Freezing Drizzle, Snow May Stay All Week

AP Photofax

IT'S A COLD STRIKE — As heated opinions about the blanketing Midwest storm rose from drivers like smoke signals, few drivers were more unhappy than this Sioux Falls, S.D., resident. Equipped with a shovel, he started "panning" for his car under the 31-inch snow which engulfed the city Sunday. He struck pay dirt a few hours later, when a glistening vein of chrome told him he had found his claim.

Travel Limited but 50 Plows Work for Hours

Midwest Storm Slaps Oakland; Thumb Area Hit Hardest

A treacherous snow-and-ice storm, which attacked the entire Midwest over the weekend, today showed signs of staying for a five-day siege here.

It is also pushing its wet and chill offensive east and south across the nation.

The witches' broth of snow, sleet, freezing rain and drizzle slopped over onto Oakland County beginning late yesterday afternoon and slowed traffic to a crawl.

However by 10 a.m. this morning, the county and Pontiac appeared on the way to recovery. Schools — except Pontiac's St. Frederick's — were open. City streets were in good condition but slushy.

County Road Commission trucks and plows — totaling over 50 — continued to go over previously plowed and salted areas again and again, as stubborn ice and snow clung to the pavements. Cautious travel on thoroughfares was possible.

Freezing drizzle and snow flurries were expected here this afternoon, and rain and snow were expected to fall Wednesday and Friday. Cold ranging from 10 to 20 degrees was forecast for the next five days.

This area got off comparatively easy as only 3½ to five inches of snow were reported as contrasted with 12 inches in Michigan's Thumb area and 31 inches at Sioux Falls, S.D.

At least three persons died in the state in traffic accidents on icy roads. All Michigan highways remained snow - covered and slippery. Some side roads in the northern half of the Lower Peninsula and the Muskegon-Grand Rapids area were closed.

The eight-state storm belt spread into areas in North Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Michigan.

HEADS NORTHEASTWARD

It moved into northern Indiana and Ohio and headed northeastward, with heavy snowfall indicated in the northeastern upper Lakes region to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

In the Midwest, thousands of motorists were stranded as strong winds whipped snow into drifts. Travel in southern Minnesota was virtually halted. In Wisconsin up to 150 cars were stalled on a single highway in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties.

Some 700 ice fishermen, women and children were trapped for several hours Sunday on Lake Poygan, near Oshkosh, Wis., as a blinding snow storm darkened the area. They were led to safety by state conservation workers and volunteers.

★ ★ ★

In Oakland County the biggest obstacle faced by drivers was getting out of driveways and side-roads piled high with ice-crusted drifts.

Pontiac Municipal Airport reported its main east-west runway open after plows cleared 5 inches of snow.

The state fatalities attributed directly to the storm included:

Grover Munn Jr., 38, of Laingsburg, was killed Sunday night when struck by a car during a snowstorm on M78 near Laingsburg in Shiawassee County.

HEAD-ON COLLISION

Snow also was blamed for a head-on collision in downtown Holland in which Mrs. Julia De Boer, 65, of Holland, a passenger in a car driven by her husband, was killed Sunday.

Another death was that of one-year-old Richard Carlson of Freeland. The infant was killed when a toboggan in the rear of the family station wagon was rammed forward by the impact

News Flash

PARIS (AP) — President Charles de Gaulle today urged the world's nuclear powers to destroy all their nuclear weapons and to join in destruction or control of all means of their delivery.

Smiles . . . for Good Reason

HISTORIC MOMENT — E. M. (Pete) Estes (right), General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, congratulates Frank V. Bridge, Pontiac sales manager, at the opening of the Chicago Automobile Show Saturday. It had just been announced that Pontiac captured third place in auto industry sales for 1961. It was the first third place finish in the division's history. Walter K. Marks, of the chart and display dept., is putting finishing touches on signs signifying the sales record.

Pontiac Ranks Third in Auto Sales for '61

Pontiac sales ranked third in the automobile industry last year. It was the first time in Pontiac Motor Division history that the division ranked that high for a calendar year.

★ ★ ★

Registration figures received this weekend made the third-place finish official, said E. M. (Pete) Estes, General Motors vice president and general manager of the division.

Pontiac registered 372,871 cars last year.

Today, everyone at the administration building on Oakland Avenue was wearing big red, white and blue buttons advertising the sales record.

In 1959, Pontiac had ranked first in sales until a steel strike shut down the division. It finished fourth that year.

The year before last, Pontiac was fifth in sales.

Pontiac has been leading the medium priced field in the industry since 1959 and has been GM's second largest division in sales since then.

★ ★ ★

"This is the first time in Pontiac's 36-year history that car sales banner has flown so high," said Estes in his message to employes.

"I want to sincerely thank all of you for making this achievement possible. Needless to say, as a result of your concerted efforts we are able to share in this success today."

According to latest figures, Pontiac's hold on third place in 1962 has been strengthened. Pontiac sales for the first four months of current model-run total 155,810, a record for the division.

★ ★ ★

"We must continue to design and build our cars to fulfill the varied demands of the customer. This provides us with an opportunity and challenge for concentrating all our efforts to improve the reliability of our product," Estes added.

Retail deliveries by Pontiac dealers in the first 14-day sales period of February totaled 11,776, a 55 per cent gain over the same period last year. Sales for the month of January were 35,881, a 39 per cent increase over the 25,788 Pontiacs sold last year.

In finishing third last year, Pontiac and Tempest sales edged out Rambler by about 2,000.

'OUTSTANDING' FEAT

Division officials pointed out that a medium-priced car beating out a smaller car in sales was an outstanding achievement.

Pontiac was placed third by R. L. Polk, the recognized industry statistical agency. In a report, Polk said next to the two volume producers, Pontiac sold more cars than any other make.

Teel Promotion Will Be Urged

Commission Will Act on His Nomination as Asst. City Manager

City commissioners will be asked to approve the promotion of Administrative Assistant David S. Teel to the post of assistant city manager at tonight's City Commission meeting.

★ ★ ★

The meeting, usually held each Tuesday, is on Monday this week due to the annual banquet of the Pontiac Area Chamber of Commerce tomorrow night.

Teel's promotion will be recommended by City Manager Robert A. Stierer. Along with it will go a salary hike of about $1,300.

Also in line for pay raises are City Attorney William A. Ewart and Asst. City Attorney Sherwin M. Birnkrant. Motions for their pay hikes of about $1,400 apiece, annually, are expected to be made at the same time.

ALSO ON AGENDA

Also up for action tonight is a transient traders' ordinance requested last month by Commissioner William H. Taylor Jr. and Mayor Philip E. Rowston.

The ordinance is aimed primarily at business places which are established only for a short time, particularly at the Christmas season, and sell merchandise at discount prices.

Because they are in business for only a month or two, they are not required to pay real and personal property taxes as are permanent businesses under present city ordinances.

★ ★ ★

The proposed ordinance would give "transient traders" a choice of paying for a license or paying taxes under a specified formula.

The license rate would be $10 per day for as many days as the merchant is open for business.

Under the alternative, the merchant would fill out a statement listing the cost of his inventory, furniture, fixtures and equipment which will be assessed by the city.

French, Algerians End Talks; Cease Fire May Be at Hand

PARIS (AP)—The French said today secret talks with the Algerian nationalist rebels have ended, raising optimism in Paris and at rebel headquarters in Tunis that a cease fire may be near.

A rebel leader arriving in Tunis from the talks insisted negotiations still are going on and declined to elaborate. But it later was announced that the rebel parliament will meet in Tripoli Wednesday. The French cabinet meets the same day.

This brought the optimism in Tunis, where it was pointed out that any decision as important as an agreement to end the long rebellion would have to be submitted to the rebel parliament for approval. Should parliament raise objections, more talks with the French may be necessary, a dispatch from Tunis said.

★ ★ ★

A French announcement said "the conclusions . . . will be brought before the government." France's three-man negotiating team arrived in Paris from the talks and met at once with President Charles de Gaulle.

★ ★ ★

Arriving at his headquarters in Tunis from the talks with the French, rebel Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab told reporters:

"Negotiations are going on in very good conditions."

Earlier, diplomatic quarters in Paris expressed belief the wording of the French announcement indicated an agreement had been reached for ending the nearly 7½-year-old rebellion.

With a feeling of optimism prevailing in Paris, the price of gold fell off slightly. Frenchmen usually sell gold when the political outlook takes a favorable turn.

★ ★ ★

Louis Joxe, French minister for Algerian affairs and chief negotiator, arrived in Paris to make his report to De Gaulle. Joxe was accompanied by Premier Michel Dobre, and his two fellow negotiators, Sahara minister Jean de Broglie and public works minister Robert Buron, on his visit to the president.

★ ★ ★

A French spokesman confirmed for the first time what was generally known all along, that the secret talks had taken place Feb. 11-18. He said they were held on French soil. It was believed the two sides met near the Swiss border.

Joxe and two other French ministers met with rebel Vice Premier Belkacem Krim, Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab and two other Algerian rebel officials.

The Algerians had left their Tunis headquarters Feb. 10 to meet the French at a secret location.

First in School Series

Parents: You Can Help

(Editor's Note — Parents are every bit as important as teachers in the education of their children. This is the first in a series of 15 articles by an educational authority detailing what you can do to help your child succeed in school.)

By LESLIE J. NASON, D.ED.
Professor of Education, University of Southern California

"How can I get my child to want to learn?"

That question is uppermost in the minds of good parents; a question most frequently asked when parents and teachers meet to discuss education.

DR. NASON

The problem is not one for teachers alone to solve. Parents themselves have an important — perhaps the most important — role in stimulating their child's thirst for knowledge.

In this series of articles we are going to outline some of the ways in which you can help your child to succeed in school by creating and enhancing his desire to learn.

★ ★ ★

Parents are the most important people on earth to children.

Father's political party or make of car is likely to be Junior's choice, too. Mother's way of cooking or cleaning will become little Susie's way of doing things.

Children also tend to share their parents' views about school.

AN INFLUENCE

If Daddy says, "I always liked school. Things I learned in school help me with my job," Junior decides that he likes school.

If Mother says, "From the time I was a little girl, I knew I would go to college," Susie decides that college is for her, too.

But if Daddy says, "I hated school. I couldn't wait for the time to quit," Junior rates school as a bore.

And if Mother says, "Don't bother me with your homework. I'm busy," Junior decides that homework is a bother.

Liz Taylor Leaves Hospital; Burton Denies Romance

ROME (UPI) — Elizabeth Taylor left the hospital today after a weekend bout with food poisoning and her leading man issued a statement denouncing "uncontrolled rumors" that they were romantically inclined.

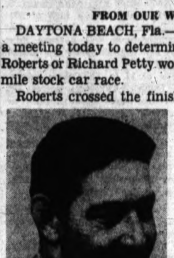
Richard Burton, 36-year-old Welsh-born actor who plays Marc Antony opposite Miss Taylor in the movie "Cleopatra," said he was the victim of distorted statements and a series of coincidences. He said he and the 29-year-old Miss Taylor are just "good friends."

Pontiac Sets New Record in Disputed Daytona Race

FROM OUR WIRE SERVICES

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla.—NASCAR officials scheduled a meeting today to determine whether Glenn (Fireball) Roberts or Richard Petty won Sunday's rich Daytona 500 mile stock car race.

Roberts crossed the finish line first in his gleaming black and gold Pontiac 27 seconds ahead of Petty, but Petty lodged a protest.



GLENN ROBERTS

The Randleman, N.C., youngster, who drove a Plymouth, claimed that Roberts used too many men to service his car on the last pit stop.

However, officials indicated that the protest would be disallowed because it wasn't made immediately and Roberts wasn't flagged from the track.

Regardless of who is adjudged winner, a world's record will have been set for a continuous 500-mile auto race. Roberts toured the track, which has steeply banked turns at an average speed of 152.529 miles an hour. The old mark of 149.601 was set in last year's Daytona 500 by Marvin Panch of Daytona Beach.

Following Petty across the finish line were Joe Weatherly, Norfolk, Va., in a 1962 Pontiac; Jack Smith, Spartanburg, S.C., in a 1962 Pontiac and Fred Lorenzen, Elmhurst, Ill., in a 1962 Ford.

Others in the top ten were David Pearson, Spartanburg, S.C., 1961 Pontiac; Rex White, Spartanburg, 1962 Chevrolet; Edwin (Banjo) Matthews, Asheville, N.C., 1962 Pontiac; Ned Jarrett, Newton, N.C., 1962 Chevrolet, and Bob Welborn, Greensboro, N.C., 1962 Pontiac.

First place was worth more than $21,000. Other purses brought the total for the race to approximately $106,000, making it the richest stock car race ever. Another record was set when more than 62,000 persons jammed into the speedway.

There were several accidents, but only one driver, Elzi Buck Baker of Charlotte, N.C., was hospitalized. Doctors said he cracked three ribs when his big Chrysler ripped into a retaining fence.

Streets Flooded by New Storm in Stricken LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A wind-driven storm dropped more than an inch of rain on Los Angeles early today, flooding streets and closing both U. S. highways 99 and 101.

★ ★ ★

The third major downpour of the month again threatened heavy damage in hillside and canyon districts plagued by mudslides in the earlier storms.

★ ★ ★

The weather bureau predicted that the storm front would pass through the area by midmorning, leaving showers in its wake.

The forecaster said another batch of rain may come late in the week, possibly by Thursday.

★ ★ ★

Los Angeles had recorded 1.17 inches of rain by 7 a. m., raising the figure for the season to 17.14 inches.

Reporter Survives Survival Food Diet

By DICK SAUNDERS

For someone whose only previous claim to fame was soft knee-caps, I've come a long way.

Now I'm a real ladies man. I've got a lap, too!

The last of the red-hot papas has survived. In my two weeks on fallout shelter survival food, I went from a rotund 217 pounds to a svelte 207.

Most important, I feel better than I did when I started. During the second week I used General Mills Multi-Purpose Food (MPF) exclusively. I had supplemented it with Quaker Emergency Ration (QER) during the first week.

★ ★ ★

The test taught me two things: Fatigue is your worst enemy and variety is the key to good eating.

Naturally, in a fallout shelter I wouldn't be moving around much and, thus, I wouldn't be bothered much by fatigue. Maybe boredom would be my worst enemy.

But continuing normal activity while living on these condensed foods required that I get a good eight hours sleep each night—I learned that early.

My second and third days were rough. I was nearly ex-

Flooded Areas Combed for 100 Listed as Missing

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—With 144 bodies recovered, disaster teams labored in near freezing weather today to find more than 100 other persons missing and presumed dead in weekend floods over North Germany. Damage ran into hundreds of millions of dollars.

★ ★ ★

Flags flew at half-staff on government buildings throughout West Germany. Three days of public mourning were proclaimed in Hamburg, a city of 1.8 million that was hardest hit. The city's amusement centers and bars were asked to put out their lights and cancel public dances

NEW FLOODS UNLIKELY

Mild winds blew over the ravaged North Sea coast. A full moon tonight will mean peak tides, but officials forecast no new floods that would threaten remaining dikes.

Hamburg's known death toll stood at 120.

In Bremen, seven persons were listed as dead. The state of Lower Saxony rechecked a report of 24 dead and revised it down to 11. Other deaths included one in Schleswig-Holstein. Five German soldiers lost their lives in rescue work.

Officials said it would take several days to get a complete casualty list of the toll taken by the slowly receding waters which left the area looking like a battlefield.

'COPTERS FLY MISSIONS

The search was stepped up as several special units were brought in to comb the flood areas. More than 100 helicopters were flying supply and evacuation missions.

Tens of thousands of persons spent their third night in flood-surrounded houses.

★ ★ ★

Supplies were running low and drinking water was rationed in some areas. Many houses were without electricity or heat.

To Arraign Teacher for Cruelty to Child

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—Rockford High School teacher-coach Larry A. Lindeman, 23, faces arraignment today on a charge of cruelty to a child as the result of injury to his stepdaughter.

Kent County Prosecutor Richard Loughrin authorized a warrant following a statement police say was signed Saturday when Lindeman admitted he beat and burned the 2-year-old girl.

The child since has been admitted for treatment at Manistee County General Hospital.

★ ★ ★

State police arrested Lindeman at the Rockford post where he allegedly had followed his wife and two children who were in a car with a relative and bound for Manistee.

Hopes Brighter for Space Shot

Weather Is Improving in Cape Area; Chances for Flight Are Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A brightening weather picture buoyed hopes today that astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will be launched toward a round-the-earth orbit Tuesday after months of delays.

At a briefing shortly after 9 a.m. (Pontiac time) Project Mercury officials reported "generally improved conditions" in the Atlantic Ocean recovery areas where Marine Lt. Col. Glenn's capsule would descent.

The first half of a split two-day countdown was started at 2:30 a.m. The precount was finished at 6 a.m., with both the Atlas booster rocket and Friendship 7 spacecraft described as in "go" condition.

Officials were shooting for a launch between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

GAVE SOME CONCERN

The weather outlook in the Cape Canaveral vicinity gave officials some concern. A cold front preceded by a squall line was advancing into Northern Florida this morning. This could leave lingering cloudiness in the Cape area Tuesday, possibly delaying the shot for the 11th time.

However, officials were hopeful holes could be found in the clouds through which the rocket could be fired.

A complete check of the weather was due for about midnight tonight, after which officials were to make a preliminary "go or no go" decision.

"We feel a lot more optimistic today than we did yesterday," said Lt. Col. John A. Powers, spokesman for the astronauts.

"Conservatively I would say the odds are at least 60-40 in our favor."

Powers said one change had been made in the lineup of ships poised to recover Glenn. The aircraft carrier Forrestal has replaced the carrier Constellation in the area — 500 miles east of Bermuda — where Glenn would come down if he made only one orbit, instead of the hoped-for three.

"Relaxed as he can be," Glenn planned to phone his wife and parents tonight before going to bed about 7 or 8 o'clock.

AP Photofax

"RELAXED AS CAN BE" — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. meets newsmen and well wishers with a big smile as he leaves church services at Cocoa Beach, Fla., Sunday. As he headed back to the Cape for meetings and training sessions before his round-the-world space flight try, he told newsmen, "I'm not a bit nervous. I'm relaxed as can be."

In the Pontiac area colder temperatures are expected tonight with the low around 15 degrees. Tuesday's outlook includes partly cloudy skies with little change in temperature and a high of 30.

During the next five-day period temperatures will average three to five degrees below the normal high of 32 to 38 and the normal low of 14 to 22. Colder weather is expected Thursday, warmer Friday and colder again Saturday, according to, the U.S. Weather Bureau report.

Precipitation will average nearly one-half inch as snow, possibly mixed with rain, mostly Wednesday and Friday with a few snow flurries likely.

Easterly winds 15 to 25 miles late this morning will become northerly tonight.

The lowest temperature reading preceding 8 a.m. today was a cool 21 degrees shortly after midnight. At 2 p.m. the thermometer recorded 33.

Tense Peace Over British Guiana City

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—An uncertain peace settled on this tropical capital today after a siege of rioting, looting and burning. Labor leaders called off their general strike against leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, but his East Indian followers were reported plotting reprisals in the hinterlands.

British armed forces, hurriedly flown from Jamaica and London on appeal from Jagan, were braced for trouble, although fire-blackened Georgetown was quiet.

British officials said Sunday night more troops were due in today to reinforce those that arrived Friday and Saturday.

The situation remained tense until it could be determined whether workers would obey their union leaders' call to return to their jobs.

Racial tensions between Negroes and East Indians ran high after rioting Negro mobs burned a half-mile square of Georgetown's business center and its East Indian stores last Friday. The rioting left six dead, scores injured and $11 million property damage.

Jagan, an East Indian himself, gets most of his support from East Indian farmers and workers outside Georgetown. Negroes generally support Forbes Burnham, leader of the People's National Congress party, whom Jagan defeated in last August's election.

Tensions relaxed somewhat Sunday night, with the announcement of labor leaders that they had called off their week-long strike.

The back-to-work call came after the union leaders met three and a half hours with Jagan. One negotiator said Jagan agreed to a series of demands.

A terse radio announcement said the unions, grouping civil servants, government employes and primary schoolteachers, had asked them to return to work with the Trade Union Council also recommending its 12,000 strikers to resume work.

Civil servants and teachers struck for higher wages. The Trades Union Council protested Jagan's plans for higher import taxes and a compulsory savings scheme which the council claimed hurt workers more than the rich.

A Trades Union Council announcement said Jagan promised to impose price controls to prevent importers from passing on duties to consumers and to consider the replacement of the compulsory savings program with a voluntary savings scheme.

Observers said, however, the strike basically was against the leftist leanings of Jagan.

Arrest Strikers; Charge Shooting

20 Accused of Firing at Driver, Trucks of Alabama Company

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty strikers were arrested today on charges of conspiring to interfere with interstate commerce by shooting at drivers and trucks of the Bowman Transportation Co. of Gadsden, Ala. The alleged offenses all took place in Alabama and Georgia since Nov. 4.

The firm has been involved in a violence-studded strike by Birmingham Teamster Union Local 612 since that date.

Acting Atty. Gen. Byron R. White said a three-count indictment was returned last Wednesday in U.S. district court in Birmingham against the local president, George Samuel Webb, 42, and 19 other strikers.

★ ★ ★

The indictment remained sealed until the arrests were made today.

He said evidence leading to the indictment was developed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The indictment listed six shootings at Bowman vehicles in Georgia and Alabama and a seventh shooting at the Gadsden home of a Bowman employe. The shootings occurred between Dec. 3 and Jan. 18, the government said.

Urban Dept. Plan Stalls

Delay Action on Motion

From Our News Wires

WASHINGTON — Democratic leaders today postponed Senate action on President Kennedy's plan for a new cabinet-level department of urban affairs so the proposal can be subjected to the usual committee procedure.

★ ★ ★

The decision will enable the Senate Government Operations Committee to meet and vote on the reorganization proposal, thus avoiding a scheduled move to force the issue out of the committee by a discharge petition.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield told reporters it was decided to "follow the regular procedure" of normal committee consideration. He said the proposal might come up later this week or early next week.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., chairman of the Government Operations Committee, said hearings were completed and he would call his group into session "at an early date" to vote on the plan.

"We never had any disposition to delay the matter," he told reporters. Mansfield supported this, saying McClellan was "diligent in holding hearings."

★ ★ ★

Speaker John W. McCormack has conceded that the President's plan to establish an 11th cabinet-level department is in serious trouble in the House.

Congress mostly marked time last week while many Republican members were away extolling Abraham Lincoln in traditional party rallies. Swinging back into action, the House plans to take up two administration-backed measures Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

One would permit a $2-billion temporary increase in the national debt ceiling. The other calls for a program of retraining workers displaced by automation.

TO HEAR FREEMAN

The House Agriculture Committee hears today from Secretary Orville L. Freeman on the administration's sweeping new farm program and House tax writers begin a last round of discussions of Kennedy's tax revision proposals.

★ ★ ★

On the Senate side, a special Armed Services subcommittee resumes its investigation of government censorship practices. The Foreign Relations Comittee may conclude today its public hearings on Kennedy's call for U.S. purchase of half a $200-million U.N. bond issue.

West Continues Berlin Flights

Operation Is Designed to Assert Allied Rights in Air Corridors

BERLIN (AP) — Allied aircraft flew through the north corridor from Berlin today to counter renewed Soviet pressure on the vital air lanes, informed sources said.

★ ★ ★

Military and commercial transports thrust through the Berlin-Hamburg corridor over Communist East German territory, the informants said.

The Western operation was designed to assert Allied rights in face of the renewal of harassing tactics by the Red air force.

ORDERED TO FLY LOW

Western commanders gave orders for the transports to fly deliberately below the level the Soviets want for their exclusive use for a three-hour period.

★ ★ ★

For the sixth time since it started harassing Western air links to Berlin on Feb. 7, the Soviet air force told the Berlin Air Safety Center Sunday night it was reserving air space up to 7,500 feet in the north corridor leading to Berlin from Hamburg.

★ ★ ★

Allied control officers rejected the Soviet flight plan and ordered military transports to stand by.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet move came after a weekend pause in the Berlin air crisis. Sunday morning, Moscow announced it had rejected a three-power protest that maneuvers of the Red air force in the corridors were dangerous and illegal.

★ ★ ★

The Allies insist that air safety rules, in force for 17 years, require notification of each individual flight through the three 20-mile wide corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hannover and Hamburg.

Maple Road Home Damaged by Fire

A fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated damage of $20,000 to a Bloomfield Township home yesterday afternoon.

No one was home when the fire was discovered by a passing motorist shortly before 2 p.m.

Parents: You Can Help!

I have more important things to do," Susie looks at homework as of little or no importance.

First and foremost in a child's education needs is family approval of learning.

With it, he is off to a flying start. Without it, he is under a serious handicap.

The youngster who knows that his parents stand behind him in getting an education, studies harder and does better than a child who thinks his parents do not care.

Be sure your child knows you care.

A successful college student told me the other day:

"My parents always encouraged questions. They made it clear that there was no such thing as a foolish question. If they didn't know the answer, they helped me find it."

It isn't always easy to manage the activities of a family so each member can fill all his needs without becoming a problem to someone else. It is possible, however, for the family to plan activities so each member knows that others are considering his needs and desires.

When television, recreation and the dozens of other activities of the home are regulated to provide time for homework and family discussion, school is given its proper place of importance.

Parents set the attitude toward learning that children adopt as their own.

Provide your children with a place and time to study. Have reference books handy. Encourage them to look up words in the dictionary and places in the atlas. Encourage them to study each subject, not just do homework assignments.

Let them enter family discussions about current events. Listen to good music together. Read good books with them. Go to libraries, museums, zoos, art galleries with your children.

Always consider school and education important, thus creating family approval of learning.

★ ★ ★

City Chiefs to Act on Teel Promotion

The merchant would then pay a tax on his assessed property value, the tax bill being based on how many months he remains in business.

Also on tonight's agenda is a resolution which will authorize the City Manager to proceed with contract arrangements for a study of sewage system development in the city's north and east sections.

The study would provide a plan for major sewer trunklines to be constructed in these areas as soon as the new sewage treatment plant is opened this summer.

In other business, public hearings are slated on special assessment rolls for the construction of combined sewers on four streets in Kennett Gardens Subdivision.

She also is affiliated with the Tribute Fund of United Community Services and the Village Women's Club of Birmingham.

Thoburn H. Wiant, board president of the Community House, said, "Mrs. Van Dusen's acceptance typifies a ready willingness on the part of community leaders to actively support continuance of the broad aims of the Community House."

Edward H. Lerchen, a vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., is general chairman of the fund campaign to raise $50,500.

The two-week campaign begins March 1.

A Bloomfield Hills youth is among 100 Navy enlisted men participating in an extended test of fallout shelter living conditions.

The sailor is Jeffrey F. Hanway, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hanway Jr. of 1830 Kensington Road. Another county serviceman, Charles W. Evans of 2129 Romeo St., Ferndale, also is taking part in the test which began Saturday.

The shelter is at the Navy Medical Center at Bethesda, Md.

The volunteers, who have just completed boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Illinois, have not been told how long they will be confined to the underground shelter.

Three other Michigan men are taking part in the test.

Birmingham Temple 94, Pythian Sisters, will host Erma Moore of Niles, grand chief of Michigan, when she makes her official visit Wednesday.

The 8 p.m. meeting will be held at the Birmingham Community House.

At that time, past chiefs Mable Smith and Rose Colwell will receive their 25 and 40-year pins, respectively.

The meeting will be preceded by a 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Traffic accidents in Birmingham during January showed a reduction over the preceding month but there was a substantial increase over the similar period last year.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported that there were 80 collisions last month compared to 105 in December, but there were 18 more accidents in January 1962 as compared to the same month in 1961.

Reporter Survives 2-Week Fallout Diet

hausted after only five hours of sleep, an amount I usually find quite sufficient.

The protein, vitamin and mineral content of MPF I can't deny. My first week I came down with a head cold. With me, head colds always seem to become chest infections and I'm laid up forever.

I stuck to the diet, though, and the cold was gone in four days.

Variety is the answer to hunger. Until you eat pretty much the same thing every day for two weeks, you can't imagine how good food looks.

★ ★ ★

Whether I was hungry for ice cream, pizza, or a juicy steak, it all added up to one thing — my hunger was for something different.

I've noticed in the past that most of the antifallout shelter supporters are female. I now wonder if it's just that they can't stand the thought of dieting for 14 days.

'NO BIG PROBLEM'

From a survival standpoint, the test proved to me that stocking a fallout shelter is no large problem.

The bulky item is water. Aside from that, my other needs are few in number and compact in size. Without limiting my intake of liquids, I found my normal water consumption is more than the 2 quarts daily recommended in civil defense folders.

Over the 14-day test period, I consumed a total of 9½ gallons of water. Of this, one gallon was used in food preparation and one in combination with powdered milk.

Most of the water was used in the 6 gallons of coffee I drank, while 1½ gallons were taken straight. I also used 3¼ quarts of evaporated milk in food preparation.

★ ★ ★

I consumed 3 pounds, 14 ounces of MPF and about 12 ounces of the QER, one cup of peanut butter, two cups of sugar, three 5½-ounce cans of soup, 60 crackers, eight ounces of applesauce, and about 1½ quarts of juice.

SMOKING UP SLIGHTLY

Extracts, cinammon and other seasoning items were used in trace quantities. I smoked an average of 40 cigarettes per day, a little above normal for me.

The hardest thing to get used to is room-temperature liquids. Unless you can figure out some ingenius refrigeration unit for your shelter, you'll have to do without anything cold.

A small gas or canned heat-type stove is necessary. Although the manufacturer suggests that MPF used in combination with other semi-liquid foods, I "lived" a few days on it with water and powdered milk alone and have no doubt that I could do the same for two weeks.

I'm wiser, thinner and healthier. Now all I need is a shelter.

