Auto Industry Harried by Wave of Walkouts

5,500 Workers Strike; AFL-CIO Offers Support in Major Pull-Out

DETROIT (AP) — The auto industry is being harried by a wave of strikes which have idled some 5,500 workers and curtailed production of the first 1959 models rolling off some assembly lines.

Walkouts have hit plants of all the Big Three auto makers this week.

Workers struck at five locations in Michigan, Ohio and Illinois in the worst outbreak of trouble since contracts between the manufacturers and the United Auto Workers expired last Memorial Day weekend.

However, in Mansfield, Ohio, a strike of United Automobile Workers at the Fisher Body stamping plant of General Motors ended today when first shift workers returned to their jobs.

Union management are to meet this afternoon to discuss the problem which brought on the walkout of union workers on the third shift Thursday morning.

The union protested what it said was a company policy of putting die setters to work on production jobs.

There are some 1,500 workers at the stamping plant, most of them UAW members.

The union members decided to return to their jobs and settle the matter by negotiation after a meeting of the union.

A Chrysler spokesman said a strike of 330 employes at its key stamping plant in Twinsburg, Ohio, may slow down production of all Chrysler's 1959 models.

The Twinsburg dispute was touched off when the company fired a UAW shop committeeman for ordering 200 workers to refuse overtime work.

General Motors was the target for a strike of 70 workers at its Buick engine plant in Flint, Mich., idling some 1,400 employes. The walkout was staged over the same issue—the scheduling of over-time while other workers are without jobs.

Ford's stamping plant at Chicago Heights, Ill., was hit by a walkout of 147 die setters Wednesday night and the operation was shut down when the work force of 1,050 failed to show up. The company said pending disciplinary action touched off the strike.

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP) — The AFL-CIO has decided to throw its financial and manpower resources behind Walter Reuther's United Auto Workers in event of a general motor industry strike.

The federation's ruling Executive Council yesterday created a seven-man committee of its members to "give practical support organizationally and financially to the UAW" if a major auto strike develops.

A statement adopted unanimously by the council said General Motors, Ford and Chrysler have refused to bargain in good faith on wage and other demands raised by Reuther's UAW in five months of bargaining.

"The UAW is continuing its efforts to arrive at an equitable settlement without a strike," the council statement said. "But time is running out, and so is the patience of the workers."

Named to the AFL-CIO's UAW Aid Committee were labor union heads George Harrison, James B. Carey, David Dubinsky, Dave McDonald, Albert Hayes, Joseph Beirne and Joseph Keenan. They represent rail, steel, clothing, electrical and other types of workers.

WINDS UP SESSION

The UAW help was voted as the AFL-CIO chiefs wound up a week-long session here at a summer camp in the Pocono Mountains.

Major action in the sessions was to isolate the ousted Teamsters Union further from the rest of organized labor and to move against alleged corrupt conditions in other unions, among them the Carpenters, Restaurant Workers and Butchers union.

Another council statement blasted President Eisenhower in the strongest terms yet used by the labor leaders against him.

Accusing him of "political chicanery of the most obvious character," they blamed the administration for the death in the House of a Senate-passed labor control bill they had backed.

The council decided to hold its next two quarterly meetings in Washington, in November and February, and to hold the next biennial federation convention in San Francisco Sept. 17, 1959.

Four Mentioned for Judgeship

Believe Williams May Fill Oakland Vacancy After Convention

Gov. Williams may name a successor to the late Circuit Judge George B. Hartrick when he returns to his office following the State Democratic Convention this weekend.

Judge Hartrick, on the Oakland bench for 22 years, died in San Francisco Aug. 12.

Paul Webber, the governor's press secretary, said four men have been mentioned to the governor's office as possible candidates. They are William John Beer, Pontiac attorney, Donald E. Adams, Waterford Township Justice of the Peace, James C. Allen, Detroit attorney and former appointee of Gov. Williams to the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission, and Gilbert Davis, Royal Oak attorney.

The new appointee will serve out the unexpired term of Judge Hartrick, which terminates Dec. 31, 1959.

This position, as well as Judge Frank L. Doty's and the county's fifth circuit judgeship, will be voted on in next April's judicial election. So will Judge H. Russel Holland's and Judge Clark J. Adams' positions as their present terms expire.

Allan Hertler, president of the South Oakland Bar Association, said that group by resolution recommended to the governor the appointment of Gilbert Davis.

Michigan Dems Convene Today at Grand Rapids

Session Is Shaping Up More Like Pep Rally Than Party Caucus

GRAND RAPIDS (UPI) Michigan Democrats gathered today in the wake of their most impressive primary showing for a two-day session that shapes up as more of a pep rally than the political convention it is billed to be.

The main job of the convention — to nominate four candidates to round out the Democratic state ticket in the Nov. 4 election—is expected to be a mere formality of giving rubber stamp approval to incumbents.

Secretary of State James M. Hare and Treasurer Sanford A. Brown both seek a third full two-year term.

Auditor General Frank S. Szymanski seeks a second full term and Attorney General Paul L. Adams, who was appointed in January by Gov. G. Mennen Williams, goes after his first full term.

Leaders of a group of anti-Williams Democrats who met here earlier this week indicated they would try to get representation on the state ticket. They face a cold shoulder from party regulars, who control most of the 1,545 delegates.

Flint Boy Says Mother, Sister Are 'Better Off in Heaven'

FLINT (UPI) — A 15-year-old boy who killed his mother and sister because they would be "better off in Heaven" today wished Michigan had capital punishment so he could die, too.

Roger St. Pierre shotgunned Mrs. Martha St. Pierre, 41, and Donna, 19, about noon yesterday in their four-room, one story frame home (at 968 Mann) on the West Side. He debated taking his own life but couldn't decide how to do it painlessly and was worried he might "go to Hell if I died." He phoned police to come and get him.

FAMILY BROKE

Roger told them the family was broke, the man who was going to marry the widowed Mrs. St. Pierre had disappeared, they were $1,500 in debt and he was afraid they would all starve. The father, Maurice, died of a heart attack last February.

"I thought mother and sister would be better off in Heaven," the religious youth said.

He told Homicide Det. Lt. John Burton today he was "sorry about

Police Find 2nd Witness Who Saw Arsonist Flee

By HAROLD COHEN

Pontiac detectives last night uncovered a second witness who saw the arsonist who fired the apartment of a woman friend of Leaun Harrelson, Teamster Local 614 president, Wednesday afternoon.

Detectives Robert Wachal and James Bale, assigned to work with the prosecutor's office on the case, found a man who was burning papers in the alley near the rear of the apartment building at 60 Douglas St. where the fire occurred.

Burned was the apartment of attractive divorcee, Mary Ann Thon, 28, who goes by the name of Mary Ann Wilson.

The new witness saw a man run from the back door of the apartment building and down the alley to the street where he got into a car and drove off.

The description given by the witness is said to tally closely with that given by a neighbor of Mrs. Thon who saw a man rush down the back stairs of the apartment building seconds before the fire was discovered.

Police are concealing the identity of the latest witness, but reliable sources say he was visiting at a house behind the apartment building.

He told police the man, described as of medium height and build and wearing brown shirt and pants walked very rapidly to the street, then walked slowly to the car.

The witness said he paid no particular attention to the man and about two minutes later saw a burst of flame in the second floor apartment of Mrs. Thon.

The first witness, William R. James, a factory worker who lives on the same floor as Mrs. Thon, was coming home Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. when he saw a man slip on the stairs leading down to the rear entrance. He thought at the time the man was drunk.

Seconds later he heard a scream and a cry of fire and rushed upstairs to help fight the blaze.

Prosecutor Frederick C. Ziem said today no links have been found so far between Wednesday's arson and the Flint arson of a dry cleaners that burned teamster official Frank Kierdorf fatally earlier this month.

However, he said the state police and the state fire marshal were still looking into the possibility of a link.

Meantime Pontiac detectives are questioning friends and acquaintances of Harrelson and Mrs. Thon.

The pair were quizzed yesterday by Ziem and requestioned by Bale and Wachal later in the day.

Police theorize that the fire might have been started by a jealous friend of Mrs. Thon's or by an enemy of Harrelson.

Teamster associates of Harrelson are being questioned, particularly those who belong to an opposing faction within the local.

Neither Harrelson nor Mrs. Thon were able to give officers any

List Conditions for 1-Year Ban to Start Oct. 31

Russia Must Continue N-Blast Suspension, Plan for Policing

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower announced today the United States is ready to suspend nuclear weapons tests for one year starting Oct. 31, provided the Soivet Union meets two conditions.

The conditions are: If the Soviet Union agrees to maintain its current ban on nuclear tests, and further agrees to negotiations looking toward a permanent ban.

Britain tonight offered conditionally to join America and the Soviet Union in a one-year ban on nuclear weapons tests.

The British proposed meeting with the Soviet Union and the United States — the world's only other two nuclear powers — in a conference in New York Oct. 31 to work out practical arrangements for a worldwide system of controlling the ban on tests.

Eisenhower stressed in a statement that the United States is not proposing that nuclear tests for peaceful purposes by halted.

He referred to technical talks on policing a ban, concluded at Geneva this week.

"The United States, taking account of the Geneva conclusions, is prepared to proceed promptly to negotiate an agreement with other nations which have tested nuclear weapons for the suspension of nuclear weapons tests and the actual establishment of an international controls system on the basis of the experts' report," he said.

"If this is accepted in principle by the other nations which have tested nuclear weapons, then in order to facilitate the detailed negotiations, the United States is prepared, unless testing is resumed by the Soviet Union, to withhold further testing on its part of atomic and hydrogen weapons for a period of one year from the beginning of the negotiations."

The announcement reflected a major shift in the U. S. nuclear policy.

He said that as part of the contemplated international agreement the United States would be prepared also to suspend nuclear

'Where Are Real Slums?' They Ask in Tour of Harlem

First View of New York Leaves Russians Amazed

By ANTHONY AUSTIN and JACK V. FOX

NEW YORK (UPI) — The big sightseeing bus with glass roof rolled into Times Square's soaring melange of neon signs and billboards, past one from which a man's picture puffs real smoke-rings.

"American advertising," said Pavel Kazachenko, a young Russian engineer. "It is really something."

It was the first exposure to New York for Kazachenko and 12 other men and one woman visiting the United States as the first regular tourists. Their reactions to the city were intriguing, their questions often startlingly naive.

When the bus pulled away from their hotel, the Russians were soon bogged down in the cluttered garment district. In front of one dress firm, a striker carried a picket sign.

"What is he doing?" asked architect Mark Orlov.

He was told the man had a disagreement with his employer and was asking the public not to patronize the shop.

"And nobody arrests him?" Orlov asked.

The bus turned up Fifth Avenue. It went past the Empire State Building. The Russians craned to look up at its 102 stories but no one made any comment. On past the glittering department stores and Mrs. Anna Butenko, a housewife and also an architect, said:

"Where are the trees?"

TOUR HARLEM

Her question was answered as the bus came alongside Central Park and drove its 50-block length. The course took the party finally into Harlem and there was a noticeable stir of anticipation at seeing America's "downtrodden race."

But the first sight was a huge development of low-cost apartments, 15 stories high, built for Negroes. They were brand new, sparkling clean with balconies and garden areas.

"But where are the real slums?" asked engineer Alexander Robojev.

A reporter pointed to a side street of dingy tenements where children played by garbage cans on Brownstone steps. The Russian did not appear to believe him. Apparently he expected something far worse.

"Why don't you like Paul Robeson?" a voice called out from the rear. The question hung awkwardly in silence, and politics were dropped. The bus passed the Juilliard School of Music.

"Where Van Cliburn studied," said the bus guide.

"Ah . . . Cliburn . . . Cliburn," the murmur swept the group Even the intourist man, Vladimir Babkin, delegated by his government to shepherd the group, forgot his duties at mention of the Texas pianist.

"Ah, that Cliburn," he said. "His playing was the high point of the Moscow season."

The bus turned down Third Avenue through the Bowery where a few alcoholic derelicts sprawled in doorways. One Russian nudged another and pointed, but they said nothing.

The high point of the trip was Wall Street. The Soviets came during the busy noon hour. Word spread of their identity and police held back a crowd at the door of the stock exchange.

"Why must there be police?" asked Orlov.

"Well, the people are curious," a reporter replied. "There are crowds because it isn't every day that Russians come to Wall Street."

On the visitors' gallery overlooking the trading floor, brokers and clerks paused to stare up at their spectators.

Robojev said the people on the busy floor seemed very nervous.

"How many of them have heart attacks when stocks fall?" he asked.

Another Russian wanted to know how many people go bankrupt every day.

"None, for a long time," said the girl guide from the exchange.

A reporter suggested to heavy-set engineer Leonid A. Nikolayev that he test the capitalistic system by buying a $10 share.

"No thank you," he said solemnly. "We Soviet citizens all have shares in something better."

Last night, the Russians were treated to a Broadway show, "Say Darling," by Robert Dowling, Wall Street financier and theatrical angel. After the play, the Russians were taken backstage where they met stars David Wayne, Vivian Blaine and Johnny Desmond.

New Baker Link Will Be Probed

Senate Quizzers Turn to Teamster Gibbons Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate investigators will delve next week into links between Teamster muscleman Robert (Barney) Baker and one of the powers of the giant trucking union — Vice President Harold Gibbons.

Baker, 300-pound Teamster organizer, yesterday completed almost two days of testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee, ranging from the comic to the dramatic.

A perspiring Baker left the witness stand after Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark) called him a perjurer and counsel Robert F. Kennedy labeled him an associate of "underworld filth and the scum of the United States."

But with the hearings in recess Kennedy indicated today the ponderous ex-convict's troubles with the committee are not over.

He told newsmen Baker would continue as a subject of testimony when hearings switch next Tuesday to Gibbons' activities in the St. Louis area.

The new phase of the inquiry into the giant Teamsters Union and its president, James R. Hoffa, will include a violence-punctuated St. Louis taxicab strike in 1953 and the part Baker allegedly played in it.

McClellan contended that Gibbons supplied Baker and other Teamster organizers with an arsenal of pistols and holsters during the strike. Baker swore, "That's not the truth as far as I'm concerned."

Baker has testified his rise in the union began after he met Gibbons in 1952 at a meeting in Washington of the Americans for Democratic Action, a self-styled liberal group.

Kennedy said next week's hearings also will probe Gibbons' controversial election last January as president of the St. Louis Joint Teamster Council, with Gibbons himself a possible witness at the end of the week.

Hoffa, a grim-faced, silent spectator in the hearing room this week, is not scheduled to return to the witness stand for at least another 10 days.

Baker yesterday loudly denied charges ranging from threats to murder to trafficking in stolen jewels. But he sheepishly admitted he might have bragged and told "little white lies" about being a close friend of New York Gov. Averell Harriman.

Although Baker swore "I don't sell no jewelry," the committee produced a surprise witness who told of seeing a fortune in gems in a Miami home where Baker lived with a blonde girl friend in 1955.

The witness, real estate man B. B. Bowers Jr. of Miami, said Mrs. Ruth Brougher, 44, once showed him nearly a quart of diamonds which he estimated were worth $75,000 to $100,000.

BIG ENTRANCE — Robert (Barney) Baker, 300-pound aide to Teamster Boss James Hoffa walks into the Senate Rackets Committee hearing room in Washington yesterday for start of the afternoon session. He told senators: "I'm a ham—I drop names" as he explained he might have told some "little white lies" about how well he knew Gov. Averell Harriman of New York.

Find Second Witness to Apartment Arson

clues as to who might have set the fire.

The blaze was definitely caused by an arsonist, Fire Marshal Charles E. Metz said yesterday.

The evidence showed that the man walked in through the unlocked front door of the apartment, sprinkled an inflammable fluid around the two-room dwelling and dropped a match on it, Metz said.

The Pontiac Fire Dept. was called at 4:30 p.m. and Capt. Edgar Davis, suspecting arson, called Assistant Fire Marshal Allen J. Tunny to the scene at once.

Tunny found a suitcase of clothing belonging to Harrelson, and discovered that the living room rug had been doused with an inflammable fluid. He sent samples to Detroit for analysis. A report is due Tuesday.

Harrelson, who was divorced six years ago, told Ziem that he had kept the suitcase with another tenant of the building, a teamster member, until a few days ago when he moved it to Mrs. Thorn's apartment.

He admitted Mrs. Thon, a waitress at the Town and Country Restaurant, Bloomfield Hills, a favorite teamster eating place, was a good friend.

He said he left his office at 5 p.m. Wednesday and went to the restaurant to pick her up for a trip to the harness races.

Harrelson told Ziem he drove her to the apartment to change clothes when she finished work at 6 p.m. He said he learned of the fire for the first time on arrival there.

In the apartment closet were 14 suits belonging to Harrelson one of which was slightly damaged by the blaze.

Mrs. Thon told the same story to Ziem. She said she had the apartment for about two years under the name of Wilson to avoid her ex-husband Eugene, who now lives in Jamestown, N.Y.

She told Ziem the door to the apartment (210) had been jimmied open Monday, but Harrelson had told her not to report it to the police to avoid publicity.

As a result, the door could not be locked and the arsonist had only to push it open, police said

Mrs. Thon's apartment was also burglarized two months ago but only a few personal effects of Harrelson's were taken. Police speculated the burglary might be part of a campaign to harass Harrelson.

Harrelson also admitted the apartment's doorbell had been rung late in the evening on several occasions but no one would be there when the bell was answered.

Harrelson, a former state representative from Pontiac, was one of many teamster leaders quizzed in the Frank Kierdorf torch death.

He was not linked with the affair, but police noted that he was at the Safety Building inquiring as to the whereabouts of his son, Leaun Harrelson Jr., the night Kierdorf stumbled into St. Joseph Mercy Hospital badly burned.

As to Wednesday's arson, Harrelson said, "If they were after me, why didn't they burn my house on Delaware."

He has many of his possessions stored at 26 Delaware where his former wife, Iris, lives.

Michigan Democrats Launch Convention

votes in the Aug. 5 primary, made a truce offer by indicating they would support the party ticket in November if given proper recognition by the convention.

The rebel bid for recognition and a hassle over whether the party should back a proposal to set up a constitutional convention appeared to be the only issues capable of generating much excitement at the convention.

Several GOP spokesmen already have urged approval of the November referendum proposal to prepare for revision of the constitution. Democrats supported it in the past but many now fear the stipulation that delegates will be selected from Senate districts would result in GOP control of the convention.

The very fact the convention shapes up as a generally ho-hum affair worries party leaders, who fear overconfidence may hurt the party in November.

Democrats may have reason to be confident. They scored their biggest primary landslide in history by capturing 63 per cent of the votes.

But Republicans, who hold their convention here next weekend, are waging one of their strongest campaigns in recent years.

The convention opened unofficially today with a day-long strategy session for 12 out-state congressional candidates. A blue-ribbon panel of party leaders was on hand to pass on ways of pepping up the campaign.

The keynote pep-talk was scheduled tonight by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler at the Pantlind Hotel, convention headquarters.

A special briefing was scheduled for the 143 Democratic candidates for the State Legislature. The finance and platform drafting committees also met today.

Congressional district caucuses were scheduled at 10 p.m. and credentials and resolutions committees were to meet at midnight.

The formal business of nominating candidates and adopting a 1958 platform will highlight tomorrow's convention.

Briefings for county chairman and field staff members were scheduled for Sunday morning.

Debates Foreign Aid Bill

Senate Works Furiously to Clear Up Calendar

WASHINGTON (AP) — The home-stretch rush for adjournment was on in Congress today.

The Senate worked to clear its calendar of several prime items, including the 3½-billion-dollar foreign aid money bill.

The House, having taken care of most major matters, considered a six-billion-dollar appropriations measure to finance a score of government agencies.

President Eisenhower vetoed an earlier bill for these agencies because it contained half a billion dollars for the civil service retirement fund. He said the payment was unnecessary.

The target date for adjournment remained tomorrow night. But first Congress must dispose of these major pieces of legislation, among others:

1. Foreign Aid — The House passed a bill calling for $3,078,000,000 in military and economic help to other nations this year. The Senate Appropriations Committee, taking up the measure after eruption of the Middle East crisis, boosted the amount to $3,518,092,500. But this still is 432 million dollars below the amount originally requested by the President.

2. Debt Ceiling—The administration, faced with mounting red ink spending, asked Congress to increase the federal debt limit — now temporarily 280 billion dollars — to 288 billions through June 30, 1960.

The House agreed to the request, but the Senate Finance Committee voted to allow the 288 billion ceiling only through next June 30. The House and the Senate committee also differed on how much the permanent ceiling — now 276 billions — should be boosted. The House voted for 285 billions, the Senate committee for 283 billions.

3. Education — House and Senate conferees agreed yesterday on a four-year program to provide 900 million dollars in federal aid to educate the nation's young people, with emphasis on science and mathematics.

The compromise measure does not contain a college scholarship provision, which the Senate had voted but which the House had turned down. It does provide 295 million dollars for student loans. The original Senate program would have cost $1,300,000,000 and the House version 910 million dollars.

Two bills which touched off major fights got the ax yesterday.

The Senate, after some parliamentary maneuvering, killed a measure aimed at preventing the Supreme Court from knocking down state laws not in direct conflict with federal laws on the same subject.

The measure, opposed by the administration, was returned to the Senate Judiciary Committee by a 41-40 vote. The effect was to kill it for this session.

The House, after three days of debate, ended a hassle over legislation to subsidize the domestic minerals industry by killing the bill 182-159.

Dag Slates Trip to Middle East

He's Expected to Leave Within Next 2 Weeks on Peace Mission

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Dag Hammarskjold prepared today to embark on an Arab-sponsored peace mission to the Middle East which won unanimous approval from the U.N. General Assembly.

The secretary general reportedly will be in the trouble area in less than two weeks. It will be his ninth peace-making trip to the area in 29 months.

The 81-nation Assembly wound up its two-week emergency session last night by voting 80-0 for the Arab resolution.

It assigns Hammarskjold the job of making arrangements to facilitate early withdrawal of U. S. troops from Lebanon and British forces from Jordan. The Dominican Republic was absent.

The plan promises to safeguard the political and territorial integrity of Jordan and Lebanon by reaffirming the Arab nations' pledges to refrain from interfering in each others' domestic affairs.

