lived at the time.

Pointing out that by 1980 Oakland County's population will reach the 1.5-million mark, Zemmol said that if he wins the congressional seat he will give top priority to seeking federal funds to handle "critical flooding, sewage pollution, transportation and housing problems that are beginning to engulf us."

Democrat

WAR'S END SEEN

Zemmol foresees the Vietnam war ending next year, regardless of who is elected president.

"There is no public support for it," said Zemmol, a delegate to the Democratic National Convention in August.

ALLEN ZEMMOL

Reducing U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war is the uppermost aim of Gary R. Frink, an attorney from Pontiac, making his first bid for political office.

Frink, a former legal counsel for a congressional postal subcommittee, proposes the "earliest possible transfer of responsibility for the war in Vietnam to the South Vietnamese foot soldier."

"He alone can defeat communism in South Vietnam," explained Frink. "We cannot contain Red China, a nation of 700 million people, on the mainland of Asia with an expeditionary force of 500,000 men."

Frink held federal positions four years. The jobs included serving as legal assistant to the assistant secretary of commerce for science and technology; White House aide to presidential assistant for consumer affairs Esther Peterson; legislative assistant to then Congressman Wes Vivian; and special counsel to former Health, Education and Welfare Secretary John W. Gardner's task force on environmental health.

On domestic issues, Frink says that if he is elected he would work to help finance local law enforcement agencies with federal funds.

On the local scene, Frink said he would work to make tax dollars go further and do more for Oakland County citizens, striving to get "my district the money it has coming for drains, sewers, low- and middle-income housing and urban development."

Democrat

"I would fight to eliminate loopholes in our income tax system, so that each citizen pays only his share," said Frink, 35, the father of two sons.

Frink said that he would support new federal programs for education, pointing out that last year, 144,000 students who demonstrated ability were forced to quit school because they lacked funds.

Programs designed to substitute jobs for welfare handouts would also be backed by Frink.

JACK H. McDONALD

Congressman Jack McDonald, seeking his second term, said his concern over the policies formulated by the present administration and his willingness to work for meaningful alternative solutions to the complex problems facing the nation is reflected in his record.

"Greater effort must be made if we are to ward off disaster at home and abroad," said McDonald, 35.

"I will do all I can to aid this effort," he said.

"Due to my background in urban affairs as supervisor of Redford Township and chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, I was appointed to a special Republican task force on urban affairs and named cochairman of the task force's subcommittee to investigate riot prevention and control."

McDonald said in an attempt to solve the ills in the cities, he has introduced legislation designed to give the business community a greater role in job training through the use of tax credits for employers who hire the hard-core unemployed.

In addition, McDonald has also called for the establishment of a human renewal fund which would provide $2.5 billion for a urban program focusing on housing, education, and crime control by slashing $6.5 billion in nonessential items from the 1969 budget.

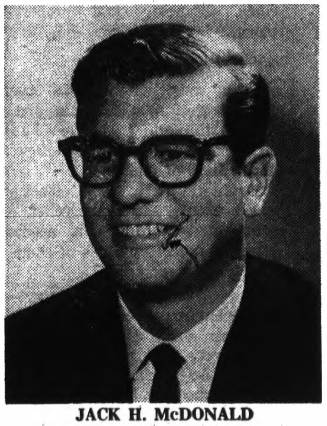

This bill, he said, would reduce the federal deficit by $4 billion.

"I've recognized the myriad of other difficulties in our society," said McDonald, "and have sponsored proposals to curb air and water pollution, increase the personal income tax exemption, and limit to seven the number of census questions required to be answered under penalty of law."

Republican

McDonald said that his whole approach to duties as a U.S. representative has been one of protecting taxpayers by urging reductions in low-priority spending while seeking constructive locally oriented solutions to major domestic problems.

WILLIAM E. TODD
Democrat

A supporter of George Wallace, William E. Todd entered the political scene for the first time in the August primary. Past commander of the Holly Civil Air Patrol, Todd, 37, of 918 Delphine, Holly, is a machine repairman at the Chevrolet plant in Flint.

A former council delegate of UAW Local 659, Todd, an Air Force veteran, attended Spokane College in Washington for three years.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

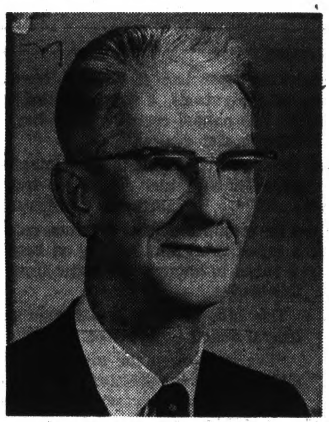

"Among the issues that most concern me are the increasing number of crimes being committed. I feel the laws governing the criminals should be enforced. Our law enforcement officers should not be hindered from doing their duties when they see laws being broken.

★ ★ ★

"I am also concerned about the added tax burden being placed on individual citizens. The local taxpayer can no longer carry the burden of financing quality education and the state must give a larger share of funds to local districts and relief to property owners.

★ ★ ★

"I think a change should be made in our welfare program. Many able-bodied are receiving welfare who say they cannot find a job. Let the state put them to work cleaning up trash on the highways and parks. This would take part of the tax load off the taxpayer plus cut down the number of crimes and riots being committed."

CLIFFORD H. SMART
Republican

School superintendent in the Walled Lake District for 20 years before his election to Michigan House of Representatives in 1964, incumbent Clifford H. Smart is chairman of the House Education Committee and a member of the conservation, elections and retirement committees.

★ ★ ★

Smart, 63, of 555 W. Walled Lake, Walled Lake, is a past president of the Michigan Education Association and the Michigan Association of School Administrators.

His statement:

"There are many crucial issues facing our state which must be approached in an objective and knowledgeable manner if proper solutions are to result.

"This demands the election of men and women to public office who have the background, training, experience and courage to face up to these issues in an objective manner.

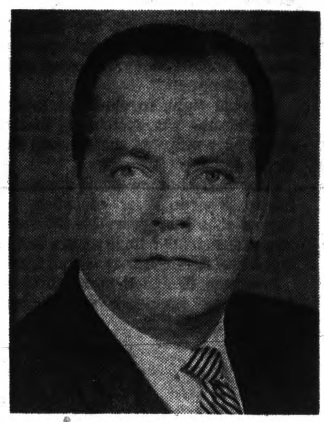

★ ★ ★

"I served in a public capacity for several years. I had responsibilities with budgets, taxation, planning, personnel, building construction, transportation and local government. This was good background experience for service in state government.

★ ★ ★

"I have completed two terms in the State Legislature. This experience should enable me to represent the people of the 60th District in an effective manner."

61st District

LOREN D. ANDERSON
Republican

First elected to the Michigan House of Representatives in 1966, Loren D. Anderson previously had served three terms on the Waterford Township Board of Trustees. Since becoming a legislator, Anderson has been instrumental in revising motorcycle safety and insurance laws.

An insurance agent for 17 years, Anderson, 48, of 2361 Edinburgh, Waterford Township, serves on several House committees, including city corporations, insurance, mental health and public safety.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"The future issues are law and order, school financing and property tax reform.

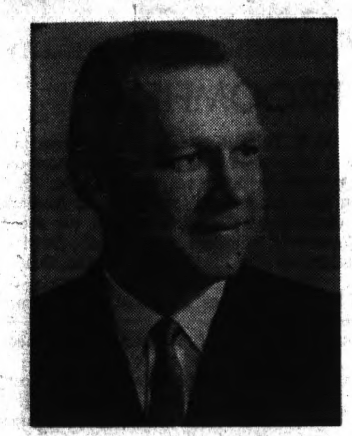

MOST ESSENTIAL

"It is most essential to assure all citizens safety in their homes and on our streets through effective law enforcement methods and efficient administration of justice.

"Dramatic increases in school aid this year are only temporary relief. A completely new approach is needed that relieves property owners of some of the burden of financing.

★ ★ ★

"Our entire property tax system draws an unfair share of revenue from property owners and must be reformed. It is particularly damaging to fixed income persons who can least afford increasing taxes."

DONALD L. COLLIER
Democrat

A Waterford Township businessman, Donald L. Collier, 40, is a 1950 graduate of Michigan State University with a bachelor of science degree. He has attended the Detroit College of Law.

Collier operates the Hi 'n' Dry Lounge and at one time, following his discharge as a Navy pilot, was an investigator for the Michigan Liquor Control Commission.

★ ★ ★

He and his family live at 1458 Nancywood, Waterford Township.

His statement:

"I am dedicated, determined and dead-set on making the Michigan Legislature listen to the people, respond to their needs and get moving again.

'PEOPLE COME FIRST'

"Too many citizens leave government to the politician and as far as I am concerned the people come before the state. I will not be state-oriented, or as it has been so fervently put, I will not be brainwashed by the state.

"My main reason for running for the Legislature is to to do what is right, and I am obligated only to the people of the 61st District.

★ ★ ★

"I feel that the final test of a man is not what he says but what he will do. I will place principle ahead of anything else."

3 Seek 2 Seats on City Council in Sylvan Lake

Sylvan Lake voters will choose between Roy L. Williams, John Hanson and Fred P. Crossman Tuesday, to fill two expiring terms on the City Council.

Williams, 43, of 2174 Avondale is secretary and office manager for Boyce Builders Supplies of Pontiac. He has been Sylvan Lake Justice of the Peace since 1965 and is a past commander of Jimmy Dey AmVet Post 12.

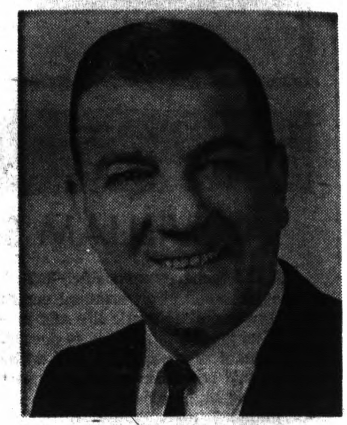

Hanson, 47, of 2440 Garland is an incumbent councilman and was mayor in 1966. President of the Michigan Credit Counselors, Hanson has been a councilman since 1962.

Also an incumbent, Crossman, 47, of 2461 Renfrew is currently mayor. He is vice president of the Construction Pipe Co.

★ ★ ★

Lon Peters Jr. of 2357 Garland is running unopposed for constable.

Republican

The owner and operator of a Pontiac pharmacy for the last 18 years, Howard L. Dell, is active in youth work. He is chairman of the Michigan Council of Boys' Clubs of America and for the last two years president of Pontiac Boys' Club.

A graduate of Ferris State College, Dell, 45, of 201 Draper is an Army veteran, serving in the Pacific during World War II. He is the 19th Congressional District director for the Michigan Apothecaries for Political Action.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"The citizens of Pontiac have shown that they are concerned and want to be part of their government. They are looking for leadership and a voice in Lansing.

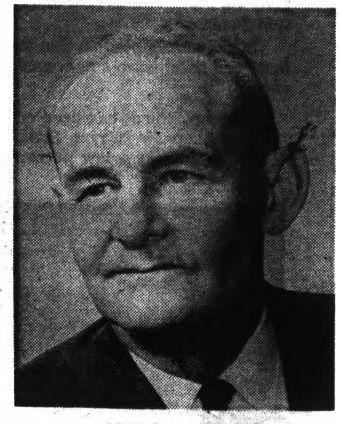

'ACTIVE LEADERSHIP'

"Eighteen years of active leadership in Pontiac, sharing our many problems, I believe, qualifies me to restore that leadership.

"Also, my educational background and many years of experience sharing the problems of our youth qualifies me to take a positive and understanding approach to what I believe to be the two main causes of "crime on the streets" — drug abuse and juvenile delinquency.

★ ★ ★

"As your state representative I can honestly make only two promises — first, to reopen the line of communications with the citizens of Pontiac, and second, to accept my responsibility with an open mind and with the best interest of my city and state at heart."

ARTHUR J. LAW
Democrat

Active in city affairs in Pontiac long before his election to the Legislature in 1958, incumbent Arthur J. Law, 62, of 27 Miami is seeking reelection to his sixth consecutive term.

City Commission for 12 years, including three years as mayor.

He has served on the House Appropriations Committee the last four years:

His statement:

"It is my belief that I should be as representative as possible of the viewpoint of the majority of the citizens I represent.

MOST OF TIME

"The voter should feel that most of the time, at least, his representative will vote on issues as he would himself if he had this responsibility.

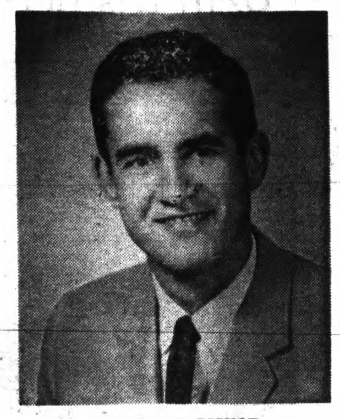

★ ★ ★

"The voter charges us and trusts us to exercise our judgment in the routine duties of our office, but he has a right to expect consideration in the issues of great concern and lasting effect to the general public. This policy I have followed during my years in office and will continue to follow as long as I am entrusted with the responsibility.

DONALD E. BISHOP
Republican

An attorney serving his first term as a state representative, Donald E. Bishop, 35, of 1816 Ansal, Avon Township, is a member of the House Appropriations Committee.

A former banking and insurance official, Bishop is a graduate of Oberlin College and an Army veteran.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"Since its creation four years ago, the 63rd District has had a seesaw history chiefly because of national factors involved in the 1964 election. Therefore it is imperative that the district achieve political stability and continuity.

ESSENTIAL INGREDIENTS

"Continuity - produces legislative experience and vital seniority on the House committees, both of which are essential to effective representative of district interest.

★ ★ ★

"These interests include property tax relief for our middle-income families who are already paying the lion's share of our state and national tax bills.

★ ★ ★

"Equally important is the need to develop a system of education financing that will spread school cost equitably while still retaining local control.

★ ★ ★

"The solution to these, and other complex issues, are not easy but they will come only with the result of effective representation that positively balances the regional interests with state interests."

RONALD S. KNOWLES
Democrat

A business executive, Ronald S. Knowles, 38, of 1783 Brewer, Addison Township, is making his first bid for public office. He is plant manager of the North Hill and Yale assembly plants of the Hamill Manufacturing Co.

Knowles, who is nearing a degree in business management, organized the Yale firm while he was general manager of North Hill, a seat belt manufacturer. He was named to his present position in 1967 when the firms were merged with the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co.

His statement:

"I believe my extensive business background and work progression record of factory worker to corporate president gives me a much greater awareness of the many, many problems confronting our complex district and state.

"For instance, I am able to view the organizational and bargaining problems of public service employes from both a labor and management viewpoint. This would be an asset to a representative who must face this problem in the next session of the Legislature.

★ ★ ★

"In addition, we must seek an effective solution to the jumbled mess that school financing is in. And, too, we have to launch a more effective means of rehabilitating the disadvantaged with programs of training, retraining, and education."

64th District

RAYMOND L. BAKER
Republican

Serving his fifth term as a state representative, Raymond L. Baker, 62, has been honored this year with two high awards for his work in the House.

★ ★ ★

He was named Michigan Pharmacist of the Year by the Michigan State Pharmaceutical Association, and leading legislative conservationist by the Michigan United Conservation Clubs.

Baker of 32718 Grand River, Farmington, had operated a pharmacy in Berkley for 27 years, retiring several years ago to devote full time to public office.

His statement:

"The 1967-68 Legislature has established an enviable record, but many new challenges are facing us for the future.

"Financing of education, metropolitan problems, effective methods of preserving law and order, and improved opportunity for all citizens must receive high priority. We must continue to build on the progress of the past two years in these fields.

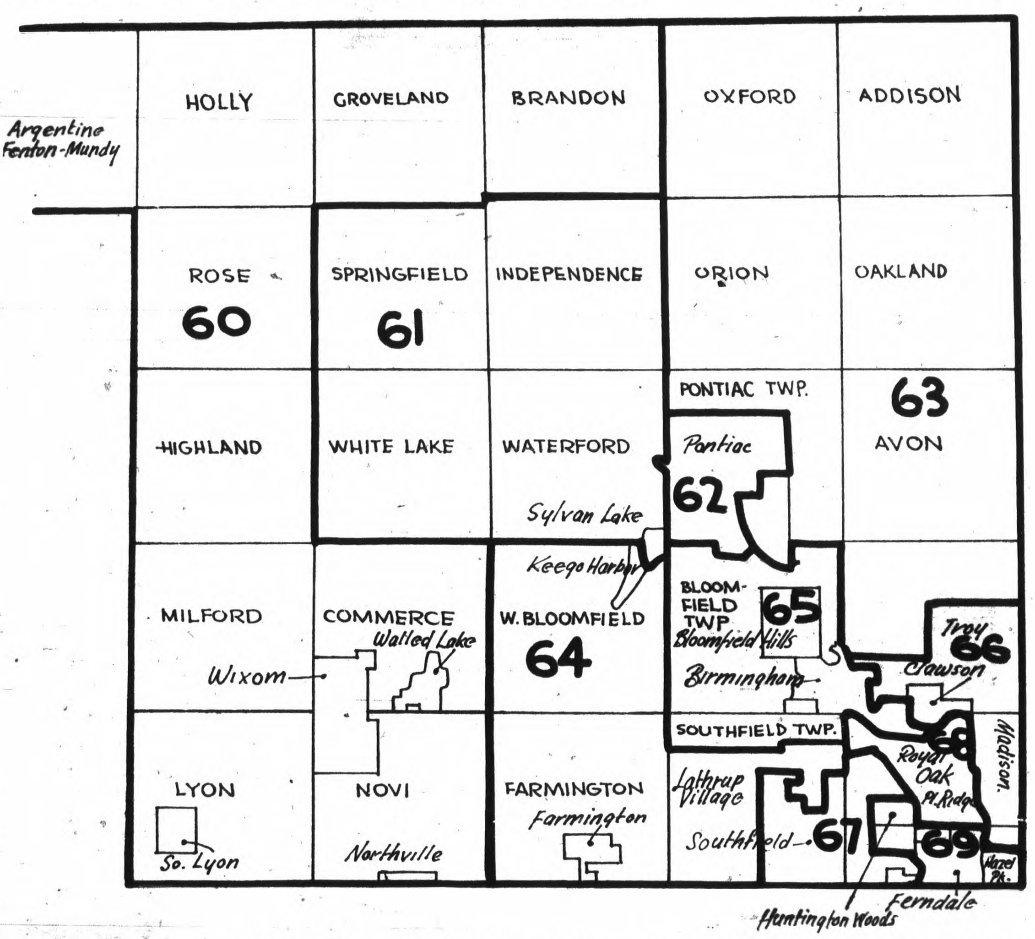

"Better methods of financing state education must be developed, relieving the over-whelming burden on property owners.

