Milo Cross Asks Careful Study on Courthouse

Says Need Is Great but Proposed Site Will Hurt Downtown Business

Milo J. Cross, president of the Pontiac State Bank, today urged careful study before making a final decision as to location of a new courthouse for Oakland County.

The Board of Supervisors has proposed construction of a new courthouse on property the county owns between West Boulevard and Telegraph Road.

This land is a part of the county's building center on which the County Contagious Hospital, Nurses' Home, Children's Home, County Infirmary and other buildings stand.

Financing of a new courthouse on this site will be a special issue on the November ballot. The site already has been annexed to the City of Pontiac at the supervisors' request.

"There can be no question of the need for a new courthouse," said Cross in an interview with the Pontiac Press. "The present building is completely outgrown."

"I am convinced that moving the courthouse to the extreme western edge of the city will hurt business in downtown Pontiac and I agree with Clarence Patterson that there is no property at the proposed site that can be developed for business."

"Many people from this area visit the courts and various county offices each day. They naturally contribute to the shopping volume downtown. So do the many county employees who work in the courthouse."

"I believe moving the courthouse will decrease property values downtown, and I feel this question should be seriously considered, whether a decrease in property values may not result from such a move."

"Another question is, will our attorneys keep their offices downtown or will they move out nearer the courthouse?"

"And who will provide transportation for the general public who have to do business at the courthouse and who do not drive?"

"One of the reasons voiced for moving to the proposed location is the lack of adequate, low priced, short-term parking facilities downtown. The city already has made a fine start in this direction. I firmly believe that use of the new city parking area will soon lead to additional city-owned lots, so (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Police Force Boasts Double Feature

LOOK-ALIKES—That sums up the philosophy of Fred and Ted Goines, both members of the Pontiac Police force. Better known as the "twins" by their fellow officers, both Fred and Ted were promoted to desk sergeants at the same time last June. "We both graduated from high school together, joined the force at the same time 13 years ago and that's the way it'll always be—double or nothing." The twins, 40 years old, are married and have children. That's Fred on the left. How can you tell? Well, he's 17 minutes older.

McCarthy Seems to Face Uphill Struggle in Senate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McCarthy appeared today to face an uphill fight in fending off a vote of censure when the Senate meets Nov. 8 to weigh his conduct.

Some of his associates privately conceded as much, but they said the Wisconsin Republican will fight vigorously and that the picture may change before the Senate returns nearly six weeks hence.

South Koreans Shout Don't Leave, GIs!

SEOUL (AP)—Thousands of South Korean organized laborers and disabled war veterans today staged demonstrations against the withdrawal of U.S. troops from Korea.

Some 200 crippled veterans staged a sitdown strike in front of the American embassy while another 100 were shouting anti-withdrawal slogans at the gate of the foreign correspondents' billets.

Veterans leaders said 50,000 Korean war veterans joined 200,000 labor unionists demonstrating in major South Korea cities today against the redeployment of U. S. troops.

U.S. and Canada to Build Radar Fence in the Arctic

WASHINGTON (UP)—Concern over the development of two Russian jet bomber types helped prompt a decision by the United States and Canada to erect a radar fence as far into the Arctic as possible.

"Our security requires it," a joint statement said in announcing yesterday that a distant early warning (DEW) line will be built across "the most northerly practicable part of North America."

The two Russian bombers, which first appeared over Moscow several months ago, have altered a number of defense calculations. Outstanding among them is the amount of time industrial areas might have to prepare for attack after the first warning.

When scientists and airmen were considering a DEW line more casually than they are now, they thought in terms of six hours warning to major cities in the northern United States. That was when Russia's bomber force could be expected to mount 300-mile an hour B-29 or B-50 piston-engine Superforts.

Now the Russians presumably are producing their new types—resembling America's medium B-47 and heavy B-52 jets—which caught the Western world by surprise with their estimated 600-mile an hour speeds.

Result: The warning time from, say, the proposed DEW line to Chicago is cut to three hours. And the line won't be installed for quite some time yet. The DEW line will be the third

The 1,279 delegates attending the conference represent 6,982,822 votes.

The victory for the Attlee forces came shortly after former Chancellor of the Exchequer Hugh Gaitskill defeated Bevan for party treasurer.

Gaitskill's margin over Bevan, who thus was left without a seat on the policy-making national executive committee, and over a third candidate, was better than two to one.

His victory means the Labor Party now formally regards Gaitskill as its future leader and potential successor to Attlee.

Amid an uproar of cheers and booing during debate on the rearmament resolution Laborite MP Desmond Donnelly, warned the conference that a negative attitude would result in Germany's going ahead with armaments without controls.

He then pointed a finger directly at Bevan and said: "Some people will bear a heavy responsibility to history."

Army Officials Confer With Ike

Stevens and Ridgway Visit Denver Vacation Headquarters

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower arranged a conference today with Secretary of the Army Stevens and General Matthew B. Ridgway, Army chief of staff.

Murray Snyder, assistant presidential press secretary, told newsmen there was no emergency bringing the two top Army officials to Eisenhower's vacation headquarters but declined to give any reason for the conference.

Stevens saw the President briefly in Oregon last Thursday when the chief executive spoke at McNary Dam dedication ceremonies. Ridgway and Eisenhower have not consulted since the chief executive started his Colorado vacation Aug. 21.

Another caller on the President's list today was Dr. Arthur F. Burns, chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers in Washington. Burns customarily reports to Eisenhower every Monday morning. But they have not met in more than five weeks.

They were reports here, meanwhile, that the President plans to get away this weekend for another four or five-day stay at a Rocky Mountain trout fishing camp he has visited twice since his vacation began.

The camp is located at the secluded ranch of two of Eisenhower's old friends, Alvin and Carl Norgren, at Fraser, Colo., 70 miles northwest of Denver.

Since his last visit to Fraser, the area has had its first snow storm of the year, capping in white the nearby mountains rising to nearly 14,000 feet. The elevation at Fraser itself is more than 9,000 feet.

Eisenhower's headquarters here in Denver announced today that he and Secretary of Agriculture Benson have requested the nation's railroads to reduce rates on hay shipments into states hit by the drought.

Benson reported to the President here yesterday on drought conditions in 700 counties in 15 states.

Last year, in response to a similar appeal by the government, the railroads reduced freight rates 50 per cent.

Oct. 4 Is Registration Deadline in County

The Pontiac City Clerk's Office will be open until 8 p.m. Thursday and Friday to accommodate persons wishing to register for the Nov. 2 general election.

The last day to register in clerk's offices in all Oakland County governmental units is Oct. 4.

