Lake Huron Ice Jams St. Clair River Shores

AP Wirephoto

AUTHORITIES MAY DYNAMITE—Ice flowing into the St. Clair River from Lake Huron crushes docks and piling all along the American shore, creating an artificial dam which sent the water rising more than two feet in places. Though the level was receding somewhat today, engineers kept a close watch, ready to use dynamite if necessary to break the jam.

Army Engineers Watch Ice Jams

Corps May Have to Use Dynamite to Free Floes in St. Clair River

ALGONAC (INS)—Army Engineers today watched carefully St. Clair River ice floes for signs they might have to dynamite them free.

The ice, forming bridges spanning the river, backed up water to flood crest on both shores and boat houses estimated at thousands of dollars.

The flood threat was eased somewhat late Thursday when water levels dropped slightly.

Coast Guardsmen, State Police and Sheriff's Officers, however, remained on 24-alert duty in the event of new flood threats.

The Coast Guard ice breaker Acacia was readied for a cruise up the St. Clair as one possible emergency measure.

At the same time, however, engineers theorized that the plan would fail to provide much relief. Some claimed the path would be too narrow; others that it would refill instantly with floe ice once the ship passed.

Court Clears Way for Public Parking

DETROIT (INS) — Detroit today went ahead with proposed city-owned parking lots in the wake of Michigan Supreme Court decision banning further protest cases.

The court ruling banned further attempts by private parking lot owners to tie up city bond issues for construction of public parking lots.

Actually the ruling upheld a previous Supreme Court ruling which in turn upheld the constitutionality of retiring bond issues through parking lot revenue.

Detroit city officials had pleaded for an end to the harrassing suits filed by private owners.

Democrats Happy in Defeat

Senate Confirms Beeson After Lengthy Floor Fight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic leaders in the Senate were quietly jubilant today, despite a 45-42 defeat in their campaign against confirmation of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board.

Sen. Hill (D-Ala), who took a leading part in the floor fight against Beeson, Thursday said the outcome would "give the Democrats a clear-cut issue which we will undoubtedly raise from time to time" before next November's election.

Beeson was confirmed after bitter debate. Accused by some Democrats of making "false and misleading" statements during his confirmation hearing, he was given a vote of confidence by all but one of the Republicans present.

Republicans said his integrity stood unquestioned and that nothing brought out in lengthy hearings before the Senate Labor Committee had impaired "his reputation for truth and veracity." Some said that he became confused during his testimony but had no intention not to tell the truth.

But. Sen. Neely (D-WVa), asked the Senate to help him protect President Eisenhower "against the disgrace of putting a man on there who lied five times."

Three Democrats joined 42 Republicans in confirming Beeson. On the losing side were 40 Democrats, Sen. Langer (R-ND) and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore).

Michigan Sens. Ferguson and Potter, Republicans, voted to confirm Beeson.

Hill said in an interview the outcome "showed that the Democrats can stick together on a clear-cut issue of this kind." Northern and

Realtors Explain Habel Lot Value

Roy Annett Sets Price at $77,500, Cites Other Land Available to City

Pontiac realtors Roy and Bruce Annett testified yesterday in the city's parking lot condemnation suit that property at 11-49 Parke St. was well situated for the Jack Habel Chevrolet Co.

They further stated that the lot was best suited for a supermarket location.

Roy Annett set the "fair cash market value" of the property at $77,500, while his son, Bruce, put it at $80,000. Another Pontiac realtor, Ward E. Partridge, appraised it at $78,500.

Three appraisers testifying in Oakland County Circuit Court last week for the city said the land would be best used for parking

Army Planning Court-Martial

But Runs Into Legal Problem on PW: Was Korea a War?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army, moving to court-martial Cpl. Edward S. Dickenson on charges of helping the enemy while a prisoner of war, may run into a legal problem: was the fighting in Korea a war?

And the Marine Corps, wrestling with a potentially graver prisoner of war problem has laid the legal groundwork for considering whether two of its officers should be disciplined. Until yesterday, only one was directly involved in the inquiry.

The question for the Marines is whether the officers broke military law when, under pressure from their Communist captors, they signed false germ warfare confessions.

Dickenson is a 23-year-old Crackers Neck, Va. soldier who thought for a while he would stay at the side of his Red captors but eventually changed his mind, came home to his native hill country and —in a brief spell of freedom— married a neighbor girl. Then the Army arrested him and started an investigation.

The Army made up its mind yesterday what to do about him.

Without reference to his change of allegiance and later change of heart, it announced he will be tried soon on charges of (1) informing on his fellow prisoners and (2) passing information to his Communist captors while he was a prisoner.

One of the articles under which Dickenson is charged, part of the code of military justice, applies to a person in the hands of the enemy "in time of war." The United States never declared war against its opponents in Korea.

A special Marine court of inquiry today resumes an effort to decide whether Col. Frank H. Schwable should be court-martialed for admitting falsely under pressure of his Communist captors that he helped wage germ warfare against the Reds.

Unexpectedly the court yesterday declared Schwable's co-pilot and fellow prisoner of the Reds, Maj. Roy H. Bley, an "interested party" in the investigation.

Geneva Parley to Cancel Talks at Panmunjom

Korean Allies to Decide Today How to Write Off Old Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—Representatives of the United States and its 16 Korean War allies meet today to decide how to write off the now bypassed preliminary peace talks at Panmunjom.

They were expected to vote to forget about a Communist demand of nearly a month ago that the talks be resumed.

The demand, as well as the knotty problem of breaking the months-long Panmunjom stalemate, dropped into the limbo of academic questions yesterday. The Big Four foreign ministers, in a windup announcement at their Berlin conference, scheduled a peace conference for April 26 at Geneva, Switzerland. They made the preliminary arrangements supposed to be settled at Panmunjom.

Some members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in interviews yesterday professed to seek a risk of appeasement in the U.S. decision to sit in on a conference attended also by Red China in a diplomatic, not military, capacity.

Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich) said it is a "very calculated risk" which might bring peace, but if not would mean a gain for Russia and Communist China.

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) said he intends to give Secretary of State Dulles "a stern warning of the dangers of appeasement."

And Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) said he would insist on assurances against recognition and demand "a specific answer as to whether this is a preliminary step."

Arthur H. Dean, special ambassador to the Panmunjom negotiations, arranged to fly from New York for the United Nations allies' meeting at the State Department.

Move Develops to Cancel Special Census in County

Pontiac and Ferndale officials this week moved to call off a special county census which would lop perhaps $80,000 a year off the two cities' income from the state.