Editor's Widow Expires

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Sam J. Perkins, 71, widow of a former editor and part owner of the Sioux City (Iowa) Journal, died Saturday after an extended illness. Mrs. Perkins, one of the founders of the San Antonio chapter of the National Society of Arts and Letters, had written a novel and numerous articles for newspapers.

'Cease Fire to Bring De Gaulle Moves'

More Paris Safeguards?

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Notes from the foreign news cables:

INSURANCE FOR De GAULLE: In the last three weeks, President Charles de Gaulle has laid on an extra 10,000 riot police and gendarmes around Paris to curb violence touched off by both left and right as a prelude to the expected cease fire in Algeria. But these precautions probably will seem like small stuff compared to the security line-up when the cease fire announcement actually is made.

Two expected actions are a full dictatorial powers and a heavy build-up of government underground forces battling the secret OAS army led by rebellious French army officers in Algeria.

Meanwhile, fears that the outlawed OAS will attempt a putsch after the Algerian cease fire are diminishing. It is thought the OAS will step up its small-scale terrorist operations so as to create a general feeling of insecurity in France and Algeria making it impossible to carry out the cease fire agreement.

POLITICAL GAME: French politicians have a new off-duty pastime. It is speculation over a successor for Premier Michel Debre who is expected to lose his job after general elections some time this spring.

* * *

Names most mentioned include National Assembly President Pierre Chaban-Delmas, George Pompidou, one of De Gaulle's closest advisers and friends, and Algerian Affairs Minister Louis Joxe.

FIRST AID: Look for Hungry's Communist leader Janos Kadar to intensify further his recently noted "softer course" toward the free West, particularly in the foreign trade field. The country's economy badly needs a shot in the arm.

DUBIOUS BEGINNING: Even before it begins, doubts already are being expressed about the 18-nation disarmament conference scheduled to start in Geneva on March 14. The Soviet Union still stands by its rejection of any effective system of inspections and controls which the West had made a No. 1 "must" for any disarmament agreement.

PRESIDENTIAL VISIT? The success of U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's visit to Japan is believed to have increased the chances of a visit by the President.

Well-placed U.S. sources in Tokyo said the State Department definitely is thinking about a visit, "probably in early 1963" if the conditions are favorable. Japan is known to be extremely anxious for such a visit.

Fertilizer Increases Food in Fish Ponds

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. — Applying fertilizer to a farm fish pond not only increases the amount of food in the water, it also controls submerged mosses, according to Ed Cooper, wildlife specialist for Texas A&M College.

* * *

Cooper suggested using the same commercial mixture of fertilizer that is used for farm crops because pond water is usually deficient in the same nutrients as soil. An initial application of 100 pounds per surface acre of water was recommended.

As Presidential Adviser

Should Bobby K Move Into White House?

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's world tour has revived speculation that sometime later the President's brother may move to the White House to expand his operations as presidential adviser.

Although those accompanying the attorney general have tried to make it clear he isn't armed with specific diplomatic powers, Kennedy has not hesitated to wade directly into ticklish international waters.

HAS CONFIDENCE

Kennedy's blunt weekend declaration to Indonesians that they would be crazy to think the United States will drop its neutral attitude and oppose the Dutch in Indonesia's claim to West New Guinea apparently illustrated the confidence he has that he reflects accurately the President's views.

Republicans already have begun to depict Kennedy's trip as a kind of training mission for him to become what a few of them call a super secretary of state. Others have hinted that the younger Kennedy already is beginning to prepare himself to bid for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1968.

While they can only guess about any such developments, the Republicans have shown that they are assaying line-by-line everything the attorney general says.

A BOO-BOO

They obviously are searching for some major boo-boo that goes beyond the attorney general's statement in Jakarta that the 1846-48 war with Mexico was unjustified and not a very bright page in American history.

The Republican National Committee interpreted this as "another startling example of the Kennedy administration's obsession with catering to 'neutralist' opinion."

Texans of both parties howled protests. Some amused Democrats in Congress said that for Kennedy to take on Texas was like taking on the U.S. Marines—you couldn't win. But they didn't regard the matter as more than an incident.

MOVE TO WHITE HOUSE?

Democratic opinion apparently is divided on whether Kennedy ought to move his advisory shop to the White House. He is in and out of his brother's office almost daily but still has to spend time in the Justice Department.

There was evidence at the time he was named to the post that Kennedy was reluctant to become attorney general, that he was more interested in foreign than legal affairs. There has been subsequent evidence that President Kennedy has had some second thoughts and has wished he had brother at his elbow all the time.

But some Democrats privately contend this would create a "clear it with Bobby" situation in the White House.

Thailand and United States in Accord—Brother Bob

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand and the United States are "in accord" on efforts to settle the Laos crisis peacefully, U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today.

* * *

* * *

In brief comments to newsmen after the meeting in Sarit's office, Kennedy said, "We are hoping—Thailand and the United States—that the matter can be resolved in Laos in a satisfactory manner. We are both in accord on efforts being made" (to reach a settlement).

* * *

He declined, however, to be pinned down on whether his reference to efforts meant a U.S.-supported move to form a coalition government for Laos under neutralist Prince Souvana Phouma.

THAILAND OPPOSED

Thailand is opposed to such a government, fearful that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao led by Souvanna's half brother, Price Souphanouvong, would eventually gain control of the neighboring Southeast Asia kingdom bringing a threat to Thai security.

* * *

U.S. aid to Thailand—which has totaled $220 million plus $300 million more in military assistance over the past 10 years—was reviewed by Kennedy in his talks with government officials.

Kennedy went from Sarit's office to the residential palace of King Bhumibol Adulyadej and Queen Sirikit, where he was joined by his wife Ethel for a royal audience.

Nebraska Sen. Curtis Backs Romney Bid

DETROIT (AP)—A second United States Republican senator has thrown his support behind George Romney in his bid for governor of Michigan.

Sen. Carl T. Curtis of Nebraska said Saturday night in a Lincoln Day address to a 16th Congressional District party rally that Romney "will make a vital and compelling candidate for the Republican party here in Michigan."

* * *

Thursday, Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., predicted Romney would be elected Michigan governor if he follows the fundamental policies of the Republican party.

Boston Official Fights Dismissal by the Governor

BOSTON (AP) — The police commissioner of Boston charged through counsel today that Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe's proceedings to fire him are based on malice.

★ ★ ★

A lawyer representing 56-year-old Commissioner Leo J. Sullivan further charged, as a removal hearing opened, that a national television program which triggered the proceedings was "a deliberately rigged falsehood."

★ ★ ★

Counsel John V. Bonner, for Sullivan, moved for immediate dismissal of the entire proceedings on the ground that Republican Gov. Volpe did not solicit the advice of his executive council and ask the eight Democratic members to participate.

Fairgrounds Board Urges New Program

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit State Fairgrounds Development Commission today submitted to Gov. Swainson a proposal to use all 164 acres of the Detroit Fairgrounds for permanent, year-around cultural, recreational and educational activities.

The commission said legislation would be introduced to create a State Fair Authority empowered to lease buildings and grounds to private enterprises for terms up to 30 years.

The multimillion-dollar construction program financed by revenue bonds at no cost to the taxpayers would be the basis of the program, the commission said.

An estimated 50 miles of permanent piping for water lines and steam services are installed for tenants of the Empire State Building.

Area Electricians to Seek 30 Hours, Full Week's Pay

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit area construction electricians, following the lead of their New York counterparts who recently won a 25-hour work week, will seek a 30-hour work week with 40-hour pay.

★ ★ ★

Daniel J. Diamond, business manager of Local 58 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) said 622 of the local's 2,700 members are unemployed.

"Something's got to be done—either we share the work there is, or there will be more people on relief," he said.

Diamond said the union currently is negotiating with the Detroit Electrical Contractors Assn. for a contract to replace one expiring April 30. The union local covers Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Louisiana Hit Again by Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court tagged unconstitutional today another of the numerous acts of the Louisiana legislature designed to aid in the state's fight against racial integration of its schools.

★ ★ ★

In a brief and unanimous order, the high court affirmed a lower court decision that the state act conflicted with the Constitution.

The action was the seventh since Dec. 12, 1960 in which the Supreme Court ruled against Louisiana moves to block integration.

4 Dance Off With Loot

LONDON (AP) — Four raiders masked with stockings blew the safe of London's Lyceum Ballroom today and stole between 3,000 and 4,000 pounds ($8,400 and $11,200), police reported.

Set Up New Unit of Mormons at Lansing Rites

LANSING (AP) — A new stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) was organized here Sunday.

Sylvan H. Wittwer, a professor of horticulture at Michigan State University, was named president.

The new stake, comparable to a diocese in the Catholic Church, will embrace a membership of about 2,400 at churches in Battle Creek, Flint, Grand Rapids, Lansing, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Muskegon, Traverse City, Oscoda and St. Joseph.

The area was formerly a part of the Detroit stake and the Great Lakes Mission, with headquarters in Fort Wayne, Ind.

George Romney, potential Republican candidate for governor and president of the Detroit stake since 1952, presided at ceremonies, which drew 1,000 church members.

Sends Congress Public Work Bill

Legislation Would Give President Power to Spend $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

★

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

★ ★ ★

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

The standby plan, part of the three-point program urged by Kennedy in his economic message Jan. 22, has been hailed by most Democrats but attacked by Republicans as a potential invasion of congressional authority.

OTHER REQUESTS

The other requested measures were standby powers to reduce income taxes subject to veto by Congress and permanently enlarged unemployment benefits.

The three, Kennedy said, would permit the government to act "more promptly, more flexibly and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

The administration bill set out a formula which would permit the President to start the works programs. He could move when unemployment had risen in three out of four, or four out of six consecutive months by not less than one percentage point, and after the President determined that the action was needed to attain the goals of the employment act of 1946 — maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

Canada granted citizenship to 62,378 immigrants in 1960, compared with 71,280 in previous year.

Thailand Fights Pirates

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP) — The government has launched a drive to wipe out piracy on big Songkhla Lake in southern Thailand. Officials said pirates have carried out numerous attacks in recent months on motor launches plying the lake near the Malayan border.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Firm's Move to South Proves Unsuccessful

Another indication which proves that industry moving from our area does not necessarily always flourish in Southern locations comes to light from neighboring Holly.

★ ★ ★

A deal has just been completed which means reopening of the former American Spring of Holly, Inc. under the new name of Holly Spring Co.

When the original firm was sold and moved south it cost Holly 175 to 200 jobs. According to Albert H. Bitzer Jr., president of the new company, many of these jobs will be reclaimed.

★ ★ ★

Since the shift of the former company to North Carolina it has been learned that customer service did not work out as planned. The products from the Holly plant are mechanical and precision springs for the auto industry.

Mr. Bitzer has indicated that Detroit automotive customers are assisting in transferring orders back to the new Holly Spring Company.

★ ★ ★

The return of these lost jobs is heartening news to the area, and especially to Holly.

Highway Crew Makes Traffic Flow as Usual

This has been a bad winter for highway travel—in most areas.

The roads have often been ice-coated and dangerous—in most areas.

A majority of the schools have frequently been closed — in most areas.

The regular course of business has been seriously hampered—in most areas.

Many people were afraid to drive their cars—in most areas.

But Oakland County has been a happy exception.

On a schedule that knows no hours, our highway maintenance men are on the job. The salt trucks slipped in between the ravages of King Winter and YOU. While you slept our main highways were made safe for your travel. Hundreds of tons of salt were spread to melt the snow and ice. While you may cuss about a dimmer chrome, you were handed a life preserver.

★ ★ ★

No other Michigan county could have done a better job.

Truly, our neighboring counties have been a little dilatory.

It is easy to determine when you cross the county line.

Our Road Commission and its men have put Oakland County on the safety map.

Why Are GOP Hopefuls Afraid to Oppose JFK?

In a recent speech at one of the Republican Lincoln Day pow-wows Sen. Margaret Chase Smith pointed out that it looks like at least three of the GOP hopefuls act like they are running scared.

The three she singled out were Sen. Barry Goldwater, Richard Nixon, and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. She went on to point out that for one reason or another they are all indicating concern over opposing Kennedy in 1964 and even showing some reluctance.

★ ★ ★

Some old line Republicans are saying let's throw George Romney to the wolves in '64 since we can't win anyway. All this pessimistic talk seems ridiculous so early in the foray.

★ ★ ★

Why this defeatist attitude? Any one of the four men might make a formidable candidate when the time comes.

To date, the Kennedy administration has not displayed any superabundance of Government know-how. To be sure they have gone along without too many serious mistakes, yet they have done nothing sensational to make their position 100 per cent secure in '64.

★ ★ ★

Why three of the top Republican leaders are already throwing in the towel is hard to understand. They are harming their own cause and the entire party.

President Kennedy's victory in 1960 was far from earthshaking. Mr. Nixon went down to defeat in the closest election in the history of our country.

It should be remembered that Kennedy only won by a fraction of one per cent.

David Lawrence Applauds:

Ike a Good Sport in Appraisal of K

WASHINGTON — Nikita Khrushchev may not have had a chance as yet to read a verbatim account of what former President Eisenhower said about him on CBS television last Thursday night to a nationwide audience in America.

But when the Soviet premier does, he ought to take it to heart. For it was a fine example of what Christian philosophy means as manifested by the very man against whom Khrushchev intemperately flung insults in May 1960, calling him a "scoundrel" and a "thief."

The question asked by Walter Cronkite was what Eisenhower thought of Khrushchev.

Eisenhower's appraisal of the Soviet premier's personality was a sincere effort to give a fair analysis and to avoid any personal resentments. The transcript of the concluding portion of Eisenhower's remarks was as follows:

"Now, I don't think that Mr. Khrushchev is, himself, necessarily a cruel man but he is raised in the doctrine of force. They give it the euphemism of the 'dictatorship of the proletariat.' That is just another way of saying 'dictator.' But so he, I would think, by himself would be disposed, I think, to make as good an agreement as he could as long as he didn't have to open his country.

"But we can see no way of making such an agreement until he does open it, and I think we are right. I just do not believe we should make a single concession on that point—that if we are going to make these (disarmament) agreements, the country must be opened sufficiently, just as ours is, so we can see what the other fellow is doing.

"And that is, I think, just one of the basic tenets of his life and, therefore, you are never going to get an appraisal of his personal characteristics."

NO RESENTMENT

Eisenhower could have allowed his personal experience with Khrushchev in deliberately breaking up the "summit" conference at Paris to become the basis for deep resentment.

But instead the former president tried to see the other fellow's viewpoint and problems. Eisenhower in his TV talk began, for instance, his comment on Khrushchev with this observation:

"Well, of course, no dictator is ever as free to do exactly as he wants—as the world seems to think.

"A dictator has the problem of public opinion—how public opinion may be forced through the police state, or in any way, but he couldn't possibly just have 200 million Russians hating him and wanting to kill him, including the army and everything else. There would be no dictator—he wouldn't be there.

"So he has his problems, too, and, therefore—in trying to assess his personality—we must not make the mistake of saying that everything he does we think is evil or is entirely of his own volition.

"Now, I really think he very much wants peace in the world. He would like very much to have an assurance there was going to be no war, but this would be on his own terms so that he would not open his society because I am sure every piece of evidence we have shows that he has a tremendous faith in his ability to keep control of Russia as long as it is a closed society.

NO REPORTERS

"He does not want any free-wheeling reporters — television or press or otherwise — going all over that country and reporting about it, and particularly reporting of them (the Russians). He doesn't, I think, mind what you report about him here. It is that he is very careful about what you can report about him and his actions there. To that he is very sensitive."

Eisenhower's definition helps to understand even the problems of a present-day dictator. It emphasizes more than ever the need to penetrate the Iron Curtain through spiritual means and by the same kind of friendliness, yet firmness, that Dwight Eisenhower exhibited in his recent talk on television.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

There is not one life which the life-giver ever loses out of His sight; not one which sins so that He casts it away; not one which is not so near to Him that whatever touches it touches Him with sorrow or with joy.—Phillips Brooks.

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Hiding Your Emotions Harms You and Friends

Q—What do you do when you know you are sick and no one else knows it? I'm the mother of three children, only 22 years old and twice married. I'm miserable and unhappy and I don't know whether it's my fault or the fault of others.

★ ★ ★

I don't even know if my husband loves me. He keeps telling me I'm pretty but I know he's just mocking me because I'm really fat and not very pretty. Especially my teeth. I can't even smile with my mouth open because I know people will look at me and sneer.

WHAT CAN I DO

I don't want anyone to know how I feel. I can't go to my doctor, relatives, friends or pastor. If I do I'm afraid they'll make fun of me some way.

So there's nowhere to go. Every day it gets worse. I know I'm not crazy but what can I do to help myself? Please help me if you can before I'm all gone.

A—Although I am certain you are not "crazy," I am equally certain you are in need of psychiatric care. If you will consult your doctor or your pastor and tell either of them exactly what you have written in this letter, I can almost promise you that neither will make fun of you.

By bottling up your feelings, you are not only harming yourself. You are also harming your children and your husband. By seeking the professional care you so obviously require, you will help them as well as yourself.

CONSULT SOMEONE

On their behalf, therefore, I beg you to swallow your false pride and avail yourself of the kindly advice I know you will receive.

Q—Is it true that cataracts can form as the result of drug treatments? One of my neighbors warned me of this as my eyesight is failing and I have to take various medicines for control of an arthritic condition of my spine.

A—Since you did not state the names of the drugs you are taking or indicate the cause for your failing eyesight, I am unable to answer your question specifically.

However, if your failing eyesight is due to cataract formation, and if your arthritic condition is being treated with a corticosteroid (ACTH), there may indeed be a connection between drug and disability.

And, what is more, the process may be reversible if the drug is discontinued.

Union Member Apologizes for Mr. Scholle's Remarks

As a rank and file member of the AFL-CIO, I apologize for Mr. Gus Scholle for referring to George Romney as "a big clown." George Romney is one of the first political aspirants to appear on the Michigan scene who is not afraid to challenge big business politics and big union politics. And for all of his efforts he will be politically crucified. That will be the tragedy.

Your editorial Feb. 13, criticized Mr. Scholle for his remarks concerning Mr. Romney's religious approach to a purely secular problem. In this I defend Mr. Scholle. If Mr. Romney in the privacy of his own home and his own mind, saw fit to seek guidance from the spiritual source he alone must know, then he should have held that communion to be privileged and not given out to the press for publication.

Readers Concerned About School Aid

We who send our children to parochial schools do not ask why our taxes should support the public schools. Both do their best to educate tomorrow's citizens. If I choose to send mine to a private school and pay for the privilege to boot, why all the uproar?

I don't have statistics, but I'll bet our churches and schools receive more support by individuals than do the rest of the schools regardless of location, denomination or patronage.

In response to "Taxpayer," the public school originated the same place "public" fire departments, "public" police departments and "public" mail service originated.

I don't wish to deprive any citizen from acquiring either additional police or fire protection; nor do I object to anyone using telegrams or United Parcel Service, I do object to anyone insisting that I help finance his employing of these "private" agencies.

Logic leaves me no alternative but to object to subsidizing "private" education with "public" funds.

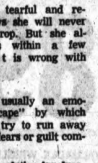
"Dr. Crane," her worried husband began, "Dora goes on a binge maybe twice per month.



"We have two children still in grammar school, but she just hires a neighbor woman to look after them when she heads for the tavern.

"Sometimes she doesn't come home till next day, and we don't even know where she is.

"Then she is tearful and repentant and vows she will never touch another drop. But she always backslides within a few weeks, so what is wrong with her?"

FIRE ESCAPE

Alcoholism is usually an emotional "fire escape" by which tormented folks try to run away from their inner fears or guilt complexes.

So the proper solution involves digging out the basic core of their secret conflict.

We need first to put out the hidden fire before we take away the fire escape.

★ ★ ★

Otherwise, the victim may soon seek another escape, such as dope, insanity or even suicide.

We medics can use certain drugs that will make the alcoholic sick every time he drinks liquor, but that treats the symptom instead of the cause.

So what do you readers think would drive a mother into periodic binges?

Among over 5,000,000 chronic alcoholics in America, some clinics estimate the ratio of drunkard males to females is 4 to 1.

Many leading physicians, such as Dr. M. A. Block, Chairman of the Committee on Alcoholism of our A. M. A., reports that the ratio is 50-50 in his extensive practice.

And he quotes most private physicians as agreeing that their alcoholic patients run 50-50 between men and women.

Imagine the tremendous amount of misery and family unhappiness in those 5,000,000 homes when a father or mother, son or daughter staggers home drunk.

Try to conjure up the terror of the youngsters in those homes when an alcoholic father beats up their mother or attacks the children themselves.

"Dr. Crane," a freshman high school girl recently explained why she had missed school two days last week, "it was due to my father.

"He came home drunk about midnight and got into a fight with my mother. He started to beat her up.

"When I heard her screaming, I rushed into their room, but my father broke a chair and beat me with one of the rungs.

"My face was black and blue. So I didn't dare come back to school. Oh, Dr. Crane, can't something be done to stop drunkenness?"

Claims That Roman Catholics Will Become Majority in U.S.

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—A Catholic educator predicted today that within half a century Roman Catholics will be in the majority in this country.

And then, said the Very Rev. John P. Leary, president of Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., the question of federal aid to private and parochial schools will be settled by "the strange accident of numbers and time."

★ ★ ★

In an interview at the annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators, Father Leary said, "I realize that my belief that there should be support for private schools is a minority viewpoint. But the views I hold are numerically on the rise."

He cited these figures:

"In the last five years, one-third of all the children born in this country were Catholic, although the Catholic population is only about one-sixth of the total.

"In 20 years, when this one-third have grown up, they probably will have half of all the children born.

ADVOCATES SUBSIDY

"Within half a century, the Catholics will be a majority in this country."

Father Leary said he believes the government should pay a subsidy to the family of any child in a qualified and recognized private school, "something akin to the GI bill of rights."

Father Leary said there was always a hazard that extremist organizations such as the John Birch Society might try to establish such a private school, but that "basically, this is strictly a Catholic problem, a problem that is going to disappear within 50 years, although there probably will be a strong minority opposed to federal aid for private and parochial schools."

Earlier, those seemingly endless tests which plague every college-bound high school student came under bitter attack by some of the nation's top public school officials.

Unless they can be proved to be worth the time, effort, money and emotional strain involved, said a report issued Sunday school systems should flatly refuse to use them. The report came after a 2-year study by The AASA, the National Association of Secondary School Principals and the Council of Chief State School Officers.

There are now more than 20 national testing programs to determine who shall get into college and to determine the winners of various college scholarships, the report said.

The report said some children — including some brilliant students—just don't do well on any kind of test, while some people always succeed better than any test could predict.

Canadian City Frowns on Gas Street Lamps

KINGSTON, Ont. (AP) — A recommendation that this historic Canadian city replace some of its electric street lamps with antique gas lights has been met with a frown by the Public Utilities Commission.

"Inadequate, uneconomical, and difficult to maintain," snapped a PUC engineer when asked his opinion of gas lighting.

In the face of an announced increase in rates for street lighting, the traffic and street committee of the City Council this week recommended the PUC look into the possibility of using outdoor gas lamps.

★ ★ ★

The engineer pointed out that gas lights while being nostalgic and a possible tourist attraction, would not provide sufficient light for a modern city street.

Actor James Barton Suffers Heart Attack

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP) — Actor James Barton, 71, was in critical condition at Nassau Hospital today following a heart attack.

Barton, best known for his long run as Jeeter Lester in Tobacco Road," played the leading role on Broadway from 1934 through 1939. A native of Gloucester, N.J., Barton began his stage career at the age of 2, when he was carried on by his parents. His varied career has included appearances as a soft-shoe dancer, stage actor and film actor. In recent years he appeared in several television dramas.

Barton was stricken Sunday at his New Hyde Park, N.Y., home. His wife, Kathryn, was at his bedside.

Congressmen Mill Around Like Orphans

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON — This is a period in American politics of the presidential velvet touch in handling Congress where members of both parties often mill around like orphans.

President Eisenhower started the smooth and rather soft approach. President Kennedy followed it. This avoidance of head-on clashes and nagging brawls may explain their high standing in public opinion polls.

★ ★ ★

They might have gotten more from Congress by being tougher. That's a guess. President Truman was tougher but he had troubles. Where he used a constant harpoon, Kennedy employs only a needle, and then infrequently.

★ ★ ★

The Truman - Eisenhower - Kennedy troubles with Congress have had a single origin and no change is in sight.

★ ★ ★

All that those who call themselves Democrats have in common, and the same goes for Republicans, is a rubbery party label. Both are split into liberals, middle-roaders and the very conservative.

The result is a political mishmash and a kind of general befuddlement for voters who don't keep records.

If they did, the record would show: The liberals of both parties have more in common than they have with their own conservatives while the latter enjoy a far more instant affinity than they do for the liberals or middle-roaders in either party.

In the House, the Democrats, overwhelmingly outnumbering the Republicans, could put through any Kennedy program if they voted as a party.

But only Sunday, House Speaker John W. McCormack acknowledged that right now Kennedy doesn't have enough votes in the House to avoid rejection of his plan for creating a new department of urban affairs and housing.

SOME WILL PASS

He predicted approval for the President's free trade program, federal aid for universities and colleges, and not much chance for Kennedy's program of aid to public schools.

The Republicans, in this congressional election year when their best hope for picking up a few seats is some indication that they know what they stand for, are split among themselves six ways from Sunday.

The difference in their views is just the current example of the American political hash in which party labels mean something only sometimes.

For instance, Arizona's Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, who is making a career of being a conservative, has more in common with some conservative Southern Democrats than with another leader of his party who has shown more liberal views, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

★ ★ ★

It was on Rockefeller that Kennedy recently used one of his infrequent needles when he jibed that he wasn't sure any more that the governor wasn't moving to the right of Goldwater.

British Laborite Meeting JFK

Gaitskill Here to Urge Kennedy Against Plan for Air N-Tests

MIDDLEBURG, Va. (UPI) — President Kennedy today faced new arguments against U. S. resumption of nuclear atmospheric testing, this time from a powerful British voice.

The President, after a quiet weekend with his family at their estate in the Virginia hunt country, planned to return to the White House this morning. He had a luncheon date with Hugh Gaitskill, leader of the British Labor party.

Gaitskill arrived in Washington Sunday with the announced intention of urging Kennedy not to resume atmospheric nuclear tests, although the British government has made Christmas Island in the Pacific available for such tests should the President order them.

The British political leader was expected to outline his opposition to new nuclear tests to Secretary of State Dean Rusk before going to the White House to see Kennedy.

Gaitskill, the vocal opposition leader against Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, represented another pressure element as Kennedy neared a decision on nuclear testing.

For two days last week, more than 3,000 college students paraded in front of the White House in a "turn to peace" campaign that complimented the "ban the bomb" movement in Britain.

Hoping for U. S. Weapons

Cuban Exiles Busy in Guatemala

GUATEMALA AP) — A group of Cuban exiles here are organizing an army to seek the overthrow of Prime Minister Fidel Castro in Cuba. The organization, however, is still on paper and says it cannot mobilize unless it gets U.S. weapons.

The best available information is that no Cuban exiles are being trained here under arms at this time. Both Guatemalans and U.S. officials deny there is such activity. Guatemala was one of the training areas for the abortive invasion of Cuba last April.

The new organization is called the Army of Liberation of Cuba. Its chief is a former commander of the Cuban army, Gen. Jose E. Pedrazay Cabrera, 56.

★ ★ ★

In an interview, General Pedraza would say only that "we are not now training any soldiers."

A civilian spokesman for the group, asking that he not be identified, said the organization has "all the men we need" for an attack on Cuba.

THEY'RE ALL CUBANS

These men—all Cubans—are now scattered throughout the continent waiting for the signal to unite and train as an invasion army, he said.

The army cannot be mobilized, however, without weapons from the United States, the spokesman said.

As far as can be learned, the organizations efforts to approach the United States government for backing with arms have not yet met with any success.

The spokesman said that although Gen. Pedraza is commander in all military aspects, the organization is controlled by a directorate of about 30 men. He described them as businessmen, industrialists and bankers.

Spokesmen for some other Cuban exile groups believe, however, that only followers of ex-President Fulgencio Batista would join Pedraza. They claim Pedraza is known as a Batista supporter and for his rough-handed methods when he headed the national police before becoming commander of the army under Batista.

★ ★ ★

The spokesman for Pedraza denied reports the general had been a Batista supporter. He said that after Pedraza became chief of staff of the Cuban army in 1939, he was forced to resign and go into exile because of disputes with Batista over what the spokesman described as the ex-dictator's links with Communists in the labor unions.

Pedraza returned from his Miami exile after a year and engaged in farming and cattle-raising in Cuba until called back into service in December 1958 six days before Batista was overthrown.

Stevenson's Son on Honeymoon With Bride, 22

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — John Fell Stevenson, 25, youngest son of Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, is on his honeymoon today with his bride of two days, the former Natalie Raymond Owings, 22.

The couple was married Saturday in a 15-minute private ceremony at the Big Sur, Calif., home of the bride's father, architect Nathaniel A. Owings.

The ambassador to the United Nations was best man. John's brothers, Adlai III and Borden, were ushers.

The couple's honeymoon destination was given only as South America.

The couple will settle in San Francisco on their return. He is in real estate development. His tall, slender, brunette bride is an artist.

Jackie Kennedy Is, in Fact, Many People

(Editor's Note — What's Jackie Kennedy really like? A woman of many moods, according to famed Washington correspondent Ruth Montgomery. And in the series of closeup articles that starts today Miss Montgomery spotlights the First Lady from a wide variety of angles — presenting her as a wife, mother, White House hostess and as an informal ambassador who next month will visit India and Pakistan.)

By RUTH MONTGOMERY

WASHINGTON — Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy is an extremely complicated young woman. Her moods are variegated and her interests kaleidoscopic.

She has on occasion been an enigma to her husband, and a puzzlement to her friends. She is an example to teen-agers to spruce up, and to matrons to slim down. She is a stunning showpiece of American culture.

