Dr. PAUL HARTMAN

Athletic Director

In his career as an athletic director, one which has spanned three decades and covered four different institutions, Dr. Paul Hartman has been one to make visible changes wherever he has been.

As athletic director at Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, his first position, Hartman started a football program with enthusiastic student support. Fifteen years later, a running back named Joe Dudek put that program on the national map with his bid for the Heisman Trophy. In his second post, at Florida International University in 1974, Hartman began a women's golf program. One of the first women's scholarship award winners was Pat Bradley, who later became the first $2 million winner on the Ladies Pro Golf Association tour. Hartman did not begin the basketball program at his next stop, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point, but one of his athletes there, Terry Porter, drew national attention as an NBA draftee from a non-scholarship school.

The programs Hartman has instituted at Oakland University are not as visible as some at his former schools, but they have been plentiful. This past year the department began a Varsity "O" Club for former athletes, brought back baseball as a varsity sport, and made several changes in the Lepley Sports Center — ranging from a refurbishing of the locker rooms and equipment area to renovation of the offices and the addition of the Pioneer Lounge, which will be used for conferences and athletic receptions.

"I don't think any one person does one certain thing," said Hartman. "I depend on the president to answer our needs, so maybe the best thing I have done is to adequately translate our needs to the president.

"There are many ways to be an administrator and I choose to be one that's more of a facilitator. I look at my job as more of a service job. I try to keep people happy because I believe a happy family, or a team concept, is healthy."

Previously Hartman had developed additional summer camp programs, created a new season ticket plan and instituted a Hall of Honor for exceptional Pioneer athletes, as well as introduced the first athletic team banquet. Additionally since Hartman's arrival, there has been a large changeover in the coaching staff, as well as in the department's support staff.

Now in his fourth year at Oakland, the veteran athletic administrator still sees more changes for OU on the horizon.

"A lot of our goals involve getting our building and office area improved (much of that has happened in the past year)," says Hartman. "I am working on a proposal for a new facility that will hopefully be presented to the president by Christmas. The approximately $15 million proposal will include a new field house and aquatic center."

"I would also like to see us expand our program and add more women's sports. Sixty percent of our students are women, yet we offer them only four sports," he concluded.

Hartman, Oakland's third director of athletics, succeeded Corey Van Fleet in June of 1983. The only other AD was OU's founding father of athletics, Hollie Lepley.

A graduate of Ohio State University and a native of Columbus, Ohio, Hartman lives in Rochester with his wife, Jane.

ANDY GLANTZMAN

Sports Information Director

In his second year as Sports Information Director is Andy Glantzman. Andy joined the Pioneer staff in August, 1985 after six years in the University of Detroit's sports information office. This Brooklyn, New York native has won a pair of publications awards from CoSIDA, most recently for last year's OU soccer media guide. Glantzman earned a bachelor of science degree in athletic administration from St. John's University (NY) and a Master of Business Administration at U of D. He and his wife, Kim, live in Southfield.

RON FORBES

Business Manager

Entering his 17th year at Oakland, Ron Forbes serves as business manager for the athletic department. A graduate of Western Michigan University and a native of Royal Oak, he also handles ticket distribution and receipts for the Pioneers.

SANDY JORDAN

Head Athletic Trainer

Sandy Jordan is beginning her fourth year as head athletic trainer at OU. Jordan came from the University of Detroit, where she spent a year as assistant trainer. This native of Rochester, New York spent four years as a student assistant at Lock Haven State College while earning a bachelor of science degree in health and physical education, with a specialization in athletic training. Prior to going to U of D, Jordan was a graduate assistant at Edinboro State College where she received a master of education in administration degree.

TOM VanVOORHIS

Marketing and Promotions

Tom VanVoorhis handles marketing and promotions for the athletic department. Among his duties are selling advertising for Pioneer publications, arranging special game and sports camps promotions and scheduling speaking engagements for the coaching staff. This retired General Motors public relations and marketing employee is a graduate of the University of Michigan.

ABOUT OAKLAND UNIVERSITY

In 1957, the late Alfred G. and Matilda Wilson donated $2 million and their 1,500-acre Meadow Brook estate to Michigan State University to establish a college in Oakland County.

Oakland University was founded in 1957 as a branch campus of MSU, with 570 first-year students. By the mid-1960s, it had evolved into a medium-sized university and in 1970 became an independent, state-assisted university. It now offers more than 70 undergraduate programs and more than 30 graduate programs, and enrolls about 12,000 students.

OU's distinct instructional programs — the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Economics and Management, School of Engineering and Computer Science, School of Health Sciences, School of Human and Educational Services and School of Nursing — offer a diverse curricula of general education and career preparation courses. Virtually all of these courses are taught by faculty members, not teaching assistants.

The Honors College, a division of the College of Arts and Sciences, meets the educational needs of highly motivated students. The Division of Continuing Education meets the needs of nontraditional adult learners through evening and extension programs.

Academic support facilities include such notable entities as the Eye Research Institute, the only major eye research center in the United States not affiliated with a medical school; the Meadow Brook Health Enhancement Center, which provides health maintenance/health improvement and cardiac rehabilitation community outreach programs; and the Center for Robotics and Advanced Automation, a unit of the School of Engineering and Computer Science that utilizes high technology manufacturing methods.

And OU's professional arts programs annually attract thousands to the campus. OU has received national recognition and local kudos for its Meadow Brook Theatre, Meadow Brook Art Gallery, Meadow Brook Hall and Meadow Brook Music Festival, the summer home of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

OU is located 25 miles north of Detroit, in the small town of Rochester. OU's modern campus, which houses the university's many academic and public service programs, is located on a beautifully wooded site — much of it still undeveloped.

PRESIDENT JOSEPH E. CHAMPAGNE

Oakland University is committed to excellence in all phases of its extensive educational mission. Intercollegiate athletic competition contributes significantly to this goal. The university has a fine tradition of combining accomplishment in the classroom with achievement on the field. Just as our participants win national and conference athletic honors, so do a good number receive National Collegiate Athletic Association academic post-graduate awards and attain other academic and career-related goals.

The positive image and visibility that athletics create among students and the general public reflects the fine caliber of our student-athletes. Oakland's high standards of quality are made possible by strong administrative support, which allows the program to remain competitive nationally and in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

The day-to-day front-line maintenance of this program is the responsibility of Oakland's excellent coaching staff. A number of coaches have been honored with Coach-of-the-Year awards, and many are called upon to present clinics and lectures at national conferences. All are committed to preparing their team members for peak performances in their sports and in their personal and professional lives.