Petitions for an Oakland County Board of Supervisors meeting to reconsider the census were being circulated today.

But R. Claire Cummins, a Pontiac supervisor, said the census might be halted later, without a meeting now.

Harold K. Schone of Oak Park, suggested the special census that won board approval Jan. 18. He said his city's population has grown to about 20,000, four times what it was in 1950, when the last census was taken.

Michigan returns some $2,800,000 to this county each year from state tax receipts.

The county share is split between cities, villages and townships according to the latest census—so Oak Park just isn't getting its fair share, he said.

Schone estimated that if the money was divided according to a new census, his city would gain some $65,000 more—but Ferndale and Pontiac, together, would lose perhaps $80,000.

Walter K. Willman, Pontiac City manager, said the city would favor a county census only if a state census is taken, too.

Land Deal Investigation in State May Involve G. Palmer Seeley

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler today fired G. Palmer Seeley, head of the Grand Rapids right-of-way office for the department on charges of "gross irregularities."

Zeigler said the dismissal was authorized by the State Civil Service Department shortly after Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard declare an investigation showed Seeley was guilty of improper conduct in office.

Seeley was charged after an investigation by the attorney general and auditor general into accusations of improper land dealings in Western Michigan in the purchase of highway right-of-way.

Millard said "there is probably cause to believe that crimes have been committed which might involve" Seeley.

State officials investigated charges that Seeley, 54, conspired with a Muskegon real estate operator to profit from state land deals.

Seeley is a former Pontiac resident.

Plane Rocket Soars 1.5 Miles by Mishap

CHICAGO (AP)—A combat rocket from a jet plane parked at O'Hare field discharged accidentally yesterday, soared a mile and a half and crashed into the foundation of St. Patrick's Academy in suburban Des Plaines.

Windows in the three-story brick building were shattered by the explosion, but no one was injured. There were about 400 girl students, novitiates and teachers in the building.

Lt. Frederick Ludeking, public information officer at the field, said the rocket may have been discharged by static electricity or stray voltage from a radar transmitter. The rocket was of the 2.75 inch type usually carried on F86D aircraft.

Ludeking said no one was near the aircraft, which had just parked after landing. The rocket shot across the field, struck a concrete ramp, and ricocheted upward. However, no one was in the classrooms on the east side of the first floor where the missile hit.

Action Stymies Wayne Officials in Reuther Case

Judge in Windsor Also Refuses to Extradite Clarence Jacobs

DETROIT (AP) — The next move was up to Wayne County and Detroit law enforcement agencies today in the baffling, intricate, and frustrating attempt to wind up the six-year-old Walter Reuther shooting case.

Canadian authorities may have permanently forestalled at least one move when they released Donald Ritchie, key witness and defendant, and his uncle, Clarence Jacobs, the Ritchie-named triggerman in the assassination attempt on the CIO president.

Essex County Judge Albert J. Gordon dismissed extradition hearings against the two men yesterday in Windsor, Ont.

Ritchie had signed a statement before Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien naming Jacobs, Peter Lombardo, Santo (Sam) Perrone and Carl Renda as being involved in the 1948 shooting. Ritchie later repudiated his entire story.

Ralph Garber, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, said he did not know whether the release of the two men would affect pending court action against Renda. Renda is scheduled to face trial March 15 on conspiracy charges based on Ritchie's statements.

Garber said that county and city officials would meet today to determine what the next move would be.

"Judge Gordon's decision came suddenly," Garber said, "we will have to study the situation . . ."

Ritchie and Jacobs were released on a motion by Crown Attorney Bruce J. S. MacDonald.

MacDonald said that under Candian laws he was of the opinion that the $5,000 reward paid Ritchei by the CIO United Auto Workers Union for information in the shooting constituted an "inducement." Canadian law looks askance at anything of that sort.

When Judge Gordon annnounced his decisoin, he absolved both men of all charges in connection with the assassination plot.

The extradition hearing was fostered by Wayne County efforts to get Ritchie back to Detroit where a warrant had been issued against him in the shooting. Ritchie had fled to Canada after telling his original story.

Jacobs was not to be given an extradition hearing until today. However, when MacDonald said he saw no reason to hold a hearing for Jacobs when Ritchie had been released, Judge Gordon concurred.

Army Brass Thrown Out of McCarthy Red Hearing

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) ejected the Army's chief counsel and a general from a hearing of his investigations subcommittee yesterday and angrily asked how a former major escaped court-martial as a "Fifth Amendment Communist."

Thrown out of the hearing were John G. Adams, chief counsel of the Army, Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, commandant of Camp Kilmer, N. J., and his aides.

After the session McCarthy heatedly told newsmen he had been questioning an unidentified lieutenant colonel and Zwicker about an honorable discharge given earlier this month to Dr. Irving Peress, a Queens dentist.

At a morning open session, Peress refused to answer 33 questions about possible Communist links, invoking the Fifth Amendment against self-incrimination.

Peress served at Camp Kilmer. He was promoted from captain to major in the reserves last November. He was given an honorable discharge after McCarthy had demanded his court-martial.

It was reported the lieutenant colonel declined to answer some of McCarthy's questions concerning Peress. The officer said it would violate Army regulations.

Then McCarthy ordered Adams to take the stand, it was reported, but Adams also refused, saying he was at the hearing as an observer for Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens. McCarthy later told newsmen Adams asked for time to consult with Stevens.

McCarthy then ordered from the room Adams and all the Army officers except the lieutenant colonel.

McCarthy declared he was trying to find out "who is responsible for covering up and protecting Fifth Amendment Communists."

He declared he was "far from satisfied" with the testimony of the lieutenant colonel and Zwicker.

"Gen. Zwicker gave the most revealing part of the testimony regarding why men like Irving

Ike to Appoint Safety Chairmen

Creates New Permanent Traffic Group at Conference

WASHINGTON (INS) — Creation of a permanent eight-member committee by President Eisenhower to direct a continuing fight against highway accidents is a major development from the White House Conference on Highway Safety. The conference is concluding a three-day session today.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon advised the delegates that the President is naming the chairmen of the seven basic groups which submitted a series of "action" reports at yesterday's session.

Five states and eight cities were cited today as being the leaders in the nation's campaign which costs 38,000 lives a year.

They were listed at the White House Conference on Highway Safety by an outstanding safety expert, Franklin M. Kreml, director of the traffic institute at Northwestern University.

Kreml, appearing at the final sessions of the three-day conference, listed Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Washington as being among the safety leaders in the state field.

