Highway Heads Meet Head-on Over Road Plans

By BURDETT C. STODDARD

"Michigan road building will be set back from three to six years or even more" unless the State Highway Department coordinates its program with that of the Michigan Turnpike Authority, MTA Chairman George N. Higgins asserted yesterday.

The Ferndale man made the statement in a debate with State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler before the Detroit Economic Club in the Detroit Veterans' Memorial Building.

Ziegler, however, stoutly maintained his stand that the highway department is too far committed on building a north-south freeway to cancel plans now. Construction of the freeway would make it almost impossible to push the Rockwood-Saginaw toll road as planned.

In a meeting before the debate, the MTA named the former governor and highway commissioner Murray D. Van Wagoner, of Birmingham as consulting engineer.

A Michigan Supreme Court ruling legalizing the turnpike authority act is expected next month, said Higgins. This will leave only one "foreseeable stumbling block between financing and construction of Michigan turnpikes and . . . he is the state highway commissioner . . .

"Should Michigan fail to utilize turnpike financing and construction, it will only be because of the failure, or refusal . . . (Ziegler) . . . to coordinate his construction programs with ours."

"I have one question for him and that is this: Charley, by your own statement, Michigan needs over 1,400 miles of new super-highways. Are you going to concentrate your money on the 250 (miles) we can build as turnpikes so as to scare off our financing and torpedo toll roads, or are you going to bury the hatchet so we both do a job for the people of Michigan?"

Higgins explained that once the 113-mile Rockwood to Saginaw toll road was finished the MTA would formulate plans for a Detroit-Chicago turnpike.

The highway department was committed to the federal government and to Detroit, Pontiac, Flint, Saginaw, Bay City and points north for the construction of a north-south freeway "several years before the turnpike authority was created," Ziegler answered.

Some work has already been done on the freeway, said Ziegler, including the east bypass of Saginaw and a west bypass of Flint.

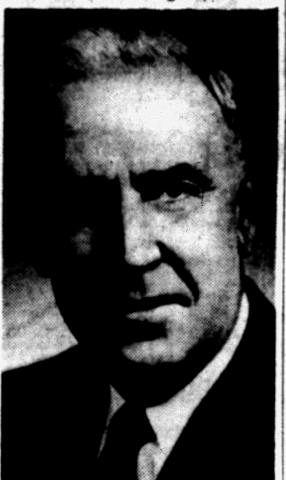

"At the southern end of the route, the John C. Lodge Expressway is nearing completion with $62,500,000 already spent on it," said Ziegler. Plans and surveys for other parts of the freeway are under way for the route to run through Oakland County west of Pontiac, Ziegler added.

"We cannot just forget this time and millions of dollars spent for locations, structures and ribbons of concrete and let them lie there unused and of no benefit to the people of the state for whom this work was done and who paid the bill."

Higgins said the MTA has spent $500,000 on its plans and indicated a feeling parts of the freeway route now constructed could be tied into existing routes so as not to compete directly with the toll road.

Hurricane Hilda Leaves 12 Dead, Many Homeless

Eastern Storm Trails Death and Destruction Through South

Hurricane Ione, her strength almost half spent and her speed down to 10 miles an hour, moved along the Atlantic Coast toward New England today. Behind her lay a grim trail of property damage and four deaths in North Carolina and Virginia.

The Washington Weather Bureau advised that the menacing storm might regain some of her lost power if her course spins out over open water.

Communities in northern coastal states ahead prepared for the worst. Hurricane warnings were displayed to Block Island, R. I., and storm warnings as far north as Eastport, Maine.

Although her winds had weakened, Ione still carried torrential rains, which were bad news for Northeastern states not yet recovered from the floods of Hurricane Diane.

As she lingered off the Virginia coast, Ione's central winds swirled at 60 to 70 m.p.h., compared to 125 m.p.h. two days ago. The Weather Bureau said her present course and speed of 10 to 12 m.p.h. would bring her near the coast of Delaware and southern New Jersey this afternoon and a little south of Nantucket Island, Mass., south of Cape Cod, early tomorrow morning.

Advance rains had reached southern New England early today and winds up to 25 to 30 m.p.h. were reported off Cape May on the southern tip of New Jersey.

The four persons known to have lost their lives in Hurricane Ione died at hard-hit New Bern, N.C.

A much greater toll was taken by Ione's next oldest sister, Hurricane Diane.

Summer Slipping, Temperature Dips

Summer seems to be slipping away with a twenty degree drop in temperature in the past twenty-four hours.

The U. S. Weather Bureau predicts cloudy skies and a cooler day with an expected high of 74-77. It will be fair and quite cool this evening. The mercury will drop to a low of 50.

The five day Michigan forecast foresees temperatures averaging from two to five degrees below normal. In fact the weatherman says it will be cool Wednesday, warmer Wednesday night and becoming cool again Thursday and Friday and staying rather cool over the weekend.

Downtown today's low before 8 a.m. was 61 degrees. The temperature was 73 at 1 p.m.

Peron Escapes; Military Opens Peace Parleys

Labor Union Reported Planning Huge Strike to Cripple New Rule

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — Argentina's new army government began peace talks today with the rebel forces whose revolt ended Juan D. Peron's 10-year dictatorship.

Peron was reported to have escaped arrest and fled the country. The independent newspaper Clarin said the dictator's arrest was decided upon in all-night session of top military leaders.

But Peron was forewarned so that he could leave the presidential palace and flee the country by air, the newspaper said. There was speculation he had gone to Paraguay.

A junta of generals took command of the government as a climax to the four-day revolt that overthrew Peron. They quickly announced peace talks with the rebel forces.

The generals also moved rapidly to tighten their control on Buenos Aires after rebel reports that the six-million-member General Federation of Labor — the backbone of Peron's popular support — is planning a general strike. With such a strike Argentine labor returned Peron to power in 1945 after a military clique had jailed him. The rebel radio at Bahia Blanca, 325 miles southwest of Buenos Aires, said the CGT "is preparing secretly, under the inspiration of Peron, a general revolutionary strike for dawn to restore the tyrant, betraying all pledges."

The state radio soon after said there would be "no work" in the capital today, but several hours later a broadcast communique from the junta called on the workers to remain calm and resume work.

The junta did not say where the peace talks with the rebels are taking place, when they started or who is representing the rebels. Previously the commander of the rebel fleet, Adm. Isaac Rojas, had been reported planning to enter Buenos Aires Harbor last night aboard the Cruiser La Argentina for the negotiations.

Today a diplomat in touch with the situation said representatives of the provisional government had gone aboard the cruiser in the river plate off Buenos Aires. Fog and rain shrouded the vessel.

U.S. Opposing Red China Seat

U.N. General Assembly Opens; West Powers Down on Peiping

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — As U.N. delegates gathered for the opening today of the 10th General Assembly, the United States marshaled support to knock down any fresh Soviet bid to seat Communist China.

The Red China issue, which comes up each year, was expected to get another test as soon as the acting president, J. M. H. A. Luns of the Netherlands, rapped the gavel to launch the new session.

Chief U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr. expressed confidence the United States had lined up enough votes to keep Red China out. Lodge prepared a brief resolution to shelve the issue for 1955, the maneuver which worked at the last session.

Diplomats anticipated that Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, here for his first Assembly since 1946, would make the annual bid to unseat the "Chinese Nationalists. There was speculation, however, that the Russians might leave the initiative up to some other power sympathetic to the Peiping regime.