The First Lady's photogenic face and exquisitely clad figure are familiar to newspaper readers of five continents; yet her character is so many-faceted that it is difficult to analyze the real Jackie.

Only a short time ago, few would have bothered to try. If the public thought about her at all, it was as a pretty young socialite whose wedding to a wealthy young bachelor senator once created a stir in plush Newport.

KENNEDYS IN BACKGROUND

Some vaguely recalled that she had miscarried a baby after the excitement of the 1956 Democratic convention, when Sen. John F. Kennedy narrowly lost a spirited race for the vice presidential nomination.

The spotlight was on Ike Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson in those days, however, and any items about the Kennedy family were played well back in the news.

* * *

Little public excitement was generated by Jackie even during the 1960 campaign, although by that time her husband was a full-fledged presidential candidate, conducting a political blitzkrieg, and walloping presidential rival Richard M. Nixon in a series of widely publicized television debates.

IN HYANNISPORT

Candidate Kennedy's wife was expecting again, and because of her previous history of miscarriages, she sat out most of the campaign with their 3-year-old daughter Caroline, in Hyannisport.

During this tense period of emotional and physical strain, Jackie was naturally not at her best. When fashion writers criticized her bouffant hair-do, which in photographs had a somewhat unkempt look, the future First Lady waspishly retorted that the way she wore her hair was "my own business."

Speculation about the cost of her wardrobe, which included a number of French gowns, provoked her to snap that she would "have to wear sable underwear" to spend as much as the estimates.

* * *

In the only feminine tussle of the campaign, she added irately that her rival, Pat Nixon, probably spent more than she did on clothes.

In view of the tremendous impact which Mrs. Kennedy was shortly to exert on fashion and the arts, it is almost incredible to recall that in her first months as First Lady, Jackie made little news of solid general interest.

Still ailing from the Caesarean birth of her son, John Junior, who arrived prematurely during the interregnum between election and inauguration, she spent as much time as possible away from the White House, at their newly leased country estate in Virginia, and at friend's villa in Palm Beach.

* * *

Press conferences, of which she had held a few while her husband was a candidate, were promptly abandoned as soon as he was elected.

Perhaps because of her temporary frailty and her frequently voiced concern for family privacy, Jackie at first impressed many Americans as the retiring type — a sort of younger and prettier Bess Truman — whose chief interest seemed to center in homemaking and the nursery.

Gradually little hints of the real Jackie began to emerge. Enraptured by all things French from cuisine to decor, she tried to lure a celebrated chef from the French embassy in London.

When caught in the act, instead of acting embarrassed, she coolly hired the French chef away from the fashionable Carlyle Hotel in New York City.

IN PARIS

On a brief goodwill trip with her husband to neighboring Canada, she acquitted herself nicely, and charmed the Gallic-descended Canadians with a ladylike little speech delivered in French, but, this seems in retrospect to have been mere rehearsal for the main event.

Nothing that had gone before adequately prepared Americans for the glorious creature who suddenly burst full-blown from her American cocoon, in Paris.

* * *

"I am the man who escorted Jacqueline Kennedy to Paris," the U. S. President grimingly told a news conference in the city of light, and no one had to ask what he meant.

French-descended Jackie had taken Paris by storm. Admiring multitudes lined her path wherever she went, shouting "Vive Jacquee," and ogling her American fashions. Everyone seemed more surprised by her captivation of the French capital than President Charles de Gaulle himself.

That icy gentleman, on first meeting Jackie in Washington, paid her the supreme compliment of donning his glasses to take a better look at her.

* * *

When he was subsequently asked what he would most like to take home from America, he reportedly replied: "Jackie Kennedy."

That same "Jackie Kennedy" is now a household word on five continents. She has dazzled Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and Prince Philip, a dozen heads of states, and other tens of thousands of cheering Austrians, English, Greeks, Puerto Ricans, Colombians and Venezuelans.

* * *

The First Lady, with her regal bearing, poise and radiant smile is unquestionably a knockout. She is also a thoughtful wife, an artistic homemaker and devoted mother.

* * *

She writes, she paints, she composes poetry and arranges flowers. She also rides, jumps, hunts, skis and swims. She even played touch football until she broke her leg in a rough-and-tumble game with the irrepressible Kennedy clan; yet she is also an avid reader, a philosophizer, and a singularly introspective young woman. Above all, she has a firm chin and a definite mind of her own.

* * *

Jacqueline Kennedy is, in fact, many people.

Miami Bombing Not Amateur

Police Claim Job at Herald Editor's Home Is Professional

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Authorities say an absence of clues indicates professionals were responsible for the bombing of the home of Don Shoemaker, editor of the Miami Herald.

* * *

Although the bomb shattered windows in three houses and shook homes for blocks, there were no injuries.

The bomb was set off about 2 a.m. Sunday and no trace of the explosives remained. Sheriff Thomas J. Kelly said this indicated it was the work of professionals.

Lt. Tom Brodie, head of the metropolitan Public Safety Department, said the equivalent of two pounds of 40 per cent dynamite, equal to about four sticks, had been used and he said it was possible the bombers landed by boat from nearby Biscayne Bay.

* * *

The bomb exploded outside the bedroom of Shoemaker's 10-year-old daughter Elizabeth, showering glass near her bed, but the main force was deflected toward a neighbor's home.

John S. Knight, publisher of the Herald, called it a cowardly act and offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the dynamiters.

Authorities sought to determine if the blast had any connection with a 3-week-old bus strike but union leaders denied it.

The Herald has editorially criticized the strike of bus drivers and mechanics which arose when the city took over the Miami and Miami Beach bus lines from private ownership.

Anxious Hunter Misses One Shot, Hits on Six

WHEATLAND, Wyo. (AP) — An over-anxious big game hunter from Pennsylvania fired seven shots in quest of antelope and deer near a Wheatland ranch this fall.

Reaching his targets, the hunter found four dead and two wounded horses. The seventh shot had missed.

The hunter paid the farmer for the six horses.

This is a Ford Fairlane interior. There's no other interior like it. It's as roomy as the interiors in most of the cars on the road today—yet it comes in a car that's an easy-to-handle foot shorter than big cars. Even more surprising: although a Fairlane is bigger than the compacts, it is priced under many of them. The fact is, you won't find any new car that gives you Fairlane's big-car room, V-8 zip, and fine-car quality anywhere near Fairlane's low price. There's never been a buy like Fairlane because there's never been a car like Fairlane; that's why this all-new car from Ford is outselling every other "new-size" car. Which is as it should be. After all, how can you beat an unbeatable combination!

House Named for Poem

GUILD, N. H. (UPI) — A brown cottage here with two dormer windows and a rosette in the gable is known as the "Mary Had a Little Lamb" house. According to town tradition, it was here that Mrs. Sarah Josepha Buell Hale taught school and wrote the poem of that title.

America's best customer for exports are Canada and Japan, in that order.

SCENE OF FLOODS — The shaded area on the map shows where storm-whipped floods brought death and destruction along Germany's North Sea coast and surrounding inland territory over the weekend. The area extends from West Frisian Islands on the west to Hamburg — hardest hit — on the east, and from the North Frisian Islands on the north to below Oldenburg and Lueneburg on the south.

Mrs. K Urges U.S. Support for Summit

MOSCOW (UPI) — Mrs. Nikita S. Khrushchev appealed to the women of the United States Sunday night for "friendly understanding" and support for her husband's proposal for a summit conference on disarmament.

* * *

In a nine-minute short-wave broadcast beamed to North America, the wife of the Soviet premier said the Soviet Union "will never be the first to start a war." The appeal was broadcast four times over Moscow radio.

"Let us sink atom bombs along with the other weapons in the deepest part of the ocean and live without weapons, as good neighbors, going about our peaceful affairs," she said in accented but fluent English.

Mrs. Khrushchev, whose first name is Nina, said she was responding to letters and cables from American women who are greatly concerned about "the main problem of the day," which is how to prevent war and build up world peace, how to prevent a nuclear-age slaughter."

'DESIRE PEACE'

She said peace is the most ardent desire of every Soviet man, woman and child. She said the Soviet Union would like to return to the "friendly understanding" it had with the United States when Franklin D. Roosevelt was President.

"Unfortunately, the danger of war has today again become a reality," she said.

"We may have different views on the source of the danger, but it is clear that more and more people, and among them thousands of American women, are coming to realize that the danger does exist."

* * *

She said a new war could bring death and destruction into every home and every family in the United States as well as in other countries.

"During the two weeks that I kept a record of the telephone calls our family made, I counted the number of trips in the car that we saved by using our telephone. (With three active children, I was surprised how much our telephone is really used.) At the end of this two-week period, I estimated the savings in dollars and cents and subtracted the amount of our telephone bill. Our savings? About ten dollars . . . or enough to pay for a steak dinner with all the trimmings."

Alleged Check Ring Broken With Arrest

An alleged bad check ring which police say netted $4,000 in three days in Oakland and Macomb counties has been smashed with the arrest of a Warren woman in Pontiac, it was revealed today.

Detective Robert Emery of the Pontiac Police Department said the group incorporated a fictitious company with a Ferndale address and cashed worthless checks under the company's name.

Scheduled to appear for examination March 7 in Pontiac Municipal Court on conspiracy in the bad check case are Mrs. Kathleen J. Mitchell, 30, Warren, and William C. Porter, 25, 38 E. Mahan St., Hazel Park.

Mrs. Mitchell was apprehended in Pontiac when she attempted to cash a check for $93.63 at Conn's Clothing Store, 72 N. Saginaw St., Emery said.

On information obtained by Pontiac police, Emery said, officers from the Center Line State Police Post and Madison Heights raided a room at the John R Motel, 27746 John R Road, Madison Heights.

Officers confiscated a check machine, a book of checks and a typewriter in the motel room, the headquarters of the ring, Emery said. Porter surrendered to Hazel Park police the day after the raid.

Emery said all the bad checks were issued by the Frank Morris Plastering Co., 1505 Nine Mile Road, Ferndale. The address is the location of a rooming house, the detective said.

Details of the investigation were withheld while police searched for other members of the ring. Five persons still are being sought on warrants issued by the Oakland County Prosecutor's office.

Porter and Mrs. Mitchell were being held today at the Macomb County Jail. A few of the checks were cashed in Macomb but most turned up in South Oakland County, Emery said.

Stanton Conn, owner of Conn's Clothing Store, became suspicious when Mrs. Mitchell attempted to cash a check in his store Feb. 6, Emery said. Conn notified a passing Oakland County Sheriff's deputy who took Mrs. Mitchell to jail.

Interrogation of Mrs. Mitchell by Pontiac patrolmen Dallas Flesher and Harry Kunkle resulted in the raid the following day in Madison Heights, Emery said.

Mrs. Mitchell and Porter were released on personal bonds of $100 apiece in Oakland County. Both demanded examinaitons in their appearances before Municipal Judge Maurice E. Finnegan last week.

Torch Starts Blaze in Department Store

Sparks from a workman's acetylene torch touched off a fire which damaged the interior of a 20- by 15-foot storage room yesterday at George's Department Store, according to the owner.

George Surowitz, owner of the store at 74 N. Saginaw St., said two workmen with fire extinguishers put out the blaze about 2:30 p. m. Surowitz said smoke damaged clothing in the store. Total damages were undetermined.

Event Set Wednesday

To Hold Luncheon

The Oakland County alumnae of Delta Zeta Sorority, under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, will sponsor a gourmet luncheon Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the club rooms of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

* * *

Proceeds will benefit a local hearing project, Gallaudet College and the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, Carville, La.

The sorority's national philanthropic program covers several phases of work which, up until 1958 when Carville was added, dealt mainly with impaired hearing of children.

FURNISH MATERIAL

Educational material for local classrooms for the hard-of-hearing has been furnished. Recently, Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk, teacher counselor for the physically handicapped in the Pontiac Public Schools, has worked with the sorority in placing funds where most needed to help children obtain or maintain hearing equipment.

* * *

The children in the three Pontiac classrooms for the deaf are from the Pontiac school area and Oakland County.

Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C. is the only college in the world to grant full academic degrees to the deaf. Delta Zeta has contributed over $10,000 nationally to furnish the reading room of the library.

ADOPTED PATIENT

Carville, also one of the sorority's philanthropic projects, is the only United States hospital for the treatment of Hansen's disease, formerly called leprosy. The Oakland County Delta Zetas have "adopted" Andrew Ory, a patient to whom they write letters, and send cards and gifts. This year he was sent a portable transistor radio for Christmas.

* * *

Mrs. Donald C. Burch, Birmingham, is general chairman for the luncheon, the one fund-raising project for this year. Her committee consists of Mrs. Hascall and Mrs. Earl Long, decorations; Mrs. Herbert Schneizky and Mrs. George N. Skrubb, cookbook publication; Mrs. George Betker and Mrs. Winfield Hinman, tickets; Mrs. Robert Kerley, beverages; Mrs. Skrubb, food arrangements; Betty Hayes, monetary contributions; Mrs. Burch and Mrs. Laurence E. Trevarrow Jr., gourmet food contributions.

* * *

Door prizes will be given. Mrs. Betker and Mrs. Burch are accepting reservations for luncheon and free babysitting service.

Pontiac Press Photo

Proceeds from Delta Zeta Sorority's Wednesday gourmet luncheon in First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland building will go for several philanthropic programs, including a local project for hard-of-hearing youngsters. Here, (from left) Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk, teacher counsellor for the physically handicapped; Mrs. Donald C. Burch and sorority president Mrs. Forbes Hascall, both of Birmingham, assist student Raymond Alvarado with some new lesson material at Longfellow School.

Pair Plans Open House

Observing their golden wedding anniversary Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Watson will hold open house from 7 to 10 p.m. in their home on Oneida Road. Hosts for the evening will be their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max G. Coleman.

Also receiving guests will be Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simmons and the Watsons' granddaughter Karen.

Secretaries Participate at Unit Meeting

An educational program "Secretaries on the Spot," highlighted the February dinner meeting of the Pontiac Chapter, National Secretaries Association International, at the Hotel Waldron.

Heading the three discussion groups were Mrs. Roberta Trayer, Lavern Markiewitz and Mrs. Cleatus Garner.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Joseph Tessmer, Mrs. Trayer and Theresa McVeigh.

Invitation Problem at Tiny House

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My son is a senior at college. Last summer while working in a resort hotel he met a girl who lives in another city. They became good friends.

During Christmas vacation he went to visit her for several days. He would now like me to invite her here for a weekend. However, our house is small and we have no extra sleeping quarters.

I would like to know if it would be proper to make arrangements for her to stay at a friend's house, or would it be better for my son to move out and have her stay here. She would, of course, have her meals with us.

A: It would be more polite and much nicer for the girl if your son moves out, so that she can stay in your house.

* * *

Q: I am a widow soon to be married for the second time. I would like to know if it would be proper to send out engraved invitations to the marriage.

I have been told that engraved invitations are in bad taste for a second wedding, that the invitations should be handwritten. What is proper?

A: Usually a second wedding is small and the bride-to-be does invite her friends verbally or by personal note. But sometimes when the bride-to-be is still young and she is marrying a man who has never been married before, many invitations are sent out and in this case they are engraved.

* * *

Q: I have been married six months and during this time my husband's family has come to visit us just once. When asked why they didn't come more often, his mother said because they weren't invited.

I was quite taken back at this statement as I always thought members of the family did not wait to be invited. Have I been wrong about this?

A: While they should be invited occasionally to a specific party or dinner, it is not supposed to be necessary to be invited to go to see nearest members of one's family.

* * *

The clothes of the bride and groom as well as those of their attendants are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes of the Bridal Party." To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin, to cover cost of handling, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to the Emily Post Institute, care of The Pontiac Press.

* * *

The Emily Post Institute cannot answer personal mail, but all questions of general interest are answered in this column.

He Thinks Straight—Abby

Old Angle to New Twist

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband refuses to twist with me. He says if I want to make a fool of myself in public, he isn't going to help me. I have seen many women older and fatter than myself twisting in public and I admit it looks terrible, but I am only 42 and have a nice figure.

Please say something in your column to convince my husband that the twist is just another modern dance and he should learn it as he learned the rhumba and cha cha.

ABBY

LOVES TO TWIST

DEAR LOVES: If your husband is over 45 and overweight, maybe his insurance policy doesn't cover the twist. His thinking is straight. Don't try to twist it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I decided to quit smoking several weeks ago. I have always said that if you make up your mind, that's all there is to it.

Within a week we were both smoking again.

I had no idea of the mental and physical discomfort involved. I thought some of your readers who have licked the problem might have some helpful suggestions.

HEAVY SMOKER

DEAR SMOKING: If they have, you can be sure I'll print them.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: The lady next door is pulling some funny business on her husband and I am quite certain a man is involved. She gets all dolled up and pulls out of her driveway a little before noon. And she doesn't get home until 6 p.m.

She tells her husband she has been to a "PTA meeting." She does this three and four times a week, and he is so dumb he believes her. Don't you think somebody should tell her husband

WIDE AWAKE NEIGHBOR

DEAR WIDE AWAKE: Perhaps your neighbor's definition of PTA is "Pretty Terrific Afternoon." Don't tell anybody. You could be mistaken.

Miss Lockman Chairman

Secretaries Set 'Week'

Mary Eleanor Lockman has been named chairman of Local Secretaries Week, April 22-28, for the Pontiak chapter of the National Secretaries Association (International), as announced by Theresa McVeigh, chapter president.

* * *

Secretaries Week will be observed with Wednesday, April 25 set aside as Secretaries Day. Secretaries Workshop sponsored by Pontiak chapter, is slated for April 28 at MSUO.

Members of the Secretaries Week local committee are; Mrs. Russell Brackett, Mrs. Kay Rector and Mrs. William Robinson.

* * *

Secretaries Week is cosponsored by the National Secretaries Association which has 23,000 members and 520 chapters throughout the world, and by Business Equipment Manufacturers Association, with 50 member companies, the association for the office equipment industry. This marks the 11th observance of the week, which was instituted in 1952.

Journalists Set Meeting

Area members of Theta Sigma Phi, professional women's journalism fraternity, will hear Jean Pearson, aero-space writer for the Detroit Free Press, discuss her space age assignments at Tuesday's 6 p.m. meeting in Tepova's Rathskelar, Detroit.

Theta Sigs are planning a public book fair March 27 at 10 a.m. in the Detroit Press Club. Proceeds will be added to the group's scholarship fund.

Arrangements are also under way for the annual "Ladies of the Press" breakfast in the spring.

Waterford Chorus Planning Program

Waterford Civic Chorus will present a "musical History of America" in John D. Pierce Junior High School at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Accenting George Washington's birthday, the program will trace American music from the Pilgrims through Southern spirituals and the Western movement and touch on music of this country's great battles. Samples of barbershop quartet songs and blues selections also are planned for the event which will conclude with the number, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" based on the Statue of Liberty's famed inscription.

Arden Sears is directing the concert. Charles Juehle will narrate the script which has been written by Tony Charilli.

Mona Richie and June Luebben will be accompanists. Members of the Silhouettes, girls' quartet, who will perform are Delores Frick, Martha Johnson, Margaret Ann Beattie and Sheila Jacobson.

Pontiac Press Photo

Mr. and Mrs. Andre DeWilde of Sheryl Street, Waterford Township, rehearse a sprightly gay nineties duet they will present at Thursday's Waterford Civic Chorus concert, a musical "History of America" in John D. Pierce High School. The program will trace this country's music from the Pilgrims to the present.

Little Folks School Sets Open House

The Pontiac Cooperative Nursery School will hold open house in its headquarters at the First Free Methodist Church on Mt. Clemens Street Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Jane Werneken, director of the Grosse Pointe University Nursery School will show and narrate a colored film strip entitled "Nursery School in Action."

The nursery school functions to provide an environment for preschool children so they may learn to play together, acquire good social habits and be given an opportunity for creative expression in music, art and play.

* * *

Parents participate by taking their designated turns assisting the teacher in the nursery, attending meetings and serving on various committees.

Classes run from 9:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for four-year-olds and on Tuesday and Thursday for the three-year-olds. Registrations are open to both groups.

As the organization operates without profit, tuition is computed on necessary running expenses.

* * *

Mrs. Frank Sias is enrollment chairman for three-year-olds and Mrs. Thomas Reeling for four-year-olds.

Snow Shoveling Endangers Heart

Tips to Save Hubby's Life

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Here are some tips for women who are determined to keep their husbands alive and save them from their number one threat — a heart attack. These suggestions come straight from the American Heart Association.

1. Even if your husband's health is fairly good, insist that he take it easy with the snow shovel.

2. If his heart is not up to par, he should check with his doctor before shoveling at all.

Evidently shoveling snow is not such an innocent pastime as we think. The heart association says, Cleaning up after a heavy snowfall should be considered what it is — strenuous physical exercise, especially for people not accustomed to regular exercise or heavy labor.

WORK FASTER IN COLD

What is more, in cold weather, a person tends to work faster and harder to keep warm, little realizing the tremendous exertion he is undergoing. The sudden demand for more blood from overworked muscles increases the work of the heart.

If your husband is young and in fine health, he can shovel away as much as he pleases at a proper pace; but if he has had any heart trouble he should not shovel snow, push stalled cars or indulge in similar heavy exertion.

The older person who has exercised regularly may not suffer from the burden placed on the heart by such exercise, but even he should stop long before he feels exhausted.

* * *

If your husband has been shoveling snow or doing exercises which are vigorous, tell him about heart association tips.

Also, tell him that it is generally wise to shovel snow or exercise before eating rather than after meals.

He also should know that lifting the shovel with the strength of his entire body, which includes those of his back and legs, is less tiring than letting the arms carry the entire load.

FOUR TIPS

The heart association advises those who have had a heart attack to follow these four suggestions. These might also act as good preventive medicine for everyone.

1. Keep your weight down.
2. Eat four small meals a day.
3. Get plenty of rest and take moderate exercise.
4. Avoid overexertion and overexcitement.

February has been designated heart month. During this month the American Heart Association alerts you to the facts about heart trouble.

This association carries on a wonderful research program. When you help them, you may be saving your life or the life of your husband.

The heart association has a booklet called The Heart of the Home." This gives you many novel and valuable hints which will help you avoid fatigue, and by following these hints you will take a lot of wear and tear out of housework.

This was designed originally for women who have heart trouble, but it is extremely helpful to all women. See your local heart association or write the American Heart Association, 44 E. 23rd St., New York 10, N.Y.

Rites in Orchard Lake

Miss Strong Marries

MRS. EDWARD J. ASH

Before an altar decked with white snapdragons and pompoms Ellen Sue Strong exchanged nuptial vows with Edward J. Ash, Saturday evening in the Orchard Lake Community Church, Presbyterian.

Following the candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Auchard, the bridal couple joined their parents at a reception in the church parlors. The Milton L. Strongs of Orchard Lake Road are parents of the bride, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Ash of Owosso.

A crescent-shaped bouquet of white hyacinths, roses and ivy complemented the bride's bouffant floor-length gown of white silk organza over lace. The fitted bodice featured a lavaller neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Fingertip veiling of silk illusion was fitted to a tiara of seed pearls, lace and sequins.

Joy Ann Beedell, Bloomfield Hills, the bride's only attendant, appeared in azalea pink peau satin, styled with tulip overskirt. She held a cascade arrangement of white Princess chrysanthemums.

* * *

Allan Maar, East Lansing, performed the duties of best man. Guests were seated by the bridegroom's brother Joseph of Owosso and James Strong, Orchard Lake, cousin of the bride.

Mr. Ash and his bride will live in Owosso while completing their senior year at Michigan State University.

A corsage of pink roses accented Mrs. Strong's bouffant dress of navy silk styled with lace bodice. The mother of the bridegroom appeared in a sheath dress of navy shantung to which she pinned a white Phalaenopsis orchid. Her accessories were lavender.

Nurses Unit Sets Meeting

The Lay Committee of the Visiting Nurse Association of South Oakland County will meet for 12:30 luncheon Tuesday in the home of Mrs. L. A. LaMont, Birmingham. Mrs. Robert O. Varnum will assist the hostess.

* * *

Mrs. Merle A. Welsh, retiring chairman, will hand the gavel to Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall who will head the local committee for the coming year. Mrs. Don Thompson of Berkley will continue as secretary.

The spring agenda will be announced and the annual report of the board of trustees of the VNA of Metropolitan Detroit will be presented by Mrs. Varnum who has recently assumed presidency of that group.

Fashion Your Figure Club members presented a symphony of spring hats styled for casual, daytime and dress-up occasions at a meeting in Adah Shelly Library.

* * *

Models for the show were Mrs. Hartley Bray, Mrs. Mirian Bowers, Mrs. Richard Drake, Mrs. John Felts, and Mrs. Bayliss Hoyt. Others were Mrs. Joseph Jenkins, Mrs. Robert Keller, Mrs. Clarence Mahaffy, Mrs. Alfred McLaughlin and Mrs. Charles Ruggles.

* * *

Mrs. Robert Sawyer, program chairman, has planned the group's Thursday meeting to be packed with informative data given by Mrs. Catherine Claus, Oakland County's nutritionist. The information is of special interest to the group as it is one of the fundamental reasons the club was organized.

Youngsters Must Have Parents' Respect

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Since Thanksgiving our 16-year-old daughter has been dating a boy we have never met. All we know about him is that he is 22, lives in a neighboring town and works in his father's insurance office.

He meets our daughter away from the house and when we ask her to invite him home, she always has some excuse. My husband thinks that something must be going on between them to make her so secretive and wants to forbid her to see him. Do you advise . . .

* * *

ANSWER: What's going on is not necessarily what you fear is going on.

Isn't it possible that your daughter has confused your concern with her happiness with intrusion on her privacy?

This is not a rare adolescent confusion. Sex feelings are an intimate part of their lives which self-respecting young people need to keep private and away from parents. If we are always asking questions about their dates, they start protecting their privacy by telling us nothing.

MAKE MYSTERIES

They make mysteries of telephone calls of letters, the backgrounds of their boy and girl friends. When this happens, we can get panicky and "forbid" relationship with the unknown friend — or we can try to clarify the child's confusion about our interest in his life. We can say:

* * *

"Look here, you've got us all wrong. We're not asking to meet your friend in order to tear him apart, you know. We want to meet him because we want a chance to get to like what you like."

* * *

You see, a young person who gets the idea that our interest in his sexual feelings is prying and critical is often driven to exaggerating the importance of an attachment. He loses the ability to really look at his feelings about the boy or girl he is dating to start fighting us on the issue of his "independence" — his right to be different from us.

Soon keeping us in the dark about his sexual activities has become the prime concern — and his feelings for the boy or girl a minor one. But so long as all his energies are given over to defensive warfare against our prying and suspiciousness, he can't discover that the person for whom he's fighting isn't worth it.

I myself don't respect young men very much who meet 16-year-old girls on the sly.

But this young man is not your problem. Your problem is detachment from a fight with your daughter so that she gets a chance to steady her own judgment of sneakiness.

American Beauty Cake Uses 2 Oz. Red Coloring

By JANET ODELL
Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Robert Hollerback of Union Lake telephoned to give us the recipe for a cake that has become popular in the past year.

It calls for 2 ounces of red food coloring. Mrs. Hollerback calls it American Beauty Cake.

The Hollerbacks have two young children. Mrs. Hollerback enjoys cooking and reading.

AMERICAN BEAUTY CAKE
By Mrs. Robert Hollerback

2 oz. red food coloring
3 tablespoons quick strawberry-flavored OR chocolate-flavored mix
½ cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
1 cup buttermilk
½ teaspoon salt
2½ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon baking soda

Mix food coloring with quick drink mix and let stand. Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and coloring mixture and beat well.

Sift flour and salt together. Add alternately with buttermilk to creamed mixture. Add vanilla and beat again. Stir (do not beat) in vinegar and baking soda.

Bake in 2 greased and floured 9-inch layer pans 30-35 minutes at 350 degrees. Fill and frost with Creamy Frosting.

Creamy Frosting

2 tablespoons flour
½ cup milk
Pinch of salt
½ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup margarine or butter
¼ cup vegetable shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix flour with milk and cook until thick. Add salt. Mix rest of ingredients and add cooled flour mixture. Beat until fluffy. Spread on cooled cake.

The only family security with this built-in guarantee

There are many ways a father can build financial security for his family. But only one guarantees the full amount right from the start. Life insurance.

From the moment he receives his policy, a father is assured that, if anything should happen to him, his family is guaranteed more money than he could save in years.

This built-in guarantee is one of the unique advantages of life insurance.

5 ways that the unique advantages of life insurance bring peace of mind at the stroke of a pen

1. Guarantees funds for children's education. By having a life insurance policy for college expenses, you can guarantee your boy or girl will have this opportunity, whether you live or not.

2. Guarantees a family can keep its home. With life insurance, a man can guarantee there will be money to pay off the mortgage if he doesn't live to complete the payments.

3. Guarantees money for emergencies. The guaranteed cash values in your policy can help you meet big unexpected expenses.

4. Guarantees a lifetime income at retirement. Life insurance can furnish additional income for the policyholder and his wife at retirement that's guaranteed as long as either lives.

5. Guarantees immediate family protection. Only life insurance enables you to provide full protection for your family right from the start.

To make sure you get the most from your life insurance, take full advantage of the continuing service your life insurance agent offers. Review your program with him regularly—at least every two years—to keep it in line with your changing circumstances. This service, which costs you nothing, may make your life insurance even more valuable when you or your family need it.

ALMONT — Voters in the Almont School District will be asked to continue a three-mill operating tax for two more years in tomorrow's special election.

The original tax was approved three years ago and expired with the current tax collection. Most of the $58,478 raised from the collection was used to pay off an operating deficit.

Reason for the continuance of the school tax is to meet increased expenses and to make needed improvements in the instructional program, according to the School Board.

School superintendent Eugene Nikkari said that voter approval to continue the present three-mill operational tax for two more years would not increase the total tax levied by the school district.