He said the following cities have compiled outstanding safety campaign records: Los Angeles, Detroit, Seattle, Denver, Omaha, Providence, Wilmington, Del., and Raleigh, N. C.

Meanwhile, traffic safety professionals who laid the groundwork for the conference, said it was the best in nine years and noted that the citizen-delegates have taken over the meetings—a move that they had hoped would occur.

The professionals added that if the delegates go back to their home communities and tackle the problem, the accident fatality lists can be cut by nearly 50 per cent. They warned, however, that it may take five years to reach this goal.

The conference's information media committee proposes that the nation's motorists and pedestrians sign this pledge:

"I personally pledge myself to drive and walk safely and think in terms of safety.

"I pledge myself to work through my church, civic, business and labor groups to carry out the White House program for highway safety.

"I give this pledge in seriousness and earnestness, having considered fully my obligation to protect my life and the lives of my family and my fellow men."

A series of panel discussions conclude the conference, which drew about 2,500 delegates from every state and every walk of life to Washington to map a program hoping to cut traffic deaths by 15,000 lives a year.

Recreation Board Hears Plans for $40,000 Skating Rink at Pierce School Site

From Our Birmingham Bureau

BIRMINGHAM — An enthusiastic Recreation Board heard a committee report last night on providing Birmingham with an artificial ice skating rink approximatly 100 by 125 feet, for an estimated cost of $40,000.

Pierce School field was thought of as ideal for such a rink, because of location, lights, adequate parking and particularly because of the Pierce field house, which could be used for checking service and refreshment.

The set-up considered consists of portable, lightweight plastic pipe, which is easily installed or stored, and some permanent installations.

The committee will make a further report on actual cost and maintenance for the board's recommendation.

Member Roland Reese, who with Frank Whitney, city recreation director, makes up the committee, reported his findings on the subject following an interview with the engineer in charge of Detroit's Department of Parks and Recreation.

Additional Birmingham and social news on pages 14 and 15.

Detroit, Reese said, pioneered the portable-type rinks. Three installed there this winter met with an overwhelming response, Reese said.

A recommended charge would more than take care of maintenance and operation costs, he added.

Switching to the juvenile delinquency problem, the board highly endorsed the Birmingham - Bloomfield - Franklin Council on Community Services, which has agreed to see what should be done to solve rising juvenile vandalism in the area.

Realtors Tell Value of Lot to Habel Firm

or storage of cars. They valued the property from $37,822 to $40,000.

The five appraisers called by Habel in the past two days have set values from $71,000 to $80,000.

Bruce Annett also stated the land was worth $116,000 to Habel, although it probably could not be sold for that much on the open market.

Roy Annett yesterday said there was no need for a parking lot on the Habel land.

He stated a parking lot behind the First Baptist Church at N. Saginaw St. and Oakland Ave. would be more convenient for shoppers.

City Attorney William A. Ewart asked Bruce Annett why his appraisal was the highest. Annett said that perhaps he had given more stress to the building of the new city hall in that area.

The new structure, Annett explained, was having a "beneficial" effect on property values in its area.

Appraisers testifying for Pontiac last week said they thought real estate values in the Parke street vicinity were going down.

Bruce Annett also said the Habel land was valuable because it "is difficult to assemble property of that size" in the downtown area.

Ewart asked Annett if buyers sometimes paid more for land they wanted badly. Annett said, "Sometimes."

William J. Beer, attorney for Habel, gave the jury pictures of vacant land around the new city hall as evidence.

Lloyd Reid, a well known traffic and parking consultant, is scheduled to testify for Habel today. Habel also is expected to take the stand.

The city is seeking to condemn the property for construction of an off-street, metered parking lot.

Senate Confirms Beeson Appointment

Southern wings of the party often disagree. The three Democrats were Senators Byrd of Virginia, Holland of Florida and Eastland of Mississippi.

Before the question of Beeson's veracity was raised, some Democrats had opposed his appointment on the ground his active career as a management executive in labor relations would cause him to be prejudiced. Beeson said he was certain he would have no bias.

Beeson's relationship with his former employer, the Food Machinery and Chemical Corp., became the crucial issue in the dispute over his testimony to the Labor Committee. He submitted a formal resignation to the company the last day of the hearings, to take effect the date he takes the oath of office as a member of the NLRB.

VERN WILLARD

Township Fund Changes Name

Group Decides to Drop '20' From Original Title at Annual Meeting

Oakland County Townships United Fund re-elected Vern Willard, of Farmington, president and dropped the "20" from its name at an annual meeting Thursday night.

Election of officers climaxed a dinner and business session at the Hotel Waldron.

Other officers are Ray D. Baker, of West Bloomfield vice president; Mrs. Eugene Rogers, Groveland, recording secretary; C. O. Bales, Commerce treasurer; Mrs. William Dildine, Milford, public relations chairman; and Francis L. Ammerman, West Bloomfield, campaign chairman.

The officers and Mrs. Jack Valentine, of Oxford; Mrs. Joe Kohler, Farmington; Arthur Rose Jr., Independence; and William VanderVan, Dublin School district, make up the executive committee.

The board of directors re-elected eight members and named 25 new ones.

Directors decided to drop "20" from the name "20 Townships United Fund" after Willard pointed out only 16 townships are now active in the organization.

Waterford, he said, is now in the Pontiac Area United Fund, and "we have no cooperation from Avon, Oakland and Holly. They won't even answer letters and calls."

The directors voted to depend only on townships they know are included when making up campaign goals and to let social agencies "make their own deals" with the independent townships.

Directors decided to keep the permanent office they've been renting in the Huron Building for about $37 a month. They also voted to keep Miss Henrietta Diaz as the permanent office secretary.

Several amendments to clear vague language from the United Fund's constitution and to pinpoint responsibilities, aims and objective were passed.

Bonnie Knows Her Own Mind, Even at Three

DETROIT (AP)—Bonnie Hart is only 3, but already has a mind of her own.

Yesterday the chubby little blonde wanted someone to play with. So she wandered off from her East Side home.

Noticing a television set in the front window of a house around the corner, she tried the door. It was unlocked so she marched in, turned on the set and sat down to watch from across the room.

Seated in the kitchen, Mr. and Mrs. Ignazio Bono heard a voice boom out. Bono was puzzled but turned the set off and went back to the kitchen.

A few seconds later the voice returned. Both Bonos investigated and saw a little girl heading out the door.

Across the street Bonnie knocked at the door of Mrs. Angeline Angello.

"Let me in," she called. Mrs. Angello opened the door. Bonnie looked at 2-year-old Joey Angello in his crib and decided, "He's too little to play with."