Baby Snatched From Nursery

300 Cops Hunt Blonde in San Francisco Area; 3-Day-Old Boy Gone

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Nearly 300 policemen searched house by house through a 66-block area today for a doctor's 3-day-old son who was kidnapped from Mt. Zion Hospital. The child, Robert J. Marcus, is the healthy 6-pound, 6½-ounce son of Dr. and Mrs. Sanford Marcus of suburban Daly City.

He was taken from the glass-enclosed nursery yesterday afternoon, presumably by an untidy blonde who had been questioned by Letti Clement, 21, a student nurse.

Eleanor Lorenz, a nursing supervisor, saw a blonde woman walking from the hospital shortly afterward with a baby.

Inspector George Dyer described the woman as a "white female American, about 34 years of age, between 5 feet 5 and 5 feet 7 tall, weighing between 150 and 170 pounds."

He said she was large busted, clear skinned and with long blonde hair and gave the general impression of "untidiness."

The hospital offered a $1,000 reward for information leading to the baby's recovery.

Mrs. Marcus, 29, was put under sedatives. Her husband is 34. They have two other children, Richard, 3, and Susan, 2.

Noted Michigan Democrat Congressman Dies at 61

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John D. Dingell, 61-year-old Michigan Democrat, died unexpectedly last night at Walter Reed Army Medical Center. His death was the first in the present 84th Congress.

Dingell had represented Detroit's 15th District since he was first elected to Congress in 1932.

He had entered Walter Reed Friday night for a checkup on a suspected asthmatic condition.

A son, James, said his father, apparently died of a heart attack. He said the congressman's condition had not been considered serious until he took a sudden turn for the worse some three hours before his death.

Elected to Congress 12 consecutive terms, Dingell was the second-ranking Democrat on the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee. He also was a member of the Senate-House Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation.

Identified as a political liberal, he was a leader of the unsuccessful efforts by some House Democrats earlier this year to put across a $20-a-person income tax cut.

The vacancy will be filled by a special election.

Dingell is survived by his widow Grace; two sons, John Jr. and

REP. J. J. DINGELL

James; and a daughter, Julie. Dingell, a dues-paying member of the International Typographical Union (AFL), has always had the support of AFL and CIO unions.

Noted Sculptor Carl Milles Succumbs in Sweden

Carl Wilhelm Milles, for 21 years resident sculptor and head of the sculptor department of Cranbrook Academy of Art, died yesterday at his home near Stockholm, Sweden. He was 80.

Milles, acclaimed by many critics as one of the world's greatest sculptors, created many of the large fountain groups now standing in major cities of Europe and the United States.

Seventy-two of his works are at Cranbrook. The collection is exceeded in number only by the collection near his home in Sweden, now a national park.

Milles came to Cranbrook in 1929 at the invitation of architect Eliel Saarinen, first president of Cranbrook Academy of Art. At the time of his death, he was working on a memorial for Detroit's Civic Center, which was designed by Saarinen.

The sculptor's friends at Cranbrook did not know he had left his studio in Rome, where he was working on the memorial, and were surprised to learn he died at his Swedish home. He took up his work in Rome after leaving Cranbrook in 1950.

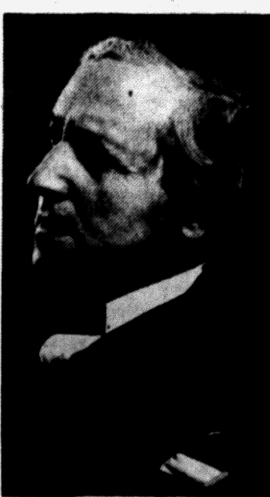

Recently, he was conferred the Knight's Grand Cross of the Order of the North Star by King Gustav.

His works in this country are located in Chicago, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Wilmington, St. Paul and Worcester. In addition to Cranbrook, One famous fountain memorial group is at the National Memorial Park Cemetery, at Falls Church, Va. He worked on it for more than seven years.

Milles' first work in this country was Jonah and the Whale, found in the Jonah fountain at Cranbrook. It typifies his keen sense of humor and depicts Jonah emerging from the mouth of the whale, appearing completely amazed, bewildered and helpless.

The sculptor, who celebrated his golden wedding anniversary with his wife Olga in Rome last February, insisted that visitors to his Cranbrook studio call him and his wife by their first names.

A philosopher as well as a craftsman, Milles once told a Pontiac Press writer that the fountain group at the cemetery represented his personal conviction that death need not be accepted as an ending.

The fountain, he said, portrays life enduring.

Do-It-Yourself-Hobbyist Really Coins Money

NEW YORK (INS) — Jack Wladyslaw enjoyed do-it-yourself hobbies. He made money.

Not very big money, just quarters and dimes and fake subway tokens. The large coins were made of lead and the tokens were pennies he had filed down in his own basement workshop.

New York Police caught him yesterday in a subway station and arrested him.

Explosion, Fire Cause Is Sought

The cause of an explosion which touched off a fire at the Dynamic Manufacturers Inc. paint plant yesterday has not been discovered, firm officials said today.

Spokesmen for the company, which fabricates steel flooring and building materials, also said damage estimates have not been completed.

Two of the men injured in the blast, Jack McAdory, 25, of 451 Telegraph Rd., and Archie Taylor, 24, of Royal Oak, were listed in good condition by St. Joseph Mercy Hospital authorities.

The other two victims, William Krogmann, 22, of Mt. Clemens and Franklin Marshall, 21, of Romeo, were released from the hospital after treatment.

Board Honors 5 for Long Service

Mental Health Usage for TB Hospital Gets Tabled for Study

Four ex-members of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, and one who will soon retire, were presented plaques yesterday honoring them for 15 years or more service on the board.

Receiving the awards at the meeting in the County Office Building here were former members, George Schweigert, of Ferndale; Frank Simmons, of Pontiac Township; Arthur Lamb, of Farmington; and William Graham, of Royal Oak.

The fifth went to E. H. Waterhouse, of Huntington Woods, who will retire shortly.

In other action, the board approved construction of a breezeway between two cottages at the County Children's Home.

A resolution read by Chairman of the Juvenile Affairs Committee, Mrs. Helen P. Roberts, of Ferndale, was tabled for further study. It recommended support of a proposal made last August by Oakland County Probate Judge Arthur E. Moore that empty space in state tuberculosis sanatoriums be used for care for mental defectives.

The Health Committee, TB Sanatorium Committee and Oakland County TB Sanatorium Trustees were requested to examine possible changes in operations at the county institution toward handling the increasing case load.

Construction of a $2,000 sign at the County Service Center on North Telegraph Road was authorized.

A resolution was passed promising county help to the Air Force in recruiting personnel to man ground observer posts.

Final approval of the 1956 county budget was postponed until the board meets again Sept. 28.

Weaker Hurricane Creeps Up Coast

Hilda, which sped across the Gulf into Mexico and died out early today in that country's rugged north central mountains.

At Tampico, a Gulf of Mexico oil port, at least 12 were dead, 350 injured and 15,000 homeless.

Torrential rains were still expected west of Tampico as far as Monterrey.

The state government at Tampico reported Hilda had damaged 90 per cent of the city's buildings, which housed a normal population of 110,000 plus thousands of refugees from earlier floods of Hurricane Gladys.