Recognition of the interrelationships between the type of academic pursuit necessary in the classroom and the effort, skill and knowledge needed to physically perform at the national level is the strength of the Oakland University athletic program. We invite all interested parties — be they athletes, supporters or spectators — to participate in furthering our goal of providing access to excellence.

Joseph E. Champagne
President, Oakland University

TALENTED RECRUITS HELP PARSONS' OU SOCCER TEAM RELOAD

Seven starters are gone from last year's 14-3-2 squad that should have made the NCAA Division II playoffs, and that will mean a lot of rebuilding and replacing for sixth-year coach Gary Parsons. But Parsons feels he has achieved that with what he considers a deep and talented recruiting class.

The Pioneers will be missing players responsible for 36 of their 55 goals last year, as well as both starting-caliber goalkeepers. Double-digit goal scorers Meally Freeman (13), a first-team All-American, and Mark Christian (12), plus midfielder Mike Vigh and goalies Dave Marttila and Paul Larkin will be difficult to replace, but even with the losses Parsons has a solid corps of returnees to rely upon.

That group is led by second-team All-American Gray Haizel, a slick midfielder who set a school record with 19 assists a year ago while scoring seven goals. Haizel, a senior, will anchor the OU offense from his midfield spot as the Pioneer trigger man. One of his main duties will be to try and get the ball to fellow senior Marty Hagen, who should finish his career as one of OU's all-time bests at putting the ball in the net. Hagen had eight goals and six assists last year, with six of his goals being credited as game-winners. As the Pioneers' only returning starter up-front, Hagen will carry an even greater goal scoring burden. One solid starter returns on the back line — sophomore John Stewart. Stewart, who moved into a starting spot on the veteran-filled club a year ago as a freshman, was OU's most consistent player last season. With another year under his belt, all he can get is better.

OU has seven returnees overall from last year's squad, including super-sub Brian Fitzgerald. Now a junior, Fitzgerald has a shot at breaking into the starting line-up either at forward or mid-field after notching three goals and six assists last season. Fitzgerald played almost 1,000 minutes in mainly a part-time role a year ago. Allan Schneck, the top defensive substitute last season, also returns for his junior year after seeing ample playing time, including three starting assignments, last year. Fellow juniors Tom Duff and Tony Williams, both forwards, also return looking for increased playing time.

Parsons has added nine new players to the OU roster, and helped himself greatly at both midfield and on defense. Two newcomers come from the junior college ranks. Thomas Murray, a junior defender, comes to Oakland from Macomb Community College with a shot at an outside back spot. Murray is a JUCO All-American and was a prep All-Stater in Michigan. The other transfer is Swedish born Mikeal Carlstrom, a 26-year-old defender and midfielder from Springfield Technical Community College. The smooth Swede was an All-Region choice and could make an immediate impact at OU.

Freshmen who should make a solid impact include forwards Roger Jacks and Simon Mayo, either of whom could start, and midfielder/defenders Erik Enyedy and Ender Ibisoglu. The most important of the newcomers will be goalkeeper Gino Soave, rated the best in-state keeper available this year by Parsons.

The Pioneers will have four matches early prior to the NIST, when they will be tested by the best in Division II. The key will be whether or not the young talent can jell together in time for that tournament. If so, OU could be in good shape on its way to returning to the NCAA Tournament. If not, the Pioneers could be facing an uphill battle as they did last year, scrambling down the stretch and leaving it in the selection committee's hands. This may be one of the most talented OU squads in the past few years, but the experience factor will be the decider as to whether or not the squad returns to post-season play.

SOCCKER COACH

Gary Parsons

One of the finest decisions ever made at OU was the one that brought Gary Parsons in as head soccer coach. Then an assistant coach with the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, Parsons came to OU and in five years has never won fewer than 14 games in a season and has guided the Pioneers to three NCAA Division II tournament appearances.

Parsons, who had been to four straight Division I tournaments with Wisconsin-Milwaukee, came to Oakland and turned around a program that had been struggling since its first national tournament appearance in 1976.

The Pioneers almost made the playoffs in Parsons' first year at OU, with a 14 - 4 - 1 record and a number one ranking in the Mideast Region. He upgraded the schedule and shored up some weak areas for his second season and Oakland became one of the top soccer programs in the nation.

His 1982 squad, featuring All-American Lou Vulovich and high-scoring Morris Lupenec, lost in the national semi-finals to Florida International University. The following season, they suffered a 1 - 0 loss to Seattle Pacific University. Both losses were to the eventual national champion on the road.

After two tough semi-final losses, the Pioneers returned to the national tournament for the third consecutive season. This time, Seattle Pacific needed a penalty kick shootout to oust the Pioneers. Last season, OU just missed another trip to the nationals despite a 14 - 3 - 2 record which included a 13 - 1 - 1 mark in the last 15 games, and the presence of a pair of All-Americans in Meally Freeman and Gray Haizel.

"I was disappointed about not making the playoffs last year," Parsons said. "I really felt we deserved to go. But if you were to tell me that we would be in the national tournament three out of every four years, I would take it."

In the three years that OU made the playoffs, they also earned the number one ranking in the Mideast Region. Parsons, who has developed his squad into a Division II powerhouse, was voted Mideast Coach of the Year all three seasons.

His on-the-field accomplishments have made him well-known among fellow coaches. He serves as chairman of the Intercollegiate Soccer Association of America Division II Mideast Ranking Committee and has a role in the national rankings for collegiate soccer for every level of NCAA competition.

In addition to his coaching prowess, Parsons enjoyed a noteworthy playing career. He was voted the Most Valuable Defensive Player at Plymouth State College as a senior and helped the Panthers make the New England State College Athletic Conference finals in his last two years. Parsons holds degrees in math and physical education from Plymouth State.

A native of Oakham, Massachusetts, Parsons also coaches the Michigan State Select Team and directs his highly successful Oakland University youth soccer camps during the summer.

Parsons lives with his wife, Joanne, in Auburn Hills.

HURDLE SPORTS YOUNG SQUAD

The Pioneers' major task in 1986 will be to attempt to find replacements for four starting seniors lost to graduation, three of which earned All-Conference honors.

"We lost the nucleus of our team — four women that hold virtually every record at Oakland," coach Bob Hurdle said, speaking of Becca Wyatt, Mary Pike, Judy Jenner and Stacey Young. "Their experience, leadership and mental toughness will be very difficult to replace."

The Pioneers are coming off of another record-breaking season. In 1985, Oakland posted a 33 - 10 record, were ranked as high as 13th nationally in the NCAA Division II, and finished in a three-way tie for first place in the GLIAC regular season, with Ferris State and Grand Valley State, before dropping to third after the GLIAC tournament. Even though the Pioneers have some big shoes to fill, Hurdle (in his fifth season) believes his 1986 squad can continue the winning tradition.