"Efforts to solve metropolitan problems must focus on providing framework programs which can be modified to meet local situations, where the specific problems can best be handled.

★ ★ ★

Baruch, 45, of 22304 Chatsford Circuit, Southfield, is the treasurer of the Southfield Public Library. He has a master's degree from Wayne State University.

His statement:

"The State Legislature is now involved in providing large tax appropriations in the area of education. Unfortunately many of the lawmakers are not familiar with the problems of education and are not making decisions for the best interests of the school districts.

"I believe that some state programs should be cut back so that more money can be given to the local communities without additional taxes. There is much that local communities are called upon to do but cannot because they don't have the funds.

★ ★ ★

"If we cannot budget our tax money properly, even though taxes are constantly being increased, it is time to send new people to the Legislature who will take the time to look into excessive spending."

WILLIAM P. HAMPTON
Republican

State Rep. William P. Hampton, majority floor leader, is seeking reelection to his third term in the Michigan House.

A lawyer in Pontiac, he was selected in 1967 by Rutgers University as one of the nation's most promising legislators. Hampton, 30, of 2463 Hunt Club, Bloomfield Hills, was named one of the 10 outstanding young men in the nation by the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce in 1966.

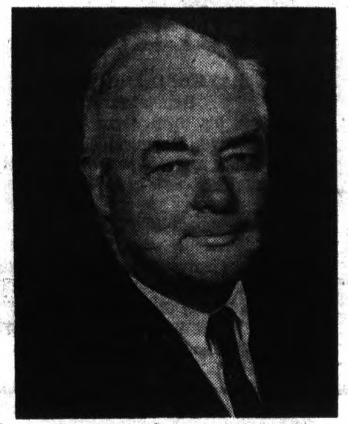

His statement:

"The energies of my term in office have been directed at rebuilding a system of government in Michigan which would meet the needs of the present and prepare for the tests of the future.

"As a result of this effort, Michigan today enjoys government at the state level which is more responsible to the needs of the people.

"However, progress to date is not enough and to be adequate must be total Michigan progress. To that end I pledge: to seek a more equitable method of financing education, to lessen the burden of property taxes and to promote laws to insure law and order with justice.

"And to repeal the intangibles tax and support larger property credit against the state income tax and to deal effectively with public employe strikes."

HARRY J. McGOWAN JR.
Democrat

Harry J. McGowan Jr., 57, of 110 Aspen, Birmingham, is an automotive market manager of Union Carbide Corp., Detroit.

He has been a precinct delegate, assistant county chairman and president of the Birmingham-Bloomfield Democratic Club. He was one of U.S. Sen. Phillip A. Hart's campaign managers in 1964.

★ ★ ★

McGowan has been president of Holy Name Roman Catholic Church PTA, president of Birmingham Park Improvement Association and treasurer of Birmingham PTA Council.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"I have lived in the 65th district for 30 years and have seen it change, and I have ideas on the changes to come. We can't hope to be an island, and more and more we will have the problems other places have.

NEEDS OVERHAUL

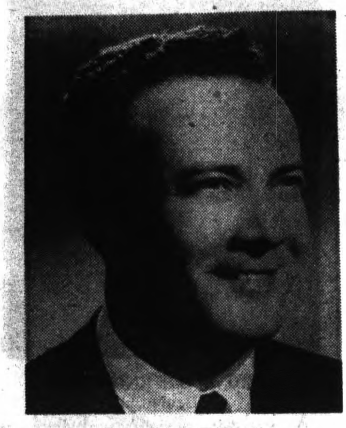

"The tax system needs an overhaul so that all citizens get the service that they should have — paid for by spreading taxes more fairly.

★ ★ ★

"This is especially true of education. Some children need more help than others, but many who need this help live in districts that can't afford even fairly good schools.

"We must change the way that we pay for our schools so that every child can get the education he needs no matter where he lives."

66th District

BILL S. HUFFMAN
Democrat

State Rep. Bill S. Huffman of Madison Heights is seeking his fourth term in the Legislature. He was first elected to the House in 1961.

Before entering politics on the state level, Huffman, 43, served as mayor and a city councilman in Madison Heights. He is a native of Georgia.

His statement:

"Due to my six years experience and seniority as a member of the House, I am qualified to receive better committee assignments and particularly better qualified and eligible for assignment to the ways and means committee.

EDUCATION ASSISTANCE

"Being a member of the ways and means committee, I would be in a position to assist primary and secondary school districts as well as colleges and universities in the field of education.

"This is the most important task facing the 1969 Legislature.

"All committee assignments are assigned on a seniority basis, and it is naturally to the advantage of the incumbent and people he represents to ascertain a position to be most helpful to his district."

RICHARD H. SANDERSON
Republican

Richard H. Sanderson, 35, of Clawson has worked for GMC Truck and Coach Division for 17 years, where he is responsible for engineering communications systems.

He is a member of the 1968 Clawson School Needs Committee, Clawson Board of Review and Clawson Youth Protective Service.

Sanderson is chairman of the Republican State Central Committee's campaign policy committee and is a member of the executive committee of the Oakland County Republican Party.

His statement:

"I feel my experience in problem-solving in a large corporation has provided a strong background to analyze and help solve these complex problems facing the Legislature:

● "Education — Many school districts aren't receiving their fair share of state money because they don't have large industrial tax bases. I would work to equalize educational opportunity by revising the distribution of state funds.

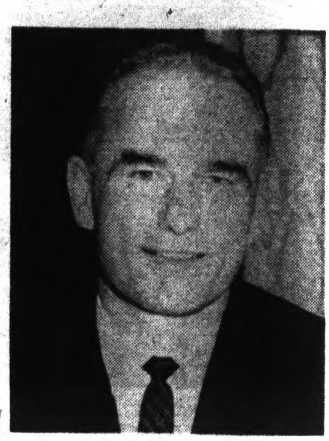

RICHARD H. SANDERSON

● "Taxes — I will not support any state income tax increase during the 75th legislative session. I believe the state must live within its income.

● "Crime, human rights — I will work for legislation to strengthen the tools of law enforcement and to expand and make more effective the grand jury. I will work to ensure equal rights in education, jobs and housing."

WILLIAM E. KISH
Republican

William E. Kish, 50, of Oak Park is a former teacher who has been selling tax sheltered annuities since 1953. He works for Variable Annuity Life Insurance Co. of America in Detroit.

He has been active in school affairs, serving as PTA president and now treasurer of the Oak Park Area Council PTA. He is on the Oak Park school board committee on Carver School and the school board of Canvassers.

★ ★ ★

Kish is also a member of the board of directors of the Oak Park and Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities and city director of the Republican party in Oak Park.

His statement.

"One of the major problems facing our Legislature is the updating of our archaic method of financing education.

"Education can no longer rely on millage as a means of financing its greater share of expenses. The state must reassume its responsibility to maintain and support a system of free public elementary and secondary schools.

"A second problem is social justice — the equal enforcement of law for all people and one standard of justice, not two.

ALBERT A. KRAMER
Democrat

State Rep. Albert A. Kramer, 45, of Oak Park is running for his third term in the Legislature. He was elected to the office in 1964.

Kramer has his own law practice in Detroit. He is a member of the Oakland County Democratic County Committee.

Kramer is also a member of the Oakland Citizens League, National Conference of Parents and Teachers, Childrens Charter of the Courts of Michigan Inc. and Rehabilitation Planning Committee of Metropolitan Detroit.

His statement:

"I sincerely believe that the experience which I have procured as a member of the Legislature for the past four years has equipped me with experience, understanding and recognition of the problems of not only my district but of the state.

"It is my intention in the coming session to introduce legislation to aid the handicapped, whether they may be mentally or physically so.

"A vast need is present to improve the community mental health program and to assist the emotionally disturbed and others in their fight for decent education.

"It is my intention to introduce legislation to protect the consumer in the purchase of his insurance."

68th District

WILLIAM HAYWARD
Republican

Incumbent State Rep. William Hayward of Royal Oak is running for his sixth term in the House. He was first elected to the Legislature in 1958.

Hayward's political background includes 22 years on the Royal Oak City Commission, 1939-1963. Hayward, 62, was mayor of Royal Oak from 1945 to 1949 and 1959 to 1963.

A former insurance and banking executive, he says he is now a full-time representative.

His statement:

"I believe my five terms in office qualifies me for reelection. I can give full-time representation.

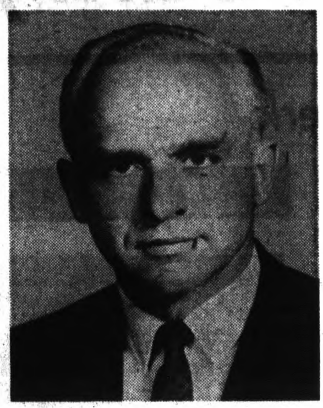

MAJOR PROBLEM

"The major problem to combat is the ever increasing cost of maintaining state government.

"Other problems needing solutions are the maintenance of law and order, those resulting from labor tension in the field of public employment, traffic safety and the costs of educating students in non-public schools.

"A real problem is the financing of public elementary and secondary school education.

"It is complicated by millage defeats and work stoppages."

WALLACE J. REYNOLDS
Democrat

Wallace J. Reynolds, 45, of Royal Oak is a special vehicle coordinator in the engineering department of Ford Motor Co., Dearborn.

He is second vice president of the Royal Oak Beautification Committee, PTA chairman of safety and civil defense and former chairman of South Oakland OEO Advisory Council.

★ ★ ★

Reynolds attended the Applied Management and Technology Center at Wayne State University.

His statement:

"My particular concerns are with education, crime prevention and mental health.

PUBLIC EDUCATION

"There must be a more sound and dependable way of financing our public education than relying on the hazardous and always temporary millage elections.

"What about crime in the streets? There is a lot more to crime control than just good police officers. More crime prevention would be cheaper in the long run than apprehension and punishment.

★ ★ ★

"Better handling of and treatment for habitual offenders should get more study and action.

"Much needs to be done in improving facilities, special education, recruitment and training of personnel in mental health."

69th District

DANIEL S. COOPER
Democrat

Incumbent State Rep. Daniel S. Cooper of Oak Park is seeking his third term in the Michigan House. He was first elected to the Legislature in 1964.

Cooper, 38, has his own law practice in Southfield, which he started in 1958.

★ ★ ★

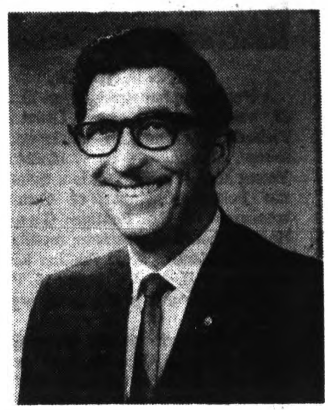

His statement:

"I believe I am qualified to be re-elected for the position of state representative on the basis of my record in the Legislature for the past four years.

"I have been fortunate to have been honored by the Michigan press corps and my colleagues in the Legislature by being named the outstanding new Democrat in 1965 and given the position of floor leader in 1967.

★ ★ ★

"I recognize that there are great many things which remain to be done in the sphere of legislation, including revision of the School aid formula, drastic revision of the penal code, giving our police enough funds and personnel to combat the crime problem, tax equity which considers people rather than large corporations and meaningful legislation in the public employe sector."

LaRUE T. MEAD
Republican

LaRue T. Mead, 43, of Ferndale is a law partner in the firm of Turner, Mead and Wilson in Ferndale.

He is currently vice chairman of the Ferndale Youth Assistance Committee, vice president of Ferndale Chamber of Commerce and chairman of its legislative action committee, director of Duncan MacDonald Home and member of the Ferndale Library Board.

★ ★ ★

Mead was former Republican director of the 69th district and a member of Ferndale School District's Citizens' Advisory Committee on Budget and Finance.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"One of the most critical problems facing our state today is that of school financing and teacher disputes. Unless some far-reaching solutions are found, this problem will reach crisis proportions, and fair and amicable solutions will not be possible.

★ ★ ★

"As a resident of this community for the past 20 years and having been active in local affairs including schoolboard matters, I feel that I am qualified to help deal with these problems, not only from a local level but on a statewide level.

"An active, aggressive approach must be taken now in order to maintain the integrity of our school system. It is to this issue in particular that I would address myself if elected.

Reform of Coroner System Only County Proposition

The only county proposition to be decided in Tuesday's balloting calls for the abolishment of the present office of coroner and its replacement by a more modern medical examiner system.

Basically, the change would not greatly affect the operation of the coroner system as it now exists. It would provide additional powers and clearly define the duties and responsibilities of the office.

The coroner, who in Oakland County is the county health director, and his 35 to 40 assistants residing throughout the county are mainly responsible for investigating the cause of sudden, accidental and violent deaths.

While the system has been somewhat updated over the years, the responsibilities of the coroner are limited in many cases to laws dating back to 1846.

In 1953, the State Legislature passed a law which allows the board of supervisors to appoint a medical examiner after the system is approved by voters.

This system, which is the one being proposed, is now in use in 27 Michigan counties, including Wayne, Washtenaw, Kalamazoo and Kent. About 80 per cent of the state's population is now under the medical examiner system.

Under the new system, the medical examiner would be able to cut red tape in having an autopsy performed when he feels that one is necessary in determining the cause of death.

The present system makes it necessary for the coroner to hold an inquest, or secure written permission, to perform an autopsy.

No additional county funds will be needed to change the system.

County Offices

Clerk

Republican

LYNN D. ALLEN

A Pontiac optometrist, Lynn D. Allen, 43, was a member of the Great Lakes Fisheries Commission advisory committee, Pontiac Jaycees (Outstanding Young Man of 1958), and is a member of the Pontiac Chamber of Commerce, treasurer of the Pontiac General Hospital board of directors, member and past president of West Pontiac Kiwanis, member of D. A. V. Chapter 16, Pontiac Elks No. 810 and professional organizations.

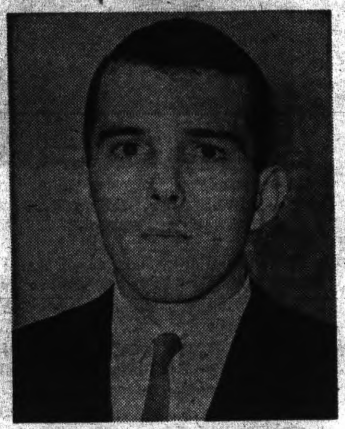

Dr. Allen lives at 110 Wenonah. His father, Lynn D. Allen Sr., held the office of county clerk for 16 years until 1958, and Allen was once employed in the clerk's office.

His statement:

"I have listened to many complaints about our present-day government, specifically the county clerk's office, and I have decided to see if I could not in some way serve my community and local government by bringing about helpful change.

"With my father serving 16 years as county clerk, I have grown up with the office, its demands and procedures. This experience and my education makes me well-qualified to serve as county clerk. I was fortunate to be employed in the office of register of deeds while attending college."

Democrat

SHANE F. MURPHY

Shane F. Murphy, 27, of Royal Oak seeks the county post vacated by the presumed death of his father, John D. Murphy. The senior Murphy had been County Clerk since his election in 1964 and was seeking reelection when he disappeared on a fishing trip.

★ ★ ★

Shane Murphy, for the past three years, has been deputy county treasurer. He is a part-time student at Wayne State University and a member of the Royal Oak Optimists.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"The duties of the county clerk-register of deeds are almost entirely administrative.

★ ★ ★

"His chief function is to serve the public, not to legislate or set policy.

"As deputy treasurer of this county for three years, I have a solid background of both serving the public and managing an office with a considerable staff.

★ ★ ★

"I promise that as county clerk, I will fulfill the duties of that office on a full-time basis.

"If I am elected the people of Oakland County will find that they are a 'special interest group' in county government."