Mexican President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines ordered unlimited aid for Tampico and other cities struck by the hurricane early yesterday. Ciudad Madero, Altamira and other towns near Tampico were reported to have suffered "considerable damage."

With highways and railroads washed out, relief supplies had to be flown into Tampico. Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas and the Texas Good Neighbor Commission offered to supply helicopters for relief work.

On the East coast hurricane Ione developed erratic tendencies. Yesterday she sped along the North Carolina coast at 12 to 15 m.p.h., then almost stopped 25 miles south of Norfolk, Va. She finally passed that port city around 5 a.m., six hours later than expected.

States ahead of the storm watched her advance warily. Her reduced speed gave them time for unusually thorough precautions against whatever force she might bring.

In New York City, the 21,000-man police force was kept on an all-night alert. An elaborate emergency center was set up with 50 telephones reserved for calls from citizens who might need help.

Ike Seeks Help From Motorists

President Exhorts Car Owners to Ask Action in Highway Legislation

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today called on an organization of motor-minded citizens to "speak up again and again for prompt action on a highway system adequate for modern living."

Eisenhower, whose multibillion-dollar highway improvement program was rejected by Congress earlier this year, made the suggestion in a message to the 53rd annual convention of the American Automobile Assn., an organization whose aim is to improve driving conditions. The group claims 4,888,800 members, mostly passenger car owners.

"The members of your association know from experience how urgently needed is a road system in line with our expanding population," the President said. "Economic growth must not be stunted by a creeping paralysis of traffic."

"I hope all of you will continue to speak up again and again for prompt action on a highway system adequate for modern living."

Warn Unknown Thief of Deadly Machine

DETROIT — Police warned today a stolen medical machine could cause death within five minutes if operated by an amateur.

The "sound wave" ultrasonic therapy generator, used in treatment of muscular ailments, was stolen Saturday from the car of Cyril Guthrie Jr., salesman for a surgical supply house.

Guthrie told police that his car was in a parking lot at Columbia and Woodward when the theft occurred.

The machine, valued at $335, is 20 by 15 by 10 inches. It bears the trademark Medi-Sonar and is enclosed in a pale green metal box with a gray plastic cover and leather handle.

Escaped Elephant Scorns Food Bait to Keep Freedom

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Now that Mecklenburg County is learning to live with Vicki, its wayward and unobtrusive elephant, the animal may be calming down.

Veteran elephant man Louie Reed, called in on the hunt from Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus, says if he can spot her in her woodland fastness six miles from downtown Charlotte he thinks he can coax her home by talking to her "like a baby."

Reed figures Vicki was made skittish by amateur elephant hunters since her disappearance 10 days ago from her amusement park home. Yesterday she would have nothing to do with the bait scattered along woodland trails—white bread and grain, mixed with molasses. Usually she loves it.

Owner Jack Partlow says he's confident his 6-year-old Indian elephant will be caught.

Burglars Unsuccessful in Breakin Attempt

Burglars made an unsuccessful attempt to break into the Howard Street Food Market, 148 E. Howard, Sunday night, Pontiac police reported today.

Owner Willis Keasey told officers that he discovered a ladder leading to a rear window when he opened the store yesterday. A screen and two panes of glass were removed from the window but entry was not made, he said.

Mississippi Draws Jury for 'Wolf-Whistle' Trial

SUMNER, Miss. — The state of Mississippi sets out today to prove that two white men killed a 14-year-old Chicago Negro boy who allegedly made offensive remarks and whistled at a white woman. The evidence appeared to be heavily circumstantial — so much so the state doesn't plan to ask the death penalty.

Only two more jurors must be picked before the prosecution unveils its case against silent Roy Bryant, 34, and his balding half-brother, 36-year-old J. W. Milam, who talks readily but seldom smiles.

State and defense attorneys, operating in the shirt-sleeve heat of a crowded courtroom, agreed yesterday on 10 jurors for the all-male, all-white jury.

Through the tedium of juror questioning, the principals in this publicized case sat quietly, frequently abandoning their silent contemplation of the steamy proceedings to tend their 2-year-old sons, whom they held on their laps for a time. Their wives were also in the courtroom.

The two men are charged with the killing of Emmett Louis Till, who allegedly whistled at Mrs. Bryant after offensive remarks.

The big mystery is what happened between the time Till was taken from the home of his sharecropper uncle Mose Wright until

I-own Is Correct Way to Say Name of Hurricane

WASHINGTON (INS) — Ione, according to Webster's collegiate dictionary, is pronounced I-own, with the accent on the second syllable.

The weather bureau, which selected the name from the dictionary's listing of common English Christian names, said Ione fits the plan for naming this year's hurricanes.

The plan calls for the use of two syllable names of women containing four, five or six letters.

Ione, according to Webster's, is of Greek derivation, probably stemming from the mythological character Io, who left her name on the Ionian sea between Italy and Greece.

Walter L. Runyan Hurt in Collision on Dixie

After his car collided head-on with another early today on the Dixie Highway, Walter L. Runyan, 21, of 863 Woodlane Dr., was admitted at Pontiac General Hospital with possible back injuries. His condition was listed a good.

State Police of the Pontiac Post said Runyan apparently fell asleep at the wheel of his southbound car, crossed the centerline near White Lake Road and rammed one bel g driven by William Pettis, 57, of Holly. Pettis was treated at the hospital for cuts and bruises and released.

Sentenced to Jackson for Gas Station Entry

Murder-Suicide Startles Monroe

Paper Mill Worker Kills Wife and Self, Leaves Four Orphans

MONROE — Police today described as murder and suicide the shotgun deaths of a Monroe couple.

Monroe Police Lt. Harris Lapp said Nick Turner, 40, a paper mill worker, shot and fatally wounded his wife, Marie, 29, as she ran from their small tarpaper-covered home carrying a 10-month-old daughter, Penny.

Mrs. Turner ran 40 feet with the baby before she collapsed. She died just as Lapp, summoned by neighbors, arrived at the scene.

Lapp said he heard a shot from within the house just as he started to enter the building. Fearing Turner was shooting at him he called reinforcements.

FOUND DEAD

Sheriff's deputies tossed a tear gas bomb into the house before entering. When they went in they found Turner lying dead on the living-room floor with his 12-gauge shotgun underneath him.

Kapp said Turner had a record of about a dozen arrests on minor charges.

Neighbors said the couple quarreled frequently. They had four children.

Two, Sandra Kay, 6, and Jo, 4, witnessed the shooting of their mother. The fourth child, Nicky, 2, is living with relatives in Tennessee.

Anastasia Wins Fight to Keep Citizenship

PHILADELPHIA (INS) — Albert Anastasia, reputed one-time "lord high executioner" of Brooklyn's Murder, Inc., has won a legal battle to retain his U. S. citizenship.

His victory came on a two-to-one ruling by the third U. S. circuit court of appeals in Philadelphia which reversed an order by federal District Judge William Smith, of Newark, N. J., in April, 1954.

Judge Smith stripped Anastasia of his citizenship on grounds that he had committed fraud by concealing his criminal records when he was naturalized in 1945.

Anastasia has escaped four murder counts. But last June, he was sentenced to a year in prison and fined $20,000 after pleading guilty to income tax evasions totaling $11,743.