Hammarskjold also was asked to make plans for economic development of the Middle East in consultation with the Arab states.

Secretary of State Dulles commended the Arabs for agreeing on a peace plan. But he warned against expecting that mere passage of a resolution would solve all the Middle East's problems.

"These problems have deep roots," Dulles declared. "They have explosive aspects which can surprise us at any time."

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, who withdrew his own resolution in favor of the Arab plan, also had reservations. He voiced disappointment that the Arab proposal did not call for immediate withdrawal of British and U.S. troops, as did the Soviet resolution.

Kierdorf Faces Justice Again

Makes New Attempt This Afternoon to Get $25,000 Bond Cut

Herman Kierdorf, Teamster uncle of torch victim Frank Kierdorf, was to make a second bid this afternoon to have his bond reduced so he can get out of jail.

Kierdorf's attorney, William Dohany, said he would ask Madison Heights Justice of the Peace Hendrick J. Smit to trim down the $25,000 bond he set for Herman Wednesday.

The 67-year-old former business agent of Detroit Teamster Joint Council 43 was to be examined before Smit this afternoon on a charge of possessing a silencer for a pistol.

Yesterday, Circuit Judge H. Russel Holland turned down Herman's bid to escape jail through a writ of habeus corpus. Judge Holland ruled that Herman should have first filed a Circuit Court petition to have his bond reduced.

Dohany argues that Herman's present bond is "ten times the maximum fine—$2,500—on a silencer charge." Judge Smit observed in fixing bond at $25,000 that he was taking Herman's past record into account.

This includes a prison term for armed robbery and Herman's 13-day disappearance from Aug. 4, the day after Frank mysteriously appeared in Pontiac with 85 per cent of his body covered by burns, until Sunday, when he voluntarily surrendered here.

Since then, Herman has denied any knowledge of the Flint dry cleaning establishment arson in which Frank was believed to be burned and has refused any information concerning his whereabouts during the 13 days.

Kierdorf and two others questioned in the Flint fire were to be called before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington Monday, but today a committee investigator, Sherman Willse, said their appearance has been delayed until a later date. The other two are Frank Thomson, a Flint Teamster official, and Myron D. Weiss, a Detroiter.

LANSING (UPI) — A vacation bonus deal between American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union came under further review by a house investigating committee today.

The committee was expected to hear a full report on the plan by the Michigan Employment Security Commission, which has announced it is holding up unemployment checks to about 1,000 employes covered by the agreement at the Grand Rapids Nash-Kelvinator plant.

The plan involves giving laid-off workers a bonus in lieu of vacation. The bonus makes up the difference between the jobless pay benefits drawn from the state and the amount the worker would have received if given vacation pay under a previous contract.

When the plan came to light the MESC announced it was stopping payment of unemployment benefits to the Grand Rapids workers pending a ruling from Attorney General Paul L. Adams.

AMC, which said the plan was entirely legal and ethical, said the workers are not in danger of losing their unemployment pay because of the dispute.

Edward L. Cushman, AMC vice president in charge of industrial relations, said the contract requires American Motors to make up any pay the workers may lose because of a ruling by Adams or action by the MESC.

Cushman said the vacation pay arrangement is similar to UAW contracts with other Michigan firms. The UAW also said it saw nothing wrong with the plan.

However, Harold Sawyer, Grand Rapids attorney working with the committee investigating the jobless pay program, called the plan "illegal."

Hurled Into Cemetery —Driver Said Critical

DUNDEE (UPI)—Robert Snively, 25, of Kalamazoo, was critically injured last night when his automobile missed a curve, and rammed a brick pillar at the entrance to the Maple Grove Cemetery here.

Snively was hurled from the car 20 feet inside the cemetery gates. The impact tore off the left side of the car and it continued another 30. There were skidmarks extending 195 feet from the marker indicating Snively had tried to slow down. He was taken to Monroe Hospital where physicians said he was not expected to live.

A bridge inspector for the State Highway department, Snively had been working on a bridge relocation project on U.S. 23 in Dundee.

Burns 'Punish' Tot

JACKSON (UPI)—Charles E. Webb, 23, was bound over to the Circuit court yesterday on charges of cruel punishment of his two-year-old son. The child's mother testified that Webb held the boy's hands under scalding water as punishment for getting them soiled at play. He was treated at mercy hospital for deep burns on both hands.

The Day in Birmingham

Bloomfield School Area Surveyed by Committee

BIRMINGHAM — A Bloomfield School District committee headed by William Donnelly is working on a five-year survey of income, expenses and general development in the area. The committee already foresees a 50 per cent school enrollment increase within four years.

Along with Carl Barton, A. C. Girard, Graham John Graham, Raymond T. Perring and Lynn Townsend, the committee was formed several weeks ago to study district problems and try to find solutions.

Rather than confine themselves to current needs, the group decided on the five-year plan.

The committee's formation came about when Bloomfield Hills, like other area districts, found itself in financial difficulties.

Donnelly has already suggested that a millage increase might be one answer. It would provide a financial backlog to be drawn from when needed.

The committee hopes to have a full report ready for the special board of education meeting Sept. 8.

Because of its work in safety promotion, the Birmingham post office has received the National Safety Council Award, according to Roland Reese, postmaster.

In addition, 25 of its employes who drive the government and contract vehicles, will receive individual awards for safe driving records.

Otto Leipold, carrier foreman, will receive a certificate recognizing his 30 hours of safety training.

The annual meeting of the Community House Board of Directors has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Sept. 8.

Reports of the various committees on house activities will be given.

Two blood banks are scheduled for Birmingham, the first on Tuesday. Sponsored by the Village Women's Club, it will be at the Community House from 3 to 9 p.m.

The second bank will be at Our Shepherd Lutheran Church on East 14 Mile road during the afternoon and evening of Sept. 8.

Both are planned to restock the Oakland County Red Cross Blood Bank which has dropped dangerously during the summer months.

Edwardsburg Bank Robbed of $5,029

EDWARDSBURG (AP) — A neatly dressed gunman who robbed the Commercial Savings Bank of Edwardsburg of $5,029 was sought today throughout the Midwest.

The bandit locked several employes in a vault and then rifled tellers' cages before fleeing in his car. During the incident, the robber's gun was discharged but no one was hurt.

Bank Vice President Joseph Heeremans said the gunman appeared bleary-eyed, as if he had been drinking, and was very nervous.

Linette Crane of Granger, Ind., 12, released the bank employes by following instructions she was given over an intercom system.

State Police threw up road blocks, but officers said the bandit may have escaped into Indiana, only a mile away.

actually shooting his mother but at the same time I'm glad they're out of their misery. I'm just sorry there's no capital punishment in Michigan."

YOUTH COHERENT

Burton said the youth was "coherent but not logical" and would be turned over to juvenile authorities in Probate Court today for sanity tests.

Police said Roger took an old 12-gauge shotgun his father had given him and shot his mother as she sat on a couch in the living room. He fired another blast into her body. And then he shot his sister. He shot his mother again when he thought he heard her moan and then he shot his sister's body "some more." Roger lost count but police said they found eight expended shells in the house.

Neighbors said they heard the sister scream, "Don't Roger," just before the third blast was fired. Donna's body was found lying across a doorway in a hall leading to the bathroom.

Sgt. William Ludwig was the first to arrive at the home and said he met Roger coming out the front door as he started in. The boy — "very wild eyed" — turned away but submitted quietly to arrest when Ludwig fired a warning shot into the ground.

Burton said Roger told him he got up about 10:30 yesterday morning and the whole family was worried about money and the sudden departure Monday of his mother's fiance, who had been living in the St. Pierre home.

"We'd be better off dead, wouldn't we," Roger said he asked his mother.

"You're so right," he said she replied.

His sister returned home just before noon from a fruitless search for a job. The mother had been unemployed for some time and Donna had a job for only a few weeks after graduating from high school in June.

Roger said Donna's failure convinced him and he got the shotgun from his room.

The first charge hit the mother in the chest from a distance of 12 feet. Donna came from her room where she was changing clothes and grabbed for the telephone.

Roger struggled with her and then stunned her with a blow from the shotgun barrel. He got more shells and started shooting again.

Burton said Roger told him he had suffered from "dizzy spells" for some time.

Northern U.S. Enjoys Pleasant, Dry Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Generally warm and humid weather clung to Southern and Eastern parts of the country today but it was pleasant and dry across most Northern areas from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast.

The muggy belt extended from Texas and Oklahoma eastward to the Atlantic Coast from Virginia to Florida. Hot weather continued in the Far Southwest while warmer weather moved into some sections of the Pacific Northwest.

In the warm and humid area in the South and East, temperatures were mostly in the 70s compared with the 60s and 50s in the North. Readings dropped into the 40s in some sections of the northern Great Lakes.

NAACP to Appeal Today

Integration Stay Battled

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People will ask the U.S. Supreme Court today to knock down the legal barrier that would prevent Negro students from entering Central High School Sept. 2.

Gov. Orval Faubus kept his special legislative session plans in readiness in case the NAACP is successful in overturning the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals action that would block integration at the school until the Supreme Court has made the final decision.

Little Rock's school board is going ahead on the assumption the Central will be an all-white high school when classes resume a week from next Tuesday. Registration begins today and if Negroes apply they will be told to attend Horace Mann Negro High School here.

Thurgood Marshall, attorney for the NAACP, said he would ask the Supreme Court to set aside the stay granted by the appeals court yesterday. If this action should be successful the way would be clear for Negroes to re-enter the school on opening day.

Faubus refused to back down immediately on his standby call for legislators to be ready for a session Monday when he heard that the 8th Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis had stayed its own decision that integration must proceed.

The governor said he wanted to be assured that the school board would take the opportunity afforded it to avoid integration and that the stay which would hold Negro students out of school until the Supreme Court acted would remain in effect.

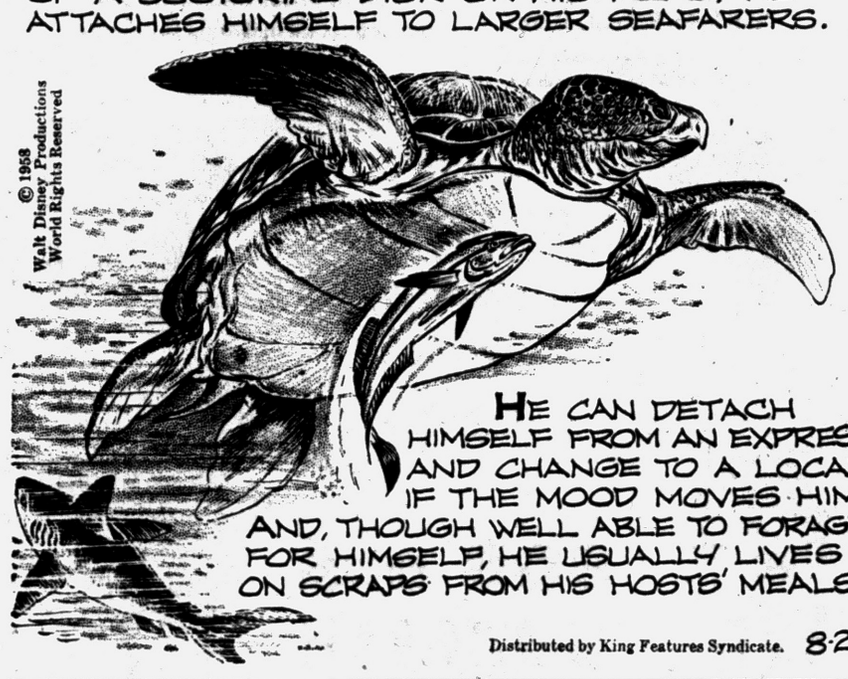

The Circuit Court ruled Monday that Little Rock could not have the 2½-year delay in integration given it by U.S. Dist. Judge Harry Lemley of Hope, Ark. But yesterday it said in effect that the Lemley decision granting the delay could remain in force until the Supreme court decided the matter, provided the Little Rock school board filed its appeal to the high court within 30 days.

All Enforcers of Law Ready for Labor Day

EAST LANSING (AP)—State Police, National Guardsmen, sheriff's deputies and local police will join again in a campaign to hold down the highway death toll on the Labor Day weekend.

This year they'll have their work cut out for them if they hope to set a record low for the holiday. Last year, traffic claimed 13 lives in the three days, the lowest toll ever.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs said more than 1,000 of his men will be assigned to traffic patrol on the weekend. Some 255 National Guardsmen will assist State Police and county sheriffs.

Madagascar May Free Self

De Gaulle Has Assured Colonies They'll Map Their Own Destinies

TANANARIVE, Madagascar (AP)—Premier de Gaulle today bluntly and publicly told Madagascar and all other French colonies that they can leave the French Union as independent nations before the end of 1958 if their peoples so desire.

De Gaulle, starting a swing through France's African territories, told Madagascans that the test of their desire will be their vote in the Sept. 28 referendum on his proposed new French constitution.

The referendum, he told a special joint session of the island's representative Assembly, will offer all peoples in the French Union a chance to decide their own future. It does not exclude any solution, "not even the most extreme which would be secession."

A majority vote against the constitution, he continued, "will mean that Madagascar no longer wishes to be associated with France . . . and the French government will draw the appropriate conclusions."

The implication was that secession would mean an end to French financial support, essential to the economy of the big island off the southeast coast of Africa.

De Gaulle did not specifically include or exclude rebellious Algeria in his promise of independence if wanted. Algeria is technically a colony but a part of metropolitan France.

If Ike Signs Social Security Bill Into Law

Inflation's Worst Victims to Get Relief

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 12 million of inflation's worst victims are in line today for a little relief.

If President Eisenhower signs the Social Security bill into law, Uncle Sam will hand out about a billion dollars more next year to 12 million beneficiaries.

He will collect a little more than a billion dollars additional through higher taxes. Half of the increase will be paid by the 75 million whose pay checks are docked for Social Security taxes, and the other half by their employers.

The increased benefits are designed to make up for some of the ravages of past inflation on the fixed incomes of the retired.

If new inflation pops up, as many in Washington fear, the battle will start all over again.

The big rise in the cost of living since the war has cramped, often cruelly, persons beyond their earning years.

The worker has at least a fighting chance to increase his income in the hope of meeting the additional costs. The retired person has little chance to do anything but tighten his belt.

The new benefits and the new taxes will still leave the Social Security system running in the red, as it started to do for the first time in the past year.

This year it is paying out nearly 8½ billion dollars in benefits and it is taking in 7½ billion dollars in taxes on the employed and their employers. Next year under the new bill payments would rise to 9½ billion and collections to a bit more than 8 billion.

The system has a large reserve fund on which to draw. But taxes will have to go up steadily from year to year if the higher payments are to be made and the reserve saved from too much drainage. Sponsors of the new bill say it should bring the Social Security fund into balance within a few more years as the tax rates rise.

Many elderly persons have other forms of income.

There has been a rapid growth in corporate pension funds in recent years. Union pension funds are also a growing part of the economic scene.

Tuna-Filled Hot Dog Ends Friday Blues of Catholics

CHULA VISTA, Calif. (AP) — The lament of the hot dog vendor could be heard above the roar of the football crowd.

Ten thousand hot dogs he had, and it was Santa Clara playing Loyola of Los Angles on Friday night. Both are Catholic colleges.

Not a customer was in sight.

William Lane, a Loyola student with the good sense to recognize the knock of opportunity, was impressed by the plight of the vendor.

That was a Friday night in 1941.

Last year, Lane placed on sale a hot dog that anyone can eat on Friday or any other night.

It's a hot dog made of tuna fish. Lane calls them Tunies.

The job wasn't easy. Lane recruited a German sausage making friend, Curt Schirmer, to help him. Before they had a product that satisfied them, they had used up 15,000 pounds of fish and four years worth of weekends.

FISHY TASTE

First, the tuna had to be purged of the fishy taste and smell.

Next they had to season the fish so it would taste like a frankfurter. There are 1,700 different seasoning combination used in hot dogs.

Then they had to prepare the ground up tuna so it wouldn't fall apart when cooked, stay away from any animal fat whatever in the mixture, and make their franks skinless.

After sampling nearly 150,000 tuna dogs, the two weekend cooks found all the answers.

Lane's boss, San Diego financer C. A. Smith, offered to finance the new venture. Smith owns banks and tuna fleets.

Smith, Lane and Schirmer formed the Tunie company, bought a sausage factory and began production. They have now reached a whopping 24,000 pounds daily.

"Everyone told me that my idea was ridiculous," Lane said. "My boss kept telling me that only a man who didn't know it could not be done would keep on trying.

"But I knew there had to be an answer to the Friday hot dog problem — too many Catholic schools have games on Friday night and what is a football or basketball game without hot dogs?

7 LB. PER PERSON

"The average person in the United States ate seven pounds of hot dogs last year."

Lane and company are branching out. They plan to open a factory in Boston. And they are making two other foods — Martunies, a cocktail size hot dog, and Sea-Lomi, obviously a take-off on salami.

One of their most enthusiastic backers is Bishop Charles F. Buddy of San Diego. The Catholic bishop sees to it that Tunies are served every Friday in his school cafeteria.

He delights in taking visiting church officials to the cafeteria on Friday, rubbing his hands in delight when Tunies are served and saying, "Ah, hot dogs, my favorite food."

The visiting padres, of course, wonder whether the Bishop has simply forgotten the day's restriction or has flipped his baretta.

Then he tells the story of Tunies.

'Skiffle' Music May Lose Out to New 'Spasm'

GLASGOW — The music world will always call 1957 "The Year of Skiffle," a music critic in Glasgow, Scotland, writes.

Starting with one lone record by Lonnie Donegan, skiffle swept the country. Guitars were going like hot cakes, millions of records were selling, and you could hardly buy a washboard for love or money. Music stores still report fantastic unfilled demands for one string double basses and guitars, so maybe the fad will last awhile.

Groups are writing to record-makers for auditions. But there are signs that the spasm will succeed skiffle, the writer says. The record starts slowly and works itself up into a bit of a frenzy — using perhaps a guitar, trumpet, stone jug and violin.

Pakistan Protesting India's Literature

DACCA, W. Pakistan — All literature entering West Pakistan from India should be screened, Choudjury Mohammed Ali, former Pakistani Prime Minister, told a press conference in Dacca.

The motive for such censorship, he said, is the need to protect East Pakistani culture and educational system from "adverse Indian influences."

He identified these influences as the threat of Communism and Indian hero worship. "There is a danger to East Pakistani's culture not only from subversive Communist literature but also from Bharati literature which presents Bharati heroes and culture as superior," he said.

He adds that West Bengal, India, is going Communist, and told one correspondent that many East Pakistanis are inclined to look up to Indian Prime Minister Nehru.

New Tax Rule Boosts U.S. Storage Problem

CHICAGO — A Chicago business-forms manufacturer estimates that if all the nation's 8,000,000 people on expense accounts attach two sheets of itemized expenses to back up their claims on Line 5 of the new federal income-tax Form 1040, the Government will receive 16,000,000 additional pieces of paper.

Figured at 200 sheets to the inch, that's a stack 6,600 feet high for the tax agency to handle and mean it will have to provide another 3,000 or so file drawers for storage.

Platypus Is Nature's Sport

WASHINGTON — The duck-billed platypus ignores the old rule that the female of the species is more deadly than the male.

It is the male platypus that has the poison. Both ankles on his hind legs are fitted with hollow spurs connected with venom glands, and a wound can cause painful swelling. The female, having no similar defense weapon, is harmless.

Breaking the rules of nature is an old story for the platypus, a creature that looks like a collection of odd parts taken from other animals. It has a broad, horny muzzle, much like a duck's, and webbed feet. But instead of feathers, it wears a coat of short, velvety fur, dark brown above and lighter below. The platypus lays eggs like a bird, but when the young hatch, it nurses them like a mammal.

The first live platypus seen outside Australia was exhibited at the New York Zoological Park in the summer of 1922. It lived 49 days. No others appeared until the summer of 1947, when three were brought to New York to take up residence in a specially constructed "platypusary." One died of pneumonia the following year, but the two others — Cecil and Penelope — did well.

New York newspapers grew ecstatic in 1953 as Penelope gave every sign of preparing for the patter of little webbed feet. But, alas, the union was not blessed with issue, despite an on-again-off-again romance.

In its native habitat, the platypus lives a retiring life along slow-moving streams. It sleeps most of the day, but ventures out at dusk to hunt crayfish, shrimps, insect larvae, tadpoles, and earthworms. It can sometimes eat almost its own weight in a single night.

A platypus burrow may run 30 feet in length, with one entrance above water and one below. The female lays her eggs in a nest of weeds, leaves, and grass. When the babies hatch she holds them in her abdomen with her tail so they can obtain milk secreted in mammary glands.

Helpless on land, the platypus excels in water. A platypus once found itself in a race with some of Australia's leading siwmmers. It quickly got a comfortable lead and passed the finish line with yards to spare.

Deaths Elsewhere

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Walter Schumann, 44, Beverly Hills, Calif., composer-conductor, died yesterday after an operation for a heart defect. Schumann became best known when he organized his musical chorus, the Voices of Walter Schumann singers, in 1954.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Kurt Neumann, 50, movie director whose latest picture was "The Fly," died yesterday. His doctor tentatively attributed death to an internal ailment. Neumann also produced and directed many of the "Tarzan" films.

BELGRADE (AP) — Steven Hristic, 73, noted Yugoslav composer, died yesterday.

Nuclear Tests to Stop for Further Studies

Apparently the United States will agree to a "temporary suspension" of nuclear tests. The details of course lie in the future, but the indications point to a careful study.

This comes on top of Great Britain's announcement that she will continue and leaves the two nations pursuing opposite courses. We question whether our British cousins will continue if we definitely abandon the practice.

Several British newspapers have already commented adversely on the Empire's resumption of nuclear tests in the Pacific.

The conservative Daily Telegraph says the British Government surely "must be aware that all sections of public opinion are profoundly disturbed by H-bomb tests. Too little is known about radiation for anybody to dismiss the possible dangers."

The Daily Herald (a labor publication) has been advocating that Britain should stop nuclear tests as "world hopes are dealt a cruel blow by the decision to continue."