Besides the clerk's office, Pontiac citizens may register at six other locations, according to City Clerk Ada R. Evans. They are, 21½ E. Lawrence St., 386 E. Kennett Rd., 90 Mt. Clemens St., 532 S. Saginaw St., 821 Baldwin Ave., and 159 Wesson St.

AFL Re-elects Officers, Then Heads for Home

Convention Ends After Condemning GOP and Planning Expansion

LOS ANGELES (INS)

More than 700 top officials of the American Federation of Labor began streaming home today from their Los Angeles convention, where they re-elected all their officers, condemned the GOP administration and planned huge expansion.

The eight-day parley came to a close yesterday after George Meany was chosen without opposition to his third term as general president of the 10,200,000-member organization.

The 73rd annual meeting, selected Seattle, Wash., for its 1956 gathering, Chicago already had been set as the 1955 convention site.

The delegates adopted a long list of resolutions, headed by one declaring America's economy is in a recession and urging the federal government to encourage new economic activity.

The resolution said that Secretary of Labor James Mitchell had strongly minimized the nation's present economic situation.

Mitchell addressed the convention last Monday and accused the AFL of being unfair to the administration. Meany shot back by accusing Mitchell of poor manners while the guest of the federation.

Mitchell told the convention that 1954 has seen "the mildest contraction we have ever had in any postwar period."

But the AFL resolution warned that "the 1955 economic recession shows no sign of abandoning its grip on our economy."

Meany last week also condemned Republicans for giving out fancy slogans, but doing little actually to combat what he called the unemployment problem now facing America.

President Eisenhower addressed the convention last Friday and was warmly welcomed, despite the underlying hostility, after he promised he would again try to get Congress to remove the so-called union-busting provisions of the Taft-Hartley Law.

The delegates rapped Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's Communist investigations by drawing a resolution accusing him of "brazenly flouting traditional democratic procedures" and by calling for a code of ethics for congressional leaders.

In other resolutions, the convention adopted a 10-point program to improve the nation's economy, including recommendations for increased public housing, reduction of taxes on low-income groups, more public works projects, broader social security benefits and higher wages.

53 Die as Train Crashes in India

Express Drops Into River From Bridge Weakened by Flood

BOMBAY, India (AP)—An express passenger train plunged into the icy waters of a flooded river 50 miles east of Hyderabad early today and at least 53 persons were killed or given up for lost.

Officials said it was one of the worst disasters in the history of India's railroads.

Eighteen bodies were recovered by this morning. Hope was abandoned for 8 railwaymen and 27 Indian troops listed as missing. Thirty passengers were hospitalized with injuries.

About 600 passengers were asleep or dozing aboard the eight-car Hyderabad-to-Kazipet express just after midnight when a bridge near the little station of Aler, weakened by a flood, collapsed beneath the weight of the train.

Bikes Dispute Way

GRAND HAVEN (UP)—The odds are against it, but it happened. A bicycle and motorcycle collided head-on at a local intersection yesterday. Gerald Geldersma, 12, the bicycle rider, was injured but not seriously, while Louis Kool, 18, driver of the motorcycle, was unharmed.

Divers Removing Bodies From Sunken Ferry's Hull

HAKODATE, Japan (AP)—Japanese divers today began removing the first of hundreds of bodies in the sunken hull of the ferry Toya Maru which capsized Sunday in a typhoon with the loss of 1,172 lives.

Three divers recovered the bodies of 20 Japanese on the floor of Hakodate harbor. They located the bodies of about 40 of the 60 Americans who perished.

National rural police estimated the overall typhoon death toll at 1,508, most of whom died in northern Japan.

Divers reported 43 rail cars tore loose from their moorings on the boat's deck when it capsized, crushing bulkheads, equipment and human beings in Japan's worst maritime disaster.

Only 332 bodies have been recovered. The Japan National Railways listed 173 survivors out of 1,341 passengers and crew.

The tides still were washing in bodies.

As a chill drizzle soaked the scene, a U.S. Air Force helicopter dipped low over the wreckage and dropped white flowers into the oily, debris-strewn bay in a salute to the dead.

Hundreds more died in widespread marine accidents, landslides and other mishaps from the typhoon, which veered across northern Japan with winds of 100 miles an hour. Four other ferries also went down with the loss of more than 200 lives.

The Americans who died on the Toya Maru were mainly servicemen—most from the 99th Field Artillery Battalion—and their dependents. Several missionaries also were aboard, including one who survived.

In the exchange Russia refused to go along with the U.S. plan unless it tied in a declaration outlawing atomic weapons. Secretary of State Dulles rejected the Soviet condition, labeling it a device to disarm the free nations while Russia continued to arm.

Another hint of Vishinsky's expected strategy was given just before Dulles laid his four-point atomic proposal before the Assembly last Thursday. Russia demanded that the U.N. Security Council, in which she has veto power, have authority over any international atomic agency.

Babsonpoll Shows Trend Toward Dems but Shift Light in First Six States

WASHINGTON, D. C. — On the basis of scattered and relatively small returns from predominantly agricultural areas, a noticeable switch from the Republicans to the Democrats is shown in the first report of the 1954 Congressional Babsonpoll, in which the Pontiac Press is a co-operative newspaper.

The poll, which is interpreted in terms of change in party allegiance rather than in total numbers of "straw" ballots, is being conducted on a nationwide scale by Babson's Washington Service.

The Babsonpoll, originated in 1952, claims the distinction of being the only national survey to predict unequivocally the 1952 Eisenhower landslide—even to the point of naming the four states the General would take in the South.

The first distribution of Babsonpoll ballots was made about two weeks ago, and tabulation thus far has been concentrated in the Midwestern farm belt. Results covering other areas will also be reported in later articles in this bi-weekly series.

States in which partial returns have been tabulated for this report include Idaho, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, North Dakota, and South Dakota.

In all of these states, initial returns indicate that from 7 per cent to 11 per cent of those who voted for Republican congressional can-

But Saar Issue Might Become Stumbling Block

Chairman Eden Plans Fast Action on Freeing and Rearming Bonn

LONDON (AP)—The nine-power conference on German rearmament got off to what delegates termed "a good start" at a 90-minute session this morning.

"It started very well but it is too early yet to predict any result," Belgian Foreign Minister Paul-Henri Spaak told newsmen as the nine foreign ministers and their aides left the music room of stately Lancaster House for the luncheon recess.

Echoing Spaak, Canadian Foreign Secretary Lester Pearson said the talks "are off to a very good start."

British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden was elected chairman of the parley, attended by U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, Spaak, Pearson, French Premier Mendes-France, West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, Gaetano Martino of Italy, Johan Beyens of the Netherlands and Premier Joseph Bech of Luxembourg.