Future Annexation Policy on Commission Agenda

A communication from the Retail Merchants Assn. regarding future annexation policy for the city is included on the 32-point agenda facing the city commission tonight.

City Attorney William A. Ewart is scheduled to report on a planning company rezoning case as is City Engineer Lewis M. Wrenn on amending a special assessment roll for a combined sewer in Richard street to delete Lot 22, Marimont Subdivision.

Two reports are due from the City Plan Commission, each approving zoning changes.

Consideration is set for an agreement with Huron-Plaza, Inc. formerly signed with Community National Bank, for land use for a street and alley.

Also slated is a resolution approving a land contract for sale of part of lot 2, assessor's plat 7, on LeGrande avenue.

Public hearings are scheduled for the following:
Vacating alley parallel to Perry street between Arlene and Madison.
Special assessment roll for curb, gutter and drainage on Sylvan court from Orchard Lake to 50 feet west of Myra.

The Day in Birmingham

Parking Problem Arises in Commission Meeting

BIRMINGHAM — A possible revision or amendment to the off street parking ordinance passed last spring, grew out of last night's City Commission meeting.

The problem revolves around jeopardy to leased property which might now be used for off street parking to comply with the ordinance, but could in the future be purchased for other purposes.

This was brought to the attention of law-makers in the case of Jacobson's Home Decorating Shop, 325 N. Woodward Ave., which requests that land it leases west of the store be considered the parking area to serve an addition under way on the existing building.

In this instance, commissioners will ask Jacobson's for an agreement entered into by actual owners of the parking property, restricting the area for parking only. This will be recorded to prevent future owners from professing no knowledge of the restricted zoning.

The agreement could also be rescinded by the city, in the event that Jacobson's should want to re-locate their parking area or build on the property in question, providing parking elsewhere.

Commissioners also honored three retiring volunteer fire department employees. In gratitude for their combined 94 years of service, Mayor Charles Renfrew presented inscribed gold watches to Frank Olsen, 72, Herbert Moore, 62, and Charles Fredericks, 64.

Respectively, the men have served 36, 32, and 26 years with the part-paid department.

Health Inspector Henry Johns today asked residents to cooperate in the disposal of medicines, garden insecticides, etc., as a protection to children.

Rather than place these items at the curb for collection, Johns asked that householders either dispose of the contents in a sewer or wrap them in with garbage. "Just as long as they are concealed from youngsters who might add them to their toy doctor's kits," he said. Johns' warning was issued after a complaint had been received.

Birmingham Puppeteers will open a new season at 8 tonight, meeting with Mrs. John May of Yorkshire road. A group headed by Mrs. Everett Walsh is preparing her adaptation of "Jack-in-the-Beanstalk" for use on the smaller stage.

"Pink Frosting" is being readied for presentation on the large stage by Mrs. Robert Von Maur and her group. Mrs. May and Mrs. Walsh are taking bookings for the plays, which are presented to church and other organizations, or children's groups. Women interested in puppetry are invited to tonight's session.

Annual membership tea of the League of Women Voters is to be held at the Community House tomorrow, with guests or new members arriving at 1 p.m. for introductions, and members due at 1:30 for the business meeting.

While invitations were sent to Emory M. Ford, chairman of the board of the Portland Cement Assn., who presided at the meeting, said he felt sure cement makers could provide enough material for Michigan's road-building program no matter how large.

At the MTA meeting earlier, Higgins said he required Van Wagoner's services as consulting engineer because Ziegler is too busy to be always available when needed.

Van Wagoner will get $1,000 per month. The authority also hired Muri K. Aten, former state auditor general, as secretary-treasurer for $833 a month.

Both men volunteered to work without pay should authority funds run out. The group had $50,000 of its original $500,000 appropriation left at end of August.

Higgins read a letter from the Ford Motor Co. saying the MTA was welcome to inspect any parts of the route running through Ford property.

On Sept. 7 Higgins was requested to leave Ford property in Dearborn by Chairman of the Dearborn Plan Commission Irving Oberst, who claimed the order came from a Ford official.

Authority members indicated they would not change the turnpike route through the River Rouge valley in Dearborn.

A proposed alternate route would require removal of at least 340 homes, Higgins explained, while the present location does not disturb a single residence.

The route through Detroit still might be changed, the authority agreed.

Higgins stressed importance of reaching a decision one way or the other on construction of the north-south toll road as soon as possible. "Many people are holding up construction of homes and business places along the route and it's unfair to make them continue to wait."

Avon Township Adopts New Subdivision Guide

ROCHESTER — The Avon Township Board has adopted the Subdivision Guide as the procedure for processing applications for subdivisions within Avon Township, as prepared and proposed by the Rochester, Avon, Oakland Planning Committee, at their recent meeting.

This measure has been under study by the Area Planning Commission for several months. Announcement was also made that 2,500 Avon Township maps have been delivered to the township offices. These new maps can be had for public use.

Bob Considine Says:

$64,000 Quiz Take Is Bubble Gum Money

NEW YORK (INS) — Now and then, really not often, a high school journalist will come to me, nervously dab his pencil to his lips, and say "Mr. Constantino, what was your greatest moment in sports?"

Well, you try to look as wise as John Kieran for a pregnant moment or two — though actually you're wondering where you can get a second co-maker—and you say something like this:

"Son, if I may condense salutations, the greatest moment in sports in the past couple of decades came when Bobby Thomson, then of a team that represented New York named the Giants, hit a home run off Ralph Branca, who was working for the Dodgers. It came in the last half of the ninth inning of the deciding game of a 3-game play-off for the National league pennant in 1951 with two Giants on bases and the Dodgers leading 4-2."

One reason I always pick this over the Dempsey-Firpo fight of 1933 or Babe Ruth's pointing to the center field fence at Wrigley Field in 1932 is because I didn't see either of those events. But the main reason is that when Thomson hit the ball I was seated in the press box at the Polo Grounds next to Granny Rice.

STANDING PRESS BOX

It was the only time I ever saw an entire press box stand up and all work come to a dead stop. Rice was emotionally moved to an extent I will not now try to put to words, except that as we embraced he began a sentence with, "In fifty years at this business..."

Red Leader Arrested in New York Subway

NEW YORK (AP)—Morris Weiss, 45, identified by federal authorities as an underground Communist leader, is being held in $50,000 bail on charges of violating the Smith Act.

Weiss was arrested yesterday by FBI agents on a subway platform.

A Justice Department announcement said Weiss disappeared from his Chicago home about four years ago and had been in the Communist underground ever since. It said he had been in Moscow for eight months of study and training during the late 1930s.

The Smith Act forbids conspiracy to teach or advocate overthrow of the government by force. Conviction carries a maximum sentence of 10 years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

College of Future Includes Locking Students in Room

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (INS)—An imaginative college-of-tomorrow at which locked-in students become educated men by lectures "continuously piped to them by television and radio" was described today by Dr. Barnaby C. Keeney, the 12th president of Brown University.

"In the late afternoon and evening they could receive, by electrical transmission, photo-reading," Dr. Keeney said at the opening convocation of Brown's 192nd academic year.

"Naturally," he continued, "one would release them occasionally to be fed and perhaps for an occasional walk under close supervision."

"Do not laugh at this; it is a caricature, but such plans are under serious consideration in high quarters."

"Such a procedure would save an enormous amount of money, an enormous amount of heat, an enormous amount of faculty (because once a lecture was given it could be recorded for future use), and it would save an enormous amount of education."