At the present moment, the aftermath of a test is uncertain. Until this is cleared up, probably the matter should be abandoned. Ultimately, research and investigation should probe the possibilities for peace time usage. Right now when the war fuse is sputtering, the battle ground potential dictates a cessation.

Reuther Can Run Whole Show for Democrats

According to unofficial statistics, WALTER REUTHER will really have the coming Democratic convention signed, sealed and delivered into his care and keep.

Out of 1140 delegates, 900 represent labor. That's really "control" with a capital "C." Union leaders can dictate and dictate and dictate while WILLIAMS delivers the mail as per schedule. Whatever the brethren decide, the puny 240 remaining delegates will have to swallow in one gulp—and like it.

Many labor leaders have shown a dismaying incapacity "to lead." The Congressional investigations are uncovering amazing incompetence and total disregard for right and wrong. Is the Democratic Party in Michigan surrendering itself, body, soul and britches? If that's the way the Democrats want it, that's their business. They're entitled to make their own bed and lie in it without advice or help from outside.

But is this really what the rank and file Democrats want?

Is it?

Arkansas Uncooperative in Desegregation Issue

That well established southern pain-in-the-neck, FAUBUS, still seems to be with us. Either he's a hero in ole Arkansas or the people are mesmerized.

The current decision of the United States Court of Appeals doesn't confound anyone outside in Arkansas.

That says: DESEGREGATE.

And do it now.

This leaves the Governor waving his arms and heading for the wailing wall. What must he do? What CAN he do? His people have charged him with the responsibility of keeping Negro children out of schools attended by whites. They declared themselves unmistakably when they voted him into office by a veritable landslide.

Segregation was the main issue.

FAUBUS knows that.

The whole procedure is a rear guard action that does plenty of harm to the nation as a whole. Our enemies capitalize on this insular position and make a great issue out of it—something far beyond what it is.

Can't Arkansas go along pleasantly at this late date and conform to the norms and mores of 1958? The ultimate outcome is inevitable. Arkansas can't defy the union forever.

County Has Most Public Fishing Sites in Michigan

IQ: What a man looks for in a woman after he's looked at everything else.

In order to silence some complaints that public fishing sites are not as numerous in the Pontiac area and in Michigan in general as in some other parts of our nation, I wrote the about it. Their reply states that Michigan leads the nation in this respect, having over 700. New York is in second place among the states. Oakland County has more such sites than any other among Michigan's 83 counties.

Most beloved man in that corner of our county, the

Rev. F. A. Burnett

My sunflower derby has a new leader, as of Auburn Heights has one that has passed the 13-foot mark.

First 1958 person to report growing a cucumber in a bottle is of Keego Harbor, who says it has the name of a beer outlined on its skin. She asserts that she borrowed the bottle from a neighbor.

A letter from North Branch comes from which says he has yellow bantam sweet corn eight feet tall, with up to five ears on a stalk. He also states that he has taken The Pontiac Press for 35 years and wouldn't know how to live without it.

Edd M. Smith,

From Los Angeles comes a communication from

Franklin Ballman,

formerly of Pontiac, which says, "We had just become accustomed to live with the smog when we find that they like it so well that the city is being invaded by skunks."

The principal worry of 93-year-old

Herbert Green

of Flint, formerly of Holly, who recently underwent an operation for the removal of a leg, is that it will interfere with his square dancing.

"Have a Nice Trip, Fellows"

David Lawrence Says:

State Judges Rebuke High Court

WASHINGTON — The chief justices of the highest court in each of ten states—seven of them in the north—have just issued the most penetrating criticism of the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States that has emanated from any source in recent years.

Coming as it does at the very time when the Senate and the House here have been debating whether to pass laws to restrict the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and in some instances to reverse some of the points the court has erroneously interpreted the intent of Congress, the wording of the document is of more than passing interest.

LAWRENCE

The report of the Committee on State-Federal Relationships was made public at Pasadena, California, where the annual meetings of the Conference of Chief Justices and of the American Bar Association are being held. The chief justices of Massachusetts, New York State, Michigan, Wisconsin, Oregon, Minnesota and Maryland can hardly be charged with a "southern bias."

ABUSES EYED

Indeed, the report of the chief justices did not mention the "segregation" issue at all but dealt solely with the abuse of the rights of the states by the Supreme Court of the United States. The document says in part:

"We are now concerned specifically with the effect of judicial decisions upon the relations between the Federal government and the state governments. Here we think that the over-all tendency of decisions of the Supreme Court over the last 25 years or more has been to press the extension of Federal power and to press it rapidly.

"There have been, of course, and still are very considerable differences within the Court on these matters, and there has been quite recently a growing recognition of the fact that our government is still a Federal government and that the historic line which experience seems to justify between matters primarily of national concern and matters primarily of local concern should not be hastily or lightly obliterated. A number of justices have repeatedly demonstrated their awareness of problems of federalism and their recognition that federalism is still a living part of our system of government. . . .

"We believe that, in the fields with which we are concerned and as to which we feel entitled to speak, the Supreme Court too often has tended to adopt the role of policy maker without proper judicial restraint. We feel this is particularly the case in both of the great fields we have discussed—namely, the extent and extension of the Federal power, and the supervision of state action by the Supreme Court by virtue of the Fourteenth Amendment.

"It has long been an American boast that we have a government of laws and not of men. We believe that any study of recent decisions of the Supreme Court will raise at least considerable doubt as to the validity of that boast.

"We are not alone in our view that the Court, in many cases arising under the Fourteenth Amendment, has assumed what seem to us primarily legislative powers. See Judge Learned Hand on the Bill of Rights. We do not believe that either the framers of the original Constitution or the possibly somewhat less gifted draftsmen of the Fourteenth Amendment ever contemplated that the Supreme Court would, or should, have the almost unlimited policy-making powers which it now exercises.

POWER IMMENSE

"It is strange, indeed, to reflect that, under the Constitution which provides for a system of checks and balances and of distribution of power between national and state governments, one branch of one government—the Supreme Court—should attain the immense and, in many respects, dominate power which it now wields. . . .

"We find next that divisions in result on a 5-to-4 basis are quite frequent. We find further that, on some occasions, a majority of the court cannot be mustered in support of any one opinion and that the result of a given case may come from the divergent views of individual justices who happen to unite on one outcome or the other of the case before the court."

(Copyright, 1958)

Dr. William Brady Says:

Childbirth No Hardship 'til She Went to Hospital

"Our first two children were born at home," writes a lady from the Deep South. "I didn't have a bit of trouble and the babies got along wonderfully well.

"By the time the third baby arrived the doctors here had all made some sort of deal with a hospital and refused to attend confinement at home, saying that in case of hemorrhage or other emergency they could take better care of you in the hospital.

"My husband with me at the time our baby would be born? Out of the question. Neither a husband nor anyone else than doctor or nurse is allowed in the 'sterile' delivery room.

"My two hospital babies came home with thrush (sore mouth) and sniffles and coughs, which we certainly did not have with our home delivery babies.

"Hospital delivery cost for each baby over $200. Home delivery cost about $70. In the hospital I had to wait on the nurses' pleasure or convenience for everything. At home I did pretty much as I darned pleased.

"Please keep hammering away (your own expression, and it is just so) at it, Dr. Brady. I'm sure your teachings are far more effective than you seem to realize."

That sales talk about treatment of hemorrhage or other emergency is far-fetched. It is conceivable that some rare emergency might better be treated in hospital than at home, but that remote risk is far outweighed by the real danger of infection of mother and/or baby in the hospital. Especially in the plate glass show window where the 19th century hospital huddles newborn infants together, any infection one infant has is easily transferred to other infants.

The pretext that presence of the husband might contaminate the "sterile" environment of the delivery room is sheer hooey, in view of the familiar disregard of asepsis by doctors, nurses, and other attendants or visitors who come and go as they please.

I do know that the chance of infection (puerperal septicemia, childbed fever, blood poisoning) is multiplied by the number of persons who examined the woman digitally in the course of labor.

Voice of the People

'If Boat Is Operated Right, Why Object to Patrolman?'

How many times in the past have many fishermen whose lines had been cut by motorboat operators often wondered why we couldn't have water patrolmen? The majority have wanted this and now that we have them, a few people object to them.

It seems to me if one is operating his boat right in the first place, he really wouldn't mind the fact there's a deputy on the lake. I live on Lotus Lake and we get quite a few boats from Maceday, thinking there isn't a deputy here, but when they spot him, they usually scoot right back to Maceday.

Let's stand behind the water patrolmen instead of against them.

'Tracks Can Delay Our Fire Trucks'

Considering the fast-growing population, business places, schools, churches and places of recreation, I feel it's quite hazardous to be wihout a fire station in the north end of the city. The nearest fire station to this section is on Glenwood and a fire truck and/or pulmotor would have to cross either one or two switch tracks, depending on how far north the emergency call came from. We all know out our way how long these switch trains do hold up traffic. I sincerely hope the city will seriously consider this matter.

U.N. OK of Arab Plan Lets Both Sides Off

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—They all got their necks out of the wringer — the West, the Soviet Union and the Arabs — when the United Nations last night approved 80-0 the Arabs' plan for peace in the Middle East.

They voted themselves a graceful way out of an embarrassing situation. The only question left is: Will the plan work? Or does it just provide a calm before a new storm breaks in the Middle East?

The plan, which the United States also approved, did not contain specifically a single one of the six proposals President Eisenhower made to the U.N. earlier this month to bring peace to the Middle East.

But at least he can feel some of his suggestions are in the plan, if only in a general way. In the end, although the plan is an easy way out for everyone, it may result in loss of the West's last, lingering grip on the area.

The Arabs — humiliated and angered by the presence of American troops in Lebanon and British forces in Jordan — can now claim credit for getting them out by the ingenuity of their plan. The Soviet Union wanted the troops out. And now they seem sure to go.

And it gets the United States and Britain off a hot spot. Even though invited in by Lebanon's President Chamoun and Jordan's King Hussein — they've shown signs of wanting out ever since they saw the world's bad reaction to what they did.

But there's no evidence anything in the Middle East has been solved or settled except for paving the way for American-British withdrawal. The Arab plan, or resolution, left it up to Secretary General Hammarskjold to arrange the withdrawal.

Case Records of a Psychologist:

Girls Must Prepare for Marriage

Your editor includes this educational column among the other helpful features in this newspaper to furnish you "horse sense" in human relations. Emotion puts the "butterflies" in your stomach, but gumption and logic are needed to keep them there till your Golden Wedding Day. So be cautious when you cast the proxy votes of your future unborn children!

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

Case Y-395: Myrna F., aged 18, is a college freshman.

"Dr. Crane," she began, "you mentioned that high school girls should not go steady.

"And I agree with you. But didn't girls marry young in past generations?

"And weren't those marriages as happy as the modern ones?"

HOW OLD FOR MARRIAGE

Yes, girls often married at 15, 16 and 17 in George Washington's day.

And there was more defense of such early weddings at that time.

For example, the average length of life in America when George Washington was a young man, was barely 42 years.

DR. CRANE

So a girl of 17 couldn't expect to live but 25 years. She knew she'd be lucky to celebrate her silver wedding anniversary.

Now she can delay marriage till she is 25 and still expect to live till her Golden Wedding Day!

That's due to modern medical science, better diet, vitamins, etc.

Besides, living was not very complex at the time of George Washington.

A wife needed to know how to bake and sew, sweep and plant a garden.

Today, a modern bride is expected to be a bookkeeper and social secretary.

She realizes she must be able to speak in public if she is to become active in the PTA and other educational or social clubs.

She must operate a lot of electrical equipment and often be her own repair man!

She must pass a driver's test for an auto and chauffeur her kids to school, as well as drive to the supermarket for shopping.

VERSATILE WIVES

She probably does the correspondence for her husband, too, and maybe 90 per cent of the work in computing their income tax.

She must suppervise her children's exposure to education and TV, comic books and music lessons, in addition to serving as the main religious spark plug in the family.

The modern wife is thus a far more versatile person than the bride of 1776.

You teenage girls should thus graduate from high school and take at least one year of advanced schooling, either at business college or liberal arts, before you even consider marriage.

Then you should work for at least a full year to learn how tough it is nowsdays to eke out a livelihood in this competitive age.

Medically speaking, a girl might well function as a wife at 15 or even younger.

But emotionally, educationally and financially, she needs to be 21 or even older to handle the great variety of demands upon her.

So when you consider marriage, don't be stampeded solely by a romantic moon and "butterflies"

in your stomach.

You cast the proxy votes for your future unborn children!

They'd rather have a mother who can function gracefully in PTA and handle the myriad other duties of modern successful parents.

So send for the 200-point "Tests for Sweethearts," enclosing a stamped return envelope, plus 20 cents (non-profit).

As you rate your date thereon, try to imagine the attitude of those future children of yours for whom you now cast the proxy votes!

If you want those "butterflies" to stay in your stomach via a permanently happy home, then you better use modern scientific tests.

You can fall in love many times. But happy marriage may come but once!

Always write to Dr. George W. Crane in care of The Pontiac Press, Pontiac, Michigan, enclosing a long 4c stamped self-addressed envelope and 20c to cover typing and printing costs when you send for his psychological charts and pamphlets.

Too Many Animals Found Without Homes

By PHYLLIS BATTELLE

NEW YORK—Like most sympathetic Americans, I love dogs. I would give a dog the bones off my strapless bathing suit. My husband won't let me watch "Lassie" any more because it's a waste of mascara. Lassie doesn't even need to get sick or maimed or shot by a Commie spy; I cry just because she's a dog, and subject to the slings and arrows of outrageous men.

I still have a scar on the left paw from trying to break up a fight between a collie and a German shepherd, neither of them friends of the family, at age three. Later, I lived with the same multiple-breed for 14 years, and when he died I might have forsaken the day life forever.

Like all the true and great cynics, I believe that most male dogs are better pals than most men. And that most female dogs make more courageous mothers than most women.

All this marks me as a sucker for people from the Humane Society. They can walk into the office on the worst day, at the deadline hour, and force me to listen to a tale of woe.

So: Helen Jones, director of educational activities for the society, walked in sad-eyed and said, "We have taken a survey of 61 representative cities in the United States, and you know what?"

I reached for my handkerchief and said no, what?

"More than five million dogs are destined to reach public pounds this year.

"Our survey showed that for every 30 humans, one dog is impounded at the present time. And only 10 per cent are reclaimed by the owners. The other 90 per cent are . . . are . . . well, we call it 'surplus.'"

Helen sighed. "Besides that —there are 40 million dogs and cats who never reach the pounds. They wander, homeless and unwanted, across the country. Looking for food and shelter, to live. They are even more unfortunate than the five million who go to pounds, because so many of them are injured, sick, starving, dying by inches."

Although I don't believe in curtailing the freedom of dogs by putting them in New York City apartments, I offered to take over my share of the strays. Helen said no, that's not how I could help.

"Tell people that these facts exist," she said, "so that they will stop letting their kittens and puppies breed promiscuously. It is the owners of pets who unknowingly are sentencing so many dogs and cats to death."

She said that the Humane Society, having finally succeeded in putting over the Humane Slaughter Bill, is now out on a crusade to have female canines and female cats spayed. The society even went to Vice President and Mrs. Nixon recently and requested that they have their two cats spayed — to prevent more kittens, and to set a good example for U. S. cat lovers everywhere.

Other big-name dog and cat fanciers have complied with the society's request, and are spreading the gospel. They include the James Masons, the Ludwig Bemelman's June Havoc, Eve la Gallienne, Jimmy Gleason.

"We must save this unintentional cruelty to animals. I'm sure that when people know of the millions of unwanteds, they will understand," said Helen gently. "Won't you tell them?"

Sniff and voila.

Liz Taylor Files Suit in Mike Todd's Death

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor has filed a five-million-dollar damage suit against three corporations, charging them with negligence in the plane crash which killed her husband, Mike Todd, and three others.

The action was filed in federal court yesterday on behalf of the actress and Todd's son, Mike Todd Jr.

At the same time, Mrs. Marta Cohn, widow of writer Art Cohn, who also died in the crash last March, asked damages of 1½ million dollars.

The defendants are Ayer Lease Plan, Inc., described as the owner and operator o the plane; Trade-Ayer, Inc., and Michael Todd Co., Inc., maintainers and controllers of the plane.

Officials at Ayer Lease Plan and Trade-Ayer, both located at Linden Airport, Linden, N.J., did not immediately comment.

The twin-engine plane, named The Liz for Miss Taylor, crashed in the Zuni Mountains near Grants, N.M., March 22. In addition to Todd and Cohn, the victims were pilot Bill Verner and copilot Tom Barclay.

Miss Taylor's and young Todd's suit said Todd left a widow and two children and had been "gainfully working with a reasonable expectation of even greater earnings in the future."

"By virtue of his death, the survivors will be deprived of the deceased's future contributions to their support and of his services, guidance, comfort and society," the suit said.

On March 26 the Civil Aeronautics Board issued a preliminary report on the crash which said the plane's right engine may have failed during the fatal trip. With one engine inoperative, the CAB said, the craft could not maintain the 13,000-feet altitude at which it had been authorizd to fly.

Inclusion of Michael Todd Co. among the defendants technically placed Miss Taylor and Todd's son in the position of suing a firm in which they hold major interests. Young Todd is a vice president of the concern, Miss Taylor a director.

A spokesman for the company said a suit for damages had to name all companies connected with operation of the airplane in order to fully protect the Todd heirs.

Identify Corpse in Honolulu Flat as GI's Widow

HONOLULU (AP) — A corpse, deceptively youthful appearing because of silver blonde hair, has been identified as that of the widow of a serviceman.

Police said the nude body—found strangled with its owner's pink panties—was identified by a caretaker at her apartment house as Mrs. Helen M. Peoples, 55.

The body was found in a driveway.

The woman apparently had fought fiercely. Her face was badly battered.

Police said they had no motive or suspect.

Seek to Avoid Fishing War

Last-Minute Solution Hoped for in Dispute of Iceland, Britain

LONDON (AP) — Diplomats were hopeful today that talks going on in Paris might work out a last-minute compromise to avoid a fishing war between Britain and Iceland.

Neither of the North Atlantic Treaty allies has given any public indication of coming to terms in the dispute over the fishing waters off Iceland. But confidential discussions in Paris were reported progressing well.

Iceland has announced that beginning Sept. 1 the area in which foreign trawlers cannot fish will be extended from four miles offshore to 12 miles from her coastline. The move is intended both to protect one of the world's richest fish-breeding areas and to better fishing for Iceland's own trawlers.

Britain decided to protect her trawlers with gunboats in the 4-to-12-mile belt around Iceland. A British fishing fleet now is headed for the area which sailors from the north of England have fished for centuries.

Reports from the Icelandic capital, Reykjavik, said crewmen on coast guard patrol boats are being trained as gunners. Premier Hemann Jonasson of Iceland denied that his government would make concessions.

The Paris talks between Britain and Iceland were called by Paul-Henri Spaak, NATO secretary general. Norwegian sources in London said three Norwegian experts joined the talks last weekend. These sources expressed optimism.

Some observers have expressed fear that the dispute will drive Iceland, which has a strong Communist minority in her government, toward the Soviet Union.

Japan Is Pushing for A-Bomb Ban

TOKYO (AP)—Japan renewed its appeal today for quick agreement by the atomic powers to end nuclear weapon tests.

Citing the East-West scientific blueprint drawn at Geneva for policing any ban on tests, the Foreign Ministry declared: "Now the realization of an international agreement to ban tests is up to the governments concerned. Japan hopes they will make efforts for its early realization."

The Geneva announcement plus news from Washington that President Eisenhower may soon announce a suspension of U. S. atomic tests sent hope soaring in this fallout-jittery country.

Cardinal an 'Angel'

NEW YORK (AP) — Francis Cardinal Spellman has become an off-Broadway "angel." The Roman Catholic prelate recently contributed $100 and his blessings to the nonprofit New York Shakespeare Festival that gives free performances at Central Park, his secretary said.

Delivers Lesson on Civic Duty, Foots the Bill

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP) — Seven teenagers got a lesson in civic duty yesterday, but it was their teacher who paid the tuition.

Director of Public Safety William V. McLaughlin was being driven to work when he spotted a paper shower from the rear window of a bus ahead of him.

A former policeman, McLaughlin halted the bus and nabbed the rear seat occupants, seven boys from Bayonne.

Then he had the youths march up and down the boulevard picking up every piece of paper, every matchstick and every cigarette butt.

When he was satisfied, McLaughlin had to give them a dollar for bus fare home.

Prize Mule From Iowa Steals Missouri Thunder

SEDALIA, Mo. (AP) — For a while there was gloom at the Missouri fair. A mule from Iowa was named grand champion.

A loyal Missourian, Claude Adams of Lamar, soon set things right. He bought the mule yesterday and made him Missouri's own.

Freckles, the winning mule, was entered by John Irving, Mt. Ayr, Iowa, and Lynn Byerly, Glidden, Iowa.

False Alarm Rushes Police to London Tower

LONDON (AP) — A burglar alarm brought police cars rushing today to the Tower of London — home of Britain's fabulous crown jewels—but a sleepy-voiced official at the tower said the jewels had not been stolen.

"I think it's a practice alarm which happens every month," the official at the ancient group of buildings on the Thames said by telephone after what sounded like a yawn.

The jewels, whose value is incalculable, are on display in the tower in a circular glass case surrounded by a high picket fence.

Battles for Daughter Entering Convent

MOUNT ANGEL, Ore. (AP)—Last spring, Ivan R. Miller of Milwaukie, Ore., failed in an attempt to get his daughter Alice retured to his home from a Roman Catholic convent.

Miller told a State Circuit Court that Alice, 19, should be returned home because she was a minor and subject to parental control.

The court ruled, however, that Alice and her sister Lois, 21, had been freed from parental control because Miller earlier had given them the choice of leaving the church or leaving home. Miller isn't a church member.

Both left home and Alice entered St. Mary's Convent at Beaverton, Ore. She is still there.

Yesterday, it was announced that Lois will enter a Benedictine sisters convent here Sunday.

Miller has appealed the Circuit Court ruling to the Oregon Supreme Court.

French Consul Shot by Lebanese Rebels

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — French Consul Jean Gaspard, 35, was shot and critically wounded by terrorists last night while driving to the airport. He was not expected to live.