Promising new trouble for them was a last minute French move to ring the troublesome Saar issue into the talks on West German sovereignty and rearmament.

Immediately after his designation as chairman, Eden proposed a streamlined timetable designed to win agreement within 50 days on freeing West Germany from Allied occupation and enlisting her troops in the defense of West Europe.

Eden suggested the occupying powers—France, Britain and the United States—draw up a plan for returning sovereignty to the Bonn republic. The full nine-country conference, meanwhile, would deal with rearmament.

Eden set mid-November—within 50 days—as a target for complete and final agreement, except for the necessary parliamentary ratifications.

The current conference is expected to last four to 10 days. The British foreign secretary proposed that it try to reach only general agreement, and that experts then be instructed to work out details for approval by a second nine-power parley to be held within a month.

Following this second meeting, the nine ministers would report jointly to a special meeting of the NATO council to be held not later than mid-November.

Occasional Showers, Cooler Is Forecast

Cool weather coupled with cloudiness and occasional showers is what the weatherman holds in store for the Pontiac area tonight and tomorrow.

U. S. Weather Bureau forecasters predict a 58-62 degree low tonight with a high Wednesday of between 70 and 74 degrees.

Yesterday, the temperature climbed from a 58-degree low to a sunny high of 80.

In downtown Pontiac today, the mercury stood at 58 degrees at 8 a.m. but climbed to 74 degrees by 1 p.m.

Actually, such a shift would have no effect on the outcome of individual House races in any of the states mentioned. That's because Republican pluralities in those areas were extremely high in 1952.

In that year, GOP winners in those states received vote totals ranging from 57 per cent to 78 per cent of the entire vote cast. Even the lowest of these would require the transfer of approximately 14 per cent of the Republican 1952 vote to the Democrats, in order to change the political control of the district.

Furthermore, the trend in the direction of the Democratic Party shown in the Babsonpoll to date would not be sufficient to turn over Republican Senate seats in the six states covered.

The Day in Birmingham

City Accepts Report on Fire, Acts on Bloomfield Sewage

From Our Birmingham Bureau
BIRMINGHAM — The city commission last night acknowledged a report from the three-man citizen's committee which absolved the fire and police departments from any negligence in the June 14 fire at 1189 Brookwood court, which cost the lives of Mrs. Couper and her sons Larry and Danny.

In addition to expressing appreciation to James Spencer, Jonathan Hall and Charles Kasso for the excellent manner in which the committee undertook and performed its task, the commission further resolved:

"... that this commission makes known to the people of Birmingham that the report of this committee confirms the well established confidence and respect with which the citizens of this community have always held the fire and police departments of this city."

Copies of the committee report will be forwarded to all those who testified before the investigating board and three copies have been placed on loan at Baldwin Library.

Tabled at last week's meeting, an agreement authorizing Bloomfield Township to receive services of the city's sewage treatment plant until January, 1956, was quickly approved by lawmakers last night.

If the proposed $2.7 million Evergreen interceptor sewer is not contracted for by that date, the agreement provides that the township would then buy into the Birmingham plant.

Already approved by the Oakland County Board of Supervisors, the interceptor would send sewage from Birmingham and five other south Oakland County municipalities into the Detroit treatment system.

Immediate construction of the city's major fire station was anticipated after commissioners awarded the construction contract to the Chasus Construction Co. with a low bid of $96,896. To avoid further delay, a separate $9,000 bid of the Belden-Stark Co. of Detroit was accepted for the purchase of tile to be used.

The $120,000 station to be built at Adams Rd. and Bowers St. will serve the industrial and residential areas on the city's east side, as well as most of the business section.

Startled Sunday morning traffic on Lincoln during church hours should be relieved by next Sunday, when at least the center strip in that portion of West Maple avenue now being repaved and widened is opened up, City Engineer L. R. Gare said yesterday.

The entire street should be opened by the end of next week, Gare said.

Organization of a youth club at Ascension Lutheran Church will get under way at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the church. Commencement who will assist the 13-16 year olds are the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Shipper, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hunt, Louis Lusa and Rodney Smith.

The Kanabans Hi-Y Club of Birmingham High School will start its fall program with a meeting in the youth room of the Community House from 7 to 8:30 tonight.

Addressing the group on program possibilities will be Paul Heins, director of youth activities for the local Y, who will serve as liaison between the YMCA and Hi-Y. President James Reeder will lay plans for an officer and club-member training program and a trip to Camp Ohlyesa on Oct. 16 and 17.

At Embury Methodist Church, the Methodist Youth Fellowship will attend the first fall sub-district roller skating party tonight, leaving from the church for the Clawson rink at 7.

A representative of Larro Research will bring Kiwanis Club members up to date on agricultural developments and related problems in Oakland County when the club gathers for a 6:30 dinner tonight at the Community House.

At recent elections, the junior and senior high fellowships of the Congregational Church elected officers. In the junior high group are: Amy Jo Cardon, president; Steve Taylor, vice president; Ed Busch, secretary and Sue Cooper, treasurer.

Elected by the senior high group are: Dave Allen, president; Bill Watkinson, vice president; Nancy McKenzie, recording secretary; Jane Lindley, corresponding secretary; Jim Tapp, treasurer; Charlene Suttin, faith chairman; Ed Peters, action chairman; and Tom Beck, fellowship chairman.

Family members of the YMCA are being offered a course in contract bridge. The nine-week course will be held from 1:30 to 3:15 p.m. on Thursdays, starting Oct. 7.

Sessions will cover bidding, scoring and tactics. Paul Heins will be the instructor.

Either advanced players or beginners are welcome and may enroll at the Y. A fee will be charged non-members.

A complimentary tea for all guild members is being sponsored by St. Peter's Guild at St. James Episcopal Church at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow. Mrs. David W. Thornberry will report on the Anglican Convention.

Mrs. Rosa Elsborg Graveside service for Mrs. Rosa Elsborg, 75, of 1723 Maryland Blvd., will be held at 1:30 p.m. Thursday at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery with arrangements by the Manley Bailey Funeral Home, Mrs. Elsborg died yesterday at Bloomington, Ill.

She is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Eugene Hesz, of Birmingham; Mrs. Frieda Burt of Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Rolf Elsborg, of Israel; and Mrs. Lucius Gilman, of Lake Hopatcong, N. J.; two brothers, and one sister.

Funeral arrangements are pending for Albert J. Charbeneau, 32, of 6 Valley Row, Bloomfield Hills. His body is at the Manley Bailey Funeral Home.

Mr. Charbeneau, a cabinet maker at Cranbrook School, died yesterday at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit.

