Werner to Head Cadillac Div.

CALVIN J. WERNER

MARTIN J. CASERIO

KENNETH W. SCOTT

New Top Exec for GMC Truck

3rd High-Level Shift
Disclosed by Officials

Calvin J. Werner, in his seventh year as general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division and a General Motors vice president, has been named general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car division, it was announced today.

Succeeding Werner at GMC will be Martin J. Caserio, presently a General Motors vice president and general manager of the AC Spark Plug division at Flint. Both appointments are effective Sept. 1.

A third high-level shift revealed by GM officials will transfer Kenneth W. Scott, General Motors vice president and general manager of Cadillac Motor Car division, to general manager of the Fisher Body division.

Scott succeeds Robert H. Galtman, who is on a leave of absence because of illness.

Werner of 2633 Knollsfield, Bloomfield Township, was first named to head GMC on Dec. 1, 1959.

PRODUCTION CLIMBS

Under his guidance, production of GMC trucks and buses climbed steadily in the early '60's, climaxing in the model year just ended with an all-time record.

Werner consistently promoted "broadened model coverage" and "more options" in seeking higher GMC sales levels.

In both 1964 and 1965 the division responded with peacetime highs in domestic retail deliveries.

In the model year just completed, GMC established record production totals in five different months.

MANY ACTIVITIES

In addition, Werner has been prominent in Pontiac area civic activities.

He served as general chairman of the 1965 Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign and in the last year has worked actively with the Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Caserio has headed AC since Feb. 21, 1964 and is a 1936 graduate of Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

He joined GM in 1937 and rose through a series of engineering and manufacturing posts to be (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Michigan Dems Face Fight Over Viet Stand

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—A dispute over the war in Viet Nam threatened to escalate into a floor fight at the Democratic state convention today.

Wayne and Washtenaw county doves threatened to carry the issue to the 2,200 delegates and alternates after a strongly worded foreign policy resolution was turned down in a resolutions committee meeting early today.

It was one of three possible floor fights facing the delegates at their fall nominating convention.

After settling on a relatively unknown candidate for lieutenant governor, the leadership caucus, made its wishes known in several other races, including those for the Michigan State University Board of Trustees and the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

John Bruff, a Macomb County lawyer, got the lieutenant governor nod after former State Treasurer Sanford Brown left it to him. He was not interested in the nomination.

Bruff would be the running mate of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Zolton Ferency.

The selection of Norman Kravall of Detroit over former Democratic State Chairman John Joe Collins for the U. of M. board, and the naming of Nathan Conyers for the MSU board could produce floor fighting.

Conyers, brother of U.S. Rep. John Conyers of Detroit, faced possible opposition from the Rev. James Chambers.

Strike Is Over as Machinists OK Settlement

5 Lines Move Toward
of 6-Week Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's air service moved rapidly back toward normal today as mechanics of five major airlines accepted a new contract and ended the worst airlines walkout in U.S. history.

The first planes started flying early today, and spokesmen for the airlines—Eastern, United, Northwest, National and Trans World—said they hoped to have full schedules operating within 24 hours.

For six weeks their planes had been grounded by the strike of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

The union, which had rejected an earlier settlement proposal, voted 17,727 to 8,235 Friday to accept the latest offer and return to work.

"The strike is now over," said the union's President P. L. (Roy) Stiemler as he announced the results.

CAN DROP LEGISLATION

The contract approval sending 35,400 strikers back to work permits Congress to drop politically explosive legislation that would have ordered strikers back to their jobs for the first time in U.S. history.

Organized labor had lined up solidly in opposition to the legislation.

But it shatters White House guidelines designed to limit wage hikes to 3.2 per cent a year and sets a precedent for other unions to cite in pressing for faster paychecks.

'Stay Cool' Is Word From Weatherman

Cloudy, a bit cooler and probable rain is the weekend forecast for Pontiac area residents.

The day-by-day prediction from the Detroit Weather Bureau looks like this: SATURDAY—Sunny and continued cool today; highs to 75. Increasing cloudiness and not quite as cool tonight with lows of 52 to 58.

SUNDAY—Cloudy and cool with occasional light rain likely by afternoon. Highs will be 66 to 74.

MONDAY—Rain ending with partial clearing.

'Bomb Choice Up to N. Viet'

Hanoi Holds Key to
Peace, Says Johnson

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—President Johnson said today Hanoi's leaders have been told the United States will halt its bombing of North Vietnamese military targets if the Communists stop sending troops into South Viet Nam.

And as he stumped across New England in campaign fashion, Johnson also touched on racial riots, declaring efforts to open up opportunities to American Negroes "can succeed only in conditions of civil peace."

In a speech prepared for a Manchester appearance, the second stop in the second day of a five-state swing, Johnson said Hanoi holds "the passkey to peace."

"We are more than eager to let North Viet Nam live in peace if they only will let South Viet Nam do the same," he said.

But until then, he added, "our task is to carry on until the Communists grow weary and turn from use of force. When that day comes, our men can come home and the people of Viet Nam can go on with building their country."

MESSAGE RELATED

Johnson did not disclose in what manner, nor how recently, the offer to cease bombing was relayed to North Vietnamese leaders, saying only that it has been made known to them both publicly and privately that "if they will stop sending troops into South Viet Nam, we will immediately stop bombing military targets in their own country."

New Tremors Shake Battered East Turkey

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Destructive new earth tremors hit devastated eastern Turkey today, toppling 50 buildings in Erzurum city and adding to a killer earthquake's death toll reaching into the thousands.

Just before the new tremors hit, rescue workers reported counting nearly 1,000 bodies from the first earthquake and officials expressed fear the toll probably will pass 3,000.

Two persons were reported killed in the new shock in Erzurum.

The catastrophic earthquake struck yesterday. It wiped out entire villages in four provinces of Anatolia. More than 100 tremors railed in the wake.

In early afternoon today a sharp earth shock hit Erzurum, center of the earthquake disaster area. Fifty already damaged buildings fell in heaps of dust and broken stone.

The number of known and estimated dead rose by the hour as army and civilian rescue teams fought the rugged, mountainous back country of the quake-stricken area to reach destroyed villages and towns.

Officials reported many thousands injured.

The full fury of the quake yesterday afternoon hit the town of Varto, a community of 3,000 inhabitants.

"It can be said that nothing remained of Varto," a Turkish army officer reported from the scene.

The Turkish Interior Ministry earlier had expressed the belief the quake, which leveled dozens of other villages, might have taken 1,500 lives.

Civilian officials at Varto said 816 bodies had been recovered in that area alone, and they estimated that at least 3,000 persons had perished in the surrounding desert of rubble left by the killer quake.

GM Workers' Wages Hiked

$8-Million Area Rise
Tied to Living Costs

Total wages of General Motors hourly-rated employees in the Pontiac area beginning next month will increase by an estimated $8 million per year due to cost of living allowance adjustments.

All hourly-rated GM employees will receive cost of living hikes ranging from nine to 16 cents per hour under terms of existing union contracts, according to Louis G. Sexton, vice president in charge of personnel staff.

Sexton said the total for the 430,000 GM hourly employees in the United States will amount to an estimated $105-million per year.

For the typical automobile production worker, such as an assembler, the cost of living hike will total 10 cents per hour. In skilled trades, a die maker will receive an added 13 cents.

Their respective hourly rates will total $3.17 and $4.13.

PRICE INDEX

The cost of living allowance is adjusted quarterly based on the Consumer Price Index published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Seaton also announced that in addition to wage increases effective Sept. 5, substantial new hospital and medical expense benefits go into effect Sept. 1 for all hourly employees and eligible dependents.

The added medical-hospital benefits also apply to approximately 45,000 GM retirees.

Seaton said that with the additional benefits, the average cost of such benefits totals more than $1.20 per hour per employee.

Williams Out for 3 Weeks

DETROIT (AP)—G. Mennen Williams is out of the campaign for about three weeks, according to his physician, Dr. Albert L. Steinbach.

Williams was operated on yesterday to remove six kidney stones. Dr. Steinbach said Williams will be in the hospital for about 10 days and should recuperate for two weeks after that.

Williams entered Jennings Hospital Monday after complaining of stomach pains.

At first doctors thought the stones could be eliminated without an operation.

The 55-year-old U.S. senatorial candidate had been scheduled to speak at the State Democratic Convention this weekend in Grand Rapids.

Aides said it is doubtful that Williams will join fellow Democrats for a Labor Day rally in Detroit, the traditional launching spot for fall campaigns.

'Johnson Betrays Businessmen'

ANN ARBOR — President Johnson in the airline strike has taught the nation's businessmen that he will not back them up even when they are supporting his own policies, a University of Michigan business economist charges.

Associate Prof. Ross J. Wilhelm says the President's conduct also has helped teach the union members that militancy pays — that the longer they hold out, the more they will receive.

"The stage is set for a wage-price spiral upward over the coming year, and Mr. Johnson's actions may have been a major contributing factor in helping it about," he concludes.

While the airline strike has caused much inconvenience to the public, the economic questions and problems raised by the strike will have serious long-run effects on the economy, Wilhelm points out in a discussion on his radio program, "Business Review," produced by the University Broadcasting Service.

"The most fundamental problem raised by the airline strike arises from President Johnson's efforts to settle the strike," he declares. "The President personally moved into the dispute when it appeared that there was a strong possibility a settlement could be reached."

MANEUVER FAILED

Whatever the President's reasons, the maneuver failed when union members rejected the proposed settlement. But more important, Wilhelm says, are the long-run economic effects of his actions.

"The key point in the airline dispute was President Johnson's own wage-price guideline policy," he explains.

"The airlines had taken the position that any settlement in excess of a 3.2 per cent increase — the President's guideline — was unacceptable. The union was fighting for a settlement which was much higher," he said.

"Now, when the President entered this dispute and personally agreed to an increase that amounted to about 6 per cent, he obviously was setting a precedent, and in effect he changed his own policy."

OTHER EXECES

"Where do the President's actions leave the airline executives and any other management group that tries to support the President's anti-inflation policies?"

"Why should any company management accept all of the pain and losses of income involved in a strike if the President ends up by not supporting them and giving in to the unions by changing his policy?"

Because the Johnson intervention was made so early in the strike, and his policy on inflation apparently was "changed overnight on the whim of the President," corporate executives may feel that the wage-price guidelines are not very important and that the administration will not back them up in following them anyway, Wilhelm says.

"On the other side, the President's actions in the airline strike have taught every union member and every union leader that militancy pays," the U. of M. economist adds.

WENT BEYOND

"The settlement accepted by the President not only went beyond his own wage-price guideline, it even went beyond the inflationary settlement the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Truck Crash in Groveland Fatal to Boy

A Groveland Township boy was killed and his brother and a neighbor girl hospitalized yesterday when the pickup truck in which they were riding smashed into a tree.

Dead is Ronald D. Travis, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Travis of 2228 S. Johnson.

Pontiac State Police said the boy died shortly after the truck driven by his 17-year-old brother, Larry, west of Oak Hill east of Bird in Groveland Township and hit a tree.

Larry and 12-year-old Mary Hauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hauer of 2182 S. Johnson, Groveland Township, were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital in serious condition.

Aussies Mop Up N. Viets After 'Significant Victory'

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Australian infantrymen hunted remnants of a North Vietnamese battalion 40 miles southeast of Saigon today after battering the Communists with artillery fire and killing at least 227 of them.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Viet Nam, called the Aussies' action a "significant victory."

Over North Viet Nam, U.S. pilots pounded oil depots in the southern panhandle Friday and left the area expediting in flames, the U.S. military command said.

Elsewhere, the ground war was relatively quiet. U.S. troops reported little or no contact.

CONGRATULATIONS

Westmoreland sent a congratulatory message to the Aussies for their battle of Thursday.

He said the U.S. pilots struck eight oil dumps and reported six secondary explosions — an indication of direct hits — plus six fires. Pilots also claimed damage or destruction to 50 barges, 6 bridges, 15 railroad cars and 15 trucks.

A U.S. spokesman said American fliers flew 113 missions over the Communist north Friday were limited to the Haiphong area and the southern panhandle by bad weather.

Award Goes to Trainee at The Press

A Pontiac Press summer trainee, Joseph P. Crawford, has won $250 in the second annual journalism contest in prize competition of the Newspaper Fund, Inc.

Crawford, 20, of Royal Oak is a junior at the University of Notre Dame, majoring in journalism.

He was nominated by The Press on the basis of his work as reporter and copywriter.

Contestants wrote 750-word essays discussing what they had gained from the summer newsroom experience, why they were interested in journalism and how they expected to develop their careers.

The fund is supported by the Wall Street Journal.

Exam Demanded in City Break-In

Preliminary examination of a 29-year-old man charged with breaking into a Pontiac market is scheduled for Aug. 24 following his arraignment in Municipal Court.

Frederick Ody, who gave no address, demanded the pretrial hearing at his appearance before Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Ody was apprehended early Wednesday by Pontiac police, allegedly as he hid in a basement storeroom of Wink's Market, 904 Mount Clemens.

Police said money found in Ody's pocket was taken from the store's cash register. Entry to the building had been gained by smashing a front door window.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Saturday night's weather will be rainy in the Plains, Gulf Coast, Tennessee valley, Carolinas and the southern Plateau. It will be cooler in New England with little temperature change elsewhere.

Roundup of News Highlights

CAIRO, N.Y. (AP) — Searchers marched shoulder to shoulder up a mountain today, and skindivers explored ponds, in a desperate hunt for 7-year-old Debra Smith, who vanished Thursday at the Catskill Game Farm here. State police said there were no clues to indicate that the slender, dark-haired visitor from Maryland had been kidnapped. Debra vanished about 5:30 p.m. Thursday after an outing at the game farm.

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Two German alpinists, trapped on a narrow ledge since Sunday, still alive this morning, officials said. Teams of rescue climbers were poised above and below the stranded pair waiting for the sun to melt a sheet of ice which had kept the Germans prisoner.

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's manhunt of the century for a scar-faced suspect in the murder of three detectives shifted to central England today where a man answering the former army sniper's description was reported seen. Some 500 armed police using bloodhounds ended a two-day search of Epping Forest, about 15 miles northeast of London yesterday. They failed to find any trace of Harry Maurice Roberts, the only one of the three suspects in England's worst police killing in 56 years still at large.

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — Viet Cong terrorists attacked an American servicemen's club in Da Nang with three or four hand grenades tonight. Nobody was killed, but a number of people suffered minor injuries from shrapnel and flying glass. The attackers apparently escaped.

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A Sunday strike by pilots, of Greece's national airline, Olympic Airways, was extended indefinitely today. A spokesman for the pilot's union said the strike was extended because of the company's failure to meet their demands for salary increases.

MOSCOW (AP) — France and the Soviet Union have taken no steps toward setting up a hot line, French sources said today, despite agreement to do so nearly two months ago.