Drain Commissioner

Republican

DANIEL W. BARRY

Daniel W. Barry, 45, of 169 Pleasant Lake, Waterford Township, is seeking reelection to the post he has held since 1957. Barry, a lifelong member of the Republican party, holds a bachelor's degree from Michigan State University.

He is past president of Pleasant Lake Woods Improvement Association, a member of Eagles Lodge No. 810, the American Public Works Association, American Society of Public Administration, Michigan Association of Drain Commissoners and National Association of Counties.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"During my tenure of office Oakland County has doubled its population, requiring the installation of water, sanitary and drainage facilities in almost every community. This office has constructed over $80 million in such facilities and will, in the next three years, construct more than $50 million in additional facilities.

"The person holding this office must be a professional, experienced public works administrator."

Democrat

ROBERT M. SIMBURGER

Seeking election as county drain commissioner, Robert M. Simburger, 36, of Ferndale is employed in the circulation department of the Detroit Free Press.

★ ★ ★

A graduate of Lawrence Institute of Technology with a bachelor's degree in industrial management, Simburger is currently taking postgraduate courses at Eastern Michigan University.

★ ★ ★

He served in the Army Corps of Engineers doing surveying and mapping work.

His statement:

"My responsibility is to the people of Oakland County, to provide them with the best drainage and facilities possible.

★ ★ ★

"I will provide this service by:

"1. Making a study of our drainage needs now and for the year 2000 and correlate this into a master plan;

"2. Coordinating the drainage activities of the state and federal governments along with those of the county and the city for better service."

Only 3 Running in Waterford Twp.

One candidate for the Waterford Township Board has unofficially dropped out of the race, leaving two Republicans and one Democrat running for 2 four-year terms.

Democrat Mrs. Geraldine Olson, 2209 Fortress, said she tried to withdraw her name from the ballot but could not. She is not seeking the post.

★ ★ ★

That leaves her primary colleague, William J. Dean Jr., 35, to battle Republicans Frank A. Lane, 67, of 5801 Crescent and Charles W. Richards, 41, of 4215 Grayton. All are township residents.

Mrs. Olson and Dean were unopposed in the primary. Lane and Richards defeated three other GOP nominees.

NEW TRUSTEES

The new trustees to be elected will replace Republican E. Frank Richardson and Democrat Robert E. Richmond whose term will expire. Richardson and Richmond are opposing each other in a county supervisors race.

Background on each of the candidates follow:

● Lane retired in 1962 from the engineering department of GMC Truck and Coach Division where he was a production engineer of engines.

A resident of Waterford Township since 1930, he is president of the Republican Club of Waterford Township.

● Richards is a body designer for Chrysler Corp., in Highland Park.

A native of Waterford Township, he is a member of the Pontiac Elks No. 810 and Waterford VFW No. 1008. He graduated from Pontiac Central High School and Pontiac Motor Trade School.

Prosecutor

Republican

RICHARD D. KUHN

Pontiac attorney Richard D. Kuhn, 38, of 205 Gateway, Waterford Township, is a graduate of Michigan State University and the Detroit College of Law.

Kuhn, a delegate to the state Constitutional Convention, failed in election bids for the U.S. Senate from the 19th District in 1964 and 1966. Affiliations include West Pontiac Kiwanis, Michigan and Oakland County Bar Associations, Elks Lodge No. 810 and Waterford Republican Club.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

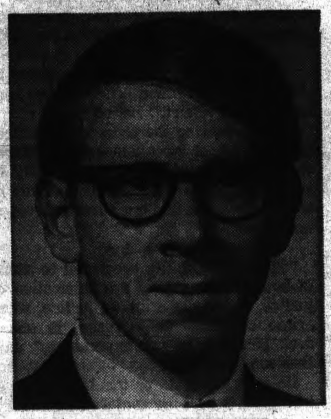

"The prosecuting attorney is the chief law enforcement officer of the county. As prosecuting attorney, my policy would be that lawlessness would not be tolerated.

NARCOTICS OFFENDERS

"Far too many high school students are being subjected to marijuana and dope. The sellers and pushers of these drugs will be dealt with severely. We must give our full support to our police and other law enforcement officers.

"If there is organized crime in Oakland County, it should be cleaned out. There is no room for permissiveness when it comes to violators of the law. Our homes, churches, businesses and streets must be made safe for our families. Law and order must be put above politics."

Democrat

THOMAS G. PLUNKETT

Chief assistant prosecutor of Oakland County since 1966, Thomas G. Plunkett, 29, of Royal Oak received a law degree from the University of Detroit, where he was a Burton Scholar and managing editor of the Law Journal.

He was research assistant for State Supreme Court Justice Thomas M. Kavanaugh before joining the prosecutor's staff, where he was chief appellate counsel. Plunkett has been active in Big Brothers and has taught criminal law at Oakland Community College.

His statement:

"Today, as at no other time, crime must be met with strength and purpose. There can be no mistake about the real issue in this campaign. It is not whether crime exists but who is the man best equipped to fight it.

RECORD CONVICTIONS

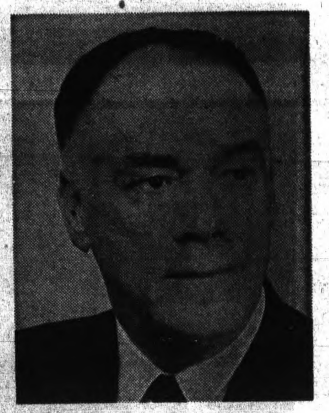

"Under my direction, our staff has established a record of convictions and of bold new programs in drug abuse, youth crime and law enforcement training.

"This job should not be left to a politician. The staff I have built does more to curb crime in one hour than has been accomplished by a decade of my opponent's political oratory."

"Only a professional who prosecutes without fear or favor can provide the protection that every taxpayer has a right to demand."

Sheriff

Republican

FRANK W. IRONS

Frank W. Irons, Oakland County Sheriff since 1955, is seeking his seventh term. Irons, 69, who resides on the jail premises, was Berkley police chief for 30 years before being elected sheriff.

He is a director of the Michigan Sheriff's Association and a past president of the Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police Association. He also belongs to the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, Berkley Lions Club, Multi-Lakes Conservation Association, and Metropolitan Club of Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"The enforcement of peace under today's criminal laws is a challenge and, due to changing positions, it has made necessary the need for new training procedures.

DEPUTIES' TRAINING

"Sheriff's deputies pass rigid examinations, then are given basic law-enforcement training and in-service training. This has been in effect for the past three years.

"If elected, I will maintain the cooperation that now exists with township, village, city and State Police units. I will give the people of our county the law enforcement they are entitled to and can be proud of and will keep the sheriff's department in step with the growth and progress of Oakland County."

Democrat

RUEL E. McPHERSON

Ruel E. McPherson, 31, of Hazel Park, an unsuccessful candidate for sheriff in 1964, has been constable in Hazel Park since first elected in 1960.

A physical fitness advocate, McPherson was an All-American wrestler in 1962 and an Olympic finalist in 1964. Immediate past president of Hazel Park Kiwanis, he is a director of the Hazel Park Jaycees, member of the Knights of Pythias and board member of the Oakland County March of Dimes.

His statement:

"My campaign will stress education and physical fitness to bring the sheriff's department up to state police standards. I will emphasize improvement by upgrading present jail conditions and establishing youth programs.

PENAL REFORM

"I am campaigning for reform in the administration of county jails and correctional institutions, for education and rehabilitation programs for alcoholics, for law enforcement training programs for sheriff's deputies with job assignments geared to their potential, and for establishment of a cadet program.

"Urgently needed is a psychiatric examination and evaluation of incoming prisoners with their being placed in cells according to these evaluations. I am also in favor of deploying men and patrol cars into high crime areas."

University Board Candidates

Voters will be asked to select two men for each of the three state university governing boards.

A field of 12 candidates, six of them Republican and six Democrats, have been nominated by their respective parties to seek the positions.

★ ★ ★

Vying for the two posts open on the Michigan State University Board of Trustees are Republicans David Diehl of Dansville and Richard Ernst of Birmingham and Democrats Warren M. Huff of Plymouth, a member of the board from 1959 to 1965, and Dr. Blanche Martin of East Lansing.

Ernst has attacked the sliding-scale tuition act, based on gross family income as an "ill thought-out, poorly conceived plan."

Huff has said the university curriculum must be modified "to compensate for students from disadvantaged homes and high schools."

Seeking election to the Wayne State University Board of Governors are Democrats George C. Edwards, an attorney, and Augustus J. Calloway, both of Detroit, and Republicans Kurt Keydel of Detroit and Victor Raviolo of Grosse Pointe.

Keydel was the sponsor of Wayne State's junior year in the Munich and Freiburg program.

Two Republican incumbents seek reelection to the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

Fred C. Matthael Jr. of Birmingham wants to "provide the finest education at lower per-student costs" and Lawrence Lindemer of Stockbridge feels "open and free communication between administrator, faculty and student" is necessary to control student activism?

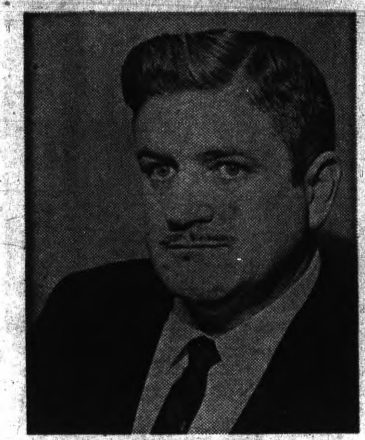

Democratic hopefuls Robert Nederlander of Detroit and Gerald R. Dunn of Flushing are the challengers.

Nederlander favors a "rational" expansion of the university and adequate budget requirements to meet increased enrollment.

County Offices

Treasurer

Republican

C. HUGH DOHANY

A native and resident of Southfield, C. Hugh Dohany, 48, has been that city's treasurer since 1966. He left a position as marketing supervisor with Detroit Edison after 26 years to become treasurer.

★ ★ ★

Donhany, has served as a Southfield charter commissioner, city councilman and council president and for nine years was on the County Board of Supervisors. He attended Michigan State University for three years.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"I believe my training in industry and my record as city treasurer qualifies me to fulfill the office of county treasurer. Under my direction, Southfield is the first city in the state to have a fully computerized treasurer's office, thus reducing man-hour requirements 40 per cent.

★ ★ ★

"By instituting a planned investment program, I have increased the investment income on city funds by over 500 per cent in two years.

★ ★ ★

"The county treasurer's office operates basically today as it has for the past 25 years. If elected, I would institute these and other modern business methods necessary to reduce costs."

Democrat

JAMES E. SEETERLIN

James E. Seeterlin, 41, of 4597 W. Walton, Waterford Township, has been Oakland County treasurer since being appointed in 1965 to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Charles Sparks.

★ ★ ★

He served as Waterford Township Clerk from 1957 to 1963 and supervisor from 1963 to 1965. Seeterlin, a member of the Waterford Lions Club and Waterford Eagles No. 2887, was a member of the Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission for five years and is now a member of the Oakland County Traffic Safety Committee.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"My qualifications for continuing in the office of county treasurer are the 12 years of governmental administrative experience I have acquired. Further, our office has provided extremely efficient and honest, forthright service to the public that we serve and we will continue this practice.

★ ★ ★

"As a public servant, I take an oath of office to uphold the laws of our state and country and when anyone seeks special privileges from government officials, such as myself, I always remember that I am employed by all the people and therefore I shall continue to treat all in the same manner."

Appeals Court Nonpartisan

S. Jerome Bronson

Oakland County prosecutor since 1964, S. Jerome Bronson is the first Democrat in more than 30 years to hold that office.

"What is needed in our Appellate Courts are judges with law enforcement experience and a greater understanding of law enforcement problems," said Bronson. "Such experience can be a vital contribution to the Appeals Court.

★ ★ ★

"I believe my broad experience in law, both as a general practitioner and chief law enforcement officer in the county the last four years should be brought to the Appeals Court," he added.

Before entering the prosecutor's office, Bronson, 38, of 24540 Seneca, Oak Park, was in private law practice for nearly 10 years, and still retains his partnership in the Madison Heights law firm of Bronson and Kutinsky.

★ ★ ★

"The responsibility presented to assist in both fair and firm administration of justice, especially criminal justice, when crime continues to increase, is one I seek based upon my experience," said Bronson.

He is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where he majored in history, economics and government, and Wayne State University where he obtained his law degree.

Two years ago Bronson was an unsuccessful candidate for a seat on the Oakland County Circuit Court bench.

S. JEROME BRONSON

John F. Foley

John F. Foley of Birmingham is already closely associated with the Michigan Court of Appeals, serving as a commissioner for the state's second-highest review court.

Presently on a leave of absence from his position, Foley, 40, of 523 Mohegan had previously been in private law practice before his appointment as commissioner.

★ ★ ★

He also was an attorney and hearing officer for the Michigan office of the National Labor Relations Board.

JOHN F. FOLEY

Foley said, "My experience as a commissioner of the Court of Appeals has trained me uniquely for the exacting work of a judge of this court.

"My work as a commissioner of the Court of Appeals," said Foley, "has made it clear to me what the essential job of the court is. It is to see that the trial judges conduct trials fairly, enforce the law and abide by the laws themselves.

★ ★ ★

"If every person, rich or poor, gets that justice — and knows he will get that justice — the Court of Appeals will have made its contribution to civil order," Foley added.

★ ★ ★

Foley is a graduate of Birmingham High School, Georgetown University and the University of Michigan Law School.

A Navy veteran of the Korean War, Foley was released from active duty as a lieutenant, junior grade.

State Race Pits 4 for 2 School Posts

One of the statewide races voters will decide Tuesday is the contest for two seats on the State Board of Education.

There are four candidates — two Republicans and two Democrats — seeking the posts. None is from the Pontiac area.

★ ★ ★

Marilyn Jean Kelly Stout, a Detroit Democrat, is the only incumbent in the race. She has been a board membr since 1965 and is currently vice president of the board.

★ ★ ★

The other Democrat running is Michael Deeb, also of Detroit.

WANTS REEVALUATION

The Republicans are James Ten Brink, of Muskegon and Mrs. Barbara Dumouchelle of Grosse Ile.

★ ★ ★

Ten Brink is calling for a "reevaluation of Michigan's tax system in the support of education." The present property tax is an "over-burdened unit of taxation," he said.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Dumouchelle wants to see the state board place "renewed emphasis" on the kindergarten through 12th grade programs in Michigan schools.

In selecting candidates for the State Board of Education, voters will vote for two of the four candidates seeking election.

Two Are Vying for High Court

Two nonpartisan candidates are seeking the one available seat on the Michigan Supreme Court in the Nov. 5 election.

State Appeals Judge Thomas Giles Kavanagh, 50, of 32865 Faircrest, Beverly Hills, was elected to his present post in 1964.

He received his law degree from the University of Detroit in 1943 and was a unsuccessful Constitutional Convention candidate in 1961.

Kavanagh was the leading vote-getter among seven candidates for his current Appeals Court position.

Attorney Michael D. O'Hara of Menominee was admitted to the bar in 1935 after having studied at Notre Dame University and the College of St. Norbert.

A veteran of World War II, he was a referee for the Unemployment Compensation Commission in 1947 before resuming law practice.

County Supervisors

District 1

LOUIS W. BERKLICH
Democrat

Louis W. Berklich of 2409 S. Livernois, Avon Township, is an architect with his own firm. He is also manager of the secretary of state's branch office in Rochester and a member of the building code board of appeals for Shelby Township, where his business is located.

★ ★ ★

Berklich, 48, is a World War II veteran and is president of the Avon Youth Service and Recreation Association. He is married and has three children.

BERKLICH

His statement:

"I am against the often-proposed county home rule because it would set up another 'political empire.' County government should remain a branch of the state to provide and/or correlate those services which cannot economically or possibly be achieved locally.

"Taxes in general are getting out of hand. I would oppose unnecessary expenditures such as Oakland-Orion Airport, county parks and recreation, etc.

★ ★ ★

"I would work for programs we need now — better roads; reasonable costs for public health; sewer and water not controlled by Detroit; education; property tax reforms, etc. The supervisor's job could be part-time at a reasonable pay rate."

FRED D. HOUGHTEN
Republican

Fred D. Houghten, 48, of 21 Wimberly, Avon Township, is a banker, investor and businessman in the Rochester area. In 1963, Houghten helped organize the National Bank of Rochester, served as its first president and remains a director.

HOUGHTEN

He was a partner and investor in the 134 West University Co., which constructed Rochester's largest downtown building, housing professional and commercial offices.

Active in civic affairs, Houghten has served as president of the Rochester Kiwanis Club and Chamber of Commerce and was a director of the Avon Community Chest.

Houghten and his wife, Betty, have four grown children, two sons and two daughters.

His statement:

"I believe my first responsibility is the making of good, sound management policies. It encompasses the analysis of policy - making of most county boards and commissions.

"I wish to see that county government functions and achieves its objectives as efficiently and economically as possible in the best interest of all its citizens. I will communicate properly with residents of my district, if elected."

District 2

EARLE GRISDALE
Republican

Earle Grisdale, 52, of 642 Batchewana, Clawson, has been a member of the present board of supervisors for four years and is a merchandising manager for A. C. E. Hardware Inc. He served on the Clawson City Council for one year.