Besides his widow, Virginia, he is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Betty Peacock of Rochester, Mrs. Leona Manigold of Keego Harbor, Mrs. Donna Mae Beamblossom of Bloomfield Hills, Mrs. Marjorie Ann Hotchkiss, and Mrs. Alma June McFarland, both of Pontiac, also three sisters, and two brothers, Mrs. Winona Rolison, Mrs. Ann Rolison, and Melvin Charbeneau, all of Mt. Clemens.

Mrs. Mildred Cherry of Union Lake, and Frank Charbeneau, of Detroit.

Early Poll Showing Some Gain for Dems

an important double significance. They would tend to indicate:

(1) That, right now, the Democratic Congressmen from the states represented — four of whom won in 1952 by margins of less than 3 per cent of the total vote—appear likely to be re-elected by bigger margins.

(2) That such a trend, if extended to other areas around the nation, would give the Democrats control of the House of Representatives by at least 30 seats.

At this point, it is impossible to ascertain whether the attitude of rural voters toward the Administration's farm program has been the dominant factor influencing the shift in voter sentiment thus far noted. If so, the total effect on the national picture would be negligible.

Two weeks from today, this column will report further on the results of the nationwide Babson poll, as additional thousands of ballots are recorded.

Meanwhile, Pontiac Press readers who have not yet participated in the Babson poll are urged to fill in and return the Babson poll printed on page 15. If you have already filled out a Babson poll, please do not fill out another one.

Detroit Pleads Guilty, Pays $10 Fine, Costs

BIRMINGHAM — Arthur A. Ethridge, 32, of Detroit pleaded guilty to a charge of simple larceny yesterday when he appeared before Justice John J. Gaffill, and paid a $10 fine plus $5 costs.

DR. GLENN CUNNINGHAM

Athlete to Talk in Birmingham

Former Track Champion Will Speak Tomorrow at First Baptist Church

BIRMINGHAM — The famed American track star of the early thirties, Dr. Glenn Cunningham, has included Birmingham on his itinerary while on a speaking tour, and will talk at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the First Baptist Church.

Open to the public, his speaking engagement here is being sponsored by the local Council of Churches.

Cunningham spoke at Birmingham High School, this afternoon, and will address another 50,000 students in the area in the next two weeks.

Cunningham, whose legs were so seriously burned when he was eight years old, that he almost didn't walk again, clinched his college career at Kansas University by winning the Big Six championship mile with a time of 4 minutes and 14.3 seconds.

Following Cunningham's recent appearance at Detroit's Cooley High School the principal wrote: "As principal of this school for nearly 26 years, I witnessed the greatest audience reception given to any speaker in our history."

Besides a B.S. degree from the University of Kansas, Cunningham holds an M.A. from the University of Iowa and a Ph.D. from New York University. He is nationally known in the field of physical education.

"I do not care whether I am censured or not," the Tribune quoted him, "but I will fight against establishing a precedent which will curb investigative power and assist any administration in power to cover up its misdeeds."

McCarthy, under treatment for a sinus ailment, was reported in seclusion by Williams and in too much discomfort to do much planning now to meet the censure move.

One McCarthy associate, declining to be quoted by name, said he suspects that as of now McCarthy might "lose" the votes of as many as 15 of the Senate's 48 Republican members on a censure test, and that he doubts that many Democrats would rally to McCarthy's cause.

He said the story may be different on the actual showdown in November, however, after the congressional elections and after McCarthy has entered his defense.

Williams said yesterday that defense will be "lengthy and vigorous."

And in London the U. S. Senate committee's recommendation that Sen. McCarthy be censured played second fiddle in European papers today to the nine-power conference on Germany.

It received its biggest displays in Britain, Denmark and Holland. Elsewhere, papers either printed the story on back pages or ignored it altogether.

British papers were the only ones to comment editorially this morning.

GOP Is Behind in House Race

Nixon Forecasts Party Can Win Next Election With Hard Work

WASHINGTON (INS) — Vice President Nixon is informing party leaders that Republicans today are behind in the race to win the next House but will retain control of the Senate in the November elections.

Returning from a campaign tour of the Midwest, the vice president reported to GOP headquarters that an aggressive party organization across the nation can win the House easily and increase its control of the Senate.

The number one GOP problem in this campaign, Nixon said, is to convince the voters they must elect a Republican congress to carry out President Eisenhower's program. He added the party must close its ranks against internal division and get out the Eisenhower vote.

The vice president predicted the GOP will gain Senate seats from the Democrats in Ohio, Illinois, Iowa and Colorado. He also defied some forecasts by declaring inspired Republican efforts can also bring GOP Senate victories in New Jersey, Kentucky and Minnesota.

Nixon reported GOP chances for Senate victories in Montana and Wyoming as even and predicted a dark horse Republican winner in New Mexico where GOP Governor Edwin L. McChesem is running against Sen. Clinton W. Anderson, former Democratic secretary of agriculture.

Nixon told party chieftains that President Eisenhower's popularity is as great today as it was and may even be greater than when he won a landslide victory in the 1952 presidential election.

To win this year, Nixon reported, the GOP must "equitate" the popularity of the party with that of Ike. If they do it, he added, the Republicans will win next November. And he said there is time left to achieve this goal.

In effect, Nixon declared, the party must convince the electorate that Ike and the Republican candidates for the Senate and House are one team — that if the voter likes Ike, he must support the GOP candidate, and if he doesn't like Ike, he should vote for the Democratic candidate.

Michigan Folks Enjoy Healthiest Year in History

LANSING (UP) — Michigan's 6,852,000 citizens are enjoying their healthiest year in history and are reproducing at a rate of 15,000 a month, the State Health Department reported today.

F. S. Leeder, director of disease control, said sickness rates during the 1954 "disease" year were at an all-time low while population continues to "go up like crazy."

Leeder predicted the 1955-56 "disease" year will get under way with a "revival of terrific colds" in October.

Leeder said if Michigan continues to gain 15,000 babies a month, the state births will reach a record 190,000 during the 1954 calendar year.

that the parking problems will be met.

"I would favor building a new courthouse on either the present site and the adjacent county-owned lot, or on the west side of Wayne Street, across from the present jail."

"The county could secure all the land on that block, from the Presbyterian Church property north, or as much of it as was required."

"This would keep the courthouse downtown, in the form of a modern office building, leave ample parking room adjacent to it, and still free the present site at Saginaw and Huron for commercial uses."

Nixon's Daughter Says Dad Should Be in Films

WASHINGTON — When Vice President Nixon returned several days ago from a political speaking tour, he found that his elder daughter had begun to take piano lessons.