Gaspard, first foreign victim of the recent outburst of terrorism in strife-torn Lebanon, was hit in the stomach and liver by an explosive bullet.

He was taken to the American University Hospital where he underwent emergency surgery.

A number of foreign-owned buildings including diplomatic missions have been hit by small arms fire but there has been no concerted attack on foreign property or persons.

It was speculated Gaspard was a victim of mistaken identity and that he inadvertently failed to heed calls to halt.

Montreal, after Paris, is the world's largest French-speaking city. The University of Montreal has mostly a French-Canadian enrollment. Notre Dame de Bonsecours, the city's oldest church, dates from 1657.

Exhaust Fumes of Cars Called Cancer Cause

RENO (AP)—A Japanese surgeon says he believes automobile exhaust fumes and industrial smoke may cause more lung cancer in the United States than does cigarette smoking.

Dr. Komei Nakayama, professor of surgery at the University of Chiba medical school in Japan, told a regional meeting of the International College of Surgeons that the Japanese smoke far more heavily than Americans but have a very low incidence of lung cancer.

Dr. Ross T. McIntire, the late President Roosevelt's personal physician, concluded the panel discussion with:

"Now we can all take a puff."

Accused of Embezzling $18,000 From Farmers

DETROIT (AP) — John C. Lafata, 43, of suburban St. Clair Shores lawyer, was to be arraigned today on charges of embezzling nearly $18,000 from two Washington, Mich., hog farmers.

Wayne County Prosecutor Samuel H. Olsen said Lafata told him "I took the money to live on, but I knew something would come up to expose this."

The farmers, Anebal Paulino, 34, and Henry Ziolkowski, 34, are partners in the hog farm and were clients of Lafata's.

Olsen said Lafata admitted embezzling the money from the farmers since May 24, 1954. The funds had been given him to pay income taxes.

Fear Possibility of Radiation

Denmark Cancels Visit by U. S. Atom-Sub Skate

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Denmark last night canceled the visit of the U.S. atomic-powered submarine Skate to Copenhagen for fear of dangerous radiation in case of an accident.

Premier Hans C. Hansen acted on the recommendation of the Danish Atomic Energy Commission.

A commission official conceded that the chance of a dangerous accident was negligible. But he said that if the Skate were to run aground or be involved in a collision and its powerful atomic reactor damaged, there would be "a very great danger" for Copenhagen's 1,200,000 residents.

The Skate's visit to Denmark after its leisurely voyage under the polar ice was scheduled for next week. The submarine will call at Bergen, Norway, tomorrow and will visit Oslo from Monday to Wednesday. Copenhagen had been her only other announced stop.

There was no indication that the Norwegians had any fears concerning the visit.

Both Norway and Denmark are members of the North Atlantic Alliance. An official of the Socialist-led Danish governemnt said there were no political implications to the cancellation, although Denmark has refused offers of American atomic weapons through NATO.

It was the first such public refusal to accept a visit by American nuclear submarines, which have called at a number of American, British, French and Dutch ports. The situation indicated possible future obstacles for the fleets of nuclear-powered surface and undersea vessels now planned by several nations.

There was no immediate comment from the U.S. defense or state departments or the U.S. atomic energy commission. A spokesman for the U.S. Atlantic Fleet said "there is no doubt in our mind that the visit of the Skate to Denmark would be safe."

Says Million Vets Would Be Called Up

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey says if the United States needs two million men quickly for a conflict the size of the Korean War, a million of them would have to be veterans.

Hershey, who directs the Selective Service System, told the annual national convention of Amets last night the United States would do well to get a million men out of its ready reserves.

Gen. Hershey decried the fact that six million men under 26 have had no military training. He said many of them have been deferred.

The general said Selective Service has deferred 20 million men in the past 10 years to permit them to continue their education.

The cost in keeping tab on these students, he said, is more than the total cost of drafting all the men for service in Korea.

Hay Fever Victims: Stay Off Highways

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Don't take to the road if you're a hay fever sufferer.

Otherwise you'll probably sneeze your head off.

University of Michigan tests show roadsides are the best encampments for common ragweed, bane of hay fever and asthma victims.

Probers at the university's Research Institute sampled the shoulders along 70 miles of paved roads in Washtenaw County. They said 125,000 ragweed plants flourished per mile.

Research associate Jim Harrington, who directed the field work, says the ragweed could be controlled, however. He has learned ragweed has been choked out along roadsides where thick grass grows.

Spraying the ragweed with weed killer or mowing it before the hay fever season also would stop sniffles, Harrington said.

This Ole' 'House' Ain't What It Used to Be

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. (AP) — Signs have been posted at three entrances of the City Hall declaring it "unsafe." But City Building Commissioner Robert Keeley says they don't tell the whole story.

Keeley said the roof and third floor are in danger of collapsing and the "first floor could easily drop into the basement."

The 60-year-old building is infested with termites, the roof leaks and the walls of the basement are full of cracks.

"The building is full of vermin. The plumbing is in poor condition, the electrical system overloaded and the old boilers are absolutely dangerous," said Keeley.

He hopes the building will last until Feb. 1, when the city is to move into a remodeled building.

Plutonium Eyed as Fuel for Nuclear Reactors

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission says plutonium, used in making World War II atom bombs, may have a peacetime use as a cheaper fuel for atomic reactors.

An AEC spokesman said plutonium fueled a large nuclear reactor for the first time this month at the National Reactor Testing Station west of here.

Plutonium can be made from uranium fairly easily and is cheaper than U235, the main fuel now used. It wasn't used before because it was difficult to handle in reactors.

Hotel Objecting to Loss of Land

Says State Cut Width of Sidewalk Without Proper Procedure

Owners of the Roosevelt hotel have charged the State Highway Dept. with arbitrarily taking property in order to widen Perry street.

In a suit filed yesterday in Oakland County Circuit Court, Alfred May and Charles Haas, owners of the hotel at 125 N. Perry St., say that the state, without taking any condemnation action, has narrowed the 14-foot sidewalk in front of the hotel to five feet.

The men asked for an injunction to prevent the department from damaging anymore of hotel property. Judge H. Russel Holland ordered a hearing for Sept. 3 when defendants in the suit must show why the injunction should not be granted.

In addition, May and Haas asked the court to order the highway department to re-locate the new four-lane highway so as to restore their regular 14-foot sidewalk.

Because of the narrowing of the walk, the men say the city of Pontiac has ordered, under an ordinance, that the hotel marquee over it be taken down. They've petitioned in their suit that the city be restrained from enforcing this law.

The highway department is presently widening Perry street from East Huron street to Opdyke road from two to four lanes.

NEW POST — Dr. Arthur S. Flemmig is the new Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare in President Eisenhower's cabinet. Flemming, 53, a veteran government official and educator, succeeds Marion B. Folsom.

Pontiac General May Bill Its Elderly Patients Less

Elderly patients may get a break on room rates at Pontiac General Hospital.

The Board of Trustees last night took under consideration a proposal by Trustee Isaac Smoot that the recent rate increase of $2 a day not apply to patients 65 years of age and older.

"There are growing financial problems for people of that age," said Smoot. "Senior citizens, after giving their best years to society, should be given some sort of consideration."

The rate increase, covering all patients, went into effect in July in the face of growing financial difficulties at the hospital, caused largely by a drop in room occupancy.

Occupancy continued to drop this month, reported Trustee Harold B. Euler, acting temporarily as coordinator of the hospital's administration.

During the first 20 days of August hospital beds were 77 per cent occupied, he said, while in July the combined occupancy of the main hospital and annex was 80.5 per cent.

"But the increased rates are evidently having some effect on our financial picture," said Euler. "Although occupancy is down three per cent, our August charges are only about $5,000 less than July's."

The July deficit, Euler reported, was $20,871, bringing the total 1958 deficit to date up to $117,633.

This figure includes the $41,000 interest on hospital bonds for the first six months of the year. Although the city has paid off this interest, the hospital has not as yet reimbursed the city.

With the hospital construction completion, September and October will be "critical months" from program within a few months of a cash position, Euler said.

The Board believes that dust, noise and other confusion resulting from construction are the main reasons for the occupancy drop. Patients are going elsewhere while the annoying conditions exist, it feels.

The shift from the old building to the new is nearly completed, Euler reported. When completed, he said, the next step is remodeling of the old building.

Lauren Bacall Seeks Increase in Allowance

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Lauren Bacall wants her allowance from the estate of her late husband Humphrey Bogart increased from $1,000 a month to $2,500.

Miss Bacall told the court yesterday that the actor's estate was officially appraised at $847,540. She said the allowance ordered for her support and that of the two children, Stephen, 8, and Leslie, 5, has proved insufficient.

Miss Bacall said her personal and household expenses have exceeded $4,500 a month since her husband's death Jan. 14, 1957.

A hearing on her petition was set for Sept. 12.

AF's Practice Rocket Frightens 6 Children

ATLANTA (AP) — Six children were playing in a supply company's sand bin when they heard a "big noise in the air."

An object landed 50 feet from them. They scooted in all directions. It turned out to be a dummy practice rocket which had fallen from an F89D jet from Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla.

An Air Force spokesman said it carried no explosives and was strictly for dummy practice use. It was about 4 feet long and weighed 18 pounds.

(5)—The V-2

By Don Oakley and Ralph Lane

By the late 1930s rockets had reached an advanced stage. Some of Goddard's and those of the American Rocket Society were achieving speeds near that of sound. But in 1944 the world was unprepared for anything like the performance of the terrifying V-2.

Its history can be traced back to the end of World War I, when Germany was prohibited from building heavy artillery. In 1929 the Army began investigating the rocket as a weapon. An officer, Walter Dornberger, was put in charge of the project. He hired as his assistant a young, enthusiastic rocket amateur, Wernher von Braun.

Their first motor exploded in 1932. But by 1934 a new model had soared to one and a half miles. By 1939 a one-ton rocket rose to five miles.

At the outbreak of World War II Hitler, unimpressed, canceled the project's high priority. However, in 1942 a completed rocket, later known as the V-2, was ready to launch from the base at Peenemunde in the North Sea.

This giant was 46 feet long, five feet in diameter and weighed over 14 tons. With a 54-second motor run, it achieved a speed of nearly 3,500 miles an hour. For the first time in history a rocket was sent to the border of space. But red tape, the Gestapo and a devastating raid by British bombers in 1943 severely retarded the work.

Not until September 1944 did the first V-2 crash down on London. But by the end of the war some 1,500 were fired at England, more than 2,000 at the harbor of Antwerp. Too late to turn the war, the V-2 was, however, the herald of the age of space. But when in August 1945 the atomic age was even more horrifyingly ushered in, the possibility of a rocket-atom bomb combination turned the race for space into a race for survival.

Square Peg in Round Hole

Carpenters Union Boss Never Quite Fitted In

By NORMAN WALKER

FOREST PARK, Pa. (AP)—As a labor leader, Carpenters Union President Maurice Hutcheson is sort of a square peg in a round hole. He's never quite fitted in.

Labor bosses are usually voluble, persuasive, dynamic, or at least have a fair measure of these attributes.

But Hutcheson is shy, distant and about as talkative as a fence post. He never drinks, smokes, plays cards or relaxes with the boys.

Young Hutch, as he is known even at 61, is in danger of being booted off organized labor's highest body, the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

The council, meeting here yesterday ordered Hutcheson to show up at the group's next session in November and explain why he has refused to answer Senate Rackets Committee charges that he mishandled union funds. Hutcheson did not attend the current meeting.

He got his job as Carpenters Union chief five years ago, inheriting it from his father William L. (Big Bill) Hutcheson—an old-line labor autocrat. The union presidency pays $36,000 a year.

Along with rule of the Carpenters Union, the son also inherited a fortune estimated at more than a million dollars.

Senate investigators said part of this came from rich dividends from Florida orange groves bought with union funds. At one point, the father also owned a big chunk of Gulfstream race track.

In view of his wealth, it's hard for other labor leaders to figure how Maurice Hutcheson could have gotten mixed up in Indiana road right-of-way scandals. He is under indictment for conspiracy to bribe an official to share in some $80,000 quick profits on state land purchases.

Hutcheson invoked the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer a Senate Roads Committee's questions about the land deals.

He also stood mute before the Rackets Committee, although not resorting to the Fifth Amendment this time, when asked about lavishing $300,000 in union funds on a book praising him and his father. The Senate has cited him for contempt for refusing to answer Rackets Committee questions.

The book, entitled "Portrait of an American Labor Leader; William Hutcheson," said of Maurice: "He seems to possess all the desirable qualities of a leader; he is tall, he has a good heart, and he is moderate in everything, even in the use of his intelligence."

The Carpenters boss is over six feet tall, broad shouldered and husky.

Born in Saginaw County, Mich., May 7, 1897, he quit school at 17 and joined the union. He worked as an apprentice carpenter only three years and some people still wonder whether he ever really learned to strike a nail. He rose rapidly in the union.

In addition to the other things he got from his father, Hutcheson inherited Big Bill's devout Republican party loyalty and an intense economic and social conservatism.

But contrary to the father's many feuds with other unions, the younger Hutcheson has been a peaceful type without appetite for union rivalries.

Indians' Herb Tea Eyed

DANIA SEMINOLE RESERVATION, Fla. (AP) — An ancient Indian medicineman's herb tea may prove a new weapon against mental illness.

Josie Billy, 74-year-old medicine man at the Big Cyprus Reservation, says Indians have used it for treating mental illness for years.

Billy has sold sample gallons to the Upjohn pharmaceutal house in Kalamazoo, Mich., for tests.

"We're very interested in Josie's herb tea," said Dr. Jack Hinman, who is supervising tests for Upjohn.

Florida Indian officials also were watching developments.

Those Before-Dinner Cocktails Won't Do Any Harm to Your Heart

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—It is a matter of taste, not health, whether you have a cocktail—or more than one perhaps—before dinner, a research team said today.

A little alcohol does no harm to the heart, may even do a little good, mechanically speaking, according to the findings of medical scientists at Lankenau Hospital.

The researchers compared the effect of alcohol on the heart with that of adrenalin, a secretion of the gland on top of the kidneys, and norepeniphrine, a substance freed by the nervous system under certain conditions. They found that adrenalin placed more than four times the work load on the heart from three cocktails — or their equivalent in pure ethyl — within a half hour.

The output of adrenalin, or epinephrine to give it its chemical name, and of norepinephrine is increased by anger, fear, excitement and other stimuli.

The cocktails, the researchers reported, increased the heart's work only 20 per cent. Adrenalin increased it 90 per cent.

Drugs used to stimulate the heart under conditions such as shock or a seizure increase the heart's workload by 47 per cent.

The doctors said none of the stimulants — cocktails, drugs, adrenalin or norepinephrine — increased the coronary blood flow.

"So it cannot be said that liquor will greatly improve the lot of the heart patient," the report asserted.

It was stated, however, that alcohol opens up peripheral arteries —this is what flushes the faces of drinkers—and causes more blood to flow from arteries to veins. When more blood is returned to the right side of the heart, the heart contracts more efficiently and more blood is pumped out.

This mechanical benefit is achieved only by the cocktail, the team said.

The experiment was conducted with the aid of laboratory animals. Chemically produced adrenalin and norepinephrine were used. The researchers plan to continue their investigations with patients.

Heading the study is Dr. J. E. Schmitthenner, post doctorate fellow of the National Heart Institute, and Dr. Cecilia Riegel, chief biochemist at Lankenau, with an assist from the Heart Assn. of Southeastern Pennsylvania.

Dr. Joseph H. Hafkenschiel, director of the cardio-pulmonary unit at the hospital, will deliver a paper on the subject before the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics in Ann Arbor, Mich., Aug. 28.

Bagwell Keeps Trying to Debate Governor

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams has said "no" twice, but Paul D. Bagwell isn't giving up.

Bagwell, the governor's Republican opponent in the November election, tried once again yesterday to prod Williams into accepting his challenge to a series of public debates.

Several times Bagwell has issued the challenge and twice Williams has refused, contending the debates would amount to little more than "political medicine shows."

Young Republicans Name New Secretary

Carole Malsom, 2953 Moss, Keego Harbor, was elected corresponding secretary of the Eighteenth Congressional District Young Republican Club at a meeting Aug. 19. She will fill out the unexpired term of Sally Roseberry, of Franklin, who resigned. In addition, Miss Malsom will serve on the finance committee, according Jasper B. Reid, club treasurer.

Has Had Diversified Career

3-Cent Stamp Goes Way of Nickel Cigar

WASHINGTON — The 3-cent stamp has gone the way of the nickel cigar.

In recent years the Post Office Department has issued many billions of 3-cent stamps annually. Now no 3-cent stamps at all will roll from the presses until its stock is depleted.

Overnight, as of Aug. 1, the most popular best-seller for first-class mail became a 4-cent lavender stamp with a brooding likeness of Lincoln.

But the 3-cent stamp slips from a major to a minor role with unusual honors. No other denomination has had such a diversified career, the National Geographic Society says.

FIRST ISSUED IN 1851

The nation's first 3-cent stamp appeared in 1851, four years after the government started issuing adhesive postage stamps. Brick red, it carried a profile of Washington after the bust by Houdon. Washington was a popular subject that year. His portrait also decorated 1851's 10, 12, 24, and 90-cent stamps.

From then until now, 3-cent stamps have provided far more revenue than any other denomination. In the fiscal year 1957 alone, some 24,250,000,000 were sold, bringing a return of about $475,000,000.

There have been three regular issues of 3-centers in the last two decades—1938's Jefferson, the most used stamp on record; 1952's NATO stamp and 1954's Statue of Liberty.

The regular 3-cent stamps and numerous commemoratives form a remarkable album of American notables, of historic events and places, of leading industries and institutions.

Last year, for instance, commemoratives noted teh 350th anniversary of American shipbuilding, the bicentennials of Alexander Hamilton and Lafayette, the 150th anniversary of the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the centennials of the American Institute of Architects and the steel industry. Others honored American teachers and the national antipolio campaign.

Washington's stern face has gazed from at least 14 3-cent stamps. These include commemoratives marking his birthday bicentennial, the end of the Revolution, his first inauguration, and the Battle of Brooklyn.

Presidents Monroe, Jackson, Lincoln and both Roosevelts have adorned the 3-cent stamp, as have Generals Sherman, Grant and Sheridan.

Still others were Edgar Allen Poe, Luther Burbank, Victor Herbert, Al Smith, Thomas Edison, Joseph Pulitzer, George Washington Carver, Clara Barton, Will Rogers, Joel Chandler Harris, Samuel Gompers, Betsy Ross, George Eastman, Andrew Mellon and "Casey" Jones of railroad fame.

A striking series of 3-centers, inaugurated in 1956, emphasizes wildlife conservation. The series has featured the wild turkey, pronghorn antelope, king salmon and whooping crane.

Over the years most 3-cent stamps have been printed in shades of violet, though a few have been designed in tints of green, blue, maroon, brown, yellow and gray. A 1957 stamp in black commemorated religous freedom in America.

One 3-cent stamp, a 1947 commemorative marking the 100th anniversary of United States postage stamps, holds an all-time sales record. The public purchased 7,500,000 copies of it on the first day of issue.

Watching Chink in Iron Curtain

U.S. Businessmen See Chance for Red Trade Now in Offing

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans who have been watching their export business fall off sharply this year are eyeing hopefully today an opening chink in the Iron Curtain.

But it will be two months before they are told just what new items they may offer for sale to the Soviet Union and its satellites.

Their competitors in Western Europe, Canada and Japan meantime will have a long head start. These nations now are freeing 40 per cent of the products formerly embargoed for sale to Eastern Europe and Red China. The latter will still be off limits to American exporters.

The U.S. Commerce Department doubts if lowering the trade barriers a bit more — as provided in the recent Paris agreement with 14 other nations of the NATO Coordinating Committee on Control of East-West Trade — will open up much more of a market for U.S. goods in Eastern Europe.

American trade with Eastern Europe is off this year from last year's 10-year high, and it accounts for only half of 1 per cent of total U.S. foreign trade.

Washington holds that what the Communist countries want from us mainly is what we still won't want to sell them, come October. That is, products and commodities which we feel could be used for military purposes. The Commerce Department doubts if the Reds will buy many purely civilian goods from Americans.

Western European industrialists are much more hopeful. For example, they are now freeing copper wire for export to Eastern Europe and Red China. Copper wire was once a major British export to the Soviet Union. Red China has been getting its copper from South America. The British think they can recapture the Soviet market and add the Chinese to their customer list.

Except for the Labor Department, the Department of State has the smallest number of employees of any Cabinet-level agency in the government.

He Beats His Wife in Courthouse Hall

MONTREAL (AP) — Ferdinand Turgeon walloped his wife yesterday and within 30 minutes stood convicted of wife-beating.

The wheels of justice moved so fast because the 30-year-old man did the beating in the entrance hall of the Criminal Courthouse in full view of two policemen. Hauled straightaway before a judge, he pleaded guilty and will be sentenced Aug. 27.

Turgeon and his tiny, 23-year-old wife had come to the courthouse to see her lawyer. The husband already was awaiting sentence on charges of beating their three children.

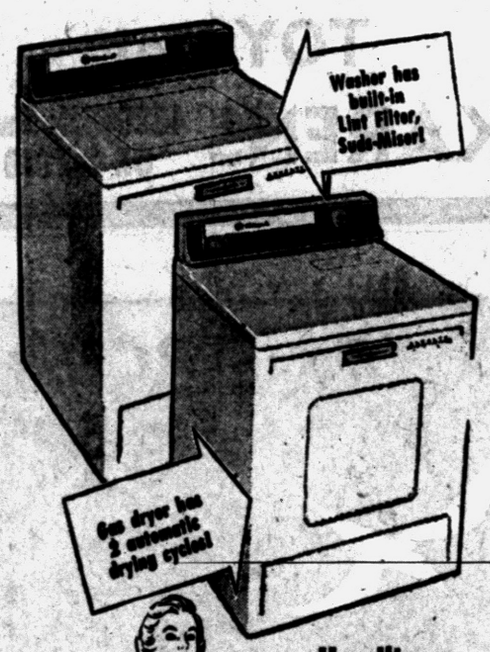

"He's a sick man," Mrs. Turgeon explained. "He takes different pills for a nervous condition and today he took four of them at once."