"We are going to have a lot of new faces and be very young, but the talent is there," Hurdle said. "If our young players can progress quickly and our veteran players can give us the leadership we need, we can be in contention."

Senior Bridget Bohnet and sophomores Tracey Jones and Anne Harrison return from last year's starting line-up. Add to them juniors Noelle Graham and Lori Quinn, both of whom will be competing for starting positions next year, and a strong recruiting class and you can see Hurdle's reasons for optimism.

Bohnet, a two-year starter and very powerful hitter, will move over from the outside to patrol the middle for OU. Jones, a starter as a freshman and holder of frosh records for kills, points and hitting percentage, and junior Lori Quinn will also see action in the middle.

"Bridget has improved steadily in her career and will be counted on for leadership and offensive production," Hurdle said.

"Tracey had an outstanding freshman year and should develop into one of the top hitters in the conference. Quinn is a very strong hitter who gives us depth in the middle and will also compete as an outside hitter."

The setting position will be contested by Jones, also a talented setter, Graham, the back-up to Jenner the past two years, and newcomer Kelly Williams.

"Tracey sets the ball very well and her height at that position (5-9) is an advantage," Hurdle said. "Graham has progressed well in her two years and seems ready to run our offense."

Harrison, who cracked the starting line-up at the mid-way point last year, will be battling for an outside hitter spot along with newcomers Sue Lormin, a junior college transfer from Utah Tech, and freshmen Leslie Teper, Jenifer Henry, Missy Ward and Kris Morrison.

"Anne is a strong blocker and excellent passer whose hitting has steadily improved," Hurdle said. "Her consistent play is one of our big assets."

Hurdle, who has amassed a 100 - 50 record at Oakland, believes that Wayne State, Ferris State, Grand Valley State and Northwood Institute will be the teams to beat in GLIAC play. "The conference should be a real dogfight," Hurdle said. "It seems to get tougher and tougher every year to win a league match."

Oakland will host two tournaments this year — the Oakland Invitational, September 5-6, and the Pioneer Classic, October 31-November 1. Some of the top programs in the country — Elmhurst, IL, Grand Valley State and Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne — will invade the Lepley Sports Center for the Pioneer Classic. Oakland will also play a double round-robin against league foes and travel to several outstanding tournaments, including ones held at Indiana-Purdue at Fort Wayne, Wright State and Lewis University.

VOLLEYBALL COACH

Bob Hurdle

Bob Hurdle is beginning his fifth season as head coach at Oakland University, where he has taken a lagging program and turned it into a perennial GLIAC contender. Hurdle was 100-50 in his first four seasons at OU, and has guided the Pioneers to third place in league finishes each of the last two years. The 1985 squad won a school record 33 games, ranked as high as 13th nationally, and finished the regular season with a 7-1 mark and in a three-way tie for the league championship with Grand Valley State and four-time champion Ferris State.

In his four years as OU coach, Hurdle has had four women win a total of 10 All-Conference honors. Erica Bauer was honored three times, as were Becca Wyatt and Mary Pike, the heart of Hurdle's first recruiting class. Judy Jenner, also a member of that first freshman class, captured the 10th award.

Prior to coming to Oakland, Hurdle coached the volleyball team at Bloomfield Hills Andover High School. He earned a 96-36 mark in six seasons and guided Andover to a pair of Class A top ten finishes, a Greater Oakland Athletic League title and two Southeastern Michigan Association crowns. A graduate of Ferris State College, Hurdle lives in West Bloomfield with his wife, Lois, and their son, Eric.

CROSS COUNTRY

PIONEERS SHOOTING FOR HIGHER GLIAC FINISH IN 1986

For five straight years the OU Pioneers' cross country squad has been stuck at seventh place in the Great Lakes Inter-collegiate Athletic Conference. With their top two finishers back from last year forming a solid nucleus, this season could be the beginning of their upward climb.

OU will have a senior-dominated squad in 1986, paced by top returners Mike Karl and Dave McCauley. Karl ruled the early races for the Pioneers, claiming OU's best time in three of the first four races, including a team-low 8,000-meter time of 25:48 at the Midwestern Collegiate Championships. This senior from Utica also paced the harriers at the Eastern Michigan Open and the Bulldog Cross Country Invitational.

At that point, McCauley, from Sterling Heights, took over. He won the last four races for OU, which he added to his Rochester Apple Amble triumph earlier in the year with a five-mile team low of 24:53. McCauley, who was 18th individually in the GLIAC meet, was second overall at the Lake Superior State Triangular, third at the Apple Amble and the Monarch Invitational, and fifth at the Grand Valley State Invitational. For the year, McCauley averaged 26:27 for 8,000 meters, and 26:34 for five miles; Karl's numbers were 26:40 and 26:57 respectively.

Senior Ricky Shapic and sophomore Karl Zubal will be the likely number three and four runners this year, as they were most of last season along with graduated Steve Kueffner. Shapic finished second for OU in the GLIAC meet, the EMU Open, and the Monarch Invitational, and placed third in the other five. Zubal, from Hazel Park, scored for OU in half of the races in just his freshman year.

Mike Jordan and John Brabbs showed potential to move into the top five based on their performances toward the end of last season. Jordan placed fifth for OU in the GLIAC meet, while Brabbs had a fifth place and four sixth place finishes to his credit in 1985.

With this strong, experienced nucleus enjoying another year together, coach John Stevenson may be ready to get OU off the seventh place position it has been stuck on throughout the eighties.

CROSS COUNTRY COACH

John Stevenson

OU cross country coach John Stevenson offers instruction to his harriers.

John Stevenson begins his third year as OU cross country coach, second in this term. Stevenson was originally the coach of the harriers in 1983, following Dewayne Jones, who was both cross country and women's basketball coach. Jones left to take over the women's basketball coaching position at the University of Detroit. Terry Dibble replaced Stevenson in 1984, then relinquished the role to Stevenson last year.

Stevenson has led the Pioneer harriers to seventh place finishes in the GLIAC in each of his seasons at the helm, a position OU has held in the league for five consecutive years.

The Director of the Exercise Science Program at Oakland, Stevenson brings a great deal of racing experience and technical knowledge to the post. His racing background includes the Boston and Detroit Free Press marathons, while his technical experience comes in the form of research projects in the running aspects of biomechanics.

A native of Lancaster, Pennsylvania, Stevenson did doctoral work in biomechanics and human performance at Indiana University after earning a bachelor's degree at Vassar College in New York.