Nixon, himself something of an amateur pianist, expressed interest and gave some fatherly advice to which Patricia, who is 8, replied: "If you had gone on practicing like you tell me, you might have gone to Hollywood. Then when you die you'd be buried in an important place."

Denies Weapons Charge

Free on $1,000 bond pending sentence Oct. 4 is Willie H. Watkins, 20, of 54 Mt. Vernon, Detroit, after pleading guilty to carrying concealed weapons yesterday before Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland.

Watkins was arrested Sept. 15 in Royal Oak Township with a .38-caliber pistol in his possession.

KILLER SOUGHT IN DOUBLE SLAYING—Police in Springfield, Mass., are seeking an unknown assailant who stabbed to death four-year-old Stephen Goldberg and his baby sister, Lynn Ann Smith, 14. Police say the pair were stabbed at least 62 times.

Maniac Sought in Double Death

Officials Believe Child and Sitter, Stabbed by Deranged Person

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (UP)—Police today began questioning present and former employees of Bernard Goldberg in the hope of turning up a clue in the brutal slaying of Goldberg's young son and his 14-year-old babysitter.

Police also were checking recently discharged mental patients because of the maniacal manner in which 4-year-old Stephen Ross Goldberg and Lynn Ann Smith, a neighbor, were stabbed some 50 times each in the Goldberg home Saturday night.

Goldberg, operator of a wholesale meat concern, his wife and other members of the family attended the funeral yesterday of their young son and several times were near collapse from grief.

Medical Examiner W. A. R. Chapin said "decent people today are bedeviled by folks who are let out of mental hospitals before they are ready."

He said "everyone connected with this case is convinced the slayings were the work of somebody mentally unbalanced."

Dist. Atty. Stephen A. Moynahan urged parents not to become "panic stricken over the safety of their own children," but advised them to "make sure all doors are locked and be very cautious as to the manner in which you answer doorbells."

City Tax Collection Reaches 94 Per Cent

City Treasurer Murray M. Ashbaugh today reported that 94 per cent of city and school taxes have been collected, which, he added, "is almost as good as last year's record."

Ashbaugh said unpaid taxes may be paid until March 1, when uncollected bills are turned over to Oakland County as delinquent.

Although taxpayers have until March 1 to pay, a penalty of one per cent a month will be added, beginning from the Sept. 18 due date, until time of payment.

Nineteen Admit Loitering Count

Seven Others Plead Not Guilty Following Police Vice Raid Here

Nineteen persons, arrested early Sunday during a vice raid at 310 W. Wilson Ave., pleaded guilty to loitering charges and paid fines totaling $665 Monday when they appeared in Municipal Court.

Seven others pleaded innocent on similar charges and were ordered to return to trial Oct. 7. They furnished bonds of $100 each.

Pleading innocent to a charge of illegal sale of liquor and furnishing a $500 bond, Earl C. Cocker, 22, of the Wilson Ave. address, was ordered by Judge Cecil McCallum to return for trial Thursday.

Mrs. Rose Nimmmons, 31, also of the Wilson Ave. address, and Emma L. Riley, 28, of 154 Perkins St., both charged with aiding and abetting illegal sale of liquor, pleaded innocent. Posting $300 bonds each, their trial also was set for Thursday.

Mrs. Nimmmons was rearrested last night by Detective Sgts. Donny Ashley and Herbert C. Cooley, both of the vice squad, on a warrant charging her with an illegal sale Sept. 16.

Ashley today added that he and Bernice Berger, policeman, have started proceedings in Probate Court, charging Mrs. Nimmmons with neglect of her 3-year-old son, who was placed in custody of the Oakland County Children's home last night by Ashley.

Wants Hearing on McKeighan

Prosecutor in Macomb Says He Needs More Data Before Trial

MOUNT CLEMENS (INS)—Macomb County Prosecutor Fred Nicholson yesterday petitioned for a preliminary examination of former Flint Mayor William H. McKeighan on eight-year-old gambling conspiracy charges.

Nicholson said he and his staff, which had no part in the original inquiry in 1946, are not acquainted with the personalities and testimony of the 10 available witnesses who remain out of an original 17. He said his only knowledge so far had come from "searching records and files" and that more information was needed.

The petition will come up for hearing next Monday.

McKeighan, a former state Republican leader, eluded prosecution by remaining in Florida until last August, when he returned to Michigan and stood mute at his arraignment. A plea of innocent was entered for him and trial set for Oct. 20.

Man Awaits Sentencing

Robert Hayes, 22, of Chicago, yesterday pleaded guilty to robbery armed and was ordered returned to Oakland County Jail by Circuit Judge H. Russell Holland pending sentence Oct. 4.

Hayes admitted that he and two companions assaulted a man in Ferndale Aug. 21 and took $86.

Runaway Truck Interrupts TV for Area Family

The Martin Siekas family at 1942 Shanklin, Commerce Township, received an unexpected thrill last night while watching television, when a run-away pickup truck backed noisily into their home.

The truck, owned by George A. Radionoff of 34825 W. 1 Mile Rd., Livonia, had been parked across the street but brakes were not set on the vehicle and it rocked the Siekas family when it tore off several shingles and stripping and broke down shrubbery.

The truck swerved enough to narrowly miss the Siekas' family car, their porch and a big picture window. An 11-month-old boy, the youngest Siekas, asleep in the room hit by the truck, slumbered on. Damage was not extensive.

Roberts' In-Laws Show Suspicion

State That Attorney Was Deep in Debt and Might Be Involved

MIAMI, Fla. (UP) — James T. Roberts, 43-year-old Baltimore attorney en route to Miami to face trial for the murder of his 7-year-old daughter, apparently will get a cold reception from his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rosenberg.

Roberts contends that his daughter was the victim of a sex fiend; he has discounted the theory—held by some police officers—that the child was kidnapped and that ransom was the motive behind the crime.

His wife, Mrs. Shirley Roberts, expressed belief yesterday in her husband's innocence and pledged that she will "stand by him."

Mrs. Roberts called her parents to tell them that she planned to fly to Miami today with her 3-year-old daughter Betty.

Grandparents discounted theories that the crime was committed for ransom. Mrs. Rosenberg pointed out that Roberts is known to have been deep in debt after an unsuccessful campaign for the Maryland Legislature.

FHA Sifts Complaints

Though the exact number is uncertain, it appears that some residents of the Walled Lake area are very glad the Senate Banking Committee visited Detroit last week.

The two day hearing directed by Sen. CAPEHART gave JOHN HOBBY of Van Hoeft Street, Walled Lake, a chance to complain for himself and others about some FHA approved homes they had bought.

In his testimony Hobby listed what he said were defects in his prefabricated house including faulty operation of the septic tank. He added that others of his neighbors had the same complaint.