St. Lawrence Seaway Winds 2,300 Miles to Heart of Industry

WASHINGTON — A new era — shared by the United States and Canada as cooperating neighbors—was born and baptized early in July along the upper reaches of the St. Lawrence River.

The baptismal waters, pouring out of Lake Ontario, were first released, then dammed to form a vast pool that will serve as a major link in the monumental St. Lawrence Seaway.

Some 25 miles long and averaging 40 feet in depth, the man-made lake will accommodate seagoing ships a thousand miles from the Atlantic.

Its interrelated system of canals, locks and dams will not only permit enormously heavier traffic, but provide millions of kilowatts of power on both sides of the international line.

PIONEERS SAW ANOTHER WORLD

The inauguration of the entire Seaway next spring will open a deepwater lane winding 2,300 miles from the mouth of the St. Lawrence to North America's industrial heartland, says the National Geographic Society.

The first big ships to go through will mark the latest act in a drama whose prologue was enacted along this same stream more than 400 years ago.

But the early French explorers and settlers who came this way would find little to recognize in today's scenery.

Where primeval wilderness spread, great inland seaports now handle millions of tons of cargo a year. The river, harnessed by concrete and steel, flows through channels 27 feet deep. In spacious locks, ships are raised and lowered by intricate machinery that would have seemed witchcraft to the pioneers.

Discoverer of the broad crack in the New World coast was a Breton skipper, Jacques Cartier, who reconnoitered the vast entrance gulf in 1534. On a return trip, he sought shelter in a small bay he named St. Lawrence for the saint's day. Eventually the name caught on for both gulf and river.

Cartier sailed up the Great River—or the River of Canada as he also called it from the Iroquois word Kanata — to the site of what was to be the city of Montreal. There rapids barred further progress.

Like others spurred by the ambition of the time, Cartier had failed to find a short cut to the Orient. Instead, he had turned the key to the inner secrets and wealth of a new continent.

RIVER-BORNE RIVALRY

In the early 1600s, Samuel de Champlain's voyages and colonies along the St. Lawrence established France as a Western power. With the founding of Quebec and the discovery of the Great Lakes, other French explorers, fur traders and missionaries to the Indians pushed on to the upper Mississippi. Turning south, they claimed an empire that reached all the way to the Gulf of Mexico.

Meantime, the British, too, were taking to the St. Lawrence as a high road to expansion and trade. The long and bitter power struggle between France and England spread across the Atlantic to erupt in the French and Indian Wars.

It was settled along this river in 1759 when the British victory on Quebec's Plains of Abraham set Canada's future alliance and course.

Again in the American Revolution and the War of 1812, campaigns in the St. Lawrence-Great Lakes region made history.

The peace treaty of 1814 reaffirmed the Canadian-United States border through the Great Lakes and upper reaches of the river. It also marked the beginning of the unbroken friendly relations that have made today's Seaway possible.

IMPROVEMENTS IN 1700S

The first navigation aids along the inland route were developed in the late 1700s. One was a shallow canal that bypassed the Montreal rapids. The other was a small lock canal built at the Sault Ste. Marie bottleneck at the outlet of Lake Superior. It permitted canoes and other small craft to negotiate a 21-foot drop into Lake Huron.

Since then, bigger and better canal and lock systems, with ever deeper channels, have taken increasing traffic over and around all obstacles—including that queen of hurdles, Niagara Falls.

State Building Gets Go-Ahead

Legislative Committee Gives Tentative OK on $10 Million Project

LANSING (AP) — A legislative committee has cleared a path for construction of a 10-million-dollar, 14-story state office building a block west of the Capitol.

The State Office Building Committee has given a tentative go-ahead to the project pending settlement of financial arrangements and problems involving a parking area and other facilities.

Rep. Arnell Engstrom (R-Traverse City), committee chairman, said construction may start this year. The building should be ready for occupancy in two years, he said.

The structure will fit into a long-range building plan aimed at locating nearly all state agencies within a few blocks of the Capitol.

It will furnish office space for some 2,000 state employes and will bring together under one roof many agencies which have been renting space in privately owned buildings. Plans also call for a post office, three story library and cafeteria.

Other agencies now occupy the Lewis Cass and Steven T. Mason office buildings, both within two blocks of the Capitol.

A loan from the state employes retirement fund, payable in 40 years, will finance the project. Agencies assigned to the new building will retire the bonds by paying rent, in effect, from annual legislative appropriations.

Say Stalin's Son in Institution for Alcoholics

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Joseph Stalin's son Vasily, whose whereabouts have been unknown since his father's death, is reported to be in a Russian institution for alcoholics.

Robert Branson, United Nations correspondent for Federated Publications, publishers of newspapers in Michigan and Indiana, said he got the report in casual conversation with Alexander Kislov, Washington correspondent of the Russian News Agency Tass.

"There is no great mystery," Branson quoted Kislov as saying. "Vasily went to pieces after his father's death in 1953. It was a matter of drinking too much. He had to be confined to an institution and I presume he may still be there. At any rate, I heard he was still being treated the last time I was in Moscow."

Vasily, a former lieutenant general in the Russia Air Force and a World War II flier, was said to be dead in an unconfirmed Austrian report in 1955.

Lay Keel at Groton for A-Sub Scorpion

GROTON, Conn. (AP)—The keel for the Scorpion, an atomic-powered attack submarine, was laid Wednesday on the building ways in the south yards of the General Dynamics Corp. Electric Boat Division.

The ways were vacated Tuesday when the nuclear-powered Triton, the world's mightiest submarine, slid into the Thames River.

Unlike Tuesday's spectacular ceremony, watched by 34,000 persons, the keel-laying went off without fanfare. Only a few officials and Capt. A. C. Smith, Navy supervisor of shipbuilding at Groton, attended.

Commission of the 252-foot long Scorpion is scheduled in 1960.

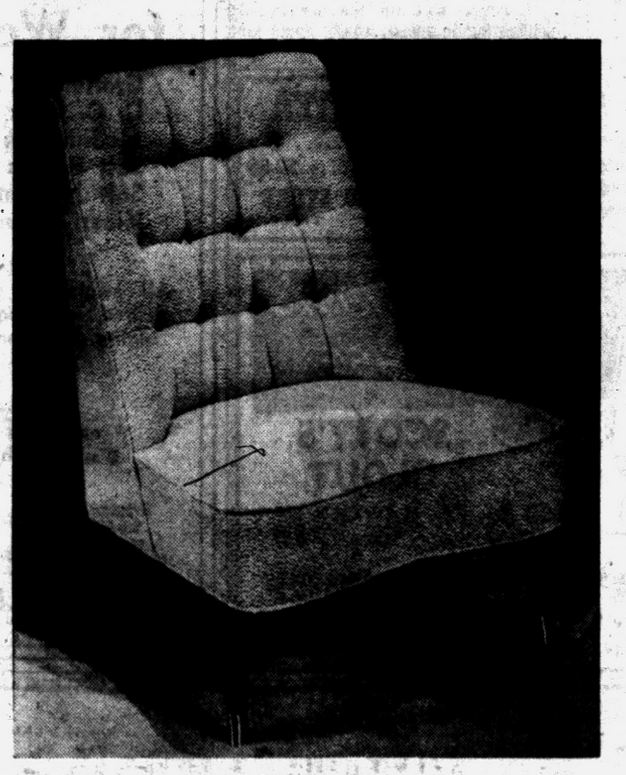

Model Car Stolen

NEW YORK (AP) — A police alarm went out yesterday for a stolen car. Description: "Red, four and one-half feet long, five-mile-an-hour speed." The car, a snazzy, electrically operated model, disappeared from the miniature garage of 7-year-old Bruce Winters. It was a present from his folks after he had his tonsils taken out.

Walnut Lake Gardener Gives Tips on Herb Uses, Care

Regain Interest in These Plants

Get Sunny, Sandy Site; Start Out With a Few—Enjoy Good Eating

By MRS. STEWART SCHULTZ
Walnut Lake Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn., Inc.

(This is the eleventh in a series of articles by a member of one of the 27 branches of the Women's National Farm and Garden Assn., Inc., throughout the area which will be printed on the farm and garden page this year.)

Forty or 50 years ago, part of the family routine was the growing, gathering and drying of herbs. It was necessary for medicinal purposes as well as for flavoring food.

Herbs have been used throughout the years since the creation of man and with the rejuvenation of such herb gardens as the one at George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, interest is gradually being renewed.

The herbs used for healing were called simples, pot herbs were the leafy vegetables and roots. Sweet herbs were the ones with odoriferous pungent leaves and flowers.

Ordinary good garden soil is all that is required to grow most herbs satisfactorily. In fact most have a stronger, truer flavor if grown in a sunny, sandy location. If an herb has a lot of beautiful foliage it is not considered the best for use in the kitchen. The mints, watercress and chervil, do best in a moist shady location.

START WITH FEW

The right way to get acquainted with herbs is to start out with a few of the most commonly used herbs such as parsley, savory, marjoram, chives, basil, thyme, sage and chervil. Then add a few new ones each year. I have done just that and now have over 65 kinds of herbs in my garden.

Some perennials can be used as inexpensive shrubs and for background affect for flowers or trimmed and used as hedges with pleasing results.

Southernwood, with its gray fernlike foliage, grows to a height of six feet in a fanlike shape and can be used for screening unsightly areas of the yard. Tarragon, tansy and clary sage are beautiful as a background. Hyssop, (pink, white or blue) can be left to blossom or trimmed for a border, along with the santolinas, (gray or green) which are practically evergreen.

When you plan a design for your herb garden you can have a small border near your kitchen door. You could also use a wagon wheel or an old ladder and plant the herbs between the spaces in each one.

Among the most popular herbs for flavoring are the basils, summer savory, sweet marjoram, anise and fennel, all annuals. Parsley is treated as an annual, although it is biennial.

Annual flavoring herbs are small and do not require much space. When grown for summer use only, six plants of each kind will furnish enough leaves to flavor the food of an average sized family. However, when the gardener intends to dry his herbs for winter use too he will need at least 12 plants of a kind.

A space 10 by 12 feet, or slightly more, would be large enough to keep a family supplied with flavor from annual herbs.

Perennial herbs which may best be propagated and increased by root division, layering or cuttings are perennial artemisias, costmary, horehound, hyssop, lavendar, winter or wild marjoram, true mints, rosemary, rue, sage, southernwood, tansy, tarragon, thyme, wormwood, yarrow and some alliums.

Make cuttings or slips of shrubby, woody herbs like santolina, thymes, and hyssops from new growth and use fine-cut sand, thoroughly wet and packed.

Biennials are caraway, clary, chervil, parsley and leeks. The seed of these herbs is planted in late spring. By fall they should have formed good roots and tops to carry them through the following winter. In early spring they begin to grow, blossom early, and set seed, which falls to the ground. Usually this seed germinates the same year. Often a true biennial may have its life lengthened by cutting all flowering stems.

Many folk say when you mention cooking with herbs, they prefer just plain food without a lot of strong seasoning. But they would not think of eating food which had not been seasoned with salt and pepper. The same holds true of herbs after you use them for awhile. You have to use them with discretion and you will discover hidden flavors that can not be described. Herbs enhance food the same as a rare perfume enhances a lady.

Until you have tasted basil in tomato dishes, tarragon with chicken and fish, savory with string beans, scrambled eggs and poultry dressing, rosemary with chicken and roasts, oregano on hamburgers and pizza, rue in potato soup, and thyme fried in with bacon, you have missed many an experience of good eating.

Althaea Offers Color Variety

From mid-summer to late fall when there is almost no other color in the garden, the althaea or rose of Sharon comes into its own.

Its cultivation and general adaptability to gardens in this country gives daily display of colors.

They range from clear pink to deep maroon and soft lavender to dark purple. There is pure white and at least one variety with true blue flowers.

The althaea has many desirable qualities for it can be put to various uses in beautifying the landscape. It attains a height of 10 to 12 feet as a shrub or trimmed as a tree.

HEDGE LOOKS GOOD

Responding well to shearing as a hedge, they also form attractive entrance plants in groups of three or five. Used at the ends or corners of flower beds, althaeas form terminal plantings.

Build Dikes Around Beds

Use edgings to build miniature dikes around your flower beds and other areas that need water frequently. Edgings let you water fast without waste, and water is held until it soaks in.

Courthouse-Type Pigeons Annoy N.Y. Gardeners Too

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
Ap Newsfeatures Writer

CHAPPAQUA, N. Y.—This has been—and will continue to be—an especially dull outdoor season in my garden. Ever since natural food has been available, we've stopped feeding the birds and we will not resume until the migrants have flown south.

It has not been from choice, but from pigeons. By early spring we had picked up a hungry troop of about 25 courthouse type pigeons who not only were eating us out of birdseed as fast as we could put it in the feeder, but were bending the TV antennae with their combined weight and making a mess of the house and lawn with their droppings.

Worse than that, they had shooed off the smaller birds—and everything is smaller than a pigeon.

Stopping the food supply was the only solution. The result has been that much of the fun in sitting under the trees has gone, too.

This column, for instance, is most often written in the shade of three red maples, in sight of the feeding stations. It often goes very slowly because of frequent interruptions to grab a pair of opera glasses to get a closer look at this or that bird.

Except during pigeon infestations, we feed our wild birds on a year-round basis, although the amount of store-bought seed is reduced when fruit, berries, seed and insects are abundant. The idea is not to help the birds in summer, but to keep them around the place for our own enjoyment.

I don't think the smaller birds have gone far—I can still hear them singing and chirping and see them often flitting and hopping among the trees and shrubs.

Meanwhile, with fall planting a short time ahead, those of us who enjoy wild birds will include them in our plans for any new material we plan to set in. My planting already is bird-conscious. I've a wealth of honeysuckle bushes whose little red berries are loved by robins, thrushes, sparrows and grosbeaks; many viburnums, yews, dogwoods, forsythia, barberry and spice bush.

Two years ago I put in a mulberry—messy but a special favorite with the birds—in a corner where it isn't too much trouble, and this year I added a hawthorn.

I grow bee balm (a tall plant deliberately put out of position in the front of a garden bed) to attract the humming birds to a position where I can watch them, and I never pull up the jewelweed growing in moist, shady spots for the same reason.

Keep Toughies Apart

NEW YORK (AP)—This city of skyscraper hopes and ambitions has experienced some towering setbacks recently in its educational program.

After a wave of rapes, knifings and other grisly manifestations of teen-aged violence, the Board of Education summarily suspended 1,200 hard-boiled troublemakers in junior and senior high schools.

Among them were seven accused murderers, 20 dope addicts, 10 suspected addicts and others accused of crimes ranging from arson and extortion to beating teachers and vandalizing classrooms.

These young malefactors, however, were not "kicked out of school." Within 30 days most had been turned over to the courts, sent to a state training school, put under psychiatric care or, for the majority, given a chance at rehabilitation in one of the city's "600" or "700" schools.

NATION INTERESTED

These special schools, little known before the crime outbreak, suddenly found themselves in the national spotlight. Educators in other cities fighting major juvenile delinquency problems sought information about how New York handled its giant educational hangover.

How do these schools work? What do they accomplish? Can the formula be applied successfully elsewhere?

On the receiving end of most of the questions was Dr. William A. Hamm, associate superintendent of schools and director of the 600 and 700 school program.

In an interview, Dr. Hamm expressed the opinion that while New York's problems were magnified and aggravated by a large and tremendously shifting population, its approach to the school problem could be followed in other large cities.

Chicago, San Francisco and several other metropolitan school systems have experimented with similar programs.

P.S. 602

The terms 600 and 700 are derived from the fact the "rehabilitation" schools are numbered in either the 600s or 700s: P. S. 602 or P.S. 701.

The 700 schools, set up as a crash program after the mass suspensions, handle older boys at high school level and accept a limited number of mentally retarded youths.

The 600 schools are primarily junior highs and insist on an IQ of at least 75. The function of both is to rehabilitate troublesome, aggressive pupils without sending them to a penal institution.

Teachers volunteering for duty in these special schools are motivated both by the challenge of the work and the additional $480 a year stipend. They are screened carefully for personality, aptitude and experience.

"We have no trouble getting applicants," said Dr. Hamm, "but we do have trouble finding the right teachers."

AIM IS REHABILITATION

The principal aim is to return the children to their former schools. The average stay of a child in a 600 school is two years. Some bounce back again after being returned to their regular school and quite a few, surprisingly, refuse to go back to regular school.

"We had one boy recently," said Dr. Hamm, "who told us he wouldn't think of going back. He liked it where he was. He was learning the printing trade and for the first time in his life, he said, he felt, someone was interested in his future as well as his present welfare."

Many of the pupils have long records of truancy at their previous school, yet the 600 schools have a lower rate of truancy than the rest of the system.

"The answer seems to be," said Dr. Hamm, "that now the student enjoys going to school, or at least doesn't hate it anymore. There is a sense of security and a sense of affection. He no longer has to act up to get attention."

Swedish Paper Output Spurts to New Record

GOTHENBURG, Sweden — Sweden's production of paper and paperboard set a new record last year, totaling 1,680,000 tons, a rise of 7 per cent over 1956.

Exports of 970,000 tons represented a 6 per cent gain. England was the main buyer, followed by West Germany and France.

Girl Falls 130 Feet to Death on Ledge

MOUNT WASHINGTON, Mass. (AP)—Eileen Reiter, 16, of the Bronx, N.Y., on an outing in Bash Bish State Forest, fell 150 feet to her death on a ledge yesterday.

Nola Zirin, 15, Jericho, N.Y., narrowly escaped plunging into the 500-foot Bash Bish Falls gorge after her companion. Clutching at Miss Reiter as she fell, Miss Zirin slipped off a narrow path 100 feet from the top of the gorge but managed to seize hold of brush and pull herself back.

The Reiter girl landed on a narrow water-filled ledge some 250 feet above the base.

State police who climbed almost vertically to reach her said there was nothing they could do. They fastened a rope around her and lowered the body to the bottom by stages.

The girls were in a party of six teenagers and two adults who came here from Camp Try-Woodie at Hyde Park, N.Y. Police said the pair apparently were climbing the gorge alone when the accident occurred.

Miss Zirin was in a state of shock when she returned to the base.

Vets Group Awards Medal to Rickover

ASBURY PARK, N.J. (AP) — Delegates to the 70th annual encampment of the Army and Navy Union have awarded their Medal of Honor to Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover.

Rickover, called the "Father of the Atomic Submarine," is only the third recipient of the medal awarded by the group, oldest veterans organization in the country.

Previous medals went to Generals Dwight D. Eisenhower and John J. Pershing.

In voting Rickover the medal yesterday, the group said: "Because of his unselfish and determined efforts to develop the nuclear submarine, our country has gained material safety, and the welfare of our citizens is for a time assured."

Romeo School Tax Rate Set

21.1-Mill Levy to Include 14 Mills for Operation, Balance for Debt

ROMEO — School board members of the Romeo Community School District, meeting in special session last night, set up the tax rate for the coming year at 21.1 mills.

They authorized 14 mills for operation, 4.2 mills for the 1954 debt and 2.9 mills for the 1956 debt.

This reshuffle of voter-allocated funds was necessitated when the district was faced with a deficit of over $38,000 for the coming year, according to Superintendent T. C. Filppula.

He blamed part of the district's financial predicament on the loss of $700,000 in state equalized valuation this year.

Board members approved the prices recommended for the augmented hot lunch program for 1958-59. They are 30 cents for elementary students, 35 cents for junior and senior high and 45 cents for adults.

Disc Data and Chatter

Music in the Round

by Dick Saunders

There has been considerable comment in the past week from skeptics who disagreed with my prediction concerning "Nel Blu Di Pinto Di Blu" — a current national best seller.

I said it would not remain on best selling lists for long since, while the song is very popular, there are too many versions of it fighting each other for the lead.

Skeptics take note! The song has dropped completely off this week's list of top five sellers locally. Why? The record shops say that sales are split, between Martin and Modugno.

OPERATION ODD BALL: Taking all first place votes as the wildest LP of 1958 thusfar is "Wide Weird World" (World Pacific WPM-412) under the subsidization of Dr. S. Petterstein (S. for Shorty).

This album is a gas and a half. It's a collection of hilarious episodes interspersed with sound effects that defy the law of gravity. This I dig.

If you haven't learned how to play Three Dimensional Chess, this is your chance. Also included is a therapeutic message describing how to "break the habit" and an excellent example of telephone therapy. When finished listening, if you think the world is a cube, don't be alarmed . . . you may be right.

For the collector of sounds of bygone days, a sure fire bet is "Nostalgia in Hi-Fi" (Golden Crest CR-4002). The Golden Crest people have put together everything from Wurlitzer Band Organs to Steamboat Organs to dance hall nickelodeons in this LP.

It can best be described as the zenith of rinky-tinkyness.

FIVE ACES: Still in front by several lengths is "Little Star" by The Elegants. It commands a healthy lead over its nearest competitor, a coupling of "Devoted To You" and "Bird Dog" by the Everly Brothers.

Third in sales around the Pontiac area is "Just A Dream" by Jim Clinton. "Poor Little Fool" by Ricky Nelson is in fourth and seems destined for a fall. In fifth is "Susie Darlin' " by Robin Luke.

Coming up fast are "Born Too Late" by the Pony-Tails; "It's All In the Game" by Tommy Edwards; and "Rockin' Robin" by Bobby Day.

Actress Faye Emerson Visits at Lake Angelus

By JUDITH L. CLEMENCE
Women's Editor, Pontiac Press

The charming, vivacious visitor at the Jack Rothberg home on Lake Angelus is Faye Emerson, star of stage, screen and television.

We arrived and awakened her from a nap to chat with her about the thing she loves—the theater. She's here through Sunday while on tour with Noel Coward's "Tonite at 8:30" at Northland Playhouse.

LIKES 'COUNTRY AIR'

Early Wednesday morning she had awakened and "had the best ride around the lake" in the Rothberg's Cris-craft. "This country air is just wonderful, I slept so soundly and awakened so refreshed," the glamorous star said.

She is much more interested in the theater than in movie making, but she added that she enjoys "live" television, having no use for the filmed version.