MEN'S BASKETBALL

SENIORLESS PIONEERS LOOK TO TURN THE CORNER

Third year men's basketball coach Greg Kampe has had a pair of almost identical seasons in his first two years at OU. The records have been the same in his two campaigns (13 - 5, 5 - 11 GLIAC), including last year's senior-dominated team. Those six upper-classmen from 1985 - 86 are gone, leaving an identical number of returnees, none of them seniors. When you add three very talented freshmen and a now-eligible junior college rebounding whiz to this year's version of the Pioneers — stocked only with players brought in by Kampe — they truly may be ready to turn the corner.

The Pioneers have a solid balance of three juniors, four sophomores and three freshmen comprising the 1986 - 87 squad. Co-captains Scott Bittinger and Pete Schihl lead the way. This junior duo will be counted on to provide strong leadership as well as the scoring, rebounding and playmaking needed to make OU a winner. Bittinger, a GLIAC All-Defensive choice in his first two years, is a solid outside shooter and accurate ballhandler. Perhaps the most impressive of Bittinger's stats last season was the one which saw him pass for 91 assists while committing only 38 turnovers. He also averaged 10.5 points per game while shooting 52% from the field and 74% from the free throw line.

Schihl was impressive as a starter and as a top reserve both early and late in the season, but the middle of his sophomore year was interrupted by a leg injury that hampered his performance most of the year. Schihl averaged 6.8 points and 4.7 boards in just 18 minutes of playing time, an amount which should increase substantially this season. The third junior is swingman Rob Alvin, a good shooter and scorer who could see more playing time in his third year at OU.

The three returning Pioneer sophomores all got a piece of the action last year and will be counted on for even bigger contributions in 1986 - 87. Guard Johnny Johnson made the biggest impact of the trio as freshmen, averaging 10 points and 3.6 boards while passing for a team-high 111 assists. Johnson will likely move in as a full-time starter after providing a spark off the bench as OU's sixth man a year ago.

While Johnson was the most influential of the freshmen last year, that title in this class may be handed over to center Dave Hintz this season. Hintz, with a solid shot to become the Pioneers' opening day center, showed strong signs of developing last season as he received more playing time. The powerful 6 - 6 Hintz averaged 3.5 points and 2.1 boards, numbers which are deceiving due to the difference between his first and second half seasonal performances. Forward John Henderson, at 6 - 5, has the potential to become a solid scoring threat, something the OU coaching staff hopes will happen this year. Henderson is an accurate shooter from 15 feet and runs the floor well. The key player in this group may very well be JUCO transfer Mike McCan. A consistent effort from this outstanding leaper could be the difference in OU's season. McCan, third nationally among rebounders in the JUCO ranks in 1984 - 85, could be a starter at any of three positions — off-guard, small forward or power forward — for the Pioneers in 1986 - 87.

OU's three-man freshman class represents another good recruiting effort by Kampe. The trio of 6-5 Stacy Davis of Ferndale, 6-3 Wallace Davis of Saginaw and 6-8 Skip Townsend of Anchorage, Alaska, will be a factor in the fortunes of OU basketball in their freshman campaign. Davis, a legitimate Division I talent, will see ample playing time at all three frontcourt positions for OU. Davis can score inside and out, rebound well and has the potential to be a good shot-blocker. The smaller Davis, Wallace, gives the Pioneers a true point guard who can handle the ball well and play excellent defense. The combination of Davis and Bittinger could be the best defensive backcourt in the GLIAC. Townsend, at 6-8 and 240 pounds, has an intimidator's body but needs experience and polish added to his strong build.

For Kampe and his Pioneers, 1986 - 87 may serve as the year of preparation for what is to come. With no seniors on a squad filled with his recruits, the OU coach will be searching for his first winning ledger while continuing the process of putting Pioneer basketball on solid ground.

MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Greg Kampe

In his two seasons at Oakland University, men's basketball coach Greg Kampe has been slowly piecing together the Pioneer basketball program in the best way he knows how — recruiting.

"The key to any program is the players. We have to recruit great players who are also great people," the third-year OU coach said. "If we can do that, everything will fall into place."

Indications are that Kampe has succeeded in that goal with his first three recruiting classes. Before throwing up the first ball, Kampe brought in 1986-87 co-captains Scott Bittinger and Pete Schihl, along with local favorite Rob Alvin. Forwards Dave Hintz and John Henderson and guard Johnny Johnson followed, giving OU a solid young nucleus. Added to this current class are Michigan All-Staters Stacy Davis of Ferndale and Wallace Davis of Saginaw, plus 6-8 Alaskan Skip Townsend and top junior college rebounder Mike McCan. Kampe now has 10 players, all of them his, none of them seniors.

"That's a prospect that has me very excited," Kampe said. "We have a solid group of returnees with a lot of talent, and I think we had an outstanding recruiting class. All our new players come from winning programs with solid back-grounds."

Kampe came to OU from a program that has made winning a long-time habit. The OU coach spent six years as assistant coach at the University of Toledo before replacing Lee Frederick as the Pioneer mentor. During Kampe's six years at Toledo, the Rockets captured three Mid-American Conference (MAC) basketball championships and compiled a 117-57 overall record, earning two National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament berths and one to the National Invitational Tournament. Toledo excelled academically as well, with 91 percent of its basketball players earning bachelor's degrees, 33 percent of those continuing on to acquire graduate degrees.

A 1978 graduate of Bowling Green State University with a bachelor's degree in business and journalism, Kampe started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Toledo before accepting a full-time assistant coach spot in 1979. While at Toledo, he earned a master of arts degree in physical education.

Kampe is the only athlete in MAC history to be named first team All-Academic in both football and basketball. Besides being on the dean's list at BGSU with a 3.40 grade point average, he received the President's Award as an outstanding student.

Kampe's father, Kurt, was a starting right guard on the University of Michigan's 1947 Rose Bowl championship team, which went 10-0. His brother, Kurt Jr., was a two-year letter winner for the Wolverines in 1974 and 1975.

The 30-year-old Kampe lives with his wife, Susan, in Rochester Hills. They expect their first child in October.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

TAYLOR LOOKING TO RETURN LADY PIONEERS TO PAST GLORY

During the Dewayne Jones years, Oakland's women's basketball squad was the dominant force in the GLIAC, going undefeated in league play for two years. In fact, over a five-year stretch covering three different coaches, OU was 62 - 8 in GLIAC games. In the past few years, OU has fallen from the top of the GLIAC, suffering only its second losing season in history last year. During that time, a young coach named Bob Taylor was building a Lake Superior State College squad into a GLIAC contender, taking a senior-less squad to within one game of the title last year. Taylor's next task is to do the same at OU.