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A bomb explosion wrecked the downtown Italian Airlines (Alitalia) office at dawn today, causing minor and heavy damage. Police said the attack apparently was staged by terrorists in the Austrian-Italian dispute over the South Tyrol.

TOKYO (AP) — A heavy downpour lashed Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost main island, throughout the night leaving seven persons dead and five others missing, police reported. Police said river banks gave way in many places inundating at least 3,000 homes.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraqi government sealed off two northern provinces today where an outbreak of cholera was reported, Baghdad radio said. Travel into and out of the provinces of Kirkuk and Diyala has been prohibited to anyone except vaccination teams, the radio said. There was no report on any deaths from the disease.

PRESTWICK, Scotland (AP) — The Stars and Stripes was lowered at Prestwick Airport for the last time yesterday, closing another U.S. Air Force base after 12 years operation. Since the end of June, when the base was announced, more than half of the 300 servicemen at this home of the 11st Air Base Group have been sent home or to continental Europe. A spokesman said remaining personnel will leave within two weeks.

PARIS (AP) — Lord Avon, the former British prime minister, repeated his proposal for a neutralized Viet Nam on French television today. He said both Red China and the United States could accept it. "The Chinese and Americans could be satisfied, not completely, of course, but so-so, and that would not be bad," the former Anthony Eden said in a televised interview.

SLUMPED-OVER SUSPECT — Steven H. Caouette, an 18-year-old former Marine with a history of mental illness, sits handcuffed in a police car after being captured in Fitzwilliam, N.H. He was caught with 13-year-old Marie Couture, who, police say, he abducted from her home in Winchendon, Mass. Thursday. The youth was arraigned on a fugitive warrant in Jaffrey, N.H.

Week's Market Drop Rivals '62 Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market this week took its worst fall in more than four years, rivaling the drop of May 1962 just prior to the "Black Monday" plunge.

Wall Street was wracked in gloom over high interest rates, the 1962 recovery, but no lasting light of business and the economy later in 1966 and in 1967. The market fell sharply every day.

But there was no panic, no rush to sell. Volume did pick up to 2,532,290 shares from 28,411,345. A temporary recovery followed that big shakeout — the worst since the 1929 crash — bottom until the end of June 1962.

Many Wall Streeters were asking this weekend whether the 1962 history would repeat. A strong technical rally, at least, is anticipated, but no lasting recovery until some sign of the tight money situation is being reversed, analysts say.

STOCKS FELL

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 13.3 to 289.0, its lowest since Jan. 20, 1964. This week, 1,393 stocks fell and 106 rose.

The 37-point fall of Xerox was one of the most sensational. Fairchild Camera dropped 12 1/2 points, Polaroid 15, Itek 15 1/2, Burroughs 8 1/2 and Eastern Air Lines 6 1/2.

On the "Black Monday" of May 28, 1962, the AP average of 60 stocks fell 16.3 in the worst week since the 1929 crash.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 35.91 this week to 804.82. This was its lowest since it dropped to 800.31 on June 8, 1964, and its worst loss since the same 1962 week when it declined 38.82.

"They have been taught by everyone, including the President himself, that the longer they hold out the more they receive."

"It is only reasonable that if Mr. Johnson and his advisers gave them bigger offers twice in a row as the strike continued, they might get even more if they turned down the President's second offer."

Expected Library Budget of $197,377 Approved

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — A one-man show of recent works by Glen Paulsen, new President of Cranbrook Academy of Art, opens Sept. 20 and continues through Oct. 30.

The budget shows an increase of approximately $16,000 over the current one, due partly to an estimated increase in the township and anticipated state revenues.

Township taxes will make up an anticipated $186,877 of the total revenue. State and local taxes, grants-in-aid to local public libraries and related funds will provide for an additional $10,500.

Estimated expenditures include $85,000 for professional and clerical salaries, and $10,000 for furniture and equipment.

Operation expenditures such as rent, utilities and supplies are estimated at $30,000.

A contract with Baldwin Public Library in Birmingham for township resident use will cost an estimated $45,500. Another contract with the Wayne County Library for system services is estimated at $5,200.

William A. Calhoun of 4316 Pine Tree, worked for more than two months this summer in the Washington office of Congressman William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak).

"Architecture in Evolution," Residents of Brandon, Groveland and Independence townships are faced with a trash and garbage problem: No place to put it.

A Brandon Township dump used by all three communities was closed yesterday by township officials at the request of the state and Oakland County health departments.

Residents using the dump will have to make other arrangements for trash and garbage disposal until the dump meets health department standards or a suitable replacement is found.

Officials from both health departments agreed after inspecting the dump on M15 north of Oakhill that it should be closed immediately.

Unsanitary conditions at the dump were cited by health department officials as being in violation of state law.

RESIDENTS COMPLAIN

Residents near the dump had complained in recent months of excessive smoke from burning, odors and the presence of rodents at the 10-acre dump.

Officials of the three townships have scheduled a tentative meeting Monday at Independence Township to attempt to resolve the problem.

Health officials won't approve reopening of the dump until an engineering description of the entire layout, an operational procedure plan and cleaning of the present site are completed.

Howard Altman, Independence Township clerk, said that the private operator of the dump was given a notice two weeks ago to end his service yesterday because another operator had offered better service.

Brandon Township, which owns the dump, and Groveland Township have each paid one quarter of the operational cost. Independence has been paying the other half because of its larger population, Altman said.

Senators Okays LBJ Bill on Urban Blight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of President Johnson's bill to rebuild blighted areas of some cities hope Senate passage of the measure will lead to quick action in the House, where similar legislation has been stalled for weeks.

The measure cleared the $1.26 billion demonstration cities bill by a 54-20 vote Friday, sending it to the House.

Senate debate was sharp but brief and the bill's backers had a much easier time than they expected.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen made a strong attack on the legislation but could not carry even a majority of his party with him.

EASY PASSAGE

The measure passed with votes of 39 Democrats and 14 Republicans. Opposed were 13 Republicans and 9 Democrats.

Dirksen said "This has all the potential of being one of the greatest boondoggles this country has ever witnessed. It will be shot through with waste and corruption before we are through."

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., supporting the measure, said it "may be the true civil rights bill of 1966" if it can arrest the decay of the cities.

Johnson sought $2.3 billion for a five-year program. This was trimmed in committee to a $900 million authorization for grants in the next two years. Additional funds which boost the total to $1.26 billion would be used for planning and other purposes.

Area Hospital Gets Second Ford Donation

The second of three $50,000 Ford Motor Co. donations to the projected Rochester branch of Crediton Hospital has been presented.

William L. Weber, manager of Ford's Sterling Plant and chairman of the firm's Macomb County Community Relations Committee, made the presentation to Howard L. McGregor Jr., hospital vice president.

Ground for the new hospital was broken last summer and the cornerstone was laid in June.

Tentative completion date for the 207-bed hospital is late next summer.

The hospital is being constructed on the western limits of Rochester, near Rochester High School.

UAW Agitation Is Felt as Talks Near

DETROIT (AP) — Against a background of unrest among skilled tradesmen over work orders and pay, the auto industry looked toward Monday's meeting on reopening the United Auto Workers Union contract with the Big Three auto makers to give the skilled workers an immediate pay raise.

Ford Motor Co. said 195 of 285 skilled workers in the day shift learned that similar cleanup at its Woodhaven Stamping Plant were absent Friday and called the absenteeism "an unauthorized work stoppage." But 1,400 production workers remained on the job and Ford said production continued.

The electricians objected Thursday and the skilled workers failed to report Friday.

SIMILAR WORK
Plawewski said they had failed to report to work because of new orders which, he said, give electricians cleanup work properly done by janitors.

However, a Ford spokesman said the last year to clean up their work areas rather than start new jobs if they had 15 minutes or so of spare time just before the quitting hour. If there was no time, he said, they were not required to do it.

Cairo Editor Given Life for CIA Aid

CAIRO, U.A.R. (UPI) — A prominent Egyptian newspaper editor has been sentenced to life in prison at hard labor on charges of spying for the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), it was announced today.

The sentencing came more than seven months after Amin's trial by the Supreme State Security Court for allegedly passing "political, economic, and military information harmful to Egypt's security" to a CIA agent.

The court's judgment and sentence were forwarded to Nasser who had the power to confirm or commute it or order a retrial.

WITH AGENT
Amin was arrested July 21, 1965, while lunching in the port city of Alexandria with Bruce T. Odell, identified as a 37-year-old CIA agent who was nominally a political attaché at the U.S. Embassy in Cairo.

Odell was quickly transferred out of Egypt and four months later Amin was indicted on two counts of spying and the currency charges.

The indictments, although they made no mention of the United States, were issued the same day, Nov. 30, that the U. S. State Department announced negotiations on a new U. S. aid program for Egypt.

Cairo newspapers saw the "co-incidence" as an indication by Nasser that he would not be bought off by American aid.

Sniper Hunt Is Abandoned

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI) — A big police search for a reported sniper was called off last night when officers said, "We were unable to verify that anything had been hit."

Some 50 policemen converged on a drive-in theater shortly after 9 p.m. (PDT) in response to reports that cars of several viewers had been hit by bullets.

At one point during the search police said there were reports that "five to nine cars" in the theater had been hit and that the sniper was using a .22 caliber rifle.

There was never any panic in the theater. Viewers apparently were unaware of the large-scale police manhunt.

The search was called off about an hour later.

Car Hits Bus; Exec Killed

DETROIT (UPI) — The president of the Service Cable Corp. of Detroit was killed yesterday when he ran a red light and hit a Wayne State University bus being towed through an intersection.

John H. French, 47, Canton, Ohio, was killed when his car rammed the disabled bus. French was reportedly on his way to join his wife and three children vacationing in the Ludington area.

The spokesman said tool and die makers already are required to clean up their work areas when time allows.

Both skilled and production workers have complained throughout the industry about work rules and production standards, the UAW said.

PRODUCTION WORKERS
Leaders of a movement to get an immediate pay raise for the skilled workers tried, meanwhile, to figure out what to do about production worker demands to be included in any pay raises. There are five or six production workers for each skilled tradesman in the auto industry.

The auto makers are expected to reject any reopening when they meet with UAW officials Monday.

The union is asking at least 50 cents an hour for the skilled

Mail Must Go... but Not There

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP) — The post office has suspended mail delivery to about 80 homes located over an abandoned limestone mine. Several cave-ins have occurred and a number of homes have been destroyed.

Postal officials said the families could pick up their mail at a branch post office or set up mailboxes outside the danger zone.

Pontiac, Michigan

As our 1966 GMC Model run ends, I wish to thank the Pontiac Press for the most successful classified ad campaign we have ever enjoyed.

Our sales reached new highs and from January 1, 1966 thru June 30, 1966 our new truck sales were up 43%.

The Pontiac Press Classified can expect us back with 1967 GMC truck ads in September to further sales of the local product.

Sincerely yours,

Griffin Takes Aim at Crime in U.S.

To combat the crime rate that has risen nationally by 35 per cent since 1960, Michigan's Republican Senator ROBERT P. GRIFFIN has introduced a bill in Congress that would give Federal assistance to states in setting up crime information centers.

Although the Federal Bureau of Investigation is itself planning such a center, to be fully effective the concept requires a countrywide integrated system for the transmission of crime data.

If crime in the U.S. is to be fought successfully it must be done so nationally, with each state filling the role of an essential link in a boundless information network.

The easy mobility of criminals has changed the nature of organized crime from a local to an interstate operation, and provincial outlook in law enforcement no longer suffices.

Though police powers belong to the states under the Constitution, GRIFFIN asserted that it is incumbent on the Federal government to help the states to meet their responsibilities.

The bill just introduced to that end is but one of a number of proposals the Senator will introduce in the next few weeks aimed at the crucial crime problem.

No greater issue faces the Nation than the wave of lawlessness that threatens to engulf it. We commend Sen. Griffin on his objective analysis of the menace and his enlightened approach to meeting it.

Spiraling Personal Debt Fuels Inflation

That the Country is in the throes of creeping inflation there can be no doubt. Food and commodity prices, services and wages have been inching up for well over a year. But there is doubt in high places as well as low as to the cause or causes of the inflationary trend.

Excessive government spending both at home and abroad is unquestionably a significant factor in the upward movement of the cost of living, as are unjustified wage hikes and price boosts on consumer goods for which demand runs ahead of supply.

But contributing no little to the rising price index is the vast increase in consumer debt. Just as government spending in excess of income is an inflationary force, so is the spiraling tendency of John Q. Public to buy today and pay tomorrow.

A recent report of the Federal Reserve Board disclosed that "consumer credit" outstanding had passed the $90 billion mark—double the 1958 figure. "Consumer credit" is the amount the populace owes on automobile notes, charge accounts, personal loans, and all other instalment accounts.

If from this your conclusion is that general application by the public of the old-fashioned principle of pay-as-you-go would help curb the rising cost of living, you are right. No one has yet figured out a way to have your economic cake and eat it, too.

No Heroes Adorn E. Germany's 'Wall of Shame'

A nation recently observed the fifth anniversary of an act of ignominy—the erection of the Berlin Wall by the East German government.

Begun as a barbed-wire fence, it is now a 26-mile four-foot high barrier with 200 pillboxes and bunkers, the same number of observation posts, 100 searchlights and more than 200 dog cages.

Until the Wall went up, nearly three million East Germans had fled their Communist "paradise" for the democracy and prosperity of West Germany. An untold number, however, at risk of death, still continue by devious devices to breach the barricade.

The Wall is mute admission of weakness and failure of communism in East Germany. No good society needs to imprison its citizens. Yet the East German government observed the Wall's anniversary as a symbol of major progress.

History is replete with the failures of tyrants and dictators who literally or figuratively sought to wall in the bodies and spirits of their peoples.

Campaign Fund Issue Stalls

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON—Political campaign financing is producing the usual: some hand-wringing, some indignation, some gloomy forebodings about the dwindling chances of the poor man in politics.

This has been happening on and off all year in Congress but, by the time the congressmen go home, they probably will have done nothing, as they have for years despite the cries for reform.

Just last month, Rep. MARLOW James C. Wright Jr., D-Texas, said the high cost of campaigning is making it impossible for any but the wealthy—or the willing wards of the wealthy—to seek public office.

And Thursday Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., said unless something is done it will be "practically only for the rich to seek high elective office."

"Colossal" was Sen. Thurston B. Morton's word for present campaign costs. This Kentucky Republican is his party's campaign chairman in the Senate.

Under present law, candidate for the House can spend more than $5,000 in his bid for election, no candidate for the Senate more than $25,000.

KNOWING EVASION
Wright has said probably every member of Congress has knowingly evaded the purpose of the law limiting election campaign expenses.

The present law permits $5,000 contributions to any number of committees set up to aid a candidate.