Recognized as one of the best-dressed women in the country (she made the best dressed list twice), Miss Emerson appeared in a black, casual shirtwaist dress with comfortable thong shoes. Her hair was done in the typical Faye Emerson style — pulled back from the forehead with a chignon.

FAVORS TRAINA-NORELL

Her favorite designer for high fashion is Traina-Norell whom she considers the greatest American designer. She brought a Traina-Norell suit with her which she has had four years. Her usual prophetic sense of style is apparent as the suit could easily be chosen from this year's designer's collections.

Ceil Chapman, she believes, does the most for the feminine figure, and later during dinner at the Rothberg home, Miss Emerson said, "Please include Luis Estevez as one of my favorites. He's a marvelous designer."

When discussing the outdated chemise, the actress said she thought it was a comfortable dress, but most women did not take time to have it properly fitted or draped. The Empire silhouette she believes, is a flattering silhouette.

When asked about hats, she said, "I have a fantastic collection, mostly from Mr. John and John Fredericks," but she laughingly admitted, "I rarely ever wear one."

TALKS ABOUT SON

She smiled her broad, friendly smile, maybe even beamed a little when asked about her son, William Wallace Crawford III or "Scoop" as she calls him. She describes him as "adorable and just a wonderful boy—but of course, I'm prejudiced," she added.

Although he toured with the cast for the first month, at present he is visiting his father in California. The 6-foot, 18-year-old youth who attends Orme Ranch Prep School in Prescott, Ariz., like his mother is interested in the theater and its related arts—primarily in writing and directing. "He'd love it here" (at the Rothberg's), she said.

Always active in politics, Miss Emerson continues speech making, and fund raising between stage and television appearances.

The wholesome looking actress also gives freely of her enthusiasm and talent to civic causes including the Red Cross, Blood Bank, United Jewish Appeal, Cerebral Palsy and the March of Dimes.

After running up and down hills at the Rothberg's looking here and there for the best picture spots, the actress, whom to millions will always be the First Lady of Television, was more than ready for dinner and took two servings of the lamb and baked sweet potato.

TELLS OF PARTIES

She chatted gaily all through dinner about some of the most exciting parties she has attended. One of them was given for Johnnie Ray when he returned from England by Dorothy Kilgallen and Howard Rothberg, famed interior decorator, who is the son of the Jack Rothberg's. (He's done Miss Emerson's apartment on East 61st Street, and the homes of many other celebrities.)

And she added, one of the nicest after-theater suppers was right here on Lake Angelus. After getting out of the ater clothes and into comfortable attire, the group snacked and chatted at the kitchen table.

She looked at her watch, said her goodbyes and in less than 10 minutes she was out the door on her way to the next performance.

Howard Perry Rothberg, son of the Jack Rothbergs, is a long-time friend of the actress and is her interior decorator. He has decorated the home of many prominent actors and actresses and New York night clubs.

Dear Abby . . .

Reformed Husband Should Stop Wife's Get-Even Love Game

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

"DEAR ABBY: Recently a neighbor of mine told me that my wife had a man friend coming to see her while I was at work. I asked my wife about this and she said he came to see her but nothing went on except maybe a few kisses. I asked her several times if she was SURE it didn't go any farther and she said to me, "Let the one who has not sinned cast the first stone" meaning my record was not exactly perfect.

ABBY

"I admit I got myself involved a few times but that was years ago. Do you think because I have sinned in the past I have no right to know what my wife does while I'm at work?" NOT PERFECT

DEAR NOT: No one is entirely without sin and therefore (according to that proverb) no one should cast any stones. If you are through living in a glass house, go ahead and cast a few. What your wife does when you are at work is definitely your business.

"DEAR ABBY: We have just celebrated our third wedding anniversary. My husband's mother is beneficiary of his life insurance policy. After a few mentions, he still has not changed it. He says that I can be replaced but his mother can't. What do you think I ought to do about it?" UNPROTECTED

DEAR UNPROTECTED: I think your husband should have a long talk with his clergyman or insurance agent. His IDEAS should be replaced.

"DEAR ABBY: My problem is my grandmother? She is putting my mother in her grave. My grandmother shouldn't be living alone but nobody can live with her. We tried to talk her into going to a home for the aged but she says she doesn't want to be with those old people. She is going to be 100 years old September 9th.

"My mother cooks things and takes them to her every day and comes back crying because her own mother calls her names, throws the food at her and says she doesn't need "charity." My mother is 75 and this problem is getting too much for us. Please, Abby, give us some advice." END OF ROPE

DEAR END: Few 100-year-olds are competent to live alone, and your grandmother is no exception. She could be a danger to herself and others. Call in a medical doctor and ask his advice. Granny needs a companion, a nurse or a new residence.

"DEAR ABBY: I am a a young mother of two small children. My husband and I are separated and the only thing holding up the divorce is the money. Three weeks ago I started going out with a friend of my husband. He wants to take me on a holiday trip for a weekend and says he doesn't mind taking the children.

"My mother says she will keep my children for me because it would be no vacation if I had the children. But I think it might not look good if he and I went away together alone. What do you think? I am serious about him. SHOULD I

DEAR SHOULD: A married woman (and you are STILL married) should not take weekend trips with a man, regardless of whether or not she takes her children along. When your divorce is final, talk turkey, but don't gobble up the dessert before the appetizer.

CONFIDENTIAL TO LEW AT THE FILLING STATION: One-armed drivers usually run into a church. Don't take any foolish chances . . . you're young yet!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Mom Is One Who Invites

By EMILY POST

"Dear Mrs. Post: My son feels that when he wants to invite his "best girl" to have supper with us, I should be the one to ask her. She invites him frequently and her mother doesn't ask him.

"I think if I ask it makes the invitation too important so that she may expect special preparations. Also, I'd rather not make too much of this since they are not engaged. What is your opinion?"

Answer: Your son is right. At least the first invitation should be seconded by you. A girl with proper instincts would not feel comfortable to come otherwise.

If you were very friendly to her and made her feel at home, it would be all right at another time for him to say, "Mother would like you to come to supper," or "Mother would like you to come to lunch," and for her to accept.

"Dear Mrs. Post: When out driving in the car of friends, who pays the toll, when that question arises? Should the guest get out the money in advance and say, "I have it," or is this an insult to one's hosts?"

Answer: Under ordinary circumstances, the car owner naturally pays. But under special circumstances, such as when the driver is wearing a heavy coat and the guest has the exact change at hand, he may quite properly offer it — especially if the toll collector happens to be on the right side of the car.

Miss Emerson is pleased with the reviews of her latest show, Noel Coward's, "Tonite at 8:30."

Children's Sex Discussions Not Evil

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

In all the recommendations for permissiveness and the recrimination against the authoritarian attitude, it is being overlooked that it is valuable experience for a child to know that his parents will set the limits — and yet be loving and kind.

It is my impression that there is much too much "reasoning" and "psychologizing" going on between parents and children. What is needed is a father or mother who can say "No" without going through an elaborate song and dance.

IGNORE RESPONSIBILITY

Much that goes under the name of permissiveness is simply an avoidance of taking necessary responsibility and putting sensible limits on the child's behavior. Many parents are quite aware that out of fear of having a child rebel or having a period of unpleasantness with them, they will rather act against their own convictions — and even permit a child careless experimentation.

Modern parents have the tendency to compromise on important aspects of daily life to such an extent that there is no leeway for error, with the result that when the slightest thing goes wrong, the emotional tension around this mild error is so great that seemingly unjustified emotional outbursts occur.

It may be very hard for parents to understand that a permissive attitude also implies demands on the child and may create tension, anxiety and even hostility.

Very few people are aware that benevolence and love can be just as coercive a dictatorship as the old-fashioned open demand that the son should follow his father's footsteps. Permissiveness often takes the form of letting the child make his own decisions.

It is frustrating, even terrifying, to a child when he is expected to make decisions in situations for which he is unprepared. It becomes even more painful and confusing when he is aware that his parents want to be kind to him and leave the decision to him out of good intention.

One of the difficulties for parents who try to follow this advice of being permissive is the simple fact that they are supposed to put into practice something they never experienced themselves.

They have no inner yardstick to separate what their children can decide from what it is the parents' duty to decide for them.

Widely Distributed

Citrus Fruit High in Vitamin C

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "Where does one get vitamin C in foods?"

A. Vitamin C is widely distributed but in very small amounts. The citrus fruits are the truly reliable sources. Cabbage also has a high content but much of the vitamin C is lost in cooking. If you are preparing cole slaw, do so just before serving. Tomatoes also are a good source of this vitamin.

Q. "My husband snores and I cannot sleep in the same room with him. What causes this and what can be done about it?"

A. Snoring may be caused by adenoids. Overweight seems to have this effect sometimes. More usually, it is caused by a relaxation of the tissues.

There seems to be little than can be done. Most people snore when on their back and not when lying on their side. There is a gadget on the market which taps this principle. A small ball is attached to the back of the pajamas. When the person turns on his back the discomfort of the ball causes him to turn onto his side. A couple of pillows behind the back after he is lying on his side may keep him in somewhat this same position.

Q. "Does every woman need cold cream?"

A. Most women profit by its use from about 30 on because the natural oils in the skin lessen. Eye cream is a good idea even sooner than that. If a woman has unusually oily skin, she may not require a lubricating cream, or at least not until a much older age.

Q. "I am in my fifties and my hair is falling out so much that I am afraid I will become bald. What should I do?"

A. You should see a physician first. Some systemic trouble or dietary deficiency may be the cause. If you find nothing wrong, see a skin specialist. Also look to your general health habits and try to drop the habit of worry if you are a victim of it.

Q. "People tell me that unless a bust develops before 14, or at the very latest 15, it will never develop. Is this true?"

A. No. Few girls are fully developed by the time they are 14. Individuals differ in this matter. Give yourself time and don't worry.

Q. "Is it true that if a girl's mother has figure faults, she will have the same ones? Can nothing be done about it?"

A. This is not necessarily true at all. Since the glandular system dictates the distribution of fat, certain figures do seem to prevail in certain families. However, this does not mean that you cannot control the situation with diet and exercise. It just means that you must fight the tendency.

AWAY THEY GO — This looks more like a 100-yard dash between White Sox catcher Sherm Lollar and batter Bob Turley of the Yankees. Turley laid down a bunt to begin the sprint against the ball and Lollar. The Yanks won, 6-3.

Turley Chalks Up No. 18; Snaps Hose Streak at 7

By The Associated Press

Bob Turley had to beat himself, you might say, before he could beat American League teams with consistency. Now he has a shot at becoming the New York Yankees' biggest winner since Lefty Gomez nailed 26 victories 24 years ago.

The big right-hander, a lad of four when Gomez did his big job for the Yankees in 1934, licked his wildness with a no-windup style, then gained more control and learned to pace himself by pausing for a couple of deep breaths between pitches.

Now he's won 18, hitting his one season high with a six-hitter that beat Chicago 6-3 last night and ended the White Sox' winning streak at seven. With 33 games left, Turley could be the first Yankee to win 22 since Gomez, and the first right-hander to do it for the champs since George Pipgras in 1928.

Better yet for Turley, he now is 3-0 against the White Sox this season, a point he's always missed at contract time. "I'm particularly happy with this victory," he said, "because when I sit down to talk salary, they always tell me I never beat the top teams, like the White Sox." His lifetime record against 'em is 8-11.

While the Yankees regained an 11½-game lead, the Boston Red Sox moved within three games of second place Chicago by beating Cleveland 8-6. Baltimore tied Detroit for fourth by defeating the Tigers 7-6. Kansas City rapped Washington 7-4.

Turley, who had lost two in a row, had a four-hitter with two out in the ninth, when Jim Rivera hit a home run and Al Smith singled. But he didn't have it in the bag until the Yankees scored three runs in the seventh and ended a duel with Ray Moore, who had beaten them three times. Two singles and a walk loaded the bases in the seventh. Then consecutive sacrfice flies by Bill Skowron and Elston Howard, and Tony Kubek's but single gave the Yankees a 6-2 lead.

The Red Sox had 15 hits and 11 walks, but left 16 men on base and didn't put it away until a three-run eighth. Dick Gernert's 17th home run scored a pair in the winning spurt. Every Boston batter had a hit except Ted Williams, who left six runners stranded. Tom Brewer won his eighth, but needed relief in a three-run ninth. Hal Woodeshick (3-4) was the loser for the Injuns, who got homers from Vic Power, Vic Wertz and Randy Jackson.

Hector Lopez banged a pair of homers and Hal Smith hit a two-run single for the A's, who finished their scoring in four innings. Jack Urban, 5-0 against Washington in his brief career, squared his record at 8-8, but needed relief in the eighth, when Roy Sievers drove in two runs with a single. Vito Valentinetti lost it.

Forget All-Stars and Do Pro Job, Says NFL Chief

Browns Visit Detroit Tonight for Exhibition Charity Game

By BRUNO L. KEARNS
Sports Editor, Pontiac Press

The annual message which goes to the World's Championship team each year was delivered to the Lions' coaches by phone yesterday from NFL commissioner Bert Bell.

"Forget the All-Star game and do the job you're capable of doing," said Bell, "there never was a more inspirational team than Detroit last year."

The Lions get into pro competition tonight for the first time against the Cleveland Browns in a benefit game at Briggs Stadium and coach George Wilson hopes the team will do just what Bell suggested, to forget about the game in Chicago last week.

The Browns have one pro game under their belt, a 10-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Coach Paul Brown may use as many as four rookies in the starting lineup against the Lions tonight.

Leroy Bolden of MSU will start at halfback and Harry Javernick may replace the injured Lou Groza at tackle.

Of course the big assignment may go to Michigan State's Jim Ninowski at quarterback who gets his first chance in pro ball before the hometown fans.

Other highly touted Brown rookies are Jim Shofner of TCU who may start at the flanker-back post and defensive end Buzz Guy of Duke.

Wilson also indicated he would give as many of the Lions' rookies a chance to play as was possible.

Quarterback Bobby Layne will have two thoughts in mind tonight, the first to shrug off the bad day he had against All-Stars last week, and the second to settle a personal score with the Browns.

It was in the Cleveland game last December in which he suffered the broken ankle and was out for the final title chase.

A crowd of 40,000 is expected at Briggs Stadium for the 8:15 p.m. kickoff.

AP Wirephoto

THEY'RE BACK AGAIN — The two most valuable players in the All-Star game last week against the Detroit Lions will be doing an encore tonight against the same team, but this time in the uniform of the Cleveland Browns. Jim Ninowski is expected to see duties at quarterback against the Lions while Billy Mitchell will be at halfback.

Both Teams Now Tied for 4th

Orioles 7, Tigers 6

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Detroit Tigers don't plan to be in such a sharing mood tonight when they meet the Baltimore Orioles for the second game of their three-game series.

Last night they shared fourth place in the American League standings with the Orioles by losing, 7-6, mainly on a three-run homer belted out by catcher Gus Triandos.

The big smash came in the seventh inning and climaxed a four-run rally for Baltimore.

Triandos smashed the ball over the left center field fence after singles by Bob Boyd and Bob Nieman were coupled with a walk for Dick Williams.

The four-run Baltimore rally came after the Tigers had staged a similar one in the fourth, and surged ahead 5-3. Johnny Groth started it with a single and then scored on Red Wilson's double. Harvey Kuenn walked. Coot Veal hit a grounder to shortstop Willie Miranda, but the Oriole threw wide of first base, scoring Wilson and Kuenn.

The Tigers picked up another run when Frank Bolling doubled down the leftfield line, scoring Veal.

Detroit's sixth run came in the sixth inning when Veal hit a triple that brought in Kuenn, who had singled.

The Tigers' first run came in the second on singles by Billy Martin, Johnny Groth and Wilson.

George Susce lost his third game against four wins, while credit for the victory went to Charley Beamon. It was his first win in four games.

National Water Ski Meet Opens

Birmingham Woman Among State Entries in Georgia

PINE MOUNTAIN, Ga. (UPI)—Mrs. Sandra Swaney Lecklinder, of Birmingham and Nancy Lee Rideout, Jackson, are favored Michigan entrants at the National Water Ski championships which began here today.

The two contestants are among a dozen Michigan skiers entering the tournament.

Nancy Lee, 20, holds the national women's jumping record at 81-feet, and is one of the very few women who can ski barefoot. She began skiing in 1952.

More than 100 skiers qualified for the National tournament. In five regional tournaments there will be 16 champions crowned in five divisions.

Sno-Bol AL Champs on Keith's No-Hitter

"Fats" Keith and his Sno-Bol mates were resting on some well deserved laurels today after bouncing up from the losers' bracket to win a doubleheader and the American League playoff title last night.

All Keith did was pitch his 2nd successive no-hitter in the deciding game to blank Drayton Drug 3-0 after Doug Hall had won the opener 3-1. Both pitchers also were standouts at bat.

Keith, who had been beaten by the Drugmen on his previous hitless effort, fanned 10, walked one and hit one yesterday.

Bell Sends Message

'Boost Football' Lions Told

In his annual message to pro World Champions, commissioner Bert Bell of the National Football League cautioned the Lions on several points in a telephone address yesterday from the league office in Philadelphia.

Bell said "you fellows will be on coast-to-coast television sometimes, Watch your actions on and off the field. You get in arguments and fights in your own family, but you don't talk about it and tell everybody about it.

"Don't talk about dirty players on other teams. Don't criticize officials. Treat them with respect. You'll get good and bad decisions, but the officials can't wait to get the films. They have to call 'em like they see 'em.

"Don't associate with strangers and don't talk to anyone about games and point spreads and so forth. Gamblers make their living on rumors. Don't go where they hang out. You guys have made this game great by your actions on and off the field, and it'll get greater."

Bell commented briefly on Michigan State's Duffy Daugherty and Oklahoma's Bud Wilkinson, who testified recently in Washington and were critical of some aspects of professional football.

"Boost the college game," said Bell, "I don't care what Daugherty and Wilkinson say about us. Boost your school. Ninety-eight percent of our players are college kids and we'll be playing in some college stadiums.

"Don't knock anybody in football. It's a great game. Boost everybody in it and we'll all be better off."

Costello Nine Wins; Men to Play Tonight

Costello Excavating handed Pursley Ambulance its 2nd straight playoff defeat by rallying for a 9-4 triumph last night.

Two homers in successive innings and a single by Nancy Johnson paced the 14-hit Costello attack. Pursley, which had 12 bingles, led 2-1 until Costello battled back for four in the 5th.

Men's regional play begins tonight with Shaw's Jewelers (AA) at Allen Park, Elks (A) at Port Huron, Southfield (C) and Spencer Floors of Waterford (D) at Flint.

Middleweights to Fight at Jefferson Ballroom

Two Detroit middleweights, enjoying unbroken winning streaks, will battle tough opposition Saturday night when they appear in co-featured 10-round bouts on Promoter C. W. Smith's Jefferson Beach Ballroom fight card.

One is Wilf Greaves of Edmonton, Alberta, holder of Canada's 160-pound title, who will face Sherman Williams, in one of the distance bouts.

Henry Hank, regarded as Michigan's uncrowned middleweight champion, will meet the veteran Charley Cotton of Toledo for the third time in the series of bruising battles.

Church Champs Play All-Stars

The highlight of the Pontiac Church League softball season comes up tonight at Beaudette Park when the champion First Baptist team meets the loop's All Stars for the 4th straight year at 8 p.m.

Floyd Hicks, who compiled a 22-3 record including four no-hitters, will start for First Baptist against Walt Sadler. The champs have won two of three previous contests.

Area Jaycee Golfers Slip

(Special to The Pontiac Press)

TUCSON, Arizona—Three Michigan golfers were still in contention for the 13th annual Jaycee International Junior Golf Championship but their position was not an encouraging one.

Tommy Grace of Southfield was in the best situation after firing 37-38—75 for a 147 total in the second round yesterday. This is eight strokes behind the leaders Jerry Greenbaum of Atlanta and Don Morano of Belleville, N. J. who each had 139.

Pete Green of Birmingham shot a nine over par 79 for a 194 total. He sank a 20-foot putt but otherwise his game failed to measure up to his first round under a torrid Arizona sun.

Chuck Newton of Ann Arbor shot a 78 to add to his 74 of Wednesday.

Greenbaum and Morano led the field of 107 as the tourney reached the halfway mark.

Tied at 140 were Labron Harris of Stillwater, Okla., 71-69; Mitch Secondo of Watsonville, Calif., 67-73; Fred Blackmon of Highland, N.C., 68-72, and Buddy Baker of Florence, S.C. 69-71.

One stroke father behind at 141 were Jim Folks of Ocala, Fla., 72-69; Biff Lovett of Portland, Ore., 71-70, and Charles Layton of Waycross, Ga., 70-71.

Lew's 4-Hitter Blanks LA

By The Associated Press

Yep, it's almost fall and World Series time. There's the smell of burning leaves. There's football practice. And there's Lew Burdette, pitching the big shutout again.

It's been a long summer for the big righthander who pitched the Milwaukee Braves to the world championship last October. At the All-Star game in July, he had only a 6-7 record. All those winter banquets that toasted his three victories and two shutouts over the New York Yankees in the Series were as much to blame as anything.

But since the All-Star break he's won eight of 10. He put an end to all that havoc Los Angeles has been playing with the Braves by rubbing out the Dodgers 4-0 last night with a four-hitter.

It was only the second shutout of the season for Burdette, but it was a pip—and the first for the Dodgers in the Coliseum. He didn't walk a man, struck out five and didn't allow a base runner after Gil Hodges, who had two of the Dodgers' hits, singled with two out in the fourth inning.

Burdette also hit his third home run of the season — all at the Coliseum—as the Braves regained a 6½-game lead in the National League race after losing three in a row to the Dodgers.

Cincinnati broke loose for an 8-1 victory over second place San Francisco, and the Chicago Cubs, with Ernie Banks hitting his 39th and 40th home runs, beat third place Pittsburgh 5-3. St. Louis plunked Philadelphia back into the cellar, 2-1.

Hank Aaron's 27th home run opened a four-run fourth for the Braves against losing southpaw Sandy Koufax (9-7). Duke Snider's error, Andy Pafko's double and Burdette's homer wrapped it up. Lew's shot, his fifth in the majors, counted two runs. In his last game at the Coliseum, he drove in five runs with a pair of homers, one a grand-slam.