Taylor, replacing Sue Kruszewski, who resigned in March, will have eight returnees to form the nucleus of his unit. Just two seniors, guard Kellie Hill and center Lisa Quinn, are on the squad, giving him a young unit to build around. Four full-time starters and a pair of part-timers are back from last year, and all eight returnees averaged over 11 minutes played per contest.

Quinn and juniors Sarah Knuth and Margaret Boyle started every game they played last season and combined for 35 points and 17 boards per contest and a season-long total of 210 assists. Knuth, a second-team All-GLIAC choice, led OU with a 13.1 scoring average and added almost five boards per contest. Boyle, who earned honorable mention from the GLIAC, averaged almost 12 points per contest and had a team-high of 148 assists. Quinn was one of the top league rebounders, hauling down 8.7 boards per contest to go along with 9.9 points. The fourth full-time starter is junior Sonja Pearson, who began 24 of her 28 games played and carded averages of 8.4 points and 6.4 rebounds.

Sophomore forwards Leah Fenwick and Celeste Sartor showed a great deal of promise last year, splitting a great deal of time at power forward. Sartor averaged 4.2 points and 3.2 boards, while Fenwick had averages of 4.1 points and 4.3 rebounds. Fenwick was especially effective during the season's last eight games, ringing up double-figure averages in both categories. Junior Kim McDowell, at 6-4, showed tremendous improvement during her sophomore campaign. McDowell averaged 4.7 points and 3.5 rebounds, blocked 44 shots and began to assert herself inside. Hill did a steady job when spelling Boyle and was a consistent free throw shooter.

The future of the program lies in Taylor's ability to recruit, something he had no problem with at Lake Superior State. The new coach immediately flexed his recruiting muscles, inking three solid additions to go along with the pair signed in the early period by Kruszewski. Dawn Lichty and Amy Atkinson, both of whom played in the Michigan High School Coaches Association Class B - C - D All-Star Game, should get a lot of playing time early. Lichty, a 5-6 guard, was selected as the game's MVP and is a solid scorer and ballhandler. Atkinson, like Lichty a first-team All-Stater, is a deadly outside shooter. She joins Lichty as an outstanding classroom performer as well.

The third Taylor signee is junior college transfer Kim Klein from Delta Community College. Klein averaged 23 points per game to earn JUCO All-State honors and her experience will be a big plus for Oakland. The two early signees were Debbie Delie, a bruising 6-0 inside player who can score and throw her weight around under the boards, and guard Audra Craig from the outstanding Flint Northern basketball program.

Taylor's rebuilding job has already begun with a solid recruiting class. Combined with a good nucleus, he has a strong squad to work with for the 1986 - 87 season. A fresh start, continued improvement from the returnees and a positive contribution from the freshmen could start OU back up the road to the top in year one of the Taylor rebuilding program.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL AND MEN'S TENNIS COACH

Bob Taylor

New Oakland University women's basketball coach Bob Taylor knows the secret of coaching success — recruit. Good players, who are good people, make good programs. It's a formula that worked for the first-year Pioneer mentor in his efforts at Lake Superior State, a team he built into a Midwest power in three years. It's the formula he has begun to utilize in the short time he has been at Oakland.

Taylor will have five newcomers joining the eight veterans on this year's squad. Two of the new players were signed in the fall, and the other three were inked by Taylor upon his arrival at OU. Straight "A" students and first-team All-Staters Dawn Lichty and Amy Atkinson came from the prep ranks, while JUCO All-Stater and former world class speed skater Kim Klein joined OU from Delta Community College, giving Taylor a solid recruiting class.

It was Taylor's ability to recruit quality athletes and people that attracted OU Director of Athletics Dr. Paul Hartman to him.

"Bob is a fine young man who emphasizes scholarship as well as athletic skill in the young ladies he recruits," Hartman said. "He has a proven track record showing that he can win in this conference and we are confident that our program will be extremely competitive under his leadership."

The 29-year-old Taylor was the head coach at Lake Superior State for the past three years, where he guided the Soo Lakers to a 52-32 mark. Last season LSSC was 24-5 overall, 14-2 and second behind Saginaw Valley State in the GLIAC. Taylor's squad was the number one seeded team in the Great Lakes Region in the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Tournament, and finished the season as the seventh ranked team in the country. At LSSC Taylor took a program that had never finished higher than fourth in the GLIAC and guided it to 13-15 and 15-12 seasons his first two years before enjoying his tremendous success in 1985-86 with a squad comprised primarily of freshmen and sophomores.

Taylor, who will also serve as men's tennis coach at OU, is excited about his move to Oakland. "I left a great job at Lake Superior State, but I moved to a great situation at Oakland," Taylor said. "OU is a school with a very strong basketball tradition and history, and the location is better for building a consistent winner."

Taylor is a native of Sparta, Michigan, and attended Sparta High School where he starred in both basketball and tennis. He earned two letters each in both sports at Grand Rapids Junior College and Arkansas Tech, where he also earned a bachelor of science degree in social science in 1980 and began his coaching career as an assistant coach. Taylor then became the head coach at Boyne City High School, where he led the Ramblers to a two-year mark of 37-10 and a spot in the Michigan Class C top ten.

Taylor, who has been involved in camps for both men and women, is co-director of the Michigan All-State Basketball Camp for girls held in Traverse City. He is single and lives in Rochester.

MEN'S SWIMMING

VETERAN SWIM SQUAD SHOOTING FOR THE TOP

With 21 returnees, including 12 who accounted for 39 of the Pioneers' 40 All-American and honorable mention awards, the Oakland University men's swimming squad is a veteran squad with a lot of firepower. When you consider that 12 of the returnees were freshmen a year ago, you could draw the conclusion that OU is heading upward. It doesn't have far up to go as it was third in the nation a year ago.

Junior Mark VanderMey, a 12-time All-American in two seasons and now an international swimmer after his summer exploits at the Goodwill Games in Moscow, is ready to become a multiple national champion. He should rule the breaststroke events this year and continue on his way towards joining a handful of swimmers at the maximum 24-time All-American plateau. Bruce VerBurg, Mike Koleber and Steve Larson, all seniors who won three or more national honors a year ago, should continue their excellent swimming. VerBurg ruled the middle-distance freestyle events for the Pioneers, winning his All-America honors in the 200 and 50 freestyle along with the freestyle relay units. Koleber is a specialist in the 50 and 100 freestyle, capturing his national honors in both. Larson, who won five All-America honors, rules the backstroke events and is outstanding in freestyle as well.