With that in mind, no doubt, President Johnson last May asked Congress to reform campaign financing, saying the present $5,000 limit could no longer be evaded by "putting the maximum amount into different pockets of the same suit."

Under existing law national political committees can raise and spend no more than $3 million in any one year—but there is no limit on the number of such committees and the law doesn't apply to committees active in only one state.

SWEEPING REFORMS

Johnson, when he asked Congress for sweeping reforms in May, proposed among other things:

• All candidates and committees supporting them for federal office would have to report, clearly and promptly, the sources of all their campaign funds and how the funds are spent.

• Members of Congress would have to disclose all gifts and income.

• Change existing law and make the ceilings on the size of contributions to campaigns really mean what they say.

• Encourage widespread public participation in the financing of political campaigns through tax deductions of up to $100 for campaign contributions.

The POWER of FAITH By WOODI ISHMAEL

Of all the personalities in the Old Testament none has afforded more thought and discussion for scholars than Job. It is the age old story of the suffering of the innocent. Job, a righteous man of great integrity, suffered loss of family, home, wealth, and became afflicted with sores when Satan attempted to make him defy God. Job's three friends, Eliphaz, Bildad and Zophar, tried to console him. Job, in his grief, questioned why he had been afflicted but never lost his belief in God.

The ancient unknown writer of this great story and poem was also a philosopher who posed the eternal question of undeserved human suffering. He showed that the limited mind of man cannot comprehend the infinite order of Divine Providence, but that he can be sustained by spiritual strength and power of faith.

Confident Living:

Making Most of One's Own Self

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

A friend of mine is always asking one question. "Why is it," he asks, "that some people succeed and others fail?" Then he gives instances of unlikely people who have succeeded and of likely people who have failed.

His definition of success is mine. It is not a matter of money. We all know people who have made money and been successful in life. We also know people who have made money and been personal failures. What my friend and I mean by success is the ability to do things better than well. It is the faculty of releasing your own greatest potential; of utilizing your mind to its maximum.

Broadly speaking, it means making the most of oneself.

A young man offered his life history as a case in point. "I am one of 10 children born in a hillbilly family in the southern mountains. My father and mother and all of us were illiterate. The others still are, but I got out. I love them and respect them, but I live in another world, and so, I am afraid, I have lost them and it troubles me. But I could not have done differently. I had to leave. I wanted to be somebody. The impulse came one night in church when the preacher told us what God can do for human beings. I knew right then that I had something within me that had to be released."

The Bible tells us about a man, well on in years, who chose a new way of life. "And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and he saith unto him, Follow me: And he arose, and followed him." That is the whole story. There was old Matthew, a tax gatherer, gold running through his fingers, scanning his ledgers to see where he might squeeze out a little more. A shadow fell across his account book. He lifted his head to see a man looking down on him in kindly fashion. The eyes looked him through and through and in that glance Matthew saw his destiny. When Jesus said, "Follow me," Matthew closed his ledger, got up and followed him. But he took with him his pen — and wrote The Gospel According to Matthew, one of the masterpieces of the ages.

One of the great factors in this story contains a secret for everybody which, if cultivated, can be a turning point to a successful life. What is the twist or slant that makes all the difference? I would say, first of all, it is necessary to get an obsession. Get late your mind the obsession that humbly and with God's help you are going to succeed in life — that there is no power in this universe that can make you fail.

Some people form the habit of failure. They just know they are going to fail. They insist on it. If you argue with them they reply, "You may be right; but you don't know me." They might just as well say, "I'm going to fail no matter what you say."

They defeat every attempt to reach them with a constructive idea.

Lord Halifax said: "If you hold a thought long enough, that thought will take you prisoner." That is a frightening statement—frightening because it is so true. Hold thoughts of defeat and failure and they will take you prisoner.

On the other hand, hold positive thoughts and they will, with God's help, give you such power as you have never dreamed. Let positive thoughts take you prisoner and you can do what you want to do.

When you know where you want to go — what you can do — what you would like to do — and dedicate yourself and your desires to God, you will begin to go somewhere.

Chief Commends Press' Support of Police Work

The Pontiac Police Department wishes to commend the editorial staff of The Pontiac Press for its valuable and forthright support of good law enforcement. Special reference is made to your most recent editorial which was published in your newspaper Monday.

Our citizens must come to realize that the single objective of their police agencies is the protection of their lives and freedom. To this end, society must be willing to make reasonable contributions and sacrifices. Let's all join hands and put the criminal out of business. We have the potential but we still lack the coordinated determination and direction.

Blood Pressure Check for Nominal Fee

In Florida, any person can get his blood pressure checked in a drug store, by a retired doctor or a registered nurse, for a charge of seventy-five cents. If the pressure is not normal, the patient is advised to see his doctor.

I think this would be a great service for Michigan, especially for the elderly.

The residents of West Mansfield have declared war upon the speeders on our street.

The man who stopped Saturday morning and hawled out the radar policeman set a very bad example for his children in the car. These policemen have gone out of their way to help us slow the traffic on this street. Yelling at a policeman because you have broken a law makes very little sense to us.

'Americans Treat Cong Prisoners Cruelly'

TV showed American soldiers herding Viet Cong prisoners. The prisoners looked like underfed kids beside the husky U.S. soldiers. Their arms were tied behind their backs and they were thrown on the ground like sacks of potatoes and then tossed into waiting planes.

Is this the Geneva Convention on treatment of war prisoners that we demand that Hanoi observe? Is it all right for U.S. troops to treat prisoners as less than animals?

All I could think of as I saw that demonstration was that cattle prods and dogs should have been there too. It would have looked familiar and wouldn't hurt one.

Bemoans Decline of Individual Initiative

What has happened to the individual today who dares to stand alone? Our government has stifled initiative by providing almost everything for the individual. I wonder how many of those who participate in demonstrations would be willing to work alone to do something of value for their fellow man? This individuality is also sorely lacking in our churches today.

Reasons Stated for Indian Trail Hazards

Some areas along Indian Trail are hazardous due to railroad ties, stones and cement walls. The residents resort to all kinds of measures to reduce speed of motorists who ignore the 25 m.p.h. speed limit, thus endangering the lives of resident families and their children. At times it is impossible to cross the road to the beach because of speeding demons.

The Orchard Lake Police have never been busier and are doing an excellent job of apprehending the offenders.

Why didn't "Worried" (who wrote earlier on this subject) sign his/her name? By not having done so an innocent party is being accused and harassed. The Pontiac Press should insist on signatures to letters on any controversial topic.

'Harassed Housewives Need "Truth" Bill'

It was a little horrifying to read the false assumptions in your recent editorial on "Truth in Packaging." This should be a non-partisan matter since it concerns all consumers.

The inference that the American housewife doesn't need government protection shows lack of concern for the consumer. Can you visualize a busy housewife, two or three youngsters in tow, taking each item and making a determination as to the actual cost of food for her family?

It is offensive to read the preposterous predictions of dire consequences to our economy should this measure be passed. However, if this editorial serves to point up the necessity of writing our Congressmen, asking them to vote for this bill, then some constructive action will have been accomplished.

I've seen several movies lately with intermissions, and they all seem like the longest movies ever made, but I'm wondering if one of them hold the record?

MOVIE FAN

REPLY
Not unless you saw "The Human Condition," a Japanese movie shown in Tokyo in 1961. It lasted 8 hours and 50 minutes and had two 20 minute breaks. For non-talking films, "Sleepy" by Andy Warhol of New York City holds the record. It lasts eight hours and consists entirely of a man sleeping.

Detroit Officers Are Reinstated

Drop Perjury Counts,
OK Back Salary for 6

DETROIT (AP)—Police Commissioner Ray Girardin says he has ordered immediate reinstatement of six policemen who were cleared of charges of perjury before the Wayne County Grand Jury.

Girardin says the men are to be paid for the time they were suspended. The six were indicted and suspended June 22 and 24.

Charges against the six accused of lying to Grand Juror Edward Higgins about accepting gifts from bar owners were dropped Wednesday and Thursday.

The six are Sgt. Russell Geronick and patrolmen Philip C. Williams, James M. Loom, Frederick J. Lawrence, Walter Kerr and Alfred P. Finner.

Girardin says back pay will amount to the difference between what they earned at outside jobs during suspensions and their police salaries.

"I've checked with the grand juror and the records of what went on in court, and I have determined that there is no evidence against these men that would warrant a trial board," said Girardin.

Duck Lake Plan on Water Level to Be Discussed

Property owners on Duck Lake in Highland Township will meet Thursday with Oakland County Drain Commission officials to review cost apportionment for a proposed lake level project.

A low bid of $39,977 was submitted for the project which will involve the sinking of a deep well.

This cost, which includes financing over a five-year assessment period, amounts to $1.82 per front foot.

The lowest front foot cost for a Drain Commission project to date was 42 cents for Upper Straits Lake and the highest was $6.40 for Long Lake.

Judge Upholds Charges Against 2 in Copper Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal judge has upheld Securities and Exchange Commission charges that two Texas Gulf Sulphur Co. employees bought stock on advance information of a big copper strike, but dismissed charges against 10 others and Texas Gulf itself.

U.S. Dist. Judge Dudley B. Borsal, in an 81-page opinion, said Friday that David M. Crawford, secretary of the company, and Richard H. Clayton, a geophysicist, turned "material undisclosed information" to their own advantage when they bought Texas Gulf stock in April 1964.

Clayton helped survey the concern's rich copper strike at Timmins, Ont., late in 1963.

Among those cleared by the decision were Claude O. Stephens, Texas Gulf president; Charles P. Fogarty, executive vice president, and Thomas S. Lamont, a director and a retired vice chairman of the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co.

The SEC suit, a civil action, was filed April 19, 1965. Judge Borsal's decision was the outcome of a 17-day trial at which the testimony of 61 witnesses filled 2,600 pages of transcript.

It was brought out that Clayton ordered 200 shares of stock on April 15, 1964.

Crawford bought 600 shares a short time before a press release April 16 on the Timmins strike was distributed at a news conference.

Crawford, the evidence showed, ordered 300 shares

"about midnight" of April 15 and increased the order to 600 shares about 8:30 a.m. of the 16th.

Judge Borsal said that while there was "no evidence that Crawford intended to deceive or defraud anyone, it is clear that he sought to, and did, 'beat the news.'"

There is a shortage of about 6,500 professionally trained librarians in the nation, according to a federal survey.

Antiwar Groups Curb Likely

WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation designed to curb the activities of anti-Viet Nam war groups headed for overwhelming House approval on the heels of this week's tumultuous hearings by the Committee on Un-American Activities.

"I think Congress is very receptive to this legislation," said Rep. Joe R. Peel, D-Tex., acting committee chairman. Other members agreed that the defiant committee-haiting by antiwar witnesses and admission by several witnesses that they are Communists will help speed the legislation to early House passage.

Pool said he would seek committee approval next week of a bill he introduced to authorize maximum $20,000 fines and 20-year jail terms for persons convicted of helping the Viet Cong or North Vietnamese or of trying to block the movement of U.S. men and materials to Viet Nam.

In the Senate, leaders were reported waiting for House action before deciding on setting hearings. One source said the bill would have a good chance in the Senate—if it could be brought to the floor before Congress ends its session.

The investigative phase of the hearings was concluded Friday in another turbulent session in which more than a dozen persons, including three witnesses, were tossed out.

Police said seven men and five women were booked on disorderly conduct charges, bringing the number of arrests in four days of hearings to more than 50.

The committee then turned its attention to the legislation itself, hearing witnesses asking passage of a bill.

Meanwhile, Arthur A. Kinoy, the 45-year-old New York attorney whose ejection Wednesday led to the walk-out of lawyers for all subpoenaed witnesses at the hearings, was found guilty in General Sessions Court of disorderly conduct.

Judge Harold H. Greene fined him $50, then suspended the sentence. Kinoy, visibly moved, said the case would be repealed and predicted reversal.

Kinoy was dragged out of the hearing room by three marshals on orders of Pool after he persisted in making legal objections when told to sit down. The judge said it appeared that Kinoy, "tried to outshout the chairman."

An organization called the Coordinating Committee to Defend the Civil Liberties of the Anti-War Movement announced it would hold a rally at the Washington Monument this afternoon, then march on the Capitol to protest the hearings and the ejection of Kinoy.

Fueling Mishap on Saturn 5 Is Investigated

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)

The space agency today investigated the cause of a fuel line break that spilled 800,000 gallons of liquid oxygen into a field near the Saturn 5 man-to-the-moon launching pad.

The rupture occurred Friday in a 1,450-foot long, 14-inch diameter pipe from a liquid oxygen storage tank to the Saturn 5 pad. There was no fire, explosion or damage to facilities.

Technicians were fueling the second stage of a 365-foot Saturn 5 rocket—a non-flight version which is being used to check out pad facilities.

Whipped Convict Files Court Petition

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)

Arkansas' controversy over whipping of convicts, dormant for six months, has flared again with a prisoner's hand-written charge that he was strapped for not picking a crop he couldn't see.

William King Jackson, 27, a Gresham, S.C., man sentenced in 1962 to five years in the state penitentiary for burglary, filed a neatly printed, six-page petition in U.S. District Court Friday.

He charged that he was whipped with the five-foot leather strap for overlooking—because of his poor vision—"okra in the field."

Prison officials said they would issue a statement commenting on the petition sometime this weekend.

Last November, a U.S. district judge, acting on convict petitions, ruled that use of the whip constituted cruel and unusual punishment as prohibited by the Constitution unless the penitentiary board established explicit rules for its use. The board adopted a set of rules Feb. 2, but they have not been tested in court.

As a result of the first controversy, warden Dan Stephens resigned. He was succeeded by O. E. Bishop.

Prison officials contend the whip is an effective way to maintain discipline. Opponents argue that solitary confinement would work as well. The officials say they don't have facilities for solitary confinement.

Under the new rules, a man may be whipped for not meeting his quota in the fields, but the decision must be made by a two-man prison board, not by the field supervisor. Quotas are based on a man's age and physical condition.

Entrances To The Roddewigs' And Leaks' In Independence Square Apartments

Retirees Cast Vote for Apartment Living

JODY HEADLEE
Home Editor, The Pontiac Press

"Summertime . . . and the living is easy" for the Keith Leaks and the Gil Roddewigs of the Independence Square Apartments, 3801 Dixie, Independence Township.

No grass to cut or any other of the hundred and one maintenance problems that plague home owners.

Both are retired couples and gave up being landlords to enjoy the convenience of apartment living.

Neither is sorry. They have full use of VanNorman Lake for summer boating, fishing and swimming fun and none of the worries that frequently accompany lakeside living.

Mrs. Roddewig has free rein over the small plot beside her covered patio to keep her green thumb in tip-top condition and practice one of her favorite hobbies.