Nikkari continued, "A partial lowering of the total tax rate for 1962 is assured because the 1952 bond issue will be paid in full and the tax levy made for this will be eliminated.

School taxes and tax for debt retirement last year was 15.84.

Leadership School Calls 9 Area 4-H'ers

Nine Oakland County teen-agers will attend a 4-H Junior Leadership School Thursday through Saturday at Camp Ohiyesa, six miles north of Highland.

They are Margaret Thompson, Avon Explorers; Joan Smith, Flying Fingers Club of Davisburg; Ardis Storm and Marvin McLachlan, East Orion; Jan Foster and Anita Noell, Clarkston Happy Helpers; and Marbara Hiller, Wolfgang Lodden and Eric Woodward, Bloomfield.

For the most part the 4-H'ers will be attending classes and workshops that will further develop their present leadership qualities.

★ ★ ★

They also will have time for fellowship and fun, including tobogganing and skating at the year 'round campsite located near Hickory Ridge Road.

Junior leaders from six neighboring counties will be included in the weekend visitors to the camp, as well as a small percentage of adult leaders.

Mrs. John Lessiter, a leader from the East Orion Club, will attend and conduct the public speaking sessions. Also accompanying the group will be Frank Williamson, a Waterford Township leader, and Oakland County 4-H agents Jack Worthington and Mrs. Ruth Montney.

Mrs. Montney will instruct the visual aids workshop.

Berkley PTA Plans 'South Pacific' Show

The Berkley Area School District PTA which includes seven schools in South Oakland County will present the Broadway show "South Pacific" at Norup Junior High School, Oak Park, on two upcoming weekends.

★ ★ ★

Purpose of the performances, Feb. 23-24 and March 2-3, is to provide money for the Rock Fleming Scholarship Fund which sends a Berkley High School senior to the college of his or her choice.

★ ★ ★

Show time for each performance is 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale at the box office for 90 cents each.

Holly Deciding School Bonds, Operational Tax

HOLLY—Two school proposals are to be decided today by voters in the Holly School District.

They are a $950,000 bond issue for new construction and renovation and an eight-mill operational tax proposals.

Six mills would be a continuation of the present levy and the other two mills would be an increase.

The bond issue would be used to finance the construction of a 13-room elementary school, a seven-room addition to the Holly High School, and the remodeling of the Holly Junior High School.

No tax increase would be necessary to retire the bond issue, school officials said.

Dies in Arizona Crash

WENDEN, Ariz. (AP) — Benjamin Davidson, 65, of Detroit, was killed Sunday when his car went off U. S. 60-70 near the Arizona-California border and overturned three times. His wife, Belle, 60, was reported in critical condition.

And That's Not Chicken Feed

State Hatches Hen Homes

EAST LANSING (AP)—There's a building boom in Michigan — and it's for the birds.

The boom, says Howard C. Zindel, head of the Michigan State University poultry science department, is in chicken houses — some 325 in the past two years. And, he added, these are structures housing 3,000 or more birds each.

There's good reason for the boom, Zindel said. Michigan is a deficit egg-producing area — that is it uses more eggs than it produces.

Detroit, he added, is one of the best markets in the country. Eggs now are shipped into the metropolitan area from 14 other states. Ohio producers sell as many eggs in Detroit as Michigan growers do.

Many of the houses are the so-called "Michigan tempered air house" — a 20th Century version of the chicken coop designed and developed at MSU. Plans for the house have been distributed nationally.

The house, a well-insulated pole-type building, can house—along with the layers — some of the latest developments in automated egg producing.

A prototype was built on the Lapeer County farm of Roy Spencer in 1956. Spencer, now a Republican state representative from Attica, asked MSU agricultural engineers and poultry scientists to design the building.

It included thermostatically controlled exhaust fans, mechanical cleaners and feeders and automatic waterers.

The house — designed in 36-foot square sections — allows 1½ square feet of floor space per hen, or about 1,000 birds per section. The house can be expanded lengthwise to add new 1,000-bird units.

The concentration permits best use of the birds' body heat to maintain winter temperatures. In the Spencer house, a constant 42 degrees farenheit was maintained inside, while outdoor temperatures dropped to 5 below zero. Sufficient insulation, of course, was necessary.

The ventilating fans keep temperatures within desirable ranges, relative humidity below 80 per cent — the maximum allowance during winter months — and eliminate odors.

Four lines of feeders prove sufficient for the maximum concentration of birds — provided the feeders are well distributed across the floor. MSU plans call for waterers that run the length of the building.

Utica Junior Police Plan Anniversary Celebration

UTICA — An impressive number of county and Utica city officials will be guests at the second anniversary celebration of the Utica Junior Police at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 27 at the American Legion Hall.

Under the direction of Patrolman Fred Holloway, more than 120 boys in the 9- to 11-age group have been trained in military marching, first aid, and have learned the fundamentals of police work.

William Schucard, master of ceremonies, will introduce the main speaker, Richard Stavoe, Utica City judge, who will speak on youth problems.

Other dignitaries to be present will include Mayor Fred Beck, city attorney George Roberts, Macomb County Circuit Judges Howard Carroll and George Deneweth Jr., Associate Municipal Judge Frank Jeannette, Macomb Sheriff Lester Almsteadt and Probate Judges Donald Parent and Joseph Trombley.

Five local councilmen also will attend the special ceremonies.

Pedroso-Harmer Vows

Wed in Noon Rites

LAKE ORION—Red and white carnations and pompoms graced the altar of St. Michael's Church, Pontiac, for the noon wedding Saturday of Marilyn Janet Harmer and Roberto Esteves Pedroso. Rev. Charles E. Cushing read the service in the presence of 300 guests.

★ ★ ★

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick J. Harmer of 1103 Crescent Street. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio G. Pedroso, Copacabana Beach, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of white bouquet taffeta featuring a bateau neckline, lace-accented, three-quarter length sleeves and a princess-style fitted bodice.

The bell-shaped skirt fashioned with appliques of Alencon lace embroidered with pearl and crystal beads ended in a chapel train.

★ ★ ★

A Juliet half-crown of lace held her hand-rolled silk illusion veiling, and she carried a bridal bouquet of white carnettes centered with a red orchid and accented with white pearl hearts and red net.

Mrs. Russell J. DeRoseat of Pontiac was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were another sister, Mrs. Robert Grim of Pontiac and Andra Grim of Pontiac, niece of the bride.

Serving as best man was Walter Annis of Pontiac. The guests were seated by Russell Ketchum of Glen Ridge, N.J., Thomas Sands of Pontiac and Richard Swanson of Utica.

★ ★ ★

A buffet dinner was held at the Elks Temple, Pontiac, from 1 to 3 p.m. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Rio de Janiero, the newlyweds will reside in Bloomfield, N.J.

Citizens in Clarkston Vicinity to Get Disaster, Medical Training

CLARKSTON — The Oakland County Office of Civil Defense, in conjunction with the Oakland County Health Department, is offering citizens in the Clarkston area a course in medical emergency survival and disaster training beginning Wednesday night.

Director of the course is Mrs. Herminio Rodriguez Jr., R.N. of the Oakland County Health Department.

Classes will be held at the Pine Knob Elementary School, 6020 Sashabaw Road, Independence Township. The classes will be held on 13 consecutive Wednesday evenings and start promptly at 8 p.m. They will last approximately two hours.

Registration is 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. There is no fee for the course and those who complete the requirements will be awarded a certificate.

YWCA Course Saves Youth, 15

Miss Kuenzli So Glad She Learned Method of Respiration

DETROIT (AP) — "Oh, I'm glad I paid attention," said Ellen Kuenzli.

Only 10 days ago Miss Kuenzli, 49, finished a course on water safety at the YWCA which made her a qualified swimming teacher. A method of artificial respiration was a special part of the course.

★ ★ ★

At the YW pool Sunday a number of children were enjoying a "splash party," a supervised hour of fun for youngsters.

Glen Kennedy, 15, disappeared. He was spotted unconscious at the bottom of one end of the pool.

Miss Kuenzli ran from the other end, dived in, and brought the boy out.

When police arrived, Miss Kuenzli was so preoccupied with giving Glen mouth-to-mouth resuscitation that she waved them away as they tried to give her a special mouthpiece to help her.

★ ★ ★

Glen began breathing with Miss Kuenzli's aid. Receiving Hospital later reported he was recovering.

Miss Kuenzli said she had thought she never would need the instruction of the new respiration method.

MUSH, YOU HUSKIES! — Seven Boy Scouts from Troop 134 of Clarkston demonstrate the skill that won them first place Saturday in the Manito District Klondike Derby at Camp Agawam near Lake Orion. From left are Hugh MacGregor, Duane Gustafason, Tim Lintz, Mark Copland, Danny Williams, Everett Fife and Roger Smith. More than 275 boys with 36 sleds took part in the three-hour program, covering a five-mile course. The boys were judged on their sleds, equipment and scouting skills.

Safety authorities claim 80 per cent of occupational accidents involve the human factor.

Guy Williams Makes Movies in Europe

Zorro Trades Sword for Spice

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-T Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Life has been different since Guy Williams turned in his fencing foil and his Zorro suit at Disney's.

Guy recently returned from Rome where he made an Italo-American film, "Damon and Pythias."

THOMAS

"We made two versions of some sequences, one for America, one for Europe," the actor reported.

"I did one love scene that was quite explicit. In the European version, we were uh-prone. In the American version, we were not quite so prone."

"Actually, I think the European version was less suggestive," he said, adding, "There was no doubt about what was going on. But in the American version, things were hinted at that might not have taken place. The imagination has more chance to run rampant."

Williams is leaving for Munich to begin another feature, "Sinbad," for the King brothers.

One scene has a girl being changed into a bird," he said. Naturally her clothes have to be removed first before she can grow feathers. This will be done in silhouette, but it will be fairly graphic.

The actor may follow with The Three Musketeers in Rome.

500,000 MILES AWAY

All this is about 500,000 miles removed from Disney," Williams said with a grin.

But he'll once again be associated with the Disney trademark when he appears next month in a three-part version of "The Prince and the Pauper" on Walt's NBC TV show. Williams will play the old Errol Flynn role, with plenty of dueling.

Some actors might brood over such typing, but not Guy.

"I can't complain about Zorro," he said. "He was very good for me; it was the best break I ever had. I got a little weary of the routine of making a TV series; for two years I could do little else but the same 12-hour daily chore."

"I did get tired of the fencing," he recalled. "I took pride in the fact that I could do it as well or better than any other actor. But the repetition got to be ridiculous. The viewers knew there had to be a duel in every show; 'Well, here it comes,' they would say."

"Zorro" was a sensation among the small fry for two seasons on TV, then was dropped as a series despite generally good ratings.

SHOW, ACTOR CAUGHT

"It was caught in an imbroglio between Disney and ABC," said Williams. So was he. The studio made a half-dozen Zorros to fit into the hour-long anthology series, but for most of two years Williams did nothing. He parted with the studio after making "The Prince and the Pauper" in England.

Oddly, Guy had more trouble understanding the English in London than he has with the Italians in Rome. His real name: Armand Catalano.

Union Armistice Is 'Holding Up'

AFL-CIO Leaders Say 2-Month-Old Pact Is Helping With Drives

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders opening their winter meeting said today the two-month-old armistice between feuding union groups appears to be holding up well.

Rival wings of the 12.5-million member union federation, representing the building trades and industrial union departments, reached a peace pact at a convention here in December.

Union leaders attending the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting said that the comparative harmony has led to agreement to push joint legislative drives in Congress for measures on which there had been differing enthusiasms before.

Industrial unions reportedly have agreed to back the building trades in supporting amendments to the Davis-Bacon Act to include fringe benefits, such as pensions and welfare funds, along with pay rates in calculating prevailing wages on federal construction projects.

The government requires contractors working on such projects to meet the prevailing wages for the particular areas as determined by the government. Inclusion of fringe benefits would raise the prevailing wage determination and thus make it more certain nonunion contractors must match union-type labor costs.

New Jersey Strike Affects Million Riders

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI)—Drivers and mechanics staged a walkout against New Jersey's largest bus company today that affected one million daily riders including 100,000 New York commuters.

The strike against the Public Service Coordinated Transport, which operates routes in 19 of the state's 21 counties and interstate, began at midnight despite a last minute peacemaking bid by Gov. Richard J. Hughes.

Also affected was the company-operated subway system in Newark.

The walkout by 5,600 drivers and mechanics of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Rail and Motor Coach Employes could virtually paralyze the state since residents depend mainly on buses for public transportation.

There are about 1,200 cotton mills in the U.S.

Katanga Takes Town From Mutinous Force

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — President Moise Tshombe's government announced today its troops have retaken the north Katanga town of Kongolo, scene of the New Year's massacre of 18 Catholic missionaries.

Tshombe's troops took over Kongolo from mutinous Congolese troops from Stanleyville who seized the town about two months ago in a rampage through north Katanga. The mutineers fled leaving behind arms and ammunition, the announcement said.

Radio Station Ripped by Fire; Family Safe

CHEBOYGAN (AP)—Firemen today sought the cause of a fire that destroyed the studios of Radio Station WCBY in Cheboygan Sunday.

Gary Raymond, a station employe, and his wife and infant daughter escaped from an apartment in the one-story building.

Clare Frederick, WCBY news editor, was on the air when he spotted smoke coming from the transmitter room and alerted engineer Louis Ozak.

Firemen battled the flames for nearly two hours but were unable to save the station, its equipment or the personal belongings of the Raymonds. There was no estimate of the loss.

Capucine Wears Ring From Film 'Marriage'

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Beautiful Capucine, the French movie star and model, now very big in Hollywood, has been wearing a wedding ring around N.Y. — and you know what that means — OH, NO, YOU DON'T!

It means somebody's been married? Oh, don't be so squarish!

When I saw this ring on Capucine, I almost wired her longtime Hollywood beau, Charlie Feldman, for the when and where, but she spoke up:

"I'm not married and never have been married."

WILSON

That cleared it right up, of course! Speaking of clearing things up, I didn't even know what you call her: Miss Capucine, Mlle. Capucine, Mme. Capucine, just plain Capucine, Cap—or maybe Miss Cap.

"You see, in Africa, in this picture with Bill Holden I was supposed to be a wife," Miss Cap said.

★ ★ ★

"So I went shopping. In a Nairobi jewelry store. The jeweler showed me some very thin rings. He didn't know who or what I was. He said, 'Now this wedding ring here won't wear very well.'

"I said, 'It'll be fine. I only plan to wear it 3 months.'"

"He said, 'You only plan to be married 3 months!' He gave me a look of such shock till I explained."

★ ★ ★

CAPUCINE

But the strange thing is that Miss Cap still wears same ring after said picture. She's here expoiting a movie about old New Orleans, "Walk on the Wild Side," in which she's very, very naughty.

"Does the wedding ring stop men from making advances?" I asked.

"A wedding ring does not stop a man from doing anything—that includes the wedding ring he's wearing," she said. Goodness, she's so CYNICAL!

EARL'S PEARLS: A TV weather man boasted he's gotten so confident that he's filming his shows thirteen weeks in advance.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: A suburbanite was described by his neighbors as a real snob: "His wife hired an upstairs maid — and they live in a ranch home."

Taffy Tuttle's decided not to buy a fallout shelter right now. "I'll save money," she said, "by waiting and buying a used one later." That's earl, brother.

McNamara in Honolulu for Meeting on Viet Nam

HONOLULU (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara meets top military leaders here today for the third time in two months on United States involvement in Communist-beleaguered South Viet Nam.

Accompanied by 11 military and diplomatic officials, McNamara arrived Sunday night from Washington and repeated remarks made earlier that the South Viet Nam government appears to be making progress in the fight against Communist subversion and infiltration.

★ ★ ★

He declined specific comment when asked whether the United States was becoming directly involved in guerrilla warfare against the Viet Cong Troops.

Before leaving Washington however, McNamara said that President Kennedy had made it quite clear that U.S. military personnel in South Viet Nam serve only in technical and advisory capacities, and discounted a suggestion that U.S. involvement might develop into another Korea.

SHOOTING BACK

President Kennedy said at a news conference last week that U.S. personnel in Viet Nam, although not combat troops, have been ordered to fire back to protect themselves" if they are fired upon.

★ ★ ★

Since the defense secretary's last trip to Hawaii in January, the United States has attempted to coordinate its aid program to the government of President Ngo Dinh Diem. Gen. Paul D. Harkins, was recently appointed to head a new U.S. military assistance command in Saigon.

With McNamara among others here are W. Averell Harriman, assistant secretary in charge of Asian affairs, and Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Gen. Harkins and Ambassador Frederick E. Nelting arrived in Honolulu earlier from Saigon for the briefing session at the headquarters of Adm. Harry D. Felt, U.S. commander in the Pacific area.

Stops Constipation due to "Aging Colon"

Relief, doctors say, has to new laxative principle that re-creates 3 essentials of youthful regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents dry out and shrink so they fail to stimulate the urge to purge. Of all leading laxatives, only new COLONAID gives you its special 3-way relief.

(1) COLONAID prevents the formation of dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain; (2) helps rejuse flabby colon muscles with unique rebulking action; (3) acts gently on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the "mass movement" of your lower colon.

COLONAID relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. Introductory Size $3.98.

Guards Save Officer in French Hospital

PARIS (AP)—Guns blazed in the corridor of Val-DeGrace Military Hospital Sunday as four or five men attempted to murder a recuperating French Reserve officer.

★ ★ ★

The small invading band fought it out with two guards outside the room of Yves le Tac, a Reserve major and brother of national assemblyman Joe le Tac. The officer had been wounded while serving in Algiers last October.

A bird lover anonymously hired attorney Ramon Poitevin to go to bat for the goose.

The lawyer told police his client's detention violated the U.S. Migratory Bird Act. They were ahead of him.

"Mr. Poitevin," he says they told him Saturday, We're gonna loose your goose."

GONE WITH WIND

That's ducky," he replied.

The goose soared off where the wild goose goes.

But his four feathered buddies, without a friend at court, are still jailed birds.

Said a sympathizer: It's a fowl blow."

Urge Relaxing of Ban on Cameras in Court

CHICAGO (AP) — The American Bar Association has been urged to relax its ban and allow individual judges to determine whether photographers and broadcasters may cover courtrooms during a trial.

★ ★ ★

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission joined representatives of television and radio Sunday in urging revision of Canon 35, a 25-year-old rule of judicial ethics.

★ ★ ★

They told a special ABA committee that still and TV cameras and radio microphones should be allowed in courtrooms if the presiding judge permits.

★ ★ ★

Newton Minow, FCC chairman, said in a letter to the committee: "It should be for the trial judge to decide whether and under what circumstances and safeguards proceedings in his court might appropriately be reported by radio or television."

Art Gallery Grows Up

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UPI) — When the University of Rochester's Memorial Art Gallery opened in 1914, its entire collection consisted of two paintings, five plaster casts, and one piece of old lace. Today, the Gallery's collections of some 40,000 works are valued at close to $5 million.

They Roll Hula Hoops

STEPHENVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Bed rolling as a college fad is ignored at Tarleton State College. But nine students recently rolled a 12¼-foot hula hoop about 10 miles to the Denton campus of North Texas State College.

Map 'Book Battle' to Counterattack Red Propaganda

NEW YORK (UPI)—The United States Information Agency (NSIA) will step up distribution of books to uncommitted nations in an effort to counteract a Communist book barrage.

USIA Director Edward R. Murrow said Sunday his agency planned to expand its current distribution of books and develop new programs.

The USIA distributed five million books last year, Murrow said, while the Sino-Soviet bloc published more than 40 million books in 29 languages.

★ ★ ★

Murrow, reporting in the February Teachers College Record, professional Columbia University Teachers College journal, said the importance of overseas libraries cannot be exaggerated in the struggle to give people in other nations "a better understanding and appreciation of the meaning of America."

CANADIEN FOILED — Goalie Hank Bassen of the Detroit Red Wings does the splits as he makes a save on Montreal's Phil Goyette (20) in the first period Sunday. Detroit defenseman Marcel Provovost is behind Goyette. Note the puck under Bassen's left pad. The Wings triumphed, 4-2.

SPORTS

Munson Hits 25 in Titan Victory

DETROIT — Harrison Munson, Pontiac junior at the University of Detroit, played the best game of his collegiate career Saturday night as the Titans rolled over Notre Dame, 104-87.

In another big game in the state, Michigan State held Ohio State to a 32-32 first half before bowing to the powerful Buckeyes, 80-72.

In a big surprise, Michigan defeated Wisconsin for the second time this year to practically end the Badger title hopes, 84-65.

U. of D. was red hot in the first half of its game before nearly 9,000 fans. With Dave DeBusschere collecting 22 points in the first half, the Titans hit on 16 of their first 18 shots from the floor. Munson had 13 points in the first half which ended, 58-44.

In the second half, the Titans pushed to a 21 point margin as Munson and DeBusschere continued their spree. DeBusschere finished with 33 points and 27 rebounds. Munson had 25 points and 17 rebounds.

McDANIEL GETS 11

Holly's George McDaniel made his best showing of the season as he collected 11 points and did a good job on the boards.

Despite Michigan State's rally which closed the gap couple times late in the game, Ohio State kept its poise and refused to be rattled by the Spartan press.

Pete Gent hit 29 points for State followed by Art Schwartz with 18. Unsung forward Doug 24 with Jerry Lucas collecting 20 and Mel Nowell 16.

Wisconsin has lost only two Big Ten games but both at the hands of Michigan which has a 3-5 league record. Sophomore Bob Cantrell, 5 foot, 10 inch guard, scored 28 points for the Wolverines. He hit 9 of 11 shots in the first half.

At the same time, Illinois blew a chance of climbing into a second place tie with Wisconsin by falling before Purdue, 100-88; Indiana defeated Iowa, 72-69; and Minnesota whipped Northwestern, 73-65.

Terry Dischinger scored 45 points against Illinois and assured himself of a record career average of 29.5 points a game, eclipsing the former mark of 27.3 held by Ohio State's Robin Freeman. In the process, Terry scored 20 field goals, tying a record shared by Jimmy Rayl of Indiana.

Rayl accounted for 35 points in Indiana's triumph over Iowa but had to yield scoring honors to Iowa's Don Nelson who finished with 37.

STATE RESULTS

Western Michigan can still salvage some glory — second place — in the mid-American conference basketball race being dominated by Bowling Green.

The Broncos moved into the loop's runnerup spot Saturday, one half game ahead of Toledo, by edging Marshall, 78-74. They're now 6-3 in the conference and 13-8 overall.

There's no chance to catch Bowling Green (10-1) for the top spot but Western can grab second for certain with victories over Bowling Green Feb. 24 and Toledo Feb. 28. Both games are on the road.

Tom Woodruff, 6-2 senior Bronco guard from Grosse Pointe, paced the attack against Marshall with 23 points and led an eight-point spree which gave Western the decision midway through the final half.

Ferris Institute, at 17-1 the state's winningest college club, won its eighth straight, 73-6, over Northern Michigan Saturday as Mike Bohnet scored 30 points for the Bulldogs. Gary Silc had 21 for Northern, which is now 11-9.

Hope can clinch a share of the MIAA championship Feb. 24 when it travels to Alma for its only remaining league contest.

Detroit Tops Montreal, 4-2, in Latest Surge

Howe Scores 2 Goals but Can't Catch Up to Bathgate

DETROIT (AP) — A couple of hockey's journeymen — castoffs who've been bounced around from team to team—are most responsible for the Detroit Red Wings' current surge.

Coach Sid Abel singled out Hank Bassen and Noel Price as the big reasons for the Wings' tremendous improvement in the past 15 days.

Detroit's unbeaten streak was stretched to six last night with a 4-2 triumph over the first-place Montreal Canadiens. The National Hockey League leaders scored 15 goals in their previous two games and lost only once in 17 games until the Wings' halted them.

"I'd have to say there are several factors for our improvement," said Abel. "But Bassen has been playing very well and Price has helped straighten out our defense. They're not the only reason we're doing so well, but they're the big ones."

The Wings haven't lost since Bassen took over at goal six games ago on Feb. 4 when Terry Sawchuk hurt his shoulder. The red-headed netminder allowed only eight goals as Detroit posted four victories and two ties.

SAWCHUK READY

"Terry's shoulder is better, he could get back in there right now," said Abel. "But I'm going to stick with Bassen, he's real hot."

Price was acquired two weeks ago from New York, the team Detroit is battling for fourth place and the last berth in the playoffs. Like Bassen, he spent time this season in the minors and had earlier trials with other NHL clubs.

"We needed help at defense all season, and he's giving it to us," Abel said.

The Wings made the victory over Montreal look easy. They scored three times in the first 11 minutes and then displayed a strong defense the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

Bill Gadsby, Gordie Howe and Parker MacDonald staked the Wings to their early lead. Howe scored again in the second period between Montreal's two goals, both by Gilles Tremblay. The Detroit captain now has 28 for the season.

The victory kept Detroit deadlocked with New York in fourth place. The Rangers trounced second-place Toronto 6-2 last night. Andy Bathgate scored twice for New York and remained six scoring points ahead of Howe in the race for the NHL scoring crown. Guy Gendron also scored twice for the Rangers.

The Chicago Black Hawks, scoring five times in the opening period, massacred the Boston Bruins 6-0. Murray Balfour netted two of the Hawks' goals.

Hayes Shatters American Mark in High Hurdles

Runs 70-Yard Distance in 8 Seconds Flat at Mason-Dixon Games

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Hayes Jones of Pontiac, now an elementary school teacher in Detroit, holds another record today thanks to his performance in the second annual Mason-Dixon games.

★ ★ ★

Jones stole the spotlight Saturday as he sprinted the 70-yard high hurdles in 8 seconds flat. This clipped two-tenths seconds off the American indoor record he held jointly with Lee Calhoun.

Jones nipped Don Styron, of the Northeast Louisiana Track Club, at the wire. Styron was timed in 8.2.

★ ★ ★

It was Jones' 27th straight indoor hurdle victory.

What could have developed into one of the pole vault battles of the century failed to materialize when John Uelses, the only man in history to vault 16 feet, didn't clear 14 feet on three tries and was eliminated in early competition.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Uelses, weakened from his two-week bout with the flu, was released from a Quantico, Va., hospital just a little more than 24 hours before he competed in the event, which was limited to pole vaulters who had previously cleared 15 feet.

★ ★ ★

John Rose of Arizona State won with a vault of 15 feet 4 inches. George Davies of Arizona State was second with 15-4, and J. D. Martin of Oklahoma third with 15-4. First and second place was decided by a flip of a coin, third by the number of misses.

★ ★ ★

Dave Styron, Don's twin brother, tied the American indoor record in the 70-yard dash, covering the distance in 7 seconds flat.

Later Uelses came back to make an exhibition jump.

★ ★ ★

On his second try at 15-8, he reached his peak too soon, and crashed to the wooden runway below, a distance of about 15 feet. Uelses said later the box into which vaulters place the pole for their leap was too shallow and caused him to reach his peak too soon. An official later confirmed this.

★ ★ ★

Jim Grelle, of the Los Angeles track club, captured the mile run in a time of 4:03.5. Olympian Ralph Boston took the broad jump with 25 feet 2 inches, best indoors this season.

Florida A&M Sprinter Equals 'Century' Mark

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A husky young Florida A&M University sophomore who thinks he can run 100 yards in 9 seconds flat is in for some dieting and more training.

★ ★ ★

Robert Hayes, who tied the world's record of 9.2 seconds in a meet at the University of Miami Saturday, said, "I think I can beat that time." He expressed confidence he eventually will run the distance in 9 seconds.

★ ★ ★

Griffin said Hayes, "is a team man and can be a good football player."

★ ★ ★

The 19-year-old Negro from Jacksonville equalled the record set by Frank Budd of Villanova in New York on June 24, 1961.

"There's no doubt of the record's validity," said Vince Lally, head of the Florida Athletic Club, sponsor of the invitational tournament at the University of Miami.

"This is an Amateur Athletic Union-sanctioned meet," Lally said. "The track meets all specifications and the gauge recorded a 4½ mile per hour wind against Hayes."

OFFICIAL TIMES

Lally said three official timers clocked Hayes at 9.2 and two caught him at 9.1.

Hayes said he had recently come off football training and was not in top condition.

"I've got to be in better condition but I think I can beat that time," he said. "My teammates help me and my coach gets on me about my training. I'm a little lazy about warming up."

★ ★ ★

Hayes said he wanted to continue his track but likes football and wants to play with a professional team when he finishes his college education.

"I think the fact that he tied the record will give him the determination to break it," said Pete Griffin, who coaches the Florida A&M football line and the track team.

TOO HEAVY

"He has the potential to break the record. Now he has the determination to do it. His 182 pounds is a little heavy, so we will watch his diet carefully. He needs to take off a few pounds."

USC's Track Coach, Mortensen, Is Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jesse Mortensen, who produced some of the greatest collegiate track and field teams in U.S. history as a coach at the University of Southern California, died today.

★ ★ ★

USC athletic director Jess Hill said Mortensen succumbed at Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles. Hill said death was attributed to blood clots. Mortensen was about 54.

Hill, clearly shaken by the news, told a reporter: "I'm sorry, I just don't want to talk about it. I can't tell you any more."

USC publicist Don Simonian said Mortensen suffered from a respiratory ailment in recent years and stayed away from his office last week.

'Rookie' Michigan Pro Trails by One Stroke in Seniors Event

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Any one of five golf pros was in a good position to claim the $2,000 first prize in today's final round of the $25,000 PGA Seniors Championship.

Jimmy Demaret of Houston went into the last 18 holes tied for the lead with club pro Joe Brown of West Des Moines, Iowa. Each was nine under par at 207 after three rounds.

Defending champion Paul Runyan of La Jolla, Calif., who hasn't finished worse than second in three seniors tourneys, is only one stroke behind at 208. He is tied there with 6-foot-4 John Barnum of Belmont, Mich. Barnum is a rookie" in the seniors at the age of 50.