However, Dr. Keeney said that Brown would "seek greater excellence within our present purposes."

But nobody who ever wrote sports will scoff at an even more consistently tense moment in sports: When the heavyweight champion of the world, having dug his feet into the roots pan and heard the opening bell, turns around to bare his menacing white mouthpiece and defend his title against what may be a greater ape. As Rocky Marciano must do Tuesday night against Archie Moore at Yankee stadium.

Bugs Baer once said, in a piece about the United Nations, that the first veto known to man was a growl from the back of a cave. The opening bell at a heavyweight fight is in keeping with this thought. As its sound, two mostly naked men, stripped of all pretense of civilization, stalk out to kill. The prize makes the $64,000 question look like a kid's bubble-gum money.

DEMPSEY MADE DOUGH

Dempsey parlayed his slaughter of Willard into millions, as did Tunney when he won from Dempsey. Louis, though cut 50 per cent by his managers and additionally slashed for ten hard years by the group he had to fight to win the pennant, would still be a rich man today but was haplessly born at a time when he had to keep fighting to pay income taxes on the previous fight and mathematically could never atone for the fiscal mistake of winning the first one.

Flat fighting stimulates sedentary ringriders to utmost excesses. When a Dempsey gutted Sharkey and then in lieu of an apology knocked him out with a crunching hook, an old tele-grapher forgot the fellow whose story he was sending, stood up, beat on the ring apron and screamed, "They can't beat us old guys, eh Jack?"

When Bax Baer won the title from Primo Carnera in what looked like an ultimate scene from "The Spoilers," Paul Gallico, one of the most gifted users of the alphabet and no longer a ten-second man, wrote, "Heart, for God's sake stop pounding and let me write about this fight!"

CLASSED AS BUMS

The late great Bill Brown, boxing commissar for New York and a foremost spade caller, later identified both Baer and Carnera as bums.

History may record that Marciano and Moore are, too, but it might take a long time and there will be dissenting votes. More people are going to pay to see this one than any fight in history, because of the gimmick of piping it into theaters from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific coast.

Unless all signs fail, you'll hardly ever get a more honest effort than the one due from Marciano, whose unbeaten record indicates he is without compare in the heavyweight division, and Moore, a long frustrated soul whose birth certificate was burned in the big fire (Nero's) but whose announced age of 38 seems reasonable, because he is at least a year younger than Jack Benny. Ought to be a great fight.

Water Engineers Hired

GRAND RAPIDS (AP)—The nine-member water study committee of the city water department has agreed to hire Black and Veach, a Kansas City engineering firm, for a preliminary survey to look into a new, increased supply water pipe line from Lake Michigan to Grand Rapids.

Otter Lake gets its name from the fact that the otter, a fur bearing animal, was formerly found there in large numbers. This animal now is practically extinct in this area.

Simplicity Should Be Keynote of Home Date

By ELIZABETH WOODWARD

If you are going to see him all the time, there are bound to be evenings when there's nothing to go out to do. You're to be stuck with keeping him entertained for at least three hours in your own home. And what under the sun is there to do?

Some girls bog down at the very thought. They don't know how to keep themselves amused without canned entertainment. So entertaining anyone else is a frightful chore.

But girls who have inner resources have no problem. They have fun doing anything—serious or silly. They can turn a series of house dates into a checkers tournament. They can make a two-man attack on a crossword puzzle an exciting pastime.

This girl thinks it takes a recreation room and a lot of equipment to make an enjoyable evening at home. She writes:

"Dear Miss Woodward: Have you some good suggestions for things that my boy friend and I could do when he comes over to my house in the evening? If we had a recreation room we could play table tennis or dance, but we don't. I hope you have some ideas for me."

Answer: A capital investment in table tennis, dart boards, recording machine, television set, radios, dance records, and other games would make your house into a three-ring circus.

But all of this equipment would pall if you don't know how to have fun using it. If you're light-hearted, gay and full of giggles you can have a hilarious time playing childish games.

But don't ask him if he's anxious to play tiddlywinks! He might think you were tetching in the head. Blithely get out the game, go prone on the floor and start playing all by yourself. Talk to the winks, loudly encourage yourself to get 'em in the cup, wait at your lack of success. First thing you know he'll be joining you in the game.

Same thing goes with jackstraws, dominoes, Chinese checkers or lotto. Get out the games, start lining things up and summon him to join you.

Make a big point of playing up to his interests when he comes over to your house. If his jalopy is his love and he considers it a high-priced speed demon, get yourself a copy of a magazine about sport cars and bone up so you can show him things, ask him questions and get him talking.

The same goes for boats, cameras and photography, stamp collecting. Get into his act by a slight contribution that will spur his conversation.

If you happen to have television, watch it for a while. If you do on records, listen to some. If he likes to dance, go to it right on the living room rug.

If he's handy with tools, let him help you fix the light plug, the iron cord, the leaky faucet in the laundry. And take him out in the kitchen so he can cut himself a piece of cake or make himself a sandwich.

If you have fun in your own home he'll enjoy coming over! (Copyright 1955)

Bridegroom Offers Gift Before Rite

Personal Jewelry Always Worn With Wedding Gown

By EMILY POST

"What is the proper time for the bridegroom to give his wedding present to the bride? Someone says the night of their wedding, but what if it is something she might wear at the wedding?"

Answer: He gives it to her whenever he likes, but always before the wedding. In fact, if it is a piece of jewelry she always wears it with her wedding dress.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Can you help me? I am going to meet for the first time my fiancé's family who lives out West. They are complete strangers to me. I have bought a small gift for each of the children in the family, but my problem is his parents."

"Should I take a gift for them, or should I send something when I return? If I should take a gift with me, can you suggest something suitable?"

Answer: Taking a gift for the children is ample. You are not expected to give the parents anything.

"Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be proper for two unmarried couples all in their early 30s, to take a three-day trip by car, stopping at motels at night to sleep? The girls, of course, will share a room together and the boys another. I would very much appreciate hearing from you on this matter."

Answer: It seems to me at the ages you quote they are fully competent to chaperon each other.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When being entertained as a weekend guest at someone's house, is it necessary—or even correct—to tip the housekeeper upon leaving, and if so, should one first ask permission of the host and hostess to do so?"

Answer: If you mean a housekeeper, no; if you mean a general maid, yes, and you tip her just before you leave. On no account, mention it to the host or hostess.

Honor Clark Boyles With Birthday Party

Clark Vance Boyles was honored at a birthday party on Saturday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold R. Boyles of Ascot road. Invited to celebrate Clark's sixth birthday were Tommy Grahall, Jimmie Gustafson, Randy Bowers, Jimmie Reamer, Michael Melkonian, Bobby Wright and David Ernst.

Blonde - Menzel Nuptials Read at Grace Lutheran

Before an altar banked with arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and carnations Jacqueline Susan Menzel became the bride of Gordon James Blonde on Saturday evening.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Menzel of Prospect street and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Blonde of Detroit.

Grace Lutheran Church was the setting for the 7:30 ceremony performed by the Rev. Otto G. Schultz in the presence of 250 guests.