Juniors Doug Cleland, Jeff Cooper and Steve Ramsey will be looking to improve on last year's performances which saw the trio combine for six honorable mentions. Cooper, the GLIAC Swimmer of the Year as a freshman, is OU's best in the distance freestyle events as well as the 400 individual medley. Cleland was honorable mention All-American in both backstroke events, and could very well move into the top ten nationally in both this year. Ramsey is a solid sprint freestyler who is rapidly improving.

Five of OU's 12 freshmen were All-Americans last year, making an impact especially in the areas of diving and butterfly. Todd McNeal, improving by leaps and bounds as the year progressed, was a three-meter All-American and earned honorable mention on the one-meter board. Freshmen Eric Dresbach and Mike Nation took over the butterfly for OU, with Dresbach earning eighth nationally in the 200 and honorable mention in the 100, while Nation was an honorable mention in both. Dan Andrus was a relay All-American and excelled in the sprint freestyle events, as did Alaska native Dave Rogowski.

"Right now I see a three-way battle for second nationally shaping up," Pioneer swim coach Pete Hovland said. "If we could come up with a real superstar, that could sway the balance a little bit."

OU has been a top-seven swimming program for the last 13 years and in the top three for nine of the last ten years. There is no reason to think there will be any change this year. The Pioneers have outstanding depth and experience in every stroke in the form of a large group of returning All-Americans and an improving crop of young swimmers. Unlike last year when the large freshman class left a question mark in people's minds, no such doubt exists this year. OU is looking to move up, and it doesn't have far to go before it hits the top.

MEN'S SWIMMING COACH

Pete Hovland

Going into his sixth year as the Pioneers' men's swimming coach, Pete Hovland will have over 20 returnees from last year's squad — a group that captured 3rd place in the NCAA Division II Championship meet in Orlando, Florida. Losing just two seniors, the OU swim coach is optimistic about the coming season.

"Right now I see us in a three-way battle for second nationally," Hovland said. "If we come up with a real superstar, that could sway the balance a little bit."

Hovland already has a superstar in his midst in junior Mark VanderMey. The breaststroker from Grandville, MI has been a conference and nation-wide swimming celebrity since his arrival at OU two years ago, but this summer he added a little international flavor with his trip to Moscow for the Goodwill Games where he was the U.S.' top breaststroker and came home with a bronze medal as part of the 400-meter medley relay squad.

"I knew he would be good, but this has been just fantastic," Hovland said. "This is probably the greatest event to happen in Oakland sports. Outside of winning the national swimming championship in 1980, this is probably the best individual performance by any OU athlete."

Last season, VanderMey's national championship in the 100-yard breaststroke helped the Pioneers place third for the eighth time in nine years and finish in the top ten for their 13th consecutive season.

The sixth-year OU swim mentor has posted a 38 - 16 - 1 dual meet record, including last year's 8 - 3 mark. In addition, the Pioneers have won five straight GLIAC championship titles under Hovland, and nine-in-a-row, overall. With Hovland, OU ranked first in the NCAA swimming poll a season after missing the national crown by one half-second in the final event. That same year (1983) Hovland was honored as NCAA Coach of the Year.

Prior to being handed the head coaching reins, Hovland served as assistant to Ernie Maglischo for two seasons, including OU's national championship year. The pair hooked up at California State University-Chico, where Maglischo coached the 23-time All-American Hovland. While there, Hovland won five individual national championships and was part of eight national championship relay squads. In 1977, Hovland was selected as Western Conference Swimmer of the Year.

Hovland earned his bachelor's degree in physical education at California-Chico in 1977, and two years later received his master's degree from the University of Northern Iowa in the same field.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING

WOMEN'S SWIMMING LOOKS TO CONTINUE TOP TEN TRADITION

In the three years under Mary Ellen Wydan, the Oakland University women's swimming program has recorded national finishes of fourth, 12th and eighth respectively. With five returnees (four of whom were All-Americans last year) and a large crop of newcomers, the Pioneer women's swim squad will be looking to hold on to its spot in the national top ten and move up in the national standings.

Freestyle: Once again the Pioneers should have a strong freestyle unit, led by co-captain Nancy Schermer. This junior was a seven-time All-American last year, and will concentrate in the 200, 500 and 1,650 events this year to improve her quality. The 13-time All-American has been one of the nation's best swimmers over the past two years. Freshmen Karen Helwig and Gabrielle Soupal will provide depth for OU in the distance free events. All-League prep swimmers Shelly Pilarski and Shelly Conley could make an impact in the sprint, as well as Kelley Geddis.

Butterfly: Ginnie Johnson, school record-holder in the 200 fly, could qualify for nationals in both the 100 and 200. Johnson had OU's best butterfly times last season and improved greatly as the year progressed. Johnson may qualify in as many as four individual events this year. Shelley Steyaert was the Catholic League champion in the 100 fly as a senior and could go a long way in aiding the butterfly unit. As a prepster, Kelley Geddis was also strong in the 100 fly.

Backstroke: Junior Kristi Spicer is OU's top hope in the backstroke. OU's top backstroke a year ago has a solid shot at qualifying in both the 100 and 200 this year, and has been a strong medley relay backstroke. Anja Jurgens combines with Spicer for a strong one-two punch in the back. Jurgens is a potential qualifier in the 200 this season. Debbi Cheney will also swim the backstroke events.

Breaststroke: Junior Ginnie Johnson, who will see her breaststroke action increased this year, will be OU's top hope in this event. Johnson has the talent to be a solid breaststroke. Frosh Karen Helwig will also gain experience in this stroke as the number two swimmer behind Johnson.

Individual Medley: Ginnie Johnson will carry the banner in this event for OU. Johnson was OU's best in the IM last year, and has a solid shot at qualifying in the 400. Debbi Cheney will help Johnson out in an event in which OU had struggled for five years.

Relays: The loss of Linda Scott and Kim Pogue, both multi-All-Americans in the relay events, will hurt OU in relays. The medley units could fare well with consistent performances from the trio of Spicer, Johnson and Schermer, but success in these events will depend upon how well newcomers can fill in for the departed Scott and Pogue. Kelley Geddis, Shelly Pilarski and Karen Helwig are the top candidates.

Diving: With potential national champion Lee Ann O'Neill and three talented freshmen, the diving unit is on solid ground. O'Neill, an All-American on both boards a year ago, is a national championship threat and a solid top-three candidate. The trio of Nicole Kelsey, Shelly Wilson and Cathy Stafford gives OU unlimited potential with three talented understudies for O'Neill.