Sen. Capehart told W. E. Edwards, Eastern Michigan FHA director, that the committee investigators had found that everything Hobby said was true. When Edwards told the committee Chairman that he never had heard of Hobby's complaint, the Senator said "you ought to have a more effective complaint system."

Doubt about the number of dissatisfied purchasers arose after one Detroit newspaper reported that many of Hobby's neighbors don't share his views. FHA officials also charged that Hobby had failed to furnish them with file numbers so his purchase could be traced through bank and government records. Moreover, they said his complaint was only two weeks old and that normally FHA is a month behind in this work. As for the septic tanks, that is Oakland County's problem, FHA claims.

Mr. Hobby nonetheless has rendered a public service by drawing official attention to the Walled Lake situation. The immediate result was the clear FHA statement that properly filed complaints get attention in the normal course of events.

Regents' Door Ajar

Appearance of accredited newsmen at a meeting of University of Michigan Regents for the first time in 100 years has made history at Ann Arbor.

This slightly open door policy was adopted reluctantly. Nonetheless, it was a partial victory for the Michigan Press Association and the people's right to know. MPA began the crusade for open meetings of college governing boards nearly two years ago.

Almost immediately the State Board of Agriculture which controls Michigan State College agreed to admit the press. Only reporters from the college newspaper were barred.

In contrast, the regents held out until now. But in admitting the press on a one year trial basis, they permitted a reporter for the Michigan Daily, campus newspaper, also to attend. The new policy includes reservation of the right to go into executive sessions when it is felt that matters haven't matured sufficiently for open discussion.

During the meeting the regents approved faculty reports furnished to them a week earlier. Their was no discussion of their contents and President Hatcher referred to them only by title. In other words, the regents' door isn't yet wide open.

Realizing that there are cases in which great harm could be done by premature publication, we believe this new policy is a step in the right direction. We also believe, however, that in the trial year the regents will discover that the responsible press can be trusted not to publish things which might hamper them in their work.

U. N.'s New President

Probably no abler or more distinguished figure ever has presided over the United Nations Assembly than Dr. EELCO VAN KLEFFENS. The Dutch diplomat who was elected on the opening day of the ninth session is now in his 60th year. He first appeared on the international stage in 1922 as assistant director of the legal department of the Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Since then he has gained renown for his phenomenal memory and great ability.

A tall, spare man, VAN KLEFFENS got his legal education at Holland's University of Leyden. In addition he holds honorary doctor's degrees from Franklin and Marshall and Hope Colleges and the Universities of Michigan and California.

Holland's Foreign Minister in exile during the war and after liberation, Dr. VAN KLEFFENS headed his country's delegation at San Francisco when the U. N. was organized. Now Netherlands Minister to Portugal and head of his country's U. N. delegation, he served as ambassador to Washington from 1947 to 1950.

With his deep knowledge of international law gained in both the United Nations and League of Nations, Dr. VAN KLEFFENS indeed is a worthy successor to the Assembly's retiring president, India's Madame PANDIT.

Pontiac Press Commended for Editorial Regarding Utah Indian Termination Bill

(Editorial will be condensed when necessary because of lack of space. Full name, address and telephone number of the writer must accompany letters but these will not be published if the writer so requests, unless the letter is critical to the nation.)

The Association on American Indian Affairs commends the Pontiac Press for its editorial of September 2 stating the case for a Presidential veto of the Utah Indian Termination Bill.

This bill, authorizing a federal walkout on its responsibilities to these unlettered and destitute Paiute Indians of Utah, was not vetoed and became law and the trend of the national government to abandon its protective relation to the Indian tribes goes on unabated.

Our national responsibility to protect our Indian tribes as long as they need protection is never questioned by a citizen who knows the facts, and the Pontiac Press is to be thanked for making the facts available.

We, for our part, should be glad to send a copy of "The Indian Tribes Speak," a collection of tribal statements, to any of your readers who write the Association on American Indian Affairs, Inc., 48 East 86th Street, New York 28, New York.

Follow Christ's Ways for a Happier World

The ultra scientists, especially the evolutionists, who make a study of the Universe and that part of it called Earth, say that all is the result of cause and effect, an accident and that there was no purpose, plan or mind back of the same.

They deny that there is any God or Divine Reason that planned everything. The Atheist says there is no God. He cannot prove this but because his mental make up is such that he cannot comprehend or understand the Divine Mind, he says there is no God.

The Agnostic says "I don't know," and seems to have no hope for the future. All three seem to believe that when their short span of life terminates this ends all. A rather sad and dreary prospect.

On the other hand, we have had great leaders and teachers in the past who did comprehend and believed that there was a Divine Mind controlling the entire Universe. The greatest was Jesus Christ who believed what the older prophets taught and approved of their teachings and went further and taught the brotherhood of man and laid down rules for right living.

If man would make an effort to follow Christ's teachings, this world would be a grand place in which to live and when life ended here the soul or spirit of man

A. B. Culver Disagrees With Dr. Crane's Idea

I think Dr. Crane's reason why a man gets more kick out of kissing another man's wife is poor and flat. The reason a man gets a kick out of kissing another man's wife is "I wonder if she will slap me." She should do that very thing.

Another reason, "I wonder if he catches me doing it." The husband might not be justified in shooting but if he did shoot he would only have to plead insanity and he would go free.

The kiss did not count, it was only the thrill he got out of it.

Brady Says He Would Never Submit to the Pasteur Treatment for Rabies

By WILLIAM BRADY, M.D.

Several Los Angeles readers asked me how I account for the (they give various numbers) deaths from rabies in the recent outbreak in Chicago, if rabies is a veterinary problem and not a problem for public health administrators?

On the other hand a number of Chicago readers have asked the same rhetorical question with reference to the fatal cases of rabies in the recent Los Angeles "outbreak."

It is beyond even my capacity to diagnose, explain or account for anything on hearsay.

But, for the benefit of the health "authorities" of Chicago and Los Angeles, and for your benefit, if you are confused enough about "hydrophobia" to worry about it in any situation, I'll cite once more the conclusion reached by Drs. Denison and Dowling, health officer and director of health department laboratory in Jefferson County (Birmingham), Alabama, after their ten to seventeen years experience dealing with the rabies problem in what they said it called "the rabies capital of North America."

"Rabies is primarily a veterinary problem. Regardless of its prevalence among dogs, it will probably never cause sufficient morbidity or mortality among human beings in this region to allow its classification as a public health problem of importance."

The main point of all the mad dog publicity appears to be to keep people confused. People fear what they don't know.