DECORATION EXPERT

Mrs. Leak doesn't need the great outdoors to enjoy her hobbies. She is an expert at decoupage and refinishing antique "finds."

Artistically inclined, both ladies have decorated their apartments without professional help.

Mrs. Leak selected a modified Victorian theme, using oriental and old world accents from their travels abroad to introduce interesting pace changes.

The ground floor apartment of the Roddewigs reflects a Mediterranean influence against a background of off-white walls and carpeting.

Pecan burling tables, which can double as seats, serve the antique-gold sofa flanked by olive green matching chairs.

White walls and sculptured gold carpeting set the scene for the Leaks' Victorian pieces.

Forest green velvet covers the matching sofa and governor's and lady's chairs. Repeating the forest green for emphasis are candles on the pink marble coffee table before the sofa.

Should Not Ignore Decoration of Home

For most families who build a new home is the culmination of months — sometimes years — of dreaming, planning, of consultation with architect and builder.

Too often, the decoration of this home seems almost an afterthought.

Few families are able, or want to decorate a home in one full swoop.

Nevertheless, they can learn a lesson from professional decorators who often handle jobs complete from rugs to ashtrays.

One such firm, Swimmer Custom Interiors of Hartsdale, N.Y., recently did such a job on a model home — feature attraction at a home, garden and decorating show.

EVERY DETAIL
Swimmer's men entered the empty house at 10 in the morning; they left at 3 o'clock with every detail complete.

The lesson one might draw from this performance is that skillful decorating can be a rapid-fire, on-the-spot proposition. But nothing could be further from the truth, according to Bob Swimmer, head of the decorating firm.

"If the decoration of this home proves anything, it is that long-range planning, especially between architect and decorator, can achieve a better looking home — and frequently save a good deal of money."

"Since the decoration of a home plays as large a role in its internal appearance as the structural design, it should not be ignored during the planning stages," Swimmer said.

INITIAL PLANS

For instance, he noted, initial plans for the model home — an aluminum design — call for the fireplace to be located in the center of the living room wall — its standard position.

However, because the rooms of the home are of average size the usual placement would have made the furniture arrangements appear somewhat cramped.

By moving the fireplace to one side, more workable room space was achieved.

Preliminary plans for the home also called for a separate living room and dining room.

QUITE

However, Swimmer said, both quite small and unimpressive because of space limitations. Removing the dividing wall created one large room which appeared much more gracious but could be kept functionally separate through proper design and decoration.

The decorator emphasized that a myriad of decorating details can cost the average home owner unnecessary grief and expense if they are not worked out beforehand.

"People frequently decide to want paneling in a room — after it has been plastered and painted. Or they find they want their dining room table offsetter but the overhead lighting outlets already have been centered."

Even such points as the placement of windows, or the direction from which the closets should open — easily changed in the planning stage — can cause decorating difficulties in the finished home.

To clean spots from white enamel surfaces, rub very lightly with a soft cloth moistened in turpentine, then wipe with a dry cloth.

UNCLUTTERED LOOK: That's the decided impression created by this three-bedroom ranch's precise lines, which suggest careful attention to practical details and are an accurate reflection of the manner in which the architect has laid out the interior.

Individual Clients Prompt Ranch Plan

"We want a center hall plan that permits entry to any part of the house without going through other rooms."

"We want plenty of wall space in the living room and dining room so that we can arrange our furniture properly."

"We want the family room next to the kitchen."

"We want the fireplace in the family room, not the living room."

"We don't want the stairs to the basement to be in a conspicuous place."

CLIENT'S WISHES

These comments, made to architect Fenick A. Vogel by some of his individual clients, served as the guidelines for Design G-50, created by him for House of the Week.

He has taken the suggestions and placed them within the framework of an interesting contemporary ranch, using contrasts of vertical siding and stone veneer, with a long planter as a decorative accent.

To the right of the center hall, so important in modern design as a traffic delineator, is what might be called the formal area of the house — the living room and dining room.

The two rooms get a sense of separateness from wrought iron dividers, which nevertheless do not destroy the open flow of space in an expanse of more than 28'.

Note the large amounts of wall space in both rooms in line with the requirements of families who felt that the placement of furniture was difficult with walls that are "cut up" too much.

Straight ahead from the entry foyer are the family room and kitchen, comprising the high-light area of the house.

The family room is 15' by 20', the kitchen 13' by 15'. Here again the architect has used the separate-but-open type of planning, utilizing an island counter as the line of demarcation, with storage facilities between the kitchen and the dinette end of the family room.

END WALL
The end wall in the family room is brick and has a fireplace with a raised hearth. Sliding glass doors lead to the rear, giving a feeling of outdoor living even when seated in front of the fireplace.

A service door leads from the kitchen to the rear yard, while another door serves as an entrance to the garage.

This second door is next to the laundry area, which is set off by louvered doors.

To the right of the center hall is the bedroom wing, with three rooms, two baths and plenty of closet space. One bath is, of course, accessible from the master bedroom.

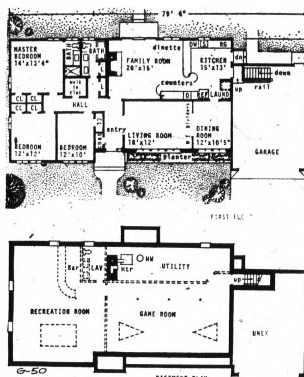

What about that inconspicuous stairway? It has been cleverly located in the rear part of the garage, directly next to the kitchen door.

This keeps it out of sight, yet yet within easy reach of both the inside and the outside, since there is also an entrance to the garage in that rear area.

Going to the basement can thus be negotiated from the house or the outside, an important factor if anything has to be taken downstairs or upstairs.

As for the basement, it has been divided by the architect into two large game or recreation rooms, a utility section and a lavatory.

Finishing it according to these plans can be done when the house is built or at some later date.

FLOOR PLANS: The traffic pattern in this ranch house is excellent, with the center hall leading directly to the living-dining area, the bedroom wing and the family room-kitchen combination. The basement stairway is accessible from inside and outside.

G-50 STATISTICS

Design G-50 has a living room, dining room, family room, kitchen, laundry area, three bedrooms and two baths, with the habitable area totaling 1750 square feet. Basement plans call for two recreation or game rooms, a utility section and a lavatory. Over-all dimensions, including a garage, are 79'4" by 33'.

Chart Four Steps for Basement Paneling Work

How does one panel a basement room?

First, waterproof the walls; second, install furring strips; third, do all the electrical work; fourth, add panels.

Furring strips will give you reduced condensation, as they set up an air barrier between the paneling and foundation.

They provide a level surface and a place for positioning outlet boxes and electrical fixtures.

Furring strips of 2"x2" or 2"x4" inch lumber are spaced 16 inches apart, measured from center to center.

ATTACHED

They may be attached to the foundation walls separately or assembled ahead of time on the floor and then fastened to the floor plate and the joists.

Selection of paneling is important, too. It should be resistant to moisture so that panel movement won't be noticeable. Preferably, it should be factory-finished and easily maintained by damp-wiping. It should be attractive.

Storage House Is Efficient Addition

Need storage space for lawn furniture and barbecue equipment? Build a three-foot-deep storage house at one end of the deck or patio.

Use double doors, a shed style roof for rain runoff, and weather-proof western wood siding. Storage house will also serve as a privacy wall and wind baffle.

Everyone's Looking for a "Find"

Covering Antiques Circuit Is Popular

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP News Service Writer

The antiques circuit is a booming vacation pastime. Groups get together and follow the "mule" signs across countryside, often equipped with their own comfortable chairs and a picnic lunch.

Browsers and buyers are jamming country and city antique fairs, second-hand stores, house "tag" sales, junk shops and demolition emporiums.

Everybody is in search of a "find" — something valuable whose true worth has escaped the attention of the seller.

But real finds are getting harder to get.

Some people are content to take home a stepladder or a punchbowl at the end of a day.

HOUSE AUCTION

At a recent house auction of fine Chippendale and Queen Anne, one engaged girl gazed up at the kitchen's brand new household appliances — toaster, blender, coffee pot and broiler.

The saving made it possible for her to be the successful bidder on a $50 handhewn rug, and to feel that she'd gotten a real bargain.

But lots of people get stung at auctions. So many good things are now reproduced that even experts can be fooled, points out interior designer Leona Kahn, a perennial auctioneer.

Professional searchers spend long hours, sometimes weeks, combing back roads of far-out places to discover new sources of antiques, she points out.

It never has been more difficult to ferret out antiques.

One reason for the massive competition is, of course, the trend to buying antiques for investment, she says.

"Great antiques are not running of the mill old pieces. These are usually signed pieces. Rare examples of a given period," Mrs. Kahn points out.

But even "old pieces" that were the backbone of auctions and sales, sandwiched in with rare work of art or piece of furniture, are getting harder to find.

Many would-be sellers now call appraisers to get a value put on an old piece of grandma's that has been covered with dust in the barn or attic for 50 years or more. They want a good price for it.

The shortage of good things has naturally brought reproductions on the scene, she points out.

It isn't always easy to recognize a doctored piece of furniture or a piece of porcelain or glass made today from an old mold.

Many porcelains have been copied and even when you find one with a recognizable mark, one must be aware that there is a great variety of Chelsea marks all indicating age.

First-time auction goers should know, too, that most professionals carry tape measures with them.

Not only to measure chair seats and plates as one indication of their age, but to get the true dimensions of an object on which they intend to bid.

Large things may look much smaller on the auction stage, so if you don't want to be stuck with something that doesn't fit into your house, it's best to attend the auction's preview.

There you can see everything close up and everything like you like.

It's a good idea to avoid bidding on anything that needs repairs, advises Mrs. Kahn. Look around, you'll notice dealers seldom bid on objects in disrepair.

The auctioneer may say in an off-hand matter "It needs a little repair" as he lovingly strokes the little old lady's hooked rug or a table with wobbly legs.

But don't fall for it. That kind of hand labor can be costly. Dealers rarely bid on such items, unless they are spectacular finds.

The odds are much against a neophyte coping off a real prize at an auction in Mrs. Kahn's opinion.

When something of especially fine quality is to be auctioned, dealers often band together to buy it.

That way the syndicate can seek professional help and profit rather than raising the bid perhaps from one's interior designer.

Mosaic Murals on the Increase in Construction

The use of ceramic mosaic murals and other works of fine art in public and private buildings will increase considerably in the next few years.

The prediction is based on a new awareness of art's place in everyday living — among government agencies and individuals alike.

Following a 1964 FHA policy statement that encouraged works of art in multifamily housing projects, some city governments enacted laws on the subject.

Boston, Philadelphia and now New York City have regulations that are similar in nature.

Last year New York's Mayor Robert Wagner signed an executive order directing that new public buildings include works of fine art. City-financed structures are now required to include the art works, which must range between 1/4 of 1 per cent and 1 per cent of the building's total construction costs.

FINE ART

Mayor Wagner defined the works of fine art as mosaics, murals, sculpture, stained glass, bas reliefs, decorative paving, ornamental metal works, fountains and special landscaping.

The object of the new regulation is excellence in design.

The earlier FHA recommendation paved the way for fine arts in multifamily housing projects by including them as part of the mortgage security and allowing up to 1 per cent of the FHA estimated cost of the building for the art.

The policy was said to be in line with the administration's efforts to improve design in Federally built or assisted structures.

Waterford Fund Airing Monday

The Waterford Township Board will consider a proposed $65,445 community school program budget for 1966-67 at its 7 p.m. Monday meeting.

Approved Thursday night by the Board of Education, the budget is about a $3,200 increase over the current one.

Under the proposed budget, the township and school district would contribute $12,500 each, a $2,500 increase over the current allocation.

In other business, the township board will consider approval of appointments to the youth assistance committee. The school board approved the appointments Thursday night.

AT RAINIER'S SUMMIT — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara (in white parka) rests at the summit of 14,416-foot Mt. Rainier with other members of his climbing party yesterday. With McNamara are, Willard Goodwin (left), Dr. Stanley Livingston (next to McNamara) and Craig McNamara, 16 (right). McNamara and his family plan to return to Washington, D.C., today.

Dean Martin's 'Formula' for TV Success Pays Off

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD — "They make such a big deal about putting on a television 'show,'" scoffs Dean Martin.

"Meetings, meetings, meetings all the time. Me, I do it the easy way."

Indeed he does. The Dean Martin method of staging a variety hour so shocked the sweat-and-strain laborers of the TV vineyards that all were predicting his way pointed to disaster.

But Martin won the battle of the ratings and will be bouncing back on NBC with another 30 hours in the coming season.

Those other stars make such a big thing of television. Yes, I do know. It's because they insist on being writer, director and producer as well as performer.

"I've got writers, director, producer. I let them do what they're supposed to do. I go to the studio at 1 on Sunday afternoon and I'm out by 9. That's all there is to it."

Martin makes everything seem easy. He already has six TV shows completed and is now starring in another Matt Helm romp, "Murderer's Row." He is also slated for a western with George Peppard at Universal and a comedy with Stella Stevens at Columbia.

He is casual about his present prosperity: "I made three million dollars last year and only left the house four times."

He is jesting about the latter, but the three-million figure could well be accurate. He reports that his first Matt Helm epic, "The Silencers," grossed $12 million and he owns 10 per cent. That plus his other films, the TV show, records, his appearances in Las Vegas and elsewhere put him in the same tycoon class with his pal Frank Sinatra.

Visits Apartment

Smiling Luci in Austin

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Luci Johnson Nugent, married two weeks, quipped and smiled her way yesterday through Texas city where she and her husband, Patrick, will set up housekeeping.

Pat and Luci returned to Washington Thursday night from their 10-day honeymoon in the Bahamas.

Tonight Luci will be a bridesmaid at the wedding of Kathleen Carter, daughter of CHC Carter, old family friend who resigned recently as executive director of the Democratic National Committee.

Sunday evening she'll take part in the Washington wedding of Patsy Derby, a distant cousin of Mrs. Johnson.

Pat stayed in Washington, Luci said, because "it's a long trip and expensive."

At Austin yesterday, Luci was met by Betty Beal and Betsy Barclay.

They visited Betty's home, went to a grocery store and then to the brick duplex apartment where Luci and Pat will live while attending the University of Texas.

They plan to move in within the next week.

In Washington, a White House spokesman said that the Nugents now are trying hard to become simply "Mr. and Mrs. citizen," adding: "Her (Luci's) address is no longer 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue. She's a married woman settling down to life in her own apartment, with a husband."

"WINDOW TOUR"

Yesterday was Luci's first visit to the apartment since furniture was moved in.

"I feel some people have already had a tour through the windows," the President's daughter commented.

She told newsmen the furniture could best be described as "early marriage" and that she'd decide on furnishings for a home later. But right now, she said, "it's very livable."