GRISDALE

Grisdale is president of the Clawson People - to - People program, past president of Clawson Lions and a member of Lodge No. 551 F&AM. A graduate of Royal Oak High, he is married and has four children. A World War II Army veteran, Grisdale was a captain and holds the Purple Heart. His hobbies include golf and bridge.

His statement:

"Oakland County excels in efficiently run government with, among other things, modest taxation, an outstanding juvenile program, social justice and a fine administration.

"I will press to keep the supervisors in a legislative capacity with the present low-costing per diem pay. I will fight those seeking a salaried position.

"I will investigate the possibility of home rule which would bring a well-qualified county administrator whose tenure would be assured, if he is doing a good job, regardless of political shifts of power."

ALBERT F. SZABO
Democrat

Albert F. Szabo of 1039 Grant, Clawson, is a former Mayor of Clawson and an engineer at Fisher Body Tech Center, Warren. He has been serving on his city council since 1957 and was mayor in 1961-63.

SZABO

Szabo, 56, is a graduate of Clawson High School and General Motors Institute. He is president of Clawson Community Forum, past president of Clawson Lions and a member of the Elks.

He likes golf, hunting and fishing.

He and his wife, Helen, have three sons, two in college and one in the Army.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"My 10 years in city government with sufficient knowledge of budgets enables me to determine where and how county monies should be spent.

"If elected I would take the following position: 1—Fight to hold the present tax rate and seek exemptions for home owners. 2—Work for an adequate flood control program. 3—Oppose spending funds on airports. 4—Set priorities for county construction. 5—Encourage greater citizen participation. 6—Favor a part-time board of supervisors with reasonable pay."

District 3

THOMAS O. GRAY
Democrat

Thomas O. Gray of 1165 W. Long Lake, Troy, is a newspaper reporter on leave during the election. He is a graduate of Cranbrook and Haverford College, Haverford, Pa.

GRAY

Gray, 23, formerly worked for the Birmingham Eccentric and is now on leave from The Pontiac Press. He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Ferndale and serves the Michigan Conference for Concerned Democrats and the American Civil Liberties Union. His hobbies include stamp collecting, reading and basketball.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"If elected I would strive to provide better roads in all parts of the county and would oppose further airport expansion.

"I would hope to see a better range of social services in the county with less emphasis on construction of civic buildings.

★ ★ ★

"My greatest desire would be to bring more citizenship participation in governmental decision making.

"For instance, I would try to bring about holding supervisors' meetings in the evening hours when more people could attend and render their opinions."

PAUL E. KASPER
Republican

Paul E. Kasper, 28, of 177 S. Berkshire, Bloomfield Township, is an attorney with the firm of Reibel, Oliver and Dinan of Troy. He is a member of county, state and national bar associations.

KASPER

Kasper holds a degree in political science from Loyola University and a law degree from the University of Detroit. He has been active in politics since college and at Loyola was president of the Young Republican Club. Presently he is chairman of the county Nixon for President committee.

His hobbies include hunting, fishing and travel. Kasper and his wife, Monica, have four children.

His statement:

"I am seeking the position of supervisor because I'm concerned with the growth and continued progress of Oakland County. The new board for the first time will be directly elected by the people.

"It is important that the voters elect members who understand the problems confronting the county and who have the ability to cope with them. My training and professional experience gives me that background.

"It is my intention as supervisor to express the will of the people in my district and decide issues in their best interests."

District 4

MRS. MARVIN BAWDEN JR.
Republican

Mrs. Marvin (Mary) Bawden Jr. of 1290 Lakeside, Birmingham is a housewife active in civic affairs and former president (1963-65) of the Birmingham-Bloomfield League of Women Voters.

MRS. BAWDEN

★ ★ ★

Her many civic activities include former chairmanship of the residential campaign for the United Foundation as well as serving the UF Speakers Bureau.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Bawden, 40, has also been active in local Republican politics on the precinct level.

★ ★ ★

Her statement: "I believe the new board should remain primarily a policy-making body; provide direct, open communication with the electorate and local governments; use the committee of the whole for discussion and determination of priorities of county services; restructure financial practices; consolidate committees and eliminate archaic procedures; and function as a watchdog to protect the public interest.

JOHN H. GILMORE
Democrat

John H. Gilmore of 311 Golfview, Birmingham, is a market research analyst with Brand-Gruber of Huntington Woods.

★ ★ ★

He is a University of Michigan graduate and has taught political science and sociology at U. of M. and at Wayne State University.

Gilmore, 45, has been active in the Democratic party on the precinct and county level. He is married and has two children.

GILMORE

This is his first attempt at elective public office.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"I would like to be elected as county supervisor but would serve but a single term — to aid in setting up the new county government along new lines.

"I feel that if any salary is approved, I would not keep it, but donate the money for scholarship pragrams.

★ ★ ★

"I feel my business and political science background would be valuable during the time the board will be reorganizing."

County Supervisors

District 16

MICHAEL D. BARONE
Democrat

Michael D. Barone, 24, of 1851 Crosswick, Bloomfield Township, is a law student at Yale Law School, New Haven, Conn.

BARONE

He has been active in county Democratic affairs and has served as a delegate to state and county conventions.

★ ★ ★

Unmarried, he is a graduate of Cranbrook School, Bloomfield Hills and Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

His statement:

"I believe the restructuring of the board of supervisors provides an excellent opportunity for reexamining the operations and priorities of our county's government.

★ ★ ★

"The new supervisors can look with a new perspective and see that the citizens receive the finest governmental service for their tax dollar.

"I believe my background and education will enable me to contribute to this process."

ROBERT F. PATNALES
Republican

Robert F. Patnales of 3662 Betsy, Royal Oak, is a four-year veteran of the board of supervisors. He served until this year.

PATNALES

He is an attorney and has served the city of Royal Oak as a commissioner and planning commission member.

Patnales, 43, is married and has two teen-age children.

His statement: "I'm best qualified as supervisor because of my proven community interest in both county and local government.

★ ★ ★

"Since Oakland County is destined to be the largest county in the state, I believe the current functions must be maintained at a level of service necessary to meet the needs.

★ ★ ★

"I feel the new board must work specifically in areas of better sewer and drain systems, a new jail and better roads."

District 17

GERALD K. FREEDMAN
Democrat

Gerald K. Freedman, 36, of 21977 Tredwell, Farmington Township, is a practicing attorney with the Detroit firm of Altman and Freedman.

He is a graduate of Wayne State University Law School and a member of the New Temple of Bloomfield. He has been active in the United Foundation, B'Nai B'rith and Home Owners Association and has served the Democratic party as delegate to the county and state conventions. He is chairman of the Farmington Democratic Club.

FREEDMAN

Freedman and his wife, Carol, have two children. His hobbies include reading, golf, bowling and politics.

His statement:

"I believe I am fully qualified to be a supervisor, young enough to not be afraid of new ideas that are sweeping every area of our political life, yet mature enough to take a deliberate and reasoned look before advocating change simply for change's sake.

★ ★ ★

"I believe that the board should not perpetuate the 'private club' atmosphere of the past—erecting edifices for its own glory and ignoring bad roads, mental health and social welfare. If elected, I shall strive to resolve other problems before spending millions for governmental buildings and airports to serve just a few people."

DELOS HAMLIN
Republican

Delos Hamlin of 23210 Cass, Farmington, is presently chairman of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, serving his 13th year in that capacity. He was mayor of Farmington, 1939 - 49, and has served more than 26 continuous years as a supervisor.

HAMLIN

He is a successful retired real estate developer and manufacturer and devotes himself mostly to public affairs, not only local but state and national levels.

Hamlin and his wife, Mildred, have two daughters, including Mrs. Ruth Clark of Lakeville, and a son, Fred of Farmington.

CONTINUED SERVICE

His statement:

"I hope to be returned to the board of supervisors to help continue a county government that has been a model of efficiency and economy. This county has been run on a sound, businesslike basis through good times and bad, and while other governmental units have found themselves in distress, ours has remained financially sound and free of crippling conflicts.

"While certainly heeding the calls for immediate action on pressing issues, I feel it is also important to look toward the future. It is imperative that the future generations and the rising population never look back and say we failed to provide for them."

District 18

MICHAEL J. KELLY
Democrat

Michael J. Kelly, 39, of 7323 W. Coach Lane, Bloomfield Township, is a practicing attorney with the firm of Kelly and Tatham. He is a graduate of Kent State University and the University of Detroit Law School.

KELLY

He and his wife, Ruth, have three children. A Korean war veteran, Kelly taught business law at Walsh Institute for two years. He has served as a Democratic precinct delegate.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"For the future growth of the county, I see a need for another airport. However, this could be done with other, private resources, and perhaps even at another location than that proposed. The whole situation will need reexamination by the new board.

DEFINES PURPOSE

"I am not running for the job to get an additional salary. A big salary would attract a different type of person than those most interested in county government. The board should remain a policy-making body working with a professional county staff.

★ ★ ★

"The roads in my neighborhood are a disgrace. There's room for improvement there.

★ ★ ★

"More and better facilities should be provided for troubled juveniles."

CHRISTIAN F. POWELL
Republican

Christian F. Powell, 37, of 7618 Barnsbury, West Bloomfield Township, is a lawyer - businessman and township justice of the peace.

POWELL

He is vice president of E. E. Powell Contracting Co., Waterford Township, and an attorney with the firm of Powell, Peres, Carr and Jacques of Pontiac.

Powell, besides his many law and business affiliations, has been a member of the West Bloomfield Township Planning Commission for four years.

★ ★ ★

He has served the Republican party as captain and delegate of the County Republican Committee and as a member of the 19th Congressional District executive committee.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"My varied background gives me adequate experience for this post.

★ ★ ★

"I believe strongly that the board should continue to be a part-time board, meeting as required to consider the needs of the county.

★ ★ ★

"I will strive to keep county government as close to the people as possible.

★ ★ ★

"My primary objectives are to stablize taxes and to assure the people of this county of proper law enforcement and personal safety."

District 19

JEROME K. BARRY
Republican

Jerome K. Barry, 41, of 163 Iroquois is a former assistant county prosecutor and is a practicing attorney. He was appointed as a special prosecutor in the Hazel Park Race Track probe in 1966.

BARRY

Barry spent eight years in the prosecutor's office and in 1965 was elected for a term as chairman of the Pontiac Human Relations Commission. A Michigan State University and Detroit Law School graduate, Barry is a World War II Navy veteran and member of the Optimist and Elks clubs of Pontiac.

★ ★ ★

He and his wife, Mary Alice, have eight children.

His statement:

"I feel the board should remain as a part-time, policy-making body. The first term will be especially important because a complete reorganization of the new board's operations will be in order and it is vital to get qualified men in office.

★ ★ ★

"One of the primary issues will be county roads. I feel the Road Commission should get a share of county revenues.

"More information should be supplied to the public on budget preparations. In my opinion, county services could be improved without a tax increase."

JAMES MATHEWS
Democrat

James Mathews, 52, of 19 Earlemore has been active in civic, church and charitable affairs and is an employe of the Pontiac School District. His many affiliations include the Urban League board of directors, Big Brother board of directors, former presidency of the Pontiac area NAACP, Pontiac Area Planning Council member and director-ship in Harambee, a Negro development corporation.

MATHEWS

He is chairman of the board of deacons at New Bethel Baptist Church.

His statement:

"My participation in community work and my dedication and sincerity in working collectively with people to resolve some of the problems found in our complex society are definite assets to the office of supervisor.

"I believe that Afro-Americans and any minority or ethnic group should be represented in all levels of government, whether by due process of election, appointment or hiring policy. This process is essential to the progress of the American goal of full participation of all people in a democratic government.

"My philosophy of government is found in the Bible, 'If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all and the servant of all.'"

County Supervisors

District 20

LESLIE H. DEAN
Republican

Leslie H. Dean of 64 Close, Pontiac, a former city postmaster, is retired. During his term as postmaster he established the motor vehicle facility on West Pike and was instrumental in establishing the new West Huron branch.

Living in Pontiac for 50 years, he has been a member of many local organizations — the Civitans, Elks, Masons, Metropolitan Club and veterans' groups.

DEAN

★ ★ ★

He has served as commander of both American Legion Post No. 20 and VFW Post No. 1008.

His statement:

★ ★ ★

"I feel that economy in government will be the most important assighment of the new board. A complete reorganization of the board will be necessary because 27 members will be replacing 87.

★ ★ ★

"The old appointed board did not truly represent the people, but under the one-man, one-vote rule this will no longer be true.

★ ★ ★

"I pledge to represent the people of my district to the best of my ability."

GEORGE H. GRBA
Democrat

George H. Grba, 37, of 125 N. Johnson is chief operation inspector for the Oakland County Department of Public Works. He is a member of the American Legion, American GI Forum, Disabled American Veterans, Parent Teachers Association and Pontiac Democratic Club and has served as a precinct delegate.

GRBA

Grba is a graduate of Pontiac Central High School and Ferris State College. He is married and has two daughters.

His statement:

"Oakland County has three areas that need attention:

★ ★ ★

"1. Law and order — law enforcement is a local matter, and police need our support to provide modern technology to help enforce laws more fully.

★ ★ ★

"2. Transportation — our population has shot beyond our road capacity, making a hardship for all, especially the elderly and young.

★ ★ ★

"3. Government — streamline the fat, overlapping units out of business and cut red tape back to where people can understand its operation.

★ ★ ★

"These illustrations are a simplification of a complex problem, but solutions can be found to a certain extent."

District 21

CARL W. O'BRIEN
Democrat

Carl W. O'Brien of 513 Moore is employed by the State Senate as administrative aide to the Senate Democratic caucus. He served as state senator from the 17th District in 1966-67 and was chairman of the Senate Conservation Committee.

O'BRIEN

O'Brien, 38, has been chairman of the North Oakland Young Democrats and the Democratic Political Action Committee, has served as Democratic state convention delegate and is on the county Democratic Executive Committee.

A graduate of Pontiac schools and Wayne State University, O'Brien and his wife, Marie, have seven children. His hobbies include reading, writing and the theater.

His statement:

"The recent expenditures by the existing outmoded board of supervisors indicates how much needed is the new board, to be elected from the properly apportioned districts. My pledge is to halt all unnecessary expenditures until the new board can be fully reorganized and county government put on a streamlined, modern basis.

"Horse - and - buggy county government, expensive, wasteful and inefficient, must be brought to a point of sudden change. I pledge my full-time efforts to accomplishing this goal."

VICTOR WOODS
Republican

Victor Woods, 51, of 1200 N. Telegraph, is a present member of the Board of Supervisors, having served five terms. He is chairman of the disaster and civil defense committee.

WOODS

He also serves on Pontiac's retirement board and is a World War II veteran with service in the South Pacific. A 1936 graduate of Pontiac Central High School, Woods enjoys Biblical research and golf.

★ ★ ★

Woods is a real estate broker and an associate minister of the East Side Church of God. He and his wife, Mary have two sons.

His statement:

★ ★ ★

"Experience is a great teacher and having served my city and county government, I believe I can contribute fully to the new elective board.

POLICY MAKING

"I firmly believe the board should remain a policy-making body forever sensitive to the will and needs of the people.

★ ★ ★

"As a humanitarian, I promise the citizens to work for complete honesty, to ask for Divine Guidance in all decisions, to seek better road and education facilities and, hopefully, find a slowdown in spending."

District 22

JOHN W. McGEE
Republican

John W. McGee, 34, of 166 N. Detroit, Orion Township, is a foreman at Pontiac Motor Division and a member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Rochester.

McGEE

Making his first attempt at public office, McGee has served in subdivision activities and was an official in the Orion Area Jaycees.

An Army veteran and graduate of Michigan State University, he enjoys water sports and family camping. McGee and his wife, Diane, have three small daughters.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"With the doubling of the county's population, there has been a large increase in demand for services.

★ ★ ★

"Sanitary sewers are now in great demand as are better roads. Sanitary landfill operations are becoming a countywide problem.

★ ★ ★

"If elected, I will vote for county assistance on some of these problems.

★ ★ ★

"I will urge establishment of priorities for county expenditures and will vote against the county spending any money to build and operate a second airport."

NILES E. OLSON
Democrat

Niles E. Olson of 3301 Baldwin, Orion Township, is a businessman and owner of Town and Village Roofers. He attended the Orion school system and Pontiac Business Institute.

Olson, 30, is an Air Force veteran and is chairman of the Orion Township Democratic Club.

★ ★ ★

OLSON

He also has five years experience in clerical work at Pontiac Motor Division.

★ ★ ★

He and his wife, Eleanor, have two daughters.

His statement:

"Being opposed to the proposed construction of Oakland-Orion Airport, I feel the county government should concern itself with what the people of Oakland County really want and need, such as improvement of the road system, improvement of our law enforcement, providing adequate mental health and child guidance clinics, improvement of our children's education — all those things which would be of benefit to all the residents of Oakland County."

District 23

PAUL DERRYBERRY
Democrat

Paul Derryberry of 5208 Maybee, Independence Township, is an employe of Pontiac Motor Division and member of the Oakland County AFL-CIO executive board.

DERRYBERRY

He is a former chairman of the Independence Township Democratic Club and is a member of the 19th Congressional District Democratic Committee. Derryberry and his wife, Sue, have six children.

★ ★ ★

A township resident for 13 years, Derryberry, 36, has worked on many charitable fund-raising organizations.

His statement:

"I feel the post of supervisor is an important one and I hope to inform the residents of my district of the services available to them.