Even if rabies occurs in man, which I doubt, the possibility scarcely warrants all the to-do health department politicians, headline hunters and cushy job-holders make of it.

There is no scientific evidence that so-called Pasteur treatment prevents anything, none that I know of, at any rate, and I'll consider courteously any courteous dissent a physician or health officer may make to this statement.

Dr. T. F. Sellers, after thirty years of practical experience with the mad dog problem, for some years of the time as state health commissioner, considered administration of antirabic vaccine (Pasteur treatment) to persons actually bitten or scratched by known or suspected rabid animals relatively simple and justifiable, "but for exposures other than actual bites, the danger of treatment complications far exceeds that of either rabies or rabiphobia."

David Lawrence Says:

Watkins Report Introduces Real Totalitarian Concept

WASHINGTON — Oliver Wendell Holmes—the great liberal who was associate justice of the Supreme Court of the United States—once wrote that "freedom of speech is freedom for the thought we hate."

The Senate committee of six has, in effect, just repudiated that doctrine and has introduced instead a totalitarian concept which proposes that a senator be punished hereafter or censured by the United States Senate not for what he has done but because what he has said is disliked.

The two charges on which the Senate committee has recommended censure are based upon views and opinions expressed by the senator from Wisconsin in letters or speeches or public statements.

This means that hereafter an intolerant majority in Congress can intimidate, if not suppress, minority opinion. It can cite the Watkins report as justification. It can threaten to punish dissenters. Conformity of thought alone would be safe.

The Senate of the United States is being asked, moreover, by one of its own committees for the first time in the history of Congress to regard the expression of unpopular or even distasteful opinion as disorderly behavior. That's the only phrase in the Constitution which permits either house of Congress to punish its members.

Up to now, it has been properly applied only to fist fights on the floor of the Senate between senators.

Never before has that phrase been construed to apply to language used by a member of Congress, but now it opens up a wide field. If the Senate approves the Watkins Committee report, it will be morally obligated to start immediately censuring proceedings against other senators who have said things equivalent to those expressed by Senator McCarthy.

When the entire Senate begins to discuss the Watkins report on November 8, the American people will get all the facts surrounding the behavior of the Watkins Committee itself, which in some respects deserves censure.

They will learn for the first time from the lips of Senator McCarthy himself what General Lawton told him about the Wisconsin senator's efforts to rid Ft. Monmouth of spies. The Watkins Committee declined to press General Lawton to reveal the facts and he himself feared he might be punished by the Army—something no congressional committee heretofore has regarded as a valid reason for withholding information vital to Congress. That story will disclose why Senator McCarthy lost patience with General Zwicker.

Most challenging for the future of the Senate itself is the declaration by the Watkins Committee that it disregards the voice of the people in elections and that it is justified in going back as many years as it pleases to dig up whatever a senator may have said before his current term began.

This is the first time that such a usurpation of power has ever been approved by any Senate committee. Unless rejected by the Senate, it means that several senators could be subject to trial hereafter because they have said things equivalent to the comments of the Wisconsin senator which now are formally declared to merit censure.

The Watkins Committee specifically says, moreover, that a senator can be censured for uttering "harsh criticism" or for his "demagogic" language in letters, speeches or public statements. Nothing of this sort was ever an offense before, but an ex-post-facto judgment has been rendered against the Wisconsin senator alone.

If Senator McCarthy is deserving of formal censure by the Senate, no legal or constitutional grounds have been offered in the new report that conform to any previous precedent in the entire history of the United States Senate from 1789 to date.

In fact, the Watkins Committee concedes there is no precedent for what it has said in its report and that it is basing a trail of hysteria can be the governing impulse, just as they were in Nazi Germany when Hitler ordered the judges to decide cases not by the law or the constitution but by public sentiment.

The Watkins report is full of contradictions and inconsistencies in its own rulings which in due time will be analyzed by senators who are opposed to "lynching" McCarthy for his views.

May, '48, Dr. Sellers said that the state health department had furnished Pasteur treatment for 50,000 persons, and among the 22 fatalities following such treatment 4 were caused by the Pasteur treatment.

So, if I may harp on this once more, the treatment I'd want if I were bitten or scratched by animal or fowl, whether presumably rabid or not, is as follows:

1. Immediate surgical disinfection of the wound which means not only washing with soap and water but, if necessary, surgical removal of any damaged or dead tissue.

2. Ordinary aseptic (sterile) dressing.

3. An immediate dose of tetanus antitoxin or toxoid, and a second dose of it 5 to 7 days later. That's all.

Under no circumstance would I have Pasteur treatment.

Zonta Clubs Hold 3-Day Conference

Lansing Is Setting for Fifth District Meeting of Clubs

Zonta Clubs of the fifth district of Zonta International closed a three day conference Sunday at Lansing's Hotel Olds. Zonta's Lansing chapter was host for the event.

Attending from the Pontiac chapter were Mrs. Adrian Ish, Lois Ellis, Mrs. Ruth Mills Kennedy, Loretta Paul, Mrs. Homer Tinney, Mrs. Dorothy Brooks and Laura Hunter.

Kenneth Ish of Pontiac, a student at Michigan State College was guest vocalist.

Main speaker for the event was Sam Street Hughes, Lansing attorney and former mayor. "The Third Eight Hours" was the title of his talk.

He pointed out that with eight hours given to work and eight hours given to sleep, we still have eight hours to spend. He challenged the group to think about how these hours are spent.

He suggested their use "in the interest of civilization" and showed how service clubs may well do this by inspiration of culture. He added that women follow through in this way.

Another speaker for the conference was Dr. Charles Anasch, president of Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant, who built his theme "Acres of Opportunity" around the conference slogan, "grow in understanding, fellowship and service."

"These qualities," he said, "comprise the difference between the progressive and the backward community." "Growth in fine community life," he continued, "doesn't necessarily go along with size; it stems from the people who live there, those alert to the acres of chances to serve."

Reportedly Wins Right to Take Three Sons to West Coast

DETROIT (INS)—Mrs. Edith Small is reported to have won temporary custody of her three sons and permission to take them to California, over protests from her husband Kenneth, killer of Mrs. Small's boy friend.

The secret hearing is said to have also awarded Mrs. Small $75 a week temporary alimony from the dentist, pending outcome of a suppressed divorce action.

The divorce proceedings were filed early this month after Dr. Small was pronounced sane and freed from the Ionia State Hospital. A jury had found him temporarily insane at the time of the murder of Jules Lack May 29.

Dr. Small, who has resumed his dental practice, started court action two weeks ago to win custody of the boys by obtaining an injunction requiring them to remain in Michigan.

It was reported that this order was amended by Circuit Judge Thomas J. Murphy to permit Mrs. Small to take the children on a trip to the West Coast.