Dutch Harrison of San Francisco is also a first timer in this 72-hole tourney and in a good position at 209 to claim the top money and a trip to Britain for a match against England's senior champion.

Ten others between 210 and 213 have an outside chance if they come racing home with a great round, such as the record 65 which Buck White of Miami fired over the 6,636-yard PGA National course a year ago.

Farmington Wins I-L Tournament

Mat Title to PNH

Pontiac Northern did what it had to do—outscore Walled Lake—to clinch the Inter-Lakes Conference wrestling championship Saturday at the Viking gym.

The favored Huskies had to settle for 2nd behind Farmington in the league meet but had 20 more points than the host school.

PNH took its 2nd mat crown in three years of loop participation on a basis of six points for unbeaten in duals and five points for being tourney runnerup.

Farmington, only 4th for season action, wound up 2nd with 10 total points, Walled Lake had 9, Berkley and Southfield 3 each and Waterford 2.

★ ★ ★

Farmington compiled 91 points in Saturday combat despite being blanked in three weight classes. Northern had 83, Walled Lake 63, Southfield 59, Berkley 47 and Waterford 17.

FIVE 18TS

Farmington offset outstanding Northern balance with five 1st places Bob and Dick Cook. Big boys Steve Heath, Bob Burton and Dick Weston got the other.

Eleven of Coach Bill Willson's 12 grapplers placed led by champions Don Teets, Skip McIlroy and Ken Kimmel. Jim Kimmel was an impressive 127 runnerup after upsetting Pat Harrington of Walled Lake.

★ ★ ★

Vikings titles went to the outstanding Tom Brown and Ron Wilkinson. Bill Shelton got Southfield's only title and Dick Kentro did the same for Berkley. Little Jim Cook and Bob Petherbridge paced Waterford with 3rds.

The Huskies won a team trophy. Individual champions earned medals. Ribbons went to the next three in each division.

OVER THE TOP — Detroit Pistons' Ray Scott (22) outmaneuvers Cliff Hagen (16) of the St. Louis Hawks as he comes over the top for a shot in the second period of the National Basketball Association game at Detroit Sunday. The Pistons won, 119-112.

Red-Hot Ohl Standout in Pistons' Triumph

DETROIT (UPI) — Don Ohl's red-hot shooting kept the Detroit Pistons firing Sunday to their eighth victory in nine starts, 119-112, over the injury-riddled and sagging St. Louis Hawks.

★ ★ ★

Despite their victory, the Pistons failed to gain any ground on the second-place Cincinnati Royals, who beat Chicago, 138-121, to stay 1½ games in front of Detroit. The Pistons had gained a game on the Royals Saturday night with a 123-113 victory.

Ohl hit on 11 straight floor shots starting early in the third period and carrying over into the fourth. When he started his spree, Detroit trailed 66-63, but by the time OHL finally missed the Pistons owned a 96-86 lead and eventually went out in front by as much as 16 points.

The Hawks held their own for the first half despite their weakened condition. They trailed 32-27 after the first quarter but tied it, 58-58, at the half.

Center Larry Foust didn't make the trip from St. Louis because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Hawks' victory over Philadelphia Saturday night. Bob Pettit also was sidelined with bruised ribs suffered in the same game.

PACED HAWKS

Cliff Hagan and Lenny Wilkens paced the Hawks with 34 and 30 respectively. They had 18 and 16 in the first half to keep St. Louis in contention.

Ohl ended as Detroit's top scorer with 30 points, Bailey Howell added 23 and Gene She and Ray Scott had 16 and 15 respectively.

Light Failure, Flying Eggs Start Wild Tilt

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — First the goal lights wouldn't work. Then a fan threw raw eggs on the ice.

By the time they got the mess cleaned up, the players were edgy and so was referee Willie Papp.

The result was 23 penalties totaling 52 minutes in Sunday night's Edmonton-Seattle Western Hockey League game.

Seattle won it, 5-3.

Papp, evidently fearing the game might get out of hand after the sloppy start, blew his whistle freely. Observers agreed the players were swinging their hockey sticks freely too.

Papp called 16 penalties totaling 38 minutes in the first period alone.

There were four penalties in the second period and the three in the third included one meted out to the whole Seattle bench.

Pvt. Elgin Baylor, U.S. Army, probably is looking forward today to getting back to some nice quiet military maneuvers.

Baylor got a taste of the calm civilian life yesterday when he helped the Los Angeles Lakers to a 125-99 victory over the Boston Celtics.

During the game:

Boston's Tommy Heinsohn was bashed by a stray elbow and suffered a mild concussion and a bruise under his left eye.

Boston coach Red Auerbach took a swing at a photographer and had to be restrained by referee Willy Smith.

Los Angeles' Rudy Larusso and Boston's Bob Cousy got in a fist fight over a loose ball.

Baylor tended strictly to business and led the Lakers with 38 points.

City Baptists Win

Midwestern Baptist of Pontiac held 2nd place in its league by rallying from a six-point halftime deficit to whip Michigan Central Christian Junior College of Rochester, 64-54. George Minto scored 22 for Pontiac. Roger Sykes, Oz Theacker of the winners and Losher and McCoy of Rochester all scored 13.

Blames It on Brown

Browns Are in a Rut, Claims QB Milt Plum

CLEVELAND (AP) — Quarterback Milt Plum says the Cleveland Browns are in a rut, and he blames the situation on the fact that Coach Paul Brown runs the club from the bench.

★ ★ ★

In an unusually frank interview, the 27-year-old former Penn State star said he feels the contplete masterminding of the team from the bench deadens the enthusiasm of the Browns.

"It hurts spirit and morale," said Plum. "I compare us to an auto with a top speed of 70 miles an hour. We can't go any faster no matter what the situation.

"The team is in a rut. We don't get up for the big games most of the time and often have a struggle with the not-so-strong teams."

FINISHED THIRD

The Browns were in contention for the National Football League's Eastern Division title most of the way last season, but ended up trailing the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles with eight victories, five defeats and one tie.

The absence of checkoffs puts the quarterback in an impossible situation, Plum declared. The checkoff would permit a quarterback to change plays at the line of scrimmage when he spots a defensive shift that calls for a change.

Plum indicated he is not alone in his sentiments, but he said he did not know "if it's my place" to tell Brown how the players feel. "I guess it's the job of the captain. Perhaps Mike McCormack already has talked to him about it."

★ ★ ★

"We planned for a checkoff system when I talked about my contract last season," Plum said. "There was a little work on it at Hiram (where the Browns hold pre-season training) but no follow through. To all intents and purposes we just didn't have checkoffs.

REPORTS HEARD

"The players also are asked to give suggestions on the Fridays before games," he said. "That's the last we hear of them."

★ ★ ★

Plum, one of the top quarterbacks in the NFL statistical ratings the last two seasons, says he has heard reports that he might be traded but hopes to stay here.

Coach Brown, reached by the Plain Dealer in Fort Mayers, Fla., said Plum's name "never was projected in any trades" and he had "been hoping we could win the title with Plum."

★ ★ ★

Declaring he was "trying to divorce my thoughts from football," Brown was reluctant to talk about Plum's comments on the way he ran the team.

"I don't do anything that our whole coaching staff doesn't believe in," Brown said.

Angels Begin Camp

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—The Los Angeles Angels open spring training Tuesday for their second American League season —but the cast of faces is nearly as new as last year's collection.

Manager Bill Rigney expects to greet 46 men, 39 of them on the parent roster. Only 16 of them with the Angels last spring.

Nineteen of the original Angels departed after training opened last year.

84-48 Rout of Clarenceville Wraps It Up

Bloomfield Hills Earns Share of 2nd Spot by Edging Milford, 64-62

Northville continued its domination of the Wayne-Oakland Conference Saturday night by adding the 1962 basketball championship to its 1961 football title.

The Mustangs clinched the W-O cage crown at Clarenceville with an 84-48 rout of the cellar-dwelling Trojans as they boosted their season record to a spotless 13-0.

Bloomfield Hills assured itself a piece of 2nd place on the same evening by coming from behind to nose out Milford in overtime, 64-62, in a foul-ridden contest at Milford.

In other prep basketball activity Saturday, towering Hank Akin poured 34 points through the hoop to pace Troy's 82-59 victory over Romeo; Cranbrook lost to Culver Academy, 65-55; and East Detroit conquered stuborn Roseville, 72-67.

★ ★ ★

Craig Bell tallied 21 points and teammate Dan Brown contributed 18 to feature Northville's easy win. Bill Wheeler, Lee Corcoran and Ron Ridling each scored 10 for outclassed Clarenceville.

Bloomfield Hills staged a tremendous 4th-quarter rally to pip the Redskins in a game marred by 52 personal fouls. The Barons lost four players on fouls and Milford three.

A productive 21-9 spree in the 4th period featured the Hills' comeback, which created a 57-57 tie at the end of regulation time. A free throw and tip-in by Bill Calhoun gave the Barons their all-important points in the overtime session and they froze the ball for the final minute.

Bill Bennett meshed 17 points to lead the Barons as they posted their 10th triumph in 13 starts. Three Milford cagers hit double figures, headed by Tom Sheffler's 16.

★ ★ ★

Cranbrook trailed Culver all the way. The score was 31-21 at halftime. Mike Dibble agged 19 points, Larry Hard 15 and Essel Bailey 10 for the Crane, who lost their 10th decision in 13 tries.

City Keglers Lead at 3 Tourneys

Pontiac teams went ahead at the Elks Ladies Invitational here, the Huron Valley meet at Milford and the Michigan Men's State bowling tournaments over the weekend.

Peggy Bender's Happyland Shows finally broke the stranglehold the Port Huron Opals had held on 1st at the Elks with a 2,994 Saturday.

Fran Keller of Pontiac stole the individual show yesterday by gaining the top slot with 680 featuring high single game of 268.

Viola Gluck and Fary Barnhart Royal Oak, held 1st in doubles at 1,267 and have high game of 453. Dorothy Vanderbeck of that city continued as all events actual leader with 1,674 as did Lois Bulson of Kalamazoo in handicap on 1,864.

Northwestern of Detroit still has high team game of 1,054.

★ ★ ★

707 team No. 1 of Pontiac moved into command at Fairgrounds with 3,232 followed General Electric No. 1 of Detroit with 3,204. Individual highs remained the same there.

Carl Behrick's P.L. of P. contingent gained the top ranking in state play with 3,579. Fred Tisenga of Grand Rapids went into 1st in singles actual.

Michigan men started well at the big American Bowling Congress meet in Des Moines, Iowa. Bob Silverthorn of Greenville rolled 637 to rank 2nd by one pin in singles after two days. Doubles teams from Ecorse and Greenville ranked 2nd and 9th, respectively.

★ ★ ★

Kalamazoo's Betty Cook fired 722 to take over the lead in singles at the Lady Elks State battle in Big Rapids.

The Michigan Eagles event had another weekend of action at Airway Lanes, the Dublin Community event started at Cooley Lanes and Lakewood Lanes held the Baldwin mixed contest.

Huron Women 6th in National Tourney

Huron Bowl of Pontiac finished an impressive 6th among the 48 of the nation's outstanding units in the National Women's Team Championships near Pittsburgh over the weekend.

Paced by Dorothy Aldred of Ferndale and Pontiac's Shirley Pointer, the city entry totaled 10,538 to win $300.

Mrs. Aldred totaled 2,170 for a 180 average with Mrs. Pointer, a Huron staff member, close behind at 2,128 and a 179 average. Alice Dittmar had 2,126 for 173 average, Helen Weston 2,062 for a 172 mark and Helen Squillo 2,026 for 168 average.

Defending champion Falstaff of Chicago repeated in a close battle to win $1,500. Featuring Shirley Garms, the repeaters hit 10,724 to 10,692 for Bloomington, Minn., BPA which won $1,000.

★ ★ ★

Hilton Shirts, Chicago, took 3rd for $700 with 10,683, Detroit Stark-Hickey hit 10,679 for $500 and John Ivory of Detroit 10,573 for 5th and $400.

Gerry Hintz of Pontiac competed with the Great Lakes team of Detroit.

★ ★ ★

The tourney, with a record prize fund of $6,040, was a battle right down to the wire. Falstaff won out with the five players which came through last winter.

Louise Wins by 4 at St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) —A final round of 71 was all Louise Suggs of Atlanta needed to win the St. Petersburg Women's Open Golf Tournament by four strokes and pick up $1,200.

★ ★ ★

Miss Suggs had a seven-stroke margin going into Sunday's finals round and missed only one green in the first 15 holes. Boggeys on the 16th and 18th cost her a chance to tie the record 279 but her 72-hole score of 280 was four strokes better than that posted by Patty Berg of St. Andrews, Ill., who had a final round 68.

★ ★ ★

Miss Berg shot 33-35 over the 6,116-yard Sunset Golf and Country Club layout where par is 36-35—71. Miss Suggs won $1,200 and second place was worth $950 to Miss Berg.

★ ★ ★

Mickey Wright of Dallas closed with a 69 and finished in a tie for third at 285 with Mary Lena Faulk.

Tourney Scramble Begins

By The Associated Press

The annual mad scramble between the NCAA and the NIT to fill 5 spots in their post-season basketball tournaments gets under way today. The two tournaments have an armed truce that prohibited them from sending out bids earlier.

The NCAA will select 10 teams for its at-large group to complement the 15 league champions that go into the tournament which starts next month and culminates in the championship game in Louisville on March 24.

★ ★ ★

The NIT, held in New York's Madison Square Garden, plucks out 12 teams that are not committed to the NCAA. Each year the going has been getting tougher for the NIT. The story may be the same this time around.

NO UNBEATENS

Furthermore, virtually none of the candidates for either at-large berths in the NCAA or the NIT has a spectacular record. They show a minimum of two defeats and range all the way up to nine setbacks.

Among the major teams that could be tapped for either tournament are Houston (13-5), St. Bonaventure (13-6), Boston College (12-5), New York U. (13-3), Villanova (16-5), Duquesne (16-5), Holy Cross (16-3), Dayton (15-6), De Paul (11-8), Loyola of Chicago (16-2), Memphis State (15-5), Louisville (10-9), Oregon State (17-3), and St. John's (14-4).

The NIT can pick off the runner-up or leading challenger in four of the major conferences — the Missouri Valley, Middle Atlantic, Skyline and Border.

The Missouri Valley presents an intriguing situation whereby the NIT probably is hoping that Cincinnati finishes second best. The Bearcats whipped Ohio State in the final of the NCAA tournament last year.

Tonight Cincinnati, which has been having its troubles in its own back yard, faces Bradley in a league game and needs a victory to pull into a tie for the lead.

The Bearcats are heavily favored, mainly because Joe Strawder, Bradley's 6-foot-8 pivotman, has been dismissed from school. With him, the Braves were figured in a position to give Cincinnati a run for its money. Without him, it's Chet Walker against the Bearcats and that may not be enough.

TOP PLACES

The two teams are bound to finish 1-2 in the Missouri Valley, though, so it probably will be the NCAA for one and the NIT for the other. Ohio State (20-0), has all but nailed down the Big Ten title and would dearly love to get another crack at Cincinnati in the NCAA.

Two teams already have made the NCAA tournament. They're Bowling Green (18-2), which nailed down the Mid-American Conference crown by defeating Ohio University, 83-58, Saturday night, and Border Conference titlelist Arizona State (19-3).

Here is how the other major conferences stand:

Big Eight—Colorado (9-0) leads but has a big date with Kansas State (8-1), on March 3. That probably will decide the champion.

Southwest — Southern Methodist, Texas Tech and Texas A&M deadlocked for lead, each with a 7-3 record.

Big Five—UCLA out front with 6-1 conference record. Stanford second with 5-3.

★ ★ ★

Ivy League—Between Yale (9-1) and Cornell (8-2). They meet Friday. Yale whipped Cornell last week. The Ivy champion is not obligated to go to the NCAA tournament but usually does.

★ ★ ★

Southeastern - Mississippi State (9-1) and Kentucky (8-1) head the field, State has four games to go, Kentucky five. They don't meet again. Mississippi State will not play in NCAA if it wins.

Skyline—Utah (9-1) and Utah State (9-1) tied. Utah is in the bad graces of the NCAA and can't play in post-season tournaments. Colorado State U. (9-2), still is running.

Ohio Valley—Western Kentucky (8-1) far in front.

SLALOM WHIZ — Mark Lyon, 17-year-old Rochester skier, turned in the best time of the day in the Dryden Slalom Open Saturday when he took the course in a combined time of 36:02. He won the 16-17-year-old division.

Rochester Skier Paces Meet

Mark Lyon, 17-year-old Rochester skier, took the top honors of the day in the 2nd annual Dryden Slalom Open race Saturday at the Dryden Ski Area.

Lyon had the best time of all entries in the 9 participating classes. He went through the slalom course in 18:02 and 18:00 for a combined time of 36:02.

John Stickling, 16, member of the Walled Lake High school team which took Southeast Michigan honors a week before was second in a total time of 37:16.

Gil Rist of Royal Oak won the men's senior class in a time of 38:03 with runs of 19:03 and 19:00. Brother and sister Dave and Carol Clark of Royal Oak Kimball took the honors in their repective divisions. Carol won the girls' 16-17-year-old class and Dave was victorious in the boys' 14-15-year-old class.

Carol had a total time of 46:12 with runs of 24:05 and 22:07 while Dave put together runs of 20:05 and 19:00 for 39:05 total.

Other winners included Paul Basigkow of Lake Orion in the boy' 12-13 class; Lynn Atwell of Cass City in the girls' 11½ and under class; Ann Cunningham of Birmingham in the girls' 12-13 class; James Rose of Oxford in the 11-under class; and Joey Shira of Royal Oak in the women's open class.

★ ★ ★

These were the complete results:

Mt. Holly Gets CUSSA Okay

In conjunction with the promotion of safety, six Michigan ski areas, including Mt. Holly have been safety standard approval by Central United States Ski Association (CUSSA).

Don Williams is chairman of the CUSSA safety committee. The ski lift facilities at various areas has been inspected by CUSSA approved engineers. To date, Caberfae, Boyne Mt., Pine Mt., Walloon Hills, Holiday and Mt. Holly have been inspected and given safety code approval.

★ ★ ★

Governor Swainson of Michigan recently appointed a committee with the assistance of the CUSSA, to study existing codes in other states and to recommend to the governor a workable code which could be drafted into a law on ski lift inspections and safety.

★ ★ ★

The CUSSA inspection group has no bearing on the governor's committee. It is continuing its inspection program which had already been scheduled to take place before the governor's committee was set up.

Ferree Bows to Toronto Ace in Golf Playoff

MARACAIBO, Venezuela (AP) —The Caribbean golf tour heads for Caracas today with young George Knudson of Toronto and bespectacled Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., established as the ones to beat.

Knudson, who wound up three strokes back when Ferree won the Caribbean's opening event, the Panama Open, on Feb. 11, captured the second leg of the five-part tour Sunday. He beat Ferree in a sudden death playoff after they had finished the regulation 72-hole distance tied at 286.

★ ★ ★

Both players warred the first extra hole but Knudson birdied No. 2 and won the $1,500 first prize.

Ernie Vossler of Midland, Tex., finished third with a 73 for 287 and Don Whitt of Borrego Springs, Calif., fired a 3-under-par 69 for fourth place at 289.

The $10,000 Caracas open begins Thursday.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Positive thinking and phenomenal putting carried Phil Rodgers to a three-stroke victory in the $20,000 Tucson Open Golf tournament.

★ ★ ★

The brash, 23-year-old pro from La Jilid, Calif., grabbed top prize money of $2,800 Sunday by dropping a 65-foot wedge shot for an eagle 3 on the 18th hole and a final round 66.

★ ★ ★

His 72-hole total over the 6,484-yard, par-70 El Rio course was a 17-under-par 263.

By the time he reached the 18th, Rodgers needed only par to win. After playing par golf and trailing Buddy Sullivan of Yuba City, Calif., by one stroke, Rodgers began his victory march on the 10th tee.

On the 10th, he asked host pro Ray Akana for a report on scores.

"Now that I know what I need," Rodgers said, "I'll get it." He dropped a 12-foot putt for a birdie on the next hole and went on to a 4-under-par 31 on the back nine.

Jim Ferrier, at 46 the oldest pro in the tourney and troubled by a stiff neck, finished second with a 266 and $1,900.

Former PGA champion Ferrier told a starter on the first tee, "Someone is going to pop in with a 62." He did it with a 6-under-par 29 on the front nine, coming all the way from a seven-way tie for 19th to runner-up in the final round.

Gene Littler remained as the tours top money winner with the $1,175 he, Charles Sifford, Paul Harney and Sullivan each picked up for third place 267's.

Littler now has won $14,186.66. Rodgers moved into second ahead of Arnold Palmer with tour earnings of $13,363.57.

Even though 10 of the top money winners passed up the Tucson Open, 7,000 spectators crowded the fairways for the final round.

Americans 'Snowed' by Austrian Skiers

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — "We've got a lot of work to do."

That's the way Bob Beattie, coach of the U.S. team in the World Alpine Ski Championships, sums up American prospects for the future.

★ ★ ★

The Americans were smothered under an avalanche of Austrian winners in the championships which ended Sunday. A third-place finish by Joan Hannah of Franconia, N.H., in the women's giant slalom and a third place for Barbara Ferries, of Houghton, Mich., in the women's downhill were the only top American placings.

★ ★ ★

By a simple count of medals won, the United States finished third in the Chamonix championships. But no one could challenge the powerful Austrian team.

Washington Skiers Win College Honors

YAKIMA, Wash. (AP)—The University of Washington won the Northwest Collegiate Ski Association championship Sunday as Torbjorn Yggeseth and Tom Nord finished first and second in the jumping event.

★ ★ ★

Washington's Yggeseth, who finished fifth in the 1960 Olympics, totaled 148.5 points on two leaps. His best jump was 124 feet. His teammate Nord finished with 146.7 points.

★ ★ ★

Washington finished the three day meet with 94 points, followed by Idaho, 87, Montana State College, 85.5, Alberta, 57 and British Columbia, 52.

Takes Bobsled Crown

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—Larry McKillip of Saranac Lake, N.Y., shattered the record on the Mt. Van Hoevenberg bobsled course Sunday and won the International Four-Man Bobsled Invitational Championship.

★ ★ ★

McKillip, winner of the two-man championship Saturday and undefeated here this winter, sped down the icy, one-mile run in one minute, 8.86 seconds. The time broke the record of 1:08.88 set by world champion bobsledder Stan Benham of Lake Placid in 1957.

Red Man Skate King

MOSCOW (AP)—Russia's Viktor, Kosichkin emerged with the men's world speedskating championship today after displacing the Netherlands' Hank Van Der Grift.

Kosichkin, a 25-year-old factory machinist, scored 188.340 time points for four events over the weekend. He placed eighth in the 1,500-meter race and third in the 10,000-meter competition Sunday, the final events of the two-day meet.

WANTED! MEN — WOMEN

from ages 18 to 52. Prepare now for U. S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months. Government positions pay as high as $446.00 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience. But to get one of these jobs, you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass. Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for these tests every year. It is one of the largest and fastest growing privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government. For FREE information on Government jobs, including list of positions and salaries, fill out coupon and mail at once—TODAY. You will also get full details on how you can qualify yourself to pass these tests. Don't delay—Act NOW!

Backs Away After Advance

Mart Presents Mixed Picture

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market presented a mixed picture early this afternoon after backing away from an initial advance. Trading was moderate.

Fractional gains and losses were the general rule among key stocks but there were a few wider moves.

The list moved higher in an unimpressive manner at the start when it rebounded a bit from Friday's loss. January economic statistics were rather drab aside from news of a rise in demand for durable goods. The tendency of the market to lose volume on recent advances was regarded as a poor technical sign.

Some of the major oils were nicely ahead but the pattern among steels, motors, chemicals, airlines, rails and electrical equipments was uneven. Aircrafts and tobaccos edged off.

DIP FOLLOWS NEWS

International Telephone was off about 3 points in fairly active trading following weekend news that one of the company's subsidiaries had been expropriated in Brazil. The subsidiary has been operating at a loss for some time, the company said.

Some very heavy trading accompanied a slight rise in Benguet. The Philippine gold mining stock changed hands at 1½, unchanged on a series of blocks totaling more than 104,000 shares, then rose ½ to 1⅝ on a block of 18,000 shares. No specific development was cited by brokers for the activity although they noted the U. S. gold outflow as a background factor.

★ ★ ★

Prices were generally higher on the American Stock Exchange. Trading was moderate. Zale Jewelry, which plans a stock split, spurted more than 2. Gains of about 2 were made by Paddington "A" and South Coast Co. Anken Chemical was ahead around 3, Aerojet-General more than 2 and Electronic Specialty more than a point. National Video "A" fell more than a point. Venture Capital and Royalite Oil were fractional losers.

Bond Prices Are Irregular

NEW YORK (AP) — Bond prices opened the week's trading on an irregular note today.

Corporates traded on the New York Stock Exchange declined small fractions. The U.S. government market was mostly unchanged with some intermediates up 1/32.

Trading was light in both markets.

Industrials were the most active corporate section on the exchange. There were few price moves amounting to as much as a full point, even among the usually volatile convertibles.

Fractional gainers included New York Central 4s at 57⅝ GE 3⅛s at 92½ and Lorillard 4⅞s at 103.

★ ★ ★

Down fractions were Pennsylvania Railroad 4½s at 71½, Procter & Gamble 3⅞s at 93 and Public Service Electric & Gas 4⅝ at 101¼.

Nafi convertible 5¼s added 1⅝ at 115⅝.

Advice on Hot Dog From Famous Chef

CHICAGO (AP)—American sausage makers have called in a famous European chef to help educate housewives on how to serve the hot dog gourmet style.

Herr Otto Schuetz, a native of Stuttgart and president of a German master chefs association, will tour the U.S.A. during July, the official national hot dog month.

Among the Continental twists in hot dog recipes Schuetz will demonstrate is his Strasbourg Salad.

It employs the everyday frankfurter dressed up with white cabbage, carrots, onions, cheese strips, vinegar, oil, custard, fine herbs and pepper.

Kovacs' Widow Turns Down Aid From Planned TV Show

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Singer-actress Edie Adams says she needs no benefits played for her and the three daughters of the late Ernie Kovacs.

★ ★ ★

Some 39 of the top stars in the business, all friends of Kovacs, had volunteered for a TV anthology project which would have occupied the time and talent of Kovacs' widow and provided income for her and the children.

The project was a spontaneous thing about which Edie was not consulted. Had she been, she said, she would have discouraged it.

★ ★ ★

I'm thrilled and happy, awful honored, that Ernie's friends would react this way," she said. It's a great tribute to Ernie but I am sure it would have embarrassed him."

'ERNIE PROVIDED'

"And besides, there are so many worthwhile things that really need help. Ernie provided for his family."

In her first interview since Jan. 13, when the cigar-chomping comedian lost his life in an auto crash, the pretty blonde said, "It's true that Ernie's estate has debts and tax troubles."

★ ★ ★

"But all will be paid and, together with my own earning ability, there will be enough for the children's education and upbringing."

Now that time has somewhat eased the grief, Edie has resumed a Hollywood career that had already started to zoom before the fatal crash.

CIGAR COMMERCIALS

She is filming cigar commercials as part of a lucrative two-year deal that will net her a six-figure annual salary.

Since "Lover Come Back," her movie stock has soared. She scored heavily in the Rock Hudson-Doris Day movie and as many a star has found out, it takes only one good part in one hit movie to make Hollywood clamor. Two big picture deals are cooking now.

★ ★ ★

"It's funny," said Miss Adams, "I only came out here because Ernie did. It was the only thing we ever argued about. I liked New York. He liked Hollywood. Now I feel it's my home, where all my friends are. The girls all like it. They don't want to move."

Grateful as she is for her friends' concern, she wants no benefit.

Astrological Forecast

By SYDNEY OMARR
for Tuesday

"The wise man controls his destiny . . . Astrology points the way."

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19): Most gains today achieved by taking creative path. Make things just a bit different . . . apply flair for the dramatic . . . showmanship. A little consideration goes far.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20): Let your heart lead the way . . . show others you can "feel" their problems. Open your mind . . . and your heart. This can bring you success . . . and open doors.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Seeking outside aid could cause disappointment. You best help yourself today . . . by SELF-RELIANCE. Others may mean well . . . but it must be your individuality which shines through.

CANCER (June 22 to July 21): Being obstinate will not, in long run, win your point. You gain the most now by being the moderator . . . by listening . . . and by making CONCESSIONS. Meet others halfway.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): Today could be day when you find others are willing to give credit where it is due. You certainly are in line for your share of accolades . . . accept compliments, honors graciously.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): All indications urge you to take road of independence, originality. Be willing to tear down past in order to constructively rebuild for FUTURE. Now is time to throw fears away . . . be confident, vibrant.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): You could lose out through impatience . . . you could gain by being willing to WAIT AND SEE. Your power is in willingness to study all angles . . . and to perceive the "meaning" of each person. Be the analyst.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Friends could come up with surprises. Offer encouragement . . . otherwise, you could be accused of sour grapes! A kind word, consideration is so easy . . . and could mean much!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): On this day, you must show what you have . . . mere talk, wishful thinking, bluffing will not stand the test. Be willing to attend to details, to unveil plans. If thwarted . . . keep trying!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan 20): Like Taurus, your own hunches, your intuition . . . your ability to sense what others really think . . . come into the spotlight. Don't be immovable . . . make changes . . . be dynamic . . . stress humor!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Face facts of budget situation. Tendency is for you to want to be generous, giving . . . but you should also be realistic about money matters. Ask for accounting.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): If you walk with your eyes shut . . . you almost certainly will bump into something. Stay wide awake, alert. Cycle will soon rise . . . plan now . . . act later.

★ ★ ★

IF TUESDAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY . . . you gain most this year through routine, the discipline of planning, preparing for future. APRIL could be outstanding. You are extremely sympathetic . . . don't let others take advantage of this fact.