A waltz-length gown of imported hand clipped Chantilly lace was worn by the bride. The full skirt was fashioned with a pleated flounce underskirt that accented the fullness of the skirt and the detail. Her fingertip veil was secured by a lace cap and her only jewelry was a set of pearl earrings. She carried a crescent shaped arrangement of white roses and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

MAID OF HONOR

Yvonne Lou Yeager of Birmingham, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a rose beige and brown moire taffeta gown fashioned with a full skirt. The bodice featured a semi-scoop neckline. She carried Johanna Hill roses and glimmellias.

Mrs. Warren Baker Jr. was the bride's other attendant and her gown was identical in color and fashion to the maid of honor's. She carried an arrangement of yellow and glimmellias.

Robert Bernhart served as best man and seating the guests were Bruce Barnhart, Gerald Blonde and Richard Menzel.

When the bride's mother received her guests at the reception held immediately following the ceremony at the Knights of Pythian Hall, she was wearing a toast-colored dress with brown accessories and a corsage of green cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a steel-blue dress with matching accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

When the couple left for their honeymoon in Canada and New York, the bride changed to a cocoa knit dress with brown alligator accessories and she wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return the couple will make their home in Detroit.

Banjo Revival Thrills Old Pro

Veteran Musician Sees Return to the Tempo of Roaring '20s

NEWSFEATURES

CHICAGO—Jose Silva, known to music pros as Mr. Banjo, says the present enthusiasm for the banjo signals a happy change to the tempo of the roaring '20s.

Silva, 50, was 21 when he took up the banjo. He's been playing it ever since. Although the banjo was reduced to a novelty instrument, Silva played along with its ups and downs.

"I never let it go," he said. "I kept up the tradition. I can play any fretted instrument, but whenever I'd try another, folks would say, 'Play the banjo, Jose!'"

Silva credits the young generation and the Ames Brothers, with their "Man With a Banjo" recording, with bringing the banjo back to popularity.

"We are in an era when the younger generation wants to hear a lively tempo," he said.

BORN IN MADEIRA
Born at Funchal, Madeira Islands, off the coast of Portugal, Silva came to the United States with his parents when he was 4 years old.

"We sailed in an old windjammer around the Cape of Good Hope, to the Hawaiian Islands and then to California. It took us 60 days to make the trip. I'm glad I can't remember it," he said.

Silva now lives in Siren, Wis. At the convention of the National Assn. of Music Merchants in Chicago he revealed plans to teach the banjo in high schools throughout Wisconsin for its Bureau of Concerts.

He will visit 410 high schools where he will present 30-minute lectures and banjo concerts. Next year he will do the same in Minnesota's high schools.

"That means I will give from 12 to 15 banjo concerts a week," he said happily.

Stage Family Bequeathes Acting Career to Tyrone

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Some people get bitten by the acting bug, others inherit the disease. Tyrone Power is one of the latter.

In his case, it goes 'way back. He is the third of the acting Tyrone Powers, and the most famous in the line. His family background helps explain why he will soon be abandoning Hollywood again for the stage.

Ty could find enough leading roles here to keep him busy for 10 years. Most actors agree that working in the movies is more restful, easier and more profitable. Then why does he choose the stage?

"You don't always do everything for loot, do you?" he replied. Following the footsteps of his forebears, Ty got his seasoning on the stage. When he became a big star in films, it appeared that his footlight career was over. But he surprised Hollywood by going to London for "Mister Roberts."

It was no mere fling. Three years ago he toured the country in Paul Gregory's "John Brown's Body." Last season he starred on Broadway in "The Dark Is Not Light Enough." He appeared opposite Katharine Cornell, with whose company he had once been a featured player.

His next venture is "A Quiet Place," a play written by a new author, Julian Claman. Ty will open this fall, possibly in Cincinnati, and may be unavailable for films until next June.

"It's hard work," he admitted, "but it's very satisfying. And you can't call this easy."

He referred to his latest acting job in "The Eddy Duchin Story." Besides working in the year's hottest weather — "it was 128 on the set one day" — he has the chore of matching the finger work for his portrayal of the late pianist. He has a portable piano keyboard in his dressing room and practices regularly to the Duchin records.

It was inevitable that Hollywood would get around to the Duchin saga, since it combines music with tragic drama.

Veteran Telegrapher Still Punches the Key

WASHINGTON (AP)—A. W. Drinkwater, who, as a telegrapher, sent word 53 years ago of the Wright brothers' flight at Kill Devil Hill, N.C., is still putting out the news. Among messages the Civil Air Patrol received on an emergency radio set up for Hurricane Ione was one from Drinkwater at Manteo, N.C., advising, "for the first time since it was established in 1875 the Coast Guard lifeboat station at Nags Head has been evacuated."

Drinkwater has been an AP string correspondent in the Carolina coastal country for many years.

Writer Buys Heifer With Very Kind Face

CARTHAGE, Tenn. (AP)—A painter and writer who calls New York and Paris his homes got carried away at Sen. Albert Gore's first production sale of Black Angus cows and bought a heifer he has no place to put.

Ludwig Bemelmans bought Miss Burgess of Marwood for $1,250 yesterday and then explained: "She had such a kind face I couldn't keep from buying her. I also liked the idea of keeping her for a pet, not raising her for slaughter."

Bemelmans owns a dairy farm in Austria, but he never attended a beef cattle sale before. He plans to leave Miss Burgess at Gore's farm until he can wind up plans to buy a Virginia farm.

His Six Children Really Up to Monkey Business

CINCINNATI (AP)—George Kersting thought his six children were strictly up to monkey business yesterday when one of them yelled, "There's a monkey in the back yard."

But sure enough, there was a monkey rapidly making friends with the youngsters. They fed him some bread and a banana. Later the visitor took to the trees and disappeared in a wooded area in the neighborhood.

County Dems Plan Fund Raising Dinner

Oakland County Democrats are planning their first Eighteenth Congressional District Dinner. The dinner, which will be held at Northwood Inn, Berkley, on Oct. 27, will be a fund-raising affair to give financial support to the 18th District's Democratic Congressional candidate in 1956.

The home of Mrs. Robert Phillips of Huntington Woods, dinner chairman, was the location of a meeting held Thursday night by the committee chairmen, Donald Adams, Mrs. Zigmund Niparko, Marty Meyer, Carl Firsner, Mrs. Margaret Kroesing, Mrs. Ray Rengo, State Representative, Leslie Hudson, State Representative Walter McMahon, Mrs. Hiram Terry, Mrs. Cynthia Nelsey, Mrs. Fred Elias, Mrs. Donald Swanson, and John Tracey, ticket chairman. Tracey, who is faced with the problem of limiting the gathering to 400 people, has requested that Oakland County Democrats send their reservations to him at 2100 North Wilson, Royal Oak.

About four out of five prescriptions were compounded in the drug store 15 years ago compared to about 1 in 10 today because of the increased use of miracle drugs, most of which are sold in the manufacturer's containers.

BORN IN MADEIRA

Born at Funchal, Madeira Islands, off the coast of Portugal, Silva came to the United States with his parents when he was 4 years old.

"We sailed in an old windjammer around the Cape of Good Hope, to the Hawaiian Islands and then to California. It took us 60 days to make the trip. I'm glad I can't remember it," he said.

Silva now lives in Siren, Wis. At the convention of the National Assn. of Music Merchants in Chicago he revealed plans to teach the banjo in high schools throughout Wisconsin for its Bureau of Concerts.