The three children, Steve, 7, Billy, 4, and Clifford, 2, have been living with their mother.

Kyes Estimates Defense Budget

Says 33 to 36 Billion
Will Be Needed Each Year for Long Time

DETROIT (INS)—Former Deputy Secretary of Defense Roger M. Kyes has said that the United States will have to spend 33 to 36 billion dollars a year for defense for years to come.

With the current defense program running at 37 and a half billion, Kyes told the Detroit Economic Club yesterday that the country has to keep its defense in order to give the military a chance to do the job that they can do.

The former administration official, now back as a General Motors vice president, also attacked critics who have charged that the Eisenhower plan has been to slash essential defense items from the budget. He said such critics don't know what they are talking about.

Guest speaker at the Economic Club luncheon was Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who said current strategy is to keep the Chinese Reds guessing as to whether the United States will defend the Nationalist island of Quemoy.

Lowest fire losses in seven years were reported for U. S. Army installations in the United States for fiscal 1953.

Adenauer Can Set Price for Helping With Defense

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, "The Old Fox," will be the man to watch in today's conference in London on West German rearmament.

Premier Pierre Mendes-France of France naturally is a key figure also. If there is to be unified European defense, he naturally must be satisfied.

But Adenauer seems to be in position to set his price for the participation of the Bonn Republic in the Allied defense set-up.

During the last few months Adenauer has steadily raised his price.

That there is not more anxiety, even in France, over the strength of Adenauer's position is testimony to the esteem in which he is held.

The fact is that Adenauer has been compelled to up his price. He is doing business not only with the Western Allies but with the 47,500,000 Germans whose leader he is.

When the European Defense Community pact was signed in Paris on May 27, 1952, everything seemed set for West Germany to start raising 12 divisions of troops which would be part of a six-nation European army fitted in with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The pact never was ratified. France, always fearful of renewed German military domination, finally killed it last August 30.

French action has caused the German price-raising. Adenauer lost ground in an important election on Sept. 12, largely because of the killing of the EDC pact.

Now the position is that the United States and Great Britain are ready if the worst comes, to grant west Germany sovereignty, whether France agrees or not, and to start rearming it.

Adenauer's terms at the London conference are reported to be immediate full sovereignty and German rearmament on a basis of equality with the other Allies.

It looks as if he will get them, and thus get even more than was foreseen in the European Defense Community pact.

But Adenauer never fails to emphasize his conviction that Germany and France must work together.

Adenauer was 73, unknown internationally, when he was elected chancellor of the new Bonn Republic in 1949. In the five years of his leadership West Germany has risen from the ashes of defeat to become a prosperous and politically stable community.

He has been a leader of the Christian Democratic Party for many years and had been mayor of Cologne from 1917 to 1933, when the Nazis ousted him. The Gestapo arrested him several times during World War II.

When the Americans freed Cologne, they made Adenauer mayor, or again, The British, into whose zone Cologne fell, ousted him—they did not like his independent attitude. Now they like him.

"The Old Fox," as Germans call him, is now 78, six feet two, erect, cold-eyed, sharp featured, scholarly and courteous. He is regarded as an indispensable man. An Allied diplomat said of him: "If Adenauer hadn't been here, we'd have had to invent him."

Driver Is Identified

Ara B. Baldwin, 51, of 73 N. Sanford St., was the driver of one of three cars which was involved in a collision Sunday at M 59 and Pontiac Lake Rds., and not has wife Rebecca P., 51, as stated in the Press yesterday. Mrs. Baldwin, treated for head injuries at Pontiac General Hospital, was a passenger in her husband's car.

'Spook Light' Not So Romantic When Unveiled

SAND SPRINGS, Okla. (U.P.)—The mystery of the midnight "spook light" that has drawn free admission crowds numbering as much as 600 persons has been solved.

Last night as expensive radio and television equipment was made ready to capture the strange sequence, patrolmen found two boys perched halfway up the cliff with flashlights and towels. Some 500 persons were present at the scene two miles west of here.

The boys, identified by officers as Eugene Anderson, 19, and Jimmy Rose, 17, both of Tulsa, freely admitted the light was their invention. They said they first tried it last Wednesday and repeated it nightly.

Hundreds of persons had visited the area the last five days, some arrived as early as 4 p.m. in order to get a good seat.

Stories came from all sections of the area as residents told of seeing "the strange blue-green ball of light for a half century. The mystery was further clouded with an Indian legend that "a young Indian girl had been killed by beheading on the cliff and each year she returned with her dog and lantern to go to the Arkansas River for water."

Abe Lincoln Being Shot Again at 20th

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—They were shooting Abe Lincoln again, and I went out to watch it.

The assassination was taking place on a 20th-Fox stage for "Prince of Players," the biography of Edwin Booth. Philip Dunne, a studios type who is directing his first picture, told me the set was an exact replica of Ford's Theater. "Too darned exact," he complained. "I have trouble getting my camera into it."

President Lincoln was being played by a London-born dancer named Stanley Hall. This fellow can boast the most contrasting assignments of the year. His last job was with the Jack Cole dancers in a Marilyn Monroe number for "There's No Business Like Show Business." That's how makeup head Ben Nye happened to see him and admire his Lincolnian facial structure.

All Hall had to do was sit in the box and get shot. But John Wilkes Booth had to do the dash.

THANKS

To our friends and patrons for the many, many kind letters and offers of support at this time. It makes us very proud to know so many understand the issue as it stands. Namely, the motion picture operators of Local 620 of Pontiac, is unfair to The Pontiac Drive-In Theatre and its members. It will not let me hire, its own union men, unless I hire as many as they say on a certain given job. I want one projectionist and one maintenance man, not two projectionists.

Beans Dominate Grain Trading

CHICAGO (AP)—Light rain in Illinois and Iowa, plus small receipts of cash soybeans, gave the soybean market a much better tone on the Board of Trade today. Beans advanced about two cents at times.

Other grains held within narrow price limits. Corn opened slightly lower and then rallied.

In contrast, wheat got off to a steady start and then eased. In neither case was there much trading. Most of the activity continued to be concentrated in soybeans.

Wheat near the end of the first hour was $\frac{1}{2}$ to $\frac{3}{4}$ lower, December \$2.14 $\frac{1}{2}$; corn unchanged to $\frac{1}{4}$ higher, December \$1.51; oats $\frac{1}{4}$ lower to $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, December 77 $\frac{1}{2}$; rye $\frac{1}{4}$ lower to $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, December \$1.40; soybeans 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ higher, November \$2.63 $\frac{1}{2}$, and unchanged to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower, October \$14.67.