★ ★ ★

"I think the citizens of my district will agree with me that we need to spend more money for roads in our townships and not to spend several million dollars for a new airport to benefit only a small percentage of our citizens.

★ ★ ★

"I am concerned with the continual rise in taxes and feel the new board should investigate to make sure that all money spent is absolutely necessary."

RICHARD R. WILCOX
Republican

Richard R. Wilcox, 38, of 981 Hummer Lake, Brandon Township, is a present member of the Board of Supervisors in his third term representing his township.

WILCOX

Wilcox is a University of Michigan graduate, member of Ortonville United Methodist Church, charter member and past president of the Ortonville Area Jaycees and member of Ortonville Rotary Club.

His statement:

"Being a member of the Board of Supervisors, I have had firsthand experience in county government.

"Issues have been settled and problems solved on the basis of what is best for Oakland County. Party politics have not played a major role in past decisions, nor have the larger areas with more representation taken advantage of the smaller areas.

"Oakland County has advanced far beyond many other counties in the state, and I ask for your support and pledge my efforts to carry out your wishes in making the county and district even greater."

County Supervisors

District 24

MAHLON A. BENSON JR.
Republican

Mahlon A. Benson Jr., 47, of 2925 Old Orchard, Waterford Township, is the president of M. A. Benson Lumber Co. and head of various other industries in the area. A newcomer to seeking political office, he is a member of the Oakland County Draft Board No. 331 and a board member of First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

BENSON

Benson is a graduate of Pontiac Central High School and attended Albion College.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"The increasing demands for citizen services necessitates that the proper facilities be expanded and that the capital improvement program for the future be implemented in the necessary stages.

★ ★ ★

"Some of the immediate problems are budgetary controls, transportation — both highway and air — and a new county jail. I propose to devote all my energies to these vital matters.

★ ★ ★

"I propose to report to my constituents the workings of the board and likewise to attend citizen meetings to obtain a concensus of feelings and desires as they may relate to governmental matters of the district."

VERNON B. EDWARD
Democrat

Vernon B. Edward, 42, of 1764 Sylvan Glen, Keego Harbor, is a seven-year veteran of the present board of supervisors and a former mayor of Keego Harbor.

EDWARD

On the county board he is chairman of the veterans affairs committee and served as city councilman for six years including four as mayor.

He is a quality control supervisor at General Motors Truck and Coach Division.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

"I pledge to work closely with the elected officials of Waterford Township and Keego Harbor to improve conditions for the people of the 24th District.

★ ★ ★

"I favor making the supervisors a full-time position until the bylaws have been reorganized. I favor the use of county funds for roads if a study determines the necessity.

"I will work to get more and better nursing home care for our senior citizens."

District 25

E. FRANK RICHARDSON
Republican

E. Frank Richardson, 41, of 3133 Coventry, Waterford Township, an insurance agent, is a trustee and planning official for his township.

He has served various civic and Jaycee posts. Besides being secretary for the planning commission and zoning board he is a member of the Township Recreation Board and a director of the CAI Building.

RICHARDSON

Richardson graduated from Pontiac Central High and Cleary Business College. He is a World War II Navy veteran, member of Christ Lutheran Church, belongs to Pontiac Elks Lodge No. 810, the Past Presidents Club of the Waterford Jaycees and Michigan Society of Planning Officials.

He and his wife, Betty, have two small children.

His statement:

"I believe I am the best-qualified candidate for county supervisor. My varied background in local government will make me a better representative.

"Oakland County will soon be the focal point of the Detroit metropolitan area and, I feel this county will assume some of the influence and leadership Detroit has held in the past.

"I will push for a new metropolitan stadium, and better roads. We must prepare for future growth."

ROBERT E. RICHMOND
Democrat

Robert E. Richmond, 42, of 3119 Schoolhouse, Waterford Township, is chief deputy treasurer for Oakland County.

He is secretary of the Waterford Zoning Board of Appeals, vice chairman of the Democratic Club and a member of both the Waterford Lions and Eagles clubs.

RICHMOND

★ ★ ★

Living in Waterford for 25 years, Richmond is married and has two children. He graduated from Pontiac Central High and was awarded a diploma in accounting at the Pontiac Business Institute.

His statement:

"I believe approximately three years practical experience at the township level of government as a full-time assistant township supervisor and later two years of being a township board member fully qualify me on the problems of our surburban-rural area, such as the need for sanitary sewers, storm drains, improved roads, adequate police and fire protection, etc.

★ ★ ★

"With approximately three years experience at the county level of government as chief deputy treasurer, I can effectively represent my district and assure the people the best possible job will be done at the least possible cost."

District 26

CHESTER G. BURTON
Republican

Chester G. Burton of 2905 Mapleridge, Highland Township, is a plumbing and heating contractor. He and his wife, Shirley, have four children and are members of White Lake Presbyterian Church.

His statement: "Because of a strong desire for good government, I pledge to serve all citizens of the district and work closely with local governing bodies. I will carefully evaluate all programs and be ever aware of sound spending, promotion of good roads and traffic safety and will help plan organized youth activities in our county."

WILLIAM L. MAINLAND
Democrat

William L. Mainland of 2205 E. Commerce, Milford Township, is a present member of the board of supervisors and supervisor of his township. He serves as chairman of the six - county Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (COG).

MAINLAND

Mainland is in his fifth term as supervisor and is proprietor of Oakland Orchards. He is a veteran of World War I. Among his many associations are: trustee and member of the executive committee of Metropolitan Fund, Inc.; Oakland County Assessing Officers Association; State Association of Supervisors; Milford Area Chamber of Commerce; and natural resources committee of the National Association of Counties.

His statement:

"The new board must orient itself to meeting the service needs of the citizenry. To this end I would work toward the establishment of viable county home rule. I served two years on the home-rule study committee and am the only candidate with this experience.

"Being one of only two candidates who served as township supervisor, I think it is important to preserve the link between township and county government. I believe my leadership experience in advancing cooperative endeavors among governmental units should stand my district and county in good stead."

District 27

LEW L. COY
Republican

Lew L. Coy, 48, of 2942 Loon, Wixom, is a retired captain in the Detroit Fire Department and is a past director of the Detroit Fire Fighters Association.

He has been a licensed mortician and registered male nurse. He served as a Navy hospital corpsman in World War II.

COY

★ ★ ★

Coy has been active in neighborhood improvement projects and belongs to Redford Masonic Lodge No. 152 and the Wayne State University Alumni Association. His hobbies include square dancing, hunting and fishing. He and his wife, Florence, have a daughter and grandchild.

His statement:

"My background in public service will stand me in good stead in such county problems as health, civil defense, retirement, veterans and personnel. My pension frees me for full participation in county government.

★ ★ ★

"I feel the pay should remain on a per diem basis. I am interested in the intellectual and political life of this community and promise to keep a sensitive regard to voters' wishes.

"The new board should be legislative and not housekeeping. A new formula for providing more adequate pay for county employes should be provided."

RAY LAHTI
Democrat

Ray Lahti of 2240 Nalone, Wixom, is a 10-year veteran of the present board of supervisors and is chairman of its social services committee. He represents the city of Wixom as a supervisor, has been a councilman of the city for 10 years and has two years of a four-year term yet to serve.

Lahti, 53, is a teacher at Oak Park High School and is chairman of the social studies department. He is Wixom's delegate to the Southeastern Michigan Council of Governments (COG).

LAHTI

Among his many affiliations are: board of directors, Family Service of Oakland County; Inter-Agency Housing Committee of Oakland County; and past president of the Hickory Hill Civic Association.

His statement:

"I will seek to keep per capita cost at the present lowest-in-the-state level while striving for pragmatic readjustment of priorities to meet urgent human needs.

"My decisions in government have always been nonpartisan and I will continue this.

"I will tackle the county's most complex problem—the burdensome property tax—and attempt to bring about more citizen participation in county government decisions."

Voting Machine Instructions Due

Persons wishing to vote a straight party ticket in Tuesday's election, should merely pull the large party lever of their choice on the left-hand side of the ballot.

If you want to split your vote among two or more political parties, use the small individual levers over each candidate's name, rather than the larger party levers.

To explain the mechanics of machine voting, The Pontiac Press will publish a picture and instructions on voting by machine ballot in Monday's editions.

Johnson Ends All Attacks on N. Viet

Saigon, NLF to Join Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three years and nine months after he started the bombing of North Vietnam, President Johnson has ordered an end to all attacks against that country in the hope this will "lead to progress" in ending the war in Southeast Asia.

Announcing his decision last night, the President said he acted with the full support of his military chiefs and diplomatic officials, with the agreement of South Vietnam, and upon "confirmation" from North Vietnam of "the essential understanding" of U.S. terms for his action.

NEW PHASE

Johnson started the bombing of North Vietnam Feb. 7, 1965. At the heart of the deal he made to bring it to an end is an agreement that the Paris peace talks will enter a new phase next Wednesday.

At that time representatives of both the South Vietnamese government and its enemy, the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam take their places at the negotiating table.

★ ★ ★

The Johnson order injected a dramatic new element into the presidential election contest less than a week before the voters go to the polls.

Political observers said it could give a lift to Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey's campaign, although it might have come too late to make much difference in voter opinion.

NOTIFIED AT 6 P.M.

Republican nominee Richard M. Nixon, third party candidate George C. Wallace, and Humphrey all said after Johnson's television-radio broadcast they hoped the step would mean progress in the Paris peace talks.

Johnson had notified all of them of his decision about 6 p.m., two hours before he went on the air.

Johnson himself, obviously aware of speculation that he might time a bombing halt to help Humphrey, declared that the action was determined by responses from North Vietnam to his terms.

He said these began developing Sunday night and continued through Monday.

A round of consultations within the government and with South Vietnam followed, and he made the final decision to order that "all air, naval, and artillery bombardment of North Vietnam cease as of 8:00 a.m., Washington time, Friday morning."

Informants said North Vietnam was officially notified of the decision.

★ ★ ★

Johnson warned that his arrangements with North Vietnam are not foolproof and he held open by implication the possibility the bombing would be resumed if the North Vietnamese went on the offensive.

"We could be misled — and we are prepared for such a contingency," he said. "We pray to God it does not occur."

The President did not say specifically why he thought the North Vietnamese had finally decided to make terms on ending the bombing, but he suggested that they might have acted because they no longer saw a chance of victory in South Vietnam.

★ ★ ★

He said the Saigon government had "grown steadily stronger" that South Vietnam's army was increased to a million men, and that U.S. troops under Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, Jr., and his predecessor, Gen. William C. Westmoreland have "produced truly remarkable results."

'POSSIBLE FACTORS'

"Perhaps some, or all, of these factors, played a part in bringing about progress in the Paris talks," Johnson said.

Serious negotiations on the bombing issue began during the second week in October after the North Vietnamese in Paris began to ask direct and obviously interested questions about what Johnson had in mind.

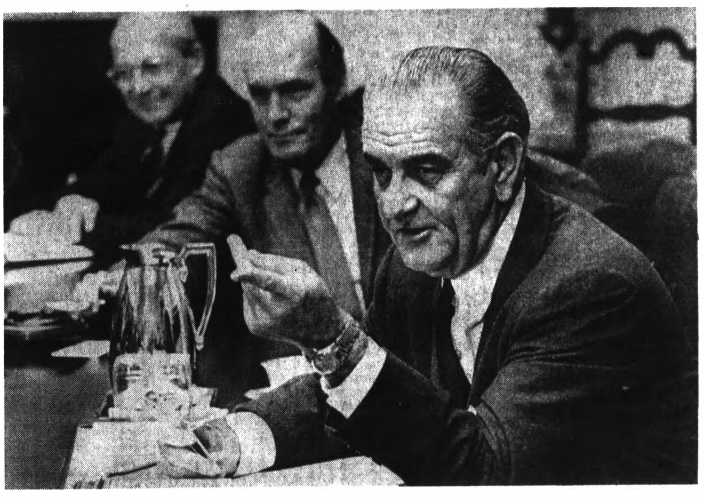

★ ★ ★

On at least two occasions — about Oct. 16 and again last week — there were worldwide expectations that a bombing halt was only hours away. They did not develop. Officials now say hard bargaining with Hanoi was then under way.

Johnson said he had reached his decision "in the belief that this action can lead to progress toward a peaceful settlement of the Vietnamese war." But again he tempered his hopes with warning.

"It should be clear to all of us that the new phase of negotiations which opens on Nov. 6th does not, repeat does not, mean that a stable peace has yet come to Southeast Asia.

LBJ ADVISERS GET WORD — President Johnson's advisers get word of his order to halt all attacks on North Vietnam at a meeting of the National Security Council last night in Washington. Doves Happy, Hawks Wary; Humphrey's Hopes Boosted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic and Republican strategists agreed, at least privately, today that the decision to halt bombing of North Vietnam gave Hubert H. Humphrey's presidential campaign a lift.

But few were willing to hazard a guess on whether the lift was enough—or in time — to put Humphrey over the top Tuesday against Republican Richard M. Nixon.

★ ★ ★

The decision drew generally favorable reaction from doves but was greeted with skepticism by some hawks.

Related Stories, Pages A-2, A-3, A-9, A-13

Among the three major presidential candidates, Republican Richard M. Nixon declined to comment beyond saying he hoped the action "may bring some progress" in the Paris peace talks.

'PEACE IS CLOSER' — HHH

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democratic candidate, said the action was "very meaningful, very hopeful" and added, "Peace is closer tonight — thank God!"

Third-party candidate George C. Wallace said, "I hope and pray" that the halt will bring an early and honorable peace in Southeast Asia "so we can bring the American servicemen home."

Congressional doves saw the halt as the opening of a path to peace while hawks questioned stopping the bombing without specific assurances on reciprocal action from North Vietnam.

Sen. John M. Stennis, D-Miss., ranking Democrat on the Senate Armed Services Committee, said, "We should be able to judge their good intentions within two days, and unless this is shown, I think we should resume and step up the bombing."

DEM DOVES HAPPY

On the other hand, three of the leading Democrats who had opposed administration Vietnam policy expressed pleasure over the move. Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, J. W. Fulbright of Arkansas and George S. McGovern of South Dakota all said the halt probably would speed peace talks.

One thing appeared certain: Unless the North Vietnamese reject Johnson's test of "good faith" with a major military action before Tuesday, each voter will cast his ballot with the knowledge a glimmer of peace in Vietnam has been offered.

★ ★ ★

President Johnson coupled his announcement that he is stopping the limited bombing with the cautious report that "progress has come" at long last in the Paris peace talks.

There was a general feeling that Hanoi, having gained a bombing halt without any public commitment of reciprocity, would be careful not to upset before the Tuesday election the secret "confirmation of general understanding" that Johnson said had been reached.

Hanoi Is Mum, Saigon Angry

By the Associated Press

Suspension of the bombing of North Vietnam angered the leaders of South Vietnam but was welcomed by many other governments which saw the move as a first step toward peace.

"This removes a tremendous obstacle to peace," said a North Vietnamese official at the Paris peace talks, "but now the political struggle for our country begins."

★ ★ ★

Hanoi Radio made no comment on President Johnson's announcement, but declared that the "fight against the Americans will continue until the last one is driven from our land."

BITTER REFUSAL

Reliable informants in Saigon said President Nguyen Van Thieu bitterly refused to go along with the bombing halt decision. He termed it "unilateral" and said he would make an address to a special session of the National Assembly Saturday.

★ ★ ★

Other Saigon government and political leaders were bitter.

However, leaders of South Korea, New Zealand and Australia — three of the U.S.'s principal allies in the war — were more enthusiastic in their response.

No Sign That War Will Ease in South

SAIGON (AP) — American air, naval and artillery bombardment of all of North Vietnam ended tonight on President Johnson's orders, the U.S. Command announced, but it said there would be no letup in operations in South Vietnam.

The Vietcong showed no sign of deescalation in the South.

In the 12 hours before President Johnson's broadcast announcing the bombing halt, an enemy mine blew holes in a U.S. Navy LST and killed 16 American sailors and a South Vietnamese, rocket attacks killed 33 Vietnamese civilians in Saigon and Hue, and 69 North Vietnamese and 12 Americans were killed in fighting north of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

★ ★

American warplanes continued raids on North Vietnam's southern panhandle today but were ordered to quit the skies north of the demilitarized zone before 9 p.m., or 8 a.m. EST, the hour Johnson set for all attacks on North Vietnam to be halted.

Four hours before the President's broadcast, explosions tore open the side of the 384-foot LST Westchester County as she swung at anchor in the My Tho River 34 miles southwest of Saigon. The blasts ripped into the landing craft's sleeping compartment, killing or wounding most of the men as they slept.

In addition to the 17 known dead, 22 Americans were wounded, and seven Americans and one Vietnamese army interpreter were missing.

Little more than two hours before President Johnson's broadcast, Vietcong gunners slammed a 100-pound rocket into a small Roman Catholic Church in the Saigon dock area, killed 19 worshipers and wounded 64.

Firing from the southern outskirts of Saigon, the Vietcong shelled the capital three times last night and this morning, presumably as a gesture of contempt for South Vietnam's National Day observance today. Military spokesmen said 23 South Vietnamese civilians were killed and 78 wounded.

U.S. Command Muzzles Its GIs on Peace Move

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command in Vietnam muzzled its GIs today after President Johnson's bombing halt announcement, but the President's action aroused little enthusiasm.