She was on her way out when Mrs. Angello stopped her. Bonnie was playing with Joey's toys when police arrived.

Ziem Urges Solons to Amend Sex Law

Oakland County Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem Thursday urged Michigan House of Representatives' Judiciary Committee to approve an amendment to Michigan's Criminal Sexual Psychopathic Act.

Rep. William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), who introduced the bill, presented Ziem at a committee hearing in the Capitol in Lansing.

The bill, introduced by Broomfield, would prevent murder suspects from demanding psychiatric hearings under the act. It would also let courts try people who were committed to mental hospitals as criminal sex psychopaths if they were later released.

move to amend the law. O'Brian confessed slayer, helped start the move to amend the law. O'Brian, committed to Ionia State Hospital for the Criminally Insane, can never be tried for his crimes.

Thieves Get $150 Cash in Restaurant Breakin

About $150 in change and small bills were taken from Vincent's Restaurant in Keego Harbor last night, according to the owner, James Janedis of 19269 Wisconsin, Detroit.

Thieves broke a window in the rear door, Janedis said, and took money from the cash register and a box in the kitchen.

Ejects Army Brass From Red Hearing

Peress could continue in service after it was known he was a Communist," McCarthy said.

"The general said all the evidence heard here was known by him and the Army for a long time."

McCarthy's summary of his testimony angered the general. Zwicker called it a colored and slanted version "twisting everything he could so that his version of what I said was absolutely not a truthful one."

"Turning to his aides, Zwicker said: "Boys, now you've had an education!"

The senator said he would give the Army 24 hours to produce all names of Army personnel involved in Peress' promotion and honorable discharge.

"Either the Army will give the names of men coddling Communists," he said, "or we will take it before the Senate and attempt to have cited for contempt those responsible for a shameful situation. . . ."

Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens said in a letter to the senator that he has ordered a probe on the Peress affair. Stevens said McCarthy's suggestion that Peress be courtmartialed was "impracticable," since separation of an officer from the service is a final action, and there is no precedent to reverse it.

Stevens added that the only real evidence the Army has against Peress is his refusal to answer subcommittee questions.

Later, in Washington, Stevens ruled that henceforth any reserve officer who refuses to answer questions on loyalty data "when properly asked" will forfeit his commission and be discharged "under conditions other than honorable."

Senate to Vote on Bill Extending Sales Tax

LANSING (AP)—A bill extending the sales tax to fabrications passed the House unanimously without debate today and was sent to the Senate.

A scheduled vote making minor amendments to the business receipts tax law was deferred until Tuesday.

The sales tax amendment would require the payment of sales tax on both labor and material costs where the character of the basic material is changed.

The bill would take effect July 1 and would forbid the Revenue Department to collect it previous to that date. The department has started to collect the tax in such cases following an administrative interpretation of the law.

Sponsors gave as an example the manufacture of draperies. Under the bill the material plus the labor charges will now clearly be taxable. They said the additional revenue would be inconsequential but that the bill would clear up a muddled situation.

County May Cancel Plans for New Census

which would boost the county's receipts.

W. A. Laking, Ferndale city manager, agreed.

Cummings said Supervisors W. Ray Ransom of Pontiac, Orph C. Holmes of Ferndale and others were helping circulate the petitions for a supervisors' meeting "just in case it's needed."

"I'm sure at least 29 supervisors have signed," he said, "but I don't know as we'll need to meet now."

Cummings explained that a special census would probably cost about $50,000—which the cities and townships would pay later. In the meantime, though the county would have to put up the money, he thought, "and that will take a vote of the board."

Although chairs are of great antiquity, they were for many centuries used as a mark of dignity rather than as an article of ordinary utility.

Trailer Park Operator Fined

Pleads Guilty to Running Site Without Required License

Clare Burke, 52, of 82 E. Hopkins Ave., charged with operating his trailer park without a license and doing repair work without a permit, paid $50 in fines and $20 court costs Thursday after pleading guilty before Pontiac Judge Odin H. Johnson.

Complainant Charles S. Cohen, Pontiac sanitarian, said Burke, who owns the trailer park at 229 W. Walton Blvd., failed to obtain a license after it expired Sept. 30, 1953.

Burke appealed a $100 fine and 90 day jail sentence last January when convicted on similar charges to which he pleaded innocent. The case is pending in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Cohen explained that a state law requires operators to obtain a license from the Michigan Dept. of Health and construction is prohibited without authorization by the Pontiac Building Department.

Burke's previous license only permitted him to maintain 30 trailers in the park, "but there are 80 units there now," Cohen said.

Switch Failure Cuts Off Power at East Lansing

EAST LANSING (AP)—Remember the old rhyme: For want of a nail a shoe was lost . . . ?

Well, a starting switch on a compressor motor at the Michigan State College power plant blew up yesterday at 2:30 p.m.

This knocked out the main circuit breaker which cut off power from the fan, stoker boiler and boiler feed pump.

This let steam pressure go down and the turbine generators stopped.

This threw the whole MSC campus power load in the cross-connected lines of the Lansing municipal plant.

But that day MSC was carrying part of the Lansing plant's load while Lansing repaired some cables.

The sudden whole load was too much for Lansing and its circuit breaker cut out.

So all of East Lansing and the MSC campus was without power from 2:30 p.m. to 3:45 p.m., including the college radio stations.

White-Haired Slayer Dies in Electric Chair

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—White-haired Arthur F. Johnson, 57, died in New Mexico's electric chair early today for the murder of an oil field worker nearly three years ago.

He was executed for the robbery-murder of William Cabrel in a Hobbs tourist court March 4, 1951. He went to his death calmly.

He maintained he struck Cabrel because he had raped Johnson's wife and molested his small daughter.

Snails can go without food for four months by living on reserves in their tissues.

Home Owning Pickets Overruled by Judge

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Judge L. Stauffer Oliver has decided that Ervin Weiner and his wife Josephine will have to stop carrying signs in front of a model home proclaiming that the new houses are "lemons."

The developers of the project sought the injunction and asked for $10,000 damages. A hearing will be held on the damage claim next week.

The Weiners said they purchased one of the homes a year ago and were dissatisfied.

Hal Boyle Says:

Mary Pickford's Vitality Attributed to Goat's Milk

NEW YORK (AP)—"Sure, the Irish drank goat's milk," said Mary Pickford. "That's how I have my vitality—because my ancestors drank goat's milk."

At 60, "America's sweetheart" of yesterday still retains the simple charm that once made her the movie favorite of millions.