Asked if it were true that Secret Service agents, who accompanied her, were going to live in a small house to be built by the apartment house, Luci quipped: "I'm not in the security business."

As for her Aug. 5 marriage, she said, "I'm very happy with it."

Griffin Poll: 'Virtually Even'

DETROIT (AP) — Sen. Robert P. Griffin said today a recent poll indicated he is "virtually even now" with former Gov. G. Mennen Williams in the U.S. Senate race.

The Republican senator said a poll conducted Aug. 2 by Market Opinion Research Inc. showed 39.9 per cent of voters favor his candidacy, compared with 40.6 per cent for Williams, the Democratic contender.

Griffin said a poll taken last April gave 50 per cent support to Williams and only 23 per cent to him.

Local Strikes

MUSKEGON (AP) — Members of the AFL-CIO Carpenter's Local 100 struck the E. H. Sheldon Co. Friday.

The carpenters voted 288-65 to walk out after disciplinary action had been taken against an employee involved in a disagreement with a company foreman.

Landmark Stolen; It Never Worked

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — The four-foot-high thermometer that had hung on the front of Spokane City Hall for more than 40 years was stolen this week.

The building maintenance foreman, Ernie Richard, took the loss in stride. It never worked anyway, he said.

MRS. DENNIS WILLIAM DAY

Birmingham Reception Follows Wedding Today

Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Dennis William Day (Barbara Jean Alton) greeted guests in the Birmingham Athletic Club after today's vows in St. Vincent de Paul Church.

Parents of the couple who chose an eastern wedding trip are the Robert J. Altons of West Iroquois Road and the William Days of Cincinnati, Ohio.

EMPIRE GOWN

Alencon lace adorned the bride's Empire gown and Watteau train of white silk organza over taffeta and formed a coil headpiece for her imported illusion veil.

She held a nosegay of white roses for the nuptial rite performed by Rev. Thomas McGrath.

Mrs. E. Roger Smith of Hartford was her cousin's honor matron with bridesmaids Mrs. Joseph Sailagyi, Rochester, Mich. Joanne Bologna of Warren and Donna Evans, Rochester, N. Y.

With best man Frank St. Charles of Cincinnati were the ushers J. Rodney Alton, John A. Solmer, Larry Robbins and Edward Horgan.

The couple are alumni of Hillsdale College.

Carolyn Anne Spies Is Wed in Harper Woods Ceremony

A ballroom reception in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial followed the nuptial vows of Carolyn Anne Spies to Craig Edward Thomson, Friday in Our Lady, Queen of Peace Church, Harper Woods.

Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Spies of Grosse Pointe Woods and the Charles W. Thomsons of Linden Road.

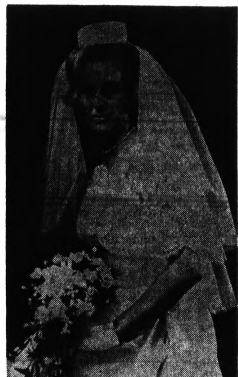

With her gown and train of white silk peau de soie and Alencon lace, the bride wore a matching pillow with silk illusion veil. Her bouquet held Phalaenopsis orchids and Stephanotis.

Attendants were Linda Spies and Sheila Thomson, sisters of the bride couple, with Cindy Bretz, flower girl at the rite performed by Rev. Leonard Burckli.

Paul Thomson was his brother's best man along with ushers Ens. William Dobbereen, Richard McRae, Gary Glisan and John Belongia.

The couple chose an eastern honeymoon. Both are graduates of Western Michigan University.

MRS. CRAIG EDWARD THOMSON

Garden Club Has Outdoor Luncheon

Some 25 members of the Better Home and Garden Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Wallace Morgan on Oneida Road for an outdoor luncheon.

Mrs. LeRoy D. Hecox was chairman for the day with committee members Mesdames V. P. Spencer, Roy Hauesler, Howard Luther, Edgar Carvey and Harvey Place.

It was voted to pay the Italian Nurses Scholarship Fund for Elizabeth Walker of the Ottawa tribe who is a junior at the University of Michigan Hospital School of Nursing.

Plans were made to attend the District I annual meeting at Red Run Country Club, as guests of the Lone Pine Garden Club of Bloomfield Hills.

Sales Benefit Ypsi Theater

An invitational champagne preview at 7:30 p. Monday at the Briggs Building and Stanger's, both Birmingham, will open festivities for a three day antique show benefiting the Ypsilanti Greek Theatre.

Guests of honor at the preview will be Dame Judith Anderson and Mrs. Mildred Lehr, wife of the noted actor, Bert Lehr.

The show, to be held at the above mentioned sites will feature collections from 45 major dealers throughout the state and others from out of state. It begins at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

Warn This Fun-Loving Mother About Delinquency of Minor

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: A 35-year-old neighbor woman asked our 19-year-old son if he would like to go out and have a beer with her.

They left at 9 p.m. and didn't get home until after 2 the next morning. The place they went to closes at midnight, so they bought some beer to take out and went riding around.

This woman left her own children at home. Her husband is a truck driver so he doesn't know what goes on when he's away.

Our son has always been a good boy. Abby, when he came home his reaction was that of embarrassment. He said he didn't know she intended to stay out so late. How would you handle this?

UPSET MOTHER

DEAR UPSET: A 19-year-old "boy" shouldn't need a bodyguard. And if he's a "good boy," he'll have sense enough to decline her next invitation, should there be one.

I would let the woman know, however, that there are laws against contributing to the delinquency of minors, and also neglecting one's own children. Too bad there are better heads on beers than on some people.

DEAR ABBY: I have an awful problem that I'm sure many other girls have. You see, I wear braces and when my boy friend kisses me it feels like someone is hitting me in the mouth with a barbed wire fence. I like him a lot, but because of this it makes me dread having to kiss him. Do you have any suggestions?

KAREN

DEAR KAREN: Yes. Tell him to slow up when he gets to the fence.

DEAR ABBY: We have a lovely home and I am very particular about keeping it clean. We have a baby girl who will be starting to creep soon. My problem is my husband.

He insists on cutting his toenails in the living room. I find his toe nail clippings all over the living room carpet, and even on the coffee table.

I have told him I don't like it, but he does it anyway. Our baby will be creeping soon, and you know how babies pick up every little thing off the floor and put it in their mouths. It is such a gruesome thought! What should I do?

DEAR WORRIED: Explain to the baby (the big one you're married to) that toe nail clippings can do the same kind of damage to a baby's stomach as broken glass, and he surely wouldn't leave broken glass around for the baby to eat, would he?

If that doesn't stop him, hide the scissors.

DEAR ABBY: I am being unjustly criticized by some members of our small community. You see, I am separated from my husband and I get lonely for male companionship. So, I have formed a few friendships with some married men in town. (There are NO single men here; believe me, I have looked.)

I do have a strict rule, however. I do never date a married man unless he tells me his wife doesn't care what he does. So, if I am not trying to steal another woman's husband, what is wrong with having a good time with a man who is as lonesome as I am?

CRITICIZED

DEAR CRITICIZED: A married man belongs to his wife and family whether his wife "cares" what he does or not. And there is always the heel who says his wife doesn't "care" when she doesn't even know.

DEAR ABBY: Please say something about wives who wear their husband's secretaries out with their constant pointing to remind him of something they forgot to tell him before he left the house.

A busy executive relies on his secretary to take most of these messages. Mine are like this: "Tell Mr. Jones not to forget to pay the dentist's bill."

"Tell Mr. Jones the brakes on my car need adjusting."

"Tell Mr. Jones not to get tied up next Wednesday night. It's his daughter's piano recital night."

Some wives insist on talking to their husbands. If I say, "Mr. Jones is talking on another line," she asks, "WHO is he talking to?" If I say, "Mr. Jones has stepped out," she asks, "Where did he go and when do you think he'll be back?"

Then she demands that I have him call her the minute he returns, as it is an emergency. So when I try to call her back, her line is busy for an hour!

Leave for Southern Plantation

Off on a honeymoon at a South Carolina plantation on Hilton Head Island are the Robert Alan Leahys (Jeffrie Lee Beazle) who were wed today in St. Dominic's Church, Shaker Heights, Ohio.

Assisting the pastor, Rev. John R. Storey, was Rev. Justin A. Miller of the Fairmount Presbyterian Church, Cleveland Heights.

Parents of the couple are the John F. Beazles of Shaker Heights who hosted the home reception, and the Sylvester F. Leahys of Orchard Lake.

VENISE LAKE

Venise lake accented the bride's Empire gown and train of pale ivory Irish linen worn with bouffant English illusion veil. Her colonial bouquet held Stephanotis and lillies.

Fredlyn Zimmer of Lexington, Ky. was maid of honor. Melissa DeVore of Cincinnati was bridesmaid; Laura Townsend, Canton, Ohio, junior maid and Jo Ellen Beazle, flower girl.

With best man A. Gerald Lamert of Grosse Pointe, were the ushers S. James Booth, Winnetka, Ill., John F. Beazle IV and James R. Beazle.

The newlyweds are alumni of Denison University and he will enter Harvard University Graduate School in September.

The Leahys hosted the rehearsal dinner Friday in the Shaker Heights Country Club.

Slatting Fall Vows

Early fall vows are planned by Marcia Louise Feole, daughter of the Harley Feoles of Stanfield Road, West Bloomfield Township, and Pfc. Dennis Atwell, son of Mrs. Anna Atwell of Walld Lake. He is stationed with the U.S. Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

MRS. ROBERT ALAN LEAHY

Jeffrie Lee Beazle, daughter of the John F. Beazles of Shaker Heights, Ohio, and Robert Alan Leahy, son of the Sylvester F. Leahys of Orchard Lake spoke vows today in St. Dominic's Church, Shaker Heights.

A secretary has enough to do without all those interruptions and time-consuming chores.

Abby, you have my permission to change this letter around any way you wish, just do us secretaries a favor and get this message across!

BUSY BUT BOTHERED DEAR B. B. B.: You've said it so well, I wouldn't dare to change a word. When a woman's feet hurt, no one else can describe her pain with quite so much feeling.

Troubled? Write to Abby, in care of The Pontiac Press. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

William Colvins Honeymoon

The William O. Colvins (Julia Anne Lyons) left for a northern wedding trip and their future

MRS. WILLIAM O. COLVIN

Julia Anne Lyons, daughter of Mrs. David E. Lyons, Shore View Drive, and the late Mr. Lyons, exchanged chapel vows with William O. Colvin, son of the Arthur J. Colvins of Birmingham, today in the First Presbyterian Church.

home in Portland, Ore. after chapel vows today in the First Presbyterian Church.

Their parents are Mrs. David E. Lyons of Shore View Drive, the late Mr. Lyons, and the Arthur J. Colvins of Birmingham.

Gil L. Lyons escorted his sister at the rite performed by Rev. Galen E. Hershey and Amy Lynn Gardner of Michigan City, Ind. was bridesmaid.

PEARL TIARA

A pearl tiara holding her illusion veil complemented the bride's gown of white silk organza, with bodice and skirt panel of Chantilly lace. She carried white carnations, white and yellow Sweetheart roses and ivy.

Best man was David L. Molhoek of Kalamazoo, with ushers Harry Whyte of Sarnia, Ont. and Harry I. Lang.

A garden reception at the bride's home followed the ceremony. She is an alumna of Western Michigan University and her husband was graduated from Alma College.

Few Women Private Eyes Neglect to 'Get Their Man'

By GAY PAULEY

UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — They're the gals who get their man.

And because their job is in security and investigation, they often also bring in the women.

They're the Lady Pinkertons, hired by the firm which calls itself the world's oldest and largest security service.

The number of women in the field is growing, say Pinkerton executives, because in many instances they can work where a man cannot. But female investigators have been a part of the American scene for more than 100 years.

One of the most celebrated was Kate Warner, credited along with Allan Pinkerton, the firm's founder, and several male investigators with helping to foil a plot to kill President Lincoln in 1861.

"I'd match some of our women investigators with any of our men," said William C. Linn, assistant vice president and director of security.

MOST DO

"Always get their men?" said Howard Nugent, vice president in charge of Pinkerton's investigative arm, in answer to a question. "Most women do, don't they?"

Some 200 women, either in plain clothes as investigators or in snappily-tailored steel blue uniforms as security hostesses, now work for the firm in a variety of assignments.

These include industrial plants, supermarkets and department stores, colleges, hospitals, at conventions, even mental institutions.

"The uniformed women in one mental hospital we serve have proved most helpful," said Linn. "They have a surprisingly calming effect on patients, as opposed to a robust male guard."

Security hostesses were used during the recent New York World's Fair, found especially helpful in one of the fair's biggest headaches — lost children. Linn said that during the fair's two year run, 10,813 boys and girls were returned to worried parents or guardians.

The women fit well into firms where employees are predominantly women — as in a New York cosmetics manufacturing concern where small but expensive products could be concealed within the dress or underclothing of a dishonest employee.

One advantage: There is no restriction to the female guards appearing in the ladies' lounge or locker rooms. They serve, too, to prevent one employee's fidgeting contents of purse or pocket or another.

Women guards do not carry firearms, but their beginning and on-the-job training includes fundamental means of protection. Said Linn, "A heavy hand bag swing is as good as any club."

One of the firm's women assigned to a retail store in South Bend, Ind., was a judo expert weighing, as Linn said, "about 125 pounds wringing wet. But she'd tackle a male suspect who outweighed her by 100 and bring him down."

Arthur Lizees Repeat Vows in California

A reception in the Carriage Hill Club followed the marriage of Alice Catherine Bego to Arthur Francis Lizee in the Montecito Presbyterian Church in Santa Barbara, Calif.

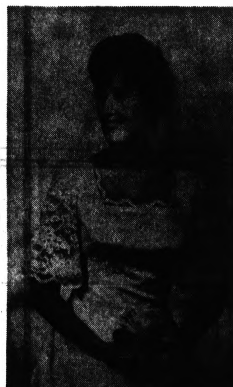

Parents of the Santa Barbara residents are the Anton Begos of Occoila Drive and the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lizee.

Re-embroidered Chantilly lace accented the bride's A-line gown and Watteau train of white silk organza worn with a French illusion veil. Her bouquet held white butterfly roses, gypsophyllia and Baker's fern.

Mrs. Ronald Uhlen of Santa Barbara was matron of honor with Ann Bego, Bloomfield Hills, her aunt's flower girl.

On the esquire side were best man, Robert A. Chaffin of Goleta, Calif. with ushers Harold J. Schielele of Montecito and Edward M. Riley of Goleta.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Nevada and northern California. She attended the University of Michigan.

MRS. ARTHUR FRANCIS LIZEE

Former Pontiac resident Alice Catherine Bego became Mrs. Arthur Francis Lizee today in the Montecito Presbyterian Church, Santa Barbara, Calif. Parents of the Santa Barbara residents are the Anton Begos, Occoila Drive and the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lizee.