Don Newcombe, who has lost 11, picked up his third victory for Cincinnati with a six-hitter. Leon Wagner had half the Giants' hits, one his eighth home run. The Reds scored four in the first inning, capped by Alex Grammas' three-run, two-out double, as Mike McCormick lost his sixth.

Banks drove in all of the Cubs' runs. His 39th homer came with two on in the third inning off loser Vern Law (9-11), and he added an RBI Double off the Buc right-hander in the fifth. His 40th homer—just two games off Babe Ruth's record-60 pace of 1927—was a solo shot in the eighth. Moe Drabowsky, making his second start since hurting his elbow a month ago, won his ninth with a three-hitter, one Frank Thomas' 33rd home run. Glen Hobbie pitched a hitless 1 2-3 innings of relief, taking over when the Bucs scored two unearned runs in the eighth.

Larry Jackson won his 10th for the Cardinals, blanking the Phils on five hits for seven innings and then giving up five hits in the last two frames. He lost his shutout on three singles, the last by pinchhitter Dave Philley, in the eighth, then got Wally Post on a ning balk by loser Curt Simmons (6-12) and Gene Freese's two-out single in the fifth.

State Outlines Season for Waterfowl Hunting

LANSING (UPI) — The conservation department today outlined the waterfowl hunting season for the year — a season with few changes from last year.

There will be a 70-day season on ducks and geese from Oct. 1 to Dec. 9. Shooting hours will start a half-hour before sunrise and end at sunset. Wood ducks will be protected.

Michigan accepted the maximum season under Mississippi flyway basic regulations.

The daily bag limit of four ducks may not include more than two of either the canvasback or redhead species or more than one of each. The eight-duck limit cannot include more than four of either species or four in the aggregate of both redheads and canvasbacks. Other bag limits are unchanged.

The woodcock season is Oct. 1-Nov. 10 in the Upper Peninsula and northern Lower Peninsula and Oct. 20-Nov. 9 in southern Lower Peninsula. Oct. 1-30 statewide for jacksnipe and Oct. 1-Dec. 9 statewide for geese, coots and rails.

Area Drivers Dominate Metro Modified Show

Pontiac area drivers stole the show at the modified hardtop races at Metropolitan Speedway in Mt. Clemens last night.

Chuck Partello of Rochester beat out Pontiac ace Joy Fair in the 20-lap event setting a new record for the track. Earlier he had posted the top qualifying time for the night. Fair won a four-lap dash. It was Partello's 2nd main event win at Metro giving him the point lead in track standings.

Other local finishers in the feature were Joe Doyle (6th), Norm Rust (7th), Don Irish (9th), Mickey Katlin (10th) and Rockey Berkheimer (14th). Fred Towne of Imlay City was a heat victor.

Two Share Lead in Canada Open

EDMONTON (AP)—Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., and Bob Goetz of Tulsa, Okla., fired five-under-par 65s Thursday to take the lead at the halfway mark of the Canadian Open Golf Championship with 36-hole totals of 132.

They paced a flock of par-busters who dominated the Mayfair Club layout for the second straight day. The parbusting was highlighted by a double-eagle two on the par-five fifth hole by Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill. The 29-year-old pro finished with a 66 for a 36-hole total of 135, three strokes behind the pace-setters.

3 College Girls in Semifinals

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) — The youth movement in women's golf today brought three college girls and a jobless "old timer," who'll be all of 26 this fall, into the semifinals of the U.S. Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

The pairings were just about as good as anyone could pick from the field of 189 players who started the competition Monday.

The first match sent JoAnne Gunderson, the 19-year-old defending champion, against Anne Quast, a rival since their junior golf days in Washington. The second paired pert Barbara Romack, the 1954 winner, against Meriam Bailey, a budding financial genius from Evanston, Ill., who claims she has a hard time adding up her score card.

Fay Crocker Holds Two-Stroke Margin

WATERLOO, Iowa (AP) — It's almost like my home course in Uruguay, Fay Crocker said today as she carried a two stroke lead into the second round of the $7,500 Waterloo Open.

Miss Crocker, at 44 the oldest player on the Ladies PGA circuit, shot the only subpar round yesterday over the windy Sunnyside Country Club course.

Two strokes behind at par 72 were Louise Suggs, this year's leading money winner from Sea Island, Ga., Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif., and Kathy Cornelius of Lakeland, Fla.

The 72-hole tournament, worth $1,313 to the winner, continues through Sunday.

The leaders:

Fay Crocker	34-36—70
Beverly Hanson	37-35—72
Louise Suggs	36-36—72

WILBERFORCE, Ohio (AP)—Darnella Everson of Hamtramck, Mich., pulled the big upset Thursday in the quarter-finals of the women's singles event in the 41st annual American Tennis Assn. championships.

Seeded No. 7 this year, Darnella downed last year's champion, Gwen McEvans of Detroit, 6-4, 6-3.

Clark Griffith Does Not Deny Transfer Idea

Washington May Try to Beat Indians to Punch in Moving

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Owner Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators squirmed on a hot spot today because the Cleveland Indians' announcement that they are considering moving their franchise is forcing his own hand on the same matter.

If Griffith really wants to move his club to Minneapolis — which yesterday he refused to deny — he may have to move fast before the Indians beat him to the punch.

If he decides he does want to move, he may have lots of trouble getting a vote of approval from the league and, in addition, may incur the wrath of Congress.

It's a dilemma, but Griffith now knows he's got to make up his mind quickly. William R. Daley, chairman of the board of directors of the Indians, declared yesterday that his club will "have to make a final decision before going to the October (league) meeting."

Griffith was asked point-blank yesterday, "Will the Washington club be here next year?"

"I'm not going to answer anything like that," the harassed executive replied. "I'm not going to say something now and change my mind later. At this time, I don't know what's going to happen."

In Cleveland, Daley stated the Indians' situation bluntly.

"Our advance sale in 1955 was 500,000," he said. "For this season, we sold 200,000. I don't believe it would take much sense to go into another season without at least 500,000 tickets sold in advance."

Daley conceded that an immediate, successful ticket-selling campaign would keep the Indians in Cleveland, but he added, "we need some assurance that the Clevelanders will be willing to support the Indians next season."

Daley's warning produced action by a "Back-the-Indians" committee in Cleveland which announced its first objective would be to draw the season's largest crowd for the Indians-Boston Red Sox game in Cleveland on Sept. 12.

Tribe Official Blames Racing

Daley Says Tracks Cut Baseball Attendance in Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — If the Cleveland Indians are forced to move to another city you can blame it on the horses, the Tribe's board chairman said Thursday.

Horse racing, charged William R. Daley, is ruining baseball here.

"Cleveland has more racing dates than any other city in the United States," he said.

"Seven tracks, operating day and night, have simply drained off too many entertainment dollars.

"Maybe," he added, "if we could send bookmakers running up and down the stadium aisles shouting, 'three to one he doesn't get a hit' we'd get the business back."

Daley said he had been under tremendous pressure from his associates to move the team to another city and away from the competing horse track.

Hydros to Race Saturday

DETROIT (UPI)—The unlimited class hydroplanes will be spewing roostertails up and down the Detroit river course tomorrow but a familiar face and entry—Bill Muncey and Miss Thriftway—will be absent.

Muncey, the former Detroiter who went west to Seattle, won the Detroit Memorial Cup race earlier this year on the river when Lee Schoenith and Gale VI were disqualified.

The Gold Cup champion then met its end on Lake Washington several weeks ago when it plowed into a coast guard picket boat, tossing Muncey overboard. He was rescued by a helicopter but Miss Thriftway went to the bottom.

When the sleek orange and white racer was pulled up recently, still with its prow in the coast guard boat, it slipped and sank back into 80 feet of water.

At least seven of the big hydros are expected to start but the entry list may reach 11. Two West coast boats, Coral Reef and Pay N' Save, placed orders for gas and oil.

The coast challengers already entered are Maverick and Miss Bardahl. Coral Reef finished second to Hawaii Kai in the 1958 Gold Cup race.

The Detroit entries are Miss U.S. I with the Kai's crew prepaid to work for owner George Simon; the Gale V and VI, Such Crust III and Miss Detroit. Coming from from Buffalo, Wildroot Charlie.

Carpenter Denies Stadium Site Deal

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Bob Carpenter, owner of the Philadelphia Phillies, says there's no basis to a report that his club has negotiated a deal for a new stadium site.

Carpenter denied last night that the Phillies were negotiating for 60 acres of property near Garden State race track, across the Delaware River outside Camden, N.J.

Carpenter conceded, however, that a friend, whom he declined to identify, had sounded him out on the possibility of developing the area as a stadium site.

Young Texas Star Faces New Test

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Nancy Richey, a 15-year-old bred in the tradition that second best isn't good enough for any Texan, faced another big test today in her effort to win the 41st annual U.S. Girls grass court tennis championship.

Miss Richey, fresh from an upset over defending champion Karen Hantze yesterday, was matched against second-seeded Gwyneth Thomas, Shaker Heights Ohio.

In the other semifinal, top seeded Sally Moore, Bakersfield, Calif. met third seeded Donna Floyd, Arlington, Va.

Michigan Open Starts

Harbert, Kocsis Favored

Chick Harbert of the pro ranks and Chuck Kocsis an amateur take the honors as the top contenders for the Michigan Open which started today at Atlas Valley Country Club in Grand Blanc.

Harbert, of Meadowbrook Country Club, won the title four times, 1937-,1942-,1945 and 1953. Kocsis did it in 1931, 1945 and 1946.

Wally Burkemo who has finished first or second in six of the last eight tourneys is expected to be Harbert's closest competitor.

Burkemo of Franklin Hills was the champion in 1950, 1955 and 1957.

A total of 160 golfers started teeing off this morning in the 72-hole medal tourney. Following 18-hole rounds today and tomorrow the field will be cut to the low 60 and ties for Sunday's 36-hole finale.

Glenn Johnson, state amateur champ; Mike Andonian, state publinx champ and Lloyd Syron, ex-state amateur champ are among the leading amateurs competing.

Heat Fells Mills, Illini Sports Head

SULLIVAN, Ill. (AP) — Doug Mills, University of Illinois athletic director, collapsed while golfing Thursday at the Sullivan Country Club.

Dr. Thomas Austin of Carle Clinic in Urbana said the 61-year-old Mills suffered heat exhaustion, but was in satisfactory condition. Mills will be hospitalized for three or four days, the doctor said. Earlier it was thought he suffered a heart attack.

Mills, who has held the athletic post since 1940, collapsed during the annual Sullivan Quarterback Club outing attended by most of the Illinois coaching staff. He was taken by ambulance to Urbana.

Jersey Sailor Leads 'Dutchman' Title Test

Bob Considine Says:

Nellie Revell Wouldn't Let World Pass By

NEW YORK—People . . . Places . . . Things . . .

Nellie Revell was a wonderful old dame. She died the other day at 85, still wondering why some New York editor didn't put her to work writing a column or why a network wouldn't give her back her microphone.

"What's wrong with those boys?" she'd ask, sitting in her little room at the Flanders Hotel in the theatrical district. "The way they're shying away from me you'd think I was 90. There's still a lot of pepper in the old girl."

Nellie couldn't see well enough to watch a television screen, but friends read her the newspapers each day and her little radio was a source of great comfort to her—though she sometimes argued with this or that commentator while he was on the air. When she broke a hip joint not long ago and wound up in University Hospital here in New York she dropped us a chipper postcard saying, "Well, I finally made it to a univesity."

Nellie beat a broken back, a forgetful broadway, bum eyes and was mending the busted part when she cashed in her chips. We know that wherever she is, there's a more understanding editor and a more reasoning network.

Mark Hanna died a day later. He was the agent and manager of a host of people in the public eye, ranging from Gypsy Rose Lee to Eleanor Roosevelt.

Mark lived and died content that he was put on earth to steer a generation of helpless celebrities into a fuller realization and expression of their talents.

He would find an obscure or diffident sportswriter, call him man, tell him he was a fool to be hiding his light and grow quite angry if the fellow said he actually didn't want to branch out into the magazines, the book field, radio, TV.

Mark regarded as a personal affront any show of modesty on the part of his clients. He insisted, in a way, that they live by his own concept of the Good Life. I was grateful to him for opening many doors for me when I first came to New York but his contribution I best remember was that he broke me of the habit of wearing white shoes.

Hanna was one of the ultimate sophisticates. Years ago he worked in Shanghai for a movie company and had Floyd Gibbons under contract. Gibbons was due to arrive by river boat from some sort of adventure in the interior and the company alerted Hanna to give Gibbons "a good old Hollywood welcome."

An hour before the ship was to dock, the Japanese bombed Shanghai. They were still bombing it, particularly the area where Gibbons' ship was booked, as the great, patch-eyed correspondent arrived.

Hanna peeked around a protective bale of cotton as Gibbons bounded wildly down the gangplank and above the roar of the bombs yelled, "Hi, Floyd. Best I could do."

Congress Votes on School Bill

Aid to Education Plan Born Out of Concern Over Soviet Advances

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 900-million-dollar aid to education bill born out of America's concern over Soviet scientific advances, was ready today for final congressional action.

The Senate was due to act first on the compromise four-year program providing 295 imillion dollars for college sudent loans and $59,400,000 for fellowships.

In agreein gon the compromise yesterday, a Senate-House conference committee omtted any provision for scholarship grants which had been urged by the Eisenhower administration.

The Senate had voted a $1,300,000,000 program containing both scholarship and loan funds. The House had passed a 910-million-dollar bill providin gfor student loans, but no scholarships.

The bill, as worked out by the conferees, would make available 300 million dollars to the states on a matching basis for science teaching equipment and adimnistration.

Funds also would be earamrked for such purposes as foreign language training institutes; guidance, counseling and testing; vocational education, and research and experiment in new methods of teaching.

The student loans would run up to $1,000 a year each, repayable at 3 per cent interest beginning a year after the student leaves school. Any one person would be limited to a total of $5,000 in loans.

Detroit Youth Killed on Way to His Wedding

HELENA, Mont. (AP)—A Detroit youth en route to his scheduled wedding in Seattle was killed yesterday when the car in which he was riding veered off the highway into a bridge near here.

The victim was Carl Dewayne Wright of 4291 Brandon, Detroit.

State Police said the car's driver, Margaret Broughton of Omaha, Neb., apparently dozed at the wheel and lost control of the car, which hit a Missouri River bridge at Toston, Mont.

Miss Broughton was identified as a roommate of Wright's fiance.

State Senators Split on Laws Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michigan's senators split on the 41-40 roll call which the Senate last night killed a bill intended to prevent the Supreme Court from striking down state laws not in conflict with federal laws on the same subject.

Democrat Patrick McNamara voted with the majority on a motion to send it back to committee.

Brigitte Bardot Offered Star Role in Wald Movie

By DOROTHY MANNERS
For Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD — When Jerry Wald first told L.O.P. about his plans for "The Young People of Paris" he said he was going to use the young people of 20th Century-Fox in the star spots. So who's he seeking — just Brigitte Bardot and he already has Robert Wagner tied up!

Kidding aside, I'm sure Mons. Wald really intends to give a break to some of the unknowns because there are plenty of parts in Jean Rasson's story about young people from all over the world who come to Paris to study the arts.

The leading role (Brigette, he hopes) is that of a beauty with a rich "patron" who lavishes wealth on her and she in turn uses the money to help the poor kids who don't have a nice old "patron."

Marisa Pavan's first movie since the birth of her son four months ago is "Solomon and Sheba" with Tyrone Power and Gina Lollobrigida.

Producer Eddie Small is now ready to start shooting in Spain on Sept. 15.

Jean Pierre Aumont and Marisa have been living in a beautiful chateau outside Paris since the birth of the baby and she hates to leave her home and family for such a long location. But she's been promised that she can fly home over weekends. Come to think of it, it's been a long time since we've seen Marisa on the screen.

The exodus of stars from Hollywood tomorrow morning is for the wedding of Ann Miller and Bill Moss in La Jolla. Ann's matron of honor is Linda Darnell and a planeload of Texas millionaires are checking in from Dallas, Ft. Worth and Midland to meet Bill's bride.

Others wedding-bound are the Fred MacMurray,s Kay and Clark Gable, Ginger Rogers, Conrad Hilton and Nicky (Conrad used to be a favorite dancing partner of the dancing bride) and the Delmar Daves.

Ann and Bill made up their minds to get married so suddenly all the parties their pals want to give in their honor will have to be post-nuptial affairs.

Same place, same night — Don Taylor with Mona Freeman.

Lee Anderson commented the Marusia Fashion Show followed by a champagne supper at Tony Duquette's studio, a very fancy dressed up affair attended by Natalie Wood and Bob Wagner, Rhonda Fleming and Harry Karl, Jayne Mansfield and Mickey, the Guy Madisons, Lois and Art Linkletter and Perle Mesta (who is dressed by Marusia and stayed over for the party).

Maggie Ettinger's pre-nuptial party for Suzie Mayer and Verl Dean Keiser was so festive with its sprays of white flowers in cupid-shaped urns that someone suggested the wedding take place right then and there and avoid the strain of the formal ceremony Saturday. No takers — Suzie didn't have all those fittings on her beautiful wedding gown for nothing.

That's all today. See you tomorrow!

School Head Tells Why Teacher Fired

DETROIT (AP) — A school superintendent testified yesterday that he fired a probationary teacher because she could not get along with fellow teachers.

At a hearing before the State Tenure Commission, Superintendent Carl H. Biefeld of the Lake Shore School District, said he made the decision to drop the teacher, Mrs. Jeannette Snyder, after he conferred with members of the school board.

The meeting was the fifth and final hearing on the case. The tenure commission is to announce its decision next month.

Biefeld said Mrs. Snyder, a commercial instructor at Lake Shore High School, St. Clair Shores, was "unable or unwilling to properly adapt" to her co-workers, although there was no complaint about her ability as a teacher.

"We felt it would be better for the system if Mrs. Snyder did not return," he testified, in explaining why Mrs. Snyder was notified last March 27 that she would not have her contract renewed this fall.

The tenure commission began hearings on the case after the attorney general ruled that probationary teachers in districts covered by the tenure act could not be fired without cause.

Kennecott Set to Recall 750 Men in September

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Kennecott Copper Corp. says about 750 men will be recalled to work during the first week of September at its operations in Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico.

C. D. Michaelson, general manager of Kennecott's western division, said increased sales, mostly foreign, have enabled the company to step up production.

Kennecott earlier this week announced it was increasing the work week to six days. Michaelson said the increase would hike copper tonnage from 26,100 to 29,900 tons a month.

Dream of Son's Death Comes Violently True

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — A mother's dream that her boy was destined to die tragically came true.

Lightning struck and killed Kenneth Luker, 15, of nearby Lamarque, as he rode his bicycle.

Mrs. Allen Luker told of the dream after being notified of her son's death.

Luker's companions—George Allen, 7, and his brother, Sonny, 10, were uninjured.

That First Day Back at School

It's Bad for Junior but Worse for Teacher

By HUGH MULLIGAN

If your children kick and scream and throw themselves on the floor in a tantrum at the thought of going back to school, don't worry about it.

Teachers feel exactly the same way. Only dignity and dry cleaning prices prevent them from comporting in a similar fashion.

Just ask Sam Levenson. The television comedian taught Spanish in New York City high schools for a number of years and he never learned to conquer the feeling of fright and frustration that comes on the first day back in school.

"It starts off in such a lovely way," Sam fondly stirred up his chalk dust memories in an interview. "They hand out the pay checks for the summer months.

"Then the principal makes his cheerful little welcoming speech. You know, so-and-so died during the summer. Classes are more crowded than ever this year. A little creative teaching will take care of the book shortage. Please, people (to a good principal, teachers are always people, a fact not always remembered by pupils and parents), as a favor to me, fill out your forms promptly and return them to the office."

FORMS, FORMS, FORMS

Filling out forms, the teacher soon learns, will occupy his waking hours and haunt his dreams for the rest of the term.

"What they need the first day is not a teacher but an IBM machine," Sam insists. "You sit there like a post office clerk filling out program cards, health reports, class lists, lost book cards, lost-lost book cards (the lost book has been found but the card is gone), attendance charts, lesson plans, guidance check sheets, visit of truant officer cards, classroom inventories . . .

"But the real block buster is the Delaney book, a massive card folder that's supposed to show where each child sits. Usually, while you're busy filling it out, a boy changes seats. Next day you see the empty seat and mark him absent. He spends the rest of the week down at the office trying to prove with suitable witnesses that he was there all teh time."

NOTES ARRIVE

Then the notes begin arriving from the office. A chubby-faced girl barges into the room without knocking, is tripped by the boy in the front seat, regains her balance and announces in a loud shrill voice: "The rifle club will meet Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the gymnasium."

She's hardly out the door when a frail, freckled face boy sticks his head in and timidly wails: "The French club will meet Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the gymnasium."

Says Sam, "It sounds like a duel, but before you can get the dates straightened out more notes arrive: a lost sneaker has been found under the fourth floor corridor water bubbler, student tickets for symphony matinees are available in the office, parental approval cards for football should be turned in at the office, the office has on sale a few used drawing boards, children desiring school bus service should go immediately to the office, children are kindly requested not to congregate in the office, the office will be closed for the rest of the afternoon."

Sam recalls an opening day at a Broklyn high school when one note-bearer looked him straight in the eye and demanded: "Are you Miss Wilson?"

EYE, EYE, SIR!

The message he conveyed was even more inscrutable, although written in the principal's fine Spencerian hand. It reads: "Mrs. Bellweather complains that her son came home to lunch with a black eye and can't see out of it. Will you please see into it?"

And so it goes. Not a line of the syllabus has been taught, the lost sneaker is still unclaimed, several teachers can't find the keys to their desks, half the school is milling about outside the office, and then at long last the bell announces surcease from the trials and tribulations of another opening day.

Junior's had it bad, but teacher's had it worse.

Seaway to Boost Michigan Business

MUSKEGON (UPI)—A member of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Commission forecasts a broadening of Michigan industry with the opening of the seaway.

John C. Beukema told an industrial development workshop here that a "new boom" will be sparked by the seaway — "the boom of the '60s."