"I'm the busiest woman in Beverly Hills—or any other hill," she said, smiling, as we sat in the living room of her hotel suite.

"I have a big house to look after, and my husband, Buddy Rogers, and my business interests—and the children, Ronnie and Roxie.

Mary also is active in half a dozen philanthropic and charitable enterprises. She recently completed her memoirs for McCall's magazine, and said she would like—after 20 years away from the screen—to return in one last film.

"It would be the story of my mother's life," she said, "and end on that day in 1909 when I walked into the old Biograph studio and got my first movie job."

Mary rose from $40 to $10,000 a week in a few years, and piled up millions later producing her own films. This girl with the haunting face of a golden angel also had a cashbox mind.

"But I dislike business heartily," she said. "A lot of career women may not agree with me, but I don't think business is a woman's world."

Her long Cinderella story has had many bittersweet hours. Mary said she had enjoyed so many happy moments she didn't know which to name first.

* * *

"But there is no doubt about my most miserable moment," she said. "It was the moment my mother passed on in 1928."

Here is Mary Pickford looking back at her life—a reverie aloud:

"The greatest picture ever made? My choice would be 'Gone with The Wind.' Of my own pictures, I suppose I still like 'Tess of the Storm Country' best. I made it twice—in 1914 and 1922.

The greatest geniuses of the motion picture have been Charlie Chaplin and Walt Disney."

"I made 50-odd feature pictures. . . . We do look ridiculous in them today. . . . And sometimes I feel like destroying my old films. . . . Those awful clothes we used to wear. . . .

"They can't compare with the pictures now, of course. . . . But silent pictures did speak a universal language. . . . I think we go in for too many sound effects now.

"You know, in all of us are two people. . . . I've always been unpredictable, even to myself. . . . Nothing really pleases me that I do. . . . My real fear is to be left alone in the world. . . . Father's Dream Ends Shattered After Five Days

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A five-day dream that his soldier son might still be alive was ended today for Walter Tartar, 64-year-old shipyard worker.

Tartar conceded eary this morning as he went to bed that he had been a victim of a vicious hoax. He had received a telegram last Saturday with the words "Hello Pop. Will be home on Thursday. Dick." It was sent from New York city.

His son, Pvt. Richard Tartar, 21, was reported by the Army to have been killed in action in Korea 11 months ago. A sealed coffin and his personal papers arrived here last summer.

With only a father's hope, Tartar waited up past midnight before sadly shaking his head and telling a group of reporters and photographers who kept the vigil with him:

"I won't be satisfied until the one who did it goes to jail."

Mardi Gras Spirit Rules at St. Fred; St. Mike Celebrates Play; PHS Votes

A gay, festive season preceding Lent and Easter highlighted the St. Frederick High schedule as students awaited the Mardi Gras Dance tonight.

All other affairs at the high school took a back seat, but at St. Mike's sewing classes turned to spring and new wardrobes while seniors celebrated the success of their play "No More Homework."

As usual clubs took a goodly share of the spotlight at PHS, but the important news in the old brick teepee was elections again.

Student Council chiefs chose their officers as did the honorary journalistic society, Quill and Scroll.

ST. MICHAEL

While sewing classes looked to spring fashions, Margaret Martin reports that jubilant seniors gathered at the homes of Sue O'Neil, Colleen Niedjelski and Annabelle Vavarek for a round of parties.

MARGARET

Main reason for festivities was the smashing success of the recent senior production, "No More Homework."

Not to be outdone, sophs got together at the residence of Janet Baily for a surprise party to celebrate Carole Vantivelt's birthday.

Parties, parties, parties was the theme this week as Michaelites also gathered at the home of Mary Lee Tunny to obsrve Janet English's 15th birthday.

Although Mari Gras overshadowed everything else, Mary Drake reported that a few other things also took up students' time this week.

Senior English classes continued their speech group offerings ranging from the "Bricker Amendment" to the "Friendly Atoms."

Besides serving as an aid to attaining poise and comfort before a group, the project is designed as preparation for students who who will appear on "Junior Town Meeting" this spring.

Brown Wants Van Wagoner On Bridge Authority

United Press Telephoto

FAMED ANCESTOR—Rin Tin Tin, a hallowed name for most persons on the wrong side of 30, may soon be shining again on screens—but on TV rather than in movies. The latest in a long line, the great-great-grandson of the original admires a portrait of his famed ancestor before going out on the set to take part in a new television series soon to be shown.

NEW CITY HALL—An aerial view shows Pontiac's new city hall on the south side of E. Pike street and Parke street. The million dollar building is now about 40 per cent completed. It is scheduled for completion by spring of 1955. The structure is being financed on a pay-as-you go basis and will be completely paid for when finished.

Reappointment May Be Sought

Ex-Governor Requested to Quit After Lobbying for Underwriters

LANSING (UP) — Chairman Prentiss M. Brown of the Mackinac Bridge Authority would like to see former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagoner of Birmingham reappointed to the bridge authority.

Van Wagoner resigned from the authority a week ago after he registered with a firm that has a financial interest in the inter-peninsula span.

Brown, just back from New York where he received a check for $94,400,000 to complete the huge sale of bonds to finance construction of the bridge, made these announcements at a press conference late Thursday:

1. About $90,000,000 of the money the authority received for the bonds will be invested in short-term government bonds that will pay the authority about $800,000 in interest per year.

2. Mettit, Chapman and Scott, the firm that will build the bridge, says it may be opened to traffic as early as June 1, 1957, instead of Nov. 1, that same year.

3. Between 500 and 1,000 persons will be employed on the project at the Straits.

Brown said Van Wagoner did nothing wrong when he agreed to loby in Lansing for the Stifel-Nicholaus and Co. of Chicago.

Stifel-Nicholaus was one of four investment firms that underwrote the bridge bonds. Van Wagoner accepted a lobbying job, for which he said he would receive no pay, to plug for a bill authorizing Detroit to buy the Detroit-Windsor Tunnel.

Brown said that if Van Wagoner's lobbying activities had been uncovered after the bond deal had been, completed, "I would have told him to stick."

"I'd like to see him back on the authority," Brown said. And he hinted he might ask Gov. G. Mennen Williams to rename the former governor to the authority.

Langer Resents GOP Brush-Off

Committee Chairman Objects to Senate Action on Postmasters

WASHINGTON (INS) — Administration leaders hoped today that a patronage slap claimed to have been suffered by Senate Judiciary Chairman William Langer (R-ND), will not further delay action on Chief Justice Earl Warren's nomination.