★ ★ ★

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A well-guarded secret could be exposed before day is over. Now's time to reveal it. All signs could benefit from study of SAGITTARIUS interpretation today. PISCES must go slow. VIRGO must be willing to tear down in order to create anew.

NOTICE

All interested persons are advised that the widening and reconstruction of M-218 from Commerce Road northeast to the intersection with Pontiac Drive is being planned by the Michigan State Highway Department.

The growth of commerce and industry has been of major proportions along this route, particularly within the incorporated limits of Keego Harbor. Consequently, the need for an expanded facility is urgently needed.

It is proposed to widen the existing highway to four eleven-foot lanes of concrete with curb and gutter and storm drainage facilities. It will be necessary to remove some trees in order to facilitate construction and safety. No major amounts of right-of-way will be acquired although permits for grading will be needed in various places.

Under provisions of Federal law, any citizen who would be affected by the proposed improvement may request in writing that the Michigan State Highway Department hold a formal public hearing at which he will be given the opportunity to be heard concerning the location and the economic effect of the project upon the area. Such a written request must be received on or before March 1, 1962 by John W. Knecht, Jr., Director of Public Hearings, Michigan State Highway Department, Lansing, Michigan.

Feb. 19 and March 1, 1962

Last Year To Date: 10

Dead is William A. Nelson of 54 S. Broadway St.

Hospital authorities said today an autopsy revealed Nelson died from complications of injuries suffered in the accident.

Lake Orion police said Nelson was crossing Broadway Street, between Flint and Front Streets, on the night of Jan. 29 when he was hit by a car driven by Walter C. Hartt, 51, 3271 Metamora Road, Oxford Township.

Hartt was held overnight in the Oakland County Jail following the accident. The next day Hartt paid a $25 fine and $10 costs in Orion Township Justice Court on a charge of drunk and disorderly.

O'Hara to Take Part in School Aid Panel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. James G. O'Hara, D-Utica, will participate in a panel discussion of federal aid to education today at Atlantic City, N.J.

O'Hara will appear at the convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

The congressman said he would tell the administrators they must "share the responsibility for creating the grassroots political climate necessary for passage of education legislation."

Card of Thanks 1

WE WISH TO THANK THE MANY friends, neighbors and relatives for their kind expressions of love and sympathy in the recent loss of our wife and mother, Mrs. Arbert Mae Hollon. Our thanks go to the Rev. Geoffrey Day and Mr. Ralph Sparks of the Sparks-Griffin Funeral Home. Husband Springfield, Jr., and daughter Carole.

In Memoriam 2

IN LOVING MEMORY OF LOSEET-TE Dunn who passed away Feb. 18, 1961.

Still life goes on.
Even though she has gone;
Life has to go on at home.
Sadly missed by sister Mary and family.

IN MEMORY OF LAWRENCE E. Coakley who passed away Feb. 19, 1961.

Not a day do we forget you
In our thoughts you're always near;
Dear, we miss you more each day
As it ends another year.
Wife, Mary; children, Louise Coakley and children, also brother, Alva Coakley.

CHINATOWN'S BEST—Darrah Lau, 19, a clerk-typist from Honolulu, won the Miss Chinatown U.S.A." title Sunday in competition with 13 other girls from Chinese communities across the nation. The contest was a highlight of the Chinese New Year celebration in San Francisco.

Still Hunt 'Man' in Attache Case

Miss Thring in Prison on Suspicion but Cook Now Released

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo, (UPI)—Congolese police reported today they had been unable to find a man wanted for questioning in the slaying last week of Lt. Col Hulen D. Stogner, U. S. embassy assistant military attache.

Assistant Police Chief Joseph Matuba declined to give further details on the man's identity except to say "he may possibly be a white man."

While the search continued, Elizabeth Thring entered her third day of confinement at Malakala Prison on an arrest warrant charging "suspicion" in the case.

The blonde 22-year-old Arlington, Va., woman, described by the U.S. embassy as Stogner's private secretary, was in Stogner's bedroom last Wednesday night when the 39-year-old ex-paratrooper was shot fatally in the neck, according to police.

U.S. Ambassador Edmund A. Gullion returned from Washington Sunday and was briefed immediately on details of the case. There was no comment from the embassy today.

An American doctor who visited Miss Thring at Makala Prison today said she was in good health and being treated well.

But the prison governor said "she is crying all the time."

Police officials said Stogner's Congolese cook, Pierre Ngoyi, had been released from prison but "he is still at the disposition of Congolese authorities."

Pope John Presides at Cardinal's Service

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope John XXIII presided at solemn funeral services in St. Peter Basilica today for Aloisius Cardinal Muench, former bishop of Fargo, N. D.

Thirty-seven cardinals, many archbishops and bishops and others attended the rites for the prince of the church who was the only American cardinal member of the Vatican Curia.

The central preparatory commission for the forthcoming ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church postponed the opening meeting of its current session so that all of its members could attend the Pontifical Mass, among them were three American cardinals — Francis Spellman of New York, Albert Meyer of Chicago and James Francis McIntyre of Los Angeles.

Removal of Berlin Wall Would Hint Peace Wish

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. John J. Sparkman said Sunday that if Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev is really serious about peace he could remove the East Berlin Wall.

* * *

Sparkman also said on a broadcast for southern radio and TV stations that Khrushchev can demonstrate he wants East-West accord by moving toward a nuclear test ban and a settlement of the Laotian situation.

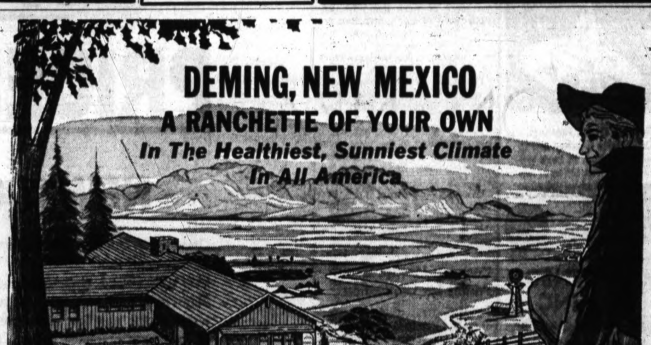
DEMING, NEW MEXICO
A RANCHETTE OF YOUR OWN
In The Healthiest, Sunniest Climate In All America



$199 PER HALF ACRE $5 DOWN $5 PER MONTH

There is a broad ribbon of highway that begins in the heart of Savannah, Georgia and winds for 3000 miles to its terminus in exciting Los Angeles. This ribbon is mighty Route 80—the most travelled all-weather highway in the U.S. Millions of Americans have followed it to the West, coursing through the rich hills of Georgia and Alabama, passing through the heart of Mississippi and Louisiana and entering into the plains of Texas. Gradually the scenery begins to change. Texas begins to roll; distant hills become higher. Then suddenly one emerges into "The Land of Enchantment." New Mexico's wonders erupt in a blaze of color and majesty. The mighty mountains thrust themselves, tree-topped, into the unimaginable blue of the sky. Dust and smoke have vanished from the air and the lungs drink in great delicious draughts in heady delight. If it is wintertime snow may cap the lofty mountains. If it is spring or summer or fall the unspoiled air touches the skin softly and the feeling of well-being is nowhere else equalled. But winter or summer, it is almost certain the sun will be shining in New Mexico—the sunniest, healthiest state of all 50. Yet great 80 is just beginning to take you through the sunshine wonderland of America. In the tropical southwestern pocket of our country you glide through towns like Las Cruces and Deming. A short while westward and you are in Tucson and Phoenix, Arizona, and from there the West Coast beckons. But nowhere in the Southwest is there a more beautiful area than the mountain-rimmed, pure-aired New Mexico region of Las Cruces and Deming.

To live anywhere in New Mexico is to live better. The superb climate, naturally air-conditioned in the summer and brilliantly sunny in the winter—the breathtaking beauty of a lavish Nature—the young vigor of a state that is causing an unprecedented business and investment boom—the record which shows that one lives longer, that health improvement is almost miraculous—these are the reasons that tens of thousands of Americans already have come here to live, and hundreds of thousands of others will be following in the immediate years ahead.

Consider then: Here in the center of this miraculous climate and beauty are towns which have grown amazingly in the last 10 years. Las Cruces, for example: In 1950 it had 12,000 people. By 1960, 37,000 . . . a rise of 300% in 10 years! (How about your town? Has it grown 3 times its size in 10 years?) Like Tucson and Phoenix, this area is a beautiful semi-tropical paradise where palm trees and long staple cotton-fields flower the landscape. Statistics show the same 85% of possible sunshine, summer and winter; these same figures reveal even purer, drier air than in Phoenix or Tucson.

A few minutes from the flavorful city of Deming (population 8,000) is a 5,000 acre Ranch, picture-framed by the breathtaking Florida Mountains. So real, so beautiful, so typically the romance of the Southwest is this valley Ranch that it has been photographed for the covers of many magazines including the official publication of the State of New Mexico. What better way to describe its Southwestern flavor than to tell you that when the producers of the movie THE TALL TEXAN sought an authentic locale for their picture, they chose the very land we are now sub-dividing into the DEMING RANCHETTES. THE TALL TEXAN was filmed on our ranch, the same place where you may have a Ranchette of your very own!

This is the lovely basin of land where heavy equipment is now at work constructing wide roads facing every DEMING RANCHETTE. Every Ranchette will have direct access to avenues leading to three major highways surrounding our property—U.S. Highways 80, 70 and State Highway 11.

DEMING RANCHETTES is blessed with water which is called "America's finest drinking water, 99.99% pure." (Almost every shop in Deming displays this proud claim in its window.) Home building has already begun in DEMING RANCHETTES and electric lines and telephone connections await you. Schools, hospitals, churches, shops, theaters, golf course, tennis courts—these are close by in the charming growing city of Deming. Fertile soil is yours for the planting, and wait until you see the stunning landscape of cotton fields in bloom. Fruit trees . . . apple, peach, pear and plum . . . do not grow better anywhere.

And the price of your Ranchette? Just $199 complete for a half-acre, $5 down and $5 monthly. That's the complete price—no extras, no interest, no taxes! At this moment you may reserve as many half-acre sites as you wish but please bear this in mind: DEMING RANCHETTES is not an enormous development and land such as this goes fast. At these prices you may want your Ranchette to be larger—one, two—even five acres. An immediate deposit will guarantee that your half-acres will adjoin each other (this may not be so in the near future). And you take no risk in sending your deposit. Your $5 per half-acre will definitely reserve your land but does not obligate you. You have the unqualified right to change your mind 30 days after we send you your Purchaser's Agreement, Property Owner's Kit, Maps and Photographs—30 full days to go through the portfolio, check our references, talk it over with the family. If, during that time, you should indeed change your mind your reservation deposit will be instantly refunded. (Deming and Albuquerque Bank references.)

Ten years ago, in nearby Las Cruces, a comparable fertile half-acre such as we offer in DEMING RANCHETTES could have been bought for $199. Today it's up to $2000! Experienced realtors predict the same future for Deming—in a much shorter time! If this makes sense to you your next act is mailing the coupon below. And one more thing: we promise that no salesman will annoy you. Thanks, sincerely, for your attention.

DEMING RANCHETTES Dept. 363
112 West Pine Street, Deming, New Mexico
Gentlemen: I wish to reserve the following site in Deming Ranchettes
☐ ½ acre for $199. I enclose $5 as a deposit.

Endorses U.S. Summit Stand

Report Adenauer OKs 'Go Slow' Approach in Message to Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer was reported today to have endorsed the U.S. "go slow" approach to a summit conference in a message to President Kennedy.

Diplomatic sources said that West German Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe, who returned Saturday from Bonn, was seeking to arrange a meeting with Kennedy this week to deliver the message.

These sources said that the message dealt with Adenauer's recent talks with French President Charles de Gaulle, Soviet motives in the Berlin harassment, disarmament and other issues.

★ ★ ★

Adenauer was understood to have sent a substantive analysis of the disarmament question in which West Germany is deeply interested, although it is not a participant in the 18-nation Geneva conference scheduled for March 14.

★ ★ ★

He commented on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's technique in seeking to turn the Geneva meeting into a summit conference, according to the sources here.

The Adenauer message also was said to contain possible suggestions for Allied diplomatic strategy in view of the failure by U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko to find any common ground in their Moscow talks for negotiations on Berlin.

Adenauer always has been skeptical of the wisdom of the West agreeing to any summit conference with Russia, although he has not been as strongly opposed as De Gaulle.

Tax Director Claims Form Simple to Do

R. I. Nixon, district director of Internal Revenue, suggested today that the average taxpayer can complete his tax return by using the free instruction booklet that accompanies the return.

For those with more complicated problems, Nixon recommends the purchase of the tax guide, "Your Federal Income Tax."

The director stated that these publications are available at all Internal Revenue Service offices at a cost of 40 cents per copy.

Nixon described the publication, "Your Federal Income Tax," as being well indexed, clearly written and containing many useful examples. Also included in the publication is a sample return, Form 1040, completely filled out.

Hits 50th Year as Congressman

Sen. Hayden Has Been in House, Senate Since Arizona Joined Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Carl Hayden, who swapped his Western sheriff's badge for a seat in Congress five days after Arizona became a state, today becomes the first man to serve as a member of Congress for 50 years.

★ ★ ★

The 84-year-old Democrat, third in line of succession to the president, was sworn into the House of Representatives Feb. 19, 1912. After 15 years as Arizona's only representative in the House, Hayden moved to the Senate in 1927.

Today he is dean of the Senate and the Congress. However, he is little known outside Washington because he resolutely shuns publicity and rarely speaks in public.

Hayden was asked in a recent interview to name his greatest accomplishment. With typical modesty, he replied:

★ ★ ★

"I just can't do it. A man does one piece of work one time, another piece of work, and then another. To look back 50 years and say one thing is more important than another is something I can't do."

Last November, at a testimonial dinner in Phoenix, President Kennedy had this to say about Hayden:

"Every federal program which has contributed to the West — irrigation, power and reclamation — bears his mark. And the great federal highway program which binds this country together, which permits this state to be competitive East and West, North and South — this in large measure is his creation."

Common Market Group Pushes for Unification

PARIS (UPI)—Political experts of the six European Common Market nations resumed efforts here today to agree on a blueprint for a politically united Europe.

The experts—known as the Fouchet Committee—met at the French Foreign Office. The meeting was expected to last two days.

The six common market nations are France, West Germany, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Cubans, Beset by Problems, Hold Carnival

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP)—Cubans tried Sunday to forget food shortages and other problems as they made merry in Cuba's "first Socialist carnival."

★ ★ ★

Havana radio, monitored here, described it as "the greatest in Cuban history, filled with the joy and happiness of the people." The event was televised.

★ ★ ★

Dancing masqueraders and decorated coaches paraded for hours through principal Havana streets.

Every Saturday and Sunday will be carnival day until March 18, the broadcast said.

Snow, Ice Wreak Havoc on Midwest

Smiles . . . for Good Reason

HISTORIC MOMENT — E. M. (Pete) Estes (right), General Motors vice president and general manager of Pontiac Motor Division, congratulates Frank V. Bridge, Pontiac sales manager, at the opening of the Chicago Automobile Show Saturday. It had just been announced that Pontiac captured third place in auto industry sales for 1961. It was the first third place finish in the division's history. An unidentified man is putting finishing touches on signs signifying the sales record.

Threaten to Stay 5 Days; Hit Rest of the Country

County Traffic Slowed as Sleet, Freezing Rain Compound Woes Here

A treacherous snow-and-ice storm, which attacked the entire Midwest over the weekend, today showed signs of staying for a five-day siege here and also pushing its wet and chill offensive east and south across the nation.

The witches' broth of snow, sleet, freezing rain and drizzle slopped over onto Oakland County beginning late yesterday afternoon and slowed traffic to a crawl.

However by 10 a.m. this morning, the county and Pontiac appeared on the way to recovery. Schools — except Pontiac's St. Frederick's — were open, City streets were in good condition but slushy.

County Road Commission trucks and plows — totaling over 50 — continued to go over previously plowed and salted areas again and again, as stubborn ice and snow clung to the pavements. Cautious travel on thoroughfares was possible.

Freezing drizzle and snow flurries were expected here this afternoon, and rain and snow were expected to fall Wednesday and Friday. Cold ranging from 10 to 30 degrees was forecast for the next five days.

★ ★ ★

This area got off comparatively easy as only 3½ to five inches of snow were reported as contrasted with 12 inches in Michigan's Thumb area and 31 inches at Sioux Falls, S.D.

At least three persons died in the state in traffic accidents on icy roads. All Michigan highways remained snow-covered and slippery. Some side roads in the northern half of the Lower Peninsula and the Muskegon-Grand Rapids area were closed.

The eight-state storm belt spread into areas in North Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Michigan.

HEADS NORTHEASTWARD

It moved into northern Indiana and Ohio and headed northeastward, with heavy snowfall indicated in the northeastern upper Lakes region to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

In the Midwest, thousands of motorists were stranded as strong winds whipped snow into drifts. Travel in southern Minnesota was virtually halted. In Wisconsin up to 150 cars were stalled on a single highway in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties.

Some 700 ice fishermen, women and children were trapped for several hours Sunday on Lake Poygan.

IT'S A COLD STRIKE — As heated opinions about the blanketing Midwest storm rose from drivers like smoke signals, left drivers were more unhappy than this Sioux Falls, S.D., resident. Equipped with a shovel, he started "panning" for his car under the 31-inch snow which engulfed the city Sunday. He struck pay dirt a few hours later, when a glistening vein of chrome told him he had found his claim.

Pontiac Ranks Third in Auto Sales for '61

Pontiac sales ranked third in the automobile industry last year. It was the first time in Pontiac Motor Division history that the division ranked that high for a calendar year.

★ ★ ★

Registration figures received this weekend made the third-place finish official, said E. M. (Pete) Estes, General Motors vice president and general manager of the division. It finished fourth that year.

The year before last, Pontiac was fifth in sales.

Pontiac has been leading the medium priced field in the industry since 1959 and has been GM's second largest division in sales since then.

"This is the first time in Pontiac's 36-year history that our sales banner has flown so high," said Estes in his message to employes.

"I want to sincerely thank all of you for making this achievement possible. Needless to say, as a result of your concerted efforts we are able to share in this success today."

According to latest figures, Pontiac's hold on third place in 1962 has been strengthened. Pontiac sales for the first four months of current model-run total 155,810, a record for the division.

★ ★ ★

"We must continue to design and build our cars to fulfill the varied demands of the customer. This provides us with an opportunity and challenge for concentrating all our efforts to improve the reliability of our product," Estes added.

Retail deliveries by Pontiac dealers in the first 10-day sales period of February totaled 11,776, a 55 per cent gain over the same period last year. Sales for the month of January were 55,881, a 39 per cent increase over the 25,780 Pontiacs sold last year.

In finishing third last year, Pontiac and Tempest sales edged out Rambler by about 2,000.

OUTSTANDING FEAT

Division officials pointed out that a medium-priced car beating out a smaller car in sales was an outstanding achievement.

Pontiac was placed third by R. L. Polk, the recognized industry statistical agency. In a report, Polk said next to the two volume producers, Pontiac sold more cars than any other make.

Sends Congress Public Work Bill

Legislation Would Give President Power to Spend $2 Billion

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

★ ★ ★

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

The standby plan, part of the three-point program urged by Kennedy in his economic message Jan. 22, has been hailed by most Democrats but attacked by Republicans as a potential invasion of congressional authority.

OTHER REQUESTS

The other requested measures were standby powers to reduce income taxes subject to veto by Congress and permanently enlarged unemployment benefits.

The three, Kennedy said, would permit the government to act "more promptly, more flexibly and more forcefully to stabilize the economy."

The administration bill set out a formula which would permit the President to start the works programs. He could move when unemployment had risen in three out of four, or four out of six consecutive months by not less than one percentage point, and after the President determined that the action was needed to attain the goals of the employment act of 1946 — maximum employment, production and purchasing power.

Optimistic Rumor in Paris; Algerian Cease Fire Close

PARIS (AP) — The French said today secret talks with the Algerian Nationalist rebels have ended, leading to speculation a ceasefire may be near. But a rebel spokesman insisted negotiations still are going on.

★ ★ ★

A French announcement said "the conclusions . . . will be brought before the government." France's three-man negotiating team arrived in Paris from the talks and met at once with President Charles de Gaulle.

★ ★ ★

Arriving at his headquarters in Tunis from the talks with the French, rebel Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab told reporters:

"Negotiations are going on in very good conditions."

Dahlab declined to elaborate. While his statement did not appear to rule out the possibility of a ceasefire soon, it indicated further contacts with the French are necessary before final agreement can be announced.

★ ★ ★

REBEL GROUP TO MEET

The full rebel government is expected to meet soon to discuss the secret talks. It also was thought likely the rebels would call a meeting of their parliament, the national council of the Algerian revolution, which must have a say on any peace accord.

Earlier, diplomatic quarters in Paris expressed belief the wording of the French announcement indicated an agreement had been reached for ending the nearly 7½-year-old rebellion.

With a feeling of optimism prevailing in Paris, the price of gold fell off slightly. Frenchmen usually sell gold when the political outlook takes a favorable turn.

★ ★ ★

Louis Joxe, French minister for Algerian affairs and chief negotiator, arrived in Paris to make his report to De Gaulle. Joxe was accompanied by Premier Michel Debre, and his two fellow negotiators, Sahara minister Jean de Broglie and public works minister Robert Buron, on his visit to the president.

★ ★ ★

A French spokesman confirmed for the first time what was generally known all along, that the secret talks had taken place Feb. 11-18. He said they were held on French soil. It was believed the two sides met near the Swiss border.

Joxe and two other French ministers met with rebel Vice Premier Belkacem Krim, Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab and two other Algerian rebel officials.

The Algerians had left their Tunis headquarters Feb. 10 to meet the French at a secret location.

★ ★ ★

Throughout the week optimism reigned both in Paris and Tunis over progress of the talks. But over the weekend there was a note of pessimism with reports from Tunis that difficulties had cropped up.

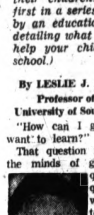
Parents: You Can Help

(Editor's Note — Parents are every bit as important as teachers in the education of their children. This is the first in a series of 15 articles by an educational authority detailing what you can do to help your child succeed in school.)

By LESLIE J. NASON, D.ED.
Professor of Education, University of Southern California

"How can I get my child to want to learn?"

That question is uppermost in the minds of good parents: a question most frequently asked when parents and teachers meet to discuss education.



DR. NASON in stimulating their child's thirst for knowledge.

The problem is not one for teachers alone to solve.

Parents themselves have an important — perhaps the most important — role in this series of articles we are going to outline some of the ways in which you can help your child to succeed in school by creating and enhancing his desire to learn.

★ ★ ★

Parents are the most important people on earth to children.

★ ★ ★

Father's political party or make of car is likely to be Junior's choice, too. Mother's way of cooking or cleaning will become little Susie's way of doing things.

Children also tend to share their parents' views about school.

AN INFLUENCE

If Daddy says, "I always liked school. Things I learned in school help me with my job," Junior decides that he likes school.

If Mother says, "From the time I was a little girl, I knew I would go to college." Susie decides that college is for her, too.

But if Daddy says, "I hated school. I couldn't wait for the time to quit," Junior rates school as a bore.

And if Mother says, "Don't bother me with your homework. I have more important thins to do," Susie looks at homework as of little or no importance.

First and foremost in a child's education needs is family approval of learning.

With it, he is off to a flying

Liz Taylor Leaves Hospital; Burton Denies Romance

ROME (UPI) — Elizabeth Taylor left the hospital today after a weekend bout with food poisoning and her leading man issued a statement denouncing "uncontrolled rumors" that they were romantically inclined.

Richard Burton, 36-year-old Welsh-born actor who plays Marc Antony opposite Miss Taylor in the movie "Cleopatra," said he was the victim of distorted statements and a series of coincidences. He said he and the 29-year-old Miss Taylor are just "good friends."

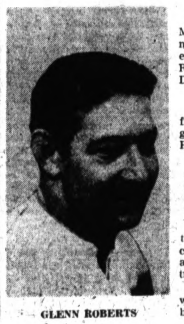
Pontiac Sets Speed Record



GLENN ROBERTS

From Our Wire Services

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. — MASCAR officials scheduled a meeting today to determine whether Glenn (Fireball) Roberts or Richard Petty won Sunday's rich Daytona 500 mile stock car race.

★ ★ ★

Roberts crossed the finish line first in his gleaming black and gold Pontiac 27 seconds ahead of Petty, but Petty lodged a protest.

The Randleman, N.C., youngster, who drove a Plymouth, claimed that Roberts used too many men to service his car on the last pit stop.

However, officials indicated that the protest would be disallowed because it wasn't made immediately and Roberts flagged from the track.

Regardless of who is adjudged winner, a world's record will have been set for a continuous 500-mile auto race. Roberts toured the track, which has steeply banked turns at an average speed of 152.529 miles an hour. The old mark of 149.601 was set in last year's Daytona 500 by Marvin Panch of Daytona Beach.

Following Petty across the finish line were Joe Weatherly, Norfolk, Va., in a 1962 Pontiac; Jack Smith, Spartanburg, S.C., in a 1962 Pontiac and Fred Lorenzen, Elmhurst, Ill., in a 1962 Ford.

Others in the top ten were David Pearson, Spartanburg, S.C., 1961 Pontiac; Rex White, Spartanburg, 1962 Chevrolet; Edwin (Banjo) Matthews, Asheville, N.C., 1962 Pontiac; Ned Jarrett, Newton, N.C., 1962 Chevrolet, and Bob Welborn, Greensboro, N.C., 1962 Pontiac.

First place was worth more than $21,000. Other purses brought the total for the race to approximately $106,000, making it the richest stock car race ever. Another record was set when more than 62,000 persons jammed into the speedway.

There were several accidents, but only one driver, Elzi Buck Baker of Charlotte, N.C., was hospitalized. Doctors said he cracked three ribs when his big Chrysler ripped into a retaining fence.

Reporter a 'Svelte' 207 Pounds Survives Survival Diet

By DICK SAUNDERS

For someone whose only previous claim to fame was soft knee-caps, I've come a long way.

Now I'm a real ladies man. I got a lap, too!

The last of the red-hot papas has survived. In my two weeks on fallout shelter survival food, I went from a rotund 217 pounds to a svelte 207.

Most important, I feel better than I did when I started. During the second week I used General Mills Multi-Purpose Food (MPF) exclusively. I had supplemented it was Quaker Emergency Ration (QER) during the first week.

The test taught me two things: Fatigue is your worst enemy and variety is the key to good eating.

Naturally, in a fallout shelter I wouldn't be moving around much and, thus, I wouldn't be bothered much by fatigue. Maybe boredom would be my worst enemy.

But continuing normal activity while living on these condensed foods required that I get a good eight hours sleep each night—I learned that early.

My second and third days were rough. I was nearly ex-

COPTERS BRING IN SUPPLIES — Men unload supplies from a U. S. Army helicopter in a flood-stricken area near Hamburg, Germany. This area is still cut off from the surrounding section by flood waters that inundated Hamburg and a large section of West Germany. The death toll may exceed 300 and thousands are homeless. More bad weather is predicted today.

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)— Strong winds were forecast again today for the flood-stricken North Sea coast where the toll of dead and missing mounted to 252, but authorities said there was no immediate new threat.

★ ★ ★

Flags were at half-staff as the area went into mourning for victims of the weekend's wind-whipped floods that wreaked damage running into hundreds of millions of dollars.

★ ★ ★

Officials said it would take several days to get a complete casualty list of the toll taken by the slowly receding waters which left the area looking like a battlefield.

'COPTERS FLY MISSIONS

The search was stepped up as several special units were brought in to comb the flood areas. More than 100 helicopters were flying supply and evacuation missions.

★ ★ ★

Tens of thousands of persons spent their third night in flood-surrounded houses.

Supplies were running low and drinking water was rationed in some areas. Many houses were without electricity or heat.

★ ★ ★

In Hamburg alone, 107 bodies had been recovered by midnight Sunday. At least another 109 were reported missing and believed dead in the stricken city.

★ ★ ★

Twenty-four people were reported to have perished on the coast of the state of Lower Saxony which extends to the Dutch border. Another seven died in the city state of Bremen, one was drowned in Schleswig-Hostein and four German soldiers died during rescue operations.

Emergency crews repairing broken dikes were assisted by German and British army engineers.

★ ★ ★

Hamburg police warned they would shoot plunderers on sight.

West German President Heinrich Luebke surveyed the disaster area by helicopter, as the Bonn government offered federal aid.

American and British residents joined Germans in the nationwide relief campaign for flood victims. The U.S. Army made available 50,000 blankets and articles of clothing.

Area Electricians to Seek 30 Hours, Full Week's Pay

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit area construction electricians, following the lead of their New York counterparts who recently won a 25-hour work week, will seek a 30-hour work week with 40-hour pay.

Daniel J. Diamond, business manager of Local 58 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW) said 622 of the local's 2,700 members are unemployed.

"Something's got to be done—either we share the work there is, or there will be more people on relief," he said.

Diamond said the union currently is negotiating with the Detroit Electrical Contractors Asso. for a contract to replace one expiring April 30. The union local covers Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Hopes Brighter for Space Shot

Weather Is Improving in Cape Area; Chances for Flight Are Up

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A brightening weather picture buoyed hopes today that astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will be launched toward a round-the-earth orbit Tuesday after months of delays.

★ ★ ★

At a briefing shortly after 9 a.m. (Pontiac time) Project Mercury officials reported "generally improved conditions" in the Atlantic Ocean recovery areas where Marine Lt. Col. Glenn's capsule would descent.

The first half of a split two-day countdown was started at 2:30 a.m. The precount was finished at 6 a.m., with both the Atlas booster rocket and Friendship 7 spacecraft described as in "go" condition.