"The entire nation will benefit through the shifts of population and industry the seaway will generate," he said.

He said water movement of coal should double in the next 10 years, regional self-sufficiency will be achieved in many new industries, and industrial growth may be slow but it will be constant.

Coppers Drop in Mixed Mart

NEW YORK (AP) — Coppers took some losses in a mixed and moderately active stock market today.

Gains and losses of key stocks went from fractions to about a point.

Rejection by Congress of the half billion dollar minerals support bill after yesterday's market close brought the expected reaction as trading resumed.

Anaconda fell 1¼ to 50¼ on an opening block of 1,500 shares but reduced its loss in later trades. Kennecott fell about a point.

Other nonferrous metal shares were either firm or inactive. President Eisenhower has before him a recommendation to boost duties on lead and zinc imports. American Smelting was up a fraction. Magma Copper was firm.

Very narrow changes prevailed throughout most other groups. The oils were steady following United Nations approval of an Arab plan for the Mideast. Gulf Oil, a big international producer, was up a fraction after an easy start. Royal Dutch was firm. Texas Co. rose a little. Standard Oil (New Jersey) also was steady.

Small gains were posted for Southern Pacific, Consolidated Natural Gas and Pan American World Airways. Slightly lower were Container Corp., Eastman Kodak, Florida Power Corp. and Illinois Central.

Opening blocks included: Pfizer up 1⅛ to 70½ on 1,100 shares; Container Corp. off ½ at 23 on 9,200; Schering up ⅛ at 40⅞ on 1,500; and American Telephone up ⅛ at 183¼ on 1,500.

Grains Weaken in Early Deals

CHICAGO (AP) — Hedging and liquidation weakened grain futures prices again today in early dealings on the Board of Trade.

The volume was not more than moderate, however, and traders said there appeared to be a growing resistance to the recent price declines. Some scattered buying, they said, indicated a stronger tendency among the speculative dealers to reinstate positions on a bit broader scale.

Trade had almost come to a halt near the end of the first hour with wheat unchanged to ⅝ cent a bushel lower, September $1.82¼; corn was ⅛ to ½ lower, September $1.25⅝; oats ⅛ to ½ lower, September 62; rye ¼ to ⅝ lower, September $1.20¾; soybean ⅛ higher to ⅜ lower, September $2.23; lard unchanged to 5 cents a hundred lbs. higher, September $12.67.

Discovery yesterday that stocks of commercial corn in one large Chicago elevator had not been included in reports of available supply heretofore is expected to relieve somewhat the pressure on short interests on the September contract.

Court's Critics Meet Defeat

Senate Kills Proposal to Hand High Tribunal Legislative Rebuff

WASHINGTON (AP)—By a one-vote margin, Congress members who wanted to hand the Supreme Court a major legislative rebuff have been defeated.

The bitter battle reached a climax in the Senate last night. A 41-40 vote killed a bill designed to prevent the court from striking down state laws not in direct conflict with federal laws on the same subject.

The vote came on a motion of Sen. John J. Carroll (D Colo) to send the measure back to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

Twnty-seven Democrats and 14 Republicans teamed up to put the motion across. Voting in opposition were 17 Democrats and 23 Republicans. The count was tied at 40-40 when Sen. Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah) cast the decisive vote.

The House passed the bill last month by a 240-155 vote, ignoring warnings that President Eisenhower might veto it.

The bill provided that federal laws should not supersede state laws in the same field unless Congress said so or unless there was a direct and irreconcilable conflict between them.

It also contained a provision specifically restoring to the states the right to enforce their own antisubversive laws—a section designed to overcome the effect of the Supreme Court's decision in the Steve Nelson case.

Nelson, a Pennsylvania Communist leader, was convicted under a state sedition law. The Supreme Court reversed the conviction on the ground that Congress had assumed jurisdiction in the field by enacting the Smith Act and other anti-Communist laws. The sedition laws of 42 states were invalidated by the ruling.

Sen. Jenner Bows Out With Emotional Speech

WASHINGTON (UPI)—"The time has come for me to take my leave."

So spoke Sen. William E. Jenner on the floor of the Senate yesterday as he began an 11-page "farewell" speech. It began softly, as have many of his speeches in the past 12 years.

But before he was through his voice was raised to his customary hoarse shout and his dark-rimmed glasses waved in his hand as he castigated "wild-eyed Socialists, ambitious intellectuals, power-seeking demagogues and hidden Communists" whom he said had made America "sick iwth a sickness that goes very deep."

An end to the emotion-charged speeches of the 50-year-old Indiana Republican will be one of the most visible—and audible—evidences of his retirement from Congress at the end of this session.

But his departure more importantly marks a thinning in the ranks of the staunchly right-wing Republicans who could barely muster a n audience for Jenner's farewell speech.

While Jenner has been most concerned with fighting Communism and lately Supreme Court decisions, he also has been a bitter critic of federal spending programs, foreign aid and many aspects of American foreign policy.

One of his favorite phrases is to picture the "clammy hand" of the federal government encroaching more and more on states and individuals.

The personally affable and friendly Jenner, leaving seats on the important Finance and Judiciary committees, summed up his estimate of his last session of Congress by saying it had engaged in the "wildest pending debauch ever engaged in by any Congress."

Almost as Jenner spoke, House-Senate conferees restored Indiana to a federal aid-to-education program. Jenner had successfully amended the bill in the Senate to prevent Indiana from getting any funds. He said his state didn't want or need federal help. Indiana congressmen had complained at Indiana's being in effect written out of the union.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) said Jenner's speech will "go down in history a s part of the warning sign, long overdue . . . of what has happened in America."

Said Jenner as he finished his farewell speech:

"To leave the Senate is not to abandon the fight . . ."

Car Production Falls to Ten-Month Low

DETROIT (AP) — Passenger car production in the United States this week fell to its lowest level in 10 months, Ward's Automotive Report said today. Many plants are shut down for the changeover to production of 1959 models.

Ward's said car output in U.S. factories this week would total 25,925 units, smallest total since 21,975 were turned out in the week that ended Oct. 5, 1957, a previous changeover period.

In the corresponding week last year 123,130 units were built. Last week's production was 89,677 units.

Ward's noted that assembly of 1959 models began this week at Buick and is scheduled to get underway next week at Dodge, DeSoto, Chrysler, Imperial and Rambler factories. Plymouth ended its 1958 model run Tuesday. Ford's 1958 production will continue into September.

The agency put this week's U.S. truck production at 8,676 units compared with 12,976 last week and 20,491 in the corresponding week last year.

Potter Scores Union's 'Lies'

Roundup by AFL-CIO of His Voting Record Called Slanderous

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) said today the AFL-CIO had published "deliberate lies" about his voting record and was guilty of "outright slander."

He distributed at a news conference a statement commenting on an AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE) roundup of his voting record on 13 roll calls during his service in the House and Senate. The roundup was published in "Michigan Solidarity," a labor publication.

Potter said it contained four "deliberate lies," presented one vote in a form "twisted beyond recognition," and "viciously presented" the others.

"If COPE is running a nationwide smear campaign against Republicans," he said, "working men and women who are asked to 'give a buck to COPE' should know what they're buying.

"A dishonest, irresponsible outfit like this can tear a public official to ribbons with one sentence" He called it "a juggernaught which is trying to take over the United States Senate."

Potter said his experience should put other members of Congress on notice to check the voting records published by COPE.

Items in the roll call roundup to which he specifically objected were:

—A 1951 vote in which COPE said he voted for an income tax bill "to make it easier on big business and tougher on the consumer." Potter said he voted against it.

—A 1949 vote "to cut benefits and reduce coverage of Social Security." He said he voted for a bill extending and improving the Social Security Act.

—A 1949 vote "against extending minimum wage protection." He said he voted for the bill raising the minimum wage to 75 cents, although it did narrow coverage, and that he had advocated increases to $1 and $1.25.

—A 1953 vote "to weaken civil service rights." Potter said there was no such vote.

—A 1955 vote to support a presidential veto or a pay increase for postal workers. Potter said he voted to override.

4 on 'Missing' Plane Safe in Indianapolis

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—An airplane reported missing on a flight from Kentucky with four Michigan residents was located today in Indianapolis where it put down because of bad weather.

The Civil Aeronautics Administration reported the plane overdue on a flight from Hopkinsville, Ky., to Napoleon, Mich., last night.

The pilot of the single-engine Tripacer, Phil Jones of Napoleon, said at Indianapolis he landed last night but was unable to get a radio message through.

His passengers are Mrs. Fred Pittman of Napoleon, her daughter and granddaughter.

OKs $6 Billion Bill for Appropriations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House quickly passed and sent to the Senate today a $5,993,404,900 appropriations bill stripped of a 589-million-dollar allotment to the Civil Service retirement fund.

The Civil Service item had led President Eisenhower to veto the measure in its original form.

Most of the money in the bill as finally passed is for the Veterans' Administration. It also includes $100,000 to pay pensions to ex-presidents and widows of ex-presidents and provide them with office space and clerical help.

The House Appropriations Committee bowed to the President's wishes earlier today and eliminated the Civil Service fund allotment.

Steel Pays 12½c a Share

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit Steel Corp. today declared a third-quarter dividend of 12½ cents a share on common stock. The dividend is payable Sept. 15 to stockholders of record Sept. 2.

Take Home Pay, Living Costs Up

Salaried and Nonunion Workers to Receive Raise at Chrysler

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today its July consumer price index rose two-tenths of one per cent to 123.9.

The 1947-49 average is 100 on the index.

At the same time, the take-home pay of factory workers rose to a record for any July. This rise was contrary to the usual seasonal trend.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics figured the average take-home pay of a factory worker with three dependents was $75.88 a week, a rise of about 30 cents from June.

The July rise in living costs will mean a further small pay rise for about 500,000 workers—chiefly in aircraft and electrical equipment industries—whose union contracts are geared to the government index.

In Detroit, Chrysler Corp. announced today it will give cost-of-living salary increases to 24,000 non-union employes, effective Sept. 1.

MORE

Union members whose contracts formerly were tied to the government's cost of living index will not get a wage increase, Chrysler said. The company estimated they number 70,000.

Non-union salaried personnel will get a $5 boost in cost-of-living allowances for the September-November quarter, bringing total payment for the quarter to $125.

Advances in transportation, food and medical care costs were chiefly responsible for the July rise.

The index has gone up in 21 of the last 23 months. There has been no decline since August, 1956.

Ewan Clague, commissioner of labor statistics predicted little change in the general cost of living for the next several months.

He said food prices will continue down but the advent of new fall clothing and then new model automobiles, both expected to cost more, will have the effect of offsetting a drop in food prices.

Although a small factor, Clague said this month's increase in postal rates will be felt to some degree in the index.

First class letter mail went from 3 to 4 cents.

Dividend Declared

DETROIT (AP)— The Board of Directors of National Steel Corp. today declared a dividend of 75 cents a share for the third quarter of 1958. The dividend, same as the one declared in the third quarter last year, is payable Sept. 11 to stockholders of record Aug. 28.

Networks Drop Dotto Suddenly

Silence Maintained by All Persons Connected With Canceled TV Quiz

NEW YORK—The mystery of the canceled quiz show "Dotto" deepened yesterday with everybody maintaining silence. "No comment," said sponsor Colgate. Ditto, said the two networks involved.

Madison Ave. was buzzing with rumors as to why the program was suddenly dropped over the weekend. "Top Dollar" replaced the daily "Ditto" and a filmed anthology series will take over the nighttime version of the show.

One reliable source gave this account: Seems there was a contestant on the show who was a particularly colorful character. In order to keep him on the program he was given the answers beforehand.

His opponent got wind of this and blew the whistle. According to the source, he was paid off to keep quiet. But the big wheels heard about it and canceled the show.

Reports that the FCC was investigating drew a "no official comment" from George Gillingham, its chief of information.

"I wasn't told that the show was going off until Sunday," said Narz yesterday.

"Saturday I had a red hot show in the works, and Sunday I didn't have a job," he said.

Why was the show bounced?

Bomarc Test Again Success

Interceptor Missile Set to Become Big Cog in Air Defense System

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Bomarc interceptor missile has proved again that it is ready to become a part of the nation's air defense system.

The swift missile roared across the Atlantic yesterday and zeroed in on a pilotless B17 drone bomber at a range of about 250 miles.

The Bomarc was triggered when someone pushed a button at a computer control center in Kingston, N. Y., 1,500 miles aawy.

It was the third time this month that the Bomarc had been fired successfully within the SAGE air defense system.

SAGE, which stands for Semi-automatic Ground Environment, is composed of a string of radar stations and electronic computers across the country. The system, which went into effect June 27, can spot an enemy air attack and begin retaliation in seconds.

The Bomarc, which could carry a nuclear warhead under tactical conditions, guided in to destroy the target without a hitch, the Air Force said. For test purposes, however, the 15,000-pound missile usually scores a near miss rather than a direct hit.

The giant computer in Kingston, part of the Eastern Air Defense Command, produced the Bomarc firing data shortly after a radar antenna sighted the drone from the cape.

The Bomarc, manufactured by the Boeing Airplane Co., soon will be operational at 14 launching sites across the nation. It covers a range of about 250 miles traveling at three times the speed of sound.

Borgnine Will Pay $360,000 in Alimony

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Ernest Borgnine has agreed to pay his estranged wife at least $360,000 during the next 15 years.

In return, Mrs. Rhode Borgnine said yesterday she'll amend her separate maintenance suit to ask for divorce.

The property settlement calls for the actor to give her 12½ per cent of his gross income during the 15-year period or $2,000 a month alimony, whichever is greater. Borgnine agreed to pay $150 monthly support for their daughter.

The couple married in Brooklyn in 1949 and separated last April.

Flushing Woman Dies

FLINT (AP)—Mrs. Carolina Fenton, 26, of Flushing Township, was killed Thursday when a car driven by her husband, John 30, collided head on with another auto in Flint. Fenton and the driver of the other car, James Flannery, 22, suffered minor injuries.

Bob Hope in Chicago to Assist Sanatorium

CHICAGO (AP)—Today is Bob Hope day in Chicago.

Hope and his wife, Dolores, will be guests at a $50-a-plate testimonial dinner for Hope tonight to raise $25,000 for La Rabida Sanatorium.

The sanatorium helps youngsters suffering from rheumatic fever and conducts research on the disease.

Tomorrow night Hope will be one of the main attractions at the Chicago Tribune's 29th annual Chicagoland Music Festival at Soldier Field.

Chicago Plans to Bid for Party Conventions

CHICAGO (AP)—This city will bid for both the Democratic and Republican national conventions in 1960, says Mayor Richard E. Daley.

Both parties held their 1952 conventions here and two years ago the Democrats met here while the Republicans met in San Francisco.

Bride at 13 Plus Mother at 14 Equals Grampa at 31

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — Jerry Lee Lewis' 14-year-old bride Myra is absolutely, positively and unqualifiedly expecting a baby around New Year's. Myra, who was married in December and turned 14 July 22, has so informed her father, J. W. Brown, who'll become a grandpappy at a ripe old 31. Jerry Lee has just signed for two Hollywood movies, one titled "Beat Generation," and is earning about $10,000-a-week doing personal appearances.

WILSON

Elsa Maxwell will be back on the Jack Paar TV show no matter what you may have heard. Jack assured NBC he can handle Elsa and NBC said, "Anything you want—it's your show."

Harry Hershfield told the crowd in the Catskills that his pal, Max Asnas, visiting in Israel, got some fish he didn't like. Max, unperturbed asked the restaurateur if he'd like some N.Y. salami which Max was carrying with him. The restaurateur licked his lips over it and then said, "Tell me, if you had this, why did you order fish?"

Another story which Harry says is a favorite in Israel now. An Israeli woman wheeling a new baby was stopped by an Egyptian officer who asked her the baby's name. "Nasser," she said. Amazed, he asked her what her name was. "Goldberg," she said. He exclaimed, "After what Nasser has done to your people, how could you name your baby after him, Mrs. Goldberg?" She glared and said, "Miss Goldberg, please!"

The San Francisco contact lenser says the girl they'd like most to keep in contact with is Wilson Girl Nominee Laura Manson, dancer, there.

Hospital May Lose Money Over City Parking Area

Pontiac General Hospital says it stands to loose $19,415 in connection with the proposed municipal parking lot there.

The money represents the hospital's investment in three nearby houses in which administrative offices have been located during the building program.

The city wants the three homes plus seven others in the area to gain land for the parking lot. It has not offered the hospital any cash for its homes, but offers only to pick up the remaining $23,467 which the hospital still owes on them. Trustee Harold B. Euler reported to the Board of Trustees last night.

"It is not planned that we will be reimbursed for the $19,415 that we have put into the buildings over the past two years," he said.

With several trustees voicing strong objections to this, it was agreed on recommendation by Chairman Willis M. Brewer that the hospital would attempt to negotiate with the city to gain credit for this money.

"We're in a bad financial position as it is," said Trustee James Clarkston, board treasurer. "Must we forfeit the funds that are tied up in this investment?"

Comic Avoids Picking Up Tab

Television Star Adds His Interest in Money Is Purely Academic

By JACK BENNY

NEW YORK (AP) — Having been asked to do a guest column, I decided to write about a subject which has always appealed to me—from an academic sense of course—money!

LOAD LIGHTER

With the hammer ring upon the first coinage die, man's load in life became lighter. In his pocket he could carry enough money to purchase things which prior to money's invention would have cost him perhaps 14 stones or a watermelon, an unwieldly burden at best.

However, this hammer ring created a number of problems. The first was the problem of obtaining money. Second, and I'm not sure that's a proper placement, is the problem of keeping it.

Along these lines I have formed a certain set of operating procedures which I will be happy to pass along. Capricious buying should be avoided at all — you'll pardon the expression — cost. Never, in a weak moment, allow yourself to purchase something on a whim.

PROVES DIFFICULT

This may prove difficult for the neophyte as all the guile and craftiness of merchants is directed at just such weak-willed persons. Signs and advertisements drip with sentimental suggestions like "Buy your sweetheart a box of Goodie Chocolate."

A nice card and a candy bar will serve just as well. After all, it's not the money, but the thought which counts, and a card and a candy bar make you properly sentimental without overdoing it.

Never pick up luncheon or dinner checks at a restaurant, club or night spot. Once I picked up a check out of simple curiosity. I had no intention of paying it, but by the time I added the figures, everyone had gone and I had to pay or wash dishes.

Now from time to time, even if you follow the above advice, someone will push a check toward you. At this point you have several possible courses of action.

Providing you haven't drunk your glass of water you can knock it over, and in attempting to dry out the tablecloth, once again push the check across the table.

Or suddenly remembering you must make a phone call can extricate you from such a position, as can a sudden desire for cigarettes, a newspaper, or a just-remembered appointment.

I would like to make it perfectly clear that I am not cheap. It's just that I detest ostentation in anyone, particularly myself. Check grabbers are such showoffs.

Son of Tarzan Made Ward of Juvenile Court

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Actor-swimmer Johnny Weissmuller's 17-year-old son John has been made a ward of Juvenile Court.

He was ordered to a forestry camp for rehabilitation yesterday.

Young Weissmuller was arrested on suspicion of drunk driving last Friday. He was picked up in a disturbing the peace case last May.

The youth was accompanied to court by his father and his mother Mrs. Beryl Ginter. The parents were divorced in 1948.

Electronic Device Used to Pick Jury Panels

HACKENSACK, N. J. (AP) — Bergen County has given blind justice an efficient pair of electronic hands.

A special electronic device was used for the first time yesterday to pick two grand jury and eight petit jury panels for the fall term. It took 20 minutes to finish the job, which once took two days.

One electromechanical device punched cards coded to contain the names of citizens, and another sorted them. The 2,270 persons whose names popped out at the end will be on top for jury duty from Sept. 3 to Jan. 5.

Hal Boyle Says:

Gregory Peck Turns Into Movie Producer

NEW YORK (AP)—Inside every Hollywood actor today there is a producer struggling to get out.

Producer Gregory Peck has just emerged from actor Gregory Peck. With his partner, William Wyler, he has just produced a blockbuster Western.

The actor, who worked briefly as barker at the New York World Fair in 1939, is now on a three-week nationwide promotion tour for his picture.

"It's getting to be the thing for actors to do now," said Peck, smiling. "What we do is like the old-time pitchman, except we go in for the soft-sell manner.

"Basically what has happened is that the major studios now often just put up the money for a package picture deal. The studios take a minor share of the profits, and the artists take the major share."

"There is always a day of reckoning," said Peck. "Just as the major share of the loot now goes to the artist, so does the major share of the blame — and this present dream setup won't last long if the results aren't good.

"So far they have been good. Some of the best pictures have been and are being made by the independent producers."

Why does an actor want to assume the added burdens and risks that go with directing and producing? It isn't just the hope of making more money he can keep.

"I've been acting for 15 years," said Peck. "There simply comes a time when it isn't enough to wait for someone else to pick out your stories and tell you when to work.

"I feel that any actor who survives in this business for 15 years is entitled, in varying degree, to go on and become a director or producer. After all, even as an actor, you are directing yourself."

"I can't stand negligence, laziness or casualness when it comes to work," he said. "It doesn't pay off. You have to put everything you have into anything to get good well. Most of his 28 pictures — Peck started in 1943, a star from the start—have done well at the boxoffices.

"I don't have much time to speculate on what I'm afraid of," he remarked. "But I suppose the thing I fear most is being mediocre. I like to excel."

Every man has a creed he lives by whether he ever puts it into words or not. Asked to name his, Peck hesitated, then said:

"Do good work; try to grow in spirit; fear nothing, and remember God. They're the oldest saws in the book, but they stand up.

"I have a religion. I'm a Catholic. It is hard for me to imagine a life without it. I think the people who don't have a religion don't know what they are missing in life."

South Koreans Trap Communist Agents

SEOUL (AP) — South Korean police said they successfully ambushed a Communist landing party last night and killed three North Korean agents in a blazing offshore gun battle.

The police said they sank the Communists' motorboat and captured a fourth North Korean operative, two rifles, several hand grenades and other items. They added there were no South Korean casualties.

The ambush occurred off Haenam, at the southwest tip of Korea. The police said they learned of the landing attempt in advance and set their trap.