Langer called his subcommittee ren appointment.

He claimed that there was "no connection" between his protest over the GOP patronage brush-off and the unusual delay in committee action on the Supreme Court Chief Justice.

However, he made it increasingly clear that, as long as the Eisenhower administration and the North Dakota GOP organization by-pass him on patronage, he is going to resent it and act accordingly.

Langer formally objected to Senate confirmation of four North Dakota postmasters on the ground that failure to consult him on their selection made the appointments "personally offensive" to him.

Internal Revenue Service Says

Donate to These Groups and Claim Tax Deduction

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Service announced today that 90 more religious, charitable and educational organizations have been put on its deductible income tax list.

So anyone who contributed to such groups as (A) The Black River Astronomical Society of Lorain, Ohio, (B) The Los Angeles Section of The American Society for Quality Control, or (C) The Gamma Theta Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi at Ball State Teachers College, Muncie, Ind., may claim credit on his tax returns.

The announcement was made in the Service's weekly bulletin. That's the way it's been going, from 75 to 90 new organizations each week.

In recent weeks, for example, the list has been expanded to include:

Big Joe's Happiness Exchange Foundation, Inc., of New York City.

The Capitola, Calif., Volunteer Fire Department.

The Cracker Barrel Bazaar Association of Newbury, Vt.

And if you planned to give something to Oklahoma City, Bulletin No. 4 has good news for you. You can deduct that, too.

The income tax service doesn't pass on the merits or demerits of the organizations, of course, but it does demand annual statements of what happens to the contributions received.

The last complete list of organizations to which taxpayers may contribute, and then take off on their returns, came out in 1950.

It includes all the big churches, the big charities and the big educational institutions, and a whole lot more—an almost incredible 33,000 organizations.

Two years ago a supplement came out. It subtracted 350 names—the organizations had gone out of business or changed their titles—and added 7,000.

One conclusion is inescapable: It's a big country, with a big heart and a vast number of interests.

Let's skim through the list.

There's the Adams Home for Dogs in Portland, Ore.

The American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology (the eye, ear, nose and throat specialists) of Rochester, Minn.

The American Home Findings Association, Ottumwa, Iowa.

The Association for the Relief of Indigent Germans in the Public Institutions of the City and State of New York.

The class of Nineteen Hundred Three Yale College Fund of New York City.

The Coffee Drinkers Friendship Club of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

The National Foundation for G. I. Joe, New York City.

The Ole Miss Loyalty Club of University, Miss.

Then there's the organization simply listed as "Jackie," San Francisco.

The worrying about us never stops. There's The Birth Control Federation of America and there's also a Committee for the Study of Suicide.

1 Lemon Cost $6.50 in Moscow Store

ANN ARBOR (UP)—The wife of the former U.S. Ambassador to Russia says food is so scare in the Soviet Union that women sometimes buy cabbage a leaf at a time.

Mrs. Alan Kirk told a University of Michigan audience Thursday night she once paid $6.50 for a single lemon when she was living in Moscow with her husband.

Mrs. Kirk said that perhaps the thing the Russians now miss most is Stalin.

"His face was woven into rugs and mosciacs and all public meetings began with a hymn sung to Stalin," she said. "Now all those things are gone."

Burned Shop Re-opens

MILFORD—Closed since it was struck by fire Jan. 18, the Wee-Knit Shop, 367 N. Main St., will re-open tomorrow morning.

Hospital Board OKs Room Deposit Hike

The Pontiac General Hospital Board of Trustees Thursday night approved a room deposit increase for all types of patient accommodations.

Ward deposits were hiked from $60 to $75, semi-private rooms from $80 to $95 and private rooms from $100 to $125.

Deposits are required from patients who enter on a self-paying basis or who have not had their hospital insurance confirmed.

Board members said the deposit requirement had been in effect for some time. They said the increases were recommended to bring deposits into line with daily room rate hikes made since the old deposit level was set up.

In other action the board approved Dr. M. J. Delaney and Dr. E. E. Elder as members of the staff.

A new division of the medical staff surgery section was approved, with Dr. John Stageman as chairman and Dr. N. E. Durocher, secretary.

Hospital Director Lauretta Paul reported the hospital women's auxiliary now numbers 126 and said she hopes to double the figure this year.

The board approved several fund raising activities planned by the auxiliary and approved a planned bake sale by the staff nurses.

Miss Paul said the hospital now retains 516 employes, who will be paid an estimated $1,798,000 in salaries during 1954.

Train Race Is Planned by Several Civic Clubs

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa. (AP) — Several civic clubs here are sponsoring a train race in which each contestant must provide his own train.

It's not as gigantic an undertaking as it might seem. The contest is for toy electric trains.

Officials Ponder Fate of Seven Czeck Heroes

By WARD CANNEL

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (NEA)—At No. 36 Dartmouth St. they're working out an answer to the old, old question: what happens to heroes?

For in this big house on this quiet American street live seven Czechs who crashed through the Iron Curtain in a home-made tank in one of the most daring escapes in history seven months ago.

Today they are heroes, touring the United States with their tank in a fund-raising drive for the Crusade For Freedom. Tomorrow Congress may grant them immigrants' status and open the way for their citizenship.

But the making of Americans out of these heroes is a far rougher route than their 40-mile dash to freedom. Fate has not allowed these Czechs to live as ordinary people.

They've been put all together in this house—seven who had little enough in common even in their homeland—in a typical New England community, with neighbors named Peabody, Witherspoon, Dunlevy. From time to time they are taken from this base and sent on fund-raising expeditions, to be lionized and set apart.

They have done the impossible and now the free world and Red-oppressed nations are watching them. They find themselves in a dilemma—married to the vehicle that brought them to freedom, unwillingly thrown together in alien surroundings.

The tank in which they escaped was three years in the building at the city of Line in Red-held Czechoslovakia. Engineer, designer and chief mechanic was 32-year-old Vaclav Uhlik. He held the temporary distinction of being among the last free-enterprise workers in the land.

His machine shop and wood-hauling business provided him and his wife and two children with a very comfortable living. It also paid salaries to four employes. His enterprise, however, seemed doomed to fall to state control.

Uhlik was determined to leave Czechoslovakia. He rebuilt an old British Army lorry and armored it with filched sheet-metal. On a dark night it looked enough like a tank to make the dash.

The night of July 23 was dark.

The passengers included Uhlik and his family; Walter Hora, mechanic; Vaclav Krejcirik, tailor; Joseph Pisarik, gardener; and Ivy Cloud, Czech wife of a U.S. Army sergeant in Iowa.