Officials were shooting for a launch between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

GAVE SOME CONDERN

The weather outlook in the Cape Canaveral vicinity gave officials some concern. A cold front preceded by a squall line was advancing into Northern Florida this morning. This could leave lingering cloudiness in the Cape area Tuesday, possibly delaying the shot for the 11th time.

However, officials were hopeful holes could be found in the clouds through which the rocket could be fired.

A complete check of the weather was due for about midnight tonight, after which officials were to make a preliminary "go or no go" decision.

★ ★ ★

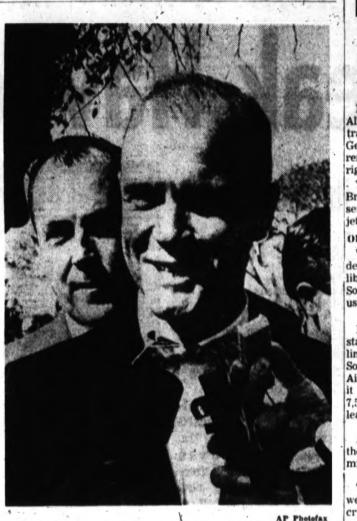
"We feel a lot more optimistic today than we did yesterday," said Lt. Col. John A. Powers, spokesman for the astronauts.

"Conservatively I would say the odds are at least 60-40 in our favor."

Powers said one change had been made in the lineup of ships poised to recover Glenn. The aircraft carrier Forrestal has replaced the carrier Constellation in the area — 500 miles east of Bermuda — where Glenn would come down if he made only one orbit, instead of the hoped-for three.

★ ★ ★

"Relaxed as he can be," Glenn planned to phone his wife and parents tonight before going to bed about 7 or 8 o'clock.



AP Photofax

"RELAXED AS CAN BE" — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. meets newsmen and well wishers with a big smile as he leaves church services at Cocoa Beach, Fla., Sunday. As he headed back to the Cape for meetings and training sessions before his round-the-world space flight try, he told newsmen, "I'm not a bit nervous. I'm relaxed as can be."

Tense Peace Over British Guiana City

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—An uncertain peace settled on this tropical capital today after a siege of rioting, looting and burning. Labor leaders called off their general strike against leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, but his East Indian followers were reported plotting reprisals in the hinterlands.

British armed forces, hurriedly flown from Jamaica and London on appeal from Jagan, were braced for trouble, although fire-blackened Georgetown was quiet.

British officials said Sunday night more troops were due in today to reinforce those that arrived Friday and Saturday.

The situation remained tense until it could be determined whether workers would obey their union leaders' call to return to their jobs.

Racial tensions between Negroes and East Indians ran high after rioting Negro mobs burned a half-mile square of Georgetown's business center and its East Indian stores last Friday. The rioting left six dead, scores injured and $11 million property damage.

Jagan, an East Indian himself, gets most of his support from East Indian farmers and workers outside Georgetown. Negroes generally support Forbes Burnham, leader of the People's National Congress party, whom Jagan defeated in last August's election.

Tensions relaxed somewhat Sunday night, with the announcement of labor leaders that they had called off their week-long strike.

The back-to-work call came after the union leaders met three and a half hours with Jagan. One negotiator said Jagan agreed to a series of demands.

A terse radio announcement said the unions, grouping civil servants, government employes and primary schoolteachers, had asked them to return to work with the Trade Union Council also recommending its 12,000 strikers to resume work.

Civil servants and teachers struck for higher wages. The Trades Union Council protested Jagan's plans for higher import taxes and a compulsory savings scheme which the council claimed hurt workers more than the rich.

A Trades Union Council announcement said Jagan promised to impose price controls to prevent importers from passing on duties to consumers and to consider the replacement of the compulsory savings program with a voluntary savings scheme.

Observers said, however, the strike basically was against the leftist leanings of Jagan.

Arrest Strikers; Charge Shooting

20 Accused of Firing at Driver, Trucks of Alabama Company

WASHINGTON (AP)—Twenty strikers were arrested today on charges of conspiring to interfere with interstate commerce by shooting at drivers and trucks of the Bowman Transportation Co. of Gadsden, Ala. The alleged offenses all took place in, Alabama and Georgia since Nov. 4.

The firm has been involved in a violence-studded strike by Birmingham Teamster Union Local 612 since that date.

Acting Atty. Gen. Byron R. White said a three-count indictment was returned last Wednesday in U.S. district court in Birmingham against the local president, George Samuel Webb, 42, and 19 other strikers.

★ ★ ★

The indictment remained sealed until the arrests were made today.

He said evidence leading to the indictment was developed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The indictment listed six shootings at Bowman vehicles in Georgia and Alabama and a seventh shooting at the Gadsden home of a Bowman employe. The shootings occurred between Dec. 3 and Jan. 18, the government said.

gan, near Oshkosh, Wis., as a blinding snow storm darkened the area. They were led to safety by state conservation workers and volunteers.

★ ★ ★

In Oakland County the biggest obstacle faced by drivers was getting out of driveways and sideroads piled high with ice-crusted drifts.

Pontiac Municipal Airport reported its main east-west runway open after plows cleared 5 inches of snow.

The state fatalities attributed directly to the storm included:

★ ★ ★

Grover Munn Jr., 38, of Laingsburg, was killed Sunday night when struck by a car during a snowstorm on M78 near Laingsburg in Shiawassee County.

HEAD-ON COLLISION

Snow also was blamed for a head-on collision in downtown Holland in which Mrs. Julia De Boer, 65, of Holland, a passenger in a car driven by her husband, was killed Sunday.

Another death was that of one-year-old Richard Carlson of Freeland. The infant was killed when a toboggan in the rear of the family station wagon was rammed forward by the impact of collision with another auto near Midland Sunday night.

In the Pontiac area colder temperatures are expected tonight with the low around 15 degrees. Tuesday's outlook includes partly cloudy skies with little change in temperature and a high of 30.

★ ★ ★

During the next five-day period temperatures will average three to five degrees below the normal high of 32 to 38 and the normal low of 14 to 22. Colder weather is expected Thursday, warmer Friday and colder again Saturday, according to the U.S. Weather Bureau report.

Precipitation will average nearly one-half inch as snow, possibly mixed with rain, mostly Wednesday and Friday with a few snow flurries likely.

Easterly winds 15 to 25 miles late this morning will become northerly tonight.

The lowest temperature reading preceding 8 a.m. today was a cool 21 degrees shortly after midnight. At 1 p.m. the thermometer recorded 34.

4 Dance Off With Loot

Urban Dept. Plan Snagged

Motion's Prospects Dim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prospects were dim for early approval of President Kennedy's urban affairs proposal as Congress resumed a regular work schedule today.

★ ★ ★

The administration apparently faces at least a week's delay in a Senate test of the controversial plan to create a Cabinet-level urban department.

★ ★ ★

In the House, the situation was even gloomier for supporters of the plan. Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., acknowledged Sunday in a television interview that the administration does not have sufficient votes at this time to approve it.

SEE SENATE APPROVAL

Administration leaders feel the Senate eventually will approve the reorganization proposal, but plans to begin debate today apparently have gone by the boards.

Congress mostly marked time last week while many Republican members were away extolling Abraham Lincoln in traditional party rallies. Swinging back into action, the House plans to take up two administration-backed measures Tuesday.

★ ★ ★

One would permit a $2-billion temporary increase in the national debt ceiling. The other calls for a program of retraining workers displaced by automation.

TO HEAR FREEMAN

The House Agriculture Committee hears today from Secretary Orville L. Freeman on the administration's sweeping new farm program and House tax writers begin a last round of discussions of Kennedy's tax revision proposals.

On the Senate side, a special Armed Services subcommittee resumes its investigation of government censorship practices. The Foreign Relations Comittee may conclude today its public hearings on Kennedy's call for U.S. purchase of half a $200-million U.N. bond issue.

Kennedy's urban affairs proposal has run into a snag in the Senate in the person of Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark. The Government Operations Committee he heads concluded its hearings Friday, but McClellan says he had no plans to call it into session today to take final action.

★ ★ ★

To force a showdown and a committee vote the administration could move to discharge the committee. Few thought the administration would want to take on McClellan in any such battle.

West Is Flying 'Low' to Berlin

Allies Ready to Send In Fighter Patrols if Red Jets Interfere

BERLIN (AP) — The Western Allies set up flights of military transports over Communist East Germany today in defiance of a renewed Soviet threat to Allied air rights to isolated Berlin.

The United States, France and Britain were reported prepared to send in fighter patrols if Soviet jets buzz the Allied planes.

ORDERED TO FLY LOW

Western commanders gave orders for the transports to fly deliberately below the level the Soviets want for their exclusive use for a three-hour period.

★ ★ ★

For the sixth time since it started harassing Western air links to Berlin on Feb. 7, the Soviet air force told the Berlin Air Safety Center Sunday night it was reserving air space up to 7,500 feet in the north corridor leading to Berlin from Hamburg.

★ ★ ★

Allied control officers rejected the Soviet flight plan and ordered military transports to stand by.

★ ★ ★

The Soviet move came after a weekend pause in the Berlin air crisis. Sunday morning, Moscow announced it had rejected a three-power protest that maneuvers of the Red air force in the corridors were dangerous and illegal.

The Allies insist that air safety rules, in force for 17 years, require notification of each individual flight through the three 20-mile wide corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hannover and Hamburg.

★ ★ ★

The Western powers charged the Russians were trying to change the rules by making block bookings" for the Red air force. The Allies do not dispute Soviet contentions the Red air force has equal rights in the corridors but they insist on carrying out the safety rules.

Maple Road Home Damaged by Fire

A fire of undetermined origin caused an estimated damage of $20,000 to a Bloomfield Township home yesterday afternoon.

★ ★ ★

The kitchen and an upstairs bedroom were gutted by a blaze in the tri-level home of Curtis C. Whittlesey, 4790 W. Maple Road.

★ ★ ★

No one was home when the fire was discovered by a passing motorist shortly before 2 p.m.

"My parents always encouraged questions. They made it clear that there was no such thing as a foolish question. If they didn't know the answer, they helped me find it."

NOT ALWAYS EASY

It isn't always easy to manage the activities of a family so each member can fill all his needs without becoming a problem to someone else. It is possible, however, for the family to plan activities so each member knows that others are considering his needs and desires.

When television, recreation and the dozens of other activities of the home are regulated to provide time for homework and family discussion, school is given its proper place of importance.

Parents set the attitude toward learning that children adopt as their own.

Provide your children with a place and time to study. Have reference books handy. Encourage them to look up words in the dictionary and places in the atlas. Encourage them to study each subject, not just do homework assignments.

Let them enter family discussions about current events. Listen to good music together. Read good books with them. Go to libraries, museums, zoos, art galleries with your children.

Always consider school and education important, thus creating family approval of learning.

The Day in Birmingham

Name Drive Cochairman for Community House

BIRMINGHAM—Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen of 625 Bennington Drive, Bloomfield Hills, has been named cochairman of the 1962 Birmingham Community House fund drive.

Mrs. Van Dusen was a member of the Community House board of directors from 1945 to 1948 and is a member of the board of St. Peter's Home for Boys.

★ ★ ★

She also is affiliated with the Tribute Fund of United Community Services and the Village Women's Club of Birmingham.

Thoburn H. Wiant, board president of the Community House, said, "Mrs. Van Dusen's acceptance typifies a ready willingness on the part of community leaders to actively support continuance of the broad aims of the Community House."

Edward H. Lerchen, a vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Co., is general chairman of the fund campaign to raise $50,500.

The two-week campaign begins March 1.

A Bloomfield Hills youth is among 100 Navy enlisted men participating in an extended test of fallout shelter living conditions.

The sailor is Jeffrey F. Hanway, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Hanway Jr. of 1530 Kensington Road. Another county serviceman, Charles W. Evans of 2139 Romeo St., Ferndale, also is taking part in the test which began Saturday.

The shelter is at the Navy Medical Center at Bethesda, Md.

The volunteers, who have just completed boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Illinois, have not been told how long they will be confined to the underground shelter.

Three other Michigan men are taking part in the test.

Birmingham Temple 94, Pythian Sisters, will host Erma Moore of Niles, grand chief of Michigan, which she makes her official visit Wednesday.

The 8 p.m. meeting will be held at the Birmingham Community House.

At that time, past chiefs Mable Smith and Rose Colwell will receive their 25- and 40-year pins, respectively.

The meeting will be preceded by a 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Traffic accidents in Birmingham during January showed a reduction over the preceding month but there was a substantial increase over the similar period last year.

Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley reported that there were 80 collisions last month compared to 105 in December, but there were 18 more accidents in January 1962 as compared to the same month in 1961.

Reporter Survives 2-Week Fallout Diet

hausted after only five hours of sleep, an amount I usually find quite sufficient.

The protein, vitamin and mineral content of MPF I can't deny. My first week I came down with a head cold. With me, head colds always seem to become chest infections and I'm laid up forever.

I stuck to the diet, though, and the cold was gone in four days.

Variety is the answer to hunger. Until you eat pretty much the same thing every day for two weeks, you can't imagine how good food looks.

★ ★ ★

Whether I was hungry for ice cream, pizza, or a juicy steak, it all added up to one thing — my hunger was for something different.

I've noticed in the past that most of the antifallout shelter supporters are female. I now wonder if it's just that they can't stand the thought of dieting for 14 days.

'NO BIG PROBLEM'

From a survival standpoint, the test proved to me that stocking a fallout shelter is no large problem.

The bulky item is water. Aside from that, my other needs are few in number and compact in size. Without limiting my intake of liquids, I found my normal water consumption is more than the 2 quarts daily recommended in civil defense folders.

Over the 14-day test period, I consumed a total of 9½ gallons of water. Of this, one gallon was used in food preparation and one in combination with powdered milk.

Most of the water was used in the 6 gallons of coffee I drank, while 1½ gallons were taken straight. I also used 3½ quarts of evaporated milk in food preparation.

★ ★ ★

I consumed 3 pounds, 14 ounces of MPF and about 12 ounces of the QER, one cup of peanut butter, two cups of sugar, three 5½-ounce cans of soup, 60 crackers, eight ounces of applesauce, and about 1½ quarts of juice.

SMOKING UP SLIGHTLY

Extracts, cinammon and other seasoning items were used in trace quantities. I smoked an average of 40 cigarettes per day, a little above normal for me.

The hardest thing to get used to is room-temperature liquids. Unless you can figure out some ingenius refrigeration unit for your shelter, you'll have to do without anything cold.

A small gas or canned heat-type stove is necessary. Although the manufacturer suggests that MPF used in combination with other semi-liquid foods, I "lived" a few days on it with water and powdered milk alone and have no doubt that I could do the same for two weeks.

I'm wiser, thinner and healthier. Now all I need is a shelter.

Install Radar in Most Planes

Airlines Meet Safety Deadline

By ROBERT J. SERLING
UPI Aviation Editor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's airlines have met one of the most vital air safety deadlines in history — equipping five out of every six planes with airborne weather radar in less than two years.

★ ★ ★

In June, 1960, the Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) told the carriers they must install storm-warning radar on all but their ancient DC3's and C46's no later than Jan. 1, 1962.

The deadline was met, the FAA reported today, with the result that 83.3 per cent of the country's 1,800 airliners now have radar. When the order first was issued, less than 50 per cent were so equipped.

The newer pure jets and prop-jets always have had radar installed at the factory. But at the time of the FAA's 1960 rule, approximately 900 older piston-engine aircraft lacked the "little black box" that charts thunderstorm intensity and turbulence as far as 150 miles ahead of a plane. The 900 total did not include the exempt DC3's and C46's.

COST $36 MILLION

To put radar on the older planes cost the airlines an estimated $36 million. The price tag per installation on an older Constellation, DC6, DC7, Convair or Martin averaged $40,000 — including structural modification, labor, spare parts and the radar unit itself.

The price did not include the cost of taking a plane out of service for varying periods, depending on the amount of modification necessary.

The FAA radar order also exempts planes operating over certain areas in Alaska and Hawaii where thunderstorms are so rare, they are not considered a menace.

★ ★ ★

The DC3 was not included because the installation expense was regarded as too great for the length of time the aerial veterans were expected to continue in service.

The C46 no longer carries passengers in scheduled service.

The radar requirement stemmed mostly from a fatal accident in May, 1960, involving a Capital Airlines Viscount. The plane flew into a severe thunderstorm and was torn apart by extreme turbulence.

★ ★ ★

United was the first airline to become 100 per cent radar-equipped, completing its program even before the FAA rule was issued.

MSU Pulls Out of S. Viet Nam

Team Spent 7 Years in Research, Advisory Capacity

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Michigan State University research and advisory team is leaving South Viet Nam after more than seven years as a chief developer of the nation's civil administration.

"The government no longer wants us here," said Dr. Alfred I. Seelye, dean of the university's college of business and public service.

The apparent reason is government dissatisfaction with articles written by MSU professors returning to the United States critical of President Ngo Dinh Diem's administration.

Seelye flew to Saigon several days ago in a final effort to come to terms with Diem's government. He was to return to the U.S. today without the contract renewal he had sought.

SPENT $39 MILLION

MSU teams have been training government officials and setting up procedures in South Viet Nam almost since the end of the Indochina War in 1954.

Money spent on MSU projects here since then totals more than $39 million.

MSU teams set up South Viet Nam's police force and system of universal identification cards, created the National Institute of Administration, and served as advisers to most of the ministries.

★ ★ ★

An institute set up by MSU trained more than 400 government officials, including two province chiefs, 13 deputy province chiefs, 23 district chiefs, 18 chiefs of service and 55 chiefs of bureau.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Firm's Move to South Proves Unsuccessful

Another indication which proves that industry moving from our area does not necessarily always flourish in Southern locations comes to light from neighboring Holly.

★ ★ ★

A deal has just been completed which means reopening of the former American Spring of Holly, Inc. under the new name of Holly Spring Co.

When the original firm was sold and moved south it cost Holly 175 to 200 jobs. According to Albert H. Bitzer Jr., president of the new company, many of these jobs will be reclaimed.

★ ★ ★

Since the shift of the former company to North Carolina it has been learned that customer service did not work out as planned. The products from the Holly plant are mechanical and precision springs for the auto industry.

Mr. Bitzer has indicated that Detroit automotive customers are assisting in transferring orders back to the new Holly Spring Company.

★ ★ ★

The return of these lost jobs is heartening news to the area, and especially to Holly.

Highway Crew Makes Traffic Flow as Usual

This has been a bad winter for highway travel—in most areas.

The roads have often been ice-coated and dangerous—in most areas.

A majority of the schools have frequently been closed — in most areas.

The regular course of business has been seriously hampered—in most areas.

Many people were afraid to drive their cars—in most areas.

But Oakland County has been a happy exception.

On a schedule that knows no hours, our highway maintenance men are on the job. The salt trucks slipped in between the ravages of King Winter and YOU. While you slept our main highways were made safe for your travel. Hundreds of tons of salt were spread to melt the snow and ice. While you may cuss about a dimmer chrome, you were handed a life preserver.

★ ★ ★

No other Michigan county could have done a better job.

Truly, our neighboring counties have been a little dilatory.

It is easy to determine when you cross the county line.

Our Road Commission and its men have put Oakland County on the safety map.

Why Are GOP Hopefuls Afraid to Oppose JFK?

In a recent speech at one of the Republican LINCOLN Day pow-wows Sen. MARGARET CHASE SMITH pointed out that it looks like at least three of the GOP hopefuls act like they are running scared.

The three she singled out were Sen. Barry Goldwater, Richard Nixon, and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. She went on to point out that for one reason or another they are all indicating concern over opposing Kennedy in 1964 and even showing some reluctance.

★ ★ ★

Some old line Republicans are saying let's throw GEORGE ROMNEY to the wolves in '64 since we can't win anyway. All this pessimistic talk seems ridiculous so early in the foray.

★ ★ ★

Why this defeatist attitude? Any one of the four men might make a formidable candidate when the time comes.

To date, the Kennedy administration has not displayed any superabundance of Government know-how. To be sure they have gone along without too many serious mistakes, yet they have done nothing sensational to make their position 100 per cent secure in '64.

★ ★ ★

Why three of the top Republican leaders are already throwing in the towel is hard to understand. They are harming their own cause and the entire party.

President Kennedy's victory in 1960 was far from earthshaking. Mr. Nixon went down to defeat in the closest election in the history of our country.

It should be remembered that KENNEDY only won by a fraction of one per cent.

David Lawrence Applauds:

Ike a Good Sport in Appraisal of K

WASHINGTON — Nikita Khrushchev may not have had a chance as yet to read a verbatim account, of what former President Eisenhower said about him on CBS television last Thursday night to a nationwide audience in America.

LAWRENCE

But when the Soviet premier does, he ought to take it to heart. For it was a fine example of what Christian philosophy means as manifested by the very man against whom Khrushchev intemperately flung insults in May 1960, calling him a "scoundrel" and a "thief."

The question asked by Walter Cronkite was what Eisenhower thought of Khrushchev.

Eisenhower's appraisal of the Soviet premier's personality was a sincere effort to give a fair analysis and to avoid any personal resentments. The transcript of the concluding portion of Eisenhower's remarks was as follows:

"Now, I don't think that Mr. Khrushchev is, himself, necessarily a cruel man but he is raised in the doctrine of force. They give it the euphemism of the 'dictatorship of the proletariat.' That is just another way of saying 'dictator.' But so he, I would think, by himself would be disposed, I think, to make as good an agreement as he could as long as he didn't have to open his country.

"But we can see no way of making such an agreement until he does open it, and I think we are right. I just do not believe we should make a single concession on that point—that if we are going to make these (disarmament) agreements, the country must be opened sufficiently, just as ours is, so we can see what the other fellow is doing.

"And that is, I think, just one of the basic tenets of his life and, therefore, you are never going to get an appraisal of his personal characteristics."

NO RESENTMENT

Eisenhower could have allowed his personal experience with Khrushchev in deliberately breaking up the "summit" conference at Paris to become the basis for deep resentment.

But instead the former president tried to see the other fellow's viewpoint and problems. Eisenhower in his TV talk began, for instance, his comment on Khrushchev with this observation:

"Well, of course, no dictator is ever as free to do exactly as he wants—as the world seems to think.

"A dictator has the problem of public opinion—how public opinion may be forced through the police state, or in any way, but he couldn't possibly just have 200 million Russians hating him and wanting to kill him, including the army and everything else. There would be no dictator—he wouldn't be there.

"So he has his problems, too, and, therefore—in trying to assess his personality—we must not make the mistake of saying that everything he does we think is evil or is entirely of his own volition.

"Now, I really think he very much wants peace in the world. He would like very much to have an assurance there was going to be no war, but this would be on his own terms so that he would not open his society because I am sure every piece of evidence we have shows that he has a tremendous faith in his ability to keep control of Russia as long as it is a closed society.

NO REPORTERS

"He does not want any free-wheeling reporters — television or press or otherwise — going all over that country and reporting about it, and particularly reporting of them (the Russians). He doesn't, I think, mind what you report about him here. It is that he is very careful about what you can report about him and his actions there. To that he is very sensitive."

Eisenhower's definition helps to understand even the problems of a present-day dictator. It emphasizes more than ever the need to penetrate the Iron Curtain through spiritual means and by the same kind of friendliness, yet firmness, that Dwight Eisenhower exhibited in his recent talk on television.

THOUGHTS FOR TODAY

Dr. Harold Hyman Says:

Hiding Your Emotions Harms You and Friends

Q—What do you do when you know you are sick and no one else knows it? I'm the mother of three children, only 22 years old and twice married. I'm miserable and unhappy and I don't know whether it's my fault or the fault of others.

★ ★ ★

I don't even know if my husband loves me. He keeps telling me I'm pretty but I know he's just mocking me because I'm really fat and not very pretty. Especially my teeth. I can't even smile with my mouth open because I know people will look at me and sneer.

WHAT CAN I DO

I don't want anyone to know how I feel. I can't go to my doctor, relatives, friends or pastor. If I do I'm afraid they'll make fun of me some way.

So there's nowhere to go. Every day it gets worse. I know I'm not crazy but what can I do to help myself? Please help me if you can before I'm all gone.

A—Although I am certain you are correct in stating that you are not "crazy," I am equally certain you are in need of psychiatric care. If you will consult your doctor or your pastor and tell either of them exactly what you have written in this letter, I can almost promise you that neither will make fun of you.

By bottling up your feelings, you are not only harming yourself. You are also harming your children and your husband. By seeking the professional care you so obviously require, you will help them as well as yourself.

CONSULT SOMEONE

On their behalf, therefore, I beg you to swallow your false pride and avail yourself of the kindly advice I know you will receive.

Q—Is it true that cataracts can form as the result of drug treatments? One of my neighbors warned me of this as my eyesight is failing and I have to take various medicines for control of an arthritic condition of my spine.

A—Since you did not state the names of the drugs you are taking or indicate the cause for your failing eyesight, I am unable to answer your question specifically.

However, if your failing eyesight is due to cataract formation, and if your arthritic condition is being treated with a corticosteroid (ACTH), there may indeed be a connection between drug and disability.

And, what is more, the process may be reversible if the drug is discontinued.

And for all of his efforts he will be politically crucified. That will be the tragedy.

Your editorial Feb. 13, criticized Mr. Scholle for his remarks concerning Mr. Romney's religious approach to a purely secular problem. In this I defend Mr. Scholle. If Mr. Romney in the privacy of his own home and his own mind, saw fit to seek guidance from the spiritual source he alone must know, then he should have held that communion to be privileged and not given out to the press for publication.

Readers Concerned About School Aid

We who send our children to parochial schools do not ask why our taxes should support the public schools. Both do their best to educate tomorrow's citizens. If I choose to send mine to a private school and pay for the privilege to boot, why all the uproar?

I don't have statistics, but I'll bet our churches and schools receive more support by individuals than do the rest of the schools regardless of location, denomination or patronage.

In response to "Taxpayer," the public school originated the same place "public" fire departments, "public" police departments and "public" mail service originated.

I don't wish to deprive any citizen from acquiring either additional police or fire protection; nor do I object to anyone using telegrams or United Parcel Service, I do object to anyone insisting that I help finance his employing of these "private" agencies.

Logic leaves me no alternative but to object to subsidizing "private" education with "public" funds.

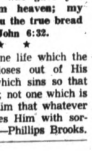
Case Records of a Psychologist:

Don't Let Alcohol Ruin Home Life

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

CASE L-437: Dora M., aged 39, is an alcoholic wife.

"Dr. Crane," her worried husband began, "Dora goes on a binge maybe twice per month.



"We have two children still in grammar school, but she just hires a neighbor woman to look after them when she heads for the tavern.

"Sometimes she doesn't come home till next day, and we don't even know where she is.

"Then she is tearful and repentant and vows she will never touch another drop. But she always backslides within a few weeks, so what is wrong with her?"

DR. CRANE

FIRE ESCAPE

Alcoholism is usually an emotional "fire escape" by which tormented folks try to run away from their inner fears or guilt complexes.

So the proper solution involves digging out the basic core of their secret conflict.

We need first to put out the hidden fire before we take away the fire escape.

★ ★ ★

Otherwise, the victim may soon seek another escape, such as dope, insanity or even suicide.

We medics can use certain drugs that will make the alcoholic sick every time he drinks liquor, but that treats the symptom instead of the cause.

So what do you readers think would drive a mother into periodic binges?

Among over 5,000,000 chronic alcoholics in America, some clinics estimate the ratio of drunkard males to females is 4 to 1.

Many leading physicians, such as Dr. M. A. Block, Chairman of the Committee on Alcoholism of our A. M. A., reports that the ratio is 50-50 in his extensive practice.

And he quotes most private physicians as agreeing that their alcoholic patients run 50-50 between men and women.

Imagine the tremendous amount of misery and family unhappiness in those 5,000,000 homes when a father or mother, son or daughter staggers home drunk.

Try to conjure up the terror of the youngsters in those homes when an alcoholic father beats up their mother or attacks the children themselves.

"Dr. Crane," a freshman high school girl recently explained why she had missed school two days last week, "it was due to my father.

"He came home drunk about midnight and got into a fight with my mother. He started to beat her up.

"When I heard her screaming, I rushed into their room, but my father broke a chair and beat me with one of the rungs.

"My face was black and blue. So I didn't dare come back to school. Oh, Dr. Crane, can't something be done to stop drunkenness?"

Yes, your editor runs this column to help show you readers how to solve the hidden conflicts and emotional snarls that make people flee into alcoholism.

This clinical column vaccinates young folks against unhappiness. It helps salvage broken homes and prevent alcoholism, as I'll show more specifically tomorrow when I diagnose Dora's case in full.

Michalina Martel Has Scars From Ordeal

TV Personality Spent Time in Concentration Camp

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK — When you see her on television — gay, beautiful, warm — you'd never suspect that her formative years were spent in concentration camps. Including Dachau. That was the worst one, though she didn't know that there she was scheduled for certain death.

★ ★ ★

She does remember the camp before Dachau, because it was a labor camp where the prisoners made toys for German children.

"I was fascinated with the toys," she recalls, wistfully. "My parents told me not to say or do anything that would bring us to the attention of the guards, but what does a little girl of 4 know?

"So one night I went into the room where the toys were. A guard caught me. I tried to bite him. He came at me with a knife."

She lifts her skirt a little. "This is the scar," she says matter-of-factly.

SHE WAS SHOT

"Also there's this . . ." and she pushes up her sleeve to show a reminder of a gunshot wound. "Father was carrying me when the Germans first caught us, and when he tried to escape they shot at him and hit me. I don't remember it, thank God."

It is better to have scars on your body than on your mind.

The girl is Miss Michalina Martel, delicate, tiny, new U. S. citizen, and A-No. 1 beauty on ABC-TV's "Yours for a Song." It's not a very big job, assisting Bert Parks, but for a woman whose life almost ended before it began, it is solid gold luxury. A step toward security.