He will visit 410 high schools where he will present 30-minute lectures and banjo concerts. Next year he will do the same in Minnesota's high schools.

"That means I will give from 12 to 15 banjo concerts a week," he said happily.

Big Blow Forces Postponement of Title Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Hurricane Ione didn't approve of plans for tonight's Rocky Marciano and Archie Moore heavyweight championship battle in Yankee Stadium. The lady with the big wallop at 9:30 a.m. today forced postponement of the engagement until Wednesday night.

Although the force of the hurricane seemed to have moved out to sea, the big blow prompted promoter Jim Norris (International Boxing Club) to set the title bout back to 9:45 p. m. Wednesday. Official weigh-in, set for noon today also was postponed.

If further postponement is needed

the bout will be shifted to Thursday night.

Change in the bout has not changed the odds, in favor of Rocky, who was given a solid 17-5 favorite's backing.

It was even money that Moore, stopped four times in his 19-year career of 144 fights (120-19-5), would not come out for the ninth round, and 18 to 5 that one of the fighters wouldn't go the distance. If you like Archie to win by a kazo, you could get 6 to 1.

Despite the odds, the poised light heavyweight champion was as confident as ever that he would upset the "experts" and become the oldest man to ascend to the heavyweight throne.

"I never was more sure of winning a fight and I will win this one," said Archie in his pre-battle statement. "I think it will be by a knockout."

"I am in the best condition of my life," declared Marciano. "I am going to win and by a knock-out if it is humanly possible."

The 31-year-old heavyweight is just as anxious to get in there with Moore as the veteran is to get his long-sought crack at the title. Archie's needling campaign has stirred up the Brockton Blaster and his intimates say he is burning with a desire to crush the cocky challenger as quickly as possible.

Moore went through his paces in leisurely fashion, just working on his timing and accuracy. It was the same sort of preparation used by Jersey Joe Walcott who won the title at the age of 36 years, five months and eight days.

Archie can be the oldest ever to win the crown at 38, nine months and seven days.

But Archie is bucking two jinxes. No reigning light heavyweight champion ever has beaten a heavyweight ruler for the title and seven have tried. Then, too 12 previous challengers who attempted to win the title in Yankee Stadium all were defeated.

Hotel rooms are scarce in midtown and the prized first-10-row rindside seats were sold weeks ago. Speculators were getting $100 for the premium pews. Even at that steep price there weren't many available. There were plenty of tickets on sale, however, in the $10, $20 and $30 range.

With one eye on the skies and with fingers crossed, Promoter James D. Norris said that with a break in the weather he still was hopeful of a 50,000-55,000 crowd and a $750,000 gate. The advance sale had zoomed close to the $600,000 mark when Ione reared her ugly head.

There will be no home television but the 15-rounder will be broadcast coast to coast (ABC) and to most parts of the world starting at 9:30 p. m. (EST).

A closed-circuit telecast will be beamed to 128 theaters in 92 cities and also will be piped to four veteran's hospitals. Theater network officials claim a 90 per cent advance sale of 400,000 available seats.

On an average of $3.50 per seat, the theater gate could go over the $1,000,000 mark, netting the IBC $300,000 as its share. Radio brings in another $35,000. With everything figured in, Rocky may earn $400,000 and Archie $200,000.

Unbeaten in nearly four years and boasting a win streak of 21, Moore is counting on his vastly superior boxing ability and pin-point punching to chop up the overly aggressive titleholder.

Archie may surprise and decide to come out swinging in the hopes of scoring a quick kayo before Marciano's relentless pressure caves in his aging legs. If he gambles, he'll know where to find Rocky—in mid-ring. That way it could be short and electrifying.

If the bout goes the distance the referee and two judges will score the fight by rounds. A supplementary point system also is used to break draws. The winner of each round gets from one to four points, the loser none.

No Title Claims

Casey's Only Concern Now, to Win 7 Games

WASHINGTON (AP)—Despite his club's commanding lead in the American League pennant battle, Casey Stengel was making no victory claims today.

"I can't make any predictions," the New York Yankees' manager said gruffly. "I'm only concerned about one thing—winning seven games."

Five would be enough to nose out the second place Cleveland Indians, who trail by two games but have lost three more than the Yanks.

New York had an opportunity to win two of those today in a rescheduled day and night double-header against the deflated Washington Senators.

sen (8-2) were Stengel's choices to go against McDermott (9-9) and Bob Porterfield (10-17). Both Ford and Larsen have been highly effective against the Senators in earlier meetings.

There was a chance that Porterfield, bothered by a bad knee, might not be able to pitch. If so, Dessen planned to use Pedro Ramos (5-9), his fastballing rookie star.

Stengel complained that Mickey Mantle, his hard-hitting center-fielder, wouldn't be able to play in any of the three games with Washington, and that neither first baseman Bill Skowron nor shortstop Phil Rizzuto was in good physical condition.

MONDAY'S STARS
PITCHING—Bud Baker, Tigers, hung up his first major league shutout in third starting assignment, blanking Athletics on six hits 4-0.
BATTING—Ernie Banks, Cubs, walloped his fifth grand-slam home run of season to set a major league record in 6-5 defeat by Cardinals.

Spotlight on Chiefs, Skippers

By H. GUY MOATS

Out at Waterford High School there's a lot of enthusiastic support for a feeling that the Skippers are going to make the going decidedly tough in Friday night's 1955 gridiron meeting with Pontiac High School Chiefs.

And the PHS head mentor, Ed Graybiel is inclined to think they're right—up to a certain point. At any rate this will be the highlighted game of the week in the Pontiac area.

"After seeing that big Waterford club batter West Bloomfield (Keego Harbor) 58-0, you've got to have a lot of respect for it. Any club that can score that many points has to be good," Graybiel commented today.

Chiefs took an unexpected licking at the hands of a surprisingly strong and capable Wyandotte eleven, last Friday night, 25-6. It was the opener on Pontiac's 9-game schedule, and a big audience was disappointed at the results.

Some of the faults that contributed to Chiefs' downfall are being corrected in the toughest kind of scrimmage sessions out at Wisner field.

Chiefs anticipate a really tight battle. Waterford is bigger, the PHS coaches point out, and they have some backs that can carry the ball very well, indeed.

Pontiac came through the bruising Friday opener without a bad injury, and that pleased the coaches. Even Frank Whitlock, end, who may get the left end post this week reported Monday full of fight and ready to go. Frank left the game last week with what appeared to be a badly bruised right leg. It was okay Monday.

Chiefs certainly aren't as bad a club as the opener's score might indicate.

Coach Graybiel still believes the squad is a very good one.

"I sure hope we got all the bugs out of our system in the opener," he said. "Our defensive line did well, but we had a weak spot at one of the defensive half-back posts. I was disappointed in the play of the offense line, with a few exceptions."

Some changes are in sight for the Chiefs starting roster.

Graybiel Monday began testing "every man on the squad" in an effort to discover defensive half-back material. And, surprisingly enough, the coach says, the best jobs were turned in by Bob Casteel, (quarterback) and diminutive 5-foot-2 Kennie Fuslier, a halfback. However, the job is still up for grabs.

Today the rough stuff, both offense and defense, will continue. Wednesday and Thursday will be devoted to polishing the details, with particular emphasis upon the passing attack.

Friday's game will get under way at 8 o'clock in Wisner Stadium and tickets are now on sale.