Companion Lost

Pair Drifts to Safety

BAY CITY — Two fishermen clung to their capsized boat in Saginaw Bay for 14 hours before drifting safely to shore yesterday, but a companion, attempting to swim for help, was reported lost.

A search was ordered to recover the body of Charles R. Lee, 40, of Bay City.

His companions, John Pascuzzi, 36, of Esesville, and Richard LaCourt, 27, of Kawkawlin Township, both autoworkers, said they last saw Lee sometime after dark Thursday.

The fishermen, said their 14-foot aluminum boat overturned when it was caught sidewise between swells.

Pascuzzi said he and LaCourt stayed with the boat but Lee insisted on trying to swim to shore.

Lee made three or four attempts but each time but the last returned to the boat.

Pascuzzi said Lee became hysterical and disregarded their pleas to stay with the boat.

Pascuzzi and LaCourt, clinging to the overturned craft, drifted to shore at Gillman's Landing in Linwood shortly before 9 a.m. yesterday.

COMMENTS ON MARCH — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. addresses an impromptu press conference late yesterday in Chicago after a Circuit Court judge issued a temporary injunction restricting civil rights marches. King said the marchers may defy the court ban and termed the injunction "a tragic expression of bad faith on the part of the city."

King May Disregard March Restriction

By the Associated Press
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. has indicated he may disregard a court order restricting open housing marches he has been leading into hostile and violence-packed areas of Chicago.

The temporary injunction, issued Friday by Circuit Judge Cornelius J. Harrington limits civil rights demonstrators to 500 and permits only one march a day.

King called the order "unjust, illegal and unconstitutional." "We are prepared to put thousands in the street if need be," he said. "The city hasn't seen the number of people we can put there."

He said the marches probably would be resumed Sunday.

DAYLIGHT HOURS

Harrington's order, requested by the city of Chicago, permits the Chicago Freedom Movement demonstrators to congregate only during daylight hours, and requires 24 hours' notice to police of any marches.

King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference has been spearheading marches into white neighborhoods to protest segregated housing. The marches often have met with violent resistance.

In Atlanta, Ga., a city judge sentenced 12 antiwar demonstrators to jail and bound one of them over to a grand jury on an injunction charge.

The action by Judge T.C. Little grew out of a fracas at an army induction center which demonstrators had tried to charge, knocking a police officer down and tearing uniforms of others.

Judge Little, who said his own son is in Viet Nam, invoked an 1870 Georgia injunction law after sentencing Johnny C. Wilson, 19, to 120 days for disorderly conduct and failure to obey an officer.

6 Skeletons at UP Site

ST. IGNACE (AP) — A Michigan State University archaeologist has found six skeletons at a construction site near St. Ignace.

Lyle Stoner, the archaeologist, said that beads found near the latest body indicate the six were buried between 1650 and 1700.

He said the skeletons were found in a single grave four feet square, two feet below the surface and two and a half feet deep.

Yesterday Stoner found two stone and two steel knives, several copper beads and bells, and some pipes believed to be of French extraction.

Later the archaeologist reported finding five Jesuit rings and a copper crucifix.

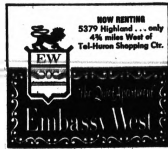

APPARENT MASSACRE
Stoner said that he judged from the way the mutilated skeletons were positioned in the grave that they were dumped into it after what was an apparent massacre.

He said it would be sometime before the nationality of the skeletons could be positively determined.

Air Force Sprays Dallas' Skeeters

DALLAS (UPI) — Three Air Force planes sprayed Dallas Friday to kill a mosquito infestation which has caused an epidemic of encephalitis. Three persons had died and there were 85 other confirmed cases.

Health officials said the peak of the epidemic was yet to come.

Elections to Be Certified by State Canvass Board

LANSING (UPI)—The four-member bipartisan board of state canvassers will meet Tuesday to certify results of the Aug. 2 primary election and thus open the door to possible recounts in several contested districts.

Meeting in Lansing, the board will put its official approval on election returns from races involving parts of at least two counties, all circuit judge primary elections, and the one race for a vacancy on the court of appeals.

Results for races run wholly within one county have already been certified by the county boards of canvassers.

That leaves to the state board returns from contests for governor, U.S. senator, congressmen, and the bulk of the 148 legislative seats.

Candidates nosed out in close elections are prevented from seeking recounts until the official canvass is completed.

PETITIONS DRAWN

However, reportedly some have already drawn up petitions for recounts, which cost $5 for each precinct to be counted.

State Rep. William Harry Thorne, D-DeARBORN Heights, filed his petitions in Wayne County yesterday for a recount of all 41 precincts in his suburban 32nd District.

The Wayne County canvass last Monday showed him the loser by 32 votes to Alex Pilch, right-hand man to DeARBORN Mayor Orville Hubbard.

Scores Swell for Lady Pros

MUKOVONAGO, Wis. (AP) — Tempers of touring lady professional golfers are getting shorter as their scores get longer in the 72-hole Women's Western Open Golf Tournament.

Marlene Bauer Hagg moved into a first place tie with Mickey Wright in the $10,000 event, Friday as she shot a 74 for a 36-hole total of 150. Miss Wright slipped to a 78 after an opening round of 72.

"It's the most unfair golf course I've ever played on," azzled pretty Judy Torleumke of North Key Largo, Fla., after stalling off the Rainbow Springs Country Club course with a second-round 83 for a 161.

Hier's was not the only professional score swollen after colliding with the par-75, 6,415-yard layout.

5 Extra Days Now Allowed Duck Hunters

LANSING (AP) — The Conservation Commission approved somewhat liberalized duck hunting regulations for 1966 Friday, hours after federal regulations were announced.

The duck season will run Oct. 10-Nov. 23, five days longer than in 1965. Bag limits on most varieties will remain at four ducks per day and eight in possession.

The Mallard quotas have been relaxed from one a day and two in hand to two and four. Possession limits on Canvasbacks and Wood Ducks have been doubled from two to four of each.

The commission also approved an Oct. 1-Nov. 30 goose season for the Upper Peninsula and Northern Lower Peninsula. The rest of the Lower Peninsula is open for goose hunting Oct. 10-Nov. 30.

Bag limits are again five per day and five in possession, two of which may be Canadian geese. In general, waterfowl shooting hours will be from sunrise to sunset.

PORTSMOUTH, Va. (AP) — Archie McDowell of Virginia Beach took the lead in the Eastern Amateur golf tournament with a par 70 for a 36-hole total of 138.

Art Wall Finds Range to Lead Golf Tournament

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — In at Wethersfield Country Club, the golf course couldn't play easily. Billy Casper, market on sparkling golf for the stated after the second round of second straight day to go in the $100,000 Insurance City front with a 65-64-129. His 13-Open, as he tried to explain the under par standing at the half-sensational scores being turned way mark Friday put the 43-year-old Wall in his best position to lead a tournament in the United States since winning the 1964 San Diego Open.

Casper, the U.S. Open champ and the year's top money winner at $99,315, was nine strokes back of Wall Friday at 69-69-138. A year ago, Casper was eight behind at the same point, but he rallied with 65-66 to win.

"The greens were soft, the winds were gentle and the fairways gave a lot of roll," Casper said, adding that the key to taking advantage of the situation was to have your "putting stroke going." Casper didn't.

Wall's score of 65-64-129 was the lowest in the tournament since he won the 1964 San Diego Open. Casper's 69-69-138 was the highest in the tournament since he won the 1964 San Diego Open.

Jacoby on Bridge

By OSWALD AND JAMES JACOBY

Experts are luckier than ordinary bridge players because they have the habit of playing their cards so as to give the best chance for success. It wouldn't be difficult at all for most bridge players to go down one or four spades. They would ruff the third heart and draw trumps. Then they would attack the clubs in some way or other and would wind up losing two club tricks.

Undoubtedly they would explain that they would have made the hand with a 3-3 club break but no one would be impressed.

An expert would give the hand considerable study and finally decide that the best line of play would be to draw most of the trumps but not all.

At trick four he would play his queen of spades. At trick five he would lead a low club and duck in dummy. A trump

This line of play was not sure to succeed. It would fail if West held the long trump but in that case he would be down the same one trick he would have been down on the first line of play. He would lose his ace of clubs but be able to ruff his last club in dummy.

Suppose clubs broke 3-3? Both plays would succeed. All the expert line did was to give declarer the extra chance.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of opening one club, East has opened one diamond. You double and after West passes, your partner bids one spade. What do you do now?

Dem Senator Drops Action Against Foe

DETROIT (AP) — Democratic State Sen. Bernard O'Brien has dropped his petition to disqualify Arthur Cartwright as Democratic nominee from the 5th Senatorial District.

Cartwright defeated O'Brien in the Aug. 2nd primary. According to O'Brien, Cartwright does not live in the 5th district.

O'Brien's attorney, James Mulehry, said he asked Wayne County Circuit Judge George E. Bowles to dismiss the petition because, he said, it would cause too many legal difficulties to establish Cartwright's true residence.

O'Brien is scheduled to be tried this month on charges of soliciting a Michigan State coed.

During the two seasons of the New York World's Fair, more than 10,000 Long Island ducklings hatched before an estimated two million visitors at the Long Island Rail Road's exhibit.

FAMILY RECREATION—Rev. William R. Doe pitches a ball to his son Randy as son Dennis holds down the catcher's position. Denise (left) and Mrs. Doe look on. The family has just moved to Pontiac where Rev. Doe will assume ministerial duties at Pilgrim Holiness Church. They are pictured in the yard of the church parsonage, 25 W. Fairmont.

Rev. Wm. Doe Assumes Duties at City Church

The Rev. William Doe has accepted the pastorate of the Pontiac Pilgrim Holiness Church. He has been pastor of the North Lakeport Pilgrim Church for the past eight years.

Rev. and Mrs. Doe received their theological training at Owasco Bible College, a liberal arts college of the Pilgrim Holiness Church.

The Rev. Mr. Doe served as District youth president of the East Michigan District for five years. He was recently elected to the District council of the East Michigan Conference.

The Does have three children, Denis (17), Denise (14), and Randy (9).

As a brief respite from his pastoral duties he enjoys an occasional game of golf as well as hunting and fishing.

10th Anniversary for St. James

St. James Baptist Church, 345 Bagley, is celebrating its 10th anniversary this weekend.

Services are scheduled tomorrow in the morning and at 3:30 and 7:30 p.m. tomorrow with church members conducting the worship.

Bar-b-que dinners will be served in the church dining hall until 10 p.m. tonight.

Clarence McBride is chairman of the Planning committee. Co-chairman is Pervis Cage.

City Choir Union to Give Program

The City Wide Choir Union Souvenir Book Program will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. in St. John's Methodist Church.

Pontiac from the Gospel Free Will Baptist Church, Hazel Park.

He received his training from the Community Bible School in Detroit and then did evangelistic work for several years.

BIDDING FAREWELL—Rev. Carl Koerner and (from left) his wife and daughter Carol leave their home, the parsonage of the First Free Methodist Church, 34 Court, for the last time. Daughter Joyce (on the porch) will stay behind to teach 3rd grade in Waterford Township. The Koerners will make their home in Gladwin where Rev. Koerner will be superintendent of the Bay City-Alpena district for his church.

Church Gets New Minister

New Pastor at United Faith, General Baptist Church, 81 E. Howard, is Rev. Max Davis.

Rev. Davis comes to Pontiac from the Gospel Free Will Baptist Church, Hazel Park.

He enjoys coin hunting so much that friends call him the "Coin hunting preacher". He is a member of the Michigan Night Hunters Association of Lakeport.

Rev. and Mrs. Davis have two children, Virginia, 16, and Dale, 13.

Methodists Integrate
WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Near-ly 200 Negro Methodist churches and about 370 white Methodist churches in this southern peninsula region have merged into a single integrated Methodist annual conference, ending separate administrative jurisdictions for the two groups.

A native of Pontiac, Mr. Brown received a B.A. degree in Political Science from Wayne State University and a Juris Doctorate degree from Detroit College of Law.

Rev. Samuel Hatcher will be preaching for the Educational Committee at the church's 7 p.m. service tomorrow.

Urges Hiring of Top Non-Lutheran Profs

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A Lutheran campus ministry leader has suggested that Lutheran seminaries as well as colleges employ the best qualified professors whether they are Lutheran or not.

The Rev. John Arthur, of the Division of College and University Work of the National Lutheran Council, also proposed at a meeting here that Christian denominations share ownership and use of campus and parish facilities and develop interdenominational congregations near universities as well as in mission fields.

He said a belief in the unity of the church without believing in some form of visible structural union is "an evasion of reality and very naive."

At Birmingham Church

Author to Be Discussed

Nikos Kazantzakis, Greek author, will be discussed in a lecture by the Rev. Robert Marshall at the Birmingham Unitarian Church, 651 Woodward, Bloomfield Hills, tomorrow at 8:15 p.m.

The lecture is titled "Nikos Kazantzakis: Priest, Prophet, or Poet?"

Each August the Birmingham Unitarian Church presents its minister in a Summer Evening Book Lecture. Rev. Robert Marshall, also proprietor of an Ann Arbor book store, is offering his series on the major European novelists in the 20th century.

The lecture, open to the public, will be held in the main auditorium of the Birmingham Unitarian Church. A question period will follow.

Bridge Class Will Begin in September

Members of Sacred Heart Church of Auburn Heights are busy getting an intermediate bridge class rolling for this fall.

Mrs. Thomas Hollis, bridge instructor at the Pontiac YMCA has been recruited to teach her "tricks" to all interested bridge fans.

Phyllis Berg and Audrey Patterson are accepting enrollments now for the class which is tentatively scheduled to begin Sept. 20 at 8 p.m. in the Sacred Heart School hall, 3330 Adams Road, Auburn Heights.

The fee is $10 per person or $15 per couple. Classes are open to anyone who registers by the deadline date, Sept. 1.

Estate Money Used to Distribute Bibles

DALLAS (AP) — Proceeds of the $2 million estate of Miss Ann Oldham of Abilene will be used to print and distribute Bibles overseas.

George L. Shearin, associate secretary of the Baptist Foundation, said the plan was worked out by Miss Oldham, who died recently at the age of 63.

The foundation will administer the estate and turn over net proceeds to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

2nd Thoughts on Mission

Changes for Orbiter?

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Impaired vision in America's flying eyeball — Lunar Orbiter — gave scientists cause for second thoughts today on whether to fly the mission as planned or aim for something else.

"If the problem cannot be cleared up, we won't be able to get the close-ups needed of the possible astronaut landing sites from the front side of the moon," said spacecraft manager Israel Taback yesterday.

Orbiter — an 850-pound space package built by Boeing — is designed to orbit the moon, then snap, process and relay pictures back to earth by radio. Everything seemed fine, scientists said, until Thursday.