By the time they had clattered past Red guards and across the border to Munich, Germany and freedom, they were eight pink-cheeked, bright-eyed heroes.

The welcome they received was followed by an invitation from Radio Free Europe, Crusade For Freedom and the American Heritage Foundation to visit the United States with their tank. Mrs. Cloud went to her husband in Iowa. The others moved to Springfield.

Life in America has been something less than permanent. The furniture is on loan from Springfield residents. Book shelves are lined with paper napkins. And pictures — mostly newspictures of themselves — are secured to the wall by cellophane tape.

The four Uhliks would stay together. The others are ready to go their own ways.

Pisarik explains through an interpreter that he is now "ready to live." A deeply religious man, he will probably enter a monastic order as soon as Congress makes him an immigrant.

In return, The American Heritage Foundation, which is underwriting their visit, pays the Uhliks $175 per week; Hora, Krejcirik and Pisarik each receive $75. The money easily covers food, shelter and clothing.

In addition, there is income from the television appearances they make and the magazine and newspaper articles that are written in their names. The money so far totals almost $1,500.

But one Czech-American who knows them is worried. "It is a bad thing for simple people to learn how to be celebrities," he says. "What happens when they have to be ordinary people again?"

Once discontent erupted. The Czechs protested that they were not paid enough.

Crusade For Freedom officials quickly called a meeting. And then the story came out.

They had hardly stepped out of their tank on that hot July day in Munich when a little fast-talking man collared them.

"Fellow Czechs," he said, "you are heroes. You will go where heroes go—to America. There they will write books and make movies of your escape. You can be rich if you let me handle your affairs. Just sign this contract. All I want is 25 per cent . . ."

They had signed the contract and come to America. Where were the riches?

Within days, Radio Free Europe at Munich had found the promoter. The contract was torn up.

It had become a big joke. The Czechs laughed. The interpreters laughed. The Crusade officers wiped their brows with big white handkerchiefs.

And through the interpreters Uhlik and Pisarik made everything clear.

"Yes. America is a fine country. And there is money to be made here and a home to be found. But first you must be able to speak English and then you must have some ability. One cannot live forever on being a hero."

ESCAPE VEHICLE—Freedom tank in which Uhliks and friends fled is shown in New York with Uhlik at controls.

STORY OF FLIGHT—Broadcasting from their home in Springfield, Mass., Vaclav Uhlik, his wife and daughter, Eva, 4, repeat the story of their flight by homemade tank for interpreter Emil Ransdorf (right). In back (l to r) are Vaclav Krejcirk, Joseph Pisarik and Walter Hora, fellow Czech escapees.

NEW HOME—American home for Czech tank refugees is this old-fashioned gabled house in Springfield, Mass., with New England neighbors.

Pet Lending Library Popular With Students

ROLANDO, Calif. (AP) — The Rolando Park Elementary public school has started a pet lending library. Pupils are allowed to take such small creatures as turtles, gold fish, hamsters, white mice, horned toads, guinea pigs, rabbits and birds home for study. There is a charge of five cents a week for each pet.

Donald Barnes, principal, said the school's 528 pupils have taken to the idea enthusiastically that the library has a long waiting list.

NO GAG SHOT—This is such a startling sight to most people that the first reaction is that it is just some gag picture. But it's not! These are members of the Oakland, Calif., Women's Rowing Club and they pull heavy 12-foot oars in their 26-foot whaleboat. The spry grandmothers, most of them in their sixties and seventies, take their rowing pretty seriously. The organization was founded in 1917 and many charter members haven't given up rowing yet.

Che Once Had Chinese Reds Trapped

HONG KONG (AP) — Was it possible to have wiped out the Communist Army in China two decades ago and prevented Mao Tse-Tung's rise to power?

A retired Chinese General says yes.

Gen. Che Long says he could have destroyed the Red army in a trap 22 years ago, but Chiang Kai-Shek blundered in allowing it to ecape.

Che campaigned for three years against the Reds from headquarters in Nam Chang, Klangsi Province, in the early 30's.

"At one time our armies had the Communists trapped and in one more year we could have wiped out Communism in China forever," Gen. Che said. "But orders came from higher authority to withhold our attacks and the Reds escaped."

The Communists who escaped formed the core of the army that later swept over China and put Mao Tse-Tung in power.

When the Reds took over China, Che came to Hong Kong. Here he keeps a close watch on the fighting in Indochina and developments on the Chinese mainland.

"Reports that Chinese Anti-Communist bands are active throughout the mountainous regions of China today are very true, but they can't exist without outside help," Che said.

"For every guerrilla in the hills three Red soldiers are kept on the alert. A small band of guerrillas can keep quite a few Communists busy for a long time," Che said.

He said the anti-Communist bands can go into hiding easily and can infiltrate into any area undetected. Their whole organization is fluid. They can become peasants of the countryside by day and fighters at night.

"The Reds control the food situation and in this way they can limit guerrilla activity, but they cannot suppress it," he said.

Che, a gray-haired, erect man, at 65 still looks every inch a General. He was sent to France to study mining engineering on a scholarship from the Hueph Provincial Government in 1902.

Che thinks the Reds' days in power are numbered.

"I believe that the guerrilla bands operating throughout China are just waiting for the right moment to rise up and smash them," he said.

Milford Phone Company Opens Building to Exhibit

MILFORD — General Telephone Co. of Michigan will hold an open house in its new building here from 7 to 9 tonight.

Guides will take visitors through the building to explain operations and items of equipment and to answer questions.

"Since the building was placed in service, few Milford residents have had the opportunity to see the center of our operations here," said C. J. Mendendorp, district manager.

The company services over 2,300 stations in the area, including residents in White Lake, Highland, Clyde, Milford and near Wixom.

Featured display will be a dial demonstration unit similar to equipment now in service in Milford. The unit will trace the path of a call through the complex equipment as the visitor dials a number.

Boards showing parts of one of the automatic switches and of a dial telephone will also be exhibited according to Mendendorp.

The tour of the building will also include a view of a long-distance switchboard in operation as operators handle incoming and outgoing toll calls.

Thirty persons are employed by the company in Milford including operators, repairmen, commercial clerks and the district manager. Two maintenance trucks are also stationed here.

Vietminh Troops Slay Catholics

Rebels Attack Village to Discourage Church Opposition

HANOI (INS)—Authoritative reports reaching Hanoi today sketched in detail of a massacre of men, women and children in a Catholic Indo-Chinese village by Communist-led Vietminh rebels.