The order went out from Gen. Creighton Abrams' headquarters to make no comment on the decision to halt the bombing of North Vietnam. A spokesman said the order was issued in accordance with a directive barring members of the armed forces from voicing opinions on political matters or other things outside their competence. He said the bombing halt was a political matter, not military.

★ ★ ★

Before the directive was issued, however, newsmen gathered opinions from a number of soldiers. Much of the comment was adverse.

★ ★ ★

Many expressed fear that after seven years of fighting and 29,000 American dead, the United States might settle for a peace that would let the Communists take over Vietnam. None thought the pace of the war would slow down.

Greek Leader Dies in Athens

ATHENS (AP) — George Papandreou, a storm center in Greek politics for more than half a century and a leading foe of the present dictatorship, died early today at the age of 80. Despite his opposition to the military regime, it will give him a state funeral Saturday.

He had undergone emergency surgery yesterday morning for a perforated ulcer and came through satisfactorily. But shortly before 2 a.m. today he developed a brain clot and died 30 minutes later.

His son Andreas, the chief target of the military coup 18 months ago, is in exile in Stockholm.

The elder Papandreou formed the Democratic Socialist party in 1936 but was exiled a year later by dictator John Metaxas. After the general's death, he returned to Greece, only to be imprisoned by the invading Nazis.

Papandreou escaped in 1944 to Cairo where he set up a government in exile and returned to Greece to become the country's first postwar premier.

Papandreou formed the Center Union party in 1961 and in 1963 his party scored an upset victory but was forced out of office two years later.

Papandreou kept the political situation in turmoil and in the spring of 1967 it looked as if he had a good chance to return to power in elections scheduled for May. A junta of colonels overthrew the caretaker government in April to prevent this and arrested both George Papandreou and Andreas.

Summer Returns a Few More Days

November arrived at midnight with skies clear and the temperature a mild 47.

The U.S. Weather Bureau is giving us another fling at summer temperatures. Here is the official forecast for the weekend:

TODAY — Mostly sunny and warmer, the high 66 to 72. Partly cloudy tonight and mild with chance of showers. The low is expected to be 48 to 52.

TOMORROW — Partly cloudy and a little cooler, with an expected high of 58 to 64.

SUNDAY — Partly cloudy and cooler. Precipitation probabilities in per cent are: 10 today, 30 tonight and 20 tomorrow.

★ ★ ★

The thermometer registered a low of 47 prior to 8 a.m. today. By 12:30 p.m. the mercury climbed near 70.

South Viet's Presence at Talks Faces Delay

PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman said today the South Vietnamese government may not be physically ready to join the expanded peace conference in Paris next week.

And, he added in a radio and television broadcast, "We cannot discuss the future of South Vietnam without (their) presence."

★ ★ ★

But the chief American delegate at the peace talks here expressed hope a representative of President Nguyen Van Thieu's government—which has displayed concern at the U.S. bomb halt—will in fact attend the scheduled Wednesday meeting here.

The American diplomat cautioned against expecting "too rapid results" in the new phase of the peace talks. These will include envoys of South Vietnam's Communist-led National Liberation Front—as well as the Americans and North Vietnamese.

DECIDE OWN FUTURE

Harriman said the extended conference will permit "the people of South Vietnam to decide on their own future without outside interference."

As he saw it, the first order of business would be problems of procedure, then of agenda.

★ ★ ★

It had been agreed, he said, that both sides would be free to raise "any question they wish" at the conference. This suggested the conference lineup would be the North Vietnamese and Vietcong on one side of the table and the United States and Sigon on the opposite side.

The matter of a cease-fire in South Vietnam, Harriman commented, would be "a final step" in the negotiations. He did not elaborate.

Chinese Reds Purge President

TOYKO (AP) — The Chinese Communist party has voted to expel President Liu Shao-chi from the party and "dismiss him from all his posts both inside and outside it" as well as "continue to settle accounts with him and his accomplices," a Peking report said today.

Hsinhua (New China) News Agency said the action was taken at an extraordinary meeting of the Communist party Central Committee that began Oct. 13 and ended yesterday.

★ ★ ★

This was the first meeting of the committee since the start of the cultural revolution, or purge, that party Chairman Mao Tse-tung launched in August 1966, against Liu and his supporters.

The conference officially singled out Liu by name for the first time in giving approval to Mao's policy, the agency said.

★ ★ ★

Mao presided over the session and made "a most important speech," followed by one by his heir apparent, Defense Minister Lin Piao, the agency added.

A conference communique, distributed by Hsinhua, denounced Liu as a "renegade, traitor and scab."

Navy Ponders Recovery of Scorpion's Fragments

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy said today it is questionable whether an effort will be made to retrieve pieces of the nuclear submarine Scorpion it located Thursday two miles beneath the Atlantic about 400 miles south of the Azores.

Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chief of naval operations, announced yesterday the Navy oceanographic research ship Mizar had confirmed the Scorpion's location in more than 10,000 feet of water "by means of remotely controlled photography."

★ ★ ★

The discovery climaxed a massive sea search of more than five months since the submarine disappeared with its crew of 99 while heading home from a Mediterranean exercise.

The Navy said the Mizar would remain on the scene, trying to locate and photograph additional parts of the submarine's hull, and then return to port with its photographs. The pictures then will be flown to Norfolk, Va., and to Washington for study.

OVERDUE MAY 27

The Scorpion was reported overdue at Norfolk May 27, six days after its last message reporting its speed and position about 250 miles south of the Azores.

★ ★ ★

There was virtually no hope for the crew — 12 officers and 88 enlisted men — since the Scorpion would have been crushed like an eggshell long before sinking the two miles to where it is now believed to be.

★ ★ ★

The pressure at 10,000 feet is about 4,400 pounds per square inch, compared with 14.7 pounds at sea level.

Man Charged in Shotgunning

A Waterford Township man who allegedly shot at three high school girls he thought were going to bombard his house with eggs has been charged with assault with intent to murder.

Elwyn E. Tripp, 45, of 2551 Voorheis was arrested yesterday and arraigned before Justice Kenneth H. Hempstead. Tripp stood mute and was freed on a $5,000 personal bond. His preliminary examination is scheduled Dec. 12.

★ ★ ★

Five girls were approaching Tripp's house Wednesday night when they were surprised by a man with a gun who told them to stop, according to police.

The girls ran. Three jumped into a car which was then riddled with 16-guage shotgun pellets. None of the girls was hit.

WINDOWS SHATTERED

The car's rear and right side windows were shattered and the auto was struck in the front by the shots, police said.

Police said Tripp was possibly enraged because he said he had been "egged" and thought he was shooting at boys who did it. The shooting occurred "some distance from Tripp's house" police said.

Weather Cooled It

October Sunny and Dry

Twenty-eight days of sunshine warmed Oakland County residents in October leaving a month with more sunshine and less snow and rainfall than the previous year's October.

High mercury reading of 81 degrees was reached Oct. 14 and 15, five degrees cooler than the high of October '67. The thermometer slid to a brisk low of 28 on Oct. 30 to tie with the previous October's low.

★ ★ ★

Last month's mean temperature of 53.1 degrees was 3.1 degrees warmer than October '67. The U.S. Weather Bureau lists the area's average mean temperature for October at 53.8 degrees.

Total monthly rainfall of 1.2 inches compared to last October's soggy total of 3.75 inches and the month's average total of 1.63 inches.

7 RAINY DAYS

Rain chased sunshine away on seven days during the month with the greatest accumulation (.3 inch) falling Oct. 6. Snow flurries filled the skies the morning of Oct. 29 with the lacy flakes melting as soon as they hit the warm ground.

If October is any criterion, The Farmer's Almanac for 1969 may well be right with its prediction of a mild winter for the area.

New Bomb Halt Is 10th by U.S.

By The Associated Press

The U.S. bombing campaign against north Vietnam began on Feb. 7, 1965.

It had been halted or curtailed on 10 previous occasions —

- May 13 to May 17, 1965, in hope of a reciprocal move from North Vietnam. There was no such move.
- Dec. 24, 1965, the beginning of the usual Christmas truce, to Jan. 31, 1966.
- Dec. 24-25, 1966, Christmas truce.

- Dec. 31, 1966, Jan. 1, 1967, New Year's truce.
- Feb. 8-14, 1967, observance of Tet, Vietnam's lunar new year festival.
- May 23, 1967, observance of Buddha's birth anniversary.

★ ★ ★

- Dec. 25, 1967, Christmas truce.
- Dec. 31, 1967, Jan. 1, 1968, New Year's truce.
- Jan. 29, 1968, U.S. Command ordered 36-hour bombing pause for Tet. Pause canceled next morning because of Viet Cong attacks on South Vietnamese cities and towns.

★ ★ ★

- March 31, 1968, President Johnson announced a bombing halt in an area north of the 20th parallel including "90 percent of North Vietnam's population and most of its territory." This curtailment was followed by the agreement for the Paris peace talks.
- April 7, 1968, U.S. military sources in Saigon said U.S. units had been ordered to bomb no further north than the 19th parallel.

$1-Million Offer to LBJ

NEW YORK (AP) — At least one publishing firm has offered President Johnson an advance in excess of $1 million for his memoirs, the New York Times reported today.

★ ★ ★

The offer was understood to be based on the condition that the first volume of the work deal with the major decisions in his administration, especially those concerning the Vietnam war, the Times said.

Birmingham Area

Architect Unit for Michigan Picks Director

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — Glen Paulsen, 24 Academy Way, has been elected to a two-year term as a director of the Michigan Society of Architects.

He is president of Cranbrook Academy of Art, heads the academy's architecture department, and has his own architectural firm, Glen Paulsen and Associates.

★ ★ ★

In 1965, Paulen's firm was named one of the six winning firms from throughout the country in Dow Chemical's architectural award competition for the Life Sciences Building at the University of Detroit.

Also in June, 1965, Paulsen was recipient of the award of merit in the honors award program of the Detroit Chapter, American Institute of Architects, for the completed Shapero Hall of Pharmacy at Wayne State University.

PAULSEN

MOREAU

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Victor A. Moreau, 510 Rolling Rock, has been appointed as branch service manager of Burroughs Corp's Detroit Central branch sales office..

As branch service manager, Moreau has full responsibility for all service activities within the branch.

Moreau formerly served as branch manager in Huntsville, Ala. and Boston, and has been product evaluation analyst, machine analyst, field project serviceman.

BLOOMFIELD HILLS — The First Congregational Church of Birmingham, 1000 Cranbrook, will sponsor a Red Cross Bloodmobile Monday from 3 - 9 p.m.

To maintain its commitment to 108 hospitals in the tricounty metropolitan area, it is necessary for the Red Cross to collect 350 to 400 units of blood each day of operation.

Appointments may be made by calling the church.

Waterford Speeders to Get It Coming and Going

By MEL NEWMAN

Remember the last time you were pushing the speed limit a bit and noticed a police radar car ahead?

Naturally you took evasive action, perhaps by turning into a convenient side street or simply by slowing as much as possible.

★ ★ ★

Well, if you happen to push the speed limit in Waterford Township these days the maneuvering won't work.

That's because the township police department has forsaken radar for an electronic device called VASCAR.

HARD TO FOOL

VASCAR stands for Visual Average Speed Computer and Recorder and it can catch speeders coming and going. It can also determine unlawful speeds by a vehicle traveling behind the patrol car.

In fact, it can get you going left to right, right to left, around a curve and straight up, if your car can manage.

★ ★ ★

VASCAR operates on the principle that speed equals distance divided by time. An extreme example of how this works would be a car traveling a measured mile while being timed with a stopwatch.

If the vehicle makes it in a minute, it is clocked at 60 miles per hour average speed for the mile (one mile per minute times 60 minutes per hour).

COMPUTER DOES WORK

But the beauty of VASCAR is that first, the measured distance needn't even approach a mile and, second, the operator needn't have any idea what the distance actually is.

The computer, contained in the patrol car in a neat package, does the work.

To set VASCAR moving, the operator simply chooses one distance marker — say it's a puddle or a crosswalk lane — and pushes the first distance button on the control panel when his car makes a splash or crosses the lane.

★ ★ ★

He then chooses another spot, perhaps a bump in the road, as the second distance marker and pushes the second distance button when he passes over it.

The computer has now digested and recorded this distance.

All that remains is waiting for a suspect car, then pushing the first time button when the suspect car hits the first marker, and pushing the second time button when the suspect car hits the second marker.

The computer quickly figures the average speed and that speed, to the tenth of a mile per hour, appears on the VASCAR screen on the patrol car dashboard.

The screen, about 3-by-4 inches, looks like a tiny "fan-o-gram" from a major league baseball scoreboard.

The image remains until the unit is cleared for another run — simply by pushing another button.

Even if the patrol car is moving, the system works.

If a car is moving up fast from behind, the operator makes two distance spots while continuing along the road. Watching through the rear-view mirror, he pushes the time buttons when the suspect car goes over or by the same spots.

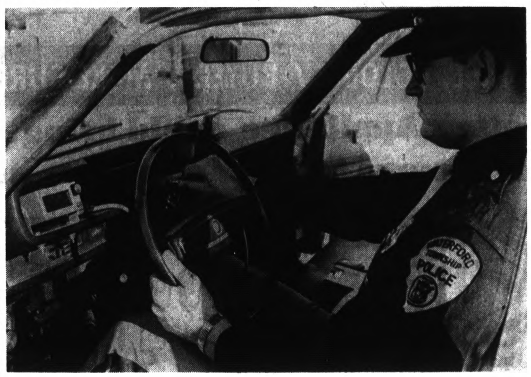

The operator can first mark two time spots for an oncoming car, then push the distance buttons when he passes the marks. The time-distance equation works either way.

Two VASCAR units were purchased by the township at a total cost of $1,700. Each is in a regularly marked patrol car, so that the public can't determine by looking which car might be VASCAR-equipped.

They've been in operation since last Friday, but so far, only warning tickets have been issued from their use.

Once the township citizenry is well aware of VASCAR, though, the tickets will cost.

Also, police add, the use of VASCAR in traffic arrests in 34 other states has so far led to 100 per cent convictions.

2 Teens Are Held in Goody-Bag Theft

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Tearful Danny Stevens ran home Thursday night to tell his mother that two teen-agers had stolen his bagful of trick-or-treat candy.

When Mrs. Stevens heard the 8-year-old's story, she called police and swore out a warrant.

★ ★ ★

As a result, Richmond County sheriff's deputies said, two boys, aged 16 and 18, were lodged in the county jail on a charge of robbing Danny of his Halloween candy.

They may still look like they used to, but that doesn't mean we still make them that way.

We used to have a tiny rear window.

We used to have a plain old rear seat.

Now there's one that folds down.

Over the years, engine power has been increased by 76%

A dual brake system has been added.

The heater is much improved.

Fact is, over the years, over 2,200 such improvements have been made. Yet, you have to be some sort of a car nut to tell a new one from an old one.

Which, of course, was the plan.

In 1949, when we decided not to out-date the bug, some of the big auto names making big, fancy changes were Kaiser, Hudson and Nash.

God forgive us.

Next time you flush your toilet, remember this. It's probably going straight into a nearby lake or stream. The same lake or stream you'd like to swim in. Or fish in. Or boat in. But all too often you can't.

900 miles of Michigan streams already look and smell like open sewers. Fish are being poisoned by fetid filth. They're suffocating in oxygen-robbed water.

The very water you drink is bombarded by crud and waste minute after minute. Day after day. Lakes Erie and Michigan are dying.

We're in trouble. But it's not too late. The situation can be corrected now. Just remember. The longer we wait, the dirtier our water will get. The longer we wait, the more it will cost. Isn't it time you took a stand to make our water clean?

Think about it over a glass of water.

Plant Food Facts...

Try Container Plants for Instant Dessert

Any ranch house patio, porch or terrace will look more authentically western with an "instant" desert of container plants.

Since most patios are designed for sun worshippers, container plants that can take the sun are preferred. You'll find plenty of novel and dramatic sun-loving plants in the many-splendored cactus and succulent families.

★ ★ ★

Some, such as the orchid cactus, will reward you with a bright showing of flowers, or even tiny berries and fruits. Others will delight you with their vari-colored sizes and shapes. All are easy to care for in red clay pots, whose porous walls slowly release excess moisture and prevent harm from overwatering.

★ ★ ★

Cacti are highly resistant to the effects of sun and hot temperatures because they store their own water supply. However, they can and should be watered freely every day when under long exposure to full sinlight.

SOIL MIXTURE

Don't try to keep cacti or succulent plants in sand alone. The mixture in their clay pots should contain both soil and organic matter — and light fertilizer applications will help.

Succulents are members of the cacti family, but usually have no thorns and their stems and leaves are generally juicier.

★ ★ ★

Some popular succulents include the jade plant, century plants, sedum, aloe and echeveria.

Your florist or garden center can help you select from hundreds of varieties of cacti or succulent plants. Selections from both families are suitable indoors, too. Use them at floor level or for windowsill gardens, dish gardens or hanging baskets.

Automated Gardening in Future

Instant landscapes and a garden operated from a control panel are just around the corner, an expert on planets predicts.

Dr. Carl Hansen, garden and home research coordinator for Chevron Chemical Company's Ortho Division, says a new interest in bringing gardens to the cities is already evident.