OU's 17-woman roster has a nice blend of All-Americans, veterans, young swimmers and no seniors. The Pioneers have a good shot at returning to the top ten nationally this year, and with everyone back the following year, could make an approach toward the NCAA Division II's upper echelon.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING COACH

Mary Ellen Wydan

Since arriving at Oakland University three seasons ago, head women's swimming coach Mary Ellen Wydan has helped to continue the Pioneers' national success. OU was eighth nationally last season with a group of qualifiers that included just two seniors. The previous season OU was 12th, just one year after placing an amazing fourth with a small group of swimmers in her first year in Rochester.

Wydan has also led OU to a winning dual meet record in her three seasons against tough Division I competition plus the best in Divisions II and III. Along with the national success, Wydan helped OU gain third place in the Midwest Independent Invitational Championships, earning Midwest Co-Coach of the Year honors in the process.

The 25-year-old Wydan, who spent two years as an assistant men's and women's swimming coach at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill before arriving at OU, coached a national record-holding relay team and OU's first national champion diver, Mary Vincent, during her first year at the helm. Last year, seven Pioneer swimmers earned 15 All-American honors and 11 honorable mentions, led by Nancy Schermer who won seven individual honors for a total of 13 in just two seasons.

A native of Lansdale, Pennsylvania, Wydan also worked with swimmers at UNC who produced outstanding achievements. Polly Winde and Sue Walsh (a triple national champion) both earned spots in the Pan-American games as distance swimmers.

Wydan was a high school standout at North Penn, earning Most Valuable Swimmer honors all four years and prep All-America honors for three years. She attended Pennsylvania State University and was a national qualifier on the Nittany Lions' 400 freestyle relay team before transferring to the University of Delaware in 1979.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL BRINGS STRONG TRADITION TO REBIRTH

The Oakland University Board of Trustees' vote to reinstate baseball as a varsity sport beginning with this season brought a lot of people out of the woodwork who remembered many of the highlights of OU's nine years of baseball. They were saying remember when . . . Stan Babiuk led the nation in doubles . . . OU began climbing up the GLIAC . . . the Pioneers won the league crown . . . the Dieters ruled the diamond . . . Mark Bielski dominated the GLIAC . . . the sport was dropped? All this and more is part of the lore of Pioneer baseball, much of the reason there was such a demand to bring back the sport.

The official start of OU baseball as a varsity sport was 1972. The Pioneers played as a club prior to that, but the 1972 campaign (a 14 - 18 season) was recognized as baseball's varsity debut at OU. OU put together a winning campaign in 1973, going 17 - 12 thanks mainly to Stan Babiuk's talent at hitting two-baggers. Babiuk, whose mark of 14 doubles lasted until 1977, keyed the first of six winning seasons in nine years for OU.

The following year the university joined the GLIAC, finishing fourth with a 3 - 7 mark despite another overall winning season at 21 - 16. OU jumped to second in the league, winning 11 GLIAC contests, 27 overall. After a slip back to third the following year (8 - 10, 16 - 24 overall), the Pioneers won 30 games in 1977 and returned to second in the league, setting up what was to be the best year of baseball at OU.

Stan Babiuk

With a team batting average of .307 and over seven runs per game scored, the Pioneers rolled to a 38 - 17 record and a GLIAC championship with a 12 - 3 mark. OU raced to a 10 - 1 conference mark and held off strong threats from Grand Valley and Wayne State to claim the title. Jim Dieters, Dennis Krych, Mark Bielski, Henry Washington and Tim Seagraves all earned All-GLIAC honors. All-Region honors went to Krych and Dieters, who was also honored as a Division II All-American. Six Pioneers hit over .300 and eight scored 30 or more runs as eight individual records and 12 team marks fell in OU's banner year.

Baseball's rise at Oakland can be traced to a father and son duo of coach Dirk Dieters and slugger Jim Dieters. The arrival of this pair to the Rochester campus began OU's golden age of baseball, which ran up to the sport's dropping following the 1980 campaign. When Jim — who was inducted into the OU Hall of Honor this past February — left OU, he held single season and career marks in games, hits, homers and total bases, as well as career records in at bats, doubles and batting average. Coach Dieters led the Pioneers to 105 wins in the last four years of the program and 11 or more league wins per year during those four seasons as well.

One of OU's best players during the Dieters era and up to the close of the program was Mark Bielski, who broke several of Jim Dieters' marks after he left. Bielski was especially effective in GLIAC games, knocking home 22 runs during league contests in OU's championship season. As a junior, Bielski was 21 - 45 in league games, while his senior campaign saw him hit .377 with 11 RBIs.

Baseball came to an end following the 1980 season with exactly 200 wins overall. The final game was on May 11, 1980 at Pioneer Field. OU won the first game of a twin bill from Toledo by a 2 - 0 score behind the four-hit shut out pitching of Scott Simmons and a second inning two-run homer off the bat of Rance Aguirre. OU dropped the nightcap by a 7 - 5 count, which until this spring, will stand as the last baseball game at Oakland.

Starting this season a new tradition will begin, and the ghosts of Dieters, Bielski, Krych, Washington, Jones, Robinson and all the rest who made OU baseball special will be around Pioneer Field. The excitement on the diamond is reborn at Oakland.

BASEBALL COACH

Rod Righter

Oakland University's brand-new baseball program has been put in the hands of Rod Righter. Righter has been a summer league coach in the Pontiac-Rochester area for a number of years and also serves as a Professor of Education in Oakland's School of Human and Educational Services.

Righter has been the manager of the Quality Pontiac team playing in the Class A County Connie Mack League. His Varsity Shop squad has been 133 - 31 in the past five seasons, capturing four league championships and placing second in the Connie Mack district those same four years. Righter's cumulative won-loss record since 1980 has been 194 - 61 (.761).

"I think we can put together a first-rate and first place team at OU within five years," Righter said. "I feel I have good recruiting contacts and the experience needed in teaching and coaching."

A faculty member at Oakland since 1965, Righter also serves as the coordinator of OU's student-teaching program, and is a member of the University Senate and of the Academic Standings and Honors Committee. This former associate dean of the School of Education played college baseball at Ashland College in Ohio.

GOLF

GLIAC IMPROVEMENT HIGHLIGHTS GOLF SEASON

A 19-stroke improvement in score and a rise from fifth place to fourth in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference highlighted the Oakland golfers' 1986 varsity season. The fourth place finish marked OU's highest league placing since 1978.