Michalina was born in the principality of Bukovina, on the Roumanian border. "It sounds nonexistent, and it is now. First the Germans took Bukovina. Then after the war, the Russians swallowed it up. I tell people about it and they laugh — but it was there. It even had its own language."

★ ★ ★

In addition to Bukovinian, Michalina speaks German, English, Russian, French and Ukranian.

"Well-educated? Ah. But all displaced persons are linguists," she smiles. "It's part of surviving."

Michalina was in Dachau, unknowingly awaiting her escape from worldly troubles, when the war ended.

IT WAS QUIET

Her memories of that:

"One day we woke up and it was quiet. So quiet. We went outside and there were no guards anywhere! We walked to the fence and stood there. Then, the tanks came up. When the hatches opened, about 15 men came out. Most of them were chewing.

"I still love to see Americans chew gum!"

United with her parents, she still wasn't free. There were nearly three years of displaced persons camps before the family settled in Munich.

★ ★ ★

"But father kept trying to come to America. Always something went wrong. You don't know how awful it is when you have only one dream, and it's always a little further away; every couple of days, my father gave my mother a report on how many officials he'd seen and how many papers he'd filled out."

In 1954, under the sponsorship of a Virginia farmer, the family was brought to the U. S. Michalina was painfully shy and thin.

But she also was beautiful. Beautiful and thin. Naturally she eventually became a model.

GOT PRESENT JOB

One day an agency sent her out on what she thought was to be a modeling job, but it turned out instead to be a television audition. "The producers," she recalls, "kept telling me to talk and laugh. I laughed. Oh, how I laughed. I was scared silly."

Michalina is well set for a career now. She considers herself a normal, ambitious American girl.

With only one quirk. She can't go to sleep in the dark. "It was dark for so long. I need the light now."

★ ★ ★

The producers of "Yours for a Song" claim it was her infectious laugh and high spirits that won her the job.

Michalina wants to be an actress. Obviously, she already is.

Event Set Wednesday

To Hold Luncheon

The Oakland County alumnae of Delta Zeta Sorority, under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Forbes S. Hascall, will sponsor a gourmet luncheon Wednesday from 1 to 3 p.m. in the club rooms of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Oakland.

★ ★

Proceeds will benefit a local hearing project, Gaullaudet College and the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital, Carville, La.

The sorority's national philanthropic program covers several phases of work which, up until 1958 when Carville was added, dealt mainly with impaired hearing of children.

FURNISH MATERIAL

Educational material for local classrooms for the hard-of-hearing has been furnished. Recently, Mrs. H. Erwin Gottschalk, teacher counsellor for the physically handicapped in the Pontiac Public Schools, has worked with the sorority in placing funds where most needed to help children obtain or maintain hearing equipment.

★ ★ ★

The children in the three Pontiac classrooms for the deaf are from the Pontiac school area and Oakland County.

Gallaudet College in Washington, D.C. is the only college in the world to grant full academic degrees to the deaf. Delta Zeta has contributed over $10,000 nationally to furnish the reading room of the library.

ADOPTED PATIENT

Carville, also one of the sorority's philanthropic projects, is the only United States hospital for the treatment of Hansen's disease, formerly called leprosy. The Oakland County Delta Zeta have 'adopted' Andrew Ory, a patient to whom they write letters, and send cards and gifts. This year he was sent a portable transistor radio for Christmas.

★ ★ ★

Mrs. Donald C. Burch, Birmingham, is general chairman for the luncheon, the one fund-raising project for this year. Her committee consists of Mrs. Hascall and Mrs. Earl Long, decorations; Mrs. Herbert Schnetzky and Mrs. George N. Skrubb, cookbook, publication; Mrs. George Betker and Mrs. Winfield Hinman, tickets; Mrs. Robert Kerley, beverages; Mrs. Skrubb, food arrangements; Betty Hayes, monetary contributions; Mrs. Burch and Mrs. Laurence E. Trevarrow Jr. gourmet food contributions.

★ ★

Door prizes will be given. Mrs. Betker and Mrs. Burch are accepting reservations for luncheon and free babysitting service.

Burch and sorority president Mrs. Forbes Hascall, both of Birmingham, assist student Raymond Alvarado with some new lesson material at Longfellow School.

Pair Plans Open House

Observing their golden wedding anniversary Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Watson will hold open house from 7 to 10 p.m. in their home on Oneida Road. Hosts for the evening will be their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Max G. Coleman.

Also receiving guests will be Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Simmons and the Watsons' granddaughter Karen.

Secretaries Participate at Unit Meeting

An educational program "Secretaries on the Spot," highlighted the February dinner meeting of the Pontioak Chapter, National Secretaries Association International, at the Hotel Waldron.

Heading the three discussion groups were Mrs. Roberta Trayer, Lavern Markiewitz and Mrs. Cleatus Garner.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Joseph Tessmer, Mrs. Trayer and Theresa McVeigh.

Tell Guests Not to Help You Serve

By The Emily Post Institute

Q: My son is a senior at college. Last summer while working in a resort hotel he met a girl who lives in another city. They became good friends.

During Christmas vacation he went to visit her for several days. He would now like me to invite her here for a weekend. However, our house is small and we have no extra sleeping quarters.

I would like to know if it would be proper to make arrangements for her to stay at a friend's house, or would it be better for my son to move out and have her stay here. She would, of course, have her meals with us.

A: It would be more polite and much nicer for the girl if your son moves out, so that she can stay in your house.

★ ★

Q: I am a widow soon to be married for the second time. I would like to know if it would be proper to send out engraved invitations to the marriage.

I have been told that engraved invitations are in bad taste for a second wedding, that the invitations should be handwritten. What is proper?

A: Usually a second wedding is small and the bride-to-be does invite her friends verbally or by personal note. But sometimes when the bride-to-be is still young and she is marrying a man who has never been married before, many invitations are sent out and in this case they are engraved.

★ ★ ★

Q: I have been married six months and during this time my husband's family has come to visit us just once. When asked why they didn't come more often, his mother said because they weren't invited.

I was quite taken back at this statement as I always thought members of the family did not wait to be invited. Have I been wrong about this?

A: While they should be invited occasionally to a specific party or dinner, it is not supposed to be necessary to be invited to go to see nearest members of one's family.

★

The clothes of the bride and groom as well as those of their attendants are described in the new Emily Post Institute booklet entitled "Clothes of the Bridal Party." To obtain a copy, send 40 cents in coin, to cover cost of handling, and a self-addressed, stamped envelope, to the Emily Post Institute, care of The Pontiac Press.

Waterford Chorus Planning Program

Waterford Civic Chorus will present a musical History of America" in John D. Pierce Junior High School at 8 p.m. Thursday.

Accenting George Washington's birthday, the program will trace American music from the Pilgrims through Southern spirituals and the Western movement and touch on music of this country's great battles. Samples of barbershop quartet songs and blues selections also are planned for the event which will conclude with the number, "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" based on the Statue of Liberty's famed inscription.

Arden Sears is directing the concert. Charles Juehle will narrate the script which has been written by Tony Charilli.

Mona Richie and June Luebben will be accompanists. Members of the Silhouettes, girls' quartet, who will perform are Delores Frick, Martha Johnson, Margaret Ann Beattie and Sheila Jacobson.

He Thinks Straight—Abby

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband refuses to twist with me. He says if I want to make a fool of myself in public, he isn't going to help me. I have seen many women older and fatter than myself twisting in public and I admit it looks terrible, but I am only 42 and have a nice figure.

ABBY

Please say something in your column to convince my husband that the twist is just another modern dance and he should learn it as he learned the rhumba and cha cha.

LOVES TO TWIST

DEAR LOVES: If your husband is over 45 and overweight, maybe his insurance policy doesn't cover the twist. His thinking is straight. Don't try to twist it.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I decided to quit smoking several weeks ago. I have always said that if you make up your mind, that's all there is to it. Within a week we were both smoking again.

I had no idea of the mental and physical discomfort involved. I thought some of your readers who have licked the problem might have some helpful suggestions.

HEAVY SMOKER

DEAR SMOKING: If they have, you can be sure I'll print them.

★ ★ ★

DEAR ABBY: The lady next door is pulling some funny business on her husband and I am quite certain a man is involved. She gets all dolled up and pulls out of her driveway a little before noon. And she doesn't get home until 6 p.m.

She tells her husband she has been to a "PTA meeting." She does this three and four times a week, and he is so dumb he believes her. Don't you think somebody should tell her husband

WIDE AWAKE NEIGHBOR

DEAR WIDE AWAKE: Perhaps your neighbor's definition of PTA is "Pretty Terrific Afternoon." Don't tell anybody. You could be mistaken.

Little Folks School Sets Open House

The Pontiac Cooperative Nursery School will hold open house in its headquarters at the First Free Methodist Church on Mt. Clemns Street Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Jane Werneken, director of the Grosse Pointe University Nursery School will show and narrate a colored film strip entitled "Nursery School in Action."

The nursery school functions to provide an environment for preschool children so they may learn to play together, acquire good social habits and be given an opportunity for creative expression in music, art, and play.

★ ★ ★

Parents participate by taking their designated turns assisting the teacher in the nursery, attending meetings and serving on various committees.

Classes run from 9:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday for four-year-olds and on Tuesday and Thursday for the three-year-olds. Registrations are open to both groups.

As the organization operates without profit, tuition is computed on necessary running expenses.

Youngsters Must Have Parents' Respect

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Dear Mrs. Lawrence:

Since Thanksgiving our 16-year-old daughter has been dating a boy we have never met. All we know about him is that he is 22, lives in a neighboring town and works in his father's insurance office.

He meets our daughter away from the house and when we ask her to invite him home, she always has some excuse. My husband thinks that something must be going on between them to make her so secretive and wants to forbid her to see him. Do you advise . . .

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: What's going on is not necessarily what you fear is going on.

Isn't it possible that your daughter has confused your concern with her happiness with intrusion on her privacy?

This is not a rare adolescent confusion. Sex feelings are an intimate part of their lives which self-respecting young people need to keep private and away from parents. If we are always asking questions about their dates, they start protecting their privacy by telling us nothing.

MAKE MYSTERIES

They make mysteries of telephone calls, of letters, the backgrounds of their boy and girl friends. When this happens, we can get panicky and "forbid" relationship with the unknown friend — or we can try to clarify the child's confusion about our interest in his life. We can say:

★ ★ ★

"Look here, you've got us all wrong. We're not asking to meet your friend in order to tear him apart, you know. We want to meet him because we want a chance to get to like what you like."

★ ★ ★

You see, a young person who gets the idea that our interest in his sexual feelings is prying and critical is often driven to exaggerating the importance of an attachment. He loses the ability to really look at his feelings about the boy or girl he is dating to start fighting us on the issue of his "independence" — his right to be different from us.

Soon keeping us in the dark about his sexual activities has become the prime concern — and his feelings for the boy or girl a minor one. But so long as all his energies are given over to defensive warfare against our prying and suspiciousness, he can't discover that the person for whom he's fighting isn't worth it.

I myself don't respect young men very much who meet 16-year-old girls on the sly.

But this young man is not your problem. Your problem is detachment from a fight with your daughter so that she gets a change to steady her own judgment of sneakiness.

Have You Tried This?

American Beauty Cake Uses 2 Oz. Red Coloring

Pontiac Press Home Editor

Mrs. Robert Hollerback of Union Lake telephoned to give us the recipe for a cake that has become popular in the past year. It calls for 2 ounces of red food coloring. Mrs. Hollerback calls it American Beauty Cake.

The Hollerbacks have two young children. Mrs. Hollerback enjoys cooking and reading.

AMERICAN BEAUTY CAKE
By Mrs. Robert Hollerback

2 oz. red food coloring
3 tablespoons quick strawberry-flavored OR chocolate-flavored mix
½ cup shortening
1½ cups sugar
2 eggs
1 cup buttermilk
½ teaspoon salt
2¼ cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon baking soda

Mix food coloring with quick drink mix and let stand. Cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and coloring mixture and beat well.

Sift flour and salt together. Add alternately with buttermilk to creamed mixture. Add vanilla and beat again. Stir (do not beat) in vinegar and baking soda.

Bake in 2 greased and floured 9-inch layer pans 30-35 minutes at 350 degrees. Fill and frost with Creamy Frosting.

Creamy Frosting

2 tablespoons flour
⅛ cup milk
Pinch of salt
½ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup margarine or butter
¼ cup vegetable shortening
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix flour with milk and cook until thick. Add salt. Mix rest of ingredients and add cooled flour mixture. Beat until fluffy. Spread on cooled cake.

SPORTS

Munson Hits 25 in Titan Victory

DETROIT — Harrison Munson, Pontiac junior at the University of Detroit, played the best game of his collegiate career Saturday night as the Titans rolled over Notre Dame, 104-87.

In another big game in the state, Michigan State held Ohio State to a 32-32 first half before bowing to the powerful Buckeyes, 80-72.

In a big surprise, Michigan defeated Wisconsin for the second time this year to practically end the Badger title hopes, 84-65.

U. of D. was red hot in the first half of its game before nearly 9,000 fans. With Dave DeBusschere collecting 22 points in the first half, the Titans hit on 14 of their first 18 shots from the floor. Munson had 13 points in the first half which ended, 58-44.

In the second half, the Titans pushed to a 21 point margin as Munson, and DeBusschere continued their spree. DeBusschere finished with 33 points and 27 rebounds. Munson had 25 points and 17 rebounds.

McDANIEL GETS 11

Holly's George McDaniel made his best showing of the season as he collected 11 points and did a good job on the boards.

Despite Michigan State's rally which closed the gap couple times late in the game, Ohio State kept its poise and refused to be rattled by the Spartan press.

Pete Gent hit 20 points for State followed by Art Schwarm with 18. Unsung forward Doug 24 with Jerry Lucas collecting 20 and Mel Nowell 16.

Wisconsin has lost only two Big Ten games but both at the hands of Michigan which has a 3-5 league record. Sophomore Bob Cantrell, 5 foot, 10 inch guard, scored 28 points for the Wolverines. He hit 9 of 11 shots in the first half.

At the same time, Illinois blew a chance of climbing into a second place tie with Wisconsin by falling before Purdue, 100-88; Indiana defeated Iowa, 72-69; and Minnesota whipped Northwestern, 73-65.

Terry Dischinger scored 45 points against Illinois and assured himself of a record career average of 29.5 points a game, eclipsing the former mark of 27.3 held by Ohio State's Robin Freeman. In the process, Terry scored 20 field goals, tying a record shared by Jimmy Rayl of Indiana.

Rayl accounted for 35 points in Indiana's triumph over Iowa but had to yield scoring honors to Iowa's Don Nelson who finished with 37.

STATE RESULTS

Western Michigan can still salvage some glory — second place — in the mid-American conference basketball race being dominated by Bowling Green.

The Broncos moved into the loop's runnerup spot Saturday, one half game ahead of Toledo, by edging Marshall, 78-74. They're now 6-3 in the conference and 13-8 overall.

There's no chance to catch Bowling Green (10-1) for the top spot but Western can grab second for certain with victories over Bowling Green Feb. 24 and Toledo Feb. 25. Both games are on the road.

Tom Woodruff, 6-2 senior Bronco guard from Grosse Pointe, paced the attack against Marshall with 23 points and led an eight-point spree which gave Western the decision midway through the final half.

Ferris Institute, at 17-1 the state's winningest college club, won its eighth straight, 73-6, over Northern Michigan Saturday as Mike Bohnet scored 30 points for the Bulldogs. Gary Silc had 21 for Northern, which is now 11-9.

Hope can clinch a share of the MIAA championship Feb. 24 when it travels to Alma for its only remaining league contest.

Detroit Tops Montreal, 4-2, in Latest Surge

Howe Scores 2 Goals but Can't Catch Up to Bathgate

DETROIT (AP) — A couple of hockey's journeymen — castoffs who've been bounced around from team to team—are most responsible for the Detroit Red Wings' current surge.

★ ★ ★

Coach Sid Abel singled out Hank Bassen and Noel Price as the big reasons for the Wings' tremendous improvement in the past 15 days.

Detroit's unbeaten streak was stretched to six last night with a 4-2 triumph over the first-place Montreal Canadiens. The National Hockey League leaders scored 15 goals in their previous two games and lost only once in 17 games until the Wings' halted them.

"I'd have to say there are several factors for our improvement," said Abel. "But Bassen has been playing very well and Price has helped straighten out our defense. They're not the only reason we're doing so well, but they're the big ones."

The Wings haven't lost since Bassen took over at goal six games ago on Feb. 4 when Terry Sawchuk hurt his shoulder. The red-headed netminder allowed only eight goals as Detroit posted four victories and two ties.

SAWCHUK READY

"Terry's shoulder is better, he could get back in there right now," said Abel. "But I'm going to stick with Bassen, he's real hot."

Price was acquired two weeks ago from New York, the team Detroit is battling for fourth place and the last berth in the playoffs. Like Bassen, he spent time this season in the minors and had earlier trials with other NHL clubs.

"We needed help at defense all season, and he's giving it to us," Abel said.

The Wings made the victory over Montreal look easy. They scored three times in the first 11 minutes and then displayed a strong defense the rest of the way.

★ ★ ★

Bill Gadsby, Gordie Howe and Parker MacDonald staked the Wings to their early lead. Howe scored again in the second period between Montreal's two goals, both by Gilles Tremblay. The Detroit captain now has 28 for the season.

The victory kept Detroit deadlocked with New York in fourth place. The Rangers trounced second-place Toronto 6-2 last night. Andy Bathgate scored twice for New York and remained six scoring points ahead of Howe in the race for the NHL scoring crown. Guy Gendron also scored twice for the Rangers.

The Chicago Black Hawks, scoring five times in the opening period, massacred the Boston Bruins 6-0. Murray Balfour netted two of the Hawks' goals.

Jones Boasts Another Track Record

Hayes Shatters American Mark in High Hurdles

Runs 70-Yard Distance in 8 Seconds Flat at Mason-Dixon Games

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Hayes Jones, a Detroit elementary school teacher who makes a track record today, thanks to his performance in the second annual Maso-Dixon Games.

★ ★ ★

Jones stole the spotlight Saturday as he sprinted the 70-yard, high hurdles in 8 seconds flat. This clipped two-tenths seconds off the American indoor record he held jointly with Lee Calhoun.

Jones nipped Don Styron, of the Northeast Louisiana Track Club, at the wire. Styron was timed in 8.2.

★ ★ ★

It was Jones' 27th straight indoor hurdle victory.

What could have developed into one of the pole vault battles of the century failed to materialize when John Uelses, the only man in history to vault 16 feet, didn't clear 14 feet on three tries and was eliminated in early competition.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Uelses, weakened from his two-week bout with the flu, was released from a Quantico, Va., hospital just a little more than 24 hours before he competed in the event, which was limited to pole vaulters who had previously cleared 15 feet.

★ ★ ★

John Rose of Arizona State won with a vault of 15 feet 4 inches. George Davies of Arizona State was second with 15-4, and J. D. Martin of Oklahoma third with 15-4. First and second place was decided by a flip of a coin, third by the number of misses.

★ ★ ★

Dave Styron, Don's twin brother, tied the American indoor record in the 70-yard dash, covering the distance in 7 seconds flat.

Later Uelses came back to make an exhibition jump.

★ ★ ★

On his second try at 15-8, he reached his peak too soon and crashed to the wooden runway below, a distance of about 15 feet.

Uelses said later the box into which vaulters place the pole for their leap was too shallow and caused him to reach his peak too soon. An official later confirmed this.

★ ★ ★

Jim Grelle, of the Los Angeles track club, captured the mile run in a time of 4:03.5. Olympian Ralph Boston took the broad jump with 25 feet 2 inches, best indoors this season.

Moore Rolls Along as Keg Sparemaster

Monroe Moore increased his "Make That Spare" winnings to $22,000 by whiping Carl Richards 200-75 Saturday night.

The Pontiac bowling star came close in missing the 6-7-8-10 jackpot spare worth $6,000. He failed on only the 1-2-4-10 of the regular targets.

Moore returns to New York Saturday for a record-breaking 9th appearance against former National All Star champion Bill Tucker.

Florida A&M Sprinter Equals 'Century' Mark

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — A husky young Florida A&M University sophomore who thinks he can run 100 yards in 9 seconds flat is in for some dieting and more training.

★ ★ ★

Robert Hayes, who tied the world's record of 9.2 seconds in a meet at the University of Miami Saturday, said, "I think I can beat that time." He expressed confidence he eventually will run the distance in 9 seconds.

★ ★ ★

"I think the fact that he tied the record will give him the determination to break it," said Pete Griffin, who coaches the Florida A&M football line and the track team.

TOO HEAVY

"He has the potential to break the record. Now he has the determination to do it. His 182 pounds is a little heavy, so we will watch his diet carefully. He needs to take off a few pounds."

Griffin said Hayes, "is a team man and can be a good football player."

★ ★ ★

The 19-year-old Negro from Jacksonville equalled the record set by Frank Budd of Villanova in New York on June 24, 1961.

"There's no doubt of the record's validity," said Vince Lally, head of the Florida Athletic Club, sponsor of the invitational tournament at the University of Miami.

"This is an Amateur Athletic Union-sanctioned meet," Lally said. "The track meets all specifications and the gauge recorded a 4½ mile per hour wind against Hayes."

OFFICIAL TIMES

Lally said three official timers clocked Hayes at 9.2 and two caught him at 9.1.

Hayes said he had recently come off football training and was not in top condition.

"I've got to be in better condition but I think I can beat that time," he said. "My teammates help me and my coach gets on me about my training. I'm a little lazy about warming up."

Hayes said he wanted to continue his track but likes football and wants to play with a professional team when he finishes his college education.

USC's Track Coach, Mortensen, Is Dead

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Jesse Mortensen, who produced some of the greatest collegiate track and field teams in U.S. history as a coach at the University of Southern California, died today.

★ ★ ★

USC athletic director Jess Hill said Mortensen succumbed at Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles. Hill said death was attributed to blood clots. Mortensen was about 54.

Hill, clearly shaken by the news, told a reporter: "I'm sorry, I just don't want to talk about it. I can't tell you any more."

USC publicist Don Simonian said Mortensen suffered from a respiratory ailment in recent years and stayed away from his office last week.

Barnum in Tie for 2nd Place

'Rookie' Michigan Pro Trails by One Stroke in Seniors Event

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Any one of five golf pros was in a good position to claim the $2,000 first prize in today's final round of the $25,000 PGA Seniors Championship.

Jimmy Demaret of Houston went into the last 18 holes tied for the lead with club pro Joe Brown of West Des Moines, Iowa. Each was nine under par at 207 after three rounds.

Defending champion Paul Runyan of La Jolla, Calif., who hasn't finished worse than second in three seniors tourneys, is only one stroke behind at 208. He is tied there with 6-foot-4 John Barnum of Belmont, Mich. Barnum is a rookie" in the seniors at the age of 50.

Dutch Harrison of San Francisco is also a first timer in this 72-hole tourney and in a good position at 209 to claim the top money and a trip to Britain for a match against England's senior champion.

Ten others between 210 and 213 have an outside chance if they come racing home with a great round, such as the record 63 which Buck White of Miami fired over the 6,636-yard PGA National course a year ago.

Red-Hot Ohl Standout in Pistons' Triumph

DETROIT (UPI) — Don Ohl's red-hot shooting kept the Detroit Pistons firing Sunday to their eighth victory in nine starts, 119-112, over the injury-riddled and sagging St. Louis Hawks.

★ ★ ★

Despite their victory, the Pistons failed to gain any ground on the second-place Cincinnati Royals, who beat Chicago, 138-121, to stay 1½ games in front of Detroit. The Pistons had gained a game on the Royals Saturday night with a 123-113 victory.

Ohl hit on 11 straight floor shots starting early in the third period and carrying over into the fourth. When he started his spree, Detroit trailed 66-63, but by the time OHL finally missed the Pistons owned a 96-86 lead and eventually went out in front by as much as 16 points.

The Hawks held their own for the first half despite their weakened condition. They trailed 32-27 after the first quarter but tied it, 58-58, at the half.

Center Larry Foust didn't make the trip from St. Louis because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Hawks' victory over Philadelphia Saturday night. Bob Pettit also was sidelined with bruised ribs suffered in the same game.

PACED HAWKS

Cliff Hagan and Lenny Wilkens paced the Hawks with 34 and 30 respectively. They had 18 and 16 in the first half to keep St. Louis in contention.

Ohl ended as Detroit's top scorer with 30 points, Bailey Howell added 23 and Gene She and Ray Scott had 16 and 15 respectively.

Pvt. Elgin Baylor, U.S. Army, probably is looking forward today to getting back to some nice quiet military maneuvers.

Baylor got a taste of the calm civilian life yesterday when he helped the Los Angeles Lakers to a 132-99 victory over the Boston Celtics.

During the game:

Boston's Tommy Heinsohn was bashed by a stray elbow and suffered a mild concussion and a bruise under his left eye.

Boston coach Red Auerbach took a swing at a photographer and had to be restrained by referee Willy Smith.

Los Angeles' Rudy Larusso and Boston's Bob Cousy got in a fist fight over a loose ball.

Baylor tended strictly to business and led the Lakers with 38 points.

City Baptists Win

Midwestern Baptist of Pontiac held 2nd place in its league by rallying from a six-point halftime deficit to whip Michigan Central Christian Junior College of Rochester, 64-54. George Minto scored 22 for Pontiac. Roger Sykes, Oz Theacker of the winners and Losher and McCoy of Rochester all scored 13.

Farmington Wins I-L Tournament

Mat Title to PNH

Pontiac Northern did what it had to do—outscore Walled Lake—to clinch the Inter-Lakes Conference wrestling championship Saturday at the Viking gym.

The favored Huskies had to settle for 2nd behind Farmington in the league meet but had 20 more points than the host school.

PNH took its 2nd mat crown in three years of loop participation on a basis of six points for unbeaten in duals and five points for being tourney runnerup.

Farmington, only 4th for season action, wound up 2nd with 10 total points, Walled Lake had 9, Berkley and Southfield 3 each and Waterford 2.

★ ★ ★

Farmington compiled 91 points in Saturday combat despite being blanked in three weight classes. Northern had 83, Walled Lake 63, Southfield 58, Berkley 47 and Waterford 17.

FIVE 1STS

Farmington offset outstanding Northern balance with five 1st places Bob and Dick Cook. Big boys Steve Heath, Bob Burton and Dick Weston got the other.

Eleven of Coach Bill Willson's 12 grapplers placed led by champions Don Teets, Skip McIlroy and Ken Kimmel. Jim Kimmel was an impressive 127 runnerup after upsetting Pat Harrington of Walled Lake.

★ ★ ★

Vikings titles went to the outstanding Tom Brown and Ron Wilkinson. Bill Shelton got Southfield's only title and Dick Kentro did the same for Berkley. Little Jim Cook and Bob Petherbridge paced Waterford with 3rds.

The Huskies won a team trophy. Individual champions earned medals. Ribbons went to the next three in each division.

95—Wilkinson, Dave Ritther (F), Dick Quick (P), Dave Spindler (WAT).
103—Brown, Steve Ellis (B), Jim Cook (WAT), Cliff Dawes (P).

Light Failure, Flying Eggs Start Wild Tilt

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — First the goal lights wouldn't work. Then a fan threw raw eggs on the ice.

By the time they got the mess cleaned up, the players were edgy and so was referee Willie Papp.

The result was 23 penalties totaling 52 minutes in Sunday night's Edmonton-Seattle Western Hockey League game.

Seattle won it, 5-3.

Papp, evidently fearing the game might get out of hand after the sloppy start, blew his whistle freely. Observers agreed the players were swinging their hockey sticks freely too.

Papp called 16 penalties totaling 38 minutes in the first period alone.

There were four penalties in the second period and the three in the third included one meted out to the whole Seattle bench.

Mild Rebound From Friday's Dip

Market Moves Up on Balance

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market moved a bit higher on balance in moderate early trading today.

Gains of fractions to around a point among key stocks outnumbered losers.

International Telephone was weak following Brazilian expropriation of one of the company's subsidiaries. The stock was off about 3 after opening on 6,500 shares, down 2¼ at 55¾.

* * *

Benguet was heavily traded but unchanged. The Philippine gold mining stock opened unchanged at 1½ on 40,000 shares, then traded at the same price on blocks of 27,000, 15,100, 10,000, 7,000 and 5,000 shares.

The list as a whole rebounded mildly from Friday's decline. Gains of about a point were made by Allied Chemical and Air Reduction. Pfizer dropped a point or so.

* * *

Oils, steels, and chemicals were generally higher. Little change was shown by motors, electronics, aerospace issues, tobaccos, airlines and rubbers. Rails were narrowly mixed.

A rise in the demand for durable goods last month was a bright item in a series of drab economic statistics for January.

Small gains were made by U. S. Steel, Chrysler, American Telephone, Southern Pacific, Merck and New York Central.

Down slightly were American Motors, United Aircraft, Eastman Kodak and Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Prices were irregular on the American Stock Exchange. Aero-Jet-General was up about ¼ and Anken Chemical more, than a point. Other gainers were Gulf American Land, Sherwin-Williams and Hardeman. Among losers were Polaroid Electronics, Syntex and Technicolor.

Lake Orion Man Dies in Hospital After Accident

An 86-year-old Lake Orion man, who had been hospitalized since being injured in an auto accident Jan. 29, died yesterday at Pontiac General Hospital.

Dead is William A. Nelson of 54 S. Broadway St.

Hospital authorities said today an autopsy revealed Nelson died from complications of injuries suffered in the accident.

Lake Orion police said Nelson was crossing Broadway Street, between Flint and Front Streets, on the night of Jan. 29 when he was hit by a car driven by Walter C. Hartt, 51, 3371 Metamora Road, Oxford Township.

Hartt was held overnight in the Oakland County Jail following the accident. The next day Hartt paid a $25 fine and $10 costs in Orion Township Justice Court on a charge of drunk and disorderly.