So far the bodies of 20 victims of the massacre at Than Thuong, 80 miles southwest of Hanoi, reportedly have been recovered but 500 villagers are said to be missing and many of them are feared dead.

Agence France Presse quoted an Army headquarters spokesman as saying, however, that reports of a massacre were greatly exaggerated. He put the number of dead at 12 but said a Catholic priest had been kidnaped and a church desecrated.

The massacre was said to have occurred on Feb. 12 when Vietminh rebels, disguised as farmers, opened fire with machine-guns, mowing down women, children and old men. The young men of the village were working in the fields.

Other rebels stationed in the rice paddies nearby prevented the escape of those in the village.

The purpose of the raid was believed to be the smashing of the influence of the Catholic Church which has been encouraging residents of the vital Red River Delta of Vietman to resist Communist demands for rice and manpower.

Jacoby on Canasta

Players Making Up Rules Get Themselves Into Jam

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Our canasta club has adopted a few speical rules," writes a New York correspondent, "and this may have caused the confusion that overwhelmed us the other night. According to our rules, a player is never allowed to discard a wild card; also, a player who melds out must have a discard.

"In a recent game a player was down to three cards, all deuces. She drew another wild card—and was stuck.

"She couldn't discard a wild card, but there was nothing else for her to discard. What should be done in a situation of this kind?"

I'm sorry to say that there's no answer to this question. It may seem very foolish of me to go out of my way to print a question that I can't answer, but I have a reason.

I get two or three questions of this type in every morning's mail. If you make up a set of rules that lead to an absolutely impossible situation, it won't do you any good to holler for Jacoby (or for anybody else).

Many years ago, when automobiles were as new as the game of canasta is today, a certain state legislature passed the following law:

"When two horseless buggies approach each other on any street of this state, both shall stop; and neither may start up again until the other has passed."

Eventually, somebody noticed that the law brought all automobile traffic to a halt, and the law was changed.

The same remedy must be applied when your local canasta group adopts an impossible rule. Either your game comes to a halt, or the rules must be changed.

Like other canasta authorities, I can clear up any misunderstanding of the official canasta rules; but anybody who gets into trouble with his own invented laws has to invent his own way to get out of trouble.

My suggestion in the question submitted is to allow a player to discard a wild card when his hand contains only wild cards.

This problem would not arise, of course, in the official game because in the regular game of canasta a player is allowed to discard a wild card at any turn, if he wishes to do so.

My next suggestion is that players who find themselves in an impossible jam see the humor of the situation and find a compromise solution with a laugh instead of with annoyance.

Man Who Pushed Woman Under Train Found Guilty

MEADVILLE, Pa. (UP) — Moses Terrell, 43, faces 10 to 20 years in prison for pushing his girl friend Laura Starr, 31, to her death under the wheels of an Erie Railroad freight train here last Dec. 27.

Terrell stood with bowed head as a jury shortly before last midnight found him guilty of second degree murder. The 10 to 20-year sentence is mandatory.

Terrell denied the charge but admitted he and Miss Starr, at whose house he was a boarder, had argued and were pulling at each other's clothing while the freight train passed.

Conventional Revelry Vanishing at Conventions

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UP)—The old-fashioned convention of cartoon fame, with lots of whoopee and few inhibitions, is becoming a thing of the past.

Howard F. Dugan, vice president of Statler Hotels, told a sedate meeting of hotel sales managers the sober-sided trend for conventions is increasing.

It used to be, Dugan said, the convention-goers checked their inhibitions at the desk. Now, he said, fun has given way to profit and loss chargs and the boss gets more for his dollar.

Hearing Today in Baby-Selling

To Determine If Two Lawyers Will Be Tried in Falsification Charge

MONTREAL (INS)—A preliminary hearing will be held in Montreal today to determine if two lawyers will be tried for alleged falsification of documents in a million-dollar baby-selling ring.

Meanwhile, Canadian authorities sought to learn if the murder of a 30-year-old woman was linked with the international baby-peddling racket.

Today's hearing will be held to determine if there is sufficient evidence to commit the two attorneys, Herman Buller and Louis Glazer, for trial in connection with the baby-selling ring.

Following the preliminary hearing the Crown is expected to ask for appointment of a special commission to visit New York. The group would interview couples who allegedly adopted children furnished by the ring.

Provincial Police are continuing their investigation of the ring and one officer said that there was a possibility that the murder of the woman might yet be linked with the racket's operations.

Det. Lt. Ubald LeGault of the Provincial Police homicide squad said his officers were probing the case of a woman whose strangled body was found in the waters of Back River, north of Montreal, last fall. The body was anchored to a cement block.

Nursing School Reports Illegal Use of Its Name

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Johns Hopkins Hospital School of Nursing reports that young girls are making unauthorized use of its name with the "working my way through school" technique.

Authorities said reports of solicitations for magazine subscriptions have come from the Baltimore area, Virginia and from as far away as Florida.

The term "forecastle" is a survival from early fighting ships which often had castles or towers to aid in the fighting on bow and stern.

Need Bigger Licenses

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Automobile license numbers are getting bigger in Connecticut. Four digits used in combination with letters did the trick until recently. All possible combinations have been exhausted, however, and the state has had to go to five digits.

Market Mixed, Fractions Only

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved along a narrow path today with prices well mixed.

Changes seldom were more than small fractions, and many leaders remained unchanged from the previous closing price.

Trading was relatively quiet with few large blocks on the tape.

Aircrafts were unchanged to higher and did better than most major divisions.

Higher stocks included New York Central, Allied Chemical, American Woolen Common, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Douglas Aircraft, and United Aircraft.

Lower were Southern Pacific, Standard Oil (NJ), Dow Chemical, General Electric, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, Goodyear, and Goodrich.

GM Plans Tests on Pike's Peak

New Proving Grounds to Be Permanent Along With Milford, Mesa

General Motors Corp. announced today it will open an engineering test headquarters at the base of 14,000-foot Pike's Peak near Manitou Springs Colo., April 1.

The unit will test cars and trucks over the twisting, 18-mile-long road that rises 6,686 feet from plateau to the summit of the peak.

Charles A. Chayne, GM vice president in charge of engineering, termed the highway an "ideal stretch on which to test engines automatic transmissions, carburetors brakes and cooling systems" under extreme altitude and grade conditions.

The Pike's Peak road is noted for hairpin turns. It has a maximum grade of 10.5 per cent and an average grade of seven per cent.

Chayne said all five General Motors divistons will use the new test unit. The Peak proving grounds will be maintained permanently along with units already established near Milford, and Mesa, Ariz.