Then came the first read-out of test pictures, taken from 133 miles above the lunar surface.

The first frame snapped came in fine, but then blurs set in on high-resolution pictures.

Every time the camera snaps a frame, it takes two pictures, one of a wide area at medium resolution, the other of a closer, magnified area at high resolution. The high-resolution system appeared to constitute the problem.

Scientists laid plans last night to snap 13 additional frames of the moon, eight of them on the back side, to test a theory that giving the camera a brief rest between each picture may enable the high-resolution lens to operate properly.

The theory is based on the fact that the first 16 frames taken consecutively Thursday were of excellent quality. Four additional frames were then snapped after a 75-second rest.

The purpose of taking the 13 additional frames is to advance to read-out position the first of the additional four frames shot Thursday.

This frame, one high- and one low-resolution picture of the back side of the moon, will be read out today.

A U.S. space agency spokesman said results of the experiment should be available later in the afternoon.

"We haven't pinned down the trouble," Taback said yesterday.

"One theory is that a clamp that positions the frames for exposure may be binding, throwing the high resolution pictures out of focus as the film moves through the camera."

"We're attempting now to plan the rest of the mission so we can get the best use of the medium-resolution system."

The high-resolution lens was meant to record details as small as three feet across, and the medium-resolution lens to show objects as small as 24 feet across.

Citizens Fiscal Unit Planned by Romney

ESCANABA (AP) — Gov. George Romney said yesterday he is establishing a special citizens committee "to review and recommend a fiscal policy to meet Michigan's long-range capital expenditure needs."

He announced the formation of the Capital Expenditure Policy Committee—which may take a look at reduction of Mackinac Bridge tolls—at the Upper Peninsula State Fair.

Comprehensive, long-range programs have been developed (by major state agencies) or are being developed in many vital areas—all potentially involving heavy expenditures for capital construction, as well as for land acquisition and development," Romney said, adding:

"It is apparent that the longer we wait to move forward with these programs, the more costly they will become—particularly as construction costs increase and land now vacant is taken up for other purposes."

The committee, whose members will be named within the next few weeks, "will be given the specific responsibility of reviewing our programs and exploring alternative methods of financing them," he said.

"This will include the question of meeting these needs through normal operating funds," Romney added. "It will also include such other possible methods as bonding, user fees, earmarked taxes and revenue sources other than state revenues."

The committee would be asked to recommend the best means of financing, to establish program priorities and to set timetables, the governor said.

It will be directed, to study the refinancing of the $100 million bridge linking Michigan's two peninsulas.

The Legislature has approved refinancing—hoping that lower interest bonds could allow reduction of tolls. It now costs $3.75 to drive a passenger car one-way across the bridge.

The bond market has not been favorable since the Legislature acted, however.

State Tourism Having Top Year

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP) — Michigan is enjoying a billion-dollar tourist year — the best in its history — the director of the State Tourist Council said yesterday.

William T. McGraw said vacation travel expenditures for the year would soar past both last year's $960 million and the $1 billion plateau.

Speaking at the dedication of a tourist information center at the Soo Locks, McGraw praised the Legislature and governor's office for support of the state's second-largest income-producing activity.

Solar Orbiter Is Doing Fine

Excellent Space Data, Say U.S. Scientists

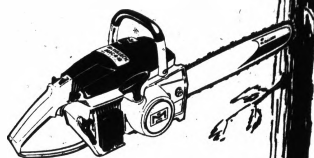

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Pioneer 7 spacecraft has successfully pointed its main antenna at the Earth and is transmitting excellent data on interplanetary space as it sweeps outward in its long, looping orbit about the sun.

The 140-pound scientific package was launched Wednesday from Cape Kennedy into an orbit ranging from 92 million to 102 million miles from the sun. The earth circles the sun at a distance of about 93 million miles.

A ground station Friday sent a radio command that maneuvered the craft nearly 400,000 miles away so its high gain antenna was aimed at the earth. This will permit easier communications with Pioneer 7 after it zips more than 100 million miles from earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported all six experiments aboard the probe were working fine — sending information on the solar wind, radiation, magnetic fields and other properties of deep space that could affect future astronauts.

Earl's One-Day Secretary Took Shorthand for Secrecy

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Connie Francis, flung her very tanned and willowy carver into my hideaway recently on the pretense that—inasmuch as she was champion typist in New Jersey at 15—she was going to be my secretary for a day.

"I learned shorthand when I was in high school to keep my mother from reading my diary," Connie confessed.

"I used to write about the boys I had crushes on, and my insecurities and fears. I would hide the diary under the bed, or in the closet. My mother figured out my system. So I assumed I was going to write it in shorthand. I sent away for Gregg. My mother never learned shorthand . . . I guess she wasn't that interested."

Connie who was planning to be a doctor in those days, and got stuck being a millionaire singer instead, eventually broke down during her visit to my sneakaway and said she is now looking for a good secretary.

"Knowing shorthand and typing, I guess I'm a pretty rough boss on secretaries," Connie admitted.

"The trouble is there are so few organized people," Connie said. "A good secretary has to be organized."

"Secretary is a very naughty word today," Connie went on. "I beg your pardon," I said. "My secretary isn't naughty. I've suggested that she be naughty . . ."

"I don't mean that kind of naughty," Connie hastened.

"They don't want to be called secretaries. They want to be called administrators or office managers. They want to be a partner."

WILSON

THE WEEKEND WINDUP . . .

Lynda Bird Johnson, visiting backstage at "Man of La Mancha," told Irving Jacobson (who plays the faithful servant, Sancho Panza), "What daddy needs in the White House is a Sancho Panza." Jacobson said, "Well, I'm free on Mondays." Al King's dressing room at "Impossible Years" has a show-along, and alongside Aug. 20—the date he leaves the show—are the words "FREEDOM NOW!" . . . Slinky Sales' next film will be "The Biggest Dog in the World."

WISH I'D SAID THAT: In Hollywood a wife is considered loyal if she stays with her husband right to the end of his TV series.—Bruce Ho.

EARL'S PEARLS: A new book, "The Best Jokes of All Time & How to Tell Them," has this snapper, circa 1899: "A woman talked for 88 hours without stopping. What makes it remarkable is that she did it all in one day."

REMEMBERED QUOTE: "Advertising is that which makes you think you've longed all your life for something you never even heard of before."

Alice Ghostley kidded Bob Hope: "Will you be out of the country again this Christmas, Bob—or do you intend to buy presents?" . . . That's her, brother.

William Holden Is Indicted in Traffic Death

LUCCA, Italy (UPI)—Film star William Holden was indicted for the fatal vehicular manslaughter and ordered to stand trial next January for the death of an Italian motorist.

The indictment was filed by Dr. Angelo Antonomio, deputy prosecutor of Lucca, who conducted the preliminary hearing in the death of salesman Valerio Giorgio Novelli.

Novelli, 42, was killed July 26 when the small car collided with Holden's Ferrari on the Florence-Viareggio superhighway.

Holden faces up to five years in jail if convicted of manslaughter. However, in Italy manslaughter convictions stemming from traffic deaths usually result in suspended sentences.

Werner to Head Cadillac Div.

CALVIN J. WERNER

MARTIN J. CASERIO

KENNETH W. SCOTT

New Top Exec for GMC Truck

3rd High-Level Shift
Disclosed by Officials

Calvin J. Werner, in his seventh year as general manager of GMC Truck & Coach Division and a General Motors vice president, has been named general manager of the Cadillac Motor Car division, it was announced today.

Succeeding Werner at GMC will be Martin J. Caserio, presently a General Motors vice president and general manager of the AC Spark Plug division at Flint. Both appointments are effective Sept. 1.

A third high-level shift revealed by GM officials will transfer Kenneth W. Scott, General Motors vice president and general manager of Cadillac Motor Car division, to general manager of the Fisher Body division.

Scott succeeds Robert H. Gathman, who is on a leave of absence because of illness.

Werner of 2633 Enslight, Bloomfield Township, was first named to head GMC on Dec. 1, 1959.

PRODUCTION CLIMBS

Under his guidance, production of GMC trucks and buses climbed steadily in the early '60s, climaxing in the model year just ended with an all-time record.

Werner consistently promoted "broadened model coverage" and "more options" in seeking higher GMC sales levels.

In both 1964 and 1965 the division responded with peacetime highs in domestic retail deliveries.

In the model year just completed, GMC established record production totals in five different months.

MANY ACTIVITIES

In addition, Werner has been prominent in Pontiac area civic activities.

He served as general chairman of the 1965 Pontiac Area United Fund Campaign and in the last year has worked actively with the Clinton Valley Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

Caserio has headed AC since Feb. 21, 1964 and is a 1936 graduate of Michigan College of Mining and Technology.

He joined GM in 1957 and rose through a series of engineering and manufacturing posts to be (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Michigan Dems Face Fight Over Viet Stand

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A dispute over the war in Viet Nam threatened to escalate into a floor fight at the Democratic state convention today.

Wayne and Washtenaw county doves threatened to carry the issue to the 2,200 delegates and alternates after a strongly worded foreign policy resolution was turned down in a resolutions committee meeting early today.

It was one of three possible floor fights facing the delegates at their fall nominating convention.

After settling on a relatively unknown candidate for lieutenant governor, the leadership caucus made its wishes known in several other races, including those for the Michigan State University Board of Trustees and the University of Michigan Board of Regents.

John Bruff, a Macomb County lawyer, got the lieutenant governor nod after former State Treasurer Sanford Brown let it be known he was not interested in the nomination.

Bruff would be the running mate of Democratic gubernatorial candidate Zolton Ferency.

The selection of Norman Krandsall of Detroit over former Democratic State Chairman John Joe Collins for the U. of M. board, and the naming of Nathan Conyers for the MSU board could produce floor fighting.

Conyers, brother of U.S. Rep. John Conyers of Detroit, faced possible opposition from the Rev. James Chambers.

Strike Is Over as Machinists OK Settlement

5 Lines Move Toward
Full Schedules at End
of 6-Week Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's air service moved rapidly back toward normal today as mechanics of five major airlines accepted a new contract and ended the worst airlines walkout in U.S. history.

The first planes started flying early today, and spokesmen for the airlines — Eastern, United, Northwest, National and Trans World — said they hoped to have full schedules operating within 24 hours.

For six weeks their planes had been grounded by the strike of the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists.

The union, which had rejected an earlier settlement proposal, voted 17,727 to 8,325 Friday to accept the latest offer and return to work.

"The strike is now over," said the union's President, P. L. (Roy) Semmler as he announced the results.

CAN DROP LEGISLATION

The contract approval sending 35,400 strikers back to work permits Congress to drop politically explosive legislation that would have ordered strikers back to their jobs for the first time in U.S. history.

Organized labor had lined up solidly in opposition to the legislation.

But it shatters White House guidelines designed to limit wage hikes to 3.2 per cent a year and sets a precedent for other unions to cite in pressing for later paychecks.

'Stay Cool' Is Word From Weatherman

Cloudy, a bit cooler and probable rain is the weekend forecast for Pontiac area residents.

The day-by-day prediction from the Detroit Weather Bureau looks like this:

SATURDAY — Sunny and continued cool today; highs 70 to 75. Increasing cloudiness and not quite as cool tonight with lows of 52 to 58.

SUNDAY — Cloudy and cool with occasional light rain likely by afternoon. Highs will be 66 to 74.

MONDAY — Rain ending with partial clearing.

'Bomb Choice Up to N. Viet'

Hanoi Holds Key to
Peace, Says Johnson

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — President Johnson said today Hanoi's leaders have been told the United States will halt its bombing of North Vietnamese military targets if the Communists stop sending troops into South Viet Nam.

And as he stumped across New England in campaign fashion, Johnson also touched on racial riots, declaring efforts to open up opportunities to American Negroes "can succeed only in conditions of civil peace."

In a speech prepared for a Manchester appearance, the second stop in the second day of a five-state swing, Johnson said Hanoi holds "the pass-key to peace."

"We are more than eager to let North Viet Nam live in peace if they only will let South Viet Nam do the same," he said.

But until then, he added, "our task is to carry on until the Communists grow weary and turn from use of force. When that day comes, our men can come home and the people of Viet Nam can go on with building their country."

MESSAGE RELAYED

Johnson did not disclose in what manner, nor how recently, the offer to cease bombing was relayed to North Vietnamese leaders, saying only that it has been made known to them both publicly and privately that "if they will stop sending troops into South Viet Nam, we will immediately stop bombing military targets in their own country."

3,000 Feared Dead in Turkey Earthquake

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Rescue workers today counted nearly 1,000 bodies of victims from the catastrophic earthquake that ripped across eastern Turkey yesterday. Officials said the toll probably would go far beyond 3,000.

The number of known and estimated dead rose by the hour as army and civilian rescue teams fought the rugged, mountainous back country of the quake-stricken area to reach destroyed villages and towns.

Officials reported many thousands injured.

The full fury of the quake yesterday afternoon hit the town of Varto, a community of 2,000 inhabitants.

"It can be said that nothing remained of Varto," a Turkish army official reported from the scene.

The Turkish Interior Ministry earlier had expressed the belief the quake, which leveled dozens of other villages, might have taken 1,500 lives.

118 RECOVERED

Civilian officials at Varto said 815 bodies had been recovered in that area alone, and they estimated that at least 3,000 people had perished in the surrounding desert of rubble left by the killer quake.

They said scores of villages around Cango had been wiped out.

A Turkish radio report said many inhabitants were buried under the wreckage, including some pupils at the Varto School, who could be faintly heard crying for help.

The quake struck mountain villages in four provinces near the Iranian frontier, about 600 miles east of Istanbul.

The governor of Erzurum Province reported in a radio broadcast from Ali Akarasi last night that all dwellings were leveled in 24 villages in the province.

GM Workers' Wages Hiked

$8-Million Area Rise
Tied to Living Costs

Total wages of General Motors hourly-rated employees in the Pontiac area beginning next month will increase by an estimated $8 million per year due to cost of living allowance adjustments.

All hourly-rated GM employees will receive cost of living hikes ranging from nine to 16 cents per hour under terms of existing union contracts, according to Louis G. Seaton, vice president in charge of personnel staff.

Seaton said the total for the 430,000 GM hourly employees in the United States will amount to an estimated $105 million per year.

For the typical automobile production worker, such as an assembler, the cost of living hike will total 10 cents per hour. In skilled trades, a die maker will receive an added 13 cents.

Their respective hourly rates will total $3.17 and $4.13.

PRICE INDEX

The cost of living allowance is adjusted quarterly based on the Consumer Price Index published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

Seaton also announced that in addition to wage increases effective Sept. 5, substantial new hospital and medical expense benefits go into effect Sept. 1 for all hourly employees and eligible dependents.

The added medical-hospital benefits also apply to approximately 45,000 GM retirees.