The Pioneers' fall campaign earned them a first place invitational finish, two seconds and a dual meet victory over the University of Detroit. The Pioneers claimed victory in the OU Invitational on the strength of a 76 from junior Greg Kroetsch, a 77 from sophomore Paul Deckard, and a 78 by senior Steve Button. The St. Clair College and Indiana-Purdue at Ft. Wayne Invitationals saw OU take home two runner-up trophies. Kroetsch's fall season low of 74, and a 75 from Button, paced OU at Ft. Wayne as all five Pioneers scored in the 70s. Kroetsch led with a 78.6 average in five tournaments, which Button matched in his three events. Sophomore Mark Bruttell carded a consistent 80 average; Deckard followed at 81.8.

The spring season started in April with strong anticipation before OU faltered at the Wright State Invitational, where Deckard shot 80 in both rounds to pace OU. Deckard was the Pioneer medalist at the Tri-State Invitational and OU placed 11th of 16. Deckard shot a 74 on the first day, with an 81 on the second 18 holes. In sixth place after the first day, the Pioneers' score ballooned 32 strokes.

The Pioneers began to play well as they hit the season's half-way mark at the Motor City Invitational. OU finished fourth of 14 at the tough Hilltop Golf Club in Plymouth, Michigan. (Deckard's 80 was good for sixth overall.) The trend continued at the Ferris Golf Invitational where, led by the trio of Button, Bruttell and Deckard, Oakland finished sixth against tough competition and just six shots out of fourth place.

OU finished strong in the final two events, placing second of 10 at its own invitational at the Katke-Cousins Golf Course, nosing by Wayne State for the first time all year. Once more the OU trio of Bruttell, Deckard and Button topped the squad, all shooting in the 70s (77 for the first two, 79 for the latter). The final tournament, the GLIAC Championships, saw OU finish comfortably ahead of Northwood, Lake Superior State and Hillsdale for fourth place with a 958 score, 19 strokes better than last year's 977 total. Bruttell and Deckard each shot a pair of rounds in the 70s, Bruttell carding a 76 and a 74 enroute to a team low 231, while Deckard had a 77 and 78 on the way to a 237 score.

The season was the last of six solid ones under coach George Wibby, who steps down in favor of Ken Allard, now adding the title of golf coach to his assistant pro duties at the Katke-Cousins Golf Course. With Bruttell and Deckard back, Allard will take-over the program with a strong one-two punch.

TENNIS

TENNIS CRACKS .500 MARK AGAIN

In Gary Parsons' final season as tennis coach, the Oakland soccer mentor led the netmen to a 7 - 5 mark overall and a 3 - 3 record in the GLIAC. Parsons now gives up the reigns to newly named women's basketball coach Bob Taylor.

In finishing 7 - 5 for the second straight season, the OU netmen garnered wins over Siena Heights, Alma, Detroit and Macomb in addition to league wins against Lake Superior State, Michigan Tech and Hillsdale. The Pioneers were fifth overall after placing fourth in the league's regular season and sixth in the GLIAC tournament.

Seniors Mike Paolucci, Mike Karl and Sean McPhillips paced Oakland through the 1986 season. Paolucci was 4 - 6 at the number four singles spot (6 - 9 overall), but excelled at doubles, teaming with Eric Sahlin for a 6 - 2 record at number one. Overall as a doubles player, Paolucci was 10 - 5. Karl spent most of the season at number three singles, notching a 4 - 5 record. With a 6 - 7 record overall as a singles player, he was stronger as a doubles player. Pairing with Rob Martin, Karl was 9 - 2 at number two doubles. Two other doubles wins ran Karl's final doubles mark to 11 - 2, the best on the squad. McPhillips has the only winning singles record of the Pioneer's three seniors, running up a 7 - 5 mark at number five singles (8 - 7 total). McPhillips had a similar 8 - 7 doubles record, including 4 - 3 at number three with Phil Dawson.

Freshman Eric Sahlin and sophomore Rob Martin played numbers one and two singles for most of the year. Sahlin was 5 - 3 as a singles player and 6 - 2 at number one doubles with Paolucci before leaving the team at mid-season. Martin was a solid 7 - 6 as the number two singles player (8 - 7 overall), and teamed with Karl on the 9 - 2 second doubles unit. Overall at doubles, Martin had a team-leading 12 wins (12 - 3). Sophomore Phil Dawson and freshmen Tim Kade and Tom Segal combined for a 7 - 14 singles record at various spots to round out the squad, with Dawson notching five of those wins.

The main factor in OU being just 7 - 5 was the inability of the Pioneers to play as well at singles as they did in doubles. OU was an outstanding 29 - 14 (.675), as opposed to a 40 - 47 (.454) mark in singles play. While all three doubles positions had winning marks, only the number five singles spot, paced by McPhillips, had a winning mark (8 - 7).

The fourth place finish was OU's third straight such placing in GLIAC play, one they haven't exceeded since 1980. Now Parsons turns the program over to Taylor, giving the Pioneers new coaches in all three of its spring sports.

WOMEN'S TENNIS SQUAD LOOKS TO BOUNCE BACK

After a disappointing 1985 season that saw Oakland go 2 - 11 in dual meets and finish last in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, the Pioneers will try to crack back into the GLIAC's top half — a goal they haven't achieved since 1980's third place finish.

Top singles winners Julia Plevonia and Kelly Hayden lead the returning underclassmen for coach Donna Dickinson. Plevonia was 5 - 7 at the number six singles position and captured three doubles victories at number three with Bonna Andrus. Hayden was 4 - 8 at number four singles and, along with returning doubles partner Gretchen Ballen, captured a trio of wins at the number two doubles slot. Between the two, Plevonia and Hayden had a hand in 14 of OU's 21 individual wins.

The upper half of the Pioneer lineup did not fare as well as the bottom three. Ballen at number three singles — along with fellow sophomore Shelly Schram (number two) and number one singles player Sharon Gralowski — each had identical 2 - 12 marks. In addition, Gralowski (a senior) was winless at number one doubles with Schram as her partner.

Not since OU's three straight second place squads of the late '70s have the Pioneers challenged for the GLIAC crown. Dickinson is hoping to begin a steady climb back towards the top with this year's young team.

WOMEN'S TENNIS COACH

Donna Dickinson

Donna Dickinson is in her fifth year as head coach of the Pioneer women's tennis squad. OU has climbed as high as sixth in the GLIAC under Dickinson, its best finish since the 1980 season.

Dickinson has been affiliated with the sport of tennis for 14 years, 10 of those as program, activities and tournament director at the Claremont Tennis Club in Claremont, California, before moving to the Michigan area.

Now an employee at the Rochester Hills Racquet Club, Dickinson is an excellent organizer, having directed Upland High School in California to the boys' state championship soccer game. This graduate of San Diego State is determined to find the same success for the Pioneer women's tennis program.