Cleveland Lost Pennant Because of Deal Failure

CLEVELAND (AP)—Inability to conclude a trade for first baseman Mickey Vernon of Washington cost Cleveland the American League pennant, Hank Greenberg said today.

The Indians' general manager estimated the Tribe probably would be several games in front instead of two behind the New York Yankees had the proposed deal gone through last June.

At the same time, Greenberg reaffirmed his complete faith in Manager Al Lopez despite the club's recent fold-up at a time when the pennant appeared within sight.

"I think Lopez did a much more outstanding job this season than when he led the club to a pennant and a record-breaking 111 victories in 1954," Greenberg said.

"You can appreciate what a great job Al did when you consider that six of our key men—last year's big six—so to speak, had off seasons."

Banks Sets Up New Record for 4-Run Homers

Chicago Player Blasts No. 5 for Season, Also His 44th Home Run

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Chicago's Ernie Banks was the new owner of the major league record for grand slam home runs in one season, but the 24-year-old shortstop wasn't celebrating and no one was congratulating him—the Cubs had lost the game.

They are Al Rosen, Larry J. J. Bobby Avila and our top three pitchers, Bob Lemon, Early Wynn and Mike Garcia. Then too, we had an unusual run of injuries, which of course, is part of the game. Vic Wertz, for instance, was out of the lineup due to injury or illness on four different occasions.

DETROIT (AP)—Pitcher Bud Black, who has had "walking" trouble all season, finally squared himself away last night and hurled the Detroit Tigers to a 4-0 victory over the Kansas City A's.

In most ways, the game was a dull anti-climax to Detroit's stunning three-game sweep of Cleveland but, yet, it had its interesting highlights, too. Namely Black's pitching and the appearance of J. W. Porter behind the bat.

This youthful battery combined to stop the pesky A's on six hits and send Detroit three games over the .500 mark—and only one off the precious break-even point of .77 victories. The Tigers were 76-73 going into today's game against Kansas City.

Black's "walking" trouble started last May. Tigers ordered him to their Buffalo farm club in the International League, but Black walked out on the team and drove to his home in St. Louis.

Black's only "walking" difficulty last night were four passes he dished out to Kansas City, but none hurt him.

Porter, the problem player who failed with the Tigers after a brilliant showing in the exhibition season, handled himself well behind the plate and contributed a single and a double to Detroit's nine-hit attack.

Harris said he would catch Porter in the next two games against the A's.

Catching seems to be Porter's spot," Harris said. "We sure could use his right-handed hitting to spell Frank House."

At any rate, Black's pitching and Porter's catching held most of the interest for the 14,255 fans who turned out for the final night game of the season.

Tigers scored single runs in the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th innings, with Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle, Fred Hatfield and Reno Bertoia driving them across.

Banks was just as gloomy as his teammates in the Chicago dressing room last night after Rip Repulski's two-out, two-strike homer in the 12th inning had given the St. Louis Cardinals the game, 6-5.

Ernie said the pitch he hit off bonus rookie Lyndall McDaniell in the seventh for a grand slam "was a good, letter-high fast ball."

The ball sailed well over 400 feet into the bleachers in left center field.

AMATEUR CHAMP — Harvie Ward, of San Francisco and North Carolina, 29-year-old veteran of international golf competition, won recent National Amateur golf championship on his 9th attempt at Richmond, Va. He defeated Bill Hyndman, a weekend golfer from Philadelphia, 9 and 8 in one of the worst slanders in tournament history.

DETROIT (AP)—Former Detroit Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk has been rejected by the army.

The five-time National Hockey league all-star net minder, now with the Boston Bruins, flunked a physical examination for the draft yesterday.

Army examiners would not disclose the reasons for Sawchuk's rejection.

It was believed, however, an old elbow injury and a serious weight deficiency were contributing causes.

Col. Arthur A. Holmes, state draft director, said Sawchuk's board will consider classifying the 26-year-old goaltender as 4-F at its next meeting.

A native of Winnipeg, Man., Sawchuk is a Canadian citizen. He was subject to United States military service because of extended residency in this country.

Ernie mustered a smile for the only photographer present for a shot of the bat he used to hit grand slammer No. 5 and his 44th round-tripper of the season.

There were no well-wishers around and no one shook his hand. Ernie dressed quickly and left.

The speedy Negro right-hander from Dallas, Tex., couldn't be blamed, though, if he secretly felt elated over the game. Only 10 other players in the game's history—one was Babe Ruth—had clubbed four grand slamers in a season.

Banks already held the major league mark for homers by a shortstop in a season. His 40th four-bagger broke the mark of 39 set by Vernon Stephens of the Boston Red Sox in 1949.

Last season, his first full year in the majors, Banks clubbed 19 homers and batted in 79 runs.

AMATEUR CHAMP — Harvie Ward, of San Francisco and North Carolina, 29-year-old veteran of international golf competition, won recent National Amateur golf championship on his 9th attempt at Richmond, Va. He defeated Bill Hyndman, a weekend golfer from Philadelphia, 9 and 8 in one of the worst slanders in tournament history.

DETROIT (AP)—Former Detroit Red Wing goalie Terry Sawchuk has been rejected by the army.

The five-time National Hockey league all-star net minder, now with the Boston Bruins, flunked a physical examination for the draft yesterday.

Army examiners would not disclose the reasons for Sawchuk's rejection.

It was believed, however, an old elbow injury and a serious weight deficiency were contributing causes.

Col. Arthur A. Holmes, state draft director, said Sawchuk's board will consider classifying the 26-year-old goaltender as 4-F at its next meeting.

A native of Winnipeg, Man., Sawchuk is a Canadian citizen. He was subject to United States military service because of extended residency in this country.

SET UP FOR TITLE BOUT — Here's a view of light heavyweight title-holder, Ring is set up behind the ring at Yankee Stadium where heavyweight second base in huge stadium. Bout was set for champion Rocky Marciano is scheduled Wednesday night, but was postponed to Wednesday because of to defend his title against challenger Archie Moore, the big storm.

Rookies Dominate 49er's Team for Coming Season

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Housecleaning was over at the San Francisco 49ers training camp today and Coach Norman (Red) Strader said he was ready to step into National Football League play Sunday with one of the largest rookie rosters in the professional circuit. The squad was set to early season size — 35 men — last night.

An even dozen first-year men, two of them former All-Americans, will collect their initial football paychecks after the opener at Kezar Stadium against the arch-rival Los Angeles Rams. The 12 survivors of a horde of 54 hopefuls who assembled last July on the St. Mary's College campus in nearby Moraga for Strader's gridiron kindergarten.

Strader, who replaced dismissed Lawrence (Buck) Shaw after the white-haired veteran failed to produce a championship team in nine years, wielded his cleanup mop with vigor. In addition to lopping off unpromising rookies, he trimmed several Shaw holdovers.

Gone are such 49er standbys as Bruno Banducci, the 1954 all-pro guard who wasn't even offered a contract; his running mate, Nick Feher, and halfbacks Jim Cason and Bobby White.

The huge rookie delegation, on which Strader is very high, boasts ex-All-Americans in halfback Dick Moege of Rice, a 1954 choice, and end Tom Stohlhandke of Texas, a 1952 pick just out of service. Stohlhandke was the lone first-year man in the ends corps until last night, when Ted Vaughn of Texas Christian was signed. Moege is one of four green half-backs.