Seaton said that with the additional benefits, the average cost of such benefits totals more than $1.20 per hour per employee.

Dead is Ronald D. Irwin, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irwin of 2220 S. Joannan.

Pontiac State Police said the boy died shortly after the truck driven by his 17-year-old brother, Larry, went off Oak Hill east of Bird in Groveland Township and hit a tree.

Larry and 12-year-old Mary Hauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hauer of 2182 S. Joannan, Groveland Township, were admitted to Pontiac General Hospital in serious condition.

'Johnson Betrays Businessmen'

ANN ARBOR — President Johnson in the airline strike has taught the nation's businessmen that he will not back them up even when they are supporting his own policies, a University of Michigan business economist charges.

Associate Prof. Ross J. Wilhelm says the President's conduct also has helped teach the union members that militancy pays — that the longer they hold out, the more they will receive.

"The stage is set for a wage-price spiral upward over the coming year, and Mr. Johnson's actions may have been a major contributing factor in bringing it about," he concludes.

While the airline strike has caused much inconvenience to the public, the economic questions and problems raised by the strike will have serious long-run effects on the economy, Wilhelm points out in a discussion on his radio program, "Business Review," produced by the University Broadcasting Service.

"The most fundamental problem raised by the airline strike arises from President Johnson's efforts to settle the strike," he declares. "The President personally moved into the dispute when it appeared that there was a strong possibility a settlement could be reached."

MANEUVER FAILED

Whatever the President's reasons, the maneuver failed when union members rejected the proposed settlement. But more important, Wilhelm says, are the long-run economic effects of his actions.

"The key point in the airline dispute was President Johnson's own wage-price gudepost policy," he explains.

"The airlines had taken the position that any settlement in excess of a 3.2 per cent increase the President's gudepost — was unacceptable. The union was fighting for a settlement which was much higher," he said.

"Now, when the President entered this dispute and personally agreed to an increase that amounted to about 6 per cent, he obviously was setting a precedent, and in effect he changed his own policy."

"Why should any company management accept all of the pain and losses of income involved in a strike if the President ends up by not supporting them and giving in to the unions by changing his policy?"

Because the Johnson intervention was made so early in the strike, and his policy on inflation apparently was "changed overnight on the whim of the President," corporate executives may feel that the wage-price gudeposts are not very important and that the administration will not back them up in following them anyway. Wilhelm says.

"On the other side, the President's actions in the airline strike have taught every union member and every union leader that militancy pays," the U. of M. economist adds.

WENT BEYOND

"The settlement accepted by the President not only went beyond his own wage-price gudepost, it even went beyond the inflationary settlement the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Truck Crash in Groveland Fatal to Boy

A Groveland Township boy was killed and his brother and a neighbor girl hospitalized yesterday when the pickup truck in which they were riding smashed into a tree.

Dead is Ronald D. Irwin, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irwin of 2220 S. Joannan.

Pontiac State Police said the boy died shortly after the truck driven by his 17-year-old brother, Larry, went off Oak Hill east of Bird in Groveland Township and hit a tree.

Aussies Mop Up N. Viet

After 'Significant Victory'

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Australian infantrymen hunted remnants of a North Vietnamese battalion 40 miles southeast of Saigon today after battering the Communists with artillery fire and killing at least 227 of them.

Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Viet Nam, called the Aussies' action a "significant victory."

Over North Viet Nam, U.S. pilots pounded oil depots in the southern panhandle Friday and left the area exploding in flames, the U.S. military command said.

Elsewhere, the ground war was relatively quiet. U.S. troops reported little or no contact.

CONGRATULATIONS

Westmoreland sent a congratulatory message to the Aussies for their battle of Thursday night when they hurled back a human-wave attack by perhaps as many as 1,000 Hanoi regulars.

Westmoreland termed the battle a "significant victory and one of the most spectacular so far in the war in Viet Nam."

A U.S. spokesman said American fliers flew 113 missions over the Communist north Friday were limited to the Hai Phong area and the southern panhandle by bad weather.

He said the U.S. pilots struck eight oil depots and reported six secondary explosions — an indication of direct hits — plus 15 fires. Pilots also claimed damage or destruction to 50 barges, 6 bridges, 15 railroad cars and 15 trucks.

Navy pilots, attacking the Nam Dinh storage area 45 miles southwest of Hai Phong, reported a string of fires and one secondary explosion.

Hanoi said two U.S. planes were shot down Friday, but there was no confirmation of this is Saigon.

Journalism Award to Trainee at Press

A Pontiac Press summer trainee, Joseph P. Crawford, has won $500 in the second annual journalism intern prize competition of the Newspaper Fund Inc.

Crawford, 20, of Royal Oak is a junior at the University of Notre Dame, majoring in journalism.

He was nominated by The Press on the basis of his work as reporter and copywriter.

Contentants wrote 750-word essays discussing what they had gained from the summer newsroom experience, why they were interested in journalism and how they expected to develop their careers.

The fund is supported by the Wall Street Journal.

800 More GIs Join Division

SAIGON (AP) — Eight hundred fresh troops of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division arrived at the coastal city of Qui Nhon today, boosting American military strength in South Viet Nam to 297,000 men.

The troops, from Ft. Carson, Colo., arrived at Qui Nhon aboard the troopship Gulf Quest. They were taken immediately by bus and airplane to the 1st Air Cavalry's headquarters at An Khe in the central highlands.

A spokesman for the division said the troops were expected to be in the company's full strength by the end of the year.

The new troops make up a battalion which will be added to the 1st Air Cavalry's Third Brigade.

Exam Demanded in City Break-In

Preliminary examination of a 29-year-old man charged with breaking into a Pontiac market is scheduled for Aug. 24 following his arraignment in Municipal Court.

Frederick Ody, who gave no address, demanded the pretrial hearing at his appearance before Judge Maurice E. Finnegan.

Ody was apprehended early Wednesday by Pontiac police allegedly as he hid in a basement storeroom of Wink's Market, 904 Mount Clemens.

Police said money found in Ody's pocket was taken from the store's cash register. Entry to the building had been gained by smashing a front door window.

NATIONAL WEATHER — Saturday night's weather will be rainy in the Plains, Gulf Coast, Tennessee valley, Carolinas and the southern Plateau. It will be cooler in New England with little temperature change elsewhere.

Roundup of News Highlights

CAIRO, N.Y. (AP) — Searchers marched shoulder to shoulder up a mountain today and skidded explored ponds, in a desperate hunt for 7-year-old Debra Smith, who vanished Thursday at the Catskill Game Farm near here. State police said there were no clues to indicate that the slender, dark-haired visitor from Maryland had been kidnapped. Debra vanished about 5:30 p.m. Thursday after an outing at the game farm.

CHAMONIX, France (AP) — Two German alpinists, trapped on a narrow ledge since Sunday, were still alive this morning, officials said. Teams of rescue climbers were poised above and below the stranded pair waiting for the sun to melt a sheet of ice which had kept the Germans prisoner.

LONDON (UPI) — Britain's manhunt of the century for a scar-faced suspect in the murder of three detectives shifted to central England today where a man answering the former army sniper's description was reported seen. Some 50 armed police using bloodhounds ended a two-day search of Epping Forest, about 15 miles northeast of London yesterday. They failed to find any trace of Harry Roberts, the only one of the three suspects in England's worst police killing in 56 years still at large.

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP) — Viet Cong terrorists attacked an American servicemen's club in Da Nang with three or four hand grenades tonight. Nobody was killed, but a number of people suffered minor injuries from shrapnel and flying glass. The attackers apparently escaped.

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — A seven-day strike by pilots of Greece's national airline, Olympic Airways, was extended indefinitely today. A spokesman for the pilot's union said the strike was extended because of the company's failure to meet their demands for salary increases.

MOSCOW (AP) — France and the Soviet Union have taken no steps toward setting up a hotline, French sources said today, despite agreement to do so nearly two months ago.

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — A bomb explosion wrecked the downtown Italian Airlines (Alitalia) office at dawn today, causing panic and heavy damage. Police said the attack apparently was staged by terrorists in the Austrian-Italian dispute over the South Tyrol.

TOKYO (AP) — A heavy downpour lashed Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost main island, throughout the night leaving seven persons dead and five others missing, police reported. Police said river banks gave way in many places inundating at least 8,000 homes.

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — The Iraqi government sealed off two northern provinces today where an outbreak of cholera was reported, Baghdad radio said. Travel into and out of the provinces of Kirkuk and Diyala has been prohibited to anyone except vaccination teams, the radio said. There was no report on any deaths from the disease.

PRESTWICK, Scotland (AP) — The Stars and Stripes was lowered at Prestwick Airport for the last time yesterday, closing another U.S. Air Force base after 12 years operation. Since the end of June, when the closure was announced, more than half of the 500 servicemen at this home of the 161st Air Base Group have been sent home or to continental Europe. A spokesman said remaining personnel will leave within two weeks.

PARIS (AP) — Lord Avon, the former British prime minister, repeated his proposal for a neutralized Viet Nam on French television today. He said both Red China and the United States could accept it. "The Chinese and Americans could be satisfied, not completely, of course, but 50-50, and that would not be bad," the former Anthony Eden said in a televised interview.

SLUMPED-OVER SUSPECT — Steven H. Caouette, an 18-year-old former Marine with a history of mental illness, sits hunched after being captured in Fitzwilliam, N.H. He was caught with 13-year-old Marie Couture, who, police say, he abducted from her home in Winchendon, Mass., Thursday. The youth was arraigned on a fugitive warrant in Jaffrey, N.H.

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — Steven H. Caouette, 18, the object of a massive manhunt on charges that he abducted a 13-year-old girl at rifle point from her home in Winchendon, Mass., was held in prison today on a fugitive charge.

Week's Market Drop Rivals '62 Decline

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market this week took its worst fall in more than four years, rivaling the drop of May 1962 just prior to the "Black Monday" plunge.

Wall Street was wrapped in gloom over high interest rates, tight money and the possible fate of business and the economy later in 1966 and in 1967. The market fell sharply every day.

But there was no panic, no rush to sell. Volume did pick up to 32,632,260 shares from 28,411,250 the week before. It was the largest since the week ended June 25, when 35.7 million shares changed hands.

Many of the most profitable glamour stocks in electronics, office equipment, photography and airlines were hit hard. Blue chips in all categories gave ground, resulting in stiff losses to the averages.

STOCKS FELL

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks fell 13.3 to 289.0, its lowest since Jan. 20, 1964. This was its worst weekly loss since the week of May 26, 1962, when it fell 16.3 in the worst weekly drop on record.

The Dow Jones Industrial Average fell 53.91 this week to 804.62. This was its lowest since it dropped to 800.31 on June 8, 1964, and its worst loss since the same 1962 week when it declined 38.82.

President's own fact-finding advisers had recommended.

"Military by the union has brought forth increasing offers from all parties the longer the strike has continued. It is only wonder why the union members refused to accept even the President's offer."

"They have been taught by everyone, including the President himself, that the longer they hold out the more they receive."

"It is only reasonable that if Mr. Johnson and his advisers gave them bigger offers twice in a row as the strike continued they might get even more if they turned down the President's second offer."

Police were alerted by a caller who said he heard glass being smashed in the area.

Object of Hunt Held in Prison

Ex-Marine Captured in Girl's Abduction

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP) — Steven H. Caouette, 18, the object of a massive manhunt on charges that he abducted a 13-year-old girl at rifle point from her home in Winchendon, Mass., was held in prison today on a fugitive charge.

The ex-Marine with a history of mental illness was captured without resistance Friday at Fitzwilliam Depot, nine miles from the Massachusetts-N.H. border, after a resident recognized him from newspaper photos and notified authorities.

The girl, Marie Couture, apparently was unharmed. She was returned home.

Chief Webb Sherman of Fitzwilliam said George Dunton Jr. had spotted the teen in a field near a general store. Sherman said Caouette had crouched in the grass with his rifle while the girl went to the store for food and returned.

JUMPED ON RIFLE

The two were taken into custody after state police and sheriff's deputies surrounded the area.

Deputy Sheriff George Schryner said he snaked his way through tall grass and jumped on Caouette's rifle. State trooper Roger Phelps then handcuffed Caouette, he said.

Caouette was held at Hillsborough County jail in Manchester in lieu of $10,000 bail after arraignment in Jaffrey on the fugitive charge.

Name Buildings for Presidents

AMHERST, Mass. (AP) — The tallest buildings in Massachusetts outside Boston will be named after U.S. presidents.

Five new 22-story dormitories at the University of Massachusetts will be named after George Washington, John Adams, John Quincy Adams, Calvin Coolidge and John F. Kennedy.

3 Townships Without Dump

Brandon Facility Is Shut After Inspection

Residents of Brandon, Groveland and Independence townships are faced with a trash and garbage problem: No place to put it.

A Brandon Township dump used by all three communities was closed yesterday by town officials at the request of the state and Oakland County health departments.

Residents using the dump will have to make other arrangements for trash and garbage disposal until the dump meets health department standards or a suitable replacement is found.

Officials from both health departments agreed after inspecting the dump on M15 north of Oakhill that it should be closed immediately.

Unsanitary conditions at the dump were cited by health department officials as being in violation of state law.

Senate Okays LBJ Bill on Urban Blight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supporters of President Johnson's bill to rebuild blighted areas of some cities have Senate passage of the measure will lead to quick action in the House, where similar legislation has been stalled for weeks.

The Senate cleared the $1.26 billion demonstration cities bill by a 53-to-22 vote Friday, sending it to the House.

Senate debate was sharp but brief and the bill's backers had a much easier time than they expected.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen made a strong attack on the legislation but could not carry even a majority of his party with him.

EASY PASSAGE

The measure passed with votes of 39 Democrats and 14 Republicans. Opposed were 13 Republicans and 9 Democrats.

Dirksen said "this has all the potential of being one of the greatest boondoggles this country has ever witnessed. It will be shot through with waste and corruption before we are through."

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Ark., supporting the measure, said it "may be the true civil rights bill of 1966" if it can arrest the decay of the cities.

Johnson sought $2.3 billion for a five-year program. This was trimmed in committee to a $990 million authorization for grants in the next two years. Additional funds which boost the total to $1.26 billion would be used for planning and other purposes.

Casero was born in Laurium. He presently lives in Flint with his wife and four children.

Area Hospital Gets Second Ford Donation

The second of three $50,000 Ford Motor Co. donations to the projected Rochester branch of Crittenton Hospital has been presented.

William L. Weber, manager of Ford's Sterling Plant and chairman of the firm's Macomb County Community Relations Committee, made the presentation to Howard L. McGregor Jr., hospital vice president.

Ground for the new hospital was broken last summer and the cornerstone was laid in June.

Tentative completion date for the 207-bed hospital is late next summer.

The hospital is being constructed on the western limits of Rochester, near Rochester High School.