★ ★ ★

High rise apartment buildings with patio and rooftop gardens will be the dominant feature of city life by the year 2,000, Hansen says.

Discussing the future of gardening, Hansen said: "Don't overlook rent-a-plant either, or disposable plants for that matter" as figuring largely in the home economy of the years ahead.

REALTY

"Instant landscaping, already a reality today, will become even bigger in the year 2,000," Hansen said.

"New suburbs will spring up almost overnight as our population intensifies, and pregrown transplantable lawns, plants, trees and everything else necessary for instant beautification will be part of the finished package.

"But that's not all. With it will be a pre-installed maintenance system to handle most of the less pleasant chores of gardening."

★ ★ ★

The chemist said the housewife will simply go to her garden control panel and start pushing buttons . . . red for a spray from the sprinkler system to stop bug, weed and fungus invasions; blue for the weekly watering; green for fertilizer."

It may even be easier than that, he said, with a small computer programmed with the various needs of the garden.

One Rose-Greens Make a Bouquet

Striking fresh-flower beauty at modest cost is possible with a handful of fresh greens and a single long-stemmed rose.

It's fun to seek out the right container for specific arrangements — and a starkly simple tall and slender vase is expecially beautiful for the single rose.

Accompany arrangements with short sprigs of baker fern or huckleberry leaves.

Evergreens should be planted before mid-October.

"Aw, c'mon in, the water's not cold, and I'll hold you." Mrs. Carl Mapley, swimming instructor for the Kinder Splash classes at the YMCA, holds Michele Mintline, 3, as she coaxes Jamie Haid, 4.

Michelle Hall, 4, (left) and her sister Tracy, 3, watch intently as Mrs. James Wilson shows them how to blow bubbles in the water. It was their first time in the pool.

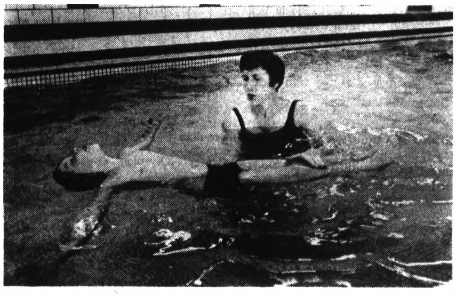

Stacey Rose, 4, gets his first encounter with a pool.

Stephen Gibson, 5, paddles happily around the pool on a paddle board.

Herbert L. Isaac, 5, dives for a golf ball.

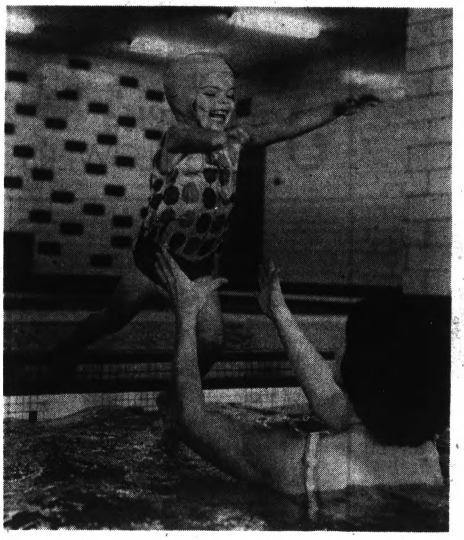

Mrs. Wilson keeps a reassuring hand on Jeffrey Nelson, 5, as he learns to float.

Small Ones Learn How to Swim

Children can learn to swim easily when they start young. Mrs. Carl Mapley, who directs women's activities at the Pontiac YMCA, has started classes for three-to-five-year olds. The youngsters come twice a week.

Ron Unternahrer, Pontiac Press photographer, spent an afternoon with the children. What goes on above and below the surface is seen here.

Information about the classes may be had by calling the YMCA.

It's a big moment when Tracy Hall feels confident enough to jump into the water with Mrs. Mapley there to catch her.

In the Basement

Maybe He's Happy 'Deep Down'

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I can't understand my brother. He and I were brought up in the same house with the same mother and father, but we are as different as night and day. Dad drank a little, and he and Mom did their share of fighting, but I can't say we had a "bad" home life.

ABBY

My brother is married to a woman who treats him like a dog. They don't even live like man and wife. He sleeps in the BASEMENT, and she sleeps upstairs. She keeps putting him down and he doesn't even try to defend himself. What on earth is the matter with that poor excuse for a man?

★ ★ ★

DEAR ROCHESTER: If your brother sleeps in the basement without a murmur, maybe he likes it. Or maybe he doesn't care where he sleeps as long as it's not with his wife.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a woman who has a 13-year-old daughter, and then goes ahead and has another baby? Don't you think a 35-year-old woman is a little too old to be having a baby?

★ ★ ★

When I come home from school I have a lot of things to do, including homework, so I don't see why I have to give up my time to watch a baby.

★ ★ ★

I can see where this baby-sitting bit is going to get worse in time, because I know my mother, and she is not about to hire a baby-sitter when she can get me to sit for nothing.

★ ★ ★

Is there anything I can do about this?

STUCK

★ ★ ★

(P.S. How old does a girl have to be in the state of Connecticut before she can leave home?)

★ ★ ★

DEAR STUCK: To answer your first question. A woman who is young enough to bear a child is not "too old" to have one. As for your second question: A girl who doesn't know how old she has to be to "leave home" is too young to try it.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: I have been a diabetic for years. Lately it was discovered that I also have high blood pressure. My doctor put me on a salt-free diet and now there are many things I am not allowed to eat.

When my wife and I are invited to the home of a friend, would I be out of line to tell the hostess about my restricted diet? My wife says if she has to put a hostess to any extra work she would rather stay home.

MANNY

★ ★ ★

DEAR MANNY: I see nothing wrong in mentioning this to your hostess in advance. If she really wants your company she would not consider it an imposition to go to a little extra effort for a guest on a restricted diet.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: Do you think a businessman should hire relatives when he needs more help in the place? We are going to start calling this place "THE FAMILY CIRCLE." A few of us have been here a long time, and it used to be that the new employes were folks like ourselves, but lately every time the boss hires someone new, it's COUSIN JOE or NEPHEW NATE. We "outsiders" don't appreciate being outnumbered by relatives of the boss. We'd like your comments.

★ ★ ★

DEAR OUTNUMBERED: Whom a businessman hires in his place of business is his own business.

★ ★ ★

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press, Dept. E-600, P.O. Box 9, Pontiac, Mich. 48056 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mutual Friend Is Best Bet for Introduction

By ELIZABETH L. POST

Dear Mrs. Post: I see a certain man alone in church almost every Sunday and I'd like to speak to him because I am alone too, and I know it's not the happiest situation.

But may a woman speak to a man who is a fellow church-goer without being introduced? — Louise

★ ★ ★

Dear Louise: Since you both go to the same church and see him repeatedly, try saying "good morning" to him as you leave church. A week later you might venture on the weather. "It's a lovely morning, isn't it?" or "Wasn't Dr. Jones' sermon interesting today?"

★ ★ ★

What to say next — if anything — depends upon what and how he answers you. The best plan, of course, would be to ask a mutual friend to introduce him to you.

POSTPONED

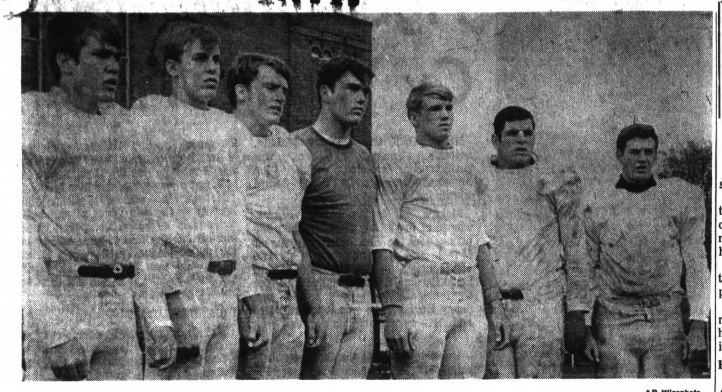

Dear Mrs. Post: My daughter was given a shower. After the shower, we were told that they are not going to get married on the date they had set and they have not set another date as yet. They are still engaged. Must she return the shower gifts? — Mrs. Allen

★ ★ ★

Dear Mrs. Allen: No. Since she is still engaged, she may keep the gifts. Should the engagement be cancelled, she must make every effort to return them at once.

The student cast for "Once Upon a Mattress," being presented at Oakland University by the Student Enterprise Theatre, strikes a medieval pose on the set. Opening performance is tonight at 8:30. Other performances in the Barn Theatre at the same time are Saturday and Nov. 8 and 9. Tom Aston is the director.

NAMES TO LIVE UP TO—When the University of Michigan sends its freshman team against Bowling Green in the first of their two games this fall, several prospects will be burdened with the famous gridiron deeds of relatives. The Wolverine plebes include (left to right) Chuck Fonde, Paul Rosema, Mike Smith, Lee Hart, Paul Seymour, Jim Brandstatter and Bruce Elliott. Rosema is the brother of recent U. of M. three-year regular Rocky, and Seymour (of Berkley) is the brother of Notre Dame's record-setting end Jim and a cousin of current Wolverine defensive starter Phil. The other frosh are the offspring of gridiron stars: Hank Fonde was a 1947 Wolverine player and is a Wolverine assistant coach; Dick Smith played at Michigan State and coaches Grand Rapids Junior College; Leon Hart of Birmingham was a Notre Dame All-American and Detroit Lions star; Art Brandstatter Sr. was an MSU star; while Pete Elliott a former U. of M. All-American, is the brother of Michigan mentor "Bump," and coached Illinois.

Major Really Gloating, Has Subs Forecasting

By MAJOR AMOS B. HOOPLE
Father of the Forward Pass

Egad, friends, you're in for a special treat this week.

By popular request, I am turning over my forecasting chore to my football-wise nephews Alvin and Leander — hak-kaff!

And in true Hoople tradition the boys have some startling picks for you—umkumph!

Since Alvin is the senior member of the duo, we will let him give his choices first. This is what he has to say:

HIP ,HIP, RAH

"Here's one for you, Uncle Amos, that'll shake the whole state of Ohio. I, Alvin (The Wise) Hoople, predict that Michigan State Spartans will stay in high gear and topple undefeated Ohio State, 28-14, in the top Big Ten game.

★ ★ ★

"And here's another pip for you. Watch the Colorado Buffaloes knock the Kansas Jayhawks off their lofty perch, 19-13, Haw!"

Jove, Alvin, you are indeed a brave lad. I don't know what Leander can do to top those. Let's hear from him.

★ ★ ★

"Thanks, Uncle Bulgy — er — I mean, Amos, for givin' me a chance to pick against Alvin and also for the opportunity to make up to the readers for some of the bum selections you've been givin' 'em! Like last week, when you wouldn't listen to me when I picked Michigan State to whip Notre Dame.

"But that's ancient history, so let's look at this Saturday.

★ ★ ★

"How about Army to bop Penn State? The Lions are higher-rated but Army is gettin' tougher every week. I give it to the Cadets, 21-14.

"And I got another doozy for you. Rice, the club that hasn't won a game all year, will clip Texas Tech, 19-12."

Well, Leander, I must say you eared at least a draw with Alvin in the department of audacity. Your selections are equally as startling as his.

★ ★ ★

And there, dear readers, you have an insight into how the younger generation thinks these days — harrumph.

Now go on with the forecast.

At State Cross-Country Run

Northern's Runners Hopeful

Pontiac Northern's cross-country team, which pulled a surprise by taking the regional championship, will be trying to pull another upset in the state final tomorrow at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti.

★ ★ ★

The Huskies took the regional title in a run at West Hills Junior High last Saturday, but they rate no more than a darkhorse role in the finals at EMU.

RAN SECOND

Birmingham Brother Rice, second to PNH in the Class A run, will also be on hand at EMU along with Royal Oak Kinball. Oxford will represent the county in the Class B part of the competition.

★ ★ ★

The Class C-D event is slated for 10:30 a.m. at EMU, followed by the 'B' individual race, the 'B' team race, 'A' individual and closing with the 'A' team race.

PNH RUNNERS

Butch Shelton, Tom Knibbs, Andy Libby, George Pickering and Mike Taylor picked up the points that brought the regional crown to PNH last week. A team may enter as many as seven runners so coach John Osler will likely add a couple to those top five.

★ ★ ★

Oxford, second to Fenton in the 'B' regional, will send Jim Goodfellow, Dennis Clack, Jim Acheson, Lee Royer and Dave Gemmel.

FOUR TO RUN

Bloomfield Hills Lahser, third in the 'B' regional at Royal Oak Kimball, didn't qualify as a team but four Knights will be on hand for the 'B' individual race — Jim Stewart, Rich Craig, Jeff Shanks and Steve Young.

★ ★ ★

Probable representatives for Brother Rice are Lou Ciavarella, Chuck Hotaling, Bob Bennett, James Keating and Bob Shriner.

★ ★ ★

Some of the other area runners who'll be on hand for the individual Class A race are Larry and Gary Williams of Farmington; Rick Randall of North Farmington; Keith Wattles of Rochester; Jon Costello of Pontiac Central; Dave Mills and Craig Huber of Birmingham Groves; Fred Seyler of Clarkston; Steve Napier of Birmingham Seaholm; and Steve Moffat of Waterford.

Pistons Defeated, 134-118

Bucks Coach Almost Satisfied

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Larry Costello was satisfied—almost—Thursday night.

The Milwaukee Bucks' coach watched as his team riddled the Detroit Pistons 134-118 for not only the expansion club's first victory, but also his first as a coach.

★ ★ ★

"These are happier moments for a change," Costello said.

The Bucks had an 0-5 record going into Thursday's game.

"We had more consistency. It was our best four quarters of any game we've played," he said.

TECHNICALS CALLED

The 6,694 fans at Milwaukee Arena were mystified in the second period when officials Don Murphy and Ed Rush called technical fouls on first Detroit, then Milwaukee within five seconds of each other.

The Pistons' bench drew a technical when Coach Donnis Butcher jumped out of his chair and hollered at the officials.

★ ★ ★

After Guy Rodgers sank a free throw for the Bucks, Detroit took the ball out of bounds and a technical was immediately called on Milwaukee's Wayne Embry.

The officials charged Embry was playing a zone and had previously warned the club about the illegal tactics.

★ ★ ★

"He was standing under the basket, that's all," Costello said. "When Otto Moore (Detroit center) is standing around the free throw line with the ball, we're going to let him shoot. We don't think it's worth putting a man on him."

"Chamberlain (Wilt) does it," Costello said. "So does (Bill) Russell of Boston. It's not a zone defense."

LACK OF TIME

Despite the victory, Costello wasn't completely satisfied.

"We've got to work on defense," he said. "We're progressing, but this is not like high school or college ball where you have time to work on things in the gym."

★ ★ ★

"We played tonight (Thursday). We'll be in Cincinnati tomorrow night (Friday), then back here again for another game Saturday night. But we've got to have time to practice and work on our defense."

★ ★ ★

The Bucks, ahead by three points after the first quarter, jumped out to a 20-point advantage by halftime, 64-44. Detroit was only able to shave four points off that margin in the last two periods.

"They tried to press us when we were ahead," Costello said.

"That helped us. I was happy to see them press. We were ready for it."

He also was ready for the team's first victory.

Barry Passes Oaks to Win

By the Associated Press

Rick Barry, star of the Oakland Oaks in the American Basketball Association, is noted more for his shooting than his passing.

He threw in 29 points in leading the Oaks to a 143-127 victory over the Los Angeles Stars Thursday night but, actually, he passed off more than he shot. This more than offset the 40 points Steve Chubin scored for the Stars.

★ ★ ★

The victory moved the Oaks back into first place in the Western Division, half a game ahead of New Orleans. It was the Oaks' home opener, but only 1,623 turned out.

The Stars stayed close in the first half, but the Oaks broke a 56-56 tie to lead 79-63 at halftime and stayed in front.

★ ★ ★

Houston beat Dallas 108-90 and Indiana took Denver 122-100 in the other two ABA games scheduled.

Willie Somerset's 23 points led Houston while John Beasley was high for Dallas with 19. Roger Brown paced Indiana with 25. Billy McGill's 26 for Denver was high for the game.

U.S. Equestrian Team Unbeaten in National Show

WASHINGTON (AP)— Miss Gay Wiles kept the U.S. equestrian team undefeated after four nights at the Washington International Horse Show Thursday by winning the Ringmaster Challenge Trophy at the National Guard Armory.

The 21-year-old equestrianne from Alexandria, Va., took Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andres Jr.'s Senator over the twisting course in the fastest time posted by the 13 finalists in the international-open jumping contest.

Twenty-three riders, including the leading rider of the show, Neal Shapiro of Glen Head, N.Y., and Kathy Kusner of Monkton, Md., who had won this event in 1966, faulted out in the first round.

What if Presidential Race Is Deadlocked?

The importance of the popular vote next Tuesday looms larger than ever with the reported possibility of an electoral stalemate.

A majority, or at least 270 electoral votes are needed for election and if neither Hubert Humphrey, Richard Nixon nor George Wallace receives that number, the next president must be chosen in a fashion provided for in the Constitution.

* * *

Nothing could be done officially to break the deadlock until Dec. 16 when the electors, chosen by the voters of each state and the District of Columbia, meet in their respective jurisdictions to vote for the next president and vice president.

Presumably, each of the electors will vote for the same candidate who carried his state in the national election, although they are not required to do so by law in 34 states.

UNOFFICIAL EFFORTS

Unofficially, attempts might be made to change the vote contrary to popular wishes expressed at the polls.

The sealed votes are officially reported at a joint session of Congress on Jan. 6.

* * *

If no candidate receives the 270 needed votes, the Senate would elect a vice president from the two candidates with the highest number of electoral votes. Two-thirds of the Senate would constitute a quorum with 51 votes required for election.

The House would ballot to elect a president from the three candidates having the highest number of electoral votes.

* * *

Each state, regardless of size or number of representatives, has one vote per ballot. Two-thirds of the states would have to be represented to constitute a quorum and the votes of 26 would be required for election.

DECIDED IN CAUCUS

The vote per state in the House would be determined by a caucus of the state's House delegation, with the majority ruling. If evenly divided, that state will cast no ballot.

Thus, it is possible that 26 states with a population of 31 million people could outvote 24 states with 149 million people.

* * *

The balloting continues, without interruption by other business, until choices are made. The House in 1801 cast 36 ballots before electing Thomas Jefferson. In 1825, John Quincy Adams was elected on the first ballot over Andrew Jackson, who had received the greater popular and electoral vote.

The choice of president and vice president by this method would make it possible for each to be of different political parties, depending on the political makeup of the Senate and House.

If no president has been chosen by Jan. 20, inauguration day, the vice president chosen by the Senate will become "acting president" until one is elected.

Annual earnings of Al Capone from bootlegging operations during prohibition have been estimated at $60 million, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Election Looks Easy ...It's in the Cards!

By DICK SAUNDERS

It was time Wednesday for my second sojurn this year to Mabel's place. Mabel, being the inimitable Mabel Child, Oakland County election clerk.

It was hectic preelection madness as usual.

I walked in. She was dealing five card stud to her assistant, Janet MacIntosh. The scene went something like this:

SAUNDERS

Each player had two cards, one down; one up. Janet had an ace showing; Mabel a lowly four of hearts.

* * *

"I'll bet a 4 a.m. finish election night," said Janet.

"I'll raise that one hour — a 3 a.m. finish," said Mabel. There was a pause. The cards were dealt.

SIX OF HEARTS

A king to the assistant. Mabel drew a six of hearts.

"Check," said the assistant.

"Check," Mabel agreed.

Another ace went to Janet. Mabel plucked an eight of hearts. The bets on this round were classic.

"Better roads," offered Janet.

* * *

"I'll see better roads and raise you airport expansion with overnight facilities for supervisors from South Oakland," chortled Mabel.

"I'll match airport expansion and raise you a multi-million dollar County jail complete with game room for the sheriff, jogging track for the inmates and a Playboy Penthouse for the trusties," retorted the assistant.

DOMED STADIUM?

There was a third raise left. Mabel looked at her down card and replied:

* * *

"I'll see your raise and raise you a domed stadium built with county surplus on Oakland County Service Center property for the Oakland County Board of Supervisors to hold public hearings on their annual budgets."

The pot was right. Mabel dealt the last cards.

The assistant drew another bullet (ace). Not bad. Three aces and a king showing.

Mabel slipped a seven of hearts off the top. A four, six, seven and eight of hearts showing. That's what we call a "possible."

MOVES FAST

Janet, high on the board, was fast to move.

"I'll bet Dan Murphy," she asserted with a smugness saved for moments such as this.

"I'll raise you Delos Hamlin," Mabel countered.

* * *

"I'll see that and raise you Dave Levinson and the whole ways and means committee," Janet chuckled.

One raise left.

Mabel countered: "I'll raise you a five-story marble structure to house the Oakland County Animal Shelter." She slyly peeked at her down card.

HOLE CARD

Janet turned up a king in the hole. That gave her a full boat, aces over kings.

Mabel nonchalantly flipped over her hole card — a five of hearts. A straight flush.

* * *

At this point, I kind of got the feeling that Tuesday's election is going to run smoothly. That kind of thing leaves me with a foreboding. It's the ones you expect to go well, that always end up in a state of chaos.

If it helps any, the odds against a player being dealt a straight flush in poker are 64,974 to 1.

Those are also about the right odds against us ever having an election without any problems, or walking in on a fantasy such as the one described above.

Buoyed by Bombing Halt

Vigorous Rally by Stock Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market rallied vigorously Friday on news that President Johnson had called a Vietnam bombing halt.

Gains outnumbered losses by more than 500 issues on the New York Stock Exchange—a ratio of 7 to 2 for the upside.

★ ★ ★

Trading was heavy, and the ticker tape ran a couple of minutes late as prices advanced on a broad front.

Johns-Manville rose about 3, U.S. Gypsum 2, Xerox 3, Du Pont 2, Ling-Temco-Vought 2.

Gains of a point or so were scored by National Gypsum, Kaiser Cement & Chemical, Chrysler, Jones & Laughlin, United Aircraft, Control Data, Owens-Illinois, Polaroid, Illinois Central and Penn Central.

NO RUNAWAY

While the advance was sharp, it was by no means a runaway market. Wall Street has always reacted bullishly to peace news, but comment by analysts echoed statements made by some business and political leaders that the road to actual peace would still be long and difficult.

Aside from Chrysler, the other major automakers merely edged higher.

Opening blocks included: American Telephone, up at 55 on 19,500 shares; Bethlehem, up ⅛ at 33 on 16,600; Glen Alden, up ⅛ at 14 on 11,000; and Consolidated Edison, unchanged at 33 on 5,500 .

Thursday The Associated Press 60-stock average declined .4 to 352.2

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Mood Drugs' Popularity Eyed

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sociology, one of the sciences which studies people, is trying to find out why so many Americans are using psychotropic (mind-turning) drugs.

Its base calculation is that one-quarter of the adult population now takes them to sleep better or to stay awake more reliably or to achieve some semblance of inner peace.

* * *

The psychotropes are one group of mood-changing drugs. Another is the "hard" narcotics — heroin, cocaine, morphine. The psychedelics, LSD, Marijuana, and the like, form a third.

The "hard" mood changers are associated with "urban slums, depressed minorities and organized crime," said Dr. Hugh J. Perry of George Washington University, Washington, D.C. The psychedelics go with "avantgardism, alienation and the revolt of youth."

NO CLASSIFICATION

As of now sociology can't classify psychotropic users. Sociology has been too busy studying the other groups because they "can be made to appear more exciting, glamorous and dangerous or as representing a greater social problem," Perry said in a publication of the U.S. Public Health Service.

* * *

But that isn't necessarily so. Perry is director of a four-year nationwide study to establish whether it is or isn't. The preliminary returns indicate that about one half the adult population now has had personal experience with the mind-turners, and a quarter use them regularly.

* * *

The drugs intended to produce inner peace by tranquilizing the mind are most popular. In 10 years their use has spread from 7 per cent of the population to 27 per cent. Sleep-producing drugs are next and least used of the psychotropes are the mind-stimulants.

HEIST AT STATION—The Pontiac police headquarters front desk, usually the scene of less-lighthearted visits, was a productive stopping place for these youthful trick-or-treaters last night. Sgt. Leland Gormley (left), Patrolmen Pat Duggan (center) and James Batchelor handed over the goods as part of the department's "Blue Pumpkin" program. Patrol cars also dispensed candy, donated by the Pontiac Police Officers Association (PPOA).

Man Behind TV Nudie Bares His Big Mistake

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — The man who gave this desert resort area a nudie show via home television says he was confident at the time that he was the only viewer of the racy film.

Robert Allen Veatch, 25, of San Bernardino was arrested Wednesday by police who quoted him as saying the showing was accidental and that he was "solely responsible."

The stag film was carried throughout the Coachella Valley early Sunday morning by cable television. Viewers tuned in after regular telecasting and saw nude men and women cavorting across their screens.

Station KPLM-TV's program director, Mike Rollins, told Police Chief Robert B. White that, to the best of his knowledge, Veatch, a control technician at the station, was looking at the film alone in the studio after hours.

Veatch believed, said Rollins, that he had cut off all cable transmission and had switched the film to a single TV set.

Instead, it was seen in the communities of Palm Springs, Palm Desert, Rancho Mirage and Indian Wells.

White said Veatch soon realized what had happened and quickly destroyed the videotape. The tape, White said, was Veatch's personal property. He said Veatch has been a part of the staff about two months.

Veatch was booked on suspicion of broadcasting obscene matter.

The police chief said final disposition of the case awaits a study to determine whether it falls under local or federal jurisdiction.

Pontiac Man Is Walkaway at Prison Camp

A Pontiac man, serving a two-to-five-year prison sentence for a hit-and-run traffic death, was one of two men who reportedly walked away from a prison camp near Manistee last night.

He was identified by authorities as Gary Gillespie, 23. The other missing prisoner is Alan Guest, 21, who was sentenced in Genesee County for larceny from an auto.

* * *

The two had only arrived at Camp on Tuesday.

Gillespie was sentenced Sept. 10 by Oakland County Circuit Judge Philip Pratt.

* * *

The prison term was ordered after Gillespie pleaded guilty to negligent homicide in the death of Sherry Ann Knight, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lane E. Knight of 203 S. Center, Highland Township.

Miss Knight and her escort were run down from behind while walking on the shoulder of Milford Road near Highland on Jan. 1, 1968.

Huron Valley Board to Ink Teacher Pact

The Huron Valley Board of Education will hold a special meeting to approve the 1968-69 teachers contract Monday at 9:30 p.m.

Details have not been disclosed pending ratification by both sides. Teachers voted earlier this week on the pact.

A tentative agreement was reached by the board and the district's teachers last week.

Absentee Ballot Deadlnie Is Near

Voters wishing to vote by absentee ballot in Tuesday's election must pick up their ballots by 2 p.m. tomorrow.

* * *

State law dictates that absentee ballots cannot be given out after that time. City and township offices are to be open until 2 p.m. to dispense the ballots.

* * *

Completed ballots must be returned to local city and township clerks by the close of polls Tuesday to be counted.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

A lot of homes will.

In wintertime, people in houses with flame-type heating wake up mornings with that stuffed-up feeling. With hoarse, dry throats. Furniture dries out and starts creaking.

Sound familiar? You bet it does. The best way to stop it is with electric heat.

You see, electric heat isn't a dry or drying heat. So you usually don't need a humidifier. The moisture from bathing and cooking is all you need for natural comfort.

An Edison-Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to tell you all about comfortable electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and explain the guarantee. And now, your contractor's offering a $100 trade-in on your old heating system. Call him for a no-obligation electric heat survey. Look in the Yellow Pages under "Electric Heating—Equipment and Systems." He'll show you how to turn your desert into an oasis.

Car Insurance Plan Passage to Be Urged

DETROIT (AP) — State Insurance Commissioner David J. Dykhouse says he plans to ask the State Legislature to implement a three-point program designed to solve automobile insurance problems.

Dykhouse said one proposal would compel all auto insurance companies in the state to pool their resources to make insurance available to marginal drivers. All companies would share the risk.

* * *

Another suggestion would require all companies to pool resources to protect the public by paying the liabilities of insurance companies that become bankrupt.

A third would do away with the present rigid rates on insurance and would give companies a free hand to set their own rates for all except marginal drivers.

* * *

Dykhouse outlined his proposals Wednesday before the Greater Detroit Chapter of Chartered Property and Casualty Underwriters in Detroit.

Kuhn, a delegate to the state Constitutional Convention, failed in election bids for the U.S. Senate from the 19th District in 1964 and 1966. Affiliations include West Pontiac Kiwanis, Michigan and Oakland County Bar Associations, Elks Lodge No. 810 and Waterford Republican Club.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

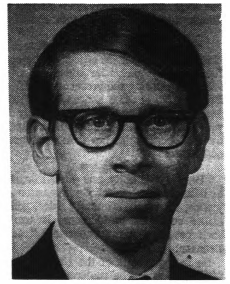

"The prosecuting attorney is the chief law enforcement officer of the county. As prosecuting attorney, my policy would be that lawlessness would not be tolerated.

NARCOTICS OFFENDERS

"Far too many high school students are being subjected to marijuana and dope. The sellers and pushers of these drugs will be dealt with severely. We must give our full support to our police and other law enforcement officers.

"If there is organized crime in Oakland County, it should be cleaned out. There is no room for permissiveness when it comes to violators of the law. Our homes, churches, businesses and streets must be made safe for our families. Law and order must be put above politics."

Democrat

THOMAS G. PLUNKETT

Chief assistant prosecutor of Oakland County since 1966, Thomas G. Plunkett, 29, of Royal Oak received a law degree from the University of Detroit, where he was a Burton Scholar and managing editor of the Law Journal.

He was research assistant for State Supreme Court Justice Thomas M. Kavanaugh before joining the prosecutor's staff, where he was chief appellate counsel. Plunkett has been active in Big Brothers and has taught criminal law at Oakland Community College.

His statement:

"Today, as at no other time, crime must be met with strength and purpose. There can be no mistake about the real issue in this campaign. It is not whether crime exists but who is the man best equipped to fight it.

RECORD CONVICTIONS

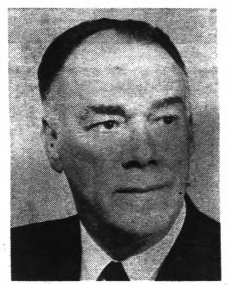

"Under my direction, our staff has established a record of convictions and of bold new programs in drug abuse, youth crime and law enforcement training.

"This job should not be left to a politician. The staff I have built does more to curb crime in one hour than has been accomplished by a decade of my opponent's political oratory."

"Only a professional who prosecutes without fear or favor can provide the protection that every taxpayer has a right to demand."

Sheriff

Republican

FRANK W. IRONS

Frank W. Irons, Oakland County Sheriff since 1955, is seeking his seventh term. Irons, 69, who resides on the jail premises, was Berkley police chief for 30 years before being elected sheriff.

He is a director of the Michigan Sheriff's Association and a past president of the Southeastern Michigan Chiefs of Police Association. He also belongs to the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce, Berkley Lions Club, Multi-Lakes Conservation Association, and Metropolitan Club of Royal Oak.

★ ★ ★

His statement:

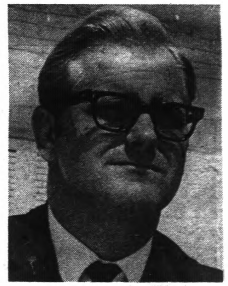

"The enforcement of peace under today's criminal laws is a challenge and, due to changing positions, it has made necessary the need for new training procedures.

DEPUTIES' TRAINING

"Sheriff's deputies pass rigid examinations, then are given basic law-enforcement training and in-service training. This has been in effect for the past three years.

"If elected, I will maintain the cooperation that now exists with township, village, city and State Police units. I will give the people of our county the law enforcement they are entitled to and can be proud of and will keep the sheriff's department in step with the growth and progress of Oakland County."

Democrat

RUEL E. McPHERSON

Ruel E. McPherson, 31, of Hazel Park, an unsuccessful candidate for sheriff in 1964, has been constable in Hazel Park since first elected in 1960.

A physical fitness advocate, McPherson was an All-American wrestler in 1962 and an Olympic finalist in 1964. Immediate past president of Hazel Park Kiwanis, he is a director of the Hazel Park Jaycees, member of the Knights of Pythias and board member of the Oakland County March of Dimes.

His statement:

"My campaign will stress education and physical fitness to bring the sheriff's department up to state police standards. I will emphasize improvement by upgrading present jail conditions and establishing youth programs.

PENAL REFORM

"I am campaigning for reform in the administration of county jails and correctional institutions, for education and rehabilitation programs for alcoholics, for law enforcement training programs for sheriff's deputies with job assignments geared to their potential, and for establishment of a cadet program.

"Urgently needed is a psychiatric examination and evaluation of incoming prisoners with their being placed in cells according to these evaluations. I am also in favor of deploying men and patrol cars into high crime areas."

University Board Candidates

Voters will be asked to select two men for each of the three state university governing boards.

A field of 12 candidates, six of them Republican and six Democrats, have been nominated by their respective parties to seek the positions.

★

Vying for the two posts open on the Michigan State University Board of Trustees are Republicans David Diehl of Dansville and Richard Ernst of Birmingham and Democrats Warren M. Huff of Plymouth, a member of the board from 1959 to 1965, and Dr. Blanche Martin of East Lansing.

Ernst has attacked the sliding-scale tuition act, based on gross family income as an "ill thought-out, poorly conceived plan."

Huff has said the university curriculum must be modified "to compensate for students from disadvantaged homes and high schools."

Seeking election to the Wayne State University Board of Governors are Democrats George C. Edwards, an attorney, and Augustus J. Calloway, both of Detroit, and Republicans Kurt Keydel of Detroit and Victor Raviolo of Grosse Pointe.

Keydel was the sponsor of Wayne State's junior year in the Munich and Freiburg program.

Two Republican incumbents seek reelection to the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

Fred C. Matthaei Jr. of Birmingham wants to "provide the finest education at lower per-student costs" and Lawrence Lindemer of Stockbridge feels "open and free communication between administrator, faculty and student" is necessary to control student activism?

Democratic hopefuls Robert Nederlander of Detroit and Gerald R. Dunn of Flushing are the challengers.

Nederlander favors a "rational" expansion of the university and adequate budget requirements to meet increased enrollment.
